Subd. 4. There shall be added to the amount of any underpayment of estimated income tax, computed pursuant to chapter 290, an amount in lieu of interest determined at the rate of ~~20~~ 12 percent per annum ~~beginning February 1, 1982.~~ For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1981, the amount in lieu of interest shall be determined at the rate of 20 percent per annum. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1982, the amount in lieu of interest for that taxable year shall be the amount determined in subdivision 5 for January 1 on which begins the taxable year or precedes the beginning of the taxable year.

Sec. 69. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 270.75, Subdivision 5, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article III,

Section 1, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. The rates of interest or amount in lieu of interest contained in subdivisions 1 to 4 shall be adjusted by the commissioner of revenue not later than October 15 of 1982 and any year thereafter if the adjusted prime rate charged by banks during September of that year, rounded to the nearest full percent, is at least a full percentage point more or less than the interest rate which is then in effect. The adjusted rate of interest or amount in lieu of interest shall be equal to the adjusted prime rate charged by banks, rounded to the nearest full percent, and shall become effective on January 1 of the immediately succeeding year except as provided in subdivision 4. For purposes of this subdivision, the term "adjusted prime rate charged by banks" means the average predominant prime rate quoted by commercial banks to large businesses, as determined by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

Sec. 70. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.032, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. An amount not to exceed $10,000 which is distributed to an individual as severance pay upon discontinuation of the individual's employment due to termination of business operations by the individual's employer may be treated as a lump sum distribution according to the provisions of this section if it is paid as a lump sum. For the payment to be treated as a lump sum distribution under this subdivision, the termination of the employer's business operation at that site must be reasonably likely to be permanent and to involve the discharge within a period of one year of at least 75 percent of the persons employed by that employer at that site. This subdivision shall not apply when the employer's business operation at that site is terminated because the business is sold to another person or corporation who will continue operations at that site and the individual is employed by the new person or corporation. For the purpose of this subdivision, "severance pay" shall mean an amount received for the cancellation of an employment contract or a collectively bargained termination payment in the nature of a substitute for income which would have been earned for personal services to be rendered in the future.

The minimum distribution allowance provided in sections 402 (e)(1)(C) and (D) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979, shall not apply to the computation allowed under this subdivision.

Sec. 71. Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article III, Section 6, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [LIMITATION.] The credit for the taxable year shall not exceed $300,000 or ten percent of the liability for tax, whichever is less. "Liability for tax" for purposes of this section means the tax imposed under this chapter for the taxable year reduced by the sum of the credits allowed under section 290.06, except the credit allowed under section 290.06, subdivision 13.

If the credit determined under subdivision 2 exceeds this limitation, the excess shall be a credit carryback to each of the three preceding taxable years and a credit carryover to each of the seven succeeding taxable years, provided the aggregate of the credit for the taxable year and any carryover and carryback credits shall not exceed $300,000 or ten percent of the liability for tax, whichever is less. The entire amount of the excess unused credit for the taxable year shall be carried first to the earliest of the taxable years to which the credit may be carried and then to each successive year to which the credit may be carried.

For the purposes of sections 290.46 and 290.50, if the claim for refund relates to an overpayment attributable to a research and experimental expenditure credit carryback under this subdivision, in lieu of the period of limitation prescribed in sections 290.46 and 290.50, the period of limitation shall be that period which ends with the expiration of the 15th day of the 46th month, or the 45th month, in the case of a corporation, following the end of the taxable year in which the research and experimental expenditure credit arises which results in the carryback. In any case in which a taxpayer is entitled to a refund in a carryback year due to the carryback of a research and experimental expenditure credit, interest shall be computed only from the end of the taxable year in which the credit arises."

(f) If a court petitions for commitment pursuant to the rules of criminal procedure, the pre-petition investigation required by this section shall be completed within seven days after the filing of the petition.

All papers shall be served personally on the proposed patient. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the notice shall be served on the proposed patient by a non-uniformed person.

Subd. 5. [PRE-HEARING EXAMINATION; REPORT.] The examination shall be held at a treatment facility or other suitable place the court determines is not likely to have a harmful effect on the health of the proposed patient. The county attorney and the patient's attorney shall be permitted to be present during the examination. Either party may waive this right. Unless otherwise agreed by the counsel for the proposed patient, a court appointed examiner shall file three copies of his report with the court not less than 48 hours prior to the hearing. Copies of the examiner's report shall be sent to the proposed patient and his counsel.

Subd. 6. [APPREHEND AND HOLD ORDERS.] When there has been a particularized showing by the petitioner that serious imminent physical harm to the proposed patient or others is likely unless the proposed patient is apprehended or when the proposed patient has not voluntarily appeared for the examination or the commitment hearing pursuant to the summons, the court may direct a health officer, peace officer, or other person to take the proposed patient into custody and transport him to a treatment facility for observation, evaluation, diagnosis, care, treatment, and, if necessary, confinement. The order of the court may be executed on any day and at any time by the use of all necessary means including the imposition of necessary restraint upon the proposed patient. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, a peace officer taking the proposed patient into custody pursuant to this subdivision shall not be in uniform and shall not use a motor vehicle visibly marked as a police vehicle.

Subd. 7. [PROBABLE CAUSE HEARING.] (a) No proposed patient may be held pursuant to subdivision 6 for longer than 72 hours, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays, unless the court holds a preliminary hearing and determines that probable cause exists to continue to hold him.

(b) The proposed patient, his counsel, the petitioner, the county attorney, and any other persons as the court directs shall be given at least 24 hours written notice of the preliminary hearing. The notice shall include the alleged grounds for confinement. The proposed patient shall be represented at the preliminary hearing by counsel. If the court finds it to be reliable, it may admit hearsay evidence, including written reports.

(c) The court may order the continued holding of the proposed patient if it finds, by a preponderance of the evidence, that serious imminent physical harm to the patient or others is likely if the proposed patient is not confined.

Sec. 8. [253B.08] [JUDICIAL COMMITMENT; HEARING PROCEDURES.]

Subdivision 1. [TIME FOR COMMITMENT HEARING.] The hearing on the commitment petition shall be held within 14 days from the date of the filing of the petition. For good cause shown, the court may extend the time of hearing up to an additional 30 days. When any proposed patient has not had a hearing on a petition filed for his commitment within the allowed time, the proceedings shall be dismissed. The proposed patient, or the head of the treatment facility in which he is held, may demand in writing at any time that the hearing be held immediately. Unless the hearing is held within five days of the date of the demand, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays, the petition shall be automatically discharged if the patient is being held in a treatment facility pursuant to court order. For good cause shown, the court may extend the time of hearing on the demand for an additional ten days.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE OF HEARING.] The proposed patient, his counsel, the petitioner, and any other persons as the court directs shall be given at least five days' notice that a hearing will be held and at least two days' notice of the time and date of the hearing, except that any person may waive notice. Notice to the proposed patient may be waived by patient's counsel. If the proposed patient has no residence in this state, the commissioner shall be notified of the proceedings by the court.

Subd. 3. [RIGHT TO ATTEND AND TESTIFY.] All persons to whom notice has been given may attend the hearing and, except for the proposed patient's counsel, may testify. The court shall notify them of their right to attend the hearing and to testify. The court may exclude any person not necessary for the conduct of the proceedings from the hearings except any person requested to be present by the proposed patient. Nothing in this section shall prevent the court from ordering the sequestration of any witness or witnesses other than the petitioner or proposed patient.

Subd. 4. [WITNESSES.] The proposed patient or his counsel and the petitioner may present and cross-examine witnesses, including examiners, at the hearing. The court may in its discretion receive the testimony of any other person. Opinions of court-appointed examiners shall not be admitted into evidence unless the examiner is present to testify, except by agreement of the parties.

Subd. 5. [ABSENCE PERMITTED.] The court may permit the proposed patient to waive his right to attend the hearing if it determines that the waiver is freely given. All waivers shall be on the record. At the time of the hearing the patient shall not be so under the influence or suffering from the effects of drugs, medication, or other treatment so as to be hampered in participating in the proceedings. When in the opinion of the licensed physician or licensed consulting psychologist attending the patient the discontinuance of drugs, medi- cation, or other treatment is not in the best interest of the patient, the court, at the time of the hearing, shall be presented a record of all drugs, medication or other treatment which the patient has received during the 48 hours immediately prior to the hearing.

Subd. 6. [PLACE OF HEARING.] The hearing shall be conducted in a manner consistent with orderly procedure. The hearing shall be held at a courtroom meeting standards prescribed by local court rule which may be at a treatment facility.

Subd. 7. [EVIDENCE.] The court shall admit all relevant evidence at the hearing. The court shall make its determination upon the entire record pursuant to the rules of evidence.

Subd. 8. [RECORD REQUIRED.] The court shall keep accurate records containing, among other appropriate materials, notations of appearances at the hearing, including witnesses, motions made and their disposition, and all waivers of rights made by the parties. The court shall take and preserve an accurate stenographic record or tape recording of the proceedings.

Sec. 9. [253B.09] [DECISION; STANDARD OF PROOF; DURATION.]

Subdivision 1. [STANDARD OF PROOF.] If the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the proposed patient is a mentally ill, mentally retarded, or chemically dependent person and, that after careful consideration of reasonable alternative dispositions, including but not limited to, dismissal of petition, voluntary outpatient care, informal admission to a treatment facility, appointment of a guardian or conservator, or release before commitment as provided for in subdivision 4, it finds that there is no suitable alternative to judicial commitment, the court shall commit the patient to the least restrictive treatment facility which can meet the patient's treatment needs consistent with section 3, subdivision 7.

Subd. 2. [FINDINGS.] The court shall find the facts specifically, separately state its conclusions of law, and direct the entry of an appropriate judgment. Where commitment is ordered, the findings of fact and conclusions of law shall specifically state the proposed patient's conduct which is a basis for determining that each of the requisites for commitment is met.

If commitment is ordered, the findings shall also include a listing of less restrictive alternatives considered and rejected by the court and the reasons for rejecting each alternative.

Subd. 3. [FINANCIAL DETERMINATION.] The court shall determine the nature and extent of the property of the patient and of the persons who are liable for the patient's care. If the patient is committed to a regional facility, a copy shall be transmitted to the commissioner.

Subd. 4. [RELEASE BEFORE COMMITMENT.] After the hearing and before a commitment order has been issued, the court may release a proposed patient to the custody of any individual or agency upon conditions which guarantee the care and treatment of the patient. No person against whom a criminal proceeding is pending shall be released.

The court, on its own motion or upon the petition of any person, and after notice and a hearing, may revoke any release and commit the proposed patient pursuant to this chapter.

Subd. 5. [INITIAL COMMITMENT PERIOD.] (a) For persons committed as mentally retarded, the initial commitment shall not exceed 60 days. There shall be a review of the commitment before the end of 60 days pursuant to section 12.

(b) For persons committed as mentally ill, the initial commitment shall not exceed six months. At least 60 days, but not more than 90 days, after the commencement of the initial commitment of a person as mentally ill, the head of the facility shall file an interim written report with the committing court with a copy to the patient and his counsel. The report shall set forth the information required in section 12, subdivision 1. If no written report is filed within the required time, or if it describes the patient as not in need of further institutional care and treatment or outpatient supervision, the proceedings shall be terminated by the committing court, and the patient shall be discharged from the treatment facility.

(c) For persons committed as chemically dependent, the initial commitment shall not exceed 45 days. There shall be a review of the commitment before the end of the 45 days pursuant to section 12. Any subsequent commitment, within two years after a final discharge from commitment, shall not exceed 60 days. There shall be a review of the subsequent commitment before the end of 60 days pursuant to section 12. Commitment proceedings initiated more than two years after a previous final discharge may, after a review by the court of all relevant facts, be treated by the committing court as a petition for initial commitment.

Sec. 10. [253B.10] [PROCEDURES FOR COMMITMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [ADMINISTRATIVE REQUIREMENTS.] When a person is committed, the court shall issue a warrant in duplicate, committing the patient to the custody of the head of the treatment facility. Upon the arrival of a patient at the designated treatment facility, the head of the facility shall retain the duplicate of the warrant and endorse his receipt upon the original warrant, which shall be filed in the court of commitment. After arrival, the patient shall be under the control and custody of the head of the treatment facility.

Copies of the petition for commitment, the court's findings of fact and conclusions of law, the court order committing the patient, the report of the examiners, and the pre-petition report shall be provided to the treatment facility at the time of admission.

Subd. 2. [TRANSPORTATION.] When a proposed patient is about to be placed in a treatment facility, the court may order any responsible adult to transport the patient to the treatment facility. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, a peace officer who provides the transportation shall not be in uniform and shall not use a vehicle visibly marked as a police vehicle. The proposed patient may be accompanied by one or more interested persons.

When a proposed patient requests a change of venue or when a hearing is to be held for adjudication of a patient's status pursuant to section 17, the commissioner shall provide transportation.

Subd. 3. [NOTICE OF ADMISSION.] Whenever a committed person has been admitted to a treatment facility under the provisions of sections 9 or 18, the head of the facility shall immediately notify the patient's spouse or parent and the county of the patient's legal residence if the county may be liable for a portion of the cost of institutionalization. If the committed person was admitted upon the petition of a spouse or parent the head of the treatment facility shall notify an interested person other than the petitioner.

Subd. 4. [PRIVATE INSTITUTIONALIZATION.] Patients or other responsible persons are required to pay the necessary charges for patients committed or transferred to private treatment facilities. Private treatment facilities may refuse to accept a committed person.

Sec. 11. [253B:11] [CONFINEMENT IN JAIL.]

Subdivision 1. [RESTRICTION.] Except when ordered by the court pursuant to a finding of necessity to protect the life of the proposed patient or others, no person subject to the provisions of this chapter shall be confined in jail or correctional institution, except pursuant to chapters 242 or 244.

Subd. 2. [FACILITIES.] Each county or a group of counties shall maintain or provide by contract a facility for confinement of persons held temporarily for observation, evaluation, diagnosis, treatment, and care. When the confinement is provided at a regional center, the commissioner shall charge the responsible county for the costs of confinement. The charge shall be based on the commissioner's determination of the average per capita cost, other than that paid from the Minnesota state building fund, for persons hospitalized pursuant to section 5, subdivision 2 and section 7, subdivision 6, at all of the regional centers during the prior fiscal year.

Subd. 3. [TREATMENT.] The designated agency shall take reasonable measures to assure proper care and treatment of a person temporarily detained pursuant to this section.

Sec. 12. [253B:12] [TREATMENT REPORT; REVIEW; HEARING.]

Subdivision 1. [REPORT.] Prior to the termination of the initial commitment order or discharge of the patient, the head of the facility shall file a written report with the committing court with a copy to the patient and his counsel, setting forth in detailed narrative form at least the following: (1) the diagnosis of the patient with the supporting data; (2) the anticipated discharge date; (3) an individualized treatment plan; (4) a detailed description of the discharge planning process with suggested after care plan; (5) whether the patient is in need of further care and treatment with evidence to support the response; (6) whether any further care and treatment must be provided in a treatment facility with evidence to support the response; (7) whether in his opinion the patient must continue to be committed to a treatment facility; and (8) whether in his opinion the patient satisfies the statutory requirement for continued commitment, with documentation to support the opinion.

Subd. 2. [BASIS FOR DISCHARGE.] If no written report is filed within the required time or if the written statement describes the patient as not in need of further institutional care and treatment, the proceedings shall be terminated by the committing court, and the patient shall be discharged from the treatment facility. The commitment of a person committed as mentally ill shall automatically terminate at the end of the initial commitment period unless a new petition is filed pursuant to section 7 to continue the commitment.

Subd. 3. [EXAMINATION.] Prior to the hearing, the court shall inform the patient that he is entitled to an independent examination by an examiner chosen by the patient and appointed in accordance with provisions of section 7, subdivision 3. The report of the examiner may be submitted at the hearing.

Subd. 4. [HEARING; STANDARD OF PROOF.] The probate court shall not make a final determination of the need to continue commitment unless a hearing is held and the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that (1) the person continues to be mentally ill, mentally retarded or chemically dependent; (2) involuntary commitment is necessary for the protection of the patient or others; and (3) there is no alternative to involuntary commitment.

In determining whether a person continues to be mentally ill, the court need not find that there has been a recent attempt or threat to physically harm himself or others, or a recent failure to provide necessary food, clothing, shelter, or medical care for himself. Instead, the court must find that the patient is likely to attempt to physically harm himself or others, or to fail to provide necessary food, clothing, shelter, or medical care for himself unless involuntary commitment is continued.

Subd. 5. [TIME FOR HEARING.] The hearing shall be held within 14 days after receipt by the committing court of the report of the head of the treatment facility. The court may continue the hearing for good cause shown.

The patient, his counsel, the petitioner, and other persons as the court directs shall be given at least five days notice of the time and place of the hearing.

Subd. 6. [WAIVER.] A patient, after consultation with his counsel, may waive any hearing under this section or section 13 in writing. The waiver shall be signed by the patient and his counsel. The waiver must be submitted to the committing court.

Subd. 7. [RECORD REQUIRED.] Where continued commitment is ordered, the findings of fact and conclusions of law shall specifically state the conduct of the proposed patient which is the basis for the final determination, that the statutory criteria of commitment continue to be met, and that less restrictive alternatives have been considered and rejected by the court. Reasons for rejecting each alternative shall be stated. A copy of the final order for continued commitment shall be forwarded to the head of the treatment facility.

Subd. 8. [TRANSFER TO INFORMAL STATUS.] At any time prior to the expiration of the initial commitment period a patient who has not been committed as mentally ill and dangerous to the public may be transferred to informal status upon his application in writing with the consent of the head of the facility. Upon transfer the head of the treatment facility shall immediately notify the court in writing and the court shall terminate the proceedings.

Sec. 13. [253B.13] [DURATION OF CONTINUED COMMITMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [MENTALLY ILL PERSONS.] If at the conclusion of a hearing held pursuant to section 12, it is found that the criteria for continued commitment have been satisfied, the court shall determine the probable length of commitment necessary. No period of commitment shall exceed this length of time or 12 months, whichever is less. At the conclusion of the prescribed period, commitment may not be continued unless a new petition is filed pursuant to section 7 and hearing and determination made on it.

Subd. 2. [MENTALLY RETARDED PERSONS.] If, at the conclusion of a hearing held pursuant to section 12, it is found that a person continues to be mentally retarded, the court shall order commitment of the person for a period not to exceed one year. Additional annual renewals of that commitment may be imposed as follows:

(a) Thirty days prior to the expiration of the annual commitment period the head of the treatment facility shall file a written statement with the committing court and a copy of it with the commissioner and the patient's counsel, setting forth findings as to the condition of the patient; a diagnosis of the patient; whether the patient is in need of further care and treatment; whether the care and treatment, if any, must be provided in a treatment facility and if so what type.

(b) If no written statement is filed within the required time or if the written statement describes the patient as not in need of further institutional care and treatment, the proceedings shall be terminated by the committing court and the patient shall be discharged from the facility.

(c) If the written statement describes the patient as being in need of further institutional care and treatment, the committing court shall consider that finding in making its final determination. In addition, the committing court may examine the patient's records, request the patient to appear, and make other pertinent inquiries with respect to the patient's present need for confinement.

(d) If the court finds that the patient is not in need of further institutional care and treatment, the court shall order the head of the treatment facility to discharge the patient. If the court finds that the patient is in need of further institutional care and treatment, the court shall issue an order renewing the patient's commitment for an additional one year period.

Subd. 3. [CHEMICALLY DEPENDENT PERSONS.] If, at the conclusion of a hearing held pursuant to section 12, it is found that a person continues to be chemically dependent, the court shall order the continued commitment of the person for a period of time not to exceed one year.

Sec. 14. [253B.14] [TRANSFER OF COMMITTED PERSONS.]

The commissioner may transfer any committed person from one regional center to any other institution under his jurisdiction which is capable of providing proper care and treatment. When a committed person is transferred from one treatment facility to another, written notice shall be given to the committing court and to his parent or spouse or, if none is known, to an interested person, and the designated agency.

Sec. 15. [253B.15] [PROVISIONAL DISCHARGE; PARTIAL INSTITUTIONALIZATION.]

Subdivision 1. [PROVISIONAL DISCHARGE.] The head of the treatment facility may provisionally discharge any patient without discharging the commitment, unless he was found by the committing court to be mentally ill and dangerous to the public.

Each patient released on provisional discharge shall have an aftercare plan developed which specifies the expected period of provisional discharge, the precise goals for the granting of a final discharge, and conditions or restrictions on the patient during the period of the provisional discharge.

The aftercare plan shall be reviewed on a quarterly basis by the patient, designated agency and other appropriate persons. The aftercare plan shall contain the grounds upon which a provisional discharge may be revoked. The provisional discharge shall terminate on the date specified in the plan unless specific action is taken to revoke or extend it.

Subd. 2. [REVOCAION OF PROVISIONAL DISCHARGE.] The head of the treatment facility may revoke a provisional discharge if the patient has violated material conditions of the provisional discharge, and the violation creates a probable danger of harm to the patient or others if the provisional discharge is not revoked.

Any interested person, including the designated agency, may request that the head of the treatment facility revoke the patient's provisional discharge. Any person making a request shall provide the head of the treatment facility with a written report setting forth the specific facts, including witnesses, dates and locations, supporting a revocation, demonstrating that every effort has been made to avoid revocation and that revocation is the least restrictive alternative available.

Subd. 3. [PROCEDURE; NOTICE.] When the possibility of revocation becomes apparent, the designated agency shall notify the patient and all participants in the plan, and every effort shall be made to prevent revocation:

Revocation shall be commenced by a notice of intent to revoke provisional discharge, which shall be served upon the patient, his attorney, and the designated agency. The notice shall set forth the grounds upon which the intention to revoke is based, and shall inform the patient of his rights under this chapter.

Subd. 4. [REVIEW; HEARING.] Any interested person or the patient may request review of the intended revocation by notifying the head of the facility within 14 days of service of the notice upon the patient. Upon receipt of a request, the head of the treatment facility shall immediately file with the committing court a petition for review of the notice of intent to revoke. Any interested person or the patient may also file a petition for review. The court shall hold a hearing on the petition within 14 days of the filing of the petition. If the patient requests an immediate hearing, it shall be held within five days of the request.

At the hearing, the burden of proof shall be upon the party seeking revocation. At the conclusion of the hearing, the court shall find the facts specifically, and may order that the patient's provisional discharge be revoked and the patient returned to the facility. The court shall affirm the revocation if it finds a factual basis for revocation due to a violation of the terms of provisional discharge or a probable danger of harm to the patient or others if the provisional discharge is not revoked. Otherwise the court shall order a return to provisional discharge status.

If neither the patient nor others requests a review hearing within 14 days, the revocation is final and the court, without hearing, may order the patient returned to the facility.

Subd. 5. [RETURN TO FACILITY.] The head of the treatment facility may apply to the committing court for an order directing that the patient be returned to the facility. The court may order the patient returned to the facility prior to a review hearing only upon finding that immediate return to the facility is necessary to avoid serious, imminent harm to the patient or others.

Subd. 6. [EXCEPTION.] During the first 60 days of a provisional discharge, the head of the treatment facility, upon finding that either of the conditions set forth in subdivision 1 exists, may revoke the provisional discharge without being subject to the provisions of subdivisions 2 to 5.

Subd. 7. [EXTENSION OF PROVISIONAL DISCHARGE.] (a) A provisional discharge may be extended if the patient has not achieved the goals set forth in the provisional discharge plan or continues to need the supervision or assistance provided by an extension of the provisional discharge. The designated agency shall recommend extension of a provisional discharge only after a preliminary conference with the patient and other appropriate persons. The patient shall be given the opportunity to object or make suggestions for alternatives to extension.

(b) Any recommendation for extension shall be made in writing to the head of the treatment facility and with a copy to the patient at least 30 days prior to the expiration of the provisional discharge. The written recommendation shall include: the specific grounds for recommending the extension, the date of the preliminary conference and results, the anniversary date of the provisional discharge, the termination date of the provisional discharge, and the proposed length of extension. If the grounds for recommending the extension occur less than 30 days before the expiration, the written recommendation shall be made as soon as practicable.

(c) The head of the facility shall issue a written decision regarding extension within five days after receiving the recommendation from the designated agency. In determining whether the provisional discharge is to be extended, the head of the treatment facility shall consider the willingness and ability of the patient to voluntarily obtain needed care and treatment.

Subd. 8. [EFFECT OF EXTENSION.] No provisional discharge, revocation, or extension shall extend the term of the commitment beyond the period provided for in the commitment order.

Subd. 9. [EXPIRATION OF PROVISIONAL DISCHARGE.] Except as otherwise provided, a provisional discharge is absolute when it expires. If, while on provisional discharge or extended provisional discharge, a patient is discharged as provided in section 16, the discharge shall be absolute.

Notice of the expiration of the provisional discharge shall be given by the head of the treatment facility to the committing court, the petitioner, the commissioner, and the designated agency.

Subd. 10. [VOLUNTARY RETURN.] With the consent of the head of the treatment facility, a patient may voluntarily return to inpatient status at the treatment facility as follows:

(a) As an informal patient, in which case the patient's commitment is discharged;

(b) As a committed patient, in which case the patient's provisional discharge is voluntarily revoked; or

(c) On temporary return from provisional discharge, in which case both the commitment and the provisional discharge remain in effect.

Prior to readmission, the patient shall be informed of his status upon read- mission.

Subd. 11. [PARTIAL INSTITUTIONALIZATION.] The head of a treatment facility may place any committed person on a status of partial institutionalization. The status shall allow the patient to be absent from the facility for certain fixed periods of time. The head of the facility may terminate the status at any time.

Sec. 16. [253B.16] [DISCHARGE OF COMMITTED PERSONS.]

Subdivision 1. [DATE.] The head of a treatment facility shall discharge any patient admitted as mentally ill, mentally retarded or chemically dependent when certified by him to be no longer in need of institutional care and treatment or at the conclusion of any period of time specified in the commitment order, whichever occurs first.

Subd. 2. [NOTIFICATION OF DISCHARGE.] Prior to the discharge or provisional discharge of any committed person, the head of the treatment facility shall notify the designated agency and the patient's spouse, or if there is no spouse, then an adult child, or if there is none, the next of kin of the patient, of the proposed discharge. The notice shall be sent to the last known address of the person to be notified by certified mail with return receipt. The notice shall include the following: (1) the proposed date of discharge or provisional discharge; (2) the date, time and place of the meeting of the staff who have been treating the patient to discuss discharge and discharge planning; (3) the fact that the patient will be present at the meeting; and (4) the fact that the next of kin may attend that staff meeting and present any information relevant to the discharge of the patient. The notice shall be sent at least one week prior to the date set for the meeting.

Sec. 17. [253B.17] [RELEASE; JUDICIAL DETERMINATION.]

Subdivision 1. [PETITION.] Any patient, except one committed as mentally ill and dangerous to the public, or any interested person may petition the committing court or the court to which venue has been transferred for an order that the patient is not in need of continued institutionalization or for an order that an individual is no longer mentally ill, mentally retarded, or chemically dependent, or for any other relief as the court deems just and equitable.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE OF HEARING.] Upon the filing of the petition, the court shall fix the time and place for the hearing on it. Ten days' notice of the hearing shall be given to the county attorney, the patient, his counsel, the person who filed the initial commitment petition, the head of the treatment facility, and other persons as the court directs. Any person may oppose the petition.

Subd. 3. [EXAMINERS.] The court shall appoint an examiner and, at the patient's request, shall appoint a second examiner of the patient's choosing to be paid for by the county at a rate of compensation to be fixed by the court.

Subd. 4. [EVIDENCE.] The patient, his counsel, the petitioner and the county attorney shall be entitled to be present at the hearing and to present and cross-examine witnesses, including examiners. The court may hear any relevant testimony and evidence which is offered at the hearing.

