(d) An applicant's or license holder's failure or refusal to cooperate with the commissioner is reasonable cause to deny an application or immediately suspend, suspend, or revoke a license. Failure or refusal of an individual to cooperate with the study is just cause for denying or terminating employment of the individual if the individual's failure or refusal to cooperate could cause the applicant's application to be denied or the license holder's license to be immediately suspended, suspended, or revoked.

(e) The commissioner shall not consider an application to be complete until all of the information required to be provided under this subdivision has been received.

(f) No person in paragraph (a), clause (1), (2), (3), or (4) who is disqualified as a result of this act may be retained by the agency in a position involving direct contact with persons served by the program.

(g) The commissioner shall not implement the procedures contained in this subdivision until appropriate rules have been adopted, except for the applicants and license holders for child foster care, adult foster care, and family day care homes.

(h) Termination of persons in paragraph (a), clause (1), (2), (3), or (4) made in good faith reliance on a notice of disqualification provided by the commissioner shall not subject the applicant or license holder to civil liability.

(i) The commissioner may establish records to fulfill the requirements of this section. The information contained in the records is only available to the commissioner for the purpose authorized in this section.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245A.04, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [NOTIFICATION TO SUBJECT OF STUDY RESULTS.] The commissioner shall notify the applicant or license holder and the individual who is the subject of the study, in writing, of the results of the study. When the study is completed, a notice that the study was undertaken and completed shall be maintained in the personnel files of the program.

The commissioner shall notify the individual studied if the information contained in the study could cause disqualification indicates the individual is disqualified from direct contact with persons served by the program. The commissioner shall disclose the information to the individual studied. An applicant or license holder who is not the subject of the study shall be informed that the commissioner has found information that could cause disqualification of disqualifies the subject from direct contact with persons served by the program. However, the applicant or license holder shall not be told what that information is unless the data practices act provides for release of the information and the individual studied authorizes the release of the information.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245A.04, subdivision 3b, is amended to read:

Subd. 3b. [RECONSIDERATION OF DISQUALIFICATION.] (a) Within 30 days after receiving notice of possible disqualification under subdivision 3a, the individual who is the subject of the study may request reconsideration of the notice of possible disqualification. The individual must submit the request for reconsideration to the commissioner in writing. The individual must present information to show that:

- (1) the information the commissioner relied upon is incorrect; or
- (2) the subject of the study does not pose a risk of harm to any person served by the applicant or license holder.

(b) The commissioner may set aside the disqualification if the commissioner finds that the information the commissioner relied upon is incorrect or the individual does not pose a risk of harm to any person served by the applicant or license holder and rules adopted by the commissioner do not preclude reconsideration. The commissioner shall review the consequences of the event or events that could lead to disqualification, the vulnerability of the victim at the time of the event, the time elapsed without a repeat of the same or similar event, and documentation of successful completion by the individual studied of training or rehabilitation pertinent to the event.

(c) The commissioner shall respond in writing to all reconsideration requests within 15 working days after receiving the request for reconsideration. If the disqualification is set aside, the commissioner shall notify the applicant or license holder in writing of the decision.

(d) Except as provided in subdivision 3c, the commissioner's decision to grant or deny a reconsideration of disqualification under this subdivision, or to set aside or uphold the results of the study under subdivision 3, is the final administrative agency action.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245A.07, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [SUSPENSION, REVOCATION, PROBATION.] The commissioner may suspend, revoke, or make probationary a license if a license holder fails to comply fully with applicable laws or rules. A license holder who has had a license suspended, revoked, or made probationary must be given notice of the action by certified mail. The notice must be mailed to the address shown on the application or the last known address of the license holder. The notice must state the reasons the license was suspended, revoked, or made probationary and.

(a) If the license was suspended or revoked, the notice must inform the license holder of the right to a contested case hearing under chapter 14. The license holder may appeal an order suspending, or revoking, or making a license probationary by notifying the commissioner in writing by certified mail within ten calendar days after receiving notice that the license has been suspended, or revoked, or made probationary.

(b) If the license was made probationary, the notice must inform the license holder of the right to request a reconsideration by the commissioner. The request for reconsideration must be made in writing by certified mail within ten calendar days after receiving notice that the license has been made probationary. The license holder may submit with the request for reconsideration written argument or evidence in support of the request for reconsideration. The commissioner's disposition of a request for reconsideration is final, and is not subject to appeal under chapter 14.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245A.08, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [BURDEN OF PROOF.] (a) At a hearing regarding suspension, immediate suspension, or revocation, or making probationary of a license for family day care or foster care, the commissioner may demonstrate reasonable cause for action taken by submitting statements, reports, or affidavits to substantiate the allegations that the license holder failed to comply fully with applicable law or rule. If the commissioner demonstrates that reasonable cause existed, the burden of proof in hearings involving suspension, immediate suspension, or revocation, or making probationary of a family day care or foster care license shifts to the license holder to demonstrate by a preponderance of the evidence that the license holder was in full compliance with those laws or rules that the commissioner alleges the license holder violated, at the time that the commissioner alleges the violations of law or rules occurred.

(b) At a hearing on denial of an application, the applicant bears the burden of proof to demonstrate by a preponderance of the evidence that the appellant has complied fully with sections 245A.01 to 245A.15 and other applicable law or rule and that the application should be approved and a license granted.

(c) At all other hearings under this section, the commissioner bears the burden of proof to demonstrate, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the violations of law or rule alleged by the commissioner occurred.

Sec. 47. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245A.11, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [LOCATION OF RESIDENTIAL PROGRAMS.] In determining whether to grant a license, the commissioner shall specifically consider the population, size, land use plan, availability of community services, and the number and size of existing licensed residential programs in the town, municipality, or county in which the applicant seeks to operate a residential program. The commissioner shall not grant an initial license to any residential program if the residential program will be within 1,320 feet of an existing residential program unless one of the following conditions apply: (1) the existing residential program is located in a hospital licensed by the commissioner of health; or (2) the town, municipality, or county zoning authority grants the residential program a conditional use or special use permit. In cities of the first class, this subdivision applies even if a residential program is considered a permitted single-family residential use of property under subdivision 2. Foster care homes are exempt from this subdivision.

Sec. 48. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245A.12, is amended to read:

245A.12 [VOLUNTARY RECEIVERSHIP FOR RESIDENTIAL PROGRAMS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section and section 245A.13, the following terms have the meanings given them.

(a) "Controlling individual" has the meaning in section 245A.02, subdivision 5a. When used in this section and section 245A.13, it means only those individuals controlling the residential program prior to the commencement of the receivership period.

(b) "Physical plant" means the building or buildings in which a residential program is located; all equipment affixed to the building and not easily subject to transfer as specified in the building and fixed equipment tables of the depreciation guidelines; and auxiliary buildings in the nature of sheds, garages, and storage buildings located on the same site if used for purposes related to resident care.

(c) "Related party" means a person who is a close relative of a provider or a provider group; an affiliate of a provider or a provider group; a close relative of an affiliate of a provider or provider group; or an affiliate of a close relative of an affiliate of a provider or provider group. For the purposes of this paragraph, the following terms have the meanings given them.

(1) "Affiliate" means a person that directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with another person.

(2) "Person" means an individual, a corporation, a partnership, an association, a trust, an unincorporated organization, or a government or political subdivision.

(3) "Close relative of an affiliate of a provider or provider group" means an individual whose relationship by blood, marriage, or adoption to an individual who is an affiliate to a provider or a provider group is no more remote than first cousin.

(4) "Control" includes the terms "controlling," "controlled by," and "under common control with" and means the possession, direct or indirect, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management, operations, or policies of a person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract, or otherwise.

(5) "Provider or provider group" means the license holder or controlling individual prior to the effective date of the receivership.

Subd. 2. [RECEIVERSHIP AGREEMENT.] A majority of controlling individuals of a residential program may at any time ask the commissioner to assume operation of the residential program through appointment of a receiver. On receiving the request for a receiver, the commissioner may enter into an agreement with a majority of controlling individuals and provide for the appointment of a become the receiver to and operate the residential program under conditions acceptable to both the commissioner and the majority of controlling persons individuals. The agreement must specify the terms and conditions of the receivership and preserve the rights of the persons being served by the residential program. A receivership set up under this section terminates at the time specified by the parties to the agreement or 30 days after either of the parties gives written notice to the other party of termination of the receivership agreement.

Subd. 3. [MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT.] When the commissioner agrees to become the receiver of a residential program, the commissioner may enter into a management agreement with another entity or group to act as the managing agent during the receivership period. The managing agent will be responsible for the day-to-day operations of the residential program subject at all times to the review and approval of the commissioner. A reasonable fee may be paid to the managing agent for the performance of these services.

Subd. 4. [RATE ADJUSTMENT.] The provisions of section 245A.13, subdivisions 7 and 8, shall also apply to voluntary receiverships.

Subd. 5. [CONTROLLING INDIVIDUALS; RESTRICTIONS ON LICENSURE.] No controlling individual of a residential program placed into receivership under this section shall apply for or receive a license to operate a residential program for five years from the commencement of the receivership period. This subdivision does not apply to residential programs that are owned or operated by controlling individuals, that were in existence prior to the date of the receivership agreement, and that have not been placed into receivership.

Subd. 6. [LIABILITY.] The controlling individuals of a residential program placed into receivership remain liable for any claims made against the residential program that arose from incidents or events that occurred prior to the commencement of the receivership period. Neither the commissioner nor the managing agent of the commissioner assumes this liability.

Subd. 7. [LIABILITY FOR FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS.] Neither the commissioner nor the managing agent of the commissioner shall be liable for payment of any financial obligations of the residential program or of its controlling individuals incurred prior to the commencement of the receivership period unless such liability is expressly assumed in the receivership agreement. Those financial obligations remain the liability of the residential program and its controlling individuals. Financial obligations of the residential program incurred after the commencement of the receivership period are the responsibility of the commissioner or the managing agent of the commissioner to the extent such obligations are expressly assumed by each in the receivership or management agreements. The controlling individuals of the residential program remain liable for any financial obligations incurred after the commencement of the receivership period to the extent these obligations are not reimbursed in the rate paid to the residential program and are reasonable and necessary to the operation of the residential program. These financial obligations, or any other financial obligations incurred by the residential program prior to the commencement of the receivership period which are necessary to the continued operation of the residential program, may be deducted from any rental payments owed to the controlling individuals of the residential program as part of the receivership agreement.

Subd. 8. [PHYSICAL PLANT OF THE RESIDENTIAL PROGRAM.] Occupation of the physical plant after commencement of the receivership period shall be controlled by paragraphs (a) and (b).

(a) If the physical plant of a residential program placed in receivership is owned by a controlling individual or related party, the physical plant may be used by the commissioner or the managing agent for purposes of the receivership as long as the receivership period continues. A fair monthly rental for the physical plant shall be paid by the commissioner or managing agent to the owner of the physical plant. This fair monthly rental shall be determined by considering all relevant factors necessary to meet required arms-length obligations of controlling individuals such as the mortgage payments owed on the physical plant, the real estate taxes, special assessments, and the conditions of the physical plant. This rental shall not include any allowance for profit or be based on any formula that includes an allowance for profit.

(b) If the owner of the physical plant of a residential program placed in receivership is not a related party, the controlling individual shall continue as the lessee of the property. However, during the receivership period, rental payments shall be made to the owner of the physical plant by the commissioner or the managing agent on behalf of the controlling individual. Neither the commissioner nor the managing agent assumes the obligations of the lease unless expressly stated in the receivership agreement. Should the lease expire during the receivership, the commissioner or the managing agent may negotiate a new lease for the term of the receivership period.

Subd. 9. [RECEIVERSHIP ACCOUNTING.] The commissioner may use the medical assistance account and funds for receivership cash flow and accounting purposes.

Subd. 10. [RECEIVERSHIP COSTS.] The commissioner may use the accounts and funds that would have been available for the room and board, services, and program costs of persons in the residential program for costs, cash flow, and accounting purposes related to the receivership.

Sec. 49. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245A.13, is amended to read:

245A.13 [INVOLUNTARY RECEIVERSHIP FOR RESIDENTIAL PROGRAMS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] In addition to any other remedy provided by law, the commissioner may petition the district court in the county where the residential program is located for an order directing the controlling individuals of the residential program to show cause why the commissioner or the commissioner's designated representative should not be appointed receiver to operate the residential program. The petition to the district court must contain proof by affidavit: (1) that the commissioner has either begun license suspension or revocation proceedings, suspended or revoked a license, or has decided to deny an application for licensure of the residential program; or (2) it appears to the commissioner that the health, safety, or rights of the residents may be in jeopardy because of the manner in which the residential program may close, the residential program's financial condition, or violations committed by the residential program of federal or state laws or rules. If the license holder, applicant, or controlling individual operates more than one residential program, the commissioner's petition must specify and be limited to the residential program for which it seeks receivership. The affidavit submitted by the commissioner must set forth alternatives to receivership that have been considered, including rate adjustments. The order to show cause is returnable not less than five days after service is completed and must provide for personal service of a copy to the residential program administrator and to the persons designated as agents by the controlling individuals to accept service on their behalf.

Subd. 2. [APPOINTMENT OF RECEIVER; RENTAL.] If the court finds that involuntary receivership is necessary as a means of protecting the health, safety, or rights of persons being served by the residential program, the court shall appoint the commissioner as receiver to operate the residential program. In the event that no receiver can be found who meets the conditions of this section, the commissioner or commissioner's designated representative may serve as the receiver. The court shall determine a fair monthly rental for the physical plant, taking into account all relevant factors necessary to meet required arms-length obligations of controlling individuals such as mortgage payments, real estate taxes, special assessments, and the conditions of the physical plant. The rental fee must be paid by the receiver to the appropriate controlling individuals for each month that the receivership remains in effect. No payment made to a controlling individual by the receiver or any state agency during a period of involuntary receivership shall include any allowance for profit or be based on any formula that includes an allowance for profit. The commissioner as receiver may contract with another entity or group to act as the managing agent during the receivership period. The managing agent will be responsible for the day-to-day operations of the residential program subject at all times to the review and approval of the commissioner.

Subd. 3. [POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE RECEIVER.] Within 36 months after the receivership order, a the receiver appointed to operate a residential program during a period of involuntary receivership shall provide for the orderly transfer of the persons served by the residential program to other residential programs or make other provisions to protect their health, safety, and rights. The receiver or the managing agent shall correct or eliminate deficiencies in the residential program that the commissioner determines endanger the health, safety, or welfare of the persons being served by the residential program unless the correction or elimination of deficiencies involves major alteration in the structure of the physical plant. If the correction or elimination of the deficiencies requires major alterations in the structure of the physical plant, the receiver shall take actions designed to result in the immediate transfer of persons served by the residential program. During the period of the receivership, the receiver and the managing agent shall operate the residential program in a manner designed to preserve the health, safety, rights, adequate care, and supervision of the persons served by the residential program. The receiver or the managing agent may make contracts and incur lawful expenses. The receiver or the managing agent shall collect incoming payments from all sources and apply them to the cost incurred in the performance of the receiver's functions of the receivership including the receiver's fee set under subdivision 4. No security interest in any real or personal property comprising the residential program or contained within it, or in any fixture of the physical plant, shall be impaired or diminished in priority by the receiver or the managing agent. The receiver shall pay all valid obligations of the residential program and may deduct these expenses, if necessary, from rental payments owed to any controlling individual by virtue of the receivership.

Subd. 3a. [LIABILITY.] The provisions contained in section 245A.12, subdivision 6, shall also apply to receiverships ordered according to this section.

Subd. 3b. [LIABILITY FOR FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS.] The provisions contained in section 245A.12, subdivision 7, also apply to receiverships ordered according to this section.

Subd. 3c. [PHYSICAL PLANT OF THE RESIDENTIAL PROGRAM.] Occupation of the physical plant under an involuntary receivership shall be governed by paragraphs (a) and (b).

(a) The physical plant owned by a controlling individual of the residential program or related party must be made available for the use of the residential program throughout the receivership period. The court shall determine a fair monthly rental for the physical plant, taking into account all relevant factors necessary to meet required arms-length obligations of controlling individuals such as mortgage payments, real estate taxes, special assessments, and the conditions of the physical plant. The rental fee must be paid by the receiver to the appropriate controlling individuals or related parties for each month that the receivership remains in effect. No payment made to a controlling individual or related party by the receiver or the managing agent or any state agency during a period of the receivership shall include any allowance for profit or be based on any formula that includes an allowance for profit.

(b) If the owner of the physical plant of a residential program is not a related party, the court shall order the controlling individual to continue as the lessee of the property during the receivership period. Rental payments during the receivership period shall be made to the owner of the physical plant by the commissioner or the managing agent on behalf of the controlling individual.

Subd. 4. [RECEIVER'S FEE; LIABILITY; ASSISTANCE FROM THE COMMISSIONER.] A receiver appointed under an involuntary receivership or the managing agent is entitled to a reasonable receiver's fee as determined by the court. The receiver's fee is governed by section 256B.495. The receiver is liable only in an official capacity for injury to person and property by reason of the conditions of the residential program. The receiver is not personally liable, except for gross negligence and intentional acts.

Subd. 5. [TERMINATION.] An involuntary receivership terminates 36 months after the date on which it was ordered or at any other time designated by the court or when any of the following events occurs:

(1) the commissioner determines that the residential program's license application should be granted or should not be suspended or revoked;

(2) a new license is granted to the residential program; or

(3) the commissioner determines that all persons residing in the residential program have been provided with alternative residential programs; or

(4) the residential program closes.

Subd. 6. [EMERGENCY PROCEDURE.] If it appears from the petition filed under subdivision 1, from an affidavit or affidavits filed with the petition, or from testimony of witnesses under oath if the court determines it necessary, that there is probable cause to believe that an emergency exists in a residential program, the court shall issue a temporary order for appointment of a receiver within five days after receipt of the petition. Notice of the petition must be served on the residential program administrator and on the persons designated as agents by the controlling individuals to accept service on their behalf. A hearing on the petition must be held within five days after notice is served unless the administrator or designated agent consents to a later date. After the hearing, the court may continue, modify, or terminate the temporary order.

Subd. 7. [RATE RECOMMENDATION.] The commissioner of human services may review rates of a residential program participating in the medical assistance program which is in involuntary receivership and that has needs or deficiencies documented by the department of health or the department of human services. If the commissioner of human services determines that a review of the rate established under section 256B.501 is needed, the commissioner shall:

(1) review the order or determination that cites the deficiencies or needs; and

(2) determine the need for additional staff, additional annual hours by type of employee, and additional consultants, services, supplies, equipment, repairs, or capital assets necessary to satisfy the needs or deficiencies.

Subd. 8. [ADJUSTMENT TO THE RATE.] Upon review of rates under subdivision 7, the commissioner may adjust the residential program's payment rate. The commissioner shall review the circumstances, together with the residential program cost report, to determine whether or not the deficiencies or needs can be corrected or met by reallocating residential program staff, costs, revenues, or other resources including any investments, efficiency incentives, or allowances. If the commissioner determines that any deficiency cannot be corrected or the need cannot be met with the payment rate currently being paid, the commissioner shall determine the payment rate adjustment by dividing the additional annual costs established during the commissioner's review by the residential program's actual resident days from the most recent desk-audited cost report or the estimated resident days in the projected receivership period. The payment rate adjustment must meet the conditions in Minnesota Rules, parts 9553.0010 to 9553.0080, and remains in effect during the period of the receivership or until another date set by the commissioner. Upon the subsequent sale or transfer of the residential program, the commissioner may recover amounts that were paid as payment rate adjustments under this subdivision. The buyer or transferee shall repay this amount to the commissioner within 60 days after the commissioner notifies the buyer or transferee of the obligation to repay. This provision does not limit the liability of the seller to the commissioner pursuant to section 256B.0641.

Subd. 9. [RECEIVERSHIP ACCOUNTING.] The commissioner may use the medical assistance account and funds for receivership cash flow and accounting purposes.

Subd. 10. [RECEIVERSHIP COSTS.] The commissioner may use the accounts and funds that would have been available for the room and board, services, and program costs of persons in the residential program for costs, cash flow, and accounting purposes related to the receivership.

Sec. 50. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245A.14, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PERMITTED SINGLE-FAMILY RESIDENTIAL USE.] A licensed nonresidential program with a licensed capacity of 12 or fewer persons and a group family day care facility licensed under Minnesota Rules, parts 9502.0315 to 9502.0445, to serve 14 or fewer children shall be considered a permitted single-family residential use of property for the purposes of zoning and other land use regulations.

Sec. 51. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245A.14, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PERMITTED MULTIFAMILY USE.] Unless Except as otherwise provided in subdivision 1 or in a town, municipal, or county regulation, a licensed nonresidential program with a licensed capacity of 13 to 16 persons shall be considered a permitted multifamily residential use of property for purposes of zoning. A town, municipal, or county zoning authority may require a conditional use or special use permit in order to assure proper maintenance and operation of the program. Conditions imposed on the nonresidential program must not be more restrictive than those imposed on other conditional uses or special uses of residential property in the same zones unless the additional conditions are necessary to protect the health and safety of the persons being served by the nonresidential program. Nothing in sections 245A.01 to 245A.16 shall be construed to exclude or prohibit nonresidential programs from single-family zones if otherwise permitted by local zoning regulations.

Sec. 52. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245A.16, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY TO AGENCIES.] (a) County agencies and private agencies that have been designated or licensed by the commissioner to perform licensing functions and activities under section 245A.04, to recommend denial of applicants under section 245A.05, to ~~recommend~~ issue correction orders and recommend fines under section 245A.06, or to recommend suspending, revoking, and making licenses probationary under section 245A.07, shall comply with rules and directives of the commissioner governing those functions and with this section.

(b) By January 1, 1991, the commissioner shall study and make recommendations to the legislature regarding the licensing and provision of support services to child foster homes. In developing the recommendations, the commissioner shall consult licensed private agencies, county agencies, and licensed foster home providers.

Sec. 53. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245A.16, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [ENFORCEMENT OF THE COMMISSIONER'S ORDERS.] The county or private agency shall enforce the commissioner's orders under sections 245A.07 and 245A.08, subdivision 5, according to the instructions of the commissioner. The county attorney shall assist the county agency in the enforcement and defense of the commissioner's orders under sections 245A.07 and 245A.08 according to the instructions of the commissioner, unless a conflict of interest exists between the county attorney and the commissioner.

Sec. 54. [245A.17] [SEAT BELT USE REQUIRED.]

(a) When a nonresidential license holder provides or arranges for transportation for children served by the license holder, children four years old and older must be restrained by a properly adjusted and fastened seat belt and children under age four must be properly fastened in a child passenger restraint system meeting federal motor vehicle safety standards. A child passenger restraint system is not required for a child who, in the judgment of a licensed physician, cannot be safely transported in a child passenger restraint system because of a medical condition, body size, or physical disability, if the license holder possesses a written statement from the physician that satisfies the requirements in section 169.685, subdivision 5, paragraph (b).

(b) Paragraph (a) does not apply to transportation of children in a school bus inspected under section 169.451 that has a gross vehicle weight rating of more than 10,000 pounds, is designed for carrying more than ten persons, and was manufactured after 1977.

Sec. 55. [STUDY OF SEAT BELT REQUIREMENTS.]

The commissioner of human services with the assistance of the commissioners of education and public safety shall study and make recommendations to the 1991 legislature for standards for the transportation of children by nonresidential programs licensed by the commissioner of human services.

Sec. 56. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 252.27, as amended by Laws 1989, chapter 282, article 2, section 92, is amended to read:

252.27 [COST OF BOARDING CARE OUTSIDE OF HOME OR

INSTITUTION PARENTAL CONTRIBUTION FOR THE COST OF CHILDREN'S SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [COUNTY RESPONSIBILITY.] Whenever any child who has mental retardation or a related condition, or a physical or emotional handicap is in 24-hour care outside the home including respite care, in a facility licensed by the commissioner of human services, the cost of care services shall be paid by the county of financial responsibility determined pursuant to chapter 256G. If the child's parents or guardians do not reside in this state, the cost shall be paid by the responsible governmental agency in the state from which the child came, by the parents or guardians of the child if they are financially able, or, if no other payment source is available, by the commissioner of human services.

Subd. 1a. [DEFINITIONS.] A person has a "related condition" if that person has a severe, chronic disability that is (a) attributable to cerebral palsy, epilepsy, autism, Prader-Willi syndrome, or any other condition, other than mental illness, found to be closely related to mental retardation because the condition results in impairment of general intellectual functioning or adaptive behavior similar to that of persons with mental retardation or requires treatment or services similar to those required for persons with mental retardation; (b) is likely to continue indefinitely; and (c) results in substantial functional limitations in three or more of the following areas of major life activity: self-care, understanding and use of language, learning, mobility, self-direction, or capacity for independent living. For the purposes of this section, a child has an "emotional handicap" if the child has a psychiatric or other emotional disorder which substantially impairs the child's mental health and requires 24-hour treatment or supervision.

Subd. 2. [PARENTAL RESPONSIBILITY.] Responsibility of the parents for the cost of care services shall be based upon ability to pay. The state agency shall adopt rules to determine responsibility of the parents for the cost of care services when:

- (a) Insurance or other health care benefits pay some but not all of the cost of care services; and
- (b) No insurance or other health care benefits are available.

Subd. 2a. [CONTRIBUTION AMOUNT.] (a) The natural or adoptive parents of a minor child, including a child determined eligible for medical assistance without consideration of parental income, must contribute monthly to the cost of services, unless the child is married or has been married, parental rights have been terminated, or the child's adoption is subsidized according to section 259.40 or through title IV-E of the Social Security Act.

- (b) The parental contribution equals the following percentage of that portion of the income of the natural or adoptive parents that exceeds 200 percent of the federal poverty guidelines for the applicable household size:

Adjusted Gross Income	Percentage contribution exceeding 200 percent of poverty
Under $40,000	0
$40,000 to $49,999	10
$50,000 to $59,999	12
$60,000 to $74,999	14
$75,000 or more	15

If the child lives with the parent, the parental contribution is reduced by $200. If the child resides in an institution specified in section 256B.35, the parent is responsible for the personal needs allowance specified under that section in addition to the parental contribution determined under this section. The parental contribution is reduced by any amount required to be paid directly to the child pursuant to a court order, but only if actually paid.

(c) The household size to be used in determining the amount of contribution under paragraph (b) includes natural and adoptive parents and their dependents under age 21, including the child receiving services. Adjustments in the contribution amount due to annual changes in the federal poverty guidelines shall be implemented on the first day of July following publication of the changes.

(d) For purposes of paragraph (b), "income" means the adjusted gross income of the natural or adoptive parents determined according to the previous year's federal tax form.

(e) The contribution shall be explained in writing to the parents at the time eligibility for services is being determined. The contribution shall be made on a monthly basis effective with the first month in which the child receives services. Annually upon redetermination or at termination of eligibility, if the contribution exceeded the cost of services provided, the local agency or the state shall reimburse that excess amount to the parents, either by direct reimbursement if the parent is no longer required to pay a contribution, or by a reduction in or waiver of parental fees until the excess amount is exhausted.

(f) The monthly contribution amount must be reviewed at least every 12 months; when there is a change in household size; and when there is a loss of or gain in income from one month to another in excess of ten percent. The local agency shall mail a written notice 30 days in advance of the effective date of a change in the contribution amount. A decrease in the contribution amount is effective in the month that the parent verifies a reduction in income or change in household size.

(g) Parents of a minor child who do not live with each other shall each pay the contribution required under paragraph (a), except that a court-ordered child support payment actually paid on behalf of the child receiving services shall be deducted from the contribution of the parent making the payment.

(h) The contribution under paragraph (b) shall be increased by an additional five percent if the local agency determines that insurance coverage is available but not obtained for the child. For purposes of this section, "available" means the insurance is a benefit of employment for a family member at an annual cost of no more than five percent of the family's annual income. For purposes of this section, insurance means health and accident insurance coverage, enrollment in a nonprofit health service plan, health maintenance organization, self-insured plan, or preferred provider organization.

Parents who have more than one child in out-of-home care receiving services shall not be required to pay more than the amount for one the child in out-of-home care. In no event shall the parents be required to pay more than five percent of their income as defined in section 290A-03, subdivision 3 with the highest expenditures. There shall be no resource contribution from the parents. The parent shall not be required to pay a contribution in excess of the cost of the services provided to the child, not counting payments made to school districts for education-related services. Notice of an increase in fee payment must be given at least 30 days before the increased fee is due.

Subd. 2b. [CHILD'S RESPONSIBILITY.] Responsibility of the child for the cost of care shall be up to the maximum amount of the total income and resources attributed to the child except for the clothing and personal needs allowance as provided in section 256B.35, subdivision 1. Reimbursement by the parents and child shall be made to the county making any payments for care and treatment services. The county board may require payment of the full cost of caring for children whose parents or guardians do not reside in this state.

To the extent that a child described in subdivision 1 is eligible for benefits under chapter 62A, 62C, 62D, 62E, or 64B, the county is not liable for the cost of care services. A parent or legal guardian who discontinues payment of health insurance premiums, subscriber fees or enrollment fees for a child who is otherwise eligible for those benefits is ineligible for payment of the cost of care of that child under this section.

The commissioner's determination shall be conclusive in any action to enforce payment of the cost of care. Any appeals from the commissioner's determination shall be made pursuant to section 256.045, subdivisions 2 and 3.

Subd. 2c. [APPEALS.] A parent may appeal the determination of an obligation to make a contribution under this section, according to section 256.045.

Subd. 3. [CIVIL ACTIONS.] If the parent fails to make appropriate reimbursement as required in subdivision 2, the county attorney may initiate a civil action to collect any unpaid reimbursement 2a and 2b, the attorney general, at the request of the commissioner, may institute or direct the appropriate county attorney to institute civil action to recover the required reimbursement.

Subd. 4. [ORDER OF PAYMENT.] If the parental contribution is for reimbursement for the cost of services to both the local agency and the medical assistance program, the local agency shall be reimbursed for its expenses first and the remainder must be deposited in the medical assistance account.

Subdivision 1. [MATERNAL AND CHILD SERVICE PROGRAMS.] The commissioner shall fund maternal and child health and social service programs designed to improve the health and functioning of children born to mothers using alcohol and controlled substances. Comprehensive programs shall include immediate and ongoing intervention, treatment, and coordination of medical, educational, and social services through a child's preschool years. Programs shall also include research and evaluation to identify methods most effective in improving outcomes among this high-risk population.

Subd. 2. [CHILD PROTECTION PROGRAMS.] The commissioner shall fund innovative child protection programs for children and families at risk due to substance abuse. Funding of a program under this subdivision must result in (1) earlier intervention; (2) the provision of in-home supervision; and (3) case management of all services required. Programs must also include research and evaluation to identify methods most effective in child protection services for this high-risk population.

Subd. 3. [STATEWIDE DETOXIFICATION TRANSPORTATION PROGRAM.] The commissioner shall provide grants to counties, Indian reservations, other nonprofit agencies, or local detoxification programs for provision of transportation of intoxicated individuals to detoxification programs.

Sec. 58. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 254B.03, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [DIVISION OF COSTS.] Except for services provided by a county under section 254B.09, subdivision 1, or services provided under section 256B.69 or 256D.03, subdivision 4, paragraph (b), the county shall, out of local money, pay the state for 15 percent of the cost of chemical dependency services, including those services provided to persons eligible for medical assistance under chapter 256B and general assistance medical care under chapter 256D. Counties may use the indigent hospitalization levy for treatment and hospital payments made under this section. Fifteen percent of any state collections from private or third-party pay, less 15 percent of the cost of payment and collections, must be distributed to the county that paid for a portion of the treatment under this section. If all funds allocated according to section 254B.02 are exhausted by a county and the county has met or exceeded the base level of expenditures under section 254B.02, subdivision 3, the county shall pay the state for 15 percent of the costs paid by the state under this section. The commissioner may refuse to pay state funds for services to persons not eligible under section 254B.04, subdivision 1, if the county financially responsible for the persons has exhausted its allocation.

Sec. 59. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 254B.04, as amended by Laws 1989, chapter 282, article 2, section 106, is amended to read:

254B.04 [ELIGIBILITY FOR CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY FUND SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBILITY.] (a) Persons eligible for benefits under sections 256D.01 to 256D.21, or for federal benefits under Code of Federal Regulations, title 25, part 20, and persons eligible for federal health care medical assistance benefits under sections 256B.055, and 256B.056, and 256B.06 or who meet the income standards of section 256B.056, subdivision 4, and persons eligible for general assistance medical care under section 256D.03, subdivision 3 are entitled to chemical dependency fund services.

(b) A person not entitled to services under paragraph (a), but with family income that is less than 60 percent of the state median income for a family of like size and composition, shall be eligible to receive chemical dependency fund services within the limit of funds available after persons entitled to services under paragraph (a) have been served. A county may spend money from its own sources to serve persons under this paragraph.

(c) Persons whose income is between 60 percent and 115 percent of the state median income shall be eligible for chemical dependency services on a sliding fee basis, within the limit of funds available, after persons entitled to services under paragraph (a) and persons eligible for services under paragraph (b) have been served. Persons eligible under this paragraph must contribute to the cost of services according to the sliding fee scale established under subdivision 3. A county may spend money from its own sources to provide services to persons under this paragraph.

Subd. 3. [AMOUNT OF CONTRIBUTION.] The commissioner shall adopt a sliding fee scale to determine the amount of contribution to be required from persons whose income is greater than the standard of assistance under sections 256B.055, 256B.056, 256B.06, and 256D.01 to 256D.21 under this section. The commissioner may adopt rules to amend existing fee scales. The commissioner may establish a separate fee scale for recipients of chemical dependency transitional and extended care rehabilitation services that provides for the collection of fees for board and lodging expenses. The fee schedule shall ensure that employed persons are allowed the income disregards and savings accounts that are allowed residents of community mental illness facilities under section 256D.06, subdivisions 1 and 1b. The fee scale must not provide assistance to persons whose income is more than 115 percent of the state median income. Payments of liabilities under this section are medical expenses for purposes of determining spend-down under sections 256B.055, 256B.056, 256B.06, and 256D.01 to 256D.21. The required amount of contribution established by the fee scale in this subdivision is also the cost of care responsibility subject to collection under section 254B.06, subdivision 1.

Sec. 60. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 254B.08, is amended to read:

The commissioner shall apply for any federal waivers necessary to secure, to the extent allowed by law, federal financial participation for the provision of services to persons who need chemical dependency services. The commissioner may seek amendments to the waivers or apply for additional waivers to contain costs. The commissioner shall ensure that payment for the cost of providing chemical dependency services under the federal waiver plan does not exceed the cost of chemical dependency services that would have been provided without the waived services.

Notwithstanding sections 254B.04 and 256B.02, subdivision 8, clause (18), and rules adopted under section 254B.03, subdivision 5, persons eligible under sections 256B.055, 256B.056, and 256B.06 for medical assistance benefits shall not be eligible for services reimbursed through the consolidated chemical dependency fund, except for transitional rehabilitation, extended care programs, and culturally specific programs as defined by Minnesota Rules, part 9530.6605, subpart 13, until the federal Social Security Act, section 2108 (1915B), program waivers are secured. Until the necessary federal program waivers are secured, persons eligible for medical assistance benefits under sections 256B.055, 256B.056, and 256B.06 shall be eligible for chemical dependency treatment services under sections 256B.02, subdivision 8, and 256B.0625.

Sec. 61. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.74, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT.] The amount of assistance which shall be granted to or on behalf of any dependent child and mother or other needy eligible relative caring for the dependent child shall be determined by the county agency in accordance with rules promulgated by the commissioner and shall be sufficient, when added to all other income and support available to the child, to provide the child with a reasonable subsistence compatible with decency and health. The amount shall be based on the method of budgeting required in Public Law Number 97-35, section 2315, United States Code, title 42, section 602, as amended and federal regulations at Code of Federal Regulations, title 45, section 233. Nonrecurring lump sum income received by an assistance unit must be budgeted in the normal retrospective cycle. The number of months of ineligibility is determined by dividing the amount of the lump sum income and all other income, after application of the applicable disregards, by the standard of need for the assistance unit. An amount remaining after this calculation is income in the first month of eligibility. If the total monthly income including the lump sum income is larger than the standard of need for a single month the first month of ineligibility is the payment month that corresponds with the budget month in which the lump sum income was received. In making its determination the county agency shall disregard the following from family income:

(1) all of the earned income of each dependent child receiving aid to families with dependent children who is a full-time student or part-time student, and not a full-time employee, attending a school, college, or university, or a course of vocational or technical training designed to fit students for gainful employment as well as all the earned income derived from the job training and partnership act (JTPA) for a dependent child for six calendar months per year, together with unearned income derived from the job training and partnership act;

(2) all educational grants and loans;

(3) the first $90 of each individual's earned income. For self-employed persons, the expenses directly related to producing goods and services and without which the goods and services could not be produced shall be disregarded pursuant to rules promulgated by the commissioner;

(4) thirty dollars plus one-third of each individual's earned income for individuals found otherwise eligible to receive aid or who have received aid in one of the four months before the month of application. With respect to any month, the county welfare agency shall not disregard under this clause any earned income of any person who has: (a) reduced earned income without good cause within 30 days preceding any month in which an assistance payment is made; (b) refused without good cause to accept an offer of suitable employment; (c) left employment or reduced earnings without good cause and applied for assistance so as to be able later to return to employment with the advantage of the income disregard; or (d) failed without good cause to make a timely report of earned income in accordance with rules promulgated by the commissioner of human services. Persons who are already employed and who apply for assistance shall have their needs computed with full account taken of their earned and other income. If earned and other income of the family is less than need, as determined on the basis of public assistance standards, the county agency shall determine the amount of the grant by applying the disregard of income provisions. The county agency shall not disregard earned income for persons in a family if the total monthly earned and other income exceeds their needs, unless for any one of the four preceding months their needs were met in whole or in part by a grant payment. The disregard of $30 and one-third of earned income in this clause shall be applied to the individual's income for a period not to exceed four consecutive months. Any month in which the individual loses this disregard because of the provisions of subclauses (a) to (d) shall be considered as one of the four months. An additional $30 work incentive must be available for an eight-month period beginning in the month following the last month of the combined $30 and one-third work incentive. This period must be in effect whether or not the person has earned income or is eligible for AFDC. To again qualify for the earned income disregards under this clause, the individual must not be a recipient of aid for a period of 12 consecutive months. When an assistance unit becomes ineligible for aid due to the fact that these disregards are no longer applied to income, the assistance unit shall be eligible for medical assistance benefits for a 12-month period beginning with the first month of AFDC ineligibility;

(5) an amount equal to the actual expenditures for the care of each dependent child or incapacitated individual living in the same home and receiving aid, not to exceed: (a) $175 for each individual age two and older, and $200 for each individual under the age of two, when the family member whose needs are included in the eligibility determination is employed for 30 or more hours per week; or (b) $174 for each individual age two or older, and $199 for each individual under the age of two, when the family member whose needs are included in the eligibility determination is not employed throughout the month or when employment is less than 30 hours per week. The dependent care disregard must be applied after all other disregards under this subdivision have been applied;

(6) the first $50 per assistance unit of the monthly support obligation collected by the support and recovery (IV-D) unit. The first $50 of periodic support payments collected by the public authority responsible for child support enforcement from a person with a legal obligation to pay support for a member of the assistance unit must be paid to the assistance unit within 15 days after the end of the month in which the collection of the periodic support payments occurred and must be disregarded when determining the amount of assistance. A review of a payment decision under this clause must be requested within 30 days after receiving the notice of collection of assigned support, or within 90 days after receiving the notice if good cause can be shown for not making the request within the 30-day limit;

(7) that portion of an insurance settlement earmarked and used to pay medical expenses, funeral and burial costs, or to repair or replace insured property; and

(8) all earned income tax credit payments received by the family as a refund of federal income taxes or made as advance payments by an employer.

Sec. 62. [256.9791] [MEDICAL SUPPORT BONUS INCENTIVES.]

Subdivision 1. [BONUS INCENTIVE.] (a) A bonus incentive program is created to increase the identification and enforcement by county agencies of dependent health insurance coverage for persons who are receiving medical assistance under section 256B.055 and for whom the county agency is providing child support enforcement services.

(b) The bonus shall be awarded to a county child support agency for each person for whom coverage is identified and enforced by the child support enforcement program when the obligor is under a court order to provide dependent health insurance coverage.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purpose of this section, the following definitions apply.

(a) "Case" means a family unit that is receiving medical assistance under section 256B.055 and for whom the county agency is providing child support enforcement services.

(b) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of the department of human services.

(c) "County agency" means the county child support enforcement agency.

(d) "Coverage" means initial dependent health insurance benefits for a case or individual member of a case.

(e) "Enforce" or "enforcement" means obtaining proof of current or future dependent health insurance coverage through an overt act by the county agency.

(f) “Enforceable order” means a child support court order containing the statutory language in section 518.171 or other language ordering an obligor to provide dependent health insurance coverage.

(g) “Identify” or “identification” means obtaining proof of dependent health insurance coverage through an overt act by the county agency.

Subd. 3. [ELIGIBILITY; REPORTING REQUIREMENTS.] (a) In order for a county to be eligible to claim a bonus incentive payment, the county agency must report to the commissioner, no later than August 1 of each fiscal year, the number of cases as of June 30 of the preceding fiscal year in which (1) the court has established an obligation for coverage by the obligor and (2) coverage was in effect as of June 30. The ratio resulting when the number of cases reported under (2) is divided by the number of cases reported under (1) shall be used to determine the amount of the bonus incentive according to subdivision 4.

(b) A county that fails to submit the required information by August 1 of each fiscal year is not eligible for any bonus payments under this section for that fiscal year.

Subd. 4. [RATE OF BONUS INCENTIVE.] The rate of the bonus incentive shall be determined according to paragraphs (a) to (c).

(a) When a county agency has identified or enforced coverage in up to and including 50 percent of its cases, the county shall receive $15 for each additional person for whom coverage is identified or enforced.

(b) When a county agency has identified or enforced coverage in more than 50 percent but less than 80 percent of its cases, the county shall receive $20 for each person for whom coverage is identified or enforced.

(c) When a county agency has identified or enforced coverage in 80 percent or more of its cases, the county shall receive $25 for each person for whom coverage is identified or enforced.

(d) Bonus payments according to paragraphs (a) to (c) are limited to one bonus for each covered person each time the county agency identifies or enforces previously unidentified health insurance coverage and apply only to coverage identified or enforced after the effective date of this section.

Subd. 5. [CLAIMS FOR BONUS INCENTIVE.] (a) Beginning

July 1, 1990, county agencies shall file a claim for a medical support bonus payment by reporting to the commissioner the following information for each case where dependent health insurance is identified or enforced as a result of an overt act of the county agency:

(1) child support enforcement system case number or county specific case number;

(2) names and dates of birth for each person covered; and

(3) the effective date of coverage.

(b) The report must be made upon enrollment in coverage but no later than September 30 for coverage identified or established during the preceding fiscal year.

(c) The county agency making the initial contact resulting in the establishment of coverage is the county agency entitled to claim the bonus incentive even if the case is transferred to another county agency prior to the time coverage is established.

(d) Disputed claims must be submitted to the commissioner and the commissioner's decision is final.

Subd. 6. [DISTRIBUTION.] (a) Bonus incentives must be issued to the county agency quarterly, within 45 days after the last day of each quarter for which a bonus incentive is being claimed, and must be paid up to the limit of the appropriation in the order in which claims are received.

(b) Total bonus incentives must be computed by multiplying the number of persons included in claims submitted in accordance with this section by the applicable bonus payment as determined in subdivision 4.

(c) The county agency must repay any bonus erroneously issued.

(d) A county agency must maintain a record of bonus incentives claimed and received for each quarter.

Sec. 63. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256E.06, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FORMULA LIMITATION.] The amounts computed pursuant to subdivision 1 shall be subject to the following limitations:

(a) No county shall be allocated more than 130 percent of the amount received prior to any penalty imposed under subdivision 7 in the immediately preceding year. If the amount allocated to any county pursuant to subdivision 1 is greater than this amount, the excess shall be reallocated to all counties in direct proportion to their initial allocations.

(b) Each county shall be guaranteed a percentage increase over the previous year's allocation equal to 0.2 percent for each percentage increase in the statewide allocation, up to a maximum guaranteed increase of one percent when the statewide allocation increases by five percent or more. If the amount allocated to any county pursuant to subdivision 1 is less than this amount, the shortage shall be recovered from all counties in direct proportion to their initial allocations.

(c) If the amount to be allocated statewide in any year is less than the amount allocated in the previous year, then the provisions of clause (b) shall not apply, and each county's allocation shall be equal to its previous year's allocation reduced by the same percentage that the statewide allocation was reduced.

(d) For the purpose of calculating the 1991 community social services act allocation, the 1990 allocation must be increased by the following amounts: $46,487 for Crow Wing county, $21,995 for Fillmore county, $5,368 for Hubbard county, $24,225 for Lac Qui Parle county, and $4,444 for Red Lake county.

Sec. 64. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256E.06, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [FAILURE TO LEVY.] A county which levies less than the levy required in subdivision 5, shall receive a reduction in the aid calculated pursuant to subdivisions 1 and 2. The commissioner shall calculate the reduced aid as follows:

(a) Divide the amount levied by the amount required to be levied in subdivision 5; and

(b) Multiply the ratio derived in clause (a) times the aid calculated under subdivision subdivisions 1 and 2.

The amount of the reduction in aid shall be returned to the general fund. The reduction in aid imposed under this subdivision shall be effective for one year, and aid in the following year shall be calculated under subdivisions 1 and 2 as though the reduction had not occurred. This provision applies to penalties imposed for the year 1989 and all subsequent years.

Sec. 65. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 257.57, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. A child, the child's biological mother, or a man presumed to be the child's father under section 257.55, subdivision 1, clause (a), (b), or (c) may bring an action:

(a) At any time for the purpose of declaring the existence of the father and child relationship presumed under section 257.55, subdivision 1, clause (a), (b), or (c); or

(b) Within three years after the child's birth for the purpose of declaring the nonexistence of the father and child relationship presumed under section 257.55, subdivision 1, clause (a), (b), or (c). However, if the presumed father was divorced from the child's mother after service by publication, and, if, on or before the 280th day after the judgment and decree of divorce or dissolution became final, he did not know that the child was born during the marriage or within 280 days after the marriage was terminated, the action is not barred until one year after the child reaches the age of majority or one year after the presumed father knows or reasonably should have known of the birth of the child, whichever is earlier. After the presumption has been rebutted, paternity of the child by another man may be determined in the same action, if he has been made a party.

Sec. 66. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 462.357, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [PERMITTED SINGLE FAMILY USE.] A state licensed residential facility serving six or fewer persons or, a licensed day care facility serving 12 or fewer persons, and a group family day care facility licensed under Minnesota Rules, parts 9502.0315 to 9502.0445 to serve 14 or fewer children shall be considered a permitted single family residential use of property for the purposes of zoning.

Sec. 67. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 462.357, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [PERMITTED MULTIFAMILY USE.] ~~Unless~~ Except as otherwise provided in subdivision 7 or in any town, municipal or county zoning regulation as authorized by this subdivision, a state licensed residential facility serving from 7 through 16 persons or a licensed day care facility serving from 13 through 16 persons shall be considered a permitted multifamily residential use of property for purposes of zoning. A township, municipal or county zoning authority may require a conditional use or special use permit in order to assure proper maintenance and operation of a facility, provided that no conditions shall be imposed on the facility which are more restrictive than those imposed on other conditional uses or special uses of residential property in the same zones, unless the additional conditions are necessary to protect the health and safety of the residents of the residential facility. Nothing herein shall be construed to exclude or prohibit residential or day care facilities from single family zones if otherwise permitted by a local zoning regulation.

Sec. 68. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518.54, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [DEPOSIT ACCOUNT.] “Deposit account” means funds deposited with a financial institution in the form of a savings account, checking account, NOW account, or demand deposit account.

Sec. 69. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518.54, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2b. [FINANCIAL INSTITUTION.] “Financial institution” means a savings association, bank, trust company, credit union, industrial loan and thrift company, bank and trust company, or building and loan association, and includes a branch or detached facility of a financial institution.

Sec. 70. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518.551, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PAYMENT TO PUBLIC AGENCY.] The court shall direct that all payments ordered for maintenance and support be made to the public agency responsible for child support enforcement so long as the obligee is receiving or has applied for public assistance, or has applied for child support and maintenance collection services. Public authorities responsible for child support enforcement may act on behalf of other public authorities responsible for child support enforcement. This includes the authority to represent the legal interests of or execute documents on behalf of the other public authority in connection with the establishment, enforcement, and collection of child support, maintenance, or medical support, and collection on judgments. Amounts received by the public agency responsible for child support enforcement greater than the amount granted to the obligee shall be remitted to the obligee.

Sec. 71. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518.551, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [NOTICE TO PUBLIC AUTHORITY; GUIDELINES.] (a) The petitioner shall notify the public authority of all proceedings for dissolution, legal separation, determination of parentage or for the custody of a child, if either party is receiving aid to families with dependent children or applies for it subsequent to the commencement of the proceeding. After receipt of the notice, the court shall set child support as provided in this subdivision. The court may order either or both parents owing a duty of support to a child of the marriage to pay an amount reasonable or necessary for the child's support, without regard to marital misconduct. The court shall approve a child support agreement of the parties if each party is represented by independent counsel, unless the agreement is not in the interest of justice. In other cases the court shall determine and order child support in a specific dollar amount in accordance with the guidelines and the other factors set forth in paragraph (b) and any departure therefrom.

The court shall multiply derive a specific dollar amount by multiplying the obligor's net income by the percentage indicated by the following guidelines:

Net Income Per Month of Obligor	Number of Children
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7 or more
$400 and Below	Order based on the ability of the obligor to provide support at these income levels, or at higher levels, if the obligor has the earning ability.

$1001- 4000	25%	30%	35%	39%	43%	47%	50%

Guidelines for support for an obligor with a monthly income of $4,001 or more shall be the same dollar amounts as provided for in the guidelines for an obligor with a monthly income of $4,000.

Net Income defined as:

Total monthly income less

- *(i) Federal Income Tax
- *(ii) State Income Tax
- (iii) Social Security
Deductions
- (iv) Reasonable
Pension Deductions

*Standard Deductions apply-use of tax tables recommended

- (v) Union Dues
- (vi) Cost of Dependent
Insurance Coverage
- (vii) Cost of Individual or Group
Health/Hospitalization Coverage or an Amount for Actual Medical Expenses
- (viii) A Child Support or Maintenance Order that is Currently Being Paid.

“Net income” does not include the income of the obligor’s spouse, but does include in-kind payments received by the obligor in the course of employment, self-employment, or operation of a business if the payments reduce the obligor’s living expenses.

(b) In addition to the child support guidelines, the court shall take into consideration the following factors in setting or modifying child support:

(1) all earnings, income, and resources of the parents, including real and personal property;

(2) the financial needs and resources, physical and emotional condition, and educational needs of the child or children to be supported;

(3) the standards of living the child would have enjoyed had the marriage not been dissolved, but recognizing that the parents now have separate households;

(4) the amount of the aid to families with dependent children grant for the child or children;

(5) which parent receives the income taxation dependency exemption and what financial benefit the parent receives from it; and

(6) the parents’ debts as provided in paragraph (c).

(c) In establishing or modifying a support obligation, the court may consider debts owed to private creditors, but only if:

(1) the right to support has not been assigned under section 256.74;

(2) the court determines that the debt was reasonably incurred for necessary support of the child or parent or for the necessary generation of income. If the debt was incurred for the necessary generation of income, the court shall consider only the amount of debt that is essential to the continuing generation of income; and

(3) the party requesting a departure produces a sworn schedule of the debts, with supporting documentation, showing goods or services purchased, the recipient of them, the amount of the original debt, the outstanding balance, the monthly payment, and the number of months until the debt will be fully paid.

Any schedule prepared under paragraph (c), clause (3), shall contain a statement that the debt will be fully paid after the number of months shown in the schedule, barring emergencies beyond the party's control.

Any further departure below the guidelines that is based on a consideration of debts owed to private creditors shall not exceed 18 months in duration, after which the support shall increase automatically to the level ordered by the court. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit one or more step increases in support to reflect debt retirement during the 18-month period.

Where payment of debt is ordered pursuant to this section, the payment shall be ordered to be in the nature of child support.

(d) Nothing shall preclude the court from receiving evidence on the above factors to determine if the guidelines should be exceeded or modified in a particular case.

(e) The above guidelines are binding in each case unless the court makes express findings of fact as to the reason for departure below or above the guidelines.

Sec. 72. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 518.551, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [ADMINISTRATIVE PROCESS FOR CHILD AND MEDICAL SUPPORT ORDERS.] An administrative process is established to obtain, modify, and enforce child and medical support orders and maintenance.

The commissioner of human services may designate counties to participate in the administrative process established by this section. All proceedings for obtaining, modifying, or enforcing child and medical support orders and maintenance and adjudicating uncontested parentage proceedings, required to be conducted in counties designated by the commissioner of human services in which the county human services agency is a party or represents a party to the action must be conducted by an administrative law judge from the office of administrative hearings, except for the following proceedings:

- (1) adjudication of contested parentage;
- (2) motions to set aside a paternity adjudication or declaration of parentage;
- (3) evidentiary hearing on contempt motions; and
- (4) motions to sentence or to revoke the stay of a jail sentence in contempt proceedings.

An administrative law judge may hear a stipulation reached on a contempt motion, but any stipulation that involves a finding of contempt and a jail sentence, whether stayed or imposed, shall require the review and signature of a district judge.

For the purpose of this process, all powers, duties, and responsibilities conferred on judges of the district court to obtain and enforce child and medical support obligations, subject to the limitation set forth herein, are conferred on the administrative law judge conducting the proceedings, including the power to issue orders to show cause and to issue bench warrants for failure to appear.

Before implementing the process in a county, the chief administrative law judge, the commissioner of human services, the director of the county human services agency, the county attorney, and the county court administrator shall jointly establish procedures and the county shall provide hearing facilities for implementing this process in a county.

Nonattorney employees of the public agency responsible for child support in the counties designated by the commissioner, acting at the direction of the county attorney, may prepare, sign, serve, and file complaints and motions for obtaining, modifying, or enforcing child and medical support orders and maintenance and related documents, appear at prehearing conferences, and participate in proceedings before an administrative law judge. This activity shall not be considered to be the unauthorized practice of law.

The hearings shall be conducted under the rules of the office of administrative hearings, Minnesota Rules, parts 1400.7100 to 1400.7500, 1400.7700, and 1400.7800, as adopted by the chief administrative law judge. All other aspects of the case, including, but not limited to, pleadings, discovery, and motions, shall be conducted under the rules of family court, the rules of civil procedure, and chapter 518. The administrative law judge shall make findings of fact, conclusions, and a final decision and issue an order. Orders issued by an administrative law judge are enforceable by the contempt powers of the county and district courts.

The decision and order of the administrative law judge shall be a final agency decision for purposes of sections 14.63 to 14.69 is appealable to the court of appeals in the same manner as a decision of the district court.

Sec. 73. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518.611, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ORDER.] Whenever an obligation for support of a dependent child or maintenance of a spouse, or both, is determined and ordered by a court of this state, the amount of child support or maintenance as determined by court order must be withheld from the income, regardless of source, of the person obligated to pay the support or maintenance. Every order for maintenance or support must include the obligor's social security number and date of birth and the name and address of the obligor's employer or other payor of funds.

Sec. 74. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518.611, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CONDITIONS OF INCOME WITHHOLDING.] (a) Withholding shall result whenever the obligor fails to make the maintenance or support payments, and the following conditions are met:

- (1) the obligor is at least 30 days in arrears;
- (2) the obligee or the public authority serves written notice of income withholding, showing arrearage, on the obligor at least 15 days before service of the notice of income withholding and a copy of the court's order on the payor of funds;
- (3) within the 15-day period, the obligor fails to move the court to deny withholding on the grounds that an arrearage of at least 30 days does not exist as of the date of the notice of income withholding, or on other grounds limited to mistakes of fact, and, ex parte, to stay service on the payor of funds until the motion to deny withholding is heard; and
- (4) the obligee or the public authority serves a copy of the notice of income withholding, a copy of the court's order, and the provisions of this section on the payor of funds; and
- (5) the obligee serves on the public authority a copy of the notice of income withholding, a copy of the court's order, an application, and the fee to use the public authority's collection services.

(b) To pay the arrearage specified in the notice of income withholding, the employer or payor of funds shall withhold from the obligor's income an additional amount equal to 20 percent of the monthly child support or maintenance obligation until the arrearage is paid.

(c) The obligor may, at any time, waive the written notice required by this subdivision.

(d) The obligor may move the court, under section 518.64, to modify the order respecting the amount of maintenance or support.

(e) Every order for support or maintenance shall provide for a conspicuous notice of the provisions of this subdivision. An order without this notice remains subject to this subdivision.

(f) Absent a court order to the contrary, if an arrearage exists at the time an order for ongoing support or maintenance would otherwise terminate, income withholding shall continue in effect in an amount equal to the former support or maintenance obligation plus an additional amount equal to 20 percent of the monthly child support obligation, until all arrears have been paid in full.

Sec. 75. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518.611, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [PREAUTHORIZED TRANSFERS FROM OBLIGOR ACCOUNTS.] In any case where income withholding is ineffective due to the obligor's method of obtaining income, the court shall order the obligor to identify a child support deposit account owned solely by the obligor, or to establish an account, in a financial institution located in this state for the purpose of depositing court-ordered child support payments. The court shall order the obligor to execute an agreement with the appropriate public authority authorizing preauthorized transfers from the obligor's child support deposit account payable to an account of the public authority responsible for child support enforcement. The court shall order the obligor to disclose to the court all deposit accounts owned by the obligor in whole or in part in any financial institution. The court may order the obligor to disclose to the court the opening or closing of any deposit account owned in whole or in part by the obligor within 30 days of the opening or closing. The court may order the obligor to execute an agreement with the appropriate public authority authorizing preauthorized transfers from any deposit account owned in whole or in part by the obligor to the obligor's child support deposit account if necessary to satisfy court-ordered child support payments. The court may order a financial institution to disclose to the court the account number and any other account identification information regarding accounts owned in whole or in part by the obligor. An obligor who fails to comply with this section, fails to deposit funds in at least one deposit account sufficient to pay court-ordered child support, or stops payment or revokes authorization of any preauthorized transfer is subject to contempt of court procedures under chapter 588.

Sec. 76. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 518.611, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [EFFECT OF ORDER.] Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the order is binding on the employer, trustee, or other payor of the funds, or financial institution when service under subdivision 2 has been made. Withholding must begin no later than the first pay period that occurs after 14 days following the date of the notice. In the case of a financial institution, preauthorized transfers must occur in accordance with a court-ordered payment schedule. An employer or other payor of funds, or financial institution in this state is required to withhold income according to court orders for withholding issued by other states or territories. The payor shall withhold from the income payable to the obligor the amount specified in the order and amounts required under subdivision 2, paragraph (b), and section 518.613 and shall remit, within ten days of the date the obligor is paid the remainder of the income, the amounts withheld to the public authority. The payor shall identify on the remittance information the date the obligor is paid the remainder of the income. The financial institution shall execute preauthorized transfers from the deposit accounts of the obligor in the amount specified in the order and amounts required under subdivision 2 as directed by the public authority responsible for child support enforcement. Employers may combine all amounts withheld from one pay period into one payment to each public authority, but shall separately identify each obligor making payment. Amounts received by the public authority which are in excess of public assistance expended for the party or for a child shall be remitted to the party. An employer shall not discharge, or refuse to hire, or otherwise discipline an employee as a result of a wage or salary withholding authorized by this section. The employer or other payor of funds shall be liable to the obligee for any amounts required to be withheld. A financial institution is liable to the obligee if funds in any of the obligor's deposit accounts identified in the court order equal the amount stated in the preauthorization agreement but are not transferred by the financial institution in accordance with the agreement.

Sec. 77. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518.611, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [EMPLOYER AND OBLIGOR NOTICE.] When an individual is hired for employment, the employer shall request that the individual disclose whether or not the individual has court-ordered child support obligations that are required by law to be withheld from income and the terms of the court order, if any. The individual shall disclose this information at the time of hiring. When an individual discloses that the individual owes child support that is required to be withheld, the employer shall begin withholding according to the terms of the order and under this section. When a withholding order is in effect and the obligor's employment is terminated or the periodic payment terminates, the obligor and the obligor's employer or the payor of funds shall notify the public agency responsible for child support enforcement of the termination within ten days of the termination date. The notice shall include the obligor's home address and the name and address of the obligor's new employer or payor of funds, if known. Information disclosed under this section shall not be divulged except to the extent necessary for the administration of the child support enforcement program or when otherwise authorized by law.

Sec. 78. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518.611, subdivision 8a, is amended to read:

Subd. 8a. [LUMP SUM PAYMENTS.] (a) Upon the transmittal of the last reimbursement payment to the employee, where a lump sum payment including, but not limited to, severance pay, accumulated sick pay or vacation pay is paid upon termination of employment, and where the employee is in arrears in making court ordered child support payments, the employer shall withhold an amount which is the lesser of (1) the amount in arrears or (2) that portion of the arrearages which is the product of the obligor's monthly court ordered support amount multiplied by the number of months of net income that the lump sum payment represents.

(b) An employer, trustee, or other payor of funds who has been served with a notice of income withholding under subdivision 2 or section 518.613 must:

(1) notify the public authority of any lump sum payment of $500 or more that is to be paid to the obligor;

(2) hold the lump sum payment for 30 days after the date on which the lump sum payment would otherwise have been paid to the obligor, notwithstanding sections 181.08, 181.101, 181.11, 181.13, and 181.145; and

(3) upon order of the court, pay any specified amount of the lump sum payment to the public authority for support.

Sec. 79. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 518.613, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ORDER; COLLECTION SERVICES.] Every order for child support must include the obligor's social security number and date of birth and the name and address of the obligor's employer or other payor of funds. Upon entry of the order for support or maintenance, the court shall mail a copy of the court's automatic income withholding order and the provisions of section 518.611 and this section to the obligor's employer or other payor of funds and to the public authority responsible for child support enforcement. An obligee who is not a recipient of public assistance shall apply for the collection services of the public authority when an order for support is entered unless the requirements of this section have been waived under subdivision 7. No later than January 1, 1990, the supreme court shall develop a standard automatic income withholding form to be used by all Minnesota courts. This form shall be made a part of any order for support or decree by reference.

Sec. 80. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518C.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [CENTRAL REGISTRY.] "Central registry" means a single unit within the department of human services that receives and disseminates incoming interstate actions filed under title IV-D of the Social Security Act, as amended, including any proceedings under this section.

Sec. 81. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518C.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9a. [PUBLIC AUTHORITY.] "Public authority" means the public authority responsible for child support enforcement.

Sec. 82. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518C.03, is amended to read:

518C.03 [HOW DUTIES OF SUPPORT ENFORCED.]

Subdivision 1. [DUTIES OF SUPPORT.] All duties of support, including the duty to pay arrearages, are enforceable by a proceeding under sections 518C.01 to 518C.36, including a proceeding for civil contempt. The defense that the parties are immune to suit because of their relationship as husband and wife, or parent and child is not available to the obligor.

Subd. 2. [ARREARAGES.] Arrearages that have become a support judgment, which is final by operation of law of this state or of any other jurisdiction, shall be given full faith and credit for enforcement purposes. No arrearages or judgment for support may be retroactively modified, except as provided in section 518.64. A Minnesota court may order that judgment be entered for a child support arrearage owed under an order of another state or order that payments be made toward an arrearage or existing judgment if the matter is before the court whether by petition or by registration.

Sec. 83. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518C.05, is amended to read:

518C.05 [JURISDICTION.]

Except in Hennepin and Ramsey counties, jurisdiction of a proceeding under sections 518C.01 to 518C.36 is vested in the county court. In Hennepin and Ramsey counties as provided for in section 518.551, subdivision 10, jurisdiction of a proceeding under sections 518C.01 to 518C.36 is vested in the district court.

Sec. 84. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518C.09, is amended to read:

518C.09 [DUTY OF INITIATING COURT.]

If the initiating court finds that the petition sets forth facts from which it may be determined that the obligor owes a duty of support, and that a court of the responding state may obtain jurisdiction of the obligor or the obligor's property, it shall so certify and cause three copies of the petition and its certificate and one copy of sections 518C.01 to 518C.36 to be sent to the responding court. If the complaint is filed by the public authority, the initiating court shall send the documents to the central registry in the responding state. Certification shall be in accordance with the requirements of the initiating state. If the name and address of the responding court are unknown and the responding state has an information agency comparable to that established in the initiating state, it shall cause the copies to be sent to the state information agency or other proper official of the responding state, with a request that the agency or official forward them to the proper court and that the court of the responding state acknowledge their receipt to the initiating court.

Sec. 85. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518C.12, is amended to read:

518C.12 [DUTY OF THE COURT AND THE PROSECUTING ATTORNEY OF THIS STATE AS RESPONDING STATE.]

Subdivision 1. [CENTRAL REGISTRY.] The central registry shall receive filings under title IV-D of the federal Social Security Act, as amended, from the initiating state and shall transmit the filings to the local public authority. The local public authority shall promptly submit the documents to the court administrator.

Subd. 1a. [DOCKETING CASE.] After the responding court receives copies of the petition, the certificate and the substantially similar reciprocal act from the initiating court, the court administrator of the court shall docket the case and notify the prosecuting attorney of the action.

Subd. 2. [PROSECUTION OF CASE.] The prosecuting attorney shall prosecute the case diligently, taking all action necessary in accordance with the laws of this state to enable the court to obtain jurisdiction over the obligor or the obligor's property and shall request the court to set a time and place for a hearing and give notice thereof to the obligor in accordance with law.

Subd. 3. [INVESTIGATION BY PROSECUTING ATTORNEY.] The prosecuting attorney, on personal initiative, shall use all means available to locate the obligor or the obligor's property, and if, because of inaccuracies in the petition or otherwise, the court cannot obtain jurisdiction, the prosecuting attorney shall inform the court of action taken and request the court to continue the case pending receipt of more accurate information or an amended petition from the initiating court.

Subd. 4. [OBLIGOR LOCATED IN ANOTHER COUNTY OR STATE.] If the obligor or the obligor's property is not found in the county, and the prosecuting attorney discovers that the obligor or the obligor's property may be found in another county of this state, or another state, the attorney shall so inform the court. Thereupon, the court administrator shall forward the documents received from the court in the initiating state to a court in the other county, or to a court in the other state, or to the information agency or other proper official of the other state, with a request that the documents be forwarded to the proper court. All powers and duties provided by sections 518C.01 to 518C.36 apply to the recipient of the documents so forwarded. If the court administrator of this state forwards documents to another court, the court administrator shall forthwith notify the initiating court.

Subd. 5. [NO INFORMATION.] If the prosecuting attorney has no information as to the location of the obligor or the obligor's property the attorney shall so inform the initiating court.

Sec. 86. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518C.27, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DUTIES OF RESPONDING COURT.] A responding court has the following duties that shall be carried out through the public authority responsible for support enforcement:

(1) according to the requirements of the initiating court, to collect and transmit to the initiating court, designated collection unit, county of the obligee's residence, or the obligee under section 518.551, subdivision 1, a payment made by the obligor pursuant to an order of the court or otherwise; and

(2) to furnish to the initiating court, upon request, a certified statement of each payment made by the obligor.

Sec. 87. Laws 1989, chapter 338, section 11, is amended to read:

Sec. 11. [OIL OVERCHARGE MONEY; APPROPRIATION.]

~~Subdivision 1. [LIMITATION.] The money appropriated by this section is money received by the state, or to be made available to the state in the future, as a result of litigation or settlements of alleged violations of federal petroleum pricing regulations that is not otherwise appropriated by law or dedicated by court order.~~

Subd. 2. [ENERGY RELATED PROJECTS.] $3,100,000 of the money specified in subdivision 1 oil overcharge money, as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 4.071, is appropriated for transfer to the housing development fund for home energy loans. Of that amount, $2,200,000 must be made available as soon as federal approval is received. The balance must be made available from money received later in the fiscal years ending June 30, 1990, and June 30, 1991.

Subd. 2a. [ENERGY CONSERVATION PROJECTS.] $6,000,000 of oil overcharge money, as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 4.071, is appropriated to the commissioner of jobs and training for energy conservation projects that directly serve low-income Minnesotans. $50,000 of this appropriation must be transferred to the commissioner of administration to administer the oil overcharge funds for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1991. Of the total appropriation, $4,500,000 must be made available as soon as federal approval is received. The balance must be made available from money received later in the fiscal years ending June 30, 1990, and June 30, 1991. If the amount received by June 30, 1991, is not sufficient to fully fund all appropriations of oil overcharge money to that date, this appropriation is reduced to the amount that can be fully funded with those receipts.

Subd. 3. [OTHER PROJECTS.] ~~One-half of the remainder of the money specified in subdivision 1 must be appropriated to the commissioner of jobs and training for energy conservation projects that directly serve low-income Minnesotans. Money appropriated under subdivision 2 and under this subdivision is not governed by Minnesota Statutes, section 4.071, and is available until spent.~~

Sec. 88. [PRENATAL CARE AND PREVENTIVE CARE FOR CHILDREN.]

The commissioner of health, in consultation with the commissioner of human services, the commissioner of state planning, and the commissioner of education, shall prepare a state plan to improve utilization rates of medically appropriate prenatal care and preventive care for children. The plan must address at least the following issues: (1) methods of addressing barriers such as the need for child care and transportation; (2) techniques for improving public awareness of the need for prenatal care and preventive care, both statewide and within high-risk target populations; and (3) strategies for overcoming cultural factors that may discourage minority populations from obtaining medically appropriate prenatal care and preventive care. To the extent possible, the commissioner shall identify methods of improving access and utilization rates that would not require a significant increase in legislative appropriations, such as reallocation of existing money, coordination and increased efficiency of existing programs, techniques for generating private contributions or federal money, and increased use of volunteers and donated services and facilities. The commissioner shall also include in the plan an analysis of the extent to which improved utilization rates, both statewide and within target populations, could result in cost savings in the medical assistance program, the general assistance medical care program, and the children's health plan. The commissioner shall present the plan to the governor and the legislature by December 15, 1990. It is the intent of the legislature to enact legislation to implement the plan during the 1991 session.

Sec. 89. [CHILD SUPPORT JUDGMENT BY OPERATION OF LAW; APPLICATION.]

Minnesota Statutes, section 548.091, subdivision 1a, applies retroactively to any child support arrearage that accrued before August 1, 1988, except that no arrearage may be docketed under Minnesota Statutes, section 548.091, subdivision 2a, if the arrearage is more than ten years past due at the time of docketing.

Sec. 90. [STUDIES AND PLANS RELATING TO CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY TREATMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [TREATMENT PROGRAM ACCOUNTABILITY.] The commissioner of human services shall develop standards to provide increased accountability for chemical dependency treatment programs. The commissioner shall work in conjunction with treatment providers and clinicians. The commissioner shall report the results of this work to the legislature by January 1, 1992.

Subd. 2. [AFTERCARE SERVICES STUDY.] The commissioner of human services shall study funding and licensing options for providing aftercare services to high-risk or special need populations including, but not limited to, women, minorities, and adult and juvenile offenders. The commissioner shall present the results of this study and recommendations to the legislature by January 1, 1991.

Subd. 3. [INDIAN YOUTH TREATMENT PLANNING.] The commissioner of human services shall develop a plan for the establishment of one or more treatment programs specializing in chemically dependent Indian youth. The commissioner shall involve diverse members of the Indian community in conducting this assessment and shall present recommendations to the legislature by January 1, 1991.

Subd. 4. [AFRICAN AMERICAN YOUTH TREATMENT PLANNING.] The commissioner of human services shall develop a plan for a program in the Summit-University area of St. Paul to address the culturally-based drug prevention, treatment, and aftercare needs of high-risk youth. The commissioner shall involve existing neighborhood and governmental agencies in developing the plan and shall present recommendations to the legislature by January 1, 1991.

Sec. 91. [CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY RULES.]

Subdivision 1. [RULE AMENDMENT.] The commissioner shall, by emergency rulemaking, amend Minnesota Rules, parts 9530.6600 to 9530.7030, in order to contain costs and increase collections for the consolidated chemical dependency treatment fund. The amendment must establish criteria that will:

(1) increase the use of outpatient treatment for individuals who can abstain from mood-altering chemicals long enough to benefit from outpatient treatment;

(2) increase the use of outpatient treatment in combination with primary residential treatment;

(3) increase the use of long-term treatment programs for individuals who are not likely to benefit from primary residential treatment; and

(4) limit the repeated use of residential placements for individuals who have been shown not to benefit from residential placements, including long-term residential treatment.

Subd. 2. [VENDOR COLLECTIONS; RULE AMENDMENT.] The commissioner may amend Minnesota Rules, parts 9530.7000 to 9530.7025, to require a vendor of chemical dependency transitional and extended care rehabilitation services to collect the cost of care received under a program from an eligible person who has been determined to be partially responsible for treatment costs, and to remit the collections to the commissioner. The commissioner shall pay to a vendor, for the collections, an amount equal to five percent of the collections remitted to the commissioner by the vendor. The amendment may be adopted under the emergency rulemaking provisions of sections 14.29 to 14.36.

Sec. 92. [TASK FORCE ON COMPENSATION FOR DIRECT CARE EMPLOYEES.]

The commissioner of human services, in consultation with the commissioner of employee relations, shall establish a task force on the compensation and training of direct care employees. The purpose of the task force is to address staff turnover, recruitment, and training in order to have a significant number of qualified people working in programs that provide direct care services to individuals. Programs include intermediate care facilities for persons with mental retardation, semi-independent living services, day training and habilitation, waived services, supported employment, rehabilitation facilities, services for persons with mental illness, child care, and chemical dependency. Members of the task force shall be appointed by the commissioner. Task force membership shall consist of at least one representative from the department of human services, the department of employee relations, the department of jobs and training, and the department of health, advocates, direct care staff from unionized and nonunionized facilities, providers, collective bargaining representatives, and representatives from institutions of post-secondary education, metro and greater Minnesota counties, and the governor's council on developmental disabilities. The task force shall submit a report to the commissioner by November 1, 1990, that includes recommendations on the following:

(1) entry and promotional level wage ranges for various job classifications which reduce wage and benefit inequities between community and state-operated facilities and services;

(2) implementation of wage and benefit increases over a four-year period to ensure that wages and benefits are brought up to a level competitive within the community marketplace;

(3) mechanisms to link wage increases to initial training, continuing education, and competency;

(4) recruitment and retention of qualified staff; and

(5) the impact of making adjustments pursuant to complying with United States Code, title 29, section 157 (Supp. 1988), and Minnesota Statutes, sections 179.16 and 179A.12.

By January 15, 1991, the commissioner shall submit the report and recommended legislation to implement the report to the chairs of the house of representatives and senate health and human services committees.

Sec. 93. [REPORT ON METHODS OF COORDINATING SOCIAL WORK AND MENTAL HEALTH BOARDS.]

(a) The commissioner of health shall convene an interagency task force consisting of health department staff and representatives from the commissioner of human services and the boards of social work, marriage and family therapy, unlicensed mental health service providers, medical examiners, nursing, and psychology to study the current system of monitoring and regulating both licensed and unlicensed individuals who practice mental health counseling, psychotherapy, psychiatry, psychiatric nursing, social work, professional counseling, chemical dependency counseling, and similar activities. The task force shall make recommendations for improving coordination, administrative efficiency, and effectiveness of the activities of the department of health and the boards that monitor and regulate these social work and mental health occupations and professions. The task force shall solicit and consider the comments and recommendations of affected individuals, associations, and government agencies. In developing its recommendations, the task force shall consider:

(1) methods of monitoring or regulating unlicensed practitioners and whether this activity should be administered by the health department, an independent administrative agency, a board, or another entity;

(2) a surcharge on license fees of all social work and mental health boards to finance the monitoring or regulation of unlicensed practitioners;

(3) methods of coordinating the various systems for accepting and investigating complaints;

(4) coordinated information systems to identify individuals who have been denied a license or have been subject to disciplinary action by another licensing board or agency; and

(5) other relevant issues identified by the task force.

(b) The commissioner of health shall report to the legislature by December 1, 1990, with the results of the study and the recommendations of the task force.

Sec. 94. [EXEMPTION.]

For the biennium ending June 30, 1991, the board of unlicensed mental health service providers is exempt from Minnesota Statutes, sections 16A.128, subdivision 1, and 214.06, subdivision 1.

Sec. 95. [COMPREHENSIVE REVIEW OF THE STATE EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICE SYSTEM.]

The commissioner of health shall conduct a comprehensive assessment of all aspects of the emergency medical service system in Minnesota. This assessment must include an inventory of current service capabilities by emergency medical service regions and an examination of the effectiveness of the present administrative structure for emergency medical services, actual or potential gaps in services or coverage, funding needs, problems in service coordination and administration, and the capabilities and availability of hospital emergency services. The assessment must also include a study of the role of air ambulances and their coordination with and impact on local ambulance services. The commissioner shall present this assessment and provide recommendations to the legislature by January 1, 1992.

Sec. 96. [MEDICAL SCHOOL GRADUATES.]

The commissioner of health shall encourage efforts by the University of Minnesota medical school, the Mayo medical school, and the University of Minnesota-Duluth medical school to develop and implement plans to increase the number of medical school graduates practicing in nonmetropolitan areas. The commissioner shall meet regularly with the administrators of the three medical schools to obtain information on progress toward this goal.

Sec. 97. [STUDY OF MEDICAL ASSISTANCE REIMBURSEMENT FOR RURAL PHYSICIANS.]

The commissioner of human services shall examine methods to increase medical assistance reimbursement to medical doctors and doctors of osteopathy. The commissioner may consider selective reimbursement increases for the following primary care services as defined by the commissioner by the appropriate current procedure terminology (CPT): preventive care, office visits, maternity and delivery services, and pediatric immunization, and may consider other changes in medical assistance reimbursement designed to target reimbursement increases to medical doctors and doctors of osteopathy providing primary care services. The commissioner shall present recommendations to the legislature by January 15, 1991.

Sec. 98. [RURAL HEALTH PROFESSIONALS STUDY.]

The commissioner of health shall conduct an examination of the critical shortage of health care professionals experienced by rural areas. The study may consider, at a minimum, the following:

- (1) distribution of health care professionals;
- (2) geographic distribution of educational programs;
- (3) recruitment and retention programs;
- (4) regulatory barriers;
- (5) impediments caused by additional professional requirements;

(6) appropriate education and training programs directed to rural health care; and

(7) competition from other health care providers, especially those located in urban settings providing similar services.

In conducting the study, the commissioner shall consult with rural health care providers, hospitals, and higher education institutions. The commissioner shall require state health care professional licensing boards to submit data upon request to the department by July 1 for each preceding calendar year. The commissioner must report the findings and present recommendations to relieve current and projected health care professional shortages in different areas of the state, to the legislature by February 1, 1991.

Sec. 99. [TRANSFER OF FUNDS.]

All money raised under section 100, through the license renewal surcharges for registered nurses and licensed practical nurses shall be transferred each year from the board of nursing to the higher education coordinating board for the purposes of the nursing grant programs for licensed practical nurses and registered nurses, provided in Senate File 2618, article 5, sections 3 and 4, and shall be available until expended.

Sec. 100. [FUNDING FOR NURSING GRANTS.]

Subdivision 1. [REGISTERED NURSE FUNDING.] (a) The nursing grant program shall be funded by a $5.50 fee on each registration renewal of registered nurses as provided under Minnesota Statutes, section 148.231, unless the applicant specifically indicates on the renewal form that the applicant does not wish to participate in the funding of this program. The board of nursing shall transfer all money received under this subdivision, less an amount sufficient to pay the costs of administering the program not to exceed 12 percent of the fee collected under this subdivision, to the higher education coordinating board on a quarterly basis. This money is available until expended by the higher education coordinating board. By January 1, 1991, and each subsequent year, the board of nursing shall provide an estimate to the higher education coordinating board of the amount of money that may be available each year based on the number of anticipated registration renewals in that year.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), up to the first $11,000 of fees collected under this subdivision may be used to program the board of nursing's computer system for purposes of administering this section.

Subd. 2. [LICENSED PRACTICAL NURSE FUNDING.] (a) The nursing grant program shall be funded by a $5.50 fee on each registration renewal of licensed practical nurses as provided under Minnesota Statutes, section 148.231, unless the applicant specifically indicates on the renewal form that the applicant does not wish to participate in the funding of this program. The board of nursing shall transfer all money received under this subdivision, less an amount sufficient to pay the costs of administering the program not to exceed 12 percent of the fee collected under this subdivision, to the higher education coordinating board on a quarterly basis. This money is available until expended by the higher education coordinating board. By January 1, 1991, and each subsequent year, the board of nursing shall provide an estimate to the higher education coordinating board of the amount of money that may be available each year based on the number of anticipated registration renewals in that year.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), up to the first $6,000 of fees collected under this subdivision may be used to program the board of nursing's computer system for purposes of administering this section.

Sec. 101. [SPECIAL REPORT ON THE CONSOLIDATED CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY TREATMENT FUND.]

The commissioner of human services shall report to the legislature by February 1, 1991, on plans for implementing the changes in operation of the chemical dependency consolidated treatment fund required by section 59.

Sec. 102. [DAY-FINES.]

Subdivision 1. [MODEL SYSTEM.] By June 1, 1991, the sentencing guidelines commission shall develop a model day-fine system. Each judicial district must adopt either the model system or its own day-fine system by January 1, 1992.

Subd. 2. [COMPONENTS.] A day-fine system adopted under this section must provide for a two-step sentencing procedure for those receiving a fine as part of a probationary felony sentence. In the first step, the court determines how many punishment points a person will receive, taking into account the severity of the offense and the criminal history of the offender. The second step is to multiply the punishment points by a factor that accounts for the offender's financial circumstances. The goal of the system is to provide a fine that is proportional to the seriousness of the offense and largely equal in impact among offenders with different financial circumstances. The system may provide for community service in lieu of fines for offenders whose means are so limited that the payment of a fine would be unlikely.

Laws 1989, chapter 338, section 11, subdivisions 1 and 3, are repealed.

Sec. 104. [EFFECTIVE DATES.]

Subdivision 1. [VOLUNTARY AND INVOLUNTARY RECEIVERSHIP.] Sections 48 and 49 are effective the day following final enactment.

Subd. 2. [SEAT BELT REQUIREMENTS.] Sections 54 and 55 are effective the day following final enactment.

Subd. 3. [CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY.] Sections 57, 58, 60, 90, and 91 are effective the day following final enactment. Section 59 is effective July 1, 1991.

Subd. 4. [PATERNITY ACTIONS.] Section 65 is effective the day following final enactment and applies to actions brought after January 1, 1986, except that section 65 does not bar an action by a presumed father who discovered the birth of the child within two years before the effective date of section 65 if the action is brought within one year after the effective date.

Subd. 5. [CHILD SUPPORT.] Sections 61 and 72 are effective the day following final enactment. Section 62 is effective July 1, 1990, and applies to coverage identified or enforced on or after that date.

Subd. 6. [WHOLESALE DRUG DISTRIBUTORS; LICENSING.] Sections 18 to 29 are effective on January 1, 1991.

Subd. 7. [OIL OVERCHARGE MONEY; ENERGY CONSERVATION.] Sections 1, subdivision 1; 87; and 103 are effective the day following final enactment. Section 1, subdivisions 2 and 3, are effective July 1, 1991.

Subd. 8. [LOCATION OF RESIDENTIAL PROGRAMS.] Section 47 is effective the day following final enactment.

HEALTH CARE PROGRAMS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 13.46, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [MEDICAL DATA; CONTRACTS.] Data relating to the medical, psychiatric, or mental health of any individual, including diagnosis, progress charts, treatment received, case histories, and opinions of health care providers, that is collected, maintained, used, or disseminated by any agency to the welfare system is private data on individuals and will be available to the data subject, unless the private health care provider has clearly requested in writing that the data be withheld pursuant to section 144.335. Data on individuals that is collected, maintained, used, or disseminated by a private health care provider under contract to any agency of the welfare system is private data on individuals, and is subject to the provisions of sections 13.02 to 13.07 and this section, except that the provisions of section 13.04, subdivision 3, shall not apply. Access to medical data referred to in this subdivision by the individual who is the subject of the data is subject to the provisions of section 144.335. Access to information that is maintained by the public authority responsible for support enforcement and that is needed to enforce medical support is subject to the provisions of section 518.171.

Sec. 2. [62A.62] [DEMONSTRATION PROJECT.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The commissioner shall establish demonstration projects to allow health insurers regulated under this chapter and nonprofit health service plan corporations regulated under chapter 62C to extend coverage for health and services to individuals or groups currently unable to afford such coverage. For purposes of this section, the commissioner may recommend legislation granting an exemption from minimum benefits required under chapter 62A, and any applicable rules if there is reasonable evidence that the rules prohibit the operation of the demonstration project. The commissioner shall provide for public comment before recommending an exemption from any statute or rule.

Subd. 2. [APPLICATION AND APPROVAL.] An insurer or health service plan corporation electing to participate in a demonstration project shall apply to the commissioner for approval on a form developed by the commissioner. The application shall include at least the following:

(1) a statement identifying the population that the project is designed to serve;

(2) a description of the proposed project including a statement projecting a schedule of costs and benefits for the enrollee;

(3) reference to the sections of Minnesota Statutes and department of commerce rules for which waiver is requested;

(4) evidence that application of the requirements of applicable Minnesota Statutes and department of commerce rules would, unless waived, prohibit the operation of the demonstration project;

(5) an estimate of the number of years needed to adequately demonstrate the project's effects; and

(6) other information the commissioner may reasonably require.

Subd. 3. [COMMISSIONER'S REVIEW OF APPLICATION FOR DEMONSTRATION PROJECT.] The commissioner shall approve, deny, or refer back to the insurer or health service plan corporation for modification, the application for a demonstration project within 60 days of receipt from the insurer or health service plan corporation. If the commissioner approves a project that requires legislation exempting the project from minimum benefit requirements, the commissioner shall make the approval contingent on enactment of the required legislation.

Subd. 4. [LENGTH OF PROJECT.] The commissioner may approve an application for a demonstration project for a maximum of six years, with an option to renew.

Subd. 5. [REPORT REQUIRED.] Each insurer or health service plan corporation for which a demonstration project is approved shall annually file a report with the commissioner summarizing the project's experience at the same time it files its annual report. The report shall be on a form developed by the commissioner and shall be separate from the annual report.

Subd. 6. [APPROVAL MAY BE RESCINDED.] The commissioner may rescind approval of a demonstration project if the commissioner finds that the project's operation is contrary to the information contained in the approved application.

Subd. 7. [APPLICABILITY.] This section does not apply to the demonstration project established under section 256B.73.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 144.50, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [SUPERVISED LIVING FACILITY LICENSES:] (a) The commissioner may license as a supervised living facility a facility seeking medical assistance certification as an intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation or related conditions for four or more persons as authorized under section 252.291.

(b) Class B supervised living facilities for six or less persons seeking medical assistance certification as an intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation or related conditions shall be classified as follows for purposes of the state building code:

(1) Class B supervised living facilities for six or less persons must meet Group R, Division 3, occupancy requirements; and

(2) Class B supervised living facilities for seven to 16 persons must meet Group R, Division 1, occupancy requirements.

(c) Class B facilities classified under paragraph (b), clauses (1) and (2), must meet Group R, Division 3, occupancy requirements of the state building code, the fire protection provisions of chapter 21 of the 1985 life safety code, NFPA 101, for facilities housing persons with impractical evacuation capabilities, and except that Class B facilities licensed prior to the effective date of this section need only continue to meet institutional fire safety provisions. Class B supervised living facilities shall provide the necessary physical plant accommodations to meet the needs and functional disabilities of the residents. For Class B supervised living facilities licensed after the effective date of this section and housing nonambulatory or nonmobile persons, the corridor access to bedrooms, common spaces, and other resident use spaces must be at least five feet in clear width, except that a waiver may be requested in accordance with Minnesota Rules, part 4665.0600.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 144A.073, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [EXTENSION OF APPROVAL OF A PROJECT REQUIRING AN EXCEPTION TO THE NURSING HOME MORATORIUM.] Notwithstanding subdivision 3, a construction project that was approved by the commissioner under the moratorium exception approval process in this section prior to February 1, 1990, may be commenced more than 12 months after the date of the commissioner's approval but no later than July 1, 1992.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 145.894, is amended to read:

145.894 [STATE COMMISSIONER OF HEALTH; DUTIES, RESPONSIBILITIES.]

The commissioner of health shall:

(a) Develop a comprehensive state plan for the delivery of nutritional supplements to pregnant and lactating women, infants, and children;

(b) Contract with existing local public or private nonprofit organizations for the administration of the nutritional supplement program;

(c) Develop and implement a public education program promoting the provisions of sections 145.891 to 145.897, and provide for the delivery of individual and family nutrition education and counseling at project sites. The education programs must include a campaign to promote breast feeding;

(d) Develop in cooperation with other agencies and vendors a uniform state voucher system for the delivery of nutritional supplements;

(e) Authorize local health agencies to issue vouchers bimonthly to some or all eligible individuals served by the agency, provided the agency demonstrates that the federal minimum requirements for providing nutrition education will continue to be met and that the quality of nutrition education and health services provided by the agency will not be adversely impacted;

(f) Investigate and implement an infant formula cost reduction a system that will to reduce the cost of nutritional supplements so that by October 1, 1988, additional mothers and children will be served and maintain ongoing negotiations with nonparticipating manufacturers and suppliers to maximize cost savings;

(g) Develop, analyze, and evaluate the health aspects of the nutritional supplement program and establish nutritional guidelines for the program;

(h) Apply for, administer, and annually expend at least 99 percent of available federal or private funds;

(i) Aggressively market services to eligible individuals by conducting ongoing outreach activities and by coordinating with and providing marketing materials and technical assistance to local human services and community service agencies and nonprofit service providers;

(j) Determine, on July 1 of each year, the number of pregnant women participating in each special supplemental food program for women, infants, and children (W.I.C.) and, in 1986, 1987, and 1988, at the commissioner's discretion, designate a different food program deliverer if the current deliverer fails to increase the participation of pregnant women in the program by at least ten percent over the previous year's participation rate;

(k) Promulgate all rules necessary to carry out the provisions of sections 145.891 to 145.897;

(l) Report to the legislature by November 15 of every year on the expenditures and activities under sections 145.891 to 145.897 of the state and local health agencies for the preceding fiscal year; and

(m) Ensure that any state appropriation to supplement the federal program is spent consistent with federal requirements.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 214.07, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [BOARD REPORTS.] The health-related licensing boards and the non-health-related licensing boards shall prepare reports according to this subdivision and subdivision 1a by October 1 of each even-numbered year. Copies of the reports shall be delivered to the legislature in accordance with section 3.195, and to the governor. Copies of the reports of the health-related licensing boards shall also be delivered to the commissioner of health. The reports shall contain the following information relating to the two-year period ending the previous June 30:

- (a) a general statement of board activities;
- (b) the number of meetings and approximate total number of hours spent by all board members in meetings and on other board activities;
- (c) the receipts and disbursements of board funds;
- (d) the names of board members and their addresses, occupations, and dates of appointment and reappointment to the board;
- (e) the names and job classifications of board employees;
- (f) a brief summary of board rules proposed or adopted during the reporting period with appropriate citations to the State Register and published rules;
- (g) the number of persons having each type of license and registration issued by the board as of June 30 in the year of the report;
- (h) the locations and dates of the administration of examinations by the board;
- (i) the number of persons examined by the board with the persons subdivided into groups showing age categories, sex, and states of residency;
- (j) the number of persons licensed or registered by the board after taking the examinations referred to in clause (h) with the persons subdivided by age categories, sex, and states of residency;
- (k) the number of persons not licensed or registered by the board after taking the examinations referred to in clause (h) with the persons subdivided by age categories, sex, and states of residency;

(l) the number of persons not taking the examinations referred to in clause (h) who were licensed or registered by the board or who were denied licensing or registration with the reasons for the licensing or registration or denial thereof and with the persons subdivided by age categories, sex, and states of residency;

(m) the number of persons previously licensed or registered by the board whose licenses or registrations were revoked, suspended, or otherwise altered in status with brief statements of the reasons for the revocation, suspension or alteration;

(n) the number of written and oral complaints and other communications received by the executive secretary of the board, a board member, or any other person performing services for the board (1) which allege or imply a violation of a statute or rule which the board is empowered to enforce and (2) which are forwarded to other agencies as required by section 214.10;

(o) a summary, by specific category, of the substance of the complaints and communications referred to in clause (n) and, for each specific category, the responses or dispositions thereof pursuant to section 214.10 or 214.11;

(p) any other objective information which the board members believe will be useful in reviewing board activities.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 214.07, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [REPORT REQUIREMENT FOR BOARD OF MEDICAL EXAMINERS AND BOARD OF NURSING.] The board of medical examiners and the board of nursing shall include in the report required under subdivision 1, clause (o), specific information regarding complaints and communications involving obstetrics, gynecology, prenatal care, and delivery, and the boards' responses or dispositions.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 252.46, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [RATES FOR CALENDAR YEARS 1989 AND 1990.] Payment rates to vendors, except regional centers, for county-funded day training and habilitation services and transportation provided to persons receiving day training and habilitation services established by a county board for calendar years 1989 and 1990 are governed by subdivisions 2 to ~~10~~ 11.

"Payment rate" as used in subdivisions 2 to ~~10~~ 11 refers to three kinds of payment rates: a full-day service rate for persons who receive at least six service hours a day, including the time it takes to transport the person to and from the service site; a partial-day service rate that must not exceed 75 percent of the full-day service rate for persons who receive less than a full day of service; and a transportation rate for providing, or arranging and paying for, transportation of a person to and from the person's residence to the service site.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 252.46, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [~~1989 AND 1990 RATE MINIMUM.~~] Unless a variance is granted under subdivision 6, the minimum payment rates set by a county board for each vendor for calendar years 1989 and 1990 must be equal to the payment rates approved by the commissioner for that vendor in effect January 1, 1988, and January 1, 1989, respectively of the previous calendar year.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 252.46, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [~~1989 AND 1990 RATE MAXIMUM.~~] Unless a variance is granted under subdivision 6, the maximum payment rates for each vendor for calendar years 1989 and 1990 a calendar year must be equal to the payment rates approved by the commissioner for that vendor in effect December 1, 1988, and December 1, 1989, respectively, of the previous calendar year increased by no more than the projected percentage change in the urban consumer price index, all items, published by the United States Department of Labor, for the upcoming calendar year over the current calendar year.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 252.46, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [NEW VENDORS.] Payment rates established by a county for calendar years 1989 and 1990, for a new vendor for which there were no previous rates must not exceed 125 percent of the average payment rates in the regional development commission district under sections 462.381 to 462.396 in which the new vendor is located. When at least 50 percent of the persons to be served by the new vendor are persons discharged from a regional treatment center on or after January 1, 1990, the recommended payment rates for the new vendor shall not exceed twice the current statewide average payment rates.

For purposes of this subdivision, persons discharged from the regional treatment center do not include persons who received temporary care under section 252A.111, subdivision 3.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 252.46, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [RATES ESTABLISHED AFTER 1990.] Unless a variance is granted under subdivision 6, payment rates established by a county for calendar year 1990 and which are in effect December 31, 1990, remain in effect until June 30, 1991. Payment rates established by a county board to be paid to a vendor on or after January July 1, 1991, must be determined under permanent rules adopted by the commissioner. Until permanent rules are adopted, the payment rates must be determined according to subdivisions 1 to 11 except for the period from July 1, 1991, through December 31, 1991, when the increase determined under subdivision 3 must not exceed the projected percentage change in the urban consumer price index, all items, published by the United States Department of Labor, for the current calendar year over the previous calendar year. No county shall pay a rate that is less than the minimum rate determined by the commissioner.

In developing procedures for setting minimum payment rates and procedures for establishing payment rates, the commissioner shall consider the following factors:

- (1) a vendor's payment rate and historical cost in the previous year;
- (2) current economic trends and conditions;
- (3) costs that a vendor must incur to operate efficiently, effectively and economically and still provide training and habilitation services that comply with quality standards required by state and federal regulations;
- (4) increased liability insurance costs;
- (5) costs incurred for the development and continuation of supported employment services;
- (6) cost variations in providing services to people with different needs;
- (7) the adequacy of reimbursement rates that are more than 15 percent below the statewide average; and
- (8) other appropriate factors.

The commissioner may develop procedures to establish differing hourly rates that take into account variations in the number of clients per staff hour, to assess the need for day training and habilitation services, and to control the utilization of services.

In developing procedures for setting transportation rates, the commissioner may consider allowing the county board to set those rates or may consider developing a uniform standard.

Medical assistance rates for home and community-based services provided under section 256B.501 by licensed vendors of day training and habilitation services must not be greater than the rates for the same services established by counties under sections 252.40 to 252.47.

Sec. 13. [252.478] [METRO TRANSPORTATION SUPPORT GRANTS.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT OF PROGRAM.] The commissioner of human services shall establish and operate a metro transportation support grants program to provide reimbursement for client transportation by metro mobility to day training and habilitation services for which client transportation is a required and funded component, and to maximize use of federal funds for this reimbursement. A metro transportation support grants account shall be established in the department of human services chart of accounts.

Subd. 2. [RATES.] Costs of transportation to and from a day training and habilitation service agency must be a part of the payment rate established for each day training and habilitation services agency.

The commissioner may approve payment rates for day training and habilitation services that exceed the limits in Minnesota Statutes, section 252.46, subdivision 6, for vendors whose transportation costs increase as a result of action taken by the regional transit board under Laws of Minnesota 1988, chapter 684, article 2, section 3, or Laws of Minnesota 1989, chapter 269, section 35, or Minnesota Statutes, section 473.386, subdivision 4.

Subd. 3. [COUNTY SHARE.] The county share of the metro transportation support grants program costs will be distributed by the department to all metropolitan counties from the metro transportation support grants account. For state fiscal year 1991, the funds transferred from the regional transit board to this account shall be distributed to: Ramsey county, 48 percent; Hennepin county, 46 percent; Dakota county, five percent; and Anoka county, one percent. For subsequent fiscal years, funds shall be distributed annually based on each county's percentage of total expenses incurred for trips provided on metro mobility to and from day training and habilitation services during the preceding 12-month period. Counties should deposit these funds into the program accounts that will incur the transportation expenses.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.936, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section the following terms shall have the meanings given them:

(a) "Eligible persons" means children who are one year of age or older but less than 18 years of age who have gross family incomes that are equal to or less than 185 percent of the federal poverty guidelines and who are not eligible for medical assistance under chapter 256B or general assistance medical care under chapter 256D and who are not otherwise insured for the covered services. The period of eligibility extends from the first day of the month in which the child's first birthday occurs to the last day of the month in which the child becomes 18 years old.

(b) "Covered services" means children's health services.

(c) "Children's health services" means the health services reimbursed under chapter 256B, with the exception of inpatient hospital services, special education services, private duty nursing services, orthodontic services, medical transportation services, personal care assistant and case management services, hospice care services, nursing home or intermediate care facilities services, inpatient mental health services, outpatient mental health services in excess of $1,000 per enrolled child per 12-month eligibility period, and chemical dependency services. Outpatient mental health services covered under the children's health plan are limited to diagnostic assessments, psychological testing, explanation of findings, and individual, family, and group psychotherapy.

(d) "Eligible providers" means those health care providers who provide children's health services to medical assistance recipients under rules established by the commissioner for that program. Reimbursement under this section shall be at the same rates and conditions established for medical assistance.

(e) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of human services.

(f) "Gross family income" for farm and nonfarm self-employed means income calculated using as the baseline the adjusted gross income reported on the applicant's federal income tax form for the previous year and adding back in reported depreciation, carryover loss, and net operating loss amounts that apply to the business in which the family is currently engaged. Applicants shall report the most recent financial situation of the family if it has changed from the period of time covered by the federal income tax form. The report may be in the form of percentage increase or decrease.

Sec. 15. [256.9365] [PURCHASE OF CONTINUATION COVERAGE FOR AIDS PATIENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [PROGRAM ESTABLISHED.] The commissioner

of human services shall establish a program to pay private health plan premiums for persons who have contracted human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) to enable them to continue coverage under a group or individual health plan. If a person is determined to be eligible under subdivision 2, the commissioner shall pay the eligible person's group plan continuation coverage premium for 18 months after termination of employment, or pay the eligible person's individual plan premium for 24 months after initial application.

Subd. 2. [ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS.] To be eligible for the program, an applicant must satisfy the following requirements:

(1) the applicant must provide a physician's statement verifying that the applicant is infected with HIV and is, or within three months is likely to become, too ill to work in the applicant's current employment because of HIV-related disease;

(2) the applicant's monthly gross family income must not exceed 300 percent of the federal poverty guidelines, after deducting medical expenses and insurance premiums;

(3) the applicant must not own assets with a combined value of more than $25,000;

(4) if applying for payment of group plan premiums, the applicant must be covered by an employer's or former employer's group insurance plan and be eligible to purchase continuation coverage; and

(5) if applying for payment of individual plan premiums, the applicant must be covered by an individual health plan whose coverage and premium costs satisfy additional requirements established by the commissioner in rule.

Subd. 3. [RULES.] The commissioner shall establish rules as necessary to implement the program. Special requirements for the payment of individual plan premiums under subdivision 2, clause (5), must be designed to ensure that the state cost of paying an individual plan premium over a two-year period does not exceed the estimated state cost that would otherwise be incurred in the medical assistance program.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.969, subdivision 2c, is amended to read:

Subd. 2c. [PROPERTY PAYMENT RATES.] For each hospital's first two consecutive fiscal years beginning on or after July 1, 1988, the commissioner shall limit the annual increase in property payment rates for depreciation, rents and leases, and interest expense to the annual growth in the hospital cost index derived from the methodology in effect on the day before July 1, 1989. When computing budgeted and settlement property payment rates, the commissioner shall use the annual increase in the hospital cost index forecasted by Data Resources, Inc., consistent with the quarter of the hospital's fiscal year end. For admissions occurring on or after the rate year beginning January 1, 1991, the commissioner shall obtain property data from an updated base year and establish property payment rates per admission for each hospital. Property payment rates shall be derived from data from the same base year that is used to establish operating payment rates. The property information shall include cost categories not subject to the hospital cost index and shall reflect the cost-finding methods and allowable costs of the Medicare program in effect during the base year. The property payment rate per admission shall be adjusted for positive percentage change differences in the net book value of hospital property and equipment by increasing the property payment rate per admission 85 percent of the percentage change from the base year through the most recent year ending prior to the rate year for which required information is available. The percentage change shall be derived from equivalent audited information in both years and shall be adjusted to account for changes in generally accepted accounting principles, reclassification of assets, allocations to nonhospital areas, and fiscal years. The cost, audit, and charge data used to establish property rates shall only reflect inpatient services covered by medical assistance and shall not include operating cost information. To be eligible for the property payment rate per admission adjustment, the hospital must provide the necessary information to the commissioner, in a format specified by the commissioner, by the October 1 preceding the rate year. The commissioner shall adjust rates for the rate year beginning January 1, 1991, to ensure that all hospitals are subject to the hospital cost index limitation for two complete years.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.969, subdivision 6a, is amended to read:

Subd. 6a. [SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS.] (a) In determining the payment rates, the commissioner shall consider whether the following circumstances exist:

(1) [MINIMAL MEDICAL ASSISTANCE USE.] Minnesota hospitals with 30 or fewer annualized admissions of Minnesota medical assistance recipients in the base year, excluding Medicare crossover admissions, may have the base year operating rates, as adjusted by the case mix index, and property payment rates established at the 70th percentile of hospitals in the peer group in effect during the base year as established by the Minnesota department of health for use by the rate review program. Rates within a peer group shall be adjusted for differences in fiscal years and outlier percentage payments before establishing the 70th percentile. The operating payment rate portion of the 70th percentile shall be adjusted by the hospital cost index. To have rates established under this paragraph, the hospital must notify the commissioner in writing by November 1 of the year preceding the rate year. This paragraph shall be applied to all payment rates of the affected hospital.

(2) [UNUSUAL COST OR LENGTH OF STAY EXPERIENCE.] The commissioner shall establish day and cost outlier thresholds for each diagnostic category established under subdivision 2 at two standard deviations beyond the geometric mean length of stay or allowable cost. Payment for the days and cost beyond the outlier threshold shall be in addition to the operating and property payment rates per admission established under subdivisions 2, 2b, and 2c. Payment for outliers shall be at 70 percent of the allowable operating cost calculated by dividing the operating payment rate per admission, after adjustment by the case mix index, hospital cost index, relative values and the disproportionate population adjustment, by the arithmetic mean length of stay for the diagnostic category. The outlier threshold for neonatal and burn diagnostic categories shall be established at one standard deviation beyond the geometric mean length of stay or allowable cost, and payment shall be at 90 percent of allowable operating cost calculated in the same manner as other outliers. A hospital may choose an alternative percentage outlier payment to a minimum of 60 percent and a maximum of 80 percent if the commissioner is notified in writing of the request by October 1 of the year preceding the rate year. The chosen percentage applies to all diagnostic categories except burns and neonates. The percentage of allowable cost that is unrecognized by the outlier payment shall be added back to the base year operating payment rate per admission. Cost outliers shall be calculated using hospital specific allowable cost data. If a stay is both a day and a cost outlier, outlier payments shall be based on the higher outlier payment.

(3) [DISPROPORTIONATE NUMBERS OF LOW-INCOME PATIENTS SERVED.] For admissions occurring on or after July 1, 1989, the medical assistance disproportionate population adjustment shall comply with federal law at fully implemented rates. The commissioner may establish a separate disproportionate population operating payment rate adjustment under the general assistance medical care program. For admissions occurring on or after the rate year beginning January 1, 1991, the disproportionate population adjustment shall be derived from base year Medicare cost report data and may be adjusted by data reflecting actual claims paid by the department.

(4) [SEPARATE BILLING BY CERTIFIED REGISTERED NURSE ANESTHETISTS.] Hospitals may exclude certified registered nurse anesthetist costs from the operating payment rate as allowed by section 256B.0625, subdivision 11. To be eligible, a hospital must notify the commissioner in writing by October 1 of the year preceding the rate year of the request to exclude certified registered nurse anesthetist costs. The hospital must agree that all hospital claims for the cost and charges of certified registered nurse anesthetist services will not be included as part of the rates for inpatient services provided during the rate year. In this case, the operating payment rate shall be adjusted to exclude the cost of certified registered nurse anesthetist services. Payments made through separate claims for certified registered nurse anesthetist services shall not be paid directly through the hospital provider number or indirectly by the certified registered nurse anesthetist to the hospital or related organizations.

(5) [SPECIAL RATES.] The commissioner may establish special rate-setting methodologies, including a per day operating and property payment system, for hospice, ventilator dependent, and other services on a hospital and recipient specific basis taking into consideration such variables as federal designation, program size, and admission from a medical assistance waiver or home care program. The data and rate calculation method shall conform to the requirements of paragraph (7), except that hospice rates shall not exceed the amount allowed under federal law and payment shall be secondary to any other medical assistance hospice program. Rates and payments established under this paragraph must meet the requirements of section 256.9685, subdivisions 1 and 2, and must not exceed payments that would otherwise be made to a hospital in total for rate year admissions under subdivisions 2, 2b, 2c, 3, 4, 5, and 6. The cost and charges used to establish rates shall only reflect inpatient medical assistance covered services. Hospital and claims data that are used to establish rates under this paragraph shall not be used to establish payments or relative values under subdivisions 2, 2b, 2c, 3, 4, 5, and 6.

(6) [REHABILITATION DISTINCT PARTS.] Units of hospitals that are recognized as rehabilitation distinct parts by the Medicare program shall have separate provider numbers under the medical assistance program for rate establishment and billing purposes only. These units shall also have operating and property payment rates and the disproportionate population adjustment established separately from other inpatient hospital services, based on the methods of subdivisions 2, 2b, 2c, 3, 4, 5, and 6. The commissioner may establish separate relative values under subdivision 2 for rehabilitation hospitals and distinct parts as defined by the Medicare program. For individual hospitals that did not have separate medical assistance rehabilitation provider numbers or rehabilitation distinct parts in the base year, hospitals shall provide the information needed to separate rehabilitation distinct part cost and claims data from other inpatient service data.

(7) [NEONATAL TRANSFERS.] For admissions occurring on or after July 1, 1989, neonatal diagnostic category transfers shall have operating and property payment rates established at receiving hospitals which have neonatal intensive care units on a per day payment system that is based on the cost finding methods and allowable costs of the Medicare program during the base year. Other neonatal diagnostic category transfers shall have rates established according to paragraph (8). The rate per day for the neonatal service setting within the hospital shall be determined by dividing base year neonatal allowable costs by neonatal patient days. The operating payment rate portion of the rate shall be adjusted by the hospital cost index and the disproportionate population adjustment. The cost and charges used to establish rates shall only reflect inpatient services covered by medical assistance. Hospital and claims data used to establish rates under this paragraph shall not be used to establish payments or relative values under subdivisions 2, 2b, 2c, 3, 4, 5, and 6.

(8) [TRANSFERS.] Except as provided in paragraphs (5) and (7), operating and property payment rates for admissions that result in transfers and transfers shall be established on a per day payment system. The per day payment rate shall be the sum of the adjusted operating and property payment rates determined in subdivisions 2b and 2c, divided by the arithmetic mean length of stay for the diagnostic category. Each admission that results in a transfer and each transfer is considered a separate admission to each hospital, and the total of the admission and transfer payments to each hospital must not exceed the total per admission payment that would otherwise be made to each hospital under paragraph (2) and subdivisions 2b and 2c.

(b) The computation of each hospital's payment rate and the relative values of the diagnostic categories are not subject to the routine service cost limitation imposed under the Medicare program.

(c) Indian health service facilities are exempt from the rate establishment methods required by this section and shall be reimbursed at the facility's usual and customary charges to the general public. This exemption is not effective for payments under general assistance medical care.

(d) Except as provided in paragraph (a), clauses (1) and (3), out-of-state hospitals that are located within a Minnesota local trade area shall have rates established using the same procedures and methods that apply to Minnesota hospitals. Hospitals that are not required by law to file information in a format necessary to establish rates shall have rates established based on the commissioner's estimates of the information. Relative values of the diagnostic categories shall not be redetermined under this paragraph until required by rule. Hospitals affected by this paragraph shall then be included in determining relative values. However, hospitals that have rates established based upon the commissioner's estimates of information shall not be included in determining relative values. This paragraph is effective for hospital fiscal years beginning on or after July 1, 1988. A hospital shall provide the information necessary to establish rates under this paragraph at least 90 days before the start of the hospital's fiscal year.

(e) Hospitals that are not located within Minnesota or a Minnesota local trade area shall have operating and property rates established at the average of statewide and local trade area rates or, at the commissioner's discretion, at an amount negotiated by the commissioner. Relative values shall not include data from hospitals that have rates established under this paragraph. Payments, including third party liability, established under this paragraph may not exceed the charges on a claim specific basis for inpatient services that are covered by medical assistance.

(f) Medical assistance inpatient payment rates must include the cost incurred by hospitals to pay the department of health for metabolic disorder testing of newborns who are medical assistance recipients, if the cost is not recognized by another payment source.

(g) Medical assistance inpatient payments shall increase 20 percent for inpatient hospital originally paid admissions, excluding Medicare crossovers, that occurred between July 1, 1988, and December 31, 1990, if: (i) the hospital had 100 or fewer Minnesota medical assistance annualized paid admissions, excluding Medicare crossovers, that were paid by March 1, 1988, for the period January 1, 1987, to June 30, 1987; (ii) the hospital had 100 or fewer licensed beds on March 1, 1988; (iii) the hospital is located in Minnesota; and (iv) the hospital is not located in a city of the first class as defined in section 410.01. For this paragraph, medical assistance does not include general assistance medical care.

(h) Medical assistance inpatient payments shall increase 15 percent for inpatient hospital originally paid admissions, excluding Medicare crossovers, that occurred between July 1, 1988, and December 31, 1990, if: (i) the hospital had more than 100 but fewer than 250 Minnesota medical assistance annualized paid admissions, excluding Medicare crossovers, that were paid by March 1, 1988, for the period January 1, 1987, to June 30, 1987; (ii) the hospital had 100 or fewer licensed beds on March 1, 1988; (iii) the hospital is located in Minnesota; and (iv) the hospital is not located in a city of the first class as defined in section 410.01. For this paragraph, medical assistance does not include general assistance medical care.

(i) Admissions occurring on or after July 1, 1990, that are classified to a diagnostic category of mental health or chemical dependency shall have rates established according to the methods of paragraph (a), clause (8), except the per day rate shall be multiplied by a factor of 2, provided that the total of the per day rates shall not exceed the per admission rate. This methodology shall also apply when a hold or commitment is ordered by the court for the days that inpatient hospital services are medically necessary. Stays which are medically necessary for inpatient hospital services and covered by medical assistance shall not be billable to any other governmental entity. Medical necessity shall be determined under criteria established to meet the requirements of section 256B.04, subdivision 15, or 256D.03, subdivision 7, paragraph (b).

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.9695, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [APPEALS.] A hospital may appeal a decision arising from the application of standards or methods under section 256.9685, 256.9686, or 256.969, if an appeal would result in a change to the hospital's payment rate or payments. Both overpayments and underpayments that result from the submission of appeals shall be implemented. Regardless of any appeal outcome, relative values shall not be recalculated. The appeal shall be heard by an administrative law judge according to sections 14.48 to 14.56, or upon agreement by both parties, according to a modified appeals procedure established by the commissioner and the office of administrative hearings. In any proceeding under this section, the appealing party must demonstrate by a preponderance of the evidence that the commissioner's determination is incorrect or not according to law.

(a) To appeal a payment rate or payment determination or a determination made from base year information, the hospital shall file a written appeal request to the commissioner within 60 days of the date the payment rate determination was mailed. The appeal request shall specify: (i) the disputed items; (ii) the authority in federal or state statute or rule upon which the hospital relies for each disputed item; and (iii) the name and address of the person to contact regarding the appeal. A change to a payment rate or payments that results from a successful appeal to the Medicare program of the base year information establishing rates for the rate year beginning in 1991 and after is a prospective adjustment to subsequent rate years. After December 31, 1990, payment rates shall not be adjusted for appeals of base year information that affect years prior to the rate year beginning January 1, 1991. Facts to be considered in any appeal of base year information are limited to those in existence at the time the payment rates of the first rate year were established from the base year information. In the case of Medicare settled appeals, the 60-day appeal period shall begin on the mailing date of the notice by the Medicare program or the date the medical assistance payment rate determination notice is mailed, whichever is later.

(b) To appeal a payment rate or payment change that results from a difference in case mix between the base year and a rate year, the procedures and requirements of paragraph (a) apply. However, the appeal must be filed with the commissioner within ~~60~~ 120 days after the end of a rate year. A case mix appeal must apply to the cost of services to all medical assistance patients that received inpatient services from the hospital during the rate year appealed. ~~For this paragraph, hospital means a facility holding the provider number as an inpatient service facility.~~

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.9695, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [TRANSITION.] Except as provided in section 256.969, subdivision 6a, paragraph (a), clause (3), the commissioner shall establish a transition period for the calculation of payment rates from July 1, 1989, to ~~December 31, 1990~~, as follows the implementation date of the upgrade to the Medicaid management information system.

During the transition period:

(a) Changes resulting from section 256.969, subdivision 6a, paragraph (a), clauses (1), (2), (4), (5), (6), and (8), shall not be implemented, except as provided in section 256.969, subdivision 6a, paragraph (a), clause (7), and paragraph (i).

(b) Rates established for hospital fiscal years beginning on or after July 1, 1989, shall not be adjusted for the one percent technology factor included in the hospital cost index. The beginning of the 1991 rate year shall be delayed and the rates notification requirement shall not be applicable.

(c) Operating payment rates shall be indexed from the hospital's most recent fiscal year ending prior to January 1, 1991, by prorating the hospital cost index methodology in effect on January 1, 1989. Payments made for admissions occurring on or after July June 1, 1990, shall not include be adjusted by the one percent technology factor included in the hospital cost index and the hospital cost index shall not exceed five percent. This hospital cost index limitation shall not apply to hospitals that meet the requirements of section 256.969, subdivision 6a, paragraphs (g) and (h).

(d) Property and pass-through payment rates shall be maintained at the most recent payment rate effective for June 1, 1990. However, all hospitals are subject to the hospital cost index limitation of subdivision 2c, for two complete fiscal years. Property and pass-through costs shall be retroactively settled through December 31, 1990 the transition period. The laws in effect on the day before July 1, 1989, apply to the retroactive settlement from July 1, 1989, to December 31, 1990.

Sec. 20. [256B.035] [MANAGED CARE.]

The commissioner of human services may contract with public or private entities for health care services for medical assistance and general assistance medical care recipients identified by the commissioner as inappropriately using health care services. The commissioner may enter into risk-based and nonrisk-based contracts. Contracts may be for the full range of health services, or a portion thereof, for medical assistance and general assistance medical care populations to determine the effectiveness of various provider reimbursement and care delivery mechanisms. The commissioner may seek necessary federal waivers and implement projects when approval of the waivers is obtained from the Health Care Financing Administration of the United States Department of Health and Human Services.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.04, subdivision 15, is amended to read:

Subd. 15. [UTILIZATION REVIEW.] (1) Establish on a statewide basis a new program to safeguard against unnecessary or inappropriate use of medical assistance services, against excess payments, against unnecessary or inappropriate hospital admissions or lengths of stay, and against underutilization of services in prepaid health plans, long-term care facilities or any health care delivery system subject to fixed rate reimbursement. In implementing the program, the state agency shall utilize both prepayment and postpayment review systems to determine if utilization is reasonable and necessary. The determination of whether services are reasonable and necessary shall be made by the commissioner in consultation with a professional services advisory group or health care consultant appointed by the commissioner.

(2) Contracts entered into for purposes of meeting the requirements of this subdivision shall not be subject to the set-aside provisions of chapter 16B.

(3) A recipient aggrieved by the commissioner's termination of services or denial of future services may appeal pursuant to section 256.045. A vendor aggrieved by the commissioner's determination that services provided were not reasonable or necessary may appeal pursuant to the contested case procedures of chapter 14. To appeal, the vendor shall notify the commissioner in writing within 30 days of receiving the commissioner's notice. The appeal request shall specify each disputed item, the reason for the dispute, an estimate of the dollar amount involved for each disputed item, the computation that the vendor believes is correct, the authority in statute or rule upon which the vendor relies for each disputed item, the name and address of the person or firm with whom contacts may be made regarding the appeal, and other information required by the commissioner.

(4) The commissioner may select providers to provide case management services to recipients who use health care services inapappropriately or to recipients who are eligible for other managed care projects. The providers shall be selected based upon criteria that may include a comparison with a peer group of providers related to the quality, quantity, or cost of health care services delivered or a review of sanctions previously imposed by health care services programs or the provider's professional licensing board.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.04, subdivision 16, is amended to read:

Subd. 16. [PERSONAL CARE ASSISTANTS SERVICES.] (a) The commissioner shall adopt permanent rules to implement, administer, and operate ~~the personal care assistant services program~~. The rules must incorporate the standards and requirements adopted by the commissioner of health under section 144A.45 which are applicable to the provision of personal care assistant program. Limits on the extent of personal care assistant services that may be provided to an individual must be based on the cost-effectiveness of the services in relation to the costs of inpatient hospital care, nursing home care, and other available types of care. The rules must provide, at a minimum:

(1) that agencies be selected to contract with or employ and train staff to provide and supervise the provision of personal care services;

(2) that agencies employ or contract with a qualified applicant that a qualified recipient proposes to the agency as the recipient's choice of assistant;

(3) that agencies bill the medical assistance program for a personal care service by a personal care assistant and visits supervision by the registered nurse supervising the personal care assistant;

(4) that agencies establish a grievance mechanism; and

(5) that agencies have a quality assurance program.

(b) For personal care assistants under contract with an agency under paragraph (a), the provision of training and supervision by the agency does not create an employment relationship. The commissioner may waive the requirement for the provision of personal care services through an agency in a particular county, when there are less than two agencies providing services in that county.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.055, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [AFDC FAMILIES.] Medical assistance may be paid for a person who is eligible for or receiving, or who would be eligible for, except for excess income or assets, public assistance under the aid to families with dependent children program.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.055, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [PREGNANT WOMEN; DEPENDENT UNBORN CHILD.] Medical assistance may be paid for a pregnant woman, as certified in writing by a physician or nurse midwife who has written verification of a positive pregnancy test from a physician or licensed registered nurse, who meets the other eligibility criteria of this section and who would be categorically eligible for assistance under the aid to families with dependent children program if the child had been born and was living with the woman. For purposes of this subdivision, a woman is considered pregnant for 60 days postpartum.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.055, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PREGNANT WOMEN; NEEDY UNBORN CHILD.] Medical assistance may be paid for a pregnant woman, as certified in writing by a physician or nurse midwife who has written verification of a positive pregnancy test from a physician or licensed registered nurse, who meets the other eligibility criteria of this section and whose unborn child would be eligible as a needy child under subdivision 10 if born and living with the woman. For purposes of this subdivision, a woman is considered pregnant for 60 days postpartum.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.055, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [AGED, BLIND, OR DISABLED PERSONS.] Medical assistance may be paid for a person who meets the categorical eligibility requirements of the supplemental security income program and or, who would meet those requirements except for excess income or assets, and who meets the other eligibility requirements of this section. The methodology for calculating income must be the same methodology used for calculating income for the supplemental security income program except as specified otherwise by state or federal law, rule, or regulation.

Effective February 1, 1989, and to the extent allowed by federal law the commissioner shall deduct state and federal income taxes and federal insurance contributions act payments withheld from the individual's earned income in determining eligibility under this subdivision.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.055, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [DISABLED CHILDREN.] (a) A person is eligible for medical assistance if the person is under age 19 and qualifies as a disabled individual under United States Code, title 42, section 1382c(a), and would be eligible for medical assistance under the state plan if residing in a medical institution, and who requires a level of care provided in a hospital, skilled nursing facility, intermediate care facility, or intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation or related conditions, for whom home care is appropriate, provided that the cost to medical assistance for home care services is not more than the amount that medical assistance would pay for appropriate institutional care.

(b) For purposes of this subdivision, "hospital" means an acute care institution as defined in section 144.696, subdivision 3, licensed pursuant to sections 144.50 to 144.58, which is appropriate if a person is technology dependent or has a chronic health condition which requires frequent intervention by a health care professional to avoid death.

(c) For purposes of this subdivision, "skilled nursing facility" and "intermediate care facility" means a facility which provides nursing care as defined in section 144A.01, subdivision 5, licensed pursuant to sections 144A.02 to 144A.10, which is appropriate if a person is in active restorative treatment; is in need of special treatments provided or supervised by a licensed nurse; or has unpredictable episodes of active disease processes requiring immediate judgment by a licensed nurse.

(d) For purposes of this subdivision, "intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded" or "ICF/MR" means a program licensed to provide services to persons with mental retardation under section 252.28, and chapter 245A, and a physical plant licensed as a supervised living facility under chapter 144, which together are certified by the Minnesota department of health as meeting the standards in Code of Federal Regulations, title 42, part 483, for an intermediate care facility which provides services for persons with mental retardation or persons with related conditions who require 24-hour supervision and active treatment for medical, behavioral, or habilitation needs.

(e) For purposes of this subdivision, a person "requires a level of care provided in a hospital, skilled nursing facility, intermediate care facility, or intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation or related conditions" if the person requires 24-hour supervision because the person exhibits suicidal or homicidal ideation or behavior, psychosomatic disorders or somatopsychic disorders that may become life threatening, severe socially unacceptable behavior associated with psychiatric disorder, psychosis or severe developmental problems requiring continuous skilled observation, or disabling symptoms that do not respond to office-centered outpatient treatment.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.056, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [INCOME AND ASSETS GENERALLY.] Unless specifically required by state law or rule or federal law or regulation, the methodologies used in counting income and assets to determine eligibility for medical assistance shall be as follows: (a) for persons whose eligibility category is based on blindness, disability, or age of 65 or more years, the methodologies for the supplemental security income program shall be used; and (b) for families and children, which includes all other eligibility categories, the methodologies for the aid to families with dependent children program under section 256.73 shall be used. For these purposes, a "methodology" does not include an asset or income standard, budgeting or accounting method, or method of determining effective dates.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.056, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [HOMESTEAD.] To be eligible for medical assistance, a person must not own, individually or together with the person's spouse, real property other than the homestead. For the purposes of this section, "homestead" means the house owned and occupied by the applicant or recipient as a primary place of residence, together with the contiguous land upon which it is situated. The homestead shall continue to be excluded for persons residing in a long-term care facility if it is used as a primary residence by the spouse, minor child, or disabled child of any age. one of the following individuals:

(a) the spouse;

(b) a child under age 21;

(c) a child of any age who is blind or permanently and totally disabled as defined in the supplemental security income program;

(d) a sibling who has equity interest in the home and who resided in the home for at least one year immediately before the date of the person's admission to the facility; or

(e) a child of any age, or, subject to federal approval, a grandchild of any age, who resided in the home for at least two years immediately before the date of the person's admission to the facility, and who provided care to the person that permitted the person to reside at home rather than in an institution.

The homestead is also excluded for the first six calendar months of the person's stay in the long-term care facility. The person's equity in the homestead must be reduced to an amount within limits or excluded on another basis if the person remains in the long-term care facility for a period longer than six months. Real estate not used as a home may not be retained unless the property is not salable, the equity is $6,000 or less and the income produced by the property is at least six percent of the equity, or the excess real property is exempted for a period of nine months if there is a good faith effort to sell the property and a legally binding agreement is signed to repay the amount of assistance issued during that nine months.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.056, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [ASSET LIMITATIONS.] To be eligible for medical assistance, a person must not individually own more than $3,000 in assets, or if a member of a household with two family members (husband and wife, or parent and child), the household must not own more than $6,000 in assets, plus $200 for each additional legal dependent. In addition to these maximum amounts, an eligible individual or family may accrue interest on these amounts, but they must be reduced to the maximum at the time of an eligibility redetermination. For residents of long-term care facilities, the accumulation of the clothing and personal needs allowance pursuant to section 256B.35 must also be reduced to the maximum at the time of the eligibility redetermination. The value of the items in paragraphs (a) to (i) are not considered in determining medical assistance eligibility.

(a) The homestead is not considered.

(b) Household goods and personal effects are not considered.

(c) Personal property used as a regular abode by the applicant or recipient is not considered.

(d) A lot in a burial plot for each member of the household is not considered.

(e) Capital and operating assets of a trade or business that the local agency determines are necessary to the person's ability to earn an income are not considered.

(f) For a period of six months, Insurance settlements to repair or replace damaged, destroyed, or stolen property are not considered to the same extent as in the related cash assistance programs.

(g) One motor vehicle that is licensed pursuant to chapter 168 and defined as: (1) passenger automobile, (2) station wagon, (3) motorcycle, (4) motorized bicycle or (5) truck of the weight found in categories A to E, of section 168.013, subdivision 1e, and that is used primarily for the person's benefit is not considered.

To be excluded, the vehicle must have a market value of less than $4,500; be necessary to obtain medically necessary health services; be necessary for employment; be modified for operation by or transportation of a handicapped person; or be necessary to perform essential daily tasks because of climate, terrain, distance, or similar factors. The equity value of other motor vehicles is counted against the asset limit.

(h) Life insurance policies and assets designated as burial expenses, according to the standards and restrictions of the supplemental security income (SSI) program.

(i) Other items which may be excluded by federal law are not considered.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.056, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [INCOME.] To be eligible for medical assistance, a person must not have, or anticipate receiving, semiannual income in excess of 120 percent of the income standards by family size used in the aid to families with dependent children program, except that families and children may have an income up to 133 $\frac{1}{3}$ percent of the AFDC income standard. ~~Notwithstanding any laws or rules to the contrary,~~ In computing income to determine eligibility of persons who are not residents of long-term care facilities, the commissioner shall disregard increases in income as required by Public Law Numbers 94-566, section 503; 99-272; and 99-509.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.056, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [~~PERIOD OF INELIGIBILITY~~ ELIGIBILITY.] Eligibility is available for the month of application and for three months prior to application if the person was eligible in those prior months. A redetermination of eligibility must occur every 12 months.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.057, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PREGNANT WOMEN AND INFANTS.] An infant less than one year of age or a pregnant woman, as certified in writing by a physician or nurse midwife who has written verification of a positive pregnancy test from a physician or licensed registered nurse, is eligible for medical assistance if countable family income is equal to or less than 185 percent of the federal poverty guideline for the same family size. Eligibility for a pregnant woman or infant less than one year of age under this subdivision must be determined without regard to asset standards established in section 256B.056, subdivision 3. Adjustments in the income limits due to annual changes in the federal poverty guidelines shall be implemented the first day of July following publication of the changes.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.057, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CHILDREN.] A child one through seven five years of age in a family whose countable income is less than ~~400~~ 133 percent of the federal poverty guidelines for the same family size, is eligible for medical assistance. A child six through seven years of age, who was born after September 30, 1983, in a family whose countable income is less than 100 percent of the federal poverty guidelines for the same family size is eligible for medical assistance. Eligibility for children under this subdivision must be determined without regard to asset standards established in section 256B.056, subdivision 3. Adjustments in the income limits due to annual changes in the federal poverty guidelines shall be implemented the first day of July following publication of the changes.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.057, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [QUALIFIED WORKING DISABLED ADULTS.] A person who is entitled to Medicare Part A benefits under section 1818A of the Social Security Act; whose income does not exceed 200 percent of the federal poverty guidelines for the applicable family size; whose nonexempt assets do not exceed twice the maximum amount allowable under the supplemental security income program, according to family size; and who is not otherwise eligible for medical assistance, is eligible for medical assistance reimbursement of the Medicare Part A premium. Adjustments in the income limits due to annual changes in the federal poverty guidelines shall be implemented the first day of July following publication of the changes.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.057, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [DISABLED ADULT CHILDREN.] A person who is at least 18 years old, who was eligible for supplemental security income benefits on the basis of blindness or disability, who became disabled or blind before he or she reached the age of 22, and who lost eligibility as a result of becoming entitled to a child's insurance benefits on or after July 1, 1987, under section 202(d) of the Social Security Act, or because of an increase in those benefits effective on or after July 1, 1987, is eligible for medical assistance as long as he or she would be entitled to supplemental security income in the absence of child's insurance benefits or increases in those benefits.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.0575, is amended to read:

256B.0575 [AVAILABILITY OF INCOME FOR INSTITUTIONALIZED PERSONS.]

When an institutionalized person is determined eligible for medical assistance, the income that exceeds the deductions in paragraphs (a) and (b) must be applied to the cost of institutional care.

(a) The following amounts must be deducted from the institutionalized person's income in the following order:

- (1) the personal needs allowance under section 256B.35;
- (2) the personal allowance for disabled individuals under section 256B.36;
- (3) if the institutionalized person has a legally-appointed guardian or conservator, five percent of the recipient's gross monthly income up to $100 as reimbursement for guardianship or conservatorship services;
- (4) a monthly income allowance determined under section 256B.058, subdivision 2, but only to the extent income of the institutionalized spouse is made available to the community spouse;
- (5) a monthly allowance for children under age 18 which, together with the net income of the children, would provide income equal to the medical assistance standard for a family size that includes only the minor children. This deduction applies only if the children do not live with the community spouse, and only if the children resided with the institutionalized person immediately prior to admission;
- (6) a monthly family allowance for other family members, equal to one-third of the difference between 122 percent of the federal poverty guidelines and the monthly income for that family member; and
- ~~(6)~~ (7) amounts for reasonable expenses incurred for necessary medical or remedial care for the institutionalized spouse that are not medical assistance covered expenses and that are not subject to payment by a third party.

For purposes of clause (5) (6), "other family member" includes only minor or dependent children, dependent parents, or dependent siblings of the institutionalized or community spouse if the sibling resides with the community spouse. means a person who resides with the community spouse and who is a minor or dependent child, dependent parent, or dependent sibling of either spouse. "Dependent" means a person who could be claimed as a dependent for federal income tax purposes under the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) Income shall be allocated to an institutionalized person for a period of up to three calendar months, in an amount equal to the medical assistance standard for a family size of one if:

(1) a physician certifies that the person is expected to reside in the long-term care facility for three calendar months or less;

(2) if the person has expenses of maintaining a residence in the community; and

(3) if one of the following circumstances apply:

(i) the person was not living together with a spouse or a family member as defined in paragraph (a) when the person entered a long-term care facility; or

(ii) the person and the person's spouse become institutionalized on the same date, in which case the allocation shall be applied to the income of one of the spouses.

For purposes of this paragraph, a person is determined to be residing in a licensed nursing home, regional treatment center, or medical institution if the person is expected to remain for a period of one full calendar month or more.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.059, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [INCREASED COMMUNITY SPOUSE ASSET ALLOWANCE; WHEN ALLOWED.] (a) If either the institutionalized spouse or community spouse establishes that the community spouse asset allowance under subdivision 3 (in relation to the amount of income generated by such an allowance) is not sufficient to raise the community spouse's income to the minimum monthly maintenance needs allowance in section 256B.058, subdivision 2, paragraph (c), there shall be substituted for the amount allowed to be transferred an amount sufficient, when combined with the monthly income otherwise available to the spouse, to provide the minimum monthly maintenance needs allowance. A substitution under this paragraph may be made only if the assets of the couple have been arranged so that the maximum amount of income-producing assets, at the maximum rate of return, are available to the community spouse under the community spouse asset allowance. The maximum rate of return is the average rate of return available from the financial institution holding the asset, or a rate determined by the commissioner to be reasonable according to community standards, if the asset is not held by a financial institution.

(b) The community spouse asset allowance under subdivision 3 can be increased by court order or hearing that complies with the requirements of United States Code, title 42, section 1924.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.059, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [ASSET AVAILABILITY.] (a) At the time of application for medical assistance benefits, assets considered available to the institutionalized spouse shall be the total value of all assets in which either spouse has an ownership interest, reduced by the greater of:

(1) $12,000; or

(2) the lesser of the spousal share or $60,000; or

(3) the amount required by court order to be paid to the community spouse. If the community spouse asset allowance has been increased under subdivision 4, then the assets considered available to the institutionalized spouse under this subdivision shall be further reduced by the value of additional amounts allowed under subdivision 4.

(b) An institutionalized spouse may be found eligible for medical assistance even though assets in excess of the allowable amount are found to be available under paragraph (a) if the assets are owned jointly or individually by the community spouse, and the institutionalized spouse cannot use those assets to pay for the cost of care without the consent of the community spouse, and if: (i) the institutionalized spouse assigns to the commissioner the right to support from the community spouse under section 256B.14, subdivision 2; (ii) the institutionalized spouse lacks the ability to execute an assignment due to a physical or mental impairment; or (iii) the denial of eligibility would cause an imminent threat to the institutionalized spouse's health and well-being.

(c) After the month in which the institutionalized spouse is determined eligible for medical assistance, during the continuous period of institutionalization, no assets of the community spouse are considered available to the institutionalized spouse, unless the institutionalized spouse has been found eligible under clause (b).

(e) (d) For purposes of this section, assets do not include assets excluded under section 256B.056, without regard to the limitations on total value in that section.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.0595, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PROHIBITED TRANSFERS.] If an institutionalized a person or the person's spouse has given away, sold, or disposed of, for less than fair market value, any asset or interest therein, except assets other than the homestead that are excluded under section 256B.056, subdivision 3, within 30 months of before or any time after the date of institutionalization if the person has been determined eligible for medical assistance, or within 30 months of before or any time after the date of the first approved application for medical assistance if the person has not yet been determined eligible for medical assistance, the person is ineligible for long-term care services for the period of time determined under subdivision 2. For purposes of this section, long-term care services include nursing facility services, and home and community-based services provided pursuant to section 256B.491. For purposes of this subdivision and subdivisions 2, 3, and 4, "institutionalized person" includes a person who is an inpatient in a nursing facility, or who is receiving home and community-based services under section 256B.491.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.0595, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PERIOD OF INELIGIBILITY.] For any uncompensated transfer, the number of months of ineligibility for long-term care services shall be the lesser of 30 months, or the uncompensated transfer amount divided by the average medical assistance rate for nursing facility services in the state in effect on the date of application. The amount used to calculate the average medical assistance payment rate shall be adjusted each July 1 to reflect payment rates for the previous calendar year. The period of ineligibility begins with the month in which the assets were transferred. If the transfer was not reported to the local agency at the time of application, and the applicant received long-term care services during what would have been the period of ineligibility if the transfer had been reported, a cause of action exists against the transferee for the cost of long-term care services provided during the period of ineligibility, or for the uncompensated amount of the transfer, whichever is less. The action may be brought by the state or the local agency responsible for providing medical assistance under chapter 256G. The uncompensated transfer amount is the fair market value of the asset at the time it was given away, sold, or disposed of, less the amount of compensation received.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.0595, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [OTHER EXCEPTIONS TO TRANSFER PROHIBITION.] An institutionalized person receiving medical assistance on the date of institutionalization who has transferred assets for less than fair market value within the 30 months immediately before the date of institutionalization or an institutionalized person who was not receiving medical assistance on the date of institutionalization and who has transferred assets for less than fair market value within 30 months immediately before the month of application who has made, or whose spouse has made a transfer prohibited by subdivision 1, is not ineligible for long-term care services if one of the following conditions apply applies:

(1) the assets were transferred to the community spouse, as defined in section 256B.059; or

(2) the institutionalized spouse, prior to being institutionalized, transferred assets to his or her spouse, provided that the spouse to whom the assets were transferred does not then transfer those assets to another person for less than fair market value. (At the time when one spouse is institutionalized, assets must be allocated between the spouses as provided under section 256B.059); or

(3) the assets were transferred to the individual's child who is blind or permanently and totally disabled as determined in the supplemental security income program; or

(4) a satisfactory showing is made that the individual intended to dispose of the assets either at fair market value or for other valuable consideration; or

(5) the local agency determines that denial of eligibility for long-term care services would work an undue hardship and grants a waiver of excess assets. When a waiver is granted, a cause of action exists against the person to whom the assets were transferred for that portion of long-term care services granted within 30 months of the transfer, or the amount of the uncompensated transfer, whichever is less, together with the costs incurred due to the action. The action may be brought by the state or the local agency responsible for providing medical assistance under this chapter.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.0625, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [OUTPATIENT AND CLINIC SERVICES.] Medical assistance covers outpatient hospital or ~~nonprofit community health clinic services~~ or physician-directed clinic services. The physician-directed clinic staff shall include at least two physicians, ~~one of whom is on the premises whenever the clinic is open,~~ and all services shall be provided under the direct supervision of the a physician who is on the premises. Hospital outpatient departments are subject to the same limitations and reimbursements as other enrolled vendors for all services, except initial triage, emergency services, and services not provided or immediately available in clinics, physicians' offices, or by other enrolled providers. A second medical opinion is required before reimbursement for elective surgeries requiring a second opinion. The commissioner shall publish in the State Register a list of elective surgeries that require a second medical opinion before reimbursement and the criteria and standards for deciding whether an elective surgery should require a second surgical opinion. The list and the criteria and standards are not subject to the requirements of sections 14.01 to 14.69. The commissioner's decision whether a second medical opinion is required, made in accordance with rules governing that decision, is not subject to administrative appeal. "Emergency services" means those medical services required for the immediate diagnosis and treatment of medical conditions that, if not immediately diagnosed and treated, could lead to serious physical or mental disability or death or are necessary to alleviate severe pain. Neither the hospital, its employees, nor any physician or dentist, shall be liable in any action arising out of a determination not to render emergency services or care if reasonable care is exercised in determining the condition of the person, or in determining the appropriateness of the facilities, or the qualifications and availability of personnel to render these services consistent with this section.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.0625, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [COMMUNITY MENTAL HEALTH CENTER SERVICES.] Medical assistance covers community mental health center services, as defined in rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to section 256B.04, subdivision 2, and provided by a community mental health center as defined in section 245.62, subdivision 2.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.0625, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8a. [OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY.] Medical assistance covers occupational therapy and related services.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.0625, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [DENTAL SERVICES.] Medical assistance covers dental services, ~~excluding cast metal restorations.~~ Dental services include, with prior authorization, fixed cast metal restorations that are cost-effective for persons who cannot use removable dentures because of their medical condition.

Sec. 47. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.0625, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [DRUGS.] (a) Medical assistance covers drugs if prescribed by a licensed practitioner. The commissioner shall designate a formulary committee to advise the commissioner on the names of drugs for which payment is made, recommend a system for reimbursing providers on a set fee or charge basis rather than the present system, and develop methods encouraging use of generic drugs when they are less expensive and equally effective as trademark drugs. The commissioner shall appoint the formulary committee members no later than 30 days following July 1, 1981. The formulary committee shall consist of nine members, four of whom shall be physicians who are not employed by the department of human services, and a majority of whose practice is for persons paying privately or through health insurance, three of whom shall be pharmacists who are not employed by the department of human services, and a majority of whose practice is for persons paying privately or through health insurance, a consumer representative, and a nursing home representative. Committee members shall serve two-year terms and shall serve without compensation. The commissioner may establish a drug formulary. Its establishment and publication shall not be subject to the requirements of the administrative procedure act, but the formulary committee shall review and comment on the formulary contents. Prior authorization may be required by the commissioner, with the consent of the drug formulary committee, before certain formulary drugs are eligible for payment. The formulary shall not include: drugs or products for which there is no federal funding; over-the-counter drugs, except for antacids, acetaminophen, family planning products, aspirin, insulin, and vitamins for children under the age of seven and pregnant or nursing women; or any other over-the-counter drug identified by the commissioner, in consultation with the appropriate professional consultants under contract with or employed by the state agency, as necessary, appropriate and cost effective for the treatment of certain specified chronic diseases, conditions or disorders, and this determination shall not be subject to the requirements of chapter 14, the administrative procedure act; nutritional products, except for those products needed for treatment of phenylketonuria, hyperlysinemia, maple syrup urine disease, a combined allergy to human milk, cow milk, and soy formula, or any other childhood or adult diseases, conditions, or disorders identified by the commissioner as requiring a similarly necessary nutritional product; anorectics; and drugs for which medical value has not been established. Separate payment shall not be made for nutritional products for residents of long-term care facilities; payment for dietary requirements is a component of the per diem rate paid to these facilities. Payment to drug vendors shall not be modified before the formulary is established except that the commissioner shall not permit payment for any drugs which may not by law be included in the formulary, and the commissioner's determination shall not be subject to chapter 14, the administrative procedure act. The commissioner shall publish conditions for prohibiting payment for specific drugs after considering the formulary committee's recommendations.

(b) The basis for determining the amount of payment shall be the lower of the actual acquisition costs of the drugs plus a fixed dispensing fee established by the commissioner, the maximum allowable cost set by the federal government or by the commissioner plus the fixed dispensing fee or the usual and customary price charged to the public. Actual acquisition cost includes quantity and other special discounts except time and cash discounts. The actual acquisition cost of a drug may be estimated by the commissioner. The maximum allowable cost of a multisource drug may be set by the commissioner and it shall be comparable to, but no higher than, the maximum amount paid by other third party payors in this state who have maximum allowable cost programs. Establishment of the amount of payment for drugs shall not be subject to the requirements of the administrative procedure act. An additional dispensing fee of $.30 may be added to the dispensing fee paid to pharmacists for legend drug prescriptions dispensed to residents of long-term care facilities when a unit dose blister card system, approved by the department, is used. Under this type of dispensing system, the pharmacist must dispense a 30-day supply of drug. The National Drug Code (NDC) from the drug container used to fill the blister card must be identified on the claim to the department. The unit dose blister card containing the drug must meet the packaging standards set forth in Minnesota Rules, part 6800.2700, that govern the return of unused drugs to the pharmacy for reuse. The pharmacy provider will be required to credit the department for the actual acquisition cost of all unused drugs that are eligible for reuse. Over-the-counter medications must be dispensed in the manufacturer's unopened package. Whenever a generically equivalent product is available, payment shall be on the basis of the actual acquisition cost of the generic drug, unless the prescriber specifically indicates "dispense as written" on the prescription as required by section 151.21, subdivision 2. Implementation of any change in the fixed dispensing fee that has not been subject to the administrative procedure act is limited to not more than 180 days, unless, during that time, the commissioner initiates rulemaking through the administrative procedure act.

Sec. 48. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.0625, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 28. [CERTIFIED PEDIATRIC OR FAMILY NURSE PRACTITIONER SERVICES.] Medical assistance covers services performed by a certified pediatric nurse practitioner or a certified family nurse practitioner in independent practice, if the services are otherwise covered under this chapter as a physician service, and if the service is within the scope of practice of the nurse practitioner's license as a registered nurse, as defined in section 148.171.

Sec. 49. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.0625, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 29. [PUBLIC HEALTH NURSING CLINIC SERVICES.]

Medical assistance covers the services of a certified public health nurse practicing in a public health nursing clinic that is a department of, or that operates under the direct authority of, a unit of government, if the service is within the scope of practice of the public health nurse's license as a registered nurse, as defined in section 148.171.

Sec. 50. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.0625, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 30. [OTHER CLINIC SERVICES.] Medical assistance covers rural health clinic, federally qualified health center, and non-profit community health clinic services. Rural health clinic services and federally qualified health center services mean services defined in United States Code, title 42, section 1396d(a)(2)(B) and (C). Payment for rural health clinic and federally qualified health center services shall be made according to applicable federal law and regulation.

Sec. 51. [256B.0627] [COVERED SERVICE; HOME CARE SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITION.] "Home care services" means a medically necessary health service that is ordered by a physician and documented in a plan of care that is reviewed and revised as medically necessary by the physician at least once every 60 days. Home care services include personal care and nursing supervision of personal care services which is reviewed and revised as medically necessary by the physician at least once every 365 days. Home care services are provided to the recipient at the recipient's residence that is a place other than a hospital or long-term care facility.

Subd. 2. [SERVICES COVERED.] Home care services covered under this section include:

- (1) nursing services;
- (2) private duty nursing services;
- (3) home health aide services;
- (4) personal care services; and
- (5) nursing supervision of personal care services.

Subd. 3. [PRIVATE DUTY NURSING SERVICES; WHO MAY PROVIDE.] Private duty nursing services may be provided by a registered nurse or licensed practical nurse who is not the recipient's spouse, legal guardian, or parent of a minor child.

Subd. 4. [PERSONAL CARE SERVICES.] (a) Personal care services may be provided by a qualified individual who is not the recipient's spouse, legal guardian, or parent of a minor child.

(b) The personal care services that are eligible for payment are the following:

- (1) bowel and bladder care;
- (2) skin care to maintain the health of the skin;
- (3) range of motion exercises;
- (4) respiratory assistance;
- (5) transfers;
- (6) bathing, grooming, and hairwashing necessary for personal hygiene;
- (7) turning and positioning;
- (8) assistance with furnishing medication that is normally self-administered;
- (9) application and maintenance of prosthetics and orthotics;
- (10) cleaning medical equipment;
- (11) dressing or undressing;
- (12) assistance with food, nutrition, and diet activities;
- (13) accompanying a recipient to obtain medical diagnosis or treatment;
- (14) services provided for the recipient's personal health and safety;
- (15) helping the recipient to complete daily living skills such as personal and oral hygiene and medication schedules; and
- (16) incidental household services that are an integral part of a personal care service described in clauses (1) to (15).

(c) The personal care services that are not eligible for payment are the following:

(1) personal care services that are not in the plan of care developed by the supervising registered nurse in consultation with the personal care assistants and the recipient or family of the recipient;

(2) services that are not supervised by the registered nurse;

(3) services provided by the recipient's spouse, legal guardian, or parent of a minor child;

(4) sterile procedures; and

(5) injections of fluids into veins, muscles, or skin.

Subd. 5. [LIMITATION ON PAYMENTS.] Medical assistance payments for home care services shall be limited according to paragraphs (a) to (e).

(a) [EXEMPTION FROM PAYMENT LIMITATIONS.] The level, or the number of hours or visits of a specific service, of home health care services to a recipient that began before and is continued without increase on or after December 1987, shall be exempt from the payment limitations of this section, as long as the services are medically necessary.

(b) [LEVEL I HOME CARE.] For all new cases after December 1987, medically necessary home care services up to $800 may be provided in a calendar month.

If the services in the recipient's home care plan will exceed the $800 threshold for 30 days or less, the medically necessary services may be provided.

(c) [LEVEL II HOME CARE.] If the services in the recipient's home care plan exceed $800 for more than 30 days, a public health nurse from the local preadmission screening team shall determine the recipient's maximum level of home care according to this paragraph.

(1) The public health nurse from the local preadmission screening team shall base the determination of the recipient's maximum level of care on the need and eligibility of the recipient for one of the following placements:

(i) residential facility for persons with mental retardation or related conditions operated under section 256B.501;

(ii) inpatient hospital care for a ventilator-dependent recipient. "Ventilator dependent" means an individual who receives mechanical ventilation for life support at least six hours per day and is expected to or has been dependent for at least 30 consecutive days;

or

(iii) all other recipients not appropriate for one of the above placements.

(2) If the recipient is eligible under clause (1)(i), the monthly medical assistance reimbursement for home care services shall not exceed the total monthly statewide average payment rate for residential facilities for children or adults with mental retardation or related conditions as appropriate for the recipient's age and level of self-preservation as determined according to Minnesota Rules, parts 9553.0010 to 9553.0080.

(3) If the recipient is eligible under clause (1)(ii), the monthly medical assistance reimbursement for home care services shall not exceed the monthly cost of care at the highest cost hospital designated as a long-term hospital under the Medicare program. For purposes of this clause, home care services means all services provided in the home that would be included in the payment for care at the long-term hospital.

(4) If the recipient is not eligible under either clause (1)(i) or (1)(ii), the monthly medical assistance reimbursement for home care services shall not exceed the total monthly statewide average payment for the case mix classification most appropriate to the recipient. The case mix classification is established under section 256B.431.

(5) The determination of the recipient's maximum level of home care by the public health nurse is called a home care cost assessment. The home care cost assessment must be requested by the home care provider before the end of the first 30 days of provided service and must be conducted by the public health nurse within ten working days following request.

(6) A home care provider shall request a new home care cost assessment when the needs of the individual have changed enough to require that a revised care plan be implemented that will increase costs beyond what was approved by the previous home care cost assessment and the change is anticipated to last for more than 30 days. The home care provider must request the home care cost assessment before the end of the first 30 days of provided service. Whenever a home care cost assessment is completed, the public health nurse that completes the home care cost assessment, in consultation with the home care provider, shall determine the time period for which a home care cost assessment shall remain valid. If the recipient continues to require home care services beyond the limited duration of the home care cost assessment, the home care provider must request a reassessment through the home care cost assessment process described above. Under no circumstances shall a home care cost assessment be valid for more than 12 months.

(7) Reimbursement for the home care cost assessment shall be made through the Medicaid administrative authority. The state shall pay the nonfederal share.

(d) [LEVEL III HOME CARE.] If the home care provider determines that the recipient's needs exceed the amount approved for the appropriate level of care as determined in paragraph (c), the home care provider may refer the case to the department for a level III determination. Based on the client needs, physician orders, diagnosis, condition, and plan of care, the department may give prior approval for care that exceeds level II described in paragraph (c). The amount approved shall not exceed the maximum cost for the appropriate level of care as determined in paragraph (c), clause (1), which will be the maximum ICF/MR rate for intermediate care facilities for persons with mental retardation or related conditions, or the maximum nursing home case mix payment, or the highest hospital cost for the state.

The department has 30 days from receipt of the request to complete the level III determination, during which time it may approve the higher level while reviewing the case.

Case reviews or approval of home care services in levels II and III may result in assignment of a case manager.

(e) [PRIOR APPROVAL REQUIRED IN FOSTER CARE SETTING.] Any home care service provided in an adult or child foster care setting must receive prior approval by the department.

Subd. 6. [RECOVERY OF EXCESSIVE PAYMENTS.] The commissioner shall seek monetary recovery from providers of payments made for services which exceed the limits established in this section.

Sec. 52. [256B.0629] [ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON ORGAN AND TISSUE TRANSPLANTS.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION AND MEMBERSHIP.] By July 1, 1990, the commissioner shall appoint and convene a 12 member advisory committee to provide advice and recommendations to the commissioner concerning the eligibility of organ and tissue transplant procedures for reimbursement by medical assistance and general assistance medical care. The committee must include representatives of the transplant provider community, hospitals, patient recipient groups or organizations, the department of human services, the department of finance, and the department of health, at least one representative of a health plan regulated under chapter 62A, 62C, or 62D, and persons with expertise in ethics, law, and economics. The terms and removal of members shall be governed by section 15.059. Members shall not receive per diems but shall be compensated for expenses. The advisory committee does not expire as provided in section 15.059, subdivision 6.

Subd. 2. [FUNCTION AND OBJECTIVES.] The advisory committee shall meet at least twice a year. The committee's activities include, but are not limited to:

(1) collection of information on the efficacy and experience of various forms of transplantation not approved by medicare;

(2) collection of information from Minnesota transplant providers on available services, success rates, and the current status of transplant activity in the state;

(3) development of guidelines for determining when and under what conditions, organ and tissue transplants not approved by medicare should be eligible for reimbursement by medical assistance and general assistance medical care;

(4) providing recommendations, at least annually, to the commissioner on: (i) organ and tissue transplant procedures, beyond those approved by medicare, that should also be eligible for reimbursement under medical assistance and general assistance medical care; and (ii) which transplant centers should be eligible for reimbursement from medical assistance and general assistance medical care.

Subd. 3. [ANNUAL REPORT.] The advisory committee shall present an annual report to the commissioner and the chairs of the health and human services appropriations divisions of the house appropriations committee and the senate finance committee by January 1 of each year on the findings and recommendations of the committee.

Subd. 4. [RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE COMMISSIONER.] The commissioner shall periodically:

(1) Recommend to the legislature criteria governing the eligibility of organ and tissue transplant procedures for reimbursement from medical assistance and general assistance medical care. Procedures approved by medicare are automatically eligible for medical assistance and general assistance medical care reimbursement. Additional procedures are eligible for reimbursement only upon approval by the legislature. Only procedures recommended by the task force and the commissioner may be considered by the legislature.

(2) Recommend to the legislature criteria for certifying transplant centers within and outside of Minnesota where Minnesotans receiving medical assistance and general assistance medical care may obtain transplants. Additional centers may be certified only upon approval of the legislature. Only centers recommended by the task force and the commissioner may be considered by the legislature.

Sec. 53. [256B.0643] [VENDOR REQUEST FOR CONTESTED CASE PROCEEDING.]

Unless otherwise provided by law, a vendor of medical care, as defined in section 256B.02, subdivision 7, must use this procedure to request a contested case, as defined in section 14.02, subdivision 3. A request for a contested case must be filed with the commissioner in writing within 60 days after the date the notification of an action or determination was mailed. The appeal request must specify:

- (1) each disputed action or item;
- (2) the reason for the dispute;
- (3) an estimate of the dollar amount involved, if any, for each disputed item;
- (4) the computation or other disposition that the appealing party believes is correct;
- (5) the authority in statute or rule upon which the appealing party relies for each disputed item;
- (6) the name and address of the person or firm with whom contacts may be made regarding the appeal; and
- (7) other information required by the commissioner. Nothing in this section shall be construed to create a right to an administrative appeal or contested case proceeding.

Sec. 54. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.091, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SCREENING OF PERSONS.] Prior to nursing home or boarding care home admission, screening teams shall assess the needs of all applicants, except (1) patients transferred from other certified nursing homes or boarding care homes; (2) patients who, having entered acute care facilities from nursing homes or boarding care homes, are returning to a nursing home or boarding care home; (3) persons entering a facility described in section 256B.431, subdivision 4, paragraph (e) individuals who are screened by another state within three months before admission to a Minnesota nursing home; (4) individuals not eligible for medical assistance whose length of stay is expected to be 30 days or less based on a physician's certification, if the facility notifies the screening team upon admission and provides an update to the screening team on the 30th day after admission; (5) individuals who have a contractual right to have their nursing home care paid for indefinitely by the veteran's administration; or (6) persons entering a facility conducted by and for the adherents of a recognized church or religious denomination for the purpose of providing care and services for those who depend upon spiritual means, through prayer alone, for healing. The total screening cost for each county for applicants and residents of nursing homes who request a screening must be paid monthly by nursing homes and boarding care homes participating in the medical assistance program in the county. The monthly amount to be paid by each nursing home and boarding care home for fiscal year 1991 must be determined by dividing the county's estimate of the total annual cost of screenings allowed by the commissioner in the county for the following rate year by 12 to determine the monthly cost estimate and allocating the monthly cost estimate to each nursing home and boarding care home based on the number of licensed beds in the nursing home or boarding care home. The rate allowed for a screening where two team members are present shall be the actual costs up to $195. The rate allowed for a screening where only one team member is present shall be the actual costs up to $117. The commissioner shall establish by rulemaking an annual adjustment of the state maximum screening rate. The monthly cost estimate for each nursing home or boarding care home must be submitted to the nursing home or boarding care home and the state by the county no later than February 15 of each year for inclusion in the nursing home's or boarding care home's payment rate on the following rate year. The commissioner shall include the reported annual estimated cost of screenings for each nursing home or boarding care home as an operating cost of that nursing home in accordance with section 256B.431, subdivision 2b, clause (g). For all individuals regardless of payment source, if delay of screening timelines are not met because a county is late in screening an individual who meets the delay of screening criteria, the county is solely responsible for paying the cost of the preadmission screening. If in more than ten percent of the total number of screenings performed by a county in a fiscal year for all individuals regardless of payment source, the screening timelines were not met because a county was late in screening the individual, the county is solely responsible for paying the cost of those delayed screenings that exceed ten percent. Notwithstanding section 256B.0641, overpayments attributable to payment of the screening costs under the medical assistance program may not be recovered from a facility. Any other interested person may be screened under this subdivision if the person pays a fee for the screening based upon a sliding fee scale determined by the commissioner.

Sec. 55. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.091, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [REIMBURSEMENT.] The commissioner of human services shall amend the Minnesota medical assistance plan to include reimbursement for the local screening teams. Medical assistance reimbursement shall not be provided for any recipient placed in a nursing home in opposition to the screening team's recommendation after January 1, 1981; provided, however, the commissioner shall not deny reimbursement for (1) an individual admitted to a nursing home or boarding care home who is assessed to need long-term supportive services if long-term supportive services other than nursing home care are not available in that community; (2) any eligible individual placed in the nursing home or boarding care home pending an appeal of the preadmission screening team's decision; (3) any eligible individual placed in the nursing home or boarding care home by a physician in an emergency situation and where the screening team has not made a decision within five working days of its initial contact; or (4) any medical assistance recipient when, after full discussion of all appropriate alternatives including those that are expected to be less costly than care in a nursing home or boarding care home, the individual or the individual's legal representative insists on nursing home or boarding care home placement. Medical assistance reimbursement for nursing homes shall not be provided for any recipient who the team has determined does not meet the level of care criteria for nursing home placement. The screening team shall provide documentation that the most cost effective alternatives available were offered to this individual or the individual's legal representative.

Sec. 56. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 256B.091, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [ALTERNATIVE CARE GRANTS.] (a) The commissioner shall provide grants funds to counties participating in the program to pay costs of providing alternative care to individuals screened under subdivision 4 and nursing home or boarding care home residents who request a screening.

(b) Prior to July of each year, the commissioner shall allocate state funds available for alternative care grants to each local agency. This allocation must be made as follows: half of the state funds available for alternative care grants must be allocated to each county according to the total number of adults in that county who are recipients age 65 or older who are reported to the department by March 1 of each state fiscal year and half of the state funds available for alternative care grants must be allocated to a county according to that county's number of Medicare enrollments age 65 or older for the most recent statistical report.

(c) For fiscal year 1991 only, the appropriation shall be distributed as specified in paragraphs (1) and (2).

(1) Sufficient state funds shall be set aside for payment for unreimbursed services provided prior to April 1, 1990, as billed by each county by June 1, 1990.

(2) The remainder of the state funds available for alternative care grants must be allocated to each county in the same proportion as each county's share of the actual payments made plus claims submitted for services rendered in the base year. The base year for each county shall be either fiscal year 1989 or calendar year 1989, whichever period contains a larger total dollar amount of payments plus claims submitted for each county. To be counted in the allocation process, claims must be submitted by June 1, 1990. This allocation will include the state share for medical assistance recipients as well as the state share for those who would be eligible within 180 days after nursing home admission. No reallocation between counties will be made. The county agency shall not be reimbursed for services which exceed the county allocation. To receive reimbursement for persons who are eligible within 180 days, the county must submit invoices within 90 days following the month of service. The number of medical assistance waiver recipients which each county may serve is allocated according to the number of open medical assistance waiver cases on July 1, 1990. Additional recipients may be served with the approval of the commissioner. These additional recipients must be served within the county's allocation.

(d) The alternative care grant appropriation for fiscal years 1992 and beyond shall cover only individuals who would be eligible for medical assistance within 180 days after admission to a nursing home. The commissioner shall allocate state funds available for alternative care grants to each county agency. The allocation must be made as follows: the state funds available for alternative care grants, up to the amount of the previous year's allocation increased by the percentage for rates in Minnesota Rules, part 9505.2490, must be allocated to each county in the same proportion as the previous year's allocation. If the appropriation is less than the previous year's allocation plus inflation, it shall be prorated according to the county's share of the formula. Any funds appropriated in excess of the previous year's allocation plus inflation shall be allocated to county agencies by methodologies that target funds for programs designed to reduce premature nursing home placements and promote cost-effective alternatives to increasing nursing home beds and nursing home utilization. The additional allocation to counties will become part of the allocation base. The commissioner shall appoint a work group including county and senior representatives to assist in developing criteria for allocating funds which may include identifying special target populations, geographic areas, or projects. No reallocation between counties shall be made. The county agency shall not be reimbursed for services which exceed the county allocation. To receive reimbursement, the county must submit invoices within 90 days following the date of service. The number of medical assistance waiver recipients which a county may serve must be allocated according to the number of open medical assistance waiver cases on July 1 of each fiscal year. Additional recipients may be served with the approval of the commissioner.

(e) The commissioner is directed to conduct a review of the preadmission screening program and alternative care grant program including screening requirements, screening reimbursement, program effectiveness, eligibility criteria for alternative care, accessibility to services, copayment and sliding fee issues, county utilization, rates for services, the payment system, funding and forecasting issues, administrative requirements, incentives for innovation, improved consistency with the community assistance for disabled individuals program and medical assistance home care services, and the allocation formula. In conducting this review, special attention should be given to ways to increase sliding fee collections and reduce or minimize administrative and program requirements and associated county costs. The commissioner shall appoint a work group including county and senior citizen representatives to assist in the program review. The commissioner must present a report on the findings of the review and recommendations for change to the legislature by February 15, 1991.

(f) Payment is available under this subdivision only for individuals (1) for whom the screening team would recommend nursing home or boarding care home admission, or continued stay if alternative care were not available; (2) who are receiving medical assistance or who would be eligible for medical assistance within 180 days of admission to a nursing home; (3) who need services that are not available at that time in the county through other public assistance; and (4) who are age 65 or older.

(g) The commissioner shall establish by rule, in accordance with chapter 14, procedures for determining grant reallocations, limits on the rates for payment of approved services, including screenings, and submittal and approval of a biennial county plan for the administration of the preadmission screening and alternative care grants program.

(h) Grants may be used for payment of costs of providing care-related supplies, equipment, and the following services such as, but not limited to: adult foster care for elderly persons, adult day care whether or not offered through a nursing home, nutritional counseling, or medical social services, which, home health aide, homemaker, personal care, case management, and respite care. These services are must be provided by a licensed health care provider, a home health service eligible for reimbursement under Titles XVIII and XIX of the federal Social Security Act, or by persons employed by or contracted with by the county board or the local welfare agency.

