Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 47.20, subdivision 4a, is amended to read:

Subd. 4a. [MAXIMUM INTEREST RATE.] No conventional or cooperative apartment loan or contract for deed shall be made at a rate of interest or loan yield in excess of a maximum lawful interest rate ~~which shall be based upon the monthly index of the federal home loan mortgage corporation auction yields as compiled by the federal home loan mortgage corporation. The maximum lawful interest rate shall be computed as follows:~~

~~(1) The maximum lawful rate of interest for a conventional or cooperative apartment loan or contract for deed made or contracted for during any calendar month is equal to the monthly index of the federal home loan mortgage corporation auction yields for the first preceding calendar month plus an additional three-eighths of one percent per annum rounded off to the next highest quarter of one percent per annum.~~

~~(2) On or before the last day of each month the commissioner of commerce shall determine, based on available statistics, the monthly index of the federal home loan mortgage corporation auction yields for that calendar month and shall determine the maximum lawful rate of interest for conventional or cooperative apartment loans or contracts for deed for the next succeeding month as defined in clause (1) and shall cause the maximum lawful rate of interest to be published in a legal newspaper in Ramsey county on or before the first day of each month or as soon thereafter as practicable and in the state register on or before the last day of each month; the maximum lawful rate of interest to be effective on the first day of that month. If a federal home loan mortgage corporation eight month forward commitment purchase program is not held in any month, the maximum lawful rate of interest determined by the commissioner of commerce pursuant to the last auction is the maximum lawful rate of interest through the last day of the month in which the next auction is held of 15.75 percent per annum.~~

~~(3)~~ (1) The maximum lawful interest rate applicable to a cooperative apartment loan or contract for deed at the time the loan or contract is made is the maximum lawful interest rate for the term of the cooperative apartment loan or contract for deed. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 334.01, a cooperative apartment loan or contract for deed may provide, at the time the loan or contract is made, for the application of specified different consecutive periodic interest rates to the unpaid principal balance, if no interest rate exceeds the maximum lawful interest rate applicable to the loan or contract at the time the loan or contract is made.

~~(4)~~ (2) Contracts for deed executed pursuant to a commitment for a contract for deed, or conventional or cooperative apartment loans made pursuant to a borrower's interest rate commitment or made pursuant to a borrower's loan commitment, or made pursuant to a commitment for conventional or cooperative apartment loans made upon payment of a forward commitment fee including a borrower's loan commitment issued pursuant to a forward commitment, which commitment provides for consummation within some future time following the issuance of the commitment may be consummated pursuant to the provisions, including the interest rate, of the commitment notwithstanding the fact that the maximum lawful rate of interest at the time the contract for deed or conventional or cooperative apartment loan is actually executed or made is less than the commitment rate of interest, provided the commitment rate of interest does not exceed the maximum lawful interest rate in effect on the date the commitment was issued. The refinancing of (a) an existing conventional or cooperative apartment loan, (b) a loan insured or guaranteed by the secretary of housing and urban development, the administrator of veterans affairs, or the administrator of the farmers home administration, or (c) a contract for deed by making a conventional or cooperative apartment loan is deemed to be a new conventional or cooperative apartment loan for purposes of determining the maximum lawful rate of interest under this subdivision. The renegotiation of a conventional or cooperative apartment loan or a contract for deed is deemed to be a new loan or contract for deed for purposes of clause ~~(3)~~ (1) and for purposes of determining the maximum lawful rate of interest under this subdivision. A borrower's interest rate commitment or a borrower's loan commitment is deemed to be issued on the date the commitment is hand delivered by the lender to, or mailed to the borrower. A forward commitment is deemed to be issued on the date the forward commitment is hand delivered by the lender to, or mailed to the person paying the forward commitment fee to the lender, or to any one of them if there should be more than one. A commitment for a contract for deed is deemed to be issued on the date the commitment is initially executed by the contract for deed vendor or the vendor's authorized agent.

~~(5)~~ (3) A contract for deed executed pursuant to a commitment for a contract for deed, or a loan made pursuant to a borrower's interest rate commitment, or made pursuant to a borrower's loan commitment, or made pursuant to a forward commitment for conventional or cooperative apartment loans made upon payment of a forward commitment fee including a borrower's loan commitment issued pursuant to a forward commitment at a rate of interest not in excess of the rate of interest authorized by this subdivision at the time the commitment was made continues to be enforceable in accordance with its terms until the indebtedness is fully satisfied.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 47.20, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. (a) No conventional loan or loan authorized in subdivision 1 made on or after the effective date of Laws 1977, chapter 350 shall contain a provision requiring or permitting the imposition of a penalty in the event the loan or advance of credit is prepaid.

(b) A precomputed conventional loan or precomputed loan authorized in subdivision 1 shall provide for a refund of the precomputed finance charge according to the actuarial method if the loan is paid in full by cash, renewal or refinancing, or a new loan, one month or more before the final installment due date. The actuarial method for the purpose of this section is the amount of interest attributable to each fully unexpired monthly installment period of the loan contract following the date of prepayment in full calculated as if the loan was made on an interest-bearing basis at the rate of interest provided for in the note based on the assumption that all payments were made according to schedule. A precomputed loan for the purpose of this section means a loan for which the debt is expressed as a sum comprised of the principal amount and the amount of interest for the entire term of the loan computed actuarially in advance on the assumption that all scheduled payments will be made when due and does not include a loan for which interest is computed from time to time by application of a rate to the unpaid principal balance, interest-bearing loans, or simple-interest loans. For the purpose of calculating a refund for precomputed loans under this section, any portion of the finance charge for extending the first payment period beyond one month may be ignored. Nothing in this section shall be considered a limitation on discount points or other finance charges charged or collected in advance, and nothing in this section shall require a refund of the charges in the event of prepayment. Nothing in this section shall be considered to supersede section 47.204.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 47.52, is amended to read:

(b) A detached facility shall not be closer than 50 feet to a detached facility operated by any other bank and shall not be closer than 100 feet to the principal office of any other bank, the measurement to be made in the same manner as provided above. (c) Any bank is allowed, in addition to other facilities, one drive-in or walk-up facility located between 150 to 1,500 feet of the main banking house or within 1,500 feet from a detached facility. The drive-in or walk-up facility permitted by this clause is subject to clause (b) and section 47.53.

(d) With the prior approval of the commissioner, a bank may locate a detached facility in a township if:

(1) the township is in Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, or Washington county; and

(2) the detached facility is either:

(i) within the same township as the applicant bank's principal office;

(ii) within 5,000 feet of the applicant bank's principal office as measured in paragraph (a); or

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 47.54, is amended to read:

47.54 [NOTICES AND APPROVAL PROCEDURES.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] Any bank desiring to establish a detached facility shall execute and acknowledge a written application in the form prescribed by the commissioner and shall file the application in the commissioner's office with a fee of $500. ~~If an application is contested, 50 percent of an additional fee equal to the actual costs incurred by the commissioner in approving or disapproving the application, payable to the state treasurer and credited by the treasurer to the general fund, shall be paid by the applicant and 50 percent equally by the intervening parties.~~ The applicant shall within 30 days of the receipt of the form prescribed by the commissioner publish a notice of the filing of the application in a qualified newspaper published in the municipality in which the proposed detached facility is to be located, and if there is no such newspaper, then in a qualified newspaper likely to give notice in the municipality in which the proposed detached facility is to be located. In addition to the publication, the applicant must mail a copy of the notice by certified mail to every bank located within three miles of the proposed location of the detached facility, measured in the manner provided in section 47.52.

Subd. 2. [APPROVAL ORDER.] If no objection is received by the commissioner within 21 days after the publication and mailing of the notices, the commissioner shall issue an order approving the application without a hearing if it is found that (a) the applicant bank meets current industry standards of capital adequacy, management quality, and asset condition, (b) the establishment of the proposed detached facility will improve the quality or increase the availability of banking services in the community to be served, and (c) the establishment of the proposed detached facility will not have an undue adverse effect upon the solvency of existing financial institutions in the community to be served. Otherwise, the commissioner shall deny the application. Any proceedings for judicial review of an order of the commissioner issued under this subdivision without a contested case hearing shall be conducted pursuant to the provisions of the administrative procedure act relating to judicial review of agency decisions, sections 14.63 to 14.69, and the scope of judicial review in such proceedings shall be as provided therein. Nothing herein shall be construed as requiring the commissioner to conduct a contested case hearing if no written objection is timely received by the commissioner from a bank within three miles of the proposed location of the detached facility.

Subd. 3. [OBJECTIONS; HEARING.] If any bank within three miles of the proposed location of the detached facility objects in writing within 21 days, the commissioner shall ~~fix a time, within 60 days after filing of the objection, for a hearing, and the record of the hearing shall be considered by the commissioner in deciding whether or not the application shall be granted. A notice of the hearing shall be published in the form prescribed by the commissioner in a newspaper as described in subdivision 1, at the expense of the applicant, not less than 30 days prior to the date of the hearing. At the hearing the commissioner shall consider the application and hear the applicant and any witnesses who may appear in favor of or against the granting of the application. The hearing shall be conducted by the commissioner in accordance with the provisions of the administrative procedures act, sections 14.001 to 14.69, governing contested cases, including the provisions of the act relating to judicial review of agency decisions.~~ consider the objection. If the objection also requests a hearing, the objector must include the nature of the issues or facts to be presented and the reasons why written submissions would be insufficient to make an adequate presentation to the commissioner. Comments challenging the legality of an application should be submitted separately in writing.

Written requests for hearing must be evaluated by the commissioner who may grant or deny the request. A hearing must generally be granted only if it is determined that written submissions would be inadequate or that a hearing would otherwise be beneficial to the decision-making process. A hearing may be limited to issues considered material by the commissioner.

If a request for a hearing has been denied, the commissioner shall notify the applicant and all interested persons stating the reasons for denial. Interested parties may submit to the commissioner with simultaneous copies to the applicant additional written comments on the application within 14 days after the date of the notice of denial. The applicant shall be provided an additional seven days after the 14-day deadline has expired within which to respond to any comments submitted within the 14-day period. A copy of any response submitted by the applicant shall also be mailed simultaneously by the applicant to the interested parties. The commissioner may waive the additional seven-day comment period if so requested by the applicant.

Subd. 4. [HEARING.] In any case in which the commissioner grants a request for a hearing, the commissioner shall fix a time for a hearing conducted pursuant to chapter 14 to decide whether or not the application will be granted. A notice of the hearing must be published by the applicant in the form prescribed by the commissioner in a newspaper published in the municipality in which the proposed detached facility is to be located, and if there is no such newspaper, then at the county seat of the county in which the detached facility is proposed to be located. The notice must be published once, at the expense of the applicants, not less than 30 days prior to the date of the hearing. At the hearing the commissioner shall consider the application and hear the applicants and witnesses that appear in favor of or against the granting of the application of the proposed detached facility. If an application is contested and a hearing is granted, 50 percent of an additional fee equal to the actual costs incurred by the department of commerce in approving or disapproving the application, payable to the commissioner of commerce to be deposited in the general fund, must be paid by the applicant and 50 percent equally by the intervening parties.

Subd. ~~4~~ 5. [DECISION AFTER HEARING.] If upon the hearing, it appears to the commissioner that the requirements for approval contained in subdivision 2 have been met, the commissioner shall, not later than 90 days after the hearing, issue an order approving the application. If the commissioner shall decide that the application should not be granted, the commissioner shall issue an order to that effect and forthwith give notice by certified mail to the applicant.

Subd. ~~5~~ 6. [EXPIRATION AND EXTENSION OF ORDER.] If a facility is not activated within 18 months from the date of the order, the approval order automatically expires. Upon request of the applicant prior to the automatic expiration date of the order, the commissioner may grant reasonable extensions of time to the applicant to activate the facility as the commissioner deems necessary. The extensions of time shall not exceed a total of an additional 12 months. If the commissioner's order is the subject of an appeal in accordance with chapter 14, the time period referred to in this section for activation of the facility and any extensions shall begin when all appeals or rights of appeal from the commissioner's order have concluded or expired.

In addition thereto undivided profits shall be provided for in such an amount as the commissioner shall determine to be adequate under the circumstances to avoid any possible impairment of capital and surplus. The total of these outlays shall be known as capital funds, and payment thereof shall be made in full, in cash or authorized securities, deposited in an approved custodial bank, and certified to the commissioner, under oath of the president and cashier or other chief financial officer, as well as the custodial bank, before the proposed state bank shall be authorized to commence business. The capital funds of a proposed bank shall not be less than a total amount which the commissioner considers necessary, having in mind the deposit potential for such a proposed bank and current banking industry standards of capital adequacy.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 48.512, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [IDENTIFICATION IS REQUIRED.] A financial intermediary shall not open or authorize signatory power over a transaction account if none of the applicants provides a driver's license, identification card, or identification document as required by subdivision 2. If the applicant provides a driver's license or identification card issued under section 171.07, the financial intermediary must confirm the identification number and name on that card through the records of the department of public safety. The financial intermediary need not confirm this information if the checking account applicant presents identification required under subdivision 2, paragraph (g), that meets the requirements of section 171.07, subdivision 9. The financial intermediary need not confirm this information if an employee of the financial intermediary has known the identity of the applicant for at least one year prior to the time of the application, and the employee provides a signed statement confirming that fact. When a minor is the applicant and the minor does not have a driver's license or identification card issued pursuant to section 171.07, the identification requirements of subdivision 2, clause (g), and this subdivision are satisfied if the minor's parent or guardian provides identification of that person's own that meets the identification requirement. The financial intermediary may waive the identification requirement if the applicant has had another type of account with the financial intermediary for at least one year immediately preceding the time of application.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 48.89, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. No bank may cause to be performed, by contract or otherwise, any clerical services for itself from a clerical service corporation or any other person, whether on or off its premises, unless assurances satisfactory to the commissioner are furnished to the commissioner by both the bank and the party performing such services that the performance thereof will be subject to regulation and examination by the commissioner to the same extent as if such services were being performed by the bank itself on its own premises.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 49.34, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ACQUISITION OF BANK OR SAVINGS ASSOCIATION FOR OPERATION AS DETACHED FACILITY.] (a) Notwithstanding the geographic limitations of subdivision 1, and the distance limitations and consent requirements of section 47.52, a state bank may apply to the commissioner, pursuant to the procedures contained in sections 47.51 to 47.56 and 49.35 to 49.41, to acquire another state bank or national banking association and its detached facilities through merger, consolidation or purchase of assets and assumption of liabilities and operate them as detached facilities of the successor bank if the operation of them otherwise conforms to the limitations of section 47.52.

(b) In addition to the authority granted in paragraphs (a) and (c), and notwithstanding the geographic limitations of subdivision 1 and the limitations on number of facilities and consent requirements contained in section 47.52, a state bank whose main banking office is located within the county of Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, or Washington may apply to the commissioner, pursuant to the procedures contained in sections 47.51 to 47.56 and 49.35 to 49.41, to acquire another state bank or national banking association and its detached facilities through merger, consolidation, or purchase of assets and assumption of liabilities and operate them as detached facilities of the successor bank if each resulting detached facility is located within the county of Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, or Washington.

(c) Where the commissioner has determined that a merger, consolidation or purchase of assets and assumption of liabilities is necessary and in the public interest to prevent the probable failure of a state bank ~~or~~, national banking association, or state or federal savings and loan association or savings bank, the limitations on location and number of detached facilities in section 47.52 shall not apply to the establishment of a detached facility directly resulting from such acquisition. The establishment of a detached facility in order to prevent ~~the~~ a probable failure ~~of a bank~~ as provided in this ~~subdivision~~ paragraph shall not require the written consent of banks having a principal office in the municipality in which the resulting detached facility will be located, notwithstanding the provisions of section 47.52.

The consolidation or merger under this paragraph of a capital stock savings and loan association or savings bank and a bank shall be effected in the manner provided in sections 49.35 to 49.41. A savings and loan association or savings bank that is a mutual association may be acquired directly under this paragraph through the purchase of assets and assumption of liabilities. A state bank acquiring a savings and loan association or savings bank under this paragraph must, with the approval of the commissioner of commerce, establish a reasonable date by which the bank will cease all activities conducted by the savings and loan association or savings bank that are not authorized activities for the bank.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 52.06, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REPORT AND AUDIT SCHEDULE.] Credit unions shall be under the supervision of the commissioner of commerce. Each credit union shall annually, on or before January 25, file a report with the commissioner of commerce on forms supplied by the commissioner for that purpose giving such relevant information as the commissioner may require concerning the operations during the preceding calendar year. Additional reports may be required. Credit unions shall be examined, at least once every 18 calendar months, by the commissioner of commerce~~, except that if a credit union requests, the commissioner may accept the audit of a certified public accountant in place of this examination. Such certified public accountant must be approved by the commissioner. The qualitative type of audit examination to be performed by the certified public accountant shall be defined by rule and approved by the commissioner~~. Further, in lieu of this examination the commissioner may accept any examination made by the National Credit Union Administration, provided a copy of the examination is furnished to the commissioner. A report of the examination by the commissioner of commerce shall be forwarded to the president, or the chair of the board if the position is so designated pursuant to section 52.09, subdivision 4, of the examined credit union within 60 days after completion of the examination. Within 60 days of the receipt of such report, a general meeting of the directors and committees shall be called to consider matters contained in the report. For failure to file reports when due, unless excused for cause, the credit union shall pay to the state treasurer $5 for each day of its delinquency.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 52.24, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [INSURANCE ACCOUNTS.] Every credit union under the supervision of the commissioner of commerce shall at all times maintain in effect insurance of member share and deposit accounts under the provisions of title II of the National Credit Union Act~~, or insurance from a legally constituted credit union share insurance corporation~~. A credit union which fails to meet this requirement for insurance of its share and deposit accounts shall either dissolve or merge with another credit union which is insured under title II of the National Credit Union Act~~, or by a legally constituted credit union share insurance corporation~~.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 53.03, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [PLACE OF BUSINESS.] Not more than one place of business may be maintained under any certificate of authorization issued subsequent to the enactment of Laws 1943, chapter 67, pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, but the department of commerce may issue more than one certificate of authorization to the same corporation upon compliance with all the provisions of this chapter governing an original issuance of a certificate of authorization. To the extent that previously filed applicable information remains unchanged, the applicant need not refile this information, unless requested. The filing fee for a branch application shall be $500 and the investigation fee $250. If a corporation has been issued more than one certificate of authorization, the corporation shall allocate a portion of capital stock to each office for which a certificate has been issued, in order to comply with the capital requirements of sections 53.02 and 53.05, clause (2), which sections are applicable to each office and the capital allocated thereto in the same manner as if each certificate had been issued to a separate corporation. An industrial loan and thrift corporation with deposit liabilities may change one or more of its locations upon the written approval of the commissioner of commerce. A fee of $100 must accompany each application to the commissioner for approval to change the location of an established office. An industrial loan and thrift corporation that does not sell and issue thrift certificates for investment may change one or more locations by giving 30 days' written notice to the department of commerce which shall promptly amend the certificate of authorization accordingly. No change in place of business of a company to a location outside of its current trade area or more than 25 miles from its present location, whichever distance is greater, shall be permitted under the same certificate unless all of the applicable requirements of this section have been met.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 53.09, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REPORT TO COMMISSIONER.] (1) Each industrial loan and thrift company shall annually on or before the first day of February file a report with the commissioner stating in detail, under appropriate heads, its assets and liabilities at the close of business on the last day of the preceding calendar year. This report shall be made under oath in the form prescribed by the commissioner ~~and published once, at the expense of the industrial loan and thrift company, in a newspaper of the county of its location, and proof thereof filed immediately with the commissioner of commerce~~.

(2) Each industrial loan and thrift company which holds authority to accept accounts pursuant to section 53.04, subdivision 5, shall in place of the requirement in clause (1) submit the reports and make the publication required of state banks pursuant to section 48.48.

(3) Within 30 days following a change in controlling ownership of the capital stock of an industrial loan and thrift company, it shall file a written report with the commissioner stating in detail the nature of such change in ownership.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 56.04, is amended to read:

56.04 [INVESTIGATION; ISSUANCE OF LICENSE; DENIAL; REFUNDS.]

Upon the filing of the application and payment of these fees, the commissioner shall investigate the facts, and if the commissioner shall find (1) that the financial responsibility, experience, character, and general fitness of the applicant, and of the members thereof if the applicant be a copartnership or association, and of the person with direct responsibility for the operation and management of the proposed office are such as to command confidence and to warrant belief that the business will be operated honestly, fairly, and efficiently within the purposes of this chapter, and primarily for purposes other than making loans to finance the purchase of products or services, other than insurance products authorized in this chapter or chapter 62B, offered by the applicant, a person which controls or is controlled by the applicant, or a person which is controlled by persons which also control the applicant; and (2) that the applicant has available for the operation of the business, at the specified location, liquid assets of at least $50,000 (the foregoing facts being conditions precedent to the issuance of a license under this chapter), the commissioner shall thereupon issue and deliver a license to the applicant to make loans, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, at the location specified in the application. If the commissioner shall not so find, the commissioner shall not issue a license and shall notify the applicant of the denial and return to the applicant the sum paid by the applicant as a license fee, retaining the $250 investigation fee to cover the costs of investigating the application. The commissioner shall approve or deny every application for license hereunder within 60 days from the filing thereof with the fees.

If the application is denied, the commissioner shall, within 20 days thereafter, file in the commissioner's office a written decision and findings with respect thereto containing the evidence and the reasons supporting the denial, and forthwith serve upon the applicant a copy thereof.

There is hereby appropriated to such persons as are entitled to such refund, from the fund or account in the state treasury to which the money was credited, an amount sufficient to make the refund and payment.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 56.07, is amended to read:

56.07 [CONTROL OVER LOCATION.]

Not more than one place of business shall be maintained under the same license, but the commissioner may issue more than one license to the same licensee upon compliance with all the provisions of this chapter governing an original issuance of a license, for each such new license. To the extent that previously filed applicable information remains substantially unchanged, the applicant need not refile this information, unless requested.

When a licensee shall wish to change a place of business, the licensee shall give written notice thereof 30 days in advance to the commissioner, who shall within 30 days of receipt of such notice, issue an amended license approving the change. No change in the place of business of a licensee to its current trade area or more than 25 miles from its present location, whichever distance is greater, shall be permitted under the same license unless all of the requirements of section 56.04 have been met.

A licensed place of business shall be open during regular business hours each weekday, except for legal holidays and for any weekday the commissioner grants approval to the licensee to remain closed. A licensed place of business may be open on Saturday, but shall be closed on Sunday.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 56.12, is amended to read:

56.12 [ADVERTISING; TAKING OF SECURITY; PLACE OF BUSINESS.]

No licensee shall advertise, print, display, publish, distribute, or broadcast, or cause or permit to be advertised, printed, displayed, published, distributed, or broadcast, in any manner any statement or representation with regard to the rates, terms, or conditions for the lending of money, credit, goods, or things in action which is false, misleading, or deceptive. The commissioner may order any licensee to desist from any conduct which the commissioner shall find to be a violation of the foregoing provisions.

The commissioner may require that rates of charge, if stated by a licensee, be stated fully and clearly in such manner as the commissioner may deem necessary to prevent misunderstanding thereof by prospective borrowers. In lieu of the disclosure requirements of this section and section 56.14, a licensee may give the disclosures required by the federal Truth-in-Lending Act.

A licensee may take a lien upon real estate as security for any loan exceeding $2,700 in principal amount made under this chapter. The provisions of sections 47.20 and 47.21 do not apply to loans made under this chapter, except as provided in this section. No loan secured by a first lien on a borrower's primary residence shall be made pursuant to this section if the proceeds of the loan are used to finance the purchase of the borrower's primary residence, unless:

(1) the proceeds of the loan are used to finance the purchase of a manufactured home; or

(2) the proceeds of the loan are used in whole or in part to satisfy the balance owed on a contract for deed.

If the proceeds of the loan are used to finance the purchase of the borrower's primary residence, the licensee shall consent to the subsequent transfer of the real estate if the existing borrower continues after transfer to be obligated for repayment of the entire remaining indebtedness. The licensee shall release the existing borrower from all obligations under the loan instruments, if the transferee (1) meets the standards of credit worthiness normally used by persons in the business of making loans, including but not limited to the ability of the transferee to make the loan payments and satisfactorily maintain the property used as collateral, and (2) executes an agreement in writing with the licensee whereby the transferee assumes the obligations of the existing borrower under the loan instruments. Any such agreement shall not affect the priority, validity or enforceability of any loan instrument. A licensee may charge a fee not in excess of one-tenth of one percent of the remaining unpaid principal balance in the event the loan is assumed by the transferee and the existing borrower continues after the transfer to be obligated for repayment of the entire assumed indebtedness. A licensee may charge a fee not in excess of one percent of the remaining unpaid principal balance in the event the remaining indebtedness is assumed by the transferee and the existing borrower is released from all obligations under the loan instruments, but in no event shall the fee exceed $150.

A licensee making a loan under this chapter secured by a lien on real estate shall comply with the requirements of section 47.20, subdivision 8.

No licensee shall conduct the business of making loans under this chapter within any office, room, or place of business in which any other business is solicited or engaged in, or in association or conjunction therewith, if the commissioner finds that the character of the other business is such that it would facilitate evasions of this chapter or of the rules lawfully made hereunder. The commissioner may promulgate rules dealing with such other businesses.

No licensee shall transact the business or make any loan provided for by this chapter under any other name or at any other place of business than that named in the license. No licensee shall take any confession of judgment or any power of attorney. No licensee shall take any note or promise to pay that does not accurately disclose the principal amount of the loan, the time for which it is made, and the agreed rate or amount of charge, nor any instrument in which blanks are left to be filled in after execution. Nothing herein is deemed to prohibit the making of loans by mail or arranging for settlement and closing of real estate secured loans by an unrelated qualified closing agent at a location other than the licensed location.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 56.131, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [ADJUSTMENT OF DOLLAR AMOUNTS.] (a) The dollar amounts in this section, sections 53.04, subdivision 3a, paragraph (c), 56.01 ~~and~~, 56.12, and 56.125 shall change periodically, as provided in this section, according to and to the extent of changes in the implicit price deflator for the gross national product, 1972 = 100, compiled by the United States Department of Commerce, and hereafter referred to as the index. The index for December, 1980 is the reference base index for adjustments of dollar amounts, except that the index for December, 1984 is the reference base index for the minimum default charge of $4. The reference base index for subdivisions 1, paragraph (a), clause (1); and 2, paragraph (d), is December 1990.

(b) The designated dollar amounts shall change on July 1 of each even-numbered year if the percentage of change, calculated to the nearest whole percentage point, between the index for December of the preceding year and the reference base index is ten percent or more, but;

(1) the portion of the percentage change in the index in excess of a multiple of ten percent shall be disregarded and the dollar amounts shall change only in multiples of ten percent of the amounts appearing in Laws 1981, chapter 258 on the date of enactment; and

(2) the dollar amounts shall not change if the amounts required by this section are those currently in effect pursuant to Laws 1981, chapter 258 as a result of earlier application of this section.

(c) If the index is revised, the percentage of change pursuant to this section shall be calculated on the basis of the revised index. If a revision of the index changes the reference base index, a revised reference base index shall be determined by multiplying the reference base index then applicable by the rebasing factor furnished by the department of commerce. If the index is superseded, the index referred to in this section is the one represented by the department of commerce as reflecting most accurately changes in the purchasing power of the dollar for consumers.

(d) The commissioner shall announce and publish:

(1) on or before April 30 of each year in which dollar amounts are to change, the changes in dollar amounts required by paragraph (b); and

(2) promptly after the changes occur, changes in the index required by paragraph (c) including, if applicable, the numerical equivalent of the reference base index under a revised reference base index and the designation or title of any index superseding the index.

(e) A person does not violate this chapter with respect to a transaction otherwise complying with this chapter if that person relies on dollar amounts either determined according to paragraph (b), clause (2) or appearing in the last publication of the commissioner announcing the then current dollar amounts.

(f) The adjustments provided in this section shall not be affected unless explicitly provided otherwise by law.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 171.07, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [SECURITY.] Beginning July 1, 1993, all drivers' licenses of any class, issued by the department, must be as impervious to alteration as is reasonably practicable in their design and quality of material and technology. The department shall give preference to a driver's license design that utilizes, to the extent possible, materials that are not generally available to the public and that provide more than one level of verification.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 300.23, is amended to read:

300.23 [VOTING, HOW REGULATED.]

Unless otherwise provided in the certificate or bylaws, at every meeting each stockholder or member is entitled to one vote in person, or by proxy made within one year or other time specially limited by law, for each share or other lawful unit of representation held in an individual, corporate, or representative capacity. No stock may be voted on at an election within 20 days after its transfer on the books of the corporation. In the case of a banking corporation, the commissioner of commerce may waive the 20-day limitation.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 300.52, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PRIOR NOTICE.] The first meeting of a corporation, except as otherwise prescribed in its certificate of incorporation or in the case of a banking corporation as waived in writing by the commissioner of commerce, must be called upon not less than three weeks' prior personal or published notice. The notice must be signed by one of the incorporators, to the others, and to each subscriber, if any, to its capital stock, specifying the time, place, and purpose of the meeting. Unless otherwise provided in the certificate of incorporation or corporate bylaws, an annual meeting must be called and held at its principal place of business upon three weeks' published notice, signed by its secretary. No business transacted at an annual meeting not called and held as required by this subdivision is effective. The manner of calling and holding all meetings may be prescribed by its bylaws.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 332.13, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. "Debt prorating" means the performance of any one or more of the following:

(a) managing the financial affairs of an individual by distributing income or money to the creditors thereof;

(b) receiving funds for the purpose of distributing said funds among creditors in payment or partial payment of obligations of a debtor; or

(c) settling, adjusting, prorating, pooling, or liquidating the indebtedness of a debtor. Any person so engaged or holding out as so engaged shall be deemed to be engaged in debt prorating regardless of whether or not a fee is charged for such services. This term shall not include services performed by the following when engaged in the regular course of their respective businesses and professions:

(1) Attorneys at law, escrow agents, accountants, broker-dealers in securities;

(2) Banks, state or national, trust companies, savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, title insurance companies, insurance companies and all other lending institutions duly authorized to transact business in the state of Minnesota, provided no fee is charged for such service;

(4) Public officers acting in their official capacities and persons acting pursuant to court order;

(5) Nonprofit corporations, organized under Minnesota Statutes 1967, Chapter 317, giving debt prorating service, provided no fee is charged for such service;

Sec. 30. [REPEALER.]

Sec. 31. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 4, 17, 25, and 29 are effective the day following final enactment. If the effective date of section 25 is after the commissioner of commerce has made the announcement and publication required to be made on or before April 30 of each year under section 56.131, subdivision 4, the commissioner shall, if necessary, revise the announcement and publication to conform with section 25."

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 475.61, subdivision 4, the state board of technical colleges may approve a request by a local school board to use any unobligated balance in the technical college debt redemption fund to pay the district's share of construction projects authorized in this section.

In contracting for projects funded in this section, the state board must not restrict its access to litigation or limit its methods of redress to arbitration or other nonjudicial procedures.

The state board shall report to the house appropriations and senate finance committees by January 15 of each year on the status of the capital improvement projects in this section.

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 136C.44, during the biennium the state board of technical colleges must not make grants to school districts but shall directly supervise and control the preparation of plans and specifications to construct, alter, or enlarge the technical college buildings, structures, and improvements provided for in this section.

The school district must still finance 15 percent of the cost of each project, other than in a joint vocational technical district as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 136C.60.

During the biennium, the state board of technical colleges shall advertise for bids and award contracts in connection with the improvements, supervise and inspect the work, approve necessary changes in the plans and specifications, approve estimates for payment, and accept the improvements when completed according to the plans and specifications.

During the biennium, the state board may delegate the authority provided in this section to the campus director for repair and replacement projects with a total cost of less than $50,000, if the state board determines that the projects can be efficiently managed at the campus level.

Plans must be paid for out of this appropriation. The remainder of the appropriation must not be spent until the board has secured suitable plans and specifications, prepared by a competent architect or engineer. The plans and specifications must be accompanied by a detailed statement of the cost, quality, and description of all material and labor required for the completion of the work. No plan may be adopted, and no improvement made or building constructed, that contemplates the expenditure for its completion of more money than the appropriation for it, unless otherwise provided in this act.

The state board of technical colleges may delegate responsibilities to technical college staff.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.102, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [REHABILITATION PLAN; DEVELOPMENT.] (a) ~~An employer or insurer shall provide rehabilitation consultation by a qualified rehabilitation consultant or by another person permitted by rule to provide consultation to an injured employee within five days after the employee has 60 days of lost work time due to the personal injury, except as otherwise provided in this subdivision. Where an employee has incurred an injury to the back, the consultation shall be made within five days after the employee has 30 days of lost work time due to the injury. The lost work time in either case~~

~~may be intermittent lost work time. If an employer or insurer has medical information at any time prior to the time specified in this subdivision that the employee will be unable to return to the job the employee held at the time of the injury rehabilitation consultation shall be provided immediately after receipt of this information.~~

~~For purposes of this section "lost work time" means only those days during which the employee would actually be working but for the injury. In the case of the construction industry, mining industry, or other industry where the hours and days of work are affected by seasonal conditions, "lost work time" shall be computed by using the normal schedule worked when employees are working full time.~~ A rehabilitation consultation must be provided by the employer to an injured employee upon request of the employee, the employer, or the commissioner. When the commissioner has received notice or information that an employee has sustained an injury that may be compensable under this chapter, the commissioner must notify the injured employee of the right to request a rehabilitation consultation to assist in return to work. The notice may be included in other information the commissioner gives to the employee under section 176.235, and must be highlighted in a way to draw the employee's attention to it. If a rehabilitation consultation is requested, the employer shall provide a qualified rehabilitation consultant. If the injured employee objects to the employer's selection, the employee may select a qualified rehabilitation consultant of the employee's own choosing within six months following the filing of a copy of the employee's rehabilitation plan with the commissioner. If the consultation indicates that rehabilitation services are appropriate under subdivision 1, the employer shall provide the services. If the consultation indicates that rehabilitation services are not appropriate under subdivision 1, the employer shall notify the employee of this determination within 14 days after the consultation.

(b) In order to assist the commissioner in determining whether or not to request rehabilitation consultation for an injured employee, an employer shall notify the commissioner whenever the employee's temporary total disability will likely exceed 13 weeks. The notification must be made within 90 days from the date of the injury or when the likelihood of at least a 13-week disability can be determined, whichever is earlier, and must include a current physician's report.

(c) The qualified rehabilitation consultant ~~appointed by the employer or insurer~~ shall disclose in writing at the first meeting or written communication with the employee any ownership interest or affiliation between the firm which employs the qualified rehabilitation consultant and the employer, insurer, adjusting or servicing company, including the nature and extent of the affiliation or interest.

The consultant shall also disclose to all parties any affiliation, business referral or other arrangement between the consultant or the firm employing the consultant and any other party ~~to~~, attorney, or health care provider involved in the case ~~, including any attorneys, doctors, or chiropractors~~.

~~If the employee objects to the employer's selection of a qualified rehabilitation consultant, the employee shall notify the employer and the commissioner in writing of the objection. The notification shall include the name, address, and telephone number of the qualified rehabilitation consultant chosen by the employee to provide rehabilitation consultation.~~

(d) After the initial provision or selection of a qualified rehabilitation consultant as provided under paragraph (a), the employee may ~~choose~~ request a different qualified rehabilitation consultant ~~as follows:~~

~~(1) once during the first 60 days following the first in-person contact between the employee and the original consultant;~~

~~(2) once after the 60-day period referred to in clause (1); and~~

~~(3) subsequent requests~~ which shall be ~~determined~~ granted or denied by the commissioner or compensation judge according to the best interests of the parties.

(e) The employee and employer shall ~~enter into a program if one is prescribed in~~ develop a rehabilitation plan within 30 days of the rehabilitation consultation if the qualified rehabilitation consultant determines that rehabilitation is appropriate. A copy of the plan, including a target date for return to work, shall be submitted to the commissioner within 15 days after the plan has been developed.

~~(b)~~ (f) If the employer does not provide rehabilitation consultation ~~as required by this section~~ requested under paragraph (a), the commissioner or compensation judge shall notify the employer that if the employer fails to ~~appoint~~ provide a qualified rehabilitation consultant ~~or other persons as permitted by clause (a)~~ within 15 days to conduct a rehabilitation consultation, the commissioner or compensation judge shall appoint a qualified rehabilitation consultant to provide the consultation at the expense of the employer unless the commissioner or compensation judge determines the consultation is not required.

~~(c)~~ (g) In developing a rehabilitation plan consideration shall be given to the employee's qualifications, including but not limited to age, education, previous work history, interest, transferable skills, and present and future labor market conditions.

~~(d)~~ (h) The commissioner or compensation judge may waive rehabilitation services under this section if the commissioner or compensation judge is satisfied that the employee will return to work in the near future or that rehabilitation services will not be useful in returning an employee to work.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.102, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PLAN, ELIGIBILITY FOR REHABILITATION, APPROVAL AND APPEAL.] (a) The commissioner or a compensation judge shall determine eligibility for rehabilitation services and shall review, approve, modify, or reject rehabilitation plans developed under subdivision 4. The commissioner or a compensation judge shall also make determinations regarding rehabilitation issues not necessarily part of a plan including, but not limited to, determinations regarding whether an employee is eligible for further rehabilitation and the benefits under subdivisions 9 and 11 to which an employee is entitled.

(b) A rehabilitation consultant must file a progress report on the plan with the commissioner six months after the plan is filed. The progress report must include a current estimate of the total cost and the expected duration of the plan. The commissioner may require additional progress reports. Based on the progress reports and available information, the commissioner may take actions including, but not limited to, redirecting, amending, suspending, or terminating the plan.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.102, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [PLAN, COSTS.] (a) An employer is liable for the following rehabilitation expenses under this section:

~~(a)~~ (1) cost of rehabilitation evaluation and preparation of a plan;

~~(b)~~ (2) cost of all rehabilitation services and supplies necessary for implementation of the plan;

~~(c)~~ (3) reasonable cost of tuition, books, travel, and custodial day care; and, in addition, reasonable costs of board and lodging when rehabilitation requires residence away from the employee's customary residence;

~~(d)~~ (4) reasonable costs of travel and custodial day care during the job interview process;

~~(e)~~ (5) reasonable cost for moving expenses of the employee and family if a job is found in a geographic area beyond reasonable commuting distance after a diligent search within the present community. Relocation shall not be paid more than once during any rehabilitation program, and relocation shall not be required if the new job is located within the same standard metropolitan statistical area as the employee's job at the time of injury. An employee shall not be required to relocate and a refusal to relocate shall not result in a suspension or termination of compensation under this chapter; and ~~(f)~~ (6) any other expense agreed to be paid.

(b) Charges for services provided by a rehabilitation consultant or vendor must be submitted on a billing form prescribed by the commissioner. No payment for the services shall be made until the charges are submitted on the prescribed form.

(c) Except as provided in this paragraph, an employer is not liable for charges for services provided by a rehabilitation consultant or vendor unless the employer or its insurer receives a bill for those services within 45 days of the provision of the services. The commissioner or a compensation judge may order payment for charges not timely billed under this paragraph if the rehabilitation consultant or vendor can prove that the failure to submit the bill as required by this paragraph was due to circumstances beyond the control of the rehabilitation consultant or vendor. A rehabilitation consultant or vendor may not collect payment from any other person, including the employee, for bills that an employer is relieved from liability for paying under this paragraph.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.103, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [SCOPE.] (a) The commissioner shall monitor the medical and surgical treatment provided to injured employees, the services of other health care providers and shall also monitor hospital utilization as it relates to the treatment of injured employees. This monitoring shall include determinations concerning the appropriateness of the service, whether the treatment is necessary and effective, the proper cost of services, the quality of the treatment, the right of providers to receive payment under this chapter for services rendered or the right to receive payment under this chapter for future services. Insurers and self-insurers must assist the commissioner in this monitoring by reporting to the commissioner cases of suspected excessive, inappropriate, or unnecessary treatment. The commissioner shall report ~~the results of the monitoring~~ specific cases of suspected inappropriate, unnecessary, and excessive treatment to the medical services review board. ~~The commissioner may, either as a result of the monitoring or as a result of an investigation following receipt of a complaint, if the commissioner believes that any provider of health care services has violated any provision of this chapter or rules adopted under this chapter, initiate a contested case proceeding under chapter 14. In these cases,~~ The medical services review board shall ~~make the final decision following receipt of the report of an administrative law judge~~ review those cases and make a determination of whether there is inappropriate, unnecessary, or excessive treatment based on its rules. The determination of the board is not subject to the contested case provisions of the administrative procedure act in chapter 14. An affected provider shall be given notice and an opportunity to be heard before the board prior to the board reporting its findings and conclusions. The board shall report its finding and conclusions to the commissioner. The findings and conclusions of the board are binding on the commissioner. The commissioner shall order a sanction if the board has concluded there was inappropriate, unnecessary, or excessive treatment. The commissioner shall adopt rules related to the sanctions to be imposed for inappropriate, unnecessary, or excessive treatment. The sanctions imposed may include, without limitation, a warning, a restriction on providing treatment, requiring preauthorization by the board for a plan of treatment, and suspension from receiving compensation for the provision of treatment under chapter 176. The commissioner's authority under this section also includes the authority to make determinations regarding any other activity involving the questions of utilization of medical services, and any other determination the commissioner deems necessary for the proper administration of this section, but does not include the authority to make the initial determination of primary liability, except as provided by section 176.305.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.103, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [APPEALS; EFFECT OF DECISION.] An order imposing sanctions on a health care provider under subdivision 2 may be appealed and has the effect provided by this subdivision.

A sanction becomes effective at the time the commissioner notifies the provider of the order of sanction. The notice shall advise the provider of the right to obtain review as provided in this subdivision. If mailed, the notice of order of sanction is deemed received three days after mailing to the last known address of the provider.

Within 30 days of receipt of a notice of order of sanction, a provider may request in writing a review by the commissioner of the order. Upon receiving a request, the commissioner or the commissioner's designee shall review the order, the evidence upon which the order was based, and any other material information brought to the attention of the commissioner, and determine whether sufficient cause exists to sustain the order. Within 15 days of receiving the request the commissioner shall report in writing the results of the review. The review provided in this subdivision is not subject to the contested case provisions of the administrative procedure act in chapter 14.

Within 30 days following receipt of the commissioner's decision on review, a provider may petition the workers' compensation court of appeals for review. The petition shall be filed with the court, together with proof of service of a copy on the commissioner, and accompanied by the standard filing fee for appeals from decisions of compensation judges. No responsive pleading shall be required of the commissioner, and no fees shall be charged for the appearance of the commissioner in the matter.

The petition shall be captioned in the full name of the provider making the petition as petitioner and the commissioner as respondent. The petition shall state with specificity the grounds upon which the petitioner seeks rescission of the order of sanction.

The filing of the petition shall not stay the sanction. The court may order a stay of the balance of the sanction if the hearing has not been conducted within 60 days after filing of the petition upon terms the court deems proper. To the extent applicable, review shall be conducted according to the rules of the court for review of decisions of compensation judges.

The scope of the hearing shall be limited to the issues of whether the medical services review board's findings were supported by substantial evidence in view of the record before the board and whether the sanction imposed by the commissioner was authorized by law or rule.

The workers' compensation court of appeals may adopt rules necessary to implement this subdivision.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.103, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [MEDICAL SERVICES REVIEW BOARD; SELECTION; POWERS.] (a) There is created a medical services review board composed of the commissioner or the commissioner's designee as an ex officio member, two persons representing chiropractic, one person representing hospital administrators, and six physicians representing different specialties which the commissioner determines are the most frequently utilized by injured employees. The board shall also have one person representing employees, one person representing employers or insurers, and one person representing the general public. The members shall be appointed by the commissioner and shall be governed by section 15.0575. Terms of the board's members may be renewed. The board may appoint from its members whatever subcommittees it deems appropriate.

The commissioner may appoint alternates for one-year terms to serve as a member when a member is unavailable. The number of alternates shall not exceed one chiropractor, one hospital administrator, three physicians, one employee representative, one employer or insurer representative, and one representative of the general public.

The board shall review clinical results for adequacy and recommend to the commissioner scales for disabilities and apportionment.

The board shall review and recommend to the commissioner rates for individual clinical procedures and aggregate costs. The board shall assist the commissioner in accomplishing public education.

In evaluating the clinical consequences of the services provided to an employee by a clinical health care provider, the board shall consider the following factors in the priority listed:

(1) the clinical effectiveness of the treatment;

(2) the clinical cost of the treatment; and

(3) the length of time of treatment.

The board shall advise the commissioner on the adoption of rules regarding all aspects of medical care and services provided to injured employees.

(b) The medical services review board may upon petition from the commissioner and after hearing, issue a penalty of $200 per violation, disqualify, or suspend a provider from receiving payment for services rendered under this chapter if a provider has violated any part of this chapter or rule adopted under this chapter. The hearings are initiated by the commissioner under the contested case procedures of chapter 14. The board shall make the final decision following receipt of the recommendation of the administrative law judge. The board's decision is appealable to the workers' compensation court of appeals in the manner provided by section 176.421.

(c) The board may adopt rules of procedure. The rules may be joint rules with the rehabilitation review panel.

(d) The board must adopt rules defining standards of treatment including inappropriate, unnecessary, or excessive treatment. The board may adopt by reference rules providing standards of treatment including those adopted by federal or state government agencies. The board shall adopt rules under this paragraph using the procedures of sections 14.22 to 14.28, except that no public hearing shall be required notwithstanding section 14.25.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.106, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. [LOCATION OF CONFERENCE.] If personal attendance is required to fully determine issues, all conferences shall be held within 150 miles of the residence of the employee unless the issues do not relate to a dispute with the employee. In the discretion of the workers' compensation division, a telephone conference may be ordered.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.135, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [MEDICAL, PSYCHOLOGICAL, CHIROPRACTIC, PODIATRIC, SURGICAL, HOSPITAL.] (a) The employer shall furnish any medical, psychological, chiropractic, podiatric, surgical and hospital treatment, including nursing, medicines, medical, chiropractic, podiatric, and surgical supplies, crutches and apparatus, including artificial members, or, at the option of the employee, if the employer has not filed notice as hereinafter provided, Christian Science treatment in lieu of medical treatment, chiropractic medicine and medical supplies, as may reasonably be required at the time of the injury and any time thereafter to cure and relieve from the effects of the injury. This treatment shall include treatments necessary to physical rehabilitation.

(b) The employer shall pay for the reasonable value of nursing services provided by a member of the employee's family in cases of permanent total disability.

(c) Exposure to rabies is an injury and an employer shall furnish preventative treatment to employees exposed to rabies.

(d) The employer shall furnish replacement or repair for artificial members, glasses, or spectacles, artificial eyes, podiatric orthotics, dental bridge work, dentures or artificial teeth, hearing aids, canes, crutches, or wheel chairs damaged by reason of an injury arising out of and in the course of the employment. For the purpose of this paragraph, "injury" includes damage wholly or in part to an artificial member. In case of the employer's inability or refusal seasonably to ~~do so~~ provide the items required to be provided under this paragraph, the employer is liable for the reasonable expense incurred by or on behalf of the employee in providing the same, including costs of copies of any medical records or medical reports that are in existence, obtained from health care providers, and that directly relate to the items for which payment is sought under this chapter, limited to the charges allowed by subdivision 7, and attorney fees incurred by the employee. ~~No action to recover the cost of copies may be brought until the commissioner adopts a schedule of reasonable charges under subdivision 7.~~ Attorney's fees shall be determined on an hourly basis according to the criteria in section 176.081, subdivision 5. ~~The employer shall pay for the reasonable value of nursing services by a member of the employee's family in cases of permanent total disability.~~

(e) Both the commissioner and the compensation judges have authority to make determinations under this section in accordance with sections 176.106 and 176.305.

(f) Unless otherwise provided by this chapter, an employer may provide the treatment and supplies required to be provided by an employer by this chapter solely through a managed care plan certified under section 176.1351.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.135, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [OCCUPATIONAL DISEASE MEDICAL ELIGIBILITY.] Notwithstanding section 176.66, an employee who has contracted an occupational disease is eligible to receive compensation under this section even if the employee is not disabled from earning full wages at the work at which the employee was last employed.

Payment of compensation under this section shall be made by the employer and insurer on the date of the employee's last exposure to the hazard of the occupational disease. Reimbursement for medical benefits paid under this subdivision or subdivision 1a is allowed from the employer and insurer liable under section 176.66, subdivision 10, only in the case of disablement.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.135, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [COMMENCEMENT OF PAYMENT.] As soon as reasonably possible, and no later than 30 calendar days after receiving the bill, the employer or insurer shall pay the charge or any portion of the charge which is not denied, or deny all or a part of the charge ~~on the basis of excessiveness or noncompensability, or specify the additional data needed,~~ with written notification to the employee and the provider explaining the basis for denial. All or part of a charge must be denied if any of the following conditions exist:

(1) the injury or condition is not compensable under this chapter;

(2) the charge or service is excessive under this section or section 176.136;

(3) the charges are not submitted on the prescribed billing form; or

(4) additional medical records or reports are required under subdivision 7 to substantiate the nature of the charge and its relationship to the work injury.

If payment is denied under clause (3) or (4), the employer or insurer shall pay the charges in accordance with this subdivision within 30 calendar days after receiving the additional medical data, a prescribed billing form, or documentation of enrollment or certification as a provider.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.135, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [MEDICAL BILLS AND RECORDS.] Health care providers shall submit to the insurer an itemized statement of charges on a billing form prescribed by the commissioner. Health care providers ~~other than hospitals~~ shall also submit copies of medical records or reports that substantiate the nature of the charge and its relationship to the work injury, ~~provided, however, that hospitals must submit any copies of records or reports requested under subdivision 6~~. Health care providers may charge for copies of any records or reports that are in existence and directly relate to the items for which payment is sought under this chapter. ~~Charges for copies provided under this subdivision shall be reasonable.~~ The commissioner shall adopt a schedule of reasonable charges by ~~emergency rules~~ rule.

A health care provider shall not collect, attempt to collect, refer a bill for collection, or commence an action for collection against the employee, employer, or any other party until the information required by this section has been furnished.

Sec. 14. [176.1351] [MANAGED CARE.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] Any person or entity, other than a workers' compensation insurer or an employer for its own employees, may make written application to the commissioner to have a plan certified that provides managed care to injured workers for injuries and diseases compensable under this chapter. Each application for certification shall be accompanied by a reasonable fee prescribed by the commissioner. A certificate is valid for the period the commissioner prescribes unless revoked or suspended. Application for certification shall be made in the form and manner and shall set forth information regarding the proposed plan for providing services as the commissioner may prescribe. A plan may be certified to provide services in a limited geographic area. The information shall include, but not be limited to:

(1) a list of the names of all health care providers who will provide services under the managed care plan, together with appropriate evidence of compliance with any licensing or certification requirements for those providers to practice in this state;

(2) a description of the places and manner of providing services under the plan; or

(3) satisfactory evidence of ability to comply with any financial requirements to ensure delivery of service in accordance with the plan which the commissioner may prescribe.

Subd. 2. [CERTIFICATION.] The commissioner shall certify a managed care plan if the commissioner finds that the plan:

(1) proposes to provide services that meet quality, continuity, and other treatment standards prescribed by the commissioner and all medical and health care services that may be required by this chapter in a manner that is timely, effective, and convenient for the worker;

(2) is reasonably geographically convenient to employees it serves;

(3) provides appropriate financial incentives to reduce service costs and utilization without sacrificing the quality of service;

(4) provides adequate methods of peer review, utilization review, and dispute resolution to prevent inappropriate, excessive, or not medically necessary treatment, excludes participation in the plan those individuals who violate these treatment standards;

(5) provides a procedure for the resolution of medical disputes;

(6) provides a program for early return to work and cooperative efforts by the workers, the employer, and the managed care plan to promote workplace health and safety consultative and other services;

(7) provides a timely and accurate method of reporting to the commissioner necessary information regarding medical and health care service cost and utilization to enable the commissioner to determine the effectiveness of the plan;

(8) authorizes workers to receive compensable treatment from a health care provider who is not a member of the managed care plan, if that provider maintains the employee's medical records and has a documented history of treatment with the employee and agrees to refer the employee to the managed care plan for any treatment that can only be furnished by another provider that the employee may require and if the health care provider agrees to comply with all the rules, terms, and conditions of the managed care plan;

(9) authorizes necessary emergency medical treatment for an injury provided by a health care provider not a part of the managed care plan;

(10) does not discriminate against or exclude from participation in the plan any category of health care provider and includes an adequate number of each category of health care providers to give workers convenient geographic accessibility to all categories of providers and adequate flexibility to choose health care providers from among those who provide services under the plan;

(11) provides an employee the right to change health care providers under the plan at least once; and

(12) complies with any other requirement the commissioner determines is necessary to provide quality medical services and health care to injured workers.

Subd. 3. [DISPUTE RESOLUTION.] An employee must exhaust the dispute resolution procedure of the certified managed care plan prior to filing a petition or otherwise seeking relief from the commissioner or a compensation judge on an issue related to managed care. If an employee has exhausted the dispute resolution procedure of the managed care plan on the issue of a rating for a disability, the employee may seek a disability rating from a health care provider outside of the managed care organization. The employer is liable for the reasonable fees of the outside provider as limited by the medical fee schedule adopted under this chapter.

Subd. 4. [TREATMENT STANDARDS.] The commissioner shall consider treatment standards developed by the health care profession affected, if any, before prescribing treatment standards under subdivision 2.

Subd. 5. [ACCESS TO ALL HEALTH CARE DISCIPLINES.] The commissioner shall refuse to certify or shall revoke or suspend the certification of a managed care plan that unfairly restricts direct access within the managed care plan to any health care provider profession. Direct access within the managed care plan is unfairly restricted if direct access is denied and the treatment or service sought is within the scope of practice of the profession to which direct access is sought and is appropriate under the standards of treatment adopted by the commissioner.

Subd. 6. [REVOCATION, SUSPENSION, AND REFUSAL TO CERTIFY.] The commissioner shall refuse to certify or shall revoke or suspend the certification of a managed care plan if the commissioner finds that the plan for providing medical or health care services fails to meet the requirements of this section, or service under the plan is not being provided in accordance with the terms of a certified plan.

Subd. 7. [RULES.] (a) The commissioner shall adopt rules necessary to implement this section.

(b) The commissioner shall adopt rules under this section using the procedures of sections 14.22 to 14.28, except that no public hearing shall be required notwithstanding section 14.25. This paragraph applies to rules adopted pursuant to a notice of intention to adopt a rule without a public hearing published before July 1, 1995.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.136, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SCHEDULE.] (a) The commissioner shall by rule establish procedures for determining whether or not the charge for a health service is excessive. In order to accomplish this purpose, the commissioner shall consult with insurers, associations and organizations representing the medical and other providers of treatment services and other appropriate groups.

(b) The procedures established by the commissioner ~~shall~~ must limit, in accordance with subdivisions 1a, 1b, and 1c, the charges allowable for medical, chiropractic, podiatric, surgical, hospital and other health care provider treatment or services, as defined and compensable under section 176.135, ~~based upon billings for each class of health care provider during all of the calendar year preceding the year in which the determination is made of the amount to be paid the health care provider for the billing~~. The procedures established by the commissioner for determining whether or not the charge for a health service is excessive ~~shall~~ must be structured to encourage providers to develop and deliver services for rehabilitation of injured workers. The procedures ~~shall~~ must incorporate the provisions of sections 144.701, 144.702, and 144.703 to the extent that the commissioner finds that these provisions effectively accomplish the intent of this section or are otherwise necessary to insure that quality hospital care is available to injured employees.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.136, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [RELATIVE VALUE FEE SCHEDULE.] The liability of an employer for services included in the medical fee schedule is limited to the maximum fee allowed by the schedule in effect on the date of the medical service, or the provider's actual fee, whichever is lower. The medical fee schedule effective on October 1, 1991, shall remain in effect until the commissioner adopts a new schedule by permanent rule. The commissioner shall adopt permanent rules regulating fees allowable for medical, chiropractic, podiatric, surgical, hospital, outpatient, and other health care provider treatment or service by implementing a relative value fee schedule to be effective on October 1, 1993. The commissioner may adopt by reference the relative value schedule adopted for the federal Medicare program or a relative value schedule adopted by other federal or state agencies. The relative value fee schedule shall contain reasonable classifications including, but not limited to, classifications that differentiate among health care provider disciplines. The commissioner shall adopt rules under this subdivision using the procedures of sections 14.22 to 14.28, except that no public hearing shall be required notwithstanding section 14.25. The conversion factors for the relative value fee schedule must reasonably reflect a 15 percent overall reduction from the medical fee schedule most recently in effect. The reduction need not be applied equally to all treatment or services, but must represent a gross 15 percent reduction.

After permanent rules have been adopted to implement this section, the conversion factors must be adjusted annually on October 1 by the percentage change computed under section 176.645, but without the annual cap provided by that section. The commissioner shall annually give notice in the State Register of the adjusted conversion factors. This notice shall be in lieu of the requirements of chapter 14.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.136, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1b. [LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.] (a) The liability of the employer for treatment, articles, and supplies provided to an employee while an inpatient or outpatient at a small hospital shall be the hospital's usual and customary charge, unless the charge is determined by the commissioner or a compensation judge to be unreasonably excessive. A "small hospital," for purposes of this paragraph, is a hospital which has 75 or fewer licensed beds.

(b) The liability of the employer for the treatment, articles, and supplies that are not limited by subdivision 1a or 1c, or paragraph (a), shall be limited to 85 percent of the provider's usual and customary charge, or 85 percent of the prevailing charges for similar treatment, articles, and supplies furnished to an injured person when paid for by the injured person, whichever is lower. On this basis, the commissioner or compensation judge may determine the reasonable value of all treatment, services, and supplies, and the liability of the employer is limited to that amount.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.136, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1c. [CHARGES FOR INDEPENDENT MEDICAL EXAMINATIONS.] The commissioner shall adopt rules that reasonably limit amounts which may be charged for, or in connection with, independent or adverse medical examinations requested by any party, including the amount that may be charged for depositions, witness fees, or other expenses. The scheduled amount for the examination itself may not exceed the scheduled amount for complex consultations by treating physicians, although additional reasonable charges may be permitted to reflect additional duties or activities. No party may pay fees above the amount in the schedule.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.136, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXCESSIVE FEES.] If the employer or insurer determines that the charge for a health service or medical service is excessive, no payment in excess of the reasonable charge for that service shall be made under this chapter nor may the provider collect or attempt to collect from the injured employee or any other insurer or government amounts in excess of the amount payable under this chapter unless the commissioner, compensation judge, or court of appeals determines otherwise. In such a case, the health care provider may initiate an action under this chapter for recovery of the amounts deemed excessive by the employer or insurer, but the employer or insurer shall have the burden of proving excessiveness.

