"ARTICLE 1

REINSURANCE

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 60A.09, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [REINSURANCE.] (1) [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of this subdivision, the word "insurer" shall be deemed to include the word "reinsurer," and the words "issue policies of insurance" shall be deemed to include the words "make contracts of reinsurance."

(2) ~~[CONDITIONS AND REQUIREMENTS.] Every insurer authorized to issue policies in this state may reinsure in any other insurer any part or all of any risk or risks assumed by it; but such reinsurance, unless effected (1) with an insurer authorized to issue policies in this state, or (2) with an insurer similarly authorized in another state, territory, or district of the United States, and showing the same standards of solvency and meeting the same statutory and departmental rules which would be required of or prescribed for such insurer were it at the time of such reinsurance authorized in this state to issue policies covering risks of the same kind or kinds as those reinsured, shall not reduce the reserve or other liability to be charged to the ceding insurer; provided, that nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to permit to a ceding insurer any reduction of reserve or liability through reinsurance effected with an unauthorized insurer. In case such reinsurance effected with an insurer so authorized or so recognized for reinsurance in this state, the ceding insurer shall thereafter be charged on the gross premium basis with an unearned premium liability representing the proportion of such obligation retained by it, and the insurer to which the business is ceded shall be charged with an unearned premium liability representing the proportion of such obligation ceded to it, calculated in the same way. The two parties to the transaction shall together carry the same reserve as the ceding insurer would have carried had it retained the risk.~~

~~(3)~~ [REINSURANCE OF MORE THAN ~~75~~ 50 PERCENT OF INSURANCE LIABILITIES.] Any contract of reinsurance whereby an insurer cedes more than ~~75~~ 50 percent of the total of its outstanding insurance liabilities shall, if such insurer is incorporated by or, if an insurer of a foreign country, has its principal office in this state, be subject to the approval, in writing, by the commissioner.

~~(4)~~ (3) [ACTUAL UNEARNED PREMIUM RESERVE TO BE CARRIED AS LIABILITY.] Nothing in this subdivision shall be deemed to permit the ceding insurer to receive, through the cession of the whole of any risk or risks, any advantage in respect to its unearned premium reserve that would reduce the same below the actual amount thereof.

~~(5)~~ (4) [AIRCRAFT RISKS.] An insurer authorized to transact the business specified in section 60A.06, subdivision 1, clauses (4) and (5)(a), may through reinsurance assume any risk arising from, related to, or incident to the manufacture, ownership, or operation of aircraft and may retrocede any portion thereof; provided, however, that no insurer may undertake any such reinsurance business without the prior approval of the commissioner and such reinsurance business shall be subject to any regulations which may be promulgated by the commissioner. Any such reinsurance business may be provided through pooling arrangements with other insurers for purposes of spreading the insurance risk.

Sec. 2. [60A.091] [CREDIT ALLOWED A DOMESTIC CEDING INSURER.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] Credit for reinsurance shall be allowed a domestic ceding insurer as either an asset or a deduction from liability on account of reinsurance ceded only when the requirements of subdivisions 2 to 6 are met.

Subd. 2. [ASSUMING INSURER IS LICENSED OR ACCREDITED IN THIS STATE.] Credit shall be allowed if the reinsurance is ceded to an assuming insurer that is licensed to transact insurance or reinsurance in this state, or the reinsurance is ceded to an assuming insurer that is accredited as a reinsurer in this state. An accredited reinsurer is one that:

(1) files with the commissioner evidence of its submission to this state's jurisdiction;

(2) submits to this state's authority to examine its books and records;

(3) is licensed to transact insurance or reinsurance in at least one state, or in the case of a United States branch of an alien assuming insurer is entered through and licensed to transact insurance or reinsurance in at least one state;

(4) files annually with the commissioner a copy of its annual statement filed with the insurance department of its state of domicile and a copy of its most recent audited financial statement; and

(5) maintains a surplus as regards policyholders in an amount not less than $20,000,000 and whose accreditation has not been denied by the commissioner within 90 days of its submission, or for companies with a surplus as regards policyholders in an amount less than $20,000,000 and whose accreditation has been approved by the commissioner.

No credit shall be allowed a domestic ceding insurer if the assuming insurer's accreditation has been revoked by the commissioner after notice and hearing.

Clause (5) does not apply to reinsurance ceded and assumed pursuant to pooling arrangements among insurers in the same holding company system.

Subd. 3. [ASSUMING INSURER IS OTHERWISE REGULATED.] Credit shall be allowed if the reinsurance is ceded to an assuming insurer that is domiciled and licensed in, or in the case of a United States branch of an alien assuming insurer is entered through, a state which employs standards regarding credit for reinsurance substantially similar to those applicable under this chapter and the assuming insurer or United States branch of an alien assuming insurer: (1) maintains a surplus as regards policyholders in an amount not less than $20,000,000; and (2) submits to the authority of this state to examine its books and records.

Clause (1) does not apply to reinsurance ceded and assumed pursuant to pooling arrangements among insurers in the same holding company system.

Subd. 4. [ASSUMING INSURER MAINTAINS TRUST FUND.] (a) Credit shall be allowed if the reinsurance is ceded to an assuming insurer that maintains a trust fund in a qualified United States financial institution, as defined in section 4, for the payment of the valid claims of its United States policyholders and ceding insurers, their assigns and successors in interest. The assuming insurer shall report annually to the commissioner information substantially the same as that required to be reported on the National Association of Insurance Commissioners annual statement form by licensed insurers to enable the commissioner to determine the sufficiency of the trust fund. In the case of a single assuming insurer, the trust shall consist of a trusteed account representing the assuming insurer's liabilities attributable to business written in the United States and, in addition, the assuming insurer shall maintain a trusteed surplus of not less than $20,000,000. In the case of a group of individual unincorporated underwriters, the trust shall consist of a trusteed account representing the group's liabilities attributable to business written in the United States and, in addition, the group shall maintain a trusteed surplus of which $100,000,000 shall be held jointly for the benefit of United States ceding insurers of any member of the group. The group shall make available to the commissioner an annual certification by the group's domiciliary regulator and its independent public accountants of the solvency of each underwriter.

(b) In the case of a group of incorporated insurers under common administration that complies with the filing requirements contained in the previous paragraph, and under the supervision of the Department of Trade and Industry of the United Kingdom and submit to this state's authority to examine its books and records and bear the expense of the examination, with aggregate policyholders' surplus of $10,000,000,000; the trust shall be in an amount equal to the group's several liabilities attributable to business written in the United States plus maintain a joint trusteed surplus of which $100,000,000 shall be held jointly for the benefit of United States ceding insurers of any member of the group, and each member of the group shall make available to the commissioner an annual certification by the member's domiciliary regulator and its independent accountant of the member's solvency.

(c) The trust shall be established in a form approved by the commissioner of commerce. The trust instrument shall provide that contested claims shall be valid and enforceable upon the final order of any court of competent jurisdiction in the United States. The trust shall vest legal title to its assets in the trustees of the trust for its United States policyholders and ceding insurers, their assigns and successors in interest. The trust and the assuming insurer shall be subject to examination as determined by the commissioner. The trust described in this paragraph must remain in effect for as long as the assuming insurer shall have outstanding obligations due under the reinsurance agreements subject to the trust.

(d) No later than February 28 of each year the trustees of the trust shall report to the commissioner in writing setting forth the balance of the trust and listing the trust's investments at the preceding year end and shall certify the date of termination of the trust, if so planned, or certify that the trust shall not expire before the next following December 31.

Subd. 5. [REQUIRED COVERAGE.] Credit shall be allowed if the reinsurance is ceded to an assuming insurer not meeting the requirements of subdivisions 2 to 4 but only with respect to the insurance of risks located in jurisdictions where the reinsurance is required by applicable law or regulation of that jurisdiction.

Subd. 6. [ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR ASSUMING INSURER NOT LICENSED OR ACCREDITED.] If the assuming insurer is not licensed or accredited to transact insurance or reinsurance in this state, the credit permitted by subdivisions 3 and 4 shall not be allowed unless the assuming insurer agrees in the reinsurance agreements:

(1) that in the event of the failure of the assuming insurer to perform its obligations under the terms of the reinsurance agreement, the assuming insurer, at the request of the ceding insurer, shall submit to the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction in any state of the United States, comply with all requirements necessary to give the court jurisdiction, and abide by the final decision of the court or of any appellate court in the event of an appeal; and

(2) to designate the commissioner or a designated attorney as its true and lawful attorney upon whom may be served any lawful process in any action, suit, or proceeding instituted by or on behalf of the ceding company.

This subdivision is not intended to conflict with or override the obligation of the parties to a reinsurance agreement to arbitrate their disputes, if such an obligation is created in the agreement.

Sec. 3. [60A.092] [REDUCTION FROM LIABILITY FOR REINSURANCE CEDED BY A DOMESTIC INSURER TO AN ASSUMING INSURER.]

A reduction from liability for the reinsurance ceded by a domestic insurer to an assuming insurer not meeting the requirements of section 2 shall be allowed in an amount not exceeding the liabilities carried by the ceding insurer. The reduction shall be in the amount of funds held by or on behalf of the ceding insurer, including funds held in trust for the ceding insurer, under a reinsurance contract with the assuming insurer as security for the payment of obligations under the contract if the security is held in the United States subject to withdrawal solely by, and under the exclusive control of, the ceding insurer; or, in the case of a trust, held in a qualified United States financial institution, as defined in section 4, paragraph (b). This security may be any form of security acceptable to the commissioner or in the form of:

(1) cash;

(2) securities listed by the securities valuation office of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners and qualifying as admitted assets; or

(3) clean, irrevocable, unconditional letters of credit, as defined in section 4, paragraph (a), issued or confirmed by a qualified United States institution no later than December 31 in respect of the year for which filing is being made, and in the possession of the ceding company on or before the filing date of its annual statement.

Letters of credit meeting applicable standards of issuer acceptability as of the dates of their issuance or confirmation shall, notwithstanding the issuing or confirming institution's subsequent failure to meet applicable standards of issuer acceptability, continue to be acceptable as security until their expiration, extension, renewal, modification, or amendment, whichever occurs first.

Sec. 4. [60A.093] [QUALIFIED UNITED STATES FINANCIAL INSTITUTION.]

(a) For purposes of section 3, clause (3), a "qualified United States financial institution" means an institution that:

(1) is organized or, in the case of a United States office of a foreign banking organization, licensed, under the laws of the United States or any state;

(2) is regulated, supervised, and examined by federal or state authorities having regulatory authority over banks and trust companies; and

(3) has been determined by either the commissioner, or the securities valuation office of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners, to meet the standards of financial condition and standing considered necessary and appropriate to regulate the quality of financial institutions whose letters of credit will be acceptable to the commissioner.

(b) "Qualified United States financial institution" means, for purposes of those provisions of this article specifying those institutions that are eligible to act as fiduciary of a trust, an institution that:

(1) is organized or, in the case of a United States branch or agency office of a foreign banking organization, licensed, under the laws of the United States or any state and has been granted authority to operate with fiduciary powers; and

(2) is regulated, supervised, and examined by federal or state authorities having regulatory authority over banks and trust companies.

Sec. 5. [60A.094] [RULES.]

The commissioner may adopt rules implementing the provisions of this article.

Sec. 6. [60A.095] [REINSURANCE AGREEMENTS AFFECTED.]

anniversary, or renewal date not less than six months after the effective date of this article.

Sec. 7. [REPEALER.]

Subdivision 1. [COMMISSIONER'S DETERMINATION.] An insurer may be subject to administrative supervision by the commissioner if upon examination or at any other time it appears in the commissioner's discretion that:

(1) the insurer's condition renders the continuance of its business hazardous to the public or to its insureds;

(2) the insurer has or appears to have exceeded its powers granted under its certificate of authority and applicable law;

(3) the insurer has failed to comply with the applicable provisions of the insurance laws;

(4) the business of the insurer is being conducted fraudulently; or

Subd. 2. [COMMISSIONER'S POWERS.] If the commissioner determines that the conditions set forth in subdivision 1 exist, the commissioner may:

(1) notify the insurer of the commissioner's determination;

(2) furnish to the insurer a written list of the requirements to abate this determination; and

(3) notify the insurer that it is under the supervision of the commissioner and that the commissioner is applying and effectuating the provisions of this article. This action by the commissioner is subject to review pursuant to chapter 14.

Subd. 4. [EXTENSION OF SUPERVISION.] If it is determined after notice and hearing that the conditions giving rise to the supervision still exist at the end of the supervision period specified in subdivision 3, the commissioner may extend this period.

Subd. 5. [RELEASE FROM SUPERVISION.] If it is determined that none of the conditions giving rise to the supervision exist, the commissioner shall release the insurer from supervision.

Sec. 3. [60H.03] [CONFIDENTIALITY OF CERTAIN PROCEEDINGS AND RECORDS.]

correspondence, reports, records, or information as permitted by the commissioner.

Subd. 3. [EXCEPTIONS.] The commissioner may open the proceedings or hearings or disclose the notices, correspondence, reports, records, or information to a department, agency, or instrumentality of this or another state or the United States if the commissioner determines that the disclosure is necessary or proper for the enforcement of the laws of this or another state of the United States.

The commissioner may open the proceedings or hearings or make public the notices, correspondence, reports, records, or other information if the commissioner considers that it is in the best interest of the public or in the best interest of the insurer, its insureds, creditors, or the general public.

Subd. 4. [PROCEEDINGS AND RECORDS OBTAINED BY COURT.] This section does not apply to hearings, notices, correspondence, reports, records, or other information obtained upon the appointment of a receiver for the insurer by a court of competent jurisdiction.

Sec. 4. [60H.04] [PROHIBITED ACTS DURING PERIOD OF SUPERVISION.]

During the period of supervision, the commissioner shall serve as the administrative supervisor. The commissioner may provide that the insurer may not do any of the following things during the period of supervision, without the prior approval of the commissioner:

Sec. 5. [60H.05] [REVIEW AND STAY OF ACTION.]

During the period of supervision the insurer may contest an action taken or proposed to be taken by the commissioner specifying the manner wherein the action being complained of would be detrimental to the condition of the insurer. Denial of the insurer's request upon reconsideration entitles the insurer to request a proceeding under chapter 14.

Sec. 6. [60H.06] [ADMINISTRATIVE ELECTION OF PROCEEDINGS.]

Nothing in this article precludes the commissioner from initiating judicial proceedings to place an insurer in rehabilitation or liquidation proceedings, under the laws of this state, regardless of whether the commissioner has previously initiated administrative supervision proceedings under this article against the insurer.

The commissioner may adopt rules necessary for the implementation of this article.

Sec. 8. [60H.08] [IMMUNITY.]

ARTICLE 3

STANDARDS AND COMMISSIONER'S AUTHORITY FOR COMPANIES CONSIDERED TO BE IN HAZARDOUS FINANCIAL CONDITION

Section 1. [60H.21] [PURPOSE.]

The purpose of this article is to set forth the standards which the commissioner may use for identifying insurers found to be in such condition as to render the continuance of their business hazardous to the public or to holders of their policies or certificates of insurance.

This article shall not be interpreted to limit the powers granted the commissioner by any other laws or parts of laws of this state, nor shall this chapter be interpreted to supersede any other laws or parts of laws of this state.

Sec. 2. [60H.22] [STANDARDS.]

The following standards, either singly or a combination of two or more, may be considered by the commissioner to determine whether the continued operation of any insurer, whether domestic, foreign, or alien, transacting an insurance business in this state might be considered to be hazardous to the policyholders, creditors or the general public. The commissioner may consider:

(1) adverse finding reported in financial condition and market conduct examination reports;

(2) the National Association of Insurance Commissioners Insurance Regulatory Information System and its related reports;

(3) the ratios of commission expense, general insurance expense, policy benefits, and reserve increases as to annual premium and net investment income which could lead to an impairment of capital and surplus;

(4) whether the insurer's asset portfolio when viewed in light of current economic conditions is of sufficient value, liquidity, or diversity to assure the company's ability to meet its outstanding obligations as they mature;

(5) the ability of an assuming reinsurer to perform and whether the insurer's reinsurance program provides sufficient protection for the company's remaining surplus after taking into account the insurer's cash flow and the classes of business written as well as the financial condition of the assuming reinsurer;

(6) whether the insurer's operating loss in the last 12-month period or any shorter period of time, including, but not limited to, net capital gain or loss, change in nonadmitted assets, and cash dividends paid to shareholders, is greater than 50 percent of the insurer's remaining surplus as regards policyholders in excess of the minimum required;

(7) whether any affiliate, subsidiary, or reinsurer is insolvent, threatened with insolvency, or delinquent in payment of its monetary or other obligation;

(8) whether contingent liabilities, pledges, or guaranties which either individually or collectively involve a total amount which in the opinion of the commissioner may affect the solvency of the insurer;

(9) whether any "controlling person" of an insurer is delinquent in the transmitting to, or payment of, net premiums to the insurer;

(10) the age and collectability of receivables;

(11) whether the management of an insurer, including officers, directors, or any other person who directly or indirectly controls the operation of the insurer, fails to possess and demonstrate the competence, fitness, and reputation considered necessary to serve the insurer in this position;

(12) whether management of an insurer has failed to respond to inquiries relative to the condition of the insurer or has furnished false and misleading information concerning an inquiry;

(13) whether management of an insurer either has filed a false or misleading sworn financial statement, or has released a false or misleading financial statement to lending institutions or to the general public, or has made a false or misleading entry, or has omitted an entry of material amount in the books of the insurer;

(14) whether the insurer has grown so rapidly and to such an extent that it lacks adequate financial and administrative capacity to meet its obligations in a timely manner; or

(15) whether the company has experienced or will experience in the foreseeable future cash flow or liquidity problems.

Sec. 3. [60H.23] [COMMISSIONER'S AUTHORITY.]

Subdivision 1. [DETERMINATION OF FINANCIAL CONDITION.] For the purposes of making a determination of an insurer's financial condition under this chapter, the commissioner may:

(1) disregard any credit or amount receivable resulting from transactions with a reinsurer which is insolvent, impaired, or otherwise subject to a delinquency proceeding;

(2) make appropriate adjustments to asset values attributable to investments in or transactions with parents, subsidiaries, or affiliates;

(3) refuse to recognize the stated value of accounts receivable if the ability to collect receivables is highly speculative in view of the age of the account or the financial condition of the debtor; or

(4) increase the insurer's liability in an amount equal to any contingent liability, pledge, or guarantee not otherwise included if there is a substantial risk that the insurer will be called upon to meet the obligation undertaken within the next 12-month period.

Subd. 2. [COMMISSIONER'S ORDER.] If the commissioner determines that the continued operation of the insurer licensed to transact business in this state may be hazardous to the policyholders or the general public, then the commissioner may, upon the commissioner's determination, issue an order requiring the insurer to:

(1) reduce the total amount of present and potential liability for policy benefits by reinsurance;

(2) reduce, suspend, or limit the volume of business being accepted or renewed;

(3) reduce general insurance and commission expenses by specified methods;

(4) increase the insurer's capital and surplus;

(5) suspend or limit the declaration and payment of dividend by an insurer to its stockholders or to its policyholders;

(6) file reports in a form acceptable to the commissioner concerning the market value of an insurer's assets;

(7) limit or withdraw from certain investments or discontinue certain investment practices to the extent the commissioner considers necessary;

(8) document the adequacy of premium rates in relation to the risks insured; or

(9) file, in addition to regular annual statements, interim financial reports on the form adopted by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners or in the format adopted by the commissioner.

Subd. 3. [HEARING.] An insurer subject to an order under subdivision 2 may request a hearing pursuant to chapter 14 to review that order. The commissioner shall hold all hearings under this paragraph privately.

Sec. 4. [60H.24] [JUDICIAL REVIEW.]

An order or decision of the commissioner is subject to review in accordance with chapter 14 at the instance of any party to the proceedings whose interests are substantially affected.

(b) No person, firm, association, or corporation shall act in the capacity of a managing general agent representing an insurer domiciled in this state with respect to risks located outside this state unless the person is licensed as a producer in this state pursuant to sections 60I.01 to 60I.10. Sec. 4. [60I.04] [REQUIRED CONTRACT PROVISIONS.]

Subdivision 1. ular function, specifies the division of responsibilities, and that contains the minimum provisions in subdivisions 2 to 12.

Subd. 2. [TERMINATIONS.] The insurer may terminate the contract for cause upon written notice to the managing general agent. The insurer may suspend the underwriting authority of the managing general agent during the pendency of any dispute regarding the cause for termination.

Subd. 3. [PERIODIC ACCOUNTING.] The managing general agent will render accounts to the insurer detailing all transactions and remit all funds due under the contract to the insurer on not less than a monthly basis.

Subd. 4. [HANDLING OF FUNDS.] All funds collected for the account of an insurer will be held by the managing general agent in a fiduciary capacity in a bank which is a member of the Federal Reserve System. A managing general agent shall deposit only trust funds in a trust account and shall not commingle personal funds or other funds in a trust account, except that a managing general agent may deposit and maintain a sum in a trust account from personal funds, which sum shall be specifically identified and used to pay service charges or satisfy the minimum balance requirements relating to the trust account.

Subd. 5. [BUSINESS RECORDS.] Separate records of business written by the managing general agent will be maintained. The insurer shall have access and right to copy all accounts and records related to its business in a form usable by the insurer, and the commissioner shall have access to all books, bank accounts, and records of the managing general agent in a form usable to the commissioner. (1) all claims must be reported to the company in a timely manner;

The managing general agent shall have reasonable access to and the right to copy the files on a timely basis; and

(4) settlement authority granted to the managing general agent may be terminated for cause upon the insurer's written notice to the managing general agent or upon the termination of the contract. The insurer may suspend the settlement authority during the pendency of any dispute regarding the cause for termination.

Subd. 9. [TRANSMISSION OF ELECTRONIC CLAIMS DATA.]

Where electronic claims files are in existence, the contract must address the timely transmission of the data.

Subd. 10. [INTERIM PROFITS.] If the contract provides for a sharing of interim profits by the managing general agent, and the managing general agent has the authority to determine the amount of the interim profits by establishing loss reserves or controlling claim payments, or in any other manner, interim profits will not be paid to the managing general agent until one year after they are earned for property insurance business and five years after they are earned on casualty business and not until the profits have been verified pursuant to section 60I.05.

Subd. 11. [AGENT PRACTICES.] The managing general agent shall not:

(1) bind reinsurance or retrocessions on behalf of the insurer, except that the managing general agent may bind facultative reinsurance contracts pursuant to obligatory facultative agreements if the contract with the insurer contains reinsurance underwriting guidelines including, for both reinsurance assumed and ceded, a list of reinsurers with which these automatic agreements are in effect, the coverage and amounts or percentages that may be reinsured, and commission schedules;

(2) commit the insurer to participate in insurance or reinsurance syndicates;

(3) appoint any producer without assuring that the producer is lawfully licensed to transact the type of insurance for which that person is appointed;

Subd. 2. [ACTUARIAL OPINION ON LOSS RESERVES.] If a managing general agent establishes loss reserves, the insurer shall annually obtain the opinion of an actuary not employed by the insurer or by the managing general agent attesting to the adequacy of loss reserves established for losses incurred and outstanding on business produced by the managing general agent. This is in addition to any other required loss reserve certification.

Subd. 3. [UNDERWRITING AND CLAIMS PROCESSING REVIEW.] The insurer shall periodically, at least semiannually, conduct an on-site review of the underwriting and claims processing operation of the managing general agent and maintain on its records the results of that review.

If the insurer determines that a producer has become a managing general agent, the insurer shall promptly notify the producer and the commissioner of the determination and the insurer and producer must fully comply with the provisions of this chapter with 30 days.

Subd. 7. [APPOINTMENTS TO BOARD.] An insurer shall not appoint to its board of directors an officer, director, employee, subproducer, or controlling shareholder of its managing general agents. A managing general agent may be examined as if it were the insurer.

Sec. 7. [60I.07] [ACTS OF MANAGING GENERAL AGENT.]

The acts of the managing general agent are considered to be the acts of the insurer on whose behalf it is acting.

Sec. 8. [60I.08] [PENALTIES AND LIABILITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] If the commissioner finds pursuant to the procedural requirements of section 45.027 that any person has violated any provision or provisions of this article, the commissioner may take any action granted to the commissioner by that section.

Subd. 2. [CIVIL PENALTY AND REIMBURSEMENT ORDER.] In addition to authority granted by section 45.027 for each separate violation, the commissioner may impose a penalty up to $5,000 and order the managing general agent to reimburse the insurer, rehabilitator, or liquidator of the insurer for any losses incurred by the insurer caused by a violation of this article committed by the managing general agent.

Subd. 3. [JUDICIAL REVIEW.] The decision, determination, or order of the commissioner pursuant to subdivision 1, is subject to judicial review pursuant to chapter 14.

Subd. 4. [OTHER PENALTIES.] Nothing contained in this section shall affect the right of the commissioner to impose any other penalties provided for by law.

Sec. 12. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 60I.01 to 60I.10 are effective August 1, 1991. No insurer may continue to utilize the services of a managing general agent on and after that date unless the utilization is in compliance with this article.

ARTICLE 5

LIFE AND HEALTH GUARANTY ASSOCIATION

60B.25 [POWERS OF LIQUIDATOR.]

The liquidator shall report to the court monthly, or at other intervals specified by the court, on the progress of the liquidation in whatever detail the court orders. The liquidator shall coordinate activities with those of each guaranty association having an interest in the liquidation and shall submit a report detailing how coordination will be achieved to the court for its approval within 30 days following appointment, or within the time which the court, in its discretion, may establish. Subject to the court's control, the liquidator may:

(1) Appoint a special deputy to act under sections 60B.01 to 60B.61 and determine the deputy's compensation. The special deputy shall have all powers of the liquidator granted by this section. The special deputy shall serve at the pleasure of the liquidator.

(2) Appoint or engage employees and agents, actuaries, accountants, appraisers, consultants, and other personnel deemed necessary to assist in the liquidation without regard to chapter 14.

(3) Fix the compensation of persons under clause (2), subject to the control of the court.

(4) Defray all expenses of taking possession of, conserving, conducting, liquidating, disposing of, or otherwise dealing with the business and property of the insurer. If the property of the insurer does not contain sufficient cash or liquid assets to defray the costs incurred, the liquidator may advance the costs so incurred out of the appropriation made to the department of commerce. Any amounts so paid shall be deemed expense of administration and shall be repaid for the credit of the department of commerce out of the first available money of the insurer.

(5) Hold hearings, subpoena witnesses and compel their attendance, administer oaths, examine any person under oath and compel any person to subscribe to testimony after it has been correctly reduced to writing, and in connection therewith require the production of any books, papers, records, or other documents which the liquidator deems relevant to the inquiry.

(6) Collect all debts and money due and claims belonging to the insurer, wherever located, and for this purpose institute timely action in other jurisdictions, in order to forestall garnishment and attachment proceedings against such debts; do such other acts as are necessary or expedient to collect, conserve, or protect its assets or property, including sell, compound, compromise, or assign for purposes of collection, upon such terms and conditions as the liquidator deems best, any bad or doubtful debts; and pursue any creditor's remedies available to enforce claims.

(7) Conduct public and private sales of the property of the insurer in a manner prescribed by the court.

(8) Use assets of the estate to transfer coverage obligations to a solvent assuming insurer, if the transfer can be arranged without prejudice to applicable priorities under section 60B.44.

(9) Acquire, hypothecate, encumber, lease, improve, sell, transfer, abandon, or otherwise dispose of or deal with any property of the insurer at its market value or upon such terms and conditions as are fair and reasonable, except that no transaction involving property the market value of which exceeds $10,000 shall be concluded without express permission of the court. The liquidator may also execute, acknowledge, and deliver any deeds, assignments, releases, and other instruments necessary or proper to effectuate any sale of property or other transaction in connection with the liquidation. In cases where real property sold by the liquidator is located other than in the county where the liquidation is pending, the liquidator shall cause to be filed with the county recorder for the county in which the property is located a certified copy of the order of appointment.

(10) Borrow money on the security of the insurer's assets or without security and execute and deliver all documents necessary to that transaction for the purpose of facilitating the liquidation.

(11) Enter into such contracts as are necessary to carry out the order to liquidate, and affirm or disallow any contracts to which the insurer is a party.

(12) Continue to prosecute and institute in the name of the insurer or in the liquidator's own name any suits and other legal proceedings, in this state or elsewhere, and abandon the prosecution of claims the liquidator deems unprofitable to pursue further. If the insurer is dissolved under section 60B.23, the liquidator may apply to any court in this state or elsewhere for leave to be substituted for the insurer as plaintiff.

(13) Prosecute any action which may exist in behalf of the creditors, members, policyholders, or shareholders of the insurer against any officer of the insurer, or any other person.

(14) Remove any records and property of the insurer to the offices of the commissioner or to such other place as is convenient for the purposes of efficient and orderly execution of the liquidation.

(15) Deposit in one or more banks in this state such sums as are required for meeting current administration expenses and dividend distributions.

(16) Deposit with the state board of investment for investment pursuant to section 11A.24, all sums not currently needed, unless the court orders otherwise.

(17) File any necessary documents for record in the office of any county recorder or record office in this state or elsewhere where property of the insurer is located.

(18) Assert all defenses available to the insurer as against third persons, including statutes of limitations, statutes of frauds, and the defense of usury. A waiver of any defense by the insurer after a petition for liquidation has been filed shall not bind the liquidator.

(19) Exercise and enforce all the rights, remedies, and powers of any creditor, shareholder, policyholder, or member, including any power to avoid any transfer or lien that may be given by law and that is not included within sections 60B.30 and 60B.32.

(20) Intervene in any proceeding wherever instituted that might lead to the appointment of a receiver or trustee, and act as the receiver or trustee whenever the appointment is offered.

(21) Enter into agreements with any receiver or commissioner of any other state relating to the rehabilitation, liquidation, conservation, or dissolution of an insurer doing business in both states.

(22) Exercise all powers now held or hereafter conferred upon receivers by the laws of this state not inconsistent with sections 60B.01 to 60B.61.

(23) The enumeration in this section of the powers and authority of the liquidator is not a limitation, nor does it exclude the right to do such other acts not herein specifically enumerated or otherwise provided for as are necessary or expedient for the accomplishment of or in aid of the purpose of liquidation.

(24) The power of the liquidator of a health maintenance organization includes the power to transfer coverage obligations to a solvent and voluntary health maintenance organization, insurer, or nonprofit health service plan, and to assign provider contracts of the insolvent health maintenance organization to an assuming health maintenance organization, insurer, or nonprofit health service plan permitted to enter into such agreements. The liquidator is not required to meet the notice requirements of section 62D.121. Transferees of coverage obligations or provider contracts shall have no liability to creditors or obligees of the health maintenance organization except those liabilities expressly assumed.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 61B.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [NOTICE CONCERNING LIMITATIONS AND EXCLUSIONS.] On and after January 1, 1992, no person, including an insurer, agent, or affiliate of an insurer or agent, shall offer for sale in this state a covered life insurance, annuity, or health insurance policy or contract without delivering at the time of application for that policy or contract a separate notice in the form the commissioner from time to time may approve for use in this state relating to coverage provided by the Minnesota Life and Health Insurance Guaranty Association. The notice must be signed by the applicant and kept on file by the person offering the policy or contract for sale. A copy of the signed notice must be given to the applicant.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 61B.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [EFFECT OF NOTICE.] The distribution, delivery, or contents or interpretation of the notice described in subdivision 6 shall not mean that either the policy or contract, or the owner or holder thereof, would be covered in the event of the impairment of a member insurer if coverage is not otherwise provided by this chapter. Failure to receive the notice does not give the policyholder, contract holder, certificate holder, insured, owner, beneficiaries, assignees, or payees any greater rights than those provided by this chapter.

ARTICLE 6

Good cause includes but is not limited to the following:

(a) That existence of a claim was not known to the claimant and that the claimant filed within 30 days after learning of it;

(b) That a claim for unearned premiums or for cash surrender values or other investment values in life insurance or annuities which was not required to be filed was omitted from the liquidator's recommendations to the court under section 60B.45, and that it was filed within 30 days after the claimant learned of the omission;

The association shall perform its functions under a plan of operation established and approved under section 60C.07 and shall exercise its powers through a board of directors established under section 60C.08. For purposes of administration and assessment the association shall be divided into five separate accounts: (1) the automobile insurance account, (2) the township mutuals account, (3)

(i) the claims-made policy contained a provision affording the insured the right to purchase a reporting endorsement;

(ii) coverage will be no greater than if a reporting endorsement had been issued;

(iii) the insured has not purchased other insurance which applies to the claim; and

(iv) the insured's deductible under the policy is increased by an amount equal to the premium for the reporting endorsement, as provided in the insured's claims-made policy, or if not so provided, then as established by a rate service organization.

Subd. 2a. [ACTUARIAL OPINION OF RESERVES.] (a) Every life insurance company doing business in this state shall annually submit the opinion of a qualified actuary as to whether the reserves and related actuarial items held in support of the policies and contracts specified by the commissioner by rule are computed appropriately, are based on assumptions which satisfy contractual provisions, are consistent with prior reported amounts, and comply with applicable laws of this state. The commissioner may by rule define the specifics of this opinion and add any other items considered to be necessary to its scope. The opinion must be included in the company's annual statement.

This requirement to annually submit the opinion of a qualified actuary shall apply to service plan corporations licensed pursuant to chapter 62C, to legal service plans licensed pursuant to chapter 62G, and to all fraternal benefit societies except those societies paying only sick benefits not exceeding $250 in any one year, or paying funeral benefits of not more than $350, or aiding those dependent on a member not more than $350, nor any subordinate lodge or council which is or whose members are, assessed for benefits which are payable by a grand body.

(b) The opinion shall apply to all business in force, including individual and group health insurance plans, and shall be based on standards adopted by the Actuarial Standards Board. The opinion shall be acceptable to the commissioner in both form and substance.

(c) In the case of an opinion required to be submitted by a foreign or alien company, the commissioner may accept the opinion filed by that company with the insurance supervisory official of another state if the commissioner determines that the opinion reasonably meets the requirements applicable to a company domiciled in this state.

(d) For the purposes of this section, "qualified actuary" means a member in good standing of the American Academy of Actuaries who meets the requirements set forth in rules the commissioner may prescribe.

(e) Except in cases of fraud or willful misconduct, the qualified actuary shall not be liable for damages to any person, other than the insurance company and the commissioner, for any act, error, omission, decision, or conduct with respect to the actuary's opinion.

(f) A memorandum, in form and substance acceptable to the commissioner based on standards adopted from time to time by the Actuarial Standards Board and on any additional standards the commissioner may by rule prescribe, shall be prepared to support each actuarial opinion.

Subd. 2a. [PURPOSE, SCOPE, AND NOTICE OF EXAMINATION.] An examination may, but need not, cover comprehensively all aspects of the examinee's affairs, practices, and conditions. The commissioner shall determine the nature and scope of each examination and in doing so shall take into account all available relevant factors concerning the financial and business affairs, practices and conditions of the examinee. For examinations undertaken pursuant to this section, the commissioner shall issue an order stating the scope of the examination and designating the person responsible for conducting the examination. A copy of the order shall be provided to the examinee.

In conducting the examination, the examiner shall observe those guidelines and procedures set forth in the examiner's handbook adopted by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners. The commissioner may also employ other guidelines or procedures the commissioner considers appropriate.

Subd. 3. [ACCESS TO EXAMINEE.] (a) The commissioner, or the designated person, shall have timely, convenient, and free access ~~during normal business~~ at all reasonable hours to all books, records, securities, accounts, documents, and any or all computer or other records and papers relating to the property, assets, business, and affairs of any company, applicant, association, or person which may be examined pursuant to this act for the purpose of ascertaining, appraising, and evaluating the assets, conditions, affairs, operations, ability to fulfill obligations, and compliance with all the provisions of law of the company or person insofar as any of the above pertain to the business of insurance of a person, organization, or corporation transacting, having transacted, or being organized to transact business in this state. Proceedings for suspension, revocation, or refusal of any license or authority shall be conducted pursuant to section 45.027.

(b) The commissioner or any examiners shall have the power to issue subpoenas, to administer oaths, and to examine under oath any person as to any matter pertinent to the examination. Upon the failure or refusal of any person to obey a subpoena, the commissioner may petition a court of competent jurisdiction, and upon proper showing, the court may enter an order compelling the witness to appear and testify or produce documentary evidence. Failure to obey the court order shall be punishable as contempt of court.

(d) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to limit the commissioner's authority to terminate or suspend any examination in order to pursue other legal or regulatory action pursuant to the insurance laws of this state. Findings of fact and conclusions made pursuant to any examination shall be prima facie evidence in any legal or regulatory action.

(e) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to limit the commissioner's authority to use as evidence, any final or preliminary examination report, any examiner or company workpapers or other documents, or any other information discovered or developed during the course of any examination in the furtherance of any legal or administrative action which the commissioner may, in the commissioner's sole discretion, consider appropriate.

Subd. 4. [EXAMINATION REPORT; FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC COMPANIES.] (a) The commissioner shall make a full and true report of every examination conducted pursuant to this chapter, which shall include (1) a statement of findings of fact relating to the financial status and other matters ascertained from the books, papers, records, documents, and other evidence obtained by investigation and examination or ascertained from the testimony of officers, agents, or other persons examined under oath concerning the business, affairs, assets, obligations, ability to fulfill obligations, and compliance with all the provisions of the law of the company, applicant, organization, or person subject to this chapter and (2) a summary of important points noted in the report, conclusions, recommendations and suggestions as may reasonably be warranted from the facts so ascertained in the examinations. The report of examination shall be verified by the oath of the examiner in charge thereof, and shall be prima facie evidence in any action or proceedings in the name of the state against the company, applicant, organization, or person upon the facts stated therein.

(b) No later than 60 days following completion of the examination, the examiner in charge shall file with the department a verified written report of examination under oath. Upon receipt of the verified report, the department shall transmit the report to the company examined, together with a notice which shall afford the company examined a reasonable opportunity of not more than 30 days to make a written submission or rebuttal with respect to any matters contained in the examination report.

(c) Within 30 days of the end of the period allowed for the receipt of written submissions or rebuttals, the commissioner shall fully consider and review the report, together with any written submissions or rebuttals and any relevant portions of the examiner's workpapers and enter an order:

data, documentation or information, and refiling pursuant to paragraph (a); or

(3) calling for an investigatory hearing with no less than 20 days' notice to the company for purposes of obtaining additional documentation, data, information, and testimony.

(d)(1) All orders entered pursuant to paragraph (c), clause (1), shall be accompanied by findings and conclusions resulting from the commissioner's consideration and review of the examination report, relevant examiner workpapers, and any written submissions or rebuttals. The order shall be considered a final administrative decision and may be appealed pursuant to chapter 14, and shall be served upon the company by certified mail, together with a copy of the adopted examination report. Within 30 days of the issuance of the adopted report, the company shall file affidavits executed by each of its directors stating under oath that they have received a copy of the adopted report and related orders.

(2) Any hearing conducted under paragraph (c), clause (3), by the commissioner or authorized representative, shall be conducted as a nonadversarial confidential investigatory proceeding as necessary for the resolution of any inconsistencies, discrepancies, or disputed issues apparent upon the face of the filed examination report or raised by or as a result of the commissioner's review of relevant workpapers or by the written submission or rebuttal of the company. Within 20 days of the conclusion of the hearing, the commissioner shall enter an order pursuant to paragraph (c), clause (1).

(3) The commissioner shall not appoint an examiner as an authorized representative to conduct the hearing. The hearing shall proceed expeditiously with discovery by the company limited to the examiner's workpapers which tend to substantiate any assertions set forth in any written submission or rebuttal. The commissioner or the commissioner's representative may issue subpoenas for the attendance of any witnesses or the production of any documents deemed relevant to the investigation whether under the control of the department, the company, or other persons. The documents produced shall be included in the record and testimony taken by the commissioner or the commissioner's representative shall be under oath and preserved for the record.

Nothing contained in this section shall require the department to disclose any information or records which would indicate or show the existence or content of any investigation or activity of a criminal justice agency.

(4) The hearing shall proceed with the commissioner or the commissioner's representative posing questions to the persons subpoenaed. Thereafter, the company and the department may present testimony relevant to the investigation. Cross-examination shall be conducted only by the commissioner or the commissioner's representative. The company and the department shall be permitted to make closing statements and may be represented by counsel of their choice.

(e)(1) Upon the adoption of the examination report under paragraph (c), clause (1), the commissioner shall continue to hold the content of the examination report as private and confidential information for a period of 30 days except to the extent provided in paragraph (b). Thereafter, the commissioner may open the report for public inspection so long as no court of competent jurisdiction has stayed its publication.

(2) Nothing contained in this subdivision prevents or shall be construed as prohibiting the commissioner from disclosing the content of an examination report, preliminary examination report or results, or any matter relating thereto, to the commerce department or the insurance department of any other state or country, or to law enforcement officials of this or any other state or agency of the federal government at any time, so long as the agency or office receiving the report or matters relating thereto agrees in writing to hold it confidential and in a manner consistent with this subdivision.

(3) In the event the commissioner determines that regulatory action is appropriate as a result of any examination, the commissioner may initiate any proceedings or actions as provided by law.

(f) All working papers, recorded information, documents and copies thereof produced by, obtained by or disclosed to the commissioner or any other person in the course of an examination made under this subdivision must be given confidential treatment and are not subject to subpoena and may not be made public by the commissioner or any other person, except to the extent provided in paragraph (e). Access may also be granted to the National Association of Insurance Commissioners. The parties must agree in writing prior to receiving the information to provide to it the same confidential treatment as required by this section, unless the prior written consent of the company to which it pertains has been obtained.

Subd. 5. [ORDER; FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC COMPANIES.] Within a reasonable time of receipt of an examination report the commissioner may issue an order to the examinee directing compliance within a time specified in the order or by law with one or more of the following:

(a) to restore within the time and extent prescribed by law or the commissioner's order any deficiency, whenever its capital, reserves or surplus have become impaired,

(b) to cease and desist from transaction of any business or from any business practice which if transacted or continued might result in the examinee's condition or further transaction of business being hazardous to its policyholders, its creditors, or the public,

(c) to cease and desist from any other violation of its charter or any law of the state.

Subd. 6. [PENALTY.] Notwithstanding section 72A.05, any person who violates or aids and abets any violation of a written order issued pursuant to this section may be fined not more than $10,000 for each violation of the order in an action commenced in Ramsey county by the attorney general on behalf of the state of Minnesota and the money so recovered shall be paid into the general fund.

Subd. 7. [ALTERNATIVES TO EXAMINATIONS.] ~~(1) [AUDITS OR ACTUARIAL EVALUATIONS.]~~ In lieu of ~~all or part of an examination under this chapter, or in addition to it, the commissioner may require an independent audit by certified public accountants approved by the commissioner or an actuarial evaluation by actuaries approved by the commissioner of any persons subject to the examination requirement of subdivision 1.~~

~~(2) [REPORTS.] In lieu of all or part of an examination under this section, the commissioner may accept the report of an audit made by certified public accountants approved by the commissioner or actuarial evaluation by actuaries approved by the commissioner or the report of an examination made by the insurance department of another state, of the examination made by another government agency in this state, the federal government or another state.~~ an examination under this section of any foreign or alien insurer licensed in this state, the commissioner may accept an examination report on the company as prepared by the insurance department for the company's state of domicile or port of entry state until January 1, 1994. After that date, the reports may only be accepted if:

(1) the insurance department was at the time of the examination accredited under the National Association of Insurance Commissioners Financial Regulation Standards and Accreditation Program; or

(2) the examination is performed under the supervision of an accredited insurance department or with the participation of one or more examiners who are employed by such an accredited state insurance department and who, after a review of the examination workpapers and report, state under oath that the examination was performed in a manner consistent with the standards and procedures required by their insurance department.

Subd. 7a. [CONFLICT OF INTEREST.] The department shall establish reasonable procedures so that no examiner, either directly or indirectly, has a conflict of interest or is affiliated with the management of or owns a pecuniary interest in any person subject to examination under this chapter. This section shall not be construed to automatically preclude an examiner from being:

(1) a policyholder or claimant under an insurance policy;

(2) a grantor of a mortgage or similar instrument on the examiner's residence to a regulated entity if done under customary terms and in the ordinary course of business;

(3) an investment owner in shares of regulated diversified investment companies; or

(4) a settlor or beneficiary of a "blind trust" into which any otherwise impermissible holdings have been placed.

Notwithstanding the requirements of this section, the commissioner may retain from time to time, on an individual basis, qualified actuaries, certified public accountants, or other similar individuals who are independently practicing their professions, even though these persons may from time to time be similarly employed or retained by persons subject to examination under this chapter.

Subd. 8. [POWER TO MAKE RULES.] The commissioner may promulgate any rules which may be necessary to the administration of subdivisions 1 to ~~7~~ 9.

Subd. 9. [IMMUNITY FROM LIABILITY.] (a) No cause of action shall arise nor shall any liability be imposed against the commissioner, the commissioner's authorized representatives, or any examiner appointed by the commissioner for any statements made or conduct performed in good faith while carrying out the provisions of this section.

(b) No cause of action shall arise, nor shall any liability be imposed against any person for the act of communicating or delivering information or data to the commissioner or the commissioner's authorized representative or examiner pursuant to an examination made under this section, if the act of communication or delivery was performed in good faith and without fraudulent intent or the intent to deceive.

(c) This section does not abrogate or modify in any way any common law or statutory privilege or immunity enjoyed by any person identified in paragraph (a).

(d) A person identified in paragraph (a) shall be entitled to an award of attorney's fees and costs if the person is the prevailing party in a civil action for libel, slander, or any other relevant tort arising out of activities in carrying out the provisions of this section and the party bringing the action was not substantially justified in doing so. For purposes of this section, a proceeding is "substantially justified" if it had a reasonable basis in law or fact at the time that it was initiated.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 60A.07, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5f. [CAPITAL AND SURPLUS REQUIREMENTS.] (a) Capital and surplus requirements are based upon all kinds of insurance transacted by the insurer, whether or not only a portion of the kinds of insurance are transacted in this state. The commissioner may for the protection of the public require an insurer to maintain funds in excess of the amounts required under this section, due to the amount, kind, or combination of kinds of insurance transacted by the insurer. Failure of an insurer to maintain funds as ordered by the commissioner is grounds for suspension or revocation of the insurer's certificate of authority.

(b) After June 30, 1991, an insurer may not renew and continue its certificate of authority unless the insurer possesses at least the basic capital and surplus, and additional surplus required by the commissioner under this section.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 60A.10, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [SPECIAL DEPOSITS.] The commissioner may require a special deposit of an individual foreign insurer for the protection of its Minnesota policyholders or claimants. ~~The special deposit may be required, to a maximum amount of $500,000.~~ In the event of the filing of a delinquency petition against the insurer in Minnesota, the deposit is subject to chapters 60B, 60C, ~~and~~ 61A, and 61B.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 60A.11, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [GENERAL CONSIDERATIONS.] The following considerations apply in the interpretation of this section:

(a) This section applies to the investments of insurance companies other than life insurance companies;

(b) The purpose of this section is to protect and further the interests of policyholders, claimants, creditors and the public by providing standards for the development and administration of programs for the investment of the assets of domestic companies. These standards and the investment programs developed by companies must take into account the safety of company's principal, investment yield and growth, stability in the value of the investment, the liquidity necessary to meet the company's expected business needs, and investment diversification;

(c) All financial terms relating to insurance companies have the meanings assigned to them under statutory accounting methods. All financial terms relating to noninsurance companies have the meanings assigned to them under generally accepted accounting principles;

(d) Investments must be valued in accordance with the valuation procedures established by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners, unless the commissioner requires or finds another method of valuation reasonable under the circumstances. Other invested assets must be valued according to the procedures promulgated by the NAIC's financial condition (Ex 4) subcommittee, if not addressed in another section, unless the commissioner requires or finds another method of valuation reasonable under the circumstances;

(e) A company may elect to hold an investment which qualifies under more than one subdivision, under the subdivision of its choice. Nothing herein prevents a company from electing to hold an investment under a subdivision different from the one in which it previously held the investment; and

(f) An investment which qualifies under any provision of the law governing investments of insurance companies when acquired will continue to be a qualified investment for as long as it is held by the insurance company.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 60A.13, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ANNUAL STATEMENTS REQUIRED.] Every insurance company, including fraternal beneficiary associations, and reciprocal exchanges, doing business in this state, shall transmit to the commissioner, annually, on or before March first, ~~in the form prescribed by the commissioner, a verified statement of its entire business and condition during the preceding calendar year~~ the appropriate verified NAIC annual statement blank, prepared in accordance with NAIC's instructions handbook and following those accounting procedures and practices prescribed by the NAIC's Accounting Practices and Procedures manual, unless the commissioner requires or finds another method of valuation reasonable under the circumstances. In addition, the commissioner may require the filing of any other information determined to be reasonably necessary for the continual enforcement of these laws. The statement may be limited to the insurer's business and condition in the United States unless the commissioner finds that the business conducted outside the United States may detrimentally affect the interests of policyholders in this state. The statements shall also contain a verified schedule showing all details required by law for assessment and taxation. The statement or schedules shall be in the form and shall contain all matters the commissioner may prescribe, and it may be varied as to different types of insurers so as to elicit a true exhibit of the condition of each insurer.

61A.283 [ADMITTED ASSETS.]

For the purpose of applying any investment limitation based on the amount of a domestic life insurance company's admitted assets, the term "admitted assets" ~~shall mean such assets as shown by the company's annual statement, required by section 60A.13, as of the December 31 immediately preceding the date the company acquires the investment~~ has the meaning given the term in section 60A.02, subdivision 1a, with an adjustment in such admitted asset figure to exclude amounts which on such December 31 are allocated to separate accounts; ~~and the value of stocks and warrants and options to purchase stocks owned by the company on such December 31 shall be based on cost. (4) settlement authority granted to the RM may be terminated for cause upon the reinsurer's written notice to the RM or upon the termination of the contract. The reinsurer may suspend the settlement authority during the pendency of the dispute regarding the cause of termination.

This opinion must be in addition to any other required loss reserve certification.

Subd. 4. [BINDING AUTHORITY.] Binding authority for all retrocessional contracts or participation in reinsurance syndicates shall rest with an officer of the reinsurer who shall not be affiliated with the RM.

Section 1. [60J.01] [TITLE.]

Sections 60J.01 to 60J.05 may be cited as the business transacted with producer controlled property/casualty insurer act.

Sec. 2. [60J.02] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [TERMS.] For the purposes of sections 60J.01 to 60J.05, the terms defined in this section have the meanings given them.

Subd. 2. [PRODUCER.] "Producer" means an insurance broker or brokers or any other person, firm, association, or corporation, when, for any compensation, commission, or other thing of value, the person, firm, association, or corporation acts or aids in any manner in soliciting, negotiating, or procuring the making of any insurance contract on behalf of an insured other than himself, herself, or itself.

[CONTROL.] "Control" or "controlled" means the possession, direct or indirect, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract other than a contract for goods or nonmanagement services, or otherwise. Control is presumed to exist if a person, directly or indirectly, owns, controls, holds with the powers to vote, or holds proxies representing a majority of the outstanding voting securities of any other person. No person is considered to control another person solely by reason of being an officer or director of the other person.

Subd. 5. [LICENSED PROPERTY/CASUALTY INSURER.] "Licensed property/casualty insurer" or "insurer" means a person, firm, association, or corporation licensed to transact a property/casualty insurance business in this state and that issues policies covered by chapter 60C. (1) all nonadmitted insurers;

(2) all risk retention groups as defined in the Superfund Amendments Reauthorization Act of 1986, Public Law Number 99-499, 100 Stat. 1613 (1986) and the Risk Retention Act, United States Code, title 15, section 3901 et seq. and chapter 60E;

Subd. 6. [INDEPENDENT CASUALTY ACTUARY.] "Independent casualty actuary" means a casualty actuary who is a member of the American Academy of Actuaries and who is not affiliated with, nor an employee, principal, nor the direct or indirect owner of, or in any way controlled by the insurer or producer.

When determining whether premiums were lower than those prevailing in the market, the commissioner shall take into consideration applicable industry or actuarial standards at the time the business was written;

(3) the controlling producer failed to maintain records, sufficient:

(i) to demonstrate that the producer's dealings with its controlled insurer were fair and equitable and in compliance with chapter 60D; and

(ii) to accurately disclose the nature and details of its transactions with the controlled insurer, including information necessary to support the charges or fees to the respective parties;

(4) the controlled insurer, with respect to business placed by the controlling producer, either failed to establish or deviated from its underwriting procedures;

(5) the controlled insurer's capitalization at the time the business was placed by the controlling producer and with respect to this business was not in compliance with criteria established by the commissioner or with the insurance law or rules adopted under it; or

(6) the controlling producer or the controlled insurer failed to substantially comply with the insurance holding company act, chapter 60D and any rules adopted under it.

Sec. 3. [60J.03] [LIMITATION ON BUSINESS PLACED WITH CONTROLLED INSURER.]

Subdivision 1. [PRODUCER LIMITATION.] No producer that has control of a licensed property/casualty insurer may directly or indirectly place business with the insurer in any transaction in which the producer, at the time the business is placed, is acting as such on behalf of the insured for any compensation, commission, or other thing of value, unless:

(1) there is a written contract between the controlling producer and the insurer, which contract has been approved by the board of directors of the insurer;

(2) the producer, before the effective date of the policy, shall deliver written notice to the prospective insured disclosing the relationship between the producer and the controlled insurer. The disclosure, signed by the insured, must be retained in the underwriting file until the filing of the report on examination covering the period in which the coverage is in effect. Except that, if the business is placed through a subproducer who is not a controlling producer, the controlling producer shall retain in the producer's records a signed commitment from the subproducer that the subproducer is aware of the relationship between the insurer and the producer and that the subproducer has or will notify the insured;

(3) all funds collected for the account of the insurer by the controlling producer must be paid, net of commissions, cancellations, and other adjustments, to the insurer no less often that quarterly;

(4) in addition to any other required loss reserve certification, the controlled insurer shall annually, on April 1 of each year, file with the commissioner an opinion of an independent casualty actuary, or other independent loss reserve specialist acceptable to the commissioner, reporting loss ratios for each line of business written and attesting to the adequacy of loss reserves established for losses incurred and outstanding as of year-end, including incurred but not reported, on business placed by the producer;

(5) the controlled insurer shall annually report to the commissioner the amount of commissions paid to the producer, the percentage the amount represents of the net premiums written and comparable amounts and percentage paid to noncontrolling producers for placements of the same kinds of insurance; and

(6) every controlled insurer shall have an audit committee of the board of directors composed of independent directors. Before approval of the annual financial statement, the audit committee shall meet with management, the insurer's independent certified public accountants, and an independent casualty actuary, or other independent loss reserve specialist acceptable to the commissioner, to review the adequacy of the insurer's loss reserves.

Subd. 2. [REINSURANCE INTERMEDIARY LIMITATION.] No reinsurance intermediary that has control of an assuming insurer may directly or indirectly place business with the insurer in any transaction in which the reinsurance intermediary is acting as a broker on behalf of the ceding insurer. No reinsurance intermediary that has control of a ceding insurer may directly or indirectly accept business from the insurer in any transaction in which the reinsurance intermediary is acting as a producer on behalf of the assuming insurer. The prohibitions in this subdivision do not apply to a reinsurance intermediary that makes a full and complete written disclosure to the parties of its relationship with the assuming or ceding insurer before completion of the transaction.

Sec. 4. [60J.04] [LIABILITY OF CONTROLLING PRODUCER IN THE EVENT OF INSOLVENCY OF CONTROLLED INSURER.]

Subdivision 1. [INITIATION OF ACTION.] If the commissioner has reason to believe that a controlling producer has committed or is committing an act that could be determined to be a violation of sections 60J.01 to 60J.05, the commissioner shall serve upon the controlling producer, in the manner provided by chapter 14, a statement of the charges and notice of a hearing to be conducted in accordance with chapter 14, at a time not less than 30 days after the service of the notice and at a place fixed in the notice.

Subd. 2. [HEARING.] At the hearing, the commissioner shall establish that the controlling producer engaged in a violation of sections 60J.01 to 60J.05. The controlling producer shall have an opportunity to be heard and to present evidence rebutting the charges and to establish that the insolvency of the controlled insurer arose out of events not attributable to the violation. The decision, determination, or order of the commissioner is subject to judicial review pursuant to chapter 14.

Subd. 3. [PENALTY.] Upon finding that the controlling producer committed a violation, and the controlling producer failed to establish that the violation did not substantially contribute to the insolvency, the controlling producer shall reimburse the state guaranty funds for all payments made for losses, loss adjustment, and administrative expenses on the business placed by the producer in excess of gross earned premiums and investment income earned on premiums and loss reserves for the business.

Subd. 4. [OTHER PENALTIES.] Nothing contained in this section affects the right of the commissioner to impose any other penalties provided for in the insurance laws.

Sec. 5. [60J.05] [SCOPE.]

Nothing contained in sections 60J.01 to 60J.05 is intended to or in any manner alters or affects the rights of policyholders, claimants, creditors, or other third parties.

Sec. 6. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This article is effective August 1, 1991.

ARTICLE 14

INSURANCE HOLDING COMPANY SYSTEMS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 60A.07, subdivision 5d, is amended to read:

Subd. 5d. [APPLICATION.] All insurance companies shall meet the requirements of subdivisions 5a to 5d, except as provided in this subdivision. Any company authorized to transact a particular kind of insurance as specified in section 60A.06, subdivision 1, on April 9, 1976 may continue until January 1, 1983 to conduct the same kind of insurance by meeting and maintaining the applicable capital, surplus, and guaranty fund requirements which were in effect immediately prior to April 9, 1976. On and after January 1, 1983, all companies shall be required to meet the applicable capital, constantly maintained surplus, and guaranty fund requirements of subdivisions 5a, 5b, and 5c.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this subdivision with respect to the deferred date of compliance, after April 9, 1976:

(1) Any insurance company which seeks authority to transact an additional kind of insurance shall, as a condition to the granting of the authority, immediately comply with the applicable capital, constantly maintained surplus, and guaranty fund requirements of subdivisions 5a, 5b, and 5c for all of its authorized kinds of business.

(2) If any person acquires control of an insurance company, the insurance company shall as of the date of the acquisition of control comply with the applicable capital, constantly maintained surplus, and guaranty fund requirements of subdivisions 5a, 5b, and 5c for all of its authorized kinds of business. For purposes of this clause, the term "control" shall be defined as provided in section ~~60D.01~~ 60D.15, subdivision 4, and the term "person" shall be defined as provided in section ~~60D.01~~ 60D.15, subdivision 7.

Sec. 2. [60D.15] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [TERMS.] For purposes of this article, the terms in subdivisions 2 to 10 have the meanings given them, unless the context otherwise requires.

Subd. 2. [AFFILIATE.] An "affiliate" of, or person "affiliated" with, a specific person, is a person that directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with, the person specified.

Subd. 3. [COMMISSIONER.] The term "commissioner" means the commissioner of commerce, the commissioner's deputies, or the commerce department, as appropriate.

Subd. 4. [CONTROL.] The term "control," including the terms "controlling," "controlled by," and "under common control with," means the possession, direct or indirect, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract other than a commercial contract for goods or nonmanagement services, or otherwise, unless the power is the result of an official position with or corporate office held by the person. Control is be presumed to exist if any person, directly or indirectly, owns, controls, holds with the power to vote, or holds proxies representing, ten percent or more of the voting securities of any other person. This presumption may be rebutted by a showing made in the manner provided by section 6, subdivision 11, that control does not exist in fact. The commissioner may determine, after furnishing all persons in interest notice and opportunity to be heard and making specific findings of fact to support such determination, that control exists in fact, notwithstanding the absence of a presumption to that effect.

Subd. 5. [INSURANCE HOLDING COMPANY SYSTEM.] An "insurance holding company system" consists of two or more affiliated persons, one or more of which is an insurer.

Subd. 6. [INSURER.] The term "insurer" means a company qualified and licensed by the commissioner to transact the business of insurance, but does not include an insurance solicitor, agent, or agency. The term also does not include:

(1) agencies, authorities, or instrumentalities of the United States, its possessions and territories, the commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the District of Columbia, or a state or political subdivision of a state;

(2) fraternal benefit societies; or

(3) nonprofit medical and hospital service associations.

Subd. 7. [PERSON.] A "person" is an individual, a corporation, a partnership, an association, a joint stock company, a trust, an unincorporated organization, any similar entity or any combination of the foregoing acting in concert, but does not include any joint venture partnership exclusively engaged in owning, managing, leasing, or developing real or tangible personal property.

Subd. 8. [SECURITY HOLDER.] A "security holder" of a specified person is one who owns any security of the person, including common stock, preferred stock, debt obligations, and any other security convertible into or evidencing the right to acquire any security of the person.

Subd. 9. [SUBSIDIARY.] A "subsidiary" of a specified person is an affiliate controlled by the person directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries.

Subd. 10. [VOTING SECURITY.] The term "voting security" includes any security convertible into or evidencing a right to acquire a voting security.

Sec. 3. [60D.16] [SUBSIDIARIES OF INSURERS.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZATION.] A domestic insurer, either by itself or in cooperation with one or more persons, may organize or acquire one or more subsidiaries engaged in the following kinds of business:

(1) any kind of insurance business authorized by the jurisdiction in which it is incorporated;

(2) acting as an insurance broker or as an insurance agent for its parent or for any of its parent's insurer subsidiaries;

(3) investing, reinvesting, or trading in securities for its own account, that of its parent, any subsidiary of its parent, or any affiliate or subsidiary;

(4) management of any investment company subject to or registered pursuant to the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, including related sales and services;

(11) any other business activity determined by the commissioner to be reasonably ancillary to an insurance business; and

(12) owning a corporation or corporations engaged or organized to engage exclusively in one or more of the businesses specified in this section.

Subd. 2. [ADDITIONAL INVESTMENT AUTHORITY.] In addition to investments in common stock, preferred stock, debt obligations, and other securities otherwise permitted, a domestic insurer may also:

(a) Invest, in common stock, preferred stock, debt obligations, and other securities of one or more subsidiaries, amounts that do not exceed the lesser of ten percent of the insurer's assets or 50 percent of the insurer's surplus as regards policyholders, provided that after the investments, the insurer's surplus as regards policyholders will be reasonable in relation to the insurer's outstanding liabilities and adequate to its financial needs. In calculating the amount of these investments, investments in domestic or foreign insurance subsidiaries must be excluded, and there must be included:

(1) total net money or other consideration expended and obligations assumed in the acquisition or formation of a subsidiary, including all organizational expenses and contributions to capital and surplus of the subsidiary whether or not represented by the purchase of capital stock or issuance of other securities; and

(2) all amounts expended in acquiring additional common stock, preferred stock, debt obligations, and other securities and all contributions to the capital or surplus, of a subsidiary subsequent to its acquisition or formation.

(b) Invest any amount in common stock, preferred stock, debt obligations, and other securities of one or more subsidiaries engaged or organized to engage exclusively in the ownership and management of assets authorized as investments for the insurer provided that the subsidiary agrees to limit its investments in any asset so that the investments will not cause the amount of the total investment of the insurer to exceed any of the investment limitations specified in paragraph (a) or other statutes applicable to the insurer.

For the purpose of this paragraph, "the total investment of the insurer" includes:

(1) any direct investment by the insurer in an asset; and

(2) the insurer's proportionate share of any investment in an asset by any subsidiary of the insurer, which must be calculated by multiplying the amount of the subsidiary's investment by the percentage of the ownership of the subsidiary.

(c) With the approval of the commissioner, invest any greater amount in common stock, preferred stock, debt obligations, or other securities of one or more subsidiaries, if after the investment the insurer's surplus as regards policyholders will be reasonable in relation to the insurer's outstanding liabilities and adequate to its financial needs.

