For purposes of this subdivision, the term "building" shall include a condominium or townhouse used by the taxpayer as a residence. In the case of qualifying expenditures incurred in connection with a building under construction by a contractor, the credit shall be deducted from the tax liability of the first individual to purchase the building for use as a principal residence or for residential rental purposes; the contractor shall not be eligible for the credit given pursuant to this subdivision for that expenditure.

A "renewable energy source expenditure" which qualifies shall include:

(a) Expenditures which qualify for the federal renewable energy source credit, pursuant to Section 44C of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979, and any regulations promulgated pursuant thereto, provided that, after December 31, 1980, any solar collector included in the claimed expenditure is certified by the ~~energy agency~~ commissioner of energy, planning and development. A solar collector is a device designed to absorb incident solar radiation, convert it to thermal energy, and transfer the thermal energy to a fluid passing through or in contact with the device. "Solar collector" shall not include passive solar energy systems as defined in clause (d);

(b) Expenditures for earth sheltered dwelling units. For purposes of this credit, an "earth sheltered dwelling unit" shall mean a structure which complies with applicable building standards and which is constructed so that:

(2) 50 percent or more of the wall area is covered with a minimum depth of

12 inches of earth; and

(3) Those portions of the structure not insulated with a minimum of seven feet of earth shall have additional insulation;

(c) Expenditures for biomass conversion equipment located in Minnesota which produces ethanol, methane or methanol for use as a gaseous or as a liquid fuel which is not offered for sale; and

(d) Expenditures for passive solar energy systems. A passive system shall include:

(1) Collection aperture, including glazing installed in south facing walls and roofs; and

(2) Storage element, including thermal mass in the form of water, masonry, rock, concrete, or other mediums which is designed to store heat collected from solar radiation.

A passive system may include either or both:

(1) Control and distribution element, including fans, louvers, and air ducts; and/or

(2) Retention element, including movable insulation used to minimize heat loss caused by nocturnal radiation through areas used for direct solar heat gain during daylight hours.

Eligible passive expenditures shall be for equipment, materials or devices that are an integral part of the components listed above and essential to the functioning of a passive design which qualifies pursuant to rules promulgated adopted by the commissioner of revenue in cooperation with the director of the energy agency commissioner of energy, planning and development. Expenditures for equipment, materials, or devices which are a part of the normal heating, cooling, or insulation system of a building are not eligible for the credit.

If a credit was allowed to a taxpayer under this subdivision for any prior taxable year, the dollar amount of the maximum expenditure for which a taxpayer may qualify for a credit under this subdivision in subsequent years shall be $10,000 reduced by the amount of expenditures which a credit was claimed pursuant to this subdivision in prior years. A taxpayer shall never be allowed to claim more than $10,000 of expenditures during the duration of the renewable energy credit.

The credit provided in this subdivision shall not be allowed in a taxable year if the amount of the credit would be less than $10.

No amount may be carried forward to a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1984.

- (5) Specify the procedures to follow to obtain certification of a solar collector;
- (6) Conform to the maximum extent practicable to the solar collector certification requirements of other states which have adopted certification procedures; and
- (7) Allow for individual variation so as not to hamper the development of innovative solar collectors.

The ~~director of the energy agency~~ commissioner of energy, planning and development may ~~promulgate~~ adopt temporary rules pursuant to section 15.0412, subdivision 5 to establish this certification procedure.

This subdivision is effective for expenditures made during taxable years beginning after December 31, 1978 and before January 1, 1983.

Real estate not used as a home may not be retained unless it produces net income applicable to the family's needs or the family is making a continuing effort to sell it at a fair and reasonable price or unless sale of the real estate would net an insignificant amount of income applicable to the family's needs, or unless the commissioner determines that sale of the real estate would cause undue hardship; and* Grants may be used for payment of costs of providing services such as, but not limited to, foster care for elderly persons, day care whether or not offered through a nursing home, nutritional counseling, or medical social services, which services are provided by a licensed health care provider, a home health service eligible for reimbursement under Titles XVIII and XIX of the federal Social Security Act, or by persons employed by or contracted with by the county board or the local welfare agency. The state expenditures for this section shall not exceed $1,800,000 for the biennium ending June 30, 1983. A county agency may use grant money to supplement but not supplant services available through other public assistance or service programs and shall not use grant money to establish new programs for which public money is available through sources other than grants provided under this subdivision. Total payment of the costs of providing care under this subdivision shall not exceed 75 percent of the per diem payment for which each individual served would have been eligible if the individual had been admitted to a nursing home. The non-federal share may be used to pay up to 90 percent of the start-up and service delivery costs of providing care under this subdivision. Each county agency that receives a grant shall pay 10 percent of the costs.

The commissioner shall promulgate temporary rules in accordance with section 15.0412, subdivision 5, to establish required documentation and reporting of care delivered.

Subd. 3. [RESOURCE VALUE.] For purposes of subdivision 1, the value of the resource or interest shall be the fair market value at the time it was sold or given away, less the amount of compensation received.

Subd. 4. [PERIOD OF INELIGIBILITY.] In any case where the uncompensated value of transferred resources exceeds $12,000, the commissioner shall require a period of ineligibility which exceeds 24 months, provided that the period of ineligibility bears a reasonable relationship to the excess uncompensated value of the transferred asset.

Subd. 2. [BASIC MAINTENANCE MILL RATE.] "Basic maintenance mill rate" means the mill rate applicable to the adjusted assessed valuation of a district, used in the computation of basic foundation aid for a particular school year and of the basic maintenance levy for use in that school year. The basic maintenance mill rate shall be .021 for the 1980 payable 1981 levy and for foundation aid for the 1981-1982 school year. The basic maintenance mill rate shall be .023 for 1981 payable 1982 levies and for foundation aid for the 1982-1983 school year.

Subd. 3. [BASIC FOUNDATION REVENUE.] A district's basic foundation revenue for each school year shall equal the formula allowance times its total pupil units for that school year.

Subd. 4. [BASIC FOUNDATION AID.] A district's basic foundation aid for each school year shall equal its basic foundation revenue for that school year, minus the basic maintenance mill rate times the applicable adjusted assessed valuation of the district.

Sec. 22. [124.2123.] [GRANDFATHER FOUNDATION AID.] Subdivision 1. [GRANDFATHER GUARANTEE AND ALLOWANCE.] (a) A district's "basic grandfather amount" shall equal the amount per pupil unit which the district was permitted to levy in 1978 pursuant to Minnesota Statutes

1978, Section 275.125, Subdivisions 6 and 7.

(b) A district's "grandfather guarantee" shall equal its basic grandfather amount times its 1979-1980 actual, declining enrollment and growing enrollment pupil units.

(c) A district's "grandfather allowance" shall equal its grandfather guarantee divided by its 1979-1980 actual pupil units.

(d) A district's "grandfather levy limitation" means its levy limitation computed pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 6b.

Subd. 2. [GRANDFATHER REVENUE.] A district's grandfather revenue for any school year shall equal the greater of (a) its grandfather guarantee, or (b) its grandfather allowance times its actual pupil units for the preceding school year.

Subd. 3. [GRANDFATHER AID.] A district's grandfather aid for any school year shall equal its grandfather revenue for that school year minus its grandfather levy limitation for the levy for use in that school year.

Sec. 23. [124.2124.] [REPLACEMENT FOUNDATION AID.]

Subdivision 1. [REPLACEMENT COMPONENTS.] (a) A district's "fluctuating enrollment replacement component" shall equal the amount of additional foundation aid or basic maintenance levy revenue the district would have received for the 1980-1981 school year if declining or growing enrollment pupil units had been used in the computation of basic foundation aid for 1980-1981 pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 124.212, Subdivision 7c, Clause (1) or of the 1979 basic maintenance levy limitation pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, 1979 Supplement, Section 275.125, Subdivision 2b or 2c.

(b) A district's "sparsity replacement component" shall equal the amount of additional aid the district would have received for the 1980-1981 school year if Minnesota Statutes 1979 Supplement, Section 124.224 had been effective for 1980-1981.

(c) A district's "basic replacement entitlement" shall equal the sum of its fluctuating enrollment replacement component and its sparsity replacement component, divided by its total pupil units in 1980-1981.

(d) "Replacement inflator" for any school year means the ratio of the foundation aid formula allowance for that school year to $1,265. For the 1981-1982 school year, however, the replacement inflator shall equal 107 percent.

(e) A district's "replacement allowance" for each school year shall equal its basic replacement entitlement times the replacement inflator for that school year.

(f) A district's "replacement levy limitation" means its levy limitation computed pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 6c.

Subd. 2. [REPLACEMENT REVENUE.] A district's replacement revenue for any school year shall equal its replacement allowance for that school year times its total pupil units for that school year.

Subd. 3. [REPLACEMENT AID.] A district's replacement aid for any school year shall equal its replacement revenue for that school year minus its replacement levy limitation for the levy for use in that school year.

Sec. 24. [124.2125.] [DISCRETIONARY AID.]

Subdivision 1. [DISCRETIONARY ALLOWANCE; DEFINITION.] "Discretionary allowance" means the amount of revenue per pupil unit used to compute discretionary aid for a particular school year and the discretionary levy for use in that school year. The discretionary allowance shall equal the formula allowance for the school year times the ratio of the discretionary mill rate to the basic maintenance mill rate for levies for use in that school year, rounded to the nearest cent. The discretionary allowance for 1981-1982, however, shall equal $64.48.

Subd. 2. [DISCRETIONARY MILL RATE.] "Discretionary mill rate" means the mill rate used to compute the discretionary levy, the discretionary allowance, and discretionary aid for use in a particular school year. The discretionary mill rate shall equal .001 for 1981-1982 aid. For the 1981 payable 1982 levy and 1982-1983 aid, and for the levy and aid for succeeding years, the discretionary mill rate shall equal .00225 in districts which levy pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 7a, clause (2), and .001 in districts which levy pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 7a, clause (3).

Subd. 3. [DISCRETIONARY REVENUE.] A district's discretionary revenue for each school year shall equal its discretionary allowance for that school year times its total pupil units for the preceding school year.

Subd. 4. [DISCRETIONARY AID.] A district's discretionary aid for each school year shall equal its discretionary revenue for that year, minus the discretionary mill rate times the applicable adjusted assessed valuation of the district.

Sec. 25. [124.2126.] [MINIMUM AID.] Subdivision 1. [QUALIFICATION.] A district where the assessed valuation of agricultural land identified in section 273.13, subdivisions 4, 6 and 6a, comprises 60 percent or more of the assessed valuation of the district shall qualify for minimum aid.

Subd. 2. [GUARANTEE.] A qualifying district's "minimum guarantee" for each school year shall equal $800 times its total pupil units for that school year, minus its basic foundation aid for that school year.

Subd. 3. [MINIMUM AID.] A qualifying district's minimum aid for each school year shall equal its minimum guarantee for that school year, minus the sum of:

(1) The amount of the district's state school agricultural tax credit aid for that school year;

(2) The amount by which property taxes of the district for use in that school year are reduced by the homestead credit provisions in section 273.13, subdivisions 6, 7, and 14a;

(3) The amount by which property taxes of the district for use in that school year are reduced by the taconite homestead credit provisions in section 273.135; and

(4) The amount by which property taxes of the district for use in that school year are reduced by the attached machinery provisions in section 273.138, subdivision 6.

Sec. 26. [124.2127.] [SHARED TIME PUPILS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITION; FOUNDATION AID.] Shared time pupils are defined as those pupils who attend public school programs for part of the regular school day and who otherwise fulfill the requirements of section 120.10 by attendance at a nonpublic school.

(a) The average daily membership of a pupil enrolled on a shared time basis shall equal the ratio of the total minutes for which the pupil is enrolled and the minimum minutes required during the year for a regularly enrolled public school pupil.

(b) Foundation aid for shared time pupils shall equal the amount which would accrue if shared time pupil units, counted pursuant to section 124.17, subdivision 1, clauses (1) and (2), were added to the district's total pupil units used in determining its foundation aid. Foundation aid for shared time pupils shall be in addition to any other aid to which the district is otherwise entitled and shared time average daily membership shall not be used in the computation of pupil units under section 124.17, subdivision 1, for any purpose other than the computation of shared time foundation aid pursuant to this subdivision.

(c) Foundation aid for shared time pupils shall be paid to the district of the pupil's residence. If a pupil attends shared time classes in another district, the resident district shall pay to the district of attendance an amount of tuition equal to the ratio in clause (a) times the amount of tuition which would be charged and paid for a nonresident public school pupil in a similar circumstance. The district of residence shall not be obligated for tuition except by previous agreement.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of clause (c), the resident district of a shared time pupil attending shared time classes in another district may grant the district of attendance, upon its request, permission to claim the pupil as a resident for state aid purposes. In this case, state aid shall be paid to the district of attendance and, upon agreement, the district of attendance may bill the resident district for any unreimbursed education costs, but not for unreimbursed transportation costs. The agreement may, however, provide for the resident district to pay the cost of any of the particular transportation categories specified in section 124.225, subdivision 1, and in this case, aid for those categories shall be paid to the district of residence rather than to the district of attendance.

(e) Minutes of enrollment in a public school during which a nonpublic school pupil receives services pursuant to section 123.935 shall not be used in the computation of shared time foundation aid pursuant to this subdivision.

Subd. 2. [LOCATION OF SERVICES.] Public school programs may be provided to shared time pupils only at a public school building; provided, however, that special instruction and services for handicapped children required pursuant to section 120.17 may also be provided at a neutral site as defined in section 123.932, and diagnostic and health services required pursuant to section 120.17 may also be provided at a nonpublic school building. As used in this subdivision, "diagnostic services" means speech, hearing, vision, psychological, medical and dental diagnostic services and "health services' means physician, nursing or optometric services provided to pupils in the field of physical and mental health.

Sec. 27. [124.2128.] [DEDUCTIONS FROM FOUNDATION AID.]

Subdivision 1. [UNDERLEVIES.] A district's basic foundation, grandfather, replacement or discretionary aid, as applicable, for any school year when the actual amount of the corresponding levy for use in that year is less than the permitted amount, shall be reduced by a percentage equal to the difference between the actual amount and the permitted amount, divided by the permitted amount. This provision shall apply to basic foundation aid only for a school year when the actual amount of the basic maintenance levy for use in that year is less than 95 percent of the permitted amount.

Subd. 2. [PERMANENT SCHOOL FUND.] The amount of money received by a school district as income from the permanent school fund for any year, shall be deducted from the foundation aid earned by the district for the same year or from aid earned from other state sources.

Subd. 3. [MINIMUM.] In no event shall the amount payable to any district from state sources for any one year be reduced below the amount payable as apportionment of the school endowment fund pursuant to sections 124.08 to 124.10.

Subd. 4. [COUNTY APPORTIONMENT DEDUCTION.] (1) The amount of money apportioned to a school district for each school year pursuant to section 124.10, subdivision 2, which exceeds the amount apportioned to that district pursuant to section 124.10, subdivision 2 for the 1976-1977 school year, shall be deducted from the foundation aid earned by that district for the same year.

(2) In addition to the deduction in clause (1), five-sixths of the amount apportioned pursuant to section 124.10, subdivision 2, shall be deducted from foundation aid for the 1981-1982 school year, but this deduction shall not exceed five-sixths of the amount apportioned for the 1976-1977 school year.

(3) In the 1982-1983 school year and each school year thereafter, the entire amount of money apportioned to a school district for that year pursuant to section 124.10, subdivision 2, shall be deducted from the foundation aid earned by that district for the same year.

Subd. 5. [TACONITE DEDUCTIONS.] (1) Notwithstanding any provisions of any other law to the contrary, the adjusted assessed valuation used in calculating foundation aid shall include only that property which is currently taxable in the district.

(2) For districts which received payments under sections 294.21 to 294.26; 298.23 to 298.28; 298.34 to 298.39; 298.391 to 298.396; 298.405; 298.51 to 298.67; any law imposing a tax upon severed mineral values, or under any other law distributing proceeds in lieu of ad valorem tax assessments on copper or nickel properties or recognized revenue pursuant to section 477A.15; the foundation aid shall be reduced in the October adjustment payment by the difference between the dollar amount of the payments received pursuant to those sections, or revenue recognized pursuant to section 477A.15 in the fiscal year to which the October adjustment is attributable and the amount which was calculated, pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 9, as a reduction of the levy attributable to the fiscal year to which the October adjustment is attributable. If the October adjustment of a district's foundation aid for a fiscal year is a negative amount because of this clause, the next fiscal year's foundation aid to that district shall be reduced by this negative amount in the following manner: there shall be withheld from each monthly scheduled foundation aid payment due the district in such fiscal year, 15 percent of the total negative amount, until the total negative amount has been withheld. The amount reduced from foundation aid pursuant to this clause shall be recognized as revenue in the fiscal year to which the October adjustment payment is attributable.

Subd. 6. [DISCRETIONARY AID FUND BALANCE REDUCTION.] A district's discretionary aid for any school year shall be reduced by the amount specified in section 38 of this article.

Sec. 28. [124.2129.] [FOUNDATION AID; RESIDENT AND NONRESIDENT DISTRICTS.]

Subdivision 1. [AID TO DISTRICT OF RESIDENCE.] Foundation aids shall be paid to the district of residence unless otherwise specifically provided by law.

Subd. 2. [DISTRICT WITHOUT SCHOOLS.] Any district not maintaining classified elementary or secondary schools shall pay the tuition required in order to enable resident pupils to attend school in another district when necessary, and shall receive foundation aid pursuant to this section on the same basis as other districts. The aid shall be computed as if the pupils were enrolled in the district of residence.

Subd. 3. [NOTIFICATION OF RESIDENT DISTRICT.] Any school district educating children who are residents of another school district shall notify the district of residence within 60 days of the date the child is determined by the district to be a nonresident, but not later than October 1 following the end of the school year in which the child is educated. If the district of residence does not receive a notification from the providing district pursuant to this subdivision, it shall not be liable to that district for any tuition billing received after October 1 of the next school year.

Subd. 4. [STATE AGENCY AND COURT PLACEMENTS.] If a state agency or a court of the state desires to place a child in a school district which is not the child's district of residence, that agency or court shall, prior to placement, allow the district of residence an opportunity to participate in the placement decision and notify the district of residence, the district of attendance and the commissioner of education of the placement decision. When a state agency or court determines that an immediate emergency placement is necessary and that time does not permit district participation in the placement decision or notice to the districts and the commissioner of education of the placement decision prior to the placement, the agency or court may make the decision and placement without that participation or prior notice. The agency or court shall notify the district of residence, the district of attendance and the commissioner of education of an emergency placement within 15 days of the placement.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 124.213, is amended to read:

124.213 [STATE SCHOOL AGRICULTURAL CREDIT.]

Subdivision 1. [TAX REDUCTIONS.] The county auditor shall reduce the tax for school purposes on all property receiving the homestead credit pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 6, by an amount equal to the tax levy that would be produced by applying a rate of 17 mills on the property. The county auditor shall reduce the tax for school purposes on all other agricultural lands and all real estate devoted to temporary and seasonal residential occupancy for recreational purposes, but not devoted to commercial purposes, by an amount that would be produced by applying a rate of ten mills on the property. The amounts so computed by the county auditor shall be submitted to the commissioner of revenue as part of the abstracts of tax lists required to be filed with the commissioner under the provisions of section 275.29. Any prior year adjustments shall also be certified in the abstracts of tax lists. The commissioner of revenue shall review such certifications to determine their accuracy. He may make such changes in the certification as he may deem necessary or return a certification to the county auditor for corrections.

In 1977, payment shall be made according to the procedure provided in section 273.13, subdivision 15a, for the purpose of replacing revenue lost as a result of the reduction of property taxes provided in this section. In 1978, payment shall be made pursuant to sections 124.212, subdivision 7b and 124.11, for the purpose of replacing revenue lost as a result of the reduction in property taxes provided in this section. There is appropriated from the general fund in the state treasury to the commissioner of revenue the amount necessary to make these payments in fiscal year 1978.

Subd. 2. [STATE AID.] A school district's state school agricultural tax credit aid for each school year shall equal the amount by which property taxes certified in the district for collection in the calendar year ending in that school year are reduced pursuant to subdivision 1.

Subd. 3. [APPROPRIATION.] There is appropriated from the general fund in the state treasury to the department of education the amount necessary to make these payments in fiscal year 1979 and thereafter.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 124.214, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ABATEMENTS.] Whenever by virtue of chapter 278, sections 270.07, 375.192, or otherwise, the assessed valuation of any school district for any taxable year is changed after the taxes for that year have been spread by the county auditor and whenever the mill rate as determined by the county auditor based upon the original assessed valuation is applied upon such changed valuations, the county auditor shall, prior to February 1 of each year, certify to the commissioner of education the amount of any resulting net revenue loss that accrued to the school district during the preceding year. In August of each year, the commissioner shall pay an abatement adjustment to the district in an amount calculated according to the provisions of this subdivision. This amount shall be deducted from the amount of the levy authorized by section 275.48. The amount of the abatement adjustment shall be the product of (1) the net revenue loss as certified by the county auditor, times (2) the ratio of the sum of the amounts of the district's levy limitations in the preceding October pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 2a; ~~clause (4) or (2)~~, and subdivisions 5, 6c, and 7a to the total amount of the district's maximum levy limitation in the preceding October pursuant to section 275.125. For purposes of this computation, the district's levy limitation pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 5, shall not include the amounts authorized to be levied for bus purchases or because of extraordinary traffic hazards. The abatement adjustment shall be recognized as revenue in the fiscal year in which it is received.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 275.125, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] Except as may otherwise be provided in this section, the words and phrases defined in sections 124.01 and, 124.212, section 17 of this article and sections 20 to 24 of this article when used in this section shall have the meanings ascribed to them in those sections.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 275.125, Subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [BASIC MAINTENANCE LEVY.] (1) ~~In 1979~~ Each year, a school district may levy for all general and special school purposes, an amount ~~equal to not to exceed~~ the amount raised by ~~23 mills~~ the basic maintenance mill rate times the ~~1978~~ adjusted assessed valuation of the district ~~for the preceding year.~~

(2) ~~In 1980, a school district may levy for all general and special school purposes, an amount equal to the amount raised by 21 mills times the 1979 adjusted assessed valuation of the district.~~

(3) ~~For any district levying less than 95 percent of the maximum levy allowable in clauses (1) and (2), the foundation aid to the district for the school year when the levy is recognized as revenue, calculated pursuant to section 124.212, subdivision 7e, clauses (1) and (6); or section 124.212, subdivision 7d, clauses (1) and (6); or their successor provisions, as applicable, shall be reduced to an amount equal to the ratio between the actual levy and the maximum levy allowable under clauses (1) and (2) times the foundation aid calculated pursuant to section 124.212, subdivision 7e, clauses (1) and (6); or section 124.212, subdivision 7d, clauses (1) and (6); or their successor provisions, as applicable, to which the district is otherwise entitled for that year. For purposes of computations pursuant to this clause, the maximum levy allowable and the actual levy under clauses (1) and (2) shall be increased by any reduction of this levy which is required by section 275.125, subdivision 9 or any other law. For purposes of this subdivision, the term "basic maintenance mill rate" shall have the meaning given it in section 21 of this article.~~

(4) (a) ~~Subd. 2d.~~ [REFERENDUM LEVY.] (1) The levy authorized by ~~clauses (1) or (2)~~ subdivision 2a may be increased in any amount which is approved by the voters of the district at a referendum called for the purpose. Such a referendum may be called by the school board or shall be called by the school board upon written petition of qualified voters of the district. The referendum shall be held on a date set by the school board. Only one such election may be held to approve a levy increase which will commence in a specific school year. The question on the ballot shall state the maximum amount of the increased levy in mills, the amount that will be raised by that millage in the first year it is to be levied, and that the millage shall be used to finance school operations. The question may designate a specific number of years for which the referendum authorization shall apply. If approved, the amount provided by the approved millage applied to each year's taxable valuation shall be authorized for certification for the number of years approved, if applicable, or until revoked by the voters of the district at a subsequent referendum.

(b) (2) A referendum on the question of revoking the increased levy amount authorized pursuant to clause (a) (1) of this ~~clause~~ subdivision may be called by the school board and shall be called by the school board upon the written petition of qualified voters of the district. ~~The amount A levy~~ approved by the voters of the district pursuant to clause (a) (1) of this ~~clause~~ subdivision must be ~~levied~~ made at least once before it is subject to a referendum on its revocation for subsequent years. Only one such revocation election may be held to revoke a levy for any specific year and for years thereafter.

(c) (3) A petition authorized by clauses (a) (1) or (b) of this ~~clause~~ (2) shall be effective if signed by a number of qualified voters in excess of 15 percent, or ten percent if the school board election is held in conjunction with a general election, of the average number of voters at the two most recent district wide school elections. A referendum invoked by petition shall be held within three months of submission of the petition to the school board.

(d) (4) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the approval of 50 percent plus one of those voting on the question is required to pass a referendum.

(e) (5) Within 30 days after the district holds a referendum pursuant to this clause, the district shall notify the commissioner of education of the results of the referendum.

In any year when the amount of the maximum levy limitation under subdivision 2a, ~~clause (1) or (2)~~, for any district ~~with fewer than 950 pupil units under section 124.17, subdivision 1, clauses (1) and (2)~~, exceeds the product of the district's foundation aid formula allowance for the year in which the levy is recognized as revenue times the estimated number of actual and AFDC pupil units for that district ~~identified in section 124.17, subdivision 1, clauses (1), (2), (4) and (5)~~, for that school year, the levy limitation for that district under subdivision 2a, ~~clause (1) or (2)~~, shall be limited to the greater of the dollar amount of the levy the district certified in 1977 under Minnesota Statutes 1978, Section 275.125, subdivision 2a, clause (1), or the following difference but not to exceed the levy limitation under subdivision 2a, ~~clause (1) or (2)~~:

(a) the product of the district's foundation aid formula allowance ~~under section 124.212~~ for the school year in which the levy is recognized as revenue, times the estimated number of actual and AFDC pupil units for that district ~~identified in section 124.17, subdivision 1, clauses (1), (2), (4) and (5)~~, for that school year, less

(b) the estimated amount of any payments which would reduce the district's foundation aid entitlement as provided in section ~~124.212 27~~, subdivision ~~5a 4~~ of this article in the school year in which the levy is recognized as revenue.

(2) A levy made by a district pursuant to this subdivision shall be construed to be the levy made by that district pursuant to subdivision 2a, ~~clause (1) or (2)~~, for purposes of statutory cross-reference.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 275.125, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2f. [SUMMER SCHOOL LEVY.] A district may levy for summer school programs an amount equal to the following product:

(1) The district's summer school revenue allowance as defined in section 124.20 for the calendar year when the levy is certified, times

(2) the lesser of

(a) one or

(b) the ratio of

(i) the quotient derived by dividing the adjusted assessed valuation of the district in the third preceding year, by the number of actual and AFDC pupil units in the district in the preceding regular school year, to

(ii) the equalizing factor for the preceding regular school year.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 275.125, Subdivision 6b, is amended to read:

(b) the product obtained by multiplying

(i) the amount per pupil unit which the district was permitted to levy in 1978 under Minnesota Statutes 1978, Section 275.125, Subdivisions 6 and 7, times

(ii) the number of pupil units identified in section 124.17, subdivision 1, clauses (1), (2), (6), and (7), in the district in 1979-1980. For purposes of this subdivision, the terms "grandfather guarantee" and "grandfather allowance" shall have the meanings given them in section 22 of this article.

(3) For purposes of computing levy limitations pursuant to this subdivision and the matching grandfather aid, the department shall use and shall not be required to subsequently adjust the state average adjusted assessed valuation per pupil unit determined as of the September 1 before the levy is certified.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 275.125, Subdivision 6c, is amended to read:

Subd. 6c. [REPLACEMENT LEVY.] (1) In 1979 any district may levy an amount equal to the lesser of

(a) the product obtained by multiplying

(i) the ratio of

(A) the quotient obtained by dividing the sum of the additional amounts of aid the district would receive if pupil units identified in section 124.17, subdivision 1, clauses (6) and (7) were used in addition to the pupil units identified in section 124.17, subdivision 1, clauses (1), (2), (4) and (5), in the computation pursuant to section 124.212, subdivision 7c, clause (1), and if section 124.224 were effective in the 1980-1981 school year, by the number of pupil units identified in section 124.17, subdivision 1, clauses (1), (2), (4) and (5), in the district in 1980-1981, to

(B) $55,000, times

(ii) the district's 1978 adjusted assessed valuation, or

For purposes of this subdivision, the terms "discretionary allowance" and "discretionary mill rate" shall have the meanings given them in section 24 of this article.

(3) In 1981 and each year thereafter, a district which levies the maximum permissible amount pursuant to subdivision 2a and subdivision 6b, and where the net unappropriated balance in all operating funds as of the preceding June 30 is less than $165 per actual and AFDC pupil unit in the district in the school year when the levy is certified, may levy an amount which shall not exceed the lesser of (a) one mill times the district's adjusted assessed valuation for the preceding year or (b) the product obtained by multiplying the applicable discretionary allowance times the total number of pupil units in the district in the school year when the levy is certified, without holding a public hearing or conducting a referendum pursuant to clause (5).

(4) The board is not required to hold a public hearing or conduct a referendum on the levy authorized by this subdivision in any year when it levies pursuant to clause (3) or when the board proposes to levy an amount not to exceed an amount equal to the preceding year's adjusted assessed valuation times the largest number of EARC mills previously levied by the district pursuant to this subdivision.

(5)(a) Except as provided in clause (3), the provisions of clause (5) shall apply to the levy authorization in this subdivision in any year when the board either proposes to levy pursuant to this subdivision for the first time or proposes to increase the number of mills which it levies against its adjusted assessed valuation pursuant to this subdivision to a number of mills greater than the largest number of mills previously levied against its adjusted assessed valuation pursuant to this subdivision.

(b) By the July 1 before a district certifies any levy pursuant to this subdivision in 1980, in any even-numbered year thereafter, or in any odd-numbered year thereafter when the district has not certified a levy pursuant to this subdivision in the preceding year July 15 in any year when clause (5) applies, the board of the district shall hold a public hearing on the need for the proposed levy pursuant to this subdivision or increase. At least three weeks published notice of the hearing in 10 point type or 5.0 agate type, on 12 point body, with a larger headline, shall be given in the legal newspaper with the largest circulation in the district. The notice shall state the amount of the proposed levy or increase in dollars, in EARC mills and in auditor's mills, and the estimated net unappropriated fund balance in the district's operating funds as of the June 30 before the levy or increase is certified, and the tax impact of the proposed levy on homesteads with market values of $30,000 and $50,000.

(c) At the hearing, the district shall present its proposed revenue and expenditure budgets for the next two school years and, the estimated net unappropriated fund balances in all district funds as of the June 30 before the levy or increase is certified, and the estimated amount in dollars, in EARC mills and in auditor's mills of any reduction of the proposed levy which may be required by section 38 of this article. At the hearing, and the board shall also hear all parties requesting to give testimony for and against the proposed levy or increase. Upon receipt of a petition within 20 30 days after the hearing of the greater of (a) 50 voters, or (b) 15 percent of the number of voters who voted in the district at the most recent regular school board election, the board shall call a referendum on a reduction of the proposed levy or increase. The petition shall state the number of mills on the district's adjusted assessed valuation by which it proposes to reduce the proposed levy. No petition or referendum shall provide for a reduction of a proposed levy pursuant to this subdivision to a rate less than one-half mill on the district's adjusted assessed valuation below the rate levied by the district pursuant to this subdivision in the preceding year. A petition shall be effective if signed by a number of qualified voters in the district equal to the greater of 50 voters or 15 percent of the number of voters who voted in the district at the most recent regular school board election.

(d) The referendum shall be held on a date set by the school board, but no later than the ~~August 20~~ September 20 before the levy is certified. ~~The question on the ballot shall state the maximum amount of the proposed levy, the amount of the proposed reduction of the levy and the amount of the levy if the reduction is approved, in mills on the district's adjusted assessed valuation and in dollars in the first year of the proposed levy.~~

The ballot shall state substantially the following, as appropriate:

The board of _____ School District No. _____ has proposed (a discretionary levy in a maximum amount of _____ EARC mills which would raise) (to increase a discretionary levy from _____ EARC mills to _____ EARC mills. This increase would provide an additional) $ _____ in the first year levied.

Shall the (increase in the) discretionary levy

Yes proposed by the Board of School
 No District No. be approved?

(e) The approval of a majority of those voting on the question is required to pass the referendum.

(f) If a petition is not received or if the proposed levy or increase is approved at a referendum, the district may levy the amount provided by the number of mills proposed by the school board, in the year when the hearing or referendum is held and in succeeding years. If a proposed first time levy is not approved, except as provided in clause (3), the district may not levy pursuant to this subdivision in the year when the referendum is held and shall be required to comply with the provisions of clause (5) before levying pursuant to this subdivision in a subsequent year. If a proposed increase is not approved, the district may levy an amount not to exceed the amount provided by the millage proposed by the school board, reduced by any reduction in millage approved at a referendum pursuant to this clause largest number of EARC mills previously levied by the district pursuant to this subdivision, applied to the preceding year's adjusted assessed valuation until the next even-numbered year. The district is not required to hold a public hearing or call a referendum on a levy pursuant to this subdivision in any odd-numbered year which succeeds a year in which a levy is certified pursuant to this subdivision.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 275.125, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7c. [DISCRETIONARY LEVY FUND BALANCE PROVISION.] Beginning with the 1981 levy, for a district where the net unappropriated operating fund balance as of the June 30 before the levy is certified exceeds $500 per actual and AFDC pupil unit in the year when the levy is certified, the discretionary levy limitation shall be reduced by the amount of the excess times the lesser of one or the ratio of the district's EARC valuation for the preceding year per actual and AFDC pupil unit in the school year when the levy is certified, to the equalizing factor. Beginning with the 1982-1983 school year, the discretionary aid for the year when that levy is used shall be reduced by any amount of the excess which is not subtracted from the levy.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 275.125, Subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [LEVY REDUCTIONS; TACONITE.] (1) ~~Districts which receive~~ payments which result in deductions from foundation aid pursuant to section 124.212, subdivision 8a, clause (1), shall reduce the permissible levies authorized by subdivisions 3 to 14 by that portion of the previous year's payment not deducted from foundation aid on account of the payment. The levy reductions shall be made in the proportions that each permissible levy bears to the sum of the permissible levies. Reductions in levies pursuant to this clause, subdivision 10 of this section, and section 273.138, shall be made prior to the reductions in clause (2).

(2) Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, districts which received payments pursuant to sections 294.21 to 294.26; 298.23 to 298.28; 298.34 to 298.39; 298.391 to 298.396; 298.405; 298.51 to 298.67; 477A.15; and any law imposing a tax upon severed mineral values, or under any other law distributing proceeds in lieu of ad valorem tax assessments on copper or nickel properties, or recognized revenue pursuant to section 477A.15; shall not include a portion of these aids in their permissible levies pursuant to those sections, but instead shall reduce the permissible levies authorized by this section by the greater of the following:

(a) an amount equal to 50 percent of the total dollar amount of the payments received pursuant to those sections or revenue recognized pursuant to section 477A.15 in the previous fiscal year; or

(b) an amount equal to the total dollar amount of the payments received pursuant to those sections or revenue recognized pursuant to section 477A.15 in the previous fiscal year less the product of the same dollar amount of payments or revenue times the ratio of the maximum levy allowed the district under subdivision 2a, to the total levy allowed the district under this section in the year in which the levy is certified.

(3) No reduction pursuant to this subdivision shall reduce the levy made by the district pursuant to subdivision 2a, ~~clause (1) or (2)~~, to an amount less than the amount raised by a levy of ten mills times the adjusted assessed valuation of that district for the preceding year as determined by the equalization aid review committee. The amount of any increased levy authorized by referendum pursuant to subdivision 2a, ~~clause (4) 2d~~ shall not be reduced pursuant to this subdivision. The amount of any levy authorized by subdivision 4, to make payments for bonds issued and for interest thereon, shall not be reduced pursuant to this subdivision. The amount of any levy authorized by subdivision 7a shall not be reduced pursuant to this subdivision.