(i) The county agency shall ensure that a plan of care is established for each individual in accordance with subdivision 3, clause (e)(2), and that a client's service needs and eligibility is reassessed at least every six months. The plan shall include any services prescribed by the individual's attending physician as necessary and follow up services as necessary. The county agency shall provide documentation to the commissioner verifying that the individual's alternative care is not available at that time through any other public assistance or service program and shall provide documentation in each individual's plan of care and to the commissioner that the most cost-effective alternatives available have been offered to the individual and that the individual was free to choose among available qualified providers, both public and private. The county agency shall document to the commissioner that the agency made reasonable efforts to inform potential providers of the anticipated need for services under the alternative care grants program, including a minimum of 14 days written advance notice of the opportunity to be selected as a service provider and an annual public meeting with providers to explain and review the criteria for selection, and that the agency allowed potential providers an opportunity to be selected to contract with the county board. Grants to counties under this subdivision are subject to audit by the commissioner for fiscal and utilization control.

(j) The county must select providers for contracts or agreements using the following criteria and other criteria established by the county:

- (1) the need for the particular services offered by the provider;
- (2) the population to be served, including the number of clients, the length of time services will be provided, and the medical condition of clients;
- (3) the geographic area to be served;
- (4) quality assurance methods, including appropriate licensure, certification, or standards, and supervision of employees when needed;
- (5) rates for each service and unit of service exclusive of county administrative costs;
- (6) evaluation of services previously delivered by the provider; and
- (7) contract or agreement conditions, including billing requirements, cancellation, and indemnification.

(k) The county must evaluate its own agency services under the criteria established for other providers. The county shall provide a written statement of the reasons for not selecting providers.

(l) The commissioner shall establish a sliding fee schedule for requiring payment for the cost of providing services under this subdivision to persons who are eligible for the services but who are not yet eligible for medical assistance. The sliding fee schedule is not subject to chapter 14 but the commissioner shall publish the schedule and any later changes in the State Register and allow a period of 20 working days from the publication date for interested persons to comment before adopting the sliding fee schedule in final forms.

(m) The commissioner shall apply for a waiver for federal financial participation to expand the availability of services under this subdivision. Waivered services provided to medical assistance recipients must comply with the same criteria as defined in this section and in the approved waiver. Reimbursement for the medical assistance recipients shall be made from the regular medical assistance account. The commissioner shall provide grants to counties from the nonfederal share, unless the commissioner obtains a federal waiver for medical assistance payments, of medical assistance appropriations. A county agency may use grant money to supplement but not supplant services available through other public assistance or service programs and shall not use grant money to establish new programs for which public money is available through sources other than grants provided under this subdivision. A county agency shall not use grant money to provide care under this subdivision to an individual if the anticipated cost of providing this care would exceed the average payment, as determined by the commissioner, for the level of care that the recipient would receive if placed in a nursing home or boarding care home. The nonfederal share may be used to pay up to 90 percent of the start-up and service delivery costs of providing care under this subdivision. The state share of the nonfederal portion of costs shall be 90 percent and the county share shall be ten percent. Each county agency that receives a grant shall pay ten percent of the costs for persons who are eligible for the services but who are not yet eligible for medical assistance.

(n) Beginning July 1, 1991, the state will reimburse counties according to the payment schedule in section 256.025 for the county share of costs incurred under this subdivision from January 1, 1991, on, for individuals who are receiving medical assistance.

(o) Beginning July 1, 1991, the state will reimburse counties, up to the limit of state appropriations, according to the payment schedule in section 256.025 for the county share of costs incurred under this subdivision from January 1, 1991, on, for individuals who would be eligible for medical assistance within 180 days of admission to a nursing home.

(p) The commissioner shall promulgate emergency rules in accordance with sections 14.29 to 14.36, to establish required documentation and reporting of care delivered.

Sec. 57. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.092, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [CASE MANAGEMENT SERVICES.] Case management services include are limited to diagnosis, an assessment of the individual's service needs, development of an individual service plan, an individual habilitation plan, and specification of methods for providing, evaluating services, and the evaluation and monitoring of the services identified in the plan.

Sec. 58. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.092, subdivision 1b, is amended to read:

Subd. 1b. [INDIVIDUAL SERVICE AND HABILITATION PLANS PLAN.] The individual service and habilitation plans plan must

- (1) include the results of the diagnosis and assessment,
- (2) identify goals and objectives for the client, and
- (3) identify specific services to be provided to the client,
- (4) identify the need for an habilitation component of the plan,
and

The individual habilitation plan shall (5) identify and coordinate methodologies to carry out the goals and objectives of the individual service plan.

Sec. 59. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.092, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1c. [FISCAL LIMITATIONS.] Subdivision 1 shall not be construed as requiring expenditure of money not available to county agencies for services to persons with, or who might have, mental retardation or related conditions, except for:

- (1) services specifically required by federal law or state statute such as case management and day training and habilitation services; and
- (2) services identified in the person's individual service plan as services that the county will provide until the person's individual service plan is amended.

Sec. 60. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.092, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1d. [COUNTY REQUIREMENTS.] Before a county denies, reduces, or terminates a service to an individual due to fiscal limitations, the county agency must show that money is not available for services to persons with mental retardation or related conditions, and that good faith efforts have been made to identify needs and obtain available funds. The county agency must show this by documenting that the following actions have been taken:

(1) the county case manager has identified the person's service needs and the actions that will be taken to develop or obtain those services in the person's individual service plan and action that will be taken to prevent abuse or neglect as defined in sections 626.556, subdivision 2, paragraphs (a), (c), and (d), and 626.557, subdivision 2, paragraphs (d) and (e);

(2) prior to the admission of a person to a regional treatment center program for persons with developmental disabilities, the county agency made efforts to secure community-based alternatives. If these alternatives were rejected in favor of a regional treatment center placement, the county agency must also document the reasons why they were rejected; and

(3) the county agency has made a request for state funds or new capacity for services to meet the individual's unmet needs, since those needs have been identified in the person's individual service plan.

Sec. 61. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.092, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1e. [COUNTY WAITING LIST.] The county agency shall maintain a waiting list of persons with developmental disabilities specifying the services needed but not provided.

Sec. 62. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.14, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [IN GENERAL.] Subject to the provisions of sections 256B.055, 256B.056, and 256B.06, responsible relative means the parent of a minor recipient of medical assistance or the spouse of a medical assistance recipient.

Subd. 2. [ACTIONS TO OBTAIN PAYMENT.] The state agency shall promulgate rules to determine the ability of responsible relatives to contribute partial or complete payment or repayment of medical assistance furnished to recipients for whom they are responsible. These rules shall not require payment or repayment when payment would cause undue hardship to the responsible relative or that relative's immediate family. These rules shall be consistent with the requirements of section 252.27, subdivision 2, for parents of children whose eligibility for medical assistance was determined without deeming of the parents' resources and income. For parents of children receiving services under a federal medical assistance waiver or under section 134 of the Tax Equity and Fiscal Responsibility Act of 1982, United States Code, title 42, section 1396a(e)(3), while living in their natural home, including in-home family support services, respite care, homemaker services, and minor adaptations to the home, the state agency shall take into account the room, board, and services provided by the parents in determining the parental contribution to the cost of care. The county agency shall give the responsible relative notice of the amount of the payment or repayment. If the state agency or county agency finds that notice of the payment obligation was given to the responsible relative, but that the relative failed or refused to pay, a cause of action exists against the responsible relative for that portion of medical assistance granted after notice was given to the responsible relative, which the relative was determined to be able to pay.

The action may be brought by the state agency or the county agency in the county where assistance was granted, for the assistance, together with the costs of disbursements incurred due to the action.

In addition to granting the county or state agency a money judgment, the court may, upon a motion or order to show cause, order continuing contributions by a responsible relative found able to repay the county or state agency. The order shall be effective only for the period of time during which the recipient receives medical assistance from the county or state agency.

Subd. 3. [COMMUNITY SPOUSE CONTRIBUTION.] The community spouse of an institutionalized person who receives medical assistance under section 256B.059, subdivision 5, paragraph (b), has an obligation to pay for the cost of care equal to the dollar value of assets considered available under section 256B.059, subdivision 5.

Subd. 4. [APPEALS.] A responsible relative may appeal the determination of an obligation to make a contribution under this section, according to section 256.045.

Sec. 63. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.15, is amended to read:

256B.15 [CLAIMS AGAINST ESTATES.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTATES SUBJECT TO CLAIMS.] If a person receives any medical assistance hereunder, on the person's death, if single, or on the death of the survivor of a married couple, either or both of whom received medical assistance, and only when there is no surviving child who is under 21 or is blind or totally disabled, the total amount paid for medical assistance rendered for the person and spouse, after age 65, without interest, shall be filed as a claim against the estate of the person or the estate of the surviving spouse in the court having jurisdiction to probate the estate.

A claim against the estate of a surviving spouse who did not receive medical assistance, for medical assistance rendered for the predeceased spouse, is limited to the value of the assets of the estate that were marital property or jointly owned property at any time during the marriage. A claim shall be filed if medical assistance was rendered for either or both persons under one of the following circumstances:

(a) the person was over 65 years of age; or

(b) the person resided in a medical institution for six months or longer and, at the time of institutionalization or application for medical assistance, whichever is later, the person could not have reasonably been expected to be discharged and returned home, as certified in writing by the person's treating physician. For purposes of this section only, a "medical institution" means a skilled nursing facility, intermediate care facility, intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation, nursing facility, or inpatient hospital.

The claim shall be considered an expense of the last illness of the decedent for the purpose of section 524.3-805. Any statute of limitations that purports to limit any county agency or the state agency, or both, to recover for medical assistance granted hereunder shall not apply to any claim made hereunder for reimbursement for any medical assistance granted hereunder. Counties are entitled to one-half of the nonfederal share of medical assistance collections from estates that are directly attributable to county effort.

Subd. 2. [LIMITATIONS ON CLAIMS.] The claim shall include only the total amount of medical assistance rendered after age 65 or during a period of institutionalization described in subdivision 1, clause (b), and shall not include interest. A claim against the estate of a surviving spouse who did not receive medical assistance, for medical assistance rendered for the predeceased spouse, is limited to the value of the assets of the estate that were marital property or jointly owned property at any time during the marriage.

Subd. 3. [MINOR, BLIND, OR DISABLED CHILDREN.] If a decedent who was single, or who was the surviving spouse of a married couple, is survived by a child who is under age 21 or blind or permanently and totally disabled according to the supplemental security income program criteria, no claim shall be filed against the estate.

Subd. 4. [OTHER SURVIVORS.] If the decedent who was single or the surviving spouse of a married couple is survived by one of the following persons, a claim exists against the estate in an amount not to exceed the value of the nonhomestead property included in the estate:

(a) a sibling who resided in the decedent medical assistance recipient's home at least one year before the decedent's institutionalization and continuously since the date of institutionalization; or

(b) a son or daughter or, subject to federal approval, a grandchild, who resided in the decedent medical assistance recipient's home for at least two years immediately before the parent's institutionalization and continuously since the date of institutionalization, and who establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that he or she provided care to the parent or grandparent who received medical assistance, the care was provided before institutionalization, and the care permitted the parent to reside at home rather than in an institution.

Sec. 64. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.19, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2b. [PILOT PROJECT REIMBURSEMENT.] In counties where a pilot or demonstration project is operated under the medical assistance program, the state may pay 100 percent of the administrative costs for the pilot or demonstration project after June 30, 1990. Reimbursement for these costs is subject to section 256.025.

Sec. 65. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.431, subdivision 2b, is amended to read:

Subd. 2b. [OPERATING COSTS, AFTER JULY 1, 1985.] (a) For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1985, the commissioner shall establish procedures for determining per diem reimbursement for operating costs.

(b) The commissioner shall contract with an econometric firm with recognized expertise in and access to national economic change indices that can be applied to the appropriate cost categories when determining the operating cost payment rate.

(c) The commissioner shall analyze and evaluate each nursing home's cost report of allowable operating costs incurred by the nursing home during the reporting year immediately preceding the rate year for which the payment rate becomes effective.

(d) The commissioner shall establish limits on actual allowable historical operating cost per diems based on cost reports of allowable operating costs for the reporting year that begins October 1, 1983, taking into consideration relevant factors including resident needs, geographic location, size of the nursing home, and the costs that must be incurred for the care of residents in an efficiently and economically operated nursing home. In developing the geographic groups for purposes of reimbursement under this section, the commissioner shall ensure that nursing homes in any county contiguous to the Minneapolis-St. Paul seven-county metropolitan area are included in the same geographic group. The limits established by the commissioner shall not be less, in the aggregate, than the 60th percentile of total actual allowable historical operating cost per diems for each group of nursing homes established under subdivision 1 based on cost reports of allowable operating costs in the previous reporting year. For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1987, or until the new base period is established 1989, facilities located in geographic group I as described in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0052 (Emergency), on January 1, 1987 1989, may choose to have the commissioner apply either the care related limits or the other operating cost limits calculated for facilities located in geographic group II, or both, if either of the limits calculated for the group II facilities is higher. The efficiency incentive for geographic group I nursing homes must be calculated based on geographic group I limits. The phase-in must be established utilizing the chosen limits. For purposes of these exceptions to the geographic grouping requirements, the definitions in Minnesota Rules, parts 9549.0050 to 9549.0059 (Emergency), and 9549.0010 to 9549.0080, apply. The limits established under this paragraph remain in effect until the commissioner establishes a new base period. Until the new base period is established, the commissioner shall adjust the limits annually using the appropriate economic change indices established in paragraph (e). In determining allowable historical operating cost per diems for purposes of setting limits and nursing home payment rates, the commissioner shall divide the allowable historical operating costs by the actual number of resident days, except that where a nursing home is occupied at less than 90 percent of licensed capacity days, the commissioner may establish procedures to adjust the computation of the per diem to an imputed occupancy level at or below 90 percent. The commissioner shall establish efficiency incentives as appropriate. The commissioner may establish efficiency incentives for different operating cost categories. The commissioner shall consider establishing efficiency incentives in care related cost categories. The commissioner may combine one or more operating cost categories and may use different methods for calculating payment rates for each operating cost category or combination of operating cost categories. For the rate year beginning on July 1, 1985, the commissioner shall:

(1) allow nursing homes that have an average length of stay of 180 days or less in their skilled nursing level of care, 125 percent of the care related limit and 105 percent of the other operating cost limit established by rule; and from the care related limits and allow 105 percent of the other operating cost limit established by rule.

(2) exempt nursing homes licensed on July 1, 1983, by the commissioner to provide residential services for the physically handicapped under Minnesota Rules, parts 9570.2000 to 9570.3600,

For the purpose of calculating the other operating cost efficiency incentive for nursing homes referred to in clause (1) or (2), the commissioner shall use the other operating cost limit established by rule before application of the 105 percent.

(e) The commissioner shall establish a composite index or indices by determining the appropriate economic change indicators to be applied to specific operating cost categories or combination of operating cost categories.

(f) Each nursing home shall receive an operating cost payment rate equal to the sum of the nursing home's operating cost payment rates for each operating cost category. The operating cost payment rate for an operating cost category shall be the lesser of the nursing home's historical operating cost in the category increased by the appropriate index established in paragraph (e) for the operating cost category plus an efficiency incentive established pursuant to paragraph (d) or the limit for the operating cost category increased by the same index. If a nursing home's actual historic operating costs are greater than the prospective payment rate for that rate year, there shall be no retroactive cost settle-up. In establishing payment rates for one or more operating cost categories, the commissioner may establish separate rates for different classes of residents based on their relative care needs.

(g) The commissioner shall include the reported actual real estate tax liability or payments in lieu of real estate tax of each nursing home as an operating cost of that nursing home. Allowable costs under this subdivision for payments made by a nonprofit nursing home that are in lieu of real estate taxes shall not exceed the amount which the nursing home would have paid to a city or township and county for fire, police, sanitation services, and road maintenance costs had real estate taxes been levied on that property for those purposes. For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1987, the reported actual real estate tax liability or payments in lieu of real estate tax of nursing homes shall be adjusted to include an amount equal to one-half of the dollar change in real estate taxes from the prior year. The commissioner shall include a reported actual special assessment, and reported actual license fees required by the Minnesota department of health, for each nursing home as an operating cost of that nursing home. For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1989, the commissioner shall include a nursing home's reported public employee retirement act contribution for the reporting year as apportioned to the care-related operating cost categories and other operating cost categories multiplied by the appropriate composite index or indices established pursuant to paragraph (e) as costs under this paragraph. Total adjusted real estate tax liability, payments in lieu of real estate tax, actual special assessments paid, the indexed public employee retirement act contribution, and license fees paid as required by the Minnesota department of health, for each nursing home (1) shall be divided by actual resident days in order to compute the operating cost payment rate for this operating cost category, (2) shall not be used to compute the care-related operating cost limits or other operating cost limits established by the commissioner, and (3) shall not be increased by the composite index or indices established pursuant to paragraph (e), unless otherwise indicated in this paragraph.

(h) For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1987, the commissioner shall adjust the rates of a nursing home that meets the criteria for the special dietary needs of its residents as specified in section 144A.071, subdivision 3, clause (c), and the requirements in section 31.651. The adjustment for raw food cost shall be the difference between the nursing home's allowable historical raw food cost per diem and 115 percent of the median historical allowable raw food cost per diem of the corresponding geographic group.

The rate adjustment shall be reduced by the applicable phase-in percentage as provided under subdivision 2h.

Sec. 66. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.431, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2i. [INFLATION ADJUSTMENTS AFTER JULY 1, 1990.] For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1990, the forecasted composite price index for a nursing home's allowable operating cost per diems shall be determined using Data Resources, Inc., forecast for change in the Nursing Home Market Basket. The commissioner of human services shall use the indices as forecasted by Data Resources, Inc., in the fourth quarter of the calendar year preceding the rate year.

Sec. 67. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.431, subdivision 3e, is amended to read:

Subd. 3e. [HOSPITAL-ATTACHED CONVALESCENT AND NURSING CARE FACILITIES.] If a nonprofit or community-operated hospital and attached convalescent and nursing care facility suspend operation of the hospital, the surviving nursing care facility must be allowed to continue its status as a hospital-attached convalescent and nursing care facility for reimbursement purposes in three subsequent rate years.

Sec. 68. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.431, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3h. [SPECIAL PROPERTY RATE.] Notwithstanding contrary provisions of chapter 256B or rules adopted under it, for rate years beginning July 1, 1990, a nursing home under lease from 1968 until 1983 with a lessee or related party having an option to purchase the nursing home, which option was subsequently exercised, shall be allowed debt and interest costs incurred by the lessee or related party on indebtedness created when the option to purchase was exercised before the end of the 1983 calendar year. The nursing home must demonstrate to the commissioner's satisfaction that the interest rate on the debt was less than market interest rates for similar arms-length transactions at the time the debt was incurred.

Sec. 69. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.431, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3i. [PROPERTY COSTS FOR THE RATE YEAR BEGINNING JULY 1, 1990.] Notwithstanding Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 13, item H, the commissioner shall determine property-related payment rates for nursing homes for the rate year beginning July 1, 1990, as follows:

(a) The property-related payment rate for a nursing home that qualifies under subdivision 3g is the greater of the rate determined under that subdivision or the rate determined under paragraph (c), (d), or (e), whichever is applicable.

(b) Nursing homes shall be grouped according to the type of property-related payment rate the commissioner determined for the rate year beginning July 1, 1989. A nursing home whose property-related payment rate was determined under Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 13, item A (full rental reimbursement), shall be considered group A. A nursing home whose property-related payment rate was determined under Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 13, item B (phase-down to full rental reimbursement), shall be considered group B. A nursing home whose property-related payment rate was determined under Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 13, item C or D (phase-up to full rental reimbursement), shall be considered group C.

(c) For the rate year beginning July 1, 1990, a group A nursing home shall receive its property-related payment rate determined under Minnesota Rules, parts 9549.0010 to 9549.0080, and this section.

(d) For the rate year beginning July 1, 1990, a Group B nursing home shall receive the greater of 87 percent of the property-related payment rate in effect on July 1, 1989; or the rental per diem rate determined under Minnesota Rules, parts 9549.0010 to 9549.0080, and this section in effect on July 1, 1990; or the sum of 100 percent of the nursing home's allowable principal and interest expense, plus its equipment allowance multiplied by the resident days for the reporting year ending September 30, 1989, divided by the nursing home's capacity days as determined under Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 11, as modified by subdivision 3f, paragraph (c); except that the nursing home's property-related payment rate must not exceed its property-related payment rate in effect on July 1, 1989.

(e) For the rate year beginning July 1, 1990, a group C nursing home shall receive its property-related payment rate determined under Minnesota Rules, parts 9549.0010 to 9549.0080, and this section, except the rate must not exceed the lesser of its property-related payment rate determined for the rate year beginning July 1, 1989, multiplied by 116 percent or its rental per diem rate determined effective July 1, 1990.

(f) The property-related payment rate for a nursing home that qualifies for a rate adjustment under Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 13, item G (special reappraisals), shall have the property-related payment rate determined in paragraphs (a) to (e) adjusted according to the provisions in that rule.

(g) Except as provided in subdivision 4, paragraph (f), and subdivision 11, a nursing home that has a change in ownership or a reorganization of provider entity is subject to the provisions of Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 13, item F.

Sec. 70. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.431, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3j. [PROPERTY RATE ADJUSTMENT FOR REQUIRED IMPROVEMENTS.] The commissioner shall add an adjustment to the property-related payment rate of a certified, freestanding boarding care home reflecting the costs incurred by that nursing home to install a communications system in every room and hallway handrails, as required under the 1987 federal Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act, Public Law Number 100-203. The property-related payment rate increase is only available if, and to the extent that, the nursing home's existing property-related payment rate, minus the nursing home's allowable principal and interest costs and equipment allowance, is not sufficient to cover the costs of the required improvements. Each nursing home eligible for the adjustment shall submit to the commissioner a detailed estimate of the cost increases the facility will incur to meet the new physical plant requirements. Ten percent of the amount of the costs that are determined by the commissioner to be reasonable for the nursing home to meet the new requirements, divided by resident days, must be added to the nursing home's property-related payment rate. The adjustment shall be added to the property-related payment rate determined under subdivision 3i. The resulting recalculated property-related payment rate is effective October 1, 1990, or 60 days after a nursing home submits its detailed cost estimate, whichever occurs later.

The adjustment is only available to a certified, freestanding boarding care home that cannot meet the requirements of Public Law Number 100-203 for communications systems and handrails as demonstrated to the satisfaction of the commissioner of health. When the commissioner of human services establishes that it is not cost-effective to upgrade an eligible certified, freestanding boarding care home to the new standards, the commissioner of human services may exclude the certified freestanding boarding care home if it is either an institution for mental disease or a certified, freestanding boarding care home that would have been determined to be an institution for mental disease but for the fact that it has 16 or fewer licensed beds.

Sec. 71. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.431, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [ONE-TIME ADJUSTMENT TO NURSING HOME PAYMENT RATES TO COMPLY WITH OMNIBUS BUDGET RECONCILIATION ACT.] The commissioner shall determine a one-time nursing staff adjustment to the payment rate to adjust payment rates to upgrade certain nursing homes' professional nursing staff complement to meet the minimum standards of 1987 Public Law Number 100-203. The adjustments to the payment rates determined under this subdivision cover cost increases to meet minimum standards for professional nursing staff. For a nursing home to be eligible for the payment rate adjustment, a nursing home must have all of its current licensed beds certified solely for the intermediate level of care. When the commissioner establishes that it is not cost effective to upgrade an eligible nursing home to the new minimum staff standards, the commissioner may exclude the nursing home if it is either an institution for mental disease or a nursing home that would have been determined to be an institution for mental disease, but for the fact that it has 16 or fewer licensed beds.

(a) The increased cost of professional nursing for an eligible nursing home shall be determined according to clauses (1) to (4):

(1) subtract from the number 8760 the compensated hours for professional nurses, both employed and contracted, and, if the result is greater than zero, then multiply the result by $4.55;

(2) subtract from the number 2920 the compensated hours for registered nurses, both employed and contracted, and, if the result is greater than zero, then multiply the result by $9.30;

(3) if an eligible nursing home has less than 61 licensed beds, the director of nurses' compensated hours must be included in the compensated hours for professional nurses in clause (1). If the director of nurses is also a registered nurse, the director of nurses' hours must be included in the compensated hours for registered nurses in clause (2); and

(4) the one-time nursing staff adjustment to the payment rate shall be the sum of clauses (1) and (2) as adjusted by clause (3), if appropriate, and then divided by the nursing home's actual resident days for the reporting year ending September 30, 1988.

(b) The one-time nursing staff adjustment to the payment rate is effective from January 1, 1990, to June 30, 1991.

(c) If a nursing home is granted a waiver to the minimum professional nursing staff standards under Public Law Number 100-203 for either the professional nurse adjustment referred to in clause (1), or the registered nurse adjustment in clause (2), the commissioner must recover the portion of the nursing home's payment rate that relates to a one-time nursing staff adjustment granted under this subdivision. The amount to be recovered shall be based on the type and extent of the waiver granted.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a), clause (3), if an eligible nursing home has less than 61 licensed beds, the director of nurses' compensated hours must be excluded from the computation of compensated hours for professional nurses and registered nurses in paragraph (a), clauses (1) and (2). The commissioner shall recompute the one-time nursing staff adjustment to the payment rate using the data from the cost report for the reporting year ending September 30, 1989, and the adjustment computed under this paragraph shall replace the adjustment previously computed under this subdivision effective October 1, 1990, and shall be effective for the period October 1, 1990, to June 30, 1992.

Sec. 72. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.431, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11. [SPECIAL PROPERTY RATE SETTING PROCEDURES FOR CERTAIN NURSING HOMES.] Notwithstanding Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 13, item H, to the contrary, for the rate year beginning July 1, 1990, a nursing home leased prior to January 1, 1986, and currently subject to adverse licensure action under section 144A.04, subdivision 4, paragraph (a), or section 144A.11, subdivision 2, and whose ownership changes prior to July 1, 1990, shall be allowed a property-related payment equal to the lesser of its current lease obligation divided by its capacity days as determined in Minnesota Rules, part 9549.0060, subpart 11, as modified by subdivision 3f, paragraph (c), or the frozen property-related payment rate in effect for the rate year beginning July 1, 1989. For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1991, the property-related payment rate shall be its rental rate computed using the previous owner's allowable principal and interest expense as allowed by the department prior to that prior owner's sale and lease-back transaction of December 1985.

Sec. 73. [256B.432] [LONG-TERM CARE FACILITIES; CENTRAL, AFFILIATED, OR CORPORATE OFFICE COSTS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given them.

(a) "Management agreement" means an agreement in which one or more of the following criteria exist:

(1) the central, affiliated, or corporate office has or is authorized to assume day-to-day operational control of the long-term care facility for any six-month period within a 24-month period. "Day-to-day operational control" means that the central, affiliated, or corporate office has the authority to require, mandate, direct, or compel the employees of the long-term care facility to perform or refrain from performing certain acts, or to supplant or take the place of the top management of the long-term care facility. "Day-to-day operational control" includes the authority to hire or terminate employees or to provide an employee of the central, affiliated, or corporate office to serve as administrator of the long-term care facility;

(2) the central, affiliated, or corporate office performs or is authorized to perform two or more of the following: the execution of contracts; authorization of purchase orders; signature authority for checks, notes, or other financial instruments; requiring the long-term care facility to use the group or volume purchasing services of the central, affiliated, or corporate office; or the authority to make annual capital expenditures for the long-term care facility exceeding $50,000, or $500 per licensed bed, whichever is less, without first securing the approval of the long-term care facility board of directors;

(3) the central, affiliated, or corporate office becomes or is required to become the licensee under applicable state law;

(4) the agreement provides that the compensation for services provided under the agreement is directly related to any profits made by the long-term care facility; or

(5) the long-term care facility entering into the agreement is governed by a governing body that meets fewer than four times a year, that does not publish notice of its meetings, or that does not keep formal records of its proceedings.

(b) "Consulting agreement" means any agreement the purpose of which is for a central, affiliated, or corporate office to advise, counsel, recommend, or suggest to the owner or operator of the nonrelated long-term care facility measures and methods for improving the operations of the long-term care facility.

(c) "Long-term care facility" means a nursing home whose medical assistance rates are determined according to section 256B.431 or an intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation and related conditions whose medical assistance rates are determined according to section 256B.501.

Subd. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.] For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1990, the central, affiliated, or corporate office cost allocations in subdivisions 3 to 6 must be used when determining medical assistance rates under sections 256B.431 and 256B.501.

Subd. 3. [ALLOCATION; DIRECT IDENTIFICATION OF COSTS OF LONG-TERM CARE FACILITIES; MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT.] All costs that can be directly identified with a specific long-term care facility that is a related organization to the central, affiliated, or corporate office, or that is controlled by the central, affiliated, or corporate office under a management agreement, must be allocated to that long-term care facility.

Subd. 4. [ALLOCATION; DIRECT IDENTIFICATION OF COSTS TO OTHER ACTIVITIES.] All costs that can be directly identified with any other activity or function not described in subdivision 3 must be allocated to that activity or function.

Subd. 5. [ALLOCATION OF REMAINING COSTS; ALLOCATION RATIO.] (a) After the costs that can be directly identified according to subdivisions 3 and 4 have been allocated, the remaining central, affiliated, or corporate office costs must be allocated between the long-term care facility operations and the other activities or facilities unrelated to the long-term care facility operations based on the ratio of expenses.

(b) For purposes of allocating these remaining central, affiliated, or corporate office costs, the numerator for the allocation ratio shall be determined as follows:

(1) for long-term care facilities that are related organizations or are controlled by a central, affiliated, or corporate office under a management agreement, the numerator of the allocation ratio shall be equal to the sum of the total costs incurred by each related organization or controlled long-term care facility;

(2) for a central, affiliated, or corporate office providing goods or services to related organizations that are not long-term care facilities, the numerator of the allocation ratio shall be equal to the sum of the total costs incurred by the non-long-term care related organizations;

(3) for a central, affiliated, or corporate office providing goods or services to unrelated long-term care facilities under a consulting agreement, the numerator of the allocation ratio shall be equal to the greater of directly identified central, affiliated, or corporate costs or the contracted amount; or

(4) for business activities that involve the providing of goods or services to unrelated parties which are not long-term care facilities, the numerator of the allocation ratio shall be equal to the greater of directly identified costs or revenues generated by the activity or function.

(c) The denominator for the allocation ratio is the sum of the numerators in paragraph (b), clauses (1) to (4).

Subd. 6. [COST ALLOCATION BETWEEN LONG-TERM CARE FACILITIES.] (a) Those long-term care operations that have long-term care facilities both in Minnesota and outside of Minnesota must allocate the long-term care operation's central, affiliated, or corporate office costs identified in subdivision 5 to Minnesota based on the ratio of total resident days in Minnesota long-term care facilities to the total resident days in all facilities.

(b) The Minnesota long-term care operation's central, affiliated, or corporate office costs identified in paragraph (a) must be allocated to each Minnesota long-term care facility on the basis of resident days.

Sec. 74. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.48, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1c. [CASE MIX RATE FOR PROVIDER WITH ADDENDUM TO PROVIDER AGREEMENT.] A nursing home with an addendum to its provider agreement effective beginning July 1, 1983, or September 24, 1985, shall have its payment rates established by the commissioner under this subdivision. To save medical assistance resources, for rate years beginning after July 1, 1991, the provider's payment rates shall be the payment rates established by the commissioner July 1, 1990, multiplied by a 12-month inflation factor based on the forecasted inflation between the mid-points of rate years using the inflation index applied by the commissioner to other nursing homes.

The provider and the department of health shall complete case mix assessments under Minnesota Rules, chapter 4656, and parts 9549.0058 and 9549.0059, on only those residents receiving medical assistance. The commissioner of health may audit and verify the limited provider assessments at any time.

Sec. 75. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.48, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REPORTING REQUIREMENTS.] No later than December 31 of each year, a skilled nursing facility or intermediate care facility, including boarding care facilities, which receives medical assistance payments or other reimbursements from the state agency shall:

(a) Provide the state agency with a copy of its audited financial statements. The audited financial statements must include a balance sheet, income statement, statement of the rate or rates charged to private paying residents, statement of retained earnings, ~~statements of changes in financial position (cash and working capital methods)~~ statement of cash flows, notes to the financial statements, audited applicable supplemental information, and the certified public accountant's or licensed public accountant's opinion. The examination by the certified public accountant or licensed public accountant shall be conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards as promulgated and adopted by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants;

(b) Provide the state agency with a statement of ownership for the facility;

(c) Provide the state agency with separate, audited financial statements as specified in clause (a) for every other facility owned in whole or part by an individual or entity which has an ownership interest in the facility;

(d) Upon request, provide the state agency with separate, audited financial statements as specified in clause (a) for every organization with which the facility conducts business and which is owned in whole or in part by an individual or entity which has an ownership interest in the facility;

(e) Provide the state agency with copies of leases, purchase agreements, and other documents related to the lease or purchase of the nursing facility;

(f) Upon request, provide the state agency with copies of leases, purchase agreements, and other documents related to the acquisition of equipment, goods, and services which are claimed as allowable costs; and

(g) Permit access by the state agency to the certified public accountant's and licensed public accountant's audit workpapers which support the audited financial statements required in clauses (a), (c), and (d).

Documents or information provided to the state agency pursuant to this subdivision shall be public. If the requirements of clauses (a) to (g) are not met, the reimbursement rate may be reduced to 80 percent of the rate in effect on the first day of the fourth calendar month after the close of the reporting year, and the reduction shall continue until the requirements are met.

Sec. 76. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.49, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [CONTINUED SERVICES FOR PERSONS OVER AGE 65.] Persons who are found eligible for services under this section before their 65th birthday may remain eligible for these services after their 65th birthday if they meet all other eligibility factors.

Sec. 77. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.495, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PAYMENT OF RECEIVERSHIP FEES.] The commissioner in consultation with the commissioner of health may establish a receivership fee payment that exceeds a long-term care facility payment rate when the commissioner of health determines a long-term care facility is subject to the receivership provisions under section 144A.14 or 144A.15 or the commissioner of human services determines that a facility is subject to the receivership under section 245A.12 or 245A.13. In establishing the receivership fee payment, the commissioner must reduce the receiver's requested receivership fee by amounts that the commissioner determines are included in the long-term care facility's payment rate and that can be used to cover part or all of the receivership fee. Amounts that can be used to reduce the receivership fee shall be determined by reallocating facility staff or costs that were formerly paid by the long-term care facility before the receivership and are no longer required to be paid. The amounts may include any efficiency incentive, allowance, and other amounts not specifically required to be paid for expenditures of the long-term care facility.

If the receivership fee cannot be covered by amounts in the long-term care facility's payment rate, a receivership fee payment shall be set according to paragraphs (a) and (b) and payment shall be according to paragraphs (c) to (e).

(a) The receivership fee per diem shall be determined by dividing the annual receivership fee payment by the long-term care facility's resident days from the most recent cost report for which the commissioner has established a payment rate or the estimated resident days in the projected receivership fee period.

(b) The receivership fee per diem shall be added to the long-term care facility's payment rate.

(c) Notification of the payment rate increase must meet the requirements of section 256B.47, subdivision 2.

(d) The payment rate in paragraph (b) for a nursing home shall be effective the first day of the month following the receiver's compliance with the notice conditions in paragraph (c). The payment rate in paragraph (b) for an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded shall be effective on the first day of the rate year in which the receivership fee per diem is determined.

(e) The commissioner may elect to make a lump sum payment of a portion of the receivership fee to the receiver or managing agent. In this case, the commissioner and the receiver or managing agent shall agree to a repayment plan. Regardless of whether the commissioner makes a lump sum payment under this paragraph, the provisions of paragraphs (a) to (d) and subdivision 2 also apply.

Sec. 78. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.50, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] A provider may appeal from a determination of a payment rate established pursuant to this chapter and reimbursement rules of the commissioner if the appeal, if successful, would result in a change to the provider's payment rate or to the calculation of maximum charges to therapy vendors as provided by section 256B.433, subdivision 3. Appeals must be filed in accordance with procedures in this section. This section does not apply to a request from a resident or nursing home for reconsideration of the classification of a resident under section 144.0722.

Sec. 79. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.50, subdivision 1b, is amended to read:

Subd. 1b. [FILING AN APPEAL.] To appeal, the provider shall file with the commissioner a written notice of appeal; the appeal must be received by the commissioner within 60 days of the date the determination of the payment rate was mailed. The notice of appeal must specify each disputed item; the reason for the dispute; the total dollar amount and the dollar amount per bed in dispute for each separate disallowance, allocation, or adjustment of each cost item or part of a cost item; the computation that the provider believes is correct; the authority in statute or rule upon which the provider relies for each disputed item; the name and address of the person or firm with whom contacts may be made regarding the appeal; and other information required by the commissioner.

Sec. 80. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.501, subdivision 3c, is amended to read:

Subd. 3c. [COMPOSITE FORECASTED INDEX.] For rate years beginning on or after October 1, 1988, the commissioner shall establish a statewide composite forecasted index to take into account economic trends and conditions between the midpoint of the facility's reporting year and the midpoint of the rate year following the reporting year. The statewide composite index must incorporate the forecast by Data Resources, Inc. of increases in the average hourly earnings of nursing and personal care workers indexed in Standard Industrial Code 805 in "Employment and Earnings," published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, United States Department of Labor. This portion of the index must be weighted annually by the proportion of total allowable salaries and wages to the total allowable operating costs in the program, maintenance, and administrative operating cost categories for all facilities.

For adjustments to the other operating costs in the program, maintenance, and administrative operating cost categories, the statewide index must incorporate the Data Resources, Inc. forecast for increases in the national CPI-U. This portion of the index must be weighted annually by the proportion of total allowable other operating costs to the total allowable operating costs in the program, maintenance, and administrative operating cost categories for all facilities. The commissioner shall use the indices as forecasted by Data Resources, Inc., in the fourth quarter of the reporting year.

For rate years beginning on or after October 1, 1990, the commissioner shall index a facility's allowable operating costs in the program, maintenance, and administrative operating cost categories by using Data Resources, Inc., forecast for change in the Consumer Price Index-All Items (U.S. city average) (CPI-U). The commissioner shall use the indices as forecasted by Data Resources, Inc., in the first quarter of the calendar year in which the rate year begins.

Sec. 81. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.501, subdivision 3e, is amended to read:

Subd. 3e. [INCREASE IN LIMITS.] For rate years beginning on or after October 1, 1990, the commissioner shall increase the administrative cost per licensed bed limit in subdivision 3d, paragraph (c), and the maintenance operating cost limit in Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0050, subpart 1, item A, subitem (2) by multiplying the administrative operating cost per bed limit and the maintenance operating cost limit by the composite forecasted index in subdivision 3c except that the index shall be based on the 12 months between the midpoints of the two preceding reporting years.

Sec. 82. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.501, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11. [INVESTMENT PER BED LIMITS, INTEREST EXPENSE LIMITATIONS, AND ARMS-LENGTH LEASES.] (a) The provisions of Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0075, except as modified under this subdivision, shall apply to newly constructed or established facilities that are certified for medical assistance on or after May 1, 1990.

(b) For purposes of establishing payment rates under this subdivision and Minnesota Rules, parts 9553.0010 to 9553.0080, the term "newly constructed or newly established" means a facility (1) for which a need determination has been approved by the commissioner under sections 252.28 and 252.291; (2) whose program is newly licensed under Minnesota Rules, parts 9525.0215 to 9525.0355, and certified under Code of Federal Regulations, title 42, section 442.400, et seq.; and (3) that is part of a proposal that meets the requirements of section 252.291, subdivision 2, paragraph (2). The term does not include a facility for which a need determination was granted solely for other reasons such as the relocation of a facility; a change in the facility's name, program, number of beds, type of beds, or ownership; or the sale of a facility, unless the relocation of a facility to one or more service sites is the result of a closure of a facility under section 252.292, in which case clause (3) shall not apply. The term does include a facility that converts more than 50 percent of its licensed beds from class A to class B residential or class B institutional to serve persons discharged from state regional treatment centers on or after May 1, 1990, in which case clause (3) does not apply.

(c) Newly constructed or newly established facilities that are certified for medical assistance on or after May 1, 1990, shall be allowed the capital asset investment per bed limits as provided in clauses (1) to (4).

(1) The 1990 calendar year investment per bed limit for a facility's land must not exceed $5,700 per bed for newly constructed or newly established facilities in Hennepin, Ramsey, Anoka, Washington, Dakota, Scott, Carver, Chisago, Isanti, Wright, Benton, Sherburne, Stearns, St. Louis, Clay, and Olmsted counties, and must not exceed $3,000 per bed for newly constructed or newly established facilities in other counties.

(2) The 1990 calendar year investment per bed limit for a facility's depreciable capital assets must not exceed $44,800 for class B residential beds, and $45,200 for class B institutional beds.

(3) The investment per bed limit in clause (2) must not be used in determining the three-year average percentage increase adjustment in Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0060, subpart 1, item C, subitem (4), for facilities that were newly constructed or newly established before May 1, 1990.

(4) The investment per bed limits in clause (2) shall be adjusted annually beginning January 1, 1991, and each January 1 following, as provided in Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0060, subpart 1, item C, subitem (2).

(d) A newly constructed or newly established facility's interest expense limitation as provided for in Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0060, subpart 3, item F, on capital debt for capital assets acquired during the interim or settle-up period, shall be increased by 2.5 percentage points for each full .25 percentage points that the facility's interest rate on its mortgage is below the maximum interest rate as established in Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0060, subpart 2, item A, subitem (2). For all following rate periods, the interest expense limitation on capital debt in Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0060, subpart 3, item F, shall apply to the facility's capital assets acquired, leased, or constructed after the interim or settle-up period. If a newly constructed or newly established facility is acquired by the state, the limitations of this paragraph and Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0060, subpart 3, item F, shall not apply.

(e) If a newly constructed or newly established facility is leased with an arms-length lease as provided for in Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0060, subpart 7, the lease agreement shall be subject to the following conditions:

(1) the term of the lease, including option periods, must not be less than 20 years;

(2) the maximum interest rate used in determining the present value of the lease must not exceed the lesser of the interest rate limitation in Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0060, subpart 2, item A, subitem (2), or 16 percent; and

(3) the residual value used in determining the net present value of the lease must be established using the provisions of Minnesota Rules, part 9553.0060.

(f) All leases of the physical plant of an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded shall contain a clause that requires the owner to give the commissioner notice of any requests or orders to vacate the premises 90 days before such vacation of the premises is to take place. In the case of unlawful detainer actions, the owner shall notify the commissioner within three days of notice of an unlawful detainer action being served upon the tenant. The only exception to this notice requirement is in the case of emergencies where immediate vacation of the premises is necessary to assure the safety and welfare of the residents. In such an emergency situation, the owner shall give the commissioner notice of the request to vacate at the time the owner of the property is aware that the vacating of the premises is necessary. This section applies to all leases entered into after the effective date of this section. Rentals set in leases entered into after that date that do not contain this clause are not allowable costs for purposes of medical assistance reimbursement.

(g) A newly constructed or newly established facility's preopening costs are subject to the provisions of Minnesota Rules, part

9553.0035, subpart 12, and must be limited to only those costs incurred during one of the following periods, whichever is shorter:

(1) between the date the commissioner approves the facility's need determination and 30 days before the date the facility is certified for medical assistance; or

(2) the 12-month period immediately preceding the 30 days before the date the facility is certified for medical assistance.

Sec. 83. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.69, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [GEOGRAPHIC AREA.] The commissioner shall designate the geographic areas in which eligible individuals may be included in the demonstration project. ~~The geographic areas may include one urban, one suburban, and one rural county. In order to encourage the participation of long-term care providers, the project area may be expanded beyond the designated counties for eligible individuals over age 65~~ medical assistance prepayment programs.

Sec. 84. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.69, subdivision 16, is amended to read:

Sec. 85. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.73, subdivision 7, as amended by Laws 1990, chapter 454, section 1, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [CONTRACT WITH COALITION.] The commissioner of human services shall contract with the coalition to administer and direct the demonstration project and to select and retain the demonstration provider for the duration of the project. This contract shall be for 24 months with an option to renew for no more than 12 months. This contract may be canceled without cause by the commissioner upon 90 days' written notice to the ~~demonstration provider coalition~~ or by the demonstration provider coalition with 90 days' written notice to the commissioner. The commissioner shall assure the cooperation of the county human services or social services staff in all counties participating in the project.

Sec. 86. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256D.03, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [GENERAL ASSISTANCE MEDICAL CARE; ELIGIBILITY.] (a) General assistance medical care may be paid for any person:

(1) who is ~~eligible for receiving assistance under section 256D.05 or 256D.051 and is not eligible for medical assistance under chapter 256B including eligibility for medical assistance based on a spend-down of excess income according to section 256B.056, subdivision 5;~~

(2)(i) who is a resident of Minnesota; and whose equity in assets is not in excess of $1,000 per assistance unit. Exempt assets, the reduction of excess assets, and the waiver of excess assets must conform to the medical assistance program in chapter 256B; and

(ii) who has countable income not in excess of the assistance standards established in section 256B.056, subdivision 4, or whose excess income is spent down pursuant to section 256B.056, subdivision 5, using a six-month budget period, except that a one-month budget period must be used for recipients residing in a long-term care facility. The method for calculating earned income disregards and deductions for a person who resides with a dependent child under age 21 shall be as specified in section 256.74, subdivision 1. However, if a disregard of $30 and one-third of the remainder described in section 256.74, subdivision 1, clause (4), has been applied to the wage earner's income, the disregard shall not be applied again until the wage earner's income has not been considered in an eligibility determination for general assistance, general assistance medical care, medical assistance, or aid to families with dependent children for 12 consecutive months. The earned income and work expense deductions for a person who does not reside with a dependent child under age 21 shall be the same as the method used to determine eligibility for a person under section 256D.06, subdivision 1, ~~except for~~ the disregard of the first $50 of earned income is not allowed; or

(3) who is over age 18 and who would be eligible for medical assistance except that the person resides in a facility that is determined by the commissioner or the federal health care financing administration to be an institution for mental diseases.

(b) Eligibility is available for the month of application and for three months prior to application if the person was eligible in those prior months. A redetermination of eligibility must occur every 12 months.

(c) General assistance medical care may be paid for a person, regardless of age, who is detained by law for less than one year in a county correctional or detention facility as a person accused or convicted of a crime, or admitted as an inpatient to a hospital on a criminal hold order, if the person is a recipient of general assistance medical care at the time the person is detained by law or admitted on a criminal hold order and as long as the person continues to meet other eligibility requirements of this subdivision.

(d) General assistance medical care is not available for applicants or recipients who do not cooperate with the local agency to meet the requirements of medical assistance.

(e) In determining the amount of assets of an individual, there shall be included any asset or interest in an asset, including an asset excluded under paragraph (a), that was given away, sold, or disposed of for less than fair market value within the 30 months preceding application for general assistance medical care or during the period of eligibility. Any transfer described in this paragraph shall be presumed to have been for the purpose of establishing eligibility for general assistance medical care, unless the individual furnishes convincing evidence to establish that the transaction was exclusively for another purpose. For purposes of this paragraph, the value of the asset or interest shall be the fair market value at the time it was given away, sold, or disposed of, less the amount of compensation received. For any uncompensated transfer, the number of months of ineligibility, including partial months, shall be calculated by dividing the uncompensated transfer amount by the average monthly per person payment made by the medical assistance program to skilled nursing facilities for the previous calendar year. The individual shall remain ineligible until this fixed period has expired. The period of ineligibility may exceed 30 months, and a reapplication for benefits after 30 months from the date of the transfer shall not result in eligibility unless and until the period of ineligibility has expired. The period of ineligibility begins in the month the transfer was reported to the local agency, or if the transfer was not reported, the month in which the local agency discovered the transfer, whichever comes first. For applicants, the period of ineligibility begins on the date of the first approved application.

Sec. 87. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256D.03, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [GENERAL ASSISTANCE MEDICAL CARE; SERVICES.] (a) Reimbursement under the general assistance medical care program shall be limited to the following categories of service: inpatient hospital care, outpatient hospital care, services provided by Medicare certified rehabilitation agencies, prescription drugs, equipment necessary to administer insulin and diagnostic supplies and equipment for diabetics to monitor blood sugar level, eyeglasses and eye examinations provided by a physician or optometrist, hearing aids, prosthetic devices, laboratory and X-ray services, physician's services, medical transportation, chiropractic services as covered under the medical assistance program, podiatric services, and dental care. In addition, payments of state aid shall be made for:

(1) outpatient services provided by a mental health center or clinic that is under contract with the county board and is certified under Minnesota Rules, parts 9520.0010 to 9520.0230 established under section 245.62;

(2) day treatment services for mental illness provided under contract with the county board;

(3) prescribed medications for persons who have been diagnosed as mentally ill as necessary to prevent more restrictive institutionalization;

(4) case management services for a person with serious and persistent mental illness who would be eligible for medical assistance except that the person resides in an institution for mental diseases;

(5) psychological services, medical supplies and equipment, and Medicare premiums, coinsurance and deductible payments for a person who would be eligible for medical assistance except that the person resides in an institution for mental diseases; and

(6) equipment not specifically listed in this paragraph when the use of the equipment will prevent the need for costlier services that are reimbursable under this subdivision.

(b) In order to contain costs, the commissioner of human services shall select vendors of medical care who can provide the most economical care consistent with high medical standards and shall where possible contract with organizations on a prepaid capitation basis to provide these services. The commissioner shall consider proposals by counties and vendors for prepaid health plans, competitive bidding programs, block grants, or other vendor payment mechanisms designed to provide services in an economical manner or to control utilization, with safeguards to ensure that necessary services are provided. Before implementing prepaid programs in counties with a county operated or affiliated public teaching hospital or a hospital or clinic operated by the University of Minnesota, the commissioner shall consider the risks the prepaid program creates for the hospital and allow the county or hospital the opportunity to participate in the program in a manner that reflects the risk of adverse selection and the nature of the patients served by the hospital, provided the terms of participation in the program are competitive with the terms of other participants considering the nature of the population served. Payment for services provided pursuant to this subdivision shall be as provided to medical assistance vendors of these services under sections 256B.02, subdivision 8, and 256B.0625. For payments made during fiscal year 1990 and later years, the commissioner shall contract with an independent actuary to establish prepayment rates.

(c) The commissioner of human services may reduce payments provided under sections 256D.01 to 256D.21 and 261.23 in order to remain within the amount appropriated for general assistance medical care, within the following restrictions.

For the period July 1, 1985, to December 31, 1985, reductions below the cost per service unit allowable under section 256.966, are permitted only as follows: payments for inpatient and outpatient hospital care provided in response to a primary diagnosis of chemical dependency or mental illness may be reduced no more than 30 percent; payments for all other inpatient hospital care may be reduced no more than 20 percent. Reductions below the payments allowable under general assistance medical care for the remaining general assistance medical care services allowable under this subdivision may be reduced no more than ten percent.

For the period January 1, 1986, to December 31, 1986, reductions below the cost per service unit allowable under section 256.966 are permitted only as follows: payments for inpatient and outpatient hospital care provided in response to a primary diagnosis of chemical dependency or mental illness may be reduced no more than 20 percent; payments for all other inpatient hospital care may be reduced no more than 15 percent. Reductions below the payments allowable under general assistance medical care for the remaining general assistance medical care services allowable under this subdivision may be reduced no more than five percent.

For the period January 1, 1987, to June 30, 1987, reductions below the cost per service unit allowable under section 256.966 are permitted only as follows: payments for inpatient and outpatient hospital care provided in response to a primary diagnosis of chemical dependency or mental illness may be reduced no more than 15 percent; payments for all other inpatient hospital care may be reduced no more than ten percent. Reductions below the payments allowable under medical assistance for the remaining general assistance medical care services allowable under this subdivision may be reduced no more than five percent.

For the period July 1, 1987, to June 30, 1988, reductions below the cost per service unit allowable under section 256.966 are permitted only as follows: payments for inpatient and outpatient hospital care provided in response to a primary diagnosis of chemical dependency or mental illness may be reduced no more than 15 percent; payments for all other inpatient hospital care may be reduced no more than five percent. Reductions below the payments allowable under medical assistance for the remaining general assistance medical care services allowable under this subdivision may be reduced no more than five percent.

For the period July 1, 1988, to June 30, 1989, reductions below the cost per service unit allowable under section 256.966 are permitted only as follows: payments for inpatient and outpatient hospital care provided in response to a primary diagnosis of chemical dependency or mental illness may be reduced no more than 15 percent; payments for all other inpatient hospital care may not be reduced. Reductions below the payments allowable under medical assistance for the remaining general assistance medical care services allowable under this subdivision may be reduced no more than five percent.

There shall be no copayment required of any recipient of benefits for any services provided under this subdivision. A hospital receiving a reduced payment as a result of this section may apply the unpaid balance toward satisfaction of the hospital's bad debts.

(d) Any county may, from its own resources, provide medical payments for which state payments are not made.

(e) Chemical dependency services that are reimbursed under Laws 1986, chapter 394, sections 8 to 20, must not be reimbursed under general assistance medical care.

(f) The maximum payment for new vendors enrolled in the general assistance medical care program after the base year shall be determined from the average usual and customary charge of the same vendor type enrolled in the base year.

(g) The conditions of payment for services under this subdivision are the same as the conditions specified in rules adopted under chapter 256B governing the medical assistance program, unless otherwise provided by statute or rule.

Sec. 88. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 256D.03, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [DIVISION OF COSTS.] The state share of local agency expenditures for general assistance medical care shall be 90 percent and the county share shall be ten percent. Payments made under this subdivision shall be made in accordance with sections 256B.041, subdivision 5 and 256B.19, subdivision 1. In counties where a pilot or demonstration project is operated for general assistance medical care services, the state may pay 100 percent of the costs of administering the pilot or demonstration project. Reimbursement for these costs is subject to section 256.025.

Beginning July 1, 1991, the state will reimburse counties according to the payment schedule in section 256.025 for the county share of costs incurred under this subdivision from January 1, 1991, on. Payment to counties under this subdivision is subject to the provisions of section 256.017.

Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, beginning July 1, 1991, the state shall pay 100 percent of the costs for centralized claims processing by the department of administration relative to claims beginning January 1, 1991, and submitted on behalf of general assistance medical care recipients by vendors in the general assistance medical care program.

Beginning July 1, 1991, the state shall reimburse counties up to the limit of state appropriations for general assistance medical care common carrier transportation and related travel expenses provided for medical purposes after December 31, 1990. Reimbursement shall be provided according to the payment schedule set forth in section 256.025. For purposes of this subdivision, transportation shall have the meaning given it in Code of Federal Regulations, title 42, section 440.170(a), as amended through October 1, 1987, and travel expenses shall have the meaning given in Code of Federal Regulations, title 42, section 440.170(a)(3), as amended through October 1, 1987.

The county shall ensure that only the least costly most appropriate transportation and travel expenses are used. The state may enter into volume purchase contracts, or use a competitive bidding process, whenever feasible, to minimize the costs of transportation services. If the state has entered into a volume purchase contract or used the competitive bidding procedures of chapter 16B to arrange for transportation services, the county may be required to use such arrangements to be eligible for state reimbursement for general assistance medical care common carrier transportation and related travel expenses provided for medical purposes.

In counties where prepaid health plans are under contract to the commissioner to provide services to general assistance medical care recipients, the cost of court ordered treatment that does not include diagnostic evaluation, recommendation, or referral for treatment by the prepaid health plan is the responsibility of the county of financial responsibility.

Sec. 89. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.03, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [DUTIES OF THE COMMISSIONER.] The commissioner shall promulgate emergency and permanent rules as necessary to establish:

(a) standards of eligibility, utilization of services, and payment levels;

(b) standards for quality assurance, surveillance, and utilization review procedures that conform to those established for the medical assistance program pursuant to chapter 256B, including general criteria and procedures for the identification and prompt investigation of suspected fraud, theft, abuse, presentment of false or duplicate claims, presentment of claims for services not medically necessary, or false statements or representations of material facts by a vendor or recipient of general assistance medical care, and for the imposition of sanctions against such vendor or recipient of medical care. The rules relating to sanctions shall be consistent with the provisions of section 256B.064, subdivisions 1a and 2; and

(c) administrative and fiscal procedures for payment of the state share of the medical costs incurred by the counties under section 256D.02, subdivision 4a. Rules promulgated pursuant to this clause may include: (1) procedures by which state liability for the costs of medical care incurred pursuant to section 256D.02, subdivision 4a may be deducted from county liability to the state under any other public assistance program authorized by law; (2) procedures for processing claims of counties for reimbursement by the state for expenditures for medical care made by the counties pursuant to section 256D.02, subdivision 4a; and (3) procedures by which the local agencies may contract with the commissioner of human services for state administration of general assistance medical care payments.

Sec. 90. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256D.425, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [TRANSFERS.] The transfer policies and procedures of the Minnesota supplemental aid program are those used by the medical general assistance medical care program under section 256B.17 256D.03, subdivision 3, paragraph (e), except that a resource that is transferred while otherwise excluded under subdivision 2 is not an available resource for purposes of eligibility for Minnesota supplemental aid.

Sec. 91. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518.171, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ORDER.] Unless the obligee has comparable or better group dependent health insurance coverage available at a more reasonable cost, the court shall order the obligor to name the minor child as beneficiary on any health and dental insurance plan that is available to the obligor on a group basis or through an employer or union. "Health insurance coverage" as used in this section does not include medical assistance provided under chapter 256, 256B, or 256D.

If the court finds that dependent health or dental insurance is not available to the obligor on a group basis or through an employer or union, or that the group insurer is not accessible to the obligee, the court may require the obligor to obtain dependent health or dental insurance, or to be liable for reasonable and necessary medical or dental expenses of the child.

If the court finds that the dependent health or dental insurance required to be obtained by the obligor does not pay all the reasonable and necessary medical or dental expenses of the child, or that the dependent health or dental insurance available to the obligee does not pay all the reasonable and necessary medical or dental expenses of the child, and the court finds that the obligor has the financial ability to contribute to the payment of these medical or dental expenses, the court shall require the obligor to be liable for all or a portion of the medical or dental expenses of the child not covered by the required health or dental plan.

Sec. 92. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518.171, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [IMPLEMENTATION.] A copy of the court order for insurance coverage shall be forwarded to the obligor's employer or union by the obligee or the public authority responsible for support enforcement only when ordered by the court or when the following conditions are met:

(1) the obligor fails to provide written proof to the obligee or the public authority, within 30 days of receiving effective notice of the court order, that the insurance has been obtained or that application for insurability has been made;

(2) the obligee or the public authority serves written notice of its intent to enforce medical support on the obligor by mail at the obligor's last known post office address; and

(3) the obligor fails within 15 days after the mailing of the notice to provide written proof to the obligee or the public authority that the insurance coverage existed as of the date of mailing.

The employer or union shall forward a copy of the order to the health and dental insurance plan offered by the employer.

Sec. 93. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518.171, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [EFFECT OF ORDER.] The order is binding on the employer or union and the health and dental insurance plan when service under subdivision 3 has been made. Upon receipt of the order, or upon application of the obligor pursuant to the order, the employer or union and its health and dental insurance plan shall enroll the minor child as a beneficiary in the group insurance plan and withhold any required premium from the obligor's income or wages. If more than one plan is offered by the employer or union, the child shall be enrolled in the insurance plan in which the obligor is enrolled or the least costly plan otherwise available to the obligor that is comparable to a number two qualified plan. Failure of the obligor to execute any documents necessary to enroll the dependent in the group health and dental insurance plan will not affect the obligation of the employer or union and group health and dental insurance plan to enroll the dependent in a plan for which other eligibility requirements are met. Information and authorization provided by the public authority responsible for child support enforcement, or by the custodial parent or guardian, is valid for the purposes of meeting enrollment requirements of the health plan. The insurance coverage for a child eligible under subdivision 5 shall not be terminated except as authorized in subdivision 5.

Sec. 94. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 518.171, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [RELEASE OF INFORMATION.] When an order for dependent insurance coverage is in effect, the obligor's employer or union shall release to the obligee or the public authority, upon request, information on the dependent coverage, including the name of the insurer. Notwithstanding any other law, information reported pursuant to section 268.121 shall be released to the public agency responsible for support enforcement that is enforcing an order for medical or dental insurance coverage under this section. The public agency responsible for support enforcement is authorized to release to the obligor's insurer or employer information necessary to obtain or enforce medical support.

Sec. 95. Laws 1989, chapter 282, article 3, section 98, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.17, subdivisions 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 8, are repealed for transfers occurring on or after July 1, 1988. Minnesota Statutes, section 256B.17, subdivisions 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 8, are revived for transfers occurring before July 1, 1988.

Sec. 96. Laws 1989, chapter 282, article 3, section 98, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.17, subdivision 7, is repealed effective October 1, 1989, for those persons who become institutionalized on or after that date but remains in effect for those who were institutionalized before October 1, 1989. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.17, subdivision 7, is revived for persons institutionalized before October 1, 1989.

Sec. 97. [RULES RELATING TO MENTAL HEALTH PRACTITIONERS.]

The commissioner of human services shall adopt or amend rules to allow a mental health practitioner with only a bachelor's degree to provide mental health services under clinical supervision when employed by a private, nonprofit agency specializing in mental health services to low income children under age 15. To be eligible, the mental health practitioner must have provided outpatient mental health services, with a primary emphasis on family-oriented mental health services, to children under age 15 under clinical supervision for at least ten years after receiving a bachelor's degree.

Sec. 98. Laws 1988, chapter 689, article 2, section 256, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [REPORT.] The commissioner shall monitor and evaluate the pilot projects and report to the legislature by January 31, 1991-1993. The report must address at least the following:

- (1) the extent to which each pilot project succeeded in moving elderly persons out of nursing homes into less restrictive settings or in delaying placement in a nursing home;
- (2) the ability of each project to target low-income, frail elderly;
- (3) the cost-effectiveness of each project, including the financial impact on the resident, the state, and the county;
- (4) the success of each project in meeting other goals established by the commissioner; and
- (5) recommendations on whether the pilot projects should be continued or expanded.

Sec. 99. [INFLATION ADJUSTMENT FOR PAYMENTS FOR CERTAIN HOME AND COMMUNITY-BASED MEDICAL CARE AND NURSING HOME SCREENINGS.]

Until June 30, 1993, the commissioner of human services shall provide an annual inflation adjustment of not more than four percent for payment rates for private duty nursing services, personal care services, home and community-based waived services, and alternative care grant services for persons classified as 180-day eligible.

Sec. 100. [MENTAL RETARDATION SERVICES COST STUDY.]

By January 1, 1991, the commissioner of human services, in consultation with counties, the department of education, and the state planning agency, shall provide a report to the senate and house health and human services policy committees and finance and appropriations divisions that contains a description of all current state spending on mental retardation services, including special education services and vocational rehabilitation services, and estimates of the future growth in spending that would occur in the absence of new cost containment measures. The report must also identify service system alternatives, including fiscal incentives, mandates, and rule changes, that will encourage cost containment without adversely affecting quality or the provision of appropriate services. The proposals must include specific recommendations for semi-independent living services, respite care, case management, and day training and habilitation services.

Sec. 101. [RECOMMENDATIONS REGARDING PROPERTY COST PAYMENTS.]

(a) By December 15, 1990, the rule 50 property reimbursement advisory task force shall recommend to the commissioner of human services a new system for determining property-related payment rates for nursing homes. The system recommended by the advisory task force must not increase total medical assistance spending for nursing home property costs. The system must be designed to:

(1) reimburse nursing homes for their legitimate and reasonable property-related costs;

(2) permit appropriate sales of facilities within reasonable limitations;

(3) allow for the reasonable accumulation of funds to replace capital assets;

(4) take into consideration Medicare principles and required state plan assurances;

(5) provide equitable treatment of facilities;

(6) establish limitations on investment per bed; and

(7) encourage long-term ownership of nursing facilities through providing a return on an owner's actual investment which is related to the length of ownership at the time of an arm's-length sale.

(b) By January 15, 1991, the commissioner shall provide a report to the legislature that contains the report and recommendations of the property reimbursement advisory task force as well as the commissioner's comments and recommendations regarding nursing home property reimbursement.

Sec. 102. [FEDERAL WAIVER TO REDUCE THE FREQUENCY OF ELIGIBILITY REDETERMINATIONS FOR INFANTS ON MEDICAL ASSISTANCE.]

The commissioner of human services shall seek federal approval to eliminate eligibility redeterminations for pregnant women and infants eligible for medical assistance under Minnesota Statutes, section 256B.055, subdivisions 6 and 10, until one year after the birth of the child. The commissioner shall begin the process of seeking federal approval no later than December 31, 1990.

Sec. 103. [CONSUMER AWARENESS CAMPAIGN.]

The department of commerce shall establish a consumer awareness campaign to inform the public of cost effective strategies for the purchase of affordable health insurance. The department of commerce may accept public and private funds to establish and promote this consumer awareness campaign.

Sec. 104. [REPEALERS.]

Subdivision 1. [MEDICAL ASSISTANCE ELIGIBILITY.] Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.055, subdivision 8, is repealed.

Subd. 2. [SWING BEDS.] The amendments to Minnesota Statutes, section 256B.0625, subdivision 2, in Laws 1989, chapter 282, article 3, section 54, are repealed, and the stricken language is reenacted.

Sec. 105. [EFFECTIVE DATES.]

Subdivision 1. [CLAIMS AGAINST ESTATES.] Section 63 is effective for all claims filed for deaths occurring on or after the date of enactment.

Subd. 2. [PROHIBITED TRANSFERS OF PROPERTY.] Section 40 is effective the day after final enactment.

Subd. 3. [METRO MOBILITY.] Section 13 is effective October 1, 1990.

Subd. 4. [NURSING HOME PROPERTY RATES INVOLVING LEASES.] Section 68 is effective the day following final enactment.

Subd. 5. [SWING BEDS.] Section 104, subdivision 2, is effective the day following final enactment.

Subd. 6. [NEW ICF/MR FACILITIES.] Section 82 is effective May 1, 1990.

Subd. 7. [ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON TRANSPLANTS.] Section 52 is effective the day following final enactment.

ARTICLE 4
INCOME MAINTENANCE

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256.73, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ALLOWANCE BARRED BY OWNERSHIP OF PROPERTY.] Ownership by an assistance unit of property as follows is a bar to any allowance under sections 256.72 to 256.87:

(1) The value of real property other than the homestead, which when combined with other assets exceeds the limits of paragraph (2), unless the assistance unit is making a good faith effort to sell the nonexcludable real property. The time period for disposal must not exceed nine months and the assistance unit shall execute an agreement to dispose of the property to repay assistance received during the nine months up to the amount of the net sale proceeds. The payment must be made when the property is sold. If the property is not sold within the required time or the assistance unit becomes ineligible for any reason the entire amount received during the nine months is an overpayment and subject to recovery. For the purposes of this section, "homestead" means the home owned and occupied by the child, relative, or other member of the assistance unit as a dwelling place, that is owned by, and is the usual residence of, the child, relative, or other member of the assistance unit together with the surrounding property which is not separated from the home by intervening property owned by others. "Usual residence" includes the home from which the child, relative, or other members of the assistance unit is temporarily absent due to an employability development plan approved by the local human service agency, which includes education, training, or job search within the state but outside of the immediate geographic area. Public rights-of-way, such as roads which run through the surrounding property and separate it from the home, will not affect the exemption of the property; or

(2) Personal property of an equity value in excess of $1,000 for the entire assistance unit, exclusive of personal property used as the home, one motor vehicle of an equity value not exceeding $1,500 or the entire equity value of a motor vehicle determined to be necessary for the operation of a self-employment business, one burial plot for each member of the assistance unit, one prepaid burial contract with an equity value of no more than $1,000 for each member of the assistance unit, clothing and necessary household furniture and equipment and other basic maintenance items essential for daily living, in accordance with rules promulgated by and standards established by the commissioner of human services.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.73, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [PERSONS INELIGIBLE.] No assistance shall be given under sections 256.72 to 256.87:

(1) on behalf of any person who is receiving supplemental security income under title XVI of the Social Security Act unless permitted by federal regulations;

(2) for any month in which the assistance unit's gross income, without application of deductions or disregards, exceeds 185 percent of the standard of need for a family of the same size and composition; except that the earnings of a dependent child who is a full-time student may be disregarded for six calendar months per year and the earnings of a dependent child who is a full-time student that are derived from the jobs training and partnership act may be disregarded for six calendar months per year. If a stepparent's income is taken into account in determining need, the disregards specified in section 256.74, subdivision 1a, shall be applied to determine income available to the assistance unit before calculating the unit's gross income for purposes of this paragraph;

(3) to any assistance unit for any month in which any caretaker relative with whom the child is living is, on the last day of that month, participating in a strike;

(4) on behalf of any other individual in the assistance unit, nor shall the individual's needs be taken into account for any month in which, on the last day of the month, the individual is participating in a strike;

(5) on behalf of any individual who is the principal earner in an assistance unit whose eligibility is based on the unemployment of a parent when the principal earner, without good cause, fails or refuses to seek work, to participate in the job search program under section 256.736, or a community work experience program under section 256.737 if this program is available and participation is mandatory in the county, to accept employment, or to register with a public employment office, unless the principal earner is exempt from these work requirements.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256.736, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [DEFINITIONS.] As used in this section and section 256.7365, the following words have the meanings given them:

(a) "AFDC" means aid to families with dependent children.

(b) "AFDC-UP" means that group of AFDC clients who are eligible for assistance by reason of unemployment as defined by the commissioner under section 256.12, subdivision 14.

(c) "Caretaker" means a parent or eligible adult, including a pregnant woman, who is part of the assistance unit that has applied for or is receiving AFDC.

(d) "Employment and training services" means programs, activities, and services related to job training and, job placement, and job creation, including job service programs, job training partnership act programs, wage subsidies, remedial and secondary education programs, post-secondary education programs excluding education leading to a post-baccalaureate degree, vocational education programs, work incentive programs, work readiness programs, employment job search, counseling, case management, community work experience programs, displaced homemaker programs, self-employment programs, grant diversion, employment experience programs, youth employment programs, community investment programs, supported work programs, refugee employment and training programs, and counseling and support activities necessary to stabilize the caretaker or the family.

(e) "Employment and training service provider" means an administrative entity a public, private, or nonprofit agency certified by the commissioner of jobs and training to deliver employment and training services under section 268.0122, subdivision 3 and section 268.871, subdivision 1.

(f) "Minor parent" means a caretaker relative who is the parent of the dependent child or children in the assistance unit and who is under the age of 18.

(g) "Priority groups" or "priority caretakers" means recipients of AFDC or AFDC-UP designated as priorities for employment and training services under subdivision 2a 16.

(h) "Suitable employment" means employment which:

(1) is within the recipient's physical and mental capacity;

(2) meets health and safety standards established by the Occupational Safety and Health Administration and the department of jobs and training;

(3) pays hourly gross earnings which are not less than the federal or state minimum wage for that type of employment, whichever is applicable;

(4) does not result in a net loss of income. Employment results in a net loss of income when the income remaining after subtracting necessary work-related expenses from the family's gross income, which includes cash assistance, is less than the cash assistance the family was receiving at the time the offer of employment was made.

For purposes of this definition, "work expenses" means the amount withheld or paid for; state and federal income taxes; social security withholding taxes; mandatory retirement fund deductions; dependent care costs; transportation costs to and from work at the amount allowed by the Internal Revenue Service for personal car mileage; costs of work uniforms, union dues, and medical insurance premiums; costs of tools and equipment used on the job; $1 per work day for the costs of meals eaten during employment; public liability insurance required by an employer when an automobile is used in employment and the cost is not reimbursed by the employer; and the amount paid by an employee from personal funds for business costs which are not reimbursed by the employer;

(5) offers a job vacancy which is not the result of a strike, lockout, or other bona fide labor dispute;

(6) requires a round trip commuting time from the recipient's residence of less than two hours by available transportation, exclusive of the time to transport children to and from child care;

(7) does not require the recipient to leave children under age 12 unattended in order to work, or if child care is required, such care is available; and

(8) does not discriminate at the job site on the basis of age, sex, race, color, creed, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, disability, religion, or place of national origin.

(i) "Support services" means programs, activities, and services intended to stabilize families and individuals or provide assistance for family needs related to employment or participation in employment and training services, including child care, transportation, housing assistance, personal and family counseling, crisis intervention services, peer support groups, chemical dependency counseling and treatment, money management assistance, and parenting skill courses.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.736, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [REGISTRATION.] (a) To the extent permissible under federal law, every caretaker or child is required to register for employment and training services, as a condition of receiving AFDC, unless the caretaker or child is:

(1) a child who is under age 16, a child age 16 or 17 who is attending elementary or secondary school or a secondary level vocational or technical school full time;

(2) ill, incapacitated, or age 60 or older;

(3) a person for whom participation in an employment and training service would require a round trip commuting time by available transportation of more than two hours;

(4) a person whose presence in the home is required because of illness or incapacity of another member of the household;

(5) a caretaker or other caretaker relative of a child under the age of three who personally provides full-time care for the child. In AFDC-UP cases, only one parent or other relative may qualify for this exemption;

(6) a caretaker or other caretaker relative personally providing care for a child under six years of age, except that when child care is arranged for or provided, the caretaker or caretaker relative may be required to register and participate in employment and training services up to a maximum of 20 hours per week. In AFDC-UP cases, only one parent or other relative may qualify for this exemption;

(7) a caretaker if ~~another adult relative in the assistance unit is registered and has not, without good cause, failed or refused to participate or accept employment;~~

(8) a pregnant woman, if it has been medically verified that the child is expected to be born ~~in the current month or~~ within the next six months; or ~~(9)~~ (8) employed at least 30 hours per week; or.

~~(10) a parent who is not the principal earner if the parent who is the principal earner is required to register.~~

(b) To the extent permissible by federal law, applicants for benefits under the AFDC program are registered for employment and training services by signing the application form. Applicants must be informed that they are registering for employment and training services by signing the form. Persons receiving benefits on or after July 1, 1987, shall register for employment and training services to the extent permissible by federal law. The caretaker has a right to a fair hearing under section 256.045 with respect to the appropriateness of the registration.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256.736, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [PARTICIPATION.] Caretakers in priority groups must participate in employment and training services under this section to the extent permissible under federal law. However, no assistance unit may be sanctioned for a caretaker's failure to participate in employment and training services under this section if failure results from inadequate funding for employment and training services. (a) Except as provided under paragraphs (b) and (c), participation in employment and training services under this section is limited to the following recipients:

(1) caretakers who are required to participate in a job search under subdivision 14;

(2) custodial parents who are subject to the school attendance or case management participation requirements under subdivision 3b;

(3) caretakers whose participation in employment and training services began prior to May 1, 1990, if the caretaker's AFDC eligibility has not been interrupted for 30 days or more and the caretaker's employability development plan has not been completed;

(4) recipients who are members of a family in which the youngest child is within two years of being ineligible for AFDC due to age;

(5) effective September 1, 1990, custodial parents under the age of 22 who: (i) have not completed a high school education and who, at the time of application for AFDC, were not enrolled in high school or in a high school equivalency program; or (ii) have had little or no work experience in the preceding year;

(6) recipients who have received AFDC for 48 or more months out of the last 60 months;

(7) recipients who are participants in the self-employment investment demonstration project under section 268.95; and

(8) recipients who participate in the new chance research and demonstration project under contract with the department of human services.

(b) If the commissioner determines that participation of persons listed in paragraph (a) in employment and training services is insufficient either to meet federal performance targets or to fully utilize funds appropriated under this section, the commissioner may, after notifying the chairs of the senate and house health and human services committees, the health and human services division of the senate finance committee, and the health and human services division of the house appropriations committee, permit additional groups of recipients to participate until the next meeting of the legislative advisory commission, after which the additional groups may continue to enroll for participation unless the legislative advisory commission disapproves the continued enrollment. The commissioner shall allow participation of additional groups in the following order only as needed to meet performance targets or fully utilize funding for employment and training services under this section:

(1) recipients who have received at least 42 months of AFDC out of the previous 60 months;

(2) custodial parents under the age of 24 who meet the criteria in paragraph (a), clause (5), subclause (i) or (ii);

(3) recipients who have received at least 36 months of AFDC out of the previous 60 months;

(4) recipients who have received 24 or more months of AFDC out of the previous 48 months; and

(5) recipients who have not completed a high school education or a high school equivalency program.

(c) To the extent of money appropriated specifically for this paragraph, the commissioner may permit AFDC caretakers who are not eligible for participation in employment and training services under the provisions of paragraphs (a) or (b), to participate. Money must be allocated to county agencies based on the county's percentage of participants statewide in services under this section in the prior calendar year. Counties must provide equal or greater services to participants enrolled under this paragraph, as measured in average per client expenditures, as provided to other participants in employment and training services under this section. Caretakers must be selected on a first-come, first-served basis from a waiting list of caretakers who volunteer to participate. The commissioner may, on a quarterly basis, reallocate unused allocations to county agencies that have sufficient volunteers. If funding under this paragraph is discontinued in future fiscal years, caretakers who began participating under this paragraph must be deemed eligible under paragraph (a), clause (3).

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.736, subdivision 3b, is amended to read:

Subd. 3b. [MANDATORY ASSESSMENT AND SCHOOL ATTENDANCE FOR CERTAIN CUSTODIAL PARENTS.] This subdivision applies to the extent permitted under federal law and regulation.

(a) [DEFINITIONS.] The definitions in this paragraph apply to this subdivision.

(1) "Custodial parent" means a recipient of AFDC who is the natural or adoptive parent of a child living with the custodial parent.

(2) "School" means:

(i) an educational program which leads to a high school diploma. The program or coursework may be, but is not limited to, a program under the post-secondary enrollment options of section 123.3514, a regular or alternative program of an elementary or secondary school, a technical institute, or a college;

(ii) coursework for a general educational development (GED) diploma of not less than six hours of classroom instruction per week; or

(iii) any other post-secondary educational program that is approved by the public school or the local agency under subdivision 11.

(b) [ASSESSMENT AND PLAN; REQUIREMENT; CONTENT.] The county agency must examine the educational level of each custodial parent under the age of 20 to determine if the recipient has completed a high school education or its equivalent. If the custodial parent has not completed a high school education or its equivalent and is not exempt from the requirement to attend school under paragraph (c), the county agency must complete an individual assessment for the custodial parent. The assessment must be performed as soon as possible but within 60 days of determining AFDC eligibility for the custodial parent. The assessment must provide an initial examination of the custodial parent's educational progress and needs, literacy level, child care and supportive service needs, family circumstances, skills, and work experience. In the case of a custodial parent under the age of 18, the assessment must also consider the results of the early and periodic screening, diagnosis and treatment (EPSDT) screening, if available, and the effect of a child's development and educational needs on the parent's ability to participate in the program. The county agency must advise the parent that the parent's first goal must be to complete an appropriate educational option if one is identified for the parent through the assessment and, in consultation with educational agencies, must review the various school completion options with the parent and assist the parent in selecting the most appropriate option.

(c) [RESPONSIBILITY FOR ASSESSMENT AND PLAN.] For custodial parents who are under age 18, the assessment and the employability plan must be completed by the county social services agency, as specified in section 257.33. For custodial parents who are age 18 or 19, the assessment and employability plan must be completed by the case manager. The social services agency or the case manager shall consult with representatives of educational agencies required to assist in developing educational plans under section 126.235.

(d) [EDUCATION DETERMINED TO BE APPROPRIATE.] If the case manager or county social services agency identifies an appro-ropriate educational option, it must develop an employability plan in consultation with the custodial parent which reflects the assessment. The plan must specify that participation in an educational activity is required, what school or educational program is most appropriate, the services that will be provided, the activities the parent will take part in including child care and supportive services, the consequences to the custodial parent for failing to participate or comply with the specified requirements, and the right to appeal any adverse action. The employability plan must, to the extent possible, reflect the preferences of the participant.

(e) [EDUCATION DETERMINED TO BE NOT APPROPRIATE.] If the case manager determines that there is no appropriate educational option for a custodial parent who is age 18 or 19, the case manager shall indicate the reasons for the determination. The case manager shall then notify the county agency which must refer the custodial parent to case management services under subdivision 11 for completion of an employability plan and services. If the custodial parent fails to participate or cooperate with case management services and does not have good cause for the failure, the county agency shall apply the sanctions listed in subdivision 4, beginning with the first payment month after issuance of notice. If the county social services agency determines that school attendance is not appropriate for a custodial parent under age 18, the county agency shall refer the custodial parent to social services for services as provided in section 257.33.

(f) [SCHOOL ATTENDANCE REQUIRED.] Notwithstanding subdivision 3, a custodial parent must attend school if all of the following apply:

- (1) the custodial parent is less than 20 years of age;
- (2) transportation services needed to enable the custodial parent to attend school are available;
- (3) licensed or legal nonlicensed child care services needed to enable the custodial parent to attend school are available;
- (4) the custodial parent has not already received a high school diploma or its equivalent; and
- (5) the custodial parent is not exempt because the custodial parent:
 - (i) is ill or incapacitated seriously enough to prevent him or her from attending school;
 - (ii) is needed in the home because of the illness or incapacity of another member of the household; this includes a custodial parent of a child who is younger than six weeks of age;

(iii) works 30 or more hours a week; or

(iv) is pregnant if it has been medically verified that the child's birth is expected in the current month or within the next six months.

(g) [ENROLLMENT AND ATTENDANCE.] The custodial parent must be enrolled in school and meeting the school's attendance requirements. The custodial parent is considered to be attending when he or she is enrolled but the school is not in regular session, including during holiday and summer breaks.

(h) [GOOD CAUSE FOR NOT ATTENDING SCHOOL.] The local agency shall not impose the sanctions in subdivision 4 if it determines that a custodial parent has good cause for not being enrolled or for not meeting the school's attendance requirements. The local agency shall determine whether good cause for not attending or not enrolling in school exists, according to this paragraph:

(1) Good cause exists when the local agency has verified that the only available school program requires round trip commuting time from the custodial parent's residence of more than two hours by available means of transportation, excluding the time necessary to transport children to and from child care.

(2) Good cause exists when the custodial parent has indicated a desire to attend school, but the public school system is not providing for his or her education and alternative programs are not available.

(i) [FAILURE TO COMPLY.] The case manager and social services agency shall establish ongoing contact with appropriate school staff to monitor problems that custodial parents may have in pursuing their educational plan and shall jointly seek solutions to prevent parents from failing to complete education. If the school notifies the local agency that the custodial parent is not enrolled or is not meeting the school's attendance requirements, or appears to be facing barriers to completing education, the information must be conveyed to the case manager for a custodial parent age 18 or 19, or to the social services agency for a custodial parent under age 18. The case manager or social services agency shall reassess the appropriateness of school attendance as specified in paragraph (f). If after consultation, school attendance is still appropriate and the case manager or social services agency determines that the custodial parent has failed to enroll or is not meeting the school's attendance requirements and the custodial parent does not have good cause, the case manager or social services agency shall inform the custodial parent's financial worker who shall apply the sanctions listed in subdivision 4 beginning with the first payment month after issuance of notice.

(j) [NOTICE AND HEARING.] A right to notice and fair hearing shall be provided in accordance with section 256.045 and the Code of Federal Regulations, title 45, section 205.10.

(k) [SOCIAL SERVICES.] When a custodial parent under the age of 18 has failed to attend school, is not exempt, and does not have good cause, the local agency shall refer the custodial parent to the social services agency for services, as provided in section 257.33.

(l) [VERIFICATION.] No less often than quarterly, the financial worker must verify that the custodial parent is meeting the requirements of this subdivision. Notwithstanding section 13.32, subdivision 3, when the local agency notifies the school that a custodial parent is subject to this subdivision, the school must furnish verification of school enrollment, attendance, and progress to the local agency. The county agency must not impose the sanctions in paragraph (i) if the school fails to cooperate in providing verification of the minor parent's education, attendance, or progress.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.736, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [CONDITIONS OF CERTIFICATION.] The commissioner of human services shall:

(1) Arrange for or provide any caretaker or child required to participate in employment and training services pursuant to this section with child-care services, transportation, and other necessary family services;

(2) Provide that in determining a recipient's needs ~~any monthly incentive training payment made to the recipient by the department of jobs and training is disregarded and~~ the additional expenses attributable to participation in a program are taken into account in grant determination to the extent permitted by federal regulation; ~~and~~

(3) Provide that the county board shall impose the sanctions in clause (4) when the county board:

(a) determines that a custodial parent under the age of 16 who is required to attend school under subdivision 3b has, without good cause, failed to attend school; or

(b) determines that subdivision 3c applies to a minor parent and the minor parent has, without good cause, failed to cooperate with development of a social service plan or to participate in execution of the plan, to live in a group or foster home, or to participate in a program that teaches skills in parenting and independent living; or

~~(c) determines that a caretaker has, without good cause, failed to attend orientation.~~

(4) To the extent permissible by federal law, impose the following sanctions for a recipient's failure to participate in required education, orientation, or the requirements of subdivision 3b or 3c:

(a) For the first failure, 50 percent of the grant provided to the family for the month following the failure shall be made in the form of protective or vendor payments;

(b) For the second and subsequent failures, the entire grant provided to the family must be made in the form of protective or vendor payments. Assistance provided to the family must be in the form of protective or vendor payments until the recipient complies with the requirement; and

(c) When protective payments are required, the local agency may continue payments to the caretaker if a protective payee cannot reasonably be found;

(5) Provide that the county board shall impose the sanctions in clause (6) when the county board:

(a) determines that a caretaker or child required to participate in employment and training services has been found by the employment and training service provider to have failed without good cause to participate in appropriate employment and training services or to have failed without good cause to accept, through the job search program described in subdivision 14, or the community work experience program described in section 256.737 provisions of an employability development plan if the caretaker is a custodial parent age 18 or 19 and subject to the requirements of subdivision 3b, a bona fide offer of public or other employment; or

(b) determines that a custodial parent aged 16 to 19 who is required to attend school under subdivision 3b has, without good cause, failed to enroll or attend school; or

(c) determines that a caretaker has, without good cause, failed to attend orientation;

(6) To the extent required by federal law, ~~the following sanctions must be imposed~~ impose the following sanctions for a recipient's failure to participate in required employment and training services, to accept a bona fide offer of public or other employment, or to enroll or attend school under subdivision 3b, or to attend orientation:

(a) For the first failure, the needs of the noncompliant individual shall not be taken into account in making the grant determination, until the individual complies with the requirements;

(b) For the second failure, the needs of the noncompliant individual shall not be taken into account in making the grant determination until the individual complies with the requirement or for three consecutive months, whichever is longer;

(c) For subsequent failures, the needs of the noncompliant individual shall not be taken into account in making the grant determination until the individual complies with the requirement or for six consecutive months, whichever is longer;

(d) Aid with respect to a dependent child will be denied if a child who fails to participate is the only child receiving aid in the family. who has been sanctioned under this paragraph shall be continued for the parent or parents of the child if the child is the only child receiving aid in the family, the child continues to meet the conditions of section 256.73, and the family is otherwise eligible for aid;

(e) If the noncompliant individual is a parent or other relative caretaker, payments of aid for any dependent child in the family must be made in the form of protective or vendor payments. When protective payments are required, the county agency may continue payments to the caretaker if a protective payee cannot reasonably be found. When protective payments are imposed on assistance units whose basis of eligibility is unemployed parent or incapacitated parent, cash payments may continue to the nonsanctioned caretaker in the assistance unit, subject to ~~clause (f)~~ paragraph (g);

(f) If, after removing a caretaker's needs from the grant, the standard of assistance applicable to the remaining eligible members of the assistance unit is the standard that is used in other instances in which the caretaker is excluded from the assistance unit for noncompliance with a program requirement, only dependent children remain eligible for AFDC, the standard of assistance shall be computed using the special children standard;

(g) If the noncompliant individual is a parent or other caretaker of principal wage earner in a family whose basis of eligibility is the unemployment of a parent and the noncompliant individual's spouse nonprincipal wage earner is not participating in an approved employment and training service, the needs of both the spouse principal and nonprincipal wage earner must not be taken into account in making the grant determination; and

(7) Request approval from the secretary of health and human services to use vendor payment sanctions for persons listed in paragraph (5), clause (b). If approval is granted, the commissioner must begin using vendor payment sanctions as soon as changes to the state plan are approved.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.736, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [COUNTY DUTIES.] (a) To the extent of available state appropriations, county boards shall:

(1) refer all priority mandatory and eligible volunteer caretakers required to register under subdivision 3 to an employment and training service provider for participation in employment and training services;

(2) identify to the employment and training service provider caretakers who fall into the priority groups;

(3) provide all caretakers with an orientation which meets the requirements in subdivisions 10a and 10b;

(4) work with the employment and training service provider to encourage voluntary participation by caretakers in the priority groups;

(5) work with the employment and training service provider to collect data as required by the commissioner;

(6) to the extent permissible under federal law, require all caretakers coming into the AFDC program to attend orientation;

(7) encourage nonpriority caretakers to develop a plan to obtain self-sufficiency;

(8) notify the commissioner of the caretakers required to participate in employment and training services;

(9) inform appropriate caretakers of opportunities available through the head start program and encourage caretakers to have their children screened for enrollment in the program where appropriate;

(10) provide transportation assistance using ~~the employment special needs fund or other~~ available funds to caretakers who participate in employment and training programs, ~~with priority for services to caretakers in priority groups~~;

(11) ensure that orientation, employment job search, services to custodial parents under the age of 20, and case management services are made available to appropriate caretakers under this section, except that payment for case management services is governed by subdivision 13;

(12) explain in its local service unit plan under section 268.88 how it will ensure that priority caretakers determined to be in need of social services are provided with such social services. The plan must specify how the case manager and the county social service workers will ensure delivery of needed services;

(13) to the extent allowed by federal laws and regulations, provide a job search program as defined in subdivision 14 and at least one of the following employment and training services: community work experience program (CWEP) as defined in section 256.737, grant diversion as defined in section ~~268.86~~ 256.739, on-the-job training as defined in section 256.738, or another work and training program approved by the commissioner and the secretary of the United States Department of Health and Human Services. Planning and approval for employment and training services listed in this clause must be obtained through submission of the local service unit plan as specified under section 268.88. Each county is urged to adopt grant diversion as the second program required under this clause;

(14) prior to participation, provide an assessment of each AFDC recipient who is required or volunteers to participate in one of the an approved employment and training services specified in clause (13) service, including job search, and to recipients who volunteer for participation in case management under subdivision 11. The assessment must include an evaluation of the participant's (i) educational, child care, and other supportive service needs; (ii) skills and prior work experience; and (iii) ability to secure and retain a job which, when wages are added to child support, will support the participant's family. The assessment must also include a review of the results of the early and periodic screening, diagnosis and treatment (EPSDT) screening and preschool screening under chapter 123, if available; the participant's family circumstances; and, in the case of a custodial parent under the age of 18, a review of the effect of a child's development and educational needs on the parent's ability to participate in the program;

(15) develop an employability development plan for each recipient for whom an assessment is required under clause (14) which: (i) reflects the assessment required by clause 14; (ii) takes into consideration the recipient's physical capacity, skills, experience, health and safety, family responsibilities, place of residence, proficiency, child care and other supportive service needs; (iii) is based on available resources and local employment opportunities; (iv) specifies the services to be provided by the employment and training service provider; (v) specifies the activities the recipient will participate in; (vi) specifies necessary supportive services such as child care; (vii) to the extent possible, reflects the preferences of the participant; and (viii) specifies the recipient's long-term employment goal which shall lead to self-sufficiency; and

(16) assure that no work assignment under this section or sections 256.737 and, 256.738, and 256.739 results in: (i) termination, layoff, or reduction of the work hours of an employee for the purpose of hiring an individual under this section or sections 256.737 and, 256.738, and 256.739; (ii) the hiring of an individual if any other person is on layoff from the same or a substantially equivalent job; (iii) any infringement of the promotional opportunities of any currently employed individual; (iv) the impairment of existing contracts for services or collective bargaining agreements; or (v) except for on-the-job training under section 256.738, a participant filling an established unfilled position vacancy.

(b) Funds available under this subdivision may not be used to assist, promote, or deter union organizing.

(c) A county board may provide other employment and training services that it considers necessary to help caretakers obtain self-sufficiency.

(d) Notwithstanding section 256G.07, when a priority caretaker relocates to another county to implement the provisions of the caretaker's case management contract or other written employability development plan approved by the county human service agency or, its case manager or employment and training service provider, the county that approved the plan is responsible for the costs of case management, child care, and other services required to carry out the plan, including employment and training services. The county agency's responsibility for the costs ends when all plan obligations have been met, when the caretaker loses AFDC eligibility for at least 30 days, or when approval of the plan is withdrawn for a reason stated in the plan, whichever occurs first. Responsibility for the costs of child care must be determined under chapter 256H. A county human service agency may pay for the costs of case management, child care, and other services required in an approved employability development plan when the nonpriority caretaker relocates to another county or when a priority caretaker again becomes eligible for AFDC after having been ineligible for at least 30 days.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.736, subdivision 10a, is amended to read:

Subd. 10a. [ORIENTATION.] (a) Each county agency must provide an orientation to all caretakers within its jurisdiction who are determined eligible for AFDC on or after July 1, 1989, and who are required to attend an orientation. The county agency shall require attendance at orientation of all caretakers except ~~those who are:~~

(1) ~~physically disabled, mentally ill, or developmentally disabled~~ and whose condition has or is expected to continue for at least 90 days and will prevent participation in educational programs or employment and training services;

(2) aged 60 or older;

(3) currently employed in unsubsidized employment that is expected to continue at least 30 days and that provides an average of at least 30 hours of employment per week; or

(4) currently employed in subsidized employment that is expected to continue at least 30 days and that provides an average of at least 30 hours of employment per week and is expected to result in full-time permanent employment.

(1) caretakers who are exempt from registration under subdivision 3; and

(2) caretakers who are not a member of one of the groups listed in subdivision 3a, paragraph (a), and who are either responsible for the care of an incapacitated person or a dependent child under the age of six or enrolled at least half time in any recognized school, training program, or institution of higher learning. The county agency shall require attendance at orientation of caretakers described in subdivision 3a, paragraph (b), of this section if they become eligible for participation in employment and training services.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (e) below, the orientation must consist of a presentation that informs caretakers of:

(1) the identity, location, and phone numbers of employment and training and support services available in the county;

(2) the types and locations of child care services available through the county agency that are accessible to enable a caretaker to participate in educational programs or employment and training services;

(3) the availability of assistance for participants to help select appropriate child care services and that, on request, assistance will be provided to select appropriate child care services child care resource and referral program designated by the commissioner providing education and assistance to select child care services and a referral to the child care resource and referral when assistance is requested;

(4) the obligations of the county agency and service providers under contract to the county agency;

(5) the rights, responsibilities, and obligations of participants;

(6) the grounds for exemption from mandatory employment and training services or educational requirements;

(7) the consequences for failure to participate in mandatory services or requirements;

(8) the method of entering educational programs or employment and training services available through the county; and

(9) the availability and the benefits of the early and periodic, screening, diagnosis and treatment (EPSDT) program and preschool screening under chapter 123;

(10) their eligibility for transition year child care assistance when they lose eligibility for AFDC due to their earnings; and

(11) their eligibility for extended medical assistance when they lose eligibility for AFDC due to their earnings.

(c) Orientation must encourage recipients to view AFDC as a temporary program providing grants and services to individuals who set goals and develop strategies for supporting their families without AFDC assistance. The content of the orientation must not imply that a recipient's eligibility for AFDC is time limited. Orientation may be provided through audio-visual methods, but the caretaker must be given an opportunity for face-to-face interaction with staff of the county agency or the entity providing the orientation, and an opportunity to express the desire to participate in educational programs and employment and training services offered through the county agency.

(d) County agencies shall not require caretakers to attend orientation for more than three hours during any period of 12 continuous months. The local agency shall also arrange for or provide needed transportation and child care to enable caretakers to attend.

(e) Orientation for caretakers not eligible for participation in employment and training services under the provisions of subdivision 3a, paragraphs (a) and (b) shall present information only on those employment, training, and support services available to those caretakers, and information on clauses (2), (3), (9), (10), and (11) of paragraph (a) and all of paragraph (c), and may not last more than two hours.

(f) Persons required to attend orientation must be informed of the penalties for failure to attend orientation, support services to enable the person to attend, what constitutes good cause for failure to attend, and rights to appeal. Persons required to attend orientation must be offered a choice of at least two dates for their first scheduled orientation. No person may be sanctioned for failure to attend orientation until after a second failure to attend.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.736, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [CASE MANAGEMENT SERVICES.] (a) ~~For clients described in subdivision 2a, the case manager shall:~~ The county agency may, to the extent of available resources, enroll priority caretakers described in subdivision 16 in case management services and for those enrolled shall:

(1) Provide an assessment as described in subdivision 10, paragraph (a), clause (14). As part of the assessment, the case manager shall inform caretakers of the screenings available through the early periodic screening, diagnosis and treatment (EPSDT) program under chapter 256B and preschool screening under chapter 123, and encourage caretakers to have their children screened. The case manager must work with the caretaker in completing this task;

(2) Develop an employability development plan as described in subdivision 10, paragraph (a), clause (15). The case manager must work with the caretaker in completing this task. For caretakers who are not literate or who have not completed high school, the first goal for the caretaker should be to complete literacy training or a general equivalency diploma. Caretakers who are literate and have completed high school shall be counseled to set realistic attainable goals, taking into account the long-term needs of both the caretaker and the caretaker's family;

(3) Coordinate services such as child care, transportation, and education assistance necessary to enable the caretaker to work toward the goals developed in clause (2). The case manager shall refer caretakers to resource and referral services, if available, and shall assist caretakers in securing appropriate child care services. When a client needs child care services in order to attend a Minnesota public or nonprofit college, university or technical institute, the case manager shall contact the appropriate agency to reserve child care funds for the client. A caretaker who needs child care services in order to complete high school or a general equivalency diploma is eligible for child care under section 268.91;

(4) Develop, execute, and monitor a contract between the local agency and the caretaker. The contract must be based upon the employability development plan described in subdivision 10, paragraph (a), clause (15), and but must be a separate document. It must include: (a) specific goals of the caretaker including stated measurements of progress toward each goal, the estimated length of participation in the program, and the number of hours of participation per week; (b) specific educational, training, and employment activities and support services provided by the county agency, including child care; and (c) the participant's obligations and the conditions under which the county will withdraw the services provided;

The contract must be signed and dated by the case manager and participant, and may include other terms as desired or needed by either party. In all cases, however, the case manager must assist the participant in reviewing and understanding the contract, and must ensure that the caretaker has set forth in the contract realistic goals consistent with the ultimate goal of self-sufficiency for the caretaker's family; and

(5) Develop and refer caretakers to counseling or peer group networks for emotional support while participating in work, education, or training.

(b) In addition to the duties in paragraph (a), for minor parents and pregnant minors, the case manager shall:

(1) Ensure that the contract developed under paragraph (a), clause (4), considers all factors set forth in section 257.33, subdivision 2;

(2) Assess the housing and support systems needed by the caretaker in order to provide the dependent children with adequate parenting. The case manager shall encourage minor parents and pregnant minors who are not living with friends or relatives to live in a group home or foster care setting. If minor parents and pregnant minors are unwilling to live in a group home or foster care setting or if no group home or foster care setting is available, the case manager shall assess their need for training in parenting and independent living skills and when appropriate shall refer them to available counseling programs designed to teach needed skills; and

(3) Inform minor parents or pregnant minors of, and assist them in evaluating the appropriateness of, the high school graduation incentives program under section 126.22, including post-secondary enrollment options, and the employment-related and community-based instruction programs.

(c) A caretaker may request a conciliation conference to attempt to resolve disputes regarding the contents of a contract developed under this section or a housing and support systems assessment conducted under this section. The caretaker may request a hearing pursuant to section 256.045 to dispute the contents of a contract or assessment developed under this section. The caretaker need not request a conciliation conference in order to request a hearing pursuant to section 256.045.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.736, subdivision 14, is amended to read:

Subd. 14. [JOB SEARCH.] (a) The commissioner of human services shall establish a job search program under Public Law Number 100-485. Unless exempt, the principal wage earner in an AFDC-UP assistance unit must be referred to and must begin participation in the job search program within 30 days of being determined eligible for AFDC, and must begin participation within four months of being determined eligible for AFDC-UP unless. The principal wage earner is exempt from job search participation if:

(1) the caretaker is already participating in another approved employment and training service;

(2) the caretaker's employability plan specifies other activities;

(3) the caretaker is exempt from registration under subdivision 3; or

(4) the caretaker is unable to secure employment due to inability to communicate in the English language, is participating in an English as a second language course, and is making satisfactory progress towards completion of the course. If an English as a second language course is not available to the caretaker, the caretaker is exempt from participation until a course becomes available.

(b) The job search program must provide the following services:

(1) an initial period of up to four weeks of job search activities for not more than 32 hours per week. The employment and training service provider shall specify for each participating caretaker the number of weeks and hours of job search to be conducted and shall report to the county board if the caretaker fails to cooperate with the employment job search requirement; and

(2) an additional period of job search following the first period at the discretion of the employment and training service provider. The total of these two periods of job search may not exceed eight weeks for any 12 consecutive month period beginning with the month of application.

(c) The employment job search program may provide services to non-AFDC-UP caretakers.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.736, subdivision 16, is amended to read:

Subd. 16. [ALLOCATION AND USE OF MONEY.] (a) State money appropriated for employment and training services under this section must be allocated to counties as follows: as specified in paragraphs (b) to (i).

(b) For purposes of this section, "priority caretaker" means a recipient who:

(1) is a custodial parent under the age of 24 who: (i) has not completed a high school education and at the time of application for AFDC is not enrolled in high school or in a high school equivalency program; or (ii) had little or no work experience in the preceding year;

(2) is a member of a family in which the youngest child is within two years of being ineligible for AFDC due to age; or

(3) has received 36 months or more of AFDC over the last 60 months.

(c) One hundred percent of the money appropriated for case management services as described in subdivision 11 must be allocated to counties based on the average number of cases in each county described in clause (1). Money appropriated for employment and training services as described in subdivision 1a, paragraph (d), other than case management services, must be allocated to counties as follows:

(1) Forty percent of the state money must be allocated based on the average monthly number of caretakers cases receiving AFDC in the county who are under age 24 and the average monthly number of AFDC cases open in the county for 24 or more consecutive months and residing in the county for the 12-month period ending December 31 of the previous fiscal year which either have been open for 36 or more consecutive months or have a caretaker who is under age 24 and who has no high school or general equivalency diploma. The average number of cases must be based on counts of these cases as of March 31, June 30, September 30, and December 31 of the previous year.

(2) Twenty percent of the state money must be allocated based on the average monthly number of nonpriority caretakers cases receiving AFDC in the county for the period ending December 31 of the previous fiscal year which are not counted under clause (1). The average number of cases must be based on counts of cases as of March 31, June 30, September 30, and December 31 of the previous year. Funds may be used to develop employability plans for nonpriority caretakers if resources allow.

(3) Twenty-five percent of the state money must be allocated based on the average monthly number of assistance units in the county receiving AFDC-UP for the period ending December 31 of the previous fiscal year.

(4) Fifteen percent of the state money must be allocated at the discretion of the commissioner based on participation levels for priority group members in each county.

~~(b)~~ (d) No more than 15 percent of the money allocated under paragraph (a) (b) and no more than 15 percent of the money allocated under paragraph (c) may be used for administrative activities.

~~(e)~~ Except as provided in paragraph (d), (e) At least 70 55 percent of the money allocated to counties under clause (c) must be used for case management services and employment and training services for caretakers in the priority groups, and up to 30 45 percent of the money may be used for employment search activities and employment and training services for nonpriority caretakers. One hundred percent of the money allocated to counties for case management services must be used to provide those services to caretakers in the priority groups.

~~(d)~~ A county having a high proportion of nonpriority caretakers that interferes with the county's ability to meet the 70 percent spending requirement of paragraph (e) may, with the approval of the commissioner of human services, use up to 40 percent of the money allocated under this section for orientation and employment and training services for nonpriority caretakers.

~~(e)~~ (f) Money appropriated to cover the nonfederal share of costs for bilingual case management services to refugees for the employment and training programs under this section are allocated to counties based on each county's proportion of the total statewide number of AFDC refugee cases. However, counties with less than one percent of the statewide number of AFDC refugee cases do not receive an allocation.

~~(f)~~ (g) Counties and the department of jobs and training shall bill the commissioner of human services for any expenditures incurred by the county, the county's employment and training service provider, or the department of jobs and training that may be reimbursed by federal money. The commissioner of human services shall bill the United States Department of Health and Human Services and the United States Department of Agriculture for the reimbursement and appropriate the reimbursed money to the county, the department of jobs and training, or employment and training service provider that submitted the original bill. The reimbursed money must be used to expand employment and training services.

~~(g)~~ (h) The commissioner of human services shall review county expenditures of case management and employment and training block grant money at the end of the fourth quarter of the biennium and each quarter after that, and may reallocate unencumbered or unexpended money allocated under this section to those counties that can demonstrate a need for additional money. Reallocation of funds must be based on the formula set forth in paragraph (a), excluding the counties that have not demonstrated a need for additional funds.

(i) The county agency may continue to provide case management and supportive services to a participant for up to 90 days after the participant loses AFDC eligibility, and may continue providing a specific employment and training service for the duration of that service to a participant if funds for the service are obligated or expended prior to the participant losing AFDC eligibility.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.736, subdivision 18, is amended to read:

Subd. 18. [PROGRAM OPERATION BY INDIAN TRIBES.] (a) The commissioner may enter into agreements with any federally recognized Indian tribe with a reservation in the state to provide employment and training programs under this section to members of the Indian tribe receiving AFDC. For purposes of this section, "Indian tribe" means a tribe, band, nation, or other organized group or community of Indians that is recognized as eligible for the special programs and services provided by the United States to Indians because of their status as Indians; and for which a reservation exists as is consistent with Public Law Number 100-485, as amended.

(b) Agreements entered into under this subdivision must require the governing body of the Indian tribe to fulfill all county responsibilities required under this section in operation of the employment and training services covered by the contract, excluding the county share of costs in subdivision 13 and any county function related to AFDC eligibility determination or grant payment. The commissioner may enter into an agreement with a consortium of Indian tribes providing the governing body of each Indian tribe in the consortium agrees to these conditions.

(c) Agreements entered into under this subdivision must require the Indian tribe to operate the employment and training services within a geographic service area not to exceed the counties within which a border of the reservation falls. Indian tribes may also operate services in Hennepin and Ramsey counties or other geographic areas as approved by the commissioner of human services in consultation with the commissioner of jobs and training.

(d) Agreements entered into under this section must require the Indian tribe to operate a federal jobs program under Public Law Number 100-485, section 482(i).

(e) Agreements entered into under this section must require conformity with section 13.46 and any applicable federal regulations in the use of data about AFDC recipients.

(f) Agreements entered into under this section must require financial and program participant activity record keeping and reporting in the manner and using the forms and procedures specified by the commissioner and that federal reimbursement received must be used to expand operation of the employment and training services.

(g) Agreements entered into under this section must require that the Indian tribe coordinate operation of the programs with county employment and training programs, Indian Job Training Partnership Act programs, and educational programs in the counties in which the tribal unit's program operates.

(h) Agreements entered into under this section must require the Indian tribe to allow inspection of program operations and records by representatives of the department.

(i) Agreements entered into under this subdivision must require the Indian tribe to ~~contract with an~~ have its employment and training service provider certified by the commissioner of jobs and training for operation of the programs, or become certified itself.

(j) Agreements entered into under this subdivision must require the Indian tribe to specify a starting date for each program with a procedure to enable tribal members participating in county-operated employment and training services to make the transition to the program operated by the tribal unit. Programs must begin on the first day of a month specified by the agreement.

(k) If the commissioner and Indian tribe enter into an agreement, the commissioner, after consulting with the commissioner of jobs and training regarding tribal plan status, may immediately reallocate county case management and employment and training block grant money from the counties in the Indian tribe's service area to the Indian tribe, prorating each county's annual allocations according to that percentage of the number of adult tribal unit members receiving AFDC residing in the county compared to the total number of adult AFDC recipients residing in the county and also prorating the annual allocation according to the month in which the Indian tribe program starts. If the Indian tribe cancels the agreement or fails, in the commissioner's judgment, to fulfill any requirement of the agreement, the commissioner shall reallocate money back to the counties in the Indian tribe's service area.

(l) Indian tribe members receiving AFDC and residing in the service area of an Indian tribe operating employment and training services under an agreement with the commissioner must be referred by county agencies in the service area to the Indian tribe for employment and training services.

(m) The Indian tribe shall bill the commissioner of human services for services performed under the contract. The commissioner shall bill the United States Department of Health and Human Services for reimbursement. Federal receipts are appropriated to the commissioner to be provided to the Indian tribe that submitted the original bill.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256.7365, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purpose of this section, the following terms have the meanings given them.

(a) "Substantial barriers to employment" means disabilities, chemical dependency, having children with disabilities, lack of a high school degree, lack of a marketable occupational skill, three or more children, or lack of regular work experience in the previous five years.

(b) "Case management" means case management as defined in section 256.736, subdivision 11.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.737, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT AND PURPOSE.] In order that persons receiving aid under this chapter may be assisted in achieving self-sufficiency by enhancing their employability through meaningful work experience and training and the development of job search skills, the commissioner of human services shall continue the pilot community work experience demonstration programs that were approved by January 1, 1984. The commissioner may establish additional community work experience programs in as many counties as necessary to comply with the participation requirements of the Family Support Act of 1988, Public Law Number 100-485. Programs established on or after July 1, 1989, must be operated on a volunteer basis, and must be operated according to the Family Support Act of 1988, Public Law Number 100-485.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.737, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [COMMISSIONER'S DUTIES.] The commissioner shall: (a) assist counties in the design and implementation of these programs; (b) promulgate, in accordance with chapter 14, emergency rules necessary for the implementation of this section, except that the time restrictions of section 14.35 shall not apply and the rules may be in effect until June 30, 1990 1993, unless superseded by permanent rules; (c) seek any federal waivers necessary for proper implementation of this section in accordance with federal law; and (d) prohibit the use of participants in the programs to do work that was part or all of the duties or responsibilities of an authorized public employee position established as of January 1, 1989. The exclusive bargaining representative shall be notified no less than 14 days in advance of any placement by the community work experience program. Concurrence with respect to job duties of persons placed under the community work experience program shall be obtained from the appropriate exclusive bargaining representative. The appropriate oversight committee shall be given monthly lists of all job placements under a community work experience program.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256.737, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS.] (a) Programs under this section are limited to projects that serve a useful public service such as: health, social service, environmental protection, education, urban and rural development and redevelopment, welfare, recreation, public facilities, public safety and child care. To the extent possible, the prior training, skills, and experience of a recipient must be used in making appropriate work experience assignments.

(b) As a condition to placing a person receiving aid to families with dependent children in a program under this subdivision, the county agency shall first provide the recipient the opportunity to participate in the following services:

(1) placement in suitable subsidized or unsubsidized employment through participation in job search under section 256.736, subdivision 14; or

(2) basic educational or vocational or occupational training for an identifiable job opportunity.

(c) ~~If the A recipient refuses who has completed a job search under section 256.736, subdivision 14, who is unable to secure suitable employment, and a who is not enrolled in an approved training program, the county agency may, subject to subdivision 1, require the recipient to participate in a community work experience program as a condition of eligibility.~~

(d) The county agency shall limit the maximum number of hours any participant under this section may be required to work in any month to a number equal to the amount of the aid to families with dependent children payable to the family divided by the greater of the federal minimum wage or the applicable state minimum wage.

(e) After a participant has been assigned to a position under this section for nine months, the participant may not be required to continue in that assignment unless the maximum number of hours a participant is required to work works is no greater than the amount of the aid to families with dependent children payable with respect to the family divided by the higher of (1) the federal minimum wage or the applicable state minimum wage, whichever is greater, or (2) the rate of pay for individuals employed in the same or similar occupations by the same employer at the same site.

(f) After each six months of a recipient's participation in an assignment, and at the conclusion of each assignment under this section, the county agency shall reassess and revise, as appropriate, each participant's employability development plan.

~~(g) The county agency shall apply the grant reduction sanctions specified in section 256.736, subdivision 4, clause (6), when it is determined that a mandatory participant has failed, without good cause, to participate in the program.~~

Sec. 18. [256.739] [GRANT DIVERSION.]

(a) County agencies may, according to section 256.736, subdivision 10, develop grant diversion programs that permit voluntary participation by AFDC recipients. A county agency that chooses to provide grant diversion as one of its optional employment and training services may divert to an employer part or all of the AFDC payment for the participant's assistance unit, in compliance with federal regulations and laws. Such payments to an employer are to subsidize employment for AFDC recipients as an alternative to public assistance payments.

(b) County agencies shall limit the length of training to nine months. Placement in a grant diversion training position with an employer is for the purpose of training and employment with the same employer, who has agreed to retain the person upon satisfactory completion of training.

(c) Placement of any recipient in a grant diversion subsidized training position must be compatible with the assessment and employability development plan established for the recipient under section 256.736, subdivision 10, paragraph (a), clauses (14) and (15).

(d) No grant diversion participant may be assigned to fill any established, unfilled position vacancy with an employer.

(e) In addition to diverting the AFDC grant to the employer, employment and training block grant funds may be used to subsidize the grant diversion placement.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256.81, is amended to read:

256.81 [COUNTY AGENCY, DUTIES.]

(1) The county agency shall keep such records, accounts, and statistics in relation to aid to families with dependent children as the state agency shall prescribe.

(2) Each grant of aid to families with dependent children shall be paid to the recipient by the county agency unless paid by the state agency. Payment must be by check or electronic means except in those instances in which the county agency, subject to the rules of the state agency, determines that payments for care shall be made to an individual other than the parent or relative with whom the dependent child is living or to vendors of goods and services for the benefit of the child because such parent or relative is unable to properly manage the funds in the best interests and welfare of the child. At the request of a recipient, the state or county may make payments directly to vendors of goods and services, but only for goods and services appropriate to maintain the health and safety of the child, as determined by the county.

(3) The county shall be paid from state and federal funds available therefor the amount provided for in section 256.82.

(4) Federal funds available for administrative purposes shall be distributed between the state and the counties in the same proportion that expenditures were made except as provided for in section 256.017.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256D.01, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [STANDARDS.] (a) A principal objective in providing general assistance is to provide for persons ineligible for federal programs who are unable to provide for themselves. The minimum standard of assistance determines the total amount of the general assistance grant without separate standards for shelter, utilities, or other needs.

(b) The commissioner shall set the standard of assistance for an assistance unit consisting of an adult recipient who is childless and unmarried or living apart from children and spouse and who does not live with a parent or parents or a legal custodian. When the other standards specified in this subdivision increase, this standard must also be increased by the same percentage.

(c) For an assistance unit consisting of a single adult who lives with a parent or parents, the general assistance standard of assistance is the amount that the aid to families with dependent children standard of assistance would increase if the recipient were added as an additional minor child to an assistance unit consisting of the recipient's parent and all of that parent's family members, except that the standard may not exceed the standard for a general assistance recipient living alone. Benefits received by a responsible relative of the assistance unit under the supplemental security income program, a workers' compensation program, the Minnesota supplemental aid program, or any other program based on the responsible relative's disability, and any benefits received by a responsible relative of the assistance unit under the social security retirement program, may not be counted in the determination of eligibility or benefit level for the assistance unit. Except as provided below, the assistance unit is ineligible for general assistance if the available resources or the countable income of the assistance unit and the parent or parents with whom the assistance unit lives are such that a family consisting of the assistance unit's parent or parents, the parent or parents' other family members and the assistance unit as the only or additional minor child would be financially ineligible for general assistance. For the purposes of calculating the countable income of the assistance unit's parent or parents, the calculation methods, income deductions, exclusions, and disregards used when calculating the countable income for a single adult or childless couple must be used.

(d) For an assistance unit consisting of a childless couple, the standards of assistance are the same as the first and second adult standards of the aid to families with dependent children program. If one member of the couple is not included in the general assistance grant, the standard of assistance for the other is the second adult standard of the aid to families with dependent children program.

(e) For an assistance unit consisting of all members of a family, the standards of assistance are the same as the standards of assistance that apply to a family under the aid to families with dependent children program if that family had the same number of parents and children as the assistance unit under general assistance and if all members of that family were eligible for the aid to families with dependent children program. If one or more members of the family are not included in the assistance unit for general assistance, the standards of assistance for the remaining members are the same as the standards of assistance that apply to an assistance unit composed of the entire family, less the standards of assistance for a family of the same number of parents and children as those members of the family who are not in the assistance unit for general assistance. However, if an assistance unit consists solely of the minor children because their parent or parents have been sanctioned from receiving benefits from the aid to families with dependent children program, the standard for the assistance unit is the same as the special child standard of the aid to families with dependent children program. In no case shall the standard for family members who are in the assistance unit for general assistance, when combined with the standard for family members who are not in the general assistance unit, total more than the standard for the entire family if all members were in an AFDC assistance unit. A child may not be excluded from the assistance unit unless income intended for its benefit is received from a federally aided categorical assistance program or supplemental security income. The income of a child who is excluded from the assistance unit may not be counted in the determination of eligibility or benefit level for the assistance unit.

(f) An assistance unit consisting of one or more members of a family must have its grant determined using the policies and procedures of the aid to families with dependent children program. However, the standard of assistance must be determined according to paragraph (e), the first $50 of total child support received by an assistance unit in a month must be excluded and the balance counted as unearned income, and nonrecurring lump sums received by the family must be considered income in the month received and a resource in the following months.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1d. [RULES REGARDING EMERGENCY ASSISTANCE.] In order to maximize the use of federal funds, the commissioner shall adopt rules, to the extent permitted by federal law, for eligibility for the emergency assistance program under aid to families with dependent children, and under the terms of sections 256D.01 to 256D.21 for general assistance, to require use of the emergency program under aid to families with dependent children as the primary financial resource when available. The commissioner shall adopt rules for eligibility for general assistance of persons with seasonal income and may attribute seasonal income to other periods not in excess of one year from receipt by an applicant or recipient. General assistance payments may not be made for foster care, child welfare services, or other social services. Vendor payments and vouchers may be issued only as authorized in sections 256D.05, subdivision 6, and 256D.09.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.02, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. "Family" means the following persons who live together: a minor child or a group of minor children related to each other as siblings, half siblings, or stepsiblings, together with their natural or adoptive parents, their stepparents, or their legal custodians, and any other minor children of whom an adult member of the family is a legal custodian. applicant or recipient and the following persons who reside with the applicant or recipient:

(1) the applicant's spouse;

(2) any minor child of whom the applicant is a parent, stepparent, or legal custodian, and that child's minor siblings, including half-siblings and step-siblings;

(3) the other parent of the applicant's minor child or children together with that parent's minor children, and, if that parent is a minor, his or her parents, stepparents, legal guardians, and minor siblings; and

(4) if the applicant or recipient is a minor, the minor's parents, stepparents, or legal guardians, and any other minor children for whom those parents, stepparents, or legal guardians are financially responsible.

A "family" must contain at least one minor child and at least one of that child's natural or adoptive parents, stepparents, or legal custodians.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.02, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. "Income" means any form of income, including remuneration for services performed as an employee and net earnings from self-employment, reduced by the amount attributable to employment expenses as defined by the commissioner. The amount attributable to employment expenses shall include amounts paid or withheld for federal and state personal income taxes and federal social security taxes.

"Income" includes any payments received as an annuity, retirement, or disability benefit, including veteran's or workers' compensation; old age, survivors, and disability insurance; railroad retirement benefits; unemployment benefits; and benefits under any federally aided categorical assistance program, supplementary security income, or other assistance program; rents, dividends, interest and royalties; and support and maintenance payments. Such payments may not be considered as available to meet the needs of any person other than the person for whose benefit they are received, unless that person is a family member or a spouse and the income is not excluded under section 256D.01, subdivision 1a. Goods and services provided in lieu of cash payment shall be excluded from the definition of income, except that payments made for room, board, tuition or fees by a parent, on behalf of a child enrolled as a full-time student in a post-secondary institution, and payments made on behalf of an applicant or recipient which the applicant or recipient could legally require to be paid in cash to himself or herself, must be included as income.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.02, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. "~~Local~~ County agency" means the agency designated by the county board of commissioners, human services boards, county welfare boards in the several counties of the state or multicounty welfare boards or departments where those have been established in accordance with law.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 256D.03, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. After December 31, 1980, state aid shall be paid to local agencies for 75 percent of all general assistance and work readiness grants up to the standards of sections 256D.01, subdivision 1a, and 256D.051, and according to procedures established by the commissioner, except as provided for under section 256.017 and except that, ~~after December 31, 1987~~ until January 1, 1991, state aid is reduced to 65 percent of all work readiness assistance if the local agency does not make occupational or vocational literacy training available and accessible to recipients who are eligible for assistance under section 256D.051.

~~After December 31, 1986, state aid must be paid to local agencies for 65 percent of work readiness assistance paid under section 256D.051 if the county does not have an approved and operating community investment program.~~

Beginning July 1, 1991, the state will reimburse counties according to the payment schedule in section 256.025 for the county share of local agency expenditures made under this subdivision from January 1, 1991, on. Payment to counties under this subdivision is subject to the provisions of section 256.017.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256D.051, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [WORK READINESS PAYMENTS.] (a) Grants of work readiness shall be determined using the standards of assistance, exclusions, disregards, and procedures which are used in the general assistance program. Work readiness shall be granted in an amount that, when added to the nonexempt income actually available to the assistance unit, the total amount equals the applicable standard of assistance.

(b) Work readiness payments must be provided to persons determined eligible for the work readiness program as provided in this subdivision except when the special payment provisions in subdivision 1b are utilized. The initial payment must be prorated to provide assistance for the period beginning with the date the completed application is received by the county agency or the date the assistance unit meets all work readiness eligibility factors, whichever is later, and ending on the final day of that month. The amount of the first payment must be determined by dividing the number of days to be covered under the payment by the number of days in the month, to determine the percentage of days in the month that are covered by the payment, and multiplying the monthly payment amount by this percentage. Subsequent payments must be paid monthly on the first day of each month.

There shall be an initial certification period which shall begin on the date the completed application is received by the county agency or the date that the assistance unit meets all work readiness eligibility factors, whichever is later, and ending on the date that mandatory registrants in the assistance unit must attend a work readiness orientation. This initial certification period may not cover a period in excess of 30 calendar days. All mandatory registrants in the assistance unit must be informed of the period of certification, the requirement to attend orientation, and that work readiness eligibility will end at the end of the certification period unless the registrants attend orientation. A registrant who fails to comply with requirements during the certification period, including attendance at orientation, will lose work readiness eligibility without notice under section 256D.101, subdivision 1, paragraph (b).

At the time the county agency notifies the assistance unit that it is eligible for work readiness assistance, the county agency must inform all mandatory registrants in the assistance unit that they must attend an orientation within 30 days, and that work readiness eligibility will end at the end of the month in which the orientation is scheduled unless the registrants attend orientation. A registrant who fails, without good cause, to comply with requirements during this time period, including attendance at orientation, will lose work readiness eligibility without notice under section 256D.101, subdivision 1, paragraph (b). The registrant shall, however, be sent a notice, on or before the date that eligibility ends, which informs the registrant that work readiness eligibility has ended in accordance with this section for failure to comply with work readiness requirements. The notice shall set forth the factual basis for such determination, and advises the registrant of the right to reinstate eligibility upon a showing of good cause for the failure to meet the requirements. Subsequent assistance must not be issued unless the person completes an application, is determined eligible, and attends an orientation, or demonstrates that the person had good cause for failing to comply with the requirement.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256D.051, subdivision 1b, is amended to read:

Subd. 1b. [SPECIAL PAYMENT PROVISIONS.] A county agency may, at its option, provide work readiness payments as provided under section 256D.05, subdivision 6, during the initial certification period prorated to cover only an initial certification period. The initial certification period shall cover the time from the date the completed application is received by the county agency or the date that the assistance unit meets all work readiness eligibility factors, whichever is later, and ending on the date that mandatory registrants in the assistance unit must attend a work readiness orientation. This initial certification period may not cover a period in excess of 30 calendar days. All mandatory registrants in the assistance unit must be informed of the period of certification, the requirement to attend orientation, and that work readiness eligibility will end at the end of the certification period unless the registrants attend orientation. A registrant who fails, without good cause, to comply with requirements during the certification period, including attendance at orientation, will lose work readiness eligibility without notice under section 256D.101, subdivision 1, paragraph (b). The registrant shall, however, be sent a notice, on or before the date that eligibility ends, which informs the registrant that work readiness eligibility has ended in accordance with this section for failure to comply with work readiness requirements. The notice shall set forth the factual basis for such determination, and advises the registrant of the right to reinstate eligibility upon a showing of good cause for the failure to meet the requirements. If all mandatory registrants attend orientation, an additional grant of work readiness assistance must be issued to cover the period beginning the day after the scheduled orientation and ending on the final day of that month. Subsequent payments of work readiness shall be governed by subdivision 1a or section 256D.05, subdivision 6. If one or more mandatory registrants from the assistance unit fail to attend the orientation, those who failed to attend orientation will be removed from the assistance unit without further notice and shall be ineligible for additional assistance. Subsequent assistance to such persons shall be dependent upon the person completing application for assistance and, being determined eligible, and attending an orientation or demonstrating that the person had good cause for failing to comply with the requirement.

A local agency that utilizes the provisions in this subdivision must implement the provisions consistently for all applicants or recipients in the county. A local agency must pay emergency general assistance to a registrant whose prorated work readiness payment does not meet emergency needs. A local agency which elects to pay work readiness assistance on a prorated basis under this subdivision may not provide payments under section 256D.05, subdivision 6, for the same time period. A county agency may, at its option, provide work readiness payments as provided under section 256D.05, subdivision 6, during the initial certification period.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256D.051, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LOCAL AGENCY DUTIES.] (a) The local agency shall provide to registrants a work readiness program. The work readiness program must include:

- (1) orientation to the work readiness program;
- (2) an individualized employability assessment and development plan that includes assessment of literacy, ability to communicate in the English language, eligibility for displaced homemaker services under section 268.96, educational history, and that estimates the length of time it will take the registrant to obtain employment. The employability assessment and development plan must be completed in consultation with the registrant, must assess the registrant's assets, barriers, and strengths, and must identify steps necessary to overcome barriers to employment;

(3) referral to available accredited remedial or skills training programs designed to address registrant's barriers to employment;

(4) referral to available programs including the Minnesota employment and economic development program;

(5) a job search program, including job seeking skills training; and

(6) other activities, including public employment experience programs to the extent of available resources designed by the local agency to prepare the registrant for permanent employment.

The work readiness program may include a public sector or nonprofit work experience component only if the component is established according to section 268.90.

In order to allow time for job search, the local agency may not require an individual to participate in the work readiness program for more than 32 hours a week. The local agency shall require an individual to spend at least eight hours a week in job search or other work readiness program activities.

(b) The local agency shall prepare an annual plan for the operation of its work readiness program. The plan must be submitted to and approved by the commissioner of jobs and training. The plan must include:

(1) a description of the services to be offered by the local agency;

(2) a plan to coordinate the activities of all public entities providing employment-related services in order to avoid duplication of effort and to provide services more efficiently;

(3) a description of the factors that will be taken into account when determining a client's employability development plan; and

(4) provisions to assure that applicants and recipients are evaluated for eligibility for general assistance prior to termination from the work readiness program.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256D.051, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [REGISTRANT DUTIES.] In order to receive work readiness assistance, a registrant shall: (1) cooperate with the local agency in all aspects of the work readiness program; (2) accept any suitable employment, including employment offered through the job training partnership act, Minnesota employment and economic development act, and other employment and training options; and (3) participate in work readiness activities assigned by the local agency. The local agency may terminate assistance to a registrant who fails to cooperate in the work readiness program, as provided in subdivision 3b 3c.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256D.051, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [VOLUNTARY QUIT.] A person is not eligible for work readiness payments or services if, without good cause, the person refuses a legitimate offer of, or quits, suitable employment within 60 days before the date of application. A person who, without good cause, voluntarily quits suitable employment or refuses a legitimate offer of suitable employment while receiving work readiness payments or services shall be terminated from the work readiness program and disqualified for two months according to rules adopted by the commissioner.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.052, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [REASSESSMENT AND LITERACY REFERRAL.] (a) When a person is no longer functionally illiterate under rules adopted by the commissioner or is terminated for failure to comply with literacy training requirements, the local agency must assess the person's eligibility for general assistance under the remaining provisions of section 256D.05, subdivision 1, paragraph (a). The local agency must refer to the work readiness program under section 256D.051 all people not eligible for general assistance.

(b) The local agency may also refer for voluntary work readiness services all recipients who reach a level of literacy that may allow successful participation in job training, provided that the job training does not interfere with a recipient's participation in literacy training. However, referral under this clause does not affect general assistance eligibility.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.06, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 1, a grant of general assistance shall be made to an eligible individual, married couple, or family for an emergency need, as defined in rules promulgated by the commissioner, where the recipient requests temporary assistance not exceeding 30 days if an emergency situation appears to exist and the individual is ineligible for the program of emergency assistance under aid to families with dependent children and is not a recipient of aid to families with dependent children at the time of application hereunder. If a an applicant or recipient relates facts to the local agency which may be sufficient to constitute an emergency situation, the local agency shall advise the recipient person of the procedure for applying for assistance pursuant to this subdivision.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256D.09, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [REPRESENTATIVE PAYEE.] Notwithstanding subdivision 1, the commissioner shall adopt rules, and may adopt emergency rules, governing the assignment of a representative payee and management of the general assistance or work readiness assistance grant of a drug dependent person as defined in section 254A.02, subdivision 5. The representative payee is responsible for deciding how the drug dependent person's benefits can best be used to meet that person's needs. The determination of drug dependency must be made by an assessor qualified under Minnesota Rules, part 9530.6615, subpart 2, to perform an assessment of chemical use. Upon receipt of the assessor's determination of drug dependency, the county shall determine whether a representative payee will be assigned to manage the person's benefits. The chemical use assessment, the decision to refer a person for the assessment, and the county determination of whether a representative payee will be assigned are subject to the administrative and judicial review provisions of section 256.045. However, notwithstanding any provision of section 256.045 to the contrary, an applicant or recipient who is referred for an assessment and is otherwise eligible to receive a general assistance or work readiness benefit, may only be provided with emergency general assistance or vendor payments pending the outcome of an administrative or judicial review. If, at the time of application or at any other time, there is a reasonable basis for questioning whether a person can responsibly manage that person's money due to possible is drug dependency dependent, the person may be referred for a chemical health assessment, and only emergency assistance payments or general assistance vendor payments may be provided until the assessment is complete and the results of the assessment made available to the county agency. A reasonable basis for questioning whether a person is drug dependent exists when:

(1) the person has required detoxification two or more times in the past 12 months;

(2) the person appears intoxicated at the county agency as indicated by two or more of the following:

(i) the odor of alcohol;

(ii) slurred speech;

(iii) disconjugate gaze;

(iv) impaired balance;

(v) difficulty remaining awake;

(vi) consumption of alcohol;

(vii) responding to sights or sounds that are not actually present;

(viii) extreme restlessness, fast speech, or unusual belligerence;

(3) the person has been involuntarily committed for drug dependency at least once in the past 12 months; or

(4) the person has received treatment, including domiciliary care, for drug abuse or dependency at least twice in the past 12 months.

The assignment to representative payee status must be reviewed at least every 12 months. The county agency shall designate the representative payee after consultation with the recipient. The county agency shall select the representative payee from appropriate individuals, or public or nonprofit agencies, including those suggested by the recipient, but the county agency's designation of representative payee is prevails, subject to the administrative and judicial review provisions of section 256.045.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.01, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [EDUCATION PROGRAM.] "Education program" means remedial or basic education or English as a second language instruction, a program leading to a general equivalency or high school diploma, post-secondary programs excluding postbaccalaureate programs, and other education and training needs as documented in an employability plan that is developed by an employment and training service provider certified by the commissioner of jobs and training or an individual designated by the county to provide employment and training services. The employability plan must outline education and training needs of a recipient, meet state requirements for employability plans, meet the requirements of Minnesota Rules, parts 9565.5000 to 9565.5200 and meet the requirements of other programs that provide federal reimbursement for child care services. The county must incorporate into a recipient's employability plan an educational plan developed by a post-secondary institution for a nonpriority AFDC recipient who is enrolled or planning to enroll at that institution.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.01, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [EMPLOYMENT PROGRAM.] "Employment program" means employment of recipients financially eligible for child care assistance, preemployment activities, or other activities approved in an employability plan that is developed by an employment and training service provider certified by the commissioner of jobs and training or an individual designated by the county to provide employment and training services. The plans must meet the requirements of Minnesota Rules, parts 9565.5000 to 9565.5200, and other programs that provide federal reimbursement for child care services.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.01, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [PROVIDER.] "Provider" means a child care license holder who operates a family day care home, a group family day care home, a day care center, a nursery school, a day nursery, an extended day school age child care program; a person exempt from licensure who meets child care standards established by the state board of education; or a legal nonlicensed caregiver who is at least 18 years of age, and who is not a member of the AFDC assistance unit.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256H.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 16. [TRANSITION YEAR FAMILIES.] "Transition year families" means families who lose eligibility for AFDC due to increased hours of employment, increased income from employment, or the loss of income disregards due to time limitations, as provided under Public Law Number 100-485.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256H.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 17. [CHILD CARE FUND.] "Child care fund" means a program providing:

(1) financial assistance for child care to parents engaged in employment or education and training leading to employment; and

(2) grants to develop, expand, and improve the access and availability of child care services statewide.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.03, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ALLOCATION; LIMITATIONS.] The commissioner shall allocate ~~66 percent~~ of the money appropriated under the child care fund for the basic sliding fee program and shall allocate those funds between the metropolitan area, comprising the counties of Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, and Washington, and the area outside the metropolitan area as follows:

(1) 50 percent of the money shall be allocated among the counties on the basis of the number of families below the poverty level, as determined from the most recent census or special census; and

(2) 50 percent of the money shall be allocated among the counties on the basis of the counties' portion of the AFDC caseload for the preceding state fiscal year.

If, under the preceding formula, either the seven-county metropolitan area consisting of Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, and Washington counties or the area consisting of counties outside the seven-county metropolitan area is allocated more than 55 percent of the basic sliding fee funds, each county's allocation in that area shall be proportionally reduced until the total for the area is no more than 55 percent of the basic sliding fee funds. The amount of the allocations proportionally reduced shall be used to proportionally increase each county's allocation in the other area.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.03, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [ELIGIBLE RECIPIENTS.] Families that meet the eligibility requirements under sections 256H.10, except AFDC recipients and transition year families, and 256H.11 are eligible for child care assistance under the basic sliding fee program. From July 1, 1990, to June 30, 1991, a county may not accept new applications for the basic sliding fee program unless the county can demonstrate that its state money expenditures for the basic sliding fee program for this period will not exceed 95 percent of the county's allocation of state money for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1990. As basic sliding fee program money becomes available to serve new families, eligible families whose benefits were terminated during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1990, for reasons other than loss of eligibility shall be reinstated. Families enrolled in the basic sliding fee program as of July 1, 1990, shall be continued until they are no longer eligible. Counties shall make vendor payments to the child care provider or pay the parent directly for eligible child care expenses on a reimbursement basis.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.03, subdivision 2b, is amended to read:

Subd. 2b. [FUNDING PRIORITY.] (a) First priority for child care assistance under the basic sliding fee program must be given to eligible recipients non-AFDC families who do not have a high school or general equivalency diploma or who need remedial and basic skill courses in order to pursue employment or to pursue education leading to employment. Priority for child care assistance under the basic sliding fee program must be given to non-AFDC families for this first priority unless a county can demonstrate that funds available in the AFDC child care program allocation are inadequate to serve all AFDC families needing child care services. Within this priority, the following subpriorities must be used:

(1) child care needs of minor parents;

(2) child care needs of parents under 21 years of age; and

(3) child care needs of other parents within the priority group described in this paragraph.

(b) Second priority must be given to all other parents who are eligible for the basic sliding fee program.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.05, subdivision 1b, is amended to read:

Subd. 1b. [ELIGIBLE RECIPIENTS.] Families eligible for guaranteed child care assistance under the AFDC child care program are families receiving AFDC and former AFDC recipients who, during their first year of employment, continue to require a child care subsidy in order to retain employment. The commissioner shall designate between 20 to 60 percent of the AFDC child care program as the minimum to be reserved for AFDC recipients in an educational program. If a family meets the eligibility requirements of the AFDC child care program and the caregiver has an approved employability plan that meets the requirements of appropriate federal reimbursement programs, that family is eligible for child care assistance.:

(1) persons receiving services under section 256.736;

(2) AFDC recipients who are employed; and

(3) persons who are members of transition year families under section 256H.01, subdivision 16.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.05, subdivision 1c, is amended to read:

Subd. 1c. [FUNDING PRIORITY.] Priority for child care assistance under the AFDC child care program shall be given to AFDC priority groups who are engaged in an employment or education program consistent with their employability plan. If the AFDC recipient is employed, the AFDC child care disregard shall be applied before the remaining child care costs are subsidized by the AFDC child care program. AFDC recipients leaving AFDC due to their earned income, who have been on AFDC three out of the last six months and who apply for child care assistance under subdivision 1b within the first year after leaving AFDC, shall be entitled to one year of child care subsidies during the first year of employment. AFDC recipients must be put on a waiting list for the basic sliding fee program when they leave AFDC due to their earned income.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.05, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [COOPERATION WITH OTHER PROGRAMS.] The county shall develop cooperative agreements with the employment and training service provider for coordination of child care funding with employment, training, and education programs for all AFDC recipients who receive services under section 256.736. The cooperative agreement shall specify that individuals receiving employment, training, and education services under an employability plan from the employment and training service provider shall, as resources permit, be guaranteed child care assistance from the county of their residence responsible for the current employability development plan.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.05, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [FEDERAL REIMBURSEMENT.] Counties shall maximize their federal reimbursement under the AFDC special needs program Public Law Number 100-485 or other federal reimbursement programs for money spent for persons listed in this section ~~and section 256H.03~~. The commissioner shall allocate any federal earnings to the county to be used to expand child care services under these sections.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.08, is amended to read:

Money for persons listed in sections 256H.03, subdivision 2a, and 256H.05, subdivision 1b, shall be used to reduce the costs of child care for students, including the costs of child care for students while employed if enrolled in an eligible education program at the same time and making satisfactory progress towards completion of the program. Counties may not limit the duration of child care subsidies for a person in an employment or educational program, except when the person is found to be ineligible under the child care fund eligibility standards. Any limitation must be based on a person's employability plan in the case of an AFDC recipient, and county policies included in the child care allocation plan. Time limitations for child care assistance, as specified in Minnesota Rules, parts 9565.5000 to 9565.5200, do not apply to basic or remedial educational programs needed to prepare for post-secondary education or employment. These programs include: high school, general equivalency diploma, and English as a second language. Programs exempt from this time limit must not run concurrently with a post-secondary program. Financially eligible students who have received child care assistance for one academic year shall be provided child care assistance in the following academic year if funds allocated under sections 256H.03 and 256H.05. If a student an AFDC recipient who is receiving AFDC child care assistance under this chapter moves to another county as specified authorized in their employability plan, continues to be enrolled in a post-secondary institution, and continues to be eligible for AFDC child care assistance under this chapter, the student must receive continued child care assistance from their county of origin without interruption to the limit of the county's allocation participate in educational or training programs authorized in their employability development plans, and continues to be eligible for AFDC child care assistance under this chapter, the AFDC caretaker must receive continued child care assistance from the county responsible for their current employability development plan, without interruption.

Sec. 47. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.09, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [QUARTERLY REPORTS.] The commissioner shall specify requirements for reports, including quarterly fiscal reports, according to section 256.01, subdivision 2, paragraph (17). Counties shall submit on forms prescribed by the commissioner a quarterly financial and program activity report. The failure to submit a complete report by the end of the quarter in which the report is due may result in a reduction of child care fund allocations equal to the next quarter's allocation. The financial and program activity report must include:

- (1) a detailed accounting of the expenditures and revenues for the program during the preceding quarter by funding source and by eligibility group;
- (2) a description of activities and concomitant expenditures that are federally reimbursable under the AFDC employment special needs program and other federal reimbursement programs;
- (3) a description of activities and concomitant expenditures of child care money;
- (4) information on money encumbered at the quarter's end but not yet reimbursable, for use in adjusting allocations as provided in sections section 256H.03, subdivision 3, and 256H.05, subdivision 1a; and

(5) other data the commissioner considers necessary to account for the program or to evaluate its effectiveness in preventing and reducing participants' dependence on public assistance and in providing other benefits, including improvement in the care provided to children.

Sec. 48. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256H.10, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBILITY FACTORS.] Child care services must be available to families who need child care to find or keep employment or to obtain the training or education necessary to find employment and who:

(a) receive aid to families with dependent children and are receiving employment and training services under section 256.736;

(b) have household income below the eligibility levels for aid to families with dependent children; or

(c) have household income within a range established by the commissioner.

(d) Child care services for the families receiving aid to families with dependent children must be made available as in-kind services, to cover any difference between the actual cost and the amount disregarded under the aid to families with dependent children program. Child care services to families whose incomes are below the threshold of eligibility for aid to families with dependent children, but that are not receiving aid to families with dependent children, must be made available without cost to the families.

Sec. 49. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.10, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PRIORITIES; ALLOCATIONS.] If more than 75 percent of the available money is provided to any one of the groups described in section 256H.03 or 256H.05, the county board shall document to the commissioner the reason the group received a disproportionate share unless approved in the plan. If a county projects that its child care allocation is insufficient to meet the needs of all eligible groups, it may prioritize among the groups that remain to be served after the county has complied with the priority requirements of sections section 256H.03 and 256H.05. Counties that have established a priority for non-AFDC families beyond those established under section 256H.03 must submit the policy in the annual allocation plan.

Sec. 50. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256H.10, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [ELIGIBILITY; ANNUAL INCOME; CALCULATION.] Annual income of the applicant family is the current monthly income of the family multiplied by 12 or the income for the 12-month period immediately preceding the date of application, whichever or income calculated by the method which provides the most accurate assessment of income available to the family. Self-employment income must be calculated based on gross receipts less operating expenses. Income must be redetermined when the family's income changes, but no less often than every six months. Income must be verified with documentary evidence. If the applicant does not have sufficient evidence of income, verification must be obtained from the source of the income.

Sec. 51. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.11, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ASSISTANCE FOR PERSONS SEEKING AND RETAINING EMPLOYMENT.] Persons who are seeking employment and who are eligible for assistance under this section are eligible to receive the equivalent of up to one month of child care. Employed persons who work at least ten hours a week and receive at least a minimum wage for all hours worked are eligible for continued child care assistance.

Sec. 52. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.15, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SUBSIDY RESTRICTIONS.] (a) Until June 30, 1991, the maximum child care rate is determined under this paragraph. The county board may limit the subsidy allowed by setting a maximum on the provider child care rate that the county shall subsidize. The maximum rate set by any county shall not be lower than 110 percent or higher than 125 percent of the median rate in that county for like care arrangements for all types of care, including special needs and handicapped care, as determined by the commissioner. If the county sets a maximum rate, it must pay the provider's rate for each child receiving a subsidy, up to the maximum rate set by the county. In order to be reimbursed for more than 110 percent of the median rate, a provider with employees must pay wages for teachers, assistants, and aides that are more than 110 percent of the county average rate for child care workers. If a county does not set a maximum provider rate, it shall pay the provider's rate for every child in care. The maximum state payment is 125 percent of the median provider rate. If the county has not set a maximum provider rate and the provider rate is greater than 125 percent of the median provider rate in the county, the county shall pay the amount in excess of 125 percent of the median provider rate from county funding sources. The county shall pay the provider's full charges for every child in care, up to the maximum established. The commissioner shall determine the maximum rate for each type of care, including special needs and handicapped care.

(b) Effective July 1, 1991, the maximum rate paid for child care assistance under the child care fund is the maximum rate eligible for federal reimbursement except as allowed under subdivision 2. The county shall pay the provider's full charges for every child in care, up to the maximum established. The commissioner shall determine the maximum rate for each type of care, including special needs and handicapped care.

(c) When the provider charge is greater than the maximum provider rate set by the county allowed, the parent is responsible for payment of the difference in the rates in addition to any family co-payment fee.

Sec. 53. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.15, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PROVIDER RATE BONUS FOR ACCREDITATION.] Currently accredited child care centers shall be paid a five ten percent bonus above the maximum rate established by the county in subdivision 1, if the center can demonstrate that its staff wages are greater than 110 percent of the average wages in the county for similar care, up to the actual provider rate. A family day care provider shall be paid a five ten percent bonus above the maximum rate established by the county in subdivision 1, if the provider holds a current child early childhood development associate certificate credential approved by the commissioner, up to the actual provider rate. ~~A county is not required to review wages under this subdivision unless the county has set a maximum above 110 percent for all providers with employees in their county.~~

Sec. 54. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256H.17, is amended to read:

256H.17 [EXTENSION OF EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES.]

The county board shall insure that child care services available to county eligible residents are well advertised and that everyone who receives or applies for aid to families with dependent children is informed of training and employment opportunities and programs, including child care assistance and child care resource and referral services.

Sec. 55. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.21, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [MINI-GRANTS.] "Mini-grants" means child care grants for facility improvements that are less than up to $1,000. Mini-grants include, but are not limited to, improvements to meet licensing requirements, improvements to expand a child care facility or program, toys and equipment, start-up costs, staff training, and development costs.

Sec. 56. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.22, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DISTRIBUTION OF FUNDS.] (a) The commissioner shall allocate grant money appropriated for child care service (~~development and resource and referral services~~) among the development regions designated by the governor under section 462.385, as follows:

(1) 50 percent of the child care service development grant appropriation shall be allocated to the metropolitan area economic development region; and

(2) 50 percent of the child care service development grant appropriation shall be allocated to greater Minnesota counties economic development regions other than the metropolitan economic development region.

(b) The following formulas shall be used to allocate grant appropriations among the counties economic development regions:

(1) 50 percent of the funds shall be allocated in proportion to the ratio of children under 12 years of age in each county economic development region to the total number of children under 12 years of age in all counties economic development regions; and

(2) 50 percent of the funds shall be allocated in proportion to the ratio of children under 12 years of age in each county economic development region to the number of licensed child care spaces currently available in each county economic development region.

(c) Out of the amount allocated for each economic development region and county, the commissioner shall award grants based on the recommendation of the grant review advisory task force. In addition, the commissioner shall award no more than 75 percent of the money either to child care facilities for the purpose of facility improvement or interim financing or to child care workers for staff training expenses. ~~The commissioner shall award no more than 50 percent of the money for resource and referral services to maintain~~ or improve an existing resource and referral until all regions are served by resource and referral programs.

(d) Any funds unobligated may be used by the commissioner to award grants to proposals that received funding recommendations by the advisory task force but were not awarded due to insufficient funds.

Sec. 57. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.22, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [CHILD CARE REGIONAL ADVISORY COMMITTEES.] Child care regional advisory committees shall review and make recommendations to the commissioner on applications for service development grants under this section. The commissioner shall appoint the child care regional advisory committees in each governor's economic development regions. People appointed under this subdivision must represent the following constituent groups: family child care providers, group center providers, parent users, health services, social services, public schools, and other citizens with demonstrated interest in child care issues. Members of the advisory task force with a direct financial interest in a pending grant proposal may not provide a recommendation or participate in the ranking of that grant proposal. Committee members may be reimbursed for their actual travel, child care, and child care provider substitute expenses for up to six committee meetings per year. The child care regional advisory committees shall complete their reviews and forward their recommendations to the commissioner by the date specified by the commissioner.

Sec. 58. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.22, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [ADVISORY TASK FORCE.] The commissioner shall convene a statewide advisory task force which shall advise the commissioner on grants and other child care issues. The statewide advisory task force shall review and make recommendations to the commissioner on child care resource and referral grants and on statewide service development and child care training grants. Members of the advisory task force with a direct financial interest in a resource and referral or a statewide training proposal may not provide a recommendation or participate in the ranking of that grant proposal. Each regional grant review committee formed under subdivision 3, shall appoint a representative to the advisory task force. The commissioner may convene meetings of the task force as needed. Terms of office and removal from office are governed by the appointing body. The commissioner may compensate members for their expenses of travel to, child care, and child care provider substitute expenses for meetings of the task force. The members of the child care advisory task force shall also meet once with the interagency advisory committee on child care under section 256H.25.

Sec. 59. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256I.05, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [MONTHLY RATES.] Monthly payments for rates negotiated by a county agency on behalf of a recipient living in a negotiated rate residence may be paid at the rates in effect on March 1, 1985, not to exceed $919.80 in 1989. These rates The maximum negotiated rate must be increased annually according to subdivision 7. The county agency may provide an annual increase in the March 1, 1985, payment rate using the formula in subdivision 7, provided the resulting rate does not exceed the maximum negotiated rate. The county agency may at any time negotiate a lower payment rate than the rate that would otherwise be paid under this subdivision and subdivision 7.

Sec. 60. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256I.05, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [RATE INCREASES.] The maximum negotiated rate must be adjusted by the annual percentage change in the consumer price index (CPI-U U.S. city average), as published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics between the previous two Septembers, new series index (1967-100) or 2.5 percent, whichever is less. A county may provide an annual negotiated rate increase that does not exceed the percentage increase in the maximum negotiated rate.

Sec. 61. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 268.0111, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [EMPLOYMENT AND TRAINING SERVICES.] "Employment and training services" means programs, activities, and services related to job training, job placement, and job creation including job service programs, job training partnership act programs, wage subsidies, work readiness programs, job search, counseling, case management, community work experience programs, displaced homemaker programs, disadvantaged job training programs, grant diversion, employment experience programs, youth employment programs, conservation corps, apprenticeship programs, community investment programs, ~~supported work programs~~, community development corporations, economic development programs, and opportunities industrialization centers.

Sec. 62. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.673, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DEPARTMENT OF JOBS AND TRAINING.] The commissioner shall supervise wage subsidies and shall provide technical assistance to the eligible local service units for the purpose of delivering wage subsidies.

Sec. 63. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.673, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [REPORT.] Each entity delivering wage subsidies shall report to the commissioner ~~and the coordinator~~ on a quarterly basis:

(1) the number of persons placed in private sector jobs, in temporary public sector jobs, or in other services;

(2) the outcome for each participant placed in a private sector job, in a temporary public sector job, or in another service;

(3) the number and type of employers employing persons under the program;

(4) the amount of money spent in each eligible local service unit for wages for each type of employment and each type of other expense;

(5) the age, educational experience, family status, gender, priority group status, race, and work experience of each person in the program;

(6) the amount of wages received by persons while in the program and 60 days after completing the program;

(7) for each classification of persons described in clause (5), the outcome of the wage subsidy placement, including length of time employed; nature of employment, whether private sector, temporary public sector, or other service; and the hourly wages; and

(8) any other information requested by the commissioner. Each report must include cumulative information, as well as information for each quarter.

Data collected on individuals under this subdivision are private data on individuals as defined in section 13.02, subdivision 12, except that summary data may be provided under section 13.05, subdivision 7.

Sec. 64. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.6751, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [WAGE SUBSIDIES.] Wage subsidy money must be allocated to eligible local service units in the following manner:

(a) The commissioner shall allocate 87.5 percent of the funds available for allocation to eligible local service units for wage subsidy programs as follows: the proportion of the wage subsidy money available to each eligible local service unit must be based on the number of unemployed persons in the eligible local service unit for the most recent six-month period and the number of work readiness assistance cases and aid to families with dependent children cases in the eligible local service unit for the most recent six-month period.

(b) Five percent of the money available for wage subsidy programs must be allocated at the discretion of the commissioner.

(c) Seven and one-half percent of the money available for wage subsidy programs must be allocated at the discretion of the commissioner to provide jobs for residents of federally recognized Indian reservations.

(d) By December 31 of each fiscal year, providers and local service units receiving wage subsidy money shall report to the commissioner on the use of allocated funds. The commissioner shall reallocate uncommitted funds for each fiscal year according to the formula in paragraph (a).

Sec. 65. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.676, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [AMONG EMPLOYERS.] Allocation of funds among eligible employers within an eligible a local service unit shall give priority to funding private sector jobs to the extent that eligible businesses apply for funds. If possible, no more than 25 percent of the statewide funds available for wages may be allocated for temporary jobs with eligible government and nonprofit agencies, or for temporary community investment program jobs with eligible government agencies during the biennium. This subdivision does not apply to jobs for residents of federally recognized Indian reservations.

Sec. 66. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.677, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Reimbursement to the commissioner for the costs of administering wage subsidies must not exceed one-half percent of the money appropriated. Reimbursement to an eligible local service unit for the costs of administering wage subsidies must not exceed five percent and for the purchase of supplies and materials necessary to create permanent improvements to public property must not exceed one percent of the money allocated to that local service unit. The commissioner and the eligible local service units shall reallocate money from other sources to cover the costs of administering wage subsidies whenever possible.

Sec. 67. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.677, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. ~~Eligible~~ Local service units may use up to 25 percent of their wage subsidy allocations to provide eligible applicants with job search assistance, labor market orientation, job seeking skills, necessary child care services, relocation, and transportation, and to subsidize fringe benefits.

Sec. 68. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.678, is amended to read:

268.678 ~~ELIGIBLE LOCAL SERVICE UNITS; POWERS AND DUTIES.~~

Subdivision 1. ~~[GENERAL POWERS.]~~ Eligible Local service units have the powers and duties given in this section and any additional duties given by the commissioner.

Subd. 3. ~~[OUTREACH.]~~ Each eligible local service unit shall publicize the availability of wage subsidies within its area to seek maximum participation by eligible job applicants and employers.

Subd. 4. ~~[CONTRACTS.]~~ Each eligible local service unit that has not agreed to a contract under section 268.673, subdivision 4a, may enter into contracts with certified service providers to deliver wage subsidies.

Subd. 5. ~~[SCREENING AND COORDINATION.]~~ Each eligible local service unit shall provide for the screening of job applicants and employers to achieve the best possible placement of eligible job applicants with eligible employers.

Subd. 6. ~~[ELIGIBLE JOB APPLICANT PRIORITY LISTS.]~~ Each eligible local service unit shall provide for the maintenance of a list of eligible job applicants unable to secure employment under the program at the time of application. The list shall prioritize eligible job applicants and shall be used to fill jobs with eligible employers as they become available.

Sec. 69. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.681, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. ~~[ELIGIBLE BUSINESSES.]~~ A business employer is an eligible employer if it enters into a written contract, signed and subscribed to under oath, with an eligible local service unit or its contractor, containing assurances that:

(a) funds received by a business shall be used only as permitted under sections 268.672 to 268.682;

(b) the business has submitted information to the eligible local service unit or its contractor (1) describing the duties and proposed compensation of each employee proposed to be hired under the program; and (2) demonstrating that, with the funds provided under sections 268.672 to 268.682, the business is likely to succeed and continue to employ persons hired using wage subsidies;

(c) the business will use funds exclusively for compensation and fringe benefits of eligible job applicants and will provide employees hired with these funds with fringe benefits and other terms and conditions of employment comparable to those provided to other employees of the business who do comparable work;

(d) the funds are necessary to allow the business to begin, or to employ additional people, but not to fill positions which would be filled even in the absence of wage subsidies;

(e) the business will cooperate with the eligible local service unit and the commissioner in collecting data to assess the result of wage subsidies; and

(f) the business is in compliance with all applicable affirmative action, fair labor, health, safety, and environmental standards.

Sec. 70. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.681, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PRIORITIES.] (a) In allocating funds among eligible businesses, the eligible local service unit or its contractor shall give priority to:

(1) businesses engaged in manufacturing;

(2) nonretail businesses that are small businesses as defined in section 645.445; and

(3) businesses that export products outside the state.

(b) In addition to paragraph (a), an eligible local service unit must give priority to businesses that:

(1) have a high potential for growth and long-term job creation;

(2) are labor intensive;

(3) make high use of local and Minnesota resources;

(4) are under ownership of women and minorities;

- (5) make high use of new technology;
- (6) produce energy conserving materials or services or are involved in development of renewable sources of energy; and
- (7) have their primary place of business in Minnesota.

Sec. 71. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.681, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PAYBACK.] A business receiving wage subsidies shall repay 70 percent of the amount initially received for each eligible job applicant employed, if the employee does not continue in the employment of the business beyond the six-month subsidized period. If the employee continues in the employment of the business for one year or longer after the six-month subsidized period, the business need not repay any of the funds received for that employee's wages. If the employee continues in the employment of the business for a period of less than one year after the expiration of the six-month subsidized period, the business shall receive a proportional reduction in the amount it must repay. If an employer dismisses an employee for good cause and works in good faith with the eligible local service unit or its contractor to employ and train another person referred by the eligible local service unit or its contractor, the payback formula shall apply as if the original person had continued in employment.

A repayment schedule shall be negotiated and agreed to by the eligible local service unit and the business prior to the disbursement of the funds and is subject to renegotiation. The eligible local service unit shall forward 25 percent of the payments received under this subdivision to the commissioner on a monthly basis and shall retain the remaining 75 percent for local program expenditures. Notwithstanding section 268.677, subdivision 2, the local service unit may use up to 20 percent of its share of the funds returned under this subdivision for any administrative costs associated with the collection of the funds under this subdivision. At least 80 percent of the local service unit's share of the funds returned under this subdivision must be used as provided in section 268.677. The commissioner shall deposit payments forwarded to the commissioner under this subdivision in the Minnesota wage subsidy account created by subdivision 4.

Sec. 72. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 268.86, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [INTERAGENCY AGREEMENTS.] By October 1, 1987, the commissioner and the commissioner of human services shall enter into a written contract for the design, delivery, and administration of employment and training services for applicants for or recipients of food stamps or aid to families with dependent children and work readiness, including AFDC employment and training programs, and general assistance or work readiness grant diversion, and supported work. The contract must be approved by the coordinator and must address:

- (1) specific roles and responsibilities of each department;
- (2) assignment and supervision of staff for interagency activities including any necessary interagency employee mobility agreements under the administrative procedures of the department of employee relations;
- (3) mechanisms for determining the conditions under which individuals participate in services, their rights and responsibilities while participating, and the standards by which the services must be administered;
- (4) procedures for providing technical assistance to local service units, Indian tribes, and employment and training service providers;
- (5) access to appropriate staff for ongoing development and interpretation of policy, rules, and program standards;
- (6) procedures for reimbursing appropriate agencies for administrative expenses; and
- (7) procedures for accessing available federal funds.

Sec. 73. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.86, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [GRANT DIVERSION.] The commissioner shall develop grant diversion processes for recipients of ~~aid to families with dependent children~~ general assistance and work readiness assistance payments and shall supervise the counties in the administration of the employment and training services to meet the needs and circumstances of ~~public assistance~~ these recipients. A grant diversion program that places general assistance and work readiness recipients in public sector employment must operate as a community investment program under section 268.90.

Sec. 74. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.871, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [RESPONSIBILITY AND CERTIFICATION.] (a) Unless prohibited by federal law or otherwise determined by state law, a local service unit is responsible for the delivery of employment and training services. After February 1, 1988, employment and training services must be delivered by certified employment and training service providers.

(b) The local service unit's employment and training service provider must meet the certification standards in this subdivision in order to be certified to deliver any of the following employment and training services and programs: wage subsidies; work readiness; work readiness and general assistance grant diversion; food stamp employment and training programs; community work experience programs; AFDC job search; AFDC grant diversion; AFDC on-the-job training; and AFDC case management.

(c) The commissioner shall certify a local service unit's service provider to provide these employment and training services and programs if the commissioner determines that the provider has:

(1) past experience in direct delivery of the programs specified in paragraph (b);

(2) staff capabilities and qualifications, including adequate staff to provide timely and effective services to clients, and proven staff experience in providing specific services such as assessments, career planning, job development, job placement, support services, and knowledge of community services and educational resources;

(3) demonstrated effectiveness in providing services to public assistance recipients and other economically disadvantaged clients; and

(4) demonstrated administrative capabilities, including adequate fiscal and accounting procedures, financial management systems, participant data systems, and record retention procedures.

(d) When the only service provider that meets the criterion in paragraph (c), clause (1), has been decertified, pursuant to subdivision 1a, in that local service unit, the following criteria shall be substituted: past experience in direct delivery of multiple, coordinated, nonduplicative services, including outreach, assessments, identification of client barriers, employability development plans, and provision or referral to support services.

Employment and training service providers shall be certified by the commissioner for two fiscal years beginning July 1, 1991, and every second year thereafter.

Sec. 75. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.871, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [DECERTIFICATION.] (a) The department, on its own initiative, or at the request of the local service unit, shall begin decertification processes for employment and training service providers who:

(1) no longer meet one or more of the certification standards;

(2) are delivering services in a manner that does not comply with the Family Support Act of 1988, Public Law Number 100-485 or relevant state law after corrective actions have been cited, technical assistance has been provided, and a reasonable period of time for remedial action has been provided; or

(3) are not complying with other state and federal laws or policy which are necessary for effective delivery of services.

(b) The initiating of decertification processes shall not result in decertification of the service provider unless and until adequate fact-finding and investigation has been performed by the department.

Sec. 76. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.871, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CONTRACTING PREFERENCE RESPONSIBILITY.] In contracting, A local service unit must give preference, whenever possible, to contract with certified employment and training service providers that can effectively coordinate federal, state, and local employment and training services; that can maximize use of available federal and other nonstate funds; and that have demonstrated the ability to serve achieve effective results in serving public assistance clients as well as other unemployed people.

Sec. 77. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 268.88, is amended to read:

268.88 [LOCAL SERVICE UNIT PLANS.]

(a) Local service units shall prepare and submit to the commissioner by April 15 of each year 1990 an annual plan for the subsequent fiscal year. By April 15, 1991, and by April 15 of each second year thereafter, local service units shall prepare and submit to the commissioner a plan that covers the next two state fiscal years. The commissioner shall notify each local service unit within 60 days of receipt of its plan that the plan has been approved or disapproved. The plan must include:

(1) a statement of objectives for the employment and training services the local service unit administers;

(2) the establishment of public assistance caseload reduction goals and the strategies and programs that will be used to achieve these goals;

(3) a statement of whether the goals from the preceding year were met and an explanation if the local service unit failed to meet the goals;

(4) the amount proposed to be allocated to each employment and training service;

(5) the proposed types of employment and training services the local service unit plans to utilize;

(6) a description of how the local service unit will use funds provided under section 256.736 to meet the requirements of that section. The description must include the two work programs required by section 256.736, subdivision 10, paragraph (a), clause (13), what services will be provided, number of clients served, per service expenditures, type of clients served, and projected outcomes;

(7) a report on the use of wage subsidies, grant diversions, community investment programs, and other services administered under this chapter;

(8) an annual update of the community investment program plan according to standards established by the commissioner;

(9) a performance review of the employment and training service providers delivering employment and training services for the local service unit;

(10) (9) a copy of any contract between the local service unit and an employment and training service provider including expected outcomes and service levels for public assistance clients; and

(11) (10) a copy of any other agreements between educational institutions, family support services, and child care providers.

(b) In counties with a city of the first class, the county and the city shall develop and submit a joint plan. The plan may not be submitted until agreed to by both the city and the county. The plan must provide for the direct allocation of employment and training money to the city and the county unless waived by either. If the county and the city cannot concur on a plan, the commissioner shall resolve their dispute. In counties in which a federally recognized Indian tribe is operating an employment and training program under an agreement with the commissioner of human services, the plan must provide that the county will coordinate its employment and training programs, including developing a system for referrals, sanctions, and the provision of supporting services such as access to child care funds and transportation with programs operated by the Indian tribe. The plan may not be given final approval by the commissioner until the tribal unit and county have submitted written agreement on these provisions in the plan. If the county and

Indian tribe cannot agree on these provisions, the local service unit shall notify the commissioner of jobs and training and the commissioners of jobs and training and human services shall resolve the dispute.

(c) The commissioner may withhold the distribution of employment and training money from a local service unit that does not submit a plan to the commissioner by the date set by this section, and shall withhold the distribution of employment and training money from a local service unit whose plan has been disapproved by the commissioner until an acceptable amended plan has been submitted.