Subd. 3. [EXEMPTION FROM INVESTMENT RESTRICTIONS.] Investments in common stock, preferred stock, debt obligations, or other securities of subsidiaries made pursuant to subdivision 2 are not subject to any of the otherwise applicable restrictions or prohibitions applicable to these investments of insurers.

Subd. 4. [QUALIFICATION OF INVESTMENT; WHEN DETERMINED.] Whether any investment pursuant to subdivision 2 meets the applicable requirements is to be determined before the investment is made, by calculating the applicable investment limitations as though the investment had already been made, taking into account the then outstanding principal balance on all previous investments in debt obligations, and the value of all previous investments in equity securities as of the day they were made, net of any return of capital invested, not including dividends.

Subd. 5. [CESSATION OF CONTROL.] If an insurer ceases to control a subsidiary, it shall dispose of any investment in it made pursuant to this section within three years from the time of the cessation of control or within any further time the commissioner prescribes, unless at any time after the investment has been made, the investment meets the requirements for investment under any other provision of law, and the insurer has notified the commissioner of this fact.

Sec. 4. [60D.17] [ACQUISITION OF CONTROL OF OR MERGER WITH DOMESTIC INSURER.]

Subdivision 1. [FILING REQUIREMENTS.] No person other than the issuer shall make a tender offer for or a request or invitation for tenders of, or enter into any agreement to exchange securities or, seek to acquire, or acquire, in the open market or otherwise, any voting security of a domestic insurer if, after the consummation thereof, the person would, directly or indirectly, or by conversion or by exercise of any right to acquire, be in control of the insurer. No person shall enter into an agreement to merge with or otherwise to acquire control of a domestic insurer or any person controlling a domestic insurer unless, at the time the offer, request, or invitation is made or the agreement is entered into, or before the acquisition of the securities if no offer or agreement is involved, the person has filed with the commissioner and has sent to the insurer, a statement containing the information required by this section and the offer, request, invitation, agreement, or acquisition has been approved by the commissioner in the manner prescribed in this section.

For purposes of this section, a domestic insurer includes a person controlling a domestic insurer unless the person as determined by the commissioner is either directly or through its affiliates primarily engaged in business other than the business of insurance. However, the person shall file a preacquisition notification with the commissioner containing the information set forth in section 5, subdivision 3, paragraph (b), 30 days before the proposed effective date of the acquisition. Failure to file is subject to section 5, subdivision 5. For the purposes of this section, "person" does not include any securities broker holding, in the usual and customary brokers function, less than 20 percent of the voting securities of an insurance company or of any person that controls an insurance company.

Subd. 2. [CONTENT OF STATEMENT.] The statement to be filed with the commissioner shall be made under oath or affirmation and shall contain the following information:

(a) The name and address of each person by whom or on whose behalf the merger or other acquisition of control referred to in subdivision 1 is to be effected, hereinafter called "acquiring party"; and

(1) if the person is an individual, the principal occupation and all offices and positions held during the past five years, and any conviction of crimes other than minor traffic violations during the past ten years; and

(2) if the person is not an individual, a report of the nature of its business operations during the past five years or for a lesser period as the person and any predecessors have been in existence; an informative description of the business intended to be done by the person and the person's subsidiaries; and a list of all individuals who are or who have been selected to become directors or executive officers of such person, or who perform or will perform functions appropriate to such positions. The list must include for each individual the information required by clause (1).

(b) The source, nature, and amount of the consideration used or to be used in effecting the merger or other acquisition of control, a description of any transaction in which funds were or are to be obtained for this purpose, including any pledge of the insurer's stock, or the stock of any of its subsidiaries or controlling affiliates, and the identity of persons furnishing the consideration, provided, however, that where a source of the consideration is a loan made in the lender's ordinary course of business, the identity of the lender shall remain confidential, if the person filing the statement so requests.

(c) Fully audited financial information as to the earnings and financial condition of each acquiring party for the preceding five fiscal years of each acquiring party, or for a lesser period as the acquiring party and any predecessors have been in existence, and similar unaudited information as of a date not earlier than 90 days before the filing of the statement.

(d) Any plans or proposals that each acquiring party may have to liquidate the insurer, to sell its assets or merge or consolidate it with any person, or to make any other material change in its business or corporate structure or management.

(e) The number of shares of any security referred to in subdivision 1 that each acquiring party proposes to acquire, and the terms of the offer, request, invitation, agreement, or acquisition referred to in subdivision 1, and a statement as to the method by which the fairness of the proposal was arrived at.

(f) The amount of each class of any security referred to in subdivision 1 that is beneficially owned or concerning which there is a right to acquire beneficial ownership by each acquiring party.

(g) A full description of any contracts, arrangements, or understandings with respect to any security referred to in subdivision 1 in which any acquiring party is involved, including but not limited to, transfer of any of the securities, joint ventures, loan or option arrangements, puts or calls, guarantees of loans, guarantees against loss or guarantees of profits, division of losses or profits, or the giving or withholding of proxies. The description must identify the persons with whom the contracts, arrangements, or understandings have been entered into.

(h) A description of the purchase of any security referred to in subdivision 1 during the 12 calendar months preceding the filing of the statement, by any acquiring party, including the dates of purchase, names of the purchasers, and consideration paid or agreed to be paid for it.

(i) A description of any recommendations to purchase any security referred to in subdivision 1 made during the 12 calendar months preceding the filing of the statement, by any acquiring party, or by anyone based upon interviews or at the suggestion of the acquiring party.

(j) Copies of all tender offers for, requests, or invitations for tenders of, exchange offers for, and agreements to acquire or exchange any securities referred to in subdivision 1 and, if distributed, of additional soliciting material relating to them.

(k) The term of any agreement, contract, or understanding made with or proposed to be made with any broker-dealer as to solicitation of securities referred to in subdivision 1 for tender, and the amount of any fees, commissions, or other compensation to be paid to broker-dealers with regard to it.

(l) Additional information the commissioner may by rule prescribe as necessary or appropriate for the protection of policyholders of the insurer or in the public interest.

If the person required to file the statement referred to in subdivision 1 is a partnership, limited partnership, syndicate, or other group, the commissioner may require that the information called for by paragraphs (a) to (l) must be given with respect to each partner of the partnership or limited partnership, each member of the syndicate or group, and each person who controls the partner or member. If a partner, member, or person is a corporation, or the person required to file the statement referred to in subdivision 1 is a corporation the commissioner may require that the information called for by paragraphs (a) to (l) be given with respect to the corporation, each officer and director of the corporation, and each person who is directly or indirectly the beneficial owner of more than ten percent of the outstanding voting securities of the corporation.

If any material change occurs in the facts set forth in the statement filed with the commissioner and sent to the insurer pursuant to this section, an amendment setting forth the change, together with copies of all documents and other material relevant to the change, must be filed with the commissioner and sent to the insurer within two business days after the person learns of the change.

Subd. 3. [ALTERNATIVE FILING MATERIALS.] If any offer, request, invitation, agreement, or acquisition referred to in subdivision 1 is proposed to be made by means of a registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933, or in circumstances requiring the disclosure of similar information under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, or under a state law requiring similar registration or disclosure, the person required to file the statement referred to in subdivision 1 may utilize these documents in furnishing the information called for by that statement.

Subd. 4. [APPROVAL BY COMMISSIONER; HEARINGS.] (a) The commissioner shall approve any merger or other acquisition of control referred to in subdivision 1 unless, after a public hearing, the commissioner finds that:

(1) After the change of control, the domestic insurer referred to in subdivision 1 would not be able to satisfy the requirements for the issuance of a license to write the line or lines of insurance for which it is presently licensed;

(2) The effect of the merger or other acquisition of control would be substantially to lessen competition in insurance in this state or tend to create a monopoly therein in applying the competitive standard in this subdivision:

(i) the informational requirements of section 5, subdivision 3, paragraph (b), and the standards of section 5, subdivision 4, paragraph (c), shall apply;

(ii) the merger or other acquisition shall not be disapproved if the commissioner finds that any of the situations meeting the criteria provided by section 5, subdivision 4, paragraph (c), exist; and

(iii) the commissioner may condition the approval of the merger or other acquisition on the removal of the basis of disapproval within a specified period of time;

(3) The financial condition of any acquiring party is such as might jeopardize the financial stability of the insurer, or prejudice the interest of its policyholders;

(4) The plans or proposals that the acquiring party has to liquidate the insurer, sell its assets, or consolidate or merge it with any person, or to make any other material change in its business or corporate structure or management, are unfair and unreasonable to policyholders of the insurer and not in the public interest;

(5) The competence, experience, and integrity of those persons who would control the operation of the insurer are such that it would not be in the interest of policyholders of the insurer and of the public to permit the merger or other acquisition of control; or

(6) The acquisition is likely to be hazardous or prejudicial to the insurance buying public.

(b) The public hearing referred to in paragraph (a) must be held 30 days after the statement required by subdivision 1 is filed, and at least 20 days notice of it shall be given by the commissioner to the person filing the statement. Not less than seven days notice of the public hearing shall be given by the person filing the statement to the insurer and to other persons designated by the commissioner. The commissioner shall make a determination within 30 days after the conclusion of the hearing. At the hearing, the person filing the statement, the insurer, any person to whom notice of hearing was sent, and any other person whose interest may be affected by it may present evidence, examine and cross-examine witnesses, and offer oral and written arguments and may conduct discovery proceedings in the same manner as is presently allowed in the district courts of this state. All discovery proceedings must be concluded not later than three days before the start of the public hearing.

(c) The commissioner may retain at the acquiring person's expense any attorneys, actuaries, accountants, and other experts not otherwise a part of the commissioner's staff as may be reasonably necessary to assist the commissioner in reviewing the proposed acquisition of control.

Subd. 5. [EXEMPTIONS.] This section does not apply to:

(1) Any transaction that is subject to section 60A.16, dealing with the merger or consolidation of two or more insurers.

(2) Any offer, request, invitation, agreement, or acquisition that the commissioner by order exempts from this section as (i) not having been made or entered into for the purpose and not having the effect of changing or influencing the control of a domestic insurer, or (ii) as otherwise not comprehended within the purposes of this section.

Subd. 6. [VIOLATIONS.] The following are violations of this section:

(1) the failure to file any statement, amendment, or other material required to be filed pursuant to subdivision 1 or 2; or

(2) the effectuation or any attempt to effectuate an acquisition of control of, or merger with, a domestic insurer unless the commissioner has approved it.

Subd. 7. [JURISDICTION, CONSENT TO SERVICE OF PROCESS.] The courts of this state have jurisdiction over every person not resident, domiciled, or authorized to do business in this state who files a statement with the commissioner under this section, and overall actions involving the person arising out of violations of this section, and the person is deemed to have performed acts equivalent to and constituting an appointment by the person of the commissioner to be the person's true and lawful attorney upon whom may be served all lawful process in any action, suit, or proceeding arising out of violations of this section. Copies of all lawful process shall be served on the commissioner and transmitted by registered or certified mail by the commissioner to the person at the person's last known address.

Sec. 5. [60D.18] [ACQUISITIONS INVOLVING INSURERS NOT OTHERWISE COVERED.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] The following definitions apply for the purposes of this section only:

(a) "Acquisition" means an agreement, arrangement, or activity the consummation of which results in a person acquiring directly or indirectly the control of another person, and includes, but is not limited to, the acquisition of voting securities, the acquisition of assets, bulk reinsurance, and mergers.

(b) An "involved insurer" includes an insurer that either acquires or is acquired, is affiliated with an acquirer or acquired, or is the result of a merger.

Subd. 2. [SCOPE.] (a) Except as exempted in paragraph (b), this section applies to any acquisition in which there is a change in control of an insurer authorized to do business in this state.

(b) This section does not apply to the following:

(1) an acquisition subject to approval or disapproval by the commissioner pursuant to section 4;

(2) a purchase of securities solely for investment purposes so long as such securities are not used by voting or otherwise to cause or attempt to cause the substantial lessening of competition in any insurance market in this state. If a purchase of securities results in a presumption of control under section 2, subdivision 4, it is not solely for investment purposes unless the commissioner of the insurer's state of domicile accepts a disclaimer of control or affirmatively finds that control does not exist and such disclaimer action or affirmative finding is communicated by the domiciliary commissioner to the commissioner of this state;

(3) the acquisition of a person by another person when both persons are neither directly nor through affiliates primarily engaged in the business of insurance, if preacquisition notification is filed with the commissioner in accordance with subdivision 3, paragraph (a), 30 days before the proposed effective date of the acquisition. However, the preacquisition notification is not required for exclusion from this section, if the acquisition would otherwise be excluded from this section by any other clause of this paragraph;

(4) the acquisition of already affiliated persons;

(5) an acquisition if, as an immediate result of the acquisition;

(i) in no market would the combined market share of the involved insurers exceed five percent of the total market;

(ii) there would be no increase in any market share; or

(iii) in no market would the combined market share of the involved insurers exceeds 12 percent of the total market; and the market share increases by more than two percent of the total market.

For the purpose of this clause, a market means direct written insurance premium in this state for a line of business as contained in the annual statement required to be filed by insurers licensed to do business in this state;

(6) an acquisition for which a preacquisition notification would be required pursuant to this section due solely to the resulting effect on the ocean marine insurance line of business; and

(7) an acquisition of an insurer whose domiciliary commissioner affirmatively finds that the insurer is in failing condition; there is a lack of feasible alternative to improving the condition; the public benefits of improving the insurer's condition through the acquisition exceed the public benefits that would arise from not lessening competition; and the findings are communicated by the domiciliary commissioner to the commissioner of this state.

Subd. 3. [PREACQUISITION NOTIFICATION; WAITING PERIOD.] (a) An acquisition covered by subdivision 2 may be subject to an order pursuant to subdivision 4 unless the acquiring person files a preacquisition notification and the waiting period has expired. The acquired person may file a preacquisition notification. The commissioner shall give confidential treatment to information submitted under this section in the same manner as provided in section 9.

(b) The preacquisition notification must be in the form and contain the information as prescribed by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners relating to those markets that, under subdivision 2, paragraph (b), clause (5), cause the acquisition not to be exempted from the provisions of this section. The commissioner may require the additional material and information as the commissioner deems necessary to determine whether the proposed acquisition, if consummated, would violate the competitive standard of subdivision 4. The required information may include an opinion of an economist as to the competitive impact of the acquisition in this state accompanied by a summary of the education and experience of the person indicating that person's ability to render an informed opinion.

(c) The waiting period required begins on the date of receipt of the commissioner of a preacquisition notification and ends on the earlier of the 30th day after the date of its receipt, or termination of the waiting period by the commissioner. Before the end of the waiting period, the commissioner on a one-time basis may require the submission of additional needed information relevant to the proposed acquisition, in which event the waiting period shall end on the earlier of the 30th day after receipt of the additional information by the commissioner or termination of the waiting period by the commissioner.

Subd. 4. [COMPETITIVE STANDARD.] (a) The commissioner may enter an order under subdivision 5 with respect to an acquisition if there is substantial evidence that the effect of the acquisition may be substantially to lessen competition in any line of insurance in this state or tend to create a monopoly therein or if the insurer fails to file adequate information in compliance with subdivision 3.

(b) In determining whether a proposed acquisition would violate the competitive standard of paragraph (a), the commissioner shall consider the following:

(1) any acquisition covered under subdivision 2 involving two or more insurers competing in the same market is prima facie evidence of violation of the competitive standards:

(i) if the market is highly concentrated and the involved insurers possess the following shares of the market:

INSURER A	INSURER B
4 percent	4 percent or more
10 percent	2 percent or more
15 percent	1 percent or more

(ii) or, if the market is not highly concentrated and the involved insurers possess the following shares of the market:

INSURER A	INSURER B
5 percent	5 percent or more
10 percent	4 percent or more
15 percent	3 percent or more
19 percent	1 percent or more

A highly concentrated market is one in which the share of the four largest insurers is 75 percent or more of the market. Percentages not shown in the tables are interpolated proportionately to the percentages that are shown. If more than two insurers are involved, exceeding the total of the two columns in the table is prima facie evidence of violation of the competitive standard in paragraph (a). For the purpose of this clause, the insurer with the largest share of the market shall be deemed to be insurer A.

(2) There is a significant trend toward increased concentration when the aggregate market share of any grouping of the largest insurers in the market, from the two largest to the eight largest, has increased by seven percent or more of the market over a period of time extending from any base year five to ten years prior to the acquisition up to the time of the acquisition. Any acquisition or merger covered under subdivision 2 involving two or more insurers competing in the same market is prima facie evidence of violation of the competitive standard in clause (1) if:

(i) there is a significant trend toward increased concentration in the market;

(ii) one of the insurers involved is one of the insurers in a grouping of such large insurers showing the requisite increase in the market share; and

(iii) another involved insurer's market is two percent or more.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (b):

(i) The term "insurer" includes any company or group of companies under common management, ownership, or control.

(ii) The term "market" means the relevant product and geographical markets. In determining the relevant product and geographical markets, the commissioner shall give due consideration to, among other things, the definitions or guidelines, if any, promulgated by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners and to information, if any, submitted by parties to the acquisition. In the absence of sufficient information to the contrary, the relevant product market is assumed to be the direct written insurance premium for a line of business, the line being that used in the annual statement required to be filed by insurers doing business in this state, and the relevant geographical market is assumed to be this state.

(iii) The burden of showing prima facie evidence of violation of the competitive standard rests upon the commissioner.

(iv) Even though an acquisition is not prima facie violative of the competitive standard under paragraph (b), clauses (1) and (2), the commissioner may establish the requisite anticompetitive effect based upon other substantial evidence. Even though an acquisition is prima facie violative of the competitive standard under paragraph

(b), clauses (1) and (2), a party may establish the absence of the requisite anticompetitive effect based upon other substantial evidence. Relevant factors in making a determination under this paragraph include, but are not limited to, the following: market shares, volatility of ranking of market leaders, number of competitors, concentration, trend of concentration in the industry, and ease of entry and exit into the market.

(c) An order may not be entered under subdivision 5 if:

(1) the acquisition will yield substantial economies of scale or economies in resource utilization that cannot be feasibly achieved in any other way, and the public benefits which would arise from such economies exceed the public benefits which would arise from not lessening competition; or

(2) the acquisition will substantially increase the availability of insurance, and the public benefits of such increase exceed the public benefits which would arise from not lessening competition.

Subd. 5. [ORDERS AND PENALTIES.] If an acquisition violates the standards of this section, the commissioner may enter an order:

(1) requiring an involved insurer to cease and desist from doing business in this state with respect to the line or lines of insurance involved in the violation; or

(2) denying the application of an acquired or acquiring insurer for a license to do business in this state.

The order must not be entered unless there is a hearing, the notice of the hearing is issued before the end of the waiting period and not less than 15 days before the hearing, and the hearing is concluded and the order is issued no later than 60 days after the end of the waiting period. Every order must be accompanied by a written decision of the commissioner setting forth findings of fact and conclusions of law.

An order entered under this paragraph shall not become final earlier than 30 days after it is issued, during which time the involved insurer may submit a plan to remedy the anticompetitive impact of the acquisition within a reasonable time. Based upon the plan or other information, the commissioner shall specify the conditions, if any, under the time period during which the aspects of the acquisition causing a violation of the standards of this section would be remedied and the order vacated or modified.

An order pursuant to this subdivision does not apply if the acquisition is not consummated.

Any person who violates a cease and desist order of the commissioner and while the order is in effect, may after notice and hearing and upon order of the commissioner, be subject at the discretion of the commissioner to any one or more of the following:

(1) a monetary penalty of not more than $10,000 for every day of violation;

(2) suspension or revocation of the person's license.

Any insurer or other person who fails to make any filing required by this section and who also fails to demonstrate a good faith effort to comply with the filing requirement, is be subject to a fine of not more than $50,000.

Subd. 6. [INAPPLICABLE PROVISIONS.] Sections 11, paragraphs (b) and (c); and 13 do not apply to acquisitions covered under section 5, subdivision 2.

Sec. 6. [60D.19] [REGISTRATION OF INSURERS.]

Subdivision 1. [REGISTRATION.] Every insurer that is authorized to do business in this state and that is a member of an insurance holding company system shall register with the commissioner, except a foreign insurer subject to registration requirements and standards adopted by statute or regulation in the jurisdiction of its domicile that are substantially similar to those contained in:

(1) this section;

(2) section 7, subdivisions 1, paragraph (a), 2, and 4; and

(3) either section 7, subdivision 1, paragraph (b), or a provision such as the following: Each registered insurer shall keep current the information required to be disclosed in its registration statement by reporting all material changes or additions within 15 days after the end of the month in which it learns of each such change or addition.

Any insurer that is subject to registration under this section shall register within 15 days after it becomes subject to registration, and annually thereafter by March 1 of each year for the previous calendar year, unless the commissioner for good cause shown extends the time for registration, and then within such extended time. The commissioner may require any insurer authorized to do business in the state that is a member of a holding company system, and that is not subject to registration under this section, to furnish a copy of the registration statement, the summary specified in subdivision 3 or other information filed by the insurance company with the insurance regulatory authority of domiciliary jurisdiction.

Subd. 2. [INFORMATION AND FORM REQUIRED.] Every insurer subject to registration shall file the registration statement on a form prescribed by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners, which shall contain the following current information:

(1) the capital structure, general financial condition, ownership, and management of the insurer and any person controlling the insurer;

(2) the identity and relationship of every member of the insurance holding company system;

(3) the following agreements in force, and transactions currently outstanding or that have occurred during the last calendar year between the insurer and its affiliates:

(i) loans, other investments, or purchases, sales, or exchanges of securities of the affiliates by the insurer or of the insurer by its affiliates;

(ii) purchases, sales, or exchange of assets;

(iii) transactions not in the ordinary course of business;

(iv) guarantees or undertakings for the benefit of an affiliate which result in an actual contingent exposure of the insurer's assets to liability, other than insurance contracts entered into in the ordinary course of the insurer's business;

(v) all management agreements, service contracts, and all cost-sharing arrangements;

(vi) reinsurance agreements;

(vii) dividends and other distributions to shareholders; and

(viii) consolidated tax allocation agreements;

(4) any pledge of the insurer's stock, including stock of any subsidiary or controlling affiliate, for a loan made to any member of the insurance holding company system; and

(5) other matters concerning transactions between registered insurers and any affiliates as may be included from time to time in any registration forms adopted or approved by the commissioner.

Subd. 3. [SUMMARY OF REGISTRATION STATEMENT.] All registration statements must contain a summary outlining all items in the current registration statement representing changes from the prior registration statement.

Subd. 4. [MATERIALITY.] No information need be disclosed on the registration statement filed pursuant to subdivision 2 if the information is not material for the purposes of this section. Unless the commissioner by rule or order provides otherwise; sales, purchases, exchanges, loans or extensions of credit, investments, or guarantees involving one-half of one percent or less of an insurer's admitted assets as of the 31st day of December next preceding shall not be deemed material for purposes of this section.

Subd. 5. [REPORTING OF DIVIDENDS TO SHAREHOLDERS.] Subject to section 6, subdivision 2, each registered insurer shall report to the commissioner all dividends and other distributions to shareholders within 15 business days following the declaration thereof.

Subd. 6. [INFORMATION OF INSURERS.] Any person within an insurance holding company system subject to registration shall be required to provide complete and accurate information to an insurer where such information is reasonably necessary to enable the insurer to comply with the provisions of this article.

Subd. 7. [TERMINATION OF REGISTRATION.] The commissioner shall terminate the registration of any insurer which demonstrates that it no longer is a member of an insurance holding company system.

Subd. 8. [CONSOLIDATED FILING.] The commissioner may require or allow two or more affiliated insurers subject to registration to file a consolidated registration statement.

Subd. 9. [ALTERNATIVE REGISTRATION.] The commissioner may allow an insurer that is authorized to do business in this state and that is part of an insurance holding company system to register on behalf of any affiliated insurer that is required to register under subdivision 1 and to file all information and material required to be filed under this section.

Subd. 10. [EXEMPTIONS.] The provisions of this section do not apply to any insurer, information, or transaction if and to the extent that the commissioner by rule or order shall exempt the same from the provisions of this section.

Subd. 11. [DISCLAIMER.] Any person may file with the commissioner a disclaimer of affiliation with any authorized insurer or the disclaimer may be filed by the insurer or any member of an insurance holding company system. The disclaimer shall fully disclose all material relationships and bases for affiliation between the person and the insurer as well as the basis for disclaiming the affiliation. After a disclaimer has been filed, the insurer shall be relieved of any duty to register or report under this section that may arise out of the insurer's relationship with the person unless and until the commissioner disallows the disclaimer. The commissioner shall disallow the disclaimer only after furnishing all parties in interest with notice and opportunity to be heard and after making specific findings of fact to support the disallowance.

Subd. 12. [VIOLATIONS.] The failure to file a registration statement or any summary of the registration statement required by this section within the time specified for the filing is a violation of this section.

Sec. 7. [60D.20] [STANDARDS AND MANAGEMENT OF AN INSURER WITHIN A HOLDING COMPANY SYSTEM.]

Subdivision 1. [TRANSACTIONS WITHIN A HOLDING COMPANY SYSTEM.] (a) Transactions within a holding company system to which an insurer subject to registration is a party is subject to the following standards:

(1) the terms shall be fair and reasonable;

(2) charges or fees for services performed shall be reasonable;

(3) expenses incurred and payment received shall be allocated to the insurer in conformity with customary insurance accounting practices consistently applied;

(4) the books, accounts, and records of each party to all such transactions shall be so maintained as to clearly and accurately disclose the nature and details of the transactions including this accounting information as is necessary to support the reasonableness of the charges or fees to the respective parties; and

(5) the insurer's surplus as regards policyholders following any dividends or distributions to shareholder affiliates shall be reasonable in relation to the insurer's outstanding liabilities and adequate to its financial needs.

(b) The following transactions involving a domestic insurer and any person in its holding company system may not be entered into unless the insurer has notified the commissioner in writing of its intention to enter into the transaction at least 30 days prior thereto, or a shorter period the commissioner permits, and the commissioner has not disapproved it within this period.

(1) sales, purchases, exchanges, loans or extensions of credit, guarantees, or investments provided the transactions are equal to or exceed: (i) with respect to nonlife insurers, the lesser of three percent of the insurer's admitted assets, or 25 percent of surplus as regards policyholders; (ii) with respect to life insurers, three percent of the insurer's admitted assets; each as of the 31st day of December next preceding;

(2) loans or extensions of credit to any person who is not an affiliate, where the insurer makes the loans or extensions of credit with the agreement or understanding that the proceeds of the transactions, in whole or in substantial part, are to be used to make loans or extensions of credit to, to purchase assets of, or to make investments in, any affiliate of the insurer making such loans or extensions of credit provided the transactions are equal to or exceed: (i) with respect to nonlife insurers, the lesser of three percent of the insurer's admitted assets or 25 percent of surplus as regards policyholders; (ii) with respect to life insurers, three percent of the insurer's admitted assets; each as of the 31st day of December next preceding;

(3) reinsurance agreements or modifications to those agreements in which the reinsurance premium or a change in the insurer's liabilities equals or exceeds five percent of the insurer's surplus as regards policyholders, as of the 31st day of December next preceding, including those agreements which may require as consideration the transfer of assets from an insurer to a nonaffiliate, if an agreement or understanding exists between the insurer and nonaffiliate that any portion of such assets will be transferred to one or more affiliates of the insurer;

(4) all management agreements, service contracts and all cost-sharing arrangements; and

(5) any material transactions, specified by regulation, which the commissioner determines may adversely affect the interests of the insurer's policyholders.

Nothing contained in this section authorizes or permits any transactions that, in the case of an insurer not a member of the same holding company system, would be otherwise contrary to law.

(c) A domestic insurer may not enter into transactions which are part of a plan or series of like transactions with persons within the holding company system if the purpose of those separate transactions is to avoid the statutory threshold amount and thus avoid the review that would occur otherwise. If the commissioner determines that the separate transactions were entered into over any 12-month period for the purpose, the commissioner may exercise the authority under section 12.

(d) The commissioner, in reviewing transactions pursuant to paragraph (b), shall consider whether the transactions comply with the standards set forth in paragraph (a), and whether they may adversely affect the interests of policyholders.

(e) The commissioner shall be notified within 30 days of any investment of the domestic insurer in any one corporation if the total investment in the corporation by the insurance holding company system exceeds ten percent of the corporation's voting securities.

Subd. 2. [DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS.] (a) No domestic insurer shall pay any extraordinary dividend or make any other extraordinary distribution to its shareholders until: (1) 30 days after the commissioner has received notice of the declaration of it and has not within the period disapproved the payment; or (2) the commissioner has approved the payment within the 30-day period.

(b) For purposes of this section, an extraordinary dividend or distribution includes any dividend or distribution of cash or other property, whose fair market value together with that of other dividends or distributions made within the preceding 12 months exceeds the greater of (1) ten percent of the insurer's surplus as regards policyholders as of the 31st day of December next preceding; or (2) the net gain from operations of the insurer, if the insurer is a life insurer, or the net income, if the insurer is not a life insurer, not including realized capital gains, for the 12-month period ending the 31st day of December next preceding, but does not include pro rata distributions of any class of the insurer's own securities. In determining whether a dividend or distribution is extraordinary, an insurer other than a life insurer may carry forward net income from the previous two calendar years that has not already been paid out as dividends. This carry-forward is computed by taking the net income from the second and third preceding calendar years, not including realized capital gains, less dividends paid in the second and immediate preceding calendar years.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an insurer may declare an extraordinary dividend or distribution that is conditional upon the commissioner's approval, and the declaration shall confer no rights upon shareholders until: (1) the commissioner has approved the payment of such a dividend or distribution; or (2) the commissioner has not disapproved the payment within the 30-day period referred to above.

Subd. 3. [MANAGEMENT OF DOMESTIC INSURERS SUBJECT TO REGISTRATION.] (a) Notwithstanding the control of a domestic insurer by any person, the officers and directors of the insurer shall not thereby be relieved of any obligation or liability to which they would otherwise be subject by law, and the insurer shall be managed so as to assure its separate operating identity consistent with this article.

(b) Nothing in this article precludes a domestic insurer from having or sharing a common management use of personnel, property, or services with one or more other persons under arrangements meeting the standards of section 7, paragraph (a), clause (1).

(c) Not less than one-third of the directors of a publicly traded domestic insurer, and not less than one-third of the members of each committee of the board of directors of any publicly traded domestic insurer shall be persons who are not officers or employees of the insurer or of any entity controlling, controlled by, or under common control with the insurer and who are not beneficial owners of a controlling interest in the voting stock of the insurer or any such entity. At least one such person must be included in any quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the board of directors or any committee of the board.

(d) The board of directors of a publicly traded domestic insurer shall establish an audit committee having a majority of directors who are not officers or employees of the insurer or of any entity controlling, controlled by, or under common control with the insurer and who are not beneficial owners of a controlling interest in the voting stock of the insurer or any such entity. The committee shall have responsibility for selecting independent certified public accountants and reviewing the scope and results of the independent audit and any internal audit.

(e) Paragraphs (c) and (d) do not apply to a domestic insurer if the person controlling the insurer is an insurer, or a general business corporation the principal business of which is insurance, having a board of directors and committees of the board that meet the requirements of paragraphs (c) and (d).

Subd. 4. [ADEQUACY OF SURPLUS.] For purposes of this article, in determining whether an insurer's surplus as regards policyholders is reasonable in relation to the insurer's outstanding liabilities and adequate to its financial needs, the following factors, among others, must be considered:

(1) the size of the insurer as measured by its assets, capital and surplus, reserves, premium writings, insurance in force and other appropriate criteria;

(2) the extent to which the insurer's business is diversified among the several lines of insurance;

(3) the number and size of risks insured in each line of business;

(4) the extent of the geographical dispersion of the insurer's insured risks;

(5) the nature and extent of the insurer's reinsurance program;

(6) the quality, diversification and liquidity of the insurer's investment portfolio;

(7) the recent past and projected future trend in the size of the insurer's investment portfolio;

(8) the surplus as regards policyholders maintained by other comparable insurers;

(9) the adequacy of the insurer's reserves; and

(10) the quality and liquidity of investments in affiliates. The commissioner may treat any such investment as a disallowed asset for purposes of determining the adequacy of surplus as regards policyholders whenever in the commissioner's judgment the investment so warrants.

Sec. 8. [60D.21] [EXAMINATION.]

Subdivision 1. [POWER OF COMMISSIONER.] Subject to the limitation contained in this section and in addition to the powers that the commissioner has under chapter 60A relating to the examination of insurers, the commissioner shall also have the power to order any insurer registered under section 60D.19 to produce records, books, or other information papers in the possession of the insurer or its affiliates as are reasonably necessary to ascertain the financial condition of the insurer or to determine compliance with this article. In the event the insurer fails to comply with the order, the commissioner shall have the power to examine the affiliates to obtain the information.

Subd. 2. [USE OF CONSULTANTS.] The commissioner may retain at the registered insurer's expense the attorneys, actuaries, accountants, and other experts not otherwise a part of the commissioner's staff that are reasonably necessary to assist in the conduct of the examination under subdivision 1. Any person so retained shall be under the direction and control of the commissioner and shall act in a purely advisory capacity.

Subd. 3. [EXPENSES.] Each registered insurer producing for examination records, books, and papers pursuant to subdivision 1 is liable for and shall pay the expense of the examination in accordance with section 60A.03.

Sec. 9. [60D.22] [CONFIDENTIAL TREATMENT.]

All information, documents, and copies of them obtained by or disclosed to the commissioner or any other person in the course of an examination or investigation made pursuant to section 7 and all information reported pursuant to sections 5 and 6, shall be given confidential treatment and shall not be subject to subpoena and shall not be made public by the commissioner, the National Association of Insurance Commissioners, or any other person, except to insurance departments of other states, without the prior written consent of the insurer to which it pertains unless the commissioner, after giving the insurer and its affiliates who would be affected, notice and opportunity to be heard, determines that the interest of policyholders, shareholders, or the public will be served by the publication, in which event the commissioner may publish all or any part in the manner the commissioner considers appropriate.

Sec. 10. [60D.23] [RULES.]

The commissioner may adopt the rules and orders that are necessary to carry out the provisions of this article.

Sec. 11. [60D.24] [INJUNCTIONS, PROHIBITIONS AGAINST VOTING SECURITIES, SEQUESTRATION OF VOTING SECURITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [INJUNCTIONS.] Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any insurer or any director, officer, employee, or agent of the insurer has committed or is about to commit a violation of this article or of any rule or order issued by the commissioner, the commissioner may apply to the district court for the county in which the principal office of the insurer is located or if the insurer has no such office in this state then to the district court for Ramsey county for an order enjoining the insurer or the director, officer, employee, or agent of the insurer from violating or continuing to violate this article or any rule or order, and for other equitable relief as the nature of the case and the interest of the insurer's policyholders, creditors and shareholders, or the public requires.

Subd. 2. [VOTING OF SECURITIES; WHEN PROHIBITED.] No security that is the subject of any agreement or arrangement regarding acquisition, or that is acquired or to be acquired, in contravention of the provisions of this article or of any rule or order issued by the commissioner may be voted at any shareholder's meeting, or may be counted for quorum purposes, and any action of shareholders requiring the affirmative vote of a percentage of shares may be taken as though the securities were not issued and outstanding. No action taken at the meeting shall be invalidated by the voting of the securities, unless the action would materially affect control of the insurer or unless the courts of this state have so ordered. If an insurer or the commissioner has reason to believe that any security of the insurer has been or is about to be acquired in contravention of the provisions of this article or of any rule or order issued by the commissioner, the insurer or the commissioner may apply to the district court for the county in which the insurer has its principal place of business to enjoin any offer, request, invitation, agreement, or acquisition made in contravention of section 3 or any rule or order issued by the commissioner to enjoin the voting of any security so acquired, to void any vote of the security already cast at any meeting of shareholders and for other equitable relief as the nature of the case and the interest of the insurer's policyholders, creditor and shareholders, or the public requires.

Subd. 3. [SEQUESTRATION OF VOTING SECURITIES.] In any case where a person has acquired or is proposing to acquire any voting securities in violation of this article or any rule or order issued by the commissioner, the district court for Ramsey county or the district court for the county in which the insurer has its principal place of business may, on such notice as the court considers appropriate, upon the application of the insurer or the commissioner seize or sequester any voting securities of the insurer owned directly or indirectly by the person, and issue any order with respect thereto as may be appropriate to effectuate the provisions of this article.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, for the purposes of this article the sites of the ownership of the securities of domestic insurers shall be considered to be in this state.

Sec. 12. [60D.25] [RECEIVERSHIP.]

Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has committed a violation of this article that so impairs the financial condition of a domestic insurer as to threaten insolvency or make the further transaction of business by it hazardous to its policyholders, creditors, shareholders, or the public, then the commissioner may proceed as provided in chapter 60B to take possessions of the property of the domestic insurer and to conduct the business of that insurer.

Sec. 13. [60D.26] [RECOVERY.]

(a) If an order for liquidation or rehabilitation of a domestic insurer has been entered, the receiver appointed under the order shall have a right to recover on behalf of the insurer, (1) from any parent corporation or holding company or person or affiliate who otherwise controlled the insurer, the amount of distributions, other than distributions of shares of the same class of stock, paid by the insurer on its capital stock, or (2) any payment in the form of a bonus, termination settlement or extraordinary lump sum salary adjustment made by the insurer or its subsidiary(s) to a director, officer, or employee, where the distribution or payment pursuant to clause (1) or (2) is made at any time during the one year preceding the petition for liquidation, conservation, or rehabilitation, as the case may be, subject to the limitations of paragraphs (b), (c), and (d).

(b) No such distribution shall be recoverable if the parent or affiliate shows that when paid the distribution was lawful and reasonable, and that the insurer did not know and could not reasonably have known that the distribution might adversely affect the ability of the insurer to fulfill its contractual obligations.

(c) Any person who was a parent corporation or holding company or a person who otherwise controlled the insurer or affiliate at the time such distributions were paid shall be liable up to the amount of distributions or payments under paragraph (a), the person received. Any person who otherwise controlled the insurer at the time the distributions were declared is liable up to the amount of distributions the person would have received if they had been paid immediately. If two or more persons are liable with respect to the same distributions, they are jointly and severally liable.

(d) The maximum amount recoverable under this subsection shall be the amount needed in excess of all other available assets of the impaired or insolvent insurer to pay the contractual obligations of the impaired or insolvent insurer and to reimburse any guaranty funds.

(e) To the extent that any person liable under paragraph (c) is insolvent or otherwise fails to pay claims due from it pursuant to this paragraph, its parent corporation or holding company or person who otherwise controlled it at the time the distribution was paid, is jointly and severely liable for any resulting deficiency in the amount recovered from the parent corporation or holding company or person who otherwise controlled it.

Sec. 14. [60D.27] [REVOCATION, SUSPENSION, OR NONRENEWAL OF INSURER'S LICENSE.]

Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has committed a violation of this article that makes the continued operation of an insurer contrary to the interests of policyholders or the public, the commissioner may, after giving notice and an opportunity to be heard, determine to suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew the insurer's license or authority to do business in this state for the period the commissioner finds is required for the protection of policyholders or the public. The determination must be accompanied by specific findings of fact and conclusions of law.

Sec. 15. [60D.28] [JUDICIAL REVIEW, MANDAMUS.]

(a) Any person aggrieved by any act, determination, rule or order, or any other action of the commissioner pursuant to this article may appeal therefrom to the district court for Ramsey county. The court shall conduct its review without a jury and by trial de novo, except that if all parties, including the commissioner, so stipulate, the review shall be confined to the record. Portions of the record may be introduced by stipulation into evidence in a trial de novo as to those parties so stipulated.

(b) The filing of an appeal pursuant to this section shall stay the application of the rule, order, or other action of the commissioner to the appealing party unless the court, after giving the party notice and an opportunity to be heard, determines that the stay would be detrimental to the interest of policyholders, shareholders, creditors, or the public.

(c) Any person aggrieved by any failure of the commissioner to act or make a determination required by this article may petition the district court for Ramsey county for a writ in the nature of a mandamus or a peremptory mandamus directing the commissioner to act or make this determination immediately.

Sec. 16. [60D.29] [CONFLICT WITH OTHER LAWS.]

All laws and parts of laws of this state inconsistent with this article are superseded with respect to matters covered by this article.

ARTICLE 15

LIFE REINSURANCE AGREEMENTS

Section 1. [60A.80] [ACCOUNTING REQUIREMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [STANDARDS.] No life insurer subject to this article shall, for reinsurance ceded, reduce any liability or establish any asset in any financial statement filed with the department if, by the terms of the reinsurance agreement, in substance or effect, any of the following conditions exist:

(1) the primary effect of the reinsurance agreement is to transfer deficiency reserves or excess interest reserves to the books of the reinsurer for a "risk charge" and the agreement does not provide for significant participation by the reinsurer in one or more of the following risks: mortality, morbidity, investment, or surrender benefit;

(2) the reserve credit taken by the ceding insurer is not in compliance with the insurance law or rules, including actuarial interpretations or standards adopted by the department;

(3) the reserve credit taken by the ceding insurer is greater than the underlying reserve of the ceding company supporting the policy obligations transferred under the reinsurance agreement;

(4) the ceding insurer is required to reimburse the reinsurer for negative experience under the reinsurance agreement, except that neither offsetting experience refunds against prior years' losses nor payment by the ceding insurer of an amount equal to prior years' losses upon voluntary termination of in-force reinsurance by that ceding insurer shall be considered such a reimbursement to the reinsurer for negative experience;

(5) the ceding insurer can be deprived of surplus at the reinsurer's option or automatically upon the occurrence of some event, such as the insolvency of the ceding insurer, except that termination of the reinsurance agreement by the reinsurer for nonpayment of reinsurance premiums shall not be considered to be such a deprivation of surplus;

(6) the ceding insurer must, at specific points in time scheduled in the agreement, terminate or automatically recapture all or part of the reinsurance ceded;

(7) no cash payment is due from the reinsurer, throughout the lifetime of the reinsurance agreement, with all settlements prior to the termination date of the agreement made only in a "reinsurance account," and no funds in such account are available for the payment of benefits; or

(8) the reinsurance agreement involves the possible payment by the ceding insurer to the reinsurer of amounts other than from income reasonably expected from the reinsured policies.

Subd. 2. [EXCEPTION.] Notwithstanding subdivision 1, a life insurer subject to this article may, with the prior approval of the commissioner of commerce take such reserve credit as the commissioner considers consistent with the insurance law or rules adopted under it, including actuarial interpretations or standards adopted by the department.

Sec. 2. [60A.801] [WRITTEN AGREEMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [REINSURANCE AGREEMENTS AND AMEND-

MENTS.] No reinsurance agreement or amendment to any agreement may be used to reduce any liability or to establish any asset in any financial statement filed with the department, unless the agreement, amendment, or a letter of intent has been duly executed by both parties no later than the "as of date" of the financial statement.

Subd. 2. [LETTERS OF INTENT.] In the case of a letter of intent, a reinsurance agreement, or an amendment to a reinsurance agreement must be executed within a reasonable period of time, not exceeding 90 days from the execution date of the letter of intent, in order for credit to be granted for the reinsurance ceded.

Sec. 3. [60A.802] [EXISTING AGREEMENTS.]

Life insurers subject to this article may continue to reduce liabilities or establish assets in financial statements filed with the department for reinsurance ceded under types of reinsurance agreements that would violate section 60A.13, subdivision 1, relating to financial statements of insurers, thus, resulting in distorted financial statements which do not properly reflect the financial condition of the ceding life insurer; section 60A.09, relating to reinsurance reserve credits, thus, resulting in a ceding insurer improperly reducing liabilities or establishing assets for reinsurance ceded; and article 3, relating to creating a situation that may be hazardous to policyholders and the people of this state provided that:

(1) the agreements were executed and in force before the effective date of this article;

(2) no new business is ceded under the agreements after the effective date of this article;

(3) the reduction of the liability or the asset established for the reinsurance ceded is reduced to zero by December 31, 1992, or a later date approved by the commissioner of commerce as a result of an application made by the ceding insurer prior to December 31 of the year in which this article becomes effective;

(4) the reduction of the liability or the establishment of the asset is otherwise permissible under all other applicable provisions of the insurance law or rules adopted under it, including actuarial interpretations or standards adopted by the department; and

(5) the department is notified, within 90 days after the effective date of this chapter, of the existence of these reinsurance agreements and all corresponding credits taken in the ceding insurer's 1990 annual statement.

Sec. 4. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This article is effective January 1, 1992.

The loans to be included in the sample do not include loans for which the carrying value was determined on the basis of guarantees or other credit enhancements. The independent appraisals must be kept in the insurer's records and must be available to the commissioner upon request. Each insurer must file with the commissioner an annual report listing each mortgage loan for which the insurer obtained an independent appraisal under this section and showing for each of those loans the appraisal value, the carrying value determined by the insurer, and other information required by the commissioner. The commissioner may by rule specify the percentage of distressed, delinquent, and restructured loans for which the insurer must obtain an independent appraisal and may by rule specify a procedure for determining how to identify the specific loans for which an appraisal is required. Unless and until such rules are adopted, each domestic insurer must:

(1) obtain an independent appraisal of five percent of its distressed, delinquent, or restructured loans that qualify under this section; and

(2) establish a uniform system of assigning sequential numbers to its distressed, delinquent, or restructured loans that qualify under this section, based upon the date on which a loan first enters one of those categories, and then obtain an independent appraisal of every twentieth loan.

For funds governed by chapters 3A, 352, 352B, 352C, 353, 353C, 354, 354A, and 490, the additional contribution ~~shall~~ must be calculated on a level percentage of covered payroll basis by the established date for full funding ~~which is~~ in effect when the valuation is prepared. The level percent additional contribution ~~shall~~ must be calculated assuming annual payroll growth of 6.5 percent. For all other funds, the additional annual contribution ~~shall~~ must be calculated on a level annual dollar amount basis.

~~If,~~ (b) For any fund other than the Minneapolis employees retirement fund, after the first actuarial valuation date occurring after June 1, 1989, if there has not been a change in the actuarial assumptions used for calculating the actuarial accrued liability of the fund, a change in the benefit plan governing annuities and benefits payable from the fund, a change in the actuarial cost method used in calculating the actuarial accrued liability of all or a portion of the fund, or a combination of the three, which change or changes by themselves without inclusion of any other items of increase or decrease produce a net increase in the unfunded actuarial accrued liability of the fund, the established date for full funding for the first actuarial valuation made after June 1, 1989, and each successive actuarial valuation ~~shall be~~ is the first actuarial valuation date ~~which occurs~~ occurring after June 1, 2020.

~~If,~~ (c) For any fund or plan other than the Minneapolis employees retirement fund, after the first actuarial valuation date occurring after June 1, 1989, if there has been a change in any or all of the actuarial assumptions used for calculating the actuarial accrued liability of the fund, a change in the benefit plan governing annuities and benefits payable from the fund, a change in the actuarial cost method used in calculating the actuarial accrued liability of all or a portion of the fund, or a combination of the three, and the change or changes, by themselves and without inclusion of any other items of increase or decrease, produce a net increase in the unfunded actuarial accrued liability in the fund, the established date for full funding ~~shall~~ must be determined using the following procedure:

(i) the unfunded actuarial accrued liability of the fund ~~shall~~ must be determined in accordance with the plan provisions governing annuities and retirement benefits and the actuarial assumptions in effect before an applicable change;

(ii) the level annual dollar contribution or level percentage, whichever is applicable, ~~which~~ ~~is~~ needed to amortize the unfunded actuarial accrued liability amount determined ~~pursuant to subclause~~ under item (i) by the established date for full funding in effect ~~prior to~~ before the change ~~shall~~ must be calculated using the interest assumption specified in subdivision 4d in effect before the change;

(iii) the unfunded actuarial accrued liability of the fund ~~shall~~ must be determined in accordance with any new plan provisions governing annuities and benefits payable from the fund and any new actuarial assumptions and the remaining plan provisions governing annuities and benefits payable from the fund and actuarial assumptions in effect before the change;

(iv) the level annual dollar contribution or level percentage, whichever is applicable, ~~which~~ ~~is~~ needed to amortize the difference between the unfunded actuarial accrued liability amount calculated ~~pursuant to subclause~~ under item (i) and the unfunded actuarial accrued liability amount calculated ~~pursuant to subclause~~ under item (iii) over a period of 30 years from the end of the plan year in which the applicable change is effective ~~shall~~ must be calculated using the applicable interest assumption specified in subdivision 4d in effect after any applicable change;

(v) the level annual dollar or level percentage amortization contribution ~~pursuant to subclause~~ under item (iv) ~~shall~~ must be added to the level annual dollar amortization contribution or level percentage calculated ~~pursuant to subclause~~ under item (ii);

(vi) the period in which the unfunded actuarial accrued liability amount determined in ~~subclause~~ item (iii) ~~will be~~ is amortized by the total level annual dollar or level percentage amortization contribution computed ~~pursuant to subclause~~ under item (v) ~~shall~~ must be calculated using the interest assumption specified in subdivision 4d in effect after any applicable change, rounded to the nearest integral number of years, but ~~which shall~~ not to exceed ~~a period of~~ 30 years from the end of the plan year in which the determination of the established date for full funding using the procedure set forth in this clause is made and ~~which shall~~ not to be less than the period of years beginning in the plan year in which the determination of the established date for full funding using the procedure set forth in this clause is made and ending by the date for full funding in effect before the change; and

(vii) the period determined ~~pursuant to subclause~~ under item (vi) ~~shall~~ must be added to the date as of which the actuarial valuation was prepared and the date obtained ~~shall be~~ is the new established date for full funding.

A rustic road must have the characteristics of outstanding natural features or rustic or scenic beauty; a daily traffic volume of less than 150 vehicles per day; year-round use as a local access road; and maximum allowable speed of 45 miles per hour.

Subd. 2. [LOCAL AUTHORITY.] The road authority has the same authority over rustic roads as over other highways and roads under its jurisdiction. The road authority may designate the type and character of vehicles that may be operated on the rustic road; designate a rustic road or portion of the road as a pedestrian way or bicycle way, or both; and establish priority of right-of-way, paint lines, and construct dividers to physically separate vehicular, bicycle, or pedestrian traffic.

Subd. 3. [JOINT DESIGNATION.] Two or more road authorities may jointly designate a rustic road along a common boundary or into or through their jurisdictions. The road authorities may enter into agreements to divide the costs and responsibility for maintaining the rustic road.

Subd. 4. [COSTS.] A rustic road must be maintained by the road authority having jurisdiction over the road and is not eligible for state-aid funding. State money must not be spent to construct, reconstruct, maintain, or improve a rustic road, except that the commissioner shall pay from the transportation services fund the costs of publishing a map of rustic roads within the state and installing and maintaining signs designating rustic roads.

Sec. 2. [160.83] [STREETS AND HIGHWAYS WITHIN PARKS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITION.] "Park road" means that portion of a street or highway located entirely within the park boundaries of or abutting a city, county, regional, or state park.

Subd. 2. [RESTRICTIONS.] A road authority may not make any changes in the width, grade, or alignment of a park road, other than a county state-aid highway or municipal state-aid street, that would affect the wildlife habitat or aesthetic characteristics of the park road or its adjacent vegetation or terrain, other than changes required to permit the safe travel of vehicles at the speed lawfully designated for that park road. A road authority may not make any changes in the width, grade, or alignment of a park road that is a county state-aid highway or municipal state-aid street that would affect the wildlife habitat or aesthetic characteristics of the park road or its adjacent vegetation or terrain, other than changes required by the minimum state-aid standard applicable to that road.

Subd. 3. [LIABILITY.] A road authority making changes in a park road described in subdivision 1, and its officers and employees, are exempt from liability for any tort claim for injury to persons or property arising from travel on that park road and related to the design of that park road, where the design has been adopted to conform to this section.

Sec. 3. [161.361] [ADVANCE FUNDING FOR TRUNK HIGHWAY PROJECTS.]

Subdivision 1. [ADVANCE FUNDING.] A road authority other than the commissioner may by agreement with the commissioner make advances from any available funds to the commissioner to expedite construction of all or part of a trunk highway within its boundaries. The total amount of annual repayment to road authorities under this section must never exceed the amount stated in the department's debt management policy or $10 million, whichever is less.

Subd. 3. [LOCAL COST SHARING FOR TRUNK HIGHWAY IMPROVEMENTS.] The commissioner may accept gifts, contributions, or grants from a local government body for trunk highway construction, reconstruction, improvement, or maintenance of trunk highways within its boundaries. Money accepted by the commissioner under this subdivision must not adversely affect the scheduling of other trunk highway projects that are not funded in whole or in part by local contributions.

The commissioner shall publish notice of the request in the state register and give notice to all persons known to the commissioner to have an interest in the matter. The commissioner may grant or deny the variance within 30 days of providing notice of the request. If a written objection to the request is received within 20 days of providing notice, the variance shall be granted or denied only after a contested case hearing has been held on the request. If no timely objection is received and the variance is denied without hearing, the political subdivision may request, within 30 days of receiving notice of denial, and shall be granted a contested case hearing. For purposes of this subdivision, with respect to a variance required for a county state-aid highway that is a park road as defined in section 160.83, subdivision 1, "political subdivision" includes (1) an agency of a political subdivision which has jurisdiction over parks, and (2) a regional park agency.

Subdivision 1. [NATURAL PRESERVATION ROUTES ESTABLISHED.] The commissioner shall create within the county state-aid highway system a system of natural preservation routes. The commissioner shall provide for criteria for inclusion in the system and for the adoption of standards for the design, construction, and reconstruction of routes on the system.

Subd. 2. [CRITERIA.] The criteria for inclusion on the natural preservation route system must provide for the inclusion in the system of those county state-aid highways that possess unique scenic, environmental, aesthetic, recreational, or historic characteristics that would be harmed by construction or reconstruction using standards applicable to county state-aid highways that are not part of the natural preservation route system.

Subd. 3. [STANDARDS.] The design, construction, and reconstruction standards adopted by the commissioner for natural preservation routes must provide for the preservation of the characteristics described in subdivision 2, to the extent consistent with public safety. The standards must provide for minimum width of vehicle recovery areas, minimum slopes, and minimum ditch widths, consistent with anticipated speed and volume of traffic on the highway.

Subd. 4. [DESIGNATION.] The commissioner may designate a county state-aid highway as a natural preservation route only on petition of the governing body of the county having jurisdiction over the road. On receiving a petition for designation the commissioner shall appoint an advisory committee consisting of seven members. An advisory committee must include at least one representative of the department of natural resources or the United States department of agriculture forest service, one county commissioner, one county highway engineer, and one representative of a recognized environmental organization. The advisory committee shall consider the petition for designation and make a recommendation to the commissioner. Following receipt of the committee's recommendation the commissioner may designate the highway as a natural preservation route.

Subd. 5. [SIGNS.] The county having jurisdiction over a natural preservation route must post signs at each entry point to the route informing the public that the highway is a natural preservation route. Signs erected under this subdivision are prima facie evidence of adequate notice to the public that the highway has been designated a natural preservation route.

Subd. 6. [LIABILITY.] When a county state-aid highway has been designated a natural preservation route and signs have been erected as provided in subdivision 5, the state and the county having jurisdiction over the highway, and their officers and employees, are exempt from liability for any tort claim for injury to persons or property arising from travel on the highway and related to the standards for its design, construction, or reconstruction.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 162.09, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [VARIANCES, RULES AND ENGINEERING STAN-

DARDS.] The commissioner may grant variances from the rules and from the engineering standards developed pursuant to section 162.13, subdivision 2. A political subdivision in which a municipal state-aid street is located or is proposed to be located may submit a written request to the commissioner for a variance for that street. The commissioner shall publish notice of the request in the state register and give notice to all persons known to the commissioner to have an interest in the matter. The commissioner may grant or deny the variance within 30 days of providing notice of the request. If a written objection to the request is received within 20 days of providing notice, the variance shall be granted or denied only after a contested case hearing has been held on the request. If no timely objection is received and the variance is denied without hearing, the political subdivision may request, within 30 days of receiving notice of denial, and shall be granted a contested case hearing. For purposes of this subdivision, with respect to a variance requested for a municipal state-aid street that is a park road as defined in section 160.83, subdivision 1, "political subdivision" includes (1) an agency of a political subdivision which has jurisdiction over parks, and (2) a regional park authority.

TOLL ROADS

Section 1. [160.82] [LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS.]

The legislature finds that the economic well-being of and quality of life in the state depend on an efficient transportation system; that public sources of revenue have not kept pace with the state's growing highway transportation needs; and that alternative funding, ownership, and operating forms, including private participation and public-private partnerships, can stimulate the rapid formation of capital necessary to respond to some of the state's pressing highway needs.

Sec. 2. [160.83] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] The terms used in sections 1 to 8 have the meanings given them in this section and section 160.02.

Subd. 2. [BOT FACILITY.] "BOT facility" means a build-operate-transfer toll facility constructed, improved, or rehabilitated and operated by a private operator that holds title to the facility subject to a development agreement that provides that title will be transferred to the road authority on expiration of an agreed term.

Subd. 3. [BTO FACILITY.] "BTO facility" means a build-transfer-operate toll facility constructed, improved, or rehabilitated by a private operator who: (1) transfers any interest it may have in the toll facility to the road authority before operation begins; and (2) operates the toll facility for an agreed term under a lease, management, or toll-concession agreement.

Subd. 4. [COMMISSIONER.] "Commissioner" means the commissioner of the department of transportation.

Subd. 5. [DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT.] "Development agreement" means a written agreement between a road authority and a private operator that provides for the construction, improvement, rehabilitation, and ownership or operation of a toll facility. A development agreement must satisfy the requirements of section 5.

Subd. 6. [PRIVATE OPERATOR.] "Private operator" means an individual, a corporation or partnership, a cooperative or unincorporated association, a joint venture, or a consortium that constructs, improves, rehabilitates, owns, leases, operates, or manages a toll facility subject to sections 1 to 8. The term includes related parties and entities that together perform some or all of these functions for the same toll facility.

Subd. 7. [ROAD AUTHORITY.] "Road authority" has the meaning given it in section 160.02, subdivision 9, and also refers to a joint powers authority formed under section 7.

Subd. 8. [TOLL FACILITY.] "Toll facility" means a bridge, causeway, or tunnel, and its approaches; a road, street, or highway; an appurtenant building, structure, or other improvement; land lying within applicable rights-of-way; and other appurtenant rights or hereditaments that together comprise a project for which a private operator is authorized to operate and impose tolls under sections 1 to 8.

Sec. 3. [160.84] [AUTHORITY.]

Subdivision 1. [PRIVATE OPERATORS.] Notwithstanding other law to the contrary, private operators are authorized to construct, improve, rehabilitate, own, lease, manage, and operate toll facilities subject to the terms of sections 1 to 8. Private operators may mortgage, grant security interests in, and pledge their interests in: (1) toll facilities and their components; (2) development, lease, toll concessions, and other related agreements; and (3) income, profits, and proceeds of the toll facility.

Subd. 2. [ROAD AUTHORITY MAY ENTER INTO DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENTS.] A road authority may solicit or accept proposals from, and enter into development agreements with, private operators for constructing, improving, rehabilitating, operating, and managing toll facilities wholly or partly within the road authority's jurisdiction. A road authority soliciting toll facility proposals must publish a notice of solicitation in the state register.

Subd. 3. [CONTENTS OF DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENTS.] Development agreements for toll facilities entered into under sections 1 to 9 may provide for operating the facilities under leases or management contracts; for BOT or BTO facilities; and for any other mode of ownership or operation approved by the road authority. Development agreements may permit the private operator to: (1) assemble funds from any available source, including federal, state, and local grants, bond revenues, contributions, and pledges; and (2) incorporate an existing road or highway, a bridge, and approach structures, and related improvements into the toll facility. If an existing highway, bridge, or approach structure, or related improvements, are incorporated into a toll facility, the development agreement must provide that the private operator reimburse the road authority that constructed the highway, bridge, approach structure, or related improvement, for the cost of constructing the incorporated entity and the cost of any rehabilitation of the entity required to make the entity suitable for incorporation. Development agreements may include grants of title, easements, rights-of-way, and leasehold estates that are necessary to the toll facility. A development agreement may authorize the private operator to charge variable rate tolls based on time of day, vehicle characteristics, or other factors approved by the road authority. A development agreement shall require a road authority to provide routine maintenance, snow removal, and police services to the toll facility at the operator's expense.

Subd. 4. [RIGHT-OF-WAY ACQUISITION.] A private operator may acquire right-of-way by donation, lease, or purchase. A road authority may acquire right-of-way by condemnation and may donate, sell, or lease a right-of-way to a private operator.

Subd. 5. [LEASE TERM.] A lease for toll facilities must be for a term of not more than 50 years.

Subd. 6. [WHEN TOLL FACILITY ACQUIRED BY ROAD AUTHORITY.] A development agreement must require that ownership of the toll facility be transferred to the road authority at no cost to the road authority, at a time specified in the agreement. The operator shall establish an escrow account with sufficient funds to ensure that the facility meets applicable construction and maintenance standards of the road authority upon transfer.

Subd. 7. [APPLICATION OF OTHER LAW.] A private operator must obtain all required environmental, navigational, design, or safety approvals that would be required if the toll facility was constructed or operated by a public body.

Subd. 8. [RESTRICTION.] No toll facility may be used for any purpose other than the transportation purposes specified in the development agreement for the term of the agreement.

Subd. 9. [TAX INCREMENT FINANCING.] Revenue from tax increments may not be used to pay any part of the costs of constructing or reconstructing a toll facility, or for the repayment of any bonds issued for those purposes.

Subd. 10. [SALES TAX.] The purchase of any goods and materials used for the construction or reconstruction of a toll facility is subject to the tax imposed by section 297A.02.

Sec. 4. [160.85] [DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENTS; MANDATORY PROVISIONS.]

A development agreement must require:

(1) that the toll facility meet the commissioner of transportation's standards of design and construction for trunk highways and trunk highway bridges of the same functional classification;

(2) that the commissioner review and approve, at the operator's expense, the location and design of a bridge over navigable waters as if the bridge were constructed by a road authority;

(3) that the private operator manage and operate the toll facility in cooperation with the applicable road authority and subject to the development agreement and any amendments mutually agreed upon;

(4) that the toll facility be subject to regular safety inspections by the road authority and the commissioner, at the operator's expense; and

(5) that the road authority must provide maintenance, snow removal, and the police services to the toll facility, at the expense of the private operator.

Sec. 5. [160.86] [COMMISSIONER'S APPROVAL.]

Subdivision 1. [APPROVAL REQUIRED.] A development agreement entered into by a road authority, other than the commissioner, and a private operator is not effective until the agreement has been approved in writing by the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [CONDITIONS.] The commissioner shall not approve a development agreement unless the commissioner is satisfied that:

(1) the development agreement adequately provides that all construction on the toll facility performed by contract will be performed only by a road authority or by contractors who are qualified to provide comparable services to the department of transportation;

(2) the development agreement adequately provides for maintenance and law enforcement on the facility;

(3) the development agreement adequately provides that all obligations assumed by, and all responsibilities imposed on, a private operator by law and under the agreement will not be affected by a change of ownership, management, or control of the private operator;

(4) the toll facility is consistent with the state transportation plan, the commissioner's trunk highway work plans and development programs, and the transportation plan adopted by the appropriate regional development commission, other than the metropolitan council;

(5) the toll facility will be constructed to standards comparable to the commissioner's standards for comparable trunk highways; and

(6) the requirements of section 6 have been met.

Sec. 6. [160.87] [LOCAL APPROVAL.]