(4) Before computing the reduction pursuant to this subdivision of the capital expenditure levy authorized by subdivision 11a, and the community service levy authorized by subdivision 8, the commissioner shall ascertain from each affected school district the amount it proposes to levy for capital expenditures pursuant to subdivision 11a and for community services pursuant to subdivision 8. The reduction of the capital expenditure levy and the community services levy shall be computed on the basis of the amount so ascertained.

(5) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, any amounts received by districts in any fiscal year pursuant to sections 294.21 to 294.26; 298.23 to 298.28; 298.34 to 298.39; 298.391 to 298.396; 298.405; 298.51 to 298.67; or any law imposing a tax on severed mineral values, or under any other law distributing proceeds in lieu of ad valorem tax assessments on copper or nickel properties; and not deducted from foundation aid pursuant to section ~~124.212~~ 27, subdivision ~~8a~~ 5, clause (2), of this article and not applied to reduce levies pursuant to this subdivision shall be paid by the district to the commissioner of finance in the following amount on the designated date: on or before March 15 of each year, 100 percent of the amount required to be subtracted from the previous fiscal year's foundation aid pursuant to section ~~124.212~~ 27, subdivision ~~8a~~ 5, of this article which is in excess of the foundation aid earned for that fiscal year. The commissioner of finance shall deposit any amounts received pursuant to this clause in the taconite property tax relief fund in the state treasury, established pursuant to section 16A.70 for purposes of paying the taconite homestead credit as provided in section 273.135.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 275.125, Subdivision 9a, is amended to read:

Subd. 9a. [STATUTORY OPERATING DEBT LEVY.] (1) In 1978 and each year thereafter in which so required by this subdivision, a district shall make an additional levy to eliminate its statutory operating debt, determined as of June 30, 1977 and certified and adjusted by the commissioner. This levy shall not be made in more than 20 successive years and each year before it is made, it must be approved by the commissioner and the approval shall specify its amount. This levy shall in each year be an amount which is equal to the amount raised by a levy of 1.5 mills times the adjusted assessed valuation of the district for the preceding year as determined by the equalization aid review committee; provided that in the last year in which the district is required to make this levy, it shall levy an amount not to exceed the amount raised by a levy of 1.5 mills times the adjusted assessed valuation of the district for the preceding year as determined by the equalization aid review committee. When the cumulative levies made pursuant to this subdivision equal an amount equal to the statutory operating debt of the district, the levy shall be discontinued.

(2) The district shall establish a special account in the general fund which shall be designated "appropriated fund balance reserve account for purposes of reducing statutory operating debt" on its books and records. This account shall reflect the levy authorized pursuant to this subdivision. The proceeds of this levy shall be used only for cash flow requirements and shall not be used to supplement district revenues or income for the purposes of increasing the district's expenditures or budgets.

(3) Any district which is required to levy pursuant to this subdivision shall certify the maximum levy allowable under subdivision 2a, ~~clause (1) or (2)~~ in that same year.

(4) Each district shall make permanent fund balance transfers so that the total statutory operating debt of the district is reflected in the general fund as of June 30, 1977.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 275.125, Subdivision 19, is amended to read:

Subd. 19. [LEVY REDUCTION; MINIMUM AID.] ~~Beginning with the 1979 payable 1980 levy,~~ Any district which it is estimated will receive an amount of minimum foundation aid pursuant to section ~~124.212, subdivision 7e, clause (6)~~ 25 of this article or its successor provision in the year to which the levy is attributable, shall reduce its levy limitation pursuant to subdivision

2a, ~~clause (4) or (2)~~, by the amount of minimum foundation aid which it is estimated that the district will receive in the year to which the levy is attributable.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 275.125, Subdivision 20, is amended to read:

Subd. 20. [ESTIMATES.] The computation of levy limitations pursuant to ~~subdivisions 2b, 2c, 6e and 49~~ this section shall be based on estimates where necessary. If as a result of using estimates for these computations the amount of any levy is different from the amount which could actually have been levied if actual data had been available, levy limitations in the first year when the actual data is known shall be adjusted to reflect for this difference. The amount of any adjustment to levy limitations pursuant to this subdivision shall be recognized as revenue in the school year when the levy for which the levy limitation is so adjusted is recognized as revenue.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 298.28, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The proceeds of the taxes collected under section 298.24, except the tax collected under section 298.24, subdivision 2, shall, upon certificate of the commissioner of revenue to the general fund of the state, be paid by the commissioner of revenue as follows:

(1) 2.5 cents per gross ton of merchantable iron ore concentrate, hereinafter referred to as "taxable ton", to the city or town in which the lands from which taconite was mined or quarried were located or within which the concentrate was produced. If the mining, quarrying, and concentration, or different steps in either thereof are carried on in more than one taxing district, the commissioner shall apportion equitably the proceeds of the part of the tax going to cities and towns among such subdivisions upon the basis of attributing 40 percent of the proceeds of the tax to the operation of mining or quarrying the taconite, and the remainder to the concentrating plant and to the processes of concentration, and with respect to each thereof giving due consideration to the relative extent of such operations performed in each such taxing district. His order making such apportionment shall be subject to review by the tax court at the instance of any of the interested taxing districts, in the same manner as other orders of the commissioner.

(2) 12.5 cents per taxable ton, less any amount distributed under clause (8), to the taconite municipal aid account in the apportionment fund of the state treasury, to be distributed as provided in section 298.282.

(3) 29 cents per taxable ton plus the increase provided in paragraph (c) to qualifying school districts to be distributed as follows:

(a) Six cents per taxable ton to the school districts in which the lands from which taconite was mined or quarried were located or within which the concentrate was produced. The commissioner shall follow the apportionment formula prescribed in clause (1).

(b) 23 cents per taxable ton, less any amount distributed under part ~~(e)~~ (d), shall be distributed to a group of school districts comprised of those school districts wherein the taconite was mined or quarried or the concentrate produced or in which there is a qualifying municipality as defined by section

273.134. The 23 cents, less any amount distributed under part (c), shall be distributed in direct proportion to school district tax levies as follows: each district shall receive that portion of the total distribution which its permitted levy for the prior year, computed pursuant to section 275.125, comprises of the sum of permitted levies for the prior year for all qualifying districts, computed pursuant to section 275.125. For purposes of distributions pursuant to this part, permitted levies for the prior year computed pursuant to section 275.125 shall not include the amount of any increased levy authorized by referendum pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 2a, clause (4) 2d.

(c) On July 15, 1982 and on July 15 in subsequent years, an amount equal to the increase derived by increasing the amount determined by clause (3)(b) in the same proportion as the increase in the steel mill products index over the base year of 1977 as provided in section 298.24, subdivision 1, clause (a), shall be distributed to any school district described in clause (3)(b) where a levy increase pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 2d, is authorized by referendum, according to the following formula. Each district shall receive the product of:

(i) $150 times the pupil units identified in section 124.17, subdivision 1, clauses (1) and (2), enrolled in the previous school year, less the product of two mills times the district's taxable valuation in the second previous year; times

(ii) the lesser of:

(A) one, or

(B) the ratio of the amount certified pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 2d, in the previous year, to the product of two mills times the district's taxable valuation in the second previous year.

If the total amount provided by clause (3)(c) is insufficient to make the payments herein required then the entitlement of $150 per pupil unit shall be reduced uniformly so as not to exceed the funds available. Any amounts received by a qualifying school district in any fiscal year pursuant to clause (3)(c) shall not be applied to reduce foundation aids which the district is entitled to receive pursuant to section 124.212 or the permissible levies of the district. Any amount remaining after the payments provided in this paragraph shall be paid to the commissioner of finance who shall deposit the same in the taconite environmental protection fund and the northeast Minnesota economic protection fund as provided in section 298.28, subdivision 1, clause 10.

(e) (d) There shall be distributed to any school district the amount which the school district was entitled to receive under section 298.32 in 1975.

(4) 19.5 cents per taxable ton to counties to be distributed as follows:

(a) 15.5 cents per taxable ton shall be distributed to the county in which the taconite is mined or quarried or in which the concentrate is produced, less any amount which is to be distributed pursuant to part (b). The commissioner shall follow the apportionment formula prescribed in clause (1).

(b) If an electric power plant owned by and providing the primary source of power for a taxpayer mining and concentrating taconite is located in a county other than the county in which the mining and the concentrating processes are conducted, one cent per taxable ton of the tax distributed to the counties pursuant to part (a) and imposed on and collected from such taxpayer shall be distributed by the commissioner of revenue to the county in which the power plant is located.

(c) Four cents per taxable ton shall be paid to the county from which the taconite was mined, quarried or concentrated to be deposited in the county road and bridge fund. If the mining, quarrying and concentrating, or separate steps in any of those processes are carried on in more than one county, the commissioner shall follow the apportionment formula prescribed in clause (1).

(5) (a) 25.75 cents per taxable ton, less any amount required to be distributed under part (b), to the taconite property tax relief account in the apportionment fund in the state treasury, to be distributed as provided in sections 273.134 to 273.136.

(b) If an electric power plant owned by and providing the primary source of power for a taxpayer mining and concentrating taconite is located in a county other than the county in which the mining and the concentrating processes are conducted, .75 cent per taxable ton of the tax imposed and collected from such taxpayer shall be distributed by the commissioner of revenue to the county and school district in which the power plant is located as follows: 25 percent to the county and 75 percent to the school district.

(6) One cent per taxable ton to the state for the cost of administering the tax imposed by section 298.24.

(7) Three cents per taxable ton shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the iron range resources and rehabilitation board account in the special revenue fund for the purposes of section 298.22. The amount determined in this clause shall be increased in 1981 and subsequent years in the same proportion as the increase in the steel mill products index as provided in section 298.24, subdivision 1. The amount distributed pursuant to this clause shall be expended within or for the benefit of a tax relief area defined in section 273.134. No part of the fund provided in this clause may be used to provide loans for the operation of private business unless the loan is approved by the governor and the legislative advisory commission.

(8) .20 cent per taxable ton shall be paid in 1979 and each year thereafter, to the range association of municipalities and schools, for the purpose of providing an area wide approach to problems which demand coordinated and cooperative actions and which are common to those areas of northeast Minnesota affected by operations involved in mining iron ore and taconite and producing concentrate therefrom, and for the purpose of promoting the general welfare and economic development of the cities, towns and school districts within the iron range area of northeast Minnesota.

(9) the amounts determined under clauses (4)(a), (4)(c), and (5) shall be increased in 1979 and subsequent years in the same proportion as the increase in the steel mill products index as provided in section 298.24, subdivision 1.

(10) the proceeds of the tax imposed by section 298.24 which remain after the distributions in clauses (1) to (9) and parts (a) and (b) of this clause have been made shall be divided between the taconite environmental protection fund created in section 298.223 and the northeast Minnesota economic protection fund created in section 298.292 as follows: In 1978, 1979, 1980, 1981, and 1982, two-thirds to the taconite environmental protection fund and one-third to the northeast Minnesota economic protection fund; in 1983 and thereafter, one-half to each fund. The proceeds shall be placed in the respective special accounts in the general fund.

(a) In 1978 and each year thereafter, there shall be distributed to each city, town, school district, and county the amount that they received under section 294.26 in calendar year 1977.

(b) In 1978 and each year thereafter, there shall be distributed to the iron range resources and rehabilitation board the amounts it received in 1977 under section 298.22.

On or before October 10 of each calendar year each producer of taconite or iron sulphides subject to taxation under section 298.24 (hereinafter called "taxpayer") shall file with the commissioner of revenue and with the county auditor of each county in which such taxpayer operates, and with the chief clerical officer of each school district, city or town which is entitled to participate in the distribution of the tax, an estimate of the amount of tax which would be payable by such taxpayer under said law for such calendar year; provided such estimate shall be in an amount not less than the amount due on the mining and production of concentrates up to September 30 of said year plus the amount becoming due because of probable production between September 30 and December 31 of said year, less any credit allowable as hereinafter provided. Such estimate shall list the taxing districts entitled to participate in the distribution of such tax, and the amount of the estimated tax which would be distributable to each such district in the next ensuing calendar year on the basis of the last percentage distribution certified by the commissioner of revenue. If there be no such prior certification, the taxpayer shall set forth its estimate of the proper distribution of such tax under the law, which estimate may be corrected by the commissioner if he deems it improper, notice of such correction being given by him to the taxpayer and the public officers receiving such estimate. The officers with whom such report is so filed shall use the amount so indicated as being distributable to each taxing district in computing the permissible tax levy of such county, city or school district in the year in which such estimate is made, and payable in the next ensuing calendar year, except that in 1978 and 1979 two cents per taxable ton, and in 1980 and thereafter, one cent per taxable ton of the amount distributed under clause (4)(c) shall not be deducted in calculating the permissible levy. Such taxpayer shall then pay, at the times payments are required to be made pursuant to section 298.27, as the amount of tax payable under section 298.24, the greater of (a) the amount shown by such estimate, or (b) the amount due under said section as finally determined by the commissioner of revenue pursuant to law. If, as a result of the payment of the amount of such estimate, the taxpayer has paid in any calendar year an amount of tax in excess of the amount due in such year under section 298.24, after application of credits for any excess payments made in previous years, all as determined by the commissioner of revenue, the taxpayer shall be given credit for such excess amount against any taxes which, under said section, may become due from the taxpayer in subsequent years. In any calendar year in which a general property tax levy subject to sections 275.125 or 275.50 to 275.59 has been made, if the taxes distributable to any such county, city or school district are greater than the amount estimated to be paid to any such county, city or school district in such year, the excess of such distribution shall be held in a special fund by the county, city or school district and shall not be expended until the succeeding calendar year, and shall be included in computing the permissible levies under sections 275.125 or 275.50 to 275.59, of such county, city or school district payable in such year. If the amounts distributable to any such county, city or school district, after final determination by the commissioner of revenue under this section are less than the amounts indicated by such estimates, such county, city or school district may issue certificates of indebtedness in the amount of the shortage, and may include in its next tax levy, in excess of the limitations of sections 275.125 or 275.50 to 275.59 an amount sufficient to pay such certificates of indebtedness and interest thereon, or, if no certificates were issued, an amount equal to such shortage.

There is hereby annually appropriated to such taxing districts as are stated herein, to the taconite property tax relief account and to the taconite municipal aid account in the apportionment fund in the state treasury, to the department of revenue, to the iron range resources and rehabilitation board, to the range association of municipalities and schools, to the taconite environmental protection fund, and to the northeast Minnesota economic protection fund, from any fund or account in the state treasury to which the money was credited, an amount sufficient to make the payment or transfer. The payment of the amount appropriated to such taxing districts shall be made by the commissioner of revenue on or before May 15 annually.

Sec. 44. [DULUTH AIR BASE CLOSING; AID.]

Subdivision 1. [DETERMINING PUPIL UNIT REDUCTION.] In the 1981-1982 school year, Independent School Districts No. 700, No. 704, and No. 709 shall determine the reduction in number of pupil units from the 1980-1981 school year because of the closing of the Duluth air base.

Subd. 2. [1981-1982 ADJUSTMENT.] In the 1981-1982 school year, Independent School Districts No. 700, No. 704, and No. 709 shall receive 50 percent of the foundation aid lost because of the reduction in pupil units pursuant to subdivision 1.

Sec. 45. [LEVY ADJUSTMENTS.]

In 1981, the maximum levy limitation under Minnesota Statutes, Section 275.125, Subdivision 2a or 2e, as applicable, for each district shall be reduced by any difference between the amount of the basic maintenance levy certified by the district in 1980 and the amount of the 1980 basic maintenance levy limitation which would have been computed for the district using a formula allowance of $1,318.

Sec. 46. [USE OF RESTORATION FUNDS.]

Moneys paid to a school district pursuant to Session Laws 1981, Chapter 1, may be deposited in the school district's general fund and may be used for any expenditure for which general fund moneys may be used, notwithstanding any provision in the law restricting the use of moneys to the specific purpose for which the moneys were appropriated.

Sec. 47. [EVALUATION OF GRANDFATHER AND REPLACEMENT LEVY.]

The state department of education shall study and evaluate the effects of the grandfather and replacement levy limitations and grandfather and replacement aid and report the findings of this study to the education committees of the legislature before February 15, 1982. The reports shall include recent data on patterns of revenue, expenditures, unit costs, and fund balances of school districts.

Sec. 48. [INSTRUCTIONS TO REVISOR.]

- (8) The number of authorized FTE's transported by the district in the secondary vocational center transportation category as a percentage of the total number of authorized FTE's transported by the district;
- (9) The number of authorized FTE's per square mile transported by the district in the regular transportation category;
- (10) The number of authorized FTE's per square mile transported by the district in the handicapped transportation category;
- (11) The number of authorized FTE's transported by the district in the regular transportation category as a percentage of the district's average daily membership;

The district's aid shall be determined for purposes of the first three transportation aid payments for the school year using these estimates. ~~Before August 15, 1980, each district shall provide the department with the information for the 1979-1980 school year which the department determines is necessary to compute the district's actual authorized expenditure per FTE for purposes of the computation in subdivision 7 and the district's actual total number of FTE's transported for purposes of the aid computation in subdivision 8. Before August 15, 1981, and each August 15 thereafter year,~~ each district shall provide the department with the information for the preceding school year which the department determines is necessary to compute the district's actual authorized expenditure per weighted FTE for purposes of the computation in subdivision 7a and the district's actual total number of weighted FTE's transported for purposes of the aid computation in subdivision 8a. Subd. 5. A child with a short-term or temporary physical or emotional illness or disability, as determined by the standards of the state board, is not a handicapped child.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 120.17, Subdivision 3b, is amended to read:

Subd. 3b. [PROCEDURES FOR DECISIONS.] Every district shall utilize at least the following procedures for decisions involving identification, assessment and educational placement of handicapped children:

(a) Parents and guardians shall receive prior written notice of: (1) any proposed formal educational assessment or proposed denial of a formal educational assessment of their child; (2) a proposed placement of their child in, transfer from or to, or denial of placement in a special education program; or (3) the proposed provision, addition, denial or removal of special education services for their child;

(b) The district shall not proceed with the initial formal assessment of a child, the initial placement of a child in a special education program or the initial provision of special education services for a child without the prior written consent of the child's parent or guardian; provided the refusal of a parent or guardian to provide this consent may be overridden by the decision in a hearing held pursuant to clause (d) at the district's initiative after at least one attempt to obtain this consent through a conciliation conference held pursuant to clause (c);

(c) Parents and guardians shall have an opportunity to meet with appropriate district staff in at least one conciliation conference if they object to any proposal of which they are notified pursuant to clause (a);

(d) Parents, guardians and the district shall have an opportunity to obtain an impartial due process hearing initiated and conducted in the school district where the child resides, if after at least one conciliation conference the parent or guardian continues to object to: (1) a proposed formal educational assessment or proposed denial of a formal educational assessment of their child; (2) the proposed placement of their child in, or transfer of their child to a special education program; (3) the proposed denial of placement of their child in a special education program or the transfer of their child from a special education program; (4) the proposed provision or addition of special education services for their child; or (5) the proposed denial or removal of special education services for their child. At least five calendar days before the hearing, the objecting party shall provide the other party with a brief written statement of the objection and the reasons for the objection.

The hearing shall take place before an impartial hearing officer mutually agreed to by the school board and the parent or guardian. If the school board and the parent or guardian are unable to agree on a hearing officer, the school board shall request the commissioner to appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer shall not be a school board member or employee of the school district where the child resides or of the child's school district of residence, an employee of any other public agency involved in the education or care of the child, or any person with a personal or professional interest which would conflict with his objectivity at the hearing. If the hearing officer requests an independent educational assessment of a child, the cost of the assessment shall be at district expense. The proceedings shall be recorded and preserved, at the expense of the school district, pending ultimate disposition of the action.

(e) The decision of the hearing officer pursuant to clause (d) shall be rendered not more than 45 calendar days from the date of the receipt of the request for the hearing. A hearing officer may grant specific extensions of time beyond the 45 day period at the request of either party. The decision of the hearing officer shall be binding on all parties unless appealed to the commissioner by the parent, guardian, or the school board of the district where the child resides pursuant to clause (f).

The local decision shall:

- (1) be in writing;
- (2) state the controlling facts upon which the decision is made in sufficient detail to apprise the parties and the commissioner of the basis and reason for the decision;
- (3) state whether the special education program or special education services appropriate to the child's needs can be reasonably provided within the resources available to the responsible district or districts;
- (4) state the amount and source of any additional district expenditure necessary to implement the decision; and
- (5) be based on the standards set forth in subdivision 3a and the rules of the state board.

(f) Any local decision issued pursuant to clauses (d) and (e) may be appealed to the commissioner within 15 calendar days of receipt of that written decision, by the parent, guardian, or the school board of the district where the child resides.

If the decision is appealed, a written transcript of the hearing shall be made by the school district and shall be accessible to the parties involved within five calendar days of the filing of the appeal. The commissioner shall issue a final decision based on an impartial review of the local decision and the entire record within 30 calendar days after the filing of the appeal. The commissioner shall seek additional evidence if necessary and may afford the parties an opportunity for written or oral argument; provided any hearing held to seek additional evidence shall be an impartial due process hearing but shall be deemed not to be a contested case hearing for purposes of chapter 15. The commissioner may grant specific extensions of time beyond the 30 day period at the request of any party.

The final decision shall:

(1) be in writing;

(2) include findings and conclusions; and

(3) be based upon the standards set forth in subdivision 3a and in the rules of the state board.

(g) The decision of the commissioner shall be final unless appealed by the parent or guardian or school board to the district court of the county in which the school district in whole or in part is located. The scope of judicial review shall be as provided in chapter 15.

(h) Pending the completion of proceedings pursuant to this subdivision, unless the district and the parent or guardian of the child agree otherwise, the child shall remain in his current educational placement and shall not be denied initial admission to school.

(i) The child's school district of residence, if different from the district where the child actually resides, shall receive notice of and may be a party to any hearings or appeals pursuant to this subdivision.

(j) ~~This subdivision shall expire on June 30, 1981. The department of education shall report to the education committees of the legislature on or before January 1, 1981, on the impact of the amendments made in this subdivision by Laws 1979, Chapter 334 and on the advisability of amending this subdivision to read as it reads in Minnesota Statutes 1978.~~

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 79.071, is amended by adding subdivisions to read:

Subd. 8. When an insurer's estimate of amounts required to be reserved is based in any part on the operation of section 176.645, any assumption as to reserves required due to the operation of section 176.645, shall, for the purposes of determining rates, be offset by an assumption that the amount initially reserved shall be invested and yield a return equal to the annual percentage increase in the statewide average weekly wage. With respect to other reserved amounts, the commissioner shall, in determining rates, cause those rates to fully reflect the investment earnings of insurers which arise from revenues derived from the sale of workers' compensation insurance, either by use of a discount rate of no less than six percent in determining the reserves necessary for all claims, or by the use of an alternative methodology which the commissioner finds is more appropriate. Insurers shall provide the commissioner with any information which he deems necessary to arrive at the determination required by this subdivision.

Subd. 9. In no case shall more than one insurer reserve amounts in anticipation of losses on a single claim, nor shall an insurer reserve amounts in anticipation of losses which are the responsibility of the reinsurance association.

Subd. 10. No modification by an insurer or the association of an experience rating plan, an experience rating plan formula or an experience rating factor is effective unless approved by the commissioner of insurance.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 79.25, is amended to read:

79.25 [~~ASSOCIATION~~ COMMISSIONER TO FIX PREMIUM RATES.]

~~Subdivision 1.~~ When any rejected risk is called to its attention and it appears that the risk is in good faith entitled to coverage the ~~association~~ commissioner of insurance shall fix the initial premium therefor and may fix an additional charge to compensate the agent of record for his services and, upon its payment, the ~~association~~ commissioner of insurance shall enter into a service contract with one or more qualified ~~designate a member~~ members of the association, or qualified group self-insurance administrators licensed pursuant to section 176.181, subdivision 2, clause (2) (a), whose duty it shall be to issue a policy, or a group self-insurance administration contract, containing the usual and customary provisions found in such policies or contracts therefor, but for which undertaking all members of the association shall be reinsurers as among themselves in the amount which the compensation insurance written in this state during the preceding calendar year by that member bears to the total compensation insurance written in this state during the preceding year by all the members of the association. The assigned risk plan shall be treated as a group self-insurer member of the reinsurance association for the purposes of sections 79.34 to 79.40 and shall be deemed to have selected the higher retention limit provided in section 79.34, subdivision 2. A qualified member or group self-insurance administrator shall possess sufficient financial, professional, administrative and personnel resources to serve the policies or self-insurance contracts contemplated in the service contract.

Subd. 2. An insurer that issues a policy pursuant to this section shall not receive an expense allowance that exceeds the expense allowance approved by the commissioner for other insurers.

Sec. 14. [79.251] [ADMINISTRATION OF ASSIGNED RISK PLAN.]

Subdivision 1. [ASSIGNED RISK PLAN REVIEW BOARD.] (1) An assigned risk plan review board is created for the purposes of review of the operation of sections 79.24 to 79.27. The board shall have all the usual powers and authorities necessary for the discharge of its duties under this section and may contract with individuals in discharge of those duties.

(2) The board shall consist of five members to be appointed by the commissioner of insurance. Two members shall be insureds holding policies issued pursuant to section 79.25. Two members shall be members of the association. The commissioner shall be the fifth member and shall vote.

(3) The assigned risk review board shall audit the reserves established by insurers (a) for individual cases arising under policies issued under section 79.25 and (b) for the total book of business issued under section 79.25.

(4) The assigned risk review board shall monitor the operations of sections 79.24 to 79.27 and shall periodically make recommendations to the commissioner, and to the governor and legislature when appropriate, for improvement in the operation of those sections.

(5) All members of the association issuing policies under 79.25 shall pay and the commissioner shall receive and disburse, on behalf of the board, a .25 percent assessment on premiums for policies issued under section 79.25 for the purpose of defraying the costs of the assigned risk review board.

Subd. 2. [APPROPRIATE MERIT RATING PLAN.] The commissioner shall develop an appropriate merit rating plan which shall be applicable to all insureds holding policies issued pursuant to section 79.25 whose premium is less than the amount necessary to qualify for experience rating and to the insurers issuing those policies. The plan shall provide a maximum merit payment equal to ten percent of earned premium. The actual payment may vary with insured's loss experience.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 79.26, is amended to read:

79.26 [ASSOCIATION COMMISSIONER TO ADOPT RULES.]

The ~~association shall~~ commissioner of insurance may make and adopt such rules as may be necessary to carry this law into effect; ~~subject to an appeal to the commissioner as in all other cases.~~ Temporary rule-making authority is granted.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 79.27, is amended to read:

79.27 [APPLICATION.]

As a prerequisite to the transaction of workers' compensation insurance in this state every insurance carrier shall file with the commissioner of insurance written authority permitting the ~~association~~ commissioner of insurance to act in its behalf, as provided in sections 79.24 to 79.27.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 79.34, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. A nonprofit association known as the workers' compensation reinsurance association is created, which may be incorporated under chapter 317 with all the powers of a corporation formed under that chapter, except that if the provisions of that chapter are inconsistent with sections 79.34 to 79.42 or any amendments thereto, sections 79.34 to 79.42 shall govern. Each insurer as defined by section 79.01, subdivision 2, shall as a condition of its authority to transact workers' compensation insurance in this state, be a member of the reinsurance association and shall be bound by the plan of operation of the reinsurance association; provided, that all affiliated insurers within a holding company system as defined in sections 60D.01 to 60D.13 shall be considered a single entity for purposes of the exercise of all rights and duties of membership in the reinsurance association. Each self-insurer approved pursuant to section 176.181 and each political subdivision which self-insures shall, as a condition of its authority to self-insure workers' compensation liability in this state, be a member of the reinsurance association and shall be bound by its plan of operation; provided, that (a) all affiliated companies within a holding company system, as determined by the commissioner in a manner consistent with the standards and definitions in sections 60D.01 to 60D.13, shall be considered a single entity for purposes of the exercise of all rights and duties of membership in the reinsurance association, and (b) all group self-insurers granted authority to self-insure pursuant to section 176.181 shall be considered a single entity for purposes of the exercise of all the rights and duties of membership in the reinsurance association. The reinsurance association shall not be deemed a state agency. Actions of the reinsurance association and its board of directors and actions of the commissioner of insurance with respect to the reinsurance association shall not be subject to chapter 15. The reinsurance association shall be exempt from taxation under the laws of this state and all property owned by the association shall be exempt from taxation. The reinsurance association shall not be obligated to make any payments or pay any assessments to any funds or pools established pursuant to this chapter or chapter 176 or any other law.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 79.34, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The reinsurance association shall provide and each member shall accept indemnification for 100 percent of the amount of ultimate loss sustained in each loss occurrence relating to one or more claims arising out of a single compensable event, including aggregate losses related to a single event or occurrence which constitutes a single loss occurrence, under chapter 176 on and after October 1, 1979, in excess of $300,000 or $100,000 retention limit, at the option of the member. In case of occupational disease causing disablement on and after October 1, 1979, each person suffering such disablement shall be considered to be involved in a separate loss occurrence. ~~Each~~ The lesser retention limit shall be increased to the nearest $10,000, on January 1, 1981 1982 and on each January 1 thereafter by the percentage increase in the statewide average weekly wage, as determined in accordance with section 176.011, subdivision 20. On January 1, 1982 and on each January 1 thereaf- ter, the greater retention limit shall be increased by the amount necessary to retain a $200,000 difference between the two retention limits. Ultimate loss as used in this section means the actual loss amount which a member is obligated to pay and which is paid by the member for workers' compensation benefits payable under chapter 176 and shall not include claim expenses, assessments, damages or penalties. A loss is incurred by the reinsurance association on the date on which the accident or other compensable event giving rise to the loss occurs, and a member is liable for a loss up to its retention limit in effect at the time that the loss was incurred, except that members which are determined by the reinsurance association to be controlled by or under common control with another member, and which are liable for claims from one or more employees entitled to compensation for a single compensable event, including aggregate losses relating to a single loss occurrence, may aggregate their losses and obtain indemnification from the reinsurance association for the aggregate losses in excess of the higher retention limit in effect at the time the loss was incurred. Each member is liable for payment of its ultimate loss and shall be entitled to indemnification from the reinsurance association for the ultimate loss in excess of the member's retention limit in effect at the time of the loss occurrence.

A member that chooses the higher retention limit shall retain the liability for all losses below the higher retention limit itself and shall not transfer the liability to any other entity or reinsure or otherwise contract for reimbursement or indemnification for losses below its retention limit, except in the following cases: (a) when the reinsurance or contract is with another member which, directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, control or are controlled by or are under common control with the member; (b) when the reinsurance or contract provides for reimbursement or indemnification of a member if and only if the total of all claims which the member pays or incurs, but which are not reimbursable or subject to indemnification by the reinsurance association for a given period of time, exceeds a dollar value or percentage of premium written or earned and stated in the reinsurance agreement or contract; (c) when the reinsurance or contract is a pooling arrangement with other insurers where liability of the member to pay claims pursuant to chapter 176 is incidental to participation in the pool and not as a result of providing workers' compensation insurance to employers on a direct basis under chapter 176; or ~~(d) any other reinsurance or contract approved by the commissioner upon his determination that the reinsurance or contract is not inconsistent with the bases for exception provided under clauses (a), (b) and (c) above~~ (d) when the reinsurance or contract is limited to all the claims of a specific insured of a member which are reimbursed or indemnified by a reinsurer which, directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, controls or is controlled by or is under common control with the insured of the member so long as any subsequent contract or reinsurance of the reinsurer relating to the claims of the insured of a member is not inconsistent with the bases of exception provided under clauses (a), (b) and (c) above; or (e) when the reinsurance or contract is limited to all claims of a specific self-insurer member which are reimbursed or indemnified by a reinsurer which, directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, controls or is controlled by or is under common control with the self-insurer member so long as any subsequent contract or reinsurance of the reinsurer relating to the claims of the self-insurer member are not inconsistent with the bases for exception provided under clauses (a), (b) and (c) above.

Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any member that chooses the higher retention limit has participated in the transfer of liability to any other entity or reinsured or otherwise contracted for reimbursement or indemnification of losses below its retention limit in a manner inconsistent with the bases for exception provided under clauses (a), (b), (c), (d), and (e), the commissioner may, after giving notice and an opportunity to be heard, order the member to pay to the state of Minnesota an amount not to exceed twice the difference between the reinsurance premium for the higher and lower retention limit applicable to the member for each year in which the prohibited reinsurance or contract was in effect. Any member subject to this penalty provision shall continue to be bound by its selection of the higher retention limit for purposes of membership in the reinsurance association.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 79.35, is amended to read:

79.35 [DUTIES; RESPONSIBILITIES; POWERS.]

The reinsurance association shall do the following on behalf of its members:

- (a) Assume 100 percent of the liability as provided in section 79.34;
- (b) Establish procedures by which members shall promptly report to the reinsurance association each claim which, on the basis of the injury sustained, may reasonably be anticipated to involve liability to the reinsurance association if the member is held liable under chapter 176. Solely for the purpose of reporting claims, the member shall in all instances consider itself legally liable for the injury. The member shall advise the reinsurance association of subsequent developments likely to materially affect the interest of the reinsurance association in the claim;
- (c) Maintain relevant loss and expense data relative to all liabilities of the reinsurance association and require each member to furnish statistics in connection with liabilities of the reinsurance association at the times and in the form and detail as may be required by the plan of operation;
- (d) Calculate and charge to members a total premium sufficient to cover the expected liability which the reinsurance association will incur in excess of the higher retention limit but less than ~~$500,000~~ the prefunded limit, together with incurred or estimated to be incurred operating and administrative expenses for the period to which this premium applies and actual claim payments to be made by members, during the period to which this premium applies, for claims in excess of ~~$500,000~~ for the period to which this premium is applicable the prefunded limit in effect at the time the loss was incurred. The prefunded limit shall be $2,500,000 on and after October 1, 1979, provided that the prefunded limit shall be increased on January 1, 1983 and on each January 1 thereafter by the percentage increase in the statewide average weekly wage, to the nearest $100,000, as determined in accordance with section 176.011, subdivision 20. Each member shall be charged a proportion of the total premium in an amount equal to its proportion of the total standard earned premium of all members during the period to which the reinsurance association premium will apply, as determined by the commissioner. Each member exercising the lower retention option shall also be charged a premium established by the board as sufficient to cover incurred or estimated to be incurred claims for the liability the reinsurance association is likely to incur between the lower and higher retention limits for the period to which the premium applies. Each ~~member's premium~~ member shall include an amount also be charged a premium determined by the board to equitably distribute excess or deficient premiums from previous periods including any excess or deficient premiums resulting from a retroactive change in the prefunded limit. An equitable basis for determining standard earned premium for self-insurers shall be established by the commissioner. The premiums charged to members shall not be unfairly discriminatory as defined in section 79.074. All premiums shall be approved by the commissioner;

(e) Require and accept the payment of premiums from members of the reinsurance association;

(f) Receive and distribute all sums required by the operation of the reinsurance association;

(g) Establish procedures for reviewing claims procedures and practices of members of the reinsurance association. If the claims procedures or practices of a member are considered inadequate to properly service the liabilities of the reinsurance association, the reinsurance association may undertake, or may contract with another person, including another member, to adjust or assist in the adjustment of claims which create a potential liability to the association and may charge the cost of the adjustment to the member; and

(h) Provide each member of the reinsurance association with an annual report of the operations of the reinsurance association in a form the board of directors may specify.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 79.36, is amended to read:

79.36 [ADDITIONAL POWERS.]