A charge for a health service or medical service is excessive if it:

(1) exceeds the maximum permissible charge pursuant to subdivision 1, 1a, 1b, or 1c;

(2) is for a service provided at a level, duration, or frequency that is excessive, based upon accepted medical standards for quality health care and accepted rehabilitation standards;

(3) is for a service that is outside the scope of practice of the particular provider or is not generally recognized within the particular profession of the provider as of therapeutic value for the specific injury or condition treated; or

(4) is otherwise deemed excessive or inappropriate pursuant to rules adopted pursuant to this chapter.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.155, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [EMPLOYER'S PHYSICIAN.] The injured employee must submit to examination by the employer's physician, if requested by the employer, and at reasonable times thereafter upon the employer's request. The examination must be scheduled at a location within 150 miles of the employee's residence unless the employer can show cause to the department to order an examination at a location further from the employee's residence. The employee is entitled upon request to have a personal physician present at any such examination. Each party shall defray the cost of that party's physician. Any report or written statement made by the employer's physician as a result of an examination of the employee, regardless of whether the examination preceded the injury or was made subsequent to the injury, shall be made available, upon request and without charge, to the injured employee or representative of the employee. The employer shall pay reasonable travel expenses incurred by the employee in attending the examination including mileage, parking, and, if necessary, lodging and meals. The employer shall also pay the employee for any lost wages resulting from attendance at the examination. A self-insured employer or insurer who is served with a claim petition pursuant to section 176.271, subdivision 1, or 176.291, shall schedule any necessary examinations of the employee, if an examination by the employer's physician or health care provider is necessary to evaluate benefits claimed. The examination shall be completed and the report of the examination shall be served on the employee and filed with the commissioner within 120 days of service of the claim petition.

No evidence relating to the examination or report shall be received or considered by the commissioner, a compensation judge, or the court of appeals in determining any issues unless the report has been served and filed as required by this section, unless a written extension has been granted by the commissioner or compensation judge. The commissioner or a compensation judge shall extend the time for completing the adverse examination and filing the report upon good cause shown. The extension must not be for the purpose of delay and the insurer must make a good faith effort to comply with this subdivision. Good cause shall include but is not limited to:

(1) that the extension is necessary because of the limited number of physicians or health care providers available with expertise in the particular injury or disease, or that the extension is necessary due to the complexity of the medical issues, or

(2) that the extension is necessary to gather additional information which was not included on the petition as required by section 176.291.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.83, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [EXCESSIVE MEDICAL SERVICES.] In consultation with the medical services review board or the rehabilitation review panel, rules establishing standards and procedures for determining whether a provider of health care services and rehabilitation services, including a provider of medical, chiropractic, podiatric, surgical, hospital or other services, is performing procedures or providing services at a level or with a frequency that is excessive, based upon accepted medical standards for quality health care and accepted rehabilitation standards.

If it is determined by the payer that the level, frequency or cost of a procedure or service of a provider is excessive according to the standards established by the rules, the provider shall not be paid for the excessive procedure, service, or cost by an insurer, self-insurer, or group self-insurer, and the provider shall not be reimbursed or attempt to collect reimbursement for the excessive procedure, service, or cost from any other source, including the employee, another insurer, the special compensation fund, or any government program unless the commissioner or compensation judge determines at a hearing or administrative conference that the level, frequency, or cost was not excessive in which case the insurer, self-insurer, or group self-insurer shall make the payment deemed reasonable.

A health or rehabilitation provider who is determined by the rehabilitation review panel or medical services review board, after hearing, to be consistently performing procedures or providing services at an excessive level or cost may be prohibited from receiving any further reimbursement for procedures or services provided under this chapter. A prohibition imposed on a provider under this subdivision may be grounds for revocation or suspension of the provider's license or certificate of registration to provide health care or rehabilitation service in Minnesota by the appropriate licensing or certifying body.

~~The rules adopted under this subdivision shall require insurers, self-insurers, and group self-insurers to report medical and other data necessary to implement the procedures required by this clause.~~

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.83, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5a. [REPORTING.] Rules requiring insurers, self-insurers, and group self-insurers to report medical and other data necessary to implement the procedures required by this chapter.

Sec. 23. [UTILIZATION OF HIGH TECHNOLOGY MEDICAL PROCEDURES.]

The commissioner of the department of labor and industry shall appoint a committee to study the utilization of high technology medical procedures for treatment of injuries under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 176. The committee must include physicians, hospital representatives, medical device manufacturers, purchasers, consumers, and ethicists. The study must specifically examine excessive use of technology. The commissioner shall report the results of the study together with any proposals for legislation to the legislature by January 30, 1993.

Minnesota Statutes 1990, sections 176.135, subdivision 3; and 176.136, subdivision 5, are repealed.

Sec. 25. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

The rulemaking authority granted to the commissioner of the department of labor and industry and the medical services review board by sections 6, 8, and 14 are effective the day following final enactment. The rest of this article is effective October 1, 1992.

INSURANCE

Section 1. [79.081] [MANDATORY DEDUCTIBLES.]

Subdivision 1. [PREMIUM REDUCTION.] Each insurer, including the assigned risk plan, issuing a policy of insurance, must offer an employer the option to agree to pay an amount per claim selected by the employer and specified in the policy toward the total of any claim payable under chapter 176. The amount of premium to be paid by an employer who selects a policy with a deductible shall be reduced based upon a rating schedule or rating plan filed with and approved by the commissioner of commerce. Administration of claims shall remain with the insurer as provided in the terms and conditions of the policy.

Subd. 2. [PROCEDURE FOR PAYING DEDUCTIBLE.] If an insured employer chooses a deductible, the insured employer is liable for the amount of the deductible for benefits paid for each compensable claim of work injury suffered by an employee. Regardless of any deductible amount, the insurer shall pay the entire cost of the employee's claim and then seek reimbursement from the insured employer for the deductible amount. The payment or nonpayment of deductible amounts by the insured employer to the insurer shall be treated under the policy insuring the liability for workers' compensation in the same manner as payment or nonpayment of premiums.

Subd. 3. [CREDIT RISK; EXCEPTION.] An insurer is not required to offer a deductible to an employer if, as a result of a credit investigation, the insurer determines that the employer is not sufficiently financially stable to be responsible for the payment of deductible amounts.

Subd. 4. [REPORTING REQUIREMENT.] The existence of an insurance contract with a deductible or the fact of payment as a result of a deductible does not affect the requirement of an employer to report an injury or death to an insurer or the commissioner of the department of labor and industry.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79.251, is amended to read:

79.251 [ADMINISTRATION OF ASSIGNED RISK PLAN.]

Subdivision 1. [ASSIGNED RISK PLAN ~~REVIEW~~ BOARD.] (1) An assigned risk plan ~~review~~ board is created for the purposes of ~~review of the operation of section 79.252 and this section~~ operating the assigned risk plan. The board shall have all the usual powers and authorities necessary for the discharge of its duties under this section and ~~may~~ shall contract with individuals in discharge of those duties.

(2) The board shall consist of ~~six~~ seven members to be appointed by the commissioner of commerce. ~~Three~~ Two members shall be insureds holding policies or contracts of coverage issued pursuant to subdivision 4. Two members shall be insurers licensed pursuant to section 60A.06, subdivision 1, clause (5), paragraph (b). ~~The commissioner shall be the sixth member and shall vote~~, and three shall be public members. One of the public members shall be a licensed physician, one shall be a certified public accountant, and the third shall be a property and casualty actuary. No public member shall be employed by, or affiliated with, an insurer.

~~Initial appointments shall be made by September 1, 1981, and~~ The terms for the board members shall be for three years duration. Removal, the filling of vacancies and compensation of the members ~~other than the commissioner~~ shall be as provided in section 15.059, except that rate of compensation shall be $110 a day spent on board activities, when authorized by the board. If the compensation rate in section 15.059 increases, the dollar figure in this section shall be increased by the same percentage.

(3) The assigned risk plan ~~review~~ board shall audit the reserves established (a) for individual cases arising under policies and contracts of coverage issued under subdivision 4 and (b) for the total book of business issued under subdivision 4.

(4) The assigned risk plan ~~review~~ board shall monitor the operations of section 79.252 and this section and shall periodically make recommendations to the commissioner, and to the governor and legislature when appropriate, for improvement in the operation of those sections.

(5) All insurers and self-insurance administrators issuing policies or contracts under subdivision 4 shall pay to the ~~commissioner~~ board a .25 percent assessment on premiums for policies and contracts of coverage issued under subdivision 4 for the purpose of defraying the costs of the assigned risk plan ~~review~~ board. Proceeds of the assessment shall be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the general fund.

(6) The assigned risk plan and the assigned risk plan ~~review~~ board shall not be deemed a state agency.

(7) The commissioner or a designated representative may attend board meetings and shall receive notice of the meetings at the same time and in the same manner as notice is given to board members.

Subd. 2. [APPROPRIATE MERIT RATING PLAN.] The ~~commissioner~~ board shall develop an appropriate merit rating plan which shall be applicable to all insureds holding policies or contracts of coverage issued pursuant to subdivision 4 and to the insurers or self-insurance administrators issuing those policies or contracts. The plan shall provide a maximum merit adjustment equal to ten percent of earned premium. The actual adjustment may vary with insured's loss experience.

Subd. 3. [RATES.] Insureds served by the assigned risk plan shall be charged premiums based upon a rating plan, including a merit rating plan adopted by the ~~commissioner by rule~~ board and filed with the department of commerce as required by section 79.56. The commissioner may disapprove the rating plan if the premiums that result from use of the plan are unfairly discriminatory or if the expected underwriting profit, together with expected income from invested reserves for the market in question, that would accrue to the assigned risk plan would be unreasonably high in relation to the risk undertaken by the assigned risk plan in transacting the business. The ~~commissioner~~ board shall annually, not later than January 1 of each year, establish the schedule of rates applicable to assigned risk plan business. Assigned risk premiums shall not be lower than rates generally charged by insurers for the business. ~~The commissioner shall fix the compensation received by the agent of record.~~ The establishment of the assigned risk plan rates and agent fees are not subject to chapter 14.

Subd. 4. [ADMINISTRATION.] The ~~commissioner~~ board shall enter into service contracts as necessary or beneficial for accomplishing the purposes of the assigned risk plan. Services related to the administration of policies or contracts of coverage shall be performed by one or more qualified insurance companies licensed pursuant to section 60A.06, subdivision 1, clause (5), paragraph (b), or self-insurance administrators licensed pursuant to section 176.181, subdivision 2, clause (2), paragraph (a). A qualified insurer or self-insurance administrator shall possess sufficient financial, professional, administrative, and personnel resources to provide the services contemplated in the contract. Services related to assignments, data management, assessment collection, and other services ~~shall~~ may be performed by a licensed data service organization. The cost of those services is an obligation of the assigned risk plan.

Subd. 4a. [MEDICAL COST CONTAINMENT.] The assigned risk plan must utilize managed care plans certified under chapter 176 to the extent possible. In addition, the assigned risk plan must implement a medical cost containment program. The program must, at a minimum, include:

(1) billings review to determine if claims are compensable under chapter 176;

(2) utilization of cost management specialists familiar with billing practice guidelines;

(3) review of treatment to determine if it is reasonable and necessary and has a reasonable chance to cure and relieve the employee's injury;

(4) a system to reduce billed charges to the maximum permitted by law or rule;

(5) review of medical care utilization; and

(6) reporting of health care providers suspected of providing unnecessary or excessive services to the commissioner of the department of labor and industry.

Subd. 4b. [GROUPS.] The assigned risk plan must create a program that attempts to group employers in the same or similar risk classification for purposes of group premium underwriting and claims management. The assigned risk plan must engage in extensive safety consultation with group members to reduce the extent and severity of injuries of group members. The consultation should include on-site inspections and specific recommendations as to safety improvements.

Subd. 5. [ASSESSMENTS.] Subject to the approval of the commissioner, the board shall assess all insurers licensed pursuant to section 60A.06, subdivision 1, clause (5), paragraph (b) an amount sufficient to fully fund the obligations of the assigned risk plan, if the ~~commissioner~~ board determines that the assets of the assigned risk plan are insufficient to meet its obligations. The assessment of each insurer shall be in a proportion equal to the proportion which the amount of compensation insurance written in this state during the preceding calendar year by that insurer bears to the total compensation insurance written in this state during the preceding calendar year by all licensed insurers.

Subd. 6. [AGENTS.] A person licensed under section 60A.17 may submit an application for coverage to the assigned risk plan and receive a fee from the assigned risk plan for submitting the application. However, the licensee is not an agent of the assigned risk plan for purposes of state law. All checks or similar instruments submitted in payment of assigned risk plan premiums must be made payable to the assigned risk plan and not the agent.

Subd. 7. [INVESTMENT OF ASSETS.] The ~~commissioner~~ board shall certify and transfer to the state board of investment all assigned risk plan assets which in the ~~commissioner's~~ board's judgment are not required for immediate use. The state board of investment shall invest the certified assets, and may invest the assets consistent with the provisions of section 11A.14. All investment income and losses attributable to the investment of assigned risk plan assets must be credited to the assigned risk plan. When the ~~commissioner~~ board certifies to the state board that invested assets are required for immediate use, the state board shall sell assets to provide the amount of assets the ~~commissioner~~ board certifies. The state board shall transfer the sale proceeds to the ~~commissioner~~ plan.

Subd. 8. [APPEAL AND REVIEW.] An applicant or insured may appeal an action of the board to the commissioner within 30 days of the occurrence of the action.

A final action or order of the commissioner is subject to judicial review under sections 14.63 to 14.69.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79.252, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] The purpose of the assigned risk plan is to provide workers' compensation coverage to employers rejected by a two nonaffiliated licensed insurance ~~company~~ companies, pursuant to subdivision 2. One of these two rejections must come from the insurance company that most recently provided workers' compensation coverage to the employer, unless the employer had no previous coverage. Each rejection must be in writing and must be obtained within 60 days before the date of application to the assigned risk plan. In addition, the rejections must also show the name of the insurance company and the representative contacted.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79.252, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COVERAGE.] (a) Policies and contracts of coverage issued pursuant to section 79.251, subdivision 4, shall contain the usual and customary provisions of workers' compensation insurance policies, and shall be deemed to meet the mandatory workers' compensation insurance requirements of section 176.181, subdivision 2.

(b) Policies issued by the assigned risk plan pursuant to this chapter may also provide workers' compensation coverage required under the laws of states other than Minnesota, including coverages commonly known as "all states coverage." The assigned risk plan board may apply for and obtain any licensure required in any other state to issue that coverage.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79.252, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [RULES.] The commissioner may adopt rules~~, including emergency rules,~~ as may be necessary to implement section 79.251 and this section.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.181, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [FAILURE TO INSURE, PENALTY.] ~~Any employer who fails to comply with the provisions of subdivision 2 to secure payment of compensation is liable to the state of Minnesota for a penalty of $750, if the number of uninsured employees is less than five and for a penalty of $1,500 if the number of such uninsured employees is five or more. If the commissioner determines that the failure to comply with the provisions of subdivision 2 was willful and deliberate, the employer shall be liable to the state of Minnesota for a penalty of $2,500, if the number of uninsured employees is less than five, and for a penalty of $5,000 if the number of uninsured employees is five or more. If the employer continues noncompliance, the employer is liable for five times the lawful premium for compensation insurance for such employer for the period the employer fails to comply with such provisions, commencing ten days after notice has been served upon the employer by the commissioner of the department of labor and industry by certified mail. These penalties may be recovered jointly or separately in a civil action brought in the name of the state by the attorney general in any court having jurisdiction. Whenever any such failure occurs the commissioner of the department of labor and industry shall immediately certify that fact to the attorney general. Upon receipt of such certification the attorney general shall forthwith commence and prosecute the action. All penalties recovered by the state in any such action shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the special compensation fund. If an employer fails to comply with the provisions of subdivision 2, to secure payment of compensation after having been notified of the employer's duty, the attorney general, upon request of the commissioner, may proceed against the employer in any court having jurisdiction for an order restraining the employer from having any person in employment at any time when the employer is not complying with the provisions of subdivision 2 or for an order compelling the employer to comply with subdivision 2.~~ (a) If the commissioner has reason to believe that an employer is in violation of subdivision 2, the commissioner may issue an order directing the employer to comply with subdivision 2, to refrain from employing any person at any time without complying with subdivision 2, and to pay a penalty of up to $1,000 per employee per month during which the employer was not in compliance.

(b) An employer shall have ten working days to contest such an order by filing a written objection with the commissioner, stating in detail its reasons for objecting. If the commissioner does not receive an objection within ten working days, the commissioner's order shall constitute a final order not subject to further review, and violation of that order shall be enforceable by way of civil contempt proceedings in district court. If the commissioner does receive a timely objection, the commissioner shall refer the matter to the office of administrative hearings for an expedited hearing before a compensation judge. The compensation judge shall issue a decision either affirming, reversing, or modifying the commissioner's order within ten days of the close of the hearing. If the compensation judge affirms the commissioner's order, the compensation judge may order the employer to pay an additional penalty if the employer continued to employ persons without complying with subdivision 2 while the proceedings were pending.

(c) All penalties assessed under this subdivision shall be paid into the special compensation fund. Penalties assessed under this section shall constitute a lien for government services pursuant to section 514.67, on all the employer's property and shall be subject to the provisions of the revenue recovery act.

(d) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "employer" includes any owners or officers of a corporation who direct and control the activities of employees.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.181, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [DATA SHARING.] (a) The departments of labor and industry, jobs and training, and revenue are authorized to share information regarding the employment status of individuals, including, but not limited to, payroll, withholding and income tax information, and may use that information for purposes consistent with this section.

(b) The commissioner is authorized to inspect and to order the production of all payroll and other business records and documents of any alleged employer in order to determine the employment status of persons and compliance with this section. If any person or employer refuses to comply with such an order, the commissioner may apply to the district court of the county where the person or employer is located for an order compelling production of the documents.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.183, is amended to read:

176.183 [UNINSURED AND SELF-INSURED EMPLOYERS; BENEFITS TO EMPLOYEES AND DEPENDENTS; LIABILITY OF EMPLOYER.]

Subdivision 1. When any employee sustains an injury arising out of and in the course of employment while in the employ of an employer, other than the state or its political subdivisions, not insured or self-insured as provided for in this chapter, the employee or the employee's dependents shall nevertheless receive benefits as provided for in this chapter from the special compensation fund~~, and the commissioner has a cause of action against the employer for reimbursement for all moneys paid out or to be paid out, and, in the discretion of the court, as punitive damages an additional amount not exceeding 50 percent of all moneys paid out or to be paid out~~. As used in this subdivision, "employer" includes any owners or officers of ~~corporations~~ a corporation who ~~have legal~~ direct and control~~, either individually or jointly with another or others, of the payment of wages~~ the activities of employees. An action to recover ~~the moneys~~ benefits paid shall be instituted unless the commissioner determines that no recovery is possible. All moneys recovered shall be deposited in the general fund. There shall be no payment from the special compensation fund if there is liability for the injury under the provisions of section 176.215, by an insurer or self-insurer.

Subd. 2. Prior to issuing an order against the special compensation fund to pay compensation benefits to an employee, a compensation judge shall first make findings regarding the insurance status of the employer and its liability. The special compensation fund shall not be found liable in the absence of a finding of liability against the employer. Where the liable employer is found to be not insured or self-insured as provided for in this chapter, the compensation judge shall assess and order the employer to pay all compensation benefits to which the employee is entitled and a penalty to the special compensation fund in the amount of 50 percent of all compensation benefits ordered to be paid. An award issued against an employer shall constitute a lien for government services pursuant to section 514.67 on all property of the employer and shall be subject to the provisions of the revenue recovery act. The special compensation fund may enforce the terms of that award in the same manner as a district court judgment. The commissioner of labor and industry, in accordance with the terms of the order awarding compensation, shall pay compensation to the employee or the employee's dependent from the special compensation fund. The commissioner of labor and industry shall certify to the commissioner of finance and to the legislature annually the total amount of compensation paid from the special compensation fund under subdivision 1. The commissioner of finance shall upon proper certification reimburse the special compensation fund from the general fund appropriation provided for this purpose. The amount reimbursed shall be limited to the certified amount paid under this section or the appropriation made for this purpose, whichever is the lesser amount. Compensation paid under this section which is not reimbursed by the general fund shall remain a liability of the special compensation fund and shall be financed by the percentage assessed under section 176.129.

Subd. 3. (a) Notwithstanding subdivision 2, the commissioner may direct payment from the special compensation fund for compensation payable pursuant to subdivision 1, including benefits payable under sections 176.102 and 176.135, prior to issuance of an order of a compensation judge or the workers' compensation court of appeals directing payment or awarding compensation. Where payment is issued pursuant to a petition for a temporary order, the terms of any resulting order shall have the same status and be governed by the same provisions as an award issued pursuant to subdivision 2 herein.

(b) The commissioner may suspend or terminate an order under clause (a) for good cause as determined by the commissioner.

Subd. 4. If the commissioner authorizes the special fund to commence payment ~~under this section~~ without the issuance of a temporary order, the commissioner shall serve by certified mail notice upon the employer and other interested parties of the intention to commence payment. This notice shall be served at least ten calendar days before commencing payment and shall be mailed to the last known address of the parties. The notice shall include a statement that failure of the employer to respond within ten calendar days of the date of service will be deemed acceptance by the employer of the proposed action by the commissioner and will be deemed a waiver of defenses the employer has to a subrogation or indemnity action by the commissioner. At any time prior to final determination of liability, the employer may appear as a party and present defenses the employer has, whether or not an appearance by the employer has previously been made in the matter. The commissioner has a cause of action against the employer to recover compensation paid by the special fund under this section.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.185, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE OF COVERAGE, TERMINATION, CANCELLATION.] (a) Within ten days after the issuance of a policy of insurance covering the liability to pay compensation under this chapter written by an insurer licensed to insure such liability in this state, the insurer shall file notice of coverage with the commissioner under rules and on forms prescribed by the commissioner. No policy shall be canceled by the insurer within the policy period nor terminated upon its expiration date until a notice in writing is delivered or mailed to the insured and filed with the commissioner, fixing the date on which it is proposed to cancel it, or declaring that the insurer does not intend to renew the policy upon the expiration date. A cancellation or termination is not effective until 30 days after written notice has been filed with the commissioner in a manner prescribed by the commissioner unless prior to the expiration of the 30-day period the employer obtains other insurance coverage or an order exempting the employer from carrying insurance as provided in section 176.181. Upon receipt of the notice, the commissioner shall notify the insured that the insured must obtain coverage from some other licensed carrier and that, if unable to do so, the insured shall request the commissioner of commerce to require the issuance of a policy as provided in section 79.251, subdivision 4. Upon a cancellation or termination of a policy by the insurer, the employer is entitled to be assigned a policy in accordance with sections 79.251 and 79.252.

(b) Notice of cancellation or termination by the insured shall be served upon the insurer by written statement mailed or delivered to the insurer. Upon receipt of the notice, the insurer shall notify the commissioner of the cancellation or termination and the commissioner shall ask the employer for the reasons for the cancellation or termination and notify the employer of the duty under this chapter to insure the employer's employees.

(c) In addition to the requirements under paragraphs (a) and (b), with respect to any trucker employer in classification 7219, 7230, 7231, ~~or~~ 7360, or 8293 pursuant to the classification plan required to be filed under section 79.61, if the insurer or its agent has delivered or mailed a written certificate of insurance certifying that a policy in the name of a trucker employer under this paragraph is in force, then the insurer or its agent shall also deliver or mail written notice of any midterm cancellation to the trucker employer recipient of the certificate of insurance at the address listed on the certificate. If an insurer or its agent fails to mail or deliver notice of any midterm cancellation of the trucker employer's policy to the trucker employer recipient of the certificate of insurance, then the special compensation fund shall indemnify and hold harmless the recipient from any award of benefits or other damages under this chapter resulting from the failure to give notice.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.194, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [RULES.] The commissioner may, by rules adopted in accordance with chapter 14, specify additional illegal, misleading, deceptive, ~~or~~ fraudulent practices, or conduct which are subject to the penalties under this section.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.261, is amended to read:

176.261 [EMPLOYEE OF COMMISSIONER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY MAY ACT FOR AND ADVISE A PARTY TO A PROCEEDING.]

When requested by an employer or an employee or an employee's dependent, the commissioner of the department of labor and industry may designate one or more of the division employees to advise that party of rights under this chapter, and as far as possible to assist in adjusting differences between the parties. The person so designated may appear in person in any proceedings under this chapter as the representative or adviser of the party. In such case, the party need not be represented by an attorney at law.

Prior to advising a person to seek assistance outside of the department, the department must refer a person seeking advice or requesting assistance in resolving a dispute to an attorney or rehabilitation and medical specialist employed by the department, whichever is appropriate.

The department must make efforts to settle problems of employees and employers by contacting third parties, including attorneys, insurers, and health care providers, on behalf of employers and employees and attempting to settle issues quickly and cooperatively.

Sec. 12. [176.87] [FRAUD UNIT.]

The department shall establish a workers' compensation fraud unit to investigate fraudulent and other illegal practices of health care providers, employers, insurers, attorneys, employees, and others related to workers' compensation. The unit shall review files of the department and may conduct field investigations. If the department determines there is illegal activity, the commissioner must refer the case to the attorney general or other appropriate prosecuting authority. The attorney general and other prosecuting authorities must give high priority to reviewing and prosecuting cases referred to them by the commissioner under this section.

The attorney general shall train personnel of the department of labor and industry in effective investigative practices and in the requisites for successful prosecution of illegal activity under this chapter.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176A.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [COVERAGE OUTSIDE STATE.] Policies issued by the fund pursuant to this chapter may also provide workers' compensation coverage required under the laws of states other than Minnesota, including coverages commonly known as "all states coverage." The fund may apply for and obtain any licensure required in any other state in order to issue the coverage.

Sec. 14. [INITIAL BOARD APPOINTMENT.]

The initial appointments to the assigned risk plan board under Minnesota Statutes, section 79.251, must be made by September 1, 1992.

Of the two members who are insureds, one shall be appointed for a two-year term, and one shall be appointed for a three-year term.

Of the two members who are insurers, one shall be appointed for a one-year term, and one shall be appointed for a two-year term.

Of the three public members, one shall be appointed for a one-year term, one shall be appointed for a two-year term, and one shall be appointed for a three-year term.

Sec. 15. [MANDATED REDUCTIONS.]

(a) As a result of the workers' compensation law changes in this act and the resulting savings to the costs of Minnesota's workers' compensation system, an insurer's approved schedule of workers' compensation rates in effect on October 1, 1992, must be reduced by 15 percent and applied by the insurer to all policies with an effective date between October 1, 1992, and December 31, 1993. For purposes of this section, "insurer" includes the assigned risk plan, and "rates" include the rates approved by the commissioner of commerce for the assigned risk plan. The reduction mandated by this section must also be applied on a prorated basis to the unexpired portion of all workers' compensation policies on October 1, 1992. An insurer shall provide a written notice by November 1, 1992, to all workers' compensation policyholders having an unexpired policy with the insurer as of October 1, 1992, that reads as follows: "As a result of the changes in the workers' compensation system enacted by the 1992 legislature, you are entitled to a prorated reduction of 15 percent on your current policy premium."

(b) No rating plan increases may be filed between April 1, 1992, and January 1, 1994.

(c) The commissioner of labor and industry shall survey Minnesota employers to determine if the mandated workers' compensation insurance rate reductions required under this section have been implemented by insurers, both as to amount and in a manner that is uniform and nondiscriminatory between employers having similar risks with respect to a particular occupational classification. The commissioner shall present a report detailing the findings and conclusions to the commission on workers' compensation and the legislature by March 1, 1993.

Sec. 16. [TRUCK DRIVER CLASSIFICATIONS.]

The commissioner of commerce shall evaluate the current system of classification of truck drivers for workers' compensation rate purposes that separates truck drivers in classes 7219, 7380, and 8293 from the classifications for the vast majority of truck drivers employed in the private carrier industry as defined in Minnesota

Statutes, section 221.011, subdivision 26. The commissioner shall determine if the classification is fair and equitable to employers of truck drivers in those three classes. If the commissioner determines that those classifications are not fair and equitable to those three classes, the commissioner shall make findings and issue an order correcting the unfairness or inequity.

Sec. 17. [CLASSIFICATION OF AMBULANCE PERSONNEL.]

The commissioner of commerce shall evaluate whether ambulance personnel are appropriately placed in the 7380 classification for purposes of calculating workers' compensation premiums. The commissioner shall report to the legislature by January 15, 1993, on the results of the evaluation and any corrective action taken.

Sec. 18. [DEPARTMENT STUDY; DATA SHARING ON UNINSURED EMPLOYERS.]

The commissioner of the department of labor and industry shall study the issue of whether there is data in the possession of other state or private entities that would assist the department in identifying employers that are not complying with the insurance requirements of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 176. Sec. 21. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.131, is repealed. The special compensation fund shall not reimburse an employer under Minnesota Statutes, section 176.131, for a subsequent injury occurring after June 30, 1992. (b) If the employer or the insurer or the defendant is given written notice of claims for legal services or disbursements, the claim shall be a lien against the amount paid or payable as compensation. The statement shall be on a form prescribed by the commissioner, shall report the number of hours spent on the case, and shall clearly and conspicuously state that the employee or insurer has ten calendar days to object to the attorney fees requested. If no objection is timely made by the employee or insurer, the amount requested shall be conclusively presumed reasonable providing the amount does not exceed the limitation in subdivision 1. The commissioner, compensation judge, or court of appeals shall issue an order granting the fees and the amount requested shall be awarded to the party requesting the fee.

(e) Employers and insurers may not pay attorney fees or wages for legal services of more than $6,500 per case unless the additional fees or wages are approved under subdivision 2.

Subd. 2. The notice of hearing shall be served upon known interested parties. ~~The attorney for the employee shall be served with a notice of the hearing.~~ The workers' compensation court of appeals shall have the authority to raise ~~the question of~~ the issue of the attorney fees at any time upon its own motion and shall have continuing jurisdiction over attorney fees.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 176.105, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. (a) The commissioner of labor and industry shall by rule establish a schedule of degrees of disability resulting from different kinds of injuries. Disability ratings under the schedule for permanent partial disability must be based on objective medical evidence. The commissioner, in consultation with the medical services review board, shall periodically review the rules adopted under this paragraph to determine whether any injuries omitted from the schedule should be included and amend the rules accordingly.

(b) No permanent partial disability compensation shall be payable except in accordance with the disability ratings established under this subdivision, except as provided in paragraph (c). The schedule may provide that minor impairments receive a zero rating.

(c) If an injury for which there is objective medical evidence is not rated by the permanent partial disability schedule, the unrated injury must be assigned and compensated for at the rating for the most similar condition that is rated.

Sec. 5. [176.178] [FRAUD.]

Any person who, with intent to defraud, receives workers' compensation benefits to which the person is not entitled by knowingly misrepresenting, misstating, or failing to disclose any material fact is guilty of theft and shall be sentenced pursuant to section 609.52, subdivision 3, clauses (2), (3)(a) and (c), (4), and (5).

Sec. 6. [176.2615] [SMALL CLAIMS COURT.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] There is established in the department of labor and industry a small claims court, to be presided over by settlement judges for the purpose of settling small claims.

Subd. 2. [ELIGIBILITY.] The claim is eligible for determination in the small claims court if referred by the commissioner or if all parties agree to submit to its jurisdiction; and

(1) the claim is for rehabilitation benefits only under section 176.102 or medical benefits only under section 176.135; or

(2) the claim in its total amount does not equal more than $5,000; or

(3) where the claim is for apportionment or for contribution or reimbursement, no counterclaim in excess of $5,000 is asserted.

Subd. 3. [TESTIMONY; EXHIBITS.] At the hearing a settlement judge shall hear the testimony of the parties and consider any exhibits offered by them and may also hear any witnesses introduced by either party.

Subd. 4. [APPEARANCE OF PARTIES.] A party may appear on the party's own behalf without an attorney, or may retain and be represented by a duly admitted attorney who may participate in the hearing to the extent and in the manner that the settlement judge considers helpful. Attorney fees awarded under this subdivision are included in the overall limit allowed under section 176.081, subdivision 1.

Subd. 5. [EVIDENCE ADMISSIBLE.] At the hearing the settlement judge shall receive evidence admissible under the rules of evidence. In addition, in the interest of justice and summary determination of issues before the court, the settlement judge may receive, in the judge's discretion, evidence not otherwise admissible. The settlement judge, on the judge's own motion, may receive into evidence any documents which have been filed with the department.

Subd. 6. [SETTLEMENT.] A settlement judge may attempt to conciliate the parties. If the parties agree on a settlement, the judge shall issue an order in accordance with that settlement.

Sec. 7. [176.307] [COMPENSATION JUDGES; BLOCK SYSTEM.]

The chief administrative law judge must assign workers' compensation cases to compensation judges using a block system type of assignment that, among other things, ensures that a case will remain with the same judge from commencement to conclusion unless the judge is removed from the case by exercise of a legal right of a party or by incapacity. The block system must be the principal means of assigning cases, but it may be supplemented by other systems of case assignment to ensure that cases are timely decided.

Sec. 8. [176.325] [CERTIFIED QUESTION.]

Subdivision 1. [WHEN CERTIFIED.] The chief administrative law judge may certify a question of workers' compensation law to the workers' compensation court of appeals as important and doubtful under the following circumstances:

(2) the issue to be resolved is a question of workers' compensation law that has not been resolved by the workers' compensation court of appeals or the Minnesota supreme court; and

(3) all parties request that the matter be resolved by certification to the workers' compensation court of appeals as an important and doubtful question.

Subd. 2. [SUPREME COURT REVIEW.] Review by the supreme court of any decision of the workers' compensation court of appeals under this section shall be pursuant to section 176.471.

Subd. 3. [EXPEDITED DECISION.] It is the legislature's intent that the workers' compensation court of appeals and the Minnesota supreme court resolve the certified question as expeditiously as possible, after compliance by the parties with any requirements of the workers' compensation court of appeals or the Minnesota supreme court regarding submission of legal memoranda, oral argument, or other matters, and after the participation of amicus curiae, should the workers' compensation court of appeals or Minnesota supreme court consider such participation advisable.

Subd. 4. [NOTICE.] The chief administrative law judge shall notify all persons who request to be notified of a certification under this section.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 480B.01, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 480B.01, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.] Upon receiving notice from the governor that a judicial vacancy has occurred or will occur on a specified date, the chair shall provide notice of the following information:

(2) that applications from qualified persons or on behalf of qualified persons are being accepted by the commission;

(3) that application forms may be obtained from the governor or the commission at a named address; and

(4) that application forms must be returned to the commission by a named date.

For a district court vacancy, the notice must be made available to attorney associations in the judicial district where the vacancy has occurred or will occur and to at least one newspaper of general circulation in each county in the district. Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79A.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [AUDIT OF SELF-INSURANCE APPLICATION.] (a) The self-insurer's security fund shall retain a certified public accountant who shall perform services for, and report directly to, the commissioner of commerce. The certified public accountant shall review each application to self-insure, including the applicant's financial data. The certified public accountant shall provide a report to the commissioner of commerce indicating whether the applicant has met the requirements of section 79A.03, subdivisions 2 and 3. Additionally, the certified public accountant shall provide advice and counsel to the commissioner about relevant facts regarding the applicant's financial condition.

(b) If the report of the certified public accountant is used by the commissioner as the basis for the commissioner's determination regarding the applicant's self-insurance status, the certified public accountant shall be made available to the commissioner for any hearings or other proceedings arising from that determination.

(c) The commissioner shall provide the advisory committee with the summary report by the certified public accountant and any financial data in possession of the department of commerce that is otherwise available to the public.

The cost of the review shall be the obligation of the self-insurer's security fund.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79A.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [RECOMMENDATIONS TO COMMISSIONER REGARDING REVOCATION.] After each fifth anniversary from the date each individual and group self-insurer becomes certified to self-insure, the committee shall review all relevant financial data filed with the department of commerce that is otherwise available to the public and make a recommendation to the commissioner about whether each self-insurer's certificate should be revoked.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79A.03, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [NET WORTH.] ~~Each individual self-insurer shall have and maintain a net worth at least equal to the greater of ten times the retention limit selected with the workers' compensation reinsurance association or one-third the amount of the self-insurer's current annual modified premium. The requirements of this subdivision shall be modified if the self-insurer can demonstrate through a reinsurance program, other than coverage provided by the workers' compensation reinsurance association, that it can pay expected losses without endangering the financial stability of the company.~~ Each individual self-insurer's net worth, as presented on its audited balance sheet filed with the department of commerce, shall equal at least ten percent of the entity's total assets and shall equal at least ten times the retention level selected with the workers' compensation reinsurance association.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79A.03, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [ASSETS, NET WORTH, AND LIQUIDITY.] (a) Each individual self-insurer shall have and maintain sufficient assets, net worth, and liquidity to promptly and completely meet all of its obligations that may arise under chapter 176 or this chapter. In determining whether a self-insurer meets this requirement, the commissioner shall consider the self-insurer's current ratio; its long-term and short-term debt to equity ratios; its net worth; financial characteristics of the particular industry in which the self-insurer is involved; any recent changes in the management and ownership of the ~~company~~ self-insurer; any excess insurance purchased by the self-insurer from a licensed company or an authorized surplus line carrier, other than excess insurance from the workers' compensation reinsurance association; any other financial data submitted to the commissioner by the ~~company~~ self-insurer; and the ~~company's~~ self-insurer's workers' compensation experience for the last four years. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the commissioner may deny an application for self-insurance authority or terminate existing self-insurance authority if the applicant or self-insurer does not have sufficient assets, net worth, and liquidity to promptly and completely meet all of its self-insurance obligations.

(b) An individual self-insurer must have had positive net income as shown on audited income statements filed with the department of commerce during three of the last five years and cumulatively over the five-year period. If the self-insurer has been in existence less than five years, it must have had cumulative net income during the period of existence and in the most recent year.

(c) An individual self-insurer must have had cash generated from operations as shown on the audited statements of cash flows filed with the department of commerce during three of the last five years and cumulatively over the five-year period. If the self-insurer has been in existence less than five years, it shall have had cumulative cash generated from operations during the period of existence and in the most recent year.

(d) No entity shall be admitted as an individual self-insurer, or be allowed to continue its self-insurance authority, if the audit report for the most recent year includes an explanatory paragraph stating that the auditor has concluded that there is substantial doubt about the entity's ability to continue as a going concern.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79A.03, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [FINANCIAL STANDARDS.] A group proposing to self-insure shall have and maintain:

(a) A combined net worth of all of the members of an amount at least equal to the greater of ten times the retention selected with the workers' compensation reinsurance association or one-third of the current annual modified premium of the members. ~~The requirements of this paragraph shall be modified if the self-insurer can demonstrate that through excess insurance, other than coverage provided by the workers' compensation reinsurance association, it can pay expected losses.~~

(b) Sufficient assets, net worth, and liquidity to promptly and completely meet all obligations of its members under chapter 176 or this chapter. In determining whether a group is in sound financial condition, consideration shall be given to the combined net worth of the member companies; the consolidated long-term and short-term debt to equity ratios of the member companies; any excess insurance other than reinsurance with the workers' compensation reinsurance association, purchased by the group from an insurer licensed in Minnesota or from an authorized surplus line carrier; other financial data requested by the commissioner or submitted by the group; and the combined workers' compensation experience of the group for the last four years.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79A.03, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [FILING REPORTS.] (a) Incurred losses, paid and unpaid, specifying indemnity and medical losses by classification, payroll by classification, and current estimated outstanding liability for workers' compensation shall be reported to the commissioner by each self-insurer on a calendar year basis, in a manner and on forms available from the commissioner. Payroll information must be filed by April 1 of the following year, and loss information and total workers' compensation liability must be filed by August 1 of the following year.

(b) Each self-insurer shall, under oath, attest to the accuracy of each report submitted pursuant to paragraph (a). Upon sufficient cause, the commissioner shall require the self-insurer to submit a certified audit of payroll and claim records conducted by an independent auditor approved by the commissioner, based on generally accepted accounting principles and generally accepted auditing standards, and supported by an actuarial review and opinion of the future contingent liabilities. The basis for sufficient cause shall include the following factors: where the losses reported appear significantly different from similar types of businesses; where major changes in the reports exist from year to year, which are not solely attributable to economic factors; or where the commissioner has reason to believe that the losses and payroll in the report do not accurately reflect the losses and payroll of that employer. If any discrepancy is found, the commissioner shall require changes in the self-insurer's or workers' compensation service company record keeping practices.

(c) With the annual loss report due August 1, each self-insurer shall report to the commissioner any workers' compensation claim from the previous year where the full, undiscounted value is estimated to exceed $50,000, in a manner and on forms prescribed by the commissioner.

(d) Each individual self-insurer shall, within four months after the end of its fiscal year, annually file with the commissioner its latest 10K report required by the Securities and Exchange Commission. If an individual self-insurer does not prepare a 10K report, it shall file an annual certified financial statement, together with such other financial information as the commissioner may require to substantiate data in the financial statement.

(e) ~~Each group self-insurer shall, within four months after the end of the fiscal year for that group, annually file a statement showing the combined net worth of its members based upon an accounting review performed by a certified public accountant, together with such other financial information the commissioner may require to substantiate data in the group's summary statement.~~ Each member of the group shall, within four months after the end of each fiscal year for that group, file the most recent annual financial statement, reviewed by a certified public accountant in accordance with the Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services, Volume 2, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants Professional Standards, or audited in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, together with such other financial information the commissioner may require. In addition, the group shall file, within four months after the end of each fiscal year for that group, combining financial statements of the group members, compiled by a certified public accountant in accordance with the Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services, Volume 2, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants Professional Standards. The combining financial statements shall include, but not be limited to, a balance sheet, income statement, statement of changes in net worth, and statement of cash flow. Each combining financial statement shall include a column for each individual group member along with a total column.

Where a group has 50 or more members, the group shall file, in lieu of the combining financial statements, a combined financial statement showing only the total column for the entire group's balance sheet, income statement, statement of changes in net worth, and statement of cash flow. Additionally, the group shall disclose, for each member, the total assets, net worth, revenue, and income for the most recent fiscal year. The combining and combined financial statements may omit all footnote disclosures.

(f) In addition to the financial statements required by paragraphs (d) and (e), interim financial statements or 10Q reports required by the Securities and Exchange Commission may be required by the commissioner upon an indication that there has been deterioration in the self-insurer's financial condition, including a worsening of current ratio, lessening of net worth, net loss of income, the downgrading of the company's bond rating, or any other significant change that may adversely affect the self-insurer's ability to pay expected losses. Any self-insurer that files an 8K report with the Securities and Exchange Commission shall also file a copy of the report with the commissioner within 30 days of the filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79A.04, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [MINIMUM DEPOSIT.] The minimum deposit is 110 percent of the private self-insurer's estimated future liability. Up to ten percent of that deposit may be used to secure payment of all administrative and legal costs relating to or arising from the employer's self-insuring. As used in this section, "private self-insurers' estimated future liability" means the private self-insurers' total of estimated future liability as determined by a member of the casualty actuarial society ~~every two years for nongroup member private self-insurers, and~~ every year for group member private self-insurers and, for a nongroup member private self-insurer's authority to self-insure, every year for the first five years. After the first five years, the nongroup member's total shall be as determined by a member of the casualty actuarial society every two years, and each such actuarial study shall include a projection of future losses during the two-year period until the next scheduled actuarial study, less payments anticipated to be made during that time. Estimated future liability is determined by first taking the total amount of the self-insured's future liability of workers' compensation claims and then deducting the total amount which is estimated to be returned to the self-insurer from any specific excess insurance coverage, aggregate excess insurance coverage, and any supplementary benefits or second injury benefits which are estimated to be reimbursed by the special compensation fund. Supplementary benefits or second injury benefits will not be reimbursed by the special compensation fund unless the special compensation fund assessment pursuant to section 176.129 is paid and the reports required thereunder are filed with the special compensation fund. In the case of surety bonds, bonds shall secure administrative and legal costs in addition to the liability for payment of compensation reflected on the face of the bond. In no event shall the security be less than the last retention limit selected by the self-insurer with the workers' compensation reinsurance association. The posting or depositing of security pursuant to this section shall release all previously posted or deposited security from any obligations under the posting or depositing and any surety bond so released shall be returned to the surety. Any other security shall be returned to the depositor or the person posting the bond.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 79A.06, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [PRIVATE EMPLOYERS WHO HAVE CEASED TO BE SELF-INSURED.] Private employers who have ceased to be private self-insurers shall discharge their continuing obligations to secure the payment of compensation which is accrued during the period of self-insurance, for purposes of Laws 1988, chapter 674, sections 1 to 21, by compliance with all of the following obligations of current certificate holders:

(1) Filing reports with the commissioner to carry out the requirements of this chapter;

(2) Depositing and maintaining a security deposit for accrued liability for the payment of any compensation which may become due, pursuant to chapter 176. However, if a private employer who has ceased to be a private self-insurer purchases an insurance policy from an insurer authorized to transact workers' compensation insurance in this state which provides coverage of all claims for compensation arising out of injuries occurring during the period the employer was self-insured, whether or not reported during that period, the policy will discharge the obligation of the employer to maintain a security deposit for the payment of the claims covered under the policy. The policy may not be issued by an insurer unless it has previously been approved as to form and substance by the commissioner; and

(3) Paying within 30 days all assessments of which notice is sent by the security fund, for a period of seven years from the last day its certificate of self-insurance was in effect. Thereafter, the private employer who has ceased to be a private self-insurer may either: (a) continue to pay within 30 days all assessments of which notice is sent by the security fund until it has no incurred liabilities for the payment of compensation arising out of injuries during the period of self-insurance; or (b) pay the security fund a cash payment equal to four percent of the net present value of all remaining incurred liabilities for the payment of compensation under sections 176.101 and 176.111 as certified by a member of the casualty actuarial society. Assessments shall be based on the benefits paid by the employer during the ~~last full~~ calendar year ~~of self-insurance on claims incurred during that year~~ immediately preceding the calendar year in which the employer's right to self-insure is terminated or withdrawn.

In addition to proceedings to establish liabilities and penalties otherwise provided, a failure to comply may be the subject of a proceeding before the commissioner. An appeal from the commissioner's determination may be taken pursuant to the contested case procedures of chapter 14 within 30 days of the commissioner's written determination.

Any current or past member of the self-insurers' security fund is subject to service of process on any claim arising out of chapter 176 or this chapter in the manner provided by section 303.13, subdivision 1, clause (3), or as otherwise provided by law. The issuance of a certificate to self-insure to the private self-insured employer shall be deemed to be the agreement that any process which is served in accordance with this section shall be of the same legal force and effect as if served personally within this state.

Sec. 9. [79A.071] [CUSTODIAL ACCOUNTS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEPOSIT.] All securities shall be deposited with the state treasurer or in a custodial account with a depository institution acceptable to the state treasurer. Surety bonds shall be filed with the commissioner. The commissioner and the state treasurer may sell or collect, in the case of default of the employer or fund, the amount that yields sufficient funds to pay compensation due under the workers' compensation act.

Subd. 2. [ASSIGNMENT.] Securities in physical form deposited with the state treasurer must bear the following assignment, which shall be signed by an officer, partner, or owner: "Assigned to the state of Minnesota for the benefit of injured employees of the self-insured employer under the Minnesota workers' compensation act." Any securities held in a custodial account, whether in physical form, book entry, or other form, need not bear the assignment language. The instrument or contract creating and governing any custodial account must contain the following assignment language: "This account is assigned to the state treasurer by the Company to pay compensation and perform the obligations of employers imposed under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 176. A depositor or other party has no right, title, or interest in the security deposited in the account until released by the state."

Subd. 3. [CUSTODY.] All securities in physical form on deposit with the state treasurer and surety bonds on deposit shall remain in the custody of the state treasurer or the commissioner for a period of time dictated by the applicable statute of limitations provided in the workers' compensation act. All original instruments and contracts creating and governing custodial accounts shall remain with the state treasurer or the commissioner for a period of time dictated by the applicable statute of limitations provided in the workers' compensation act.

Subd. 4. [RELEASE.] No securities in physical form on deposit with the state treasurer or custodial accounts assigned to the state shall be released without an order from the commissioner.

Subd. 5. [EXCHANGING OR REPLACING.] Any securities deposited with the state treasurer or with a custodial account assigned to the state treasurer or surety bonds held by the commissioner may be exchanged or replaced by the depositor with other acceptable securities or surety bonds of like amount so long as the market value of the securities or amount of the surety bond equals or exceeds the amount of deposit required. If securities are replaced by a surety bond, the self-insurer must maintain securities on deposit in an amount sufficient to meet all outstanding workers' compensation liability arising during the period covered by the deposit of the replaced securities, subject to the limitations on maximum security deposits established in Minnesota Rules.

Minnesota Rules, part 2780.0400, subparts 2, 3, 6, 7, and 8, are repealed.

Sec. 11. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 10 are effective August 1, 1992. For insurers that have Minnesota self-insurance authority on August 1, 1992, section 4 is effective August 1, 1995."

H. F. No. 2041, A bill for an act relating to the treatment of juvenile offenders; establishing pilot projects for mental health and chemical dependency screening and treatment of juveniles in detention; appropriating money; amending Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 260.185, subdivision 1; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 260.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

"Section 1. [260.152] [MENTAL HEALTH AND CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY SCREENING OF JUVENILES IN DETENTION.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The commissioner of human services, in cooperation with the commissioner of corrections, shall establish four pilot programs in counties to reduce the recidivism rates of juvenile offenders, by identifying and treating underlying mental health and chemical dependency problems that contribute to delinquent behavior.

Subd. 2. [PROGRAM COMPONENTS.] The commissioners of corrections and human services shall, in consultation with the Indian affairs council, the council on affairs of Spanish-speaking people, the council on Black Minnesotans, and the council on Asian-Pacific Minnesotans, provide grants to counties to establish pilot projects that identify juvenile offenders who have mental health and chemical dependency needs. Pilot projects shall build upon the existing service capabilities in the community and must include:

(1) screening for mental health problems of all juveniles admitted to a secure detention facility as defined in section 260.015, subdivision 16, and any juvenile alleged to be a delinquent child as that term is defined in section 260.015, subdivision 5, who is admitted to a shelter care facility, as defined in section 260.015, subdivision 17;

(2) screening for chemical dependency problems for juveniles specified in clause (1), unless they are already subject to mandatory chemical use assessments under this chapter;

(3) referral for mental health and chemical dependency assessment of all youth for whom the screening indicates a need. This assessment is to be provided by the appropriate mental health or chemical dependency professional. If the youth is of a minority race or minority ethnic heritage, the mental health or chemical dependency professional must be skilled in and knowledgeable about the youth's racial and ethnic heritage, or must consult with a special mental health or chemical dependency consultant who has such knowledge so that the assessment is relevant, culturally specific, and sensitive to the youth's cultural needs; and

(4) upon completion of the assessment, access to or provision of mental health or chemical dependency services identified as needed in the assessment.

The screening tool must be developed by, or approved by, the commissioner of human services and must meet the qualifications and standards of subdivision 3.

Subd. 3. [SCREENING TOOL.] The commissioner of human services and the commissioner of corrections shall jointly develop a model screening tool that can be used to screen youth held in juvenile detention to determine if a mental health or chemical dependency assessment is needed. This tool should contain specific questions which indicate potential mental health or chemical dependency problems. Counties, in implementing this program, may use this model tool or may develop their own, so long as the screening tool is approved by the commissioner of human services and meets the requirements of this section.

Subd. 4. [PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS.] To receive funds, the county program proposal shall be a joint proposal with all affected local agencies, resulting in part from consultation with the local coordinating council established under section 245.4873, subdivision 3, and the local mental health advisory council established under section 245.4875, subdivision 5, and shall contain the following:

(1) evidence of interagency collaboration by all publicly funded agencies serving children with emotional disturbances or chemical dependency, including evidence of consultation with the agencies listed in this section;

(2) a signed agreement by the local court services and local mental health and county social service agencies to work together on the following: development of program; development of written interagency agreements and protocols to ensure that the mental health and chemical dependency needs of juvenile offenders are identified, addressed, and treated; and development of a procedure for joint evaluation of the program;

(3) a description of existing services that will be used in this program; and

(4) a description of additional services that will be developed with program funds, including estimated costs and numbers of children to be served.

The commissioner of human services and the commissioner of corrections shall jointly determine the application form, information needed, deadline for application, criteria for awards, and a process for providing technical assistance and training to counties. The technical assistance shall include information about programs that have been successful in reducing recidivism by juvenile offenders.

Subd. 5. [INTERAGENCY AGREEMENTS.] To receive funds, the county must agree to develop written interagency agreements between local court services agencies, local county mental health agencies, and the agency with responsibility for assessing chemical dependency treatment needs within six months of receiving the initial program funds. These agreements shall include a description of each local agency's responsibilities, with a detailed assignment of the tasks necessary to implement the program. The agreement shall state how they will comply with the confidentiality requirements of the participating local agencies.

Subd. 6. [EVALUATION.] The commissioner of human services and the commissioner of corrections shall, in consultation with the Indian affairs council, the council on affairs of Spanish-speaking people, the council on Black Minnesotans, and the council on Asian-Pacific Minnesotans, develop systems and procedures for evaluating the pilot projects. The agencies must develop an interagency management information system to track minors in custody who receive mental health and chemical dependency services. The system must be designed to meet the information needs of the agencies involved and to provide a basis for evaluating outcome data. The system must be designed to track the mental health and chemical dependency treatment of minors in custody and to improve the planning, delivery, and evaluation of services and increase interagency collaboration. The evaluation protocol must be designed to measure the impact of the program on juvenile recidivism, school performance, and state and county budgets.

Subd. 7. [REPORT.] On January 1, 1994, and annually after that, the commissioner of corrections and the commissioner of human services shall present a joint report to the legislature on the pilot projects funded under this section. The report shall include information on the following:

(1) the number of juvenile offenders screened and assessed;

(2) the number of youths referred for mental health or chemical dependency services, types of services provided, and costs;

(3) the number of subsequently adjudicated juveniles that received mental health or chemical dependency services under this program; and

(4) the estimated cost savings of the program and the impact on crime.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 260.185, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. If the court finds that the child is delinquent, it shall enter an order making any of the following dispositions of the case which are deemed necessary to the rehabilitation of the child:

(a) Counsel the child or the parents, guardian, or custodian;

(b) Place the child under the supervision of a probation officer or other suitable person in the child's own home under conditions prescribed by the court including reasonable rules for the child's conduct and the conduct of the child's parents, guardian, or custodian, designed for the physical, mental, and moral well-being and behavior of the child, or with the consent of the commissioner of corrections, in a group foster care facility which is under the management and supervision of said commissioner;

(c) Subject to the supervision of the court, transfer legal custody of the child to one of the following:

(1) a child placing agency; or

(2) the county welfare board; or

(3) a reputable individual of good moral character. No person may receive custody of two or more unrelated children unless licensed as a residential facility pursuant to sections 245A.01 to 245A.16; or

(4) a county home school, if the county maintains a home school or enters into an agreement with a county home school; or

(5) a county probation officer for placement in a group foster home established under the direction of the juvenile court and licensed pursuant to section 241.021;

(d) Transfer legal custody by commitment to the commissioner of corrections;

(e) If the child is found to have violated a state or local law or ordinance which has resulted in damage to the person or property of another, the court may order the child to make reasonable restitution for such damage;

(f) Require the child to pay a fine of up to $700; the court shall order payment of the fine in accordance with a time payment schedule which shall not impose an undue financial hardship on the child;

(g) If the child is in need of special treatment and care for reasons of physical or mental health, the court may order the child's parent, guardian, or custodian to provide it. If the parent, guardian, or custodian fails to provide this treatment or care, the court may order it provided;

(h) If the court believes that it is in the best interests of the child and of public safety that the driver's license of the child be canceled until the child's 18th birthday, the court may recommend to the commissioner of public safety the cancellation of the child's license for any period up to the child's 18th birthday, and the commissioner is hereby authorized to cancel such license without a hearing. At any time before the termination of the period of cancellation, the court may, for good cause, recommend to the commissioner of public safety that the child be authorized to apply for a new license, and the commissioner may so authorize.

If the child is petitioned and found by the court to have committed or attempted to commit an act in violation of section 609.342, 609.343, 609.344, or 609.345, the court shall order an independent professional assessment of the child's need for sex offender treatment. An assessor providing an assessment for the court may not have any direct or shared financial interest or referral relationship resulting in shared financial gain with a treatment provider. If the assessment indicates that the child is in need of and amenable to sex offender treatment, the court shall include in its disposition order a requirement that the child undergo treatment.

If the child is found delinquent due to the commission of a level offense that would be a felony if committed by an adult, the court shall make a specific finding on the record regarding the juvenile's mental health and chemical dependency treatment needs.

Any order for a disposition authorized under this section shall contain written findings of fact to support the disposition ordered, and shall also set forth in writing the following information:

(a) why the best interests of the child are served by the disposition ordered; and

(b) what alternative dispositions were considered by the court and why such dispositions were not appropriate in the instant case.

Sec. 3. [APPROPRIATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [COMMISSIONER OF HUMAN SERVICES.] $..... is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of Subd. 2. [COMMISSIONER OF JOBS AND TRAINING.] $..... is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of jobs and training for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1993, to provide additional funding for youth intervention programs under section 268.30.

Subd. 3. [USE OF APPROPRIATIONS.] Money appropriated by this section may not be used to pay for out-of-home placement or to replace current funding for programs presently in operation, but must be used to expand existing programs or initiate new ones."

With the recommendation that when so amended the bill pass and be re-referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

Section 1. [116S.01] [DESIGNATED COUNTIES.]

The commissioner of trade and economic development shall certify counties which are designated counties. A county is a designated county if the county has had a decline in population from 1980 to 1990, as determined by the 1990 federal decennial census.

For purposes of sections 1 to 3, "designated county" means a county designated by the commissioner of trade and economic development as provided under this section and a city of the second class that is designated as an economically depressed area by the United States Department of Commerce.