Subdivision 1. [MUNICIPALITIES.] A toll facility may not be constructed without the prior approval, by resolution, of the governing board of each county, city and town through which the facility will pass. All such resolutions of approval must have been adopted within three years of the date on which construction of the toll facility is begun. The validity of a resolution of approval of a toll facility by a county, city, or town is not affected by any subsequent resolution, including a subsequent rescission, withdrawal, or annulment of a resolution of approval.

Subd. 2. [METROPOLITAN COUNCIL.] In the case of a toll facility to be constructed wholly or partly within the metropolitan area as defined in section 473.121, subdivision 2, the facility may not be constructed unless the private operator has first submitted the proposed facility to the metropolitan council and has obtained the council's approval in the manner provided in section 473.167, subdivision 1.

Sec. 7. [160.88] [COST RECOVERY.]

Subdivision 1. [USE OF TOLL REVENUES.] A development agreement may authorize a private operator of a toll facility to impose toll charges for the use of the facility and must require that toll revenues be applied to: (1) repayment of indebtedness incurred for the toll facility; (2) any lease or toll concessions payments; (3) costs of operation, administration, and maintenance of the toll facility; and (4) any reasonable reserves for future capital outlays necessary to cover costs of maintaining, preserving, and reconstructing the facility to all applicable standards. The enumeration of uses in this subdivision may not be construed directly or indirectly to state priorities for the use of these revenues.

Subd. 2. [TOLLS NOT TO BE COLLECTED.] A toll may not be collected on any facility that is owned and managed by a road authority.

Sec. 8. [160.89] [JOINT AUTHORITY.]

Two or more road authorities with jurisdiction over a toll facility may enter into a joint powers agreement under section 471.59 to exercise the powers, duties, and functions of the road authorities related to the toll facility, including negotiation and administration of the development agreement and related lease and toll concession agreements. If all road authorities with jurisdiction over a toll facility concur, title to or authority over the facility may be tendered to the commissioner who may accept the title or authority pursuant to the development agreement and this section.

Sec. 9. [160.90] [TOLL REGULATION.]

Subdivision 1. [TOLLS TO BE FILED.] A private operator who charges and collects tolls on a toll facility must file with the commissioner a schedule of all tolls charged.

Subd. 2. [TOLLS PRESCRIBED.] The transportation regulation board, on its own motion or on petition of a road authority, may investigate the tolls charged on a toll facility built or operated under sections 1 to 8. If the board determines on the basis of its investigation that public welfare, safety, and mobility require regulation of tolls on the facility, the board may after a public hearing prescribe just, reasonable, and nondiscriminatory tolls for the facility. The board may prescribe tolls under this subdivision without regard to whether a development agreement covering the toll facility regulates or otherwise provides for tolls. No person may directly or indirectly charge a toll on a toll facility that is different from a toll prescribed for the facility by the board.

Subd. 3. [LOCAL TOLL REGULATION.] No road authority or political subdivision may, separately or as part of a joint powers agreement, regulate tolls on a toll facility except as authorized in a development agreement.

Sec. 10. [TOLL FACILITY REPLACEMENT PROJECTS.]

When the commissioner removes from the commissioner's six-year highway improvement program, a highway project that is located within the metropolitan area as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 473.121, subdivision 2, because the project is or in the commissioner's determination will become a toll facility, the commissioner must replace the project in the work program with a comparable highway project that is also located within the metropolitan area.

ARTICLE 6

TRANSPORTATION SERVICES FUND

Section 1. [161.041] [TRANSPORTATION SERVICES FUND.]

Subdivision 1. [FUND CREATED.] A transportation services fund is created in the state treasury. The fund consists of all money required by law to be deposited in the fund, and other money made available to the fund by law.

Subd. 2. [USES OF FUND.] Money in the transportation services fund may only be expended by appropriation for

(1) activities of the commissioner of public safety relating to (i) driver licensing, (ii) motor vehicle registration and licensing, (iii) the accident reporting system; and (iv) the state patrol;

(2) activities of the commissioner of transportation relating to oversize and overweight permits, including the cost of necessary highway maintenance and preservation related to granting those permits;

(3) activities of the commissioner of transportation related to junkyard screening and control of outdoor advertising devices;

(4) activities of the transportation regulation board related to motor carrier regulation; and

(5) repayment of money borrowed for new buildings, and improvements to existing buildings, of the department of transportation.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 168.54, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. The proceeds of the fee imposed under the provisions of this section shall be collected by the commissioner of public safety and paid into the ~~general~~ transportation services fund.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 168.54, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. The unobligated balances in excess of $4,000 in said revolving fund as of June 30 of each fiscal year shall be canceled into the ~~general~~ transportation services fund.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 169.09, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [ACCIDENT REPORTS CONFIDENTIAL.] All written reports and supplemental reports required under this section to be provided to the department of public safety shall be without prejudice to the individual so reporting and shall be for the confidential use of the department of public safety and other appropriate state, federal, county, and municipal governmental agencies for accident analysis purposes, except that the department of public safety or any law enforcement department of any municipality or county in this state shall, upon written request of any person involved in an accident or upon written request of the representative of the person's estate, surviving spouse, or one or more surviving next of kin, or a trustee appointed pursuant to section 573.02, disclose to the requester, the requester's legal counsel or a representative of the requester's insurer any information contained therein except the parties' version of the accident as set out in the written report filed by the parties or may disclose identity of a person involved in an accident when the identity is not otherwise known or when the person denies presence at the accident. No report shall be used as evidence in any trial, civil or criminal, arising out of an accident, except that the department of public safety shall furnish upon the demand of any person who has, or claims to have, made a report, or, upon demand of any court, a certificate showing that a specified accident report has or has not been made to the department of public safety solely to prove a compliance or a failure to comply with the requirements that the report be made to the department of public safety. Disclosing any information contained in any accident report, except as provided herein, is unlawful and a misdemeanor.

Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent any person who has made a report pursuant to this chapter from providing information to any persons involved in an accident or their representatives or from testifying in any trial, civil or criminal, arising out of an accident, as to facts within the person's knowledge. It is intended by this subdivision to render privileged the reports required but it is not intended to prohibit proof of the facts to which the reports relate. general statement as to how the accident happened without attempting to fix liability upon anyone, but said legally qualified newspaper publications and licensed radio and television stations shall not be given access to the hereinbefore mentioned confidential reports, nor shall any such statements or information so orally given be used as evidence in any court proceeding, but shall merely be used for the purpose of a proper publication or broadcast of the news.

When these reports are released for accident analysis purposes the identity of any involved person shall not be revealed. Data contained in these reports shall only be used for accident analysis purposes, except as otherwise provided by this subdivision. Accident reports and data contained therein which may be in the possession or control of departments or agencies other than the department of public safety shall not be discoverable under any provision of law or rule of court.

Notwithstanding other provisions of this subdivision to the contrary, the commissioner of public safety shall give to the commissioner of transportation the name and address of a carrier subject to section 221.031 that is named in an accident report filed under subdivision 7 or 8. The commissioner of transportation may not release the name and address to any person. The commissioner shall use this information to enforce accident report requirements under chapter 221. In addition the commissioner of public safety may give to the United States Department of Transportation commercial vehicle accident information in connection with federal grant programs relating to safety.

The ~~department~~ commissioner of public safety may charge authorized persons a $5 fee for a copy of an accident report. Proceeds from the fee must be deposited into the transportation services fund.

170.23 [ABSTRACTS; FEE; ADMISSIBLE IN EVIDENCE.]

The commissioner shall upon request furnish any person a certified abstract of the operating record of any person subject to the provisions of this chapter, and, if there shall be no record of any conviction of such person of violating any law relating to the operation of a motor vehicle or of any injury or damage caused by such person, the commissioner shall so certify. Such abstracts shall not be admissible as evidence in any action for damages or criminal proceedings arising out of a motor vehicle accident. A fee of $5 shall be paid for each such abstract. The commissioner shall permit a person to inquire into the operating record of any person by means of the inquiring person's own computer facilities for a fee to be determined by the commissioner of at least $2 for each inquiry. The commissioner shall furnish an abstract that is not certified for a fee to be determined by the commissioner in an amount less than the fee for a certified abstract but more than the fee for an inquiry by computer. Fees collected under this section must be paid into the state treasury with 90 percent of the money credited to the ~~trunk highway~~ transportation services fund and ten percent credited to the general fund.

Subd. 1a. [INTENT; FOREST ROADS.] ~~$675,000~~ Approximately 0.116 percent of the total annual unrefunded revenue from the gasoline fuel tax on all gasoline and special fuel received in, produced, or brought into this state, except gasoline and special fuel used for aviation purposes, is derived from the operation of motor vehicles on state forest roads and county forest access roads~~, and~~. Of this ~~sum, $400,000~~ amount, 0.0605 percent is annually derived from motor vehicles operated on state forest roads and ~~$275,000~~ 0.0555 percent is annually derived from motor vehicles operated on county forest access roads in this state.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 296.421, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. METROPOLITAN TRANSPORTATION DEVELOPMENT

Section 1. [174.35] [LIGHT RAIL TRANSIT.]

The commissioner of transportation may plan, acquire, construct, and equip light rail transit facilities in the metropolitan area as provided in this section, sections 473.399 to 473.3996, and sections 3 to 13 and may exercise the powers granted in chapter 174 as necessary for this purpose.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 398A.04, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [TAXATION.] Before deciding to exercise the power to tax, the authority shall give six weeks published notice in all municipalities in the region. If a number of voters in the region equal to five percent of those who voted for candidates for governor at the last gubernatorial election present a petition within nine weeks of the first published notice to the secretary of state requesting that the matter be submitted to popular vote, it shall be submitted at the next general election. The question prepared shall be:

"Shall the regional rail authority have the power to impose a property tax?

No ....."

If a majority of those voting on the question approve or if no petition is presented within the prescribed time the authority may levy a tax at any annual rate not exceeding ~~0.04835~~ 0.024175 percent of market value of all taxable property situated within the municipality or municipalities named in its organization resolution. Its recording officer shall file in the office of the county auditor of each county in which territory under the jurisdiction of the authority is located a certified copy of the board of commissioners' resolution levying the tax, and each county auditor shall assess and extend upon the tax rolls of each municipality named in the organization resolution the portion of the tax that bears the same ratio to the whole amount that the net tax capacity of taxable property in that municipality bears to the net tax capacity of taxable property in all municipalities named in the organization resolution. Collections of the tax shall be remitted by each county treasurer to the treasurer of the authority.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 473.399, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [FEDERAL FUNDING.] The regional transit board and the commissioner of transportation shall jointly seek federal assistance for light rail transit facilities in the metropolitan area in accordance with the board's regional transit plan. No political subdivision in the metropolitan area may apply for or be a recipient of federal assistance for light rail transit planning or facilities, except in conjunction with an application for assistance by the board and the commissioner.

An application for federal assistance must be reviewed and approved by the metropolitan council before it is submitted by the board and the commissioner. The board and the commissioner must consult with the council in preparing the application.

Subd. 2a. [PRELIMINARY ENGINEERING PLAN.] "Preliminary engineering plan" means a light rail transit engineering plan that includes the items in the preliminary design plan, but with greater detail and specificity including, at a minimum:

(1) preliminary engineering plans for the physical design of the facilities, at approximately the 30 percent engineering level, and appropriate performance specifications for the elements required for final design plans under subdivision 3, clause (1); and

(2) plans for the physical design of facilities, at approximately the 30 percent level, and appropriate specifications for all elements required for final design plans under subdivision 3, clause (2); a funding plan for final design, construction, and operation; and an implementation method.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 473.3993, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [FINAL DESIGN PLAN.] "Final design plan" means a light rail transit plan that includes the items in the preliminary design and preliminary engineering plan for the facilities proposed for construction, but with greater detail and specificity. The final design plan must include, at a minimum:

(1) final plans for the physical design of facilities, including the right-of-way definition; environmental impacts and mitigation measures; intermodal coordination with bus operations and routes; and civil engineering plans for vehicles, track, stations, parking, and access, including handicapped access; and

(2) final plans for civil engineering for electrification, communication, and other similar facilities; operational rules, procedures, and strategies; capital costs; ridership; operating costs and revenues; financing for construction and operation; an implementation method; and other similar matters.

The final design plan must be stated with sufficient particularity and detail to allow the proposer to begin the acquisition and construction of operable facilities. If a turn-key implementation method is proposed, instead of civil engineering plans the final design plan must state detailed design criteria and performance standards for the facilities.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 473.3994, is amended to read:

473.3994 [LIGHT RAIL TRANSIT; ~~DESIGN~~ FACILITY PLANS.]

Subd. 1a. [PRELIMINARY DESIGN PLANS.] The regional transit board shall establish a procedure for preparing preliminary design plans for light rail transit facilities in the metropolitan area.

The board shall ensure the completion of preliminary design plans that are needed to implement the board's regional transit plan, to qualify for federal funds in accordance with the board's plan, and to prepare proposals for engineering and construction projects in a timely and cost-effective manner. The board shall consult the joint light rail transit advisory committee in preparing the preliminary design plans.

Subd. 2. [PRELIMINARY DESIGN PLANS; PUBLIC HEARING.] ~~Before preparing final design plans for a light rail transit facility, the~~ A political subdivision ~~proposing the~~ that has prepared preliminary design plans for a proposed facility must hold a public hearing on the physical design component of the preliminary design plans. The proposer must provide appropriate public notice of the hearing and publicity to ensure that affected parties have an opportunity to present their views at the hearing.

Subd. 3. [PRELIMINARY DESIGN PLANS; LOCAL APPROVAL.] At least 30 days before the hearing under subdivision 2, the proposer shall submit the physical design component of the preliminary design plans to the governing body of each statutory and home rule charter city, county, and town in which the route is proposed to be located. The city, county, or town shall hold a public hearing, except that a county board need not hold a hearing if the county board membership is identical to the membership of the regional railroad authority submitting the plan for review. Within 45 days after the hearing under subdivision 2, the city, county, or town shall review and approve or disapprove the plans for the route to be located in the city, county, or town. A local unit of government that disapproves the plans shall describe specific amendments to the plans that, if adopted, would cause the local unit to withdraw its disapproval. Failure to approve or disapprove the plans in writing within 45 days after the hearing is deemed to be approval, unless an extension of time is agreed to by the city, county, or town and the proposer.

Subd. 4. [PRELIMINARY DESIGN PLANS; REGIONAL TRANSIT BOARD REFERRAL.] If the governing body of one or more cities, counties, or towns disapproves the preliminary design plans within the period allowed under subdivision 3, the proposer may refer the plans, along with any comments of local jurisdictions, to the regional transit board. The board shall hold a hearing on the plans, giving the proposer, any disapproving local governmental units, and other persons an opportunity to present their views on the plans. The board may conduct independent study as it deems desirable and may mediate and attempt to resolve disagreements about the plans. Within 90 days after the referral, the board shall review the plans submitted by the proposer and may recommend amended plans to accommodate the objections presented by the disapproving local governmental units.

Subd. 4a. [PRELIMINARY ENGINEERING PLANS.] (a) Before beginning final design on a proposed facility, the commissioner shall submit the physical design component of preliminary engineering plans to the governing body of each statutory and home rule city, county, and town in which the route is proposed to be located. Within 60 days after the submission of the plans, the city, county, or town shall review and approve or disapprove the plans for the route located in the city, county, or town. A local unit of government that disapproves the plans shall describe specific amendments to the plans that, if adopted, would cause the local unit to withdraw its disapproval. Failure to approve or disapprove the plans in writing within the time period is considered to be approval, unless an extension is agreed to by the city, county, or town and the commissioner.

(b) If the governing body of one or more cities, counties, or towns disapproves the plans within the period allowed under paragraph (a), the commissioner may refer the plans, along with any comments of local jurisdictions, to the regional transit board. The board shall review the preliminary engineering plans under the same procedure and with the same effect as provided in subdivision 4 for preliminary design plans.

Subd. 5. [FINAL DESIGN PLANS.] (a) Before beginning construction, the ~~proposer~~ commissioner shall submit the physical design component of final design plans to the governing body of each statutory and home rule city, county, and town in which the route is proposed to be located. Within 60 days after the submission of the plans, the city, county, or town shall review and approve or disapprove the plans for the route located in the city, county, or town. A local unit of government that disapproves the plans shall describe specific amendments to the plans that, if adopted, would cause the local unit to withdraw its disapproval. Failure to approve or disapprove the plans in writing within the time period is deemed to be approval, unless an extension is agreed to by the city, county, or town and the ~~proposer~~ commissioner.

(b) If the governing body of one or more cities, counties, or towns disapproves the plans within the period allowed under paragraph (a), the ~~proposer~~ commissioner may refer the plans, along with any comments of local jurisdictions, to the regional transit board. The board shall review the final design plans under the same procedure and with the same effect as provided in subdivision 4 for preliminary design plans.

Subd. 6. [COUNTY APPROVAL.] The proposer of a light rail transit facility in the metropolitan area ~~must~~ shall submit the preliminary and final design plans for the facility to the governing board of the county in which the route is proposed to be located for approval or disapproval. The proposer of the facility may not proceed with construction of the facility without the approval of the county.

Subd. 7. [COUNCIL REVIEW.] Before proceeding with construction of a light rail transit facility, ~~a regional rail authority established under chapter 398A must~~ the proposer of the facility shall submit preliminary design plans, preliminary engineering plans, and final design plans to the metropolitan council. The council ~~must~~ shall review the plans for consistency with the council's development guide and comment on the plans.

Subd. 8. [METROPOLITAN SIGNIFICANCE.] This section does not diminish or replace the authority of the council under section 473.173.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 473.3996, is amended to read:

473.3996 [LIGHT RAIL TRANSIT FACILITY ~~DESIGN~~ PLANS; REVIEW ~~BY BOARD~~.]

Subdivision 1. [PRELIMINARY DESIGN AND ENGINEERING PLANS; BOARD REVIEW.] Before submitting the physical design component of final design plans of a light rail transit facility for local review under section 473.3994, subdivision 5, the proposer shall submit preliminary design and preliminary engineering plans to the regional transit board for review. The board shall review the ~~preliminary design~~ plans to determine the compatibility of the plans with other light rail transit plans and facilities in the metropolitan area, the adequacy of the plans for operation and maintenance of facilities, the adequacy of the plans for handicapped accessibility, and the conformity of the plans with the council's transportation policy plan and the board's regional light rail transit plan prepared under section 473.399. The board shall submit the plans to the transit commission for review and recommendations on specifications and other matters affecting operation and maintenance of facilities. The board shall submit the plans to the council for review and recommendations on the conformity of the plans with the council's transportation policies. The board may comment on any aspect of the plans. The board has 90 days to complete its review, unless an extension of time is agreed to by the proposer. If the board determines that the plans do not satisfy the standards stated in this subdivision, the board shall recommend modifications in the plans that are necessary in order to satisfy the board. After adopting or amending the regional plan required by section 473.399, the board may again review any previously reviewed preliminary design plans and recommend modifications that are necessary to satisfy the board.

Subd. 2. [FINAL DESIGN PLANS; BOARD APPROVAL.] Before acquiring or constructing light rail transit facilities, other than land for right of way, the proposer shall submit final design plans to the regional transit board for review. The board shall review the final design plans under the same procedure and schedule and according to the same standards as provided for its review of preliminary design plans. The board shall either approve the plans, or if it determines that the plans do not satisfy the standards, disapprove the plans, in whole or in part, and recommend modifications in the plans that are necessary to secure approval. A proposer may not proceed with acquisition or construction of a light rail transit facility, other than land for right of way, unless the final design plans for the facility have been approved by the board. ~~Following approval of final design plans by the board, if a regional railroad authority wishes to select a bid or a response to a request for proposal that is more than ten percent higher than the capital costs indicated in the final design plans for the facility, the authority may not proceed with construction until it has resubmitted the final design plans to the transit board for further review and approval or disapproval. The board has ten working days to review and approve or disapprove and recommend modification, unless an extension of time is agreed to by the authority.~~

Subd. 3. [PRELIMINARY DESIGN PLANS; DEPARTMENT REVIEW.] Preliminary design plans adopted after the effective date of this subdivision must be submitted to the commissioner of transportation for review. The commissioner shall review the plans for engineering and financial feasibility and may recommend modifications. It is therefore in the public interest to provide financing methods that accelerate construction of trunk highways linking regional centers in greater Minnesota with the Twin Cities metropolitan area.

Subd. 2. [STUDY.] The commissioner of transportation shall study and report to the governor and legislature the feasibility and desirability of establishing a comprehensive system of multilane divided highways connecting all regional centers with the Twin Cities metropolitan area. The study must include:

Subd. 6. [LOCAL PARTICIPATION IN TRUNK HIGHWAY PROJECTS.] The board shall study the appropriate role of local units of government in assisting in the cost of projects to construct or reconstruct trunk highways. The study must include a recommendation of guidelines to govern the extent of that participation and the types of projects for which participation is feasible and desirable.

Subd. 7. [INCREASED USE OF HIGH-OCCUPANCY VEHICLES.] The board shall study the feasibility and desirability of increasing incentives for the use of high-occupancy vehicles such as carpools, vanpools, and transit. The board shall study and evaluate, among other things, each of the following incentives:

473.388 [~~REPLACEMENT~~ OPT-OUT TRANSIT SERVICE PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [PROGRAM ESTABLISHED.] ~~A replacement~~ An opt-out transit service program is established to continue the metropolitan transit service demonstration program established in Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 174.265, as provided in this section.

Subd. 2. [~~REPLACEMENT~~ OPT-OUT TRANSIT SERVICE; ELIGIBILITY.] The transit board ~~may~~ shall provide assistance under the program to a statutory or home rule charter city or town or combination thereof, that:

(a) is located in the metropolitan transit taxing district;

(b) is not served by the transit commission or is served only with transit commission bus routes which begin or end within the applying city or town or combination thereof; and

(c) has fewer than four scheduled runs of metropolitan transit commission bus service during off-peak hours defined in section 473.408, subdivision 1.

Eligible cities or towns or combinations thereof may apply on behalf of a transit operator with whom they propose to contract for service.

The board may not provide assistance under this section to a statutory or home rule charter city or town unless the city or town,

(i) was receiving assistance under Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 174.265 by July 1, 1984,

(ii) had submitted an application for assistance under that section by July 1, 1984, or

(iii) had submitted a letter of intent to apply for assistance under that section by July 1, 1984, and submits an application for assistance under this section by July 1, 1988. A statutory or home rule charter city or town has an additional 12-month extension if it has notified the board before July 1, 1988, that the city or town is in the process of completing a transportation evaluation study that includes an assessment of the local transit needs of the city or town.

Subd. 3. [APPLICATION FOR ASSISTANCE.] An application for assistance under this section must:

(a) describe the existing service provided to the applicant by the transit commission, including the estimated number of passengers carried and the routes, schedules, and fares;

(b) describe the transit service proposed for funding under the demonstration program, including the anticipated number of passengers and the routes, schedules, and fares; and

(c) indicate the total amount of available local transit funds, the portion of the available local transit funds proposed to be used to subsidize ~~replacement~~ opt-out services, and the amount of assistance requested for the ~~replacement~~ opt-out services.

Subd. 4. [FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE.] The board ~~may~~ shall grant the ~~requested financial assistance~~ available local transit funds if it determines that the proposed service is ~~consistent with the approved implementation plan and~~ is intended to replace the service to the applying city or town or combination thereof by the transit commission ~~and that the proposed service will meet the needs of the applicant at least as efficiently and effectively as the existing service~~, if any, and that the proposed service will provide transportation of persons for hire, or that the assistance will be used for transit-related purposes.

The amount of assistance which the board ~~may~~ shall provide under this section ~~may not exceed the sum of:~~

~~(a) the portion of the available local transit funds which the applicant proposes to use to subsidize the proposed service; and~~

~~(b) an amount of financial assistance bearing an identical proportional relationship to the amount under clause (a) as the total amount of financial assistance to the transit commission bears to the total amount of taxes collected by the board under section 473.446. The board shall pay the amount to be provided to the recipient from the assistance the board would otherwise pay to the transit commission.~~ is the total amount of available local transit funds. The board shall disburse assistance to the recipient in advance by semiannual payments on or before January 1 and on or before July 1 of the year for which assistance is requested by the recipient.

Assistance provided by the board to the recipient must be spent for transit-related purposes. Assistance that is not spent in the budget year in which it is provided may be retained by the recipient and carried over to the next budget year. Assistance that is not spent in the budget year in which it is provided may not be retained for more than two additional years. After that time, the recipient must deposit any unspent assistance with the board, who will place emphasis on the expenditure of these funds for suburban transit service.

For purposes of this section "available local transit funds" means 90 percent of the tax revenues which would accrue to the board from the ~~tax it levies~~ certified tax levy under section 473.446 in the applicant city or town or combination thereof, including the revenues which would accrue from the homestead and agricultural credit aid and disparity reduction aid.

Subd. 5. [OTHER ASSISTANCE.] A city or town receiving assistance under this section may also receive assistance from the board under section 473.384. In applying for assistance under that section an applicant must describe the portion of the available local transit funds which are not obligated to subsidize replacement service and which the applicant proposes to use to subsidize additional service. An applicant which has exhausted its available local transit funds may use any other local subsidy funds to complete the required local share.

Subd. 6. [ASSUMPTION OF PROGRAM.] The board shall certify to the commissioner of transportation when it ~~has adopted an approved interim implementation plan and~~ is ready to assume responsibility for the metropolitan transit service demonstration program administered by the commissioner under Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 174.265. On receipt of the certification the commissioner shall make no further contracts under that program and shall assign all contracts then in effect under that program to the board, and the contracts at that time become obligations of the board.

Subd. 7. [BUDGET.] A recipient of assistance under this section each year shall prepare an annual budget, and, after holding a public hearing on the budget, shall submit the budget to the board and to the legislature for review. The board shall review and comment on the consistency of the budget with its implementation plan.

Subd. 8. [ANNUAL REPORTS.] Before December 1 of each year, the recipient of assistance under this section shall prepare a report for the preceding fiscal year containing, in addition to other matters as the recipient may consider proper, the following:

A copy of each report must be filed with the board, the metropolitan council, the legislature, and the governor by November 30 of each year.

Sec. 5. [STUDIES REQUIRED.]

(a) The metropolitan council, in consultation with the board and after consultation with participants in the opt-out transit service program, must conduct a study of the costs of planning, administering and managing transit services in the metropolitan area, including the costs of coordinating and integrating services provided by different transit operators or authorities. The council, in consultation with the board, must direct its staff to examine whether the percentage of property tax revenues raised in communities participating in the program under Minnesota Statutes, section 473.388, which accrues to the board from the tax it levies under Minnesota Statutes, section 473.446, is adequate to finance those communities' prorated share of these costs. The council, in consultation with the board, must make a recommendation to the legislature on the appropriate percentage of property tax revenues to be used to finance these costs.

(b) The council, in consultation with the board and after consultation with participants in the opt-out transit service program, must conduct a study of the interaction between the funding mechanisms of the program under Minnesota Statutes, section 473.388, and the reductions of levied taxes made pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 473.446, subdivision 1. The council, in consultation with the board, must direct its staff to study the interaction of these provisions, including the effect of the interaction on the financing of transit services in the metropolitan area, and to report its findings to the board.

(c) The council must report to the legislature on the results of these studies on or before February 15, 1992.

The commissioner shall give public notice of each sale by publication for ~~four~~ three successive weeks in a daily newspaper printed and published in each of the cities of St. Paul, Minneapolis, Duluth, Hibbing, and Virginia. The last publication shall be not less than seven days nor more than 30 days before ~~August 1 next preceding~~ the date of sale. Like notice may be published in not to exceed two additional newspapers and two trade magazines, as the commissioner may direct.

Each notice shall contain the following information:

(1) Time and place of holding the sale;

(2) The general requirements of law affecting bidders and purchasers of permits;

(3) The place or places where the list of mining units, to be offered for sale will be available for inspection and where forms for bids and applications for prospecting permits may be obtained;

(4) Such other information as the commissioner may direct.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 93.17, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Applications for permits to prospect for iron ore shall be presented to the commissioner in writing in such form as the commissioner may prescribe at any time ~~prior to the time of opening the bids as hereinafter provided~~ before 4:30 p.m., St. Paul, Minnesota time, on the last business day before the day specified for the opening of bids, and no bids submitted after that time shall be considered. The application shall be accompanied by a certified check payable to the state treasurer in the sum of $50 for each mining unit as set out above. Each application shall be accompanied also by a sealed bid setting forth the amount of royalty per gross ton of crude ore based upon the iron content of the ore when dried at 212 degrees Fahrenheit, in its natural condition or when concentrated, as set out in detail hereafter, that the applicant proposes to pay to the state of Minnesota in case the permit shall be awarded.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 93.17, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. ~~On the date~~ At the time and place fixed for the sale ~~at 11 o'clock in the forenoon in the office of the governor in the state capitol in St. Paul~~, the commissioner shall publicly announce the number of applications and bids received~~, and none received thereafter shall be considered~~. The commissioner, together with at least one member of the executive council as designated by the council, shall then publicly open the bids~~,~~ and announce the amount of each bid separately~~, and~~. Thereafter, the commissioner, together with the executive council, shall award the permits to the highest bidders for the respective mining units, but no bids shall be accepted that shall not equal or exceed the minimum amounts provided for in section 93.20, nor shall any bid be accepted that shall not comply with the law and be accompanied by a certified check for the faithful performance of the terms of each permit as hereinbefore set out. The right is reserved to the state to reject any and all bids. All applications for permits and bids not accepted at such sale shall become void at the close of the sale and the checks accompanying the applications and bids shall be returned to the applicants entitled to them. Upon the award of a permit, the certified check submitted with the application as provided by subdivision 1, shall be deposited with the state treasurer as a fee for the permit, to be credited to the same fund as the rental or royalty from the mining unit affected, and the certified check submitted with the bid as provided by subdivision 2, shall be deposited with the state treasurer and held for further disposition as provided by law.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 93.20, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9a. (1) The royalties to be paid by the part.... of the second part to the party of the first part on ore removed in each calendar quarter that the lease remains in force as hereinbefore specified shall be subject to increase by fifty percent (50%) of the sum of the amounts determined in accordance with subparagraphs (a) and (b) below:

(a) Reference shall be made to the Producer Price Index for Iron Ores (December 1984 = 100) (Industry Code No. 1011), as originally published (unrevised) by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the United States Department of Labor, or any succeeding federal agency publishing such index, for the first month in the calendar quarter for which royalty payment is to be made. If the Producer Price Index for Iron Ores exceeds ....., which was the level of such index for the month in which this lease was issued (hereafter called the "PPI – IO Base Index"), the excess shall be computed and this excess shall become the numerator of a fraction, the denominator of which shall be the PPI – IO Base Index, and the resulting fraction shall be multiplied by the royalty rate per ton payable on the ore mined and removed during any such quarter.

For example, if the PPI – IO Base Index under this lease was 119.2, and if the Producer Price Index for Iron Ores for January, 19.. was 125.3, the additional amount for the calendar quarter of January, February, and March 19.. would be computed as follows:

[(125.3-119.2)/119.2] × base royalty rate = additional amount

(b) Reference shall be made to the Producer Price Index for the Iron and Steel Subgroup of the Metals and Metal Products Group (1982–100) (Commodity Code No. 101), as originally published (unrevised) by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the United States Department of Labor, or any succeeding federal agency publishing such index, for the first month in the calendar quarter for which royalty payment is to be made. If the Producer Price Index for the Iron and Steel Subgroup of the Metals and Metal Products Group exceeds ....., which was the level of such index for the month in which this lease was issued (hereafter called the "PPI – I&S Base Index)", the excess shall be computed and this excess shall become the numerator of a fraction, the denominator of which shall be the PPI – I&S Base Index, and the resulting fraction shall be multiplied by the royalty rate per ton payable on the ore mined and removed during any such quarter.

For example, if the PPI – I&S Base Index under this lease was 129.5, and if the Producer Price Index for the Iron and Steel Subgroup of the Metals and Metal Products Group for January, 19.. was 139.5, the additional amount for the calendar quarter of January, February, and March 19.. would be computed as follows:

[(139.5-129.5)/129.5] × base royalty rate = additional amount

(2) In the event some other period than December 1984 is used as a base of 100 in determining the Producer Price Index for Iron Ores or some other period than 1982 is used as a base of 100 in determining the Producer Price Index for the Iron and Steel Subgroup of the Metals and Metal Products Group, for the purposes of this lease these indexes shall be adjusted so as to be in correct relationship to the appropriate base. In the event either such index is not published by any federal agency, the index to be used as aforesaid shall be that index independently published, which, after necessary adjustments, if any, provides the most reasonable substitute for the appropriate index during any period subsequent to the month in which this lease is issued; it being intended to substitute for the Producer Price Index for Iron Ores an index that most accurately reflects fluctuations in the prices of Great Lakes iron ores in the manner presently reported by the Producer Price Index for Iron Ores (December 1984=100), as originally published (unrevised) by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the United States Department of Labor, and it being intended to substitute for the Producer Price Index for the Iron and Steel Subgroup of the Metals and Metal Products Group an index that most accurately reflects fluctuations in the prices of iron and steel in the manner presently reported by the Producer Price Index for the Iron and Steel Subgroup of the Metals and Metal Products Group (1982=100), as originally published (unrevised) by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the United States Department of Labor.

If the parties to this lease cannot agree upon substitute indexes which accomplish these purposes, each shall choose an arbitrator and the two thus selected shall choose a third. The decision of the arbitrators or any two of them shall be final and binding on the parties in interest. The agreement or the decision of the arbitrators shall be attached as a supplement to the lease. Each party to the arbitration shall bear their representative share of the costs for the arbitration.

The power of eminent domain of an authority, as defined in section 469.174, subdivision 2, extends to railroad properties located within the authority's limits, provided:

(1) the railroad property is not a line of track for which abandonment is required under federal law, or if it is a line of track for which abandonment is required under federal law, abandonment has been approved;

(2) some part of the property contains land pollution as defined in section 116.06, or contains a release or threatened release of petroleum, as provided in chapter 115C, or contains a release or threatened release of a pollutant, contaminant, hazardous substance, or hazardous waste, as provided in chapter 115B; and

(3) the authority intends to develop the property and has a plan for its cleanup and development within five years.

Upon a showing by the petitioner in condemnation proceedings that the conditions described in clauses (1) to (3) exist, then the public use to which the authority would put the property is adjudged a superior public use to railroad use or any other past, present, or proposed future use, regardless of whether the property is held in trust, was previously acquired by condemnation, or is owned by a railroad.

17A.14 [PENALTIES.]

Subdivision 1. [CRIMINAL PENALTIES.] Any person, duly licensed or otherwise, who violates ~~the provisions of sections 17A.01 to 17A.15~~ this chapter, for which violation a penalty has not been specifically set out, is guilty of a misdemeanor. Any subsequent violation is a gross misdemeanor.

Subd. 2. [CIVIL PENALTIES.] (a) The commissioner, as an alternate to misdemeanor prosecution, may impose a civil penalty on a person who violates a statute or rule enforceable by the commissioner. For a first violation, the commissioner may impose a civil penalty of not more than $500 for each violation. For a second or succeeding violation, the commissioner may impose a penalty of not more than $1,000 for each violation.

(b) In determining the amount of the civil penalty, the commissioner may consider:

(1) the willfulness of the violation;

(2) the gravity of the violation;

(3) the person's history of past violations;

(4) the number of violations;

(5) the economic benefit from the violations; and

(6) other factors identified in the commissioner's citation.

(c) For a second or succeeding violation, the commissioner shall determine the amount of a penalty by considering the factors in paragraph (b) and:

(1) similarity between the violations;

The citation must describe with particularity the nature of the violation, including a reference to the statute, rule, or order alleged to have been violated. In addition, the citation must fix a reasonable time for the abatement of the violation and notify the person of the penalty, if any, proposed to be assessed. The citation must also advise that the person has 30 working days within which to notify the commissioner in writing that the person wishes to contest the citation, proposed penalty assessment, or time allowed for correction. The commissioner may issue notices instead of citations with respect to minor violations if the commissioner believes a notice will best serve the public interest.

Subd. 2. [FINAL ORDER.] If within 30 working days after receiving the commissioner's notice or citation the person fails to notify the commissioner in writing that the person intends to contest the citation, proposed penalty, assessment, or time allowed for correction in the citation, the citation and assessment as proposed become a final order and are not subject to further review. For good cause shown the commissioner may extend the time period for responding.

Subd. 3. [APPEAL.] The time allowed for correcting a violation does not begin to run until the entry of a final order if the person has initiated review proceedings under this section in good faith. If the commissioner has reason to believe that a person has failed to correct a violation for which a citation has been issued within the time allowed, the commissioner shall notify the person by certified mail of the failure. The notification must state the penalty proposed to be assessed for the failure under section 17A.14 and must state that the person has 30 working days to notify the commissioner in writing that the person wishes to contest the notification or the proposed penalty assessment. If within 30 working days after receiving the notification the person fails to notify the commissioner in writing that the person intends to contest the notification or proposed penalty assessment, the notification and assessment as proposed become a final order and are not subject to further review. For good cause shown the commissioner may extend the time period for responding.

Subd. 4. [CITATION CONTEST.] If a person who has received a citation or a proposed penalty assessment notifies the commissioner that the person intends to contest the citation or the proposed penalty assessment within the time limits in subdivisions 2 and 3, the commissioner shall file a complaint with the office of administrative hearings and serve a copy on the respondent by first class mail. The complaint must be served and copies filed within 40 days of receiving the notice of contest. The complaint must set forth all alleged violations and proposed penalties that are contested.

Sec. 8. [17A.151] [DUTY TO PROSECUTE.]

It is the duty of each county attorney or city attorney to whom the commissioner reports a violation of this chapter to cause appropriate proceedings to be instituted in the proper courts without delay and to be prosecuted in the manner required by law. Before a violation of this chapter is reported to a county attorney or city attorney for the institution of a criminal proceeding, the person against whom the proceeding is contemplated must be given appropriate notice and an opportunity to present views before the commissioner or the commissioner's designated agent, either orally or in writing, in person, or by attorney, with regard to the contemplated proceeding."

"Whereas, the health of Minnesota's dairy industry, which is now in crisis, is key to the economic well-being of the state of Minnesota; and

Whereas, agriculture is the number one revenue-producing industry in Minnesota, and the dairy industry produces the largest share of this revenue; and

Whereas, the current milk price is the lowest farmers have received since September, 1978; and

Whereas, the present milk support price of $10.10 per hundredweight fails to meet dairy farmers' minimum costs of production; and

Whereas, Minnesota has lost 10,000 dairy farmers since 1980, has lost 40 more in the past two weeks, and in the face of the present crisis will continue to lose dairy farmers at an alarming rate, threatening the very existence of the dairy industry in the state; and

Whereas, the income of dairy farmers will be further reduced by an assessment of five cent per hundredweight on nearly ten billion pounds of Minnesota milk in 1991, which is just the latest in a continuing string of increases in fees and assessments paid by dairy farmer; and

Whereas, federal milk marketing orders are discriminatory and skewed to give unfair advantage to large corporate farms of the West and South, suppressing milk prices in the Upper Midwest and inflating prices by several dollars per hundredweight in nontraditional dairy areas; and

Whereas, the dairy farmer has taken more substantial cuts in federal support than any other sector of our economy and agriculture itself, starting with repeal of the April, 1991, six-month price support adjustment for inflation and a continuous series of cuts and reductions in the price support base and fee and assessment increases paid by dairy farmers on milk production in every decision made by the President and Congress; and

Whereas, the Minnesota House and Senate and the Minnesota Governor are committed to preserving the family farm structure and Minnesota's small dairy farmers, Now, Therefore,

Be It Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota that it urges the President, Congress, and the Secretary of Agriculture to immediately respond to the crisis in the Midwest dairy industry by reopening the dairy provisions of the 1990 federal farm law to insure that Minnesota and Midwest dairy farmers receive cost of production plus a reasonable profit for their products.

Be It Further Resolved that the United States Secretary of Agriculture should immediately take action to alleviate the Minnesota and Midwestern dairy crisis by modifying and changing the federal milk marketing order system so as to eliminate the discriminatory provisions from the orders that pay more for milk to Western and Southern producers than paid to Midwest dairy farmers and encourage increased dairy production in markets distant from the Upper Midwest, depressing prices for Minnesota producers.

Be It Further Resolved that Congress take immediate action to alleviate the crisis in the Midwest dairy industry by increasing milk price supports by $2.30 per hundredweight, an increase that will allow Midwest producers to break even on costs of production.

Be It Further Resolved that the Secretary of State of the State of Minnesota is directed to prepare certified copies of this memorial and transmit them to the President of the United States, the President and Secretary of the United States Senate, the Speaker and Chief Clerk of the United States House of Representatives, the Chair of the House of Representatives Committee on Agriculture, the Chair of the Dairy Division of the House of Representatives Committee on Agriculture, Minnesota's Senators and Representatives in Congress, and the United States Secretary of Agriculture."

Subd. 1b. [INITIAL REFERENDUM ALLOWANCE.] The department of education shall convert the referendum levy authority existing under this section for 1990 taxes payable in 1991 to a revenue allowance per actual pupil unit for future years. A district's initial revenue allowance for all later years for which the levy is authorized equals the referendum levy authority for 1990 taxes payable in 1991 divided by its actual pupil units for the 1991-1992 school year.

Subd. 1c. [REFERENDUM ALLOWANCE ADJUSTMENT.] Beginning in fiscal year 1993, a district's referendum allowance adjustment equals:

(a) one-half of the sum of:

(1) the district's training and experience revenue according to section 124A.22, subdivision 4, minus its previous formula training and experience revenue according to section 124A.22, subdivision 4; minus

(2) the amount of the reduction in supplemental revenue resulting from the increase in training and experience revenue under clause (1);

(b) divided by the district's actual pupil units.

Subd. 1d. [REFERENDUM ALLOWANCE.] For fiscal year 1993 and subsequent fiscal years, a district's referendum allowance equals the sum of the following:

(a) the district's initial referendum allowance minus the district's referendum allowance adjustment, but not less than zero; plus

(b) the amount of referendum revenue per actual pupil unit authorized under subdivision 2 in a referendum held after July 1, 1991.

Subd. 1e. [REFERENDUM ALLOWANCE LIMIT.] (a) Notwithstanding subdivision 1d, a district's referendum allowance must not exceed the greater of:

(1) the district's initial referendum allowance for fiscal year 1992 minus the district's referendum allowance adjustment; or

(2) 35 percent of the formula allowance for that fiscal year.

Subd. 1f. [SPARSITY EXCEPTION.] A district that qualifies for sparsity revenue under section 124A.22 is not subject to a referendum allowance limit.

Subd. 1g. [TOTAL REFERENDUM REVENUE.] The total referendum revenue for each district equals the district's referendum allowance times the actual pupil units for the school year.

Subd. 1h. [REFERENDUM EQUALIZATION REVENUE.] A district's referendum equalization revenue equals the sum of the three referendum equalization tiers.

(a) First tier referendum equalization revenue equals two percent of the formula allowance times the district's actual pupil units for that year.

(b) Second tier referendum equalization revenue equals five percent of the formula allowance times the district's actual pupil units for that year.

(c) Third tier referendum equalization revenue equals three percent of the formula allowance times the district's actual pupil units for that year.

Referendum equalization revenue must not exceed a district's referendum revenue authority times the pupil units for that year.

Subd. 1i. [REFERENDUM EQUALIZATION LEVY.] A district's referendum equalization levy equals the sum of the following:

(a) First tier referendum equalization levy equals first tier referendum revenue.

(b) Second tier referendum equalization levy equals second tier referendum revenue times the lesser of one or the ratio of the district's adjusted net tax capacity per pupil unit to 75 percent of the equalizing factor as defined in section 124A.02, subdivision 8.

(c) Third tier referendum equalization levy equals third tier referendum revenue times the lesser of one or the ratio of the district's adjusted net tax capacity per pupil unit to 50 percent of the equalizing factor as defined in section 124A.02, subdivision 8.

Subd. 1j. [REFERENDUM EQUALIZATION AID.] A district's referendum equalization aid equals the difference between its referendum equalization revenue and levy for each tier.

Subd. 1k. [UNEQUALIZED REFERENDUM LEVY.] Each year, a district may levy an amount equal to the difference between its total referendum revenue according to subdivision 1g and its equalized referendum revenue according to subdivision 1h.

Subd. 2. [REFERENDUM ~~LEVY~~ REVENUE.] (a) The ~~levy~~ revenue authorized by section ~~124A.23~~ 124A.22, subdivision ~~2~~ 1, may be increased in the amount approved by the voters of the district at a referendum called for the purpose. The referendum may be called by the school board or shall be called by the school board upon written petition of qualified voters of the district. The referendum must be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November. The ballot shall state the maximum amount of the increased ~~levy as a percentage of net tax capacity, the amount that will be raised by that local tax rate~~ revenue per actual pupil unit, the estimated net tax capacity rate in the first year it is to be levied, and that the ~~local tax rate~~ revenue shall be used to finance school operations. The ballot shall designate the specific number of years for which the referendum authorization shall apply. The ballot may contain a textual portion with the information required in this subdivision and a question stating substantially the following:

"Shall the increase in the ~~levy~~ revenue proposed by (petition to) the board of ....., School District No. .., be approved?"

If approved, ~~the~~ an amount ~~provided by~~ equal to the approved ~~local tax rate applied to the net tax capacity~~ revenue per actual pupil unit times the actual pupil units for the school year ~~preceding~~ beginning in the year after the levy is certified shall be authorized for certification for the number of years approved, if applicable, or until revoked or reduced by the voters of the district at a subsequent referendum.

(b) The school board shall prepare and deliver by first class mail at least 15 days but no more than 30 days prior to the day of the referendum to each taxpayer at the address listed on the school district's current year's assessment roll, a notice of the referendum and the proposed ~~levy~~ revenue increase. For the purpose of giving mailed notice under this subdivision, owners shall be those shown to be owners on the records of the county auditor or, in any county where tax statements are mailed by the county treasurer, on the records of the county treasurer. Every property owner whose name does not appear on the records of the county auditor or the county treasurer shall be deemed to have waived this mailed notice unless the owner has requested in writing that the county auditor or county treasurer, as the case may be, include the name on the records for this purpose. The notice must project the anticipated amount of tax increase in annual dollars and annual percentage for typical residential homesteads, agricultural homesteads, apartments, and commercial-industrial property within the school district.

The notice must include the following statement: "~~In 1989 the legislature reduced property taxes for education by increasing the state share of funding for education. However, state aid for cities and townships was reduced by a corresponding amount. As a result, property taxes for cities and townships may increase.~~ "Passage of this referendum will result in an increase in your property taxes."

(c) A referendum on the question of revoking or reducing the increased ~~levy~~ revenue amount authorized pursuant to paragraph (a) may be called by the school board and shall be called by the school board upon the written petition of qualified voters of the district. ~~A levy~~ Revenue approved by the voters of the district pursuant to paragraph (a) must be ~~made~~ received at least once before it is subject to a referendum on its revocation or reduction for subsequent years. Only one revocation or reduction referendum may be held to revoke or reduce ~~a levy~~ referendum revenue for any specific year and for years thereafter.

(d) A petition authorized by paragraph (a) or (c) shall be effective if signed by a number of qualified voters in excess of 15 percent of the registered voters of the school district on the day the petition is filed with the school board. A referendum invoked by petition shall be held on the date specified in paragraph (a).

(e) The approval of 50 percent plus one of those voting on the question is required to pass a referendum authorized by this subdivision.

(f) At least 15 days prior to the day of the referendum, the district shall submit a copy of the notice required under paragraph (b) to the commissioner of education. Within 15 days after the results of the referendum have been certified by the school board, or in the case of a recount, the certification of the results of the recount by the canvassing board, the district shall notify the commissioner of education of the results of the referendum.

124A.04 [TRAINING AND EXPERIENCE INDEX.]

Subdivision 1. [FISCAL YEAR 1992.] The training and experience index for fiscal year 1992 shall be constructed in the following manner:

(a) The department shall construct a matrix which classifies teachers by the extent of training received in accredited institutions of higher education, and by the years of experience which ~~the district takes~~ districts take into account in determining ~~each teacher's salary~~ teacher salaries.

(b) For all teachers in the state, the average salary per full-time-equivalent shall be computed for each cell of the matrix.

(c) For each cell of the matrix, the ratio of the average salary in that cell to the average salary in the cell for teachers with no prior years of experience and only a bachelor's degree shall be computed. Cells of the matrix in lanes beyond the master's degree plus 30 credits lane must receive the same ratio as the cells in the master's degree plus 30 credits lane. The department shall use statistical methods to ensure continuously increasing or constant ratios as cells are higher in training or experience.

(d) The index for each district shall be equal to the weighted average of the ratios assigned to the full-time-equivalent teachers in each district.

Subd. 2. [1993 AND LATER.] The training and experience index for fiscal year 1993 and later fiscal years must be constructed in the following manner:

(a) The department shall construct a matrix that classifies teachers by the extent of training received in accredited institutions of higher education and by the years of experience that districts take into account in determining teacher salaries.

(b) The average salary for each cell of the matrix must be computed as follows using data from the second year of the previous biennium:

(1) For each school district, multiply the salary paid to full-time equivalent teachers with that combination of training and experience according to the district's teacher salary schedule by the number of actual pupil units in that district.

(2) Add the amounts computed in clause (1) for all districts in the state and divide the resulting sum by the total number of actual pupil units in all districts in the state that employ teachers.

(c) For each cell in the matrix, compute the ratio of the average salary in that cell to the average salary for all teachers in the state.

(d) The index for each district that employs teachers equals the sum of the ratios for each teacher in that district divided by the number of teachers in that district. The index for a district that employs no teachers is zero.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124A.22, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [BASIC REVENUE.] The basic revenue for each district equals the formula allowance times the actual pupil units for the school year. The formula allowance is ~~$2,838~~ $3,050 for fiscal year ~~1990. The formula allowance for~~ 1992 and subsequent fiscal years ~~is $2,953~~.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124A.22, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

~~(b)~~ (2) multiply the result in clause ~~(a)~~ (1) by the product of $700 times the actual pupil units for the school year.

(b) For 1993 and later fiscal years, the maximum training and experience revenue for each district equals the greater of zero or the result of the following computation:

(1) subtract .8 from the training and experience index;

(2) multiply the result in clause (1) by the product of $575 times the actual pupil units for the school year.

(c) For 1993 and later fiscal years, the previous formula training and experience revenue for each district equals the amount of training and experience revenue computed for that district according to the formula used to compute training and experience revenue for fiscal year 1991.

(d) For fiscal year 1993, the training and experience revenue for each district equals the district's previous formula training and experience revenue plus one-third of the difference between the district's maximum training and experience revenue and the district's previous formula training and experience revenue.

(e) For fiscal year 1994, the training and experience revenue for each district equals the district's previous formula training and experience revenue plus two-thirds of the difference between the district's maximum training and experience revenue and the district's previous formula training and experience revenue.

(f) For 1995 and later fiscal years, the training and experience revenue for each district equals the district's maximum training and experience revenue.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124A.22, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4a. [TRAINING AND EXPERIENCE LEVY.] A district's training and experience levy equals its training and experience revenue times the lesser of one or the ratio of the district's adjusted net tax capacity per pupil unit for the year before the year the levy is certified to the equalizing factor for the school year to which the levy is attributable.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124A.24, is amended to read:

124A.24 [GENERAL EDUCATION LEVY EQUITY.]

If a district's general education levy is determined according to section 124A.23, subdivision 3, an amount must be deducted from state aid authorized in this chapter and chapter 124, receivable for the same school year, and from other state payments receivable for the same school year authorized in chapter 273. The aid in section 124.646 must not be reduced.

The amount of the deduction equals the difference between:

This reduction does not apply to a district that is expecting a delinquency in property tax receipts of 15 percent or more in a fiscal year. For purposes of this subdivision only, fund balance pupil units means the number of resident pupil units in average daily membership ~~enrolled in the district~~, including shared time pupils, according to section 124A.02, subdivision 20, plus

(1) pupils attending the district for which general education aid adjustments are made according to section 124A.036, subdivision 5;

minus the sum of

(2) resident pupils attending other districts for which general education aid adjustments are made according to section 124A.036, subdivision 5, and ~~excluding~~ pupils for whom payment is made according to section 126.22, subdivision 8, or 126.23. The amount of the reduction shall equal the lesser of:

Staff development revenue may be used only for outcome-based education activities. The school board shall determine ~~which programs~~ the staff development activities to provide, the manner in which they will be provided, and the extent to which other ~~money~~ local funds may be used ~~for the programs~~ to supplement staff development activities that implement outcome-based education.

(b) Of a district's basic revenue under section 124A.22, subdivision 2, an amount equal to $5 times the number of actual pupil units must be reserved and may be used only to provide parental involvement programs that implement section 124C.61.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124A.30, is amended to read:

124A.30 [STATEWIDE AVERAGE REVENUE.]

By October 1 of each year the commissioner shall estimate the statewide average general education revenue per actual pupil unit and the range in general education revenue among pupils and districts by computing the difference between the fifth and ninety-fifth percentiles of general education revenue. The commissioner must provide that information to all school districts.

If the disparity in general education revenue as measured by the difference between the fifth and ninety-fifth percentiles increases in any year, the commissioner must propose a change in the general education formula that will limit the disparity in general education revenue to no more than the disparity for the previous school year. The commissioner must submit the proposal to the education committees of the legislature by January 15.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 298.28, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SCHOOL DISTRICTS.] (a) 27.5 cents per taxable ton plus the increase provided in paragraph (d) must be allocated to qualifying school districts to be distributed, based upon the certification of the commissioner of revenue, under paragraphs (b) and (c).

(b) 5.5 cents per taxable ton must be distributed to the school districts in which the lands from which taconite was mined or quarried were located or within which the concentrate was produced. The distribution must be based on the apportionment formula prescribed in subdivision 2.

(c)(i) 22 cents per taxable ton, less any amount distributed under paragraph (e), shall be distributed to a group of school districts comprised of those school districts in which the taconite was mined or quarried or the concentrate produced or in which there is a qualifying municipality as defined by section 273.134 in direct proportion to school district indexes as follows: for each school district, its pupil units determined under section 124.17 for the prior school year shall be multiplied by the ratio of the average adjusted net tax capacity per pupil unit for school districts receiving aid under this clause as calculated pursuant to chapter 124A for the school year ending prior to distribution to the adjusted net tax capacity per pupil unit of the district. Each district shall receive that portion of the distribution which its index bears to the sum of the indices for all school districts that receive the distributions.

(ii) Notwithstanding clause (i), each school district that receives a distribution under sections 298.018; 298.23 to 298.28, exclusive of any amount received under this clause; 298.34 to 298.39; 298.391 to 298.396; 298.405; or any law imposing a tax on severed mineral values that is less than the amount of its levy reduction under section 275.125, subdivision 9, for the second year prior to the year of the distribution shall receive a distribution equal to the difference; the amount necessary to make this payment shall be derived from proportionate reductions in the initial distribution to other school districts under clause (i).

(d) On July 15, in years prior to 1988, an amount equal to the increase derived by increasing the amount determined by paragraph (c) in the same proportion as the increase in the steel mill products index over the base year of 1977 as provided in section 298.24, subdivision 1, clause (a), shall be distributed to any school district described in paragraph (c) where a levy increase pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 2, is authorized by referendum, according to the following formula. On July 15, 1988, the increase over the amount established for 1987 shall be determined as if there had been an increase in the tax rate under section 298.24, subdivision 1, paragraph (b), according to the increase in the implicit price deflator. On July 15, 1989, and subsequent years, the increase over the amount established for the prior year shall be determined according to the increase in the implicit price deflator as provided in section 298.24, subdivision 1, paragraph (a). Each district shall receive the product of:

(i) $175 times the pupil units identified in section 124.17, subdivision 1, enrolled in the second previous year or the 1983-1984 school year, whichever is greater, less the product of 1.8 percent times the district's taxable net tax capacity in the second previous year; times

(ii) the lesser of:

(A) one, or

(B) the ratio of the sum of the amount certified pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision ~~2~~ 1i, in the previous year, plus the amount certified pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 1k, in the previous year, plus the referendum aid according to section 124A.03, subdivision 1j, for the current year, to the product of 1.8 percent times the district's taxable net tax capacity in the second previous year.

If the total amount provided by paragraph (d) is insufficient to make the payments herein required then the entitlement of $175 per pupil unit shall be reduced uniformly so as not to exceed the funds available. Any amounts received by a qualifying school district in any fiscal year pursuant to paragraph (d) shall not be applied to reduce general education aid which the district receives pursuant to section 124A.23 or the permissible levies of the district. Any amount remaining after the payments provided in this paragraph shall be paid to the commissioner of iron range resources and rehabilitation who shall deposit the same in the taconite environmental protection fund and the northeast Minnesota economic protection trust fund as provided in subdivision 11.

Each district receiving money according to this paragraph shall reserve $25 times the number of pupil units in the district. It may use the money only for outcome-based learning programs that enhance the academic quality of the district's curriculum. The programs must be approved by the commissioner of education.

(e) There shall be distributed to any school district the amount which the school district was entitled to receive under section 298.32 in 1975.

Sec. 25. [APPROPRIATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION.] The sums indicated in this section are appropriated from the general fund to the department of education for the fiscal years designated.

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124.223, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TO AND FROM SCHOOL; BETWEEN SCHOOLS.] (a) State transportation aid is authorized for transportation or board of resident elementary pupils who reside one mile or more from the public schools which they could attend; transportation or board of resident secondary pupils who reside two miles or more from the public schools which they could attend; transportation to and from schools the resident pupils attend according to a program approved by the commissioner of education, or between the schools the resident pupils attend for instructional classes; transportation of resident elementary pupils who reside one mile or more from a nonpublic school actually attended; transportation of resident secondary pupils who reside two miles or more from a nonpublic school actually attended; but with respect to transportation of pupils to nonpublic schools actually attended, only to the extent permitted by sections 123.76 to 123.79; transportation of a pupil who is a custodial parent and that pupil's child between the pupil's home and the child care provider and between the provider and the school, if the home and provider are within the attendance area of the school. State transportation aid is not authorized for late transportation home from school for pupils involved in after school activities. State transportation aid is not authorized for summer program transportation except as provided in subdivision 8.

(b) For the purposes of this subdivision, a district may designate a licensed day care facility, respite care facility, the residence of a relative, or the residence of a person chosen by the pupil's parent or guardian as the home of a pupil for part or all of the day, if requested by the pupil's parent or guardian and if that facility or residence is within the attendance area of the school the pupil attends.

(c) State transportation aid is authorized for transportation to and from school of an elementary pupil who moves during the school year within an area designated by the district as a mobility zone, but only for the remainder of the school year. The attendance areas of schools in a mobility zone must be contiguous. To be in a mobility zone, a school must meet both of the following requirements:

(i) more than 50 percent of the pupils enrolled in the school are eligible for free or reduced school lunch; and

(ii) the pupil withdrawal rate for the last year is more than 12 percent.

(d) A pupil withdrawal rate is determined by dividing:

(i) the sum of the number of pupils who withdraw from the school, during the school year, and the number of pupils enrolled in the school as a result of transportation provided under this paragraph, by

(ii) the number of pupils enrolled in the school.

(e) The district may establish eligibility requirements for individual pupils to receive transportation in the mobility zone.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124.225, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [PREDICTED BASE COST.] A district's predicted base cost ~~for the 1988-1989 base year and later years~~ equals the result of the following computation:

(a) Multiply the transportation formula allowance by the district's sparsity index raised to the one-fourth power. The transportation formula allowance is ~~$406 for the 1988-1989 base year and~~ $421 for the 1989-1990 base year and $434 for the 1990-1991 base year.

(b) Multiply the result in clause (a) by the district's density index raised to the 35/100 power.

(c) Multiply the result in clause (b) by the district's contract transportation index raised to the 1/20 power.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124.225, subdivision 7a, is amended to read:

Subd. 7a. [BASE YEAR SOFTENING FORMULA.] ~~Each district's predicted base cost determined for the 1986-1987 and 1987-1988 base years according to subdivision 3 shall be adjusted as provided in this subdivision to determine the district's adjusted authorized predicted cost per FTE for that year.~~

~~(a) If the base cost of the district is within five percent of the predicted base cost, the district's adjusted authorized predicted cost per FTE shall be equal to the base cost.~~

~~(b) If the base cost of the district is more than five percent greater than the predicted base cost, the district's adjusted authorized predicted cost per FTE shall be equal to 105 percent of the predicted base cost, plus 40 percent of the difference between (i) the base cost, and (ii) 105 percent of the predicted base cost. However, in no case shall a district's adjusted authorized predicted cost per FTE be less than 80 percent of base cost.~~

~~(c) If the base cost of the district is more than five percent less than the predicted base cost, the district's adjusted authorized predicted cost per FTE shall be equal to 95 percent of the predicted base cost, minus 40 percent of the difference between (i) 95 percent of predicted base cost, and (ii) the base cost. However, in no case~~

~~shall a district's adjusted authorized predicted cost per FTE be more than 120 percent of base cost.~~

~~(d) For the 1988-1989 base year and later years,~~ Each district's predicted base cost determined according to subdivision 3a must be adjusted as provided in this subdivision to determine the district's adjusted predicted base cost for that year. The adjusted predicted base cost equals 50 percent of the district's base cost plus 50 percent of the district's predicted base cost, but the adjusted predicted base cost cannot be less than 80 percent, nor more than 110 percent, of the base cost.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124.225, subdivision 7b, is amended to read:

Subd. 7b. [INFLATION FACTORS.] ~~The adjusted authorized predicted cost per FTE determined for a district under subdivision 7a for the base year shall be increased by 4.1 percent to determine the district's regular transportation allowance for the 1988-1989 school year and by 5.8 percent to determine the district's regular transportation allowance for the 1989-1990 school year.~~ The adjusted predicted base cost determined for a district under subdivision 7a for the base year must be increased by ~~5.4~~ 4.0 percent to determine the district's regular transportation allowance for the ~~1990-1991~~ 1991-1992 school year and by 2.0 percent to determine the district's regular transportation allowance for the 1992-1993 school year, but the regular transportation allowance for a district cannot be less than the district's minimum regular transportation allowance according to Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124.225, subdivision 1, paragraph (t).

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124.225, subdivision 7d, is amended to read:

Subd. 7d. [TRANSPORTATION REVENUE.] ~~Beginning in the 1990-1991 school year, the~~ Transportation revenue for each district equals the sum of the district's regular transportation revenue and the district's nonregular transportation revenue.

(a) The regular transportation revenue for each district equals the district's regular transportation allowance according to subdivision 7b times the sum of the number of FTE's transported by the district in the regular and desegregation categories in the current school year.

(b) The nonregular transportation revenue for each district for the 1991-1992 school year equals the lesser of the district's actual costs in the 1991-1992 school year for nonregular transportation services or the product of the district's actual cost in the ~~current~~ 1990-1991 school year for nonregular transportation services as defined for the 1991-1992 school year in subdivision 1, paragraph (c), times the ratio of the district's average daily membership for the 1991-1992 school year to the district's average daily membership for the 1990-1991 school year according to section 124.17, subdivision 2, times 1.041, minus the amount of regular transportation revenue attributable to FTE's transported in the desegregation category in the current school year, plus the excess nonregular transportation revenue for the 1991-1992 school year according to subdivision 7e.