In addition to the powers granted in section 79.35, the reinsurance association may do the following:

(a) Sue and be sued. A judgment against the reinsurance association shall not create any direct liability against the individual members of the reinsurance association. The reinsurance association shall provide in the plan of operation for the indemnification, to the extent provided in the plan of operation, of the members, members of the board of directors of the reinsurance association, and officers, employees and other persons lawfully acting on behalf of the reinsurance association;

(b) Reinsure all or any portion of its potential liability, including potential liability in excess of $500,000 the prefunded limit, with reinsurers licensed to transact insurance in this state or otherwise approved by the commissioner;

(c) Provide for appropriate housing, equipment, and personnel as may be necessary to assure the efficient operation of the reinsurance association;

(d) Contract for goods and services, including but not limited to independent claims management, actuarial, investment, and legal services from others within or without this state to assure the efficient operation of the reinsurance association;

(e) Adopt operating rules, consistent with the plan of operation, for the administration of the reinsurance association, enforce those operating rules, and delegate authority as necessary to assure the proper administration and operation of the reinsurance association;

(f) Intervene in or prosecute at any time, including but not limited to intervention or prosecution as subrogee to the member's rights in a third party action, any proceeding under this chapter or chapter 176 in which liability of the reinsurance association may, in the opinion of the board of directors of the reinsurance association or its designee, be established, or the reinsurance association affected in any other way;

(g) The net proceeds derived from intervention or prosecution of any subrogation interest, or other recovery, shall first be used to reimburse the reinsurance association for amounts paid or payable pursuant to this chapter, together with any expenses of recovery, including attorney's fees, and any excess shall be paid to the member or other person entitled thereto, as determined by the board of directors of the reinsurance association, unless otherwise ordered by a court.

(h) Hear and determine complaints of a company or other interested party concerning the operation of the reinsurance association; and

(i) Perform other acts not specifically enumerated in this section which are necessary or proper to accomplish the purposes of the reinsurance association and which are not inconsistent with sections 79.34 to 79.42 or the plan of operation.

Sec. 21. [79.50] [PURPOSES.]

The purposes of chapter 79 are to:

(a) Promote public welfare by regulating insurance rates so that premiums are not excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory;

(b) Promote quality and integrity in the data bases used in workers' compensation insurance ratemaking;

(c) Prohibit price fixing agreements and anticompetitive behavior by insurers;

(d) Promote price competition and provide rates that are responsive to competitive market conditions;

(e) Provide a means of establishment of proper rates if competition is not effective;

(f) Define the function and scope of activities of data service organizations;

(g) Provide for an orderly transition from regulated rates to competitive market conditions; and

(h) Encourage insurers to provide alternative innovative methods whereby employers can meet the requirements imposed by section 176.181.

Sec. 22. [79.51] [RULES.]

Subdivision 1. [ADOPTION; WHEN.] The commissioner shall adopt rules to implement provisions of chapter 79. The rules shall be finally adopted after May 1, 1982. By January 15, 1982, the commissioner shall provide the legislature a description and explanation of the intent and anticipated effect of the rules on the various factors of the rating system.

Subd. 2. [TRANSITION PERIOD; RULES GOVERN.] Insurance rates from July 1, 1983, to December 31, 1985, shall be determined in accordance with rules adopted by the commissioner. The rules shall require (1) that a hearing be held pursuant to the provisions of section 79.071 to consider any petition requesting modification of rates and (2) that following the hearing the commissioner shall adopt a schedule of rates.

Subd. 3. [RULES; SUBJECT MATTER.] (a) The commissioner in issuing rules shall consider:

(1) Data reporting requirements, including types of data reported, such as loss and expense data;

(2) Experience rating plans;

(3) Retrospective rating plans;

(4) General expenses and related expense provisions;

(5) Minimum premiums;

(6) Classification systems and assignment of risks to classifications;

(7) Loss development and trend factors;

(8) The workers' compensation reinsurance association;

(9) Restrictions, prohibitions, and requirements with respect to the activities of the workers' compensation insurers rating association of Minnesota during the period from July 1, 1983 to January 1, 1986;

(10) Requiring substantial compliance with the rules mandated by this section as a condition of workers' compensation carrier licensure;

(11) Imposing limitations on the functions of workers' compensation data service organizations consistent with the introduction of competition;

(12) The rules contained in the workers' compensation rating manual adopted by the workers' compensation insurers rating association; and

(13) Any other factors that the commissioner deems relevant to achieve the purposes of chapter 79.

(b) The rules shall provide for the following:

(1) Competition in workers' compensation insurance rates in such a way that the advantages of competition are introduced with a minimum of employer hardship during the transition period;

(2) Adequate safeguards against excessive or discriminatory rates in workers' compensation during the transition period;

(3) Encouragement of workers' compensation insurance rates which are as low as reasonably necessary, but shall make provision against inadequate rates, insolvencies and unpaid benefits;

(4) Assurances that employers are not unfairly relegated to the assigned risk pool;

(5) Requiring all appropriate data and other information from insurers for the purpose of issuing rules and making legislative recommendations pursuant to this section; and

(6) Preserving a framework for risk classification, data collection, and other appropriate joint insurer services where these will not impede the introduction of competition in premium rates.

(c) The rules shall expire on January 1, 1986.

Subd. 4. [ADVISORY COMMITTEE.] The commissioner shall appoint an advisory committee which shall offer recommendations regarding rulemaking under this section. The advisory committee shall include representatives of insurers, employers, and employees.

Sec. 23. [79.52] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] The following words or phrases shall have the meanings ascribed to them for the purposes of chapter 79, unless the context clearly indicates that a different meaning is intended.

Subd. 2. [MARKET.] "Market" means any reasonable grouping or classification of employers.

Subd. 3. [DATA SERVICE ORGANIZATION.] "Data service organization" means any entity which has ten or more members or is controlled directly or indirectly by ten or more insurers and is engaged in collecting data for use in insurance ratemaking or other activities permitted by chapter 79. Affiliated members or insurers shall be counted as a single unit for the purpose of this definition. The workers' compensation insurers rating association of Minnesota shall be considered a data service organization.

Subd. 4. [CLASSIFICATION PLAN; CLASSIFICATION.] "Classification plan" or "classification" means the plan, system, or arrangement for rating insurance policyholders.

Subd. 5. [RATES.] "Rates" means the cost of insurance per-exposure base unit.

Subd. 6. [BASE PREMIUM.] "Base premium" means the amount of premium which an employer would pay for insurance derived by applying rates to an exposure base prior to the application of any merit rating or discount factors.

Subd. 7. [PREMIUM.] "Premium" means the price charged to an insured for insurance for a specified period of time, regardless of the timing of actual payments.

Subd. 8. [DISCOUNT FACTOR.] "Discount factor" means any factor which is applied to the base premium and which is based upon insurer expenses or other factors not related to the risk of loss.

Subd. 9. [MERIT RATING.] "Merit rating" means a system or form of rating by which base premium is modified on the basis of loss experience or other factors which are reasonably related to loss or risk of loss and which may be reasonably affected by the action or activities of the insured. The sensitivity of a merit rating system to loss experience may vary by the size of risk. Merit rating shall include both prospective and retrospective methods for modifying base premium.

Subd. 10. [LOSS DEVELOPMENT FACTORS.] "Loss development factors" means factors applied to recorded incurred losses to estimate the amount of ultimate loss payments that will have been made for losses during the applicable period when all claims are paid.

Subd. 11. [TREND OR TRENDING.] "Trend" or "trending" means any procedure employing data for the purpose of projecting or forecasting the future value of that data or other data, or the factors resulting from such a procedure.

Subd. 12. [INTERESTED PARTY.] "Interested party" means any person, or association acting on behalf of its members, directly affected by a change in the schedule of rates and includes the staff of the insurance division.

Subd. 13. [INSURER.] "Insurer" means any insurer licensed to transact the business of workers' compensation insurance in this state.

Subd. 14. [INSURANCE.] "Insurance" means workers' compensation insurance.

Subd. 15. [RATING PLAN.] "Rating plan" means every manual, and every other rule including discount factors and merit rating necessary for the calculation of an insured's premium from an insurer's rates. An insurer may choose to adopt for use the rating plan of the data service organization in which it maintains membership.

Sec. 24. [79.53] [PREMIUM CALCULATION.]

Each insurer shall establish premiums to be paid by an employer according to its filed rates and rating plan as follows:

Rates shall be applied to an exposure base to yield a base premium which may be further modified by merit rating, premium discounts, and other appropriate factors contained in the rating plan of an insurer to produce premium. Nothing in this chapter shall be deemed to prohibit the use of any premium, provided the premium is not excessive, inadequate or unfairly discriminatory.

Sec. 25. [79.54] [COMPETITIVE MARKET PRESUMPTION.]

A competitive market is presumed to exist until the commissioner, after a hearing on the record, determines that a reasonable degree of competition does not exist and issues an order to that effect. The order shall include the conditions and procedures under which a determination of insufficient competition shall expire.

Sec. 26. [79.55] [STANDARDS FOR RATES.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL STANDARDS.] Premiums shall not be excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory.

Subd. 2. [EXCESSIVENESS.] No premium is excessive in a competitive market. In the absence of a competitive market, premiums are excessive if the expected underwriting profit, together with expected income from invested reserves for the market in question, that would accrue to an insurer would be unreasonably high in relation to the risk undertaken by the insurer in transacting the business.

Subd. 3. [INADEQUACY.] Premiums are inadequate if, together with the investment income associated with an insurer's Minnesota workers' compensation insurance business, they are clearly insufficient to sustain projected losses and expenses of the insurer and (a) if their continued use could lead to an insolvent situation for the insurer; or (b) if their use destroys or lessens competition or is likely to destroy or lessen competition.

Subd. 4. [UNFAIR DISCRIMINATION.] Premiums are unfairly discriminatory if differentials for insureds fail to reasonably reflect the differences in expected losses and expenses to the insurer attributable to the insureds. Rates are not unfairly discriminatory solely because different premiums result for insureds with like loss exposures but different expense factors, or like expense factors but different loss exposures, provided that rates reflect the differences with reasonable accuracy.

Sec. 27. [79.56] [FILING RATES AND RATING INFORMATION.]

Subdivision 1. [AFTER EFFECTIVE DATE.] Each insurer shall file with the commissioner a complete copy of its rates and rating plan, and all changes and amendments thereto, within 15 days after their effective dates. An insurer need not file a rating plan if it uses a rating plan filed by a data service organization. If an insurer uses a rating plan of a data service organization but deviates from it, then all deviations must be filed by the insurer.

Subd. 2. [BEFORE EFFECTIVE DATE.] The commissioner may order an insurer to file rates at least 30 days before the effective date of the rates (a) if the commissioner determines, based upon reasonable evidence, that an order is appropriate because of the insurer's financial condition or (b) due to a prior finding of unfairly discriminatory rating practices; or (c) due to a prior finding of inadequate rates. The order may require that supplementary rate and supporting information be included in a filing.

Subd. 3. [PENALTIES.] Any insurer using a rate or a rating plan which has not been filed shall be subject to a fine of up to $100 for each day the failure to file continues. The commissioner may, after a hearing on the record, find that the failure is willful. A willful failure to meet filing requirements shall be punishable by a fine of up to $500 for each day during which a willful failure continues. These penalties shall be in addition to any other penalties provided by law.

Subd. 4. [PUBLIC INSPECTION.] All filings shall be open to public inspection during normal business hours at the offices of the insurance division.

Sec. 28. [79.57] [FILING RATES; NONCOMPETITIVE MARKET.]

Upon making a determination that a market is not competitive, the commissioner shall require rates for use in that market to be filed 30 days prior to their effective date. The filing shall include, in a form prescribed by the commissioner, an explanation of the rates and any data supporting the use of the rates which are not on file with a data service organization.

The commissioner may issue an order for a hearing at any time prior to the effective date of the rates and the rates shall not become effective until the commissioner has ruled on the rates following the hearing.

The commissioner may disapprove the rates subsequent to their effective date, except that rates so disapproved shall remain effective until the commissioner issues an order following a hearing.

Sec. 29. [79.58] [DISAPPROVAL OF RATES OR RATING PLANS.]

Subdivision 1. [RATES.] A rate filed by an insurer may be disapproved by the commissioner subsequent to its effective date. Following a disapproval and prior to a refiling the insurer shall use the rates as reasonably established by the commissioner.

The commissioner shall disapprove a rate if, after a hearing on the record, he finds that:

(a) The premium is inadequate or unfairly discriminatory; or

(b) A competitive market for workers' compensation does not exist and rates are excessive; or

(c) The insurer failed to comply with filing requirements.

A rehearing shall be held within 30 days of any disapproval under this section at the request of the insurer whose rates are disapproved.

Subd. 2. [RATING PLANS.] The commissioner may disapprove a rating plan of a data service organization if, after a hearing, the commissioner finds that it is unfairly discriminatory. Any order of disapproval shall require the data service organization to use an alternative rating plan until approval of a rating plan by the commissioner. The commissioner shall not approve any rating plan based upon any data other than Minnesota data, except that other data may be utilized as a supplement to Minnesota data when the commissioner determines that an exceptional case requires such data to establish the statistical credibility of an occupational classification.

Sec. 30. [79.59] [INSURERS AND DATA SERVICE ORGANIZATIONS; PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [MONOPOLIZATION.] No insurer or data service organization shall attempt to monopolize or combine or conspire with any other person to monopolize the business of insurance.

Subd. 2. [AGREEMENT PROHIBITED.] No insurer shall agree with any other insurer or with a data service organization to adhere to or to use any rate, rating plan, rating schedule, rating rule, or underwriting rule except as specifically authorized by chapter 79 or for the purpose of creating experience modifications for employers with employees in more than one state.

Subd. 3. [TRADE RESTRAINT.] No insurer or data service organization shall make an agreement with any other insurer, data service organization, or other person which has the purpose or the effect of restraining trade or of substantially lessening competition.

Subd. 4. [EXCEPTIONS.] The fact that insurers writing not more than 25 percent of the workers' compensation premiums in Minnesota use the same rates, rating plans, rating schedules, rating rules, underwriting rules, or similar materials shall not alone constitute a violation of subdivisions 1 or 2.

Two or more insurers under common ownership or operating under common management or control may act in concert between or among themselves with respect to matters authorized under chapter 79 as if they constituted a single insurer, provided that the rating plan of such insurers shall be considered to be a single plan for the purposes of determining unfair discrimination.

Subd. 5. [ADDITIONAL PROHIBITION.] In addition to other prohibitions contained in this chapter, no data service organization shall:

(a) Refuse to supply any service for which it is licensed or any data, except for data identifiable to an individual insurer, to any insurer authorized to do business in this state which offers to pay the usual compensation for the service or data;

Liability on the part of an employer or his insurer for disability of a temporary total, temporary partial, and permanent total nature shall be considered as a continuing product and part of the employee's inability to earn or reduction in earning capacity due to injury or occupational disease and shall be payable accordingly, subject to subdivision 3a. Permanent partial disability is payable for functional loss of use or impairment of function, permanent in nature, and payment therefore shall be separate, distinct, and in addition to payment for any other compensation, subject to subdivision 3a. The right to receive temporary total, temporary partial, permanent partial or permanent total disability payments shall vest in the injured employee or his dependents under this chapter or, if none, in his legal heirs at the time the disability can be ascertained and the right shall not be abrogated by the employee's death prior to the making of the payment.

(b) If temporary total payments have ceased, but the employee has not returned to work, payment shall be made at the same intervals as temporary total payments were made;

(c) If temporary total disability payments cease because the employee is receiving payments for permanent total disability or because the employee is retiring or has retired from the work force, then payment shall be made by lump sum;

(d) If the employee completes a rehabilitation plan pursuant to section 176.102, but the employer does not furnish the employee with work he can do in his permanently partially disabled condition, and the employee is unable to procure such work with another employer, then payment shall be made by lump sum.

Sec. 59. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.021, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [AMOUNTS ADJUSTED.] Amounts of compensation payable by an employer or his insurer under this chapter may be rounded to the nearest dollar amount. An employer or insurer who elects to make such adjustments shall do so for all compensation payments under this chapter.

Sec. 60. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.041, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [COMMISSIONER OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY; ADDITIONAL POWERS.] Whenever an employee is covered by subdivision 2, 3 or 4, the commissioner may enter into agreements with the appropriate agencies of other states for the purpose of resolving conflicts of jurisdiction or disputes concerning workers' compensation coverage. An agreement entered into pursuant to this subdivision may be appealed in the same manner and within the same time as if the appeal were from an order or decision of a compensation judge to the workers' compensation court of appeals or the district court.

Sec. 61. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.061, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ELECTION OF REMEDIES.] Where an injury or death for which ~~compensation~~ benefits are payable occurs under circumstances which create a legal liability for damages on the part of a party other than the employer and at the time of such injury or death that party was insured or self-insured in accordance with this chapter, the employee, in case of injury, or his dependents, in case of death, may proceed either at law against that party to recover damages or against the employer for ~~compensation~~ benefits, but not against both.

Sec. 62. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.061, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [ELECTION TO RECEIVE ~~COMPENSATION~~ BENEFITS FROM EMPLOYER; SUBROGATION.] If the employee or his dependents elect to receive ~~compensation~~ benefits from the employer, or the special compensation fund, such the employer, or the special compensation fund, is subrogated to the right of the employee or his dependents to recover damages against the other party. The employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, may bring legal proceedings against such party and recover the aggregate amount of ~~compensation~~ benefits payable by him to or on behalf of the employee or his dependents, together with the costs, disbursements, and reasonable attorney's fees of the action.

If an action as provided in this chapter prosecuted by the employee, the employer, or ~~both jointly~~ the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, against the third person, results in judgment against the third person, or settlement by the third person, the employer shall have no liability to reimburse or hold the third person harmless on the judgment or settlement in absence of a written agreement to do so executed prior to the injury.

Sec. 63. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.061, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [APPLICATION OF SUBDIVISIONS 1, 2, AND 3.] The provisions of subdivisions 1, 2, and 3 apply only where the employer liable for ~~compensation~~ benefits and the other party legally liable for damages are insured or self-insured and engaged, in the due course of business in, (a) ~~in~~ furtherance of a common enterprise, or (b) in the accomplishment of the same or related purposes in ~~operation~~ operations on the premises where the injury was received at the time thereof.

Sec. 64. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.061, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [CUMULATIVE REMEDIES.] Where an injury or death for which ~~compensation~~ benefits are payable is caused under circumstances which created a legal liability for damages on the part of a party other than the employer, that party being then insured or self-insured in accordance with this chapter, and the provisions of subdivisions 1, 2, 3, and 4 do not apply, or the party other than the employer is not then insured or self-insured as provided by this chapter, legal proceedings may be taken by the employee or his dependents in accordance with clause (a), or by his employer, or by the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, in accordance with clause (b), against the other party to recover damages, notwithstanding the payment by the employer, or the special compensation fund or ~~his~~ their liability to pay ~~compensation~~ benefits.

(a) If an action against the other party is brought by the injured employee or his dependents and a judgment is obtained and paid or settlement is made with the other party, the employer or the special compensation fund may deduct from the ~~compensation~~ benefits payable ~~by him~~ the amount actually received by the employee or dependents or paid on their behalf in accordance with subdivision 6. If the action is not diligently prosecuted or if the court deems it advisable in order to protect the interests of the employer, or the special compensation fund, upon application the court may grant the employer, or the special compensation fund, the right to intervene in any such action for the prosecution thereof. If the injured employee or his dependents ~~agree to receive compensation~~ or any party on their behalf receives benefits from the employer, or the special compensation fund, or institute proceedings to recover the same or accept from the employer, or the special compensation fund, any payment on account of the ~~compensation~~ benefits, the employer, or the special compensation fund, is subrogated to the rights of the employee or his dependents. This employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, may maintain an action or continue an action already instituted. This action may be maintained in the name of the employee or the names of the dependents, or in the name of the employer or in the name of the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund against such other party for the recovery of damages. If the action is not diligently prosecuted by the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, or the court deems it advisable in order to protect the interest of the employee, the court, upon application, may grant to the employee or his dependents the right to intervene in the action for the prosecution thereof. The proceeds of such action or settlement thereof shall be paid in accordance with subdivision 6.

(b) If an employer, being then insured, sustains damages due to a change in workers' compensation insurance premiums, whether by a failure to achieve a decrease or by a retroactive or prospective increase, as a result of the injury or death of his employee which was caused under circumstances which created a legal liability for damages on the part of a party other than the employer, the employer, notwithstanding other remedies provided, may maintain an action against the other party for recovery of such premiums. This cause of action may be brought either by joining in an action described in clause (a) or by a separate action. Damages recovered under this clause shall be for the benefit of the employer and the provisions of subdivision 6 shall not be applicable to such damages.

(c) The third party is not liable to any person other than the employee or his dependents, or his employer, or the special compensation fund, for any damages resulting from the injury or death.

A co-employee working for the same employer is not liable for a personal injury incurred by another employee unless the injury resulted from the gross negligence of the co-employee or was intentionally inflicted by the co-employee.

Sec. 65. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.061, Subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [COSTS, ATTORNEY FEES, EXPENSES.] The proceeds of all actions for damages or settlement thereof under this section, except for damages received under subdivision 5, clause (b) received by the injured employee or his dependents or by the employer, or the special compensation fund, as provided by subdivision 5, shall be divided as follows:

(a) After deducting the reasonable cost of collection, including but not limited to attorneys fees and burial expense in excess of the statutory liability, then

(b) One-third of the remainder shall in any event be paid to the injured employee or his dependents, without being subject to any right of subrogation.

(c) Out of the balance remaining, the employer, or the special compensation fund, shall be reimbursed in an amount equal to all ~~compensation benefits~~ paid under this chapter to or on behalf of the employee or his dependents by the employer, or special compensation fund, less the product of the costs deducted under clause (a) divided by the total proceeds received by the employee or his dependents from the other party multiplied by all ~~compensation benefits~~ paid by the employer, or the special compensation fund, to the employee or his dependents.

(d) Any balance remaining shall be paid to the employee or his dependents, and shall be a credit to employer, and the special compensation fund, for any ~~compensation benefits~~ which employer is obligated to pay, but has not paid, and for any ~~compensation benefits~~ that such employer shall be obligated to make in the future.

There shall be no reimbursement or credit to the employer, or the special compensation fund, for interest or penalties.

Sec. 66. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.061, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [MEDICAL TREATMENT.] The liability of an employer, or the special compensation fund, for medical treatment under this chapter shall not be affected by the fact that his employee was injured through the fault or negligence of a third party, against whom the employee may have a cause of action which may be sued under this chapter, but the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, shall have a separate additional cause of action against such third party to recover any amounts paid ~~by him~~ for medical treatment under this section resulting from the negligence of such third party. This separate cause of action of the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, may be asserted in a separate action brought by the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, against such third party or in the action commenced by the employee or the employer, or the attorney general on behalf of the special compensation fund, under this chapter, but in the latter case the cause of action shall be separately stated, the amount awarded thereon shall be separately set out in the verdict, and the amount recovered by suit or otherwise as reimbursement for medical expenses shall be for the benefit of the employer, or the special compensation fund, to the extent that the employer, or the special compensation fund, has paid or will be required to pay for medical treatment of the injured employee and shall not affect the amount of periodic compensation to be paid.

Sec. 67. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.081, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. No claim for legal services or disbursements pertaining to any demand made or suit or proceeding brought under the provisions of this chapter is an enforceable lien against the compensation or is valid or binding in any other respect unless approved in writing by the division, commissioner of the department of labor and industry, a compensation judge, a judge of the district court, or the workers' compensation court of appeals, if the claim arises out of a proceeding for compensation under this chapter, or by the judge presiding at the trial in an action for damages, or by a judge of the district court in a settlement of a claim for damages without trial. The division, a compensation judge, a judge of the district court or the workers' compensation court of appeals shall in matters before him them, including settlement proceedings, have authority to approve a fee of up to 25 percent of the first $4,000 of compensation awarded to the employee and up to 20 percent of the next $20,000 $27,500 of compensation awarded to employee. The workers' compensation court of appeals judge shall have authority only to approve fees in settlements upon appeal before them up to 25 percent of the first $4,000 of compensation awarded to the employee and up to 20 percent of the next $20,000 of compensation awarded to the employee. If the employer or his insurer or the defendant is given written notice of such claims for legal services or disbursements, the same shall be a lien against the amount paid or payable as compensation, subject to determination of the amount and approval provided by this chapter. Provided, however, that in no case shall fees be calculated on the basis of any undisputed portion of compensation awards. Allowable fees under this chapter shall be based solely upon genuinely disputed portions of claims.

Subd. 2. Any application for attorney fees in excess of the amount ~~which a compensation judge or the workers' compensation court of appeals may authorize~~ authorized in subdivision 1 shall be made to the ~~commissioner of labor and industry workers' compensation court of appeals~~. The application, with affidavit of service upon the employee, shall be filed by the attorney requesting the fee. If a hearing is requested by an interested party, a hearing shall be set with notice of such hearing served upon known interested parties. In all cases the employee shall be served with notice of hearing.

Sec. 69. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.081, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. An employee who is dissatisfied with his attorney fees, may file an application for review by the ~~commissioner of labor and industry workers' compensation court of appeals~~. Such application shall state the basis for the need of review and whether or not a hearing is requested. A copy of such application shall be served upon the attorney for the employee by the ~~commissioner court administrator~~ and if a hearing is requested by either party, the matter shall be set for hearing. The notice of hearing shall be served upon known interested parties. The attorney for the employee shall be served with a notice of the hearing. The ~~commissioner of labor and industry workers' compensation court of appeals~~ shall have the authority to raise the question of the issue of the attorney fees at any time upon ~~his~~ its own motion and shall have continuing jurisdiction over attorney fees.

Subd. 4. The review of a determination by the commissioner of ~~labor and industry~~ or the workers' compensation court of appeals shall be only by supreme court by certiorari upon the ground that it is arbitrary and unwarranted by the evidence. Sec. 72. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.081, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7a. At any time prior to one day before a matter is to be heard, a party litigating a claim made pursuant to this chapter may serve upon the adverse party a reasonable offer of settlement of the claim, with provision for costs and disbursements then accrued. If before the hearing the adverse party serves written notice that the offer is accepted, either party may then file the offer and notice of acceptance, together with the proof of service thereof, and thereupon judgment shall be entered.

If an offer by an employer or insurer is not accepted by the employee, it shall be deemed withdrawn and evidence thereof is not admissible, except in a proceeding to determine attorney's fees. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 7, if the judgment finally obtained by the employee is less favorable than the offer, the employer shall not be liable for any part of the attorney's fees awarded pursuant to this section.

If an offer by an employee is not accepted by the employer or insurer, it shall be deemed withdrawn and evidence thereof is not admissible, except in a proceeding to determine attorney's fees. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 7, if the judgment finally obtained by the employee is at least as favorable as the offer, the employer shall pay an additional 25 percent, over the amount provided in subdivision 7, of that portion of the attorney's fee which has been awarded pursuant to this section that is in excess of $250.

The fact that an offer is made but not accepted does not preclude a subsequent offer.

Subd. 10. arising out of and in the course of employment where there are no persons entitled to monetary benefits of dependency compensation, the employer shall pay to the commissioner of labor and industry the sum of $5,000 for the benefit of the special compensation fund; in every case of death of an employee resulting from personal injury arising out of and in the course of employment where there are no persons entitled to at least $5,000 in monetary benefits of dependency compensation, the employer shall pay to the commissioner of labor and industry for the benefit of the special compensation fund the difference between the amounts actually paid for the dependency benefits and $5,000; but in no event shall the employer pay the commissioner of labor and industry less than $1,000;

(2) When an employee suffers a personal injury which results in permanent partial disability, temporary total disability, temporary partial disability, permanent total disability or death and which entitles him or his dependents to compensation under sections 176.101 or 176.111, the employer shall, in addition to compensation provided therein, pay to the commissioner of labor and industry for the benefit of the special compensation fund a lump sum without interest deduction equal to seven a percent of the total compensation determined as provided in this subdivision as soon as the amount payable for the particular injury is determined, or arrived at by agreement of the parties, and the amount is approved by the commissioner of labor and industry.

The provisions of clauses (1) and (2) shall apply to all workers' compensation payments, exclusive of medical costs, paid under sections 176.101 and 176.111 for all injuries or death occurring on or after June 1, 1971.

Personal injuries that occurred prior to June 1, 1971 shall be assessed at the rate in effect on the date of occurrence.

The seven percent of the total compensation required to be paid by the employer to the commissioner of labor and industry for the benefit of the special compensation fund as provided in clause (2) of this subdivision shall remain fixed at said seven percent for the period from June 1, 1971, to June 1, 1972. Effective June 1, 1972, through June 1, 1975, and thereafter on January 1, beginning in 1976, the rate shall be adjusted on the following basis: if the balance in the special compensation fund as of April 30 in any year through 1975 and as of September 30, 1975, and each September 30 thereafter, is below $1,000,000, the rate of payment shall be increased by two percent over the then prevailing rate. If the balance is at least $1,000,000 but below $1,500,000, the rate will be increased by one percent. If the balance is at least $1,500,000 but below $2,000,000, there shall be no change. If the balance is at least $2,000,000 but less than $2,500,000, the rate shall be decreased by one percent. If the balance is at least $2,500,000, the rate shall be decreased by two percent. If the balance is $3,000,000 or more the commissioner of labor and industry shall within 30 days determine the percent of decrease, which shall be not less than two percent nor more than five percent.

In determining the percentage of the total compensation required to be paid by the employer to the commissioner for the benefit of the special compensation fund as provided in clause (2) beginning September 30, 1981 and each September 30 thereafter, the commissioner shall use the following schedule:

Balance in the Fund

At least $5,000,000 but less than $6,000,000	-6 percent to +2 percent
$6,000,000 or more	-7 percent to +2 percent

In determining the actual adjustment, the commissioner shall take into account his estimate of the likely amount of expenditures to be made from the fund in the next calendar year.

Sums paid to the commissioner of labor and industry pursuant to the provisions hereof, shall be deposited with the state treasurer for the benefit of the special compensation fund and be used to pay the benefits provided by this chapter. All money heretofore arising from the provisions of this section or similar law shall be transferred to this special compensation fund. Any interest or profit accruing from investment of these sums shall be credited to the special compensation fund.

The state treasurer shall be the custodian of this special fund and the workers' compensation division ~~and, compensation judges~~, the workers' compensation court of appeals ~~or district court~~ in cases before ~~it~~ them shall direct the distribution thereof, the same to be paid as other payments of compensation are paid. In case deposit is or has been made under the provisions of clause (1) and dependency later is shown, or if deposit is or has been made pursuant to either clause (1) or (2) by mistake or inadvertence, or under circumstances that justice requires a refund thereof, the state treasurer is authorized to refund the deposit under order of the workers' compensation division ~~or, a compensation judge~~, the workers' compensation court of appeals ~~or a district court~~. There is appropriated to the persons entitled to the refunds from the fund an amount sufficient to make the refund and payment.

Costs within the department of labor and industry for the accounting, investigation and legal procedures necessary for the administration of the programs financed by the special compensation fund shall ~~be paid from the moneys biennially appropriated to the department and not from the special compensation fund~~ come from the fund during each biennium commencing July 1, 1981. Sec. 85. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.132, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [AMOUNT.] (a) The supplementary benefit payable under this section shall be the difference between the amount the employee receives on or after January 1, 1976, under section 176.101, subdivision 1 or subdivision 4, and 65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed annually.

(b) In the event an eligible recipient is currently receiving no compensation or is receiving a reduced level of compensation because of a credit being applied as the result of a third party liability or damages, the employer or insurer shall compute the offset credit as if the individual were entitled to the actual benefit or 65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed annually, whichever is greater. If this results in the use of a higher credit than otherwise would have been applied and the employer or insurer becomes liable for compensation benefits which would otherwise not have been paid, the additional benefits resulting shall be handled according to this section.

(c) In the event an eligible recipient is receiving no compensation or is receiving a reduced level of compensation because of a valid agreement in settlement of a claim, no supplementary benefit shall be payable under this section. Attorney's fees shall be allowed in settlements of claims for supplementary benefits in accordance with this chapter.

(d) In the event an eligible recipient is receiving no compensation or is receiving a reduced level of compensation because of prior limitations in the maximum amount payable for permanent total disability or because of reductions resulting from the simultaneous receipt of old age or disability benefits, the supplementary benefit shall be payable for the difference between the actual amount of compensation currently being paid and 65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed annually.

(e) In the event that an eligible recipient is receiving simultaneous benefits from any government disability program, the amount of supplementary benefits payable under this section shall be reduced by five percent. If the individual does not receive the maximum benefits for which he is eligible under other governmental disability programs due to the provisions of 42 U.S.C. 424a (d), this reduction shall not apply.

Sec. 86. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.133, is amended to read:

When such fees are allowed an amount equal to 25 percent of that portion of the fee which is in excess of $250 shall be added to the employee's benefit as provided in section 176.081 rather than deducted as a portion thereof. The fees shall be subject determined according to the limitations contained in section 176.081.~~

Sec. 87. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.136, is amended to read:

176.136 [MEDICAL FEE REVIEW.]

The commissioner of ~~labor and industry~~ insurance shall by rule establish procedures for determining whether or not the charge for a health service is excessive. In order to accomplish this purpose, the commissioner of insurance shall consult with insurers, associations and organizations representing the medical and other providers of treatment services and other appropriate groups. The procedures established by the commissioner of insurance shall limit the charges allowable for medical, chiropractic, podiatric, surgical, hospital and other health care provider treatment or services, as defined and compensable under section 176.135, to the 75th percentile of usual and customary fees or charges based upon billings for each class of health care provider during all of the calendar year preceding the year in which the determination is made of the amount to be paid the health care provider for the billing. The procedures established by the commissioner for determining whether or not the charge for a health service is excessive shall be structured to encourage providers to develop and deliver services for rehabilitation of injured workers. The procedures shall incorporate the provisions of sections 144.701, 144.702, and 144.703 to the extent that the commissioner finds that these provisions effectively accomplish the intent of this section or are otherwise necessary to insure that quality hospital care is available to injured employees. If the commissioner of insurance, a compensation judge, the workers' compensation court of appeals or a district court determines that the charge for a health service or medical service is excessive, he may limit no payment to in excess of the reasonable charge for that service shall be made under this chapter nor may the provider collect or attempt to collect from the injured employee or any other insurer or government amounts in excess of the amount payable under this chapter; however, the commissioner of insurance shall by rule establish procedures allowing for a provider to appeal such determination. The commissioner may of insurance shall contract with a review organization as defined in section 145.61 in making any determinations as to whether or not a charge is excessive for the purposes listed in section 145.61, subdivision 5, and report to the legislature by January 15, 1983 and thereafter on January 15 of every odd-numbered year, regarding the delivery of medical and health care services, including rehabilitation services, under the workers' compensation laws of this state.

The commissioner of insurance shall also conduct a study of the qualifications and background of rehabilitation consultants and vendors providing services under section 176.102 for the purpose of determining whether there are adequate professional standards provided, including safeguards to protect against conflicts of interest.

The commissioner of insurance shall adopt temporary rules in order to implement the provisions of this subdivision. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 15.0412, subdivision 4, and any amendments, the temporary rules adopted by the commissioner of insurance pursuant to this subdivision may be extended for an additional 180 days if the procedures for adoption of a rule pursuant to section 15.0412, subdivisions 4 to 4g, or 4h, and other provisions of the administrative procedure act related to final agency action and rule adoption have not been concluded.

Sec. 88. [176.1361] [TESTIMONY OF PROVIDERS.]

When a compensation judge or the workers' compensation court of appeals has reason to believe that a medical or other provider of treatment services has submitted false testimony or a false report in any proceeding under this chapter, the compensation judge or the workers' compensation court of appeals shall refer the matter to an appropriate licensing body or other professional certifying organization for review and recommendations. Based upon their recommendation, the commissioner may bar the provider from making an appearance, and disallow the admission into evidence of written reports of the provider, in any proceeding under this chapter for a period not to exceed one year in the first instance and three years in the second instance, and may permanently bar the provider from appearance and his reports from admission in evidence thereafter.

Sec. 89. [176.152] [PERMANENT PARTIAL DISABILITY PANEL.]

Subdivision 1. [BINDING OPINION; PERMANENT PARTIAL DISABILITY DISPUTES.] Prior to a hearing before a compensation judge at which a significant issue of permanent partial disability is to be determined a permanent partial disability panel shall be constituted to render a determination on the dispute subject to the limitation in subdivisions 7 and 8.