Subd. 5. [ORDER.] Upon completion of the hearing, the court shall enter an order stating its findings and decision and mail it to the head of the treatment facility.

Sec. 18. [253B.18] [PROCEDURES FOR PERSONS MENTALLY ILL AND DANGEROUS TO THE PUBLIC.]

Subdivision 1. [PROCEDURE.] Upon the filing of a petition alleging that a proposed patient is mentally ill and dangerous to the public, the court shall hear the petition as provided in sections 7 and 8. If the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the proposed patient is mentally ill and dangerous to the public, it shall commit the person to the Minnesota Security Hospital, a regional center designated by the commissioner or to a treatment facility. Admission procedures shall be carried out pursuant to section 10.

Subd. 2. [REVIEW.] There shall be a review of commitment at the end of 60 days. If no written review statement is filed within 60 days or if the statement describes the committed person as not in need of further institutional care and treatment, a further hearing shall be held by the committing court within 14 days after the court's receipt of the statement. The committing court shall then make the final determination.

Subd. 3. [INDETERMINATE COMMITMENT.] At the hearing held pursuant to subdivision 2, the court may order commitment of the proposed patient for an indeterminate period of time. Subsequent to a final determination that a patient is mentally ill and dangerous to the public, the patient shall be transferred, provisionally discharged, discharged, or have his commitment status altered only as provided in this section.

Subd. 4. [SPECIAL REVIEW BOARD.] The commissioner shall establish a special review board for persons committed as mentally ill and dangerous to the public. The board shall consist of three members experienced in the field of mental illness. One member of the special review board shall be a physician and one member shall be an attorney. No member shall be affiliated with the department of public welfare. The special review board shall meet at least every six months and at the call of the commissioner. It shall hear and consider all petitions for transfer out of the Minnesota Security Hospital, all petitions relative to discharge, provisional discharge and revocation of provisional discharge, and make recommendations to the commissioner concerning them.

Members of the special review board shall receive compensation and reimbursement for expenses as established by the commissioner of public welfare.

Subd. 5. [PETITION; NOTICE OF HEARING; ATTENDANCE; ORDER.] A petition for an order of transfer, discharge, provisional discharge, or revocation of provisional discharge shall be filed with the commissioner and may be filed by the patient or by the head of the treatment facility. The special review board shall hold a hearing on each petition prior to making any recommendation. Within 45 days of the filing of the petition, the committing court, the county attorney of the county of commitment, an interested person, the petitioner and his counsel shall be given written notice by the commissioner of the time and place of the hearing before the special review board. Only those entitled to statutory notice of the hearing or those administratively required to attend may be present at the hearing. The commissioner shall issue his order no later than 14 days after receiving the recommendation of the special review board. A copy of the order shall be sent by certified mail to every person entitled to attend the hearing within five days after it is issued. No order by the commissioner shall be effective sooner than 15 days after.

Subd. 6. [TRANSFER.] (a) Persons who have been found by the committing court to be mentally ill and dangerous to the public shall not be transferred out of the Minnesota Security Hospital unless it appears to the satisfaction of the commissioner, after a hearing and favorable recommendation by a majority of the special review board, that the transfer is appropriate. Transfer may be to other regional centers under the commissioner's control. In those instances where a commitment also exists to the department of corrections, transfer may be to a facility designated by the commissioner of corrections.

The following factors are to be considered in determining whether a transfer is appropriate:

- (i) the person's clinical progress and present treatment needs;*
- (ii) the need for security to accomplish continuing treatment;*
- (iii) the need for continued institutionalization;*
- (iv) which facility can best meet the person's needs; and*
- (v) whether transfer can be accomplished with a reasonable degree of safety for the public.*

Subd. 7. [PROVISIONAL DISCHARGE.] Patients who have been found by the committing court to be mentally ill and dangerous to the public shall not be provisionally discharged unless it appears to the satisfaction of the commissioner, after a hearing and a favorable recommendation by a majority of the special review board, that the patient is capable of making an acceptable adjustment to open society.

The following factors are to be considered in determining whether a provisional discharge shall be recommended: (a) whether conditions exist to provide a reasonable degree of protection to the public and to assist the patient in adjusting to the community and (b) whether the patient's course of institutionalization and present mental status indicate there is no longer a need for in-hospital treatment and supervision.

Subd. 8. [PROVISIONAL DISCHARGE PLAN.] A provisional discharge plan shall be developed, implemented and monitored by the designated agency in conjunction with the patient, the treatment facility and other appropriate persons. The designated agency shall, at least quarterly, review the plan with the patient and submit a written report to the commissioner and the treatment facility concerning the patient's status and compliance with each term of the plan.

Subd. 9. [PROVISIONAL DISCHARGE; REVIEW.] A provisional discharge pursuant to this section shall not automatically terminate. A full discharge shall occur only as provided in subdivision 15. The commissioner shall annually review the facts relating to the activity of a patient on provisional discharge and notify the patient that the terms of the provisional discharge shall continue unless the patient requests a change in the conditions of provisional discharge or unless the patient acts to petition the special review board for a full discharge and the discharge is granted.

Subd. 10. [PROVISIONAL DISCHARGE; REVOCATION.] The head of the treatment facility may revoke a provisional discharge if any of the following grounds exist:

- (i) the patient has departed from the conditions of the provisional discharge* plan;

(ii) the patient is exhibiting signs of a mental illness which may require in-hospital evaluation or treatment; or

(iii) the patient is exhibiting behavior which may be dangerous to self or others.

In all non-emergency situations, prior to revoking a provisional discharge, the head of the treatment facility shall obtain a report from the designated agency outlining the specific reasons for recommending the revocation, including but not limited to the specific facts upon which the revocation recommendation is based.

The patient must be provided a copy of the revocation report and informed orally and in writing of his rights under this section.

Subd. 11. [EXCEPTIONS.] During the first 60 days of a provisional discharge or if an emergency exists, the head of the treatment facility may revoke the provisional discharge and, either orally or in writing, order that the patient be immediately returned to the treatment facility. In emergency cases, a report documenting reasons for revocation shall be submitted by the designated agency within seven days after the patient is returned to the treatment facility.

Subd. 12. [RETURN OF PATIENT.] After revocation of a provisional discharge or if the patient is absent without authorization, the head of the treatment facility may request the patient to return to the treatment facility voluntarily. He may request a health officer, a welfare officer, or a peace officer to return the patient to the treatment facility. If a voluntary return is not arranged, the head of the treatment facility shall inform the committing court of the revocation or absence and the court shall direct a health or peace officer in the county where the patient is located to return the patient to the treatment facility or to another treatment facility. The expense of returning the patient to a treatment facility shall be paid by the commissioner unless paid by the patient or his relatives.

Subd. 13. [APPEAL.] Any patient aggrieved by a revocation decision may petition the special review board within 48 hours, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays, after receipt of the revocation report for a review of the revocation. The matter shall be scheduled within 30 days. The special review board shall review the circumstances leading to the revocation and shall recommend to the commissioner whether or not the revocation shall be upheld. The special review board may also recommend a new provisional discharge at the time of a revocation hearing.

Subd. 14. [VOLUNTARY READMISSION.] With the consent of the head of the treatment facility, a patient may voluntarily return from provisional discharge for a period of up to 30 days and be released from the treatment facility without a further review by the special review board. All the terms and conditions of the provisional discharge order shall remain unchanged if the patient is released again.

Subd. 15. [DISCHARGE.] A person who has been found by the committing court to be mentally ill and dangerous to the public shall not be discharged unless it appears to the satisfaction of the commissioner, after a hearing and a favorable recommendation by a majority of the special review board, that the patient is capable of making an acceptable adjustment to society.

In determining whether a discharge shall be recommended, the special review board and commissioner shall consider whether specific conditions exist to provide a reasonable degree of protection to the public and to assist the patient in adjusting to the community. If the desired conditions do not exist, the discharge shall not be granted.

Sec. 19. [253B.19] [JUDICIAL APPEAL PANEL; PATIENTS MENTALLY ILL AND DANGEROUS TO THE PUBLIC.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION.] The supreme court shall establish an appeal panel composed of three probate judges and two alternate probate judges appointed from among the acting probate judges of the state. Panel members shall serve for terms of one year each. Only three judges need hear any case. One of the regular three appointed judges shall be designated as the chief judge of the appeal panel. The chief judge is vested with power to fix the time and place of all hearings before the panel, issue all notices, subpoena witnesses, appoint counsel for the patient, if necessary, and supervise and direct the operation of the appeal panel. The chief judge shall designate one of the other judges or an alternate judge to act as chief judge in any case where he is unable to act. No member of the appeal panel shall take part in the consideration of any case in which that judge committed the patient in the probate court. The chief justice of the supreme court shall determine the compensation of the judges serving on the appeal panel. The compensation shall be in addition to their regular compensation as probate judges. All compensation and expenses of the appeal panel shall be paid by the department of public welfare.

Subd. 2. [PETITION; HEARING.] The committed person or the county attorney of the county from which a patient as mentally ill and dangerous to the public was committed may petition the appeal panel for a rehearing and reconsideration of a decision by the commissioner. The petition shall be filed with the supreme court within 30 days after the decision of the commissioner. The supreme court shall refer the petition to the chief judge of the appeal panel. The chief judge shall notify the patient, the county attorney of the county of commitment, the commissioner, the head of the treatment facility, any interested person, and other persons the chief judge designates, of the time and place of the hearing on the petition. The notice shall be given at least 14 days prior to the date of the hearing. The hearing shall be within 45 days of the filing of the petition. Any person may oppose the petition. The appeal panel may appoint examiners and may adjourn the hearing from time to time. It shall hear and receive all relevant testimony and evidence and make a record of all proceedings. The patient, his counsel, and the county attorney of the committing county may be present and present and cross-examine all witnesses.

Subd. 3. [DECISION.] A majority of the appeal panel shall rule upon the petition. The order of the appeal panel shall supersede the order of the commissioner in the cases. No order of the appeal panel granting a transfer, discharge or provisional discharge shall be made effective sooner than 15 days after it is issued.

Subd. 4. [EFFECT OF PETITION.] The filing of a petition shall immediately suspend the operation of any order for transfer, discharge, provisional discharge or release from custody of the patient. The patient shall not be discharged or released in any manner except upon order of a majority of the appeal panel.

Subd. 5. [APPEAL TO SUPREME COURT.] An interested party panel may appeal from the decision of the appeal panel to the supreme court in the same manner as other appeals in civil actions. The filing of an appeal shall immediately suspend the operation of any order granting transfer, discharge or provisional discharge, pending the determination of the appeal.

Sec. 20. [253B.20] [DISCHARGE, ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE.]

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE TO COURT.] When a committed person is discharged, provisionally discharged, transferred to another treatment facility, released, or partially hospitalized, or when he dies, is absent without authorization, or is returned, the treatment facility having custody of the patient shall notify the committing court.

Subd. 2. [NECESSITIES.] The head of the treatment facility shall make necessary arrangements at the expense of the state to insure that no patient is discharged, provisionally discharged, or released without suitable clothing. The head of the treatment facility shall, if necessary, provide the patient with a sufficient sum of money to secure transportation home, or to another destination of his choice, if the destination is located within a reasonable distance of the treatment facility. The commissioner shall establish procedures by rule to help the patient receive all public assistance benefits provided by state or federal law to which his residence and circumstances entitle him. The rule shall be uniformly applied in all counties. All counties shall provide temporary relief whenever necessary to meet the intent of this subdivision.

Subd. 3. [NOTICE TO DESIGNATED AGENCY.] The head of the treatment facility, upon the provisional discharge, partial institutionalization, or release of any committed person, shall notify the designated agency before the patient leaves the treatment facility. Whenever possible the notice shall be given at least one week before the patient is to leave the facility.

Subd. 4. [AFTER-CARE SERVICES.] Prior to the date of discharge, provisional discharge, partial institutionalization, or release of any committed person, the designated agency of the county of the patient's residence, in cooperation with the head of the treatment facility, and the patient's physician, if notified pursuant to subdivision 6, shall establish a continuing plan of after-care services for the patient including a plan for medical and psychiatric treatment, nursing care, vocational assistance, and other assistance the patient needs. The designated agency shall provide case management services, supervise and assist the patient in finding employment, suitable shelter, and adequate medical and psychiatric treatment, and aid in his readjustment to the community.

Subd. 5. [CONSULTATION.] In establishing the plan for after-care services the designated agency shall consult with persons or agencies, including any public health nurse and vocational rehabilitation personnel, to insure adequate planning and periodic review for after-care services.

Subd. 6. [NOTICE TO PHYSICIAN.] The head of the treatment facility shall notify the physician of any committed person at the time of the patient's discharge, provisional discharge, partial institutionalization, or release, unless the patient objects to the notice.

Subd. 7. [SERVICES.] A committed person may at any time after discharge, provisional discharge, partial institutionalization, or release, apply to the head of the treatment facility within whose district he resides for treatment. If the head of the treatment facility determines that the applicant requires service, he may provide needed services related to mental illness, mental retardation, or chemical dependency to the applicant. The services shall be provided in regional centers under terms and conditions established by the commissioner.

Sec. 21. [253B.21] [COMMITMENT TO AN AGENCY OF THE UNITED STATES.]

Subdivision 1. [ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES.] If the patient is entitled to care by any agency of the United States in this state, the commitment warrant shall be in triplicate, committing the patient to the joint custody of the head of the treatment facility and the federal agency. If the federal agency is unable or unwilling to receive the patient at the time of commitment, the patient may subsequently be transferred to it upon its request.

Subd. 2. [APPLICABLE REGULATIONS.] Any person, when admitted to an institution of a federal agency within or without this state, shall be subject to the rules and regulations of the federal agency, except that nothing in this section shall deprive any person of rights secured to patients of state treatment facilities by this chapter.

Subd. 3. [POWERS.] The chief officer of any treatment facility operated by a federal agency to which any person is admitted shall have the same powers as the heads of treatment facilities within this state with respect to admission, retention of custody, transfer, parole, release, or discharge of the committed person.

Subd. 4. [JUDGMENTS.] The judgment or order of commitment by a court of competent jurisdiction of another state committing a person to a federal agency for care or treatment, shall have the same force and effect as to the committed person while in this state as in the jurisdiction in which is situated the court entering the judgment or making the order. Consent is given to the application of the law of the committing state in respect to the authority of the chief officer of any treatment facility of a federal agency, to retain custody of, transfer, parole, release, or discharge the committed person.

Subd. 5. [TRANSFER.] Upon receipt of a certificate of a federal agency that facilities are available for the care or treatment of any committed person, the head of the treatment facility may transfer the person to a federal agency for care or treatment. Upon the transfer, the committing court shall be notified by the transferring agency. No person shall be transferred to a federal agency if he is confined pursuant to conviction of any felony or gross misdemeanor or if he has been acquitted of the charge solely on the ground of insanity, unless prior to transfer the committing court enters an order for the transfer after appropriate motion and hearing.

Written notice of the transfer shall be given to the patient's spouse or parent, or if none be known, to some other interested person.

Sec. 22. [253B.22] [REVIEW BOARDS.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The commissioner shall establish a review board of three or more persons for each regional center to review the admission and retention of patients institutionalized under this chapter. One member shall be qualified in the diagnosis of mental illness or mental retardation and one member shall be an attorney. The commissioner may, upon written request from the appropriate federal authority, establish a review panel for any federal treatment facility within the state to review the admission and retention of patients hospitalized under this chapter. For any review board established for a federal treatment facility, one of the persons appointed by the commissioner shall be the commissioner of veterans affairs or his designee.

Subd. 2. [RIGHT TO APPEAR.] Each treatment facility shall be visited by the review board at least once every six months. Upon request each patient in the treatment facility shall have the right to appear before the review board during the visit.

Subd. 3. [NOTICE.] The head of the treatment facility shall notify each patient at the time of admission by a simple written statement of the patient's right to appear before the review board and the next date when the board will visit the treatment facility. A request to appear before the board need not be in writing. Any employee of the treatment facility receiving a request to appear before the board shall notify the head of the treatment facility of the request.

Subd. 4. [REVIEW.] The board shall review the admission and retention of patients at its respective treatment facility. The board may examine the records of all patients admitted and may examine personally at its own instigation all patients who from the records or otherwise appear to justify reasonable doubt as to continued need of confinement in a treatment facility. The review board shall report its findings to the commissioner and to the head of the treatment facility. The board may also receive reports from patients, interested persons, and treatment facility employees, and investigate conditions affecting the care of patients.

Sec. 23. [253B.23] [GENERAL PROVISIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [COSTS OF HEARINGS.] (a) In each proceeding under this chapter the court shall allow and order paid to each witness subpoenaed the fees and mileage prescribed by law; to each examiner a reasonable sum for his services and for travel; to persons conveying the patient to the place of detention, disbursements for the travel, board, and lodging of the patient and of themselves and their authorized assistants; and to the patient's counsel, when appointed by the court, a reasonable sum for travel and for the time spent in court or in preparing for the hearing. Upon the court's order, the county auditor shall issue a warrant on the county treasurer for payment of the amounts allowed.

(b) When the residence of the patient is found to be in another county, the committing court shall transmit to the county auditor a statement of the expenses of the taking into custody, confinement, examination, commitment, conveyance to the place of detention, and rehearing. The auditor shall transmit the statement to the auditor of the county of the patient's residence. The claim shall be paid as other claims against that county. If the auditor to whom this claim is transmitted denies the claim, he shall transmit it, together with his objections to the commissioner. The commissioner shall determine the question of residence and certify his findings to each auditor. If the claim is not paid within 30 days after certification, an action may be maintained on it in the district court of the claimant county.

(c) Whenever venue of a proceeding has been transferred under this chapter, the costs of the proceedings shall be reimbursed to the county of the patient's residence by the state.

Subd. 2. [LEGAL RESULTS OF COMMITMENT STATUS.] (a) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter and in sections 246.15 and 246.16, no person by reason of commitment or treatment pursuant to this chapter shall be deprived of any legal right, including but not limited to the right to dispose of property, sue and be sued, execute instruments, make purchases, enter into contractual relationships, vote, and hold a driver's license. Commitment or treatment of any patient pursuant to this chapter is not a judicial determination of legal incompetency except to the extent provided in section 3, subdivision 6.

(b) Proceedings for determination of legal incompetency and the appointment of a guardian for a person subject to commitment under this chapter may be commenced before, during, or after commitment proceedings have been instituted and may be conducted jointly with the commitment proceedings. The court shall notify the head of the treatment facility to which the patient is committed of a finding that the patient is incompetent.

(c) Where the person to be committed is a minor or owns property of value and it appears to the court that the person is not competent to manage his estate, the court shall appoint a general or special guardian or conservator of the person's estate as provided by law.

Subd. 3. [FALSE REPORTS.] Any person who willfully makes, joins in, or advises the making of any false petition or report, or knowingly or willfully makes any false representation for the purpose of causing the petition or report to be made or for the purpose of causing an individual to be improperly committed under this chapter, is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. The attorney general or his designee shall prosecute violations of this section.

Subd. 4. [IMMUNITY.] All persons acting in good faith, upon either actual knowledge or information thought by them to be reliable, who act pursuant to any provision of this chapter or who procedurally or physically assist in the commitment of any individual, pursuant to this chapter, are not subject to any civil or criminal liability under this chapter. Any privilege otherwise existing between patient and physician or between patient and examiner is waived as to any physician or examiner who provides information with respect to a patient pursuant to any provision of this chapter.

Subd. 5. [HABEAS CORPUS.] Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to abridge the right of any person to the writ of habeas corpus.

Subd. 6. [COURT COMMISSIONER.] The court commissioner may act for the probate judge upon a petition for the commitment of a patient when the probate judge is unable to act.

Subd. 7. [APPEAL.] The commissioner or any other aggrieved party may appeal to the district court from any order entered under this chapter in the manner prescribed in section 487.39.

Upon perfection of the appeal, the return shall be filed forthwith. The district court shall hear the appeal within 45 days after service of the notice of appeal. This appeal shall not suspend the operation of the order appealed from until the appeal is determined, unless otherwise ordered by the district court. Notwithstanding any contrary provision in section 487.39, an appeal may be taken from the determination of a district court judge to the supreme court without leave of the supreme court.

Subd. 8. [RULES.] The commissioner shall establish rules consistent with the provisions of this chapter. The commissioner shall prescribe the form of applications, records, reports, and medical certificates required by this chapter and the information to be contained in them.

Subd. 9. [TRANSCRIPTS.] For purposes of taking an appeal or petition for habeas corpus or for a judicial determination of mental competency or need for commitment, transcripts of commitment proceedings, or portions of them, shall be made available to the parties upon written application to the court. Upon a showing by a party that he is unable to pay the cost of a transcript, it shall be made available at no expense to the party.

Subd. 10. [SEALING OF RECORDS.] Upon a motion by a person who has been the subject of a judicial commitment proceeding, the probate court for the county in which the person resides may seal all judicial records of the commitment proceedings if it finds that access to the records creates undue hardship for the person. The county attorney shall be notified of the motion and may participate in the hearings. All hearings on the motion shall be in camera. The files and records of the court in proceedings on the motion shall be sealed except to the moving party, county attorney, or other persons by court order.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 216B.16, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE.] Unless the commission otherwise orders, no public utility shall change ~~any~~ a rate which has been duly established under this chapter, except ~~after 90~~ upon 60 days notice to the commission, ~~which~~. The notice shall include statements of facts, expert opinions, substantiating documents, and exhibits, supporting the change requested, and ~~further shall~~ state the change proposed to be made in the rates then in force, and the time when the modified rates will go into effect. The filing utility shall give written notice, as approved by the commission, of the proposed change to the governing body of each municipality and county in the area affected. All proposed changes shall be shown by filing new schedules or shall be plainly indicated upon schedules on file and in force at the time.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 216B.16, Subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [SETTLEMENT BARRED.] When a public utility proposes changes in general rates that would increase general rates paid by consumers by more than $500,000 annually, the commission shall not approve the change until after requiring the office of administrative hearings to conduct a contested case hearing on, at a minimum, the appropriate rate base, expense and revenue levels for the test year, and the rate of return. If the formal parties to the contested case choose not to cross-examine the testimony presented, it shall be the duty of the commission and its staff to make inquiry of the witnesses presented to ensure that the testimony is well reasoned and constitutes substantial evidence. After a report of the examiner has been issued, the commission may proceed to take action on the proposed rates consistent with the provisions of this section. The commission shall not accept any stipulation that is not agreed to by all intervening parties.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 216B.16, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [SUSPENSION OF RATES; HEARING.] Whenever there is filed with the commission ~~any~~ a schedule modifying or resulting in a change in any rates then in force as provided in subdivision 1, the commission may suspend the operation of the schedule by filing with the schedule of rates and delivering to the affected utility a statement in writing of its reasons for the suspension, at any time before the rates become effective. The suspension shall not be for a longer period than ~~90 days~~ ten months beyond the ~~time when the schedule of rates would otherwise go into effect~~ initial filing date. During the suspension the commission shall determine whether all questions of the reasonableness of the rates requested raised by persons deemed interested or by the administrative division of the department of public service can be resolved to the satisfaction of the commission. If the commission finds that all significant issues raised have not been resolved to its satisfaction, or upon petition by ten percent of the affected customers or ~~400~~ 250 affected customers, whichever is less, it shall refer the matter to the office of administrative hearings with instructions for a public hearing as a contested case pursuant to chapter 15, ~~and may further extend the period of suspension for a period not to exceed a total of nine months except as otherwise provided in this section. The commission may order that the issues presented by the proposed rate changes be bifurcated into two separate hearings as follows: (1) determination of the utility's revenue requirements and (2) determination of the rate design. Upon issuance of both hearing examiner reports, the issues shall again be joined for consideration and final determination by the commission. All prehearing discovery activities of state agency intervenors shall be consolidated and conducted by the department of public service.~~ If the commission does not make a final determination concerning ~~any~~ a schedule of rates within a ~~period of nine~~ ten months beyond after the ~~time when the schedule of rates would otherwise go into effect, under subdivision 1~~ initial filing date, the schedule shall be deemed to have been approved by the commission. For the purposes of this ~~subdivision~~ section, "final determination" means the initial decision of the commission and not any order which may be entered by the commission in response to a petition for rehearing or other further relief. The commission may further suspend rates until it determines all ~~such~~ those petitions.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 216B.16, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [INTERIM RATES.] Notwithstanding any order of suspension of a proposed increase in rates, the public utility may put the suspended commission shall order an interim rate schedule into effect on the date when it would have become effective if not suspended, or any date subsequent thereto within the suspension period, by filing with the commission a bond in an amount approved by the commission with sureties approved by the commission, conditioned upon the refund, in a manner to be prescribed by order of the commission, of the excess in increased rates, including interest thereon which shall be at the current rate of interest as determined by the commission, collected during the period of the suspension if the schedule so put into effect is finally disallowed by the commission. There may be substituted for the bond other arrangements satisfactory to the commission for the protection of persons affected not later than 60 days after the initial filing date. The commission shall order the interim rate schedule ex parte without a public hearing. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 216.24, 216.25, 216B.27 and 216B.52, no interim rate schedule ordered by the commission pursuant to this subdivision shall be subject to an application for a rehearing or an appeal to a court until the commission has rendered its final determination. Unless the commission finds that exigent circumstances exist, the interim rate schedule shall be calculated using the proposed test year cost of capital, rate base, and expenses, except that it shall include: (1) a rate of return on common equity for the utility equal to that authorized by the commission in the utility's most recent rate proceeding; (2) rate base or expense items the same in nature and kind as those allowed by a currently effective order of the commission in the utility's most recent rate proceeding; and (3) no change in the existing rate design. In the case of a utility which has not been subject to a prior commission determination, the commission shall base the interim rate schedule on its most recent determination concerning a similar utility.

If, at the time of its final determination, the commission finds that the interim rates are in excess of the rates in the final determination, the commission shall order the utility to refund the excess amount collected under the interim rate schedule, including interest thereon which shall be at the rate of interest determined by the commission. The utility shall commence distribution of the refund to its customers within 120 days of the final order, not subject to rehearing or appeal. If, at the time of its final determination, the commission finds that the interim rates are less than the rates in the final determination, the commission shall prescribe a method whereby the utility will recover the difference in revenues from the date of the final determination to the date the new rate schedules are put into effect.