(d) Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.88, local service units shall prepare and submit to the commissioner by June 1, 1989, an annual plan for fiscal year 1990. The commissioner shall notify each local service unit within 30 days of receipt of its plan if its plan has been approved or disapproved. Beginning April 15, 1992, and by April 15 of each second year thereafter, local service units must prepare and submit to the commissioner an interim year plan update that deals with performance in that state fiscal year and changes anticipated for the second year of the biennium. The update must include information about employment and training programs addressed in the local service unit's two-year plan and shall be completed in accordance with criteria established by the commissioner.

Sec. 78. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 268.881, is amended to read:

268.881 [INDIAN TRIBE PLANS.]

The commissioner, in consultation with the commissioner of human services, shall review and comment on Indian tribe plans submitted to the commissioner for provision of employment and training services. The plan must be submitted by April 15 for the state fiscal year ending June 30, 1990. For subsequent years, the plan must be submitted at least 60 days before the program commences. The commissioner shall approve or disapprove the plan for the state fiscal year ending June 30, 1990, within 30 days of receipt. The commissioner shall notify the Indian tribe of approval or disapproval of plans for subsequent years within 60 days of submission of the plans. The grant proposal must contain information that has been established by the commissioner and the commissioner of human services for the employment and training services grant program for Indian tribes.

(a) The commissioner, in consultation with the commissioner of human services, shall review and comment on Indian tribe plans submitted to the commissioner for provision of employment and training services. Beginning April 15, 1991, and by April 15 of each second year thereafter, the Indian tribe shall prepare and submit to the commissioner a plan that covers the next two state fiscal years. Beginning April 15, 1992, and by April 15 of each second year thereafter, the Indian tribe shall prepare and submit to the commissioner an interim year plan update that deals with performance during the past state fiscal year and that covers changes anticipated for the second year of the biennium. The commissioner shall notify the Indian tribe of approval or disapproval of the plans and updates for existing programs within 60 days of submission.

(b) A plan for a new tribal program must be submitted at least 45 days before the program is to commence. The commissioner shall approve or disapprove the plan for new programs within 30 days of receipt.

(c) The tribal plan and update must contain information that has been established by the commissioner and the commissioner of human services for the tribal employment and training service program.

(d) The commissioner may recommend to the commissioner of human services withholding the distribution of employment and training money from a tribe whose plan or update is disapproved by the commissioner or a tribe that does not submit a plan or update by the date established in this section.

Sec. 79. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.90, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Community investment programs provide temporary employment to people who are experiencing prolonged unemployment and economic hardship. Community investment programs consist of one or more projects. Community investment programs must be beneficial to the state and the communities in which they are located and must provide program employees participants with training and work experience that will enhance their employability. The projects must include activities that:

- (1) expand or improve services, including education, health, social services, recreation, and safety;
- (2) improve or maintain natural resources, including rivers, streams and lakes, forest lands and roads, and soil conservation;
- (3) make permanent improvements to lands and buildings; or
- (4) weatherize public buildings and private residential dwellings.

Community investment programs may not include job placements that replace work that was part or all of the duties or responsibilities of an authorized public employee position established as of January 1, 1985.

Community investment programs that include other sources of money or authorized programs may provide employment for the groups eligible for the included programs under the terms and conditions of those programs. These programs include the Minnesota conservation corps, Minnesota summer youth program, county emergency jobs program, and the jobs training partnership act.

Sec. 80. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.90, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMMISSIONER OF JOBS AND TRAINING.] The commissioner shall:

(1) Make emergency or permanent rules governing plan content, criteria for approval, and administrative standards;

(2) refer community investment program administrators to the appropriate state agency for technical assistance in developing and administering community investment programs;

(3) establish the method by which community investment programs will be approved or disapproved through the community investment program plan and the annual update component of the county plan;

(4) review and comment on community investment program plans;

(5) institute ongoing methods to monitor and evaluate community investment programs; and

(6) ~~inform consult with the commissioner of human services of on the counties that do not have an approved plan approval of county plans for community investment programs relating to the participation of public assistance recipients.~~

Sec. 81. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.90, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [COUNTY BOARDS OF COMMISSIONERS.] The county boards of commissioners shall:

(1) be encouraged to establish community investment programs that are administered jointly according to section 471.59, or through multicounty human service boards under chapter 402;

(2) develop community investment programs in consultation with the exclusive representatives of their employees;

(3) plan community investment programs by involving nonprofit organizations and other governmental units, community action agencies, community-based organizations, local union representatives, and representatives of client groups;

(4) submit to the commissioner a community investment program plan identifying the program funding source and amount, before the initiation of a community investment program, for approval according to standards established by the commissioner;

(5) plan community investment projects that, whenever possible, utilize existing programs that are administered under contract by nonprofit organizations and governmental units, including departments and agencies of cities, counties, towns, school districts, state and federal agencies, park reserve districts, and other special districts;

(6) include in their local service unit plans an annual update to their community investment program plans for approval according to standards established by the commissioner;

(7) submit reports and meet administrative standards established by rule the commissioner;

(8) monitor the performance of entities under contract to administer individual community investment projects;

(9) enter into contracts with other governmental and private bodies to jointly fund or jointly administer approvable projects when agreements expand the resources available, the scope of people employed, or further recognized public purposes; and

(10) be encouraged to enter into contracts with businesses or individuals for eligible projects under subdivision 1 and charge a fee for the completion of a project.

Sec. 82. [WELFARE FRAUD DISQUALIFICATION DEMONSTRATION PROJECT.]

The commissioner of human services is authorized to seek federal approval to develop a demonstration project, using the administrative appeals process of section 256.045, to hear cases involving persons accused of wrongfully obtaining assistance in the AFDC or food stamps programs. Allegations of fraud must be proven by clear and convincing evidence. If a person is found to have wrongfully obtained assistance in the AFDC or food stamps program, that person shall be disqualified from the program and the needs of that individual shall not be taken into account in determining the grant or assistance level. The period of disqualification may be up to six months for a first offense and up to 12 months for a second offense.

For a third or subsequent offense, the disqualification period may be in excess of one year and can be permanent. In determining the sanction to impose, the appeals referee shall consider the amount of assistance wrongfully obtained, the actions whereby assistance was wrongfully obtained, and the effect of proposed sanctions on other members of the affected assistance unit. When federal approval is received, the agency shall develop an implementation plan which includes criteria for sanctions to be applied, and shall present the plan to the legislature for approval.

Sec. 83. [WELFARE MIGRATION STUDY.]

The commissioner of human services shall conduct a study to determine the patterns of migration of welfare recipients to and from the state. The study must determine: (1) the numbers of new applicants for AFDC and general assistance who moved to the state a short time before applying for assistance; (2) the former states or countries of residence of these applicants and whether the applicants lived in Minnesota in the past; (3) the number of welfare recipients who leave the state and the states to which these recipients are moving; and (4) the reasons welfare applicants or recipients move to or from Minnesota. This information must be collected and analyzed to determine whether migration patterns are different for border counties; nonborder, rural counties where there is a perception that there is an unusually high incidence of recipient immigration; and metropolitan area counties. The commissioner shall provide a report to the legislature by December 15, 1990. The report must include: (1) a summary and analysis of the information collected in the study regarding welfare migration patterns; (2) a comparison of welfare recipient migration patterns to migration patterns in the general population; (3) a survey of existing research and reports relating to welfare migration; (4) a description of the decline in economic support from the federal government in these areas over the past ten years; (5) a description and analysis of federal statutes or regulations or constitutional law restrictions that limit the authority of states and local communities to take action relating to the migration of recipients; and (6) a list of options available to the legislature and local governments relating to migration of recipients.

Sec. 84. [INSTRUCTION TO REVISOR.]

In the next edition of Minnesota Statutes, the revisor of statutes shall substitute the phrase "target group," "target groups," "targeted caretaker," or "targeted caretakers" for the phrases "priority group," "priority groups," "priority caretaker," or "priority caretakers" wherever it appears in Minnesota Statutes, section 256.736. The revisor of statutes shall also substitute the phrase "county agency" or "county agencies" for the phrase "local agency" or "local agencies" wherever it appears in Minnesota Statutes, chapters 256 and 256D.

Sec. 85. [REPEALER.]

Subdivision 1. [AFDC PROGRAM.] Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 256.736, subdivisions 1b, 2a, 8, and 17; and 256.7365, subdivision 8, are repealed.

Subd. 2. [GENERAL ASSISTANCE.] Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.06, subdivision 1c, is repealed.

Subd. 3. [JOBS AND TRAINING.] Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 268.672, subdivision 12; 268.86, subdivision 9; and 268.872, subdivision 3, are repealed.

Subd. 4. [CHILD CARE.] Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 256H.01, subdivision 14, and 256H.16, are repealed. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256H.05, subdivisions 1, 1a, and 3a, are repealed.

Sec. 86. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Subdivision 1. [AFDC; CHILD CARE.] Sections 1 to 18; 33 to 81; 84; and 85, subdivisions 1, 3, and 4, are effective May 1, 1990.

Subd. 2. [GENERAL ASSISTANCE.] Sections 20, 22 to 24; 26 to 32; and 85, subdivision 2, are effective October 1, 1990.

MENTAL HEALTH

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.467, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DIAGNOSTIC ASSESSMENT.] All providers of residential, acute care hospital inpatient, and regional treatment centers must complete a diagnostic assessment for each of their clients within five days of admission. Providers of outpatient and day treatment services must complete a diagnostic assessment within ten five days after the adult's second visit or within 30 days of admission after intake, whichever occurs first. In cases where a diagnostic assessment is available and has been completed within 90 180 days preceding admission, only updating is necessary. "Updating" means a written summary by a mental health professional of the adult's current mental health status and service needs. If the adult's mental health status has changed markedly since the adult's most recent diagnostic assessment, a new diagnostic assessment is required. Compliance with the provisions of this subdivision does not ensure eligibility for medical assistance or general assistance medical care reimbursement under chapters 256B and 256D.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.467, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [INDIVIDUAL TREATMENT PLANS.] All providers of outpatient services, day treatment services, residential treatment, acute care hospital inpatient treatment, and all regional treatment centers must develop an individual treatment plan for each of their adult clients. The individual treatment plan must be based on a diagnostic assessment. To the extent possible, the adult client shall be involved in all phases of developing and implementing the individual treatment plan. Providers of residential treatment and acute care hospital inpatient treatment, and all regional treatment centers must develop the individual treatment plan must be developed within ten days of client intake and reviewed must review the individual treatment plan every 90 days thereafter after intake. Providers of day treatment services must develop the individual treatment plan before the completion of five working days in which service is provided or within 30 days after the diagnostic assessment is completed or obtained, whichever occurs first. Providers of outpatient services must develop the individual treatment plan within 30 days after the diagnostic assessment is completed or obtained or by the end of the second session of an outpatient service, not including the session in which the diagnostic assessment was provided, whichever occurs first. Outpatient and day treatment services providers must review the individual treatment plan every 90 days after intake.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.469, is amended to read:

245.469 [EMERGENCY SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [AVAILABILITY OF EMERGENCY SERVICES.] By July 1, 1988, county boards must provide or contract for enough emergency services within the county to meet the needs of adults in the county who are experiencing an emotional crisis or mental illness. Clients may be required to pay a fee according to section 245.481. Emergency services must include assessment, crisis intervention, and appropriate case disposition. Emergency services must:

- (1) promote the safety and emotional stability of adults with mental illness or emotional crises;
- (2) minimize further deterioration of adults with mental illness or emotional crises;
- (3) help adults with mental illness or emotional crises to obtain ongoing care and treatment; and

(4) prevent placement in settings that are more intensive, costly, or restrictive than necessary and appropriate to meet client needs.

Subd. 2. [SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS.] The county board shall require that all service providers of emergency services to adults with mental illness provide immediate direct access to a mental health professional during regular business hours. For evenings, weekends, and holidays, the service may be by direct toll free telephone access to a mental health professional, a mental health practitioner, or until January 1, 1991, a designated person with training in human services who receives clinical supervision from a mental health professional. The commissioner may waive the requirement that the evening, weekend, and holiday service be provided by a mental health professional or mental health practitioner after January 1, 1991, if the county documents that:

(1) mental health professionals or mental health practitioners are unavailable to provide this service;

(2) services are provided by a designated person with training in human services who receives clinical supervision from a mental health professional; and

(3) the service provider is not also the provider of fire and public safety emergency services.

Whenever emergency service during nonbusiness hours is provided by anyone other than a mental health professional, a mental health professional must be available for at least telephone consultation within 30 minutes.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4711, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

245.4711 [CASE MANAGEMENT AND COMMUNITY SUPPORT SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [AVAILABILITY OF CASE MANAGEMENT SERVICES.] (a) By January 1, 1989, the county board shall provide case management activities services for all adults with serious and persistent mental illness residing in who are residents of the county and who request or consent to the services and to each adult for whom the court appoints a case manager. Staffing ratios must be sufficient to serve the needs of the clients. The case manager must meet the requirements in section 245.462, subdivision 4.

(b) Case management services provided to adults with serious and persistent mental illness eligible for medical assistance must be billed to the medical assistance program under sections 256B.02, subdivision 8, and 256B.0625.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4711, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [NOTIFICATION AND DETERMINATION OF CASE MANAGEMENT ELIGIBILITY.] (a) The county board shall notify the client adult of the person's adult's potential eligibility for case management services within five working days after receiving a request from an individual or a referral from a provider under section 245.467, subdivision 4. The county board shall send a written notice to the client adult and the client's adult's representative, if any, that identifies the designated case management providers.

(b) The county board must determine whether an adult who requests or is referred for case management services meets the criteria of section 245.462, subdivision 20, paragraph (c). If a diagnostic assessment is needed to make the determination, the county board shall offer to assist the adult in obtaining a diagnostic assessment. The county board shall notify, in writing, the adult and the adult's representative, if any, of the eligibility determination. If the adult is determined to be eligible for case management services, the county board shall refer the adult to the case management provider for case management services. If the adult is determined not to be eligible or refuses case management services, the local agency shall offer to refer the adult to a mental health provider or other appropriate service provider and to assist the adult in making an appointment with the provider of the adult's choice.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4711, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DUTIES OF CASE MANAGER.] (a) ~~The case manager shall promptly arrange for a diagnostic assessment of the applicant when one is not available as described in section 245.467, subdivision 2, to determine the applicant's eligibility as an adult with serious and persistent mental illness for community support services. The county board shall notify in writing the applicant and the applicant's representative, if any, if the applicant is determined ineligible for community support services.~~

(b) Upon a determination of eligibility for community support case management services, and if the adult consents to the services, the case manager shall complete a written functional assessment according to section 245.462, subdivision 11a. The case manager shall develop an individual community support plan for ~~an~~ the adult according to subdivision 4, paragraph (a), review the client's adult's progress, and monitor the provision of services. If services are to be provided in a host county that is not the county of financial responsibility, the case manager shall consult with the host county and obtain a letter demonstrating the concurrence of the host county regarding the provision of services.

Sec. 7. [245.4712] [COMMUNITY SUPPORT AND DAY TREATMENT SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [AVAILABILITY OF COMMUNITY SUPPORT SERVICES.] County boards must provide or contract for sufficient community support services within the county to meet the needs of adults with serious and persistent mental illness who are residents of the county. Adults may be required to pay a fee according to section 245.481. The community support services program must be designed to improve the ability of adults with serious and persistent mental illness to:

- (1) work in a regular or supported work environment;
- (2) handle basic activities of daily living;
- (3) participate in leisure time activities;
- (4) set goals and plans; and
- (5) obtain and maintain appropriate living arrangements.

The community support services program must also be designed to reduce the need for and use of more intensive, costly, or restrictive placements both in number of admissions and length of stay.

Subd. 2. [DAY TREATMENT SERVICES PROVIDED.] (a) Day treatment services must be developed as a part of the community support services available to adults with serious and persistent mental illness residing in the county. Adults may be required to pay a fee according to section 245.481. Day treatment services must be designed to:

- (1) provide a structured environment for treatment;
- (2) provide support for residing in the community;
- (3) prevent placement in settings that are more intensive, costly, or restrictive than necessary and appropriate to meet client need;
- (4) coordinate with or be offered in conjunction with a local education agency's special education program; and
- (5) operate on a continuous basis throughout the year.

(b) County boards may request a waiver from including day treatment services if they can document that:

(1) an alternative plan of care exists through the county's community support services for clients who would otherwise need day treatment services;

(2) day treatment, if included, would be duplicative of other components of the community support services; and

(3) county demographics and geography make the provision of day treatment services cost ineffective and infeasible.

Subd. 3. [BENEFITS ASSISTANCE.] The county board must offer to help adults with serious and persistent mental illness in applying for state and federal benefits, including supplemental security income, medical assistance, Medicare, general assistance, general assistance medical care, and Minnesota supplemental aid. The help must be offered as part of the community support program available to adults with serious and persistent mental illness for whom the county is financially responsible and who may qualify for these benefits.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.474, is amended to read:

245.474 [REGIONAL TREATMENT CENTER INPATIENT SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [AVAILABILITY OF REGIONAL TREATMENT CENTER INPATIENT SERVICES.] By July 1, 1987, the commissioner shall make sufficient regional treatment center inpatient services available to adults with mental illness throughout the state who need this level of care. Services must be as close to the patient's county of residence as possible. Regional treatment centers are responsible to:

(1) provide acute care inpatient hospitalization;

(2) stabilize the medical and mental health condition of the adult requiring the admission;

(2) (3) improve functioning to the point where discharge to community-based mental health services is possible;

(3) (4) strengthen family and community support; and

(4) (5) facilitate appropriate discharge and referrals for follow-up mental health care in the community.

Subd. 2. [QUALITY OF SERVICE.] The commissioner shall biennially determine the needs of all adults with mental illness who are served by regional treatment centers by administering a client-based evaluation system. The client-based evaluation system must include at least the following independent measurements: behavioral development assessment; habilitation program assessment; medical needs assessment; maladaptive behavioral assessment; and vocational behavior assessment. The commissioner shall propose staff ratios to the legislature for the mental health and support units in regional treatment centers as indicated by the results of the client-based evaluation system and the types of state-operated services needed. The proposed staffing ratios shall include professional, nursing, direct care, medical, clerical, and support staff based on the client-based evaluation system. The commissioner shall recompute staffing ratios and recommendations on a biennial basis.

Subd. 3. [TRANSITION TO COMMUNITY.] Regional treatment centers must plan for and assist clients in making a transition from regional treatment centers to other community-based services. In coordination with the client's case manager, if any, regional treatment centers must also arrange for appropriate follow-up care in the community during the transition period. Before a client is discharged, the regional treatment center must notify the client's case manager, so that the case manager can monitor and coordinate the transition and arrangements for the client's appropriate follow-up care in the community.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.487, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FINDINGS.] The legislature finds there is a need for further development of existing clinical services for emotionally disturbed children and their families and the creation of new services for this population. Although the services specified in sections 245.487 to 245.4887 are mental health services, sections 245.487 to 245.4887 emphasize the need for a child-oriented and family-oriented approach of therapeutic programming and the need for continuity of care with other community agencies. At the same time, sections 245.487 to 245.4887 emphasize the importance of developing special mental health expertise in children's mental health services because of the unique needs of this population.

Nothing in this act shall be construed to abridge the authority of the court to make dispositions under chapter 260 but the mental health services due any child with serious and persistent mental illness, as defined in section 245.462, subdivision 20, or with severe emotional disturbance, as defined in section 245.4871, subdivision 6, shall be made a part of any disposition affecting that child.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.487, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [CONTINUATION OF EXISTING MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES FOR CHILDREN.] Counties shall make available case management, community support services, and day treatment to children eligible to receive these services under Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 245.471. No later than August 1, 1989, the county board shall notify providers in the local system of care of their obligations to refer children eligible for case management and community support services as of January 1, 1989. The county board shall forward a copy of this notice to the commissioner. The notice shall indicate which children are eligible, a description of the services, and the name of the county employee designated to coordinate case management activities and shall include a copy of the plain language notification described in section 245.4881, subdivision 2, paragraph (b). Providers shall distribute copies of this notification when making a referral for case management.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4871, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [CASE MANAGEMENT SERVICES.] "Case management services" means activities that are coordinated with the family community support services and are designed to help the child with severe emotional disturbance and the child's family obtain needed mental health services, social services, educational services, health services, vocational services, recreational services, and related services in the areas of volunteer services, advocacy, transportation, and legal services. Case management services include obtaining a comprehensive diagnostic assessment, assisting in obtaining a comprehensive diagnostic assessment, if needed, developing a functional assessment, developing an individual family community support plan, and assisting the child and the child's family in obtaining needed services by coordination with other agencies and assuring continuity of care. Case managers must assess and reassess the delivery, appropriateness, and effectiveness of these services over time.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4873, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [STATE LEVEL; COORDINATION.] The commissioners or designees of commissioners of the departments of human services, health, education, state planning, and corrections, and a representative of the Minnesota district judges association juvenile committee, in conjunction with the commissioner of commerce or a designee of the commissioner, shall meet at least quarterly ~~through 1992~~ to:

(1) educate each agency about the policies, procedures, funding, and services for children with emotional disturbances of all agencies represented;

(2) develop mechanisms for interagency coordination on behalf of children with emotional disturbances;

(3) identify barriers including policies and procedures within all agencies represented that interfere with delivery of mental health services for children;

(4) recommend policy and procedural changes needed to improve development and delivery of mental health services for children in the agency or agencies they represent;

(5) identify mechanisms for better use of federal and state funding in the delivery of mental health services for children; and

(6) until February 15, 1992, prepare an annual report on the policy and procedural changes needed to implement a coordinated, effective, and cost-efficient children's mental health delivery system.

This report shall be submitted to the legislature and the state mental health advisory council annually until February 15, 1992, as part of the report required under section 245.487, subdivision 4. The report shall include information from each department represented on:

(1) the number of children in each department's system who require mental health services;

(2) the number of children in each system who receive mental health services;

(3) how mental health services for children are funded within each system;

(4) how mental health services for children could be coordinated to provide more effectively appropriate mental health services for children; and

(5) recommendations for the provision of early screening and identification of mental illness in each system.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4874, is amended to read:

245.4874 [DUTIES OF COUNTY BOARD.]

The county board in each county shall use its share of mental health and community social service act funds allocated by the commissioner according to a biennial local children's mental health service proposal required under section 245.4887, and approved by the commissioner. The county board must:

(1) develop a system of affordable and locally available children's mental health services according to sections 245.487 to 245.4887;

(2) assure that parents and providers in the county receive information about how to gain access to services provided according to sections 245.487 to 245.4887;

(3) coordinate the delivery of children's mental health services with services provided by social services, education, corrections, health, and vocational agencies to improve the availability of mental health services to children and the cost effectiveness of their delivery;

(3) (4) assure that mental health services delivered according to sections 245.487 to 245.4887 are delivered expeditiously and are appropriate to the child's diagnostic assessment and individual treatment plan;

(4) (5) provide the community with information about predictors and symptoms of emotional disturbances and how to access children's mental health services according to sections 245.4877 and 245.4878;

(5) (6) provide for case management services to each child with severe emotional disturbance according to sections 245.486; 245.4871, subdivisions 3 and 4; and 245.4881, subdivisions 1, 3, and 5;

(6) (7) provide for screening of each child under section 245.4885 upon admission to a residential treatment facility, acute care hospital inpatient treatment, or informal admission to a regional treatment center;

(7) (8) prudently administer grants and purchase-of-service contracts that the county board determines are necessary to fulfill its responsibilities under sections 245.487 to 245.4887;

(8) (9) assure that mental health professionals, mental health practitioners, and case managers employed by or under contract to the county to provide mental health services are qualified under section 245.4871; and

(9) (10) assure that children's mental health services are coordinated with adult mental health services specified in sections 245.461 to 245.486 so that a continuum of mental health services is available to serve persons with mental illness, regardless of the person's age.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4875, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [LOCAL CHILDREN'S ADVISORY COUNCIL.] (a) By October 1, 1989, the county board, individually or in conjunction with other county boards, shall establish a local children's mental health advisory council or children's mental health subcommittee of the existing local mental health advisory council or shall include persons on its existing mental health advisory council who are representatives of children's mental health interests. The following individuals must serve on the local children's mental health advisory council, the children's mental health subcommittee of an existing local mental health advisory council, or be included on an existing mental health advisory council: (1) at least one person who was in a mental health program as a child or adolescent; (2) at least one parent of a child or adolescent with severe emotional disturbance; (3) one children's mental health professional; (4) representatives of minority populations of significant size residing in the county; (5) a representative of the children's mental health local coordinating council; and (6) one family community support services program representative.

(b) The local children's mental health advisory council or children's mental health subcommittee of an existing advisory council shall seek input from parents, former consumers, providers, and others about the needs of children with emotional disturbance in the local area and services needed by families of these children, and shall meet at least quarterly monthly, unless otherwise determined by the council or subcommittee, but not less than quarterly, to review, evaluate, and make recommendations regarding the local children's mental health system. Annually, the local children's mental health advisory council or children's mental health subcommittee of the existing local mental health advisory council shall:

(1) arrange for input from the local system of care providers regarding coordination of care between the services; and

(2) identify for the county board the individuals, providers, agencies, and associations as specified in section 245.4877, clause (2).

(c) The county board shall consider the advice of its local children's mental health advisory council or children's mental health subcommittee of the existing local mental health advisory council in carrying out its authorities and responsibilities.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4876, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DIAGNOSTIC ASSESSMENT.] All residential treatment facilities and acute care hospital inpatient treatment services facilities that provide mental health services for children must complete a diagnostic assessment for each of their child clients within five working days of admission. Providers of outpatient and day treatment services for children must complete a diagnostic assessment within ten working days of admission five days after the child's second visit or 30 days after intake, whichever occurs first. In cases where a diagnostic assessment is available and has been completed within 90 180 days preceding admission, only updating is necessary. "Updating" means a written summary by a mental health professional of the child's current mental health status and service needs. If the child's mental health status has changed markedly since the child's most recent diagnostic assessment, a new diagnostic assessment is required. Compliance with the provisions of this subdivision does not ensure eligibility for medical assistance or general assistance medical care reimbursement under chapters 256B and 256D.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4876, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [INDIVIDUAL TREATMENT PLANS.] All providers of outpatient services, day treatment services, family community support services, professional home-based family treatment, residential treatment facilities, and acute care hospital inpatient treatment facilities, and all regional treatment centers that provide mental health facilities services for children must develop an individual treatment plan for each child client. The individual treatment plan must be based on a diagnostic assessment. To the extent appropriate, the child and the child's family shall be involved in all phases of developing and implementing the individual treatment plan. Providers of residential treatment, professional home-based family treatment, and acute care hospital inpatient treatment, and regional treatment centers must develop the individual treatment plan must be developed within ten working days of client intake or admission and reviewed must review the individual treatment plan every 90 days after that date intake, except that the administrative review of the treatment plan of a child placed in a residential facility shall be as specified in section 257.071, subdivisions 2 and 4. Providers of day treatment services must develop the individual treatment plan before the completion of five working days in which service is provided or within 30 days after the diagnostic assessment is completed or obtained, whichever occurs first. Providers of outpatient services must develop the individual treatment plan within 30 days after the diagnostic assessment is completed or obtained or by the end of the second session of an outpatient service, not including the session in which the diagnostic assessment was provided, whichever occurs first. Providers of outpatient and day treatment services must review the individual treatment plan every 90 days after intake.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4876, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [REFERRAL FOR CASE MANAGEMENT.] Each provider of emergency services, outpatient treatment, community support services, family community support services, day treatment services, screening under section 245.4885, professional home-based family treatment services, residential treatment facilities, acute care hospital inpatient treatment facilities, or regional treatment center services must inform each child with severe emotional disturbance, and the child's parent or legal representative, of the availability and potential benefits to the child of case management. The information shall be provided as specified in subdivision 5. If consent is obtained according to subdivision 5, the provider must refer the child by notifying the county employee designated by the county board to coordinate case management activities of the child's name and address and by informing the child's family of whom to contact to request case management. The provider must document compliance with this subdivision in the child's record. The parent or child may directly request case management even if there has been no referral.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4879, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AVAILABILITY OF EMERGENCY SERVICES.] County boards must provide or contract for enough mental health emergency services within the county to meet the needs of children, and children's families when clinically appropriate, in the county who are experiencing an emotional crisis or emotional disturbance. The county board shall ensure that parents, providers, and county residents are informed about when and how to access emergency mental health services for children. A child or the child's parent may be required to pay a fee according to section 245.481. Emergency service providers shall not delay the timely provision of emergency service because of delays in determining this fee or because of the unwillingness or inability of the parent to pay the fee. Emergency services must include assessment, crisis intervention, and appropriate case disposition. Emergency services must:

- (1) promote the safety and emotional stability of children with emotional disturbances or emotional crises;
- (2) minimize further deterioration of the child with emotional disturbance or emotional crisis;
- (3) help each child with an emotional disturbance or emotional crisis to obtain ongoing care and treatment; and
- (4) prevent placement in settings that are more intensive, costly, or restrictive than necessary and appropriate to meet the child's needs.

Subd. 2. [SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS.] The county board shall require that all service providers of emergency services to the child with an emotional disturbance provide immediate direct access to a mental health professional during regular business hours. For evenings, weekends, and holidays, the service may be by direct toll-free telephone access to a mental health professional, a mental health practitioner, or until January 1, 1991, a designated person with training in human services who receives clinical supervision from a mental health professional. The commissioner may waive the requirement that the evening, weekend, and holiday service be provided by a mental health professional or mental health practitioner after January 1, 1991, if the county documents that:

(1) mental health professionals or mental health practitioners are unavailable to provide this service;

(2) services are provided by a designated person with training in human services who receives clinical supervision from a mental health professional; and

(3) the service provider is not also the provider of fire and public safety emergency services.

When emergency service during nonbusiness hours is provided by anyone other than a mental health professional, a mental health professional must be available for at least telephone consultation within 30 minutes.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4881, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AVAILABILITY OF CASE MANAGEMENT SERVICES.] (a) By July 1, 1991, the county board shall provide case management activities services for each child with severe emotional disturbance residing in who is a resident of the county and the child's family who request or consent to the services. Staffing ratios must be sufficient to serve the needs of the clients. The case manager must meet the requirements in section 245.4871, subdivision 4.

(b) Case management services provided to children with severe emotional disturbance eligible for medical assistance must be billed to the medical assistance program under sections 256B.02, subdivision 8, and 256B.0625.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4881, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [NOTIFICATION AND DETERMINATION OF CASE MANAGEMENT ELIGIBILITY.] (a) The county board shall notify, as appropriate, the child, child's parent, or child's legal representative of the child's potential eligibility for case management services within five working days after receiving a request from an individual or a referral from a provider under section 245.4876, subdivision 4.

(b) The county board shall send a notification written in plain language of potential eligibility for case management and family community support services. The notification shall identify the designated case management providers and shall contain:

(1) a brief description of case management and family community support services;

(2) the potential benefits of these services;

(3) the identity and current phone number of the county employee designated to coordinate case management activities;

(4) an explanation of how to obtain county assistance in obtaining a diagnostic assessment, if needed; and

(5) an explanation of the appeal process.

The county board shall send a written notice that identifies the designated case management providers. The county board shall send the notice, as appropriate, to the child, the child's parent, or the child's legal representative, if any.

(c) The county board must promptly determine whether a child who requests or is referred for case management services meets the criteria of sections 245.471 or 245.4871, subdivision 6. If a diagnostic assessment is needed to make the determination, the county board must offer to assist the child and the child's family in obtaining one. The county board shall notify, in writing, the child and the child's representative, if any, of the eligibility determination. If the child is determined to be eligible for case management services, and if the child and the child's family consent to the services, the county board shall refer the child to the case management provider for case management services. If the child is determined not to be eligible or refuses case management services, the county board shall notify the child of the appeal process and shall offer to refer the child to a mental health provider or other appropriate service provider and to assist the child in making an appointment with the provider of the child's choice.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4881, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DUTIES OF CASE MANAGER.] (a) ~~The case manager shall promptly arrange for a diagnostic assessment of the child when one is not available as described in section 245.4876, subdi-~~ vision 2, to determine the child's eligibility as a child with severe emotional disturbance for family community support services. The county board shall notify in writing, as appropriate, the child, the child's parent, or the child's legal representative, if any, if the child is determined ineligible for family community support services.

(b) Upon a determination of eligibility for family support case management services, the case manager shall complete a written functional assessment according to section 245.4871, subdivision 18. The case manager shall develop an individual family community support plan for a child as specified in subdivision 4, review the child's progress, and monitor the provision of services. If services are to be provided in a host county that is not the county of financial responsibility, the case manager shall consult with the host county and obtain a letter demonstrating the concurrence of the host county regarding the provision of services.

(b) The case manager shall perform a functional assessment and note in the client's child's record the services needed by the child and the child's family, the services requested by the family, services that are not available, and the unmet needs of the child and family's unmet needs child's family. The information required under section 245.4886 shall be provided in writing to the child and the child's family. The case manager shall note this provision in the client child's record.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4881, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [INDIVIDUAL FAMILY COMMUNITY SUPPORT PLAN.] (a) For each child, the case manager must develop an individual family community support plan that incorporates the child's individual treatment plan. The individual treatment plan may not be a substitute for the development of an individual family community support plan. The case manager is responsible for developing the individual family community support plan within 30 days of intake based on a diagnostic assessment and a functional assessment and for implementing and monitoring the delivery of services according to the individual family community support plan. The case manager must review the plan every 90 calendar days after it is developed. To the extent appropriate, the child with severe emotional disturbance, the child's family, advocates, service providers, and significant others must be involved in all phases of development and implementation of the individual family community support plan. Notwithstanding the lack of a an individual family community support plan, the case manager shall assist the child and child's family in accessing the needed services listed in subdivision 6.

(b) The child's individual family community support plan must state:

(1) the goals and expected outcomes of each service and criteria for evaluating the effectiveness and appropriateness of the service;

(2) the activities for accomplishing each goal;

(3) a schedule for each activity; and

(4) the frequency of face-to-face contacts by the case manager, as appropriate to client need and the implementation of the individual family community support plan.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4882, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AVAILABILITY OF RESIDENTIAL TREATMENT SERVICES.] County boards must provide or contract for enough residential treatment services to meet the needs of each child with severe emotional disturbance residing in the county and needing this level of care. Length of stay is based on the child's residential treatment need and shall be subject to the six-month review process established in section 257.071, subdivisions 2 and 4. Services must be appropriate to the child's age and treatment needs and must be made available as close to the county as possible. Residential treatment must be designed to:

(1) prevent placement in settings that are more intensive, costly, or restrictive than necessary and appropriate to meet the child's needs;

(2) help the child improve family living and social interaction skills;

(3) help the child gain the necessary skills to return to the community;

(4) stabilize crisis admissions; and

(5) work with families throughout the placement to improve the ability of the families to care for children with severe emotional disturbance in the home.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4883, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AVAILABILITY OF ACUTE CARE HOSPITAL INPATIENT SERVICES.] County boards must make available through contract or direct provision enough acute care hospital inpatient treatment services as close to the county as possible for children with severe emotional disturbances residing in the county needing this level of care. Acute care hospital inpatient treatment services must be designed to:

- (1) stabilize the medical and mental health condition for which admission is required;
- (2) improve functioning to the point where discharge to residential treatment or community-based mental health services is possible;
- (3) facilitate appropriate referrals for follow-up mental health care in the community;
- (4) work with families to improve the ability of the families to care for those children with severe emotional disturbances at home; and
- (5) assist families and children in the transition from inpatient services to community-based services or home setting, and provide notification to the child's case manager, if any, so that the case manager can monitor the transition and make timely arrangements for the child's appropriate follow-up care in the community.

Sec. 25. [245.4884] [FAMILY COMMUNITY SUPPORT SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [AVAILABILITY OF FAMILY COMMUNITY SUPPORT SERVICES.] By July 1, 1991, county boards must provide or contract for sufficient family community support services within the county to meet the needs of each child with severe emotional disturbance who resides in the county and the child's family. Children or their parents may be required to pay a fee in accordance with section 245.481.

Family community support services must be designed to improve the ability of children with severe emotional disturbance to:

- (1) handle basic activities of daily living;
- (2) improve functioning in school settings;
- (3) participate in leisure time or community youth activities;
- (4) set goals and plans;
- (5) reside with the family in the community;
- (6) participate in after-school and summer activities;
- (7) make a smooth transition among mental health services provided to children; and

(8) make a smooth transition into the adult mental health system as appropriate.

In addition, family community support services must be designed to improve overall family functioning if clinically appropriate to the child's needs, and to reduce the need for and use of placements more intensive, costly, or restrictive both in the number of admissions and lengths of stay than indicated by the child's diagnostic assessment.

Subd. 2. [DAY TREATMENT SERVICES PROVIDED.] (a) Day treatment services must be part of the family community support services available to each child with severe emotional disturbance residing in the county. A child or the child's parent may be required to pay a fee according to section 245.481. Day treatment services must be designed to:

(1) provide a structured environment for treatment;

(2) provide support for residing in the community;

(3) prevent placements that are more intensive, costly, or restrictive than necessary to meet the child's need;

(4) coordinate with or be offered in conjunction with the child's education program;

(5) provide therapy and family intervention for children that are coordinated with education services provided and funded by schools; and

(6) operate during all 12 months of the year.

(b) County boards may request a waiver from including day treatment services if they can document that:

(1) alternative services exist through the county's family community support services for each child who would otherwise need day treatment services; and

(2) county demographics and geography make the provision of day treatment services cost ineffective and unfeasible.

Subd. 3. [PROFESSIONAL HOME-BASED FAMILY TREATMENT PROVIDED.] (a) By January 1, 1991, county boards must provide or contract for sufficient professional home-based family treatment within the county to meet the needs of each child with severe emotional disturbance who is at risk of out-of-home placement due to the child's emotional disturbance or who is returning to the home from out-of-home placement. The child or the child's parent may be required to pay a fee according to section 245.481.

The county board shall require that all service providers of professional home-based family treatment set fee schedules approved by the county board that are based on the child's or family's ability to pay. The professional home-based family treatment must be designed to assist each child with severe emotional disturbance who is at risk of or who is returning from out-of-home placement and the child's family to:

(1) improve overall family functioning in all areas of life;

(2) treat the child's symptoms of emotional disturbance that contribute to a risk of out-of-home placement;

(3) provide a positive change in the emotional, behavioral, and mental well-being of children and their families; and

(4) reduce risk of out-of-home placement for the identified child with severe emotional disturbance and other siblings or successfully reunify and reintegrate into the family a child returning from out-of-home placement due to emotional disturbance.

(b) Professional home-based family treatment must be provided by a team consisting of a mental health professional and others who are skilled in the delivery of mental health services to children and families in conjunction with other human service providers. The professional home-based family treatment team must maintain flexible hours of service availability and must provide or arrange for crisis services for each family, 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Case loads for each professional home-based family treatment team must be small enough to permit the delivery of intensive services and to meet the needs of the family. Professional home-based family treatment providers shall coordinate services and service needs with case managers assigned to children and their families. The treatment team must develop an individual treatment plan that identifies the specific treatment objectives for both the child and the family.

Subd. 4. [THERAPEUTIC SUPPORT OF FOSTER CARE.] By January 1, 1992, county boards must provide or contract for foster care with therapeutic support as defined in section 245.4871, subdivision 34. Foster families caring for children with severe emotional disturbance must receive training and supportive services, as necessary, at no cost to the foster families within the limits of available resources.

Subd. 5. [BENEFITS ASSISTANCE.] The county board must offer help to a child with severe emotional disturbance and the child's family in applying for federal benefits, including supplemental security income, medical assistance, and Medicare.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4885, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SCREENING REQUIRED.] The county board shall ~~ensure that, upon admission, screen all children are screened upon admission~~ admitted for treatment of severe emotional disturbance to a residential treatment facility, an acute care hospital, or informally admitted to a regional treatment center if public funds are used to pay for the services. If a child is admitted to a residential treatment facility or acute care hospital for emergency treatment of emotional disturbance or held for emergency care by a regional treatment center under section 253B.05, subdivision 1, screening must occur within five working days of admission. Screening shall determine whether the proposed treatment:

- (1) is necessary;
- (2) is appropriate to the child's individual treatment needs;
- (3) cannot be effectively provided in the child's home; and
- (4) ~~the provides~~ a length of stay is as short as possible consistent with the individual child's need; and.

(5) ~~the case manager, if assigned, is developing an~~ During the screening process, the child, child's family, or child's legal representative, as appropriate, must be informed of the child's eligibility for case management services and that an individual family community support plan is being developed by the case manager, if assigned.

Screening shall be in compliance with section 256F.07 or 257.071, whichever applies. Wherever possible, the parent shall be consulted in the screening process, unless clinically inappropriate.

The screening process and placement decision must be documented in the child's record.

An alternate review process may be approved by the commissioner if the county board demonstrates that an alternate review process has been established by the county board and the times of review, persons responsible for the review, and review criteria are comparable to the standards in clauses (1) to ~~(3)~~ (5).

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.4885, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [QUALIFICATIONS.] No later than January July 1, 1992 1991, screening of children for residential and inpatient services must be conducted by a mental health professional. Mental health professionals providing screening for inpatient and residential services must not be financially affiliated with any acute care inpatient hospital, residential treatment facility, or regional treatment center. The commissioner may waive this requirement for mental health professional participation in sparsely populated areas after July 1, 1991, if the county documents that:

(1) mental health professionals or mental health practitioners are unavailable to provide this service; and

(2) services are provided by a designated person with training in human services who receives clinical supervision from a mental health professional.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.696, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [SPECIFIC DUTIES.] In addition to the powers and duties already conferred by law, the commissioner of human services shall:

(1) review and evaluate local programs and the performance of administrative and mental health personnel and make recommendations to county boards and program administrators;

(2) provide consultative staff service to communities and advocacy groups to assist in ascertaining local needs and in planning and establishing community mental health programs;

(3) employ qualified personnel to implement this chapter;

(4) adopt rules for minimum standards in community mental health services as directed by the legislature;

(5) cooperate with the commissioners of health and jobs and training to coordinate services and programs for people with mental illness;

(6) convene meetings with the commissioners of corrections, health, education, and commerce at least four times each year for the purpose of coordinating services and programs for children with emotional or behavioral disorders;

(7) evaluate the needs of people with mental illness as they relate to assistance payments, medical benefits, nursing home care, and other state and federally funded services;

(8) (7) provide data and other information, as requested, to the advisory council on mental health;

(9) (8) develop and maintain a data collection system to provide information on the prevalence of mental illness, the need for specific mental health services and other services needed by people with mental illness, funding sources for those services, and the extent to which state and local areas are meeting the need for services;

(10) (9) apply for grants and develop pilot programs to test and demonstrate new methods of assessing mental health needs and delivering mental health services;

(11) (10) study alternative reimbursement systems and make waiver requests that are deemed necessary by the commissioner;

(12) (11) provide technical assistance to county boards to improve fiscal management and accountability and quality of mental health services, and consult regularly with county boards, public and private mental health agencies, and client advocacy organizations for purposes of implementing this chapter;

(13) (12) promote coordination between the mental health system and other human service systems in the planning, funding, and delivery of services; entering into cooperative agreements with other state and local agencies for that purpose as deemed necessary by the commissioner;

(14) (13) conduct research regarding the relative effectiveness of mental health treatment methods as the commissioner deems appropriate, and for this purpose, enter treatment facilities, observe clients, and review records in a manner consistent with the Minnesota government data practices act, chapter 13; and

(15) (14) enter into contracts and promulgate rules the commissioner deems necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.697, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [SUBCOMMITTEE ON CHILDREN'S MENTAL HEALTH.] The state advisory council on mental health (the "advisory council") must have a subcommittee on children's mental health. The subcommittee must make recommendations to the advisory council on policies, laws, regulations, and services relating to children's mental health. Members of the subcommittee must include:

(1) the commissioners or designees of the commissioners of the departments of human services, health, education, state planning, finance, and corrections;

(2) the commissioner of commerce or a designee of the commissioner who is knowledgeable about medical insurance issues;

(3) at least one representative of an advocacy group for children with emotional disturbances;

(4) providers of children's mental health services, including at least one provider of services to preadolescent children, one provider of services to adolescents, and one hospital-based provider;

(5) parents of children who have emotional disturbances;

(6) a present or former consumer of adolescent mental health services;

(7) educators currently working with emotionally disturbed children;

(8) people knowledgeable about the needs of emotionally disturbed children of minority races and cultures;

(9) people experienced in working with emotionally disturbed children who have committed status offenses;

(10) members of the advisory council;

(11) one person from the local corrections department and one representative of the Minnesota district judges association juvenile committee; and

(12) county commissioners and social services agency representatives.

The chair of the advisory council shall appoint subcommittee members described in clauses (3) to (11) through the process established in section 15.0597. The chair shall appoint members to ensure a geographical balance on the subcommittee. Terms, compensation, removal, and filling of vacancies are governed by subdivision 1, except that terms of subcommittee members who are also members of the advisory council are coterminous with their terms on the advisory council. The subcommittee shall meet at the call of the subcommittee chair who is elected by the subcommittee from among its members. The subcommittee expires with the expiration of the advisory council.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 245.73, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [APPLICATION; CRITERIA.] County boards may submit an application and budget for use of the money in the form specified by the commissioner. The commissioner shall make grants only to counties whose applications and budgets are approved by the commissioner for residential programs for ~~adult mentally ill persons~~ adults with mental illness to meet licensing requirements pursuant to sections 245A.01 to 245A.16. ~~Funds shall not be used to supplant or reduce local, state, or federal expenditure levels supporting existing resources unless the reduction in available money is the result of a state or federal decision not to refund an existing program.~~ State funds received by a county pursuant to this section shall be used only for direct service costs. Both direct service and other costs, including but not limited to renovation, construction or rent of buildings, purchase or lease of vehicles or equipment as required for licensure as a residential program for ~~adult mentally ill persons~~ adults with mental illness under sections 245A.01 to 245A.16, may be paid out of the matching funds required under subdivision 3. Neither the state funds nor the matching funds shall be used for room and board costs.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 253B.03, subdivision 6a, is amended to read:

Subd. 6a. [ADMINISTRATION OF NEUROLEPTIC MEDICATIONS.] (a) Neuroleptic medications may be administered to persons committed as mentally ill or mentally ill and dangerous only as described in this subdivision.

(b) A neuroleptic medication may be administered to a patient who is competent to consent to neuroleptic medications ~~only~~ if the patient has given written, informed consent to administration of the neuroleptic medication.

(c) A neuroleptic medication may be administered to a patient who is not competent to consent to neuroleptic medications ~~only~~ if a court approves the administration of the neuroleptic medication ~~or~~.

(d) A neuroleptic medication may be administered without court review to a patient who is not competent to consent to neuroleptic medications if:

- (1) the patient does not object to or refuse the medication;
- (2) a guardian ad litem appointed by the court with authority to consent to neuroleptic medications gives written, informed consent to the administration of the neuroleptic medication; and
- (3) a multidisciplinary treatment review panel composed of persons who are not engaged in providing direct care to the patient gives written approval to administration of the neuroleptic medication.

(e) A neuroleptic medication may be administered without judicial review and without consent in an emergency situation for so long as the emergency continues to exist if the treating physician determines that the medication is necessary to prevent serious, immediate physical harm to the patient or to others. The treatment facility shall document the emergency in the patient's medical record in specific behavioral terms.

~~(d)~~ (f) A person who consents to treatment pursuant to this subdivision is not civilly or criminally liable for the performance of or the manner of performing the treatment. A person is not liable for performing treatment without consent if written, informed consent was given pursuant to this subdivision. This provision does not affect any other liability that may result from the manner in which the treatment is performed.

(e) (g) The court may allow and order paid to a guardian ad litem a reasonable fee for services provided under paragraph (c), or the court may appoint a volunteer guardian ad litem.

(h) A medical director or patient may petition the committing court, or the court to which venue has been transferred, for a hearing concerning the administration of neuroleptic medication. A hearing may also be held pursuant to section 253B.08, 253B.09, 253B.12, or 253B.18. The hearing concerning the administration of neuroleptic medication must be held within 14 days from the date of the filing of the petition. The court may extend the time for hearing up to an additional 15 days for good cause shown.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 253B.17, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PETITION.] Any patient, except one committed as mentally ill and dangerous to the public, or any interested person may petition the committing court or the court to which venue has been transferred for an order that the patient is not in need of continued institutionalization or for an order that an individual is no longer mentally ill, mentally retarded, or chemically dependent, or for any other relief as the court deems just and equitable. A patient committed as mentally ill or mentally ill and dangerous may petition the committing court or the court to which venue has been transferred for a hearing concerning the administration of neuroleptic medication. A hearing may also be held pursuant to sections 253B.08, 253B.09 and, 253B.12, and 253B.18.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.151, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [JUVENILE TREATMENT SCREENING TEAM.] (a) The county welfare board, at its option, may establish a juvenile treatment screening team to conduct screenings and prepare case plans under this subdivision. The team, which may be the team constituted under section 245.4885 or 256B.092 or Minnesota Rules, parts 9530.6600 to 9530.6655, shall consist of social workers, juvenile justice professionals, and persons with expertise in the treatment of juveniles who are emotionally disabled, chemically dependent, or have a developmental disability. The team shall involve parents or guardians in the screening process as appropriate.

(b) This paragraph applies only in counties that have established a juvenile treatment screening team under paragraph (a). If the court, prior to, or as part of, a final disposition, proposes to place a child for the primary purpose of treatment for an emotional disturbance, a developmental disability, or chemical dependency in a residential treatment facility out of state or in one which is within the state and licensed by the commissioner of human services under chapter 245A, the court shall notify the county welfare agency. The county's juvenile treatment screening team must either: (1) screen and evaluate the child and file its recommendations with the court within 14 days of receipt of the notice; or (2) elect not to screen a given case, and notify the court of that decision within three working days.

(c) If the screening team has elected to screen and evaluate the child, the child may not be placed for the primary purpose of treatment for an emotional disturbance, a developmental disability, or chemical dependency, in a residential treatment facility out of state nor in a residential treatment facility within the state that is licensed under chapter 245A, unless one of the following conditions applies:

(1) a treatment professional certifies that an emergency requires the placement of the child in a facility within the state;

(2) the screening team has evaluated the child and recommended that a residential placement is necessary to meet the child's treatment needs and the safety needs of the community, that it is a cost-effective means of meeting the treatment needs, and that it will be of therapeutic value to the child; or

(3) the court, having reviewed a screening team recommendation against placement, determines to the contrary that a residential placement is necessary. The court shall state the reasons for its determination in writing, on the record, and shall respond specifically to the findings and recommendation of the screening team in explaining why the recommendation was rejected. The attorney representing the child and the prosecuting attorney shall be afforded an opportunity to be heard on the matter.

ARTICLE 6

DISLOCATED WORKERS

Section 1. [268.02] [DISLOCATED WORKER FUND.]

Subdivision 1. [DETERMINATION AND COLLECTION OF SPECIAL ASSESSMENT.] (a) In addition to all other contributions, assessments and payment obligations under chapter 268, each employer is liable for a special assessment levied at the rate of one-tenth of one percent per year on all wages, as defined in section 268.04, subdivision 25. Such assessment shall become due and be paid by each employer to the department of jobs and training on the same schedule and in the same manner as other contributions required by section 268.06.

(b) The special assessment levied under this section shall not affect the computation of any other contributions, assessments, or payment obligations due under this chapter.

Subd. 2. [DISBURSEMENT OF SPECIAL ASSESSMENT FUNDS.] (a) The money collected under this section shall be deposited in the state treasury and credited to a dedicated fund to provide for the dislocated worker programs established under sections 268.975 to 268.98; including vocational guidance, training, placement, and job development.

(b) All money in the dedicated fund is appropriated to the commissioner who must act as the fiscal agent for the money and must disburse the money for the purposes of this section, not allowing the money to be used for any other obligation of the state. All money in the dedicated fund shall be deposited, administered, and disbursed in the same manner and under the same conditions and requirements as are provided by law for the other dedicated funds in the state treasury, except that all interest or net income resulting from the investment or deposit of money in the fund shall accrue to the fund for the purposes of the fund.

(c) No more than five percent of the dedicated funds collected in each fiscal year may be used by the department of jobs and training for its administrative costs.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 268.977, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PROGRAM ESTABLISHMENT.] (a) The commissioner shall establish a rapid response program to assist employees, employers, business organizations or associations, labor organizations, local government units, and community organizations to quickly and effectively respond to announced or actual plant closings and substantial layoffs.

(b) The program must include or address at least the following:

(1) within five working days after becoming aware of an announced or actual plant closing or substantial layoff, establish on-site contact with the employer, employees, labor organizations if there is one representing the employees, and leaders of the local government units and community organizations to provide coordination of efforts to formulate a communitywide response to the plant closing or substantial layoff, provide information on the public and private service and programs that might be available, inform the affected parties of the prefeasibility study grants under section 268.978, and collect any information required by the commissioner to assist in responding to the plant closing or substantial layoff;

(2) provide ongoing technical assistance to employers, employees, business organizations or associations, labor organizations, local government units, and community organizations to assist them in reacting to or developing responses to plant closings or substantial layoffs;

(3) establish and administer the prefeasibility study grant program under section 268.978 to provide an initial assessment of the feasibility of alternatives to plant closings or substantial layoffs;

(4) work with employment and training service providers, employers, business organizations or associations, labor organizations, local government units, dislocated workers, and community organizations in providing training, education, community support service, job search programs, job clubs, and other services to address the needs of potential or actual dislocated workers;

(5) coordinate with providers of economic development related financial and technical assistance services so that communities that are experiencing plant closings or substantial layoffs have immediate access to economic development related services; and

(6) collect and make available information on programs that might assist dislocated workers and the communities affected by plant closings or substantial layoffs.

Sec. 3. [STUDY.]

The governor shall appoint a commission to study and make legislative recommendations regarding worker displacement caused by corporate takeovers, buy outs, and other similar business ownership transfers and publicly funded economic development. The commission shall complete the study and report recommendations to the legislature before February 1, 1991.

Sec. 4. [SUNSET.]

Section 1 is repealed effective June 30, 1992.

Sec. 5. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 2 is effective the day following final enactment. Section 1 is effective January 1, 1991.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON S. F. NO. 394

A bill for an act relating to education; requiring a report on preparation of post-secondary education administrators and faculty.

April 20, 1990

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate.

The Honorable Robert E. Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

We, the undersigned conferees for S. F. No. 394, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House recede from its amendments and that S. F. No. 394 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [REPORT ON TRAINING OF POST-SECONDARY ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY.]

Subdivision 1. [LEGISLATIVE INTENT.] The Minnesota legislature recommends that (1) post-secondary administrators have training in administrative skills relevant to their position in areas such as management, affirmative action, human relations, and contract negotiations; and (2) faculty have training in educational psychology, teaching methods, and advising students. Similar training is recommended for students preparing for post-secondary teaching or administrative careers.

Subd. 2. [REPORT.] Each post-secondary governing board shall examine its current programs that provide initial training and continuing education for its administrators and faculty to improve their administrative, teaching, and advising skills. The boards shall report to the education committees on their existing programs and their future plans by January 15, 1991.”

Delete the title and insert:

“A bill for an act relating to education; recommending post-secondary education administrators and faculty members take certain coursework.”

We request adoption of this report and repassage of the bill.

Senate Conferees: RONALD R. DICKLICH, JIM RAMSTAD AND GREGORY L. DAHL.

House Conferees: MIKE JAROS, MARY JO MCGUIRE AND DICK PELLOW.

Jaros moved that the report of the Conference Committee on S. F.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON S. F. NO. 1873

A bill for an act relating to crime victims; providing victims of delinquent acts the right to request notice of release of juvenile offenders from juvenile correctional facilities; providing notice to sexual assault victims when a juvenile offender is released from pretrial detention; requiring that victims be informed of their right to request the withholding of public law enforcement data that identifies them; clarifying the duty of court administrators to disburse restitution payments; making certain changes to the crime victims reparations act; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 611A.53, subdivision 2; and 611A.57, subdivision 6; Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, sections 13.84, subdivision 5a; 260.161, subdivision 2; 611A.04, subdivision 2; 611A.06; 611A.52, subdivision 8; and 629.73; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 611A.

April 12, 1990

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

The Honorable Robert E. Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

We, the undersigned conferees for S. F. No. 1873, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House recede from its amendments and that S. F. No. 1873 be further amended as follows:

"Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.135, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TERMS AND CONDITIONS.] Except when a sentence of life imprisonment is required by law, or when a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment is required by section 609.11, any court may stay imposition or execution of sentence and (a) may order ~~noninstitutional~~ intermediate sanctions without placing the defendant on probation, or (b) may place the defendant on probation with or without supervision and on the terms the court prescribes, including ~~noninstitutional~~ intermediate sanctions when practicable. The court may order the supervision to be under the probation officer of the court, or, if there is none and the conviction is for a felony or gross misdemeanor, by the commissioner of corrections, or in any case by some other suitable and consenting person. No ~~noninstitutional~~ intermediate sanction may be ordered performed at a location that fails to observe applicable requirements or standards of chapter 181A or 182, or any rule promulgated under them. For purposes of this subdivision, subdivision 6, and section 609.14, the term "~~noninstitutional~~ intermediate sanctions" includes but is not limited to incarceration in a local jail or workhouse, home detention, electronic monitoring, intensive probation, sentencing to service, reporting to a day reporting center, chemical dependency or mental health treatment or counseling, restitution, fines, day-fines, community work service, and work in lieu of or to work off fines.

A court may not stay the revocation of the driver's license of a person convicted of violating the provisions of section 169.121.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.135, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PREFERENCE FOR NONINSTITUTIONAL INTERMEDIATE SANCTIONS.] A court staying imposition or execution of a sentence that does not include a term of incarceration as a condition of the stay shall order ~~noninstitutional~~ other intermediate sanctions where practicable.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.14, is amended to read:

609.14 [REVOCAION OF STAY.]

Subdivision 1. [GROUNDS.] When it appears that the defendant has violated any of the conditions of probation or ~~noninstitutional~~ intermediate sanction, or has otherwise been guilty of misconduct which warrants the imposing or execution of sentence, the court may without notice revoke the stay thereof and probation and direct that the defendant be taken into immediate custody.

Subd. 2. The defendant shall thereupon be notified in writing and in such manner as the court directs of the grounds alleged to exist for revocation of the stay of imposition or execution of sentence. If such grounds are brought in issue by the defendant, a summary hearing shall be held thereon at which the defendant is entitled to be heard and to be represented by counsel.

Subd. 3. [SENTENCE.] If any of such grounds are found to exist the court may:

(1) If imposition of sentence was previously stayed, again stay sentence or impose sentence and stay the execution thereof, and in either event place the defendant on probation or order ~~noninstitutional~~ intermediate sanctions pursuant to section 609.135, or impose sentence and order execution thereof; or

(2) If sentence was previously imposed and execution thereof stayed, continue such stay and place the defendant on probation or order ~~noninstitutional~~ intermediate sanctions in accordance with the provisions of section 609.135, or order execution of the sentence previously imposed.

Subd. 4. If none of such grounds are found to exist, the defendant shall be restored to liberty under the previous order of the court.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 631.48, is amended to read:

631.48 [PENALTY MAY INCLUDE COSTS OF PROSECUTION.]

In a criminal action, upon conviction of the defendant, the court may order as part of the sentence that defendant shall pay the whole or any part of the disbursements of the prosecution, including disbursements made to extradite a defendant. The court may order this payment in addition to any other penalty authorized by law which it may impose. The payment of the disbursements of prosecution may be enforced in the same manner as the sentence, or by execution against property. When collected, the disbursements must be paid into the treasury of the county of conviction, but this payment may not interfere with the payment of officers', witnesses', or jurors' fees."

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 500.24, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [REPORTS.] (a) The chief executive officer of every pension or investment fund, corporation, or limited partnership, except a family farm corporation or a family farm limited partnership, that holds any interest in agricultural land or land used for the breeding, feeding, pasturing, growing, or raising of livestock, dairy or poultry, or products thereof, or land used for the production of agricultural crops or fruit or other horticultural products, other than a bona fide encumbrance taken for purposes of security, or which is engaged in farming or proposing to commence farming in this state after May 20, 1973, shall file with the commissioner of agriculture a report containing the following information and documents:

(1) The name of the pension or investment fund, corporation, or limited partnership and its place of incorporation, certification, or registration;

(2) The address of the pension or investment plan headquarters or of the registered office of the corporation in this state, the name and address of its registered agent in this state and, in the case of a foreign corporation or limited partnership, the address of its principal office in its place of incorporation, certification, or registration;

(3) The acreage and location listed by quarter-quarter section, township and county of each lot or parcel of land in this state owned or leased by the pension or investment fund, limited partnership, or corporation and used for the growing of crops or the keeping or feeding of poultry or livestock;

(4) The names and addresses of the officers, administrators, directors or trustees of the pension or investment fund, or of the officers, shareholders owning more than ten percent of the stock, including the percent of stock owned by each such shareholder, and the members of the board of directors of the corporation, and the general and limited partners and the percentage of interest in the partnership by each partner;

(5) The farm products which the pension or investment fund, limited partnership, or corporation produces or intends to produce on its agricultural land;

(6) With the first report, a copy of the title to the property where the farming operations are or will occur indicating the particular exception claimed under subdivision 3, clauses (a) to (r); and

(7) With the first or second report, a copy of the conservation plan proposed by the soil and water conservation district, and with subsequent reports a statement of whether the conservation plan was implemented.

The report of a corporation seeking to qualify hereunder as a family farm corporation, an authorized farm corporation, a family farm partnership, or authorized farm partnership shall contain the following additional information: The number of shares or the partnership interests owned by persons residing on the farm or actively engaged in farming, or their relatives within the third degree of kindred according to the rules of the civil law or their spouses; the name, address and number of shares owned by each shareholder or partnership interests owned by each partner; and a statement as to percentage of gross receipts of the corporation derived from rent, royalties, dividends, interest and annuities. No pension or investment fund, limited partnership, or corporation shall commence farming in this state until the commissioner of agriculture has inspected the report and certified that its proposed operations comply with the provisions of this section.

(b) Every pension or investment fund, limited partnership, or corporation as described in clause (a) shall, prior to April 15 of each year, file with the commissioner of agriculture a report containing the information required in clause (a), based on its operations in the preceding calendar year and its status at the end of the year. A pension or investment fund, limited partnership, or corporation that does not file the report by April 15 must pay a $500 civil penalty. The penalty is a lien on the land being farmed under subdivision 3 until the penalty is paid.

(c) The commissioner or the commissioner's authorized representative may enter into a written agreement with a person required to file a report under this subdivision who, for good cause shown, has failed to make a timely filing. An agreement must be construed as a "no contest" pleading and may encompass a reduction or waiver of the civil penalty for late filing. The agreement is final and conclusive with respect to the civil penalty, except upon a showing of fraud or malfeasance or misrepresentation of a material fact. The matter agreed upon in the agreement may not be reopened or modified by an officer, employee, or agent of the state. The report required under paragraph (b) must be completed prior to a reduction or waiver under this paragraph. The commissioner may enter into an agreement only once for each person required to file under this subdivision.

(d) Failure to file a required report, or the willful filing of false information, shall constitute a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 582.30, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [MORTGAGE ON AGRICULTURAL PROPERTY ENTERED AFTER MARCH 22, 1986.] (a) If a mortgage entered after March 22, 1986 on property used in agricultural production is foreclosed and sold, a deficiency judgment may only be obtained by filing a separate action for a deficiency judgment and a determination of the fair market value of the property within 90 days after the foreclosure sale. In the action all issues of fact, including determination of the fair market value of the property, shall be tried by a jury unless a jury trial is waived as provided in Minnesota district court rules. A court may allow a deficiency judgment only if it determines that the sale of the property was conducted in a commercially reasonable manner.

(b) The amount of the deficiency judgment is limited to the difference of the fair market value of the property, and the amount remaining unpaid on the mortgage if the foreclosure is under chapter 580 or the amount of the judgment if the foreclosure is under chapter 581. A separate jury proceeding must be brought to determine the fair market value of the property. The property may not be presumed to be sold for its fair market value. A party adversely affected by a deficiency judgment may submit evidence relevant to establishing the fair market value of the property. Notice of the time and place where the action for the deficiency judgment and the determination of fair market value of the property is to be determined heard must be given to all parties adversely affected by the judgment.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 582.30, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [JUDGMENT ON MORTGAGE NOTE.] A personal judgment may not be executed against a mortgagor liable on a mortgage note entered after March 22, 1986 secured by real property used in agricultural production, unless the fair market value of the property is determined by a jury in a separate proceeding as provided in subdivision 3, paragraph (b). The personal judgment on the mortgage note may not be for more than the difference of the amount due on the note and the fair market value of the property.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 582.30, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [MORTGAGE ON AGRICULTURAL PROPERTY ENTERED ON OR BEFORE MARCH 22, 1986.] (a) If a mortgage entered on or before March 22, 1986 on property used in agricultural production is foreclosed and sold, a deficiency judgment may only be obtained by filing a separate an action for a deficiency judgment and a determination of the fair market value of the property within 90 days after the foreclosure sale. In the action all issues of fact, including determination of the fair market value of the property, shall be tried by a jury unless a jury trial is waived as provided in Minnesota district court rules. A court may allow a deficiency judgment only if it determines that the sale of the property was conducted in a commercially reasonable manner.

(b) The amount of the deficiency judgment is limited to the difference of the fair market value of the property, and the amount remaining unpaid on the mortgage if the foreclosure is under chapter 580 or the amount of the judgment if the foreclosure is under chapter 581. A separate jury proceeding must be brought to determine the fair market value of the property. The property may not be presumed to be sold for its fair market value. A party adversely affected by a deficiency judgment may submit evidence relevant to establishing the fair market value of the property. Notice of the time and place where the action for the deficiency judgment and the determination of fair market value of the property is to be determined heard must be given to all parties adversely affected by the judgment.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 582.30, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [JUDGMENT ON MORTGAGE NOTE.] A personal judgment may not be executed against a mortgagor liable on a mortgage note entered on or before March 22, 1986 secured by real property used in agricultural production, unless the fair market value of the property is determined by a jury in a separate proceeding as provided in subdivision 5, paragraph (b). The personal judgment on the mortgage note may not be for more than the difference of the amount due on the note and the fair market value of the property.

Sec. 6. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective the day following final enactment, but the provision allowing for an agreement concerning reduction or waiver of a civil penalty for late filing applies to a filing due April 15, 1989, or thereafter."

SPECIAL ORDERS, Continued

S. F. No. 1473 which was temporarily laid over earlier today was again reported to the House.

Kahn moved to amend S. F. No. 1473, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [116.86] [CARBON DIOXIDE; LEGISLATIVE INTENT.]

The legislature recognizes that waste carbon dioxide emissions, primarily from transportation and industrial sources, may be a primary component of the global greenhouse effect that warms the earth's atmosphere and may result in untold and irreparable damage to the agricultural, water, forest, and wildlife resources of the state. The legislature further recognizes that trees are a major factor in keeping the earth's carbon cycle balanced, and planting trees and perennial shrubs and vines recycles carbon downward from the atmosphere.

Sec. 2. [TREE AND PERENNIAL SHRUBS AND VINES PLANTING FOR CARBON DIOXIDE ABSORPTION.]

By January 1, 1991, the commissioner of natural resources and the commissioner of the pollution control agency, in consultation with representatives of industry that may be affected by a surcharge on carbon dioxide emissions, and representatives of the forestry and environmental communities, shall prepare a report on the use of a surcharge on carbon dioxide emissions. The report shall:

(1) suggest an appropriate fee on sources of carbon dioxide emissions, including motor vehicle and permitted facilities in the air emission inventory of the pollution control agency;

(2) recommend methods of encouraging tree and perennial shrubs and vines planting to be implemented in lieu of payment of part or all of a surcharge; and

(3) include a planting plan for carbon dioxide absorption that identifies the proper mix of species for adequate absorption, the proper placement of trees for energy efficiency and conservation, the areas of the state most effective for proper tree planting, the adequate production of state nursery stock, the available procurement of private nursery stock, a range of costs to plant adequate species that absorb carbon dioxide, and the current and prospective distribution system to allow adequate species to be planted.

The commissioners of the pollution control agency and the department of natural resources shall have authority to solicit and accept funds from nonstate sources to accomplish the responsibilities in this section."

Delete the title and insert:

"A bill for an act relating to the environment; providing for mitigation of the greenhouse effect by requiring a report on the use of a surcharge on carbon dioxide emissions and a tree planting plan for carbon dioxide absorption; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 116."

The motion prevailed and the amendment was adopted.

S. F. No. 1870 which was temporarily laid over earlier today was again reported to the House.

Price moved to amend S. F. No. 1870, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 240.02, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMPENSATION.] The compensation of commission members is ~~$35~~ $48 per day spent on commission activities, when authorized by the commission, plus expenses in the same manner and amount as provided in the commissioner's plan adopted according to section 43A.18, subdivision 2.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 240.09, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [OCCUPATIONAL LICENSES.] A person who participates in the management or conduct of horse racing or pari-mutuel betting for a county fair holding a class D license who is in an occupation listed in section 240.08, subdivision 1, or the rules of the commission must have a class C license from the commission except for active members, as defined in section 349.12, of nonprofit organizations who act without compensation as concession workers or pari-mutuel clerks.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 240.18, is amended to read:

240.18 [BREEDERS' FUND.]

The commission shall establish a Minnesota breeders' fund with the money paid to it under section 240.15, subdivision 1. The commission, after paying the current costs of administering the fund, shall apportion the remaining net proceeds into categories corresponding with the various breeds of horses which are racing at licensed Minnesota racetracks in proportion to each category's contribution to the fund and distribute the available net proceeds in each category as follows:

(1) With respect to available money apportioned in the thoroughbred and quarterhorse categories, 20 percent must be expended as grants for equine research and related education at public institutions of post-secondary learning within the state as follows:

(a) one-half must be expended in the form of grants, contracts, or expenditures for equine research and education at the University of Minnesota school of veterinary medicine, provided that the commission requires as a condition of each such grant, contract, or expenditure, an annual report on the use of the funds from the recipient to the commission, the chair of the house of representatives committee on general legislation, veterans affairs, and gaming and the chair of the senate committee on general legislation and public gaming; and

(b) one-half must be expended in the form of grants, contracts, or expenditures for: (1) equine research and related education; (2) substance abuse programs for licensed personnel at racetracks in this state; and (3) promotion and public information regarding industry and commission activities; racehorse breeding, ownership, and management; and development and expansion of economic benefits from racing.

The commission shall include in its annual report a summary of each grant, contract, or expenditure under paragraph (b) and a description of how the commission has coordinated activities among recipients to insure the most efficient and effective use of funds.

(2) After deducting the amount for paragraph (1), the balance of the available proceeds in each category may be expended by the commission to:

(a) supplement purses for races held exclusively for Minnesota-bred or Minnesota-foaled horses, and supplement purses for Minnesota-bred or Minnesota-foaled horses racing in nonrestricted races in that category;

(b) pay breeders' or owners' awards to the breeders or owners of Minnesota-bred horses in that category which win money at licensed racetracks in the state; and

(c) provide other financial incentives to encourage the horse breeding industry in Minnesota.

(3) With respect to the available money apportioned in the standardbred category, 20 percent must be expended as follows:

(a) one-half of that amount to supplement purses for standardbreds at non-pari-mutuel racetracks in the state;

(b) one-fourth of that amount for the development of non-pari-mutuel standardbred tracks in the state; and

(c) one-fourth of that amount as grants for equine research and related education at public institutions of post-secondary learning in the state.

(4) After deducting the amount for paragraph (3), the balance of the available proceeds in the standardbred category must be expended by the commission to:

(a) supplement purses for races held exclusively for Minnesota-bred and Minnesota-foaled standardbreds;

(b) pay breeders or owners awards to the breeders or owners of Minnesota-bred standardbreds which win money at licensed race-tracks in the state; and

(c) provide other financial incentives to encourage the horse breeding industry in Minnesota.

The commission shall adopt rules governing the distribution of the fund. The commission may establish advisory committees to advise it on the distribution of money under this section, provided that the members of an advisory committee shall serve without compensation.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 240.24, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXCEPTION.] Notwithstanding subdivision 1, the commission by rule shall allow the use of: (1) topical external applications that do not contain anesthetics or steroids; (2) food additives; (3) Furosemide or other pulmonary hemostatic agents if the agents are administered under the visual supervision of the veterinarian or ~~assistant~~ a designee of the veterinarian employed by the commission; and (4) nonsteroidal anti-inflammatory drugs, provided that the test sample does not contain more than three micrograms of the substance or metabolites thereof per milliliter of blood plasma. For purposes of this clause, "test sample" means any bodily substance including blood, urine, saliva, or other substance as directed by the commission, taken from a horse under the supervision of the commission veterinarian and in such manner as prescribed by the commission for the purpose of analysis.

The commission shall adopt emergency rules to implement the provisions of this subdivision.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.92, subdivision 27, is amended to read:

Subd. 27. Any holder of a class A, B, or D license issued by the Minnesota racing commission shall deduct and withhold ~~ten~~ eight percent of the payment of winnings which are subject to withholding as Minnesota withholding tax. For purposes of this subdivision, the term "winnings which are subject to withholding" has the meaning given in section 3402(q)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987. For purposes of the provisions of this section, a payment to any person of winnings which are subject to withholding must be treated as if the payment was a wage paid by an employer to an employee. Every individual who is to receive a payment of winnings which are subject to withholding shall furnish the license holder with a statement, made under the penalties of perjury, containing the name, address, and social security account number of the person receiving the payment and of each person entitled to any portion of such payment. The license holder is liable for the payment of the tax required to be withheld under this subdivision and subdivision 28 but is not liable to any person for the amount of the payment.

Sec. 6. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This act is effective the day following final enactment.

"Sec. 3. Laws 1949, chapter 406, section 6, subdivision 1, as amended by Laws 1953, chapter 127, section 6; Laws 1967, chapter 820, section 1; and Laws 1987, chapter 322, section 5, and chapter 372, article 2, section 4, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [MINNEAPOLIS POLICE SURVIVOR BENEFITS; PERSONS TO WHOM GRANTED.] The association shall

grant pensions or benefits payable from the police pension fund to any member or to any surviving spouse or to any child under 18 years of age or any member from the time and for the following purposes:

When a service pensioner, disability pensioner, or deferred pensioner, or an active member of a relief association dies, leaving

(1) a surviving spouse, who was a legally married spouse, residing with the decedent, and who was married while or prior to the time the decedent was on the payroll of the police department; and who, in case the deceased member was a service or deferred pensioner, was legally married to the member at least one year before retirement from the police department; or

(2) a child or children, who were living while the deceased was on the payroll of the police department or born within nine months after the decedent was withdrawn from the payroll, the surviving spouse and child, or children, shall be entitled to a pension, or pensions, as follows:

(a) To the surviving spouse of a deceased active member or disabilitant, a pension of 18 units per month for life. ~~If the surviving spouse remarries, the pension ceases as of the date of the remarriage.~~

(b) To the surviving spouse of a deceased deferred or retired member, a pension of 4.5 units per month for life, plus an additional nine-tenths of one unit per month for every year of service of the decedent beyond five years to a maximum of 18 units. ~~If the surviving spouse remarries, the pension ceases as of the date of the remarriage.~~

(c) To each child of a deceased active member or disabilitant, a pension of six units per month until the child reaches the age of 18 years; or in the case of a child in full-time attendance during the normal school year, in a school approved by the board of directors, until the child receives a bachelor's degree or attains the age of 22 years, whichever occurs first.

(d) To each child of a deceased deferred or retired member, a pension of 1.5 units per month plus three-tenths of one unit per month for every year of service of the decedent beyond five years to a maximum of six units until the child reaches the age of 18 years; or, in the case of a child in full-time attendance during the normal school year in a school approved by the board of directors, until the child receives a bachelor's degree or attains the age of 22 years, whichever is first.

The total pensions hereunder for the surviving spouse and children of a deceased member shall not exceed 32 units per month.

Sec. 4. Laws 1965, Chapter 519, Section 1, as amended by Laws 1967, Chapter 819, Section 1; Laws 1969, Chapter 123, Section 1; Laws 1975, Chapter 57, Section 1; and Laws 1977, chapter 164, section 2, is amended to read:

Section 1. [MINNEAPOLIS, CITY OF; FIREFIGHTER'S RELIEF ASSOCIATION; WIDOW'S ENTITLEMENT.]

Notwithstanding the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1965, Section 69.48, to the contrary, when a service pensioner, disability pensioner, or deferred pensioner, or an active member of a relief association dies, leaving

(1) A widow who was his legally married wife, residing with him, and who was married to him while or prior to the time he was on the payroll of the fire department; and who, in case the deceased member was a service or deferred pensioner was legally married to the member at least one year before his retirement from the fire department; or

(2) A child or children who were living while the deceased was on the payroll of the fire department, or born within nine months after the decedent was withdrawn from the payroll of the fire department, the widow and the child or children shall be entitled to a pension or pensions, as follows:

(a) To the widow, a pension of not less than 17 units, and not to exceed the total of 21 units per month, as the bylaws of the association provide; ~~for her natural life; provided, that if she shall remarry then the pension shall cease and terminate as of the date of her remarriage; provided, further, if her remarriage terminates for any reason, she shall again be entitled to a pension as the bylaws of the association provide;~~

(b) To the child or children, if their mother be living, a pension of not to exceed eight units per month for each child up to the time each child reaches the age of not less than 16 years and not to exceed an age of 18 years; provided, however, upon approval by the board of trustees, such a child who is a full-time student, upon proof of compliance with the provisions of this act, may be entitled to such pension so long as he is a full-time student and has not reached 22 years of age, all in conformity with the bylaws of the association; provided, further, the total pensions hereunder for the widow and children of the deceased member shall not exceed the sum of 40 units per month;

(c) A child or children of a deceased member after the death of their mother, or in the event their mother predeceases the member, be entitled to receive a pension or pensions in such amount as the board of trustees of the association shall deem necessary to properly support the child or children until they reach the age of not less than 16 and not more than 18 years; provided, however, upon approval by the board of trustees, such a child who is a full-time student, upon proof of compliance with the provisions of this act, may be entitled to such pension so long as he is a full-time student and has not reached 22 years of age, as the bylaws of the association may provide; but the total amount of the pension or pensions hereunder for any child or children shall not exceed the sum of 40 units per month;

(d) For the purposes of this act, a full-time student is defined as an individual who is in full-time attendance as a student at an educational institution. Whether or not the student was in full-time attendance would be determined by the board of trustees of the association in the light of the standards and practices of the school involved. Specifically excluded is a person who is paid by his employer while attending school at the request of his employer. Benefits may continue during any period of four calendar months or less in any 12 month period in which a person does not attend school if the person shows to the satisfaction of the board of trustees that he intends to continue in full-time school attendance immediately after the end of the period. An educational institution is defined so as to permit the payment of benefits to students taking vocational or academic courses in all approved, accredited or licensed schools, colleges, and universities. The board of trustees shall make the final determination of eligibility for benefits if any question arises concerning the approved status of the educational institution which the student attends or proposes to attend;

(e) In the event that a child who is receiving a pension as provided above shall marry before the age of 22 years, the pension shall cease as of the date of the marriage.

Sec. 5. [HEALTH INSURANCE ACCOUNT.]

Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, contributions of members of the Minneapolis police relief association and the Minneapolis fire department relief association with 25 or more years of service shall be deposited in a separate account and used to pay the future health insurance costs of the individual member upon that member's retirement.

Sec. 6. [ST. LOUIS PARK POLICE SURVIVOR BENEFITS.]

The provision of Minnesota Statutes, section 423.810, subdivision 1, requiring termination of a surviving spouse's pension upon remarriage does not apply to surviving spouses receiving pensions from the St. Louis Park Police Relief Association.

Sec. 7. [LOCAL APPROVAL.]

Sections 3 to 5 are effective on the date after compliance with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, by a majority of members of the Minneapolis city council.

Sec. 8. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 2 is effective the day following final enactment. Section 6 is effective on approval by the St. Louis Park city council and compliance with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021."

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 43A.316, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [CONTINUATION OF COVERAGE.] (a) A participating employee who is laid off or is on leave may elect to continue the plan coverage. This coverage is at the expense of the employee unless otherwise provided by a collective bargaining agreement. Premiums for these employees must be established by the commissioner. Coverage continues until one of the following occurs:

(1) the employee is reemployed and eligible for health care coverage under a group policy; or

(2) the insurance continuation periods required by state and federal laws expire.

(b) ~~A participating former employee who retires and is receiving a public pension disability benefit or an annuity or is eligible for and has applied for~~ has met the age and service requirements necessary to receive an annuity under chapter 352, 352B, 352C, 352D, 353, 354, 354A, 356, 422A, 423, 423A, 424, or 490 is eligible to ~~continue participation~~ participate in the plan, except that a former employee who is over age 65 and is not eligible for Medicare coverage is not eligible to participate in the plan. These employees, and employees who have already retired prior to the group from which they retired entering the plan, are eligible to participate as long as their group continues to participate. This participation is at the retiree's person's expense unless a collective bargaining agreement or personnel policy provides otherwise. Premiums for these participants must be established by the commissioner. The commissioner shall establish sets of health insurance premiums for the following classes:

(1) all participants under this paragraph who are under age 65; and

(2) all participants under this paragraph who are over age 65 and are receiving Medicare coverage.

The commissioner may provide policy exclusions for preexisting conditions only when there is a break in coverage between a participant's coverage under a group insurance plan as an employee and the participant's coverage under this section. An employer shall notify an employee of ~~this the option to participate under this paragraph~~ no later than the effective date of retirement. The retired employee shall notify the employer commissioner within 30 days of the effective date of retirement of intent to exercise this option.

(c) The spouse of a deceased, active, or ~~retired~~ former employee may purchase the benefits provided at premiums established by the commissioner if the spouse was a dependent under the active or ~~retired~~ former employee's coverage under this section at the time of the death. ~~These participants are eligible to participate as long as the group which included their spouse participates.~~ Coverage under this clause must be coordinated with relevant insurance benefits provided through the federally sponsored Medicare program.

(d) The plan benefits must continue in the event of strike permitted by section 179A.18, if the exclusive representative chooses to have coverage continue and the employee pays the total monthly premiums when due.

(e) A person who desires to participate under paragraphs (a) to (d) shall notify the ~~eligible employer or former employer~~ commissioner of intent to participate according to rules established by the commissioner. The eligible employer shall notify the commissioner and coverage begins as soon as the commissioner permits.

(f) A participant who discontinues coverage may not re-enroll.

Persons participating under these paragraphs shall make appropriate premium payments in the time and manner established by the commissioner.

Sec. 2. [356.87] [HEALTH INSURANCE WITHHOLDING.]

The director of a public pension fund listed in section 356.20, subdivision 2, shall, upon authorization of a person entitled to receive benefits, withhold premium amounts from the pension benefits and pay the amounts to the public employees insurance plan.

Sec. 3. [NEWLY ELIGIBLE EMPLOYEES; NOTICE.]

A former employee who first becomes eligible to participate in the public employees insurance plan as a result of section 1 must notify the commissioner within 60 days of the effective date of section 1 of intent to participate in the plan. The commissioner, in cooperation with appropriate public pension plans, shall, at least 30 days before the effective date of section 1, notify all persons who become eligible to participate in the plan as a result of section 1 of their option to participate.

Sec. 4. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 and 2 are effective January 1, 1992."

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker announced the appointment of the following members of the House to a Conference Committee on S. F. No. 1813:

Welle, Rodosovich and Greenfield.

S. F. No. 2229 which was temporarily laid over earlier today was again reported to the House.

Scheid moved to amend S. F. No. 2229, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 200.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 20. [STATEWIDE REGISTRATION SYSTEM.] “Statewide registration system” means the computerized central statewide voter registration system and data base developed and maintained by the secretary of state pursuant to section 201.022.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 201.022, is amended to read:

201.022 [COMPUTERIZED CENTRAL STATEWIDE REGISTRATION SYSTEM.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The secretary of state shall develop and implement a statewide computerized voter registration system to facilitate voter registration and to provide a central data base containing voter registration information from around the state. The system must be accessible to the county auditor of each county in the state. The system must satisfy the requirements for a duplicate registration file. County requirements for a duplicate registration file are met when the secretary of state determines that a county’s voter registration records have been completely converted to the statewide system.

Subd. 2. [RULES.] The secretary of state shall make permanent and emergency rules necessary to administer the system required in subdivision 1. The rules must at least:

(1) provide for voters to submit their registration to any county auditor, the secretary of state, or the department of public safety;

(2) provide for the establishment and maintenance of a central data base for all voter registration information;

(3) provide procedures for entering data into a central data base the statewide registration system;

(4) provide for interaction with the computerized driver's license records of the department of public safety;

(5) allow the offices of all county auditors and the secretary of state to add, modify, and delete information from the system to provide for accurate and up-to-date records;

(6) allow the offices of all county auditors and the secretary of state's office to have access to the central data base statewide registration system for review and search capabilities;

(7) provide security and protection of all information in the central data base statewide registration system and monitor the central data base to ensure that unauthorized entry is not allowed;

(8) provide a system for each county to identify the precinct to which a voter should be assigned for voting purposes;

(9) prescribe a procedure for phasing in or converting existing computerized records to the statewide voter registration data base system; and

(10) prescribe a procedure for the return of completed voter registration forms from the department of public safety to the secretary of state or the county auditor.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 201.023, is amended to read:

201.023 [VOTER REGISTRATION ACCOUNT.]

The voter registration account is established as an account in the state treasury. Amounts received by the secretary of state to pay the cost of producing lists of registered voters under section 201.091, subdivision 5, by the statewide computerized registration system must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the voter registration account. Money in the voter registration account is continually appropriated to the secretary of state to produce lists of registered voters under section 201.091, subdivision 5.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 201.054, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REGISTRATION.] An individual may register to vote:

(1) at any time before the 20th day preceding any election as provided in section 201.061, subdivision 1; ~~in counties where pre-registration is allowed;~~

(2) on the day of an election as provided in section 201.061, subdivision 3; or

(3) when submitting an absentee ballot, by enclosing a completed registration card as provided in section 203B.04, subdivision 4;

(4) ~~by submitting a registration card received in a state income tax form or booklet to the secretary of state's office; or~~

(5) ~~by filling out the voter registration part of a driver's license application.~~

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 201.061, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PRIOR TO ELECTION DAY.] At any time except during the 20 days immediately preceding any election, an eligible voter or any individual who will be an eligible voter at the time of the next election may register to vote in the precinct in which the voter maintains residence by completing a registration card and submitting it in person or by mail to the county auditor of that county; ~~by completing the voter registration part of a driver's license application; or by submitting in person or by mail a registration card received in a state income tax form or booklet or elsewhere to the secretary of state's office.~~ A registration that is received no later than 5:00 p.m. on the 21st day preceding any election shall be accepted. An improperly addressed or delivered registration card shall be forwarded within two working days after receipt to the county auditor of the county where the voter maintains residence.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 201.071, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DEFICIENT REGISTRATION.] No registration is deficient if it contains the voter's name, address, date of birth, prior registration if any and signature. The absence of a zip code number does not cause the registration to be deficient. The election judges shall request an individual to correct a registration card if it is deficient or illegible or may request the name or number of the voter's school district. No eligible voter may be prevented from voting unless the voter's registration card is deficient or the voter is duly and successfully challenged in accordance with sections 201.195 or 204C.12.

A registration card accepted prior to August 1, 1983, is not deficient for lack of date of birth. The county or municipality may attempt to obtain the date of birth for a registration card accepted prior to August 1, 1983, by a request to the voter at any time except at the polling place. Failure by the voter to comply with this request does not make the card registration deficient.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 201.071, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [CHANGE OF REGISTRATION.] Any county auditor who receives a registration card indicating that an individual was previously registered in a different county in Minnesota shall notify the county auditor of that county electronically through the statewide registration system in the manner prescribed by in the rules of the secretary of state. A county auditor receiving a registration card indicating that a voter was previously registered in a different precinct in the same county or receiving a notification as provided in this subdivision shall remove that individual's duplicate voter registration card, if any, and the original voter registration card from the files, and make any other necessary changes in the voter registration records. Any county auditor who receives a registration card or notification requiring a change of registration records under this subdivision as a result of an election day registration shall also check the duplicate statewide registration card or file from the precinct of prior residence system to determine whether the individual voted in that more than one precinct in the most recent election.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 201.081, is amended to read:

201.081 [REGISTRATION FILES.]

The original voter registration file cards and the duplicate statewide registration file shall be system are the record of registered voters. The original and duplicate voter registration files cards and the terminal providing access to the central statewide registration system shall must be kept in the office under the control of the county auditor or in the office of a public official to whom the county auditor has delegated the responsibility of keeping either file for maintaining voter registration records. The files shall voter registration cards and terminals providing access to the statewide registration system must not be removed from the control of the county auditor except that the duplicate file shall be delivered as provided in section 201.221, this subdivision 3, to the duly authorized election judges for use on election day. The county auditor may make photographic copies of voter registration cards in the manner provided by section 138.17.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 201.091, is amended to read:

201.091 [REGISTERED VOTER LISTS; REPORTS; REGISTRATION PLACES.]

Subdivision 1. [PRECINCT MASTER LIST.] Each county auditor shall prepare and maintain a current list of the duplicate registration cards, registered voters in each precinct in the county which list shall be known as the precinct master list. The master list must be created by entering each completed voter registration card received by the county auditor into the statewide registration system. It shall show the name and, residence address, and date of birth of each voter registered in the precinct. The telephone number shall be included on the list if provided by the voter. The information contained in the master list may only be made available to election officials for purposes related to election administration, to the state court administrator for jury selection, and to public officials authorized to carry out law enforcement duties.

Subd. 2. [CORRECTED LIST.] On February 15 of each year, the county auditor secretary of state shall prepare and on request make available current precinct lists for the county the master list for each county auditor. Each precinct list shall be periodically corrected and updated by the county auditor. A final corrected precinct master list for each precinct shall be available 15 for absentee voting at least 32 days before each primary election. A corrected precinct list may be either in the form of a complete corrected list or a separate list of additions and deletions to the preceding list. If it is available, the auditor and the secretary of state shall also provide the information at cost in the form of accessible computer data. A final corrected master list must be available seven days before each election.

Subd. 3. [REGISTRATION CARDS DELIVERED TO COUNTY AUDITOR.] A public official maintaining the duplicate registration file pursuant to section 201.081 shall deliver the original voter registration cards to the county auditor within 30 days after a primary and within 60 days after a general election. Within 60 days after receiving the original voter registration cards after a general election, the county auditor shall return the corrected precinct list to the public official maintaining the duplicate registration file.

The county auditor shall allow independent or special school districts to use the necessary portions of the statewide registration system for school district elections. The county auditor may impose reasonable requirements to preserve the security and integrity of the system. The county auditor and the school district shall provide by agreement for the details of the use of the system by the school district. The school board may designate a member of the board or an employee as registration officer. The provisions of this chapter and chapter 203B relating to registration of voters apply to school district elections in which the statewide registration system is used.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 201.12, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CHALLENGES.] Upon return of the notice by the postal service, the county auditor or the auditor's staff shall personally ascertain the name and address of that individual. If the individual is no longer at the address recorded in the original statewide registration file system, the county auditor shall ~~affix~~ change the word registrant's status to "challenged" to in the duplicate statewide registration card system. ~~Any~~ An individual challenged in accordance with this subdivision shall comply with the provisions of section 204C.12, before being allowed to vote. If a second notice mailed at least 60 days after the return of the first notice is also returned by the postal service, the county auditor may remove the original and duplicate cards from the registration card from the file and change the registrant's status to "inactive" in the statewide registration system.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 201.121, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ENTRY OF REGISTRATION INFORMATION.] Upon receiving a voter registration card properly completed and submitted in accordance with sections 201.061 and 201.071, the county auditor shall enter in the appropriate registration files and in the central statewide registration system the registration card or the information contained on it.

Upon receiving a completed voter registration card or form, the secretary of state may electronically transmit the information on the card or form to the appropriate county auditor as soon as possible for review by the county auditor before final entry into the central statewide registration system. The secretary of state shall mail the registration card or form to the county auditor for placement in the appropriate files.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 201.121, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [NOTICE OF REGISTRATION; CHALLENGES.] The county auditor shall mail a notice indicating the individual's name, address, precinct and polling place to each registered voter. The notice shall indicate that it must be returned if it is not deliverable to the voter at the named address. Upon return of the notice by the postal service, the county auditor shall ~~affix the word~~ change the registrant's status to "challenged" to in the voter's duplicate statewide registration card system. An individual challenged in accordance with this subdivision shall comply with the provisions of section 204C.12, before being allowed to vote.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 201.171, is amended to read:

Within six weeks after every election, the county auditor shall post the voting history for every person who voted in the election. After the close of the calendar year, the secretary of state shall determine if any registrants have not voted during the preceding four years and shall change the status of those registrants to "inactive" in the statewide registration system. The secretary of state shall also prepare a report to the county auditor containing the names of all registrants whose status was changed to "inactive."

After the close of each calendar year, The county auditor shall remove the original and duplicate voter registration cards card of any voter who has not voted during the four preceding calendar years in any election, including but not limited to a school district election where the permanent voter registration system is used whose name appears on the report. Although not counted in an election, a late absentee ballot shall must be considered a vote for the purpose of continuing registration. The county auditor shall also make the appropriate changes in the data base of the central registration system.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 201.211, is amended to read:

201.211 [COSTS.]

The office required to perform the functions and duties of this chapter shall bear the costs incurred. If these functions and duties are delegated to another office, that office shall bear the costs. The secretary of state shall pay the costs of operating and maintaining the statewide registration system. The secretary of state shall also pay the costs of preparing polling place rosters and master lists from the money appropriated for this purpose.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 201.221, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ADOPTION OF RULES.] To implement the provisions of this chapter, the secretary of state shall adopt rules consistent with federal and state election laws.

Subd. 2. [UNIFORM PROCEDURES FOR COUNTIES.] The secretary of state shall assist local election officers by devising uniform forms and procedures. The secretary of state shall provide uniform rules for counties maintaining voter registration records on data processing systems so that the systems are compatible with a uniform system of electronic data maintenance and the central computerized voter statewide registration system. The secretary of state shall supervise the development and use of the statewide registration system to insure that it conforms to applicable laws and rules.

Subd. 3. [PROCEDURES FOR DUPLICATE REGISTRATION FILE POLLING PLACE ROSTERS.] The secretary of state shall prescribe the form of the duplicate registration file so that a duplicate card contains spaces for polling place rosters that include the voter's name, address, telephone number, date of birth, school district number, and space for the voter's signature, and space. The polling place roster must be used to indicate whether the voter has voted in a given election. The secretary of state shall prescribe procedures for transporting the duplicate registration files polling place rosters to the election judges for use on election day.

The secretary of state shall prescribe an alternate form of the duplicate registration file for counties and cities which make the election authorized by section 201.071, subdivision 5. The alternate form shall not require a duplicate card or voter's signature. Information contained in the duplicate registration file shall include the voter's name, address, month and day of birth, last registration (if any), school district number, and a record of the vote history for the previous four years of elections. The secretary of state shall prescribe the form for the duplicate registration file to be used on election day in the polling place and the file shall include the name, address, month and day of birth, school district number, and a space for the voters to sign the file when they vote. The secretary of state shall prescribe the form for a county or municipality to request the day and month date of birth from currently registered voters. The county or municipality shall not request the day and month date of birth from currently registered voters by any communication other than the prescribed form and the form shall clearly indicate that a currently registered voter does not lose registration status by failing to provide the day and month date of birth. The secretary of state shall prescribe procedures for transporting the duplicate registration files to the judges on election day. In accordance with section 204B.40, the county auditor and the clerk of any municipality shall retain the prescribed duplicate registration file polling place rosters used on the date of election for one year following the election.

Subd. 4. [COUNTY RULES.] The county auditor of each county may adopt rules which that delegate to the secretary of state or municipal officials in that county the duties assigned to county auditors by this chapter. Delegation of duties to the secretary of state requires the approval of the secretary of state. Delegation to a municipal official requires the approval of the governing body of the municipality. Delegation by the county auditor of the duty to accept registrations does not relieve the county auditor of the duty to accept registrations. When a municipal official is delegated duties given to the county auditor by this chapter, the governing body of the municipality shall immediately provide the necessary funds, equipment and facilities, establish a place of registration and put the registration plan into operation without delay. Each delegation agreement must include a plan to allocate the costs of the duties to be delegated.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 201.27, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [INTENTIONAL VIOLATION.] No officer, deputy, clerk, or other employee shall intentionally:

(a) (1) fail to perform or enforce any of the provisions of this chapter except the provisions of subdivision 2;

(b) (2) remove any a registration card or record from its proper place in the registration files, in any a manner or for any a purpose not authorized by law;

(c) (3) destroy any or make an unauthorized change to a record required to be kept by this chapter; or

(d) (4) add a name or names to the voter registration files, records, or cards, except as authorized by law.

An individual who violates this subdivision is guilty of a felony.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 202A.13, is amended to read:

202A.13 [COMMITTEES, CONVENTIONS.]

The rules of each major political party shall provide that for each congressional district and each county or legislative district a convention shall be held at least once every state general election year. Each major political party shall also provide for each congressional district and each county or legislative district an executive committee consisting of a chair and such other officers as may be necessary. The party rules may provide for only one executive committee and one convention where any county and congressional district have the same territorial limits.

A communicatively impaired delegate or alternate who needs interpreter services at a county, legislative district, or congressional district, or state convention shall so notify the executive committee of the major political party unit whose convention the delegate or alternate plans to attend. Written notice must be given by certified mail to the executive committee at least 30 days before the convention date. The major political party, not later than 14 days before the convention date, shall secure the services of one or more interpreters if available and shall assume responsibility for the cost of the services. The state central committee of the major political party shall determine the process for reimbursing interpreters.

A visually impaired delegate or alternate to a county, legislative district, or congressional district, or state convention may notify the executive committee of the major political party unit that the delegate or alternate requires convention materials in audio tape, Braille, or large print format. Upon receiving the request, the executive committee shall provide all official written convention materials as soon as they are available, so that the visually impaired individual may have them converted to audio tape, Braille, or large print format, prior to the convention.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 203B.04, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [PERMANENT ILLNESS OR DISABILITY.] An eligible voter who reasonably expects to be permanently unable to go to the polling place on election day because of illness or disability may apply to a county auditor or municipal clerk under this section to automatically receive an absentee ballot application before each election and to have the status as a permanent absentee voter indicated on the voter's registration record. The secretary of state shall adopt rules governing procedures under this subdivision.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 203B.09, is amended to read:

203B.09 [FORM AND CONTENT OF REQUIRED MATERIALS; RULES OF SECRETARY OF STATE.]

The secretary of state shall adopt rules establishing the form, content, and type size and style for the printing of blank applications for absentee ballots, absentee voter lists, return envelopes, certificates of eligibility to vote by absentee ballot, ballot envelopes and directions for casting an absentee ballot. Any official charged with the duty of printing any of these materials shall do so in accordance with these rules.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 203B.12, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXAMINATION OF RETURN ENVELOPES.] Two or more election judges shall examine each return envelope and shall mark it accepted or rejected in the manner provided in this subdivision. The election judges shall mark the return envelope "Accepted" and initial or sign the return envelope below the word "Accepted" if the election judges or a majority of them are satisfied that:

(a) the voter's signature on the return envelope is the genuine signature of the individual who made the application for ballots and the certificate has been completed as prescribed in the directions for casting an absentee ballot;

(b) the voter is registered and eligible to vote in the precinct or has included a properly completed registration card in the return envelope; and

(c) the voter has not already voted at that election, either in person or by absentee ballot.

The return envelope from accepted ballots shall must be preserved and returned to the county auditor with the voters' certificates.

If all or a majority of the election judges examining return envelopes find that an absent voter has failed to meet one of the requirements prescribed in clauses (a) to (c), they shall mark the return envelope "Rejected," initial or sign it below the word "Rejected," and return it to the county auditor with the unused ballots.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 203B.12, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [NOTATION ON DUPLICATE REGISTRATION CARD

OR FILE POLLING PLACE ROSTER.] If the return envelope is marked with the word "Accepted," the election judges shall record the fact that the voter has voted by absentee ballot on the duplicate voter registration card or file polling place roster. This shall must be done by placing the letters "A.B." in the appropriate space on the duplicate card or file roster. After a registration card or file record has been marked to record that an individual has voted by absentee ballot, the individual shall not be allowed to vote in person at that election.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 203B.13, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [DUPLICATE REGISTRATION FILES ABSENTEE VOTER LIST.] If the election judges of an absentee ballot board are authorized to receive, examine, validate, and count absentee ballots, the county auditor or municipal clerk shall remove from the duplicate registration files the cards prepare a list of all persons who have applied for absentee ballots at the election and deliver them it to the election judges of the absentee ballot board along with the applications for absentee ballots. When a duplicate registration card has been removed from the file for this purpose it shall be replaced with a notification to the election judges that the voter's card has been removed and directing them to The polling place rosters must include an indicator for all persons on the absentee voter list. The county auditor may provide a supplemental list for use by the election judges after the polling place rosters have been prepared. If a person on the absentee voter list appears in the polling place, the election judges shall contact the election judges of the absentee ballot board if that voter should appear at the polling place for the purpose of voting in person. If contacted by the judges of the precinct, the election judges of the absentee ballot board shall examine the duplicate registration card of the voter absentee voter list to determine if an absentee ballot has been cast. They shall notify the precinct election judges of their findings and, if the absentee ballot has not yet been cast, the voter shall be allowed to vote in person. The election judges of the absentee ballot board shall make a notation on the duplicate registration card absentee voter list that the voter has voted and no absentee ballot shall may be counted for that voter.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 204B.09, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CANDIDATES IN STATE AND COUNTY GENERAL ELECTIONS.] Except as otherwise provided by this subdivision, affidavits of candidacy and nominating petitions for county, state and federal offices filled at the state general election shall be filed not more than 70 days nor less than 56 days before the state primary. The affidavit may be prepared and signed at any time between 60 days before the filing period opens and the last day of the filing period. Candidates for presidential electors may file petitions on or before the state primary day. Nominating petitions to fill vacancies in nominations shall be filed as provided in section 204B.13. No affidavit or petition shall be accepted later than 5:00 p.m. on the last day for filing. Affidavits and petitions for offices to be voted on in only one county shall be filed with the county auditor of that county. Affidavits and petitions for offices to be voted on in more than one county shall be filed with the secretary of state.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 204B.28, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ELECTION SUPPLIES; DUTIES OF COUNTY AUDITORS AND CLERKS.] Except as otherwise provided for absentee ballots in section 204B.35, subdivision 4, the county auditor shall complete the preparation of the election materials for which the auditor is responsible at least one week four days before every state primary and state general election. At any time after all election materials are available from the county auditor but not later than one week four days before the election each municipal clerk shall secure from the county auditor:

- (a) The forms that are required for the conduct of the election;
- (b) Any printed voter instruction materials furnished by the secretary of state;
- (c) Any other instructions for election officers; and
- (d) A sufficient quantity of the official ballots, ~~ballot boxes,~~ registration files, envelopes for ballot returns, and other supplies and materials required for each precinct in order to comply with the provisions of the Minnesota election law. The county auditor may furnish the election supplies to the municipal clerks in the same manner as the supplies are furnished to precincts in unorganized territory pursuant to section 204B.29, subdivision 1.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 204B.45, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PROCEDURE.] Notice of the election and the special mail procedure must be given at least six weeks prior to the election. No earlier than 20 days or later than 18 14 days prior to the election, the auditor shall mail ballots by nonforwardable mail to all voters registered in the town or unorganized territory. Eligible voters not registered at the time the ballots are mailed may apply for ballots as provided in chapter 203B. Ballot return envelopes, with return postage provided, must be preaddressed to the auditor or clerk and the voter may return the ballot by mail or in person to the office of the auditor or clerk. The costs of the mailing shall be paid by the election jurisdiction in which the voter resides. Any ballot received by 8:00 p.m. on the day of the election must be counted.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 204C.10, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. An individual seeking to vote shall print the individual's name and address on a certificate sign a polling place roster which states that the individual is at least 18 years of age, a citizen of the United States, has resided in Minnesota for 20 days immediately preceding the election, certifies residence at the address shown, is not under guardianship of the person, has not been found by a court of law to be legally incompetent to vote or convicted of a felony without having civil rights restored, is registered and has not already voted in the election. The individual shall then sign the certificate.

An election judge shall compare the signature on the voter's certificate with the signature as it appears on the duplicate registration card and the address with the address on the duplicate registration card. If the election judge is satisfied that the signatures are the same, the election judge shall initial the certificate and record the fact of voting on the back of the duplicate registration card. The initialed certificate shall be handed to the voter, who shall deliver it to the election judge in charge of ballots as proof of the right to vote.

Subd. 2. Subdivision 1 does not apply to voting in counties or municipalities which make the election authorized by section 201.071, subdivision 5. In lieu of the certificate required by subdivision 1, an applicant shall sign the duplicate registration file in the space provided next to the applicant's name in the file. In lieu of the signature comparison required by subdivision 1, A judge may, before the applicant signs the duplicate registration file roster, request confirm the applicant's name, address, and day and month date of birth. After the applicant signs the registration file roster, the judge shall give the applicant a voter's receipt. The voter shall deliver the voter's receipt to the judge in charge of ballots as proof of the voter's right to vote, and thereupon the judge shall hand to the voter the ballot. The judges shall destroy the voters' receipts at the end of the day.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 204C.12, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [REFUSAL TO ANSWER QUESTIONS OR SIGN A VOTER CERTIFICATE POLLING PLACE ROSTER.] A challenged individual who refuses to answer questions or sign a voter certificate

~~polling place roster as required by this section shall must not be allowed to vote. No A challenged individual who leaves the polling place and returns later willing to answer questions or sign a voter certificate shall polling place roster must not be allowed to vote. In precincts without voter registration the name of the individual shall not be entered or allowed to remain on the election register.~~

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 204C.27, is amended to read:

204C.27 [DELIVERY OF RETURNS TO COUNTY AUDITORS.]

One or more of the election judges in each precinct shall deliver two sets of summary statements; all unused and spoiled white, pink, canary, and gray ballots; and the envelopes containing the white, pink, canary, and gray ballots either directly to the municipal clerk for transmittal to the county auditor's office or directly to the county auditor's office as soon as possible after the vote counting is completed but no later than 24 hours after the end of the hours for voting. One or more election judges shall deliver the remaining set of summary statements and returns, all unused and spoiled municipal and school district ballots, the envelopes containing municipal and school district ballots, and all other things furnished by the municipal or school district clerk, to the municipal or school district clerk's office within 24 hours after the end of the hours for voting. The municipal or school district clerk shall return all polling place rosters and completed voter registration cards to the county auditor within 48 hours after the end of the hours for voting.

Sec. 30. [211B.045] [NONCOMMERCIAL SIGNS EXEMPTION.]

In any municipality with an ordinance that regulates the size of noncommercial signs, notwithstanding the provisions of that ordinance, all noncommercial signs of any size may be posted from August 1 in a state general election year until ten days following the state general election.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 367.03, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [OFFICERS, TERMS.] Except in towns operating under option A, there shall be elected in each town three supervisors as provided in this section. Where a new town has been or may be organized and supervisors have been or may be elected for such town at a town meeting prior to the annual town election, such supervisors shall serve only until the next annual town election at which election three supervisors shall be elected, one for three years, one for two years, and one for one year, so that the term of one shall expire each year. The number of years for which each is elected shall be indicated on the ballot. When two supervisors are to be elected for three-year terms under option A, a candidate shall indicate on the affidavit of candidacy which of the two offices the candidate is filing for. At all other annual town elections one supervisor shall be elected for three years to fill the place of the one whose term expires at that time. Except in towns operating under either option B or option D, or both, there shall be elected at the annual town election held in even-numbered years one town clerk, and at the annual town election held in odd-numbered years one town treasurer. The clerk and treasurer each shall serve for a term of two years and until their successors are elected and qualified.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 367.33, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [TERMS.] If the additional supervisors are elected at a special election, they shall serve only until the next annual town election, at which the additional members shall stand for election, one for a term of two years and one for a term of three years. ~~The candidate receiving the highest number of votes shall be elected for the longer term. If the additional supervisors are elected at an annual election, one shall serve for a term of two years and the other for a term of three years with the candidate receiving the highest number of votes being elected for the longer term. A candidate for one of the additional supervisor positions shall specify in the affidavit of candidacy that the candidate is filing for either the two-year or the three-year term.~~

Sec. 33. [REPORT TO LEGISLATURE.]

The secretary of state shall evaluate the operation of section 19 and shall report to the chairs of the general legislation committee in the house of representatives and the elections committee in the senate by February 1, 1992.

Sec. 34. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 201.061, subdivision 2; 201.071, subdivisions 5 and 6; and 201.091, subdivision 3, are repealed.

April 20, 1990

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes,
President of the Senate

The Honorable Robert E. Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

We, the undersigned conferees for S. F. No. 2018; report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House recede from its amendment and that S. F. No. 2018 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"ARTICLE 1

REGULATORY PROVISIONS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 299L.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [VIDEO GAMES OF CHANCE.] The commissioner shall exercise all powers and duties assigned to the commissioner relating to video games of chance under sections 349.50 to 349.60 through the division and director.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 299L.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. [FINGERPRINTING.] The director may require that any: (1) licensee under sections 349.11 to 349.23, (2) employee of such a licensee, or (3) shareholder or officer of such a licensee be fingerprinted by the director, or otherwise submit to fingerprinting in a form and manner acceptable to the director.

Sec. 3. [299L.06] [JURISDICTION.]

In any investigation or other enforcement activity where there is probable cause to believe that a criminal violation relating to gambling has occurred, except a violation relating only to taxation, the division rather than any other state department, agency, or office shall be the primary investigation entity where enforcement rests.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 349.12, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. (a) "Lawful purpose" means one or more of the following:

(1) benefiting persons by enhancing their opportunity for religious or educational advancement, by relieving or protecting them from disease, suffering or distress, by contributing to their physical well-being, by assisting them in establishing themselves in life as worthy and useful citizens, or by increasing their comprehension of and devotion to the principles upon which this nation was founded;

(2) initiating, performing, or fostering worthy public works or enabling or furthering the erection or maintenance of public structures;

(3) lessening the burdens borne by government or voluntarily supporting, augmenting or supplementing services which government would normally render to the people;

(4) payment of local taxes authorized under this chapter, and taxes imposed by the United States on receipts from lawful gambling;

(5) any expenditure by, or any contribution to, a hospital or nursing home exempt from taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code;

(6) payment of reasonable costs incurred in complying with the performing of annual audits required under section 349.19, subdivision 9;

(7) payment of real estate taxes and assessments on licensed gambling premises wholly owned by the licensed organization; or

(8) if approved by the board, construction, improvement, expansion, maintenance, and repair of athletic fields and outdoor ice rinks and their appurtenances, owned by the organization or a public agency.

(b) "Lawful purpose" does not include the erection, acquisition, improvement, expansion, repair, or maintenance of any real property or capital assets owned or leased by an organization, other than a hospital or nursing home exempt from taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, unless the board has first specifically authorized the expenditures after finding: (1) that the property or capital assets will be used exclusively for one or more of the purposes specified in paragraph (a), clauses (1) to (3); or (2) with respect to expenditures for repair or maintenance only, that the property is or will be used extensively as a meeting place or event location by other nonprofit organizations or community or service groups and that no rental fee is charged for the use; or (3) with respect to expenditures for erection or acquisition only, that the erection or acquisition is necessary to replace with a comparable building a building owned by the organization and destroyed or made uninhabitable by fire or natural disaster, provided that the expenditure may be only for that part of the replacement cost not reimbursed by insurance. The board shall by rule adopt procedures and standards to administer this subdivision:

(1) any expenditure by or contribution to a 501(c)(3) organization, provided that the organization and expenditure or contribution are in conformity with standards prescribed by the board under section 16;

(2) a contribution to an individual or family suffering from poverty, homelessness, or physical or mental disability, which is used to relieve the effects of that poverty, homelessness, or disability;

(3) a contribution to an individual for treatment for delayed posttraumatic stress syndrome, or a contribution to a recognized program for the treatment of compulsive gambling on behalf of an individual who is a compulsive gambler;

(4) a contribution to or expenditure on a public or private nonprofit educational institution registered with or accredited by this state or any other state;

(5) a contribution to a scholarship fund for defraying the cost of education to individuals, where the funds are awarded through an open and fair selection process;

(6) activities by an organization or a government entity which recognize humanitarian or military service to the United States, the state of Minnesota, or a community, subject to rules of the board;

(7) recreational, community, and athletic facilities and activities intended primarily for persons under age 21, provided that such facilities and activities do not discriminate on the basis of gender, as evidenced by (i) provision of equipment and supplies, (ii) scheduling of activities, including games and practice times, (iii) supply and assignment of coaches or other adult supervisors, (iv) provision and availability of support facilities, and (v) whether the opportunity to participate reflects each gender's demonstrated interest in the activity, provided that nothing in this clause prohibits a contribution to or expenditure on an educational institution or other entity that is excepted from the prohibition against discrimination based on sex contained in the Higher Education Act Amendments of 1976, United States Code, title 20, section 1681;

(8) payment of local taxes authorized under this chapter, taxes imposed by the United States on receipts from lawful gambling, the tax imposed by section 349.212, subdivisions 1 and 4, and the tax imposed on unrelated business income by section 290.05, subdivision 3;

(9) payment of real estate taxes and assessments on licensed gambling premises wholly owned by the licensed organization paying the taxes, not to exceed the amount which an organization may expend under board rule on rent for premises used for lawful gambling;

(10) a contribution to the United States, this state or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency or instrumentality thereof other than a direct contribution to a law enforcement or prosecutorial agency; or

(11) a contribution to or expenditure by a nonprofit organization, church, or body of communicants, gathered in common membership for mutual support and edification in piety, worship, or religious observances.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), "lawful purpose" does not include:

(1) any expenditure made or incurred for the purpose of influencing the nomination or election of a candidate for public office or for the purpose of promoting or defeating a ballot question;

(2) any activity intended to influence an election or a governmental decision-making process;

(3) the erection, acquisition, improvement, expansion, repair, or maintenance of real property or capital assets owned or leased by an organization, except as provided in clause (6), unless the board has first specifically authorized the expenditures after finding that (i) the real property or capital assets will be used exclusively for one or more of the purposes in paragraph (a); (ii) with respect to expenditures for repair or maintenance only, that the property is or will be used extensively as a meeting place or event location by other nonprofit organizations or community or service groups and that no rental fee is charged for the use; (iii) with respect to expenditures, including a mortgage payment or other debt service payment, for erection or acquisition only, that the erection or acquisition is necessary to replace with a comparable building, a building owned by the organization and destroyed or made uninhabitable by fire or natural disaster, provided that the expenditure may be only for that part of the replacement cost not reimbursed by insurance; or (iv) with respect to expenditures, including a mortgage payment or other debt service payment, for erection or acquisition only, that the erection or acquisition is necessary to replace with a comparable building a building owned by the organization that was acquired from the organization by eminent domain or sold by the organization to a purchaser that the organization reasonably believed would otherwise have acquired the building by eminent domain, provided that the expenditure may be only for that part of the replacement cost that exceeds the compensation received by the organization for the building being replaced;

(4) an expenditure by an organization which is a contribution to a parent organization, foundation, or affiliate of the contributing organization, if the parent organization, foundation, or affiliate has provided to the contributing organization within one year of the contribution any money, grants, property, or other thing of value;

(5) a contribution by a licensed organization to another licensed organization unless the board has specifically authorized the contribution. The board must authorize such a contribution when requested to do so by the contributing organization unless it makes an affirmative finding that the contribution will not be used by the recipient organization for one or more of the purposes in paragraph (a); or

(6) the erection, acquisition, improvement, or expansion of real property or capital assets which will be used for one or more of the purposes in paragraph (a), clause (7), unless the organization making the expenditures notifies the board at least 15 days before making the expenditure.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.12, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [ORGANIZATION.] "Organization" means any fraternal, religious, veterans, or other nonprofit organization which has at least 15 active members, and either has been duly incorporated as a nonprofit organization for at least three years, or has been recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as exempt from income taxation for the most recent three years.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 30. [501(c)(3) ORGANIZATION.] "501(c)(3) organization" is an organization exempt from the payment of federal income taxes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 31. [AFFILIATE.] "Affiliate" is any person or entity directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by, or under common control or ownership with a licensee of the board or any officer or director of a licensee of the board.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 32. [PERSON.] "Person" is an individual, firm, association, partnership, corporation, trustee, or legal representative.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 34. [FLARE.] "Flare" is the posted display, with registration stamp affixed, that sets forth the rules of a particular game of pull-tabs or tipboards, and that is associated with a specific deal of pull-tabs or grouping of tipboards.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 349.15, is amended to read:

349.15 [USE OF GROSS PROFITS.]

(a) Gross profits from lawful gambling may be expended only for lawful purposes or allowable expenses as authorized at a regular meeting of the conducting organization. Provided that no more than 55 60 percent of the gross profit less the tax imposed under section 349.212, subdivision 1, from bingo, and no more than 50 percent of the gross profit less the taxes tax imposed by section 349.212, subdivisions 1, 4, and subdivision 6, from other forms of lawful gambling, may be expended for allowable expenses related to lawful gambling.

(b) The board shall provide by rule for the administration of this section, including specifying allowable expenses. The rules must specify that no more than one-third of the annual premium on a policy of liability insurance procured by the organization may be taken as an allowable expense. This expense shall be allowed by the board only to the extent that it relates directly to the conduct of lawful gambling and is verified in the manner the board prescribes by rule. The rules may provide a maximum percentage of gross profits which may be expended for certain expenses.

(c) Allowable expenses also include reasonable costs of bank account service charges, and the reasonable costs of an audit required by the board, except an audit required under section 349.19, subdivision 9.

(d) Allowable expenses include reasonable legal fees and damages that relate to the conducting of lawful gambling, except for legal fees or damages incurred in defending the organization against the board, attorney general, United States attorney, commissioner of revenue, or a county or city attorney.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.151, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [COMPENSATION.] The compensation of board members is as provided in section 15.0575, subdivision 3.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.151, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [POWERS AND DUTIES.] (a) The board has the following powers and duties:

(1) to regulate lawful gambling to ensure it is conducted in the public interest;

(2) to issue, revoke, and suspend licenses to organizations, distributors, bingo halls, and manufacturers under sections 349.16, 349.161, 349.163, and 349.164, and gambling managers;

(3) to collect and deposit license, permit, and registration fees due under this chapter;

(4) to receive reports required by this chapter and inspect the all premises, records, books, and other documents of organizations and suppliers, distributors, manufacturers, and bingo halls to insure compliance with all applicable laws and rules;

(5) to make rules required authorized by this chapter;

(5) (6) to register gambling equipment and issue registration stamps under section 349.162;

(6) (7) to provide by rule for the mandatory posting by organizations conducting lawful gambling of rules of play and the odds and/or house percentage on each form of lawful gambling;

(7) (8) to report annually to the governor and legislature on its activities and on recommended changes in the laws governing gambling;

(8) (9) to impose civil penalties of not more than $500 per violation on organizations, distributors, and manufacturers, bingo halls, and gambling managers for failure to comply with any provision of sections 349.12 to 349.23 this chapter or any rule of the board;

(9) to notify city councils, county boards, and town boards before issuing or renewing licenses to organizations and bingo halls as specified under section 349.213; and

(10) to issue premises permits to organizations licensed to conduct lawful gambling;

(11) to delegate to the director the authority to issue licenses and premises permits under criteria established by the board;

(12) to suspend or revoke licenses and premises permits of organizations, distributors, manufacturers, bingo halls, or gambling managers as provided in this chapter;

(13) to register recipients of net profits from lawful gambling and to revoke or suspend the registrations;

(14) to register employees of organizations licensed to conduct lawful gambling;

(15) to require fingerprints from persons determined by board rule to be subject to fingerprinting; and

(16) to take all necessary steps to ensure the integrity of and public confidence in lawful gambling.

(b) Any organization, distributor, bingo hall operator, or manufacturer assessed a civil penalty may request a hearing before the board. Hearings conducted on appeals of imposition of penalties are not subject to the provisions of the administrative procedure act.

(c) All fees and penalties received by the board must be deposited in the general fund.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.152, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DUTIES OF THE DIRECTOR.] The director has the following duties:

- (1) to carry out gambling policy established by the board;
- (2) to employ and supervise personnel of the board;
- (3) to advise and make recommendations to the board on rules;
- (4) to issue licenses and premises permits as authorized by the board;
- (5) to issue cease and desist orders;
- (6) to make recommendations to the board on license issuance, denial, suspension and revocation, and civil penalties the board imposes; and
- (7) to ensure that board rules, policy, and decisions are adequately and accurately conveyed to the board's licensees.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.152, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS.] Whenever it appears to the director that any person has engaged or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of this chapter or any rule:

(a) The director has the power to issue and cause to be served upon the person an order requiring the person to cease and desist from violations of this chapter. The order must give reasonable notice of the rights of the person to request a hearing and must state the reason for the entry of the order. A hearing shall be held not later than seven days after the request for the hearing is received by the board after which and within 20 days of the date of the hearing the board shall issue an order vacating the cease and desist order or making it permanent as the facts require. All hearings shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of chapter 14. If the person to whom a cease and desist order is issued fails to appear at the hearing after being duly notified, the person shall be deemed in default, and the proceeding may be determined against the person upon consideration of the cease and desist order, the allegations of which may be deemed to be true.

(b) The board may bring an action in the district court in the appropriate county to enjoin the acts or practices and to enforce compliance with this chapter or any rule and may refer the matter to the attorney general. Upon a proper showing, a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or writ of mandamus shall be granted. The court may not require the board to post a bond.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.152, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [EXECUTIVE ASSISTANT.] The director may appoint an executive assistant to the director, who is in the unclassified service.

Sec. 16. [349.154] [EXPENDITURE OF NET PROFITS FROM LAWFUL GAMBLING.]

Subdivision 1. [STANDARDS FOR CERTAIN ORGANIZATIONS.] The board shall by rule prescribe standards that must be met by any licensed organization that is a 501(c)(3) organization. The standards must provide:

(1) operating standards for the organization, including a maximum percentage or percentages of the organization's total expenditures that may be expended for the organization's administration and operation; and

(2) standards for any expenditure by the organization of net profits from lawful gambling, including a requirement that the expenditure be related to the primary purpose of the organization.

Subd. 2. [NET PROFIT REPORTS.] (a) Each licensed organization must report monthly to the board on a form prescribed by the board each expenditure and contribution of net profits from lawful gambling. The reports must provide for each expenditure or contribution:

(1) the name, address, and telephone number of the recipient of the expenditure or contribution;

(2) the date the contribution was approved by the organization;

(3) the date, amount, and check number of the expenditure or contribution; and

(4) a brief description of how the expenditure or contribution meets one or more of the purposes in section 349.12, subdivision 11, paragraph (a).

(b) Each report required under paragraph (a) must be accompanied by an acknowledgment, on a form the board prescribes, of each contribution of net profits from lawful gambling included in the report. The acknowledgment must be signed by the recipient of the contribution, or, if the recipient is not an individual, or other authorized representative of the recipient, by an officer. The acknowledgment must include the name and address of the contributing organization and each item in paragraph (a), clauses (1) to (3).

(c) The board shall provide the commissioners of revenue and public safety copies of each report received under this subdivision.

Subd. 3. [REGISTRATION OF LAWFUL GAMBLING NET PROFIT RECIPIENTS.] The board may by rule require that any individual, organization, or other entity must be registered with the board to receive a contribution of net profits from lawful gambling. The rules may designate and define specific categories of recipients that are subject to registration. The board may suspend or revoke the registration of any recipient the board determines has made an unlawful expenditure of net profits from lawful gambling.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.16, as amended by Laws 1989, chapter 334, article 2, sections 20 and 21, and Laws 1989, First Special Session chapter 1, article 13, section 8, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LICENSE REQUIRED.] An organization may conduct lawful gambling if it has a license to conduct lawful gambling and complies with this chapter.

Subd. 2. [ISSUANCE OF GAMBLING LICENSES.] (a) Licenses authorizing organizations to conduct lawful gambling may be issued by the board to organizations meeting the qualifications of section 349.14, in paragraphs (b) to (h) if the board determines that the license is consistent with the purpose of sections 349.11 to 349.22.

(b) The organization must have been in existence for the most recent three years preceding the license application as a registered Minnesota nonprofit corporation or as an organization designated as exempt from the payment of income taxes by the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) The organization at the time of licensing must have at least 15 active members.

(d) The organization must not be in existence solely for the purpose of conducting gambling.

(e) The organization must not have as an officer or member of the governing body any person who, within the five years before the issuance of the license, has been convicted in a federal or state court of a felony or gross misdemeanor or who has ever been convicted of a crime involving gambling or who has had a license issued by the board or director revoked for a violation of law or board rule.

(f) The organization has identified in its license application the lawful purposes on which it proposes to expend net profits from lawful gambling.

(g) The organization has identified on its license application a gambling manager and certifies that the manager is qualified under this chapter.

(h) The organization must not, in the opinion of the board after consultation with the commissioner of revenue, be seeking licensing primarily for the purpose of evading or reducing the tax imposed by section 349.212, subdivision 6.

Subd. 3. [TERM OF LICENSE: SUSPENSION AND REVOCATION.] Licenses issued under this section are valid for one year and may be suspended by the board for a violation of law or board rule or revoked for what the board determines to be a pattern of willful violations violation of law or board rule. A revocation or suspension is a contested case under sections 14.57 to 14.69 of the administrative procedure act.

Subd. 1a. [RESTRICTIONS ON LICENSE ISSUANCE.] On and after October 1, 1989, the board shall not issue an initial license to any organization if the board, in consultation with the department of revenue, determines that the organization is seeking licensing for the primary purpose of evading or reducing the tax imposed by section 349.212, subdivision 6.

Subd. 2 4. [APPLICATION.] All applications for a license under this section must be on a form prescribed by the board. The board may require the applying organization to submit a copy of its articles of incorporation and other documents it deems necessary.

Subd. 5. [RENEWALS.] The board shall not renew a license issued under this section unless it determines that the organization is in compliance with all laws and rules governing lawful gambling and is not delinquent in filing tax returns or paying taxes required under this chapter. The board may delegate to the director the authority to make determinations required under this subdivision.

Subd. 3 6. [FEES.] The board may issue four classes of organization licenses: a class A license authorizing all forms of lawful gambling; a class B license authorizing all forms of lawful gambling except bingo; a class C license authorizing bingo only; and a class D license authorizing raffles only. The annual license fee for each class of license is:

- (1) $200 for a class A license;
- (2) $125 for a class B license;
- (3) $100 for a class C license; and
- (4) $75 for a class D license board shall not charge a fee for an organization license.

Subd. 7. [PURCHASE OF GAMBLING EQUIPMENT.] An organization may purchase gambling equipment only from a person licensed as a distributor.

Subd. 4 8. [LOCAL INVESTIGATION FEE.] A statutory or home rule charter city or county notified under section 349.213, subdivision 2, may assess an investigation fee on organizations or bingo halls applying for or renewing a license to conduct lawful gambling or operate a bingo hall. An investigation fee may not exceed the following limits:

- (1) for cities of the first class, $500;
- (2) for cities of the second class, $250;
- (3) for all other cities, $100; and
- (4) for counties, $375.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.161, as amended by Laws 1989, First Special Session chapter 1, article 13, section 9, is amended to read:

349.161 [DISTRIBUTOR LICENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [PROHIBITED ACTS; LICENSES REQUIRED.] No person may:

- (1) sell, offer for sale, or furnish gambling equipment for use within the state for gambling purposes, other than for lawful gambling exempt or excluded from licensing under section 349.214, except to an organization licensed for lawful gambling;
- (2) sell, offer for sale, or furnish gambling equipment to ~~an organization licensed~~ for lawful gambling without having obtained a distributor license under this section;
- (3) sell, offer for sale, or furnish gambling equipment for use within the state that is not purchased or obtained from a manufacturer or distributor licensed under this chapter; or

(4) sell, offer for sale, or furnish gambling equipment for use within the state that has the same serial number as another item of gambling equipment of the same type sold or offered for sale or furnished for use in the state by that distributor.

~~No licensed organization may purchase gambling equipment from any person not licensed as a distributor under this section.~~

Subd. 2. [LICENSE APPLICATION.] The board may issue licenses for the sale of gambling equipment to persons who meet the qualifications of this section if the board determines that a license is consistent with the purpose of sections 349.11 to 349.22. Applications must be on a form the board prescribes.

Subd. 3. [QUALIFICATIONS.] A license may not be issued under this section to a person, or to a corporation, firm, or partnership which has as an officer, director, other person in a supervisory or management position, or employee eligible to make sales on behalf of the distributor a person, who:

- (1) has ever been convicted of a felony within the past five years;
- (2) has ever been convicted of a felony involving fraud or misrepresentation or a crime involving gambling;
- (3) has ever been convicted of (i) assault, (ii) a criminal violation involving the use of a firearm, or (iii) making terroristic threats;
- (4) is or has ever been engaged in an illegal business;
- (4) (5) owes $500 or more in delinquent taxes as defined in section 270.72;
- (5) (6) has had a sales and use tax permit revoked by the commissioner of revenue within the last two years; or
- (6) (7) after demand, has not filed tax returns required by the commissioner of revenue.

Subd. 4. [FEES.] The annual fee for a distributor's license is $2,500.

Subd. 5. [PROHIBITION.] (a) No distributor, or employee of a distributor, may also be a wholesale distributor of alcoholic beverages or an employee of a wholesale distributor of alcoholic beverages.

(b) No distributor, distributor's or any representative, agent, affiliate, or employee of a distributor, may be (1) involved directly in the operation conduct of lawful gambling conducted by an organization; (2) keep or assist in the keeping of an organization's financial records, accounts, and inventories; or (3) prepare or assist in the preparation of tax forms and other reporting forms required to be submitted to the state by an organization.

(c) No manufacturer or distributor or person acting as a any representative, agent, affiliate, or employee of a manufacturer or distributor may provide a lessor of gambling premises any compensation, gift, gratuity, premium, or other thing of value.

(d) No distributor, distributor's or any representative, agent, affiliate, or employee of a distributor may participate in any gambling activity at any gambling site or premises where gambling equipment purchased from that distributor is being used in the conduct of lawful gambling.

(e) No distributor, distributor's or any representative, agent, affiliate, or employee of a distributor may alter or modify any gambling equipment, except to add a "last ticket sold" prize sticker.

(f) No distributor or any representative, agent, affiliate, or employee of a distributor may: (1) recruit a person to become a gambling manager of an organization or identify to an organization a person as a candidate to become gambling manager for the organization; or (2) identify for an organization a potential gambling location.

(g) No distributor may purchase gambling equipment from any person not licensed as a manufacturer under section 349.163.

(h) No distributor may sell gambling equipment to any person in Minnesota other than (i) a licensed organization or organization exempt from licensing, or (ii) the governing body of an Indian tribe.

Subd. 6. [REVOCAION AND SUSPENSION.] A license under this section may be suspended by the board for a violation of law or board rule or. A license under this section may be revoked for failure to meet the qualifications in subdivision 3 at any time or revoked for what the board determines to be a pattern of a willful violations violation of law or board rule. A revocation or suspension is a contested case under sections 14.57 to 14.69 of the administrative procedure act.

Subd. 7. [CRIMINAL HISTORY.] The board may request the assistance of the division of gambling enforcement in investigating the background of an applicant for a distributor's license and may reimburse the division of gambling enforcement for the costs thereof. The board has access to all criminal history data compiled by the division of gambling enforcement on licensees and applicants.

Subd. 8. [EMPLOYEES OF DISTRIBUTORS.] Licensed distributors shall provide the board upon request with the names and home addresses of all employees. Each distributor, and employee of a distributor, or a person making sales of gambling equipment on behalf of a distributor must have in their possession a picture identification card approved by the board. No person other than an employee of a licensed distributor shall make any sales on behalf of a licensed distributor.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.162, is amended to read:

349.162 [EQUIPMENT REGISTERED.]

Subdivision 1. [STAMP REQUIRED.] (a) A distributor may not sell, transfer, furnish, or otherwise provide to a person, organization, or distributor, and no person, organization, or distributor may purchase, borrow, accept, or acquire from a distributor gambling equipment unless the equipment has been registered with the board and has a registration stamp affixed. The board shall charge a fee of five cents for each stamp. Each stamp must bear a registration number assigned by the board. A distributor is entitled to a refund for unused stamps and replacement for stamps which are defective or canceled by the distributor.

(b) From January 1, 1991, to June 30, 1992, no distributor, organization, or other person may sell a pull-tab which is not clearly marked "For Sale in Minnesota Only."

(c) On and after July 1, 1992, no distributor, organization, or other person may sell a pull-tab which is not clearly marked "Manufactured in Minnesota For Sale in Minnesota Only."

(d) Paragraphs (b) and (c) do not apply to pull-tabs sold by a distributor to the governing body of an Indian tribe.

Subd. 2. [RECORDS REQUIRED.] A distributor must maintain a record of all gambling equipment which it sells to organizations. The record must include:

(1) the identity of the person or firm from whom the equipment was distributor purchased the equipment;

(2) the registration number of the equipment;

(3) the name and, address, and license or exempt permit number of the organization to which the sale was made;

(4) the date of the sale;

- (5) the name of the person who ordered the equipment; and
- (6) the name of the person who received the equipment;
- (7) the type of equipment;
- (8) the serial number of the equipment;
- (9) the name, form number, or other identifying information for each game; and
- (10) in the case of bingo cards sold on and after January 1, 1991, the individual number of each card.

The invoice for each sale must be retained for at least two $3\frac{1}{2}$ years after the sale is completed and a copy of each invoice is to be delivered to the board in the manner and time prescribed by the board. For purposes of this section, a sale is completed when the gambling equipment is physically delivered to the purchaser.

Each distributor must report monthly to the board, in a form the board prescribes, its sales of each type of gambling equipment. Employees of the division and the division of gambling enforcement may inspect the business premises, books, records, and other documents of a distributor at any reasonable time without notice and without a search warrant.

The board may require that a distributor submit the monthly report and invoices required in this subdivision via magnetic media or electronic data transfer.

Subd. 3. [EXEMPTION.] For purposes of this section, bingo cards or sheets need not be stamped.

Subd. 4. [PROHIBITION.] (a) No person other than a licensed distributor may possess unaffixed registration stamps issued by the board.

(b) Unless otherwise provided in this chapter, no person may possess gambling equipment that has not been stamped and registered with the board.

(c) On and after January 1, 1991, no distributor may:

- (1) sell a bingo card that does not bear an individual number; or
- (2) sell a package of bingo cards that does not contain bingo cards in numerical order.

Subd. 5. [SALES FROM FACILITIES.] (a) All gambling equipment purchased or possessed by a licensed distributor for resale in Minnesota must, prior to the equipment's resale, be unloaded into a sales or storage facility located in Minnesota which the distributor owns or leases; and which has been registered, in advance and in writing, with the division of gambling enforcement as a sales or storage facility of the distributor's. All unregistered gambling equipment and all unaffixed registration stamps owned by, or in the possession of, a licensed distributor in the state of Minnesota shall be stored at a sales or storage facility which has been registered with the division of gambling enforcement. No gambling equipment may be moved from the facility unless the gambling equipment has been first registered with the board.

(b) All sales and storage facilities owned, leased, used, or operated by a licensed distributor may be entered upon and inspected by the employees of the division of gambling enforcement or the director's authorized representatives during reasonable and regular business hours. Obstruction of, or failure to permit, entry and inspection is cause for revocation or suspension of a distributor's licenses and permits issued under this chapter.

(c) Unregistered gambling equipment and unaffixed registration stamps found at any location in Minnesota other than a registered sales or storage facility are contraband under section 349.2125. This paragraph does not apply to unregistered gambling equipment being transported in interstate commerce between locations outside this state, if the interstate shipment is verified by a bill of lading or other valid shipping document.

Subd. 6. [REMOVAL OF EQUIPMENT FROM INVENTORY.] Authorized employees of the board, the division of gambling enforcement of the department of public safety, and the commissioner of revenue may remove gambling equipment from the inventories of distributors and organizations and test that equipment to determine its compliance with all applicable laws and rules. A distributor or organization may return to the manufacturer thereof any gambling equipment which is determined to be in violation of law or rule. The cost to an organization of gambling equipment removed from inventory under this paragraph and found to be in compliance with all applicable law and rules is an allowable expense under section 349.15.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.163, as amended by Laws 1989, First Special Session chapter 1, article 13, section 10, is amended to read:

349.163 [LICENSING OF MANUFACTURERS.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSE REQUIRED.] No manufacturer of gambling equipment may sell any gambling equipment to any person unless the manufacturer has been issued a current and valid license by the board under objective this section and other criteria prescribed by the board by rule.

A manufacturer licensed under this section may not also be directly or indirectly licensed as a distributor under section 349.161, unless the manufacturer (1) does not manufacture any gambling equipment other than paddlewheels, and (2) was licensed as both a manufacturer and distributor on May 1, 1990.

Subd. 1a. [QUALIFICATIONS.] A license may not be issued under this section to a person, or to a corporation, firm, or partnership that has as an officer, director, other person in a supervisory or management position, or employee eligible to make sales on behalf of the distributor, a person, who:

- (1) has ever been convicted of a felony;
- (2) has ever been convicted of a crime involving gambling;
- (3) has ever been convicted of (i) assault, (ii) a criminal violation involving the use of a firearm, or (iii) making terroristic threats;
- (4) is or has ever been engaged in an illegal business;
- (5) owes $500 or more in delinquent taxes as defined in section 270.72;
- (6) has had a sales and use tax permit revoked by the commissioner of revenue within the last two years; or
- (7) after demand, has not filed tax returns required by the commissioner of revenue.

Subd. 1b. [APPLICATIONS; INFORMATION.] An applicant for a manufacturer's license must list on the license application the names and addresses of all subsidiaries, affiliates, and branches in which the applicant has any form of ownership or control, in whole or in part, without regard to whether the subsidiary, affiliate, or branch does business in Minnesota.

Subd. 2. [LICENSE; FEE.] A license under this section is valid for one year. The annual fee for the license is $2,500.

Subd. 2a. [LICENSES; SUSPENSION, REVOCATION.] The board may suspend a license under this section for a violation of law or board rule. The board may revoke a license under this section for (1) a willful violation of law or board rule, or (2) a conviction in another jurisdiction for a criminal violation that is related to gambling, or that would be a felony or gross misdemeanor if committed in Minnesota.

Subd. 3. [PROHIBITED SALES.] (a) A manufacturer may not:

(1) sell gambling equipment to any person not licensed as a distributor unless the manufacturer is also a licensed distributor; or

(2) sell gambling equipment to a distributor in this state that has the same serial number as another item of gambling equipment of the same type that is sold by that manufacturer for use in this state;

(3) from January 1, 1991, to June 30, 1992, sell to any person in Minnesota, other than the governing body of an Indian tribe, a pull-tab on which the manufacturer has not clearly printed the words "For Sale in Minnesota Only";

(4) on and after July 1, 1992, sell to any person in Minnesota, other than the governing body of an Indian tribe, a pull-tab on which the manufacturer has not clearly printed the words "Manufactured in Minnesota For Sale In Minnesota Only"; or

(5) sell a pull-tab marked as required in paragraphs (3) and (4) to any person inside or outside the state, including the governing body of an Indian tribe, who is not a licensed distributor.

(b) On and after July 1, 1992, all pull-tabs sold by a licensed manufacturer to a person in Minnesota must be manufactured in Minnesota.

(c) A manufacturer, affiliate of a manufacturer, or person acting as a representative or agent of a manufacturer, may not provide a lessor of gambling premises or an appointed official any compensation, gift, gratuity, premium, contribution, or other thing of value.

Subd. 4. [INSPECTION OF MANUFACTURERS.] Employees of the division and the division of gambling enforcement may inspect the books, records, inventory, and manufacturing operations business premises of a licensed manufacturer without notice during the normal business hours of the manufacturer.

Subd. 5. [PULL-TAB AND TIPBOARD FLARES.] (a) A manufacturer may not ship or cause to be shipped into this state any deal of pull-tabs or tipboards that does not have its own individual flare as required for that deal by rule of the board. A person other than a manufacturer may not manufacture, alter, modify, or otherwise change a flare for a deal of pull-tabs or tipboards except as allowed by this chapter or board rules.

(b) The flare of each deal of pull-tabs and tipboards sold by a manufacturer in Minnesota must have the Minnesota gambling stamp affixed. The flare, with the stamp affixed, must be placed inside the wrapping of the deal which the flare describes.

(c) Each pull-tab and tipboard flare must bear the following statement printed in letters large enough to be clearly legible:

"Pull-tab (or tipboard) purchasers—This pull-tab (or tipboard) game is not legal in Minnesota unless:

—a Minnesota gambling stamp is affixed to this sheet, and —the serial number handwritten on the gambling stamp is the same as the serial number printed on this sheet and on the pull-tab (or tipboard) ticket you have purchased."

(d) The flare of each pull-tab and tipboard game must bear the serial number of the game, printed in numbers at least one-half inch high.

(e) The flare of each pull-tab and tipboard game must be imprinted at the bottom with a bar code that provides:

- (1) the name of the game;
- (2) the serial number of the game;
- (3) the name of the manufacturer;
- (4) the number of tickets in the deal;
- (5) the odds of winning each prize in the deal; and
- (6) other information the board by rule requires.

The serial number included in the bar code must be the same as the serial number of the tickets included in the deal. A manufacturer who manufactures a deal of pull-tabs must affix to the outside of the box containing that game the same bar code that is imprinted at the bottom of a flare for that deal.

(f) No person may alter the bar code that appears on the outside of a box containing a deal of pull-tabs and tipboards. Possession of a box containing a deal of pull-tabs and tipboards that has a bar code different from the bar code of the deal inside the box is prima facie evidence that the possessor has altered the bar code on the box.

Subd. 6. [SAMPLES OF GAMBLING EQUIPMENT.] The board shall require each licensed manufacturer to submit to the board one or more samples of each item of gambling equipment the manufacturer manufactures for sale in this state. The board shall inspect and test all the equipment it deems necessary to determine the equipment's compliance with law and board rules. Samples required under this subdivision must be approved by the board before the equipment being sampled is sold in this state. The board may request the assistance of the commissioner of public safety and the director of the state lottery division in performing the tests.

Subd. 7. [RECYCLED PAPER.] The board may, after January 1, 1991, by rule require that all pull-tabs sold in Minnesota be manufactured using recycled paper.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.164, is amended to read:

349.164 [BINGO HALL LICENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSE REQUIRED.] No person may lease a facility to more than one individual, corporation, partnership, or organization to conduct bingo without having obtained a current and valid bingo hall license under this section; unless the lessor is a licensed organization.

Subd. 2. [LICENSE APPLICATION.] The board may issue a bingo hall license to persons who meet the qualifications of this section if the board determines that a license is consistent with the purpose of sections 349.11 to 349.22. Applications must be on a form the board prescribes. The board may not issue or renew a bingo hall license unless the conditions of section 349.213, subdivision 2, have been satisfied.

Subd. 3. [QUALIFICATIONS.] A license may not be issued under this section to a person, ~~or to a~~ organization, corporation, firm, or partnership that is not the legal owner of the facility, or to a person, organization, corporation, firm, or partnership which has as an officer, director, or other person in a supervisory or management position a person, who:

- (1) has ever been convicted of a felony within the past five years;
- (2) has ever been convicted of a felony involving fraud or misrepresentation or a crime involving gambling; or
- (3) has ever been convicted of (i) assault, (ii) a criminal violation involving the use of a firearm, or (iii) making terroristic threats;
- (4) owes delinquent taxes in excess of $500 as defined in section 270.72; or

(5) after demand, has not filed tax returns required by the commissioner of revenue.

Subd. 4. [FEES.] The annual fee for a bingo hall license is $2,500.

Subd. 5. [CRIMINAL HISTORY.] The board may request the assistance of the division of gambling enforcement in investigating the background of an applicant for a bingo hall license and may reimburse the division of gambling enforcement for the costs. The board has access to all criminal history data compiled by the bureau of criminal apprehension and the division of gambling enforcement on licensees and applicants.

Subd. 6. [PROHIBITION PROHIBITED ACTS.] No bingo hall licensee, person holding a financial or managerial interest in a bingo hall, or affiliate thereof may also:

(1) be a licensed distributor or licensed manufacturer or affiliate of the distributor or manufacturer under section 349.161 or 349.163 or a wholesale distributor of alcoholic beverages;

Subd. 7. [RESTRICTIONS.] A bingo hall licensee or affiliate of the licensee may not:

(1) provide any staff to conduct or assist in the conduct of bingo or any other form of lawful gambling during the bingo occasion on the premises;

(2) acquire, provide storage or inventory control, or report the use of any gambling equipment used by an organization that conducts bingo lawful gambling on the premises;

(3) provide accounting services to an organization conducting bingo lawful gambling on the premises;

(4) solicit, suggest, encourage, or make any expenditures of gross receipts of an organization from lawful gambling; or

(5) charge any fee to a person at a bingo occasion, without which the person could not play a bingo game or participate in another form of lawful gambling on the premises;

(6) provide assistance or participate in the conduct of lawful gambling on the premises; or

(7) permit more than 21 bingo occasions to be conducted on the premises in any week.

Subd. 8 7. [LEASES.] All of the remuneration to be received from the organization for the conduct of lawful gambling must be stated in the lease. No amount may be paid by the organization or received by the operator of the bingo hall licensee based on the number of participants attending the bingo occasion or participating in lawful gambling on the premises, or based on the gross receipts or profit received by the organization. All provisions of section 349.18 apply to lawful gambling conducted in bingo halls.

Subd. 9 8. [REVOCAION AND SUSPENSION.] A license under this section may be suspended by the board for a violation of law or board rule or revoked for (1) failure to meet the qualifications in subdivision 3 at any time; or ~~revoked for what the board determines to be~~ (2) a ~~pattern of willful violations~~ violation of law or board rule. A revocation or suspension is a contested case under sections 14.57 to 14.69 of the administrative procedure act.

Sec. 22. [349.1641] [LICENSES; SUMMARY SUSPENSION.]

The board may (1) summarily suspend the license of an organization that is more than three months late in filing a tax return required under this chapter, and may keep the suspension in effect until all required returns are filed; and (2) summarily suspend for not more than 90 days any license issued by the board or director for what the board determines are actions detrimental to the integrity of lawful gambling in Minnesota. The board must notify the licensee at least 14 days before suspending the license under this paragraph. A contested case hearing must be held within 20 days of the summary suspension and the administrative law judge's report must be issued within 20 days after the close of the hearing record. In all cases involving summary suspension, the board must issue its final decision within 30 days after receipt of the report of the administrative law judge and subsequent exceptions and argument under section 14.61. When an organization's license is suspended or revoked under this subdivision, the board shall within three days notify all municipalities in which the organization's gambling premises are located, and all licensed distributors in the state.

Sec. 23. [349.165] [PREMISES PERMITS.]

Subdivision 1. [PREMISES PERMIT REQUIRED; APPLICATION.] A licensed organization may not conduct lawful gambling at any site unless it has first obtained from the board a premises permit for the site. The board shall prescribe a form for permit applications, and each application for a permit must be submitted on a separate form. The board may by rule limit the number of premises permits that may be issued to an organization.

Subd. 2. [CONTENTS OF APPLICATION.] An application for a premises permit must contain:

(1) the name and address of the applying organization and of the organization's gambling manager;

(2) a description of the site for which the permit is sought, including its address and, where applicable, its placement within another premises or establishment;

(3) if the site is leased, the name and address of the lessor and information about the lease the board requires, including all rents and other charges for the use of the site; and

(4) other information the board deems necessary to carry out its purposes.

An organization holding a premises permit must notify the board in writing within ten days whenever any material change is made in the above information.

Subd. 3. [FEES.] The board may issue four classes of premises permits, corresponding to the classes of licenses authorized under section 349.16, subdivision 6. The annual fee for each class of permit is:

- (1) $200 for a class A permit;
- (2) $125 for a class B permit;
- (3) $100 for a class C permit; and
- (4) $75 for a class D permit.

Subd. 4. [IDENTIFICATION OF PREMISES.] No organization may seek or accept assistance from a manufacturer or distributor, or a representative, agent, affiliate, or employee of a manufacturer or distributor, in identifying potential locations for gambling conducted by the organization.

Sec. 24. [349.166] [EXCLUSIONS; EXEMPTIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [EXCLUSIONS.] (a) Bingo may be conducted without a license and without complying with sections 349.17, subdivision 1, and 349.18, if it is conducted:

(1) in connection with a county fair, the state fair, or a civic celebration if it is not conducted for more than 12 consecutive days in a calendar year; or

(2) by an organization that conducts four or fewer bingo occasions in a calendar year.

An organization that holds a license to conduct lawful gambling under this chapter may not conduct bingo under this subdivision.

(b) Bingo may be conducted within a nursing home or a senior citizen housing project or by a senior citizen organization without compliance with sections 349.11 to 349.213 if the prizes for a single bingo game do not exceed $10, total prizes awarded at a single bingo occasion do not exceed $200, no more than two bingo occasions are held by the organization or at the facility each week, only members of the organization or residents of the nursing home or housing project are allowed to play in a bingo game, no compensation is paid for any persons who conduct the bingo, a manager is appointed to supervise the bingo, and the manager registers with the board. The gross receipts from bingo conducted under the limitations of this subdivision are exempt from taxation under chapter 297A.

(c) Raffles may be conducted by an organization without complying with sections 349.11 to 349.14 and 349.151 to 349.213 if the value of all raffle prizes awarded by the organization in a calendar year does not exceed $750.

Subd. 2. [EXEMPTIONS.] (a) Lawful gambling may be conducted by an organization as defined in section 349.12, subdivision 12, without complying with sections 349.151 to 349.16; 349.167; 349.168; 349.18; 349.19; and 349.212 if:

(1) the organization conducts lawful gambling on five or fewer days in a calendar year;

(2) the organization does not award more than $50,000 in prizes for lawful gambling in a calendar year;

(3) the organization pays a fee of $25 to the board, notifies the board in writing not less than 30 days before each lawful gambling occasion of the date and location of the occasion, or 60 days for an occasion held in the case of a city of the first class, the types of lawful gambling to be conducted, the prizes to be awarded, and receives an exemption identification number;

(4) the organization notifies the local government unit 30 days before the lawful gambling occasion, or 60 days for an occasion held in a city of the first class;

(5) the organization purchases all gambling equipment and supplies from a licensed distributor; and

(6) the organization reports to the board, on a single-page form prescribed by the board, within 30 days of each gambling occasion, the gross receipts, prizes, expenses, expenditures of net profits from the occasion, and the identification of the licensed distributor from whom all gambling equipment was purchased.

(b) If the organization fails to file a timely report as required by paragraph (a), clause (3) or (6), a $250 penalty is imposed on the organization. Failure to file a timely report does not disqualify the organization as exempt under this paragraph if a report is later filed and the penalty paid.

(c) Merchandise prizes must be valued at their fair market value.

(d) Unused pull-tab and tipboard deals must be returned to the distributor within seven working days after the end of the lawful gambling occasion. The distributor must accept and pay a refund for all returns of unopened and undamaged deals returned under this paragraph.

(e) An organization that is exempt from taxation on purchases of pull-tabs and tipboards under section 349.212, subdivision 4, paragraph (c), must return to the distributor any tipboard or pull-tab deal no part of which is used at the lawful gambling occasion for which it was purchased by the organization.

Subd. 3. [RAFFLES; CERTAIN ORGANIZATIONS.] Sections 349.21 and 349.211, subdivision 3, and the membership requirements of sections 349.14 and 349.20 do not apply to raffles conducted by an organization that directly or under contract to the state or a political subdivision delivers health or social services and that is a 501(c)(3) organization if the prizes awarded in the raffles are real or personal property donated by an individual, firm, or other organization. The person who accounts for the gross receipts, expenses, and profits of the raffles may be the same person who accounts for other funds of the organization.

Subd. 4. [TAXATION.] An organization's receipts from lawful gambling that is exempt from licensing under this section are not subject to the tax imposed by section 297A.02 or 349.212.

Sec. 25. [349.167] [GAMBLING MANAGERS.]

Subdivision 1. [GAMBLING MANAGER REQUIRED.] (a) All lawful gambling conducted by a licensed organization must be under the supervision of a gambling manager. A gambling manager designated by an organization to supervise lawful gambling is responsible for the gross receipts of the organization and for its conduct in compliance with all laws and rules. The organization must maintain, or require the person designated as a gambling manager to maintain, a fidelity bond in the sum or $25,000 in favor of the organization and the state, conditioned on (1) the faithful performance of the manager's duties; and (2) the payment of all taxes due under this chapter on lawful expenditures of gross profits from lawful gambling. The terms of the bond must provide that notice be given to the board in writing not less than 30 days before its cancellation. In the case of conflicting claims against a bond a claim by the state has preference over a claim by the organization.

(b) A person may not act as a gambling manager for more than one organization.

(c) An organization may not conduct lawful gambling without having a gambling manager. The board must be notified in writing of a change in gambling managers. Notification must be made within ten days of the date the gambling manager assumes the manager's duties.

(d) An organization may not have more than one gambling manager at any time.

Subd. 2. [GAMBLING MANAGERS; LICENSES.] A person may not serve as a gambling manager for an organization unless the person possesses a valid gambling manager's license issued by the board. The board may issue a gambling manager's license to a person applying for the license who:

(1) has received training as required in subdivision 5;

(2) has never been convicted of a felony;

(3) within the five years before the date of the license application, has not committed a violation of law or board rule that resulted in the revocation of a license issued by the board;

(4) has never been convicted of a criminal violation involving fraud, theft, tax evasion, misrepresentation, or gambling;

(5) has never been convicted of (i) assault, (ii) a criminal violation involving the use of a firearm, or (iii) making terroristic threats; and

(6) has not engaged in conduct the board determines is contrary to the public health, welfare, or safety or the integrity of lawful gambling.

A gambling manager's license is valid for one year unless suspended or revoked. The annual fee for a gambling manager's license is $100.

Subd. 4. [SUSPENSION; REVOCATION.] The board may suspend or revoke, as provided in board rules, a gambling manager's license for a violation of law or board rule. A suspension or revocation is a contested case under sections 14.57 to 14.69 of the administrative procedure act.

Subd. 5. [TRAINING OF GAMBLING MANAGERS.] (a) The board shall by rule require all persons licensed as gambling managers to receive periodic training in laws and rules governing lawful gambling. The rules must contain the following requirements:

(1) each gambling manager must have received such training before being issued a new license;

(2) each gambling manager applying for a renewal of a license must have received training within the three years prior to the date of application for the renewal; and

(3) the training required by this subdivision may be provided by a person, firm, association, or organization authorized by the board to provide the training. Before authorizing a person, firm, association, or organization to provide training, the board must determine that:

(i) the provider and all of the provider's personnel conducting the training are qualified to do so;

(ii) the curriculum to be used fully and accurately covers all elements of lawful gambling law and rules that the board determines are necessary for a gambling manager to know and understand;

(iii) the fee to be charged for participants in the training sessions is fair and reasonable; and

(iv) the training provider has an adequate system for documenting completion of training.

The rules may provide for differing training requirements for gambling managers based on the class of license held by the gambling manager's organization.

The board or the director may provide the training required by this subdivision using employees of the division.

Subd. 6. [CRIMINAL HISTORY.] The board may request the assistance of the division of gambling enforcement in investigating the background of an applicant for a gambling manager's license and may reimburse the division of gambling enforcement for the costs thereof. The board has access to all criminal history data compiled by the division of gambling enforcement on licensees and applicants.

Subd. 7. [RECRUITMENT OF GAMBLING MANAGERS.] No organization may seek or accept assistance from a manufacturer or distributor, or a representative, agent, affiliate, or employee of a manufacturer or distributor, in identifying or recruiting candidates to become a gambling manager for the organization.

Subdivision 1. [REGISTRATION OF EMPLOYEES.] A person may not receive compensation for participating in the conduct of lawful gambling as an employee of a licensed organization unless the person has first registered with the board on a form the board prescribes. The form must require each registrant to provide: (1) the person's name, address, and social security number; (2) a current photograph; (3) the name, address, and license number of the employing organization; and (4) a listing of all employment in the conduct of lawful gambling within the previous three years, including the name and address of each employing organization and the circumstances under which the employment was terminated.

Subd. 2. [IDENTIFICATION OF EMPLOYEES.] The board shall issue to each person registering under subdivision 1 a registration number and identification card, which must include the employee's photograph. Each person receiving compensation for the conduct of lawful gambling must wear the identification card provided by the board at all times while conducting the lawful gambling.

Subd. 3. [COMPENSATION.] Compensation to persons who participate in the conduct of lawful gambling may be paid only to active members of the conducting organization or its auxiliary, or the spouse or surviving spouse of an active member, except that the following persons may receive compensation without being active members: (1) sellers of pull-tabs, tipboards, raffle tickets, paddle-wheel tickets, and bingo paper; (2) accountants performing auditing or bookkeeping services for the organization; and (3) attorneys providing legal services to the organization. The board may by rule allow other persons not active members of the organization to receive compensation.

Subd. 4. [AMOUNTS PAID.] The amounts of compensation that may be paid under this section may be provided for in a schedule of compensation adopted by the board by rule. In adopting a schedule, the board must consider the nature of the participation and the types of lawful gambling participated in.

Subd. 5. [COMPENSATION RECORDS.] An organization paying compensation to persons who participate in the conduct of lawful gambling must maintain a compensation record. The record must be retained for at least two years after the month in which the compensation is paid. The record must itemize each payment made to each recipient of compensation and must include the amount and the full name, address, and membership status of each recipient.

Subd. 6. [COMPENSATION PAID BY CHECK.] Compensation paid by an organization in connection with lawful gambling must be in the form of a check drawn on the organization's gambling account, as specified in section 349.19, and paid directly to the employee.

Subd. 7. [PENALTY.] (a) An organization that makes payment of compensation, or causes compensation to be made, that violates subdivision 4 must be assessed a civil penalty not to exceed $1,000 for each violation of subdivision 4. A second violation within 12 months of notification by the board to the organization of the first violation must result in suspension of the organization's gambling license for a period of three months, in addition to any civil penalty assessed. A third violation within 12 months of the board's notification to the organization of the second violation must result in revocation of the organization's gambling license in addition to any civil penalty assessed.

(b) Upon each violation, the director shall notify the organization in writing of its violation and of the penalties under this subdivision for future violations. Notification is effective upon mailing.

(c) For purposes of this subdivision, a violation consists of a payroll period or compensation date that includes payments made in violation of subdivision 4.

Subd. 8. [PERCENTAGE OF GROSS PROFIT PAID.] A licensed organization may pay a percentage of the gross profit from raffle ticket sales to a nonprofit organization that sells raffle tickets for the licensed organization.

Sec. 27. [349.169] [FILING OF PRICES.]

Subdivision 1. [FILING REQUIRED.] All manufacturers and distributors must file with the director, not later than the first day of each month, the prices at which the manufacturer or distributor will sell all gambling equipment in that month. The filing must be on a form the director prescribes. Prices filed must include all charges the manufacturer or distributor makes for each item of gambling equipment sold, including all volume discounts, exclusive of transportation costs. All filings are effective on the first day of the month for which they are filed, except that a manufacturer or distributor may amend a filed price within five days of filing it.

Subd. 2. [COPIES.] The director shall provide copies of price filings to any person requesting them and may charge a reasonable fee for the copies. Any person may examine price filings in the division office at no cost, and the director shall make the filings available for that purpose.

Subd. 3. [SALES AT FILED PRICES.] No manufacturer may sell to a distributor, and no distributor may sell to an organization, any gambling equipment for any price other than a price the manufacturer or distributor has filed with the director under subdivision 1, exclusive of transportation costs.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.17, as amended by Laws 1989, chapter 334, article 2, section 26, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [BINGO OCCASIONS.] Not more than ~~six~~ seven bingo occasions each week may be conducted by an organization. At least 15 bingo games must be held at each occasion and a bingo occasion must continue for at least 1½ hours but not more than four consecutive hours.

Subd. 2. [BINGO ON LEASED PREMISES.] (a) ~~A person or corporation, other than an organization, which leases any premises that it owns to two or more organizations for purposes including the conduct of bingo occasions, may not allow more than 18 bingo occasions to be conducted on the premises in any week.~~

~~(b) If an organization conducts bingo on premises it does not own, the organization must provide the board with the name of the owner and lessor of the premises, copies of all agreements between the organization and the owner or lessor, and the names of employees of the owner or lessor who will be responsible for the premises during the bingo occasion held by the organization.~~

~~(c) During any bingo occasion held conducted by an organization on premises it does not own, the organization shall be is directly responsible for the:~~

~~(1) staffing of the bingo occasion;~~

~~(2) conducting of lawful gambling during the bingo occasion;~~

~~(3) acquiring, storage, inventory control, and reporting of all gambling equipment used by the organization; and~~

~~(4) receipt, accounting, and all expenditures of gross receipts from lawful gambling; and~~

~~(5) preparation of the bingo packets.~~

Subd. 2a. [DISTRIBUTOR LICENSE EXEMPTION FOR LESSOR.] As part of a lease agreement on a leased bingo premises, the lessor may furnish bingo equipment without being a licensed distributor. For purposes of this section, "furnish" does not include the right to sell or offer for sale.

Subd. 3. Each bingo winner must be determined and every prize shall be awarded and delivered the same day on which the bingo occasion is conducted.

Subd. 4. [CHECKERS.] One or more checkers must be engaged for each bingo occasion. The checker or checkers must record, on a form the board provides, the number of cards played in each game and the prizes awarded to recorded cards. The form must provide for the inclusion of the registration number of each card and must include a checker's certification that the figures recorded are correct to the best of the checker's knowledge.

Subd. 5. [BINGO CARD NUMBERING.] (a) The board shall by rule require that all licensed organizations: (1) conduct bingo only using liquid daubers on cards that bear an individual number recorded by the distributor; (2) sell all bingo cards only in the order of the numbers appearing on the cards; and (3) use each bingo card for no more than one bingo occasion. In lieu of the requirements of clauses (2) and (3), a licensed organization may electronically record the sale of each bingo card at each bingo occasion using an electronic recording system approved by the board.

(b) The requirements of paragraph (a) do not apply to a licensed organization that (1) has never received gross receipts from bingo in excess of $150,000 in any year, and (2) does not pay compensation to any person for participating in the conduct of lawful gambling.

Sec. 29. [349.172] [PULL-TABS; INFORMATION REQUIRED TO BE POSTED.]

An organization selling pull-tabs must post for each deal of pull-tabs all major prizes that have been awarded for pull-tabs purchased from that deal. The information must be posted prominently at the point of sale of the deal. An easily legible pull-tab flare that lists prizes in that deal, and on which prizes are marked or crossed off as they are awarded, satisfies the requirement of this section that major prizes be posted, provided that a separate flare is posted for each deal of pull-tabs. An organization must post or mark off each major prize immediately upon awarding the prize. A "major prize" in a deal of pull-tabs is any prize that is at least 50 times the face value of any pull-tab in the deal.

Sec. 30. [349.174] [PULL-TABS; DEADLINE FOR USE.]

A deal of pull-tabs and tipboards received by an organization before September 1, 1989, must be put into play by that organization before September 1, 1990, unless the deal bears a serial number that allows it to be traced back to its manufacturer and to the distributor who sold it to the organization. An organization in possession on and after September 1, 1990, of a deal of pull-tabs and tipboards the organization received before September 1, 1989, may not put such a deal in play but must remove it from the organization's inventory and return it to the manufacturer.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.18, as amended by Laws 1989, chapter 334, article 2, sections 27 and 28, is amended to read:

349.18 [PREMISES USED FOR GAMBLING.]

Subdivision 1. [LEASE OR OWNERSHIP REQUIRED.] An organization may conduct lawful gambling only on premises it owns or leases. Leases must be for a period of one year and must be ~~in~~ writing on a form prescribed by the board. Copies of all leases must be made available to employees of the division and the division of gambling enforcement on request. A lease may not provide for payments determined directly or indirectly by the receipts or profits from lawful gambling. The board may prescribe by rule limits on the amount of rent which an organization may pay to a lessor for premises leased for lawful gambling. Any rule adopted by the board limiting the amount of rent to be paid may only be effective for leases entered into, or renewed, after the effective date of the rule.