Subd. 2. [PANEL LIST.] The administrator of the workers' compensation court of appeals shall compile and maintain a list of names of physicians, podiatrists, chiropractors and other health care providers qualified to determine the extent of permanent partial disability. Names may be added to the list and removed at any time by the administrator of the workers' compensation court of appeals. In maintaining the list the administrator of the workers' compensation court of appeals shall to the maximum extent possible select persons from varying geographical areas of the state.

Subd. 3. [PANEL SELECTION.] When a panel is required to be constituted by subdivision 1 the administrator of the workers' compensation court of appeals shall furnish the employer and employee parties to the dispute a list of seven appropriate health care providers from which the parties shall alternatively strike names until only three remain who shall constitute the panel. If both parties agree, the dispute may be decided by a single health care provider. If the parties are unable to agree on who shall strike the first name, priority shall be decided by a flip of the coin.

Subd. 4. [REPORT; CONCLUSION.] The compensation judge, or the chief hearing examiner in cases in which a compensation judge has not yet been assigned, shall propound specific written questions to the panel at the time they are notified of their selection. The questions shall be framed in such a manner that answers to them shall resolve the dispute as to the extent of permanent partial disability. The panel's report shall be binding upon any compensation judge before whom a hearing may be held subsequent to the panel's report, but may be reviewed by the workers' compensation court of appeals or supreme court, only if the report is found to be arbitrary, capricious or based on fraud, in which case the workers' compensation court of appeals or supreme court shall remand the matter to a compensation judge for the seating of a new panel.

Subd. 5. [EXAM; REPORT.] At least one member of the panel shall personally examine the employee within 30 days of the panel's selection. After reviewing the examination report and all other available pertinent information the panel shall report its conclusions to the compensation judge within 45 days after their selection. The compensation judge may extend the time limit for good cause. The report of the panel shall include the examination report and a record of any other evidence or information considered by the panel.

Subd. 6. [COSTS; PAYMENT.] Any physician, podiatrist, chiropractor or other health care provider who agrees to serve on a panel constituted pursuant to this section shall be deemed to agree that any dispute concerning his fees for serving on the panel shall be decided by the compensation judge hearing the case. The judge's decision shall be binding on the health care provider. A consent form to this effect shall be provided for the signature of the health care provider. No fee shall be approved which is excessive under the standards issued pursuant to section 87 for similar services. The employer shall pay all the panel members' fees, unless the employee has proceeded in bad faith, in which case the employee may be ordered to pay the fees.

Subd. 7. [PILOT PROJECT; REPORT TO LEGISLATURE AND GOVERNOR.] The administrator of the workers' compensation court of appeals shall establish the permanent partial disability panel provided for in this section on a pilot basis in three counties of his choice, including at least one rural county. The administrator of the workers' compensation court of appeals shall report to the legislature and governor by January 1, 1983, on the number of cases reviewed, the number of health care providers participating, the number of cases settled prior to any hearing before a compensation judge, the cost of the program and his recommendations concerning the panel.

Subd. 8. [LIMITATION.] This section shall operate in lieu of section 176.155, subdivision 2, in the counties in which the medical panel is established pursuant to subdivision 7.

Sec. 90. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.161, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [RESIDING OUTSIDE UNITED STATES.] In case a deceased employee for whose injury or death compensation is payable leaves surviving him an alien dependent residing outside the United States the commissioner of the department of labor and industry shall direct the payment of all compensation due the dependent to be made to the duly accredited consular officer of the country of which the beneficiary is a citizen residing within the state, or to his designated representative residing within the state; or, if the commissioner of the department of labor and industry believes that the interests of the dependent will be better served and at any time prior to the final settlement the dependent files with the commissioner of the department of labor and industry a power of attorney designating any other suitable person residing in this state to act as attorney in fact in such proceedings, the commissioner of the department of labor and industry may appoint such person. If it appears necessary to institute proceedings to enforce payment of compensation due the dependent, the commissioner of the department of labor and industry may permit the consular officer to institute these proceedings. If during the pendency of these proceedings, such power of attorney is filed by the alien dependent, the commissioner of the department of labor and industry shall then determine whether such attorney in fact be substituted to represent such dependent or if the consular officer or his representative continue therein. The person so appointed may carry on proceedings to settle all claims for compensation and receive for distribution to such dependent all compensation arising under this chapter. The settlement and distribution of the funds shall be made only on the written order of the commissioner of the department of labor and industry. The person so appointed shall furnish a bond satisfactory to the workers' compensation court of appeals commissioner, conditioned upon the proper application of the money received by him. Before the bond is discharged, the person so appointed shall file with the commissioner of the department of labor and industry a verified account of his receipts and disbursements of such compensation.

Sec. 91. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.181, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [COMPULSORY INSURANCE; SELF-INSURERS.] (1) Every employer, except the state and its municipal subdivisions, liable under this chapter to pay compensation shall insure payment of compensation with some insurance carrier authorized to insure workers' compensation liability in this state, or obtain a written order from the commissioner of insurance exempting the employer from insuring his liability for compensation and permitting him to self-insure the liability. The terms, conditions and requirements governing self-insurance shall be established by the commissioner pursuant to chapter 15. The commissioner of insurance shall also adopt, pursuant to clause (2)(c), rules permitting two or more employers, whether or not they are in the same industry, to enter into agreements to pool their liabilities under this chapter for the purpose of qualifying as group self-insurers. With the approval of the commissioner of insurance, any employer may exclude medical, chiropractic and hospital benefits as required by this chapter. An employer conducting distinct operations at different locations may either insure or self-insure the other portion of his operations which may be determined by the commissioner of insurance to be a distinct and separate risk. An employer desiring to be exempted from insuring his liability for compensation shall make application to the commissioner of insurance, showing his financial ability to pay the compensation, whereupon by written order the commissioner of insurance may make an exemption as he deems proper. The commissioner of insurance may require further statements of financial ability of the employer to pay compensation. Upon ten days written notice the commissioner of insurance may revoke his order granting an exemption, in which event the employer shall immediately insure his liability. As a condition for the granting of an exemption the commissioner of insurance may require the employer to furnish security the commissioner of insurance considers sufficient to insure payment of all claims under this chapter. If the required security is in the form of currency or negotiable bonds, the commissioner of insurance shall deposit it with the state treasurer. In the event of any default upon the part of a self-insurer to abide by any final order or decision of the commissioner of labor and industry directing and awarding payment of compensation and benefits to any employee or the dependents of any deceased employee, then upon at least ten days notice to the self-insurer, the commissioner of insurance may by written order to the state treasurer require him to sell the pledged and assigned securities or a part thereof necessary to pay the full amount of any such claim or award with interest thereon. This authority to sell may be exercised from time to time to satisfy any order or award of the commissioner of labor and industry or any judgment obtained thereon. When securities are sold the money obtained shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the commissioner of insurance and awards made against any such self-insurer by the commissioner of insurance shall be paid to the persons entitled thereto by the state treasurer upon warrants prepared by the commissioner of insurance and approved by the commissioner of finance out of the proceeds of the sale of securities. Where the security is in the form of a surety bond or personal guaranty the commissioner of insurance, at any time, upon at least ten days notice and opportunity to be heard, may require the surety to pay the amount of the award, the payments to be enforced in like manner as the award may be enforced.

(2)(a) No association, corporation, partnership, sole proprietorship, trust or other business entity shall provide services in the design, establishment or administration of a group self-insurance plan under rules adopted pursuant to this subdivision unless it is licensed to do so by the commissioner of insurance. An applicant for a license shall state in writing the type of activities it seeks authorization to engage in and the type of services it seeks authorization to provide. The license shall be granted only when the commissioner of insurance is satisfied that the entity possesses the necessary organization, background, expertise, and financial integrity to supply the services sought to be offered. The commissioner of insurance may issue a license subject to restrictions or limitations, including restrictions or limitations on the type of services which may be supplied or the activities which may be engaged in. The license is for a two year period.

(b) To assure that group self-insurance plans are financially solvent, administered in a fair and capable fashion, and able to process claims and pay benefits in a prompt, fair and equitable manner, entities licensed to engage in such business are subject to supervision and examination by the commissioner of insurance.

(c) To carry out the purposes of this subdivision, the commissioner of insurance may promulgate administrative rules, including emergency rules, pursuant to sections 15.0411 to 15.052. These rules may:

(i) establish reporting requirements for administrators of group self-insurance plans;

(ii) establish standards and guidelines to assure the adequacy of the financing and administration of group self-insurance plans;

(iii) establish bonding requirements or other provisions assuring the financial integrity of entities administering group self-insurance plans;

(iv) establish standards, including but not limited to minimum terms of membership in self-insurance plans, as necessary to provide stability for those plans;

(v) establish standards or guidelines governing the formation, operation, administration and dissolution of self-insurance plans; and

(vi) establish other reasonable requirements to further the purposes of this subdivision.

Sec. 92. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.181, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [FAILURE TO INSURE, PENALTY.] Any employer who fails to comply with the provisions of subdivision 2 to secure payment of compensation is liable to the state of Minnesota for a penalty of ~~$50~~ $100, if the number of uninsured employees in his employment is less than five and for a penalty of ~~$200~~ $400 if the number of such uninsured employees in his employment is five or more. If the commissioner determines that the failure to comply with the provisions of subdivision 2 was willful and deliberate, the employer shall be liable to the state of Minnesota for a penalty of $500, if the number of uninsured employees in his employment is less than five, and for a penalty of $2,000 if the number of his uninsured employees is five or more. If the employer continues his noncompliance, he is liable for five times the lawful premium for compensation insurance for such employer for the period he fails to comply with such provisions, commencing ten days after notice has been served upon him by the commissioner of the department of labor and industry by certified mail. These penalties may be recovered jointly or separately in a civil action brought in the name of the state by the attorney general in any court having jurisdiction. Whenever any such failure occurs the commissioner of the department of labor and industry shall immediately certify the fact thereof to the attorney general. Upon receipt of such certification the attorney general shall forthwith commence and prosecute such action. All penalties recovered by the state in any such action shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the special compensation fund. If an employer fails to comply with the provisions of subdivision 2, to secure payment of compensation after having been notified of his duty, the attorney general, upon request of the commissioner of the department of labor and industry, may proceed against the employer in any court having jurisdiction for an order restraining him from having any person in his employment at any time when he is not complying with the provisions of subdivision 2.

Sec. 93. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.181, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. No employer shall be required to provide financial statements certified by an "independent certified public accountant" or "certified public accountant" as a condition of approval for group self-insurance.

Sec. 94. [176.182] [BUSINESS LICENSES OR PERMITS; COVERAGE REQUIRED.]

Every state or local licensing agency shall withhold the issuance of a license or permit to operate a business in Minnesota until the applicant presents acceptable evidence of compliance with the workers' compensation insurance coverage requirement of section 176.181, subdivision 2.

Neither the state nor any governmental subdivision thereof shall enter into any contract before receiving from all other contracting parties acceptable evidence of compliance with the workers' compensation insurance coverage requirement of section 176.181, subdivision 2.

Sec. 95. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.191, is amended to read:

176.191 [DISPUTE BETWEEN TWO OR MORE EMPLOYERS OR INSURERS REGARDING LIABILITY.]

Subdivision 1. Where compensation benefits are payable under this chapter, and a dispute exists between two or more employers or two or more insurers as to which is liable for payment, the commissioner of labor and industry, compensation judge, or workers' compensation court of appeals upon appeal may shall direct, unless action is taken under subdivision 2, that one or more of the employers or insurers make payment of the benefits pending a determination of liability.

When liability has been determined, the party held liable for the benefits shall be ordered to reimburse any other party for payments which the latter has made, including interest at the rate of five 12 percent a year. The claimant may shall also be awarded a reasonable attorney fee, to be paid by the party held liable for the benefits.

An order directing payment of benefits pending a determination of liability may not be used as evidence before a compensation judge, the workers' compensation court of appeals, or court in which the dispute is pending.

Subd. 2. Where compensation benefits are payable under this chapter, and a dispute exists between two or more employers or two or more insurers as to which is liable for payment, the commissioner of labor and industry may shall authorize, unless action is taken under subdivision 1, the special compensation fund established in section 176.131 to make payment of the benefits pending a determination of liability.

The personal injury for which the commissioner may shall order compensation from the special fund is not limited by section 176.131, subdivision 8.

When liability has been determined, the party held liable for benefits shall be ordered to reimburse the special compensation fund for payments made, including interest at the rate of 12 percent a year.

Subd. 3. Any provision of chapter 176 which would conflict with the provisions of this act with regard to the hearing procedures to be followed in workers' compensation matters are subordinate to the provisions of this act.

Subd. 2. [EXCEPTION.] The commissioner may reduce any of the changes in the schedule of rates required in subdivision 1, clause (a), if he finds that a previous rate order issued pursuant to section 79.071 has already incorporated the required reductions.

If any provision of this act is found to be unconstitutional and void, the remaining provisions of the act shall remain valid, unless the court finds the valid provisions of the act are so essentially and inseparably connected with, and so dependent upon, the void provisions that the court cannot presume the legislature would have enacted the remaining valid provisions without the void one; or unless the court finds the remaining valid provisions, standing alone, are incomplete and are incapable of being executed in accordance with the legislative intent.

All extensions granted pursuant to this subdivision shall be subject to all the provisions of this chapter. The commissioner shall include in each extension a condition that the purchaser shall pay to the state interest at the rate of ~~six~~ eight percent of the unpaid purchase price for each year of ~~such~~ extension or portion thereof to the date of the seasonal scale report of products cut as computed on the sale price of the timber cut, or if not cut, upon the official estimate thereof; however, the purchaser is not required to pay interest totaling $1 or less.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 90.161, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Except as otherwise provided by law the purchaser of any state timber, before any timber permit to him shall become effective for any purpose, shall within 90 days from the date of purchase give a good and valid bond to the state of Minnesota equal to the value of all timber covered or to be covered by the permit, as shown by the sale price bid therefor and the appraisal report thereof as to quantity, less the amount of any payment pursuant to section 90.14, which bond shall be conditioned upon the faithful performance by the purchaser and his successors in interest of all the terms and conditions of the permit and all requirements of law in respect to such sales; and the bond shall be approved in writing by the commissioner and filed for record in his office.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 90.173, is amended to read:

90.173 [PURCHASER'S OR ASSIGNEE'S CASH DEPOSIT IN LIEU OF BOND.]

In lieu of filing the bond required by section 90.161 or 90.171, as security for the issuance or assignment of a timber permit the person required to file ~~such the~~ bond may deposit with the state treasurer cash, a certified check, or a cashier's check, a postal, bank, or express money order, assignable bonds or notes of the United States, or an assignment of a bank savings account or investment certificate or an irrevocable bank letter of credit, in the same amount as would be required for a bond. If securities listed in this section are deposited, the par value of the securities shall be not less than the amount required for the timber sale bond, and the person required to file the timber sale bond shall submit an agreement authorizing the commissioner to sell or otherwise take possession of the security in the event of default under the timber sale. All of the conditions of the timber sale bond shall equally apply to ~~such the~~ deposit with the state treasurer. In the event of a default the state may take from ~~such the~~ deposit the sum of money to which it is entitled; the remainder, if any, shall be returned to the person making ~~such the~~ deposit and shall bear interest at the rate determined pursuant to section 549.09 if not returned within 30 days from the date of the default. ~~Such~~ Sums of money as may be required by the state treasurer to carry out the terms and provisions of this section are hereby appropriated from the general fund to the state treasurer for ~~such these~~ purposes. When cash is deposited for a bond, it shall be applied to the amount due when a statement is prepared and transmitted to the permit holder pursuant to section 90.181. Any balance due to the state shall be shown on the statement and shall be paid as provided in section 90.181. Any amount of the deposit in excess of the amount determined to be due pursuant to section 90.181 shall be returned to the permit holder when a final statement is transmitted pursuant to that section. All or part of a cash bond may be withheld from application to an amount due on a non-final statement if it appears that the total amount due on the permit will exceed the bid price.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 90.181, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DEFERRED PAYMENTS.] If the amount of the statement is not paid within 30 days of the date thereof, it shall bear interest at the rate of ~~six~~ percent per annum from date determined pursuant to section 549.09, except that the purchaser shall not be required to pay ~~such~~ interest that totals $1 or less. If the amount is not paid within 60 days, the commissioner shall place the account in the hands of the attorney general who shall proceed to collect the same. When deemed in the best interests of the state, the commissioner shall ~~deem it for the best interest of the state he shall~~ take possession of the timber for which ~~such an~~ amount is due wherever it may be found and sell the same informally or at public auction after giving ~~such notice as he deems~~ reasonable notice. The proceeds of ~~such the~~ sale shall be applied, first, to the payment of the expenses of seizure and sale; and, second, to the payment of the amount due for ~~such the~~ timber, with interest; and the surplus, if any, shall belong to the state; and, in case a sufficient amount is not realized to pay ~~such these~~ amounts in full, the balance shall be collected by the attorney general. Neither payment of ~~such the~~ amount, nor the recovery of judgment therefor, nor satisfaction of ~~such the~~ judgment, nor the seizure and sale of ~~such~~ timber, shall release the sureties on any bond given pursuant to this chapter, or preclude the state from afterwards claiming that ~~such the~~ timber was cut or removed contrary to law and recovering damages for the trespass thereby committed, or from prosecuting the offender criminally.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 90.191, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The commissioner may sell the timber on any tract of state land in lots not exceeding ~~$1,500~~ $3,000 in appraised value, without formalities but for not less than the full appraised value thereof, to any individual person. No sale shall be made under this section to any person holding two permits issued hereunder which are still in effect; except that (1) a partnership as defined in chapter 323, which may include spouses but which shall provide evidence that a partnership exists, may be holding two permits for each of not more than three partners who are actively engaged in the business of logging or who are the spouses of persons who are actively engaged in the business of logging with that partnership; and (2) a corporation, a majority of whose shares and voting power are owned by natural persons related to each other within the fourth degree of kindred according to the rules of the civil law or their spouses or estates, may be holding two permits for each of not more than three shareholders who are actively engaged in the business of logging or who are the spouses of persons who are actively engaged in the business of logging with that corporation.

Sec. 11. [EXTENSION OF CERTAIN TIMBER PERMITS.]

The commissioner of natural resources may extend for an additional period of not to exceed one year any timber permit issued pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Section 90.191, which expires during 1981. This extension shall be in addition to any extension previously granted pursuant to section 90.191; shall be made without additional charge, and shall otherwise be subject to the requirements of section 90.191.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 282.04, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TIMBER SOLD FOR CASH.] The county auditor may sell dead, down and mature timber upon any tract that may be approved by the natural resources commissioner. Such sale of timber products shall be made for cash at not less than the appraised value determined by the county board to the highest bidder after not less than one week's published notice in an official paper within the county. Any timber offered at such public sale and not sold may thereafter be sold at private sale by the county auditor at not less than the appraised value thereof, until such time as the county board may withdraw such timber from sale. The appraised value of the timber and the forestry practices to be followed in the cutting of said timber shall be approved by the commissioner of natural resources. Payment of the full sale price of all timber sold on tax-forfeited lands shall be made in cash at the time of the timber sale. The county board may require final settlement on the basis of a scale of cut products. Any parcels of land from which timber is to be sold by scale of cut products shall be so designated in the published notice of sale above mentioned, in which case the notice shall contain a description of such parcels, a statement of the estimated quantity of each species of timber thereon and the appraised price of each specie of timber for 1,000 feet, per cord or per piece, as the case may be. In such cases any bids offered over and above the appraised prices shall be by percentage, the percent bid to be added to the appraised price of each of the different species of timber advertised on the land. The purchaser of timber from such parcels shall pay in cash at the time of sale at the rate bid for all of the timber shown in the notice of sale as estimated to be standing on the land, and in addition shall pay at the same rate for any additional amounts which the final scale shows to have been cut or was available for cutting on the land at the time of sale under the terms of such sale. Where the final scale of cut products shows that less timber was cut or was available for cutting under terms of such sale than was originally paid for, the excess payment shall be refunded from the forfeited tax sale fund upon the claim of the purchaser, to be audited and allowed by the county board as in case of other claims against the county. No timber, except hardwood pulpwood, may be removed from such parcels of land or other designated landings until scaled by a person or persons designated by the county board and approved by the commissioner of natural resources. Landings other than the parcel of land from which timber is cut may be designated for scaling by the county board by written agreement with the purchaser of the timber. The county board may, by written agreement with the purchaser and with a consumer designated by him when the timber is sold by the county auditor, and with the approval of the commissioner of natural resources, accept the consumer's scale of cut products delivered at the consumer's landing. No timber shall be removed until fully paid for in cash. Small amounts of green standing, dead, down, dying, insect infected or diseased timber not exceeding ~~$1,500~~ $3,000 in appraised valuation may be sold for not less than the full appraised value at private sale to individual persons without first publishing notice of sale or calling for bids, provided that in case of such sale involving a total appraised value of more than $200 the sale shall be made subject to final settlement on the basis of a scale of cut products in the manner above provided and not more than two such sales, directly or indirectly to any individual shall be in effect at one time. As directed by the county board, the county auditor may lease tax-forfeited land to individuals, corporations or organized subdivisions of the state at public or private vendue, and at such prices and under such terms as the county board may prescribe, for use as cottage and camp sites and for agricultural purposes and for the purpose of taking and removing of hay, stumpage, sand, gravel, clay, rock, marl, and black dirt therefrom, and for garden sites and other temporary uses provided that no leases shall be for a period to exceed ten years; provided, further that any leases involving a consideration of more than $300 per year, except to an organized subdivision of the state shall first be offered at public sale in the manner provided herein for sale of timber. Upon the sale of any such leased land, it shall remain subject to the lease for not to exceed one year from the beginning of the term of the lease. Any rent paid by the lessee for the portion of the term cut off by such cancellation shall be refunded from the forfeited tax sale fund upon the claim of the lessee, to be audited and allowed by the county board as in case of other claims against the county. The county auditor, with the approval of the county board is authorized to grant permits, licenses, and leases to tax-forfeited lands for the depositing of stripping, lean ores, tailings, or waste products from mines or ore milling plants, upon such conditions and for such consideration and for such period of time, not exceeding 15 years, as the county board may determine; said permits, licenses, or leases to be subject to approval by the commissioner of natural resources. Any person who removes any timber from tax-forfeited land before said timber has been scaled and fully paid for as provided in this subdivision is guilty of a misdemeanor. The county auditor may, with the approval of the county board and the commissioner of natural resources, and without first offering at public sale, grant leases, for a term not exceeding 25 years, for the removal of peat from tax-forfeited lands upon such terms and conditions as the county board may prescribe.

Provided, however, that no lease for the removal of peat shall be made by the county auditor pursuant to this section without first holding a public hearing on his intention to lease. One printed notice in a legal newspaper in the county at least ten days before the hearing, and posted notice in the courthouse at least 20 days before the hearing shall be given of the hearing.

Subd. 3. [DEPOSIT ACCUMULATION FUND.] The deposit accumulation fund shall consist of the assets held in such fund, increased by amounts contributed by or for employees, amounts contributed by the city, amounts contributed by municipal activities supported in whole or in part by revenues other than taxes and amounts contributed by any public corporation, and by income from investments. There shall be paid from the fund the amounts required to be transferred to the Minnesota ~~adjustable fixed-benefit post-retirement investment~~ fund, ~~retirement benefit fund~~, or the disability benefit fund, refunds of contributions, death benefits payable on death before retirement not payable from the survivors' benefit fund, retirement allowances granted pursuant to Laws 1965, Chapter 688, Laws 1969, Chapter 859, and expenses of administration.

Subd. 5. [VALUATION OF ASSETS; ADJUSTMENTS OF BENEFITS.]
(a) For those members retiring pursuant to sections 422A.01 to 422A.25, assets equal to the required reserves as determined in accordance with a mortality table appropriate to the fund with an interest assumption of five percent, shall be transferred to the Minnesota ~~adjustable fixed-benefit~~ post-retirement investment fund ~~or~~, the disability benefit funds as provided in subdivision 7, ~~or the retirement benefit fund~~, except for any amounts payable from the survivor benefit fund, as of date of retirement.

(b) Annuity payments shall be adjusted in accordance with the provisions of sections 422A.09 and 422A.15, except that no minimum retirement payments therein described shall include any amounts payable from the survivors' benefit fund or disability benefit fund and supplemented benefits specifically financed by statute.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 356.18 increases in annuity payments pursuant to this section will be made automatically unless written notice on a form prescribed by the board is filed with the retirement board requesting that the increase shall not be made.

(d) All annuities payable from the Minnesota ~~adjustable fixed-benefit~~ post-retirement investment fund which are in effect on June 30, 1973 shall be increased in the same ratio that the actuarially computed reserve for such annuities determined by using an interest assumption of 3-1/2 percent bears to the actuarially computed reserve for such annuities determined by using an interest assumption of five percent. The reserves upon which such increases shall be based shall be the actuarially determined reserves for all Minnesota ~~adjustable fixed-benefit~~ post-retirement investment fund annuities which were in effect on December 31, 1972, in accordance with the mortality assumptions then in effect and at interest assumptions of 3-1/2 percent and five percent. The ratio of increase computed to the last full 1/100 of one percent shall be applied to all annuities payable from the Minnesota ~~adjustable fixed-benefit~~ post-retirement investment fund which are in effect on June 30, 1973. Any additional annuity shall begin to accrue on July 1, 1973 and shall be considered as part of the base amount to be used in determining any increase which may become effective on January 1, 1974 under the provisions of section 11.25, subdivisions 12 and 13.

(e) All assets in the annuity stabilization reserve and suspense account shall be credited proportionately to the individual retirement funds' participation in the Minnesota ~~adjustable fixed-benefit~~ post-retirement investment fund. Effective January 1, 1974 each participating fund in the Minnesota ~~adjustable fixed-benefit~~ post-retirement investment fund, except the municipal employees retirement fund, shall increase the benefits in effect on June 30, 1973 by an amount that when added to the increase granted to such benefits effective July 1, 1973, equals 20 percent. The increase shall apply to accrual of benefits commencing January 1, 1974 and shall be in lieu of the adjustment provided by Minnesota Statutes, 1973 Supplement, Section 11.25, Subdivisions 12 and 13 scheduled to take effect January 1, 1974. The municipal employees retirement fund of Minneapolis shall determine the increase if any in accrual of benefits commencing January 1, 1974, determined on the basis of its entire participation in the manner provided in Minnesota Statutes, 1973 Supplement, Section 11.25, Subdivisions 12 and 13.

(f) The actuary for each participating fund shall calculate the reserve required to support the benefits in effect on June 30, 1973 as increase July 1, 1973 and herein. As of December 31, 1973, each participating fund shall transfer to or from the Minnesota ~~adjustable fixed-benefit~~ post-retirement investment fund assets so that its participation equals the total of such required reserves and the reserve for benefits authorized on or after July 1, 1973. The increased benefits accruing as of January 1, 1974 shall be considered the "originally determined benefits" for the purpose of future adjustments.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 422A.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [RETIREMENT BENEFIT FUND.] The retirement benefit fund shall consist of amounts held for payment of retirement allowances for members retired pursuant to sections 422A.01 to 422A.25. For members retiring after the established date for the transfer of assets and liabilities specified in section 6, assets equal to the required reserves pursuant to law shall be transferred from the deposit accumulation fund to the retirement benefit fund. All income from investments of these assets shall be allocated to this fund. There shall be paid from this fund all the retirement annuities authorized by law. The retirement benefit fund shall be governed by the applicable laws governing the accounting and audit procedures, investment, actuarial requirements, calculation and payment of post-retirement benefit adjustments, discharge of any deficiency in the assets of the fund when compared to the actuarially determined required reserves, and other applicable operations and procedures regarding the Minnesota post-retirement investment fund established pursuant to section 11A.18, and any legal or administrative interpretations of those laws of the state board of investment, the legal advisor to the board of investment and the executive director of the state board of investment. The retirement board shall also establish a deferred yield adjustment account within this fund.

Sec. 10. [TEMPORARY PROVISION: TRANSFER OF CERTAIN ASSETS AND LIABILITIES.]

The state board of investment shall transfer the assets and obligations in the Minnesota post-retirement investment fund attributable to the retired members of the Minneapolis employees retirement fund to the retirement benefit fund established pursuant to section 7.

Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the transfer of assets and obligations shall be based on the proportional share of required reserves of the Minnesota post-retirement investment fund attributable by Minneapolis retirement fund retired members as determined by the actuary for the legislative commission on pensions and retirement as of the established date for the transfer of assets and liabilities. The proportional share of required reserves attributable to retired members of the Minneapolis employees retirement fund shall determine the proportional share of the assets of the Minnesota post-retirement investment fund to be transferred based on market value.

As of the established date for the transfer of assets and liabilities, the liability for the payment of all annuities to annuitants of the Minneapolis employees retirement fund previously payable from the Minnesota post-retirement investment fund shall be transferred to the retirement benefit fund of the Minneapolis employees retirement fund and shall no longer be the liability of the Minnesota post-retirement investment fund.

At the close of the business day as of the established date for the transfer of assets and liabilities there shall be transferred to the Minneapolis retirement fund board title to assets equal to not less than 90 percent of the total market value of the estimated Minneapolis employees retirement fund participation in the Minnesota post-retirement investment fund. All market valuations shall be determined by a nationally recognized firm known to perform such evaluations which is mutually agreed upon by the state board of investment and Minneapolis retirement fund board. The transfer shall be in securities which are mutually agreeable to both parties and in cash, and shall be representative of the portfolio composition on the established date for the transfer of assets and liabilities. The remainder of the transfer shall be in cash with interest at the average rate earned in the Minnesota post-retirement investment fund short term portfolio from the established date for the transfer of assets and liabilities to the actual date of transfer after the actuarial determination of the proportional share of reserves attributable to retired members of the Minneapolis retirement fund is calculated by the actuary for the legislative commission on pensions and retirement. The proportional share of the deferred yield adjustment account of the Minnesota post-retirement investment fund attributable to the Minneapolis employees retirement fund as of the established date for the transfer of assets and liabilities shall be credited to the deferred yield adjustment account in the retirement benefit fund.

Upon the completion of the transfer authorized by this section, the legislative auditor shall conduct an examination of the transfer proceedings, prepare specific findings as to the propriety of fiscal correctness thereof and transmit these findings to the state board of investment, Minneapolis retirement fund board, the board of directors of the Minnesota state retirement system, the board of trustees of the public employees retirement association, the board of trustees of the teachers retirement association, the committee on public employees and pensions of the senate, the committee on governmental operations of the house of representatives, and the legislative commission on pensions and retirement. If the legislative auditor finds any error in the transfer proceedings, the parties to the transfer shall immediately cause the error to be corrected.

The Minneapolis retirement fund board shall pay any costs arising from the transfer authorized by this subdivision if the costs would not have been incurred in the absence of the transfer.

The established date for the transfer of assets and liabilities shall be June 30, 1981, unless the state board of investment and the Minneapolis employees retirement fund board jointly agree that the transfer authorized by this section should not be consummated on that date, whereupon the established date for the transfer of assets and liabilities shall be June 30, 1982.

Sec. 11. [REVISOR OF STATUTES; INSTRUCTIONS.]

In the next edition of Minnesota Statutes, the revisor of statutes shall remove the term "Minneapolis municipal employee retirement fund" wherever it appears and replace it with the term "Minneapolis employees retirement fund".

11A.09 [STANDARD OF CARE INVESTMENT STANDARDS:]

Subdivision 1. [POLICY.] The legislature finds that moneys under the jurisdiction of the state board must be invested so that the total portfolio is designed to earn the highest possible return consistent with the need to preserve the security of the moneys. Further, the legislature finds that the moneys under the board's jurisdiction offer the potential for helping to improve Minnesota's economic condition and thereby directly benefiting the beneficiaries of the moneys and other citizens of the state. Further, the legislature finds that the investment of money solely to benefit the interests of retirement plan participants and beneficiaries represents a highly desirable goal. In recognition of these findings, the legislature adopts the following standards of care to govern the investment of moneys under the jurisdiction of the board.

Subd. 2. [PRUDENT PERSON.] In the discharge of their respective duties, the members of the state board, director, board staff, members of the council and any other person charged with the responsibility of investing money pursuant to the standards set forth in sections 11A.01 to 11A.25 shall act in good faith and shall exercise that degree of judgment and care, under circumstances then prevailing, which persons of prudence, discretion and intelligence exercise in the management of their own affairs, not for speculation, but for investment, considering the probable safety of their capital as well as the probable income to be derived therefrom.

Subd. 3. [ADDITIONAL STANDARDS.] In selecting among those investment opportunities which meet the prudent person standard defined in subdivision 2 and any other applicable statutory limitations, the board and its staff shall to the extent possible select those investments which have one or more of the following characteristics:

(a) the investment is in a business concern that does business in the state, which employs Minnesota residents, which has the potential for job expansion in the state, and which will contribute to the state's economic well-being;

(b) the investment will tend to improve the economic viability of a small city or urban neighborhood in the state;

(c) the investment will increase the supply of housing in the state, especially housing intended for low and moderate income persons;

(d) the investment will result in the development of alternative energy systems in Minnesota, will encourage energy conservation in the state or will reduce the state's dependence on outside energy sources;

(e) the investment will assist in the preservation and promotion of family farming or small business in the state; and

(f) the investment will serve other goals as identified by the board as being in the economic interests of beneficiaries of moneys invested by the board and the citizens of the state.

In applying the standards contained in this subdivision, the state board and its staff shall take no actions which they construe to be not in the best interests of retirement plan participants and beneficiaries.

Subd. 4. [EXEMPTION.] The standards and prohibitions contained in subdivision 3 shall not apply in respect to the investments of the post-retirement investment fund established in section 11A.18."

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, “agricultural land” means land capable of use in the production of agricultural crops, livestock or livestock products, poultry or poultry products, milk or dairy products, or fruit and other horticultural products but does not include any land zoned by a local governmental unit for a use other than and nonconforming with agricultural use. For the purposes of this section, “interest in agricultural land” includes any leasehold interest. *For the purposes of this section, a “permanent resident alien of the United States” is a natural person who has been lawfully admitted to the United States for permanent residence and in fact maintains his principal, actual dwelling place within the United States for at least six months out of every consecutive 12 month period without regard to intent. Subd. 1a. [DETERMINATION OF ALIEN STATUS.] An alien who has been physically absent from the United States for more than six months out of any 12 month period shall be presumed not to be a permanent resident alien.

Every permanent resident alien of the United States who owns property subject to this section shall annually, at some time during the month of January, file with the commissioner a statement setting forth the dates and places of that person's residence in the United States during the prior calendar year. The statement shall include an explanation of absences totaling more than six months during the prior calendar year and any facts which support the continuation of permanent resident alien status. Upon receipt of the statement, the commissioner shall have 30 days to review the statement and notify the resident alien whether the facts support continuation of the permanent resident alien status.