(b) The credit is equal to $2,500 multiplied by the number of persons paid an annual wage of at least $15,000 and employed by the business within the designated county on a full-time basis on the last day of the taxable year, not to exceed the number of persons paid an annual wage of at least $15,000 and employed by the business on a full-time basis within the designated county on the date 90 days before the last day of the taxable year.

(c) For the first taxable year in which the credit is allowed, the credit must not exceed 80 percent of the wages paid to or incurred for persons paid an annual wage of at least $15,000 and employed by the taxpayer in the designated county during the taxable year. For the succeeding four taxable years, the credit must not exceed 20 percent of the wages paid to or incurred for persons paid an annual wage of at least $15,000 and employed by the taxpayer in the designated county during the taxable year. For purposes of this subdivision, "wages" has the meaning given under section 3121(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1991, except the limitation to the contribution and benefit base does not apply.

The entire amount of the credit must be carried to the earliest taxable year to which the amount may be carried. The unused portion of the credit must be carried to the following taxable year. No credit may be carried to a taxable year more than ten years after the taxable year in which the credit was earned.

(e) The credit authorized under this section is increased to $5,000 if the business utilizes fiber optics in its operations in the designated county.

Subd. 2. [AMUSEMENT RIDE.] "Amusement ride" means a mechanical device that carries or conveys passengers along, around, or over a fixed or restricted route or course for the purpose of giving its passengers amusement, pleasure, thrills, or excitement.

"Amusement ride" does not include:

(1) a coin-operated ride that is manually, mechanically, or electrically operated and customarily placed in a public location and that does not normally require the supervision or services of an operator; or

(2) nonmechanized playground equipment, including but not limited to swings, seesaws, stationary spring-mounted animal features, rider-propelled merry-go-rounds, climbers, playground slides, trampolines, and physical fitness devices.

Sec. 3. [184B.03] [INSPECTION.]

(a) An amusement ride must be inspected at least once annually by an insurer or a person with whom the insurer has contracted. If an inspection reveals that an amusement ride does not meet the insurer's underwriting standards, the insurer must notify the operator. An operator must not operate an amusement ride until the ride passes an insurer's inspection for all items related to safe operation of the amusement ride.

(b) The inspection required under this section must include testing consistent with current American Society for Testing and Material standards and specifications for amusement rides and devices. The inspection required by this section is in addition to any other inspection required or permitted by law.

(c) An operator must permit reasonable inspection of an amusement ride by the insurance company that insures the ride.

(d) Paragraphs (a) and (b) do not apply to amusement rides permanently located in an amusement park where the owner has a rehabilitative and preventative ride maintenance program that includes daily ride inspections for the protection of the general public and a full-time, permanent maintenance staff and has an insurance policy in force written by an insurance company authorized to do business in this state, in an amount of not less than $50,000,000, insuring the operator against liability for injury to persons arising out of the use of an amusement ride.

Sec. 4. [184B.04] [FILING.]

(2) an affidavit attesting that the inspection required by section 3 has been performed.

Sec. 5. [184B.05] [COMMISSIONER INFORMATION REQUESTS.]

The commissioner may request from the sponsor, lessor, landowner, or other person responsible for an amusement ride being offered for use by the public, whether or not the person is the operator, information concerning whether the insurance required by section 2 is in effect on the amusement ride, and whether the inspection required by section 3 has occurred. The person to whom the information request is made must respond to the commissioner within 15 days after the request is made.

Sec. 6. [184B.06] [CIVIL PENALTY.]

A person that violates sections 1 to 5 is subject to a fine of up to $2,000 for each day the violation exists. A county attorney in a county in which an amusement ride is operated in violation of this chapter may enforce this section by action in district court.

Sec. 7. [184B.07] [INJUNCTIONS.]

A county attorney in a county in which an amusement ride is operated or, on request of the commissioner, the attorney general, may obtain an injunction or other equitable relief against an actual or threatened violation of this chapter.

"Sec. 6. [COUNTY OF SWIFT; CITY OF BENSON: REORGANIZATION OF JOINT POWERS HOSPITAL.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZATION.] Any hospital organized and operating under a joint powers agreement between the county of Swift and the city of Benson may be reorganized and operate pursuant to the provisions of sections 6 to 20, upon compliance with subdivision 2.

Subd. 2. [REORGANIZATION.] In order to effect a reorganization, the existing governing body of the hospital shall file its request for reorganization with the county board of the county of Swift and the city council of the city of Benson and the county board and city council shall then at their next regular meetings consider the establishment of a hospital district under sections 6 to 20. Upon the adoption of resolutions by each political subdivision stating that the reorganization is effective and assigning a name to the hospital district the creation of the hospital district shall be effected.

Subd. 3. [REORGANIZATION; DISSOLUTION.] After a hospital district is organized under sections 6 to 20, upon approval by the city and the county, it may reorganize and operate under and pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, sections 447.31 to 447.50; or it may be dissolved in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, section 447.38, provided that in that event the county and the city shall be deemed to be the governmental subdivisions that may petition for dissolution and upon dissolution one-third of the assets of the district shall be conveyed to the city and two-thirds shall be conveyed to the county.

Subd. 4. [POLITICAL SUBDIVISION.] For the purpose of laws applicable to political subdivisions the hospital district shall be a political subdivision but shall not have taxing authority.

Sec. 7. [HOSPITAL BOARD; APPOINTMENT; TERMS.]

Subdivision 1. [GOVERNING BOARD.] The hospital district shall be governed by a board of directors of at least nine and not more than 12 voting members, elected as provided in subdivision 2. All members of the hospital board at the time the hospital district is organized shall continue in office until the members of the first board of the hospital district are elected and qualify.

Subd. 2. [ELECTION.] Three directors shall be elected by the city council and six directors shall be elected by the county board. Up to three additional voting members and additional nonvoting members may be provided for in bylaws adopted pursuant to section 5, subdivision 5. As nearly as possible, one-third of the members of the first board of directors shall be elected for a term to expire one year from the next December 31 following that election, one-third for a term to expire two years from that date, and one-third for a term to expire three years from that date. Each of the political subdivisions electing directors shall assign terms of office to each director according to these staggered terms. Successors to the first board members shall each be elected for terms of three years, and all members shall hold office until their successors are elected and qualify. Terms of office shall expire on December 31. In case of vacancy on the board of directors, whether due to death, removal from the district, inability to serve, resignation, removal by the entity that elected the director, or other cause, the majority of the governing body of the entity that elected the director whose position is vacant shall elect a director to fill such vacancy for the then unexpired term.

Subd. 3. [COMPENSATION.] The members of the board of directors may receive compensation for their services as such and may be reimbursed for reasonable expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of their duties to the extent provided for in bylaws adopted pursuant to section 5, subdivision 5.

Subd. 4. [IMMUNITY FROM LIABILITY.] Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, no person who serves without compensation as a member of the board of directors shall be held civilly liable for an act or omission by that person if the act or omission was in good faith, was within the scope of the person's responsibilities as a member of the board, and did not constitute willful or reckless misconduct. This subdivision does not apply to:

(1) an action or proceeding brought by the attorney general for a breach of a fiduciary duty as a director;

(2) a cause of action to the extent it is based on federal law; or

(3) a cause of action based on the board member's express contractual obligation.

Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to limit the liability of a member of the board for physical injury to the person of another or for wrongful death which is personally and directly caused by the board member.

For purposes of this subdivision, the term "compensation" means any thing of value received for services rendered, except:

(1) reimbursement for expenses actually incurred;

(2) a per diem in an amount not to exceed the per diem authorized for state advisory councils and committees pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 15.059, subdivision 3; or

(3) payment by the hospital district of insurance premiums on behalf of a member of the board.

Sec. 8. [OFFICERS OF THE BOARD.]

Subdivision 1. [OFFICES; ELECTION.] At the first meeting of the board of directors of the hospital district, and at each first regular meeting after December 31, the board shall elect, from their number, a chair, a vice-chair, a secretary, and a treasurer. Each officer elected at the first regular meeting after December 31 shall hold office for one year, and until the officer's successor has been duly elected and qualified. In case of vacancy in any office the chair shall appoint a member to fill the vacancy until the next regular election of officers.

Subd. 2. [DUTIES.] The officers shall have the duties specified in this subdivision and additional duties as set forth in bylaws adopted in accordance with section 5, subdivision 5. The chair shall preside at all meetings of the board of directors and shall perform all duties usually incumbent upon such an officer. The vice-chair shall preside in the absence of the chair. The secretary shall record the minutes of all meetings of the board and be the custodian of all books and records of the district. The treasurer shall be the custodian of money received by the district and shall see that they are properly accounted for. The board may appoint deputies who shall perform any functions and duties of any officer, subject to the supervision and control of the officer.

Sec. 9. [MEETINGS OF THE BOARD.]

Regular meetings of the board of directors shall be held at least quarterly and more frequently as provided in bylaws of the hospital district, at the time and place as the board shall by resolution determine. The meetings may be held at any time upon the call of the chair or of any two other members, upon written notice mailed to each member three days prior to the meeting, or upon other notice as the board, by resolution or according to bylaws adopted by the board of directors, may provide, or without notice, if each member is present or files with the secretary a written consent to the holding of the meeting, which consent may be filed before or after the meeting. Any action within the authority of the board may be taken by the vote of a majority of the members present at a regular or adjourned meeting or at a duly called special meeting if a quorum is present. A majority of all the members of the board shall constitute a quorum, but a lesser number may meet and adjourn from time to time.

Sec. 10. [THE HOSPITAL DISTRICT AND ITS POWERS.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY; STATUS; PREEXISTING OBLIGATION.] The hospital district shall have perpetual succession, may contract and be contracted with, may sue and be sued, may, but shall not be required to, use a corporate seal, may acquire real and personal property as it may require, within or without the district, by purchase, gift, devise, lease, condemnation, or otherwise, and may hold, manage, control, sell, convey, or otherwise dispose of such property as its interests require. All of the assets, real and personal, of the preexisting hospital organization owned by the county and the city, doing business as Swift County-Benson Hospital, shall pass to the hospital district in fee title or by lease, and all legally valid and enforceable claims and contract obligations of the preexisting hospital organization shall be assumed by the district. All taxable property in the city of Benson and the county of Swift shall continue to be taxable for the payment of any bonded debt previously incurred by the preexisting hospital or by the city of Benson or the county of Swift on behalf of the preexisting hospital. Any properties, real, personal, or mixed, which are acquired, owned, leased, controlled, used, or occupied by the district shall be exempt from general property taxation by the state or any of its political subdivisions, but nothing in sections 6 to 20, shall prevent the levy of special assessments for public improvements benefiting the property.

Subd. 2. [BUDGET.] The board of directors shall adopt a budget for each ensuing year and shall provide the budget to the city council and the county board prior to the beginning of the year to which the budget applies. The city council and county board may consider the budget and provide their comments and recommendations to the board of directors.

Subd. 3. [POWERS.] The hospital district shall have all the powers necessary and convenient to provide for the acquisition, betterment, operation, maintenance, and administration for the hospital, including nursing home, other facilities for the residential occupancy of ambulatory elderly citizens who do not require nursing home or general hospital care and related programs, as the board of directors shall determine to be necessary and expedient. The enumeration of specific powers herein does not restrict the power of the board to take any lawful action which, in the reasonable exercise of its discretion, it deems necessary or convenient for the furtherance of the purpose for which the district exists, whether or not the power to take the action is implied from any of the powers expressly granted. These powers shall include, but not be limited to, the power to:

(1) employ management, administrative, nursing, and other personnel, legal counsel, engineers, architects, accountants, and other qualified persons, who may be paid for their services by monthly salaries, hourly wages, and pension benefits, or by fees as may be agreed on;

(2) cause reports, plans, studies, and recommendations to be prepared;

(3) when acquiring real and personal property as authorized in subdivision 1, contract for the acquisition by option, contract for deed, conditional sales contract, or otherwise;

(4) construct, equip, and furnish necessary buildings and grounds and maintain the same;

(5) adopt bylaws and rules and regulations to govern the operation and administration of any and all hospital, nursing home, and other facilities under its control, and for the admission of persons thereto;

(6) impose and collect charges for all services and facilities provided and made available by it;

(7) borrow money and issue bonds as prescribed in sections 6 to 20;

(8) procure insurance against liability of the district or its officers and employees, or both, for torts committed within the scope of their official duties, whether governmental or proprietary, or for errors and omissions, and against damage to or destruction of any of its facilities, equipment or other property;

(9) subject to subdivision 4, sell or lease any of its facilities or equipment as may be expedient;

(10) cause annual audits to be made of its accounts, books, vouchers, and funds by competent public accountants; this provision shall be construed to be mandatory;

(11) require a corporate surety bond from officers and employees of the district, and in the amount the board shall determine, and authorize payment of the premiums therefor; or

(12) provide loans to students as provided in Minnesota Statutes, section 447.331.

Subd. 4. [APPROVAL FOR SALE OR LEASE.] Nothing contained in section 5 shall be construed to authorize the district or its board of directors to at any time sell, lease, or otherwise transfer the management, control or operation of the hospital, including nursing home or other facilities, except upon approval by a majority vote of the county board and the city council.

Subd. 5. [BYLAWS.] Bylaws shall be adopted to further govern the operation of the hospital district. Bylaws or any amendment or repeal of them, shall first be adopted by the board of directors, but shall not take effect until approved by the county board and the city council. Bylaws may address any subject matter pertinent to the organization and operation of the hospital district consistent with sections 6 to 20, and other applicable laws.

Sec. 11. [PAYMENT OF EXPENSES.]

Expenses of acquisition, betterment, administration, operation, and maintenance of the hospital district shall be paid from the revenue derived therefrom and, to the extent authorized by sections 6 to 20, from the proceeds of debt incurred for the benefit of the district, and to the extent determined from time to time by the county board or the city council, from appropriations made by the county board or the city council. Money appropriated by the board of county commissioners and the city council to acquire or improve facilities of the hospital district may be transferred in the discretion of the board of directors to a sinking fund for bonds issued for that purpose. The hospital board may agree to repay to the county and the city any sums appropriated by the county board or the city council for this purpose, out of the net revenues to be derived from operation of its facilities, and subject to the terms agreed on.

Sec. 12. [TEMPORARY BORROWING AUTHORITY.]

Subdivision 1. [CERTIFICATES OF INDEBTEDNESS.] Subject to the approval of the city and the county, the hospital district may borrow money by issuing certificates of indebtedness in anticipation of revenues and federal aids. Total indebtedness for the certificates must not exceed $50,000. The proceeds must be used for expenses of administration, operation, and maintenance of the district's hospital, nursing home, or other facilities. The approval of the city and county shall be effected by an affirmative vote of their respective governing bodies.

Subd. 2. [RESOLUTION.] The district may authorize and borrow and issue the certificates of indebtedness on passage of a resolution specifying the amount and reasons for borrowing. The resolution must be adopted by a vote of at least two-thirds of its board members, excluding board members who may not vote The board shall fix the amount, date, maturity, form, denomination, and other details of the certificates and the date and place for receipt of bids for their purchase. The board shall direct the secretary to give notice of the date and place fixed.

Subd. 3. [TERMS OF CERTIFICATES.] Certificates must become due and payable no later than two years from the date of issuance. Certificates must be negotiable and payable to the order of the payee and have a definite due date but may be payable on or before the due date. Certificates must be sold for at least par and accrued interest and must bear interest at not more than eight percent a year. Interest must be payable at maturity or earlier as the board determines. The proceeds of current county or city appropriations, revenues derived from the facilities of the district and future federal aids, and any other district funds that become available must be applied to the extent necessary to repay the certificates.

Sec. 13. [HOSPITALS, NURSING HOMES, AND OTHER FACILITIES; FINANCING AND LEASING.]

Subdivision 1. [FINANCING.] Subject to the approval of the city and the county, the hospital district may issue revenue bonds by resolution of its governing body to finance the acquisition and betterment of hospital, nursing home, and other facilities. This power is in addition to other powers granted by law and includes, but is not limited to, the payment of interest during construction and for a reasonable period after construction and the establishment of reserves for bond payment and for working capital. The approval of the city and county shall be effected by an affirmative vote of their respective governing bodies. In connection with the acquisition of any existing hospital or nursing home facilities, the city, county, or district may retire outstanding indebtedness incurred to finance the construction of the existing facilities.

Subd. 2. [PLEDGE OF REVENUE.] The hospital district may pledge and appropriate the revenues to be derived from its operation of the facilities to pay the principal and interest on the bonds when due and to create and maintain reserves for that purpose, as a first and prior lien on the revenues or, if so provided in the bond resolution, as a lien on the revenues subordinate to the current payment of a fixed amount or percentage or all of the costs of running the facilities.

Sec. 14. [SECURITY FOR BONDS; PLEDGE OF CREDIT FOR BONDS.]

In the issuance of bonds the revenues or rentals must be pledged and appropriated by resolution for the use and benefit of bondholders generally, or may be pledged by the execution of an indenture or other appropriate instrument to a trustee for the bondholders. The site and facilities, or any part of them, may be mortgaged to the trustee. The governing body may enter into any covenants with the bondholders or trustee that it finds necessary and proper to assure the marketability of the bonds, the completion of the facilities, the segregation of the revenues or rentals and other funds pledged, and the sufficiency of funds for prompt and full payment of bonds and interest. The bonds shall be deemed to be payable wholly from the income of a revenue-producing convenience within the meaning of Minnesota Statutes, section 475.58, unless the appropriate governing body also pledges to their payment the full faith and credit of the county or city. In this event, notice of the intent to issue bonds with a pledge of the full faith and credit of the county or city specifying the maximum amount and the purpose of the bond issue shall be published and if, within ten days of the date of publication, a petition asking for an election on the proposition signed by voters equal to ten percent of the number of voters at the last regular election is filed with the secretary, the bonds may not be issued unless approved by a majority of the electors voting on the question at a legal election.

Sec. 15. [MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.]

Bonds issued under sections 8 to 13 must be issued and sold as provided in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 475. If the bonds do not pledge the credit of the hospital district as provided in section 10, the governing body may negotiate their sale without advertisement for bids. They shall not be included in the net debt of any municipality or county, and are not subject to interest rate limitations, as defined or referred to in Minnesota Statutes, sections 475.51 and 475.55.

Sec. 16. [LEASE OF FACILITIES TO NONPROFIT OR PUBLIC CORPORATION.]

Subject to section 5, subdivision 4, the hospital district may lease hospital, nursing home, or other facilities to be run by a nonprofit or public corporation as community facilities. The facilities must be open to all residents of the community on equal terms. The district may lease related medical facilities to any person, firm, association, or corporation, at rent and on conditions agreed. The term of the lease must not exceed 30 years. The lessee may be granted an option to renew the lease for an additional term or to purchase the facilities. The terms of renewal or purchase must be provided for in the lease. The hospital district may by resolution of its governing body agree to pay to the lessee annually, and to include in each annual budget for hospital and nursing home purposes, a fixed compensation for services agreed to be performed by the lessee in running the hospital, nursing home, or other facilities as a community facility; for any investment by the lessee of its own funds or funds granted or contributed to it in the construction or equipment of the hospital, nursing home, or other facilities; and for any auxiliary services to be provided or made available by the lessee through other facilities owned or operated by it. Services other than those provided for in the lease agreement may be compensated at rates agreed upon later. The lease agreement must, however, require the lessee to pay a net rental not less than the amount required to pay the principal and interest when due on all revenue bonds issued by the hospital district to acquire, improve, and refinance the leased facilities, and to maintain the agreed revenue bond reserve. The lease agreement must not grant the lessee an option to purchase the facilities at a price less than the amount of the bonds issued and interest accrued on them, except bonds and accrued interest paid from the net rentals before the option is exercised.

To the extent that the facilities are leased under this section for use by persons in private medical or dental or similar practice or other private business, a tax on that use must be imposed just as though the user were the owner of the space. It must be collected as provided in Minnesota Statutes, section 272.01, subdivision 2.

Sec. 17. [REFUNDING BONDS.]

The county, city, or hospital district may issue bonds by resolution of its governing body to refund bonds issued for the purposes stated in sections 6 to 20.

Sec. 18. [SWIFT COUNTY.]

The county of Swift may make appropriations in whatever amount it deems appropriate for capital acquisition, capital improvements, maintenance, and operating subsidy for a hospital district created under sections 6 to 20, and any other hospital in the county notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, sections 376.08 and 376.09 or any other limiting statutes or laws otherwise applicable to the county. The county may also guarantee any indebtedness incurred by or on behalf of the hospital and pledge its full faith and credit in support of it.

Sec. 19. [CITY OF BENSON.]

The city of Benson may make appropriations in whatever amount it deems appropriate for the purposes of capital acquisition, capital improvements, maintenance, and operating subsidy for a hospital district created under sections 6 to 20, notwithstanding any limiting statutes or laws otherwise applicable to the city. The city may also guarantee any indebtedness incurred by or on behalf of the hospital and pledge its full faith and credit in support of it.

Sec. 20. [POWERS SUPPLEMENTARY.]

The powers granted in sections 6 to 20 are supplementary to and not in substitution for any other powers possessed by political subdivisions in connection with the acquisition, betterment, administration, operation, and maintenance of hospitals, nursing homes, and related facilities and programs or the creation of hospital districts."

"Sections 6 to 20 are effective upon approval by majority of the county board of the county of Swift and by a majority of the city council of the city of Benson and upon compliance with all other provisions of Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021."

"Section 1. [18.75] [PURPOSE.]

It is the policy of the legislature that residents of the state be protected from the injurious effects of noxious weeds on public health, the environment, public roads, crops, livestock, and other property. Sections 2 to 14 contain procedures for controlling and eradicating noxious weeds on all lands within the state.

Sec. 2. [18.76] [CITATION.]

Sections 2 to 14 may be cited as the "Minnesota noxious weed law."

Sec. 3. [18.77] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] The definitions in this section apply to sections 2 to 14.

Subd. 2. [COMMISSIONER.] "Commissioner" means the commissioner of agriculture or the authorized agents of the commissioner.

Subd. 3. [CONTROL.] "Control" means to destroy the aboveground growth of noxious weeds by a lawful method that prevents the maturation and spread of noxious weed propagating parts from one area to another.

Subd. 4. [ERADICATE.] "Eradicate" means to destroy the aboveground growth and the roots of noxious weeds by a lawful method that prevents the maturation and spread of noxious weed propagating parts from one area to another.

Subd. 5. [GROWING CROP.] "Growing crop" means an agricultural, horticultural, or forest crop that has been planted or regularly maintained and intended for harvest.

Subd. 6. [LAND.] "Land" means a parcel or tract of real estate including wetlands and public waters but not including buildings unless they are a place of business and open to the general public.

Subd. 7. [MUNICIPALITY.] "Municipality" means a home rule charter or statutory city or a township.

Subd. 8. [NOXIOUS WEED.] "Noxious weed" means an annual, biennial, or perennial plant that the commissioner designates to be injurious to public health, the environment, public roads, crops, livestock, or other property.

Subd. 9. [OCCUPANT.] "Occupant" means a person who uses land as a principal residence or who leases land or both.

Subd. 10. [PERMANENT PASTURE, HAY MEADOW, WOODLOT, AND OTHER NONCROP AREA.] "Permanent pasture, hay meadow, woodlot, and other noncrop area" means an area of predominantly native or seeded perennial plants that can be used for grazing or hay purposes but is not harvested on a regular basis and is not considered to be a growing crop.

Subd. 12. [PROPAGATING PARTS.] "Propagating parts" means plant parts, including seeds, that are capable of producing new plants.

Sec. 4. [18.78] [CONTROL OR ERADICATION OF NOXIOUS WEEDS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] Except as provided in section 11, a person owning land, a person occupying land, or a person responsible for the maintenance of public land shall control or eradicate all noxious weeds on the land at a time and in a manner ordered by the commissioner, the county agricultural inspector, or a local weed inspector.

Subd. 2. [CONTROL OF PURPLE LOOSESTRIFE.] An owner of nonfederal lands underlying public waters or wetlands designated under section 103G.201 is not required to control or eradicate purple loosestrife below the ordinary high water level of the public water or wetland. The commissioner of natural resources is responsible for control and eradication of purple loosestrife on public waters and wetlands designated under section 103G.201, except those located upon lands owned in fee title or managed by the United States. The officers, employees, agents, and contractors of the commissioner of natural resources may enter upon public waters and wetlands designated under section 103G.201 and, after providing notification to the occupant or owner of the land, may cross adjacent lands as necessary for the purpose of investigating purple loosestrife infestations, formulating methods of eradication, and implementing control and eradication of purple loosestrife. The commissioner, after consultation with the commissioner of agriculture, shall, by June 1 of each year, compile a priority list of purple loosestrife infestations to be controlled in designated public waters. The commissioner of agriculture must distribute the list to county agricultural inspectors, local weed inspectors, and their appointed agents. The commissioner of natural resources shall control listed purple loosestrife infestations in priority order within the limits of appropriations provided for that purpose. This procedure shall be the exclusive means for control of purple loosestrife on designated public waters by the commissioner of natural resources and shall supersede the other provisions for control of noxious weeds set forth elsewhere in chapter 18. The responsibility of the commissioner of natural resources to control and eradicate purple loosestrife on public waters and wetlands located on private lands and the authority to enter upon private lands ends ten days after receipt by the commissioner of a written statement from the landowner that the landowner assumes all responsibility for control and eradication of purple loosestrife under sections 4 to 14. State officers, employees, agents, and contractors of the commissioner of natural resources are not liable in a civil action for trespass committed in the discharge of their duties under this section and are not liable to anyone for damages, except for damages arising from gross negligence.

Sec. 5. [18.79] [DUTIES OF THE COMMISSIONER.]

Subdivision 1. [ENFORCEMENT.] The commissioner of agriculture shall administer and enforce sections 2 to 14.

Subd. 2. [AUTHORIZED AGENTS.] The commissioner shall authorize department of agriculture personnel and may authorize, in writing, county agricultural inspectors to act as agents in the administration and enforcement of sections 2 to 14.

Subd. 3. [ENTRY UPON LAND.] To administer and enforce sections 2 to 14, the commissioner, authorized agents of the commissioner, county agricultural inspectors, and local weed inspectors may enter upon land without consent of the owner and without being subject to an action for trespass or any damages.

Subd. 4. [RULES.] The commissioner may make necessary rules for the proper enforcement of sections 2 to 14. The commissioner may designate the plants that are noxious by commissioner's order. The commissioner's orders under this subdivision are not subject to chapter 14.

Subd. 5. [ORDER FOR CONTROL OR ERADICATION OF NOXIOUS WEEDS.] The commissioner, a county agricultural inspector, or a local weed inspector may order the control or eradication of noxious weeds on any land within the state.

Subd. 6. [EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS FOR CONTROL OR ERADICATION OF NOXIOUS WEEDS.] The commissioner shall conduct education programs considered necessary for weed inspectors in the enforcement of the noxious weed law. The director of the Minnesota extension service may conduct educational programs for the general public that will aid compliance with the noxious weed law.

Subd. 7. [MEETINGS AND REPORTS.] The commissioner shall designate by rule the reports that are required to be made and the meetings that must be attended by weed inspectors.

Subd. 8. [PRESCRIBED FORMS.] The commissioner shall prescribe the forms to be used by weed inspectors in the enforcement of sections 2 to 14.

Subd. 9. [INJUNCTION.] If the commissioner applies to a court for a temporary or permanent injunction restraining a person from violating or continuing to violate sections 2 to 14, the injunction may be issued without requiring a bond.

Subd. 10. [PROSECUTION.] On finding that a person has violated sections 2 to 14, the commissioner may start court proceedings in the locality in which the violation occurred. The county attorney may prosecute actions under sections 2 to 14 within his or her jurisdiction.

Subd. 11. [QUARANTINE.] The commissioner may establish a noxious weed quarantine according to section 11 and may hire additional employees and purchase the necessary equipment, supplies, or services to properly carry out the eradication of noxious weeds on quarantined land.

Sec. 6. [18.80] [INSPECTORS; EXPENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [COUNTY AGRICULTURAL INSPECTORS.] The county board shall appoint one or more county agricultural inspectors that meet the qualifications prescribed by rule. The appointment must be for a period of time which is sufficient to accomplish the duties assigned to this position. A notice of the appointment must be delivered to the commissioner within ten days of the appointment and it must establish the initial number of hours to be worked annually.

Subd. 2. [LOCAL WEED INSPECTORS.] The supervisors of each town board and the mayor of each city shall act as local weed inspectors within their respective municipalities.

Subd. 3. [ASSISTANT WEED INSPECTORS.] A municipality may appoint one or more assistants to act on behalf of the appointing authority as a weed inspector for the municipality. The appointed assistant or assistants have the power, authority, and responsibility of the town board members or the city mayor in the capacity of weed inspector.

Sec. 7. [18.81] [DUTIES OF INSPECTORS.]

Subdivision 1. [COUNTY AGRICULTURAL INSPECTORS.] It is the duty of county agricultural inspectors:

(1) to see that sections 2 to 14 and rules adopted under those sections are carried out within their jurisdiction;

(2) to see that sections 21.80 to 21.92 and rules adopted under those sections are carried out within their jurisdiction;

(3) to see that sections 21.71 to 21.78 and rules adopted under those sections are carried out within their jurisdiction;

(4) to participate in the control programs for feed, fertilizer, pesticide, and insect pests when requested, in writing, to do so by the commissioner;

(5) to participate in other agricultural programs under the control of the commissioner when requested to do so, subject to veto by the county board;

(6) to administer the distribution of funds allocated by the county board to the county agricultural inspector for noxious weed control and eradication within the county;

(7) to submit reports and attend meetings that the commissioner requires; and

(8) to publish a general weed notice of the legal duty to control noxious weeds in one or more legal newspapers of general circulation throughout the county.

Subd. 2. [LOCAL WEED INSPECTORS.] Local weed inspectors shall:

(1) examine all lands, including highways, roads, alleys, and public ground in the territory over which their jurisdiction extends to ascertain if section 4 and related rules have been complied with;

(2) see that the control or eradication of noxious weeds is carried out in accordance with section 9 and related rules;

(3) issue permits in accordance with section 8 and related rules for the transportation of materials or equipment infested with noxious weed propagating parts; and

(4) submit reports and attend meetings that the commissioner requires.

Subd. 3. [NONPERFORMANCE BY INSPECTORS; REIMBURSEMENT FOR EXPENSES.] (a) If local weed inspectors neglect or fail to do their duty as prescribed in this section, the commissioner shall issue a notice to the inspector providing instructions on how and when to do their duty. If, after the time allowed in the notice, the local weed inspector has not complied as directed, the county agricultural inspector may perform the duty for the local weed inspector. A claim for the expense of doing the local weed inspector's duty is a legal charge against the municipality in which the inspector has jurisdiction. The county agricultural inspector doing the work may file an itemized statement of costs with the clerk of the municipality in which the work was performed. The municipality shall immediately issue proper warrants to the county for the work performed. If the municipality fails to issue the warrants, the county auditor may include the amount contained in the itemized statement of costs as part of the next annual tax levy in the municipality and withhold that amount from the municipality in making its next apportionment.

(b) If a county agricultural inspector fails to perform the duties as prescribed in this section, the commissioner shall issue a notice to the inspector providing instructions on how and when to do that duty.

(c) The commissioner shall by rule establish procedures to carry out the enforcement actions for nonperformance required by this subdivision.

Sec. 8. [18.82] [TRANSPORTATION OF NOXIOUS WEED PROPAGATING PARTS IN INFESTED MATERIAL OR EQUIPMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [PERMITS.] Except as provided in section 21.74, if a person wants to transport along a public highway materials or equipment containing the propagating parts of weeds designated as noxious by the commissioner, the person must secure a written permit for transportation of the material or equipment from a local weed inspector or county agricultural inspector. Inspectors may issue permits to persons residing or operating within their jurisdiction. If the noxious weed propagating parts are removed from materials and equipment or devitalized before being transported, a permit is not needed.

Subd. 2. [CONDITIONS OF PERMIT ISSUANCE.] The following conditions must be met before a permit under subdivision 1 may be issued:

(1) any material or equipment containing noxious weed propagating parts that is about to be transported along a public highway must be in a container that is sufficiently tight and closed or otherwise covered to prevent the blowing or scattering of the material along the highway or on other lands or water; and

(2) the destination for unloading and the use of the material or equipment containing noxious weed propagating parts must be stated on the permit along with the method that will be used to destroy the viability of the propagating parts and thereby prevent their being dumped or scattered upon land or water.

Subd. 3. [DURATION OF PERMIT; REVOCATION.] A permit under subdivision 1 is valid for up to one year after the date it is issued unless otherwise specified by the weed inspector issuing the permit. The permit may be revoked if a county agricultural inspector or local weed inspector determines that the applicant has not complied with this section.

Sec. 9. [18.83] [CONTROLLING OR ERADICATING NOXIOUS WEEDS; NOTICES; EXPENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL WEED NOTICE.] A general notice for noxious weed control or eradication must be published on or before May 15 of each year and at other times the commissioner directs. Failure of the county agricultural weed inspector to publish the general notice does not relieve a person from the necessity of full compliance with sections 2 to 14 and related rules. The published notice is legal and sufficient notice when an individual notice cannot be served.

Subd. 2. [INDIVIDUAL NOTICE.] A weed inspector may find it necessary to secure more prompt or definite control or eradication of noxious weeds than is accomplished by the published general notice. In these special or individual instances, involving one or a limited number of persons, the weed inspector having jurisdiction shall serve individual notices in writing upon the person who owns the land and the person who occupies the land, or the person responsible for or charged with the maintenance of public land, giving specific instructions on when and how named noxious weeds are to be controlled or eradicated. Individual notices provided for in this section must be served in the same manner as a summons in a civil action in the district court or by certified mail. Service on a person living temporarily or permanently outside of the weed inspector's jurisdiction may be made by sending the notice by certified mail to the last known address of the person, to be ascertained, if necessary, from the last tax list in the county treasurer's office.

Subd. 3. [APPEAL OF INDIVIDUAL NOTICE; APPEAL COMMITTEE.] (1) A recipient of an individual notice may appeal, in writing, the order for control or eradication of noxious weeds. This appeal must be filed with a member of the appeal committee in the county where the land is located within two working days of the time the notice is received. The committee must inspect the land specified in the notice and report back to the recipient and the inspector who issued the notice within five working days, either agreeing, disagreeing, or revising the order. The decision may be appealed in district court. If the committee agrees or revises the order, the control or eradication specified in the order, as approved or revised by the committee, may be carried out.

(2) The county board of commissioners shall appoint members of the appeal committee. The membership must include a county commissioner or municipal official and a landowner residing in the county. The expenses of the members may be reimbursed by the county upon submission of an itemized statement to the county auditor.

Subd. 4. [CONTROL OR ERADICATION BY INSPECTOR.] If a person does not comply with an individual notice served on the person or an individual notice cannot be served, the weed inspector having jurisdiction shall have the noxious weeds controlled or eradicated within the time and in the manner the weed inspector designates.

Subd. 5. [CONTROL OR ERADICATION BY INSPECTOR IN GROWING CROP.] A weed inspector may consider it necessary to control or eradicate noxious weeds along with all or a part of a growing crop to prevent the maturation and spread of noxious weeds within the inspector's jurisdiction. If this situation exists, the weed inspector may have the noxious weeds controlled or eradicated together with the crop after the appeal committee has reviewed the matter as outlined in subdivision 3 and reported back agreement with the order.

Subd. 6. [AUTHORIZATION FOR PERSON HIRED TO ENTER UPON LAND.] The weed inspector may hire a person to control or eradicate noxious weeds if the person who owns the land, the person who occupies the land, or the person responsible for the maintenance of public land has failed to comply with an individual notice or with the published general notice when an individual notice cannot be served. The person hired must have authorization, in writing, from the weed inspector to enter upon the land.

Subd. 7. [EXPENSES; REIMBURSEMENTS.] A claim for the expense of controlling or eradicating noxious weeds, which may include the costs of serving notices, is a legal charge against the county in which the land is located. The officers having the work done must file with the county auditor a verified and itemized statement of cost for all services rendered on each separate tract or lot of land. The county auditor shall immediately issue proper warrants to the persons named on the statement as having rendered services. To reimburse the county for its expenditure in this regard, the county auditor shall certify the total amount due and, unless an appeal is made in accordance with section 10, enter it on the tax roll as a tax upon the land and it must be collected as other real estate taxes are collected.

If public land is involved, the amount due must be paid from funds provided for maintenance of the land or from the general revenue or operating fund of the agency responsible for the land. Each claim for control or eradication of noxious weeds on public lands must first be approved by the commissioner of agriculture.

Sec. 10. [18.84] [LIABILITY; APPEALS.]

Subdivision 1. [COUNTIES AND MUNICIPALITIES.] Counties and municipalities are not liable for damages from the noxious weed control program for actions conducted in accordance with sections 2 to 14.

Subd. 2. [APPEAL TO COUNTY BOARD.] A person who is ordered to control noxious weeds under sections 2 to 14 and is charged for noxious weed control may appeal the cost of noxious weed control to the county board of the county where the noxious weed control measures were undertaken within 30 days after being charged. The county board shall determine the amount and approve the charge and filing of a lien against the property if it determines that the owner, or occupant if other than the owner, responsible for controlling noxious weeds did not comply with the order of the inspector.

Subd. 3. [COURT APPEAL OF COSTS; PETITION.] (a) A landowner who has appealed the cost of noxious weed control measures under subdivision 2 may petition for judicial review. The petition must be filed within 30 days after the conclusion of the hearing before the county board. The petition must be filed with the court administrator in the county in which the land where the noxious weed control measures were undertaken is located, together with proof of service of a copy of the petition on the commissioner and the county auditor. No responsive pleadings may be required of the commissioner or the county, and no court fees may be charged for the appearance of the commissioner or the county in this matter.

(b) The petition must be captioned in the name of the person making the petition as petitioner and the commissioner of agriculture and respective county as respondents. The petition must include the petitioner's name, the legal description of the land involved, a copy of the notice to control noxious weeds, and the date or dates on which appealed control measures were undertaken.

(c) The petition must state with specificity the grounds upon which the petitioner seeks to avoid the imposition of a lien for the cost of noxious weed control measures.

Subd. 4. [HEARING.] (a) A hearing under subdivisions 3 to 5 must be held at the earliest practicable date, and in no event later than 90 days following the filing of the petition of objection. The hearing must be before a district judge in the county in which the land where the noxious weed control measures were undertaken is located, and must be conducted in accordance with the district court rules of civil procedure.

(b) The court shall either order that a lien representing part or all of the costs for noxious weed control measures be imposed against the land or that the landowner be relieved of responsibility for payment of noxious weed control measures undertaken.

Subd. 5. [FURTHER APPEAL.] A party aggrieved by the decision of the reviewing court may appeal the decision as provided in the rules of appellate procedure.

Sec. 11. [18.85] [NOXIOUS WEED QUARANTINE.]

Subdivision 1. [NEED FOR QUARANTINE.] If there is an infestation of noxious weeds beyond the ability of the person who owns or occupies the land to eradicate it, the commissioner may, upon request of the person who owns the land or on the commissioner's own initiative, take necessary steps to prevent the further spread of the weed. To this end, the commissioner may quarantine a tract of land that is infested and put into operation the necessary means for the eradication of the weed; provided that the county and municipality in which the land is located must approve of the quarantine before it can be initiated.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE OF QUARANTINE.] The commissioner, upon entering a tract of land for the purpose of this section, shall notify in writing the persons who own or occupy the land of the entry and quarantine. If the necessary means of eradication have been completed, the commissioner shall notify, in writing, the persons who own or occupy the land that the quarantine effort is complete.

Subd. 3. [EXPENSES.] The expenses for eradication of noxious weeds on quarantined land must be paid by the commissioner from the funds provided for this purpose.

Counties, municipalities, and owners or occupants must reimburse the commissioner before January 1 of each year. The county shall pay 20 percent of the expenses, the municipality shall pay ten percent, and the owner or occupant shall pay ten percent.

Sec. 12. [18.86] [UNLAWFUL ACTS.]

No person may:

(1) hinder or obstruct in any way the commissioner, the commissioner's authorized agents, county agricultural inspectors, or local weed inspectors in the performance of their duties as provided in sections 2 to 14 or related rules;

(2) neglect, fail, or refuse to comply with section 8 or related rules in the transportation and use of material or equipment infested with noxious weed propagating parts;

(3) sell material containing noxious weed propagating parts to a person who does not have a permit to transport that material or to a person who does not have a screenings permit issued in accordance with section 21.74; or

(4) neglect, fail, or refuse to comply with a general notice or an individual notice to control or eradicate noxious weeds.

Sec. 13. [18.87] [PENALTY.]

A violation of section 12 or a rule adopted under that section is a misdemeanor. County agricultural inspectors, local weed inspectors, or their appointed assistants are not subject to the penalties of this section for failure, neglect, or refusal to perform duties imposed on them by sections 2 to 14.

Sec. 14. [18.88] [NOXIOUS WEED PROGRAM FUNDING.]

Subdivision 1. [COUNTY.] The county board shall pay, from the general revenue or other fund for the county, the expenses for the county agricultural inspector position, for noxious weed control or eradication on all land owned by the county or on land that the county is responsible for the maintenance of, for the expenses of the appeal committee, and for necessary expenses as required for quarantines within the county.

Subd. 2. [MUNICIPALITY.] The municipality shall pay, from the general revenue or other fund for the municipality, the necessary expenses of the local weed inspector in the performance of duties required for quarantines within the municipality, and for noxious weed control or eradication on land owned by the municipality or on land for which the municipality is responsible for its maintenance.

Subd. 8. "Term of imprisonment," as applied to inmates sentenced before December 31, 1993, is the period of time to which an inmate is committed to the custody of the commissioner of corrections minus earned good time. "Term of imprisonment," as applied to inmates sentenced on or after December 31, 1993, is the period of time which an inmate is ordered to serve in prison by the sentencing court, plus any disciplinary confinement period imposed by the commissioner under section 244.05, subdivision 1a.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 244.03, is amended to read:

244.03 [~~VOLUNTARY~~ REHABILITATIVE PROGRAMS.]

The commissioner shall provide appropriate mental health programs and vocational and educational programs with employment-related goals for inmates who desire to voluntarily participate in such programs and for inmates who are required to participate in the programs under the disciplinary offense rules adopted by the commissioner under section 244.05, subdivision 1a. The selection, design and implementation of programs under this section shall be the sole responsibility of the commissioner, acting within the limitations imposed by the funds appropriated for such programs.

No action challenging the level of expenditures for programs authorized under this section, nor any action challenging the selection, design or implementation of these programs, may be maintained by an inmate in any court in this state.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 244.04, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REDUCTION OF SENTENCE.] Notwithstanding the provisions of section 609.11, subdivision 6, and section 609.346, subdivision 1, the term of imprisonment of any inmate sentenced to a presumptive fixed sentence after May 1, 1980, and before December 31, 1993, shall be reduced in duration by one day for each two days during which the inmate violates none of the disciplinary offense rules promulgated by the commissioner. The reduction shall accrue to the period of supervised release to be served by the inmate, except that the period of supervised release for a sex offender sentenced and conditionally released by the commissioner under section 609.1352, subdivision 5, is governed by that provision.

Except as otherwise provided in subdivision 2, if an inmate violates a disciplinary offense rule promulgated by the commissioner, good time earned prior to the violation may not be taken away, but the inmate may be required to serve an appropriate portion of the term of imprisonment after the violation without earning good time.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 244.04, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. The provisions of this section do not apply to an inmate serving a mandatory life sentence or to persons sentenced on or after December 31, 1993.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 244.05, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SUPERVISED RELEASE REQUIRED.] Except as provided in subdivisions 1a, 4, and 5, every inmate shall serve a supervised release term upon completion of the inmate's term of imprisonment as reduced by any good time earned by the inmate or extended by confinement in punitive segregation pursuant to section 244.04, subdivision 2. Except for a sex offender conditionally released under section 609.1352, subdivision 5, the supervised release term shall be equal to the period of good time the inmate has earned, and shall not exceed the length of time remaining in the inmate's sentence.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 244.05, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [SUPERVISED RELEASE; OFFENDERS SENTENCED ON OR AFTER JANUARY 1, 1993.] (a) Except as provided in subdivisions 4 and 5, every inmate sentenced to prison for a felony offense on or after December 31, 1993, shall serve a supervised release term upon completion of the term of imprisonment pronounced by the sentencing court under section 7 and any disciplinary confinement period imposed by the commissioner due to the inmate's violation of any disciplinary offense rule adopted by the commissioner under paragraph (b). The supervised release term shall be equal in length to the amount of time remaining in the inmate's imposed sentence after the inmate has served the pronounced term of imprisonment and any disciplinary confinement period imposed by the commissioner.

(b) By December 31, 1993, the commissioner shall modify the commissioner's existing disciplinary rules to specify disciplinary offenses which may result in imposition of a disciplinary confinement period and the length of the disciplinary confinement period for each disciplinary offense. These disciplinary offense rules may cover violation of institution rules, refusal to work, refusal to participate in treatment or other rehabilitative programs, and other matters determined by the commissioner. No inmate who violates a disciplinary rule shall be placed on supervised release until the inmate has served the disciplinary confinement period or until the inmate is discharged or released from punitive segregation confinement, whichever is later. The imposition of a disciplinary confinement period shall be considered to be a disciplinary sanction imposed upon an inmate, and the procedure for imposing the disciplinary confinement period and the rights of the inmate in the procedure shall be those in effect for the imposition of other disciplinary sanctions at each state correctional institution.

The lengths of the term of imprisonment and the supervised release term actually served by an inmate are subject to the provisions of section 244.05, subdivision 1a.

Subd. 2. [EXPLANATION OF SENTENCE.] When a court pronounces sentence under this section, it shall specify the amount of time the defendant will serve in prison and the amount of time the defendant will serve on supervised release, assuming the defendant commits no disciplinary offense in prison that may result in the imposition of a disciplinary confinement period. The court shall also explain that the defendant's term of imprisonment may be extended by the commissioner if the defendant commits any disciplinary offenses in prison and that this extension could result in the defendant's serving the entire pronounced sentence in prison. The court's explanation shall be included in the sentencing order.

Subd. 3. [NO RIGHT TO SUPERVISED RELEASE.] Notwithstanding the court's specification of the potential length of a defendant's supervised release term in the sentencing order, the court's order creates no right of a defendant to any specific, minimum length of a supervised release term.

Subd. 4. [APPLICATION OF STATUTORY MANDATORY MINIMUM SENTENCES.] If the defendant is convicted of any offense for which a statute imposes a mandatory minimum sentence or term of imprisonment, the statutory mandatory minimum sentence or term governs the length of the entire sentence pronounced by the court under this section.

Sec. 8. [609.146] [COMPUTATION OF JAIL CREDIT.]

An offender is entitled to a reduction in the offender's term of imprisonment for time spent in custody in a correctional facility before the date of sentencing only when the time was spent in custody in connection with the offense or behavioral incident for which the offender is currently being sentenced.

Sec. 9. [609.151] [CONSECUTIVE SENTENCES FOR CRIMES COMMITTED AT STATE CORRECTIONAL FACILITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [CONSECUTIVE SENTENCE.] Notwithstanding the sentencing guidelines or any provision of law, when an inmate of a state correctional facility commits a felony at the facility and is convicted for that felony, the court shall impose a sentence to run consecutively to the sentence for which the inmate was confined when the felony was committed.

Subd. 2. [PRESUMPTIVE SENTENCE.] Based upon the defendant's criminal history score at the time of the commission of the offense, the court shall impose the presumptive sentence established by the appropriate grid of the sentencing guidelines grid.

Subd. 3. [WAIVER.] The court may, in whole or part, waive the sentencing requirements of subdivisions 1 and 2 upon certification of the prosecuting authority that the defendant has provided substantial and material assistance in the detection or prosecution of crime.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 609.152, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [INCREASED SENTENCES; DANGEROUS OFFENDERS.] Whenever a person is convicted of a violent crime, and the judge is imposing an executed sentence based on a sentencing guidelines presumptive imprisonment sentence, the judge may impose an aggravated durational departure from the presumptive imprisonment sentence up to the statutory maximum sentence if the offender was at least 18 years old at the time the felony was committed, and:

(1) the court determines on the record at the time of sentencing that the offender has two or more prior convictions for violent crimes; and

(2) the court finds that the offender is a danger to public safety and specifies on the record the basis for the finding, which may include:

(i) the offender's past criminal behavior, such as the offender's high frequency rate of criminal activity or juvenile adjudications, or long involvement in criminal activity including juvenile adjudications; or

(ii) the fact that the present offense of conviction involved an aggravating factor that would justify a durational departure under the sentencing guidelines.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 609.152, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [INCREASED SENTENCES; CAREER OFFENDERS.] Whenever a person is convicted of a felony, and the judge is imposing an executed sentence based on a sentencing guidelines presumptive imprisonment sentence, the judge may impose an aggravated durational departure from the presumptive sentence up to the statutory maximum sentence if the judge finds and specifies on the record that the offender has more than four prior felony convictions ~~and that the present offense is a felony that was committed as part of a pattern of criminal conduct from which a substantial portion of the offender's income was derived~~.

Sec. 12. [SENTENCING GUIDELINES MODIFICATIONS.]

The sentencing guidelines commission shall modify sentencing guideline II.F to provide a presumption in favor of consecutive sentences for any person convicted of multiple crimes against a person in separate behavioral incidents and to require judges to provide written reasons under sentencing guideline II.D for any mitigated departure from this presumption.

Sec. 13. [TASK FORCE ON NEW FELONY SENTENCING SYSTEM.]

Subdivision 1. [MEMBERSHIP.] A task force is established to study the implementation of the new felony sentencing system provided in this article. The task force consists of the following members or their designees:

All inmates in current and future close, maximum and high security facilities, including the Minnesota correctional facilities at St. Cloud, Stillwater, and Oak Park Heights, shall be confined in separate cells except for inmates confined in geriatric or honor dormitory-type facilities.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 244.05, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1b. [RELEASE ON CERTAIN DAYS.] Notwithstanding the amount of good time earned by an inmate sentenced before August 1, 1992, if the inmate's scheduled release date occurs on a Friday, Saturday, Sunday, or holiday, the inmate's supervised release term shall begin on the last day before the inmate's scheduled release date that is not a Friday, Saturday, Sunday, or holiday. For inmates sentenced on or after August 1, 1992, if the inmate's scheduled release date occurs on a Friday, Saturday, Sunday, or holiday, the inmate's supervised release term shall begin on the first day after the inmate's scheduled release date that is not a Friday, Saturday, Sunday, or holiday.

Subd. 3. [FEE COLLECTION.] The chief executive officer of a local correctional agency may collect local correctional fees assessed under section 8. The local correctional agency may collect the fee at any time while the offender is under sentence or after the sentence has been discharged. Subd. 4. [EXEMPTION FROM FEE.] The local correctional agency shall waive payment of a local correctional fee if so ordered by the court under section 8. If the court fails to waive the fee, the chief executive officer of the local correctional agency may waive payment of the fee if the officer determines that the offender does not have the ability to pay the fee, the prospects for payment are poor, or there are extenuating circumstances justifying waiver of the fee. Instead of waiving the fee, the local correctional agency may require the offender to perform community work service as a means of paying the fee.

Subd. 3. [FEE EXEMPTION.] The court may waive payment of a local correctional fee if it makes findings on the record that the convicted person is exempt due to any of the factors named under section 4, subdivision 4. The court shall consider prospects for payment during the term of supervision by the local correctional agency.

Subd. 4. [RESTITUTION PAYMENT PRIORITY.] If the court orders the defendant to pay restitution and a local correctional fee, the court shall order that the restitution be paid before the local correctional fee.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 609.125, is amended to read:

It must include procedures for reporting incidents of sexual harassment or sexual violence and for disciplinary actions against violators. During student registration, each public post-secondary institution shall provide each student with information regarding its policy. A copy of the policy also shall be posted at appropriate locations on campus at all times. Each private post-secondary institution that enrolls students who receive state financial aid must adopt a policy that meets the requirements of this section. Upon that showing, the court shall grant the request unless information presented by the alleged delinquent or noticed by the court establishes that the supportive person's attendance during the testimony of the victim would pose a substantial risk of influencing or affecting the content of that testimony.

If the court, upon its own motion or the motion of any party, ~~determines~~ finds in a hearing conducted outside the presence of the jury, that the presence of the defendant during testimony taken pursuant to this subdivision would psychologically traumatize the witness so as to render the witness unavailable to testify, the court may order that the testimony be taken in a manner that:

(1) the defendant can see and hear the testimony of the child in person and communicate with counsel, but the child cannot see or hear the defendant; or

(2) the defendant ~~and child can view each other~~ can see and hear the testimony of the child by video or television monitor from a separate ~~rooms~~ room and communicate with counsel, but the child cannot see or hear the defendant.

Any test results given to a victim shall be provided by a health professional who is trained to provide the counseling described in section 144.763.

Subd. 3. [ADVERSE INSURANCE ACTION PROHIBITED.] No life or health insurer may terminate or fail to renew coverage on a victim or base a victim's premium on the results of any HIV test performed under subdivision 1 or on the results of any HIV test performed on a crime victim who was exposed to or had contact with the offender's bodily fluids.

The commissioner shall issue a request for proposals from nonprofit, nongovernmental organizations, to design and implement two pilot children's safety centers. Each children's safety center shall be designed to provide a healthy interactive environment for parents who are separated or divorced and for parents with children in foster homes to visit with their children. The centers shall be available for use by district courts who may order visitation to occur at a safety center. The centers can also be used as drop-off sites, so that parents who are under court order to have no contact with each other can exchange children for visitation at a neutral site.

Each center must have an educational team which shall provide parenting and child development classes, and must offer support groups to participating custodial parents and hold regular classes designed to assist children who have experienced domestic violence and abuse.

Each center must provide sufficient security to ensure a safe visitation environment for children and their parents.

The commissioner shall award funds to provide statewide administration and development of the project sites. Funds shall be available beginning July 1, 1992. A grantee must demonstrate the ability to provide a local match for the two project sites. The local match may include in-kind contributions. The court may direct a respondent to pay to the court administrator the petitioner's filing fees and reasonable costs of service of process if the court determines that the respondent has the ability to pay the petitioner's fees and costs.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 518B.01, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [COPY TO LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCY.] (a) An order for protection granted pursuant to this section shall be forwarded by the court administrator within 24 hours to the local law enforcement agency with jurisdiction over the residence of the applicant.

Each appropriate law enforcement agency shall make available to other law enforcement officers through a system for verification, information as to the existence and status of any order for protection issued pursuant to this section.

(b) If the applicant notifies the court administrator of a change in the applicant's residence so that a different local law enforcement agency has jurisdiction over the residence, the order for protection must be forwarded by the court administrator to the new law enforcement agency within 24 hours of the notice. If the applicant notifies the new law enforcement agency that an order for protection has been issued under this section and the applicant has established a new residence within that agency's jurisdiction, within 24 hours the local law enforcement agency shall request a copy of the order for protection from the court administrator in the county that issued the order.

(c) When an order for protection is granted, the applicant for an order for protection must be told by the court that:

(1) notification of a change in residence should be given immediately to the court administrator and to the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the new residence of the applicant;

(2) the reason for notification of a change in residence is to forward an order for protection to the proper law enforcement agency; and

(3) the order for protection must be forwarded to the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the new residence within 24 hours of notification of a change in residence, whether notification is given to the court administrator or to the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the applicant's new residence.

An order for protection is enforceable even if the applicant does not notify the court administrator or the appropriate law enforcement agency of a change in residence.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 518B.01, subdivision 14, is amended to read:

Subd. 14. [VIOLATION OF AN ORDER FOR PROTECTION.] (a) Whenever an order for protection is granted pursuant to this section, and the respondent or person to be restrained knows of the order, violation of the order for protection is a misdemeanor. Upon conviction, the defendant must be sentenced to a minimum of three days imprisonment and must be ordered to participate in counseling or other appropriate programs selected by the court. If the court stays imposition or execution of the jail sentence and the defendant refuses or fails to comply with the court's treatment order, the court must impose and execute the stayed jail sentence. A person who violates this paragraph within two years after a previous conviction under this paragraph or within two years after a previous conviction under a similar law of another state, is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. ~~When a court sentences a person convicted of a gross misdemeanor and does not impose a period of incarceration, the court shall make findings on the record regarding the reasons for not requiring incarceration.~~ Upon conviction, the defendant must be sentenced to a minimum of 30 days imprisonment and must be ordered to participate in counseling or other appropriate programs selected by the court. Notwithstanding section 609.135, the court must impose and execute the minimum sentence provided in this paragraph for gross misdemeanor convictions.

(b) A peace officer shall arrest without a warrant and take into custody a person whom the peace officer has probable cause to believe has violated an order granted pursuant to this section restraining the person or excluding the person from the residence or the petitioner's place of employment, even if the violation of the order did not take place in the presence of the peace officer, if the existence of the order can be verified by the officer. The person shall be held in custody for at least 36 hours, excluding the day of arrest, Sundays, and holidays, unless the person is released earlier by a judge or judicial officer. A peace officer acting in good faith and exercising due care in making an arrest pursuant to this paragraph is immune from civil liability that might result from the officer's actions.

(c) A violation of an order for protection shall also constitute contempt of court and be subject to the penalties therefor.

(d) If the court finds that the respondent has violated an order for protection and that there is reason to believe that the respondent will commit a further violation of the provisions of the order restraining the respondent from committing acts of domestic abuse or excluding the respondent from the petitioner's residence, the court may require the respondent to acknowledge an obligation to comply with the order on the record. The court may require a bond sufficient to deter the respondent from committing further violations of the order for protection, considering the financial resources of the respondent, and not to exceed $10,000. If the respondent refuses to comply with an order to acknowledge the obligation or post a bond under this paragraph, the court shall commit the respondent to the county jail during the term of the order for protection or until the respondent complies with the order under this paragraph. The warrant must state the cause of commitment, with the sum and time for which any bond is required. If an order is issued under this paragraph, the court may order the costs of the contempt action, or any part of them, to be paid by the respondent. An order under this paragraph is appealable.

(e) Upon the filing of an affidavit by the petitioner, any peace officer, or an interested party designated by the court, alleging that the respondent has violated any order for protection granted pursuant to this section, the court may issue an order to the respondent, requiring the respondent to appear and show cause within 14 days why the respondent should not be found in contempt of court and punished therefor. The hearing may be held by the court in any county in which the petitioner or respondent temporarily or permanently resides at the time of the alleged violation. The court also may refer the violation of the order for protection to the appropriate prosecuting authority for possible prosecution under paragraph (a).