If the public utility fails to make refunds within the period of time prescribed by the commission, the commission shall sue therefor and is authorized to may recover on behalf of all persons entitled to a refund. In addition to the amount of the refund and interest due, the commission shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorney's fees, court costs and estimated cost of administering the distribution of the refund to persons entitled thereto. concerning any previously filed change of the rate schedule or the change has otherwise become effective under subdivision 2, unless it finds that a four month delay would unreasonably burden the utility, its customers, or its shareholders and that an earlier imposition of interim rates is therefore necessary.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 216B.16, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [DETERMINATION.] If, after the hearing, the commission finds the rates to be unjust or unreasonable or discriminatory, the commission shall determine the level of rates to be charged or applied by the utility for the service in question and shall fix ~~the same~~ them by order to be served upon the utility; ~~and~~. The rates ~~are~~ shall thereafter ~~to~~ be observed until changed, as provided by ~~Laws 1974, Chapter 429~~ this chapter. In no event shall the rates exceed the level of rates requested by the public utility, except that individual rates may be adjusted upward or downward. Rate design changes shall be prospective from the effective date of the new rate schedules approved by the commission.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 216B.16, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [ENERGY COST ADJUSTMENTS.] Notwithstanding any other provision of ~~Laws 1974, Chapter 429~~ this chapter, the commission may permit a public utility to file rate schedules containing provisions for the automatic adjustment of charges for public utility service in direct relation to changes in federally regulated wholesale rates for energy delivered through interstate facilities or fuel used in generation of electricity or the manufacture of gas.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 237.075, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE.] Unless the commission otherwise orders, no telephone company shall change ~~any~~ a rate which has been duly established under this chapter, except ~~after 90~~ upon 60 days notice to the commission. The notice shall include statements of facts, expert opinions, substantiating documents, and exhibits, supporting the change requested, and state the change proposed to be made in the rates then in force, and the time when the modified rates will go into effect. The filing telephone company shall give written notice, as approved by the commission, of the proposed change to the governing body of each municipality and county in the area affected. All proposed changes shall be shown by filing new schedules or shall be plainly indicated upon schedules on file and in force at the time.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 237.075, Subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [SETTLEMENT BARRED.] When a telephone company proposes changes in general rates that would increase general rates paid by consumers by more than $500,000 annually, the commission shall not approve the change until after requiring the office of administrative hearings to conduct a contested case hearing on, at a minimum, the appropriate rate base, expense and revenue levels for the test year, and the rate of return. If the formal parties to the contested case choose not to cross-examine the testimony presented, it shall be the duty of the commission and its staff to make inquiry of the witnesses presented to ensure that the testimony is well reasoned and constitutes substantial evidence. After a report of the examiner has been issued, the commission may proceed to take action on the proposed rates consistent with the provisions of this section. The commission shall not accept any stipulation that is not agreed to by all intervening parties.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 237.075, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [SUSPENSION OF RATES; HEARING.] ~~When~~ Whenever there is filed with the commission as provided in subdivision 1 a schedule modifying or resulting in a change in any rate then in force, the commission may suspend the operation of the schedule by filing ~~of~~ with the schedule of rates and delivering to the affected telephone company a statement in writing of its reasons for the suspension at any time before the rates become effective. The suspension shall not be for a longer period than ~~90 days~~ ten months beyond the time when the ~~schedule of rates would otherwise go into effect~~ initial filing date. During the suspension the commission shall determine whether all questions of the reasonableness of the rates requested raised by persons deemed interested or by the administrative division of the department of public service can be resolved to the satisfaction of the commission. If the commission finds that all significant issues raised have not been resolved to its satisfaction, or upon petition by ten percent of the affected customers or ~~400~~ 250 affected customers, whichever is less, it shall refer the matter to the office of administrative hearings with instructions for a public hearing as a contested case pursuant to chapter 15, ~~and may further extend the period of suspension; but in no event shall the period of suspension be more than nine months from the date when the schedule of rates would otherwise go into effect~~ except as otherwise provided in this section. The commission may order that the issues presented by the proposed rate changes be bifurcated into two separate hearings as follows: (1) determination of the telephone company's revenue requirements and (2) determination of the rate design. Upon issuance of both hearing examiner reports, the issues shall again be joined for consideration and final determination by the commission. All prehearing discovery activities of state agency intervenors shall be consolidated and conducted by the department of public service. If the commission does not make a final determination ~~on or before the expiration of 12 months from the date the rates were initially filed~~ concerning a schedule of rates within ten months after the initial filing date, the schedule of rates shall be deemed to have been approved by the commission. ~~The overcharge resulting from implementation of the schedule prior to the final determination of the commission shall be refunded to the customers of the telephone company in a manner prescribed by rules of the commission.~~ For the purposes of this subdivision section, "final determination" means the initial decision of the commission and not any order which may be entered by the commission in response to a petition for rehearing or other further relief. The commission may further suspend rates until it determines all ~~such~~ those petitions.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 237.075, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [INTERIM RATES.] Notwithstanding any order of suspension of a proposed increase in rates, the ~~telephone company may put the suspended~~ commission shall order an interim rate schedule into effect on the date when it would have become effective if not suspended, or any date subsequent thereto within the suspension period, by filing with the commission a bond in an amount approved by the commission with sureties approved by the commission, conditioned upon the refund, in a manner to be prescribed by order of the commission, of the excess in increased rates, including interest thereon which shall be at the current rate of interest as determined by the commission, collected during the period of the suspension if the schedule so put into effect is finally disallowed by the commission. There may be substituted for the bond other arrangements satisfactory to the commission for the protection of persons affected not later than 60 days after the initial filing date. The commission shall order the interim rate schedule ex parte without a public hearing. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 216.24, 216.25, and 237.25, no interim rate schedule ordered by the commission pursuant to this subdivision shall be subject to an application for a rehearing or an appeal to a court until the commission has rendered its final determination. Unless the commission finds that exigent circumstances exist, the interim rate schedule shall be calculated using the proposed test year cost of capital, rate base, and expenses, except that it shall include: (1) a rate of return on common equity for the company equal to that authorized by the commission in the company's most recent rate proceeding; (2) rate base or expense items the same in nature and kind as those allowed by a currently effective order of the commission in the company's most recent rate proceeding; and (3) no change in the existing rate design, except for products and services offered by nonregulated competitors. In the case of a company which has not been subject to a prior commission determination or has not had a general rate adjustment in the preceding three years, the commission shall base the interim rate schedule on its most recent determination concerning a similar company.

If, at the time of its final determination, the commission finds that the interim rates are in excess of the rates in the final determination, the commission shall order the company to refund the excess amount collected under the interim rate schedule, including interest thereon which shall be at the rate of interest determined by the commission. The company shall commence distribution of the refund to its customers within 120 days of the final order, not subject to rehearing or appeal. If, at the time of its final determination, the commission finds that the interim rates are less than the rates in the final determination, the commission shall prescribe a method whereby the company will recover the difference in revenues from the date of the final determination to the date the new rate schedules are put into effect.

If the telephone company fails to make refunds within the period of time prescribed by the commission, the commission shall sue therefor and is authorized to may recover on behalf of all persons entitled to a refund. In addition to the amount of the refund and interest due, the commission shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorney's fees, court costs and estimated cost of administering the distribution of the refund to persons entitled thereto. No suit under this subdivision shall be maintained unless instituted within two years after the end of the period of time prescribed by the commission for repayment of refunds. However, no telephone company The commission shall put a suspended not order an interim rate schedule into effect as provided by this subdivision until at least 90 days four months after the commission it has made a final determination concerning any previously filed change of the rate schedule or the change has otherwise become effective under subdivision 2, unless it finds that a four month delay would unreasonably burden the company, its customers, or its shareholders and that an earlier imposition of interim rates is therefore necessary.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 237.075, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [DETERMINATION.] If, after the hearing, the commission finds the rates to be unjust or unreasonable or discriminatory, the commission shall determine the rates to be charged or applied by the telephone company for the service in question and shall fix them by order to be served upon the telephone company. The rates shall thereafter be observed until changed, as provided by this chapter. In no event shall the rates exceed the level ~~of~~ of rates requested by the telephone company, except that individual rates may be adjusted upward or downward. Rate design changes shall be prospective from the effective date of the new rate schedules approved by the commission.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 237.075, Subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [FACTORS TO BE CONSIDERED.] The commission, in the exercise of its powers under this chapter to determine just and reasonable rates for telephone companies, shall give due consideration to the public need for adequate, efficient, and reasonable service and to the need of the telephone company for revenue sufficient to enable it to meet the cost of furnishing the service, including adequate provision for depreciation of its telephone company property used and useful in rendering service to the public, and to earn a fair and reasonable return upon the investment in the property. In determining the rate base upon which the telephone company is to be allowed to earn a fair rate of return, the commission shall give due consideration to evidence of the cost of the property when first devoted to public use, to prudent acquisition cost to the telephone company, less appropriate depreciation on each ~~cost~~, to construction work in progress, to offsets in the nature of capital provided by sources other than the investors, and to other expenses of a capital nature. To the extent that construction work in progress is included in the rate base, the income used in determining the actual return on the telephone company property ~~shall~~ may include an allowance for funds used during construction. For purposes of determining rate base, the commission shall consider the original cost of telephone company property included in the base and shall make no allowance for its estimated current replacement value.

The homeowner, the financial institution and the city, may agree to any convenient method of repayment.*

(b) The city may accept payment by a promissory note in a principal amount equal to the contract price, repayable in equal periodic installments, including both principal and interest on the declining principal balance. Provisions may be agreed upon to permit or restrict prepayment.

Accordingly, it is in the public interest to study the health, safety, environmental, and economic impacts of uranium development and to develop and adopt prior to the development of uranium resources within the state a state policy, laws and regulations for uranium development consistent with the state's paramount concern for the protection of its air, water, land, and other natural resources from pollution, impairment or destruction and the protection of the public health, safety, and welfare.*

Subd. 2. [SHORT TITLE.] Sections 1 to 12 may be cited as the Uranium Policy, Regulation, and Development Act.

Subd. 2. [APPLICATION FEE.] The petition shall be accompanied by a fee of $50,000, payable to the board. Fees shall be deposited in the general fund and are appropriated to the board for the survey, evaluation, and reports by the committee under sections 6 and 8, and for completion of the studies authorized under section 9.

If it finds that uranium development can so proceed, the committee shall recommend the state policies, laws and regulations needed in relation to uranium development to protect the public health, safety and the environment and to address the impact of uranium development on state and local economic conditions and on the budget and revenues of state and local government. The recommendations shall be based on sound scientific, technical and professional findings and opinion as provided in the studies. The committee, with the aid of the board, shall identify the state agencies which should be directed to implement the policies, laws and regulations proposed in its recommendations.*

The studies authorized by the legislature and the report and recommendations made pursuant to this section shall be a part of the factual basis considered by the agencies directed to adopt rules under this section in their rulemaking process.*

Sec. 10. [116C.89] [RESPONSIBILITY OF URANIUM DEVELOPERS.]

Subdivision 1. [OTHER STATUTES, RULES.] Nothing contained in sections 1 to 12 shall be construed as relieving uranium developers from the duty to comply with all other applicable statutes, rules, regulations, and ordinances.

Subd. 2. [RIGHT OF ENTRY.] The committee, the board, and any other state agency having any authority or duty under sections 1 to 12, or an employee or representative of the committee, board, or agency when authorized by the committee, board or agency, may enter the property identified in a petition of intent as the location of a proposed uranium development to make inspections and gather information necessary to carry out duties or authority under those sections.

Sec. 11. [116C.90] [LOCAL CONTROL.]

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [16.715] [INCENTIVE PAY.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] Each department, agency, or unit of state government may apply to the board created in section 16.71 for the award of incentive pay to its employees. The department, agency, or unit must identify to the satisfaction of the board the expenditures and receipts attributable to that unit. The application shall be submitted prior to the beginning of a fiscal year and shall have been reviewed by the head of the department or agency within which a unit is located. Application shall be on a form specified by rules promulgated pursuant to section 16.71, subdivision 5. The application shall also include criteria developed by the unit to evaluate the effectiveness of the proposals of the unit.

The board shall select units to participate in the incentive pay program for the fiscal year from those proposals considered reasonable and practical that also include acceptable evaluation criteria.

Subd. 2. [QUALIFICATIONS.] To qualify for the award of incentive pay to its employees, a unit must demonstrate to the satisfaction of the board that it has operated during the fiscal year:

(a) At less cost than the immediately preceding fiscal year, and either with an increase in the level of services rendered or with no decrease in the level of services rendered; or

(b) At no greater cost than the immediately preceding fiscal year and with an increase in the level of services rendered.

Subd. 3. [EVALUATION.] The board shall satisfy itself that the claimed cost of operation is real and that it is not, in whole or in part, the result of:

(a) Chance;

(b) A lowering of the quality of the service rendered;

(c) Reduced pass-through or transfer expenditures;

(d) Receipts realized in excess of amounts budgeted;

(e) Nonrecurrence of expenditures which were single outlay, or one-time expenditures, in the preceding fiscal year;

(f) Failure to reward deserving employees through promotions, reclassification, award of merit salary increments, or salary increases authorized by salary range revisions;

(g) Postponement of normal purchases and/or repairs to a future fiscal year;

(h) Stockpiling inventories in the immediately preceding fiscal year so as to reduce requirements in the eligible fiscal year;

(i) Substitution of federal funds, other receipts, or nonstate funds for state appropriations;

(j) Unreasonable postponement of payments of accounts payable until the fiscal year immediately following the eligible fiscal year;

(k) Shifting of expenses to another unit of government; or

(l) Any other practice, event, or device which the board decides has caused a distortion which makes it falsely appear that a savings or increase in level of services has occurred.

The board shall consider reductions in expenditures made possible by the following:

(a) Reductions in overtime;

(b) Elimination of consultant fees;

(c) Less temporary help;

(d) Elimination of budgeted positions;

(e) Improved methods of communication;

(f) Improved systems and procedures;

(g) Better deployment and utilization of staff;

(h) Elimination of unnecessary travel;

(i) Elimination of unnecessary printing and mailing;

(j) Elimination of unnecessary energy use and reduction of total energy costs;

(k) Elimination of unnecessary payments for advertising, memberships, dues, and subscriptions;

(l) Elimination of waste, duplication, and operations of doubtful value;

(m) Improved space utilization; and

(n) Any other items considered by the board as representing true savings.

Subd. 4. [AWARDS.] At the conclusion of the eligible fiscal year, the board shall compare the expenditures of that unit for the immediately preceding fiscal year and, after making any adjustments necessary to eliminate distortions, shall determine the amount, if any, that the unit has reduced its costs of operations or increased its level of services in the eligible fiscal year. Adjustments to eliminate distortions may include any legislative increases in employee compensation and inflationary increases in the cost of services, materials and supplies. If the board determines that a unit qualifies for an award, it shall award to the employees of that unit a sum not in excess of 25 percent of the amount determined to be the savings to the state for the level of services rendered. The amount awarded shall be divided and distributed in equal shares to the employees of the unit, except that employees who worked for that unit less than the full 12 months of the fiscal year shall receive only a pro rata share based on the fraction of the year worked for that unit. Money for incentive pay shall be drawn from the unit's principal department's ending balance for the eligible fiscal year.

Subd. 5. [ANNUAL REPORT.] The chairman of the board shall prepare and submit to the legislature a comprehensive annual status report on the board's activities, decisions, awards, and recommendations with respect to the employee incentive pay program."

Subdivision 1. [WATERSHED MANAGEMENT TAX DISTRICT.] Any local government unit planning for water management under sections 10 and 11 may establish a watershed management tax district in the territory within the watershed, for the purpose of paying the costs of the planning required under sections 10 and 11. Any local government unit which has part of its territory within a watershed for which a plan has been adopted in accordance with section 10 and which has a local water management plan adopted in accordance with section 11 may establish a watershed management tax district in the territory within the watershed, for the purpose of paying capital costs of the water management facilities described in the capital improvement program of the plans and for the purpose of paying for normal and routine maintenance of the facilities.

Subd. 2. [PROCEDURE.] The district shall be established by ordinance adopted after a hearing. Notice of the time, place, and purpose of the hearing shall be published for two successive weeks in the official newspaper of the local government unit, ending at least seven days before the day of the hearing. The ordinance shall describe with particularity the territory or area to be included in the district. After adoption, the ordinance shall be filed with the county auditor and county recorder. The district may be dissolved by following the procedures prescribed for the establishment of the district.

Subd. 3. [TAX.] After adoption of the ordinance under subdivision 2, a local government unit may annually levy a tax on all taxable property in the district for the purposes for which the tax district is established. The proceeds of the tax shall be paid into a fund reserved for these purposes. Any proceeds remaining in the reserve fund at the time the tax is terminated or the district is dissolved shall be transferred and irrevocably pledged to the debt service fund of the local government unit to be used solely to reduce tax levies for bonded indebtedness of taxable property in the district. A tax levied in accordance with this subdivision for paying capital costs is a levy for the payment of principal and interest on bonded indebtedness within the meaning of Minnesota Statutes, Section 275.50, Subdivision 5, Clause (e).

Subd. 4. [BONDS.] After adoption of the ordinance under subdivision 2, and after a contract for the construction of all or part of an improvement has been entered into or the work has been ordered done by day labor, local government unit may issue obligations in the amount it deems necessary to pay in whole or in part the capital cost incurred and estimated to be incurred in making the improvement. The obligations shall be payable out of the proceeds of the tax levied pursuant to subdivision 3. The local unit may by resolution of its governing body adopted prior to the sale of obligations pledge the full faith, credit and taxing power of the local unit to assure payment of the principal and interest in the event the proceeds of the tax levy in the district are insufficient to pay principal and interest. The amount of any taxes which are required to be levied outside of the territory of the tax district or taken from the general funds of the local unit to pay principal and interest on the obligations shall be reimbursed to the local unit from taxes levied within the territory of the tax district. Obligations shall be issued in accordance with chapter 475, except that an election is not required and the amount of any obligations shall not be included in determining the net indebtedness of the local unit under the provisions of any law or charter limiting indebtedness.

Sec. 14. [473.882] [WATERSHED MANAGEMENT ORGANIZATION; CAPITAL IMPROVEMENTS; PAYMENT BY COUNTY.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL AUTHORITY.] The authority provided to watershed districts in this section is in addition to the authority provided in chapter 112. A watershed management organization which has adopted a watershed plan in accordance with section 10 may certify for payment by the county as provided in this section all or any part of the cost of a capital improvement contained in the capital improvement program of the plan.

Subd. 2. [PROCEDURE.] A copy of the plan for the improvement shall be forwarded to the county board. The organization shall then hold a public hearing on the proposed improvement, following publication once each week for two successive weeks before the date of the hearing in a legal newspaper published in the county or counties in which a part or all of the affected waters and lands are located. The last publication shall occur not more than 30 days nor less than ten days before the hearing. The notice shall state the time and place of hearing, the general nature of the proposed improvement, the estimated cost, and the method by which the cost of the improvement is to be paid, including the cost to be allocated to each county under subdivision 3. Not less than ten days before the hearing, notice by mail shall be given to the counties and to each home rule charter or statutory city or town located wholly or partly within the territory of the watershed management organization. Failure to give mailed notice or defects in the notice shall not invalidate the proceedings. At the time and place specified in the notice the organization shall hear all parties interested in the proposed improvement. If upon full hearing the organization finds that the improvement will be conducive to public health and promote the general welfare, and is in compliance with sections 7 to 14 and the plan adopted pursuant to section 10, it shall make findings accordingly, determine the cost of the improvement, and certify the cost to the county or counties for payment.

Subd. 3. [APPORTIONMENT OF COSTS.] If the territory of the watershed management organization extends into more than one county, the cost of the improvement shall be certified to the county boards in an amount bearing the same proportion to the cost of the improvement as the assessed value of all taxable property in the part of the territory of the organization located within each county bears to the assessed value of all taxable property in the territory of the organization.

Subd. 4. [COUNTY PAYMENT.] Each county receiving a certification for payment from a watershed management organization pursuant to this section shall provide funds to meet its proportionate share of the cost of the improvement as shown in the certification by the organization.

Subd. 5. [BONDS.] In order to make the payment required by subdivision 4, the county board of each county may issue general obligation bonds of the county in the amount necessary to pay all or part of the cost of improvements certified to the county board or to refund general obligation bonds issued for this purpose. The bonds shall be sold, issued, and secured in accordance with the provisions of chapter 475 for general obligation bonds, except as otherwise provided in this subdivision. No election shall be required.

Subd. 6. [TAX.] For the payment of principal and interest on the bonds issued under subdivision 5 and the payment required under subdivision 4, the county shall irrevocably pledge and appropriate the proceeds of an ad valorem tax levied on all taxable property located within the territory of the watershed management organization for which the bonds are issued. Each year until the reserve for payment of the bonds is sufficient to retire the bonds, the county shall levy on all taxable property in the territory of the organization, without respect to any statutory or other limitation on taxes, an amount of taxes sufficient to pay principal and interest on the bonds and to restore any deficiencies in reserves required to be maintained for payment of the bonds. If at any time the amounts available from the levy on property in the territory of the organization are insufficient to pay principal and interest on the bonds when due, the county shall make payment from any available funds in the county treasury. The amount of any taxes which are required to be levied outside of the territory of the watershed management organization or taken from the general funds of the county to pay principal or interest on the bonds shall be reimbursed to the county from taxes levied within the territory of the watershed management organization.

Subd. 7. [MAINTENANCE LEVY.] For the purpose of creating a maintenance fund to be used for normal and routine maintenance of a work of improvement constructed in whole or part with money provided by the county pursuant to subdivision 4, the board of managers of a watershed district, with the approval of the county, may impose an ad valorem levy on all property located within the territory of the watershed district. The levy shall be certified, levied, collected, and distributed as provided in section 112.611, and shall be in addition to any other moneys levied and distributed to the district thereunder. The proceeds of the levy shall be deposited in a separate maintenance and repair account to be used only for the purpose for which the levy was made.

The referendum shall be held on a date set by the school board. Only one such election may be held to approve a levy increase which will commence in a specific school year. The question on the ballot shall state the maximum amount of the increased levy in mills, the amount that will be raised by that millage in the first year it is to be levied, and that the millage shall be used to finance school operations. The question may designate a specific number of years for which the referendum authorization shall apply. If approved, the amount provided by the approved millage applied to each year's taxable valuation shall be authorized for certification for the number of years approved, if applicable, or until revoked or reduced by the voters of the district at a subsequent referendum.

The weighted averages shall be based on the levy and pupil units in the districts which qualified for an excess levy in 1981 pursuant to subdivision 6b.*

(3) The additional levy in 1982 shall not exceed an amount equal to

(a) the difference between

(i) the greater of (A) the average grandfather allowance per actual pupil unit for districts in the same development region which qualified in 1981 for an excess levy pursuant to subdivision 6b, weighted by the number of actual pupil units in those districts in the 1981-1982 school year, or (B) the statewide average grandfather allowance per actual pupil unit for districts which qualified in 1981 for an excess levy pursuant to subdivision 6b, weighted by the number of actual pupil units in those districts in the 1981-1982 school year; and

(ii) the grandfather allowance of the district; times

(b) the number of actual pupil units in the district in the 1981-82 school year.

(4) In 1983 and each year thereafter, a district which qualified under clause (2) to make an additional levy may levy an amount equal to the greater of

(a) the amount levied pursuant to this subdivision in 1982; or

(b) the amount in clause (3)(a) times the number of actual pupil units in the district in the school year preceding the year in which the levy is certified.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 275.125, Subdivision 7a, is amended to read:

Subd. 7a. [DISCRETIONARY LEVY.] (1) For purposes of this subdivision, the terms "discretionary allowance" and "discretionary mill rate" shall have the meanings given them in section 124.2125.

(3) In 1981 and each year thereafter, a district which levies the maximum permissible amount pursuant to subdivision 2a and subdivision 6b, and where the net unappropriated balance in all operating funds as of the preceding June

30 is less than $165 per actual and AFDC pupil unit in the district in the school year when the levy is certified, may levy an amount which shall not exceed the lesser of (a) one mill times the district's adjusted assessed valuation for the preceding year or (b) the product obtained by multiplying the applicable discretionary allowance times the total number of pupil units in the district in the school year when the levy is certified, without holding a public hearing or conducting a referendum pursuant to clause (5).

(4) The board is not required to hold a public hearing or conduct a referendum on the levy authorized by this subdivision in any year when it levies pursuant to clause (3) or when the board proposes to levy an amount not to exceed an amount equal to the preceding year's adjusted assessed valuation times the largest number of EARC mills previously levied by the district pursuant to this subdivision.

(5)(a) Except as provided in clause (3), the provisions of clause (5) shall apply to the levy authorization in this subdivision in any year when the board either proposes to levy pursuant to this subdivision for the first time or proposes to increase the number of mills which it levies against its adjusted assessed valuation pursuant to this subdivision to a number of mills greater than the largest number of mills previously levied against its adjusted assessed valuation pursuant to this subdivision.

(b) By July 15 in any year when clause (5) applies, the board of the district shall hold a public hearing on the need for the proposed levy or increase. At least three weeks published notice of the hearing in 10 point type or 5.0 agate type, with a larger headline, shall be given in the legal newspaper with the largest circulation in the district. The notice shall state the amount of the proposed levy or increase in dollars, in EARC mills and in auditor's mills and the estimated net unappropriated fund balance in the district's operating funds as of the June 30 before the levy or increase is certified.

(c) At the hearing, the district shall present its proposed revenue and expenditure budgets for the next two school years, the estimated net unappropriated fund balances in all district funds as of the June 30 before the levy or increase is certified, and the estimated amount in dollars, in EARC mills and in auditor's mills of any reduction of the proposed levy which may be required by subdivision 7c. At the hearing, the board shall also hear all parties requesting to give testimony for and against the proposed levy or increase. Upon receipt of a petition within 30 days after the hearing, the board shall call a referendum on the proposed levy or increase. A petition shall be effective if signed by a number of qualified voters in the district equal to the greater of 50 voters or 15 percent of the number of voters who voted in the district at the most recent regular school board election excess of three percent of the residents of the school district as determined by the most recent census.

(d) The referendum shall be held on a date set by the school board, but no later than the September 20 before the levy is certified.

The ballot shall state substantially the following, as appropriate:

The board of ..... School District No. .... has proposed (a discretionary levy in a maximum amount of ..... EARC mills which would raise) (to increase a discretionary levy from ..... EARC mills to ..... EARC mills. This increase would provide an additional) $..... in the first year levied.

Shall the (increase in the) discretionary levy
 ..... Yes proposed by the Board of ..... School
 ..... No District No. .... be approved?

(e) The approval of a majority of those voting on the question is required to pass the referendum.

(f) If a petition is not received or if the proposed levy or increase is approved at a referendum, the district may levy the amount provided by the number of mills proposed by the school board, in the year when the hearing or referendum is held and in succeeding years. If a proposed first time levy is not approved, except as provided in clause (3), the district may not levy pursuant to this subdivision in the year when the referendum is held and shall be required to comply with the provisions of clause (5) before levying pursuant to this subdivision in a subsequent year. If a proposed increase is not approved, the district may levy an amount not to exceed the amount provided by the largest number of EARC mills the district was previously levied by the district authorized to levy pursuant to this subdivision, applied to the preceding year's adjusted assessed valuation.

Sec. 9. [LEVY ADJUSTMENTS.]

In 1982, the maximum levy limitation under Minnesota Statutes, Section 275.125, Subdivision 2a or 2e, as applicable, shall be reduced by any difference between the amount of the basic maintenance levy certified by the district in 1981 and the amount of the 1981 basic maintenance levy limitation which would have been computed for the district using a formula allowance for the 1982-1983 school year of $1,346.

The 1982 payable 1983 levy limitation of districts affected by section 3 shall be recomputed as if section 3 had been in effect at the time the levy was originally certified.

Sec. 10. [BASIC MAINTENANCE UNDERLEVIES.]

In fiscal year 1983, the deduction from basic foundation aid pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 124.2128, Subdivision 1, shall be computed as though the basic maintenance mill rate for tax levies attributable to that school year were .023, and without regard to whether a district levied an additional amount for basic maintenance as authorized by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article II, Section 12.

Sec. 11. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 3 and 9 shall be effective for the 1983-1984 school year. Sections 6 and 8 are effective the day following final enactment.

Subd. 1a. [WEIGHTING FACTORS.] For each school year, in computing transportation aid, the department of education shall establish as needed the pupil weighting factors for each transportation category for each ~~region~~ district using transportation cost data for the second prior school year. The department shall use the statewide pupil weighting factor for any transportation category for which a ~~region~~ district had no experience during the second prior school year.

Subd. 3. [FORMULA.] For each school year, the state shall pay to each school district for all pupil transportation and related services for which the district is authorized by law to receive state aid an amount determined according to this section. ~~A multiple regression formula shall be determined through stepwise~~ The department of education shall conduct multiple regression analysis for each region by the department of education, using the terms specified in subdivision 4a, to maximize the amount of variance accounted for between the total actual authorized cost per weighted FTE for the second preceding school year and the total authorized predicted cost per weighted FTE for the second preceding school year predict the base cost for each district. The A formula determined for each region shall be derived based upon the regression analysis, but excluding the factors described in subdivision 4a, clauses (8), (9), and (10), except that in the 1982-1983 school year, these clauses shall not be excluded. This formula shall be used to determine a total authorized predicted base cost per weighted FTE for the second preceding school year for each district in the region. The amount determined for each district shall be adjusted according to the provisions of subdivisions 6 7a and 7a 7b.