No person, distributor, manufacturer, lessor, or organization other than the licensed organization leasing the space may conduct any activity ~~in a~~ on the leased space premises during times when lawful gambling is being conducted in the space on the premises.

Subd. 1a. [STORAGE OF GAMBLING EQUIPMENT.] (a) Gambling equipment owned by or in the possession of a ~~licensed an~~ licensed an organization must be kept at a licensed gambling premises owned or operated by the organization, or at other storage sites within the state that the organization has notified the board are being used as gambling equipment storage sites. At each storage site or licensed premises, the organization must have the invoices or true and correct copies of the invoices for the purchase of all gambling equipment at the site or premises. Gambling equipment owned by an organization may not be kept at a distributor's office, warehouse, storage unit, or other place of the distributor's business.

(b) Gambling equipment, other than devices for selecting bingo numbers, owned by a ~~licensed an~~ licensed an organization must be secured and kept separate from gambling equipment owned by other persons, organizations, distributors, or manufacturers consistent with the organization's internal controls filed with the board.

(c) Gambling equipment kept in violation of this subdivision is contraband under section 349.2125.

(d) A ~~licensed An~~ licensed An organization may transport gambling equipment it owns or possesses between approved gambling equipment storage sites and to and from licensed distributors.

Subd. 2. [EXCEPTIONS.] (a) A ~~licensed An~~ licensed An organization may conduct raffles on a premise it does not own or lease.

(b) A licensed organization may with the permission of the board, conduct bingo on premises it does not own or lease for up to ~~six~~ 12 consecutive days in a calendar year, in connection with a county fair, the state fair, or civil a civic celebration.

(c) A licensed organization may, after compliance with section 349.213, conduct lawful gambling on premises other than the organization's licensed premise for one day per year for not more than 12 hours that day. A lease for that time period for the exempted premises must accompany the request to the board.

Subd. 3. [PROCEEDS FROM RENTAL.] Rental proceeds from premises owned by a licensed organization and leased or sub-leased to one or more other licensed organizations for the purposes of conducting lawful gambling shall not be reported as gambling proceeds under this chapter.

Subd. 4. [PROHIBITION.] (a) An organization may not pay rent to itself or to any of its affiliates for use of space for conducting lawful gambling.

(b) An organization may not pay rent for space for conducting lawful gambling from any account or fund other than the organization's separate gambling account.

Subd. 5. [CERTAIN AGREEMENTS PROHIBITED.] An organization may not enter into or be a party to a lending agreement under which any of the organization's receipts from lawful gambling are pledged as collateral for a loan.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.19, as amended by Laws 1989, chapter 334, article 2, sections 29, 30, 32, and 33, and Laws 1989, First Special Session chapter 1, article 13, section 11, is amended to read:

349.19 [RECORDS AND REPORTS.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIRED RECORD OF RECEIPTS.] A licensed organization must keep a record of each occasion on which it conducts gambling, including each bingo occasion and each day on which other forms of lawful gambling are conducted. The record must include gross receipts, quantities of free plays if any, expenses, prizes, and profits gross profit. The board may by rule provide for the methods by which expenses are documented. Gross receipts for bingo include any amount received by the organization which has been paid by a person at the bingo occasion to play the game, without which the player could not play the game. In the case of bingo, gross receipts must be compared to the checkers' records for the occasion by a person who did not sell cards for the occasion. Separate records must be kept for bingo and all other forms of lawful gambling.

Subd. 2. [ACCOUNTS.] Gross receipts from lawful gambling by each organization at each licensed permitted premises must be segregated from all other revenues of the conducting organization and placed in a separate account. All expenditures for expenses, taxes, and lawful purposes must be made from the separate account except in the case of expenditures previously approved by the organization's membership for emergencies as defined by board rule. The name and address of the bank and the account number for that separate account for that licensed premises, and the names of organization members authorized as signatories on the separate account must be provided to the board when the application is submitted. Changes in the information must be submitted to the board at least ten days before the change is made. Gambling receipts must be deposited into the gambling bank account within one business day three days of completion of the bingo occasion, deal, or game from which they are received, and deposit records must be sufficient to allow determination of deposits made from each bingo occasion, deal, or game. The person who accounts for gambling gross receipts and profits may not be the same person who accounts for other revenues of the organization.

Subd. 3. [EXPENDITURES.] All expenditures of gross profits from lawful gambling must be itemized as to payee, purpose, amount, and date of payment, and must be in compliance with section 349.154. Authorization of the expenditures must be recorded in the regular monthly meeting minutes of the licensed organization. Checks for expenditures of gross profits must be signed by at least two persons authorized by board rules to sign the checks.

Subd. 4. [DISCREPANCIES.] If at a bingo occasion a discrepancy of more than $20 is found between the gross receipts as reported by the checkers and the gross receipts determined by adding the cash receipts, the discrepancy must be reported to the board within five days of the bingo occasion.

Subd. 5. [REPORTS.] A licensed organization must report to the board and to its membership monthly, or quarterly in the case of a licensed organization which does not report more than $1,000 in gross receipts from lawful gambling in any calendar quarter, on its gross receipts, expenses, profits, and expenditure of profits from lawful gambling. If the organization conducts both bingo and other forms of lawful gambling, the figures for both must be reported separately. In addition, a licensed organization must report to the board monthly on its purchases of gambling equipment and must include the type, quantity, and dollar amount from each supplier separately. The reports must be on a form the board prescribes. Submission of the report required by section 16 satisfies the requirement for reporting monthly to the board on expenditure of net profits.

Subd. 6. [PRESERVATION OF RECORDS.] Records required to be kept by this section must be preserved by a licensed organization for at least 3½ years and may be inspected by the commissioner of revenue, the commissioner of gaming, or the commissioner of public safety at any reasonable time without notice or a search warrant.

Subd. 7. [TAX RECORDS.] The board may by rule require each licensed organization to provide copies of forms it files with the United States department of the treasury which are required for organizations exempt from income tax.

Subd. 8. [TERMINATION PLAN.] Upon termination of a license for any reason, a licensed organization must notify the board in writing within 15 calendar days of the license termination date of its plan for disposal of registered gambling equipment and distribution of remaining gambling proceeds. Before implementation, a plan must be approved by the board. The board may accept or reject a plan and order submission of a new plan or amend a proposed plan. The board may specify a time for submission of new or amended plans or for completion of an accepted plan.

Subd. 9. [ANNUAL AUDIT; FILING REQUIREMENT.] An organization licensed under this chapter must have an annual financial audit of its lawful gambling activities and funds performed by an independent auditor licensed by the state of Minnesota or performed by an independent accountant who has had prior approval of the board. The board shall by rule prescribe standards for the audit, which must provide for the reconciliation of the organization's gambling account or accounts with the organization's reports filed under subdivision 5 and section 16. A complete, true, and correct copy of the audit report must be filed with the board upon completion of the audit.

Subd. 10. [PULL-TAB RECORDS.] The board shall by rule require a licensed organization to require each winner of a pull-tab prize of $50 or more to present identification in the form of a drivers license, Minnesota identification card, or other identification the board deems sufficient to allow the identification and tracing of the winner. The rule must require the organization to retain winning pull-tabs of $50 or more, and the identification of the winner of the pull-tab, for 3½ years.

Subd. 11. [INFORMATION MADE PART OF ORGANIZATION MINUTES.] A licensed organization which receives a copy of a written audit under subdivision 9, or an audit or compliance report prepared by an agency of the state, must place the audit report or compliance report in the minutes of the next meeting of the organization following receipt of the report. Copies of such minutes must be made available to all members of the organization upon request.

Sec. 33. [349.191] [SALES ON CREDIT.]

Subdivision 1. [CREDIT RESTRICTION.] A manufacturer may not offer or extend to a distributor, and a distributor may not extend to an organization, credit for a period of more than 30 days for the sale of any gambling equipment. No right of action exists for the collection of any claim based on credit prohibited by this subdivision. The 30-day period allowed by this subdivision begins with the day immediately following the day of invoice and includes all successive days, including Sundays and holidays, to and including the 30th successive day.

Subd. 2. [INVOICES.] All invoices prepared by a manufacturer or distributor and presented as part of a credit transaction for the purchase of gambling equipment must clearly bear the words "Notice: State Law Prohibits the Extension of Credit For This Sale For More Than 30 Days."

Subd. 3. [RULES.] Any rule of the board which requires a manufacturer to report to the board any distributor who is delinquent in payment for gambling equipment must provide that a distributor is subject to the rule if the distributor is more than 30 days delinquent in payment to a manufacturer.

Subd. 4. [CREDIT; POSTDATED CHECKS.] For purposes of this subdivision, "credit" includes acceptance by a manufacturer or distributor of a postdated check in payment for gambling equipment.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 349.212, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [COLLECTION; DISPOSITION.] The taxes imposed by this section are due and payable to the commissioner of revenue at the time when the gambling tax return is required to be filed. Returns covering the taxes imposed under this section must be filed with the commissioner of revenue on or before the 20th day of the month following the close of the previous calendar month. The commissioner may require that the returns be filed via magnetic media or electronic data transfer. The proceeds, along with the revenue received from all license fees and other fees under sections 349.11 to 349.21 and 349.211, 349.212, and 349.213, must be paid to the state treasurer for deposit in the general fund.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.2122, is amended to read:

349.2122 [MANUFACTURERS; REPORTS TO THE COMMISSIONER OF REVENUE; PENALTY.]

A manufacturer licensed with by the board who sells pull-tabs and tipboards to a licensed distributor licensed by the board must file with the commissioner of revenue, on a form prescribed by the commissioner, a report of pull-tabs and tipboards sold to licensed distributors any person in the state, including the established governing body of Indian tribes recognized by the United States Department of the Interior. The report must be filed monthly on or before the 25th day of the month succeeding the month in which the sale was made. The commissioner may require that the report be submitted via magnetic media or electronic data transfer. The commissioner of revenue may inspect the books, records, and inventory of a licensed manufacturer without notice during the normal business hours of the manufacturer. Any person violating this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.2123, is amended to read:

349.2123 [CERTIFIED PHYSICAL INVENTORY.]

The board or commissioner of revenue may, upon request, require a licensed distributor to furnish a certified physical inventory of the pull-tabs and tipboards all gambling equipment in stock. The inventory must contain the information required by the board or the commissioner.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.213, is amended to read:

349.213 [LOCAL AUTHORITY.]

Subdivision 1. [LOCAL REGULATION.] (a) A statutory or home rule city or county has the authority to adopt more stringent regulation of ~~any form~~ of lawful gambling within its jurisdiction, including the prohibition of ~~any form~~ of lawful gambling, and may require a permit for the conduct of gambling exempt from licensing under section 349.214. The fee for a permit issued under this subdivision may not exceed $100. The authority granted by this subdivision does not include the authority to require a license or permit to conduct gambling by organizations or sales by distributors licensed by the board. The authority granted by this subdivision does not include the authority to require an organization to make specific expenditures of more than ten percent from its net profits derived from lawful gambling. For the purposes of this subdivision, net profits are profits less amounts expended for allowable expenses. A statutory or home rule charter city or a county may not require an organization conducting lawful gambling within its jurisdiction to make an expenditure to the city or county as a condition to operate within that city or county, except as authorized under section 349.16, subdivision 4, or 349.212; provided, however, that an ordinance requirement that such organizations must contribute ten percent of their net profits derived from lawful gambling to a fund administered and regulated by the responsible local unit of government without cost to such fund, for disbursement by the responsible local unit of government of the receipts for lawful purposes, is not considered an expenditure to the city or county nor a tax under section 349.212, and is valid and lawful.

(b) A statutory or home rule city or county may by ordinance require that a licensed organization conducting lawful gambling within its jurisdiction expend all or a portion of its expenditures for lawful purposes on lawful purposes conducted or located within the city's or county's trade area. Such an ordinance must define the city's or county's trade area and must specify the percentage of lawful purpose expenditures which must be expended within the trade area. A trade area defined by a city under this subdivision must include each city contiguous to the defining city.

(c) A more stringent regulation or prohibition of lawful gambling adopted by a political subdivision under this subdivision must apply equally to all forms of lawful gambling within the jurisdiction of the political subdivision.

Subd. 2. [LOCAL APPROVAL.] Before issuing or renewing ~~an organization license~~ a premises permit or bingo hall license, the board must notify the city council of the statutory or home rule city in which the organization's premises or the bingo hall is located or, if the premises or hall is located outside a city, the county board of the county and the town board of the town where the premises or hall is located. The board may require organizations or bingo halls to notify the appropriate local government at the time of application. This required notification is sufficient to constitute the notice required by this subdivision. ~~If the city council or county board adopts a resolution disapproving the license and so informs the board within 60 days of receiving notice of the application, the license may not be issued or renewed. The board may not issue or renew a premises permit or bingo hall license unless the organization submits a resolution from the city council or county board approving the premises permit or bingo hall license. The resolution must have been adopted within 60 days of the date of application for the new or renewed permit or license.~~

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.30, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. "Gambling devices" means slot machines, roulette wheels, punchboards, and pin ball machines which return coins or slugs, chips, or tokens of any kind, which are redeemable in merchandise or cash device" has the meaning given it in section 609.75, subdivision 4.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.31, is amended to read:

349.31 [GAMBLING DEVICE; POSSESSION OF.]

Subdivision 1. [INTENTIONAL POSSESSION; WILLFUL KEEPING.] The intentional possession or willful keeping of a gambling device on a licensed premises is cause for the suspension or revocation of any license under which the licensed business is carried on upon the premises where the gambling device is found, provided that possession of gambling equipment as defined in section 349.12, subdivision 17, which is used for lawful gambling authorized by this chapter, and the manufacture of gambling devices for use in jurisdictions where use of the gambling device is legal as provided for by section 349.40 shall not be cause for revocation of a license.

Subd. 2. [SUSPENSION AND REVOCATION OF LICENSES.] All licenses under which any licensed business is permitted to be carried on upon the licensed premises shall be suspended or revoked if the intentional possession or willful keeping of any such gambling devices upon the licensed premises is established, notwithstanding that it may not be made to appear that such devices have actually been used or operated for the purpose of gambling.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.32, is amended to read:

349.32 [ISSUING AUTHORITY TO SUSPEND OR REVOKE.]

The proceedings for suspension or revocation shall be had are held before the issuing authority, which ~~shall have~~ has the power to suspend or revoke the license or licenses involved, as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.34, is amended to read:

349.34 [PROCEEDINGS BEFORE ISSUING AUTHORITY; ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE.]

~~Upon the receipt of such information from any of the peace officers referred to in section 349.33, if any~~ If an issuing authority, on receipt of information from a peace officer described in section 349.33, is of the opinion that cause exists for the suspension or revocation of any such a license, then that the authority shall issue an order to show cause directed to the licensee of the premises, stating the ground upon which the proceeding is based and requiring the licensee to appear and show cause at a time and place, within the county in which the licensed premises are located, not less than ten days after the date of the order, why the license should not be suspended or revoked. That order to show cause shall be served upon the licensee in the manner prescribed by law for the service of summons in a civil action, or by certified mail, not less than eight days before the date fixed for the hearing thereof. A copy of the order shall forthwith be mailed to the owner of the premises, as shown by the records in the office of the county recorder, at the owner's last known post office address. A copy of the order shall at the same time be mailed to any other issuing authority, of which the authority issuing the order to show cause has knowledge, by which other license to that licensee may have been issued, and any such other authority may participate in the suspension or revocation proceedings after notifying the licensee and the officer or authority holding the hearing of its intention so to do on or before the date of hearing, and after the hearing take such action as it could have taken had it instituted the suspension or revocation proceedings in the first instance.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.35, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [~~SUSPENSION; REVOCATION; STAY; APPEAL.~~] If, upon the hearing of the order to show cause, it appears that the licensee intentionally possessed or willfully kept upon the licensed premises any gambling device, then the license or licenses under which the licensed business is operated on the licensed premises, shall be suspended or revoked. The order of suspension or revocation shall not be enforced during the period allowed by section 349.39 for taking an appeal.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.36, is amended to read:

349.36 [DUTIES OF COUNTY ATTORNEY.]

The county attorney of the county in which the hearing is held, or the city attorney if the issuing authority is the city, shall attend the hearing, interrogate the witnesses, and advise the issuing authority. ~~The county attorney shall also, and appear for the issuing authority on any appeal taken pursuant to the provisions of section 349.39.~~

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.38, is amended to read:

349.38 [PROPERTY OWNERS LIABILITY.]

When a license is suspended or revoked under the provisions of sections 349.30 to 349.39, the owner of the premises upon which any licensed business has been operated shall not be penalized by reason thereof unless it is established that the owner had knowledge of the existence of the gambling devices resulting in license suspension or revocation.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.39, is amended to read:

349.39 [APPEAL TO DISTRICT COURT; STAY; CONTINUANCE UNDER BOND; HEARING UPON ONE YEAR LIMITATION ON PREMISES.]

Any licensee, or any owner of licensed premises, aggrieved by an order of an issuing authority suspending or revoking any license may appeal from that order to the district court of the county in which the licensee resides by serving a notice of the appeal upon the issuing authority or the clerk thereof. The notice of appeal shall state that the person appealing takes an appeal to that district court from the order suspending or revoking the license or licenses, describing them and identifying the order appealed from. This notice shall be served within 15 days from the date of service of the order appealed from, and the same, with proof of service thereof, shall be filed with the court administrator of the district court of the proper county. The appeal shall stand for trial at the next term of the district court following the filing of the notice of appeal, without the service of any notice of trial, and shall be tried in the district court de novo. The trial shall be by jury if the appellant shall so demand. The licensee may continue to operate the licensed business or businesses until the final disposition of such appeal. If the district court upon the appeal shall determine that any license involved in the appeal should be suspended or revoked, it may, nevertheless, in its discretion permit the continuance of the licensed business under a bond in the amount and in the form and containing the conditions prescribed by the court. The district court on the appeal, or in a separate proceeding, may permit the issuance of a new license to a different licensee before the expiration of the period of one year specified in section 349.35, subdivision 2, upon such terms and conditions imposed by the court as will insure that no gambling device shall thereafter be maintained upon the licensed premises.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.50, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [VIDEO GAME OF CHANCE.] "Video game of chance" means games or devices that simulate games commonly referred to as poker, blackjack, craps, hi-lo, roulette or other common gambling forms, though not offering any type of pecuniary award or gain to players. The term also includes any video game having one or more of the following characteristics:

(1) it is primarily a game of chance, and has no substantial elements of skill involved;

(2) it awards game credits or replays and contains a meter or device which records unplayed credits or replays and contains a device that permits them to be canceled.

Sec. 47. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.55, is amended to read:

349.55 [GAME SPECIFICATIONS.]

No payment may be made directly from any game or in connection with the operation of any device. Each game must contain a random character generator, and any internal meter must be nonresettable. Any game canceling replays or credits must cancel them no more than one at a time. A video game of chance may not contain or have attached to it any switch, lever, button, or other device capable of canceling replays or credits in any way other than by playing the game offered by the machine. A video game of chance must be programmed and must operate in such a way that all credits accumulated on a game must automatically cancel within 60 seconds of the completion of a play. No person may cancel replays or credits on a video game of chance in any way other than by playing the game offered by the machine. A video game of chance may not be restarted after cancellation of all accumulated credits except on insertion of a coin.

Sec. 48. [349.61] [REPEAL; TERMINATION OF LICENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [REPEAL.] Section 1 and sections 349.50; 349.501; 349.502; 349.51; 349.52; 349.53; 349.54; 349.55; 349.56; 349.57; 349.58; 349.59; and 349.60 are repealed January 1, 1992. All licenses issued under sections 349.51 and 349.52 in effect on that date expire on that date. The commissioner of finance shall on that date transfer all money in the video gaming license account to the general fund.

Subd. 2. [NOT TO AFFECT CERTAIN COMPACTS.] Nothing in subdivision 1 is intended to affect the validity of any compact entered into before or after the effective date of this section between the state and the governing body of an Indian tribe that governs the conduct of any form of gambling on Indian lands.

Sec. 49. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349A.02, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [COMPENSATION INCENTIVE PLAN.] The compensation of employees in the division is as provided in chapter 43A. Subject to the provisions of section 43A.18, subdivision 1, the commissioner of employee relations director may, at the request of the director, develop and implement a plan for making incentive payments to employees of the division whose primary responsibilities are in marketing.

Sec. 50. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349A.06, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [QUALIFICATIONS.] (a) The director may not contract with a retailer who:

- (1) is under the age of 18;
- (2) is in business solely as a seller of lottery tickets;
- (3) owes $500 or more in delinquent taxes as defined in section 270.72;
- (4) has been convicted within the previous five years of a felony or gross misdemeanor, any crime involving fraud or misrepresentation, or a gambling-related offense;
- (5) is a member of the immediate family, residing in the same household, as the director, board member, or any employee of the division; or
- (6) in the director's judgment does not have the financial stability or responsibility to act as a lottery retailer, or whose contracting as a lottery retailer would adversely affect the public health, welfare, and safety, or endanger the security and integrity of the lottery; or
- (7) is a currency exchange, as defined in section 53A.01.

A contract entered into before August 1, 1990, which violates clause (7) may continue in effect until its expiration but may not be renewed.

(b) An organization, firm, partnership, or corporation that has a stockholder who owns more than five percent of the business or the stock of the corporation, an officer, or director, that does not meet the requirements of paragraph (a), clause (4), is not eligible to be a lottery retailer under this section.

(c) The restrictions under paragraph (a), clause (4), do not apply to an organization, partnership, or corporation if the director determines that the organization, partnership, or firm has terminated its relationship with the individual whose actions directly contributed to the disqualification under this subdivision.

Sec. 51. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349A.06, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [CRIMINAL HISTORY.] The director may request the director of gambling enforcement to investigate all applicants for lottery retailer contracts to determine their compliance with the requirements of subdivision 2. The director may issue a temporary contract, valid for not more than 90 days, to an applicant pending the completion of the investigation or a final determination of qualifications under this section. The director has access to all criminal history data compiled by the director of gambling enforcement on any person (1) holding or applying for a retailer contract, (2) any person holding a lottery vendor contract or who has submitted a bid on such a contract, and (3) any person applying for employment with the lottery.

Sec. 52. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 609.75, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [GAMBLING DEVICE.] A gambling device is a contrivance which for a consideration affords the player an opportunity to obtain something of value, other than free plays, automatically from the machine or otherwise, the award of which is determined principally by chance. "Gambling device" includes any video game of chance, as defined in section 349.50, subdivision 8, that is not in compliance with sections 349.50 to 349.60.

Sec. 53. [TRANSPORTATION OF UNSTAMPED DEALS; APPLICABILITY.]

Until January 1, 1991, Minnesota Statutes, section 349.2127, subdivision 4, does not prevent the otherwise lawful transfer of gambling equipment to a licensed facility in Minnesota from a facility in an adjoining state which is owned and operated by the licensed Minnesota distributor who makes the transfer.

Sec. 54. [LEGISLATIVE FINDING.]

The legislature finds and determines that, because of (1) the difficulty of ensuring the security and integrity of pull-tabs when they are manufactured in another state, and (2) the enhanced inspection and regulation of the manufacture of pull-tabs, and the consequent enhancement of their security and integrity that would result from their manufacture in Minnesota, it is necessary and desirable that all pull-tabs sold in the state after June 30, 1992, be required to be manufactured in Minnesota.

Sec. 55. [REPEALER.]

(a) Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 349.14; and 349.214, subdivisions 1, 1a, 3, and 4; Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.151, subdivision 4a; and Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 349.214, subdivision 2, are repealed.

(b) Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, sections 349.20 and 349.21, are repealed.

(c) Laws 1989, First Special Session chapter 1, article 13, section 27, is repealed.

Sec. 56. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 55, paragraph (c), is effective the day following final enactment. Sections 23; 25; 26; 28, subdivision 5; 47; and 55, paragraph (b), are effective January 1, 1991.

ARTICLE 2

PENALTY PROVISIONS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.2125, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CONTRABAND DEFINED.] The following are contraband:

- (1) all pull-tab or tipboard deals that do not have stamps affixed to them as provided in section 349.162;
- (2) all pull-tab or tipboard deals in the possession of any unlicensed person, firm, or organization, whether stamped or unstamped;
- (3) any container used for the storage and display of any contraband pull-tab or tipboard deals as defined in clauses (1) and (2);
- (4) all currency, checks, and other things of value used for pull-tab or tipboard transactions not expressly permitted under this chapter, and any cash drawer, cash register, or any other container used for illegal pull-tab or tipboard transactions including its contents;
- (5) any device including, but not limited to, motor vehicles, trailers, snowmobiles, airplanes, and boats used, with the knowledge of the owner or of a person operating with the consent of the owner, for the storage or transportation of more than five pull-tab or tipboard deals that are contraband under this subdivision. When pull-tabs and tipboards are being transported in the course of interstate commerce, or from one distributor to another, the pull-tab and tipboard deals are not contraband, notwithstanding the provisions of clause (1);
- (6) any unaffixed registration stamps except as provided in section 349.162, subdivision 4;
- (7) any prize used or offered in a game utilizing contraband as defined in this subdivision;

- (8) any altered, modified, or counterfeit pull-tab or tipboard ticket;
- (9) any unregistered gambling equipment except as permitted by this chapter; and
- (10) any gambling equipment kept in violation of section 349.18; and
- (11) any gambling equipment not in conformity with law or board rule.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.2125, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [INVENTORY; JUDICIAL DETERMINATION; APPEAL; DISPOSITION OF SEIZED PROPERTY.] Within ~~two~~ ten days after the seizure of any alleged contraband, the person making the seizure shall ~~deliver~~ make available an inventory of the property seized to the person from whom the property was seized, if known, and file a copy with the commissioner of revenue or the director of gambling enforcement. Within ten days after the date of service of the inventory, the person from whom the property was seized or any person claiming an interest in the property may file with the seizing authority a demand for judicial determination of whether the property was lawfully subject to seizure and forfeiture. Within ~~30~~ 60 days after the date of filing of the demand, the seizing authority must bring an action in the district court of the county where seizure was made to determine the issue of forfeiture. The action must be brought in the name of the state and be prosecuted by the county attorney or by the attorney general. The court shall hear the action without a jury and determine the issues of fact and laws involved. When a judgment of forfeiture is entered, the seizing authority may, unless the judgment is stayed pending an appeal, either (1) cause the forfeited property to be destroyed; or (2) cause it to be sold at a public auction as provided by law.

If demand for judicial determination is made and no action is commenced by the seizing authority as provided in this subdivision, the property must be released by the seizing authority and delivered to the person entitled to it. If no demand is made, the property seized is considered forfeited to the state seizing authority by operation of law and may be disposed of by the seizing authority as provided where there has been a judgment of forfeiture. When the seizing authority is satisfied that a person from whom property is seized was acting in good faith and without intent to evade the tax imposed by section 349.2121, subdivision 4, the seizing authority shall release the property seized without further legal proceedings.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.2125, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [DISPOSAL.] (a) The property described in subdivision 1, clauses (4) and (5), must be confiscated after conviction of the person from whom it was seized, upon compliance with the following procedure: the seizing authority shall file with the court a separate complaint against the property, describing it and charging its use in the specific violation, and specifying substantially the time and place of the unlawful use. A copy of the complaint must be served upon the defendant or person in charge of the property at the time of seizure, if any. If the person arrested is acquitted, the court shall dismiss the complaint against the property and order it returned to the persons legally entitled to it. Upon conviction of the person arrested, the court shall issue an order directed to any person known or believed to have any right, title or interest in, or lien upon, any of the property, and to persons unknown claiming any right, title, interest, or lien in it, describing the property and (1) stating that it was seized and that a complaint against it, charging the specified violation, has been filed with the court, (2) requiring the persons to file with the court administrator their answer to the complaint, setting forth any claim they may have to any right or title to, interest in, or lien upon the property, within 30 days after the service of the order, and (3) notifying them in substance that if they fail to file their answer within the time, the property will be ordered sold by the seizing authority. The court shall cause the order to be served upon any person known or believed to have any right, title, interest, or lien as in the case of a summons in a civil action, and upon unknown persons by publication, as provided for service of summons in a civil action. If no answer is filed within the time prescribed, the court shall, upon affidavit by the court administrator, setting forth the fact, order the property sold by the seizing authority. Seventy percent of the proceeds of the sale, after deducting the expense of keeping the property and fees and costs of sale, must be paid into the state treasury and credited to the general fund of forfeited property, after payment of seizure, storage, forfeiture and sale expenses, must be forwarded to the seizing authority for deposit as a supplement to its operating fund or similar fund for official use, and 20 percent must be forwarded to the county attorney or other prosecuting agency that handled the forfeiture for deposit as a supplement to its operating fund or similar fund for prosecutorial purposes. The remaining ten percent of the proceeds must be forwarded within 60 days after resolution of the forfeiture to the department of human services to fund programs for the treatment of compulsive gamblers. If answer is filed within the time provided, the court shall fix a time for a hearing, which shall be not less than ten nor more than 30 days after the time for filing answer expires. At the time fixed for hearing, unless continued for cause, the matter shall be heard and determined by the court, without a jury, as in other civil actions.

(b) If the court finds that the property, or any part of it, was used in the violation specified in the complaint, it shall order the property unlawfully used, sold as provided by law, unless the owner shows to the satisfaction of the court that the owner had no notice or knowledge or reason to believe that the property was used or intended to be used in the violation. The officer making a sale, after deducting the expense of keeping the property, the fee for seizure, and the costs of the sale, shall pay all liens according to their priority, which are established at the hearing as being bona fide and as existing without the lienor having any notice or knowledge that the property was being used or was intended to be used for or in connection with the violation specified in the order of the court, and shall pay the balance of the proceeds ~~into the state treasury to be credited to the general fund to the seizing authority for official use and sharing in the manner provided in paragraph (a).~~ A sale under this section shall free the property sold from any and all liens on it. Appeal from the order of the district court will lie as in other civil cases. At any time after seizure of the articles specified in this subdivision, and before the hearing provided for, the property must be returned to the owner or person having a legal right to its possession, upon execution of a good and valid bond to the state, with corporate surety, in the sum of not less than $100 and not more than double the value of the property seized, to be approved by the court in which the case is triable, or a judge of it, conditioned to abide any order and the judgment of the court, and to pay the full value of the property at the time of the seizure. The seizing authority may dismiss the proceedings outlined in this subdivision when the seizing authority considers it to be in the best interests of the state public interest to do so.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.2127, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [COUNTERFEITING.] ~~No~~ A person shall be guilty of a felony who, with intent to defraud the state, make makes, alter alters, forge forges, or counterfeit counterfeits any license or stamp provided for in this chapter, or have has in possession any forged, spurious, or altered stamps, with the intent, or with the result of, depriving the state of the tax imposed by this chapter.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.2127, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [UNLAWFUL EXPENDITURES.] (a) A person who knowingly or with reason to know makes an unlawful expenditure of gross profits from lawful gambling is guilty of a crime and may be sentenced as provided in this subdivision.

(b) If the unlawful expenditure is of $200 or less, the penalty in section 349.22, subdivision 1, applies.

(c) If the unlawful expenditure is of more than $200 but not more than $2,500, the person is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

(d) If the unlawful expenditure is of more than $2,500, the person is guilty of a felony.

(e) For purposes of this subdivision, expenditures made within a six-month period may be aggregated and the defendant charged accordingly.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349.2127, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PROHIBITION AGAINST POSSESSION.] (a) ~~No~~ A person, other than a licensed distributor, ~~shall sell, offer~~ is guilty of a crime who sells, offers for sale, or ~~have in possession with intent to sell or offer for sale,~~ possesses a pull-tab or tipboard deal not stamped in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. A violation of this paragraph is a gross misdemeanor if it involves ten or fewer pull-tab or tipboard deals. A violation of this paragraph is a felony if it involves more than ten pull-tab or tipboard deals, or a combination of more than ten deals of pull-tabs and tipboards.

(b) ~~No~~ A person, other than a licensed distributor or ~~licensed or exempt~~ an organization under section 349.214 may possess with the ~~intent to sell or offer~~ licensed or exempt or excluded from licensing under this chapter, is guilty of a crime who sells, offers to sell, or possesses gambling equipment, except (1) equipment exempt from taxation, or (2) equipment put into play by a licensed or exempt organization. A violation of this paragraph is a gross misdemeanor if it involves ten or fewer pull-tab or tipboard deals. A violation of this paragraph is a felony if it involves more than ten pull-tab or tipboard deals, or a combination of more than ten deals of pull-tabs and tipboards.

(c) ~~No~~ A person, firm, or organization ~~may possess~~ is guilty of a crime who alters, modifies, or counterfeits pull-tabs, tipboards, or tipboard tickets, or possesses altered, modified, or counterfeit pull-tabs or, tipboards, or tipboard tickets with intent to sell, redeem, or exchange them. A violation of this paragraph is a gross misdemeanor if the total face value for all such pull-tabs, tipboards, or tipboard tickets does not exceed $200. A violation of this paragraph is a felony if the total face value exceeds $200. For purposes of this paragraph, the face value of all pull-tabs, tipboards, and tipboard tickets altered, modified, or counterfeited within a six-month period may be aggregated and the defendant charged accordingly.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.2127, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [FALSIFICATION OF RECORDS FALSE INFORMATION.] ~~No~~ (a) A person is guilty of a felony if the person is required by section 349.2121, subdivision 2, to keep records or to make returns ~~shall falsify or fail and falsifies or fails to keep the records or falsify or fail falsifies or fails to make the returns.~~

(b) A person is guilty of a felony who:

(1) knowingly submits materially false information in any license application or other document or communication submitted to the board; or

(2) knowingly submits materially false information in any report, document, or other communication submitted to the commissioner of revenue in connection with lawful gambling or with any provision of this chapter.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 349.2127, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [TRANSPORTING UNSTAMPED DEALS.] ~~No~~ A person shall transport is guilty of a gross misdemeanor who transports into, or receive receives, carry carries, or move moves from place to place in this state, any deals of pull-tabs or tipboards not stamped in accordance with this chapter except in the course of interstate commerce. A person is guilty of a felony who violates this subdivision with respect to more than ten pull-tab or tipboard deals, or a combination of more than ten deals of pull-tabs and tipboards.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 349.2127, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [PROVIDING INFORMATION.] ~~No~~ (a) An employee of an organization shall may not provide any information to a player that would provide an unfair advantage to the player related to the potential winnings of any lawful gambling activity. For purposes of this subdivision, "employee" includes a volunteer.

(b) An employee may not provide, and a person may not receive, with expectation of pecuniary gain to either, any information that would provide an unfair advantage to the recipient of the information related to the potential winnings of any lawful gambling activity. A person who violates this paragraph is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. A person who violates this paragraph within five years after a previous conviction under this paragraph is guilty of a felony.

(c) For purposes of this subdivision, "employee" includes a volunteer.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.2127, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [CHECKS FOR GAMBLING PURCHASES.] An organization may not accept checks in payment for the purchase of any gambling equipment or for the chance to participate in any form of lawful gambling.

Mr. Speaker:

I hereby announce that the Senate has concurred in and adopted the report of the Conference Committee on:

S. F. No. 2618.

The Senate has repassed said bill in accordance with the recommendation and report of the Conference Committee. Said Senate File is herewith transmitted to the House.

PATRICK E. FLAHAVERN, Secretary of the Senate

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON S. F. NO. 2618

A bill for an act relating to public administration; appropriating money or reducing appropriations to the higher education coordinating board, regents of the University of Minnesota, state university board, state board for community colleges, and state board of vocational technical education, with certain conditions; excepting notification of committee chairs on certain capital projects; establishing a community college at Cambridge; clarifying the duties and powers of the higher education coordinating board; authorizing tuition reciprocity agreements with contiguous Canadian provinces; establishing a state matching grant program to match private gifts to endowment funds; requiring administrative service plans for technical colleges under certain circumstances; changing permitted kinds of investments for the permanent university fund; permitting capital gains of the fund to be used to support endowed academic chairs; authorizing the purchase of a certain building by the state university board; requiring development of a consumer information system for occupational programs; regulating public post-secondary plans; requiring reports; adjusting contributions to state system retirement plans; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 136.60; 136.602; 136C.05, by adding a subdivision; 137.022, subdivisions 1 and 3; 352.92, subdivision 2; 352B.02, subdivision 1c; 353.27, subdivision 3a; and 354.42, subdivision 5; Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, sections 16B.335, subdivision 2; 136A.04; 136A.08; 352.04, subdivisions 2 and 3; and 354B.04, subdivision 2; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 136A; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353.27, subdivision 3.

April 23, 1990

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

The Honorable Robert E. Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

We, the undersigned conferees for S. F. No. 2618, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House recede from its amendment and that S. F. No. 2618 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"ARTICLE 1
APPROPRIATIONS

Section 1. [APPROPRIATIONS FOR HIGHER EDUCATION.]

The dollar amounts in the columns under "APPROPRIATIONS" are added to (or, if shown in parentheses, are subtracted from) the appropriations in Laws 1989, chapter 293, or other law to the specified agencies. The appropriations are from the general fund or other named fund and are available for the fiscal years indicated for each purpose. The figure 1990 or 1991 means that the addition to or subtraction from the appropriations listed under the figure are for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1990, or June 30, 1991, respectively. If only one figure is shown in the text for a specified purpose, the addition or subtraction is for 1991 unless the context intends another fiscal year.

The HECB shall study ways to redefine the cost of living allowance to more accurately reflect actual costs of living.

The board shall examine ways to develop cost of living categories to differentiate among students with different living arrangements and family responsibilities, including child care. The board shall examine whether other items involved in the cost of living should be used in determining categories. The board shall report its findings and recommendations to the education divisions of the house appropriations and senate finance committees by February 1, 1991.

The HECB shall examine the feasibility of using a student loan program, including the SELF program, to assist students whose eligibility for child care grants has expired. The board shall report its findings and recommendations to the education divisions of the house appropriations and senate finance committees by February 1, 1991.

The HECB shall review the percentage of child care grant money authorized for administrative costs on campuses; report on its expenditures of this money, and make any recommendations for changing the percentage levels to the education divisions of the house appropriations and senate finance committees as part of its 1991 biennial budget request.

The HECB shall work with the Minnesota Association of Financial Aid Administrators to simplify the procedures and methods required to calculate child care grants. The HECB shall report on its progress towards simplification as part of its 1991 biennial budget request.

During the biennium, a campus, post-secondary system, or school district must not reallocate child care program administration money, unless the money is reallocated to child care grants.

The HECB shall amend its child care grant rules to include provisions for campuses that contract with counties for program administration. The rules shall make the campuses accountable for county decisions related to the program, and shall require the campuses to develop on-campus mechanisms for student appeals.

Subd. 3. Interstate Tuition Reciprocity

750,000

If an unencumbered balance is projected in the appropriation for the state grant program after October 1, 1990, the HECB may transfer funds to the appropriation for Interstate Tuition Reciprocity. Prior to the transfer, the HECB shall seek the advisory recommendation of the legislative advisory commission.

Subd. 4. Rural Health Programs

Of this amount, $120,000 is for pre-nursing grants and $20,000 is for program administration.

Subd. 5. The higher education coordinating board may transfer unencumbered balances from the appropriations in this section to the state grant appropriation. Before the transfer, the higher education coordinating board shall consult with the chairs of the house appropriations and senate finance committees.

Subdivision 1. Enrollment Projections

With respect to Laws 1989, chapter 293, section 6, subdivision 2(a), the 7th paragraph, the regular session enrollment projected for the appropriation is 35,679 full-year equivalent undergraduate students for the first year and 33,750 for the second year. For developing the next biennial budget request, the regular session undergraduate enrollment used for the average cost funding formula must not exceed these numbers. For the biennium ending June 30, 1991, tuition income resulting from students in excess of the projections reduces the general fund appropriation by a like dollar amount. The legislature further anticipates that the regular session full-year equivalent undergraduate students must not exceed 31,600 by fiscal year 1993. The university shall submit progress reports on the attainment of the anticipated enrollments. If the university attains these enrollment goals, the calculation for the average cost funding formula must not reduce the budget base.

Subd. 2. General Base Reduction

(2,235,400)

Subd. 3. Minnesota State Retirement System Employers' Contribution

(554,000)

Subd. 4. Rural Physicians' Associates Program

200,000

$200,000 is to increase participation in the rural physicians' associates program. The Minnesota Medical Association shall assist the university's effort by locating the preceptors for the program. The board of regents shall report, as part of its 1991 biennial budget request, on the feasibility of increasing the participation to approximately 40 students per year, on the need to increase the subsidy per student, and on the cost implications of these increases.

Sec. 7. POST-SECONDARY SYSTEMS

Subdivision 1. The public post-secondary governing boards, the department of finance, and the department of administration shall develop jointly a set of detailed criteria to assist the legislature in making decisions on child care facility requests. The boards and departments shall submit a joint report to the education divisions of the house appropriations and senate finance committees by March 1, 1991.

Subd. 2. Each public higher education system shall develop a parking plan. The plan shall include consideration of establishing parking fees for each campus at a level that will provide adequate revenue to construct, repair, and maintain the parking lots. The plan must be submitted to the legislature in the 1991 biennial budget document.

ARTICLE 2

PENSIONS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 352.04, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EMPLOYEE CONTRIBUTIONS.] The employee contribution to the fund must be equal to ~~4.34~~ 4.15 percent of salary, beginning with the first full pay period after June 30, 1989. These contributions must be made by deduction from salary as provided in subdivision 4.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 352.04, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [EMPLOYER CONTRIBUTIONS.] (a) The employer contribution to the fund must be equal to ~~4.51~~ 4.29 percent of salary beginning with the first full pay period after June 30, 1989.

(b) By January 1 of each year, the board of directors shall report to the legislative commission on pensions and retirement, the chair of the committee on appropriations of the house of representatives, and the chair of the committee on finance of the senate on the amount raised by the employer and employee contribution rates in effect and whether the total amount is less than, the same as, or more than the actuarial requirement determined under section 356.215.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.92, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EMPLOYER CONTRIBUTIONS.] Beginning with the first full pay period after July 1, 1984, (a) In lieu of employer contributions payable under section 352.04, subdivision 3, the employer shall contribute for covered correctional employees an amount equal to ~~8.70~~ 6.27 percent of salary.

(b) By January 1 of each year, the board of directors shall report to the legislative commission on pensions and retirement, the chair of the committee on appropriations of the house of representatives, and the chair of the committee on finance of the senate on the amount raised by the employer and employee contribution rates in effect and whether the total amount is less than, the same as, or more than the actuarial requirement determined under section 356.215.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352B.02, subdivision 1c, is amended to read:

Subd. 1c. [EMPLOYER CONTRIBUTIONS.] (a) In addition to member contributions, department heads shall pay a sum equal to ~~18.9~~ 14.88 percent of the salary upon which deductions were made, which shall constitute the employer contribution to the fund. Department contributions must be paid out of money appropriated to departments for this purpose.

(b) By January 1 of each year, the board of directors shall report to the legislative commission on pensions and retirement, the chair of the committee on appropriations of the house of representatives, and the chair of the committee on finance of the senate on the amount raised by the employer and employee contribution rates in effect and whether the total amount is less than, the same as, or more than the actuarial requirement determined under section 356.215.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354.42, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [ADDITIONAL EMPLOYER CONTRIBUTION.] To amortize the unfunded actuarial accrued liability computed under the entry age actuarial cost method and disclosed under the annual actuarial valuations prepared by the commission-retained actuary under section 356.215, an additional employer contribution shall be made in the amount of 4.48 3.64 percent of the salary of each member.

This contribution shall must be made in the manner provided in section 354.43.

By January 1 of each year, the board of directors shall report to the legislative commission on pensions and retirement, the chair of the committee on appropriations of the house of representatives, and the chair of the committee on finance of the senate on the amount raised by the additional employer contribution rate in effect and whether that amount is less than, the same as, or more than the required amortization contribution determined under section 356.215.

Sec. 6. [STATE-PAID HEALTH INSURANCE; CERTAIN EMPLOYEES.]

An executive branch employee who is covered by a retirement plan established under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 352 or 352B, or an employee of the Minnesota state retirement system, the teachers retirement association, or the public employees retirement association, is eligible for state-paid hospital, medical, and dental benefits if the person:

(1) is eligible for state-paid insurance under Minnesota Statutes, section 43A.18, or other law;

(2) has at least 25 years of state service;

(3) upon retirement is immediately eligible for a retirement annuity;

(4) is at least 55 and not yet 65 years of age; and

(5) retires after the effective date of this section and before July 1, 1990.

An employee who is eligible both for the health insurance benefit under this section and for an early retirement incentive under a collective bargaining agreement or plan established under Minnesota Statutes, section 43A.18, must choose between that early retirement incentive and the benefit provided under this section and may not have both. For purposes of this section, a person retires when the person terminates active employment in state service and applies for a retirement annuity. The retired employee is eligible for coverages to which the person was entitled at the time of retirement, subject to any changes in coverage through collective bargaining or plans established under Minnesota Statutes, section 43A.18, for employees in positions equivalent to the position from which they retired. The retired employee is not eligible for state-paid life insurance. Eligibility ceases when the retired employee attains the age of 65, or when the employee chooses not to receive the annuity for which the employee has applied, or when the employee is eligible for employer-paid health insurance from a new employer. Coverages must be coordinated with relevant health insurance benefits provided through the federally sponsored Medicare program.

An employee who retires under this section using the Rule of 90 must not be included in the calculations required by Minnesota Statutes, section 356.85.

Sec. 7. [APPROPRIATION REDUCTIONS.]

The sums shown in parentheses are reduced from the appropriations from the general fund, or another named fund, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1990, to the agencies indicated.

(a) General fund	(2,206,000)
(b) Trunk highway fund	(1,864,000)
(c) Other funds	(1,149,000)

With the exception of appropriations made to the University of Minnesota, the Community College System, the Technical College System, and the State University System, the commissioner of finance shall reduce each state agency's fiscal year 1991 appropriation by an amount equal to the sum of:

(1) .22 percent of the agency's fiscal year 1991 salaries paid to employees covered by the general state employee retirement plan established in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 352.

(2) 2.43 percent of the agency's fiscal year 1991 salaries paid to employees covered by the correctional employees retirement plan established in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 352.

(3) 4.02 percent of the agency's fiscal year 1991 salaries paid to employees covered by the state patrol retirement plan established in Minnesota Statutes, section 352B.02.

(4) .84 percent of the agency's fiscal year 1991 salaries paid to employees covered by the teacher's retirement plan established in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 354.

The appropriation reductions made under this section are permanent reductions to each agency's budget.

Sec. 8. [EFFECTIVE DATES.]

Sections 1 to 5 are effective July 1, 1990, and apply to pay periods beginning with the first full pay period after June 30, 1990.

Section 6 is effective the day following final enactment.

ARTICLE 3

PLANNING AND OPERATIONS

Section 1. [LEGISLATIVE INTENT.]

During the biennium, to ensure fiscal responsibility and to protect current levels of academic quality and funding, the legislature intends that greater oversight be given to (1) the development and establishment of off-campus post-secondary centers, permanent sites, and other large-scale or long-term operations that are intended to provide academic programs, courses, or student services; and (2) the management of enrollment on and off campus.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 135A.06, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [SYSTEM PLANS.] Each system shall develop a program plan for instruction, research, and public service. Each system shall consult with the higher education coordinating board and with the other systems throughout the planning process. The higher education coordinating board shall coordinate intersystem efforts in the development of the program plans to achieve intersystem cooperation and differentiation.

Each planning report shall consider at least the following elements:

(1) a statement of program priorities for undergraduate, graduate, and professional education, including data about program cost and average class size within each institution;

(2) the effects of proposed programmatic and enrollment changes on other systems and campuses;

(3) a review of plans for adjusting the number of facilities, staff, and programs to projected level of demand, including consideration of campus and program mergers, campus and program closings, new governance structures, the relationship between fixed costs and projected enrollment changes, and consolidation of institutions, services, and programs that serve the same geographic area under different governing boards;

(4) a review of the current and projected use of community outreach and extension programs including information on all off-campus sites, including at least information for each site from the inventory established in section 9;

(5) enrollment projections for two, five, and ten years based on recent available projections produced by the higher education coordinating board or, if different projections are used, they shall be compared to those prepared by the higher education coordinating board, and the system shall identify the method and assumptions used to prepare its projections;

(6) estimated financial costs and savings of alternative plans for (i) adjusting facilities, staff, and programs to changing enrollments and fiscal resources, and (ii) managing enrollments and resources to better utilize existing facilities and staff, and to protect academic quality;

(7) opportunities for providing services cooperatively with other public and private institutions in the same geographic area; and

(8) differentiating and coordinating missions to reduce or eliminate duplication of services and offerings, to improve delivery of services, and to establish clear and distinct roles and priorities.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 135A.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [SUBMISSION TO LEGISLATURE.] Each public post-secondary governing board shall submit the information on off-campus sites required in subdivision 3, clause (4), to the legislature with its biennial budget request in odd-numbered years, and shall update the information with its supplemental budget request in the even-numbered years. The board shall provide detailed information on the use of state appropriated funds in support of each site, including information on the effects on campuses of funding off-campus sites.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 136.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. The state board and the state universities must not establish any off-campus centers or other permanent sites located off state university campuses to provide academic programs, courses, or student services without authorizing legislation. For the purposes of this subdivision, the campus of Metropolitan State University is the seven-county metropolitan area.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 136.62, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. The state board and the community colleges must not establish any off-campus centers or other permanent sites located off community college campuses to provide academic programs, courses, or student services without authorizing legislation.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 136A.04, is amended to read:

136A.04 [DUTIES.]

Subdivision 1. The higher education coordinating board shall:

(1) continuously study and analyze all phases and aspects of higher education, both public and private, and develop necessary plans and programs to meet present and future needs of the people of the state;

(2) continuously engage in long-range planning for the needs of higher education and, if necessary, cooperatively engage in planning with neighboring states and agencies of the federal government;

(3) act as successor to any committee or commission previously authorized to engage in exercising any of the powers and duties prescribed by sections 136A.01 to 136A.07;

(4) review, approve or disapprove, make recommendations, and identify priorities with respect to all proposals for new or, additional, or changes in existing programs or large-scale or permanent sites of instruction or substantial changes in existing programs to be established in or offered by, the University of Minnesota, the state universities, the community colleges, technical institutes, public post-secondary institutions and, with respect to programs only, private collegiate and noncollegiate post-secondary institutions. The board shall forward its recommendations on sites to the chairs of the house appropriations and senate finance committees. The board shall also periodically review existing programs and recommend discontinuing or modifying any existing program. When reviewing new or existing programs a site or program, the board shall consider whether the program it is unnecessary, a needless duplication of existing programs, beyond the capability of the system or institution considering its resources, or beyond the scope of the system or institutional mission;

(5) develop in cooperation with the post-secondary systems, house appropriations committee, senate finance committee, and the departments of administration and finance, a compatible budgetary reporting format designed to provide data of a nature to facilitate systematic review of the budget submissions of the University of Minnesota, the state university system, the community college system, and the technical institutes public post-secondary institutions, which includes the relating of dollars to program output;

(6) review budget requests, including plans for construction or acquisition of facilities, of the University of Minnesota, the state universities, the community colleges, and technical institutes public post-secondary institutions for the purpose of relating present resources and higher educational programs to the state's present and long-range needs; and conduct a continuous analysis of the financing of post-secondary institutions and systems, including the assessments as to the extent to which the expenditures and accomplishments are consistent with legislative intent;

(7) obtain from private post-secondary institutions receiving state funds a report on their use of those funds;

(8) continuously monitor and study the transferability of credits between Minnesota post-secondary and higher education institutions of credits, earned for equal and relevant work at those institutions, the degree to which credits earned at one institution are accepted at full value by the other institutions, and the policies of these institutions concerning the placement of these transferred credits on transcripts; and

(9) prescribe policies, procedures, and rules necessary to administer the programs under its supervision.

Subd. 2. The higher education coordinating board shall review and make recommendations regarding a plan or proposal for a new or additional program of instruction or a substantial change in an existing program of instruction to be offered by a technical institute within 45 days of the transmission of approval of the plan or proposal to the higher education coordinating board by the state board of vocational technical education. The higher education coordinating board shall then transmit a written explanation of its recommendations within five days of board action to the director of the applying technical institute and to the state director of vocational technical education.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 136C.04, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 20. The state board and the technical colleges must not establish any off-campus centers or other permanent sites located off technical college campuses to provide academic programs, courses, or student services without authorizing legislation.

Sec. 8. [137.40] [OFF-CAMPUS SITES AND CENTERS.]

The board of regents and the university campuses are requested to not establish any off-campus centers or other permanent sites located off university campuses to provide academic programs, courses, or student services without authorizing legislation.

Sec. 9. [INVENTORY.]

Subdivision 1. [HECB.] By November 1, 1990, the higher education coordinating board shall compile an inventory of all existing off-campus sites and centers for each post-secondary system and institution that includes at least the following information: total full year equivalent and head count enrollment, number of course offerings in each field of study, degrees available and number awarded, location and type of facilities, leasing or other arrangements and cost, and the amount and sources of funding. The board shall also compile an inventory of program offerings on the campuses and at the off-campus sites.

Subd. 2. [HEAC.] The higher education advisory council, in cooperation with the higher education coordinating board, shall determine categories of off-campus sites and criteria to use in placing sites within categories.

Subd. 3. [HECB.] The higher education coordinating board, and the post-secondary governing boards, shall review the categories and criteria and the information included in the inventory to determine whether these are sufficient for incorporating into system planning activities and enhanced program review activities. As part of its review, the HECB shall examine duplication in programs offered on and off campus and the level of the systems' cooperative efforts. The board shall also consider overlap in system missions. The HECB shall report its findings and recommendations to the house appropriations and senate finance committees by February 15, 1991.

Sec. 10. [CONDITIONS.]

(a) The state university board, the state board for community colleges, the state board of vocational technical education, and their respective campuses must not enter into new long-term lease arrangements, significantly increase the course offerings at off-campus sites, enter any 2 + 2 arrangements, or significantly increase staffing levels for off-campus sites between the effective date of this section and the end of the 1990-1991 academic year. A current long-term lease may be renewed if it expires during this period. The board of regents is requested to abide by these conditions until the end of the 1990-1991 academic year.

(b) This section does not apply to actions of Metropolitan State University that are part of its plan to consolidate its sites in the seven-county metropolitan area. The state university board shall consult with the chairs of the house appropriations and senate finance committees in carrying out its plans. For purposes of this paragraph, "plan to consolidate" does not include entering into any 2 + 2 arrangements.

Sec. 11. [ENROLLMENT REPORT.]

Each public post-secondary governing board, excluding the board of regents, shall develop a plan for managing enrollments. The plan must include consideration of methods of: encouraging better student preparation, redistributing selected students or programs, encouraging students to complete programs earlier, using existing space more efficiently, changing marketing strategies, and reducing duplication of programs by suggesting which academic and technical programs or courses would most appropriately be offered on each existing campus in the state university, community college, and technical college system. The plan must address ways in which each campus can provide sufficient access and preserve or improve quality, given its present physical capacity and funding level. Each plan shall be submitted to HECB for review and comment by December 1, 1990. The HECB shall submit the plans and its review to the house education and appropriations and senate education and finance committees by February 15, 1991. The board of regents shall submit information on its enrollment management, the effects of its enrollment changes, and other measures of its progress in improving its quality of education to the committees by the same date.

Sec. 12. [SYSTEM PLANS.]

Subdivision 1. [ALL SYSTEMS.] Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 135A.06, in place of system plans, the public post-secondary systems shall submit plans for providing undergraduate and practitioner-oriented graduate programs in the seven-county metropolitan area to the higher education coordinating board.

Additionally, each public post-secondary governing board shall review its current mission statement. Each board shall determine whether the statement accurately reflects its mission and the role of its system in the mission differentiation efforts, and recommend any changes its statement requires. The boards shall submit their mission statements and recommendations to the higher education coordinating board with their metropolitan area plans by December 1, 1990.

The higher education coordinating board shall review and comment on the plans and mission statements and report to the legislature and governor by February 15, 1991.

Sec. 13. [EFFECTIVE DATES.]

Subdivision 1. Sections 1, 4, 5, and 7 to 12 are effective the day following final enactment.

Subd. 2. Section 6 is effective July 1, 1991.

ARTICLE 4

RURAL HEALTH PROGRAMS

Section 1. [136A.1351] [DEFINITION; DESIGNATED RURAL AREA.]

In sections 136A.1352 and 136A.1355, "designated rural area" means a Minnesota community outside a ten-mile radius of a ranally area, which community: (1) has more than 2,000 persons per physician, including seasonal variation; and (2) has notified the higher education coordinating board of its need for a physician or nurse for the community.

For purposes of this definition, "ranally area" means a central city or cities and any adjacent built-up areas, plus other communities not connected by continuously built-up areas if population density exceeds 60 persons per square mile and the work force of the other communities significantly depends on the central city or cities.

Sec. 2. [136A.1352] [PRE-NURSING GRANTS.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The higher education coordinating board shall provide grants to students who are entering or enrolled in registered nurse or licensed practical nurse programs, who have no previous nursing training or education, and who agree to practice in a designated rural area.

Subd. 2. [ELIGIBILITY.] (a) To be eligible to receive a grant, a student must be:

(1) a resident of the state of Minnesota;

(2) enrolled in a Minnesota school, college, or program of nursing to complete an educational program that would lead to the student's first licensure as a licensed practical nurse or as a registered nurse;

(3) willing to agree to serve at least three of the first five years following licensure in a designated rural area; and

(4) able to meet the financial need criteria established in section 136A.121 and board rules.

(b) The grant must be awarded for one academic year, but is renewable for a maximum of six semesters or nine quarters of full-time study, or their equivalent, but cannot continue after receipt of the nursing degree or certificate.

Subd. 3. [PRIORITY.] If insufficient funds are available to meet the needs of all eligible applicants, the board shall give priority to applicants who reside in a designated rural area and applicants attending post-secondary institutions outside the seven-county metropolitan area.

Subd. 4. [DETERMINATION OF NEED; AMOUNT OF AWARD.] The determination of a student's need and the amount of a grant award must be based on the criteria established in section 136A.121 and related board rules. A grant under this section does not affect a recipient's eligibility for a state grant under section 136A.121.

Sec. 3. [136A.1353] [NURSING GRANT PROGRAM FOR LICENSED PRACTICAL NURSES.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] A nursing grant program is established under the authority of the higher education coordinating board to provide grants to licensed practical nurses who are entering or enrolled in an educational program that would lead to licensure as a registered nurse.

Subd. 2. [ELIGIBILITY.] To be eligible to receive a grant, a student must be:

(1) a resident of the state of Minnesota;

(2) a licensed practical nurse enrolled in a Minnesota school, college, or program of nursing to complete an educational program that would lead to licensure as a registered nurse; and

(3) eligible under any additional criteria established by the school, college, or program of nursing in which the student is enrolled.

The grant must be awarded for one academic year but is renewable for a maximum of six semesters or nine quarters of full-time study, or their equivalent.

Subd. 3. [RESPONSIBILITY OF NURSING PROGRAMS.] Each school, college, or program of nursing that wishes to participate in the nursing grant program must apply to the higher education coordinating board for grant money, according to rules and policies established by the board. A school, college, or program of nursing must establish criteria to use in awarding the grants. The criteria must include consideration of the likelihood of a student's success in completing the nursing educational program and must give priority to students with the greatest financial need. Grants must be for a minimum of $500, but must not exceed $2,500 per year. Each school, college, or program of nursing must establish procedures for students to apply for and receive grants.

Subd. 4. [RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE HIGHER EDUCATION COORDINATING BOARD.] The higher education coordinating board shall distribute funds each year to the schools, colleges, or programs of nursing applying to participate in the nursing grant program based on the last academic year's enrollment of students in educational programs that would lead to licensure as a licensed practical nurse. Money not used by a recipient nursing program must be returned to the higher education coordinating board for redistribution under this section. The board shall establish an application process for interested schools, colleges, or programs of nursing. Initial applications are due by January 1, 1991, and by January 1 of each later year. By March 1, 1991, and by March 1 of each later year, the board shall notify each applicant school, college, or program of nursing of its approximate allocation of funds in order to allow the school, college, or program to determine the number of students that can be supported by the allocation. The board shall distribute funds to the schools, colleges, or programs of nursing by August 1, 1991, and by August 1 of each later year.

Subd. 5. [REPORT.] The schools, colleges, or programs of nursing participating in the nursing grant program shall report to the higher education coordinating board on their program activity as requested by the board.

Sec. 4. [136A.1354] [NURSING GRANT PROGRAM FOR REGISTERED NURSES.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] A nursing grant program is established under the authority of the higher education coordinating board to provide grants to registered nurses seeking to complete baccalaureate or master's degrees in nursing or a program of advanced nursing education.

Subd. 2. [ELIGIBILITY.] To be eligible to receive a grant, a student must be:

(1) licensed as a registered nurse in Minnesota and have been employed as a nurse in the state for at least one year before re-enrolling in college;

(2) a resident of the state of Minnesota;

(3) enrolled in a Minnesota school or college of nursing to complete a baccalaureate or master's degree, or a program of advanced nursing education; and

(4) eligible under any additional criteria established by the school, college of nursing, or program of advanced nursing education, in which the student is enrolled.

The grant must be awarded for one academic year but is renewable for a maximum of six semesters or nine quarters of full-time study, or their equivalent.

Subd. 3. [RESPONSIBILITY OF NURSING PROGRAMS.] Each school or college of nursing, or program of advanced nursing education, that wishes to participate in the nursing grant program must apply to the higher education coordinating board for money, according to rules and policies established by the board. A school or college of nursing, or program of advanced nursing education, must establish criteria to use in awarding the grants. The criteria must include consideration of the likelihood of a student's success in completing the educational program and must give priority to: (1) students with the greatest financial need; and (2) students enrolling to complete baccalaureate degrees in nursing. Grants must be for a minimum of $500, but must not exceed $2,500 per year. Each school or college of nursing, or program of advanced nursing education, must establish procedures for students to apply for and receive grants.

Subd. 4. [RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE HIGHER EDUCATION COORDINATING BOARD.] The higher education coordinating board shall distribute funds each year to the schools or colleges of nursing, or programs of advanced nursing education, applying to participate in the nursing grant program based on the last academic year's enrollment of registered nurses in schools or colleges of nursing, or programs of advanced nursing education. Money not used by a recipient nursing program must be returned to the higher education coordinating board for redistribution under this section. The board shall establish an application process for interested schools or colleges of nursing, or programs of advanced nursing education. Initial applications are due by January 1, 1991, and by January 1 of each later year. By March 1, 1991, and by March 1 of each later year, the board shall notify each applicant school or college or nursing, or program of advanced nursing education, of its approximate allocation of money to allow the school, college, or program to determine the number of students that can be supported by the allocation. The board shall distribute money to the schools or colleges of nursing, or programs of advanced nursing education, by August 1, 1991, and by August 1 of each later year.

Subd. 5. [REPORT.] The schools or colleges of nursing, or programs of advanced nursing education, participating in the nursing grant program shall report to the higher education coordinating board on their program activity as requested by the board.

Sec. 5. [136A.1355] [RURAL PHYSICIAN EDUCATION ACCOUNT.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION OF ACCOUNT.] A rural physician education account is established. The higher education coordinating board shall use money from the account to establish a loan forgiveness program for medical students agreeing to practice in designated rural areas.

Subd. 2. [ELIGIBILITY.] To be eligible to participate in the program, a prospective physician must submit a letter of interest to the higher education coordinating board while attending medical school. Before completing the first year of residency, a student or resident must sign a contract to agree to serve at least three of the first five years following residency in a designated rural area.

Subd. 3. [LOAN FORGIVENESS.] The higher education coordinating board may accept up to eight applicants per year for participation in the loan forgiveness program. Applicants are responsible for securing their own loans. Applicants chosen to participate in the loan forgiveness program may designate for each year of medical school, up to a maximum of four years, an agreed amount, not to exceed $10,000, as a qualified loan. For each year that a participant serves as a physician in a designated rural area, up to a maximum of four years, the higher education coordinating board shall annually pay an amount equal to one year of qualified loans and the interest accrued on these loans. Participants who move their practice from one designated rural area to another remain eligible for loan repayment.

Subd. 4. [PENALTY FOR NONFULFILLMENT.] If a participant does not fulfill the required three-year minimum commitment of service in a designated rural area, the higher education coordinating board shall collect from the participant the amount paid by the board under the loan forgiveness program. The higher education coordinating board shall deposit the money collected in the rural physician education account. The board shall allow waivers of all or part of the money owed the board if emergency circumstances prevented fulfillment of the three-year service commitment.

Sec. 6. [HECB EVALUATION.]

The higher education coordinating board shall evaluate the programs established in sections 2 to 5. The initial evaluation must examine the progress in establishing the programs and must be reported to the house appropriations and senate finance committees by February 1, 1991. Beginning in 1992, and each year thereafter, the HECB shall report to the committees by February 1 on the operation of each program. The report must include an analysis of whether each program is achieving its goals and recommendations regarding whether each program should be terminated or changed.

Sec. 7. [RULES.]

The higher education coordinating board shall develop rules, including emergency rules if necessary, to implement the programs in sections 2 to 5. The emergency rules shall be effective until July 1, 1991.

Sec. 8. [FUNDING.]

Sections 3 and 4 are funded as provided in the 1990 health and human services supplemental appropriations act.

Sec. 9. [SUNSET.]

Sections 1 to 6 are repealed on June 30, 1995.

ARTICLE 5

PUBLIC SAFETY OFFICER'S SURVIVOR BENEFITS

Section 1. [299A.41] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] The definitions used in this section apply in this chapter.

Subd. 2. [DEPENDENT CHILD.] A "dependent child" means a person who is unmarried and who was either living with or was receiving support contributions from the public safety officer at the time of death, including a child by birth, a stepchild, an adopted child, or a posthumous child, and who is:

(1) under 18 years of age;

(2) over 18 years of age and incapable of self-support because of physical or mental disability; or

(3) over 18 years of age and a student as defined by United States Code, title 5, section 8101.

Subd. 3. [KILLED IN THE LINE OF DUTY.] "Killed in the line of duty" does not include deaths from natural causes.

Subd. 4. [PUBLIC SAFETY OFFICER.] "Public safety officer" includes:

(1) a peace officer defined in section 626.84;

(2) a correction officer employed at a correctional facility and charged with maintaining the safety, security, discipline, and custody of inmates at the facility;

(3) a firefighter employed on a full-time basis by the state or by a fire department of a governmental subdivision of the state, who is engaged in the hazards of firefighting;

(4) a legally enrolled member of a volunteer fire department or member of an independent nonprofit firefighting corporation who is engaged in the hazards of firefighting;

(5) a good samaritan while complying with the request or direction of a public safety officer to assist the officer;

(6) a reserve police officer or a reserve deputy sheriff while acting under the supervision and authority of a political subdivision;

(7) a driver or attendant with a licensed basic or advanced life support transportation service who is engaged in providing emergency care; and

(8) a first responder who is certified by the commissioner of health to perform basic emergency skills before the arrival of a licensed ambulance service and who is a member of an organized service recognized by a local political subdivision to respond to medical emergencies to provide initial medical care before the arrival of an ambulance.

Subd. 5. [SPOUSE.] "Spouse" means a person legally married to the decedent at the time of the decedent's death.

Sec. 2. [299A.42] [PUBLIC SAFETY OFFICER'S BENEFIT ACCOUNT.]

The public safety officer's benefit account is created in the state treasury. Money in the account consists of money transferred and appropriated to that account.

Sec. 3. [299A.43] [ELIGIBILITY DETERMINATION; CONTESTED CASE.]

A challenge to a determination of eligibility by the commissioner of public safety must be heard as a contested case, except that the decision of the administrative law judge is binding on the parties to the proceeding. The order of the administrative law judge is the final decision of the commissioner. The hearing must be conducted according to sections 14.56 to 14.62 and is subject to appeal according to sections 14.63 to 14.68.

Sec. 4. [299A.44] [DEATH BENEFIT.]

On certification to the governor by the commissioner of public safety that a public safety officer employed within this state has been killed in the line of duty, leaving a spouse or one or more eligible dependents, the commissioner of finance shall pay $100,000 from the public safety officer's benefit account, as follows:

- (1) if there is no dependent child, to the spouse;
- (2) if there is no spouse, to the dependent child or children in equal shares;
- (3) if there are both a spouse and one or more dependent children, one-half to the spouse and one-half to the child or children, in equal shares;
- (4) if there is no surviving spouse or dependent child or children, to the parent or parents dependent for support on the decedent, in equal shares; or
- (5) if there is no surviving spouse, dependent child, or dependent parent, then no payment may be made from the public safety officer's benefit fund.

Sec. 5. [299A.45] [EDUCATION BENEFIT.]

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBILITY.] Following certification under section 4 and compliance with this section and rules of the commissioner of public safety and the higher education coordinating board, dependent children less than 23 years of age and the surviving spouse of a public safety officer killed in the line of duty on or after January 1, 1973, are eligible to receive educational benefits under this section. To qualify for an award, they must be enrolled in undergraduate degree or certificate programs after June 30, 1990, at a Minnesota public post-secondary institution or a private, residential, two-year or four-year, liberal arts, degree granting college or university located in Minnesota. Persons who have received a baccalaureate degree or have been enrolled full time or the equivalent of eight semesters or 12 quarters, whichever occurs first, are no longer eligible.

Subd. 2. [AWARD AMOUNT.] (a) The amount of the award is:

(1) for public institutions, the actual tuition and fees charged by the institution, or

(2) for private institutions the lesser of (i) the actual tuition and fees charged by the institution or (ii) the highest tuition and fees charged by a public institution in Minnesota.

(b) An award under this subdivision must not affect a recipient's eligibility for a state grant under section 136A.121.

Subd. 3. [PAYMENT.] On proof of eligibility for this program, an eligible institution, on behalf of the student, shall request payment of the award from the higher education coordinating board. An institution must not request payment unless the student is enrolled in or has completed the term for which the payment is intended.

Subd. 4. [RENEWALS.] Each award must be given for one academic year and is renewable for a maximum of six semesters or nine quarters or their equivalent. An award must not be given to a dependent child who is 23 years of age or older on the first day of the academic year.

Sec. 6. [299A.46] [RULES.]

The commissioner of public safety may adopt rules, including emergency rules, under chapter 14 to implement, coordinate, and administer sections 1 to 4. The higher education coordinating board may adopt rules, including emergency rules, to implement, coordinate, and administer section 5.

Sec. 7. [REPORTS.]

By February 1, 1991, the commissioner of public safety shall report to the chairs of the house appropriations and senate finance committees on the use of the educational benefits provisions and on any recommendations to change these provisions. The higher education coordinating board shall report on its expenditures as part of its 1991 biennial budget request.

Sec. 8. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 176B.01, as amended by Laws 1989, chapter 289, section 2; 176B.02; 176B.03; 176B.04; and 176B.05, are repealed.

Sec. 9. [MONEY SET ASIDE.]

The higher education coordinating board shall set aside $100,000 appropriated for the state grant program under Minnesota Statutes, section 136A.121 for the purpose of section 5.

Sec. 10. [EFFECTIVE DATES.]

Sections 1 to 4, 6, and 8 are effective the day following final enactment. Section 5 is effective July 1, 1990, and applies to all eligible surviving dependents and spouses of public safety officers killed in the line of duty on or after January 1, 1973.

ARTICLE 6

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 16B.335, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [OTHER PROJECTS.] All other capital projects except for those contained in agency operations budgets, including building improvements, small structures at experiment stations, asbestos removal, life safety, PCB removal, tuckpointing, roof repair, code compliance, landscaping, drainage, electrical and mechanical systems work, paving of streets, parking lots, and the like must not proceed until the agency undertaking the project has notified the chair of the senate finance committee and the chair of the house appropriations committee that the work is ready to begin.

Sec. 2. [136A.0411] [COLLECTING FEES.]

The board may charge fees for seminars, conferences, workshops, services, and materials. The money is annually appropriated to the board.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 136A.05, is amended to read:

136A.05 [COOPERATION OF INSTITUTIONS OF HIGHER EDUCATION.]

Subdivision 1. All public institutions of higher education, all school districts providing post-secondary vocational education, and all state departments and agencies shall cooperate with and supply information requested by the higher education coordinating board in order to enable it to carry out and perform its duties. Private post-secondary institutions are requested to cooperate and provide information.

Subd. 2. The higher education coordinating board and public post-secondary institutions shall provide data, in a manner consistent with state and federal laws governing student records, to and as requested by the Minnesota house or senate for research projects and studies qualifying under Code of Federal Regulations, title 34, section 99.31(a)(6). Private post-secondary institutions are requested to cooperate and provide data. As a condition of receiving the data, the house or senate shall enter into an agreement with the board or institutions to ensure that the house or senate will not disclose any data that identify individuals.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 136A.08, is amended to read:

136A.08 [RECIPROCAL AGREEMENTS RELATING TO NON-RESIDENT TUITION WITH OTHER STATES OR PROVINCES.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of this section, the terms "province" and "provincial" mean the Canadian province of Manitoba.

~~Subdivision 1.~~ Subd. 2. [AUTHORIZATION.] The Minnesota higher education coordinating board may enter into agreements, on subjects that include remission of nonresident tuition for designated categories of students at public post-secondary institutions, with appropriate state or provincial agencies and public post-secondary institutions in other states or provinces. The agreements shall be for the purpose of the mutual improvement of educational advantages for residents of this state and other states or provinces with whom agreements are made.

~~Subd. 1a-3.~~ 3. [WISCONSIN.] A higher education reciprocity agreement with the state of Wisconsin may include provision for the transfer of funds between Minnesota and Wisconsin provided that an income tax reciprocity agreement between Minnesota and Wisconsin is in effect for the period of time included under the higher education reciprocity agreement. If this provision is included, the amount of funds to be transferred shall be determined according to a formula which is mutually acceptable to the board and a duly designated agency representing Wisconsin. The formula shall recognize differences in tuition rates between the two states and the number of students attending institutions in each state under the agreement. Any payments to Minnesota by Wisconsin shall be deposited by the board in the general fund of the state treasury. The amount required for the payments shall be certified by the executive director of the higher education coordinating board to the commissioner of finance annually.

~~Subd. 2-4.~~ 4. [NORTH DAKOTA; SOUTH DAKOTA.] A reciprocity agreement with North Dakota may include provision for the transfer of funds between Minnesota and North Dakota. If provision for transfer of funds between the two states is included, the amount of funds to be transferred shall be determined according to a formula which is mutually acceptable to the board and a duly designated agency representing North Dakota. In adopting a formula, the board shall consider tuition rates in the two states and the number of students attending institutions in each state under the agreement. Any payment to Minnesota by North Dakota shall be deposited by the board in the general fund. The amount required for the payments shall be certified by the executive director of the higher education coordinating board to the commissioner of finance annually. All provisions in this subdivision pertaining to North Dakota shall also be applied to South Dakota, and all authority and conditions granted for higher education reciprocity with North Dakota are also granted for higher education reciprocity with South Dakota.

Subd. 3. 5. [FINANCIAL AID.] The board may enter into an agreement, with a state or province with which it has negotiated a reciprocity agreement for tuition, to permit students from both states to receive student aid awards from the student's state or province of residence for attending an eligible institution in the other state or province.

Subd. 4. 6. [GOVERNING BOARD APPROVAL.] An agreement made by the board under this section is not valid as to a particular institution without the approval of that institution's state or provincial governing board. A valid agreement under this subdivision that incurs additional financial liability to the state, beyond enrollment funding adjustments, must be submitted to the chairs of the senate finance and house appropriations committees for review. The agreement remains valid unless it is disapproved in law.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 136A.15, as amended by Laws 1989, chapter 293, sections 33 to 35, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. For purposes of sections 136A.15 to 136A.1702, the terms defined in this section have the meanings ascribed to them.

Subd. 2. "Academic year or its equivalent" shall be as defined in the federal regulations which govern the administration of the National Vocational Student Loan Insurance Act of 1965 and title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965.

Subd. 3. "Board" means the Minnesota higher education coordinating board.

Subd. 4. "Director" means the executive director of the Minnesota higher education coordinating board.

Subd. 5. "Province" means the Canadian province of Manitoba.

Subd. 5- 6. "Eligible institution" means any public educational institution and any private educational institution, in any state which is approved by the United States commissioner of education in accordance with requirements set forth in the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended. It also includes any institution chartered in a province.

Subd. 6- 7. "Eligible lender" means an eligible institution, an agency or instrumentality of a state, or a financial or credit institution (including an insurance company) which is subject to examination and supervision by an agency of the state of Minnesota or of the United States.

Subd. 7- 8. "Eligible student" means a student who is officially registered or accepted for enrollment at an eligible institution in Minnesota or a Minnesota resident who is officially registered as a student or accepted for enrollment at an eligible institution in another state or province. Eligible student, except for purposes of section 136A.1701, includes parents of an eligible student as the term "parent" is defined in the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended, and applicable regulations. Except for the purposes of section 136A.1701, eligible student also includes students eligible for auxiliary loans as the term "auxiliary" is defined in the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended, and applicable regulations. An eligible student, for section 136A.1701, means a student who gives informed consent authorizing the disclosure of data specified in section 136A.162, paragraph (b), to a consumer credit reporting agency.

Subd. 8- 9. "Resident student" means a student who meets the conditions in section 136A.101, subdivision 8.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 136C.05, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES.] A technical college must not contract for administrative services with a school board unless the services are approved by the state director as part of an administrative services plan. Each school board affected by this subdivision shall submit an administrative services plan to the state director.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 136C.08, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Any fee established by the board pursuant to under the authority granted in subdivision 1 shall not exceed $1 per day per vehicle must be approved by the state board. Parking fees collected shall be deposited in the general or repair and betterment fund of the school district or joint school district.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 137.022, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [INVESTMENT.] The investment management of the permanent university fund shall be under the jurisdiction of the board of regents of the University of Minnesota, subject to any limitations imposed by the Constitution of the state of Minnesota, article XI, section 9. All securities and cash held in the state treasury credited to the permanent university fund that are unappropriated or unencumbered are transferred and appropriated to the board of regents of the University of Minnesota solely for the purpose of investment by them, ~~with the restriction that all such investment transactions be handled through the supervision of investment counselors, bank trust departments, or insurance companies which are organized, licensed, or have registered offices within the state of Minnesota or have agreed in writing to conduct such securities transactions and investment counseling under Minnesota law and the rules established by the department of commerce. These.~~ The investments shall be are restricted to those authorized as eligible for use in the Minnesota postretirement investment fund, section 11A.18, with the exception that corporate debt securities may be used to the extent of 80 percent of the portfolio the state board of investment may invest in under section 11A.24.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 137.022, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [ENDOWED CHAIRS.] (a) The income from the permanent university fund must be used, and capital gains of the fund may be used, to help endow provide endowment support for professorial chairs in academic disciplines. This income ~~The endowment support for the chairs from the income and the capital gains must not total more than six percent per year of the 36-month trailing average market value of the fund, as computed quarterly or otherwise as directed by the regents. The endowment support from the income and the capital gains must not provide more than half the sum of the endowments~~ endowment support for all chairs endowed, with non-state sources providing the remainder. The endowment support from the income and the capital gains may provide more than half the endowment support of an individual chair.

(b) If any portion of the annual appropriation that of the income is not used for this the purpose specified in paragraph (a), that portion lapses and must be added to the principal of the permanent university fund.

Sec. 10. Laws 1989, chapter 293, section 2, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Agency Administration
$3,900,000 $2,972,000

(a) The optometry and osteopathy contract program for students who were in the program in the 1986-1987 academic year must be discontinued on June 30, 1990. No new students may be admitted.

(b) As part of its 1991 biennial budget request, the HECB shall report its recommendations for improvements to the SELF program.

(c) Notwithstanding Laws 1987, chapter 401, section 33, the task force on post-secondary quality assessment may continue for the 1989-1991 biennium. The task force membership may be expanded to include public members appointed by the higher education advisory council from nominees submitted by the HECB.

(d) No further funding of the enterprise development centers shall be provided through the HECB. The Greater Minnesota Corporation may provide funding for the centers.

(e) $150,000 for the biennium is for matching grants to post-secondary institutions that submit acceptable proposals for campus community service projects emphasizing students performing as tutors or mentors to their younger peers. Campus community service projects attempt to instill in students the value of civic involvement and the belief that each student's community service can make a difference in the community. The HECB may award up to 20 grants. To receive a grant, a recipient must match the grant amount from any resources available to the institution. The state grant is for a staff person on each recipient's campus to coordinate student community service involvement. Up to $25,000 of the appropriation may be used for HECB administration, coordination, training, consultation, and evaluation costs. The legislature intends the grant program to be phased out at the end of the biennium to be replaced by 100 percent funding by the recipient institutions from any resources available to the institution.

(f) The HECB shall undertake the second phase of the study of post-secondary needs in the state, as provided in Laws 1988, chapter 703, article 1, section 2, subdivision 3. This phase must concentrate on those parts of the state outside the St. Cloud to Rochester population corridor. The HECB may contract for portions of the study, as necessary, but is not subject to Minnesota Statutes, chapter 16B. Before proceeding with the request for proposals, the HECB shall consult with the post-secondary systems, institutions, and other relevant agencies to locate studies and market analyses that could be used in conducting phase 2. The study must focus on (1) an assessment of the current and future conditions and needs; (2) strategies to meet these needs; (3) costs associated with the strategies; and (4) effects of the strategies on existing institutions, state policies, quality of education, improvement of intersystem cooperation, reduction of duplication, and system and institutional missions.

The study should include consideration of at least the following concerns: the current and projected demographic and participation trends; current levels and types of services available; and needs of traditional and nontraditional students; the geographical accessibility of services needed by different types of students; uses of alternative delivery systems, instructional technology, cooperative efforts, and reciprocity agreements; relationships between post-secondary institutions and business; and the physical capacity of existing institutions. The study shall analyze attendance patterns and may include market surveys. The HECB shall report the findings of the study to the education and finance committees of the senate and the education and appropriations committees of the house by December 1, 1990. By January 1, 1991, the HECB shall review and comment on each of the strategies proposed in the study March 15, 1991. In submitting the findings of phase 2, the board shall relate them to the results of phase 1 and their implications for statewide policy.

The study shall serve as the 1990 inter-system plan as required in Minnesota Statutes, section 135A.06, subdivision 2.

(g) The HECB shall analyze and make recommendations on plans submitted for providing undergraduate and practitioner-oriented graduate programs in the seven-county metropolitan area. By February 1, 1990, the HECB shall report on its recommendations to the education and finance committees of the senate and the education and appropriations committees of the house.

Sec. 11. [LOURDES HALL PURCHASE.]

The state university board may purchase Lourdes Hall, located on the campus of the former college of St. Teresa in Winona, for use as a residential college. The purchase may be by contract for deed. If the contract is terminated for default by the board, the seller's exclusive remedies are to retain the payments previously made and repossess the property; the seller must not sue on the contract to recover any additional amounts due under the contract. Responsibility for insuring the property during the term of the contract must be on the seller. Before finalizing the purchase agreement, the board shall obtain the advisory recommendations of the chairs of the senate finance and house appropriations committees.

Sec. 12. [CONSUMER INFORMATION SYSTEM.]

The public post-secondary state governing boards, and private post-secondary colleges and occupational and technical institutions that enroll recipients of state grants, shall develop a consumer information system for occupational programs. The system must be based on student placement and must include all subbaccalaureate occupational programs and all programs that lead to an occupation requiring certification, licensure, or testing for entry. The first phase of the system must include all subbaccalaureate occupational programs. The higher education coordinating board must coordinate the development of the system and must report on it to the chairs of the house appropriations and the senate finance committees by February 15, 1991.

Sec. 13. [REPORT TO LEGISLATURE.]

The state board for community colleges shall report in the 1991 biennial budget document, recommendations for the appropriate administrative structure for a community college campus at Cambridge. In making its recommendations, the board shall review the combined administrative structure for the community colleges located in the Arrowhead and Clearwater regions of the state. The center at Cambridge will be designated as a community college if the legislature enacts an appropriation specifically for this purpose.

Sec. 14. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 3 to 5, and 8 to 12 are effective the day following final enactment."

(c) Gambling Regulation	50,000	350,000
-------------------------	--------	---------

Five investigators and two support staff are added to the department of revenue criminal division. The investigators shall be in the unclassified service. Up to two investigator positions may be auditors. The commissioner shall give a priority within the division to cases that involve violations of the laws governing lawful gambling and shall provide the criminal division with the support resources necessary to carry out its responsibilities. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the criminal investigation unit shall use its existing authority to investigate any potential criminal activity related to lawful gambling. Upon completion of the investigations, the division may refer them to the attorney general for prosecution. The commissioner of revenue shall report to the legislature no later than January 31, 1992, on the results of the division's investigations.

(d) On July 1, 1990, the commissioner of finance shall transfer $60,000 from

(b) Minerals diversification activity		(200,000)
(c) Beaver dam control program		(100,000)
(d) This appropriation is for a grant to the forest resource center for a shiitake mushroom demonstration project. This grant is contingent upon receipt of matching funds at least equal to the amount of the grant.		138,000
(e) Mississippi Headwaters Board		50,000
$10,000 of this amount is for payment to the Leech Lake Band of Chippewa Indians to implement their portion of the comprehensive plan for the upper Mississippi.
(f) For a tree planting for carbon dioxide absorption study.		25,000
(g) By January 1, 1991, the commissioner of natural resources and the commissioner of the pollution control agency, in consultation with representatives of industry that may be affected by a surcharge on carbon dioxide emissions, and representatives of the forestry and environmental communities, shall prepare a report on the use of a surcharge on carbon dioxide emissions. The report shall:
(1) consider an appropriate fee on mechanized sources of carbon dioxide emissions, including motor vehicle and permitted facilities in the air emission inventory of the pollution control agency;
(2) recommend methods of encouraging tree and perennial shrubs and vines

planting to be implemented in lieu of payment of part or all of a surcharge; and

(3) include a planting plan for carbon dioxide absorption that identifies the proper mix of species for adequate absorption, the proper placement of trees for energy efficiency and conservation, the areas of the state most effective for proper tree planting, the adequate production of state nursery stock, the available procurement of private nursery stock, a range of costs to plant adequate species that absorb carbon dioxide, and the current and prospective distribution system to allow adequate species to be planted.

(h) The commissioners of the pollution control agency and the department of natural resources may solicit and accept money from nonstate sources to accomplish the responsibilities in paragraph (g). Donations received to complete the study must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to a separate account. The money in the account received for the purposes of the study is appropriated to the commissioner of natural resources.

Sec. 24. TRADE AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Subdivision 1. Agency Supplemental Appropriations

(a) $500,000 of the unobligated balance in the agricultural and economic development account established in Minnesota Statutes, section 41A.05, subdivision 1, is transferred to the capital access account in the special revenue fund created in Minnesota Statutes, section 116J.876, subdivision 4, for guaranteeing loans under the capital access program. Any remaining balance shall cancel to the general fund.

(b) For the job skills partnership for aviation training. This amount is not subject to the grant limits under Minnesota Statutes, section 116L.04. This portion of the appropriation does not cancel and is available until expended.

(c) For the Minnesota trade office for awarding grants to nonprofit organizations to support cultural and educational exchange programs that may lead to long-term trading relations. Grants must be matched with at least $3 of nonpublic funds for every dollar of state grant funds awarded under this provision.

50,000

(d) For a grant to the region 1 development commission for international trade and promotion activities. The commission must cooperate with similar organizations in North Dakota and Manitoba.

30,000

(e) For the purposes of planning, engineering, and acquisition of a public facilities project in a tourism-intensive area.

(g) For administration of Celebrate 1990.		50,000
(h) Of the amount appropriated for operation and maintenance of the regional park system in fiscal year 1991, $120,000 is for construction of four floating fishing piers on the Mississippi river, two within the boundaries of cities of the first class, and two outside the boundaries of cities of the first class.
(i) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the city of St. Paul shall use all revenue derived from its clawback funding of sewer financing only for sewer separation projects that directly result in the elimination of combined sewer overflow.
Subd. 2. Agency Reductions
(a) General Reduction		(1,040,000)
(b) The complement of the department is reduced by seven positions.
(c) This amount is reduced for the loan to the city of St. Paul for restoration of Union Depot. During the 1992-1993 biennium $500,000 is appropriated to the city of St. Paul for restoration of the Union Depot. This funding is contingent on the city of St. Paul having a plan for the restoration of the depot and raising $2,000,000 from nonstate sources.
	(500,000)
(d) For a reduction from the trade office travel budget.		(50,000)
(e) $300,000 of the export finance working capital account is transferred to the general fund.

Sec. 26. AMATEUR SPORTS COMMISSION		(9,000)

Sec. 27. STATE PLANNING AGENCY		(601,000)
Sec. 28. LEGISLATIVE COMMISSION ON MINNESOTA RESOURCES		(72,000)

(a) The commissioner of finance, upon recommendation of the legislative commission on Minnesota resources, shall reduce the appropriations in Laws 1989, chapter 335, article 1, section 29, by this amount. As the cash flow of the Minnesota resources fund permits, the commissioner of finance shall transfer this amount to the general fund.

(b) The appropriation in Laws 1989, chapter 335, article 1, section 29, subdivision 11, paragraph (j), from the legislative commission on Minnesota resources for a study of wetland plant communities, is available until December 31, 1991.

Sec. 29. LABOR AND INDUSTRY

(a) General Reduction (2,520,000)

$2,450,000 of this reduction is in the transfer from the general fund to the workers' compensation special fund.

(b) Study of Long-Term Workers' Compensation Cases 15,000

This appropriation is for the commissioner of labor and industry to contract for a study of long-term workers' compensation cases. The purposes of the study are to establish a uniform system for identifying factors contributing to recovery and to assist claimants and care providers in identifying the best means for recovery at the earliest possible time. The study must include a pilot test on a sample of claims. The test must evaluate the benefit of the uniform system for workers, employers, medical and rehabilitation providers,

insurers, state monitoring organizations, litigators, and adjudicators. Issues that should be addressed during the test include confidentiality, instrument reliability and validity, information utility and adequacy, data collection systems, and training of personnel. The study must be conducted by an organization with substantial background in medical and psychological instrumentation and substantial knowledge of disability assessment. Bidders without a direct interest in the workers' compensation system as insurers or health care providers must be preferred. A report of the study must be submitted to the commissioner of labor and industry and the legislature by July 1, 1991. Expenditure of this appropriation is contingent upon the commitment by private sources to the commissioner of labor and industry of private monies, outside of the state general fund, in an amount at least equal to five times the amount of the appropriation as additional funding for the study to be conducted under this section.

Sec. 30. MEDIATION SERVICES	(36,000)

Sec. 31. MILITARY AFFAIRS	(189,000)
---------------------------	-----------

Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the department of military affairs, with the assistance of the management analysis division of the department of administration, shall analyze the cost savings that may be obtained through multiple use, the time-sharing, consolidation, or closure of armories throughout the state.

Sec. 32. VETERANS AFFAIRS	(52,000)
---------------------------	----------

Sec. 33. HUMAN RIGHTS	(60,000)
-----------------------	----------

The department of human rights may not be charged by the attorney general for legal representation on behalf of complaining parties who have filed a charge of discrimination with the department. This provision is effective retroactive to July 1, 1989. The department does not have an obligation to pay for any services rendered by the attorney general since July 1, 1985, in excess of the amounts already paid for those services.

Sec. 34. DISABILITIES COUNCIL		(10,000)
-------------------------------	--	----------

The appropriation in Laws 1989, chapter 335, article 1, section 41, may be used in part for grants, in coordination with statewide handicapped arts organizations, to arts organizations throughout the state that will serve individuals with disabilities, regardless of the size of their operating budgets.

Sec. 35. RETIREMENT CONTRIBUTIONS

(a) General fund		(2,206,000)
(b) Trunk highway fund		(1,864,000)
(c) Other funds		(1,149,000)

With the exception of appropriations made to the University of Minnesota, the community college system, the technical college system, and the state university system, the commissioner of finance shall reduce each state agency's fiscal year 1991 appropriation by an amount equal to the sum of:

(1) .22 percent of the agency's fiscal year 1991 salaries paid to employees covered by the general state employee retirement plan established in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 352.

(2) 2.43 percent of the agency's fiscal year 1991 salaries paid to employees covered by the correctional employees

retirement plan established in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 352.

(3) 4.02 percent of the agency's fiscal year 1991 salaries paid to employees covered by the state patrol retirement plan established in Minnesota Statutes, section 352B.02.

(4) .84 percent of the agency's fiscal year 1991 salaries paid to employees covered by the teacher's retirement plan established in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 354.

The appropriation reductions made under this section are permanent reductions to each agency's budget.

Sec. 36. [TRANSFER PROHIBITED.]

If an amount is specified in this act for an item within an activity, that amount must not be transferred or used for any other purpose.

Sec. 37. [MANAGING REDUCTIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPROPRIATION AVAILABILITY.] If the appropriation from the general fund to an agency listed in this act in either year of the biennium ending June 30, 1991, is insufficient, upon the advance approval of the commissioner of finance the appropriation for the other year is available for it.

Subd. 2. [BASE REDUCTIONS.] The appropriations reduced from an agency by this act, before any adjustments under subdivision 1, must not be added back to the agency's appropriation base for the 1992-1993 biennium.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 2.722, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [DETERMINATION OF A JUDICIAL VACANCY.] (a) When a judge of the district, county, or county municipal court dies, resigns, retires, or is removed from office, the supreme court, in consultation with judges and attorneys in the affected district, shall determine within 90 days of receiving notice of a vacancy from the governor whether the vacant office is necessary for effective judicial administration. The supreme court may continue the position, may order the position abolished, or may transfer the position to a judicial district where need for additional judges exists, designating the position as either a county, county/municipal or district court judgeship. The supreme court shall certify any vacancy to the governor, who shall fill it in the manner provided by law.

(b) If a judge of district court fails to timely file an affidavit of candidacy and filing fee or petition in lieu of a fee, the official with whom the affidavits of candidacy are required to be filed shall notify the supreme court that the incumbent judge is not seeking reelection. Within five days of receipt of the notice, the supreme court shall determine whether the judicial position is necessary for effective judicial administration and notify the official responsible for certifying the election results of its determination. The supreme court may continue the position, may order the position abolished, or may transfer the position to a judicial district where the need for additional judgeships exists. If the position is abolished or transferred, the election may not be held. If the position is transferred, the court shall also notify the governor of the transfer. Upon transfer, the position is vacant and the governor shall fill it in the manner provided by law. An order abolishing or transferring a position is effective the first Monday in the next January.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 3.736, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [PAYMENT.] A state agency, including an entity defined as part of the state in section 3.732, subdivision 1, clause (1), incurring a tort claim judgment or settlement obligation or whose employees acting within the scope of their employment incur the obligation shall seek approval to make payment by submitting a written request to the commissioner of finance. The request shall contain a description of the tort claim that causes the request, specify the amount of the obligation and be accompanied by copies of judgments, settlement agreements or other documentation relevant to the obligation for which the agency seeks payment. Upon receipt of the request and review of the claim, the commissioner of finance shall determine the proper appropriation from which to make payment. If there is enough money in an appropriation or combination of appropriations to the agency for its general operations and management to pay the claim without unduly hindering the operation of the agency, the commissioner shall direct that payment be made from that source. Claims relating to activities paid for by appropriations of dedicated receipts shall be paid from those appropriations if practicable. On determining that an agency has sufficient money in these appropriations to pay only part of a claim, the commissioner shall pay the remainder of the claim from the money appropriated to the commissioner for the purpose. On determining that the agency does not have enough money to pay any part of the claim, the commissioner shall pay all of the claim from money appropriated to the commissioner for the purpose. ~~On January 1 and July 1 of each year, the commissioner of finance shall transmit to~~ the legislature and to the chair of the house appropriations and senate finance committees copies of all requests in the preceding six months together with a report on the payments made with respect to each request. Payment shall be made only upon receipt of a written release by the claimant in a form approved by the attorney general, or the person designated as the university attorney, as the case may be.

No attachment or execution shall issue against the state.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 11A.07, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [APPORTIONMENT OF EXPENSES.] The executive director shall apportion the actual expenses incurred by the board on an accrual basis among the several funds whose assets are invested by the board based on the weighted average assets under management during each quarter. The charge to each retirement fund must be calculated, billed, and paid on a quarterly basis in accordance with procedures for interdepartmental payments established by the commissioner of finance. The amounts necessary to pay these charges are appropriated from the investment earnings of each retirement fund. Receipts must be credited to the general fund as nondedicated receipts. ~~Funds other than retirement funds must not be billed; their portion of the expenses will be borne by the general fund.~~

Sec. 41. [15.082] [OBLIGATIONS OF PUBLIC CORPORATIONS.]

Notwithstanding any other law, the state is not liable for obligations of a public corporation created by statute. Upon dissolution of the public corporation, its wholly-owned assets become state property. Partially owned assets become state property to the extent that state money was used to acquire them.

This section does not apply to a public corporation governed by chapter 119.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 15.53, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS.] A state department or agency must report to the department of employee relations an interchange with a political subdivision in which it is participating either as a sending or receiving agency. The report must include identification of the political subdivision, the length of the individual assignment, and the duties of the individual assignment.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 16A.11, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PART TWO: DETAILED BUDGET.] Part two of the budget, the detailed budget estimates both of expenditures and revenues, shall also include statements of the bonded indebtedness of the state, showing the actual amount of the debt service for at least the past two completed fiscal years, and the estimated amount for the current fiscal year and for the next two fiscal years, the debt authorized and unissued, the condition of the sinking funds, and the borrowing capacity. It shall also contain any statements on the financial plan which the governor believes desirable or which may be required by the legislature. The detailed estimates shall include the budget request of each agency arranged in tabular form so it may readily be compared with the governor's budget for each agency. They shall also include, as part of each agency's organization chart, a summary of the personnel employed by the agency, showing the complement approved by the legislature for the current biennium, additional complement positions authorized through the governor or the commissioner, positions transferred into or out of the agency, additional part-time and seasonal positions and the number of employees of all kinds employed by the agency on June 30 of the last complete fiscal year. The summary of the number of employees must list employees by employment status, including but not limited to full-time unlimited, part-time unlimited, full-time or part-time seasonal, intermittent, full-time or part-time temporary, full-time or part-time emergency, and other. The summary of personnel shall also be shown for each functional division of the agency, and for each fund and type of appropriation.

Any increase in complement with the exception of federal positions, approved by the commissioner of finance as temporary positions, shall be reflected in the governor's budget recommendations to the legislature as change request items. These positions are not permanent positions until the legislature has approved the change request items.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 16A.133, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PAYROLL DIRECT DEPOSIT AND DEDUCTIONS.] An agency head in the executive, judicial, and legislative branch may shall, upon written request signed by an employee, directly deposit all or part of an employee's pay in any credit union or financial institution, as defined in section 47.015, designated by the employee. An agency head may, upon written request of an employee, deduct from the pay of the employee a requested amount to be paid to the Minnesota benefit association, or to any organization contemplated by section 179A.06, of which the employee is a member, or to a company that has contracted to insure the employee for the medical costs of cancer or intensive care. If an employee is a member of or has accounts with more than one credit union or financial institution or more than one organization under section 179A.06, or is insured by more than one company, only one credit union or financial institution and one organization and one company may be paid money by direct deposit or by payroll deduction from the employee's pay.

Sec. 45. [16A.79] [MATCHING FEDERAL APPROPRIATIONS.]

Specific appropriations that are made to match federal appropriations shall be considered change requests in the following biennial budget submission if, during the biennium, the federal funding has been reduced or eliminated.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 16B.24, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PROPERTY RENTAL.] (a) [LEASES.] The commissioner shall rent land and other premises when necessary for state purposes. The commissioner may lease land or premises for five years or less, subject to cancellation upon 30 days written notice by the state for any reason except rental of other land or premises for the same use. The commissioner may not rent non-state-owned land and buildings or substantial portions of land or buildings within the capitol area as defined in section 15.50 unless the commissioner first consults with the capitol area architectural and planning board. If the commissioner enters into a lease-purchase agreement for buildings or substantial portions of buildings within the capitol area, the commissioner shall require that any new construction of non-state-owned buildings conform to design guidelines of the capitol area architectural and planning board. Lands needed by the department of transportation for storage of vehicles or road materials may be rented for five years or less, such leases for terms over two years being subject to cancellation upon 30 days written notice by the state for any reason except rental of other land or premises for the same use. An agency or department head must consult with the chairs of the house appropriations and senate finance committees before entering into any agreement that would cause an agency's rental costs to increase by ten percent or more per square foot or would increase the number of square feet of office space rented by the agency by 25 percent or more in any fiscal year.

(b) [USE VACANT PUBLIC SPACE.] No agency may initiate or renew a lease for space for its own use in a private building unless the commissioner has thoroughly investigated presently vacant space in public buildings, such as closed school buildings, and found that none is available.

(c) [PREFERENCE FOR CERTAIN BUILDINGS.] For needs beyond those which can be accommodated in state-owned buildings, the commissioner shall acquire and utilize space in suitable buildings of historical, architectural, or cultural significance for the purposes of this subdivision unless use of that space is not feasible, prudent and cost effective compared with available alternatives.

Buildings are of historical, architectural, or cultural significance if they are listed on the national register of historic places, designated by a state or county historical society, or designated by a municipal preservation commission.

(d) [RECYCLING SPACE.] Leases for space of 30 days or more for 5,000 square feet or more must require that space be provided for recyclable materials.

Sec. 47. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 16B.465, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CREATION.] The statewide telecommunications access routing system provides voice, data, video, and other telecommunications transmission services to state agencies, educational institutions, including private colleges, public corporations, and state political subdivisions. It is not a telephone company for purposes of chapter 237. It shall not resell or sublease any services or facilities to nonpublic entities except it may serve private colleges. The commissioner has the responsibility for planning, development, and operations of a statewide telecommunications access routing system in order to provide cost-effective telecommunications transmission services to system users.

Sec. 48. [88.81] [FOREST MANAGEMENT PRACTICES IN LITIGATION.]

The commissioner may not implement new or revised forest management practices as part of agreements relating to litigation until the commissioner has reported the forest management practices to the chairs of the environment and natural resources committees of the legislature at the next regular session of the legislature.

Sec. 49. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 105.41, subdivision 5a, is amended to read:

Subd. 5a. [WATER USE PROCESSING FEE.] (a) Except as provided in ~~paragraph~~ paragraphs (b) to (e), a water use processing fee ~~not to exceed $2,000~~ must be prescribed by the commissioner in accordance with the following schedule of fees for each water use permit in force at any time during the year:

(1) 0.05 cent per 1,000 gallons for the first 50 million gallons per year; and

(2) ~~0.1~~ 0.10 cents per 1,000 gallons for the amounts greater than 50 million gallons but less than 100 million gallons per year; and

(3) 0.15 cents per 1,000 gallons for amounts greater than 100 million gallons but less than 150 million gallons per year; and

(4) 0.20 cents per 1,000 gallons for amounts greater than 150 million gallons but less than 200 million gallons per year; and

(5) 0.25 cents per 1,000 gallons for amounts greater than 200 million gallons but less than 250 million gallons per year; and

(6) 0.30 cents per 1,000 gallons for amounts greater than 250 million gallons but less than 300 million gallons per year; and

(7) 0.35 cents per 1,000 gallons for amounts greater than 300 million gallons but less than 350 million gallons per year; and

(8) 0.40 cents per 1,000 gallons for amounts greater than 350 million gallons but less than 400 million gallons per year; and

(9) 0.45 cents per 1,000 gallons for amounts greater than 400 million gallons per year.

(b) For once-through cooling systems as defined in subdivision 1c, a water use processing fee must be prescribed by the commissioner in accordance with the following schedule of fees for each water use permit in force at any time during the year:

(1) for nonprofit corporations and school districts:

(i) 5.0 cents per 1,000 gallons until December 31, 1991;

(2) (ii) 10.0 cents for 1,000 gallons from January 1, 1992, until December 31, 1996; and

(3) (iii) 15.0 cents per 1,000 gallons after January 1, 1997; and

(2) for all other users after January 1, 1990, 20 cents per 1,000 gallons.

(c) The fee is payable based on the amount of water permitted appropriated during the year and in no case may the fee be less than $25 $50.

(d) For water use processing fees other than once-through cooling systems:

(1) the fee for a city of the first class may not exceed $175,000 per year;

(2) the fee for other entities for any permitted use may not exceed:

(i) $35,000 per year for an entity holding three or fewer permits;

(ii) $50,000 per year for an entity holding four or five permits;

(iii) $175,000 per year for an entity holding more than five permits;

(3) the fee for agricultural irrigation may not exceed $750 per year.

(e) Failure to pay the fee is sufficient cause for revoking a permit. A fee may not be imposed on an agency, as defined in section 16B.01, subdivision 2, or federal governmental agency holding a water appropriation permit.

(f) This subdivision applies to permits issued or effective on or after January 1, 1990.

Sec. 50. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 115A.54, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [SOLID WASTE MANAGEMENT PROJECTS.] (a) The board shall provide technical and financial assistance for the acquisition and betterment of solid waste management projects as provided in this subdivision and section 115A.52. Money appropriated for the purposes of this subdivision must be distributed as grants.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (c), a project may receive grant assistance up to 25 percent of the capital cost of the project or $2,000,000, whichever is less, except that projects constructed as a result of intercounty cooperative agreements may receive (1) grant assistance up to 25 percent of the capital cost of the project; or (2) $2,000,000 times the number of participating counties, whichever is less.

(c) A recycling project or a project to compost or co-compost waste may receive grant assistance up to 50 percent of the capital cost of the project or $2,000,000, whichever is less, except that projects completed as a result of intercounty cooperative agreements may receive (1) grant assistance up to 50 percent of the capital cost of the project; or (2) $2,000,000 times the number of participating counties, whichever is less.

(d) Notwithstanding paragraph (e), the agency may award grants for transfer stations that will initially transfer waste to landfills if the transfer stations are part of a planned resource recovery project, the county where the planned resource recovery facility will be located has a comprehensive solid waste management plan approved by the agency, and the solid waste management plan proposes the development of the resource recovery facility. If the proposed resource recovery facility is not in place and operating within five years of the date of the grant award, the recipient shall repay the grant amount to the state.

(e) Projects without resource recovery are not eligible for assistance.

(f) In addition to any assistance received under clause (b) or (c), a project may receive grant assistance for the cost of tests necessary to determine the appropriate pollution control equipment for the project or the environmental effects of the use of any product or material produced by the project.

(g) In addition to the application requirements of section 115A.51, an application for a project serving eligible jurisdictions in only a single county must demonstrate that cooperation with jurisdictions in other counties to develop the project is not needed or not feasible. Each application must also demonstrate that the project is not financially prudent without the state assistance, because of the applicant's financial capacity and the problems inherent in the waste management situation in the area, particularly transportation distances and limited waste supply and markets for resources recovered.

(h) For the purposes of this subdivision, a "project" means a processing facility, together with any transfer stations, transmission facilities, and other related and appurtenant facilities primarily serving the processing facility. The board shall adopt rules for the program by July 1, 1985.

Sec. 51. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 116.36, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. For the purposes of this section and section 116.37 sections 116.36 to 116.38, the following terms shall have the meanings given.

Sec. 52. [116.38] [PCB BURNING.]

Subdivision 1. [STATE POLICY.] The legislature finds that risks to human health must be adequately evaluated before a facility may burn PCBs. The legislature also finds that if there is a risk to human health, all human health must be treated with equal concern, and facilities that cause risks to human health must not be allowed to operate in sparsely populated areas if they would not be allowed to operate in heavily populated areas.

Subd. 2. [EIS REQUIRED.] The pollution control agency may not allow burning of wastes containing 50 ppm or greater PCBs by permit or otherwise unless an environmental impact statement is completed. It may not renew a permit for burning wastes containing 50 ppm or greater PCBs until an environmental impact statement is completed. This section does not apply to experimental burning of small quantities of waste containing 50 ppm or greater PCBs.

Sec. 53. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 116.65, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [APPROPRIATION.] The amount necessary to pay the inspection maintenance operator during the initial contract period for the contract entered into under section 116.62, subdivision 3, is appropriated from the vehicle emission inspection account to the agency. By the end of the initial contract entered by the agency under section 116.62, subdivision 3, the amounts appropriated from the motor vehicle transfer fund to the vehicle emission inspection account must be repaid to the transfer fund, and the amounts necessary for this repayment are appropriated from the vehicle emission inspection account.

Sec. 54. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 116.85, is amended to read:

116.85 [MONITORS REQUIRED FOR INCINERATORS.]

Subdivision 1. [EMISSION MONITORS.] Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, an incinerator permit that contains emission limits for dioxin, cadmium, chromium, lead, or mercury must, as a condition of the permit, require the installation of an air emission monitoring system approved by the commissioner. The monitoring system must provide continuous measurements to ensure optimum combustion efficiency for the purpose of ensuring optimum dioxin destruction. The system shall also be capable of providing a permanent record of monitored emissions that will be available upon request to the commissioner and the general public. The commissioner shall provide periodic inspection of the monitoring system to determine its continued accuracy. The facility must conduct periodic stack testing for mercury at intervals not to exceed 90 days. Refuse-derived fuel facilities must conduct periodic stack testing for mercury at intervals not to exceed 15 months unless a previous test showed a permit exceedance after which the agency may require quarterly testing until permit requirements are satisfied.

Subd. 2. [CONTINUOUSLY MONITORED EMISSIONS.] Should, at any time after normal startup, the permitted facility's continuously monitored emissions exceed permit requirements, based on accurate and valid emissions data, the facility shall immediately report the exceedance to the commissioner and immediately either commence appropriate modifications to the facility to ensure its ability to meet permitted requirements or commence shutdown if the modifications cannot be completed within 72 hours. Compliance with permit requirements must then be demonstrated based on additional testing.

Subd. 3. [PERIODICALLY TESTED EMISSIONS.] Should, at any time after normal startup, the permitted facility's periodically tested emissions exceed permit requirements based on accurate and valid emissions data, the facility shall immediately report the exceedance to the commissioner, and the commissioner shall direct the facility to commence appropriate modifications to the facility to ensure its ability to meet permitted requirements within 30 days, or to commence appropriate testing for a maximum of 30 days to ensure compliance with applicable permit limits. If the commissioner determines that compliance has not been achieved after 30 days, then the facility shall shut down until compliance with permit requirements is demonstrated based on additional testing.

Subd. 4. [OTHER LAW.] This section shall not be construed to limit the authority of the agency to regulate incinerator operations under any other law.

Sec. 55. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 116D.045, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. The responsible governmental unit shall assess the project proposer for reasonable costs in preparing and distributing the environmental impact statement and the proposer shall pay the assessed cost to the responsible governmental unit. All money received pursuant to this subdivision shall be deposited in the general fund. Money received under this subdivision by a responsible governmental unit that is not a state agency may be retained by the unit for the same purposes. Money received by a state agency must be credited to a special account and is appropriated to the agency to cover the assessed costs incurred.

Sec. 56. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 116P.05, is amended to read:

116P.05 [MINNESOTA FUTURE RESOURCES COMMISSION.]

(a) A Minnesota future resources commission of 16 members is created, consisting of the chairs of the house and senate committees on environment and natural resources or designees appointed for the terms of the chairs, the chairs of the house appropriations and senate finance committees or designees appointed for the terms of the chairs, six members of the senate appointed by the subcommittee on committees of the committee on rules and administration, and six members of the house appointed by the speaker. The commission shall develop a budget plan for expenditures from the trust fund and shall adopt a strategic plan as provided in section 116P.08.

(b) The commission shall recommend expenditures to the legislature from the Minnesota future resources account under section 116P.13. At least two members from the senate and two members from the house must be from the minority caucus. Members are entitled to reimbursement for per diem expenses plus travel expenses incurred in the services of the commission.

(c) Members shall appoint a chair who shall preside and convene meetings as often as necessary to conduct duties prescribed by this chapter.

(d) Members shall serve on the commission until their successors are appointed.

(e) Vacancies occurring on the commission shall not affect the authority of the remaining members of the commission to carry out their duties, and vacancies shall be filled in the same manner under paragraph (a).

(f) The commission may adopt bylaws and operating procedures to fulfill their duties under sections 116P.01 to 116P.13.

Sec. 57. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 116P.11, is amended to read:

116P.11 [AVAILABILITY OF FUNDS FOR DISBURSEMENT.]

(a) The amount biennially available from the trust fund for the budget plan developed by the commission consists of the interest earnings generated from the trust fund generated in the preceding two fiscal years ending on the even-numbered year.

(b) For funding projects through fiscal year 1997, the following additional amounts are available from the trust fund for the budget plans developed by the commission:

(1) for the 1991-1993 biennium, up to 25 percent of the revenue deposited in the trust fund in fiscal years ~~1989~~ 1990 and ~~1990~~ 1991;

(2) for the 1993-1995 biennium, up to 20 percent of the revenue deposited in the trust fund in fiscal year 1991 and up to 15 percent of the revenue deposited in the fund in fiscal year 1992; and

(3) for the 1995-1997 biennium, up to ten percent of the revenue deposited in the fund in fiscal year 1993 and up to five percent of the revenue deposited in the fund in fiscal year 1994.

(c) Any appropriated funds not encumbered in the biennium in which they are appropriated cancel and must be credited to the principal of the trust fund.

Sec. 58. [116Q.01] [GREAT LAKES PROTECTION FUND.]

The Great Lakes protection fund has been created by the governors of the eight Great Lakes states as a nonprofit corporation under the laws of the state of Illinois. The fund is a permanent endowment whose purpose is to advance the principles, goals, and objectives of the Great Lakes toxic substances control agreement executed by the governors of the eight Great Lakes states in May 1986 and to ensure the continuous development of needed scientific information, new cleanup technologies, and innovative methods of managing pollution problems as a cooperative effort in the Great Lakes region. The governor may enter this state as a member of the Great Lakes protection fund and do all things necessary or incidental to participate in the fund, as spelled out in its articles of incorporation, filed with the Illinois secretary of state on or about September 26, 1989, and its bylaws, as amended through September 26, 1989. If congressional consent to the Great Lakes protection fund carries with it conditions that materially change the provisions agreed to by the party states, this state reserves the option to terminate further participation in the fund.

Sec. 59. [116Q.02] [STATE RECEIPTS FROM THE FUND.]

Subdivision 1. [GREAT LAKES PROTECTION ACCOUNT.] Any money received by the state from the Great Lakes protection fund, whether in the form of annual earnings or otherwise, must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to a special Great Lakes protection account. Money in the account must be spent only as specifically appropriated by law for protecting water quality in the Great Lakes. Approved purposes include, but are not limited to, supplementing in a stable and predictable manner state and federal commitments to Great Lakes water quality programs by providing grants to finance projects that advance the goals of the regional Great Lakes toxic substances control agreement and the binational Great Lakes water quality agreement.

Subd. 2. [LCMR REVIEW.] The legislature intends not to appropriate money from the Great Lakes protection account until projects have been reviewed and recommended by the legislative commission on Minnesota resources. A work plan must be prepared for each project for review by the commission. The commission must recommend specific projects to the legislature.

Sec. 60. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 190.08, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR.] The adjutant general may appoint an executive director of the department of military affairs. The executive director shall serve at the pleasure of the adjutant general.

Sec. 61. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 190.25, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. The adjutant general is authorized to sell in the manner provided by law any or all

(1) land, and

(2) timber, growing crops, buildings, and other improvements, if any, situated upon the lands land, acquired under the authority of subdivision 1 or which may hereafter comprise the Camp Ripley military field training center and not needed for military training purposes. The proceeds of any sales shall be deposited in the general fund. The adjutant general may use funds that are directly appropriated for the acquisition of land, the payment of expenses of forest management on land forming the Camp Ripley military reservation, and the provision of an enlisted person's service center.

Sec. 62. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 270.064, is amended to read:

270.064 [REQUESTING ASSISTANCE IN CRIMINAL TAX INVESTIGATIONS.]

If the commissioner of revenue has reason to believe that a criminal violation of the state tax laws or chapter 349 has occurred, the commissioner may request the attorney general or the prosecuting authority of any county to assist in a criminal tax investigation and may disclose ~~return~~ information to the prosecuting authority relevant to the investigation.

Sec. 63. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.68, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LEGAL ACTION.] In addition to all other methods authorized by law for the collection of tax, if any tax payable to the commissioner of revenue or to the department of revenue, including penalties and interest thereon, is not paid within 60 days after it is required by law to be paid, the commissioner of revenue may, within five years after the date of assessment of the tax, bring an action at law against the person liable for the payment or collection of the tax, in the name of the state, for the recovery of the tax and interest and penalties due in respect thereof. The action shall be brought in the district court of the judicial district in which lies the county of the residence or principal place of business within this state of the taxpayer, or, in the case of an estate or trust, of the place of its principal administration, and for this purpose the place named as such in the return, if any, made by the taxpayer shall be conclusive against the taxpayer in this matter. If no place is named in the return, the action may be commenced in Ramsey county. The action shall be commenced by filing with the court administrator a statement showing the name and address of the taxpayer, if known, an itemized summary of the taxable periods and the type of tax, the tax due and unpaid and the interest and penalties due with respect thereto under the provisions of law applicable to the tax, and shall contain a prayer that the court adjudge the taxpayer to be indebted on account of the taxes, interest, and penalties in the amount specified in the statement; a copy of the statement shall be furnished to the court administrator therewith. The court administrator shall mail a copy of the statement by certified mail to the taxpayer at the address given in the return, if any; and, if no address is given, then at the taxpayer's last known address, within five days after the same is filed, except that, if the taxpayer's address is not known, notice shall be made by posting a copy of the statement for ten days in the place in the courthouse where public notices are regularly posted. To litigate the claim, or any part thereof, the taxpayer shall file a verified answer with the court administrator setting forth objections to the claim, or any part thereof; the answer shall be filed on or before the 20th day after the date of mailing the statement; or, if notice has been given by posting, on or before the 20th day after the expiration of the period during which the notice was required to be posted. If no answer is filed within the specified time, the court administrator, upon the filing of an affidavit of default, shall enter judgment for the state in the amount prayed for, plus costs of $10. If an answer is filed, the issues raised shall stand for trial as soon as possible after the filing of the answer, and the court shall determine the issues and direct judgment accordingly; and, if the taxes, interest, or penalties are sustained to any extent over the amount rendered by the taxpayer, shall assess $10 costs against the taxpayer. The court shall disregard all technicalities and matters of form not affecting the substantial merits. The commissioner may call upon the county attorney or the attorney general to conduct the proceedings on behalf of the state. If a proceeding is referred to a county attorney, and the county attorney fails to issue or cause to be issued an indictment or criminal complaint within 30 days after the referral by the commissioner, the attorney general may conduct the proceeding. Execution shall be issued upon the judgment at the request of the commissioner, and the execution shall, in all other respects, be governed by the laws applicable to executions issued on judgments. Only the homestead and household goods of the judgment debtor shall be exempt from seizure and sale upon the execution.

Sec. 64. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 282.014, is amended to read:

282.014 [COMPLETION OF SALE AND CONVEYANCE.]

Upon compliance by the purchaser with the provisions of sections

~~282.011~~ to ~~282.015~~ this chapter and with the terms and conditions of the sale, and upon full payment for the land, plus a $20 ~~$25~~ fee in addition to the sale price, the sale shall be complete and a conveyance of the land shall be issued to the purchaser as provided by the appropriate statutes according to the status of the land upon forfeiture.

The conveyance must be forwarded to the county recorder who shall record the conveyance before the auditor issues it to the purchaser.

Sec. 65. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 296.06, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REQUIREMENTS FOR ISSUANCE.] A distributor's license shall be issued to any responsible person qualifying as a distributor who makes application therefor, and who shall pay to the commissioner at the time thereof and annually thereafter a license fee of $10 ~~$25~~, and who shall further comply with the following conditions:

(1) A written application shall be made in a manner approved by the commissioner, who shall require the applicant or licensee to deposit with the state treasurer securities of the United States government or the state of Minnesota or to execute and file a bond, with a corporate surety approved by the commissioner, to the state of Minnesota in an amount to be determined by the commissioner and in a form to be fixed by the commissioner and approved by the attorney general, and which shall be conditioned for the payment when due of all excise taxes, inspection fees, penalties, and accrued interest arising in the ordinary course of business or by reason of any delinquent money which may be due the state of Minnesota; the bond shall cover all places of business within the state where petroleum products are received by the licensee; and the applicant or licensee shall designate and maintain an agent in this state upon whom service may be had for all purposes of this section.

(2) An initial applicant for a distributor's license shall furnish a bond in a minimum sum of $3,000 for the first year;

(3) The commissioner, on reaching the opinion that the bond given by a licensee is inadequate in amount to fully protect the state, shall require an additional bond in such amount as the commissioner deems sufficient;

(4) A licensee who desires to be exempt from depositing securities or furnishing such bond, as hereinbefore provided shall furnish an itemized financial statement showing the assets and the liabilities of the applicant and if it shall appear to the commissioner, from the financial statement or otherwise, that the applicant is financially responsible, then the commissioner may exempt such applicant from depositing such securities or furnishing such bond until the commissioner otherwise orders.

(5) The premium on any bond required under clauses (1) and (2), and on any additional bond required under clause (3), shall be paid by the commissioner out of a bond premium fund required to be set up from an appropriation by the legislature from whatever funds are available. All of said bonds required during each license period shall be purchased by the commissioner of administration from the lowest responsible bidder after advertising for competitive bids in the manner prescribed by Laws 1939, chapter 431, article II, as amended. The commissioner of administration shall call for bids within a reasonable period prior to the commencement of license period.

(6) Each license period shall be for one year ending each June 30.

(7) Upon application to the commissioner and compliance by the applicant with the provisions of this subdivision, the commissioner also shall issue a distributor's license to (a) any person engaged in this state in the bulk storage of petroleum products and the distribution thereof by tank car or tank truck or both, and (b) any person holding an unrevoked license as a distributor since January 1, 1947, and (c) any person holding a license and performing a function under the motor fuel tax law of an adjoining state equivalent to that of a distributor under this act, who desires to ship or deliver petroleum products from that state to persons in this state not licensed as distributors in this state and who agrees to assume with respect to all petroleum products so shipped or delivered the liabilities of a distributor receiving petroleum products in this state, provided, however, that any such license shall be issued only for the purpose of permitting such person to receive in this state the petroleum products so shipped or delivered. Except as herein provided, all persons licensed as distributors under this clause shall have the same rights and privileges and be subject to the same duties, requirements and penalties as other licensed distributors.

Sec. 66. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 296.12, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SPECIAL FUEL DEALERS' LICENSE REQUIREMENTS.] No person except a licensed distributor shall engage in the business of selling or delivering special fuel as a special fuel dealer without having applied for and secured from the commissioner a special fuel dealer's license. The application shall be made in a manner approved by the commissioner and shall be accompanied by the payment of ~~$10~~ $25, which shall be the license fee. A special fuel dealer's license shall be issued to any responsible person qualifying as a special fuel dealer who makes proper application therefor. The license shall be displayed in a conspicuous manner in the place of business and shall expire annually on November 30.

A special fuel dealer who discontinues, sells or disposes of the business in any manner, at any time, shall surrender the dealer's special fuel dealer's license at the commissioner's office in St. Paul, Minnesota.

Sec. 67. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 296.12, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [BULK PURCHASERS' LICENSE REQUIREMENTS.] No person shall receive special fuel as a bulk purchaser without having applied for and secured from the commissioner a bulk purchaser's license. The application shall be made in a manner approved by the commissioner and shall be accompanied by the payment of ~~$10~~ $25, which shall be the license fee. A bulk purchaser's license shall be issued to any responsible person qualifying as a bulk purchaser who makes proper application therefor. The license shall be displayed in a conspicuous manner in the place of business and shall expire annually on November 30.

A bulk purchaser who discontinues, sells or disposes of the business in any manner, at any time, shall surrender the bulk purchaser's license at the commissioner's office in St. Paul, Minnesota.

Sec. 68. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 296.17, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [LICENSE.] (a) No motor carrier may operate a commercial motor vehicle upon the highways of this state unless and until issued a license pursuant to this section or has obtained a trip permit or temporary authorization as provided in this section.

(b) A license shall be issued to any responsible person qualifying as a motor carrier who makes application therefor and who pays to the commissioner, at the time thereof, a license fee of ~~$20~~ $30. The license is valid for a period of up to two years or until revoked by the commissioner or until surrendered by the motor carrier. All outstanding licenses will expire on March 31 of each even-numbered year beginning with 1984 and may be renewed upon application to the commissioner and payment of the ~~$20~~ $30 fee. The license, photocopy, or electrostatic copy of it, shall be carried in the cab of every commercial motor vehicle while it is being operated in Minnesota by a licensed motor carrier.

Sec. 69. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 296.17, subdivision 17, is amended to read:

Subd. 17. [TRIP PERMITS AND TEMPORARY AUTHORIZATIONS.] (a) A motor carrier may obtain a trip permit which shall authorize an unlicensed motor carrier to operate a commercial motor vehicle in Minnesota for a period of five consecutive days beginning and ending on the dates specified on the face of the permit. The fee for the permit shall be ~~$15~~ $25. Fees for trip permits shall be in lieu of the road tax otherwise assessable against the motor carrier on account of the commercial motor vehicle operating therewith, and no reports of mileage shall be required with respect to the vehicle.

The above permit shall be issued in lieu of license if in the course of operations a motor carrier operates on Minnesota highways no more than three times in any one calendar year.

(b) Whenever the commissioner is satisfied that unforeseen or uncertain circumstances have arisen which requires a motor carrier to operate in this state a commercial motor vehicle for which neither a trip permit pursuant to clause (a) of this subdivision nor a license pursuant to subdivisions 7 to 22 has yet been obtained, and if the commissioner is satisfied that prohibition of that operation would cause undue hardship, the commissioner may provide the motor carrier with temporary authorization for the operation of the vehicle. A motor carrier receiving temporary authorization pursuant to this subdivision shall perfect the same either by obtaining a trip permit or a license, as the case may be, for the vehicle at the earliest practicable time.

Sec. 70. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.22, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [OTHER ACTION.] This section does not preclude civil or criminal actions under other applicable law or preclude any agency of government from investigating or prosecuting violations of the provisions of sections 349.11 to 349.214. County attorneys and the attorney general have primary joint responsibility for prosecuting violations of sections 349.11 to 349.214, but and the attorney general may prosecute any violation of those sections. If the county attorney fails to initiate the prosecution within 30 days, the attorney general may initiate prosecution.

Sec. 71. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.36, is amended to read:

349.36 [DUTIES OF COUNTY ATTORNEY OR ATTORNEY GENERAL.]

The county attorney of the county in which the hearing is held or the attorney general shall attend the hearing, interrogate the witnesses, and advise the issuing authority. The county attorney or the attorney general shall also appear for the issuing authority on any appeal taken pursuant to the provisions of section 349.39.

Sec. 72. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 357.021, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FEE AMOUNTS.] The fees to be charged and collected by the court administrator shall be as follows:

(1) In every civil action or proceeding in said court, the plaintiff, petitioner, or other moving party shall pay, when the first paper is filed for that party in said action, a fee of $55, ~~except that in an action for marriage dissolution, the fee is $75~~ $85.

The defendant or other adverse or intervening party, or any one or more of several defendants or other adverse or intervening parties appearing separately from the others, shall pay, when the first paper is filed for that party in said action, a fee of $55, ~~except that in an action for marriage dissolution, the fee for the respondent is $75~~ $85.

The party requesting a trial by jury shall pay $30.

The fees above stated shall be the full trial fee chargeable to said parties irrespective of whether trial be to the court alone, to the court and jury, or disposed of without trial, and shall include the entry of judgment in the action, but does not include copies or certified copies of any papers so filed or proceedings under sections 106A.005 to 106A.811, except the provisions therein as to appeals.

(2) Certified copy of any instrument from a civil or criminal proceeding $5, plus 25 cents per page after the first page and $3.50, plus 25 cents per page after the first page for an uncertified copy.

(3) Issuing a subpoena $3 for each name.

(4) Issuing an execution and filing the return thereof; issuing a writ of attachment, injunction, habeas corpus, mandamus, quo warranto, certiorari, or other writs not specifically mentioned, $5.

(5) Issuing a transcript of judgment, or for filing and docketing a transcript of judgment from another court, $5.

(6) Filing and entering a satisfaction of judgment, partial satisfaction or assignment of judgment, $5.

(7) Certificate as to existence or nonexistence of judgments docketed, $1 for each name certified to and $3 for each judgment certified to.

(8) Filing and indexing trade name; or recording notary commission; or recording basic science certificate; or recording certificate of physicians, osteopaths, chiropractors, veterinarians or optometrists, $5.

(9) For the filing of each partial, final, or annual account in all trusteeships, $10.

(10) All other services required by law for which no fee is provided such fee as compares favorably with those herein provided, or such as may be fixed by rule or order of the court.

Sec. 73. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 357.022, is amended to read:

357.022 [CONCILIATION COURT FEE.]

The court administrator in every county shall charge and collect a filing fee of ~~$10~~ $13 from every plaintiff and from every defendant when the first paper for that party is filed in any conciliation court action. The court administrator shall transmit the fees monthly to the state treasurer for deposit in the state treasury and credit to the general fund.

Sec. 74. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 357.08, is amended to read:

357.08 [PAID BY APPELLANT IN APPEAL.]

There shall be paid to the clerk of the appellate courts by the appellant, or moving party or person requiring the service, in all cases of appeal, certiorari, habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, prohibition, or other original proceeding, when initially filed with the clerk of the appellate courts, the sum of ~~$150~~ $200 to the clerk of the appellate courts. An additional filing fee of ~~$50~~ $100 shall be required for a petition for accelerated review by the supreme court. A filing fee of ~~$150~~ $200 shall be paid to the clerk of the appellate courts upon the filing of a petition for review from a decision of the court of appeals. A filing fee of ~~$150~~ $200 shall be paid to the clerk of the appellate courts upon the filing of a petition for permission to appeal. A filing fee of ~~$75~~ $100 shall be paid to the clerk of the appellate courts upon the filing by a respondent of a notice of review. The clerk shall transmit the fees to the state treasurer for deposit in the state treasury and credit to the general fund.

The clerk shall not file any paper, issue any writ or certificate, or perform any service enumerated herein, until the payment has been made for it. The clerk shall pay the sum into the state treasury as provided for by section 15A.01.

The charges provided for shall not apply to disbarment proceedings, nor to an action or proceeding by the state taken solely in the public interest, where the state is the appellant or moving party, nor to copies of the opinions of the court furnished by the clerk to the parties before judgment, or furnished to the district judge whose decision is under review, or to such law library associations in counties having a population exceeding 50,000, as the court may direct.

Sec. 75. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 480A.01, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [ESTABLISHING NUMBER OF JUDGES.] By January 15, 1985, the state court administrator shall certify to the governor, the president of the senate, and the speaker of the house of representatives, the number of appeals filed in the court of appeals in 1984. By January 15, 1987, and every two years thereafter of the odd year, the state court administrator shall certify to the governor, the president of the senate, and the speaker of the house of representatives the average number of appeals filed in the court of appeals in each of the preceding two calendar years. Effective on the following July 1, the normal number of judges of the court of appeals shall be one judge for every 100 cases in that average. If this normal number increases the number of judges, new judges shall be appointed on or after July 1. If this normal number decreases the number of judges, the incumbent judges shall nevertheless continue to serve and to be eligible for reelection, but the first vacancies arising in at large seats on the court shall not be filled, until the normal number of judges is reached.

Summary by Fund

General $5,630,000 $6,030,000
Special Revenue $ 475,000 $ 475,000

$377,000 the first year and $377,000 the second year are for regional planning grants to regional development commissions organized under Minnesota Statutes, sections 462.381 to 462.396.

Until June 30, 1991, for state and federal grants distributed by state agencies to regions of the state not having a regional development commission, the state agency administering the grant program may assess the program for administrative costs incurred by the agency that normally are incurred by the commission.

$22,000 the first year and $22,000 the second year are for the Council of Great Lakes Governors.

During the biennium any seminars or training sessions regarding federal issues for federal budgeting that are conducted by the Washington office shall be made available to legislators and legislative staff. The Washington office shall notify the legislature regarding the timing of such seminars.

The commissioner shall contract with an independent consultant to explore future directions for Minnesota in land management information systems. This study shall examine interagency cooperation, public and private venture potential, the status of geographic information systems planning as it applies to Minnesota, the role that the land management information center should play in future development of an overall system, and development of a long-range strategy for Minnesota's role in providing the appropriate services to agencies and political subdivisions. The study shall also explore the activities of other states and nations in the area of geographic information systems. The study must be accomplished in conjunction with the information policy office and be compatible with the long-range information management architecture being developed by the information policy office. A final report shall be submitted to the legislature by January 1, 1991, indicating recommendations for future actions.

The state planning agency shall study the effects on the state's transportation systems, methods of storage, public safety systems, and state health concerns of any incinerator to be constructed in Minnesota that is designed to burn hazardous wastes. The report shall include specific recommendations and shall be delivered to the legislature and the affected state agencies by January 1, 1991.

Up to $500,000 the second year is for one-third of the state's membership fee in the Great Lakes Protection Fund. The governor may enter as a signatory party in the Great Lakes Protection Fund. The fund is created as a permanent endowment to advance the principles, goals, and objectives of the Great Lakes Toxic Substance Control Agreement, executed by the eight Great Lakes governors in May 1986, and to ensure the continuous development of needed scientific information, new cleanup technologies, and innovative methods of managing pollution problems as a cooperative effort in the Great Lakes region.

The governor may enter the state as a signatory party in the Great Lakes Protection Fund, subject to approval by the legislature. After approval, the governor shall do all things necessary or incidental to participate in the Great Lakes Protection Fund, as spelled out in its bylaws and articles of incorporation.

If congressional consent to the Great Lakes Protection Fund carries with it conditions that materially change the provisions agreed to by the party states, the state reserves the option to terminate further participation in the fund.

$100,000 the first year and $100,000 the second year are for demonstration grants under the youth employment and housing program to eligible organizations as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 268.361, subdivision 4. $75,000 each year is for a grant to an eligible organization in the city of Bemidji.

$250,000 the first year and $250,000 the second year is for the Way to Grow school readiness program. $125,000 the first year and $125,000 the second year must be used for a project located within a city of the first class located within the metropolitan area as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 473.121, subdivision 2. $125,000 the first year and $125,000 the second year must be used for a project located within a city of the second class located within the metropolitan area as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 473.121, subdivision 2. This is intended to be a nonrecurring appropriation and must not be included in the budget base for the 1992-1993 biennium.

The state planning agency shall study the administrative costs of local units of government and shall report to the legislature by January 1, 1990, on the level and growth of administrative costs and alternatives for controlling future growth.

$100,000 the first year and $100,000 the second year are for the Minnesota environmental education board. Any appropriations for the board made by S. F. No. 262 serve to reduce these appropriations.

Sec. 77. Laws 1989, chapter 335, article 4, section 109, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [STATUTORY SECTIONS.] Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 11A.22; 84.0911, subdivisions 1 and 3; 85.051; 89.04; 93.221; 116J.968; 190.26; 344.03; and 469.121, subdivision 1, are repealed.

Sec. 78. [REENACTMENT.]

As provided in Minnesota Statutes, section 645.36; Minnesota Statutes, section 84.0911, subdivisions 1 and 3 are reenacted.

Sec. 79. [INCREASE IN FEES FOR LICENSES AND PERMITS FOR UTILITIES.]

Effective July 1, 1990, the fees in Minnesota Rules, parts 6135.0400 to 6135.0800, adopted pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 84.415, subdivisions 1 and 5, are to be increased to an amount equal to the original fee schedule escalated due to inflation from the date the original fee schedule was adopted to July 1, 1990. The basis of escalation shall be the wholesale price index for all commodities. Notwithstanding the rulemaking requirements of section 84.415, subdivision 1, the revised rates shall be published in the State Register prior to becoming effective.

Sec. 80. [CANCELLATION OF APPROPRIATION.]

The following appropriations are canceled.

(a) $30,000 the first year and $30,000 the second year made available from the wild rice account for a cooperative agreement with the Cuyuna Development Corporation for an economic development project on wild rice and grains to be accomplished in consultation with Aitkin Growth, Inc., in Laws 1989, chapter 335, article 1, section 21, subdivision 7 and is reappropriated to the commissioner for wild rice management in public waters.

(b) $50,000 the first year and $50,000 the second year made available for a grant to Aitkin Growth, Inc., for the development of projects for added value to wild rice and other grains, in Laws 1989, chapter 335, article 1, section 21, subdivision 7, is canceled.

Sec. 81. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 480.241; and Laws 1989, chapter 303, section 10, are repealed.

Sec. 82. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This article is effective the day following final enactment, except as follows:

Section 53 is effective March 1, 1990.

Section 55 applies to fees collected on and after March 1, 1990.

Sections 65, 66, 67, and 68 are effective for license applications filed on or after July 1, 1990.

Section 69 is effective for permit applications filed on or after July 1, 1990.

Sections 77 and 78 are retroactive to July 1, 1989.

ARTICLE 2

JUDICIAL SYSTEM

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 43A.02, subdivision 25, is amended to read:

Subd. 25. [JUDICIAL BRANCH.] "Judicial branch" means all judges of the appellate courts, all employees of the appellate courts, including commissions, boards and committees established by the supreme court, the board of law examiners, the law library, the office of the public defender, all judges of all courts of law, district court referees, judicial officers, court reporters, law clerks, district administration employees under section 484.68, court administrator or employee of the court and guardian ad litem program employees in the eighth judicial district, and other agencies placed in the judicial branch by law. Judicial branch does not include district administration employees in the second and fourth judicial districts, court administrators or their staff under chapter 485, guardians ad litem, or other employees within the court system whose salaries are paid by the county, other than employees who remain on the county payroll under section 480.181, subdivision 2.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 43A.24, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [OTHER ELIGIBLE PERSONS.] The following persons are eligible for state paid life insurance and hospital, medical, and dental benefits as determined in applicable collective bargaining agreements or by the commissioner or by plans pursuant to section 43A.18, subdivision 6, or by the board of regents for employees of the University of Minnesota not covered by collective bargaining agreements. Coverages made available, including optional coverages, are as contained in the plan established pursuant to section 43A.18, subdivision 2.

(a) a member of the state legislature, provided that changes in benefits resulting in increased costs to the state shall not be effective until expiration of the term of the members of the existing house of representatives. An eligible member of the state legislature may decline to be enrolled for state paid coverages by filing a written waiver with the commissioner. The waiver shall not prohibit the member from enrolling the member or dependents for optional coverages, without cost to the state, as provided for in section 43A.26. A member of the state legislature who returns from a leave of absence to a position previously occupied in the civil service shall be eligible to receive the life insurance and hospital, medical, and dental benefits to which the position is entitled;

(b) a permanent employee of the legislature or a permanent employee of a permanent study or interim committee or commission or a state employee on leave of absence to work for the legislature, during a regular or special legislative session;

(c) a judge of the appellate courts or an officer or employee of these courts; a judge of the district court, a judge of county court, a judge of county municipal court, or a judge of probate court; a district court referee, judicial officer, court reporter, or law clerk; a district administrator; and an employee of the office of the district administrator that is not in the second or fourth judicial district; a court administrator or employee of the court administrator in the eighth judicial district, and a guardian ad litem program administrator in the eighth judicial district;

(d) a salaried employee of the public employees retirement association;

(e) a full-time military or civilian officer or employee in the unclassified service of the department of military affairs whose salary is paid from state funds;

(f) a salaried employee of the Minnesota historical society, whether paid from state funds or otherwise, who is not a member of the governing board;

(g) an employee of the regents of the University of Minnesota;

(h) notwithstanding section 43A.27, subdivision 3, an employee of the state of Minnesota or the regents of the University of Minnesota who is at least 60 and not yet 65 years of age on July 1, 1982, who is otherwise eligible for employee and dependent insurance and benefits pursuant to section 43A.18 or other law, who has at least 20 years of service and retires, earlier than required, within 60 days of March 23, 1982; or an employee who is at least 60 and not yet 65 years of age on July 1, 1982, who has at least 20 years of state service and retires, earlier than required, from employment at Rochester state hospital after July 1, 1981; or an employee who is at least 55 and not yet 65 years of age on July 1, 1982, and is covered by the Minnesota state retirement system correctional employee retirement plan or the state patrol retirement fund, who has at least 20 years of state service and retires, earlier than required, within 60 days of March 23, 1982. For purposes of this clause, a person retires when the person terminates active employment in state or University of Minnesota service and applies for a retirement annuity. Eligibility shall cease when the retired employee attains the age of 65, or when the employee chooses not to receive the annuity that the employee has applied for. The retired employee shall be eligible for coverages to which the employee was entitled at the time of retirement, subject to any changes in coverage through collective bargaining or plans established pursuant to section 43A.18, for employees in positions equivalent to that from which retired, provided that the retired employee shall not be eligible for state-paid life insurance. Coverages shall be coordinated with relevant health insurance benefits provided through the federally sponsored Medicare program; and

(i) An employee of an agency of the state of Minnesota identified through the process provided in this paragraph who is eligible to retire prior to age 65. The commissioner and the exclusive representative of state employees shall enter into agreements under section 179A.22 to identify employees whose positions are in programs that are being permanently eliminated or reduced due to federal or state policies or practices. Failure to reach agreement identifying these employees is not subject to impasse procedures provided in chapter 179A. The commissioner must prepare a plan identifying eligible employees not covered by a collective bargaining agreement in accordance with the process outlined in section 43A.18, subdivisions 2 and 3. For purposes of this paragraph, a person retires when the person terminates active employment in state service and applies for a retirement annuity. Eligibility ends as provided in the agreement or plan, but must cease at the end of the month in which the retired employee chooses not to receive an annuity, or the employee is eligible for employer-paid health insurance from a new employer. The retired employees shall be eligible for coverages to which they were entitled at the time of retirement, subject to any changes in coverage through collective bargaining or plans established under section 43A.18 for employees in positions equivalent to that from which they retired, provided that the retired employees shall not be eligible for state-paid life insurance.

Sec. 3. [484.76] [HIRING AND SALARY MORATORIUM.]

A county or a court must not increase the number of referees, judicial officers, court reporters, law clerks, or district administration employees, other than district administration employees in the second or fourth judicial district, unless the increase is approved by the supreme court. A county or a court must not increase the salaries of these employees without the approval of the supreme court, unless the increase is made under a plan adopted before January 30, 1989. The supreme court must not approve aggregate performance increases for these employees that exceed an average of five percent. New positions created after January 30, 1989, must be reflected as change requests in the biennial budget process when these functions are taken over by the state. Salary limits do not apply to employees covered by chapter 179A.

ARTICLE 3

FUND CONSOLIDATION

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 16B.28, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [REVOLVING FUND DEPOSIT OF RECEIPTS.] (a) [CREATION.] The materials distribution revolving fund is a separate fund in the state treasury. All money relating to the resource recovery program established under section 115A.15, subdivision 1, All money resulting from the acquisition, acceptance, warehousing, distribution, and public sale of surplus property, must be deposited in the fund. All money resulting from the sale of centrally acquired, warehoused, and distributed supplies, materials, and equipment, and all money relating to the cooperative purchasing venture established under section 471.59 must be deposited in the fund. Money paid into the materials distribution revolving fund is appropriated to the commissioner for the purposes of the programs and services referred to in this section.

(b) [TRANSFER OR SALE TO STATE AGENCY.] When the state or an agency operating under a legislative appropriation obtains surplus property from the commissioner, the commissioner of finance must, at the commissioner's request, transfer the cost of the surplus property, including any expenses of acquiring, accepting, warehousing, and distributing the surplus property, from the appropriation of the state agency receiving the surplus property to the materials distribution revolving fund. The determination of the commissioner is final as to the cost of the surplus property to the state agency receiving the property.

(c) [TRANSFER OR SALE TO OTHER GOVERNMENTAL UNITS OR NONPROFIT ORGANIZATIONS.] When any governmental unit or nonprofit organization other than a state agency receives surplus property, supplies, materials, or equipment from the commissioner, the governmental unit or nonprofit organization must reimburse the materials distribution revolving fund for the cost of the property, including the expenses of acquiring, accepting, warehousing, and distributing it, in an amount the commissioner sets. The commissioner may, however, require the governmental unit or nonprofit organization to deposit in advance in the materials distribution revolving fund the cost of the surplus property, supplies, materials, and equipment upon mutually agreeable terms and conditions. The commissioner may charge a fee to political subdivisions and nonprofit organizations to establish their eligibility for receiving the property and to pay for costs of storage and distribution.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 41A.05, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT OF ACCOUNT.] The Minnesota agricultural and economic development account is established in the special revenue fund and may be invested ~~separately from all other funds of the state~~ by the state board of investment. All money appropriated to the account, and all guaranty fees, retail sales taxes, property tax increments, and other money from any source which may be credited to the account and are appropriated to the board to carry out the purposes of this chapter. The board may maintain or establish within the Minnesota agricultural and economic development account reserve accounts, project accounts, trustee accounts, special guaranty fund accounts, or other restrictions it determines necessary or appropriate. The board may enter into pledge and escrow agreements or indentures of trust with a trustee for the purpose of maintaining the accounts.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 85.205, is amended to read:

85.205 [RECEPTACLES FOR RECYCLING.]

The commissioner of natural resources must provide recycling conveniences at all state parks.

(a) State park managers must provide and maintain adequate receptacles for collection of food containers for recycling in all state parks.

(b) Appropriate recycling information must be available to all state park visitors.

(c) State park managers must post a notice of recycling availability at appropriate locations within each state park.

(d) State park managers must where practicable recycle the gathered recyclable materials, provide for the local unit of government to recycle the gathered materials, or contract with private nonprofit groups for recycling.

(e) Money collected by state park managers for recycling must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the state park maintenance and operation account general fund.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 89.58, is amended to read:

89.58 [FOREST PEST CONTROL FUND ACCOUNT.]

All money collected under the provisions of sections 89.51 to 89.61 together with such money as may be appropriated by the legislature or allocated by the legislative advisory commission for the purposes of sections 89.51 to 89.61, and such money as may be contributed or paid by the federal government, or any other public or private agency, organization or individual, shall be deposited in the state treasury, to the credit of the forest pest control fund account, which fund account is hereby created, and any moneys therein are appropriated to the commissioner for use in carrying out the purposes hereof.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.15, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [USE OF MATERIALS DISTRIBUTION REVOLVING FUND FUNDS.] All funds appropriated by the state for the resource recovery program, all revenues resulting from the sale of recyclable and reusable commodities made available for sale as a result of the resource recovery program and all reimbursements to the commissioner of expenses incurred by the commissioner in developing and administering resource recovery systems for state agencies, governmental units, and nonprofit organizations must be deposited in the materials distribution revolving fund created in section 16B.28. The fund may be used for all activities associated with the program including payment of administrative and operating costs general fund. The commissioner shall determine the waste disposal cost savings associated with recycling and reuse activities, collect those savings from the account responsible for disposing of wastes produced in state buildings, and credit the savings to the materials distribution revolving general fund.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 176B.02, is amended to read:

176B.02 [PEACE OFFICERS BENEFIT FUND ACCOUNT.]

There is hereby created in the state treasury an account to be known as peace officers benefit fund account. Funds in the peace officers benefit fund account shall consist of money appropriated to that fund account. The administrator of the fund account is the commissioner of employee relations, who shall follow the procedures specified in section 176.541, subdivisions 2, 3, and 4.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 176B.04, is amended to read:

176B.04 [DISBURSEMENTS.]

Upon certification to the governor by the administrator of the ~~fund~~ account that a peace officer employed by a state or governmental subdivision within this state has been killed in the line of duty, leaving a spouse or one or more eligible dependents, the commissioner of finance shall, subject to the approval of the workers' compensation court of appeals, pay $100,000 as follows:

- (a) if there is no dependent child, to the spouse;
- (b) if there is no spouse, to the dependent child or children in equal shares;
- (c) if there are both a spouse and one or more dependent children, one-half to the spouse and one-half to the child or children, in equal shares;
- (d) if there is no surviving spouse or dependent child or children, to the parent or parents dependent for support on the decedent, in equal shares;
- (e) if there is no surviving spouse or dependent child, children or parent, then there shall be no payment made from the peace officers benefit ~~fund~~ account.

"Killed in the line of duty" does not include deaths from natural causes or deaths that occur during employment for a private employer other than an independent nonprofit firefighting corporation.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 201.023, is amended to read:

201.023 [VOTER REGISTRATION ACCOUNT.]

The voter registration account is established as an account in the state treasury. Amounts received by the secretary of state to pay the cost of producing lists of registered voters under section 201.091, subdivision 5, by the statewide computerized registration system must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the voter registration account. Money in the voter registration account is continually appropriated to the secretary of state to produce lists of registered voters under section 201.091, subdivision 5 general fund.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 243.48, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL SEARCHES.] The commissioner of corrections, the governor, lieutenant governor, members of the legislature, state officers, and the corrections ombudsman, may visit the inmates at pleasure, but no other persons without permission of the chief executive officer of the facility, under rules prescribed by the commissioner. A moderate fee may be required of visitors, other than those allowed to visit at pleasure. All fees so collected shall be reported and remitted to the state treasurer under rules as the commissioner may deem proper, and when so remitted shall be placed to the credit of the current expense fund of the facility general fund.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.677, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Reimbursement to the commissioner for the costs of administering wage subsidies must not exceed one-half percent of the money appropriated. Reimbursements must be deposited in the general fund. Reimbursement to an eligible local service unit for the costs of administering wage subsidies must not exceed five percent and for the purchase of supplies and materials necessary to create permanent improvements to public property must not exceed one percent of the money allocated to that local service unit. The commissioner and the eligible local service units shall reallocate money from other sources to cover the costs of administering wage subsidies whenever possible.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 268.681, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PAYBACK.] A business receiving wage subsidies shall repay 70 percent of the amount initially received for each eligible job applicant employed, if the employee does not continue in the employment of the business beyond the six-month subsidized period. If the employee continues in the employment of the business for one year or longer after the six-month subsidized period, the business need not repay any of the funds received for that employee's wages. If the employee continues in the employment of the business for a period of less than one year after the expiration of the six-month subsidized period, the business shall receive a proportional reduction in the amount it must repay. If an employer dismisses an employee for good cause and works in good faith with the eligible local service unit or its contractor to employ and train another person referred by the eligible local service unit or its contractor, the payback formula shall apply as if the original person had continued in employment.

A repayment schedule shall be negotiated and agreed to by the eligible local service unit and the business prior to the disbursement of the funds and is subject to renegotiation. The eligible local service unit shall forward 25 percent of the payments received under this subdivision to the commissioner on a monthly basis and shall retain the remaining 75 percent for local program expenditures. Notwithstanding section 268.677, subdivision 2, the local service unit may use up to 20 percent of its share of the funds returned under this subdivision for any administrative costs associated with the collection of the funds under this subdivision. At least 80 percent of the local service unit's share of the funds returned under this subdivision must be used as provided in section 268.677. The commissioner shall deposit payments forwarded to the commissioner under this subdivision in the Minnesota wage subsidy account created by subdivision 4 general fund.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297.03, subdivision 5a, is amended to read:

Subd. 5a. [REVOLVING ACCOUNT DEPOSIT OF PROCEEDS.] ~~A heat applied cigarette tax stamp revolving account is created. The commissioner shall use the amounts in this fund appropriated by law to purchase heat applied stamps for resale. The commissioner shall charge the purchasers for the costs of the stamps along with the tax value plus shipping costs. The costs recovered along with shipping costs must be deposited into this revolving account and are available to the commissioner for further purchases and shipping costs the general fund. The revolving account must be funded by reducing the stamping discounts allowed in subdivision 5 for the first three months of fiscal year 1989. The stamping discounts are 0.75 percent of the face amount of any stamps purchased in the first three months for the first $1,500,000 of the stamps and 0.50 percent on the remainder of the stamps purchased.~~

At the end of each of the first three months of fiscal year 1989, the commissioner shall notify the commissioner of finance of the amount of reduced stamping discounts that have accrued to the tobacco tax revenue fund. The commissioner of finance shall then transfer the amounts to the heat applied cigarette tax stamp revolving account from the tobacco tax revenue fund.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 326.75, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [DEPOSIT OF FEES.] Fees collected under this section shall be deposited in the asbestos abatement revolving fund created by section 326.82 general fund.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.52, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [VIDEO GAMING LICENSE ACCOUNT.] (a) Fees collected by the commissioner under sections 349.50 to 349.60 must be deposited in the state treasury in a special account to be known as the "video gaming license account." Money in the account is appropriated to the commissioner for distribution under paragraph (b) the general fund.

(b) The operator shall, by January 31 of each year, certify to the commissioner the number of video games of chance located in each city, and in each county outside of incorporated areas, on December 31 of the previous year. Within 15 days of receiving this certification the commissioner shall pay from the video gaming license account amounts appropriated to the commissioner to each city and county $30 for each video game of chance located in the city or in the county outside city limits. After making these payments the commissioner shall transfer the unexpended balance in the account to the general fund.

Sec. 15. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 85.30; 268.681, subdivision 4; and 326.82, are repealed.

Sec. 16. [INSTRUCTION TO REVISOR.]

In the next edition of Minnesota Statutes, the revisor shall change the references in column A to those in Column B.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON S. F. NO. 1807

A bill for an act relating to local government; permitting the issuance of obligations by the Hennepin county board for a public safety building; permitting Rosemount to incur debt for an armory; requiring a planning process and public hearing.

April 23, 1990

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

The Honorable Robert E. Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

We, the undersigned conferees for S. F. No. 1807, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House recede from its amendment and that S. F. No. 1807 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 373.40, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [LIMITATIONS ON AMOUNT.] A county, other than Hennepin or Ramsey, may not issue bonds under this section if the maximum amount of principal and interest to become due in any year on all the outstanding bonds issued pursuant to this section (including the bonds to be issued) will equal or exceed 0.05367 percent of taxable market value of property in the county. Ramsey county may not issue bonds under this section if the maximum amount of principal and interest to become due in any year on all the outstanding bonds issued pursuant to this section (including the bonds to be issued) will equal or exceed 0.06455 percent of taxable market value of property in the county. Hennepin county may not issue bonds under this section if the maximum amount of principal and interest to become due in any year on all the outstanding bonds issued pursuant to this section together with the bonds proposed to be issued, will equal or exceed 0.02684 percent of taxable market value of the property in the county. Calculation of the limit must be made using the taxable market value for the taxes payable year in which the obligations are issued and sold. This section does not limit the authority to issue bonds under any other special or general law.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 373.40, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [BUILDING FUND LEVY.] (a) If a county other than Hennepin or Ramsey has an approved capital improvement plan, the county board may annually levy 0.05367 percent of taxable market value, less the amount levied to pay principal and interest on bonds issued under this section. ~~If the Hennepin county board has an approved capital improvement plan, the county board may annually levy 0.02684 percent of taxable market value, less the amount levied to pay principal and interest on bonds issued under this section.~~ If the Ramsey county board has an approved capital improvement plan, the county board may annually levy 0.06455 percent of taxable market value, less the amount levied to pay principal and interest on bonds issued under this section. The proceeds of this levy must be deposited in the county building fund under section 373.25 and may only be expended for capital improvements as provided in the approved capital improvement plan.

(b) The maximum amount of the levy, when added to the unexpended balance in the building fund, must not exceed the projected cost of the remaining improvements in the capital improvement plan. A levy made under this section is not subject to any other levy limitation, nor may the levy be included in the computation of any other levy limitation.

(c) This subdivision and the exercise of levy authority under it does not supersede or preempt the authority to levy under section 373.25 or any other law.

Sec. 3. Laws 1989, chapter 245, section 1, is amended to read:

Section 1. [HENNEPIN COUNTY; PUBLIC SAFETY BUILDING BONDS.]

Hennepin county may issue and sell general obligation bonds of the county in an amount not exceeding $20,000,000 to finance land acquisition planning, design, site preparation, and other preliminary work for the construction of a public safety building and related facilities. The obligations shall be issued in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, chapter 475, except that their issuance is not subject to approval by the electors under section 475.58. The obligations issued under this section and the property taxes levied to pay the obligations ~~shall not~~ must be included in the calculation of Hennepin county's bond and building fund levy limitation under Minnesota Statutes, section 373.40.

Sec. 4. [HENNEPIN COUNTY; PUBLIC SAFETY FACILITY PLANNING PROCESS.]

Hennepin county may not issue and sell obligations to finance the acquisition and construction of a public safety building and related facilities until the board of county commissioners of Hennepin county has entered into a planning process which must include:

(1) comparative analysis of alternative sites, including but not limited to: site preparation factors, proximity to the county courthouse, potential construction or legal delays for each site, and integration into the long-range physical plan for the city of Minneapolis;

(2) programmatic plans relating to physical structure, construction, and operational costs; and

(3) continued use of the current jail facilities for correctional purposes for a period of at least ten years.

The planning process must include at least one public hearing. The board of county commissioners and the city council must cooperate in the analysis and planning process described in clause (1). The planning process must be completed by September 1, 1990. If the city refuses to cooperate by engaging in a good faith effort to analyze the public costs and benefits of alternative sites for both the county and city, the county may proceed to issue and sell the bonds notwithstanding this subdivision.

Sec. 5. [HENNEPIN COUNTY; PUBLIC SAFETY FACILITY BONDS.]

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 373.40, subdivision 7, Hennepin county may issue bonds under Minnesota Statutes, section 373.40, until July 1, 1995, to finance the acquisition and construction of a public safety building and related facilities.

Sec. 6. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 5 are effective the day following final enactment."

Delete the title and insert:

"A bill for an act relating to Hennepin county; increasing and extending certain capital improvement bonding authority for Hennepin county; requiring a planning process; amending Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 373.40, subdivision 4; Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 373.40, subdivision 6; Laws 1989, chapter 245, section 1."

We request adoption of this report and repassage of the bill.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON S. F. NO. 2158

A bill for an act relating to utilities; regulating flexible gas utility rates; repealing sunset provisions relating to flexible gas utility rates; appropriating money; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 216B.163; and Laws 1987, chapter 371, section 4.

April 20, 1990

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

The Honorable Robert E. Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

We, the undersigned conferees for S. F. No. 2158, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House recede from its amendments and that S. F. No. 2158 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 216B.163, is amended to read:

216B.163 [FLEXIBLE TARIFFS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) For the purposes of this section, the terms defined in this subdivision have the meanings given them.

(b) “Effective competition” means that a customer of a gas utility who either receives interruptible service or whose daily requirement exceeds 50,000 cubic feet maintains or plans on acquiring the capability to switch to the same, equivalent or substitutable energy supplies or service, except indigenous biomass energy supplies composed of wood products, grain, biowaste, and cellulosic materials, at comparable prices from a supplier not regulated by the commission.

(c) "Flexible tariff" means a rate schedule under which a gas utility may set or change the price for its service to an individual customer or group of customers without prior approval of the commission within a range of prices determined by the commission to be just and reasonable.

Subd. 2. [FLEXIBLE TARIFFS PERMITTED.] Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter section 216B.03, 216B.05, 216B.06, 216B.07, or 216B.16, the commission is authorized to may approve a flexible tariff for any class of customers of a gas utility when provision of service, including the sale or transportation of gas, to any customers within the class is subject to effective competition. Upon application of a gas utility, the commission shall find that effective competition exists for a class of customers taking interruptible service at a level exceeding 199,000 cubic feet per day. A gas utility may only apply a flexible tariff only to a customer that is subject to effective competition and a gas utility may not apply a flexible tariff or otherwise reduce its rates to compete with indigenous biomass energy supplies, or with customers of district heating facilities as of June 1, 1987. Customers of a gas utility whose only alternative source of energy is gas from a supplier not regulated by the commission and who must use the gas utility's system to transport the gas are not subject to effective competition unless the customers have or can reasonably acquire the capability to bypass the gas utility's system to obtain gas from a supplier not regulated by the commission. A customer subject to effective competition may elect to take service either under the flexible tariff or under the appropriate nonflexible tariff for that class of service set in accordance with section 216B.03, provided that a customer that uses an alternative energy supply or service other than indigenous biomass energy supplies from a supplier not regulated by the commission for reasons of price shall be are deemed to have elected to take service under the flexible tariff.

Subd. 2a. [DISTRICT HEATING CUSTOMERS.] Notwithstanding subdivision 2, a gas utility may not apply a flexible tariff or otherwise reduce its rates to compete with customers of district heating facilities as of June 1, 1987. This subdivision expires July 1, 1992.

Subd. 3. [ESTABLISHING OR CHANGING A FLEXIBLE TARIFF.] The commission may establish a flexible tariff through a miscellaneous rate filing only if the filing does not seek to recover any revenues which the utility expects to lose by implementing flexible tariffs from any customers who do not take service under the flexible tariff, nor to change any other rates another rate. If a gas utility requests authority to establish a flexible tariff and as part of that request seeks to recover any revenues which the utility expects to lose by implementing flexible tariffs from any customers who do not take service under the flexible tariff or to change any other rates the commission may only establish that flexible tariff within a general rate case for that gas utility. ~~The commission may only change the rates in a flexible tariff within a gas utility's general rate case.~~

Subd. 4. [RATES AND TERMS OF SERVICE.] Whenever the commission authorizes a flexible tariff, it shall set the terms, and conditions of service for that tariff, ~~which shall include~~ including:

(1) ~~that~~ the minimum rate for the tariff, which must recover at least the incremental cost of providing the service;

(2) ~~that there is no upward~~ the maximum for the rate for the tariff; and

(3) a requirement that a customer who elects to take service under the flexible tariff remain on that tariff for a reasonable period of time, ~~which shall not be less than one year;~~ and.

(4) ~~that any customer changing from a flexible tariff to the appropriate nonflexible tariff for that class pay all costs incurred by the utility due to that change.~~

The commission may set the terms and conditions of service for a flexible tariff in a gas utility proceeding, a miscellaneous filing, or a complaint proceeding under section 216B.17.

Subd. 5. [RECOVERY OF REVENUES.] In a general rate case ~~which~~ that establishes a flexible tariff for a gas utility, and in each general rate case of a gas utility for which a flexible tariff has been authorized, the commission shall determine a projected level of revenues and expenses from services under that tariff ~~based on a single target rate for all sales under that tariff, which projection shall be used~~ and use the projection to determine the utility's overall rates. That target rate method used to establish a level of projected revenues ~~shall~~ may not limit the gas utility's ability or right to set rates for ~~any~~ a customer taking service under the flexible tariff.

Subd. 6. [INTERIM FLEXIBLE TARIFF.] Notwithstanding section 216B.16, subdivision 3, if a gas utility files with the commission to establish or change a flexible tariff the commission shall permit the proposed flexible tariff to take effect on an interim basis no later than 30 days after filing. If any customers receive an increase in rates during the period that an interim flexible tariff is in effect, the increase is subject to refund as provided in section 216B.16, subdivision 3. The gas utility shall provide ten days written notice, or other notice as may be established by contract not to exceed 30 days, to a customer before implementing an interim rate increase change for that customer under this section.

Subd. 7. [FINAL DETERMINATION.] The commission shall make a final determination in a proceeding begun under this section for approval of a flexible tariff, other than a filing made within a general rate case, within 180 days of the filing by the gas utility.

Subd. 8. [STUDY AND REPORT.] The department shall review the operation and effects of any rates implemented under this section. The review must include, at a minimum, an evaluation of the impact of flexible gas rates on alternative energy sources, including indigenous biomass energy, and the impact on the utility and its customers of setting a maximum rate for the tariff. The department shall submit its report to the legislature by January 1, 1995. The department shall assess gas utilities that utilize a flexible tariff under section 1 for the actual cost of conducting the study, not to exceed $5,000. Each utility utilizing a flexible tariff must be assessed an equal share of the cost.

Sec. 2. Laws 1987, chapter 371, section 4, is amended to read:

Sec. 4. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 3 are effective the day following final enactment, and are repealed effective July 1, 1990.

Sec. 3. [APPROPRIATION.]

$5,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the department of public service for the purpose of conducting the study required by section 1. The money is available until February 1, 1995.