(f) If it is alleged that the respondent has violated an order for protection issued under subdivision 6 and the court finds that the order has expired between the time of the alleged violation and the court's hearing on the violation, the court may grant a new order for protection under subdivision 6 based solely on the respondent's alleged violation of the prior order, to be effective until the hearing on the alleged violation of the prior order. If the court finds that the respondent has violated the prior order, the relief granted in the new order for protection shall be extended for a fixed period, not to exceed one year.

(g) The admittance into petitioner's dwelling of an abusing party excluded from the dwelling under an order for protection is not a violation by the petitioner of the order for protection.

A peace officer is not liable under section 609.43, clause (1), for a failure to perform a duty required by clause (b).

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 609.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

These standards shall promote the safety of the victim and shall include measures to avoid the disparate use of the device with communities of color, product standards, monitoring agency standards, and victim disclosure standards.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 629.72, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [ELECTRONIC MONITORING AS A CONDITION OF PRETRIAL RELEASE.] (a) Until the legislature has adopted standards governing electronic monitoring devices used to protect victims of domestic abuse, the court, as a condition of release, may not order a person arrested for a crime described in section 609.135, subdivision 5b, paragraph (b), to use an electronic monitoring device to protect a victim's safety.

If the commissioner determines that the child presents a danger to the public safety due to the nature of the child's delinquent act, the child's conduct in the correctional facility, or the child's past history of escape from confinement, the commissioner may order the child's confinement in a secure unit at the Minnesota correctional facility-Red Wing for the purpose of long-term secure confinement, treatment, and rehabilitation. The commissioner shall provide appropriate educational, treatment, and other rehabilitative programs to children confined in the secure unit. The commissioner may operate the programs using department employees or may contract with private or other public agencies or programs to provide these educational, treatment, and rehabilitative services.

(f) If the commissioner finds that the child is eligible for probation or parole and it appears from the commissioner's investigation that conditions in the child's or the guardian's home are not conducive to the child's treatment, rehabilitation, or law-abiding conduct, refer the child, together with the commissioner's findings, to a county welfare board or a licensed child placing agency for placement in a foster care or, when appropriate, for initiation of child in need of protection or services proceedings as provided in sections 260.011 to 260.301. In proceedings involving a child alleged to be in need of protection or services and petitions for the termination of parental rights, hearings may not be continued or adjourned for more than one week unless the court makes specific findings that the continuance or adjournment is in the best interests of the child. If a hearing is held on a petition involving physical or sexual abuse of a child who is alleged to be in need of protection or services or neglected and in foster care, the court shall file the decision with the court administrator as soon as possible but no later than 15 days after the matter is submitted to the court. When a continuance or adjournment is ordered in any proceeding, the court may make any interim orders as it deems in the best interests of the minor in accordance with the provisions of sections 260.011 to 260.301. The court shall exclude the general public from these hearings and shall admit only those persons who, in the discretion of the court, have a direct interest in the case or in the work of the court; except that, the court shall open the hearings to the public in delinquency proceedings where the child is alleged to have committed an offense or has been proven to have committed an offense that would be a felony if committed by an adult and the child was at least 16 years of age at the time of the offense. In all delinquency cases a person named in the charging clause of the petition as a person directly damaged in person or property shall be entitled, upon request, to be notified by the court administrator in writing, at the named person's last known address, of (1) the date of the reference or adjudicatory hearings, and (2) the disposition of the case. No part of the salary of any judge shall be paid unless the voucher therefor be accompanied by a certificate of the judge that there has been full compliance with the requirements of this section.

(b) If a hearing has been held on a petition under chapter 260 involving physical or sexual abuse of a child who is alleged to be in need of protection or services or neglected and in foster care, the

An authorized child-placing agency may disclose private or confidential data, as defined in section 13.01, to relatives of the child for the purpose of locating a suitable placement. The agency shall disclose only data that is necessary to facilitate implementing the preference. (3) have a written plan for training adoptive and foster families of minority children;

(4) if located in an area with a significant minority population, have a written plan for employing minority social workers in adoption and foster care. The plan must include staffing goals and objectives; ~~and~~

(5) ensure that adoption and foster care workers attend training offered or approved by the department of human services regarding cultural diversity and the needs of special needs children; and

(6) develop and implement procedures for implementing the requirements of the Indian Child Welfare Act and the Minnesota Indian family preservation act.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 257.072, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [REPORTING REQUIREMENTS.] Each authorized child-placing agency shall provide to the commissioner of human services all data needed by the commissioner for the report required by section 257.0725, including data on the number of children of minority racial or ethnic heritage receiving services, data on the number of adoption and foster care workers attending training regarding cultural diversity and the needs of special needs children, and data on the training provider. The agency shall provide the data within 60 days of the end of the six-month period for which the data is applicable.

257.0725 [SEMIANNUAL REPORT.]

The commissioner of human services shall publish a semiannual report on children in out-of-home placement. The report shall include, by county and statewide, information on legal status, living arrangement, age, sex, race, accumulated length of time in placement, reason for most recent placement, race of family with whom placed, number of families from the child's own culture in the placement pool during the period for which data is provided, and other demographic information deemed appropriate on all children in out-of-home placement. The report shall also include the number of qualified minority professional staff working in the agency, the number of staff who have received the training required in section 257.072, subdivision 7, and data on the training provider. The commissioner shall provide the required data for children who entered placement during the previous quarter and for children who are in placement at the end of the quarter. Out-of-home placement includes placement in any facility by an authorized child-placing agency. By December 1, 1989, and by December 1 of each successive year, the commissioner shall publish a report covering the first six months of the calendar year. By June 1, 1990, and by June 1 of each successive year, the commissioner shall publish a report covering the last six months of the calendar year.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 257.076, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [HISPANIC.] "Hispanic" means a person whose heritage or national origins are traced to Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, Colombia, Costa Rica, Cuba, Chile, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras, Mexico, Nicaragua, Panama, Paraguay, Peru, Portugal, Puerto Rico, Uruguay, Spain, or Venezuela.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 257.59, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [COURT JURISDICTION.] Except in Hennepin and Ramsey counties, the county court has jurisdiction of an action brought under sections 257.51 to 257.74. In Hennepin and Ramsey counties, the district court has jurisdiction of an action brought under sections 257.51 to 257.74. The action may be joined with an action for dissolution, annulment, legal separation, custody under chapter 518, or reciprocal enforcement of support. The action may also be joined with an action under section 260.131 by a local social service agency if action under this section is brought by an individual seeking to establish paternity.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 259.255, is amended to read:

259.255 [PROTECTION OF HERITAGE OR BACKGROUND.]

The policy of the state of Minnesota is to ensure that the best interests of the child are met by requiring due consideration of the child's ~~minority~~ race or ~~minority~~ ethnic heritage in adoption placements. For purposes of intercountry adoptions, due consideration is deemed to have occurred if the appropriate authority in the child's country of birth has approved the placement of the child.

The authorized child placing agency shall give preference, in the absence of good cause to the contrary, to placing the child with (a) a relative or relatives of the child, or, if that would be detrimental to the child or a relative is not available, (b) a family with the same racial or ethnic heritage as the child, or, if that is not feasible, (c) a family of different racial or ethnic heritage from the child which is knowledgeable and appreciative of the child's racial or ethnic heritage.

If the child's genetic parent or parents explicitly request that the preference described in clause (a) or clauses (a) and (b) not be followed, the authorized child placing agency shall honor that request consistent with the best interests of the child.

If the child's genetic parent or parents express a preference for placing the child in an adoptive home of the same or a similar religious background to that of the genetic parent or parents, in following the preferences in clause (a) or (b), the agency shall place the child with a family that also meets the genetic parent's religious preference. Only if no family is available that is described in clause (a) or (b) may the agency give preference to a family described in clause (c) that meets the parent's religious preference.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 259.28, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PROTECTION OF HERITAGE OR BACKGROUND.] The policy of the state of Minnesota is to ensure that the best interests of children are met by requiring due consideration of the child's ~~minority~~ race or ~~minority~~ ethnic heritage in adoption placements. For purposes of intercountry adoptions, due consideration is deemed to have occurred if the appropriate authority in the child's country of birth has approved the placement of the child.

~~In the adoption of a child of minority racial or minority ethnic heritage,~~ In reviewing adoptive placement, the court shall consider preference, and in determining appropriate adoption, the court shall give preference, in the absence of good cause to the contrary, to (a) a relative or relatives of the child, or, if that would be detrimental to the child or a relative is not available, to (b) a family with the same racial or ethnic heritage as the child, or if that is not feasible, to (c) a family of different racial or ethnic heritage from the child that is knowledgeable and appreciative of the child's racial or ethnic heritage.

If the child's genetic parent or parents explicitly request that the preference described in clause (a) or in clauses (a) and (b) not be followed, the court shall honor that request consistent with the best interests of the child.

If the child's genetic parent or parents express a preference for placing the child in an adoptive home of the same or a similar religious background to that of the genetic parent or parents, in following the preferences in clause (a) or (b), the court shall place the child with a family that also meets the genetic parent's religious preference. Only if no family is available as described in clause (a) or (b) may the court give preference to a family described in clause (c) that meets the parent's religious preference.

259.455 [FAMILY RECRUITMENT.]

Each authorized child placing agency shall make special efforts to recruit an adoptive family from among the child's relatives, except as authorized in section 259.28, subdivision 2, and among families of the same ~~minority~~ racial or ~~minority~~ ethnic heritage. Special efforts include contacting and working with community organizations and religious organizations, utilizing local media and other local resources, and conducting outreach activities. The agency may accept any gifts, grants, offers of services, and other contributions to use in making special recruitment efforts.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 260.012, is amended to read:

260.012 [DUTY TO ENSURE PLACEMENT PREVENTION AND FAMILY REUNIFICATION; REASONABLE EFFORTS; NOTICE TO PARENTS OF PLACEMENT PREFERENCE; DETERMINATION OF CHILD'S RACE AND ETHNICITY; COMPLIANCE WITH PLACEMENT PREFERENCES AT ALL STAGES OF NONDELINQUENCY PROCEEDINGS.]

(a) If a child in need of protection or services is under the court's jurisdiction, the court shall ensure that reasonable efforts including culturally appropriate services by the social service agency are made to prevent placement or to eliminate the need for removal and to reunite the child with the child's family at the earliest possible time, consistent with the best interests, safety, and protection of the child. In the case of an Indian child, in proceedings under sections 260.172, 260.191, and 260.221 the juvenile court must make findings and conclusions consistent with the Indian Child Welfare Act of 1978, United States Code, title 25, section 1901 et seq., as to the provision of active efforts. If a child is under the court's delinquency jurisdiction, it shall be the duty of the court to ensure that reasonable efforts are made to reunite the child with the child's family at the earliest possible time, consistent with the best interests of the child and the safety of the public.

(b) "Reasonable efforts" means the exercise of due diligence by the responsible social service agency to use appropriate and available services to meet the needs of the child and the child's family in order to prevent removal of the child from the child's family; or upon removal, services to eliminate the need for removal and reunite the family. Services may include those listed under section 256F.07, subdivision 3, and other appropriate services available in the community. The social service agency has the burden of demonstrating that it has made reasonable efforts.

(c) The juvenile court, in proceedings under sections 260.172, 260.191, and 260.221 shall make findings and conclusions as to the provision of reasonable efforts. When determining whether reasonable efforts have been made, the court shall consider whether services to the child and family were:

(1) relevant to the safety and protection of the child;

(2) adequate to meet the needs of the child and family;

(3) culturally appropriate;

(4) available and accessible;

(5) consistent and timely; and

(6) realistic under the circumstances.

(d) This section does not prevent out-of-home placement for treatment of a child with a mental disability when the child's diagnostic assessment or individual treatment plan indicates that appropriate and necessary treatment cannot be effectively provided outside of a residential or inpatient treatment program.

(e) In proceedings under section 260.172, 260.191, 260.192, or 260.221, the court shall notify the parents and the child, if the child is at least 12 years old, of the placement preference in section 260.181, subdivision 3, and that the placement preference will be followed unless the parent or the child, if the child is at least 12 years old, explicitly requests that it not be followed and the court finds that request consistent with the best interests of the child.

(f) If the federal Indian Child Welfare Act applies, the court shall also notify the parents of the placement preference stated in the federal Indian Child Welfare Act, that the preference will be followed, and that, where appropriate, the court shall consider the preference of the Indian child or parent.

(g) For purposes of ensuring compliance with section 260.181 in proceedings under section 260.172, 260.191, 260.192, or 260.221, the court shall ask the parent for information regarding the child's race or ethnicity. If a parent is not present for the proceedings, the court may order the responsible social service agency to conduct an inquiry of the child's relatives and community members for the purpose of identifying for the court the child's race or ethnicity. When the court has sufficient information upon which to make a finding, the court shall make a written finding as to the child's race and ethnicity. That finding shall identify the child's primary racial or ethnic community, but may also reflect the child's racial or ethnic diversity as appropriate. The requirements of this section are in addition to the court's duty to determine tribal affiliation under section 257.354, subdivision 2.

(h) A child placed under section 257.071, 260.172, 260.191, 260.192, or 260.221, or who has a guardian appointed under section 260.242, must be placed according to the preference stated in section 260.181, subdivision 3, or, if applicable, the federal Indian Child Welfare Act. The court shall review the efforts of the responsible social service agency to place the child according to the preference in section 260.181, subdivision 3. The agency shall provide written documentation to the court regarding placement efforts. The court shall make findings regarding the sufficiency of those efforts at each stage of the court proceedings. If the court finds it in the best interests of the child, the court may also order the responsible social service agency to disclose necessary information to or make necessary inquiry of any person or agency that might be helpful in facilitating a placement according to the preference stated in section 260.181 or the federal Indian Child Welfare Act.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 260.015, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11a. [ADJUDICATED PARENT.] "Adjudicated parent" means:

(1) a person who has had paternity established under the parentage act, sections 257.51 to 257.74; or

(2) a person who was party to a proceeding under chapter 518 if the decree of dissolution of marriage found the child to be the issue of the marriage.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 260.181, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PROTECTION OF ~~RACIAL OR ETHNIC~~ HERITAGE, OR ~~RELIGIOUS AFFILIATION~~ BACKGROUND.] The policy of the state is to ensure that the best interests of children are met by requiring due consideration of the child's ~~minority~~ race or ~~minority~~ ethnic heritage in foster care placements.

The court, in transferring legal custody of any child or appointing a guardian for the child under the laws relating to juvenile courts, shall place the child, in the following order of preference, in the absence of good cause to the contrary, in the legal custody or guardianship of an individual who (a) is the child's relative, or if that would be detrimental to the child or a relative is not available, who (b) is of the same racial or ethnic heritage as the child, or if that is not possible, who (c) is knowledgeable and appreciative of the child's racial or ethnic heritage. The court may require the county welfare agency to continue efforts to find a guardian of the child's ~~minority~~ racial or ~~minority~~ ethnic heritage when such a guardian is not immediately available. For purposes of this subdivision, "relative" includes members of a child's extended family and important friends with whom the child has resided or had significant contact.

If the child's genetic parent or parents explicitly request that the preference described in clause (a) or in clauses (a) and (b) not be followed, the court shall honor that request consistent with the best interests of the child.

If the child's genetic parent or parents express a preference for placing the child in a foster or adoptive home of the same or a similar religious background to that of the genetic parent or parents, in following the preferences in clause (a) or (b), the court shall order placement of the child with an individual who meets the genetic parent's religious preference. Only if no individual is available who is described in clause (a) or (b) may the court give preference to an individual described in clause (c) who meets the parent's religious preference.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 260.191, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DISPOSITIONS.] (a) If the court finds that the child is in need of protection or services or neglected and in foster care, it shall enter an order consistent with section 260.181, subdivision 3, making any of the following dispositions of the case:

(1) place the child under the protective supervision of the county welfare board or child placing agency in the child's own home under conditions prescribed by the court directed to the correction of the child's need for protection or services;

(2) transfer legal custody to one of the following:

(i) a child placing agency; ~~or~~

(ii) the county welfare board~~.~~;

(iii) a previously noncustodial parent, or person other than a parent, on a permanent or temporary basis, if a petition or motion is filed under section 518.156, giving notice to all parties to any prior custody determinations, provided that pending proceedings shall be joined with this proceeding and all issues shall be determined by this court; or

(iv) a man presumed to be the biological father or alleged or alleging himself to be the father, on a permanent or temporary basis, if a petition or motion is filed under section 518.156, giving notice to all parties to any prior custody determinations, and if an action is filed under section 257.57 for determination of paternity. Proceedings under section 518.156 and the action under section 257.57 shall be joined with a proceeding under this clause and all issues shall be determined by this court, which may reserve or waive payment of all or a portion of the reasonable expenses of the mother's pregnancy and confinement, prior support, and reimbursement for expenditure of public assistance, consistent with the award of custody and the child's best interests.

(A) Any order issued under this section shall provide for visitation between the parent and child, and set any conditions the court deems reasonable regarding visitation, consistent with the best interests of the child.

(B) At the request of the proposed custodian the court shall make an order requiring that the cost of the child's care be covered by an order for child support payable by the child's parent and established pursuant to section 518.551, subdivision 5.

In placing a child whose custody has been transferred under this paragraph, the agency and board shall follow the order of preference stated in section 260.181, subdivision 3, or, if applicable, the federal Indian Child Welfare Act, except that the preference does not apply in a determination as to custody between parents;

(3) if the child is in need of special treatment and care for reasons of physical or mental health, the court may order the child's parent, guardian, or custodian to provide it. If the parent, guardian, or custodian fails or is unable to provide this treatment or care, the court may order it provided. The court shall not transfer legal custody of the child for the purpose of obtaining special treatment or care solely because the parent is unable to provide the treatment or care. If the court's order for mental health treatment is based on a diagnosis made by a treatment professional, the court may order that the diagnosing professional not provide the treatment to the child if it finds that such an order is in the child's best interests; or

(4) if the court believes that the child has sufficient maturity and judgment and that it is in the best interests of the child, the court may order a child 16 years old or older to be allowed to live independently, either alone or with others as approved by the court under supervision the court considers appropriate, if the county board, after consultation with the court, has specifically authorized this dispositional alternative for a child.

(b) If the child was adjudicated in need of protection or services because the child is a runaway or habitual truant, the court may order any of the following dispositions in addition to or as alternatives to the dispositions authorized under paragraph (a):

(1) counsel the child or the child's parents, guardian, or custodian;

(2) place the child under the supervision of a probation officer or other suitable person in the child's own home under conditions prescribed by the court, including reasonable rules for the child's conduct and the conduct of the parents, guardian, or custodian, designed for the physical, mental, and moral well-being and behavior of the child; or with the consent of the commissioner of corrections, place the child in a group foster care facility which is under the commissioner's management and supervision;

(3) subject to the court's supervision, transfer legal custody of the child to one of the following:

(i) a reputable person of good moral character. No person may receive custody of two or more unrelated children unless licensed to operate a residential program under sections 245A.01 to 245A.16; or

(ii) a county probation officer for placement in a group foster home established under the direction of the juvenile court and licensed pursuant to section 241.021;

(4) require the child to pay a fine of up to $100. The court shall order payment of the fine in a manner that will not impose undue financial hardship upon the child;

(5) require the child to participate in a community service project;

(6) order the child to undergo a chemical dependency evaluation and, if warranted by the evaluation, order participation by the child in a drug awareness program or an inpatient or outpatient chemical dependency treatment program;

(7) if the court believes that it is in the best interests of the child and of public safety that the child's driver's license be canceled, the court may recommend to the commissioner of public safety that the child's license be canceled for any period up to the child's 18th birthday. The commissioner is authorized to cancel the license without a hearing. At any time before the expiration of the period of cancellation, the court may, for good cause, recommend to the commissioner of public safety that the child be authorized to apply for a new license, and the commissioner may so authorize; or

(8) require the child to perform any other activities or participate in any other treatment programs deemed appropriate by the court.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 260.191, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [WRITTEN FINDINGS.] Any order for a disposition authorized under this section shall contain written findings of fact to support the disposition ordered, and shall also set forth in writing the following information:

(a) Why the best interests of the child are served by the disposition ordered;

(b) What alternative dispositions were considered by the court and why such dispositions were not appropriate in the instant case;

(c) ~~In the case of a child of minority racial or minority ethnic heritage,~~ How the court's disposition complies with the requirements of section 260.181, subdivision 3, relating to protection of heritage or background; and

(d) Whether reasonable efforts consistent with section 260.012 were made to prevent or eliminate the necessity of the child's removal and to reunify the family after removal. The court's findings must include a brief description of what preventive and reunification efforts were made and why further efforts could not have prevented or eliminated the necessity of removal.

If the court finds that the social services agency's preventive or reunification efforts have not been reasonable but that further preventive or reunification efforts could not permit the child to safely remain at home, the court may nevertheless authorize or continue the removal of the child.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 260.221, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [VOLUNTARY AND INVOLUNTARY.] The juvenile court may, upon petition, terminate all rights of a parent to a child or may order any other long-term disposition provided for in section 260.235 in the following cases:

(a) With the written consent of a parent who for good cause desires to terminate parental rights; or

(b) If it finds that one or more of the following conditions exist:

(1) That the parent has abandoned the child. Abandonment is presumed when:

(i) the parent has had no contact or merely incidental contact with the child for six months in the case of a child under six years of age, or for 12 months in the case of a child ages six to 11; and

(ii) the social service agency has made reasonable efforts to facilitate contact, unless the parent establishes that an extreme financial or physical hardship or treatment for mental disability or chemical dependency or other good cause prevented the parent from making contact with the child. This presumption does not apply to children whose custody has been determined under chapter 257 or 518. The court is not prohibited from finding abandonment in the absence of this presumption; or

(2) That the parent has substantially, continuously, or repeatedly refused or neglected to comply with the duties imposed upon that parent by the parent and child relationship, including but not limited to providing the child with necessary food, clothing, shelter, education, and other care and control necessary for the child's physical, mental, or emotional health and development, if the parent is physically and financially able, and reasonable efforts by the social service agency have failed to correct the conditions that formed the basis of the petition; or

(3) That a parent has been ordered to contribute to the support of the child or financially aid in the child's birth and has continuously failed to do so without good cause. This clause shall not be construed to state a grounds for termination of parental rights of a noncustodial parent if that parent has not been ordered to or cannot financially contribute to the support of the child or aid in the child's birth; or

(4) That a parent is palpably unfit to be a party to the parent and child relationship because of a consistent pattern of specific conduct before the child or of specific conditions directly relating to the parent and child relationship either of which are determined by the court to be of a duration or nature that renders the parent unable, for the reasonably foreseeable future, to care appropriately for the ongoing physical, mental, or emotional needs of the child. It is presumed that a parent is palpably unfit to be a party to the parent and child relationship upon a showing that:

(i) the child was adjudicated in need of protection or services due to circumstances described in section 260.015, subdivision 2a, clause (1), (2), (3), (5), or (8); and

(ii) within the three-year period immediately prior to that adjudication, the parent's parental rights to one or more other children were involuntarily terminated under clause (1), (2), (4), or (7) of this paragraph, or under clause (5) of this paragraph if the child was initially determined to be in need of protection or services due to circumstances described in section 260.015, subdivision 2a, clause (1), (2), (3), (5), or (8); or

(5) That following upon a determination of neglect or dependency, or of a child's need for protection or services, reasonable efforts, under the direction of the court, have failed to correct the conditions leading to the determination. It is presumed that reasonable efforts under this clause have failed upon a showing that:

(i) a child under the age of 12 has resided out of the parental home under court order for more than one year following an adjudication of dependency, neglect, need for protection or services under section 260.015, subdivision 2a, clause (1), (2), (6), (8), or (9), or neglected and in foster care, and an order for disposition under section 260.191, including adoption of the case plan required by section 257.071;

(ii) conditions leading to the determination will not be corrected within the reasonably foreseeable future; and

(iii) reasonable efforts have been made by the social service agency to rehabilitate the parent and reunite the family.

This clause does not prohibit the termination of parental rights prior to one year after a child has been placed out of the home.

It is also presumed that reasonable efforts have failed under this clause upon a showing that:

(i) the parent has been diagnosed as chemically dependent by a professional certified to make the diagnosis;

(ii) the parent has been required by a case plan to participate in a chemical dependency treatment program;

(iii) the treatment programs offered to the parent were culturally, linguistically, and clinically appropriate;

(iv) the parent has either failed two or more times to successfully complete a treatment program or has refused at two or more separate meetings with a caseworker to participate in a treatment program; and

(v) the parent continues to abuse chemicals.

Provided, that this presumption applies only to parents required by a case plan to participate in a chemical dependency treatment program on or after July 1, 1990; or

(6) That the parent has been convicted of causing the death of another of the parent's children; or

(7) That in the case of a child born to a mother who was not married to the child's father when the child was conceived nor when the child was born the person is not entitled to notice of an adoption hearing under section 259.26 and either the person has not filed a notice of intent to retain parental rights under section 259.261 or that the notice has been successfully challenged; or

(8) That the child is neglected and in foster care.

In an action involving an American Indian child, sections 257.35 to 257.3579 and the Indian Child Welfare Act, United States Code, title 25, sections 1901 to 1923, control to the extent that the provisions of this section are inconsistent with those laws.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 260.235, is amended to read:

260.235 [~~DISPOSITION~~ DISPOSITIONS; PARENTAL RIGHTS NOT TERMINATED.]

Subdivision 1. [CHILD IN NEED OF PROTECTION OR SERVICES OR NEGLECTED AND IN FOSTER CARE.] If, after a hearing, the court does not terminate parental rights but determines that the child is in need of protection or services, or that the child is neglected and in foster care, the court may find the child is in need of protection or services or neglected and in foster care and may enter an order in accordance with the provisions of section 260.191.

Subd. 2. [OTHER LONG-TERM DISPOSITIONS.] If any condition in section 260.221, subdivision 1, has been proven, but the court concludes that termination of parental rights is not in the best interests of the child, the court may order the following long-term dispositions consistent with the preferences of section 260.181, subdivision 3:

(a) transfer of custody to a relative within the definition of section 260.181, subdivision 3, upon making findings regarding the best interests of the child under section 257.025;

(b) permanent foster care in the home of an individual to be named by the court. Permanent foster care may be in the home of a relative who meets licensing standards or in a licensed foster home of persons who are not related to the child. If this disposition is ordered, the proposed foster care provider shall appear in court and indicate to the court an intention to provide foster care for the child until the child's majority by executing a permanent placement agreement among the foster parent, responsible social service agency, child, and guardian ad litem; or

(c) permanent custody pursuant to section 260.191, subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (2), item (iii) or (iv).

Subd. 3. [NOTICE OF FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS.] An order may not be issued under this section unless the court finds that the individual providing the long-term placement of the child has been advised of any financial consequences of the court's order.

Subd. 4. [VISITATION.] Any order issued under this section must provide for visitation between the child and the child's parent and set any conditions the court deems reasonable regarding visitation.

Subd. 5. [BEST INTERESTS.] In making an order under this section, the best interests of the child are paramount. Best interests must be determined consistent with sections 257.35 to 257.3579, and the Indian Child Welfare Act, United States Code, title 25, sections 1901 to 1923. The court's order must also follow the placement preference stated in section 260.181 and ensure that the best interests of the child are met by giving due consideration to the child's race or ethnicity in any long-term disposition made.

Subd. 6. [REVIEW OF LONG-TERM FOSTER CARE ORDER.] After the court has issued an order for long-term foster care pursuant to subdivision 2, paragraph (b), the order need not be reviewed by the court, except upon request of a party to the juvenile court proceeding upon a showing by affidavit of a substantial change in the child's circumstances such that the previous order of the court is no longer in the child's best interests, or pursuant to requirements of Public Law Number 96-272. The court continues to have jurisdiction to review its order until the child reaches age 19, notwithstanding anything in section 260.191 to the contrary. The agency shall conduct an administrative review of the case plan every two years when the court has issued an order for long-term care.

Subd. 7. [CESSATION OF REASONABLE EFFORTS.] Upon the entry of an order under this section, the responsible social service agency need not make any further efforts pursuant to section 260.012. In the case of an Indian child, cessation of active efforts may occur only when the court finds the mandates of the Indian Child Welfare Act have been met.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 260.40, is amended to read:

260.40 [AGE LIMIT FOR BENEFITS TO CHILDREN.]

For purposes of any program for foster children and for transitional and independent living services for youth or children under state guardianship for which benefits are made available on June 1, 1973, unless specifically provided therein, the age of majority shall be 21 years of age.

Sec. 19. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 18 are effective the day following final enactment."

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 144.651, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 33. [RESPECT FOR RELIGIOUS OR PHILOSOPHICAL HEALING PRACTICES.] Patients and residents shall have the right to use religious or philosophical healing practices, as long as they are acting in good faith and the healing practice does not interfere with the provision of medical treatment to other patients.

Sec. 2. [145A.20] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] The definitions in this section apply to sections 3 to 5.

Subd. 2. [LIFE-THREATENING CONDITION.] "Life-threatening condition" means a condition that presents a serious danger to a child's life.

Subd. 3. [MEDIATOR.] "Mediator" means the children's health care mediator under section 3.

Subd. 4. [PARENT.] "Parent" means a custodial parent or legal guardian.

Subd. 5. [RELIGIOUS OR PHILOSOPHICAL HEALING PRACTICE.] "Religious or philosophical healing practice" means the good faith selection and primary dependence upon spiritual means or prayer or a philosophical system for treatment or care of that disease or remedial care of a child as part of an organized religious or philosophical group or community.

Subd. 6. [SERIOUS DISABILITY OR DISFIGUREMENT.] "Serious disability" or "disfigurement" means permanent or protracted loss or impairment of the function of a bodily member or organ or permanent disfigurement.

Sec. 3. [145A.21] [CHILDREN'S HEALTH CARE MEDIATOR.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION.] A position of children's health care mediator is created in the department of health. The mediator's role is both to facilitate the provision of medical treatment where the life of a child is threatened or a child faces a significant risk of a serious disability or disfigurement and to ensure that latitude for parental choices in the health care of their children is not unnecessarily compromised. The commissioner of health shall appoint a children's health care mediator to exercise the powers and duties under sections 3 to 5 in a manner consistent with the mediator's role. The commissioner or the mediator may appoint one or more persons to serve as deputy mediators to perform any of the functions of the mediator. To the extent possible, the commissioner and the mediator shall use existing resources and personnel within boards of health and existing community health services to implement sections 3 to 5.

Subd. 2. [POWERS AND DUTIES.] The mediator shall:

(1) regularly meet with designated representatives and other members of a religious or philosophical community affected by this section in order to be familiar with their beliefs and practices;

(2) receive, answer, and investigate reports from parents under section 4;

(3) serve as an intermediary between parents who use religious or philosophical healing practices and traditional medical providers and provide advice and information to parents in cases where traditional medical treatment may be required for their children;

(4) encourage and facilitate the provision of appropriate medical care when emergency medical services are needed;

(5) establish operating principles governing reports, investigations, intervention, and treatment under sections 3 to 5;

(6) provide materials that list or discuss symptoms of life-threatening conditions or a serious disability or disfigurement and the circumstances under which traditional medical treatment may be required;

(7) provide advice and information to traditional medical providers regarding parental and family rights in children's health care cases; and

(8) report physical or sexual abuse or neglect of a child as required under section 626.556.

Subd. 3. [QUALIFICATIONS.] The mediator must have an understanding of and sensitivity to religious and philosophical healing practices and beliefs. The mediator must be a licensed health care professional with sufficient training to be able to identify and assess a child's symptoms for purposes of sections 3 to 5.

Subd. 4. [MEDIATOR DATA.] Data collected and maintained by the mediator are private data on individuals as defined in section 13.02, subdivision 12, and may not be disclosed except as necessary for the purposes of sections 3 to 5 or as otherwise authorized by law.

Subd. 5. [IMMUNITY FROM LIABILITY.] The mediator, a deputy mediator, or the state is not liable for any damages resulting from any acts or omissions by the person in performing the duties of the position unless the person acts in a willful and wanton or reckless manner.

Sec. 4. [145A.22] [REPORTING BY PARENT.]

Subdivision 1. [MEDIATOR CONTACT; ASSESSMENT.] A parent who uses religious or philosophical healing practices shall contact the mediator if the parent believes or has reason to believe that the child is in a life-threatening condition or faces a significant risk of serious disability or disfigurement. The mediator, with appropriate medical input, shall assess the child's symptoms to determine if the child is in a life-threatening condition or faces a significant risk of serious disability or disfigurement.

Subd. 2. [POSTASSESSMENT PROCEDURES.] If the mediator, with appropriate medical input, determines that the child is not in a life-threatening condition or does not face a significant risk of serious disability or disfigurement, the mediator may so inform the parent and provide the parent with any other information that may be helpful to the parent's specific situation. If the mediator is unable to make a definite determination regarding the child's condition, the mediator shall continue, with appropriate medical input, to assess the child's situation until the mediator is able to conclude whether the condition is life-threatening or the child faces a significant risk of serious disability or disfigurement. If the mediator concludes that the condition is life-threatening or the child faces a significant risk of serious disability or disfigurement, the mediator shall inform the parents and proceed under section 5 for the provision of medical treatment.

Sec. 5. [145A.23] [PROVISION OF MEDICAL TREATMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [VOLUNTARY PROVISION OF MEDICAL TREATMENT.] If the parents of a child are willing to seek medical treatment following a determination under section 4, subdivision 2, the mediator shall assist the parents in obtaining treatment for the child as soon as possible.

Subd. 2. [INVOLUNTARY TREATMENT; DUTIES; FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY.] If the mediator has reason to believe that the child is in a life-threatening condition or faces a significant risk of serious disability or disfigurement, and the parent is unwilling to seek medical treatment, the mediator shall inform the parent that the mediator is required to ensure the provision of appropriate medical care. If emergency medical care or transportation to such care is necessary, in the mediator's opinion, the mediator shall obtain it without the parent's consent and without the necessity of seeking a court order. If continued medical care is necessary for the child after the emergency treatment, the mediator shall obtain an expedited court order to authorize the continued care. The mediator may, if the mediator deems it necessary, notify the local social service agency to commence appropriate legal proceedings under chapter 260.

A parent is responsible for the cost of the child's medical care provided under this section, in accordance with the provisions of section 260.251.

Subd. 3. [FAMILY INVOLVEMENT IN TREATMENT.] (a) In all cases where medical treatment is provided to a child whose parent relies on religious or philosophical healing practices, the parent and the child shall continue to be involved in decisions regarding treatment, as long as the parent acts in good faith and the healing practice does not interfere with treatment. In making medical treatment decisions, the medical provider shall consider:

(1) the preferences of the parent and the child, if the child has capacity to give informed consent; and

(2) the degree of likelihood that the proposed treatment for the child will be safe and effective and would, with significant probability, be life saving or avoid serious disability or disfigurement.

(b) Medical providers shall allow a parent to continue to use religious or philosophical healing practices while medical treatment is being provided, as long as the parent is acting in good faith and the healing practice does not interfere with medical treatment.

(c) This subdivision applies to all cases involving the voluntary or involuntary treatment of a child whose parent relies on religious or philosophical healing practices.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 260.191, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DISPOSITIONS.] (a) If the court finds that the child is in need of protection or services or neglected and in foster care, it shall enter an order making any of the following dispositions of the case:

(1) place the child under the protective supervision of the county welfare board or child placing agency in the child's own home under conditions prescribed by the court directed to the correction of the child's need for protection or services;

(2) transfer legal custody to one of the following:

(i) a child placing agency; or

(ii) the county welfare board.

In placing a child whose custody has been transferred under this paragraph, the agency and board shall follow the order of preference stated in section 260.181, subdivision 3;

(3) if the child is in need of special treatment and care for reasons of physical or mental health, the court may order the child's parent, guardian, or custodian to provide it. If the parent, guardian, or custodian fails or is unable to provide this treatment or care, the court may order it provided. The court shall not transfer legal custody of the child for the purpose of obtaining special treatment or care solely because the parent is unable to provide the treatment or care. If the court's order for mental health treatment is based on a diagnosis made by a treatment professional, the court may order that the diagnosing professional not provide the treatment to the child if it finds that such an order is in the child's best interests; or

(4) if the court believes that the child has sufficient maturity and judgment and that it is in the best interests of the child, the court may order a child 16 years old or older to be allowed to live independently, either alone or with others as approved by the court under supervision the court considers appropriate, if the county board, after consultation with the court, has specifically authorized this dispositional alternative for a child.

(b) If the child was adjudicated in need of protection or services because the child is a runaway or habitual truant, the court may order any of the following dispositions in addition to or as alternatives to the dispositions authorized under paragraph (a):

(1) counsel the child or the child's parents, guardian, or custodian;

(2) place the child under the supervision of a probation officer or other suitable person in the child's own home under conditions prescribed by the court, including reasonable rules for the child's conduct and the conduct of the parents, guardian, or custodian, designed for the physical, mental, and moral well-being and behavior of the child; or with the consent of the commissioner of corrections, place the child in a group foster care facility which is under the commissioner's management and supervision;

(3) subject to the court's supervision, transfer legal custody of the child to one of the following:

(i) a reputable person of good moral character. No person may receive custody of two or more unrelated children unless licensed to operate a residential program under sections 245A.01 to 245A.16; or

(ii) a county probation officer for placement in a group foster home established under the direction of the juvenile court and licensed pursuant to section 241.021;

(4) require the child to pay a fine of up to $100. The court shall order payment of the fine in a manner that will not impose undue financial hardship upon the child;

(5) require the child to participate in a community service project;

(6) order the child to undergo a chemical dependency evaluation and, if warranted by the evaluation, order participation by the child in a drug awareness program or an inpatient or outpatient chemical dependency treatment program;

(7) if the court believes that it is in the best interests of the child and of public safety that the child's driver's license be canceled, the court may recommend to the commissioner of public safety that the child's license be canceled for any period up to the child's 18th birthday. The commissioner is authorized to cancel the license without a hearing. At any time before the expiration of the period of cancellation, the court may, for good cause, recommend to the commissioner of public safety that the child be authorized to apply for a new license, and the commissioner may so authorize; or

(8) require the child to perform any other activities or participate in any other treatment programs deemed appropriate by the court.

(c) In making a disposition in cases involving the physical or mental health of a child whose parents use religious or philosophical healing practices in lieu of medical care, the court shall consider the degree of likelihood that any proposed medical treatment for the child will be safe and effective and would, with significant probability, be life saving or avoid serious disability or disfigurement. The definitions in section 2 apply to this paragraph.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 260.221, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [RELIGIOUS OR PHILOSOPHICAL HEALING PRACTICES.] Notwithstanding any contrary provision of subdivision 1, parental rights may not be terminated solely on the basis that the parent uses a religious or philosophical healing practice, as defined in section 2.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 609.378, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PERSONS GUILTY OF NEGLECT OR ENDANGERMENT.] The following people are guilty of neglect or endangerment of a child and may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than one year or to payment of a fine of not more than $3,000, or both.

(a) [NEGLECT.] (1) A parent, legal guardian, or caretaker who willfully deprives a child of necessary food, clothing, shelter, health care, or supervision appropriate to the child's age, when the parent, guardian, or caretaker is reasonably able to make the necessary provisions and the deprivation substantially harms the child's physical or emotional health is guilty of neglect of a child. If a parent, guardian, or caretaker responsible for the child's care in good faith selects and primarily depends upon spiritual means or prayer for treatment or care of disease or remedial care of the child, this treatment or care is "health care," for purposes of this clause.

However, a parent, guardian, or caretaker who:

(i) selects and depends primarily on spiritual means or prayer for treatment or care;

(ii) believes or has reason to believe that a child is in a life-threatening condition or faces a significant risk of serious disability or disfigurement; and

(iii) either willfully fails to contact the children's health care mediator as provided in sections 2 to 5, or willfully interferes with the lawful exercise of authority by the mediator; is depriving a child of necessary health care.

(2) A parent, legal guardian, or caretaker who knowingly permits the continuing physical or sexual abuse of a child is guilty of neglect of a child.

(b) [ENDANGERMENT.] A parent, legal guardian, or caretaker who endangers the child's person or health by intentionally causing or permitting a child to be placed in a situation likely to substantially harm the child's physical or mental health or cause the child's death is guilty of child endangerment. This paragraph does not prevent a parent, legal guardian, or caretaker from causing or permitting a child to engage in activities that are appropriate to the child's age, stage of development, and experience, or from selecting health care as defined in subdivision 1, paragraph (a).

Sec. 9. [609.3785] [INTERFERENCE WITH CHILDREN'S HEALTH CARE MEDIATOR.]

A person other than a parent, guardian, or caretaker who willfully interferes with the lawful exercise of authority by the children's health care mediator established pursuant to section 3 is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 626.556, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [DUTIES OF LOCAL WELFARE AGENCY AND LOCAL LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCY UPON RECEIPT OF A REPORT.] (a) If the report alleges neglect, physical abuse, or sexual abuse by a parent, guardian, or individual functioning within the family unit as a person responsible for the child's care, the local welfare agency shall immediately conduct an assessment and offer protective social services for purposes of preventing further abuses, safeguarding and enhancing the welfare of the abused or neglected minor, and preserving family life whenever possible. If the report alleges that a lack of medical care may cause serious danger to a child because the child's parent or guardian uses a religious or philosophical healing practice, as defined in section 2, in lieu of medical care, the local welfare agency shall immediately notify the children's health care mediator established under section 3. If the report alleges a violation of a criminal statute involving sexual abuse or physical abuse, the local law enforcement agency and local welfare agency shall coordinate the planning and execution of their respective investigation and assessment efforts to avoid a duplication of fact-finding efforts and multiple interviews. Each agency shall prepare a separate report of the results of its investigation. When necessary the local welfare agency shall seek authority to remove the child from the custody of a parent, guardian, or adult with whom the child is living. In performing any of these duties, the local welfare agency shall maintain appropriate records.

(b) When a local agency receives a report or otherwise has information indicating that a child who is a client, as defined in section 245.91, has been the subject of physical abuse or neglect at an agency, facility, or program as defined in section 245.91, it shall, in addition to its other duties under this section, immediately inform the ombudsman established under sections 245.91 to 245.97.

(c) Authority of the local welfare agency responsible for assessing the child abuse report and of the local law enforcement agency for investigating the alleged abuse includes, but is not limited to, authority to interview, without parental consent, the alleged victim and any other minors who currently reside with or who have resided with the alleged perpetrator. The interview may take place at school or at any facility or other place where the alleged victim or other minors might be found and may take place outside the presence of the perpetrator or parent, legal custodian, guardian, or school official. Except as provided in this paragraph, the parent, legal custodian, or guardian shall be notified by the responsible local welfare or law enforcement agency no later than the conclusion of the investigation or assessment that this interview has occurred. Notwithstanding rule 49.02 of the Minnesota rules of procedure for juvenile courts, the juvenile court may, after hearing on an ex parte motion by the local welfare agency, order that, where reasonable cause exists, the agency withhold notification of this interview from the parent, legal custodian, or guardian. If the interview took place or is to take place on school property, the order shall specify that school officials may not disclose to the parent, legal custodian, or guardian the contents of the notification of intent to interview the child on school property, as provided under this paragraph, and any other related information regarding the interview that may be a part of the child's school record. A copy of the order shall be sent by the local welfare or law enforcement agency to the appropriate school official.

(d) When the local welfare or local law enforcement agency determines that an interview should take place on school property, written notification of intent to interview the child on school property must be received by school officials prior to the interview. The notification shall include the name of the child to be interviewed, the purpose of the interview, and a reference to the statutory authority to conduct an interview on school property. For interviews conducted by the local welfare agency, the notification shall be signed by the chair of the county welfare board or the chair's designee. The notification shall be private data on individuals subject to the provisions of this paragraph. School officials may not disclose to the parent, legal custodian, or guardian the contents of the notification or any other related information regarding the interview until notified in writing by the local welfare or law enforcement agency that the investigation or assessment has been concluded. Until that time, the local welfare or law enforcement agency shall be solely responsible for any disclosures regarding the nature of the assessment or investigation.

Except where the alleged perpetrator is believed to be a school official or employee, the time and place, and manner of the interview on school premises shall be within the discretion of school officials, but the local welfare or law enforcement agency shall have the exclusive authority to determine who may attend the interview. The conditions as to time, place, and manner of the interview set by the school officials shall be reasonable and the interview shall be conducted not more than 24 hours after the receipt of the notification unless another time is considered necessary by agreement between the school officials and the local welfare or law enforcement agency. Where the school fails to comply with the provisions of this paragraph, the juvenile court may order the school to comply. Every effort must be made to reduce the disruption of the educational program of the child, other students, or school staff when an interview is conducted on school premises.

(e) Where the perpetrator or a person responsible for the care of the alleged victim or other minor prevents access to the victim or other minor by the local welfare agency, the juvenile court may order the parents, legal custodian, or guardian to produce the alleged victim or other minor for questioning by the local welfare agency or the local law enforcement agency outside the presence of the perpetrator or any person responsible for the child's care at reasonable places and times as specified by court order.

(f) Before making an order under paragraph (d), the court shall issue an order to show cause, either upon its own motion or upon a verified petition, specifying the basis for the requested interviews and fixing the time and place of the hearing. The order to show cause shall be served personally and shall be heard in the same manner as provided in other cases in the juvenile court. The court shall consider the need for appointment of a guardian ad litem to protect the best interests of the child. If appointed, the guardian ad litem shall be present at the hearing on the order to show cause.

(g) The commissioner, the ombudsman for mental health and mental retardation, the local welfare agencies responsible for investigating reports, and the local law enforcement agencies have the right to enter facilities as defined in subdivision 2 and to inspect and copy the facility's records, including medical records, as part of the investigation. Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 13, they also have the right to inform the facility under investigation that they are conducting an investigation, to disclose to the facility the names of the individuals under investigation for abusing or neglecting a child, and to provide the facility with a copy of the report and the investigative findings.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 626.556, subdivision 10e, is amended to read:

Subd. 10e. [DETERMINATIONS.] Upon the conclusion of every assessment or investigation it conducts, the local welfare agency shall make two determinations: first, whether maltreatment has occurred; and second, whether child protective services are needed.

(a) For the purposes of this subdivision, "maltreatment" means any of the following acts or omissions committed by a person responsible for the child's care:

(1) physical abuse as defined in subdivision 2, paragraph (d);

(2) neglect as defined in subdivision 2, paragraph (c);

(3) sexual abuse as defined in subdivision 2, paragraph (a); or

(4) mental injury as defined in subdivision 2, paragraph (k).

(b) For the purposes of this subdivision, a determination that child protective services are needed means that the local welfare agency has documented conditions during the assessment or investigation sufficient to cause a child protection worker, as defined in section 626.559, subdivision 1, to conclude that a child is at significant risk of maltreatment if protective intervention is not provided and that the individuals responsible for the child's care have not taken or are not likely to take actions to protect the child from maltreatment or risk of maltreatment.

(c) This subdivision does not mean that maltreatment has occurred solely because the child's parent, guardian, or other person responsible for the child's care in good faith selects and depends upon spiritual means or prayer for treatment or care of disease or remedial care of the child, in lieu of medical care. However, if lack of medical care may result in ~~imminent and~~ serious danger to the child's health, the local welfare agency may ensure that necessary medical services are provided to the child.

Sec. 12. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 8 is effective August 1, 1992, and applies to crimes committed on or after that date."

respect to the granting of custody and visitation. These proceedings may not be combined with any proceeding under chapter 518B.

(3) for the purpose of declaring the nonexistence of the father and child relationship presumed under section 257.55, subdivision 1, paragraph (f), only if the action is brought within three years after the party bringing the action, or the party's attorney of record, has been provided the blood test results.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 257.74, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. If a mother relinquishes or proposes to relinquish for adoption a child who has

(b) a father whose relationship to the child has been determined by a court or established under section 7, or

(c) a father as to whom the child is a legitimate child under prior law of this state or under the law of another jurisdiction, the father shall be given notice of the adoption proceeding as provided in section 259.26.

Sec. 7. [257.75] [RECOGNITION OF PARENTAGE.]

Subdivision 1. [RECOGNITION BY PARENTS.] The mother and father of a child born to a mother who was not married to the child's father nor to any other man when the child was conceived nor when the child was born may, in a writing signed by both of them before a notary public, and filed with the state registrar of vital statistics, state and acknowledge under oath that they are the biological parents of the child and wish to be recognized as the biological parents. The recognition must be in the form prepared by the commissioner of human services under subdivision 5.

Subd. 2. [REVOCATION OF RECOGNITION.] A recognition may be revoked in a writing signed by the mother or father before a notary public and filed with the state registrar of vital statistics within 30 days after the recognition is executed. Upon receipt of a revocation of the recognition of parentage, the state registrar of vital statistics shall forward a copy of the revocation to the nonrevoking parent.

Subd. 3. [EFFECT OF RECOGNITION.] Subject to subdivision 2, and section 257.55, subdivision 1, paragraphs (g) and (h), the recognition has the force and effect of a judgment or order determining the existence of the parent and child relationship under section 257.66. If the conditions in section 257.55, subdivision 1, paragraph (g) or (h), exist, the recognition creates only a presumption of paternity for purposes of sections 257.51 to 257.74. Until an order is entered granting custody to another, sole custody is in the mother. The recognition:

(1) is a basis for bringing an action to award custody or visitation rights to either parent, establishing a child support obligation, or ordering a contribution by a parent under section 256.87;

(2) is determinative for all other purposes related to the existence of the parent and child relationship; and

(3) is entitled to full faith and credit in other jurisdictions.

Subd. 4. [ACTION TO VACATE RECOGNITION.] Within one year following execution of a recognition under subdivision 1, the mother or father may bring an action to vacate the recognition on the grounds and conditions contained in section 518.145, subdivision 2. If the court finds grounds for vacating the recognition, the court shall order the child, mother, and father to submit to blood tests. If the results of the blood test establish that the man who executed the recognition is not the father, the court shall vacate the recognition.

Subd. 5. [RECOGNITION FORM.] The commissioner of human services shall prepare a form for the recognition of parentage under this section. In preparing the form, the commissioner shall consult with the individuals specified in subdivision 6. The recognition form must be drafted so that the force and effect of the recognition and the benefits and responsibilities of establishing paternity are clear and understandable. The form must include a notice regarding the finality of a recognition and the revocation procedure under subdivision 2. The form must include a provision for each parent to verify that the parent has read or viewed the educational materials prepared by the commissioner of human services describing the recognition of paternity. Each parent must receive a copy of the recognition.

Subd. 6. [PATERNITY EDUCATIONAL MATERIALS.] The commissioner of human services shall prepare educational materials for new and prospective parents that describe the benefits and effects of establishing paternity. The materials must include a description and comparison of the procedures for establishment of paternity through a recognition of parentage under this section and an adjudication of paternity under sections 257.51 to 257.74. The commissioner shall consider the use of innovative audio or visual approaches to the presentation of the materials to facilitate understanding and presentation. In preparing the materials, the commissioner shall consult with child advocates and support workers, battered women's advocates, social service providers, educators, attorneys, hospital representatives, and people who work with parents in making decisions related to paternity. The commissioner shall consult with representatives of communities of color. On and after July 1, 1993, the commissioner shall make the materials available without cost to hospitals, requesting agencies, and other persons for distribution to new parents.

Subd. 7. [HOSPITAL DISTRIBUTION OF EDUCATIONAL MATERIALS; RECOGNITION FORM.] Hospitals that provide obstetric services shall distribute the educational materials and recognition of parentage forms prepared by the commissioner of human services to new parents and shall assist parents in understanding the recognition of parentage form. On and after July 1, 1993, hospitals may not distribute the declaration of parentage forms.

Subd. 8. [NOTICE.] In the event the state registrar of vital statistics receives more than one recognition of parentage for the same child, the registrar shall notify both signatories on each recognition that the recognition is no longer final and that each man has only a presumption of paternity under section 257.55, subdivision 1.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 518.156, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. In a court of this state which has jurisdiction to decide child custody matters, a child custody proceeding is commenced:

H. F. No. 2649, A bill for an act relating to real estate foreclosures; establishing a voluntary foreclosure process with waiver of deficiency claims and equity; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 582.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [582.32] [VOLUNTARY FORECLOSURE; PROCEDURE.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] This section applies to mortgages executed after August 1, 1993, under which there has been a default and where the mortgagor and mortgagee enter into a written agreement to foreclosure of the mortgaged real estate under this section. This section applies only to real estate that is not homestead or agricultural property.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) As used in this section, the following terms have the meanings given:

(b) "Agreement" means the agreement for voluntary foreclosure described in subdivision 3.

(c) "Date of agreement" means the effective date of the agreement which shall not be sooner than the date on which the agreement is executed and acknowledged by both the mortgagor and mortgagee.

(d) "Junior lien" means a lien with a redeemable interest in the real estate under section 580.23 or 580.24 subordinate to the lien of the mortgage foreclosed under this section.

(e) "Mortgage" means a recorded mortgage on real estate no part of which is homestead as defined in section 510.01 or in agricultural use as defined in section 40A.02, subdivision 3.

(f) "Mortgagee" means the record holders of the mortgage, whether one or more.

(g) "Mortgagor" means the record holders of the legal and equitable interest in the real estate encumbered by the mortgage.

(h) "Real estate" means the real property encumbered by the mortgage and, where applicable, fixtures, equipment, furnishings, and other personalty related to the real property and encumbered by the mortgage.

Subd. 3. [PROCEDURE.] (a) Voluntary foreclosure may occur only in accordance with this section.

(b) The mortgagor and mortgagee shall enter into a written agreement to foreclosure under this section. The agreement shall provide that:

(1) The mortgagor and mortgagee have agreed that the mortgage shall be voluntarily foreclosed with a shortened redemption period under this section.

(2) The mortgagee waives any rights to a deficiency or other claim for personal liability against the mortgagor arising from the mortgage or the debt secured by the mortgage. This does not preclude an agreement between the mortgagor and mortgagee to a stipulated payment to the mortgagee as part of the voluntary foreclosure process or collection from a guarantor.

(3) The mortgagor waives its right of reinstatement, to excess sale proceeds, to contest foreclosure, and to rents and occupancy during the period before sale and during the redemption period.

(4) The mortgagor shall consent to the appointment of a receiver for, or grant mortgagee possession of, the real estate as of the date of agreement, for the purposes of operating, maintaining, and protecting the real estate, and the making of any additions or betterments to the real estate.

(c) Within seven days after the date of agreement, the mortgagee must record or file the agreement under this section, with the county recorder or registrar of titles, as appropriate, in the county where the real estate is located, stating that the mortgagor and mortgagee have elected to follow the voluntary foreclosure procedures under this section and indicating the date of agreement.

(d) A certificate signed by the county or city assessor where the real estate is located, stating that the real estate is not in agricultural use as defined in section 40A.02, subdivision 3, and is not a homestead as defined in section 510.01, as the date of agreement, must be recorded with the certificate of sale in the office of the county recorder or registrar of titles where the real estate is located. This certificate is prima facie evidence of the facts contained in the certificate and may be relied upon in examining title to the real estate and by a bona fide purchaser.

Subd. 4. [REQUEST FOR NOTICE; CONTENT REQUIREMENTS.] (a) A person having a junior lien may file for record a request for notice of a mortgage foreclosure under this section with the county recorder or registrar of titles of the county where the real estate is located.

(b) A request for notice must specify: (1) the name and mailing address of the junior lien holder requesting notice; (2) a legal description of the real estate; (3) a description of the junior lien including, if applicable, the date and recording information of the document creating the interest; and (4) a request for notice of a mortgage foreclosure under this section. The request must be executed and acknowledged by the junior lien holder.

(c) The recording of a request for notice by itself does not give the person requesting notice any interest in the real estate for any purpose. A recorded request for notice does not constitute actual or constructive notice of any interest in the real estate.

Subd. 5. [NOTICE TO CREDITORS.] Within seven days after the date of agreement, the mortgagee shall:

(1) serve the person in possession of the mortgaged real estate with notice of the voluntary foreclosure under this section in the same manner as in a foreclosure by advertisement as provided in section 580.03;

(2) send by certified mail a notice of the voluntary foreclosure under this section to all junior lien holders of record upon the real estate or some part of the real estate, as of the date of agreement, who have filed or recorded a request for this notice under subdivision 3; and

(3) publish notice of the voluntary foreclosure under this section in the same manner as in a foreclosure by advertisement as provided in section 580.03 for four consecutive weeks.

The notice must include all information required under section 580.04, clauses (1) to (5), the date of the agreement, and that each junior creditor may redeem in the order and manner provided in subdivision 9, beginning one month after the foreclosure sale. Provided, if the real estate is subject to a federal tax lien entitled to the preemptive 120-day redemption period under section 7425(d)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, the notice shall provide that the date of redemption for the first federal tax lien and all other liens junior thereto shall begin four months after the date of the foreclosure sale. Affidavits of service, mailing, and publication to evidence the same must be recorded with the certificate of sale in the office of the county recorder or registrar of titles where the real estate is located. These affidavits are prima facie evidence of the facts contained in the affidavits and may be relied upon in examining title to the real estate and by a bona fide purchaser.

Subd. 6. [SALE, HOW AND BY WHOM MADE.] The sale shall be made in the same manner as in a foreclosure by advertisement as provided in sections 580.06 and 580.11 to 580.19. The sale may be postponed as provided in section 580.07.

Subd. 7. [EFFECT OF FAILURE TO MAIL NOTICE.] If a person foreclosing a mortgage under this section fails to mail a notice in accordance with subdivision 5 to a person with a properly recorded request for notice, the failure does not invalidate the foreclosure.

Subd. 8. [REMEDIES.] If notice of the sale is not mailed in accordance with subdivision 5 to a person with a properly recorded request for notice, the junior lien holder requesting notice has a cause of action against the person foreclosing the mortgage for money damages for the lessor of: (1) the equity in the mortgaged premises that would have been available to the person if the person had redeemed; or (2) the value of the junior lien. The value of a junior lien is the amount due on and secured by the lien. A junior lien holder has the burden of proving that the junior lien was valid and the junior lien holder had measurable damages and had the financial ability to redeem. An action for damages resulting from failure to mail notice must be brought within two years after the date of sale.