Subd. 4a. [FORMULA TERMS.] To predict the total authorized base cost per weighted FTE for each district pursuant to subdivision 3, each regional the multiple regression formula shall use the following terms and their squares for each district in the region:

- (1) The area of the district measured in square miles;
- (2) The district's average daily membership;
- (2) The reciprocal of the district's average daily membership;
- (3) The total number of authorized FTE's transported by the district;

- (13) (4) The percentage of the district's square mile area which is classified by the commissioner of energy, planning and development as water covered or, marshland, or extractive;
- (14) The number of 40 acre parcels of land in the district which are contiguous to or intersected by unpaved roads, as a percentage of the number of 40 acre parcels of land in the district which are contiguous to or intersected by any roads, paved or unpaved. The number of 40 acre parcels of each type shall be obtained from the commissioner of energy, planning and development;
- (15) The percentage of the district's square mile area which is classified by the state planning agency as having a slope of land exceeding six percent;

Subd. 6. [INFLATION FACTORS.] The total authorized predicted cost per weighted FTE determined for a district under subdivision 3 for 1979-1980 shall be increased by 26 percent. The total authorized predicted cost per weighted FTE determined for a district under subdivision 3 for 1980-1981 shall be increased by 22 percent.

Subd. 7a. [BASE YEAR SOFTENING FORMULA.] (1) Each district's adjusted total authorized predicted base cost per weighted FTE determined for each school year according to subdivision 6 3 shall be compared to averaged with the total actual expenditure per weighted FTE for authorized transportation base cost for that district for that year to determine the district's aid entitlement adjusted authorized predicted cost per weighted FTE for that year.

(2) If the adjusted total authorized predicted cost per weighted FTE is greater than the district's actual authorized expenditure per weighted FTE, its aid entitlement per weighted FTE shall equal the adjusted predicted cost per weighted FTE minus 20 percent of the first $10 of difference between the adjusted total authorized predicted cost per weighted FTE and the actual expenditure per weighted FTE; minus 40 percent of the next $10; 60 percent of the next $10; minus 75 percent of the difference which exceeds $30.

(3) If the adjusted total authorized predicted cost per weighted FTE is less than the district's actual authorized expenditure per weighted FTE, its aid entitlement per weighted FTE shall equal the adjusted total authorized predicted cost per weighted FTE plus 20 percent of the first $10 of difference between the adjusted predicted cost per weighted FTE and the actual expenditure per weighted FTE; plus 40 percent of the next $10; plus 60 percent of the next $10; plus 75 percent of the difference which exceeds $30. Notwithstanding clause (1), for fiscal year 1983, the predicted base cost shall be adjusted as provided in this clause to determine adjusted authorized predicted cost per weighted FTE for the base school year.

(a) If the predicted base cost exceeds the base cost, the predicted base cost shall be decreased by 50 percent of the first $40 of difference between the base cost and the predicted base cost; 70 percent of the next $40 of difference; and 90 percent of any difference which exceeds $80, to determine the adjusted authorized predicted cost per weighted FTE.

(b) If the predicted base cost is less than the base cost, the predicted base cost shall be increased by 50 percent of the first $40 of difference between the base cost and the predicted base cost; 70 percent of the next $40 of difference; and 90 percent of any difference which exceeds $80, to determine the adjusted authorized predicted cost per weighted FTE.

Subd. 7b. [INFLATION FACTORS.] The adjusted authorized predicted cost per weighted FTE determined for a district under subdivision 7a for the base year shall be increased by 22 percent to determine the district's aid entitlement per FTE for the 1982-1983 school year.

Subd. 8a. [AID.] A district's transportation aid shall be equal to the sum of its basic transportation aid pursuant to subdivision 8b, its excess handicapped transportation aid pursuant to subdivision 8c, its handicapped board and lodging aid pursuant to subdivision 8d, its to and from board and lodging aid pursuant to subdivision 8e, its nonpublic support services transportation aid pursuant to subdivision 8f, and its during-day transportation aid pursuant to subdivision 8g, minus the amount raised by two mills times the adjusted assessed valuation which is used to compute the transportation levy limitation for the levy attributable to that school year. If the total appropriation for transportation aid in any fiscal year is insufficient to pay all districts the full amount of aid earned, the department of education shall reduce each district's aid in proportion to the number of resident pupils in average daily membership in the district to the state total average daily membership, and shall reduce the aid entitlement of off-formula districts in the same proportion. Aid for the 1982-1983 school year shall be reduced by the following amount: the product of

(a) the number of nonhandicapped secondary pupils transported in the base year that live between one and two miles from the public school which they could attend or the nonpublic school actually attended, times

(b) 1.5, divided by the average distance to school for all FTE's transported in the district in the regular transportation category in the second preceding year, times

(c) the district's aid entitlement per FTE determined according to subdivision 7b, times the ratio of average daily membership used in subdivision 8b.

Subd. 8a 8b. [BASIC AID COMPUTATION.] Beginning with the 1982-1983 school year In fiscal years 1983 and 1984, a district's basic transportation aid pursuant to this section for each the school year shall equal the district's aid entitlement per weighted FTE determined according to subdivision 7a 7b times the total number of authorized weighted FTE's transported in the regular and handicapped transportation categories in the district in that the second preceding school year, minus the amount raised by two mills times the adjusted assessed valuation which is used to compute the transportation levy limitation for the levy attributable to that school year times the ratio of average daily membership in the district in the current school year to the average daily membership in the district in the second preceding school year.

In fiscal year 1985 and thereafter, a district's basic transportation aid pursuant to this section for each school year shall equal the district's adjusted authorized predicted cost determined according to subdivision 7b times the total number of authorized FTE's transported in the regular and handicapped categories in the district in the current school year.

Subd. 8b 8c. [EXCESS HANDICAPPED AID.] (a) In addition to the amount authorized in subdivision 8a, For each school year, the state shall pay aid for the excess costs of providing transportation for handicapped students as provided in this subdivision to a district where, in the current school year,

(1) the average daily membership in that year is 2,500 or fewer pupils,

(2) the total actual authorized expenditures exceed the aid entitlement, and

(3) the actual authorized expenditure per weighted FTE in the handicapped and board and lodging categories exceeds 140 percent of the aid entitlement per weighted handicapped and board and lodging FTE the ratio of FTE's transported in the handicapped category to the total number of FTE's transported in the regular transportation category exceeds the same ratio for the state as a whole.

(b) This aid shall equal 80 percent of the difference between:

(1) the district's actual authorized expenditures for transporting handicapped and board and lodging FTE's and

(2) 140 percent of the district's aid entitlement for transportation of handicapped and board and lodging FTE's.

(3) For purposes of the computation of aid pursuant to this subdivision, the amounts of the actual authorized expenditure and the aid entitlement shall exclude amounts attributable to depreciation. Aid pursuant to this subdivision shall not exceed the difference between the district's total actual authorized expenditures and its total aid entitlement. The product of the percent excess handicapped FTE's transported, times the difference between

(1) the district's actual cost for transportation of all pupils in the handicapped category in the current year, and

(2) the product of

(i) the district's adjusted authorized predicted cost determined according to subdivision 7b, times

(ii) the number of FTE's transported in the handicapped category in the district in the current year.

Provided that in the 1982-1983 school year, the number in (2)(ii) above shall be replaced by the following computation: the product of the number of FTE's transported in the handicapped category in the district in the second preceding year, times its pupil weighting factor for the handicapped category, times the ratio of average daily membership in the district in the current year to average daily membership in the district in the second preceding year.

Subd. 8d. [HANDICAPPED BOARD AND LODGING AID.] For board and lodging of handicapped pupils, each district shall receive aid equal to the product of the number of FTE pupils boarded and lodged in the current year in the district in this transportation category, times the average of

(a) the state average board and lodging cost per FTE pupil boarded and lodged in the second preceding year, times the inflation factor for that year prescribed in subdivision 7b; and

(b) the district's actual cost per FTE pupil boarded and lodged in the current year.

Subd. 8e. [TO AND FROM BOARD AND LODGING.] For transportation of handicapped pupils to and from board and lodging facilities, the state shall pay aid for each pupil for each year equal to the lesser of

(a) the sum for all pupils transported in this category of 36 times the distance in miles from each pupil's home to the board and lodging facility, times the official mileage rate at which state employees are compensated for travel; or

(b) the average of the amount in (a) and the district's actual cost for all transportation in this category in the current year.

Subd. 8f. [NONPUBLIC SUPPORT SERVICES AID.] In fiscal year 1983 a district's nonpublic support services transportation aid shall equal the district's adjusted authorized predicted cost determined according to subdivision 7b, times its pupil weighting factor for the nonpublic support services transportation category, times the number of FTE pupils transported in the nonpublic support services category in the district in the second preceding year, times the ratio of average daily membership in the district in the current year to average daily membership in the district in the second preceding year. In fiscal year 1984 and thereafter, a district's nonpublic support services transportation aid shall equal the district's adjusted authorized predicted cost determined according to subdivision 7b, times its pupil weighting factor for the nonpublic support services transportation category, times the number of FTE's transported in that category in the current year.

Subd. 8g. [DURING-DAY TRANSPORTATION AID.] For each school year, a district's during-day transportation aid shall equal the district's adjusted authorized predicted cost determined according to subdivision 7b, times its pupil weighting factor for the during-day transportation category, times the number of FTE's transported in the during-day transportation category in the second preceding year, times the ratio of average daily membership in the district in the current year to average daily membership in the district in the second preceding year. In fiscal year 1984 and thereafter, a district's during-day transportation aid shall equal the district's adjusted authorized predicted cost determined according to subdivision 7b, times its pupil weighting factor for the during-day transportation category, times the number of FTE's transported in the during-day transportation category in the current year.

Subd. 9. [DISTRICT REPORTS.] Each district shall report data to the department before July 1 of each year an estimate for the next school year of the total number of FTE's transported by transportation category and an estimate of the district's total actual authorized transportation expenditure by transpor- tation category as required by the department to implement the transportation aid formula. The district's aid shall be determined for purposes of the first three transportation aid payments for the school year using these estimates. Before August 15 each year, each district shall provide the department with the information for the preceding school year which the department determines is necessary to compute the district's actual authorized expenditure per weighted FTE for purposes of the computation in subdivision 7a and the district's actual total number of weighted FTE's transported for purposes of the aid computation in subdivision 8a. The district's final transportation aid payment for the school year shall be based on these computations. If a district's final transportation aid payment is adjusted after December 31 of the fiscal year in which the final aid payment is made, the adjustment shall be made by increasing or decreasing the district's aid for the next fiscal year. No adjustment in transportation aid for a district shall be made after October 31 of the fiscal year following the fiscal year in which the final aid payment is made.

Subd. 10. Any school district which owns school buses or mobile units shall transfer annually from the unappropriated fund balance account in its transportation fund to the appropriated fund balance account for bus purchases in its transportation fund at least an amount equal to 12-1/2 percent of the original cost of each bus or mobile unit until the original cost of each bus or mobile unit is fully amortized, plus 33-1/3 percent of the cost to the district as of July 1 of each year for school bus reconditioning done by the department of corrections until the cost of the reconditioning is fully amortized; provided, if the district's transportation aid is reduced pursuant to subdivision 8a because the appropriation for that year is insufficient, this amount shall be reduced in proportion to the reduction pursuant to subdivision 8a as a percentage of the sum of:

(1) the district's total transportation aid received pursuant to subdivision 8a, plus

(2) an amount equal to two mills times the adjusted assessed valuation of the district. Any school district may transfer any amount from the unappropriated fund balance account in its transportation fund to any other operating fund or to the appropriated fund balance account for bus purchases in its transportation fund.

Subd. 11. [PAYMENT SCHEDULE THROUGH 1982.] Except as may be otherwise authorized by the commissioner to accommodate a flexible school year program, for fiscal years through 1982, the state shall pay to each school district 30 percent of its estimated school transportation aid entitlement for the fiscal year on or before each of the following dates: August 31, December 31, and March 31. The final aid distribution to each district shall be made on or before October 31 of the following fiscal year.

Subd. 12. [PAYMENT SCHEDULE.] Except as may be otherwise authorized by the commissioner to accommodate a flexible school year program, starting in fiscal year 1983, the state shall pay each school district its estimated school transportation aid entitlement for the fiscal year according to the following schedule: 30 percent by August 31; 30 percent by December 31; and 25 percent by March 31. The final aid distribution to each district shall be made by October 31 of the following fiscal year.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 275.125, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] Except as may otherwise be provided in this section, the words and phrases defined in sections 124.01, 124.212, 124.20 and 124.2121 to 124.2125 and 124.225 when used in this section shall have the meanings ascribed to them in those sections.

Subd. 5. For school transportation services, a school district may levy an amount not to exceed the amount raised by a levy of two mills times the adjusted assessed valuation of the taxable property of the district for the preceding year. A district may also levy under this subdivision for the amount necessary to eliminate any projected deficit in the appropriated fund balance account for bus purchases in its transportation fund as of June 30 in the school year when the levy is recognized as revenue. A district which contracts for pupil transportation services may also levy an amount equal to $18 times the number of FTE pupils transported on contracted school buses in the preceding school year in the regular transportation category, which shall be placed in the transportation fund and used for any lawful purpose. A district may levy an amount equal to the estimated cost; in the school year beginning in the year in which the levy is certified, of transporting secondary pupils to and from school who live more than one mile but less than two miles from the public school which they could attend or from a nonpublic school actually attended. A district may also levy for transportation costs or other related services which are approved by the commissioner as necessary because of extraordinary traffic hazards for the current fiscal next school year. Levies authorized by this subdivision shall be computed according to procedures established by the commissioner.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 275.125, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5b. [TRANSPORTATION LEVY OFF-FORMULA ADJUSTMENT.] In any fiscal year in which the transportation levy in a district attributable to that fiscal year of two mills times the adjusted assessed valuation of the district exceeds the transportation aid entitlement per weighted FTE times the total number of authorized FTE pupils transported, the district's transportation levy limitation shall be adjusted as provided in this subdivision. In the year following that fiscal year, the district's transportation levy shall be reduced by an amount equal to the difference between (1) two mills times the adjusted assessed valuation of the district, and (2) the sum of the district's transportation aid computation pursuant to section 124.225, subdivisions 8b, 8c, 8d, 8e, 8f, and 8g, minus the following amount:

the product of

(a) the number of nonhandicapped secondary pupils in the current school year who live between one and two miles from the public school which they could attend or the nonpublic school actually attended and who would have been transported in the current year under the district's eligibility rules in the base year, times

year, times

(c) the district's adjusted authorized predicted cost determined according to section 124.225, subdivision 7b.

Sec. 6. [ADDITIONAL TRANSPORTATION LEVY, 1982.]

In 1982 only, a district may levy for transportation costs or other related services which are necessary because of extraordinary traffic hazards for the 1982-1983 school year. Levies authorized by this section shall be computed according to procedures established by the commissioner.

Sec. 7. Laws 1981, Chapter 358, Article II, Section 15, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [CANCELLATION.] Any unexpended balance remaining from the appropriation in this section for 1982 shall cancel and shall not be available for the second year of the biennium. None of the amounts appropriated in this section shall be expended for a purpose other than the purpose indicated. The district may provide the educational program at a school within the district of residence, at the child's residence, or in the district in which the day treatment center is located by paying tuition to that district.

(c) When a child is temporarily placed in a residential program for care and treatment, the nonresident district in which the child is placed is responsible for providing transportation, except transportation to and from the resident district, and an appropriate educational program for the child and shall bill the district of the child's residence for the actual cost of providing the program, as outlined in subdivision 4, except that the board, lodging, and treatment costs incurred in behalf of a handicapped child placed outside of the school district of his residence by the commissioner of public welfare or the commissioner of corrections or their agents, for reasons other than for making provision for his special educational needs shall not become the responsibility of either the district providing the instruction or the district of the child's residence.

(d) The district of residence shall pay tuition and other program costs, not including transportation costs, to the district providing the instruction and services. The district of residence may claim foundation aid for the child as provided by law. Transportation costs shall be paid by the district responsible for providing the transportation and the state shall pay transportation aid to that district.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 124.2129, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [RESIDENCE OF STUDENTS TEMPORARILY PLACED IN ANOTHER DISTRICT.] The responsibility for special instruction and services for a child as defined in section 120.03, subdivision 5, who is temporarily placed in another district for care and treatment, shall be determined in the following manner:

(a) The school district of residence of the child shall be the district in which the child's parent or guardian resides, or the district designated by the commissioner of education if neither parent nor guardian is living within the state.

(b) Prior to the placement of a child in another district, the district of residence shall be notified and provided an opportunity to participate in the placement decision. When an immediate emergency placement is necessary and time does not permit resident district participation in the placement decision, the district in which the child is temporarily placed shall notify the district of residence of the emergency placement within 15 days of the placement.

(c) Responsibility for provision of transportation and an appropriate educational program shall be the same as for a handicapped child temporarily placed in another district for care and treatment pursuant to section 120.17, subdivision 6. The district of residence shall pay tuition and other program costs, not including transportation costs, to the district providing the instruction and services. Transportation costs shall be paid by the district responsible for providing the transportation and the state shall pay transportation aid to that district. For purposes of transportation aid, these children shall be included in the handicapped transportation category.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 124.32, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

shall include an enumeration of the costs proposed as eligible for state aid pursuant to this section and of the estimated number and grade level of handicapped children in the district who will receive special instruction and services during the next school year. The application shall also include any other information deemed necessary by the commissioner for the calculation of state aid and for the evaluation of the necessity of the program, the necessity of the personnel to be employed in the program, the amount which the program will receive from grants from federal funds, or special grants from other state sources, and the program's compliance with the rules and standards of the state board. The commissioner shall review each application ~~in order~~ to determine whether the program and the personnel to be employed in the program are actually necessary and essential to meet the district's obligation to provide special instruction and services to handicapped children pursuant to section 120.17. The commissioner shall not approve aid pursuant to this section for any program or for the salary of any personnel he determines to be unnecessary or unessential on the basis of this review. The commissioner may also withhold all or any portion of the aid for programs which receive grants from federal funds, or special grants from other state sources. ~~On or before July 1 of each year~~ ~~By August 31, when the first aid payment is made,~~ the commissioner shall approve, disapprove or modify each application, and notify each applying district of ~~his~~ the action and of the estimated amount of aid for the programs. The commissioner shall provide procedures for districts to submit additional applications for program and budget approval during the school year, for programs needed to meet any substantial changes in the needs of handicapped children in the district. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 124.15, the commissioner may modify or withdraw ~~his~~ the program or aid approval and withhold aid pursuant to this section without proceeding according to section 124.15 at any time ~~when he the commissioner~~ determines that the program does not comply with ~~the rules and standards~~ of the state board or that any facts concerning the program or its budget differ from the facts ~~presented~~ in the district's approved application.

During the 1982-83 school year the department shall test the guidelines in a representative sample of districts statewide and report to the education committees of the legislature by February 1, 1984. The department shall report on the operation and fiscal impact of the guidelines.*

The guidelines are only for the purposes of testing and determining proper policy for the department and do not represent a determination by the legislature or the department that the guidelines are permanent or binding. The guidelines shall not represent competent evidence in any legal proceeding arising in a state or federal court of law.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 3.736, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [NOTICE REQUIRED.] Except as provided in subdivision 6, every person, whether plaintiff, defendant or third party plaintiff or defendant, who claims compensation from the state or a state employee acting within the scope of his employment for or on account of any loss or injury shall present to the attorney general of the state or, in the case of a claim against the university of Minnesota, to the person designated by the regents of the university as the university attorney, and any state employee from whom the claimant will seek compensation, if known, within 180 days after the alleged loss or injury is discovered, a notice stating the time, place and circumstances ~~thereof of it~~, the names of any state employees known to be involved, and the amount of compensation or other relief demanded. Actual notice of sufficient facts to reasonably put the state or its insurer on notice of a possible claim complies with the notice requirements of this section. Failure to state the amount of compensation or other relief demanded does not invalidate the notice, ~~but~~. The claimant shall furnish full information ~~available regarding the nature and extent of the injuries and damages within 15 days after demand by the state concerning the claim as requested by the attorney general~~. The time for giving the notice does not include the time during which the person injured is incapacitated by the injury from giving the notice.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 3.736, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [PAYMENT.] A state agency, ~~including any entity defined as part of the state in section 3.732, subdivision 1, clause (1)~~, incurring a tort claim judgment or settlement obligation or whose employees acting within the scope of their office or employment incur the obligation shall seek approval to make payment by submitting a written request to the commissioner of finance. The request shall contain a description of the tort claim precipitating the request, specify the amount of the obligation and be accompanied by copies of judgments, settlement agreements or other documentation relevant to the obligation for which the agency is seeking payment. Upon receipt of the request and review of the claim, the commissioner of finance shall determine the proper appropriation from which to make payment. If there is sufficient money in an appropriation or combination of appropriations to the agency for its general operations and management to allow the claim to be paid from that source without unduly hindering the operation of the agency, the commissioner shall direct that payment be made from that source. Claims relating to activities paid for by appropriations of dedicated receipts shall be paid from those appropriations if practicable. ~~If the commissioner determines that an agency has sufficient money in these appropriations to pay only part of a claim, the commissioner shall pay the remainder of the claim from the money appropriated to him for this purpose.~~ If the commissioner determines that the agency does not have sufficient money to pay all or any part of the claim, the commissioner shall pay all or the unpaid portion of the claim from money appropriated to him for this purpose. On January 1 and July 1 of each year, the commissioner of finance shall transmit to the legislature and to the chairmen of the house appropriations and senate finance committees copies of all requests in the preceding six months together with a report on the payments made with respect to each request. Payment shall be made only upon receipt of a written release by the claimant in a form approved by the attorney general, or the person designated as the university attorney, as the case may be.

No attachment or execution shall issue against the state, its agencies or employees for any judgment for which the state is responsible pursuant to sections 3.732 to 3.738, nor shall any judgment constitute a lien against the property of the state, its agencies, officers or employees, or be a defect in the title to the property.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 3.736, Subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [LIABILITY INSURANCE.] A state agency, ~~including any entity~~ defined as a part of the state in section 3.732, subdivision 1, clause (1), may procure insurance against liability of the agency and its employees for damages resulting from the torts of the agency and its employees. The procurement of this insurance constitutes a waiver of the defense of governmental immunity to the extent of the liability stated in the policy but has no effect on the liability of the agency and its employees beyond the coverage so provided. When liability insurance is obtained by the state or a state agency, the coverage provided shall be in lieu of the coverage provided by this chapter. When a state employee personally obtains insurance purporting to cover actions also covered by sections 3.732 to 3.738, the insurance shall be construed to provide coverage in addition to the coverage provided by sections 3.732 to 3.738, to the extent of the limits of the policy. An insurer for the state or one of its employees shall be entitled to raise or cause to be raised, any of the provisions, exclusions, immunities or limitations which could be raised by the state. However, the monetary limitations on liability are waived to the extent of the coverage provided by the policy. The state may settle or compromise its liability and that of its employees including a privately insured employee as provided in sections 3.732 to 3.738 without affecting the obligation of an insurer to defend and indemnify a privately insured state employee for claims and suits arising from the same incident.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 3.736, Subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [INDEMNIFICATION.] The state of Minnesota shall defend, save harmless, and indemnify any employee of the state against expenses, attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the employee of the state in connection with any tort claim or demand, or expenses, attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the employee of the state in connection with any claim or demand arising from the issuance and sale of any securities by the state, whether groundless or otherwise, arising out of an alleged act or omission occurring heretofore or hereafter during his period of employment if the employee provides complete disclosure and cooperation in the defense of the claim or demand and if the employee was acting within the scope of his employment. Except for elected employees, an employee of the state shall be conclusively presumed to have been acting within the scope of his employment if the employee's appointing authority issues a certificate to that effect. This determination may be overruled by the attorney general. The determination of whether an employee of the state was acting within the scope of his employment shall be a question of fact to be determined by the trier of fact based upon the circumstances of each case (i) in the absence of a certification, (ii) if a certification is overruled by the attorney general, (iii) if an unfavorable certification is made, or (iv) with respect to an elected official. The absence of the certification or an unfavorable certification shall not be evidence relevant to such a the determination. It is the express intent of this provision to defend, save harmless, and indemnify any employee of the state against the full amount of any final judgment rendered by a court of competent jurisdiction arising from a claim or demand described herein, regardless of whether the limitations on liability specified in subdivision 4 or 4a hereof are, for any reason, found to be inapplicable. This subdivision does not apply in case of malfeasance in office or willful or wanton actions or neglect of duty shall not apply to an officer or employee whose liability was incurred because of actions outside the scope of his office or employment.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 3.736, is amended by adding a

Subd. 12. [CONSTRUCTION.] Nothing herein shall constitute consent by the state of Minnesota to be sued in the courts of the United States, nor in any way to waive the protection of the Eleventh Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 3.755, is amended to read:

3.755 [DAMAGE BY ESCAPING INMATES.]

~~The department of corrections and the department of public welfare are directed to pay all claims involving property damage, not covered by insurance, resulting from actions of escaping inmates or runaway patients occurring while perfecting their escape, provided that the departments have verified the reasonableness of the amounts claimed.~~ Upon the approval of the commissioner of public welfare or the commissioner of corrections as to the institutions under their respective control, the superintendent or chief executive officer of ~~any such~~ the institution may pay out of the current expense appropriation of the institution to any employee ~~thereof~~ of it the amount of any property damage sustained by the employee, not in excess of $250, by reason or as a result of action of any patient or inmate of the institution.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 3.84, is amended to read:

If a ~~person~~ state employee is convicted of ~~such~~ this offense is a state ~~officer~~, he also forfeits his office. This section shall not be construed to prevent a felony or misdemeanor prosecution under any other provision of law.

Subd. 4. [ADDITIONAL LEVIES.] A school district may levy the amounts necessary to make payments for bonds issued and for interest ~~thereon on them~~, including the bonds and interest ~~thereon on them~~, issued as authorized by section 275.125, subdivision 3, clause (7) (C), as it read in Minnesota Statutes 1974; the amounts necessary for repayment of debt service loans and capital loans; the amounts necessary to pay the district's obligations under section 6.62; the amount authorized for liabilities of dissolved districts pursuant to section 122.45; the amounts necessary to pay the district's obligations under section 268.06, subdivision 25; the amounts necessary to pay the district's obligations under section 127.05; the amounts necessary to pay the district's insurance premium costs under section 466.06; the amounts authorized by section 122.531; and the amounts necessary to pay the district's obligations under section 122.533.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 466.04, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LIMITS; PUNITIVE DAMAGES.] Liability of any municipality on any claim within the scope of sections 466.01 to 466.15 shall not

(b) ~~$300,000~~ $600,000 for any number of claims arising out of a single occurrence.

No award against any municipality for damages on any ~~such~~ claim shall include punitive damages.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 466.04, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

The governing body of any municipality may procure insurance against liability of the municipality and its officers, employees, and agents for damages resulting from its torts and those of its officers, employees, and agents, including torts specified in section 466.03 for which the municipality is immune from liability; and ~~such the~~ insurance may provide protection in excess of the limit of liability imposed by section 466.04. If the municipality has the authority to levy taxes, the premium costs for ~~such the~~ insurance may be levied in excess of any per capita or millage tax limitation imposed by statute or charter; ~~provided, a school district may not levy for premium costs pursuant to this section.~~ Any independent board or commission in the municipality having authority to disburse funds for a particular municipal function without approval of the governing body may similarly procure liability insurance with respect to the field of its operation. The procurement of ~~such the~~ insurance constitutes a waiver of the defense of governmental immunity to the extent of the liability stated in the policy but has no effect on the liability of the municipality beyond the coverage so provided.