Sec. 4. [EFFECTIVE DATES.]

Sections 1 and 3 are effective July 1, 1990. Section 2 is effective the day following final enactment."

We request adoption of this report and repassage of the bill.

RECESS

RECONVENED

The House reconvened and was called to order by the Speaker.

S. F. No. 1966 which was temporarily laid over earlier today was again reported to the House.

Girard, McEachern, Haukoos, Hugoson and Brown moved to amend S. F. No. 1966, the unofficial engrossment, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 120.08, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. A school board of a district maintaining a secondary school may by a majority vote provide for the instruction of any resident pupil attending an elementary school, a middle school, or a secondary school in a school district in an adjoining state. Any charge for tuition or transportation, by the district in the adjoining state, shall be paid by the resident district. The pupil shall be considered a pupil of the resident district for the purposes of state aid.

Sec. 2. [INTERSTATE EDUCATION TASK FORCE.]

To coordinate educational opportunity on the border between Minnesota and South Dakota, an education task force is established. The Minnesota members of the education task force must be appointed by the governor: two members of the senate, one from each political party, and two members of the house of representatives, one from each political party. The purpose of the education task force is to work with a committee of legislators from South Dakota to make recommendations regarding removing obstacles to intrastate educational opportunities for each state's citizens. The task force shall report its recommendations to the education committees of the Minnesota legislature by January 15, 1991. Minnesota Statutes, section 15.059, does not apply to the Minnesota task force members. The task force expires on June 30, 1991.

Sec. 3. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective the day after final enactment. Section 2 is effective the day after final enactment of a bill by the state of South Dakota providing for South Dakota members of the education task force.”

Delete the title and insert:

“A bill for an act relating to education; permitting school attendance in bordering states; examining intrastate educational opportunities; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 120.08, subdivision 2."

The motion prevailed and the amendment was adopted.

Kelso and McEachern moved to amend S. F. No. 1966, the unofficial engrossment, as amended, as follows:

Page 1, after line 13, insert:

"Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 120.08, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [SEVERANCE PAY.] A district shall pay severance pay to a teacher who is:

(1) placed on unrequested leave of absence by the district because the teacher's position is discontinued as a result of an agreement under this section; and

(2) not employed by another district for the school year following the teacher's placement on unrequested leave of absence.

The severance pay shall be equivalent to the teacher's salary for one year and is subject to section 465.72. The district may levy according to 1990 H.F. 2200, article 6, section 33 for the severance pay.

Sec. 3. 1990 H.F. 2200, article 6, section 33, if enacted in 1990, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [MISCELLANEOUS LEVY AUTHORIZATIONS.] (a) A school district may levy the amounts necessary to make payments for bonds issued and for interest thereon, including the bonds and interest thereon, issued as authorized by Minnesota Statutes 1974, section 275.125, subdivision 3, clause (7)(C); the amounts necessary for repayment of debt service loans and capital loans; the amounts necessary to pay the district's obligations under section 6.62; the amount authorized for liabilities of dissolved districts pursuant to section 122.45; the amounts necessary to pay the district's obligations under section 268.06, subdivision 25; the amounts necessary to pay for job placement services offered to employees who may become eligible for benefits pursuant to section 268.08; the amounts necessary to pay the district's obligations under section 127.05; the amounts authorized by section 122.531; the amounts necessary to pay the district's obligations under section 122.533; and for severance pay required by section 6 and section 3 of this act.

(b) An education district that negotiates a collective bargaining agreement for teachers under section 10 may certify to the department of education the amount necessary to pay all of the member districts' obligations and the education district's obligations under section 268.06, subdivision 25.

The department of education must allocate the levy amount proportionately among the member districts based on adjusted net tax capacity. The member districts must levy the amount allocated.

(c) Each year, a member district of an education district that levies under this subdivision must transfer the amount of revenue certified under paragraph (b) to the education district board according to this subdivision. By June 20 and November 30 of each year, an amount must be transferred equal to:

(1) 50 percent times

(2) the amount certified in paragraph (b) minus homestead and agricultural credit aid allocated for that levy according to section 273.1398, subdivision 6."

April 24, 1990

The Honorable Robert E. Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H. F. No. 2478, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendments and that H. F. No. 2478 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"ARTICLE 1

TAXPAYERS' BILL OF RIGHTS

Section 1. [270.0602] [BASIS FOR EVALUATION OF DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE EMPLOYEES.]

The department of revenue must not use tax enforcement results to impose individual revenue quotas with respect to employees or their immediate supervisors who are directly involved in assessment or collection activities. The department may, however, use individual performance with regard to number of cases completed and, in the case of collections employees, dollars collected, as factors in evaluating an employee and not be considered as failing to comply with this section.

Sec. 2. [270.0603] [DISCLOSURE OF RIGHTS OF TAXPAYERS.]

Subdivision 1. [IN GENERAL.] The commissioner of revenue shall, as soon as practicable, but not later than 180 days after the date of enactment of this act, prepare statements that set forth in simple and nontechnical terms:

(1) the rights and obligations of the department of revenue and the taxpayer during an audit;

(2) the procedures by which a taxpayer may appeal an adverse decision of the department, including administrative and judicial appeals;

(3) the procedures for filing refund claims and filing of taxpayer complaints; and

(4) the procedures that the department may use in enforcing the tax laws, including assessment, jeopardy assessment, levy, and distraint, and the filing of liens.

Subd. 2. [TRANSMISSION TO LEGISLATURE.] The commissioner shall provide drafts of the statements required under subdivision 1 to the chairs of the house of representatives and senate tax committees for proposed revisions of the statements.

Subd. 3. [DISTRIBUTION.] The appropriate statement prepared in accordance with subdivisions 1 and 2 must be distributed by the commissioner to all taxpayers contacted with respect to the determination or collection of a tax, other than the providing of tax forms. Failure to receive the statement does not invalidate the determination or collection action.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.07, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [ABATEMENT OF PENALTY.] (a) A request for abatement of penalty under subdivision 1, under section 289A.14, subdivision 4, or under paragraph (c), must be filed with the commissioner within 60 days of the date the notice was mailed to the taxpayer's last known address, stating that a penalty has been imposed.

(b) If the commissioner issues an order denying a request for abatement of penalty, the taxpayer may, except as limited under subdivision 1, file an administrative appeal as provided in section 289A.16 or appeal to tax court as provided in section 271.06.

If the commissioner does not issue an order on the abatement request within 60 days from the date the request is received, the taxpayer may appeal to tax court as provided in section 271.06.

(c) The commissioner shall abate any part of a penalty or additional tax charge under section 289A.026, subdivision 2, or 289A.027, subdivision 4, attributable to erroneous advice given to the taxpayer in writing by an employee of the department acting in an official capacity, if the advice:

(1) was reasonably relied on and was in response to a specific written request of the taxpayer; and

(2) was not the result of failure by the taxpayer to provide adequate or accurate information.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 270.10, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [NOTIFICATION TO TAXPAYER.] At the same time that notice of the assessment, determination, or order of the commissioner is given to a taxpayer, the taxpayer must be notified in writing of the right to appeal to the tax court, and if applicable, to the small claims division. Except in the case of mathematical or clerical errors, the notice must contain a description of the basis for, including applicable law and other factors considered in the determination, and a listing of the amounts of tax due, interest, additions to tax, and penalties. Failure to provide all the required information does not invalidate the notice for purposes of satisfying statutory notice requirements if the notice contains sufficient information to advise the taxpayer that an assessment, order, or other determination has been made. The taxpayer may request further clarification within the time provided for appealing the determination. In any notice of assessment, determination, or order dealing with property valuation or assessment for property tax purposes by the commissioner of revenue or a local unit of government, the taxpayer must be notified in writing that a taxpayer must appeal to the town or city board of equalization and to the county board of equalization before appealing to the small claims division of the tax court, except for those taxpayers whose original assessments are determined by the commissioner of revenue.

Sec. 5. [270.272] [PROCEDURES INVOLVING IN-PERSON TAXPAYER INTERVIEWS.]

Subdivision 1. [RECORDING OF INTERVIEWS.] (a) In connection with an interview with a taxpayer relating to the audit or collection of a tax, and on advance request of the taxpayer, an employee of the department of revenue shall allow the taxpayer to make an audio recording of the interview at the taxpayer's expense and with the taxpayer's equipment.

(b) An employee of the department may record an interview described in paragraph (a) if the taxpayer is informed of the recording before the interview and a transcript or copy of the recording is made available to the taxpayer on the taxpayer's request, provided the department is reimbursed by the taxpayer for the cost of transcribing or copying the recording.

Subd. 2. [SAFEGUARDS.] (a) Before or at the start of an initial interview, an employee of the department shall provide to the taxpayer in the case of an audit interview an explanation of the audit process and the taxpayer's rights under that process and, in the case of a collection interview, an explanation of the collection process and the taxpayer's rights under that process.

(b) If a taxpayer requests to consult with an attorney, accountant, agent, preparer, or any other person permitted to represent the taxpayer before the department at any time during an interview, except an interview initiated by an administrative subpoena, the interview must be suspended for no more than 30 days.

Subd. 3. [REPRESENTATIVES HOLDING POWER OF ATTORNEY.] An attorney, accountant, agent, preparer, or any other person permitted to represent the taxpayer before the department who has a written power of attorney executed by the taxpayer may represent the taxpayer in an interview described in subdivision 1. The taxpayer may be required to accompany the representative only if an administrative subpoena is issued. In this instance, with the consent of an immediate supervisor and after ten days' notice to the representative, the department employee may notify the taxpayer directly that the employee believes the representative is unreasonably delaying the examination or investigation process.

Subd. 4. [NOT TO APPLY TO CERTAIN INVESTIGATIONS.] This section does not apply to criminal investigations or investigations relating to the conduct of an employee of the department.

Sec. 6. [270.273] [TAXPAYER ASSISTANCE ORDERS; TAXPAYER'S RIGHTS ADVOCATE.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY TO ISSUE.] On application filed by a taxpayer with the department of revenue taxpayer's rights advocate, in the form, manner, and in the time prescribed by the commissioner, and after thorough investigation, the taxpayer's rights advocate may issue a taxpayer assistance order if, in the determination of the taxpayer's rights advocate, the manner in which the state tax laws are being administered is creating or will create an unjust and inequitable result for the taxpayer.

Subd. 2. [TERMS OF A TAXPAYER ASSISTANCE ORDER.] A taxpayer assistance order may require the department to release property of the taxpayer levied on, cease any action, or refrain from taking any action to enforce the state tax laws against the taxpayer, until the issue or issues giving rise to the order have been resolved.

Subd. 3. [AUTHORITY TO MODIFY OR RESCIND.] A taxpayer assistance order issued by the taxpayer's rights advocate under this section may be modified or rescinded by the commissioner.

Subd. 4. [SUSPENSION OF RUNNING OF PERIOD OF LIMITATION.] The running of the period of limitation with respect to an action described in subdivision 2 is suspended from the date of the taxpayer assistance order until the expiration date of the order or, if modified, the expiration date of the modified order or, if rescinded, the date of the rescission.

Subd. 5. [INDEPENDENT ACTION OF TAXPAYER'S RIGHTS ADVOCATE.] This section does not prevent the taxpayer's rights advocate from taking action in the absence of an application under subdivision 1.

Subd. 6. [TAXPAYER'S RIGHTS ADVOCATE.] For purposes of this section, the term "taxpayer's rights advocate" includes a designee of the taxpayer's rights advocate. The taxpayer's rights advocate shall represent the interests of taxpayers who have grievances against the department in connection with an audit or collection activity, and shall report directly to the commissioner. A determination of the taxpayer's rights advocate under this section to issue or to not issue a taxpayer assistance order is final, and cannot be appealed to the tax court or any other court.

Sec. 7. [270.274] [REVIEW OF JEOPARDY ASSESSMENT AND LEVY PROCEDURES.]

Subdivision 1. [ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW.] Within five days after a jeopardy assessment or collection is made to assess or collect a tax administered by the commissioner of revenue, the commissioner shall provide the taxpayer with a written statement of the information relied on in making the assessment or levy. Within 30 days after the written statement is provided or, if not provided, within 35 days after the assessment or levy, the taxpayer may request the commissioner to review the action taken. After a request for review, the commissioner shall determine whether the assessment or levy is reasonable and whether the amount assessed or demanded as a result of the action is appropriate under the circumstances.

Subd. 2. [JUDICIAL REVIEW.] A determination by the commissioner under subdivision 1 is appealable to the tax court in the manner provided by law, and the appeal must be expeditiously heard by the court. If the court determines that the making of the assessment or levy is unreasonable, or that the amount assessed or demanded is inappropriate, the court may order the commissioner to release the levy, abate the assessment, redetermine in whole or in part the amount assessed or demanded, or take other action. A determination by the court under this subdivision is final and may not be appealed by either party.

Subd. 3. [BURDEN OF PROOF.] In a proceeding under subdivision 2, the burden of proving that the assessment or collection of the tax was jeopardized by delay is on the commissioner. Regarding the issue of whether the amount assessed or demanded as a result of the action is appropriate, the commissioner shall provide a written statement explaining the basis for determining the amount, and the burden is on the taxpayer to show that the statement is incorrect or invalid.

Sec. 8. [270.275] [CIVIL DAMAGES FOR FAILURE TO RELEASE LIEN.]

Subdivision 1. [IN GENERAL.] (a) A taxpayer may bring a civil action for damages against the commissioner in district court when an employee or the department has knowingly or negligently:

(1) failed to release a lien as required by section 270.69, subdivision 11; or

(2) failed to release a lien within 30 days after satisfaction of the liability on which the lien is based.

(b) An action under paragraph (a), clause (2), must be preceded by 30 days written notice by the taxpayer to the commissioner and the taxpayer's rights advocate that the lien has not been released. An action under paragraph (a) must be commenced within two years after the date the right of action accrued.

Subd. 2. [DAMAGES.] On a finding of liability on the part of the defendant in an action brought under subdivision 1, the defendant is liable to the plaintiff in an amount equal to the sum of actual, direct economic damages sustained by the plaintiff due to the actions of the defendant, plus the costs of the action. Damages must be paid in accordance with section 3.736, subdivision 7.

Subd. 3. [MITIGATION OF DAMAGES.] Damages awarded must be reduced by the amount of the damages that could reasonably have been mitigated by the plaintiff.

Sec. 9. [270.276] [CIVIL DAMAGES FOR CERTAIN UNAUTHORIZED COLLECTION ACTIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [IN GENERAL.] If in connection with the collection of previously determined delinquent taxes from a taxpayer of a state tax administered by the commissioner of revenue, an employee of the department recklessly or intentionally disregards a state tax law or rule, the taxpayer may bring a civil action for damages against the commissioner in district court within two years after the date the right of action accrues.

Subd. 2. [DAMAGES.] On a finding of liability on the part of the defendant in an action brought under subdivision 1, the defendant is liable to the plaintiff in an amount equal to the lesser of $100,000, or the sum of (1) actual, direct economic damages sustained by the plaintiff as a proximate result of the reckless or intentional actions of the employee and (2) the costs of the action. Damages must be paid in accordance with section 3.736, subdivision 7.

Subd. 3. [LIMITATIONS.] A judgment for damages must not be awarded under subdivision 2 unless the court determines that the plaintiff has exhausted the administrative remedies available to the plaintiff within the department. Damages awarded must be reduced by the amount of the damages that could reasonably have been mitigated by the plaintiff.

Subd. 4. [PENALTIES FOR PROCEDURES INSTITUTED PRIMARILY FOR DELAY.] When it appears to the district court that:

(1) proceedings before it under this section have been instituted or maintained by the taxpayer primarily for delay;

(2) the taxpayer's position in such proceeding is frivolous or groundless; or

(3) the taxpayer unreasonably failed to pursue available administrative remedies, the district court, in its decision, may require the taxpayer to pay to the department of revenue a penalty not in excess of $25,000. The penalty may be assessed and, upon notice and demand, may be collected in the same manner as a tax.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 270.69, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [ERRONEOUS LIENS.] After the filing of a notice of lien under this section on the property or rights to property of a person, the person may appeal to the commissioner, in the form and at the time prescribed by the commissioner, alleging an error in the filing of the lien and requesting its release. If the commissioner of revenue determines that the filing of the notice of any lien was erroneous, within 14 days after the determination, the commissioner must issue a certificate of release of the lien. The certificate must include a statement that the filing of the lien was erroneous. In the event that the claim lien is erroneous and is not released within the 14-day period, reasonable attorney fees shall be paid. Damages must be paid in accordance with section 3.736, subdivision 7.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.70, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY OF COMMISSIONER.] If any tax payable to the commissioner of revenue or to the department of revenue is not paid when due, such tax may be collected by the commissioner of revenue within five years after the date of assessment of the tax, or if the tax judgment has been filed, within the statutory period of enforcement of a valid tax judgment, by a levy upon all property and rights to property, including any property in the possession of law enforcement officials, of the person liable for the payment or collection of such tax (except that which is exempt from execution pursuant to section 550.37 and amounts received under United States Code, title 29, chapter 19, as amended through December 31, 1989) or property on which there is a lien provided in section 270.69. For this purpose, the term "tax" shall include any penalty, interest and costs properly payable. The term "levy" includes the power of distraint and seizure by any means.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.70, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [NOTICE AND DEMAND; COLLECTION BY LEVY; JEOPARDY COLLECTION.] Before a levy is made, notice and demand for payment of the amount due shall ~~must~~ be given to the person liable for the payment or collection of the tax at least ~~ten~~ 30 days prior to the levy. If the commissioner has reason to believe that collection of the tax is in jeopardy, notice and demand for immediate payment of the tax may be made by the commissioner. If the tax is not paid, the commissioner may proceed to collect by levy without regard to the ~~ten day~~ period provided herein. The notice required under this subdivision must be sent to the taxpayer's last known address and must include a brief statement that sets forth in simple and nontechnical terms:

(1) the administrative appeals available to the taxpayer with respect to the levy and sale; and

(2) the alternatives available to the taxpayer that can prevent a levy, including installment payment agreements under section 270.67, subdivision 2.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.70, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [STAY OF SALE.] (a) Where a jeopardy assessment or any other assessment has been made by the commissioner, the property seized for collection of the tax shall not be sold until the time has expired for filing an appeal of the assessment with the tax court pursuant to chapter 271. If an appeal has been filed, no sale shall be made unless the taxes remain unpaid for a period of more than 30 days after final determination of the appeal by the tax court or by the appropriate judicial forum.

(b) Notwithstanding clause (a), seized property may be sold if

(i) the taxpayer consents in writing to the sale, or

(ii) the commissioner determines that the property is perishable or may become greatly reduced in price or value by keeping, or that such property cannot be kept without great expense.

The tax court has jurisdiction to review a determination made under clause (b)(ii). Review is commenced by motion of the commissioner or the taxpayer. The order of the court in response to the motion is reviewable in the same manner as any other decision of the tax court.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.70, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [SURRENDER OF PROPERTY SUBJECT TO LEVY.] Any person who fails or refuses to surrender without reasonable cause any property or rights to property subject to levy, upon demand by the commissioner, shall be liable personally to the state of Minnesota in an amount equal to the value of the property or rights not so surrendered, but not exceeding the amount of taxes for the collection of which such levy has been made. Any amount recovered under this subdivision shall be credited against the tax liability for the collection of which such levy was made. A financial institution need not surrender funds on deposit until ten days after service of the levy.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.70, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 17. [UNECONOMICAL LEVY.] No levy may be made on property if the amount of the expenses that the commissioner estimates would be incurred by the department with respect to the levy and sale of the property exceeds the fair market value of the property at the anticipated time of levy.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.70, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 18. [LEVY ON APPEARANCE DATE OF SUBPOENA.] No levy may be made on the property of a person on the day on which the person, or an officer or employee of the person, is required to appear in response to a subpoena issued by the commissioner to collect unpaid taxes, unless the commissioner determines that the collection of the tax is in jeopardy.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.701, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [RIGHT TO REQUEST SALE OF SEIZED PROPERTY WITHIN 60 DAYS.] The owner of property seized by levy may request that the commissioner offer to sell the property within 60 days after the request, or within a longer period requested by the owner. The request must be complied with unless the commissioner determines and notifies the owner within that period that compliance is not in the best interests of the state of Minnesota. A determination by the commissioner not to comply with the request is appealable to the tax court in the manner provided by law.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.709, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [RELEASE OF LEVY.] It shall be lawful for the commissioner to release the levy upon all or part of the property or rights to property levied upon if the commissioner determines that the release will facilitate the collection of the liability, but the release shall not operate to prevent any subsequent levy. The commissioner shall release a levy on all or part of the property or rights to property levied on and shall promptly notify the person on whom the levy was made that the levy has been released if: (1) the liability for which the levy was made is satisfied or has become unenforceable by lapse of time; (2) release of the levy will facilitate collection of the liability; (3) the taxpayer has entered into an installment payment agreement under section 270.67, subdivision 2, unless the agreement provides otherwise, or unless release of the levy will jeopardize the status of the department as a secured creditor; or (4) the fair market value of the property exceeds the liability, and release of the levy on a part of the property can be made without hindering collection. In the case of tangible personal property essential in carrying on the trade or business of the taxpayer, the commissioner shall provide for an expedited determination under this subdivision. A release of levy under this subdivision does not prevent a subsequent levy on the property released.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 271.12, is amended to read:

271.12 [WHEN ORDER EFFECTIVE.]

No order for refundment by the commissioner of revenue, the appropriate unit of government, or the tax court shall take effect until the time for appeal therefrom or review thereof by all parties entitled thereto has expired. Otherwise every order of the commissioner, the appropriate unit of government, or the tax court shall take effect immediately upon the filing thereof, and no appeal therefrom or review thereof shall stay the execution thereof or extend the time for payment of any tax or other obligation unless otherwise expressly provided by law; provided, that in case an order which has been acted upon, in whole or in part, shall thereafter be set aside or modified upon appeal, the determination upon appeal or review shall supersede the order appealed from and be binding upon all parties affected thereby, and such adjustments as may be necessary to give effect thereto shall be made accordingly; and provided further, the tax court may enjoin enforcement of the order of the commissioner being appealed. If it be finally determined upon such appeal or review that any person is entitled to refundment of any amount which has been paid for a tax or other obligation, such amount, unless otherwise provided by law, shall be paid to the person by the state treasurer, or other proper officer, out of funds derived from taxes of the same kind, if available for the purpose, or out of other available funds, if any, with interest at the rate specified in section 270.76 from the date of payment of the tax, unless a different rate of interest is otherwise provided by law, in which case such other rate shall apply, upon certification by the commissioner of revenue, the appropriate unit of government, the tax court or the supreme court.

If, within 120 days after a decision of the tax court becomes final, the commissioner does not refund the overpayment determined by the court, together with interest, on motion by the taxpayer, the tax court shall have jurisdiction to order the refund of the overpayment and interest, and to award reasonable litigation costs for bringing the motion. If any tax, assessment, or other obligation be increased upon such appeal or review, the increase shall be added to the original amount, and may be enforced and collected therewith.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 271.19, is amended to read:

271.19 [COSTS AND DISBURSEMENTS.]

Upon the determination of any appeal under this chapter before the tax court, or of any review hereunder by the supreme court, the costs and disbursements may be taxed and allowed in favor of the prevailing party and against the losing party as in civil actions. In any case where a person liable for a tax or other obligation has lost an appeal or review instituted by the person, and the tax court or court shall determine that the person instituted the same merely for the purposes of delay, or that the taxpayer's position in the proceedings is frivolous, additional costs, commensurate with the expense incurred and services performed by the agencies of the state in connection with the appeal, but not exceeding $5,000 in any case, may be allowed against the taxpayer, in the discretion of the tax court or court. Costs and disbursements allowed against any such person shall be added to the tax or other obligation determined to be due, and shall be payable therewith. To the extent described in section 3.761, where an award of costs and attorney fees is authorized under section 3.762, the costs and fees shall be allowed against the state, including expenses incurred by the taxpayer to administratively protest or appeal to the department of revenue the order, decision, or report of the commissioner that is the subject of the tax court proceedings. Costs and disbursements allowed against the state or other public agencies shall be paid out of funds received from taxes or other obligations of the kind involved in the proceeding, or other funds of the agency concerned appropriated and available therefor. Witnesses in proceedings under this chapter shall receive like fees as in the district court, to be paid in the first instance by the parties by whom the witnesses were called, and to be taxed and allowed as herein provided.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes, section 289A.11, as added in Laws 1990, chapter 480, article 1, section 23, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [PETITION IN TAX COURT; REFUND OF INTEREST.] Notwithstanding any other law, within one year after a decision of the tax court upholding an assessment of the commissioner of revenue becomes final, if the taxpayer has paid the assessment in full, plus interest calculated by the commissioner, the taxpayer may petition the tax court to reopen the case solely for a determination that the interest paid exceeds the interest legally due, and if so, the amount of the overpayment. A determination of overpayment of interest under this subdivision is a determination of overpayment of tax under section 271.12, and is reviewable in the same manner as any other decision of the tax court.

Sec. 22. [ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION; LETTER RULINGS; STUDY.]

The commissioner of revenue shall study the cost, feasibility, and means of implementation of (1) an arbitration procedure for resolving disputes between taxpayers and the department of revenue without court litigation, and (2) publication and dissemination of administrative determinations, decisions, and rulings of the department of revenue, through the use of private letter rulings or otherwise. In preparing the study, the commissioner shall consult with the bar association and society of certified public accountants. The commissioner shall report the results of the study to the legislature by January 7, 1991.

Sec. 23. [EFFECTIVE DATES.]

Section 1 is effective for evaluations occurring on or after August 1, 1990.

Sections 2 and 22 are effective the day following final enactment.

Section 3 is effective for advice given on or after August 1, 1990.

Section 4 is effective for notices of assessment issued on or after August 1, 1990.

Section 5 is effective for interviews occurring on or after August 1, 1990.

Section 6 is effective for taxpayer assistance applications filed on or after August 1, 1990.

Section 21 is effective for interest payments made on or after August 1, 1990.

ARTICLE 2

INCOME, GROSS PREMIUMS, AND FRANCHISE TAXES

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 60A.15, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN COMPANIES.] (a) On or before April 15, June 15, and December 15 of each year, every domestic and foreign company, including town and farmers' mutual insurance companies and domestic mutual insurance companies, shall pay to the commissioner of revenue installments equal to one-third of the insurer's total estimated tax for the current year. Except as provided in paragraph (b), installments must be based on a sum equal to two percent of the premiums described in paragraph (c).

(b) For town and farmers' mutual insurance companies and mutual property and casualty insurance companies other than those (i) writing life insurance, or (ii) whose total assets at the end of the preceding calendar year exceed on December 31, 1989, exceeded $1,600,000,000, the installments must be based on an amount equal to the following percentages of the premiums described in paragraph (c):

(1) for premiums paid after December 31, 1988, and before January 1, 1992, one percent; and

(2) for premiums paid after December 31, 1991, one-half of one percent.

(c) Installments under paragraph (a) or (b) are percentages of gross premiums less return premiums on all direct business received by the insurer in this state, or by its agents for it, in cash or otherwise, during such year, excepting premiums written for marine insurance as specified in subdivision 6.

(d) Failure of a company to make payments of at least one-third of either (1) the total tax paid during the previous calendar year or (2) 80 percent of the actual tax for the current calendar year shall subject the company to the penalty and interest provided in this section.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 290.01, subdivision 19, is amended to read:

Subd. 19. [NET INCOME.] The term "net income" means the federal taxable income, as defined in section 63 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through the date named in this subdivision, incorporating any elections made by the taxpayer in accordance with the Internal Revenue Code in determining federal taxable income for federal income tax purposes, and with the modifications provided in subdivisions 19a to 19f.

In the case of a regulated investment company or a fund thereof, as defined in section 851(a) or 851(h) of the Internal Revenue Code, federal taxable income means investment company taxable income as defined in section 852(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, except that:

(1) the exclusion of net capital gain provided in section 852(b)(2)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code does not apply; and

(2) the deduction for dividends paid under section 852(b)(2)(D) of the Internal Revenue Code must be applied by allowing a deduction for capital gain dividends and exempt-interest dividends as defined in sections 852(b)(3)(C) and 852(b)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The net income of a real estate investment trust as defined and limited by section 856(a), (b), and (c) of the Internal Revenue Code means the real estate investment trust taxable income as defined in section 857(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986, shall be in effect for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1986. The provisions of sections 10104, 10202, 10203, 10204, 10206, 10212, 10221, 10222, 10223, 10226, 10227, 10228, 10611, 10631, 10632, and 10711 of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1987, Public Law Number 100-203, ~~and~~ the provisions of sections 1001, 1002, 1003, 1004, 1005, 1006, 1008, 1009, 1010, 1011, 1011A, 1011B, 1012, 1013, 1014, 1015, 1018, 2004, 3041, 4009, 6007, 6026, 6032, 6137, 6277, and 6282 of the Technical and Miscellaneous Revenue Act of 1988, Public Law Number 100-647, and the provisions of sections 7811, 7816, and 7831 of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1989, Public Law Number 101-239, shall be effective at the time they become effective for federal income tax purposes.

The Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987, shall be in effect for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1987. The provisions of sections 4001, 4002, 4011, 5021, 5041, 5053, 5075, 6003, 6008, 6011, 6030, 6031, 6033, 6057, 6064, 6066, 6079, 6130, 6176, 6180, 6182, 6280, and 6281 of the Technical and Miscellaneous Revenue Act of 1988, Public Law Number 100-647, and the provisions of sections 7815 and 7821 of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1989, Public Law Number 101-239, shall become effective at the time they become effective for federal tax purposes.

The Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1988, shall be in effect for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1988. The provisions of sections 7101, 7102, 7104, 7105, 7201, 7202, 7203, 7204, 7205, 7206, 7207, 7210, 7211, 7301, 7302, 7303, 7304, 7601, 7621, 7622, 7641, 7642, 7645, 7647, 7651, and 7652 of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1989, Public Law Number 101-239, and the provision of section 1401 of the Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act of 1989, Public Law Number 101-73, shall become effective at the time they become effective for federal tax purposes.

Except as otherwise provided, references to the Internal Revenue Code in subdivisions 19a to 19g mean the code in effect for purposes of determining net income for the applicable year.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 290.05, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The following corporations, individuals, estates, trusts, and organizations shall be exempted from taxation under this chapter, provided that every such person or corporation claiming exemption under this chapter, in whole or in part, must establish to the satisfaction of the commissioner the taxable status of any income or activity:

(a) corporations, individuals, estates, and trusts engaged in the business of mining or producing iron ore and other ores the mining or production of which is subject to the occupation tax imposed by section 298.01; but if any such corporation, individual, estate, or trust engages in any other business or activity or has income from any property not used in such business it shall be subject to this tax computed on the net income from such property or such other business or activity. Royalty shall not be considered as income from the business of mining or producing iron ore within the meaning of this section;

(b) the United States of America, the state of Minnesota or any political subdivision of either agencies or instrumentalities, whether engaged in the discharge of governmental or proprietary functions;

(c) any insurance company that is domiciled in a state or country other than Minnesota that imposes retaliatory taxes, fines, deposits, penalties, licenses, or fees and that does not grant, on a reciprocal basis, exemption from such retaliatory taxes to insurance companies or their agents domiciled in Minnesota. "Retaliatory taxes" means taxes imposed on insurance companies organized in another state or country that result from the fact that an insurance company organized in the taxing jurisdiction and doing business in the other jurisdiction is subject to taxes, fines, deposits, penalties, licenses, or fees in an amount exceeding that imposed by the taxing jurisdiction upon an insurance company organized in the other state or country and doing business to the same extent in the taxing jurisdiction; and

(d) town and farmers' mutual insurance companies and mutual property and casualty insurance companies, other than those (1) writing life insurance or (2) whose total assets at the end of the preceding calendar year exceed on December 31, 1989, exceeded $1,600,000.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 290.06, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [COMPUTATION, CORPORATIONS.] The franchise tax imposed upon corporations shall be computed by applying to their taxable income the rate of ~~9.5~~ 9.8 percent.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 290.06, subdivision 21, is amended to read:

Subd. 21. [ALTERNATIVE MINIMUM TAX; FACTORS TAX.] (a) A corporation is allowed a credit for alternative minimum tax previously paid for any taxable year in which the corporation has no tax liability under section 290.092, subdivision 1, and has an alternative minimum tax credit carryover from a previous year. The credit allowable in any taxable year equals the lesser of (1) the excess of the tax under ~~this section~~ subdivision 1 for the taxable year over the amount computed under section 290.092, subdivision 1, clause (1), for the taxable year, or (2) the alternative minimum tax credit carryover to the taxable year.

(b) The tax imposed under section 290.092, subdivision 1, for the taxable year is an alternative minimum tax credit carryover to each of the five taxable years succeeding the taxable year. The entire amount of the alternative minimum tax credit must be carried to the earliest taxable year to which the amount may be carried. The unused portion of the credit must be carried to the following taxable year. No credit may be carried to a taxable year more than five years after the taxable year in which the alternative minimum tax under section 290.092, subdivision 1, was ~~paid~~ incurred.

(c) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1989, qualification for a credit and computation of the amount of the credit for alternative minimum tax under paragraph (a) must be determined by computing the alternative minimum tax that would apply if section 290.092 were in effect for the taxable year.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.068, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CREDIT ALLOWED.] A corporation, other than a corporation with a valid election in effect under section ~~290.9725~~ 1362 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1989, is allowed a credit against the portion of the franchise tax imposed by this chapter computed under section 290.06, subdivision 1, for the taxable year equal to:

- (a) 5 percent of the first $2 million of the excess (if any) of
 - (1) the qualified research expenses for the taxable year, over
 - (2) the base period research expenses; and
- (b) 2.5 percent on all of such excess expenses over $2 million.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 290.091, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of the tax imposed by this section, the following terms have the meanings given:

(a) "Alternative minimum taxable income" means the sum of the following for the taxable year:

(1) the taxpayer's federal alternative minimum taxable income as defined in section 55(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code;

(2) the taxpayer's itemized deductions allowed in computing federal alternative minimum taxable income, but excluding the portion of the Minnesota charitable contribution deduction that constitutes an item of tax preference under section 57(a)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code;

(3) to the extent not included in federal alternative minimum taxable income, the amount of interest income as provided by section 290.01, subdivision 19a, clause (1); less the sum of

(i) interest income as defined in section 290.01, subdivision 19b, clause (1);

(ii) an overpayment of state income tax as provided by section 290.01, subdivision 19b, clause (2); and

(iii) the amount of investment interest paid or accrued within the taxable year on indebtedness to the extent that the amount does not exceed net investment income, as defined in section 163(d)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code. Interest does not include amounts deducted in computing federal adjusted gross income.

In the case of an estate or trust, alternative minimum taxable income must be computed as provided in section 59(c) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) "Internal Revenue Code" means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987 1989.

(c) "Investment interest" means investment interest as defined in section 163(d)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(d) "Tentative minimum tax" equals six percent of alternative minimum taxable income after subtracting the exemption amount determined under subdivision 3.

(e) "Regular tax" means the tax that would be imposed under this chapter (without regard to this section and section 290.032), reduced by the sum of the nonrefundable credits allowed under this chapter.

(f) "Net minimum tax" means the minimum tax imposed by this section.

(g) "Minnesota charitable contribution deduction" means a charitable contribution deduction under section 170 of the Internal Revenue Code to or for the use of an entity described in section 290.21, subdivision 3, clauses (a) to (e).

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 290.0921, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TAX IMPOSED.] (a) In addition to the taxes computed under this chapter without regard to this section, the franchise tax imposed on corporations includes a tax equal to the excess, if any, for the taxable year of:

(1) seven 5.8 percent of Minnesota alternative minimum taxable income less the credit allowed under section 290.35, subdivision 3; over

(2) the tax imposed under section 290.06, subdivision 1, without regard to this section.

(b) If the sum of the corporation's Minnesota sales and receipts, property, and payrolls, as defined in section 290.092, subdivision 4, exceeds $5,000,000, the amount under paragraph (a), clause (1), is the greater of

(1) $500 or

(2) the amount otherwise determined.

The provisions of this paragraph do not apply to corporations subject to tax under section 60A.15, subdivision 1; real estate investment trusts; and regulated investment companies or a fund thereof.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 290.0921, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [ALTERNATIVE MINIMUM TAXABLE INCOME.] "Alternative minimum taxable income" is Minnesota net income as defined in section 290.01, subdivision 19, and includes the adjustments and tax preference items in sections 56, 57, 58, and 59(d), (e), (f) and (h) of the Internal Revenue Code. If a corporation files a separate company Minnesota tax return, the minimum tax must be computed on a separate company basis. If a corporation is part of a tax group filing a unitary return, the minimum tax must be computed on a unitary basis. The following adjustments must be made.

(1) For purposes of the depreciation adjustments under section 56(a)(1) and 56(g)(4)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code, the basis for depreciable property placed in service in a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1990, is the adjusted basis for federal income tax purposes, including any modification made in a taxable year under section 290.01, subdivision 19e, or Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 290.09, subdivision 7, paragraph (c).

(2) The alternative tax net operating loss deduction under sections 56(a)(4) and 56(d) of the Internal Revenue Code does not apply.

(3) The special rule for ~~100 percent~~ certain dividends under section 56(g)(4)(C)(ii) of the Internal Revenue Code does not apply.

(4) The special rule for dividends from section 936 companies under section 56(g)(4)(C)(iii) does not apply.

(5) The tax preference for depletion under section 57(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code does not apply.

(6) The tax preference for intangible drilling costs under section 57(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code must be calculated without regard to the subtraction under section 290.01, subdivision 19d, clause (4).

(7) The tax preference for tax exempt interest under section 57(a)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code does not apply.

(8) The tax preference for charitable contributions of appreciated property under section 57(a)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code does not apply.

(9) For purposes of calculating the tax preference for accelerated depreciation or amortization on certain property placed in service before January 1, 1987, under section 57(a)(7) of the Internal Revenue Code, the deduction allowable for the taxable year is the deduction allowed under section 290.01, subdivision 19e.

(10) For purposes of calculating the adjustment for adjusted current earnings in section 56(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, the term "alternative minimum taxable income" as it is used in section 56(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, means alternative minimum taxable income as defined in this subdivision, determined without regard to the adjustment for adjusted current earnings in section 56(g) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(11) For purposes of determining the amount of adjusted current earnings under section 56(g)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, no adjustment shall be made under section 56(g)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code with respect to (i) the amount of foreign dividend gross-up subtracted as provided in section 290.01, subdivision 19d, clause (1), (ii) the amount of refunds of income, excise, or franchise taxes subtracted as provided in section 290.01, subdivision 19d, clause (10), or (iii) the amount of royalties, fees or other like income subtracted as provided in section 290.01, subdivision 19d, clause (11).

Items of tax preference must not be reduced below zero as a result of the modifications in this subdivision.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 290.0921, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [EXEMPTIONS.] The following entities are exempt from the tax imposed by this section:

(1) cooperatives taxable under subchapter T of the Internal Revenue Code or organized under chapter 308 or a similar law of another state;

(2) corporations subject to tax under section 60A.15, subdivision 1;

(3) real estate investment trusts;

(4) regulated investment companies or a fund thereof; and

(5) entities having a valid election in effect under section 860D(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1989.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 290.0921, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [CARRYOVER CREDIT.] (a) A corporation is allowed a credit against qualified regular tax for qualified alternative minimum tax previously paid. The credit is allowable only if the corporation has no tax liability under this section for the taxable year and if the corporation has an alternative minimum tax credit carryover from a previous year. The credit allowable in a taxable year equals the lesser of

(1) the excess of the qualified regular tax for the taxable year over the amount computed under subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (1), multiplied by the sum of one plus the surtax percentage under section 290.06, subdivision 1a, for the taxable year or

(2) the carryover credit to the taxable year.

(b) For purposes of this subdivision, the following terms have the meanings given.

(1) "Qualified alternative minimum tax" equals the amount determined under subdivision 1 for the taxable year multiplied by the sum of one plus the surtax percentage rate under section 290.06, subdivision 1a. In computing the amount of alternative minimum tax

(i) the adjustment under section 56(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code must not be made;

(ii) the full amount of the charitable contribution deduction under section 290.21, subdivision 3, must be deducted in computing Minnesota alternative minimum taxable income; and

(iii) in the case of a corporation subject to an occupation tax under section 298.01 the tax preference for depletion under section 57(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code must be deducted in computing Minnesota alternative minimum taxable income.

(2) "Qualified regular tax" means the tax imposed under section 290.06, subdivision 1, and a surtax imposed on that tax under section 290.06, subdivision 1a.

(c) The qualified alternative minimum tax for a taxable year is an alternative minimum tax credit carryover to each of the five taxable years succeeding the taxable year. The entire amount of the credit must be carried to the earliest taxable year to which the amount may be carried. Any unused portion of the credit must be carried to the following taxable year. No credit may be carried to a taxable year in which alternative minimum tax was paid.

Sec. 12. [290.0922] [MINIMUM FEE; CORPORATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [IMPOSITION.] (a) In addition to the tax imposed by this chapter without regard to this section, the franchise tax imposed on a corporation required to file under section 290.37, other than a corporation having a valid election in effect under section 1362 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1989, for the taxable year includes a tax equal to the following amounts:

If the sum of the corporation's Minnesota property, payrolls, and sales or receipts is:

less than $500,000
$500,000 to $1,000,000
$1,000,000 to $4,999,999
$5,000,000 to $9,999,999
$10,000,000 to $19,999,999
$20,000,000 or more

the tax equals:

$100
$300
$1,000
$2,000
$5,000

(b) A tax is imposed annually beginning in 1990 on a corporation required to file a return under section 290.41, subdivision 1, that has a valid election in effect for the taxable year under section 1362 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1989, and on a partnership required to file a return under section 290.41, subdivision 1, other than a partnership that derives over 80 percent of its income from farming. The tax imposed under this paragraph is due on or before the due date of the return due under section 290.41, subdivision 1, for the calendar year following the calendar year in which the tax is imposed. The commissioner shall prescribe the return to be used for payment of this tax. The tax under this paragraph is equal to the following amounts:

If the sum of the S corporation's or partnership's Minnesota property, payrolls, and sales or receipts is:	the tax equals:
less than $500,000	$0
$500,000 to $ 1,000,000	$100
$1,000,000 to $ 4,999,999	$300
$5,000,000 to $ 9,999,999	$1,000
$10,000,000 to $19,999,999	$2,000
$20,000,000 or more	$5,000

Subd. 2. [EXEMPTIONS.] The following entities are exempt from the tax imposed by this section:

(1) corporations exempt from tax under section 290.05 other than insurance companies exempt under subdivision 1, paragraph (d);

(2) real estate investment trusts;

(3) regulated investment companies or a fund thereof; and

(4) entities having a valid election in effect under section 860D(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1989; and

(5) town and farmers' mutual insurance companies.

Entities not specifically exempted by this subdivision are subject to tax under this section, notwithstanding section 290.05.

Subd. 3. [DEFINITION.] "Minnesota sales or receipts," "Minnesota property," and "Minnesota payrolls" have the meanings given in section 290.092, subdivision 4.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.31, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PARTNERS, NOT PARTNERSHIP, SUBJECT TO

TAX.] A partnership as such shall not be subject to the income tax imposed by this chapter, but is subject to the tax imposed under section 290.0922. Persons carrying on business as partners shall be liable for income tax only in their separate or individual capacities.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 290.9201, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11. [EXCEPTION FROM WITHHOLDING FOR PUBLIC SPEAKERS.] The provisions of subdivisions 7 and 8 shall not be effective for compensation paid to nonresident public speakers before January 1, 1992, if the compensation paid to the speaker is less than $2,000 or is only a payment of the speaker's expenses.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.9725, is amended to read:

290.9725 [S CORPORATION.]

For purposes of this chapter, the term "S corporation" means any corporation having a valid election in effect for the taxable year under section 1362 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987. An S corporation shall not be subject to the taxes imposed by this chapter, except the taxes imposed under sections 290.0922, 290.92, 290.9727, 290.9728, and 290.9729.

Sec. 16. [INSTRUCTION TO REVISOR.]

In the next edition of Minnesota Statutes, the revisor of statutes shall substitute the phrase "Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1989" for the words "Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1988" wherever it occurs in chapters 290, 290A, and 291 except for the use of the phrase in section 290.01, subdivision 19, and section 290.92, subdivision 1, paragraph (1).

Sec. 17. [FEDERAL CHANGES.]

The changes made by sections 7841, 7304(a), 7817, 7110, 7815, 7816, 7811(d) of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1989, Public Law Number 101-239, and sections 202, 203, and 204 of Public Law Number 101-140 that affect the computation of gross income as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 290.01, subdivision 20, the credit for research and experimental expenditures as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 290.068, subdivision 2, the credit for state death taxes allowable as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 291.03, subdivision 1, and the federal alternative minimum taxable income as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 290.091, subdivision 2, shall be in effect at the same time they become effective for federal income and estate tax purposes.

Sec. 18. [SEVERABILITY; INSURANCE TAXATION.]

(a) If the provision of Minnesota Statutes, section 60A.15, subdivision 1, enacted in section 1, providing a reduced insurance premiums tax rate to mutual insurance companies is found by a final nonappealable order of a court of competent jurisdiction to be unconstitutional or to have an unconstitutional effect on the application of the insurance premiums tax to other insurance companies, the legislature intends that section 1 be invalid and the otherwise applicable insurance premiums tax rates apply.

(b) If the provision of Minnesota Statutes, section 290.05, subdivision 1, clause (d), enacted in section 3, exempting a mutual insurance company from taxation under the corporate franchise tax is found by a final nonappealable order of a court of competent jurisdiction to be unconstitutional or to have an unconstitutional effect on the application of the corporate franchise tax to other insurance companies, the legislature intends that the exemption enacted in section 3 be invalid and the corporate franchise tax apply.

Sec. 19. [ESTIMATED TAXES; EXCEPTION.]

For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1989, but before January 1, 1991, the commissioner of revenue may not assess any additions to tax that are the result of a corporation's failure to make sufficient estimated tax payments due to the changes in this article.

Sec. 20. [SMALL BUSINESS TAX STUDY.]

The department of revenue shall conduct a study of the state and local tax burden in relation to ability to pay for businesses with combined Minnesota property, payroll, and sales of less than $5,000,000 per year. The study shall present the state and local tax burden, net of federal income tax considerations, for representative businesses of various sizes, legal structures, and levels of profitability. The study shall relate tax burden to such measures of ability to pay as taxable income, economic income, assets, and sales. The study shall be submitted to the chairpersons of the tax committee of the house of representatives and senate by December 1, 1990.

Sec. 21. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 290.06, subdivision 1a, is repealed.

Sec. 22. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective for premiums paid after December 31, 1989. The provisions of section 12 are effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1990 for insurance companies domiciled in a state that imposes retaliatory taxes, fines, deposits, penalties, licenses, or fees. Section 14 is effective the day following final enactment. The remainder of this article is effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1989, except as otherwise provided.

ARTICLE 3

PROPERTY TAXES

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103B.3369, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE.] The board may award grants to counties only to carry out water resource protection and management programs identified as priorities in comprehensive local water plans. Grants may be used to employ persons and to obtain and use information necessary to:

(1) develop comprehensive local water plans under section 110B.04 that have not received state funding for water resources planning as provided for in Laws 1987, chapter 404, section 30, subdivision 5, clause (a); and

(2) implement comprehensive local water plans.

A base grant shall be awarded to a county that levies a tax at the rate established under section 275.50, subdivision 5, paragraph (z), in an amount equal to $37,500 less the amount raised by that levy. If the amount necessary to implement the local water plan for the county is less than $37,500, the amount of the base grant shall be the amount that, when added to the levy amount, equals the amount required to implement the plan.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103B.3369, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [RULES.] The board shall adopt rules that:

(1) establish performance criteria for grant administration for local implementation of state delegated or mandated programs that recognize regional variations in program needs and priorities;

(2) recognize the unique nature of state delegated or mandated programs;

(3) specify that program activities contracted by a county to another local unit of government are eligible for funding; and

(4) require that grants from the board may not exceed the amount matched by participating local units of government; and

(5) specify a process for the board to establish a base level grant amount that all participating counties may be eligible to receive.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 124.10, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The county auditor shall at the time of making the March and November tax settlements of each year apportion to the several districts the amount received from liquor licenses, fines, estrays, and other sources belonging to the general school fund. The county auditor each year shall apportion to the school districts within the county the amount received from powerline taxes under section 273.42, liquor licenses, fines, estrays, and other sources belonging to the general fund. The apportionment apportionments shall be made in proportion to each district's net tax capacity within the county in the prior year. The apportionments shall be made and amounts distributed to the school districts at the times provided for the settlement and distribution of real and personal property taxes under sections 276.09, 276.11, and 276.111, except that all of the power line taxes apportioned to a school district from the county school fund shall be included in the first half distribution of property taxes to the school district. No district shall receive any part of the money received from liquor licenses unless all sums paid for such licenses in such district are apportioned to the county school fund.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 124.195, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [PAYMENTS TO SCHOOL NONOPERATING FUNDS.] Each fiscal year state general fund payments for a district nonoperating fund shall be made at 85 percent of the estimated entitlement during the fiscal year of the entitlement, unless a higher rate has been established according to section 121.904, subdivision 4d. This amount shall be paid in 12 equal monthly installments. The amount of the actual entitlement, after adjustment for actual data, minus the payments made during the fiscal year of the entitlement shall be paid prior to October 31 of the following school year. The commissioner may make advance payments of homestead and agricultural credit aid for a district's debt service fund earlier than would occur under the preceding schedule if the district submits evidence showing a serious cash flow problem in the fund. The commissioner may make earlier payments during the year and, if necessary, increase the percent of the entitlement paid to reduce the cash flow problem.

Sec. 5. [134.342] [ALLOCATION OF LEVY AUTHORITY.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY.] A regional public library system board may adopt a written resolution to assume responsibility for the allocation of the regional library system levy authority throughout the region. If adopted, the board shall furnish a list to the commissioners of revenue and education by July 1 of the levy year, containing the name of each member city, town, and county that will be participating in that regional system.

Subd. 2. [DETERMINATION OF LEVY LIMITATION.] The levy limitation for a regional library system is equal to the sum of the total maximum amount allowable for operating regional library services for all member cities, towns, and counties within the region subject to the levy limitation under section 275.50, subdivision 5, clause (o). If a member city or town of a regional library system is not subject to the levy limitations under sections 275.50 to 275.56, the commissioner of revenue shall determine a levy limitation for the purposes of this section as if the member were subject to the provisions of section 275.50, subdivision 5, clause (o). The commissioner of revenue shall determine the total maximum amount allowable for the regional library system and shall certify the total amount to the regional library board and to the commissioner of education by August 1 of the levy year.

Subd. 3. [ALLOCATION OF AUTHORITY.] A regional public library system board that has resolved to allocate library levy authority among its member cities, towns, and counties shall allocate the amount, up to the total amount certified to the board by the commissioner of revenue, and shall notify each member city, town, and county by August 15 of the levy year of its respective share of the total library levy for the region. Each member city, town, or county located in the region shall levy the amount negotiated and agreed upon by the board and each member city, town, or county.

The board shall certify to the commissioners of revenue and education by September 1 of the levy year, the levy amount allocated to each member city, town, and county in the regional library system.

Subd. 4. [NON-ALLOCATED REGIONAL LIBRARY LEVY LIMITATION.] A city, town, or county located within a regional library system that does not allocate library levy authority under subdivisions 1 to 3 but is subject to the levy limitations under sections 275.50 to 275.56, shall levy according to section 275.50, subdivision 5, clause (o), to pay the operating costs of a regional library system.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 169.86, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION FOR PERMIT.] The commissioner, with respect to highways under the commissioner's jurisdiction, and local authorities, with respect to highways under their jurisdiction, may, in their discretion, upon application in writing and good cause being shown therefor, issue a special permit, in writing, authorizing the applicant to move a vehicle or combination of vehicles of a size or weight of vehicle or load exceeding the maximum specified in this chapter, or otherwise not in conformity with the provisions of this chapter, upon any highway under the jurisdiction of the party granting such permit and for the maintenance of which such party is responsible.

Permits relating to over-width, over-length manufactured homes shall not be issued to persons other than manufactured home dealers or manufacturers for movement of new units owned by the manufactured home dealer or manufacturer, until the person has presented a statement from the county auditor and treasurer where the unit is presently located, stating that all personal and real property taxes have been paid. Upon payment of the most recent single year delinquent personal property or current year taxes only, the county auditor or treasurer must issue a taxes paid statement to a manufactured home dealer or a financial institution desiring to relocate a manufactured home that has been repossessed. This statement must be dated within 30 days of the contemplated move. The statement from the county auditor and treasurer where the unit is presently located, stating that all personal and real property taxes have been paid, may be made by telephone. If the statement is obtained by telephone, the permit shall contain the date and time of the telephone call and the names of the persons in the auditor's office and treasurer's office who verified that all personal and real property taxes had been paid.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 272.02, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [CONVERSION TO EXEMPT OR TAXABLE USES.] (a) Any property exempt from taxation on January 2 of any year which, due to sale or other reason, loses its exemption prior to December 20 of any year, shall be placed on the current assessment rolls for that year.

The valuation shall be determined with respect to its value on January 2 of such year. The classification shall be based upon the use to which the property was put by the purchaser, or in the event the purchaser has not utilized the property by December 20, the intended use of the property, determined by the county assessor, based upon all relevant facts.

(b) Property subject to tax on January 2 that is acquired by a governmental entity, church, or educational institution before August 1 of the year is exempt for that assessment year if (1) the property is to be used for an exempt purpose under subdivision 1, clauses (1) to (7), and (2) the property is not subject to the filing requirement under section 272.025.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 273.064, is amended to read:

273.064 [EXAMINATION OF LOCAL ASSESSOR'S WORK; COMPLETION OF ASSESSMENTS.]

The county assessor shall examine the assessment appraisal records of each local assessor anytime after January 15 December 1 of each year and shall immediately give notice in writing to the governing body of said district of any deficiencies in the assessment procedures with respect to the quantity of or quality of the work done as of that date and indicating corrective measures to be undertaken and effected by the local assessor not later than 30 days thereafter. If, upon reexamination of such records at that time, the deficiencies noted in the written notice previously given have not been substantially corrected to the end that a timely and uniform assessment of all real property in the county will be attained, then the county assessor with the approval of the county board shall collect the necessary records from the local assessor and complete the assessment or employ others to complete the assessment. When the county assessor has completed the assessments, the local assessor shall thereafter resume the assessment function within the district. In this circumstance the cost of completing the assessment shall be charged against the assessment district involved. The county auditor shall certify the costs thus incurred to the appropriate governing body not later than August 1 and if unpaid as of September 1 of the assessment year, the county auditor shall levy a tax upon the taxable property of said assessment district sufficient to pay such costs. The amount so collected shall be credited to the general revenue fund of the county.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 273.11, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] Except as provided in subdivisions 6, 8, and 9 or section 273.17, subdivision 1, all property shall be valued at its market value. The market value as determined pursuant to this section shall be stated such that any amount under $100 is rounded up to $100 and any amount exceeding $100 shall be rounded to the nearest $100. In estimating and determining such value, the assessor shall not adopt a lower or different standard of value because the same is to serve as a basis of taxation, nor shall the assessor adopt as a criterion of value the price for which such property would sell at a forced sale, or in the aggregate with all the property in the town or district; but the assessor shall value each article or description of property by itself, and at such sum or price as the assessor believes the same to be fairly worth in money. The assessor shall take into account the effect on the market value of property of environmental factors in the vicinity of the property. In assessing any tract or lot of real property, the value of the land, exclusive of structures and improvements, shall be determined, and also the value of all structures and improvements thereon, and the aggregate value of the property, including all structures and improvements, excluding the value of crops growing upon cultivated land. In valuing real property upon which there is a mine or quarry, it shall be valued at such price as such property, including the mine or quarry, would sell for a fair, voluntary sale, for cash. In valuing real property which is vacant, the fact that such property is platted shall not be taken into account. An individual lot of such platted property shall not be assessed in excess of the assessment of the land as if it were unplatted until the lot is improved with a permanent improvement all or a portion of which is located upon the lot, or for a period of three years after final approval of said plat whichever is shorter. When a lot is sold or construction begun, the net tax capacity of that lot or any single contiguous lot fronting on the same street shall be eligible for reassessment. All property, or the use thereof, which is taxable under section 272.01, subdivision 2, or 273.19, shall be valued at the market value of such property and not at the value of a leasehold estate in such property, or at some lesser value than its market value.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 273.112, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Real estate shall be entitled to valuation and tax deferment under this section only if it is:

(a) actively and exclusively devoted to golf, skiing, or archery or firearms range recreational use or uses and other recreational uses carried on at the establishment;

(b) five acres in size or more, except in the case of an archery or firearms range;

(c)(1) operated by private individuals and open to the public; or

(2) operated by firms or corporations for the benefit of employees or guests; or

(3) operated by private clubs having a membership of 50 or more, provided that the club does not discriminate in membership requirements or selection on the basis of sex; and

(d) made available, in the case of real estate devoted to golf, for use without discrimination on the basis of sex during the time when the facility is open to use by the public or by members, except that use for golf may be restricted on the basis of sex no more frequently than one, or part of one, weekend each calendar month for each sex and no more than two, or part of two, weekdays each week for each sex.

If a golf club membership allows use of golf course facilities by more than one adult per membership, the use must be equally available to all adults entitled to use of the golf course under the membership, except that use may be restricted on the basis of sex as permitted in this section. Memberships that permit play during restricted times may be allowed only if the restricted times apply to all adults using the membership. A golf club may not offer a membership or golfing privileges to a spouse of a member that provides greater or less access to the golf course than is provided to that person's spouse under the same or a separate membership in that club, except that the terms of a membership may provide that one spouse may have no right to use the golf course at any time while the other spouse may have either limited or unlimited access to the golf course.

A golf club may have or create an individual membership category which entitles a member for a reduced rate to play during restricted hours as established by the club. The club must have on record a written request by the member for such membership.

A golf club that has food or beverage facilities or services must allow equal access to those facilities and services for both men and women members in all membership categories at all times. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to require service or access to facilities to persons under the age of 21 years or require any act that would violate law or ordinance regarding sale, consumption, or regulation of alcoholic beverages.

For purposes of this subdivision and subdivision 7a, discrimination means a pattern or course of conduct and not linked to an isolated incident.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 273.119, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REIMBURSEMENT FOR LOST REVENUE.] The county may transfer money from the county conservation account created in section 40A.152 to the county revenue fund to reimburse the fund for the cost of the property tax credit. The county auditor shall certify to the commissioner of revenue, as part of the abstracts of tax lists required to be filed with the commissioner under section 275.29, the amount of tax lost to the county from the property tax credit under subdivision 1 and the extent that the tax lost exceeds funds available in the county conservation account. Any prior year adjustments must also be certified in the abstracts of tax lists. The commissioner of revenue shall review the certifications to determine their accuracy. The commissioner may make the changes in the certification that are considered necessary or return a certification to the county auditor for corrections. The commissioner shall reimburse each taxing district, other than school districts, from the Minnesota conservation fund under section 40A.151 for the taxes lost in excess of the county account. The payments must be made at the times time provided in section ~~477A.015~~ 473H.10, subdivision 3, for payment of local government aid to taxing jurisdictions in the same proportion that the ad valorem tax is distributed.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 273.123, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [STATE REIMBURSEMENT.] The county auditor shall calculate the tax on the property described in subdivision 2 based on the assessment made on January 2 of the year in which the disaster or emergency occurred. The difference between the tax determined on the January 2 gross tax capacity and the tax actually payable based on the reassessed gross tax capacity determined under subdivision 2 shall be reimbursed to each taxing jurisdiction in which the damaged property is located. The amount shall be certified by the county auditor and reported to the commissioner of revenue. The commissioner shall make the payments to the taxing jurisdictions, other than school districts, containing the property at the time distributions are made under section ~~477A.015~~ 473H.10, subdivision 3, in the same proportion that the ad valorem tax is distributed.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.124, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [MANUFACTURED HOME PARK COOPERATIVE.] When a manufactured home park is owned by a corporation or association organized under chapter 308A, and each person who owns a share or shares in the corporation or association is entitled to occupy a lot within the park, the corporation or association may claim homestead treatment for each lot occupied by a shareholder. Each lot must be designated by legal description or number, and each lot is limited to not more than one-half acre of land for each homestead. The manufactured home park shall be valued and assessed as if it were homestead property within class 1 if all of the following criteria are met:

- (1) the occupant is using the property as a permanent residence;
- (2) the occupant or the cooperative association is paying the ad valorem property taxes and any special assessments levied against the land and structure either directly, or indirectly through dues to the corporation; and
- (3) the corporation or association organized under chapter 308A is wholly owned by persons having a right to occupy a lot owned by the corporation or association.

A charitable corporation, organized under the laws of Minnesota with no outstanding stock, and granted a ruling by the Internal Revenue Service for 501(c)(3) tax-exempt status, qualifies for homestead treatment with respect to member residents of the manufactured home park who hold residential participation warrants entitling them to occupy a lot in the manufactured home park.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.124, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 15. [RESIDENCE OF DISABLED CHILD OF OWNER.] The principal residence of an individual who has a permanent disability as defined in section 290A.03, subdivision 10, shall be classified as a homestead if the residence is wholly owned by a parent or both parents of the individual. The application for homestead benefits must be on a form prescribed by the commissioner and must contain the information necessary for the assessor to determine whether homestead classification under this subdivision is warranted.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.124, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 16. [HOMESTEAD ACQUIRED UNDER EMINENT DOMAIN.] If a home classified as a homestead under section 273.13, subdivision 22, is acquired from the owner under eminent domain proceedings, a home purchased by the owner for use as a homestead within six months of the date of acquisition under eminent domain must be classified by the assessor as class 1 homestead property under section 273.13, subdivision 22, for taxes payable in the following year, notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 9. The homeowner must apply to the assessor for classification under this subdivision within 30 days of the purchase of the home. The homeowner must provide the assessor with the information necessary for the assessor to determine that the property qualifies for homestead under this subdivision. The assessor may require the homeowner to submit an affidavit.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 273.13, subdivision 22, is amended to read:

Subd. 22. [CLASS 1.] (a) Except as provided in subdivision 23, real estate which is residential and used for homestead purposes is class 1. The market value of class 1a property must be determined based upon the value of the house, garage, and land.

The first $68,000 of market value of class 1a property has a net class rate of one percent of its market value and a gross class rate of 2.17 percent of its market value. The market value of class 1a property that exceeds $68,000 but does not exceed $100,000 $110,000 has a class rate of two percent of its market value. The market value of class 1a property that exceeds ~~$100,000~~ $110,000 has a class rate of three percent of its market value.

(b) Class 1b property includes real estate or manufactured homes used for the purposes of a homestead by

(1) any blind person, if the blind person is the owner thereof or if the blind person and the blind person's spouse are the sole owners thereof; or

(2) any person, hereinafter referred to as "veteran," who:

(i) served in the active military or naval service of the United States; and

(ii) is entitled to compensation under the laws and regulations of the United States for permanent and total service-connected disability due to the loss, or loss of use, by reason of amputation, ankylosis, progressive muscular dystrophies, or paralysis, of both lower extremities, such as to preclude motion without the aid of braces, crutches, canes, or a wheelchair; and

(iii) with assistance by the administration of veterans affairs has acquired a special housing unit with special fixtures or movable facilities made necessary by the nature of the veteran's disability, or the surviving spouse of the deceased veteran for as long as the surviving spouse retains the special housing unit as a homestead; or

(3) any person who:

(i) is permanently and totally disabled and

(ii) receives 90 percent or more of total income from

(A) aid from any state as a result of that disability; or

(B) supplemental security income for the disabled; or

(C) workers' compensation based on a finding of total and permanent disability; or

(D) social security disability, including the amount of a disability insurance benefit which is converted to an old age insurance benefit and any subsequent cost of living increases; or

(E) aid under the Federal Railroad Retirement Act of 1937, United States Code Annotated, title 45, section 228b(a)5; or

(F) a pension from any local government retirement fund located in the state of Minnesota as a result of that disability; or

(iii) whose household income as defined in section 290A.03, subdivision 5, is 150 percent or less of the federal poverty level.

Property is classified and assessed pursuant to clause (1) only if the commissioner of jobs and training certifies to the assessor that the owner of the property satisfies the requirements of this subdivision.

Permanently and totally disabled for the purpose of this subdivision means a condition which is permanent in nature and totally incapacitates the person from working at an occupation which brings the person an income. The first $32,000 market value of class 1b property has a net class rate of .445 percent of its market value and a gross class rate of .87 percent of its market value. The remaining market value of class 1b property has a gross or net class rate using the rates for class 1 or class 2a property, whichever is appropriate, of similar market value.

(c) Class 1c property is commercial use real property that abuts a lakeshore line and is devoted to temporary and seasonal residential occupancy for recreational purposes but not devoted to commercial purposes for more than 225 days in the year preceding the year of assessment, and that includes a portion used as a homestead by the owner, which includes a dwelling occupied as a homestead by a shareholder of a corporation that owns the resort or a partner in a partnership that owns the resort, even if the title to the homestead is held by the corporation or partnership. For purposes of this clause, property is devoted to a commercial purpose on a specific day if any portion of the property, excluding the portion used exclusively as a homestead, is used or available for use for residential occupancy and a fee is charged for residential occupancy. Class 1c property has a class rate of .4 percent of the first $32,000 of market value for taxes payable in 1990, .6 percent of the first $32,000 of market value for taxes payable in 1991, .8 percent of the first $32,000 of market value for taxes payable in 1992, and one percent of market value in excess of $32,000 for taxes payable in 1990, 1991, and 1992, and one percent of total market value for taxes payable in 1993 and thereafter with the following limitation: the area of the property must not exceed 100 feet of lakeshore footage for each cabin or campsite located on the property up to a total of 800 feet and 500 feet in depth, measured away from the lakeshore.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 273.13, subdivision 23, is amended to read:

Subd. 23. [CLASS 2.] (a) Class 2a property is agricultural land including any improvements that is homesteaded. The market value of the house and garage and immediately surrounding one acre of land has the same class rates as class 1a property under subdivision 22. If the market value of the house, garage, and surrounding one acre of land is less than ~~$100,000~~ $110,000, the value of the remaining land including improvements equal to the difference between ~~$100,000~~ $110,000 and the market value of the house, garage, and surrounding one acre of land has a net class rate of .4 .45 percent of market value and a gross class rate of 1.75 percent of market value. The remaining value of class 2a property over ~~$100,000~~ $110,000 of market value that does not exceed 320 acres has a net class rate of 1.3 percent of market value for taxes payable in 1990, 1.4 percent of market value for taxes payable in 1991, and 1.5 percent of market value for taxes payable in 1992 and thereafter, and a gross class rate of 2.25 percent of market value. The remaining property over the ~~$100,000~~ $110,000 market value in excess of 320 acres has a class rate of 1.7 percent of market value for taxes payable in 1990, and 1.6 percent of market value for taxes payable in 1991, and 1.5 percent of market value for taxes payable in 1992 and thereafter, and a gross tax capacity of 2.25 percent of market value.

(b) Class 2b property is (1) real estate, rural in character and used exclusively for growing trees for timber, lumber, and wood and wood products; and (2) real estate that is nonhomestead agricultural land. Class 2b property has a net class rate of 1.7 percent of market value for taxes payable in 1990, and 1.6 percent of market value for taxes payable in 1991, and 1.5 percent of market value for taxes payable in 1992 and thereafter, and a gross class rate of 2.25 percent of market value.

(c) Agricultural land as used in this section means contiguous acreage of ten acres or more, primarily used during the preceding year for agricultural purposes. Agricultural use may include pasture, timber, waste, unusable wild land, and land included in federal farm programs. "Agricultural purposes" as used in this section means the raising or cultivation of agricultural products, and includes the commercial boarding of horses if the commercial boarding of horses is done in conjunction with the raising or cultivation of agricultural products.

(d) Real estate of less than ten acres used principally for raising poultry, livestock, fruit, vegetables or other agricultural products, including the breeding of fish for sale and consumption if the fish breeding occurs on land zoned for agricultural use, shall be considered as agricultural land, if it is not used primarily for residential purposes. The term "agricultural products" as used in the preceding sentence means any of the products identified in section 273.111, subdivision 6, clause (2). "Agricultural purposes" as used in this section means the raising or cultivation of agricultural products.

(e) If a parcel used for agricultural purposes is also used for commercial or industrial purposes, including but not limited to:

- (1) wholesale and retail sales;
- (2) processing of raw agricultural products or other goods;
- (3) warehousing or storage of processed goods; and

(4) office facilities for the support of the activities enumerated in clauses (1), (2), and (3), the assessor shall classify the part of the parcel used for agricultural purposes as class 1b, 2a, or 2b, whichever is appropriate, and the remainder in the class appropriate to its use. The grading, sorting, and packaging of raw agricultural products for first sale is considered an agricultural purpose. A greenhouse or other building where horticultural or nursery products are grown that is also used for the conduct of retail sales must be classified as agricultural if it is primarily used for the growing of horticultural or nursery products from seed, cuttings, or roots and occasionally as a showroom for the retail sale of those products. Use of a greenhouse or building only for the display of already grown horticultural or nursery products does not qualify as an agricultural purpose.

The assessor shall determine and list separately on the records the market value of the homestead dwelling and the one acre of land on which that dwelling is located. If any farm buildings or structures are located on this homesteaded acre of land, their market value shall not be included in this separate determination.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 273.13, subdivision 24, is amended to read:

Subd. 24. [CLASS 3.] (a) Commercial and industrial property and utility real and personal property, except class 5 property as identified in subdivision 31, clause (1), is class 3a. It has a class rate of 3.3 percent of the first $100,000 of market value for taxes payable in 1990, 3.2 percent for taxes payable in 1991, 3.1 percent for taxes payable in 1992, and three percent for taxes payable in 1993 and thereafter, and 5.06 percent of the market value over $100,000. In the case of state-assessed commercial, industrial, and utility property owned by one person or entity, only one parcel has a reduced class rate on the first $100,000 of market value. In the case of other commercial, industrial, and utility property owned by one person or entity, only one parcel in each county has a reduced class rate on the first $100,000 of market value.

(b) Employment property defined in section 469.166, during the period provided in section 469.170, shall constitute class 3b and has a class rate of ~~2.4~~ 2.3 percent of the first $50,000 of market value and 3.6 percent of the remainder, except that for employment property located in a border city enterprise zone designated pursuant to section 469.168, subdivision 4, paragraph (c), the class rate of the first $100,000 of market value and the class rate of the remainder is determined under paragraph (a), unless the governing body of the city designated as an enterprise zone determines that a specific parcel shall be assessed pursuant to the first clause of this sentence. The governing body may provide for assessment under the first clause of the preceding sentence only for property which is located in an area which has been designated by the governing body for the receipt of tax reductions authorized by section 469.171, subdivision 1.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 273.13, subdivision 25, as amended by Laws 1990, chapter 480, article 7, section 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 25. [CLASS 4.] (a) Class 4a is residential real estate containing four or more units and used or held for use by the owner or by the tenants or lessees of the owner as a residence for rental periods of 30 days or more. Class 4a also includes hospitals licensed under sections 144.50 to 144.56, other than hospitals exempt under section 272.02, and contiguous property used for hospital purposes, without regard to whether the property has been platted or subdivided. Class 4a property has a class rate of 3.6 percent of market value.

(b) Class 4b includes:

(1) residential real estate containing less than four units, other than seasonal residential, and recreational;

(2) ~~post-secondary student housing not to exceed one acre of land which is owned by a nonprofit corporation organized under chapter 317 and is used exclusively by a sorority or fraternity organization for housing;~~

(3) ~~manufactured homes not classified under any other provision;~~

(4) (3) a dwelling, garage, and surrounding one acre of property on a nonhomestead farm classified under subdivision 23, paragraph (b).

Class 4b property has a class rate of 3.0 percent of market value.

(c) Class 4c property includes:

(1) a structure that is situated on real property that is used for housing for the elderly or for low and moderate income families as defined by Title II of the National Housing Act or the Minnesota housing finance agency law of 1971 or rules promulgated by the agency pursuant thereto and financed by a direct federal loan or federally insured loan or a loan made by the Minnesota housing finance agency pursuant to the provisions of either of those acts and acts amendatory thereof. This clause applies only to property of a nonprofit or limited dividend entity. Property is classified as class 4c under this clause for 15 years from the date of the completion of the original construction or substantial rehabilitation, or for the original term of the loan;

(2) a structure that is:

(i) situated upon real property that is used for housing lower income families or elderly or handicapped persons, as defined in section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937, as amended; and

(ii) owned by an entity which has entered into a housing assistance payments contract under section 8 which provides assistance for 100 percent of the dwelling units in the structure, other than dwelling units intended for management or maintenance personnel. Property is classified as class 4c under this clause for the term of the housing assistance payments contract, including all renewals, or for the term of its permanent financing, whichever is shorter; and

(3) a qualified low-income building that (i) receives a low-income housing credit under section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1988; or (ii) meets the requirements of that section. Classification pursuant to this clause is limited to ~~buildings the construction or rehabilitation of which began after May 1, 1988, and to a term of 15 years.~~

For all properties described in clauses (1), (2), and (3) and in paragraph (d), the market value determined by the assessor must be based on the normal approach to value using normal unrestricted rents. The land on which these structures are situated has the class rate given in paragraph (b) if the structure contains fewer than four units, and the class rate given in paragraph (a) if the structure contains four or more units.

(4) a parcel of land, not to exceed one acre, and its improvements or a parcel of unimproved land, not to exceed one acre, if it is owned by a neighborhood real estate trust and at least 60 percent of the dwelling units, if any, on all land owned by the trust are leased to or occupied by lower income families or individuals. This clause does not apply to any portion of the land or improvements used for nonresidential purposes. For purposes of this clause, a lower income family is a family with an income that does not exceed 65 percent of the median family income for the area, and a lower income individual is an individual whose income does not exceed 65 percent of the median individual income for the area, as determined by the United States Secretary of Housing and Urban Development. For purposes of this clause, "neighborhood real estate trust" means an entity which is certified by the governing body of the municipality in which it is located to have the following characteristics: (a) it is a nonprofit corporation organized under chapter 317; (b) it has as its principal purpose providing housing for lower income families in a specific geographic community designated in its articles or bylaws; (c) it limits membership with voting rights to residents of the designated community; and (d) it has a board of directors consisting of at least seven directors, 60 percent of whom are members with voting rights and, to the extent feasible, 25 percent of whom are elected by resident members of buildings owned by the trust; and

(5) except as provided in subdivision 22, paragraph (c), real property devoted to temporary and seasonal residential occupancy for recreation purposes, including real property devoted to temporary and seasonal residential occupancy for recreation purposes and not devoted to commercial purposes for more than 225 days in the year preceding the year of assessment. For this purpose purposes of this clause, property is devoted to a commercial use purpose on a specific day if it any portion of the property is used, or offered available for use for residential occupancy, and a fee is charged for the use residential occupancy. Class 4c also includes commercial use real property used exclusively for recreational purposes in conjunction with class 4c property devoted to temporary and seasonal residential occupancy for recreational purposes, up to a total of two acres, provided the property is not devoted to commercial recreational use for more than 225 days in the year preceding the year of assessment and is located within two miles of the class 4c property with which it is used. Class 4c property classified in this clause and clause (6) also includes the remainder of class 1c resorts; and

(6) real property up to a maximum of one acre of land owned by a nonprofit community service oriented organization; provided that the property is not used for a revenue-producing activity for more than six days in the calendar year preceding the year of assessment and the property is not used for residential purposes on either a temporary or permanent basis. For purposes of this clause, a "nonprofit community service oriented organization" means any corporation, society, association, foundation, or institution organized and operated exclusively for charitable, religious, fraternal, civic, or educational purposes, and which is exempt from federal income taxation pursuant to section 501(c)(3), (10), or (19) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1988. For purposes of this clause, "revenue-producing activities" shall include but not be limited to property or that portion of the property that is used as an on-sale intoxicating liquor or nonintoxicating malt liquor establishment licensed under chapter 340A, a restaurant open to the public, bowling alley, a retail store, gambling conducted by organizations licensed under chapter 349, an insurance business, or office or other space leased or rented to a lessee who conducts a for-profit enterprise on the premises. Any portion of the property which is used for revenue-producing activities for more than six days in the calendar year preceding the year of assessment shall be assessed as class 3a. The use of the property for social events open exclusively to members and their guests for periods of less than 24 hours, when an admission is not charged nor any revenues are received by the organization shall not be considered a revenue-producing activity; and

(7) post-secondary student housing of not more than one acre of land that is owned by a nonprofit corporation organized under chapter 317 and is used exclusively by a student cooperative, sorority, or fraternity for on-campus housing or housing located within two miles of the border of a college campus; and

(8) manufactured home parks as defined in section 327.14, subdivision 3.

Class 4c property has a class rate of 2.4 ~~2.3~~ percent of market value, except that manufactured home park property under clause (8) has a class rate of 3 percent of market value for taxes payable in 1991 and 2.3 percent of market value for taxes payable in 1992, and thereafter.

(d) Class 4d property includes any structure:

(i) situated on real property that is used for housing for the elderly or for low and moderate income families as defined by the farmers home administration;

(ii) located in a municipality of less than 10,000 population; and

(iii) financed by a direct loan or insured loan from the farmers home administration. Property is classified under this clause for 15 years from the date of the completion of the original construction or for the original term of the loan.

The class rates in paragraph (c), clauses (1), (2), and (3) and this clause apply to the properties described in them, only in proportion to occupancy of the structure by elderly or handicapped persons or low and moderate income families as defined in the applicable laws unless construction of the structure had been commenced prior to January 1, 1984; or the project had been approved by the governing body of the municipality in which it is located prior to June 30, 1983; or financing of the project had been approved by a federal or state agency prior to June 30, 1983. Classification under this clause is only available to property of a nonprofit or limited dividend entity.

Class 4d property has a class rate of 1.7 percent of market value for taxes payable in 1990, and two percent of market value for taxes payable thereafter.

(e) Residential rental property that would otherwise be assessed as class 4 property under paragraph (a); paragraph (b), clauses (1) and (2); paragraph (c), clause (1), (2), (3), or (4), is assessed at the class rate applicable to it under Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.13, if it is found to be a substandard building under section 273.1316. Residential rental property that would otherwise be assessed as class 4 property under paragraph (d) is assessed at 2.4 2.3 percent of market value if it is found to be a substandard building under section 273.1316.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 273.1398, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PAYMENT.] The commissioner shall certify the aids provided in subdivisions 2, 2b, 3, and 5 before December 1, 1989, and October 1 thereafter of the year preceding the distribution year to the county auditor of the affected local government and pay them and the credit reimbursements to local governments other than school districts at the times provided in section 477A.015 for payment of local government aid to taxing jurisdictions. The disparity reduction credit provided in subdivision 4 must be paid to taxing jurisdictions other than school districts at the time provided in section 473H.10, subdivision 3. Aids and credit reimbursements to school districts must be certified to the commissioner of education and paid under section 273.1392. Except for education districts and secondary cooperatives that receive revenue according to section 124.2721 or 124.575, payment shall not be made to any taxing jurisdiction that has ceased to levy a property tax nor shall homestead and agricultural credit aid be payable on the part of a levy to which homestead and agricultural credit aid was separately allocated under subdivision 2, paragraph (b), clause (2), which is no longer levied.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 273.371, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REPORT REQUIRED.] Every electric light, power, gas, water, express, stage, and transportation company and pipeline doing business in Minnesota shall annually file with the commissioner on or before March 31 a report under oath setting forth the information prescribed by the commissioner to enable the commissioner to make valuations, recommended valuations, and equalization required under sections 273.33, 273.35, 273.36, and 273.37. If all the required information is not available on March 31, the company or pipeline shall file the information that is available on or before March 31, and the balance of the information as soon as it becomes available.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.42, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The property set forth in section 273.37, subdivision 2, consisting of transmission lines of less than 69 kv and transmission lines of 69 kv and above located in an unorganized township, and distribution lines not taxed as provided in sections 273.38, 273.40 and 273.41 shall be taxed at the average tax capacity rate of taxes levied for all purposes throughout the county after disparity reduction aid is applied, and shall be entered on the tax lists by the county auditor against the owner thereof and certified to the county treasurer at the same time and in the same manner that other taxes are certified, and, when paid, shall be credited as follows: 50 percent to the general revenue fund of the county and 50 percent to the general school fund of the county, except that if there are high voltage transmission lines as defined in section 116C.52, the construction of which was commenced after July 1, 1974 and which are located in unorganized townships within the county, then the distribution of taxes within this subdivision shall be credited as follows: 50 percent to the general revenue fund of the county, 40 percent to the general school fund of the county and ten percent to a utility property tax credit fund, which is hereby established.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 275.065, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PROPOSED LEVY.] Notwithstanding any law or charter to the contrary, on or before September 1, each taxing authority, other than a school district, shall adopt a proposed budget and each taxing authority shall certify to the county auditor the proposed or, in the case of a town, the final property tax levy for taxes payable in the following year. If the board of estimate and taxation or any similar board that establishes maximum tax levies for taxing jurisdictions within a first class city certifies the maximum property tax levies for funds under its jurisdiction by charter to the county auditor by September 1, the city shall be deemed to have certified its levies for those taxing jurisdictions. For purposes of this section, "taxing authority" includes all home rule and statutory cities, towns with a population over 5,000, counties, school districts, and special taxing districts. The commissioner of revenue shall determine what constitutes a special taxing district for purposes of this section. Intermediate school districts that levy a tax under chapter 136D, joint powers boards established under sections 124.491 to 124.496, and common school districts No. 323, Franconia, and No. 815, Prinsburg, are special taxing districts for purposes of this section.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 275.065, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [NOTICE OF PROPOSED PROPERTY TAXES.] (a) The county auditor shall prepare and the county treasurer shall deliver on or before November 10 each year, by first class mail to each taxpayer at the address listed on the county's current year's assessment roll, a notice of proposed property taxes and, in the case of a town, final property taxes.

(b) The commissioner of revenue shall prescribe the form of the notice.

(c) The notice must inform taxpayers that it contains the amount of property taxes each taxing authority other than a town proposes to collect for taxes payable the following year as required in paragraph (d) or (e) and, for a town, the amount of its final levy. It must clearly state that each taxing authority, other than a town or special taxing district, will hold a public meeting to receive public testimony on the proposed budget and proposed or final property tax levy, or, in case of a school district, on the proposed property tax levy. It must clearly state the time and place of each taxing authority's meeting and an address where comments will be received by mail. It must state the time and place for the continuation of the hearing if the hearing is not completed on the original date.

(d) Except as provided in paragraph (e), for taxes levied in 1990 and 1991, the notice must state by county, city or town, and school district:

(1) the total proposed or, for a town, final property tax levy for taxes payable the following year after reduction for state aid;

(2) the percentage increase or decrease from the actual property tax levy for taxes payable in the current year; and

(3) for counties, cities, and towns, the increase or decrease in population from the second previous calendar year to the immediately prior calendar year, as determined by the state demographer, and for school districts, the increase or decrease in the number of pupils in average daily membership from the second previous school year to the immediately prior school year as determined by the commissioner of education. The data used to determine the increase or decrease in population under this clause must be the data used for purposes of the population adjustment to the levy limit base of the county, city, or town under section 275.51, subdivision 6.

For purposes of this paragraph, "proposed property taxes after reduction for state aid" means the taxing authority's levy certified under section 275.07, subdivision 1.

(e) In the case of a county containing a city of the first class, or taxing authority lying wholly within a county or counties containing a city of the first class, for taxes levied in 1991, and thereafter, and for all counties for taxes levied in 1992 and thereafter, the notice must state for each parcel:

(1) the market value of the property as defined under section 272.03, subdivision 8, for property taxes payable in the following year and for taxes payable the current year;

(2) by county, city or town, school district, the sum of the special taxing districts, and as a total of the taxing authorities, including special taxing districts, the proposed or, for a town, final net tax on the property for taxes payable the following year and the actual tax for taxes payable the current year; and

(3) the increase or decrease in the amounts in clause (2) from taxes payable in the current year to proposed or, for a town, final taxes payable the following year, expressed as a dollar amount and as a percentage.

(f) The notice must clearly state that the proposed or final taxes do not include the following:

(1) special assessments;

(2) levies approved by the voters after the date the proposed taxes are certified, including bond referenda, school district levy referenda, and levy limit increase referenda;

(3) amounts necessary to pay cleanup or other costs due to a natural disaster occurring after the date the proposed taxes are certified; and

(4) amounts necessary to pay tort judgments against the taxing authority that become final after the date the proposed taxes are certified.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.065, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5a. [PUBLIC ADVERTISEMENT.] (a) A city, county, or school district shall advertise in a newspaper a notice of its intent to adopt a budget and property tax levy or in the case of a school district, a property tax levy, at a public hearing. The notice must be published not less than two days nor more than six days before the hearing.

The advertisement must be at least one-eighth page in size of a standard-size or a tabloid-size newspaper, and the headlines in the advertisement stating the notice of proposed property taxes and the notice of public hearing must be in a type no smaller than 24-point. The text of the advertisement must be no smaller than 18-point, except that the property tax amounts and percentages may be in 14-point type. The advertisement must not be placed in the part of the newspaper where legal notices and classified advertisements appear. The advertisement must be published in an official newspaper of general circulation in the taxing authority. The newspaper selected must be one of general interest and readership in the community, and not one of limited subject matter. The advertisement must appear in a newspaper that is published at least once per week.

(b) The advertisement must be in the following form, except that the notice for a school district must not include references to budget hearings or to adoption of a budget:

“NOTICE OF

A continuation of the hearing, if necessary, will be held on (Month/Day/Year) at (Time) at (Location, Address).

Written comments may be directed to (Address).”

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 275.065, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PUBLIC HEARING; ADOPTION OF BUDGET AND LEVY.] Between November 15 and December 20, the governing bodies of the city and county shall each hold a public hearing to adopt its final budget and property tax levy for taxes payable in the following year, and the governing body of the school district shall hold a public hearing to adopt its property tax levy for taxes payable in the following year.

At the hearing, the taxing authority, other than a school district, may amend the proposed budget and property tax levy and must adopt a final budget and property tax levy, and the school district may amend the proposed property tax levy and must adopt a final property tax levy.

The adopted property tax levy certified under section 275.07 by a city, county, or school district must not exceed the proposed levy determined under subdivision 1, except by an amount up to the sum of the following amounts:

(1) the amount of a school district levy whose voters approved a referendum to increase taxes under section 124A.03, subdivision 2, or 124.82, subdivision 3, after the proposed levy was certified;

(2) the amount of a city or county levy approved by the voters under section 275.58 after the proposed levy was certified;

(3) the amount of a levy to pay principal and interest on bonds issued or approved by the voters under section 475.58 after the proposed levy was certified;

(4) the amount of a levy to pay costs due to a natural disaster occurring after the proposed levy was certified, if that amount is approved by the commissioner of revenue under subdivision 6a; ~~and~~

(5) the amount of a levy to pay tort judgments against a taxing authority that become final after the proposed levy was certified, if the amount is approved by the commissioner of revenue under subdivision 6a; and

(6) the amount of an increase in levy limits certified to the taxing authority by the commissioner of revenue or the commissioner of education after the proposed levy was certified.

At the hearing the percentage increase in property taxes proposed by the taxing authority, if any, and the specific purposes for which property tax revenues are being increased must be discussed. During the discussion, the governing body shall hear comments regarding a proposed increase and explain the reasons for the proposed increase. The public shall be allowed to speak and to ask questions prior to adoption of any measures by the governing body. The governing body, other than the governing body school districts, shall adopt its final property tax levy prior to adopting its final budget.

The hearing must be held after 5:00 p.m. if scheduled on a day other than Saturday. No hearing may be held on a Sunday. The ~~commissioner of revenue~~ county auditor shall provide for the coordination of hearing dates so that a taxing authority does not schedule public meetings on the days scheduled for the hearing by another taxing authority for all taxing authorities within the county.

By August 1, the county auditor shall notify the clerk of each school district within the county of the dates that the county board has designated for its hearing and any continuation under subdivision 3. By August 15, each school board shall certify to the county auditors of the counties in which the school district is located the dates on which it elects to hold its hearings and any continuations under subdivision 3. If a school board does not certify the dates by August 15, the auditor will assign the hearing date. The dates elected or assigned must not conflict with the county hearing dates. By August 20, the county auditor shall notify the clerks of the cities within the county of the dates on which the county and school districts have elected to hold their hearings. At the time a city certifies its proposed levy under subdivision 1 it shall certify the dates on which it elects to hold its hearings and any continuations under subdivision 3. The city must not select dates that conflict with those elected by or assigned to the counties and school districts in which the city is located.

The hearing dates so elected or assigned must be designated on the notices required under subdivision 3.

This subdivision does not apply to towns and special taxing districts.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 275.07, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The taxes voted by cities, ~~towns~~, counties, school districts, and special districts shall be certified by the proper authorities to the county auditor on or before five working days after December 20 in each year. A town must certify the levy adopted by the town board to the county auditor by September 1 each year. If the town board modifies the levy at a special town meeting after September 1, the town board must recertify its levy to the county auditor on or before five working days after December 20. The taxes certified shall not be adjusted by the aid received under sections 273.1398, subdivisions 2 and 3, and 477A.013, subdivision 5. If a city, town, county, school district, or special district fails to certify its levy by that date, its levy shall be the amount levied by it for the preceding year.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 275.07, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. The county auditor shall adjust each local government's levy certified under subdivision 1, except for the equalization levies defined in section 273.1398, subdivision 2a, paragraph (a), by the amount of homestead and agricultural credit aid certified by section 273.1398, subdivision 2, reduced by the amount under section 273.1398, subdivision 5a, and equalization aid certified by section 477A.013, subdivision 5. If a local government's homestead and agricultural credit aid was further allocated between portions of its levy pursuant to section 273.1398, subdivision 2, paragraph (b)(2), the levy or fund to which the homestead and agricultural credit aid was allocated is the levy or fund which must be adjusted.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.125, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [CERTIFICATION OF LEVY LIMITATIONS.] By August 15, the commissioner shall notify the school districts of their levy limits. The commissioner shall certify to the county auditors the levy limits for all school districts headquartered in the respective counties together with adjustments for errors in levies not penalized pursuant to subdivision 15 as well as adjustments to final pupil unit counts.

A school district ~~shall have the right to~~ may require the commissioner to review the certification and to present evidence in support of modification of the certification.

The county auditor shall reduce levies for any excess of levies over levy limitations pursuant to section 275.16. Such reduction in excess levies may, at the discretion of the school district, be spread over ~~not to exceed~~ two calendar years.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 275.50, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary for taxes levied in ~~1989~~ 1990 payable in ~~1990~~ 1991 and subsequent years, "special levies" means those portions of ad valorem taxes levied by governmental subdivisions to:

(a) for taxes levied in 1990, payable in 1991 and subsequent years, pay the costs not reimbursed by the state or federal government, of payments made to or on behalf of recipients of aid under any public assistance program authorized by law, and the costs of purchase or delivery of social services. The aggregate amounts levied under this clause for the costs of purchase or delivery of social services and income maintenance programs, other than those identified in section 273.1398, subdivision 1, paragraph (i), are subject to a maximum increase over the amount levied for the previous year of 12 percent for counties within the metropolitan area as defined in section 473.121, subdivision 2, or counties outside the metropolitan area but containing a city of the first class, and 15 percent for other counties. For purposes of this clause, "income maintenance programs" include income maintenance programs in section 273.1398, subdivision 1, paragraph (i), to the extent the county provides benefits under those programs over the statutory mandated standards. Effective with taxes levied in 1990, the portion of this special levy for human service programs identified in section 273.1398, subdivision 1, paragraph (i), is eliminated;

(b) pay the costs of principal and interest on bonded indebtedness except on bonded indebtedness issued under section 471.981, subdivisions 4 to 4c, or to reimburse for the amount of liquor store revenues used to pay the principal and interest due in the year preceding the year for which the levy limit is calculated on municipal liquor store bonds;

(c) pay the costs of principal and interest on certificates of indebtedness, except tax anticipation or aid anticipation certificates of indebtedness, issued for any corporate purpose except current expenses or funding an insufficiency in receipts from taxes or other sources or funding extraordinary expenditures resulting from a public emergency; and to pay the cost for certificates of indebtedness issued pursuant to sections 298.28 and 298.282;

(d) fund the payments made to the Minnesota state armory building commission pursuant to section 193.145, subdivision 2, to retire the principal and interest on armory construction bonds;

(e) provide for the bonded indebtedness portion of payments made to another political subdivision of the state of Minnesota;

(f) pay the amounts required, in accordance with section 275.075, to correct for a county auditor's error of omission but only to the extent that when added to the preceding year's levy it is not in excess of an applicable statutory, special law or charter limitation, or the limitation imposed on the governmental subdivision by sections 275.50 to 275.56 in the preceding levy year;

(g) pay amounts required to correct for an error of omission in the levy certified to the appropriate county auditor or auditors by the governing body of a city or town with statutory city powers in a levy year, but only to the extent that when added to the preceding year's levy it is not in excess of an applicable statutory, special law or charter limitation, or the limitation imposed on the governmental subdivision by sections 275.50 to 275.56 in the preceding levy year;

(h) pay amounts required by law to be paid to pay the interest on and to reduce the unfunded accrued liability of public pension funds in accordance with the actuarial standards and guidelines specified in sections 356.215 and 356.216 reduced by 106 percent of the amount levied for that purpose in 1976, payable in 1977. For the purpose of this special levy, the estimated receipts expected from the state of Minnesota pursuant to sections 69.011 to 69.031 or any other state aid expressly intended for the support of public pension funds shall be considered as a deduction in determining the required levy for the normal costs of the public pension funds. No amount of these aids shall be considered as a deduction in determining the governmental subdivision's required levy for the reduction of the unfunded accrued liability of public pension funds;

(i) to compensate the state for the cost of a reassessment ordered by the commissioner of revenue pursuant to section 270.16;

(j) pay the debt service on tax increment financing revenue bonds to the extent that revenue to pay the bonds or to maintain reserves for the bonds is insufficient as a result of the provisions of Laws 1988, chapter 719, article 5;

(k) pay the cost of hospital care under section 261.21;

(l) pay the unreimbursed costs incurred in the previous year to satisfy judgments rendered against the governmental subdivision by a court of competent jurisdiction in any tort action, or to pay the costs of settlements out of court against the governmental subdivision in a tort action when substantiated by a stipulation for the dismissal of the action filed with the court of competent jurisdiction and signed by both the plaintiff and the legal representative of the governmental subdivision, provided that an appeal for the unreimbursed costs under this clause was approved by the commissioner of revenue under section 275.51, subdivision 3;

(m) pay the expenses reasonably and necessarily incurred in preparing for or repairing the effects of natural disaster including the occurrence or threat of widespread or severe damage, injury, or loss of life or property resulting from natural causes such as earthquake, fire, flood, wind storm, wave action, oil spill, water contamination, air contamination, or drought in accordance with standards formulated by the emergency services division of the state department of public safety, provided that an appeal for the expenses incurred under this clause were approved by the commissioner of revenue under section 275.51, subdivision 3;

(n) pay a portion of the losses in tax receipts to a city due to tax abatements or court actions in the year preceding the current levy year, provided that an appeal for the tax losses was approved by the commissioner of revenue under section 275.51, subdivision 3. This special levy is limited to the amount of the losses times the ratio of the nonspecial levies to total levies for taxes payable in the year the abatements were granted. County governments are not authorized to claim this special levy;

(o) pay the operating cost of regional library services authorized under section 134.34, subject to a maximum increase over the previous year of the greater of (1) 103 percent multiplied by one plus the percentage increase determined for the governmental subdivision under section 275.51, subdivision 3h, clause (b), or (2) six percent. If a governmental subdivision elected to include some or all of its levy for libraries within its adjusted levy limit base in the prior year, but elects to claim the levy as a special levy in the current levy year, the allowable increase is determined by applying the greater percentage determined under clause (1) or (2) to the total amount levied for libraries in the prior levy year. After levy year 1989, the increase must not be determined using a base amount other than the amount that could have been levied as a special levy in the prior year. This limit may be redistributed according to the provisions of section 134.342. In no event shall the special levy be less than the minimum levy required under sections 134.33 and 134.34, subdivisions 1 and 2;

(p) pay the amount of the county building fund levy permitted under section 373.40, subdivision 6;

(q) pay the county's share of the costs levied in 1989, 1990, and 1991 for the Minnesota cooperative soil survey under Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 40.07, subdivision 15;

(r) for taxes levied in 1989, payable in 1990 only, pay the cost incurred for the minimum share required by counties levying for the first time under section 134.34 as required under section 134.341. For taxes levied in 1990, and thereafter, counties levying under this provision must levy under clause (o), and their allowable increase must be determined with reference to the amount levied in 1989 under this paragraph;

(s) for taxes levied in 1989, payable in 1990 only, provide an amount equal to 50 percent of the estimated amount of the reduction in aids to a county under sections 273.1398, subdivision 2, paragraph (d), and 477A.012, subdivision 3, for aids payable in 1990;

(t) for taxes levied in 1990 only by a county in the eighth judicial district, provide an amount equal to the amount of the levy, if any, that is required under Laws 1989, chapter 335, article 3, section 54, subdivision 8;

(u) for taxes levied in 1989, payable in 1990 only, pay the costs not reimbursed by the state or federal government:

(i) for the costs of purchase or delivery of social services. The aggregate amounts levied under this item are subject to a maximum increase over the amount levied in the previous year of 12 percent for counties within the metropolitan area as defined in section 473.121, subdivision 2, or counties outside the metropolitan area but containing a city of the first class, and 15 percent for other counties.

(ii) for payments made to or on behalf of recipients of aid under any public assistance program authorized by law. The aggregate amounts levied under this item are subject to a maximum increase over the amount levied in the previous year of 12 percent and must be used only for the public assistance programs; and.

If the amount levied under this paragraph (u) in 1989 is less than the actual expenditures needed for these programs for 1990, the difference between the actual expenditures and the amount levied may be levied in 1990 as a special levy. If the amount levied in 1989 is greater than the actual expenditures needed for these programs for 1990, the difference between the amount levied and the actual expenditures shall be deducted from the 1990 levy limit, payable in 1991.

(v) pay an amount of up to 25 percent of the money sought for distribution and approved under section 115A.557, subdivision 3, paragraph (b), clause (3);

(w) pay the unreimbursed costs of per diem jail or correctional facilities services paid by the county in the previous 12-month period ending on July 1 of the current year provided that the county is operating under a department of corrections directive that limits the capacity of a county jail as authorized in section 641.01 or 641.262, or a correctional facility as defined in section 241.021, subdivision 1, paragraph (5);

(x) for taxes levied in 1990 and 1991, payable in 1991 and 1992 only, pay the operating or maintenance costs of a county jail as authorized in section 641.01 or 641.262, or of a correctional facility as defined in section 241.021, subdivision 1, paragraph (5), to the extent that the county can demonstrate to the commissioner of revenue that the amount has been included in the county budget as a direct result of a rule, minimum requirement, minimum standard, or directive of the department of corrections. If the county utilizes this special levy, any amount levied by the county in the previous levy year for the purposes specified under this clause and included in the county's previous year's levy limitation computed under section 275.51, shall be deducted from the levy limit base under section 275.51, subdivision 3f, when determining the county's current year levy limitation. The county shall provide the necessary information to the commissioner of revenue for making this determination;

(y) for taxes levied in 1990, payable in 1991 only, pay an amount equal to the unreimbursed county costs paid in 1989 and 1990 for the purpose of grasshopper control; and, for taxes levied in 1991 payable in 1992 only, pay an amount equal to the unreimbursed county costs paid in 1991 for the purpose of grasshopper control;

(z) for a county, provide an amount needed to fund comprehensive local water implementation activities under sections 103B.3361 to 103B.3369 as provided in this clause.

A county may levy an amount not to exceed the water implementation local tax rate times the adjusted net tax capacity of the county for the preceding year. The water implementation local tax rate shall be set by August 1 each year by the commissioner of revenue for taxes payable in the following year. As used in this paragraph, the "adjusted net tax capacity of the county" means the net tax capacity of the county as equalized by the commissioner of revenue based upon the results of an assessment/sales ratio study. That rate shall be the rate, rounded up to the nearest one-thousandth of a percent, that, when applied to the adjusted net tax capacity for all counties, raises the amount specified in this clause. The water implementation local tax rate for taxes levied in 1990 shall be the rate that raises $1,500,000 and the rate for taxes levied in 1991 shall be the rate that raises $1,500,000. A county must levy a tax at the rate established under this clause to qualify for a grant from the board of water and soil resources under section 103B.3369, subdivision 5;

(aa) pay the unreimbursed county costs for court-ordered family-based services and court-ordered out-of-home placement for children to the extent that the county can demonstrate to the commissioner of revenue that the estimated amount included in the county's budget for the following levy year is for the purposes specified under this clause. For purposes of this special levy, costs for "family-based services" and "out-of-home placement" means costs resulting from court-ordered targeted family services designed to avoid out-of-home placement and from court-ordered out-of-home placement under the provisions of sections 260.172 and 260.191, which are unreimbursed by the state or federal government, insurance proceeds, or parental or child obligations. Any amount levied under this clause must only be used by the county for the purposes specified in this clause.

If the county uses this special levy and the county levied an amount in the previous levy year, for the purposes specified under this clause, under another special levy or under the levy limitation in section 275.51, the following adjustments must be made:

(i) The amount levied in the previous levy year for the purposes specified under this clause under the levy limitation in section 275.51 must be deducted from the levy limit base under section 275.51, subdivision 3f when determining the current year levy limitation.

(ii) The amount levied in the previous levy year, for the purposes specified under clause (a) or clause (u) must be deducted from the previous year's amount used to calculate the maximum amount allowable under clause (a) in the current levy year; and

(bb) pay the amounts allowed as special levies under Laws 1989, First Special Session chapter 1, article 5, section 50, and this act.

If the amount levied in 1989 is less than the actual expenditures needed for these programs for 1990, the difference between the actual expenditures and the amount levied may be levied in 1990 as a special levy. If the amount levied in 1989 is greater than the actual expenditures needed for these programs for 1990, the difference between the amount levied and the actual expenditures shall be deducted from the 1990 levy limit, payable in 1991.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 275.51, subdivision 3h, is amended to read:

Subd. 3h. [ADJUSTED LEVY LIMIT BASE.] For taxes levied in 1989 and thereafter, the adjusted levy limit base is equal to the levy limit base computed pursuant to subdivision 3f, increased by:

(a) three percent for taxes levied in 1989 and subsequent years;

(b) a percentage equal to (1) one-half of the greater of the percentage increases in population or in number of households, if any, for cities and towns and (2) the lesser of the percentage increase in population or the number of households, if any, for counties, using figures derived pursuant to subdivision 6;

(c) the amount of a permanent increase in the levy limit base approved at a general or special election held during the 12-month period ending September 30 of the levy year under section 275.58, subdivisions 1 and 2;

(d) for levy year 1989, for a county which incurred costs since October 1978, for the litigation of federal land claims under United States Code, title 18, section 1162; United States Code, title 25, section 331; and United States Code, title 28, section 1360; an amount of up to the actual costs incurred by the county for this purpose. This adjustment shall not exceed $250,000;

(e) for levy year 1989, an amount of $1,724,000 for Ramsey county for implementing the local government pay equity act under sections 471.991 to 471.999. Furthermore, in levy years 1990 and 1991, an additional amount of $862,000 shall be added to Ramsey county's adjusted levy limit base under this clause for each of the two years; and

(f) for levy year 1989, an amount equal to the decrease in a county's 50 percent share of the powerline taxes extended between taxes payable years 1988 and 1989 under section 273.42, subdivision 1. The adjustment shall be determined by the department of revenue.

For taxes levied in 1989, the adjusted levy limit base is reduced by an amount equal to the estimated amount of the reduction in aids to a county under sections 273.1398, subdivision 2, paragraph (d), and 477A.012, subdivision 3, for aids payable in 1990.

For taxes levied in 1990, the adjusted levy limit base of a city is reduced by an amount equal to the percent of the city's revenue base used in determining aid reductions under section 477A.013, subdivision 7. For taxes levied in 1990, the adjusted levy limit base of a county is reduced by one-half of the amount equal to the percent of the county's revenue base used in determining aid reductions under section 477A.012, subdivision 5.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 275.51, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. If the levy made by a governmental subdivision exceeds the limitation provided in sections 275.50 to 275.56, except when such excess levy is due to the rounding of the tax capacity rates of the governmental subdivision in accordance with section 275.28, subsequent distributions required to be made by the commissioner of finance from any formula aids pursuant to sections 477A.011 to 477A.014, or homestead and agricultural credit aid under section 273.1398, or taconite aids under sections 298.28 and 298.282 shall be reduced 33 cents for each full dollar the levy exceeds the limitation. If a penalty under this subdivision or section 275.55, subdivision 1, is assessed against taconite aids, then the amount of the penalty must be distributed as provided in section 298.28, subdivision 11, paragraph (a).

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.55, is amended to read:

275.55 [STATE REVIEW AND REGULATION OF LEVIES.]

Subdivision 1. [REVIEW; PENALTIES FOR VIOLATIONS.] The commissioner of revenue, or designees, shall establish procedures by which levies of all governmental units shall be periodically reviewed. The commissioner shall be empowered to order withholding of state aids where such penalties are authorized by law, to issue, in accordance with chapter 14, rulings interpreting sections 275.50 to 275.56, and to take such other administrative actions as the commissioner deems necessary in order to carry out the provisions of sections 275.50 to 275.56. If the commissioner of revenue takes administrative action or any other action authorized by this section to enforce the provisions of sections 275.50 to 275.56, the commissioner shall give written notice of such action to the governmental subdivision affected. Such notice shall specify the actual or impending violations by the governmental subdivision of sections 275.50 to 275.56 or the rules of the department of revenue pertaining thereto, describe the corrective action required, including, in the case of an excess levy, reduction of the governmental subdivision's levy in the next succeeding levy year in an amount equal to the amount of the excess levy, set a reasonable period of time within which the governmental subdivision shall correct the specified actual or impending violations and caution the governmental subdivision that if the specified correction is not made within the time allowed, the state aids to the governmental subdivision pursuant to sections 477A.011 to 477A.014, or homestead and agricultural credit aid pursuant to section 273.1398, or taconite aids pursuant to sections 298.28 and 298.282, as amended, will be reduced as provided in section 275.51, subdivision 4. The time period first allowed for correction may be extended by the commissioner if there is a reasonable basis for delay. County auditors, in addition to duties otherwise provided by law, shall cooperate with the commissioner in establishing such procedures and enforcing the provisions of sections 275.50 to 275.56.

Subd. 2. [EXCESS LEVIES FOR 1992.] Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 1, for a home rule charter city, statutory city, or town that exceeds its payable 1992 levy limitation determined under section 275.51, a penalty shall be imposed consisting of a reduction in state aids payable to the city or town in 1992. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 1, for a county that exceeds its payable 1992 levy limitation determined under section 275.51, a penalty shall be imposed consisting of a reduction in state aids payable to the county in 1992. The amount of the penalty imposed on the county, city, or town and the state aids affected shall be as determined under section 275.51, subdivision 4.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 276.04, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CONTENTS OF TAX STATEMENTS.] (a) The treasurer shall provide for the printing of the tax statements. The commissioner of revenue shall prescribe the form of the property tax statement and its contents. The statement must contain a tabulated statement of the dollar amount due to each taxing authority from the parcel of real property for which a particular tax statement is prepared. The dollar amounts due the county, township or municipality and school district must be separately stated. The amounts due other taxing districts, if any, may be aggregated. The dollar amounts, including the dollar amount of any special assessments, may be rounded to the nearest even whole dollar. For purposes of this section whole odd-numbered dollars may be adjusted to the next higher even-numbered dollar. The statement shall include the following sentence, printed in upper case letters in boldface print: "THE STATE OF MINNESOTA DOES NOT RECEIVE ANY PROPERTY TAX REVENUES. THE STATE OF MINNESOTA REDUCES YOUR PROPERTY TAX BY PAYING CREDITS AND REIMBURSEMENTS TO LOCAL UNITS OF GOVERNMENT."

(b) The property tax statements for manufactured homes and sectional structures taxed as personal property shall contain the same information that is required on the tax statements for real property.

(c) Real and personal property tax statements must contain the following information in the order given in this paragraph. The information must contain the current year tax information in the right column with the corresponding information for the previous year in a column on the left:

(1) the property's estimated market value as defined in section 272.03, subdivision 8;

(2) the property's gross tax, calculated by multiplying the property's gross tax capacity times the total tax capacity rate and adding to the result the sum of the aids enumerated in clause (3);

(3) a total of the following aids:

(i) education aids payable under chapters 124 and 124A;

(ii) local government aids for cities, towns, and counties under chapter 477A; and

(iii) disparity reduction aid under section 273.1398;

(4) for homestead residential and agricultural properties, the homestead and agricultural credit aid apportioned to the property. This amount is obtained by multiplying the total tax capacity rate by the difference between the property's gross and net tax capacities under section 273.13. This amount must be separately stated and identified as "homestead and agricultural credit." For purposes of comparison with the previous year's amount for the statement for taxes payable in 1990, the statement must show the homestead credit for taxes payable in 1989 under section 273.13, and the agricultural credit under section 273.132 for taxes payable in 1989;

(5) any credits received under sections 273.119; 273.123; 273.135; 273.1391; 273.1398, subdivision 4; 469.171; and 473H.10; and

(6) the net tax payable in the manner required in paragraph (a).

The commissioner of revenue shall certify to the county auditor the actual or estimated aids enumerated in clauses (3) and (4) that local governments will receive in the following year. In the case of a county containing a city of the first class, or a county that has adopted the provisions of Laws 1989, First Special Session chapter 1, article 9, section 81, for taxes levied in 1991, and for all counties for taxes levied in 1992 and thereafter, the commissioner must certify this amount by September 1.

(d) For taxes payable in 1990, the commissioner shall prescribe language notifying taxpayers that state aid dollars were transferred from the city or town to the school district. The language must notify taxpayers that the transfer results in an increase in city or town taxes and a decrease in school taxes that is unrelated to spending decisions of the city or town and school district. The commissioner may prescribe that the amount of the transfer be stated. The commissioner may provide that the statement required under this clause be included as a separate enclosure.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 278.05, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SALES RATIO STUDIES AS EVIDENCE.] The sales ratio studies published by the department of revenue, or any part of the studies, or any copy of the studies or records accumulated to prepare the studies which is prepared by the commissioner of revenue for use in determining education aids shall be admissible in evidence as a public record without the laying of a foundation if the sales prices used in the study are adjusted for the terms of the sale to reflect market value and are adjusted to reflect the difference in the date of sale compared to the assessment date. The department of revenue sales ratio study shall be prima facie evidence of the level of assessment. Additional evidence relevant to the sales ratio study is also admissible. No sales ratio study received into evidence shall be conclusive or binding on the court and evidence of its reliability or unreliability may be introduced by any party including, but not limited to, evidence of inadequate adjustment of sale prices for terms of financing, inadequate adjustment of sales prices to reflect the difference in the date of sale compared to the assessment date, and inadequate sample size.

No reduction in value on the grounds of discrimination shall be granted on the basis of a sales ratio study unless

(a) the sales prices are adjusted for the terms of the sale to reflect market value,

(b) the sales prices are adjusted to reflect the difference in the date of sale compared to the assessment date,

(c) there is an adequate sample size, and

(d) the median ratio of the same classification of property in the same county, city, or town as the subject property is lower than 90 percent, except that in the case of a county containing a city of the first class, the median ratio for the county shall be the ratio determined excluding sales from the first class city within the county.

If a reduction in value on the grounds of discrimination is granted based on the above criteria, the reduction shall equal the difference between 90 percent (1) the ratio for the petitioner's property less five percentage points and (2) the median ratio determined by the court. In order to receive relief on the basis of discrimination, the petitioner must establish the ratio of the assessor's estimated market value to the actual fair market value for the property.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 281.17, is amended to read:

281.17 [PERIOD FOR REDEMPTION.]

The period of redemption for all lands sold to the state at a tax judgment sale shall be three years from the date of sale to the state of Minnesota if the land is within an incorporated area unless it is: (a) nonagricultural homesteaded land as defined in section 273.13, subdivision 22, (b) homesteaded agricultural land as defined in section 273.13, subdivision 23, paragraph (a), or (c) seasonal recreational land as defined in section 273.13, subdivision 25, paragraph (d)(1) or (c)(4), in which event the period of redemption is five years from the date of sale to the state of Minnesota.

The period of redemption for homesteaded lands as defined in section 273.13, subdivision 22, located in a targeted neighborhood as defined in Laws 1987, chapter 386, article 6, section 4, and sold to the state at a tax judgment sale is ~~two~~ three years from the date of sale. The period of redemption for ~~other~~ all lands located in a targeted neighborhood as defined in Laws 1987, chapter 386, article 6, section 4, except homesteaded lands as defined in section 273.13, subdivision 22, and sold to the state at a tax judgment sale is one year from the date of sale.

The period of redemption for all other lands sold to the state at a tax judgment sale shall be five years from the date of sale.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 282.01, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CLASSIFICATION; USE; EXCHANGE.] It is the general policy of this state to encourage the best use of tax-forfeited lands, recognizing that some lands in public ownership should be retained and managed for public benefits while other lands should be returned to private ownership. All Parcels of land becoming the property of the state in trust under the provisions of any law now existing or hereafter enacted declaring the forfeiture of lands to the state for taxes, shall be classified by the county board of the county wherein such in which the parcels lie as conservation or nonconservation. Such In making the classification shall be made with consideration, among other things, to the board shall consider the present use of adjacent lands, the productivity of the soil, the character of forest or other growth, accessibility of lands to established roads, schools, and other public services, their peculiar suitability or desirability for particular uses and the suitability of the forest resources on the land for multiple use, sustained yield management. Such The classification, furthermore, shall aid: to must encourage and foster a mode of land utilization that will facilitate the economical and adequate provision of transportation, roads, water supply, drainage, sanitation, education, and recreation; to facilitate reduction of governmental expenditures; to conserve and develop the natural resources; and to foster and develop agriculture and other industries in the districts and places best suited thereto to them.

In making such the classification the county board may make use of such data and information as may be made available by any office or department of the federal, state, or local governments, or by any other person or agency possessing pertinent information pertinent thereto at the time such the classification is made. Such The lands may be reclassified from time to time as the county board may deem consider necessary or desirable, except as to for conservation lands held by the state free from any trust in favor of any taxing district.

If any such the lands are located within the boundaries of any an organized town, with taxable valuation in excess of $20,000, or incorporated municipality, the classification or reclassification and sale shall must first be approved by the town board of such the town or the governing body of such the municipality insofar as in which the lands are located therein are concerned. The town board of the town or the governing body of the municipality will be deemed is considered to have approved the classification or reclassification and sale if the county board is not notified of the disapproval of the classification or reclassification and sale within 90 days of the date the request for approval was transmitted to the town board of the town or governing body of the municipality. If the town board or governing body desires to acquire any parcel lying in the town or municipality by procedures authorized in this subdivision, it shall, within 90 days of the request for classification or reclassification and sale, must file a written application with the county board to withhold the parcel from public sale. The application must be filed within 90 days of the request for classification or reclassification and sale. The county board shall then withhold the parcel from public sale for one year.

Subd. 1a. [CONVEYANCE; GENERALLY.] Any Tax-forfeited lands may be sold by the county board to any an organized or incorporated governmental subdivision of the state for any public purpose for which such the subdivision is authorized to acquire property or may be released from the trust in favor of the taxing districts upon application of any a state agency for any an authorized use at not less than their value as determined by the county board. The commissioner of revenue may convey by deed in the name of the state any a tract of tax-forfeited land held in trust in favor of the taxing districts, to any a governmental subdivision for any an authorized public use, provided that if an application is submitted to the commissioner with which includes a statement of facts as to the use to be made of the tract and the need therefor and the recommendation of the county board.

Subd. 1b. [CONVEYANCE; TARGETED NEIGHBORHOOD LANDS.] (a) Notwithstanding subdivision 1a, in the case of tax-forfeited lands located in a targeted neighborhood, as defined in section 469.201, subdivision 10, outside the metropolitan area, as defined in section 473.121, subdivision 2; the commissioner of revenue shall may convey by deed in the name of the state any tract of tax-forfeited land held in trust in favor of the taxing districts, to a political subdivision that submits an application to the commissioner of revenue and the recommendation of the county board.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision 1a, in the case of tax-forfeited lands located in a targeted neighborhood, as defined in section 469.201, subdivision 10, in a county in the metropolitan area, as defined in section 473.121, subdivision 2, the commissioner of revenue shall convey by deed in the name of the state any tract of tax-forfeited land held in trust in favor of the taxing districts, to a political subdivision that submits an application to the commissioner of revenue and the county board.

(c) The application under paragraph (a) or (b) must include a statement of facts as to the use to be made of the tract, the need therefor, and a resolution, adopted by the governing body of the political subdivision, finding that the conveyance of a tract of tax-forfeited land to the political subdivision is necessary to provide for the redevelopment of land as productive taxable property.

Subd. 1c. [DEED OF CONVEYANCE.] The deed of conveyance shall must be upon on a form approved by the attorney general and shall must be conditioned upon on continued use for the purpose stated in the application; provided, however, that. If, however, the governing body of such the governmental subdivision by resolution determines that some other public use shall should be made of such the lands, and such the change of use is approved by the county board and an application for such change of use is made to, and approved by, the commissioner, such the changed use may be made of such lands without the necessity of the governing body conveying the lands back to the state and securing a new conveyance from the state to the governmental subdivision for such the new public use.

Subd. 1d. [FAILURE TO USE; CONVEYANCE TO STATE.]

~~Whenever any~~ ~~When~~ a governmental subdivision to which ~~any~~ tax-forfeited land has been conveyed for a specified public use as provided in this section ~~shall fail~~ ~~fails~~ to put ~~such~~ the land to ~~such~~ that use, or to some other authorized public use as provided ~~herein~~ ~~in~~ this section, or ~~shall abandon~~ ~~such~~ ~~abandons~~ that use, the governing body of the subdivision shall authorize the proper officers to convey the ~~same~~ land, or ~~such portion thereof~~ ~~the part of the land~~ not required for an authorized public use, to the state of Minnesota; ~~and such~~. The officers shall execute a deed of ~~such~~ conveyance ~~forthwith, which immediately~~. The conveyance ~~shall be~~ is subject to the approval of the commissioner and ~~in its form~~ ~~must be~~ approved by the attorney general; ~~provided, however, that~~. A sale, lease, transfer, or other conveyance of ~~such tax-forfeited~~ lands by a housing and redevelopment authority, a port authority, an economic development authority, or a city as authorized by chapter 469 ~~shall not be~~ ~~is not an abandonment of such~~ use and ~~such~~ the lands shall not be ~~reconveyed~~ to the state nor shall they revert to the state. A certificate made by a housing and redevelopment authority, a port authority, an economic development authority, or a city referring to a conveyance by it and stating that the conveyance has been made as authorized by chapter 469 may be filed with the county recorder or registrar of titles, and the rights of reverter in favor of the state provided by this subdivision ~~le~~ will then terminate. No vote of the people ~~shall be~~ ~~is~~ required for ~~such~~ ~~the~~ conveyance.

Subd. 1e. [REVERSION.] ~~In case any such~~ If the tax-forfeited land ~~shall~~ is not be so conveyed to the state ~~in accordance with subdivision 1d~~, the commissioner of revenue shall ~~by written instrument, in form approved by the attorney general, declare the same land to have reverted to the state, and shall serve a notice thereof of reversion, with a copy of the declaration, by certified mail upon the clerk or recorder of the governmental subdivision concerned, provided, that~~. No declaration of reversion shall be made earlier than five years from the date of conveyance for failure to put ~~such~~ land to ~~such~~ the use specified or from the date of abandonment of ~~such~~ that use if ~~such~~ the lands have been put to ~~such~~ that use. The commissioner shall file the original declaration in the commissioner's office, with verified proof of service as ~~herein~~ required. The governmental subdivision may appeal to the district court of the county in which the land lies by filing with the court administrator a notice of appeal, specifying the grounds of appeal and the description of the land involved, mailing a copy ~~thereof of the notice of appeal~~ by certified mail to the commissioner of revenue, and filing a copy ~~thereof~~ for record with the county recorder or registrar of titles, all within 30 days after the mailing of the notice of reversion. The appeal shall be tried by the court in like manner as a civil action. If no appeal is taken as ~~herein~~ provided ~~in this subdivision~~, the declaration of reversion ~~shall be~~ ~~is~~ final. The commissioner of revenue shall file for record with the county recorder or registrar of titles, of the county within which the land lies, a certified copy of the declaration of reversion and proof of service.

Subd. 1f. [EXCHANGE.] Any A city of the first class now or hereafter having with a population of 450,000, or over, or its board of park commissioners, which has acquired tax-forfeited land for a specified public use pursuant to the terms of under this section, may convey said the land in exchange for other land of substantially equal worth located in said the city of the first class, provided that. The land conveyed to said the city of the first class now or hereafter having a population of 450,000, or over, or its board of park commissioners, in exchange shall be is subject to the public use and reversionary provisions of this section. The tax-forfeited land so conveyed shall is thereafter be free and discharged from the public use and reversionary provisions of this section, provided that said. The exchange shall in no way affect the mineral or mineral rights of the state of Minnesota, if any, in the lands so exchanged.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 375.192, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Notwithstanding section 270.07, Upon written application by the owner of the property, if the application seeks a reduction in estimated market value not in excess of $10,000, the county board may grant the reduction or abatement of estimated market valuation or taxes and of any costs, penalties, or interest on them as the board deems just and equitable and order the refund in whole or part of any taxes, costs, penalties, or interest which have been erroneously or unjustly paid. The application must include the social security number of the applicant. The social security number is private data on individuals as defined by section 13.02, subdivision 12. The application must be approved by the county assessor, or, if the property is located in a city of the first or second class having a city assessor, by the city assessor, and by the county auditor before consideration by the county board. The methods of obtaining a reduction or abatement of ad valorem values contained in subdivisions 1 and 2 are in addition to the method provided in section 270.07. No reduction, abatement, or refund of any special assessments made or levied by any municipality for local improvements shall be made unless it is also approved by the board of review or similar taxing authority of the municipality. Before taking action on any reduction or abatement where the reduction of taxes, costs, penalties, and interest exceed $10,000, the county board shall give 20 days' notice to the school board and the municipality in which the property is located. The notice must describe the property involved, the actual amount of the reduction being sought, and the reason for the reduction. If the school board or the municipality object to the granting of the reduction or abatement, the county board must refer the abatement or reduction to the commissioner of revenue with its recommendation. The commissioner shall consider the abatement or reduction under section 270.07, subdivision 1.

An appeal may not be taken to the tax court from any order of the county board made in the exercise of the discretionary authority granted in this section.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 462.396, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. On or before August 20 each year, the commission shall submit its proposed budget for the ensuing calendar year showing anticipated receipts, disbursements and ad valorem tax levy with a written notice of the time and place of the public hearing on the proposed budget to each county auditor and municipal clerk within the region and those town clerks who in advance have requested a copy of the budget and notice of public hearing. On or before October 1 each year, the commission shall adopt, after a public hearing held not later than September 20, a budget covering its anticipated receipts and disbursements for the ensuing year and shall decide upon the total amount necessary to be raised from ad valorem tax levies to meet its budget. After adoption of the budget and no later than October 1, the secretary of the commission shall certify to the auditor of each county within the region the county share of the tax, which shall be an amount bearing the same proportion to the total levy agreed on by the commission as the net tax capacity of the county bears to the net tax capacity of the region. For taxes levied in 1990 and thereafter, the maximum amount amounts of any levy levied made for the purposes of sections 462.381 to 462.398 shall not exceed 0.00403 percent of market value on all taxable property in the region: are the following amounts, less the sum of regional planning grants from the state planning agency to that region: for Region 1, $180,337; for Region 2, $150,000; for Region 3, $353,110; for Region 5, $195,865; for Region 6E, $197,177; for Region 6W, $150,000; for Region 7E, $158,653; for Region 8, $206,107; for Region 9, $343,572. The auditor of each county in the region shall add the amount of any levy made by the commission within the limits imposed by this subdivision to other tax levies of the county for collection by the county treasurer with other taxes. When collected the county treasurer shall make settlement of the taxes with the commission in the same manner as other taxes are distributed to political subdivisions.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.059, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [PROCEDURE.] Tax-forfeited lands in an industrial development district that are vested in the state shall be conveyed to the port authority that is developing the district for one dollar per tract. The port authority may use and later resell the land for purposes of sections 469.048 to 469.068.

In conveying tax-forfeited land to a port authority, the state may not retain a possibility of reverter or right of reentry as it does under section 282.01, subdivision 4 1e.

The commissioner of revenue shall convey tax-forfeited parcels in an industrial development district to the port authority, if the authority petitions for conveyance under sections 469.048 to 469.068 and pays one dollar per tract.

The attorney general shall approve the form of the deed of conveyance. The port authority shall receive absolute title to the tract, subject only to a reservation of minerals and mineral rights, under section 282.12. The deed of conveyance must not contain a restriction on the use of the premises. The conveyance divests the state of all further right, title, claim or interest in the tracts, except for the reservation of minerals and mineral rights.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 469.171, subdivision 7a, is amended to read:

Subd. 7a. [PROPERTY TAX CREDIT; APPROPRIATION.] There is annually appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of revenue the amounts required to reimburse taxing jurisdictions for the revenue lost due to the property tax credit provided in subdivision 1, clause (4). Payment shall be made to taxing jurisdictions in the same proportion that the ad valorem tax is distributed. Payment shall be made to taxing jurisdictions, other than school districts, at the ~~times~~ time provided in section ~~477A.015~~ 473H.10, subdivision 3.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 473H.10, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMPUTATION OF TAX; STATE REIMBURSEMENT.]

(a) After having determined the market value of all land valued according to subdivision 2, the assessor shall compute the gross tax capacity of those properties by applying the appropriate classification percentages. When computing the rate of tax pursuant to section 275.08, the county auditor shall include the gross tax capacity of land as provided in this clause.

(b) The county auditor shall compute the tax on lands valued according to subdivision 2 and nonresidential buildings by multiplying the gross tax capacity times the total rate of tax for all purposes as provided in clause (a).

(c) The county auditor shall then compute the maximum ad valorem property tax on lands valued according to subdivision 2 and nonresidential buildings by multiplying the gross tax capacity times 105 percent of the previous year's statewide average tax capacity rate levied on property located within townships for all purposes.

(d) The tax due and payable by the owner of preserve land valued according to subdivision 2 and nonresidential buildings will be the amount determined in clause (b) or (c), whichever is less. If the gross tax in clause (c) is less than the gross tax in clause (b), the state shall reimburse the taxing jurisdictions for the amount of difference. Residential buildings shall continue to be valued and classified according to the provisions of sections 273.11 and 273.13, as they would be in the absence of this section, and the tax on those buildings shall not be subject to the limitation contained in this clause.

The county may transfer money from the county conservation account created in section 40A.152 to the county revenue fund to reimburse the fund for the tax lost as a result of this subdivision or to pay taxing jurisdictions within the county for the tax lost. The county auditor shall certify to the commissioner of revenue on or before June 1 the total amount of tax lost to the county and taxing jurisdictions located within the county as a result of this subdivision and the extent that the tax lost exceeds funds available in the county conservation account. ~~Payments~~ Payment shall be made by the state ~~at the times provided in section 477A.015~~ on December 15 to each of the affected taxing jurisdictions, other than school districts, in the same proportion that the ad valorem tax is distributed if the county conservation account is insufficient to make the reimbursement. There is annually appropriated from the Minnesota conservation fund under section 40A.151 to the commissioner of revenue an amount sufficient to make the reimbursement provided in this subdivision. If the amount available in the Minnesota conservation fund is insufficient, the balance that is needed is appropriated from the general fund.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 477A.013, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [AID ADJUSTMENT.] For calendar year 1990, there shall be an amount equal to 3.4 percent of the town's or city's adjusted net tax capacity computed using the net class rates for taxes payable in 1990 and equalized market values as defined in section 273.1398, subtracted from the aid amounts computed under subdivision 1, in the case of towns, and under subdivisions 3 and 5 in the case of cities. For cities, the subtraction will be made first from the aid computed under subdivision 3. If the subtraction amount under this section is greater than the aid amount computed under subdivision 3, the remaining amount will be subtracted from the aid computed under subdivision 5. The resulting amounts shall be the town's local government aid or the city's local government aid and equalization aid for calendar year 1990. The local government aid and equalization aid amount for any city or town cannot be less than zero. If the subtraction amount under this section is greater than the amount for any town or city computed under subdivisions 1, 3, and 5, the remaining amount shall be subtracted from the town's or city's homestead and agricultural credit aid under section 273.1398, subdivision 2.

For purposes of this subdivision, "adjusted net tax capacity" means the city's total net tax capacity using the net class rates for taxes payable in 1990 and equalized market values as defined in section 273.1398, as adjusted for the contributions and distributions required by chapter 473F in the case of a city or town located within the metropolitan area and less the captured value in any tax increment district.

An increase in a city's property tax levy for taxes payable in 1990 attributable to the amount deducted from the city's aids under this subdivision is exempt from the city's per capita levy limit under section 275.11 and, from the city's percentage of market value levy limit under section 412.251 or 426.04, and from any limitation on levies under a city charter.

Sec. 44. Laws 1989, chapter 326, article 3, section 49, is amended to read:

Sec. 49. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 9 is effective July 1, 1989, but a well notification is not required to be filed with the commissioner for construction of a well until after December 31, 1989.

Section 14 relating to disclosing wells to buyers and transferees is effective July 1, 1990, on lands other than tax-forfeited lands, and is effective July 1, 1991, on tax-forfeited lands.

~~Section~~, Sections 31, 32, and 33 are effective July 1, 1990, and limited well contractor licenses and limited well sealing licenses may not be issued until after that date.

Sections 24 and 33 relating to permits required for elevator shafts and elevator shaft contractor licenses are effective July 1, 1990.

Sec. 45. Laws 1989, chapter 353, section 13, is amended to read:

Sec. 13. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This act is effective July 1, 1989. Sections 6 and 9 apply to state land and tax-forfeited land sold after March 15, 1990 1991.

Sec. 46. [ASSESSMENT OF MANUFACTURED HOME PARKS.]

Subdivision 1. [LIMITED VALUATION INCREASE.] (a) Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 273.11, or any other law to the contrary, the estimated market value of a manufactured home park, as defined in section 327.14, subdivision 3, and assessed under section 273.13, subdivision 25, for taxes levied in 1990, may not exceed 133⅓ percent of its estimated market value for taxes levied in 1989 as limited by Laws 1989, First Special Session chapter 1, article 3, section 32, subdivision 1. The excess market value must be entered equally in the next two succeeding assessment years.

(b) This subdivision does not apply to increases in value attributable to improvements made to the real estate since the January 2, 1989, assessment. It does not apply to property becoming subject to taxation since the January 2, 1989, assessment. The limitation in this subdivision applies to any increase in valuation imposed by the local boards of review under section 274.01, the county boards of equalization under section 274.13, and the state board of equalization and the commissioner of revenue under sections 270.11, 270.12, and 270.16.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER.] (a) If an assessor has increased the estimated market value of property over that allowed in subdivision 1, the assessor must reduce the estimated market value to the amount allowed under subdivision 1.

(b) If an assessor has notified owners of property subject to subdivision 1 of an increase in estimated market value for taxes payable in 1991, the assessor must mail notice to the property owners by July 1, 1990. The notice must state that any increase in the estimated market value of manufactured home park land for taxes levied in 1990 over that for taxes levied in 1989 has been limited by this act.

Sec. 47. Laws 1989, First Special Session chapter 1, article 5, section 52, is amended to read:

Sec. 52. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Except as otherwise provided, sections 12 to 19, 27, 35, 45, and 47 are effective for taxes levied in 1989, payable in 1990 and subsequent years. Section 49 is effective upon approval by the Itasca county board for taxes levied in 1988, payable in 1989 only. Sections 1, 5, 6, 20, 31, 34, 41, 44, and 51 are effective for taxes levied by cities and towns in 1991, payable in 1992 and thereafter, and for taxes levied by counties in 1992, payable in 1993 and thereafter. Sections 2, 4, 7, 9 to 11, 21 to 26, 28 to 30, 32, 33, 36 to 40, 42, and 43 are effective for taxes levied in ~~1991~~ 1992, payable in ~~1992~~ 1993, and thereafter. Sections 3 and 8 are effective for taxes levied in 1992, payable in 1993 and thereafter. Section 50 is effective for taxes payable in 1989 and 1990 only.

Sec. 48. Laws 1990, chapter 480, article 8, section 18, is amended to read:

Sec. 18. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 8, 10, and 14 15 are effective for taxes levied in 1989, payable in 1990, and thereafter.

Sections 9, 11 to 13, ~~14~~ 14, and 16 are effective January 1, 1991.

Section 17 is effective the day following final enactment.

Sec. 49. [CITY OF BAYPORT; LIBRARY LEVY.]

Subdivision 1. [LEVY AUTHORIZED.] Notwithstanding the limit in Minnesota Statutes, section 275.50, subdivision 5, clause (o), for taxes levied in 1990, payable in 1991, the city of Bayport may levy $156,158 to pay operating costs of the city library. This amount is not subject to the limitations in Minnesota Statutes, sections 275.50 to 275.56. For taxes levied in 1991 and thereafter, payable in 1992 and thereafter, the city may levy as a special levy the amount authorized under Minnesota Statutes, section 275.50, subdivision 5, clause (o). For purposes of determining the maximum levy increase under that section, the amount levied in 1990, payable in 1991, shall be the base amount.

Subd. 2. [LOCAL APPROVAL; EFFECTIVE DATE.] This section is effective the day after approval by the governing body of the city of Bayport and its compliance with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3.

Subd. 3. [REVERSE REFERENDUM.] If the Bayport city council intends to exercise the authority provided by this section in subsequent years, it shall pass a resolution stating the fact before January 1, 1991. The resolution must be published for two successive weeks in the official newspaper of the city or, if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the city, together with a notice fixing a date for a public hearing on the matter. The hearing must be held at least two weeks but not more than four weeks after the first publication of the resolution. Following the public hearing, the city may determine to take no further action or adopt a resolution confirming its intention to exercise the authority. That resolution must also be published in the official newspaper of the city or, if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. If within 30 days after publication of the resolution a petition signed by voters equal in number to five percent of the votes cast in the city in the last general election requesting a vote on the proposed resolution is filed with the county auditor, the resolution is not effective until it has been submitted to the voters at a general or special election and a majority of votes cast on the question of approving the resolution are in the affirmative. The commissioner of revenue shall prepare a suggested form of question to be presented at the election. The referendum must be held at a special or general election before December 1, 1991.

Sec. 50. [GOODHUE COUNTY; HISTORICAL SOCIETY LEVY.]

Subdivision 1. [LEVY AUTHORIZED.] For taxes levied in 1990 and 1991, payable in 1991 and 1992, Goodhue county may levy up to $225,000 each year on property in the county and use the proceeds of the levy for the county historical society. This amount is not subject to the limitations in Minnesota Statutes, sections 275.50 to 275.56.

Subd. 2. [LOCAL APPROVAL; EFFECTIVE DATE.] This section is effective the day after approval by the Goodhue county board and its compliance with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3.

Subd. 3. [REVERSE REFERENDUM.] If the Goodhue county board intends to exercise the authority provided by this section in subsequent years, it shall pass a resolution stating the fact before January 1, 1991. The resolution must be published for two successive weeks in the official newspaper of the county or, if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, together with a notice fixing a date for a public hearing on the matter. The hearing must be held at least two weeks but not more than four weeks after the first publication of the resolution. Following the public hearing, the county may determine to take no further action or adopt a resolution confirming its intention to exercise the authority. That resolution must also be published in the official newspaper of the county or, if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the county. If within 30 days after publication of the resolution a petition signed by voters equal in number to five percent of the votes cast in the county in the last general election requesting a vote on the proposed resolution is filed with the county auditor, the resolution is not effective until it has been submitted to the voters at a general or special election and a majority of votes cast on the question of approving the resolution are in the affirmative. The commissioner of revenue shall prepare a suggested form of question to be presented at the election. The referendum must be held at a special or general election before December 1, 1991.

Sec. 51. [CITY OF WINDOM; HOSPITAL LEVY.]

Subdivision 1. [LEVY AUTHORIZED.] For taxes levied in 1990 and 1991, payable in 1991 and 1992, the city of Windom may levy an amount up to $50,000 each year to meet the operating costs of the operating deficit of the municipal hospital. The annual amount levied under this section shall not exceed the amount needed to meet the cost of the operating deficit of the hospital. This amount is not subject to the limitations in Minnesota Statutes, sections 275.50 to 275.56.

Subd. 2. [LOCAL APPROVAL; EFFECTIVE DATE.] This section is effective the day after approval by the governing body of the city of Windom and its compliance with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3.

Subd. 3. [REVERSE REFERENDUM.] If the Windom city council intends to exercise the authority provided by this section in subsequent years, it shall pass a resolution stating the fact before January 1, 1991. The resolution must be published for two successive weeks in the official newspaper of the city or, if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the city, together with a notice fixing a date for a public hearing on the matter. The hearing must be held at least two weeks but not more than four weeks after the first publication of the resolution. Following the public hearing, the city may determine to take no further action or adopt a resolution confirming its intention to exercise the authority. That resolution must also be published in the official newspaper of the city or, if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. If within 30 days after publication of the resolution a petition signed by voters equal in number to five percent of the votes cast in the city in the last general election requesting a vote on the proposed resolution is filed with the county auditor, the resolution is not effective until it has been submitted to the voters at a general or special election and a majority of votes cast on the question of approving the resolution are in the affirmative. The commissioner of revenue shall prepare a suggested form of question to be presented at the election. The referendum must be held at a special or general election before December 1, 1991.

Sec. 52. [KOOCHICHING COUNTY; AMBULANCE SERVICE LEVY.]

For taxes levied in 1990, payable in 1991, and thereafter, Koochiching County may levy to pay the costs of ambulance service in a county subordinate service district under Minnesota Statutes, section 375B.09. This amount is not subject to the limitations in Minnesota Statutes, sections 275.50 to 275.56.

Sec. 53. [DOUGLAS COUNTY; SOLID WASTE MANAGEMENT LEVY.]

For taxes levied in 1990, payable in 1991, and thereafter, Douglas county may levy the amount necessary to pay the principal and interest on department of energy and economic development loans made to the Pope-Douglas solid waste board on June 10, 1985, and June 15, 1986, for solid waste management purposes. The levy must be made as provided under Minnesota Statutes, section 400.11.

This amount is not subject to the limitations in Minnesota Statutes, sections 275.50 to 275.56.

If the county utilizes this levy, and any part of the amount levied by the county in the previous levy year for the purposes specified under this section was included in the county's previous year's levy limitation computed under section 275.51, that amount must be deducted from the levy limit base under section 275.51, subdivision 3f, when determining the county's current year levy limitation. The county shall provide the necessary information to the commissioner of revenue for making this determination.

The levy authority under this section expires when the principal and interest has been paid.

Sec. 54. [MILLE LACS COUNTY; SPECIAL LEVY.]

For taxes levied in 1990, payable in 1991 only, Mille Lacs county may levy an amount equal to the expenditures from reserve funds used in 1990 to pay social service costs. The county must provide evidence to the commissioner of revenue that expenditures from reserve funds were made for this purpose. This levy may not exceed $694,000. This levy is not subject to the levy limitations in Minnesota Statutes, sections 275.50 to 275.56.

Sec. 55. [BECKER COUNTY; SPECIAL LEVY.]

For taxes levied in 1990, payable in 1991 only, Becker county may levy an amount equal to expenditures it made from reserve funds in calendar years 1987 and 1988. For purposes of this section, the reserves used in calendar year 1987 shall include money received under the federal revenue sharing program from previous years. This levy may not exceed $900,000. The county must provide evidence to the commissioner of revenue that it was eligible for a levy limit base adjustment for taxes levied in 1988 for use of reserve funds under Minnesota Statutes, section 275.51, subdivision 3j and did not receive the adjustment. This levy is not subject to the levy limitations in Minnesota Statutes, sections 275.50 to 275.56.

Sec. 56. [GOODHUE COUNTY; SPECIAL LEVY.]

For taxes levied in 1990, payable in 1991 only, Goodhue county may levy an amount equal to the reduction to its levy limit base, for taxes levied in 1989, under Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 275.51, subdivision 3f, paragraph (i). This levy is not subject to the levy limitations in Minnesota Statutes, sections 275.50 to 275.56.

Sec. 57. [BONDS AUTHORIZED.]

Subdivision 1. The governing body of the city of Bemidji or Beltrami county may sell and issue general obligation bonds or revenue bonds of the city or the county, respectively, to finance the construction and betterment of an airport terminal and other air navigation facilities as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 360.013, or of other related facilities, including hangars, repair shops and other buildings, and equipment needed for the storage, repair, reconstruction, and servicing of aircraft. The bonds may be issued by the city or the county on its own behalf with the consent of both parties, or with the consent of the other on behalf of both of them. The bonds must be issued, sold and secured in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, chapter 475, except as provided in subdivisions 2 and 3. The facilities to be financed by the bonds are a public convenience from which a revenue is derived, and are not indebtedness under chapter 475 or any city charter.

Subd. 2. The aggregate principal amount of all bonds issued by the city or the county under this section which are outstanding and undischarged at any time shall not exceed $400,000.

Subd. 3. If either the city or the county issues bonds on behalf of both of them, the entity not issuing the bonds may levy ad valorem taxes on all taxable property within its corporate limits to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds as agreed upon before their issuance, and may irrevocably appropriate the collections of the taxes to the sinking fund established by the issuing entity for the payment of the bonds. The entity issuing the bonds may levy ad valorem taxes on all taxable property within its corporate limits for the years and in the amounts that, together with any taxes levied and appropriated by the nonissuing entity, will meet the requirements of Minnesota Statutes, section 475.61. Neither the taxes nor any additional taxes levied to eliminate any deficiencies in the collection thereof are subject to any limitation established by general or special law or charter as to rate or amount. The taxes may not be considered in determining the amount of any other taxes which may be levied subject to any such limitation.

Subd. 4. (a) After approval of a bond issue under subdivision 1 or the first approval of a tax levy to pay bond obligations under subdivision 3, the governing body of the city for a city action or the county for a county action shall publish notice of the action in its official publication. The bonds may be issued and sold or the tax levied without submitting the question to the voters, unless within 30 days after the date of publication a petition signed by qualified voters equal to five percent of the voters who voted in the last general election in the governmental subdivision is filed with the city or the county.

(b) If a petition is filed that meets the requirements of paragraph (a), the bonds may be issued or the tax levied upon obtaining the approval of a majority of the voters voting on the question at a special or regular election.

Ramsey county may issue general obligation bonds in one or more series in an amount not to exceed $2,000,000, in the aggregate, to finance the restoration of the concourse of the St. Paul union depot as a facility for the arts and sciences, the proceeds of which may not be used for that purpose until $500,000 in operational funding has been committed by other sources. The bonds shall be issued pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, chapter 475, except that the bonds shall not be subject to its election requirements or debt limits. They shall not be subject to any other debt or tax levy limitations applicable to the county and shall not be considered in calculating amounts subject to any other debt or tax levy limitations. Levies by the county for debt servicing payment for the retirement of the bonds shall be exempt from and disregarded in the calculation of all tax levy limitations applicable to the county.

Sec. 59. [ROSEMOUNT; ARMORY LEVY.]

Subdivision 1. [ARMORY LEVY.] The city of Rosemount in Dakota county may levy not more than $95,000 per year and otherwise incur debt obligations under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 193 or 475 or both, to acquire and better an armory and to be serviced by the levy without regard to the limits on debt service and debt otherwise provided by chapter 193 or 475. This levy amount shall be a special levy under Minnesota Statutes, section 275.50, subdivision 5, clause (d).

Subd. 2. [REVERSE REFERENDUM.] If the city council proposes to pay the obligation under subdivision 1, it shall pass a resolution stating that fact. Thereafter, the resolution shall be published for two successive weeks in the official newspaper of the city or, if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the city, together with a notice fixing a date for a public hearing on the matter. The hearing shall be held not less than two weeks nor more than four weeks after the first publication of the resolution. Following the public hearing, the city may determine to take no further action or adopt a resolution confirming its intention to exercise the authority. That resolution shall also be published in the official newspaper or, if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. If within 30 days thereafter a petition signed by voters equal in number to ten percent of the votes cast in the city in the last general election requesting a referendum on the proposed resolution is filed with the county auditor, the resolution shall not be effective until it has been submitted to the voters at a general or special election and a majority of votes cast on the question of approving the resolution are in the affirmative. The commissioner of revenue shall prepare a suggested form of question to be presented at the referendum. The referendum must be held at a special or general election prior to January 1, 1992.

Sec. 60. [JOINT POWERS LEVY; DRUG ENFORCEMENT.]

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, sections 275.50 to 275.56, the cities of Maple Grove, Brooklyn Park, Brooklyn Center, and Coon Rapids may each levy for taxes levied in 1990, and thereafter, an amount up to $2 per capita to pay the costs incurred under a joint powers agreement for the salaries and benefits of peace officers whose primary responsibilities are to investigate controlled substance crimes under chapter 152 or to teach drug abuse resistance education curricula in schools.

Sec. 61. [DEBT SERVICE LEVY FOR CERTAIN CERTIFICATES OF INDEBTEDNESS.]

Subdivision 1. [LEVY.] Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 475.754, if a city has issued certificates of indebtedness under that section during calendar year 1989 in an amount not exceeding $150,000 for the purpose of meeting the unanticipated cost of repairing a major structural defect in a building that was undergoing renovation for which other obligations had been issued previously, any levy to pay the debt service on those certificates shall be a special levy under Minnesota Statutes, section 275.50, subdivision 5, paragraph (c).

Subd. 2. [REVERSE REFERENDUM.] If the city intends to exercise the authority provided by subdivision 1 in subsequent years, it shall pass a resolution stating the fact before January 1, 1991. The resolution must be published for two successive weeks in the official newspaper of the city or, if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the city, together with a notice fixing a date for a public hearing on the matter. The hearing must be held at least two weeks but not more than four weeks after the first publication of the resolution. Following the public hearing, the city may determine to take no further action or adopt a resolution confirming its intention to exercise the authority. That resolution must also be published in the official newspaper of the city or, if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. If within 30 days after publication of the resolution a petition signed by voters equal in number to five percent of the votes cast in the city in the last general election requesting a vote on the proposed resolution is filed with the county auditor, the resolution is not effective until it has been submitted to the voters at a general or special election and a majority of votes cast on the question of approving the resolution are in the affirmative. The commissioner of revenue shall prepare a suggested form of question to be presented at the election. The referendum must be held at a special or general election before December 1, 1991.

Sec. 62. [HENNEPIN COUNTY; AUTHORITY TO TRANSFER LIGHT RAIL MONEY.]

Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the Hennepin county regional railroad authority may transfer any available money of the authority, including money in capital accounts, to Hennepin county to be expended to meet social service costs during 1990. The authority under this section to transfer the regional railroad authority levy applies only during calendar year 1990.

Sec. 63. [1989 POPULATION AND HOUSEHOLD ESTIMATES USED IN 1991 AID AND LEVY CALCULATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [NOTIFICATION OF ESTIMATES.] Notwithstanding any other law, for estimates of population and number of households of local government subdivisions for 1989 only, under Minnesota Statutes, section 116K.04, subdivision 4, the estimates shall be communicated to the governing body of each subdivision by September 1, 1990.

Subd. 2. [1991 AID AND LEVY CALCULATIONS.] Notwithstanding any other law, for local government aids under Minnesota Statutes, section 273.1398 and chapter 477A and levy limit calculations under Minnesota Statutes, sections 275.51 to 275.56, for aids and levies payable in 1991 only, for local governmental subdivisions for which estimates of population and number of households for calendar year 1989 do not exist as of July 1, 1990, the following estimates of population and number of households will be used:

(1) For calculation of homestead and agricultural credit aid under Minnesota Statutes, section 273.1398, the household adjustment factor shall be equal to the number of households, for the most recently available estimate as of September 7, 1990, divided by the number of households from the year previous to the most recent estimate;

(2) For calculation of levy limits under Minnesota Statutes, section 275.51, the population or number of households shall be equal to the most recently available estimate of population or number of households as of July 1, 1990. If a more recent estimate of population or number of households becomes available by October 15, 1990, and use of this more recent estimate in the levy limit calculation would increase the levy limit for a governmental subdivision, the commissioner of revenue shall recompute and recertify this increased levy limit to the local government subdivision by October 22, 1990; and

(3) For calculation of local government aids under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 477A, the population and number of households means the population and number of households as established by the most recently available estimate as of July 1, 1990.

Subd. 3. [PROPOSED PROPERTY TAX NOTICES.] If, as a result of a more recent estimate of population or number of households, a local government's levy limit is increased as provided in subdivision 2, clause (2), the amount of the increase in the levy limit may be added to the proposed tax levy for purposes of the public hearings under Minnesota Statutes, section 275.065, subdivision 6.

Sec. 64. [INSTRUCTION TO REVISOR.]

In the next edition of Minnesota Statutes, the revisor of statutes shall codify in Minnesota Statutes, section 275.50, all permanent local special levies enacted in 1990.

Sec. 65. [REPEALER.]

(a) Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 375.192, subdivision 1, is repealed.

(b) Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 383A.65, is repealed.

Sec. 66. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 3, 36, 37, 40, 44, 45, 47, 48, 62, and 63, are effective the day following final enactment.

Sections 4, 5, 9, 13 to 19, 23 to 28, 30, 31, 34, 39, 43, 46, 59, and 61, are effective for taxes levied in 1990, payable in 1991, and thereafter, except as otherwise provided.

Section 6 is effective August 1, 1990.

Section 7 is effective January 1, 1990, and thereafter.

Section 10 is effective for taxes levied in 1990, payable in 1991, and thereafter. Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 273.112, subdivision 6, in order to qualify for valuation under Minnesota Statutes, section 273.112, for the 1990 assessment, the taxpayer of the property operated by private clubs under Minnesota Statutes, section 273.112, subdivision 3, clause (c)(3), must submit an affidavit or other written verification to the assessor by July 1, 1990, showing that the bylaws in rules and regulations of the private club meet the eligibility requirements of section 10 by July 1, 1990.

Sections 11, 12, 20, 22, 32, 33, 41, and 42, are effective for taxes levied in 1989, payable in 1990, and thereafter.

Section 21 is effective for reports filed in 1990, and thereafter.

Section 35 is effective for appeals filed after the date of final enactment.

Sections 38 and 65, paragraph (a), are effective for reductions or abatements filed with the county board after June 30, 1990.

Section 57 is effective upon approval by a majority of all members of the Bemidji city council, and by a majority of all members of the Beltrami county board of commissioners, and compliance with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021.

Sections 58 and 65, paragraph (b), are effective the day after the governing body of the city of St. Paul and the Ramsey county board have both complied with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3.

ARTICLE 4

Payments for the period August ~~1994~~ 1996 through December ~~1994~~ 1996 shall be made subsequent to on or before the first third of each month thereafter through December 31, 1994 1996.

(e) Monthly payments for the county share of local agency expenditures from January ~~1995~~ 1997 through March ~~1995~~ 1997 shall be made subsequent to on or before the first third of each month through March 1995 1997. Payment for 1/24 of the base amount and the April ~~1995~~ 1997 county share of local agency expenditures growth amount for the programs identified in subdivision 2 shall be made during on or before April 1995 3, 1997. For the period of May 1, ~~1995~~ 1997, through July 31, ~~1995~~ 1997, payment of the base amount shall be made subsequent to on or before July 1, 1995 10, 1997, and payment of the growth amount over the base amount shall be made monthly on or before the third of each month. Payments for the period August ~~1995~~ 1997 through December ~~1995~~ 1997 shall be made subsequent to on or before the first third of each month thereafter through December 31, 1995 1997.

(f) Monthly payments for the county share of local agency expenditures from January ~~1996~~ 1998 through April ~~1996~~ 1998 shall be made subsequent to on or before the first third of each month through April 1996 1998. Payment for 1/24 of the base amount and the May ~~1996~~ 1998 county share of local agency expenditures growth amount for the programs identified in subdivision 2 shall be made during on or before May 1996 3, 1998. For the period of June 1, ~~1996~~ 1998, through July 31, ~~1996~~ 1998, payment of the base amount shall be made subsequent to on or before July 1, 1996 10, 1998, and payment of the growth amount over the base amount shall be made ~~monthly~~ on or before the third of each month. Payments for the period August ~~1996~~ 1998 through December ~~1996~~ 1998 shall be made ~~subsequent to~~ on or before the first third of each month thereafter through December 31, ~~1996~~ 1998.

(g) Monthly payments for the county share of local agency expenditures from January ~~1997~~ 1999 through May ~~1997~~ 1999 shall be made ~~subsequent to~~ on or before the first third of each month through May ~~1997~~ 1999. Payment for 1/24 of the base amount and the June ~~1997~~ 1999 county share of local agency expenditures growth amount for the programs identified in subdivision 2 shall be made during on or before June ~~1997~~ 3, 1999. For the period of June 1, ~~1997~~ 1999, through July 31, ~~1997~~ 1999, payment shall be made ~~subsequent to~~ on or before July 1, 1997 10, 1999. Payments for the period August ~~1997~~ 1999 through December ~~1997~~ 1999 shall be made ~~subsequent to~~ on or before the first third of each month thereafter through December 31, ~~1997~~ 1999.

(h) Effective January 1, ~~1998~~ 2000, monthly payments for the county share of local agency expenditures shall be made subsequent to the first of each month.

Payments under this subdivision are subject to the provisions of section 256.017.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 273.1398, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) In this section, the terms defined in this subdivision have the meanings given them.

(b) "Unique taxing jurisdiction" means the geographic area subject to the same set of tax capacity rates.

(c) "Gross tax capacity" means the product of the gross class rates and estimated market values. "Total gross tax capacity" means the gross tax capacities for all property within the unique taxing jurisdiction. The total gross tax capacity used shall be reduced by the sum of (1) the unique taxing jurisdiction's gross tax capacity of commercial industrial property as defined in section 473F.02, subdivision 3, multiplied by the ratio determined pursuant to section 473F.08, subdivision 6, for the municipality, as defined in section 473F.02, subdivision 8, in which the unique taxing jurisdiction is located, (2) the gross tax capacity of the captured value of tax increment financing districts as defined in section 469.177, subdivision 2, and (3) the gross tax capacity of transmission lines deducted from a local government's total gross tax capacity under section 273.425. Gross tax capacity cannot be less than zero.

(d) "Net tax capacity" means the product of (i) the appropriate net class rates for the year in which the aid is payable, except that for aids payable in 1991 the class rate applied to class 3 utility real and personal property the class rate applied shall be 5.38 percent; the class rate applied to class 4c property and that portion of class 3 property with an actual net class rate of 2.3 percent shall be 2.4 percent; the class rates applied to class 2a agricultural homestead property excluding the house, garage, and one acre shall be .4 percent for the first $100,000 of value reduced by the value of the house, garage, and one acre, 1.3 percent for the remaining value of the first 320 acres, and 1.7 percent for the remaining value of any acreage in excess of 320 acres; the class rate applied to class 2b property shall be 1.7 percent; the class rate applied to class 1b property shall be .4 percent; and the class rate for the portion of class 1 property and the house, garage, and one acre portion of class 2a property with a market value in excess of $100,000 shall be ~~5.38 percent~~ 3.0 percent, and (ii) estimated market values for the assessment two years prior to that in which aid is payable. The reclassification of mobile home parks as class 4c shall not be considered in determining net tax capacity for purposes of this paragraph for aids payable in 1991 or 1992. The reclassification of fraternity and sorority houses as class 4c shall not be considered in determining net tax capacity for purposes of this paragraph for aids payable in 1991. "Total net tax capacity" means the net tax capacities for all property within the unique taxing jurisdiction. The total net tax capacity used shall be reduced by the sum of (1) the unique taxing jurisdiction's net tax capacity of commercial industrial property as defined in section 473F.02, subdivision 3, multiplied by the ratio determined pursuant to section 473F.08, subdivision 6, for the municipality, as defined in section 473F.02, subdivision 8, in which the unique taxing jurisdiction is located, (2) the net tax capacity of the captured value of tax increment financing districts as defined in section 469.177, subdivision 2, and (3) the net tax capacity of transmission lines deducted from a local government's total net tax capacity under section 273.425. For purposes of determining the net tax capacity of property referred to in clauses (1) and (2), the net tax capacity shall be multiplied by the ratio of the highest class rate for class 3a property for taxes payable in the year in which the aid is payable to the highest class rate for class 3a property in the prior year. Net tax capacity cannot be less than zero.

(e) "Previous net tax capacity" means the product of the appropriate net class rates for the year previous to the year in which the aid is payable, and estimated market values for the assessment two years prior to that in which aid is payable. "Total previous net tax capacity" means the previous net tax capacities for all property within the unique taxing jurisdiction. The total previous net tax capacity shall be reduced by the sum of (1) the unique taxing jurisdiction's previous net tax capacity of commercial-industrial property as defined in section 473F.02, subdivision 3, multiplied by the ratio determined pursuant to section 473F.08, subdivision 6, for the municipality, as defined in section 473F.02, subdivision 8, in which the unique taxing jurisdiction is located, (2) the previous net tax capacity of the captured value of tax increment financing districts as defined in section 469.177, subdivision 2, and (3) the previous net tax capacity of transmission lines deducted from a local government's total net tax capacity under section 273.425. Previous net tax capacity cannot be less than zero.

(f) "Equalized market values" are market values that have been equalized by dividing the assessor's estimated market value for the second year prior to that in which the aid is payable by the assessment sales ratios determined by class in the assessment sales ratio study conducted by the department of revenue pursuant to section 124.2131 in the second year prior to that in which the aid is payable. The equalized market values shall equal the unequalized market values divided by the assessment sales ratio.

(g) "1989 local tax rate" means the quotient derived by dividing the gross taxes levied within a unique taxing jurisdiction for taxes payable in 1989 by the gross tax capacity of the unique taxing jurisdiction for taxes payable in 1989. For computation of the local tax rate for aid payable in 1991 and subsequent years, gross taxes for taxes payable in 1989 exclude equalized levies as defined in subdivision 2a. For purposes of computation of the local tax rate only, gross taxes shall not be adjusted by inflation or household growth.

(h) "Current local tax rate" means the quotient derived by dividing the taxes levied within a unique taxing jurisdiction for taxes payable in the year prior to that for which aids are being calculated by the net tax capacity of the unique taxing jurisdiction.

(i) For purposes of calculating the homestead and agricultural credit aid authorized pursuant to subdivision 2, the "subtraction factor" is the product of (i) a unique taxing jurisdiction's 1989 local tax rate; (ii) its total net tax capacity; and (iii) 0.9767.

(j) For purposes of calculating and allocating homestead and agricultural credit aid authorized pursuant to subdivision 2 and the disparity reduction aid authorized in subdivision 3, "gross taxes levied on all properties" or, "gross taxes," or "taxes levied" means the total gross taxes levied on all properties except that levied on the captured value of tax increment districts as defined in section 469.177, subdivision 2, and that levied on the portion of commercial industrial properties' assessed value or gross tax capacity, as defined in section 473F.02, subdivision 3, subject to the areawide tax as provided in section 473F.08, subdivision 6, in a unique taxing jurisdiction. Gross taxes levied on all properties or gross taxes are before reduction by any credits for taxes payable in 1989. "Gross taxes" are before any reduction for disparity reduction aid but "taxes levied" are after any reduction for disparity reduction aid. Gross taxes levied or taxes levied cannot be less than zero.

For homestead and agricultural credit aid payable in 1991 and subsequent years, "gross taxes" or "gross taxes levied on all properties" shall mean gross taxes payable in 1989, excluding taxes defined as "equalized levies" in subdivision 2a, multiplied by the cost-of-living adjustment factor and the household adjustment factor.

"Taxes levied" excludes actual amounts levied for purposes listed in subdivision 2a.

(i) (k) "Human services aids" means:

(1) aid to families with dependent children under sections 256.82, subdivision 1, and 256.935, subdivision 1;

(2) medical assistance under sections 256B.041, subdivision 5, and 256B.19, subdivision 1;

(3) general assistance medical care under section 256D.03, subdivision 6;

(4) general assistance under section 256D.03, subdivision 2;

(5) work readiness under section 256D.03, subdivision 2;

(6) emergency assistance under section 256.871, subdivision 6;

(7) Minnesota supplemental aid under section 256D.36, subdivision 1;

(8) preadmission screening and alternative care grants under section 256B.091;

(9) work readiness services under section 256D.051;

(10) case management services under section 256.736, subdivision 13;

(11) general assistance claims processing, medical transportation and related costs; and

(12) medical assistance, medical transportation and related costs.

(j) "Adjustment factor" means one plus the percentage change in (1) the ratio of estimated market value of residential homesteads to the estimated market value of all taxable property within the city or township containing the unique taxing jurisdiction based on the assessment one year prior to the year in which the aid is payable when compared to the same ratio based on the assessment two years prior to the year in which the aid is payable. If the market value of farm homesteads exceeds the market value of residential homesteads in the city or township containing the unique taxing jurisdiction, "adjusted factor" means one plus the percentage change in the ratio of the estimated market value of farm homesteads to the estimated market value of all taxable property within the city or township containing the unique taxing jurisdiction based on the assessment one year prior to the year in which the aid is payable when compared to the same ratio based on the assessment two years prior to the year in which the aid is payable. The adjustment factor cannot be less than one. Estimates of market value for the assessment one year prior to the year in which the aid is paid will be made on the basis of the abstract submitted pursuant to section 270.11. Discrepancies between the estimate and actual market values will not result in increased or decreased aid in the year in which the estimates are used to compute aid.

~~(k)~~ (l) "Cost-of-living adjustment factor" means the greater of one or one plus the percentage increase in the consumer price index minus .36 percent. In no case may the cost of living adjustment factor exceed 1.0394.

(m) The percentage increase in the consumer price index means the percentage, if any, by which:

(1) the consumer price index for the calendar year preceding that in which aid is payable, exceeds

(2) the consumer price index for calendar year 1989.

~~(n)~~ (n) "Consumer price index for any calendar year" means the average of the consumer price index as of the close of the 12-month period ending on May 31 of such calendar year.

~~(m)~~ (o) "Consumer price index" means the last consumer price index for all-urban consumers published by the department of labor. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the revision of the consumer price index which is most consistent with the consumer price index for calendar year 1989 shall be used.

~~(n)~~ (p) "Household adjustment factor" means the number of households for the second most recent year preceding that in which the aids are payable divided by the 1988 number of households for the third most recent year. The household adjustment factor cannot be less than one.

(q) "Growth adjustment factor" means the household adjustment factor in the case of counties, cities, and towns. In the case of school districts the growth adjustment factor means the average daily membership of the school district under section 124.17, subdivision 2, for the school year ending in the second most recent year preceding that in which the aids are payable divided by the average daily membership for the third most recent year. In the case of special taxing districts, the growth adjustment factor equals one. The household growth adjustment factor cannot be less than one.

(r) "Homestead and agricultural credit base" means the previous year's certified homestead and agricultural credit aid determined under subdivision 2 plus, for aid payable in 1992, fiscal disparity homestead and agricultural credit aid under subdivision 2b.

(s) "Net tax capacity adjustment" means (1) the total previous net tax capacity minus the total net tax capacity, multiplied by (2) the unique taxing jurisdiction's current local tax rate. The net tax capacity adjustment cannot be less than zero.

(t) "Fiscal disparity adjustment" means the difference between (1) a taxing jurisdiction's fiscal disparity distribution levy under section 473F.08, subdivision 3, clause (a), for taxes payable in the year prior to that for which aids are being calculated, and (2) the same distribution levy multiplied by the ratio of the highest class rate for class 3 property for taxes payable in the year prior to that for which aids are being calculated to the highest class rate for class 3 property for taxes payable in the second prior year to that for which aids are being calculated. In the case of school districts, the fiscal disparity distribution levy shall exclude that part of the levy attributable to equalized school levies as defined in subdivision 2a.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 273.1398, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [HOMESTEAD AND AGRICULTURAL CREDIT AID.]