Subd. 9. [CREDITOR REDEMPTION.] A subsequent creditor having a junior lien upon the real estate or some part of the real estate may redeem in the order and manner specified in sections 580.24 and 580.25, but only if before the end of the redemption period the creditor files with the county recorder or registrar of titles of each county where the mortgaged real estate is located, a notice of intention to redeem. If a junior creditor fails to redeem its lien as provided in this subdivision, its lien is extinguished on the real estate.

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] The definitions in this section apply to this chapter.

Subd. 2. [BINGO.] "Bingo" means a game where each player has a game sheet, card, or paper, for which a consideration has been paid, which has numbered spaces printed on it in a prearranged manner. Bingo may also be played with sheets, cards, or paper where the numbers in each space are not preprinted, but are filled in by players before the start of a game, or where figures are used in place of numbers. Bingo is played by random selection of numbers or figures for comparison with the numbers or figures on each player's game sheet, card, or paper. As the selected numbers or figures are announced, players mark them off on their game sheet, card, or paper, to document which numbers or figures have been selected. The game is won by persons who have a game sheet, card, or paper that has the selected numbers or figures, and any spaces marked "free," arranged on it in the lines, figures, designs, or patterns that were designated in advance as the winning lines, figures, designs, or patterns.

Subd. 3. [COMMISSIONER.] "Commissioner" means the commissioner of revenue or a person to whom the commissioner has delegated functions.

Subd. 5. [DISTRIBUTOR.] "Distributor" means a person who markets, sells, or provides gambling product to a person or entity for resale or use at the retail level.

Subd. 6. [FISCAL YEAR.] "Fiscal year" means the period from July 1 to June 30.

Subd. 8. [GROSS RECEIPTS.] "Gross receipts" means all receipts derived from lawful gambling activity including, but not limited to, the following items:

(1) gross sales of bingo cards and sheets before reduction for prizes, expenses, shortages, free plays, or any other charges or offsets;

(2) the ideal gross of pull-tab and tipboard deals or games less the value of unsold and defective tickets and before reduction for prizes, expenses, shortages, free plays, or any other charges or offsets;

(4) admission, commission, cover, or other charges imposed on participants in lawful gambling activity as a condition for or cost of participation; and

(5) interest, dividends, annuities, profit from transactions, or other income derived from the accumulation or use of gambling proceeds.

Gross receipts does not include proceeds from rental under section 349.164 or 349.18, subdivision 3, for duly licensed bingo hall lessors.

Subd. 9. [IDEAL GROSS.] "Ideal gross" means the total amount of receipts that would be received if every individual ticket in the pull-tab or tipboard deal was sold at its face value. In the calculation of ideal gross and prizes, a free play ticket shall be valued at face value.

Subd. 10. [MANUFACTURER.] "Manufacturer" means a person or entity who:

(1) assembles from raw materials, or from subparts or other components, a completed item of gambling product for resale, use, or receipt in Minnesota; or

(2) sells, furnishes, ships, or imports completed gambling product from outside Minnesota for resale, use, receipt, or storage in Minnesota; or

(3) being within the state, assembles, produces, or otherwise creates gambling products.

Subd. 11. [PRIZE.] "Prize" means a thing of value offered or awarded to the winner of a lawful gambling game.

Subd. 12. [PULL-TAB.] "Pull-tab" means a ticket with one or more concealed numbers or symbols printed on it, and with one or more tickets in a deal designated in advance as a winning ticket, as determined by the numbers or symbols on the ticket.

Subd. 13. [RAFFLE.] "Raffle" means a game in which a participant buys a ticket for a chance at a prize, with the winner determined by a random drawing.

Subd. 14. [RETAIL LEVEL.] "Retail level" means an activity where gambling product is sold to players or participants in taxable gambling games and where the players or participants give consideration for a chance to win a prize.

Subd. 15. [TAXPAYER.] "Taxpayer" means a person subject to or liable for a tax imposed by this chapter, a person required to file reports or returns with the commissioner under this chapter, a person required to keep or retain records under this chapter, or a person required by this chapter to obtain or hold a permit.

Subd. 16. [TICKET.] "Ticket" means a valid token, card, or other tangible voucher, other than bingo cards, sheets, or paper, that grants the holder a chance or chances to participate in a game of lawful gambling.

Subd. 17. [TIPBOARD.] "Tipboard" has the meaning given in section 349.12 and the meaning given by the board in rule. Tipboard also means a board, placard, or other device marked with sections, where sections are selected by participants, and where secret or unknown numbers or symbols associated with each section determine the participants' chances to win a prize. Tipboard also includes boards, placards, or other devices that use the outcome of sporting or other events to determine winning chances.

Subd. 18. [OTHER WORDS.] Unless specifically defined in this chapter, or unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the words used in this chapter have the meanings given them in chapter 349.

Sec. 2. [297E.02] [TAX IMPOSED.]

Subdivision 1. [IMPOSITION.] A tax is imposed on all lawful gambling other than (1) pull-tabs purchased and placed into inventory after January 1, 1987, and (2) tipboards purchased and placed into inventory after June 30, 1988, at the rate of ten percent on the gross receipts as defined in section 349.12, subdivision 21, less prizes actually paid. The tax imposed by this subdivision is in lieu of the tax imposed by section 297A.02 and all local taxes and license fees except a fee authorized under section 349.16, subdivision 8, or a tax authorized under subdivision 5.

The tax imposed under this subdivision is payable by the organization or party conducting, directly or indirectly, the gambling.

Subd. 2. [TAX-EXEMPT GAMBLING.] An organization's receipts from lawful gambling that are excluded or exempt from licensing under section 349.166, are not subject to the tax imposed by this section or section 297A.02. This exclusion from tax is only valid if at the time of the event giving rise to the tax the organization either has an exclusion under section 349.166, subdivision 1, or has applied for and received a valid exemption from the lawful gambling control board.

Subd. 3. [COLLECTION; DISPOSITION.] Taxes imposed by this section are due and payable to the commissioner when the gambling tax return is required to be filed. Returns covering the taxes imposed under this section must be filed with the commissioner on or before the 20th day of the month following the close of the previous calendar month. The commissioner may require that the returns be filed via magnetic media or electronic data transfer. The proceeds, along with the revenue received from all license fees and other fees under sections 349.11 to 349.191, 349.211, and 349.213, must be paid to the state treasurer for deposit in the general fund.

Subd. 4. [PULL-TAB AND TIPBOARD TAX.] (a) A tax is imposed on the sale of each deal of pull-tabs and tipboards sold by a distributor. The rate of the tax is two percent of the ideal gross of the pull-tab or tipboard deal. The sales tax imposed by chapter 297A on the sale of the pull-tabs and tipboards by the distributor is imposed on the retail sales price less the tax imposed by this subdivision. The retail sale of pull-tabs or tipboards by the organization is exempt from taxes imposed by chapter 297A and is exempt from all local taxes and license fees except a fee authorized under section 349.16, subdivision 8.

(b) The liability for the tax imposed by this section is incurred when the pull-tabs and tipboards are delivered by the distributor to the customer or to a common or contract carrier for delivery to the customer, or when received by the customer's authorized representative at the distributor's place of business, regardless of the distributor's method of accounting or the terms of the sale.

The tax imposed by this subdivision is imposed on all sales of pull-tabs and tipboards, except the following:

(1) sales to the governing body of an Indian tribal organization for use on an Indian reservation;

(2) sales to distributors licensed under the laws of another state or of a province of Canada, as long as all statutory and regulatory requirements are met in the other state or province;

(3) sales of promotional tickets as defined in section 349.12; and

(4) pull-tabs and tipboards sold to an organization that sells pull-tabs and tipboards under the exemption from licensing in section 349.166, subdivision 2. A distributor shall require an organization conducting exempt gambling to show proof of its exempt status before making a tax-exempt sale of pull-tabs or tipboards to the organization. A distributor shall identify, on all reports submitted to the commissioner, all sales of pull-tabs and tipboards that are exempt from tax under this subdivision.

(c) A distributor having a liability of $240,000 or more during a fiscal year ending June 30 must remit all liabilities in the subsequent calendar year by a funds transfer as defined in section 336.4A-104, paragraph (a). The funds transfer payment date, as defined in section 336.4A-401, must be on or before the date the tax is due. If the date the tax is due is not a funds-transfer business day, as defined in section 336.4A-105, paragraph (a), clause (4), the payment date must be on or before the funds-transfer business day next following the date the tax is due.

Subd. 5. [LOCAL GAMBLING TAX.] A statutory or home rule charter city that has one or more licensed organizations operating lawful gambling, and a county that has one or more licensed organizations outside incorporated areas operating lawful gambling, may impose a local gambling tax on each licensed organization within the city's or county's jurisdiction. The tax may be imposed only if the amount to be received by the city or county is necessary to cover the costs incurred by the city or county to regulate lawful gambling. The tax imposed by this subdivision may not exceed three percent of the gross receipts of a licensed organization from all lawful gambling less prizes actually paid out by the organization. A city or county may not use money collected under this subdivision for any purpose other than to regulate lawful gambling. A tax imposed under this subdivision is in lieu of all other local taxes and local investigation fees on lawful gambling. A city or county that imposes a tax under this subdivision shall annually, by March 15, file a report with the board in a form prescribed by the board showing (1) the amount of revenue produced by the tax during the preceding calendar year, and (2) the use of the proceeds of the tax.

Subd. 6. [COMBINED RECEIPTS TAX.] In addition to the taxes imposed under subdivisions 1 and 4, a tax is imposed on the combined receipts of the organization. As used in this section, "combined receipts" is the sum of the organization's gross receipts from lawful gambling less gross receipts directly derived from the conduct of bingo, raffles, and paddlewheels, as defined in section 349.12, subdivision 21, for the fiscal year. The combined receipts of an organization are subject to a tax computed according to the following schedule:

If the combined receipts for the fiscal year are:	The tax is:
Not over $500,000	zero
Over $500,000, but not over $700,000	two percent of the amount over $500,000, but not over $700,000
Over $700,000, but not over $900,000	$4,000 plus four percent of the amount over $700,000, but not over $900,000
Over $900,000	$12,000 plus six percent of the amount over $900,000

Subd. 7. [UNTAXED GAMBLING PRODUCT.] (a) In addition to penalties or criminal sanctions imposed by this chapter, a person, organization, or business entity possessing or selling a pull-tab or tipboard upon which the tax imposed by subdivision 4 has not been paid is liable for a tax of six percent of the ideal gross of each pull-tab or tipboard. The tax on a partial deal must be assessed as if it were a full deal.

(b) In addition to penalties and criminal sanctions imposed by this chapter, a person not licensed by the board who conducts bingo, raffles, or paddlewheel games is liable for a tax of six percent of the gross receipts from that activity.

(c) The tax must be assessed by the commissioner. An assessment must be considered a jeopardy assessment or jeopardy collection as provided in section 270.70. The commissioner shall assess the tax based on personal knowledge or information available to the commissioner. The commissioner shall mail to the taxpayer at the taxpayer's last known address, or serve in person, a written notice of the amount of tax, demand its immediate payment, and, if payment is not immediately made, collect the tax by any method described in chapter 270, except that the commissioner need not await the expiration of the times specified in chapter 270. The tax assessed by the commissioner is presumed to be valid and correctly determined and assessed. The burden is upon the taxpayer to show its incorrectness or invalidity. The tax imposed under this subdivision does not apply to gambling that is exempt from taxation under subdivision 2.

Subd. 8. [PERSONAL DEBT.] The tax imposed by this section, and interest and penalties imposed with respect to it, are a personal debt of the person required to file a return from the time the liability for it arises, irrespective of when the time for payment of the liability occurs. The debt must, in the case of the executor or administrator of the estate of a decedent and in the case of a fiduciary, be that of the person in the person's official or fiduciary capacity only unless the person has voluntarily distributed the assets held in that capacity without reserving sufficient assets to pay the tax, interest, and penalties, in which event the person is personally liable for any deficiency.

Subd. 9. [PUBLIC INFORMATION.] All records concerning the administration of the taxes under this chapter are classified as public information.

Subd. 10. [REFUNDS; APPROPRIATION.] A person who has, under this chapter, paid to the commissioner an amount of tax for a period in excess of the amount legally due for that period, may file with the commissioner a claim for a refund of the excess. The amount necessary to pay the refunds is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner.

Subd. 11. [UNPLAYED OR DEFECTIVE PULL-TABS OR TIPBOARDS.] If a deal of pull-tabs or tipboards registered with the board and upon which the tax imposed by subdivision 4 has been paid is returned unplayed to the distributor, the commissioner shall allow a refund of the tax paid.

If a defective deal registered with the board and upon which the taxes have been paid is returned to the manufacturer, the distributor shall submit to the commissioner of revenue certification from the manufacturer that the deal was returned and in what respect it was defective. The certification must be on a form prescribed by the commissioner and must contain additional information the commissioner requires.

The commissioner may require that no refund under this subdivision be made unless the returned pull-tabs or tipboards have been set aside for inspection by the commissioner's employee.

Reductions in previously paid taxes authorized by this subdivision must be made when and in the manner prescribed by the commissioner.

Sec. 3. [297E.03] [GAMBLING PRODUCT INVENTORY PERMIT.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION AND ISSUANCE.] A distributor who sells gambling products under this chapter must file with the commissioner an application, on a form prescribed by the commissioner, for a gambling product inventory permit and identification number. The commissioner, when satisfied that the applicant has a valid license from the board, shall issue the applicant a permit and number. A permit is not assignable and is valid only for the distributor in whose name it is issued.

Subd. 2. [SUSPENSION; REVOCATION.] (a) If a distributor fails to comply with this chapter or a rule of the commissioner, or if a license issued under chapter 349 is revoked or suspended, the commissioner, after giving notice, may for reasonable cause revoke or suspend a permit held by a distributor. A notice must be sent to the distributor at least 15 days before the proposed suspension or revocation is to take effect. The notice must give the reason for the proposed suspension or revocation and must require the distributor to show cause why the proposed action should not be taken. The notice may be served personally or by mail.

(b) The notice must inform the distributor of the right to a contested case hearing. If a request is made in writing to the commissioner within 14 days of the date of the notice, the commissioner shall defer action on the suspension or revocation and shall refer the case to the office of administrative hearings for the scheduling of a contested case hearing. The distributor must be served with 20 days' notice in writing specifying the time and place of the hearing and the allegations against the distributor.

(c) The commissioner shall issue a final order following receipt of the recommendation of the administrative law judge.

(d) Under section 271.06, subdivision 1, an appeal to the tax court may be taken from the commissioner's order of revocation or suspension. The commissioner may not issue a new permit after revocation except upon application accompanied by reasonable evidence of the intention of the applicant to comply with all applicable laws and rules.

Sec. 4. [297E.04] [MANUFACTURER'S REPORTS AND RECORDS.]

Subdivision 1. [REPORTS REQUIRED; PENALTY.] A manufacturer who sells gambling product for use in this state, or for receipt by a person or entity in this state, shall file with the commissioner, on a form prescribed by the commissioner, a report of gambling product sold to any person in the state, including the established governing body of Indian tribes recognized by the United States Department of the Interior. The report must be filed monthly on or before the 20th day of the month succeeding the month in which the sale was made. The commissioner may require that the report be submitted via magnetic media or electronic data transfer. The commissioner may inspect the premises, books, records, and inventory of a manufacturer without notice during the normal business hours of the manufacturer. A person violating this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Subd. 2. [BAR CODES.] The flare of each pull-tab and tipboard game must be imprinted by the manufacturer with a bar code that provides all information prescribed by the commissioner. A manufacturer must also affix to the outside of the box containing these games a bar code providing all information prescribed by the commissioner. The commissioner may also prescribe additional bar coding requirements.

No person may alter the bar code that appears on the outside of a box containing a deal of pull-tabs and tipboards. Possession of a box containing a deal of pull-tabs and tipboards that has a bar code different from the bar code of the deal inside the box is prima facie evidence that the possessor has altered the bar code on the box.

Sec. 5. [297E.05] [DISTRIBUTOR REPORTS AND RECORDS.]

Subdivision 1. [BUSINESS RECORDS.] A distributor shall keep at each place of business complete and accurate records for that place of business, including itemized invoices of gambling product held, purchased, manufactured, or brought in or caused to be brought in from without this state, and of all sales of gambling product. The records must show the names and addresses of purchasers, the inventory at the close of each period for which a return is required of all gambling product on hand, and other pertinent papers and documents relating to the purchase, sale, or disposition of gambling product. Books, records, itemized invoices, and other papers and documents required by this section must be kept for a period of at least 3-1/2 years after the date of the documents, or the date of the entries appearing in the records, unless the commissioner of revenue authorizes in writing their destruction or disposal at an earlier date.

Subd. 2. [SALES RECORDS.] A distributor must maintain a record of all gambling product that it sells. The record must include:

(1) the identity of the person or firm from whom the distributor purchased the product;

(2) the registration number of the product;

(3) the name, address, and license or exempt permit number of the organization or person to which the sale was made;

(4) the date of the sale;

(5) the name of the person who ordered the product;

(6) the name of the person who received the product;

(7) the type of product;

(8) the serial number of the product;

(9) the name, form number, or other identifying information for each game; and

(10) in the case of bingo cards sold on and after January 1, 1991, the individual number of each card.

Subd. 3. [INVOICES.] A distributor shall give with each sale of gambling product an itemized invoice showing the distributor's name and address, the purchaser's name and address, the date of the sale, and the description of the deals, including the ideal gross from every deal of pull-tabs and every deal of tipboards.

Subd. 4. [REPORTS.] A distributor shall report monthly to the commissioner, on a form the commissioner prescribes, its sales of each type of gambling product. This report must be filed monthly on or before the 20th day of the month succeeding the month in which the sale was made. The commissioner may require that a distributor submit the monthly report and invoices required in this subdivision via magnetic media or electronic data transfer.

Subd. 5. [CERTIFIED PHYSICAL INVENTORY.] The commissioner may, upon request, require a distributor to furnish a certified physical inventory of all gambling product in stock. The inventory must contain the information required by the commissioner.

Sec. 6. [297E.06] [ORGANIZATION REPORTS AND RECORDS.]

Subdivision 1. [REPORTS.] An organization must file with the commissioner, on a form prescribed by the commissioner, a report showing all gambling activity conducted by that organization for each month. Gambling activity includes all gross receipts, prizes, all gambling taxes owed or paid to the commissioner, all gambling expenses, and all lawful purpose and board-approved expenditures. The report must be filed with the commissioner on or before the 20th day of the month following the month in which the gambling activity takes place. The commissioner may require that the reports be filed via magnetic media or electronic data transfer.

Subd. 2. [BUSINESS RECORDS.] An organization shall maintain records supporting the gambling activity reported to the commissioner. Records include, but are not limited to, the following items:

(1) all winning and unsold tickets, cards, or stubs for pull-tab, tipboard, paddlewheel, and raffle games;

(2) all reports and statements, including checker's records, for each bingo occasion;

(3) all cash journals and ledgers, deposit slips, register tapes, and bank statements supporting gambling activity receipts;

(4) all invoices that represent purchases of gambling product;

(5) all canceled checks, check recorders, journals and ledgers, vouchers, invoices, bank statements, and other documents supporting gambling activity expenditures; and

(6) all organizational meeting minutes.

All records required to be kept by this section must be preserved by the organization for at least 3-1/2 years and may be inspected by the commissioner of revenue at any reasonable time without notice or a search warrant.

Subd. 3. [ACCOUNTS.] All gambling activity transactions must be segregated from all other revenues and expenditures made by the conducting organization.

Subd. 4. [AUDIT.] (a) An organization licensed under chapter 349, other than an organization subject to an audit every two years under paragraph (b), must have an annual financial audit of its lawful gambling activities performed by an independent accountant licensed by the state of Minnesota.

(b) An organization licensed under chapter 349 that (1) has never had gross receipts from lawful gambling of more than $100,000 in any calendar year, and (2) has been licensed under chapter 349 for at least one year, must have a financial audit of its lawful gambling activities performed once every two years, unless the commissioner determines on the basis of a previous audit of the organization that the organization's lawful gambling activities should be audited annually. The commissioner may at any time withdraw the requirement for an annual audit for organizations subject to this paragraph.

(c) The commissioner shall prescribe standards for audits required under this subdivision. A complete, true, and correct copy of the audit report must be filed as prescribed by the commissioner of revenue.

Sec. 7. [297E.07] [INSPECTION RIGHTS.]

At any reasonable time, without notice and without a search warrant, the commissioner may enter a place of business of a manufacturer, distributor, or organization; any site from which pull-tabs or tipboards or other gambling equipment or gambling product are being manufactured, stored, or sold; or any site at which lawful gambling is being conducted, and inspect the premises, books, records, and other documents required to be kept under this chapter to determine whether or not this chapter is being fully complied with. If the commissioner is denied free access to or is hindered or interfered with in making an inspection of the place of business, books, or records, the permit of the distributor may be revoked by the commissioner, and the license of the manufacturer, the distributor, or the organization may be revoked by the board.

Sec. 8. [297E.08] [EXAMINATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [EXAMINATION OF TAXPAYER.] To determine the accuracy of a return or report, or in fixing liability under this chapter, the commissioner may make reasonable examinations or investigations of a taxpayer's place of business, tangible personal property, equipment, computer systems and facilities, pertinent books, records, papers, vouchers, computer printouts, accounts, and documents.

Subd. 2. [ACCESS TO RECORDS OF OTHER PERSONS IN CONNECTION WITH EXAMINATION OF TAXPAYER.] When conducting an investigation or an audit of a taxpayer, the commissioner may examine, except where privileged by law, the relevant records and files of a person, business, institution, financial institution, state agency, agency of the United States government, or agency of another state where permitted by statute, agreement, or reciprocity. The commissioner may compel production of these records by subpoena. A subpoena may be served directly by the commissioner.

Subd. 3. [POWER TO COMPEL TESTIMONY.] In the administration of this chapter, the commissioner may:

(1) administer oaths or affirmations and compel by subpoena the attendance of witnesses, testimony, and the production of a person's pertinent books, records, papers, or other data;

(2) examine under oath or affirmation any person regarding the business of a taxpayer concerning a matter relevant to the administration of this chapter. The fees of witnesses required by the commissioner to attend a hearing are equal to those allowed to witnesses appearing before courts of this state. The fees must be paid in the manner provided for the payment of other expenses incident to the administration of state tax law; and

(3) in addition to other remedies available, bring an action in equity by the state against a taxpayer for an injunction ordering the taxpayer to file a complete and proper return or amended return. The district courts of this state have jurisdiction over the action, and disobedience of an injunction issued under this clause must be punished as for contempt.

Subd. 4. [THIRD-PARTY SUBPOENA WHERE TAXPAYER'S IDENTITY IS KNOWN.] An investigation may extend to any person that the commissioner determines has access to information that may be relevant to the examination or investigation. If a subpoena requiring the production of records under subdivision 2 is served on a third-party record keeper, written notice of the subpoena must be mailed to the taxpayer and to any other person who is identified in the subpoena. The notices must be given within three days of the day on which the subpoena is served. Notice to the taxpayer required by this section is sufficient if it is mailed to the last address on record with the commissioner of revenue.

The provisions of this subdivision relating to notice to the taxpayer or other parties identified in the subpoena do not apply if there is reasonable cause to believe that the giving of notice may lead to attempts to conceal, destroy, or alter records relevant to the examination, to prevent the communication of information from other persons through intimidation, bribery, or collusion, or to flee to avoid prosecution, testifying, or production of records.

Subd. 5. [THIRD-PARTY SUBPOENA WHERE TAXPAYER'S IDENTITY IS NOT KNOWN.] A subpoena that does not identify the person or persons whose tax liability is being investigated may be served only if:

(1) the subpoena relates to the investigation of a particular person or ascertainable group or class of persons;

(2) there is a reasonable basis for believing that the person or group or class of persons may fail or may have failed to comply with tax laws administered by the commissioner of revenue;

(3) the subpoena is clear and specific concerning information sought to be obtained; and

(4) the information sought to be obtained is limited solely to the scope of the investigation.

A party served with a subpoena that does not identify the person or persons with respect to whose tax liability the subpoena is issued may, within three days after service of the subpoena, petition the district court in the judicial district in which that party is located for a determination whether the commissioner of revenue has complied with all the requirements in clauses (1) to (4), and whether the subpoena is enforceable. If no petition is made by the party served within the time prescribed, the subpoena has the effect of a court order.

Subd. 6. [REQUEST BY TAXPAYER FOR SUBPOENA.] If the commissioner has the power to issue a subpoena for investigative or auditing purposes, the commissioner shall honor a reasonable request by the taxpayer to issue a subpoena on the taxpayer's behalf in connection with the investigation or audit.

Subd. 7. [APPLICATION TO COURT FOR ENFORCEMENT OF SUBPOENA.] The commissioner or the taxpayer may apply to the district court of the county of the taxpayer's residence, place of business, or county where the subpoena can be served as with any other case at law, for an order compelling the appearance of the subpoenaed witness or the production of the subpoenaed records. Failure to comply with the order of the court for the appearance of a witness or the production of records may be punished by the court as for contempt.

Subd. 8. [COST OF PRODUCTION OF RECORDS.] The cost of producing records of a third party required by a subpoena must be paid by the taxpayer if the taxpayer requests the subpoena to be issued or if the taxpayer has the records available but has refused to provide them to the commissioner. In other cases where the taxpayer cannot produce records and the commissioner then issues a subpoena for third-party records, the commissioner shall pay the reasonable cost of producing the records. The commissioner may later assess the reasonable costs against the taxpayer if the records contribute to the determination of an assessment of tax against the taxpayer.

Sec. 9. [297E.09] [ASSESSMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] The commissioner shall make determinations, corrections, and assessments with respect to taxes, including interest, additions to taxes, and assessable penalties, imposed under this chapter.

Subd. 2. [COMMISSIONER FILED RETURNS.] If a taxpayer fails to file a return required by this chapter, the commissioner may make a return for the taxpayer from information in the commissioner's possession or obtainable by the commissioner. The return is prima facie correct and valid.

Subd. 3. [ORDER OF ASSESSMENT; NOTICE AND DEMAND TO TAXPAYER.] (a) If a return has been filed and the commissioner determines that the tax disclosed by the return is different from the tax determined by the examination, the commissioner shall send an order of assessment to the taxpayer. The order must explain the basis for the assessment and must explain the taxpayer's appeal rights. An assessment by the commissioner must be made by recording the liability of the taxpayer in the office of the commissioner, which may be done by keeping a copy of the order of assessment sent to the taxpayer. An order of assessment is final when made but may be reconsidered by the commissioner under section 349.219.

(b) The amount of unpaid tax shown on the order must be paid to the commissioner:

(1) within 60 days after notice of the amount and demand for its payment have been mailed to the taxpayer by the commissioner; or

(2) if an administrative appeal is filed under section 349.219 within 60 days following the determination or compromise of the appeal.

Subd. 4. [ERRONEOUS REFUNDS.] An erroneous refund is considered an underpayment of tax on the date made. An assessment of a deficiency arising out of an erroneous refund may be made at any time within two years from the making of the refund. If part of the refund was induced by fraud or misrepresentation of a material fact, the assessment may be made at any time.

Subd. 5. [ASSESSMENT PRESUMED VALID.] A return or assessment made by the commissioner is prima facie correct and valid. The taxpayer has the burden of establishing the incorrectness or invalidity of the return or assessment in any action or proceeding in respect to it.

Subd. 6. [AGGREGATE REFUND OR ASSESSMENT.] On examining returns of a taxpayer for more than one year or period, the commissioner may issue one order covering the period under examination that reflects the aggregate refund or additional tax due.

Subd. 7. [SUFFICIENCY OF NOTICE.] An order of assessment sent by United States mail, postage prepaid to the taxpayer at the taxpayer's last known address, is sufficient even if the taxpayer is deceased or is under a legal disability, or, in the case of a corporation, has terminated its existence, unless the department has been provided with a new address by a party authorized to receive notices of assessment.

Sec. 10. [297E.10] [EXTENSIONS FOR FILING RETURNS AND PAYING TAXES.]

If, in the commissioner's judgment, good cause exists, the commissioner may extend the time for filing tax returns, paying taxes, or both, for not more than six months.

Sec. 11. [297E.11] [LIMITATIONS ON TIME FOR ASSESSMENT OF TAX.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL RULE.] Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the amount of taxes assessable must be assessed within 3-1/2 years after the return is filed, whether or not the return is filed on or after the date prescribed. A return must not be treated as filed until it is in processible form. A return is in processible form if it is filed on a permitted form and contains sufficient data to identify the taxpayer and permit the mathematical verification of the tax liability shown on the return.

Subd. 2. [FALSE OR FRAUDULENT RETURN.] Notwithstanding subdivision 1, the tax may be assessed at any time if a false or fraudulent return is filed or if a taxpayer fails to file a return.

Subd. 3. [OMISSION IN EXCESS OF 25 PERCENT.] Additional taxes may be assessed within 6-1/2 years after the due date of the return or the date the return was filed, whichever is later, if the taxpayer omits from a tax return taxes in excess of 25 percent of the taxes reported in the return.

Subd. 4. [TIME LIMIT FOR REFUNDS.] Unless otherwise provided in this chapter, a claim for a refund of an overpayment of tax must be filed within 3-1/2 years from the date prescribed for filing the return, plus any extension of time granted for filing the return, but only if filed within the extended time, or two years from the time the tax is paid, whichever period expires later. Interest on refunds must be computed at the rate specified in section 270.76 from the date of payment to the date the refund is paid or credited. For purposes of this subdivision, the date of payment is the later of the date the tax was finally due or was paid.

Subd. 5. [BANKRUPTCY; SUSPENSION OF TIME.] The time during which a tax must be assessed or collection proceedings begun is suspended during the period from the date of a filing of a petition in bankruptcy until 30 days after either:

(1) notice to the commissioner that the bankruptcy proceedings have been closed or dismissed; or

(2) the automatic stay has been ended or has expired, whichever occurs first.

The suspension of the statute of limitations under this subdivision applies to the person the petition in bankruptcy is filed against, and all other persons who may also be wholly or partially liable for the tax.

Subd. 6. [EXTENSION AGREEMENT.] If before the expiration of time prescribed in subdivisions 1 and 4 for the assessment of tax or the filing of a claim for refund, both the commissioner and the taxpayer have consented in writing to the assessment or filing of a claim for refund after that time, the tax may be assessed or the claim for refund filed at any time before the expiration of the agreed upon period. The period may be extended by later agreements in writing before the expiration of the period previously agreed upon.

Sec. 12. [297E.12] [CIVIL PENALTIES.]

Subdivision 1. [PENALTY FOR FAILURE TO PAY TAX.] If a tax is not paid within the time specified for payment, a penalty must be added to the amount required to be shown as tax. The penalty is three percent of the unpaid tax if the failure is for not more than 30 days, with an additional penalty of three percent of the amount of tax remaining unpaid during each additional 30 days or fraction of 30 days during which the failure continues, not exceeding 24 percent in the aggregate.

If the taxpayer has not filed a return, for purposes of this subdivision the time specified for payment is the final date a return should have been filed.

Subd. 2. [PENALTY FOR FAILURE TO MAKE AND FILE RETURN.] If a taxpayer fails to make and file a return within the time prescribed or an extension, a penalty is added to the tax. The penalty is three percent of the amount of tax not paid on or before the date prescribed for payment of the tax if the failure is for not more than 30 days, with an additional five percent of the amount of tax remaining unpaid during each additional 30 days or fraction of 30 days, during which the failure continues, not exceeding 23 percent in the aggregate.

If a taxpayer fails to file a return within 60 days of the date prescribed for filing of the return, determined with regard to any extension of time for filing, the addition to tax under this subdivision must be at least the lesser of: (1) $200; or (2) the greater of (i) 25 percent of the amount required to be shown as tax on the return without reduction for any payments made or refundable credits allowable against the tax, or (ii) $50.

Subd. 3. [COMBINED PENALTIES.] If penalties are imposed under subdivisions 1 and 2, except for the minimum penalty under subdivision 2, the penalties imposed under both subdivisions combined must not exceed 38 percent.

Subd. 4. [PENALTY FOR INTENTIONAL DISREGARD OF LAW OR RULES.] If part of an additional assessment is due to negligence or intentional disregard of this chapter or rules of the commissioner, but without intent to defraud, an amount equal to ten percent of the additional assessment must be added to the tax.

Subd. 5. [PENALTY FOR FALSE OR FRAUDULENT RETURN; EVASION.] If a person files a false or fraudulent return or attempts in any manner to evade or defeat a tax or payment of tax, a penalty is imposed on the person equal to 50 percent of the tax found due for the period to which the return related, less amounts paid by the person on the basis of the false or fraudulent return.

Subd. 6. [PENALTY FOR SALES AFTER REVOCATION, SUSPENSION, OR EXPIRATION.] A distributor who engages in, or whose representative engages in, the offering for sale, sale, transport, delivery, or furnishing of gambling equipment to a person, firm, or organization, after the distributor's license or permit has been revoked or suspended, or has expired, and until the license or permit has been reinstated or renewed, is liable for a penalty of $1,000 for each day the distributor continues to engage in the activity. This subdivision does not apply to the return of gambling equipment to a licensed manufacturer.

Subd. 7. [PAYMENT OF PENALTIES.] The penalties imposed by this section must be collected and paid in the same manner as taxes.

Subd. 8. [PENALTIES ARE ADDITIONAL.] The civil penalties imposed by this section are in addition to the criminal penalties imposed by this chapter.

Subd. 9. [ORDER PAYMENTS CREDITED.] All payments received may be credited first to the oldest liability not secured by a judgment or lien in the discretion of the commissioner, but in all cases must be credited first to penalties, next to interest, and then to the tax due.

Sec. 13. [297E.13] [TAX-RELATED CRIMINAL PENALTIES.]

Subdivision 1. [PENALTY FOR FAILURE TO FILE OR PAY.] (a) A person required to file a return, report, or other document with the commissioner, who knowingly fails to file it when required, is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. A person required to file a return, report, or other document who willfully attempts to evade or defeat a tax by failing to file it when required is guilty of a felony.

(b) A person required to pay or to collect and remit a tax, who knowingly fails to do so when required, is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. A person required to pay or to collect and remit a tax, who willfully attempts to evade or defeat a tax law by failing to do so when required is guilty of a felony.

Subd. 2. [FALSE OR FRAUDULENT RETURNS; PENALTIES.] (a) A person required to file a return, report, or other document with the commissioner, who delivers to the commissioner a return, report, or other document known by the person to be fraudulent or false concerning a material matter is guilty of a felony.

(b) A person who knowingly aids or assists in, or advises in the preparation or presentation of a return, report, or other document that is fraudulent or false concerning a material matter, whether or not the falsity or fraud committed is with the knowledge or consent of the person authorized or required to present the return, report, or other document, is guilty of a felony.

Subd. 3. [FALSE INFORMATION.] A person is guilty of a felony if the person:

(1) is required by section 297E.05 to keep records or to make returns, and falsifies or fails to keep the records or falsifies or fails to make the returns; and

(2) knowingly submits materially false information in any report, document, or other communication submitted to the commissioner in connection with lawful gambling or with this chapter.

Subd. 4. [SALES WITHOUT PERMIT; VIOLATIONS.] (a) A person who engages in the business of selling gambling product in Minnesota without the licenses or permits required under this chapter or chapter 349, or an officer of a corporation who so engages in the sales, is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

(b) A person selling gambling product in Minnesota after revocation of a license or permit under this chapter or chapter 349, when the commissioner or the board has not issued a new license or permit, is guilty of a felony.

Subd. 5. [UNTAXED GAMBLING EQUIPMENT.] It is a gross misdemeanor for a person to possess gambling equipment for resale in this state that has not been registered with the board, for which a registration stamp has not been affixed to the flare, and upon which the taxes imposed by chapter 297A or section 297E.02, subdivision 4, have not been paid. The director of gambling enforcement or the commissioner or the designated inspectors and employees of the director or commissioner may seize in the name of the state of Minnesota any unregistered or untaxed gambling equipment.

Subd. 6. [CRIMINAL PENALTIES.] (a) Criminal penalties imposed by this section are in addition to civil penalties imposed by this chapter.

(b) A person who violates a provision of this chapter for which another penalty is not provided is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(c) A person who violates a provision of this chapter for which another penalty is not provided is guilty of a gross misdemeanor if the violation occurs within five years after a previous conviction under a provision of this chapter.

(d) A person who in any manner violates a provision of this chapter to evade a tax imposed by this chapter, or who aids and abets the evasion of a tax, or hinders or interferes with a seizing authority when a seizure is made as provided by section 297E.16 is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

(e) This section does not preclude civil or criminal action under other applicable law or preclude any agency of government from investigating or prosecuting violations of this chapter or chapter 349. County attorneys have primary responsibility for prosecuting violations of this chapter, but the attorney general may prosecute a violation of this chapter.

Subd. 7. [STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS.] Notwithstanding section 628.26, or other provision of the criminal laws of this state, an indictment may be found and filed, or a complaint filed, upon a criminal offense named in this section, in the proper court within six years after the offense is committed.

Sec. 14. [297E.14] [INTEREST.]

Subdivision 1. [INTEREST RATE.] If an interest assessment is required under this section, interest is computed at the rate specified in section 270.75.

Subd. 2. [LATE PAYMENT.] If a tax is not paid within the time specified by law for payment, the unpaid tax bears interest from the date the tax should have been paid until the date the tax is paid.

Subd. 3. [EXTENSIONS.] If an extension of time for payment has been granted, interest must be paid from the date the payment should have been made if no extension had been granted, until the date the tax is paid.

Subd. 4. [ADDITIONAL ASSESSMENTS.] If a taxpayer is liable for additional taxes because of a redetermination by the commissioner, or for any other reason, the additional taxes bear interest from the time the tax should have been paid, without regard to any extension allowed, until the date the tax is paid.

Subd. 5. [ERRONEOUS REFUNDS.] In the case of an erroneous refund, interest accrues from the date the refund was paid unless the erroneous refund results from a mistake of the department, then no interest or penalty is imposed unless the deficiency assessment is not satisfied within 60 days of the order.

Subd. 6. [INTEREST ON JUDGMENTS.] Notwithstanding section 549.09, if judgment is entered in favor of the commissioner with regard to any tax, the judgment bears interest at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the date the judgment is entered until the date of payment.

Subd. 7. [INTEREST ON PENALTIES.] (a) A penalty imposed under section 297E.12, subdivision 1, 2, 3, 4, or 5, bears interest from the date the return or payment was required to be filed or paid, including any extensions, to the date of payment of the penalty.

(b) A penalty not included in paragraph (a) bears interest only if it is not paid within ten days from the date of notice. In that case interest is imposed from the date of notice to the date of payment.

Sec. 15. [297E.15] [ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW.]

Subdivision 1. [TAXPAYER RIGHT TO RECONSIDERATION.] A taxpayer may obtain reconsideration by the commissioner of an order assessing tax, a denial of a request for abatement of penalty, or a denial of a claim for refund of money paid to the commissioner under provisions, assessments, or orders under this chapter by filing an administrative appeal as provided in subdivision 4. A taxpayer cannot obtain reconsideration if the action taken by the commissioner of revenue is the outcome of an administrative appeal.

Subd. 2. [APPEAL BY TAXPAYER.] A taxpayer who wishes to seek administrative review shall follow the procedure in subdivision 4.

Subd. 3. [NOTICE DATE.] For purposes of this section, "notice date" means the date of the order adjusting the tax or order denying a request for abatement or, in the case of a denied refund, the date of the notice of denial.

Subd. 4. [TIME AND CONTENT FOR ADMINISTRATIVE APPEAL.] Within 60 days after the notice date, the taxpayer must file a written appeal with the commissioner of revenue. The appeal need not be in any particular form, but must contain the following information:

(1) name and address of the taxpayer;

(2) if a corporation, the state of incorporation of the taxpayer, and the principal place of business of the corporation;

(3) the Minnesota identification number or social security number of the taxpayer;

(4) the type of tax involved;

(5) the date;

(6) the tax years or periods involved and the amount of tax involved for each year or period;

(7) the findings in the notice that the taxpayer disputes;

(8) a summary statement that the taxpayer relies on for each exception; and

(9) the taxpayer's signature or signature of the taxpayer's duly authorized agent.

Subd. 5. [EXTENSIONS.] If requested in writing and within the time allowed for filing an administrative appeal, the commissioner may extend the time for filing an appeal for a period not more than 30 days from the expiration of the 60 days from the notice date.

Subd. 6. [AUTOMATIC EXTENSION OF STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS.] Notwithstanding any statute of limitations to the contrary, if the commissioner has made a determination and the taxpayer has authority to file an administrative appeal, the period during which the commissioner can make further assessments or other determinations does not expire before:

(1) 90 days after the notice date if no protest is filed under subdivision 4; or

(2) 90 days after the commissioner notifies the taxpayer of the determination on the appeal.

Subd. 7. [DETERMINATION OF APPEAL.] On the basis of applicable law and available information, the commissioner shall determine the validity, if any, in whole or part of the appeal and notify the taxpayer of the decision. This notice must be in writing and contain the basis for the determination.

Subd. 8. [AGREEMENT DETERMINING TAX LIABILITY.] If it appears to be in the best interests of the state, the commissioner may settle taxes, penalties, or interest that the commissioner has under consideration by virtue of an appeal filed under this section. An agreement must be in writing and signed by the commissioner and the taxpayer or the taxpayer's representative authorized by the taxpayer to enter into an agreement. An agreement must be filed in the office of the commissioner.

Subd. 9. [APPEAL OF AN ADMINISTRATIVE APPEAL.] Following the determination or settlement of an appeal, the commissioner must issue an order reflecting that disposition. Except in the case of an agreement determining tax under this section, the order is appealable to the Minnesota tax court under section 271.06.

Subd. 10. [APPEAL WHERE NO DETERMINATION.] If the commissioner does not make a determination within six months of the filing of an administrative appeal, the taxpayer may elect to appeal to tax court.

Subd. 11. [EXEMPTION FROM ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE ACT.] This section is not subject to chapter 14.

Sec. 16. [297E.16] [CONTRABAND.]

Subdivision 1. [SEIZURE.] Contraband may be seized by the commissioner or by any sheriff or other police officer, hereinafter referred to as the "seizing authority," with or without process, and is subject to forfeiture as provided in subdivisions 2 and 3.

Subd. 2. [INVENTORY; JUDICIAL DETERMINATION; APPEAL; DISPOSITION OF SEIZED PROPERTY.] Within ten days after the seizure of alleged contraband, the person making the seizure shall make available an inventory of the property seized to the person from whom the property was seized, if known, and file a copy with the commissioner or the director of gambling enforcement. Within ten days after the date of service of the inventory, the person from whom the property was seized or any person claiming an interest in the property may file with the seizing authority a demand for judicial determination of whether the property was lawfully subject to seizure and forfeiture. Within 60 days after the date of filing of the demand, the seizing authority must bring an action in the district court of the county where seizure was made to determine the issue of forfeiture. The action must be brought in the name of the state and be prosecuted by the county attorney or by the attorney general. The court shall hear the action without a jury and determine the issues of fact and law involved. If a judgment of forfeiture is entered, the seizing authority may, unless the judgment is stayed pending an appeal, either (1) cause the forfeited property to be destroyed; or (2) cause it to be sold at a public auction as provided by law.

If demand for judicial determination is made and no action is commenced by the seizing authority as provided in this subdivision, the property must be released by the seizing authority and delivered to the person entitled to it. If no demand is made, the property seized is considered forfeited to the seizing authority by operation of law and may be disposed of by the seizing authority as provided where there has been a judgment of forfeiture. When the seizing authority is satisfied that a person from whom property is seized was acting in good faith and without intent to evade the tax imposed by section 297E.02, the seizing authority shall release the property seized without further legal proceedings.

Subd. 3. [DISPOSAL.] (a) The property described in section 349.2125, subdivision 1, clauses (4) and (5), must be confiscated after conviction of the person from whom it was seized, upon compliance with the following procedure: the seizing authority shall file with the court a separate complaint against the property, describing it and charging its use in the specific violation, and specifying substantially the time and place of the unlawful use. A copy of the complaint must be served upon the defendant or person in charge of the property at the time of seizure, if any. If the person arrested is acquitted, the court shall dismiss the complaint against the property and order it returned to the persons legally entitled to it. Upon conviction of the person arrested, the court shall issue an order directed to any person known or believed to have any right or title to, interest in, or lien upon, any of the property, and to persons unknown claiming any right, title, interest, or lien in it, describing the property and (1) stating that it was seized and that a complaint against it, charging the specified violation, has been filed with the court, (2) requiring the persons to file with the court administrator their answer to the complaint, setting forth any claim they may have to any right or title to, interest in, or lien upon the property, within 30 days after the service of the order, and (3) notifying them in substance that if they fail to file their answer within the time, the property will be ordered sold by the seizing authority. The court shall cause the order to be served upon any person known or believed to have any right, title, interest, or lien as in the case of a summons in a civil action, and upon unknown persons by publication, as provided for service of summons in a civil action. If no answer is filed within the time prescribed, the court shall, upon affidavit by the court administrator, setting forth the fact, order the property sold by the seizing authority. Seventy percent of the proceeds of the sale of forfeited property, after payment of seizure, storage, forfeiture, and sale expenses, must be forwarded to the seizing authority for deposit as a supplement to its operating fund or similar fund for official use, and 20 percent must be forwarded to the county attorney or other prosecuting agency that handled the forfeiture for deposit as a supplement to its operating fund or similar fund for prosecutorial purposes. The remaining ten percent of the proceeds must be forwarded within 60 days after resolution of the forfeiture to the department of human services to fund programs for the treatment of compulsive gamblers. If an answer is filed within the time provided, the court shall fix a time for a hearing, which must not be less than ten nor more than 30 days after the time for filing an answer expires. At the time fixed for hearing, unless continued for cause, the matter must be heard and determined by the court, without a jury, as in other civil actions.

(b) If the court finds that the property, or any part of it, was used in the violation specified in the complaint, it shall order the unlawfully used property sold as provided by law, unless the owner shows to the satisfaction of the court that the owner had no notice or knowledge or reason to believe that the property was used or intended to be used in the violation. The officer making a sale, after deducting the expense of keeping the property, the fee for seizure, and the costs of the sale, shall pay all liens according to their priority, which are established at the hearing as being bona fide and as existing without the lienor having any notice or knowledge that the property was being used or was intended to be used for or in connection with the violation specified in the order of the court, and shall pay the balance of the proceeds to the seizing authority for official use and sharing in the manner provided in paragraph (a). A sale under this section frees the property sold from all liens on it. Appeal from the order of the district court is available as in other civil cases. At any time after seizure of the articles specified in this subdivision, and before the hearing provided for, the property must be returned to the owner or person having a legal right to its possession, upon execution of a good and valid bond to the state, with corporate surety, in the sum of at least $100 and not more than double the value of the property seized, to be approved by the court in which the case is triable, or a judge of it, conditioned to abide any order and the judgment of the court, and to pay the full value of the property at the time of the seizure. The seizing authority may dismiss the proceedings outlined in this subdivision when the seizing authority considers it to be in the public interest to do so.

Sec. 17. [297E.17] [DISTRIBUTOR'S BOND.]

On finding it necessary to ensure compliance with this chapter, the commissioner may require that a distributor deposit with the commissioner security in the form and amount determined by the commissioner, but not more than the lesser of (1) twice the estimated average monthly tax liability for the previous 12 months, or (2) $10,000.

In lieu of security, the commissioner may require a distributor to file a bond issued by a surety company authorized to transact business in this state and approved by the commissioner of commerce as to solvency and responsibility.

The commissioner may make claim against this security or bond for all taxes, penalties, and interest owed by the distributor.

Sec. 18. [INSTRUCTIONS TO REVISOR.]

(a) If a provision of a section of Minnesota Statutes repealed or amended by this article is amended or referred to by an act enacted in 1992, the revisor of statutes shall codify the amendment or reference consistent with the recodification of the affected section by this act, notwithstanding any law to the contrary.

(b) In the next edition of Minnesota Statutes, in the sections referred to in column A, the revisor of statutes shall delete the reference in column B and insert the reference in column C. The revisor may change the references in column C to the sections of Minnesota Statutes in which the bill sections are compiled.

Sec. 19. [PURPOSE.]

It is the intent of the legislature to simplify Minnesota's lawful gambling tax laws by consolidating and recodifying tax administration and compliance provisions now contained throughout Minnesota Statutes, chapter 349. Due to the complexity of the recodification, prior provisions are repealed on the effective date of the new provisions. The repealed provisions, however, continue to remain in effect until superseded by the analogous provision in the new law.

Sec. 20. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1990, sections 349.166, subdivision 4; 349.212, as amended by Laws 1991, chapter 291, article 17, section 11; 349.2121; 349.2122; 349.215; 349.2151; 349.2152; 349.216; 349.217; 349.2171; 349.218; and 349.219; and Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 349.19, subdivision 9, are repealed.

Sections 2, 4, 5, and 6 are effective for returns, reports, records, assessments, taxes, or other payments first becoming due on or after August 1, 1992.

Section 3 is effective for sales or shipments of gambling product inventory made on or after August 1, 1992.

Sections 16 and 20 are effective August 1, 1992.

ARTICLE 2

AMENDMENTS TO GAMBLING TAX LAW

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 270.101, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LIABILITY IMPOSED.] A person who, either singly or jointly with others, has the control of, supervision of, or responsibility for filing returns or reports, paying taxes, or collecting or withholding and remitting taxes and who fails to do so, or a person who is liable under any other law, is liable for the payment of taxes, penalties, and interest arising under chapters 296, 297, 297A, and 297C, or sections 290.92, ~~349.212,~~ and ~~349.2121~~ 297E.02.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 349.163, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [PULL-TAB AND TIPBOARD FLARES.] (a) A manufacturer may not ship or cause to be shipped into this state any deal of pull-tabs or tipboards that does not have its own individual flare as required for that deal by rule of the board. A person other than a manufacturer may not manufacture, alter, modify, or otherwise change a flare for a deal of pull-tabs or tipboards except as allowed by this chapter or board rules.

(b) The flare of each deal of pull-tabs and tipboards sold by a manufacturer in Minnesota must have the Minnesota gambling stamp affixed. The flare, with the stamp affixed, must be placed inside the wrapping of the deal which the flare describes.

(c) Each pull-tab and tipboard flare must bear the following statement printed in letters large enough to be clearly legible:

"Pull-tab (or tipboard) purchasers—This pull-tab (or tipboard) game is not legal in Minnesota unless:

—a Minnesota gambling stamp is affixed to this sheet, and —the serial number handwritten on the gambling stamp is the same as the serial number printed on this sheet and on the pull-tab (or tipboard) ticket you have purchased."

(d) The flare of each pull-tab and tipboard game must bear the serial number of the game, printed in numbers at least one-half inch high.

~~(e) The flare of each pull-tab and tipboard game must be imprinted at the bottom with a bar code that provides:~~

~~(2) the serial number of the game;~~

~~(3) the name of the manufacturer;~~

~~(4) the number of tickets in the deal;~~

~~(5) the odds of winning each prize in the deal; and~~

~~(6) other information the board by rule requires.~~

~~The serial number included in the bar code must be the same as the serial number of the tickets included in the deal. A manufacturer who manufactures a deal of pull-tabs must affix to the outside of the box containing that game the same bar code that is imprinted at the bottom of a flare for that deal.~~

~~(f) No person may alter the bar code that appears on the outside of a box containing a deal of pull-tabs and tipboards. Possession of a box containing a deal of pull-tabs and tipboards that has a bar code different from the bar code of the deal inside the box is prima facie evidence that the possessor has altered the bar code on the box.~~

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 349.2123, is amended to read:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 240.13, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [PURSES.] (a) From the amounts deducted from all pari-mutuel pools by a licensee, an amount equal to not less than the following percentages of all money in all pools must be set aside by the licensee and used for purses for races conducted by the licensee, provided that a licensee may agree by contract with an organization

(1) for live races conducted at a class A facility, and for races that are part of full racing card simulcasting or full racing card telerace simulcasting that takes place within the time period of the live races, 8.4 percent;

(2) for simulcasts and telerace simulcasts conducted during the racing season other than as provided for in clause (1), 50 percent of the takeout remaining after deduction for taxes on pari-mutuel pools, payment to the breeders fund, and payment to the sending out-of-state racetrack for receipt of the signal; and

(3) for simulcasts and telerace simulcasts conducted outside of the racing season, 25 percent of the takeout remaining after deduction for the state pari-mutuel tax, payment to the breeders fund, payment to the sending out-of-state racetrack for receipt of the signal and, before January 1, 2005, a further deduction of eight percent of all money in all pools; provided, however, that in the event that wagering on simulcasts and telerace simulcasts outside of the racing season exceeds $125 million in any calendar year, the amount set aside for purses by this formula is increased to 30 percent on amounts between $125,000,000 and $150,000,000 wagered; 40 percent on amounts between $150,000,000 and $175,000,000 wagered; and 50 percent on amounts in excess of $175,000,000 wagered. In lieu of the eight percent deduction, a deduction as agreed to between the licensee and the horsepersons' organization representing the majority of horsepersons racing at the licensee's class A facility during the preceding 12 months, is allowed after December 31, 2004.

The commission may by rule provide for the administration and enforcement of this subdivision. The deductions for payment to the sending out-of-state racetrack must be actual, except that when there exists any overlap of ownership, control, or interest between the sending out-of-state racetrack and the receiving licensee, the deduction must not be greater than three percent unless agreed to between the licensee and the horsepersons' organization representing the majority of horsepersons racing the breed racing the majority of races during the existing racing meeting or, if outside of the racing season, during the most recent racing meeting.

In lieu of the amount the licensee must pay to the commission for deposit in the Minnesota breeders fund under section 240.15, subdivision 1, the licensee shall pay 5-1/2 percent of the takeout from all pari-mutuel pools generated by wagering at the licensee's facility on full racing card simulcasts and full racing card telerace simulcasts of races not conducted in this state.

(b) From the money set aside for purses, the licensee shall pay to the horseperson's organization representing the majority of the horsepersons racing the breed involved and contracting with the licensee with respect to purses and the conduct of the racing meetings and providing representation, benevolent programs, benefits, and services for horsepersons and their on-track employees, an amount, sufficient to perform these services, as may be determined by agreement by the licensee and the horseperson's organization. The amount paid may be deducted only from the money set aside for purses to be paid in races for the breed represented by the horseperson's organization. With respect to racing meetings where more than one breed is racing, the licensee may contract independently with the horseperson's organization representing each breed racing.

(c) Notwithstanding sections 325D.49 to 325D.66, a horseperson's organization representing the majority of the horsepersons racing a breed at a meeting, and the members thereof, may agree to withhold horses during a meeting.

(d) Money set aside for purses from wagering, during the racing season, on simulcasts and telerace simulcasts must be used for purses for live races conducted at the licensee's class A facility during the same racing season, over and above the 8.4 percent purse requirement or any higher requirement to which the parties agree, for races conducted in this state. Money set aside for purses from wagering, outside of the racing season, on simulcasts and telerace simulcasts must be for purses for live races conducted at the licensee's class A facility during the next racing season, over and above the 8.4 percent purse requirement or any higher requirement to which the parties agree, for races conducted in this state.

(e) Money set aside for purses from wagering on simulcasts and telerace simulcasts must be used for purses for live races involving the same breed involved in the simulcast or telerace simulcast except that money set aside for purses and payments to the breeders fund from wagering on full racing card simulcasts and full racing card telerace simulcasts of races not conducted in this state, occurring during a live mixed meet, must be allotted to the purses and breeders fund for each breed participating in the mixed meet in the same proportion that the number of live races run by each breed bears to the total number of live races conducted during the period of the mixed meet.

(f) The allocation of money set aside for purses to particular racing meets may be adjusted, relative to overpayments and underpayments, by contract between the licensee and the horsepersons' organization representing the majority of horsepersons racing the breed involved at the licensee's facility.

(g) Subject to the provisions of this chapter, money set aside from pari-mutuel pools for purses must be for the breed involved in the race that generated the pool, except that if the breed involved in the race generating the pari-mutuel pool is not racing in the current racing meeting, or has not raced within the preceding 12 months at the licensee's class A facility, money set aside for purses ~~must~~ may be distributed proportionately to those breeds that have run during the preceding 12 months or paid to the commission and used for purses or to promote racing for the breed involved in the race generating the pari-mutuel pool, or both, in a manner prescribed by the commission.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 240.13, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [SIMULCASTING.] The commission may permit an authorized licensee to conduct simulcasting or telerace simulcasting at the licensee's facility on any day authorized by the commission. All simulcasts and telerace simulcasts must comply with the Interstate Horse Racing Act of 1978, United States Code, title 15, sections 3001 to 3007. In addition to teleracing programs featuring live racing conducted at the licensee's class A facility, the class E licensee may conduct not more than seven teleracing programs per week during the racing season, unless additional telerace simulcasting is authorized by the director and approved by the horsepersons' organization representing the majority of horsepersons racing the breed racing the majority of races at the licensee's class A facility during the preceding 12 months. The commission may not authorize any day for simulcasting at a class A facility during the racing season, and a licensee may not be allowed to transmit out-of-state telecasts of races the licensee conducts, unless the licensee has obtained the approval of the horsepersons' organization representing the majority of the horsepersons racing the breed involved at the licensed racetrack during the preceding 12 months. The licensee may pay fees and costs to an entity transmitting a telecast of a race to the licensee for purposes of conducting pari-mutuel wagering on the race. The licensee may deduct fees and costs related to the receipt of televised transmissions from a pari-mutuel pool on the televised race, provided that one-half of any amount recouped in this manner must be added to the amounts required to be set aside for purses.

With the approval of the commission and subject to the provisions of this subdivision, a licensee may transmit telecasts of races it conducts, for wagering purposes, to locations outside the state, and the commission may allow this to be done on a commingled pool basis.

Except as otherwise provided in this section, simulcasting and telerace simulcasting may be conducted on a separate pool basis or, with the approval of the commission, on a commingled pool basis. All provisions of law governing pari-mutuel betting apply to simulcasting and telerace simulcasting except as otherwise provided in this subdivision or in the commission's rules. If pools are commingled, wagering at the licensed facility must be on equipment electronically linked with the equipment at the licensee's class A facility or with the sending racetrack via the totalizator computer at the licensee's class A facility. Subject to the approval of the commission, the types of betting, takeout, and distribution of winnings on commingled pari-mutuel pools are those in effect at the sending racetrack. Breakage for pari-mutuel pools on a televised race must be calculated in accordance with the law or rules governing the sending racetrack for these pools, and must be distributed in a manner agreed to between the licensee and the sending racetrack. Notwithstanding subdivision 7 and section 240.15, subdivision 5, the commission may approve procedures governing the definition and disposition of unclaimed tickets that are consistent with the law and rules governing unclaimed tickets at the sending racetrack. For the purposes of this section, "sending racetrack" is either the racetrack outside of this state where the horse race is conducted or, with the consent of the racetrack, an alternative facility that serves as the racetrack for the purpose of commingling pools.