Subd. 7. [RULEMAKING; TOTAL OPERATING COST.] The commissioner shall by rule define "total operating cost" as the term is used in carrying out the purposes of section 174.24. The commissioner shall consult with eligible recipients to the maximum extent feasible in formulating these rules and develop necessary and reasonable changes in cost allowability provisions and financial examination procedures where possible. The rules are subject to the provisions in the administrative procedure act of sections 15.041 to 15.052.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 174.23, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [PROGRAM ADMINISTRATION.] The commissioner shall assign the administration of the programs set forth in sections 174.21 to 174.27 to a single division within the department of transportation.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 174.24, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE.] Payment of financial assistance shall be by contract between the commissioner and an eligible recipient. The commissioner shall determine the ~~operating deficit~~ total operating cost of any public transit system receiving or applying for assistance in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles; ~~provided that any financial assistance received from any agency of the federal government for the operation of a public transit system shall be treated as revenue for the purposes of determining the operating deficit.~~ To be eligible for financial assistance, an applicant or recipient shall provide to the commissioner all financial records and other information and shall permit any inspection reasonably necessary to determine total operating cost and correspondingly the amount of assistance which may be paid to the applicant or recipient. Where more than one county or municipality contributes assistance to the operation of a public transit system, the commissioner shall identify one as lead agency for the purpose of receiving moneys under this section. ~~The commissioner may adopt rules establishing performance standards for public transit systems for use in determining the amount of assistance which may be paid to an eligible recipient. Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, payments shall not exceed two-thirds of the operating deficit of a public transit system.~~

The commissioner shall adopt rules establishing uniform performance standards for private operators of regular route transit systems in the transit taxing district, as defined in section 473.446, subdivision 2. The rules are subject to the provisions in the administrative procedure act of sections 15.041 to 15.052. Payments shall be based on approved estimates of expenditures during the contract period and shall be subject to audit and adjustment after any payment has been made.

Prior to distributing operating assistance to eligible recipients for any contract period, the commissioner shall place all recipients into one of the following classifications: large urbanized area service, urbanized area service, small urban area service, rural area service, and elderly and handicapped service. The commissioner shall distribute funds under this section so that the percentage of total operating cost paid by any recipient from local sources will not exceed the percentage for that recipient's classification. The percentages shall be: for large urbanized area service, 55 percent; for urbanized area service and small urban area service, 40 percent; for rural area service, 35 percent; and for elderly and handicapped service, 35 percent. The remainder of the total operating cost will be paid from state funds less any assistance received by the recipient from any federal source. For purposes of this subdivision "local sources" means all local sources of funds and includes all operating revenue, tax levies, and contributions from public funds, except that the commissioner may exclude from the total assistance contract revenues derived from operations the cost of which is excluded from the computation of total operating cost.

If a recipient informs the commissioner in writing after the establishment of these percentages but prior to the distribution of financial assistance for any year that paying its designated percentage of total operating cost from local sources will cause undue hardship, the commissioner may reduce the percentage to be paid from local sources by the recipient and increase the percentage to be paid from local sources for all other recipients in its classification so that the total state funds to be received by all the recipients in the classification will not be altered. If for any year the funds appropriated to the commissioner to carry out the purposes of this section are insufficient to allow the commissioner to pay the state share of total operating cost as provided in this paragraph, the commissioner shall reduce the state share in each classification to the extent necessary.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 174.24, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [METHOD OF PAYMENT.] Payments under this section to recipients other than the metropolitan transit commission and private operators within the seven-county metropolitan area whose deficits are funded 100 percent by the state shall be made in the following manner:

The method of payment under this section to private operators within the seven-county metropolitan area whose deficits are funded 100 percent by the state shall be determined by the commissioner."

"Sec. 22. [297C.01] [CITATION.]

Sections 22 to 41 may be cited as the Hazardous Waste Wholesale Product Tax Act.

Sec. 23. [297C.02] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] The definitions provided in this section and section 1 apply to sections 22 to 41.

Subd. 2. [COMMISSIONER.] "Commissioner" means the commissioner of revenue.

Subd. 3. [FINISHED PRODUCT.] "Finished product" means any product which is intended to be or is sold to the ultimate consumer without further processing, other than processing after purchase by a retailer as defined in section 297A.01, subdivision 10.

Subd. 4. [GROSS RECEIPTS.] "Gross receipts" means the total amount received, in money or otherwise, for all taxable sales as measured by the sales price. A taxpayer may elect to report gross receipts on the cash basis as consideration is received for a sale or on the accrual basis as sales are made.

Subd. 5. [INTERMEDIATE PRODUCT.] "Intermediate product" means raw materials or any other product which becomes a part of or is used or consumed in any stage of the production of a finished product.

Subd. 6. [PERSON.] "Person" means any individual, firm, association, partnership, joint stock company, joint venture, corporation, trustee, agency, receiver or other entity doing business in this state.

Subd. 7. [PRODUCT.] "Product" means any item of tangible personal property which qualifies as goods under section 336.2-105(1).

Subd. 9. [SALE; PURCHASE.] "Sale" or "purchase" includes but is not limited to the following transactions:

(a) Any transfer of title or possession, or both, whether absolutely or conditionally, or the leasing or granting of a license to use or consume, for a consideration in money or by exchange or barter; and

(b) Any production done for a consideration on behalf of any person who directly or indirectly furnishes the materials used in that production.

Subd. 10. [SALE AT WHOLESALE.] "Sale at wholesale" means a sale or purchase for the purpose of resale in the regular course of business. Property purchased for the purpose of leasing the property to another or holding the property for lease to another shall be considered property purchased for resale. No sale which qualifies as a sale at retail under section 297A.01, subdivision 4, shall be considered a sale at wholesale.

Subd. 11. [SALES PRICE.] "Sales price" means the total consideration, valued in money, for a sale, whether paid in money or otherwise, excluding any amount allowed as a credit for tangible personal property taken in trade for resale, without deducting the cost of the property sold, cost of materials used, labor or service costs, interest, discount allowed after the sale is consummated, the cost of transportation incurred prior to the time of sale, any amount for which credit is given to the purchaser by the seller, or any other expense, whatsoever. A deduction may be made for interest, financing, carrying charges and transportation occurring after the sale, if the charges are separately stated.

"Sales price" does not include cash discounts allowed and taken at the time of sale, amounts refunded either in cash or in credit for property returned by purchasers or the amount of any tax (not including, however, any manufacturers' or importers' excise tax) imposed on the sale by the United States or the amount of any tax imposed by section 24 whether or not the tax is separately stated or charged to the buyer at the time of sale.

Subd. 12. [WHOLESALER.] 'Wholesaler' means any person who sells products at wholesale.

Sec. 24. [297C.03] [IMPOSITION OF TAX.]

Except as otherwise provided in sections 22 to 41, every person who sells in this state at wholesale any finished or intermediate product whose production by that person results in the generation in this state of a hazardous waste, shall pay a tax in an amount equal to one-half of one percent of the gross receipts from that sale. By December 15 of 1983 and subsequent years, the commissioner of revenue shall estimate the amount of revenue raised by the tax imposed pursuant to this section during the calendar year ending that month. If the estimated proceeds exceed $8,000,000 the commissioner shall adjust the rate of the tax to be in effect for the subsequent calendar year so that it would, as nearly as practicable, provide revenues of $8,000,000 for that subsequent year.

For the purposes of this section, a sale shall be deemed to occur in this state if the product is located in this state at the time of its identification to a contract of sale, regardless of the identity or physical location of the parties to the sale.

Sec. 25. [297C.04] [PRESUMPTION OF TAXABLE SALES; BURDEN OF PROOF.]

Subdivision 1. [PRESUMPTIONS.] For the purpose of properly administering the tax imposed by section 24 and to prevent evasion of the tax, the following presumptions shall apply:

(a) It shall be presumed that the tax imposed by section 24 applies to the sale at wholesale of all intermediate and finished products sold by any person who is required to disclose the generation of hazardous waste under the hazardous waste rules of the agency adopted pursuant to section 116.07, unless the products or any portion of them are exempt from tax as provided in section 26; and

(b) It shall be presumed that the tax imposed by section 24 applies to all the gross receipts from taxable sales of a person who is required to pay the tax imposed by section 24 until the contrary is established.

Subd. 2. [BURDEN OF PROOF.] The burden of proving that a sale is not a sale at wholesale or that the person or product involved in the sale is exempt from the tax imposed by section 24 is on the person making the claim.

Sec. 26. [297C.05] [EXEMPTIONS FROM PRODUCT TAX.]

Subdivision 1. [EXEMPT PERSONS.] Notwithstanding any provision of sections 22 to 41 to the contrary, the following persons are exempt from payment of the tax imposed by section 24:

(a) Any person who by reason of any provision of the Federal Superfund Act is not required to contribute to the fund created by section 16, but only to the extent that imposition of the tax upon that person is finally determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to violate the provisions of the Federal Super- fund Act; and

(b) Any person who is taxed under the "in lieu" provisions of chapter 298, but only to the extent that payment of the tax imposed by section 24 would violate the "in lieu" provisions of chapter 298.

Subd. 2. [EXEMPT PRODUCTS.] Notwithstanding any provision of sections 22 to 41 to the contrary, the gross receipts from the sale at wholesale of the following products shall not be included in the calculation of the tax imposed by section 24:

(a) Any product whose production does not result in the generation of hazardous waste;

(b) Any product derived from the treatment of hazardous waste.

Sec. 27. [297C.06] [SALES PERMITS.]

Subdivision 1. [PERMIT REQUIREMENT.] Every person who is required to pay the tax imposed by section 24 shall obtain a permit from the commissioner as provided in this section. A separate permit is required for each place of business at which a taxable sale is made.

Subd. 2. [APPLICATION FOR PERMIT.] The person who is required to pay the tax shall file an application for a permit with the commissioner. The application shall be made upon a form prescribed by the commissioner and shall set forth the name under which the applicant intends to transact business, the location of his place or places of business, and any other information that the commissioner may require. The application shall be signed by the applicant if the applicant is a natural person; by a member or partner, if the applicant is an association or partnership; or by a person authorized to sign the application, if the applicant is a corporation or other entity.

Subd. 3. [APPLICATION FEES.] Each application for a permit shall be accompanied by a fee of $5 for each permit requested in the application.

Subd. 4. [ISSUANCE OF PERMITS.] Upon the applicant's compliance with the provisions of sections 22 to 41, the commissioner shall issue to the applicant a separate permit for each place of business designated in the application. A permit shall be valid until revoked but shall not be assignable and shall be valid only for the person in whose name it is issued and for the transaction of business at the place designated in the permit. The permit shall be conspicuously displayed at the applicant's place of business.

Subd. 5. [REVOCAION OF PERMITS.] Whenever any person fails to comply with any provision of sections 22 to 41 or any rule promulgated thereunder, the commissioner, upon hearing, after giving the person 30 days' notice in writing specifying the time and place of hearing and the reason for the proposed revocation and requiring him to show cause why his permit or permits should not be revoked, may for reasonable cause revoke or suspend any one or more of the permits held by that person. The notice may be served personally or by mail in the manner prescribed for service of notice of a tax deficiency. The commissioner shall not issue a new permit after revocation except upon application accompanied by reasonable evidence of the intention of the applicant to comply with the requirements of sections 22 to 41 and the rules promulgated thereunder. The commissioner may condition the issuance of a new permit on the supplying of reasonable security to assure compliance with sections 22 to 41 and the rules promulgated thereunder.

Subd. 6. [SALES WITHOUT PERMITS; PROHIBITIONS; PENALTIES.] A person who is required to pay the tax imposed by section 24 and who knowingly engages in the business of making taxable sales without first obtaining the permit required by this section, and each officer of any corporation which engages in business in violation of this subdivision, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 28. [297C.07] [COLLECTION OF TAX.]

Subdivision 1. [MONTHLY COLLECTION.] The tax imposed by section 24 is due and payable to the commissioner monthly on or before the 25th day of the month next succeeding the month in which the taxable event occurred or succeeding any other reporting period that the commissioner may prescribe.

Subd. 2. [FILING OF RETURNS.] On or before the 25th day of each month in which taxes imposed by section 24 are payable, a return for the preceding reporting period shall be filed with the commissioner in the form prescribed by the commissioner, verified by a written declaration, signed by the person filing the return or his duly authorized agent, stating that it is made under the criminal penalties for wilfully making a false return, and in addition shall contain a confession of judgment for the amount of the tax shown due to the extent not timely paid. Any person making sales at two or more places of business may file a consolidated return subject to the rules prescribed by the commissioner.

Subd. 3. [RECORD KEEPING REQUIREMENTS.] Every person liable for any tax imposed by section 24 shall keep records, render statements and make returns, as required by the rules of the commissioner. Any return or statement shall include the information required by the rules and the forms prescribed by the commissioner. For the purpose of determining compliance with the provisions of this subdivision, the commissioner shall have power to examine, or cause to be examined, any books, papers, records, or memoranda relevant to making a determination of compliance, whether the books, papers, records, or memoranda are the property of or in the possession of the person liable for the tax or any other person or corporation. The commissioner shall have power to require the attendance of any person having knowledge or information relevant to the inquiry, to compel the production of books, papers, records, or memoranda by persons required to attend, to take testimony on matters relevant to the issues being decided, and to administer oaths or affirmations.

Sec. 29. [297C.08] [RULES.]

The commissioner shall promulgate temporary and permanent rules as necessary or useful for the proper implementation, administration, collection and enforcement of the tax imposed by section 24.

Sec. 30. [297C.09] [EXTENSIONS.]

The commissioner may extend the time for filing returns and paying the tax imposed by section 24, and for paying deficiencies and penalties, for not more than 60 days. He may require a tentative return at the time fixed for filing the regularly required return and payment of a tax at that time on the basis of the tentative return.

Where an extension of time for payment has been granted under this section, interest shall be payable at the rate provided in section 33 from the date when the payment should have been made, if no extension had been granted, until the time when the tax is paid.

Sec. 31. [297C.10] [EXAMINATION OF RETURN; ADJUSTMENTS; NOTICES AND DEMANDS.]

Subdivision 1. The commissioner shall, as soon as practicable after a return is filed, examine the return and make any investigation or examination of the records and accounts of the person making the return that he deems necessary for determining its correctness. The tax computed on the basis of the examination shall be the tax to be paid. If the tax found to be due exceeds the amount of the tax reported as due on the taxpayers return, the excess shall be paid to the commissioner within 60 days after notice of the amount and demand for its payment is mailed to the person making the return. If the amount of the tax found due by the commissioner is less than that reported as due on the return, the excess shall be refunded to the person making the return in the manner provided by section 35 (except that no demand shall be necessary), if he has already paid the whole of the tax, or credited against any unpaid tax. No refundment shall be made except as provided in section 35 after the expiration of three years after the filing of the return.

Subd. 2. The notices and demands provided for by this section and section 33 shall contain a brief statement of the computation of the tax and shall be sent by mail to the person making the return at the address given in his return, if any, or to his last known address, or a brief written statement of the computation of the tax may be personally served upon the taxpayer. Demand for immediate payment of the taxes contained in the written statement shall be made by the person making personal service.

Sec. 32. [297C.11] [FAILURE TO FILE RETURN.]

If any person required by section 28 to file any return fails to do so within the time prescribed, or makes, wilfully or otherwise, an incorrect, false, or fraudulent return, he shall, upon written notice and demand, immediately file the return, or corrected return, and at the same time pay any tax due on the basis of the return. If the person fails to file any return or corrected return, the commissioner shall make a return, or corrected return, for him from the commissioner's own knowledge and from any information that he can obtain through testimony, or otherwise, and assess a tax on the basis thereof, which tax (less any payments theretofore made on account of the tax for the taxable period covered by the return) shall be immediately paid upon written notice and demand. Any return or assessment made by the commissioner shall be prima facie correct and valid, and the taxpayer shall have the burden of establishing its incorrectness or invalidity in any action or proceeding in respect thereto.

Sec. 33. [297C.12] [FAILURE TO PAY TAX; ACTIONS; PROTECTION AGAINST EVASION.]

Subdivision 1. If any portion of a tax imposed by section 24, including penalties, is not paid within 60 days after it is required to be paid, the commissioner shall bring against the person liable for payment of the tax an action at law, in the name of the state, for the recovery of the tax and interest and penalties due in respect thereof. The action shall be brought in the district court in the county where the residence or principal place of business within this state of the person required to file the return, or, in the case of an estate or trust, of the place of its principal administration, is located and for this purpose the place named in the return, if any, shall be conclusively presumed to be the proper location. If no place is named in the return, the action may be commenced in Ramsey County.

Subd. 2. If the commissioner has reason to believe that the person required to file the return is about to remove himself or his property from this state with the purpose of evading the tax imposed by section 24, or that the collection of the tax will be jeopardized by delays incident to other methods of collection, he may immediately declare the person's reporting period at an end and assess a tax on the basis of his own knowledge or information available to him, demand its immediate payment; and, if payment is not immediately made, collect the tax by any method authorized by law. It shall not be a defense to any assessment made under this section that the tax period has not terminated, or that the time otherwise allowed by law for filing a return has not expired, or that the notices otherwise required by law for making an assessment have not been given, or that the time otherwise allowed by law for taking or prosecuting an appeal or for paying the tax has not expired.

Subd. 3. In addition to all other methods authorized for the collection of the tax, it may be collected in an ordinary action at law or in equity by the state against the person required to file a return.

Subd. 4. No suit shall lie to enjoin the assessment or collection of any taxes imposed by section 24, or the interest and penalties imposed thereby.

Subd. 5. The tax, as assessed by the commissioner, together with any penalties, shall be presumed to be valid and correctly determined and assessed, and the burden shall be upon the person required to file the return to establish the incorrectness or invalidity of the assessment.

Subd. 6. When any tax is due and payable as provided in section 24, the commissioner may issue his warrant to the sheriff of any county of the state commanding him to levy upon and sell the real and personal property of the person liable for the tax and to levy upon the rights to property of the person within the county and to return the warrant to the commissioner and pay to him the money collected by virtue of the levy by the time specified in the warrant, and within 60 days from the date of the warrant. The sheriff shall proceed under the warrant to levy upon and seize any property of the person and to levy upon the rights to property of the person within his county, except the homestead and household goods of the person and property of the person not liable to attachment, garnishment, or sale on any final process issued from any court under the provisions of section 550.37, and shall sell so much of the property as is required to satisfy the taxes, interest, and penalties, together with his costs; but any sale shall be governed by the laws applicable to sales of like property on execution issued against property upon a judgment of a court of record. The proceeds of any sale, less the sheriff's costs, shall be turned over to the commissioner, who shall retain enough to satisfy the tax, interest, penalties and costs, and pay over any balance to the taxpayer. Any action taken by the commissioner pursuant to this subdivision shall not constitute an election by the state to pursue a remedy to the exclusion of any other remedy providing for the collection of taxes imposed by section 24.

Subdivision 1. Except as otherwise provided in sections 22 to 41, the amount of taxes assessable with respect to any taxable period shall be assessed within three years after the return for that period is filed. Taxes shall be deemed to have been assessed within the meaning of this section whenever the commissioner prepares a notice of tax assessment and mails the notice to the person required to file the return at the post office address given in the return. The commissioner's record of mailing shall be presumptive evidence of the giving of notice.

Subd. 2. If the person required to file the return omits from the return a properly includible dollar amount which is in excess of 25 percent of the dollar amount reported in the return, the tax may be assessed, or a proceeding in court for the collection of the tax may be begun at any time within five years after the return is filed.

Subd. 3. For the purposes of this section and of section 35, a return filed before the last day prescribed by law for filing shall be considered as filed on the last day.

Subd. 4. In the case of a false or fraudulent return with intent to evade tax or of failure with the same intent to file a return, the tax may be assessed, or a proceeding in court for the collection of the tax may be begun at any time.

Subd. 5. Where the assessment of any tax is made within the period prescribed by this section, the tax may be collected by a proceeding in court, but only if begun:

(a) Not later than nine months after the expiration of the period for the assessment of the tax; or

(b) Not later than nine months after final disposition of any appeal from the order of assessment.

Subd. 6. If before the expiration of the time prescribed in subdivision 1 for the assessment of the tax, the commissioner and the taxpayer consent in writing to an extension of time for the assessment of the tax, the tax may be assessed at any time prior to the expiration of the period agreed upon. The period so agreed upon may be extended by subsequent agreements in writing made before the expiration of the period previously agreed upon.

Sec. 35. [297C.14] [REFUNDS.]

Subdivision 1. A person who has paid to the commissioner an amount of tax for any period in excess of the amount legally due for that period may file with the commissioner a claim for a refund of the excess. Except as provided in subdivision 3, no claim shall be entertained unless filed within two years after the tax is paid, or within three years from the filing of the return, whichever period is longer. The commissioner shall examine the claim and make and file written findings denying or allowing the claim in whole or in part and shall mail a notice of the finding to the person at the address stated in the claim. Any allowance shall include interest on the excess determined at a rate of 6 percent per annum from the date the excess is paid or collected until the date it is refunded or credited. If the claim is allowed in whole or in part, the commissioner shall credit the amount of the allowance against any taxes imposed under section 24 and due from the claimant and for the balance of the allow- ance, if any, the commissioner shall issue his certificate for the refundment of the excess paid, and the commissioner of finance shall cause the refund to be paid out of the proceeds of the tax imposed by section 24, as other state moneys are expended. So much of the proceeds of the tax imposed by section 24 as may be necessary are hereby appropriated for that purpose.

Subd. 2. If the claim is denied in whole or in part, the claimant may commence an action against the commissioner to recover the amount claimed. The action may be brought in the district court in the county of the claimant's residence or principal place of business or if an estate or trust, of the principal place of its administration, or in the district court for Ramsey County. The action may be commenced after the expiration of six months after the claim is filed if the commissioner has not yet taken final action on the claim, and shall be commenced within 18 months after mailing of the notice of the order denying the claim.

Subd. 3. If the commissioner and the person required to file the return have within the periods prescribed in subdivision 1 consented in writing to any extension of time for the assessment of the tax under the provisions of section 34, subdivision 6, the period within which a claim for refund may be filed, or a refund may be made or allowed, if no claim is filed, shall be the period within which the commissioner and the taxpayer have consented to an extension for the assessment of the tax; provided, however, that the period within which a claim for refund may be filed shall not expire prior to two years after the tax is paid.

Sec. 36. [297C.15] [LIABILITY AGREEMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. The commissioner may enter into a signed agreement in writing with any person relating to the liability of that person, or of the person or estate for whom he acts, for any tax due under sections 22 to 41 for any taxable period ending prior to the date of the agreement.

Subd. 2. If the agreement is approved by the commissioner within the time stated in the agreement, the agreement shall be final and conclusive; and, except upon a showing of fraud or malfeasance, or misrepresentation of a material fact, the matter agreed upon shall not be reopened nor the agreement modified, by any officer, employee, or agent of the state; and, in any suit, action, or proceeding, the agreement, or any determination, assessment, collection, payment, abatement, refund, or credit made in accordance with the agreement shall be conclusive and shall not be annulled, modified, set aside or disregarded.

Sec. 37. [297C.16] [ADMINISTRATION OF LAW.]

The commissioner shall administer and enforce the assessment and collection of the tax imposed by section 24. He shall cause to be prepared blank forms for the returns required by section 24, and shall distribute the forms throughout this state and furnish them on application, but failure to receive or secure them shall not relieve any person from any obligation required of him under sections 22 to 41.

Sec. 38. [297C.17] [REVOCATION OF CORPORATE LICENSES TO DO BUSINESS IN STATE.]

Whenever any person required to pay the tax imposed by section 24 fails to comply with any of the provisions of sections 22 to 41 or any rule of the commissioner promulgated thereunder, the commissioner, if the person is a corporation authorized to do business in this state, may for reasonable cause certify to the secretary of state a copy of an order finding that the corporation has failed to comply with specified statutes or rules. The secretary of state shall, upon receipt of the certified copy, revoke the license authorizing the corporation to do business in this state, and shall issue a new license only when the corporation obtains from the commissioner an order finding that the corporation has complied with its obligations under sections 22 to 41. No order authorized in this section shall be made until the person is given an opportunity to be heard and to show cause why the order should not be made, and he shall be given 30 days' notice of the time and place of hearing and the reason for the proposed order.

Sec. 39. [297C.18] [PENALTIES.]

Subdivision 1. If any tax imposed by section 24, or any portion of the tax, is not paid within the time specified for the payment, or an extension of that time, or within 30 days after final determination of an appeal to the tax court, a specific penalty equal to 10 percent of the amount remaining unpaid shall be added to the tax due.

Subd. 2. In case of any failure to make and file a return within the time prescribed by section 28 or an extension of that time, unless it is shown that the failure is not due to wilful neglect, there shall be added to the tax, in lieu of the 10 percent specific penalty provided in subdivision 1, 10 percent if the failure is for not more than 30 days, and an additional 5 percent for each additional 30 days or fraction thereof during which the failure continues, not exceeding 25 percent in the aggregate. If the penalty as computed does not exceed $10, a minimum penalty of $10 shall be assessed. The amount added to the tax shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner and as a part of the tax unless the tax has been paid before the discovery of the negligence, in which case the amount so added shall be collected in the same manner as the tax.

Subd. 3. If any person wilfully fails to file any return required by section 28 or make any payment required by section 24, or wilfully files a false or fraudulent return, or wilfully attempts in any manner to evade or defeat payment of the tax, a penalty shall also be imposed on him in an amount equal to 50 percent of any tax (less any amounts paid by him on the basis of the false or fraudulent return) due from him for the period covered by the return. The penalty imposed by this subdivision shall be collected as part of the tax, and shall be in addition to any other penalties, civil and criminal, provided by this section.

Subd. 4. In addition to the penalties prescribed by subdivisions 1 to 3, any person who wilfully fails to make a return or wilfully makes a false return or wilfully fails to pay taxes due to the state, with intent to evade any tax imposed by section 24, is guilty of a gross misdemeanor unless the amount of the tax involved exceeds $100, in which event he is guilty of a felony. The term "person" as used in this subdivision includes any officer or employee of a corporation or a member or employee of a partnership who as an officer, member or employee is under a duty to perform the act in respect to which the violation occurs.

Subd. 5. All payments received shall be credited first to penalties, next to interest, and then to the tax due.

Subd. 6. The commissioner shall have power to abate penalties when in his opinion their enforcement would be unjust and inequitable. The exercise of this power shall be subject to the approval of the attorney general if the abatement exceeds $500.

Subd. 7. The amount of tax not timely paid, together with any penalty provided by this section, shall bear interest at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the time such tax should have been paid until paid. Any interest and penalty shall be added to the tax and be collected as a part thereof.

Sec. 40. [297C.19] [PERSONAL DEBT; LIEN.]

Subdivision 1. The tax imposed by section 24, and interest and penalties imposed with respect thereto, shall become a personal debt of the person required to file a return from the time the liability for payment arises, irrespective of when the time for payment of the liability occurs. The debt shall, in the case of the executor or administrator of the estate of a decedent and in the case of any fiduciary, be that of the person in his official or fiduciary capacity only unless he voluntarily distributes the assets held in that capacity without reserving sufficient assets to pay the tax, interest, and penalties, in which event he shall be personally liable for any deficiency.

Subd. 2. The tax imposed by section 24, and interest and penalties imposed with respect thereto, shall become a lien upon all of the real property of the person required to file a return within this state except his homestead, from and after the filing by the commissioner of a notice of tax lien in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the real property is situated.