(a) Initial For aid payable in 1991, homestead and agricultural credit aid for each unique taxing jurisdiction equals the total gross taxes levied on all properties, minus the unique taxing jurisdiction's subtraction factor. The commissioner of revenue may, in computing the amount of the homestead and agricultural credit aid paid in 1990 and subsequent years, adjust the gross tax capacity, net tax capacity, and gross taxes of a taxing jurisdiction for taxes payable in 1989 to reflect auditor's errors in computing taxes payable for 1989 in unique taxing jurisdictions within independent school district Nos. 720 and 792. Homestead and agricultural credit aid cannot be less than zero.

(b)(1) The 1990 and 1991 homestead and agricultural credit aid is allocated to each local government levying taxes in the unique taxing jurisdiction in the proportion that the local government's gross taxes bears to the total gross taxes levied within the unique taxing jurisdiction. The net tax capacity adjustment is allocated to each local government levying taxes in the unique taxing jurisdiction in the proportion that the local government's taxes levied bears to the total taxes levied in the unique taxing jurisdiction.

(2) The 1990 homestead and agricultural credit aid so determined for school districts for purposes of general education levies pursuant to section 124A.23, subdivisions 2 and 2a, and transportation levies pursuant to section 275.125, subdivisions 5 and 5c, shall be multiplied by the ratio of the adjusted gross tax capacity based upon the 1988 adjusted gross tax capacity to the estimated 1987 adjusted gross tax capacity based upon the 1987 adjusted assessed value.

(3) If a local government's total tax capacity rate for all funds for taxes payable in 1989 varies within the area in which it exercises taxing authority, the local government's allocated homestead and agricultural credit aid must be further allocated between the part of its levy in respect to which the tax capacity rate is constant throughout the area in which it exercises taxing authority and the part of its levy in respect to which the tax capacity rate varies throughout the area in which it exercises taxing authority.

(c) The calendar year 1990 homestead and agricultural credit aid shall be adjusted by the adjustment factor.

(d) Payments under this subdivision to counties in 1990 and subsequent years and 1991 shall be reduced by the amount provided in section 477A.012, subdivisions 3, paragraph (d), and 4, paragraph (d), and 5.

(e) Payments under this subdivision to cities and towns in 1990 and 1991 shall be ~~annually~~ reduced by the amount of the homestead and agricultural credit aid adjustment, if any, determined for 1990 under section 477A.013, subdivision 6.

(f) Payments under this subdivision to cities in 1990 and 1991 shall be reduced by the amount of the homestead and agricultural credit aid adjustment, if any, determined for 1990 under section 477A.013, subdivisions 6 and 7.

(g) Payments under this subdivision to special taxing districts, excluding hospital districts and the regional transit board defined in section 473.373, in 1990 and 1991 shall be reduced by an amount equal to 2.35 percent of the amount levied for taxes payable in 1990, before reduction for homestead and agricultural credit aid and disparity reduction aid. Payments under this subdivision to the regional transit board in 1990 and 1991 shall be reduced by $450,000.

(h) Payments under this subdivision to all taxing jurisdictions in 1992 and subsequent years are equal to the product of (1) the homestead and agricultural credit aid base, and (2) the growth adjustment factor, plus the net tax capacity adjustment and the fiscal disparity adjustment.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.1398, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2c. [COMPUTATION BY COMMISSIONER.] Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions 1 and 2 requiring the computation of homestead and agricultural credit aid at the unique taxing jurisdiction level, the commissioner may, upon consultation with the chairs of the house tax committee and senate committee on taxes and tax laws, compute homestead and agricultural credit aid at a higher level if it would have a negligible impact or if changes in the composition of unique taxing jurisdictions do not permit computation at the unique taxing jurisdiction level.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 275.07, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. The county auditor shall adjust each local government's levy certified under subdivision 1 by the amount of homestead and agricultural credit aid certified by section 273.1398, subdivision 2, reduced by the amount under section 273.1398, subdivision 5a; fiscal disparity homestead and agricultural credit aid under section 273.1398, subdivision 2b; and equalization aid certified by section 477A.013, subdivision 5. If a local government's homestead and agricultural credit aid was further allocated between portions of its levy pursuant to section 273.1398, subdivision 2, paragraph (b)(2), the levy or fund to which the homestead and agricultural credit aid was allocated is the levy or fund which must be adjusted.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 477A.011, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [CITY.] City means a statutory or home rule charter city. City also means a town having a population of 5,000 or more for purposes of the aid payable under section 477A.013, subdivision 3. Towns and cities of the first class are not eligible to be treated as cities for purposes of aid payable under section 477A.013, subdivision 5 or the aid adjustment under section 477A.013, subdivision 7.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 477A.011, subdivision 25, is amended to read:

Subd. 25. [NET TAX CAPACITY.] "Net tax capacity" means for aids payable under section 477A.013, subdivision 5, (1) the net tax capacity of a city computed using the net tax capacity class rates in Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.13, for taxes payable the year prior to the aid distribution, and based on 1988 estimated market values for taxes payable the year prior to the aid distribution, plus (2) a city's fiscal disparities distribution tax capacity under section 473F.08, subdivision 2, paragraph (b), for taxes payable in 1989 the year prior to the aid distribution. The market value utilized in computing net tax capacity shall be reduced by the sum of (1) a city's market value of commercial industrial property as defined in section 473F.02, subdivision 3, multiplied by the ratio determined pursuant to section 473F.08, subdivision 2, paragraph (a), and (2) the market value of the captured value of tax increment financing districts as defined in section 469.177, subdivision 2, and (3) the market value of transmission lines deducted from a city's total net tax capacity under section 273.425. The net tax capacity will be computed using equalized market values.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 477A.011, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 26. [REVENUE BASE.] "Revenue base" means the amount levied for taxes payable in 1990 less the special levies under section 275.50, subdivision 5, clause (u), including the levy on the fiscal disparity distribution under section 473F.08, subdivision 3, paragraph (a), and before reduction for the homestead and agricultural credit aid under section 273.1398, subdivision 2, equalization aid under section 477A.013, subdivision 5, and disparity reduction aid under section 273.1398, subdivision 3; plus the local government aid under sections 477A.011; 477A.012, subdivisions 1 and 3, determined without regard to subdivision 2; and 477A.013, subdivisions 3 and 6; and the estimated taconite aids used to determine levy limits for taxes payable in 1990 under section 275.51, subdivision 3i.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 477A.011, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 27. [REDUCTION PERCENTAGE.] "Reduction percentage" is the equal percentage reduction in each county and city revenue base that is necessary to reduce 1990 aid payments by $28,000,000 under sections 477A.012, subdivision 5 and 477A.013, subdivision 7.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 477A.012, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AID AMOUNT.] In calendar year 1988 and calendar years thereafter 1990, each county government shall receive a distribution equal to the aid amount certified for 1987 pursuant to this subdivision. In calendar year 1991 and subsequent years, each county government shall receive a distribution equal to the aid amount it received in 1990 under this subdivision less the reduction made under subdivision 5.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 477A.012, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [COUNTY AID ADJUSTMENT.] For calendar year 1990, a county's aid amount as calculated under subdivisions 1 and 3 is reduced by an amount equal to the product of its revenue base and the reduction percentage. The amount of aid computed under this subdivision and subdivisions 1 and 3 cannot be less than $0. If the subtraction amount under this subdivision is greater than the amount of aid calculated for any county under subdivisions 1 and 3, the remaining amount shall be next subtracted from the county's homestead and agricultural credit aid under section 273.1398, subdivision 2, and then, if necessary, from the county's disparity reduction aid under section 273.1398, subdivision 3.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 477A.013, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [CITY AID DISTRIBUTION.] In 1989, a city whose initial aid is greater than $0 will receive the following aid increases in addition to an amount equal to the local government aid it received in 1988 under Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 477A.013:

(1) for a city whose expenditure/unlimited aid ratio is at least 1.5, two percent of city revenue;

(2) for a city whose expenditure/unlimited aid ratio is at least 1.4 but less than 1.5, 2.5 percent of city revenue;

(3) for a city whose expenditure/unlimited aid ratio is at least 1.3 but less than 1.4, three percent of city revenue;

(4) for a city whose expenditure/unlimited aid ratio is at least 1.2 but less than 1.3, four percent of city revenue;

(5) for a city whose expenditure/unlimited aid ratio is at least 1.1 but less than 1.2, five percent of city revenue;

(6) for a city whose expenditure/unlimited aid ratio is at least 1.05 but less than 1.1, six percent of city revenue;

(7) for a city whose expenditure/unlimited aid ratio is at least 1.0 but less than 1.05, seven percent of city revenue;

(8) for a city whose expenditure/unlimited aid ratio is at least .95 but less than 1.0, 7.5 percent of city revenue;

(9) for a city whose expenditure/unlimited aid ratio is at least .75 but less than .95, 8.5 percent of city revenue; and

(10) for a city whose expenditure/unlimited aid ratio is less than .75, nine percent of city revenue.

In 1990, a city whose initial aid is greater than $0 will receive an amount equal to the aid it received under this section in the year prior to that for which aids are being calculated plus an aid increase equal to 50 percent of the rates listed in clauses (1) to (10) multiplied by city revenue.

~~In 1991 and subsequent years, a city whose initial aid is greater than $0 will receive an amount equal to the aid it received under this section in the year prior to that for which aids are being calculated plus an aid increase equal to 25 percent of the rates listed in clauses (1) to (10) multiplied by city revenue.~~

In 1991 and subsequent years, a city will receive an amount equal to the local government aid it received under this section in the previous year.

A city's aid increase under this subdivision is limited to the lesser of (1) 20 percent of its levy for taxes payable in the year prior to that for which aids are being calculated after the adjustments provided in section 273.1398, subdivision 2, or (2) its initial aid amount, or (3) 15 percent of the total local government aid amount received under this section in the previous year, provided that no city will receive an increase that is less than two percent of its 1989 local government aid for aids payable in 1990.

A city whose initial aid is $0 will receive in 1990 an amount equal to 102 percent of the local government aid it received in 1989 under Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 477A.013. A city whose initial aid is $0 will receive in 1991 ~~and subsequent years~~ an amount equal to the aid it received in the previous year under this section. For purposes of this subdivision, the term "local government aid" includes does not include equalization aid for aids payable in 1991 and thereafter amounts under subdivision 5.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 477A.013, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [EQUALIZATION AID.] A city is eligible for equalization aid in 1990 only. ~~The amount of the aid is equal to (1) the aid amount received under this subdivision in 1990 after the adjustments, if any, under subdivisions 6 and 7, plus an equalization aid increase equal to the product of (i) a city's average levy for the three immediately preceding years less the disparity reduction aids allocated to the city pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.1398, subdivision 3, for the year prior to the aid distribution, and less the equalization aid it received under this section in the year prior to that for which the aid is being calculated, (ii) .36 .30, and (iii) one minus the ratio of the net tax capacity per capita to 900;~~ less (2) the local government aid increase for the city under ~~subdivision 3.~~ The equalization aid increase under this section is limited to 15 12 percent of the total local government aid the city received in 1989 under this section in the prior year. The aid under this section cannot be less than zero. For the purposes of this subdivision, "levy" includes a city's levy on fiscal disparities distribution under section 473F.08, subdivision 3, paragraph (a).

If the amount allocated under section 477A.03, subdivision 1, is insufficient to pay the aid amounts calculated under this subdivision, the commissioner of revenue shall first proportionately reduce the equalization aid increase for each city so that the sum of the equalization aid amounts paid under this subdivision equals the amount allocated in section 477A.03, subdivision 1. If the equalization aid increase is reduced to zero and the amount allocated under section 477A.03, subdivision 1, is still insufficient to pay the aid amounts under this subdivision, the remaining amount of equalization aid for each city will be reduced proportionately so that the sum of the aid paid under this subdivision equals the amount allocated in section 477A.03, subdivision 1.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 477A.013, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [1990 CITY AID ADJUSTMENT.] For cities only in calendar year 1990, there shall be an amount, equal to the product of a city's revenue base and the reduction percentage, subtracted from the aid amounts computed under subdivisions 3, 5, and 6. The subtraction will be made first from the local government aid computed under subdivisions 3 and 6. If the subtraction amount under this subdivision is greater than the local government aid computed under subdivisions 3 and 6, the remaining amount will be subtracted from the equalization aid computed under subdivisions 5 and 6. The resulting amounts shall be the city's local government aid and equalization aid for calendar year 1990. The local government aid and equalization aid amount for any city cannot be less than zero. If the subtraction amount under this section is greater than the aid amount for any city computed under subdivisions 3, 5, and 6, the remaining amount shall be subtracted next from the city's homestead and agricultural credit aid under section 273.1398, subdivision 2, and then, if necessary, from the city's disparity reduction aid under section 273.1398, subdivision 3.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 477A.03, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ANNUAL APPROPRIATION.] A sum sufficient to discharge the duties imposed by sections 477A.011 to 477A.014 is annually appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of revenue. For aids payable in 1991 and thereafter, the total amount of equalization aid paid under section 477A.013, subdivision 5, is limited to $19,485,684.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 477A.11, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. "Other natural resources land" means:

(1) any other land presently owned in fee title by the state and administered by the commissioner, or any tax-forfeited land, other than platted lots within a city, which is owned by the state and administered by the commissioner or by the county in which it is located; and

(2) land leased by the state from the United States of America through the United States Secretary of Agriculture pursuant to Title III of the Bankhead Jones Farm Tenant Act, which land is commonly referred to as land utilization project land that is administered by the commissioner.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 477A.13, is amended to read:

477A.13 [TIME OF PAYMENT, DEDUCTIONS.]

Payments to the counties shall be made from the general fund during the month of July of the year next following certification. There shall be deducted from amounts paid any amounts paid to a county or township during the preceding year pursuant to sections 89.036, 97A.061, subdivisions 1 and 2, and 272.68, subdivision 3 with respect to the lands certified pursuant to section 477A.12.

~~Payments under section 477A.12 must also be reduced by the following percentages of the amounts paid during the preceding year under section 84A.51:~~

- (1) ~~for the payment made July 15, 1984, 75 percent;~~
- (2) ~~for the payment made July 15, 1985, 50 percent;~~
- (3) ~~for the payment made July 15, 1986, 25 percent; and~~
- (4) ~~for the payment made thereafter, 0 percent.~~

Sec. 18. [SPECIAL TAXING DISTRICTS; HOMESTEAD AND AGRICULTURAL CREDIT AID REDUCTION.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] This section applies only to special taxing districts receiving payments of homestead and agricultural credit aid for taxes payable in 1990 of $150,000 or more. The section applies only to the homestead and agricultural aid payments for taxes payable in 1990.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given.

(a) "Budget" means the budget adopted by the special taxing district to determine its levy for property taxes payable in 1990. It includes changes in the budget formally adopted by the governing body of the district before March 15, 1990.

(b) "General fund" means the general fund or equivalent current operating fund of the special taxing district. It does not include a separate fund to pay for capital improvements and equipment or other capital costs.

(c) "Projected unreserved fund balance" means for the district's general fund the sum of the balance at the end of 1989 and the projected revenues for 1990 in its budget, less the budgeted amount of current, general fund expenditures for 1990. Current expenditures include budgeted payments to other public agencies or entities for their operations to the extent that the source of the payment is derived 25 percent or more from the district's property tax levy. Federal aid or other nonproperty tax revenues (other than homestead and agricultural credit aid) must be excluded from computation of the unreserved fund balance, if the revenues are passed through or paid to another entity and the expenditures are also excluded.

(d) "Special taxing district" or "district" means a political subdivision with the authority to levy property taxes, other than a city, county, or school district.

Subd. 3. [REPORTING OF RESERVE FUNDS.] By May 15, 1990, each special taxing district must report to the commissioner of revenue the following amounts: (1) its projected unreserved fund balance, (2) the revenues to be derived from its property tax levy and homestead and agricultural credit aid for taxes payable in 1990, and (3) the general fund expenditures authorized by its budget for 1990.

Subd. 4. [REDUCTION IN AID PAYMENTS.] The commissioner shall reduce the homestead and agricultural credit aid payments in calendar year 1990 to the district by the amount of the excess of the projected unreserved fund balance, over the greater of (1) 50 percent of its levy before reduction for homestead and agricultural credit aid and disparity reduction aid or (2) 20 percent of its general fund expenditures authorized by its 1990 budget. If the commissioner calculates that the sum of the reductions under this subdivision for all districts exceeds $4,000,000, the commissioner shall proportionately reduce the amount for each district so that the total reduction is $4,000,000.

Sec. 19. [FURTHER REDUCTIONS IN AIDS AND CREDITS.]

If the total of the reductions in aids and credits under this article and article 5 for fiscal year 1993 is not at least $175,000,000, the commissioner of revenue shall further reduce state aids payable to cities, counties, and special taxing districts by an amount that, when added to the other reductions of aids and credits under this article, will equal $175,000,000. Reductions under this section will be made in the manner provided in sections 3, 11, and 14.

Sec. 20. [LEVY USE FOR REDUCTIONS.]

If the 1990 abstract of tax lists for a county, city, or special taxing district has not been received by the commissioner of revenue by June 15, 1990, the commissioner may use the final levy certified in the report filed under section 275.07, subdivision 4, as a basis for the reduction under section 3, 11, or 14.

Sec. 21. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 273.1398, subdivision 2b, is repealed.

Sec. 22. [EFFECTIVE DATES.]

Sections 1, 3, 8, 9, 11, 14, 18, and 20 are effective for aids payable in calendar year 1990 and thereafter. Sections 2, 4, 5, 7, 10, 12, 13, 15, and 17 are effective for aids payable in calendar year 1991 and thereafter. Sections 19 and 21 are effective for aids payable in calendar year 1992 and thereafter. That part of section 6 striking a reference to cities of the first class is effective for aids paid in calendar year 1991 and thereafter. The rest of section 6 is effective for aids paid in calendar year 1990 and thereafter. Section 16 is effective July 1, 1990, and applies to payments due on or after that date.

ARTICLE 5

PROPERTY TAX REFUNDS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290A.03, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [RENT CONSTITUTING PROPERTY TAXES.] "Rent constituting property taxes" means the amount of gross rent actually paid in cash, or its equivalent, which is attributable (a) to the property tax paid on the unit or (b) to the amount paid in lieu of property taxes, in any calendar year by a claimant for the right of occupancy of the claimant's Minnesota homestead in the calendar year, and which rent constitutes the basis, in the succeeding calendar year of a claim for relief under this chapter by the claimant. The amount of rent attributable to property taxes paid or payments in lieu made on the unit shall be determined by multiplying the net tax on the property where gross rent paid by the claimant for the calendar year for the unit is located by a fraction, the numerator of which is the gross rent paid by the claimant for the calendar year for net tax on the property where the unit is located and the denominator of which is the gross rent paid for the calendar year for the property in which the unit is located total scheduled rent. In no case may the rent constituting property taxes exceed 50 percent of the gross rent paid by the claimant during that calendar year. In the case of a claimant who resides in a unit for which (1) a rent subsidy is paid to, or for, the claimant based on the income of the claimant or the claimant's family, or (2) a subsidy is paid to a public housing authority that owns or operates the claimant's rental unit, pursuant to United States Code, title 42, section 1437c, 20 percent of gross rent actually paid in cash or its equivalent shall be the claimant's "rent constituting property taxes paid." For purposes of this subdivision, "rent subsidy" does not include any housing assistance received under aid to families with dependent children, general assistance, Minnesota supplemental assistance, supplemental security income, or similar income maintenance programs.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290A.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 12a. [TOTAL SCHEDULED RENT.] "Total scheduled rent" means the sum of the monthly rents assigned to the residential rental units in the property multiplied by 12. The assigned rents are the rents effective on May 3 for taxes payable in 1990 and April 15 for taxes payable in 1991 and thereafter. The rents must be an arm's-length rental, including garage rents if any, but not including charges for medical services furnished by the landlord as a part of the rental agreement. In determining total scheduled rent, no deduction is allowed for vacant units, uncollected rent, or reduced cash rents in units occupied by employees or agents of the owner.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 290A.04, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [RENTERS.] A claimant whose rent constituting property taxes exceeds the percentage of the household income stated below must pay an amount equal to the percent of income shown for the appropriate household income level along with the percent to be paid by the claimant of the remaining amount of rent constituting property taxes. The state refund equals the amount of rent constituting property taxes that remain, up to the maximum state refund amount shown below.

Household Income	Percent of Income	Percent Paid by Claimant	Maximum State Refund
$0 to 999	1.0 percent	9 percent	$1,000
1,000 to 1,999	1.1 1.0 percent	9 percent	$1,000
2,000 to 2,999	1.2 1.0 percent	10 percent	$1,000
3,000 to 3,999	1.3 1.0 percent	10 percent	$1,000

4,000 to 4,999	1.4	1.1 percent	11 percent	$1,000
5,000 to 5,999	1.5	1.2 percent	12 percent	$1,000
6,000 to 6,999	1.5	1.2 percent	13 percent	$1,000
7,000 to 7,999	1.6	1.3 percent	14 percent	$1,000
8,000 to 8,999	1.6	1.3 percent	15 percent	$1,000
9,000 to 9,999	1.7	1.4 percent	16 percent	$1,000
10,000 to 10,999	1.7	1.4 percent	17 percent	$1,000
11,000 to 11,999	1.8	1.5 percent	19 percent	$1,000
12,000 to 12,999	1.8	1.5 percent	21 percent	$1,000
13,000 to 13,999	1.9	1.6 percent	23 percent	$1,000
14,000 to 14,999	2.0	1.7 percent	24 percent	$1,000
15,000 to 15,999	2.0	1.8 percent	26 percent	$1,000
16,000 to 16,999	2.1	1.8 percent	27 percent	$1,000
17,000 to 17,999	2.2	1.9 percent	28 percent	$1,000
18,000 to 18,999	2.3	2.0 percent	30 percent	$1,000
19,000 to 19,999	2.5	2.2 percent	32 percent	$1,000
20,000 to 20,999	2.7	2.4 percent	34 percent	$1,000
21,000 to 21,999	2.9	2.6 percent	36 percent	$1,000
22,000 to 22,999	3.0	2.7 percent	37 percent	$1,000
23,000 to 23,999	3.1	2.8 percent	38 percent	$1,000
24,000 to 24,999	3.2	2.9 percent	40 percent	$1,000
25,000 to 25,999	3.3	3.0 percent	43 percent	$1,000
26,000 to 26,999	3.4	3.1 percent	43 percent	$1,000
27,000 to 27,999	3.5	3.2 percent	45 percent	$1,000
28,000 to 28,999	3.6	3.3 percent	47 percent	$ 900
29,000 to 29,999	3.7	3.4 percent	47 percent	$ 800
30,000 to 30,999	3.8	3.5 percent	48 percent	$ 700
31,000 to 31,999	3.9	3.5 percent	48 percent	$ 600
32,000 to 32,999	4.0	3.5 percent	50 percent	$ 500
33,000 to 33,999	4.0	3.5 percent	50 percent	$ 300
34,000 to 34,999	4.0	3.5 percent	50 percent	$ 100

The payment made to a claimant is the amount of the state refund calculated under this subdivision. No payment is allowed if the claimant's household income is $35,000 or more.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 290A.04, subdivision 2h, is amended to read:

Subd. 2h. (a) If the gross property taxes payable on a homestead increase more than ten percent over the net property taxes payable in the prior year on the same property that is owned by the same owner in both years, and the amount of that increase is $40 or more for taxes payable in 1990 and 1991, $60 or more for taxes payable in 1992, $80 or more for taxes payable in 1993, and $100 or more for taxes payable in 1994, a claimant who is a homeowner shall be allowed an additional refund equal to the sum of (1) 75 percent of the first $250 of the amount of the increase over ten percent for taxes payable in 1990 and 1991, 75 percent of the first $275 of the amount of the increase over ten percent for taxes payable in 1992, 75 percent of the first $300 of the amount of the increase over ten percent for taxes payable in 1993, and 75 percent of the first $325 of the amount of the increase over ten percent for taxes payable in 1994, and (2) 90 percent of the amount of the increase over ten percent plus $250 for taxes payable in 1990 and 1991, 90 percent of the amount of the increase over ten percent plus $275 for taxes payable in 1992, 90 percent of the amount of the increase over ten percent plus $300 for taxes payable in 1993, and 90 percent of the amount of the increase over ten percent plus $325 for taxes payable in 1994. This subdivision shall not apply to any increase in the net property taxes payable attributable to improvements made to the homestead.

(b) For purposes of this subdivision, the following terms have the meanings given:

(1) "Net property taxes payable" means property taxes payable after reductions made under sections 273.13, subdivisions 22 and 23; 273.132; 273.135; 273.1391; and 273.42, subdivision 2, and any other state paid property tax credits and after the deduction of tax refund amounts for which the claimant qualifies pursuant to subdivision 2 and this subdivision.

(2) "Gross property taxes" means net property taxes payable determined without regard to the refund allowed under this subdivision.

(c) In addition to the other proofs required by this chapter, each claimant under this subdivision shall file with the property tax refund return a copy of the property tax statement for taxes payable in the preceding year or other documents required by the commissioner.

On or before December 1, 1990, and December 1 of each of the following three years, the commissioner shall estimate the cost of making the payments provided by this subdivision for taxes payable in the following year. Notwithstanding the open appropriation provision of section 290A.23, if the estimated total refund claims exceed the following amounts for the taxes payable year designated, the commissioner shall ~~decrease the percentages of the excess taxes the state will pay and~~ increase the dollar amount of tax increase which must occur before a taxpayer qualifies for a refund so that the estimated total refund claims do not exceed the appropriation limit.

Taxes payable in:	Appropriation limit
1991	$7,000,000 $13,000,000
1992	$6,500,000
1993	$6,000,000
1994	$5,500,000

The commissioner shall make the adjustments so that half of the estimated savings come from decreasing the percentages of the excess taxes the state will pay and half of the estimated savings come from increasing the dollar amount of the tax increase which must occur before a taxpayer qualifies for a refund. The determinations of the revised percentages and thresholds by the commissioner are not rules subject to chapter 14.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 290A.04, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [COMBINED RENTER AND HOMEOWNER REFUND.] In the case of a claimant who is entitled to a refund in a calendar year for claims based both on rent constituting property taxes and property taxes payable, the refund allowable equals the sum of the refunds allowable, except that the sum may not exceed the higher of the maximum refund payable either based on rent constituting property taxes or property taxes payable.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290A.19, is amended to read:

290A.19 [OWNER OR MANAGING AGENT TO FURNISH RENT CERTIFICATE; PENALTY.]

(a) The owner or managing agent of any property for which rent is paid for occupancy as a homestead shall furnish a certificate of rent constituting property tax to each person who is a renter on December 31, in the form prescribed by the commissioner. If the renter moves prior to December 31, the owner or managing agent has the option to either provide the certificate to the renter at the time of moving, or mail the certificate to the forwarding address if an address has been provided by the renter. The certificate shall be made available to the renter not later than January 31 of the year following the year in which the rent was paid. The owner or managing agent must retain a duplicate of each certificate or an equivalent record showing the same information for a period of three years. The duplicate or other record must be made available to the commissioner upon request.

(b) Any owner or managing agent who willfully fails to furnish a certificate to the renter and the commissioner as required by this section is liable to the commissioner for a penalty of $100 for each act or failure to act. The penalty shall be assessed and collected in the manner provided in chapter 290 for the assessment and collection of income tax. If the owner or managing agent willfully furnishes certificates that report total rent constituting property taxes in excess of the amount of actual property taxes paid on the rented part of a property, as determined under this section, the owner or managing agent is liable for a penalty equal to the greater of (1) $100 or (2) 50 percent of the excess that is reported. If the owner or managing agent reports a total amount of rent constituting property taxes that exceeds by ten percent or more the actual property taxes, the report is deemed to be willful.

(c) If the owner or managing agent elects to provide the renter with the certificate at the time of moving, rather than after December 31, the amount of rent constituting property taxes shall be computed as follows:

(i) The net tax shall be reduced by $\frac{1}{12}$ for each month remaining in the calendar year.

(ii) In calculating the denominator of the fraction pursuant to section 290A.03, subdivision 11, the gross rent paid through the last month of claimant's occupancy shall be substituted for "the gross rent paid for the calendar year for the property in which the unit is located."

(d) The certificate of rent constituting property taxes shall include the address of the property, including the county, and the property tax parcel identification number and any additional information which the commissioner determines is appropriate.

(e) (d) If the owner or managing agent fails to provide the renter with a certificate of rent constituting property taxes, the commissioner shall allocate the net tax on the building to the unit on a square footage basis or other appropriate basis as the commissioner determines. The renter shall supply the commissioner with a statement from the county treasurer which gives the amount of property tax on the parcel, the address and property tax parcel identification number of the property, and the number of units in the building.

(f) The owner or managing agent must file a copy of the certificate of rent paid with the commissioner before April 15 of the year following the year in which the rent was paid. The commissioner may require that (e) By June 30, for taxes payable in 1990 and May 30 for taxes payable in 1991 and thereafter, each owner or managing agent shall report to the commissioner on a single form prescribed by the commissioner the total property taxes for a net tax pertaining to the rental residential part of the property and the allocation of the property taxes as rent constituting property taxes among the renters of the property, the total scheduled rent, and the fraction computed under section 290A.03, subdivision 11. A copy of the property tax statement for taxes payable in that year must be attached.

Sec. 7. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 290A.045, is repealed.

Sec. 8. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 3, and 6 are effective the day following final enactment for claims based on rent paid in 1990 and thereafter. Section 4 is effective for property taxes payable in 1991 and thereafter. Section 5 is effective for claims based on rent paid in 1990 and thereafter, and property taxes payable in 1991 and thereafter. Section 7 is effective the day following final enactment and applies to taxes payable in 1990 and 1991.

ARTICLE 6

SALES AND LODGING TAXES

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297A.01, subdivision 15, is amended to read:

Subd. 15. "Farm machinery" means new or used machinery, equipment, implements, accessories, and contrivances used directly and principally in the production for sale, but not including the processing, of livestock, dairy animals, dairy products, poultry and poultry products, fruits, vegetables, forage, grains and bees and apiary products. "Farm machinery" includes

(1) machinery for the preparation, seeding or cultivation of soil for growing agricultural crops and sod, harvesting and threshing of agricultural products, harvesting or mowing of sod, and certain machinery for dairy, livestock and poultry farms;

(2) barn cleaners, milking systems, grain dryers, automatic feeding systems and similar installations, whether or not the equipment is installed by the seller and becomes part of the real property;

(3) irrigation equipment sold for exclusively agricultural use, including pumps, pipe fittings, valves, sprinklers and other equipment necessary to the operation of an irrigation system when sold as part of an irrigation system, except irrigation equipment which is situated below ground and considered to be a part of the real property; and

(4) logging equipment, including chain saws used for commercial logging only if the engine displacement equals or exceeds five cubic inches; and

(5) primary and backup generator units used to generate electricity for the purpose of operating farm machinery, as defined in this subdivision, or providing light or space heating necessary for the production of livestock, dairy animals, dairy products, or poultry and poultry products.

Repair or replacement parts for farm machinery shall not be included in the definition of farm machinery.

Tools, shop equipment, grain bins, feed bunks, fencing material, communication equipment and other farm supplies shall not be considered to be farm machinery. "Farm machinery" does not include motor vehicles taxed under chapter 297B, snowmobiles, snow blowers, lawn mowers except those used in the production of sod for sale, garden-type tractors or garden tillers and the repair and replacement parts for those vehicles and machines.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297A.01, subdivision 16, is amended to read:

Subd. 16. [CAPITAL EQUIPMENT.] Capital equipment means machinery and equipment and the materials and supplies necessary to construct or install the machinery or equipment. To qualify under this definition the capital equipment must be used by the purchaser or lessee for manufacturing, fabricating, mining, quarrying, or refining a product to be sold at retail and must be used for the establishment of a new or the physical expansion of an existing manufacturing, fabricating, mining, quarrying, or refining facility in the state. For purposes of this subdivision, "mining" includes peat mining. Capital equipment does not include (1) machinery or equipment purchased or leased to replace machinery or equipment performing substantially the same function in an existing facility, (2) repair or replacement parts, or (3) machinery or equipment used to extract, receive, or store raw materials.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297A.25, subdivision 36, is amended to read:

Subd. 36. [~~INCOMING, INTERSTATE WATS LINES.~~] The gross receipts from the sale of long distance telephone services are exempt, if the service (1) consists of a wide area telephone line that permits a long distance call to an individual or business located in Minnesota to be made from a location outside of Minnesota at no toll charge to the person placing the call; or (2) entitles a customer, upon payment of a periodic charge that is determined either as a flat amount or upon the basis of total elapsed transmission time, to the privilege of an unlimited number of long distance calls made from a location in Minnesota to a location outside of Minnesota if the customer is a qualified provider of telemarketing services. As used in this subdivision, a "qualified provider of telemarketing services" is a telemarketing firm that derives at least 80 percent of its revenues from one or more of the following activities: soliciting or providing information, soliciting sales or receiving orders, and conducting research by means of telegraph, telephone, computer data base, fiber optic, microwave, or other communication system.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297A.25, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 44. [SHIPS USED IN INTERSTATE COMMERCE.] The gross receipts from sales of repair, replacement, and rebuilding parts and materials, and lubricants, for ships or vessels used or to be used principally in interstate or foreign commerce are exempt.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297A.25, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 45. [SUPERCOMPUTING COMPLEX.] The gross receipts from the sales, lease, license to use or consume, or other transfer of title or possession, or both, whether absolutely or conditionally, and from the storage, use, or consumption, of items comprising a supercomputing complex, are exempt where the purchaser, lessee, licensee, or other user is a corporation all of whose shares are owned in part by the Regents of the University of Minnesota and in part by the University of Minnesota Foundation, an organization exempt from federal taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1989. For this purpose, a supercomputing complex means a multi-user mainframe system having at least 12 linked processors, memory of at least five billion characters, high-speed interconnectivity, disk storage of at least 60 billion characters, and related system and application software, intended for numerically intensive computing. A supercomputing complex includes, but is not limited to, the mainframe computers, associated software, processor controllers, power and coolant units, communications devices, workstations terminals, display stations, disk drives, and tape drives.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 469.190, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZATION.] Notwithstanding section 477A.016 or any other law, a statutory or home rule charter city may by ordinance, and a town may by the affirmative vote of the electors at the annual town meeting, or at a special town meeting, impose a tax of up to ~~six~~ three percent on the gross receipts from the furnishing for consideration of lodging at a hotel, motel, rooming house, tourist court, or resort, other than the renting or leasing of it for a continuous period of 30 days or more. A statutory or home rule charter city may by ordinance impose the tax authorized under this subdivision on the camping site receipts of a municipal campground.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 469.190, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXISTING TAXES.] No statutory or home rule charter city or town may impose a tax under this section upon transient lodging that, when combined with any tax authorized by special law or enacted prior to 1972, exceeds a rate of ~~six~~ three percent.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 469.190, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DISPOSITION OF PROCEEDS.] Ninety-five percent of the gross proceeds from the ~~first three percent~~ of any tax imposed under subdivision 1 shall be used by the statutory or home rule charter city or town to fund a local convention or tourism bureau for the purpose of marketing and promoting the city or town as a tourist or convention center. This subdivision shall not apply to any statutory or home rule charter city or town that has a lodging tax authorized by special law or enacted prior to 1972 at the time of enactment of this section.

Sec. 9. [BLOOMINGTON LODGING TAX.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZATION.] Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 469.190, 477A.016, or other law, in addition to the tax authorized in Laws 1986, chapter 391, section 4, the governing body of the city of Bloomington may impose a tax of up to one percent on the gross receipts from the furnishing for consideration of lodging at a hotel, motel, rooming house, tourist court, or resort, other than the renting or leasing of it for a continuous period of 30 days or more, located in the city. The city may agree with the commissioner of revenue that a tax imposed under this section shall be collected by the commissioner together with the tax imposed by Minnesota Statutes, chapter 297A, and subject to the same interest, penalties, and other rules and that its proceeds, less the cost of collection, shall be remitted to the city. The proceeds of the tax must be used to promote the metropolitan sports area defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 473.551, subdivision 5.

Subd. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.] This section is effective the day after the filing of a certificate of local approval by the governing body of the city of Bloomington in compliance with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3.

Sec. 10. [ROSEVILLE LODGING TAX.]

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 477A.016, or other law, in addition to a tax authorized in Minnesota Statutes, section 469.190, the governing body of the city of Roseville may impose a tax of up to two percent on the gross receipts from the furnishing for consideration of lodging at a hotel, motel, rooming house, tourist court, or resort, other than the renting or leasing of it for a continuous period of 30 days or more, located in the city. The city may agree with the commissioner of revenue that a tax imposed under this section shall be collected by the commissioner together with the tax imposed by Minnesota Statutes, chapter 297A, and subject to the same interest, penalties, and other rules and that its proceeds, less the cost of collection, shall be remitted to the city. The proceeds of the tax shall be dedicated to and used to pay the costs of the construction, debt service, operation, and maintenance of a public multiuse speed skating/bandy facility within the city to the extent the costs exceed any revenues derived from the lease, rental, or operation of the facility.

Sec. 11. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 3 are effective for sales after June 30, 1990.

Section 4 is effective for sales after December 31, 1983. The provisions of Minnesota Statutes, section 297A.35, apply to refunds claimed under section 4.

Section 5 is effective for transactions occurring on or after December 1, 1989.

Sections 6 to 8 are effective February 1, 1990. Any tax increase adopted by action of a city council after February 1, 1990, under Minnesota Statutes, section 469.190, that results in a tax rate that exceeds three percent is ineffective the day following final enactment of this act.

Section 9 is effective the day following final enactment.

Section 10 is effective the day following final enactment, but only if the legislature authorizes the issuance of bonds for the construction of the facility during its 1990 session.

ARTICLE 7

TAX INCREMENT FINANCING

Section 1. [273:1399] [REDUCTION IN STATE TAX INCREMENT FINANCING AID PAYMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given.

(a) "Qualifying captured tax capacity" means the following amounts:

(1) the captured tax capacity of an economic development or soils condition tax increment financing district for which certification was requested after April 30, 1990; and

(2) the captured tax capacity of a tax increment financing district, other than an economic development or soils condition district, for which certification was requested after April 30, 1990, multiplied by the following percentage based on the number of years that have elapsed since the district was first certified (measured from January 2 immediately preceding certification of the original tax capacity). In no case may the final amounts be less than zero or greater than the total captured tax capacity of the district.

Number of years	Renewal and Renovation Districts	All other Districts
0 to 5	0	0
6	12.5	6.25
7	25	12.5
8	37.5	18.75
9	50	25
10	62.5	31.25
11	75	37.5
12	87.5	43.75
13	100	50
14	100	56.25
15	100	62.5
16	100	68.75
17	100	75
18	100	81.25
19	100	87.5
20	100	93.75
21 or more	100	100

In the case of a hazardous substance subdistrict, the number of years must be measured from the date of certification of the subdistrict for purposes of the additional captured tax capacity resulting from the reduction in the subdistrict's or site's original tax capacity.

(b) The terms defined in section 469.174 have the meanings given in that section.

Subd. 2. [REPORTING.] The county auditor shall calculate the qualifying captured tax capacity amount for each municipal part of each school district in the county and report the amounts to the commissioner of revenue at the time and in the manner prescribed by the commissioner.

Subd. 3. [CALCULATION OF EDUCATION AIDS.] For each school district containing qualifying captured tax capacity, the commissioner of education shall compute a hypothetical state aid amount that would be paid to the school district if the qualifying captured tax capacity were divided by the sales ratio and included in the school district's adjusted tax capacity for purposes of calculating state aids. The commissioner of education shall notify the commissioner of revenue of the difference between the actual aid paid and the hypothetical aid amounts calculated for each school district, broken down by the municipality that approved the tax increment financing district containing the qualifying captured tax capacity. The resulting amount is the reduction in state tax increment financing aid.

Subd. 4. [EQUALIZATION FACTOR.] The amount of the reduction in state tax increment financing aid equals the amount determined under subdivision 3 less

(1) seventy-five percent of the excess, if any, of the amount determined under subdivision 3, over

(2) .05 times the municipality's tax capacity, divided by the sales ratio.

Subd. 5. [LOCAL GOVERNMENT AIDS; HOMESTEAD AND AGRICULTURAL AID CALCULATIONS.] (a) The reduction in state tax increment financing aid for a municipality must be deducted first from the local government aids to be paid to the municipality. If the deduction exceeds the amount of the local government aid, the rest must be deducted from the homestead and agricultural credit aid to be paid to the municipality.

(b) The amount of qualifying captured tax capacity must be included in adjusted tax capacity for purposes of computing the local government aid of the municipality that approved the tax increment financing district.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.043, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [CONTINUATION OF REDEVELOPMENT COMPANY PROVISIONS.] The provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 462.591 to 462.705, shall continue in effect with respect to any redevelopment company project to which a tax exemption had been granted under Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 462.651, prior to August 1, 1987, whether or not the project continues to be owned by a redevelopment company, provided that if the project is not owned by a redevelopment company or governmental unit, the exemption shall not be available during any period when the earnings of the owner from the project annually paid to the owner or its shareholders for interest, amortization, and dividends exceeds eight percent of invested capital or equity in the project.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.129, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REVENUE BONDS.] A city may authorize, issue, and sell revenue bonds under section 469.178, subdivision 4, to refund the principal of and interest on general obligation bonds originally issued to finance a development district, or one or more series of bonds one of which series was originally issued to finance a development district, for the purpose of relieving the city of restrictions on the application of tax increments or for other purposes authorized by law. The refunding bonds shall not be subject to the conditions set out in section 475.67, subdivisions 11 and 12. Tax increments received by the city with respect to the district may be used to pay the principal of and interest on the refunding bonds and to pay premiums for insurance or other security guaranteeing the payment of their principal and interest when due. Tax increments may be applied in any manner permitted by section 469.176, subdivisions 2 and 4. Bonds may not be issued under this subdivision after April 30, 1990.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 469.174, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [ORIGINAL NET TAX CAPACITY.] (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), "original net tax capacity" means the tax capacity of all taxable real property within a tax increment financing district as most recently certified by the commissioner of revenue as of the date of the request by an authority for certification by the county auditor, together with subsequent adjustments as set forth in section 469.177, subdivisions 1 and 4. In determining the original net tax capacity the net tax capacity of real property exempt from taxation at the time of the request shall be zero, except for real property which is tax exempt by reason of public ownership by the requesting authority and which has been publicly owned for less than one year prior to the date of the request for certification, in which event the net tax capacity of the property shall be the net tax capacity as most recently determined by the commissioner of revenue.

(b) The original net tax capacity of any designated hazardous substance site or hazardous substance subdistrict shall be determined as of the date the authority certifies to the county auditor that the ~~agency or municipality~~ authority has entered a redevelopment or other agreement for the removal actions or remedial actions specified in a development response action plan, or otherwise provided funds to finance the development response action plan. The original net tax capacity equals (i) the net tax capacity of the parcel or parcels in the site or subdistrict, as most recently determined by the commissioner of revenue, less (ii) the estimated costs of the removal actions and remedial actions as specified in a development response action plan to be undertaken with respect to the parcel or parcels, (iii) but not less than zero.

(c) The original net tax capacity of a hazardous substance site or subdistrict shall be increased by the amount by which it was reduced pursuant to paragraph (b), clause (ii), upon certification by the municipality that the cost of the removal and remedial actions specified in the development response action plan, except for long-term monitoring and similar activities, have been paid or reimbursed.

(d) For purposes of this subdivision, "real property" shall include any property normally taxable as personal property by reason of its location on or over publicly owned property.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 469.174, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [REDEVELOPMENT DISTRICT.] (a) "Redevelopment district" means a type of tax increment financing district consisting of a project, or portions of a project, within which the authority finds by resolution that one of the following conditions, reasonably distributed throughout the district, exists:

(1) parcels consisting of 70 percent of the area of the district are occupied by buildings, streets, utilities, or other improvements and more than 50 percent of the buildings, not including outbuildings, are structurally substandard to a degree requiring substantial renovation or clearance; or

(2) parcels consisting of 70 percent of the area of the district are occupied by buildings, streets, utilities, or other improvements and 20 percent of the buildings are structurally substandard and an additional 30 percent of the buildings are found to require substantial renovation or clearance in order to remove such existing conditions as: inadequate street layout, incompatible uses or land use relationships, overcrowding of buildings on the land, excessive dwelling unit density, obsolete buildings not suitable for improvement or conversion, or other identified hazards to the health, safety, and general well-being of the community; or

(3) the property consists of vacant, unused, underused, inappropriately used, or infrequently used railyards, rail storage facilities, or excessive or vacated railroad rights-of-way.

(b) For purposes of this subdivision, "structurally substandard" shall mean containing defects in structural elements or a combination of deficiencies in essential utilities and facilities, light and ventilation, fire protection including adequate egress, layout and condition of interior partitions, or similar factors, which defects or deficiencies are of sufficient total significance to justify substantial renovation or clearance.

A building is not structurally substandard if it is in compliance with the building code applicable to new buildings or could be modified to satisfy the building code at a cost of less than 15 percent of the cost of constructing a new structure of the same square footage and type on the site. The municipality may find that a building is not disqualified as structurally substandard under the preceding sentence on the basis of reasonably available evidence, such as the size, type, and age of the building, the average cost of plumbing, electrical, or structural repairs, or other similar reliable evidence. If the evidence supports a reasonable conclusion that the building is not disqualified as structurally substandard, the municipality may make such a determination without an interior inspection or an independent, expert appraisal of the cost of repair and rehabilitation of the building.

(c) For purposes of this subdivision, a parcel is not occupied by buildings, streets, utilities, or other improvements unless 15 percent of the area of the parcel contains improvements.

(d) For districts consisting of two or more noncontiguous areas, each area must qualify as a redevelopment district under paragraph (a), clauses (1) to (3), to be included in the district, and the entire area of the district must satisfy paragraph (a).

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.174, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10a. [RENEWAL AND RENOVATION DISTRICT.] (a) "Renewal and renovation district" means a type of tax increment financing district consisting of a project, or portions of a project, within which the authority finds by resolution that:

(1)(i) parcels consisting of 70 percent of the area of the district are occupied by buildings, streets, utilities, or other improvements; (ii) 20 percent of the buildings are structurally substandard; and (iii) 30 percent of the other buildings require substantial renovation or clearance to remove existing conditions such as: inadequate street layout, incompatible uses or land use relationships, overcrowding of buildings on the land, excessive dwelling unit density, obsolete buildings not suitable for improvement or conversion, or other identified hazards to the health, safety, and general well-being of the community; and

(2) the conditions described in clause (1) are reasonably distributed throughout the geographic area of the district.

(b) For purposes of determining whether a building is structurally substandard, whether parcels are occupied by buildings or other improvements, or whether noncontiguous areas qualify, the provisions of subdivision 10, paragraphs (b), (c), and (d) apply.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.174, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [HOUSING DISTRICT] "Housing district" means a type of tax increment financing district which consists of a project, or a portion of a project, intended for occupancy, in part, by persons or families of low and moderate income, as defined in chapter 462A, Title II of the National Housing Act of 1934, the National Housing Act of 1959, the United States Housing Act of 1937, as amended, Title V of the Housing Act of 1949, as amended, any other similar present or future federal, state, or municipal legislation, or the regulations promulgated under any of those acts. A project does not qualify under this subdivision if the fair market value of the improvements which are constructed for commercial uses or for uses other than low and moderate income housing consists of more than ~~one-third~~ 20 percent of the total fair market value of the planned improvements in the development plan or agreement. The fair market value of the improvements may be determined using the cost of construction, capitalized income, or other appropriate method of estimating market value.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.174, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT DISTRICT.] "Economic development district" means a type of tax increment financing district which consists of any project, or portions of a project, not meeting the requirements found in the definition of redevelopment district, renewal and renovation district, soils condition district, mined underground space development district, or housing district, but which the authority finds to be in the public interest because:

(1) it will discourage commerce, industry, or manufacturing from moving their operations to another state or municipality; or

(2) it will result in increased employment in the municipality state; or

(3) it will result in preservation and enhancement of the tax base of the municipality state.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.174, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 21. [CREDIT ENHANCED BONDS.] "Credit enhanced bonds" means special obligation bonds that are:

(1) payable primarily from tax increments (i) derived from a tax increment financing district within which the activity, as defined in section 469.1763, subdivision 1, financed by at least 75 percent of the bond proceeds is located and (ii) estimated on the date of issuance to be sufficient to pay when due the debt service on the bonds, and

(2) further secured by tax increments (i) derived from one or more tax increment financing districts and (ii) determined by the issuer to be necessary in order to make the marketing of the bonds feasible.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.175, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [INCLUSION OF COUNTY ROAD COSTS.] (a) The county board may require the authority to pay all or a portion of the cost of county road improvements out of increment revenues, if the following conditions occur:

(1) the proposed tax increment financing plan or an amendment to the plan contemplates construction of a development that will, in the judgment of the county, substantially increase the use of county roads requiring construction of road improvements or other road costs; and

(2) ~~the proposed tax increment financing district is a soils condition district; and~~

~~(3) the road improvements or other road costs, are not scheduled for construction within five years under the county capital improvement plan or other formally adopted county plan, and in the opinion of the county, would not reasonably be expected to be needed within the reasonably foreseeable future if the tax increment financing plan were not implemented.~~

(b) If the county elects to use increments to finance the road improvements, the county must notify the authority and municipality within 30 days after receipt of the information on the proposed tax increment district under subdivision 2. The notice must include the estimated cost of the road improvements and schedule for construction and payment of the cost. The authority must include the improvements in the tax increment financing plan. The improvements may be financed with the proceeds of tax increment bonds or the authority and the county may agree that the county will finance the improvements with county funds to be repaid in installments, with or without interest, out of increment revenues. If the cost of the road improvements and other project costs exceed the projected amount of the increment revenues, the county and authority shall negotiate an agreement, modifying the development plan or proposed road improvements that will permit financing of the costs before the tax increment financing plan may be approved.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 469.175, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [MUNICIPALITY APPROVAL.] A county auditor shall not certify the original net tax capacity of a tax increment financing district until the tax increment financing plan proposed for that district has been approved by the municipality in which the district is located. If an authority that proposes to establish a tax increment financing district and the municipality are not the same, the authority shall apply to the municipality in which the district is proposed to be located and shall obtain the approval of its tax increment financing plan by the municipality before the authority may use tax increment financing. The municipality shall approve the tax increment financing plan only after a public hearing thereon after published notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the municipality at least once not less than ten days nor more than 30 days prior to the date of the hearing. The published notice must include a map of the area of the district from which increments may be collected and, if the project area includes additional area, a map of the project area in which the increments may be expended. The hearing may be held before or after the approval or creation of the project or it may be held in conjunction with a hearing to approve the project. Before or at the time of approval of the tax increment financing plan, the municipality shall make the following findings, and shall set forth in writing the reasons and supporting facts for each determination:

(1) that the proposed tax increment financing district is a redevelopment district, a renewal or renovation district, a mined underground space development district, a housing district, a soils condition district, or an economic development district; if the proposed district is a redevelopment district or a renewal or renovation district, the reasons and supporting facts for the determination that the district meets the criteria of section 469.174, subdivision 10, paragraph (a), clauses (1) to (5) and (2), or subdivision 10a, must be retained and made available to the public by the authority until the district has been terminated.

(2) that the proposed development or redevelopment, in the opinion of the municipality, would not reasonably be expected to occur solely through private investment within the reasonably foreseeable future and therefore the use of tax increment financing is deemed necessary.

(3) that the tax increment financing plan conforms to the general plan for the development or redevelopment of the municipality as a whole.

(4) that the tax increment financing plan will afford maximum opportunity, consistent with the sound needs of the municipality as a whole, for the development or redevelopment of the project by private enterprise.

(5) that the municipality elects the method of tax increment computation set forth in section 469.177, subdivision 3, clause (b), if applicable.

When the municipality and the authority are not the same, the municipality shall approve or disapprove the tax increment financing plan within 60 days of submission by the authority, or the plan shall be deemed approved. When the municipality and the authority are not the same, the municipality may not amend or modify a tax increment financing plan except as proposed by the authority pursuant to subdivision 4. Once approved, the determination of the authority to undertake the project through the use of tax increment financing and the resolution of the governing body shall be conclusive of the findings therein and of the public need for the financing.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 469.175, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [MODIFICATION OF PLAN.] (a) A tax increment financing plan may be modified by an authority, provided that any reduction or enlargement of geographic area of the project or tax increment financing district, increase in amount of bonded indebtedness to be incurred, including a determination to capitalize interest on the debt if that determination was not a part of the original plan, or to increase or decrease the amount of interest on the debt to be capitalized, increase in the portion of the captured net tax capacity to be retained by the authority, increase in total estimated tax increment expenditures or designation of additional property to be acquired by the authority shall be approved upon the notice and after the discussion, public hearing, and findings required for approval of the original plan; provided that if an authority changes the type of district from housing, redevelopment, or economic development to another type of district, this change shall not be considered a modification but shall require the authority to follow the procedure set forth in sections 469.174 to 469.179 for adoption of a new plan, including certification of the net tax capacity of the district by the county auditor. If a redevelopment district or a renewal and renovation district is enlarged, the reasons and supporting facts for the determination that the addition to the district meets the criteria of section 469.174, subdivision 10, paragraph (a), clauses (1) to (5) and (2), or subdivision 10a, must be documented. The requirements of this paragraph do not apply if (1) the modification is elimination of parcels from the project or district and (2)(A) the current net tax capacity of the parcels eliminated from the district equals or exceeds the net tax capacity of those parcels in the district's original net tax capacity or (B) the authority agrees that, notwithstanding section 469.177, subdivision 1, the original net tax capacity will be reduced by no more than the current net tax capacity of the parcels eliminated from the district. The authority must notify the county auditor of any modification that reduces or enlarges the geographic area of a district or a project area.

(b) The geographic area of a tax increment financing district may be reduced, but shall not be enlarged after five years following the date of certification of the original net tax capacity by the county auditor or after August 1, 1984, for tax increment financing districts authorized prior to August 1, 1979.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 469.175, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [CREATION OF HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCE SUBDISTRICT; RESPONSE ACTIONS.] (a) An authority which is creating or has created a tax increment financing district may establish within the district a hazardous substance subdistrict upon the notice and after the discussion, public hearing, and findings required for approval of or modification to the original plan. The geographic area of the subdistrict is made up of any parcels in the district designated for inclusion by the municipality or authority that are designated hazardous substance sites, and any additional parcels in the district designated for inclusion that are contiguous to the hazardous substance sites, including parcels that are contiguous to the site except for the interposition of a right-of-way. Before or at the time of approval of the tax increment financing plan or plan modification providing for the creation of the hazardous substance subdistrict, the authority must make the findings under paragraphs (b) to (d), and set forth in writing the reasons and supporting facts for each.

(b) Development or redevelopment of the site, in the opinion of the authority, would not reasonably be expected to occur solely through private investment and tax increment otherwise available, and therefore the hazardous substance district is deemed necessary.

(c) Other parcels that are not designated hazardous substance sites are expected to be developed together with a designated hazardous substance site.

(d) The subdistrict is not larger than, and the period of time during which increments are elected to be received is not longer than, that which is necessary in the opinion of the municipality authority to provide for the additional costs due to the designated hazardous substance site.

(e) Upon request by an authority that has incurred expenses for removal or remedial actions to implement a development response action plan, the attorney general may:

(1) bring a civil action on behalf of the authority to recover the expenses, including administrative costs and litigation expenses, under section 115B.04 or other law; or

(2) assist the authority in bringing an action as described in clause (1), by providing legal and technical advice, intervening in the action, or other appropriate assistance.

The decision to participate in any action to recover expenses is at the discretion of the attorney general.

(f) If the attorney general brings an action as provided in paragraph (e), clause (1), the authority shall certify its reasonable and necessary expenses incurred to implement the development response action plan and shall cooperate with the attorney general as required to effectively pursue the action. The certification by the authority is prima facie evidence that the expenses are reasonable and necessary. The attorney general may deduct litigation expenses incurred by the attorney general from any amounts recovered in an action brought under paragraph (e), clause (1). The authority shall reimburse the attorney general for litigation expenses not recovered in an action under paragraph (e), clause (1), but only from the additional tax increment required to be used as described in section 469.176, subdivision 4e. The authority must reimburse the attorney general for litigation expenses incurred to assist in bringing an action under paragraph (e), clause (2), but only from amounts recovered by the authority in an action or, if the amounts are insufficient, from the additional tax increment required to be used as described in section 469.176, subdivision 4e. All money recovered or paid to the attorney general for litigation expenses under this paragraph shall be paid to the general fund of the state for deposit to the account of the attorney general. For the purposes of this section, "litigation expenses" means attorney fees and costs of discovery and other preparation for litigation.

(g) The authority shall reimburse the pollution control agency for its administrative expenses incurred to review and approve a development action response plan. The authority must reimburse the pollution control agency for expenses incurred for any services rendered to the attorney general to support the attorney general in actions brought or assistance provided under paragraph (e), but only from amounts recovered by the municipality or authority in an action brought under paragraph (e) or from the additional tax increment required to be used as described in section 469.176, subdivision 4e. All money paid to the pollution control agency under this paragraph shall be deposited in the environmental response, compensation and compliance fund.

(h) Actions taken by an authority consistent with a development response action plan are deemed to be authorized response actions for the purpose of section 115B.17, subdivision 12. An authority that takes actions consistent with a development response action plan qualifies for the defenses available under sections 115B.04, subdivision 11, and 115B.05, subdivision 9.

(i) All money recovered by an authority in an action brought under paragraph (e) in excess of the amounts paid to the attorney general and the pollution control agency must be treated as excess increments and be distributed as provided in section 469.176, subdivision 2, clause (4), to the extent the removal and remedial actions were initially financed with increment revenues.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.175, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [PAYMENT OF DEBT SERVICE ON CREDIT ENHANCED BONDS.] A tax increment financing plan may provide for the use of the tax increment to pay, or secure payment of, debt service on credit enhanced bonds issued to finance any project located within the boundaries of the municipality, whether or not the tax increment financing district from which the increment is derived is located within the boundaries of the project.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 469.176, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DURATION OF TAX INCREMENT FINANCING DISTRICTS.] (a) Subject to the limitations contained in paragraphs (b) to (g), any tax increment financing district as to which bonds are outstanding, payment for which the tax increment and other revenues have been pledged, shall remain in existence at least as long as the bonds continue to be outstanding. The municipality may, at the time of approval of the initial tax increment financing plan, provide for a shorter maximum duration limit than specified in paragraphs (b) to (g). The specified limit applies in place of the otherwise applicable limit.

(b) The tax increment pledged to the payment of the bonds and interest thereon may be discharged and the tax increment financing district may be terminated if sufficient funds have been irrevocably deposited in the debt service fund or other escrow account held in trust for all outstanding bonds to provide for the payment of the bonds at maturity or date of redemption and interest thereon to the maturity or redemption date.

(c) For bonds issued pursuant to section 469.178, subdivisions 2 and 3, the full faith and credit and any taxing powers of the municipality or authority shall continue to be pledged to the payment of the bonds until the principal of and interest on the bonds has been paid in full.

(d) No tax increment shall be paid to an authority for a tax increment financing district after three years from the date of certification of the original net tax capacity of the taxable real property in the district by the county auditor or after August 1, 1982, for tax increment financing districts authorized prior to August 1, 1979, unless within the three-year period (1) bonds have been issued pursuant to section 469.178, or in aid of a project pursuant to any other law, except revenue bonds issued pursuant to sections 469.152 to 469.165, prior to August 1, 1979, or (2) the authority has acquired property within the district, or (3) the authority has constructed or caused to be constructed public improvements within the district.

(e) No tax increment shall in any event be paid to the authority ~~from a redevelopment district~~ (1) after 25 years from date of receipt by the authority of the first tax increment, ~~after 25 years from the date of the receipt for a housing district, after 25 years from the date of the receipt for a mined underground space development district, redevelopment district, or housing district,~~ (2) after 15 years after receipt by the authority of the first increment for a renewal and renovation district, (3) after 12 years from approval of the tax increment financing plan for a soils condition district, and (4) after eight years from the date of the receipt, or ten years from approval of the tax increment financing plan, whichever is less, for an economic development district.

For tax increment financing districts created prior to August 1, 1979, no tax increment shall be paid to the authority after April 1, 2001, or the term of a nondefeased bond or obligation outstanding on April 1, 1990, secured by increments from the district or project area, whichever time is greater, provided that in no case will a tax increment be paid to an authority after August 1, 2009, from such a district. If a district's termination date is extended beyond April 1, 2001, because bonds were outstanding on April 1, 1990, with maturities extending beyond April 1, 2001, the following restrictions apply. No increment collected from the district may be expended after April 1, 2001, except to pay or defease (i) bonds issued before April 1, 1990, or (ii) bonds issued to refund the principal of the outstanding bonds and pay associated issuance costs, provided the average maturity of the refunding bonds does not exceed the bonds refunded.

(f) Modification of a tax increment financing plan pursuant to section 469.175, subdivision 4, shall not extend the durational limitations of this subdivision.

(g) If a parcel of a district is part of a designated hazardous substance site or a hazardous substance subdistrict, tax increment may be paid to the authority from the parcel for longer than the period otherwise provided by this subdivision. The extended period for collection of tax increment begins on the date of receipt of the first tax increment from the parcel that is more than any tax increment received from the parcel before the date of the certification under section 469.175, subdivision 7, paragraph (b), and received after the date of certification to the county auditor described in section 469.175, subdivision 7, paragraph (b). The extended period for collection of tax increment is the lesser of: (1) 25 years from the date of commencement of the extended period; or (2) the period necessary to recover the costs of removal actions or remedial actions specified in a development response action plan.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.176, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXCESS TAX INCREMENTS.] (a) In any year in which the tax increment exceeds the amount necessary to pay the costs authorized by the tax increment financing plan, including the amount necessary to cancel any tax levy as provided in section 475.61, subdivision 3, the authority shall use the excess amount to do any of the following: (1) prepay any outstanding bonds, (2) discharge the pledge of tax increment therefor, (3) pay into an escrow account dedicated to the payment of such bond, or (4) return the excess amount to the county auditor who shall distribute the excess amount to the municipality, county, and school district in which the tax increment financing district is located in direct proportion to their respective tax capacity rates. The county auditor must report to the commissioner of education the amount of any excess tax increment distributed to a school district within 30 days of the distribution.

(b) The amounts distributed to a city or county must be deducted from the levy limits of the governmental unit for the following year. In calculating the levy limit base for later years, the amount deducted must be treated as a local government aid payment.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.176, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [LIMITATION ON ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES.] (a) For districts for which certification was requested before August 1, 1979, or after June 30, 1982, no tax increment shall be used to pay any administrative expenses for a project which exceed ten percent of the total tax increment expenditures authorized by the tax increment financing plan or the total tax increment expenditures for the project, whichever is less.

(b) For districts for which certification was requested after July 31, 1979, and before July 1, 1982, no tax increment shall be used to pay administrative expenses, as defined in Minnesota Statutes 1980, section 273.73, for a project which exceeds five percent of the total tax increment expenditures authorized by the tax increment financing plan or the total tax increment expenditures for the project, whichever is less.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 469.176, subdivision 4c, is amended to read:

Subd. 4c. [ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT DISTRICTS.] (a) Revenue derived from tax increment from an economic development district may not be used to provide improvements, loans, subsidies, grants, interest rate subsidies, or assistance in any form to developments consisting of buildings and ancillary facilities, if at least 25 percent of the buildings and facilities (determined on the basis of square footage) are used for the purposes listed in section 144(a)(8) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (determined without regard to the 25 percent restriction in subparagraph (A)). The restrictions under this paragraph apply only to districts located in a purpose other than:

(1) the manufacturing or production of tangible personal property, including processing resulting in the change in condition of the property;

(2) warehousing, storage, and distribution of property, but excluding retail sales;

(3) research and development or telemarketing if that activity is the exclusive use of the property; or

(4) tourism facilities, if the tourism facility is not located in a development regions region, as defined in section 462.384, with populations a population in excess of 1,000,000.

The percentage of buildings and facilities that may be used for nonqualifying purposes is increased above ten percent, but not over 25 percent, to the extent the nonqualifying square footage is directly related to and in support of the qualifying activity.

(b) Population must be determined under the provisions of section 477A.011. Tourism facilities are limited to hotel and motel properties, including ancillary restaurants, convention and meeting facilities, amusement parks, recreation facilities, cultural facilities, marinas, and parks. The city must find that the tourism facilities are intended primarily to serve individuals outside of the development region.

(c) If the authority financed the construction of improvements with increment revenues for a site on which the authority expected qualifying facilities to be constructed and nonqualified property was constructed on the site in excess of the amount permitted under paragraph (a) within five years after the district was created, the developer of the nonqualified property must pay to the authority an amount equal to 90 percent of the benefit resulting from the improvements. The amount required to be paid may not exceed the proportionate cost of the improvements, including capitalized interest, that was financed with increment revenues. The payment must be used to prepay or discharge bonds under section 469.176, subdivision 2, paragraph (a), clauses (1) to (3). If no bonds are outstanding, the payment shall be distributed as an excess increment. "Benefit" has the meaning given in chapter 429.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of this subdivision, revenue derived from tax increment from an economic development district may be used to provide improvements, loans, subsidies, grants, interest rate subsidies, or assistance in any form for up to 5,000 square feet of commercial and retail facilities within the municipal jurisdiction of a home rule charter or statutory city that has a population of 5,000 or less. The 5,000 square feet limitation is cumulative and applies to all facilities in all the economic development districts within the municipal jurisdiction.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 469.176, subdivision 4j, is amended to read:

Subd. 4j. [REDEVELOPMENT DISTRICTS.] At least 90 percent of the revenues derived from tax increments from a redevelopment district or renewal and renovation district must be used to finance the cost of correcting conditions that allow designation of redevelopment and renewal and renovation districts under section 469.174, subdivision 10. These costs include acquiring properties containing structurally substandard buildings or improvements, acquiring adjacent parcels necessary to provide a site of sufficient size to permit development, demolition of structures, clearing of the land, and installation of utilities, roads, sidewalks, and parking facilities for the site. The allocated administrative expenses of the authority may be included in the qualifying costs.

Sec. 20. [469.1762] [ARBITRATION OF DISPUTES OVER COUNTY COSTS.]

If the county and the authority or municipality are unable to agree on either (1) the need for or cost of road improvements under section 469.175, subdivision 1a, or (2) the amount of county administrative costs under section 469.176, subdivision 4h, and the county or municipality demands arbitration, the matter must be submitted to binding arbitration in accordance with sections 572.08 to 572.30 and the rules of the American Arbitration Association. Within 30 days after the demand for arbitration, the parties shall each select an arbitrator or agree upon a single arbitrator. If the parties each select an arbitrator, the two arbitrators shall select a third arbitrator within 45 days after the demand for arbitration. Each party shall pay the fees and expenses of the arbitrator it selected and the parties shall share equally the expenses of the third arbitrator or an arbitrator agreed upon mutually by the parties.

Sec. 21. [469.1763] [RESTRICTIONS ON POOLING; FIVE-YEAR LIMIT.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) For purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given.

(b) "Activities" means acquisition of property, clearing of land, site preparation, soils correction, removal of hazardous waste or pollution, installation of utilities, construction of public or private improvements, and other similar activities, but only to the extent that tax increment revenues may be spent for such purposes under other law. Activities do not include allocated administrative expenses, but do include engineering, architectural, and similar costs of the improvements in the district.

(c) "Third party" means an entity other than (1) the person receiving the benefit of assistance financed with tax increments, or (2) the municipality or the development authority or other person substantially under the control of the municipality.

Subd. 2. [EXPENDITURES OUTSIDE DISTRICT.] (a) For each tax increment financing district, an amount equal to at least 75 percent of the revenue derived from tax increments paid by properties in the district must be expended on activities in the district or to pay bonds, to the extent that the proceeds of the bonds were used to finance activities in the district or to pay, or secure payment of, debt service on credit enhanced bonds. Not more than 25 percent of the revenue derived from tax increments paid by properties in the district may be expended, through a development fund or otherwise, on activities outside of the district but within the defined geographic area of the project except to pay, or secure payment of, debt service on credit enhanced bonds. The revenue derived from tax increments for the district that are expended on costs under section 469.176, subdivision 4h, paragraph (b), may be deducted first before calculating the percentages that must be expended within and without the district.

(b) In the case of a housing district, a housing project, as defined in section 469.174, subdivision 11, is an activity in the district.

Subd. 3. [FIVE-YEAR RULE.] (a) Revenues derived from tax increments are considered to have been expended on an activity within the district under subdivision 2 only if one of the following occurs:

(1) before or within five years after certification of the district, the revenues are actually paid to a third party with respect to the activity;

(2) bonds, the proceeds of which must be used to finance the activity, are issued and sold to a third party before or within five years after certification and the revenues are spent to repay the bonds;

(3) binding contracts with a third party are entered into for performance of the activity before or within five years after certification of the district and the revenues are spent under the contractual obligation; or

(4) costs with respect to the activity are paid before or within five years after certification of the district and the revenues are spent to reimburse a party for payment of the costs.

(b) For purposes of this subdivision, bonds include subsequent refunding bonds if one of two tests is met: (1) the proceeds of the original refunded bonds were spent on activities within five years after the district was certified or (2) the original refunded bonds are issued within five years after the district was certified and the proceeds are expended on activities within a reasonable temporary period within the meaning of the use of that term under section 148(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Subd. 4. [USE OF REVENUES FOR DECERTIFICATION.] Beginning with the sixth year following certification of the district, 75 percent of the revenues derived from tax increments paid by properties in the district that remain after the expenditures permitted under subdivision 3 must be used only to pay outstanding bonds, as defined in subdivision 3, paragraph (a), clause (2), and paragraph (b) or contracts, as defined in subdivision 3, paragraph (a), clauses (3) and (4). When the outstanding bonds have been defeased and when sufficient money has been set aside to pay contractual obligations as defined in subdivision 3, paragraph (a), clauses (3) and (4), the district must be decertified and the pledge of tax increment discharged.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.177, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [ASSESSMENT AGREEMENTS.] An authority may, upon entering into a development or redevelopment agreement pursuant to section 469.176, subdivision 5, enter into a written assessment agreement in recordable form with the a developer or redeveloper of property within the tax increment financing district which establishes a minimum market value of the land and completed improvements to be constructed thereon until a specified termination date, which date shall be not later than the date upon which tax increment will no longer be remitted to the authority pursuant to section 469.176, subdivision 1. The assessment agreement shall be presented to the county assessor, or city assessor having the powers of the county assessor, of the jurisdiction in which the tax increment financing district is located. The assessor shall review the plans and specifications for the improvements to be constructed, review the market value previously assigned to the land upon which the improvements are to be constructed and, so long as the minimum market value contained in the assessment agreement appears, in the judgment of the assessor, to be a reasonable estimate, shall execute the following certification upon the agreement:

The undersigned assessor, being legally responsible for the assessment of the above described property upon completion of the improvements to be constructed thereon, hereby certifies that the market value assigned to the land and improvements upon completion shall not be less than $

Upon transfer of title of the land to be developed or redeveloped from the authority to the developer or redeveloper, the assessment agreement, together with a copy of this subdivision, shall be filed for record and recorded in the office of the county recorder or filed in the office of the registrar of titles of the county where the real estate or any part thereof is situated. Upon completion of the improvements by the developer or redeveloper, the assessor shall value the property pursuant to section 273.11, except that the market value assigned thereto shall not be less than the minimum market value contained in the assessment agreement. Nothing herein shall limit the discretion of the assessor to assign a market value to the property in excess of the minimum market value contained in the assessment agreement nor prohibit the developer or redeveloper from seeking, through the exercise of administrative and legal remedies, a reduction in market value for property tax purposes; provided, however, that the developer or redeveloper shall not seek, nor shall the city assessor, the county assessor, the county auditor, any board of review, any board of equalization, the commissioner of revenue, or any court of this state grant a reduction of the market value below the minimum market value contained in the assessment agreement during the term of the agreement filed of record regardless of actual market values which may result from incomplete construction of improvements, destruction, or diminution by any cause, insured or uninsured, except in the case of acquisition or reacquisition of the property by a public entity. Recording or filing of an assessment agreement complying with the terms of this subdivision shall constitute notice of the agreement to any subsequent purchaser or encumbrancer of the land or any part thereof, whether voluntary or involuntary, and shall be binding upon them.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 469.177, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [DISTRIBUTIONS OF EXCESS TAXES ON CAPTURED NET TAX CAPACITY.] (a) If the amount of tax paid on captured net tax capacity exceeds the amount of tax increment, the county auditor shall distribute the excess to the municipality, county, and school district as follows: each governmental unit's share of the excess equals

(1) the total amount of the excess for the tax increment financing district, multiplied by

(2) a fraction, the numerator of which is the current tax capacity rate of the governmental unit less the governmental unit's tax capacity rate for the year the original tax capacity rate for the district was certified (in no case may this amount be less than zero) and the denominator of which is the sum of the numerators for the municipality, county, and school district.

If the entire increase in the tax capacity rate is attributable to a taxing district, other than the municipality, county, or school district, then the excess must be distributed to the municipality, county, and school district in proportion to their respective tax capacity rates.

The school district's tax rate must be divided into the portion of the tax rate attributable (1) to state equalized levies, and (2) unequalized levies. Equalized levies mean the levies identified in section 273.1398, subdivision 2a, and unequalized levies mean the rest of the school district's levies. The calculations under clause (2) must determine the amount of excess taxes attributable to each portion of the school district's tax rate. If one of the portions of the change in the school district tax rate is less than zero and the combined change is greater than zero, the combined rate must be used and all the school district's share of excess taxes allocated to that portion of the tax rate.

(b) The amounts distributed shall be deducted in computing the levy limits of the taxing district for the succeeding taxable year. In the case of a school district, only the proportion of the excess taxes attributable to unequalized levies that are subject to a fixed dollar amount levy limit shall be deducted from the levy limit.

(c) In the case of distributions to a school district that are attributable to state equalized levies, the county auditor shall report amounts distributed to the commissioner of education in the same manner as provided for excess increments under section 469.176, subdivision 2, and the distribution shall be treated as an excess increment for purposes of section 124.214, subdivision 3 be deducted from the school district's state aid payments.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 469.177, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [PAYMENT TO SCHOOL FOR REFERENDUM LEVY.]
(a) The provisions of this subdivision apply to tax increment financing districts and projects for which certification was requested before May 1, 1988, that are located in a school district in which the voters have approved new tax capacity rates or an increase in tax capacity rates after the tax increment financing district was certified.

(b) (1) If there are no outstanding bonds on May 1, 1988, to which increment from the district is pledged, or (2) if the referendum is approved after May 1, 1988, and there are no bonds outstanding at the time the referendum is approved, that were issued before May 1, 1988, or (3) if the referendum increasing the tax capacity rate was approved after the most recent issue of bonds to which increment from the district is pledged. If clause (1) or (2) applies, the authority must annually pay to the school district an amount of increment equal to the increment that is attributable to the increase in the tax capacity rate under the referendum.

(2) If clause (3) applies (1) does not apply, upon approval by a majority vote of the governing body of the municipality and the school board, the authority must pay to the school district an amount of increment equal to the increment that is attributable to the increase in the tax capacity rate under the referendum.

(c) The amounts of these increments may be expended and must be treated by the school district in the same manner as provided for the revenues derived from the referendum levy approved by the voters. The provisions of this subdivision apply to projects for which certification was requested before, on, and after August 1, 1979.

Sec. 25. [469.1771] [VIOLATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [ENFORCEMENT.] (a) The commissioner of revenue shall enforce the provisions of sections 469.174 to 469.179. In addition, the owner of taxable property located in the city, town, school district, or county in which the tax increment financing district is located may bring suit for equitable relief or for damages, as provided in subdivisions 3 and 4, arising out of a failure of a municipality or authority to comply with the provisions of sections 469.174 to 469.179, or related provisions of chapter 469. The prevailing party in a suit filed under the preceding sentence is entitled to costs, including reasonable attorney fees.

(b) The responsibility for financial and compliance auditing of political subdivisions' use of tax increment financing remains with the state auditor. If the state auditor finds evidence that an authority or municipality has violated a provision of the law for which a remedy is provided under this section, the state auditor shall forward the relevant information to the commissioner of revenue. The commissioner of revenue may audit an authority's use of tax increment financing.

Subd. 2. [COLLECTION OF INCREMENT.] If an authority includes or retains a parcel of property in a tax increment financing district that does not qualify for inclusion or retention within the district, the authority must pay to the county auditor an amount of money equal to the increment collected from the property for the year or years. The property must be eliminated from the original and captured tax capacity of the district effective for the current property tax assessment year. This subdivision does not apply to a failure to decertify a district required by the duration limits under section 469.176, subdivision 1.

Subd. 3. [EXPENDITURE OF INCREMENT.] If an authority expends revenues derived from tax increments, including the proceeds of tax increment bonds, (1) for a purpose that is not a permitted project under section 469.176, (2) for a purpose that is not permitted under section 469.176 for the district from which the increment was received, or (3) on activities outside of the geographic area in which the revenues may be expended under this chapter, the authority must pay to the county auditor an amount equal to the expenditures made in violation of the law.

Subd. 4. [LIMITATIONS.] (a) If the increments are pledged to repay bonds that were issued before the lawsuit was filed under this section, the damages under this section may not exceed the greatest of (1) the damages under subdivision 2 or 3, (2) ten percent of the expenditures or revenues derived from increment, or (3) the amount of available revenues after paying debt services due on the bonds.

(b) The court may abate all or part of the amount if it determines the action was taken in good faith and would work an undue hardship on the municipality.

Subd. 5. [DISPOSITION OF PAYMENTS.] If the authority does not have sufficient increments or other available moneys to make a payment required by this section, the municipality that approved the district must use any available moneys to make the payment including the levying of property taxes. Money received by the county auditor under this section must be distributed as excess increments under section 469.176, subdivision 2, paragraph (a), clause (4). No distributions may be made to the municipality that approved the tax increment financing district.

Subd. 6. [APPLICATION.] This section applies to increments collected from tax increment financing districts and projects for which certification was requested before, on, and after August 1, 1979.

Sec. 26. [469.1781] [REQUIRED EXPENDITURES FOR NEIGHBORHOOD REVITALIZATION.]

(a) The provisions of this section apply to a city of the first class if the following conditions are met:

(1) the city refunded bonds and revenues, derived from increment from a district for which certification was requested before August 1, 1979, were pledged to pay the bonds;

(2) the refunding bonds were issued after April 1, 1988, and before April 1, 1990;

(3) the refunded bonds' obligations were due and payable in full by the calendar year 2002 and the refunding bonds' obligations are payable, in whole or part, during the calendar years 2001 through 2009; and

(4) the city had in place during 1989 an ordinance providing for excess increments to be distributed under section 469.176, subdivision 2, paragraph (a), clause (4), and the city modified the ordinance to eliminate all or part of the distributions of excess increments.

(b) For calendar years 1990 through 2001, in each year the city must expend for a neighborhood revitalization program, as established under section 27, an amount of revenues derived from tax increments equal to at least:

(1) the amount of the additional principal and interest payments that would have been due for the year on the refunded bonds, if the bonds had not been refunded; and

(2) the amount of money which would have been distributed as excess increments under the city ordinance had it not been modified.

Sec. 27. [469.1831] [NEIGHBORHOOD REVITALIZATION PROGRAMS; FIRST CLASS CITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given them.

(b) "Neighborhood action plan" means the plan developed with the participation of neighborhood residents under subdivision 6.

(c) "Neighborhood revitalization program" or "program" means the program developed under subdivision 5.

(d) "Neighborhood revitalization program money" or "program money" means the money derived from tax increments required to be expended on the program under section 26, paragraph (b).

Subd. 2. [ESTABLISHMENT.] A city of the first class may establish a neighborhood revitalization program authorizing the expenditure of neighborhood revitalization program money. The activities of a program must preserve and enhance within the neighborhood private and public physical infrastructure, public health and safety, economic vitality, the sense of community, and social benefits.

Subd. 3. [PURPOSES; QUALIFYING COSTS.] (a) A neighborhood revitalization program may provide for expenditure of program money for the following purposes:

(1) to eliminate blighting influences by acquiring and clearing or rehabilitating properties that the city finds have caused or will cause a decline in the value of properties in the area or will increase the probability that properties in the area will be allowed to physically deteriorate;

(2) to assist in the development of industrial properties that provide employment opportunities paying a livable income to the residents of the neighborhood and that will not adversely affect the overall character of the neighborhood;

(3) to rehabilitate, renovate, or replace neighborhood commercial and retail facilities necessary to maintain neighborhood vitality;

(4) to eliminate health hazards through the removal of hazardous waste and pollution and return of land to productive use, if the responsible party is unavailable or unable to pay for the cost;

(5) to rehabilitate existing housing and encourage homeownership;

(6) to construct new housing, where appropriate;

(7) to rehabilitate and construct new low-income, affordable rental housing;

(8) to remove vacant and boarded up houses; and

(9) to rehabilitate or construct public facilities necessary to carry out the purpose of the program.

Subd. 4. [PROGRAM MONEY; DISTRIBUTION AND RESTRICTIONS.] (a) Neighborhood revitalization program money may only be expended in accordance with the program for a purpose listed in subdivision 3 or this subdivision. Program money may not be used in those project areas of the city where private investment is occurring without public sector assistance, except in cases where program money is being used to remove or rehabilitate structurally substandard or obsolete buildings. Revenues derived from tax increments may only be expended for the purposes otherwise permitted by law, except that notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the city must pay at least the following amount of program money, including revenues derived from tax increments: (1) 15 percent to the school district, (2) 7.5 percent to the county, and (3) 7.5 percent for social services. Payment must be made to the county and school district within 15 days after the city receives the distribution of increment revenues, provided that the payment for calendar year 1990 may be made at any time during the year. Payment to the county for social services delivery shall be paid only after approval of program and spending plans under paragraph (b). Payment to the school district for education programs and services shall be paid only after approval of program and spending plans under paragraph (b).

(b) The money distributed to the county in a calendar year must be deducted from the county's levy limit for the following calendar year. In calculating the county's levy limit base for later years, the amount deducted must be treated as a local government aid payment.

The city must notify the commissioner of education of the amount of the payment made to the school district for the year. The commissioner shall deduct from the school district's state education aid payments one-half of the amount received by the school district.

The program money paid to the school district must be expended for additional education programs and services in accordance with the program. The amounts expended by the school district may not replace existing services.

The money for social services must be paid to the county for the cost of the provision of social services under the plan, as approved by the policy board and the county board.

(c) The city must expend on housing programs and related purposes as provided by the program at least 75 percent of the program money, after deducting the payments to the school district and county.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the contrary, for a city of the first class qualifying under section 469.1781, paragraph (a), program money may be expended anywhere within the city by the authority for a purpose permitted by this section for any political subdivision.

Subd. 5. [NEIGHBORHOOD REVITALIZATION PROGRAM; CONTENTS.] (a) The neighborhood revitalization program must be developed based on the following general principles:

(1) the social needs of neighborhood residents, particularly lower income residents, must be addressed to provide a safe and healthy environment for neighborhood residents, provide for the self-sufficiency of families, and increase the economic and social stability of neighborhoods;

(2) the children residing in the neighborhoods must be given the opportunity for a quality education and the needs of each neighborhood must be addressed individually wherever possible; and

(3) the physical structure of the neighborhoods must be enhanced by providing safe and suitable housing and infrastructure to increase the desirability of neighborhoods as places to live.

(b) The neighborhood revitalization program must include the following:

(1) the identification of the neighborhoods that require assistance through the program;

(2) a strategy of the citizen participation required under subdivision 6;

(3) the neighborhood action plans required under subdivision 6;

(4) the activities of participating organizations undertaken to address the general principles; and

(5) an evaluation of the success of the neighborhood action plans.

Subd. 6. [CITIZEN PARTICIPATION REQUIRED.] (a) The neighborhood revitalization program must be developed with the process outlined in this subdivision.

(b) The development of the program must include the preparation of neighborhood action plans. The city must organize neighborhood planning workshops to prepare the neighborhood action plans. The neighborhood workshops must include the participation of, whenever possible, all populations and interests in each neighborhood including renters, homeowners, people of color, business owners, representatives of neighborhood institutions, youth, and the elderly. The neighborhood action plan must be submitted to the policy board established under paragraph (c). The city must provide available resources, information, and technical assistance to prepare the neighborhood action plans.

(c) Each city that develops a program must establish a policy board whose membership includes members of the city council, county board, school board, and citywide library and park board where they exist appointed by the respective governing bodies; the mayor or designee of the mayor; and a representative from the city's house of representatives delegation and a representative from the city's state senate delegation appointed by the respective delegation. The policy board may also include representatives of citywide community organizations, neighborhood organizations, business owners, labor, and neighborhood residents. The elected officials who are members of the policy board may appoint the other members of the board.

(d) The policy board shall review, modify where appropriate, and approve, in whole or in part, the neighborhood action plans and forward its recommendations for final action to the governing bodies represented on the policy board. The governing bodies shall review, modify where appropriate, and give final approval, in whole or in part, to those actions over which they have programmatic jurisdiction.

Subd. 7. [REVIEW OF PROGRAM COMPLIANCE.] The policy board must periodically review the activities funded with program money to determine if the expenditure of the program money is in compliance with the neighborhood revitalization program.

Sec. 28. Laws 1988, chapter 719, article 12, section 30, as amended by Laws 1989, chapter 1, section 11, is amended to read:

Sec. 30. [EFFECTIVE DATES.]

Sections 2, 5, 6, 7, 14, 16, subdivision 4e, 17, and the provisions of section 15 relating to the duration of hazardous substance sites and subdistricts are effective for hazardous substance sites and subdistricts designated and created after the day following final enactment. Except as otherwise specifically provided, sections 1, 3, 4, 8 to 12, 16, and 20 to 23, and the provisions of section 15 applying to soils condition districts are effective for districts and amendments adding geographic area to an existing district for which the request for certification was filed with the county auditor after May 1, 1988. Sections 13, 15, 16, subdivision 4g, 18, 24, and 25, and the provisions of section 21 allowing a change in the fiscal disparities election are effective May 1, 1988, except as otherwise specifically provided. Section 16, subdivision 4h, is effective beginning with administrative costs incurred on May 1, 1990, and notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 469.179, applies to districts and project areas for which certification was requested before August 1, 1979. Section 16, subdivision 4i, is effective for districts for which the request for certification is filed with the county after May 1, 1988, and to all increment collected after January 1, 1990. Sections 26 to 28 are effective upon approval by the city council of the city of Virginia and compliance with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021. Section 29 is effective the day following final enactment.

Sec. 29. [EXPENDITURE AND REPORT ON NEIGHBORHOOD REVITALIZATION; CITY OF MINNEAPOLIS.]

Subdivision 1. [EXPENDITURE.] The city of Minneapolis shall reserve $10,000,000 in 1990 and $20,000,000 each year from 1991 to 2009 from tax increment and other revenues generated from the Minneapolis community development agency common project, adopted December 30, 1989, to be expended in neighborhood revitalization. None of these revenues shall be expended in 1990.

Subd. 2. [REVIEW AND REPORT.] By January 1, 1991, the city shall review the collaborative process provided under section 27, subdivision 6, involving the county board and school board and citizens in developing priorities for addressing problems of neighborhoods, including housing, safety, drugs, jobs, and education. The city shall report to the legislature by February 1, 1991, on the collaborative process including any changes the city recommends, proposed expenditure of funds, and scope of coordinated activities by county, school, and city.

Sec. 30. [TRANSITION RULES.]

Subdivision 1. [CIRCLE PINES.] Section 21 does not apply to a tax increment financing district created in the city of Circle Pines, if the request for certification is filed by June 30, 1990, to the extent increments are used to clear substandard housing and construct a senior citizen housing project located outside of the district.

Subd. 2. [ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT; MIXED USE.] Sections 8, 18, and 21 do not apply to tax increment financing districts established in a development district approved by an authority under Minnesota Statutes, sections 469.124 to 469.134 on February 27, 1989, if the request for certification is filed by May 1, 1992.

Subd. 3. [COMMERCIAL DEVELOPMENT.] Sections 15 and 21 do not apply to tax increment financing districts established in a development district approved by an authority under Minnesota Statutes, sections 469.124 to 469.134 on April 24, 1989, if the request for certification is filed by June 1, 1991.

Subd. 4. [MEDICAL FACILITIES.] Section 18 does not apply to a tax increment financing district in the city of Mankato to provide assistance to a clinic, medical office, or related facilities, adjacent to a nonprofit hospital, if the request for certification is filed by September 30, 1990.

Subd. 5. [LAKEVILLE.] Sections 8 and 18 do not apply to tax increment financing districts in the city of Lakeville created within I-35 Redevelopment Project No. 1 and which are approved by the city, if the request for certification is filed by September 30, 1990.

Subd. 6. [BURNSVILLE.] Sections 8 and 18 do not apply to a tax increment financing district established by the city of Burnsville for a development consisting of an amphitheatre and solid waste transfer station, if the request for certification is filed by September 30, 1990.

Subd. 7. [COOK COUNTY.] Section 21 does not apply to an authority in Cook county for tax increment financing districts established in a project created by law prior to April 30, 1990, if the request for certification is filed by May 1, 1992.

Sec. 31. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

(a) Section 1 is effective for school year 1991-1992 and for homestead and agricultural credit aid and local government aids for taxes payable in 1991. Sections 2 to 4, 13, 17, 20, 22, 24, and 26 to 30 are effective May 1, 1990. Sections 5 to 12, 14, 15, 18, 19, and 21 are effective for districts for which certification is requested after April 30, 1990. Sections 16 and 23 are effective for distributions of excess taxes or tax increments received after December 31, 1990. Section 25 is effective for violations occurring after December 31, 1990.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) or section 1, sections 1, 5 to 12, 14, 15, 18, 19, and 21 apply to a district, if the request for certification was made after March 31, 1990, and before May 1, 1990, and none of the following actions were taken by June 1, 1991: (1) the authority entered into a development agreement for a site located in the district, (2) bonds were issued to finance project costs, or (3) the authority acquired property in the district after April 1, 1990.

ARTICLE 8

EDUCATION FUNDING

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 124.83, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [HEALTH AND SAFETY PROGRAM.] To receive health and safety revenue a district, including an intermediate district, must submit to the commissioner of education an application for aid and levy by June 1 in the previous school year. The application may be for hazardous substance removal, fire code compliance, or life safety repairs. The application must include a health and safety program adopted by the school district board. The program must include the estimated cost of the program by fiscal year.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 124.83, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [USES OF HEALTH AND SAFETY REVENUE.] Health and safety revenue may be used only for approved expenditures necessary to correct fire safety hazards, life safety hazards, or for the removal or encapsulation of asbestos from school buildings or property, asbestos-related repairs, cleanup and disposal of polychlorinated biphenyls found in school buildings or property, or the cleanup, removal, disposal, and repairs related to storing heating fuel or transportation fuels such as alcohol, gasoline, fuel oil, and special fuel, as defined in section 296.01. The revenue may not be used for a building or property or part of a building or property used for post-secondary instruction or administration or for a purpose unrelated to elementary and secondary education.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 136D.27, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PROHIBITED LEVIES.] Notwithstanding section 136D.24 or any other law to the contrary, the joint school board may not certify, either itself, to any participating district, or to any cooperating school district, any levies for any purpose, except the levies authorized by subdivision 1, sections 124.83, subdivision 4, 127.05, 275.125, subdivisions 8c and 14a, 275.48, and 475.61, and for the joint school board's obligations under section 268.06, subdivision 25, for which a levy is authorized by section 275.125, subdivision 4.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 136D.27, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PROHIBITED STATE AIDS.] Notwithstanding section 136D.24 or any law to the contrary, the department of education shall not pay, unless explicitly authorized by statute, any state aid, grant, credit, or other money to the joint school board, except the aid, credit, or money authorized by sections 121.201, 123.3514, 124.252, 124.32, 124.573, 124.574, and 124.646, 124.83, and chapter 273.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 136D.74, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [PROHIBITED LEVIES.] Notwithstanding subdivisions 2 and 4, section 136D.73, subdivision 3, or any other law to the contrary, the intermediate school board may not certify, either itself, to any participating district, or to any cooperating school district, any levies for any purpose, except the levies authorized by subdivision 1, sections 124.83, subdivision 4, 127.05, 275.125, subdivisions 8c and 14a, 275.48, and 475.61, and for the intermediate school board's obligations under section 268.06, subdivision 25, for which a levy is authorized by section 275.125, subdivision 4.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 136D.74, subdivision 2b, is amended to read:

Subd. 2b. [PROHIBITED STATE AIDS.] Notwithstanding subdivision 4 or any law to the contrary, the department of education shall not pay, unless explicitly authorized, any state aid, grant, credit, or other money to the intermediate school board, except the aid, credit, or money authorized by sections 121.201, 123.3514, 124.252, 124.32, 124.573, 124.574, and 124.646, 124.83, and chapter 273.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 136D.87, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PROHIBITED LEVIES.] Notwithstanding section 136D.84 or any other law to the contrary, the joint school board may not certify, either itself, to any participating district, or to any cooperating school district, any levies for any purpose, except the levies authorized by subdivision 1, sections 124.83, subdivision 4, 127.05, 275.125, subdivisions 8c and 14a, 275.48, and 475.61, and for the joint school board's obligations under section 268.06, subdivision 25, for which a levy is authorized by section 275.125, subdivision 4.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 136D.87, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PROHIBITED STATE AIDS.] Notwithstanding section 136D.24 or any law to the contrary, the department of education shall not pay, unless explicitly authorized, any state aid, grant, credit, or other money to the joint school board, except for aid, credit, or money authorized by sections 121.201, 123.3514, 124.252, 124.32, 124.573, 124.574, and 124.646, 124.83, and chapter 273.

Sec. 9. Laws 1959, chapter 462, section 3, subdivision 10, as renumbered, as amended by Laws 1963, chapter 645, section 3, Laws 1967, chapter 661, section 3, Laws 1969, chapter 994, section 1, Laws 1975, chapter 320, section 1, Laws 1980, chapter 525, section 2, and Laws 1989, chapter 329, article 5, section 17, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [SPECIAL SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 1; MINNEAPOLIS, CITY OF; EXTENDING BONDING AUTHORITY.] As used in this act the word "project" shall mean any proposed new or enlarged school building site, any proposed new school building or any proposed new addition to a school building, and "undertaking" shall mean any other purpose for which bonds may be issued as authorized in this subdivision. Subject to the limitations of subdivision 11, the special independent school district of Minneapolis may issue and sell bonds with the approval of 53 percent of the electors voting on the question at a general school district election or at a school district election held at the same time and place within the district as a state general or primary election, as determined by the board of education. Subject to the provisions of subdivision 11, the school district may also by a two-thirds majority vote of all the members of its board of education and without any election by the voters of the district, issue and sell in each calendar year bonds of the district in an amount not to exceed one-half of one percent of the assessed value of the taxable property in the district (plus, for calendar year 1990 years 1990 to 1996, an amount not to exceed $7,500,000; with an additional provision that any amount of bonds so authorized for sale in a specific year and not sold can be carried forward and sold in the year immediately following); provided, however, that the board shall submit the list of projects and undertakings to be financed by a proposed issue to the city planning commission as provided in subdivision 11(c). All bonds of the school district shall be payable in not more than 30 years. The proceeds of the sale of the bonds shall be used only for the rehabilitating, remodeling, expanding and equipping of existing school buildings and for the acquisition of sites, construction and equipping of new school buildings, and for acquisition and betterment purposes, and no part of the proceeds shall be used for maintenance. The provisions of this act shall apply to the issuance and sale of the bonds and to the purposes for which the bonds may be issued notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in any other existing law relating thereto.

Sec. 10. [ST. PAUL BONDING AUTHORIZATION; TAX LEVY FOR DEBT SERVICE.]

Subdivision 1. [BONDING AUTHORIZATION.] To provide funds to acquire or better facilities, independent school district No. 625 may by two-thirds majority vote of all the members of the board of directors issue general obligation bonds in one or more series in calendar years 1990 and 1991 as provided in this section. The aggregate principal amount of any bonds issued under this section for each calendar year must not exceed $9,000,000. Issuance of the bonds is not subject to Minnesota Statutes, section 475.58 or 475.59. As with other bonds issued by independent school district No. 625, the first sentence of Minnesota Statutes, section 475.53, subdivision 5, does not apply to issuance of the bonds. The bonds must otherwise be issued as provided in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 475. The authority to issue bonds under this section is in addition to any bonding authority authorized by Minnesota Statutes, chapter 124, or other law. The amount of bonding authority authorized under this section must be disregarded in calculating the bonding limit of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 124, or any other law other than Minnesota Statutes, section 475.53, subdivision 4.

Subd. 2. [TAX LEVY FOR DEBT SERVICE.] To pay the principal of and interest on bonds issued under subdivision 1, independent school district No. 625 must levy a tax annually in an amount sufficient under Minnesota Statutes, section 475.61, subdivisions 1 and 3, to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds. The tax authorized under this section is in addition to the taxes authorized to be levied under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 124A or 275, or other law.

Subd. 3. [EFFECTIVE DATE; LOCAL APPROVAL.] Subdivisions

1 and 2 are effective the day after the governing body of independent school district No. 625 complies with Minnesota Statutes, sections 645.021, subdivision 3.

Sec. 11. [DULUTH BONDING.]

Subdivision 1. [BONDING AUTHORIZATION.] To provide funds for the acquisition and betterment, as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 475.51, subdivisions 7 and 8, of existing and new facilities, independent school district No. 709 may, by two-thirds majority vote of all the members of the school board, issue general obligation bonds in one or more series in calendar years 1990 and 1991 as provided in this section. The aggregate principal amount of any bonds issued under this section for calendar years 1990 and 1991 may not exceed $9,600,000. Issuance of the bonds is not subject to Minnesota Statutes, section 475.58 or 475.59. As with other bonds issued by independent school district No. 709, Minnesota Statutes, section 475.53, subdivision 5, does not apply to issuance of the bonds. If the school board proposes to issue bonds under this section, it must publish a resolution describing the proposed bond issue once each week for two successive weeks in a legal newspaper published in the city of Duluth. The bonds may be issued without the submission of the question of their issue to the electors unless within 30 days after the second publication of the resolution a petition requesting an election signed by a number of people residing in the school district equal to 15 percent of the people registered to vote in the last general election in the school district is filed with the recording officer. If such a petition is filed, no bonds shall be issued under this section unless authorized by a majority of the electors voting on the question at the next general or special election called to decide the issue. The bonds must otherwise be issued as provided in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 475. The authority to issue bonds under this section is in addition to any bonding authority authorized by Minnesota Statutes, chapter 124, or other law. The amount of bonding authority authorized under this section must be disregarded in calculating the bonding limit of chapter 124 or any other law other than Minnesota Statutes, section 475.53, subdivision 4, as made applicable to independent school district No. 709 by Laws 1973, chapter 266.

Subd. 2. [TAX LEVY FOR DEBT SERVICE.] To pay the principal of and interest on bonds issued under subdivision 1, independent school district No. 709 shall levy a tax in an amount sufficient under Minnesota Statutes, section 475.61, subdivisions 1 and 3, to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds. The tax authorized under this section is in addition to the taxes authorized to be levied under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 124A or 275, or other law.

Sec. 12. [TAXPAYER NOTIFICATION.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICABILITY.] This section applies to any newly authorized bonding authority granted under section 9 or 10. This newly authorized bonding authority is in addition to any existing bonding authority of a school district.

Subd. 2. [MEETING.] A school board must hold a public meeting in each state senate district that is located wholly or partly within the boundaries of the school district. The school board must hold the public meeting to obtain comments and recommendations from residents on the proposed sale of newly authorized bonds described under subdivision 1. The meeting must be in addition to any other scheduled meeting of the school board or its committees. The meeting must be held in an accessible place and at a convenient time for the majority of residents in the affected state senate district. Meetings must be held in each state senate district each year the district sells bonds beginning with calendar year 1990.

Subd. 3. [NOTICE.] A school board must prepare and have delivered by mail a notice of the public meeting on the proposed sale of newly authorized bonds to each senate district postal patron residing within the school district. The notice must be mailed at least 15 days but not more than 30 days prior to the scheduled date of the meeting required for each state senate district under subdivision 2. Notice of the meeting in each state senate district also must be posted in the administrative office of the school district and must be published in the official newspaper of the city in which the school district is located twice during the 14 days preceding the date of the meeting.

The notice must contain the following information:

- (1) the proposed amount of bonds to be issued;
- (2) the dollar amount of the levy increase necessary to pay the principal and interest on the newly authorized bonds;
- (3) the estimated levy amount and net tax capacity rate necessary to make the debt service payments on any existing outstanding debt;
- (4) the projected effects on individual property types. The notice must show the projected annual dollar increase and net tax capacity rate increase for a representative range of residential homestead, residential nonhomestead, apartment, and commercial-industrial properties located within each state senate district; and
- (5) the required levy and principal and interest on all outstanding bonds in addition to the bonds proposed under clause (1).

Subd. 4. [BOND AUTHORIZATION.] A school board may vote to issue bonds newly authorized under section 9 or 10 only after complying with the requirements under subdivisions 2 and 3, and an official record of all the meetings in the school district has been filed with the commissioner of education.

Sec. 13. [COLERAINE, LAKE SUPERIOR, CHISHOLM, ELY, EVELETH, GILBERT, BABBITT, AND ST. LOUIS COUNTY SCHOOL DISTRICT BONDS.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZATION.] Independent school district No. 316, Coleraine, may issue bonds in an aggregate principal amount not exceeding $950,000; independent school district No. 381, Lake Superior, may issue bonds in an aggregate principal amount not exceeding $300,000; independent school district No. 695, Chisholm, may issue bonds in an aggregate principal amount not exceeding $3,500,000; independent school district No. 696, Ely, may issue bonds in an aggregate principal amount not exceeding $1,000,000; independent school district No. 697, Eveleth, may issue bonds in an aggregate principal amount not exceeding $3,500,000; independent school district No. 699, Gilbert, may issue bonds in an aggregate principal amount not exceeding $1,000,000; and independent school district No. 692, Babbitt, may issue bonds in an aggregate principal amount not exceeding $500,000.

Subd. 2. [AUTHORIZATION.] Independent school district No. 710, St. Louis county, may issue bonds in an aggregate amount not to exceed $1,750,000.

Subd. 3. [USES; PROCESS.] The bonds authorized under subdivisions 1 and 2 may be issued in addition to any bonds already issued or authorized. The proceeds of the bonds shall be used to provide funds to construct, equip, furnish, remodel, rehabilitate, and acquire land for school facilities and buildings and to pay any architects', engineers', and legal fees incidental to those purposes or the sale. Except as permitted by this section, the bonds shall be authorized, issued, sold, executed, and delivered in the manner provided by Minnesota Statutes, chapter 475. A referendum on the question of issuing the bonds authorized under subdivision 2 is not required. A resolution of the board levying taxes for the payment of the bonds and interest on them as authorized by this section and pledging the proceeds of the levies for the payment of the bonds and interest on them shall be deemed to be in compliance with the provisions of chapter 475 with respect to the levying of taxes for their payment.

Subd. 4. [APPROPRIATION.] There is annually appropriated from the distribution of taconite production tax revenues to the taconite environmental protection fund pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 298.28, subdivision 11, and to the northeast Minnesota economic protection trust pursuant to section 298.28, subdivisions 9 and 11, in equal shares, an amount sufficient to pay when due 80 percent of the principal and interest on the bonds issued under subdivision 1 and 100 percent of the principal and interest on the bonds issued under subdivision 2. If the annual distribution to the northeast Minnesota economic protection trust is insufficient to pay its share after fulfilling any obligations of the trust under Minnesota Statutes, section 298.225 or 298.293, the deficiency shall be appropriated from the taconite environmental protection fund.

Subd. 5. [DISTRICT OBLIGATIONS.] Bonds issued under authority of this section shall be the general obligations of the school district, for which its full faith and credit and unlimited taxing powers shall be pledged. If there are any deficiencies in the amount received pursuant to subdivision 4, they shall be made good by general levies, not subject to limit, on all taxable properties in the district in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, section 475.74. If any deficiency levies are necessary, the school board may effect a temporary loan or loans on certificates of indebtedness issued in anticipation of them to meet payments of principal or interest on the bonds due or about to become due.

Subd. 6. [DISTRICT LEVY.] The school board of each school district authorized to issue bonds under subdivision 1 shall by resolution levy on all property in the school district subject to the general ad valorem school tax levies, and not subject to taxation under Minnesota Statutes, sections 298.23 to 298.28, a direct annual ad valorem tax for each year of the term of the bonds in amounts that, if collected in full, will produce the amounts needed to meet when due 20 percent of the principal and interest payments on the bonds. A copy of the resolution shall be filed, and the necessary taxes shall be extended, assessed, collected, and remitted in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, section 475.61.

Subd. 7. [LEVY LIMITATIONS.] Taxes levied pursuant to this section shall be disregarded in the calculation of any other tax levies or limits on tax levies provided by other law.

Subd. 8. [BONDING LIMITATIONS.] Bonds may be issued under authority of this section notwithstanding any limitations upon the indebtedness of a district, and their amounts shall not be included in computing the indebtedness of a district for any purpose, including the issuance of subsequent bonds and the incurring of subsequent indebtedness.

Subd. 9. [TERMINATION OF APPROPRIATION.] The appropriation authorized in subdivision 4 shall terminate upon payment or maturity of the last of those bonds.

Subd. 10. [LOCAL APPROVAL.] This section is effective for independent school district No. 316, the day after its governing body complies with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3, and for independent school district No. 381, the day after its governing body complies with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3, and for independent school district No. 695, the day after its governing body complies with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3, and for independent school district No. 696, the day after its governing body complies with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3, and for independent school district No. 697, the day after its governing body complies with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3, and for independent school district No. 699, the day after its governing body complies with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3, and for independent school district No. 692, the day after its governing body complies with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3, and for independent school district No. 710, the day after its governing body complies with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3.

Sec. 14. [FUND BALANCE CORRECTION.]

Independent school district No. 624, White Bear Lake, is eligible for reinstatement of the foundation levy lost through the fund balance reduction provisions of the foundation formula for the 1985-1986, 1986-1987, and 1987-1988 school years if the fund balance reduction was the result of either referendum revenues added to the net unappropriated general fund balance or a transfer of funds from the capital expenditure account to the general fund. The district may make a special levy in an amount not to exceed the amount of the levy reduction caused by the tier two foundation levy reductions for the 1985-1986, 1986-1987, and 1987-1988 school years, but not to exceed $1,289,418. The district may levy part of the amount:

- (1) in 1990 and the remainder in 1991; or
- (2) in 1990 and 1991 and the remainder in 1992.

The district may not receive foundation aid, general education aid, or any other aid as a result of levying under this section.

ARTICLE 9

COURT FUNDING

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 275.50, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary for taxes levied in 1989 payable in 1990 and subsequent years, "special levies" means those portions of ad valorem taxes levied by governmental subdivisions to:

(a) for taxes levied in 1990, payable in 1991 and subsequent years, pay the costs not reimbursed by the state or federal government, of payments made to or on behalf of recipients of aid under any public assistance program authorized by law, and the costs of purchase or delivery of social services. The aggregate amounts levied under this clause for the costs of purchase or delivery of social services and income maintenance programs, other than those identified in section 273.1398, subdivision 1, paragraph (i), are subject to a maximum increase over the amount levied for the previous year of 12 percent for counties within the metropolitan area as defined in section 473.121, subdivision 2, or counties outside the metropolitan area but containing a city of the first class, and 15 percent for other counties. For purposes of this clause, "income maintenance programs" include income maintenance programs in section 273.1398, subdivision 1, paragraph (i), to the extent the county provides benefits under those programs over the statutory mandated standards. Effective with taxes levied in 1990, the portion of this special levy for human service programs identified in section 273.1398, subdivision 1, paragraph (i), is eliminated;

(b) pay the costs of principal and interest on bonded indebtedness except on bonded indebtedness issued under section 471.981, subdivisions 4 to 4c, or to reimburse for the amount of liquor store revenues used to pay the principal and interest due in the year preceding the year for which the levy limit is calculated on municipal liquor store bonds;

(c) pay the costs of principal and interest on certificates of indebtedness, except tax anticipation or aid anticipation certificates of indebtedness, issued for any corporate purpose except current expenses or funding an insufficiency in receipts from taxes or other sources or funding extraordinary expenditures resulting from a public emergency; and to pay the cost for certificates of indebtedness issued pursuant to sections 298.28 and 298.282;

(d) fund the payments made to the Minnesota state armory building commission pursuant to section 193.145, subdivision 2, to retire the principal and interest on armory construction bonds;

(e) provide for the bonded indebtedness portion of payments made to another political subdivision of the state of Minnesota;

(f) pay the amounts required, in accordance with section 275.075, to correct for a county auditor's error of omission but only to the extent that when added to the preceding year's levy it is not in excess of an applicable statutory, special law or charter limitation, or the limitation imposed on the governmental subdivision by sections 275.50 to 275.56 in the preceding levy year;

(g) pay amounts required to correct for an error of omission in the levy certified to the appropriate county auditor or auditors by the governing body of a city or town with statutory city powers in a levy year, but only to the extent that when added to the preceding year's levy it is not in excess of an applicable statutory, special law or charter limitation, or the limitation imposed on the governmental subdivision by sections 275.50 to 275.56 in the preceding levy year;

(h) pay amounts required by law to be paid to pay the interest on and to reduce the unfunded accrued liability of public pension funds in accordance with the actuarial standards and guidelines specified in sections 356.215 and 356.216 reduced by 106 percent of the amount levied for that purpose in 1976, payable in 1977. For the purpose of this special levy, the estimated receipts expected from the state of Minnesota pursuant to sections 69.011 to 69.031 or any other state aid expressly intended for the support of public pension funds shall be considered as a deduction in determining the required levy for the normal costs of the public pension funds. No amount of these aids shall be considered as a deduction in determining the governmental subdivision's required levy for the reduction of the unfunded accrued liability of public pension funds;

(i) to compensate the state for the cost of a reassessment ordered by the commissioner of revenue pursuant to section 270.16;

(j) pay the debt service on tax increment financing revenue bonds to the extent that revenue to pay the bonds or to maintain reserves for the bonds is insufficient as a result of the provisions of Laws 1988, chapter 719, article 5;

(k) pay the cost of hospital care under section 261.21;

(l) pay the unreimbursed costs incurred in the previous year to satisfy judgments rendered against the governmental subdivision by a court of competent jurisdiction in any tort action, or to pay the costs of settlements out of court against the governmental subdivision in a tort action when substantiated by a stipulation for the dismissal of the action filed with the court of competent jurisdiction and signed by both the plaintiff and the legal representative of the governmental subdivision, provided that an appeal for the unreimbursed costs under this clause was approved by the commissioner of revenue under section 275.51, subdivision 3;

(m) pay the expenses reasonably and necessarily incurred in preparing for or repairing the effects of natural disaster including the occurrence or threat of widespread or severe damage, injury, or loss of life or property resulting from natural causes such as earthquake, fire, flood, wind storm, wave action, oil spill, water contamination, air contamination, or drought in accordance with standards formulated by the emergency services division of the state department of public safety, provided that an appeal for the expenses incurred under this clause were approved by the commissioner of revenue under section 275.51, subdivision 3;

(n) pay a portion of the losses in tax receipts to a city due to tax abatements or court actions in the year preceding the current levy year, provided that an appeal for the tax losses was approved by the commissioner of revenue under section 275.51, subdivision 3. This special levy is limited to the amount of the losses times the ratio of the nonspecial levies to total levies for taxes payable in the year the abatements were granted. County governments are not authorized to claim this special levy;

(o) pay the operating cost of regional library services authorized under section 134.34, subject to a maximum increase over the previous year of the greater of (1) 103 percent multiplied by one plus the percentage increase determined for the governmental subdivision under section 275.51, subdivision 3h, clause (b), or (2) six percent. If a governmental subdivision elected to include some or all of its levy for libraries within its adjusted levy limit base in the prior year, but elects to claim the levy as a special levy in the current levy year, the allowable increase is determined by applying the greater percentage determined under clause (1) or (2) to the total amount levied for libraries in the prior levy year. After levy year 1989, the increase must not be determined using a base amount other than the amount that could have been levied as a special levy in the prior year. In no event shall the special levy be less than the minimum levy required under sections 134.33 and 134.34, subdivisions 1 and 2;

(p) pay the amount of the county building fund levy permitted under section 373.40, subdivision 6;

(q) pay the county's share of the costs levied in 1989, 1990, and 1991 for the Minnesota cooperative soil survey under Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 40.07, subdivision 15;

(r) for taxes levied in 1989, payable in 1990 only, pay the cost incurred for the minimum share required by counties levying for the first time under section 134.34 as required under section 134.341. For taxes levied in 1990, and thereafter, counties levying under this provision must levy under clause (o), and their allowable increase must be determined with reference to the amount levied in 1989 under this paragraph;

(s) for taxes levied in 1989, payable in 1990 only, provide an amount equal to 50 percent of the estimated amount of the reduction in aids to a county under sections 273.1398, subdivision 2, paragraph (d), and 477A.012, subdivision 3, for aids payable in 1990;

(t) for taxes levied in 1990 only by a county in the eighth judicial district, provide an amount equal to the amount of the levy, if any, that is required under Laws 1989, chapter 335, article 3, section 54, subdivision 8, as amended by section 14;

(u) for taxes levied in 1989, payable in 1990 only, pay the costs not reimbursed by the state or federal government:

(i) for the costs of purchase or delivery of social services. The aggregate amounts levied under this item are subject to a maximum increase over the amount levied in the previous year of 12 percent for counties within the metropolitan area as defined in section 473.121, subdivision 2, or counties outside the metropolitan area but containing a city of the first class, and 15 percent for other counties.

(ii) for payments made to or on behalf of recipients of aid under any public assistance program authorized by law. The aggregate amounts levied under this item are subject to a maximum increase over the amount levied in the previous year of 12 percent and must be used only for the public assistance programs; and

(v) pay an amount of up to 25 percent of the money sought for distribution and approved under section 115A.557, subdivision 3, paragraph (b), clause (3).

If the amount levied in 1989 is less than the actual expenditures needed for these programs for 1990, the difference between the actual expenditures and the amount levied may be levied in 1990 as a special levy. If the amount levied in 1989 is greater than the actual expenditures needed for these programs for 1990, the difference between the amount levied and the actual expenditures shall be deducted from the 1990 levy limit, payable in 1991.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 275.51, subdivision 3f, as amended by Laws 1990, chapter 480, article 7, section 19, is amended to read:

Subd. 3f. [LEVY LIMIT BASE.] (a) The property tax levy limit base for governmental subdivisions for taxes levied in 1988 shall be equal to the total actual levy for taxes payable in 1988 with additions and subtractions as specified in paragraphs (b) and (c).

(b) The amounts to be added to the actual 1988 levy are (1) the amount of local government aid the governmental subdivision was certified to receive in 1988 under sections 477A.011 to 477A.014, (2) its 1988 taconite aids under sections 298.28 and 298.282, and (3) its 1988 wetlands and native prairie reimbursements under Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 273.115, subdivision 3, and 273.116, subdivision 3.

(c) The amounts to be subtracted from the actual 1988 levy are (1) any special levies claimed for taxes payable in 1988 pursuant to Laws 1987, chapter 268, article 5, section 12, subdivision 4, clauses (1), (2), (3), and (4); and (2) for a governmental subdivision participating in a regional library system receiving grants from the department of education under section 134.34, the amount levied for taxes payable in 1988 for the operating costs of a public library service.

(d) For taxes levied in 1989 and subsequent years, a governmental subdivision's levy limit base is equal to its adjusted levy limit base for the preceding year, provided that for taxes levied in 1989, the amount of the administrative reimbursement aid received in 1988 shall be added to the base.

(e) For taxes levied by a county in 1989, the levy limit base determined under paragraph (d) shall be reduced by an amount equal to 90 percent of the cost of public defender services for felonies and gross misdemeanors and the costs of law clerks in the county that are assumed by the state during calendar year 1990, less 103 percent of one-half the amount of fees collected by the courts in the county during calendar year 1988. For taxes levied in 1990, the levy limit base determined under paragraph (d) shall first be increased by the product of (1) the amount deducted under this paragraph for taxes levied in 1989 and (2) the adjustments under subdivision 3h, paragraphs (a) and (b) for taxes levied in 1989, and then shall be reduced by an amount equal to the cost of public defender services for felonies and gross misdemeanors and the cost of law clerks in the county that are assumed by the state during calendar year 1991, less the amount of fees collected by the courts in the county during calendar year 1989, computed at the rate of $30 for civil and probate filings and $20 for marriage dissolutions.

(f) For taxes levied in 1989 ~~only~~, by a county that is located in the eighth judicial district, the levy limit base determined under paragraphs (d) and (e) shall be further reduced by an amount equal to 90 percent of the cost of operation of the trial courts in the county during calendar year 1990 that are assumed by the state and for which an appropriation is provided, less 103 percent of the sum of (1) the remaining one-half of the amount of fees and (2) 100 percent of the amount of fines collected by the courts in the county during calendar year 1988. ~~For taxes levied in 1990 only by those counties, the levy limit base determined under paragraphs (d) and (e) shall first be increased by the product of (1) the amount deducted under this paragraph for taxes levied in 1989 and (2) the adjustments under subdivision 3h, paragraphs (a) and (b) for taxes levied in 1989, and then shall be reduced by an amount equal to the cost of operation of the trial courts in the county during the first six months of calendar year 1991 that are assumed by the state less 50 percent of the amount of fines collected by the courts during calendar year 1989.~~

(g) By October 15, 1989, the board of public defense shall determine and certify to the commissioner of revenue the pro rata share for each county of the state-financed public defense services described in paragraph (e) during the six-month period beginning July

1, 1990. By October 15, 1989, the supreme court shall determine and certify to the department of revenue for each county the pro rata share for each county of the cost of providing law clerks during the three-month period beginning October 1, 1990, plus, for each county located in the eighth judicial district, the cost of operation of the trial courts during calendar year 1990.

By July 15, 1990, the board of public defense shall determine and certify to the department of revenue the pro rata share for each county of the state-financed public defense services described in paragraph (e) during calendar year 1991. By July 15, 1990, the supreme court shall determine and certify to the department of revenue for each county the pro rata share for each county of the cost of providing law clerks during calendar year 1991 plus, for each county located in the eighth judicial district, the cost of operation of the trial courts during the first six months of 1991.

(h) For taxes levied in a county in 1991, the levy limit base shall be reduced by an amount equal to the cost in the county of court reporters, judicial officers, and district court referees and the expenses of law clerks and court reporters as authorized in sections 484.545, subdivision 3, and 486.05, subdivisions 1 and 1a, as certified by the supreme court pursuant to section 477A.012, subdivision 4.

(i) If a governmental subdivision received an adjustment to its levy limit base for taxes levied in 1988 under section 275.51, subdivision 3j, its levy limit base for taxes levied in 1989 must be reduced by the lesser of (1) the adjustment under section 275.51, subdivision 3j, or (2) the difference between its (i) levy limit for taxes levied in 1988 and its (ii) total actual levy for taxes levied in 1988 minus any special levies claimed for taxes levied in 1988 under section 275.50, subdivision 5.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 357.021, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. (a) Every person, including the state of Minnesota and all bodies politic and corporate, who shall transact any business in the district court, shall pay to the court administrator of said court the sundry fees prescribed in subdivision 2. ~~When the public authority responsible for child support enforcement is a party to any action or proceeding in the district court or according to section 518.551, subdivision 10, no fee is required under this section.~~ The court administrator shall transmit the fees monthly to the county treasurer who shall forward the funds to the state treasurer for deposit in the state treasury and credit to the general fund.

(b) In a county which has a screener-collector position, fees paid by a county pursuant to this subdivision shall be transmitted monthly to the county treasurer, who shall apply the fees first to reimburse the county for the amount of the salary paid for the screener-collector position. The balance of the fees collected shall then be forwarded to the state treasurer for deposit in the state treasury and credited to the general fund. A screener-collector position for purposes of this paragraph is an employee whose function is to increase the collection of fines and to review the incomes of potential clients of the public defender, in order to verify eligibility for that service.

(c) No fee is required under this section from the public authority or the party the public authority represents in an action for:

(1) child support enforcement, medical assistance enforcement, or establishment of parentage in the district court, or child or medical support enforcement conducted by an administrative law judge in an administrative hearing under section 518.551, subdivision 10;

(2) civil commitment under chapter 253B;

(3) the appointment of a public conservator or public guardian or any other action under chapters 252A and 525;

(4) wrongfully obtaining public assistance under section 256.98 or 256D.07, or recovery of overpayments of public assistance;

(5) court relief under chapter 260;

(6) forfeiture of property under sections 609.531 to 609.5317;

(7) recovery of amounts issued by political subdivisions or public institutions under sections 246.52, 252.27, 256.045, 256.25, 256.87, 256B.042, 256B.14, 256B.15, 256B.37, and 260.251, or other sections referring to other forms of public assistance; or

(8) restitution under section 611A.04.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 477A.012, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [AID OFFSET FOR COURT COSTS.] (a) There shall be deducted from the payment to a county under this section an amount representing the cost to the state for assumption of the cost (1) of district court administration and operation of the trial court information system in the county and, (2) in the case of Hennepin and Ramsey counties, of public defense services in juvenile and misdemeanor cases in the county and (3) in the case of a county that is located in the eighth judicial district, of the cost of operation of the trial courts in the county during calendar year 1991 less the amount of any special levy under Laws 1989, chapter 335, article 3, section 54, subdivision 8, as amended by section 14. The amount of the ~~amount~~ of the deduction shall be computed as provided in this subdivision.

(b) By October 15, 1989, the board of public defense shall determine and certify to the department of revenue the cost of the state-financed public defense services in juvenile and misdemeanor cases for Hennepin and Ramsey counties during the fiscal year beginning the following July 1. By October 15, 1989, the supreme court shall determine and certify to the department of revenue for each county, except counties located in the eighth judicial district, the pro rata estimated share for each county of district court administration and trial court information system costs during the fiscal year beginning on the following July 1.

(c) One-half of the amount computed under paragraph (b) for each county shall be deducted from each payment to the county under section 477A.015 in 1990 and each subsequent year. One-half of the sum of the amounts computed under paragraph (f) shall be deducted from each payment to a county located in the eighth judicial district under section 477A.015 in 1991 only; except that, if the legislature in its 1991 session does not appropriate funds for the operation of the trial courts in the eighth judicial district for the period July 1, 1991, through December 31, 1991, only 25 percent of the sum of the amounts computed under paragraph (f) shall be deducted from each payment to each county in the eighth judicial district.

(d) If the amount computed under paragraph (b) plus, if applicable, the amount deducted under paragraph (e), exceeds the amount payable to a county under subdivision 1, the excess shall be deducted from the aid payable to the county under section 273.1398, subdivision 2.

(e) By July 15, 1990, the board of public defense and the supreme court shall determine and certify to the department of revenue the final actual budgeted amounts for the activities described in paragraph (b). If the amount certified under paragraph (b) is greater than the amount certified under this paragraph, the excess shall be deducted from the aid payable to the county in 1991 and each subsequent year under this section. If the amount certified under paragraph (b) is less than the amount certified under this paragraph, the difference shall be added to the aid payable to the county in 1991 and each subsequent year under this section.

(f) By August 15, 1990, the supreme court shall determine and certify to the department of revenue for each county located in the eighth judicial district, the county's pro rata estimated share of the operation of the trial courts in the county for calendar year 1991, less an amount equal to the fees and fines collected by the trial courts in the county during calendar year 1989. By August 15, 1990, the board of public defense shall determine and certify to the department of revenue for each of those counties, the county's pro rata estimated share of the base funding for the cost of court-appointed defense services other than those specified in section 275.51, subdivision 3f, for calendar year 1991.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 611.20, is amended to read:

611.20 [SUBSEQUENT ABILITY TO PAY COUNSEL.]

If at any time after the state public defender or a district public defender has been directed to act, the court having jurisdiction in the matter is satisfied that the defendant or other person is financially able to obtain counsel or to make partial payment for the representation, the court may terminate the appointment of the public defender, unless the person so represented is willing to pay therefor. If a public defender continues the representation, the court shall direct payment for such representation as the interests of justice may dictate. Any payments directed by the court shall be deposited with recorded by the court administrator thereof and the court administrator shall forthwith remit the amount thereof to the treasurer of the governmental unit chargeable with the compensation of such public defender for deposit in the treasury to the credit of the general revenue fund of such governmental unit or units, who shall transfer the payments to the governmental unit responsible for the costs of the public defender.

If at any time after appointment a public defender should have reason to believe that a defendant is financially able to obtain counsel or to make partial payment for counsel, it shall be the public defender's duty to so advise the court so that appropriate action may be taken.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 611.215, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [STRUCTURE; MEMBERSHIP.] (a) The state board of public defense is a part of, but is not subject to the administrative control of, the judicial branch of government. The state board of public defense shall consist of seven members including:

- (1) a district court judge appointed by the supreme court;
 - (2) four attorneys admitted to the practice of law, well acquainted with the defense of persons accused of crime, but not employed as prosecutors, appointed by the supreme court; and
 - (3) two public members appointed by the governor.
- (b) All members shall demonstrate an interest in maintaining a high quality, independent defense system for those who are unable to obtain adequate representation. The terms, compensation, and removal of members shall be as provided in section 15.0575. The chair shall be elected by the members from among the membership for a term of two years.

(c) In addition, the state board of public defense shall consist of an ~~11 member~~ a nine-member ad hoc board when considering the appointment of district public defenders under section 611.26, subdivision 2. The terms of district public defenders currently serving shall terminate in accordance with the staggered term schedule set forth in section 611.26, subdivision 2.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 611.26, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The state board of public defense shall appoint a district public defender. When appointing a district public defender, the state board of public defense membership shall be increased to include two judges of the district and two county commissioners of the counties within the district. The additional members shall serve only in the capacity of selecting the district public defender. The judges within the district shall elect their two ad hoc members. The two county commissioners within the district shall be selected by the county boards of the counties within the district. The ad hoc state board of public defense shall appoint a district public defender only after requesting and giving reasonable time to receive any recommendations of the public, the local bar association, and the judges of the district, and the county commissioners within the district. Each district public defender shall be a qualified attorney, licensed to practice law in this state. The district public defender shall be appointed for a term of four years, beginning November 1, pursuant to the following staggered term schedule: (1) in 1987, the third and eighth districts; (2) in 1988, the first and tenth districts; (3) in 1989, the fifth and ninth districts; (4) in 1990, the sixth and seventh districts; (5) in 1991, the second, fourth, third, and eighth districts; and (6) in 1992, the first, ~~third~~ fourth, and tenth districts. The district public defenders shall serve for staggered four-year terms and may be removed for cause upon the order of the state board of public defense. Vacancies in the office shall be filled by the appointing authority for the unexpired term.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 611.26, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. The compensation of the district public defender shall be set by the board of public defense. The compensation of each assistant district public defender shall be set by the district public defender with the approval of the board of public defense. The compensation for district public defenders may not exceed the prevailing compensation for county attorneys within the district, and the compensation for assistant district public defenders may not exceed the prevailing compensation for assistant county attorneys within the district. To assist the board of public defense in determining prevailing compensation under this subdivision, counties shall include in their review and comment on proposed district public defender budgets provide to the board information on the compensation of county attorneys, including salaries and benefits, rent, secretarial staff, and other pertinent budget data. For purposes of this subdivision, compensation means salaries, cash payments, and employee benefits including paid time off and group insurance benefits, and other direct and indirect items of compensation including the value of office space provided by the employer.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 611.27, is amended to read:

611.27 [FINANCING THE OFFICES OF DISTRICT PUBLIC DEFENDER.]

Subdivision 1. (a) The total compensation and expenses, including office equipment and supplies, of the district public defender are to be paid by the county or counties comprising the judicial district.

(b) A district public defender shall annually submit a comprehensive budget to the state board of public defense. The budget shall be in compliance with standards and forms required by the board and must, at a minimum, include detailed substantiation as to all revenues and expenditures. The district public defender shall, at times and in the form required by the board, submit reports to the board concerning its operations, including the number of cases handled and funds expended for these services.

Within ten days after an assistant district public defender is appointed, the district public defender shall certify to the state board of public defense the compensation that has been recommended for the assistant.

(c) The state board of public defense shall transmit the proposed budget of each district public defender to the respective district court administrators and county budget officers for comment before the board's final approval of the budget. The board shall determine and certify to the respective county boards a final comprehensive budget for the office of the district public defender that includes all expenses. After the board determines the allocation of the state funds authorized pursuant to paragraph (e), the board shall apportion the expenses of the district public defenders among the several counties and each county shall pay its share in monthly installments. The county share is the proportion of the total expenses that the population in the county bears to the total population in the district as determined by the last federal census. If the district public defender or an assistant district public defender is temporarily transferred to a county not situated in that public defender's judicial district, said county shall pay the proportionate part of that public defender's expenses for the services performed in said county.

(d) Reimbursement for actual and necessary travel expenses in the conduct of the office of the district public defender shall be charged to either (1) the general expenses of the office, (2) the general expenses of the district for which the expenses were incurred if outside the district, or (3) the office of the state public defender if the services were rendered for that office.

(e) Money appropriated to the state board of public defense for the board's administration, for the state public defender, for the judicial district public defenders, and the public defender must be spent with the approval of the state board of public defense for the board's administration and for the state public defender and public defense corporations in amounts determined by the board for the public defense corporations shall be expended as determined by the board. Funds may also be distributed by the state board of public defense to district public defenders including those in Hennepin and Ramsey counties. In making distributions to district public defenders, priority must be given, to the extent feasible and reasonable, to those districts having the greatest number of felonies and gross misdemeanors, and to those districts having the greatest number of distressed counties designated under section 297A.257. The board shall further consider each district's number of dispositions, such as jury trials, court trials and guilty pleas, the number of court appearances, and other trial related financial data, and any special needs of districts organized in the calendar year 1987. In distributing funds to district public defenders, the board shall consider the results of the weighted case load study.

Subd. 2. The state board of public defense, after consultation with the county boards receiving an appropriation from the legislature for payment of district public defender costs, shall designate the county officials of one or more counties county within the district as a host county to pay reimburse the expenses of the district public defender. A county selected by the board must serve as the designee. The county share assessed under subdivision 1 against each county of the district must be paid to the county treasurer of the designated county. The board may reimburse the designated counties county for extra costs incurred. The board must provide for a revolving fund in the custody of the officials of the designated county into which each county must pay an initial deposit and its respective share of the expenses of the office of district public defender and from which the expenses of said office shall be paid in the manner provided in Laws 1965, chapter 869.

Subd. 3. If the state public defender or a district public defender deems it necessary to make a motion for a new trial, to take an appeal, or other postconviction proceedings in order to properly represent a defendant or other person whom that public defender had been directed to represent, that public defender may use the transcripts of the testimony and other proceedings filed with the court administrator of the district court as provided by section 243.49.

Subd. 4. [COUNTY PORTION OF COSTS.] The effective date of this section shall be January 1, 1966. That portion of subdivision 1 directing counties to pay the costs of public defense service shall not be in effect between July 1, 1990, and July 1, 1991. This subdivision only relates to costs associated with felony and gross misdemeanor public defense services and all public defense services in the second, fourth, and eighth judicial districts.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 611.271, is amended to read:

611.271 [COPIES OF DOCUMENTS; FEES.]

The court administrators of all courts and justices of peace shall furnish upon the request of the office of district public defender or the state public defender copies of any documents in their possession and shall bill the office of the state public defender for these copies after they have been furnished. The fees for such documents shall be $2 plus 12 cents for each page of the documents furnished at no charge to the public defender.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 629.292, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REQUEST FOR DISPOSITION; NOTIFICATION OF PRISONER.] (a) Any person who is imprisoned in a penal or correctional institution or other facility in the department of corrections of this state may request final disposition of any untried indictment or information complaint pending against the person in this state. The request shall be in writing addressed to the court in which the indictment or information complaint is pending and to the prosecuting attorney charged with the duty of prosecuting it, and shall set forth the place of imprisonment.

(b) The commissioner of corrections or other official designated by the commissioner having custody of prisoners shall promptly inform each prisoner in writing of the source and nature of any untried indictment or information complaint against the prisoner of which the commissioner of corrections or such official had knowledge or notice and of the prisoner's right to make a request for final disposition thereof.

(c) Failure of the commissioner of corrections or other such official to inform a prisoner, as required by this section, within one year after a detainer has been filed at the institution shall entitle the prisoner to a final dismissal of the indictment or ~~information~~ complaint with prejudice.

Sec. 12. Laws 1989, chapter 335, article 3, section 38, is amended to read:

Sec. 38. [TRANSITION, PUBLIC DEFENDERS; SECOND AND FOURTH DISTRICTS.]

The district public defender ~~defenders~~ of the second and fourth judicial district ~~districts~~ serving on July 1, 1989, shall continue in office until the ~~expiration of the term to which appointed or until August 1, 1991, whichever date is later~~ their terms.

~~The district public defender of the fourth judicial district serving on July 1, 1989, shall continue in office until the expiration of the term to which appointed or until August 1, 1991, whichever date is later.~~

Sec. 13. Laws 1989, chapter 335, article 3, section 44, is amended to read:

Sec. 44. [APPLICATION.]

Sections 45 to 54, except the parts of section 54, that by their terms have broader application, apply only in the eighth judicial district for the period from January 1, 1990, to ~~June 30~~ December 31, 1991.

Those parts of section 54, having broader application, apply statewide for the period from July 1, 1989, to ~~June 30~~ December 31, 1991.

Sec. 14. Laws 1989, chapter 335, article 3, section 54, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [LEVY.] ~~During the pilot project~~ For taxes payable in 1991 only the counties that make up the eighth judicial district shall continue to levy for and pay the costs to operate the eighth judicial district and public defense services that the state does not fund during the eighth district project. The supreme court shall certify to the counties on or before ~~October 1~~ of each year August 15, 1990, the amount necessary in excess of the state-funded eighth district project costs. The counties are responsible on a per capita prorated basis for the costs that the state is not assuming. These include but are not limited to capital costs, rent, and other associated costs. The county administrator of each of the counties shall consult with the supreme court and the eighth judicial district administrator regarding these costs before setting county budgets and levies for calendar year 1990. Each county shall pay its assessed share to the state court administrator for the operation of the pilot project on or before May 15, 1991.

Sec. 15. Laws 1989, chapter 335, article 3, section 58, as amended by Laws 1989, chapter 356, section 67, and Laws 1989, First Special Session chapter 1, article 5, section 48, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [JANUARY 1, 1991; ALL DISTRICTS.] That portion of section 6 which amends the first sentence of Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 357.021, subdivision 1a, requiring counties to pay filing fees in district court actions is effective January 1, ~~1991~~ 1992, for counties in all judicial districts.

ARTICLE 10

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 3.885, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [POLITICAL SUBDIVISION REPORTING.] No later than November 15, ~~1990~~ 1991, the commission shall make recommendations to appropriate standing committees of the legislature on any changes in uniform accounting and financial reporting methods necessary to assure public and legislative oversight of expenditures by cities, counties, towns, and special service districts. The recommendations shall consider opportunities for on-line access by appropriate state officers to political subdivision accounts. In preparing these recommendations, the commission shall consult with the state auditor, the legislative auditor, and the commissioners of finance and revenue.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 3.885, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [LOCAL GOVERNMENT RULE APPEALS.] Any local government may appeal to the commission to review any existing or proposed rule as defined in section 14.02, subdivision 4, on the grounds that the rule imposes a fiscal or administrative burden on local governments which is unnecessary in order for the local governments to accomplish the statewide policy goals and requirements of the statute authorizing the rule. As used in this subdivision, a "local government" is a county, home rule charter or statutory city, or town. The commission may hold a public hearing on a local government's appeal of a rule and may, on the basis of testimony received at the public hearing, suspend any rule by affirmative vote of at least half of its members. The procedures provided in sections 14.40, subdivision 4, 14.42, and 14.43, shall apply to suspension of rules under this subdivision.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 3.982, is amended to read:

3.982 [FISCAL NOTES FOR STATE-MANDATED ACTIONS.]

When a bill ~~proposing a new or expanded mandate on a political subdivision~~ is introduced and referred to a standing committee, the ~~head of each affected department or agency of the state government~~ shall the commissioner of finance shall determine whether the bill proposes a new or expanded mandate on a political subdivision. If the commissioner determines that a new or expanded mandate is proposed, the commissioner shall direct the appropriate department or agency of state government to prepare a fiscal note identifying the projected fiscal impact of the bill on state government and on the affected political subdivisions. The commissioner of finance shall be responsible for coordinating the fiscal note process, for assuring the accuracy and completeness of the note, and for ensuring that fiscal notes are prepared, delivered, and updated as provided in this section. The fiscal note shall categorize mandates as program or nonprogram mandates and shall include estimates of the levy impacts of the mandates. To the extent that the bill would impose new fiscal obligations on political subdivisions, the note shall indicate the efforts made to reduce those obligations, including consultations made with representatives of the political subdivisions. Chairs of legislative committees receiving bills on rereferrals from other legislative committees may request that fiscal notes be amended to reflect amendments made to the bills by prior committee action. Preparation of the fiscal notes required in this section shall be consistent with section 3.98. The commissioner of finance shall periodically report to and consult with the legislative commission on planning and fiscal policy on the issuance of the notes.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 16A.1541, is amended to read:

16A.1541 [ADDITIONAL REVENUES; PRIORITY.]

If on the basis of a forecast of general fund revenues and expenditures the commissioner of finance determines that there will be a positive unrestricted budgetary general fund balance at the close of the biennium, the commissioner of finance must allocate money to the budget and cash flow reserve account until the total amount in the account equals five percent of total general fund appropriations for the current biennium as established by the most recent legislative session. Beginning in November 1990, forecast unrestricted budgetary general fund balances are first appropriated to restore the budget and cash flow reserve account to $550,000,000 and then to reduce the property tax levy recognition percent under section 121.904, subdivision 4a, to 27 percent before money is allocated to the budget and cash flow reserve account under the preceding sentence.

The amounts necessary to meet the requirements of this section are appropriated from the general fund.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 115A.981, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [AGENCY REPORT.] The agency shall report to the legislative commission on waste management by July 1 of each year on the viability of the state's waste processing and disposal capability, the status of competitive forces in the market including recycling, composting, waste reduction and incineration, the extent to which existing fees for services are sufficient for facility development, engineering, environmental and safety factors, the progress of the industry in meeting the state's waste management goals, and recommendations for regulations to ensure protection of human health and the environment. In preparing the report, the agency shall consider information received under subdivision 2.

The report must also include:

(1) statewide and facility by facility estimates of the total potential costs and liabilities associated with solid waste disposal facilities for closure and postclosure care, response costs under chapter 115B, and any other potential costs, liabilities, or financial responsibilities;

(2) statewide and facility by facility requirements for proof of financial responsibility under section 116.07, subdivision 4h; and

(3) an annual update addressing how each facility is meeting its financial responsibility under section 116.07, subdivision 4h.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 116.07, subdivision 4h, is amended to read:

Subd. 4h. [FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY RULES.] (a) The agency shall adopt rules requiring the operator or owner of a solid waste disposal facility to submit to the agency proof of the operator's or owner's financial capability to provide reasonable and necessary response during the operating life of the facility and for 20 years after closure, and to provide for the closure of the facility and postclosure care required under agency rules. Proof of financial responsibility is required of the operator or owner of a facility receiving an original permit or a permit for expansion after adoption of the rules. Within 180 days of the effective date of the rules or by July 1, 1987, whichever is later, proof of financial responsibility is required of an operator or owner of a facility with a remaining capacity of more than five years or 500,000 cubic yards that is in operation at the time the rules are adopted. Compliance with the rules is a condition of obtaining or retaining a permit to operate the facility.

(b) The agency shall amend the rules adopted under paragraph (a) to allow a municipality, as defined in section 475.51, subdivision 2, including a sanitary district, that owns or operates a solid waste disposal facility that was in operation on May 15, 1989, to meet its financial responsibility for all or a portion of the contingency action portion of the reasonable and necessary response costs at the facility through its authority to issue bonds, provided that the method developed in the rules will ensure that when funds are needed for a contingency action, sufficient bonds can and will be issued by the municipality to meet its responsibility. The rules must include at least:

(1) a requirement that the governing body of the municipality enact an ordinance that clearly accepts responsibility for the costs of contingency action at the facility and that reserves, during the operating life of the facility and for 20 years after closure, a portion of the debt limit of the municipality, as established under section 475.53 or other law, that is equal to the total contingency action costs calculated under the rules;

(2) a requirement that the municipality assure that all collectors that haul to the facility implement a plan for reducing solid waste by using volume-based pricing, recycling incentives, or other means;

(3) a requirement that when a municipality opts under the rules to meet a portion of its financial responsibility by relying on its authority to issue bonds, it shall also begin setting aside funds that will cover a portion of the potential contingency action costs at the facility, the amount to be determined by the agency for each facility based on at least the amount of waste deposited in the disposal facility each year, and the likelihood and potential timing of conditions arising at the facility that will necessitate response action; and

(4) a requirement that a municipality have and consistently maintain an investment grade bond rating as a condition of using bonding authority to meet financial responsibility under this section.

(c) Counties shall comply with existing financial responsibility rules until those rules are amended under paragraph (b), and, after that time, counties shall comply with the amended rules. The method for proving financial responsibility developed under paragraph (b) may not be applied to a new solid waste disposal facility or to expansion of an existing facility.

Sec. 7. [116J.871] [FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE LIMITATIONS; PREVAILING WAGE.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given them.

(b) "Economic development" means financial assistance provided to a person directly or to a local unit of government or nonprofit organization on behalf of a person who is engaged in the manufacture or sale of goods and services. Economic development does not include (i) financial assistance for rehabilitation of existing housing or (ii) financial assistance for new housing construction in which total financial assistance at a single project site is less than $100,000.

(c) "Financial assistance" means (i) a grant awarded by a state agency for economic development related purposes if a single business receives $200,000 or more of the grant proceeds; (ii) a loan or the guaranty or purchase of a loan made by a state agency for economic development related purposes if a single business receives $500,000 or more of the loan proceeds; or (iii) a reduction, credit, or abatement of a tax assessed under chapter 297A where the tax reduction, credit, or abatement applies to a geographic area smaller than the entire state and was granted for economic development related purposes. Financial assistance does not include payments by the state of aids and credits under chapter 273 or 477A to a political subdivision.

(d) "Project site" means the location where improvements are made that are financed in whole or in part by the financial assistance; or the location of employees that receive financial assistance in the form of employment and training services as defined in section 268.0111, subdivision 4, or customized training from a technical college.

(e) "State agency" means any agency defined under section 16B.01, subdivision 2, the Greater Minnesota Corporation, and the iron range resources and rehabilitation board.

Subd. 2. [PREVAILING WAGE REQUIRED.] A state agency may provide financial assistance to a person only if the person receiving or benefiting from the financial assistance certifies to the commissioner of labor and industry that laborers and mechanics at the project site during construction, installation, remodeling, and repairs for which the financial assistance was provided will be paid the prevailing wage rate as defined in section 177.42, subdivision 6.

Subd. 3. [PREVAILING WAGE; PENALTY.] It is a misdemeanor for a person who has certified that prevailing wages will be paid to laborers and mechanics under subdivision 2 to subsequently fail to pay the prevailing wage. This misdemeanor is punishable by a fine of not more than $700, or imprisonment for not more than 90 days, or both. Each day a violation of this subdivision continues is a separate offense.

Subd. 4. [NOTIFICATION.] A state agency shall notify any person applying for financial assistance from the state agency of the requirements under subdivision 2 and of the penalties under subdivision 3.

Subd. 5. [EXCEPTION.] Nothing in this section denies any financial assistance granted to or qualified for by a person whose construction, installation, remodeling, or repairs commenced prior to August 1, 1990.

Sec. 8. [STUDY OF PREVAILING WAGE SYSTEM.]

Subdivision 1. [STUDY REQUIRED; CONTENTS.] The management analysis division of the department of administration shall study and evaluate the prevailing wage system in this state. The study must analyze:

(1) whether the method of determining prevailing wage rates is adequate and reasonable;

(2) whether current enforcement of the law is consistent with the intent of Minnesota Statutes, sections 177.41 to 177.44; and

(3) the variations in prevailing wage rates among counties in Minnesota and between Minnesota and federal prevailing wage rates.

Subd. 2. [REPORT.] The commissioner of administration shall report its findings to the legislature by February 1, 1991.

Subd. 3. [APPROPRIATION.] $100,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of administration to meet the cost of conducting the study.

Sec. 9. [270.0682] [TAX INCIDENCE REPORTS.]

Subdivision 1. [BIENNIAL REPORT.] The commissioner of revenue shall report to the legislature by March 1 of each odd-numbered year on the overall incidence of the income tax, sales and excise taxes, and property tax. The report shall present information on the distribution of the tax burden (1) for the overall income distribution, using a systemwide incidence measure such as the Suits index or other appropriate measures of equality and inequality, (2) by income classes, including at a minimum deciles of the income distribution, and (3) by other appropriate taxpayer characteristics.

Subd. 2. [BILL ANALYSES.] At the request of the chair of the house tax committee or the senate committee on taxes and tax laws, the commissioner of revenue shall prepare an incidence impact analysis of a bill or a proposal to change the tax system which increases, decreases, or redistributes taxes by more than $20,000,000. To the extent data is available on the changes in the distribution of the tax burden that are affected by the bill or proposal, the analysis shall report on the incidence effects that would result if the bill were enacted. The report may present information using systemwide measures, such as Suits or other similar indexes, by income classes, taxpayer characteristics, or other relevant categories. The report may include analyses of the effect of the bill or proposal on representative taxpayers. The analysis must include a statement of the incidence assumptions that were used in computing the burdens.

Subd. 3. [INCOME MEASURE.] The incidence analyses shall use the broadest measure of economic income for which reliable data is available.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 279.06, is amended to read:

279.06 [COPY OF LIST AND NOTICE.]

Subdivision 1. [LIST AND NOTICE.] Within five days after the filing of such list, the court administrator shall return a copy thereof to the county auditor, with a notice prepared and signed by the court administrator, and attached thereto, which may be substantially in the following form:

State of Minnesota) ) ss.

County of)

District Court

..... Judicial District.

The state of Minnesota, to all persons, companies, or corporations who have or claim any estate, right, title, or interest in, claim to, or lien upon, any of the several parcels of land described in the list hereto attached:

The list of taxes and penalties on real property for the county of remaining delinquent on the first Monday in January, 19, has been filed in the office of the court administrator of the district court of said county, of which that hereto attached is a copy. Therefore, you, and each of you, are hereby required to file in the office of said court administrator, on or before the 20th day after the publication of this notice and list, your answer, in writing, setting forth any objection or defense you may have to the taxes, or any part thereof, upon any parcel of land described in the list, in, to, or on which you have or claim any estate, right, title, interest, claim, or lien, and, in default thereof, judgment will be entered against such parcel of land for the taxes on such list appearing against it, and for all penalties, interest, and costs. Based upon said judgment, the land shall be sold to the state of Minnesota on the second Monday in May, 19 . . . The period of redemption for all lands sold to the state at a tax judgment sale shall be three years from the date of sale to the state of Minnesota if the land is within an incorporated area unless it is: (a) nonagricultural homesteaded land as defined in section 273.13, subdivision 22; (b) homesteaded agricultural land as defined in section 273.13, subdivision 23, paragraph (a); or (c) seasonal recreational land as defined in section 273.13, subdivision 25, paragraph (d)(1) or (c)(4), in which event the period of redemption is five years from the date of sale to the state of Minnesota.

The period of redemption for all other lands sold to the state at a tax judgment sale shall be five years from the date of sale.

Inquiries as to the proceedings set forth above can be made to the county auditor of county whose address is

(Signed)

Court Administrator of the District Court of the County

Errors in the list shall not be deemed to be a material defect to affect the validity of the judgment and sale.

Subd. 2. [FORM OF LIST AND NOTICE.] Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 1, the commissioner of revenue shall prescribe the form of the list and notice required under subdivision 1. The form shall contain the information required under subdivision 1, but shall be organized and presented in a manner easily read and understood. The print must be easily read and contain standard use of capital and lower-case letters. The court administrator shall use the form prescribed by the commissioner for purposes of this section.

Sec. 11. [289A.16] [ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW.]

Subdivision 1. [TAXPAYER RIGHT TO RECONSIDERATION.] A taxpayer may obtain reconsideration by the commissioner of an order assessing tax, a denial of a request for abatement of penalty, or a denial of a claim for refund by filing an administrative appeal under subdivision 4. A taxpayer cannot obtain reconsideration under this section if the action taken by the commissioner is the outcome of an administrative appeal.

Subd. 2. [APPEAL BY TAXPAYER.] A taxpayer who wishes to seek administrative review must follow the procedures in subdivision 4.

Subd. 3. [NOTICE DATE.] For purposes of this section, the term "notice date" means the date of the order adjusting the tax or order denying a request for abatement, or, in the case of a denied refund, the date of the notice of denial.

Subd. 4. [TIME AND CONTENT FOR ADMINISTRATIVE APPEAL.] Within 60 days after the notice date, the taxpayer must file a written appeal with the commissioner. The appeal need not be in any particular form but must contain the following information:

- (1) name and address of the taxpayer;
- (2) if a corporation, the state of incorporation of the taxpayer, and the principal place of business of the corporation;
- (3) the Minnesota identification number or social security number of the taxpayer;
- (4) the type of tax involved;
- (5) the date;
- (6) the tax years or periods involved and the amount of tax involved for each year or period;
- (7) the findings in the notice that the taxpayer disputes;
- (8) a summary statement that the taxpayer relies on for each exception; and
- (9) the taxpayer's signature or signature of the taxpayer's duly authorized agent.

Subd. 5. [EXTENSIONS.] When requested in writing and within the time allowed for filing an administrative appeal, the commissioner may extend the time for filing an appeal for a period not more than 30 days from the expiration of the 60 days from the notice date.

Subd. 6. [DETERMINATION OF APPEAL.] On the basis of applicable law and available information, the commissioner shall determine the validity, if any, in whole or part of the appeal and notify the taxpayer of the decision. This notice must be in writing and contain the basis for the determination.

Subd. 7. [AGREEMENT DETERMINING TAX LIABILITY.] When it appears to be in the best interests of the state, the commissioner may settle any taxes, penalties, or interest that the commissioner has under consideration by virtue of an appeal filed under this section. An agreement must be in writing and signed by the commissioner and the taxpayer, or the taxpayer's representative authorized by the taxpayer to enter into an agreement. The agreement must be filed in the office of the commissioner.

Subd. 8. [APPEAL OF AN ADMINISTRATIVE DETERMINATION.] Following the determination or settlement of an appeal and notwithstanding any period of limitations for making assessments or other determinations to the contrary, the commissioner must issue an order reflecting that disposition. If the statute of limitations for making assessments or other determinations would have expired before the issuance of this order, except for this section, the order is limited to issues or matters contained in the appealed determination. Except in the case of an agreement determining tax under this section, the order is appealable to the Minnesota tax court under section 271.06.

Subd. 9. [APPEAL WHERE NO DETERMINATION.] If the commissioner does not make a determination within six months of the filing of an administrative appeal, the taxpayer may elect to appeal to tax court.

Subd. 10. [EXEMPTION FROM ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE ACT.] This section is not subject to chapter 14.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 296.02, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [EXCEPTIONS.] The provisions of subdivision 1 do not apply to (1) gasoline purchased by a transit system owned by one or more statutory or home rule charter cities or towns receiving financial assistance under section 174.24 or 473.384, or (2) to sales of compressed natural gas or propane for use in vehicles displaying a valid annual alternate fuel permit.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 296.025, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [EXCEPTIONS.] The provisions of subdivision 1 do not apply to (1) special fuel purchased by a transit system owned by one or more statutory or home rule charter cities or towns receiving financial assistance under section 174.24 or 473.384, or (2) to sales of compressed natural gas or propane for use in vehicles displaying a valid annual alternate fuel permit.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297.07, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [OFFSET.] Upon audit, if a distributor's return reflects an overpayment, the overpayment may only be offset against an additional tax liability for the month immediately preceding or immediately after the month of overpayment. Overage, the overage shall be offset against a shortage, if any, in the month immediately preceding the month of the overage. If any overage remains after that offset, the remainder may only be offset against a shortage, if any, in the month immediately following the month of the overage.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 298.015, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TAX IMPOSED.] A person engaged in the business of mining shall pay to the state of Minnesota for distribution as provided in section 298.018 a net proceeds tax equal to two percent of the net proceeds from mining in Minnesota. The tax applies to all mineral and energy resources mined or extracted within the state of Minnesota except for sand, silica sand, gravel, building stone, crushed rock, limestone, granite, dimension granite, dimension stone, horticultural peat, clay, soil, iron ore, and taconite concentrates. The tax is in addition to all other taxes provided for by law. The tax is due by June 15 of the year succeeding the calendar year covered by the report required by section 298.05.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 298.017, is amended to read:

298.017 [DEDUCTIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEDUCTIONS NOT ALLOWED.] For purposes of calculating the net proceeds under section 298.015, the following expenses are not deductible: (1) all sales, marketing, and interest expenses; (2) all insurance expense and taxes, except as specifically provided in this section; (3) all administrative expenses outside of Minnesota; (4) any research expense prior to production; (5) all funds set aside during production years to pay for reclamation expenses after production ends; (6) royalty expenses, depletion allowances, and cost of mining land.

Subd. 2. [DEDUCTIONS ALLOWED.] (a) In calculating the net proceeds for the purpose of determining the tax provided in section 298.015, only those expenses specifically allowed in this subdivision may be deducted from gross proceeds. The carryback or carryforward of deductions shall not be allowed.

(b) Ordinary and necessary expenses actually paid for the mining, production, processing, beneficiation, smelting, or refining of metal or mineral products for:

(1) labor, including wages, salaries, fringe benefits, unemployment and workers' compensation insurance;

(2) machinery, equipment, and supplies, including any sales and use tax paid on it, except that machinery and equipment subject to depreciation shall only be deductible under clause (b)(3);

(3) depreciation as defined and allowed by section 167 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986; and

(4) administrative expenses inside Minnesota; and

(5) reclamation costs actually incurred in Minnesota and paid in a year of production, including the payment of bonds required by the provisions of an environmental permit issued by the state of Minnesota are deductible.

(c) Ordinary and necessary expenses of transporting metal or mineral products are allowed as a deduction if the costs are included in the sale price of the products.

(d) Expenses of exploration, research, or development in this state for the mining and processing of minerals within Minnesota paid in a production year are deductible in the production year.

(e) Expenses of exploration and development in Minnesota incurred prior to production must be amortized and deducted on a straight-line basis over the first five years of production.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 298.05, is amended to read:

298.05 [MINING COMPANIES TO REPORT ANNUALLY.]

Every person engaged in such mining or production of ores shall, annually, on or before the first day of March 15, file with the commissioner of revenue, under oath, a correct report, in such form and containing such information as the commissioner may require, covering the preceding calendar year.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 298.24, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. (a) For concentrate produced in ~~1986 and 1987~~ 1990 there is hereby imposed upon taconite and iron sulphides, and upon the mining and quarrying thereof, and upon the production of iron ore concentrate therefrom, and upon the concentrate so produced, a tax of ~~$1.90~~ $1.975 per gross ton of merchantable iron ore concentrate produced therefrom.

(b) ~~Except as provided in paragraph (e),~~ For concentrates produced in ~~1988~~ 1991 and subsequent years, the tax rate shall be equal to the preceding year's tax rate plus an amount equal to the preceding year's tax rate multiplied by the percentage increase in the implicit price deflator from the fourth quarter of the second preceding year to the fourth quarter of the preceding year. "Implicit price deflator" for the gross national product means the implicit price deflator prepared by the bureau of economic analysis of the United States Department of Commerce.

(c) ~~The provisions of paragraph (b) will not be in effect for concentrates produced in 1988 if the 1988 production is not less than 34,000,000 tons. If the provisions of paragraph (b) are not in effect for concentrates produced in a year, the rate of the tax for that year's production will be the rate of the tax imposed on the previous year's production. The tax shall be imposed on the average of the production for the current year and the previous two years. The rate of the tax imposed will be the current year's tax rate. This clause shall not apply in the case of the closing of a taconite facility if the property taxes on the facility would be higher if this clause and section 298.25 were not applicable.~~

(d) If the tax or any part of the tax imposed by this subdivision is held to be unconstitutional, a tax of ~~$1.90~~ $1.975 per gross ton of merchantable iron ore concentrate produced shall be imposed.

(e) Consistent with the intent of this subdivision to impose a tax based upon the weight of merchantable iron ore concentrate, the commissioner of revenue may indirectly determine the weight of merchantable iron ore concentrate included in fluxed pellets by subtracting the weight of the limestone, dolomite, or olivine derivatives or other basic flux additives included in the pellets from the weight of the pellets. For purposes of this paragraph, "fluxed pellets" are pellets produced in a process in which limestone, dolomite, olivine, or other basic flux additives are combined with merchantable iron ore concentrate. No subtraction from the weight of the pellets shall be allowed for binders, mineral and chemical additives other than basic flux additives, or moisture.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.171, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11. [LIMITATIONS; LAST EIGHT MONTHS OF DURATION.] This subdivision applies only to state tax reductions first authorized by the municipality to be provided to a business within eight months of the expiration of the enterprise zone's designation.

Before agreeing with a business to provide tax reductions, the municipality must submit the proposed tax reductions to the commissioner for approval. The commissioner shall review and analyze the proposal in light of, at least, (1) the proposed investment that the business will make in the zone, (2) the number and quality of new jobs that will be created in the zone, (3) the overall positive impact on economic activity in the zone, and (4) the extent to which the impacts in clauses (1) to (3) are dependent upon providing the state tax reductions to the business. The commissioner shall disapprove the proposal if the commissioner determines the public benefits of increased investment and employment resulting from the tax reductions is disproportionately small relative to the cost of the state tax reductions. If the commissioner disapproves of the proposal, the tax reductions are not allowed to the business.

If the municipality submits the proposal to the commissioner before expiration of the zone designation, the authority to grant the tax reductions continues until the commissioner acts on the proposal.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.845, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [EXPENDITURE NOTIFICATION AND COMMISSION RECOMMENDATION.] (a) The commissioner shall notify the chair and the director of the legislative commission on waste management before making expenditures from the fund.

(b) The legislative commission on waste management shall make recommendations to the standing legislative committees on finance and appropriations about appropriations from the fund.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 475.53, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [DEBT LIMIT RESERVATION.] A municipality may, by ordinance, reserve a portion of its unencumbered debt limit for the purpose of providing proof of financial responsibility for the contin-agency action portion of the response costs at a solid waste disposal facility, subject to the rules adopted by the pollution control agency under section 116.07, subdivision 4h. Reservation of a portion of a municipality's debt limit under this subdivision may not be revoked by the municipality until the expiration of the required time period for maintaining proof of financial responsibility or the municipality adopts and adequately funds, as of the date of implementation, an alternate method of financial responsibility under the rules of the agency, whichever occurs earlier. If the municipality reserves its debt limit under this subdivision, the debt limit is computed as if the municipality had issued obligations, subject to the limit, in the amount of the reservation specified in the ordinance. Notwithstanding the amount of market value in the municipality, the reserved amount of the limit is available for issuance of bonds to pay the municipality's response costs.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 500.24, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [REPORTS.] (a) The chief executive officer of every pension or investment fund, corporation, or limited partnership, except a family farm corporation or a family farm limited partnership, that holds any interest in agricultural land or land used for the breeding, feeding, pasturing, growing, or raising of livestock, dairy or poultry, or products thereof, or land used for the production of agricultural crops or fruit or other horticultural products, other than a bona fide encumbrance taken for purposes of security, or which is engaged in farming or proposing to commence farming in this state after May 20, 1973, shall file with the commissioner of agriculture a report containing the following information and documents:

(1) The name of the pension or investment fund, corporation, or limited partnership and its place of incorporation, certification, or registration;

(2) The address of the pension or investment plan headquarters or of the registered office of the corporation in this state, the name and address of its registered agent in this state and, in the case of a foreign corporation or limited partnership, the address of its principal office in its place of incorporation, certification, or registration;

(3) The acreage and location listed by quarter-quarter section, township and county of each lot or parcel of land in this state owned or leased by the pension or investment fund, limited partnership, or corporation and used for the growing of crops or the keeping or feeding of poultry or livestock;

(4) The names and addresses of the officers, administrators, directors or trustees of the pension or investment fund, or of the officers, shareholders owning more than ten percent of the stock, including the percent of stock owned by each such shareholder, and the members of the board of directors of the corporation, and the general and limited partners and the percentage of interest in the partnership by each partner;

(5) The farm products which the pension or investment fund, limited partnership, or corporation produces or intends to produce on its agricultural land;

(6) With the first report, a copy of the title to the property where the farming operations are or will occur indicating the particular exception claimed under subdivision 3, clauses (a) to (r); and

(7) With the first or second report, a copy of the conservation plan proposed by the soil and water conservation district, and with subsequent reports a statement of whether the conservation plan was implemented.

The report of a corporation seeking to qualify hereunder as a family farm corporation, an authorized farm corporation, a family farm partnership, or authorized farm partnership shall contain the following additional information: The number of shares or the partnership interests owned by persons residing on the farm or actively engaged in farming, or their relatives within the third degree of kindred according to the rules of the civil law or their spouses; the name, address and number of shares owned by each shareholder or partnership interests owned by each partner; and a statement as to percentage of gross receipts of the corporation derived from rent, royalties, dividends, interest and annuities. No pension or investment fund, limited partnership, or corporation shall commence farming in this state until the commissioner of agriculture has inspected the report and certified that its proposed operations comply with the provisions of this section.

(b) Every pension or investment fund, limited partnership, or corporation as described in clause (a) shall, prior to April 15 of each year, file with the commissioner of agriculture a report containing the information required in clause (a), based on its operations in the preceding calendar year and its status at the end of the year. A pension or investment fund, limited partnership, or corporation that does not file the report by April 15 must pay a $500 civil penalty. The penalty is a lien on the land being farmed under subdivision 3 until the penalty is paid.

(c) The commissioner or the commissioner's authorized representative may enter into a written agreement with a person required to file a report under this subdivision who, for good cause shown, has failed to make a timely filing. An agreement must be construed as a "no contest" pleading and may encompass a reduction or waiver of the civil penalty for late filing. The agreement is final and conclusive with respect to the civil penalty, except upon a showing of fraud or malfeasance or misrepresentation of a material fact. The matter agreed upon in the agreement may not be reopened or modified by an officer, employee, or agent of the state. The commissioner may enter into an agreement under this paragraph only once for each corporation or partnership.

(d) Failure to file a required report, or the willful filing of false information, shall constitute a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 23. Laws 1990, chapter 480, article 1, section 3, subdivision 14, is amended to read:

Subd. 14. [VOTER REGISTRATION FORM.] The commissioner shall insert securely in the individual income tax return form or instruction booklet distributed for an odd-numbered year a voter registration form, returnable to the secretary of state. The form shall be designed according to rules adopted by the secretary of state. This requirement applies to forms and booklets supplied to post offices, banks, and other outlets, as well as to those mailed directly to taxpayers.

Sec. 24. [SALE OF TAX-FORFEITED LAND; OTTER TAIL COUNTY.]

(a) Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 282.018, Otter Tail county may sell the tax-forfeited lands bordering public water and described in paragraph (c), under the remaining provisions of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 282.

(b) The conveyance must be in a form approved by the attorney general.