Subd. 2. [ALIENS AND NON-AMERICAN CORPORATIONS.] Except as hereinafter provided, no natural person shall ~~hereafter~~ acquire directly or indirectly any interest in agricultural land unless ~~he be the person~~ is a citizen of the United States or a permanent resident alien of the United States ~~and~~. In addition to the restrictions in section 500.24, no corporation, partnership, limited partnership, trustee, or other business entity shall ~~hereafter~~, directly or indirectly, acquire or otherwise obtain any interest, whether legal, beneficial or otherwise, in any title to agricultural land unless at least 80 percent of each class of stock issued and outstanding or 80 percent of the ultimate beneficial interest of ~~such~~ the entity is held directly or indirectly by citizens of the United States or permanent resident aliens. This section shall not apply:

(1) to agricultural land that may be acquired by devise, inheritance, as security for indebtedness, by process of law in the collection of debts, or by any procedure for the enforcement of a lien or claim thereon, whether created by mortgage or otherwise; ~~provided, that~~. All agricultural land ~~so~~ acquired in the collection of debts or by the enforcement of a lien or claim shall be disposed of within three years after acquiring ownership. ~~Further, the provisions of this section shall not apply;~~

(2) to citizens or subjects of a foreign country whose rights to hold land are secured by treaty ~~or~~;

(3) to lands used for transportation purposes by a common carrier, as defined in section 218.011, subdivision 2, ~~or~~;

Subd. 2a. [LOSS OF EXEMPT STATUS.] If any person or business entity acquires an interest in agricultural land as permitted by subdivision 2 and thereafter ceases to be a person or entity qualified to acquire an interest in agricultural land as permitted by subdivision 2 by reason of the loss of citizenship or permanent residence status or the loss of citizenship or permanent residence status of its shareholders or the holders of ultimate beneficial interests, the person or entity shall:

(a) Notify the commissioner within 30 days of the loss of qualification and file a report with the commissioner of agriculture giving a description of all agricultural land owned by the person or entity within the state, the date upon which the land was acquired, the date upon which the person or entity ceased to be qualified, and other information reasonably required by the commissioner;

(b) Divest itself of any agricultural land acquired after May 27, 1981 within one year of the date upon which the person or entity ceased to be qualified;

(e) Continue to file periodic reports as required by subdivision 4 with respect to any land acquired on or before May 27, 1977.

Subd. 2b. [INVESTIGATION BY COMMISSIONER.] The commissioner, upon the request of any person or upon receipt of any information which leads him to believe that a violation of this section may exist, may issue subpoenas requiring the appearance of witnesses, the production of relevant records and the giving of relevant testimony. If, as a result of his investigation, the commissioner concludes that a violation of this section may have occurred, he shall provide the landowner or his designee with the opportunity to meet with the commissioner or his designee in the county where the land is located to exchange information relating to the compliance with this section and any necessity for divestiture. The commissioner shall have the power to issue additional subpoenas for the meeting. The landowner and any person subpoenaed by the commissioner may be represented by counsel. Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 15, the preliminary investigation and the meeting do not constitute a contested case hearing.

Subd. 3. [ENFORCEMENT.] If, after investigation, the attorney general commissioner has reason to believe that any person is violating subdivision 2 this section, he shall commence an action in the district court in which any agricultural land relative to the violation is situated, or if situated in two or more counties, in any county in which a substantial part of the land is situated. The attorney general commissioner shall file for record with the county recorder or the registrar of titles of each county in which any portion of said the land is located a notice of the pendency of the action as provided in section 557.02. The attorney general commissioner shall file for record any such order with the county recorder or the registrar of titles of each county in which any portion of said the land is located. Thereafter, the natural person, corporation, partnership, limited partnership, trustee or other business entity, owning such land shall have a period of one year from the date of the order to divest itself of the lands. Subd. 3a. [INJUNCTION.] The commissioner may seek injunctive relief whenever a violation of this section is threatened.

Subd. 3b. [AGREEMENT.] The commissioner is authorized to enter into a written agreement in settlement of any alleged violation, whether or not a hearing is held on the violation. An agreement may provide for an extension of the time period for divestiture but shall not include a waiver of a divestiture required by this section. The agreement shall be construed as a "No Contest" pleading and may include any sanctions, penalties, or affirmative actions which are mutually satisfactory and are consistent with this section. The agreement shall be final and conclusive with respect to the action, except upon a showing of fraud, malfeasance, or misrepresentation of a material fact. The matter agreed upon shall not be reopened or modified by an officer, employee, or agent of the state. The agreement shall be filed in Ramsey county district court and shall be enforceable by it or the district court of the county in which the person resides or principally does business. Any violator of an agreement may, after notice is given to the alleged violator and a hearing is held, be punished by the district court as for contempt, in addition to other remedies in this section.

Subd. 4. [REPORTS.] Any natural person, corporation, partnership, limited partnership, trustee, or other business entity prohibited from future acquisition of agricultural land may retain title to any agricultural land lawfully acquired within this state ~~acquired~~ prior to ~~May 27, 1977~~ June 1, 1981, but it shall file a report with the commissioner of agriculture ~~within 90 days after May 27, 1977 and annually before April 15 thereafter,~~ January 31 containing a description of all agricultural land held within this state, the purchase price and market value of the land, the use to which it is put, the date of acquisition and any other reasonable information required by the commissioner. The commissioner shall make the information available to the public. All required annual reports shall include a filing fee of $35.

Subd. 5. [PENALTY.] Willful failure to properly register any parcel of land as required by subdivision 4 is a gross misdemeanor. Each full month of failure to register is a separate offense.

We request adoption of this report and repassage of the bill.

The owner, driver, or user of a vehicle or trailer upon conviction for transporting a gross weight in excess of the gross weight for which it was registered or for operating a vehicle with an axle weight exceeding the maximum lawful axle load weight shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and be subject to increased registration or re-registration according to the following schedule:

If the additional registration tax computed upon that weight, plus the tax already paid, amounts to more than the regular tax for the maximum gross weight permitted for such a vehicle under section 169.83, that additional amount shall nevertheless be paid into the highway fund, but the additional tax thus paid shall not be deemed to permit the vehicle to be operated with a gross weight in excess of the maximum legal weight as provided by section 169.83. Unless the owner within 30 days after such a conviction shall apply to increase the authorized weight and pay the additional tax as herein provided, the registrar shall revoke the registration on the vehicle and demand the return of the registration card and plates issued by him on that registration.

(3) When the registration on a motor vehicle, trailer or semitrailer has been revoked by the registrar according to provisions of this section, such vehicle shall not be again operated on the highways of the state until it is registered or re-registered, as the case may be, and new plates issued, and the registration fee therefor shall be the annual tax for the total gross weight of the vehicle at the time of violation.

Sec. 44. [174.265] [METROPOLITAN TRANSIT SERVICE DEMONSTRATION PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of this section, the terms defined in this subdivision have the meanings given them, unless the context requires otherwise.

(a) "Available local transit funds" means an amount equal to 90 percent of the tax proceeds which would accrue to the metropolitan transit commission from a tax levied in the applicant community or communities in accordance with section 473.446, subdivision 1, clauses (a) to (c).

(b) "Off-peak hours" has the meaning given it in section 473.408, subdivision 1.

Subd. 2. [ESTABLISHMENT OF PROGRAM.] A metropolitan transit service demonstration program is established to provide financial assistance for projects designed to test the efficiency and effectiveness of alternative methods of providing public transit service for communities that are within the metropolitan transit taxing district but are not adequately served by existing regular route transit.

Subd. 3. [ELIGIBILITY.] The commissioner may provide assistance under the program to any statutory or home rule charter city or town, or group of such cities or towns, which: (a) is located within the metropolitan transit taxing district, as defined in section 473.446, subdivision 2; (b) is not served by the metropolitan transit commission or is served only with bus routes which end or begin within the city or town, or group of cities or towns; and (c) has fewer than four scheduled runs of bus service provided by the commission during off-peak hours. Eligible cities or towns may apply on behalf of any operator of public transit with whom they propose to contract for service.

Subd. 4. [ASSISTANCE FOR REPLACEMENT SERVICE.] An application for financial assistance for replacement services shall: describe the existing service provided to the applicant by the metropolitan transit commission, including the estimated number of passengers carried and the routes, schedules, and fares; describe the transit service proposed for funding under the demonstration program, including the anticipated number of passengers and the routes, schedules, and fares; and indicate the total amount of available local transit funds, the portion of the available local transit funds proposed to be used to subsidize replacement services, and the amount of state assistance requested for the replacement services. Financial assistance shall not be granted under this subdivision unless the commissioner determines that the service proposed for funding is intended and designed to replace and substitute for that provided by the metropolitan transit commission at the time of application and that the average subsidy per passenger for the replacement service will not exceed the average subsidy per passenger during the six months preceding the application on the commission's routes which serve the applicant communities. If the applicant communities are not served by the commission at the time of the application, the average subsidy per passenger for the replacement service shall not exceed the average subsidy per passenger during the six months preceding the application on all routes of the commission extending into zone four. After the first year of replacement service, the maximum subsidy shall be escalated at a rate equal to the rate of inflation in the revised consumer price index for all urban consumers in the Minneapolis-St. Paul metropolitan area. The amount of financial assistance provided for replacement service under this subdivision shall not exceed the sum of: (a) the portion of the available local transit funds which the applicant proposes to use to subsidize the service, and (b) an amount of state assistance bearing an identical proportional relationship to the amount under (a) as the total amount of state assistance available to the metropolitan transit commission under section 33 bears to the total amount of taxes collected by the commission under section 473.446, subdivision 1, clauses (a) to (c). The commissioner shall transfer the amounts provided to the recipient from the assistance available to the metropolitan transit commission pursuant to section 174.24, subdivision 3.

Subd. 5. [ASSISTANCE FOR ADDITIONAL SERVICE.] Any city or town or group of cities or towns receiving financial assistance under subdivision 4 may also receive assistance pursuant to section 174.24, subdivision 3, or section 174.25. In addition to the information required of applicants for assistance under those sections, an application shall describe the portion of the available local transit funds which are not obligated to subsidize replacement service, under the assistance contract entered into pursuant to subdivision 4, and which the applicant proposes to use to subsidize additional services. An applicant which has exhausted its available local transit funds may use any other local subsidy funds to complete the required local share. If the commissioner grants financial assistance pursuant to this subdivision, the commissioner shall transfer the portion of the available local transit funds which the applicant proposes to use to subsidize the additional service from the assistance available to the metropolitan transit commission pursuant to section 174.24, subdivision 3.

Subd. 4a. [EQUITABLE ALLOCATION AND ANNUAL REALLOCATION.] The commissioner shall distribute all available funding under this

The Honorable Jack Davies
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H. F. No. 1445, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendments and that H.F. No. 1445 be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"ARTICLE I

INCOME TAX

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.06, Subdivision 2d, is amended to read:

Subd. 2d. [INFLATION ADJUSTMENT OF BRACKETS.] For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1978, the taxable net income brackets in subdivision 2c shall be adjusted for inflation. The commissioner of revenue shall determine the percentage increase for each year in the revised consumer price index for all urban consumers for the Minneapolis-St. Paul metropolitan area prepared by the United States department of labor with 1967 as a base year. The commissioner shall determine the percentage increase from August, 1978 to, in 1979, August, 1979 and in each subsequent year, from August of the preceding year to August of the current year, and shall announce the percentage figure by October 1 each year. The dollar amounts in each taxable net income bracket for the prior year in subdivision 2c shall be multiplied by a figure equal to 85 percent of that percentage. The product of the calculation shall be added to each inflation adjusted taxable net income bracket for the prior year to produce the inflation adjusted taxable net income brackets for each succeeding year. If the product exceeds a whole dollar amount, it shall be raised to the next highest whole dollar. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980, the taxable net income brackets in subdivision 2c shall be adjusted for inflation. For the purpose of making the adjustment as provided in this subdivision all of the brackets provided in subdivision 2c shall be the adjusted brackets as they existed for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1979 and before January 1, 1981. The commissioner shall determine: (a) the percentage increase in the revised consumer price index for all urban consumers for the Minneapolis-St. Paul metropolitan area prepared by the United States department of labor. He shall then determine the percent change from August, 1980, to, in 1981, August, 1981, and in each subsequent year, from August of the preceding year to August of the current year; and (b) the percentage increase in average Minnesota gross income from tax year 1980 to, in 1981, tax year 1981, and in each subsequent tax year between the previous tax year and the current tax year. The percent increases in Minnesota gross income shall be estimated using the best available data sources and reasonable forecasting procedures. The determination of the commissioner pursuant to this section shall not be considered a "rule" and shall not be subject to the administrative procedures act contained in chapter 15.

The dollar amount in each taxable net income bracket for the prior year in subdivision 2c shall be multiplied by a figure calculated as one plus 100 percent of the consumer price index increase or 100 percent of the Minnesota gross income increase, whichever is smaller. The product of the calculation shall yield the inflation adjusted tax brackets for each succeeding year. If the product exceeds a whole dollar amount, it shall be rounded to the nearest whole dollar.

No later than October 1 of each year, the commissioner shall announce both percentage increases and the specific percentage that will be used to adjust the tax brackets, the maximum standard deduction amount, and the personal credit amounts.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.06, Subdivision 3g, is amended to read:

Subd. 3g. [INFLATION ADJUSTMENT OF CREDITS.] For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980, the credits provided for individuals in subdivision 3f shall be adjusted for inflation. The commissioner of revenue shall determine the percentage increase for each year in the revised consumer price index for all urban consumers for the Minneapolis-St. Paul metropolitan area prepared by the United States department of labor with 1967 as a base year. The commissioner shall determine the percentage increase from August, 1980 to, in 1981, August, 1981 and in each subsequent year, from August of the preceding year to August of the current year, and shall announce the percentage figure by October 1 each year. The dollar amount of each inflation adjusted credit for the prior year in subdivision 3f shall be multiplied by a figure equal to that percentage. The product of the calculation shall be added to the inflation adjusted credit for the prior year to produce the inflation adjusted individual credits for each succeeding year. If the product exceeds a whole dollar amount, it shall be rounded to the nearest whole dollar. The dollar amount of each credit for the prior year in subdivision 3f shall be increased in the same manner as provided in subdivision 2d for the expansion of the taxable net income brackets.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [ADDITIONAL CORPORATE TAX.] In addition to the tax computed according to subdivision 1 and section 290.361, there is hereby imposed an additional privilege and income tax which shall be computed by applying the following rates to the tax computed pursuant to subdivision 1, sections 290.361 and 290.091 less the credits allowed by section 62E.11, subdivision 8 and section 290.06, subdivisions 3f, 9, 9a, and 14:

(1) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980, but before January 1, 1982, 2-1/2 percent;

(2) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1981, but before January 1, 1983, five percent;

(3) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1982, but before January 1, 1984, 2-1/2 percent.

For corporations that change their accounting period while the subdivision is in effect, the surtax assessment applying to the tax on the annual basis would be determined by multiplying five percent by the ratio determined by dividing the number of months in the accounting period which falls between June 30, 1981 and July 1, 1983 by the number of months in the accounting period. The additional privilege and income tax imposed pursuant to this subdivision shall be computed and shown as a separate item on returns filed by the corporations subject to the tax.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2e. [ADDITIONAL INCOME TAX.] In addition to the tax computed pursuant to subdivisions 2c and 2d or subdivision 3d, there is hereby imposed an additional income tax on individuals, estates, and trusts, other than those taxable as corporations. The additional tax shall be computed by applying the rate of one percent to the tax computed pursuant to subdivision 3d or, in the case of an individual who does not qualify for the low income alternative tax and estates and trusts, the tax computed pursuant to subdivisions 2c and 2d and sections 290.032 and 290.091 less the credits allowed by sections 290.06, subdivisions 3e, 3f, 9, 9a, 11 and 14, and 290.081, for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980, and before January 1, 1984.

The additional income tax imposed pursuant to this subdivision shall be computed and shown as a separate item on returns filed by individuals, estates and trusts subject to the tax.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.067, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LIMITATIONS.] The credit for expenses incurred for the care of each dependent shall not exceed $400 in any taxable year, and the total credit for all dependents of a claimant shall not exceed $800 in a taxable year. The total credit shall be reduced by five percent of the amount by which the combined federal adjusted gross income of the claimant and his spouse, if any, exceeds $15,000. A married claimant shall file his income tax return for the year for which he claims the credit either jointly or separately on one form with his spouse. In the case of a married claimant only one spouse may claim the credit. ~~No expense for which a medical expense deduction is claimed pursuant to section 290.09, subdivision 10, shall be claimed as a dependent care expense.~~

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.09, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [TAXES.] Taxes paid or accrued within the taxable year, except (a) income or franchise taxes imposed by this chapter and income or franchise taxes paid to any other state or to any province or territory of Canada for which a credit is allowed under section 290.081; (b) taxes assessed against local benefits of a kind deemed in law to increase the value of the property assessed; (c) inheritance, gift and estate taxes except as provided in section 290.077, subdivision 4; (d) cigarette and tobacco products excise tax imposed on the consumer; (e) that part of Minnesota property taxes for which a credit or refund is claimed and allowed under chapter 290A; (f) federal income taxes, by corporations, national and state banks except as provided in section 290.18; (g) mortgage registry tax; (h) real estate transfer tax; (i) federal telephone tax; (j) federal transportation tax; ~~and (k) state and local taxes on the sale of gasoline, diesel fuel, and other motor fuels; and (l) tax paid by any corporation or national or state bank to any foreign country or possession of the United States to the extent that a credit against federal income taxes is allowed under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979. If the taxpayer's foreign tax credit consists of both foreign taxes deemed paid and foreign taxes actually paid or withheld, it will be conclusively presumed that foreign taxes deemed paid were first used by the taxpayer in its foreign tax credit. Minnesota gross income shall include the amount of foreign tax paid which had been allowed as a deduction in a previous year, provided such foreign tax is later allowed as a credit against federal income tax. Income taxes permitted to be deducted hereunder shall, regardless of the methods of accounting employed, be deductible only in the taxable year in which paid.~~ Taxes imposed upon a shareholder's interest in a corporation which are paid by the corporation without reimbursement from the shareholder shall be deductible only by such corporation.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.09, Subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [MEDICAL EXPENSES.] Payments (not compensated for by insurance or otherwise) for medical, dental, and other expenses for hospital, nursing, medical, surgical, dental, and other healing services, including institutional care and treatment for the mentally ill and physically handicapped and the cost, feeding and maintenance expenses of a guide dog for a blind or deaf person, as defined in section 290.06, subdivision 3e, clauses (4) (d) and (h), and for medical supplies and ambulance hire, incurred by the taxpayer on account of sickness, mental illness, physical handicap or personal injury to himself or his dependents and premiums paid for hospitalization and medical insurance including nonprofit hospital service and nonprofit medical service plans. Payments for traveling expenses shall not be deductible under the provisions of this subdivision. Payments for hotel or similar lodging expenses shall be deductible in the same manner as payments for hospital services, if the taxpayer or his dependent is not hospitalized but is nevertheless required to remain in a medical center away from his usual place of abode, for the purpose of receiving prescribed medical treatment as provided and as limited by section 213 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.09, Subdivision 15, is amended to read:

Subd. 15. [STANDARD DEDUCTION.] In lieu of all deductions provided for in this chapter other than those enumerated in section 290.18, subdivision 2, and in lieu of the credits enumerated in section 290.21, subdivision 3, an individual may claim or be allowed a standard deduction as follows:

(a) Subject to modification pursuant to clause (b), the standard deduction shall be an amount equal to ten percent of the adjusted gross income of the taxpayer, up to a maximum deduction of $2,000; in the case in which a standard deduction tax table is provided by the commissioner of revenue pursuant to the provisions of section 290.06, subdivision 2, the standard deduction shall be available to individuals with adjusted gross income of less than $20,000 only through the use of such table.

In the case of a husband and wife living together, the standard deduction shall not be allowed to either if the net income of one of the spouses is determined without regard to the standard deduction. For the purposes of this paragraph the determination of whether an individual is living with his spouse shall be made as of the last day of the taxable year unless the spouse dies during the taxable year in which case such determination shall be made as of the date of such spouse's death.

(b) For each taxable year beginning after December 31, 1980, the maximum amount of the standard deduction shall be adjusted for inflation. That amount shall be multiplied each year by a figure equal to the percentage increase in the revised consumer price index for all urban consumers for the Minneapolis-St. Paul metropolitan area used for purposes of section 290.06, subdivision 3g. The product of the calculation shall be added to the dollar amount of the maximum standard deduction established in clause (a) to produce the inflation-adjusted maximum standard deduction for each succeeding year in the same manner as provided in section 290.06, subdivision 2d, for the expansion of the taxable net income brackets.

(c) The commissioner of revenue may establish a standard deduction tax table incorporating the rates set forth in section 290.06, subdivision 2c, and the standard deduction. The tax of any individual taxpayer whose adjusted gross income is less than $20,000 shall, if an election is made not to itemize non-business deductions, be computed in accordance with tables prepared and issued by the commissioner of revenue. The tables shall be prepared to reflect the allowance of the standard deduction and the personal and dependent credits.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.10, is amended to read:

290.10 [NONDEDUCTIBLE ITEMS.]

In computing the net income no deduction shall in any case be allowed for:

- (1) Personal, living or family expenses;
- (2) Amounts paid out for new buildings or for permanent improvements or betterments made to increase the value of any property or estate, except as otherwise provided in this chapter;
- (3) Amounts expended in restoring property or in making good the exhaustion thereof for which an allowance is or has been made;
- (4) Premiums paid on any life insurance policy covering the life of the taxpayer or of any other person;
- (5) The shrinkage in value, due to the lapse of time, of a life or terminable interest of any kind in property acquired by gift, devise, bequest or inheritance;
- (6) Losses from sales or exchanges of property, directly or indirectly, between members of a family, or, except in the case of distributions in liquidation, between an individual and a corporation in which such individual owns, directly or indirectly, more than 50 percent in value of the outstanding stock; or between any person or corporation and a trust created by him or it or of which he or it is a beneficiary, directly or indirectly; for the purpose of this clause, an individual shall be considered as owning the stock owned, directly or indirectly, by his family; and the family of an individual shall include only his brothers and sisters (whether by the whole or half blood), spouse, ancestor, and lineal descendants, but such losses shall be allowed as deductions if the taxpayer shows to the satisfaction of the commissioner that the sale or exchange was bona fide and for a fair and adequate consideration;
- (7) In computing net income, no deduction shall be allowed under section 290.09, subdivision 2, relating to expenses incurred or under section 290.09, subdivision 3, relating to interest accrued;
 - (a) If such expenses or interest not paid within the taxable year or within two and one-half months after the close thereof; and
 - (b) If, by reason of the method of accounting of the person to whom the payment is to be made, the amount thereof is not, unless paid, includible in the gross income of such person for the taxable year in which or with which the taxable year of the taxpayer ends; and
 - (c) If, at the close of the taxable year of the taxpayer or at any time within two and one-half months thereafter, both the taxpayer and the person to whom the payment is to be made are persons between whom losses would be disallowed under clause (6);

(8) ~~(a) Contributions by employees under the federal railroad retirement act, and the federal social security act; or (b) Payments to Minnesota or federal public employee retirement funds; and that. (c) Three-fourths (75 percent) of the amount of taxes imposed on self-employment income under section 1401 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979, which would have been imposed on the same amount of income if such income had been treated as wages from employment and subject to tax under the provisions of section 3101 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979.~~

(9) Expenses, interest and taxes connected with or allocable against the production or receipt of all income not included in the measure of the tax imposed by this act. ~~When the federal income tax liability is joint and several under a joint federal return of husband and wife, the allowable federal income tax paid on the income included in the joint federal return may be taken as a deduction from gross income by the spouse who paid the federal income tax.~~

(10) In situations where this chapter provides for an exclusion from gross income of a specific dollar amount of an item of income assignable to this state, and within the measure of the tax imposed by this chapter, that portion of the federal income tax ~~paid liability assessed~~ upon such income excluded, and any expenses attributable to earning such income, shall not be deductible in computing net income.

(11) Amounts paid or accrued for such taxes and carrying charges as, under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, are chargeable to capital account with respect to property, if the taxpayer elects, in accordance with such regulations, to treat such taxes or charges as so chargeable.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.18, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FEDERAL INCOME TAX PAYMENTS AND REFUNDS.] ~~(a) The adjusted gross income shall, except insofar as section 290.19 is applicable, be computed by deducting from the gross income assignable to this state under section 290.17, the following deductions: deduction for~~

~~allowable federal income taxes determined under the provisions of sections 290.09, subdivision 4, 290.10(9) and 290.18.~~

~~The deduction enumerated in this subdivision This deduction shall be allowed to the extent provided in subdivision 1 and as provided in clauses (b) and (e).~~

~~(b) In the case of corporations, national and state banks for taxable years beginning prior to July 1, 1971 and ending subsequent thereto; federal income taxes allowable as a deduction shall be that part of the federal income tax determined by multiplying the federal income tax liability for such taxable year as reflected on the return filed with the Internal Revenue Service by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months in the taxable year prior to July 1, 1971 and the denominator which is the number of months in the entire taxable year; provided that if the taxable period is other than a full year the denominator of the fraction shall be the total number of months for which the federal return is filed.~~

(c) The amount of any additional federal income taxes for 1971 and prior years, where such additional federal income taxes would have been allowed as a deduction from gross income under clause (b) or under prior law, shall be allowed as a deduction in the year in which such additional federal income taxes are paid.

(d) The amount of any overpayment of federal income taxes, whether allowed as a refund or allowed as a credit to any liability, where such overpayment has previously been allowed as a deduction from gross income under Extra Session Laws 1971, Chapter 31, Article 6 or under prior law, shall be added to gross income in the year in which received or credited. individuals, estates, or trusts (i) for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980 in the taxable year to which the liability applies. Such liability includes the portion of self-employment tax allowed under section 290.10, clause (8). The self-employment tax must be deducted by the person who is deriving the income. When the federal tax liability is joint and several under the computation of a joint federal return of husband and wife, the federal tax liability must be split between the spouses in the same ratio that the federal adjusted gross income of that spouse bears to the total federal adjusted gross income.

(ii) taxes paid for a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1981 shall be allowed as follows:

(1) Those taxes paid in a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1981, shall be claimed in the year in which the payment was made.

(2) Those paid in a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1980 shall be divided and deducted in equal installments reflected by the yearly periods beginning with the first day of the taxable year in which the payment was made and ending December 31, 1986.

(iii) In the case of a person who was self employed during all or a portion of the taxable year, the federal income tax liability for purposes of this section shall be increased by the self-employment tax allowed under section 290.10, clause (8).

(iv) If a taxpayer's federal tax liability is eventually not paid by reason of compromise, discharge, or court order, the deduction allowed pursuant to this subdivision shall be disallowed for the taxable year in which the liability was accrued.

(v) In the event a federal tax liability for a taxable year commencing after December 31, 1980 is increased, decreased or modified, and such increase, decrease or modification has resulted in a change in the amount of Minnesota income tax in the year to which such increase, decrease or modification is attributable, the taxpayer's deduction under this section shall be modified for such year.

(vi) If the readjustments required in (iv) or (v) are for taxes reflected in the transition rule described in (ii)(2), the readjustment shall be made equally to the remaining installments and if a reduction to such installments is required under this readjustment which exceeds the total of all remaining installments, the remaining installments will be reduced to zero and the excess included in income as a federal income tax refund.

(vii) Refunds which are not involved with any readjustments under the transition rule shall be included in income under section 290.01, subdivision 20, clause (a)(6) if it is from a year beginning before January 1, 1981.

(viii) Refunds of taxes for years beginning after December 31, 1980, shall be used to adjust the deduction in the taxable year of the liability unless that year is closed by statute and no other adjustments are to be required or allowable in which case such refund shall be reportable in the year received.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.18, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [TAXABLE NET INCOME ADJUSTMENT FACTOR.] For the taxable year beginning after December 31, 1980 and ending before January 1, 1982, the commissioner of revenue shall adjust taxable net income by multiplying the taxable net income of each individual, estate and trust by a fraction, the numerator of which is one plus the predicted rate of growth in average Minnesota gross income between tax year 1980 and tax year 1981. The denominator of the adjustment fraction shall be one plus the product of (a) the predicted rate of growth in average Minnesota gross income as determined above, and (b) the difference between the ratio of Minnesota gross income to Minnesota adjusted gross income and the product of the ratio of federal taxes paid to Minnesota adjusted gross income and an estimate of average federal income tax elasticity relating percent changes in federal adjusted gross income to percent changes in net federal income tax liabilities.

For each taxable year beginning after December 31, 1981, the commissioner of revenue shall adjust taxable net income by multiplying the taxable net income of each individual, estate, and trust by an adjustment factor determined by multiplying the previous year's adjustment factor by the current year adjustment factor as defined above using data appropriate to the current year.

The data used shall reflect the most current aggregate tax statistics collected and tabulated by the department of revenue. The estimate of the percentage increase in Minnesota gross income shall be based on the best available data sources and reasonable forecasting procedures. The estimate of federal income tax elasticity shall reflect the best available sources of information, including the judgment of the United States Internal Revenue Service and the United States Treasury, Office of Tax Analysis. The determination of the commissioner pursuant to this section shall not be considered a "rule" and shall not be subject to the administrative procedures act contained in chapter 15.

No later than October 1 of each tax year, the commissioner shall announce the adjustment factor to be applied to taxable net income, including its separate components, and the estimate of federal elasticity.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.37, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [INFORMATION INCLUDED IN RETURN.] The return provided for herein shall require a statement of the name of the taxpayer, or taxpayers, if the return be a joint return, and the address of such taxpayer in the same name or names and same address as the taxpayer has used in making his income tax return to the United States under the terms of the internal revenue act code of 1954, and shall include the social security number of the taxpayer, or taxpayers, if a social security number has been issued by the United States with respect to said taxpayers, and shall include the amount of the adjusted gross income of such taxpayer as the same appears on said return to the United States internal revenue service for the taxable year to which such Minnesota state return is applicable; or, in lieu thereof, and the commissioner may require the taxpayer shall to attach to his Minnesota state income tax return a copy of the federal income tax return which he has filed or is about to file for such period. The commissioner of revenue, if necessary to audit the return of the taxpayer for a particular period, may require a detailed schedule of the items used to compute the adjusted gross income of such taxpayer as the same appears on said return to the United States internal revenue service for the taxable year to which such Minnesota return is applicable; or, in lieu thereof, a copy of the federal income tax return filed for such period.

Sec. 13. [ADJUSTMENT TO WITHHOLDING AND DECLARATIONS.]

For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1982, but before January 1, 1984, the commissioner of revenue shall adjust the withholding tables, notwithstanding section 290.92, subdivision 2a, so that the additional tax imposed by section 4, is withheld and remitted by employers during the first six months of the taxable year.

For the same period, the commissioner shall require that declarations filed during the first six months of the taxable year by individuals, estates, trusts, and corporations shall include the additional tax imposed by sections 3 and 4.

Sec. 14. Laws 1975, Chapter 226, Section 4, as amended by Laws 1979, Chapter 311, Section 1, is amended to read:

Sec. 4. Section 1 is effective for taxable years commencing after December 31, 1975 and shall, unless reenacted, expire after the taxable year ending December 31, 1981.

Sec. 15. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 5, 6, 7, 9, and 10 are effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980.

ARTICLE II

PROPERTY TAX

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 124.213, is amended to read:

124.213 [STATE SCHOOL AGRICULTURAL CREDIT.]

The county auditor shall reduce the tax for school purposes on all property receiving the homestead credit pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 6, by an amount equal to the tax levy that would be produced by applying a rate of ~~17~~ 18 mills on up to 320 acres of the property. The county auditor shall reduce the tax for school purposes on all other agricultural lands and all real estate devoted to temporary and seasonal residential occupancy for recreational purposes, but not devoted to commercial purposes, by an amount that would be produced by applying a rate of ten mills on the property. The agricultural credit shall be applied at a rate of 8 mills on any agricultural property in excess of 640 acres. The amounts so computed by the county auditor shall be submitted to the commissioner of revenue as part of the abstracts of tax lists required to be filed with the commissioner under the provisions of section 275.29. Any prior year adjustments shall also be certified in the abstracts of tax lists. The commissioner of revenue shall review such certifications to determine their accuracy.

He may make such changes in the certification as he may deem necessary or return a certification to the county auditor for corrections.

~~In 1977, payment shall be made according to the procedure provided in section 273.13, subdivision 15a, for the purpose of replacing revenue lost as a result of the reduction of property taxes provided in this section. In 1978, payment shall be made pursuant to sections 124.212, subdivision 7b and 124.11, for the purpose of replacing revenue lost as a result of the reduction in property taxes provided in this section. There is appropriated from the general fund in the state treasury to the commissioner of revenue the amount necessary to make these payments in fiscal year 1978. There is appropriated from the general fund in the state treasury to the department of education the amount necessary to make these payments in fiscal year 1979 and thereafter.~~

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 272.01, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. (a) When any real or personal property which for any reason is exempt from ad valorem taxes, and taxes in lieu thereof, is leased, loaned, or otherwise made available and used by a private individual, association or corporation in connection with a business conducted for profit, there shall be imposed a tax, for the privilege of so using or possessing such real or personal property, in the same amount and to the same extent as though the lessee or user was the owner of such property.

(b) The tax imposed by this subdivision shall not apply to (1) property leased or used by way of a concession in or relative to the use in whole or part of a public park, market, fair grounds, port authority, municipal auditorium, airport owned by a city, town, county or group thereof but not the metropolitan airports commission, municipal museum or municipal stadium or (2) property constituting or used as a public pedestrian ramp, concourse, passenger check-in area or ticket sale counter, boarding area or luggage claim area in connection with a public airport; provided that real estate which is owned by a municipality in connection with the operation of a public airport and which is leased or used for agricultural purposes shall not be exempt.

(c) Taxes imposed by this subdivision shall be due and payable as in the case of personal property taxes and such taxes shall be assessed to such lessees or users of real or personal property in the same manner as taxes assessed to owners of real or personal property, except that such taxes shall not become a lien against the property. When due, the taxes shall constitute a debt due from the lessee or user to the state, township, city, county and school district for which the taxes were assessed and shall be collected in the same manner as personal property taxes. If property subject to the tax imposed by this subdivision is leased or used jointly by two or more persons, each lessee or user shall be jointly and severally liable for payment of the tax.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.11, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] Except as provided in subdivisions 2 and 6 and 7 or section 273.17, subdivision 1, all property shall be valued at its market value. In estimating and determining such value, the assessor shall not adopt a lower or different standard of value because the same is to serve as a basis of taxation, nor shall he adopt as a criterion of value the price for which such property would sell at auction or at a forced sale, or in the aggregate with all the property in the town or district; but he shall value each article or description of property by itself, and at such sum or price as he believes the same to be fairly worth in money. In assessing any tract or lot of real property, the value of the land, exclusive of structures and improvements, shall be determined, and also the value of all structures and improvements thereon, and the aggregate value of the property, including all structures and improvements, excluding the value of crops growing upon cultivated land. In valuing real property upon which there is a mine or quarry, it shall be valued at such price as such property, including the mine or quarry, would sell for a fair, voluntary sale, for cash. In valuing real property which is vacant, the fact that such property is platted shall not be taken into account. An individual lot of such platted property shall not be assessed in excess of the assessment of the land as if it were unplatted until the lot is improved with a permanent improvement all or a portion of which is located upon the lot, or for a period of three years after final approval of said plat whichever is shorter. When a lot is sold or construction begun, the assessed value of that lot or any single contiguous lot fronting on the same street shall be eligible for reassessment. All property, or the use thereof, which is taxable under sections 272.01, subdivision 2, or 273.19, shall be valued at the market value of such property and not at the value of a leasehold estate in such property, or at some lesser value than its market value.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.11, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [AGRICULTURAL LAND.] Agricultural land shall be valued at the lesser of its market value or the value which could be derived from its free market gross rental rate capitalized at a rate of 5.8 percent. Each county assessor shall survey the farm rental values of each grade of farmland in each township in the county. This information shall be used in reviews of valuations by the town boards of review.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.112, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Real estate shall be entitled to valuation and tax deferment under this section only if it is:

(a) actively and exclusively devoted to golf ~~or~~, skiing or archery or firearms range recreational use or uses and other recreational uses carried on at ~~such golf or skiing~~ the establishment;

(b) five acres in size or more, except in the case of an archery or firearms range; and

(c) (1) operated by private individuals and open to the public; or

(2) operated by firms or corporations for the benefit of employees or guests; or

(3) operated by private clubs having a membership of 50 or more.

Sec. 6. [273.117] [CONSERVATION PROPERTY TAX VALUATION.]