Sec. 41. [297C.20] [DEPOSIT OF REVENUES.]

After subtracting the commissioner's costs of administration, all revenues, including interest and penalties, derived from the tax imposed by section 24 shall be deposited by the commissioner in the state treasury and credited to the environmental response, compensation and compliance fund established by section 16."

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Davies from the Committee on Judiciary, to which was referred

S.F. No. 1891: A bill for an act relating to real property; providing for relief in certain cases from inequitable foreclosure of mortgages, termination of contracts for the conveyance of real estate, and execution sales of real property during an emergency declared by the governor; authorizing the governor to declare by proclamation a public economic emergency under certain conditions, limiting its duration, and providing nullifying powers in the legislature; postponing certain sales and extending the period of redemption of real property during an emergency; providing for possession during the extended period; and limiting the right to maintain actions for deficiency judgments; proposing new law coded in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 4.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [582A.01] [LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS.]

The legislature finds that the continuing and unprecedented inflationary trends have eroded the economy; that the cost of production in farming often exceeds the price received for farm commodities; that the continuing increase in the cost of consumer goods has curtailed the ability to purchase these goods; that the reduction in purchasing power of consumers has resulted in unemployment; and that by reason of these conditions and the high rates of interest on mortgage loans and contracts for deed, many citizens of this state will be unable for extended periods of time to meet in full all payments of taxes, interest and principal on mortgages, and contract for deed payments on their properties and are, therefore, threatened with loss of their real property through mortgage foreclosure, contract for deed termination, and judicial sales. The legislature further finds that these conditions may result in an emergency of a nature that justifies and validates legislation for the extension of the time of redemption from mortgage foreclosure, execution sales, contract cancellations, and other relief of a similar character to be effective only in the event that the governor finds that the conditions, in fact, have resulted in an emergency and issues a proclamation to that effect.

Sec. 2. [582A.02] [EMERGENCY PROCLAMATION.]

If the governor, after consultation with appropriate departments and agencies, finds that the number of mortgage foreclosures, judicial sales, and terminations of contracts for deed on real property used for farming are significantly increasing, he may by proclamation declare that a public economic emergency exists in the state. Upon proclamation, sections 3 to 12 are in effect.

The emergency proclaimed shall remain in effect only from the date of the proclamation to April 1, 1983. The legislature, by law, may declare the proclamation a nullity and that the proclamation and sections 3 to 12 are of no effect. The governor shall not declare an emergency under the provisions of this section after nullification of a prior proclamation by the legislature.

Sec. 3. [582A.03] [APPLICATION.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL EXCLUSION.] The provisions of sections 1 to 12 do not apply to mortgages or contracts for deed made after January 1, 1982, nor to mortgages made prior to the date of the governor's proclamation, which are renewed or extended after the effective date of sections 1 and 2. No court shall allow a resale, stay, postponement, or extension of time that would cause any right to be lost or adversely affected by any statute of limitation.

Subd. 2. [EXCLUSION; GOVERNMENT BONDS.] The provisions of this act do not apply to any mortgage held by or pledged to secure payment of notes or bonds issued by the Minnesota housing finance agency or by a city pursuant to a municipal housing program under chapter 462C.

Subd. 3. [PROPERTY COVERED; REQUIREMENTS.] The provisions of sections 1 to 12 apply only to judgments against mortgages secured by and contracts for deed conveying real property used materially and not just incidentally for the purposes of farming. Sections 1 to 12 do not apply to any mortgage on or security interest in tangible or intangible personal property. Sections 1 to 12 do not apply to any contract for deed on which less than 30 percent of the total purchase price has been paid nor to any contract for deed conveying, mortgage on, or judgment against real estate which is not used, in whole or in part, as the principal residence of the owner, judgment debtor, or contract vendee or his family on a substantially continuous basis since the execution of the contract for deed or to the making or assumption of the mortgage. The court shall be liberal in determining whether property conveyed by contract for deed is used as a principal residence on a substantially continuous basis.

Sec. 4. [582A.04] [MORTGAGOR MAY PETITION DISTRICT COURT FOR RELIEF.]

In any proceedings commenced prior to a proclamation made pursuant to section 2 for the foreclosure of a mortgage on real estate by advertisement, in which a sale of the property has not been had, or in any proceedings commenced after a proclamation, the mortgagor, or the owner in possession of the mortgaged premises, or anyone claiming under the mortgage, or anyone liable for the mortgage debt, at any time after the issuance of the notice of the foreclosure proceedings, may petition the district court of the county wherein the foreclosure proceedings are pending, serving a summons and verified complaint requesting that the sale in foreclosure by advertisement be postponed and that the foreclosure, if any, shall proceed by action. If it appears to the court that the granting of the relief requested would be equitable and just, the court may postpone the foreclosure proceedings by advertisement by ex parte order which shall be served with the summons and complaint upon the party foreclosing or his attorney. At the time of hearing on the ex parte order, the court may then further postpone the sale, and the parties seeking to foreclose the mortgage shall proceed, if at all, to foreclose the mortgage by action. As a condition precedent to the postponement of the foreclosure sale by advertisement, the party serving the verified complaint shall file it and pay to the clerk for the person foreclosing the mortgage the actual costs incurred, not including attorney's fees, in the foreclosure proceeding prior to postponement. The filing of the verified complaint shall be deemed a waiver of publication of notice of postponement of the foreclosure sale and the sale at the time which may be fixed by the court shall be deemed to be a sale postponed in lieu of the time of sale specified in the published notice of mortgage foreclosure sale.

Sec. 5. [582A.05] [COURT MAY ORDER RESALE.]

When any mortgage has been foreclosed by action, the court shall, upon receipt of the report of sale, cause notice of a hearing thereon to be served on the parties to the action who have appeared, and fix the time and place of hearing on the report. Before granting an order confirming the sale, the court shall order a resale if it appears that the sale price is unreasonably and unfairly inadequate. If the sale is confirmed, the sheriff, or his deputy, shall forthwith execute and deliver the proper certificate of sale which shall be recorded within 20 days after the confirmation. Upon hearing on the motion for an order confirming the sale in the foreclosure of mortgages by action, if the evidence is insufficient to establish a fair and reasonable market or rental value of the property, the court may receive evidence, including evidence tending to establish the actual value of the property, for the purpose or purposes for which the property is or can be used. The court shall also receive evidence tending to show to what extent, if any, the property has decreased in market value by reason of the economic conditions existing at the time of or prior to the sale.

Sec. 6. [582A.06] [COMPROMISES.]

If the parties to a foreclosure action agree in writing to a compromise settlement thereof, or of composition of the mortgage indebtedness, or both, the court shall have jurisdiction and may by its order confirm and approve the settlement or composition, or both, as the case might be.

Sec. 7. [582A.07] [JURISDICTION OF COURT.]

The court shall have jurisdiction to postpone the termination of a contract for the conveyance of real estate; to postpone the enforcement of judgment by levy, execution and sale or to order resale; and to postpone foreclosure of a mortgage secured by real estate. Upon the governor's proclamation, the inability of the mortgagor, judgment debtor, or contract purchaser to make the payments under a contract for the conveyance of real estate, mortgage agreement, or judgment shall be a valid defense to levy, execution, sale, seizure, repossession, termination, and foreclosure during the effective period of the governor's proclamation.

Sec. 8. [582A.08] [PERIOD OF REDEMPTION AND REINSTATEMENT MAY BE EXTENDED.]

(i) If any mortgage on real property has been foreclosed and the period of redemption has not expired; (ii) if a sale is made during the effective period of the governor's proclamation; (iii) if a sale of any real property is made under any judgment or execution when the period of redemption has not expired or when the sale under clauses (i) and (ii) is made during the effective period of the governor's proclamation; or (iv) if a receipt of notice of termination of a contract for deed, the period of redemption or the period during which the contract for deed may be reinstated may be extended for such additional time as the court determines to be just and equitable but in no event beyond the effective period of the governor's proclamation; provided that the contract vendee, in the case of a contract for deed termination, the mortgagor or the owner in possession of the property, in the case of mortgage foreclosure proceedings, or the judgment debtor, in case of levy, execution, or sale under judgment shall prior to the expiration of the period of redemption in the case of a mortgage, the expiration of the period during which the contract for deed can be reinstated, or to sale under judgment, petition the district court on not less than ten days' written notice to the contract vendor, mortgagee, or judgment creditor, or his attorney for an order postponing levy, execution, seizure, sale, termination, or forfeiture, and determining the reasonable value of the income on the property, or, if the property has no income, then the reasonable rental value of the property subject to the contract for deed, mortgage, or judgment, and directing and requiring the contract vendee, mortgagor, or judgment debtor to pay all or a reasonable part of the income or rental value for the payment of taxes, insurance, interest, principal or judgment indebtedness at the times and in the manner determined by the court. The court shall hear the petition and after the hearing shall make and file its order directing the payment by the contract vendee, mortgagor, or judgment debtor of an amount at the times and in the manner that the court determines just and equitable. Upon service of the petition, the running of the period of redemption, reinstatement of contract for deed shall be tolled and further proceedings under levy and execution shall be stayed until the court makes its order upon the petition. If the contract vendee, mortgagor, or judgment debtor defaults in the payments ordered, or commits waste, his right to redeem from the sale, cure the default on the contract for deed, or postpone seizure and sale shall terminate 30 days after the default. Thereafter holders of subsequent liens may redeem in the order and manner provided by law beginning 30 days after the filing of notice of the default with the clerk of district court, the right to possession shall cease and the contract vendor or party acquiring title to the real estate shall be entitled to immediate possession of the premises. If default is claimed because of waste, the 30 day period shall not begin to run until the filing of an order of the court finding the waste. No action shall be maintained for a deficiency judgment until the period of redemption as allowed by section 580.23, or as extended under the provisions of sections 3 to 12, has expired.

Sec. 9. [582A.09] [COURT MAY REVISE AND ALTER TERMS.]

Upon the application of either party prior to the expiration of the extended period of redemption, reinstatement of contract for deed, or payment on judgment as provided in sections 1 to 12 and upon the presentation of evidence that the terms fixed by the court are no longer just and reasonable, the court may revise and alter the terms, in the manner as the changed circumstances and conditions require.

Sec. 10. [582A.10] [TRIAL TO BE HELD WITHIN 30 DAYS.]

The trial of any action, hearing, or proceeding provided for in sections 1 to 12, shall be held within 30 days after the filing of the petition. The order therein shall be made and filed within five days after the trial. Review by the supreme court may be had by certiorari, if application for the writ is made within 15 days after notice of the order and the writ shall be returnable within 30 days after the filing of the order.

Sec. 11. [582A.11] [LIMITATIONS.]

No postponement or extension shall be ordered under conditions which would substantially diminish or impair the value of the contract or obligation of the person against whom the relief is sought, without reasonable allowance to justify the exercise of the police power authorized in sections 1 to 12.

Sec. 12. [582A.12] [INCONSISTENT LAWS SUSPENDED.]

Every law, to the extent it is inconsistent with sections 1 to 12, is suspended during the effective period of the governor's proclamation.

Sec. 13. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 and 2 are effective the day following final enactment. Sections 3 to 12 are effective on the date of the governor's proclamation declaring a public economic emergency as provided in section 2."

Delete the title and insert:

"A bill for an act relating to real property; providing for relief in certain cases from inequitable foreclosure of mortgages, termination of contracts for the conveyance of real estate, and execution sales of real property during an emergency declared by the governor; authorizing the governor to declare by proclamation a public economic emergency under certain conditions, limiting its duration, and providing nullifying powers in the legislature; postponing certain sales and extending the period of redemption of real property during an emergency; providing for possession during the extended period; and limiting the right to maintain actions for deficiency judgments; proposing new law coded as Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 582A."

"Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 115A.21, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [MORATORIUM.] In order to permit the comparative evaluation of sites and the participation of affected localities in decisions about the use of sites, a moratorium is hereby imposed as provided in this subdivision on all development within each proposed or candidate site identified pursuant to this section and in a buffer area identified by the board surrounding and at least equal in area to the site. The moratorium on candidate sites and buffer areas shall extend until the board chooses a final candidate site or final candidate sites pursuant to this article. The moratorium on the final sites and buffer areas shall extend until six months following final action of the board pursuant to sections 115A.18 to 115A.30. No development shall be allowed to occur within a proposed site or buffer area during the period of the moratorium without the approval of the board. No land use control of any political subdivision shall permit development which has not been approved by the board, nor shall any political subdivision sanction or approve any subdivision, permit, license, or other authorization which would allow development to occur which has not been approved by the board. The board shall not approve actions which would jeopardize the availability of a candidate site for use as a hazardous waste facility. The board may establish guidelines for reviewing requests for approval under this subdivision. The guidelines shall not be subject to the rule-making provisions of chapter 15. Requests for approval shall be submitted in writing to the chairperson of the board and shall be deemed to be approved by the board unless the chairperson otherwise notifies the submitter in writing within 15 days.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 115A.24, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CERTIFICATE.] Except as provided in subdivision 2, by December 15, 1982, on the basis of and consistent with its hazardous waste management plan adopted under section 115A.11, the board shall issue a certificate or certificates of need for disposal facilities for hazardous wastes in the state. The certificate or certificates shall indicate the types and volumes of waste for which disposal facilities are and will be needed through the year 2000 and the number, types, sizes, general design and operating specifications, and function or use of the disposal facilities needed in the state. The board shall certify need only to the extent that the board has determined that there are no feasible and prudent alternatives including waste reduction, separation, pre-treatment, processing, and resource recovery which would minimize adverse impact upon natural resources, provided that the board shall require the establishment of at least one commercial disposal facility in the state. Economic considerations alone shall not justify certification nor the rejection of alternatives. Alternatives that are speculative and conjectural shall not be deemed to be feasible and prudent. The board shall consider all technologies being developed in other countries as well as in the United States when it considers the alternatives to hazardous waste disposal. The certificate or certificates shall not be subject to the provisions of chapter 15 but shall be the final determination required on the matters decided by the certificate or certificates and shall have the force and effect of law. The certificate or certificates shall not be amended for five years. The board and the permitting agencies, in reviewing and selecting sites, completing environmental impact statements, and issuing approvals and permits for waste disposal facilities described in the certificate or certificates of need, shall not reconsider matters determined in the certification. The board and the permitting agencies shall be required to make a final decision approving the establishment of facilities consistent with the certification. The board and the permitting agencies shall be required to make a final decision approving the establishment of at least one commercial disposal facility for hazardous waste in the state."

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 115A.42, is amended to read:

115A.42 [ESTABLISHMENT AND ADMINISTRATION.]

There is established a planning assistance program to provide technical and financial assistance to political subdivisions of the state for the ~~purpose~~ purposes of encouraging and improving regional and local solid waste management planning activities and efforts and of furthering the state policies and purposes expressed in section 115A.02. The program shall be administered by the agency pursuant to rules promulgated under chapter 15, except in the metropolitan area where the program shall be administered by the metropolitan council pursuant to chapter 473. The agency and the metropolitan council shall ensure conformance with federal requirements and programs established pursuant to the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976 and amendments thereto.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 115A.46, is amended to read:

115A.46 [CONTENTS REQUIREMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] Plans shall address the state policies and purposes expressed in section 115A.02. Plans for the location, establishment, operation, maintenance, and post-closure use of facilities and facility sites, for ordinances, and for licensing, permit, and enforcement activities shall be consistent with the rules adopted by the agency pursuant to chapter 116. Plans shall address the resolution of conflicting, duplicative, or overlapping local management efforts. Plans shall address the establishment of joint powers management programs or waste management districts where appropriate. Plans proposing a designation of resource recovery facilities pursuant to sections 115A.70 and 400.162 shall be submitted to the waste management board for review and approval or disapproval under section 3 of this act. Plans shall address other matters as the rules of the agency may require consistent with the purposes of sections 115A.42 to 115A.46. Plans prepared by local units of government in the metropolitan area shall conform to the requirements of chapter 473. Plans prepared by political subdivisions outside the metropolitan area with assistance from the program shall conform to the requirements of this section.

Subd. 2. [CONTENTS.] The plans shall describe existing collection, processing, and disposal systems, including schedules of rates and charges, financing methods, environmental acceptability, and opportunities for improvements in the systems. The plans shall include an estimate of the land disposal capacity in acre-feet which will be needed through the year 2000, on the basis of current and projected waste generation practices. The plans shall contain an assessment of opportunities to reduce the need for land disposal through waste reduction and resource recovery, the alternative degrees of reduction achievable, and a comparison of the costs of alternatives, including capital and operating costs, and the effects of the alternatives on the cost to generators and on persons currently providing solid waste collection, processing, and disposal services. The plans shall, to the extent practicable and consistent with the achievement of other public policies and purposes, encourage ownership and operation of solid waste facilities by private industry. For solid waste facilities owned or operated by public agencies or supported primarily by public funds or obligations issued by a public agency, the plans shall include criteria and standards to protect comparable private and public facilities already existing in the area from displacement unless the displacement is required in order to achieve the waste management objectives identified in the plan. The plans shall establish a siting procedure and development program to assure the orderly location, development, and financing of new or expanded solid waste facilities and services sufficient for a prospective ten-year period, including estimated costs and implementation schedules, proposed procedures for operation and maintenance, estimated annual costs and gross revenues, and proposals for the use of facilities after they are no longer needed or usable. The plans shall describe existing and proposed county and municipal ordinances and license and permit requirements relating to solid waste management and shall describe existing and proposed regulation and enforcement procedures. Plans for location, establishment, operation, maintenance, and post-closure use of facilities and facility sites, for ordinances, and for licensing, permit, and enforcement activities shall be consistent with the rules adopted by the agency pursuant to chapter 116. The plans shall address the resolution of conflicting, duplicative, or overlapping local management efforts. The plans shall address the establishment of joint powers management programs or waste management districts where appropriate. The plans shall address other matters as the rules of the agency may require consistent with the purposes of sections 115A.42 to 115A.46.

Subd. 3. [PLANS FOR DESIGNATION OF RESOURCE RECOVERY FACILITIES.] A plan proposing designation of resource recovery facilities pursuant to sections 115A.70 and 400.162 shall evaluate the benefits of the proposal, including the public purposes achieved by the conservation and recovery of resources, the furtherance of local and any district or regional waste management plans and policies, and the furtherance of the state policies and purposes expressed in section 115A.02, and also the costs of the proposal, including not only the direct capital and operating costs of the facility but also any indirect costs and adverse long-term effects of the designation. In particular the plan shall evaluate:

(a) whether the required use will result in the recovery of resources or energy from materials which would otherwise be wasted;

(b) whether the required use will lessen the demand for and use of land disposal;

(c) whether the required use is necessary for the financial support of the facility;

(d) whether less restrictive methods for ensuring an adequate solid waste supply are available;

(e) all other feasible and prudent waste processing alternatives for accomplishing the purposes of the proposed designation, the direct and indirect costs of the alternatives, including capital and operating costs, and the effects of the alternatives on the cost to generators.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 115A.57, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CREATION; RECEIPTS.] The commissioner of finance

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 115A.69, Subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [DISPOSITION OF PRODUCTS AND ENERGY.] The district may use, sell, or otherwise dispose of all of the products and energy produced by its facilities. ~~The district may, on a competitive basis, enter into short or long term contracts, make spot sales, solicit bids, enter into direct negotiations, deal with brokers, or use such other methods of disposal as it chooses, provided that the dealings of the district shall be on a competitive basis so as not to create an unfair or unreasonable advantage or restraint of trade on the part of the district. Section 471.345 shall not apply to the sale of products and energy.~~ The district shall give particular consideration to the needs of purchasers in this state and shall actively promote sales to such purchasers so long as this can be done at prices and under conditions that meet constitutional requirements and that are consistent with the district's object of being financially self supporting to the greatest extent possible.

(e) ~~all other feasible and prudent waste processing alternatives for accomplishing the purposes of the proposed designation have been considered and the costs of the alternatives, including capital and operating costs, and the effects of the alternatives on the cost to generators have been compared and evaluated. Any district designation shall be based upon a plan prepared and approved in conformance with sections 3 of this act and 115A.46, shall be authorized in the articles of incorporation of the district, and shall be submitted pursuant to section 3 for review and approval or disapproval by the waste management board.~~

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 115A.70, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [EXEMPTION.] The district shall not designate and require use of facilities for materials which are being separated from solid waste and re-covered for reuse or recycling by the generator, by a private person under contract with the generator or by a licensed solid waste collector. The district shall not designate and require use of facilities for materials which are being delivered to another resource recovery facility unless the district finds and determines that the required use is consistent with criteria and standards concerning displacement of existing facilities and with the evaluation of resource recovery designation which are required in the solid waste management plan of the district.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 116.07, Subdivision 4b, is amended to read:

Subd. 4b. Except as otherwise provided in sections 115A.18 to 115A.30, the agency shall commence any environmental review required under chapter 116D within 120 days of its acceptance of a completed preliminary permit application. The agency shall respond to a preliminary permit application for a hazardous waste facility within 120 days following a decision not to prepare environmental documents or following the acceptance of a negative declaration notice or an environmental impact statement. Except as otherwise provided in sections 115A.18 to 115A.30, within 60 days following the submission of a final permit application for a hazardous waste facility, unless a time extension is agreed to by the applicant, the agency shall issue or deny all permits needed for the construction of the proposed facility. The agency shall promulgate rules pursuant to chapter 15 for all hazardous waste facilities, except those addressed in subdivision 4c of this section. The rules shall require:

(1) contingency plans for all hazardous waste facilities which provide for effective containment and control in any emergency condition;

(2) the establishment of a mechanism to assure that money to cover the costs of closure and post-closure monitoring and maintenance of hazardous waste facilities will be available;

(3) the maintenance of liability insurance by the owner or operator of hazardous waste facilities during the operating life of the facility.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 400.16, is amended to read:

400.16 [SOLID WASTE AND SEWAGE SLUDGE DISPOSAL REGULATIONS.]

The county may by ordinance establish and revise rules, regulations, and standards for solid waste and sewage sludge management and land pollution, relating to (a) the location, sanitary operation, and maintenance of solid waste facilities and sewage sludge disposal facilities by the county and any municipality or other public agency and by private operators; (b) the collection, processing, and disposal of solid waste and sewage sludge; (c) the amount and type of equipment required in relation to the amount and type of material received at any solid waste facility or sewage sludge disposal facility; (d) the control of salvage operations, water or air or land pollution, and rodents at such facilities; (e) the termination or abandonment of ~~such the~~ facilities or activities; and (f) other matters relating to ~~such the~~ facilities as may be determined necessary for the public health, welfare, and safety. The county may issue permits or licenses for solid waste facilities and may require that ~~such the~~ facilities be registered with an appropriate county office. The county shall adopt the ordinances for mixed municipal solid waste management. The county shall make provision for issuing permits or licenses for mixed municipal solid waste facilities and shall require that ~~such the~~ facilities be registered with an appropriate county office. No permit or license shall be issued for a mixed municipal solid waste facility unless the applicant has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the county board the availability of revenues necessary to operate the facility in accordance with applicable state and local laws, ordinances, and rules. No permit shall be issued for a solid waste facility used primarily for resource recovery or a transfer station serving such a facility, if the facility or station is owned or operated by a public agency or if the acquisition or betterment of the facility or station is secured by public funds or obligations issued by a public agency, unless the county finds and determines that adequate markets exist for the products recovered and that any displacement of existing resource recovery facilities and transfer stations serving such facilities that may result from the establishment of the new facility is required in order to achieve the waste management objectives of the county. The county ordinance shall require appropriate procedures for termination or abandonment of any mixed municipal solid waste facilities or services, which shall include provision for long term monitoring for possible land pollution, and for the payment by the owners or operators thereof, or both, of any costs incurred by the county in completing ~~such the~~ procedures. The county may require ~~such the~~ procedures and payments with respect to any facilities or services regulated pursuant to this section. In the event the operators or owners fail to complete ~~such the~~ procedures in accordance with the ordinance, the county may recover the costs of completion in a civil action in any court of competent jurisdiction or, in the discretion of the board, the costs may be certified to the county auditor as a special tax against the land to be collected as other taxes are collected. The ordinance may be enforced by injunction, action to compel performance, or other appropriate action in the district court. Any ordinance enacted under this section shall embody minimum standards and requirements established by rule of the agency.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473.149, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [POLICY PLAN; GENERAL REQUIREMENTS.] The metropolitan council shall prepare and by resolution adopt as part of its development guide a long range policy plan for solid waste management in the metropolitan area. When adopted, the plan shall be followed in the metropolitan area. The plan shall address the state policies and purposes expressed in section 115A.02. The plan shall substantially conform to all policy statements, purposes, goals, standards, maps and plans in development guide sections and plans adopted by the council, provided that no land shall be thereby excluded from consideration as a solid waste facility site except land determined by the agency to be intrinsically unsuitable for such use. The plan shall include goals and policies for solid waste management in the metropolitan area and, to the extent appropriate, statements and information similar to that required under section 473.146, subdivision 1. The plan shall include criteria and standards for solid waste facilities and solid waste facility sites respecting the following matters: general location; capacity; operation; processing techniques; environmental impact; effect on existing, planned, or proposed collection services and waste facilities; and economic viability. The plan shall, to the extent practicable and consistent with the achievement of other public policies and purposes, encourage ownership and operation of solid waste facilities by private industry. For solid waste facilities owned or operated by public agencies or supported primarily by public funds or obligations issued by a public agency, the plan shall include additional criteria and standards to ensure that the facilities are operated on a competitive basis so as not to create an unfair or unreasonable advantage or restraint of trade in relation to protect comparable private and public facilities already existing in the area from displacement unless the displacement is required in order to achieve the waste management objectives identified in the plan. In developing the plan the council shall consider the orderly and economic development, public and private, of the metropolitan area; the preservation and best and most economical use of land and water resources in the metropolitan area; the protection and enhancement of environmental quality; the conservation and reuse of resources and energy; the preservation and promotion of conditions conducive to efficient, competitive, and adaptable systems of waste management; and the orderly resolution of questions concerning changes in systems of waste management. Criteria and standards for solid waste facilities shall be consistent with regulations adopted by the pollution control agency pursuant to chapter 116 and shall be at least as stringent as the guidelines, regulations, and standards of the federal environmental protection agency.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473.802, is amended to read:

473.802 [LEGISLATIVE PURPOSE AND POLICY.]