(c) The lands that may be conveyed are located in Otter Tail county and are described as:

(1) Lot 13, Sylvanus Crest, Clitherall Township;

(2) Lot 14, Sylvanus Crest, Clitherall Township;

(3) Government Lot 8, Section 32, Township 133, Range 43;

(4) A .36 acre tract of land in Government Ten (10) of Section Four (4), Township One Hundred Thirty-four (134) North, Range Thirty-nine (39) West of the 5th P.M., described as follows: Beginning at a point (iron stake) located as follows: Commencing at the northwest corner (iron) of Lot Seventy-one (71) of "Pleasure Park Beach" subdivision, plat of which is on file and of record in the office of Register of Deeds of Otter Tail County, Minn.; thence proceeding South sixty-six degrees ten minutes West (S 66 degrees 10'W) one hundred thirty-two and five tenths (132.5) feet and South sixty-six degrees forty-one minutes West (S 66 degrees 41'W) one hundred fifty (150.0) feet to the point of beginning; thence running by the following four courses and distances, viz: South twenty-four degrees fourteen minutes East (S 24 degrees 14'E) one hundred ninety-nine and six tenths (199.6) feet to an iron stake on the shoreline of Otter Tail Lake; South fifty-five degrees nineteen minutes West (S 55 degrees 19'W) seventy-five (75.0) feet along the shoreline of said lake, to an iron stake; North twenty-four degrees thirty-four minutes West (N 24 degrees 34'W) two hundred fourteen and four tenths (214.4) feet to an iron stake; and North sixty-six degrees forty-one minutes East (N 66 degrees 41'E) seventy-five (75.0) feet to the point of beginning;

(5) All of Lot 1, Except North 10 feet, Quiram's Beach, Star Lake Township;

(6) Lot 1, Silent Acres, Dora Township.

(d) The county has determined that these lands have little or no potential use as a public access or for other types of public ownership and will realize a higher and better use under private ownership.

Sec. 25. [CANCELLATION OF HAYLIFT PROGRAM DEBTS.]

Any remaining balance on a department of agriculture account receivable resulting from operation of the 1989 drought emergency farm haylift program which the department is required to collect is canceled on the effective date of this section.

Sec. 26. [PAYMENT OF THE GREATER MINNESOTA LAND-FILL CLEANUP FEE.]

The operator of a disposal facility in greater Minnesota shall pay the fee required under Minnesota Statutes, section 115A.923, subdivision 1, to the county or sanitary district where the facility is located, except that the operator of a facility that is owned by a statutory or home rule city shall pay the fee to the city that owns the facility. The county, city, or sanitary district may use the revenue from the fee only for the purposes specified in section 115A.919.

Sec. 27. [APPROPRIATION TO STEARNS COUNTY FOR KIDNAPPING INVESTIGATION COST.]

$100,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of public safety for a grant to Stearns county for the investigation of criminal activity connected with a kidnapping.

Sec. 28. [METRODOME ATHLETIC EVENTS.]

$500,000 is appropriated to the commissioner of trade and eco-conomic development to provide part of the state's contribution for the state to host the International Special Olympics in 1991 and the world championship football game sponsored by the national football league in 1992. $250,000 is for each event for fiscal year 1991. Metrodome facilities must be provided to both events at no charge. This appropriation does not cancel and is available through fiscal year 1992.

Sec. 29. [DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE APPROPRIATION.]

There is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of revenue the following amounts for the administration of this act.

Total	Fiscal year 1990	Fiscal year 1991
$400,000	$125,000	$275,000
Summary by purpose
Tax incidence study		$ 50,000
Corporate AMT		$105,000
Taxpayer bill of rights	$125,000	$ 25,000
Tax increment financing		$ 45,000
Renters' credit		$ 50,000

The appropriation for administration of the taxpayer bill of rights for fiscal year 1990 is available until June 30, 1991.

Sec. 30. [APPROVED COMPLEMENT.]

The approved complement of the department of revenue is increased by three for fiscal year 1991.

Sec. 31. [BUDGET RESERVE REDUCED.]

Upon adjournment sine die of the 1990 legislature, the commissioner of finance, with the approval of the governor, shall reduce the amount in the budget and cash flow reserve account established in Minnesota Statutes, section 16A.15, subdivision 6, as needed to balance general fund expenditures with revenues for the biennium ending June 30, 1991. Notwithstanding section 16A.15, subdivision 1, paragraph (a), the commissioner need not consult with the legislative advisory commission before making the reduction.

Sec. 32. [REPEALER.]

(a) Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 115A.09, subdivision 5; 325E.045, subdivisions 3 and 4; Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, sections 115A.922; 115A.923, subdivisions 2, 3, 4, and 5; 115A.924; 115A.925; 115A.927; and 115A.928 are repealed.

Laws 1987, chapter 348, section 51, subdivision 5, is repealed.

(b) Section 2 is repealed.

Sec. 33. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 11 is effective for assessments or other determinations made on or after August 1, 1990. Sections 12 and 13 are effective for purchases after December 31, 1990. Sections 14, 24, and 25 are effective the day following final enactment. Sections 15 and 16 are effective for taxable years beginning after June 30, 1990. Section 17 is effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1990. Section 22 is effective the day following final enactment, but the provision allowing for an agreement concerning reduction or waiver of a civil penalty for late filing applies to a filing due April 15, 1989, or thereafter. Section 32, paragraph (b), is effective July 1, 1992."

April 23, 1990

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

The Honorable Robert E. Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

We, the undersigned conferees for S. F. No. 2126, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House recede from its amendments and that S. F. No. 2126 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 18B.14, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [BULK PESTICIDE STORAGE.] (a) A person storing pesticides in containers of a rated capacity of 500 gallons or more for more than ten consecutive days at a bulk pesticide storage facility must obtain a pesticide storage permit from the commissioner as required by rule.

(b) Applications must be on forms provided by the commissioner containing information established by rule. The initial application for a permit must be accompanied by a nonrefundable application fee of $100 for each location where the pesticides are stored. An application for a facility that includes both fertilizers as regulated under chapter 18C and bulk pesticides as regulated under this chapter shall pay only one application fee of $100.

(c) The commissioner shall by rule develop and implement a program to regulate bulk pesticides. The rules must include installation of secondary containment devices, storage site security, safeguards, notification of storage site locations, criteria for permit approval, a schedule for compliance, and other appropriate requirements necessary to minimize potential adverse effects on the environment. The rules must conform with existing rules of the pollution control agency.

(d) A person must obtain a permit from the commissioner on forms provided by the commissioner before the person constructs or substantially alters a bulk pesticide storage facility. If an application is incomplete the commissioner must notify the applicant as soon as possible. The permit must be acted upon within 30 days after receiving a completed application.

(e) An application to substantially alter a facility must be accompanied by a $50 fee. An application for a facility that includes both fertilizers regulated under chapter 18C and bulk pesticides regulated under this chapter shall pay only one application fee of $50.

(f) An additional application fee of $250 must be paid by an applicant who begins construction of, or substantially alters, a bulk pesticide storage facility before a permit is issued by the commissioner. The fee under this paragraph may not be charged if the permit is not acted upon within 30 days after receiving a completed application.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 18B.26, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [APPLICATION FEE.] (a) A registrant shall pay an annual application fee for each pesticide to be registered, and this fee is set at one-tenth of one percent for calendar year 1990 and at one-fifth of one percent thereafter of annual gross sales within the state and annual gross sales of pesticides used in the state, with a minimum nonrefundable fee of $150 plus an additional one-tenth of one percent for each pesticide for which the United States Environmental Protection Agency, Office of Water, has published a Health Advisory Summary by December 1 of the previous year. The registrant shall determine when and which pesticides are sold or used in this state. The registrant shall secure sufficient sales information of pesticides distributed into this state from distributors and dealers, regardless of distributor location, to make a determination. Sales of pesticides in this state and sales of pesticides for use in this state by out-of-state distributors are not exempt and must be included in the registrant's annual report, as required under paragraph (c), and fees shall be paid by the registrant based upon those reported sales. Sales of pesticides in the state for use outside of the state are exempt from the application fee in this paragraph if the registrant properly documents the sale location and distributors. A registrant paying more than the minimum fee shall pay the application fee in quarterly installments balance due by 30 days after the end of each calendar quarter March 1 based on the gross sales of the pesticide by the registrant for the preceding calendar quarter year. The fee for disinfectants and sanitizers is $150. The minimum fee is due by December 31 preceding the year for which the application for registration is made. Of the amount collected after July 1, calendar year 1990, $600,000 per year must be credited to the waste pesticide account under section 18B.065, subdivision 5, and the additional amount collected for pesticides with Health Advisory Summaries shall be credited to the agricultural project utilization account under section 116O.13 to be used for pesticide use reduction grants by the agricultural utilization research institute.

(b) An additional fee of $100 must be paid by the applicant for each pesticide to be registered if the application is a renewal application that is submitted after December 31.

(c) A registrant must annually report to the commissioner the amount and type of each registered pesticide sold, offered for sale, or otherwise distributed in the state. The report shall be filed at the time of payment of the by March 1 for the previous year's registration application fee. The commissioner shall specify the form of the report and require additional information deemed necessary to determine the amount and type of pesticides annually distributed in the state. The information required shall include the brand name, amount, and formulation of each pesticide sold, offered for sale, or otherwise distributed in the state, but the information collected, if made public, shall be reported in a manner which does not identify a specific brand name in the report.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 18B.27, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [APPLICATION FEE.] An application fee for a special local need registration must be accompanied by a nonrefundable fee of ~~$125~~ $150.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 18B.28, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [APPLICATION FEE.] (a) An application for registration of an experimental use pesticide product must be accompanied by a nonrefundable application fee of ~~$125~~ $150.

(b) An additional fee of $200 must be paid by the applicant for each pesticide distributed or used in the state before an initial experimental use pesticide product registration was issued for the pesticide.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 18C.205, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PERMIT REQUIRED.] A person may not apply fertilizers through an irrigation system without a chemigation permit from the commissioner. A chemigation permit is required for one or more wells or other sources of irrigation water that are protected from contamination by the same devices as required by rule.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 18C.305, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CONSTRUCTION PERMIT.] A person must obtain a permit from the commissioner on forms provided by the commissioner before the person constructs or substantially alters:

(1) safeguards; or

(2) an existing facility used for the manufacture, blending, distribution, handling, or bulk storage of fertilizers, soil amendments, or plant amendments. The commissioner may not grant a permit for a site without safeguards that are adequate to prevent the escape or movement of the fertilizers from the site.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 18D.103, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REPORT TO COMMISSIONER.] A responsible party or an owner of real property must, on discovering an incident has occurred, immediately report the incident to the commissioner. The responsible party must immediately take all reasonable action necessary to minimize or abate the incident and to recover any agricultural chemicals involved in the incident with or without a directive from the commissioner.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 18D.321, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW.] If a person notifies the commissioner that the person intends to contest an order issued under this chapter, the state office of administrative hearings shall conduct a hearing in accordance with the applicable provisions of chapter 14 for hearings in contested cases. For contested corrective action orders, the state office of administrative hearings shall conduct an administrative hearing not later than 14 days after notification that a corrective action order is contested.

Sec. 9. [18D.323] [CREDITING OF PENALTIES, FEES, AND COSTS.]

Except for money repaid to the agricultural chemical response and reimbursement account under section 18E.04, subdivision 6, penalties, cost reimbursements, fees, and other moneys collected under this chapter must be deposited into the state treasury and credited to the appropriate pesticide or fertilizer regulatory account.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 18E.03, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DETERMINATION OF RESPONSE AND REIMBURSEMENT FEE.] (a) The commissioner shall determine the amount of the response and reimbursement fee under subdivision 5 after a public hearing, but notwithstanding section 16A.128, based on:

(1) the amount needed to maintain a an unencumbered balance in the account of $1,000,000;

(2) the amount estimated to be needed for responses to incidents as provided in subdivision 2, clauses (1) and (2); and

(3) the amount needed for payment and reimbursement under section 18E.04.

(b) The commissioner shall determine the response and reimbursement fee so that the total balance in the account does not exceed $5,000,000.

(c) Money from the response and reimbursement fee shall be deposited in the treasury and credited to the agricultural chemical response and reimbursement account.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 18E.03, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [FEE THROUGH 1990.] (a) The response and reimbursement fee consists of the surcharge fees in this subdivision and shall be collected until December 31, 1990 March 1, 1991.

(b) The commissioner shall impose a surcharge on pesticides registered under chapter 18B to be collected as a surcharge on the registration application fee under section 18B.26, subdivision 3, that is equal to 0.1 percent of sales of the pesticide in the state and sales of pesticides for use in the state during the previous calendar quarter period April 1, 1990, through December 31, 1990, except the surcharge may not be imposed on pesticides that are sanitizers or disinfectants as determined by the commissioner. The registrant shall determine when and which pesticides are sold or used in this state. The registrant shall secure sufficient sales information of pesticides distributed into this state from distributors and dealers, regardless of distributor location, to make a determination. Sales of pesticides in this state and sales of pesticides for use in this state by out-of-state distributors are not exempt and must be included in the registrant's annual report, as required under section 18B.26, subdivision 3, paragraph (c), and fees shall be paid by the registrant based upon those reported sales. Sales of pesticides in the state for use outside of the state are exempt from the surcharge in this paragraph if the registrant properly documents the sale location and the distributors.

(c) The commissioner shall impose a ten cents per ton surcharge on the inspection fee under section 18C.425, subdivision 6, for fertilizers, soil amendments, and plant amendments.

(d) The commissioner shall impose a surcharge on the license application of persons licensed under chapters 18B and 18C consisting of:

(1) a $150 surcharge for each site where pesticides are stored or distributed, to be imposed as a surcharge on pesticide dealer application fees under section 18B.31, subdivision 5;

(2) a $150 surcharge for each site where a fertilizer, plant amendment, or soil amendment is distributed, to be imposed on persons licensed under sections 18C.415 and 18C.425;

(3) a $50 surcharge to be imposed on a structural pest control applicator license application under section 18B.32, subdivision 6, for business license applications only;

(4) a $20 surcharge to be imposed on commercial applicator license application fees under section 18B.33, subdivision 7;

(5) a $20 surcharge to be imposed on noncommercial applicator license application fees under section 18B.34, subdivision 5, except a surcharge may not be imposed on a noncommercial applicator that is a state agency, political subdivision of the state, the federal government, or an agency of the federal government; and

(6) a $50 surcharge for licensed lawn service applicators under chapter 18B or 18C, to be imposed on license application fees.

(e) If a person has more than one license for a site, only one surcharge may be imposed to cover all the licenses for the site.

(f) A $1,000 fee shall be imposed on each site where pesticides are stored and sold for use outside of the state unless:

(1) the distributor properly documents that it has less than $2,000,000 per year in wholesale value of pesticides stored and transferred through the site; or

(2) the registrant pays the surcharge under paragraph (b) and the registration fee under section 18B.26, subdivision 3, for all of the pesticides stored at the site and sold for use outside of the state.

(g) Paragraphs (c) to (f) apply to sales, licenses issued, applications received for licenses, and inspection fees imposed on or after July 1, 1990.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 18E.03, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [FEE AFTER 1990.] (a) The response and reimbursement fee for calendar years after ~~December 31~~, calendar year 1990, consists of the surcharges in this subdivision and shall be collected by the commissioner. The amount of the response and reimbursement fee shall be determined and imposed annually as required under subdivision 3. The amount of the surcharges shall be proportionate to ~~and may not exceed~~ the surcharges in subdivision 4.

(b) The commissioner shall impose a surcharge on pesticides registered under chapter 18B to be collected as a surcharge on the registration application fee under section 18B.26, subdivision 3, as a percent of gross sales of the pesticide in the state and sales of the pesticide for use in the state during the previous calendar quarter year, except the surcharge may not be imposed on pesticides that are sanitizers or disinfectants as determined by the commissioner. The registrant shall determine when and which pesticides are sold or used in this state. The registrant shall secure sufficient sales information of pesticides distributed into this state from distributors and dealers, regardless of distributor location, to make a determination. Sales of pesticides in this state and sales of pesticides for use in this state by out-of-state distributors are not exempt and must be included in the registrant's annual report, as required under section 18B.26, subdivision 3, paragraph (c), and fees shall be paid by the registrant based upon those reported sales. Sales of pesticides in the state for use outside of the state are exempt from the surcharge in this paragraph if the registrant properly documents the sale locations and the distributors.

(c) The commissioner shall impose a fee per ton surcharge on the inspection fee under section 18C.425, subdivision 6, for fertilizers, soil amendments, and plant amendments.

(d) The commissioner shall impose a surcharge on the application fee of persons licensed under chapters 18B and 18C consisting of:

(1) a surcharge for each site where pesticides are stored or distributed, to be imposed as a surcharge on pesticide dealer application fees under section 18B.31, subdivision 5;

(2) a surcharge for each site where a fertilizer, plant amendment, or soil amendment is distributed, to be imposed on persons licensed under sections 18C.415 and 18C.425;

(3) a surcharge to be imposed on a structural pest control applicator license application under section 18B.32, subdivision 6, for business license applications only;

(4) a surcharge to be imposed on commercial applicator license application fees under section 18B.33, subdivision 7;

(5) a surcharge to be imposed on noncommercial applicator license application fees under section 18B.34, subdivision 5, except a surcharge may not be imposed on a noncommercial applicator that is a state agency, a political subdivision of the state, the federal government, or an agency of the federal government; and

(6) a surcharge for licensed lawn service applicators under chapter 18B or 18C, to be imposed on license application fees.

(e) If a person has more than one license for a site, only one surcharge may be imposed to cover all the licenses for the site.

(f) A $1,000 fee shall be imposed on each site where pesticides are stored and sold for use outside of the state unless:

(1) the distributor properly documents that it has less than $2,000,000 per year in wholesale value of pesticides stored and transferred through the site; or

(2) the registrant pays the surcharge under paragraph (b) and the registration fee under section 18B.26, subdivision 3, for all of the pesticides stored at the site and sold for use outside of the state.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 18E.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [APPROPRIATION AND REIMBURSEMENT.] The amount of the response and reimbursement fee imposed under subdivisions 3 to 5 is appropriated from the general fund to the agricultural chemical response and reimbursement account to be reimbursed when the fee is collected.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 18E.04, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REIMBURSEMENT OF RESPONSE COSTS.] The commissioner shall reimburse an eligible person from the agricultural chemical response and reimbursement account for the reasonable and necessary costs incurred by the eligible person in taking corrective action as provided in subdivision 4, if the board determines:

(1) the eligible person takes all reasonable action necessary to minimize and abate an incident and the action is subsequently approved by the commissioner;

(2) the eligible person complies with any reasonable requests for corrective action issued to the eligible person by the commissioner;

(3) the eligible person complied with corrective action orders if issued to the eligible person by the commissioner; and

~~(2)~~ (4) the incident was reported as required in chapters 18B, 18C, and 18D.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103B.3369, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE.] The board may award grants to counties only to carry out water resource protection and management programs identified as priorities in comprehensive local water plans. Grants may be used to employ persons and to obtain and use information necessary to:

(1) develop comprehensive local water plans under section sections 110B.04 and 473.8785 that have not received state funding for water resources planning as provided for in Laws 1987, chapter 404, section 30, subdivision 5, clause (a); and

(2) implement comprehensive local water plans.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103I.005, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [BORING.] "Boring" means a hole or excavation that is not used to extract water and includes exploratory borings, and environmental bore holes, and test holes.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103I.005, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4a. [DEWATERING WELL.] "Dewatering well" means a nonpotable well used to lower groundwater levels to allow for construction or use of underground space. A dewatering well does not include:

(1) a well or dewatering well 25 feet or less in depth for temporary dewatering during construction; or

(2) a well used to lower groundwater levels for control or removal of groundwater contamination.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103I.005, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [ENVIRONMENTAL BORE HOLE.] “Environmental bore hole” means a hole or excavation in the ground that penetrates a confining layer or is greater than 25 feet in depth and that enters or goes through a water bearing layer and is used to monitor or measure physical, chemical, radiological, or biological parameters without extracting water. An environmental bore hole also includes bore holes constructed for vapor recovery or venting systems. An environmental bore hole does not include a well, elevator shaft, exploratory boring, or monitoring well.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103I.005, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [EXPLORATORY BORING.] “Exploratory boring” means a surface drilling done to explore or prospect for oil, natural gas, kaolin clay, and metallic minerals, including iron, copper, zinc, lead, gold, silver, titanium, vanadium, nickel, cadmium, molybdenum, chromium, manganese, cobalt, zirconium, beryllium, thorium, uranium, aluminum, platinum, palladium, radium, tantalum, tin, and niobium, and a drilling or boring for petroleum.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103I.005, subdivision 16, is amended to read:

Subd. 16. [PERSON.] “Person” means an individual, firm, partnership, association, or corporation or other entity including the United States government, any interstate body, the state, and any agency, department, or political subdivision of the state.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103I.101, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DUTIES.] The commissioner shall:

(1) regulate the drilling, construction, and sealing of wells and borings;

(2) examine and license well contractors, persons modifying or repairing well casings, well screens, or well diameters; constructing, repairing, and sealing unconventional wells such as drive point wells or dug wells; constructing, repairing, and sealing dewatering wells; sealing wells; installing well pumps or pumping equipment; and excavating or drilling holes for the installation of elevator shafts or hydraulic cylinders;

(3) register and examine monitoring well contractors;

(4) license explorers engaged in exploratory boring and examine individuals who supervise or oversee exploratory boring;

(5) after consultation with the commissioner of natural resources and the pollution control agency, establish standards for the design, location, construction, repair, and sealing of wells and elevator shafts, and borings within the state; and

(6) issue permits for wells, groundwater thermal devices, vertical heat exchangers, and excavation for holes to install elevator shafts or hydraulic cylinders.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103I.101, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [COMMISSIONER TO ADOPT RULES.] The commissioner shall adopt rules including:

(1) issuance of licenses for:

(i) qualified well contractors, persons modifying or repairing well casings, well screens, or well diameters;

(ii) persons constructing, repairing, and sealing unconventional wells such as drive points or dug wells;

(iii) persons constructing, repairing, and sealing dewatering wells;

(iv) persons sealing wells; and

~~(iv)~~ (v) persons installing well pumps or pumping equipment and excavating holes for installing elevator shafts or hydraulic cylinders;

(2) issuance of registration for monitoring well contractors;

(3) establishment of conditions for examination and review of applications for license and registration;

(4) establishment of conditions for revocation and suspension of license and registration;

(5) establishment of minimum standards for design, location, construction, repair, and sealing of wells to implement the purpose and intent of this chapter;

(6) establishment of a system for reporting on wells drilled and sealed;

(7) modification of fees prescribed in this chapter, according to the procedures for setting fees in section 16A.128;

(8) establishment of standards for the construction, maintenance, sealing, and water quality monitoring of wells in areas of known or suspected contamination, for which the commissioner may adopt emergency rules;

(9) establishment of wellhead protection measures for wells serving public water supplies;

(10) establishment of procedures to coordinate collection of well data with other state and local governmental agencies; and

(11) establishment of criteria and procedures for submission of well logs, formation samples or well cuttings, water samples, or other special information required for geologic and water resource mapping.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103I.101, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [FEES FOR VARIANCES.] The commissioner shall charge a nonrefundable application fee of ~~$150~~ $100 to cover the administrative cost of processing a request for a variance or modification of rules under Minnesota Rules, part 4725.0400, and for a variance relating to well construction, the nonrefundable application fee shall be the same amount as the well permit fee chapter 4725, for wells and borings.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103I.111, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [FEES.] A board of health under a delegation agreement with the commissioner may charge permit and notification fees in excess of the fees specified in section 103I.208 if the fees do not exceed the total direct and indirect costs to administer the delegated duties.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103I.111, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2b. [ORDINANCE AUTHORITY.] A political subdivision may adopt ordinances to enforce and administer powers and duties delegated under this section. The ordinances may not conflict with or be less restrictive than standards in state law or rule. Ordinances adopted by the governing body of a statutory or home rule charter city or town may not conflict with or be less restrictive than ordinances adopted by the county board.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103I.111, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [LOCAL GOVERNMENT REGULATION OF OPEN WELLS AND RECHARGING BASINS.] (a) The governing body of a county, municipality, statutory or home rule charter city, or town may regulate open wells and recharging basins in a manner not inconsistent with this chapter and rules and may provide penalties for the violations. The use or maintenance of an open well or recharging basin that endangers the safety of a considerable number of persons may be defined as a public nuisance and abated as a public nuisance.

(b) The abatement of the public nuisance may include covering the open well or recharging basin or surrounding the open well or recharging basin with a protective fence.

Sec. 27. [103I.112] [FEE EXEMPTIONS FOR STATE AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT.]

(a) The commissioner may not charge fees required under this chapter to a state agency or a local unit of government or to a subcontractor performing work for the state agency or local unit of government.

(b) "Local unit of government" means a statutory or home rule charter city, town, county, or soil and water conservation district, watershed district, an organization formed for the joint exercise of powers under section 471.59, a local health board, or other special purpose district or authority with local jurisdiction in water and related land resources management.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103I.205, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [NOTIFICATION REQUIRED.] (a) Except as provided in paragraphs (d) and (e), a person may not construct a well until a notification of the proposed well on a form prescribed by the commissioner is filed with the commissioner with the filing fee in section 103I.208. If after filing the well notification an attempt to construct a well is unsuccessful, a new notification is not required unless the information relating to the successful well has substantially changed.

(b) The property owner, the property owner's agent, or the well contractor where a well is to be located must file the well notification with the commissioner.

(c) The well notification under this subdivision preempts local permits and notifications, and counties or home rule charter or statutory cities may not require a permit or notification for wells.

(d) The owner of a drive point well A person who is an individual that constructs a drive point well on property owned or leased by the individual for farming or agricultural purposes or as the individual's place of abode must notify the commissioner of the installation and location of the well. The ~~owner~~ person must complete the notification form prescribed by the commissioner and mail it to the commissioner by ten days after the well is completed. A fee may not be charged for the notification. A person who sells drive point wells at retail must provide buyers with notification forms and informational materials including requirements regarding wells, their location, construction, and disclosure. The commissioner must provide the notification forms and informational materials to the sellers.

(e) A person may not construct a monitoring well or dewatering well until a permit for the monitoring well is issued by the commissioner for the construction. If after obtaining a permit an attempt to construct a well is unsuccessful, a new permit is not required as long as the initial permit is modified to indicate the location of the successful well.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103I.205, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EMERGENCY PERMIT AND NOTIFICATION EXEMPTIONS.] The commissioner may adopt rules that modify the procedures for filing a well notification or well permit if conditions occur that:

(1) endanger the public health and welfare or cause a need to protect the groundwater; or

(2) require the monitoring well contractor, limited well contractor, or well contractor to begin constructing a well before obtaining a permit or notification.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103I.205, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [LICENSE REQUIRED.] (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), (c), (d), or (e), a person may not drill, construct, or repair a well unless the person has a well contractor's license in possession.

(b) A person may construct a monitoring well if the person is a professional engineer registered under sections 326.02 to 326.15 in the branches of civil or geological engineering, or hydrologists or hydrogeologists certified by the American Institute of Hydrology, any professional engineer registered with the board of architecture, engineering, land surveying, or landscape architecture, or a geologist certified by the American Institute of Professional Geologists, and registers with the commissioner as a monitoring well contractor on forms provided by the commissioner.

(c) A person may do the following work with a limited well contractor's license in possession. A separate license is required for each of the five activities:

(1) ~~modify installing or repair~~ installing or repairing well casings or well screens or pitless units or pitless adaptors and well casings from the the pitless adaptor or pitless unit to the upper termination of the well casing;

(2) ~~construct~~ constructing, repairing, and sealing drive point wells or dug wells; or

(3) ~~install~~ installing well pumps or pumping equipment;

(4) sealing wells; or

(5) constructing, repairing, or sealing dewatering wells.

(d) A person may do the following work with a limited well sealing contractor's license in possession:

(1) ~~modify or repair well casings or well screens;~~

(2) ~~construct drive point wells;~~

(3) ~~install well pumps or pumping equipment; or~~

(4) ~~seal wells.~~

(e) Notwithstanding other provisions of this chapter requiring a license, a license is not required for a person who complies with the other provisions of this chapter if the person is:

(1) an individual who constructs a well on land that is owned or leased by the individual and is used by the individual for farming or agricultural purposes or as the individual's place of abode; or

(2) an individual who performs labor or services for a well contractor in connection with the construction or repair of a well or sealing a well at the direction and at the personal supervision of a well contractor.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103I.205, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [AT-GRADE MONITORING WELLS.] At-grade monitoring wells are authorized without variance and may be installed for the purpose of evaluating groundwater conditions or for use as a leak detection device. The An at-grade completion monitoring well must empty be installed in accordance with the rules of the commissioner. The at-grade monitoring wells must be installed with an impermeable double locking cap approved by the commissioner and must be labeled monitoring wells.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103I.205, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [DISTANCE REQUIREMENTS FOR SOURCES OF CONTAMINATION.] (a) A person may not place, construct, or install an actual or potential source of contamination any closer to a well than the isolation distances prescribed by the commissioner by rule unless a variance has been prescribed by rule.

(b) The commissioner shall establish by rule reduced isolation distances for facilities which have safeguards in accordance with sections 18B.01, subdivision 26, and 18C.005, subdivision 29.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103I.205, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [MONITORING WELL CONTRACT REQUIREMENT WELLS ON PROPERTY OF ANOTHER.] A person may not construct a monitoring well on the property of another until the owner of the property on which the well is to be located and the well owner sign a written contract agreement that describes the nature of the work to be performed, the estimated cost of the work, and provisions identifies which party will be responsible for obtaining maintenance permits and for sealing the monitoring well. If the property owner refuses to sign the agreement, the well owner may, in lieu of a written agreement, state in writing to the commissioner that the well owner will be responsible for obtaining maintenance permits and sealing the well. Nothing in this subdivision eliminates the responsibilities of the property owner under this chapter, or allows a person to construct a well on the property of another without consent or other legal authority.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103I.208, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PERMIT FEE.] The permit fee to be paid by a property owner is:

(1) for a well that is inoperable or disconnected from a power supply under a maintenance permit, $50;

(2) for construction of a monitoring well, $50;

(3) ~~for monitoring wells owned by a state or federal agency or a local unit of government as defined in section 103B.3363, subdivision 4, there is no fee;~~

(4) annually for a monitoring well that is unsealed under a maintenance permit, $50;

~~(5) (4) for monitoring wells used as a leak detection device at a single motor fuel retail outlet or petroleum bulk storage site excluding tank farms, the construction permit fee is $50 per site regardless of the number of wells constructed on the site and the annual fee for a maintenance permit for unsealed monitoring wells is $50 per site regardless of the number of monitoring wells located on site;~~

(6) ~~(5)~~ for a groundwater thermal exchange device, $50;

~~(7) (6)~~ for a vertical heat exchanger, in addition to the permit fee for wells, $50;

~~(8) (7)~~ for construction of the dewatering well, $50 for each well except a dewatering project comprising more than ten wells shall be issued a single permit for the wells recorded on the permit for $500; and

~~(9) (8)~~ annually for a dewatering well that is unsealed under a maintenance permit, $25 for each well, except a dewatering project comprising more than ten wells shall be issued a single permit for wells recorded on the permit for $250.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103I.235, is amended to read:

103I.235 [SALE OF PROPERTY WHERE WELLS ARE LOCATED.]

Subdivision 1. [DISCLOSURE OF WELLS TO BUYER.] (a) Before signing an agreement to sell or transfer real property, the seller must disclose in writing to the buyer information about the status and the location of all known wells on the property, including by delivering to the buyer either a statement by the seller that the seller does not know of any wells on the property, or a disclosure statement indicating the legal description, and the quartile, section, township, range, and county, and a map drawn from available information showing the location of the wells each well to the extent practicable. In the disclosure statement, the seller must indicate, for each well, whether the well is in use, not in use, or sealed.

(b) At the time of closing of the sale, the disclosure statement information and the quartile, section, township, and range in which each well is located must be provided on a well certificate signed by the seller of the property or a person authorized to act on behalf of the seller. A well certificate need not be provided if the closing occurs before November 1, 1990, or the seller does not know of any wells on the property and the deed or other instrument of conveyance contains the statement: "The Seller certifies that the Seller does not know of any wells on the described real property."

If a deed is given pursuant to a contract for deed, the well certificate required by this subdivision shall be signed by the buyer or a person authorized to act on behalf of the buyer.

(c) If a the seller fails to provide a required well certificate, a the buyer, or a person authorized to act on behalf of the buyer, may sign a well certificate based on the information provided on the disclosure statement required by this section or based on other available information.

(d) A county recorder or registrar of titles may not record a deed, or other instrument, or writing of conveyance dated after October 31, 1990, for which a certificate of value is required under section 272.115, or any deed or contract for deed other instrument of conveyance dated after October 31, 1990, from a governmental body exempt from the payment of state deed tax, unless the deed or other instrument of conveyance either contains the statement "The Seller certifies that the Seller does not know of any wells on the described real property," or is accompanied by the well certificate required by this subdivision is filed with the county recorder or registrar of titles and the filing fee paid under section 357.18. The county recorder or registrar of titles shall note on each deed or other instrument of conveyance accompanied by a well certificate that the well certificate was received. The well certificate shall not be filed or recorded in the records maintained by the county recorder or registrar of titles. The county recorder or registrar of titles shall transmit the well certificate to the commissioner of health within 15 days after receiving the well certificate.

(e) The commissioner in consultation with county recorders shall prescribe the form for a well certificate and provide well certificate forms to county recorders and registrars of titles and other interested persons.

(f) Failure to comply with a requirement of this subdivision does not impair:

(1) the validity of a deed or other instrument of conveyance as between the parties to the deed or instrument or as to any other person who otherwise would be bound by the deed or instrument; or

(2) the record, as notice, of any deed or other instrument of conveyance accepted for filing or recording contrary to the provisions of this subdivision.

Subd. 2. [LIABILITY FOR FAILURE TO DISCLOSE.] Unless the buyer and seller agree to the contrary, in writing, before the closing of the sale, a seller who fails to disclose the existence of a well at the time of sale and knew of or had reason to know of the existence of a the well, is liable to the buyer for costs and reasonable attorney fees relating to the sealing of a the well, and reasonable attorney fees for collection of costs from the seller, if the action ~~must be~~ is commenced by the buyer within six years after the date the buyer purchased closed the purchase of the real property where the well is located.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103L301, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DEWATERING WELLS.] (a) The owner of the property where a dewatering well is located must have the dewatering well sealed when the dewatering well is no longer in use.

(b) A well contractor or, limited well sealing contractor, or limited dewatering well contractor shall seal the dewatering well.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103L311, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PROHIBITION ON STATE LAND PURCHASED WITHOUT WELL IDENTIFICATION.] The state may not purchase or sell real property or an interest in real property without identifying the location of all wells on the property, whether in use, not in use, or sealed on the property, and making provisions to have the wells not in use properly sealed at the cost of the seller as part of the contract. The deed or other instrument of conveyance evidencing the sale may not be recorded with the county recorder or registrar of titles unless this subdivision is complied with. Failure to comply with a requirement of this subdivision does not impair:

(1) the validity of a deed or other instrument of conveyance as between the parties to the deed or instrument or as to any other person who otherwise would be bound by the deed or instrument; or

(2) the record, as notice, of any deed or other instrument of conveyance accepted for filing or recording contrary to the provisions of this subdivision.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103L325, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LIABILITY AFTER SEALING.] The owner of a well that has had a sealed well certificate filed with the commissioner of health and the county recorder or registrar of titles where the well is located is not liable for contamination of groundwater from the well that occurs after the well has been sealed by a licensed contractor in compliance with this chapter if a report of sealing has been filed with the commissioner of health by the contractor who performed the work, and if the owner has not disturbed or disrupted the sealed well.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 103I.331, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [LANDOWNER WELL SEALING CONTRACTS.] (a) A county, or contracted local unit of government, may contract with landowners to share the cost of sealing priority wells in accordance with criteria established by the board of water and soil resources.

(b) The county must use the funds allocated from the board of water and soil resources to pay up to 75 percent, but not more than $2,000 of the cost of sealing priority wells.

(c) A well sealing contract must provide that:

(1) sealing is done in accordance with this chapter and rules of the commissioner of health relating to sealing of unused wells;

(2) payment is made to the landowner, after the well is sealed by a contractor licensed under this chapter; and

(3) a sealed well certificate will be issued to the landowner after sealing of the well is completed; and

(4) the landowner contractor must file a copy of the sealed well certificate report and a copy of the well record with the commissioner of health.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103I.525, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] (a) A person must file an application and application fee with the commissioner to apply for a well contractor's license.

(b) The application must state the applicant's qualifications for the license, the equipment the applicant will use in the contracting, and other information required by the commissioner. The application must be on forms prescribed by the commissioner.

(c) A person may apply as an individual if the person:

(1) is not the licensed well contractor representing a firm, partnership, association, corporation, or other entity including the United States government, any interstate body, the state and agency, department or political subdivision of the state; and

(2) meets the well contractor license requirements under this chapter and Minnesota Rules, chapter 4725.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103I.525, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [BOND.] (a) As a condition of being issued a well contractor's license, the applicant, except a person applying for an individual well contractor's license, must submit a corporate surety bond for $10,000 approved by the commissioner. The bond must be conditioned to pay the state on unlawful performance of work regulated by this chapter in this state. The bond is in lieu of other license bonds required by a political subdivision of the state.

(b) From proceeds of the bond, the commissioner may compensate persons injured or suffering financial loss because of a failure of the applicant to properly perform work or duties.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103I.525, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [LICENSE FEE.] The fee for a well contractor's license is $250, except the fee for an individual well contractor's license is $50.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103I.531, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [ISSUANCE OF LICENSE.] If an applicant passes the examination as determined by the commissioner, submits the bond under subdivision 5, and pays the license fee under subdivision 6, the commissioner shall issue a limited well contractor's license. If the other conditions of this section are satisfied, the commissioner may not withhold issuance of a dewatering limited license based on the applicant's lack of prior experience under a licensed well contractor.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103I.541, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [INITIAL REGISTRATION AFTER DECEMBER 31, July 1, 1990.] After December 31, July 1, 1990, a person seeking initial registration as a monitoring well contractor must meet examination and experience requirements adopted by the commissioner by rule.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103I.541, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [APPLICATION.] (a) An individual must submit an application and application fee to the commissioner to apply for a monitoring well contractor registration.

(b) The application must be on forms prescribed by the commissioner. The application must state the applicant's qualifications for the registration, the equipment the applicant will use in the contracting, and other information required by the commissioner.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103I.541, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2b. [APPLICATION FEE.] The application fee for a monitoring well contractor registration is $50. The commissioner may not act on an application until the application fee is paid.

Sec. 47. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103I.681, is amended to read:

103I.681 [PERMIT FOR UNDERGROUND STORAGE OF GAS OR LIQUID.]

Subdivision 1. [PERMIT REQUIRED.] (a) The state, a person, partnership, association, private or public corporation, county, municipality, or other political subdivision of the state may not displace groundwater in consolidated or unconsolidated formations by the underground storage of a gas or liquid under pressure without an underground storage permit from the commissioners commissioner of natural resources and health.

(b) The state, a person, a public corporation, county, municipality, or other political subdivision of the state may not store a gas or liquid, except water, below the natural surface of the ground by using naturally occurring rock materials as a storage reservoir without an underground storage permit from the commissioners commissioner of health and natural resources.

Subd. 2. [APPLICATION.] (a) A person may apply for an underground storage permit by filing an application form with the commissioner of natural resources accompanied by the application fee and maps, plans, and specifications describing the proposed displacement of groundwater and the underground storage of gases or liquids and other data required by the commissioner.

(b) The commissioner of natural resources shall prescribe the application form to apply for an underground storage permit.

(c) The commissioner of natural resources may require an applicant to demonstrate to the commissioner that the applicant has adequately provided a method to ensure payment of any damages resulting from the operation of a gas or liquid storage reservoir.

Subd. 3. [HEARING REQUIRED.] (a) An underground storage permit allowing displacement of groundwater may not be issued by the commissioner of natural resources ~~or health~~ without holding a public hearing on the issuance of the permit.

(b) By 20 days after receiving a complete application, the commissioner of natural resources shall set a time and location for the hearing.

Subd. 4. [NOTICE OF HEARING.] The hearing notice must:

(1) state the date, place, and time of the hearing;

(2) show the location of groundwater and surface water and property affected by the proposed underground storage;

(3) be published by the applicant, or by the commissioner of natural resources if the proceeding is initiated by the commissioner of natural resources ~~or health~~, once each week for two successive weeks in a legal newspaper that is published in the county where a part or all of the affected groundwater or surface waters are located; and

(4) be mailed by the commissioner of natural resources to the county auditor and the chief executive official of an affected municipality.

Subd. 5. [PROCEDURE AT HEARING.] (a) The hearing must be public and conducted by the commissioner of natural resources or a referee appointed by the commissioner.

(b) Affected persons must have an opportunity to be heard. Testimony must be taken under oath and the parties must have the right of cross-examination. The commissioner of natural resources shall provide a stenographer, at the expense of the applicant, to take testimony and a record of the testimony, and all proceedings at the hearing shall be taken and preserved.

(c) The commissioner of natural resources is not bound by judicial rules of evidence or of pleading and procedure.

Subd. 6. [SUBPOENAS.] The commissioner of natural resources ~~or health~~ may subpoena and compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books and documents material to the purposes of the hearing. Disobedience of a subpoena, or refusal to be sworn, or refusal to answer as a witness, is punishable as contempt in the same manner as a contempt of the district court. The commissioner of natural resources must file a complaint of the disobedience with the district court of the county where the disobedience or refusal occurred.

Subd. 7. [REQUIRED FINDINGS.] An order granting a permit for the proposed storage may not be issued unless it contains and is based on a finding stating:

(1) the proposed storage will be confined to geological stratum or strata lying more than 500 feet below the surface of the soil;

(2) the proposed storage will not substantially impair or pollute groundwater or surface water; and

(3) the public convenience and necessity of a substantial portion of the gas-consuming public in the state will be served by the proposed project.

Subd. 8. [ORDER CONDITIONS.] The order granting the permit must contain conditions and restrictions that will reasonably protect:

(1) private property or an interest not appropriated;

(2) the rights of the property owners and owners of an interest in property located within the boundaries of the proposed storage area, or persons claiming under the owners, to explore for, drill for, produce or develop for the recovery of oil or gas or minerals under the property, and to drill wells on the property to develop and produce water; provided that the exploration, drilling, producing, or developing complies with orders and rules of the commissioner of natural resources that protect underground storage strata or formations against pollution and against the escape of gas; and

(3) public resources of the state that may be adversely affected by the proposed project.

Subd. 9. [PUBLICATION OF FINDINGS, CONCLUSIONS, ORDERS.] (a) The commissioner of natural resources shall mail notice of any findings, conclusions, and orders made after the hearing to:

(1) the applicant;

(2) parties who entered an appearance at the hearing;

(3) the county auditor; and

(4) the chief executive officer of an affected municipality.

(b) The commissioner of natural resources must publish notice of findings, conclusions, and orders made after the hearing at least once each week for two successive weeks in a legal newspaper in the county where a part or all of the proposed project is located. The costs of the publication must be paid by the applicant.

Subd. 10. [APPEAL OF COMMISSIONER'S DETERMINATION.] An interested party may appeal the determination of the commissioner of natural resources ~~or health~~ to the court of appeals in accordance with the provisions of chapter 14.

Subd. 11. [PERMIT FEE SCHEDULE.] (a) The commissioner of natural resources ~~or health~~ shall adopt a permit fee schedule under chapter 14. The schedule may provide minimum fees for various classes of permits, and additional fees, which may be imposed subsequent to the application, based on the cost of receiving, processing, analyzing, and issuing the permit, and the actual inspecting and monitoring of the activities authorized by the permit, including costs of consulting services.

(b) A fee may not be imposed on a state or federal governmental agency applying for a permit.

(c) The fee schedule may provide for the refund of a fee, in whole or in part, under circumstances prescribed by the commissioner of natural resources. Permit fees received must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the general fund. The amount of money necessary to pay the refunds is appropriated annually from the general fund to the commissioner of natural resources.

Sec. 48. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103I.685, is amended to read:

103I.685 [ABANDONMENT OF UNDERGROUND STORAGE PROJECT.]

An underground storage project for which an underground storage permit is granted may not be abandoned, or a natural or artificial opening extending from the underground storage area to the ground surface be filled, sealed, or otherwise closed to inspection, except after written approval by the commissioner of natural resources ~~or health~~ and in compliance with conditions that the ~~commissioners~~ commissioner may impose.

Sec. 49. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103I.691, is amended to read:

103I.691 [CERTIFICATE OF USE.]

A person may not use a gas or liquid storage reservoir under an underground storage permit unless the right to use the property affected by the project has been acquired and a notice of the acquisition filed with the commissioner of natural resources or health. The commissioner of natural resources or health must issue a certificate approving use of the gas or liquid storage reservoir.

Sec. 50. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103L.705, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [SEALING WELLS AND ELEVATOR SHAFTS.] A well contractor or limited well sealing contractor who seals a well, a monitoring well contractor who seals a monitoring well, or a well contractor or an elevator shaft contractor who seals a hole that was used for an elevator shaft under a corrective order of the commissioner in a manner that does not comply with the water well construction code rules adopted under this chapter, shall be assessed an administrative penalty of $500.

Sec. 51. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 103L.705, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [CONTAMINATION RELATING TO WELL CONSTRUCTION.] A well contractor, limited well contractor, or monitoring well contractor working under a corrective order of the commissioner who fails to comply with the rules in the water well construction code adopted under this chapter relating to location of wells in relation to potential sources of contamination, grouting, materials, or construction techniques shall be assessed an administrative penalty of $500.

Sec. 52. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115B.02, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [AGENCY.] "Agency" means the commissioner of agriculture for actions, duties, or authorities relating to agricultural chemicals, or for other substances, the pollution control agency.

Sec. 53. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115B.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [AGRICULTURAL CHEMICAL.] "Agricultural chemical" has the meaning given in section 18D.01, subdivision 3.

Sec. 54. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115B.02, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [COMMISSIONER.] "Commissioner" means the commissioner of agriculture for actions, duties, or authorities related to agricultural chemicals or the commissioner of the pollution control agency for other substances.

Sec. 55. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 115B.20, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] (a) The environmental response, compensation, and compliance account is in the environmental fund in the state treasury and may be spent only for the purposes provided in subdivision 2.

(b) The commissioner of finance shall administer a response account in the fund for the agency and the commissioner of agriculture to take removal, response, and other actions authorized under subdivision 2, clauses (1) to (4) and (11) to (13). The commissioner of finance shall allocate transfer money from the response account to the agency and the commissioner of agriculture to take actions required under subdivision 2, clauses (1) to (4) and (11) to (13).

(c) The commissioner of finance shall administer the account in a manner that allows the commissioner of agriculture and the agency to utilize the money in the account to implement their removal and remedial action duties as effectively as possible.

(d) Amounts appropriated to the commissioner of finance under this subdivision shall not be included in the department of finance budget but shall be included in the pollution control agency and department of agriculture budgets.

Sec. 56. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 116C.69, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [FUNDING; ASSESSMENT.] The board shall finance its base line studies, general environmental studies, development of criteria, inventory preparation, monitoring of conditions placed on site certificates and construction permits, and all other work, other than specific site and route designation, from an assessment made quarterly, at least 30 days before the start of each quarter, by the board against all utilities with annual retail kilowatt-hour sales greater than 4,000,000 kilowatt-hours in the previous calendar year.

Until June 30, 1992, the assessment shall also include an amount sufficient to cover 60 percent of the costs to the pollution control agency of achieving, maintaining, and monitoring compliance with the acid deposition control standard adopted under sections 116.42 to 116.45, reprinting informational booklets on acid rain, and costs for additional research on the impacts of acid deposition on sensitive areas published under section 116.44, subdivision 1. The director of the pollution control agency must prepare a work plan and budget and submit them annually by June 30 to the pollution control agency board. The agency board must take public testimony on the budget and work plan. After the agency board approves the work plan and budget they must be submitted annually to the legislative water commission on waste management for review and recommendation before an assessment is levied. Each share shall be determined as follows: (1) the ratio that the annual retail kilowatt-hour sales in the state of each utility bears to the annual total retail kilowatt-hour sales in the state of all these utilities, multiplied by 0.667, plus (2) the ratio that the annual gross revenue from retail kilowatt-hour sales in the state of each utility bears to the annual total gross revenues from retail kilowatt-hour sales in the state of all these utilities, multiplied by 0.333, as determined by the board. The assessment shall be credited to the special revenue fund and shall be paid to the state treasury within 30 days after receipt of the bill, which shall constitute notice of said assessment and demand of payment thereof. The total amount which may be assessed to the several utilities under authority of this subdivision shall not exceed the sum of the annual budget of the board for carrying out the purposes of this subdivision plus 60 percent of the annual budget of the pollution control agency for achieving, maintaining, and monitoring compliance with the acid deposition control standard adopted under sections 116.42 to 116.45, for reprinting informational booklets on acid rain, and for costs for additional research on the impacts of acid deposition on sensitive areas published under section 116.44, subdivision 1. The assessment for the second quarter of each fiscal year shall be adjusted to compensate for the amount by which actual expenditures by the board and the pollution control agency for the preceding fiscal year were more or less than the estimated expenditures previously assessed.

Sec. 57. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 326.37, is amended to read:

326.37 [PLUMBERS; SUPERVISION BY STATE COMMISSIONER OF HEALTH; RULES; VIOLATION; PENALTY.]

Subdivision 1. The state commissioner of health may, by rule, prescribe minimum standards which shall be uniform, and which standards shall thereafter be effective for all new plumbing installations, including additions, extensions, alterations, and replacements connected with any water or sewage disposal system owned or operated by or for any municipality, institution, factory, office building, hotel, apartment building, or any other place of business regardless of location or the population of the city or town in which located. Violation of the rules shall be a misdemeanor.

The commissioner shall administer the provisions of sections 326.37 to 326.45 and for such purposes may employ plumbing inspectors and other assistants.

Subd. 2. [STANDARDS FOR CAPACITY.] By January 1, 1993, all new floor-mounted water closets in areas under jurisdiction of the state plumbing code may not have a flush volume of more than 1.6 gallons. The water closets must meet the standards of the commissioner and the American National Standards Institute.

Sec. 58. Laws 1989, chapter 326, article 3, section 49, is amended to read:

Sec. 49. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 9 is, subdivisions 1; 2; 3; 4, paragraphs (a), (d), and (e); 5; 6; 7; 8; and 9 are effective July 1, 1989, but a well notification is not required to be filed with the commissioner for construction of a well until after December 31, 1989.

Section 9, subdivision 4, paragraphs (b) and (c), are effective July 1, 1990.

Section 14 relating to disclosing wells to buyers and transferees is effective July 1, 1990.

~~Section,~~ Sections 31, 32, and 33 are effective July 1, 1990, and limited well contractor licenses and limited well sealing licenses may not be issued until after that date.

Sections 24 and 33 relating to permits required for elevator shafts and elevator shaft contractor licenses are effective July 1, 1990.

Sec. 59. Laws 1989, chapter 326, article 6, section 33, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [TASK FORCE.] (a) The task force must include farmers, representatives from farm organizations, the fertilizer industry, University of Minnesota, environmental groups, representatives of local government involved with comprehensive local water planning, and other state agencies, including the pollution control agency, the department of health, the department of natural resources, the state planning agency, and the board of water and soil resources.

(b) The task force shall review existing research including pertinent research from the University of Minnesota and shall develop recommendations for a nitrogen fertilizer management plan for the prevention, evaluation, and mitigation of nonpoint source occurrences of nitrogen fertilizer in waters of the state. The nitrogen fertilizer management plan must include components promoting prevention and developing appropriate responses to the detection of inorganic nitrogen from fertilizer sources in ground or surface water.

(c) The task force shall report its recommendations to the commissioner by ~~May~~ August 1, 1990. The commissioner shall report to the environmental quality board by ~~July~~ October 1, 1990, on the task force's recommendations. The recommendations of the task force shall be incorporated into an overall nitrogen plan prepared by the pollution control agency and the department of agriculture.

Sec. 60. Laws 1989, chapter 326, article 8, section 10, is amended to read:

Sec. 10. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections Section 3, 4, and 5 are is effective July 1, 1990, and applies to pesticide sales on or after April 1, 1990, and to sales other than pesticides, licenses issued, applications received for licenses, and inspection fees imposed on or after July 1, 1990.

Section 4 is effective July 1, 1989, and applies to costs of a corrective action as defined by section 18D.01, subdivision 4, incurred by eligible persons after that date.

Section 5 is effective July 1, 1990.

Sec. 61. Laws 1989, chapter 335, article 1, section 23, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. Groundwater and Solid Waste Pollution Control
$ 7,813,000 $ 8,313,000

Summary by Fund

General	$2,553,000	$3,053,000
Environmental Response	$2,890,000	$2,890,000
Metro Landfill Abatement	$1,700,000	$1,700,000
Metro Landfill Contingency	$ 670,000	$ 670,000

Of the amount appropriated from the environmental response fund, $55,000 the first year and $55,000 the second year is appropriated to the commissioner of agriculture for two positions to administer agricultural chemical superfund site activities. The appropriation the first year does not cancel and is available for the second year.

All money in the environmental response, compensation, and compliance fund not otherwise appropriated, is appropriated to the commissioner of finance for transfer to the pollution control agency for the purposes described in the environmental response and liability act, Minnesota Statutes, section 115B.20, subdivision 2, paragraphs (a), (b), (c), and (d) and the commissioner of agriculture for purposes of Minnesota Statutes, section 115B.20, subdivision 2, clauses (1), (2), (3), (4), (11), (12), and (13). This appropriation is available until June 30, 1991.

All money in the metropolitan landfill abatement fund not otherwise appropriated is appropriated to the pollution control agency for payment to the metropolitan council and may be used by the council for the purposes of Minnesota Statutes, section 473.844. The council may not spend the money until the legislative commission on waste management has made its recommendations on the budget and work program submitted by the council.

$1,000,000 the first year and $1,500,000 the second year are appropriated from the general fund for transfer to the environmental response, compensation, and compliance fund.

Any unencumbered balance from the metropolitan landfill contingency fund remaining in fiscal year 1990 does not cancel but is available for fiscal year 1991.

Sec. 62. Laws 1990, chapter 391, article 7, section 2, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 13a. [ONCE-THROUGH SYSTEM.] "Once-through system" means a space heating, ventilating, air conditioning (HVAC), or refrigeration system used for any type of temperature or humidity control application, utilizing groundwater, that circulates through the system and is then discharged without recirculating the majority of the water in the system components or reusing it for another purpose.

Sec. 63. Laws 1990, chapter 391, article 7, section 27, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4a. [MT. SIMON-HINCKLEY AQUIFER.] (a) The commissioner may not issue new water use permits that will appropriate water from the Mt. Simon-Hinckley aquifer unless the appropriation is for potable water use, there are no feasible or practical alternatives to this source, and a water conservation plan is incorporated with the permit.

(b) The commissioner shall terminate all permits authorizing appropriation and use of water from the Mt. Simon-Hinckley aquifer for once-through systems in the seven-county metropolitan area by December 31, 1992.

Sec. 64. Laws 1990, chapter 391, article 7, section 27, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [CERTAIN COOLING SYSTEM PERMITS PROHIBITED PROHIBITION ON ONCE-THROUGH WATER USE PERMITS.] (a) The commissioner may not, after December 31, 1990, issue a water use permit to increase the volume of appropriation from a groundwater source for a once-through cooling system using in excess of 5,000,000 gallons annually.

(b) For purposes of this subdivision, a once-through cooling system means a cooling or heating system for human comfort that draws a continuous stream of water from a groundwater source to remove or add heat for cooling, heating, or refrigeration. Once-through system water use permits using in excess of 5,000,000 gallons annually, must be terminated by the commissioner by the end of their design life but not later than December 31, 2010. Existing once-through systems are required to convert to water efficient alternatives within the design life of existing equipment. The commissioner shall, by August 1, 1990, submit to the legislative water commission for review the approach by which the commissioner will achieve appropriate conversion of the systems after considering the age of the system, the condition of the system, recent investments in the system, and feasibility and costs of alternatives available to replace usage of a once-through system.

Sec. 65. Laws 1990, chapter 391, article 7, section 27, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [WATER USE PERMIT PROCESSING FEE.] (a) Except as described in paragraph (b), a water use permit processing fee not to exceed $2,000 must be prescribed by the commissioner in accordance with the following schedule of fees for each water use permit in force at any time during the year:

(1) 0.05 cents per 1,000 gallons for the first 50,000,000 gallons per year; and

(2) 0.1 cents per 1,000 gallons for amounts greater than 50,000,000 gallons per year.

(b) For once-through cooling systems as defined in subdivision 5, a water use processing fee must be prescribed by the commissioner in accordance with the following schedule of fees for each water use permit in force at any time during the year:

- (1) 5.0 cents per 1,000 gallons until December 31, 1991;
- (2) 10.0 cents for 1,000 gallons from January 1, 1992, until December 31, 1996; and
- (3) 15.0 cents per 1,000 gallons after January 1, 1997.

(c) The fee is payable based on the amount of water permitted appropriated during the year and in no case may the fee be less than $25. The commissioner shall notify all permittees of the fee changes authorized by this law by July 1, 1990. The commissioner is authorized to refund 1989 water use report processing fees under this subdivision.

(d) For once-through systems fees payable after July 1, 1993, at least 50 percent of the fee deposited in the general fund shall be used for grants, loans, or other financial assistance as appropriated by the legislature to assist in financing retrofitting of permitted once-through systems until December 31, 1999. The commissioner shall adopt rules for determining eligibility and criteria for the issuance of grants, loans, or other financial assistance for retrofitting according to chapter 14, by July 1, 1993.

(d) (e) Failure to pay the fee is sufficient cause for revoking a permit. A fee may not be imposed on any state agency, as defined in section 16B.01, or a federal agency that holds a water appropriation permit.

Sec. 66. Laws 1990, chapter 391, article 7, section 29, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [MEASURING EQUIPMENT REQUIRED.] An installation for appropriating or using water must be equipped with a device or use a method flow meter to measure the quantity of water appropriated with reasonable accuracy within the degree of accuracy required by rule. The commissioner's determination of the method commissioner can determine other methods to be used for measuring water quantity must be based on the quantity of water appropriated or used, the source of water, the method of appropriating or using water, and any other facts supplied to the commissioner.

Sec. 67. [BOND WAIVER.]

Until December 31, 1991, the commissioner may waive the bond requirement for licensure under section 103I.525, subdivision 5, or 103I.531, subdivision 5, if the commissioner determines that a well contractor or limited well contractor has made a good faith effort to obtain a bond from more than one company, and the bond cannot be obtained because of insufficient net worth or inadequate liquid assets as determined by the bond company, and the well contractor or limited well contractor complies with all other requirements for licensure under the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 68. [CONTINUANCE OF WATER COMMISSION.]

Notwithstanding any other law passed during the 1990 legislative session, the legislative commission on water is not terminated and shall continue until June 30, 1994, and the appropriation in Laws 1989, chapter 326, article 10, section 1, subdivision 5, does not cancel and is appropriated from the general fund to be available until June 30, 1991.

Sec. 69. [INSTRUCTION TO REVISOR.]

In the 1990 and subsequent editions of Minnesota Statutes the revisor shall:

(1) change the terms "pollution control agency" and "commissioner of the pollution control agency" to "agency" and "commissioner" respectively in sections 115B.17 and 115B.18; and

(2) change the terms "commissioner" and "agency" to "commissioner of the pollution control agency" and "pollution control agency" respectively in section 115B.17, subdivision 13.

Sec. 70. [COMMISSION INVESTIGATION.]

The legislative water commission shall investigate the needs and feasibility of allowing state bonding, grants, loans, or other financial assistance for conversion of once-through systems.

Sec. 71. [DELEGATION AGREEMENTS.]

Notwithstanding the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 103I, a delegation agreement between the commissioner of health and a board of health executed before July 1, 1989, shall remain in full force and effect until December 31, 1991.

Sec. 72. [RESPONSE TO AGRICULTURAL CHEMICAL INCIDENTS.]

The commissioner of agriculture may take corrective action under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 18D, or response and remedial action under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 115B, or both, as provided under those chapters, in responding to an agricultural chemical incident, release, or threatened release.

Sec. 73. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 115B.17, subdivision 8; and 325E.045, subdivisions 3 and 4; Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, sections 103I.005, subdivision 19; 103I.211; 103I.301, subdivision 5; 103I.321; 103I.325, subdivision 1; and 103I.533, are repealed.

Sec. 74. [APPROPRIATION; AGRICULTURE LEGAL COSTS.]

$75,000 is appropriated from the environmental account to the commissioner of agriculture to pay for legal costs relating to responses to agricultural incidents.

Sec. 75. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 12 and 14 are effective July 1, 1990, except the additional one-tenth of one percent under Minnesota Statutes, section 18B.26, subdivision 3, paragraph (a), for each pesticide for which a health advisory summary has been published, is not effective until January 1, 1992, to be collected for calendar year 1992 and years thereafter. Section 13 is effective July 1, 1991. Sections 15 to 55 and 59 to 71 and 73 are effective the day following final enactment. Section 58 is effective the day following final enactment, retroactive to July 1, 1989.

Section 17 is effective the day following final enactment except that dewatering wells may be constructed and operate down to 45 feet without permits or permit fees required by Minnesota Statutes, chapter 103I, until June 30, 1992."

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON S. F. NO. 2317

A bill for an act relating to utilities; providing for the assessment of expenses for adjudicating service area disputes to municipal electric utilities; providing for civil penalties for violations of chapter 237; reestablishing the position of program administrator of the telecommunications access for communication-impaired persons board; extending the electric utility service area task force until 1992; requiring a study; appropriating money; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 216B.62, subdivision 5; and 237.51, subdivision 5; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 237.

April 20, 1990

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

The Honorable Robert E. Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

We, the undersigned conferees for S. F. No. 2317, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House recede from its amendment and that S. F. No. 2317 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 216B.62, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. The commission and department shall be authorized to charge cooperative electric associations and municipal electric utilities their proportionate share of the expenses incurred in the adjudication of service area disputes and all of the costs incurred in the adjudication of complaints over service standards and, practices, and rates. Cooperative electric associations electing to become subject to rate regulation by the commission pursuant to section 216B.02 216B.026, subdivision 4, shall also be subject to this section.

Sec. 2. [237.461] [ENFORCEMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [ACTIONS.] This chapter and rules and orders of the commission adopted under this chapter may be enforced by any one or combination of: criminal prosecution, action to recover civil penalties, injunction, action to compel performance, and other appropriate action.

Subd. 2. [CIVIL PENALTY.] A person who knowingly and intentionally violates a provision of this chapter or rule or order of the commission adopted under this chapter shall forfeit and pay to the state a penalty, in an amount to be determined by the court, of at least $100 and not more than $1,000 for each day of each violation. The civil penalties provided for in this section may be recovered by a civil action brought by the attorney general in the name of the state. Amounts recovered under this section must be paid into the state treasury.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 237.51, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [DUTIES.] In addition to any duties specified elsewhere in sections 237.51 to 237.56, the board shall:

(1) define economic hardship, special needs, and household criteria so as to determine the priority of eligible applicants for initial distribution of devices and to determine circumstances necessitating provision of more than one communication device per household;

(2) establish a method to verify eligibility requirements;

(3) establish specifications for communication devices to be purchased under section 237.53, subdivision 3;

(4) enter contracts for the establishment and operation of the message relay service pursuant to section 237.54;

(5) inform the public and specifically the community of communication-impaired persons of the program;

(6) prepare the reports required by section 237.55;

(7) administer the fund created in section 237.52;

(8) retain the services reestablish and fill the position of a program administrator in the unclassified service;

(9) adopt rules, including emergency rules, under chapter 14 to implement the provisions of sections 237.50 to 237.56; and

(10) study the potential economic impact of the program on local communication device retailers and dispensers. Notwithstanding any provision of chapter 16B, the board shall develop guidelines for the purchase of some communication devices from local retailers and dispensers if the study determines that otherwise they will be economically harmed by implementation of sections 237.50 to 237.56.

Sec. 4. [TASK FORCE.]

The task force established by Laws 1989, chapter 309, is continued until January 31, 1992. The speaker of the house of representatives and the subcommittee on committees of the senate committee on rules and administration shall each appoint five members of their respective houses to the task force. At least one member from each house of the legislature must be a member of the minority caucus. The task force shall consider the results of the study required by section 5 and report its recommendations to the legislature by February 1, 1992.

Sec. 5. [STUDY.]

The department of public service may employ the services of a consultant to study issues raised in the report required by Laws 1989, chapter 309, section 1. The study must focus on the effect of utility capacity on rates, and must attempt to identify procedures and processes to review and coordinate capacity planning by regulated and unregulated utilities so that adequate attention is given not only to ways to meet future demand, but also to forecast and find efficient use for surplus capacity. The public utilities commission shall cooperate with the department on the study. The department may assess the costs of the study to the affected utilities in proportion to their gross operating revenues, but not more than $200,000 less any amount assessed under Laws 1989, chapter 309, section 1, subdivision 6. The department shall use the proceeds of any assessment under this section to cover its own costs and those incurred by the commission, including the cost of employing a consultant and staff time.

Sec. 6. [APPROPRIATION.]

Assessments collected under section 5 are appropriated to the department of public service to cover the costs associated with the study required by section 5. The money is available until March 1, 1992. Any money from assessments unexpended on that date remains in the general fund."

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON S. F. NO. 1813

A bill for an act relating to human services; amending the Medicare certification requirement for nursing homes; amending Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.48, subdivision 6.

April 24, 1990

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

The Honorable Robert E. Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

We, the undersigned conferees for S. F. No. 1813, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House recede from its amendment and that S. F. No. 1813 be further amended as follows:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 256B.092, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [SCREENING TEAMS ESTABLISHED.] (a) Each county agency shall establish a screening team which, under the direction of the county case manager, shall make an evaluation of need for home and community-based services of persons who are entitled to the level of care provided by an intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation or related conditions or for whom there is a reasonable indication that they might require the level of care provided by an intermediate care facility. The screening team shall make an evaluation of need within 15 working days of the date that the assessment is completed or within 60 working days of a request for service by a person with mental retardation or related conditions, whichever is the earlier, and within five working days of an emergency admission of an individual to an intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation or related conditions. The screening team shall consist of the case manager, the client, a parent or guardian, and a qualified mental retardation professional, as defined in the Code of Federal Regulations, title 42, section 483.430, as amended through June 3, 1988. The case manager may also act as the qualified mental retardation professional if the case manager meets the federal definition. County social service agencies may contract with a public or private agency or individual who is not a service provider for the person for the public guardianship representation required by the screening or individual service and habilitation planning process. The contract shall be limited to public guardianship representation for the screening and individual service and habilitation planning activities. The contract shall require compliance with the commissioner's instructions and may be for paid or voluntary services. For individuals determined to have overriding health care needs, a registered nurse must be designated as either the case manager or the qualified mental retardation professional. The case manager shall consult with the client's physician, other health professionals or other persons as necessary to make this evaluation. The case manager, with the concurrence of the client or the client's legal representative, may invite other persons to attend meetings of the screening team. No member of the screening team shall have any direct or indirect service provider interest in the case.

(b) In addition to the requirements of paragraph (a), the following conditions apply to the discharge of persons with mental retardation or a related condition from a regional treatment center:

(1) For a person under public guardianship, at least two weeks prior to each screening team meeting the case manager must notify in writing parents, near relatives, and the ombudsman established under section 245.92 or a designee, and invite them to attend. The notice to parents and near relatives must include: (i) notice of the provisions of section 252A.03, subdivision 4, regarding assistance to persons interested in assuming private guardianship; (ii) notice of the rights of parents and near relatives to object to a proposed discharge by requesting a review as provided in clause (7); and (iii) information about advocacy services available to assist parents and near relatives of persons with mental retardation or related conditions. In the case of an emergency screening meeting, the notice must be provided as far in advance as practicable.

(2) Prior to the discharge, a screening must be conducted under subdivision 8 and a plan developed under subdivision 1a. For a person under public guardianship, the county shall encourage parents and near relatives to participate in the screening team meeting. The screening team shall consider the opinions of parents and near relatives in making its recommendations. The screening team shall determine that the services outlined in the plan are available in the community before recommending a discharge. The case manager shall provide a copy of the plan to the person, legal representative, parents, near relatives, the ombudsman established under section 245.92, and the protection and advocacy system established under United States Code, title 42, section 6042, at least 30 days prior to the date the proposed discharge is to occur. The information provided to parents and near relatives must include notice of the rights of parents and near relatives to object to a proposed discharge by requesting a review as provided in clause (7). If a discharge occurs, the case manager and a staff person from the regional treatment center from which the person was discharged must conduct a monitoring visit as required in Minnesota Rules, part 9525.0115, within 90 days of discharge and provide an evaluation within 15 days of the visit to the person, legal representative, parents, near relatives, ombudsman, and the protection and advocacy system established under United States Code, title 42, section 6042.

(3) In order for a discharge or transfer from a regional treatment center to be approved, the concurrence of a majority of the screening team members is required. The screening team shall determine that the services outlined in the discharge plan are available and accessible in the community before the person is discharged. The recommendation of the screening team cannot be changed except by subsequent action of the team and is binding on the county and on the commissioner. If the commissioner or the county determines that the decision of the screening team is not in the best interests of the person, the commissioner or the county may seek judicial review of the screening team recommendation. A person or legal representative may appeal under section 256.045, subdivision 3 or 4a.

(4) For persons who have overriding health care needs or behaviors that cause injury to self or others, or cause damage to property that is an immediate threat to the physical safety of the person or others, the following additional conditions must be met:

(i) For a person with overriding health care needs, either a registered nurse or a licensed physician shall review the proposed community services to assure that the medical needs of the person have been planned for adequately. For purposes of this paragraph, "overriding health care needs" means a medical condition that requires daily clinical monitoring by a licensed registered nurse.

(ii) For a person with behaviors that cause injury to self or others, or cause damage to property that is an immediate threat to the physical safety of the person or others, a qualified mental retardation professional, as defined in paragraph (a), shall review the proposed community services to assure that the behavioral needs of the person have been planned for adequately. The qualified mental retardation professional must have at least one year of experience in the areas of assessment, planning, implementation, and monitoring of individual habilitation plans that have used behavior intervention techniques.

(5) No person with mental retardation or a related condition may be discharged from a regional treatment center before an appropriate community placement is available to receive the person.

(6) Effective July 1, 1991, a resident of a regional treatment center may not be discharged to a community intermediate care facility with a licensed capacity of more than 15 beds. Effective July 1, 1993, a resident of a regional treatment center may not be discharged to a community intermediate care facility with a licensed capacity of more than ten beds.

(7) If the person, legal representative, parent, or near relative of the person proposed to be discharged from a regional treatment center objects to the proposed discharge, the individual who objects to the discharge may request a review under section 256.045, subdivision 4a, and may request reimbursement as allowed under section 256.045. The person must not be transferred from a regional treatment center while a review or appeal is pending. Within 30 days of the request for a review, the local agency shall conduct a conciliation conference and inform the individual who requested the review in writing of the action the local agency plans to take. The conciliation conference must be conducted in a manner consistent with section 256.045, subdivision 4a. A person, legal representative, parent, or near relative of the person proposed to be discharged who is not satisfied with the results of the conciliation conference may submit to the commissioner a written request for a hearing before a state human services referee under section 256.045, subdivision 4a. The person, legal representative, parent, or near relative of the person proposed to be discharged may appeal the order to the district court of the county responsible for furnishing assistance by serving a written copy of a notice of appeal on the commissioner and any adverse party of record within 30 days after the day the commissioner issued the order and by filing the original notice and proof of service with the court administrator of the district court. Judicial review must proceed under section 256.045, subdivisions 7 to 10. For a person under public guardianship, the ombudsman established under section 245.92 may object to a proposed discharge by requesting a review or hearing or by appealing to district court as provided in this clause. The person must not be transferred from a regional treatment center while a conciliation conference or appeal of the discharge is pending."

“Sec. 3. [PLAN FOR DOWNSIZING INTERMEDIATE CARE FACILITIES.]

The commissioner of human services, in consultation with representatives of intermediate care facilities, parents, advocates, and other interested persons and organizations, shall develop a plan to eliminate discharges from regional treatment centers to larger community intermediate care facilities. The plan must be presented to the legislature by January 1, 1991.”

Renumber the sections in sequence

Amend the title as follows:

Page 1, line 2, after the semicolon insert “delaying restrictions on discharges of residents from regional treatment centers to larger community intermediate care facilities; requiring the commissioner to develop a plan;”

Page 1, line 4, delete “section” and insert “sections 256B.092, subdivision 7; and”

Mr. Speaker:

I hereby announce that the Senate has concurred in and adopted the report of the Conference Committee on:

S. F. No. 2195.

The Senate has repassed said bill in accordance with the recommendation and report of the Conference Committee. Said Senate File is herewith transmitted to the House.

PATRICK E. FLAHAVEN, Secretary of the Senate

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON S. F. NO. 2195

A bill for an act relating to waste; prohibiting certain types of low-level radioactive waste from being disposed of at other than licensed facilities; providing for a task force on radioactive waste deregulation; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 116C.

April 24, 1990

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

The Honorable Robert E. Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

We, the undersigned conferees for S. F. No. 2195, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House recede from its amendment and that S. F. No. 2195 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.94, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [GENERAL PROVISIONS.] (a) The local government unit may organize collection as a municipal service or by ordinance, franchise, license, negotiated or bidded contract, or other means, using one or more collectors or an organization of collectors.

(b) The local government unit may not establish or administer organized collection in a manner that impairs the preservation and development of recycling and markets for recyclable materials. The local government unit shall exempt recyclable materials from organized collection upon a showing by the generator or collector that the materials are or will be separated from mixed municipal solid waste by the generator, separately collected, and delivered for reuse in their original form or for use in a manufacturing process.

(c) The local government unit ~~may~~ shall invite and employ the assistance of interested persons, including persons ~~operating licensed to operate solid waste collection services in the local government unit~~, in developing plans and proposals for organized collection and in establishing the organized collection system.

(d) Organized collection accomplished by contract or as a municipal service may include a requirement that all or any portion of the solid waste, except (1) recyclable materials and (2) materials that are processed at a resource recovery facility at the capacity in operation at the time that the requirement is imposed, be delivered to a waste facility identified by the local government unit. In a district or county where a resource recovery facility has been designated by ordinance under section 115A.86, organized collection must conform to the requirements of the designation ordinance.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 115A.94, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [CITIES AND TOWNS; NOTICE; PLANNING.] (a) At least 90 180 days before proposing implementing an ordinance, franchise, license, contract or other means of organizing collection, a city or town, by resolution of the governing body, shall announce its intent to organize collection and invite the participation of interested persons, including persons licensed to operate solid waste collection services, in planning and establishing the organized collection system.

(b) The resolution of intent must be adopted after a public hearing. The hearing must be held at least two weeks after public notice and mailed notice to persons known by the city or town to be operating solid waste collection services in the city or town. The failure to give mailed notice to persons or defect in the notice does not invalidate the proceedings, provided a bona fide effort to comply with notice requirements has been made.

(c) During the a 90-day period following the resolution of intent, and before proposing a method of organizing collection, the city or town shall develop or supervise the development of plans or proposals for organized collection. During this 90-day planning period, the city or town shall invite and employ the assistance of persons licensed as of the date of the resolution of intent to operate solid waste collection services in the city or town. Failure of a licensed collector to participate in the 90-day planning period, when the city or town has made a bona fide effort to provide the person the opportunity to participate, does not invalidate the planning process.

(d) For 90 days after the date ending the planning period required under paragraph (c), the city or town shall discuss possible organized collection arrangements with all licensed collectors operating in the city or town who have expressed interest. If the city or town is unable to agree on an organized collection arrangement with a majority of the licensed collectors who have expressed interest, or upon expiration of the 90 days, the city or town may propose implementation of an alternate method of organizing collection as authorized in subdivision 3.

(e) The city or town shall make specific findings that:

(1) describe in detail the procedures it used to plan and to attempt implementation of organized collection through an arrangement with collectors who expressed interest; and

(2) evaluate the proposed organized collection method in light of at least the following standards: achieving the stated organized collection goals of the city or town; minimizing displacement of collectors; ensuring participation of all interested parties in the decision-making process; and maximizing efficiency in solid waste collection.

~~(d)~~ (f) Upon request, the city or town shall provide mailed notice of subsequent all proceedings on the organization of collection in the city or town.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 116C.712, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [ASSESSMENT.] (a) A person, firm, corporation, or association in the business of owning or operating a nuclear fission electrical generating plant in this state shall pay an assessment to cover the cost of:

(1) monitoring the federal high-level radioactive waste program under the Nuclear Waste Policy Act, United States Code, title 42, sections 10101 to 10226;

(2) advising the governor and the legislature on policy issues relating to the federal high-level radioactive waste disposal program;

(3) surveying existing literature and activity relating to radioactive waste management, including storage, transportation, and disposal, in the state; and

(4) an advisory task force on low-level radioactive waste deregulation, created by a law enacted in 1990 until July 1, 1996; and

(5) other general studies necessary to carry out the purposes of this subdivision.

The assessment must not be more than the appropriation to the state planning agency for these purposes.

(b) The state planning agency shall bill the owner or operator of the plant for the assessment at least 30 days before the start of each quarter. The assessment for the second quarter of each fiscal year must be adjusted to compensate for the amount by which actual expenditures by the state planning agency for the preceding year were more or less than the estimated expenditures previously assessed. The billing may be made as an addition to the assessments made under section 116C.69. The owner or operator of the plant must pay the assessment within 30 days after receipt of the bill. The assessment must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the special revenue fund.

(c) The authority for this assessment terminates when the department of energy eliminates Minnesota from further siting consideration for high-level radioactive waste by starting construction of a high-level radioactive waste disposal site in another state. The assessment required for any quarter must be reduced by the amount of federal grant money received by the state planning agency for the purposes listed in this section.

(d) The state planning agency must report annually by July 1 to the legislative commission on waste management on activities assessed under paragraph (a).

Sec. 4. [116C.851] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [FACILITY.] "Facility" has the meaning given in section 116C.831, article II, paragraph (f).

Subd. 2. [LOW-LEVEL RADIOACTIVE WASTE.] "Low-level radioactive waste" means waste that consists of or contains class A, B, or C radioactive waste as defined by Code of Federal Regulations, title 10, section 61.55, as in effect on January 26, 1983.

Sec. 5. [116C.852] [LOW-LEVEL RADIOACTIVE WASTE DISPOSAL.]

No low-level radioactive waste may be treated, recycled, stored, or disposed of in this state except at a facility that is specifically licensed for treatment, recycling, storage, or disposal of low-level radioactive waste regardless of whether or not the waste has been reclassified as "below regulatory concern" by the United States Nuclear Regulatory Commission pursuant to a generic rule or standard adopted after January 1, 1990.

Sec. 6. [ADVISORY TASK FORCE.]

(a) The commissioner of the pollution control agency shall appoint an advisory task force on low-level radioactive waste deregulation. The task force must include representatives from the office of waste management, pollution control agency, department of health, a public interest consumer advocate organization, organized labor, environmental organizations, and affected industry. The task force shall evaluate information available on a national and international level. The members shall serve without compensation.

(b) The advisory task force shall report to the advisory committee under Minnesota Statutes, section 116C.839 and the senate and house committees on environment.

(c) The amount of the expenses of the study and the advisory task force are appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of the pollution control agency. The director of the state planning agency shall make an assessment under Minnesota Statutes, section 116C.712, subdivision 5, to cover the cost of the expenses for the task force and the study expenses under section 7. The assessment shall be deposited in the general fund and credited for this purpose.

Sec. 7. [DUTIES OF THE ADVISORY TASK FORCE ON LOW-LEVEL RADIOACTIVE WASTE DEREGULATION.]

The advisory task force on low-level radioactive waste deregulation shall:

(1) design and initiate a study that will be a cost-benefit analysis of deregulation of "low-level" radioactive waste costs, including health, and environmental costs and effects, including both dollar and nondollar effects in both the long-term and the short-term;

(2) determine who will conduct the study;

(3) determine the timelines for the study;

(4) evaluate the cost-benefit study; and

(5) make a recommendation on continuation of the moratorium and other recommendations to the legislature by January 1, 1994.

Sec. 8. [REPEALER.]

Sections 4 to 7 are repealed effective June 30, 1996.

Sec. 9. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 and 2 are effective August 1, 1990, and apply to cities, towns, and counties that initiate action to organize solid waste collection on or after that date. Sections 3 to 7 are effective the day following final enactment."

Delete the title and insert:

"A bill for an act relating to waste; regulating the organized collection of solid waste; regulating the disposal of low-level radioactive waste for a limited period of time; creating a task force on low-level radioactive waste regulation for a limited period of time; appropriating money; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 115A.94, subdivisions 3 and 4; and 116C.712, subdivision 5; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 116C."

We request adoption of this report and repassage of the bill.

Senate Conferees: STEVEN MORSE, FRITZ KNAAK AND JOHN J. MARTY.

House Conferees: LEE GREENFIELD, LOREN G. JENNINGS AND DENNIS OZMENT.

Greenfield moved that the report of the Conference Committee on S. F. No. 2195 be adopted and that the bill be repassed as amended by the Conference Committee. The motion prevailed.

S. F. No. 2195, A bill for an act relating to waste; prohibiting certain types of low-level radioactive waste from being disposed of at other than licensed facilities; providing for a task force on radioactive waste deregulation; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 116C.

The bill was read for the third time, as amended by Conference, and placed upon its repassage.

The question was taken on the repassage of the bill and the roll was called. There were 132 yeas and 0 nays as follows:

PATRICK E. FLAHAVEN, Secretary of the Senate

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON S. F. NO. 1894

A bill for an act relating to environment and natural resources; amending provisions relating to water management organizations; providing legislative commission oversight of the metropolitan water management act; authorizing management and financing of drainage systems under certain laws; clarifying water management purposes; authorizing counties to remove watershed district managers for just cause; authorizing a technical advisory committee; requiring watershed management organizations to prepare newsletters, annual reports, and audits; providing for preparation of watershed plans and implementation of plans; providing penalties for not implementing plans; authorizing and directing the board of water and soil resources to adopt rules; providing for appeal of plan failures; providing for requests for proposals for certain services; authorizing accumulation of levy proceeds; requiring a draining system report; appropriating money; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 110B.28; 110B.30; 112.42, by adding a subdivision; 473.875; 473.876, by adding a subdivision; 473.877, subdivision 1; 473.878, subdivisions 1, 1a, 2, 3, 4, 8, and by adding subdivisions; 473.879, subdivision 2; 473.881; 473.882, subdivision 1; and 473.883, subdivisions 3 and 7; Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 473.883, subdivision 6; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapters 112 and 473.

April 24, 1990

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

The Honorable Robert E. Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

We, the undersigned conferees for S. F. No. 1894, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House recede from its amendments and that S. F. No. 1894 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 110B.28, is amended to read:

110B.28 [COMMISSION OVERSIGHT; REPORT REQUIRED.]

The board shall, on or before January 15 of each year, submit to the legislative water commission on ~~Minnesota resources~~ a written report on the board's functions and the implementation of the comprehensive local water management act and sections 473.875 to 473.883 since the previous report under this section was submitted. The report to the commission must include the board's recommendations for changes to the comprehensive local water management act and sections 473.875 to 473.883 and any recommendations for funding. The board shall also report to the commission at other times requested by the commission. The commission may make recommendations to the legislature concerning the funding, implementation, and amendment of the act and sections 473.875 to 473.883.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 110B.30, is amended to read:

110B.30 [APPLICATION.]

Sections 110B.01 to 110B.28 do not apply in areas subject to the requirements of sections 473.875 to 473.883 under section 473.878, subdivision 1, and in areas covered by an agreement entered into by December 31, 1985, under section 473.878, subdivision 1a, except as otherwise provided in sections 110B.04, subdivision 4, clause (4); and 110B.08, subdivisions 1, clauses (3) and (4) and 2, clause (b).

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 112.42, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [TERMS; SUCCESSOR APPOINTMENTS; VACANCIES.] (a) At least 30 days before the expiration of the term of office of the first managers named by the board, the county commissioners of each county affected shall meet and appoint successors to the first managers. If the nominating petition for the district originated from a majority of the cities in the district, or if the district is wholly within the metropolitan area, the county commissioners shall appoint the managers from a list of persons nominated jointly or severally by the towns and municipalities within the district. If the district is wholly within the metropolitan area, the county commissioners shall appoint the managers from a list of persons nominated jointly or severally by the towns and municipalities within the district. The list must contain at least three nominees for each position to be filled. Managers for a district wholly within the metropolitan area must be appointed to fairly represent by residence the various hydrologic areas within the district.

(b) The list of nominees must be submitted to the affected county board at least 60 days before the expiration of the term of office. If the list is not submitted within 60 days prior to the expiration of the term of office, the county commissioners shall select the managers from eligible individuals within the district. The county commissioners shall meet and appoint the successors at least 30 days before any manager's term expires. If the district affects more than one county, distribution of the managers among the counties affected shall be as directed by the board.

(c) Ten years after the order of establishment, the board may redistribute the managers among the counties if redistribution is in accordance with the purposes of this chapter. The board may take this action upon petition of the county board of commissioners of any county affected by the district and after public hearing on the petition. A petition for the redistribution of managers must not be filed with the board more than once in ten years.

(d) If the number of manager positions in the board's findings and order establishing the district is three, the terms of office of the first county-appointed managers shall be one for a term of one year, one for a term of two years, and one for a term of three years. If the number of managers is five, one manager's term shall be one year, two managers' terms shall be two years, and two managers' terms shall be three years. If the board of managers consists of more than five members, the managers shall be appointed so that as nearly as possible one-third serve terms of one year, one-third serve terms of two years, and one-third serve terms of three years. If the district affects more than one county, the board shall direct the distribution of the one-, two-, and three-year terms among the affected counties. Thereafter, the term of office for each manager must be three years, and until a successor is appointed and qualified. If the district affects more than five counties, in order to provide for the orderly distribution of the managers, the board may determine and identify the manager areas within the territory of the district and select the appointing county board of commissioners for each manager's area. Any vacancy in an office of a manager must be filled by the appointing county board of commissioners.

(e) A record of all appointments made under this subdivision must be filed with the county auditor of each county affected, with the secretary of the board of managers, and with the secretary of the board. A person appointed as a manager must be a voting resident of the district and must not be a public officer of the county, state, or federal government, except that a soil and water conservation supervisor may be a manager.

Sec. 4. [112.4305] [TECHNICAL ADVISORY COMMITTEES.]

For a district wholly within the metropolitan area, the board of managers shall establish a technical advisory committee consisting of representatives of affected statutory and home rule charter cities, counties, and soil and water conservation districts.

Sec. 5. [473.157] [WATER RESOURCES PLAN.]

To help achieve federal and state water quality standards, provide effective water pollution control, and help reduce unnecessary investments in advanced wastewater treatment, the council shall adopt a water resources plan that includes management objectives and target pollution loads for watersheds in the metropolitan area. The council shall recommend to the board of water and soil resources performance standards for watershed plans in the metropolitan area, including standards relating to the timing of plan revisions and proper water quality management.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.875, is amended to read:

473.875 [METROPOLITAN WATER MANAGEMENT PROGRAMS; PURPOSES.]

The purpose purposes of the water management programs required by sections 473.875 to 473.883 is are to: protect, preserve and use natural surface and ground water storage and retention systems in order to (a) reduce to the greatest practical extent the public capital expenditures necessary to control excessive volumes and rates of runoff, (b) protect and improve surface and ground water quality, (c) prevent flooding and erosion from surface flows, (d) promote ground water recharge, (e) protect and enhance fish and wildlife habitat and water recreational facilities, and (f) secure the other benefits associated with the proper management of surface and ground water.

(1) protect, preserve, and use natural surface and groundwater storage and retention systems;

(2) minimize public capital expenditures needed to correct flooding and water quality problems;

(3) identify and plan for means to effectively protect and improve surface and groundwater quality;

(4) establish more uniform local policies and official controls for surface and groundwater management;

(5) prevent erosion of soil into surface water systems;

(6) promote groundwater recharge;

(7) protect and enhance fish and wildlife habitat and water recreational facilities; and

(8) secure the other benefits associated with the proper management of surface and ground water.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.876, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6a. [SUBWATERSHED UNIT.] "Subwatershed unit" means a hydrologic area less than the entire area under the jurisdiction of a watershed management organization.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.877, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY.] (a) Any agreement under section 471.59 to jointly or cooperatively manage or plan for the management of surface water in a watershed delineated pursuant to subdivision 2, as required by sections 473.875 to 473.883, may provide, in addition to other provisions authorized by section 471.59, for a joint board having:

(a) (1) the authority to prepare, adopt, and implement a plan for the watershed meeting the requirements of section 473.878;

(b) (2) the authority to review and approve local water management plans as provided in section 473.879;

(c) (3) the authority of a watershed district under chapter 112 to regulate the use and development of land in the watershed when one or more of the following conditions exists: (1) (i) the local government unit exercising planning and zoning authority over the land under sections 366.10 to 366.19, 394.21 to 394.37, or 462.351 to 462.364, does not have a local water management plan approved and adopted in accordance with the requirements of section 473.879 or has not adopted the implementation program described in the plan; (2) (ii) an application to the local government unit for a permit for the use and development of land requires an amendment to or variance from the adopted local water management plan or implementation program of the local unit; (3) and (iii) the local government unit has authorized the organization to require permits for the use and development of land;

(d) (4) the authority of a watershed district under section 112.65 to accept the transfer of drainage systems in the watershed, to repair, improve, and maintain the transferred drainage systems, and to construct all new drainage systems and improvements of existing drainage systems in the watershed, provided that: (i) projects may be carried out under the powers granted in chapter 106A, 112, or 473 and sections 106A.005 to 106A.811 and that; and (ii) proceedings of the board with respect to the systems must be in conformance with the watershed plan adopted under section 473.878; and

(e) (5) other powers necessary to exercise the authority under clauses (a) (1) to (e) (3), including the power to enter into contracts for the performance of functions with governmental units or persons.

(b) The board of water and soil resources shall adopt rules prescribing minimum requirements for the content of watershed management organization joint powers agreements.

(c) Decisions by a joint powers board may not require more than a majority vote, except a decision on a capital improvement project, which may require no more than a two-thirds vote.

Sec. 9. [473.8775] [WATERSHED MANAGEMENT ORGANIZATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPOINTMENT OF MEMBERS.] Watershed management organizations shall notify the board of water and soil resources of member appointments and vacancies in member positions within 30 days. Appointing authorities shall fill vacant positions by 90 days after the vacancy occurs.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE OF BOARD VACANCIES.] Appointing authorities for watershed management organization board members shall publish a notice of vacancies resulting from expiration of members' terms and other reasons. The notices must be published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the watershed management organization area. The notices must state that persons interested in being appointed to serve on the watershed management organization board may submit their names to the appointing authority for consideration. Published notice of the vacancy must be given at least 15 days before an appointment or reappointment is made.

Subd. 3. [REMOVAL.] Appointing authorities may remove members of watershed management organization boards for just cause. The board of water and soil resources shall adopt rules prescribing standards and procedures for removing members of watershed management organization boards for just cause.

Subd. 4. [NEWSLETTER.] A watershed management organization shall publish and distribute at least one newsletter or other appropriate written communication each year to residents. The newsletter or other communication must explain the organization's water management programs and list the officers and telephone numbers.

Subd. 5. [REQUESTS FOR PROPOSALS FOR SERVICES.] A watershed management organization shall at least every two years solicit interest proposals for legal, professional, or technical consultant services before retaining the services of an attorney or consultant or extending an annual services agreement.

Subd. 6. [FORMATION OF ASSOCIATION.] The board of water and soil resources shall facilitate the formation of an association of watershed management organizations and inform the association, if formed, of similar national associations with which it may become affiliated.

Subd. 7. [DRAINAGE SYSTEMS.] Watershed management organizations may accept transfer of drainage systems under sections 473.875 to 473.883.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.878, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENT.] (a) A watershed management plan is required for watersheds comprising all minor watershed units wholly or partly within the metropolitan area. For the purposes of this section a minor watershed unit shall be considered within the metropolitan area if units having more than 90 percent of its their area is within the metropolitan area; the watershed management plan shall be prepared, adopted, and implemented in accordance with the requirements of sections 473.875 to 473.883.

(b) Minor watershed units having 90 percent or less of their area within the metropolitan area shall prepare a plan or have the county prepare a watershed management plan for their area in accordance with the requirements of sections 473.875 to 473.883 or chapter 110B, as determined by the board of water and soil resources.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.878, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [OPTIONAL PARTICIPATION IN METROPOLITAN WATER MANAGEMENT ORGANIZATION.] Local government units, within or outside of the metropolitan area, having territory that is not subject to the requirements of this section but that is within a watershed part of which is subject to the requirements of this section, may enter into an agreement under section 473.877. A local government unit that enters into an agreement under this subdivision has the duties imposed and the authority granted in sections 473.875 to 473.883.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.878, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [RESPONSIBLE UNITS.] (a) Where a watershed management organization exists, the plan for the watershed shall be prepared and adopted by the organization.

(b) If a watershed management organization is not established by

July 1, 1985, for any minor watershed unit located wholly outside of Hennepin and Ramsey counties, is terminated, or the board of water and soil resources determines a plan is not being implemented in accordance with its rules, the county or counties containing the watershed unit shall prepare, adopt, and implement the watershed plan and for this purpose the county or counties have the planning, review, permitting, and financing authority of a watershed management organization specified in sections 473.877 to 473.883. If a watershed management organization is not established by July 1, 1985, for any minor watershed unit within the metropolitan area and wholly or partly within Hennepin or Ramsey counties, the county or counties containing the watershed unit shall petition for the establishment of a watershed district under chapter 112, provided, however, that a district established pursuant to such a petition shall not cross a primary river nor a river forming the boundary between a metropolitan county and a county outside the metropolitan area, shall have boundaries which are based upon negotiations among all local government units which may have territory within the district and adjacent watersheds and shall not cross county boundaries to include territory whose distinguishing characteristic is multiple drainage points into a primary river. A watershed management organization may request a county to prepare all or part of a plan. A county may delegate the preparation of all or part of a plan to the county soil and water conservation district. Upon request of a statutory or home rule charter city or town, a county may delegate the preparation of all or part of a plan to the city or town.

(c) If the board of water and soil resources determines that a county is not implementing the plan, has not delegated implementation of the plan, and has not petitioned for the creation of a watershed district:

(1) state agencies may withhold from local government units state funding for water programs for projects within the watershed;

(2) state agencies may withhold from local government units delegation of state water resource regulatory authority within the watershed; and

(3) state agencies may suspend issuance of water-related permits within the watershed.

The provisions of this paragraph apply until the board of water and soil resources determines that a plan is being implemented in accordance with its rules.

(d) Appeals from the board of water and soil resources determination are made in the same manner as appeals under section 110B.25, subdivision 5.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.878, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [GENERAL STANDARDS.] (a) The watershed management plan shall extend through the year 1990 or any year thereafter which is evenly divisible by five.

(b) The plan must be updated before the expiration of the period covered by the plan. The plan must be reviewed for consistency with an adopted county ground water plan, and revised as necessary, whenever the watershed plan undergoes substantial revision or updating. In counties that adopt or amend ground water plans within five years following August 1, 1987, watershed plans must be reviewed for consistency with the county ground water plan, and revised as necessary, not later than six years following August 1, 1987. In counties that adopt or amend ground water plans after five years following August 1, 1987, watershed plans must be reviewed for consistency with the county ground water plan, and revised as necessary, not later than one year following the adoption or amendment of the ground water plan. Upon the request of a watershed management organization, the county shall provide a written statement that:

(1) identifies any substantial inconsistencies between the watershed plan and the ground water plan and any substantial adverse effects of the watershed plan on the ground water plan; and

(2) evaluates, estimates the cost of, and recommends alternatives for amending the watershed plan to rectify any substantial inconsistencies and adverse effects.

(c) The plan shall contain the elements required by subdivision 4. Each element shall be set out in the degree of detail and prescription necessary to accomplish the purposes of sections 473.875 to 473.883, considering the character of existing and anticipated physical and hydrogeologic conditions, land use, and development and the severity of existing and anticipated water management problems in the watershed.

(d) The plan shall be prepared and submitted for review under subdivision 5 not later than December 31, 1986.

(e) Existing plans of a watershed management organization shall remain in force and effect until amended or superseded by plans adopted under sections 473.875 to 473.883. Existing or amended plans of a watershed management organization which meet the requirements of sections 473.875 to 473.883 may be submitted for review under subdivision 5.

(f) Watershed management organizations shall coordinate their planning activities with contiguous watershed management organizations and counties conducting water planning and implementation under chapter 110B.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.878, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [CONTENTS.] (a) The plan shall:

(a) (1) describe the existing physical environment, land use, and development in the area and the environment, land use, and development proposed in existing local and metropolitan comprehensive plans;

(b) (2) present information on the hydrologic system and its components, including any drainage systems previously constructed under sections 106A.005 to 106A.811, and existing and potential problems related thereto;

(c) (3) state objectives and policies, including management principles, alternatives and modifications, water quality, and protection of natural characteristics;

(d) (4) set forth a management plan, including the hydrologic and water quality conditions that will be sought and significant opportunities for improvement;

(e) (5) describe the effect of the plan on existing drainage systems;

(f) (6) describe conflicts between the watershed plan and existing plans of local government units;

(g) (7) set forth an implementation program consistent with the management plan, which includes a capital improvement program and standards and schedules for amending the comprehensive plans and official controls of local government units in the watershed to bring about conformance with the watershed plan; and

(h) (8) set out a procedure for amending the plan.

(b) The board shall adopt rules to establish standards and requirements for amendments to watershed plans. The rules must include:

(1) performance standards for the watershed plans, which may distinguish between plans for urban areas and rural areas;

(2) minimum requirements for the content of watershed plans and plan amendments, including public participation process requirements for amendment and implementation of watershed plans;

(3) standards for the content of capital improvement programs to implement watershed plans, including a requirement that capital improvement programs identify structural and nonstructural alternatives that would lessen capital expenditures; and

(4) how watershed plans are to specify the nature of the official controls required to be adopted by the local units of government, including uniform erosion control, stormwater retention, and wetland protection ordinances in the metropolitan area.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.878, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [REVIEW BY METROPOLITAN COUNCIL.] After completion of the review under subdivision 5, the plan and all comments received shall be submitted to the metropolitan council for review. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in sections 112.46 and 473.165, the council shall review the plan in the same manner and with the same authority and effect as provided for the council's review of the comprehensive plans of local government units under section 473.175. The council shall comment on the apparent conformity with metropolitan system plans of any anticipated amendments to local comprehensive plans. The council shall advise the board of water and soil resources on whether the plan conforms with the management objectives and target pollution loads stated in the council's water resources plan and shall recommend changes in the plan that would satisfy the council's plan. The council may mediate and attempt to resolve differences among local governmental agencies regarding the plan.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.878, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [ADOPTION; IMPLEMENTATION.] (a) The organization shall adopt and implement its plan within 120 days after compliance with the provisions of subdivision 7 and approval of the plan by the board of water and soil resources. A watershed district may implement its approved plan and approved capital improvement program by resolution of the majority of the board of managers and without respect to the provisions of chapter 112 requiring the managers to wait upon petitions for projects, to submit projects for review by the board of water and soil resources, and to limit the cost and purposes of projects.

(b) The board of water and soil resources shall adopt rules establishing standards and criteria for making determinations of whether watershed management organizations and counties are implementing watershed plans as required under subdivision 1.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.878, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. [PLAN REVIEW.] The board of water and soil resources shall review each watershed management organization plan at least once every five years and recommend appropriate changes.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.878, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11. [APPEALS OF PLAN FAILURES.] Persons aggrieved by an alleged failure to comply with the provisions of an approved plan may request review by the board of water and soil resources. The board shall establish a procedure for resolving disputes and making a determination on whether the plan is being implemented.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.878, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 12. [ANNUAL REPORT.] The board of water and soil resources shall adopt rules establishing:

(1) requirements for annual watershed management organization financial reports to the board, including a report on administrative, project, and other expenditures;

(2) standards for annual financial audits by certified public accountants, procedures for the board to follow before ordering state financial and performance audits as determined by the board, and procedures for charging the costs of financial and performance audits to the watershed management organization; and

(3) requirements for the content of annual activity reports to the board, which must include the number and type of permits issued, complaints received, plan and ordinance violations, projects constructed, new officers installed, variances granted, status of local unit adoption and enforcement of model ordinance requirements, and financial conditions of the watershed management organization.

Sec. 20. [473.880] [RULE REVIEW.]

The board of water and soil resources shall review the rules relating to sections 473.875 to 473.883 at least once every five years and adopt necessary amendments.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.879, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [STANDARDS; CONTENTS.] (a) Each local plan, in the degree of detail required in the watershed plan, shall:

(a) (1) describe existing and proposed physical environment and land use;

(b) (2) define drainage areas and the volumes, rates, and paths of stormwater runoff;

(c) (3) identify areas and elevations for stormwater storage adequate to meet performance standards established in the watershed plan;

(d) (4) define water quality and water quality protection methods adequate to performance standards established in the watershed plan;

(e) (5) identify regulated areas; and

(f) (6) set forth an implementation program, including a description of official controls and, as appropriate, a capital improvement program.

(b) The board of water and soil resources shall adopt rules establishing minimum local plan standards and a model environmental management ordinance for use by local government units in implementing local water plans. The standards apply to plan amendments made to conform to changes in the watershed plans that are adopted under the board rules required by section 14.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.881, is amended to read:

473.881 [NO EXEMPTION FROM LEVY LIMIT.]

Any levy to pay the increased costs to a local government unit or watershed management organization of implementing sections 473.878 and 473.879 or to pay costs of improvements and maintenance of improvements identified in an approved and adopted plan shall be in addition to any other taxes authorized by law and shall be disregarded in the calculation of limits on taxes imposed by chapter 275, except levies pursuant to section 473.883, subdivision 7, for taxes payable in 1985 and thereafter. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in chapter 112, a watershed district may levy a tax sufficient to pay the increased costs to the district of implementing sections 473.878 and 473.879. The proceeds of any tax levied under this section shall be deposited in a separate fund and expended only for the purposes authorized by this section. Watershed management organizations and local government units may accumulate the proceeds of levies as an alternative to issuing bonds to finance improvements. The amount authorized under this section and levied by a governmental subdivision is not exempt from sections 275.50 to 275.56.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.882, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [WATERSHED MANAGEMENT TAX DISTRICT.]

(a) Any local government unit planning for water management under sections 473.878 and 473.879 may establish a watershed management tax district in the territory within the watershed, for the purpose of paying the costs of the planning required under sections 473.878 and 473.879.

(b) Any local government unit which has part of its territory within a watershed for which a plan has been adopted in accordance with section 473.878 and which has a local water management plan adopted in accordance with section 473.879 may establish a watershed management tax district in the territory within the watershed or a ~~minor watershed~~ subwatershed unit in the watershed, for the purpose of paying capital costs of the water management facilities described in the capital improvement program of the plans and for the purpose of paying for normal and routine maintenance of the facilities.

(c) A county or counties required by section 473.878, subdivision 2, to prepare, adopt, and implement a watershed plan shall apportion the costs of planning, capital improvements, and maintenance proportionate to benefits. The county may apportion the costs among the ~~minor watershed~~ subwatershed units in the watershed, or among the statutory and home rule charter cities and towns having territory in the watershed, and for this purpose may establish more than one watershed management tax district in the watershed.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.883, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [APPORTIONMENT OF COSTS.] If the territory of the watershed management organization extends into more than one county, the cost of the improvement shall be certified to the respective county boards in the proportions prescribed in the capital improvement program of the organization. The certification of the watershed management organization may apportion the cost among some or all of the ~~minor watershed~~ subwatershed units in the watershed and for this purpose may require the establishment of more than one tax district in the watershed.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 473.883, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [TAX.] For the payment of principal and interest on the bonds issued under subdivision 5 and the payment required under subdivision 4, the county shall irrevocably pledge and appropriate the proceeds of a tax levied on all taxable property located within the territory of the watershed management organization or ~~minor~~ watershed subwatershed unit for which the bonds are issued. Each year until the reserve for payment of the bonds is sufficient to retire the bonds, the county shall levy on all taxable property in the territory of the organization or unit, without respect to any statutory or other limitation on taxes, an amount of taxes sufficient to pay principal and interest on the bonds and to restore any deficiencies in reserves required to be maintained for payment of the bonds. The tax levied on rural towns other than urban towns may not exceed 0.02418 percent of taxable market value, unless approved by resolution of the town electors. If at any time the amounts available from the levy on property in the territory of the organization are insufficient to pay principal and interest on the bonds when due, the county shall make payment from any available funds in the county treasury. The amount of any taxes which are required to be levied outside of the territory of the watershed management organization or unit or taken from the general funds of the county to pay principal or interest on the bonds shall be reimbursed to the county from taxes levied within the territory of the watershed management organization or unit.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.883, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [MAINTENANCE LEVY.] For the purpose of creating a maintenance fund to be used for normal and routine maintenance of a work of improvement constructed in whole or part with money provided by the county pursuant to subdivision 4, the board of managers of a watershed district, with the approval of the county, may impose an ad valorem levy on all property located within the territory of the watershed district or ~~minor watershed subwatershed~~ unit. The levy shall be certified, levied, collected, and distributed as provided in section 112.611, and shall be in addition to any other money levied and distributed to the district thereunder. The proceeds of the levy shall be deposited in a separate maintenance and repair account to be used only for the purpose for which the levy was made.

Sec. 27. [DRAINAGE SYSTEM REPORT.]

Drainage authorities in the metropolitan area shall inventory and evaluate public ditches under their jurisdiction, prepare a report describing the general condition of the public ditch following the criteria under Minnesota Statutes, section 106A.015, and submit the report to the board of water and soil resources by July 1, 1992. The board shall provide guidance and technical assistance to the drainage authorities in meeting this requirement.

Sec. 28. [COOPERATION IN PLANNING.]

The council shall establish an advisory water quality management task force to assist the council in the plans and recommendations required by section 5. The council and the board shall coordinate agency activities and technical assistance to watershed management organizations and local governments to achieve the maximum benefit from staff resources.

Sec. 29. [APPLICATION.]

Sections 5 to 28 apply in the counties of Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, and Washington.

Sec. 30. [APPROPRIATION.]

$57,000 previously appropriated from the general fund to the board of water and soil resources for fiscal year 1991, including appropriations in Laws 1989, chapters 269, section 9; and 326, article 10, section 1, subdivision 4, either for administrative costs or for grants, is available to be used to carry out this act.

Sec 31. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 9, subdivisions 2 and 4; and 19, are effective July 1, 1992. Section 22 is effective for taxes levied in 1989, payable in 1990, and subsequent years."

Mr. Speaker:

I hereby announce that the Senate has concurred in and adopted the report of the Conference Committee on:

S. F. No. 2177.

The Senate has repassed said bill in accordance with the recommendation and report of the Conference Committee. Said Senate File is herewith transmitted to the House.

PATRICK E. FLAHAVEN, Secretary of the Senate

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON S. F. NO. 2177

A bill for an act relating to traffic safety; providing for administrative impoundment of license plates of vehicles owned by repeat violators of laws relating to driving while intoxicated; providing for issuance of special plates; requiring peace officers to serve a notice of intent to impound when serving a notice of intent to revoke the violator's driver's license; providing for administrative and judicial review of impoundment orders; eliminating the alcohol problem screening for persons convicted of offenses associated with driving under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance; modifying procedures for chemical use assessments, programs, and funding; changing the maximum rate for reimbursement of counties from the general fund for the assessments; expanding the crime of refusing to submit to an implied consent test; requiring notice of certain enhanced penalties; expanding the crime of aggravated driving while intoxicated; removing requirement that negligence be proven for conviction of criminal vehicular operation if driver's alcohol concentration was 0.10 or more; imposing penalties for criminal vehicular operation resulting in substantial bodily harm; prohibiting constructive possession of alcohol in a private motor vehicle; expanding the definition of possession; changing provisions about aircraft operation while under the influence of alcohol or controlled substances; imposing penalties; appropriating money; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 168.041, subdivisions 3, 8, and 10; 169.121, by adding a subdivision; 169.122, subdivision 2; 169.124, subdivision 1; 169.126, subdivisions 1, 2, 6, and by adding a subdivision; 169.129; and 360.015, subdivisions 1 and 6; Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, sections 169.041, subdivision 4; 169.121, subdivisions 1a, 3, and 3b; 169.126, subdivision 4; 260.193, subdivision 8; and 609.21; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapters 168 and 360; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 168.041, subdivision 3a; 169.124, subdivisions 2 and 3; 169.126, subdivisions 2, 3, and 4b; 360.075, subdivision 7; and 360.0751; Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, sections 168.041, subdivision 4a; and 169.126, subdivision 4a.

April 24, 1990

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

The Honorable Robert E. Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

We, the undersigned conferees for S. F. No. 2177, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate concur in the House amendment and that S. F. No. 2177 be further amended as follows:

"Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.151, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Upon request of the court the county welfare board or probation officer shall investigate the personal and family history and environment of any minor coming within the jurisdiction of the court under section 260.111 and shall report its findings to the court. The court may order any minor coming within its jurisdiction to be examined by a duly qualified physician, psychiatrist, or psychologist appointed by the court.

The court shall have a chemical use assessment conducted when a child is (1) found to be delinquent for violating a provision of chapter 152, or (2) alleged to be delinquent for violating a provision of chapter 152, if the child is being held in custody under a detention order. The assessor's qualifications and the assessment criteria shall comply with Minnesota Rules, parts 9530.6600 to 9530.6655. If funds under chapter 254B are to be used to pay for the recommended treatment, the assessment and placement must comply with all provisions of Minnesota Rules, parts 9530.6600 to 9530.6655, and parts 9530.7000 to 9530.7030. The commissioner of public safety shall reimburse the court for the cost of the chemical use assessment, up to a maximum of $100.

With the consent of the commissioner of corrections and agreement of the county to pay the costs thereof, the court may, by order, place a minor coming within its jurisdiction in an institution maintained by the commissioner for the detention, diagnosis, custody and treatment of persons adjudicated to be delinquent, in order that the condition of the minor be given due consideration in the disposition of the case. Adoption investigations shall be conducted in accordance with the laws relating to adoptions. Any funds received under the provisions of this subdivision shall not cancel until the end of the fiscal year immediately following the fiscal year in which the funds were received. The funds are available for use by the commissioner of corrections during that period and are hereby appropriated annually to the commissioner of corrections as reimbursement of the costs of providing these services to the juvenile courts."

Subdivision 1. [CONSUMPTION.] It is unlawful for any:

(1) retail intoxicating liquor or nonintoxicating liquor licensee or bottle club permit holder under section 340A.414, to permit any person under the age of 21 years to consume alcoholic beverages on the licensed premises; or

(2) person under the age of 21 years to consume any alcoholic beverages unless in the household of the person's parent or guardian and with the consent of the parent or guardian. If proven by a preponderance of the evidence, it is an affirmative defense to a violation of this clause that the defendant consumed the alcoholic beverage in the household of the defendant's parent or guardian and with the consent of the parent or guardian.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 340A.503, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PURCHASING.] It is unlawful for any person:

(1) to sell, barter, furnish, or give alcoholic beverages to a person under 21 years of age, ~~except that a parent or guardian of a person under the age of 21 years may give or furnish alcoholic beverages to that person solely for consumption in the household of the parent or guardian;~~

(2) under the age of 21 years to purchase or attempt to purchase any alcoholic beverage; or

(3) to induce a person under the age of 21 years to purchase or procure any alcoholic beverage, or to lend or knowingly permit the use of the person's driver's license, permit, Minnesota identification card, or other form of identification by a person under the age of 21 years for the purpose of purchasing or attempting to purchase an alcoholic beverage.

If proven by a preponderance of the evidence, it shall be an affirmative defense to a violation of clause (1) that the defendant is the parent or guardian of the person under 21 years of age and that the defendant gave or furnished the alcoholic beverage to that person solely for consumption in the defendant's household.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 340A.503, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [POSSESSION.] It is unlawful for a person under the age of 21 years to possess any alcoholic beverage with the intent to consume it at a place other than the household of the person's parent or guardian. Possession at a place other than the household of the parent or guardian is prima facie evidence creates a rebuttable presumption of intent to consume it at a place other than the household of the parent or guardian. This presumption may be rebutted by a preponderance of the evidence."

CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES OFFENSES

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 152.021, is amended to read:

152.021 [CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE CRIME IN THE FIRST DEGREE.]

Subdivision 1. [SALE CRIMES.] A person is guilty of controlled substance crime in the first degree if:

(1) on one or more occasions within a 90-day period the person unlawfully sells one or more mixtures ~~containing ten grams or more of a total weight of ten grams or more~~ containing cocaine base;

(2) on one or more occasions within a 90-day period the person unlawfully sells one or more mixtures of a total weight of 50 grams or more containing a narcotic drug;

(3) on one or more occasions within a 90-day period the person unlawfully sells one or more mixtures of a total weight of 50 grams or more containing methamphetamine, amphetamine, phencyclidine, or hallucinogen or, if the controlled substance is packaged in dosage units, equaling 200 or more dosage units; or

(4) on one or more occasions within a 90-day period the person unlawfully sells one or more mixtures of a total weight of ~~100~~ 50 kilograms or more containing marijuana or Tetrahydrocannabinols.

Subd. 2. [POSSESSION CRIMES.] A person is guilty of a controlled substance crime in the first degree if:

(1) the person unlawfully possesses one or more mixtures ~~containing 25 grams or more of a total weight of 25 grams or more~~ containing cocaine base;

(2) the person unlawfully possesses one or more mixtures of a total weight of 500 grams or more containing a narcotic drug;

(3) the person unlawfully possesses one or more mixtures of a total weight of 500 grams or more containing methamphetamine, amphetamine, phencyclidine, or hallucinogen or, if the controlled substance is packaged in dosage units, equaling 500 or more dosage units; or

(4) the person unlawfully possesses one or more mixtures of a total weight of 100 kilograms or more containing marijuana or Tetrahydrocannabinols.

Subd. 3. [PENALTY.] (a) A person convicted under subdivision 1 or 2 may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than 30 years or to payment of a fine of not more than $1,000,000, or both.

(b) If the conviction is a subsequent controlled substance conviction, a person convicted under subdivision 1 or 2 shall be sentenced to imprisonment for not less than four years nor more than 40 years or to payment of a fine of not more than $1,000,000, or both.

(c) In a prosecution under subdivision 1 involving sales by the same person in two or more counties within a 90-day period, the person may be prosecuted for all of the sales in any county in which one of the sales occurred.

(ii) using a false name or giving false credit; or

(iii) falsely assuming the title of, or falsely representing any person to be, a manufacturer, wholesaler, pharmacist, physician, doctor of osteopathy licensed to practice medicine, dentist, podiatrist, veterinarian, or other authorized person for the purpose of obtaining a controlled substance.

Sec. 7. [152.0261] [IMPORTING CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES ACROSS STATE BORDERS.]

Subdivision 1. [FELONY.] A person who crosses a state or international border into Minnesota while in possession of an amount of a controlled substance that constitutes a first degree controlled substance crime under section 152.021, subdivision 2, is guilty of importing controlled substances and may be sentenced as provided in subdivision 3.

Subd. 2. [JURISDICTION.] A violation of subdivision 1 may be charged, indicted, and tried in any county, but not more than one county, into or through which the actor has brought the controlled substance.

Subd. 3. [PENALTY.] A person convicted of violating this section is guilty of a felony and may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than 35 years or to payment of a fine of not more than $1,250,000, or both.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 152.028, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PASSENGER AUTOMOBILES:] The presence of a controlled substance in a passenger automobile permits the factfinder to infer knowing possession of the controlled substance by the driver or person in control of the automobile when the controlled substance was in the automobile. This inference may only be made if the defendant is charged with violating section 152.021, 152.022, or 152.023, or section 7. The inference does not apply:

(1) to a duly licensed operator of an automobile who is at the time operating it for hire in the lawful and proper pursuit of the operator's trade;

(2) to any person in the automobile if one of them legally possesses a controlled substance; or

(3) when the controlled substance is concealed on the person of one of the occupants.

Sec. 9. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 8 are effective August 1, 1990, and apply to crimes committed on or after that date.

ARTICLE 8

PRESENTENCE INVESTIGATIONS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 609.115, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PRESENTENCE INVESTIGATION.] When a defendant has been convicted of a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor, the court may, and when the defendant has been convicted of a felony, the court shall, before sentence is imposed, cause a presentence investigation and written report to be made to the court concerning the defendant's individual characteristics, circumstances, needs, potentialities, criminal record and social history, the circumstances of the offense and the harm caused by it to others and to the community. At the request of the prosecutor in a gross misdemeanor case, the court shall order that a presentence investigation and report be prepared. When the crime is a felony violation of chapter 152 involving the sale or distribution of a controlled substance, the report shall include a description of any adverse social or economic effects the offense has had on persons who reside in the neighborhood where the offense was committed.

The report shall also include the information relating to crime victims required under section 611A.037, subdivision 1. If the court directs, the report shall include an estimate of the prospects of the defendant's rehabilitation and recommendations as to the sentence which should be imposed. In misdemeanor cases the report may be oral.

When a defendant has been convicted of a felony, and before sentencing, the court shall cause a sentencing worksheet to be completed to facilitate the application of the Minnesota sentencing guidelines. The worksheet shall be submitted as part of the presentence investigation report.

The investigation shall be made by a probation officer of the court, if there is one, otherwise by the commissioner of corrections. The officer conducting the presentence or predispositional investigation shall make reasonable and good faith efforts to contact the victim of that crime and to provide that victim with the information required under section 611A.037, subdivision 2.

Pending the presentence investigation and report, When a person is convicted of a felony for which the sentencing guidelines presume that the defendant will be committed to the commissioner of corrections under an executed sentence and no motion for a sentencing departure has been made by counsel, the court with the consent of the commissioner may commit the defendant to the custody of the commissioner of corrections who, pending completion of the presentence investigation and report. When a defendant is convicted of a felony for which the sentencing guidelines do not presume that the defendant will be committed to the commissioner of corrections, or for which the sentencing guidelines presume commitment to the commissioner but counsel has moved for a sentencing departure, the court may commit the defendant to the commissioner with the consent of the commissioner, pending completion of the presentence investigation and report. The commissioner shall return the defendant to the court when the court so orders.

Presentence investigations shall be conducted and summary hearings held upon reports and upon the sentence to be imposed upon the defendant in accordance with this section, section 244.10, and the rules of criminal procedure."

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON S. F. NO. 2421

A bill for an act relating to elections; presidential primary; changing the primary date; providing procedures for conducting the primary; changing the requirements for being a candidate at the primary; allowing voters to prefer uncommitted delegates; allowing write-in votes; providing for voter receipt of ballots; eliminating the provision that the primary winner is the party's endorsed candidate; changing the apportionment of party delegates; requiring provision of certain information to interested persons; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 204B.06, by adding a subdivision; 204B.11, subdivision 2; Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, sections 207A.01; 207A.02; 207A.03; 207A.04; and 207A.06, subdivisions 1 and 2; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 207A; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 207A.05.

April 24, 1990

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

The Honorable Robert E. Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

We, the undersigned conferees for S. F. No. 2421, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House recede from its amendment and that S. F. No. 2421 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.15, subdivision 3b, is amended to read:

Subd. 3b. [BY INDIVIDUAL MEMBERS OF POLITICAL FUND OR COMMITTEE ATTRIBUTABLE CONTRIBUTIONS.] Contributions made to a candidate or principal campaign committee by individual members of a political fund or committee that are solicited directed to that candidate or principal campaign committee by the a political fund or committee must be reported as attributable to the political fund or committee and count toward the contribution limits of that fund or committee specified in section 10A.27, if the political fund or committee was organized or is operated primarily to solicit or direct the contributions of its members and other than from its own funds to influence the nomination or election of a candidate. The term "individual members" as used in this subdivision means a person or entity who in any manner participates in or in any manner contributes financially or otherwise to the activities of the political fund or committee; one or more candidates or principal campaign committees. The treasurer of the political fund or committee shall advise the candidate or the candidate's principal campaign committee if the contribution or contributions are not from the funds of the political fund or the political committee and the original source of the funds. As used in this subdivision, the term "direct" includes, but is not limited to, order, command, control, or instruct. A violation of this subdivision is a violation of section 10A.29.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 204B.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY AFFIDAVIT.] An affidavit of candidacy for the presidential primary must include the candidate's name, address, office sought, and the candidate's political party or principal in three words or less. The affidavit must include a statement that the candidate satisfies the federal constitutional requirements for holding office.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 204B.11, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PETITION IN PLACE OF FILING FEE.] At the time of filing an affidavit of candidacy, a candidate may present a petition in place of the filing fee. The petition may be signed by any individual eligible to vote for the candidate. A nominating petition filed pursuant to section 204B.07 or 204B.13, subdivision 4, is effective as a petition in place of a filing fee if the nominating petition includes a prominent statement informing the signers of the petition that it will be used for that purpose.

The number of signatures on a petition in place of a filing fee shall be as follows:

(a) For a state office voted on statewide, or for president of the United States, or United States senator, 2,000;

(b) For a congressional office, 1,000;

(c) For a county or legislative office, or for the office of district, county or county municipal judge, 500; and

(d) For any other office which requires a filing fee as prescribed by law, municipal charter or ordinance, the lesser of 500 signatures or five percent of the total number of votes cast in the municipality, ward or other election district at the preceding general election at which that office was on the ballot.

An official with whom petitions are filed shall make sample forms for petitions in place of filing fees available upon request.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 207A.01, is amended to read:

207A.01 [PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY.]

A presidential primary must be held on the ~~fourth~~ first Tuesday in ~~February~~ April of each year in which a president and vice president of the United States are to be nominated and elected, at which the voters of this state may express their preference among the candidates of the major political party of their choice, for that party's nomination to be president of the United States or may vote for uncommitted delegates to the national party convention. For the purposes of sections 207A.01 to 207A.07, "political party" or "party" means a political party as defined in section 200.02, subdivision 7.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 207A.02, is amended to read:

207A.02 [CANDIDATES ON BALLOT.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIRED LISTING.] The following individuals must be listed as candidates on the appropriate major political party presidential ballot with a separate ballot for each major political party:

(1) any individual whose name has been entered as a candidate for the nomination of a major political party in presidential primaries in two or more other states during the same year who files an affidavit of candidacy pursuant to section 204B.06 and submits the appropriate filing fee or petition in place of filing fee pursuant to section 204B.11; and

(2) any individual nominated as a candidate for the presidential nomination of a political party by a petition submitted not later than ten weeks before the primary and bearing the names of 2,000 1,000 eligible voters from each congressional district.

In addition, each major political party's ballot must contain a place for a voter to indicate a preference for having delegates to the party's national convention remain uncommitted, and a blank line printed below the other choices on the ballot so that a voter may write in the name of a person who is not listed on the ballot.

Subd. 1a. [TIME FOR FILING; FEE.] The period for filing an affidavit of candidacy for the presidential primary must begin 16 weeks before the primary and end 14 weeks before the primary. The filing fee is $500. The period for signing nominating petitions must begin 16 weeks before the primary and end ten weeks before the primary.

Subd. 2. [TENTATIVE LISTING ANNOUNCING CANDIDATES.] A tentative determination of the Candidates to be listed who have filed an affidavit of candidacy pursuant to subdivision 1, clause (1), for each political party on the presidential primary ballot must be announced by the secretary of state ten weeks before the primary the day after filings close for the purpose of giving voters sufficient time to nominate unlisted other candidates by petition.

Subd. 3. [ANNOUNCEMENT.] The determination of which candidates must be listed on the presidential primary ballot must be made by the secretary of state not later than ~~six~~ eight weeks before the presidential primary. The secretary of state shall certify to the county auditor of each county the names of all candidates in the presidential primary at least seven weeks before the primary.

Subd. 4. [NOTIFICATION.] Not later than three days after the last day for filing a nominating petition pursuant to subdivision 1, clause (2), the secretary of state shall notify each individual whose name is to be listed on the presidential primary ballot that the individual's name will be listed unless the individual submits an affidavit stating that the individual is not a candidate for the presidential nomination, does not intend to become a candidate, and would not accept the nomination. The affidavit must be submitted to and received by the secretary of state no later than five eight weeks before the presidential primary.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 207A.03, is amended to read:

207A.03 [PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY; HOW CONDUCTED.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL RULE.] Except as otherwise provided in sections 207A.01 to 207A.07, the presidential primary must be announced, held, and conducted, and the results canvassed and returned in the manner provided by law for other primaries and in accordance with the general election laws of the state, as applicable the state primary. If a municipality which uses lever voting machines or an electronic voting system determines that the use of the machines or voting system would not be practical in the presidential primary, the municipality may use a paper ballot for the presidential primary.

Subd. 2. [VOTER CERTIFICATION; BALLOT.] An individual seeking to vote at the presidential primary shall request the ballot of the party for whose candidates the individual wishes to vote. The voter registration certificate or duplicate registration file for the presidential primary must list the names of the political parties appearing on the ballot at the presidential primary. Before receiving a ballot, a voter shall sign the voter's certificate or duplicate registration file and shall place a check mark beside the name of the political party whose ballot the voter requested.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 207A.04, is amended to read:

207A.04 [AUDITOR FURNISHED INFORMATION BY SECRETARY OF STATE; BALLOT PREPARATION.]

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE OF FILING PERIOD.] ~~Before December 4 of the year~~ Twenty weeks before a presidential primary is to be held, the secretary of state shall provide notice to the county auditor of each county of the date of the presidential primary. Within ten days after notification by the secretary of state, each county auditor shall provide notice of the date of the presidential primary to each municipal clerk in the county.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE OF PRIMARY.] At least 15 days before the date of the presidential primary, each municipal clerk shall post a public notice stating the date of the presidential primary, the location of each polling place in the municipality, and the hours during which the polling places in the municipality will be open. The county auditor shall post a similar notice in the auditor's office with information for any polling places in unorganized territory in the county. The governing body of a municipality or county may publish the notice in addition to posting it. Failure to give notice does not invalidate the election.

Subd. 2 3. [BALLOT PREPARATION.] The secretary of state shall prepare paper ballots, absentee ballot envelopes, ballot return envelopes, election return envelopes, and summary statements for use in the presidential primary. The ballots must be printed on white paper with a separate ballot for the names of the candidates of each political party.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 207A.06, is amended to read:

207A.06 [SELECTION OF DELEGATES; NATIONAL CONVENTION BALLOTING.]

Subdivision 1. [APPORTIONMENT OF VOTES.] The delegates to the national convention of each political party appearing on the presidential primary ballot who are chosen on the basis of their support for particular presidential candidates must be apportioned among the various candidates of that party receiving votes in the presidential primary, in proportion to their respective vote totals.

The secretary of state shall certify to the state chairperson of each political party appearing on the presidential primary ballot the number of delegates to which each presidential candidate is entitled.

Subd. 2. [CHOSEN DELEGATES.] Delegates to the national convention of each political party appearing on the presidential primary ballot must be chosen by the state convention or congressional district convention of that party, except as otherwise provided in this subdivision. The secretary of each party's state convention or congressional district convention shall promptly notify the secretary of state of the names of the delegates to the national convention chosen as supporters of each presidential candidate. Only supporters of candidates whose names appeared on the presidential primary ballot may be chosen by the state convention of that party to be delegates to the national convention. The secretary of state shall promptly notify each presidential candidate of the names of the delegates to the national convention chosen as supporters of that candidate. If the presidential candidate determines that the delegates chosen as supporters by the state convention are not in fact committed to the candidate's candidacy, the candidate shall, within ten days of receiving the notification from the secretary of state, advise the secretary of state of the names of those delegates to whom the candidate objects on those grounds and shall name as substitute delegates any other individuals who are committed to the candidacy. The determination and selection by the presidential candidate shall take precedence over the decision of the state convention and is final. The secretary of state shall promptly notify the secretary of the state convention of the affected political party of the action by a presidential candidate.

Subd. 3. [DELEGATE VOTES.] At the national convention, delegates chosen because of their support for a presidential candidate shall vote for that candidate on the first ballot at the national convention regardless of the number of votes the candidate receives, and shall also vote for the candidate on the second and third ballots if the candidate receives at least 20 percent of the votes cast on the preceding ballot, unless they have been released from that obligation by the candidate. This subdivision does not apply to delegates to the extent that it is inconsistent with the rules of the national party or state party.

Sec. 9. [207A.08] [INFORMATION ON PARTY CHOICE.]

Notwithstanding section 204C.18, subdivision 1, or other law to the contrary, a person entitled to inspect the duplicate registration file or receive a copy of a current precinct list under section 201.091, must also be informed of the party choice of any voter who voted in the most recent presidential primary under this chapter.

Sec. 10. [207A.09] [RULEMAKING AUTHORITY.]

The secretary of state shall adopt rules to implement the provisions of this chapter as follows:

(1) to implement section 9;

(2) to determine a method for verifying the signatures on nominating petitions and petitions in place of filing fees for the presidential primary;

(3) to determine the format of the presidential primary ballots;
and

(4) to determine the manner of paying or reimbursing the costs to the counties of conducting the presidential primary.

Sec. 11. [REGIONAL PRIMARY STUDY.]

The secretary of state shall study the feasibility of Minnesota's joining any other state to hold a regional presidential primary and shall report conclusions to the chairs of the general legislation, veterans affairs and gaming committee in the house of representatives and the elections and ethics committee in the senate by February 1, 1991.

April 21, 1990

The Honorable Robert E. Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H. F. No. 1960, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House concur in the Senate amendment and that H. F. No. 1960 be further amended as follows:

Page 4, after line 36, insert:

“Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 97B.603, is amended to read:

97B.603 [SMALL GAME PARTY HUNTING.]

While two or more persons are hunting small game as a party and maintaining unaided visual and vocal contact, a member of the party may take and possess more than one limit of small game, but the total number of small game taken and possessed by the party may not exceed the limit of the number of persons in the party that may take and possess small game. This section does not apply to the hunting of migratory game birds or turkeys.

SPECIAL ORDERS

There being no objection, the House advanced to S. F. No. 2246, No. 3 on Special Orders.

S. F. No. 2246 was reported to the House.

Cooper moved to amend S. F. No. 2246, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [353E.01] [AMBULANCE SERVICE PERSONNEL INCENTIVE PLAN.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The ambulance service personnel incentive plan is administered by the public employees retirement association under supervision of the association board of directors. To assist it in governing the operations of the plan, the board may appoint an advisory committee of not more than seven members who are representative of ambulance service operators and ambulance service personnel.

Subd. 2. [COVERAGE.] Coverage under the personnel incentive plan is open to ambulance attendants and drivers from participating ambulance services who earn less than $5,000 a year in hourly stipends or salary from service as an ambulance attendant or driver.

Sec. 2. [353E.02] [ELECTION OF COVERAGE.]

Each public ambulance service or privately operated ambulance service with its base of operation, as defined in section 144.801, subdivision 7, in Minnesota and with eligible personnel may elect to participate in the plan. If a service elects to participate, its eligible personnel may elect to participate or to decline to participate. An individual's initial election must be made within the latter of 30 days of the service's election to participate or 30 days of the date on which the individual was employed by the service or began to provide service for it. The board of trustees of the public employees retirement association shall designate an annual period during which: (1) individuals or ambulance services who initially declined participation may choose to participate; and (2) individuals or ambulance services participating in the retirement plan may choose to end their participation.

Sec. 3. [353E.021] [FUNDING OF PLAN.]

Subdivision 1. [CALCULATION OF CREDIT; 20-YEAR LIMIT.] Money received by the public employees retirement association shall be remitted to the state board of investment for investment, until allocated and credited to participants. Beginning January 1, 1992, all funds received by the public employees retirement association and investment earnings on the funds, shall be allocated and credited to participants in proportion to the service units credited during the prior year for their years of service as provided in this subdivision and subdivisions 2 and 3.

Participants shall receive credit for two service units for each year of service following January 1, 1992, plus one service unit for each year of service prior to this date. Years of service must be verified by the participant's ambulance service in a report to the public employees retirement association. Participant accounts may receive credit for service units for a maximum of 20 years of service.

Subd. 2. [CREDITS FOR FIRST FIVE YEARS.] For the calendar year beginning January 1, 1992, and for each of the next four calendar years, every participant shall receive credit at the end of the calendar year for two service units for that year, plus one-fifth of the total number of service units accumulated according to subdivision 1 for years of service prior to January 1, 1992. The amount of money per service unit that is to be deposited into each participant's account for each year during the period January 1, 1992, to December 31, 1996, is determined by dividing the total appropriation to the public employees retirement association for each fiscal year, plus investment earnings on that amount, by the total number of service units credited to all participants for that calendar year, as calculated according to this subdivision. Money appropriated to the public employees retirement association for fiscal year 1991 shall be allocated and credited with any appropriation received for fiscal year 1992.

Subd. 3. [CREDITS FOR SIXTH AND FOLLOWING YEARS.] For the calendar year beginning January 1, 1997, and for each following calendar year, every participant shall receive credit for two service units at the end of that year. The amount of money per service unit that is to be deposited into each participant's account for each year after December 31, 1996, is determined by dividing the total appropriation to the public employees retirement association for that fiscal year, plus investment earnings on that amount, by the total number of service units credited to all participants for that calendar year, as calculated according to this subdivision.

Subd. 4. [PROHIBITION ON PARTICIPANT AND AMBULANCE SERVICE CONTRIBUTIONS.] Contributions by participants to their accounts, and contributions by ambulance services to their employees' accounts, are prohibited.

Subd. 5. [LIMITATION ON BENEFITS.] Benefits to participants under this plan are limited by and subject to the availability of funding.

Sec. 4. [353E.031] [VESTING.]

(a) Sixty months of service credit, accumulated after January 1, 1992, are required for vesting of retirement benefits. These 60 months must be accumulated within 120 months of the first month of service credit earned after January 1, 1992. No minimum period of service is required for vesting of death benefits, once the retirement plan has taken effect. Upon completion of 60 months of service under the plan with one or more participating ambulance services, a participant terminating active service is entitled to receive the value of the participant's individual account. An application by or on behalf of the participant must be filed before any payment of benefits is made.

(b) Funds credited to a person's account are forfeited at the end of the 120th month after the first month of service credit earned after January 1, 1992, if the person does not have 60 months of service credit at that time. Funds forfeited must be allocated as provided in section 10.

Sec. 5. [353E.05] [INVESTMENT OF FUNDS.]

Subdivision 1. [INVESTMENT.] Money allocated and credited to individual accounts, after the deduction of an amount for administrative expenses, must be remitted to the state board of investment for investment in the Minnesota supplemental investment fund established by section 11A.17. Investment options and procedures are governed by section 353D.05.

Subd. 2. [ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES.] The public employees retirement association may deduct a reasonable amount, set annually by the executive director of the association, but not to exceed two percent of the funding of the plan under section 10, to defray the actual and necessary expenses of the association in administering the plan.

Sec. 6. [353E.06] [REPORTING BY AMBULANCE SERVICES.]

The executive director of the public employees retirement association shall prescribe the form of annual and any other reports required from an ambulance service and the election forms required from ambulance service members. Member forms shall contain names, identification numbers, total number of years and dates of accumulated service, and such other data as is required to keep an accurate account of the account value of each participant.

In the event an ambulance service fails to provide required information within 60 days after the public employees retirement association sends the service a notice that the information is overdue, its members forfeit the service units credited and funding allocated for that year. Funds forfeited must be allocated as provided in section 10. Ambulance services that provide fraudulent information shall be suspended from the program for a period of time determined by the executive director and are subject to criminal prosecution.

Sec. 7. [353E.07] [BENEFITS.]

Subdivision 1. [TYPE OF PLAN.] The plan is a defined contribution plan when the benefits are payable upon termination of service, retirement, or death. The amount of benefits is determined by the value of accumulated contributions plus a proportionate share of investment income of the fund credited to each individual account.

Subd. 2. [PAYMENT OF BENEFITS.] Withdrawal of or a retirement benefit based on fund contributions plus accrued investment income is payable immediately upon the death or termination of an active member for a period that exceeds 30 days. An application by or on behalf of the participant must be filed before any payment of benefits may be made.

Subd. 3. [FORM OF BENEFIT.] A retirement benefit is payable in a lump sum equal to the value of a participant's account at the date of retirement and may be rolled over into another qualified plan at the option of the member. As an alternative to a lump sum distribution, the member may choose to have the association use the total account value to purchase an annuity payable at a designated age from an insurance company licensed to do business in the state.

Subd. 4. [DEATH OF A MEMBER.] In the event of the death of an active participant, the total value of the account must be paid in a lump sum to the designated beneficiary or, if none, the estate of the decedent.

Sec. 8. [353E.08] [PORTABILITY.]

Qualified ambulance service personnel who change employment or membership among participating ambulance services remain eligible for service unit credits under the plan.

Sec. 9. [353E.09] [RULES; TAX QUALIFICATION.]

The public employees retirement association may adopt rules required for administration of the plan. The proposed plan shall be formulated and adopted in accordance with applicable restrictions and standards of the Internal Revenue Code and rulings and regulations of the Internal Revenue Service in order to assure the tax exempt status of the plan as a qualified pension plan. If the public employees retirement association determines that its administration of the plan will jeopardize the tax exempt status of the plan as a qualified pension plan or the tax exempt status of any public pension plan listed in section 356.30, the public employees retirement association may contract with another organization for administration of the plan.

If the executive director of the public employees retirement association determines that the plan must comply with federal ERISA requirements, including any requirements necessary for tax-deferred treatment of contributions and interest earned thereon, participants shall not be credited with service units and the public employees retirement association shall not transfer money into participants' accounts until the director determines that the plan has met ERISA requirements. If the executive director determines that legislative changes are needed to comply with ERISA requirements, the director shall recommend the changes to the legislature at its next regular session."

Delete the title and insert:

"A bill for an act relating to pensions; establishing an incentive plan for ambulance service personnel; setting plan requirements; proposing coding for new law as Minnesota Statutes, chapter 353E.”

The motion prevailed and the amendment was adopted.

Haukoos moved to amend S. F. No. 2246, as amended, as follows:

Page 2, after line 8, of the Munger and Jaros amendment insert:

"Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353.27, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [EMPLOYERS REPORTING REQUIREMENTS; CONTRIBUTIONS; MEMBER STATUS.] (a) The head of each department is hereby directed to cause employee contributions to be deducted from the salary of each member and to issue or approve one voucher payable to the state treasurer for the aggregate amount so deducted from such salaries, and at the same time to issue or approve one voucher for the aggregate amount of the employer contributions and the additional employer contributions for the same period of employment as that covered by the employee contributions, and to cause the same to be received not later than 20 calendar days thereafter in the office of the association. The head of each department shall, for each pay period in which employee contributions are deducted, submit to the association a salary deduction report, in the form prescribed by the executive director, showing (a) the legal names and the association membership numbers, listed in alphabetical order, of all members; (b) the legal names of all new public employees and the effective dates of appointment; (c) the amount of each salary deduction; (d) the amount of salary from which each deduction was made; (e) effective dates of all terminations of public service on account of members and if such terminations were caused by death or retirement, there shall be inserted after such date the applicable status code as set by the association; (f) effective dates of all temporary layoffs and leaves of absence and if such leaves are sick leaves, there shall be inserted after such date the applicable status code as set by the association; and (g) the beginning and ending dates of the payroll period covered and the date of actual payment. Additionally, reports of contributions shall be accompanied by a membership enrollment form for each new employee in the form prescribed by the executive director, and it shall be the responsibility of department heads to obtain such enrollment forms from new employees to be submitted to the association within 30 days following the date of employment. The employers shall furnish such additional reports on magnetic media or other form of report as may be requested by the association executive director.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), the association may provide for less frequent reporting and payments for small employers."

Section 1. [SCOTT COUNTY WORTHLESS CHECK DIVERSION PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [PILOT PROGRAM.] A prosecuting attorney in Scott county may create within the office a diversion program for persons who write worthless checks, subject to the approval of the state court administrator. For purposes of this section, “writing a worthless check” means making, drawing, or delivering any check or draft upon any bank or depository for the payment of money when there is probable cause to believe there is a violation of Minnesota Statutes, section 609.535. The program may be conducted by the prosecuting attorney or by a private entity under contract with the prosecuting attorney. If the program is conducted by a private entity, no prosecutorial discretion vests in that entity.

Subd. 2. [REFERRAL.] The prosecuting attorney may refer a worthless check case to the diversion program. Except as provided in subdivision 5, this section does not limit the power of the prosecuting attorney to prosecute worthless check complaints.

Subd. 3. [NOTIFICATION OF REFERRAL.] On referral of a case to the diversion program, a notice shall be mailed to the person alleged to have written the worthless check. The notice shall be approved by the state court administrator.

Subd. 4. [AGREEMENT TO FOREGO PROSECUTION.] The prosecuting attorney may enter a written agreement with the person to forego prosecution on the worthless check for a period to be determined by the prosecuting attorney, not to exceed six months, pending satisfaction of required conditions. The written agreement shall be kept by the prosecuting attorney for no less than three years.

Subd. 5. [WORTHLESS CHECK FEE.] (a) A prosecuting attorney may collect a fee from a person diverted under the program if the prosecuting attorney's office collects and processes a worthless check. The amount of the fee shall not exceed $25 for each worthless check. Fees collected under this section shall be deposited in the local government unit treasury and used only for the pretrial diversion program created under this section.

(b) If a nonstate agency or entity is used by the prosecuting attorney to administer the worthless check prosecution diversion program, the nonstate agency or entity may be funded by costs assessed to the check writers enrolled in the program. Program costs assessed to a check writer shall not exceed $75.

Subd. 6. [COERCION EXCEPTION.] Sending a notice under subdivision 4 or entering an agreement under subdivision 5 does not constitute coercion under Minnesota Statutes, section 609.27, subdivision 1, clause (5).

Subd. 7. [REPORT TO LEGISLATURE.] The state court administrator, with the cooperation of the prosecuting attorney in Scott county who implements a worthless check pretrial diversion pilot program under this section, shall report on its effectiveness by January 15, 1991, to the chairs of the judiciary committees in the house of representatives and the senate. The report shall recommend any necessary changes in state laws to increase the effectiveness of these programs.

Sec. 2. [REPEALER.]

Section 1 is repealed July 1, 1991.

Sec. 3. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective on approval of the Scott County Board."

We request adoption of this report and repassage of the bill.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON S. F. NO. 1674

A bill for an act relating to agriculture; providing grasshopper control; authorizing the commissioner to exempt certain lands from grasshopper control; exempting certain persons from losses relating to grasshopper control; clarifying when public utilities are subject to grasshopper control; providing for notices for control and approval of grasshopper control costs; authorizing levies; appropriating money; amending Minnesota Statutes Second 1989 Supplement, section 275.50, subdivision 5; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 18; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 18.0226.

April 24, 1990

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

The Honorable Robert E. Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

We, the undersigned conferees for S. F. No. 1674, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House recede from its amendment and that S. F. No. 1674 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 18.0225, is amended to read:

18.0225 [GRASSHOPPER CONTROL PROGRAM.]

(a) The commissioner of agriculture shall develop and implement a grasshopper control program to prevent crop damage in the grasshopper control zone. Within grasshopper control zones the commissioner, landowners, and counties, local weed inspectors, and landowners have the same authorities and duties under chapter 18 for grasshoppers as if grasshoppers are noxious weeds under chapter 18. After consultation and cooperation with the state Minnesota extension service entomologist, the commissioner must develop the program to economically and efficiently control grasshoppers and to minimize adverse environmental impact, including the selection of pesticides and prescription of application rates.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of this chapter, the board of a town designated by the commissioner as a grasshopper control zone may appoint a grasshopper control advisory committee of members who are residents of the township. The advisory committee must include:

(1) at least one owner of land enrolled in the conservation reserve program if any land is enrolled and an owner of enrolled land is willing to serve; and

(2) at least one dairy farmer if dairying occurs in the township and a dairy farmer is willing to serve.

If the town board appoints a grasshopper control advisory committee, the board must seek the advice of the advisory committee before the issuance of each order for grasshopper control or the advisory committee may adopt guidelines for issuing grasshopper control orders.

(b) (c) The grasshopper control program must utilize proven methods of grasshopper control and the commissioner may make grants for experimental methods of control in selected areas.

(d) Before any grasshopper control measures, including, but not limited to, spraying or the deposit of pelletized controls, are applied on or to streams, lakes, waterways, or public waters, the commissioner shall seek the review and approval of the commissioner of natural resources. As used in this paragraph, "streams, lakes, waterways, or public waters," does not include farm ditches, drainage ditches, or county ditches.

(e) The commissioner, upon written request from any person or organization, may exempt from grasshopper control measures a parcel of land that the commissioner, in consultation with the commissioner of natural resources, determines to be of particular, unique scientific or natural significance or is particularly sensitive to the use of insecticides or other control methods being used. The commissioner must consider previous pesticide applications to the property to be exempted and agricultural practices conducted on the property. The exemption may be conditional, may apply to all or part of the property requested, and may be revoked by the commissioner at any time. An exemption granted under this paragraph is for mandatory grasshopper control and does not affect liability under other law.

(f) The request for exemption must include at least the following:

(1) the name and address of the person or organization making the request;

(2) the acreage and legal description of the parcel;

(3) a statement of the specific reasons why an exemption is requested; and

(4) any agreements for grasshopper control and any other information required by the commissioner.

(g) Upon notice of the approval of an exemption, the owner of the exempted property must mail the following notice to adjoining landowners:

“(Name of exempt landowner) has requested and the commissioner of agriculture has exempted (description of land exempted) from mandatory grasshopper control measures due to the scientific or natural significance or sensitivity to insecticides of the property. It is the intent of (landowner’s name) not to control grasshoppers on the property. If you have questions about how you may make an agreement for grasshopper control you may contact (exempt landowner’s name, address, and phone number).”

Cost-sharing may be available for treatment of grasshoppers on your property. For more information contact the commissioner of agriculture.

The exemption does not affect liability under other law.”

(h) A decision of the commissioner under paragraph (e) must be in writing and delivered to the person or organization making the request and the clerk of the town in which the property is located. The commissioner, counties, towns, and their agents are not liable for damages from exemptions granted under this section.

(i) From funds appropriated for this purpose, the commissioner must reimburse a person for the cost of grasshopper control measures in a 20-rod wide buffer area on property adjacent to property exempted from grasshopper control measures under paragraph (e), to the extent funds are available. Reimbursement to a person must be made only upon receipt of a completed application form indicating the need for treatment based on an inspector’s determination that the exempted property has grasshoppers in densities greater than the density determined by the commissioner to cause economic or potential economic damage for all affected lands and identifying the location of the treatment. For each application, reimbursement must be 50 percent of cost not to exceed $4 reimbursement per acre for aerial spraying and $2.50 reimbursement per acre for ground spraying.

Sec. 2. [18.0228] [CONTROL PROVISIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [PESTICIDE SELECTION.] (a) The commissioner, in consultation with the Minnesota extension service entomologist, shall prepare a list of registered pesticides and their federal label requirements for use in the grasshopper control program. The commissioner shall recommend pesticides and application methods in designated grasshopper control zones that will minimize the adverse impact on foraging bees. The pesticides must economically and efficiently control grasshoppers and minimize adverse environmental impacts. Grasshopper control may only be conducted under this chapter with pesticides used according to their label requirements.

(b) The commissioner shall prescribe methods to determine grasshopper densities and densities causing economic or potential economic damage.

Subd. 2. [INDIVIDUAL NOTICES.] (a) The individual notices required under this chapter for the grasshopper control program must be in a form prescribed by the commissioner and state at least the following:

(1) the legal description of the property covered by the notice to control;

(2) the date the notice is issued;

(3) the name and work telephone number of the inspector issuing the notice;

(4) the grasshopper counts found on the property;

(5) the approximate date the grasshoppers on the property will be controlled by the county or municipality if the owner or occupant does not comply with the notice, which must be at least three days after the date the notice was served;

(6) that the costs of the control will be a lien and applied against the property's tax roll; and

(7) that the owner or occupant may contact the inspector about the notice before the time that the county or the municipality will control grasshoppers, which must be at least three days after the date the notice was served.

(b) The commissioner, a county agricultural inspector, or a local weed inspector issuing a notice under this subdivision shall provide the same number of days for compliance under paragraph (a), clause (5), for property controlled by a private land owner or occupant as for property controlled by a unit of state or local government.

Subd. 3. [EFFECTS ON FORAGING BEES.] (a) The Minnesota extension service shall hold meetings in grasshopper control zone areas explaining grasshopper control methods and procedures to minimize adverse effects on foraging bees.

(b) Not later than May 1 of each year, an owner of honeybee colonies must notify the commissioner as to the number and location of the colonies. Notification under this section must be accomplished by identifying on a map provided by the commissioner the location of colonies. The notice must include the name, address, and telephone number of the owner. If an owner of honeybee colonies relocates the colonies the owner must report the relocation orally, by phone, or in writing to the extension agent, the town clerk, and the commissioner within ten days after the relocation.

(c) The commissioner shall prepare maps of the location of all registered honeybee colonies, including identification of the name, address, and telephone number of the owner. The maps must be updated at least once each 14 days if owners of registered honeybee colonies give notice of relocations.

(d) The commissioner shall provide a list of licensed commercial and noncommercial pesticide applicators, including the applicator's name, business address, and phone number, to the registered beekeepers in designated grasshopper control zones.

(e) The commissioner shall prescribe a system by which owners of honeybee colonies, licensed commercial and noncommercial pesticide applicators, and county extension agents must, and town clerks may, be advised of the location of registered honeybee colonies reported under this section, of the federal pesticide label requirements pertaining to foraging bees, and of penalties for violating label requirements.

(f) The commissioner shall also develop guidelines for a voluntary system to facilitate the exchange of information between owners of registered honeybee colonies and pesticide applicators regarding the pesticide selected for use, the anticipated date and time of application, and the location of honeybee colonies.

(g) In a year in which grasshopper control zones are designated, the commissioner shall report to the chairs of the house and senate agriculture and environment committees on the number of acres treated for grasshopper control, the pesticides recommended for use, the pesticides used, the results of research and application of nonpesticide grasshopper control, the number of acres exempted from grasshopper control, and any evidence of negative environmental impacts of the grasshopper control program.

Sec. 3. [18.0229] [LIABILITY; APPEALS.]

Subdivision 1. [COUNTIES AND TOWNSHIPS.] Counties and townships and their agents are not liable for damages from the grasshopper control program for actions conducted in accordance with sections 18.0223 to 18.0229.

Subd. 2. [ACCESS FOR INSPECTION.] An inspector may enter any land to inspect grasshopper densities.

Subd. 3. [APPEAL TO COUNTY BOARD.] A person who is ordered to control grasshoppers under sections 18.0225 to 18.0229 and is charged for grasshopper control may appeal the cost of grasshopper control to the county board of the county where the grasshopper control measures were undertaken within 30 days after being charged. The county board shall determine the amount and approve the charge and filing of a lien against the property if it determines that:

(1) the owner, or occupant if other than the owner, responsible for controlling grasshoppers did not comply with the order of the inspector; and

(2) the grasshopper densities on the property exceeded the densities determined by the commissioner to cause economic or potential economic damage.

Subd. 4. [COURT APPEAL OF COSTS; PETITION.] (a) A land owner who has appealed the cost of grasshopper control measures under subdivision 3 may petition for judicial review. The petition must be filed within 30 days after the conclusion of the hearing before the county board. The petition must be filed with the court administrator in the county in which the real property where the grasshopper control measures were undertaken is located, together with proof of service of a copy of the petition on the commissioner and the county auditor. The petition must be accompanied by the standard filing fee for civil actions. No responsive pleadings may be required of the commissioner or the county, and no court fees may be charged for the appearance of the commissioner or the county in the matter.

(b) The petition must be captioned in the name of the person making the petition as petitioner, and the commissioner of agriculture and the respective county as respondents. The petition must include the petitioner's name, the legal description of the real estate involved, a copy of the notice to control grasshoppers, and the date or dates on which appealed control measures were undertaken.

(c) The petition must state with specificity the grounds upon which the petitioner seeks to avoid the imposition of a lien for the cost of grasshopper control measures.

Subd. 5. [HEARING.] (a) A hearing under subdivisions 4 to 6 must be held at the earliest practicable date, and in no event later than 90 days following the filing of the petition of objection. The hearing must be before a district judge in the county in which the real property where the grasshopper control measures were undertaken is located, and must be conducted in accordance with the district court rules of civil procedure.

(b) The court shall either order that a lien representing part or all of the costs for grasshopper control measures be imposed against the real property or that the land owner be relieved of responsibility for payment of grasshopper control measures undertaken.

Subd. 6. [FURTHER APPEAL.] A party aggrieved by the decision of the reviewing court may appeal the decision as provided in the rules of appellate procedure.

Sec. 4. [18.205] [PUBLIC UTILITY EASEMENTS.]

For property that is subject to a public utility easement, the person controlling the surface of the land other than the holder of the public utility easement is the person responsible for control of grasshoppers under this chapter. For purposes of this section, a "public utility easement" means an easement used for the purpose of transmission, distribution, furnishing at wholesale or retail natural or manufactured gas, or electric or telephone service, by a public utility as defined in section 216B.02, subdivision 4, a cooperative electric association organized under chapter 308A, a telephone company as defined in section 237.01, subdivisions 2 and 3, or a municipality producing or furnishing gas, electric, or telephone service.

Sec. 5. [FEDERAL COST-SHARE FOR EXEMPT LANDS.]

In the event that federal cost-share funds become available for grasshopper control, the commissioner shall attempt to secure a proportionate share for lands exempted under section 18.0225.

Sec. 6. [APPROPRIATIONS; CONTINGENT ACCOUNT.]

(a) $605,000 is appropriated from the general fund to a special contingency account for grasshopper control activities as provided in this section.

(b) Of this appropriation up to $20,000 is appropriated to the commissioner of agriculture for a system to prevent adverse effects on foraging bees.

(c) Of the remaining appropriation up to $30,000 is appropriated to the commissioner of agriculture to provide reimbursement payments to owners of property that is adjacent to property exempted from grasshopper control.

(d) The remaining unencumbered balance is appropriated for up to a 50 percent cost-share for township and county grasshopper control expenses through September 30, 1990.

(e) Of the unencumbered balance of this appropriation remaining on October 1, 1990, up to $125,000 is appropriated to the commissioner of agriculture as supplemental funding to provide state aid to county and district agricultural societies under Minnesota Statutes, section 38.02 during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1991.

(f) The unencumbered balance remaining on October 1, 1990, not otherwise appropriated under paragraphs (a) through (e) is appropriated to the state board of vocational technical education for:

(1) instructional staff for farm and small business management, beginner farmer programs, and enterprise classes specific to community needs;

(2) support staff for instructional staff; and

(3) tuition assistance.

(g) The appropriations in this section are available only with the approval of the governor after consultation with the legislative advisory commission as provided in Minnesota Statutes, section 3.30.

Sec. 7. [APPROPRIATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [INTEGRATED PEST MANAGEMENT.] $20,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of agriculture to be used for the grasshopper control program using integrated pest management demonstration projects in consultation with the commissioner of natural resources and the Minnesota extension service. The commissioner shall determine the amount to be used for cost-share projects. The commissioners shall pursue any federal funds that may become available for this purpose.

Subd. 2. [GENERIC ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT STATEMENT.] $100,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the state planning agency to conduct a timber harvesting generic environmental impact statement.

Sec. 8. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 18.0226, is repealed.

Sec. 9. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This act is effective the day following final enactment. The commissioner of agriculture shall prepare the list and prescribe methods for determining grasshopper densities required in section 2, subdivision 1, not later than May 20, 1990."

Delete the title and insert:

"A bill for an act relating to agriculture; providing grasshopper control; allowing certain exemptions; requiring certain notices; providing contingent appropriations for grasshopper control, county and district agricultural societies, and vocational technical education; providing for a forestry environmental impact statement; appropriating money; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 18.0225; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 18; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 18.0226."

We request adoption of this report and repassage of the bill.

Subd. 28. [PRINCIPAL.] “Principal” means an individual or association that:

(1) spends more than $500 in the aggregate in any calendar year to engage a lobbyist, compensate a lobbyist, or authorize the expenditure of money by a lobbyist; or

(2) is not included in clause (1) and spends a total of at least $50,000 in any calendar year on efforts to influence legislative action, administrative action, or the official action of metropolitan governmental units, as described in section 10.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.02, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. There is hereby created a state ethical practices board composed of six members. The members shall be appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of three-fifths of both the senate and the house of representatives acting separately. If either house fails to confirm the appointment of a board member within 45 legislative days after appointment, or by adjournment sine die, whichever occurs first, the appointment shall terminate on the day following the 45th legislative day or on adjournment sine die, whichever occurs first. If either house votes not to confirm an appointment, the appointment terminates on the day following the vote not to confirm. One member shall be a former member of the legislature from a major political party different from that of the governor; one member shall be a former member of the legislature from the same political party as the governor; two members shall be persons who have not been public officials, held any political party office other than precinct delegate, or been elected to public office for which party designation is required by statute in the three years preceding the date of their appointment; and the other two members shall not support the same political party. No more than three of the members of the board shall support the same political party. No member of the board may currently serve as a lobbyist.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.04, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Each report shall cover the time from the last day of the period covered by the last report to 15 days prior to the current filing date. The reports shall be filed with the board by the following dates:

- (a) January 15;
- (b) April 15; and
- (c) July 15; and
- (d) October 15.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.04, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. (a) The report shall include such information as the board may require from the registration form and the following information required by this subdivision for the reporting period:

(a) (b) Each lobbyist shall report the lobbyist's total disbursements on lobbying, separately listing lobbying to influence legislative action, lobbying to influence administrative action, and lobbying to influence the official actions of a metropolitan governmental unit, and a breakdown of those disbursements for each of those kinds of lobbying into categories specified by the board, including but not limited to the cost of publication and distribution of each publication used in lobbying; other printing; media, including the cost of production; postage; travel; fees, including allowances; entertainment; telephone and telegraph; and other expenses;

(b) (c) Each lobbyist shall report the amount and nature of each honorarium, gift, loan, item or benefit, excluding contributions to a candidate, equal in value to $50 or more, given or paid to any public or local official by the lobbyist or any employer or any employee of the lobbyist. The list shall include the name and address of each public or local official to whom the honorarium, gift, loan, item or benefit was given or paid and the date it was given or paid; and

(c) (d) Each lobbyist shall report each original source of funds in excess of $500 in any year used for the purpose of lobbying to influence legislative action, each such source of funds used to influence administrative action, and each such source of funds used to influence the official action of metropolitan governmental units. The list shall include the name, address and employer, or, if self-employed, the occupation and principal place of business, of each payer of funds in excess of $500.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.04, subdivision 4a, is amended to read:

Subd. 4a. If in any reporting period the lobbyist's reportable disbursements total not over $100 and no honorarium, gift, loan, item or benefit equal in value to $50 or more was given or paid to any public official, a statement to that effect in lieu of the report may be filed for that period. The unreported disbursements shall be included in the report for the following period, unless the total for that period, including the carryover, is not over $100. The ~~October~~ January 15 report shall include all previously unreported disbursements, even though the total for the year is not over $100.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.04, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [PRINCIPALS TO REPORT.] (a) Each principal shall report to the board as required in this subdivision by March 15 for the preceding calendar year.

(b) Each principal shall report which of the following categories includes the total amount, rounded to the nearest dollar, spent by the principal during the preceding calendar year to influence legislative action, administrative action, and the official action of metropolitan governmental units:

- (1) $501 to $50,000;
- (2) $50,001 to $150,000; or
- (3) $150,001 to $250,000.

(c) Beyond $250,000, each additional $250,000 constitutes an additional category, and each principal shall report which of the categories includes the total amount spent by the principal for the purposes provided in this subdivision.

(d) The principal shall report under this subdivision a total amount that includes:

- (1) all direct payments by the principal to lobbyists in Minnesota;
- (2) all expenditures for advertising, mailing, research, analysis, compilation and dissemination of information, and public relations campaigns related to legislative action, administrative action, or the official action of metropolitan governmental units in Minnesota; and

(3) all salaries and administrative expenses attributable to activities of the principal relating to efforts to influence legislative action, administrative action, or the official action of metropolitan governmental units in Minnesota.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.04, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [FINANCIAL RECORDS.] The board may randomly audit the financial records of lobbyists and principals required to report under this section.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.05, is amended to read:

10A.05 [LOBBYIST REPORT.]

Within 30 days after each lobbyist filing date set by section 10A.04, the executive director of the board shall report to the governor, and the presiding officer of each house of the legislature, the names of the lobbyists registered who were not previously reported, the names of the persons or associations whom they represent as lobbyists and, the subject or subjects on which they are lobbying, and whether in each case they lobby to influence legislative or administrative action or both. At the same times, the executive director of the board shall report to the governing body of each metropolitan governmental unit, the names of the registered lobbyists who attempt to influence the official action of metropolitan governmental units, the names of the persons or associations whom they represent as lobbyists, and the subject or subjects on which they are lobbying.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.06, is amended to read:

10A.06 [CONTINGENT FEES PROHIBITED.]

No person shall may act as or employ a lobbyist for compensation which that is dependent upon the result or outcome of any legislative or administrative action, or of the official action of a metropolitan governmental unit. Any A person who violates the provisions of this section is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 14. [CURRENT BOARD MEMBERS.]

Section 6 does not apply to members of the ethical practices board appointed before the effective date of section 6.

Sec. 15. [SEVERABILITY.]

If a provision of this article is found to be unconstitutional and void, the remaining provisions of this article remain valid.

Sec. 16. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 5, 8, 10, 11, and 12 are effective January 1, 1991. Section 13 is effective January 1, 1991, and applies to crimes committed on or after that date.

ARTICLE 2

ECONOMIC INTEREST AND CONFLICT REPORTING

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.07, is amended to read:

10A.07 [CONFLICTS OF INTEREST.]

Subdivision 1. [DISCLOSURE OF POTENTIAL CONFLICTS.]
~~Any~~ A public official or a local official elected to or appointed by a metropolitan governmental unit who in the discharge of official duties would be required to take an action or make a decision which that would substantially affect the official's financial interests or those of an associated business, unless the effect on the official is no greater than on other members of the official's business classification, profession, or occupation, shall take the following actions:

(a) (1) prepare a written statement describing the matter requiring action or decision and the nature of the potential conflict of interest;

(b) (2) deliver copies of the statement ~~to the board and to the official's immediate superior, if any; and~~

(c) (3) if a member of the legislature or of the governing body of a metropolitan governmental unit, deliver a copy of the statement to the presiding officer of the ~~house~~ body of service.

If a potential conflict of interest presents itself and there is insufficient time to comply with the provisions of clauses (a) (1) to (c) (3), the public or local official shall verbally orally inform the superior or the official body of service, or committee thereof, of the body of the potential conflict. ~~The official shall file a written statement with the board within one week after the potential conflict presents itself.~~

Subd. 2. If the public official is not a member of the legislature or of the governing body of a metropolitan governmental unit, the superior shall assign the matter, if possible, to another employee who does not have a potential conflict of interest. If there is no immediate superior, the public official shall abstain, if possible, in a manner prescribed by the board from influence over the action or decision in question. If the public official is a member of the legislature, the house of service may, at the member's request, excuse the member from taking part in the action or decision in question. If the official is not permitted or is otherwise unable to abstain from action in connection with the matter, the official shall file a statement describing the potential conflict and the action taken. A public official shall file the statement with the board and a local official shall file the statement with the governing body of the official's political subdivision. The statement must be filed within a week of the action taken.