(c) For the 1992-1993 and later school years, the nonregular transportation revenue for each district equals the lesser of the district's actual cost in the current school year for nonregular transportation services or the product of the district's actual cost in the base year for nonregular transportation services as defined for the current year in subdivision 1, paragraph (c), times the ratio of the district's average daily membership for the current year to the district's average daily membership for the base year according to section 124.17, subdivision 2, times the nonregular transportation inflation factor for the current year, minus the amount of regular transportation revenue attributable to FTE's transported in the desegregation category in the current school year, plus the excess nonregular transportation revenue for the current year according to subdivision 7e. The nonregular transportation inflation factor for the 1992-1993 school year is 1.084.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124.225, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7e. [EXCESS NONREGULAR TRANSPORTATION REVENUE.] (a) A district's excess nonregular transportation revenue for the 1991-1992 school year equals an amount equal to 80 percent of the difference between:

(1) the district's actual cost in the 1991-1992 school year for nonregular transportation services as defined for the 1991-1992 school year in subdivision 1, paragraph (c), and

(2) the product of the district's actual cost in the 1990-1991 school year for nonregular transportation services as defined for the 1991-1992 school year in subdivision 1, paragraph (c), times 1.15, times the ratio of the district's average daily membership for the 1991-1992 school year to the district's average daily membership for the 1990-1991 school year.

(b) A district's excess nonregular transportation revenue for the 1992-1993 school year and later school years equals an amount equal to 80 percent of the difference between:

(1) the district's actual cost in the current year for nonregular transportation services as defined for the current year in subdivision 1, paragraph (c), and

(2) the product of the district's actual cost in the base year for nonregular transportation services as defined for the current year in subdivision 1, paragraph (c), times 1.30, times the ratio of the district's average daily membership for the current year to the district's average daily membership for the base year.

(c) The state total excess nonregular transportation revenue must not exceed $2,000,000 for the 1991-1992 school year and $2,000,000 for the 1992-1993 school year. If the state total revenue according to paragraph (a) or (b) exceeds the limit set in this paragraph, the excess nonregular transportation revenue for each district equals the district's revenue according to paragraph (a) or (b), times the ratio of the limitation set in this paragraph to the state total revenue according to paragraph (a) or (b).

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124.225, subdivision 8a, is amended to read:

Subd. 8a. [TRANSPORTATION AID.] (a) ~~For the 1988-1989 and 1989-1990 school years, a district's transportation aid is equal to the sum of its basic transportation aid under subdivision 8b, its nonregular transportation aid under subdivision 8i, and its nonregular transportation levy equalization aid under subdivision 8j, minus its contracted services aid reduction under subdivision 8k and minus its basic transportation levy limitation for the levy attributable to that school year under section 275.125, subdivision 5.~~

~~(b) For 1990-1991 and later school years,~~ A district's transportation aid equals the product of:

(1) the difference between the transportation revenue and the sum of:

(i) the maximum basic transportation levy for that school year under section 275.125, subdivision 5, plus

(ii) the maximum nonregular transportation levy for that school year under section 275.125, subdivision 5c, plus

(iii) the contracted services aid reduction under subdivision 8k,

(2) times the ratio of the sum of the actual amounts levied under section 275.125, subdivisions 5 and 5c, to the sum of the permitted maximum levies under section 275.125, subdivisions 5 and 5c.

(c) If the total appropriation for transportation aid for any fiscal year is insufficient to pay all districts the full amount of aid earned, the department of education shall reduce each district's aid in proportion to the number of resident pupils in average daily membership in the district to the state total average daily membership, and shall reduce the transportation levy of off-formula districts in the same proportion.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124.225, subdivision 8k, is amended to read:

Subd. 8k. [CONTRACTED SERVICES AID REDUCTION.] (a) Each year, a district's transportation aid shall be reduced according to the provisions of this subdivision, if the district contracted for some or all of the transportation services provided in the regular category.

(b) ~~For the 1988-1989 and 1989-1990 school years, the department of education shall compute this subtraction by conducting the multiple regression analysis specified in subdivision 3 and computing the district's aid under two circumstances, once including the coefficient of the factor specified in subdivision 4b, clause (3), and once excluding the coefficient of that factor. The aid subtraction shall equal the difference between the district's aid computed under these two circumstances.~~

~~(c) For 1990-1991 and later school years,~~ The department of education shall determine the subtraction by computing the district's regular transportation revenue, excluding revenue based on the district's minimum regular transportation allowance according to Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124.225, subdivision 1, paragraph (t), under two circumstances, once including the factor specified in subdivision 3a, clause (c), and once excluding the factor. The aid subtraction equals the difference between the district's revenue computed under the two circumstances.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124.225, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [DEPRECIATION.] Any school district that owns school buses or mobile units shall transfer annually from the undesignated fund balance account in its transportation fund to the reserved fund balance account for bus purchases in its transportation fund at least an amount equal to 12-1/2 percent of the original cost of each type one or type two bus or mobile unit until the original cost of each type one or type two bus or mobile unit is fully amortized, plus 20 percent of the original cost of each type three bus included in the district's authorized cost under the provisions of subdivision 1, paragraph (b), clause (4), until the original cost of each type three bus is fully amortized, plus 33-1/3 percent of the cost to the district as of July 1 of each year for school bus reconditioning done by the department of corrections until the cost of the reconditioning is fully amortized; provided, if the district's transportation aid or levy is reduced pursuant to subdivision 8a because the appropriation for that year is insufficient, this amount shall be reduced in proportion to the reduction pursuant to subdivision 8a as a percentage of the district's transportation revenue under subdivision ~~7e~~ 7d.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 275.125, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [BASIC TRANSPORTATION LEVY.] Each year, a school district may levy for school transportation services an amount not to exceed the amount raised by the basic transportation tax rate times the adjusted net tax capacity of the district for the preceding year. ~~The basic transportation tax rate for fiscal year 1991 is 2.04 percent. Beginning in 1990,~~ The commissioner of revenue shall establish the basic transportation tax rate and certify it to the commissioner of education by July 1 of each year for levies payable in the following year. The basic transportation tax rate shall be a rate, rounded up to the nearest hundredth of a percent, that, when applied to the adjusted net tax capacity of taxable property for all districts, raises the amount specified in this subdivision. The basic transportation tax rate for transportation shall be the rate that raises ~~$66,700,000~~ $57,700,000 for fiscal year 1993 and $61,000,000 for fiscal year ~~1992~~ 1994 and subsequent fiscal years. The basic transportation tax rate certified by the commissioner of revenue must not be changed due to changes or corrections made to a district's adjusted net tax capacity after the tax rate has been certified.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 275.125, subdivision 5b, is amended to read:

Subd. 5b. [TRANSPORTATION LEVY OFF-FORMULA ADJUSTMENT.] ~~(a) In the 1989 and 1990 fiscal years, if the basic transportation levy under subdivision 5 in a district attributable to the fiscal year exceeds the transportation aid computation under section 124.225, subdivisions 8b, 8i, 8j, and 8k, the district's levy limitation shall be adjusted as provided in this subdivision. In the second year following each fiscal year, the district's transportation levy shall be reduced by an amount equal to the difference between (1) the amount of the basic transportation levy under subdivision 5, and (2) the sum of the district's transportation aid computation pursuant to section 124.225, subdivisions 8b, 8i, 8j, and 8k, and the amount of any subtraction made from special state aids pursuant to section 124.2138, subdivision 2, less the amount of any aid reduction due to an insufficient appropriation as provided in section 124.225, subdivision 8a.~~

~~(b) For 1991 and later fiscal years,~~ In a district if the basic transportation levy under subdivision 5 attributable to that fiscal year is more than the difference between (1) the district's transportation revenue under section 124.225, subdivision ~~7e~~ 7d, and (2) the sum of the district's maximum nonregular levy under subdivision 5c and the district's contracted services aid reduction under section 124.225, subdivision 8k, and the amount of any reduction due to insufficient appropriation under section 124.225, subdivision 8a, the district's transportation levy in the second year following each fiscal year must be reduced by the amount of the excess.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 275.125, subdivision 5c, is amended to read:

Subd. 5c. [NONREGULAR TRANSPORTATION LEVY.] A school district may also make a levy for unreimbursed nonregular transportation costs pursuant to this subdivision. The amount of the levy shall be the result of the following computation:

(a) multiply

(1) the amount of the district's nonregular transportation revenue under section 124.225, subdivision ~~7e~~ 7d, that is more than the product of ~~$30~~ $60 times the district's ~~actual pupil units~~ average daily membership, by

(2) ~~60~~ 50 percent;

(b) subtract the result in clause (a) from the district's total nonregular transportation revenue;

(c) multiply the result in clause (b) by the lesser of one or the ratio of (i) the quotient derived by dividing the adjusted net tax capacity of the district for the year before the year the levy is certified by the ~~actual pupil units~~ average daily membership in the district for the school year to which the levy is attributable, to (ii) ~~$7,258~~ $8,000.

Sec. 15. [LEVY ADJUSTMENT.]

The department of education shall adjust the 1991 levy for each school district by the amount of the change in the district's nonregular transportation levy for fiscal year 1992 according to Minnesota Statutes, section 275.125, subdivision 5c, resulting from the changes to nonregular transportation revenue and levy under sections 2 and 4. Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 121.904, the entire amount of this levy must be recognized as revenue for fiscal year 1992.

Sec. 16. [APPROPRIATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION.] The sums indicated in this section are appropriated from the general fund to the department of education for the fiscal years designated.

Subd. 2. [TRANSPORTATION AID.] For transportation aid according to Minnesota Statutes, section 124.225:

The 1993 appropriation includes $17,053,000 for 1992 and $109,327,000 for 1993.

Subd. 3. [TRANSPORTATION AID FOR POST-SECONDARY ENROLLMENT OPTIONS.] For transportation of pupils attending post-secondary institutions according to Minnesota Statutes, section 123.3514:

$75,000 1993

Subd. 4. [TRANSPORTATION AID FOR ENROLLMENT OPTIONS.] For transportation of pupils attending nonresident districts according to Minnesota Statutes, section 120.0621:

Subd. 5. [TRANSFER AUTHORITY.] If the appropriation in subdivision 3 or 4 for either year exceeds the amount needed to pay the state's obligation for that year under that subdivision, the excess amount may be used to make payments for that year under the other subdivision.

Subd. 6. [TRANSFER AUTHORITY: FISCAL YEAR 1990 APPROPRIATION.] If the appropriation in Laws 1989, chapter 329, article 2, section 8, subdivision 3 or 4 for fiscal year 1990, exceeds the amount needed to pay the state's obligation under that subdivision, the excess amount may be used to make payments under the other subdivision.

Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124.225, subdivisions 3, 4b, 7c, 8b, 8i, and 8j, are repealed.

Sec. 18. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 16, subdivision 6, is effective the day following final enactment.

ARTICLE 3

SPECIAL PROGRAMS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 120.17, subdivision 3b, is amended to read:

Subd. 3b. [PROCEDURES FOR DECISIONS.] Every district shall utilize at least the following procedures for decisions involving identification, assessment, and educational placement of handicapped children:

(a) Parents and guardians shall receive prior written notice of:

(1) any proposed formal educational assessment or proposed denial of a formal educational assessment of their child;

(2) a proposed placement of their child in, transfer from or to, or denial of placement in a special education program; or

(3) the proposed provision, addition, denial or removal of special education services for their child;

(b) The district shall not proceed with the initial formal assessment of a child, the initial placement of a child in a special education program, or the initial provision of special education services for a child without the prior written consent of the child's parent or guardian. The refusal of a parent or guardian to consent may be overridden by the decision in a hearing held pursuant to clause ~~(d)~~ (e) at the district's initiative;

(c) Parents and guardians shall have an opportunity to meet with appropriate district staff in at least one conciliation conference if they object to any proposal of which they are notified pursuant to clause (a). The conciliation process shall not be used to deny or delay a parent or guardian's right to a due process hearing. If the parent or guardian refuses efforts by the district to conciliate the dispute with the school district, the requirement of an opportunity for conciliation shall be deemed to be satisfied;

(d) The commissioner shall establish a mediation process to assist parents, school districts, or other parties to resolve disputes arising out of the identification, assessment, or educational placement of handicapped children. The mediation process must be offered as an informal alternative to the due process hearing provided under clause (e), but must not be used to deny or postpone the opportunity of a parent or guardian to obtain a due process hearing.

(e) Parents, guardians, and the district shall have an opportunity to obtain an impartial due process hearing initiated and conducted by and in the school district responsible for assuring that an appropriate program is provided in accordance with state board rules, if the parent or guardian continues to object to:

(1) a proposed formal educational assessment or proposed denial of a formal educational assessment of their child;

(2) the proposed placement of their child in, or transfer of their child to a special education program;

(3) the proposed denial of placement of their child in a special education program or the transfer of their child from a special education program;

(4) the proposed provision or addition of special education services for their child; or

(5) the proposed denial or removal of special education services for their child.

At least five calendar days before the hearing, the objecting party shall provide the other party with a brief written statement of the objection and the reasons for the objection.

The hearing shall take place before an impartial hearing officer mutually agreed to by the school board and the parent or guardian. If the school board and the parent or guardian are unable to agree on a hearing officer, the school board shall request the commissioner to appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer shall not be a school board member or employee of the school district where the child resides or of the child's school district of residence, an employee of any other public agency involved in the education or care of the child, or any person with a personal or professional interest which would conflict with the person's objectivity at the hearing. A person who otherwise qualifies as a hearing officer is not an employee of the district solely because the person is paid by the district to serve as a hearing officer. If the hearing officer requests an independent educational assessment of a child, the cost of the assessment shall be at district expense. The proceedings shall be recorded and preserved, at the expense of the school district, pending ultimate disposition of the action.

~~(e)~~ (f) The decision of the hearing officer pursuant to clause ~~(d)~~ (e) shall be rendered not more than 45 calendar days from the date of the receipt of the request for the hearing. A hearing officer may grant specific extensions of time beyond the 45-day period at the request of either party. The decision of the hearing officer shall be binding on all parties unless appealed to the hearing review officer by the parent, guardian, or the school board of the district where the child resides pursuant to clause ~~(f)~~ (g).

The local decision shall:

(1) be in writing;

(2) state the controlling facts upon which the decision is made in sufficient detail to apprise the parties and the hearing review officer of the basis and reason for the decision;

(3) state whether the special education program or special education services appropriate to the child's needs can be reasonably provided within the resources available to the responsible district or districts;

(4) state the amount and source of any additional district expenditure necessary to implement the decision; and

(5) be based on the standards set forth in subdivision 3a and the rules of the state board.

~~(f)~~ (g) Any local decision issued pursuant to clauses ~~(d)~~ (e) and ~~(e)~~ (f) may be appealed to the hearing review officer within 30 calendar days of receipt of that written decision, by the parent, guardian, or the school board of the district responsible for assuring that an appropriate program is provided in accordance with state board rules.

If the decision is appealed, a written transcript of the hearing shall be made by the school district and shall be accessible to the parties involved within five calendar days of the filing of the appeal. The hearing review officer shall issue a final independent decision based on an impartial review of the local decision and the entire record within ~~30~~ 60 calendar days after the filing of the appeal. The hearing review officer shall seek additional evidence if necessary and may afford the parties an opportunity for written or oral argument; provided any hearing held to seek additional evidence shall be an impartial due process hearing but shall be deemed not to be a contested case hearing for purposes of chapter 14. The hearing review officer may grant specific extensions of time beyond the 30-day period at the request of any party.

The final decision shall:

(1) be in writing;

(2) include findings and conclusions; and

(3) be based upon the standards set forth in subdivision 3a and in the rules of the state board.

~~(g)~~ (h) The decision of the hearing review officer shall be final unless appealed by the parent or guardian or school board to the court of appeals. The judicial review shall be in accordance with chapter 14.

~~(h)~~ (i) The commissioner of education~~, having delegated general supervision of special education to the appropriate staff,~~ shall ~~be~~ select an individual who has the qualifications enumerated in this paragraph to serve as the hearing review officer ~~except for appeals in which~~:

(1) the ~~commissioner has~~ individual must be knowledgeable and impartial;

(2) the individual must not have a personal interest in or specific involvement with the student who is a party to the hearing;

~~(2)~~ (3) the ~~commissioner has~~ individual must not have been employed as an administrator by the district that is a party to the hearing;

~~(3)~~ (4) the ~~commissioner has~~ individual must not have been involved in the selection of the administrators of the district that is a party to the hearing;

~~(4)~~ (5) the ~~commissioner has~~ individual must not have a personal, economic, or professional interest in the outcome of the hearing other than the proper administration of the federal and state laws, rules, and policies;

~~(5)~~ (6) the ~~appeal challenges~~ individual must not have substantial involvement in the development of a state or local policy ~~which was developed with substantial involvement of the commissioner;~~ or procedures that are challenged in the appeal;

~~(6) the appeal challenges the actions of a department employee or official.~~

~~For any appeal to which the above exceptions apply, the state board of education shall name an impartial and competent hearing review officer~~ and

(7) the individual is not a current employee or board member of a Minnesota public school district, education district, intermediate unit or regional education agency, the state department of education, the state board of education, or a parent advocacy organization or group.

(j) In all appeals, the parent or guardian of the handicapped student or the district that is a party to the hearing may challenge the impartiality or competence of the proposed hearing review officer by applying to the state board of education.

~~(i)~~ (k) Pending the completion of proceedings pursuant to this subdivision, unless the district and the parent or guardian of the child agree otherwise, the child shall remain in the child's current educational placement and shall not be denied initial admission to school.

~~(j)~~ (l) The child's school district of residence, a resident district, and providing district shall receive notice of and may be a party to any hearings or appeals under this subdivision.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 120.17, subdivision 7a, is amended to read:

Subd. 7a. [ATTENDANCE AT SCHOOL FOR THE HANDICAPPED.] Responsibility for special instruction and services for a visually disabled or hearing impaired child attending the Minnesota state academy for the deaf or the Minnesota state academy for the blind shall be determined in the following manner:

(a) The legal residence of the child shall be the school district in which the child's parent or guardian resides.

(b) When it is determined pursuant to section 128A.05, subdivision 1 or 2 that the child is entitled to attend either school, the state board shall provide the appropriate educational program for the child. The state board shall make a tuition charge to the child's district of residence for the cost of providing the program. The amount of tuition charged shall not exceed the basic revenue of the district for that child, for the amount of time the child is in the program. For purposes of this subdivision, "basic revenue" has the meaning given it in section 124A.22, subdivision 2. The district of the child's residence shall pay the tuition and may claim general education aid for the child. The district of the child's residence shall not receive aid pursuant to section 124.32, subdivision 5, for tuition paid pursuant to this subdivision. ~~All~~ Tuition received by the state board, except for tuition received under clause (c), shall be deposited in the state treasury as provided in clause (g).

(c) In addition to the tuition charge allowed in clause (b), the academies may charge the child's district of residence for the academy's unreimbursed cost of providing an instructional aide assigned to that child, if that aide is required by the child's individual education plan. Tuition received under this clause must be used by the academies to provide the required service.

~~(c)~~ (d) When it is determined that the child can benefit from public school enrollment but that the child should also remain in attendance at the applicable school, the school district where the institution is located shall provide an appropriate educational program for the child and shall make a tuition charge to the state board for the actual cost of providing the program, less any amount of aid received pursuant to section 124.32. The state board shall pay the tuition and other program costs including the unreimbursed transportation costs. Aids for handicapped children shall be paid to the district providing the special instruction and services. Special transportation shall be provided by the district providing the educational program and the state shall reimburse such district within the limits provided by law.

~~(d)~~ (e) Notwithstanding the provisions of clauses (b) and ~~(c)~~ (d), the state board may agree to make a tuition charge for less than the amount specified in clause (b) for pupils attending the applicable school who are residents of the district where the institution is located and who do not board at the institution, if that district agrees to make a tuition charge to the state board for less than the amount specified in clause ~~(c)~~ (d) for providing appropriate educational programs to pupils attending the applicable school.

~~(e)~~ (f) Notwithstanding the provisions of clauses (b) and ~~(c)~~ (d), the state board may agree to supply staff from the Minnesota state academy for the deaf and the Minnesota state academy for the blind to participate in the programs provided by the district where the institutions are located when the programs are provided to students in attendance at the state schools.

(g) On May 1 of each year, the state board shall count the actual number of elementary students and the actual number of secondary students enrolled and receiving education services at the Minnesota state academy for the deaf and the Minnesota state academy for the blind. The state board shall deposit in the state treasury an amount equal to all tuition received less:

(1) the total number of students on May 1 less 175, times the ratio of the number of elementary students to the total number of students on May 1, times the general education formula allowance; plus

(2) the total number of students on May 1 less 175, times the ratio of the number of secondary students on May 1 to the total number of students on May 1, times 1.3, times the general education formula allowance.

(h) The sum provided by the calculation in clause (g), subclauses (1) and (2), must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the general operation account of the academy for the deaf and the academy for the blind.

(i) There is annually appropriated to the department of education for the Faribault academies the tuition amounts received and credited to the general operation account of the academies under this section.

The responsibility for providing instruction and transportation for a nonhandicapped pupil who has a short-term or temporary physical or emotional illness or disability, as determined by the standards of the state board, and who is temporarily placed for care and treatment for that illness or disability, shall be determined in the following manner:

(a) The school district of residence of the pupil shall be the district in which the pupil's parent or guardian resides or the district designated by the commissioner of education if neither parent nor guardian is living within the state.

(b) Prior to the placement of a pupil for care and treatment, the district of residence shall be notified and provided an opportunity to participate in the placement decision. When an immediate emergency placement is necessary and time does not permit resident district participation in the placement decision, the district in which the pupil is temporarily placed, if different from the district of residence, shall notify the district of residence of the emergency placement within 15 days of the placement.

(c) When a nonhandicapped pupil is temporarily placed for care and treatment in a day program and the pupil continues to live within the district of residence during the care and treatment, the district of residence shall provide instruction and necessary transportation for the pupil. The district may provide the instruction at a school within the district of residence, at the pupil's residence, or in the case of a placement outside of the resident district, in the district in which the day treatment program is located by paying tuition to that district.

(d) When a nonhandicapped pupil is temporarily placed in a residential program for care and treatment, the district in which the pupil is placed shall provide instruction for the pupil and necessary transportation within that district while the pupil is receiving instruction, and in the case of a placement outside of the district of residence, the nonresident district shall bill the district of residence for the actual cost of providing the instruction for the regular school year and for summer school, excluding transportation costs. When a nonhandicapped pupil is temporarily placed in a residential program outside the district of residence, the administrator of the court placing the pupil shall send timely written notice of the placement to the district of residence.

(e) The district of residence shall receive general education aid for the pupil and pay tuition and other instructional costs, excluding transportation costs, to the district providing the instruction. (2) if any, a description of the federal or state laws, rules, or code violations corrected by the project;

(3) the availability and manner of financing each project;

(4) the estimated date to begin and complete each project;

(5) the impact, if any, of each project to extend the useful life or improve the safety of the facility or site; and

(6) a breakdown by category of total cost of projects requiring expenditure of less than $50,000. Categories of cost must be defined in the standard format.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 121.15, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2b. [FIVE-YEAR FACILITIES PLAN APPROVAL.] (a) The commissioner shall consider the criteria in paragraphs (b) and (c) in determining whether to approve or disapprove projects in a district's current five-year plan.

(b) To approve a district's five-year facilities plan, the commissioner must determine that all of the conditions in this paragraph are met or are determined not applicable for each construction, expansion, or remodeling project contained in the plan:

(1) the new facilities are needed for pupils for whom no adequate facilities exist or will exist;

(2) no form of cooperation with another district would provide the necessary facilities;

(3) the proposed facilities are comparable in size and quality to facilities recently constructed in other districts that have similar enrollments;

(4) the current facility poses a threat to the life, health, and safety of pupils, and cannot reasonably be brought into compliance with fire, health, or life safety codes; and

(5) the district has made a good faith effort, as evidenced by its maintenance expenditures, to adequately maintain the existing facility during the previous ten years and to comply with fire, health, and life safety codes and state and federal requirements for handicapped accessibility.

(c) The commissioner may disapprove the plan or a project contained in a five-year plan if:

(1) a project to be initiated in the first year of the current plan has not reasonably appeared in a previous five-year plan;

(2) the state demographer has examined the population of the communities to be served by the proposed facility and determined that the communities have not grown during the previous five years;

(3) the state demographer determined that the economic and population bases of the communities to be served by the proposed facility are not likely to grow or to remain at a level sufficient, during the next ten years, to ensure use of the entire facility;

(4) the need for facilities could be met within the district or adjacent districts at a comparable cost by leasing, repairing, remodeling, or sharing existing facilities or by using temporary facilities;

(5) the district plans do not include cooperation and collaboration with health and human services agencies and other political subdivisions; or

(6) for new construction projects, an existing facility that would meet the district's needs could be purchased at a comparable cost from any other source within the area.

(d) A district must not proceed with a project unless the plan describing the project has been approved by the commissioner. The commissioner may allow a district without an approved five-year plan to proceed with a project, if the commissioner determines that the district is making a good faith effort to revise its plan.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 121.15, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2c. [ADJACENT DISTRICT COMMENTS.] For any five-year facilities plan that contains a proposal for new facilities or projects that require an expenditure of more than $1,000,000 per school site, the district shall present the proposed project to the school board of each adjacent district at a public meeting of that district. Before a district issues bonds under this subdivision, it must publish notice of the intended projects, related costs, and the total amount of district indebtedness.

A bond issue tentatively authorized by the board under this subdivision becomes finally authorized unless a petition signed by more than 15 percent of the registered voters of the school district is filed with the school board within 30 days of the board's action. The percentage is to be determined with reference to the number of registered voters in the school district on the last day before the petition is filed with the school board. The petition must call for a referendum on the question of whether to issue the bonds for the projects under this section. The approval of 50 percent plus one of those voting on the question is required to pass a referendum authorized by this section.

The bonds may be issued in a principal amount, that when combined with interest thereon, will be paid off with 50 percent of current and anticipated revenue for capital facilities under this section or a successor section for the current year plus projected revenue not greater than the current year for the next ten years. Once finally authorized, the district must set aside 50 percent of the current year's revenue for capital facilities under this section or a successor section each year in a separate account until all principal and interest on the bonds is paid. The district must annually transfer this amount from its capital fund to the debt redemption fund. The bonds must be paid off within ten years of issuance. The bonds must be issued in compliance with Minnesota Statutes, chapter 475, except as otherwise provided in this section.

aggregate principal amount of any bonds issued under this section in calendar year 1992 must not exceed $12,500,000 and in calendar years 1993 to 1996 must not exceed $9,000,000 each year. Issuance of the bonds is not subject to Minnesota Statutes, section 475.58 or 475.59. As with other bonds issued by independent school district No. 625, the first sentence of Minnesota Statutes, section 475.53, subdivision 5, does not apply to issuance of the bonds. The bonds must otherwise be issued as provided in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 475. The authority to issue bonds under this section is in addition to any bonding authority authorized by Minnesota Statutes, chapter 124, or other law. The amount of bonding authority authorized under this section must be disregarded in calculating the bonding or net debt limits of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 124, or any other law other than Minnesota Statutes, section 475.53, subdivision 4.

Subd. 2. [TAX LEVY FOR DEBT SERVICE.] To pay the principal of and interest on bonds issued under subdivision 1, independent school district No. 625 must levy a tax annually in an amount required under Minnesota Statutes, section 475.61, subdivisions 1 and 3. The notice must be mailed at least 15 days but not more than 30 days before the meeting. Notice of the meeting must also be posted in the administrative office of the school district and must be published twice during the 14 days before the meeting in the official newspaper of the city in which the school district is located.

The commissioner may reduce the excess that a district owes the state if a district's capital loan is outstanding and if the commissioner determines that any of the following conditions apply:

(1) a district is likely to incur a substantial property tax delinquency that will adversely affect the district's ability to make its scheduled bond payments;

(2) a district's agreement with its bondholders or its taxpayers could be impaired; or

(3) the district's tax capacity per pupil is less than one-tenth of the equalizing factor as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 124A.02, subdivision 8. The amount of the excess that may be forgiven may not exceed $200,000 in a single year for any district.

General education revenue for a pupil in an approved alternative program that has an independent study component must be paid for each hour of teacher contact time and each hour of independent study time completed toward a credit necessary for graduation. Average daily membership for a pupil shall equal the number of hours of teacher contact time and independent study time divided by ~~1,020 hours~~ the product of the number of instructional days required for that year and six, but not more than one, except as otherwise provided in section 121.585.

For an alternative program having an independent study component, the commissioner shall require a description of the courses in the program, the kinds of independent study involved, the expected learning outcomes of the courses, and the means of measuring student performance against the expected outcomes.

Any balance from the appropriations in this subdivision must be prorated among participating schools based on the number of fully paid lunches served during that school year to meet the state revenue matching requirement of the USDA National School Lunch Program.

If the appropriation amount attributable to either year is insufficient, the rate of payment for each fully paid student lunch must be reduced and the aid for that year must be prorated among participating schools so as not to exceed the total authorized appropriation for that year.

Those districts with a seven-member board may submit to the electors at any school election at least 150 days before the next election of three members of the board the question whether the board shall consist of six elected members. A school board may terminate a superintendent during the term of an employment contract for any of the grounds specified in section 125.12, subdivision 6 or 8. A superintendent shall not rely upon an employment contract with a school board to assert any other continuing contract rights in the position of superintendent under section 125.12. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 122.532, 122.541, 125.12, subdivision 6a or 6b, or any other law to the contrary, no individual shall have a right to employment as a superintendent based on ~~seniority or~~ order of employment in any district. Subd. 17. [SCHOOL HEALTH SERVICES.] (a) Every school board must provide services to promote the health of its pupils.

(c) Personnel hired or contracted for by a school board to perform delegated nursing functions must complete the curricula and meet the standards established under section 148.191, subdivision 2.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 123.3514, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [AUTHORIZATION; NOTIFICATION.] Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, an 11th or 12th grade pupil, except a foreign exchange student enrolled in a district under a cultural exchange program, may apply to an eligible institution, as defined in subdivision 3, to enroll in nonsectarian courses offered at that post-secondary institution. If an institution accepts a secondary pupil for enrollment under this section, the institution shall send written notice to the pupil, the pupil's school district, and the commissioner of education within ten days of acceptance. The notice shall indicate the course and hours of enrollment of that pupil. If the pupil enrolls in a course for post-secondary credit, the institution shall notify the pupil about payment in the customary manner used by the institution.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 123.38, subdivision 2b, is amended to read:

Subd. 2b. (a) The board may take charge of and control all extracurricular activities of the teachers and children of the public schools in the district. (b) Extracurricular activities have all of the following characteristics:

~~(a)~~ (1) they are not offered for school credit nor required for graduation;

~~(b)~~ (2) they are generally conducted outside school hours, or if partly during school hours, at times agreed by the participants, and approved by school authorities;

~~(c)~~ (3) the content of the activities is determined primarily by the pupil participants under the guidance of a staff member or other adult.

(c) If the board does not take charge of and control extracurricular activities, these activities shall be self-sustaining with all expenses, except direct salary costs and indirect costs of the use of school facilities, met by dues, admissions, or other student fundraising events. The general fund or the technical colleges fund, if applicable, shall reflect only those salaries directly related to and readily identified with the activity and paid by public funds. Other revenues and expenditures for extra curricular activities must be recorded according to the "Manual of Instruction for Uniform Student Activities Accounting for Minnesota School Districts and Area Vocational-Technical Colleges." Extracurricular activities not under board control must have an annual financial audit and must also be audited annually for compliance with this section.

(d) If the board takes charge of and controls extracurricular activities, any or all costs of these activities may be provided from school revenues. All revenues and expenditures for these activities under board control shall be recorded in the same manner as other revenues and expenditures of the district.

(e) If the board takes charge of and controls extracurricular activities, no such activity shall be participated in by the teachers or pupils in the district, nor shall the school name or any allied name be used in connection therewith, except by consent and direction of the board.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 125.12, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PROBATIONARY PERIOD.] The first three consecutive years of a teacher's first teaching experience in Minnesota in a single school district shall be deemed to be a probationary period of employment, and after completion thereof, the probationary period in each school district in which the teacher is thereafter employed shall be one year. The school site management team, or the school board if there is no school site management team, shall adopt a plan for written evaluation of teachers during the probationary period according to subdivision 3a. ~~Effective July 1, 1988,~~ Evaluation by the peer review committee charged with evaluating probationary teachers under subdivision 3a shall occur at least three times each year for a teacher performing services on 120 or more school days, at least two times each year for a teacher performing services on 60 to 119 school days, and at least one time each year for a teacher performing services on fewer than 60 school days. Days devoted to parent-teacher conferences, teachers' workshops, and other staff development opportunities and days on which a teacher is absent from school shall not be included in determining the number of school days on which a teacher performs services. During the probationary period any annual contract with any teacher may or may not be renewed as the school board, after consulting with the peer review committee charged with evaluating probationary teachers under subdivision 3a, shall see fit; provided, however, that the school board shall give any such teacher whose contract it declines to renew for the following school year written notice to that effect before June 1. If the teacher requests reasons for any nonrenewal of a teaching contract, the school board shall give the teacher its reason in writing, including a statement that appropriate supervision was furnished describing the nature and the extent of such supervision furnished the teacher during the employment by the board, within ten days after receiving such request. The school board may, after a hearing held upon due notice, discharge a teacher during the probationary period for cause, effective immediately, under section 123.35, subdivision 5.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 125.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [PEER REVIEW FOR PROBATIONARY TEACHERS.] A school must have a peer review committee charged with evaluating each probationary teacher at least three times each year for a period of three years as required under subdivision 3. The purpose of the evaluation procedure is to improve the probationary teacher's instructional effectiveness. The school site management team, or the school board if there is no school site management team, after consulting with a representative of the peer review committee and the school principal or other person having general control and supervision of the school, shall adopt a procedure for written evaluations of probationary teachers. The evaluation procedure must be structured as a continuing and cooperative process between the probationary teacher, the peer review committee, and the school principal or other person having general control and supervision of the school. The school site management team, or the school board if there is no school site management team, shall make available a written description of the evaluation procedure, including evaluation policies and criteria, to each newly hired teacher and to each probationary teacher. As part of the evaluation procedure, the school and the school district shall provide the necessary resources to assist a probationary teacher to improve those areas of instruction identified by the teacher, the peer review committee, or the principal or other person having general control and supervision of the school as in need of improvement. The school and the school district also shall provide to each probationary teacher opportunities for professional growth experiences, including in-service training.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 125.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4a. [PEER REVIEW FOR CONTINUING CONTRACT TEACHERS.] A school must have a peer review committee for continuing contract teachers to provide the teachers with the opportunity for positive interaction and professional growth to help students learn more effectively. The peer review committee must not judge teacher competency nor determine whether to suspend or terminate a teacher. Members of the peer review committee must be selected by the school site management team, or by the exclusive bargaining representative if there is no school site management team. The selecting body shall establish an equitable process for selecting members of the peer review committee and an orderly cycle for rotating members. Only teachers with continuing contracts shall serve as members of the peer review committee. The peer review committee shall review once each school year each teacher with a continuing contract performing services on 120 or more school days. The review process must allow experienced teachers to improve instructional effectiveness through professional learning and development opportunities that include exchanging and internalizing ideas about the components of competent teaching. An in-service training session must be held at the beginning of each school year to train members of the peer review committee to facilitate teachers' reflections about the assumptions, beliefs, and practices underlying teaching. The selecting body shall design the training sessions and give the members of the peer review committee the necessary time off from their classroom responsibilities to perform the duties listed in this subdivision.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 125.12, subdivision 6b, is amended to read:

Subd. 6b. [UNREQUESTED LEAVE OF ABSENCE.] The school board may place on unrequested leave of absence, without pay or fringe benefits, as many teachers as may be necessary because of discontinuance of position, lack of pupils, financial limitations, or merger of classes caused by consolidation of districts. The unrequested leave shall be effective at the close of the school year. In placing teachers on unrequested leave, the board shall be governed by the following provisions:

(a) The board may place probationary teachers on unrequested leave first in the inverse order of their employment. No teacher who has acquired continuing contract rights shall be placed on unrequested leave of absence while probationary teachers are retained in positions for which the teacher who has acquired continuing contract rights is licensed;

(b) Teachers who have acquired continuing contract rights shall be placed on unrequested leave of absence in fields in which they are licensed in the inverse order in which they were employed by the school district. In the case of equal seniority, the order in which teachers who have acquired continuing contract rights shall be placed on unrequested leave of absence in fields in which they are licensed shall be negotiable;

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of clause (b), no teacher shall be entitled to exercise any seniority when that exercise results in that teacher being retained by the district in a field for which the teacher holds only a provisional license, as defined by the board of teaching, unless that exercise of seniority results in the placement on unrequested leave of absence of another teacher who also holds a provisional license in the same field. The provisions of this clause shall not apply to vocational education licenses;

(d) Notwithstanding clauses (a), (b) and (c), if the placing of a probationary teacher on unrequested leave before a teacher who has acquired continuing rights, the placing of a teacher who has acquired continuing contract rights on unrequested leave before another teacher who has acquired continuing contract rights but who has greater seniority, or the restriction imposed by the provisions of clause (c) would place the district in violation of its affirmative action program, the district may retain the probationary teacher, the teacher with less seniority, or the provisionally licensed teacher;

(e) Teachers placed on unrequested leave of absence shall be reinstated to the positions from which they have been given leaves of absence or, if not available, to other available positions in the school district in fields in which they are licensed. Reinstatement shall be in the inverse order of placement on leave of absence. No teacher shall be reinstated to a position in a field in which the teacher holds only a provisional license, other than a vocational education license, while another teacher who holds a nonprovisional license in the same field remains on unrequested leave. The order of reinstatement of teachers who have equal seniority and who are placed on unrequested leave in the same school year shall be negotiable;

(f) No appointment of a new teacher shall be made while there is available, on unrequested leave, a teacher who is properly licensed to fill such vacancy, unless the teacher fails to advise the school board within 30 days of the date of notification that a position is available to that teacher who may return to employment and assume the duties of the position to which appointed on a future date determined by the board;

(g) A teacher placed on unrequested leave of absence may engage in teaching or any other occupation during the period of this leave;

(h) The unrequested leave of absence shall not impair the continuing contract rights of a teacher or result in a loss of credit for previous years of service;

(i) The unrequested leave of absence of a teacher who is placed on unrequested leave of absence prior to January 1, 1978 and who is not reinstated shall continue for a period of two years after which the right to reinstatement shall terminate. The unrequested leave of absence of a teacher who is placed on unrequested leave of absence on or after January 1, 1978 and who is not reinstated shall continue for a period of five years, after which the right to reinstatement shall terminate; provided the teacher's right to reinstatement shall also terminate if the teacher fails to file with the board by April 1 of any year a written statement requesting reinstatement;

(j) The same provisions applicable to terminations of probationary or continuing contracts in subdivisions 3 and 4 shall apply to placement on unrequested leave of absence;

(k) Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to impair the rights of teachers placed on unrequested leave of absence to receive unemployment compensation if otherwise eligible.;

(l) An individual employed by a school board as a superintendent must not be denied continuing contract rights acquired while employed as a teacher, and not as a superintendent, in a school district.

Sec. 14. [125.135] [STAFF EXCHANGE PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] A staff exchange program is established to allow local school districts to arrange temporary and voluntary exchanges among members of their kindergarten through grade 12 instructional and administrative staffs. The purpose of the program is to provide participants with an understanding of the educational concerns of other local school districts, including concerns of class organization, curriculum development, instructional practices, and characteristics of the student population.

The educational needs and interests of the host school district and the training, experience, and interests of the participants must determine the assignments of the participants in the host district. Participants may teach courses, provide counseling and tutorial services, work with teachers to better prepare students for future educational experiences, serve an underserved population in the district, or assist with administrative functions. The assignments participants perform for the host district must be comparable to the assignments the participants perform for the district employing the participants. Participation in the exchange program need not be limited to one school or one school district and may involve other education organizations including education districts and ECSUs.

Subd. 2. [PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS.] All staff exchanges made under this section are subject to the requirements in this subdivision.

(a) A school district employing a participating staff member must not adversely affect the staff member's salary, seniority, or other employment benefits, or otherwise penalize the staff member for participating in the program.

(b) Upon completion or termination of an exchange, a school district employing a participating staff member must permit the staff member to return to the same assignment the staff member performed in the district before the exchange, if available, or, if not, a similar assignment.

(c) A school district employing a participating staff member must continue to provide the staff member's salary and other employment benefits during the period of the exchange.

(d) A participant must be licensed and tenured.

(e) Participation in the program must be voluntary.

(f) The length of participation in the program must be no less than one-half of a school year and no more than one school year, and any premature termination of participation must be upon the mutual agreement of the participant and the participating school district.

(g) A participant is responsible for transportation to and from the host school district.

(h) This subdivision does not abrogate or change rights of staff members participating in the staff exchange program or the terms of an agreement between the exclusive representative of the school district employees and the school district.

(i) Participating school districts may enter into supplementary agreements with the exclusive representative of the school district employees to accomplish the purpose of this section.

Subd. 3. [APPLICATION PROCEDURES.] The school board of a school district must decide by resolution to participate in the staff exchange program. A staff member wishing to participate in the exchange program must submit an application to the school district employing the staff member. The district must, in a timely and appropriate manner, provide to the exclusive bargaining representatives of teachers in the state the number and names of prospective participants within the district, the assignments available within the district, and the length of time for each exchange. The exclusive bargaining representatives are requested to cooperatively participate in the coordination of exchanges to facilitate exchanges across all geographical regions of the state. Prospective participants must contact teachers and districts with whom they are interested in making an exchange. The prospective participants must make all arrangements to accomplish their exchange and the superintendents of the participating districts must approve the arrangements for the exchange in writing.

Sec. 15. [125.138] [FACULTY EXCHANGE PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] A program of faculty exchange is established to allow school districts and post-secondary institutions to arrange temporary exchanges between members of their instructional staffs. These arrangements must be made on a voluntary cooperative basis between a school district and post-secondary institution, or between post-secondary institutions. Exchanges between post-secondary institutions may occur among campuses in the same system or in different systems.

Subd. 2. [USES OF PROGRAM.] Each participating school district and post-secondary institution may determine the way in which the instructional staff member's time is to be used, but it must be in a way that promotes understanding of the needs of each educational system or institution. For example, a public school teacher may teach courses, provide counseling and tutorial services, assist with the preparation of future teachers, or take professional development courses. A post-secondary teacher might teach advanced placement courses or other classes to aid an underserved population at the school district, counsel students about future educational plans, or work with teachers to better prepare students for post-secondary education. Participation need not be limited to one school or institution and may involve other groups including educational cooperative service units.

Subd. 3. [SALARIES; BENEFITS; CERTIFICATION.] Exchanges made under the program must not have a negative effect on participants' salaries, seniority, or other benefits. Notwithstanding sections 123.35, subdivision 6, and 125.04, a member of the instructional staff of a post-secondary institution may teach in an elementary or secondary school or perform a service, agreed upon according to this section, for which a license would otherwise be required without holding the applicable license. In addition, a licensed teacher employed by a school district may teach or perform a service, agreed upon according to this section, at a post-secondary institution without meeting the applicable qualifications of the post-secondary institution. A school district is not subject to section 124.19, subdivision 3, as a result of entering into an agreement according to this section that enables a post-secondary instructional staff member to teach or provide services in the district. All arrangements and details regarding the exchange must be mutually agreed to by each participating school district and post-secondary institution before implementation.

Sec. 16. [125.1385] [EXCHANGES BETWEEN EDUCATION FACULTY.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY; LIMITS.] The state university board and the board of regents of the University of Minnesota may develop programs to exchange faculty between colleges or schools of education and school districts, subject to section 125.138.

The programs must be used to assist in improving teacher education by involving current teachers in education courses and placing post-secondary faculty in elementary and secondary classrooms. Programs must include exchanges that extend beyond the immediate service area of the institution to address the needs of different types of schools, students, and teachers.

Subd. 2. [COMPENSATION.] State money for faculty exchange programs is to compensate for expenses that are unavoidable and beyond the normal living expenses exchange participants would incur if they were not involved in this exchange. ARTICLE 13

BONDING: MAXIMUM EFFORT SCHOOL LOAN PROGRAM

Section 1. [124.479] [BOND ISSUE; MAXIMUM EFFORT SCHOOL LOANS, 1991.]

To provide money to be loaned to school districts as agencies and political subdivisions of the state to acquire and to better public land and buildings and other public improvements of a capital nature, in the manner provided by the maximum effort school aid law, the commissioner of finance shall issue and sell school loan bonds of the state of Minnesota in the maximum amount of $45,065,000, in addition to the bonds already authorized for this purpose. The same amount is appropriated to the maximum effort school loan fund and must be spent under the direction of the commissioner of education to make debt service loans and capital loans to school districts as provided in sections 124.36 to 124.47. The bonds must be issued and sold and provision for their payment must be made according to section 124.46. Expenses incidental to the sale, printing, execution, and delivery of the bonds, including, but without limitation, actual and necessary travel and subsistence expenses of state officers and employees for those purposes, must be paid from the maximum effort school loan fund, and the money necessary for the expenses is appropriated from that fund.

Sec. 2. [1991 MAXIMUM EFFORT LOANS.]

The commissioner of education shall make capital loans to independent school district No. 115, Cass Lake; independent school district No. 192, Farmington; independent school district No. 682, Roseau; independent school district No. 748, Sartell; independent school district No. 345, New London-Spicer; independent school district No. 533, Dover-Eyota; independent school district No. 95, Cromwell; and independent school district No. 255, Pine Island. Capital loans to these districts are approved.

Districts approved by the legislature for a maximum effort loan shall have their project plans and budgets reviewed by the commissioner to determine optimum cost efficiency. The commissioner may reduce the amount of the loans in accord with this review. Costs incurred by the commissioner for professional services associated with the review may be recovered from the districts.

Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, if the available funding is inadequate to meet the loan requests of all the approved districts, the commissioner may reduce the amount of the loan. Capital loans must be made to all approved districts.

Except for reductions in the loans made according to this section, the amount, terms, and forgiveness of the loans are governed by Minnesota Statutes, section 124.431, as amended by 1991 H.F. No. 73.

Sec. 3. [BONDING AUTHORITY.]

Notwithstanding the election requirements of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 475, or any other law to the contrary, any school district with a capital loan approved in section 2, may issue general obligation bonds without an election in an amount not to exceed the difference between the state board approved capital loan project cost and the sum of the amount of the capital loan actually granted and the voter approved local bonding authority. To pay the principal of and interest on bonds issued under this section, the school district shall levy a tax in an amount sufficient under Minnesota Statutes, section 475.61, subdivisions 1 and 3, to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds. Except as otherwise provided in this article, or article 5, or Minnesota Statutes, sections 124.36 to 124.477, the issuance and sale of the bonds is governed by Minnesota Statutes, chapter 475. The tax authorized under this section is in addition to any other taxes levied under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 124, 124A, or 275, or any other law.

Sec. 4. [APPROPRIATION; MAXIMUM EFFORT SCHOOL LOAN FUND.]

$3,795,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the department of education for fiscal year 1993 for the maximum effort school loan fund. This appropriation is added to the appropriation in article 5 for this purpose. Subd. 14. [AGREEMENT TO RESCIND POLICY.] (a) If the insurer has knowledge of any claims against the insured that would remain unsatisfied due to the financial condition of the insured, the insurer and the insured may not agree to rescind the policy.

(b) Before entering into an agreement to rescind a policy, an insurer must make a good faith effort to ascertain: (1) the existence and identity of all claims against the policy; and (2) the financial condition of the insured.

(c) An agreement made in violation of this section is void and unenforceable.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 72A.201, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [STANDARDS FOR AUTOMOBILE INSURANCE CLAIMS HANDLING, SETTLEMENT OFFERS, AND AGREEMENTS.] In addition to the acts specified in subdivisions 4, 5, 7, 8, and 9, the following acts by an insurer, adjuster, or a self-insured or self-insurance administrator constitute unfair settlement practices:

(1) if an automobile insurance policy provides for the adjustment and settlement of an automobile total loss on the basis of actual cash value or replacement with like kind and quality and the insured is not an automobile dealer, failing to offer one of the following methods of settlement:

(a) comparable and available replacement automobile, with all applicable taxes, license fees, at least pro rata for the unexpired term of the replaced automobile's license, and other fees incident to the transfer or evidence of ownership of the automobile paid, at no cost to the insured other than the deductible amount as provided in the policy;

(b) a cash settlement based upon the actual cost of purchase of a comparable automobile, including all applicable taxes, license fees, at least pro rata for the unexpired term of the replaced automobile's license, and other fees incident to transfer of evidence of ownership, less the deductible amount as provided in the policy. The costs must be determined by:

(i) the cost of a comparable automobile, adjusted for mileage, condition, and options, in the local market area of the insured, if such an automobile is available in that area; or

(ii) one of two or more quotations obtained from two or more qualified sources located within the local market area when a comparable automobile is not available in the local market area. The insured shall be provided the information contained in all quotations prior to settlement; or

(iii) any settlement or offer of settlement which deviates from the procedure above must be documented and justified in detail. The basis for the settlement or offer of settlement must be explained to the insured;

(2) if an automobile insurance policy provides for the adjustment and settlement of an automobile partial loss on the basis of repair or replacement with like kind and quality and the insured is not an automobile dealer, failing to offer one of the following methods of settlement:

(a) to assume all costs, including reasonable towing costs, for the satisfactory repair of the motor vehicle. Satisfactory repair includes repair of both obvious and hidden damage as caused by the claim incident. This assumption of cost may be reduced by applicable policy provision; or

(b) to offer a cash settlement sufficient to pay for satisfactory repair of the vehicle. Satisfactory repair includes repair of obvious and hidden damage caused by the claim incident, and includes reasonable towing costs;

(3) regardless of whether the loss was total or partial, in the event that a damaged vehicle of an insured cannot be safely driven, failing to exercise the right to inspect automobile damage prior to repair within five business days following receipt of notification of claim. In other cases the inspection must be made in 15 days;

(4) regardless of whether the loss was total or partial, requiring unreasonable travel of a claimant or insured to inspect a replacement automobile, to obtain a repair estimate, to allow an insurer to inspect a repair estimate, to allow an insurer to inspect repairs made pursuant to policy requirements, or to have the automobile repaired;

(5) regardless of whether the loss was total or partial, if loss of use coverage exists under the insurance policy, failing to notify an insured at the time of the insurer's acknowledgment of claim, or sooner if inquiry is made, of the fact of the coverage, including the policy terms and conditions affecting the coverage and the manner in which the insured can apply for this coverage;

(6) regardless of whether the loss was total or partial, failing to include the insured's deductible in the insurer's demands under its subrogation rights. Subrogation recovery must be shared at least on a proportionate basis with the insured, unless the deductible amount has been otherwise recovered by the insured, except that when an insurer is recovering directly from an uninsured third party by means of installments, the insured must receive the full deductible share as soon as that amount is collected and before any part of the total recovery is applied to any other use. No deduction for expenses may be made from the deductible recovery unless an attorney is retained to collect the recovery, in which case deduction may be made only for a pro rata share of the cost of retaining the attorney;

(7) requiring as a condition of payment of a claim that repairs to any damaged vehicle must be made by a particular contractor or repair shop or that parts, other than window glass, must be replaced with parts other than original equipment parts;

(8) where liability is reasonably clear, failing to inform the claimant in an automobile property damage liability claim that the claimant may have a claim for loss of use of the vehicle;

(9) failing to make a good faith assignment of comparative negligence percentages in ascertaining the issue of liability;

(10) failing to pay any interest required by statute on overdue payment for an automobile personal injury protection claim;

(11) if an automobile insurance policy contains either or both of the time limitation provisions as permitted by section 65B.55, subdivisions 1 and 2, failing to notify the insured in writing of those limitations at least 60 days prior to the expiration of that time limitation;

(12) if an insurer chooses to have an insured examined as permitted by section 65B.56, subdivision 1, failing to notify the insured of all of the insured's rights and obligations under that statute, including the right to request, in writing, and to receive a copy of the report of the examination;

(13) failing to provide, to an insured who has submitted a claim for benefits described in section 65B.44, a complete copy of the insurer's claim file on the insured, excluding internal company memoranda, all materials that relate to any insurance fraud investigation, materials that constitute attorney work-product or that qualify for the attorney-client privilege, and medical reviews that are subject to section 145.64, within ten business days of receiving a written request from the insured. Subd. 2. [PRIMARY RESPONSIBILITY.] The environmental quality board shall have the primary responsibility for preparing the energy and environmental strategy report of the state, as required by section 116D.10. The board shall assemble all preliminary reports prepared pursuant to subdivision 1 under a timetable established by the board and shall use the preliminary reports in the preparation of the draft energy and environmental strategy report of the state. Each department or agency designated by the governor to prepare a preliminary strategy report shall submit a copy of the preliminary strategy report to the governor and to the board at the same time.

Subd. 3. [REPORT TO GOVERNOR.] On or before October 1 of each odd-numbered year, the environmental quality board shall transmit to the governor a draft of the written report on the energy and environmental strategy of the state. The governor may change the report and may request additional information or data from any department or agency of the state responsible for issues listed in section 116D.10, clause (1). Any such requested additional information or data shall be prepared and submitted promptly to the governor.

Subd. 4. [STRATEGY AND FINAL REPORTS.] (a) Any department or agency of the state required to submit a biennial report to the legislature in an even-numbered year under section 15.063 may reference part or all of the discussion and information contained in a preliminary strategy report of that department or agency prepared in the prior odd-numbered year in fulfillment of providing any of the substantially equivalent material required to be in the biennial report to the legislature.

(b) It is the intent of the legislature that any preliminary strategy report by a department or agency, the draft energy and environmental strategy report of the state prepared by the environmental quality board, and the final report on the energy and environmental strategy of the state as transmitted by the governor should be written in as concise and easily understood a manner as possible while being sufficiently comprehensive to assist the legislature in allocating funds to support the policies, plans, and programs of the state related to energy and the environment. Subdivision 1. [POLICY PLAN; GENERAL REQUIREMENTS.] The metropolitan council shall prepare and by resolution adopt as part of its development guide a long range policy plan for solid waste management in the metropolitan area. When adopted, the plan shall be followed in the metropolitan area. The plan shall address the state policies and purposes expressed in section 115A.02. The plan shall substantially conform to all policy statements, purposes, goals, standards, maps and plans in development guide sections and plans adopted by the council, provided that no land shall be thereby excluded from consideration as a solid waste facility site except land determined by the agency to be intrinsically unsuitable for such use. The plan shall include goals and policies for solid waste management, including recycling consistent with section 115A.551, and household hazardous waste and other problem materials management consistent with ~~section~~ sections 115A.956, subdivision 3, and 115A.96, subdivision 6, in the metropolitan area and, to the extent appropriate, statements and information similar to that required under section 473.146, subdivision 1. The plan shall include criteria and standards for solid waste facilities and solid waste facility sites respecting the following matters: general location; capacity; operation; processing techniques; environmental impact; effect on existing, planned, or proposed collection services and waste facilities; and economic viability. The plan shall, to the extent practicable and consistent with the achievement of other public policies and purposes, encourage ownership and operation of solid waste facilities by private industry. For solid waste facilities owned or operated by public agencies or supported primarily by public funds or obligations issued by a public agency, the plan shall include additional criteria and standards to protect comparable private and public facilities already existing in the area from displacement unless the displacement is required in order to achieve the waste management objectives identified in the plan. In developing the plan the council shall consider the orderly and economic development, public and private, of the metropolitan area; the preservation and best and most economical use of land and water resources in the metropolitan area; the protection and enhancement of environmental quality; the conservation and reuse of resources and energy; the preservation and promotion of conditions conducive to efficient, competitive, and adaptable systems of waste management; and the orderly resolution of questions concerning changes in systems of waste management. Criteria and standards for solid waste facilities shall be consistent with rules adopted by the pollution control agency pursuant to chapter 116 and shall be at least as stringent as the guidelines, regulations, and standards of the federal environmental protection agency.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 473.803, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [COUNTY MASTER PLANS; GENERAL REQUIREMENTS.] Each metropolitan county, following adoption or revision of the council's solid waste policy plan and in accordance with the dates specified therein, and after consultation with all affected local government units, shall prepare and submit to the council for its approval, a county solid waste master plan to implement the policy plan. The master plan shall be revised and resubmitted at such times as the council's policy plan may require. The master plan shall describe county solid waste activities, functions, and facilities; the existing system of solid waste generation, collection, and processing, and disposal within the county; proposed mechanisms for complying with the recycling requirements of section 115A.551, and the household hazardous waste and other problem materials management requirements of ~~section~~ sections 115A.956, subdivision 3, and 115A.96, subdivision 6; existing and proposed county and municipal ordinances and license and permit requirements relating to solid waste facilities and solid waste generation, collection, and processing, and disposal; existing or proposed municipal, county, or private solid waste facilities and collection services within the county together with schedules of existing rates and charges to users and statements as to the extent to which such facilities and services will or may be used to implement the policy plan; and any solid waste facility which the county owns or plans to acquire, construct, or improve together with statements as to the planned method, estimated cost and time of acquisition, proposed procedures for operation and maintenance of each facility; an estimate of the annual cost of operation and maintenance of each facility; an estimate of the annual gross revenues which will be received from the operation of each facility; and a proposal for the use of each facility after it is no longer needed or usable as a waste facility. The master plan shall, to the extent practicable and consistent with the achievement of other public policies and purposes, encourage ownership and operation of solid waste facilities by private industry. For solid waste facilities owned or operated by public agencies or supported primarily by public funds or obligations issued by a public agency, the master plan shall contain criteria and standards to protect comparable private and public facilities already existing in the area from displacement unless the displacement is required in order to achieve the waste management objectives identified in the plan.

Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, a farm laborer shall not be considered as an independent contractor for the purposes of this chapter; provided that a commercial baler or commercial thresher shall be considered an independent contractor.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.041, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [ELECTION OF COVERAGE.] The persons, partnerships and corporations described in this subdivision may elect to provide the insurance coverage required by this chapter.

(a) An owner or owners of a business or farm may elect coverage for themselves.

(b) A partnership owning a business or farm may elect coverage for any partner.

(c) A family farm corporation as defined in section 500.24, subdivision 2, clause (c), may elect coverage for any executive officer.

(d) A closely held corporation which had less than 22,880 hours of payroll in the previous calendar year may elect coverage for any executive officer if that executive officer is also an owner of at least 25 percent of the stock of the corporation.

(e) A person, partnership, or corporation that receives the services of a voluntary uncompensated worker who is not required to be covered under this chapter may elect to provide coverage for that worker.

(f) A person, partnership, or corporation hiring an independent contractor, as defined by rules adopted by the commissioner, may elect to provide coverage for that independent contractor. A person, partnership, or corporation may charge the independent contractor a fee for providing the coverage only if the independent contractor (1) elects in writing to be covered, (2) is issued an endorsement setting forth the terms of the coverage, the name of the independent contractors, and the fee and how it is calculated.

The persons, partnerships, and corporations described in this subdivision may also elect coverage for an employee who is a spouse, parent, or child, regardless of age, of an owner, partner, or executive officer, who is eligible for coverage under this subdivision. Coverage may be elected for a spouse, parent, or child whether or not coverage is elected for the related owner, partner, or executive director and whether or not the person, partnership, or corporation employs any other person to perform a service for hire. Any person for whom coverage is elected pursuant to this subdivision shall be included within the meaning of the term employee for the purposes of this chapter.

Notice of election of coverage or of termination of election under this subdivision shall be provided in writing to the insurer. Coverage or termination of coverage is effective the day following receipt of notice by the insurer or at a subsequent date if so indicated in the notice. The insurance policy shall be endorsed to indicate the names of those persons for whom coverage has been elected or terminated under this subdivision. An election of coverage under this subdivision shall continue in effect as long as a policy or renewal policy of the same insurer is in effect.

Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to limit the responsibilities of owners, partnerships, or corporations to provide coverage for their employees, if any, as required under this chapter.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.183, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. When any employee sustains an injury arising out of and in the course of employment while in the employ of an employer, other than the state or its political subdivisions, not insured or self-insured as provided for in this chapter, the employee or the employee's dependents shall nevertheless receive benefits as provided for in this chapter from the special compensation fund, and the commissioner has a cause of action against the employer for reimbursement for all moneys paid out or to be paid out, and, in the discretion of the court, as punitive damages an additional amount not exceeding ~~50~~ 60 percent of all moneys paid out or to be paid out. As used in this subdivision, "employer" includes officers of corporations who have legal control, either individually or jointly with another or others, of the payment of wages. An action to recover the moneys shall be instituted unless the commissioner determines that no recovery is possible. All moneys recovered shall be deposited in the general fund. There shall be no payment from the special compensation fund if there is liability for the injury under the provisions of section 176.215, by an insurer or self-insurer.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.215, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [EXCLUSIVE REMEDY.] The liability of a general contractor, intermediate contractor, or subcontractor who pays compensation pursuant to subdivision 1, to an injured individual who is not an employee of the general contractor, intermediate contractor, or subcontractor is exclusive and in the place of any other liability to the individual, the individual's personal representative, surviving spouse, parent, any child, dependent, next of kin, or other person entitled to recover damages on account of the individual's injury or death.

Sec. 5. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective January 1, 1992. Sections 2 to 4 are effective the day following final enactment.