If there is more than one class B licensee conducting racing within the seven-county metropolitan area, simulcasting and telerace simulcasting may be conducted only on races run by a breed that ran at the licensee's class A facility within the 12 months preceding the event. ~~That portion of the takeout allocated for purses from pari-mutuel pools generated by wagering on standardbreds must be set aside and must be paid to the racing commission and used for purses as otherwise provided by this section or to promote standardbred racing or both, in a manner prescribed by the commission. In the event that a licensee conducts live standardbred racing, pools generated by live, simulcast, or telerace simulcasting at the licensee's facilities on standardbred racing are subject to the purse set-aside requirements otherwise provided by law.~~

Contractual agreements between licensees and horsepersons' organizations entered into before June 5, 1991, regarding money to be set aside for purses from pools generated by simulcasts at a class A facility, are controlling regarding purse requirements through the end of the 1992 racing season.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 240.13, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [PROHIBITED ACTS.] A licensee may not:

(1) accept a bet from any person under the age of 18 years; ~~and a licensee may not~~

(2) accept a bet of less than $1; or

(3) accept a bet made on credit or with the use of a credit card.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 240.14, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COUNTY FAIR RACING DAYS.] The commission may assign to a class D licensee the following racing days:

(1) those racing days, not to exceed ten racing days, that coincide with the days on which the licensee's county fair is running; and

(2) additional racing days~~, not to exceed ten racing days, immediately before or after the days on which the licensee's county fair is running~~.

~~In no event shall the number of racing days assigned by the commission exceed 20 days.~~

~~The commission may not assign any days before July 1, 1989, as racing days to a class D licensee.~~

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 240.15, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [DISPOSITION OF PROCEEDS.] The commission shall distribute all money received under this section, and all money received from license fees and fines it collects, as follows: all money designated for deposit in the Minnesota breeders fund must be paid into that fund for distribution under section 240.18 except that all money generated by full racing card simulcasts, or full racing card telerace simulcasts of races not conducted in this state, must be distributed as provided in section 240.18, ~~clause (2), paragraphs (a), (b), and (c)~~ subdivisions 2, paragraph (d), clauses (1), (2), and (3); and 3. Revenue from an admissions tax imposed under subdivision 1 must be paid to the local unit of government at whose request it was imposed, at times and in a manner the commission determines. All other revenues received under this section by the commission, and all license fees, fines, and other revenue it receives, must be paid to the state treasurer for deposit in the general fund.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 240.18, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [OTHER CATEGORIES.] Available money apportioned to breeds other than breeds contained in subdivisions 2 and 3 shall be distributed as financial incentives to encourage horse racing and horse breeding for such breeds.

All unregistered gambling equipment and all unaffixed registration stamps owned by, or in the possession of, a licensed distributor in the state of Minnesota shall be stored at a sales or storage facility which has been registered with the division of gambling enforcement. Except for gambling equipment sold to the governing body of an Indian tribe, no gambling equipment may be moved from the facility unless the gambling equipment has been first registered with the board.

(b) Notwithstanding section 349.163, subdivision 5, paragraphs (b) and (c), a licensed manufacturer may ship into Minnesota gambling equipment that does not have a Minnesota gambling stamp affixed if the licensed manufacturer ships the gambling equipment to a Minnesota storage facility that is: (1) owned or leased by the licensed manufacturer; and (2) registered, in advance and in writing, with the division of gambling enforcement as a manufacturer's storage facility. Subd. 3. [PROHIBITED SALES.] (a) A manufacturer may not:

(1) sell gambling equipment for use or resale within the state to any person not licensed as a distributor, other than the governing body of an Indian tribe, unless the manufacturer is also a licensed distributor; or

Subd. 4. [INSPECTION OF MANUFACTURERS.] Employees of the ~~division~~ board and the division of gambling enforcement may inspect the books, records, inventory, and business premises of a licensed manufacturer without notice during the normal business hours of the manufacturer.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 349.163, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [PULL-TAB AND TIPBOARD FLARES.] (a) A manufacturer may not ship or cause to be shipped into this state any deal of pull-tabs or tipboards that does not have its own individual flare as required for that deal by rule of the board. A person other than a manufacturer may not manufacture, alter, modify, or otherwise change a flare for a deal of pull-tabs or tipboards except as allowed by this chapter or board rules.

(b) The flare of each deal of pull-tabs and tipboards sold by a manufacturer for use or resale in Minnesota must have the Minnesota gambling stamp affixed. The flare, with the stamp affixed, must be placed inside the wrapping of the deal which the flare describes.

(c) Each pull-tab and tipboard flare must bear the following statement printed in letters large enough to be clearly legible:

(1) the name of the game;

(2) the serial number of the game;

(3) the name of the manufacturer;

(4) the number of tickets in the deal;

(5) the odds of winning each prize in the deal; and

A manufacturer who manufactures a deal of pull-tabs must affix to the outside of the box containing that game the same bar code that is imprinted at the bottom of a flare for that deal.

(f) No person may alter the bar code that appears on the outside of a box containing a deal of pull-tabs and tipboards. Possession of a box containing a deal of pull-tabs and tipboards that has a bar code different from the bar code of the deal inside the box is prima facie evidence that the possessor has altered the bar code on the box.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 272.115, is amended to read:

272.115 [CERTIFICATE OF VALUE; FILING.]

Subdivision 1. Except as provided in subdivision 1a, whenever any real estate is sold ~~on or after January 1, 1978,~~ for a consideration in excess of $1,000, whether by warranty deed, quitclaim deed, contract for deed or any other method of sale, the grantor, grantee or the legal agent of either shall file a certificate of value with the county auditor in the county in which the property is located within 30 days of the sale. Value shall, in the case of any deed not a gift, be the amount of the full actual consideration thereof, paid or to be paid, including the amount of any lien or liens assumed. The certificate of value shall include the classification to which the property belongs for the purpose of determining the fair market value of the property. The certificate shall include financing terms and conditions of the sale which are necessary to determine the actual, present value of the sale price for purposes of the sales ratio study. The commissioner of revenue shall promulgate administrative rules specifying the financing terms and conditions which must be included on the certificate.

Subd. 1a. Whenever any real estate, a portion or all of which is classified as homestead under chapter 273 is sold or transferred on or after January 1, 1993, whether by warranty deed, quitclaim deed, contract for deed, or any other method of sale or transfer, the grantor, grantee, or the legal agent of either shall file a certificate of value with the county auditor in the county in which the property is located within 30 days of the sale or transfer. Value shall, in the case of any deed not a gift, be the amount of the full actual consideration thereof, paid or to be paid, including the amount of any lien or liens assumed. The certificate of value shall include the current classification of the property for the purpose of determining the fair market value of the property, and the use and likely classification to which the property will be used after the sale or transfer. The certificate shall include financing terms and conditions of the sale which are necessary to determine the actual, present value of the sale price for purposes of the sales ratio study and its eligibility for homestead classification under chapter 273. The certificate shall also include the social security number of both the grantor and the grantee. The commissioner of revenue shall adopt administrative rules specifying the financing terms and conditions which must be included on the certificate.

Subd. 2. The certificate of value shall require such facts and information as may be determined by the commissioner to be reasonably necessary in the administration of the state education aid formulas and the eligibility of a property's classification as homestead under chapter 273. The form of the certificate of value shall be prescribed by the department of revenue ~~which~~. A different form may be prescribed for property under subdivision 1 and for property under subdivision 1a. The commissioner shall provide an adequate supply of forms to each county auditor.

Subd. 3. The county auditor shall transmit two true copies of the certificate of value to the assessor who shall insert the most recent market value and when available, the year of original construction of each parcel of property on both copies and shall transmit one copy to the department of revenue. Upon the request of a city council located within the county, a copy of each certificate of value for property located in that city shall be made available to the governing body of the city. The assessor shall remove the homestead classification for the following assessment year from a property which is sold or transferred, unless the grantee or the person to whom the property is transferred completes a homestead application under section 273.124, subdivision 13, and qualifies for homestead.

Subd. 4. No real estate sold or transferred on or after January 1, ~~1978, for which a certificate of value is required pursuant to~~ 1993, under subdivision ~~1~~ 1a shall be classified as a homestead, unless a certificate of value has been filed with the county auditor in accordance with this section.

This subdivision shall apply to any real estate taxes that are payable the year or years following the sale or transfer of the property.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 273.11, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] Except as provided in subdivisions 6, 8, 9, ~~and~~ 11, 12, and 13 or section 273.17, subdivision 1, all property shall be valued at its market value. The market value as determined pursuant to this section shall be stated such that any amount under $100 is rounded up to $100 and any amount exceeding $100 shall be rounded to the nearest $100. In estimating and determining such value, the assessor shall not adopt a lower or different standard of value because the same is to serve as a basis of taxation, nor shall the assessor adopt as a criterion of value the price for which such property would sell at a forced sale, or in the aggregate with all the property in the town or district; but the assessor shall value each article or description of property by itself, and at such sum or price as the assessor believes the same to be fairly worth in money. The assessor shall take into account the effect on the market value of property of environmental factors in the vicinity of the property. The assessor shall not take into account any increased market value for improvements from conversion or replacement of an existing groundwater based once-through cooling system as required under section 103G.271, subdivision 5. In assessing any tract or lot of real property, the value of the land, exclusive of structures and improvements, shall be determined, and also the value of all structures and improvements thereon, and the aggregate value of the property, including all structures and improvements, excluding the value of crops growing upon cultivated land. In valuing real property upon which there is a mine or quarry, it shall be valued at such price as such property, including the mine or quarry, would sell for a fair, voluntary sale, for cash. In valuing real property which is vacant, the fact that such property is platted shall be taken into account. An individual lot of such platted property shall be assessed at its market value beginning with the first assessment following final approval of the plat. All property, or the use thereof, which is taxable under section 272.01, subdivision 2, or 273.19, shall be valued at the market value of such property and not at the value of a leasehold estate in such property, or at some lesser value than its market value.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 273.11, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 12. [NEIGHBORHOOD LAND TRUSTS.] (a) A neighborhood land trust, as defined under chapter 462A, is (i) a community-based nonprofit corporation organized under chapter 317A, which qualifies for tax exempt status under 501(c)(3), or (ii) a home rule charter or statutory city, a county, a housing and redevelopment authority, or an economic development authority which has received funding from the Minnesota housing finance agency for purposes of the neighborhood land trust program. The Minnesota housing finance agency shall set the criteria for neighborhood land trusts.

(b) All occupants of a neighborhood land trust building must have a family income of less than 80 percent of the greater of (1) the state median income, or (2) the area or county median income, as most recently determined by the department of housing and urban development. Before the neighborhood land trust can rent or sell a unit to an applicant, the neighborhood land trust shall request the commissioner of revenue to verify that the family incomes of each person or family applying for a unit in the neighborhood land trust building is within the income criteria provided in this paragraph. The neighborhood land trust shall furnish a list of the applicant's social security numbers. The property tax benefits under paragraphs (c) and (d) shall be granted only to property owned or rented by persons or families within the qualifying income limits. The family income criteria and verification is only necessary at the time of initial occupancy in the property.

(c) On or before December 1, 1992, and each year thereafter, the city in the case of a city owned land trust, or the Minnesota housing finance agency shall certify by property identification number to the county assessor of each county, the current year's limited equity price of each qualifying structure owned by the neighborhood land trust and located within the county. The land owned by a qualifying nonprofit corporation as a land trust shall be valued by the assessor at its fair market value as defined under this section. The assessor shall use a limited equity price valuation only on those buildings approved by the Minnesota housing finance agency as neighborhood land trusts. For purposes of this section, "limited equity price" shall be as defined in section 462A.30, subdivision 7. The limited equity price or its fair market value as defined under this section, whichever is less, shall be the structure's estimated market value for purposes of determining property taxes under this chapter.

(d) A unit which is owned by the occupant and used as a homestead by the occupant qualifies for homestead treatment as class 1a under section 273.13, subdivision 22. A unit which is rented by the occupant and used as a homestead by the occupant shall be class 4a or 4b property, under section 273.13, subdivision 25, whichever is applicable. Any remaining portion of the property not used for residential purposes shall be classified by the assessor in the appropriate class based upon the use of that portion of the property owned by the neighborhood land trust. The land upon which the building is located shall be assessed at the same class rate as the units within the building, provided that if the building contains some units assessed as class 1a and some units assessed as class 4a or 4b, the market value of the land will be assessed in the same proportions as the value of the building.

(e) The rent charged by the neighborhood land trust to the lessee of a unit granted class 4a or 4b status must reflect the benefits granted to that unit under paragraph (c).

(f) The county treasurer shall prepare a separate property tax statement under section 276.04 for each owner-occupied unit in the neighborhood land trust and mail the statement directly to the owner of that unit. The tax on each unit shall be determined by reflecting the value of each individual unit and the appropriate property classification status of each unit. If the property tax on an owner-occupied unit is not paid, the delinquent property taxes will be assessed to the neighborhood land trust and, if not subsequently paid, will be a lien on the structure. The county treasurer shall also prepare a single property tax statement for the rental units in the neighborhood land trust and, in the case of land owned by a nonprofit corporation, the tax on the land. A total listing of all units in the building itemizing the amount of property taxes relating to each unit in the building and the land owned by a neighborhood land trust shall be prepared by the county treasurer and furnished to the neighborhood land trust.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 273.11, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 13. [VALUATION OF INCOME-PRODUCING PROPERTY.] Beginning with the 1995 assessment, only accredited assessors or senior accredited assessors may value income-producing property for ad valorem tax purposes. "Income-producing property" as used in this subdivision means the taxable property in class 3a and 3b in section 273.13, subdivision 24; class 4a and 4c, except for seasonal recreational property not used for commercial purposes, and class 4d in section 273.13, subdivision 25; and class 5 in section 273.13, subdivision 31.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 273.124, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL RULE.] (a) Residential real estate that is occupied and used for the purposes of a homestead by its owner, who must be a Minnesota resident, is a residential homestead.

Agricultural land, as defined in section 273.13, subdivision 23, that is occupied and used as a homestead by its owner, who must be a Minnesota resident, is an agricultural homestead.

Dates for establishment of a homestead and homestead treatment provided to particular types of property are as provided in this section.

The assessor shall require proof, ~~by affidavit or otherwise~~ as provided in subdivision 13, of the facts upon which classification as a homestead may be determined.

(b) For purposes of this section, homestead property shall include property which is used for purposes of the homestead but is separated from the homestead by a road, street, lot, waterway, or other similar intervening property. The term "used for purposes of the homestead" shall include but not be limited to uses for gardens, garages, or other outbuildings commonly associated with a homestead, but shall not include vacant land held primarily for future development. In order to receive homestead treatment for the noncontiguous property, the owner shall apply for it to the assessor by July 1 of the year when the treatment is initially sought. After initial qualification for the homestead treatment, additional applications for subsequent years are not required.

(c) ~~In the case of property owned by a married couple in joint tenancy or tenancy in common, the assessor must not deny homestead treatment in whole or in part if only one of the spouses is occupying the property and the other spouse is absent due to divorce or separation, or is a resident of a nursing home or a boarding care facility.~~

~~(d) If an individual is purchasing property with the intent of claiming it as a homestead, and is required by the terms of the financing agreement to have a relative shown on the deed as a coowner, the assessor shall allow a full homestead classification.~~ In applying the homestead ownership requirement, an individual who occupies the property and who is a relative of an owner is considered the owner of the relative's interest. For purposes of this paragraph, "relative" means a parent, stepparent, child, stepchild, spouse, grandparent, grandchild, brother, sister, uncle, or aunt. This relationship may be by blood or marriage. If the property is classified as seasonal recreational residential property at the time treatment under this paragraph would apply, the property continues to be classified as seasonal recreational residential property and does not quality as a homestead under this paragraph until the first assessment date occurring after the relative of the owner has continuously occupied the property for a period of two years.

~~(c) In the case of property owned and formerly occupied by two or more persons in joint tenancy or tenancy in common, when those persons are related to each other as parents and children or as stepparents and stepchildren, and when one or more of the owners ceases to occupy the property, the assessor shall continue to allow a full homestead classification as long as at least one of the owners continues to occupy the property for purposes of a homestead. This paragraph applies only to single family residential property.~~

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 273.124, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [LEASEHOLD COOPERATIVES.] When one or more dwellings or one or more buildings which each contain several dwelling units is owned by a nonprofit corporation subject to the provisions of chapter 317A and qualifying under section 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1990, or a limited partnership which corporation or partnership operates the property in conjunction with a cooperative association, and has received public financing, homestead treatment may be claimed by the cooperative association on behalf of the members of the cooperative for each dwelling unit occupied by a member of the cooperative. The cooperative association must provide the assessor with the social security numbers of those members. To qualify for the treatment provided by this subdivision, the following conditions must be met:

(a) the cooperative association must be organized under chapter 308A and all voting members of the board of directors must be resident tenants of the cooperative and must be elected by the resident tenants of the cooperative;

(b) the cooperative association must have a lease for occupancy of the property for a term of at least 20 years, which permits the cooperative association, while not in default on the lease, to participate materially in the management of the property, including material participation in establishing budgets, setting rent levels, and hiring and supervising a management agent;

(c) to the extent permitted under state or federal law, the cooperative association must have a right under a written agreement with the owner to purchase the property if the owner proposes to sell it; if the cooperative association does not purchase the property it is offered for sale, the owner may not subsequently sell the property to another purchaser at a price lower than the price at which it was offered for sale to the cooperative association unless the cooperative association approves the sale;

(d) the cooperative must meet one of the following criteria with respect to the income of its members: (1) a minimum of 75 percent of members must have incomes at or less than 80 percent of area median income, (2) a minimum of 40 percent of members must have incomes at or less than 60 percent of area median income, or (3) a minimum of 20 percent of members must have incomes at or less than 50 percent of area median income. For purposes of this clause, "member income" means the income of a member existing at the time the member acquires cooperative membership, and "median income" means the St. Paul-Minneapolis metropolitan area median income as determined by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development;

(e) if a limited partnership owns the property, it must include as the managing general partner a nonprofit organization operating under the provisions of chapter 317A and qualifying under section 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1990, and the limited partnership agreement must provide that the managing general partner have sufficient powers so that it materially participates in the management and control of the limited partnership;

(f) prior to becoming a member of a leasehold cooperative described in this subdivision, a person must have received notice that (1) describes leasehold cooperative property in plain language, including but not limited to the effects of classification under this subdivision on rents, property taxes and tax credits or refunds, and operating expenses, and (2) states that copies of the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the cooperative association, the lease between the owner and the cooperative association, a sample sublease between the cooperative association and a tenant, and, if the owner is a partnership, a copy of the limited partnership agreement, can be obtained upon written request at no charge from the owner, and the owner must send or deliver the materials within seven days after receiving any request;

(g) if a dwelling unit of a building was occupied on the 60th day prior to the date on which the unit became leasehold cooperative property described in this subdivision, the notice described in paragraph (f) must have been sent by first class mail to the occupant of the unit at least 60 days prior to the date on which the unit became leasehold cooperative property. For purposes of the notice under this paragraph, the copies of the documents referred to in paragraph (f) may be in proposed version, provided that any subsequent material alteration of those documents made after the occupant has requested a copy shall be disclosed to any occupant who has requested a copy of the document. Copies of the articles of incorporation and certificate of limited partnership shall be filed with the secretary of state after the expiration of the 60-day period unless the change to leasehold cooperative status does not proceed; ~~and~~

(h) the county attorney of the county in which the property is located must certify to the assessor that the property meets the requirements of this subdivision.; and

(i) in the case of property that is classified as nonhomestead residential property under section 273.13 at the time when the cooperative association claims reclassification of the property as a leasehold cooperative, the governing body of the municipality in which the property is located must make a finding that the reclassification will not substantially impair the ability of the municipality or any agency of the municipality to meet its debt service obligations on any bonds or other debt outstanding at the time of the request for reclassification.

Homestead treatment must be afforded to units occupied by members of the cooperative association and the units must be assessed as provided in subdivision 3, provided that any unit not so occupied shall be classified and assessed pursuant to the appropriate class. No more than three acres of land may, for assessment purposes, be included with each dwelling unit that qualifies for homestead treatment under this subdivision.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 273.124, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [HOMESTEAD ESTABLISHED AFTER ASSESSMENT DATE.] Any property that was not used for the purpose of a homestead on the assessment date, but which was used for the purpose of a homestead by June 1 of a year, constitutes class 1 or class 2a.

Any taxpayer meeting the requirements of this subdivision must notify the county assessor, or the assessor who has the powers of the county assessor ~~pursuant to~~ under section 273.063, in writing, prior to June 15 of the year of occupancy in order to qualify under this subdivision. The assessor must not deny full homestead treatment to a property that is partially homesteaded on January 2 but occupied for the purpose of a full homestead by June 1 of a year.

The county assessor and the county auditor may make the necessary changes on their assessment and tax records to provide for proper homestead classification as provided in this subdivision.

The owner of any property qualifying under this subdivision, which has not been accorded the benefits of this subdivision, ~~regardless of whether or not the notification has been timely filed,~~ may be entitled to receive homestead classification by proper application as provided in section ~~270.07 or~~ 375.192 provided that a request is made by the owner of the property to the county assessor of the county in which the property is located by December 15. If homestead classification has not been requested as of December 15, the assessor will classify the property as nonhomestead for the current assessment year for taxes payable in the following year.

The county assessor shall publish in a newspaper of general circulation within the county no later than June 1 of each year a notice informing the public of the requirement to file an application for homestead prior to June 15.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 273.124, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [~~SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER REQUIRED FOR~~ HOMESTEAD APPLICATION.] On or before January 2, 1993, each county assessor shall mail a homestead application to the owner of each parcel of property within the county which was classified as homestead for the 1992 assessment year. The format and contents of a uniform homestead application shall be prescribed by the commissioner of revenue. The commissioner shall consult with the chairs of the house and senate tax committees on the contents of the homestead application form. The application must clearly inform the taxpayer that this application must be signed by all owners of the property and returned to the county assessor in order for the property to continue receiving homestead treatment. The envelope containing the homestead application shall clearly identify its contents and alert the taxpayer of its necessary immediate response.

Every property owner applying for homestead classification must furnish to the county assessor ~~that owner's~~ the social security number of each person who is listed as an owner of the property listed on the homestead application. If the social security number is not provided, the county assessor shall classify the property as nonhomestead. The social security numbers of the property owners are private data on individuals as defined by section 13.02, subdivision 12, but, notwithstanding that section, the private data may be disclosed to the commissioner of revenue.

If residential real estate is occupied and used for purposes of a homestead by a relative of the owner and qualifies for a homestead under section 273.124, subdivision 1, paragraph (c), in order for the property to receive homestead status, the social security number of the relative occupying the property and the social security number of each owner of the property shall be required on the homestead application filed under this subdivision. If a different relative of the owner subsequently occupies the property, the owner of the property must notify the assessor within 30 days of the change in occupancy.

The homestead application shall also notify the property owners that the application filed under this section will not be mailed annually and that if the property is granted homestead status for the 1993 assessment, that same property shall remain classified as homestead until the property is sold or transferred to another person, or the owners or the relatives no longer use the property as their homestead. Upon the sale or transfer of the homestead property, a certificate of value must be timely filed with the county auditor as provided under section 272.115. Failure to notify the county within 30 days that the property has been sold, transferred, or that the owner or the relative is no longer occupying the property as a homestead, shall result in the penalty provided under this subdivision and the property will lose its current homestead status.

If the initial homestead application is not returned within 30 days, the county will send a second application to the present owners of record. The notice of proposed property taxes prepared under section 275.065, subdivision 3, shall reflect the property's classification. If a homestead application has not been filed with the county by December 15, the property will be classified as nonhomestead for the current assessment year for taxes payable in the following year.

At the request of the commissioner, each county must give the commissioner a list that includes the name and social security number of each property owner applying for homestead classification under this subdivision.

If, in comparing the lists supplied by the counties, the commissioner finds that a property owner is claiming more than one homestead, the commissioner shall notify the appropriate counties. Within 90 days of the notification, the county assessor shall investigate to determine if the homestead classification was properly claimed. If the property owner does not qualify, the county assessor shall notify the county auditor who will determine the amount of homestead benefits that had been improperly allowed. For the purpose of this section, "homestead benefits" means the tax reduction resulting from the classification as a homestead under section 273.13, the taconite homestead credit under section 273.135, and the supplemental homestead credit under section 273.1391. The county auditor shall send a notice to the owners of the affected property, demanding reimbursement of the homestead benefits plus a penalty equal to ~~50~~ 100 percent of the homestead benefits. The property owners may appeal the county's determination by filing a notice of appeal with the Minnesota tax court within 60 days of the date of the notice from the county.

If the amount of homestead benefits and penalty is not paid within 60 days, and if no appeal has been filed, the county auditor shall certify the amount of taxes and penalty to the succeeding year's tax list to be collected as part of the property taxes.

Any amount of homestead benefits recovered by the county from the property owner ~~must be transmitted to the commissioner by the end of each calendar quarter~~ shall be distributed to the county, city or town, and school district where the property is located in the same proportion that each taxing district's levy was to the total of the three taxing districts' levy for the current year. Any amount recovered attributable to taconite homestead credit shall be transmitted to the St. Louis county auditor to be deposited in the taconite property tax relief account. The total amount of penalty collected must be deposited in the county general fund.

~~The commissioner will provide suggested homestead applications to each county.~~ If a property owner has applied for more than one homestead and the county assessors cannot determine which property should be classified as homestead, the county assessors will refer the information to the commissioner. The commissioner shall make the determination and notify the counties within 60 days.

In addition to lists of homestead properties, the commissioner may ask the counties to furnish lists of all properties and the record owners.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 273.13, subdivision 22, is amended to read:

Subd. 22. [CLASS 1.] (a) Except as provided in subdivision 23, real estate which is residential and used for homestead purposes is class 1. The market value of class 1a property must be determined based upon the value of the house, garage, and land.

The first $72,000 of market value of class 1a property has a net class rate of one percent of its market value and a gross class rate of 2.17 percent of its market value. For taxes payable in 1992, the market value of class 1a property that exceeds $72,000 but does not exceed $115,000 has a class rate of two percent of its market value; and the market value of class 1a property that exceeds $115,000 has a class rate of 2.5 percent of its market value. For taxes payable in 1993 and thereafter, the market value of class 1a property that exceeds $72,000 has a class rate of two percent.

(b) Class 1b property includes real estate or manufactured homes used for the purposes of a homestead by

(1) any blind person, if the blind person is the owner thereof or if the blind person and the blind person's spouse are the sole owners thereof; or

(2) any person, hereinafter referred to as "veteran," who:

(i) served in the active military or naval service of the United States; and

(ii) is entitled to compensation under the laws and regulations of the United States for permanent and total service-connected disability due to the loss, or loss of use, by reason of amputation, ankylosis, progressive muscular dystrophies, or paralysis, of both lower extremities, such as to preclude motion without the aid of braces, crutches, canes, or a wheelchair; and

(iii) has acquired a special housing unit with special fixtures or movable facilities made necessary by the nature of the veteran's disability, or the surviving spouse of the deceased veteran for as long as the surviving spouse retains the special housing unit as a homestead; or

(3) any person who:

(i) is permanently and totally disabled and

(ii) receives 90 percent or more of total income from

(A) aid from any state as a result of that disability; or

(B) supplemental security income for the disabled; or

(C) workers' compensation based on a finding of total and permanent disability; or

(D) social security disability, including the amount of a disability insurance benefit which is converted to an old age insurance benefit and any subsequent cost of living increases; or

(E) aid under the Federal Railroad Retirement Act of 1937, United States Code Annotated, title 45, section 228b(a)5; or

(F) a pension from any local government retirement fund located in the state of Minnesota as a result of that disability; or

(4) any person who is permanently and totally disabled and whose household income as defined in section 290A.03, subdivision 5, is 150 percent or less of the federal poverty level.

Property is classified and assessed under clause (4) only if the government agency or income-providing source certifies, upon the request of the property owner, that the property owner satisfies the disability requirements of this subdivision.

Property is classified and assessed pursuant to clause (1) only if the commissioner of jobs and training certifies to the assessor that the owner of the property satisfies the requirements of this subdivision.

Permanently and totally disabled for the purpose of this subdivision means a condition which is permanent in nature and totally incapacitates the person from working at an occupation which brings the person an income. The first $32,000 market value of class 1b property has a net class rate of .45 percent of its market value and a gross class rate of .87 percent of its market value. The remaining market value of class 1b property has a gross or net class rate using the rates for class 1 or class 2a property, whichever is appropriate, of similar market value.

(c) Class 1c property is commercial use real property that abuts a lakeshore line and is devoted to temporary and seasonal residential occupancy for recreational purposes but not devoted to commercial purposes for more than ~~225~~ 250 days in the year preceding the year of assessment, and that includes a portion used as a homestead by the owner, which includes a dwelling occupied as a homestead by a shareholder of a corporation that owns the resort or a partner in a partnership that owns the resort, even if the title to the homestead is held by the corporation or partnership. For purposes of this clause, property is devoted to a commercial purpose on a specific day if any portion of the property, excluding the portion used exclusively as a homestead, is used ~~or available for use~~ for residential occupancy and a fee is charged for residential occupancy. Class 1c property has a class rate of ~~.8 percent of the first $32,000 of market value and one percent of market value in excess of $32,000 for taxes payable in 1992, and~~ one percent of total market value ~~for taxes payable in 1993 and thereafter~~, with the following limitation: the area of the property must not exceed 100 feet of lakeshore footage for each cabin or campsite located on the property up to a total of 800 feet and 500 feet in depth, measured away from the lakeshore. The remainder of class 1c has a class rate of 2.3 percent of market value.

Class 1c also includes any commercial use real property used exclusively for recreational purposes in conjunction with class 1c property devoted to temporary and seasonal residential occupancy for recreational purposes, up to a total of two acres, provided the property is not devoted to commercial recreational use for more than 250 days in the year preceding the year of assessment and is located within two miles of the class 1c property with which it is used.

For property to qualify as class 1c, on or before January 15, the owner of the resort property must annually submit a written certification to the county assessor of the county in which the resort property is located. The certification must verify that all of the residential units were used in the previous calendar year for less than 250 days. At the assessor's request, the property owner's records must be made available to the assessor for purposes of auditing and verifying the information contained on the property owner's certification.

(d) Class 1d is commercial use real property that abuts a lakeshore line, a portion or all of which was used for more than 250 days in the year preceding the year of assessment as a commercial resort, and that includes a portion of the property used as a homestead. The homestead portion of the property must be occupied by the owner or include a dwelling occupied as a homestead by a shareholder of a corporation that owns the resort or a partner in a partnership that owns the resort, even if the title to the homestead is held by the corporation or partnership.

For purposes of paragraph (c) and this paragraph, and subdivision 24, paragraph (c), "resort" has the meaning defined in section 157.01, subdivision 1. To qualify as a resort, the property must be licensed as a resort as of the current assessment date under chapter 157 and the property must either (i) have been licensed to do business as a resort under chapter 157 on December 31, 1991, and a portion or all of the property was classified as seasonal residential recreational property for the January 1991 assessment, or (ii) if the initial license to do business as a resort is granted to the property under chapter 157 after December 31, 1991, the property must be located in an unincorporated area and on, or neighboring, a lake, stream, or river. If the initial license was granted to the property under chapter 157 prior to December 31, 1991, and the property subsequently sold, the property continues to qualify as a resort provided that the use of the property has not changed. A "recreational camping area" as defined in section 327.14 and licensed under section 327.15 as a recreational camping area is included in the definition of resort.

Class 1d shall be valued and assessed according to the following class rates:

(1) one percent of the market value of land up to a maximum of 800 feet and 500 feet in depth, measured away from the lakeshore, including the residential structures on that area of land, provided that the area of the property must not exceed 100 feet of lakeshore footage for each cabin or campsite located on the property, except that if any of those residential structures were used in the previous assessment year for more than 250 days, 32 percent of the market value of those residential structures and a proportionate share of land shall be assessed using the lowest class rate for class 3a property;

(2) except as provided in clause (1), 32 percent of the market value of all residential structures and a proportionate share of land used in the previous assessment year for more than 250 days shall be assessed using the lowest class rate for class 3a property, and the remaining 68 percent of the market value of the residential structures and a proportionate share of land used in the previous assessment year for more than 250 days shall be assessed at 2.3 percent; and

(3) 2.3 percent of the market value of: (i) the residential structures used in the previous assessment year for less than 250 days other than the value of the residential structures assessed under clause (1); (ii) the land, excluding that portion of land contained in clauses (1) and (2); and (iii) the commercial use real property used exclusively for recreational purposes in conjunction with the class 1d property, provided that it is located within two miles of the class 1d residential property with which it is used.

For property to qualify as class 1d, on or before January 15, the owner of the resort property must annually submit a written certification to the county assessor of the county in which the resort property is located. The certification must identify the number of residential units and the specific units which were used in the previous calendar year for more than 250 days. The commissioner of revenue shall design the necessary form. The form may require whatever information from the property owner that the commissioner determines is necessary for its administration. The form is exempt from the administrative procedures under chapter 14. At the assessor's request, the property owner's records must be made available to the assessor for purposes of auditing and verifying the information contained on the property owner's certification.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 273.13, subdivision 24, is amended to read:

Subd. 24. [CLASS 3.] (a) Commercial and industrial property and utility real and personal property, except class 5 property as identified in subdivision 31, clause (1), is class 3a. It has a class rate of 3.3 percent of the first $100,000 of market value for taxes payable in 1990, 3.2 percent for taxes payable in 1991, 3.1 percent for taxes payable in 1992, and three percent for taxes payable in 1993 and thereafter, and 5.06 percent of the market value over $100,000. In the case of state-assessed commercial, industrial, and utility property owned by one person or entity, only one parcel has a reduced class rate on the first $100,000 of market value. In the case of other commercial, industrial, and utility property owned by one person or entity, only one parcel in each county has a reduced class rate on the first $100,000 of market value.

(b) Employment property defined in section 469.166, during the period provided in section 469.170, shall constitute class 3b and has a class rate of 2.3 percent of the first $50,000 of market value and 3.6 percent of the remainder, except that for employment property located in a border city enterprise zone designated pursuant to section 469.168, subdivision 4, paragraph (c), the class rate of the first $100,000 of market value and the class rate of the remainder is determined under paragraph (a), unless the governing body of the city designated as an enterprise zone determines that a specific parcel shall be assessed pursuant to the first clause of this sentence. The governing body may provide for assessment under the first clause of the preceding sentence only for property which is located in an area which has been designated by the governing body for the receipt of tax reductions authorized by section 469.171, subdivision 1.

(c) Class 3c is commercial use real property that is used as a commercial resort, other than resort property classified as class 1c or 1d. For purposes of this paragraph, the definition and the qualifications of "resort" property are the same as provided in subdivision 22, paragraph (d). For property to qualify as class 3c, the owner of the resort must annually submit a written certification to the county assessor as provided in subdivision 22, paragraph (d). Class 3c shall be valued and assessed according to the following class rates:

(1) 32 percent of the market value of all residential structures and a proportionate share of land used in the previous assessment year for more than 250 days shall be assessed using the lowest class rate for class 3a property, and the remaining 68 percent of the market value of the residential structures and a proportionate share of land used in the previous assessment year for more than 250 days shall be assessed at 2.3 percent; and

(2) 2.3 percent of the market value of: (i) the land and the residential structures used in the year preceding the year of assessment for less than 250 days; (ii) the land, excluding that portion of land contained in clause (1); and (iii) the commercial use real property used exclusively for recreational purposes in conjunction with the class 3c property, provided that it is located within two miles of the class 3c residential property with which it is used.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 273.13, subdivision 25, as amended by Laws 1992, chapter 363, article 1, section 12, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subd. 25. [CLASS 4.] (a) Class 4a is residential real estate containing four or more units and used or held for use by the owner or by the tenants or lessees of the owner as a residence for rental periods of 30 days or more. Class 4a also includes hospitals licensed under sections 144.50 to 144.56, other than hospitals exempt under section 272.02, and contiguous property used for hospital purposes, without regard to whether the property has been platted or subdivided. Class 4a property has a class rate of 3.5 percent of market value for taxes payable in 1992, and 3.4 percent of market value for taxes payable in 1993 and thereafter.

(b) Class 4b includes:

(1) residential real estate containing less than four units, other than seasonal residential, and recreational;

(2) manufactured homes not classified under any other provision;

(3) a dwelling, garage, and surrounding one acre of property on a nonhomestead farm classified under subdivision 23, paragraph (b).

Class 4b property has a class rate of 2.8 percent of market value for taxes payable in 1992, 2.5 percent of market value for taxes payable in 1993, and 2.3 percent of market value for taxes payable in 1994 and thereafter.

(c) Class 4c property includes:

(1) a structure that is:

(i) situated on real property that is used for housing for the elderly or for low- and moderate-income families as defined in Title II, as amended through December 31, 1990, of the National Housing Act and financed by a direct federal loan or federally insured loan made pursuant to Title II of the act; or

(ii) situated on real property that is used for housing the elderly or for low- and moderate-income families as defined by the Minnesota housing finance agency law of 1971, as amended, or rules adopted by the agency pursuant thereto and financed by a loan made by the Minnesota housing finance agency pursuant to the provisions of the act.

This clause applies only to property of a nonprofit or limited dividend entity. Property is classified as class 4c under this clause for 15 years from the date of the completion of the original construction or substantial rehabilitation, or for the original term of the loan.

(2) a structure that is:

(i) situated upon real property that is used for housing lower income families or elderly or handicapped persons, as defined in section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937, as amended; and

(ii) owned by an entity which has entered into a housing assistance payments contract under section 8 which provides assistance for 100 percent of the dwelling units in the structure, other than dwelling units intended for management or maintenance personnel. Property is classified as class 4c under this clause for the term of the housing assistance payments contract, including all renewals, or for the term of its permanent financing, whichever is shorter; and

(3) a qualified low-income building as defined in section 42(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1990, that (i) receives a low-income housing credit under section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1990; or (ii) meets the requirements of that section and receives public financing, except financing provided under sections 469.174 to 469.179, which contains terms restricting the rents; or (iii) meets the requirements of section 273.1317. Classification pursuant to this clause is limited to a term of 15 years.

For all properties described in clauses (1), (2), and (3) and in paragraph (d), the market value determined by the assessor must be based on the normal approach to value using normal unrestricted rents unless the owner of the property elects to have the property assessed under Laws 1991, chapter 291, article 1, section 55. If the owner of the property elects to have the market value determined on the basis of the actual restricted rents, as provided in Laws 1991, chapter 291, article 1, section 55, the property will be assessed at the rate provided for class 4a or class 4b property, as appropriate. Properties described in clauses (1)(ii), (3), and (4) may apply to the assessor for valuation under Laws 1991, chapter 291, article 1, section 55. The land on which these structures are situated has the class rate given in paragraph (b) if the structure contains fewer than four units, and the class rate given in paragraph (a) if the structure contains four or more units. This clause applies only to the property of a nonprofit or limited dividend entity.

(4) a parcel of land, not to exceed one acre, and its improvements or a parcel of unimproved land, not to exceed one acre, if it is owned by a neighborhood real estate trust and at least 60 percent of the dwelling units, if any, on all land owned by the trust are leased to or occupied by lower income families or individuals. This clause does not apply to any portion of the land or improvements used for nonresidential purposes. (5) ~~except as provided in subdivision 22, paragraph (c),~~ real property devoted to temporary and seasonal residential occupancy for recreation purposes~~, including real property devoted to temporary and seasonal residential occupancy for recreation purposes and not devoted to commercial purposes for more than 250 days in the year preceding the year of assessment. For purposes of this clause, property is devoted to a commercial purpose on a specific day if any portion of the property is used, or available for use for residential occupancy, and a fee is charged for residential occupancy. Class 4c also includes commercial use real property used exclusively for recreational purposes in conjunction with class 4c property devoted to temporary and seasonal residential occupancy for recreational purposes, up to a total of two acres, provided the property is not devoted to commercial recreational use for more than 250 days in the year preceding the year of assessment and is located within two miles of the class 4c property with which it is used. Class 4c property classified in this clause also includes the remainder of class 1c resorts~~;

(6) real property up to a maximum of one acre of land owned by a nonprofit community service oriented organization; provided that the property is not used for a revenue-producing activity for more than six days in the calendar year preceding the year of assessment and the property is not used for residential purposes on either a temporary or permanent basis. For purposes of this clause, a "nonprofit community service oriented organization" means any corporation, society, association, foundation, or institution organized and operated exclusively for charitable, religious, fraternal, civic, or educational purposes, and which is exempt from federal income taxation pursuant to section 501(c)(3), (10), or (19) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1990. For purposes of this clause, "revenue-producing activities" shall include but not be limited to property or that portion of the property that is used as an on-sale intoxicating liquor or nonintoxicating malt liquor establishment licensed under chapter 340A, a restaurant open to the public, bowling alley, a retail store, gambling conducted by organizations licensed under chapter 349, an insurance business, or office or other space leased or rented to a lessee who conducts a for-profit enterprise on the premises. Any portion of the property which is used for revenue-producing activities for more than six days in the calendar year preceding the year of assessment shall be assessed as class 3a. The use of the property for social events open exclusively to members and their guests for periods of less than 24 hours, when an admission is not charged nor any revenues are received by the organization shall not be considered a revenue-producing activity;

(8) manufactured home parks as defined in section 327.14, subdivision 3.

Class 4c property has a class rate of 2.3 percent of market value, except that seasonal residential recreational property ~~not used for commercial purposes~~ under clause (5) has a class rate of 2.2 percent of market value for taxes payable in 1992, and for taxes payable in 1993 and thereafter, the first $72,000 of market value has a class rate of two percent and the market value that exceeds $72,000 has a class rate of 2.5 percent.

(d) Class 4d property includes:

(1) a structure that is:

(i) situated on real property that is used for housing for the elderly or for low and moderate income families as defined by the Farmers Home Administration;

(ii) located in a municipality of less than 10,000 population; and

(iii) financed by a direct loan or insured loan from the Farmers Home Administration. Property is classified under this clause for 15 years from the date of the completion of the original construction or for the original term of the loan.

The class rates in paragraph (c), clauses (1), (2), and (3) and this clause apply to the properties described in them, only in proportion to occupancy of the structure by elderly or handicapped persons or low and moderate income families as defined in the applicable laws unless construction of the structure had been commenced prior to January 1, 1984; or the project had been approved by the governing body of the municipality in which it is located prior to June 30, 1983; or financing of the project had been approved by a federal or state agency prior to June 30, 1983. Classification under this clause is only available to property of a nonprofit or limited dividend entity.

family or duplex housing. The lease agreement must provide for a portion of the lease payment to be escrowed as a nonrefundable down payment on the housing. To qualify under this clause, the taxpayer must apply to the county assessor by May 30 of each year. The application must be accompanied by an affidavit or other proof required by the assessor to determine qualification under this clause.

~~(3) For taxes payable in 1992, 1993 and 1994, only, federally acquired buildings under four units and appurtenances, together with the land upon which they are located that is leased to a nonprofit corporation organized under chapter 317A that qualifies for tax exempt status under United States Code, title 26, section 501(c), or a housing and redevelopment authority authorized under sections 469.001 to 469.047; the purpose of the lease must be to allow the nonprofit corporation to provide transitional housing for homeless persons under the program established in Code of Federal Regulations, title 55, section 49489. As used in this clause, "transitional housing" has the meaning given in section 268.38, subdivision 1, except that the two-year restriction does not apply. If the property is purchased from the federal government by the nonprofit corporation for the purpose of continuing to provide transitional housing after the expiration of the lease, the property shall continue to be eligible for this classification. To qualify under this clause, the taxpayer must apply to the county assessor by May 30 of each year. The application must be accompanied by an affidavit or other proof required by the county assessor to determine qualification under this clause. Property qualifying under this clause in 1992, 1993, or 1994 continues to receive a two percent class rate until the five-year lease has expired provided that the property continues to be used for the purposes as described in this clause.~~

(3) Qualifying buildings and appurtenances, together with the land upon which they are located, leased for a period of up to five years by the occupant under a lease-purchase program administered by the Minnesota housing finance agency or a housing and redevelopment authority authorized under sections 469.001 to 469.047, provided the occupant's income is no greater than 80 percent of the county or area median income, adjusted for family size and the building consists of two or less dwelling units. The lease agreement must provide for a portion of the lease payment to be escrowed as a nonrefundable down payment on the housing. The administering agency shall verify the occupant's income eligibility and certify to the county assessor that the occupant meets the income criteria under this clause. To qualify under this clause, the taxpayer must apply to the county assessor by May 30 of each year. For purposes of this clause, "qualifying buildings and appurtenances" shall be defined as one or two unit residential buildings which are unoccupied and have been abandoned and boarded for at least six months.

Class 4d property has a class rate of two percent of market value.

(e) Residential rental property that would otherwise be assessed as class 4 property under paragraph (a); paragraph (b), clauses (1) and (3); paragraph (c), clause (1), (2), (3), or (4), is assessed at the class rate applicable to it under Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.13, if it is found to be a substandard building under section 273.1316. Residential rental property that would otherwise be assessed as class 4 property under paragraph (d) is assessed at 2.3 percent of market value if it is found to be a substandard building under section 273.1316.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 273.13, subdivision 32, is amended to read:

Subd. 32. [TARGET CLASS RATE.] All classes of property with a class rate of 5.06 percent have a target class rate of four percent. At the time of submission of the biennial budget under section 16A.11, the governor shall recommend the effective class rate for taxes payable in the following two calendar years by designating a "phase-in percentage," equal to the proportion of the effective class rate that will be based on the target class rate of four percent, with the remaining proportion based on the class rate of 5.06 percent. The governor shall identify and include within the budget funding for the increased expenditures for homestead and agricultural credit aid over the amount of expenditures for homestead and agricultural credit aid provided in Laws 1989, First Special Session chapter 1, that are estimated to result from the recommendation. At that time, the governor may propose alternative programs other than homestead and agricultural credit aid to prevent other taxpayers' taxes from increasing as a result of the governor's recommended increase in the phase-in percentage. The effective net class rate is the sum of the products of:

(1) the phase-in percentage adopted by the legislature multiplied by four percent; and

(2) 100 percent minus the phase-in percentage multiplied by 5.06 percent.

The phase-in percentage in any year cannot be less than it was in the prior year. The phase-in percentage is ten percent for taxes payable in 1991, 29.2 percent for taxes payable in 1992 and 1993, 34.0 percent for taxes payable in ~~1993~~ 1994, and 43.4 percent for taxes payable in ~~1994~~ 1995 and thereafter.

Beginning in 1991, the commissioner of revenue shall annually set the effective class rate to use for taxes payable in the following year as provided in this subdivision and announce it by June 1. For purposes of any aid, levy limitation, debt limit, or salary limitation, and property tax administration, net tax capacity must be computed with reference to the effective class rate for the properties affected by this subdivision.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 274.19, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [MANUFACTURED HOMES; SECTIONAL STRUCTURES.] (a) In this section, "manufactured home" means a structure transportable in one or more sections, which is built on a permanent chassis, and designed to be used as a dwelling with or without a permanent foundation when connected to the required utilities, and contains the plumbing, heating, air conditioning, and electrical systems in it. "Manufactured home" includes any accessory structure that is an addition or supplement to the manufactured home and, when installed, becomes a part of the manufactured home.

(b) A manufactured home that meets each of the following criteria must be valued and assessed as an improvement to real property, the appropriate real property classification applies, and the valuation is subject to review and the taxes payable in the manner provided for real property:

(1) the owner of the unit holds title to the land on which it is situated;

(2) the unit is affixed to the land by a permanent foundation or is installed at its location in accordance with the manufactured home building code in sections 327.31 to 327.34, and rules adopted under those sections, or is affixed to the land like other real property in the taxing district; and

(3) the unit is connected to public utilities, has a well and septic tank system, or is serviced by water and sewer facilities comparable to other real property in the taxing district.

(c) A manufactured home that meets each of the following criteria must be assessed at the rate provided by the appropriate real property classification but must be treated as personal property, and the valuation is subject to review and the taxes payable in the manner provided in this section:

(1) the owner of the unit is a lessee of the land under the terms of a lease;

(2) the unit is affixed to the land by a permanent foundation or is installed at its location in accordance with the manufactured homes building code contained in sections 327.31 to 327.34, and the rules adopted under those sections, or is affixed to the land like other real property in the taxing district; and

(3) the unit is connected to public utilities, has a well and septic tank system, or is serviced by water and sewer facilities comparable to other real property in the taxing district.

(d) Sectional structures must be valued and assessed as an improvement to real property if the owner of the structure holds title to the land on which it is located or is a qualifying lessee of the land under section 273.19. In this paragraph "sectional structure" means a building or structural unit that has been in whole or substantial part manufactured or constructed at an off-site location to be wholly or partially assembled on-site alone or with other units and attached to a permanent foundation.

(e) The commissioner of revenue may adopt rules under the administrative procedure act to establish additional criteria for the classification of manufactured homes and sectional structures under this subdivision.

(f) A storage shed, deck, or similar improvement constructed on property that is leased or rented as a site for a manufactured home, sectional structure, park trailer, or travel trailer is taxable as provided in this section. The property is taxable as personal property to the lessee of the site if it is not owned by the owner of the site. The property is taxable as real estate if it is owned by the owner of the site. As a condition of permitting the owner of the manufactured home, sectional structure, park trailer, or travel trailer to construct improvements on the leased or rented site, the owner of the site must obtain the permanent home address of the lessee or user of the site. The site owner must provide the name and address to the assessor upon request.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 275.065, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [NOTICE OF PROPOSED PROPERTY TAXES.] (a) The county auditor shall prepare and the county treasurer shall deliver on or before November 10 each year, by first class mail to each taxpayer at the address listed on the county's current year's assessment roll, a notice of proposed property taxes and, in the case of a town, final property taxes.

(b) The commissioner of revenue shall prescribe the form of the notice.

(c) The notice must inform taxpayers that it contains the amount of property taxes each taxing authority other than a town proposes to collect for taxes payable the following year as required in paragraph (d) or (e) and, for a town, the amount of its final levy. It must clearly state that each taxing authority, other than a town or special taxing district, will hold a public meeting to receive public testimony on the proposed budget and proposed or final property tax levy, or, in case of a school district, on the current budget and proposed property tax levy. It must clearly state the time and place of each taxing authority's meeting and an address where comments will be received by mail.

(d) Except as provided in paragraph (e), for taxes levied in 1990 and 1991, the notice must state by county, city or town, and school district:

(1) the total proposed or, for a town, final property tax levy for taxes payable the following year after reduction for state aid;

(2) the percentage increase or decrease from the actual property tax levy for taxes payable in the current year; and

(3) for counties, cities, and towns, the increase or decrease in population from the second previous calendar year to the immediately prior calendar year, and for school districts, the increase or decrease in the number of pupils in average daily membership from the current school year to the immediately following school year as determined by the commissioner of education. The data used to determine the increase or decrease in population under this clause must be the data used for purposes of the population adjustment to the levy limit base of the county, city, or town under section 275.51, subdivision 6.

For notices which are not parcel-specific, the notice must also state a total percentage increase or decrease in the proposed levy, relative to the actual property tax levy for taxes payable in the current year for the county, city or town, and school district. The county auditor shall compute the total percentage increase or decrease as an average percentage change weighted in proportion to each taxing jurisdiction's proportion of the total levy.

For purposes of this paragraph, "proposed property taxes after reduction for state aid" means the taxing authority's levy certified under section 275.07, subdivision 1.

(e) In the case of a county containing a city of the first class, or taxing authority lying wholly within a county or counties containing a city of the first class, for taxes levied in 1991, and thereafter, and for all counties for taxes levied in 1992 and thereafter, the notice must state for each parcel:

(1) the market value of the property as defined under section 272.03, subdivision 8, for property taxes payable in the following year and for taxes payable the current year; and, in the case of residential property, whether the property is classified as homestead or nonhomestead;

(2) by county, city or town, school district, the sum of the special

(5) any additional amount levied in lieu of a local sales and use tax, unless this amount is included in the proposed or final taxes.

(g) Except as provided in subdivision 7, failure of the county auditor to prepare or the county treasurer to deliver the notice as required in this section does not invalidate the proposed or final tax levy or the taxes payable pursuant to the tax levy.

(h) If the notice the taxpayer receives under this section lists the property as nonhomestead and the homeowner provides satisfactory documentation to the county assessor that the property is owned and has been used as the owner's homestead prior to June 1 of that year, the assessor shall reclassify the property to homestead for taxes payable in the following year.

Subd. 6. [PUBLIC HEARING; ADOPTION OF BUDGET AND LEVY.] ~~Between November 15 and December 20,~~ The governing bodies of the city and county shall each hold a public hearing to adopt its final budget and property tax levy for taxes payable in the following year, and the governing body of the school district shall hold a public hearing to review its current budget and adopt its property tax levy for taxes payable in the following year.

The governing bodies of the counties shall hold the hearings on the first Tuesday in December of each year. The governing bodies of the cities shall hold the hearings the first Wednesday in December of each year. The governing bodies of the school districts shall hold the hearings on the first Thursday in December of each year. The hearing must be held after 5:00 p.m. In the case of a city or school district, hearing dates in addition to the date required in this paragraph may be set by a city or school district if (1) a single administrator has jurisdiction in more than one city or school district; (2) the date set does not conflict with the dates required in this paragraph for another local unit of government; (3) the hearing is held between December 1 and December 15; and (4) the date has been approved by the county auditor.

At the hearing, the taxing authority, other than a school district, may amend the proposed budget and property tax levy and must adopt a final budget and property tax levy, and the school district may amend the proposed property tax levy and must adopt a final property tax levy.

The property tax levy certified under section 275.07 by a city, county, or school district must not exceed the proposed levy determined under subdivision 1, except by an amount up to the sum of the following amounts:

(1) the amount of a school district levy whose voters approved a referendum to increase taxes under section 124.82, subdivision 3,

(6) the amount of an increase in levy limits certified to the taxing authority by the commissioner of revenue or the commissioner of education after the proposed levy was certified; and

(7) if not included in the certified levy, any additional amount levied pursuant to section 275.51, subdivision 7, paragraph (b).

At the hearing the percentage increase in property taxes proposed by the taxing authority, if any, and the specific purposes for which property tax revenues are being increased must be discussed. During the discussion, the governing body shall hear comments regarding a proposed increase and explain the reasons for the proposed increase. The public shall be allowed to speak and to ask questions prior to adoption of any measures by the governing body. The governing body, other than the governing body of a school district, shall adopt its final property tax levy prior to adopting its final budget.

If the hearing is not completed on its scheduled date, the taxing authority must announce, prior to adjournment of the hearing, the date, time, and place for the continuation of the hearing. If a school board does not certify the dates by August 15, the auditor will assign the hearing date. The dates elected or assigned must not conflict with the county hearing dates. By August 20, the county auditor shall notify the clerks of the cities within the county of the dates on which the county and school districts have elected to hold their hearings. At the time a city certifies its proposed levy under subdivision 1 it shall certify the dates on which it elects to hold its hearings and any continuations under subdivision 3. The city must not select dates that conflict with those elected by or assigned to the counties and school districts in which the city is located.~~

The hearing dates ~~so elected or assigned~~ must be designated on the notices required under subdivision 3.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 275.125, subdivision 6j, is amended to read:

Subd. 6j. [LEVY FOR CRIME RELATED COSTS.] For taxes levied in 1991 and subsequent years, payable in 1992 ~~only~~ and subsequent years, each school district may make a levy on all taxable property located within the school district for the purposes specified in this subdivision. The maximum amount which may be levied for all costs under this subdivision shall be equal to $1 multiplied by the population of the school district. For purposes of this subdivision, "population" of the school district means the same as contained in section 275.14. The proceeds of the levy must be used for reimbursing the cities and counties who contract with the school district for the following purposes: (1) to pay the costs incurred for the salaries, benefits, and transportation costs of peace officers and sheriffs for liaison services in the district's middle and secondary schools, and (2) to ~~teach drug abuse resistance education curricula~~ pay the costs for a drug abuse prevention program as defined in Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 609.101, subdivision 3, paragraph (f), in the elementary schools~~, and (3) to pay the costs incurred for the salaries and benefits of peace officers and sheriffs whose primary responsibilities are to investigate controlled substance crimes under chapter 152~~. The school district must initially attempt to contract for these services with the police department of each city or the sheriff's department of the county within the school district containing the school receiving the services. If a local police department or a county sheriff's department does not wish to provide the necessary services, the district may contract for these services with any other police or sheriff's department located entirely or partially within the school district's boundaries. The levy authorized under this subdivision is not included in determining the school district's levy limitations and must be disregarded in computing any overall levy limitations under sections 275.50 to 275.56 of the participating cities or counties.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 276.04, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CONTENTS OF TAX STATEMENTS.] (a) The treasurer shall provide for the printing of the tax statements. The commissioner of revenue shall prescribe the form of the property tax statement and its contents. The statement must contain a tabulated statement of the dollar amount due to each taxing authority from the parcel of real property for which a particular tax statement is prepared. The dollar amounts due the county, township or municipality and school district must be separately stated. The amounts due other taxing districts, if any, may be aggregated. The dollar amounts, including the dollar amount of any special assessments, may be rounded to the nearest even whole dollar. For purposes of this section whole odd-numbered dollars may be adjusted to the next higher even-numbered dollar. The statement shall include the following sentence, printed in upper case letters in boldface print: "THE STATE OF MINNESOTA DOES NOT RECEIVE ANY PROPERTY TAX REVENUES. THE STATE OF MINNESOTA REDUCES YOUR PROPERTY TAX BY PAYING CREDITS AND REIMBURSEMENTS TO LOCAL UNITS OF GOVERNMENT."

(b) The property tax statements for manufactured homes and sectional structures taxed as personal property shall contain the same information that is required on the tax statements for real property.