Real property which is subject to a conservation restriction or easement shall be entitled to reduced valuation under this section if:

(a) The restriction or easement is for a conservation purpose as defined in section 84.64, subdivision 2, and is recorded on the property;

(b) The property is being used in accordance with the terms of the conservation restriction or easement.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.13, Subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [CLASS 3B.] Agricultural land, except as provided by class 1 hereof, and which is used for the purposes of a homestead shall constitute class 3b and shall be valued and assessed for taxes payable in 1981 and thereafter as follows: the first $50,000 of market value shall be valued and assessed at 14 percent; the remaining market value shall be valued and assessed at 19 percent. Effective for taxes payable in 1982 and thereafter, the maximum amount of the market value of the homestead bracket subject to the 14 percent rate shall be adjusted by the commissioner of revenue as provided in section 12. The property tax to be paid on class 3b property as otherwise determined by law less any reduction received pursuant to section 273.135 shall be reduced by 58 percent of the tax for taxes payable in 1981 and thereafter; provided that the amount of said reduction shall not exceed $650. Valuation subject to relief shall be limited to 240 acres of land, most contiguous surrounding, bordering, or closest to the house occupied by the owner as his dwelling place, and such other structures as may be included thereon utilized by the owner in an agricultural pursuit, provided that noncontiguous land shall constitute class 3b only if the homestead is classified as class 3b and the detached land is located in the same township or city or not farther than two townships or cities or combination thereof from the homestead. The first $12,000 market value of each tract of real estate which is rural in character and devoted or adaptable to rural but not necessarily agricultural use, used for the purpose of a homestead shall be exempt from taxation for state purposes; except as specifically provided otherwise by law.

Agricultural land as used herein, and in section 273.132, shall mean contiguous acreage of ten acres or more, primarily used during the preceding year for agricultural purposes. Agricultural use may include pasture, timber, waste, unusable wild land and land included in federal farm programs.

Real estate of less than ten acres used principally for raising poultry, livestock, fruit, vegetables or other agricultural products, shall be considered as agricultural land, if it is not used primarily for residential purposes.

Effective for the 1981 assessment and in subsequent years, the assessor shall determine and list separately on his records the market value of the homestead dwelling and the one acre of land on which that dwelling is located. If any farm buildings or structures are located on this homesteaded acre of land, their market value shall not be included in this separate determination.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.13, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [CLASS 3C, 3CC.] All other real estate and class 2a property, except as provided by classes 1 and 3cc, which is used for the purposes of a homestead, shall constitute class 3c, and shall be valued and assessed for taxes payable in 1981 and thereafter as follows: the first $25,000 of market value shall be valued and assessed at 16 percent; the next $25,000 of market value shall be valued and assessed at 22 percent; and the remaining market value shall be valued and assessed at 28 percent. Effective for taxes payable in 1982 and thereafter, the maximum amounts of the market value of the homestead brackets subject to the 16 percent and 22 percent rates shall be adjusted by the commissioner of revenue as provided in section 12. The property tax to be paid on class 3c property as otherwise determined by law, less any reduction received pursuant to section 273.135 shall be reduced by 58 percent of the tax for taxes payable in 1981 and thereafter; provided that the amount of said reduction shall not exceed $650. The first $12,000 market value of each tract of such real estate used for the purposes of a homestead shall be exempt from taxation for state purposes; except as specifically provided otherwise by law. Class 3cc property shall include real estate or mobile homes used for the purposes of a homestead by (a) any blind person, if such blind person is the owner thereof or if such blind person and his or her spouse are the sole owners thereof; or (b) any person (hereinafter referred to as veteran) who: (1) served in the active military or naval service of the United States and (2) is entitled to compensation under the laws and regulations of the United States for permanent and total service-connected disability due to the loss, or loss of use, by reason of amputation, ankylosis, progressive muscular dystrophies, or paralysis, of both lower extremities, such as to preclude motion without the aid of braces, crutches, canes, or a wheelchair, and (3) with assistance by the administration of veterans affairs has acquired a special housing unit with special fixtures or movable facilities made necessary by the nature of the veteran's disability, or the surviving spouse of such a deceased veteran for as long as the surviving spouse retains the special housing unit as his or her homestead; or (c) any person who: (1) is permanently and totally disabled and (2) is receiving (i) aid from any state as a result of that disability, or (ii) supplemental security income for the disabled, or (iii) workers' compensation based on a finding of total and permanent disability, or (iv) social security disability, or (v) aid under the Federal Railroad Retirement Act of 1937, 45 United States Code Annotated, Section 228b(a)5, or (vi) a pension from any local government retirement fund located in the state of Minnesota as a result of that disability; which aid is at least 90 percent of the total income of such disabled person from all sources. The property tax to be paid on class 3cc property as otherwise determined by law, less any reduction received pursuant to section 273.135 shall be reduced by 58 percent of the tax for taxes payable in 1981 and thereafter; provided that the amount of said reduction shall not exceed $650.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.13, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7d. [LEASED HOMESTEAD PROPERTY.] Class 3g consists of all buildings and appurtenances located upon land owned by the occupant and used for the purposes of a homestead together with the land upon which they are located shall be valued and assessed as if they were homestead property within the scope of class 3c or 3cc, whichever is applicable, if all of the following criteria are met:

(a) the occupant is using such property as his permanent residence; and

(b) the occupant is paying the ad valorem property taxes and any special assessments levied against such property; and

(c) the occupant has signed a lease which has an option to purchase the buildings and appurtenances; and

(d) the term of the lease is at least five years.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.13, Subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [CLASS 4A AND 4B AND 4C.] All property not included in the preceding classes shall constitute class 4a and shall be valued and assessed at 43 percent of the market value thereof; except that real property which is not improved with a structure and which is not utilized as part of a commercial or industrial activity shall constitute class 4b and shall be valued and assessed at 40 percent of market value; and except that commercial and industrial property shall constitute class 4c and shall be valued and assessed at 40 percent of the first $50,000 of market value and 43 percent on the remainder, provided that in the case of state-assessed commercial or industrial property owned by one person or entity, only one parcel shall qualify for the 40 percent assessment. In the case of commercial or industrial property, other than state-assessed properties, owned by one person or entity, only one parcel in each county shall qualify for the 40 percent assessment.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.13, Subdivision 19, is amended to read:

Subd. 19. [CLASS 3D, 3DD.] Residential real estate containing four or more units, other than seasonal residential, recreational and homesteads shall be classified as class 3d property and shall have a taxable value equal to 38 36 percent of market value for taxes levied in 1981 and 34 percent of market value for taxes levied in 1982 and thereafter. Residential real estate containing three or less units, other than seasonal residential, recreational and homesteads, shall be classified as class 3dd property and shall have a taxable value equal to 28 percent of market value.

Residential real estate as used in this subdivision means real property used or held for use by the owner thereof, or by his tenants or lessees as a residence for rental periods of 30 days or more, but shall not include homesteads, or real estate devoted to temporary or seasonal residential occupancy for recreational purposes. Where a portion of a parcel of property qualified for class 3d or 3dd and a portion does not qualify for class 3d or 3dd the valuation shall be apportioned according to the respective uses.

Residential real estate containing less than three units when entitled to homestead classification for one or more units shall be classed as 3b, 3c or 3cc according to the provisions of subdivisions 6 and 7.

Sec. 12. [273.1311] [FLEXIBLE HOMESTEAD BRACKETS.]

Effective for taxes payable in 1982 and subsequent years, the maximum amount of the market value of the homestead brackets shall be adjusted as provided in this section. The equalization aid review committee shall divide the statewide average purchase price of a residential home as indicated by bona fide real estate sales during the previous assessment year by the statewide average purchase price of a residential home during the year immediately preceding the previous assessment year. The resulting quotient shall be multiplied by the maximum amounts of the homestead brackets as provided in section 273.13, subdivisions 6 and 7 for the preceding assessment year, to obtain the revised homestead brackets for the current assessment year. The revised homestead brackets shall be rounded to the nearest $100. On or before December 1, 1981 and each subsequent year the commissioner of revenue shall announce the revised homestead brackets as adjusted by this section.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.19, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Except as provided in subdivision 3 or 4, property held under a lease for a term of three or more years, and not taxable under section 272.01, subdivision 2, clause (b)(1), or under a contract for the purchase thereof, when the property belongs to the United States, to the state, or to any religious, scientific, or benevolent society or institution, incorporated or unincorporated, or to any railroad company or other corporation whose property is not taxed in the same manner as other property, or when the property is school or other state lands, shall be considered, for all purposes of taxation, as the property of the person so holding the same.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.19, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. Property held under a lease for a term of three or more years which is owned by the United States and located within a national park shall be exempt, provided the property was acquired by the United States by condemnation or purchased by the United States under threat of condemnation, and within a reasonable time leased back for noncommercial residential purposes to the person owning the property at the time of acquisition by the United States. If property exempt under this subdivision is subsequently leased or subleased for a term of three or more years to another person, it shall no longer qualify for the exemption provided in this subdivision and shall be placed on the assessment rolls as provided in section 272.02, subdivision 4, and taxed pursuant to subdivision 1 of this section.

The value of improvements made to property otherwise exempt pursuant to this subdivision which are owned by the lessee or to which the lessee has salvage rights shall be taxable to the lessee pursuant to subdivision 1.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.42, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Owners of land defined as class 3, 3b, 3c, 3cc, 3d or 3f pursuant to section 273.13 listed on records of the county auditor or county treasurer over which runs a high voltage transmission line as defined in section 116C.52, subdivision 3, except a high voltage transmission line the construction of which was commenced prior to July 1, 1974, shall receive a property tax credit in an amount determined by multiplying a fraction, the numerator of which is the length of high voltage transmission line which runs over that parcel and the denominator of which is the total length of that particular line running over all property within the city, township or unorganized township by ten percent of the transmission line tax revenue derived from the tax on that portion of the line within the city, township or unorganized township pursuant to section 273.36. Where a right-of-way width is shared by more than one property owner, the numerator shall be adjusted by multiplying the length of line on the parcel by the proportion of the total width on the parcel owned by that property owner. The amount of credit for which the property qualifies shall not exceed 20 percent of the total gross tax on the parcel prior to deduction of the state paid agricultural credit and the state paid homestead credit, provided that, if the property containing the right of way is included in a parcel which exceeds 40 acres, the total gross tax on the parcel shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the sum of the number of acres in each quarter-quarter section or portion thereof which contains a right of way and the denominator of which is the total number of acres in the parcel set forth on the tax statement, and the maximum credit shall be 20 percent of the product of that computation, prior to deduction of those credits. The auditor of the county in which the affected parcel is located shall calculate the amount of the credit due for each parcel and transmit that information to the county treasurer. The county auditor, in computing the credits received pursuant to sections 273.13 and 273.135, shall reduce the gross tax by the amount of the credit received pursuant to this section, unless the amount of the credit would be less than $10.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 279.37, Subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. The county auditor shall give notice by mail not later than November 30 of each year to the person or persons making such confession of judgment at the address given therein of the payment due under the confession on the following December 31. If the county auditor has not received the installment payment by December 31, he shall give notice by certified mail at the last known address of the person making the confession of judgment, without regard to the county or state of his residency. This notice shall state that the property shall be subject to the tax forfeiture laws if payment is not made within 60 days from the preceding December 31. Failure to send or receive the notice shall not operate to postpone any payment or excuse any default under the confession of judgment. Proof of such mailing shall be made by the certificate of the auditor filed in his office.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 281.23, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [SERVICE BY SHERIFF OR CERTIFIED MAIL.] Forthwith after the commencement of such publication the county auditor shall deliver to the sheriff of the county a sufficient number of copies of such published notice for service upon the persons in possession of all parcels of such land as are actually occupied, together with a copy of the posted notice or notices referred to in such published notice. Within 30 days after receipt thereof, the sheriff shall make such investigation as may be necessary to ascertain whether the parcels covered by such notice are actually occupied or not, and shall serve a copy of such published notice upon the person in possession of each parcel found to be so occupied, in the manner prescribed for serving summons in a civil action. The sheriff shall make prompt return to the auditor as to all notices so served and as to all parcels found vacant and unoccupied. Such return shall be made upon a copy of such published notice and of the posted notice or notices covered thereby and shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated. Unless compensation for such services is otherwise provided by law, the sheriff shall receive from the county, in addition to his other compensation prescribed by law, such fees and mileage for service on persons in possession as are prescribed by law for such service in other cases, and shall also receive such compensation for making investigation and return as to vacant and unoccupied lands as the county board may fix, subject to appeal to the district court as in case of other claims against the county.

Forthwith after the commencement of such publication, the county auditor shall also give notice by certified mail to the taxpayer as shown on the last statement without regard to the county or state of residency, and give notice by certified mail at the last known address of the person in whose name the property is assessed on the latest tax statement without regard to the county or state of residency. Failure to receive the notice shall not operate to postpone any payment or excuse any default under this section. Proof of such mailing shall be made by the certificate of the auditor filed in his office.

Sec. 18. [TRANSITIONAL PROVISION.]

Any parcel of property forfeited subsequent to January 1, 1978 and prior to December 31, 1978, the landowner of which would have received the notice provided in section 16 if section 16 had been in effect at the time the installment payment on his property became overdue, and which has not been sold pursuant to chapter 282, may be repurchased pursuant to section 282.241 without the approval of the board of county commissioners. This provision shall apply only if

(a) the landowner or if the landowner is a corporation, the corporation or the shareholders of the corporation individually, have been the owner or owners of the property for a period of at least 15 years prior to the date of forfeiture, and during the period of ownership current taxes were timely paid for at least seven successive years; and

(b) the investment of the landowner or if the landowner is a corporation, of the corporation or the shareholders of the corporation individually, in taxes, special assessments, penalties, interest and costs paid prior to the forfeiture exceeds $8,000; and

(c) prior to June 15, 1981, the landowner tenders to the county treasurer of the county in which the land is located, notwithstanding the provisions of section 282.261, full payment of the total cost of repurchase of the land as computed pursuant to sections 282.241 and 282.251.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290A.04, Subdivision 2c, is amended to read:

Subd. 2c. If the net property taxes payable on a homestead in 1981 increase more than ten percent over the net property taxes payable in 1980 on the same property, a claimant who is a homeowner shall be allowed an additional refund equal to 50 percent of the amount by which the increase exceeds ten percent. This subdivision shall not apply to any increase in the net property taxes payable attributable to improvements made to the homestead. The refund shall not exceed ~~$300~~ $500.

For purposes of this subdivision, "net property taxes payable" means property taxes payable after reductions made pursuant to sections 273.13, subdivisions 6, 7 and 14a; and 273.115, subdivision 1; and Laws 1980, Chapter 432, Section 7; and after the deduction of tax refund amounts for which the claimant qualifies pursuant to subdivisions 2, 2a and 2b.

In addition to proofs required pursuant to this chapter, each claimant under this subdivision shall file with the property tax refund return a copy of the property tax statement for taxes payable in the preceding year or other documents required by the commissioner.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290A.04, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2d. If the net property taxes payable on a homestead increase more than 20 percent over the net property taxes payable in the previous year on the same property, a claimant who is a homeowner shall be allowed an additional refund equal to 75 percent of the amount by which the increase exceeds 20 percent. This subdivision shall not apply to any increase in the net property taxes payable attributable to improvements made to the homestead. The refund shall not exceed $200.

For purposes of this subdivision, "net property taxes payable" means property taxes, whether or not the taxes are eligible for reimbursement pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 15b, payable after reductions made pursuant to sections 273.13, subdivisions 6, 7 and 14a; 273.115, subdivision 1; 273.116, subdivision 1; 124.213; 273.135; and 273.1391; and after the deduction of tax refund amounts for which the claimant qualifies pursuant to subdivisions 2, 2a and 2b but with no deduction of the amount received pursuant to this subdivision for the preceding year.

In addition to proofs required pursuant to this chapter, each claimant under this subdivision shall file with the property tax refund return a copy of the property tax statement for taxes payable in the preceding year or other documents required by the commissioner.

On or before December 1, 1981, the commissioner shall redetermine the estimated total amount of the refunds paid or payable pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290A.04, Subdivision 2c. If the amount so redetermined is less than $13,800,000, the commissioner shall add the difference to the appropriation provided in section 24 to make the payments.

On or before December 1, 1981, the commissioner shall estimate the cost of making the payments provided by this section. If the estimated total refund claims exceed the total funds available to pay the refunds, the commissioner shall reduce the allowable refunds on a proportional basis.

Sec. 21. [AGRICULTURAL LAND VALUATION REPORT.]

By November 1, 1981, each county assessor shall report to the department of revenue on the 1981 estimated market values of each grade of tillable agricultural land and the average rental values of each grade of tillable agricultural land that would be used in a property tax assessment system based on an income capitalization approach for each township in the county.

By January 15, 1982, the department shall report to the legislature its findings and recommendations, derived from that information, regarding valuations to be used in a property tax assessment system based on an income capitalization approach.

Sec. 22. [CITY OF AUSTIN; PROPERTY TAX EXEMPTION.]

The holding of property by the city of Austin for later resale for economic development purposes shall be considered a public purpose in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, Section 272.02, Subdivision 1, Clause (7) for a period not to exceed six years. This subdivision shall not operate to create an exemption from sections 272.01, subdivision 2; 272.68; 273.19; or 462.575, subdivision 3; or other provision of law providing for the taxation of or for payments in lieu of taxes for publicly held property which is leased, loaned, or otherwise made available and used by a private person.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 360.035, is amended to read:

360.035 [EXEMPTION FROM TAXATION.]

Any properties, real or personal, acquired, owned, leased, controlled, used, or occupied by a municipality for any of the purposes of sections 360.011 to 360.076, are declared to be acquired, owned, leased, controlled, used, or occupied for public, governmental, and municipal purposes, and shall be exempt from taxation by the state or any of its political subdivisions. Nothing contained in sections 360.011 to 360.076 shall be construed as exempting properties, real or personal, leased from the municipality to a tenant or lessee who is a private person, association, or corporation from assessments or taxes. ~~If any such Leased municipal airport property is taxable to the lessee, the municipality that is not located at the airport operated by the metropolitan airports commission shall not be subject to payment of any portion of rentals under section 272.68, subdivision 3.~~

Sec. 24. [APPROPRIATION.]

There is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of revenue $14,000,000 to be used during either fiscal year 1982 or 1983 to make the refunds provided in section 20. This appropriation shall expire June 30, 1983.

Sec. 25. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1, 2, 5 to 15, 20, and 22 are effective for taxes levied in 1981 and thereafter, payable in 1982 and thereafter. Sections 3 and 4 are effective for taxes levied in 1983 and thereafter, payable in 1984 and thereafter. Section 18 is effective the day following final enactment. Section 19 is effective for taxes levied in 1980, payable in 1981. If a claimant filed a property tax refund for property taxes payable in 1981 and, if as a result of section 19 the amount of the eligible refund has changed, the claimant may file an amended return pursuant to section 290.391 to obtain any additional refund due. Taxpayers who meet the requirements in section 9 and who notify the assessor prior to September 1, 1981, shall receive homestead classification on the qualifying property for the 1981 assessment to the same extent as other 3c and 3cc property.

ARTICLE III

PAYMENT RESCHEDULING AND LIMITATIONS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 270.75, is amended to read:

270.75 [INTEREST PAYABLE TO COMMISSIONER.]

Subdivision 1. If any tax payable to the commissioner of revenue or to the department of revenue is not paid within the time specified by law for payment, the unpaid tax shall bear interest at the rate of ~~eight~~ 12 percent per annum from the date such tax should have been paid until the date that the tax was paid, unless otherwise provided by law. ~~Unpaid taxes collected under section 290.92 or under chapter 297A shall bear interest at the rate of ten percent per annum from the date such tax should have been paid until the date that the tax was paid.~~

Subd. 2. When an extension of time has been granted by the commissioner, interest shall be paid at the rate of ~~eight~~ 12 percent per annum from the date such payment should have been made, if no extension had been granted, until the date of payment of such tax. ~~Unpaid taxes collected under section 290.92 or under chapter 297A shall bear interest at the rate of ten percent per annum from the date such payment should have been made, if no extension had been granted, until the date of payment of such tax.~~

Subd. 3. If any penalty payable to the commissioner of revenue shall by law bear interest, such penalty shall bear interest at the rate of ~~eight~~ 12 percent per annum from the date the penalty was assessable until the date that such penalty was paid, unless a different rate of interest is otherwise provided by law. ~~Any penalty collected under section 290.92 or under chapter 297A shall bear interest at the rate of ten percent per annum from the date the penalty was assessable until the date that such penalty was paid.~~

Subd. 4. There shall be added to the amount of any underpayment of estimated income tax, computed pursuant to chapter 290, an amount in lieu of interest determined at the rate of ~~eight~~ 12 percent per annum.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.136, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. The commissioner of finance shall pay out of the taconite property tax relief account to each county treasurer one-half of the amount certified under subdivision 2 not later than ~~June 15~~ July 15 and the remaining half not later than November 15 of each year commencing in ~~1974~~ 1982.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290A.03, Subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [CLAIMANT.] "Claimant" means a person, other than a dependent, who filed a claim authorized by sections 290A.01 to 290A.21 and who was domiciled in this state during the calendar year for which the claim for relief was filed. In the case of a claim relating to rent constituting property taxes, the claimant shall have resided in a rented or leased unit on which ad valorem taxes or payments made in lieu of ad valorem taxes, including payments of special assessments imposed in lieu of ad valorem taxes, are payable at some time during the calendar year covered by the claim, except that a claimant who is disabled or who has attained the age of 65 on the date specified in section 290A.04, subdivision 1, may file a claim based on residence in a unit nursing home on which ad valorem taxes were not payable. "Claimant" shall not include a resident of a nursing home, intermediate care facility, or long term residential facility whose rent constituting property taxes is paid pursuant to the supplemental security income program under Title XVI of the social security act, the Minnesota supplemental aid program under sections 256D.35 to 256D.41, the medical assistance program pursuant to Title XIX of the social security act, or the general assistance medical care program pursuant to section 256D.03, Subdivision 3. If only a portion of the rent constituting property taxes is paid by these programs, the resident shall be a claimant for purposes of this chapter, but the refund calculated pursuant to section 290A.04 shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is income as defined in subdivision 3 reduced by the total amount of income from the above sources and the denominator of which is income as defined in subdivision 3, to determine the allowable refund pursuant to this chapter. In the case of a part year resident, the income and rental reflected in this computation shall be for the period of Minnesota residency only. Any rental expenses paid which may be reflected in arriving at federal adjusted gross income cannot be utilized for this computation. When two individuals of a household are able to meet the qualifications for a claimant, they may determine among them as to who the claimant shall be. If they are unable to agree, the matter shall be referred to the commissioner of revenue and his decision shall be final.

If a homestead is occupied by two or more renters, who are not husband and wife, the rent shall be deemed to be paid equally by each, and separate claims shall be filed by each. The income of each shall be his household income for purposes of computing the amount of credit to be allowed:

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290A.07, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. A claimant who is a renter or who had attained the age of 65 or had been disabled prior to June 1 of the year following the year for which the taxes were levied or in which the rent was paid shall receive full payment no later than 60 days after receipt of the application or may elect to take as a credit against his income tax the full amount.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290A.07, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. A claimant not included in subdivision 2 who is a renter shall receive full payment prior to August 15 or 60 days after receipt of the application, whichever is later.

Every telegraph company subject to taxation pursuant to section 295.32 and every telephone company subject to taxation pursuant to section 295.34, shall make a declaration of estimated gross earnings tax for the calendar year. The declaration of estimated tax shall be filed on or before March 15. The amount of estimated tax with respect to which a declaration is required shall be paid in four equal installments on or before the 15th day of March, June, September, and December. An amendment of a declaration may be filed in any interval between installment dates prescribed above but only one amendment may be filed in each such interval.

If any amendment of a declaration is filed, the amount of each remaining installment shall be the amount which would have been payable if the new estimate had been made when the first estimate for the calendar year was made, increased or decreased, as the case may be, by the amount computed by dividing

(1) the difference between (A) the amount of estimated tax required to be paid before the date on which the amendment was made, and (B) the amount of estimated tax which would have been required to be paid before such date if the new estimate had been made when the first estimate was made, by

(2) the number of installments remaining to be paid on or after the date on which the amendment is made.

The commissioner of revenue may grant a reasonable extension of time for filing any declaration but such extension shall not be for more than six months.

Sec. 8. [295.366] [FAILURE BY TELEGRAPH OR TELEPHONE COMPANY TO PAY ESTIMATED GROSS EARNINGS TAX.]

Subdivision 1. [ADDITION TO THE TAX.] In case of any underpayment of estimated tax by a telegraph or telephone company, except as provided in subdivision 4, there shall be added to the tax for the taxable year an amount determined at the rate specified in section 270.75 upon the amount of the underpayment (determined under subdivision 2) for the period of the underpayment (determined under subdivision 3).

Subd. 2. [AMOUNT OF UNDERPAYMENT.] For purposes of subdivision 1, the amount of the underpayment shall be the excess of

(1) the amount of the installment, over

(2) the amount, if any, of the installment paid on or before the last date prescribed for payment.

Subd. 3. [PERIOD OF UNDERPAYMENT.] The period of the underpayment shall run from the date the installment was required to be paid to whichever of the following dates is the earlier

(1) The 15th day of the third month following the close of the taxable year.

(2) With respect to any portion of the underpayment, the date on which such portion is paid. For purposes of this paragraph, a payment of estimated tax on any installment date shall be considered a payment of any previous underpayment only to the extent such payment exceeds the amount of the installment determined under subdivision 2(1) for such installment date.

Subd. 4. [EXCEPTION.] Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding subdivisions, the addition to the tax with respect to any underpayment of any installment shall not be imposed if the total amount of all payments of estimated tax made on or before the last date prescribed for the payment of such installment equals or exceeds the amount which would have been required to be paid on or before such date if the estimated tax were whichever of the following is the lesser

(1) The tax shown on the return of the corporation for the preceding taxable year.

(2) Eighty per cent of the actual liability for the calendar year.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 477A.13, is amended to read:

If the payable 1982 total levy of such taxing district is more than 108 percent of its payable 1981 total levy, then that total mill rate shall be based on 108 percent of the taxing district's payable 1981 total levy. The commissioner of revenue shall determine and certify to all county auditors the product of each taxing district's payable 1981 total levy multiplied by 108 percent. In the event that the sum of the county auditors' certifications exceeds the amounts appropriated, the commissioner of revenue shall proportionally reduce the certification amounts so that their sum equals the appropriation.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 275.50, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. "Governmental subdivision" means any county, ~~city, statutory city, or town having the powers of a statutory city pursuant to sections 368.01 or 368.61, or by special law home rule charter city, statutory city, town or special taxing district determined by the department of revenue.~~ The term does not include school districts, ~~towns without statutory city powers, or special taxing districts determined by the department of revenue or the metropolitan transit commission created pursuant to section 473.404.~~

(a) satisfy judgments rendered against the governmental subdivision by a court of competent jurisdiction in any tort action, or to pay the costs of settlements out of court against the governmental subdivision in a tort action when substantiated by a stipulation for the dismissal of the action filed with the court of competent jurisdiction and signed by both the plaintiff and the legal representative of the governmental subdivision, but only to the extent of the increase in levy for such judgments and out of court settlements over levy year 1970, taxes payable in 1971;

(b) pay the costs of complying with any written lawful order initially issued prior to January 1, 1977 by the state of Minnesota, or the United States, or any agency or subdivision thereof, which is authorized by law, statute, special act or ordinance and is enforceable in a court of competent jurisdiction, or any stipulation agreement or permit for treatment works or disposal system for pollution abatement in lieu of a lawful order signed by the governmental subdivision and the state of Minnesota, or the United States, or any agency or subdivision thereof which is enforceable in a court of competent jurisdiction. The commissioner of revenue shall in consultation with other state departments and agencies, develop a suggested form for use by the state of Minnesota, its agencies and subdivisions in issuing orders pursuant to this subdivision;

(c) pay the costs to a governmental subdivision for their minimum required share of any program otherwise authorized by law, ~~including the administrative costs of social services but not administrative costs of public assistance programs or of county welfare systems,~~ for which matching funds have been appropriated by the state of Minnesota or the United States, but only to the extent that the costs to the governmental subdivision for the program exceed those expended in calendar year 1970, subject to rules promulgated by the commissioner of revenue pursuant to the administrative procedures act. Amounts levied pursuant to this clause which are in excess of the amount necessary to meet the minimum required share of a program shall be deducted from the general levy made in the following year excluding the administrative costs of public assistance programs, to the extent of the increase in levy for the taxes payable year 1982 over the amount levied for the local share of the program for the taxes payable year 1971. This clause shall apply only to those programs or projects for which matching funds have been designated by the state of Minnesota or the United States on or before September 1, 1981 and only when the receipt of these matching funds is contingent upon the initiation or implementation of the project or program during 1982 or those programs or projects approved by the commissioner;

(d) pay the costs not reimbursed by the state or federal government, of payments made to or on behalf of recipients of aid under any public assistance program authorized by law, and the costs of purchase or delivery of social services. Except for the costs of general assistance medical care under section 256D.03 and the costs of hospital care pursuant to section 261.21, the aggregate amounts levied pursuant to this clause are subject to a maximum increase of 18 percent over the amount levied for these purposes for the taxes payable year 1981;

(e) pay the costs of principal and interest on bonded indebtedness, or, effective for taxes levied in 1973 and years thereafter, to reimburse for the amount of liquor store revenues used to pay the principal and interest due in the year preceding the year for which the levy limit is calculated on municipal liquor store bonds;

(i) pay the amounts required to compensate for a decrease in revenues from public service enterprises, municipal liquor stores, licenses, permits, fines and forfeits and no other, to the extent that the aggregate of revenues from these sources in the calendar year preceding the year of levy are less than the inflation adjusted aggregate of revenues from these sources in calendar year 1971. "Revenues" from a public service enterprise or a municipal liquor store shall mean the net income or loss of such public service enterprise or municipal liquor store, determined by subtracting total expenses from total revenues, and before any contribution to or from the governmental subdivision. "Fines" for a municipal court means the net amount remaining after subtracting total municipal court expenses from total collections of municipal court fines. The

“inflation adjusted aggregate of revenues in calendar year 1971” shall be the sum of (a) the aggregate of revenues received in calendar year 1971 multiplied by the total percentage increase in the consumer price index for the Minneapolis-St. Paul area from the calendar year 1971 to June of the levy year plus (b) the aggregate of revenues received in calendar year 1971. The commissioner of revenue shall calculate and notify the governmental subdivisions of the inflation adjustment by September of the levy year. A governmental subdivision shall qualify for this special levy only if the decrease in aggregate revenues as computed herein and divided by the population of the governmental subdivision in the preceding levy year is equal to or greater than two percent of the per capita levy limitation for the preceding levy year;

(+) (i) pay the amounts required to compensate for a decrease in mobile homes property tax receipts to the extent that the governmental subdivision's portion of the total levy in the current levy year, pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 3, as amended, is less than the distribution of the mobile homes tax to the governmental subdivision pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 3, in calendar year 1971;

(*) (j) pay the amounts required, in accordance with section 275.075, to correct for a county auditor's error of omission in levy year 1971 or a subsequent levy year, but only to the extent that when added to the preceding year's levy it is not in excess of an applicable statutory, special law or charter limitation, or the limitation imposed on the governmental subdivision by sections 275.50 to 275.56 in the preceding levy year;

(+) (k) pay amounts required to correct for an error of omission in the levy certified to the appropriate county auditor or auditors by the governing body of a city or town with statutory city powers in a levy year, but only to the extent that when added to the preceding year's levy it is not in excess of an applicable statutory, special law or charter limitation, or the limitation imposed on the governmental subdivision by sections 275.50 to 275.56 in the preceding levy year;

(m) (l) pay the increased cost of municipal services as the result of an annexation or consolidation ordered by the Minnesota municipal board in levy year 1971 or a subsequent levy year, but only to the extent and for the levy years as provided by the board in its order pursuant to section 414.01, subdivision 15. Special levies authorized by the board shall not exceed 50 percent of the levy limit base of the governmental subdivision and may not be in effect for more than three years after the board's order;

(n) (m) pay the increased costs of municipal services provided to new private industrial and nonresidential commercial development, to the extent that the extension of such services are not paid for through bonded indebtedness or special assessments, and not to exceed the amount determined as follows. The governmental subdivision may calculate the aggregate of:

(1) The increased expenditures necessary in preparation for the delivering of municipal services to new private industrial and nonresidential commercial development, but limited to one year's expenditures one time for each such development;

(2) The amount determined by dividing the overall levy limitation established pursuant to sections 275.50 to 275.56, and exclusive of special levies and special assessments, by the total taxable value of the governmental subdivision, and then multiplying this quotient times the total increase in assessed value of private industrial and nonresidential commercial development within the governmental subdivision. For the purpose of this clause, the increase in the assessed value of private industrial and nonresidential commercial development is calculated as the increase in assessed value over the assessed value of the real estate parcels subject to such private development as most recently determined before the building permit was issued. In the fourth levy year subsequent to the levy year in which the building permit was issued, the increase in assessed value of the real estate parcels subject to such private development shall no longer be included in determining the special levy.

The aggregate of the foregoing amounts, less any costs of extending municipal services to new private industrial and nonresidential commercial development which are paid by bonded indebtedness or special assessments, equals the maximum amount that may be levied as a "special levy" for the increased costs of municipal services provided to new private industrial and nonresidential commercial development. In the levy year following the levy year in which the special levy made pursuant to this clause is discontinued, one-half of the amount of that special levy made in the preceding year shall be added to the permanent levy base of the governmental subdivision;

(n) recover a loss or refunds in tax receipts incurred in non-special levy funds resulting from abatements or court action in the previous year pursuant to section 275.48;

(o) pay amounts required by law to be paid to reduce unfunded accrued liability of public pension funds, including interest thereon, in accordance with the actuarial standards and guidelines specified in sections 69.71 to 69.776 and 356.215 reduced for levy year 1977 and subsequent years by 106 percent of the amount levied for that purpose in 1976, payable in 1977. For the purpose of this special levy, the estimated receipts expected from the state of Minnesota pursuant to sections 69.011 to 69.031 or any other state aid expressly intended for the support of public pension funds shall be considered as a deduction in determining the required levy for the normal costs of the public pension funds. No amount of these aids shall be considered as a deduction in determining the governmental subdivision's required levy for the reduction of the unfunded accrued liability of public pension funds;

(p) the amounts allowed under section 174.27 to establish and administer a commuter van program;

(q) pay the costs of financial assistance to local governmental units and certain administrative, engineering, and legal expenses pursuant to Laws 1979, Chapter 253, Section 3;

(r) compensate for revenue lost as a result of abatements or court action pursuant to sections 270.07, 270.17 or 278.01 due to a reassessment ordered by the commissioner of revenue pursuant to section 270.16.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 275.51, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Notwithstanding any provisions of law or municipal charter to the contrary which authorize ad valorem levies in excess of the limitations established by sections 275.50 to 275.56, but subject to section 275.56, the provisions of this section shall apply to the levies by governmental subdivisions ~~in for the years 1975, 1976 and subsequent years~~ taxes payable year 1982 for all purposes other than those for which special levies and special assessments are made. Any law or special act enacted in 1981 which authorizes a property tax levy in excess of the limitation imposed by this section is exempt from the provisions of this section.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 275.51, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3e. The property tax levy limitation for any governmental subdivision for the taxes payable year 1982 shall be calculated as follows:

(a) If the governmental subdivision was subject to the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 275.50 to 275.56, the amounts levied by the governmental subdivision for the taxes payable year 1981 pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 275.50, Subdivision 5, Clause (i) and subdivision 6 are added to the amount actually levied by the governmental subdivision for the taxes payable year 1981 pursuant to the levy limitation calculated under Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 275.51.

(b) If the governmental subdivision was not subject to the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 275.50 to 275.56, the total amount actually levied by the governmental subdivision for the taxes payable year 1981 is reduced by the amounts levied for those purposes described in Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 275.50, Subdivision 5, Clauses (e), (f), (g), and (h).

(c) The total property tax levy of a governmental subdivision for the taxes payable year 1981 described in clause (b) shall be the amount certified on the abstracts of tax lists submitted pursuant to section 275.29. For a governmental subdivision within the metropolitan area defined by section 473F.02, subdivision 2, the property tax levy for payable 1981 includes the tax on distribution value for the taxes payable year 1981 pursuant to section 473F.12.