ARTICLE 2

COMPENSATION BENEFITS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.011, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DAILY WAGE.] "Daily wage" means the daily wage of the employee in the employment engaged in at the time of injury but does not include tips and gratuities paid directly to an employee by a customer of the employer and not accounted for by the employee to the employer. If the amount of the daily wage received or to be received by the employee in the employment engaged in at the time of injury was irregular or difficult to determine, or if the employment was part time, the daily wage shall be computed by dividing the total amount the employee actually earned in such employment in the last 26 weeks, by the total number of days in which the employee actually performed any of the duties of such employment, provided further, that in the case of the construction industry, mining industry, or other industry where the hours of work are affected by seasonal conditions, the weekly wage shall not be less than five times the daily wage. Where board or allowances other than tips and gratuities are made to an employee in addition to wages as a part of the wage contract they are deemed a part of earnings and computed at their value to the employee. In the case of persons performing services for municipal corporations in the case of emergency, then the normal working day shall be considered and computed as eight hours, and in cases where such services are performed gratis or without fixed compensation the daily wage of the person injured shall, for the purpose of calculating compensation payable under this chapter, be taken to be the usual going wage paid for similar services in municipalities where such services are performed by paid employees. If, at the time of injury, the employee was regularly employed by two or more employers, the employee's earnings in all such employments shall be included in the computation of daily wage. Holiday pay and vacation pay shall not be included in the calculation of daily wage.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.011, subdivision 18, is amended to read:

Subd. 18. [WEEKLY WAGE.] "Weekly wage" is arrived at by multiplying the daily wage by the number of days and fractional days normally worked in the business of the employer for the employment involved. If the employee normally works less than five days per week or works an irregular number of days per week, the number of days normally worked shall be computed by dividing the total number of days in which the employee actually performed any of the duties of employment in the last 26 weeks by the number of weeks in which the employee actually performed such duties, provided that the weekly wage for part time employment during a period of seasonal or temporary layoff shall be computed on the number of days and fractional days normally worked in the business of the employer for the employment involved. If, at the time of the injury, the employee was regularly employed by two or more employers, the employee's days of work for all such employments shall be included in the computation of weekly wage. Occasional overtime is not to be considered in computing the weekly wage, but if overtime is regular or frequent throughout the year it shall be taken into consideration. Holiday pay and vacation pay shall not be included in the calculation of weekly wage. The maximum weekly compensation payable to an employee, or to the employee's dependents in the event of death, shall not exceed ~~66 2/3~~ 80 percent of the ~~product of the daily wage times the number of days normally worked~~ employee's after-tax weekly wage, provided that the compensation payable for permanent partial disability under section 176.101, subdivision 3, and for permanent total disability under section 176.101, subdivision 4, or death under section 176.111, shall not be computed on less than the number of hours normally worked in the employment or industry in which the injury was sustained, subject also to such maximums as are specifically otherwise provided.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.011, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 18a. [AFTER-TAX WEEKLY WAGE.] "After-tax weekly wage" means the weekly wage reduced by the amounts required to be withheld by the Federal Insurance Contributions Act, United States Code, title 16, sections 3101 to 3126, but without regard to the yearly maximum, and by state and federal income tax laws using as the number of allowances the number of exemptions that the employee is entitled to under federal law for the employee and the employee's dependents and without additional allowances. The after-tax weekly wage must be determined as of the date of injury, and changes in dependents after that date may not be considered.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.021, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMPENSATION, COMMENCEMENT OF PAYMENT.] All employers shall commence payment of compensation at the time and in the manner prescribed by this chapter without the necessity of any agreement or any order of the division. Except for medical, burial, and other nonperiodic benefits, payments shall be made as nearly as possible at the intervals when the wage was payable, provided, however, that payments for permanent partial disability shall be governed by section 176.101, subdivision 3. If doubt exists as to the eventual permanent partial disability, payment ~~for the economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation, whichever is due, pursuant to section 176.101,~~ shall be ~~then~~ made when due for the minimum permanent partial disability ascertainable, and further payment shall be made upon any later ascertainment of greater permanent partial disability. Prior to or at the time of commencement of the payment of ~~economic recovery compensation or lump sum or periodic payment of impairment~~ permanent partial disability compensation, the employee and employer shall be furnished with a copy of the medical report upon which the payment is based and all other medical reports which the insurer has that indicate a permanent partial disability rating, together with a statement by the insurer as to whether the tendered payment is for minimum permanent partial disability or final and eventual disability. After receipt of all reports available to the insurer that indicate a permanent partial disability rating, the employee shall make available or permit the insurer to obtain any medical report that the employee has or has knowledge of that contains a permanent partial disability rating which the insurer does not already have. ~~Economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation pursuant to section 176.101 is payable in addition to but not concurrently with compensation for temporary total disability but is payable pursuant to section 176.101. Impairment compensation is payable concurrently and in addition to compensation for permanent total disability pursuant to section 176.101. Economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation pursuant to section 176.101 shall be withheld pending completion of payment for temporary total disability, and no credit shall be taken for payment of economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation against liability for temporary total or future permanent total disability. Liability on the part of an~~ ~~employer or the insurer for disability of a temporary total, temporary partial, and permanent total nature shall be considered as a continuing product and part of the employee's inability to earn or reduction in earning capacity due to injury or occupational disease and compensation is payable accordingly, subject to section 176.101. Economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation is payable for functional loss of use or impairment of function, permanent in nature, and payment therefore shall be separate, distinct, and in addition to payment for any other compensation, subject to section 176.101.~~ The right to receive temporary total, temporary partial, or permanent total disability payments vests in the injured employee or the employee's dependents under this chapter or, if none, in the employee's legal heirs at the time the disability can be ascertained and the right is not abrogated by the employee's death prior to the making of the payment.

The right to receive ~~economic recovery compensation or impairment~~ permanent partial compensation vests in an injured employee or in the employee's dependents under this chapter or, if none, in the employee's legal heirs at the time the disability can be ascertained, provided that the employee lives for at least 30 days beyond the date of the injury. ~~Upon the death of an employee who is receiving economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation, further compensation is payable pursuant to section 176.101. Impairment compensation is payable under this paragraph if vesting has occurred, the employee dies prior to reaching maximum medical improvement, and the requirements and conditions under section 176.101, subdivision 3e, are not met.~~

~~Disability ratings for permanent partial disability shall be based on objective medical evidence.~~ The right is not abrogated by the employee's death prior to the making of the payment.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.061, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [INDEMNITY.] Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 65B or any other law to the contrary, an employer has a right of indemnity for any compensation paid or payable pursuant to this chapter, including temporary total compensation, temporary partial compensation, permanent partial disability, ~~economic recovery compensation, impairment compensation,~~ medical compensation, rehabilitation, death, and permanent total compensation.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.101, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TEMPORARY TOTAL DISABILITY.] (a) For an injury producing temporary total disability, the compensation is ~~66 2/3~~ 80 percent of the after-tax weekly wage at the time of injury.

~~(1) provided that~~ (b) During the year commencing on October 1, ~~1979~~ 1991, and each year thereafter, commencing on October 1, the maximum weekly compensation payable is 105 percent of the statewide average weekly wage for the period ending December 31, of the preceding year.

~~(2)~~ (c) The minimum weekly compensation ~~benefits for temporary total disability shall be not less than 50~~ payable is 20 percent of the statewide average weekly wage or the injured employee's ~~actual~~ after-tax weekly wage, whichever is less. ~~In no case shall a weekly benefit be less than 20 percent of the statewide average weekly wage.~~

~~Subject to subdivisions 3a to 3u this~~ (d) Temporary total compensation shall be paid during the period of disability, ~~payment to be made at the intervals when the wage was payable, as nearly as may be.~~ and shall cease whenever any one of the following occurs:

(1) the disability ends;

(2) the employee returns to work;

(3) the employee retires by withdrawing from the labor market;

(4) the employee fails to diligently search for appropriate work;

(5) the employee refuses an offer of work that is consistent with a plan of rehabilitation filed with the commissioner which meets the requirements of section 176.102, subdivision 1, or, if no plan has been filed, the employee refuses an offer of work that the employee can do in the employee's physical condition; or

(6) 90 days pass after the employee has reached maximum medical improvement, except as provided in section 176.102, subdivision 11, paragraph (b).

(e) For purposes of this subdivision, the 90-day period after maximum medical improvement commences on the earlier of:

(1) the date that the employee receives a written medical report indicating that the employee has reached maximum medical improvement; or

(2) the date that the employer or insurer serves the report on the employee and the employee's attorney, if any, and files a copy with the division.

(f) Once temporary total disability compensation has ceased under paragraph (d), clause (1), (2), (3), or (4), it may be recommenced prior to 90 days after maximum medical improvement only as follows:

(1) if temporary total disability compensation ceased under paragraph (d), clause (1), it may be recommenced if the employee again becomes disabled as a result of the work-related injury;

(2) if temporary total disability compensation ceased under paragraph (d), clause (2), it may be recommenced if the employee is laid off or terminated for reasons other than misconduct or is medically unable to continue at the job;

(3) if temporary total disability compensation ceased under paragraph (d), clause (3), but the employee subsequently returned to work, it may be recommenced in accordance with paragraph (f), clause (2); or

(4) if temporary total disability compensation ceased under paragraph (d), clause (4), it may be recommenced if the employee begins diligently searching for appropriate work. Temporary total disability compensation recommenced under this paragraph is subject to cessation under paragraph (d).

Recommenced temporary total disability compensation may not be paid beyond 90 days after the employee reaches maximum medical improvement, except as provided under section 176.102, subdivision 11, paragraph (b).

(g) Once temporary total disability compensation has ceased under paragraph (d), clauses (5) and (6), it may not be recommenced at a later date except as provided under section 176.102, subdivision 11, paragraph (b).

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.101, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [TEMPORARY PARTIAL DISABILITY.] (a) In all cases of temporary partial disability the compensation shall be ~~66 2/3 percent of the difference between the weekly wage of the employee at the time of injury and the wage the employee is able to earn in the employee's partially disabled condition.~~ 80 percent of the difference between the after-tax weekly wage of the employee at the time of injury and the after-tax weekly wage the employee is able to earn in the employee's partially disabled condition.

(b) ~~This~~ Temporary partial compensation shall be paid during the period of disability ~~except as provided in this section, payment to be made at the intervals when the wage was payable, as nearly as may be, and subject to a maximum compensation equal to the statewide average weekly wage.~~ when the employee is working, earning less than the employee's weekly wage at the time of the injury, and the reduction in the wage the employee is able to earn in the employee's partially disabled condition is due to the injury. Except as provided in section 176.102, subdivision 11, paragraph (b), temporary partial compensation may not be paid after the employee has returned to work for 156 weeks, including weeks in which the employee has no wage loss, or after 350 weeks after the date of injury, whichever occurs first.

(c) Temporary partial compensation may not exceed the maximum rate for temporary total compensation and must be reduced to the extent that the wage the employee is able to earn in the employee's partially disabled condition plus the temporary partial disability payment otherwise payable under this subdivision exceeds 300 percent of the statewide average weekly wage.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [PERMANENT PARTIAL DISABILITY.] (a) Compensation for permanent partial disability is as provided in this subdivision. Permanent partial disability must be rated as a percentage of the whole body in accordance with rules adopted by the commissioner under section 176.105. The percentage determined pursuant to the rules must be multiplied by the corresponding amount in the following table:

Percent of Disability	Amount
0-25	$ 75,000
26-30	80,000
31-35	85,000
36-40	90,000
41-45	95,000
46-50	100,000
51-55	120,000
56-60	140,000
61-65	160,000
66-70	180,000
71-75	200,000
76-80	240,000
81-85	280,000
86-90	320,000
91-95	360,000
96-100	400,000

An employee may not receive compensation for more than a 100 percent disability of the whole body, even if the employee sustains disability to two or more body parts.

(b) Permanent partial disability is payable upon cessation of temporary total disability under subdivision 1. If the employee is not working, the compensation is payable in installments at the same intervals and in the same amount as the initial temporary total disability rate. If the employee returns to work, the remaining compensation is payable in a lump sum 30 days after the employee returned to work, provided the employment has not been substantially interrupted by the injury for any part of the 30 days and the employee is still employed at the job at the end of the period. Permanent partial disability is not payable while temporary total compensation is being paid. Permanent partial disability is payable to permanently totally disabled employees in a lump sum at the time the disability can be ascertained.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.101, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PERMANENT TOTAL DISABILITY.] For permanent total disability, as defined in subdivision 5, the compensation shall be ~~66 2/3~~ 80 percent of the ~~daily~~ after-tax weekly wage at the time of the injury, subject to ~~a maximum weekly compensation equal to~~ the maximum ~~weekly compensation for a temporary total disability~~ and ~~a~~ minimum ~~weekly compensation equal to the minimum weekly compensation~~ rates for a temporary total disability. This compensation shall be paid during the permanent total disability of the injured employee but after a total of $25,000 of weekly compensation has been paid, the amount of the weekly compensation benefits being paid by the employer shall be reduced by the amount of any disability benefits being paid by any government disability benefit program if the disability benefits are occasioned by the same injury or injuries which give rise to payments under this subdivision. This reduction shall also apply to any old age and survivor insurance benefits. Permanent total disability payments shall cease at retirement. Payments shall be made at the intervals when the wage was payable, as nearly as may be. In case an employee who is permanently and totally disabled becomes an inmate of a public institution, no compensation shall be payable during the period of confinement in the institution, unless there is wholly dependent on the employee for support some person named in section 176.111, subdivision 1, 2 or 3, in which case the compensation provided for in section 176.111, during the period of confinement, shall be paid for the benefit of the dependent person during dependency. The dependency of this person shall be determined as though the employee were deceased.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.101, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [~~TOTAL DISABILITY~~ DEFINITION.] (a) For purposes of subdivision 4, permanent total disability means only:

(1) the total and permanent loss of the sight of both eyes, the loss of both arms at the shoulder, the loss of both legs so close to the hips that no effective artificial members can be used, complete and permanent paralysis, total and permanent loss of mental faculties~~,~~; or

(2) any other injury which totally and permanently incapacitates the employee from working at an occupation which brings the employee an income ~~constitutes total disability~~.

(b) For purposes of paragraph (a), clause (2), "totally and permanently incapacitated" means that the employee's physical disability, in combination with the employee's age, education and training, and experience, causes the employee to be unable to secure anything more than sporadic employment resulting in an insubstantial income. Local labor market conditions may not be considered in making the total and permanent incapacitation determination.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.101, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [MINORS.] If any employee entitled to the benefits of this chapter is a minor or is an apprentice of any age and sustains a personal injury arising out of and in the course of employment resulting in permanent total ~~or a compensable permanent partial~~ disability, for the purpose of computing the compensation to which the employee is entitled for the injury, the compensation rate for ~~temporary total, temporary partial,~~ a permanent total disability ~~or economic recovery compensation~~ shall be 105 percent of the statewide average weekly wage.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [MOVING EXPENSES.] An injured employee who has reached maximum medical improvement and who is unable to find suitable gainful employment consistent with the individual's physical disability, in combination with the individual's age, education and training, and experience, due to local labor market conditions is eligible to receive up to $5,000 for moving expenses, provided:

(1) 90 days have passed after the individual has reached maximum medical improvement;

(2) the individual has actually moved in order to take a new job which constitutes suitable gainful employment; and

(3) the new job is located at a distance greater than 35 miles from the individual's current residence.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.102, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [RETRAINING; COMPENSATION.] (a) Retraining is limited to 156 weeks. An employee who has been approved for retraining may petition ~~the commissioner~~ for additional compensation not to exceed 25 percent of the compensation otherwise payable. If the commissioner or compensation judge determines that this additional compensation is warranted due to unusual or unique circumstances of the employee's retraining plan, the commissioner or compensation judge may award additional compensation in an amount ~~the commissioner determines is appropriate,~~ not to exceed the employee's request. This additional compensation shall cease at any time the commissioner or compensation judge determines the special circumstances are no longer present.

(b) If the employee is not working during a retraining plan that has been specifically approved under this section, temporary total compensation is payable for up to 90 days after the end of the retraining plan; except that, payment during the 90-day period is subject to cessation in accordance with section 176.101, subdivision 1, paragraph (d), clauses (1) to (5). If the employee is working during the retraining plan but earning less than at the time of injury, temporary partial compensation is payable at the rate of 80 percent of the difference between the employee's after-tax weekly wage at the time of injury and the after-tax weekly wage the employee is able to earn in the employee's partially disabled condition, subject to the maximum rate for temporary total compensation. Temporary partial compensation is not subject to either the 156-week or the 350-week limitation provided by section 176.101, subdivision 2, during the retraining plan, but is subject to those limitations before and after the plan.

(c) Retraining may not be approved if the employee has refused suitable gainful employment, as defined by rule.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.105, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SCHEDULE; RULES.] (a) The commissioner of labor and industry shall by rule establish a schedule of degrees of disability resulting from different kinds of injuries. Disability ratings under the schedule for permanent partial disability must be based on objective medical evidence. The commissioner, in consultation with the medical services review board, shall periodically review the rules adopted under this paragraph to determine whether any injuries omitted from the schedule should be compensable and amend the rules accordingly.

(b) No permanent partial disability compensation shall be payable except in accordance with the disability ratings established under this subdivision. The schedule may provide that minor impairments receive a zero rating.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.105, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [LEGISLATIVE INTENT; RULES; LOSS OF MORE THAN ONE BODY PART.] (a) For the purpose of establishing a disability schedule pursuant to clause (b), the legislature declares its intent that the commissioner establish a disability schedule ~~which, assuming the same number and distribution of severity of injuries, the aggregate total of impairment compensation and economic recovery compensation benefits under section 176.101, subdivisions 3a to 3u be approximately equal to the total aggregate amount payable for permanent partial disabilities under section 176.101, subdivision 3, provided, however, that awards for specific injuries under the proposed schedule need not be the same as they were for the same injuries under the schedule pursuant to section 176.101, subdivision 3. The schedule shall be determined by sound actuarial evaluation and shall be based on the benefit level which exists on January 1, 1983~~.

(b) The commissioner shall by rulemaking adopt procedures setting forth rules for the evaluation and rating of functional disability and the schedule for permanent partial disability and to determine the percentage of loss of function of a part of the body based on the body as a whole, including internal organs, described in section 176.101, subdivision 3, and any other body part not listed in section 176.101, subdivision 3, which the commissioner deems appropriate.

The rules shall promote objectivity and consistency in the evaluation of permanent functional impairment due to personal injury and in the assignment of a numerical rating to the functional impairment.

Prior to adoption of rules the commissioner shall conduct an analysis of the current permanent partial disability schedule for the purpose of determining the number and distribution of permanent partial disabilities and the average compensation for various permanent partial disabilities. The commissioner shall consider setting the compensation under the proposed schedule for the most serious conditions higher in comparison to the current schedule and shall consider decreasing awards for minor conditions in comparison to the current schedule.

The commissioner may consider, among other factors, and shall not be limited to the following factors in developing rules for the evaluation and rating of functional disability and the schedule for permanent partial disability benefits:

(1) the workability and simplicity of the procedures with respect to the evaluation of functional disability;

(2) the consistency of the procedures with accepted medical standards;

(3) rules, guidelines, and schedules that exist in other states that are related to the evaluation of permanent partial disability or to a schedule of benefits for functional disability provided that the commissioner is not bound by the degree of disability in these sources but shall adjust the relative degree of disability to conform to the expressed intent of clause (a);

(4) rules, guidelines, and schedules that have been developed by associations of health care providers or organizations provided that the commissioner is not bound by the degree of disability in these sources but shall adjust the relative degree of disability to conform to the expressed intent of clause (a);

(5) the effect the rules may have on reducing litigation;

(6) the treatment of preexisting disabilities with respect to the evaluation of permanent functional disability provided that any preexisting disabilities must be objectively determined by medical evidence; and

(7) symptomatology and loss of function and use of the injured member.

The factors in paragraphs (1) to (7) shall not be used in any individual or specific workers' compensation claim under this chapter but shall be used only in the adoption of rules pursuant to this section.

Nothing listed in paragraphs (1) to (7) shall be used to dispute or challenge a disability rating given to a part of the body so long as the whole schedule conforms with the expressed intent of clause (a).

(c) If an employee suffers a permanent functional disability of more than one body part due to a personal injury incurred in a single occurrence, the percent of the whole body which is permanently partially disabled shall be determined by the following formula so as to ensure that the percentage for all functional disability combined does not exceed the total for the whole body:

where: A is the greater percentage whole body loss of the first body part; and B is the lesser percentage whole body loss otherwise payable for the second body part. $A + B (1 - A)$ is equivalent to $A + B - AB$.

For permanent partial disabilities to three body parts due to a single occurrence or as the result of an occupational disease, the above formula shall be applied, providing that A equals the result obtained from application of the formula to the first two body parts and B equals the percentage for the third body part. For permanent partial disability to four or more body parts incurred as described above, A equals the result obtained from the prior application of the formula, and B equals the percentage for the fourth body part or more in arithmetic progressions.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.111, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [SPOUSE, NO DEPENDENT CHILD.] If the deceased employee leaves a dependent surviving spouse and no dependent child, there shall be paid to the spouse weekly workers' compensation benefits at ~~50~~ 80 percent of the after-tax weekly wage at the time of the injury for a period of ten years, including adjustments as provided in section 176.645.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.111, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [SPOUSE, ONE DEPENDENT CHILD.] If the deceased employee leaves a surviving spouse and one dependent child, there shall be paid to the surviving spouse for the benefit of the spouse and child ~~60~~ 80 percent of the ~~daily~~ after-tax weekly wage at the time of the injury of the deceased until the child is no longer a dependent as defined in subdivision 1. At that time there shall be paid to the dependent surviving spouse weekly benefits at ~~a~~ the same rate ~~which is 16 2/3 percent less than the last weekly workers' compensation benefit payment, as defined in subdivision 8a, while the surviving child was a dependent,~~ for a period of ten years, including adjustments as provided in section 176.645.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.111, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBLE RECIPIENTS.] (a) An employee who has suffered personal injury prior to October 1, 1983 for which benefits are payable under section 176.101 and who has been totally disabled for more than 104 weeks shall be eligible for supplementary benefits as prescribed in this section after 104 weeks have elapsed and for the remainder of the total disablement. Regardless of the number of weeks of total disability, no totally disabled person is ineligible for supplementary benefits after four years have elapsed since the first date of the total disability, ~~except as provided by clause (b),~~ provided that all periods of disability are caused by the same injury.

(b) An employee who has suffered personal injury after October 1, 1983, and before October 1, 1987, is eligible to receive supplementary benefits after the employee has been receiving temporary total or permanent total benefits for 208 weeks. Regardless of the number of weeks of total disability, no person who is receiving temporary total compensation shall be ineligible for supplementary benefits after four years have elapsed since the first date of the total disability, provided that all periods of disability are caused by the same injury.

(c) An employee who has suffered a personal injury after October 1, 1987, and is permanently totally disabled as defined in section 176.101, subdivisions 4 and 5, is eligible to receive supplementary benefits after the employee has been receiving temporary total or permanent total benefits for 208 weeks. Regardless of the number of weeks of total disability, no person who is receiving permanent total compensation shall be ineligible for supplementary benefits after four years have elapsed since the first date of the total disability, provided that all periods of disability are caused by the same injury.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.132, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [AMOUNT.] (a) The supplementary benefit payable under ~~this section~~ subdivision 1, paragraphs (a) and (b), shall be the difference between the amount the employee receives on or after January 1, 1976, under section 176.101, subdivision 1 or 4, and 65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed annually. The supplementary benefit payable under subdivision 1, paragraph (c), shall be the difference between:

(1) the amount the employee receives on or after October 1, 1991, under section 176.101, subdivision 4; plus the amount of disability benefits being paid under any government disability benefit program, provided those benefits are a result of the same injury or injuries giving rise to payments under section 176.101, subdivision 4; plus the amount of any federal old age and survivors insurance benefits; and

(2) 50 percent of the statewide average weekly wage, as computed annually.

(b) In the event an eligible recipient is currently receiving no compensation or is receiving a reduced level of compensation because of a credit being applied as the result of a third party liability or damages, the employer or insurer shall compute the offset credit as if the individual were entitled to the actual benefit or ~~65~~ 50 percent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed annually, whichever is greater. If this results in the use of a higher credit than otherwise would have been applied and the employer or insurer becomes liable for compensation benefits which would otherwise not have been paid, the additional benefits resulting shall be handled according to this section.

(c) In the event an eligible recipient is receiving no compensation or is receiving a reduced level of compensation because of a valid agreement in settlement of a claim, no supplementary benefit shall be payable under this section. Attorney's fees shall be allowed in settlements of claims for supplementary benefits in accordance with this chapter.

(d) In the event an eligible recipient under subdivision 1, paragraph (a) or (b), is receiving no compensation or is receiving a reduced level of compensation because of prior limitations in the maximum amount payable for permanent total disability or because of reductions resulting from the simultaneous receipt of old age or disability benefits, the supplementary benefit shall be payable for the difference between the actual amount of compensation currently being paid and 65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed annually.

(e) In the event that an eligible recipient is receiving simultaneous benefits from any government disability program, the amount of supplementary benefits payable under this section shall be reduced by five percent. If the individual does not receive the maximum benefits for which the individual is eligible under other governmental disability programs due to the provisions of United States Code, title 42, section 424a(d), this reduction shall not apply.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision in this subdivision to the contrary, if the ~~individual~~ eligible recipient does not receive the maximum benefits for which the individual is eligible under other governmental disability programs due to the provision of United States Code, title 42, section 424a(d), the calculation of supplementary benefits payable to the individual shall be as provided under this section in Minnesota Statutes ~~1988~~ 1990.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.132, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PAYMENT.] The payment of supplementary benefits shall be the responsibility of the employer or insurer currently paying total disability benefits under subdivision 1, paragraph (a) or (b), or currently paying permanent total disability benefits under subdivision 1, paragraph (c), or any other payer of such benefits.

When the eligible individual is not currently receiving benefits because the total paid has reached the maximum prescribed by law the employer and insurer shall, nevertheless, pay the supplementary benefits that are prescribed by law. The employer or insurer paying the supplementary benefit shall have the right of full reimbursement from the special compensation fund for the amount of such benefits paid.

Sec. 30. [176.178] [FRAUD.]

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.179, is amended to read:

When the payments have been made to a person who is entitled to receive further payments of compensation for the same injury, the mistaken compensation may be taken as a full credit against future lump sum benefit entitlement and as a partial credit against future weekly benefits. The credit applied against further payments of temporary total disability, temporary partial disability, permanent total disability, retraining benefits, death benefits, or weekly payments of ~~economic recovery or impairment~~ permanent partial compensation shall not exceed 20 percent of the amount that would otherwise be payable.

Where the commissioner or compensation judge determines that the mistaken compensation was not received in good faith, the commissioner or compensation judge may order reimbursement of the compensation or order a credit for the compensation against any future monetary benefits from the same injury. The credit may be up to 100 percent of the amount of monetary benefits otherwise payable. For purposes of this section, a payment is not received in good faith if it is obtained through fraud, or if the employee knew or should have known that the compensation was paid under mistake of fact or law, and the employee has not refunded the mistaken compensation.

A credit may not be applied against medical expenses due or payable.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes, section 176.221, subdivision 6a, is amended to read:

On October 1, 1981, and thereafter on the anniversary of the date of the employee's injury the total benefits due shall be adjusted by multiplying the total benefits due prior to each adjustment by a fraction, the denominator of which is the statewide average weekly wage for December 31, of the year two years previous to the adjustment and the numerator of which is the statewide average weekly wage for December 31, of the year previous to the adjustment. For injuries occurring after October 1, 1975, all adjustments provided for in this section shall be included in computing any benefit due under this section. Any limitations of amounts due for daily or weekly compensation under this chapter shall not apply to adjustments made under this section. The employee shall be eligible for supplementary benefits notwithstanding the provisions of section 176.132, after four years have elapsed since the date of last significant exposure to the hazard of the occupational disease if that employee's weekly compensation rate is less than the current supplementary benefit rate.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 268.08, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [NOT ELIGIBLE.] An individual shall not be eligible to receive benefits for any week with respect to which the individual is receiving, has received, or has filed a claim for remuneration in an amount equal to or in excess of the individual's weekly benefit amount in the form of:

(1) termination, severance, or dismissal payment or wages in lieu of notice whether legally required or not; provided that if a termination, severance, or dismissal payment is made in a lump sum, the employer may allocate such lump sum payment over a period equal to the lump sum divided by the employee's regular pay while employed by such employer; provided any such payment shall be applied for a period immediately following the last day of work but not to exceed 28 calendar days; or

~~(d)~~ (h) The commissioner or compensation judge may waive rehabilitation services under this section if the commissioner or compensation judge is satisfied that the employee will return to work in the near future or that rehabilitation services will not be useful in returning an employee to work.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.102, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PLAN, ELIGIBILITY FOR REHABILITATION, APPROVAL AND APPEAL.] The commissioner or a compensation judge shall determine eligibility for rehabilitation services and shall review, approve, modify, or reject rehabilitation plans developed under subdivision 4. (d) Reasonable costs of travel and custodial day care during the job interview process;

(e) Reasonable cost for moving expenses of the employee and family if a job is found in a geographic area beyond reasonable commuting distance after a diligent search within the present community. Relocation shall not be paid more than once during any rehabilitation program, and relocation shall not be required if the new job is located within the same standard metropolitan statistical area as the employee's job at the time of injury. An employee shall not be required to relocate and a refusal to relocate shall not result in a suspension or termination of compensation under this chapter; and

(f) Any other expense agreed to be paid.

(b) The employer shall furnish reasonably required chiropractic treatment for a maximum of 30 days from the date the employee first seeks the treatment, or 15 chiropractic treatment visits, whichever occurs first. The employer shall furnish reasonably required physical therapy treatment for a maximum of 30 days from the date the employee first seeks the treatment. Chiropractic or physical therapy treatment is compensable thereafter only with the consent of the employer or insurer, or after a specific determination by the commissioner or a compensation judge, pursuant to para-

(c) The employer shall pay for the reasonable value of nursing services provided by a member of the employee's family in cases of permanent total disability.

(d) Exposure to rabies is an injury and an employer shall furnish preventative treatment to employees exposed to rabies.

(e) The employer shall furnish replacement or repair for artificial members, glasses, or spectacles, artificial eyes, podiatric orthotics, dental bridge work, dentures or artificial teeth, hearing aids, canes, crutches, or wheel chairs damaged by reason of an injury arising out of and in the course of the employment. Except in cases of emergency surgery, the employer or insurer may require the employee to obtain a second opinion on the necessity of the surgery, at the expense of the employer, before the employee undergoes surgery. Failure to obtain a second surgical opinion, if required by the employer or insurer, shall not be reason for nonpayment of the charges for the surgery. ~~The employer is required to pay the reasonable value of the surgery~~, unless the commissioner or compensation judge determines that the surgery is not reasonably required.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.135, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [OCCUPATIONAL DISEASE MEDICAL ELIGIBILITY.] Notwithstanding section 176.66, an employee who has contracted an occupational disease is eligible to receive compensation under this section even if the employee is not disabled from earning full wages at the work at which the employee was last employed.

Reimbursement for medical benefits paid under this subdivision or subdivision 1a is allowed from the employer and insurer liable under section 176.66, subdivision 10, only in the case of disablement.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.135, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] Any health care provider, health care providers, or business entities providing health care services may make written application to the commissioner to become certified to provide managed care to injured workers for injuries and diseases compensable under this chapter. Each application for certification shall be accompanied by a reasonable fee prescribed by the commissioner. Application for certification shall be made in the form and manner and shall set forth information regarding the proposed plan for providing services as the commissioner may prescribe. The information shall include, but not be limited to:

(c) a description of the places and manner of providing other related optional services the applicants wish to provide; and

(d) satisfactory evidence of ability to comply with any financial requirements to ensure delivery of service in accordance with the plan which the commissioner may prescribe.

Subd. 2. [CERTIFICATION.] The commissioner shall certify a health care provider, health care providers, or business entities providing health care services to provide managed care under a plan if the commissioner finds that the plan:

(e) provides a timely and accurate method of reporting to the commissioner necessary information regarding medical and health care service cost and utilization to enable the commissioner to determine the effectiveness of the plan;

(f) authorizes workers to receive compensable medical treatment from a health care provider who is not a member of the managed care organization, but who maintains the worker's medical records and with whom the worker has a documented history of treatment, if that health care provider agrees to refer the worker to the managed care organization for any specialized treatment, including physical therapy, to be furnished by another provider that the worker may require and if that health care provider agrees to comply with all the rules, terms, and conditions regarding services performed by the managed care organization. Nothing in this paragraph is intended to limit the worker's right to change health care providers prior to the filing of a workers' compensation claim; and

Subd. 3. [REVOCATION, SUSPENSION, AND REFUSAL TO CERTIFY.] The commissioner shall refuse to certify or shall revoke or suspend the certification of any health care provider or group of medical service providers to provide managed care if the commissioner finds that the plan for providing medical or health care services fails to meet the requirements of this section, or service under the plan is not being provided in accordance with the terms of a certified plan.

Subd. 4. [REVIEW.] (a) Utilization review, quality assurance and peer review activities pursuant to this section and authorization of medical services to be provided by other than an attending physician pursuant to this chapter shall be subject to review by the commissioner or the commissioner's designated representatives. Data generated by or received in connection with these activities, including written reports, notes or records of any such activities, or of the commissioner's review shall be confidential, and shall not be disclosed except as considered necessary by the commissioner in the administration of this section. The commissioner may report professional misconduct to an appropriate licensing board.

(c) A person participating in utilization review, quality assurance or peer review activities pursuant to this section shall not be examined as to any communication made in the course of such activities or the findings thereof, nor shall any person be subject to an action for civil damages for affirmative actions taken or statements made in good faith.

(d) No person who participates in forming managed care plans, collectively negotiating fees or otherwise solicits or enters into contracts in a good faith effort to provide medical or health care services according to the provisions of this section shall be examined or subject to administrative or civil liability regarding any such participation except pursuant to the commissioner's active supervision of such activities and the managed care organization. Before engaging in such activities, the person shall provide notice of intent to the commissioner on a prescribed form.

(e) The provisions of this section shall not affect the confidentiality or admission in evidence of a claimant's medical treatment records.

Subd. 5. [RULES.] The commissioner in cooperation with the commissioners of the department of health, department of commerce, and department of human services, shall adopt such rules as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

Subdivision 1. [SCHEDULE.] (a) The commissioner shall by rule establish procedures for determining whether or not the charge for a health service is excessive. In order to accomplish this purpose, the commissioner shall consult with insurers, associations and organizations representing the medical and other providers of treatment services and other appropriate groups.

(b) The procedures established by the commissioner ~~shall~~ must limit, in accordance with subdivisions 1a and 1b, the charges allowable for medical, chiropractic, podiatric, surgical, hospital and other health care provider treatment or services, as defined and compensable under section 176.135~~, based upon billings for each class of health care provider during all of the calendar year preceding the year in which the determination is made of the amount to be paid the health care provider for the billing~~. The procedures established by the commissioner for determining whether or not the charge for a health service is excessive ~~shall~~ must be structured to encourage providers to develop and deliver services for rehabilitation of injured workers. The procedures ~~shall~~ must incorporate the provisions of sections 144.701, 144.702, and 144.703 to the extent that the commissioner finds that these provisions effectively accomplish the intent of this section or are otherwise necessary to insure that quality hospital care is available to injured employees.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.136, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [RELATIVE VALUE FEE SCHEDULE.] The liability of an employer for services included in the medical fee schedule is limited to the maximum fee allowed by the schedule in effect on the date of the medical service, or the provider's actual fee, whichever is lower. The medical fee schedule effective on October 1, 1990, shall remain in effect until the commissioner adopts a new schedule by permanent rule, but shall remain in effect no later than June 1, 1993. The commissioner shall adopt permanent rules regulating fees, except fees limited by subdivision 1b, by implementing a relative value fee schedule to be effective on October 1, 1992, or as soon thereafter as possible. The conversion factors for the relative value fee schedule shall reasonably reflect a 15 percent overall reduction from 1991 charges, based on a sample of the most common services billed in the first six months of 1991 that is large enough to be statistically valid.

After permanent rules have been adopted to implement this section, the conversion factors must be adjusted annually on October 1, by the percentage change in the statewide average weekly wage as set forth in section 176.645, subdivision 1. The commissioner shall annually give notice in the State Register of the adjusted conversion factors. This notice shall be in lieu of the requirements of chapter 14.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.136, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1b. [LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.] (a) The liability of the employer for treatment, articles, and supplies provided to an employee while an inpatient or outpatient at a hospital or an outpatient at a same-day surgical facility or emergency room shall be limited to 85 percent of the amount charged.

(b) For the services rendered under paragraph (a) by a hospital with 100 or fewer licensed acute care beds, the liability of employers shall be the actual hospital charges.

(c) The liability of the employer for the treatment, articles, and supplies that are not limited by subdivision 1a or paragraph (a) shall be limited to the provider's actual charge, or the charges that prevail in the same community for similar treatment, articles, and supplies furnished to an injured person when paid for by the injured person, whichever is lower. On this basis, the commissioner or compensation judge may determine the reasonable value of all treatment, services, and supplies, and the liability of the employer is limited to that amount.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.136, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXCESSIVE FEES.] If the employer or insurer determines that the charge for a health service or medical service is excessive, no payment in excess of the reasonable charge for that service shall be made under this chapter nor may the provider collect or attempt to collect from the injured employee or any other insurer or government amounts in excess of the amount payable under this chapter unless the commissioner, compensation judge, or court of appeals determines otherwise. In such a case, the health care provider may initiate an action under this chapter for recovery of the amounts deemed excessive by the employer or insurer, but the employer or insurer shall have the burden of proving excessiveness.

A charge for a health service or medical service is excessive if it:

(1) exceeds the maximum permissible charge pursuant to subdivision 1 or section 176.135, subdivision 1a;

(2) is for a service provided at a level, duration, or frequency that is excessive, based upon accepted medical standards for quality health care and accepted rehabilitation standards;

(3) is for a service that is outside the scope of practice of the particular provider or is not generally recognized within the particular profession of the provider as of therapeutic value for the specific injury or condition treated; or

(4) is otherwise deemed excessive or inappropriate pursuant to rules adopted pursuant to this chapter.

Where the sole issue in dispute is whether medical fees are excessive, the only parties to the proceeding shall be the health care provider and employer or insurer. The rights of an employee shall not be affected by a determination under this subdivision.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.305, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [HEARINGS ON PETITIONS.] The petitioner shall serve a copy of the petition on each adverse party personally or by first class mail. (c) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), the commissioner may hold a hearing if the commissioner determines that the hearing is necessary because of circumstances which result in a substantial change in the basis upon which the existing rate levels or rating plan was filed. Sec. 12. [79.565] [PARTICIPATION.]

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79.58, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [RATING PLANS.] The commissioner may disapprove a rating plan of a data service organization if, after a hearing conducted pursuant to chapter 14, the commissioner finds that it is excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory. Any order of disapproval shall require the data service organization to use an alternative rating plan until approval of a rating plan by the commissioner. The commissioner shall not approve any rating plan based upon any data other than Minnesota data, except that other data may be utilized as a supplement to Minnesota data when the commissioner determines that an exceptional case requires such data to establish the statistical credibility of an occupational classification.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79.61, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REQUIRED ACTIVITY.] Any data service organization shall perform the following activities:

(a) File statistical plans, including classification definitions, amendments to the plans, and definitions, with the commissioner for approval, and assign each compensation risk written by its members to its approved classification for reporting purposes;

(iv) an evaluation of the effects of changes in law on loss data.

The report shall also include explicit discussion and explanation of methodology, alternatives examined, assumptions adopted, and areas of judgment and reasoning supporting judgments entered into, and the effect of various combinations of these elements on indications for modification of an overall pure premium rate level change. The pure premium relativities and rate level indications shall not include a loading for expenses or profit and no expense or profit data or recommendations relating to expense or profit shall be included in the report or collected by a data service organization;

(d) Collect, compile, summarize, and distribute data from members or other sources pursuant to a statistical plan approved by the commissioner;

(g) Distribute information to an insured or interested party that is filed with the commissioner and is open to public inspection; ~~and~~

(h) Assess its members for operating expenses on a fair and equitable basis;

Sec. 16. [79.70] [INVESTIGATIONS AND SUBPOENAS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL POWERS.] In connection with the administration of this chapter, the commissioner of commerce may:

(1) make public or private investigations within or without this state as the commissioner considers necessary to determine whether any person has violated or is about to violate this chapter or any rule or order under this chapter, or to aid in the enforcement of this chapter, or in the prescribing of rules or forms under this chapter;

(2) require or permit any person to file a statement in writing, under oath or otherwise as the commissioner determines, as to all the facts and circumstances concerning the matter being investigated;

(3) hold hearings, upon reasonable notice, in respect to any matter arising out of the administration of this chapter;

(4) conduct investigations and hold hearings for the purpose of compiling information with a view to recommending changes in this chapter to the legislature;

(5) examine the books, accounts, records, and files of every licensee under this chapter and of every person who is engaged in any activity regulated under this chapter; the commissioner or a designated representative shall have free access during normal business hours to the offices and places of business of the person, and to all books, accounts, papers, records, files, safes, and vaults maintained in the place of business;

(6) publish information which is contained in any order issued by the commissioner; and

(7) require any person subject to this chapter to report all sales or transactions that are regulated under this chapter. The reports must be made within ten days after the commissioner has ordered the report. The report is accessible only to the respondent and other governmental agencies unless otherwise ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

Subd. 2. [POWER TO COMPEL PRODUCTION OF EVIDENCE.] For the purpose of any investigation, hearing, or proceeding under this chapter, the commissioner or a designated representative may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, agreements, or other documents or records that the commissioner considers relevant or material to the inquiry.

Subd. 3. [COURT ORDERS.] In case of a refusal to appear or a refusal to obey a subpoena issued to any person, the district court, upon application by the commissioner, may issue to any person an order directing that person to appear before the commissioner, or the officer designated by the commissioner, to produce documentary evidence if so ordered or to give evidence relating to the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt of court.

Subd. 4. [SCOPE OF PRIVILEGE.] No person is excused from attending and testifying or from producing any document or record before the commissioner, or from obedience to the subpoena of the commissioner or any officer designated by the commissioner or in a proceeding instituted by the commissioner, on the ground that the testimony or evidence required may tend to incriminate that person or subject that person to a penalty or forfeiture. No person may be prosecuted or subjected to a penalty or forfeiture for a transaction, matter, or thing concerning which the person is compelled, after claiming the privilege against self-incrimination, to testify or produce documentary or other evidence except that the individual is not exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury or contempt committed in testifying.

Subd. 5. [LEGAL ACTIONS; INJUNCTIONS; CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS.] (a) Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has engaged in or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of this chapter, or any rule or order adopted under this chapter, the commissioner has the powers indicated under paragraphs (b) and (c).

(b) The commissioner may bring an action in the name of the state in the district court of the appropriate county to enjoin the acts or practices and to enforce compliance with this chapter, or any rule or order adopted or issued under this chapter, or the commissioner may refer the matter to the attorney general or the county attorney of the appropriate county. Upon a proper showing, a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or other appropriate relief must be granted.

(c) The commissioner may issue and serve an order requiring a person to cease and desist from violations of this chapter, or any rule or order adopted or issued under this chapter. The order must give reasonable notice of the rights of the person to request a hearing and must state the reasons for the entry of the order. A hearing must be held not later than seven days after the request for the hearing is received by the commissioner. Within 20 days after receiving the administrative law judge's report, the commissioner shall issue a further order vacating the cease and desist order or making it permanent as the facts require. If no hearing is requested within 30 days of service of the order, the order will become final and will remain in effect until it is modified or vacated by the commissioner. Unless otherwise provided, all hearings must be conducted in accordance with chapter 14. If a person to whom a cease and desist order is issued fails to appear at the hearing after being duly notified, the person is in default, and the proceeding may be determined against that person upon consideration of the cease and desist order, the allegations of which may be considered to be true. The commissioner may adopt rules of procedure concerning all proceedings conducted under this paragraph.

Subd. 6. [VIOLATIONS AND PENALTIES.] The commissioner may impose a civil penalty not to exceed $2,000 per violation upon a person who violates this chapter, unless a different penalty is specified under this chapter.

Subd. 7. [ACTIONS AGAINST LICENSEES.] In addition to any other actions authorized by this section, the commissioner may, by order, deny, suspend, or revoke the authority or license of a person subject to this chapter, or censure that person if the commissioner finds that the order is in the public interest or the person has violated this chapter.

Subd. 8. [POWERS ADDITIONAL.] The powers contained in subdivisions 1 to 8 are in addition to all other powers of the commissioner.

Sec. 17. [79.75] [ACCESS TO INSURER.]

The commissioner, or the designated person, shall have free access during normal business hours to all books, records, securities, documents, and any or all papers relating to the property, assets, business, and affairs of any company, applicant, association, or person that may be examined pursuant to this chapter for the purpose of ascertaining, appraising, and evaluating the assets, conditions, affairs, operations, ability to fulfill obligations, and compliance with all the provisions of law of the company or person insofar as any of the above pertain to the business of insurance of a person, organization, or corporation transacting, having transacted, or being organized to transact business in this state. Every company or person being examined including officers, directors, and agents, shall provide to the commissioner or the designated person convenient and free access at all reasonable hours at its office to all books, records, securities, documents, and any or all papers relating to the property, assets, business, and affairs of the company or person. The officers, directors, and agents of the company or person shall facilitate the examination and aid in the examination so far as it is in their power to do so.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176A.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [COVERAGE OUTSIDE STATE.] Policies issued by the fund pursuant to this chapter may also provide workers' compensation coverage required under the laws of states other than Minnesota, including coverages commonly known as "all states coverage." The fund may apply for and obtain any licensure required in any other state in order to issue the coverage.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 221.141, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY OF CERTAIN CARRIERS.] No motor carrier and no interstate carrier shall operate a vehicle until it has obtained and has in effect the minimum amount of financial responsibility required by this section. Policies of insurance, surety bonds, other types of security, and endorsements must be continuously in effect and must remain in effect until canceled. Before providing transportation, the motor carrier or interstate carrier shall secure and cause to be filed with the commissioner and maintain in full effect, both a certificate of insurance in a form required by the commissioner, evidencing public liability insurance in the amount prescribed, and acceptable evidences of compliance with the workers' compensation insurance coverage requirements of section 176.181, subdivision 2, by providing the name of the insurance company, the policy number, and the dates of coverage, or the permit to self-insure. The insurance must cover injuries and damage to persons or property resulting from the operation or use of motor vehicles, regardless of whether each vehicle is specifically described in the policy. This insurance does not apply to injuries or death to the employees of the motor carrier or to property being transported by the carrier. The commissioner shall require cargo insurance for certificated carriers, except those carrying passengers exclusively. The commissioner may require a permit carrier to file cargo insurance when the commissioner deems necessary to protect the users of the service.

Sec. 20. [NOTICE OF INTENT TO CHALLENGE RATE LEVEL CHANGE.]

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 79.56, subdivision 5, the commissioner shall have an additional 90 days to give notice of intent to hold a hearing pursuant to that section. This section applies only to challenges to an insurer's change in existing rate levels or rating plan filed between the date the 1992 report required under section 79.60 is approved by the commissioner of commerce and six months thereafter.

Sec. 21. [MANDATED REDUCTIONS.]

(a) As a result of the workers' compensation law changes in articles 1 to 4 and the resulting savings to the costs of Minnesota's workers' compensation system, an insurer's approved schedule of rates in effect on October 1, 1991, must be reduced by 17 percent and applied by the insurer to all policies issued, renewed, or outstanding on or after that date. An insurer may not adjust its filed rating plan to recoup the 17 percent mandated rate reduction under this section. The reduction must be computed on the basis of a 17 percent premium reduction prorated to the expiration of that policy. An insurer shall provide a written notice by November 1, 1991, to all employers having an outstanding policy with the insurer as of October 1, 1991, that reads as follows: "As a result of the changes in the workers' compensation insurance system enacted by the 1991 legislature, you are entitled to a credit or refund to your current premium in an amount of $..... which reflects a 17 percent mandated premium reduction prorated to the expiration of your policy."

(b) No rate increases may be filed between April 1, 1991 and January 1, 1992.

(c) The commissioner of labor and industry shall survey Minnesota employers to determine if the mandated workers' compensation insurance rate reductions required under this section have been implemented by insurers, both as to amount and in a manner that is uniform and nondiscriminatory between employers having similar risks with respect to a particular occupational classification. The commissioner shall present a report detailing the findings and conclusions to the legislature by March 1, 1992.

Sec. 22. [ADJUSTMENT.]

Within 60 days of final enactment of this legislation, the board shall determine whether any adjustment in the assigned risk rates in effect as of the date of enactment are required by this section.

Sec. 23. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1990, sections 79.54, 79.57, and 79.58, subdivision 1, are repealed.

Sec. 24. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This article is effective January 1, 1992; except that, section 21, paragraphs (a) and (c), are effective October 1, 1991; and section 21, paragraph (b), is effective the day following final enactment."

"ARTICLE 1

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.155, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [EMPLOYER'S PHYSICIAN.] The injured employee must submit to examination by the employer's physician, if requested by the employer, and at reasonable times thereafter upon the employer's request. The examination must be scheduled at a location within 150 miles of the employee's residence unless the employer can show cause to the department or a compensation judge to order an examination at a location further from the petitioner's residence. The employee is entitled upon request to have a personal physician present at any such examination. Each party shall defray the cost of that party's physician. Any report or written statement made by the employer's physician as a result of an examination of the employee, regardless of whether the examination preceded the injury or was made subsequent to the injury, shall be made available, upon request and without charge, to the injured employee or representative of the employee. The employer shall pay reasonable travel expenses, in advance if requested, incurred by the employee in attending the examination including mileage, parking, and, if necessary, lodging and meals. The employer shall also pay the employee for any lost wages resulting from attendance at the examination. A self-insured employer or insurer who is served with a claim petition pursuant to section 176.271, subdivision 1, or 176.291, shall schedule any necessary examinations of the employee, if an examination by the employer's physician or health care provider is necessary to evaluate benefits claimed. The examination shall be completed and the report of the examination shall be served on the employee and filed with the commissioner within 120 days of service of the claim petition.

No evidence relating to the examination or report shall be received or considered by the commissioner, a compensation judge, or the court of appeals in determining any issues unless the report has been served and filed as required by this section, unless a written extension has been granted by the commissioner or compensation judge. The commissioner or a compensation judge shall extend the time for completing the adverse examination and filing the report upon good cause shown. The extension must not be for the purpose of delay and the insurer must make a good faith effort to comply with this subdivision. Good cause shall include but is not limited to:

(1) that the extension is necessary because of the limited number of physicians or health care providers available with expertise in the particular injury or disease, or that the extension is necessary due to the complexity of the medical issues, or

(2) that the extension is necessary to gather additional information which was not included on the petition as required by section 176.291.

ARTICLE 2

WORKERS' COMPENSATION SYSTEM CHANGES

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.011, subdivision 11a, is amended to read:

Subd. 11a. [FAMILY FARM.] "Family farm" means any farm operation which (1) pays or is obligated to pay less than ~~$8,000~~ $20,000 in cash wages, exclusive of machine hire, to farm laborers for services rendered during the preceding calendar year, and (2) has total liability and medical payment coverage equal to $250,000 and $5,000, respectively, under a farm liability insurance policy. For purposes of this subdivision, farm laborer does not include any spouse, parent or child, regardless of age, of a farmer employed by the farmer, or any executive officer of a family farm corporation as defined in section 500.24, subdivision 2, or any spouse, parent or child, regardless of age, of such an officer employed by that family farm corporation, or other farmers in the same community or members of their families exchanging work with the employer. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, a farm laborer shall not be considered as an independent contractor for the purposes of this chapter; provided that a commercial baler or commercial thresher shall be considered an independent contractor.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.011, subdivision 18, is amended to read:

Subd. 18. [WEEKLY WAGE.] "Weekly wage" is arrived at by multiplying the daily wage by the number of days and fractional days normally worked in the business of the employer for the employment involved. If the employee normally works less than five days per week or works an irregular number of days per week, the number of days normally worked shall be computed by dividing the total number of days in which the employee actually performed any of the duties of employment in the last 26 weeks by the number of weeks in which the employee actually performed such duties, provided that the weekly wage for part time employment during a period of seasonal or temporary layoff shall be computed on the number of days and fractional days normally worked in the business of the employer for the employment involved. If, at the time of the injury, the employee was regularly employed by two or more employers, the employee's days of work for all such employments shall be included in the computation of weekly wage. Occasional overtime is not to be considered in computing the weekly wage, but if overtime is regular or frequent throughout the year it shall be taken into consideration. The maximum weekly compensation payable to an employee, or to the employee's dependents in the event of death, shall not exceed ~~66 2/3~~ 80 percent of the ~~product of the daily wage times the number of days normally worked~~ employee's after-tax weekly wage, provided that the compensation payable for permanent partial disability under section 176.101, subdivision 3, and for permanent total disability under section 176.101, subdivision 4, or death under section 176.111, shall not be computed on less than the number of hours normally worked in the employment or industry in which the injury was sustained, subject also to such maximums as are specifically otherwise provided.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.011, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 18a. [AFTER-TAX WEEKLY WAGE.] After-tax weekly wage means the weekly wage reduced by the amounts required to be withheld by the Federal Insurance Contributions Act, United States Code, title 16, sections 3101 to 3126, but without regard to the yearly maximum, and by state and federal income tax laws using as the number of allowances the number of exemptions that the employee is entitled to under federal law for the employee and the employee's dependents.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.021, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMPENSATION, COMMENCEMENT OF PAYMENT.] All employers shall commence payment of compensation at the time and in the manner prescribed by this chapter without the necessity of any agreement or any order of the division. Except for medical, burial, and other nonperiodic benefits, payments shall be made as nearly as possible at the intervals when the wage was payable, provided, however, that payments for permanent partial disability shall be governed by section ~~176.101~~ 13. If doubt exists as to the eventual permanent partial disability, payment ~~for the economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation, whichever is due, pursuant to section 176.101,~~ shall be ~~then~~ made when due for the minimum permanent partial disability ascertainable, and further payment shall be made upon any later ascertainment of greater permanent partial disability. Prior to or at the time of commencement of the payment of ~~economic recovery compensation or lump sum or periodic payment of impairment compensation~~ permanent partial disability compensation, the employee and employer shall be furnished with a copy of the medical report upon which the payment is based and all other medical reports which the insurer has that indicate a permanent partial disability rating, together with a statement by the insurer as to whether the tendered payment is for minimum permanent partial disability or final and eventual disability. After receipt of all reports available to the insurer that indicate a permanent partial disability rating, the employee shall make available or permit the insurer to obtain any medical report that the employee has or has knowledge of that contains a permanent partial disability rating which the insurer does not already have. ~~Economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation pursuant to section 176.101 is payable in~~ ~~addition to but not concurrently with compensation for temporary total disability but is payable pursuant to section 176.101. Impairment compensation is payable concurrently and in addition to compensation for permanent total disability pursuant to section 176.101. Economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation pursuant to section 176.101 shall be withheld pending completion of payment for temporary total disability, and no credit shall be taken for payment of economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation against liability for temporary total or future permanent total disability. Liability on the part of an employer or the insurer for disability of a temporary total, temporary partial, and permanent total nature shall be considered as a continuing product and part of the employee's inability to earn or reduction in earning capacity due to injury or occupational disease and compensation is payable accordingly, subject to section 176.101. Economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation is payable for functional loss of use or impairment of function, permanent in nature, and payment therefore shall be separate, distinct, and in addition to payment for any other compensation, subject to section 176.101.~~ The right to receive temporary total, temporary partial, or permanent total disability payments vests in the injured employee or the employee's dependents under this chapter or, if none, in the employee's legal heirs at the time the disability can be ascertained and the right is not abrogated by the employee's death prior to the making of the payment.

The right to receive ~~economic recovery compensation or impairment~~ permanent partial compensation vests in an injured employee or in the employee's dependents under this chapter or, if none, in the employee's legal heirs at the time the disability can be ascertained, provided that the employee lives for at least 30 days beyond the date of the injury. ~~Upon the death of an employee who is receiving economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation, further compensation is payable pursuant to section 176.101. Impairment compensation is payable under this paragraph if vesting has occurred, the employee dies prior to reaching maximum medical improvement, and the requirements and conditions under section 176.101, subdivision 3e, are not met.~~

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.041, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [OUT-OF-STATE EMPLOYMENTS.] (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), if an employee who regularly performs the primary duties of employment outside of this state or is hired to perform the primary duties of employment outside of this state, receives an injury within this state in the employ of the same employer, such injury shall be covered within the provisions of this chapter if the employee chooses to forego any workers' compensation claim resulting from the injury that the employee may have a right to pursue in some other state, provided that the special compensation fund is not liable for payment of benefits pursuant to section 176.183 if the employer is not insured against workers' compensation liability pursuant to this chapter and the employee is a nonresident of Minnesota on the date of the personal injury.

(b) An employee who has been hired outside of this state, or regularly performs the primary duties of employment outside of this state, and the employee's employer, are exempt from the provisions of this chapter while the employee is temporarily within this state performing work for the employer provided the employer has furnished workers' compensation insurance coverage under the workers' compensation law or other similar law of another state which covers the employee's employment while in this state. The benefits under the workers' compensation law or similar law of the other state, or other remedies under that state's law, are the exclusive remedy against the employer for any injury, whether resulting in death or not, received by the employee while working for that employer within this state. A certificate from the commissioner of labor and industry or other similar official of another state certifying that the employer is insured in that state and has provided extraterritorial coverage insuring its employees while working within this state is prima facie evidence that the employer carries workers' compensation insurance on those employees.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.061, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [INDEMNITY.] Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 65B or any other law to the contrary, an employer has a right of indemnity for any compensation paid or payable pursuant to this chapter, including temporary total compensation, temporary partial compensation, permanent partial disability, ~~economic recovery compensation, impairment compensation,~~ medical compensation, rehabilitation, death, and permanent total compensation.

If the employer or the insurer or the defendant is given written notice of claims for legal services or disbursements, the claim shall be a lien against the amount paid or payable as compensation. In no case shall fees be calculated on the basis of any undisputed portion of compensation awards. Allowable fees under this chapter shall be based solely upon genuinely disputed portions of claims, including disputes related to the payment of rehabilitation benefits or to other aspects of a rehabilitation plan. Fees for administrative conferences under ~~section~~ sections 176.106 and 176.239 shall be determined on an hourly basis, according to the criteria in subdivision 5.

A copy of the signed retainer agreement shall also be filed. The employee and insurer shall receive a copy of the statement. The statement shall be on a form prescribed by the commissioner and shall clearly and conspicuously state that the employee or insurer has ten calendar days to object to the attorney fees requested. If no objection is timely made by the employee or insurer, the amount requested shall be conclusively presumed reasonable providing the amount does not exceed the limitation in subdivision 1. The commissioner, compensation judge, or court of appeals shall issue an order granting the fees and the amount requested shall be awarded to the party requesting the fee.

If a timely objection is filed, or the fee is determined on an hourly basis, the commissioner, compensation judge, or court of appeals shall review the matter and make a determination based on the criteria in subdivision 5.

If no timely objection is made by an employer or insurer, reimbursement under subdivision 7 shall be made if the statement of fees requested this reimbursement.

(c) An attorney representing employers or insurers shall file a statement of attorney fees or wages with the commissioner, compensation judge before whom the matter was heard, or workers' compensation court of appeals on cases before the court. (d) Employers and insurers may not pay attorney fees or wages for legal services of more than $6,500 per case unless the additional fees or wages are approved under subdivision 2.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.081, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. An application for attorney fees in excess of the amount authorized in subdivision 1 shall be made to the commissioner, compensation judge, or district judge, before whom the matter was heard. An appeal of a decision by the commissioner, a compensation judge, or district court judge on additional fees may be made to the workers' compensation court of appeals. The application shall set forth the fee requested ~~and~~, the number of hours spent on the case, the basis for the request, and whether or not a hearing is requested. The application, with affidavit of service upon the ~~employee~~ attorney's client, shall be filed by the attorney requesting the fee. The notice of hearing shall be served upon known interested parties. ~~The attorney for the employee shall be served with a notice of the hearing.~~ The workers' compensation court of appeals shall have the authority to raise ~~the question of~~ the issue of the attorney fees at any time upon its own motion and shall have continuing jurisdiction over attorney fees.

(b) Extended disability compensation is paid at the rate for temporary total compensation, escalated under section 176.645, for the number of weeks equal to 246 multiplied by the employee's percentage rating of permanent partial disability, determined according to the rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to section 176.105, subdivision 4. Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.101, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. An employee may not receive compensation for more than a 100 percent disability of the whole body, even if the employee sustains disability to two or more body parts.

(b) Permanent partial disability is payable upon cessation of temporary total disability under subdivision 1. If the employee is not working, the compensation is payable in installments at the same intervals and in the same amount as the initial temporary total disability rate. If the employee returns to work, the remaining compensation is payable in a lump sum 30 days after the employee returned to work provided the employment has not been substantially interrupted by the injury for any part of the 30 days and the employee is still employed at the job at the end of the period.

Rehabilitation to a job with a higher economic status than would have occurred without disability is permitted if it can be demonstrated that this rehabilitation is necessary to increase the likelihood of reemployment. Economic status is to be measured not only by opportunity for immediate income but also by opportunity for future income.

[REMOTE DEPENDENTS.] If the deceased employee leaves no surviving spouse or child or parent entitled to any payment under this chapter, but leaves a grandparent, grandchild, brother, sister, mother-in-law, or father-in-law wholly dependent on the employee for support, there shall be paid to such dependent, if but one, ~~30~~ 40 percent of the after-tax weekly wage at the time of injury of the deceased, or if more than one, ~~35~~ 45 percent of the after-tax weekly wage at the time of the injury of the deceased, divided among them share and share alike.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.111, subdivision 20, is amended to read:

Subd. 20. [ACTUAL DEPENDENTS, COMPENSATION.] Actual dependents are entitled to take compensation in the order named in subdivision 3 during dependency until ~~66 2/3~~ 80 percent of the after-tax weekly wage of the deceased at the time of injury is exhausted. The total weekly compensation to be paid to full actual dependents of a deceased employee shall not exceed in the aggregate an amount equal to the maximum weekly compensation for a temporary total disability.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.111, subdivision 21, is amended to read:

Subd. 21. [DEATH, BENEFITS; COORDINATION WITH GOVERNMENTAL SURVIVOR BENEFITS.] The following provision shall apply to any dependent entitled to receive weekly compensation benefits under this section as the result of the death of an employee, and who is also receiving or entitled to receive benefits under any government survivor program:

The combined total of weekly government survivor benefits and workers' compensation death benefits provided under this section shall not exceed 100 percent of the after-tax weekly wage being earned by the deceased employee at the time of the injury causing death; provided, however, that no state workers' compensation death benefit shall be paid for any week in which the survivor benefits paid under the federal program, by themselves, exceed 100 percent of such weekly wage provided, however, the workers' compensation benefits payable to a dependent surviving spouse shall not be reduced on account of any governmental survivor benefits payable to decedent's children if the support of the children is not the responsibility of the dependent surviving spouse.

For the purposes of this subdivision "dependent" means dependent surviving spouse together with all dependent children and any other dependents. For the purposes of this subdivision, mother's or father's insurance benefits received pursuant to United States Code, title 42, section 402(g), are benefits under a government survivor program.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.131, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. If an employee incurs personal injury and suffers disability from that injury alone that is substantially greater, because of a preexisting physical impairment, than what would have resulted from the personal injury alone, the employer or insurer shall pay all compensation provided by this chapter, but the employer shall be reimbursed from the special compensation fund for ~~all~~ compensation paid in excess of 52 weeks of monetary benefits and ~~$2,000~~ $3,500 in medical expenses, subject to the exceptions in paragraphs (a) and (b):

(a) If the disability caused by the subsequent injury is made substantially greater by the employee's registered preexisting physical impairment, there shall be apportionment of liability among all injuries. The special compensation fund shall only reimburse for that portion of the compensation, medical expenses, and rehabilitation expenses attributed to the subsequent injury after the applicable deductible has been met.

(b) If the subsequent personal injury alone results in permanent partial disability to a scheduled member under the schedule adopted by the commissioner pursuant to section 176.105, the special compensation fund shall not reimburse permanent partial disability, medical expenses, or rehabilitation expenses.

(c) Reimbursement for compensation paid shall be at the rate of 75 percent.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.131, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. If an employee is employed in an on-the-job training program pursuant to an approved rehabilitation plan under section 176.102 and the employee incurs a personal injury that aggravates the personal injury for which the employee has been certified to enter the on-the-job training program, the on-the-job training employer shall pay the medical expenses and compensation required by this chapter, and shall be reimbursed from the special compensation fund for the compensation and medical expense that is attributable to the aggravated injury; except that, reimbursement for compensation paid shall be at the rate of 75 percent. The employer, at the time of the personal injury for which the employee has been approved for on-the-job training, is liable for the portion of the disability that is attributable to that injury.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.131, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. If the employee's personal injury results in disability or death, and if the injury, death, or disability would not have occurred except for the preexisting physical impairment registered with the special compensation fund, the employer shall pay all compensation provided by this chapter, and shall be ~~fully~~ reimbursed from the special compensation fund for the compensation, except that:

(1) this ~~full~~ reimbursement shall not be made for cardiac disease or a condition registered pursuant to subdivision 8, clause (u) or (v), unless the commissioner by rule provides otherwise; and

(2) reimbursement for compensation paid shall be at the rate of 75 percent.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.131, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 13. [APPLICABLE LAW.] The right to reimbursement under this section is governed by the law in effect on the date of the subsequent injury.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.132, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBLE RECIPIENTS.] (a) ~~An employee who has suffered personal injury prior to October 1, 1983 for which benefits are payable under section 176.101 and who has been totally disabled for more than 104 weeks shall be eligible for supplementary benefits as prescribed in this section after 104 weeks have elapsed and for the remainder of the total disablement. Regardless of the number of weeks of total disability, no totally disabled person is ineligible for supplementary benefits after four years have elapsed since the first date of the total disability, except as provided by clause (b), provided that all periods of disability are caused by the same injury.~~

~~(b)~~ An employee who has suffered personal injury after October 1, 1983, and before August 1, 1991, is eligible to receive supplementary benefits after the employee has been receiving temporary total or permanent total benefits for 208 weeks. Regardless of the number of weeks of total disability, no person who is receiving temporary total compensation shall be ineligible for supplementary benefits after four years have elapsed since the first date of the total disability, provided that all periods of disability are caused by the same injury.