The legislature determines that for the protection of the public health, safety, and welfare of the people of the metropolitan area, for the prevention, control and abatement of pollution of air and waters of the state in the metropolitan area, and for the efficient and economic management of solid waste in the metropolitan area, and for the furtherance of the state policies and purposes expressed in section 115A.02, it is necessary to authorize the metropolitan council to carry on a continuous, long range program of planning with respect to solid waste management, to establish criteria and standards and approve permits for solid waste facilities in the area, and to provide funds for the acquisition of property for solid waste disposal purposes; and to authorize the metropolitan counties if necessary to acquire, construct, operate and maintain solid waste facilities, to plan for and regulate solid waste collection services and facilities, to collect data on solid and hazardous waste management systems and procedures, and to assist state agencies to regulate the management of hazardous waste. ~~The legislature declares that a public purpose is served by the recovery and utilization of resources from solid waste where economically viable and compatible with source reduction. The plans, criteria, standards and regulations of the agency, council and metropolitan counties shall, to the extent practicable, encourage ownership and operation of solid waste facilities by private industry.~~

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473.803, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [COUNTY MASTER PLANS; GENERAL REQUIREMENTS.] Each metropolitan county, following adoption or revision of the council's solid waste policy plan and in accordance with the dates specified therein, and after consultation with all affected local government units, shall prepare and submit to the council for its approval, a county solid waste master plan to implement the policy plan. The master plan shall be revised and resubmitted at such times as the council's policy plan may require. The master plan shall describe county solid waste activities, functions, and facilities; the existing system of solid waste generation, collection, and processing, and disposal within the county; existing and proposed county and municipal ordinances and license and permit requirements relating to solid waste facilities and solid waste generation, collection, and processing, and disposal; existing or proposed municipal, county, or private solid waste facilities, and collection services within the county together with schedules of existing rates and charges to users and statements as to the extent to which such facilities and services will or may be used to implement the policy plan; and any solid waste facility which the county owns or plans to acquire, construct, or improve together with statements as to the planned method, estimated cost and time of acquisition, proposed procedures for operation and maintenance of each facility; an estimate of the annual cost of operation and maintenance of each facility; an estimate of the annual gross revenues which will be received from the operation of each facility; and a proposal for the use of each facility after it is no longer needed or usable as a waste facility. The master plan shall, to the extent practicable and consistent with the achievement of other public policies and purposes, encourage ownership and operation of solid waste facilities by private industry. For solid waste facilities owned or operated by public agencies or supported primarily by public funds or obligations issued by a public agency, the master plan shall contain ~~policies to ensure that the facilities are operated on a competitive basis so as not to create an unfair or unreasonable advantage or restraint of trade in relation criteria and standards to protect comparable private and public facilities already existing in the area from displacement unless the displacement is required in order to achieve the waste management objectives identified in the plan.~~

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473.803, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1c. [PLANS FOR REQUIRED USE OF RESOURCE RECOVERY FACILITIES.] Plans proposing designation of resource recovery facilities pursuant to section 473.811, subdivision 10, shall evaluate the benefits of the proposal, including the public purposes achieved by the conservation and recovery of resources; the furtherance of local, district, or regional waste management plans and policies, and the furtherance of the state policies and purposes expressed in section 115A.02, and also the costs of the proposal, including not only the direct capital and operating costs of the facility but also any indirect costs and adverse long-term effects of the designation. In particular the plan shall evaluate:

(a) whether the required use will result in the recovery of resources or energy from materials which would otherwise be wasted;

(b) whether the required use will lessen the demand for and use of land disposal;

(c) whether the required use is necessary for the financial support of the facility;

(d) whether less restrictive methods for ensuring an adequate solid waste supply are available;

(e) all other feasible and prudent waste processing alternatives for accomplishing the purposes of the proposed designation, the direct and indirect costs of the alternatives, including capital and operating costs, and the effects of the alternatives on the cost to generators.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473.811, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [JOINT ACTION.] Each metropolitan county and Any local government governmental unit or metropolitan commission may act together with any county, city, or town within or without the metropolitan area, or with the pollution control agency or the waste management board under the provisions of section 471.59 or any other appropriate law providing for joint or cooperative action between government units, to accomplish any purpose specified in sections 473.149, 473.151, and 473.801 to 473.823 and sections 473.827, 473.831, 473.833, and 473.834, 116.05 and 115A.06.

Any agreement regarding data processing services relating to the generation, management, identification, labeling, classification, storage, collection, treatment, transportation, processing or disposal of waste and entered into pursuant to section 471.59, or other law authorizing joint or cooperative action may provide that any party to the agreement may agree to defend, indemnify and hold harmless any other party to the agreement providing the services, including its employees, officers or volunteers, against any judgments, expenses, reasonable attorney's fees and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred in connection with any third party claim or demand arising out of an alleged act or omission by a party to the agreement, its employees, officers or volunteers occurring in connection with any exchange, retention, storage or processing of data, information or records required by the agreement. Any liability incurred by a party to an agreement under this subdivision shall be subject to the limitations set forth in section 3.736 or section 466.04.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473.811, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. [COUNTY DESIGNATION OF RESOURCE RECOVERY FACILITIES.] The authority granted to metropolitan counties by this subdivision shall not apply within any solid waste management district established under sections 115A.62 to 115A.72. In order to accomplish the objectives of county waste management, to further the state policies and purposes expressed in section 115A.02, and to advance the public purposes served by resource recovery, the legislature finds and declares that it may be necessary to authorize a county to require that all or any portion of the solid waste that is generated within the boundaries of the county or any service area thereof and is disposed of in the state be delivered to a resource recovery facility designated by the county board or a transfer station serving such a facility. Any county designation shall be based upon an approved master plan and shall be submitted pursuant to section 473.827, subdivision 1, for review and approval or disapproval by the metropolitan council. In establishing, continuing, and terminating the designation, the county shall be governed by all standards, exemptions, procedures, and other requirements provided in section 115A.70, subdivisions 2 to 6.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 473.823, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

*Subd. 3. [SOLID WASTE FACILITIES; REVIEW PROCEDURES.] The agency shall request applicants for solid waste facility permits to submit all information deemed relevant by the council to its review, including without limitation information relating to the geographic areas and population served, the need, the effect on existing facilities and services, the anticipated public cost and benefit, the anticipated rates and charges, the manner of financing, the effect on metropolitan plans and development programs, the supply of waste, anticipated markets for any product, and alternative means of disposal or energy production. No permit may be issued for the operation of a solid waste facility in the metropolitan area which is not in accordance with the metropolitan council's solid waste policy plan. The metropolitan council shall determine whether a permit is in accordance with the policy plan. In making its determination, the council shall consider the area-wide need and benefit of the applicant facility and may consider, without limitation, the effect of the applicant facility on existing and planned solid waste facilities described in a waste control commission development program or county report or master plan. Subdivision 1. Medical assistance may be paid for any person:

(1) Who is eligible for or receiving public assistance, or a woman who is pregnant, as medically verified, and who would be eligible for assistance under the aid to families with dependent children program if the child had been born and living with the woman; or

(2) Who is eligible for or receiving supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled; or

(3) Who except for the amount of income or resources would qualify for supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled, or aid to families with dependent children and is in need of medical assistance; or

(4) Who is under 21 years of age and in need of medical care that neither he nor his relatives responsible under sections 256B.01 to 256B.26 are financially able to provide; or

(5) Who is residing in a hospital for treatment of mental disease or tuberculosis and is 65 years of age or older and without means sufficient to pay the per capita hospital charge; and

(6) Who resides in Minnesota, or, if absent from the state, is deemed to be a resident of Minnesota in accordance with the regulations of the state agency; and

(7) Who alone, or together with his spouse, does not own real property other than the homestead. For the purposes of this section, "homestead" means the house owned and occupied by the applicant as his dwelling place, together with the land upon which it is situated and an area no greater than two contiguous lots in a platted or laid out city or town or 80 contiguous acres in unplatted land. Occupancy or exemption shall be determined as provided in chapter 510 and applicable law, including continuing exemption by filing notice under section 510.07.

If the owner ceases to occupy the homestead for more than 24 continuous months due to admission into a hospital or nursing home, and no spouse or child who is under age 21 or is blind or disabled occupies the homestead during the owner's absence, the owner shall be deemed to have abandoned the homestead. If the owner or his legal representative files a notice with the county recorder before the 24 month period expires, the owner shall not be deemed to have abandoned the homestead for an additional 24 months from the date of filing. The notice must be executed, witnessed, and acknowledged as in the case of a deed, describe the premises and claim them as his homestead. The local welfare agency shall notify the owner or his legal representative of this option to file notice and shall provide information and any assistance the owner needs to file the notice properly. When the second 24 month period expires, the owner shall be deemed to have abandoned the homestead. Real estate not used as a home may not be retained unless it produces net income applicable to the family's needs or the family is making a continuing effort to sell it at a fair and reasonable price or unless sale of the real estate would net an insignificant amount of income applicable to the family's needs, or unless the commissioner determines that sale of the real estate would cause undue hardship; and

(8) Who individually does not own more than $2,000 in cash or liquid assets, or if a member of a household with two family members (husband and wife, or parent and child), does not own more than $4,000 in cash or liquid assets, plus $200 for each additional legal dependent. The value of the following shall not be included:

(a) the homestead, and (b) one motor vehicle licensed pursuant to chapter 168 and defined as: (1) passenger automobile, (2) station wagon, (3) motorcycle, (4) motorized bicycle or (5) truck of the weight found in categories A to E, of section 168.013, subdivision 1e; and

(9) Who has or anticipates receiving an annual income not in excess of $2,600 for a single person, or $3,250 for two family members (husband and wife, parent and child, or two siblings), plus $625 for each additional legal dependent, or who has income in excess of these maxima and in the month of application, or during the three months prior to the month of application, incurs expenses for medical care that total more than one-half of the annual excess income in accordance with the regulations of the state agency. In computing income to determine eligibility of persons who are not residents of long term care facilities, the commissioner shall disregard increases in income of social security or supplementary security income recipients due solely to increases required by sections 215(i) and 1617 of the social security act, and shall disregard income of disabled persons that is also disregarded in determining eligibility for supplemental aid under section 256D.37, subdivision 1, unless prohibited by federal law or regulation. If prohibited, the commissioner shall first seek a waiver. In excess income cases, eligibility shall be limited to a period of six months beginning with the first of the month in which these medical obligations are first incurred; and

(10) Who has continuing monthly expenses for medical care that are more than the amount of his excess income, computed on a monthly basis, in which case eligibility may be established before the total income obligation referred to in the preceding paragraph is incurred, and medical assistance payments may be made to cover the monthly unmet medical need. In licensed nursing home and state hospital cases, income over and above that required for justified needs, determined pursuant to a schedule of contributions established by the commissioner of public welfare, is to be applied to the cost of institutional care. The commissioner of public welfare may establish a schedule of contributions to be made by the spouse of a nursing home resident to the cost of care and shall seek a waiver from federal regulations which establish the amount required to be contributed by either spouse when one spouse is a nursing home resident; and

(11) Who has applied or agrees to apply all proceeds received or receivable by him or his spouse from automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage to the costs of medical care for himself, his spouse; and children. The state agency may require from any applicant or recipient of medical assistance the assignment of any rights accruing under private health care coverage. Any rights or amounts so assigned shall be applied against the cost of medical care paid for under this chapter. Any assignment shall not be effective as to benefits paid or provided under automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage prior to receipt of the assignment by the person or organization providing the benefits.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 256B.15, is amended to read:

256B.15 [CLAIMS AGAINST ESTATES.]

(d) That notwithstanding the filing of an affidavit, the adopted person may petition the court pursuant to section 259.31 for release of identifying information about a genetic parent;

(e) That the genetic parent shall then have the opportunity to present evidence to the court that nondisclosure of identifying information is of greater benefit to the genetic parent than disclosure to the adopted person; and

If either parent identified on the birth certificate has at any time filed with the commissioner of health an unrevoked affidavit stating that the information on the original birth certificate should not be disclosed, the commissioner of health shall not disclose the information to the adopted person until the affidavit is revoked by the filing of a consent to disclosure by that parent.

*Subd. 4. This disclosure will occur if, at any time during the 121 days both of the parents identified on the original birth certificate have filed a consent to disclosure with the commissioner of health and neither consent to disclosure has been revoked by the subsequent filing by a parent of an affidavit stating that the information should not be disclosed.

Sec. 2. [617.247] [POSSESSION OF OBSCENE PICTORIAL REPRESENTATIONS OF MINORS.]

Subdivision 1. [POLICY; PURPOSE.] It is the policy of the legislature in enacting this section to protect minors from the physical and psychological damage caused by their being used in obscene photographic representations. It is therefore the intent of the legislature to penalize possession of obscene photographic representations in order to protect the identity of minors who are victimized by involvement in obscene photographic representations, and to protect minors from future involvement in obscene photographic representations.

In order to determine that a work is obscene, the trier of fact must find: (i) that the average person, applying contemporary community standards would find that the work, taken as a whole, appeals to pedophiles or to the prurient interest in sex of the average person; and (ii) that the work depicts patently offensive sexual conduct specifically defined by clause (c); and (iii) that the work, taken as a whole, lacks serious literary, artistic, political, or scientific value.

(c) “Patently offensive sexual conduct” includes any of the following depicted sexual conduct if the depiction involves a minor:

(i) An act of sexual intercourse, normal or perverted, actual or simulated, including genital-genital, anal-genital, or oral-genital intercourse, whether between human beings or between a human being and an animal.

(ii) Sadomasochistic abuse, meaning flagellation or torture by or upon a person who is nude or clad in undergarments or in a revealing costume or the condition of being fettered, bound, or otherwise physically restricted on the part of one so clothed.

(iii) Masturbation or lewd exhibitions of the genitals including any explicit, close-up representation of a human genital organ.

(iv) Physical contact or simulated physical contact with the clothed or unclothed pubic areas or buttocks of a human male or female, or the breasts of the female, whether alone or between members of the same or opposite sex or between humans and animals in an act of apparent sexual stimulation or gratification.

Subd. 3. [DISSEMINATION PROHIBITED.] A person who disseminates an obscene photographic representation of a minor, knowing or with reason to know its content and character and that an actual minor is an actor or photographic subject in it, is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Subd. 4. [POSSESSION PROHIBITED.] A person who has in possession an obscene photographic representation of a minor, knowing or with reason to know its content and character and that an actual minor is an actor or photographic subject in it, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Subd. 5. [EXCEPTION.] This section does not apply to law enforcement officers, court personnel, licensed physicians and psychologists, and attorneys in the performance of their official duties.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 462.352, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. “Municipality” means any city, including a city operating under a home rule charter, and any town ~~having the powers of statutory cities pursuant to section 368.01.~~

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 462.357, Subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [APPEALS AND ADJUSTMENTS.] Appeals to the board of appeals and adjustments may be taken by any affected person upon compliance with any reasonable conditions imposed by the zoning ordinance. The board of appeals and adjustments has the following powers with respect to the zoning ordinance:

(1) To hear and decide appeals where it is alleged that there is an error in any order, requirement, decision, or determination made by an administrative officer in the enforcement of the zoning ordinance.

(2) To hear requests for variances from the literal provisions of the ordinance in instances where their strict enforcement would cause undue hardship because of circumstances unique to the individual property under consideration, and to grant such variances only when it is demonstrated that such actions will be in keeping with the spirit and intent of the ordinance. “Undue hardship” as used in connection with the granting of a variance means the property in question cannot be put to a reasonable use if used under conditions allowed by the official controls, the plight of the landowner is due to circumstances unique to his property not created by the landowner, and the variance, if granted, will not alter the essential character of the locality. Economic considerations alone shall not constitute an undue hardship if reasonable use for the property exists under the terms of the ordinance. Undue hardship also includes, but is not limited to, inadequate access to direct sunlight for solar energy systems. Variances shall be granted for earth sheltered construction as defined in section 116H.02, subdivision 3, when in harmony with the ordinance. The board of appeals and adjustments or the governing body as the case may be, may not permit as a variance any use that is not permitted under the ordinance for property in the zone where the affected person's land is located. The board or governing body as the case may be, may permit as a variance the temporary use of a one family dwelling as a two family dwelling. The board or governing body as the case may be may impose conditions in the granting of variances to insure compliance and to protect adjacent properties.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 462.358, Subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [AUTHORITY.] To protect and promote the public health, safety, and general welfare, to provide for the orderly, economic, and safe development of land, to preserve agricultural lands, to promote the availability of housing affordable to persons and families of all income levels, and to facilitate adequate provision for transportation, water, sewage, storm drainage, schools, parks, playgrounds, and other public services and facilities, a municipality may by ordinance adopt subdivision regulations establishing standards, requirements, and procedures for the review and approval or disapproval of subdivisions. The regulations may contain varied provisions respecting, and be made applicable only to, certain classes or kinds of subdivisions. The regulations shall be uniform for each class or kind of subdivision.

A municipality may by resolution extend the application of its subdivision regulations to unincorporated territory located within two miles of its limits in any direction but not in a town which has adopted subdivision regulations; provided that where two or more noncontiguous municipalities have boundaries less than four miles apart, each is authorized to control the subdivision of land equal distance from its boundaries within this area. ~~However, if a municipality extends the application of its subdivision or zoning regulations to unin-~~ incorporated territory, upon the petition of any county board or town board affected by the subdivision or zoning regulations, a joint board shall be established consisting of a three member committee with one member appointed from each of the municipal, town and county governing bodies. This joint board shall adopt zoning and subdivision regulations under sections 462.351 to 462.364 for the entire area within two miles of the city located within a town, and designate one of the governing bodies to serve as the governing body and board of appeals and adjustment for purposes of sections 462.357 and 462.358 within the area. During the time before the joint board adopts subdivision regulations, the subdivision regulations which the municipality has extended shall apply.

Sec. 11. [462.3585] [JOINT PLANNING BOARD.]

Upon request of a home rule charter or statutory city council or county or town board by resolution presented to the county auditor of the county of the affected territory a board shall be established to exercise planning and land use control authority in the unincorporated area within two miles of the corporate limits of a city. The board shall have members in a number determined by the city, county, and town. Each governmental unit shall have an equal number of members. The members shall be appointed from the governing bodies of the city, county, and town. Upon request of more than one county or town board with respect to the unincorporated area within two miles of the corporate limits of a single city, the parties may create one board rather than a separate board for each county or town, with equal membership from each affected governmental unit. The board shall serve as the governing body and board of appeals and adjustments for purposes of sections 462.351 to 462.364 within the two-mile area. The board shall have all of the powers contained in sections 462.351 to 462.364 and shall have authority to adopt and enforce the uniform fire code promulgated pursuant to section 299F.011. The city shall provide staff for the preparation and administration of land use controls unless otherwise agreed by the governmental units.

Sec. 12. [462.3595] [CONDITIONAL USE PERMITS.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY.] The governing body may by ordinance designate certain types of developments, including planned unit developments, and certain land development activities as conditional uses under zoning regulations. Conditional uses may be approved by the governing body or other designated authority by a showing by the applicant that the standards and criteria stated in the ordinance will be satisfied. The standards and criteria shall include both general requirements for all conditional uses, and insofar as practicable, requirements specific to each designated conditional use.

Subd. 2. [PUBLIC HEARINGS.] Public hearings on the granting of conditional use permits shall be held in the manner provided in section 462.357, subdivision 3.

Subd. 3. [DURATION.] A conditional use permit shall remain in effect as long as the conditions agreed upon are observed, but nothing in this section shall prevent the municipality from enacting or amending official controls to change the status of conditional uses.

Subd. 4. [FILING OF PERMIT.] A certified copy of any conditional use permit shall be filed with the county recorder or registrar of titles of the county or counties in which the municipality is located for record. The conditional use permit shall include the legal description of the property included.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 462.36, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REQUIRED DOCUMENTS.] A certified copy of every ordinance, resolution, map, or regulation adopted, or variance granted under the provisions of sections ~~462.358 and 462.357~~ to 462.359 and ~~amendments thereto~~ sections 3 and 4 of this act shall be filed with the county recorder of the county or counties in which the municipality adopting it is located. Ordinances, resolutions, maps or regulations filed with the county recorder pursuant to this subdivision do not constitute encumbrances on real property. The order issued by the governing body or board of appeals and adjustments as the case may be, shall include the legal description of the property involved.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 471.59, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. [SERVICES PERFORMED BY GOVERNMENTAL UNITS; COMMONALITY OF POWERS.] Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 1 requiring commonality of powers between parties to any agreement, the governing body of any governmental unit as defined in subdivision 1 may enter into agreements with any other governmental unit to perform on behalf of that unit any service or function which the governmental unit providing the service or function is authorized to provide for itself.

If a proposed first time levy is not approved, except as provided in clause (3), the district may not levy pursuant to this subdivision in the year when the referendum is held and shall be required to comply with the provisions of clause (5) before levying pursuant to this subdivision in a subsequent year. If a proposed increase is not approved, the district may levy an amount not to exceed the amount provided by the largest number of EARC mills the district was previously levied by the district authorized to levy pursuant to this subdivision, applied to the preceding year's adjusted assessed valuation.

Subd. 6. [INFLATION FACTORS.] The total authorized predicted cost per weighted FTE determined for a district under subdivision 3 for 1979-1980 shall be increased by 26 percent. The total authorized predicted cost per weighted FTE determined for a district under subdivision 3 for 1980-1981 shall be increased by 22 percent.

Subd. 7a. [BASE YEAR SOFTENING FORMULA.] (1) Each district's adjusted total authorized predicted base cost per weighted FTE determined for each school year according to subdivision 6 3 shall be compared to averaged with the total actual expenditure per weighted FTE for authorized transportation base cost for that district for that year to determine the district's aid entitlement adjusted authorized predicted cost per weighted FTE for that year.

(2) If the adjusted total authorized predicted cost per weighted FTE is greater than the district's actual authorized expenditure per weighted FTE, its aid entitlement per weighted FTE shall equal the adjusted predicted cost per weighted FTE minus 20 percent of the first $10 of difference between the adjusted total authorized predicted cost per weighted FTE and the actual expenditure per weighted FTE; minus 40 percent of the next $10; 60 percent of the next $10; minus 75 percent of the difference which exceeds $30.

(3) If the adjusted total authorized predicted cost per weighted FTE is less than the district's actual authorized expenditure per weighted FTE, its aid entitlement per weighted FTE shall equal the adjusted total authorized predicted cost per weighted FTE plus 20 percent of the first $10 of difference between the adjusted predicted cost per weighted FTE and the actual expenditure per weighted FTE; plus 40 percent of the next $10; plus 60 percent of the next $10; plus 75 percent of the difference which exceeds $30. Notwithstanding clause (1), for fiscal year 1983, the predicted base cost shall be adjusted as provided in this clause to determine adjusted authorized predicted cost per weighted FTE for the base school year.

(a) If the predicted base cost exceeds the base cost, the predicted base cost shall be decreased by 50 percent of the first $40 of difference between the base cost and the predicted base cost; 70 percent of the next $40 of difference; and 90 percent of any difference which exceeds $80, to determine the adjusted authorized predicted cost per weighted FTE.

(b) If the predicted base cost is less than the base cost, the predicted base cost shall be increased by 50 percent of the first $40 of difference between the base cost and the predicted base cost; 70 percent of the next $40 of difference; and 90 percent of any difference which exceeds $80, to determine the adjusted authorized predicted cost per weighted FTE.

Subd. 7b. [INFLATION FACTORS.] The adjusted authorized predicted cost per weighted FTE determined for a district under subdivision 7a for the base year shall be increased by 22 percent to determine the district's aid entitlement per FTE for the 1982-1983 school year.

Subd. 8a. [AID.] A district's transportation aid shall be equal to the sum of its basic transportation aid pursuant to subdivision 8b, its excess handicapped transportation aid pursuant to subdivision 8c, its handicapped board and lodging aid pursuant to subdivision 8d, its to and from board and lodging aid pursuant to subdivision 8e, its nonpublic support services transportation aid pursuant to subdivision 8f, and its during-day transportation aid pursuant to subdivision 8g, minus the amount raised by two mills times the adjusted assessed valuation which is used to compute the transportation levy limitation for the levy attributable to that school year. A district may levy less than two mills. Transportation aid shall be computed as if the district had levied two mills. If the total appropriation for transportation aid in any fiscal year is insufficient to pay all districts the full amount of aid earned, the department of education shall reduce each district's aid in proportion to the number of resident pupils in average daily membership in the district to the state total average daily membership, and shall reduce the aid entitlement of off-formula districts in the same proportion. Aid for the 1982-1983 school year shall be reduced by the following amount: the product of

(b) 1.5, divided by the average distance to school for all FTE's transported in the district in the regular transportation category in the second preceding year, times

(c) the district's aid entitlement per FTE determined according to subdivision 7b, times the ratio of average daily membership used in subdivision 8b.

Subd. 8a 8b. [BASIC AID COMPUTATION.] Beginning with the 1982-1983 school year In fiscal years 1983 and 1984, a district's basic transportation aid pursuant to this section for each the school year shall equal the district's aid entitlement per weighted FTE determined according to subdivision 7a 7b times the total number of authorized weighted FTE's transported in the regular and handicapped transportation categories in the district in that the second preceding school year, minus the amount raised by two mills times the adjusted assessed valuation which is used to compute the transportation levy limitation for the levy attributable to that school year times the ratio of average daily membership in the district in the current school year to the average daily membership in the district in the second preceding school year.

In fiscal year 1985 and thereafter, a district's basic transportation aid pursuant to this section for each school year shall equal the district's adjusted authorized predicted cost determined according to subdivision 7b times the total number of authorized FTE's transported in the regular and handicapped categories in the district in the current school year.

Subd. 8b 8c. [EXCESS HANDICAPPED AID.] (a) In addition to the amount authorized in subdivision 8a; For each school year, the state shall pay aid for the excess costs of providing transportation for handicapped students as provided in this subdivision to a district where:

- (1) the average daily membership in that year is 2,500 or fewer pupils;
- (2) the total actual authorized expenditures exceed the aid entitlement; and
- (3) the actual authorized expenditure per weighted FTE in the handicapped and board and lodging categories exceeds 140 percent of the aid entitlement per weighted handicapped and board and lodging FTE the ratio of FTE's transported in the handicapped category to the total number of FTE's transported in the regular transportation category exceeds the same ratio for the state as a whole.

(b) This aid shall equal 80 percent of the difference between:

- (1) the district's actual authorized expenditures for transporting handicapped and board and lodging FTE's and
- (2) 140 percent of the district's aid entitlement for transportation of handicapped and board and lodging FTE's.
- (3) For purposes of the computation of aid pursuant to this subdivision, the amounts of the actual authorized expenditure and the aid entitlement shall exclude amounts attributable to depreciation. Aid pursuant to this subdivision shall not exceed the difference between the district's total actual authorized expenditures and its total aid entitlement.

the product of the percent excess handicapped FTE's transported, times the difference between

- (1) the district's actual cost for transportation of all pupils in the handicapped category in the current year, and
- (2) the product of
  - (i) the district's adjusted authorized predicted cost determined according to subdivision 7b, times
  - (ii) the number of FTE's transported in the handicapped category in the district in the current year.

Provided that in the 1982-1983 school year, the number in (2)(ii) above shall be replaced by the following computation: the product of the number of FTE's transported in the handicapped category in the district in the second preceding year, times its pupil weighting factor for the handicapped category, times the ratio of average daily membership in the district in the current year to average daily membership in the district in the second preceding year.

Subd. 8d. [HANDICAPPED BOARD AND LODGING AID.] For board and lodging of handicapped pupils, each district shall receive aid equal to the product of the number of FTE pupils boarded and lodged in the current year in the district in this transportation category, times the average of

- (a) the state average board and lodging cost per FTE pupil boarded and lodged in the second preceding year, times the inflation factor for that year prescribed in subdivision 7b; and
- (b) the district's actual cost per FTE pupil boarded and lodged in the current year.

Subd. 8e. [TO AND FROM BOARD AND LODGING.] For transportation of handicapped pupils to and from board and lodging facilities, the state shall pay aid for each pupil for each year equal to the lesser of

(a) the sum for all pupils transported in this category of 36 times the distance in miles from each pupil's home to the board and lodging facility, times the official mileage rate at which state employees are compensated for travel; or

(b) the average of the amount in (a) and the district's actual cost for all transportation in this category in the current year.

Subd. 8f. [NONPUBLIC SUPPORT SERVICES AID.] In fiscal year 1983 a district's nonpublic support services transportation aid shall equal the district's adjusted authorized predicted cost determined according to subdivision 7b, times its pupil weighting factor for the nonpublic support services transportation category, times the number of FTE pupils transported in the nonpublic support services category in the district in the second preceding year, times the ratio of average daily membership in the district in the current year to average daily membership in the district in the second preceding year. In fiscal year 1984 and thereafter, a district's nonpublic support services transportation aid shall equal the district's adjusted authorized predicted cost determined according to subdivision 7b, times its pupil weighting factor for the nonpublic support services transportation category, times the number of FTE's transported in that category in the current year.