(d) the amount determined in clause (a) or (b) is divided by the total number of homesteads within the governmental subdivision reported on the 1980 abstracts of tax lists and multiplied by the total number of homesteads within the governmental subdivision reported on the 1981 abstracts of tax lists, both of which are submitted pursuant to section 275.29. If the resulting figure is less than the amount determined in clause (a) or (b), the resulting figure is increased to the amount calculated in clause (a) or (b).

(e) The result of the calculation in clause (d) is multiplied by 108 percent. The resulting figure is the maximum amount that the governmental subdivision may levy for the taxes payable year 1982 for all purposes except special levies and special assessments.

(f) To the extent the levy of the metropolitan council for taxes payable in 1981 was less than its levy limitation for that year, it may apply to the commissioner to have its levy limitation increased by the amount by which the 1981 levy limitation exceeded the 1981 levy. The adjustment shall be added to the amount calculated in clause (a).

(g) If the sum of a governmental subdivision's levies for the principal and interest on bonded indebtedness or certificates of indebtedness pursuant to section 275.50, subdivision 5, clauses (e), (f), (g) and (h) for the taxes payable year 1982 is less than 108 percent of the total amount that it levied for those purposes for the taxes payable year 1981, the governmental subdivision may choose to levy for these purposes within its levy limitation in lieu of the special levy provisions of section 275.50, subdivision 5, clauses (e), (f), (g) and (h). If the governmental subdivision chooses to levy for these purposes within its levy limitation, it shall notify the commissioner of revenue of its intent by October 1, 1981. The amount levied by the governmental subdivision for the taxes payable year 1981 for the purposes described in section 275.50, subdivision 5, clauses (e), (f), (g) and (h) will then be added to the amount calculated in clause (a) or (b).

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 275.51, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. If in any year subsequent to 1973 the levy made by a governmental subdivision exceeds the limitation provided in sections 275.50 to 275.56, except when such excess levy is due to the rounding of the mill rates of the governmental subdivision in accordance with section 275.28, subsequent distributions required to be made by the commissioner of finance from any formula aids pursuant to section 477A.01, shall be reduced 33 cents for each full dollar the levy exceeds the limitation; provided that a governmental subdivision may determine to levy in excess of the limitation provided in sections 275.50 to 275.56 by not to exceed five percent by passing a resolution setting forth the amount by which the levy limit is proposed to be exceeded. Thereafter the resolution shall be published for two successive weeks in the official newspaper of the governmental subdivision or if there be no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation therein, together with a notice fixing a date for a public hearing on the proposed increase which hearing shall be held not less than two weeks nor more than four weeks after the first publication of the resolution. Following the public hearing, the governing body may determine to take no further action, or in the alternative, adopt a resolution authorizing the levy as originally proposed, or adopt a resolution approving a levy in such lesser amount as it so determines. The resolution authorizing a levy in excess of the limitation imposed by sections 275.50 to 275.56 shall be published in the official newspaper of the governmental subdivision or if there be no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation therein. If within 30 days thereafter, a petition signed by voters equal in number to five percent of the votes cast in the governmental subdivision in the last general election or 2,000 voters, whichever is less, requesting a referendum on the proposed resolution is filed with the clerk or recorder of the governmental subdivision if the governmental subdivision is a city or town, or with the county auditor if the governmental subdivision is a county, the resolution shall not be effective until it has been submitted to the voters at a general or special election and a majority of votes cast on the question of approving the resolution are in the affirmative. The commissioner of revenue is directed to prepare a suggested form of question to be presented at any such referendum. A levy approved at any such referendum held at a special or general election held prior to October 1 in any levy year increases the allowable levy in that same levy year and provides a permanent adjustment to the levy limit base per capita of the governmental subdivision for future levy years, and there shall be no reduction in distributions of formula aids to the governmental subdivision as a result of such levy. If no referendum is requested, the excess levy authorized by the resolution, if the resolution is adopted prior to October 1 in any year, may be levied in that same levy year and subsequent distributions required to be made by the commissioner of finance from any formula aids pursuant to section 477A.01, shall be reduced 15 cents for each full dollar the levy exceeds the limitation. The provisions of this subdivision shall apply to the levy of a metropolitan county before the reduction required pursuant to section 163.051, subdivision 5.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290A.03, Subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [PROPERTY TAXES PAYABLE.] "Property taxes payable" means the property tax exclusive of special assessments, penalties, and interest payable on a claimant's homestead before reductions made pursuant to section 273.13, subdivisions 6 and 7, but after deductions made pursuant to sections 273.132 and 273.135, in any calendar year. No apportionment or reduction of the "property taxes payable" shall be required for the use of a portion of the claimant's homestead for a business purpose if the claimant does not deduct any business depreciation expenses for the use of a portion of the homestead in the determination of federal adjusted gross income. For homesteads which are mobile homes as defined in section 168.011, subdivision 8, "property taxes payable" shall also include 23 percent of gross rent paid in the preceding year for the site on which the homestead is located, exclusive of charges for utilities or services. When a homestead is owned by two or more persons as joint tenants or tenants in common, such tenants shall determine between them which tenant may claim the property taxes payable on the homestead. If they are unable to agree, the matter shall be referred to the commissioner of revenue and his decision shall be final. Property taxes are considered payable in the year prescribed by law for payment of the taxes.

In the case of a claim relating to "property taxes payable", the claimant must have owned and occupied the homestead on January 2 of the year in which the tax is payable.

For property taxes levied in 1981, payable 1982, "property taxes payable" shall be limited to that portion of the property taxes eligible for the homestead credit as determined pursuant to section 2.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 375.167, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [APPROPRIATIONS.] Notwithstanding the provisions and limitations of section 275.09, and any other law to the contrary, the county board of any county may appropriate from the general revenue fund to any nonprofit corporation a sum not to exceed one-fourth of a mill on the dollar of the taxable valuation of the county for the purpose of providing legal assistance to persons who are unable to afford private legal counsel. This levy shall not be subject to the levy limits established by sections 275.50 to 275.59 or sections 3 to 7 and shall be disregarded in the calculation of levies subject to them.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 458.14, is amended to read:

458.14 [RIGHT TO LEVY TAXES OR ASSESSMENTS FORBIDDEN.]

The port authority shall have no right or authority to levy any tax or special assessment, nor to pledge the credit of the state, or any other subdivision or municipal corporation thereof; nor to incur any obligation enforceable upon any property, either within or without the port district, other than property owned by the port authority. Annually, at such time as may be fixed by charter, resolution, or ordinance of the city in and for which any such port authority is created, the port authority shall transmit to the council of such city a detailed estimate, in writing, of the amount of money which in its opinion will be required for the business and proper conduct of its affairs during the next ensuing fiscal year, in excess of any expected receipts from the conduct of its business, or other sources, and any such city, in addition to all other powers now possessed thereby, and in addition to, and in excess of any limitation upon the amount it is otherwise permitted by law to levy as taxes, is hereby granted the power and authority, in its discretion, to levy taxes for the benefit of, and for expenditure by, such port authority, not exceeding in any one year an amount equal to a tax of five one-hundredths of one mill upon the dollar of the assessed valuation thereof, upon all the taxable property in such city, excluding money and credits, and any amount so levied for such purposes shall be paid over by the city treasurer to the treasurer of the port authority, for expenditure by it, as above provided. The fiscal year of such port authority shall be identical with the fiscal year of such city. The board of county commissioners of any county in which any such city is located, is also hereby authorized to appropriate for the use of such port authority, and to include therefor in its levy for general revenue purposes, such amount as it may deem proper; provided, that the total amount permitted by law to be levied by any county for general revenue purposes shall not be deemed increased by this provision; the board of county commissioners in any county entitled to appoint members of a seaway port authority, may annually, upon receipt of a budget as specified above from such port authority, in its discretion levy a tax sufficient to produce a sum not exceeding $50,000 for the benefit of and for expenditure by such port authority to defray the costs of its current operations in the next ensuing fiscal year which levy shall not be included in computing the amount of levies subject to tax limitations under chapter 275 or any other provision of law. The appropriation to a port authority of moneys derived from any of the county taxes herein authorized shall not be subject to any budgetary law applicable to said county. Any amounts so appropriated or levied by the county shall be paid over by the county treasurer to the port authority for expenditure by it as herein provided, at such times and in such manner as the county board may provide. When any city entitled to appoint members of a seaway port authority has secured the approval of two-thirds of the members of the city council of such city to issue its general obligation bonds, the proceeds of which are to be appropriated to such seaway port authority, the board of county commissioners of any county entitled to appoint members of such seaway port authority may by five-sevenths vote issue general obligation bonds of the county in an amount not to exceed $4,000,000, and appropriate the proceeds thereof to be used by such port authority for any or all of the purposes specified in section 458.15, if the county board by resolution determines that the conservation, development, reclamation, protection and improvement of lands under the jurisdiction of such port authority and the construction of port facilities thereon will promote the public welfare of the county at large and the economic well-being of its people, industries and commerce, and is an essential governmental function of the county, and can best be performed through the medium of such port authority. Any such bonds shall be issued, sold and secured as provided in sections 475.60 to 475.753; an election shall not be necessary to the validity of such bonds.

Sec. 11. [GOODHUE COUNTY FAIR LEVY.]

Any limitation imposed upon the levy of Goodhue county by Minnesota Statutes, Sections 275.50 to 275.56, or sections 3 to 7 of this article, shall be increased for taxes levied in 1981 payable 1982 by an amount authorized by the county board not to exceed 1/12 of one mill to cover expenses of public fairs in the county as authorized by Minnesota Statutes, Section 38.28.

Sec. 12. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 275.51, Subdivision 3d; 275.52; 275.53; 275.551; 275.552; and 275.59 are repealed.

Sec. 13. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 9 and 12 are effective for property taxes levied in 1981 and subsequent years, payable in 1982 and subsequent years. Section 11 is effective the day after compliance by the Goodhue county board with Minnesota Statutes, Section 645.021, Subdivision 3.

ARTICLE VI

LOCAL GOVERNMENT AIDS

Section 1. [477A.011] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] For the purposes of sections 1 to 4 the following terms shall have these meanings, unless otherwise provided to the contrary.

Subd. 2. [MUNICIPALITY.] Municipality means a statutory or home rule charter city or a town.

Subd. 3. [POPULATION.] Population means the population established by the most recent federal census, by a special census conducted under contract with the United States bureau of the census, by a population estimate made by the metropolitan council, or by a population estimate of the state demographer made pursuant to section 4.12, subdivision 7, clause (10), whichever is the most recent as to the stated date of the count or estimate.

Subd. 4. [EQUALIZED MUNICIPAL MILL RATE.] For any calendar year, a municipality's equalized municipal mill rate means its municipal mill rate for taxes payable in that year multiplied by its aggregate sales ratio for the previous year as prepared by the department of revenue pursuant to section 124.212.

Subd. 5. [AVERAGE EQUALIZED MUNICIPAL MILL RATE.] For any calendar year aid distribution, a municipality's average equalized municipal mill rate means the arithmetic average of its equalized municipal mill rate for the three calendar years previous to the aid distribution year.

Subd. 6. [CONSUMER PRICE INDEX INCREASE.] For any calendar year aid distribution, the consumer price index increase means the percentage increase in the revised consumer price index for all urban consumers for the Minneapolis - St. Paul metropolitan area prepared by the United States department of labor for the 12 month period ending in June of the previous year.

Subd. 7. [LOCAL REVENUE BASE.] For the 1982 aid distribution, a municipality's local revenue base means its local revenue base for the 1981 aid distribution calculated pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 477A.01, less any amount added to the local revenue base for the costs of principal and interest on bonded debt incurred for the purpose of providing capital replacement for streets, curbs, gutters, storm sewers, and bridges, increased in the manner prescribed by clauses (a) and (b). For all subsequent calendar year aid distributions, a municipality's local revenue base means its local revenue base for the previous year aid distribution calculated pursuant to sections 1 to 4 increased by:

- (a) a percentage equal to the consumer price index increase; and
- (b) a percentage equal to the percentage increase in population over that used to compute the previous year aid distribution, if any.

The local revenue base for a statutory or home rule charter city or a town having the powers of a statutory city pursuant section 368.01 or special law which has a population of 2,500 or more according to the most recent federal census and which does not have a local revenue base for the previous year aid distribution shall be established by adding the prior year's local government aid received pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 477A.01 or sections 1 to 4, and the property tax levy, exclusive of levies for bonded indebtedness, in the preceding year and multiplying that sum by a percentage equal to the consumer price index increase.

Subd. 8. [PREVIOUS YEAR AID.] For the 1982 aid distribution, a municipality's previous year aid means its aid amount computed pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 477A.01 to 477A.03, notwithstanding the amount withheld pursuant to section 16A.15 because funds in the state treasury were insufficient. For 1983 and all subsequent calendar year aid distributions, previous year aid means aid received pursuant to sections 1 to 4 in the previous calendar year.

Subd. 9. [MINIMUM INCREASE.] For any calendar year aid distribution, a municipality's minimum increase shall mean:

- (a) $5 per capita if its average equalized municipal mill rate is greater than 20 mills;
- (b) $3 per capita if its average equalized municipal mill rate is greater than 10 mills but not greater than 20 mills;
- (c) $1 per capita if its average equalized municipal mill rate is not greater than 10 mills and if it is a statutory or a home rule charter city, or town which falls under the provisions of section 3, subdivision 2.

(d) $0 if its average equalized municipal mill rate is not greater than 10 mills and if it is a town which does not fall under the provisions of section 3, subdivision 2.

Subd. 10. [MAXIMUM INCREASE.] For any calendar year aid distribution, a municipality's maximum increase shall mean the following percentage of its previous year aid:

- (a) 12 percent if its previous year aid is greater than $100 per capita;
- (b) 15 percent if its previous year aid is greater than $75 per capita but not greater than $100 per capita;
- (c) 17 percent if its previous year aid is greater than $50 per capita but not greater than $75 per capita;
- (d) 20 percent if its previous year aid is not greater than $50 per capita.

Subd. 11. [EQUALIZED ASSESSED VALUE.] For any calendar year aid distribution, a municipality's equalized assessed value means its previous year taxable valuation, adjusted for the contributions and distributions required by chapter 473F in the case of a city or town located within the metropolitan area and less the captured value in any tax increment district, divided by the municipality's aggregate sales ratio covering the period ending two years prior to the year of aid distribution.

Sec. 2. [477A.012] [COUNTY GOVERNMENT DISTRIBUTIONS.]

In each calendar year, every county government except that of a county containing a city of the first class shall receive a distribution equal to its previous year aid.

Sec. 3. [477A.013] [MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT DISTRIBUTIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [MUNICIPALITIES UNDER 2,500 POPULATION.] In each calendar year, each municipality which is not covered by the provisions of subdivision 2 shall receive a distribution equal to its previous year aid plus its minimum increase.

Subd. 2. [MUNICIPALITIES OVER 2,500 POPULATION.] In each calendar year, each statutory and home rule charter city, and each town having the powers of a statutory city pursuant to section 368.01 or special law, which has a population of 2,500 or more according to the latest federal census shall receive a distribution equal to the amount obtained by subtracting the product of 10 mills and the municipality's equalized assessed value from the local revenue base. This amount shall then be adjusted, so that it is neither less than the sum of its previous year aid and its minimum increase, nor greater than the sum of its previous year aid and its maximum increase.

Sec. 4. [477A.014] [COMMISSIONER'S RESPONSIBILITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [CALCULATIONS AND PAYMENTS.] The commissioner of revenue shall make all necessary calculations and make payments pursuant to sections 2, 3 and 6 directly to the affected taxing authorities in six installments on July 15, August 15, September 15, October 15, November 15, and December 15 annually.

Subd. 2. [ERRORS.] A taxing authority may object to the commissioner of revenue with respect to the amount of the distribution it has been certified to receive pursuant to subdivision 1. No objection shall be raised later than 60 days after the taxing authority has received notice from the commissioner of the amount which it has been certified to receive.

Subd. 3. [AID AMOUNT CORRECTION.] If, due to an error in the factors used to calculate a taxing authority's aid pursuant to section 2 or 3 the amount indicated in the certification of the commissioner to the taxing authority for a year is less than the amount to which it is entitled pursuant to this section, the commissioner of revenue shall additionally distribute the amount necessary to make the full correct distribution to the taxing authority. The additional distribution shall be paid from the general fund and shall not diminish the distributions made to other taxing authorities under this section.

Sec. 5. [477A.015] [NEW TAXES PROHIBITED.]

No county, city, town or other taxing authority shall increase a present tax or impose a new tax on sales or income.

If the limitations contained in this subdivision result in a reduction in the amounts determined pursuant to sections 2 and 3, each governmental unit receiving local government aid shall have its distribution proportionally reduced, but no local government unit shall receive less aid than its previous year aid.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 477A.04, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

(c) $5 per capita if the coefficient of dispersion in assessments for the preceding year is greater than 15 percent.

LOCAL IMPROVEMENTS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 429.031, is amended to read:

429.031 [PRELIMINARY PLANS, HEARINGS.]

Subdivision 1. The two publications of the notice shall be a week apart and the hearing shall be at least three days after the last publication.

Subd. 1a. [NOTICE OF ANNUAL CHARGES.] If it is proposed to assess annual charges for the operation, maintenance, or promotion of an improvement against property within the area described in the notice of hearing, when operation, maintenance, or promotion is included in the definition of the improvement in section 429.021, subdivision 1, and if the notice is published after May 31, 1981, it shall include a statement of the proposal, an estimate of the amount of the charges for operation, maintenance and promotion for the first full year of operation, and a statement that the owner or owners of any parcel of land within the area may file a written protest against the proposal with the municipal clerk, at any time before the adoption of a resolution ordering the improvement. If protests are received, and not withdrawn before the adoption of the resolution, from the owners of 20 percent or more of the area of the parcels proposed to be assessed, the council may not assess the annual charges for operation, maintenance and promotion. Nothing in this subdivision shall affect the authority of the council to assess the capital cost of the improvement.

Subd. 1b. [MAILED NOTICE.] Not less than 10 days before the hearing, notice thereof shall also be mailed to the owner of each parcel within the area proposed to be assessed, but failure to give mailed notice or any defects in the notice shall not invalidate the proceedings. For the purpose of giving mailed notice, owners shall be those shown to be such on the records of the county auditor or, in any county where tax statements are mailed by the county treasurer, on the records of the county treasurer; but other appropriate records may be used for this purpose. However, as to properties which are tax exempt or subject to taxation on a gross earnings basis and are not listed on the records of the county auditor or the county treasurer, the owners thereof shall be ascertained by any practicable means and mailed notice shall be given them as herein provided.

Subd. 1c. [PRELIMINARY REPORT.] Prior to the adoption of such resolution hearing, the council shall secure from the city engineer, or some competent person of its selection a consulting engineer or architect experienced in the design of the type of improvement proposed, a preliminary report advising it in a preliminary way as to whether the proposed improvement is feasible and as to whether it should best be made as proposed or in connection with some other improvement and. The report shall state the estimated capital cost of the improvement as recommended; but, and the estimated cost of operation, maintenance, and promotion for the first full year of operation, if operation, maintenance or promotion cost is proposed and authorized by law to be assessed and the notice of hearing is published after May 31, 1981. No error or omission in such report shall invalidate the proceeding unless it materially prejudices the interests of an owner. The council may also take such other steps prior to the hearing, including, among other things, the preparation of plans and specifications and the advertisement for bids thereon, as will in its judgment provide helpful information in determining the desirability and feasibility of the improvement.

Subd. 1d. [ADJOURNMENT.] The hearing may be adjourned from time to time and by public announcement to those present at the original hearing or any adjourned hearing, of the time and place to which it is adjourned, or by publication of a notice in the official newspaper at least three days before the date of the adjourned hearing, stating the time and place.

Subd. 1e. [RESOLUTION.] A resolution ordering the improvement may be adopted at any time within six months after the date of the hearing. The resolution may be adopted by vote of a majority of all members of the council when the improvement has been petitioned for by the owners of not less than 35 percent in frontage of the real property abutting on the streets named in the petition as the location of the improvement. When there has been no such petition, the resolution may be adopted only by vote of four-fifths of all members of the council; provided that if entitled to vote on it, not including the mayor of the municipality is a or any other member of the council but who has no vote or votes only in case of a tie, he shall not be deemed to be a member for the purpose of determining such four-fifths majority vote. The resolution ordering the improvement may reduce, but may not increase the extent of the improvement as stated in the notice of hearing.

Subd. 2. [APPROVAL BY PARK BOARD OR UTILITIES COMMISSION.] A resolution ordering a park improvement may be adopted only by a four-fifths vote of the council and shall also be approved by the park board, if there is one; provided, that if the mayor of the municipality is a member of the council but has no vote or votes only in case of a tie, he shall not be deemed to be a member for the purpose of determining such four-fifths majority vote. A resolution ordering an improvement of the water, sewer, steam heating, street lighting or other facility over which a utilities commission has jurisdiction shall also be approved by the utilities commission.

Subd. 3. [PETITION BY ALL OWNERS.] Whenever all owners of real property abutting upon any street named as the location of any improvement shall petition the council to construct the improvement and to assess the entire cost against their property; the council may, without a public hearing, adopt a resolution determining such fact and ordering the improvement. The validity of the resolution shall not be questioned by any taxpayer or property owner or the municipality unless an action for that purpose is commenced within 30 days after adoption of the resolution as provided in section 429.036. Nothing herein prevents any property owner from questioning the amount or validity of the special assessment against his property pursuant to section 429.081.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 429.051, is amended to read:

429.051 [APPORTIONMENT OF COST.]

The capital cost of any improvement, or any part thereof, may be assessed upon property benefited by the improvement, based upon the benefits received, whether or not the property abuts on the improvement and whether or not any part of the cost of the improvement is paid from the county state-aid highway fund, the municipal state-aid street fund, or the trunk highway fund. The cost assessed shall be limited to the sum of the capital expenditures required to complete the improvement, as determined in accordance with accepted accounting principles and as described in section 475.65, unless the assessment of the cost of operation, maintenance, or promotion of the improvement has been authorized upon the conditions set forth in section 429.031, subdivision 1a. The area assessed may be less than but may not exceed the area proposed to be assessed as stated in the notice of hearing on the improvement, except as provided below. The municipality may pay such portion of the cost of the improvement as the council may determine from general ad valorem tax levies or from other revenues or funds of the municipality available for the purpose. The municipality may subsequently reimburse itself for all or any of the portion of the cost of a water, storm sewer, or sanitary sewer improvement so paid by levying additional assessments upon any properties abutting on but not previously assessed for the improvement, on notice and hearing as provided for the assessments initially made. To the extent that such an improvement benefits nonabutting properties which may be served by the improvement when one or more later extensions or improvements are made but which are not initially assessed therefor, the municipality may also reimburse itself by adding all or any of the portion of the cost so paid to the assessments levied for any of such later extensions or improvements, provided that notice that such additional amount will be assessed is included in the notice of hearing on the making of such extensions or improvements. The additional assessments herein authorized may be made whether or not the properties assessed were included in the area described in the notice of hearing on the making of the original improvement.

In any city of the fourth class electing to proceed under a home rule charter as provided in this chapter, which charter provides for a board of water commissioners and authorizes such board to assess a water frontage tax to defray the cost of construction of water mains, such board may assess the tax based upon the benefits received and without regard to any charter limitation on the amount that may be assessed for each lineal foot of property abutting on the water main. The water frontage tax shall be imposed according to the procedure and, except as herein provided, subject to the limitations of the charter of the city.

amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CALCULATION, NOTICE.] At any time after the capital expense incurred or to be incurred in making an improvement shall be calculated under the direction of the council, the council shall determine by resolution the amount of the total capital expense the municipality will pay, other than the amount, if any, which it will pay as a property owner, and the amount to be assessed. Thereupon the clerk, with the assistance of the engineer or other qualified person selected by the council, shall calculate the proper amount to be specially assessed for the improvement against every assessable lot, piece or parcel of land, without regard to cash valuation, in accordance with the provisions of section 429.051. The proposed assessment roll shall be filed with the clerk and be open to public inspection. The clerk shall thereupon, under the council's direction, publish notice that the council will meet to consider the proposed assessment. Such notice shall be published in the newspaper at least once and shall be mailed to the owner of each parcel described in the assessment roll. For the purpose of giving mailed notice under this subdivision, owners shall be those shown to be such on the records of the county auditor or, in any county where tax statements are mailed by the county treasurer, on the records of the county treasurer; but other appropriate records may be used for this purpose. Such publication and mailing shall be no less than two weeks prior to such meeting of the council. Except as to the owners of tax exempt property or property taxes on a gross earnings basis, every property owner whose name does not appear on the records of the county auditor or the county treasurer shall be deemed to have waived such mailed notice unless he has requested in writing that the county auditor or county treasurer, as the case may be, include his name on the records for such purpose. Such notice shall state the date, time, and place of such meeting, the general nature of the improvement, the area proposed to be assessed, that the proposed assessment roll is on the file with the clerk, and that written or oral objections thereto by any property owner will be considered. No appeal may be taken as to the amount of any assessment adopted pursuant to subdivision 2, unless a written objection signed by the affected property owner is filed with the municipal clerk prior to the assessment hearing or presented to the presiding officer at the hearing. The notice shall also state that an owner may appeal an assessment to district court pursuant to section 429.081 by serving notice of the appeal upon the mayor or clerk of the municipality within 30 days after the adoption of the assessment and filing such notice with the district court within ten days after service upon the mayor or clerk. The notice shall also inform property owners of the provisions of sections 435.193 to 435.195 and the existence of any deferment procedure established pursuant thereto in the municipality.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 429.061, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [ANNUAL ASSESSMENT OF OPERATING COST.] When the annual cost of operation, maintenance, or promotion of an improvement is authorized to be assessed upon the conditions provided in section 429.031, subdivision 1a, the proposed assessment roll, if prepared after May 31, 1981, shall include a separate calculation of the proper amount to be specially assessed against each assessable lot, piece, or parcel of land for the payment of the estimated cost of the operation, maintenance and promotion for the next full year of operation. If operation has commenced or is expected to commence before July 1 of the year following the adoption of the assessment roll, an additional amount may be included, proportionate to the fraction of a year between the date of commencement and the following July 1. The amount so assessed shall be due and payable at the same time as taxes on the property payable in the year following the adoption of the assessment roll. In each subsequent year the council may assess an additional amount against the property, not exceeding the lesser of

(1) the estimated cost of operation, maintenance, and promotion of the improvement for the year commencing on the following July 1, diminished by the amount, if any, estimated to be on hand and available for the purpose on that date, or

(2) the amount of the annual cost of operation, maintenance and promotion estimated in the original notice of hearing on the improvement, or in the first assessment of annual charges if the notice was published before June 1, 1981, increased or diminished by the percentage by which the revised consumer price index for all urban consumers for the Minneapolis-St. Paul metropolitan area, prepared by the United States department of labor with 1967 as a base, has increased or diminished since the last index prepared preceding the original publication of notice of hearing on the improvement.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 429.061, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [HEARING AND APPEAL.] On and after June 1, 1981, regardless of the date on which proceedings to make an improvement were commenced, no assessment of annual cost of operation, maintenance or promotion of the improvement subsequent to the original assessment of its capital cost shall be made unless a public hearing is held on the matter and notice is mailed to the owner of each parcel to be assessed at least two weeks before the hearing, stating the amount of the assessment and that the owner may appeal from it as provided in subdivision 1. No published notice of the hearing shall be required. The only grounds for appeal shall be that the assessment has been incorrectly computed, or that the manner of operation and maintenance of the improvement has changed to the extent that it no longer produces benefit to the land as determined upon the initial assessment hearing.

Sec. 6. [SOUTH ST. PAUL; SEWER IMPROVEMENTS.]

If the city of South St. Paul issues bonds under Minnesota Statutes, Section 115.46 to finance the cost of separation of its combined storm and sanitary sewer system, the city may refund all or any part of the collections of special assessments previously levied and collected with respect to any part of the sewer separation project and may include in the principal amount of the bonds issued an amount sufficient to make the refunds. To make the refunds the city may use money derived from the sale of bonds as authorized in the preceding sentence, money in the city's general fund, or both.

Sec. 7. [PRIOR SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS.]

If the city of South St. Paul refunds the special assessments collected with respect to its sewer separation project as authorized by section 6, the city may cancel all remaining installments of the special assessments, but if the special assessments are pledged to the payment of improvement bonds issued by the city under Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 429, the city shall, prior to the cancellation, levy and certify to the Dakota county auditor, in the manner provided in Minnesota Statutes, Section 475.61, a direct general ad valorem tax upon all taxable property in the city collectible for a number of years and in amounts which, when combined with the collections of any other general ad valorem taxes previously levied with respect to the improvement bonds, will yield not less than five percent more than the amount needed to meet when due the principal and interest payments on the improvement bonds, and shall irrevocably appropriate the taxes so levied to the debt service fund or account created for the payment of the improvement bonds.

Sec. 8. [PUBLIC HEARINGS.]

If the governing body of the city of South St. Paul proposes to refund previously collected special assessments or to impose a property tax for the cost of completing the separation of its combined storm and sanitary sewer system pursuant to sections 6 and 7, it shall conduct a public hearing on the question according to the procedures for hearing after mailed notice as provided in Minnesota Statutes, Section 429.031, Subdivision 1.

Sec. 9. [LOCAL APPROVAL; EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 6 to 8 shall be effective the day after compliance with the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Section 645.021, Subdivision 3, by the South St. Paul city council.

Sec. 10. [INVER GROVE HEIGHTS; DEVELOPMENT AUTHORIZATION.]

Notwithstanding the provisions of any law or rule to the contrary, the city of Inver Grove Heights may approve development and issue development permits in an area within the city designated an area of critical concern pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Section 116G.06, prior to the approval of the city's proposed plans and regulations for the designated area by the Minnesota environmental quality board pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Section 116G.07, upon a finding by the governing body of the city of Inver Grove Heights that the proposed development and the issuance of the development permits is in conformance with the proposed plans and regulations of the city.

Sec. 11. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Section 645.023, Subdivision 1, Clause (a), section 10 is effective without local approval the day after final enactment.

Sec. 12. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 5 are effective the day following final enactment.

The term "household" as used in this section is defined to be a domestic establishment maintained either (1) by two or more persons living together within the same house or place of abode, subsisting in common and constituting a domestic or family relationship, or (2) by one person.

(b) During the period of his active service and for six months after his discharge therefrom, no member of the armed forces of the United States shall lose status of a householder under paragraph (a) which he had immediately prior to becoming a member of the armed forces.

In case there is an assessment against more than one member of a household the $100 exemption shall be divided among the members assessed in the proportion that the assessed value of the Class 2 property of each bears to the total assessed value of the Class 2 property of all the members assessed. The Class 2 property of each household claimed to be exempt shall be limited to property in one taxing district, except in those cases where a single domestic establishment is maintained in two or more adjoining districts.

Any such equipment or device shall meet standards, regulations or criteria prescribed by the Minnesota Pollution Control Agency, and must be installed or operated in accordance with a permit or order issued by that agency. The Minnesota Pollution Control Agency shall upon request of the commissioner furnish information or advice to the commissioner. If the commissioner determines that property qualifies for exemption, he shall issue an order exempting such property from taxation. Any such equipment or device shall continue to be exempt from taxation as long as the permit issued by the Minnesota Pollution Control Agency remains in effect.

(16) Wetlands. For purposes of this subdivision, "wetlands" means land which is mostly under water, produces little if any income, and has no use except for wildlife or water conservation purposes. "Wetlands" shall be land preserved in its natural condition, drainage of which would be feasible and practical and would provide land suitable for the production of livestock, dairy animals, poultry, fruit, vegetables, forage and grains, except wild rice. "Wetlands" shall include adjacent land which is not suitable for agricultural purposes due to the presence of the wetlands. Exemption of wetlands from taxation pursuant to this section shall not grant the public any additional or greater right of access to the wetlands or diminish any right of ownership to the wetlands.

(17) Native prairie. The commissioner of the department of natural resources shall determine lands in the state which are native prairie and shall notify the county assessor of each county in which the lands are located. Pasture land used for livestock grazing purposes shall not be considered native prairie for the purposes of this clause and section 273.116. Upon receipt of an application for the exemption and credit provided in this clause and section 273.116 for lands for which the assessor has no determination from the commissioner of natural resources, the assessor shall refer the application to the commissioner of natural resources who shall determine within 30 days whether the land is native prairie and notify the county assessor of his decision. Subd. 2. Each county government, city and township shall receive reimbursement in 1978 and subsequent years in an amount equal to the product of its total mill rate for taxes payable in the calendar year prior to the calendar year in which the aid is to be paid, times the total 1972 assessed value of real property exempted from taxation by section 272.02, subdivision 1 which was located within the territory of such governmental unit, times 1.25. For the purpose of this subdivision, the "total mill rate" of a county government, city or township includes mill rates for taxes levied by such governmental unit which were not levied on the entire taxable value of such governmental unit.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.40, is amended to read:

273.40 [ANNUAL TAX ON COOPERATIVE ASSOCIATIONS.]

Subd. 2. [ESTIMATES.] If, by December 15 of any year, the county auditor has not received from another county auditor the mill rate or assessed value applicable to any taxing district lying in two or more counties, the county auditor who has not received the necessary information may levy taxes for the overlapping district by estimating the mill rate or the assessed value.

Subd. 3. [ASSISTANCE OF COUNTY AUDITOR.] A county auditor who has not furnished the mill rate or assessed value of property in the county by December 15 shall, on request, furnish the county auditor of a county in the overlapping district an estimate of the values or the mill rate. The auditor may request the assistance of the county assessor in determining the estimate.

Subd. 4. [SUBSEQUENT ADJUSTMENT.] After the correct mill rate or assessed value has been certified, the amount of taxes over or under levied shall be computed and notice sent to each affected taxing district. If the estimated tax levy exceeds the correct tax levy based on actual assessed value and mill rate, the county treasurer shall remit any amount of excess which he collects to the affected taxing district. In the following levy year, the estimating county auditor shall adjust the levy of the affected taxing district to compensate for the amount of variance.

In the event that the estimated tax levy is less than the correct tax levy based on actual assessed value and mill rate, the auditor shall adjust the levy of the affected taxing district as provided in section 275.075.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 276.01, is amended to read:

The county auditor shall be the official custodian of such lists after the year during which they are in the county treasurer's possession.

The rate of interest on delinquent real estate taxes levied in 1980 and subsequent years is ~~fixed at eight percent per annum~~ shall be the rate determined pursuant to section 549.09. All provisions of law providing for the calculation of interest at any different rate on delinquent taxes in any notice or proceeding in connection with the payment, collection, sale, or assignment of delinquent taxes, or redemption from such sale or assignment are hereby amended to correspond herewith. ~~In calculating such interest for any fractional part of a year, it shall be calculated on the basis of one-half of one percent for any month or major fraction thereof.~~

Such interest shall be calculated from the second Monday of May following the year in which the taxes became due, on the full amount of the taxes, penalties and costs accrued.

Such jurisdiction shall not be affected by any error in making the list filed with the clerk, nor by any error, irregularity, or omission in the assessment or levy of the taxes, or in any other proceedings, prior to filing the list; nor by any mistake in copying the list for publication, or in publishing the list, or in the designation of the newspaper wherein such list is published; ~~nor by reason of the failure of the publisher to give the bond required;~~ nor by reason of the taxes having been charged in any other name than that of the rightful owner; nor by any mistake in the amount of tax in such published list appearing against any piece or parcel of land therein described; provided, that any judgment rendered in such proceedings shall be void upon satisfactory proof made at any time that such real estate was exempt from taxation or that such taxes were paid before judgment was rendered.

No apportionment or reduction of the "property taxes payable" shall be required for the use of a portion of the claimant's homestead for a business purpose if the claimant does not deduct any business depreciation expenses for the use of a portion of the homestead in the determination of federal adjusted gross income. For homesteads which are mobile homes as defined in section 168.011, subdivision 8, "property taxes payable" shall also include 23 percent of gross rent paid in the preceding year for the site on which the homestead is located, exclusive of charges for utilities or services. When a homestead is owned by two or more persons as joint tenants or tenants in common, such tenants shall determine between them which tenant may claim the property taxes payable on the homestead. If they are unable to agree, the matter shall be referred to the commissioner of revenue and his decision shall be final. Property taxes are considered payable in the year prescribed by law for payment of the taxes.