(b) An employee who has suffered personal injury after August 1, 1991, that caused a permanent total disability, as defined in section

176.101, subdivision 5, is eligible to receive supplementary benefits after four years have elapsed since the first date of the total disability, provided that the employee continues to have a permanent total disability.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.132, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [AMOUNT.] (a) The supplementary benefit payable under this section ~~shall be the difference between~~ is:

(1) the sum of the amount the employee receives ~~on or after January 1, 1976,~~ under section 176.101, subdivision ~~1 or~~ 4, ~~and 65~~ plus the amount of any disability benefits being paid by any government disability benefit program if those benefits are occasioned by the same injury or injuries giving rise to payments under section 176.101, subdivision 4, plus any old age and survivor's insurance benefits, subtracted from

(2) 50 percent of the statewide average weekly wage, as computed annually.

(b) In the event an eligible recipient is currently receiving no compensation or is receiving a reduced level of compensation because of a credit being applied as the result of a third party liability or damages, the employer or insurer shall compute the offset credit as if the individual were entitled to the actual benefit or ~~65~~ 50 percent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed annually, whichever is greater. If this results in the use of a higher credit than otherwise would have been applied and the employer or insurer becomes liable for compensation benefits which would otherwise not have been paid, the additional benefits resulting shall be handled according to this section.

(c) In the event an eligible recipient is receiving no compensation or is receiving a reduced level of compensation because of a valid agreement in settlement of a claim, no supplementary benefit shall be payable under this section. Attorney's fees shall be allowed in settlements of claims for supplementary benefits in accordance with this chapter.

(d) ~~In the event an eligible recipient is receiving no compensation or is receiving a reduced level of compensation because of prior limitations in the maximum amount payable for permanent total disability or because of reductions resulting from the simultaneous receipt of old age or disability benefits, the supplementary benefit shall be payable for the difference between the actual amount of compensation currently being paid and 65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed annually.~~

~~(e)~~ In the event that an eligible recipient is receiving simultaneous benefits from any government disability program, the amount of supplementary benefits payable under this section shall be reduced by five percent. If the individual does not receive the maximum benefits for which the individual is eligible under other governmental disability programs due to the provisions of United States Code, title 42, section 424a(d), this reduction shall not apply.

~~(f)~~ (e) Notwithstanding any other provision in this subdivision to the contrary, if the individual does not receive the maximum benefits for which the individual is eligible under other governmental disability programs due to the provision of United States Code, title 42, section 424a(d), the calculation of supplementary benefits payable to the individual shall be as provided under this section in Minnesota Statutes ~~1988~~ 1990.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.132, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PAYMENT.] The payment of supplementary benefits shall be the responsibility of the employer or insurer ~~currently paying total disability benefits, or any other payer of such benefits. When the eligible individual is not currently receiving benefits because the total paid has reached the maximum prescribed by law the employer and insurer shall, nevertheless, pay the supplementary benefits that are prescribed by law~~. The employer or insurer paying the supplementary benefit shall have the right of full reimbursement from the special compensation fund for the amount of such benefits paid.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.136, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SCHEDULE.] (a) The commissioner shall by rule establish procedures for determining whether or not the charge for a health service is excessive. In order to accomplish this purpose, the commissioner shall consult with insurers, associations and organizations representing the medical and other providers of treatment services and other appropriate groups. The procedures established by the commissioner ~~shall~~ must limit the charges allowable for medical, chiropractic, podiatric, surgical, hospital and other health care provider treatment or services, as defined and compensable under section 176.135, based upon billings for each class of health care provider during all of the calendar year preceding the year in which the determination is made of the amount to be paid the health care provider for the billing.

(b) The medical fee rules for providers other than hospitals, which are promulgated on October 1, 1990, and based upon 1989 medical cost data, must remain in effect until September 30, 1992; and the medical fee rules for providers other than hospitals, which are promulgated on October 1, 1992, must be based on the 1990 medical cost data and must remain in effect until September 30, 1993.

(c) The procedures established by the commissioner for determining whether or not the charge for a health service is excessive ~~shall~~ must be structured to encourage providers to develop and deliver services for rehabilitation of injured workers. The procedures ~~shall~~ must incorporate the provisions of sections 144.701, 144.702, and 144.703 to the extent that the commissioner finds that these provisions effectively accomplish the intent of this section or are otherwise necessary to insure that quality hospital care is available to injured employees.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.136, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [CHARGES FOR INDEPENDENT MEDICAL EXAMINATIONS.] The commissioner shall adopt rules that reasonably limit amounts which may be charged for, or in connection with, independent or adverse medical examinations requested by any party, including the amount that may be charged for depositions, witness fees, or other expenses. The scheduled amount for the examination itself may not exceed the scheduled amount for complex consultations by treating physicians, although additional reasonable charges may be permitted to reflect additional duties or activities. An insurer or employer may not pay fees above the amount in the schedule.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.221, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [COMMENCEMENT OF PAYMENT.] Within 14 days of notice to or knowledge by the employer of an injury compensable under this chapter the payment of temporary total compensation shall commence. Within 14 days of notice to or knowledge by an employer of a new period of temporary total disability which is caused by an old injury compensable under this chapter, the payment of temporary total compensation shall commence; provided that the employer or insurer may file for an extension with the commissioner within this 14-day period, in which case the compensation need not commence within the 14-day period but shall commence no later than 30 days from the date of the notice to or knowledge by the employer of the new period of disability. Commencement of payment by an employer or insurer does not waive any rights to any defense the employer has on any claim or incident either with respect to the compensability of the claim under this chapter or the amount of the compensation due. Where there are multiple employers, the first employer shall pay, unless it is shown that the injury has arisen out of employment with the second or subsequent employer. Liability for compensation under this chapter may be denied by the employer or insurer by giving the employee written notice of the denial of liability. If liability is denied for an injury which is required to be reported to the commissioner under section 176.231, subdivision 1, the denial of liability must be filed with the commissioner within 14 days after notice to or knowledge by the employer of an injury which is alleged to be compensable under this chapter. If the employer or insurer has commenced payment of compensation under this subdivision but determines within ~~30~~ 60 days of notice to or knowledge by the employer of the injury that the disability is not a result of a personal injury, payment of compensation may be terminated upon the filing of a notice of denial of liability within ~~30~~ 60 days of notice or knowledge. After the ~~30-day~~ 60-day period, payment may be terminated only by the filing of a notice as provided under section 176.239. Upon the termination, payments made may be recovered by the employer if the commissioner or compensation judge finds that the employee's claim of work related disability was not made in good faith. A notice of denial of liability must state in detail specific reasons explaining why the claimed injury or occupational disease was determined not to be within the scope and course of employment and shall include the name and telephone number of the person making this determination.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.645, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT.] For injuries occurring after October 1, 1975 for which benefits are payable under ~~section~~ sections 176.101, subdivisions 1, 2 and ~~4,~~ 4; and ~~section~~ 176.111, subdivision 5, the total benefits due the employee or any dependents shall be adjusted in accordance with this section. On October 1, 1981, and thereafter on the anniversary of the date of the employee's injury the total benefits due shall be adjusted by multiplying the total benefits due prior to each adjustment by a fraction, the denominator of which is the statewide average weekly wage for December 31, of the year two years previous to the adjustment and the numerator of which is the statewide average weekly wage for December 31, of the year previous to the adjustment. For injuries occurring after October 1, 1975, all adjustments provided for in this section shall be included in computing any benefit due under this section. Any limitations of amounts due for daily or weekly compensation under this chapter shall not apply to adjustments made under this section. No adjustment increase made on October 1, 1977 or thereafter under this section shall exceed ~~six~~ four percent a year. In those instances where the adjustment under the formula of this section would exceed this maximum the increase shall be deemed to be ~~six~~ four percent.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.645, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [TIME OF FIRST ADJUSTMENT.] For injuries occurring on or after October 1, 1981, the initial adjustment made pursuant to subdivision 1 ~~shall be~~ is deferred until the first anniversary of the date of the injury. For injuries occurring on or after August 1, 1991, the initial adjustment under subdivision 1 is deferred until the third anniversary of the date of injury.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.66, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [AMOUNT OF COMPENSATION.] The compensation for an occupational disease is ~~66 2/3~~ 80 percent of the employee's after-tax weekly wage on the date of injury subject to a maximum compensation equal to the maximum compensation in effect on the date of last exposure. The employee shall be eligible for supplementary benefits notwithstanding the provisions of section 176.132, after four years have elapsed since the date of last significant exposure to the hazard of the occupational disease if that employee's weekly compensation rate is less than the current supplementary benefit rate.

Sec. 47. [176.90] [AFTER-TAX CALCULATION.]

For purposes of sections 176.011, subdivision 18; 176.101, subdivisions 1, 2, 3, and 4; 176.111, subdivisions 6, 7, 8, 12, 14, 15, 20, and 21; and 176.66, the commissioner shall publish by September 1 of each year tables or formulas for determining the after-tax weekly wage to take effect the following October 1. The tables or formulas must be based on the applicable federal income tax and social security laws and state income tax laws in effect on the preceding April 1. These tables or formulas are conclusive for the purposes of converting weekly wage into after-tax weekly wage. The commissioner may contract with the department of revenue or any other person or organization in order to adopt the tables or formulas. The adoption of the tables or formulas is exempt from the administrative rulemaking provisions of chapter 14.

Sec. 48. [176.95] [ADMINISTRATIVE COSTS.]

The annual cost to the commissioner of labor and industry of administering the workers' compensation system under this chapter must be charged to the state general fund. Administrative costs include the cost of administering the workers' compensation division of the department of labor and industry and the workers' compensation division of the office of administrative hearings.

Sec. 49. [ADMINISTRATIVE COSTS CHANGE-OVER.]

For the biennium beginning July 1, 1991, 50 percent of the costs of administering the workers' compensation system must be charged to the state general fund and 50 percent to the special compensation fund.

Sec. 50. [EXISTING DISABILITY RATINGS.]

Existing disability ratings adopted under Minnesota Statutes, section 176.105, subdivision 1, may not be changed before June 30, 1994.

Sec. 51. [AFTER-TAX CALCULATION.]

Notwithstanding section 47, the commissioner of labor and industry shall publish by July 15, 1991, a table or formula for determining the after-tax weekly wage effective August 1, 1991, until October 1, 1991, as otherwise required under that section.

Sec. 52. [APPROPRIATION.]

$434,800 is appropriated from the workers' compensation special compensation fund to the commissioner of labor and industry to administer the workers' compensation system in accordance with this article. $124,800 is for fiscal year 1991 and is available until June 30, 1992. $310,000 is for fiscal year 1992. The approved complement of the department of labor and industry is increased by ten positions.

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 176.1321, sections 1 to 4, 6 to 16, 20 to 23, 25 to 41, 44 to 46, 49, and 53 are effective August 1, 1991. Section 42 is effective January 1, 1992.

ARTICLE 3

WORKERS' COMPENSATION INSURANCE

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79.095, is amended to read:

79.095 [APPOINTMENT OF ACTUARY.]

The commissioner ~~shall~~ may employ the services of ~~a~~ casualty ~~actuary~~ actuaries experienced in ~~worker's~~ workers' compensation whose duties shall include but not be limited to investigation of complaints by insured parties relative to rates, rate classifications, or discriminatory practices of an insurer. The salary of ~~the~~ an actuary employed pursuant to this section is not subject to the provisions of section 43A.17, subdivision 1.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79.55, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXCESSIVENESS.] ~~No premium is excessive in a competitive market. In the absence of a competitive market,~~ Premiums are excessive if the expected underwriting profit, together with expected income from invested reserves for the market in question, that would accrue to an insurer would be unreasonably high in relation to the risk undertaken by the insurer in transacting the business.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79.56, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [RATE REGULATION.] (a) Whenever an insurer files a change in its existing rate level or rating plan, the commissioner may hold a hearing to determine if the rate level or rating plan is excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory. The hearing must be conducted pursuant to chapter 14. The commissioner shall give notice of intent to hold a hearing within 90 days of the filing of the change. It is the responsibility of the insurer to show that the rate level or rating plan is not excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory. The rate level or rating plan is effective unless it is determined as a result of the hearing that the rate level or rating plan is excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory. Upon such a finding, the rate level or rating plan is retroactively rescinded and any premiums collected thereunder must be refunded. This subdivision does not apply to any changes resulting from assessments for the assigned risk plan, reinsurance association, guarantee fund, special compensation fund, or statutory benefit level changes to sections 176.101, subdivisions 1, 2, and 4; 176.111; 176.132; and 176.645 as a result of annual adjustments in the statewide average weekly wage. The disapproval of a rate level or rating plan under this subdivision must be done in the same manner as under section 70A.11, except that the standards of section 79.55 apply.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), if the commissioner of labor and industry petitions the commissioner for a hearing pursuant to this subdivision, the commissioner must hold a hearing if the commissioner of labor and industry certifies that the hearing is necessary because a decision of the supreme court or enactment of a statute has effected a substantial change in the basis upon which the existing rate levels or rating plan was filed. The commissioner of labor and industry must make a prima facie showing that law change has effected a substantial change in the basis upon which the existing rate levels or rating plan was filed.

(c) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), the commissioner may hold a hearing if the commissioner determines that the hearing is necessary because of circumstances which result in a substantial change in the basis upon which the existing rate levels or rating plan was filed. The commissioner must make a prima facie showing that the circumstances resulted in a substantial change in the basis upon which the existing rate levels or rating plan was filed.

Sec. 4. [79.561] [PARTICIPATION.]

An employer, or person representing a group of employers, which will be directly affected by a change in an insurer's existing rate level or rating plan filed under section 3, and the commissioner of labor and industry, must be allowed to participate in any hearing under that subdivision challenging the change in rate level or rating plan as being excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79.58, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [RATING PLANS.] The commissioner may disapprove a rating plan of a data service organization if, after a hearing conducted pursuant to chapter 14, the commissioner finds that it is excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory. The rating plan is effective until disapproved. It is the responsibility of the data service organization to show that the rating plan is not excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory. Any order of disapproval shall require the data service organization to use an alternative rating plan until approval of a rating plan by the commissioner. The commissioner shall not approve any rating plan based upon any data other than Minnesota data, except that other data may be utilized as a supplement to Minnesota data when the commissioner determines that an exceptional case requires such data to establish the statistical credibility of an occupational classification.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79.61, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REQUIRED ACTIVITY.] Any data service organization shall perform the following activities:

(a) File statistical plans, including classification definitions, amendments to the plans, and definitions, with the commissioner for approval, and assign each compensation risk written by its members to its approved classification for reporting purposes;

(b) Establish requirements for data reporting and monitoring methods to maintain a high quality data base;

(c) Prepare and distribute a periodic report, in a form prescribed by the commissioner, on ratemaking including, but not limited to the following elements:

(i) development factors and alternative derivations;

(ii) trend factors and alternative derivations and applications;

(iii) pure premium relativities for the approved classification system for which data are reported, provided that the relativities for insureds engaged in similar occupations and presenting substantially similar risks shall, if different, differ by at least ten percent; and

(iv) an evaluation of the effects of changes in law on loss data.

The report shall also include explicit discussion and explanation of methodology, alternatives examined, assumptions adopted, and areas of judgment and reasoning supporting judgments entered into, and the effect of various combinations of these elements on indications for modification of an overall pure premium rate level change. The pure premium relativities and rate level indications shall not include a loading for expenses or profit and no expense or profit data or recommendations relating to expense or profit shall be included in the report or collected by a data service organization;

(d) Collect, compile, summarize, and distribute data from members or other sources pursuant to a statistical plan approved by the commissioner;

(e) Prepare merit rating plan and calculate any variable factors necessary for utilization of the plan. Such a plan may be used by any of its members, at the option of the member provided that the application of a plan shall not result in rates that are unfairly discriminatory;

(f) Provide loss data specific to an insured to the insured at a reasonable cost;

(g) Distribute information to an insured or interested party that is filed with the commissioner and is open to public inspection; ~~and~~

(h) Assess its members for operating expenses on a fair and equitable basis;

(i) Separate the incurred but not reported losses of its members;

(j) Separate paid and outstanding losses of its members;

(k) Provide information indicating cases in which its members have established a reserve in excess of $50,000;

(l) Provide information on the income on invested reserves of its members;

(m) Provide information as to policies written at other than the filed rates;

(n) File information based solely on Minnesota premium income of its members concerning investment income, legal expenses, subrogation recoveries, administrative expenses, and commission expenses;

(o) File information based solely on Minnesota data concerning its members' reserving practices, premium income, indemnity, and medical benefits paid; and

(p) Provide any records of the data service organizations that are requested by the commissioner or otherwise required by statute.

Sec. 7. [79.65] [CHAPTER APPLICABILITY TO DATA SERVICE ORGANIZATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [EXAMINATION BY COMMISSIONER.] Data service organizations are subject to all the provisions of this chapter. The commissioner or an authorized representative of the commissioner may visit the rating association at any reasonable time and examine, audit, or evaluate the rating association's operations, records, and practices. For purposes of this section, "authorized representative of the commissioner" includes employees of the departments of commerce or labor and industry or other parties retained by the commissioner. Examination under this section may be done of any member of data service organizations for purposes of workers' compensation insurance regulation.

Subd. 2. [COSTS AND EXPENSES.] The commissioner may order and the data service organization shall pay the costs and expenses of any examination, audit, or evaluation conducted pursuant to subdivision 1. A sum sufficient to pay these costs and expenses is appropriated from the special compensation fund to the commissioner of commerce.

Sec. 8. [79.651] [INVESTIGATIONS AND SUBPOENAS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL POWERS.] In connection with the administration of this chapter, the commissioner of commerce may:

(1) make public or private investigations within or without this state as the commissioner considers necessary to determine whether any person has violated or is about to violate this chapter or any rule or order under this chapter, or to aid in the enforcement of this chapter, or in the prescribing of rules or forms under this chapter;

(2) require or permit any person to file a statement in writing, under oath or otherwise as the commissioner determines, as to all the facts and circumstances concerning the matter being investigated;

(3) hold hearings, upon reasonable notice, in respect to any matter arising out of the administration of this chapter;

(4) conduct investigations and hold hearings for the purpose of compiling information with a view to recommending changes in this chapter to the legislature;

(5) examine the books, accounts, records, and files of every licensee under this chapter and of every person who is engaged in any activity regulated under this chapter; the commissioner or a designated representative shall have free access during normal business hours to the offices and places of business of the person, and to all books, accounts, papers, records, files, safes, and vaults maintained in the place of business;

(6) publish information which is contained in any order issued by the commissioner; and

(7) require any person subject to this chapter to report all sales or transactions that are regulated under this chapter.

The reports must be made within ten days after the commissioner has ordered the report. The report is accessible only to the respondent and other governmental agencies unless otherwise ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

Subd. 2. [POWER TO COMPEL PRODUCTION OF EVIDENCE.] For the purpose of any investigation, hearing, or proceeding under this chapter, the commissioner or a designated representative may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, agreements, or other documents or records that the commissioner considers relevant or material to the inquiry.

Subd. 3. [COURT ORDERS.] In case of a refusal to appear or a refusal to obey a subpoena issued to any person, the district court, upon application by the commissioner, may issue to any person an order directing that person to appear before the commissioner, or the officer designated by the commissioner, there to produce documentary evidence if so ordered or to give evidence relating to the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt of court.

Subd. 4. [SCOPE OF PRIVILEGE.] No person is excused from attending and testifying or from producing any document or record before the commissioner, or from obedience to the subpoena of the commissioner or any officer designated by the commissioner or in a proceeding instituted by the commissioner, on the ground that the testimony or evidence required may tend to incriminate that person or subject that person to a penalty of forfeiture. No person may be prosecuted or subjected to a penalty or forfeiture for or on account of a transaction, matter, or thing concerning which the person is compelled, after claiming the privilege against self-incrimination, to testify or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise, except that the individual is not exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury or contempt committed in testifying.

Subd. 5. [LEGAL ACTIONS; INJUNCTIONS; CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS.] Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has engaged or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of this chapter, or any rule or order adopted under this chapter, the commissioner has the following powers: (1) the commissioner may bring an action in the name of the state in the district court of the appropriate county to enjoin the acts or practices and to enforce compliance with this chapter, or any rule or order adopted or issued under this chapter, or the commissioner may refer the matter to the attorney general or the county attorney of the appropriate county. Upon a proper showing, a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or other appropriate relief must be granted; and (2) the commissioner may issue and cause to be served upon the person an order requiring the person to cease and desist from violations of this chapter, or any rule or order adopted or issued under this chapter. The order must be calculated to give reasonable notice of the rights of the person to request a hearing and must state the reasons for the entry of the order. A hearing must be held not later than seven days after the request for the hearing is received by the commissioner, after which and within 20 days after receiving the administrative law judge's report, the commissioner shall issue a further order vacating the cease and desist order or making it permanent as the facts require. If no hearing is requested within 30 days of service of the order, the order will become final and will remain in effect until it is modified or vacated by the commissioner. Unless otherwise provided, all hearings must be conducted in accordance with chapter 14. If the person to whom a cease and desist order is issued fails to appear at the hearing after being duly notified, the person is in default, and the proceeding may be determined against that person upon consideration of the cease and desist order, the allegations of which may be considered to be true. The commissioner may adopt rules of procedure concerning all proceedings conducted under this subdivision.

Subd. 6. [VIOLATIONS AND PENALTIES.] The commissioner may impose a civil penalty not to exceed $2,000 per violation upon a person who violates this chapter, unless a different penalty is specified.

Subd. 7. [ACTIONS AGAINST LICENSEES.] In addition to any other actions authorized by this section, the commissioner may, by order, deny, suspend, or revoke the authority or license of a person subject to this chapter, or censure that person if the commissioner finds that:

(1) the order is in the public interest; or

(2) the person has violated this chapter.

Subd. 8. [STOP ORDER.] In addition to any other actions authorized by this section, the commissioner may issue a stop order denying effectiveness to or suspending or revoking any registration subject to this chapter.

Subd. 9. [POWERS ADDITIONAL.] The powers contained in subdivisions 1 to 8 are in addition to all other powers of the commissioner.

Sec. 9. [79.652] [ACCESS TO INSURER.]

The commissioner, or the designated person, shall have free access during normal business hours to all books, records, securities, documents, and any or all papers relating to the property, assets, business, and affairs of any company, applicant, association, or person which may be examined pursuant to this act for the purpose of ascertaining, appraising, and evaluating the assets, conditions, affairs, operations, ability to fulfill obligations, and compliance with all the provisions of law of the company or person insofar as any of the above pertain to the business of insurance of a person, organization, or corporation transacting, having transacted, or being organized to transact business in this state. Every company or person being examined, its officers, directors, and agents, shall provide to the commissioner or the designated person convenient and free access at all reasonable hours at its office to all its books, records, securities, documents, any or all papers relating to the property, assets, business, and affairs of the company or person. The officers, directors, and agents of the company or person shall facilitate the examination and aid in the examination so far as it is in their power to do so.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176A.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [COVERAGE OUTSIDE STATE.] Policies issued by the fund pursuant to this chapter may also provide workers' compensation coverage required under the laws of states other than Minnesota, including coverages commonly known as "all states coverage." The fund may apply for and obtain any licensure required in any other state in order to issue such coverage.

Sec. 11. [MANDATED REDUCTIONS.]

(a) As a result of the workers' compensation law changes in article 2 and the resulting savings to the costs of Minnesota's workers' compensation system, an insurer's approved schedule of rates in effect on August 1, 1991, must be reduced by 16 percent and applied by the insurer to all policies issued, renewed, or outstanding on or after that date. An insurer may not adjust its filed rating plan to recoup the 16 percent mandated rate reduction under this section. The reduction must be computed on the basis of a 16 percent premium reduction prorated to the expiration of that policy. An insurer shall provide written notice by September 1, 1991, to all employers having an outstanding policy with the insurer as of August 1, 1991, to read as follows: "As a result of the changes in the workers' compensation insurance system enacted by the 1991 legislature, you are entitled to a credit or refund to your current premium in an amount of $..... which reflects a 16 percent mandated premium reduction prorated to the expiration of your policy."

(b) No rate increases may be filed between April 10, 1991, and January 1, 1992.

Sec. 12. [NOTICE OF INTENT TO CHALLENGE RATE LEVEL CHANGE.]

Notwithstanding section 3, the commissioner shall have an additional 90 days to give notice of intent to hold a hearing pursuant to that section. This section applies only to challenges to an insurer's change in existing rate levels or rating plan filed between the date the 1992 rate-making report is approved by the commissioner of commerce and six months thereafter.

Sec. 13. [RECORDS DEPOSITED WITH THE COMMISSIONER.]

All records of data services organizations authorized by Minnesota Statutes, section 79.61, or its predecessors, pertaining to proceedings before the department of commerce or its predecessors regarding rates or classifications must be deposited with the commissioner no later than August 1, 1991.

Sec. 14. [CONTINGENT APPROPRIATION.]

(a) $250,000 is appropriated from the special compensation fund to a workers' compensation contingent account for the purposes of this article. The appropriation in this section may only be spent with the approval of the governor after consultation with the legislative advisory commission under Minnesota Statutes, section 3.30. The appropriation in this section does not cancel but is available until June 30, 1992.

(b) $100,000 from the special compensation fund is appropriated and is available for the purposes of article 2.

Sec. 15. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1990, sections 79.54; 79.57; and 79.58, subdivision 1, are repealed.

Sec. 16. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 11, paragraph (b), is effective the day following final enactment.

All classified employees and staff attorneys of the workers' compensation court of appeals must be given preference in the employment of personnel required to staff the increased caseload of the court of appeals as a result of transfer of jurisdiction under this section.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124.214, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [EXCESS TAX INCREMENT.] If a return of excess tax increment is made to a school district pursuant to section 469.176, subdivision 2, or upon decertification of a tax increment district, the school district's aid and levy limitations must be adjusted for the fiscal year in which the excess tax increment is paid under the provisions of this subdivision.

(a) An amount must be subtracted from the school district's aid for the current fiscal year equal to the product of:

(1) the amount of the payment of excess tax increment to the school district, times

(2) the ratio of:

(A) the sum of the amounts of the school district's certified levy for the fiscal year in which the excess tax increment is paid according to the following:

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124.244, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [CAPITAL EXPENDITURE EQUIPMENT AID.] A district's capital expenditure equipment aid is the difference between the capital expenditure equipment revenue and the capital expenditure equipment levy. If a district does not levy the entire amount permitted, capital expenditure equipment aid must be reduced in proportion to the actual amount levied. Capital expenditure equipment aid must not be reduced as a result of a reduction of its capital expenditure equipment levy under section 121.912 or 124.2445.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124.2725, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [PERMANENT REVENUE.] (a) For the fourth year of combination and thereafter, for a district that combines after one year of cooperation, or for the third year of combination and thereafter, for a district that combines after two years of cooperation, a combined district that is not a member of an education district that receives revenue under section 124.2721 may levy the lesser of

(i) $50 times the actual pupil units in the combined district; or

(ii) $50,000.

(b) A combined district that is a member of an education district receiving revenue under section 124.2721 ~~must~~ may not receive revenue under this subdivision.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124.83, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [HEALTH AND SAFETY PROGRAM.] To receive health and safety revenue for any fiscal year a district, including an intermediate district, must submit to the commissioner of education an application for aid and levy by ~~June 1 in the previous school year~~ the date determined by the commissioner. The application may be for hazardous substance removal, fire code compliance, or life safety repairs. The application must include a health and safety program adopted by the school district board. The program must include the estimated cost of the program by fiscal year.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124.83, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [HEALTH AND SAFETY AID.] A district's health and safety aid is the difference between its health and safety revenue and its health and safety levy. If a district does not levy the entire amount permitted, health and safety aid must be reduced in proportion to the actual amount levied. Health and safety aid may not be reduced as a result of reducing a district's health and safety levy according to section 121.912.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124A.036, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [ALTERNATIVE ATTENDANCE PROGRAMS.] The general education aid for districts must be adjusted for each pupil, excluding a handicapped pupil as defined in section 120.03 or a nonhandicapped pupil as defined by section 120.181, attending a nonresident district under sections 120.062, 120.075, 120.0751, 120.0752, ~~123.3515,~~ 124C.45 to 124C.48, and 126.22. The adjustments must be made according to this subdivision.

(a) General education aid paid to a resident district must be reduced by an amount equal to the general education revenue exclusive of compensatory revenue attributable to the pupil in the resident district.

(b) General education aid paid to a district serving a pupil in programs listed in this subdivision shall be increased by an amount equal to the general education revenue exclusive of compensatory revenue attributable to the pupil in the nonresident district.

(c) If the amount of the reduction to be made from the general education aid of the resident district is greater than the amount of general education aid otherwise due the district, the excess reduction must be made from other state aids due the district.

(d) The district of residence shall pay tuition to a district or an area learning center, operated according to paragraph (e), providing special instruction and services to a handicapped pupil, as defined in section 120.03, or a pupil, as defined in section 120.181, who is enrolled in a program listed in this subdivision. The tuition shall be equal to (1) the actual cost of providing special instruction and services to the pupil, including a proportionate amount for debt service and for capital expenditure facilities and equipment, and debt service but not including any amount for transportation, minus (2) the amount of special education aid, attributable to that pupil, that is received by the district providing special instruction and services.

(e) An area learning center operated by an educational cooperative service unit, intermediate district, education district, or a joint powers cooperative may elect through the action of the constituent boards to charge tuition for ~~nonhandicapped~~ pupils rather than to calculate general education aid adjustments under paragraph (a), (b), or (c). The tuition must be equal to the greater of the average general education revenue per pupil unit attributable to the ~~student~~ pupil, or the ~~average per pupil cost of operating the area learning center whichever is less~~ actual cost of providing the instruction, excluding transportation costs, if the pupil meets the requirements of section 120.03 or 120.181.

124A.24 [GENERAL EDUCATION LEVY EQUITY.]

If a district's general education levy is determined according to section 124A.23, subdivision 3, an amount must be deducted from state aid authorized in this chapter and ~~chapter~~ chapters 124 and 124B, receivable for the same school year, and from other state payments receivable for the same school year authorized in chapter 273. The aid in section 124.646 must not be reduced.

The amount of the deduction equals the difference between:

(1) the general education tax rate, according to section 124A.23, times the district's adjusted net tax capacity used to determine the general education aid for the same school year; and

(2) the district's general education revenue, excluding supplemental revenue, for the same school year, according to section 124A.22.

However, for fiscal year 1989, the amount of the deduction shall be one-fourth of the difference between clauses (1) and (2); for fiscal year 1990, the amount of the deduction shall be one-third of the difference between clauses (1) and (2); for fiscal year 1991, the amount of the deduction shall be one-half of the difference between clauses (1) and (2); for fiscal year 1992, the amount of the deduction shall be four-sixths of the difference between clauses (1) and (2); and for fiscal year 1993, the amount of the deduction shall be five-sixths of the difference between clauses (1) and (2).

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124B.03, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REFERENDUM LEVY.] (a) The amount of general education revenue certified by an education district board under section 124B.10 may be increased in any amount that is approved by the voters of the education district at a referendum called for the purpose. The referendum may be called by the education district board or must be called by the education district board upon written petition of qualified voters of the education district. The referendum must be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November. The ballot shall state the maximum amount of the increased levy as a percentage of net tax capacity, the amount that will be raised by that local tax rate in the first year it is to be levied, and that the local tax rate must be used to finance school operations. The ballot shall designate a specific number of years for which the referendum authorization applies. The ballot may contain a text with the information required in this subdivision and a question stating substantially the following:

"Shall the increase in the levy proposed by (petition to) the board of ....., Education District No. .., be approved?"

(b) If approved, the amount provided by the approved local tax rate applied to the net tax capacity for the year before the year the levy is certified is authorized for certification for the number of years approved, if applicable, or until revoked or reduced by the voters of the education district at a later referendum.

(c) The education district board shall prepare and deliver by first class mail at least 15 days but no more than 30 days prior to the day of the election to each taxpayer at the address listed on each member district's current year's assessment roll, a notice of the referendum and the proposed levy increase. For the purpose of giving mailed notice under this subdivision, owners shall be those shown to be owners on the records of the county auditor or, in any county where tax statements are mailed by the county treasurer, on the records of the county treasurer. Every property owner whose name does not appear on the records of the county auditor or the county treasurer shall be deemed to have waived this mailed notice unless the owner has requested in writing that the county auditor or county treasurer, as the case may be, include the name on the records for this purpose. The notice must project the anticipated amount of increase in annual dollars and annual percentage for typical residential homesteads, agricultural homesteads, apartments, and commercial-industrial property within the education district.

(d) The notice must include the following statement: "In 1989, the legislature reduced property taxes for education by increasing the state share of funding for education. However, state aid for cities and townships was reduced by a corresponding amount. As a result, property taxes for cities and townships may increase. Passage of this referendum will result in an increase in your property taxes."

(e) A referendum on the question of revoking or reducing the increased levy amount authorized under paragraph (a) may be called by the education district board and must be called by the education district board upon the written petition of qualified voters of the education district. A levy approved by the voters of the education district under paragraph (a) must be made at least once before it is subject to a referendum on its revocation or reduction for subsequent years. Only one election may be held to revoke or reduce a levy for any specific year and for later years.

(f) A petition authorized by paragraph (a) or (e) shall be effective if signed by a number of qualified voters in excess of 15 percent of the average number of voters at the two most recent districtwide school elections in all the member school districts. A referendum invoked by petition must be held on the day specified in paragraph (a).

(g) The approval of 50 percent plus one of those voting on the question is required to pass a referendum.

(h) ~~Within 30~~ At least 15 days ~~after~~ before the referendum, the education district ~~holds a referendum according to this subdivision, the education district~~ shall ~~notify~~ submit a copy of the notice required under paragraph (c) to the commissioner of education ~~of~~. Within 15 days after the results of the referendum have been certified by the education district board, or in the case of a recount, after the certification of the results of the recount by the canvassing board, the education district shall notify the commissioner of education of the results of the referendum.

(i) The department shall allocate the amount certified by the education district board under paragraph (a) or subdivision 1 proportionately among the member districts based on net tax capacity. The member districts shall levy the amount allocated.

(j) Each year, a member district shall transfer referendum revenue to the education district board according to this subdivision. By June 20 and November 30 of each year, an amount must be transferred equal to:

(1) 50 percent times

(2) the amount certified in this subdivision minus homestead and agricultural credit aid allocated for that levy according to section 273.1398, subdivision 6.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124C.03, subdivision 14, is amended to read:

Subd. 14. [GRANT SCHEDULE.] The commissioner of the state planning agency ~~must~~ shall award ~~initial~~ grants ~~by April 1, 1990. Beginning in 1991, grants must be awarded~~ by ~~July~~ September 1 ~~of~~ each year. Grants may be awarded for a period not to exceed 24 months.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 124C.03, subdivision 16, is amended to read:

Subd. 16. [~~REPORTING AND~~ EVALUATION.] The commissioner of the state planning agency shall evaluate the performance of the grantees ~~and report to the legislature by November 15 of~~ each year~~, except that a preliminary report may be submitted by February 15, 1991~~.

~~The four area learning centers designated in 1988 as exemplary shall be subject to the state approval process beginning July 1, 1990.~~

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 125.12, subdivision 6b, is amended to read:

Subd. 6b. [UNREQUESTED LEAVE OF ABSENCE.] The school board may place on unrequested leave of absence, without pay or fringe benefits, as many teachers as may be necessary because of discontinuance of position, lack of pupils, financial limitations, or merger of classes caused by consolidation of districts. The unrequested leave shall be effective at the close of the school year. In placing teachers on unrequested leave, the board shall be governed by the following provisions:

(a) The board may place probationary teachers on unrequested leave first in the inverse order of their employment. No teacher who has acquired continuing contract rights shall be placed on unrequested leave of absence while probationary teachers are retained in positions for which the teacher who has acquired continuing contract rights is licensed;

(b) Teachers who have acquired continuing contract rights shall be placed on unrequested leave of absence in fields in which they are licensed in the inverse order in which they were employed by the school district. In the case of equal seniority, the order in which teachers who have acquired continuing contract rights shall be placed on unrequested leave of absence in fields in which they are licensed shall be negotiable;

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of clause (b), no teacher shall be entitled to exercise any seniority when that exercise results in that teacher being retained by the district in a field for which the teacher holds only a provisional license, as defined by the board of teaching, unless that exercise of seniority results in the placement on unrequested leave of absence of another teacher who also holds a provisional license in the same field. The provisions of this clause shall not apply to vocational education licenses;

(d) Notwithstanding clauses (a), (b) and (c), if the placing of a probationary teacher on unrequested leave before a teacher who has acquired continuing rights, the placing of a teacher who has acquired continuing contract rights on unrequested leave before another teacher who has acquired continuing contract rights but who has greater seniority, or the restriction imposed by the provisions of clause (c) would place the district in violation of its affirmative action program, the district may retain the probationary teacher, the teacher with less seniority, or the provisionally licensed teacher;

(e) Teachers placed on unrequested leave of absence shall be reinstated to the positions from which they have been given leaves of absence or, if not available, to other available positions in the school district in fields in which they are licensed. Reinstatement shall be in the inverse order of placement on leave of absence. No teacher shall be reinstated to a position in a field in which the teacher holds only a provisional license, other than a vocational education license, while another teacher who holds a nonprovisional license in the same field remains on unrequested leave. The order of reinstatement of teachers who have equal seniority and who are placed on unrequested leave in the same school year shall be negotiable;

(f) No appointment of a new teacher shall be made while there is available, on unrequested leave, a teacher who is properly licensed to fill such vacancy, unless the teacher fails to advise the school board within 30 days of the date of notification that a position is available to that teacher who may return to employment and assume the duties of the position to which appointed on a future date determined by the board;

(g) A teacher placed on unrequested leave of absence may engage in teaching or any other occupation during the period of this leave;

(h) The unrequested leave of absence shall not impair the continuing contract rights of a teacher or result in a loss of credit for previous years of service;

~~(i) The unrequested leave of absence of a teacher who is placed on unrequested leave of absence prior to January 1, 1978 and who is not reinstated shall continue for a period of two years after which the right to reinstatement shall terminate. The unrequested leave of absence of a teacher who is placed on unrequested leave of absence on or after January 1, 1978 and who is not reinstated shall continue for a period of five years, after which the right to reinstatement shall terminate; provided the teacher's right to reinstatement shall also terminate if the teacher fails to file with the board by April 1 of any year a written statement requesting reinstatement;~~ or continuing contracts in subdivisions 3 and 4 shall apply to placement on unrequested leave of absence;

~~(j)~~ The same provisions applicable to terminations of probationary

~~(k)~~ (j) Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to impair the rights of teachers placed on unrequested leave of absence to receive unemployment compensation if otherwise eligible.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 125.60, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [REINSTATEMENT.] Except as provided in subdivisions 6a and 6b, a teacher on an extended leave of absence pursuant to this section shall have the right to be reinstated to a position for which the teacher is licensed at the beginning of any school year which immediately follows a year of the extended leave of absence, unless the teacher fails to give the required notice of intention to return or is discharged or placed on unrequested leave of absence or the contract is terminated pursuant to section 125.12 or 125.17 while the teacher is on the extended leave. The board shall not be obligated to reinstate any teacher who is on an extended leave of absence pursuant to this section, unless the teacher advises the board of the intention to return before February 1 in the school year preceding the school year in which the teacher wishes to return or by February 1 in the calendar year in which the leave is scheduled to terminate. ~~The board shall notify the commissioner within 30 days of being notified that a teacher intends to return from an extended leave.~~

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 275.065, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PUBLIC HEARING; ADOPTION OF BUDGET AND LEVY.] Between November 15 and December 20, the governing bodies of the city and county shall each hold a public hearing to adopt its final budget and property tax levy for taxes payable in the following year, and the governing body of the school district shall hold a public hearing to adopt its property tax levy for taxes payable in the following year.

At the hearing, the taxing authority, other than a school district, may amend the proposed budget and property tax levy and must adopt a final budget and property tax levy, and the school district may amend the proposed property tax levy and must adopt a final property tax levy.

The property tax levy certified under section 275.07 by a city, county, or school district must not exceed the proposed levy determined under subdivision 1, except by an amount up to the sum of the following amounts:

(1) the amount of a school district levy whose voters approved a referendum to increase taxes under section 124A.03, subdivision 2, 124B.03, subdivision 2, or 124.82, subdivision 3, after the proposed levy was certified;

(2) the amount of a city or county levy approved by the voters under section 275.58 after the proposed levy was certified;

(3) the amount of a levy to pay principal and interest on bonds issued or approved by the voters under section 475.58 after the proposed levy was certified;

(4) the amount of a levy to pay costs due to a natural disaster occurring after the proposed levy was certified, if that amount is approved by the commissioner of revenue under subdivision 6a;

(5) the amount of a levy to pay tort judgments against a taxing authority that become final after the proposed levy was certified, if the amount is approved by the commissioner of revenue under subdivision 6a; and

(6) the amount of an increase in levy limits certified to the taxing authority by the commissioner of revenue or the commissioner of education after the proposed levy was certified.

At the hearing the percentage increase in property taxes proposed by the taxing authority, if any, and the specific purposes for which property tax revenues are being increased must be discussed. During the discussion, the governing body shall hear comments regarding a proposed increase and explain the reasons for the proposed increase. The public shall be allowed to speak and to ask questions prior to adoption of any measures by the governing body. The governing body, other than the governing body school districts, shall adopt its final property tax levy prior to adopting its final budget.

The hearing must be held after 5:00 p.m. if scheduled on a day other than Saturday. No hearing may be held on a Sunday. The county auditor shall provide for the coordination of hearing dates for all taxing authorities within the county.

By August 1, the county auditor shall notify the clerk of each school district within the county of the dates that the county board has designated for its hearing and any continuation under subdivision 3. By August 15, each school board shall certify to the county auditors of the counties in which the school district is located the dates on which it elects to hold its hearings and any continuations under subdivision 3. If a school board does not certify the dates by August 15, the auditor will assign the hearing date. The dates elected or assigned must not conflict with the county hearing dates. By August 20, the county auditor shall notify the clerks of the cities within the county of the dates on which the county and school districts have elected to hold their hearings. At the time a city certifies its proposed levy under subdivision 1 it shall certify the dates on which it elects to hold its hearings and any continuations under subdivision 3. The city must not select dates that conflict with those elected by or assigned to the counties and school districts in which the city is located.

The hearing dates so elected or assigned must be designated on the notices required under subdivision 3.

This subdivision does not apply to towns and special taxing districts.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 275.125, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

The department of education must allocate the levy amount proportionately among the member districts based on adjusted net tax capacity. The member districts must levy the amount allocated.

(c) Each year, a member district of an education district that levies under this subdivision must transfer the amount of revenue certified under paragraph (b) to the education district board according to this subdivision. By June 20 and November 30 of each year, an amount must be transferred equal to:

(1) 50 percent times

An application for permission to levy under this subdivision must contain financial justification for the proposed levy, the terms and conditions of the proposed lease, and a description of the space to be leased and its proposed use. The criteria for approval of applications to levy under this subdivision must include: the reasonableness of the price, the appropriateness of the space to the proposed activity, the feasibility of transporting pupils to the leased building, conformity of the lease to the laws and rules of the state of Minnesota, and the appropriateness of the proposed lease to the space needs and the financial condition of the district. The commissioner must not authorize a levy under this subdivision in an amount greater than the cost to the district of renting or leasing a building for approved purposes. The proceeds of this levy must not be used ~~for leasing or renting a facility owned by a district or~~ for custodial or other maintenance services. A district may not levy under this subdivision for the purpose of leasing or renting a district-owned building to itself.

Subd. 20. [ESTIMATES.] The computation of levy limitations pursuant to this section and ~~chapter~~ chapters 124, 124A, 124B, 136C, and 136D shall be based on estimates where necessary. If as a result of using estimates for these computations the amount of any levy is different from the amount which could actually have been levied if actual data had been available, levy limitations in the first year when the actual data is known shall be adjusted to reflect for this difference. The amount of any adjustment to levy limitations pursuant to this subdivision shall be recognized as revenue in the school year when the levy for which the levy limitation is so adjusted is recognized as revenue.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 275.16, is amended to read:

275.16 [COUNTY AUDITOR TO FIX AMOUNT OF LEVY.]

If any such municipality shall return to the county auditor a levy greater than permitted by chapters 124, 124A, 124B, 136C, and 136D and sections 275.124 to 275.16, such county auditor shall extend only such amount of taxes as the limitations herein prescribed will permit; provided, if such levy shall include any levy for the payment of bonded indebtedness or judgments, such levies for bonded indebtedness or judgments shall be extended in full, and the remainder of the levies shall be reduced so that the total thereof, including levies for bonds and judgments, shall not exceed such amount as the limitations herein prescribed will permit.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 549.09, is amended to read:

549.09 [INTEREST ON VERDICTS, AWARDS, AND JUDGMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [WHEN OWED; RATE.] (a) When ~~the~~ a judgment or award is for the recovery of money, including a judgment for the recovery of taxes, interest from the time of the verdict, award, or report until judgment is finally entered shall be computed by the court administrator or arbitrator as provided in clause (c) and added to the judgment or award.

(b) Except as otherwise provided by contract or allowed by law, preverdict, preaward, or prereport interest on pecuniary damages shall be computed as provided in clause (c) from the time of the commencement of the action or a demand for arbitration, or the time of a written settlement demand, whichever occurs first, except as provided herein. ~~The action must be commenced within 60 days of a written settlement demand for interest to begin to accrue from the time of the demand.~~ If either party serves a written offer of settlement, the other party may serve a written acceptance or a written counteroffer within ~~60~~ 30 days. After that time interest on the judgment or award shall be calculated by the judge or arbitrator in the following manner. The prevailing party shall receive interest on any judgment or award from the time of commencement of the action ~~was commenced~~ or a demand for arbitration, or the time of a written settlement demand ~~was made~~, or as to special damages from the time when special damages were incurred, if later, until the time of verdict, award, or report only if the amount of its offer is closer to the judgment or award than the amount of the opposing party's offer. If the amount of the losing party's offer was closer to the judgment or award than the prevailing party's offer, the prevailing party shall receive interest only on the amount of the settlement offer or the judgment or award, whichever is less, and only from the time of commencement of the action ~~was commenced~~ or a demand for arbitration, or the time of a written settlement demand ~~was made~~, or as to special damages from when the special damages were incurred, if later, until the time the settlement offer was made. Subsequent offers and counteroffers supersede the legal effect of earlier offers and counteroffers. For the purposes of clause (3), the amount of settlement offer must be allocated between past and future damages in the same proportion as determined by the trier of fact. Except as otherwise provided by contract or allowed by law, preverdict, preaward, or prereport interest shall not be awarded on the following:

(1) judgments, awards, or benefits in workers' compensation cases, but not including third-party actions;

(2) judgments, awards, decrees, or orders in dissolution, annulment, or legal separation actions;

(3) judgments or awards for future damages;

(4) punitive damages, fines, or other damages that are noncompensatory in nature;

(5) judgments or awards not in excess of the amount specified in section 487.30; and

(6) that portion of any verdict, award, or report which is founded upon interest, or costs, disbursements, attorney fees, or other similar items added by the court or arbitrator.

(c) The interest shall be computed as simple interest per annum. The rate of interest shall be based on the secondary market yield of one year United States treasury bills, calculated on a bank discount basis as provided in this section.

On or before the 20th day of December of each year the state court administrator shall determine the rate from the secondary market yield on one year United States treasury bills for the most recent calendar month, reported on a monthly basis in the latest statistical release of the board of governors of the federal reserve system. This yield, rounded to the nearest one percent, shall be the annual interest rate during the succeeding calendar year. The state court administrator shall communicate the interest rates to the court administrators and sheriffs for use in computing the interest on verdicts and shall make the interest rates available to arbitrators.

When a judgment creditor, or the judgment creditor's attorney or agent, has received a payment after entry of judgment, whether the payment is made voluntarily by or on behalf of the judgment debtor, or is collected by legal process other than execution levy where a proper return has been filed with the court administrator, the judgment creditor, or the judgment creditor's attorney, before applying to the court administrator for an execution shall file with the court administrator an affidavit of partial satisfaction. The affidavit must state the dates and amounts of payments made upon the judgment after the most recent affidavit of partial satisfaction filed, if any; the part of each payment that is applied to taxable disbursements and to accrued interest and to the unpaid principal balance of the judgment; and the accrued, but the unpaid interest owing, if any, after application of each payment.

(d) This section does not apply to arbitrations between employers and employees under chapter 179 or interest arbitrations under section 179A.16.

Subd. 2. [ACCRUAL OF INTEREST.] During each calendar year, interest shall accrue on the unpaid balance of the judgment or award from the time that it is entered or made until it is paid, at the annual rate provided in subdivision 1. The court administrator shall compute and add the accrued interest to the total amount to be collected when the execution is issued and compute the amount of daily interest accruing during the calendar year. The person authorized by statute to make the levy shall compute and add interest from the date that the writ of execution was issued to the date of service of the writ of execution and shall direct the daily interest to be computed and added from the date of service until any money is collected as a result of the levy.

Subd. 3. [DEDUCTIONS.] If an affidavit is filed pursuant to subdivision 4, a judgment creditor, or the judgment creditor's attorney or agent, is entitled to deduct from any payment made upon a judgment, whether the payment is made voluntarily by or on behalf of the judgment debtor, or is collected by legal process, all disbursements that are made taxable by statute or by rule of court, that have been paid or incurred by the judgment creditor or the judgment creditor's attorney, after the entry of judgment. Any remaining portion of the payment must be applied to the interest that has accrued upon the unpaid principal balance of the judgment before any remaining part is applied to reduce the unpaid principal balance of the judgment.

Subd. 4. [AFFIDAVIT.] A judgment creditor, or the judgment creditor's attorney, may file an affidavit specifying the nature and amount of taxable disbursements paid or incurred by the judgment creditor, or the judgment creditor's attorney, after the entry of judgment. An execution issued by the court administrator must include increased disbursements as are included in the affidavit filed with the court administrator.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 572.10, is amended to read:

572.10 [APPOINTMENT OF ARBITRATORS ~~BY COURT~~; DISCLOSURE REQUIRED.]

Subdivision 1. [APPOINTMENT BY THE COURT.] If the arbitration agreement provides a method of appointment of arbitrators, this method shall be followed. In the absence thereof, or if the agreed method fails or for any reason cannot be followed, or when an arbitrator appointed fails or is unable to act and a successor has not been duly appointed, the court on application of a party shall appoint one or more arbitrators. An arbitrator so appointed has all the powers of one specifically named in the agreement.

Subd. 2. [DISCLOSURE BY A NEUTRAL ARBITRATOR.] A "neutral arbitrator" is the only arbitrator in a case or is one appointed by all parties together in agreement, by the court, or by the other arbitrators. A neutral arbitrator does not include one selected by fewer than all parties even though no other party objects. Prior to selection, a person being considered for appointment as a neutral arbitrator shall disclose any relationships the person has with any of the parties, their counsel, insurers, or representatives and any conflict of interest, or potential conflict of interest, the person may have. After a neutral arbitrator has been selected, any relationship, conflict of interest, or potential conflict of interest that arises must be immediately disclosed by the arbitrator in writing to all parties, and a party may move the district court or the arbitration tribunal for removal of the neutral arbitrator. The disclosure required herein is in addition to that which may be required by applicable rules of law, ethics, or procedure. If the neutral arbitrator fails to disclose a conflict of interest or material relationship, it shall be grounds for vacating an award for fraud as provided in section 572.19.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 572.15, is amended to read:

572.15 [AWARD.]

(a) The award shall be in writing and signed by the arbitrators joining in the award. The award must include interest as provided in section 549.09 unless the award is issued in connection with an arbitration between an employer and employees under chapter 179 or an interest arbitration under section 179A.16. The arbitrators shall deliver a copy to each party personally or by certified mail, or as provided in the agreement.

(b) An award shall be made within the time fixed therefor by the agreement or, if not so fixed, within such time as the court orders on application of a party. The parties may extend the time in writing either before or after the expiration thereof. A party waives the objection that an award was not made within the time required unless the party notifies the arbitrators of an objection prior to the delivery of the award to the party.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 572.16, is amended to read:

572.16 [CHANGE OF AWARD BY ARBITRATORS.]

Subdivision 1. On application of a party or, if an application to the court is pending under section 572.18, 572.19, or 572.20, on submission to the arbitrators by the court under such conditions as the court may order, the arbitrators may modify or correct the award upon the grounds stated in ~~clauses (1) and (3) of subdivision 1,~~ section 572.20, subdivision 1, clause (1) or (3), or for the purpose of clarifying the award.

Subd. 2. On application of a party, the arbitrator may modify or correct the award where the award is based on an error of law.

Subd. 3. For the purposes of either subdivision 1 or 2, the application shall be made within 20 days after delivery of the award to the applicant. Written notice thereof shall be given forthwith to the opposing party, stating that the opposing party must serve objections thereto, if any, within ten days from the notice. The award so modified or corrected is subject to the provisions of sections 572.18, 572.19 and 572.20.

H. F. No. 655, A bill for an act relating to traffic regulations; establishing maximum height for rear bumpers of certain semitrailers; allowing certain equipment to be excluded from computing the maximum allowable length of a semitrailer or trailer used in a three-vehicle combination; providing an exception to the length limitation on certain vehicle combinations; limiting maximum weight allowed on certain vehicle tires; conforming state highway weight limitations to federal requirements; imposing a cost-per-mile fee on certain overweight vehicles; amending Minnesota Statutes 1990, sections 169.73, subdivision 4a; 169.81, subdivisions 2 and 3; 169.825, subdivisions 8 and 10; and 169.86, subdivision 5.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 169.73, subdivision 4a, is amended to read:

Subd. 4a. [REAR-END PROTECTION FOR OTHER VEHICLES.] (a) Vehicles other than private passenger vehicles, collector vehicles, collector military vehicles, and other vehicles specifically exempted by law from such requirements must meet the rear-end protection requirements of federal motor carrier regulations, Code of Federal Regulations, title 49, section 393.86.

(b) Notwithstanding contrary regulations cited in paragraph (a), a truck-tractor and semitrailer combination with a semitrailer length longer than 50 feet whose frame or body extends more than 36 inches beyond the rear of its rearmost axle must not be operated on the highways of this state unless equipped with a bumper or underride guard on the extreme rear of the frame or body. The bumper or underride guard must:

(1) provide a continuous horizontal beam having a maximum ground clearance of 22 inches, as measured with the vehicle empty and on level ground; and

(2) extend to within four inches of the lateral extremities of the semitrailer on both left and right sides.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 169.81, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LENGTH OF VEHICLES.] (a) No single unit motor vehicle, except mobile cranes which may not exceed 48 feet, unladen or with load may exceed a length of 40 feet extreme overall dimensions inclusive of front and rear bumpers, except that the governing body of a city is authorized by permit to provide for the maximum length of a motor vehicle, or combination of motor vehicles, or the number of vehicles that may be fastened together, and which may be operated upon the streets or highways of a city; provided, that the permit may not prescribe a length less than that permitted by state law. A motor vehicle operated in compliance with the permit on the streets or highways of the city is not in violation of this chapter.

(b) No single semitrailer may have an overall length, exclusive of non-cargo-carrying accessory equipment, including refrigeration units or air compressors, necessary for safe and efficient operation mounted or located on the end of the semitrailer adjacent to the truck or truck-tractor, in excess of 48 feet, except that a single semitrailer may have an overall length in excess of 48 feet but not greater than 53 feet if the distance from the kingpin to the centerline of the rear axle group of the semitrailer does not exceed 41 feet. No single trailer may have an overall length inclusive of tow bar assembly and exclusive of rear protective bumpers which do not increase the overall length by more than six inches, in excess of 45 feet. For determining compliance with the provisions of this subdivision, the length of the semitrailer or trailer must be determined separately from the overall length of the combination of vehicles.

(c) No semitrailer or trailer used in a three-vehicle combination may have an overall length in excess of 28-1/2 feet, exclusive of:

(1) non-cargo-carrying accessory equipment, including refrigeration units or air compressors and upper coupler plates, necessary for safe and efficient operation, mounted or located on the end of the semitrailer or trailer adjacent to the truck or truck-tractor, ~~and further exclusive of~~;

(2) the tow bar assembly, ~~in excess of 28-1/2 feet~~; and

(3) lower coupler equipment that is a fixed part of the rear end of the first trailer.

The commissioner may not grant a permit authorizing the movement, in a three-vehicle combination, of a semitrailer or trailer that exceeds 28-1/2 feet, except that the commissioner may renew a permit that was granted before April 16, 1984, for the movement of a semitrailer or trailer that exceeds the length limitation in this paragraph.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 169.81, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [LENGTH OF VEHICLE COMBINATIONS.] (a) Statewide, except as provided in paragraph (b), no combination of vehicles coupled together, including truck-tractor and semitrailer, may consist of more than two units and no combination of vehicles, unladen or with load, may exceed a total length of 65 feet. The length limitation does not apply to the transportation of telegraph poles, telephone poles, electric light and power poles, piling, or pole length pulpwood, and is subject to the following further exceptions: the length limitations do not apply to vehicles transporting pipe or other objects by a public utility when required for emergency or repair of public service facilities or when operated under special permits as provided in this subdivision, but with respect to night transportation, a vehicle and the load must be equipped with a sufficient number of clearance lamps and marker lamps on both sides and upon the extreme ends of a projecting load to clearly mark the dimensions of the load. Mount combinations may be drawn but the combinations may not exceed 65 feet in length. The limitation on the number of units does not apply to vehicles used for transporting milk from point of production to point of first processing, in which case no combination of vehicles coupled together unladen or with load, including truck-tractor and semitrailers, may consist of more than three units and no combination of those vehicles may exceed a total length of 65 feet. Notwithstanding other provisions of this section, and except as provided in paragraph (b), no combination of vehicles consisting of a truck-tractor and semitrailer designed and used exclusively for the transportation of motor vehicles or boats may exceed 65 feet in length. The load may extend a total of seven feet, but may not extend more than three feet beyond the front or four feet beyond the rear, and in no case may the overall length of the combination of vehicles, unladen or with load, exceed 65 feet. For the purpose of registration, trailers coupled with a truck-tractor, semitrailer combination are semitrailers. The state as to state trunk highways, and a city or town as to roads or streets located within the city or town, may issue permits authorizing the transportation of combinations of vehicles exceeding the limitations in this subdivision over highways, roads, or streets within their boundaries. Combinations of vehicles authorized by this subdivision may be restricted as to the use of highways by the commissioner as to state trunk highways, and a road authority as to highways or streets subject to its jurisdiction. Nothing in this subdivision alters or changes the authority vested in local authorities under the provisions of section 169.04.

(b) The following combination of vehicles regularly engaged in the transportation of commodities may operate only on divided highways having four or more lanes of travel, and on other highways as may be designated by the commissioner of transportation subject to section 169.87, subdivision 1, and subject to the approval of the authority having jurisdiction over the highway, for the purpose of providing reasonable access between the divided highways of four or more lanes of travel and terminals, facilities for food, fuel, repair, and rest, and points of loading and unloading for household goods carriers, livestock carriers, or for the purpose of providing continuity of route:

(1) a truck-tractor and semitrailer exceeding 65 feet in length;

(2) a combination of vehicles with an overall length exceeding 55 feet and including a truck-tractor and semitrailer drawing one additional semitrailer which may be equipped with an auxiliary dolly;

(3) a combination of vehicles with an overall length exceeding 55 feet and including a truck-tractor and semitrailer drawing one full trailer; ~~and~~

(4) a truck-tractor and semitrailer designed and used exclusively for the transportation of motor vehicles or boats and exceeding an overall length of 65 feet including the load except as restricted by applicable federal law.; and

(5) a truck or truck-tractor transporting similar vehicles by having the front axle of the transported vehicle mounted onto the center or rear part of the preceding vehicle, defined in Code of Federal Regulations, title 49, sections 390.5 and 393.5 as drive-away saddlemount combinations or drive-away saddlemount vehicle transporter combinations, when the overall length exceeds 65 feet.

Vehicles operated under the provisions of this section must conform to the standards for those vehicles prescribed by the United States Department of Transportation, Federal Highway Administration, Bureau of Motor Carrier Safety, as amended.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 169.825, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [PNEUMATIC-TIRED VEHICLES.] No vehicle or combination of vehicles equipped with pneumatic tires shall be operated upon the highways of this state:

(a) where the gross weight on any wheel exceeds 9,000 pounds, except that on designated local routes and state trunk highways the gross weight on any single wheel shall not exceed 10,000 pounds;

(b) where the gross weight on any single axle exceeds 18,000 pounds, except that on designated local routes and state trunk highways the gross weight on any single axle shall not exceed 20,000 pounds;

(c) where the maximum wheel load:

(1) on the foremost and rearmost steering axles, exceeds 600 pounds per inch of tire width or the manufacturer's recommended load, whichever is less; or

(2) on other axles on new vehicles manufactured after August 1,

1991, and after August 1, 1996, on other axles on all vehicles, exceeds 500 pounds per inch of tire width or the manufacturer's recommended load, whichever is less;

(d) where the gross weight on any axle of a tridem exceeds 15,000 pounds, except that for vehicles to which an additional axle has been added prior to June 1, 1981, the maximum gross weight on any axle of a tridem may be up to 16,000 pounds provided the gross weight of the tridem combination does not exceed ~~37,000 pounds where the first and third axles of the tridem are spaced seven feet apart; 38,500 pounds where the first and third axles of the tridem are spaced eight feet apart; and~~ 39,900 pounds where the first and third axles of the tridem are spaced nine feet apart~~.~~; or

(e) where the gross weight on any group of axles exceeds the weights permitted under this section with any or all of the interior axles disregarded and their gross weights subtracted from the gross weight of all axles of the group under consideration.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 169.825, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [GROSS WEIGHT SCHEDULE.] (a) No vehicle or combination of vehicles equipped with pneumatic tires shall be operated upon the highways of this state where the total gross weight on any group of two or more consecutive axles of any vehicle or combination of vehicles exceeds that given in the following table for the distance between the centers of the first and last axles of any group of two or more consecutive axles under consideration; unless otherwise noted, the distance between axles being measured longitudinally to the nearest even foot, and when the measurement is a fraction of exactly one-half foot the next largest whole number in feet shall be used, except that when the distance between axles is more than three feet four inches and less than three feet six inches the distance of four feet shall be used:

The gross weights shown in parentheses in this clause are permitted only on state trunk highways and routes designated under section 169.832, subdivision 11.

(b) Notwithstanding any lesser weight in pounds shown in this table but subject to the restrictions on gross vehicle weights in clause (c), two consecutive sets of tandem axles may carry a gross load of 34,000 pounds each and a combined gross load of 68,000 pounds provided the overall distance between the first and last axles of the consecutive sets of tandem axles is 36 feet or more.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 169.85, the gross vehicle weight of all axles of a vehicle or combination of vehicles shall not exceed:

(1) 80,000 pounds for any vehicle or combination of vehicles on all state trunk highways as defined in section 160.02, subdivision 2, and for all routes designated under section 169.832, subdivision 11; and

(2) 73,280 pounds for any vehicle or combination of vehicles with five axles or less on all routes, other than state trunk highways and routes that are designated under section 169.832, subdivision 11; and

(3) 80,000 pounds for any vehicle or combination of vehicles with six or more axles on all routes, other than state trunk highways and routes that are designated under section 169.832, subdivision 11.