(c) Real and personal property tax statements must contain the following information in the order given in this paragraph. The information must contain the current year tax information in the right column with the corresponding information for the previous year in a column on the left:

(1) the property's estimated market value as defined in section 272.03, subdivision 8;

(2) the property's gross tax, calculated by multiplying the property's gross tax capacity times the total local tax rate and adding to the result the sum of the aids enumerated in clause (3);

(3) a total of the following aids:

(i) education aids payable under chapters 124 and 124A;

(ii) local government aids for cities, towns, and counties under chapter 477A; and

(iii) disparity reduction aid under section 273.1398;

(4) for homestead residential and agricultural properties, the homestead and agricultural credit aid apportioned to the property. This amount is obtained by ~~multiplying~~ apportioning the total ~~local tax rate by~~ homestead and agricultural credit aid under section 273.1398, subdivision 2, to all property types which qualified for either homestead or agricultural credit for taxes payable in 1989, based upon the difference between the property's gross and net tax capacities under section 273.13. This amount must be separately stated and identified as "homestead and agricultural credit." ~~For purposes of comparison with the previou~~ year's ~~amount for the statement for taxes payable in 1990, the statement must show the homestead credit for taxes payable in 1989 under section 273.13, and the agricultural credit under section 273.132 for taxes payable in 1989~~ The 1993 tax statement shall indicate that the amount for this clause which was shown on the 1992 tax statement for taxes payable in 1992 may be different than the payable 1992 amount shown on the 1993 statement due to a change in the way the credit is calculated;

(5) any credits received under sections 273.119; 273.123; 273.135; 273.1391; 273.1398, subdivision 4; 469.171; and 473H.10, except that the amount of credit received under section 273.135 must be separately stated and identified as "taconite tax relief";

(6) the net tax payable in the manner required in paragraph (a); and

(7) any additional amount of tax authorized under sections 124A.03, subdivision 2a, and 275.61. These amounts shall be listed as "voter approved referenda levies."

The commissioner of revenue shall certify to the county auditor the actual or estimated aids enumerated in clauses (3) and (4) that local governments will receive in the following year. In the case of a county containing a city of the first class, for taxes levied in 1991, and for all counties for taxes levied in 1992 and thereafter, the commissioner must certify this amount by September 1.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 277.17, is amended to read:

277.17 [ESCROW REQUIREMENT FOR DELINQUENCIES ON MANUFACTURED HOMES.]

Subdivision 1. [CERTIFICATION TO MANUFACTURED HOME OWNER.] On or before October 15 of each year, the county auditor shall send a letter to each owner of a manufactured home for which the personal property taxes due on August 31 are delinquent as of September 30. On or before December 31 of each year, the county auditor shall send a letter to each owner of a manufactured home for which the taxes due on August 31 were not delinquent but the personal property taxes due on November 15 are delinquent as of December 15. The letter must inform the owner that ~~due to the delinquency,~~ if the delinquent taxes are not paid in full within 90 days of the date of issuance of the notice one of the following may occur:

(1) the owner ~~will~~ may be required under state law to begin making monthly payments of delinquent property taxes, and ~~that~~ the property taxes will also be escrowed for payment of property taxes the following year; or

Subd. 2. [ESTABLISHMENT OF TAX ESCROW ACCOUNTS.] The county auditor ~~must~~ may establish a tax escrow account for delinquent property taxes for ~~each~~ an owner ~~receiving a letter~~ who receives a notice under subdivision 1 if the county does not require the lender to pay the taxes on behalf of the owner under section 47.209. If an escrow account is established for an owner who receives a notice regarding taxes due August 31, the owner must pay an additional amount each month equal to ten percent of the delinquent personal property taxes, penalties, and interest due, plus ten percent of the tax payable in the following calendar year. If the owner fails to pay the tax due on November 15, the additional amount of tax due but unpaid will be added to the delinquent property taxes payable by installment under this section. If an escrow account is established for an owner who receives a notice regarding taxes due November 15, the owner must pay an additional amount each month equal to 15 percent of the delinquent taxes, penalties, and interest due, plus 12 percent of the tax payable in the following calendar year.

Subd. 3. [COUNTY ESCROW.] Within 30 days of receipt of ~~a letter~~ notice from the county auditor under subdivision ~~1~~ 2, the owner must make the first monthly payment under subdivision 2 to the county auditor. The commissioner of revenue shall prescribe the procedures to be used for monthly collections of the delinquent and current tax payments. If an owner is making the payments at the time required under this section, no action may be taken under section 277.20 with respect to the manufactured home for which the property taxes are being paid into the escrow account.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 278.05, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

[EXCLUSION OF CERTAIN EVIDENCE.] (a) Information, including income and expense figures, verified net rentable areas, and anticipated income and expenses, for income-producing property which is not provided to the county assessor at least ~~30~~ 45 days before any hearing under this chapter, is not admissible except if necessary to prevent undue hardship or when the failure to provide it was due to the unavailability of the evidence at that time.

(b) Provided that the information as contained in paragraph (a) is timely submitted to the county assessor, the county assessor shall furnish the petitioner at least five days before the hearing under this chapter with the property's appraisal, if any, which will be presented to the court at the hearing. The petitioner shall furnish to the county assessor at least five days before the hearing under this chapter with the property's appraisal, if any, which will be presented to the court at the hearing. An appraisal of the petitioner's property done by or for the county or by or for the petitioner shall not be admissible as evidence if the provisions within this paragraph are not met.

Subdivision 1. Except as provided in subdivision 3, on May 16 or 21 days after the postmark date on the envelope containing the property tax statement, whichever is later, a penalty shall accrue and thereafter be charged upon all unpaid taxes on real estate on the current lists in the hands of the county treasurer. The penalty shall be at a rate of ~~three~~ two percent on homestead property ~~and seven percent~~ until May 31 and four percent on June 1. The penalty on nonhomestead property shall be at a rate of four percent until May 31 and eight percent on June 1. This penalty shall not accrue until June 1 of each year, or 21 days after the postmark date on the envelope containing the property tax statements, whichever is later, on commercial use real property used for seasonal residential recreational purposes and classified as class 1c or 4c, and on other commercial use real property classified as class 3a, provided that over 60 percent of the gross income earned by the enterprise on the class 3a property is earned during the months of May, June, July, and August. Any property owner of such class 3a property who pays the first half of the tax due on the property after May 15 and before June 1, or 21 days after the postmark date on the envelope containing the property tax statement, whichever is later, shall attach an affidavit to the payment attesting to compliance with the income provision of this subdivision. Thereafter, for both homestead and nonhomestead property, on the first day of each month beginning July 1, up to and including October 1 following, an additional penalty of one percent for each month shall accrue and be charged on all such unpaid taxes provided that if the due date was extended beyond May 15 as the result of any delay in mailing property tax statements no additional penalty shall accrue if the tax is paid by the extended due date. If the tax is not paid by the extended due date, then all penalties that would have accrued if the due date had been May 15 shall be charged. When the taxes against any tract or lot exceed $50, one-half thereof may be paid prior to May 16 or 21 days after the postmark date on the envelope containing the property tax statement, whichever is later; and, if so paid, no penalty shall attach; the remaining one-half shall be paid at any time prior to October 16 following, without penalty; but, if not so paid, then a penalty of ~~four~~ two percent shall accrue thereon for homestead property and a penalty of four percent on nonhomestead property. Thereafter, for homestead property, on the first day of November an additional penalty of four percent shall accrue and on the first day of December following, an additional penalty of two percent ~~for each month~~ shall accrue and be charged on all such unpaid taxes. Thereafter, for nonhomestead property, on the first day of November and December following, an additional penalty of four percent for each month shall accrue and be charged on all such unpaid taxes. If one-half of such taxes shall not be paid prior to May 16 or 21 days after the postmark date on the envelope containing the property tax statement, whichever is later, the same may be paid at any time prior to October 16, with accrued penalties to the date of payment added, and thereupon no penalty shall attach to the remaining one-half until October 16 following.

This section applies to payment of personal property taxes assessed against improvements to leased property, except as provided by section 277.01, subdivision 3.

A county may provide by resolution that in the case of a property owner that has multiple tracts or parcels with aggregate taxes exceeding $50, payments may be made in installments as provided in this subdivision.

The county treasurer may accept payments of more or less than the exact amount of a tax installment due. If the accepted payment is less than the amount due, payments must be applied first to the penalty accrued for the year the payment is made. Acceptance of partial payment of tax does not constitute a waiver of the minimum payment required as a condition for filing an appeal under section 278.03 or any other law, nor does it affect the order of payment of delinquent taxes under section 280.39.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 281.17, is amended to read:

281.17 [PERIOD FOR REDEMPTION.]

The period of redemption for all lands sold to the state at a tax judgment sale shall be three years from the date of sale to the state of Minnesota if the land is within an incorporated area unless it is: (a) nonagricultural homesteaded land as defined in section 273.13,

The period of redemption for all other lands sold to the state at a tax judgment sale shall be five years from the date of sale, except that the period of redemption for nonhomesteaded agricultural land as defined in section 273.13, subdivision 23, paragraph (b), shall be two years from the date of sale if at that time that property is owned by a person who owns one or more parcels of property on which taxes are delinquent, and (1) the aggregate tax capacity of that property exceeds five percent of the total tax capacity of the school district in which the property is located, or (2) the delinquent taxes are more than 25 percent of the prior year's school district levy.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 282.01, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Said sale shall continue until all such parcels are sold or until the county board shall order a reappraisal or shall withdraw any or all such parcels from sale. Such list of lands may be added to and the added lands may be sold at any time by publishing the descriptions and appraised values of such parcels of land as shall have become forfeited and classified as nonconservation since the commencement of any prior sale or such parcels as shall have been reappraised, or such parcels as shall have been reclassified as nonconservation or such other parcels as are subject to sale but were omitted from the existing list for any reason in the same manner as hereinafter provided for the publication of the original list, provided that any parcels added to such list shall first be offered for sale to the highest bidder before they are sold at appraised value. All parcels of land not offered for immediate sale, as well as parcels of such lands as are offered and not immediately sold shall continue to be held in trust by the state for the taxing districts interested in each of said parcels, under the supervision of the county board, and such parcels may be used for public purposes until sold, as the county board may direct.

The purchaser's title and right ~~to be~~ is conditioned upon the primary use as designated by the resolution of the county board. The right of ~~such~~ the purchaser to purchase shall be evidenced by the purchaser's duly verified written application showing the qualifications ~~as hereinabove prescribed~~ required by this section and filed with the county auditor.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 282.241, is amended to read:

282.241 [REPURCHASE AFTER FORFEITURE FOR TAXES.]

The owner at the time of forfeiture, or the owner's heirs, devisees, or representatives, or any person to whom the right to pay taxes was given by statute, mortgage, or other agreement, may repurchase any parcel of land claimed by the state to be forfeited to the state for taxes unless ~~prior to~~ before the time repurchase is made ~~such~~ the parcel ~~shall have been~~ is sold under installment payments, or otherwise, by the state as provided by law, or is under mineral prospecting permit or lease, or proceedings have been commenced by the state or any of its political subdivisions or by the United States to condemn such parcel of land. ~~Said~~ The parcel of land may be repurchased ~~for a sum equal to the aggregate~~. The repurchase price is the greater of (1) the appraised value of the parcel, or (2) the sum of all delinquent taxes and assessments computed ~~as provided by~~ under section 282.251, together with penalties, interest, and costs, ~~which did~~ that accrued or would have accrued if ~~such~~ the parcel of land had not forfeited to the state. Except for property which was homesteaded on the date of forfeiture, such repurchase shall be permitted during one year only from the date of forfeiture, and in any case only after the adoption of a resolution by the board of county commissioners determining that thereby undue hardship or injustice resulting from the forfeiture will be corrected, or that permitting such repurchase will promote the use of such lands that will best serve the public interest. If the county board has good cause to believe that a repurchase installment payment plan for a particular parcel is unnecessary and not in the public interest, the county board may require as a condition of repurchase that the entire repurchase price be paid at the time of repurchase. A repurchase shall be subject to any easement, lease, or other encumbrance granted by the state prior thereto, and if said land is located within a restricted area established by any county under Laws 1939, chapter 340, such repurchase shall not be permitted unless said resolution with respect thereto is adopted by the unanimous vote of the board of county commissioners.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 290A.04, subdivision 2h, is amended to read:

Subd. 2h. (a) If the gross property taxes payable on a homestead increase more than ~~ten~~ 12 percent over the net property taxes payable in the prior year on the same property that is owned by the same owner in both years, and the amount of that increase is ~~$40 or more for taxes payable in 1990 and 1991, $60 or more for taxes payable in 1992,~~ $80 or more for taxes payable in 1993, and $100 or more for taxes payable in 1994, a claimant who is a homeowner shall be allowed an additional refund equal to ~~the sum of (1) 75 percent of the first $250 of the amount of the increase over ten percent for taxes payable in 1990 and 1991, 75 percent of the first $275 of the amount of the increase over ten percent for taxes payable in 1992,~~ 75 percent of the ~~first $300 of the~~ amount of the increase over ~~ten~~ 12 percent for taxes payable in 1993~~,~~ and ~~75 percent of the first $325 of the amount of the increase over ten percent for taxes payable in~~ 1994~~, and (2) 90 percent of the amount of the increase over ten percent plus $250 for taxes payable in 1990 and 1991, 90 percent of the amount of the increase over ten percent plus $275 for taxes payable in 1992, 90 percent of the amount of the increase over ten percent plus $300 for taxes payable in 1993, and 90 percent of the amount of the increase over ten percent plus $325 for taxes payable in 1994~~. This subdivision shall not apply to any increase in the gross property taxes payable attributable to improvements made to the homestead after the assessment date for the prior year's taxes.

In the case of refunds for property taxes payable in 1993 and thereafter, the maximum refund allowed under this subdivision is $1,500.

(b) For purposes of this subdivision, the following terms have the meanings given:

(1) "Net property taxes payable" means property taxes payable after reductions made under sections 273.13, subdivisions 22 and 23; 273.135; 273.1391; and 273.42, subdivision 2, and any other state paid property tax credits and after the deduction of tax refund amounts for which the claimant qualifies pursuant to subdivision 2 and this subdivision.

(2) "Gross property taxes" means net property taxes payable determined without regard to the refund allowed under this subdivision.

(c) In addition to the other proofs required by this chapter, each claimant under this subdivision shall file with the property tax refund return a copy of the property tax statement for taxes payable in the preceding year or other documents required by the commissioner.

~~On or before December 1, 1990, and December 1 of each of the following three years, the commissioner shall estimate the cost of making the payments provided by this subdivision for taxes payable in the following year. Notwithstanding the open appropriation provision of section 290A.23, if the estimated total refund claims for taxes payable in 1991, 1993, or 1994 exceed the following amounts for the taxes payable year designated, the commissioner shall increase the dollar amount of tax increase which must occur before a taxpayer qualifies for a refund so that the estimated total refund claims do not exceed the appropriation limit.~~

~~1993~~	~~$6,000,000~~
~~1994~~	~~$5,500,000~~

~~The determinations of the revised thresholds by the commissioner are not rules subject to chapter 14.~~

Sec. 34. [290A.25] [VERIFICATION OF PROPERTY TAX PARCEL IDENTIFICATION NUMBERS.]

Annually, the commissioner of revenue shall furnish a list to the county assessor containing the property tax parcel identification numbers located within the county which were reported by claimants filing for a property tax refund as a renter under this chapter.

The assessor shall compare the property tax parcel identification numbers listed to determine whether any of the parcels were classified as homestead for the appropriate assessment year.

If the assessor discovers that the property was classified as homestead, the assessor shall notify the commissioner. Within 90 days of the notification, the county assessor shall investigate to determine if the homestead classification was improperly claimed. If the property owner does not qualify, the county assessor shall notify the county auditor who will determine the amount of homestead benefits that has been improperly allowed. For the purpose of this section, "homestead benefits" means the tax reduction resulting from the classification as a homestead under section 273.13, and the taconite homestead credit under section 273.1391. The county auditor shall send a notice to the owners of the property, demanding reimbursement of the homestead benefits plus a penalty equal to 100 percent of the homestead benefits. The property owners may appeal the county's determination by filing a notice of appeal with the Minnesota tax court within 60 days of the date of the notice from the county.

If the amount of homestead benefits and penalty is not paid within 60 days, and if no appeal has been filed, the county auditor shall certify the amount of taxes and penalty to the succeeding year's tax list to be collected as part of the property taxes.

Any amount of homestead benefits recovered by the county from the property owner shall be distributed to the county, city or town, and school district where the property is located in the same proportion that each taxing district's levy was to the total of the three taxing districts' levy for the current year. Any amount recovered attributable to taconite homestead credit shall be transmitted to the St. Louis county auditor to be deposited in the taconite property tax relief account. The total amount of penalty collected must be deposited in the county general fund.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 327C.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9a. [RESIDENT ASSOCIATION.] "Resident association" means an organization that has the written permission of the owners of at least 51 percent of the manufactured homes in the park to represent them, and which is organized for the purpose of resolving matters relating to living conditions in the manufactured home park.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 327C.12, is amended to read:

327C.12 [RETALIATORY CONDUCT PROHIBITED.]

A park owner may not increase rent, decrease services, alter an existing rental agreement or seek to recover possession or threaten such action in whole or in part as a penalty for a resident's:

(a) good faith complaint to the park owner or to a government agency or official; ~~or~~

(b) good faith attempt to exercise rights or remedies pursuant to state or federal law. In any proceeding in which retaliatory conduct is alleged, the burden of proving otherwise shall be on the park owner if the owner's challenged action began within 90 days after the resident engaged in any of the activities protected by this section. If the challenged action began more than 90 days after the resident engaged in the protected activity, the party claiming retaliation must make a prima facie case. The park owner must then prove otherwise; or

(c) joining and participating in the activities of a resident association as defined under section 327C.01, subdivision 9a.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 414.0325, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [ORDERLY ANNEXATION BY PETITION.] If the board receives a petition for annexation of an area owned by a municipality or from all of the property owners in an area, and the area is within two miles of the corporate boundaries of the municipality, the petition shall confer jurisdiction on the board to consider designation of the area for orderly annexation. Upon receipt of the petition, the board shall inform the affected parties of their opportunity to request a hearing before the board on the petition, and if a hearing is requested, it must be held within 60 days of the request. Any person aggrieved by the board's designation of an area as appropriate for orderly annexation may appeal the board's order to district court in accordance with section 414.07.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 414.033, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. A municipal council may by ordinance declare land annexed to the municipality and any such land is deemed to be urban or suburban in character or about to become so if:

~~(a)~~ (1) the land is owned by the municipality; ~~or~~

~~(b)~~ (2) the land is completely surrounded by land within the municipal limits; or

(3) the land abuts the municipality and the area to be annexed is 60 acres or less, and the municipality receives a petition for annexation from all the property owners of the land.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 414.033, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [MUNICIPALITY MAY ANNEX.] Notwithstanding the abutting requirement of subdivision 1, if land is owned by a municipality or if all of the landowners petition for annexation, and the land is within an existing orderly annexation area as provided by section 414.0325, then the municipality may declare the land annexed.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 414.033, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. If the perimeter of the area to be annexed by a municipality is 60 percent or more bordered by the municipality and if the area to be annexed is 40 acres or less, the municipality shall serve notice of intent to annex upon the town board and the municipal board, unless the area is appropriate for annexation by ordinance under subdivision 2, clause (3). The town board shall have 90 days from the date of service to serve objections with the board. If no objections are forthcoming within the said 90 day period, such land may be annexed by ordinance. If objections are filed with the board, the board shall conduct hearings and issue its order as in the case of annexations under section 414.031, subdivisions 3 and 4.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 414.033, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. If the land is platted, or, if unplatted, does not exceed 200 acres, ~~the property owner or~~ a majority of the property owners in number may petition the municipal council to have such land included within the abutting municipality and, within ten days thereafter, shall file copies of the petition with the board, the town board, the county board and the municipal council of any other municipality which borders the land to be annexed. Within 90 days from the date of service, the town board or the municipal council of such abutting municipality may submit written objections to the annexation to the board and the annexing municipality. Upon receipt of such objections, the board shall proceed to hold a hearing and issue its order in accordance with section 414.031, subdivisions 3, 4, and 5. If written objections are not submitted within the time specified hereunder and if the municipal council determines that property proposed for the annexation is now or is about to become urban or suburban in character, it may by ordinance declare such land annexed to the municipality. If the petition is not signed by all the property owners of the land proposed to be annexed, the ordinance shall not be enacted until the municipal council has held a hearing on the proposed annexation after at least 30 days mailed notice to all property owners within the area to be annexed.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 473.388, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE.] The board may grant the requested financial assistance if it determines that the proposed service is consistent with the approved implementation plan and is intended to replace the service to the applying city or town or combination thereof by the transit commission and that the proposed service will meet the needs of the applicant at least as efficiently and effectively as the existing service.

The amount of assistance which the board may provide under this section may not exceed the sum of:

(a) the portion of the available local transit funds which the applicant proposes to use to subsidize the proposed service; and

(b) an amount of financial assistance bearing an identical proportional relationship to the amount under clause (a) as the total amount of financial assistance to the transit commission bears to the total amount of taxes collected by the board under section 473.446. The board shall pay the amount to be provided to the recipient from the assistance the board would otherwise pay to the transit commission.

For purposes of this section "available local transit funds" means 90 percent of the tax revenues which would accrue to the board from the tax it levies under section 473.446 in the applicant city or town or combination thereof.

For purposes of this section, "tax revenues" in the city or town means the sum of the following:

(1) the nondebt spread levy, which is the total of the taxes extended by application of the local tax rate for nondebt purposes on the taxable net tax capacity;

(2) the portion of the fiscal disparity distribution levy under section 473F.08, subdivision 3, attributable to nondebt purposes; and

(3) the portion of the homestead credit and agricultural credit aid and disparity reduction aid amounts under section 273.1398, subdivisions 2 and 3, attributable to nondebt purposes.

Tax revenues do not include the state feathering reimbursement under section 473.446.

Sec. 43. [473F.001] [CITATION.]

This chapter shall be cited as the "Charles R. Weaver metropolitan revenue distribution act."

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 473H.10, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMPUTATION OF TAX; STATE REIMBURSEMENT.] (a) After having determined the market value of all land valued according to subdivision 2, the assessor shall compute the ~~gross~~ net tax capacity of those properties by applying the appropriate class rates. When computing the rate of tax pursuant to section 275.08, the county auditor shall include the ~~gross~~ net tax capacity of land as provided in this clause.

(b) The county auditor shall compute the tax on lands valued according to subdivision 2 and nonresidential buildings by multiplying the ~~gross~~ net tax capacity times the total local tax rate for all purposes as provided in clause (a).

(c) The county auditor shall then compute the tax on lands valued according to subdivision 2 and nonresidential buildings by multiplying the net tax capacity times the total local tax rate for all purposes as provided in clause (a), subtracting $3 per acre of land in the preserve.

(d) The county auditor shall then compute the maximum ad valorem property tax on lands valued according to subdivision 2 and nonresidential buildings by multiplying the ~~gross~~ net tax capacity times 105 percent of the previous year's statewide average local tax rate levied on property located within townships for all purposes.

~~(d)~~ (e) The tax due and payable by the owner of preserve land valued according to subdivision 2 and nonresidential buildings will be the amount determined in clause ~~(b)~~ ~~or~~ (c) or (d), whichever is less. ~~If the gross tax in clause (c) is less than the gross tax in clause (b),~~ The state shall reimburse the taxing jurisdictions for the amount of the difference between the net tax determined under this clause and the gross tax in clause (b). Residential buildings shall continue to be valued and classified according to the provisions of sections 273.11 and 273.13, as they would be in the absence of this section, and the tax on those buildings shall not be subject to the limitation contained in this clause.

The county may transfer money from the county conservation account created in section 40A.152 to the county revenue fund to reimburse the fund for the tax lost as a result of this subdivision or to pay taxing jurisdictions within the county for the tax lost. The county auditor shall certify to the commissioner of revenue on or before June 1 the total amount of tax lost to the county and taxing jurisdictions located within the county as a result of this subdivision and the extent that the tax lost exceeds funds available in the county conservation account. Payment shall be made by the state on December 15 to each of the affected taxing jurisdictions, other than school districts, in the same proportion that the ad valorem tax is distributed if the county conservation account is insufficient to make the reimbursement. There is annually appropriated from the Minnesota conservation fund under section 40A.151 to the commissioner of revenue an amount sufficient to make the reimbursement provided in this subdivision. If the amount available in the Minnesota conservation fund is insufficient, the balance that is needed is appropriated from the general fund.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 488A.20, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [EXEMPTION.] As provided in this section, qualified student housing at the Duluth and Thief River Falls technical colleges is exempt from ad valorem property taxation. In order to qualify for the exemption, the requirements in subdivisions 2 to 6 must be met.

Subd. 2. [FINDING OF NEED.] Before authorizing a project qualifying under this section, the state board of technical colleges must find (1) that an adequate supply of appropriate housing is not available to students of the technical college, (2) that there is significant demand for housing by students of the technical college, and (3) that the private market is unable to satisfy this demand either at affordable prices or in a reasonable time.

Subd. 3. [LOCATED ON LEASED PUBLIC LAND.] The student housing must be located on land owned by the technical college, the school district, or the state board of technical colleges that is leased to a private or nonprofit entity. The lease must provide for nominal rent.

Subd. 4. [NEW OR REHABILITATED UNITS ONLY.] The qualified student housing must consist of dwelling units that either were constructed or substantially rehabilitated after the project is approved by the state board.

Subd. 5. [CONTRACT WITH DEVELOPER.] The state board must enter into a contract with the developer or landlord of the qualified student housing project. This contract must provide that the reduced costs of the development resulting from the property tax exemption and leased land at a nominal rent will be reflected in lower rents for student tenants. The contract must also provide a reasonable system of giving priority to students in renting the dwelling units. The contract may include any other provisions that the board determines to be reasonable and appropriate, including provisions to monitor or ensure that priority is given to students in renting, that the student rents reflect the lower costs, or that special services are available to student tenants.

Subd. 6. [MINIMUM STUDENT OCCUPANCY REQUIRED.] A student housing project qualifies for exemption under this section, only if more than 50 percent of the units are occupied during the year by students of the technical college or other post-secondary institutions. For purposes of this section, a student must be enrolled in a certificate or degree program to qualify.

(1) was exempt under Minnesota Statutes, section 272.02, subdivision 1, clause (18), when it was owned by the cooperative association; and

(2) is located in St. Louis, Koochiching, Itasca, and Lake counties.

This exemption applies for three assessment years from the date of purchase. The tax under Minnesota Statutes, section 273.41, continues to apply during the three-year exemption period. The rates charged by the public utility must reflect the property tax exemption provided under this section.

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 193.36, an armory that is mustered out of the service of the state and is closed by the adjutant general between the effective date of this act and July 1, 1994, must be disposed of as provided in this act.

An armory subject to this section must be offered for sale to the municipality or county within which it is located for the price of $1. In the event that both the municipality and the county desire to purchase the armory, the municipality must be given first priority to purchase the armory. If the municipality or county does not agree to purchase the armory after a reasonable opportunity, the adjutant general shall dispose of the property as provided in Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 193.36. The adjutant general shall dispose of any receipts from the sale of the property as provided in Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 193.36, subdivision 2.

Sec. 51. [PLANNING AND REMODELING GRANTS.]

$50,000 for each armory sold or disposed of under this section is appropriated from the general fund to the department of military affairs for fiscal year 1993 for the purpose of providing grants to municipalities or counties that purchase closed armories under section 50. These grants must be used by the municipality or county for preparing this property for any purpose deemed acceptable by the acquiring municipality or county. The commissioner of military affairs shall consult with representatives of the acquiring municipalities and counties in adopting rules for the distribution of the grants.

Sec. 52. [LIMITATION; LIABILITY.]

Sec. 53. [INTERNATIONAL FALLS; ICE ARENA LEVY.]

Subdivision 1. [LEVY.] Each year, independent school district No. 361, International Falls, may levy for the operational costs of the Bronco arena. The levy may not exceed the actual costs of operation of the arena for the previous year.

Subd. 2. [LOCAL APPROVAL.] Subdivision 1 is effective the day after the governing body of independent school district No. 361, International Falls, complies with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 1.

Sec. 54. [WATERSHED DISTRICT LEVIES.]

Subdivision 1. [LEVY AUTHORIZATION.] The Nine Mile Creek watershed district, the Riley-Purgatory Bluff Creek watershed district, the Minnehaha Creek watershed district, the Coon Creek watershed district, and the Lower Minnesota River watershed district may levy in 1992 and thereafter a tax not to exceed $160,000 on property within the district for the administrative fund. Sec. 55. [PRIVATE SALE OF TAX-FORFEITED LAND; CROW WING COUNTY.]

(a) Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, sections 92.45 and 282.018, subdivision 1, and the public sale provisions of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 282, Crow Wing county may convey by private sale the tax-forfeited land bordering public water that is described in paragraph (c), under the remaining provisions of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 282.

(b) If the county conveys the land under paragraph (a), it must be sold by private sale to Mr. Robert H. Schumacher of Eden Prairie, Minnesota provided that Mr. Schumacher pays to the Crow Wing county treasurer an amount equal to the appraised value of the land described in paragraph (c). The Crow Wing county assessor shall value the land described in paragraph (c) and determine its appraised value. The conveyance must be in a form approved by the attorney general.

(c) The land to be conveyed is located in Crow Wing county, and is described as:

Government Lot 1, Section 26, Township 138, Range 27, Crow Wing County, Minnesota

(d) Since the parcel of land described in paragraph (c) is accessible on land only through property surrounding Government Lot 1 which Mr. Schumacher has purchased on a contract for deed, the county would best be served by returning this land to private ownership.

Sec. 56. [STUDY OF SINGLE-USE PROPERTY.]

For the purposes of providing information to the legislature, the commissioner of revenue shall survey selected county assessors to obtain information on the number and types of single-use industrial real estate properties in the state. For purposes of the survey, the commissioner of revenue shall develop a definition of single-use industrial real estate property in consultation with the chairs of the house and senate tax committees and county assessors. The commissioner shall make a report on the findings of the survey to the chairs of the house and senate tax committees prior to the 1993 legislative session.

Sec. 57. [REPAYMENT.]

The first $72,000 of market value of class 1a property has a net class rate of one percent of its market value and a gross class rate of 2.17 percent of its market value. For taxes payable in 1992, the market value of class 1a property that exceeds $72,000 but does not exceed $115,000 has a class rate of two percent of its market value; and the market value of class 1a property that exceeds $115,000 has a class rate of 2.5 percent of its market value. For purposes of this clause, property is devoted to a commercial purpose on a specific day if any portion of the property, excluding the portion used exclusively as a homestead, is used or available for use for residential occupancy and a fee is charged for residential occupancy. Class 1c property has a class rate of .8 percent of the first $32,000 of market value and one percent of market value in excess of $32,000 for taxes payable in 1992, and one percent of total market value for taxes payable in 1993 and thereafter with the following limitation: the area of the property must not exceed 100 feet of lakeshore footage for each cabin or campsite located on the property up to a total of 800 feet and 500 feet in depth, measured away from the lakeshore.

Subd. 25. [CLASS 4.] (a) Class 4a is residential real estate containing four or more units and used or held for use by the owner or by the tenants or lessees of the owner as a residence for rental periods of 30 days or more. Class 4a also includes hospitals licensed under sections 144.50 to 144.56, other than hospitals exempt under section 272.02, and contiguous property used for hospital purposes, without regard to whether the property has been platted or subdivided. Class 4a property has a class rate of 3.5 percent of market value for taxes payable in 1992, and 3.4 percent of market value for taxes payable in 1993 and thereafter.

(b) Class 4b includes:

Class 4b property has a class rate of 2.8 percent of market value for taxes payable in 1992, 2.5 percent of market value for taxes payable in 1993, and 2.3 percent of market value for taxes payable in 1994 and thereafter.

(c) Class 4c property includes:

(1) a structure that is:

(i) situated on real property that is used for housing for the elderly or for low- and moderate-income families as defined in Title II, as amended through December 31, 1990, of the National Housing Act or the Minnesota housing finance agency law of 1971, as amended, or rules promulgated by the agency and financed by a direct federal loan or federally insured loan made pursuant to Title II of the act; or

(ii) situated on real property that is used for housing the elderly or for low- and moderate-income families as defined by the Minnesota housing finance agency law of 1971, as amended, or rules adopted by the agency pursuant thereto and financed by a loan made by the Minnesota housing finance agency pursuant to the provisions of the act.

This clause applies only to property of a nonprofit or limited dividend entity. Property is classified as class 4c under this clause for 15 years from the date of the completion of the original construction or substantial rehabilitation, or for the original term of the loan.

(2) a structure that is:

(i) situated upon real property that is used for housing lower income families or elderly or handicapped persons, as defined in section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937, as amended; and

(ii) owned by an entity which has entered into a housing assistance payments contract under section 8 which provides assistance for 100 percent of the dwelling units in the structure, other than dwelling units intended for management or maintenance personnel. Property is classified as class 4c under this clause for the term of the housing assistance payments contract, including all renewals, or for the term of its permanent financing, whichever is shorter; and

Classification pursuant to this clause is limited to a term of 15 years.

For all properties described in clauses (1), (2), and (3) and in paragraph (d), the market value determined by the assessor must be based on the normal approach to value using normal unrestricted rents unless the owner of the property elects to have the property assessed under Laws 1991, chapter 291, article 1, section 55. If the owner of the property elects to have the market value determined on the basis of the actual restricted rents, as provided in Laws 1991, chapter 291, article 1, section 55, the property will be assessed at the rate provided for class 4a or class 4b property, as appropriate. Properties described in clauses (1)(ii), (3), and (4) may apply to the assessor for valuation under Laws 1991, chapter 291, article 1, section 55. The land on which these structures are situated has the class rate given in paragraph (b) if the structure contains fewer than four units, and the class rate given in paragraph (a) if the structure contains four or more units. This clause applies only to the property of a nonprofit or limited dividend entity.

(5) except as provided in subdivision 22, paragraph (c), real property devoted to temporary and seasonal residential occupancy for recreation purposes, including real property devoted to temporary and seasonal residential occupancy for recreation purposes and not devoted to commercial purposes for more than 250 days in the year preceding the year of assessment. For purposes of this clause, property is devoted to a commercial purpose on a specific day if any portion of the property is used, or available for use for residential occupancy, and a fee is charged for residential occupancy. Class 4c also includes commercial use real property used exclusively for recreational purposes in conjunction with class 4c property devoted to temporary and seasonal residential occupancy for recreational purposes, up to a total of two acres, provided the property is not devoted to commercial recreational use for more than 250 days in the year preceding the year of assessment and is located within two miles of the class 4c property with which it is used. Class 4c property classified in this clause also includes the remainder of class 1c resorts;

(6) real property up to a maximum of one acre of land owned by a nonprofit community service oriented organization; provided that the property is not used for a revenue-producing activity for more than six days in the calendar year preceding the year of assessment and the property is not used for residential purposes on either a temporary or permanent basis. For purposes of this clause, a "nonprofit community service oriented organization" means any corporation, society, association, foundation, or institution organized and operated exclusively for charitable, religious, fraternal, civic, or educational purposes, and which is exempt from federal income taxation pursuant to section 501(c)(3), (10), or (19) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1990. For purposes of this clause, "revenue-producing activities" shall include but not be limited to property or that portion of the property that is used as an on-sale intoxicating liquor or nonintoxicating malt liquor establishment licensed under chapter 340A, a restaurant open to the public, bowling alley, a retail store, gambling conducted by organizations licensed under chapter 349, an insurance business, or office or other space leased or rented to a lessee who conducts a for-profit enterprise on the premises. Any portion of the property which is used for revenue-producing activities for more than six days in the calendar year preceding the year of assessment shall be assessed as class 3a. The use of the property for social events open exclusively to members and their guests for periods of less than 24 hours, when an admission is not charged nor any revenues are received by the organization shall not be considered a revenue-producing activity;

(8) manufactured home parks as defined in section 327.14, subdivision 3.

Class 4c property has a class rate of 2.3 percent of market value, except that, (i) each parcel of seasonal residential recreational property not used for commercial purposes under clause (5) has a class rate of 2.2 percent of market value for taxes payable in 1992, and for taxes payable in 1993 and thereafter, the first $72,000 of market value on each parcel has a class rate of two percent and the market value of each parcel that exceeds $72,000 has a class rate of 2.5 percent, and (ii) manufactured home parks assessed under clause (8) have a class rate of two percent for taxes payable in 1993 only.

(d) Class 4d property includes:

(1) a structure that is:

(i) situated on real property that is used for housing for the elderly or for low and moderate income families as defined by the Farmers Home Administration;

(ii) located in a municipality of less than 10,000 population; and

(iii) financed by a direct loan or insured loan from the Farmers Home Administration. Property is classified under this clause for 15 years from the date of the completion of the original construction or for the original term of the loan.

The class rates in paragraph (c), clauses (1), (2), and (3) and this clause apply to the properties described in them, only in proportion to occupancy of the structure by elderly or handicapped persons or low and moderate income families as defined in the applicable laws unless construction of the structure had been commenced prior to January 1, 1984; or the project had been approved by the governing body of the municipality in which it is located prior to June 30, 1983; or financing of the project had been approved by a federal or state agency prior to June 30, 1983. Classification under this clause is only available to property of a nonprofit or limited dividend entity.

The lease agreement must provide for a portion of the lease payment to be escrowed as a nonrefundable down payment on the housing. To qualify under this clause, the taxpayer must apply to the county assessor by May 30 of each year. The application must be accompanied by an affidavit or other proof required by the assessor to determine qualification under this clause.

~~(3) For taxes payable in 1992, 1993 and 1994, only, federally acquired buildings under four units and appurtenances, together with the land upon which they are located that is leased to a~~

~~nonprofit corporation organized under chapter 317A that qualifies for tax exempt status under United States Code, title 26, section 501(c), or a housing and redevelopment authority authorized under sections 469.001 to 469.047; the purpose of the lease must be to allow the nonprofit corporation to provide transitional housing for homeless persons under the program established in Code of Federal Regulations, title 55, section 49489. As used in this clause, "transitional housing" has the meaning given in section 268.38, subdivision 1, except that the two-year restriction does not apply. If the property is purchased from the federal government by the nonprofit corporation for the purpose of continuing to provide transitional housing after the expiration of the lease, the property shall continue to be eligible for this classification. To qualify under this clause, the taxpayer must apply to the county assessor by May 30 of each year. The application must be accompanied by an affidavit or other proof required by the county assessor to determine qualification under this clause. Property qualifying under this clause in 1992, 1993, or 1994 continues to receive a two percent class rate until the five-year lease has expired provided that the property continues to be used for the purposes as described in this clause.~~

Class 4d property has a class rate of two percent of market value.

(e) Residential rental property that would otherwise be assessed as class 4 property under paragraph (a); paragraph (b), clauses (1) and (3); paragraph (c), clause (1), (2), (3), or (4), is assessed at the class rate applicable to it under Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.13, if it is found to be a substandard building under section 273.1316. Residential rental property that would otherwise be assessed as class 4 property under paragraph (d) is assessed at 2.3 percent of market value if it is found to be a substandard building under section 273.1316.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 273.135, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. For taxes payable in 1990 and subsequent years, the amount of the reduction authorized by subdivision 1 shall be:

(a) In the case of property located within the boundaries of a municipality which meets the qualifications prescribed in section 273.134, 66 percent of the tax, provided that the reduction shall not exceed the maximum amounts specified in clause (c), and shall not exceed an amount sufficient to reduce the effective tax rate on each parcel of property to the product of 95 percent of the base year effective tax rate multiplied by the ratio of the current year's tax rate to the payable 1989 tax rate. In no case will the reduction for each homestead resulting from this credit be less than $10.

(b) In the case of property located within the boundaries of a school district which qualifies as a tax relief area but which is outside the boundaries of a municipality which meets the qualifications prescribed in section 273.134, 57 percent of the tax, provided that the reduction shall not exceed the maximum amounts specified in clause (c), and shall not exceed an amount sufficient to reduce the effective tax rate on each parcel of property to the product of 95 percent of the base year effective tax rate multiplied by the ratio of the current year's tax rate to the payable 1989 tax rate. In no case will the reduction for each homestead resulting from this credit be less than $10.

(c) The maximum reduction of the tax is $225.40 on property described in clause (a) and $200.10 on property described in clause (b), for taxes payable in 1985. These maximum amounts shall increase by $15 times the quantity one minus the homestead credit equivalency percentage per year for taxes payable in 1986 and subsequent years.

For the purposes of this subdivision, "homestead credit equivalency percentage" means one minus the ratio of the net class rate to the gross class rate applicable to the first ~~$68,000~~ $72,000 of the market value of residential homesteads, "effective tax rate" means tax divided by the market value of a property, and the "base year effective tax rate" means the payable 1988 tax on a property with an identical market value to that of the property receiving the credit in the current year after the application of the credits payable under Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.13, subdivisions 22 and 23, and this section, divided by the market value of the property.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 273.1398, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

273.1399 [REDUCTION IN STATE TAX INCREMENT FINANCING AID.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given.

(a) "Qualifying captured net tax capacity" means the following amounts:

(1) the captured net tax capacity of a new or the expanded part of an existing economic development or soils condition tax increment financing district, other than a qualified manufacturing district, for which certification was requested after April 30, 1990;

(2) the captured net tax capacity of a qualified manufacturing district, multiplied by the following percentage based on the number of years that have elapsed since the ~~district was first certified (measured from January 2 immediately preceding certification~~ assessment year of the original net tax capacity~~)~~. In no case may the final amounts be less than zero or greater than the total captured net tax capacity of the district:

Number of Years	Percentage
2	20
3	40
4	60
6 or more	100;

(3) the captured net tax capacity of a new or the expanded part of an existing tax increment financing district, other than an economic development or soils condition district, for which certification was requested after April 30, 1990, multiplied by the following percentage based on the number of years that have elapsed since the ~~district was first certified (measured from January 2 immediately preceding certification~~ assessment year of the original net tax capacity~~)~~. In no case may the final amounts be less than zero or greater than the total captured net tax capacity of the district.

19	100	87.5
21 or more	100	100

In the case of a hazardous substance subdistrict, the number of years must be measured from the date of certification of the subdistrict for purposes of the additional captured net tax capacity resulting from the reduction in the subdistrict's or site's original net tax capacity.

(b) The terms defined in section 469.174 have the meanings given in that section.

(c) "Qualified manufacturing district" means an economic development district that qualifies under section 469.176, subdivision 4c, paragraph (a), without regard to clauses (2) and (4), for which certification was requested after June 30, 1991, located in a home rule charter or statutory city that (1) has a population under 10,000 according to the last federal census and (2) is wholly located outside of a metropolitan statistical area as determined by the United States Office of Management and Budget.

Subd. 2. [REPORTING.] The county auditor shall calculate the qualifying captured net tax capacity amount for each municipal part of each school district in the county and report the amounts to the commissioner of revenue at the time and in the manner prescribed by the commissioner.

Subd. 3. [CALCULATION OF EDUCATION AIDS.] For each school district containing qualifying captured net tax capacity, the commissioner of education shall compute a hypothetical state aid amount that would be paid to the school district if the qualifying captured net tax capacity were divided by the sales ratio and included in the school district's adjusted tax capacity for purposes of calculating equalized levies as defined in section 273.1398, subdivision 2a, and associated state aids. The commissioner of education shall notify the commissioner of revenue of the difference between the actual aid paid and the hypothetical aid amounts calculated for each school district, broken down by the municipality that approved the tax increment financing district containing the qualifying captured net tax capacity. The resulting amount is the reduction in state tax increment financing aid.

Subd. 4. [EQUALIZATION FACTOR.] The amount of the reduction in state tax increment financing aid equals the amount determined under subdivision 3 less

(1) 75 percent of the excess, if any, of the amount determined under subdivision 3, over

(2) .05 times the municipality's net tax capacity, divided by the sales ratio.

Subd. 5. [LOCAL GOVERNMENT AIDS; HOMESTEAD AND

AGRICULTURAL AID CALCULATIONS.] (a) The reduction in state tax increment financing aid for a municipality must be deducted first from the local government aids to be paid to the municipality. If the deduction exceeds the amount of the local government aid, the rest must be deducted from the homestead and agricultural credit aid to be paid to the municipality.

(b) The amount of qualifying captured net tax capacity must be included in adjusted net tax capacity for purposes of computing the local government aid of the municipality that approved the tax increment financing district.

Money under this subdivision must be distributed ~~to the relief associations~~ at the same time that fire and police state aid is distributed under section 69.021.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 469.177, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [ORIGINAL LOCAL TAX RATE.] At the time of the initial certification of the original net tax capacity for a tax increment financing district, the county auditor shall certify the original local tax rate that applies to the district. The original local tax rate is the sum of all the local tax rates that apply to a property in the district. The local tax rate to be certified is the rate in effect for the same taxes payable year applicable to the tax capacity values certified as the district's original tax capacity. ~~If the total local tax~~ ~~rate applicable to properties in the tax increment financing district varies, the local tax rate must be computed by determining the average total local tax rate in the district, weighted on the basis of net tax capacity.~~ The resulting tax capacity rate is the original local tax rate for the life of the district.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 473.446, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TAXATION WITHIN TRANSIT TAXING DISTRICT.] For the purposes of sections 473.404 to 473.449 and the metropolitan transit system, except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, the regional transit board shall levy each year upon all taxable property within the metropolitan transit taxing district, defined in subdivision 2, a transit tax consisting of:

(a) an amount which shall be used for payment of the expenses of operating transit and paratransit service and to provide for payment of obligations issued by the commission under section 473.436, subdivision 6;

(b) an additional amount, if any, the board determines to be necessary to provide for the full and timely payment of its certificates of indebtedness and other obligations outstanding on July 1, 1985, to which property taxes under this section have been pledged; and

(c) an additional amount necessary to provide full and timely payment of certificates of indebtedness, bonds, including refunding bonds or other obligations issued or to be issued under section 473.39 by the council for purposes of acquisition and betterment of property and other improvements of a capital nature and to which the council or board has specifically pledged tax levies under this clause.

The property tax levied by the regional transit board for general purposes under clause (a) must not exceed the following amount for the years specified:

(1) for taxes payable in 1988, the product of two mills multiplied by the total assessed valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan transit taxing district as adjusted by the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 272.64; 273.13, subdivision 7a; and 275.49;

(2) for taxes payable in 1989, the product of (i) the regional transit board's property tax levy limitation for general purposes for the taxes payable year 1988 determined under clause (1) multiplied by (ii) an index for market valuation changes equal to the assessment year 1988 total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan transit taxing district divided by the assessment year 1987 total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan transit taxing district; and

(3) for taxes payable in 1990 and subsequent years, the product of (i) the regional transit board's property tax levy limitation for general purposes for the previous year determined under this subdivision multiplied by (ii) an index for market valuation changes equal to the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan transit taxing district for the current assessment year divided by the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan transit taxing district for the previous assessment year.

For the purpose of determining the regional transit board's property tax levy limitation for general purposes for the taxes payable year 1988 and subsequent years under this subdivision, "total market valuation" means the total market valuation of all taxable property within the metropolitan transit taxing district without valuation adjustments for fiscal disparities (chapter 473F), tax increment financing (sections 469.174 to 469.179), and high voltage transmission lines (section 273.425).

The county auditor shall reduce the tax levied pursuant to this subdivision on all property within statutory and home rule charter cities and towns that receive full-peak service and limited off-peak service by an amount equal to the tax levy that would be produced by applying a rate of ~~0.01209~~ 0.510 percent of ~~market value~~ net tax capacity on the property. The county auditor shall reduce the tax levied pursuant to this subdivision on all property within statutory and home rule charter cities and towns that receive limited peak service by an amount equal to the tax levy that would be produced by applying a rate of ~~0.01813~~ 0.765 percent of ~~market value~~ net tax capacity on the property. The amounts so computed by the county auditor shall be submitted to the commissioner of revenue as part of the abstracts of tax lists required to be filed with the commissioner under section 275.29. Any prior year adjustments shall also be certified in the abstracts of tax lists. The commissioner shall review the certifications to determine their accuracy and may make changes in the certification as necessary or return a certification to the county auditor for corrections. The commissioner shall pay to the regional transit board the amounts certified by the county auditors on the dates provided in section 273.1398. There is annually appropriated from the general fund in the state treasury to the department of revenue the amounts necessary to make these payments.

For the purposes of this subdivision, "full-peak and limited off-peak service" means peak period regular route service, plus weekday midday regular route service at intervals longer than 60 minutes on the route with the greatest frequency; and "limited peak period service" means peak period regular route service only.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 473H.10, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMPUTATION OF TAX; STATE REIMBURSEMENT.] (a) After having determined the market value of all land valued according to subdivision 2, the assessor shall compute the ~~gross~~ net tax capacity of those properties by applying the appropriate class rates. When computing the rate of tax pursuant to section 275.08, the county auditor shall include the ~~gross~~ net tax capacity of land as provided in this clause.

(b) The county auditor shall compute the tax on lands valued according to subdivision 2 and nonresidential buildings by multiplying the ~~gross~~ net tax capacity times the total local tax rate for all purposes as provided in clause (a).

(c) The county auditor shall then compute the maximum ad valorem property tax on lands valued according to subdivision 2 and nonresidential buildings by multiplying the ~~gross~~ net tax capacity times 105 percent of the previous year's statewide average local tax rate levied on property located within townships for all purposes.

(d) The tax due and payable by the owner of preserve land valued according to subdivision 2 and nonresidential buildings will be the amount determined in clause (b) or (c), whichever is less. If the ~~gross~~ net tax in clause (c) is less than the ~~gross~~ net tax in clause (b), the state shall reimburse the taxing jurisdictions for the amount of difference. Residential buildings shall continue to be valued and classified according to the provisions of sections 273.11 and 273.13, as they would be in the absence of this section, and the tax on those buildings shall not be subject to the limitation contained in this clause.

The county may transfer money from the county conservation account created in section 40A.152 to the county revenue fund to reimburse the fund for the tax lost as a result of this subdivision or to pay taxing jurisdictions within the county for the tax lost. The county auditor shall certify to the commissioner of revenue on or before June 1 the total amount of tax lost to the county and taxing jurisdictions located within the county as a result of this subdivision and the extent that the tax lost exceeds funds available in the county conservation account. Payment shall be made by the state on December 15 to each of the affected taxing jurisdictions, other than school districts, in the same proportion that the ad valorem tax is distributed if the county conservation account is insufficient to make the reimbursement. There is annually appropriated from the Minnesota conservation fund under section 40A.151 to the commissioner of revenue an amount sufficient to make the reimbursement provided in this subdivision. If the amount available in the Minnesota conservation fund is insufficient, the balance that is needed is appropriated from the general fund.

Sec. 24. [1989 POPULATION AND NUMBER OF HOUSEHOLDS DATA USED IN 1992 AID CALCULATIONS.]

Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, for the calculation of payable 1992 homestead and agricultural credit aid under Minnesota Statutes, section 273.1398, the 1989 population and number of households figure for governmental subdivisions not having annual estimates prepared by the metropolitan council is equal to the local unit's 1988 population or number of households figure as prepared by the state demographer, plus one-half the increase or minus one-half the decrease when compared to the corresponding figures according to the 1990 federal census.

Sec. 25. [STUDY OF VALUATION OF MANUFACTURED HOME PARKS.]

The legislative commission on planning and fiscal policy shall study the valuation of manufactured home parks and make recommendations concerning the most equitable and efficient methods to the chairs of the senate committee on taxes and tax laws and the taxes committee of the house of representatives by January 15, 1993.

Sec. 26. [INSTRUCTION TO REVISOR.]

In the next edition of Minnesota Statutes, the revisor of statutes shall delete the first note after section 273.1398. The amendment to Minnesota Statutes, section 273.1398, subdivision 1, paragraph (j), made by Laws 1990, chapter 480, article 7, section 9, is of no effect.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 275.065, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PUBLIC HEARING; ADOPTION OF BUDGET AND LEVY.] Between November 15 and December 20, the governing bodies of the city and county shall each hold a public hearing to adopt its final budget and property tax levy for taxes payable in the following year, and the governing body of the school district shall hold a public hearing to review its current budget and adopt its property tax levy for taxes payable in the following year.

At the hearing, the taxing authority, other than a school district, may amend the proposed budget and property tax levy and must adopt a final budget and property tax levy, and the school district may amend the proposed property tax levy and must adopt a final property tax levy.

The property tax levy certified under section 275.07 by a city, county, or school district must not exceed the proposed levy determined under subdivision 1, except by an amount up to the sum of the following amounts:

(1) the amount of a school district levy whose voters approved a referendum to increase taxes under section 124.82, subdivision 3, 124A.03, subdivision 2, or 124B.03, subdivision 2, after the proposed levy was certified;

(2) the amount of a city or county levy approved by the voters ~~under section 275.58~~ after the proposed levy was certified;

(3) the amount of a levy to pay principal and interest on bonds issued or approved by the voters under section 475.58 after the proposed levy was certified;

(4) the amount of a levy to pay costs due to a natural disaster occurring after the proposed levy was certified, if that amount is approved by the commissioner of revenue under subdivision 6a;

(5) the amount of a levy to pay tort judgments against a taxing authority that become final after the proposed levy was certified, if the amount is approved by the commissioner of revenue under subdivision 6a; and

(6) the amount of an increase in levy limits certified to the taxing authority by the commissioner of revenue or the commissioner of education after the proposed levy was certified; ~~and~~

~~(7) if not included in the certified levy, any additional amount levied pursuant to section 275.51, subdivision 7, paragraph (b).~~

At the hearing the percentage increase in property taxes proposed by the taxing authority, if any, and the specific purposes for which property tax revenues are being increased must be discussed. During the discussion, the governing body shall hear comments regarding a proposed increase and explain the reasons for the proposed increase. The public shall be allowed to speak and to ask questions prior to adoption of any measures by the governing body. The governing body, other than the governing body of a school district, shall adopt its final property tax levy prior to adopting its final budget.

If the hearing is not completed on its scheduled date, the taxing authority must announce, prior to adjournment of the hearing, the date, time, and place for the continuation of the hearing. The continued hearing must be held at least five business days but no more than 14 business days after the original hearing.

The hearing must be held after 5:00 p.m. if scheduled on a day other than Saturday. No hearing may be held on a Sunday. The county auditor shall provide for the coordination of hearing dates for all taxing authorities within the county.

By August 15, each school board shall certify to the county auditors of the counties in which the school district is located the dates on which it elects to hold its hearings and any continuations under subdivision 3. If a school board does not certify the dates by August 15, the auditor will assign the hearing date. The dates elected or assigned must not conflict with the county hearing dates. By August 20, the county auditor shall notify the clerks of the cities within the county of the dates on which the county and school districts have elected to hold their hearings. At the time a city certifies its proposed levy under subdivision 1 it shall certify the dates on which it elects to hold its hearings and any continuations under subdivision 3. The city must not select dates that conflict with those elected by or assigned to the counties and school districts in which the city is located.

The hearing dates so elected or assigned must be designated on the notices required under subdivision 3.

This subdivision does not apply to towns and special taxing districts.

[LEVY FOR CRIME RELATED COSTS.] For taxes levied in 1991, payable in 1992 only, each school district may make a levy on all taxable property located within the school district for the purposes specified in this subdivision. The maximum amount which may be levied for all costs under this subdivision shall be equal to $1 multiplied by the population of the school district. For purposes of this subdivision, "population" of the school district means the same as contained in section 275.14. The proceeds of the levy must be used for reimbursing the cities and counties who contract with the school district for the following purposes: (1) to pay the costs incurred for the salaries, benefits, and transportation costs of peace officers and sheriffs for liaison services in the district's middle and secondary schools, (2) to teach drug abuse resistance education curricula in the elementary schools, and (3) to pay the costs incurred for the salaries and benefits of peace officers and sheriffs whose primary responsibilities are to investigate controlled substance crimes under chapter

152. The school district must initially attempt to contract for these services with the police department of each city or the sheriff's department of the county within the school district containing the school receiving the services. If a local police department or a county sheriff's department does not wish to provide the necessary services, the district may contract for these services with any other police or sheriff's department located entirely or partially within the school district's boundaries. The levy authorized under this subdivision is not included in determining the school district's levy limitations ~~and must be disregarded in computing any overall levy limitations under sections 275.50 to 275.56 of the participating cities or counties~~.

Sec. 10. [275.60] [TAX LEVIES; REPORT TO THE COMMISSIONER OF REVENUE.]

Subdivision 1. [REPORT ON TAXES LEVIED.] The commissioner of revenue shall establish procedures for the annual reporting of local government levies. Each local governmental unit shall submit a report to the commissioner by December 30 of the year in which the tax is levied. The report shall include, but is not limited to, information on the amount of the tax levied by the governmental unit for the following purposes:

(1) debt, which includes taxes levied for the purposes defined in Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 275.50, subdivision 5, clauses (b), (c), (d), and (e);

(2) social services and related programs, which include taxes levied for the purposes defined in Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 275.50, subdivision 5, clauses (a), (j), and (v);

(3) libraries, which include taxes levied for the purposes defined in Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 275.50, subdivision 5, clause (n); and

(4) other levies, which include the taxes levied for all purposes not included in clause (1), (2), or (3).

Subd. 2. [LOCAL GOVERNMENTS REQUIRED TO REPORT.] For purposes of this section, "local governmental unit" means a county, home rule charter or statutory city with a population greater than 2,500, a town with a population greater than 5,000, or a home rule charter or statutory city or town that receives a distribution from the taconite municipal aid account in the levy year.

Subd. 3. [POPULATION ESTIMATE.] For the purposes of this section, the population of a local governmental unit shall be that established by the last federal census, by a census taken under section 275.14, or by an estimate made by the metropolitan council or by the state demographer made under section 116K.04, subdivision 4, whichever is the most recent as to the stated date of count or estimate for the calendar year preceding the current levy year.

Subd. 4. [PENALTY FOR LATE REPORTING.] If a local government unit fails to submit the report required in subdivision 1 by January 30 of the year after the year in which the tax was levied, aid payments to the local governmental unit in the year after the year in which the tax was levied shall be reduced as follows:

(1) for a county, the aid amount under section 256E.06 shall be reduced by five percent; and

(2) for other local governmental units, the aid certified to be received under sections 477A.011 to 477A.014 shall be reduced by five percent.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 383B.152, is amended to read:

383B.152 [BUILDING AND MAINTENANCE FUND.]