(15) The amount of any excluded gain recognized by a trust on the sale or exchange of property as defined in section 641(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954;

having a lower adjusted basis for Minnesota income tax purposes than for federal income tax purposes. This modification shall not exceed the difference in basis. If the gain is considered a long term capital gain for federal income tax purposes, the modification shall be limited to 50 percent of the portion of the gain. (b) Modifications reducing federal adjusted gross income. There shall be subtracted from federal adjusted gross income:

(1) Interest income on obligations of any authority, commission or instrumentality of the United States to the extent includible in gross income for federal income tax purposes but exempt from state income tax under the laws of the United States;

(2) The portion of any gain, from the sale or other disposition of property having a higher adjusted basis for Minnesota income tax purposes than for federal income tax purposes, that does not exceed such difference in basis; but if such gain is considered a long-term capital gain for federal income tax purposes, the modification shall be limited to 50 per centum of the portion of the gain. This modification shall not be applicable if the difference in basis is due to disallowance of depreciation pursuant to section 290.101.

(3) Interest or dividend income on securities to the extent exempt from income tax under the laws of this state authorizing the issuance of the securities but includible in gross income for federal income tax purposes;

The maximum amount of this subtraction shall be $11,000 less the amount by which the individual's federal adjusted gross income, plus the ordinary income portion of a lump sum distribution as defined in section 402(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, exceeds $17,000. In the case of a volunteer firefighter who receives an involuntary lump sum distribution of his pension or retirement benefits, the maximum amount of this subtraction shall be $11,000; this subtraction shall not be reduced by the amount of the individual's federal adjusted gross income in excess of $17,000;

(7) In the case of property acquired on or after January 1, 1973, the amount of any credit to the taxpayer's federal tax liability under section 38 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 but only to the extent that the credit is connected with or allocable against the production or receipt of income included in the measure of the tax imposed by this chapter;

This modification does not apply to compensation defined in clause (b)(6);

(12) The amount of any income earned for personal services rendered outside of Minnesota prior to the date when the taxpayer became a resident of Minnesota. This modification does not apply to compensation defined in clause (b)(6);

(13) In the case of wages or salaries paid or incurred on or after January 1, 1977, the amount of any credit for employment of certain new employees under sections 44B and 51 to 53 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 which is claimed as a credit against the taxpayer's federal tax liability, but only to the extent that the credit is connected with or allocable against the production or receipt of income included in the measure of the tax imposed by this chapter;

(1) Shareholders in a small business corporation, which has elected to be so taxed under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, but has not made an election under section 290.972 of this chapter, shall deduct from federal adjusted gross income the amount of any imputed income from the corporation and shall add to federal adjusted gross income the amount of any loss claimed as a result of stock ownership. Also there shall be added to federal adjusted gross income the amount of any distributions in cash or property made by said corporation to its shareholders during the taxable year.

(2) In cases where the small business corporation has made an election under section 1372 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, but has not elected under section 290.972 of this chapter and the corporation is liquidated or the individual shareholder disposes of the stock and there is no capital loss reflected in federal adjusted gross income because of the fact that corporate losses have exhausted the shareholders basis for federal purposes, the shareholders shall be entitled, nevertheless, to a capital loss commensurate to their Minnesota basis for the stock.

(3) In cases where the election under section 1372 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 antedates the election under section 290.972 of this chapter and at the close of the taxable year immediately preceding the effective election under section 290.972 the corporation has a reserve of undistributed taxable income previously taxed to shareholders under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, in the event and to the extent that the reserve is distributed to shareholders the distribution shall be taxed as a dividend for purposes of this act.

Items of gross income includible within these definitions shall be deemed such regardless of the form in which received. Items of gross income shall be included in gross income of the taxable year in which received by a taxpayer unless properly to be accounted for as of a different taxable year under methods of accounting permitted by section 290.07, except that (1) amounts transferred from a reserve or other account, if in effect transfers to surplus, shall, to the extent that the amounts were accumulated through deductions from gross income or entered into the computation of taxable net income during any taxable year, be treated as gross income for the year in which the transfer occurs, but only to the extent that the amounts resulted in a reduction of the tax imposed by this act, and (2) amounts received as refunds on account of taxes deducted from gross income during any taxable year shall be treated as gross income for the year in which actually received, but only to the extent that such amounts resulted in a reduction of the tax imposed by this act.

(d) Modification in computing taxable income of the estate of a decedent. Amounts allowable under section 291.07, subdivision 1, clause (2) in computing Minnesota inheritance or estate tax liability shall not be allowed as a deduction in computing the taxable income of the estate unless there is filed within the time and in the manner and form prescribed by the commissioner a statement that the amounts have not been allowed as a deduction under section 291.07 and a waiver of the right to have the amounts allowed at any time as deductions under section 291.07. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply with respect to deductions allowed under section 290.077 (relating to income in respect of decedents). In the event that the election made for federal tax purposes under section 642(g) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 differs from the election made under this paragraph appropriate modification of the estate's federal taxable income shall be made to implement the election made under this paragraph in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.08, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 25. [INDIVIDUAL HOUSING ACCOUNTS.] (a) (1) Gross income shall not include the amount, up to a maximum of $1,500, paid in cash during the taxable year by an individual taxpayer to an individual housing account established for his benefit together with all interest paid or accrued within the taxable year on the account. In the case of a married couple filing separate returns or filing separately on a combined return, the total amount excludible from gross income for contributions to an individual housing account during the taxable year may not exceed $1,500. This total exclusion for a married couple may be taken by either spouse or divided between them as they elect. The amount of interest paid on any amount contributed in excess of $1,500 during a taxable year or in excess of the maximum contribution permitted by paragraph (2) during all taxable years shall not be excluded from gross income.

(2) The amounts excludible from gross income for contributions to an individual housing account by an individual for all taxable years may not exceed $10,000. In the case of a married individual, the $10,000 amount shall be reduced by an amount equal to the sum of the contributions excluded from gross income pursuant to this subdivision for all taxable years by his spouse. In the case of a married couple, each of whom had established an individual housing account prior to the marriage, the combined limit on the amount excludible from gross income for all taxable years shall be the greater of $10,000 or the amounts excluded from gross income for contributions to their accounts for taxable years ending before the day on which they were married.

(b) For purposes of this subdivision, the following terms have the meanings given.

(1) "Individual housing account" means a trust created or organized in Minnesota for the exclusive benefit of an individual, or, in the case of a married individual, for the exclusive benefit of the individual and his spouse jointly, but only if the written governing instrument creating the trust meets the following requirements:

(i) Contributions will not be accepted for the taxable year in excess of $1,500 or in excess of $10,000 for all taxable years, exclusive of interest paid or accrued.

(ii) The trustee is a financial institution, as defined in section 47.015, or a credit union, chartered or supervised under federal or state law, whose accounts are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, the National Credit Union Administration or any agency of this state or any federal agency established for the purpose of insuring accounts in these financial institutions.

(iii) The assets of the trust shall be invested only in savings or time deposits in amounts fully insured as prescribed in paragraph (ii). Funds held in the trust may be commingled for purposes of investment, but individual records shall be maintained by the trustee for each individual housing account holder which show all transactions in detail.

(iv) The entire interest of an individual or married couple for whose benefit the trust is maintained will be distributed to him, or them, not later than 120 months after the date on which the first contribution is made to the trust.

(v) Except as provided in clause (d) in the case of a disability or death the trustee will distribute no part of the funds in the account unless it: (a) verifies that the money is to be used for a qualified purchase and provides that the instrument of payment is payable to the seller or his designee, construction contractor, or other vendor of the property purchased; or (b) withholds an amount equal to ten percent of the amount withdrawn from the account and remits this amount to the commissioner of revenue within ten days after the date of the withdrawal. The amount so withheld shall be applied to the liability of the taxpayer under clauses (c)(1) and (d).

Except as provided in clause (c), a trustee who fails to pay to or deposit with the commissioner any sum or sums required by this subdivision to be deducted, withheld and paid, shall be personally and individually liable to the state of Minnesota for such sum or sums. Failure to comply with the requirements of paragraph (v) shall be subject to the penalties and interest applicable to withholding tax violations under section 290.92, subdivision 15.

If the trustee, in violation of the provisions of this subdivision, fails to deduct and withhold the amounts required by this subdivision and thereafter the taxes against which any amount withheld may be credited are paid, the amounts required to be deducted and withheld shall not be collected from the trustee. Payment of the tax due under clauses (c)(1) and (d) shall not relieve the trustee from liability for any penalties and interest otherwise applicable in respect of its failure to deduct and withhold.

(2) "Residence" means all or part of a house, townhouse, condominium or cooperative apartment used as the taxpayer's principal and permanent place of residence, but does not include a mobile home as defined in section 273.13, subdivision 3.

(3) "Qualified purchase" means the purchase by a participant in an individual housing account of a principal residence, if (i) the participant has not had a present ownership interest in a principal residence; (ii) the residence to be purchased is located in Minnesota; and (iii) the purchase is made more than one year after the individual housing account was established. For purposes of this paragraph, "participant" means in the case of a married couple either spouse at the time of the purchase.

(c) (1) Any amount paid or distributed out of an individual housing account shall be included in gross income by the participant in the account for the taxable year in which the distribution is received, unless the amount is used exclusively in connection with a qualified purchase.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to a distribution out of an individual housing account to the extent that it was not excluded from gross income either as individual housing account contributions or interest.

The transfer of an individual's interest in an individual housing account to his former spouse under a dissolution of marriage decree or under a written instrument incident to a dissolution of marriage is not to be considered a taxable transfer made by the individual and the interest, at the time of the transfer, is to be treated as an individual housing account of the transferee, and not of the transferor. After the transfer, the account is to be treated, for purposes of this subdivision, as maintained for the benefit of the spouse.

(3) Payment out of an individual housing account pursuant to a good faith, written earnest money contract shall be treated as a qualified purchase for purposes of paragraph (1), either if the sale is completed or if the sale is not completed and the earnest money is forfeited. If an individual housing account distribution is paid pursuant to a good faith, written earnest money contract and is forfeited to the seller for failure to complete the sale, the taxpayer may elect to make and exclude from gross income additional contributions to the individual housing account equal to the amount of the distribution, subject to the annual limits applicable to the amounts excludible from gross income but notwithstanding the $10,000 limit provided by clause (a). If an individual housing account distribution is paid pursuant to an earnest money contract, the sale is not completed, and the distribution is not forfeited to the seller, the amount of the distribution shall be repaid to the account.

(4) In the case of a married couple, any distribution includible in gross income pursuant to this clause shall be allocated equally to each spouse's income.

(d) If a distribution from an individual housing account to an individual for whose benefit the account was established is made and not used in connection with a qualified purchase, the tax liability of the individual under this chapter for the taxable year in which the distribution is received shall be increased by an amount equal to ten percent of the amount of the distribution which is includible in his gross income for the taxable year. The ten percent tax provided by this clause shall be in addition to the taxpayer's tax liability if calculated under section 290.06, subdivision 3d, and shall not be reduced by any credit pursuant to section 290.06, subdivisions 3e, 3f, 9, 9a, 11 or 14 or any other nonrefundable credit. If, during any taxable year, the individual uses the account or any portion thereof as security for a loan, the portion so used is treated as distributed to that individual. No such liability shall be imposed if the payment or distribution is attributable to the taxpayer dying or becoming disabled as provided in section 290A.03, subdivision 10. An individual shall not be considered to be disabled unless he furnishes proof of the disability in the form and manner as the commissioner of revenue may require. Upon the death of an individual for whose benefit the account had been established, the funds in the account shall be payable to the estate of the individual, provided that, if the account was held jointly by the decedent and a spouse of the decedent, the account shall remain as the individual housing account of the surviving spouse. The ten percent tax provided by this clause shall not be imposed, if (1) the participant is unable to make a qualified purchase because he marries a person who has or had an ownership interest in a residence; and (2) no contributions or interest are excluded from gross income in a taxable year ending after the date of the marriage.

(e) No allocation of federal income tax paid on amounts excluded from gross income pursuant to this subdivision shall be required for purposes of the deduction of federal income tax paid under section 290.18, subdivision 2.

(f) The trustee of an individual housing account shall make reports regarding the account to the commissioner of revenue and to the individual for whom the account is maintained with respect to contributions, distributions, and other matters as the commissioner may require under rules. The reports required by this clause shall be filed at a time and in a manner as may be required by the rules. within it, and to other states only if it has no situs in this state. Income or gains from intangible personal property not employed in the business of the recipient of such income or gains, and from intangible personal property employed in the business of such recipient if such business consists principally of the holding of such property and the collection of the income and gains therefrom, wherever held, whether in trust, or otherwise, shall be assigned to this state if the recipient thereof is domiciled within this state; income or gains from intangible personal property wherever held, whether in trust or otherwise shall be assigned to this state if the recipient of such income or gains is domiciled within this state, or if the grantor of any trust is domiciled within this state and such income or gains would be taxable to such grantor under section 290.28 or 290.29;

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 169.81, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [LENGTH OF COMBINATIONS AND SEMITRAILERS AND TRUCK-TRACTORS.] (a) No combination of vehicles coupled together unladen or with load, including truck-tractor and semitrailers, shall consist of more than two units unless the combination consists of a truck-tractor and semitrailer drawing one additional semitrailer equipped with an auxiliary dolly, and no combination of vehicles shall exceed a total length of 60 feet. The limitation shall not apply to the transportation of telegraph poles, telephone poles, electric light and power poles, piling, or pole length pulpwood, and is subject to the following further exceptions: The length limitations shall not apply to vehicles when transporting pipe, or other objects by a public utility when required for emergency or repair of public service facilities or when operated under special permits as provided in this subdivision, but with respect to night transportation a vehicle and the load shall be equipped with a sufficient number of clearance lamps and marker lamps on both sides and upon the extreme ends of a projecting load to clearly mark the dimensions of the load. Combinations of vehicles authorized by this subdivision may be restricted as to the use of highways by the commissioner, as to state trunk highways, and a road authority, as to highways or streets subject to its jurisdiction. Nothing in this subdivision shall be deemed to alter or change the authority vested in local authorities under the provisions of section 169.04. This subdivision shall not apply to the operation of combinations of vehicles subject to the provisions of section 169.861.

For purposes of determining compliance with the provisions of this subdivision, the length of the semitrailer or trailer shall be determined separate from the overall length of the combination of vehicles.

This appropriation is for the construction of a facility to incinerate solid waste and to produce heat in the form of steam for use at the Fergus Falls state hospital. Solid waste generated in the Fergus Falls area now disposed of in landfill may be incinerated in the facility.

The commissioner of administration may prepare construction documents for bidding purposes but shall not award construction contracts for the incineration facility at the Fergus Falls state hospital until he has obtained the written agreement of the city of Fergus Falls to pay to the state the principal amount of the bonds sold to finance this appropriation, less the portion of the cost attributable to the removal of the old ash handling equipment, not to exceed $350,000, plus interest at the rate at which the bonds were sold, and to pay all reasonable operating, maintenance, and repair costs of this power plant, as set forth in the agreement. The agreement shall obligate the city of Fergus Falls to levy each year an amount not less than the principal and interest due and to become due on the bonds through July 1 in the third ensuing year, plus the estimated operating, maintenance, and repair costs of the power plant for that period, less the amount then on hand in the Fergus Falls power plant account and also less an amount equal to the market value of the energy savings accruing to the state through July 1 in the third ensuing year due to the construction of the power plant, including any payments received by the state from the federal government for utilizing alternative energy sources attributable to the solid waste incinerator. The levy does not require approval by the electors of the city of Fergus Falls under section 475.58. The recommendations are advisory only.

The agreement shall also obligate the city of Fergus Falls to deliver solid waste to the facility, to remove incinerated waste residue, and to pay tipping fees to the state. The commissioner may contract with additional persons for delivery of solid waste to the facility and the payment of tipping fees.

The proceeds of the levy and receipts from tipping fees shall be deposited in the state treasury for credit to the Fergus Falls power plant account.

The balance on hand each November 1 in the Fergus Falls power plant account needed to cover principal and interest payments due and to become due on the bonds through July 1 in the second ensuing year is appropriated to the commissioner of finance for transfer to the Minnesota state building bond account in the state bond fund. Any amounts in the account on November 1 not needed to cover principal and interest payments due and to become due on the bonds through July 1 in the second ensuing year but needed to cover the operating, maintenance, and repair costs of the power plant through the next ensuing November 1 are appropriated to the commissioner of finance for transfer to the general fund. Any balance remaining in the Fergus Falls power plant account after the above transfers each November 1 may, as the city of Fergus Falls directs the commissioner of finance, either be used to prepay principal or interest, or both, on bonds still outstanding, or remain in the account to reduce the amount otherwise required to be levied by the city of Fergus Falls for the ensuing year.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 116.18, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [APPROPRIATION FROM THE FUND.] The sum of $155,000,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated from the Minnesota state water pollution control fund in the state treasury to the pollution control agency, for the period commencing on July 23, 1971 and ending June 30, ~~1981~~ 1983, to be granted and disbursed to municipalities and agencies of the state in aid of the construction of projects conforming to section 116.16, in accordance with the rules, priorities, and criteria therein described. Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision and in subdivision 2, these state funds shall be expended at 15 per centum of the eligible cost of construction and shall be expended only for projects tendered a grant of federal funds under section 201(g), section 202, section 203 or section 206(f) of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, as amended, 33 U.S.C. 1314 et seq., at 75 per centum of the eligible cost for construction of the treatment works; provided, that not less than ten percent of ~~such~~ the cost shall be paid by the municipality or agency constructing the project. In the event that a municipality is tendered ~~such~~ federal and state grants in a percentage cumulatively exceeding 90 per centum of the eligible cost of construction, the state pollution control agency shall reduce the grant to ~~such~~ the municipality under this chapter to the extent necessary to assure that not less than ten percent of ~~such~~ the cost shall be paid by ~~said~~ the municipality. It is the purpose of this appropriation that a grant of state funds for each project approved in each of the fiscal years ending June 30, 1971 through ~~1981~~ 1983, shall be made in an amount not less than that required in federal law and regulations as a condition for the grant of federal funds for the project and for all other water pollution control projects for which federal grants are allocated in the same year, in the maximum amount permissible under ~~such~~ law and regulations.

Notwithstanding any other provision, the agency may, in its discretion, and after consideration of the amount of state funds required to match federal funds, make a grant of state funds not exceeding 15 per centum to a municipality that would qualify for a grant of federal funds but desires to initiate construction of a project without a federal grant. The agency may limit the scope and eligible cost of the project.

If a municipality is tendered a grant of federal funds under section 201, paragraph (g), section 202, section 203 or section 206, paragraph (f) of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, as amended, 33 U.S.C. 1314 et seq., at 85 percent of the eligible cost for construction of treatment works utilizing innovative or alternative wastewater treatment processes and techniques, state funds shall be expended at nine percent of the eligible cost of construction; provided, that not less than six percent of the eligible cost of construction shall be paid by the municipality or agency constructing the project. In the event that a municipality is tendered federal and state grants in a percentage cumulatively exceeding 94 percent of the eligible cost of construction, the state pollution control agency shall reduce the grant to the municipality under this chapter to the extent necessary to assure that the municipality receives no more than 94 percent of the eligible cost of construction.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 116.18, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [BOND AUTHORIZATION.] For the purpose of providing money appropriated in subdivision 1 for expenditure from the Minnesota state water pollution control fund through grants to municipalities and agencies of the state for the acquisition and betterment of public land, buildings, and improvements of a capital nature needed for the prevention, control, and abatement of water pollution, the commissioner of finance is authorized upon request of the pollution control agency to sell and issue Minnesota state water pollution control bonds in the amount of $144,000,000, in the manner and upon the conditions prescribed in section 116.17 and in the Constitution, Article XI, Sections 4 to 7. The proceeds of ~~such~~ the bonds, except as provided in section 116.17, subdivision 5, are appropriated and shall be credited to the Minnesota state water pollution control fund. The amount of bonds issued pursuant to this authorization shall not exceed at any time the amount needed to produce a balance in the water pollution control fund equal to the aggregate amount of grants then approved and not previously disbursed, plus the amount of grants to be approved in the current and the following fiscal year, as estimated by the pollution control agency.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 174.50, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. State assistance is needed to supplement local effort and the highway user tax distribution fund in financing capital improvements to preserve and develop a balanced transportation system throughout the state. Such a system is a proper function and concern of state government and necessary to protect the safety and personal and economic welfare of all citizens. It requires capital expenditures for public facilities, improvements, and equipment that are complementary, additional, and alternate to highways and are a proper object for contracting public debt and engaging in works of internal improvements under article XI, section 5, clause (a) of the constitution. These expenditures are needed to harmonize state and local highway systems with the requirements of the federal interstate highway system, to avoid harmful environmental impact of arterial highways on urban, scenic, and recreational areas, and to provide auxiliary facilities for the convenience and safety of persons crossing highways and persons living and working adjacent to them. Capital expenditures of this nature exceed requirements for basic highway systems and should be funded from sources other than the taxes and bonds authorized in article XIV of the constitution. However, the improvements tend to reduce the cost of maintenance of highways to the minimum required for accommodation of traffic, and the cost may and shall continue to be paid from taxes authorized in article XIV of the constitution. Immediate improvement needs are reconstruction and replacement of key bridges and approaches to remove obstructions to the flow of traffic on state and county highways, municipal streets and township roads and expedited completion of the interstate highway system in Minnesota by paying the state share of interstate highway segments, and a portion of the local share of interstate highway substitution projects when those interstate substitution projects are approved in accordance with state and federal law.

Sec. 17. Notwithstanding the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Section 282.01, the commissioner of revenue shall transfer and convey, without monetary consideration and by quitclaim deed in a form approved by the attorney general, in the name of the state of Minnesota, to the city of Minneapolis, all of the interest of the state in the following described tract of land situated in the county of Hennepin:

Portions of D.L. Peck's rearrangement of D.L. Peck's Addition to Minneapolis, namely Block 3 including the alley in said block, now vacated; that part of the North Half of 37th Avenue North, now vacated, lying between extensions across it of the Easterly and Westerly lines of said Block 3; and that part of 1 1/2 Street North, now vacated, lying between extensions across it of the North line of said Block 3 and the center line of 37th Avenue North.

SPECIAL ORDER

Pursuant to Rule 10, Mr. Moe, R.D., Chairman of the Subcommittee on Bill Scheduling, designated S. F. No. 1382 a Special Order to be heard immediately.

S. F. No. 1382: A bill for an act relating to legislative enactments; providing for the correction of miscellaneous oversights, inconsistencies, ambiguities, unintended results and errors of a noncontroversial nature; amending H.F. No. 332, Sections 10, Subdivision 1; 11, Subdivision 4; and 15, Subdivision 1; amending Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 15.0413, as amended; 47.20, Subdivision 6a, as amended; 595.02, as amended; and S.F. No. 876.

Mr. Davies moved to amend S.F. No. 1382 as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Laws 1981, Chapter 59, Section 10, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENTS.] Upon the termination or cancellation of any franchise, the new motor vehicle dealer shall, in the time prescribed, be allowed fair and reasonable compensation by the manufacturer for the following items:

(a) New motor vehicle inventory which was originally acquired from the manufacturer;

(b) Equipment and furnishings if the new motor vehicle dealer purchased them from the manufacturer;

(c) Special tools;

(d) Supplies, including parts, purchased from the manufacturer. Fair and reasonable compensation as applied to parts means that the manufacturer shall reimburse the dealer for 100 percent of the net cost of all current unused automobile and truck parts, including transportation charges, and 85 percent of the current net prices on repair parts, including superseded parts listed in current price lists or catalogs plus five percent of the current net price of all parts returned to compensate the dealer for the handling, packing, and loading of the parts;

(e) Except as provided in paragraph (f), dealership facilities if the facilities were required to be purchased or constructed as a precondition to obtaining the franchise or its renewal by the manufacturer. If the facilities described in this clause were leased and the lease was required by the manufacturer as a precondition to obtaining the franchise or to its renewal, then the manufacturer is liable for one year's payment of the rent or the remainder of the term of the lease, whichever is less. The manufacturer has no obligations under this clause if the termination or cancellation was for good cause based on the conviction or a plea of nolo contendere of the dealer or one of its principal owners for a crime which constitutes a felony as defined in Minnesota Statutes, Section 609.02, Subdivision 2, or where it has been demonstrated at the hearing that the new motor vehicle dealer has repeatedly exhibited a course of conduct constituting fraud with respect to the manufacturer or the general public;

(f) In the event the termination or cancellation is due to a failure of performance of the dealer in sales or service as described in section 7, subdivision 2, the manufacturer shall have no obligation to purchase facilities owned by the dealer but shall be required to pay the dealer a sum equivalent to the reasonable rental value of the facilities for one year. In all other respects the provisions of paragraph (e) shall apply.

Sec. 2. Laws 1981, Chapter 59, Section 11, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PAYMENTS.] In the event of nonrenewal or failure to renew, the manufacturer or distributor shall be obligated to make the same payments to the dealer and in the same manner, subject to the same limitations and restrictions, as are set forth in section 9 10.

Sec. 3. Laws 1981, Chapter 59, Section 15, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [NOTIFICATION; PROTEST; HEARING.] In the event that a manufacturer seeks to enter into a franchise establishing an additional new motor vehicle dealership or relocating an existing new motor vehicle dealership within or into a relevant market area where the line make is then represented, the manufacturer shall, in writing, first notify each new motor vehicle dealer in this line make in the relevant market area of the intention to establish an additional dealership or to relocate an existing dealership within or into that market area. The relevant market area is a radius of ten miles around an existing dealership. Within 15 days of receiving the notice or within 15 days after the end of any appeal procedure provided by the manufacturer, the new motor vehicle dealership may commence a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction pursuant to section 47 18 challenging the establishing or relocating of the new motor vehicle dealership. An action brought under this section shall be placed on the calendar ahead of other civil actions to be heard and determined as expeditiously as possible. Thereafter the manufacturer shall not establish or relocate the proposed new motor vehicle dealership unless the court has determined that there is good cause for permitting the establishment or relocation of the motor vehicle dealership.

For the purposes of this section, the reopening in a relevant market area of a new motor vehicle dealership within two miles of a location at which a former dealership of the same line make had been in operation within the previous two years shall not be deemed the establishment of a new motor vehicle dealership.

The relocation of an existing dealer within its area of responsibility as defined in the franchise agreement shall not be subject to this section, if the proposed relocation site is not within five miles of an existing dealer of the same line make.

Sec. 4. A law enacted at the 1981 Regular Session styled as H.F. No. 493, Section 7, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL OBLIGATION BONDS.] A municipality may, by resolution, authorize, issue and sell general obligation bonds or obligations to finance any expenditure by the municipality for the acquisition, construction, expansion, modification or operation of a district heating system and for the purpose of loaning the proceeds of the bonds or obligations to any person, firm or public or private corporation to acquire, construct, expand or modify a district heating system. Except with regard to the net debt limit as provided in section 465.74 6, subdivision 4, the general obligation bonds or obligations authorized by this subdivision shall be authorized, issued and sold in the same manner and subject only to the same conditions as those provided in chapter 475. When revenues from the operation of a district heating system are pledged to the repayment of the bonds or obligations, the estimated collections of said revenues so pledged may be deducted from the taxes otherwise required to be levied before the issuance of the bonds or obligations under section 475.61, subdivision 1, or the collections thereof may be certified annually to reduce or cancel the initial tax levies in accordance with section 475.61, subdivision 1 or 3.

Sec. 5. A law enacted at the 1981 Regular Session styled as H.F. No. 493, Section 7, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [REDEVELOPMENT AGENCY.] A municipality may itself, or by ordinance authorize any redevelopment agency as defined in section 474.03 474.02, subdivision 3, acting for the municipality, to exercise any and all of the powers granted to the municipality under subdivision 2 and to the redevelopment agency under any other law for the purpose of financing all or any portion of the district heating system and any conversion facilities for modifying the user's heating or water system to use the heat energy converted from the steam or hot water furnished by the district heating system including, but without limitation, the payment of interest during construction and for a reasonable time thereafter and the establishment of reserves for bond payment and for working capital, in which event if the issuer is a redevelopment agency the sources of revenue that may be pledged to the payment of revenue bonds or obligations shall include any revenues of the redevelopment agency. The proceeds of bonds or obligations issued by the municipality or redevelopment agency may be used to make or purchase loans for facilities which the issuer estimates will require such financing, and, for the purpose of making or purchasing such loans the issuer shall have power to enter into loan agreements and other related agreements, both before and after the issuance of the obligations, with such persons, firms, public or private corporations, federal or state agencies, governmental units, and under such terms and conditions as the issuer shall deem appropriate; and any governmental unit in the state shall have the power to apply, contract for and receive the loans without limitation under any other provisions of chapter 475.

Sec. 6. A law enacted at the 1981 Regular Session styled as S.F. No. 1087, Section 42, is amended to read:

Sec. 42. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 60A.031, Subdivision 2; and 60A.11, Subdivisions 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8, are repealed.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 60A.11, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [INVESTMENTS IN NAME OF COMPANY OR NOMINEE AND PROHIBITIONS.] ~~All of the funds of an insurance company other than a life insurance company shall be held in its corporate name or its nominee name, except that investments may be held under the name of a nominee of a bank or trust company if the securities are kept under a custodial arrangement with such bank or trust company. Such custodial arrangements shall be evidenced by an agreement and shall meet the following requirements:~~

(1) ~~The securities shall be held by a bank or trust company licensed by the United States or any state thereof; and~~

(2) ~~the agreement shall provide that the securities so deposited shall at all times be kept separate and apart from other deposits with the depository; so that at all times they may be identified as belonging solely to the company making the deposit.~~

No officer, director, or member of any committee passing on investments shall borrow any of such funds, or become, directly or indirectly, liable as a surety or endorser for or on account of loans thereof to others, or receive to his own use any fee, brokerage, commission, gift, or other consideration for, or on account of, any loan made by or on behalf of the company.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 595.02, as amended by Laws 1981, Chapter 131, Section 2, is amended to read:

(4) A licensed physician or surgeon, dentist, or chiropractor shall not, without the consent of his patient, be allowed to disclose any information or any opinion based thereon which he acquired in attending the patient in a professional capacity, and which was necessary to enable him to act in that capacity; after the decease of such patient, in an action to recover insurance benefits, where the insurance has been in existence two years or more, the beneficiaries shall be deemed to be the personal representatives of such deceased person for the purpose of waiving the privilege hereinbefore created, and no oral or written waiver of the privilege hereinbefore created shall have any binding force or effect except that the same be made upon the trial or examination where the evidence is offered or received;

The Honorable Jack Davies
President of the Senate

Dear Senator Davies:

Following careful review, I have decided to veto S.F. No. 650.

During the course of legislative hearings, agencies which would be affected by provisions of the proposed legislation expressed their opposition thereto.

Adoption of the proposed legislation would result in increased costs for both the State University System and the Community College System through increased salaries for part-time faculty and in administrative costs associated with implementing provisions of S.F. No. 650. Also, it would deprive both systems of a flexible means of employing part-time faculty to meet the temporary increase in enrollments.

Finally, the legislation would establish a precedent that could be applied to other classes of part-time state employees.

Sincerely,

Albert H. Quie, Governor

Pursuant to Joint Rule 3.02, S.F. No. 650 was laid on the table.

May 29, 1981

The Honorable Jack Davies
President of the Senate

Dear Senator Davies:

Returned to you herewith and unsigned please find Senate File 728 which relates to detached banking facilities. As the bill was passed in its final form, I feel compelled to veto it.

The detached banking facility laws of the State were designed to allow each bank to provide customer banking services at two separate locations up to 25 miles from the main banking office. It is essential that these structure laws not be changed so as to provide a competitive advantage for any single bank in the State.

Senate File 728 would, in my view, provide such a competitive advantage for one bank, enabling it to establish a detached facility up to 35 miles from its main office. While the intent of the bill was to provide banking services to a certain community, the bill as enacted does not address a specific location and essentially allows the bank in question to expand to any location within 35 miles. The fact that there are four other banks located within 35 miles of the location in question would result in discrimination against these banks if this bill is allowed to become law.

This bill would establish a dangerous precedent of designing structure laws that provide a competitive advantage for one bank. Bank structure laws should be so designed as to benefit the entire State and should apply to all communities and banks, not just one bank. For this reason, I must reject this special franchise and veto this legislation.

Sincerely yours,

Albert H. Quie, Governor

Pursuant to Joint Rule 3.02, S.F. No. 728 was laid on the table.

PROTEST AND DISSENT

Pursuant to the provisions of Article IV, Section 11, of the Minnesota Constitution, the undersigned request that this following protest and dissent be entered into the pages of the Journal of the Senate.

The undersigned members of the Senate dissent and protest the Senate Education Committee action on Senate File No. 150 (House File No. 70) for the following reasons:

1. Contrary to the rules of the Minnesota Senate for the 72nd Legislature, and contrary to the practice of the Senate, the DFL Majority allowed meetings of the Senate Education Committee on April 27th and 28th while the Senate was in session. Rule 21 provides that "committees shall not be absent from the Senate without permission of the Senate. The names of the members excused shall be printed in the Journal". Further, Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure, Section 628, Paragraphs 1 and 2, set forth the proper parliamentary procedures to govern the calling of committee meetings while a body is in session. All of the above procedures were disregarded by the Chairman of the Senate Education Committee as well as members of the majority caucus in the Senate.
2. The DFL became the Majority in the Senate following an election based on the theme of "openness in government". There can be no openness in the legislative process unless committee meetings are open to the public. The rules of the Minnesota Senate for the 72nd Legislature provide for open meetings and seek at least three calendar days' notice of committee meetings. In violation of the spirit of Senate Rule 58, a Senate Education Committee meeting was called by its Chairman with less than 15-minute notice to members of the Minority caucus on April 28th, for 9:50 p.m. while the Senate was in session.
3. In further violation of the DFL so-called "openness in government standards", the Chairman of the Education Aids Subcommittee offered a $126 million amendment to Senate File No. 150. That "amendment" was simply a one-page outline of issues and costs. The form of the amendment was in violation of Rule 38 of the Rules of the Senate, which states "In drawing an amendment to a bill or resolution, reference shall be made therein, first to the number of the bill, then to the page, and then to the line or lines from which matter is to be stricken or in which new matter is to be inserted".
4. What the undersigned members of this Dissent and Protest find repugnant and in complete disregard for any democratic process, is that the Senate Education Committee adopted a far-reaching amendment that was drafted in its final form by staff after adjournment of the April 28th meeting during which Senate File No. 150 was recommended to pass. The Senate should reject this as a totally unacceptable manner of operation and adopt amendments to prevent any recurrence of such procedures.

Legislative bodies are governed by constitutional restraints, by law and by their own rules. We, the undersigned, believe the actions taken by the Senate Education Committee Chairman, and condoned by the DFL Majority caucus, violated the spirit of the Constitution and the laws of the state of Minnesota.

Further, the Majority group has violated express provisions of the rules they adopted to govern the Senate.

We wish to make these unfair and undemocratic practices and our dissent to them a matter of public record to be called to the attention of the people of Minnesota. For these reasons, this dissent is entered upon the pages of the Senate Journal.

WHEREAS: The Seventy-Second Legislature adjourned without enacting essential legislation to provide for the orderly financial management of state government and to raise revenues to fund the operations of the government and programs for which monies have been legislatively appropriated; and

WHEREAS: The time permitted by law for passage of such legislation during the 1981 Session of the Legislature has expired, and an extraordinary occasion is thereby created; and

WHEREAS: Article IV, Section 12 of the Constitution of the State of Minnesota provides that a special session of the Legislature may be called on extraordinary occasions;

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed this fourth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred eighty-one, and of the State the one hundred twenty-third.