(d) ~~The maximum weights specified in this subdivision for five consecutive axles shall not apply to a combination of vehicles that includes a three axle semitrailer first registered before August 1, 1981. All other weight limitations in this section are applicable.~~

~~(e)~~ The maximum weights specified in this subdivision for five consecutive axles shall not apply to a four axle ready mix concrete truck which was equipped with a fifth axle prior to June 1, 1981. The maximum gross weight on four or fewer consecutive axles of vehicles excepted by this clause shall not exceed any maximum weight specified for four or fewer consecutive axles in this subdivision.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 169.86, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [FEES.] The commissioner, with respect to highways under the commissioner's jurisdiction, may charge a fee for each permit issued. All such fees for permits issued by the commissioner of transportation shall be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the trunk highway fund. Except for those annual permits for which the permit fees are specified elsewhere in this chapter, the fees shall be:

(a) $15 for each single trip permit.

(b) $36 for each job permit. A job permit may be issued for like loads carried on a specific route for a period not to exceed two months. "Like loads" means loads of the same product, weight, and dimension.

(c) $60 for an annual permit to be issued for a period not to exceed 12 consecutive months. Annual permits may be issued for:

(1) refuse compactor vehicles that carry a gross weight up to but not in excess of 22,000 pounds on a single rear axle and not in excess of 38,000 pounds on a tandem rear axle;

(2) motor vehicles used to alleviate a temporary crisis adversely affecting the safety or well-being of the public;

(3) motor vehicles which travel on interstate highways and carry loads authorized under subdivision 1a;

(4) motor vehicles operating with gross weights authorized under section 169.825, subdivision 11, paragraph (a), clause (3); and

(5) special pulpwood vehicles described in section 169.863.

(d) $120 for an oversize annual permit to be issued for a period not to exceed 12 consecutive months. Annual permits may be issued for:

(1) mobile cranes;

(2) construction equipment, machinery, and supplies;

(3) manufactured homes;

(4) farm equipment when the movement is not made according to the provisions of section 169.80, subdivision 1, paragraphs (a) to (f);

(5) double-deck buses;

(6) commercial boat hauling.

(e) For vehicles which have axle weights exceeding the weight limitations of section 169.825, an additional cost added to the fees listed above. The additional cost is equal to the product of the distance traveled times the sum of the overweight axle group cost factors shown in the following chart:

Overweight Axle Group Cost Factors

	Cost Per Mile For Each Group Of:
Weight (pounds) exceeding weight limitations on axles	Two consecutive axles spaced within 8 feet or less	Three consecutive axles spaced within 9 feet or less	Four consecutive axles spaced within 14 feet or less
0-2,000	.100	.040	.036
2,001-4,000	.124	.050	.044

4,001-6,000	.150	.062	.050
6,001-8,000	Not permitted	.078	.056
8,001-10,000	Not permitted	.094	.070
10,001-12,000	Not permitted	.116	.078
12,001-14,000	Not permitted	.140	.094
14,001-16,000	Not permitted	.168	.106
16,001-18,000	Not permitted	.200	.128
18,001-20,000	Not permitted	Not permitted	.140
20,001-22,000	Not permitted	Not permitted	.168

The amounts added are rounded to the nearest cent for each axle or axle group. The additional cost does not apply to paragraph (c), clauses (1) and (3).

For a vehicle found to exceed the appropriate maximum permitted weight, a cost-per-mile fee of 22 cents per ton, or fraction of a ton, over the permitted maximum weight is imposed in addition to the normal permit fee. Miles must be calculated based on the distance already traveled in the state plus the distance from the point of detection to a transportation loading site or unloading site within the state or to the point of exit from the state.

(f) As an alternative to paragraph (e), an annual permit may be issued for overweight, or oversize and overweight, construction equipment, machinery, and supplies. The fees for the permit are as follows:

Gross Weight (pounds) of vehicle	Annual Permit Fee
90,000 or less	$200
90,001–100,000	$300
100,001–110,000	$400
110,001–120,000	$500
120,001–130,000	$600
130,001–140,000	$700
140,001–145,000	$800

If the gross weight of the vehicle is more than 145,000 pounds the permit fee is determined under paragraph (e).

(g) For vehicles which exceed the width limitations set forth in section 169.80 by more than 72 inches, an additional cost equal to $120 added to the amount in paragraph (a) when the permit is issued while seasonal load restrictions pursuant to section 169.87 are in effect.

RAILROAD CROSSINGS

Section 1. [RAIL-HIGHWAY CROSSING IMPROVEMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [STATE RAIL CORRIDOR STUDY.] The commissioner of transportation shall conduct a study of railroad crossing safety and improvement in Minnesota.

Subd. 2. [CONTENT OF STUDY.] The rail-highway grade crossing study must include:

(1) a method of determining the relative benefits of grade crossing protection and improvement to the railroad, the road authority, and the public and cost-sharing guidelines;

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENTS.] (a) When any person driving a vehicle approaches a railroad grade crossing under any of the circumstances stated in this paragraph, the driver shall stop the vehicle not less than ten feet from the nearest railroad track and shall not proceed until safe to do so. These requirements apply when:

(1) a clearly visible electric or mechanical signal device warns of the immediate approach of a railroad train;

(2) a crossing gate is lowered warning of the immediate approach or passage of a railroad train; or

(3) an approaching railroad train is plainly visible and is in hazardous proximity.

(b) The fact that a moving train approaching a railroad grade crossing is visible from the crossing is prima facie evidence that it is not safe to proceed.

(c) The driver of a vehicle shall stop and remain standing and not traverse the grade crossing when a human flagger signals the approach or passage of a train. No person may drive a vehicle past a flagger at a railroad crossing until the flagger signals that the way is clear to proceed.

Subd. 1a. [VIOLATION.] A peace officer may arrest the driver of a motor vehicle if the peace officer has probable cause to believe that the driver has operated the vehicle in violation of subdivision 1 within the past four hours.

Subd. 2. [PENALTY.] (a) A ~~person~~ driver who violates ~~this section~~ subdivision 1 is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(b) The owner or, in the case of a leased vehicle, the lessee of a motor vehicle is guilty of a petty misdemeanor if a motor vehicle owned or leased by the person is operated in violation of subdivision 1. This paragraph does not apply to a lessor of a motor vehicle if the lessor keeps a record of the name and address of the lessee. This paragraph does not apply if the motor vehicle operator is prosecuted for violating subdivision 1. A violation of this paragraph does not constitute grounds for revocation or suspension of the owner's or lessee's driver's license.

Subd. 3. [DRIVER TRAINING.] All driver education courses approved by the commissioner of education and the commissioner of public safety must include instruction on railroad-highway grade crossing safety. The commissioner of education and the commissioner of public safety shall by rule provide minimum standards of course content relating to operation of vehicles at railroad and highway grade crossings.

Provided, however, that war veterans operating motor vehicles especially equipped for handicapped persons, shall, if otherwise entitled to a license, be granted such license. The commissioner shall make provision for giving these examinations either in the county where the applicant resides or at a place adjacent thereto reasonably convenient to the applicant.

Sec. 7. [219.384] [REMOVAL OF DANGEROUS OBSTRUCTIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [REMOVAL ORDERED.] If a railroad company, road authority, or abutting property owner fails to control the growth of trees or vegetation or the placement of structures or other obstructions on its right-of-way or property so as to interfere with the safety of the public traveling on a public or private grade crossing, the local governing body of the town or municipality where the grade crossing is located may, by notice, require the obstruction to be removed as necessary to provide an adequate view of oncoming trains at the crossings. The commissioner shall adopt rules establishing minimum standards for visibility at public and private grade crossings.

(f) To promote research and public education in railroad grade crossing safety, in an amount not exceeding one percent of the money in the account in a fiscal year. The commissioner shall use part of the funds available under this paragraph to determine and demonstrate the feasibility and desirability of increasing the visibility of trains at railroad grade crossings including adding reflectorized materials or strobe lights to rail cars. The commissioner shall report to the chairs of the senate and house of representatives committees on transportation on the results of any such demonstration project.

LOCAL HIGHWAY FINANCE

Section 1. [160.82] [RUSTIC ROADS PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [DESIGNATION.] A road authority other than the commissioner may, by resolution, designate a road or highway under its jurisdiction as a rustic road. A rustic road must have the characteristics of outstanding natural features or rustic or scenic beauty; a daily traffic volume of less than 150 vehicles per day; year-round use as a local access road; and maximum allowable speed of 45 miles per hour.

Subd. 2. [LOCAL AUTHORITY.] The road authority has the same authority over rustic roads as over other highways and roads under its jurisdiction. The road authority may designate the type and character of vehicles that may be operated on the rustic road; designate a rustic road or portion of the road as a pedestrian way or bicycle way, or both; and establish priority of right-of-way, paint lines, and construct dividers to physically separate vehicular, bicycle, or pedestrian traffic.

Subd. 3. [JOINT DESIGNATION.] Two or more road authorities may jointly designate a rustic road along a common boundary or into or through their jurisdictions. The road authorities may enter into agreements to divide the costs and responsibility for maintaining the rustic road.

Subd. 4. [COSTS.] A rustic road must be maintained by the road authority having jurisdiction over the road and is not eligible for state-aid funding. State money must not be spent to construct, reconstruct, maintain, or improve a rustic road, except that the commissioner shall pay from the transportation services fund the costs of publishing a map of rustic roads within the state and installing and maintaining signs designating rustic roads.

Sec. 2. [160.83] [STREETS AND HIGHWAYS WITHIN PARKS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITION.] "Park road" means that portion of a street or highway located entirely within the park boundaries of or abutting a city, county, regional, or state park.

Subd. 2. [RESTRICTIONS.] A road authority may not make any changes in the width, grade, or alignment of a park road, other than a county state-aid highway or municipal state-aid street, that would affect the wildlife habitat or aesthetic characteristics of the park road or its adjacent vegetation or terrain, other than changes required to permit the safe travel of vehicles at the speed lawfully designated for that park road. A road authority may not make any changes in the width, grade, or alignment of a park road that is a county state-aid highway or municipal state-aid street that would affect the wildlife habitat or aesthetic characteristics of the park road or its adjacent vegetation or terrain, other than changes required by the minimum state-aid standard applicable to that road.

Subd. 3. [LIABILITY.] A road authority making changes in a park road described in subdivision 1, and its officers and employees, are exempt from liability for any tort claim for injury to persons or property arising from travel on that park road and related to the design of that park road, if the design is adopted to conform to this section, the design complies with the minimum state-aid standards applicable to the road, and the design is not grossly negligent. This subdivision does not preclude an action for damages arising from negligence in the construction, reconstruction, or maintenance of a park road.

Sec. 3. [161.361] [ADVANCE FUNDING FOR TRUNK HIGHWAY PROJECTS.]

Subdivision 1. [ADVANCE FUNDING.] A road authority other than the commissioner may by agreement with the commissioner make advances from any available funds to the commissioner to expedite construction of all or part of a trunk highway within its boundaries. Money may be advanced under this section only for projects already included in the commissioner's highway work program.

Subd. 2. [REPAYMENT.] Subject to the availability of state money, the commissioner shall repay without interest the amount advanced under subdivision 1, up to the state's share of project costs, at the time the project is scheduled for completion in the highway work program. The total amount of annual repayment to road authorities under this section must never exceed the amount stated in the department's debt management policy or $10 million, whichever is less.

Subd. 3. [LOCAL COST SHARING FOR TRUNK HIGHWAY IMPROVEMENTS.] The commissioner may accept gifts, contributions, or grants from a local government body for trunk highway construction, reconstruction, improvement, or maintenance of trunk highways within its boundaries. Money accepted by the commissioner under this subdivision must not adversely affect the scheduling of other trunk highway projects that are not funded in whole or in part by local contributions.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 162.02, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [VARIANCES, RULES AND ENGINEERING STANDARDS.] The commissioner may grant variances from the rules and from the engineering standards developed pursuant to section 162.021 or 162.07, subdivision 2. A political subdivision in which a county state-aid highway is located or is proposed to be located may submit a written request to the commissioner for a variance for that highway. The commissioner shall publish notice of the request in the state register and give notice to all persons known to the commissioner to have an interest in the matter. The commissioner may grant or deny the variance within 30 days of providing notice of the request. If a written objection to the request is received within 20 days of providing notice, the variance shall be granted or denied only after a contested case hearing has been held on the request. If no timely objection is received and the variance is denied without hearing, the political subdivision may request, within 30 days of receiving notice of denial, and shall be granted a contested case hearing. For purposes of this subdivision, with respect to a variance required for a county state-aid highway that is a park road as defined in section 160.83, subdivision 1, "political subdivision" includes (1) an agency of a political subdivision which has jurisdiction over parks, and (2) a regional park agency.

Sec. 5. [162.021] [NATURAL PRESERVATION ROUTES.]

Subdivision 1. [NATURAL PRESERVATION ROUTES ESTABLISHED.] The commissioner shall create within the county state-aid highway system a system of natural preservation routes. The commissioner shall provide for criteria for inclusion in the system and for the adoption of standards for the design of routes on the system.

Subd. 2. [CRITERIA.] The criteria for inclusion on the natural preservation route system must provide for the inclusion in the system of those county state-aid highways that possess unique scenic, environmental, aesthetic, recreational, or historic characteristics that would be harmed by construction or reconstruction using standards applicable to county state-aid highways that are not part of the natural preservation route system.

Subd. 3. [STANDARDS.] The design standards adopted by the commissioner for natural preservation routes must provide for the preservation of the characteristics described in subdivision 2, to the extent consistent with public safety. The standards must provide for minimum width of vehicle recovery areas, minimum slopes, and minimum ditch widths, consistent with anticipated speed and volume of traffic on the highway.

Subd. 4. [DESIGNATION.] The commissioner may designate a county state-aid highway as a natural preservation route only on petition of the governing body of the county having jurisdiction over the road. On receiving a petition for designation the commissioner shall appoint an advisory committee consisting of seven members. An advisory committee must include at least one representative of the department of natural resources or the United States department of agriculture forest service, one county commissioner, one county highway engineer, and one representative of a recognized environmental organization. The advisory committee shall consider the petition for designation and make a recommendation to the commissioner. Following receipt of the committee's recommendation the commissioner may designate the highway as a natural preservation route.

Subd. 5. [SIGNS.] The county having jurisdiction over a natural preservation route must post signs at each entry point to the route informing the public that the highway is a natural preservation route. Signs erected under this subdivision are prima facie evidence of adequate notice to the public that the highway has been designated a natural preservation route.

Subd. 6. [LIABILITY.] When a county state-aid highway has been designated a natural preservation route, constructed in accordance with the standards established by the commissioner under subdivision 1, and signs have been erected as provided in subdivision 5, the state and the county having jurisdiction over the highway, and their officers and employees, are exempt from liability for any tort claim for injury to persons or property arising from travel on the highway and related to the standards for its design, if the design standards comply with the standards established by the commissioner under subdivision 1. This subdivision does not preclude an action for damages arising from negligence in the construction, reconstruction, or maintenance of a natural preservation route.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 162.09, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [VARIANCES, RULES AND ENGINEERING STANDARDS.] The commissioner may grant variances from the rules and from the engineering standards developed pursuant to section 162.13, subdivision 2. A political subdivision in which a municipal state-aid street is located or is proposed to be located may submit a written request to the commissioner for a variance for that street. The commissioner shall publish notice of the request in the state register and give notice to all persons known to the commissioner to have an interest in the matter. The commissioner may grant or deny the variance within 30 days of providing notice of the request. If a written objection to the request is received within 20 days of providing notice, the variance shall be granted or denied only after a contested case hearing has been held on the request. If no timely objection is received and the variance is denied without hearing, the political subdivision may request, within 30 days of receiving notice of denial, and shall be granted a contested case hearing. For purposes of this subdivision, with respect to a variance requested for a municipal state-aid street that is a park road as defined in section 160.83, subdivision 1, "political subdivision" includes (1) an agency of a political subdivision which has jurisdiction over parks, and (2) a regional park authority.

Section 1. [STUDY DIRECTED.]

Subdivision 1. [STUDY DIRECTED.] The transportation study board shall study the feasibility and desirability of authorizing toll transportation facilities in Minnesota.

The study must include:

(1) methods of ensuring that toll facilities are designed, constructed, and maintained in such a manner as to protect the investment in them, and to protect road authorities that eventually assume ownership of them;

(2) methods of protecting local interests, including methods of requiring local approval for establishment and location of toll facilities;

(3) alternative methods of regulating tolls, including regulation by a state agency and regulation by road authorities acting individually or jointly;

(7) relationship between toll facilities and publicly owned facilities planned for the same or comparable transportation corridors.

Subd. 2. [REPORT.] The transportation study board shall submit a report containing its findings and recommendations and draft legislation, should the transportation study board determine that legislation is warranted, to the legislature not later than February 15, 1992.

Sec. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective the day following final enactment.

Subd. 13. [ACCIDENT REPORTS CONFIDENTIAL.] All written reports and supplemental reports required under this section to be provided to the department of public safety shall be without prejudice to the individual so reporting and shall be for the confidential use of the department of public safety and other appropriate state, federal, county, and municipal governmental agencies for accident analysis purposes, except that the department of public safety or any law enforcement department of any municipality or county in this state shall, upon written request of any person involved in an accident or upon written request of the representative of the person's estate, surviving spouse, or one or more surviving next of kin, or a trustee appointed pursuant to section 573.02, disclose to the requester, the requester's legal counsel or a representative of the requester's insurer any information contained therein except the parties' version of the accident as set out in the written report filed by the parties or may disclose identity of a person involved in an accident when the identity is not otherwise known or when the person denies presence at the accident. No report shall be used as evidence in any trial, civil or criminal, arising out of an accident, except that the department of public safety shall furnish upon the demand of any person who has, or claims to have, made a report, or, upon demand of any court, a certificate showing that a specified accident report has or has not been made to the department of public safety solely to prove a compliance or a failure to comply with the requirements that the report be made to the department of public safety. Disclosing any information contained in any accident report, except as provided herein, is unlawful and a misdemeanor.

Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent any person who has made a report pursuant to this chapter from providing information to any persons involved in an accident or their representatives or from testifying in any trial, civil or criminal, arising out of an accident, as to facts within the person's knowledge. When these reports are released for accident analysis purposes the identity of any involved person shall not be revealed. Data contained in these reports shall only be used for accident analysis purposes, except as otherwise provided by this subdivision. Service on the board of a person who is appointed as an elected official may continue only as long as the person holds the office. At least 30 days before the expiration of a term or upon the occurrence of a vacancy, the council shall request nominations for the position from relevant organizations of local elected officials, such as the association of metropolitan municipalities, the metropolitan intercounty association, the association of urban counties, and where applicable, the association of townships. Each relevant organization shall nominate at least two persons for each position. A local governmental unit that is not a member of an organization may submit nominations independently. The council shall make its appointments from the nominations submitted to it to the extent possible consistent with the other requirements of this paragraph and with the appointment of a board that fairly reflects the diverse areas and constituencies affected by transit.~~

(c) The governor shall appoint, in addition to the chair, two persons, one who is age 65 or older at the time of appointment, and one with a disability. These appointments must be made following the procedures of section 15.0597. In addition, at least 30 days before the expiration of a term or upon the occurrence of a vacancy in the office held by a senior citizen or a person with a disability, the governor shall request nominations from organizations of senior citizens and persons with disabilities. Each organization shall nominate at least two persons. The governor shall consider the nominations submitted.

(d) No more than three of the members appointed under paragraphs (b) and (c) may be residents of the same statutory or home rule city or town, and none may be a member of the joint light rail transit advisory committee established under section 473.3991.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 473.399, is amended to read:

473.399 [LIGHT RAIL TRANSIT; REGIONAL PLAN.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL REQUIREMENTS.] (a) The transit board shall adopt a regional light rail transit plan, as provided in this section, to ensure that light rail transit facilities in the metropolitan area will be acquired, developed, owned, and capable of operation in an efficient, cost-effective, and coordinated manner as an integrated and unified system on a multicounty basis in coordination with buses and other transportation modes and facilities. To the extent practicable, the board shall incorporate into its plan appropriate elements of the plans of regional railroad authorities in order to avoid duplication of effort.

(b) The regional plan required by this section must be adopted by the board before any regional railroad authority may begin construction of light rail transit facilities and before any authority is eligible for state financial assistance for constructing light rail transit facilities. Following adoption of the regional plan, each regional railroad authority or other developer of light rail transit in the metropolitan area shall act in conformity with the plan. Each authority or proposer shall prepare or amend its comprehensive plan and preliminary and final design plans as necessary to make the plans consistent with the regional plan.

(c) Throughout the development and implementation of the plan, the board shall contract for or otherwise obtain engineering services to assure that the plan adequately addresses the technical aspects of light rail transit.

(d) The board may periodically review the plan and may make modifications or amendments to the plan.

Subd. 2. [DEVELOPMENT AND FINANCIAL PLAN.] (a) The board shall adopt a regional development and financial plan for light rail transit composed of the following elements:

(1) a staged development plan of light rail transit corridors;

(2) a statement of needs, objectives, and priorities for capital development and service for a prospective ten-year period, considering service needs, ridership projections, and other relevant factors for the various segments of the system, along with a statement of the fiscal implications of these objectives and priorities, and policies and recommendations for long-term capital financing;

(3) a capital investment component for a five-year period following the commencement of construction of facilities, with policies and recommendations for ownership of facilities and for financing capital and operating costs.

(b) For any segments of rail line that may be constructed below the surface elevation, the plan must estimate the additional capital costs, debt service, and subsidy level that are attributable to the below grade construction. The plan must include a method of financing the operation of light rail transit that depends on property tax revenue for no more than 35 percent of the operations cost.

(c) The board shall prepare the initial plan in consultation with its light rail transit advisory committee. The board shall submit the plan and amendments to the plan to the metropolitan council for review and approval or disapproval, for conformity with the council's transportation plan. The council has 90 days to complete its review.

Subd. 3. [COORDINATION PLAN.] (a) The board shall adopt a regional coordination plan for light rail transit. The plan must include:

(1) a method for organizing and coordinating acquisition, construction, ownership, and operation of light rail transit facilities, including in particular, coordination of vehicle specifications, provisions for a single light rail transit operator for the system, and the organization and coordination method required if a turn-key approach to facility acquisition is used by a regional railroad authority;

(2) specifications and standards to ensure joint or coordinated procurement of rights-of-way, track, vehicles, electrification, communications and ticketing facilities, yards and shops, stations, and other facilities that must be or should be operated on a systemwide basis;

(3) systemwide operating and performance specifications and standards;

(4) bus and park-and-ride coordination policies, standards, and plans to assure maximum use of light rail transit and the widest possible access to light rail transit in both urban and suburban areas;

(5) a method for ensuring ongoing coordination of development, design, and operational plans for light rail facilities;

(6) provision for the operation of light rail transit by the metropolitan transit commission; and

(7) other matters that the board deems prudent and necessary to ensure that light rail transit facilities are acquired, developed, owned, and capable of operation in an efficient, cost-effective, and coordinated manner as an integrated and unified system on a multicounty basis in coordination with buses and other transportation modes and facilities.

(b) The joint light rail transit advisory committee shall prepare and recommend the initial plan to the board. The board shall review the plan within 90 days and either adopt it or disapprove it and return it to the committee with the modifications that the board recommends before adoption of the plan. The committee shall take into consideration the board's recommendations and resubmit the plan to the board for review and adoption or disapproval.

(c) The metropolitan council shall review and comment on the plan and amendments to the plan.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 473.3991, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CREATION; PURPOSE.] The transit board shall establish a joint light rail transit advisory committee, to assist the board in planning light rail transit facilities and in coordinating the light rail transit activities of the county regional railroad authorities and the transit commission. The committee shall perform the duties specified in section 473.399 and Laws 1989, chapter 339, section 20, ~~and shall otherwise assist the board upon request of the board~~.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 473.3991, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [TERMINATION.] The committee ceases to exist on the day following final enactment.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 473.3993, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PRELIMINARY DESIGN PLAN.] "Preliminary design plan" means a light rail transit plan that ~~identifies~~ includes:

(1) preliminary plans for the physical design of facilities, at approximately the ten percent engineering level, including location, length, and termini of routes; general dimension, elevation, alignment, and character of routes and crossings; whether the track is elevated, on the surface, or below ground; approximate station locations; and related park and ride, parking, and other transportation facilities; and a plan for handicapped access; and

(2) preliminary plans for intermodal coordination with bus operations and routes; ridership; capital costs; operating costs and revenues; and funding ~~for final design, construction, and operation; and an implementation method~~.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 473.3993, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [PRELIMINARY ENGINEERING PLAN.] "Preliminary engineering plan" means a light rail transit engineering plan that includes plans for the physical design of the facilities at approximately the 30 percent engineering level; a funding plan for final design, construction, and operation; and an implementation method.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 473.3993, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [FINAL DESIGN PLAN.] "Final design plan" means a light rail transit plan that includes the items in the preliminary design and preliminary engineering plan for the facilities proposed for construction, but with greater detail and specificity. The final design plan must include, at a minimum:

(1) final plans for the physical design of facilities, including the right-of-way definition; environmental impacts and mitigation measures; intermodal coordination with bus operations and routes; and civil engineering plans for vehicles, track, stations, parking, and access, including handicapped access; and

(2) final plans for civil engineering for electrification, communication, and other similar facilities; operational rules, procedures, and strategies; capital costs; ridership; operating costs and revenues; financing for construction and operation; an implementation method; and other similar matters.

The final design plan must be stated with sufficient particularity and detail to allow the proposer to begin the acquisition and construction of operable facilities. If a turn-key implementation method is proposed, instead of civil engineering plans the final design plan must state detailed design criteria and performance standards for the facilities.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 473.3994, is amended to read:

473.3994 [LIGHT RAIL TRANSIT; ~~DESIGN~~ FACILITY PLANS.]

Subd. 1a. [PRELIMINARY DESIGN PLANS.] The regional transit board shall establish a procedure for preparing preliminary design plans for light rail transit facilities. The procedure must ensure that preliminary design plans implement the board's regional transit plan and qualify for federal funds in accordance with the board's plan, and that proposals for engineering and construction projects are prepared in a timely and cost-effective manner.

Subd. 2. [PRELIMINARY DESIGN AND ENGINEERING PLANS; PUBLIC HEARING.] ~~Before preparing final design plans for a light rail transit facility, the~~ A political subdivision ~~proposing the~~ that has prepared preliminary design and preliminary engineering plans for a proposed facility must hold a public hearing on the physical design component of the preliminary design plans and the preliminary engineering plans. The proposer must provide appropriate public notice of the hearing and publicity to ensure that affected parties have an opportunity to present their views at the hearing.

Subd. 3. [PRELIMINARY DESIGN AND PRELIMINARY ENGINEERING PLANS; LOCAL APPROVAL.] At least 30 days before the hearing under subdivision 2, the proposer shall submit the ~~physical design component of the preliminary design~~ plans to the governing body of each statutory and home rule charter city, county, and town in which the route is proposed to be located. The city, county, or town shall hold a public hearing, except that a county board need not hold a hearing if the county board membership is identical to the membership of the regional railroad authority submitting the plan for review. Within 45 days after the hearing under subdivision 2, the city, county, or town shall review and approve or disapprove the plans for the route to be located in the city, county, or town. A local unit of government that disapproves the plans shall describe specific amendments to the plans that, if adopted, would cause the local unit to withdraw its disapproval. Failure to approve or disapprove the plans in writing within 45 days after the hearing is deemed to be approval, unless an extension of time is agreed to by the city, county, or town and the proposer.

Subd. 4. [PRELIMINARY DESIGN AND PRELIMINARY ENGINEERING PLANS; REGIONAL TRANSIT BOARD REFERRAL.] If the governing body of one or more cities, counties, or towns disapproves the preliminary design or preliminary engineering plans within the period allowed under subdivision 3, the proposer may refer the plans, along with any comments of local jurisdictions, to the regional transit board. The board shall hold a hearing on the plans, giving the proposer, any disapproving local governmental units, and other persons an opportunity to present their views on the plans. The board may conduct independent study as it deems desirable and may mediate and attempt to resolve disagreements about the plans. Within 90 days after the referral, the board shall review the plans submitted by the proposer and may recommend amended plans to accommodate the objections presented by the disapproving local governmental units.

Subd. 5. [FINAL DESIGN PLANS.] (a) Before beginning construction, the proposer shall submit the physical design component of final design plans to the governing body of each statutory and home rule city, county, and town in which the route is proposed to be located. Within 60 days after the submission of the plans, the city, county, or town shall review and approve or disapprove the plans for the route located in the city, county, or town. A local unit of government that disapproves the plans shall describe specific amendments to the plans that, if adopted, would cause the local unit to withdraw its disapproval. Failure to approve or disapprove the plans in writing within the time period is deemed to be approval, unless an extension is agreed to by the city, county, or town and the proposer.

(b) If the governing body of one or more cities, counties, or towns disapproves the plans within the period allowed under paragraph (a), the proposer may refer the plans, along with any comments of local jurisdictions, to the regional transit board. The board shall review the final design plans under the same procedure and with the same effect as provided in subdivision 4 for preliminary design plans.

Subd. 6. [COUNTY APPROVAL.] The proposer of a light rail transit facility in the metropolitan area ~~must~~ shall submit the preliminary and final design plans for the facility to the governing board of the county in which the route is proposed to be located for approval or disapproval. The proposer of the facility may not proceed with construction of the facility without the approval of the county.

Subd. 7. [COUNCIL REVIEW.] Before proceeding with construction of a light rail transit facility, ~~a regional rail authority established under chapter 398A must~~ the proposer of the facility shall submit preliminary design plans, preliminary engineering plans, and final design plans to the metropolitan council. The council ~~must~~ shall review the plans for consistency with the council's development guide and comment on the plans.

Subd. 8. [METROPOLITAN SIGNIFICANCE.] This section does not diminish or replace the authority of the council under section 473.173.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 473.3996, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PRELIMINARY DESIGN AND ENGINEERING PLANS; BOARD REVIEW.] Before submitting the physical design component of final design plans of a light rail transit facility for local review under section 473.3994, subdivision 5, the proposer shall submit preliminary design and preliminary engineering plans to the regional transit board for review. The board shall review the ~~preliminary design~~ plans to determine the compatibility of the plans with other light rail transit plans and facilities in the metropolitan area, the adequacy of the plans for operation and maintenance of facilities, the adequacy of the plans for handicapped accessibility, and the conformity of the plans with the council's transportation policy plan and the board's regional light rail transit plan prepared under section 473.399. The board shall submit the plans to the metropolitan transit commission for recommendations on specifications and other matters affecting operation and maintenance of facilities. The board shall submit the plans to the council for recommendations on the conformity of the plans with the council's transportation policy plan. The board may comment on any aspect of the plans. The board has 90 days to complete its review, unless an extension of time is agreed to by the proposer. If the board determines that the plans do not satisfy the standards stated in this subdivision, the board shall recommend modifications in the plans that are necessary in order to satisfy the board. After adopting or amending the regional plan required by section 473.399, the board may again review any previously reviewed preliminary design plans and recommend modifications that are necessary to satisfy the board.

Subd. 2. [FINAL DESIGN PLANS; BOARD APPROVAL.] Before acquiring or constructing light rail transit facilities, other than land for right of way, the proposer shall submit final design plans to the regional transit board for review. The board shall review the final design plans under the same procedure and schedule and according to the same standards as provided for its review of preliminary design plans. The board shall either approve the plans, or if it determines that the plans do not satisfy the standards, disapprove the plans, in whole or in part, and recommend modifications in the plans that are necessary to secure approval. A proposer may not proceed with acquisition or construction of a light rail transit facility, other than land for right of way, unless the final design plans for the facility have been approved by the board. ~~Following approval of final design plans by the board, if a regional railroad authority wishes to select a bid or a response to a request for proposal that is more than ten percent higher than the capital costs indicated in the final design plans for the facility, the authority may not proceed with construction until it has resubmitted the final design plans to the transit board for further review and approval or disapproval. The board has ten working days to review and approve or disapprove and recommend modification, unless an extension of time is agreed to by the authority.~~

Sec. 11. [LIGHT RAIL FUNDING.]

If funds are appropriated by the legislature for construction of light rail transit facilities, the funds must be used first for construction of the central corridor in accordance with section 12. A regional rail authority may on its own seek federal funds to design and construct one demonstration light rail facility that does not include a downtown tunnel, and may construct that facility using a combination of federal and county funds as described in the light rail transit regional development plan as approved by the regional transit board.

Sec. 12. [CENTRAL CORRIDOR FACILITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [CONSTRUCTION.] The commissioner of transportation shall review and approve preliminary engineering plans, prepare final design plans, and construct light rail transit facilities in the central corridor. The commissioner shall submit final design plans for review in the manner provided under Minnesota Statutes, sections 473.3994 and 473.3996.

Subd. 2. [TUNNEL.] The commissioner may not construct underground light rail transit facilities, except that the commissioner may enter into agreements providing for underground construction if the additional costs of underground construction are paid by the city or the regional railroad authority in which the facility is located.

Subd. 3. [OWNERSHIP.] By January 1, 1993, the commissioner shall present to the legislature a plan for transferring or sharing ownership in the land and facilities for light rail transit, and providing for maintenance of the facilities. The plan must be prepared in consultation with the regional transit board, the metropolitan transit commission, and affected local government units.

Subd. 4. [REPORT TO BOARD.] The commissioner shall report to the transportation study board on the status of the preliminary engineering plans, including cost estimates, for the central corridor by November 15, 1991.

Sec. 13. [APPLICATION.]

Sections 1 to 12 apply in the counties of Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, and Washington.

Sec. 14. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 4 and 5 are effective July 1, 1991.

TRANSPORTATION STUDIES

Section 1. [161.53] [RESEARCH ACTIVITIES.]

The commissioner may set aside for transportation research in each fiscal year an amount up to one percent of the total amount of all funds appropriated to the commissioner other than county state-aid and municipal state-aid highway funds. The commission shall expend this money for (1) research to improve the design, construction, maintenance, management, and environmental compatibility of transportation systems; (2) research to improve the development of transportation policies with respect to energy efficiency and economic development; (3) programs for implementing and monitoring research results; and (4) developing transportation education and outreach activities. Of all funds appropriated to the commissioner other than state-aid funds, the commissioner shall expend 0.1 percent, but not exceeding $800,000 in any fiscal year, for research and related activities performed by the center for transportation studies of the University of Minnesota. The center shall establish a technology transfer and training center for Minnesota transportation professionals.

Sec. 2. [DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION; CORRIDOR STUDIES.]

Subdivision 1. [FINDING.] The legislature finds that a system of improved highways between regional centers in greater Minnesota and the Twin Cities metropolitan area is needed to promote economic development and to enhance commercial access, personal mobility, and traffic safety in Minnesota. It is therefore in the public interest to provide financing methods that accelerate construction of trunk highways linking regional centers in greater Minnesota with the Twin Cities metropolitan area.

Subd. 2. [STUDY.] The commissioner of transportation shall study and report to the governor and legislature the feasibility and desirability of establishing a comprehensive system of multilane divided highways connecting all regional centers with the Twin Cities metropolitan area. The study must include:

(1) existing highways on corridors between regional centers and the metropolitan area;

(2) improvements to bring all highways in these corridors to expressway standards;

(3) the cost of these improvements;

(4) the role of these improvements in the department of transportation's trunk highway programming priorities; and

The vice-chair must be a house member when the chair is a senate member, and a senate member when the chair is a house member.

Subd. 3. [STAFF.] The board may employ professional, technical, consulting, and clerical services. The board may use legislative staff to provide legal counsel, research, secretarial, and clerical assistance.

Subd. 4. [EXPENSES AND REIMBURSEMENT.] The members of the board may receive per diem when attending meetings and other commission business. Members, employees, and legislative staff must be reimbursed for expenses actually and necessarily incurred in the performance of their duties under the rules governing legislators and legislative employees.

Sec. 4. [3.863] [DUTIES.]

(1) review and participate with the house and senate transportation committees in developing recommendations for state transportation policies;

(2) monitor state transportation programs, expenditures, and activities;

(3) review and participate in the coordination of legislative initiatives that affect state and local transportation agencies; and

(4) propose special studies to the legislature and conduct studies at the direction of the legislature.

Sec. 5. [3.864] [SPECIAL STUDIES.]

Subdivision 1. [STUDIES.] The board shall conduct the studies in subdivisions 2 to 7 by January 1, 1993. The board may request the commissioner of transportation to conduct any of the studies and report to the board and the legislature.

Subd. 2. [HIGHWAY PLANNING PROCESS.] The board shall review the department of transportation's policies and procedures for identifying, evaluating, prioritizing, and implementing trunk highway development projects. The board shall not propose, identify, or otherwise select any specific project or category of projects. The board shall report to the legislature and the commissioner of transportation on the results of the study with recommendations:

(1) to the commissioner of transportation with respect to changes in the department's policies and procedures; and

(2) to the legislature with respect to changes in law governing those policies and procedures.

Subd. 3. [HIGHWAY JURISDICTION.] The board shall conduct a study of the functional classification of all streets and highways in Minnesota. The study shall include:

(1) development of a state jurisdiction plan, which must include:

(i) criteria for determining the functional class of each street and highway in the state;

(ii) identification of the appropriate jurisdiction of each street and highway, based on functional class; and

(iii) criteria for determining when jurisdiction should be based on factors other than functional class;

(2) recommendations for implementing the jurisdiction plan; and

(3) recommendations for changes in law to facilitate future jurisdiction transfers.

The board shall report to the legislature and the commissioner of transportation on the results of the study.

Subd. 4. [LIGHT RAIL TRANSIT.] The board shall review and report to the legislature on any preliminary engineering plans for light rail transit adopted by the commissioner of transportation under article 7.

Subd. 5. [STATE-AID DISTRIBUTION.] The board shall study all unresolved issues relating to distribution of the county state-aid highway fund and the municipal state-aid street fund. These issues may include, but need not be limited to:

(1) formulas for distributing money in these funds;

(5) appropriate levels of state participation in the cost of constructing and maintaining county state-aid highways and municipal state-aid streets.

Subd. 6. [LOCAL PARTICIPATION IN TRUNK HIGHWAY PROJECTS.] The board shall study the appropriate role of local units of government in assisting in the cost of projects to construct or reconstruct trunk highways. The study must include a recommendation of guidelines to govern the extent of that participation and the types of projects for which participation is feasible and desirable.

Subd. 7. [INCREASED USE OF HIGH-OCCUPANCY VEHICLES.] The board shall study the feasibility and desirability of increasing incentives for the use of high-occupancy vehicles such as carpools, vanpools, and transit. The board shall study and evaluate, among other things, each of the following incentives:

(1) tax incentives to employees;

(2) tax incentives and other incentives to employers;

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 473.377, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENT.] The transit board shall prepare, submit to the council, and adopt an implementation plan as provided in section 473.161. The services and systems management component of the board's plan must include a description of the special transportation service provided under section 473.386. The board shall prepare an implementation plan meeting the requirements of this section and submit the plan to the council by August 1, 1986, and thereafter at a time prescribed by the council. Sec. 3. [STUDIES REQUIRED.]

(a) The metropolitan council, in consultation with the board and after consultation with participants in the opt-out transit service program, must conduct a study of the costs of planning, administering and managing transit services in the metropolitan area, including the costs of coordinating and integrating services provided by different transit operators or authorities. The council, in consultation with the board, must direct its staff to examine whether the percentage of property tax revenues raised in communities participating in the program under Minnesota Statutes, section 473.388, which accrues to the board from the tax it levies under Minnesota Statutes, section 473.446, is adequate to finance those communities' prorated share of these costs. The council, in consultation with the board, must make a recommendation to the legislature on the appropriate percentage of property tax revenues to be used to finance these costs.

(b) The council, in consultation with the board and after consultation with participants in the opt-out transit service program, must conduct a study of the interaction between the funding mechanisms of the program under Minnesota Statutes, section 473.388, and the reductions of levied taxes made pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 473.446, subdivision 1. The council, in consultation with the board, must direct its staff to study the interaction of these provisions, including the effect of the interaction on the financing of transit services in the metropolitan area.

CONSERVATION IMPROVEMENT PROGRAMS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 216B.16, subdivision 6b, is amended to read:

Subd. 6b. [ENERGY CONSERVATION IMPROVEMENTS.] All investments and expenses of a public utility as defined in section 216B.241, subdivision ~~(1),~~ ~~clause (c)~~ 1, paragraph (d), incurred in connection with energy conservation improvements shall be recognized and included by the commission in the determination of just and reasonable rates as if the investments and expenses were directly made or incurred by the utility in furnishing utility service.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 216B.241, is amended to read:

216B.241 [ENERGY CONSERVATION IMPROVEMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, the terms defined in this subdivision ~~shall~~ have the meanings given them:

(a) "Commission" means the public utilities commission~~, department of public service~~;.

(b) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of public service.

(c) "Department" means the department of public service~~;~~.

~~(c)~~ (d) "Energy conservation improvement" means the purchase or installation of ~~any~~ a device, method, or material that reduces consumption of or increases ~~the~~ efficiency in the use of electricity or natural gas, including, but not limited to:

(1) insulation and ventilation;

(2) storm or thermal doors or windows;

(3) caulking and weatherstripping;

(4) furnace efficiency modifications;

(5) thermostat or lighting controls;

(6) awnings; or

(7) systems to turn off or vary the delivery of energy. The term "energy conservation improvement" includes ~~any~~ a device or method ~~which~~ that creates, converts, or actively uses energy from renewable sources such as solar, wind, and biomass, ~~providing such~~ provided that the device or method conforms with national or state performance and quality standards whenever applicable.

~~(d)~~ (e) "Investments and expenses of a public utility" includes the investments and expenses incurred by a public utility in connection with an energy conservation improvement including, but not limited to:

(1) the differential in interest cost between the market rate and the rate charged on a no interest or below market interest loan made by a public utility to a customer for the purchase or installation of an energy conservation improvement;

(2) the difference between the utility's cost of purchase or installation of energy conservation improvements and any price charged by a public utility to a customer for such improvements.

~~(e) "Public utility" has the same meaning as given that term in section 216B.02, subdivision 4. For the purposes of this section, "public utility" shall not include cooperative electric associations that become subject to rate regulation after April 16, 1980.~~

Subd. 1a. [INVESTMENTS, EXPENDITURES, AND CONTRIBUTIONS; REGULATED UTILITIES.] (a) For purposes of this subdivision and subdivision 2, "public utility" has the meaning given it in section 216B.02, subdivision 4. By December 31, 1995, each public utility shall spend and invest for energy conservation improvements under this subdivision and subdivision 2 the following amounts:

(1) for a utility that furnishes gas service, .5 percent of its gross operating revenues from service provided in the state; and

(2) for a utility that furnishes electric service, 1.5 percent of its gross operating revenues from service provided in the state.

(b) To reach the amounts required under this subdivision, each public utility shall compute its spending and investment required above based on its 1991 gross revenues, subtract the amount spent and invested for energy conservation improvements in 1991, and increase spending investment by one-fourth of the difference in each year beginning in 1992 and ending December 31, 1995. After December 31, 1995, each public utility shall compute the required amount for conservation improvement under this subdivision based on the previous year's gross operating revenues.

(c) The commissioner may require investments or spending greater than the amounts required under this subdivision for a public utility whose most recent advance forecast required under section 116C.54 projects a peak demand deficit of 100 megawatts or greater within five years under mid-range forecast assumptions. A public utility may appeal a decision of the commissioner under this paragraph to the commission under subdivision 2. In reviewing a decision of the commissioner under this paragraph, the commission shall rescind the decision if it finds that the required investments or spending will:

(1) not result in cost-effective programs;

(2) have a long-range negative financial effect on one or more classes of customers; or

(3) otherwise not be in the public interest.

(d) Each utility shall determine what portion of the amount it sets aside for conservation improvement will be used for conservation improvements under subdivision 2 and what portion it will contribute to the energy and conservation account established in subdivision 2a. Contributions must be remitted to the commissioner of revenue by February 1 of each year beginning in 1993. Nothing in this subdivision prohibits a public utility from spending or investing for energy conservation improvement more than required in this subdivision.

Subd. 1b. [CONSERVATION IMPROVEMENT; COOPERATIVES; MUNICIPALITIES.] (a) This subdivision applies to:

(1) a cooperative electric association that generates and transmits electricity to associations that provide electricity at retail including a cooperative electric association not located in this state that serves associations or others in the state;

(2) a municipality that provides electric service to retail customers and that purchases 85 percent or less of its electricity from a public utility governed by subdivision 1a or a cooperative electric association governed by this subdivision; and

(3) a municipality with gross operating revenues in excess of $5,000,000 from sales of natural gas to retail customers.

(b) By December 31, 1995, each cooperative electric association and municipality subject to this subdivision shall spend and invest for energy conservation improvements under this subdivision the following amounts:

(1) for a municipality, .5 percent of its gross operating revenues from the sale of gas and one percent of its gross operating revenues from the sale of electricity; and

(2) for a cooperative electric association, 1.5 percent of its gross operating revenues from service provided in the state.

(c) To reach the amounts required under this subdivision, each municipality or cooperative shall compute its spending and investment required in paragraph (b) based on its 1991 gross revenues, subtract the amount spent and invested for energy conservation improvements in 1991, and increase spending and investment by one-fourth of the difference in each year beginning in 1992 and ending December 31, 1995. After December 31, 1995, each municipality shall compute the amount for conservation improvement under this subdivision based on the previous year's gross operating revenues.

(d) Each municipality and cooperative association subject to this subdivision shall identify and implement energy conservation improvement spending and investments that are appropriate for the municipality or association. Load management may be used to meet the requirements of this subdivision if it reduces the demand for or increases the efficiency of electric services. A generation and transmission cooperative electric association may include as spending and investment required under this subdivision conservation improvement spending and investment by cooperative electric associations that provide electric service at retail to consumers and that are served by the generation and transmission association. Starting in 1992, by February 1 of each year, each municipality or cooperative shall report to the commissioner its energy conservation improvement spending and investments with a brief analysis of effectiveness in reducing consumption of electricity or gas. The commissioner shall review each report and make recommendations, where appropriate, to the municipality or association to increase the effectiveness of conservation improvement activities.

(e) As part of its spending for conservation improvement, a municipality or association may contribute to the energy and conservation account. Any amount contributed must be remitted to the commissioner of revenue by February 1 of each year beginning in 1992.

Subd. 2. [PROGRAMS.] The ~~department~~ commissioner may by rule require public utilities to make investments and expenditures in energy conservation improvements, explicitly setting forth the interest rates, prices, and terms under which the improvements must be offered to the customers. The required programs must cover a two-year period. The ~~department~~ commissioner shall require at least one public utility to establish a pilot program to make investments in and expenditures for energy from renewable resources such as solar, wind, or biomass and shall give special consideration and encouragement to programs that bring about significant net savings through the use of energy-efficient lighting. The ~~department~~ commissioner shall evaluate the program on the basis of cost-effectiveness and the reliability of technologies employed. The rules of the department must provide to the extent practicable for a free choice, by consumers participating in the program, of the device, method, or material constituting the energy conservation improvement and for a free choice of the seller, installer, or contractor of the energy conservation improvement, provided that the device, method, material, seller, installer, or contractor is duly licensed, certified, approved, or qualified, including under the residential conservation services program, where applicable. The ~~department~~ commissioner may require a utility to make an energy conservation improvement investment or expenditure whenever the ~~department~~ commissioner finds that the improvement will result in energy savings at a total cost to the utility less than the cost to the utility to produce or purchase an equivalent amount of new supply of energy. The ~~department~~ commissioner shall nevertheless ensure that every public utility operate one or more programs~~,~~ under periodic review by the department~~, that make significant investments in and expenditures for energy conservation improvements~~. Load management may be used to meet the requirements for energy conservation improvements under this section if it results in a demonstrable reduction in consumption of energy. The ~~department~~ commissioner shall consider and may require a utility to undertake a program suggested by an outside source, including a political subdivision or a nonprofit or community organization. ~~The department shall ensure that at least half the money spent on residential programs is devoted to programs that directly address the needs of renters and low-income families and individuals unless an insufficient number of appropriate programs are available. For purposes of this section, "low income" means an income less than 185 percent of the federal poverty level. Investments and expenditures made under this subdivision must be treated for ratemaking purposes in the manner prescribed in section 216B.16, subdivision 6b.~~ No utility ~~shall~~ may make an energy conservation improvement ~~pursuant to~~ under this section to a building envelope unless:

(1) it is the primary supplier of energy used for either space heating or cooling in the building ~~or unless~~;

(2) the ~~department~~ commissioner determines that special circumstances, which would unduly restrict the availability of conservation programs, warrant otherwise; or

(3) the utility has been awarded a contract under subdivision 2a.

A utility, a political subdivision, or a nonprofit or community organization that has suggested a program, or the attorney general acting on behalf of consumers and small business interests, may petition the commission to modify or revoke a department decision ~~to require a program~~ under this ~~subdivision~~ section, and the commission may do so if it determines that the program is ~~ineffective, does not adequately address the needs of renters and low-income families and individuals~~ not cost effective, has a long-range negative effect on one or more classes of customers, or is otherwise not in the public interest. The person petitioning for commission review has the burden of proof. The commission shall reject a petition that, on its face, fails to make a reasonable argument that a program is not in the public interest.

Subd. 2a. [ENERGY AND CONSERVATION ACCOUNT.] The commissioner shall deposit money contributed under subdivisions 1a and 1b in the energy and conservation account in the general fund. Money in the account is appropriated to the department for programs designed to meet the energy conservation needs of low-income persons and to make energy conservation improvements in areas not adequately served under subdivision 2. Interest on money in the account accrues to the account. Using information collected under section 216C.02, subdivision 1, paragraph (b), the commissioner shall, to the extent possible, allocate enough money to programs for low-income persons to assure that their needs are being adequately addressed. The commissioner shall request the commissioner of revenue to transfer money from the account to the commissioner of jobs and training for an energy conservation program for low-income persons. In establishing programs, the commissioner shall consult political subdivisions and nonprofit and community organizations, especially organizations engaged in providing energy and weatherization assistance to low-income persons. At least one program must address the need for energy conservation improvements in areas in which a high percentage of residents use fuel oil or propane to fuel their source of home heating. The commissioner may contract with a political subdivision, a nonprofit or community organization, a public utility, a municipality, or a cooperative electric association to implement its programs.

Subd. 2b. [RECOVERY OF EXPENSES; TAXES.] The commission shall allow a utility to recover expenses resulting from a conservation improvement program required by the department and contributions to the energy and conservation account, unless the recovery would be inconsistent with a financial incentive proposal approved by the commission. In addition, a utility may file annually, or the public utilities commission may require the utility to file, and the commission may approve, rate schedules containing provisions for the automatic adjustment of charges for utility service in direct relation to changes in the expenses of the utility for real and personal property taxes, fees, and permits, the amounts of which the utility cannot control. A public utility is eligible to file for adjustment for real and personal property taxes, fees, and permits under this subdivision only if, in the year previous to the year in which it files for adjustment, it has spent or invested at least two percent of its gross revenues from provision of electric service and one percent of its gross revenues from provision of gas service for that year for energy conservation improvements under section 216B.241.

Subd. 3. [OWNERSHIP OF ENERGY CONSERVATION IMPROVEMENTS.] ~~Any~~ An energy conservation improvement made to or installed in ~~any~~ a building ~~pursuant to~~ in accordance with this section, except systems owned by the utility and designed to turn off, limit, or vary the delivery of energy, ~~shall be~~ are the exclusive property of the owner of the building except ~~insofar as it~~ to the extent that the improvement is subjected to a security interest in favor of the utility in case of a loan to the building owner. The utility ~~shall have~~ has no liability for loss, damage or injury caused directly or indirectly by ~~any~~ an energy conservation improvement except for negligence by the utility in purchase, installation, or modification of the product.

Subd. 4. [FEDERAL LAW PROHIBITIONS.] If investments by public utilities in energy conservation improvements are in any manner prohibited or restricted by federal law and there is a provision under which ~~such~~ the prohibition or restriction may be waived, then the commission, the governor, or any other necessary state agency or officer shall take all necessary and appropriate steps to secure a waiver with respect to those public utility investments in energy conservation improvements included in this section.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 216C.02, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [POWERS.] (a) The commissioner may:

(1) apply for, receive, and spend money received from federal, municipal, county, regional, and other government agencies and private sources;

(2) apply for, accept, and disburse grants and other aids from public and private sources;

(3) contract for professional services if work or services required or authorized to be carried out by the commissioner cannot be satisfactorily performed by employees of the department or by another state agency;

(4) enter into interstate compacts to carry out research and planning jointly with other states or the federal government when appropriate;

(5) upon reasonable request, distribute informational material at no cost to the public; and

(6) enter into contracts for the performance of the commissioner's duties with federal, state, regional, metropolitan, local, and other agencies or units of government and educational institutions, including the University of Minnesota, without regard to the competitive bidding requirements of chapters 16A and 16B.

(b) The commissioner shall collect information on conservation and other energy-related programs carried on by other agencies, by public utilities, by cooperative electric associations, by municipal power agencies, by other fuel suppliers, by political subdivisions, and by private organizations. Other agencies, cooperative electric associations, municipal power agencies, and political subdivisions shall cooperate with the commissioner by providing information requested by the commissioner. The commissioner may by rule require the submission of information by other program operators. The commissioner shall make the information available to other agencies and to the public and, as necessary, shall recommend to the legislature changes in the laws governing conservation and other energy-related programs to ensure that:

(1) expenditures on the programs are adequate to meet identified needs;

(2) the needs of low-income energy users are being adequately addressed;

(3) duplication of effort is avoided or eliminated;

(4) a program that is ineffective is improved or eliminated; and

(5) voluntary efforts are encouraged through incentives for their operators.

The commissioner shall appoint an advisory task force to help evaluate the information collected and formulate recommendations to the legislature. The task force must include low-income energy users ~~as defined in section 216B.241, subdivision 2~~.

(c) By January 15 of each year, the commissioner shall report to the legislature on the projected amount of federal money likely to be available to the state during the next fiscal year, including grant money and money received by the state as a result of litigation or settlements of alleged violations of federal petroleum pricing regulations. The report must also estimate the amount of money projected as needed during the next fiscal year to finance a level of conservation and other energy-related programs adequate to meet projected needs, particularly the needs of low-income persons and households, and must recommend the amount of state appropriations needed to cover the difference between the projected availability of federal money and the projected needs.

Sec. 4. [REPORT; "CIP" PROGRAMS FOR STORED FUELS PROVIDERS.]

Not later than February 1, 1992, the commissioner of public service shall report to the energy policy committees of the senate and the house of representatives on proposals to include in conservation improvement programs providers of liquified petroleum gas (LPG or "propane") and fuel oil for residential heating.

Sec. 5. [216C.195] [ENERGY CODE AMENDMENTS; COMMERCIAL BUILDINGS.]

Subdivision 1. [COMMISSIONER TO ADOPT.] Not later than September 1, 1992, the commissioner of public service shall adopt amendments to the energy code portion of the Minnesota building code to implement energy-efficient standards for new commercial buildings.

Subd. 2. [ADOPTION OF ASHRAE/IES 90.1 STANDARD.] The standards adopted under subdivision 1 must require energy efficiency at least as stringent as:

(1) the "minimum performance" standards for opaque building envelopes; and

(2) the January 1, 1992, standards for heating, ventilating and air conditioning, and water heating as proposed in ASHRAE/IES standard 90.1.

Subd. 3. [LIGHTING STANDARDS.] The standards adopted under subdivision 1 must be at least as stringent as lighting standards for new federal buildings (for 1993) in Code of Federal Regulations, title 10, section 435.103.

ARTICLE 2

COLD WEATHER RULE

Section 1. [216B.097] [COLD WEATHER RULE, COOPERATIVE AND MUNICIPAL UTILITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION; NOTICE TO RESIDENTIAL CUSTOMERS.] (a) A municipal utility or a cooperative electric association must not disconnect the utility service of a residential customer if the disconnection affects the primary heat source for the residential unit when the following conditions are met:

(1) the disconnection would occur during the period between October 15 and April 15;

(2) the customer has declared inability to pay on forms provided by the utility;

(3) the household income of the customer is less than 185 percent of the federal poverty level, as documented by the customer to the utility; and

(4) the customer's account is current for the billing period immediately prior to October 15 or the customer has entered into a payment schedule and is reasonably current with payments under the schedule.

(b) A municipal utility or a cooperative electric association must, between August 15 and October 15 of each year, notify all residential customers of the provisions of this section.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE TO RESIDENTIAL CUSTOMER FACING DISCONNECTION.] Before disconnecting service to a residential customer during the period between October 15 and April 15, a municipal utility or cooperative electric association must provide the following information to a customer:

(1) a notice of proposed disconnection;

(2) a statement explaining the customer's rights and responsibilities;

(3) a list of local energy assistance providers;

(4) forms on which to declare inability to pay; and

(5) a statement explaining available time payment plans and other opportunities to secure continued utility service.

Subd. 3. [RESTRICTIONS IF DISCONNECTION NECESSARY.] (a) If a residential customer must be involuntarily disconnected between October 15 and April 15 for failure to comply with the provisions of subdivision 1, the disconnection must not occur on a Friday or on the day before a holiday. Further, the disconnection must not occur until at least 20 days after the notice required in subdivision 2 has been mailed to the customer or 15 days after the notice has been personally delivered to the customer.

(b) If a customer does not respond to a disconnection notice, the customer must not be disconnected until the utility investigates whether the residential unit is actually occupied. If the unit is found to be occupied, the utility must immediately inform the occupant of the provisions of this section. If the unit is unoccupied, the utility must give seven days' written notice of the proposed disconnection to the local energy assistance provider before making a disconnection.

(c) If, prior to disconnection, a customer appeals a notice of involuntary disconnection, as provided by the utility's established appeal procedure, the utility must not disconnect until the appeal is resolved.

ARTICLE 3

ENERGY-EFFICIENT EXIT LIGHTING

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 16B.61, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS.] (a) [SPACE FOR COMMUTER VANS.] The code must require that any parking ramp or other parking facility constructed in accordance with the code include an appropriate number of spaces suitable for the parking of motor vehicles having a capacity of seven to 16 persons and which are principally used to provide prearranged commuter transportation of employees to or from their place of employment or to or from a transit stop authorized by a local transit authority.

(b) [SMOKE DETECTION DEVICES.] The code must require that all dwellings, lodging houses, apartment houses, and hotels as defined in section 299F.362 comply with the provisions of section 299F.362.

(c) [DOORS IN NURSING HOMES AND HOSPITALS.] The state building code may not require that each door entering a sleeping or patient's room from a corridor in a nursing home or hospital with an approved complete standard automatic fire extinguishing system be constructed or maintained as self-closing or automatically closing.

(d) [CHILD CARE FACILITIES IN CHURCHES.] A licensed day care center serving fewer than 30 preschool age persons and which is located in a below ground space in a church building is exempt from the state building code requirement for a ground level exit when the center has more than two stairways to the ground level and its exit.

(e) [FAMILY AND GROUP FAMILY DAY CARE.] The commissioner of administration shall establish a task force to determine occupancy standards specific and appropriate to family and group family day care homes and to examine hindrances to establishing day care facilities in rural Minnesota. The task force must include representatives from rural and urban building code inspectors, rural and urban fire code inspectors, rural and urban county day care licensing units, rural and urban family and group family day care providers and consumers, child care advocacy groups, and the departments of administration, human services, and public safety.

By January 1, 1989, the commissioner of administration shall report the task force findings and recommendations to the appropriate legislative committees together with proposals for legislative action on the recommendations.

Until the legislature enacts legislation specifying appropriate standards, the definition of Group R-3 occupancies in the state building code applies to family and group family day care homes licensed by the department of human services under Minnesota Rules, chapter 9502.

(f) [MINED UNDERGROUND SPACE.] Nothing in the state building codes shall prevent cities from adopting rules governing the excavation, construction, reconstruction, alteration, and repair of mined underground space pursuant to sections 469.135 to 469.141, or of associated facilities in the space once the space has been created, provided the intent of the building code to establish reasonable safeguards for health, safety, welfare, comfort, and security is maintained.

(g) [ENCLOSED STAIRWAYS.] No provision of the code or any appendix chapter of the code may require stairways of existing multiple dwelling buildings of two stories or less to be enclosed.

(h) [DOUBLE CYLINDER DEAD BOLT LOCKS.] No provision of the code or appendix chapter of the code may prohibit double cylinder dead bolt locks in existing single-family homes, townhouses, and first floor duplexes used exclusively as a residential dwelling. Any recommendation or promotion of double cylinder dead bolt locks must include a warning about their potential fire danger and procedures to minimize the danger.

(i) [RELOCATED RESIDENTIAL BUILDINGS.] A residential building relocated within or into a political subdivision of the state need not comply with the state energy code or section 326.371 provided that, where available, an energy audit is conducted on the relocated building.

(j) [AUTOMATIC GARAGE DOOR OPENING SYSTEMS.] The code must require all residential buildings as defined in section 325F.82 to comply with the provisions of sections 325F.82 and 325F.83.

(k) [EXIT SIGN ILLUMINATION.] The code must prohibit the use of incandescent bulbs in internally illuminated exit signs.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 299F.011, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4c. [EXIT SIGN ILLUMINATION.] The uniform fire code must prohibit the use of incandescent bulbs in internally illuminated exit signs.

Sec. 3. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 and 2 are effective January 1, 1994, and apply to all internally illuminated exit signs in use on or after that date.

ARTICLE 4

CERTIFICATE OF NEED PROCESS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 216B.243, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [USE OF RENEWABLE RESOURCES.] The commission may not issue a certificate of need under this section for a large energy facility that generates electric power by means of a nonrenewable energy source, or that transmits electric power generated by means of a nonrenewable energy source, unless the applicant for the certificate has demonstrated to the commission's satisfaction that the generation of power to meet the identified need by means of a renewable energy source is not efficient, economical, or reliable. For purposes of this subdivision, "renewable energy source" includes hydro, wind, solar, and geothermal energy and the use of trees or other vegetation as fuel.

ARTICLE 5

ENERGY CONSERVATION: BUILDINGS

16B.32 [~~ALTERNATIVE~~ ENERGY ~~SOURCES~~ USE.]

Subdivision 1. [ALTERNATIVE ENERGY SOURCES.] Plans prepared by the commissioner for a new building or for a renovation of 50 percent or more of an existing building or its energy systems must include designs which use active and passive solar energy systems, earth sheltered construction, and other alternative energy sources where feasible.

Subd. 2. [ENERGY CONSERVATION GOALS.] (a) The commissioner shall apply energy conservation measures to buildings owned and wholly leased by the state, including the state university system, and shall improve the design for the construction or rehabilitation of state buildings and the standards for lease renewals so that the average statewide BTU energy consumption for each gross square foot of state-owned and wholly state-leased buildings during the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1994, is at least 25 percent less than the BTU energy consumption and at least 15 percent less than the fuel energy consumption for each gross square foot of state-owned and wholly state-leased buildings in the fiscal year that began July 1, 1985.

(b) The commissioner may exclude from the requirements of paragraph (a) a building in which energy conservation measures are carried out. "Energy conservation measures" means measures that are applied to a state building that improve energy efficiency and have a simple return of investment in five years or within the remaining period of a lease, whichever time is shorter, and involves energy conservation, conservation facilities, renewable energy sources, improvements in operations and maintenance efficiencies, or retrofit activities.

(c) By January 1, 1993, the commissioner shall submit to the legislature a report that includes:

(1) an energy use survey of new or added space state buildings occupy;

(2) a plan for conserving energy without undertaking any physical alterations of the space;

(3) recommendations for physical alterations that would enable the agency to conserve additional energy along with an estimate of the cost of the alterations; and

(4) recommendations for additional legislation needed to achieve the goal along with an estimate of any costs associated with the recommended legislation.

Sec. 2. [BUILDING CODE REVIEW.]