Subd. 3. [INTEREST IN CONTRACT; LOCAL OFFICIALS.] This section does not apply to a local official with respect to a matter governed by sections 471.87 and 471.88.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 10A.09, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TIME FOR FILING.] Except for a candidate for elective office in the judicial branch, an individual shall file a statement of economic interest with the board:

(a) (1) within 60 days of accepting employment as a public official or a local official in a metropolitan governmental unit;

(b) (2) within 14 days after filing an affidavit of candidacy or petition to appear on the ballot for an elective public office or an elective local office in a metropolitan governmental unit;

(c) (3) in the case of a public official requiring the advice and consent of the senate, within 14 days after undertaking the duties of office; or

(d) (4) in the case of members of the Minnesota racing commission, the director of the division of pari-mutuel racing, chief of security, medical officer, inspector of pari-mutuels, and stewards employed or approved by the commission or persons who fulfill those duties under contract, within 60 days of accepting or assuming duties.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.09, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [NOTIFICATION.] The secretary of state or the appropriate county auditor, upon receiving an affidavit of candidacy or petition to appear on the ballot from an individual required by this section to file a statement of economic interest, and any official who nominates or employs a public or local official required by this section to file a statement of economic interest, shall notify the board of the name of the individual required to file a statement and the date of the affidavit, petition, or nomination.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.09, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6a. [LOCAL OFFICIALS.] A local official required to file a statement under this section shall file it with the governing body of the official's political subdivision. The governing body shall maintain statements filed with it under this subdivision as public data.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 383B.053, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [OFFICIALS REQUIRED TO FILE; DEADLINES.] Every candidate for county office, every elected official of Hennepin county, every candidate for office and every elected official of a home rule charter city or statutory city located wholly within Hennepin county and having a population of 75,000 or more, and every candidate for school board and every elected official in special school district No. 1, Minneapolis shall file statements of economic interest as required by this section with the filing officer. A candidate shall file an original statement within 14 days of the filing of an affidavit or petition to appear on the ballot. All elected officials of Hennepin county and of a home rule charter city or statutory city located wholly in Hennepin county and having a population of 75,000 or more who are in office on March 19, 1980, shall file an original statement of economic interest 60 days after forms for disclosure are provided to the filing officer. Every individual required to file a statement shall file a supplementary statement on April 15 of each year in which the individual remains a candidate or elected official. An official required to file a statement of economic interest under section 10A.09 is not required to comply with this section.

Sec. 6. [APPROPRIATION.]

$20,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the ethical practices board for the purposes of this act. This appropriation is for fiscal year 1991.

Sec. 7. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Article 2 is effective January 1, 1991.

ARTICLE 3

STATE CAMPAIGN REFORM

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.01, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. "Contribution" means a transfer of funds or a donation in kind.

Contribution includes any loan or advance of credit to a political committee, political fund, or principal campaign committee, which loan or advance of credit is (a) forgiven, or (b) paid by an ~~entity~~ individual or an association other than the political committee, political fund, or principal campaign committee to which the loan or advance of credit is made. If an advance of credit or a loan is forgiven or paid as provided in this subdivision, it is a contribution in the year in which the loan or advance of credit is made.

A contribution made for the purpose of defeating a candidate is considered made for the purpose of influencing the nomination or election of that candidate or any opponent of that candidate.

Contribution does not include services provided without compensation by an individual volunteering personal time on behalf of a candidate, ballot question, political committee or political fund, or the publishing or broadcasting of news items or editorial comments by the news media.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.01, subdivision 10b, is amended to read:

Subd. 10b. "Independent expenditure" means an expenditure expressly advocating the election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate, which expenditure is made without the express or implied consent, authorization, or cooperation of, and not in concert with or at the request or suggestion of, any candidate or any candidate's principal campaign committee or agent. An independent expenditure is not a contribution to that candidate.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.01, subdivision 10c, is amended to read:

Subd. 10c. "Noncampaign disbursement" means a purchase or payment of money or anything of value made, or an advance of credit incurred, by a political committee, political fund, or principal campaign committee for any purpose other than to influence the nomination or election of a candidate or to promote or defeat a ballot question.

Noncampaign disbursement includes:

- (a) Payment for accounting and legal services;
- (b) Return of a contribution to the source;

(c) Repayment of a loan made to the political committee, political fund, or principal campaign committee by that committee or fund;

(d) Return of money from the state elections campaign fund;

(e) Payment for food and beverages consumed at, entertainment, and facility rental for a fundraising event;

(f) Services for a constituent by a member of the legislature or a constitutional officer in the executive branch, performed from the beginning of the term of office to 60 days after adjournment sine die of the legislature in the election year for the office held; and

(g) A donation in kind given to the political committee, political fund, or principal campaign committee for purposes listed in clauses (e) and (f). The board shall determine whether an activity involves a noncampaign disbursement within the meaning of this subdivision.

Sec. 4. [10A.065] [CONTRIBUTIONS AND SOLICITATIONS DURING LEGISLATIVE SESSION.]

Subdivision 1. [REGISTERED LOBBYIST CONTRIBUTIONS; LEGISLATIVE SESSION.] A candidate for the legislature, a candidate's principal campaign committee, any other political committee with the candidate's name or title, or any committee authorized by the candidate, shall not solicit or accept a contribution on behalf of the candidate's principal campaign committee, any other political committee with the candidate's name or title, or any committee authorized by the candidate, from a registered lobbyist, political committee, or political fund during a regular session of the legislature.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITION.] For purposes of this section, "regular session" does not include a special session or the interim between the two annual sessions of a biennium.

Subd. 3. [CIVIL PENALTY.] A candidate or political committee that violates this section is subject to a civil fine of up to $500. If the board makes a public finding that there is probable cause to believe a violation of this section has occurred, the board shall bring an action, or transmit the finding to a county attorney who shall bring an action, in the district court of Ramsey county, to impose a civil fine as prescribed by the board. Fines paid under this section must be deposited in the general fund in the state treasury.

Subd. 4. [SPECIAL ELECTION.] This section does not apply to a candidate or a candidate's principal campaign committee in a legislative special election during the period beginning when the person becomes a candidate in the special election and ending on the day of the special election.

Subd. 5. [POLITICAL COMMITTEE.] This section does not apply to a political committee established by a state political party; by the party organization within a congressional district, county, legislative district, municipality, or precinct; by all or part of the party organization within each house of the legislature, except for individual members; by a candidate for an office other than the legislature; or to a member of such a political committee acting solely on behalf of the committee.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.20, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Each report under this section shall disclose:

(a) The amount of liquid assets on hand at the beginning of the reporting period;

(b) The name, address and employer, or occupation if self-employed, of each individual, political committee or political fund who within the year has made one or more transfers or donations in kind to the political committee or political fund, including the purchase of tickets for all fund raising efforts, which in aggregate exceed $100 for legislative or statewide candidates or ballot questions, together with the amount and date of each transfer or donation in kind, and the aggregate amount of transfers and donations in kind within the year from each source so disclosed. A donation in kind shall be disclosed at its fair market value. An approved expenditure is listed as a donation in kind. A donation in kind is considered consumed in the reporting period in which it is received. The names of contributors shall be listed in alphabetical order;

(c) The sum of contributions to the political committee or political fund during the reporting period;

(d) Each loan made or received by the political committee or political fund within the year in aggregate in excess of $100, continuously reported until repaid or forgiven, together with the name, address, occupation and the principal place of business, if any, of the lender and any endorser and the date and amount of the loan. If any loan made to the principal campaign committee of a candidate is forgiven at any time or repaid by any entity other than that principal campaign committee, it shall be reported as a contribution for the year in which the loan was made;

(e) Each receipt in excess of $100 not otherwise listed under clauses (b) to (d);

(f) The sum of all receipts of the political committee or political fund during the reporting period;

(g) The name and address of each individual or association to whom aggregate expenditures, including approved expenditures, have been made by or on behalf of the political committee or political fund within the year in excess of $100, together with the amount, date and purpose of each expenditure and the name and address of, and office sought by, each candidate on whose behalf the expenditure was made, identification of the ballot question which the expenditure is intended to promote or defeat, and in the case of independent expenditures made in opposition to a candidate, the name, address and office sought for each such candidate;

(h) The sum of all expenditures made by or on behalf of the political committee or political fund during the reporting period;

(i) The amount and nature of any advance of credit incurred by the political committee or political fund, continuously reported until paid or forgiven. If any advance of credit incurred by the principal campaign committee of a candidate is forgiven at any time by the creditor or paid by any entity other than that principal campaign committee, it shall be reported as a donation in kind for the year in which the advance of credit was incurred;

(j) The name and address of each political committee, political fund, or principal campaign committee to which aggregate transfers in excess of $100 have been made within the year, together with the amount and date of each transfer;

(k) The sum of all transfers made by the political committee, political fund, or principal campaign committee during the reporting period;

(l) For principal campaign committees only, the sum of noncampaign disbursements made in each category listed in section 10A.01, subdivision 10e, during the reporting period; and

(m) The sum of all noncampaign disbursements made by the political committee, political fund, or principal campaign committee during the reporting period.

(l) Except for contributions to a candidate or committee for a candidate for office in a municipality as defined in section 471.345, subdivision 1, the name and address of each individual or association to whom aggregate noncampaign disbursements in excess of $100 have been made within the year by or on behalf of a principal campaign committee, political committee, or political fund, together with the amount, date, and purpose of each noncampaign disbursement.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.20, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. In any statewide election any contribution or contributions from any one source totaling $2,000 or more, or in any legislative election totaling more than $400, received between the last day covered in the last report prior to an election and the election shall be reported to the board in one of the following ways:

- (1) in person within 48 hours after its receipt;
- (2) by telegram or mailgram within 48 hours after its receipt; or
- (3) by certified mail sent within 48 hours after its receipt.

These contributions must also be reported in the next required report.

The 48-hour notice requirement does not apply with respect to a primary if the statewide or legislative candidate is unopposed in that primary.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.20, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 13. [THIRD PARTY REIMBURSEMENT.] An individual, political committee, or political fund filing a report disclosing an expenditure or noncampaign disbursement that must be reported and itemized under subdivision 3, paragraph (g) or (l), that is a reimbursement to a third party is required to report the purpose of each expenditure or disbursement for which the third party is being reimbursed. An expenditure or disbursement is a reimbursement to a third party if it is for goods or services that were not directly provided by the individual or association to whom the expenditure or disbursement is made. Third party reimbursements include payments to credit card companies and reimbursement of individuals for expenses they have incurred.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.22, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [STATEMENT REQUIRED; PENALTY.] (a) The treasurer of a political committee or political fund shall not accept a contribution of more than $100 from a political committee or political fund an association not registered in this state unless the contribution is accompanied by a written statement which meets the disclosure and reporting period requirements imposed by section 10A.20. This statement shall be certified as true and correct by an officer of the contributing political committee or political fund association. The political committee or political fund which accepts the contribution shall include a copy of the statement with the report which discloses the contribution to the board. The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply when a national political party transfers money to its affiliate in this state.

(b) An unregistered association may provide the written statement required by this subdivision to no more than three political committees or political funds in any calendar year. Each statement must cover at least the 30 days immediately preceding and including the date on which the contribution was made. An unregistered association or an officer of it is subject to a civil penalty up to $1,000 if the association or its officer:

(1) fails to provide a written statement as required by this subdivision; or

(2) fails to register after giving the written statement required by this subdivision to more than three political committees or political funds in any calendar year.

An officer of an association who violates this paragraph is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.24, is amended to read:

10A.24 [DISSOLUTION OR TERMINATION.]

Subdivision 1. [TERMINATION REPORT.] No political committee or political fund shall dissolve until it has settled all of its debts and disposed of all its assets in excess of $100 and filed a termination report. The termination report may be made at any time and shall include all information required in periodic reports.

Subd. 2. [TERMINATION ALLOWED.] Notwithstanding subdivision 1, after mailing notice to any remaining creditors by certified mail, a political committee or political fund that has debts incurred more than six years previously, has disposed of all its assets, and has met the requirements of section 10A.20, subdivision 7, may file a termination report.

Sec. 10. [10A.242] [DISSOLUTION OF INACTIVE COMMITTEES AND FUNDS.]

Subdivision 1. [DISSOLUTION REQUIRED.] (a) A political committee or political fund must be dissolved within 60 days after receiving notice from the board that the committee has become inactive. The assets of the committee or fund must be spent for the purposes authorized by section 211B.12 and other applicable law or liquidated and deposited in the general account of the state elections campaign fund within 60 days after the board notifies the committee or fund that it has become inactive.

Subd. 2. [INACTIVITY DEFINED.] (a) A principal campaign committee becomes inactive on the later of the following dates:

(1) when six years have elapsed since the last election in which the person was a candidate for the office sought or held at the time the principal campaign committee registered with the board; or

(2) when six years have elapsed since the last day on which the individual for whom it exists served in an elective office subject to this chapter.

(b) A committee or fund other than a principal campaign committee becomes inactive when two years have elapsed since the end of a reporting period during which the committee or fund made an expenditure or disbursement requiring disclosure under this chapter.

Subd. 3. [REMAINING DEBTS.] If a committee or fund becomes inactive when it still has unpaid debts, the committee or fund shall liquidate available assets to pay the debts. If insufficient assets exist to pay the debts, the board may set up a payment schedule and allow the committee or fund to defer dissolution until all debts are paid. This section does not extinguish debts incurred by the committee or fund.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.25, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. In a year in which an election is held for an office sought by a candidate, no expenditures shall be made by the principal campaign committee of that candidate, nor any approved expenditures made on behalf of that candidate which expenditures and approved expenditures result in an aggregate amount in excess of the following:

(a) For governor and lieutenant governor, running together, $600,000 $1,626,691;

(b) For attorney general, $100,000 $271,116;

(c) For secretary of state, state treasurer, and state auditor, separately, $50,000 $135,559;

(d) For state senator, $15,000 $40,669;

(e) For state representative, $7,500 $20,335.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.25, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [AGGREGATED EXPENDITURES.] If a candidate makes expenditures from more than one principal campaign committee for nomination or election to statewide office in the same election year, the amount of expenditures from all of the candidate's principal campaign committees for statewide office for that election year must be aggregated for purposes of the application of the limits on campaign expenditures under subdivision 2, clauses (a) to (c).

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.25, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. Notwithstanding the limits imposed by subdivision 2, the winning candidate in a contested race in a primary who receives less than twice as many votes as any one of the candidate's opponents in that primary may make aggregate expenditures and approved expenditures equal to 120 percent of the applicable amount as set forth in subdivision 2, as adjusted by section 10A.255.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.25, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. In any year following an election year for the office held or sought, the aggregate amount of expenditures by and approved expenditures on behalf of a candidate for or holder of that office shall not exceed ~~20 percent~~ one-fourth of the expenditure limit set forth in subdivision 2.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.25, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. The expenditure limits imposed by this section apply only to candidates whose major political party opponents agree to be bound by the limits and who themselves agree to be bound by the limits as a condition of receiving a public subsidy for their campaigns in the form of an allocation of money from the state elections campaign fund.

A candidate of a major political party who agrees to be bound by the limits and receives a public subsidy, who has an opponent who: (1) is a candidate of a major political party; and (2) does not agree to be bound by the limits but is otherwise eligible to receive a public subsidy, is no longer bound by the limits, including those in section 26, subdivision 1, paragraph (c), but is still eligible to receive a public subsidy.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.255, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [PUBLICATION OF EXPENDITURE LIMIT.] By June 15 of each year the board shall publish in the State Register the expenditure limit for each office for that calendar year under section 10A.25 as adjusted by this section.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.27, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Except as provided in subdivisions 2 and 6, no candidate shall permit the candidate's principal campaign committee to accept contributions from any individual, political committee, or political fund in excess of the following:

(a) To candidates for governor and lieutenant governor running together, $60,000 in an election year for the office sought and $12,000 in other years;

(b) To a candidate for attorney general, $10,000 in an election year for the office sought and $2,000 in other years;

(c) To a candidate for the office of secretary of state, state treasurer or state auditor, $5,000 in an election year for the office sought and $1,000 in other years;

(d) To a candidate for state senator, $1,500 in an election year for the office sought and ~~$300~~ one-third of that amount in other years; and

(e) To a candidate for state representative, $750 in an election year for the office sought and ~~$150~~ one-third of that amount in the other year.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.27, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. A candidate's principal campaign committee shall not accept in any calendar year aggregate contributions in an amount greater than the maximum amount allowed under subdivision 1 from another candidate's principal campaign committee or any other committee bearing the contributing candidate's name or title or otherwise authorized by the contributing candidate.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.275, is amended to read:

10A.275 [MULTICANDIDATE POLITICAL PARTY EXPENDITURES.]

Subdivision 1. [EXCEPTIONS.] Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, the following expenditures by a state political party or, a substate party unit of a state political party as described in section 10A.27, subdivision 4, or two or more party units acting together, with at least one party unit being either: the state party organization or the party organization within a congressional district, county, or legislative district, shall not be considered contributions to or expenditures on behalf of any candidate for the purposes of section 10A.25 or 10A.27; and shall not be allocated to any candidates pursuant to section 10A.22, subdivision 5:

(a) expenditures on behalf of candidates of that party generally without referring to any of them specifically in any advertisement published, posted or broadcast;

(b) expenditures for the preparation, display, mailing or other distribution of an official party sample ballot listing the names of three or more individuals whose names are to appear on the ballot;

(c) expenditures for any telephone conversation including the names of three or more individuals whose names are to appear on the ballot; or

(d) expenditures for any political party fundraising effort on behalf of three or more candidates; or

(e) expenditures for party committee staff member services that benefit three or more candidates.

Subd. 2. [APPLICATION.] This section applies to a political committee of a political party as defined in section 10A.27, subdivision 4.

Subd. 3. [PARTY UNIT.] For purposes of this section, "party unit" means the party organization within each house of the legislature; the state party organization; or the party organization within a congressional district, county, legislative district, municipality, or precinct.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.28, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CANDIDATE EXCEEDING EXPENDITURE LIMITS.] A candidate subject to the expenditure limits of in section 10A.25 who permits the candidate's principal campaign committee to make expenditures or permits approved expenditures to be made on the candidate's behalf in excess of the limits imposed by section 10A.25 shall be, as adjusted by section 10A.255, is subject to a civil fine up to four times the amount which the expenditures exceeded the limit.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 10A.30, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Within the state elections campaign fund account there shall be maintained a separate political party account for the candidates of each political party and a general account.

Sec. 22. [10A.315] [SPECIAL ELECTION SUBSIDY.]

(a) Each eligible candidate for a legislative office in a special election must be paid a public subsidy equal to the sum of:

(1) the party account money at the last general election for the candidate's party for the office the candidate is seeking; and

(2) the general account money paid to candidates for the same office at the last general election.

(b) If the filing period for the special election does not coincide with the filing period for the general election, a candidate who wishes to receive this public subsidy must submit a signed agreement under section 24 to the board not later than the day after the candidate files the affidavit of candidacy or nominating petition for the office. To receive a subsidy, the candidate must meet the matching requirements of section 25, except that the dates in that section do not apply to a special election in which the filing period does not coincide with the filing period for the general election. To the extent feasible, the special election subsidy must be distributed in the same manner as money in the party and general accounts is distributed to legislative candidates in a general election.

(c) The amount necessary to make the payments required by this subdivision is appropriated from the general fund to the state treasurer.

Sec. 23. [10A.321] [ESTIMATES OF MINIMUM AMOUNTS TO BE RECEIVED.]

Subdivision 1. [CALCULATION AND CERTIFICATION OF ESTIMATES.] The commissioner of revenue shall calculate and certify to the board before July 1 in an election year an estimate of the total amount in the state general account of the state elections campaign fund and the amount of money each candidate who qualifies, as provided in section 10A.31, subdivisions 6 and 7, may receive from the candidate's party account in the state elections campaign fund. This estimate must be based upon the allocations and formulas in section 10A.31, subdivision 5, any necessary vote totals provided by the secretary of state to apply the formulas in section 10A.31, subdivision 5, and the amount of money expected to be available after 100 percent of the tax returns have been processed.

Subd. 2. [PUBLICATION, CERTIFICATION, AND NOTIFICATION PROCEDURES.] Before the first day of filing for office, the board shall publish and forward to all filing officers the estimates calculated and certified under subdivision 1 along with a copy of section 10A.25, subdivision 10. Within seven days after the last day for filing for office, the secretary of state shall certify to the board the name, address, office sought, and party affiliation of each candidate who has filed with that office an affidavit of candidacy or petition to appear on the ballot. The auditor of each county shall certify to the board the same information for each candidate who has filed with that county an affidavit of candidacy or petition to appear on the ballot. Within seven days afterward, the board shall estimate the minimum amount to be received by each candidate who qualifies, as provided in section 10A.31, subdivisions 6 and 7. By August 15 the board shall notify all candidates of their minimum amount. The board shall include with the notice a form for the agreement provided in section 24 along with a copy of section 10A.25, subdivision 10.

Sec. 24. [10A.322] [PUBLIC SUBSIDY AGREEMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [AGREEMENT BY CANDIDATE.] As a condition of receiving a public subsidy from the state elections campaign fund, a candidate shall sign and file with the board a written agreement in which the candidate agrees that the candidate will comply with sections 10A.25 and section 26. Before the first day of filing for office, the board shall forward agreement forms to all filing officers. The candidate may sign an agreement and submit it to the filing officer on the day of filing an affidavit of candidacy or petition to appear on the ballot, in which case the filing officer shall without delay forward signed agreements to the board. Alternatively, the candidate may submit the agreement directly to the board by the following September 1. An agreement may not be rescinded after that date. The board shall forward a copy of any agreement signed under this subdivision to the commissioner of revenue.

Subd. 2. [HOW LONG AGREEMENT IS EFFECTIVE.] The agreement, insofar as it relates to the expenditure limits in section 10A.25, as adjusted by section 10A.255, remains effective for candidates until the dissolution of the principal campaign committee of the candidate or the day filings open for the next succeeding election to the office held or sought at the time of the agreement, whichever occurs first.

Subd. 3. [ESTIMATE; ACTUAL AMOUNT.] For the purposes of subdivisions 1 to 3 only, the total amount to be distributed to each candidate is calculated to be the candidate's share of the total estimated funds in the candidate's party account as provided in section 23, subdivision 1, plus the total amount estimated as provided in section 23, subdivision 1, to be in the general account of the state elections campaign fund and set aside for that office divided by the number of candidates whose names are to appear on the general election ballot for that office. If for any reason the amount actually received by the candidate is greater than the candidate's share of the estimate, and the contributions thereby exceed the difference, the agreement must not be considered violated.

Subd. 4. [CREDIT RECEIPT FORMS; PENALTY.] The board shall make available to a political party on request and to any candidate for whom an agreement under this section is effective, a supply of official credit receipt forms that state in boldface type that (1) a contributor who is given a receipt form is eligible to claim a credit as provided in section 290.06, subdivision 23, and (2) if the contribution is to a candidate, that the candidate has signed an agreement to limit campaign expenditures as provided in section 24. The forms must provide duplicate copies of the receipt to be attached to the contributor's claim. A candidate who does not sign an agreement under this section and who willfully issues an official credit receipt form or a facsimile of one to any of the candidate's contributors is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 25. [10A.323] [MATCHING REQUIREMENTS.]

In addition to the requirements of section 24, to be eligible to receive a public subsidy from the state elections campaign fund a candidate shall file an affidavit with the board stating that during that calendar year the candidate has accumulated contributions, including unexpended balances from the year before, equal to 20 percent or more of the minimum amount that the board estimates, on August 15 of the general election year, would be received by the candidate from the state elections campaign fund. The candidate or the candidate's treasurer shall submit the affidavit required by this subdivision to the board in writing by October 1 of the general election year.

Sec. 26. [10A.324] [RETURN OF PUBLIC SUBSIDY.]

Subdivision 1. [WHEN RETURN REQUIRED.] A candidate shall return all or a portion of the public subsidy received from the state elections campaign fund under the circumstances in paragraph (a), (b), or (c).

(a) To the extent that the amount of public subsidy received by the candidate exceeds the expenditure limits for the office held or sought, as provided in section 10A.25 and as adjusted by section 10A.255, the treasurer of the candidate's principal campaign committee shall return the excess to the board.

(b) To the extent that the amount of public subsidy received exceeds the aggregate of: (1) actual expenditures made by the principal campaign committee of the candidate; and (2) approved expenditures made on behalf of the candidate, the treasurer of the candidate's principal campaign committee shall return an amount equal to the difference to the board.

(c) Except for an amount equal to 25 percent of the expenditure limits set forth in section 10A.25, but not exceeding $15,000, any amount by which the aggregate contributions and approved expenditures agreed to exceed the difference between: (1) the amount which legally may be expended by or for the candidate; and (2) the amount the candidate receives from the state elections campaign fund must be returned to the state treasurer, deposited in the state treasury, and credited to the general fund.

Subd. 2. [CALCULATION.] Money in the account of the principal campaign committee of a candidate on January 1 of the election year for the office held or sought must be considered contributions accepted by that candidate in that year for the purposes of this subdivision. The portion of contributions accepted by a candidate in an election year that equals the amount of noncampaign disbursements and contributions and expenditures to promote or defeat a ballot question that are made by that candidate in that year does not count toward the aggregate contributions and approved expenditure limit imposed by this section.

Subd. 3. [HOW RETURN DETERMINED.] Whether or not a candidate is required under subdivision 1 to return all or a portion of the public subsidy received from the state elections campaign fund must be determined from the report required to be filed with the board by that candidate by January 31 of the year following an election. For purposes of this section, a transfer from one principal campaign committee to another principal campaign committee is considered to be a noncampaign disbursement. Any amount required to be returned must be submitted in the form of a check or money order and must accompany the report filed with the board. The board shall forward the check or money order to the state treasurer for deposit in the general fund. The amount returned must not exceed the amount of public subsidy received by the candidate from the state elections campaign fund.

Subd. 4. [RETURN NOT REQUIRED.] A candidate whose campaign spending is unlimited under conditions imposed by section 10A.25, subdivision 10, and who certifies that the candidate made campaign expenditures equal to the full amount of the public financing received is not required to return any portion of the money received from the state elections campaign fund under the aggregate contribution limit provisions of this section.

Sec. 27. [10A.325] [POLITICAL PARTY NOT HAVING CERTAIN CANDIDATES.]

If money has been accumulated in the state elections campaign fund for the candidates of a political party, and the party does not have a candidate in a general election for the office of state senator or state representative, the party account money allocated for the office for which there is no candidate must be returned to the general fund of the state. If that party does not have a candidate in a general election for any state constitutional office, the party account money allocated for that office must be transferred to the state general account of the state elections campaign fund for reallocation to all of the candidate offices as provided in section 10A.31, subdivision 5, and for distribution in that election year to candidates as provided in section 10A.31, subdivision 7.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 23. [CONTRIBUTIONS TO POLITICAL PARTIES AND CANDIDATES.] (a) A taxpayer may claim a credit equal to the amount of the taxpayer's contributions made in the calendar year to candidates and to any political party. The maximum credit for an individual must not exceed $50 and, for a married couple filing jointly, must not exceed $100. A credit for a contribution is allowed only if the taxpayer files a form required by the commissioner and attaches to the form a copy of an official credit receipt form issued by the candidate or party. A claim must be filed with the commissioner not sooner than September 1 of the calendar year in which the contribution is made and no later than April 15 of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the contribution is made. A taxpayer may file only one claim per calendar year. Amounts paid by the commissioner after June 15 of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the contribution is made must include interest at the rate specified in section 270.76.

(b) No credit is allowed under this subdivision for a contribution to any candidate who has not signed an agreement to limit campaign expenditures as provided in section 24, or article 4, section 4, and for whom voluntary spending limits are specified in section 10A.25 or article 4, section 4. This subdivision does not limit the campaign expenditure of a candidate who does not sign an agreement but accepts a contribution for which the contributor improperly claims a credit.

(c) For purposes of this subdivision, "political party" means a major political party as defined in section 200.02, subdivision 7, or a minor political party qualifying for inclusion on the income tax or property tax refund form under section 10A.31, subdivision 3a. A "major or minor party" includes the aggregate of the party organization within each house of the legislature, the state party organization, and the party organization within congressional districts, counties, legislative districts, municipalities, and precincts. "Candidate" means a candidate as defined in section 10A.01, subdivision 5, but does not include a candidate for judicial office. Beginning January 1, 1991, "candidate" also means a candidate for the United States Senate or United States House of Representatives from Minnesota.

(d) The commissioner shall include a copy of the credit form with the instructions for the long and short individual taxation forms. The commissioner shall make copies of the form available to the public and candidates upon request.

(e) The following data collected or maintained by the commissioner under this subdivision are private: the identities of individuals claiming a credit, the identities of candidates to whom those individuals have made contributions, and the amount of each contribution.

(f) The amount necessary to pay claims for the credit provided in this section is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of revenue.

Sec. 29. [TRANSITIONAL PROVISION FOR INACTIVE POLITICAL COMMITTEES AND FUNDS.]

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE.] Within 30 days after the effective date of section 10, the ethical practices board shall send a notice to all political committees and funds informing them of the new requirements concerning inactive committees and funds, along with a copy of section 10.

Subd. 2. [EXISTING INACTIVE COMMITTEES AND FUNDS.] A political committee or fund that is inactive under the criteria set forth in section 10, subdivision 3, on the effective date of that section, shall dissolve by December 31, 1990, unless the board defers dissolution under section 10, subdivision 3.

Sec. 30. [SEVERABILITY.]

If a provision of this article is found to be unconstitutional and void, the remaining provisions of this article remain valid.

Sec. 31. [APPROPRIATION.]

The sum of $150,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of revenue for fiscal years 1990 and 1991 for the administration of the credit in section 28.

Sec. 32. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 10A.32, subdivisions 1, 2, 3, and 4; and 10A.33; and Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 10A.32, subdivision 3a, are repealed.

Sec. 33. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 4, 6 to 17, 19 to 27, 29, 30, and 32 are effective the day following final enactment. Sections 5 and 18 are effective January 1, 1991. Section 28 is effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1989, for contributions to candidates as defined in section 10A.01, subdivision 5, excluding candidates for judicial office. Section 28 is effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1990, for contributions to candidates for the United States House of Representatives and United States Senate.

ARTICLE 4

CONGRESSIONAL CAMPAIGN REFORM

Section 1. [10A.40] [LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS OF FACT; LEGISLATIVE INTENT.]

Subdivision 1. [CAMPAIGN FINANCING; FINDINGS OF FACT.] The legislature finds that:

(1) the spending on campaigns for congressional office has increased to a disgraceful level and continues to rise;

(2) the need to raise campaign contributions has caused Minnesota congressional candidates to aggressively solicit contributions from special interest groups and out-of-state sources, which diverts them from meeting Minnesota voters and publicly debating the pressing issues of the day;

(3) the current practice of congressional campaign contributions and spending, along with ethical scandals in Washington, D.C., have created a public perception of political corruption and undue influence by wealthy special interests;

(4) the United States Congress has debated necessary reforms for years but has failed to act, and the Federal Elections Campaign Act does not provide a means to encourage congressional candidates to voluntarily limit the amount of money they spend in campaigns; and

(5) as a consequence, Minnesota's representation in Congress is jeopardized and the public's confidence in our elected congressional representatives is weakened.

Subd. 2. [PURPOSE.] (a) In order to redress the problems described in subdivision 1, it is necessary to encourage congressional candidates to voluntarily limit the amount of money they spend on campaigns. A further purpose is to achieve the same successful results in congressional campaigns that have made Minnesota's state campaign spending system a model for the nation in the 15 years since its adoption.

(b) This article is intended to address the problems described in subdivision 1 as follows:

(1) by establishing voluntary limitations on campaign spending, candidates are discouraged from escalating campaign spending through the current means of financing campaigns, and campaign spending will likely be curtailed;

(2) by providing an alternate source of financing, congressional candidates will be less susceptible to political corruption and less dependent on special interests, which will enhance the public's confidence in their congressional representatives;

(3) by allowing candidates to focus on public issues rather than fundraising, the public will be better served in its representation and its opportunity to select the better candidate;

(4) by reducing the influence of special interest groups and out-of-state contributions, the integrity of the process and the confidence of the public in their public servants will be enhanced; and

(5) as a consequence, Minnesota will build on the success of its system of voluntary expenditure limits.

Subd. 3. [LEGISLATIVE INTENT.] In enacting sections 1 to 12, the legislature intends to provide a system to encourage voluntary campaign expenditure limits that, in concert with the existing federal law and rules, will provide a comprehensive system of campaign and election regulation. The legislature does not intend to enact legislation that is in conflict with existing federal law, and does not intend to regulate where specific federal laws have already been enacted.

Sec. 2. [10A.41] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] The definitions in this section apply to sections 1 to 12. Where consistent with federal law, the definitions in section 10A.01 also apply to sections 1 to 12.

Subd. 2. [AUTHORIZED COMMITTEE.] "Authorized committee" means the principal campaign committee or another political committee designated and authorized by a congressional candidate under United States Code, title 2, section 432, subsection (e)(1), to receive contributions or make expenditures on behalf of that congressional candidate.

Subd. 3. [CAMPAIGN EXPENDITURE; EXPENDITURE.] "Campaign expenditure" or "expenditure" means "expenditure" as that term is defined under United States Code, title 2, section 431, paragraph (9).

Subd. 4. [CONGRESSIONAL CANDIDATE.] "Congressional candidate" means an individual who seeks nomination or election to the United States Senate or United States House of Representatives from this state and who is a "candidate" as that term is defined under United States Code, title 2, section 431, paragraph (2). A congressional candidate is not a "candidate" as defined in section 10A.01, subdivision 5.

Subd. 5. [CONTRIBUTION.] "Contribution" means a "contribution" as that term is defined under United States Code, title 2, section 431, paragraph (8).

Subd. 6. [INDEPENDENT CANDIDATE.] "Independent candidate" means a congressional candidate who is not the candidate of a major political party, minor political party, or new political party.

Subd. 7. [MINOR POLITICAL PARTY.] "Minor political party" means any political party under whose name in the last state general election a candidate filed for statewide or congressional office and received less than five percent but more than three percent of the vote for that office.

Subd. 8. [NEW POLITICAL PARTY.] "New political party" means a political party that is neither a major political party nor a minor political party.

Subd. 9. [POLITICAL COMMITTEE.] "Political committee" means a "political committee" as that term is defined under United States Code, title 2, section 431, paragraph (4). "Political committee" includes a major political party, a minor political party, a principal campaign committee, and an authorized committee.

Subd. 10. [PRINCIPAL CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE.] "Principal campaign committee" means a political committee designated and authorized by a congressional candidate under United States Code, title 2, section 432, subsection (e)(1).

Sec. 3. [10A.42] [LIMITATION ON APPLICATION.]

The provisions of sections 10A.11 to 10A.24 relating to the organization, registration, and administration of and reporting and disclosure by political funds and political committees, including principal campaign committees, do not apply to congressional candidates and authorized committees of congressional candidates. The organization, registration, and administration of and reporting and disclosure by authorized committees of congressional candidates are governed by United States Code, title 2, chapter 14.

Sec. 4. [10A.43] [EXPENDITURE LIMIT AGREEMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [FINANCIAL INCENTIVE.] (a) The state treasurer shall pay a financial incentive to each congressional candidate of a major political party or minor political party whose name will appear on the ballot in a general or special election, who has signed an agreement to limit campaign expenditures as provided in this section, and who is abiding by the agreement. In the case of an independent or new political party candidate, the congressional candidate must in addition receive more than three percent of the vote cast at the general election for the office sought. An incentive is not payable to a congressional candidate whose name appears only on the ballot in a primary election, but an incentive paid to a candidate in a general or special election may be used to pay expenses or retire debt incurred in the primary campaign.

(b) The amount of the incentive is up to 25 percent of the expenditure limit for a congressional candidate for the office of United States senator and up to 25 percent of the expenditure limit for a congressional candidate for the office of representative in Congress.

Subd. 2. [AGREEMENT.] As a condition of receiving an incentive, a congressional candidate shall sign and file with the board an agreement that the aggregate of expenditures made by the authorized committees of the congressional candidate will not exceed the expenditure limits in section 5. The expenditure limits apply only to congressional candidates who have agreed to be bound by the limits as a condition of receiving an incentive for their campaigns.

Subd. 3. [SUBMISSION OF AGREEMENT.] Before the first day of filing for office, the board shall forward agreement forms to all filing officers. The congressional candidate may sign an agreement and submit it to the filing officer on the day of filing an affidavit of candidacy or petition to appear on the ballot, in which case the filing officer shall without delay forward signed agreements to the board. Alternatively, for a general election the congressional candidate may submit the agreement directly to the board by September 1 preceding the general election. An agreement may not be rescinded after that date. The board shall forward a copy of any agreement signed under this subdivision to the commissioner of revenue.

Subd. 4. [HOW LONG AGREEMENT IS EFFECTIVE.] The agreement, insofar as it relates to the expenditure limits in section 5, remains effective for congressional candidates until the termination of the authorized committees of the congressional candidate, as provided under United States Code, title 2, section 433(d), or the day filings open for the next succeeding election to the office held or sought at the time of agreement, whichever occurs first.

Subd. 5. [CREDIT RECEIPT FORMS; PENALTY.] The board shall make available to a political party on request and to any congressional candidate signing an agreement under this section a supply of official credit receipt forms that state in boldface type that (1) a contributor who is given a receipt form is eligible to claim a credit as provided in section 290.06, subdivision 23, and (2) if the contribution is to a congressional candidate, that candidate has signed an agreement to limit campaign expenditures as provided in this section. A congressional candidate who does not sign an agreement under this section and who willfully issues an official credit receipt form or a facsimile of one to any of the candidate's contributors is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 5. [10A.44] [CONGRESSIONAL CAMPAIGN SPENDING LIMITS.]

Subdivision 1. [LIMITS.] During the calendar year in which an election is held for an office sought by a congressional candidate, no expenditures may be made by the authorized committees of that congressional candidate that result in an aggregate amount in excess of the following:

- (1) for United States senator, $3,400,000; and
- (2) for representative in Congress, $425,000.

A congressional candidate whose name will appear on the ballot in more than one general or special election in a year is subject to a separate spending limit for each election. For a candidate for representative in Congress in a special election, the expenditure limits apply during the ten months before and the two months after the special election.

Subd. 2. [ADJUSTMENT BY CONSUMER PRICE INDEX.] (a) The dollar amounts provided in subdivision 1 must be adjusted for general election years as provided in this subdivision. By June 1 of the general election year, the executive director of the board shall determine the percentage increase in the consumer price index from December of the year preceding the last general election year to December of the year preceding the year in which the determination is made. The dollar amounts used for the last general election year must be multiplied by that percentage. The product of the calculation must be added to each dollar amount to produce the dollar limitations to be in effect for the next general election and any special elections for which filings open before a new limit is set. The product must be rounded up to the next highest whole dollar. The index used must be the revised consumer price index for all urban consumers for the St. Paul-Minneapolis metropolitan area prepared by the United States Department of Labor with 1982 as a base year.

(b) The dollar amounts in subdivision 1 must be adjusted for races in years subsequent to 1990 in the manner provided in paragraph (a), and the last general election year must be considered to be 1990 and the dollar amounts used for the last general election year for the offices of United States senator and representative in Congress must be $3,400,000 and $425,000 respectively.

(c) By June 15 of each year, the board shall publish in the State Register the expenditure limit for each office for that calendar year as adjusted under this subdivision.

Subd. 3. [CONTESTED PRIMARY RACES.] Notwithstanding the limits imposed by subdivisions 1 and 2, the winning congressional candidate in a contested race in a primary who receives less than twice as many votes as any one of the candidate's opponents in that primary may make aggregate expenditures equal to 120 percent of the applicable amount under subdivisions 1 and 2.

Subd. 4. [POSTELECTION YEAR EXPENDITURES.] In any year following an election year for the office held or sought, the aggregate amount of expenditures on behalf of a congressional candidate for or holder of that office must not exceed 20 percent of the expenditure limit in subdivisions 1 and 2.

Subd. 5. [LIMITATION CONDITIONAL.] (a) The expenditure limits imposed by this section apply as provided by this subdivision.

(b) If all the congressional candidates seeking an office agree to be bound by the limits, no candidate may receive an incentive, but all candidates are bound by the limits.

(c) If all major political party congressional candidates seeking an office agree to be bound by the limits, no such candidate of a major political party may receive an incentive, but all such candidates are bound by the limits.

(d) If a candidate of a major political party, minor political party or new political party, or an independent candidate, (i) agrees to be bound by the limits, and (ii) has an opponent who is a candidate of a major political party and who declines to be bound by the limits, the candidate who agrees to limits is eligible to receive an incentive and is not bound by the limits.

Subd. 6. [CERTAIN POSTELECTION COSTS.] After the election, a congressional candidate who is not a congressional incumbent and has been elected to Congress may spend an amount up to ten percent of the limits under subdivision 1 or 2 to defray transition costs. This money may be spent only for the costs of the transition that are incurred between the election and the date on which the elected candidate begins congressional service and cannot be used to retire debts remaining from the primary or general election campaign.

Sec. 6. [10A.45] [CONTRIBUTION AND LOAN LIMITS.]

Contributions by or to a congressional candidate and loans to a congressional candidate are governed by United States Code, title 2, chapter 14.

Sec. 7. [10A.46] [MULTICANDIDATE POLITICAL PARTY EXPENDITURES.]

Multicandidate political party expenditures with respect to congressional candidates are governed by United States Code, title 2, section 431, paragraph (9).

Sec. 8. [10A.47] [PENALTY FOR EXCEEDING LIMITS.]

Subdivision 1. [EXPENDITURE LIMITS.] A congressional candidate subject to the expenditure limits in section 5 who permits the candidate's authorized committees to make aggregate expenditures on the candidate's behalf in excess of the limits imposed by section 5 is subject to a civil fine of up to four times the amount by which the expenditures exceed the limit.

Subd. 2. [CONTRIBUTION LIMITS.] A congressional candidate who permits the candidate's authorized committees to accept contributions in excess of the limits imposed under United States Code, title 2, chapter 14, is subject to the penalties imposed by United States Code, title 2, section 437g.

Subd. 3. [CONCILIATION AGREEMENTS.] If the board finds that there is reason to believe that excess expenditures have been made contrary to subdivision 1, the board shall make every effort for not less than 14 days after its finding to correct the matter by informal methods of conference and conciliation and to enter a conciliation agreement with the person involved. A conciliation agreement made under this subdivision is a matter of public record. Unless violated, a conciliation agreement bars any civil proceeding under subdivision 4.

Subd. 4. [CIVIL ACTION.] If the board is unable after a reasonable time to correct by informal methods any matter that constitutes probable cause to believe that excess expenditures have been made contrary to subdivision 1, the board shall make a public finding of probable cause in the matter. After making a public finding, the board shall bring an action or transmit the finding to a county attorney who shall bring an action to impose a civil fine as prescribed by the board under subdivision 1. An action filed against a congressional candidate for United States senator must be brought in the district court of Ramsey county. An action filed against a congressional candidate for representative in Congress may be brought in the district court of a county within the congressional candidate's congressional district or in the district court in Ramsey county. All money recovered under this section must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the general fund.

Sec. 9. [10A.48] [MATCHING REQUIREMENTS.]

In order to be eligible to receive a financial incentive, a congressional candidate must provide evidence to the board of contributions equal to the financial incentive. Except as otherwise provided by section 10, when a candidate submits an affidavit to the board showing contributions equal to at least one-fourth of the incentive amount, that amount will be paid to the candidate. A candidate may receive the incentive at any time during the calendar year in which the election is held, after the certification of primary results, and may receive it in quarters, or in larger portions if the candidate submits an affidavit showing that a larger amount of contributions has been made.

Sec. 10. [10A.49] [CERTIFICATION AND DISTRIBUTION.]

Subdivision 1. [CERTIFICATION OF ELIGIBLE CANDIDATES.] Within one week after certification by the state canvassing board of the results of the primary, the ethical practices board shall certify to the state treasurer the name of each major political party or minor political party congressional candidate who is eligible to receive a financial incentive.

Subd. 2. [DISTRIBUTION OF MONEY AFTER PRIMARY.] Within two weeks after certification by the state canvassing board of the results of the primary, the state treasurer shall pay an incentive to each major political party or minor political party congressional candidate who has signed an agreement as required under section 5 and is eligible to receive an incentive.

Subd. 3. [INDEPENDENT AND NEW PARTY CANDIDATES.] Within two weeks after certification by the state canvassing board of the results of the state general election, the state treasurer shall pay an incentive to each independent or new political party congressional candidate who has signed an agreement as required under section 5 and is eligible to receive an incentive. To be eligible to receive an incentive, an independent or new party congressional candidate must receive at least three percent of the vote cast at the general election for the office sought.

Subd. 4. [APPROPRIATION.] The amount necessary to pay the incentives under this section is appropriated from the general fund to the state treasurer.

Sec. 11. [10A.50] [RETURN OF FINANCIAL INCENTIVE.]

Subdivision 1. [WHEN REQUIRED.] A congressional candidate shall return all or a portion of the financial incentive received under the circumstances in this subdivision. To the extent that the incentive received exceeds the aggregate of actual expenditures made by the authorized committees of the congressional candidate, the treasurer of the congressional candidate's principal campaign committee shall return an amount equal to the difference to the board.

Subd. 2. [HOW RETURN DETERMINED.] Whether a congressional candidate is required under subdivision 1 to return all or a portion of the incentive received must be determined from the report required to be filed with the secretary of state by that congressional candidate by January 31 of the year following an election. Any amount required to be returned must be submitted in the form of a check or money order and must accompany the report filed under section 12. The secretary of state shall forward the check or money order to the state treasurer for deposit in the general fund. The amount returned must not exceed the amount of incentive received by the congressional candidate.

Sec. 12. [10A.51] [CAMPAIGN REPORTS.]

A congressional candidate who agrees to be bound by the expenditure limits in section 5, as a condition of receiving an incentive for the candidate's campaign, shall file with the secretary of state all reports that the candidate or the candidate's principal campaign committee treasurer acting for the candidate is required to file under United States Code, title 2, chapter 14. The secretary of state shall forward copies of the reports, within 30 days after they are received, to the board.

Sec. 13. [SEVERABILITY.]

If a provision of this article is found to be unconstitutional and void, the remaining provisions of this article remain valid.

Sec. 14. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This article is effective January 1, 1991.

ARTICLE 5
CONGRESSIONAL ACTION ENCOURAGED

Section 1. [NO MORE THAN 40 PERCENT FROM PACS.]

The Congress of the United States, acting under article I, section 4, of the Constitution, having chosen to regulate contributions to candidates for Congress, so that questions exist regarding the authority of state legislatures to regulate those contributions, is urged to enact additional regulations of contributions to congressional candidates so that a congressional candidate may receive no more than 40 percent of campaign contributions in any calendar year from political committees as defined in United States Code, title 2, section 431, paragraph (4)(A) or (B).

ARTICLE 6
OPEN MEETINGS OF THE LEGISLATURE

Section 1. [3.055] [OPEN MEETINGS.]

Subdivision 1. [MEETINGS TO BE OPEN.] Meetings of the legislature shall be open to the public, including sessions of the senate, sessions of the house of representatives, joint sessions of the senate and the house of representatives, and meetings of a standing committee, committee division, subcommittee, conference committee, or legislative commission, but not including a caucus of the members of any of those bodies from the same house and political party nor a delegation of legislators representing a geographic area or political subdivision. For purposes of this section, a meeting occurs when a quorum is present and action is taken regarding a matter within the jurisdiction of the body.

Subd. 2. [ENFORCEMENT.] The house of representatives and the senate shall adopt rules to implement this section. Remedies provided by rules of the house and senate are exclusive. No court or administrative agency has jurisdiction to enforce, enjoin, penalize, award damages, or otherwise act upon a violation or alleged violation of this section, to invalidate any provision of law because of a violation of this section, or to otherwise interpret this section.

Sec. 2. [SEVERABILITY.]

If a provision of this article is found to be unconstitutional and void, the remaining provisions of this article remain valid.

ARTICLE 7

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 97A.485, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [DEER LICENSE; ABSENTEE BALLOT APPLICATION.] The commissioner shall include with every license to take deer with firearms or by archery, sold or issued during a general election year, an application for absentee ballots and a voter registration card. The commissioner shall obtain absentee ballot application forms from the secretary of state.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 204B.09, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CANDIDATES IN STATE AND COUNTY GENERAL ELECTIONS.] Except as otherwise provided by this subdivision, affidavits of candidacy and nominating petitions for county, state and federal offices filled at the state general election shall be filed not more than 70 days nor less than 56 days before the state primary. The affidavit may be prepared and signed at any time between 60 days before the filing period opens and the last day of the filing period. Candidates for presidential electors may file petitions on or before the state primary day. Nominating petitions to fill vacancies in nominations shall be filed as provided in section 204B.13. No affidavit or petition shall be accepted later than 5:00 p.m. on the last day for filing. Affidavits and petitions for offices to be voted on in only one county shall be filed with the county auditor of that county. Affidavits and petitions for offices to be voted on in more than one county shall be filed with the secretary of state.

Sec. 3. [204D.165] [SAMPLE BALLOTS TO SCHOOLS.]

Notwithstanding any contrary provisions in section 204D.09 or 204D.16, the county auditor, two weeks before the applicable primary or general election, shall provide one copy of the sample partisan primary, nonpartisan primary, canary, white, or pink ballot to a school district upon request. The school district may have the sample ballots reproduced at its expense for classroom educational purposes.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 383B.055, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The state ethical practices board shall:

(a) Develop forms for all statements and reports required to be filed under sections 383B.041 to 383B.054 and furnish the forms to the county filing officer in Hennepin county;

(b) (1) issue and publish advisory opinions concerning the requirements of sections 383B.041 to 383B.057 upon application in writing by the county filing officer of Hennepin county or any individual or association who wishes to use the opinion to guide the applicant's own conduct; and

(e) (2) exempt any individual or association required to disclose information under sections 383B.046 to 383B.05 from any requirement of those sections in the same manner as it exempts any individual or association from disclosure requirements under chapter 10A. An individual or association exempted from the disclosure provisions of chapter 10A, shall also be exempt from the disclosure provisions of sections 383B.046 to 383B.05.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 383B.055, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The county filing officer of Hennepin county shall develop forms for all statements and reports required to be filed under sections 383B.041 to 383B.054. The filing officer shall furnish sufficient copies of the forms provided by the ethical practices board to all officers with whom candidates file affidavits or applications of candidacy and nominating petitions.

ARTICLE 8

JUDICIAL MERIT SELECTION

Section 1. [480B.01] [COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL SELECTION.]

Subdivision 1. [JUDICIAL VACANCIES.] If a judge of the district court dies, resigns, retires, or is removed during the judge's term of office, or if a new district judgeship is created, the resulting vacancy must be filled by the governor as provided in this section.

Subd. 2. [COMMISSION ESTABLISHED; MEMBERS.] A commission on judicial selection is established. It is composed of permanent members chosen as described in paragraphs (a) to (e).

(a) The governor shall appoint seven at-large members to the commission who serve at the pleasure of the governor. The governor shall appoint one of these members as chair of the commission. The chair may but does not have to be an attorney. The governor may appoint attorneys to fill no more than four of the remaining six positions.

(b) The justices of the supreme court shall appoint two at-large members to the commission to serve four-year terms, ending on the same day the governor's term of office ends. The justices may appoint an attorney to fill no more than one of the two positions.

(c) The governor shall appoint two district members to the commission in each judicial district who serve at the pleasure of the governor. The governor may appoint an attorney to fill no more than one of the two positions.

(d) The justices of the supreme court shall appoint two district members to the commission from each judicial district to serve four-year terms, ending on the same day the governor's term of office ends. The justices may appoint an attorney to fill no more than one of the two positions.

(e) The appointing authorities shall ensure that the permanent members of the commission include women and minorities.

Subd. 3. [PARTICIPATION IN MEETINGS.] Individuals appointed as district members under subdivision 2, paragraphs (c) and (d), may participate in commission meetings and deliberations only when the commission is considering applicants to fill a vacancy on the district court in the judicial district from which those individuals were appointed.

Subd. 4. [VACANCIES.] If a vacancy occurs on the commission by reason of the death or resignation of a member or by the removal of a member appointed under subdivision 2, the appointing or electing authority shall appoint or elect an individual to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term.

Subd. 5. [QUORUM.] A quorum of the commission is seven members.

Subd. 6. [TEMPORARY INELIGIBILITY FOR VACANCY.] Members of the commission who would otherwise be eligible to hold judicial office may not be considered or appointed to fill a district court judicial vacancy while they are members of the commission or for one year following the end of their membership on the commission.

Subd. 7. [RECRUITMENT PROCESS.] The commission shall prepare and make available to the public and file with the clerk of the appellate courts and the secretary of state an outline of the process the commission will follow in recruiting and evaluating candidates to fill judicial vacancies. The commission shall actively seek out and encourage qualified individuals, including women and minorities, to apply for judicial offices.

Subd. 8. [CANDIDATE EVALUATION.] The commission shall evaluate the extent to which candidates have the following qualifications for judicial office: integrity, maturity, health if job related, judicial temperament, diligence, legal knowledge, ability and experience, and community service. The commission shall give consideration to women and minorities. The commission shall solicit, in writing, recommendations from attorney associations in the judicial district and from organizations that represent minority or women attorneys in the judicial district who have requested solicitation.

Subd. 9. [COMMISSION MEETINGS; NOTICE; TIME.] Within ten days after a judicial vacancy occurs or the governor has been notified that a vacancy will occur on a named date, the governor shall give notice of the vacancy to the chair of the commission on judicial selection. A meeting of the commission to consider the candidates for the vacancy must be held not less than 21 days nor more than 42 days after the governor provides notification of the vacancy.

Subd. 10. [NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.] Upon receiving notice from the governor that a judicial vacancy has occurred or will occur on a specified date, the chair shall provide notice of the following information:

- (1) the office that is or will be vacant;
- (2) that applications from qualified persons or on behalf of qualified persons are being accepted by the commission;
- (3) that application forms may be obtained from the governor or the commission at a named address; and
- (4) that application forms must be returned to the commission by a named date.

The notice must be made available to attorney associations in the judicial district where the vacancy has occurred or will occur and to at least one newspaper of general circulation in each county in the district.

Subd. 11. [NOMINEES TO GOVERNOR.] Within 60 days after the receipt of a notice of a judicial vacancy, the committee shall recommend to the governor no fewer than three and no more than five nominees for each judicial vacancy. The names of the nominees must be made public. The governor may fill the vacancy from the nominees recommended by the commission. If the governor declines to select a nominee to fill the vacancy from the list of nominees, or if no list is submitted to the governor under this subdivision, the governor may select a person to fill the vacancy without regard to the commission's recommendation. If fewer than 60 days remain in the term of office of a governor who will not succeed himself or herself in office, the governor may fill a vacancy without waiting for the commission to recommend a list of nominees.

Subd. 12. [COMMISSION MEETINGS AND DATA.] Meetings of the commission may be closed to discuss the candidates. The commission shall file an annual tabulation with the governor of the number of applicants for judicial office and the age, sex, and race of applicants.

Sec. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective July 1, 1990, and applies to vacancies that occur after that date.

APPROPRIATIONS

Sec. 2. TECHNICAL COLLEGES

Subdivision 1. To the state board of vocational technical education for the purposes specified in this section

$ 25,362,000

The appropriations in this section are from the infrastructure development fund.

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 475.61, subdivision 4, the state board of vocational technical education may approve a request by a local school board to use any unobligated balance in the technical college debt redemption fund to pay the district's share of construction projects authorized in this section.

The state board shall report to the house appropriations and senate finance committees by January 15 of each year on the status of the capital improvement projects in this section.

Subd. 2. Statewide

During the biennium, as part of the planning process for a new or remodeled building, consideration must be given to the child care needs of a campus and the feasibility of locating child care facilities in the building. The board shall report on its consideration process and its decision for each project proposed in future bonding requests.

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 136C.44, during the biennium the state board of vocational technical education must not make grants to school districts but shall directly supervise and control the preparation of plans and specifications to construct, alter, or enlarge the technical college buildings, structures, and improvements provided for in this section. The state board of vocational technical education may provide grants to school districts for land purchases authorized in this act. The school district must still finance 15 percent of the cost of each project, other than in a joint vocational technical district as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 136C.60.

During the biennium, the state board of vocational technical education shall advertise for bids and award contracts in connection with the improvements, supervise and inspect the work, approve necessary changes in the plans and specifications, approve estimates for payment, and accept the improvements when completed according to the plans and specifications.

During the biennium, the state board may delegate the authority provided in this section to the campus director for repair and replacement projects with a total cost of less than $50,000, if the state board determines that the projects can be efficiently managed at the campus level.

Plans must be paid for out of this appropriation. The remainder of the appropriation must not be spent until the board has secured suitable plans and specifications, prepared by a competent architect or engineer. The plans and specifications must be accompanied by a detailed statement of the cost, quality, and description of all material and labor required for the completion of the work. No plan may be adopted, and no improvement made or building constructed, that contemplates the expenditure for its completion of more money than the appropriation for it, unless otherwise provided in this act.

The state board of vocational technical education may delegate responsibilities to technical college staff.

Subd. 3. Capital improvements 3,300,000

This appropriation is for capital improvement grants to school districts for roofs, parking lots, hazardous material abatement, fuel tank removal, electrical, mechanical, and other physical plant repairs and betterments at technical college campuses.

Subd. 4. Alexandria Technical College 870,000

This appropriation is for a truck mechanics instruction building. The total cost of the project must not exceed $1,024,000, whether paid from state, local, or federal money.

Subd. 5. Anoka Technical College 3,500,000

This appropriation is to remodel and construct space for classrooms, parking, and other related purposes, and to acquire land. The total cost of the project must not exceed $4,118,000, whether paid from state, local, or federal money.

Subd. 6. Dakota County Technical College 939,000

This appropriation is for a decision driving course and truck driving areas on land leased from the University of Minnesota, or currently owned land. No exchange of ownership of the property may occur. Any unspent balance remaining after completion of this project may be spent for classrooms. The total cost of the project must not exceed $1,200,000, whether paid from state, local, or federal money.

Subd. 7. Detroit Lakes Technical College

4,429,000

This appropriation is to remodel and construct space for classrooms, a telecommunications center, child care, laboratories, staff work areas, and parking/site improvements. The total cost of this project must not exceed $5,211,000 whether paid from state, local, or federal money.

Subd. 8. Duluth Technical College

520,000

This appropriation is for exterior wall stabilization and repair. The total cost of this project must not exceed $612,000 whether paid from state, local, or federal money.

Subd. 9. East Grand Forks Technical College

2,000,000

This appropriation is to remodel and construct space for classrooms, laboratories, offices, telecommunications, truck driving courses, parking, and other related purposes. The total cost of the project must not exceed $2,353,000, whether paid from state, local, or federal money.

Subd. 10. Hennepin Technical College

Intermediate District 287, Hennepin Technical College, is authorized to construct classrooms, labs, staff areas, parking/site work, and make energy modifications. The total cost of the project must not be more than $1,409,000, to be paid from the proceeds of the sale of land and from local money.

In funding this project, the district is required to use the post-secondary share of the proceeds from the sale of the west campus land. The post-secondary share of the sale is the percent of the net sales proceeds that equals the state's percentage of the original investment.

To determine the amount of local funds available for this project, the state director, district superintendent, and commissioner of finance, or their designees, shall determine the post-secondary share of all district funds according to Minnesota Statutes, section 136C.05, subdivision 6.

If the project is not authorized by the board of District No. 287 by December 1, 1990, the state board shall recover the state's share of the post-secondary portion of the proceeds of the sale of the west campus land. The recovery may be a direct payment from Intermediate District No. 287 to the state board, or the state board may reduce the allotment for the operations budget.

Subd. 11. Hibbing Technical College

500,000

This appropriation is to prepare a site and a plan for a new campus. Before any land is purchased, the terms of the purchase and the site selected must be submitted to the chairs of the senate finance and house appropriations committees for their review. The total cost of the project must not exceed $588,300, whether paid from state, local, or federal money.

Subd. 12. Southwestern Technical College

1,200,000

(a) Canby Campus

This appropriation is for connecting links to the main classroom building and the student services area.

(b) Granite Falls Campus

This appropriation is for construction of a library and resource study area, special needs, and student services area.

(c) Jackson Campus

This appropriation is for construction of an auto body and auto mechanic laboratory and remodeling for a library.

(d) Pipestone Campus

This appropriation is for remodeling for a library and resource study area, and student services space.

Subd. 13. Thief River Falls Technical College

2,338,000

This appropriation is to remodel and construct space for an airplane hangar, classrooms, staff work areas, storage, parking, and site work at the airport site. The total cost of the project must not exceed $2,751,000, whether paid from state, local, or federal money.

Subd. 14. Willmar Technical College

700,000

This appropriation is to construct and remodel space for the auto body training program. The total cost of the project must not exceed $824,000, whether paid from state, local, or federal money.

Subd. 15. Winona Technical College

4,666,000

This appropriation is to remodel and construct space for an aviation center, classrooms, laboratories, staff work areas, hangar space, storage and parking/site improvement. The total cost of this project must not exceed $5,489,000 whether paid from state, local, or federal money.

Subd. 16. Land Acquisition

400,000

This appropriation is for the State Board of Vocational Technical Education to acquire land for a joint campus for Brainerd Technical College and Brainerd Community College.

The state board of vocational technical education, the state board for community colleges, Brainerd technical college, and Brainerd community college shall cooperatively undertake a plan for a joint campus for Brainerd technical college and Brainerd community college.

Sec. 3. COMMUNITY COLLEGES

Subdivision 1. To the commissioner of administration for the purposes specified in the following subdivisions

50,500,000

The appropriations in this section are from the infrastructure development fund.

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 16B.24, subdivision 2, the state board for community colleges shall supervise and control the making of necessary repairs to all state community college buildings and structures during the biennium.

The state board shall report to the house appropriations and senate finance committees by January 15 of each year on the status of the capital improvement projects in this section.

During the biennium, as part of the planning process for a new or remodeled building, consideration must be given to the child care needs of a campus and the feasibility of locating child care facilities in the building. The board shall report on its consideration process and its decision for each project proposed in future bonding requests.

Subd. 2. Austin Community College

440,000

This appropriation is to prepare working drawings to renovate and construct space for laboratories, a library, nursing, occupational therapy center, receiving and maintenance, dining, continuing education, theatre, campus center, offices, classrooms, bookstore, developmental learning, journalism, and other related purposes.

Subd. 3. Brainerd Community College

5,148,000

This appropriation is to renovate and construct space for drama, physical education, laboratories, a library, classrooms, a campus center, an art studio, offices, parking, storage areas, and other related purposes.

Subd. 4. Cambridge Center

400,000

This appropriation is to prepare working drawings for classrooms, laboratories, offices, and other necessary purposes. This appropriation is available only after receipt of a gift of land, including provision for sewer and water services, upon which the structures will be located. The site shall be submitted to the chairs of the senate finance and house appropriations committees for their review, before final acceptance.

Subd. 5. Fergus Falls Community College

3,429,000

This appropriation is to construct and remodel space for a campus center, laboratories, offices, administration and counseling, classrooms, continuing education, physical education, parking, and storage.

Subd. 6. Fond du Lac Center

6,990,000

This appropriation is to construct space for classrooms, laboratories, offices, and other necessary purposes. This appropriation is available only after receipt of a gift of land, including provision for sewer and water services, upon which the structures will be located.

Subd. 7. Hibbing Community College

500,000

This appropriation is the state's share for construction of athletic facilities to be used jointly with the Hibbing school district. The facilities must be maintained by the school district.

Subd. 8. Lakewood Community College

3,500,000

This appropriation is to renovate and construct space for classrooms, parking, student services, administration, laboratories, campus center, faculty office areas, and other related purposes.

Subd. 9. Rainy River Community College

1,400,000

This appropriation is to renovate and construct space for classrooms, laboratories, student services areas, faculty offices, a bookstore, maintenance facilities, library, administration areas, and other related purposes.

Subd. 10. Vermilion Community College

1,050,000

This appropriation is to renovate and construct space for shops, classrooms, music, information processing, developmental learning, and other related purposes, and conceptual planning for space for administration, student services, offices, classrooms, laboratories, and connecting links. This project may not proceed beyond plans until the plans have been reviewed by the chairs of the senate finance and house appropriations committees and the chairs have made their recommendations on the plans.

Subd. 11. Willmar Community College

3,393,000

This appropriation is to renovate and construct space for laboratories, a library, offices, parking, heating, ventilating, and air conditioning systems, fine arts, classroom areas, and other related purposes.

Subd. 13. University Center at Rochester	17,000,000
--	------------

This appropriation is to construct and renovate space for the center. For purposes of allocating responsibility for debt service for this project, the commissioner of finance, after consulting with the University of Minnesota, state universities, and community college systems, shall develop an equitable amount for each system to pay for its debt service share. The total amount from the three systems must equal the amount necessary to pay the systems' share of the debt service transfer.

Subd. 14. Systemwide capital improvements	5,000,000
---	-----------

This appropriation is for capital improvements at community colleges statewide, including roofs, hazardous material abatement, repair or construction of parking lots, electrical, mechanical, and other physical plant repairs and betterments.

Subd. 15. Land Acquisition	750,000
----------------------------	---------

This appropriation is to the state board for community colleges to acquire land for Lakewood and North Hennepin community colleges.

Sec. 4. STATE UNIVERSITIES

Subdivision 1. To the state university board for the purposes specified in the following subdivisions	44,408,000
---	------------

The appropriations in this section are from the infrastructure development fund.

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, sections 16B.30 and 16B.31, during the biennium, the state university board shall supervise and control the preparation of plans and specifications for the construction, alteration, or enlargement of the state university buildings, structures, and improvements provided for in this section. During the biennium, the board shall advertise for bids and award contracts in connection with the improvements, supervise and inspect the work, approve necessary changes in the plans and specifications, approve estimates for payment, and accept the improvements when completed according to the plans and specifications.

Plans must be paid for out of this appropriation. The remainder of the appropriation must not be spent until the board has secured suitable plans and specifications, prepared by a competent architect or engineer. The plans and specifications must be accompanied by a detailed statement of the cost, quality, and description of all material and labor required for the completion of the work. No plan may be adopted, and no improvement made or building constructed, that contemplates the expenditure for its completion of more money than the appropriation for it, unless otherwise provided in this act.

The board shall report to the house appropriations and senate finance committees by January 15 of each year on the status of the capital improvement projects in this section.

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 16B.24, subdivision 2, the state university board shall supervise and control the making of necessary repairs to all state university buildings and structures during the biennium.

Notwithstanding other law, during the biennium, the state university board may purchase property adjacent to or in the vicinity of the campuses as necessary for the development of the universities. Before taking action, the board shall consult with the chairs of the senate finance committee and the house appropriations committee about the proposed action. The board shall explain the need to acquire property, specify the property to be acquired, and indicate the source and amount of money needed for the acquisition.

During the biennium, the state university board may pay relocation costs, at its discretion, when acquiring property.

During the biennium, as part of the planning process for a new or remodeled building, consideration must be given to the child care needs of a campus and the feasibility of locating child care facilities in the building. The board shall report on its consideration process and its decision for each project proposed in future bonding requests.

Subd. 2. Bemidji Campus

(a) Heating plant rehabilitation	3,990,000
(b) Emergency generator	870,000

Subd. 3. Mankato Campus

(a) Heating plant rehabilitation	3,720,000
(b) Construct Phase I addition to Trafton Hall	7,000,000

Subd. 4. Metropolitan Campus

13,000,000

This appropriation is to construct a consolidated administrative and student center, convert the power plant to low pressure steam, and correct code deficiencies in existing structures.

Subd. 5. Moorhead Campus

| Subd. 8. Land Acquisition | 1,750,000 |
|---------------------------|-----------|

This appropriation is to acquire land adjacent to or in the vicinity of the St. Cloud campus.

Subd. 9. Systemwide Library Planning

200,000

This appropriation is to develop schematic plans for a college campus library and its needs 15 years into the future. The plan must be suitable for construction of a library on any or all state university system campuses. The plans must account for anticipated changes in electronic and communications technology affecting publishing, storage, access, reference, administration, staffing, and related capabilities appropriate to a comprehensive library and efficient use of its resources, including cooperative collection building and storage with other state university campuses. The planning must be conducted with the full involvement and participation of St. Cloud, Bemidji, and Winona state universities and must be incorporated into plans for library improvements on those campuses. The board shall report to the chairs of the senate finance committee and the house of representatives appropriations committee by May 1, 1991, describing the model and its application to the needs of the libraries at the St. Cloud, Bemidji, and Winona campuses.

Subd. 10. Settlement of wood-fired boiler litigation

This appropriation is from the general fund.

Notwithstanding Laws 1987, chapter 401, section 5, subdivision 3, paragraphs 2 and 3; Laws 1989, chapter 300, article 1, section 4, subdivision 10; and Laws 1989, chapter 293, section 5, subdivision 4, this appropriation is for the full and final payment of a settlement agreed to by the parties to the litigation among First Trust Company, Inc., M.E.S. Corporation, and the state of Minnesota to resolve disputes over energy services systems for the state universities at St. Cloud and Bemidji. This appropriation is not an admission of liability by the state but represents only the sum of a binding court judgment and post-judgment interest for payments due prior to the 1987 and 1989 legislative nonappropriations enumerated above; a payment for past use by the state of certain equipment; a payment for purchase by the state of certain equipment; and a payment in lieu of all other outstanding claims against the state. Laws 1987, chapter 401, section 5, subdivision 3, paragraphs 2 and 3; Laws 1989, chapter 300, article 1, section 4, subdivision 10; and Laws 1989, chapter 293, section 5, subdivision 4, remain permanently in effect except as specifically provided in this section.

Sec. 5. UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

Subdivision 1. To the regents of the University of Minnesota for the purposes specified in the following subdivisions

71,480,000

The appropriations in this section are from the infrastructure development fund.

The regents shall report to the house appropriations and senate finance committees by January 15 of each year on the status of the capital improvement projects in this section.

During the biennium as part of the planning process for a new or remodeled building, consideration must be given to the child care needs of a campus and the feasibility of locating child care facilities in the building. The board shall report on its consideration process and its decision for each project proposed in future bonding requests.

Subd. 2. Morris Campus Remodel and construct addition to student center

4,000,000

Subd. 3. Twin Cities Campus

(a) Construct biological sciences addition	16,500,000
(b) Remodel Wilson Library	2,080,000
(c) Construct addition to and renovate veterinary diagnostic lab	7,900,000
(d) Construct music performance hall addition to Ferguson Hall	6,700,000

This amount must be matched by a minimum of $2,000,000 from nonstate sources. The amount of money provided to match the state appropriation pursuant to Laws 1984, chapter 597, section 16, subdivision 2, clause (j), may be included in calculating the match amount required in this paragraph.

(e) Construct an Integrated Waste Management Facility	7,500,000
(f) Recreational sports and physical education building	6,000,000

This appropriation is to complete the university recreation center, the space under the bleachers in the aquatics center, repair the second and third floors of Cooke Hall, and may include moving gymnastics to Peik gym and relocating the Human Performance Laboratory. If all of the preceding items are completed, the handball and racquetball courts in St. Paul may also be constructed.

(g) The appropriations in Laws 1978, chapter 792, section 11, subdivision 2, item (e); and in Laws 1984, chapter 597, section 16, subdivision 2, item (f), to remodel Folwell Hall on the Twin Cities campus of the University of Minnesota may be added to the appropriation in Laws 1987, chapter 400, section 20, subdivision 7, item (l), to remodel Folwell Hall, phase II.

Subd. 4. Crookston Campus

- (a) Construct agricultural operations management center 4,410,000
- (b) Plan Agricultural Utilization Research Institute offices and labs and remodel current space 590,000

Subd. 5. Duluth Campus

- (a) Expand and renovate Natural Resources Research Institute 2,500,000
- (b) Construct college campus center 10,000,000

Subd. 6. North Central Experiment Station

The appropriation in Laws 1989, chapter 335, article 1, section 21, subdivision 4, for hybrid aspen and hybrid larch research and development at the North Central Experiment Station at Grand Rapids may also be spent to construct a greenhouse.

- Subd. 7. Systemwide Health and safety 1,500,000

This appropriation is to continue the program for upgrading university facilities to eliminate fire and life safety deficiencies and to continue the ongoing university-wide program of rendering facilities accessible to the physically disabled.

- Subd. 8. Minnesota Agricultural Experiment Stations 1,800,000

This appropriation is for capital improvements at the Horticulture Research Center; the North Central Experiment Station; the Southwest Experiment Station; the West Central Experiment Station; the Northwest Experiment Station; and the Cloquet Forestry Center. Any funds remaining after completion of the first five projects may be used to fund other experiment station projects in accordance with the priorities established by the board of regents.

The board of regents may execute a contract for deed for purchase of unique farm land at Lamberton.

Sec. 6. HIGHER EDUCATION SYSTEMS

Subdivision 1. Debt Service Plans

Each public higher education system is requested to include in the 1991 biennial budget document a plan for incorporating debt service retirement into its operating budget. The plan should include, but not be limited to, the amount of debt service, the types of projects, a ten-year plan for anticipated projects, and the method for financing the plan.

Subd. 2. Parking Fees

Each public higher education system shall develop a parking plan. The plan shall include consideration of establishing parking fees for each campus at a level that will provide adequate revenue to construct, repair, and maintain the parking lots. The plan must be submitted to the legislature in the 1991 biennial budget document.

Sec. 7. EDUCATION

Subdivision 1. To the commissioner of administration, except as otherwise specified, for the purposes specified in this section

27,793,000

Subd. 2. Minnesota State Academy for the Blind and Deaf - Faribault

343,000

(a) Upgrade mechanical systems and make health and life safety improvements in Activities Building

128,000

(b) Retrofit science classrooms to meet safety standards

50,000

(c) Replace windows

165,000

Subd. 3. Minnesota Center for Arts Education Purchase and rehabilitate Golden Valley site

4,250,000

Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the commissioner of administration may purchase the Golden Valley site for a sum not more than $4,250,000.

Subd. 4. Minnesota Center for Science, Mathematics, and International Studies Purchase facilities at Winona

200,000

This appropriation is to purchase facilities on the campus of the former College of Saint Teresa in Winona, to be used to establish a state center for science, mathematics, and international studies. This appropriation may be spent only if the Hiawatha Foundation exercises its option to buy the buildings. The Foundation must maintain the facilities through June 30, 1991.

Subd. 5. Maximum Effort School Loans

23,000,000

This appropriation is from the maximum effort school loan fund and must be spent under the direction of the commissioner of education to make debt service loans and capital loans to school districts as provided in sections 124.36 to 124.47.

This appropriation is to the commissioner of education, who shall rank capital loan applications that were recommended by the state board of education and approved by voters of the school district before April 15, 1990. Ranking shall be based on the criteria in Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 124.43, subdivision 1, paragraph (b), clauses (2)(A) to (D), and the amount of the appropriation in this subdivision.

The commissioner shall review the proposed plan and budgets of a project to be funded and may reduce the amount of the loan to ensure that the project will be economical. The commissioner may recover the cost incurred by the commissioner for any professional services associated with the final review by reducing the proceeds of the loan paid to the district.

The commissioner shall allot the amount available for capital loans to the top-ranked districts in rank order. The commissioner shall not prorate a capital loan. If the available money will not fully fund a project, the commissioner shall allot the money to the next lower project that can be fully funded. Capital loans are approved for the districts funded by the commissioner. The amount, terms, and forgiveness of a capital loan are governed by this subdivision and 1990 H.F. No. 2200, article 11.

Except for emergency requests, these school district applications shall be the top priority for funding capital loans until July 1, 1995, if:

(1) the districts continue to meet the criteria in Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 124.43, subdivision 1, paragraph (b), clauses (2)(A) to (D);

(2) the amount of the loan is within the limit established by 1990 H.F. No. 2200, article 11, section 5, subdivision 8, as modified by 1990 H.F. No. 2200, article 11, section 10; and

(3) the districts levy according to 1990 H.F. No. 2200, article 11, section 2, and section 5, subdivision 11.

A district application may change priority or rank order when the conditions under which the state board of education approved the loan application or the voters approved borrowing the money change sufficiently to disqualify it for a capital loan, raise or lower its rank, or eliminate its status as top priority, according to 1990 H.F. No. 2200, article 11.

Sec. 8. JOBS AND TRAINING

To the commissioner of administration for the purposes specified in this section

750,000

This appropriation is to construct and renovate a regional job service office in south Minneapolis. The office must be located at the southwest corner of the intersection of Chicago and Lake streets.

Sec. 9. VETERANS HOMES BOARD

Subdivision 1. To the commissioner of administration for the purposes specified in this section

1,750,000

The appropriations in this section represent 35 percent of the estimated cost of each project.

The Minnesota Veterans Homes Board must apply for the federal money needed to complete these projects. The commissioner of administration shall receive the federal money and make the money available to the Veterans Homes Board to spend for completion of the projects. Any part of the total appropriation in this section may be spent for any of the projects in this section before the federal money for that project is received, provided that the project must not be started until enough federal or other money has been committed to complete it.

Subd. 2. Systemwide

(a) Upgrade heating and air conditioning system in residential and program buildings 500,000

(b) Remodel resident living and program areas to meet licensure and accreditation requirements 450,000

(c) Repair roofs, structures, and utilities 426,000

Subd. 3. Construct ten additional state-operated community services facilities for people with developmental disabilities 2,590,000

Subd. 4. State-operated community-based residences 1,000,000

This appropriation is to plan, design, renovate or construct two state-operated community-based residences for people with mental illness. Each facility must be located in conformance with deconcentration requirements.

One facility must be located in the Twin Cities metropolitan area, must have no more than 16 beds, and must serve adults. One facility must be located outside the Twin Cities metropolitan area, must have 10 beds, and must serve adolescents. Before beginning construction, the commissioner shall consult with the chairs of the Health and Human Services Division of the House Appropriations Committee and the Health and Human Services Division of the Senate Finance Committee.

Subd. 5. Construct water line to Cambridge Regional Treatment Center

400,000

This appropriation is to repair or replace water and sewer mains at the Cambridge regional human services center in cooperation with the city of Cambridge. Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, sections 94.09 to 94.16, the commissioner of administration may transfer to the city of Cambridge any property at the Cambridge regional human services center that relates to the provision of water or sewer services or other utilities. The department and the city may attach to the transfer the conditions that they agree are appropriate, including conditions that relate to water and sewer service at the center and in the city. If the transfer requires the conveyance of any interest in real estate, the attorney general shall prepare appropriate instruments of conveyance. The deed to convey the property must contain a clause that the property will revert to the state if the property ceases to be used for a public purpose. This appropriation expires upon the accomplishment or abandonment of its purpose.

Subd. 6. Remodel, upgrade, and re-equip dietary and kitchen facilities at Ah-Gwah-Ching, Brainerd Human Services Center, and St. Peter Regional Treatment Center

774,000

Subd. 7. Regional Treatment Centers

7,235,000

This appropriation is to prepare working drawings to remodel or reconstruct the Anoka, Moose Lake, and Fergus Falls mental health units. Plans must be ready for construction bid by June 1, 1991, with a total construction cost not to exceed $97,000,000. Construction funds must be available after review of the plans by the 1991 legislature. Schematics shall be submitted to the chair of the health and human services division of the senate finance committee and the chair of the health and human services division of the house appropriations committee for their review.

Of this appropriation, $2,800,000 is for Anoka Metro Regional Treatment Center to complete schematics and working drawings for construction of a 300-bed facility for treatment of individuals with mental illness. The new facility must include space for ancillary and support functions for all disability groups to be served by the regional center.

Of this appropriation, $1,435,000 is for Fergus Falls Regional Treatment Center to develop schematics and working drawings for a new 100-bed freestanding facility for persons with mental illness. The new facility must include space for ancillary and support functions for all disability groups to be served by the regional center. The plan and working drawings must be drafted in a manner that will allow for all construction to be completed in totality or in phases. The first phase must provide for completion of all ancillary and support functions. Upon completion of construction, custodial control of the existing Kirkbride Complex shall be transferred to the commissioner of administration after a public meeting in Fergus Falls to receive recommendations for its disposition.

Of this appropriation, $1,500,000 is for Moose Lake Regional Treatment Center to develop schematics and working drawings for construction of a new 150-bed freestanding facility for the treatment of individuals with mental illness. The new facility must include space for ancillary and support functions for all disability groups to be served by the regional center. The site for the new facility shall be located, if feasible, on property presently under the custodial control of the Moose Lake Regional Treatment Center. If a building site on regional center property is not feasible, the commissioners of human services and natural resources shall cooperatively explore the feasibility of an alternative site location on state land adjacent to the regional center which at the present time is under the custodial control of the department of natural resources. The commissioner of human services may also accept a gift of real property as an alternative site for the new regional facility. Upon completion of construction, custodial control of the existing regional center complex shall be transferred to the commissioner of corrections for the purpose of establishing a correctional facility.

Of this appropriation, $1,500,000 is for remodeling the Brainerd Regional Treatment Center for 35 mental health security beds.

The department of administration, in cooperation with the department of human services, shall coordinate the planning for the reconstruction of the regional treatment centers. The proposals for schematics and working drawings for the psychiatric facilities at Anoka, Fergus Falls, and Moose Lake must be let in a single bid. The department of finance may reduce the authorization if the department estimates the amount needed is less than the authorized amount.

Subd. 8. Remodel residential buildings at regional treatment centers to meet standards for skilled nursing facilities

9,300,000

This appropriation is to complete remodeling of buildings for 105 beds at Brainerd, 70 beds at Cambridge, and 85 beds at Fergus Falls.

Sec. 13. TRANSPORTATION

Subdivision 1. To the commissioner of transportation for the purposes specified in this section

21,734,000

Subd. 2. Buildings

The appropriations in this subdivision are from the trunk highway fund.

(a) Bemidji rest area

250,000

The commissioner of transportation may not spend more than $400,000 from an appropriation for trunk highway development to develop the site and design a facility for a trunk highway rest area and tourist information center at Bemidji. State money may not be spent to operate the facility.

(b) Brainerd District Headquarters

6,525,000

This appropriation is to construct a new headquarters on a site already owned by the department of transportation.

(c) Detroit Lakes Laboratory addition

344,000

(d) Marshall Area Maintenance Building

(2) Underground storage tank replacement at Minnesota department of transportation facilities statewide	750,000
(3) Construct or repair chemical storage sheds at department facilities	405,000
(4) Acquire land	145,000

This appropriation is to acquire land for truck station sites at Roseau, Pine City, Northfield, and Pipestone.

(5) Construct pole-type storage sheds at Minnesota department of transportation facilities statewide	375,000
--	---------

Subd. 3. Planning for airport hangar at St. Paul downtown airport	50,000
---	--------

This appropriation is from the state airports fund.

Subd. 4. Federal Aid Demonstration Program	5,600,000
--	-----------

This appropriation is from the state transportation fund.

Subd. 5. Local Bridge Replacement and Rehabilitation	5,600,000
--	-----------

This appropriation is from the state transportation fund.

(a) This appropriation shall be distributed by the commissioner of transportation as grants to political subdivisions for the construction and reconstruction of key bridges on highways and streets under their jurisdiction. The grants shall not exceed the following aggregate amounts:

- | | |
|--|-------------|
| (1) To counties | $3,304,000 |
| (2) To home rule charter and statutory cities | $ 784,000 |
| (3) To towns | $1,512,000 |

(b) The grants may be used by a political subdivision to:

- (1) Construct and reconstruct key bridges under their jurisdiction;
- (2) Match federal-aid grants for construction and reconstruction of the bridges;
- (3) Pay the costs of preliminary engineering and environmental studies for the bridges;
- (4) Pay the costs of abandoning an existing bridge that is deficient and is in need of replacement, but where no replacement is made; and
- (5) Pay the cost of constructing a road or street that would facilitate the abandonment of an existing deficient bridge. The construction of the road or street must be judged by the commissioner to be more cost-efficient than the reconstruction or replacement of the existing bridge.

- Sec. 14. PUBLIC SAFETY

Remodel Bureau of Criminal Apprehension Building to comply with building code

545,000

Sec. 15. BOARD OF WATER AND SOIL RESOURCES

To the board of water and soil resources for the Reinvest in Minnesota resources program

2,395,000

This appropriation is from the infrastructure development fund.

This appropriation is to acquire conservation easements under Minnesota Statutes, section 40.43, subdivision 3. The board shall give priority to acquiring easements on cropland in sensitive groundwater areas.

Administrative costs for one position of the board are to be paid from this appropriation.

$1,645,000 of this appropriation is to construct the Wellner-Hageman dam.

Sec. 16. MINNESOTA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Subdivision 1. To the Minnesota historical society for the purposes specified in this section

3,475,000

Subd. 2. Specific Projects

(a) Complete State History Center

2,300,000

This appropriation is added to the appropriation in Laws 1987, chapter 400, section 15, subdivision 2.

$100,000 of this appropriation is to construct exhibits at the State History Center.

(b) Restore and repair deterioration of Split Rock Lighthouse

125,000

(c) Restore and reconstruct Meighen store complex

100,000

(d) Red Lake Tribal Information Center

300,000

This appropriation is for the Minnesota historical society to make a grant to independent school district No. 38, Red Lake, to finalize construction documents and operating agreements before project bidding.

Subd. 3. For heritage zone grant-in-aid

100,000

This appropriation is for grant-in-aid purposes of the St. Anthony Falls Heritage Preservation Zone. Grants may be made for public improvements of a capital nature according to the St. Anthony Falls interpretive plan for preservation of interpretive components. The matching requirements for the grants may be established by the St. Anthony Falls Heritage Board.

Subd. 4. For the labor history center

550,000

This appropriation is to plan and design the Labor History Center. The society shall develop a facility program document that defines the space and programming needs of the center including operating expenses. The society shall determine, through a site location assessment study, the location of the center on a site adjacent to the history center and prepare working drawings for the project. Cost estimates for all elements necessary to complete the project must be submitted to the chairs of the agriculture, transportation, and semi-states divisions of the senate finance and house appropriations committees for their recommendations. The recommendations are advisory only. Failure or refusal to make a recommendation promptly is deemed a negative recommendation. The total cost of the project must not exceed $12,500,000. The project cost may include exhibits and audio-visual devices and systems.

Subd. 5. For site improvements

Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, unencumbered balances from appropriations in Laws 1981, chapter 4, section 11, are reappropriated to the Minnesota Historical Society for site contamination clean-up and access requirements. The Minnesota Historical Society shall report to the chair of the senate committee on finance and the chair of the house of representatives committee on appropriations on expenditures made under this subdivision.

The purpose of the reappropriation is to pay for existing projects and not to pay for new projects.

Sec. 17. INDIAN AFFAIRS COUNCIL

Battle Point Historic Site

50,000

This appropriation is to prepare preliminary plans for an interpretive center at the Battle Point historic site in Cass county on the Leech Lake Indian Reservation. The plans must provide for the center to be constructed on land leased to the Indian affairs council by the Leech Lake Band of Chippewa Indians under a ground lease having an initial term of at least 20 years and a total term of at least 40 years, including renewal options. During the term of the ground lease the facilities constructed on the land will be owned by the council, but when the ground lease expires the facilities constructed on the land will belong to the Leech Lake Band. The plans must provide for the council to contract with the Leech Lake Band to operate the center on behalf of the council. Through the center, the council shall carry out a program of public education on the history of the Battle Point site, with primary emphasis on the historical role of the Leech Lake Band. The center and all classes and programs run by or through the center must be open to the public.

Sec. 18. ADMINISTRATION

To the commissioner of administration for the purposes specified in this section

16,750,000

(a) Capital asset preservation and replacement account

2,500,000

This appropriation is from the capital asset preservation and replacement account created in new Minnesota Statutes, section 16A.632.

Unencumbered balances from appropriations in Laws 1985, First Special Session chapter 15, section 3, subdivision 2, item (a), and Laws 1987, chapter 400, section 3, item (a), may be used by the commissioner of administration to remove or encapsulate asbestos-containing materials when identified by a survey conducted by a recognized and licensed asbestos testing consultant as being the most hazardous to building occupants.

(b) Centennial Building 8,000,000

This appropriation is to complete renovation of the interior of the building.

(c) To repair the ventilation system in the Ford building 150,000

(d) For the Itasca Center Project 100,000

This appropriation is for a grant to Itasca county to plan for construction of the Itasca Center.

(e) Judicial Center 2,900,000

This appropriation is to complete phase I of the center and phase II planning.

(f) Plan to remodel State Capitol 300,000

(g) Agency Relocation 2,800,000

This appropriation is to the commissioner of administration from the general fund and is to provide for moving costs and estimated increased rental costs associated with agency relocations and shall not be used for the purchase of furniture related to agency relocations.

Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, during the biennium in selecting sites for relocations, the commissioner shall place a priority on housing agencies in state-owned buildings whenever possible.

(h) Agriculture Department Building

The unobligated balance of the appropriation in Laws 1989, chapter 300, article 1, section 14, item (h), to select a site and plan for a new department of agriculture building, is canceled to the state bond fund.

(i) Public School Building Survey

The commissioner of administration, in cooperation with the commissioner of education, may conduct a survey of all public school buildings built after 1945 and before 1980 to determine the degree of physical accessibility for people with disabilities; may train school maintenance personnel to conduct on-site surveys to identify accessibility deficiencies in school buildings; and may prepare a report and workplan including schedules and cost estimates concerning necessary accessibility improvements. In preparing the report and workplan, the commissioner shall consult with and receive recommendations and priorities from the council on disability.

These activities shall be conducted in conjunction with the access survey being conducted for state-owned buildings, and the appropriation in Laws 1989, chapter 300, article 1, section 14, item (a), may be used for this purpose.

Sec. 19. CAPITOL AREA ARCHITECTURAL AND PLANNING BOARD

Roy Wilkins Memorial

300,000

The capitol area architectural and planning board shall establish a Roy Wilkins memorial in the capitol area. The board shall select an appropriate site for the memorial, establish design requirements, choose the design, and oversee construction of the memorial. In establishing the memorial, the board may accept money from nonstate sources and contract with other private or public agencies.

Sec. 20. NATURAL RESOURCES

Subdivision 1. To the commissioner of natural resources, except as otherwise specified, for the purposes specified in this section

17,950,000

Subd. 2. State Forests, Parks, and Trails

(a) To acquire state forest lands in the Richard J. Dorer Memorial Hardwood Forest

500,000

(b) For betterment of state parks according to the management plans required in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 86A

3,000,000

This appropriation is from the infrastructure development fund.

(c) To acquire and to better state trails

3,500,000

This appropriation is from the infrastructure development fund.

This appropriation is to acquire and to develop the Barnum to Carlton segment of the Willard Munger Trail, the Soo Line Trail, and the Paul Bunyan Trail.

Subd. 3. For the reinvest in Minnesota program under Minnesota Statutes, sections 40.40 to 40.45

3,000,000

This appropriation is from the infrastructure development fund.

Of this appropriation, $600,000 is for acquisition of scientific and natural areas.

Of this appropriation, $500,000 is for transfer to the critical habitat private sector matching account under Minnesota Statutes, section 84.943.

Subd. 4. To acquire and to better public water access sites under Minnesota Statutes, section 97A.141

700,000

Subd. 5. For flood plain management for grants under Minnesota Statutes, section 104.11

3,200,000

The commissioner of natural resources must give priority to projects with federal matching money and to projects currently under construction. Where practical, the commissioner shall encourage phased construction to maximize the number of projects started.

In the case of a grant for the Good Lake project in the Red Lake watershed district, the impoundment structure must be constructed on land leased to the Red Lake watershed district by the Red Lake Band of Chippewa Indians under a ground lease having an initial term of at least 20 years and a total term of at least 40 years, including renewal options. During the term of the ground lease the facilities constructed on the land will be owned by the watershed district.

Subd. 6. For the waterbank program under Minnesota Statutes, section 105.392

1,200,000

Subd. 7. Environmental Learning Centers

The commissioner in cooperation with other affected agencies and residential and nonresidential learning center directors shall develop a long-range plan for the development and program coordination of environmental learning centers statewide. The plan must focus on identifying programming needs, geographic areas to locate facilities, capital cost estimates for development and creation of a phased-in implementation strategy. The plan must be completed for presentation to the legislature by January 1, 1992.

Subd. 8. Repair Lake Bronson dam 300,000

Subd. 9. Buildings

The appropriations in this subdivision are to the commissioner of administration.

(a) Consolidate and renovate field offices statewide 1,000,000

(b) Replace underground storage tanks 250,000

(c) For phase 1 construction of the International Wolf Center 1,200,000

This appropriation is to the commissioner of administration to construct phase I of the International Wolf Center. The state board for community colleges and Vermilion community college shall assist in planning and constructing the facility. Vermilion community college shall serve as the administrative and fiscal agent for the International Wolf Center. Except for money specifically appropriated to the state board for community colleges for instructional programs affiliated with the International Wolf Center, operating or administrative costs for the International Wolf Center may not be provided from money appropriated to the state board for community colleges.

(d) Lac Qui Parle Visitor's Center 100,000

This appropriation is for planning and working drawings and archaeological excavation for a visitor center at Lac Qui Parle Wildlife Management Area.

The commissioner, in cooperation with the Minnesota Historical Society and the Chippewa Area Soil and Water Conservation District, shall develop a plan for a visitor center at Lac Qui Parle Wildlife Management Area to be located at the historic mission site, more specifically described as a parcel of land lying northeast of County Road 32 in the northeast quarter of the southwest quarter of Section 13, township 118 north, range 42 west. This center must include sufficient facilities to accommodate the needs of the Minnesota Historical Society to provide displays and interpretive facilities for the Native American culture and history of the area. The plan must allow for the development of the site in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, chapter 138 and be completed for presentation to the legislature by January 1, 1991.

Sec. 21. PUBLIC FACILITIES AUTHORITY

To the public facilities authority for the purposes specified in this section

30,954,000

(a) State Independent Grants Program under Minnesota Statutes, section 116.18, subdivision 3a

15,354,000

This appropriation is from the infrastructure development fund

$8,854,000 is for grants for reimbursement projects authorized prior to January 1, 1989, under Minnesota Statutes, section 116.18, subdivision 3a, paragraph (c), for fiscal year 1991 to be distributed pro rata among the communities in amounts not to exceed their eligible grants. This appropriation is not available to communities that are eligible for federal grants.

$5,500,000 is for continuation grants under Minnesota Statutes, section 116.18, subdivision 3a, paragraphs (a) and (b), for fiscal year 1991.

The legislative water commission shall study the financing of wastewater treatment projects. The study must include a review of the state independent grant program and recommendations on how the grant program should be modified to better complement the state revolving loan program. The department of trade and economic development and the pollution control agency shall cooperate in the study. The legislative water commission shall report its findings to the house and senate environment and natural resources committees, house appropriations committee, and the senate finance committee by January 1, 1991.

(b) State match to the federal grants to capitalize the state water pollution control revolving fund under Minnesota Statutes, section 446A.07

15,600,000

$8,900,000 is for fiscal year 1991

$6,700,000 is for fiscal year 1992

This appropriation is from the infrastructure development fund.

Any money in excess of the amount needed for the 20 percent state match to the federal grant may be used for grants under Minnesota Statutes, section 116.18, subdivisions 2a and 3a. Any money in excess of the amount needed to fund projects under paragraph (a), may be used for grants under Minnesota Statutes, section 116.18, subdivision 2a.

Sec. 22. POLLUTION CONTROL AGENCY

To the commissioner of the pollution control agency for the purposes specified in this section

27,225,000

(a) Combined sewer overflow grants under Minnesota Statutes, section 116.162

23,700,000

This appropriation is for the state's share of the cost of combined sewer overflow projects begun during fiscal years 1991 and 1992. The allocation to a city for projects begun in fiscal year 1991 or 1992 may be used, by choice of the city, to cover the shortfall in federal funding of projects begun by the city during fiscal year 1990, but the legislature does not intend to appropriate any more money for projects begun in fiscal year 1991 or 1992 because a city has chosen to use part of this appropriation for projects begun in fiscal year 1990.

Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the city of St. Paul shall use all revenues derived from its clawback funding of sewer financing only for sewer separation projects that directly result in the elimination of combined sewer overflow.

(b) Litigation Settlements

250,000

This appropriation is from the infrastructure development fund.

This appropriation is for payment to municipalities to assist in settling claims made against the municipalities in litigation to which the state and the municipality are parties involving the construction of municipal wastewater treatment facilities funded partly by state matching wastewater treatment grant funds. No payment may be made to settle litigation with a municipality eligible for funding under the corrective action grant program, Minnesota Statutes, section 116.181. No funds shall be used to pay litigation costs. Payment shall be subject to an agreement to which the state and the municipality are parties. Any funds not obligated by December 31, 1990, may be used for grants under Minnesota Statutes, section 116.18, subdivision 2a, or transferred to the public facilities authority for grants under Minnesota Statutes, section 116.18, subdivision 3a.

(c) Administrative costs under the wastewater construction grants program, Minnesota Statutes, section 116.18, subdivisions 2a and 3a

925,000

This appropriation is from the infrastructure development fund.

Effective July 1, 1991, bond proceeds may not be used to pay the salaries and other administrative expenses of state employees in the pollution control agency. The governor's budget request to the 1991 legislature should include a request for the amounts necessary to pay these expenses from the general fund or other funds that do not consist of bond proceeds.

(d) For supplemental grant adjustments to those municipalities identified in Minnesota Statutes, section 116.18, subdivision 3d

2,350,000

This appropriation is from the infrastructure development fund.

A supplemental grant must not exceed 2.5 percent of the total eligible construction costs.

Sec. 23. WASTE MANAGEMENT

To the director of the office of waste management for capital assistance program grants under Minnesota Statutes, section 115A.54

7,000,000

Sec. 24. TRADE AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

To the commissioner of trade and economic development for the purposes specified in this section

7,500,000

(a) Convention Center Facilities

500,000

This appropriation is for a grant to the city of Minneapolis to construct a convention center parking facility. The city of Minneapolis shall transfer to the Greater Minneapolis Convention and Visitors Association an annual amount equal to the projected debt service as a supplement to the association's budget.

(b) Local Recreation Grants

2,000,000

This appropriation is from the infrastructure development fund.

This appropriation is to acquire and to better recreation open space projects upon application by local units of government and Indian tribes and bands recognized by the federal government. Projects that receive federal grants must be given priority. A grant under this paragraph is not contingent upon the receipt of federal grants. A project may receive grant assistance of up to 50 percent of the total capital cost of the project or, if federal money is used, 50 percent of the local share. A project must not receive grant assistance of more than $400,000. A local unit of government must not receive more than one grant during each fiscal biennium.

$625,000 is granted for projects outside the metropolitan area that is defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 473.121, subdivision 2.

Up to ten percent of the appropriation for local recreation grants may be used for acquisition of park land that is currently used as a park and is being leased by a local unit of government. This portion of the appropriation is not subject to the 50 percent local match. A local unit of government receiving a grant under this provision must agree to operate and maintain the park.

(c) Metropolitan Open Space

5,000,000

This appropriation is from the infrastructure development fund.

This appropriation is for payment by the commissioner of energy and economic development to the metropolitan council established under Minnesota Statutes, section 473.123. The commissioner shall transfer the amount to the metropolitan council upon receipt of a certified copy of a council resolution requesting payment. The appropriation must be used to pay the cost of acquisition and betterment by the metropolitan council and local government units of regional recreational open space lands in accordance with the council's policy plan as provided in Minnesota Statutes, sections 473.315 and 473.341, including relocation costs and tax equivalents required to be paid by Minnesota Statutes, sections 473.315 and 473.341.

Using the authority granted in Minnesota Statutes, section 473.325, the metropolitan council may authorize the issuance of general obligation bonds of the council for the acquisition and betterment of regional recreational open space. The bonds must be issued as provided in and subject to the dollar limitation of Minnesota Statutes, section 473.325.

None of the proceeds from the sale of bonds authorized by this appropriation or by the sale of metropolitan council bonds may be used to reimburse a development agency of a city of the first class for land acquisition or development costs incurred prior to 1988.

(d) Duluth Zoo

The amount appropriated for a grant to the Duluth zoo in Laws 1989, chapter 335, article 1, section 25, subdivision 6, may be granted in more than one disbursement. Each disbursement is available after the commissioner of finance has determined that the portion of the grant to be disbursed has been matched by an equal amount from non-state sources.

The appropriation in Laws 1989, chapter 335, article 1, section 25, subdivision 6, of $500,000 in the first year for the Duluth Zoo does not cancel at the end of the first year and is available for the second year of the biennium.

Sec. 25. MINNESOTA AMATEUR
SPORTS COMMISSION

To the Minnesota amateur sports commission for the purposes specified in this section

5,000,000

(a) Construct Holmenkollen ski jump in Bloomington

2,500,000

This appropriation is for a grant to the city of Bloomington and is available only after the commissioner of finance has determined that the city of Bloomington has committed $2,500,000 and private contributors have committed $2,500,000 to complete the project.

(b) Construct indoor national shooting sports center at Giant's Ridge in Biwabik

2,500,000

This appropriation is for a grant to the iron range resources and rehabilitation board to construct a national shooting sports center for the Olympic sports of shooting and archery.

(c) Expand seating capacity of National Sports Center in Blaine

$8,500,000 is appropriated from the proceeds of sports facility revenue bonds.

This appropriation is not available until the commission has executed a contract with the United States Soccer Federation naming the National Sports Center in Blaine a site for the 1994 World Cup of Soccer and the commissioner of finance has determined that the sports commission has secured revenue from local and private sources that will be sufficient to retire the bonds sold to finance this appropriation. The bonds sold for this appropriation shall be revenue bonds. The legislature intends not to appropriate money from the general fund to pay for these bonds.

Transitional Housing

1,500,000

This appropriation is for transfer to the local government unit housing account created by new Minnesota Statutes, section 462A.202, in the housing development fund.

Sec. 27. MILITARY AFFAIRS

To the adjutant general to prepare plans for an education center at Camp Ripley

200,000

The adjutant general shall use the unencumbered balance from the appropriation in Laws 1984, chapter 597, section 9, paragraph (d), for the planning of a new armory and military affairs building. The department of military affairs shall continue to occupy the veterans service building until the department has secured the federal funds and the legislature has acted on a governor's recommendation for funding of a new armory/military affairs building.

Sec. 28. BOND SALE EXPENSES

To the commissioner of finance for bond sale expenses under Minnesota Statutes, section 16A.641, subdivision 8

386,000

Sec. 29. DEBT SERVICE

The commissioner of finance shall schedule the sale of state general obligation bonds so that, during the biennium ending June 30, 1991, no more than $369,000,000 will need to be transferred from the general fund to the state bond fund to pay principal and interest due and to become due on outstanding state general obligation bonds, other than general obligation special tax bonds or infrastructure development bonds. Before each sale of state general obligation bonds, the commissioner of finance shall calculate the amount of debt service payments needed on bonds previously issued and shall estimate the amount of debt service payments that will be needed on the bonds scheduled to be sold. The commissioner shall adjust the amount of bonds scheduled to be sold so as to remain within the limit set by this section. The amount needed to make the debt service payments is appropriated from the general fund as provided in Minnesota Statutes, section 16A.641.

Sec. 30. [BOND SALE.]

Subdivision 1. [BOND PROCEEDS FUND.] To provide the money appropriated in this act from the state bond proceeds fund the commissioner of finance, on request of the governor, shall sell and issue bonds of the state in an amount up to $109,525,000 in the manner, upon the terms, and with the effect prescribed by Minnesota Statutes, sections 16A.631 to 16A.675, and by the Minnesota Constitution, article XI, sections 4 to 7.

Subd. 2. [INFRASTRUCTURE DEVELOPMENT FUND.] To provide the money appropriated in this act from the infrastructure development fund, the commissioner of finance, on request of the governor, shall sell and issue bonds of the state in an amount up to $243,665,000 in the manner, upon the terms, and with the effect prescribed by Minnesota Statutes, sections 16A.631 to 16A.675, and by the Minnesota Constitution, article XI, sections 4 to 7.

Subd. 3. [TRANSPORTATION FUND.] To provide the money appropriated in this act from the state transportation fund, the commissioner of finance, on request of the governor, shall sell and issue bonds of the state in an amount up to $11,200,000 in the manner, upon the terms, and with the effect prescribed by Minnesota Statutes, sections 16A.631 to 16A.675, and by the Minnesota Constitution, article XI, sections 4 to 7. The proceeds of the bonds, except accrued interest and any premium received on the sale of the bonds, must be credited to a bond proceeds account in the state transportation fund.

Sec. 31. [PLANNING.]

During the biennium, in its planning for new program offerings at a particular institution, each public post-secondary education governing board shall consider the availability of physical space and the adequacy of facilities at that institution. If the board determines that new space or facilities are required, it shall examine the feasibility of developing the program at a different institution within its system or in cooperation with other systems.

Sec. 32. [BOND SALE REDUCTION.]

The bond sale authorization in Laws 1979, chapter 300, section 4, subdivision 3 for construction of local dams is reduced by $129,000.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 16A.631, is amended to read:

16A.631 [BOND PROCEEDS FUND.]

The bond proceeds fund is established to receive state bond the proceeds appropriated to agencies to acquire and to better public land and buildings and other public improvements of a capital nature, as authorized by of state bonds issued under the constitution, article XI, section 5, clause (a). The commissioner shall establish in the fund accounts having titles that reflect the state purpose or program for which the bond proceeds are appropriated and authorized to be expended.

Sec. 34. [16A.632] [CAPITAL ASSET PRESERVATION AND REPLACEMENT ACCOUNT.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] A capital asset preservation and replacement account is established in the state bond proceeds fund established by section 16A.631, separate from any other accounts maintained in that fund, to receive state bond proceeds appropriated to the commissioner of administration to be expended for the purpose and in accordance with the standards and criteria set forth in this section:

Subd. 2. [STANDARDS.] Article XI, section 5, clause (a), of the constitution states general obligation bonds may be issued to finance only the acquisition or betterment of state land, buildings, and improvements of a capital nature. In interpreting this and applying it to the purposes of the program contemplated in this section, the following standards are adopted for the disbursement of money from the capital asset preservation and replacement account:

(a) No new land, buildings, or major new improvements will be acquired. These projects, including all capital expenditures required to permit their effective use for the intended purpose on completion, will be estimated and provided for individually through a direct appropriation for each project.

(b) An expenditure will be made from the account only when it is a capital expenditure on a capital asset previously owned by the state, within the meaning of accepted accounting principles as applied to public expenditures. The commissioner of administration will consult with the commissioner of finance to the extent necessary to ensure this and will furnish the commissioner of finance a list of projects to be financed from the account in order of their priority. The commissioner shall also furnish each revision of the list. The legislature assumes that many provisions for preservation and replacement of portions of existing capital assets will constitute betterments and capital improvements within the meaning of the constitution and capital expenditures under correct accounting principles, and will be financed more efficiently and economically under the program than by direct appropriations for specific projects. However, the purpose of the program is to accumulate data showing how additional costs may be saved by appropriating money from the general fund for preservation measures, the necessity of which is predictable over short periods.

(c) The commissioner of administration will furnish instructions to agencies to apply for funding of capital expenditures for preservation and replacement from the account, will review applications, will make initial allocations among types of eligible projects enumerated below, will determine priorities, and will allocate money in priority order until the available appropriation has been committed. Under section 14.02, subdivision 4, these instructions and allocations do not constitute rules and the other provisions of chapter 14 do not apply to them.

(d) Categories of projects considered likely to be most needed and appropriate for financing are the following:

(1) unanticipated emergencies of all kinds, for which a relatively small amount should be initially reserved, replaced from money allocated to low-priority projects, if possible, as emergencies occur, and used for stabilization rather than replacement if the cost would exhaust the account and should be specially appropriated;

(2) projects to remove life safety hazards, like replacement of mechanical systems, building code violations, or structural defects, at costs not large enough to require major capital requests to the legislature;

(3) elimination or containment of hazardous substances like asbestos or PCBs; and

(4) moderate cost replacement and repair of roofs, windows, tuckpointing, and structural members necessary to preserve the exterior and interior of existing buildings.

Subd. 3. [CRITERIA FOR PRIORITY.] Criteria can be stated only in general terms, as it is the purpose of the program to improve the allocation of limited amounts of borrowed money by enlisting the engineering expertise of the department of administration and the closer knowledge and experience of this and all other agencies in determining relative needs as they develop. The following criteria must be considered:

(a) Urgency in ensuring the safety of use of existing buildings is the first criterion to be applied. It will require judgments, for example, about the useful life of electric and mechanical systems and roofs, in relation to the remaining useful life of each building, and about the presence of hazardous substances and structural defects in the light of present building regulations.

(b) Economy is also to be determined and may even reinforce a decision based on the first criterion, if the project would forestall a larger future capital expenditure or would reduce operating expense.

(c) Absolute cost must also be considered. It may be too high to warrant funding except by an additional appropriation, or so high as to warrant a recommendation to abandon or to replace the building. It may be so low as to permit payment out of an agency's operating budget.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 16A.641, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [TAXABILITY; CERTIFICATION.] The commissioner shall ascertain from state records and certify to the holders of each series of state bonds, subject to the approval of the attorney general, that all conditions exist and all actions have been taken that are needed to make the bonds valid and binding general obligations of the state in accordance with their terms. The commissioner shall also certify for the state the facts, estimates, and circumstances on the date of issue that lead the commissioner reasonably to expect that the proceeds will not be used in a way that would make the bonds arbitrage bonds under section 103(e) of the Internal Revenue Code and related federal regulations.

The bonds may be issued with or without regard to whether the interest to be paid on them is includable in gross income for federal tax purposes. If it is intended that the interest on the bonds be exempt from federal income taxes, the commissioner shall certify for the state on the date of issue the facts, estimates, and circumstances that lead the commissioner reasonably to expect that the proceeds of the bonds and the projects financed by them will not be used in a way that would cause the interest on the bonds to be subject to federal income taxes. The commissioner may covenant with the holders of the bonds that the state will comply with the provisions of the United States Internal Revenue Code then or later enacted that apply or may apply to the bonds and that establish conditions under which the interest to be paid on the bonds will not be subject to federal income taxes. The commissioner and all other state officers shall act or refrain from acting as necessary to comply with the covenants. A sum sufficient to meet the cost of compliance is annually appropriated to the commissioner from the general fund.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 16A.641, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [CREDIT OF PROCEEDS.] (a) Proceeds of bonds issued under each law must be credited by the commissioner to a special fund, as provided in this subdivision.

(b) Accrued interest and any premium received on sale of the bonds must be credited to the state bond fund created by the constitution, article XI, section 7.

(c) Except as otherwise provided by law, proceeds of state building bonds issued under the constitution, article XI, section 5, clause (a), must be credited to the bond proceeds fund ~~under~~ established by section 16A.631.

(d) Proceeds of state highway bonds must be credited to the trunk highway fund under the constitution, article XIV, section 6.

(e) Proceeds of bonds issued for programs of grants or loans to political subdivisions must be credited to special accounts in the bond proceeds fund or to special funds established by laws stating the purposes of the grants or loans, and the standards and criteria under which an executive agency is authorized to make them.

(f) Proceeds of refunding bonds must be credited to the state bond fund as provided in section 16A.66, subdivision 1.

(g) Proceeds of other bonds must be credited as provided in the law authorizing their issuance.

Sec. 37. [16A.662] [INFRASTRUCTURE DEVELOPMENT BONDS.]

Subdivision 1. [INFRASTRUCTURE DEVELOPMENT FUND.] The infrastructure development fund is created as an account in the state treasury. The commissioner of finance shall credit to the fund income from the sources provided by law. The commissioner of finance shall from time to time certify to the state board of investment the assets of the fund not currently needed. The amount certified must be invested by the state board of investment subject to section 11A.24. Investment income and investment losses attributable to investment of fund assets must be credited to or borne by the fund.

Subd. 2. [BONDS AUTHORIZED.] When authorized by law enacted in accordance with the constitution, article XI, sections 5 and 7, the commissioner may by order sell and issue infrastructure development bonds of the state evidencing public debt incurred for any purpose stated in the law. The bonds are general obligations of the state, and the full faith and credit of the state are pledged for their payment.

Subd. 3. [MANNER OF ISSUANCE; MATURITIES.] The bonds must be issued and sold in accordance with section 16A.641. Sections 16A.672 and 16A.675 apply to the bonds.

Subd. 4. [ESTABLISHMENT OF DEBT SERVICE ACCOUNT; APPROPRIATION OF DEBT SERVICE ACCOUNT MONEY.] There is established within the state bond fund a separate and special account designated as the infrastructure development bond debt service account. There must be transferred to this debt service account in each fiscal year from money in the infrastructure development fund, other than bond proceeds and interest earned on bond proceeds, an amount sufficient to increase the balance on hand in the debt service account on each December 1 to an amount equal to the full amount of principal and interest to come due on all outstanding infrastructure development bonds to and including the second following July 1. The amount necessary to make the transfer is appropriated from the infrastructure development fund. The money on hand in the debt service account must be used solely for the payment of the principal of, and interest on, the bonds, and is appropriated for this purpose. This appropriation does not cancel as long as any of the bonds remain outstanding.

Subd. 5. [ASSESSMENT TO HIGHER EDUCATION SYSTEMS.] (a) In order to reduce the amount otherwise required to be transferred under subdivision 4, the commissioner of finance shall assess each higher education system for one-third the amount that would otherwise need to be transferred with respect to infrastructure development bonds sold to finance capital improvement projects at institutions under the control of the system; provided that, to the extent that the amount to be transferred is for payment of principal and interest on bonds sold to finance life safety improvements, the commissioner must not assess the higher education systems for the transfer.

(b) After each sale of infrastructure development bonds, the commissioner of finance shall notify the state board for vocational technical education, the state board for community colleges, the state university board, and the regents of the University of Minnesota of the amounts for which each system is responsible for each year for the life of the bonds. The amounts payable each year are reduced by one-third of the net income from investment of infrastructure development bond proceeds that must be allocated among the systems in proportion to the amount of principal and interest otherwise required to be paid by each. Each higher education system shall pay its annual share of debt service payments to the commissioner of finance by December 1 each year. If a higher education system fails to make a payment when due, the commissioner of finance shall reduce allotments for appropriations from the general fund otherwise payable to the system to cover the amount of the missed debt service payment. The commissioner of finance shall credit the payments received from the higher education systems to the infrastructure development bond debt service account in the state bond fund each December 1 before the transfer is made under subdivision 4.

Subd. 6. [APPROPRIATION FROM GENERAL FUND.] There is annually appropriated from the general fund for transfer to the infrastructure development bond debt service account the amount that, added to the amount in the infrastructure development bond debt service account on December 1 each year, after giving effect to subdivisions 4 and 5, is equal to the full amount of principal and interest to come due on all bonds to and including July 1 in the second ensuing year.

Subd. 7. [CONSTITUTIONAL TAX LEVY.] Under the constitution, article XI, section 7, the state auditor must levy each year on all taxable property within the state a tax sufficient, with the amount then on hand in the infrastructure development bond debt service account, to pay all principal and interest on the bonds due and to become due to and including July 1 in the second ensuing year. The tax is not subject to limit as to rate or amount. However, the amount of money appropriated from other sources as provided in subdivisions 4, 5, and 6, and actually received and on hand before the levy in any year, reduces the amount of the tax otherwise required to be levied. The proceeds of the tax must be credited to the infrastructure development bond debt service account.

Subd. 8. [APPLICATION AND APPROPRIATION OF PROCEEDS.] The proceeds of the bonds must be deposited and spent as provided in this subdivision and are appropriated for those purposes. Any accrued interest and any premium received on the sale of the bonds must be credited to the infrastructure development bond debt service account. Except as otherwise required by law, the balance of the bond proceeds shall be credited to the infrastructure development fund and spent for the purposes specified in the law authorizing the issuance of the bonds. So much of the proceeds as is necessary must be used to pay costs incurred in issuing and selling the bonds.

Sec. 38. [TUITION NOT INCREASED.]

Tuition must not be increased to meet each higher education system's annual share of debt service payments. Existing internal resources must be used to meet each system's share as follows: (i) existing instructional funds must be used for capital improvement projects for instructional purposes, and (ii) existing noninstructional funds must be used for capital improvement projects for noninstructional purposes. This section is repealed July 1, 1991.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 16A.672, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9a. [TAXABILITY; CERTIFICATION.] Certificates may be issued with or without regard to whether the interest to be paid on them is includable in gross income for federal tax purposes. If it is intended that the interest on the certificates be exempt from federal income taxes, the commissioner shall certify for the state on the date of issue the facts, estimates, and circumstances that lead the commissioner reasonably to expect that the proceeds of the certificates will not be used in a way that would cause the interest on the certificates to be subject to federal income taxes. The commissioner may covenant with the holders of the certificates that the state will comply with the provisions of the United States Internal Revenue Code then or later enacted that apply or may apply to the certificates and that establish conditions under which the interest to be paid on the certificates will not be subject to federal income taxes. The commissioner and all other state officers shall act or refrain from acting as necessary to comply with the covenants. A sum sufficient to meet the cost of compliance is annually appropriated to the commissioner from the general fund.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 16A.69, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [APPROPRIATIONS INTO SINGLE PROJECT ACCOUNT.] The commissioner shall place the money from two or more appropriations for the same or related projects in one account if all the appropriations do not lapse until their purposes are accomplished or abandoned. The commissioner of administration agency to whom the appropriation was made shall first certify which accounts are involved to the commissioner.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 16B.31, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [STATE BUILDINGS.] (a) The commissioner of administration, in cooperation with the commissioner of finance shall:

(1) establish a state building classification system for state-owned buildings, with each class representing a different quality of building construction, to be incorporated into the capital budget format and instructions; and

(2) create and maintain an inventory of all major state buildings and office space owned or leased by the state, including a classification system on the condition and suitability of each major building.

(b) The commissioner of administration shall present to the legislature a supportable cost analysis whenever the commissioner proposes, for the purpose of providing state agency office space, to:

(1) enter into a lease for more than 50,000 square feet or for more than five years;

(2) enter into a lease-purchase agreement or an agreement to lease with option to buy property;

(3) purchase an existing building; or

(4) construct a new building.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 16B.335, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [OTHER PROJECTS.] All other capital projects except for those contained in agency operations budgets, including building improvements, small structures at experiment stations, asbestos removal, life safety, PCB removal, tuckpointing, roof repair, code compliance, landscaping, drainage, electrical and mechanical systems work, paving of streets, parking lots, and the like must not proceed until the agency undertaking the project has notified the chair of the senate finance committee and the chair of the house appropriations committee that the work is ready to begin.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 1160.12, is amended to read:

1160.12 [GREATER MINNESOTA ACCOUNT.]

(a) The Greater Minnesota account is in the special revenue fund. Money in the account not needed for the immediate purposes of the corporation may be invested by the state board of investment in any way authorized by section 11A.24. Money in the account is appropriated to the corporation to be used as provided in this chapter.

(b) The account consists of:

(1) money appropriated and transferred from other state funds;

(2) fees and charges collected by the corporation;

(3) income from investments and purchases;

(4) revenue from loans, rentals, royalties, dividends, and other proceeds collected in connection with lawful corporate purposes;

(5) gifts, donations, and bequests made to the corporation; and

(6) through the first five full fiscal years, during which proceeds from the lottery are received, one-half of the net proceeds of the state-operated lottery must be credited to the Greater Minnesota Corporation account. Thereafter, up to one-half, as determined by law each biennium, of the net proceeds from the state-operated lottery must be credited to the Greater Minnesota Corporation account other income credited to the account by law.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 116P.04, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [REVENUE.] Revenue collected in accordance with subdivision 2 must be deposited monthly in the trust fund account. Nothing in sections 116P.01 to 116P.12 limits the source of contributions to the trust fund.

Sec. 45. [BOND ISSUE; MAXIMUM EFFORT LOANS; 1990.]

To provide money to be loaned to school districts as agencies and political subdivisions of the state to acquire and to better public land and buildings and other public improvements of a capital nature, in the manner provided by the maximum effort school aid law, the commissioner of finance shall issue and sell school loan bonds of the state of Minnesota in the maximum amount of $23,000,000, in addition to the bonds already authorized for this purpose. The bonds must be issued and sold and provision for their payment must be made according to section 124.46. Expenses incidental to the sale, printing, execution, and delivery of the bonds, including, but without limitation, actual and necessary travel and subsistence expenses of state officers and employees for those purposes, must be paid from the maximum effort school loan fund, and the money necessary for the expenses is appropriated from that fund.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 136.62, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [AUTHORIZATION TO SEEK FINANCING.] A community college must not seek financing for child care facilities through the higher education facilities authority, as provided in section 47, without the explicit authorization of the state board.

Sec. 47. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 136A.28, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. "Project" means a structure or structures available for use as a dormitory or other student housing facility, a dining hall, student union, administration building, academic building, library, laboratory, research facility, classroom, athletic facility, health care facility, child care facility, and maintenance, storage, or utility facility and other structures or facilities related thereto or required or useful for the instruction of students or the conducting of research or the operation of an institution of higher education, whether proposed, under construction, or completed, including parking and other facilities or structures essential or convenient for the orderly conduct of such institution for higher education, and shall also include landscaping, site preparation, furniture, equipment and machinery and other similar items necessary or convenient for the operation of a particular facility or structure in the manner for which its use is intended but shall not include such items as books, fuel, supplies or other items the costs of which are customarily deemed to result in a current operating charge, and shall not include any facility used or to be used for sectarian instruction or as a place of religious worship nor any facility which is used or to be used primarily in connection with any part of the program of a school or department of divinity for any religious denomination.

Sec. 48. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 136A.28, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. "Participating institution of higher education" means an institution of higher education ~~which, pursuant to that, under the provisions of sections 136A.25 to 136A.42, undertakes the financing and construction or acquisition of a project or undertakes the refunding or refinancing of obligations or of a mortgage or of advances as provided in sections 136A.25 to 136A.42.~~ Community colleges and technical colleges may be considered participating institutions of higher education for the purpose of financing and constructing child care facilities.

Sec. 49. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 136C.04, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [BUDGET REQUESTS.] The state board shall review and approve, disapprove, or modify the biennial budget requests for post-secondary vocational education operations and facilities submitted by the state director. The state board shall submit the approved biennial budget requests to the governor. A technical college must not seek financing for child care facilities through the higher education facilities authority, as provided in section 47, without the explicit authorization of the state board.

Sec. 50. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 136C.05, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [USE OF PROPERTY.] (a) A school board must not sell, lease, or assign technical institute property for purposes other than technical institute activities without the approval of the state director. A school board need not obtain approval for uses that are incidental.

(b) Notwithstanding section 123.36, subdivision 13, proceeds from the sale, exchange, lease, or assignment of technical college land or buildings shall be used to repay any remaining debt service on the land or buildings. Subject to the approval of the state director, any remaining proceeds shall be placed in the post-secondary capital expenditure, repair and replacement, or construction fund.

(c) The proceeds of any arbitration or litigation resulting from claims involving technical college property shall be placed in the technical college repair and replacement fund.

Sec. 51. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 136C.07, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. No district shall expend funds from any source for the acquisition or betterment of lands or buildings ~~or~~, for capital improvements, or for plans or specifications for betterment of lands or buildings needed for a technical institute without the approval of the state board and authorization by specific legislative act if that acquisition, betterment or capital improvement requires the expenditure of $250,000 or more, or adds more than 1,000 gross square feet to a post-secondary vocational facility, or requires the issuance of school district bonds. No acquisition or betterment of lands or buildings or capital improvement which requires the expenditure of $50,000 or more but less than $250,000 or which changes the perimeter walls of an existing facility shall be carried out without the approval of the state board. No acquisition or betterment of lands or buildings or capital improvement which requires the expenditure of less than $50,000, which does not change a perimeter wall and which does not require the issuance of school district bonds, shall be carried out without the approval of the state director of vocational technical education. As used in this subdivision, the terms "acquisition" and "betterment," as applied to lands and buildings, and "capital improvement" shall have the meanings ascribed to them in chapter 475, but shall not include the acquisition or betterment of machinery or equipment.

Sec. 52: Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 349A.10, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [DEPOSIT OF NET PROCEEDS.] Within 30 days after the end of each month, the director shall pay to the state treasurer deposit in the state treasury the net proceeds of the lottery, which is the balance in the lottery fund after transfers to the lottery prize fund and credits to the lottery operations account. Of the net proceeds, 40 percent must be credited to the Minnesota environment and natural resources trust fund, 28.3 percent must be credited to the infrastructure development fund for capital improvement projects at state institutions of higher education, 6.7 percent must be credited to the infrastructure development fund for capital improvement projects to develop or protect the state's environment and natural resources, and, through the first ten full fiscal years during which proceeds from the lottery are received, 25 percent must be credited to the Greater Minnesota account in the special revenue fund.

Sec. 53. [462A.202] [LOCAL GOVERNMENT UNIT HOUSING ACCOUNT]

Subdivision 1. [ACCOUNT.] The local government unit housing account is established as a separate account in the housing development fund. Money in the account is appropriated to the agency for the purposes specified in this section.

Subd. 2. [TRANSITIONAL HOUSING.] The agency may make loans or grants to local government units to finance the acquisition, improvement, and rehabilitation of existing housing properties for the purposes of providing transitional housing, upon terms and conditions the agency determines. Preference must be given to local government units that propose to acquire properties being sold by the resolution trust corporation or the department of housing and urban development. The local government unit may contract with a nonprofit or for-profit organization to manage the property and to operate a transitional housing program on the property on behalf of the local government unit, on terms and conditions approved by the agency. The local government unit shall retain ownership of the property for at least 20 years. After 20 years, the sale of a property before the expiration of its useful life must be at its fair market value, and the net proceeds of sale must be used for the same purpose or repaid to the agency for deposit in the local government unit housing account.

Subd. 3. [PUBLICLY OWNED HOUSING REHABILITATION AND MODERNIZATION.] The agency may make loans or grants to local government units to finance the rehabilitation and modernization of publicly owned housing units. The local government unit shall retain ownership of the property for at least 20 years. The sale of property prior to the expiration of its useful life shall be at its fair market value, and the net proceeds of sale shall be used for the same purpose or repaid to the agency for deposit in the account established in subdivision 1.

Subd. 4. [SUBSIDIZED RENTAL HOUSING PRESERVATION.] The agency may make loans or grants to local government units to finance the acquisition and rehabilitation of federally subsidized multifamily rental housing for the purpose of preserving the housing for the use of low- and moderate-income persons, upon the terms and conditions as the agency may determine. The local government unit may contract with a nonprofit or for-profit organization to manage the property, on terms and conditions approved by the agency. The local government unit shall retain ownership of the property for at least 20 years. The sale of a property prior to the expiration of its useful life shall be at its fair market value, and the net proceeds of sale shall be used for the same purpose or repaid to the agency for deposit in the account established in subdivision 1.

Subd. 5. [SPECIFIC APPROPRIATION NECESSARY.] The agency may only make grants or loans to local governments under subdivisions 3 and 4 from funds specifically appropriated by the legislature for that purpose.

Sec. 54. [CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.]

The following amendment to the Minnesota Constitution, article XI, section 14, is proposed to the people. If the amendment is adopted, the section will read as follows:

Sec. 14. A permanent Minnesota environment and natural resources trust fund is established in the state treasury. The principal of the environment and natural resources trust fund must be perpetual and inviolate forever, except appropriations may be made from up to 25 percent of the annual revenues deposited in the fund until fiscal year 1997 and loans may be made of up to five percent of the principal of the fund for water system improvements as provided by law. This restriction does not prevent the sale of investments at less than the cost to the fund, however, all losses not offset by gains shall be repaid to the fund from the earnings of the fund. The net earnings from the fund shall be appropriated in a manner prescribed by law for the public purpose of protection, conservation, preservation, and enhancement of the state's air, water, land, fish, wildlife, and other natural resources. Not less than 40 percent of the net proceeds from any state-operated lottery must be credited to the fund until the year 2001.

Sec. 55. [SUBMISSION TO VOTERS.]

The proposed amendment shall be submitted to the people at the 1990 general election. The question submitted shall be:

"Shall the Minnesota Constitution be amended to dedicate not less than 40 percent of the net proceeds from the state lottery to the Minnesota environment and natural resources trust fund for environment, natural resources, and wildlife purposes until the year 2001?"

Yes
No

Sec. 56. Laws 1979, chapter 280, section 2, as amended by Laws 1982, chapter 617, section 25, Laws 1985, chapter 299, section 39, Laws 1985, First Special Session, chapter 16, article 2, section 16, and Laws 1989, chapter 300, article 1, section 34, is amended to read:

Sec. 2. [APPROPRIATION.] Subdivision 1. $60,000,000, or so much thereof as is determined to be needed, is appropriated from the Minnesota state transportation fund to the department of transportation to be expended for disbursement in the form of grants by the commissioner of transportation for construction and reconstruction of key bridges on the state transportation system and shall be allocated pursuant to subdivisions 2 and 3. The appropriation shall not lapse, but shall remain available until expended.

Subd. 2. ~~$58,500,000~~ (a) $59,309,000 or so much thereof as is needed, is available for expenditure for grants to political subdivisions for construction and reconstruction of key bridges on highways, streets and roads under their jurisdiction. The grants shall not exceed the following aggregate amounts:

(1) To counties ~~$16,220,000~~ $16,720,000

(2) To home rule charter and statutory cities ~~$2,620,000~~
$2,729,000

(3) To towns ~~$23,160,000~~ $23,360,000

(b) Grants under clauses (1) to (3) may be used by political subdivisions to match federal-aid grants for construction and reconstruction of key bridges under their jurisdictions. Additional grants may be made in an aggregate amount not to exceed $16,500,000 to the political subdivisions to match federal-aid grants for construction and reconstruction of key bridges under their jurisdiction. Appropriations made in subdivisions 1, 2, or and 3 may also be used for the following purposes:

(1) The costs of abandoning an existing bridge that is deficient and is in need of replacement, but where no replacement will be made.

(2) The costs of constructing a road or street that would facilitate the abandonment of an existing bridge determined to be deficient. The construction of the road or street must be judged to be more cost efficient than the reconstruction or replacement of the existing bridge.

Subd. 3. An additional amount not to exceed ~~$1,500,000~~ $691,000 is available for grants for preliminary engineering and environmental studies pursuant to ~~section 3~~ Minnesota Statutes, section 174.50, subdivision 6a.

Sec. 57. Laws 1989, chapter 329, article 5, section 21, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [MAXIMUM EFFORT SCHOOL LOAN FUND.] For the maximum effort school loan fund:

$855,500 1990

~~$2,100,000~~ $3,082,000 1991

These appropriations shall be placed in the loan repayment account of the maximum effort school loan fund for the payment of the principal and interest on school loan bonds, as provided in Minnesota Statutes, section 124.46, to the extent that money in the fund is not sufficient to pay when due the full amount of principal and interest due on school loan bonds. The purpose of these appropriations is to ensure that sufficient money is available in the fund to prevent a statewide property tax levy as would otherwise be required pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 124.46, subdivision 3. Notwithstanding the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, section 124.39, subdivision 5, any amount of the appropriation made in this section which is not needed to pay when due the principal and interest due on school loan bonds shall not be transferred to the debt service loan account of the maximum effort school loan fund but instead shall cancel and revert to the general fund.

The 1990 appropriation does not cancel and is available until July 1, 1991.

Sec. 58. [JOINT LEGISLATIVE STUDY.]

Subdivision 1. [MEMBERSHIP.] A joint legislative study on capital needs shall be conducted. The study shall be overseen by a panel composed of the following:

(1) four members of the senate, two of whom must be members of the majority caucus and two of whom must be members of the minority caucus, appointed by the subcommittee on committees of the committee on rules and administration;

(2) four members of the house of representatives, two of whom must be members of the majority caucus and two of whom must be members of the minority caucus, appointed by the speaker;

(3) the commissioner of finance or the commissioner's designee; and

(4) the commissioner of administration or the commissioner's designee.

Subd. 2. [DUTIES.] The study shall consider ways to improve the process for planning and funding state capital projects. The study shall consider:

(1) current and future needs for new state buildings;

- (2) repair and maintenance needs of existing buildings;
- (3) existing and future use of leased office space or buildings;
- (4) all matters concerning the maintenance, remodeling, and furnishing of the governor's residence;
- (5) other public capital improvements;
- (6) methods of improving the capital budget process;
- (7) including operating costs for all recommended building or remodeling projects in capital budget requests;
- (8) establishing and continually maintaining a long-term plan for state building needs and capital improvements;
- (9) examining alternative methods of planning state capital improvements;
- (10) examining alternative methods of financing state capital improvements;
- (11) determining the kinds and scope of projects that should be funded with bond proceeds; and
- (12) whether a building commission should be established.

Subd. 3. [REPORT.] The findings and recommendations of the study shall be reported to the house appropriations and senate finance committees by February 1, 1991.

Sec. 59. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 16A.651; 16A.661, subdivision 6; and 116P.04, subdivision 2, are repealed.

Sec. 60. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This article is effective the day after its final enactment. Section 51 applies to plans and specifications prepared after that date.

ARTICLE 2

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 16B.16, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [LEGISLATIVE INTENT.] The purpose of the energy efficiency installment purchase contracts authorized by this section is to save money on energy costs. The entire cost of the contract must be a percentage of the resultant savings in energy costs. Neither the state nor any state agency is liable to make payments on the contract except to the extent that there are savings in energy costs that must be shared with other parties to the contract. The legislature intends not to appropriate any more money to pay for energy costs as a result of these contracts than would be payable without them.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 41A.03, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [LIMITATION ON LIABILITY.] The liability of the state for loan guaranties or bonds authorized under this chapter is limited to the amount of funds appropriated to the guaranty fund pursuant to section 41A.06. The legislature intends not to appropriate money from the general fund to the guaranty fund, other than the sales and use taxes from a project as provided for in section 41A.06, subdivision 4. The loan guaranties or bonds are not a general obligation or debt of the state.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 136.31, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. All references in sections 136.31 to 136.38 to the state university board shall be deemed and construed to include any successor thereof created or established by law. The state university board is hereby authorized to do the following:

(a) acquire by purchase or otherwise, construct, complete, remodel, equip, operate, control, and manage residence halls, dormitories, dining halls, student union buildings and any other similar revenue-producing buildings of such type and character as said board shall from time to time find necessary for the good and benefit of any of the state universities under the jurisdiction of said board, and for that purpose may acquire property of any and every kind and description, whether real, personal or mixed, by gift, purchase or otherwise; provided that no contract for the construction of any building shall be entered into until financing therefor has been approved by the legislature;

(b) maintain and operate any such buildings or structures and charge for the use thereof, and carry on such activities, as are commonly conducted in connection with any such buildings or structures;

(c) enter into contracts touching in any manner or any matter within the objects and purposes of sections 136.31 to 136.38;

(d) acquire building sites and buildings or structures by gift, purchase or otherwise and pledge the revenues thereof for the payment of any bonds issued for such purpose as provided in sections 136.31 to 136.38;

(e) borrow money and issue and sell bonds in such amount or amounts as the legislature shall authorize for the purpose of acquiring, constructing, completing, remodeling, or equipping any such buildings or structures, and acquiring sites therefor, and refund and refinance the same from time to time by the issuance and sale of refunding bonds as often as it shall in the board's judgment be advantageous to the public interest so to do. All such bonds shall be sold and issued by said board in the manner and upon the terms and conditions provided by chapter 475, except as otherwise provided in this section. Such bonds shall be payable solely from and secured by an irrevocable pledge of the revenues to be derived from the operation of any such buildings or structures acquired, constructed, completed, remodeled, or equipped in whole or in part with the proceeds of such bonds and in addition thereto from such other income and revenues described in section 136.33, clause (a) as said board by resolution shall specify, and notwithstanding this limitation all bonds issued hereunder shall have the qualities of negotiable instruments under the laws of this state. The legislature intends not to appropriate money from the general fund to pay for these bonds.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 136A.176, is amended to read:

136A.176 [BONDS NOT STATE OBLIGATIONS.]

Bonds issued under authority of sections 136A.15 to 136A.179 do not, and shall state that they do not, represent or constitute a debt or pledge of the faith and credit of the state, grant to the owners or holders thereof any right to have the state levy any taxes or appropriate any funds for the payment of the principal thereof or interest thereon. Such bonds are payable and shall state that they are payable solely from the rentals, revenues, and other income, charges, and moneys as are pledged for their payment in accordance with the bond proceedings. The legislature intends not to appropriate money from the general fund to pay for these bonds.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 136A.35, is amended to read:

136A.35 [BONDS ARE NOT STATE OBLIGATION.]

Bonds issued under authority of sections 136A.25 to 136A.42 do not, and shall state that they do not, represent or constitute a debt or pledge of the faith and credit of the state, grant to the owners or holders thereof any right to have the state levy any taxes or appropriate any funds for the payment of the principal thereof or interest thereon. Such bonds are payable and shall state that they are payable solely from the rentals, revenues, and other income, charges, and moneys as are pledged for their payment in accordance with the bond proceedings. The legislature intends not to appropriate money from the general fund to pay for these bonds.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 298.2211, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [OBLIGATIONS NOT STATE DEBT.] Bonds and other obligations issued by the commissioner pursuant to this section, along with all related documents, are not general obligations of the state of Minnesota and are not subject to section 16B.06. The full faith and credit and taxing powers of the state are not and may not be pledged for the payment of these bonds or other obligations, and no person has the right to compel the levy of any state tax for their payment or to compel the appropriation of any moneys of the state for their payment except as specifically provided herein. These bonds and obligations shall be payable solely from the property and moneys derived by the commissioner pursuant to the authority granted in this section that the commissioner pledges to their payment. The legislature intends not to appropriate money from the general fund to pay for these bonds or other obligations. All these bonds or other obligations must contain the provisions of this subdivision or words to the same effect on their face.

SPECIAL ORDERS

H. F. No. 2817 was reported to the House.

Bishop moved to amend H. F. No. 2817, as follows:

Page 2, after line 10, insert:

"Sec. 3 [CORR 2] [OMITTED EFFECTIVE DATE; MOBERG TRAIL.]

Laws 1990, chapter 357, is effective the day following final enactment of this section.

Sec. 4 [CORR 5] [REGULATED LOANS; NONADJUSTMENT OF DOLLAR AMOUNTS.]

Notwithstanding section 56.131, subdivision 4, or other law to the contrary, the dollar amounts specified in section 56.131, subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (1), shall not be adjusted on July 1, 1990.

Sec. 5 [CORR 6] Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 62A.316, as amended by Laws 1990, chapter 403, section 5, is amended to read:

62A.316 [BASIC MEDICARE SUPPLEMENT PLAN; COVERAGE.]

(a) The basic Medicare supplement plan must have a level of coverage that will provide:

(1) coverage for all of the Medicare part A inpatient hospital coinsurance amounts, and 100 percent of all Medicare part A eligible expenses for hospitalization not covered by Medicare for the calendar year, after satisfying the Medicare part A deductible;

(2) coverage for the daily copayment amount of Medicare part A eligible expenses for the calendar year incurred for skilled nursing facility care;

(3) coverage for the 20 percent copayment amount of Medicare eligible expenses excluding outpatient prescription drugs under Medicare part B regardless of hospital confinement for Medicare part B after the Medicare deductible amount;

(4) coverage for the reasonable cost of the first three pints of blood, or equivalent quantities of packed red blood cells as defined under federal regulations under Medicare parts A and B, unless replaced in accordance with federal regulations; and

(5) 100 percent of the cost of immunizations.

(b) Only the following optional benefit riders may be added to this plan:

(1) coverage for all of the Medicare part A inpatient hospital deductible amount;

(2) a minimum of 80 percent of usual and customary eligible medical expenses and supplies not covered by Medicare part B eligible expenses. This does not include outpatient prescription drugs;

(3) coverage for all of the Medicare part B annual deductible; and

(4) coverage for at least 50 percent, or the equivalent of 50 percent, of usual and customary prescription drug expenses.

Nothing in this section prohibits the plan from requiring that services be received from providers designated as preferred providers or participating providers in order to receive coverage under optional benefit riders.

Sec. 6 [CORR 9] Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 144A.071, subdivision 3, as amended by Laws 1990, chapter 472, section 1, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [EXCEPTIONS.] The commissioner of health, in coordination with the commissioner of human services, may approve the addition of a new certified bed or the addition of a new licensed nursing home bed, under the following conditions:

(a) to replace a bed decertified after May 23, 1983, or to address an extreme hardship situation, in a particular county that, together with all contiguous Minnesota counties, has fewer nursing home beds per 1,000 elderly than the number that is ten percent higher than the national average of nursing home beds per 1,000 elderly individuals. For the purposes of this section, the national average of nursing home beds shall be the most recent figure that can be supplied by the federal health care financing administration and the number of elderly in the county or the nation shall be determined by the most recent federal census or the most recent estimate of the state demographer as of July 1, of each year of persons age 65 and older, whichever is the most recent at the time of the request for replacement. In allowing replacement of a decertified bed, the commissioners shall ensure that the number of added or recertified beds does not exceed the total number of decertified beds in the state in that level of care. An extreme hardship situation can only be found after the county documents the existence of unmet medical needs that cannot be addressed by any other alternatives;

(b) to certify a new bed in a facility that commenced construction before May 23, 1983. For the purposes of this section, "commenced construction" means that all of the following conditions were met: the final working drawings and specifications were approved by the commissioner of health; the construction contracts were let; a timely construction schedule was developed, stipulating dates for beginning, achieving various stages, and completing construction; and all zoning and building permits were secured;

(c) to certify beds in a new nursing home that is needed in order to meet the special dietary needs of its residents, if: the nursing home proves to the commissioner's satisfaction that the needs of its residents cannot otherwise be met; elements of the special diet are not available through most food distributors; and proper preparation of the special diet requires incurring various operating expenses, including extra food preparation or serving items, not incurred to a similar extent by most nursing homes;

(d) to license a new nursing home bed in a facility that meets one of the exceptions contained in clauses (a) to (c);

(e) to license nursing home beds in a facility that has submitted either a completed licensure application or a written request for licensure to the commissioner before March 1, 1985, and has either commenced any required construction as defined in clause (b) before May 1, 1985, or has, before May 1, 1985, received from the commissioner approval of plans for phased-in construction and written authorization to begin construction on a phased-in basis. For the purpose of this clause, "construction" means any erection, building, alteration, reconstruction, modernization, or improvement necessary to comply with the nursing home licensure rules;

(f) to certify or license new beds in a new facility that is to be operated by the commissioner of veterans' affairs or when the costs of constructing and operating the new beds are to be reimbursed by the commissioner of veterans' affairs or the United States Veterans Administration;

(g) to license or certify beds in a new facility constructed to replace a facility that was destroyed after June 30, 1987, by fire, lightning, or other hazard provided:

(1) destruction was not caused by the intentional act of or at the direction of a controlling person of the facility;

(2) at the time the facility was destroyed the controlling persons of the facility maintained insurance coverage for the type of hazard that occurred in an amount that a reasonable person would conclude was adequate;

(3) the net proceeds from an insurance settlement for the damages caused by the hazard are applied to the cost of the new facility;

(4) the new facility is constructed on the same site as the destroyed facility or on another site subject to the restrictions in section 144A.073, subdivision 5; and

(5) the number of licensed and certified beds in the new facility does not exceed the number of licensed and certified beds in the destroyed facility;

(h) to license or certify beds that are moved from one location to another within a nursing home facility, provided the total costs of remodeling performed in conjunction with the relocation of beds does not exceed ten percent of the appraised value of the facility or $200,000, whichever is less, or to license or certify beds in a facility for which the total costs of remodeling or renovation exceed ten percent of the appraised value of the facility or $200,000, whichever is less, if the facility makes a written commitment to the commissioner of human services that it will not seek to receive an increase in its property-related payment rate by reason of the remodeling or renovation;

(i) to license or certify beds in a facility that has been involuntarily delicensed or decertified for participation in the medical assistance program, provided that an application for relicensure or recertification is submitted to the commissioner within 120 days after delicensure or decertification;

(j) to license or certify beds in a project recommended for approval by the interagency board for quality assurance under section 144A.073;

(k) to license nursing home beds in a hospital facility that are relocated from a different hospital facility under common ownership or affiliation, provided: (1) the nursing home beds are not certified for participation in the medical assistance program; and (2) the relocation of nursing home beds under this clause should not exceed a radius of six miles;

(l) to license or certify beds that are moved from one location to another within an existing identifiable complex of hospital buildings, from a hospital-attached nursing home to the hospital building, or from a separate nursing home to a building formerly used as a hospital, provided the original nursing home building will no longer be operated as a nursing home and the building to which the beds are moved will no longer be operated as a hospital. As a condition of receiving a license or certification under this clause, the facility must make a written commitment to the commissioner of human services that it will not seek to receive an increase in its property-related payment rate as a result of the relocation. At the time of the licensure and certification of the nursing home beds, the commissioner of health shall delicense the same number of acute care beds within the existing complex of hospital buildings or building. Relocation of nursing home beds under this clause is subject to the limitations in section 144A.073, subdivision 5;

(m) to license or certify beds that are moved from an existing state nursing home to a different state facility, provided there is no net increase in the number of state nursing home beds;

(n) to license new nursing home beds in a continuing care retirement community affiliated with a national referral center engaged in substantial programs of patient care, medical research, and medical education meeting state and national needs that receives more than 40 percent of its residents from outside the state for the purpose of meeting contractual obligations to residents of the retirement community, provided the facility makes a written commitment to the commissioner of human services that it will not seek medical assistance certification for the new beds;

(o) to certify or license new beds in a new facility on the Red Lake Indian reservation for which payments will be made under the Indian Health Care Improvement Act, Public Law Number 94-437, at the rates specified in United States Code, title 42, section 1396d(b);

(p) to certify and license as nursing home beds boarding care beds in a certified boarding care facility if the beds meet the standards for nursing home licensure and if the cost of any remodeling of the facility does not exceed ten percent of the appraised value of the facility or $200,000, whichever is less. If boarding care beds are licensed as nursing home beds, the number of boarding care beds in the facility must not increase in the future. The provisions contained in section 144A.073 regarding the upgrading of the facilities do not apply to facilities that satisfy these requirements;

(q) to license and certify up to 40 beds transferred from an existing facility owned and operated by the Amherst H. Wilder Foundation in the city of Saint Paul to a new unit at the same location as the existing facility that will serve persons with Alzheimer's disease and other related disorders. The transfer of beds may occur gradually or in stages, provided the total number of beds transferred does not exceed 40. At the time of licensure and certification of a bed or beds in the new unit, the commissioner of health shall delicense and decertify the same number of beds in the existing facility. As a condition of receiving a license or certification under this clause, the facility must make a written commitment to the commissioner of human services that it will not seek to receive an increase in its property-related payment rate as a result of the transfers allowed under this clause;

(r) to license and certify nursing home beds to replace currently licensed and certified boarding care beds which may be located either in a remodeled or renovated boarding care or nursing home facility or in a remodeled, renovated, newly constructed, or replacement nursing home facility within the identifiable complex of health care facilities in which the currently licensed boarding care beds are presently located, provided that the number of boarding care beds in the facility or complex are decreased by the number to be licensed as nursing home beds and further provided that, if the total costs of new construction, replacement, remodeling, or renovation exceed ten percent of the appraised value of the facility or $200,000, whichever is less, the facility makes a written commitment to the commissioner of human services that it will not seek to receive an increase in its property-related payment rate by reason of the new construction, replacement, remodeling, or renovation. The provisions contained in section 144A.073 regarding the upgrading of facilities do not apply to facilities that satisfy these requirements; or

(s) to license or certify beds that are moved from a nursing home to a separate facility under common ownership or control that was formerly licensed as a hospital and is currently licensed as a nursing facility and that is located within eight miles of the original facility, provided the original nursing home building will no longer be operated as a nursing home. As a condition of receiving a license or certification under this clause, the facility must make a written commitment to the commissioner of human services that it will not seek to receive an increase in its property-related payment rate as a result of the relocation.

Sec. 7 [CORR 10] Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 308A.621, is amended to read:

308A.621 [CERTIFICATION OF MAILED MEETING NOTICE.]

(a) After mailing special or regular members' meeting notices, the secretary shall execute a certificate containing:

- (1) a correct copy of the mailed or published notice;
- (2) the date of mailing or publishing the notice; and
- (3) a statement that the special or regular members' meeting notices were mailed or published as prescribed by this section 308A.611, subdivision 5, or 308A.615, subdivision 2.

(b) The certificate shall be made a part of the record of the meeting.

Sec. 8 [CORR 12] Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.005, subdivision 1, as amended by Laws 1990, chapter 532, section 5, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [COUNTY AND MULTICOUNTY AUTHORITIES.] The area of operation of a county authority shall include all of the county for which it is created, and in case of a multicounty authority, it shall include all of the political subdivisions for which the multicounty authority is created; provided, that a county authority or a multicounty authority shall not undertake any project within the boundaries of any city which has not empowered the authority to function therein as provided in section 469.004 unless a resolution has been adopted by the governing body of the city, and by any authority which has been established in the city, declaring that there is a need for the county or multicounty authority to exercise its powers in the city. After a resolution is adopted, individual project approval is not required for a section 8 program. A resolution is not required for the operation of a section 8 program.

Sec. 9 [CORR 14] [REPEALER.]

Laws 1990, chapter 494, section 1, subdivision 7, is repealed.

Sec. 10 [CORR 15] [CORRECTION.] H.F. No. 2419, article 1, section 23, if enacted in 1990, is amended to read:

Sec. 23. OFFICE OF WASTE MANAGEMENT

(a) General Reduction (200,000) (414,000)

(b) This reduction is from the SCORE grants to counties identified in Laws 1989, First Special Session chapter 1, article 24, section 2. (1,234,000)

(c) This appropriation is for the capital assistance program. The agency's authorized complement is increased by seven positions for administration of the capital assistance program. 285,000

(d) Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, any outstanding obligations that may be held in St. Louis county for grants and loans issued to the county for construction or operation of the Babbitt waste tire facility under Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116M.07; Minnesota Statutes, section 115A.54, subdivision 2a; or 298.22; or, Minnesota Rules, parts 8300.3881 to 8300.3090, shall be suspended until June 30, 1993.

Sec. 11 [CORR 16] Senate File 2621, article 2, section 56, if enacted in 1990, is amended to read:

Sec. 56. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 252.27, as amended by Laws 1989, chapter 282, article 2, section 92, is amended to read:

252.27 [PARENTAL CONTRIBUTION FOR THE COST OF CHILDREN'S SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [COUNTY RESPONSIBILITY.] Whenever any child who has mental retardation or a related condition, or a physical or emotional handicap is in 24-hour care outside the home including respite care, in a facility licensed by the commissioner of human services, the cost of services shall be paid by the county of financial responsibility determined pursuant to chapter 256G. If the child's parents or guardians do not reside in this state, the cost shall be paid by the responsible governmental agency in the state from which the child came, by the parents or guardians of the child if they are financially able, or, if no other payment source is available, by the commissioner of human services.

Subd. 1a. [DEFINITIONS.] A person has a "related condition" if that person has a severe, chronic disability that is (a) attributable to cerebral palsy, epilepsy, autism, Prader-Willi syndrome, or any other condition, other than mental illness, found to be closely related to mental retardation because the condition results in impairment of general intellectual functioning or adaptive behavior similar to that of persons with mental retardation or requires treatment or services similar to those required for persons with mental retardation; (b) is likely to continue indefinitely; and (c) results in substantial functional limitations in three or more of the following areas of major life activity: self-care, understanding and use of language, learning, mobility, self-direction, or capacity for independent living. For the purposes of this section, a child has an "emotional handicap" if the child has a psychiatric or other emotional disorder which substantially impairs the child's mental health and requires 24-hour treatment or supervision.

Subd. 2. [PARENTAL RESPONSIBILITY.] Responsibility of the parents for the cost of services shall be based upon ability to pay. The state agency shall adopt rules to determine responsibility of the parents for the cost of services when:

(a) Insurance or other health care benefits pay some but not all of the cost of services; and

(b) No insurance or other health care benefits are available.

Subd. 2a. [CONTRIBUTION AMOUNT.] (a) The natural or adoptive parents of a minor child, including a child determined eligible for medical assistance without consideration of parental income, must contribute monthly to the cost of services, unless the child is married or has been married, parental rights have been terminated, or the child's adoption is subsidized according to section 259.40 or through title IV-E of the Social Security Act.

(b) The parental contribution equals the following percentage of that portion of the income of the natural or adoptive parents that exceeds 200 percent of the federal poverty guidelines for the applicable household size:

Adjusted Gross Income	Percentage contribution exceeding 200 percent of poverty
Under $40,000	0
$40,000 to Under $49,999	10
$50,000 to $59,999	12
$60,000 to $74,999	14
$75,000 or more	15

If the child lives with the parent, the parental contribution is reduced by $200. If the child resides in an institution specified in section 256B.35, the parent is responsible for the personal needs allowance specified under that section in addition to the parental contribution determined under this section. The parental contribution is reduced by any amount required to be paid directly to the child pursuant to a court order, but only if actually paid.

(c) The household size to be used in determining the amount of contribution under paragraph (b) includes natural and adoptive parents and their dependents under age 21, including the child receiving services. Adjustments in the contribution amount due to annual changes in the federal poverty guidelines shall be implemented on the first day of July following publication of the changes.

(d) For purposes of paragraph (b), "income" means the adjusted gross income of the natural or adoptive parents determined according to the previous year's federal tax form.

(e) The contribution shall be explained in writing to the parents at the time eligibility for services is being determined. The contribution shall be made on a monthly basis effective with the first month in which the child receives services. Annually upon redetermination or at termination of eligibility, if the contribution exceeded the cost of services provided, the local agency or the state shall reimburse that excess amount to the parents, either by direct reimbursement if the parent is no longer required to pay a contribution, or by a reduction in or waiver of parental fees until the excess amount is exhausted.

(f) The monthly contribution amount must be reviewed at least every 12 months; when there is a change in household size; and when there is a loss of or gain in income from one month to another in excess of ten percent. The local agency shall mail a written notice 30 days in advance of the effective date of a change in the contribution amount. A decrease in the contribution amount is effective in the month that the parent verifies a reduction in income or change in household size.

(g) Parents of a minor child who do not live with each other shall each pay the contribution required under paragraph (a), except that a court-ordered child support payment actually paid on behalf of the child receiving services shall be deducted from the contribution of the parent making the payment.

(h) The contribution under paragraph (b) shall be increased by an additional five percent if the local agency determines that insurance coverage is available but not obtained for the child. For purposes of this section, "available" means the insurance is a benefit of employment for a family member at an annual cost of no more than five percent of the family's annual income. For purposes of this section, insurance means health and accident insurance coverage, enrollment in a nonprofit health service plan, health maintenance organization, self-insured plan, or preferred provider organization.

Parents who have more than one child receiving services shall not be required to pay more than the amount for the child with the highest expenditures. There shall be no resource contribution from the parents. The parent shall not be required to pay a contribution in excess of the cost of the services provided to the child, not counting payments made to school districts for education-related services. Notice of an increase in fee payment must be given at least 30 days before the increased fee is due.

Subd. 2b. [CHILD'S RESPONSIBILITY.] Responsibility of the child for the cost of care shall be up to the maximum amount of the total income and resources attributed to the child except for the clothing and personal needs allowance as provided in section 256B.35, subdivision 1. Reimbursement by the parents and child shall be made to the county making any payments for services. The county board may require payment of the full cost of caring for children whose parents or guardians do not reside in this state.

To the extent that a child described in subdivision 1 is eligible for benefits under chapter 62A, 62C, 62D, 62E, or 64B, the county is not liable for the cost of services.

Subd. 2c. [APPEALS.] A parent may appeal the determination of an obligation to make a contribution under this section, according to section 256.045.

Subd. 3. [CIVIL ACTIONS.] If the parent fails to make appropriate reimbursement as required in subdivision 2a and 2b, the attorney general, at the request of the commissioner, may institute or direct the appropriate county attorney to institute civil action to recover the required reimbursement.

Subd. 4. [ORDER OF PAYMENT.] If the parental contribution is for reimbursement for the cost of services to both the local agency and the medical assistance program, the local agency shall be reimbursed for its expenses first and the remainder must be deposited in the medical assistance account.

Subd. 3. [REPEALER.] H.F. No. 2478, article 9, section 12, if enacted in 1990, is repealed. The law amended by H.F. No. 2478, article 9, section 12, remains in effect.

Subd. 4. [EFFECTIVE DATE.] Subdivisions 1 to 3 are effective July 1, 1990.

Sec. 13 [CORR 18]

Subdivision 1. [REPEALER.] Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297A.25, subdivision 45, as added in H.F. No. 2478, article 6, section 5, if enacted, is repealed.

Subd. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.] This section is effective the day following final enactment for transactions occurring on or after December 31, 1989.

Sec. 14 [CORR 19] [CORRECTION.] H.F. No. 2419, article 1, section 57, if enacted in 1990, is amended to read:

Sec. 57. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 116P.11, is amended to read:

116P.11 [AVAILABILITY OF FUNDS FOR DISBURSEMENT.]

(a) The amount biennially available from the trust fund for the budget plan developed by the commission consists of the interest earnings generated from the trust fund.

(b) For funding projects through fiscal year 1997, the following additional amounts are available from the trust fund for the budget plans developed by the commission:

(1) for the 1991-1993 biennium, up to 25 percent of the revenue deposited in the trust fund in fiscal years 1990 and 1991;

(2) for the 1993-1995 biennium, up to 20 percent of the revenue deposited in the trust fund in fiscal year ~~1991~~ 1992 and up to 15 percent of the revenue deposited in the fund in fiscal year ~~1992~~ 1993; and

(3) for the 1995-1997 biennium, up to ten percent of the revenue deposited in the fund in fiscal year ~~1993~~ 1994 and up to five percent of the revenue deposited in the fund in fiscal year ~~1994~~ 1995.

(c) Any appropriated funds not encumbered in the biennium in which they are appropriated cancel and must be credited to the principal of the trust fund.

Sec. 15 [CORR 20] Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZATION.] Minnesota Statutes 1989 Supplement, section 410.32, is amended to read:

410.32 [CITIES AUTHORIZED TO ISSUE CAPITAL NOTES FOR CERTAIN EQUIPMENT ACQUISITIONS.]

Notwithstanding any contrary provision of other law or charter, a home rule charter city may, by resolution and without public referendum, issue capital notes subject to the city debt limit to purchase public safety equipment, ambulance and other medical equipment, road construction and maintenance equipment, and other capital equipment having an expected useful life at least as long as the term of the notes. The notes shall be payable in not more than five years and be issued on terms and in the manner the city determines. The total principal amount of the capital notes issued in a fiscal year shall not exceed 0.03 percent of the market value of taxable property in the city for that year. A tax levy shall be made for the payment of the principal and interest on the notes, in accordance with section 475.61, as in the case of bonds. Notes issued under this section shall require an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the governing body of the city. Unless prohibited by its charter Notwithstanding a contrary provision of other law or charter, a home rule charter city may also issue capital notes subject to its debt limit in the manner and subject to the limitations applicable to statutory cities pursuant to section 412.301.

Subd. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.] Subdivision 1 is effective the day following final enactment.

Sec. 16 [CORR 21] Subdivision 1. [MANUFACTURED HOME PARKS.] H.F. No. 2478, article 3, section 46, subdivision 1, if enacted in 1990, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LIMITED VALUATION INCREASE.] (a) Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 273.11, or any other law to the contrary, the estimated market value of a manufactured home park, as defined in section 327.14, subdivision 3, and assessed under section 273.13, subdivision 25, for taxes levied in 1990, may not exceed 133 ¹/₃ percent of its estimated market value for taxes levied in 1989 as limited by Laws 1989, First Special Session chapter 1, article 3, section 32, subdivision 1. The excess market value must be entered equally in the next two succeeding assessment years. The increase in the estimated market value of a manufactured home park, as defined in section 327.14, subdivision 3, and assessed under section 273.13, subdivision 25, for taxes levied in 1990, 1991, and 1992 shall be computed as follows: one-third of the difference between its market value for taxes levied in 1989 as limited by Laws 1989, 1st Special Session chapter 1, article 3, section 32, subdivision 1, and its unlimited market value for taxes levied in 1990 shall be added to its limited market value for the prior year in each of the three years. In addition, for any increase in market value subsequent to taxes levied in 1990, all of that increase shall be added to the prior year's limited market value after the adjustment in the prior sentence.

(b) This subdivision does not apply to increases in value attributable to improvements made to the real estate since the January 2, 1989, assessment. It does not apply to property becoming subject to taxation since the January 2, 1989, assessment. The limitation in this subdivision applies to any increase in valuation imposed by the local boards of review under section 274.01, the county boards of equalization under section 274.13, and the state board of equalization and the commissioner of revenue under sections 270.11, 270.12, and 270.16.

Subd. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.] Subdivision 1 is effective at the same time H.F. No. 2478, article 3, section 46, is effective.

The Senate has repassed said bill in accordance with the recommendation and report of the Conference Committee. Said Senate File is herewith transmitted to the House.

PATRICK E. FLAHAVEN, Secretary of the Senate

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON S. F. NO. 576

A bill for an act relating to human services; providing that medical certification for general assistance benefits may be made by a licensed chiropractor; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.02, by adding a subdivision.

April 25, 1990

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

The Honorable Robert E. Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

We, the undersigned conferees for S. F. No. 576, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House recede from its amendment and that S. F. No. 576 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [148.09] [INDEPENDENT EXAMINATION.]

A doctor of chiropractic conducting a physical examination of a patient or a review of records by a doctor of chiropractic, for the purpose of generating a report or opinion to aid a reparation obligor under chapter 65B in making a determination regarding the condition or further treatment of the patient, shall meet the following requirements:

(1) the doctor of chiropractic must either be an instructor at an accredited school of chiropractic or have devoted not less than 50 percent of practice time to direct patient care during the two years immediately preceding the examination;

(2) the doctor of chiropractic must have completed any annual continuing education requirements for chiropractors prescribed by the board of chiropractic examiners;

(3) the doctor of chiropractic must not accept a fee of more than $500 for each independent exam conducted; and

(4) the doctor of chiropractic must register with the board of chiropractic examiners as an independent examiner and adhere to all rules governing the practice of chiropractic.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 17. [PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATION.] “Professional certification” means:

(1) a statement about a person's illness, injury, or incapacity that is signed by a licensed physician, licensed consulting psychologist, or licensed psychologist, whose professional training and experience qualifies him or her to diagnose and certify the person's condition; or

(2) a statement about an incapacity involving a spinal subluxation condition that is signed by a licensed chiropractor whose professional training and experience qualifies him or her to diagnose and certify the condition.

Sec. 3. [REVISOR'S INSTRUCTION.]

The revisor of statutes shall change the words "medical certification" or "medically certified" wherever they appear in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 256D to "professional certification" or "professionally certified" in Minnesota Statutes 1990."

Delete the title and insert:

"A bill for an act relating to human services; providing that certification of illness, injury, or incapacity for purposes of general assistance benefits may be made by a licensed chiropractor; regulating independent medical examinations by chiropractors; changing terminology; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.02, by adding a subdivision; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 148."

We request adoption of this report and repassage of the bill.

The Honorable Robert E. Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives
The State of Minnesota

Dear Mr. Speaker:

I have today signed into law Chapter 594, H. F. No. 2419, the omnibus State Departments appropriations bill. However, I have, pursuant to the powers vested in me by Article IV, Section 23 of the Minnesota Constitution, determined to line-item veto the following provisions in this bill:

1. Article 1, section 10, page 4, line 3 which reads as follows:

Sec. 10. STATE TREASURER (57,000)

While most agencies were given a reduction in their budgets, I find it only fair that the reductions are made equitably. The State

Treasurer's Office was reduced by an amount in excess of their fair share and would greatly hinder its services to the state. Even though I am vetoing their reduction, the State Treasurer will work with the Department of Finance to determine an appropriate reduction in their spending plan for fiscal year 1991.

2. Article 1, subdivision 2(d), page 9, lines 48 to 49 which reads as follows:

(d) For a reduction from the trade office travel budget. (50,000)

For the same reason that I vetoed the negative appropriation from the World Trade Center in the omnibus Agriculture, Transportation and Semi-States Appropriations bill; this reduction from the Minnesota Trade Office would severely curtail Minnesota's ability to continue planning for increased trade opportunities with the European Economic Community, Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union.

3. Article 1, subdivision 2, section 27, page 9, line 55 which reads as follows:

Sec. 27. STATE PLANNING AGENCY (601,000)

By vetoing the negative appropriation from the State Planning Agency, we will be able to honor our commitment to the Great Lakes Protection Fund. I believe Minnesota must continue to be a leader in protecting the environment. The State Planning Agency will also be expected to work with the Department of Finance to determine an appropriate reduction in their spending plan for fiscal year 1991.

Pursuant to the requirement of Article IV, Section 23 of the Minnesota Constitution, an original copy of this letter has been appended to the bill as filed with the Secretary of State.

Sincerely,

RUDY PERPICH
Governor