The county board may by resolution levy a tax to provide money which shall be kept in a fund known as the county reserve building and maintenance fund. Money in the fund shall be used solely for the construction, maintenance, and equipping of county buildings that are constructed or maintained by the board. The levy shall not be subject to any limit fixed by any other law ~~except the limitations imposed in sections 275.50 to 275.56~~ or by any board of tax levy or other corresponding body, but shall not exceed 0.02215 percent of taxable market value, less the amount required by chapter 475 to be levied in the year for the payment of the principal of and interest on all bonds issued pursuant to Extra Session Laws 1967, chapter 47, section 1.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 398A.06, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LOANS AND DONATIONS.] The municipality may lend or donate money to the authority and may levy taxes, appropriate money, and issue bonds for that purpose in the manner and within the limitations prescribed by law, including but not limited to ~~chapters 275 and~~ chapter 475.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 469.107, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REVERSE REFERENDUM.] A city may increase its levy for economic development authority purposes under subdivision 1 in the following way. Its city council must first pass a resolution stating the proposed amount of levy increase. The city must then publish the resolution together with a notice of public hearing on the resolution for two successive weeks in its official newspaper or if none exists in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. The hearing must be held two to four weeks after the first publication. After the hearing, the city council may decide to take no action or may adopt a resolution authorizing the proposed increase or a lesser increase. A resolution authorizing an increase must be published in the city's official newspaper or if none exists in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. The resolution is not effective if a petition requesting a referendum on the resolution is filed with the city clerk within 30 days of publication of the resolution. The petition must be signed by voters equaling five percent of the votes cast in the city in the last general election. The election must be held ~~pursuant to the procedure specified in section 275.58~~ at a general or special election. Notice of the election must be given in the manner required by law. The notice must state the purpose and amount of the levy.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 471.571, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CREATION OF FUND, TAX LEVY.] The governing body of the city may create a permanent improvement and replacement fund to be maintained by an annual tax levy. The governing body may levy a tax in excess of any charter limitation ~~and in excess of the per capita limitation imposed under section 275.11~~ for the support of the permanent improvement and replacement fund, but not exceeding the following:

(a) In cities having a population of not more than 500 inhabitants, the lesser of $20 per capita or 0.08059 percent of taxable market value;

(b) In cities having a population of more than 500 and less than 2500, the greater of $12.50 per capita or $10,000 but not exceeding 0.08059 percent of taxable market value;

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 473.711, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The metropolitan mosquito control commission shall prepare an annual budget. The budget may provide for expenditures in an amount not exceeding the property tax levy limitation determined in this subdivision. The commission may levy a tax on all taxable property in the district as defined in section 473.702 to provide funds for the purposes of sections 473.701 to 473.716. The tax shall not exceed the property tax levy limitation determined in this subdivision. A participating county may agree to levy an additional tax to be used by the commission for the purposes of sections 473.701 to 473.716 but the sum of the county's and commission's taxes may not exceed the county's proportionate share of the property tax levy limitation determined under this subdivision based on the ratio of its total net tax capacity to the total net tax capacity of the entire district as adjusted by section 270.12, subdivision 3. The auditor of each county in the district shall add the amount of the levy made by the district to other taxes of the county for collection by the county treasurer with other taxes. When collected, the county treasurer shall make settlement of the tax with the district in the same manner as other taxes are distributed to political subdivisions. No county shall levy any tax for mosquito, disease vectoring tick, and black gnat (Simuliidae) control except under sections 473.701 to 473.716. The levy shall be in addition to other taxes authorized by law ~~and shall be disregarded in the calculation of limits on taxes imposed by chapter 275~~.

The property tax levied by the metropolitan mosquito control commission shall not exceed the following amount for the years specified:

(a) for taxes payable in 1988, the product of six-tenths on one mill multiplied by the total assessed valuation of all taxable property located within the district as adjusted by the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 272.64; 273.13, subdivision 7a; and 275.49;

(b) for taxes payable in 1989, the product of (1) the commission's property tax levy limitation for the taxes payable year 1988 determined under clause (a) multiplied by (2) an index for market valuation changes equal to the assessment year 1988 total market valuation of all taxable property located within the district divided by the assessment year 1987 total market valuation of all taxable property located within the district; and

(c) for taxes payable in 1990 and subsequent years, the product of (1) the commission's property tax levy limitation for the previous year determined under this subdivision multiplied by (2) an index for market valuation changes equal to the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the district for the current assessment year divided by the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the district for the previous assessment year.

For the purpose of determining the commission's property tax levy limitation for the taxes payable year 1988 and subsequent years under this subdivision, "total market valuation" means the total market valuation of all taxable property within the district without valuation adjustments for fiscal disparities (chapter 473F), tax increment financing (sections 469.174 to 469.179), and high voltage transmission lines (section 273.425).

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 477A.011, subdivision 27, is amended to read:

Subd. 27. [REVENUE BASE.] "Revenue base" means the amount levied for taxes payable in the previous year, including the levy on the fiscal disparity distribution under section 473F.08, subdivision 3, paragraph (a), and before reduction for the homestead and agricultural credit aid under section 273.1398, subdivision 2, equalization aid under section 477A.013, subdivision 5, and disparity reduction aid under section 273.1398, subdivision 3; plus the originally certified local government aid in the previous year under sections 477A.011, 477A.012, and 477A.013, except for 477A.013, subdivision 5; and the ~~estimated~~ taconite aids ~~used to determine levy limits for taxes payable~~ received in the previous year under ~~section 275.51, subdivision 3i~~ sections 298.28 and 298.282.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 477A.011, subdivision 29, is amended to read:

Subd. 29. [ADJUSTED REVENUE BASE.] "Adjusted revenue base" means revenue base as defined in subdivision 27 less the ~~special~~ levy reported under section ~~275.50~~ 275.60, subdivision ~~5~~ 1, clause ~~(a)~~ (2).

Sec. 18. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 134.342, subdivisions 2 and 4, are repealed.

Sec. 19. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 18 are effective for taxes levied in 1992, payable in 1993, and thereafter.

ARTICLE 6

INCOME AND FRANCHISE TAXES

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 289A.25, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5a. [MODIFICATION TO INDIVIDUAL ESTIMATED TAX REQUIREMENTS.] (a) If an individual meets the requirements of section 6654(d)(1)(C) to (F), of the Internal Revenue Code, the amount of the required installments under subdivision 5 must be computed as provided in this subdivision. In determining the amount of the required installment, the following requirement is substituted for subdivision 5, clauses (2) and (3): "(2) the greater of (i) 100 percent of the tax shown on the return of the individual for the preceding taxable year, or (ii) 90 percent of the tax shown on the return for the current year, determined by taking into account the adjustments under section 6654(d)(1)(D) of the Internal Revenue Code."

(b) Paragraph (a) does not apply for purposes of determining the amount of the first required installment in any taxable year under subdivision 3, paragraph (b). A reduction in an installment under this paragraph must be recaptured by increasing the amount of the first succeeding required installment by the amount of the reduction, unless the individual meets the requirements of paragraph (c).

(c) This subdivision does not apply to any required installment if the individual qualifies for an annualization exception as computed under section 6654(d)(1)(C)(iv) of the Internal Revenue Code. A reduction in an installment under this paragraph must be recaptured by increasing the amount of the first succeeding required installment (with respect to which the requirements of section 6654(d)(1)(C)(iv) are not met) by the amount of the reduction.

(d) All references to the Internal Revenue Code in this section are to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1991. For purposes of meeting the requirements of or making adjustments under section 6654 of the Internal Revenue Code in this subdivision:

(1) for an individual who is not a Minnesota resident for the entire year, the terms "adjusted gross income" and "modified adjusted gross income" mean the Minnesota share of that income apportioned to Minnesota under section 290.06, subdivision 2c, paragraph (e); and

(2) "tax" means the sum of the taxes imposed by chapter 290 for a taxable year.

(e) This subdivision does not apply to individuals who compute and pay estimated taxes under subdivision 10.

(f) This subdivision does not apply to any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1996.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 289A.26, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [MINIMUM LIABILITY.] A corporation, partnership, or trust subject to taxation under chapter 290 (excluding section 290.92) or an entity subject to taxation under section 290.05, subdivision 3, must make payment of estimated tax for the taxable year if its tax liability so computed can reasonably be expected to exceed $500, or in accordance with rules prescribed by the commissioner for an affiliated group of corporations electing to file one return as permitted under section 289A.08, subdivision 3.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 289A.26, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [SHORT TAXABLE YEAR.] (a) ~~A corporation~~ An entity with a short taxable year of less than 12 months, but at least four months, must pay estimated tax in equal installments on or before the 15th day of the third, sixth, ninth, and final month of the short taxable year, to the extent applicable based on the number of months in the short taxable year.

(b) ~~A corporation~~ An entity is not required to make estimated tax payments for a short taxable year unless its tax liability before the first day of the last month of the taxable year can reasonably be expected to exceed $500.

(c) No payment is required for a short taxable year of less than four months.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 289A.26, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [UNDERPAYMENT OF ESTIMATED TAX.] If there is an underpayment of estimated tax by a corporation, partnership, or trust, there shall be added to the tax for the taxable year an amount determined at the rate in section 270.75 on the amount of the underpayment, determined under subdivision 5, for the period of the underpayment determined under subdivision 6. This subdivision does not apply in the first taxable year that a corporation is subject to the tax imposed under section 290.02.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 289A.26, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PERIOD OF UNDERPAYMENT.] The period of the underpayment runs from the date the installment was required to be paid to the earlier of the following dates:

(1) the 15th day of the third month following the close of the taxable year for corporations, the 15th day of the fourth month following the close of the taxable year for partnerships or trusts, and the 15th day of the fifth month following the close of the taxable year for entities subject to tax under section 290.05, subdivision 3; or

(2) with respect to any part of the underpayment, the date on which that part is paid. For purposes of this clause, a payment of estimated tax shall be credited against unpaid required installments in the order in which those installments are required to be paid.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 289A.26, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [REQUIRED INSTALLMENTS.] (a) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, the amount of a required installment is 25 percent of the required annual payment.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, the term "required annual payment" means the lesser of:

(1) ~~90~~ (i) for tax years beginning in calendar year 1992, 93 percent of the tax shown on the return for the taxable year, or if no return is filed, ~~90~~ 93 percent of the tax for that year; ~~or~~

(ii) for tax years beginning after December 31, 1992, 95 percent of the tax shown on the return for the taxable year, or if no return is filed 95 percent of the tax for that year; or

(2) 100 percent of the tax shown on the return of the ~~corporation~~ entity for the preceding taxable year provided the return was for a full 12-month period, showed a liability, and was filed by the ~~corporation~~ entity.

(c) Except for determining the first required installment for any taxable year, paragraph (b), clause (2), does not apply in the case of a large corporation. The term "large corporation" means a corporation or any predecessor corporation that had taxable net income of $1,000,000 or more for any taxable year during the testing period. The term "testing period" means the three taxable years immediately preceding the taxable year involved. A reduction allowed to a large corporation for the first installment that is allowed by applying paragraph (b), clause (2), must be recaptured by increasing the next required installment by the amount of the reduction.

(d) In the case of a required installment, if the corporation establishes that the annualized income installment is less than the amount determined in paragraph (a), the amount of the required installment is the annualized income installment and the recapture of previous quarters' reductions allowed by this paragraph must be recovered by increasing later required installments to the extent the reductions have not previously been recovered.

(e) The "annualized income installment" is the excess, if any, of:

(1) an amount equal to the applicable percentage of the tax for the taxable year computed by placing on an annualized basis the taxable income:

(i) for the first two months of the taxable year, in the case of the first required installment;

(ii) for the first two months or for the first five months of the taxable year, in the case of the second required installment;

(iii) for the first six months or for the first eight months of the taxable year, in the case of the third required installment; and

(iv) for the first nine months or for the first 11 months of the taxable year, in the case of the fourth required installment, over

(2) the aggregate amount of any prior required installments for the taxable year.

(3) For the purpose of this paragraph, the annualized income shall be computed by placing on an annualized basis the taxable income for the year up to the end of the month preceding the due date for the quarterly payment multiplied by 12 and dividing the resulting amount by the number of months in the taxable year (2, 5, 6, 8, 9, or 11 as the case may be) referred to in clause (1).

(4) The "applicable percentage" used in clause (1) is:

For the following required installments:	The applicable percentage is:
	for tax years beginning in 1992	for tax years beginning after December 31, 1992
1st	~~22.5~~ 23.25	23.75
2nd	~~45~~ 46.5	47.5
3rd	~~67.5~~ 69.75	71.25
4th	~~90~~ 93	95

(f)(1) If this paragraph applies, the amount determined for any installment must be determined in the following manner:

(i) take the taxable income for the months during the taxable year preceding the filing month;

(ii) divide that amount by the base period percentage for the months during the taxable year preceding the filing month;

(iii) determine the tax on the amount determined under item (ii); and

(iv) multiply the tax computed under item (iii) by the base period percentage for the filing month and the months during the taxable year preceding the filing month.

(2) For purposes of this paragraph:

(i) the "base period percentage" for a period of months is the average percent that the taxable income for the corresponding months in each of the three preceding taxable years bears to the taxable income for the three preceding taxable years;

(ii) the term "filing month" means the month in which the installment is required to be paid;

(iii) this paragraph only applies if the base period percentage for any six consecutive months of the taxable year equals or exceeds 70 percent; and

(iv) the commissioner may provide by rule for the determination of the base period percentage in the case of reorganizations, new corporations, and other similar circumstances.

(3) In the case of a required installment determined under this paragraph, if the ~~corporation~~ entity determines that the installment is less than the amount determined in paragraph (a), the amount of the required installment is the amount determined under this paragraph and the recapture of previous quarters' reductions allowed by this paragraph must be recovered by increasing later required installments to the extent the reductions have not previously been recovered.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 289A.26, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [FAILURE TO FILE AN ESTIMATE.] In the case of ~~a corporation~~ an entity that fails to file an estimated tax for a taxable year when one is required, the period of the underpayment runs from the four installment dates in subdivision 2 or 3, whichever applies, to the earlier of the periods in subdivision 6, clauses (1) and (2).

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 290.01, subdivision 19, is amended to read:

Subd. 19. Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 290.92, subdivision 23, is amended to read:

Subd. 23. [WITHHOLDING BY EMPLOYER OF DELINQUENT TAXES.] (1) The commissioner may, within five years after the date of assessment of the tax, or if a lien has been filed under section 270.69, within the statutory period for enforcement of the lien, give notice to any employer deriving income which has a taxable situs in this state regardless of whether the income is exempt from taxation, that an employee of that employer is delinquent in a certain amount with respect to any state taxes, including penalties, interest, and costs. The commissioner can proceed under this subdivision only if the tax is uncontested or if the time for appeal of the tax has expired. The commissioner shall not proceed under this subdivision until the expiration of 30 days after mailing to the taxpayer, at the taxpayer's last known address, a written notice of (a) the amount of taxes, interest, and penalties due from the taxpayer and demand for their payment, and (b) the commissioner's intention to require additional withholding by the taxpayer's employer pursuant to this subdivision. The effect of the notice shall expire 180 days after it has been mailed to the taxpayer provided that the notice may be renewed by mailing a new notice which is in accordance with this subdivision. The renewed notice shall have the effect of reinstating the priority of the original claim. The notice to the taxpayer shall be in substantially the same form as that provided in section 571.41. The notice shall further inform the taxpayer of the wage exemptions contained in section 550.37, subdivision 14. If no statement of exemption is received by the commissioner within 30 days from the mailing of the notice, the commissioner may proceed under this subdivision. The notice to the taxpayer's employer may be served by mail or by delivery by an employee of the department of revenue and shall be in substantially the same form as provided in section 571.495. Upon receipt of notice, the employer shall withhold from compensation due or to become due to the employee, the total amount shown by the notice, subject to the provisions of section 571.55. The employer shall continue to withhold each pay period until the notice is released by the commissioner under section 270.709. Upon receipt of notice by the employer, the claim of the state of Minnesota shall have priority over any subsequent garnishments or wage assignments. The commissioner may arrange between the employer and the employee for withholding a portion of the total amount due the employee each pay period, until the total amount shown by the notice plus accrued interest has been withheld.

The "compensation due" any employee is defined in accordance with the provisions of section 571.55. The maximum withholding allowed under this subdivision for any one pay period shall be decreased by any amounts payable pursuant to a garnishment action with respect to which the employer was served prior to being served with the notice of delinquency and any amounts covered by any irrevocable and previously effective assignment of wages; the employer shall give notice to the department of the amounts and the facts relating to such assignments within ten days after the service of the notice of delinquency on the form provided by the department of revenue as noted in this subdivision.

(2) If the employee ceases to be employed by the employer before the full amount set forth in a notice of delinquency plus accrued interest has been withheld, the employer shall immediately notify the commissioner in writing of the termination date of the employee and the total amount withheld. No employer may discharge any employee by reason of the fact that the commissioner has proceeded under this subdivision. If an employer discharges an employee in violation of this provision, the employee shall have the same remedy as provided in section 571.61, subdivision 2.

(3) Within ten days after the expiration of such pay period, the employer shall remit to the commissioner, on a form and in the manner prescribed by the commissioner, the amount withheld during each pay period under this subdivision. Should any employer, after notice, willfully fail to withhold in accordance with the notice and this subdivision, or willfully fail to remit any amount withheld as required by this subdivision, the employer shall be liable for the total amount set forth in the notice together with accrued interest which may be collected by any means provided by law relating to taxation. Any amount collected from the employer for failure to withhold or for failure to remit under this subdivision shall be credited to the employee's account in the following manner: penalties, interest, tax, and costs.

(4) Clauses (1), (2), and (3), except provisions imposing a liability on the employer for failure to withhold or remit, shall apply to cases in which the employer is the United States or any instrumentality thereof or this state or any municipality or other subordinate unit thereof.

(5) The commissioner shall refund to the employee excess amounts withheld from the employee under this subdivision. If any excess results from payments by the employer because of willful failure to withhold or remit as prescribed in clause (3), the excess attributable to the employer's payment shall be refunded to the employer.

(6) Employers required to withhold delinquent taxes, penalties, interest, and costs under this subdivision shall not be required to compute any additional interest, costs or other charges to be withheld.

(7) The collection remedy provided to the commissioner by this subdivision shall have the same legal effect as if it were a levy made pursuant to section 270.70.

(8) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the provisions of this subdivision may be enforced when compensation is paid or payable for personal services and the services are claimed to be those of an independent contractor. Such enforcement shall not be deemed to establish an employer/employee relationship under any other laws.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 290A.03, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [CLAIMANT.] (a) "Claimant" means a person, other than a dependent, who filed a claim authorized by this chapter and who was a resident of this state as provided in chapter 290 during the calendar year for which the claim for relief was filed.

(b) In the case of a claim relating to rent constituting property taxes, the claimant shall have resided in a rented or leased unit on which ad valorem taxes or payments made in lieu of ad valorem taxes, including payments of special assessments imposed in lieu of ad valorem taxes, are payable at some time during the calendar year covered by the claim.

(c) "Claimant" shall not include a resident of a nursing home, intermediate care facility, or long-term residential facility whose rent constituting property taxes is paid pursuant to the supplemental security income program under title XVI of the Social Security Act, the Minnesota supplemental aid program under sections 256D.35 to 256D.41, the medical assistance program pursuant to title XIX of the Social Security Act, or the general assistance medical care program pursuant to section 256D.03, subdivision 3. If only a portion of the rent constituting property taxes is paid by these programs, the resident shall be a claimant for purposes of this chapter, but the refund calculated pursuant to section 290A.04 shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is income as defined in subdivision 3, paragraphs (1) and (2), reduced by the total amount of income from the above sources other than vendor payments under the medical assistance program or the general assistance medical care program and the denominator of which is income as defined in subdivision 3, paragraphs (1) and (2), plus vendor payments under the medical assistance program or the general assistance medical care program, to determine the allowable refund pursuant to this chapter.

(d) Notwithstanding paragraph (c), if the claimant was a resident of the nursing home, intermediate care facility or long-term residential facility for only a portion of the calendar year covered by the claim, the claimant may compute rent constituting property taxes by disregarding the rent constituting property taxes from the nursing home, intermediate care facility, or long-term residential facility and use only that amount of rent constituting property taxes or property taxes payable relating to that portion of the year when the claimant was not in the facility. The claimant's household income is the income for the entire calendar year covered by the claim.

(e) In the case of a claim for rent constituting property taxes of a part-year Minnesota resident, the income and rental reflected in this computation shall be for the period of Minnesota residency only. Any rental expenses paid which may be reflected in arriving at federal adjusted gross income cannot be utilized for this computation. When two individuals of a household are able to meet the qualifications for a claimant, they may determine among them as to who the claimant shall be. If they are unable to agree, the matter shall be referred to the commissioner of revenue whose decision shall be final. If a homestead property owner was a part-year Minnesota resident, the income reflected in the computation made pursuant to section 290A.04 shall be for the entire calendar year, including income not assignable to Minnesota.

(f) If a homestead is occupied by two or more renters, who are not husband and wife, the rent shall be deemed to be paid equally by each, and separate claims shall be filed by each. The income of each shall be each renter's household income for purposes of computing the amount of credit to be allowed.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 290A.19, is amended to read:

290A.19 [OWNER OR MANAGING AGENT TO FURNISH RENT CERTIFICATE.]

(a) The owner or managing agent of any property for which rent is paid for occupancy as a homestead must furnish a certificate of rent constituting property tax to a person who is a renter on December 31, in the form prescribed by the commissioner. If the renter moves before December 31, the owner or managing agent may give the certificate to the renter at the time of moving, or mail the certificate to the forwarding address if an address has been provided by the renter. The certificate must be made available to the renter before February 1 of the year following the year in which the rent was paid. The owner or managing agent must retain a duplicate of each certificate or an equivalent record showing the same information for a period of three years. The duplicate or other record must be made available to the commissioner upon request.

(b) The certificate of rent constituting property taxes must include the address of the property, including the county, and the property tax parcel identification number and any additional information that the commissioner determines is appropriate.

(c) If the owner or managing agent fails to provide the renter with a certificate of rent constituting property taxes, the commissioner shall allocate the net tax on the building to the unit on a square footage basis or other appropriate basis as the commissioner determines. The renter shall supply the commissioner with a statement from the county treasurer that gives the amount of property tax on the parcel, the address and property tax parcel identification number of the property, and the number of units in the building.

(d) By ~~June 30, for taxes payable in 1990 and May 30 for taxes payable in 1991 and thereafter~~ January 31 of the year following the year in which the rent was collected, each owner or managing agent shall report to the commissioner on a form prescribed by the commissioner the net tax pertaining to the rental residential part of the property, the total scheduled rent, and the fraction computed under section 290A.03, subdivision 11. A copy of the property tax statement for taxes payable in that year must be attached.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 297A.15, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

In the case of building materials qualifying under section 297A.257 where the tax was paid by a contractor, application must be made by the owner for the sales tax paid by all the contractors, subcontractors, and builders for the project. The application must include sufficient information to permit the commissioner to verify the sales tax paid for the project. The application shall include information necessary for the commissioner initially to verify that the purchases qualified as capital equipment under section 297A.25, subdivision 42, or capital equipment or construction materials and supplies under section 297A.257. No more than two applications for refunds may be filed under this subdivision in a calendar year. Unless otherwise specifically provided by this subdivision, the provisions of section 289A.40 apply to the refunds payable under this subdivision. There is annually appropriated to the commissioner of revenue the amount required to make the refunds.

The amount to be refunded shall bear interest at the rate in section 270.76 from the date the refund claim is filed with the commissioner.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 297A.15, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [REFUND; APPROPRIATION.] The tax on the gross receipts from the sale of items exempt under section 297A.25, subdivision 43, must be imposed and collected as if the sale were taxable and the ~~rate~~ rates under ~~section~~ sections 297A.02, subdivision 1, and 297A.021, applied.

Upon application by the owner of the homestead property on forms prescribed by the commissioner, a refund equal to the tax paid on the gross receipts of the building materials and equipment must be paid to the homeowner. In the case of building materials in which the tax was paid by a contractor, application must be made by the homeowner for the sales tax paid by the contractor. The application must include sufficient information to permit the commissioner to verify the sales tax paid for the project. The contractor must furnish to the homeowner a statement of the cost of building materials and the sales taxes paid on the materials. The amount required to make the refunds is annually appropriated to the commissioner. Interest must be paid on the refund at the rate in section 270.76 from 60 days after the date the refund claim is filed with the commissioner.

Subd. 3. [PAYBACK.] A business receiving wage subsidies or MEED tax credit certification shall repay 70 percent of the amount initially received or tax credit certified for each eligible job applicant employed, if the employee does not continue in the employment of the business beyond the six-month subsidized period. If the business has not claimed the tax credit on a tax return, the business may return the tax credit certification for a reduction in the certified amount to satisfy this requirement. If the employee continues in the employment of the business for one year or longer after the six-month subsidized period, the business need not repay any of the funds or tax credit authority received for that employee's wages. If the employee continues in the employment of the business for a period of less than one year after the expiration of the six-month subsidized period, the business shall receive a proportional reduction in the amount it must repay. If an employer dismisses an employee for good cause and works in good faith with the local service unit or its contractor to employ and train another person referred by the local service unit or its contractor, the payback formula shall apply as if the original person had continued in employment.

A repayment schedule shall be negotiated and agreed to by the local service unit and the business prior to the disbursement of the funds or provision of a tax credit certification and is subject to renegotiation. The local service unit shall forward 25 percent of the payments received under this subdivision to the commissioner on a monthly basis and shall retain the remaining 75 percent for local program expenditures. Notwithstanding section 268.677, subdivision 2, the local service unit may use up to 20 percent of its share of the funds returned under this subdivision for any administrative costs associated with the collection of the funds under this subdivision. At least 80 percent of the local service unit's share of the funds returned under this subdivision must be used as provided in section 268.677. The provider shall provide to the business a certified amount of the tax credit. The tax credit may be used to the extent the business spends money on items for which it could have spent a wage subsidy received in money. A tax credit is subject to the same restrictions that apply to subsidies received in money, as specified in the business's contract and by law.

Subd. 2. [FORM OF TAX CREDIT CERTIFICATES.] The tax credit certificates must be in a form and contain the information as prescribed by the commissioner of revenue. The commissioner of revenue shall consult with the commissioner before prescribing the form and contents of the tax credit certificates.

Subd. 3. [LIMITATION ON AMOUNT OF CREDITS.] The amount of tax credit certificates that may be issued is limited to $18,000,000 for each fiscal year. The amount of this limit is increased each year by the percentage adjustment under section 290.06, subdivision 2d, for the period in which the fiscal year began.

Subd. 4. [ALLOCATION OF CREDIT AUTHORITY.] The limit on tax credit authority must be allocated in the same manner and under the same procedures provided for appropriations of wage subsidies made in money under the Minnesota employment economic development program.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 268.682, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [EMPLOYER CERTIFICATION.] In order to qualify as an eligible employer, a government or nonprofit agency or business must certify to the eligible local service unit:

(1) that the wage subsidy will result in an employee obtaining identifiable and portable skills and submit an on-the-job training plan to describe how portable skills will be developed; and

(2) that each job created and funded under sections 268.672 to 268.682:

(a) will result in an increase in employment opportunities over those which would otherwise be available;

(b) will not result in the displacement of currently employed workers, including partial displacement such as reduction in hours of nonovertime work, wages, or employment benefits; and

(c) will not impair existing contracts for service or result in the substitution of wage subsidy funds for other funds in connection with work that would otherwise be performed.

(ii) exempt-interest dividends as defined in section 852(b)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code, except the portion of the exempt-interest dividends derived from interest income on obligations of the state of Minnesota or its political or governmental subdivisions, municipalities, governmental agencies or instrumentalities, but only if the portion of the exempt-interest dividends from such Minnesota sources paid to all shareholders represents 95 percent or more of the exempt-interest dividends that are paid by the regulated investment company as defined in section 851(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the fund of the regulated investment company as defined in section 851(h) of the Internal Revenue Code, making the payment; and

(2) the amount of income taxes paid or accrued within the taxable year under this chapter and income taxes paid to any other state or to any province or territory of Canada, to the extent allowed as a deduction under section 63(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, but the addition may not be more than the amount by which the itemized deductions as allowed under section 63(d) of the Internal Revenue Code exceeds the amount of the standard deduction as defined in section 63(c) of the Internal Revenue Code. For the purpose of this paragraph, the disallowance of itemized deductions under section 68 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, income tax is the last itemized deduction disallowed; and

Modified adjusted gross income is the sum of the individual's adjusted gross income under section 62 of the Internal Revenue Code and interest received or accrued by the taxpayer that is exempt from federal tax. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1992, the dollar amounts of modified adjusted gross income must be adjusted for inflation by the percentage determined for the taxable year under section 290.06, subdivision 2d, paragraph (b). The dollar amounts must be rounded to the nearest $10, except later adjustments must be made to the unrounded amounts. The amount of the addition under this clause may not exceed the exemption deducted in computing federal taxable income.

The bill was passed and its title agreed to.

S. F. No. 2117 was reported to the House.

Clark moved to amend S. F. No. 2117, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 256D.06, subdivision 1b, is amended to read:

Subd. 1b. [EARNED INCOME SAVINGS ACCOUNT.] In addition to the $50 disregard required under subdivision 1, the county agency shall disregard an additional earned income up to a maximum of $150 per month for: (1) persons residing in facilities licensed under Minnesota Rules, parts 9520.0500 to 9520.0690 and 9530.2500 to 9530.4000, and for whom discharge and work are part of a treatment plan; (2) persons living in supervised apartments with services funded under Minnesota Rules, parts 9535.0100 to 9535.1600, and for whom discharge and work are part of a treatment plan; and (3) persons residing in a negotiated rate residence, as that term is defined in section 256I.03, subdivision 3, for whom the county agency has approved a discharge plan which includes work. The additional amount disregarded must be placed in a separate savings account by the eligible individual, to be used upon discharge from the residential facility into the community. For individuals residing in a chemical dependency program licensed under Minnesota Rules, part 9530.4100, subpart 22, item D, withdrawals from the savings account require the signature of the individual and for those individuals with an authorized representative payee, the signature of the payee. A maximum of $1,000, including interest, of the money in the savings account must be excluded from the resource limits established by section 256D.08, subdivision 1, clause (1). Amounts in that account in excess of $1,000 must be applied to the resident's cost of care. If excluded money is removed from the savings account by the eligible individual at any time before the individual is discharged from the facility into the community, the money is income to the individual in the month of receipt and a resource in subsequent months. If an eligible individual moves from a community facility to an inpatient hospital setting, the separate savings account is an excluded asset for up to 18 months. During that time, amounts that accumulate in excess of the $1,000 savings limit must be applied to the patient's cost of care. If the patient continues to be hospitalized at the conclusion of the 18-month period, the entire account must be applied to the patient's cost of care."

The motion prevailed and the amendment was adopted.

The committee or division shall have ten calendar days thereafter in which to vote upon the bill requested. If the committee or division fails to vote upon it within the ten days, the chief author may, at any time within five calendar days thereafter, present a written demand to the Speaker for its immediate return to the House. The demand shall be entered in the Journal for that day and shall constitute the demand of the House. The bill shall then be considered to be in the possession of the House, given its second reading and placed at the end of General Orders.

Any standing committee other than the Committee on Taxes to which such a bill is referred shall, in its report, recommend re-referral to the Committee on Taxes. Subd. 2. (b) For the purposes of this subdivision, "substantially equal value" means:

(1) where the lands being exchanged are both over 100 acres, their values do not differ by more than ten percent; and

H. F. No. 1873 was reported to the House.

Reding moved to amend H. F. No. 1873, as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 43A.27, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [RETIRED EMPLOYEES.] A retired employee of the state who receives an annuity under a state retirement program may elect to purchase at personal expense individual and dependent hospital, medical, and dental coverages that are actuarially equivalent to those made available through collective bargaining agreements or plans established pursuant to section 43A.18 to employees in positions equivalent to that from which retired. A spouse of a deceased retired employee who received an annuity under a state retirement program may purchase the coverage listed in this subdivision if the spouse was a dependent under the retired employee's coverage at the time of the employee's death. Coverages must be coordinated with relevant health insurance benefits provided through the federally sponsored Medicare program. Until the retired employee reaches age 65, the retired employee and dependents must be pooled in the same group as active employees for purposes of establishing premiums and coverage for hospital, medical, and dental insurance. Coverage for retired employees and their dependents may not discriminate on the basis of evidence of insurability or preexisting conditions unless identical conditions are imposed on active employees in the group that the employee left. Appointing authorities shall provide notice to employees no later than the effective date of their retirement of the right to exercise the option provided in this subdivision. The retired employee must notify the commissioner or designee of the commissioner within 30 days after the effective date of the retirement of intent to exercise this option.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 471.61, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2b. [INSURANCE CONTINUATION.] A unit of local government must allow a former employee and the employee's dependents to continue to participate indefinitely in the employer-sponsored hospital, medical, and dental insurance group that the employee participated in immediately before retirement, under the following conditions:

(a) The continuation requirement of this subdivision applies only to a former employee who is receiving a disability benefit or an annuity from a Minnesota public pension plan other than a volunteer firefighter plan, or who has met age and service requirements necessary to receive an annuity from such a plan.

(b) Until the former employee reaches age 65, the former employee and dependents must be pooled in the same group as active employees for purposes of establishing premiums and coverage for hospital, medical, and dental insurance.

(c) A former employee may receive dependent coverage only if the employee received dependent coverage immediately before leaving employment. This subdivision does not require dependent coverage to continue after the death of the former employee. For purposes of this subdivision, "dependent" has the same meaning for former employees as it does for active employees in the unit of local government.

(d) Coverage for a former employee and dependents may not discriminate on the basis of evidence of insurability or preexisting conditions unless identical conditions are imposed on active employees in the group that the employee left.

(e) The former employee must pay the entire premium for continuation coverage, except as otherwise provided in a collective bargaining agreement or personnel policy. A unit of local government may discontinue coverage if a former employee fails to pay the premium within the deadline provided for payment of premiums under federal law governing insurance continuation.

(f) An employer must notify an employee before termination of employment of the options available under this subdivision, and of the deadline for electing to continue to participate.

(g) A former employee must notify the employer of intent to participate within the deadline provided for notice of insurance continuation under federal law. A former employee who does not elect to continue participation does not have a right to reenter the employer's group insurance program.

(h) A former employee who initially selects dependent coverage may later drop dependent coverage while retaining individual coverage. A former employee may not drop individual coverage and retain dependent coverage.

(i) This subdivision does not limit rights granted to former employees under other state or federal law, or under collective bargaining agreements or personnel plans.

(j) Except for those employees covered by section 179A.16, subdivision 9, unless otherwise provided by a collective bargaining agreement, any additional premium cost from inclusion of retired employees must be paid by active employees through payroll deductions.

Sec. 3. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 and 2 apply to each public employer upon the next expiration of a collective bargaining agreement or personnel plan establishing insurance premiums and coverage for active employees. Sections 1 and 2 do not apply to a person who became a former employee before the effective date of sections 1 and 2, unless the person has continuously participated in the employer-sponsored insurance group since leaving employment."

The motion prevailed and the amendment was adopted.

Subdivision 1. [TAX IMPOSED.] A sales tax is imposed on gasoline at the rate determined under subdivision 4.

Subd. 2. [TAX; WHEN IMPOSED.] The sales tax on gasoline under subdivision 1 is imposed at the time of the first sale of gasoline by a distributor to another person.

(2) to the United States government;

(3) for storage in an on-farm bulk storage tank; or

(4) sold as aviation gasoline or as substitutes for aviation gasoline.

Subd. 4. [CALCULATION OF TAX RATE.] (a) The commissioner shall determine on May 31 and November 30 of each year the average price per gallon at which gasoline is sold by distributors throughout the state for the months of May and November of each year. The commissioner shall determine the price on the basis of (1) information furnished the commissioner by distributors under subdivision 5, or (2) other information available through independent statistical surveys of distributor prices for gasoline and special fuel. In determining average prices for gasoline under this subdivision, the commissioner shall deduct the tax imposed under section 296.02, subdivision 1, and any tax imposed on gasoline on a per-gallon basis by the United States.

(b) The commissioner shall determine the rate of the tax imposed under subdivision 1 by multiplying the average selling price of gasoline by 2.6 percent and converting the product into a rate of cents per gallon. In determining the tax rate, the commissioner shall round off the tax to the nearest one-tenth of a cent. The commissioner shall notify all licensed distributors of gasoline and special fuel by June 10 and December 10 of each year of the tax rate as determined under this paragraph. A tax rate determined under this paragraph becomes effective the first day of the month following the month in which it is communicated to distributors and remains effective for that month and the next five months.

Subd. 5. [DISTRIBUTOR RECORDS.] A distributor shall keep at each licensed place of business complete and accurate records for that place of business, including itemized invoices, of gasoline received and of all sales of gasoline made, except sales to the ultimate consumer. These records must show the names and addresses of buyers, the inventory of special fuel on hand at the close of each period for which a return is required, and other pertinent papers and documents relating to the purchase, sale, or disposition of gasoline and special fuel. When a licensed distributor sells gasoline and special fuel exclusively to the ultimate consumer at the address given in the license, no invoice of those sales is required, but itemized invoices must be made of gasoline and special fuel transferred to other retail outlets owned or controlled by the distributor. Books, records, and other papers and documents required by this chapter, or by rule of the commissioner to be kept, must be preserved for a period of at least one year after the date of the transactions giving rise to the documents or the date of the entries on the transactions appearing in the records, unless the commissioner, in writing, authorizes their destruction or disposal at an earlier date. At any time during usual business hours, the commissioner or duly authorized agents or employees may enter a place of business of a distributor, without a search warrant, and inspect the premises, the records required to be kept, and the gasoline, to determine whether or not this section is being fully complied with. If the commissioner, agent, or employee of the commissioner is denied free access or is hindered or interfered with in making an examination, the license of the distributor at the premises is subject to revocation by the commissioner.

Subd. 6. [DISTRIBUTOR TO PRESERVE INVOICES.] A person who sells gasoline to persons other than the ultimate consumer shall render with each sale itemized invoices showing the seller's name and address, purchaser's name and address, date of sale, and prices and discounts. The person shall preserve legible copies of the invoices for one year from the date of sale.

Subd. 7. [RETAILER TO PRESERVE PURCHASE INVOICES.] A retailer shall procure itemized invoices of gasoline bought. The invoices must show the name and address of the seller and the date of purchase. The retailer shall preserve a legible copy of each invoice for one year from the date of purchase. Invoices must be available for inspection by the commissioner, authorized agents, or employees at the retailer's place of business.

Subd. 8. [MONTHLY RETURN FILED WITH COMMISSIONER.] On or before the 25th day of each calendar month, a distributor with a place of business in this state shall file a return with the commissioner showing the quantity and sale price of gasoline received or bought during the preceding calendar month and the quantity and sale price of gasoline sold or otherwise disposed of in this state and outside this state during that month. Every licensed distributor outside this state shall, in like manner, file a return showing the quantity and sale price of gasoline shipped or transported into this state during the preceding calendar month. Returns must be made upon forms furnished and prescribed by the commissioner and contain other information that the commissioner may require. The return must be accompanied by a remittance for the full liability for the taxes imposed under this section.

Subd. 9. [COMMISSIONER TO EXAMINE AND CORRECT RETURN; COLLECTION OF DEFICIENCY.] As soon as practicable after a return is filed, the commissioner shall examine the return and correct it if necessary according to the commissioner's best judgment and information. The return, together with the commissioner's corrections, if any, is prima facie correct and is prima facie evidence of the correctness of the amount of tax due as shown. Proof of correction by the commissioner may be made at a hearing before the commissioner or in a legal proceeding by submitting a copy of pertinent record of the commissioner under the certificate of the custodian of the original official record. This certified copy, without further proof, must be admitted into evidence before the commissioner or in a legal proceeding and is prima facie proof of the correctness of the amount of tax due as shown. The commissioner, on finding that an amount of tax due is from the distributor and unpaid, shall notify the distributor of the deficiency, stating an intention to assess the amount due together with interest and penalties as provided in section 296.15. If a deficiency disclosed by the commissioner's examination cannot be allocated to a particular month or months, the commissioner shall notify the distributor of the deficiency stating an intention to assess the amount due for a given period without allocating it to a particular month or months, together with the penalty provided in the case of other corrected returns. If a distributor making a return dies or becomes incompetent before the commissioner issues the notice of intention to assess an amount due, that notice must be issued to the administrator, executor, or other legal representative of the distributor.

Subd. 10. [DISTRIBUTOR MAY PROTEST; HEARING.] If, within 20 days after mailing of notice of the proposed assessment, the distributor or a legal representative files a protest to the proposed assessment and requests a hearing, the commissioner shall notify the distributor or legal representative of the time and place fixed for the hearing, shall hold a hearing, and shall issue a final assessment to the distributor or legal representative for the amount found to be due as a result of the hearing. The hearing must be held within 45 days after the protest is filed. If a protest is not filed within the time prescribed, the commissioner shall issue a final assessment to the distributor or legal representative. Tax due and owing after a final assessment order has been issued to the distributor or legal representative must be paid within 60 days.

Subd. 11. [MONTHLY TAX PAYMENTS; PENALTY.] The sales tax is due and payable not later than the 25th day of the month following the calendar month in which it was incurred, and after that time bears interest at the rate specified in section 296.15, subdivision 1. The commissioner may extend the time for paying the tax without penalty for good cause shown.

Subd. 12. [RECOVERY BY COMMISSIONER.] The commissioner may recover the tax due and unpaid, the interest, and any penalty under the procedures of section 296.15.

Subd. 13. [REVENUE DISPOSITION.] Revenues derived from sales taxes, penalties, and interest under this section must be deposited by the commissioner in the state treasury and credited as follows: four-tenths of one percent must be credited to the general fund, 59.8 percent must be credited to the transit assistance fund, and 39.8 percent must be credited to the trunk highway fund.

If no refund claim is filed, the tax or taxes shall be reported and paid annually by March 15 or more frequently, as the commissioner may prescribe. Sec. 26. [290.163] [HIGHER EDUCATION SAVINGS PLAN.]

Subdivision 1. [POLICY.] The governor and legislature believe higher education is becoming more important to survival and success in an increasingly competitive and complex job market. Future jobs will require more education beyond the high school level. Providing information and opportunities to increase family saving for higher education is in the public interest.

For purposes of this section a refund is the income tax refund, or property tax refund, after all reductions, offsets and recaptures authorized by law.

The commissioner, in consultation with the higher education coordinating board, shall include, in the individual income tax and property tax refund instruction booklets, information about the present and future costs of higher education, the importance of beginning early to save for these expenses, alternative strategies for saving, and a description of current federal law relating to the taxation of earnings on United States savings bonds used for financing higher education.

(1) .5; or

(2) the value of shares available to be distributed as determined in paragraph (f) divided by the total face value of United States savings bonds purchased by or refunded to individuals eligible for annual savings share awards who file the form required by paragraph (d).

(h) Annual savings share awards shall be announced by January 31 of the year following the year the refund is paid.

(i) Savings share awards are redeemable only upon submission of proof to the executive director that interest from United States savings bonds was used for qualified higher education expenses as defined in section 135(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1991, and that some or all of that interest was exempt from federal taxation pursuant to section 135 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1991. [PUBLIC DEFENDER SERVICES; APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL.] If the court finds that the provision of adequate legal representation, including associated services, is beyond the ability of the district public defender to provide, the court shall order counsel to be appointed, with compensation and expenses to be paid under the provisions of this subdivision and subdivision 7. Subd. 15. [PUBLIC DEFENDER SERVICES; REPORT.] The state public defender shall report to the legislature in the supplemental budget or the biennial budget document the number and costs of all successful petitions during the previous fiscal year.

Sec. 64. [FINDINGS.]

The legislature finds that the state of Minnesota faces immediate and serious financial problems. As a result, public employers may have insufficient resources to maintain their work forces at the current level. The legislature determines that the public interest is best served if public employers' budgets can be balanced without layoffs of public employees. This section and section 65 are enacted as a temporary measure to help solve the financial crisis facing units of state and local government, while minimizing layoffs of public employees.

Sec. 65. [EMPLOYER-PAID HEALTH INSURANCE.]

Subdivision 1. [STATE EMPLOYEES.] A state employee, as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 43A.02, subdivision 21, or an employee of the state university system, community college system, higher education board, Minnesota state retirement system, the teachers retirement association, or the public employees retirement association, is eligible for state-paid hospital, medical, and dental benefits if the person:

(1) is eligible for state-paid insurance under Minnesota Statutes, section 43A.18, or other law;

(2) (i) has at least 25 years of service in the state civil service as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 43A.02, subdivision 10; or (ii) has at least 25 years of service as an employee of the Minnesota state retirement system, the teachers retirement association, or the public employees retirement association; or (iii) has at least 25 years of service credit in the public pension plan that the person is a member of on the day before retirement;

(3) upon retirement is immediately eligible for a retirement annuity;

(4) is at least 55 and not yet 65 years of age; and

(5) retires on or after July 1, 1992, and before October 1, 1992.

During the biennium ending June 30, 1993, an executive branch state agency may not hire a replacement for a person who retires under this subdivision, except under conditions specified by the commissioners of finance and employee relations.

Subd. 2. [OTHER PUBLIC EMPLOYEES.] The University of Minnesota or the governing body of a city, county, joint vocational technical district formed under Minnesota Statutes, sections 136C.60 to 136C.69, or other political subdivision of the state may, and the governing body of a school district may provide employer-paid hospital, medical, and dental benefits to a person who:

(1) is eligible for employer-paid insurance under collective bargaining agreements or personnel plans in effect on the day before the effective date of this section;

(2) has at least 25 years of service credit in the public pension plan that the person is a member of on the day before retirement; or in the case of a teacher has a total of at least 25 years of service credit in the teachers retirement association, a first-class city teacher retirement fund, or any combination of these groups;

(3) upon retirement is immediately eligible for a retirement annuity;

(4) is at least 55 and not yet 65 years of age; and

(5) in the case of a school district employee, retires on or after May 20, 1992, and before July 21, 1992; and in the case of an employee of another employer in this subdivision, retires on or after July 1, 1992, and before October 1, 1992. An employer that pays for insurance under this subdivision may not exclude any eligible employees.

Subd. 3. [CONDITIONS; COVERAGE.] An employee who is eligible both for the health insurance benefit under this section and for an early retirement incentive under a collective bargaining agreement or personnel plan established by the employer must select either the early retirement incentive in the collective bargaining agreement, personnel plan, or the incentive provided under this section, but may not receive both. For purposes of this section, a person retires when the person terminates active employment and applies for retirement benefits. The retired employee is eligible for single and dependent coverages and employer payments to which the person was entitled immediately before retirement, subject to any changes in coverage and employer and employee payments through collective bargaining or personnel plans, for employees in positions equivalent to the position from which the employee retired. The retired employee is not eligible for employer-paid life insurance. Eligibility ceases when the retired employee attains the age of 65, or when the employee chooses not to receive the retirement benefits for which the employee has applied, or when the employee is eligible for employer-paid health insurance from a new employer. Coverages must be coordinated with relevant health insurance benefits provided through the federally sponsored Medicare program. Nothing in this section obligates, limits, or otherwise affects the right of the University of Minnesota to provide employer-paid hospital, medical, dental benefits, and life insurance to any person.

Subd. 4. [RULE OF 90.] An employee who retires under this section using the rule of 90 must not be included in the calculations required by Minnesota Statutes, section 356.85.

Subd. 5. [APPLICATION OF OTHER LAWS.] Unilateral implementation of this section by a public employer is not an unfair labor practice for purposes of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 179A. The authority provided in this section for an employer to pay health insurance costs for certain retired employees is not subject to the limits in Minnesota Statutes, section 179A.20, subdivision 2a.

Sec. 66. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 41A.051, is repealed. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 270.185, is repealed effective January 1, 1993. On that date, any balance in the reassessment account of the special revenue fund is transferred to the general fund.

Sec. 67. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 29, 35, and 49 are effective on the day following final enactment and apply to all cases arising on or after the effective date. Sections 39 and 40 are effective the day following final enactment. Sections 64 and 65 are effective the day following final enactment.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 240.13, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [PURSES.] (a) From the amounts deducted from all pari-mutuel pools by a licensee, an amount equal to not less than the following percentages of all money in all pools must be set aside by the licensee and used for purses for races conducted by the licensee, provided that a licensee may agree by contract with an organization representing a majority of the horsepersons racing the breed involved to set aside amounts in addition to the following percentages:

(1) for live races conducted at a class A facility, and for races that are part of full racing card simulcasting or full racing card telerace simulcasting that takes place within the time period of the live races, 8.4 percent;

(2) for simulcasts and telerace simulcasts conducted during the racing season other than as provided for in clause (1), 50 percent of the takeout remaining after deduction for taxes on pari-mutuel pools, payment to the breeders fund, and payment to the sending out-of-state racetrack for receipt of the signal; and

(3) for simulcasts and telerace simulcasts conducted outside of the racing season, 25 percent of the takeout remaining after deduction for the state pari-mutuel tax, payment to the breeders fund, payment to the sending out-of-state racetrack for receipt of the signal and, before January 1, 2005, a further deduction of eight percent of all money in all pools; provided, however, that in the event that wagering on simulcasts and telerace simulcasts outside of the racing season exceeds $125 million in any calendar year, the amount set aside for purses by this formula is increased to 30 percent on amounts between $125,000,000 and $150,000,000 wagered; 40 percent on amounts between $150,000,000 and $175,000,000 wagered; and 50 percent on amounts in excess of $175,000,000 wagered. In lieu of the eight percent deduction, a deduction as agreed to between the licensee and the horsepersons' organization representing the majority of horsepersons racing at the licensee's class A facility during the preceding 12 months, is allowed after December 31, 2004.

The commission may by rule provide for the administration and enforcement of this subdivision. The deductions for payment to the sending out-of-state racetrack must be actual, except that when there exists any overlap of ownership, control, or interest between the sending out-of-state racetrack and the receiving licensee, the deduction must not be greater than three percent unless agreed to between the licensee and the horsepersons' organization representing the majority of horsepersons racing the breed racing the majority of races during the existing racing meeting or, if outside of the racing season, during the most recent racing meeting.

In lieu of the amount the licensee must pay to the commission for deposit in the Minnesota breeders fund under section 240.15, subdivision 1, the licensee shall pay 5-1/2 percent of the takeout from all pari-mutuel pools generated by wagering at the licensee's facility on full racing card simulcasts and full racing card telerace simulcasts of races not conducted in this state.

(b) From the money set aside for purses, the licensee shall pay to the horseperson's organization representing the majority of the horsepersons racing the breed involved and contracting with the licensee with respect to purses and the conduct of the racing meetings and providing representation, benevolent programs, benefits, and services for horsepersons and their on-track employees, an amount, sufficient to perform these services, as may be determined by agreement by the licensee and the horseperson's organization. The amount paid may be deducted only from the money set aside for purses to be paid in races for the breed represented by the horseperson's organization. With respect to racing meetings where more than one breed is racing, the licensee may contract independently with the horseperson's organization representing each breed racing.

(c) Notwithstanding sections 325D.49 to 325D.66, a horseperson's organization representing the majority of the horsepersons racing a breed at a meeting, and the members thereof, may agree to withhold horses during a meeting.

(d) Money set aside for purses from wagering, during the racing season, on simulcasts and telerace simulcasts must be used for purses for live races conducted at the licensee's class A facility during the same racing season, over and above the 8.4 percent purse requirement or any higher requirement to which the parties agree, for races conducted in this state. Money set aside for purses from wagering, outside of the racing season, on simulcasts and telerace simulcasts must be for purses for live races conducted at the licensee's class A facility during the next racing season, over and above the 8.4 percent purse requirement or any higher requirement to which the parties agree, for races conducted in this state.

(e) Money set aside for purses from wagering on simulcasts and telerace simulcasts must be used for purses for live races involving the same breed involved in the simulcast or telerace simulcast except that money set aside for purses and payments to the breeders fund from wagering on full racing card simulcasts and full racing card telerace simulcasts of races not conducted in this state, occurring during a live mixed meet, must be allotted to the purses and breeders fund for each breed participating in the mixed meet in the same proportion that the number of live races run by each breed bears to the total number of live races conducted during the period of the mixed meet.

(f) The allocation of money set aside for purses to particular racing meets may be adjusted, relative to overpayments and underpayments, by contract between the licensee and the horsepersons' organization representing the majority of horsepersons racing the breed involved at the licensee's facility.

(g) Subject to the provisions of this chapter, money set aside from pari-mutuel pools for purses must be for the breed involved in the race that generated the pool, except that if the breed involved in the race generating the pari-mutuel pool is not racing in the current racing meeting, or has not raced within the preceding 12 months at the licensee's class A facility, money set aside for purses ~~must~~ may be distributed proportionately to those breeds that have run during the preceding 12 months or paid to the commission and used for purses or to promote racing for the breed involved in the race generating the pari-mutuel pool, or both, in a manner prescribed by the commission.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1991 Supplement, section 240.13, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [SIMULCASTING.] The commission may permit an authorized licensee to conduct simulcasting or telerace simulcasting at the licensee's facility on any day authorized by the commission. All simulcasts and telerace simulcasts must comply with the Interstate Horse Racing Act of 1978, United States Code, title 15, sections 3001 to 3007. In addition to teleracing programs featuring live racing conducted at the licensee's class A facility, the class E licensee may conduct not more than seven teleracing programs per week during the racing season, unless additional telerace simulcasting is authorized by the director and approved by the horsepersons' organization representing the majority of horsepersons racing the breed racing the majority of races at the licensee's class A facility during the preceding 12 months. The commission may not authorize any day for simulcasting at a class A facility during the racing season, and a licensee may not be allowed to transmit out-of-state telecasts of races the licensee conducts, unless the licensee has obtained the approval of the horsepersons' organization representing the majority of the horsepersons racing the breed involved at the licensed racetrack during the preceding 12 months. The licensee may pay fees and costs to an entity transmitting a telecast of a race to the licensee for purposes of conducting pari-mutuel wagering on the race. The licensee may deduct fees and costs related to the receipt of televised transmissions from a pari-mutuel pool on the televised race, provided that one-half of any amount recouped in this manner must be added to the amounts required to be set aside for purses.

With the approval of the commission and subject to the provisions of this subdivision, a licensee may transmit telecasts of races it conducts, for wagering purposes, to locations outside the state, and the commission may allow this to be done on a commingled pool basis.

Except as otherwise provided in this section, simulcasting and telerace simulcasting may be conducted on a separate pool basis or, with the approval of the commission, on a commingled pool basis. All provisions of law governing pari-mutuel betting apply to simulcasting and telerace simulcasting except as otherwise provided in this subdivision or in the commission's rules. If pools are commingled, wagering at the licensed facility must be on equipment electronically linked with the equipment at the licensee's class A facility or with the sending racetrack via the totalizator computer at the licensee's class A facility. Subject to the approval of the commission, the types of betting, takeout, and distribution of winnings on commingled pari-mutuel pools are those in effect at the sending racetrack. Breakage for pari-mutuel pools on a televised race must be calculated in accordance with the law or rules governing the sending racetrack for these pools, and must be distributed in a manner agreed to between the licensee and the sending racetrack. Notwithstanding subdivision 7 and section 240.15, subdivision 5, the commission may approve procedures governing the definition and disposition of unclaimed tickets that are consistent with the law and rules governing unclaimed tickets at the sending racetrack. For the purposes of this section, "sending racetrack" is either the racetrack outside of this state where the horse race is conducted or, with the consent of the racetrack, an alternative facility that serves as the racetrack for the purpose of commingling pools.

If there is more than one class B licensee conducting racing within the seven-county metropolitan area, simulcasting and telerace simulcasting may be conducted only on races run by a breed that ran at the licensee's class A facility within the 12 months preceding the event. ~~That portion of the takeout allocated for purses from pari-mutuel pools generated by wagering on standardbreds must be set aside and must be paid to the racing commission and used for purses as otherwise provided by this section or to promote standardbred racing or both, in a manner prescribed by the commission. In the event that a licensee conducts live standardbred racing, pools generated by live, simulcast, or telerace simulcasting at the licensee's facilities on standardbred racing are subject to the purse set-aside requirements otherwise provided by law.~~

Contractual agreements between licensees and horsepersons' organizations entered into before June 5, 1991, regarding money to be set aside for purses from pools generated by simulcasts at a class A facility, are controlling regarding purse requirements through the end of the 1992 racing season.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 240.14, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COUNTY FAIR RACING DAYS.] The commission may assign to a class D licensee the following racing days:

(1) those racing days, not to exceed ten racing days, that coincide with the days on which the licensee's county fair is running; and

(2) additional racing days~~, not to exceed ten racing days, immediately before or after the days on which the licensee's county fair is running.~~

~~In no event shall the number of racing days assigned by the commission exceed 20 days.~~

Subdivision 1. [LEVY OF ASSESSMENT.] There is levied a penalty assessment of ~~12~~ 15 percent on each fine imposed and collected by the courts of this state for traffic offenses in violation of chapters 168 to 173 or equivalent local ordinances, other than a fine or forfeiture for a violation of a local ordinance or other law relating to the parking of a vehicle. In cases where the defendant is convicted but a fine is not imposed, or execution of the fine is stayed, the court shall impose a penalty assessment of not less than $5 nor more than $10 when the conviction is for a misdemeanor or petty misdemeanor, and shall impose a penalty assessment of not less than $10 but not more than $50 when the conviction is for a gross misdemeanor or felony. Where multiple offenses are involved, the penalty assessment shall be assessed separately on each offense for which the defendant is sentenced. If imposition or execution of sentence is stayed for all of the multiple offenses, the penalty assessment shall be based upon the most serious offense of which the defendant was convicted. Where the court suspends a portion of a fine, the suspended portion shall not be counted in determining the amount of the penalty assessment unless the offender is ordered to pay the suspended portion of the fine. Suspension of an entire fine shall be treated as a stay of execution for purposes of computing the amount of the penalty assessment.

Sec. 65. Minnesota Statutes 1990, section 626.861, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COLLECTION BY COURT.] After a determination by the court of the amount of the fine or penalty assessment due, the court administrator shall collect the appropriate penalty assessment and transmit it to the county treasurer separately with designation of its origin as a penalty assessment, but with the same frequency as fines are transmitted. Amounts collected under this subdivision shall then be transmitted to the state treasurer for deposit ~~in the general fund~~ for peace officers training, in the same manner as fines collected for the state by a county. The state treasurer shall identify and report to the commissioner of finance all amounts deposited in the general fund under this section.