The commissioner of public service, in cooperation with the commissioner of administration, shall review the state building code and the energy conservation standards for public buildings in view of the state's projected long-range energy needs, the effect of conservation programs on those needs, and advances in technology with respect to weatherization and energy efficiency. The commissioner shall report to the energy and public utilities committee of the senate and the energy committee of the house of representatives by January 15, 1992, on the results of the review. The report must include:

(1) any recommendations for changes in the building code and the energy conservation standards to achieve greater conservation of energy;

(2) the direct effect of implementing the changes on the cost of construction and remodeling; and

(3) an estimate of energy savings that would result in the changes, including an estimate of net costs when savings are deducted from any increased construction and remodeling costs.

Sec. 3. [APPROPRIATION.]

$..... is appropriated to the commissioner of administration for purposes of section 1 and is available until January 1, 1993.

Sec. 4. [REPEALER.]

Section 1, subdivision 2, is repealed effective July 1, 1995.

Sec. 5. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective May 1, 1991.

ARTICLE 6

FINANCIAL INCENTIVES

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 216B.16, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6c. [INCENTIVE PLANS FOR ENERGY CONSERVATION IMPROVEMENTS.] (a) The commission may order public utilities to develop and submit for commission approval incentive plans that describe the method of recovery and accounting for utility conservation expenditures and savings. In developing the incentive plans the commission shall ensure the effective involvement of interested parties.

In approving incentive plans, the commission shall consider:

(1) whether the plan is likely to increase utility investment in cost-effective energy conservation;

(2) whether the plan is compatible with the interest of utility ratepayers and other interested parties;

(3) whether the plan links the incentive to the utility's performance in achieving cost-effective conservation; and

(4) whether the plan is in conflict with other provisions of this chapter.

(b) The commission may set rates to encourage the vigorous and effective implementation of utility conservation programs. The commission may:

(1) increase or decrease any otherwise allowed rate of return on net investment based upon the utility's skill, efforts, and success in conserving energy;

(2) share between ratepayers and utilities the net savings resulting from energy conservation programs to the extent justified by the utility's skill, efforts, and success in conserving energy; and

(3) compensate the utility for earnings lost as a result of its conservation programs.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 216B.243, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. No proposed large energy facility shall be certified for construction unless the applicant can show that demand for electricity cannot be met more cost effectively through energy conservation and load-management measures and unless the applicant has otherwise justified its need. In assessing need, the commission shall evaluate:

(1) The accuracy of the long-range energy demand forecasts on which the necessity for the facility is based;

(2) The effect of existing or possible energy conservation programs under sections 216C.05 to 216C.30 and this section or other federal or state legislation on long-term energy demand;

(3) The relationship of the proposed facility to overall state energy needs, as described in the most recent state energy policy and conservation report prepared ~~pursuant to~~ under section 216C.18;

(4) Promotional activities ~~which~~ that may have given rise to the demand for this facility;

(5) Socially beneficial uses of the output of this facility, including its uses to protect or enhance environmental quality;

(6) The effects of the facility in inducing future development;

(7) Possible alternatives for satisfying the energy demand including but not limited to potential for increased efficiency of existing energy generation facilities;

(8) The policies, rules, and regulations of other state and federal agencies and local governments; and

(9) Any feasible combination of energy conservation improvements, required ~~by the commission pursuant to~~ under section 216B.241, that can ~~(a)~~ (i) replace part or all of the energy to be provided by the proposed facility, and ~~(b)~~ (ii) compete with it economically."

PAYMENT RATES FOR HOSPITALS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256.9685, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY.] The commissioner shall establish procedures for determining medical assistance and general assistance medical care payment rates under a prospective payment system for inpatient hospital services in hospitals that qualify as vendors of medical assistance. The commissioner shall establish, by rule, procedures for implementing this section and sections 256.9686, 256.969, and 256.9695. The medical assistance payment rates must be based on methods and standards that the commissioner finds are adequate to provide for the costs that must be incurred for the care of recipients in efficiently and economically operated hospitals. Services must meet the requirements of section 256B.04, subdivision 15, or 256D.03, subdivision 7, paragraph (b), to be eligible for payment.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256.9686, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] For purposes of this section and sections ~~256.9685,~~ 256.969, and 256.9695, the following terms and phrases have the meanings given.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256.9686, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [HOSPITAL.] "Hospital" means a facility licensed under sections 144.50 to 144.58 ~~or~~, an out-of-state facility licensed to provide acute care under the requirements of that state in which it is located, or an Indian health service facility designated to provide acute care by the federal government.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256.969, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [HOSPITAL COST INDEX.] The hospital cost index shall be obtained from an independent source and shall represent a weighted average of historical, as limited to statutory maximums, and projected cost change estimates determined for expense categories to include wages and salaries, employee benefits, medical and professional fees, raw food, utilities, insurance including malpractice insurance, and other applicable expenses as determined by the commissioner. The index shall reflect Minnesota cost category weights. Individual indices shall be specific to Minnesota if the commissioner determines that sufficient accuracy of the hospital cost index is achieved. The hospital cost index shall be used to adjust the base year operating payment rate through the rate year on an annually compounded basis. Notwithstanding section 256.9695, subdivision 3, paragraph (c), the hospital cost index shall not be effective under the general assistance medical care program for admissions occurring during the biennium ending June 30, 1993.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256.969, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DIAGNOSTIC CATEGORIES.] The commissioner shall use to the extent possible existing diagnostic classification systems, including the system used by the Medicare program to determine the relative values of inpatient services and case mix indices. The commissioner may combine diagnostic classifications into diagnostic categories and may establish separate categories and numbers of categories based on program eligibility or hospital peer group. Relative values shall be recalculated when the base year is changed ~~and shall not be determined on a hospital specific basis~~. Relative value determinations shall include paid claims for admissions during each hospital's base year. The commissioner may extend the time period forward to obtain sufficiently valid information to establish relative values. Relative value determinations shall not include property cost data, Medicare crossover data, and data ~~from the transferring hospital~~ on admissions that are paid a per day transfer ~~discharges, except data on transfer discharges with a burn diagnostic classification or data on transfer discharges for the patient's convenience that have been reported by the hospital to the commissioner by the October 1 preceding the~~ rate ~~year~~ under subdivision 13. The computation of the base year cost per admission must include identified outlier cases and their weighted costs up to the point that they become outlier cases, but must exclude costs recognized in outlier payments beyond that point. The commissioner may recategorize the diagnostic classifications and recalculate relative values and case mix indices to reflect actual hospital practices, the specific character of specialty hospitals, or to reduce variances within the diagnostic categories after notice in the State Register and a 30-day comment period.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256.969, subdivision 2c, is amended to read:

Subd. 2c. [PROPERTY PAYMENT RATES.] For each hospital's first two consecutive fiscal years beginning on or after July 1, 1988, the commissioner shall limit the annual increase in property payment rates for depreciation, rents and leases, and interest expense to the annual growth in the hospital cost index derived from the methodology in effect on the day before July 1, 1989. When computing budgeted and settlement property payment rates, the commissioner shall use the annual increase in the hospital cost index forecasted by Data Resources, Inc., consistent with the quarter of the hospital's fiscal year end. For admissions occurring on or after the rate year beginning January 1, 1991, the commissioner shall obtain property data from an updated base year and establish property payment rates per admission for each hospital. Property payment rates shall be derived from data from the same base year that is used to establish operating payment rates. The property information shall include cost categories not subject to the hospital cost index and shall reflect the cost-finding methods and allowable costs of the Medicare program ~~in effect during the base year~~. The base year property payment ~~rate per admission~~ rates shall be adjusted for ~~positive percentage change differences~~ increases in the ~~net book value of hospital~~ property ~~and equipment~~ cost by increasing the base year property payment rate ~~per admission~~ 85 percent of the percentage change from the base year through the ~~most recent~~ year ~~ending prior to the rate year~~ for which ~~required information is available~~ a Medicare cost report has been submitted to the Medicare program and filed with the department by the October 1 before the rate year. ~~The percentage change shall be derived from equivalent audited information in both years and shall be adjusted to account for changes in generally accepted accounting principles, reclassification of assets, allocations to nonhospital areas, and fiscal years.~~ The ~~cost, audit, and charge data used to establish~~ property rates shall only reflect inpatient services covered by medical assistance ~~and shall not include operating cost information. To be eligible for the property payment rate per admission adjustment, the hospital must provide the necessary information to the commissioner, in a format specified by the commissioner, by the October 1 preceding the rate year.~~ The commissioner shall adjust rates for the rate year beginning January 1, 1991, to ensure that all hospitals are subject to the hospital cost index limitation for two complete years.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256.969, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [PAYMENTS.] Acute care hospital billings under the medical assistance program must not be submitted until the recipient is discharged. However, the commissioner shall establish monthly interim payments for inpatient hospitals that have individual patient lengths of stay over 30 days regardless of diagnostic category. To establish interim rates, the commissioner is exempt from the requirements of chapter 14. Medical assistance reimbursement for treatment of mental illness shall be reimbursed based on diagnostic classifications. The commissioner may selectively contract with hospitals for services within the diagnostic categories relating to mental illness and chemical dependency under competitive bidding when reasonable geographic access by recipients can be assured. No physician shall be denied the privilege of treating a recipient required to use a hospital under contract with the commissioner, as long as the physician meets credentialing standards of the individual hospital. Individual hospital payments established under this section and sections 256.9685, 256.9686, and 256.9695, in addition to third party and recipient liability, for ~~admissions~~ discharges occurring during the rate year shall not exceed, in aggregate, the charges for the medical assistance covered inpatient services paid for the same period of time to the hospital. This payment limitation ~~is not applicable and~~ shall ~~not~~ be calculated ~~to include~~ separately for medical assistance and general assistance medical care services. The limitation on general assistance medical care shall be effective for admissions occurring on or after July 1, 1991. Services that have rates established under subdivision 6a, paragraph (a), clause (5) or (6), must be limited separately from other services. After consulting with the affected hospitals, the commissioner may consider related hospitals one entity and may merge the payment rates while maintaining separate provider numbers. The operating and property base rates per admission or per day shall be derived from the best Medicare and claims data available when rates are established. The commissioner shall determine the best Medicare and claims data, taking into consideration variables of recency of the data, audit disposition, settlement status, and the ability to set rates in a timely manner. The commissioner shall notify hospitals of payment rates by December 1 of the year preceding the rate year. The rate setting data must reflect the admissions data used to establish relative values. Base year changes from 1981 to the base year established for the rate year beginning January 1, 1991, and for subsequent rate years, shall not be limited to the limits ending June 30, 1987, on the maximum rate of increase under subdivision 1. The commissioner may adjust base year cost, relative value, and case mix index data to exclude the costs of services that have been discontinued by the October 1 of the year preceding the rate year or that are paid separately from inpatient services. Inpatient stays that encompass portions of two or more rate years shall have payments established based on payment rates in effect at the time of admission unless the date of admission preceded the rate year in effect by six months or more. In this case, operating payment rates for services rendered during the rate year in effect and established based on the date of admission shall be adjusted to the rate year in effect by the hospital cost index.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256.969, subdivision 6a, is amended to read:

Subd. 6a. [SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS.] ~~(a)~~ In determining the payment rates, the commissioner shall consider whether the ~~following~~ circumstances in subdivisions 7 to 13 exist:.

~~(1) [MINIMAL MEDICAL ASSISTANCE USE.] Minnesota hospitals with 30 or fewer annualized admissions of Minnesota medical assistance recipients in the base year, excluding Medicare crossover admissions, may have the base year operating rates, as adjusted by the case mix index, and property payment rates established at the 70th percentile of hospitals in the peer group in effect during the base year as established by the Minnesota department of health for use by the rate review program. Rates within a peer group shall be adjusted for differences in fiscal years and outlier percentage payments before establishing the 70th percentile. The operating payment rate portion of the 70th percentile shall be adjusted by the hospital cost index. To have rates established under this paragraph, the hospital must notify the commissioner in writing by November 1 of the year preceding the rate year. This paragraph shall be applied to all payment rates of the affected hospital.~~

~~(2)~~ Subd. 7. [UNUSUAL COST OR LENGTH OF STAY EXPERIENCE.] The commissioner shall establish day and cost outlier thresholds for each diagnostic category established under subdivision 2 at two standard deviations beyond the ~~geometric~~ mean length of stay or allowable cost. Payment for the days and cost beyond the outlier threshold shall be in addition to the operating and property payment rates per admission established under subdivisions 2, 2b, and 2c. Payment for outliers shall be at 70 percent of the allowable operating cost ~~calculated by dividing the operating payment rate per admission~~, after adjustment by the case mix index, hospital cost index, relative values and the disproportionate population adjustment~~, by the arithmetic mean length of stay for the diagnostic category~~. The outlier threshold for neonatal and burn diagnostic categories shall be established at one standard deviation beyond the ~~geometric~~ mean length of stay or allowable cost, and payment shall be at 90 percent of allowable operating cost calculated in the same manner as other outliers. A hospital may choose an alternative ~~percentage~~ to the 70 percent outlier payment ~~to~~ that is at a minimum of 60 percent and a maximum of 80 percent if the commissioner is notified in writing of the request by October 1 of the year preceding the rate year. The chosen percentage applies to all diagnostic categories except burns and neonates. The percentage of allowable cost that is unrecognized by the outlier payment shall be added back to the base year operating payment rate per admission. Cost outliers shall be calculated using hospital specific allowable cost data. If a stay is both a day and a cost outlier, outlier payments shall be based on the higher outlier payment.

~~(3)~~ Subd. 8. [DISPROPORTIONATE NUMBERS OF LOW-INCOME PATIENTS SERVED.] For admissions occurring on or after July 1, 1989, the medical assistance disproportionate population adjustment shall comply with federal law at fully implemented rates. The commissioner may establish a separate disproportionate population operating payment rate adjustment under the general assistance medical care program. ~~For admissions occurring on or after the rate year beginning January 1, 1991, the disproportionate population adjustment shall be derived from base year Medicare cost report data and may be adjusted by data reflecting actual claims paid by the department.~~

~~(4)~~ Subd. 9. [SEPARATE BILLING BY CERTIFIED REGISTERED NURSE ANESTHETISTS.] Hospitals may exclude certified registered nurse anesthetist costs from the operating payment rate as allowed by section 256B.0625, subdivision 11. To be eligible, a hospital must notify the commissioner in writing by October 1 of the year preceding the rate year of the request to exclude certified registered nurse anesthetist costs. The hospital must agree that all hospital claims for the cost and charges of certified registered nurse anesthetist services will not be included as part of the rates for inpatient services provided during the rate year. In this case, the operating payment rate shall be adjusted to exclude the cost of certified registered nurse anesthetist services. Payments made through separate claims for certified registered nurse anesthetist services shall not be paid directly through the hospital provider number or indirectly by the certified registered nurse anesthetist to the hospital or related organizations.

For admissions occurring on or after July 1, 1991, and until the expiration date of section 256.9695, subdivision 3, services of certified registered nurse anesthetists provided on an inpatient basis may be paid as allowed by section 256B.0625, subdivision 11, when the hospital's base year did not include the cost of these services. To be eligible, a hospital must notify the commissioner in writing by July 1, 1991, of the request and must comply with all other requirements of this subdivision.

~~(5)~~ Subd. 10. [SPECIAL RATES.] The commissioner may establish special rate-setting methodologies, including a per day operating and property payment system, for hospice, ventilator dependent, and other services on a hospital and recipient specific basis taking into consideration such variables as federal designation, program size, and admission from a medical assistance waiver or home care program. The data and rate calculation method shall conform to the requirements of ~~paragraph (7)~~ subdivision 12, except that rates shall not be standardized by the case mix index or adjusted by relative values and hospice rates shall not exceed the amount allowed under federal law ~~and payment shall be secondary to any other medical assistance hospice program~~. Rates and payments established under this ~~paragraph~~ subdivision must meet the requirements of section 256.9685, subdivisions 1 and 2~~, and must not exceed payments that would otherwise be made to a hospital in total for rate year admissions under subdivisions 2, 2b, 2c, 3, 4, 5, and 6~~. The cost and charges used to establish rates shall only reflect inpatient medical assistance covered services. Hospital and claims data that are used to establish rates under this ~~paragraph~~ subdivision shall not be used to establish payments or relative values under subdivisions 2, 2b, 2c, ~~3, 4, 5~~ 3a, 4a, 5a, and ~~6~~ 7 to 13.

~~(6)~~ Subd. 11. [REHABILITATION DISTINCT PARTS.] Units of hospitals that are recognized as rehabilitation distinct parts by the Medicare program shall have separate provider numbers under the medical assistance program for rate establishment and billing purposes only. These units shall also have operating and property payment rates and the disproportionate population adjustment, if allowed by federal law, established separately from other inpatient hospital services~~, based on the methods of subdivisions 2, 2b, 2c, 3, 4, 5, and 6~~. The commissioner may establish separate relative values under subdivision 2 for rehabilitation hospitals and distinct parts as defined by the Medicare program. For individual hospitals that did not have separate medical assistance rehabilitation provider numbers or rehabilitation distinct parts in the base year, hospitals shall provide the information needed to separate rehabilitation distinct part cost and claims data from other inpatient service data.

~~(7)~~ Subd. 12. [NEONATAL TRANSFERS.] For admissions occurring on or after July 1, 1989, neonatal diagnostic category transfers shall have operating and property payment rates established at receiving hospitals which have neonatal intensive care units on a per day payment system that is based on the cost finding methods and allowable costs of the Medicare program during the base year. Other neonatal diagnostic category transfers shall have rates established according to ~~paragraph (8)~~ subdivision 13. The rate per day for the neonatal service setting within the hospital shall be determined by dividing base year neonatal allowable costs by neonatal patient days. The operating payment rate portion of the rate shall be adjusted by the hospital cost index and the disproportionate population adjustment. For admissions occurring after the transition period specified in section 256.9695, subdivision 3, the operating payment rate portion of the rate shall be standardized by the case mix index and adjusted by relative values. The cost and charges used to establish rates shall only reflect inpatient services covered by medical assistance. Hospital and claims data used to establish rates under this ~~paragraph~~ subdivision shall not be used to establish ~~payments or relative values~~ rates under subdivisions 2, 2b, 2c, ~~3, 4, 5~~ 3a, 4a, 5a, and ~~6~~ 7 to 13.

~~(8)~~ Subd. 13. [TRANSFERS.] Except as provided in ~~paragraphs (5)~~ subdivisions 10 and ~~(7)~~ 12, operating and property payment rates for admissions that result in transfers and transfers shall be established on a per day payment system. The per day payment rate shall be the sum of the adjusted operating and property payment rates determined ~~in~~ under this subdivision and subdivisions 2, 2b ~~and~~, 2c, 3a, 4a, 5a, and 7 to 12, divided by the arithmetic mean length of stay for the diagnostic category. Each admission that results in a transfer and each transfer is considered a separate admission to each hospital, and the total of the admission and transfer payments to each hospital must not exceed the total per admission payment that would otherwise be made to each hospital under ~~paragraph (2) and~~ this subdivision and subdivisions 2, 2b ~~and~~, 2c, 3a, 4a, 5a, and 7 to 12.

~~(b)~~ Subd. 14. [ROUTINE SERVICE COST LIMITATION; APPLICABILITY.] The computation of each hospital's payment rate and the relative values of the diagnostic categories are not subject to the routine service cost limitation imposed under the Medicare program.

~~(c)~~ Subd. 15. [INDIAN HEALTH SERVICE FACILITIES.] Indian health service facilities are exempt from the rate establishment methods required by this section and shall be reimbursed at ~~the facility's usual and customary~~ charges ~~to the general public~~ as limited to the amount allowed under federal law. This exemption is not effective for payments under general assistance medical care.

~~(d)~~ Subd. 16. [OUT-OF-STATE HOSPITALS IN LOCAL TRADE AREAS.] ~~Except as provided in paragraph (a), clauses (1) and (3),~~ Out-of-state hospitals that are located within a Minnesota local trade area shall have rates established using the same procedures and methods that apply to Minnesota hospitals. For this subdivision and subdivision 17, local trade area means a county contiguous to Minnesota. Hospitals that are not required by law to file information in a format necessary to establish rates shall have rates established based on the commissioner's estimates of the information. Relative values of the diagnostic categories shall not be redetermined under this ~~paragraph~~ subdivision until required by rule. Hospitals affected by this ~~paragraph~~ subdivision shall then be included in determining relative values. However, hospitals that have rates established based upon the commissioner's estimates of information shall not be included in determining relative values. This ~~paragraph~~ subdivision is effective for hospital fiscal years beginning on or after July 1, 1988. A hospital shall provide the information necessary to establish rates under this ~~paragraph~~ subdivision at least 90 days before the start of the hospital's fiscal year.

~~(e)~~ Subd. 17. [OUT-OF-STATE HOSPITALS OUTSIDE LOCAL TRADE AREAS.] Hospitals that are not located within Minnesota or a Minnesota local trade area shall have operating and property rates established at the average of statewide and local trade area rates or, at the commissioner's discretion, at an amount negotiated by the commissioner. Relative values shall not include data from hospitals that have rates established under this ~~paragraph~~ subdivision. Payments, including third party and recipient liability, established under this ~~paragraph~~ subdivision may not exceed the charges on a claim specific basis for inpatient services that are covered by medical assistance.

~~(f)~~ Subd. 18. [METABOLIC DISORDER TESTING OF MEDICAL ASSISTANCE RECIPIENTS.] Medical assistance inpatient payment rates must include the cost incurred by hospitals to pay the department of health for metabolic disorder testing of newborns who are medical assistance recipients, if the cost is not recognized by another payment source.

~~(g)~~ Subd. 19. [INCREASES IN MEDICAL ASSISTANCE INPATIENT PAYMENTS; CONDITIONS.] (a) Medical assistance inpatient payments shall increase 20 percent for inpatient hospital originally paid admissions, excluding Medicare crossovers, that occurred between July 1, 1988, and December 31, 1990, if: (i) the hospital had 100 or fewer Minnesota medical assistance annualized paid admissions, excluding Medicare crossovers, that were paid by March 1, 1988, for the period January 1, 1987, to June 30, 1987; (ii) the hospital had 100 or fewer licensed beds on March 1, 1988; (iii) the hospital is located in Minnesota; and (iv) the hospital is not located in a city of the first class as defined in section 410.01. For this paragraph, medical assistance does not include general assistance medical care.

~~(h)~~ (b) Medical assistance inpatient payments shall increase 15 percent for inpatient hospital originally paid admissions, excluding Medicare crossovers, that occurred between July 1, 1988, and December 31, 1990, if: (i) the hospital had more than 100 but fewer than 250 Minnesota medical assistance annualized paid admissions, excluding Medicare crossovers, that were paid by March 1, 1988, for the period January 1, 1987, to June 30, 1987; (ii) the hospital had 100 or fewer licensed beds on March 1, 1988; (iii) the hospital is located in Minnesota; and (iv) the hospital is not located in a city of the first class as defined in section 410.01. For this paragraph, medical assistance does not include general assistance medical care.

~~(i)~~ Subd. 20. [MENTAL HEALTH OR CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY ADMISSIONS; RATES.] Admissions occurring on or after July 1, 1990, that are classified to a diagnostic category of mental health or chemical dependency shall have rates established according to the methods of ~~paragraph (a), clause (8)~~ subdivision 13, except the per day rate shall be multiplied by a factor of 2, provided that the total of the per day rates shall not exceed the per admission rate. This methodology shall also apply when a hold or commitment is ordered by the court for the days that inpatient hospital services are medically necessary. Stays which are medically necessary for inpatient hospital services and covered by medical assistance shall not be billable to any other governmental entity. Medical necessity shall be determined under criteria established to meet the requirements of section 256B.04, subdivision 15, or 256D.03, subdivision 7, paragraph (b).

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256.9695, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [APPEALS.] A hospital may appeal a decision arising from the application of standards or methods under section 256.9685, 256.9686, or 256.969, if an appeal would result in a change to the hospital's payment rate or payments. Both overpayments and underpayments that result from the submission of appeals shall be implemented. Regardless of any appeal outcome, relative values shall not be recalculated. The appeal shall be heard by an administrative law judge according to sections ~~14.48~~ 14.57 to ~~14.56~~ 14.62, or upon agreement by both parties, according to a modified appeals procedure established by the commissioner and the office of administrative hearings. In any proceeding under this section, the appealing party must demonstrate by a preponderance of the evidence that the commissioner's determination is incorrect or not according to law.

(a) To appeal a payment rate or payment determination or a determination made from base year information, the hospital shall file a written appeal request to the commissioner within 60 days of the date the payment rate determination was mailed. The appeal request shall specify: (i) the disputed items; (ii) the authority in federal or state statute or rule upon which the hospital relies for each disputed item; and (iii) the name and address of the person to contact regarding the appeal. ~~A change to a payment rate or~~

~~payments that results from a successful appeal to the Medicare program of the base year information establishing rates for the rate year beginning in 1991 and after is a prospective adjustment to subsequent rate years.~~ After December 31, 1990, payment rates shall not be adjusted for appeals of base year information that affect years prior to the rate year beginning January 1, 1991. Facts to be considered in any appeal of base year information are limited to those in existence at the time the payment rates of the first rate year were established from the base year information. In the case of Medicare settled appeals, the 60-day appeal period shall begin on the mailing date of the notice by the Medicare program or the date the medical assistance payment rate determination notice is mailed, whichever is later.

(b) To appeal a payment rate or payment change that results from a difference in case mix between the base year and a rate year, the procedures and requirements of paragraph (a) apply. However, the appeal must be filed with the commissioner within 120 days after the end of a rate year. A case mix appeal must apply to the cost of services to all medical assistance patients that received inpatient services from the hospital during the rate year appealed.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256.9695, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [RULES.] The commissioner of human services shall adopt permanent rules to implement this section and sections 256.9685, 256.9686, and 256.969 under chapter 14, the administrative procedure act. The criteria and establishment of the peer groups at section 256.969, subdivision 21, is not subject to the requirements of chapter 14, the administrative procedures act, for the 1992 rate year.

In each section of Minnesota Statutes referred to in column A, the revisor of statutes shall delete the reference in column B and insert the reference in column C. The revisor shall also correct any cross-references to Minnesota Statutes, section 256.969, subdivision 6a, that appear in Minnesota Rules.

ARTICLE 2

HEALTH CARE

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256.045, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [PAYMENTS PENDING APPEAL.] If the commissioner of human services or district court orders monthly assistance or aid or services paid or provided in any proceeding under this section, it shall be paid or provided pending appeal to the commissioner of human services, district court, court of appeals, or supreme court. The human services referee may order the local human services agency to reduce or terminate medical assistance or general assistance medical care to a recipient before a final order is issued under this section if: (1) the human services referee determines at the hearing that the sole issue on appeal is one of a change in state or federal law; and (2) the commissioner or the local agency notifies the recipient before the action. The state or county agency has a claim for food stamps ~~and~~, cash payments, medical assistance, and general assistance medical care made to or on behalf of a recipient or former recipient while an appeal is pending if the recipient or former recipient is determined ineligible for the food stamps ~~and~~, cash payments, medical assistance, or general assistance medical care as a result of the appeal, except for medical assistance and general assistance medical care made on behalf of a recipient pursuant to a court order.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256.936, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [APPEALS.] If the commissioner suspends, reduces, or terminates eligibility for the children's health plan, or services provided under the children's health plan, the commissioner must provide notification according to the laws and rules governing the medical assistance program. A children's health plan applicant or enrollee aggrieved by a determination of the commissioner has the right to appeal the determination according to section 256.045.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256.9365, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PROGRAM ESTABLISHED.] The commissioner of human services shall establish a program to pay private health plan premiums for persons who have contracted human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) to enable them to continue coverage under a group or individual health plan. If a person is determined to be eligible under subdivision 2, the commissioner shall: (1) pay the eligible person's group plan ~~continuation coverage~~ premium for ~~18 months after termination of employment, or~~ the period of continuation coverage provided in the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985; or (2) pay the eligible person's individual plan premium for 24 months ~~after initial application~~.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256.9365, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [RULES.] The commissioner shall establish rules as necessary to implement the program. Special requirements for the payment of individual plan premiums under subdivision 2, clause (5), must be designed to ensure that the state cost of paying an individual plan premium over a two-year period does not exceed the estimated state cost that would otherwise be incurred in the medical assistance or general assistance medical care program.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256B.031, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PREPAID HEALTH PLAN RATES.] For payments made during calendar year 1988, the monthly maximum allowable rate established by the commissioner of human services for payment to prepaid health plans must not exceed 90 percent of the projected average monthly per capita fee-for-service medical assistance costs for state fiscal year 1988 for recipients of aid to families with dependent children. The base year for projecting the average monthly per capita fee-for-service medical assistance costs is state fiscal year 1986. A maximum allowable per capita rate must be established collectively for Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, St. Louis, Scott, and Washington counties. A separate maximum allowable per capita rate must be established collectively for all other counties. The maximum allowable per capita rate may be adjusted to reflect utilization differences among eligible classes of recipients. For payments made during calendar year 1989, the maximum allowable rate must be calculated in the same way as 1988 rates, except the base year is state fiscal year 1987. For payments made during calendar year 1990 and later years, the commissioner shall ~~contract~~ consult with an independent actuary ~~to establish~~ in establishing prepayment rates, but shall retain final control over the rate methodology. Rates established for prepaid health plans must be based on the services that the prepaid health plan provides under contract with the commissioner.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256B.031, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11. [LIMITATION ON REIMBURSEMENT TO PROVIDERS NOT AFFILIATED WITH A PREPAID HEALTH PLAN.] A prepaid health plan may limit any reimbursement it may be required to pay to providers not employed by or under contract with the prepaid health plan to the medical assistance rates paid by the commissioner of human services to providers for services to recipients not enrolled in a prepaid health plan.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256B.055, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [INFANTS.] Medical assistance may be paid for an infant less than one year of age ~~born on or after October 1, 1984~~, whose mother was eligible for and receiving medical assistance at the time of birth and who remains in the mother's household or who is in a family with countable income that is equal to or less than the income standard established under section 256B.057, subdivision 1. ~~Eligibility under this subdivision is concurrent with the mother's and does not depend on the father's income except as the income affects the mother's eligibility.~~

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256B.055, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [DISABLED CHILDREN.] (a) A person is eligible for medical assistance if the person is under age 19 and qualifies as a disabled individual under United States Code, title 42, section 1382c(a), and would be eligible for medical assistance under the state plan if residing in a medical institution, and who requires a level of care provided in a hospital, skilled nursing facility, intermediate care facility, or intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation or related conditions, for whom home care is appropriate, provided that the cost to medical assistance for home care services is not more than the amount that medical assistance would pay for appropriate institutional care.

(b) For purposes of this subdivision, "hospital" means an acute care institution as defined in section 144.696, subdivision 3, licensed pursuant to sections 144.50 to 144.58, which is appropriate if a person is technology dependent or has a chronic health condition which requires frequent intervention by a health care professional to avoid death.

(c) For purposes of this subdivision, "skilled nursing facility" and "intermediate care facility" means a facility which provides nursing care as defined in section 144A.01, subdivision 5, licensed pursuant to sections 144A.02 to 144A.10, which is appropriate if a person is in active restorative treatment; is in need of special treatments provided or supervised by a licensed nurse; or has unpredictable episodes of active disease processes requiring immediate judgment by a licensed nurse.

(d) For purposes of this subdivision, "intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded" or "ICF/MR" means a program licensed to provide services to persons with mental retardation under section 252.28, and chapter 245A, and a physical plant licensed as a supervised living facility under chapter 144, which together are certified by the Minnesota department of health as meeting the standards in Code of Federal Regulations, title 42, part 483, for an intermediate care facility which provides services for persons with mental retardation or persons with related conditions who require 24-hour supervision and active treatment for medical, behavioral, or habilitation needs.

(e) For purposes of this subdivision, a person "requires a level of care provided in a hospital, skilled nursing facility, intermediate care facility, or intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation or related conditions" if the person requires 24-hour supervision because the person exhibits suicidal or homicidal ideation or behavior, psychosomatic disorders or somatopsychic disorders that may become life threatening, severe socially unacceptable behavior associated with psychiatric disorder, psychosis or severe developmental problems requiring continuous skilled observation, or disabling symptoms that do not respond to office-centered outpatient treatment. The determination of the level of care needed by the child shall be made by the commissioner based on information supplied to the commissioner by the case manager if the child has one, the parent or guardian, the child's physician or physicians or, if available, the screening information obtained under section 256B.092.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256B.057, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PREGNANT WOMEN AND INFANTS.] An infant less than one year of age or a pregnant woman who has written verification of a positive pregnancy test from a physician or licensed registered nurse, is eligible for medical assistance if countable family income is equal to or less than 185 percent of the federal poverty guideline for the same family size. Eligibility for a pregnant woman or infant less than one year of age under this subdivision must be determined without regard to asset standards established in section 256B.056, subdivision 3. ~~Adjustments in the income limits due to annual changes in the federal poverty guidelines shall be implemented the first day of July following publication of the changes.~~ An infant born on or after January 1, 1991, to a woman who was eligible for and receiving medical assistance on the date of the child's birth shall continue to be eligible for medical assistance without redetermination until the child's first birthday, as long as the child remains in the woman's household.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256B.057, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CHILDREN.] A child one through five years of age in a family whose countable income is less than 133 percent of the federal poverty guidelines for the same family size, is eligible for medical assistance. A child six through ~~seven~~ 18 years of age, who was born after September 30, 1983, in a family whose countable income is less than 100 percent of the federal poverty guidelines for the same family size is eligible for medical assistance. Eligibility for children under this subdivision must be determined without regard to asset standards established in section 256B.056, subdivision 3. ~~Adjustments in the income limits due to annual changes in the federal poverty guidelines shall be implemented the first day of July following publication of the changes.~~

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256B.057, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [QUALIFIED MEDICARE BENEFICIARIES.] A person who is entitled to Part A Medicare benefits, whose income is equal to or less than 85 percent of the federal poverty guidelines, and whose assets are no more than twice the asset limit used to determine eligibility for the supplemental security income program, is eligible for medical assistance reimbursement of Part A and Part B premiums, Part A and Part B coinsurance and deductibles, and cost-effective premiums for enrollment with a health maintenance organization or a competitive medical plan under section 1876 of the Social Security Act. The income limit shall be increased to 90 percent of the federal poverty guidelines on January 1, 1990; and to ~~95~~ 100 percent on January 1, 1991; ~~and to 100 percent on January 1, 1992~~. Reimbursement of the Medicare coinsurance and deductibles, when added to the amount paid by Medicare, must not exceed the total rate the provider would have received for the same service or services if the person were a medical assistance recipient with Medicare coverage. ~~Adjustments in the income limits due to annual changes in the federal poverty guidelines shall be implemented the first day of July following publication of the changes.~~ Increases in benefits under Title II of the Social Security Act shall not be counted as income for purposes of this subdivision until the first day of the second full month following publication of the change in the federal poverty guidelines.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256B.057, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [QUALIFIED WORKING DISABLED ADULTS.] A person who is entitled to Medicare Part A benefits under section 1818A of the Social Security Act; whose income does not exceed 200 percent of the federal poverty guidelines for the applicable family size; whose nonexempt assets do not exceed twice the maximum amount allowable under the supplemental security income program, according to family size; and who is not otherwise eligible for medical assistance, is eligible for medical assistance reimbursement of the Medicare Part A premium. ~~Adjustments in the income limits due to annual changes in the federal poverty guidelines shall be implemented the first day of July following publication of the changes.~~

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256B.057, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [DISABLED WIDOWS AND WIDOWERS.] A person who is at least 50 years old who is entitled to disabled widow's or widower's benefits under United States Code, title 42, section 402(e) or (f), who is not entitled to Medicare Part A, and who received supplemental security income or Minnesota supplemental aid in the month before the month the widow's or widower's benefits began, is eligible for medical assistance as long as the person would be entitled to supplemental security income or Minnesota supplemental aid in the absence of the widow's or widower's benefits.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256B.0575, is amended to read:

256B.0575 [AVAILABILITY OF INCOME FOR INSTITUTIONALIZED PERSONS.]

When an institutionalized person is determined eligible for medical assistance, the income that exceeds the deductions in paragraphs (a) and (b) must be applied to the cost of institutional care.

(a) The following amounts must be deducted from the institutionalized person's income in the following order:

(1) the personal needs allowance under section 256B.35 or, for a veteran who does not have a spouse or child, the amount of his or her veteran's pension not exceeding $90 per month;

(2) the personal allowance for disabled individuals under section 256B.36;

(3) if the institutionalized person has a legally-appointed guardian or conservator, five percent of the recipient's gross monthly income up to $100 as reimbursement for guardianship or conservatorship services;

(4) a monthly income allowance determined under section 256B.058, subdivision 2, but only to the extent income of the institutionalized spouse is made available to the community spouse;

(5) a monthly allowance for children under age 18 which, together with the net income of the children, would provide income equal to the medical assistance standard for families and children according to section 256B.056, subdivision 4, for a family size that includes only the minor children. This deduction applies only if the children do not live with the community spouse and only if the children resided with the institutionalized person immediately prior to admission;

(6) a monthly family allowance for other family members, equal to one-third of the difference between 122 percent of the federal poverty guidelines and the monthly income for that family member; ~~and~~

(7) reparations payments made by the Federal Republic of Germany; and

(8) amounts for reasonable expenses incurred for necessary medical or remedial care for the institutionalized spouse that are not medical assistance covered expenses and that are not subject to payment by a third party.

For purposes of clause (6), "other family member" means a person who resides with the community spouse and who is a minor or dependent child, dependent parent, or dependent sibling of either spouse. "Dependent" means a person who could be claimed as a dependent for federal income tax purposes under the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) Income shall be allocated to an institutionalized person for a period of up to three calendar months, in an amount equal to the medical assistance standard for a family size of one if:

(1) a physician certifies that the person is expected to reside in the long-term care facility for three calendar months or less;

(2) if the person has expenses of maintaining a residence in the community; and

(3) if one of the following circumstances apply:

(i) the person was not living together with a spouse or a family member as defined in paragraph (a) when the person entered a long-term care facility; or

(ii) the person and the person's spouse become institutionalized on the same date, in which case the allocation shall be applied to the income of one of the spouses.

For purposes of this paragraph, a person is determined to be residing in a licensed nursing home, regional treatment center, or medical institution if the person is expected to remain for a period of one full calendar month or more.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256B.0625, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [OUTPATIENT AND PHYSICIAN-DIRECTED CLINIC SERVICES.] Medical assistance covers outpatient hospital or physician-directed clinic services. The physician-directed clinic staff shall include at least two physicians and all services shall be provided under the direct supervision of a physician. Hospital outpatient departments are subject to the same limitations and reimbursements as other enrolled vendors for all services, except initial triage, emergency services, and services not provided or immediately available in clinics, physicians' offices, or by other enrolled providers. ~~A second medical opinion is required before reimbursement for elective surgeries requiring a second opinion. The commissioner shall publish in the State Register a list of elective surgeries that require a second medical opinion before reimbursement and the criteria and standards for deciding whether an elective surgery should require a second surgical opinion. The list and the criteria and standards are not subject to the requirements of sections 14.001 to 14.69. The commissioner's decision whether a second medical opinion is required, made in accordance with rules governing that decision, is not subject to administrative appeal.~~ "Emergency services" means those medical services required for the immediate diagnosis and treatment of medical conditions that, if not immediately diagnosed and treated, could lead to serious physical or mental disability or death or are necessary to alleviate severe pain. Neither the hospital, its employees, nor any physician or dentist, shall be liable in any action arising out of a determination not to render emergency services or care if reasonable care is exercised in determining the condition of the person, or in determining the appropriateness of the facilities, or the qualifications and availability of personnel to render these services consistent with this section.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256B.0625, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4a. [SECOND MEDICAL OPINION FOR SURGERY.] Certain surgeries require a second medical opinion to confirm the necessity of the procedure, in order for reimbursement to be made. The commissioner shall publish in the State Register a list of surgeries that require a second medical opinion and the criteria and standards for deciding whether a surgery should require a second medical opinion. The list and the criteria and standards are not subject to the requirements of sections 14.01 to 14.69. The commissioner's decision about whether a second medical opinion is required, made according to rules governing that decision, is not subject to administrative appeal.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256B.0625, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [DENTAL SERVICES.] Medical assistance covers dental services for children under age 18, and dental services not to exceed $150 annually for adults. Dental services include, with prior authorization, fixed cast metal restorations that are cost-effective for persons who cannot use removable dentures because of their medical condition.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256B.0625, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [EYEGLASSES, DENTURES, AND PROSTHETIC DEVICES.] Medical assistance covers eyeglasses, dentures, and prosthetic devices if prescribed by a licensed practitioner. Coverage for eyeglasses is limited to one pair a year for children under age 18 and one pair every two years for adults. The commissioner shall negotiate with volume purchase suppliers to make eyeglasses available at the contract price for recipients who require additional eyeglasses during the one- or two-year period.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256B.0625, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [DRUGS.] (a) Medical assistance covers drugs if prescribed by a licensed practitioner and dispensed by a licensed pharmacist, or by a physician enrolled in the medical assistance program as a dispensing physician. The commissioner shall designate a formulary committee to advise the commissioner on the names of drugs for which payment is made, recommend a system for reimbursing providers on a set fee or charge basis rather than the present system, and develop methods encouraging use of generic drugs when they are less expensive and equally effective as trademark drugs. The commissioner shall appoint the formulary committee members no later than 30 days following July 1, 1981. The formulary committee shall consist of nine members, four of whom shall be physicians who are not employed by the department of human services, and a majority of whose practice is for persons paying privately or through health insurance, three of whom shall be pharmacists who are not employed by the department of human services, and a majority of whose practice is for persons paying privately or through health insurance, a consumer representative, and a nursing home representative. Committee members shall serve two-year terms and shall serve without compensation. The commissioner may establish a drug formulary. Its establishment and publication shall not be subject to the requirements of the administrative procedure act, but the formulary committee shall review and comment on the formulary contents. The formulary committee shall review and recommend drugs which require prior authorization. Prior authorization may be required by the commissioner~~, with the consent of the drug formulary committee,~~ before certain formulary drugs are eligible for payment. The formulary shall not include: drugs or products for which there is no federal funding; over-the-counter drugs, except for antacids, acetaminophen, family planning products, aspirin, insulin, products for the treatment of lice, and vitamins for children under the age of seven and pregnant or nursing women; ~~or any other over-the-counter drug identified by the commissioner, in consultation with the appropriate professional consultants under contract with or employed by the state agency, as necessary, appropriate and cost effective for the treatment of certain specified chronic diseases, conditions or disorders, and this determination shall not be subject to the requirements of chapter 14, the administrative procedure act;~~ nutritional products, except for those products needed for treatment of phenylketonuria, hyperlysinemia, maple syrup urine disease, a combined allergy to human milk, cow milk, and soy formula, or any other childhood or adult diseases, conditions, or disorders identified by the commissioner as requiring a similarly necessary nutritional product; anorectics; and drugs for which medical value has not been established. Separate payment shall not be made for nutritional products for residents of long-term care facilities; payment for dietary requirements is a component of the per diem rate paid to these facilities. Payment to drug vendors shall not be modified before the formulary is established except that the commissioner shall not permit payment for any drugs which may not by law be included in the formulary, and the commissioner's determination shall not be subject to chapter 14, the administrative procedure act. The commissioner shall publish conditions for prohibiting payment for specific drugs after considering the formulary committee's recommendations.

(b) The basis for determining the amount of payment shall be the lower of the actual acquisition costs of the drugs plus a fixed dispensing fee established by the commissioner, the maximum allowable cost set by the federal government or by the commissioner plus the fixed dispensing fee or the usual and customary price charged to the public. Actual acquisition cost includes quantity and other special discounts except time and cash discounts. The actual acquisition cost of a drug may be estimated by the commissioner. The maximum allowable cost of a multisource drug may be set by the commissioner and it shall be comparable to, but no higher than, the maximum amount paid by other third party payors in this state who have maximum allowable cost programs. Establishment of the amount of payment for drugs shall not be subject to the requirements of the administrative procedure act. An additional dispensing fee of $.30 may be added to the dispensing fee paid to pharmacists for legend drug prescriptions dispensed to residents of long-term care facilities when a unit dose blister card system, approved by the department, is used. Under this type of dispensing system, the pharmacist must dispense a 30-day supply of drug. The National Drug Code (NDC) from the drug container used to fill the blister card must be identified on the claim to the department. The unit dose blister card containing the drug must meet the packaging standards set forth in Minnesota Rules, part 6800.2700, that govern the return of unused drugs to the pharmacy for reuse. The pharmacy provider will be required to credit the department for the actual acquisition cost of all unused drugs that are eligible for reuse. Over-the-counter medications must be dispensed in the manufacturer's unopened package. The commissioner may permit the drug clozapine to be dispensed in a quantity that is less than a 30-day supply. Whenever a generically equivalent product is available, payment shall be on the basis of the actual acquisition cost of the generic drug, unless the prescriber specifically indicates "dispense as written - brand medically necessary" on the prescription as required by section 151.21, subdivision 2. Implementation of any change in the fixed dispensing fee that has not been subject to the administrative procedure act is limited to not more than 180 days, unless, during that time, the commissioner initiates rulemaking through the administrative procedure act.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256B.0625, subdivision 17, is amended to read:

Subd. 17. [TRANSPORTATION COSTS.] (a) Medical assistance covers transportation costs incurred solely for obtaining emergency medical care or transportation costs incurred by nonambulatory persons in obtaining emergency or nonemergency medical care when paid directly to an ambulance company, common carrier, or other recognized providers of transportation services. For the purpose of this subdivision, a person who is incapable of transport by taxicab or bus shall be considered to be nonambulatory.

(b) Medical assistance covers special transportation, as defined in Minnesota Rules, part 9505.0315, subpart 1, item F, if the provider receives and maintains a current physician's order by the recipient's attending physician. The commissioner shall establish maximum medical assistance reimbursement rates for special transportation services for persons who need a wheelchair lift van or stretcher-equipped vehicle and for those who do not need a wheelchair lift van or stretcher-equipped vehicle. The average of these two rates must not exceed $12.50 for the base rate and 60 cents per mile. Special transportation provided to nonambulatory persons who do not need a wheelchair lift van or stretcher-equipped vehicle, may be reimbursed at a lower rate than special transportation provided to persons who need a wheelchair lift van or stretcher-equipped vehicle.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256B.0625, subdivision 24, is amended to read:

Subd. 24. [OTHER MEDICAL OR REMEDIAL CARE.] Medical assistance covers any other medical or remedial care licensed and recognized under state law unless otherwise prohibited by law, except chiropractic services in excess of 18 visits per year, and except licensed chemical dependency treatment programs or primary treatment or extended care treatment units in hospitals that are covered under ~~Laws 1986, chapter 394, sections 8 to 20~~ chapter 254B. The commissioner shall include chemical dependency services in the state medical assistance plan for federal reporting purposes, but payment must be made under ~~Laws 1986, chapter 394, sections 8 to 20~~ chapter 254B. The commissioner shall publish in the State Register a list of elective surgeries that require a second medical opinion before medical assistance reimbursement, and the criteria and standards for deciding whether an elective surgery should require a second medical opinion. The list and criteria and standards are not subject to the requirements of sections 14.01 to 14.69.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256B.0625, subdivision 25, is amended to read:

Subd. 25. [~~SECOND OPINION OR~~ PRIOR AUTHORIZATION REQUIRED.] The commissioner shall publish in the State Register a list of health services that require prior authorization, as well as the criteria and standards used to select health services on the list. The list and the criteria and standards used to formulate it are not subject to the requirements of sections 14.001 to 14.69. The commissioner's decision whether prior authorization is required for a health service ~~or a second medical opinion is required for an elective surgery~~ is not subject to administrative appeal.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256B.0625, subdivision 28, is amended to read:

Subd. 28. [CERTIFIED ~~PEDIATRIC OR FAMILY~~ NURSE PRACTITIONER SERVICES.] Medical assistance covers services performed by a certified pediatric nurse practitioner ~~or~~, a certified family nurse practitioner, a certified adult nurse practitioner, or a certified geriatric nurse practitioner in independent practice, if the services are otherwise covered under this chapter as a physician service, and if the service is within the scope of practice of the nurse practitioner's license as a registered nurse, as defined in section 148.171.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256B.0625, subdivision 30, is amended to read:

Subd. 30. [OTHER CLINIC SERVICES.] (a) Medical assistance covers rural health clinic services, federally qualified health center services, ~~and~~ nonprofit community health clinic services, public health clinic services, and the services of a clinic meeting the criteria established in rule by the commissioner. Rural health clinic services and federally qualified health center services mean services defined in United States Code, title 42, section 1396d(a)(2)(B) and (C). Payment for rural health clinic and federally qualified health center services shall be made according to applicable federal law and regulation.

(b) A federally qualified health center that is beginning initial operation shall submit an estimate of budgeted costs and visits for the initial reporting period in the form and detail required by the commissioner. A federally qualified health center that is already in operation shall submit an initial report using actual costs and visits for the initial reporting period. Within 90 days of the end of its reporting period, a federally qualified health center shall submit, in the form and detail required by the commissioner, a report of its operations, including allowable costs actually incurred for the period and the actual number of visits for services furnished during the period, and other information required by the commissioner. Federally qualified health centers that file Medicare cost reports shall provide the commissioner with a copy of the most recent Medicare cost report filed with the Medicare program intermediary for the reporting year which support the costs claimed on their cost report to the state.

256B.063 [COST SHARING.]

Subdivision 1. [FEES.] Notwithstanding the provisions of section 256B.05, subdivision 2, the commissioner is authorized to promulgate rules pursuant to the administrative procedure act, and to require a nominal enrollment fee, premium, or similar charge for recipients of medical assistance, if and to the extent required by applicable federal regulation.

Subd. 2. [COPAYMENTS.] The commissioner shall require a nominal copayment in the amount of the maximum allowed under Code of Federal Regulations, title 42, section 447.54 for nonemergency services provided in an emergency room. If the United States Department of Health and Human Services grants a waiver under Code of Federal Regulations, title 42, section 431.55, subsection (g), the commissioner may charge the maximum allowable copayment under that section.

Subd. 3. [EXCEPTIONS.] The commissioner may not charge a copayment for services provided to: children under 18 years of age; pregnant women through 60 days postpartum; persons residing in nursing facilities, intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded, and medical institutions; individuals who are receiving hospice care; and individuals who are enrolled in health maintenance organizations.

Subd. 4. [COLLECTION.] The commissioner shall reduce medical assistance reimbursement to the provider in the amount of the copayment. The provider may collect the copayment from the recipient, but may not deny medical assistance services to a recipient who is unable to pay the copayment.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256B.08, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [OUTREACH LOCATIONS.] The local agency must establish locations, other than those used to process applications for cash assistance, to receive and perform initial processing of applications for pregnant women and children who want medical assistance only. At a minimum, these locations must be in federally qualified health centers and in hospitals that receive disproportionate share adjustments under section 256.969, subdivision 8, except that hospitals located outside of this state that receive the disproportionate share adjustment are not included. Initial processing of the application need not include a final determination of eligibility. Local agencies shall designate a person or persons within the agency who will receive the applications taken at an outreach location and the local agency will be responsible for timely determination of eligibility.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256B.19, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2c. [OBLIGATION OF LOCAL AGENCY TO INVESTIGATE AND DETERMINE ELIGIBILITY FOR MEDICAL ASSISTANCE.] (a) When the commissioner receives information that indicates that a general assistance medical care recipient or children's health plan enrollee may be eligible for medical assistance, the commissioner may notify the appropriate local agency of that fact. The local agency must investigate eligibility for medical assistance and take appropriate action and notify the commissioner of that action within 90 days from the date notice is issued. If the person is eligible for medical assistance, the local agency must find eligibility retroactively to the date on which the person met all eligibility requirements.

(b) When a prepaid health plan under a contract with the state to provide medical assistance services notifies the commissioner that an infant has been or will be born to an enrollee under the contract, the commissioner may notify the appropriate local agency of that fact. The local agency must investigate eligibility for medical assistance for the infant, take appropriate action, and notify the commissioner of that action within 90 days from the date notice is issued. If the infant would have been eligible on the date of birth, the local agency must establish eligibility retroactively to that month.

(c) For general assistance medical care recipients and children's health plan enrollees, if the local agency fails to comply with paragraph (a), the local agency is responsible for the entire cost of general assistance medical care or children's health plan services provided from the date the commissioner issues the notice until the date the local agency takes appropriate action on the case and notifies the commissioner of the action. For infants, if the local agency fails to comply with paragraph (b), the commissioner may determine eligibility for medical assistance for the infant for a period of two months, and the local agency shall be responsible for the entire cost of medical assistance services provided for that infant, in addition to a fee of $100 for processing the case. The commissioner shall deduct any obligation incurred under this paragraph from the amount due to the local agency under subdivision 1.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256D.03, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [GENERAL ASSISTANCE MEDICAL CARE; ELIGIBILITY.] (a) General assistance medical care may be paid for any person who is age 18 or older and who is not eligible for medical assistance under chapter 256B, including eligibility for medical assistance based on a spend-down of excess income according to section 256B.056, subdivision 5, and:

(1) who is receiving assistance under section 256D.05 or 256D.051 ~~and is not eligible for medical assistance under chapter 256B including eligibility for medical assistance based on a spend-down of excess income according to section 256B.056, subdivision 5~~; or

(2)(i) who is a resident of Minnesota; and whose equity in assets is not in excess of $1,000 per assistance unit. Exempt assets, the reduction of excess assets, and the waiver of excess assets must conform to the medical assistance program in chapter 256B; and

(ii) who has countable income not in excess of the assistance standards established in section 256B.056, subdivision 4, or whose excess income is spent down pursuant to section 256B.056, subdivision 5, using a six-month budget period, except that a one-month budget period must be used for recipients residing in a long-term care facility. The method for calculating earned income disregards and deductions for a person who resides with a dependent child under age 21 shall be as specified in section 256.74, subdivision 1.

However, if a disregard of $30 and one-third of the remainder described in section 256.74, subdivision 1, clause (4), has been applied to the wage earner's income, the disregard shall not be applied again until the wage earner's income has not been considered in an eligibility determination for general assistance, general assistance medical care, medical assistance, or aid to families with dependent children for 12 consecutive months. The earned income and work expense deductions for a person who does not reside with a dependent child under age 21 shall be the same as the method used to determine eligibility for a person under section 256D.06, subdivision 1, except the disregard of the first $50 of earned income is not allowed; or

(3) ~~who is over age 18 and~~ who would be eligible for medical assistance except that the person resides in a facility that is determined by the commissioner or the federal health care financing administration to be an institution for mental diseases.

(b) Eligibility is available for the month of application, and for one month prior to application if the person was eligible under paragraph (a), clause (1) or (2), and three months prior to application if the person was eligible under paragraph (a), clause (3), in those prior months. A redetermination of eligibility must occur every 12 months.

(c) General assistance medical care ~~may be paid for a person, regardless of age, who~~ is not available for a person in a correctional facility unless the person is detained by law for less than one year in a county correctional or detention facility as a person accused or convicted of a crime, or admitted as an inpatient to a hospital on a criminal hold order, ~~if~~ and the person is a recipient of general assistance medical care at the time the person is detained by law or admitted on a criminal hold order and as long as the person continues to meet other eligibility requirements of this subdivision.

(d) General assistance medical care is not available for applicants or recipients who do not cooperate with the county agency to meet the requirements of medical assistance.

(e) In determining the amount of assets of an individual, there shall be included any asset or interest in an asset, including an asset excluded under paragraph (a), that was given away, sold, or disposed of for less than fair market value within the 30 months preceding application for general assistance medical care or during the period of eligibility. Any transfer described in this paragraph shall be presumed to have been for the purpose of establishing eligibility for general assistance medical care, unless the individual furnishes convincing evidence to establish that the transaction was exclusively for another purpose. For purposes of this paragraph, the value of the asset or interest shall be the fair market value at the time it was given away, sold, or disposed of, less the amount of compensation received. For any uncompensated transfer, the number of months of ineligibility, including partial months, shall be calculated by dividing the uncompensated transfer amount by the average monthly per person payment made by the medical assistance program to skilled nursing facilities for the previous calendar year. The individual shall remain ineligible until this fixed period has expired. The period of ineligibility may exceed 30 months, and a reapplication for benefits after 30 months from the date of the transfer shall not result in eligibility unless and until the period of ineligibility has expired. The period of ineligibility begins in the month the transfer was reported to the county agency, or if the transfer was not reported, the month in which the county agency discovered the transfer, whichever comes first. For applicants, the period of ineligibility begins on the date of the first approved application.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256D.03, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [GENERAL ASSISTANCE MEDICAL CARE; SERVICES.] (a) ~~Reimbursement under the general assistance medical care program shall be limited to the following categories of service~~ For a person who is eligible under subdivision 3, paragraph (a), clause (3), general assistance medical care covers:

~~(2)~~ (16) day treatment services for mental illness provided under contract with the county board;

~~(3)~~ (17) prescribed medications for persons who have been diagnosed as mentally ill as necessary to prevent more restrictive institutionalization;

~~(4)~~ (18) case management services for a person with serious and persistent mental illness ~~who would be eligible for medical assistance except that the person resides in an institution for mental diseases~~;

~~(6)~~ (20) medical equipment not specifically listed in this paragraph when the use of the equipment will prevent the need for costlier services that are reimbursable under this subdivision.

(b) For a recipient who is eligible under subdivision 3, paragraph (a), clause (1) or (2), general assistance medical care covers the services listed in paragraph (a) with the following exceptions and limitations:

(1) chiropractic services, vision care, podiatry services, allergy testing, special transportation, case management for persons with serious and persistent mental illness, and Medicare premiums, coinsurance, and deductibles are not covered;

(2) audiology, occupational therapy, and speech therapy are not covered, regardless of provider type;

(10) for an emergency room visit that does not result in an inpatient admission, reimbursement for the emergency room visit shall be reduced by $5 and the hospital may collect that amount from the recipient. The hospital may not deny services to the recipient for failure to pay the copayment amount.

(c) Contracts with prepaid health plans to provide health care services to recipients of general assistance medical care may include, without limitation, the services set forth in paragraph (b), clauses (3), (5), (6), (8), and (10). The commissioner may seek a waiver according to section 62D.30 in order to execute contracts for the benefit package in paragraph (b).

~~(b)~~ (d) In order to contain costs, the commissioner of human services shall select vendors of medical care who can provide the most economical care consistent with high medical standards and shall where possible contract with organizations on a prepaid capitation basis to provide these services. The commissioner shall consider proposals by counties and vendors for prepaid health plans, competitive bidding programs, block grants, or other vendor payment mechanisms designed to provide services in an economical manner or to control utilization, with safeguards to ensure that necessary services are provided. Before implementing prepaid programs in counties with a county operated or affiliated public teaching hospital or a hospital or clinic operated by the University of Minnesota, the commissioner shall consider the risks the prepaid program creates for the hospital and allow the county or hospital the opportunity to participate in the program in a manner that reflects the risk of adverse selection and the nature of the patients served by the hospital, provided the terms of participation in the program are competitive with the terms of other participants considering the nature of the population served. Payment for services provided pursuant to this subdivision shall be as provided to medical assistance vendors of these services under sections 256B.02, subdivision 8, and 256B.0625. For payments made during fiscal year 1990 and later years, the commissioner shall ~~contract~~ consult with an independent actuary ~~to establish~~ in establishing prepayment rates, but shall retain final control over the rate methodology.

Reductions below the payments allowable under medical assistance for the remaining general assistance medical care services allowable under this subdivision may be reduced no more than five percent.

~~There shall be no copayment required of any recipient of benefits for any services provided under this subdivision.~~ A hospital receiving a reduced payment as a result of this section may apply the unpaid balance toward satisfaction of the hospital's bad debts.

~~(e)~~ (g) Chemical dependency services that are reimbursed under ~~Laws 1986, chapter 394, sections 8 to 20,~~ chapter 254B must not be reimbursed under general assistance medical care.

HUMAN SERVICES BUDGET CHANGES

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 252.46, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [RATE MAXIMUM.] Unless a variance is granted under subdivision 6, the maximum payment rates for each vendor for a calendar year must be equal to the payment rates approved by the commissioner for that vendor in effect December 1 of the previous calendar year ~~increased by no more than the projected percentage change in the urban consumer price index, all items, published by the United States Department of Labor, for the upcoming calendar year over the current calendar year~~.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256B.0625, subdivision 19, is amended to read:

Subd. 19. [PERSONAL CARE ASSISTANTS.] Medical assistance covers personal care assistant services provided by an individual, not a relative, who is qualified to provide the services, where the services are prescribed by a physician in accordance with a plan of treatment and are supervised by a registered nurse. ~~Payments to personal care assistants shall be adjusted annually to reflect changes in the cost of living or of providing services by the average annual adjustment granted to vendors such as nursing homes and home health agencies.~~

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 256B.091, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [ALTERNATIVE CARE GRANTS.] (a) The commissioner shall provide funds to counties participating in the program to pay costs of providing alternative care to individuals screened under subdivision 4 and nursing home or boarding care home residents who request a screening.

(b) Prior to July of each year, the commissioner shall allocate state funds available for alternative care grants to each local agency.

(c) For fiscal year 1991 only, the appropriation shall be distributed as specified in paragraphs (1) and (2).

(1) Sufficient state funds shall be set aside for payment for unreimbursed services provided prior to April 1, 1990, as billed by each county by June 1, 1990.

(2) The remainder of the state funds available for alternative care grants must be allocated to each county in the same proportion as each county's share of the actual payments made plus claims submitted for services rendered in the base year. The base year for each county shall be either fiscal year 1989 or calendar year 1989, whichever period contains a larger total dollar amount of payments plus claims submitted for each county. To be counted in the allocation process, claims must be submitted by June 1, 1990. This allocation will include the state share for medical assistance recipients as well as the state share for those who would be eligible within 180 days after nursing home admission. No reallocation between counties will be made. The county agency shall not be reimbursed for services which exceed the county allocation. To receive reimbursement for persons who are eligible within 180 days, the county must submit invoices within 90 days following the month of service. The number of medical assistance waiver recipients which each county may serve is allocated according to the number of open medical assistance waiver cases on July 1, 1990. Additional recipients may be served with the approval of the commissioner.

These additional recipients must be served within the county's allocation.

(d) The alternative care grant appropriation for fiscal years 1992 and beyond shall cover only individuals who would be eligible for medical assistance within 180 days after admission to a nursing home. The commissioner shall allocate state funds available for alternative care grants to each county agency. The allocation must be made as follows: the state funds available for alternative care grants, up to the amount of the previous year's allocation increased by the percentage for rates in Minnesota Rules, part 9505.2490, must be allocated to each county in the same proportion as the previous year's allocation. If the appropriation is less than the previous year's allocation plus inflation, it shall be prorated according to the county's share of the formula. Any funds appropriated in excess of the previous year's allocation plus inflation shall be allocated to county agencies by methodologies that target funds for programs designed to reduce premature nursing home placements and promote cost-effective alternatives to increasing nursing home beds and nursing home utilization. The additional allocation to counties will become part of the allocation base. No percentage inflationary increase based on Minnesota Rules, part 9505.2490, may be provided for the biennium ending June 30, 1993. The commissioner shall appoint a work group including county and senior representatives to assist in developing criteria for allocating funds which may include identifying special target populations, geographic areas, or projects. No reallocation between counties shall be made. The county agency shall not be reimbursed for services which exceed the county allocation. To receive reimbursement, the county must submit invoices within 90 days following the date of service. The number of medical assistance waiver recipients which a county may serve must be allocated according to the number of open medical assistance waiver cases on July 1 of each fiscal year. Additional recipients may be served with the approval of the commissioner.