Subd. 8g. [DURING-DAY TRANSPORTATION AID.] For each school year, a district's during-day transportation aid shall equal the district's adjusted authorized predicted cost determined according to subdivision 7b, times its pupil weighting factor for the during-day transportation category, times the number of FTE's transported in the during-day transportation category in the second preceding year, times the ratio of average daily membership in the district in the current year to average daily membership in the district in the second preceding year. In fiscal year 1984 and thereafter, a district's during-day transportation aid shall equal the district's adjusted authorized predicted cost determined according to subdivision 7b, times its pupil weighting factor for the during-day transportation category, times the number of FTE's transported in the during-day transportation category in the current year.

Subd. 9. [DISTRICT REPORTS.] Each district shall report data to the department before July 1 of each year an estimate for the next school year of the total number of FTE's transported by transportation category and an estimate of the district's total actual authorized transportation expenditure by transportation category as required by the department to implement the transportation aid formula. The district's aid shall be determined for purposes of the first three transportation aid payments for the school year using these estimates. Before August 15 each year, each district shall provide the department with the information for the preceding school year which the department determines is necessary to compute the district's actual authorized expenditure per weighted FTE for purposes of the computation in subdivision 7a and the district's actual total number of weighted FTE's transported for purposes of the aid computation in subdivision 8a. The district's final transportation aid payment for the school year shall be based on these computations. If a district's final transportation aid payment is adjusted after December 31 of the fiscal year in which the final aid payment is made, the adjustment shall be made by increasing or decreasing the district's aid for the next fiscal year. No adjustment in transportation aid for a district shall be made after October 31 of the fiscal year following the fiscal year in which the final aid payment is made.

Subd. 10. Any school district which owns school buses or mobile units shall transfer annually from the unappropriated fund balance account in its transportation fund to the appropriated fund balance account for bus purchases in its transportation fund at least an amount equal to 12-1/2 percent of the original cost of each bus or mobile unit until the original cost of each bus or mobile unit is fully amortized, plus 33-1/3 percent of the cost to the district as of July 1 of each year for school bus reconditioning done by the department of corrections until the cost of the reconditioning is fully amortized; provided, if the district's transportation aid is reduced pursuant to subdivision 8a because the appropriation for that year is insufficient, this amount shall be reduced in proportion to the reduction pursuant to subdivision 8a as a percentage of the sum of

(1) the district's total transportation aid received pursuant to subdivision 8a, plus

(2) an amount equal to two mills times the adjusted assessed valuation of the district. Any school district may transfer any amount from the unappropriated fund balance account in its transportation fund to any other operating fund or to the appropriated fund balance account for bus purchases in its transportation fund.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 169.121, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CRIME.] It is a misdemeanor for any person to drive, operate or be in physical control of any motor vehicle within this state:

(a) When the person is under the influence of alcohol;

- (b) When the person is under the influence of a controlled substance;
- (c) When the person is under the influence of a combination of any two or more of the elements named in clauses (a) and (b); or
- (d) When the person's alcohol concentration is 0.10 or more.

The provisions of this subdivision apply, but are not limited in application, to any person who drives, operates, or is in physical control of any motor vehicle in the manner prohibited by this subdivision upon the ice of any lake, stream, or river, including but not limited to the ice of any boundary water.

When an accident has occurred, a peace officer may lawfully arrest a person for violation of this section without a warrant upon probable cause, without regard to whether the violation was committed in the officer's presence.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 169.121, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EVIDENCE.] Upon the trial of any prosecution arising out of acts alleged to have been committed by any person arrested for driving, operating, or being in physical control of a motor vehicle in violation of subdivision 1, the court may admit evidence of the amount of alcohol or a controlled substance in the person's blood, breath, or urine as shown by a medical or chemical analysis thereof, if the test is taken voluntarily or pursuant to section 169.123.

For the purposes of this subdivision:

(a) evidence that there was at the time an alcohol concentration of 0.05 or less is prima facie evidence that the person was not under the influence of alcohol;

(b) evidence that there was at the time an alcohol concentration of more than 0.05 and less than 0.10 is relevant evidence in indicating whether or not the person was under the influence of alcohol.

Evidence of the absence of tests is admissible in a prosecution under this section without any comment and with a jury instruction, where applicable, that there shall be no speculation as to the reason for the absence and that no inference is to be drawn from the absence.

For purposes of this section and section 169.123, the result of an evidentiary test administered within two hours of the alleged violation is deemed to be the alcohol concentration at the time of the violation.

The foregoing provisions do not limit the introduction of any other competent evidence bearing upon the question whether or not the person was under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance, including tests obtained more than two hours after the alleged violation.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 169.121, Subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PRELIMINARY SCREENING TEST.] When a peace officer has reason to believe from the manner in which a person is driving, operating, or controlling, or acting upon departure from a motor vehicle, or has driven, operated, or controlled a motor vehicle, that the driver may be violating or has violated subdivision 1, he may require the driver to provide a sample of his breath for a preliminary screening test using a device approved by the commissioner of public safety for this purpose. The results of this preliminary screening test shall be used for the purpose of deciding whether an arrest should be made and whether to require the chemical tests authorized in section 169.123, but shall not be used in any court action except to prove that a chemical test was properly required of a person pursuant to section 169.123, subdivision 2. Following the screening test additional tests may be required of the driver pursuant to the provisions of section 169.123.

The driver of a motor vehicle who refuses to furnish a sample of his breath is subject to the provisions of section 169.123 unless, in compliance with section 169.123, he submits to a blood, breath or urine test to determine the presence of alcohol or a controlled substance.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 169.121, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [ALCOHOL ASSESSMENT.] When the person refuses a preliminary screening test or the evidentiary test shows an alcohol concentration of 0.07 or more, that result shall be reported to the commissioner of public safety. The commissioner shall record that fact on the driver's record. When the driver's record shows a second or subsequent refusal or report of an alcohol concentration of 0.07 or more within two years of a recorded report, the commissioner may require that the driver have an alcohol problem assessment meeting the commissioner's requirements. The assessment shall be at the driver's expense. In no event shall the commissioner suspend the license of a person who refuses to take the assessment or to undertake treatment, if treatment is indicated by the assessment, for longer than 90 days. If an assessment is made pursuant to this section, the commissioner may waive the assessment required by section 169.126.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 169.123, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PEACE OFFICER DEFINED.] For purposes of this section and section 169.121, the term peace officer means a state highway patrol officer, university of Minnesota peace officer, a constable as defined in section 367.40, subdivision 3, or police officer of any municipality, including towns having powers under section 368.01, or county.

Subd. 2. [IMPLIED CONSENT; CONDITIONS; ELECTION AS TO TYPE OF TEST.] (a) Any person who drives, operates, or is in physical control of a motor vehicle within this state consents, subject to the provisions of this section and section 169.121, to a chemical test of his blood, breath, or urine for the purpose of determining the presence of alcohol or a controlled substance. The test shall be administered at the direction of a peace officer. The test may be required of a person when an officer has reasonable and probable grounds to believe the person was driving, operating, or in physical control of a motor vehicle in violation of section 169.121 and one of the following conditions exist: (1) the person has been lawfully placed under arrest for violation of section 169.121, or an ordinance in conformity therewith; or (2) the person has been involved in a motor vehicle accident or collision resulting in property damage, personal injury, or death; or (3) the person has refused to take the screening test provided for by section 169.121, subdivision 6; or (4) the screening test was administered and recorded an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more. ~~Any person may decline to take a direct blood test and elect to take either a breath or urine test, whichever is available and offered.~~ No action may be taken against the person for declining to take a direct blood test unless either a ~~breath or urine~~ an alternative test was available and offered.

(b) At the time a chemical test specimen is requested, the person shall be informed:

(1) that if testing is refused, the person's right to drive will be revoked for a period of six months; and

(2) that if a test is taken and the results indicate that the person is under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance, the person will be subject to criminal penalties and the person's right to drive may be revoked for a period of 90 days; and

(3) that the person has a right to consult with an attorney but that this right is limited to the extent that it cannot unreasonably delay administration of the test or the person will be deemed to have refused the test; and

(4) that after submitting to testing, the person has the right to have additional tests made by a person of his own choosing.

In addition, a law enforcement agency may permit a person to take a confidential test and decide within 84 hours whether he shall permit use of the test.

Subd. 2b. [CONFIDENTIAL TEST; PROCEDURES; PENALTY.] A law enforcement agency may permit a person who for any reason is undecided whether or not to submit to a test, as required by subdivision 2, to take a confidential test. If the person within 84 hours thereafter declines in writing to permit use of the test, the test has no legal effect and may not be disclosed or used in any proceeding. It shall remain confidential, but the department of public safety may use summary data derived from the test results for statistical purposes. If a person does not within 84 hours decline to permit use of the test, the test is no longer confidential and shall be used to satisfy the requirements of section 169.123. A person who takes a confidential test shall receive no indication of the test results unless within 84 hours he consents in writing to permit use of the test as the test required by subdivision 2. Any person who seeks to learn the result of a test while the test is confidential is guilty of a petty misdemeanor.

If a person takes a confidential test, the peace officer shall take his driver's license or permit as if he had refused to submit to the test and, on behalf of the commissioner of public safety, give notice of intention to revoke and of revocation. The officer shall also issue a temporary license, valid until the time for filing a request for a hearing on the revocation has expired.

An officer who takes a person's driver's license or permit pursuant to this subdivision shall retain the license for 84 hours or until within that time the person in writing either declines to permit use of the test or consents to its use. If the person declines to permit use of the test the person violates section 169.123 and the officer shall proceed as though the test was refused. Otherwise, the officer shall either (1) return the license or permit, if the reading shows less than 0.10 percent alcohol concentration or (2) proceed in accordance with section 169.123, if the reading shows 0.10 percent or more alcohol concentration.

Subd. 3. [MANNER OF MAKING TEST; ADDITIONAL TESTS.] Only a physician, medical technician, physician's trained mobile intensive care paramedic, registered nurse, medical technologist or laboratory assistant acting at the request of a peace officer may withdraw blood for the purpose of determining the presence of alcohol or controlled substance. This limitation does not apply to the taking of a breath or urine specimen. The person tested has the right to have a person of his own choosing administer a chemical test or tests in addition to any administered at the direction of a peace officer; provided, that the additional test specimen on behalf of the person is obtained at the place where the person is in custody, after the test administered at the direction of a peace officer, and at no expense to the state. The failure or inability to obtain an additional test or tests by a person shall not preclude the admission in evidence of the test taken at the direction of a peace officer unless the additional test was prevented or denied by the peace officer. ~~Upon the request of the person who is tested, full information concerning the test or tests taken at the direction of the peace officer shall be made available to him.~~ The physician, medical technician, physician's trained mobile intensive care paramedic, medical technologist, laboratory assistant or registered nurse drawing blood at the request of a peace officer for the purpose of determining alcohol concentration shall in no manner be liable in any civil or criminal action except for negligence in drawing the blood. The person administering a test at the request and direction of a peace officer shall be fully trained in the administration of the tests pursuant to standards promulgated by rule by the commissioner of public safety.

Subd. 4. [REFUSAL, CONSENT TO PERMIT TEST; REVOCATION OF LICENSE.] If a person refuses to permit chemical testing, none shall be given, but the peace officer shall report the refusal to the commissioner of public safety and the authority having responsibility for prosecution of misdemeanor offenses for the jurisdiction in which the acts occurred. If a person submits to chemical testing and the test results indicate an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more, the results of the test shall be reported to the commissioner of public safety and to the authority having responsibility for prosecution of misdemeanor offenses for the jurisdiction in which the acts occurred.

Upon certification by the peace officer that there existed reasonable and probable grounds to believe the person had been driving, operating, or in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance and that the person refused to submit to chemical testing, the commissioner of public safety shall revoke the person's license or permit to drive, or his nonresident operating privilege, for a period of six months. Upon certification by the peace officer that there existed reasonable and probable grounds to believe the person had been driving, operating or in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance and that the person submitted to chemical testing and the test results indicate an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more, the commissioner of public safety shall revoke the person's license or permit to drive, or his nonresident operating privilege, for a period of 90 days.

If the person is a resident without a license or permit to operate a motor vehicle in this state, the commissioner of public safety shall deny to the person the issuance of a license or permit for the same period after the date of the alleged violation as provided herein for revocation, subject to review as hereinafter provided.

Subd. 5. [NOTICE OF REVOCATION OR DETERMINATION TO DENY; REQUEST FOR HEARING.] ~~No~~ A revocation under subdivision 4 is becomes effective ~~until at the time~~ the commissioner of public safety or a peace officer acting on his behalf notifies the person of the intention to revoke and of revocation and allows the person a 30 day period to request of the commissioner of public safety, in writing, a hearing as herein provided. If no request is filed within the 30 day period the order of revocation becomes effective. If a request for hearing is filed, a revocation is not effective until a final judicial determination resulting in a decision adverse to the person. The notice shall advise the person of the right to obtain administrative and judicial review as provided in this section. If mailed, the notice and order of revocation is deemed received three days after mailing to the last known address of the person.

Subd. 5a. [PEACE OFFICER AGENT FOR NOTICE OF REVOCATION.] On behalf of the commissioner of public safety a peace officer offering a chemical test or directing the administration of a chemical test may serve immediate notice of intention to revoke and of revocation on a person who refuses to permit chemical testing or on a person who submits to a chemical test the results of which indicate an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more. The officer shall take the license or permit of the driver, if any, and issue a temporary license effective only for 30 7 days. The peace officer shall send the person's driver's license to the commissioner of public safety along with the certificate required by subdivision 4.

If the person requests a hearing within the 30 day period, the commissioner shall issue additional temporary licenses until the final determination of whether there shall be a revocation under this section.

Subd. 5b. [ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW.] At any time during a period of revocation imposed under this section a person may request in writing a review of the order of revocation by the commissioner of public safety. Upon receiving a request the commissioner or his designee shall review the order, the evidence upon which the order was based, and any other material information brought to the attention of the commissioner, and determine whether sufficient cause exists to sustain the order. Within 15 days of receiving the request the commissioner shall report in writing the results of his review. The review provided in this subdivision is not subject to the contested case provisions of the administrative procedure act in sections 15.041 to 15.052.

The availability of administrative review for an order of revocation shall have no effect upon the availability of judicial review under this section.

Subd. 5c. [PETITION FOR JUDICIAL REVIEW.] Within 30 days following receipt of a notice and order of revocation pursuant to this section, a person may petition the court for review. The petition shall be filed with the clerk of county or municipal court in the county where the alleged offense occurred, together with proof of service of a copy on the commissioner of public safety, and accompanied by the standard filing fee for civil actions. No responsive pleading shall be required of the commissioner of public safety, and no court fees shall be charged for his appearance in the matter.

The petition shall be captioned in the name of the person making the petition as petitioner and the commissioner of public safety as respondent. The petition shall state with specificity the grounds upon which the petitioner seeks rescission of the order of revocation or denial.

The filing of the petition shall not stay the revocation or denial. The reviewing court may order a stay of the balance of the revocation if the hearing has not been conducted within 60 days after filing of the petition upon terms the court deems proper. Judicial reviews shall be conducted according to the rules of civil procedure.

Subd. 5d. [IMMUNITY FROM LIABILITY.] (a) The state or political subdivision by which a peace officer making an arrest for violation of section 169.121 is employed shall have immunity from any liability, civil or criminal, for the care or custody of the motor vehicle being driven by, operated by, or in the physical control of the person arrested if the peace officer acts in good faith and exercises due care.

(b) For purposes of this subdivision, "political subdivision" means a county, statutory or home rule charter city, or town.

Subd. 6. [HEARING.] A hearing under this section shall be before a municipal or county judge, in the any county in the judicial district where the alleged offense occurred, unless there is agreement that the hearing may be held in some other county. The hearing shall be to the court and may be conducted at the same time and in the same manner as hearings upon pre-trial motions in the criminal prosecution under section 169.121, if any. The hearing shall be recorded. The commissioner of public safety may appear through his own attorney or, by agreement with the jurisdiction involved, through the prosecuting authority for that jurisdiction.

The hearing shall be held at the earliest practicable date, and in any event no later than 60 days following the filing of the petition for review. The judicial district administrator shall establish procedures to ensure efficient compliance with the provisions of this subdivision. To accomplish this, the administrator may, whenever possible, consolidate and transfer review hearings among the county courts within the judicial district.

The scope of the hearing shall ~~ever~~ be limited to the issues of:

(1) whether the peace officer had reasonable and probable grounds to believe the person was driving, operating, or in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance, and whether the person was lawfully placed under arrest for violation of section 169.121, or the person was involved in a motor vehicle accident or collision resulting in property damage, personal injury or death, or the person refused to take a screening test provided for by section 169.121, subdivision 6, or the screening test was administered and recorded an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more; and

(2) whether at the time of the request for the test the peace officer informed the person of his rights and the consequences of taking or refusing the test as required by subdivision 2; and

(3) either (a) whether the person refused to permit the test, or (b) whether a test was taken and the test results indicated an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more at the time of testing, and whether the testing method used was valid and reliable, and whether the test results were accurately evaluated.

It shall be an affirmative defense for the person petitioner to prove that, at the time of the refusal, his refusal to permit the test was based upon reasonable grounds.

Certified or otherwise authenticated copies of laboratory or medical personnel reports, records, documents, licenses and certificates shall be admissible as substantive evidence.

The court shall order either that the revocation be rescinded or sustained and forward the order to the commissioner of public safety. The court shall file its order within 14 days following the hearing. If the revocation is sustained, the court shall also forward the person's driver's license or permit to the commissioner of public safety for his further action if the license or permit is not already in the commissioner's possession.

Subd. 7. [REVIEW BY DISTRICT COURT.] If the revocation or denial is sustained, the person whose license or permit to drive, or nonresident operating privilege has been revoked or denied, may within 20 days after notice of the determination by the commissioner of public safety file a petition for a hearing of the matter in the district court in the county where the hearing pursuant to subdivision 6 was held unless there is agreement that the hearing may be held in some other county. The petition shall be filed with the clerk of the court together with proof of service of a copy thereof on the commissioner of public safety. It is the duty of the court to set the matter for hearing on a day certain with reasonable notice thereof to the parties. The hearing shall be on the record and shall be conducted in the same manner provided in sections 487.39 and 484.63 for appeal of misdemeanor convictions. Any party aggrieved by the decision of the reviewing court may appeal the decision to the district court as provided in sections 484.63 and 487.39.

Subd. 8. [NOTICE OF ACTION TO OTHER STATES.] When it has been finally determined that a nonresident's privilege to operate a motor vehicle in this state has been revoked or denied, the commissioner of public safety shall give information in writing of the action taken to the official in charge of traffic control or public safety of the state of the person's residence and of any state in which he has a license.

Subd. 9. [LIMITED LICENSE.] In any case in which a license has been revoked under this section, the commissioner may issue a limited license to the driver. The commissioner in issuing a limited license may impose the conditions and limitations which in his judgment are necessary to the interests of the public safety and welfare, including re-examination of the driver's qualifications, attendance at a driver improvement clinic, or attendance at counseling sessions. The license may be limited to the operation of particular vehicles and to particular classes and time of operation. The limited license issued by the commissioner shall clearly indicate the limitations imposed and the driver operating under a limited license shall have the license in his possession at all times when operating as a driver. In determining whether to issue a limited license, the commissioner shall consider the number and the seriousness of prior convictions and the entire driving record of the driver.

Subd. 10. [TERMINATION OF REVOCATION PERIOD.] If the commissioner receives notice of the driver's attendance at a driver improvement clinic, attendance at counseling sessions, or participation in treatment for an alcohol problem the commissioner may, 30 days prior to the time the revocation period would otherwise expire, terminate the revocation period. The commissioner shall not terminate the revocation period under this subdivision for a driver who has had a license revoked under section 169.121 or this section for another incident during the preceding three year period.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 171.19, is amended to read:

171.19 [PETITION FOR REINSTATEMENT OF LICENSES.]

Any person whose driver's license has been refused, revoked, suspended, or canceled by the commissioner, except where the license is revoked under section 169.123, may file a petition for a hearing in the matter in the district court in the county wherein such person shall reside and, in the case of a non-resident, in the district court in any county, and such court is hereby vested with jurisdiction, and it shall be its duty, to set the matter for hearing upon 15 days' written notice to the commissioner, and thereupon to take testimony and examine into the facts of the case to determine whether the petitioner is entitled to a license or is subject to revocation, suspension, cancelation, or refusal of license, under the provisions of this chapter, and shall render judgment accordingly. The petition shall be heard by the court without a jury and may be heard in or out of term. The commissioner may appear in person, or by his agents or representatives, and may present his evidence upon the hearing by affidavit by himself, his agents, or representatives. The petitioner may present his evidence by affidavit, except that the petitioner must be present in person at such hearing for the purpose of cross-examination. In the event the department shall be sustained in these proceedings, the petitioner shall have no further right to make further petition to any court for the purpose of obtaining a driver's license until after the expiration of one year after the date of such hearing.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 634.15, is amended to read:

462C.09 [ALLOCATION OF QUALIFIED MORTGAGE BONDS.]

Subdivision 1. [HOUSING FINANCE AGENCY ALLOCATION.] The applicable limit for the Minnesota housing finance agency, pursuant to section 103A (g) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1980, for any calendar year commencing with calendar year 1981, shall be 100 percent of the state ceiling for that year, reduced only by (i) any amounts of bonds which have been or may be allocated by law to specified cities and (ii) any amounts of bonds which are allocated to cities pursuant to subdivisions 2 and 3. The aggregate amount allocated to cities, under (i) or (ii), together with the amount of bonds reserved for the agency, shall not exceed the limit for the state under section 103A(g) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through March 1, 1982.

By July 1 August 1 of each year, any city which has received by law an allocation of the state ceiling shall certify to the agency the amount of bonds subject to the state ceiling which the city intends to issue during the calendar year submit its housing programs to the Minnesota housing finance agency for approval pursuant to section 462C.04, subdivision 2, in an amount of bonds equal to or less than, the city's allocation. If the amount certified of bonds, for which program approval is granted on or before September 1 is less than the amount allocated by law to the city, the applicable limit for the agency shall be increased by the difference between the amount allocated by law to the city, and the amount certified by the city, to the agency for which program approval has been granted.

Subd. 2. [CITY ALLOCATION.] Unless otherwise authorized by law, any city which intends to issue mortgage revenue bonds during any calendar year which are subject to the volume limitation imposed by section 103A(g) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through March 1, 1982, shall by January 2 of that year submit a program or programs to the Minnesota housing finance agency that will use a portion of the state mortgage revenue bond ceiling, provided that for calendar year 1982 programs shall be submitted by May 30, 1982. The total amount of bonds included in all programs of any city shall not exceed $10,000,000. Each program shall be accompanied by a certificate from the city that states that the revenue bond issue is feasible and that identifies the amount and sources of non-bond proceeds, if any, which will be contributed to the program to be financed by the bond issue, provided that no contribution of non-bond proceeds shall be required. By February 1, the Minnesota housing finance agency shall review each program pursuant to section 462C.04, subdivision 2, provided that for calendar year 1982, programs shall be approved by June 30, 1982. The Minnesota housing finance agency shall approve all programs that the agency determines are consistent with this chapter, provided that if the approval of all programs would result in an allocation to cities in excess of 27-1/2 percent of the state ceiling for the calendar year, reduced by any amount of bonds that are allocated by law to specified cities, the Minnesota housing finance agency shall only approve those programs based upon the following factors and based solely upon the program with accompanying information submitted to the agency. The Minnesota housing finance agency shall determine the following factors for each program:

(1) The proportion of the proposed issue which is reserved for a period of not less than six months for persons and families with incomes below 80 percent of the limits on adjusted gross income provided in section 462C.03, subdivision 2;

(2) The proportion of the proposed issue which is reserved for a period of not less than six months for persons and families with incomes below 90 percent of the limits on adjusted gross income provided in section 462C.03, subdivision 2; and

(3) The amount of non-bond proceeds, if any, as a percentage of the proposed issue, which are to be contributed to the program.

Programs shall be ranked based upon the percentage determined for factor (1) with the program having the highest percentage receiving the highest ranking. If two or more programs have the same percentage, then they shall be ranked based upon the percentages determined for factor (2) with the program receiving the highest percentage receiving the highest ranking. If two or more programs have the same percentage for factors (1) and (2), then they shall be ranked based upon the percentages determined for factor (3) with the program having the highest percentage receiving the highest ranking. If two or more programs have the same percentage for factors (1), (2), and (3), then their ranking shall be determined by lot. The Minnesota housing finance agency shall then approve programs based upon the ranking until an amount equal to 27-1/2 percent of the state ceiling for the calendar year, reduced by any amount of bonds which are allocated by law to specified cities, is allocated pursuant to this subdivision. Approval of a program shall constitute an allocation of a portion of the state ceiling for mortgage revenue bonds equal to the proposed bond issue or issues contained in the program, provided that the allocation for the lowest ranked program that receives an allocation may be equal to or less than the amount of the bond issue or issues proposed in the program.

If a city which received an allocation pursuant to this subdivision, or which has been allocated a portion of the state ceiling by law and has received approval of one or more programs, has not issued bonds by September 1 in an amount equal to the allocation, and the city intends to issue mortgage revenue bonds prior to the end of the calendar year, the city shall by September 1 submit to the Minnesota housing finance agency for each program a letter that states the city's intent to issue the mortgage revenue bonds prior to the end of the calendar year. If the Minnesota housing finance agency does not receive the letter from the city, then the allocation of the state ceiling for that program shall expire on September 1, and the applicable limit for the Minnesota housing finance agency shall be increased by an amount equal to the unused portion of the allocation to the city. A city referred to in subdivision 1, clause (i), of this section shall not be required to apply under this subdivision with respect to bonds allocated by law to any such city. Nothing in this subdivision shall prevent any such city from applying for an additional allocation of bonds under this subdivision.

Subd. 3. [ADDITIONAL CITY ALLOCATION.] On or before September 1 of each year, the Minnesota housing finance agency shall identify the amount, if any, of its applicable limit for housing mortgage bonds for that calendar year that it does not intend to issue. Any city that intends to issue mortgage revenue bonds prior to the end of the calendar year for which it has not received an allocation of the state ceiling may submit a program for approval on or before September 1 to the Minnesota housing finance agency for a portion of the amount of the Minnesota housing finance agency's applicable limit as provided in subdivision 1 which the agency does not intend to issue. The total amount of bonds included in all programs of any city submitted pursuant to this subdivision shall not exceed $10,000,000. The program shall be accompanied by the same certificate required by subdivision 2. The Minnesota housing finance agency shall allocate the amount of the state ceiling to be allocated pursuant to this subdivision using the same factors listed in subdivision 2, provided that a program for any city receiving an allocation pursuant to subdivision 2 during the calendar year shall be ranked below all other programs if the bonds proposed in the program, when added to the bonds included in programs approved pursuant to subdivision 2, exceed $10,000,000. A city that submitted a program pursuant to subdivision 2 but that did not receive an allocation may renew its application with a letter of intent to issue. Nothing in this subdivision shall prevent any city referred to in subdivision 1, clause (i), from applying for an additional allocation of bonds under this subdivision.

Subd. 4. [AGENCY REVIEW.] The 30 day review requirement in section 462C.04, subdivision 2, shall not apply to programs submitted to the agency that require an allocation of the state ceiling pursuant to this section. A failure by the agency to complete any action by the dates set forth in this section shall not result in the approval of any program or the allocation of any portion of the applicable limit of the agency. Approval by the agency of programs after the dates provided in this section shall be effective in allocating a portion of the state ceiling. Programs approved by the agency may be amended with the approval of the agency under section 462C.04, subdivision 2, provided that the dollar amount of bonds for the program may not be increased."

474.03 [POWERS.]

Any municipality or redevelopment agency, in addition to the powers prescribed elsewhere by the laws of this state, shall have the power to:

(1) Acquire, construct, and hold any lands, buildings, easements, water and air rights, improvements to lands and buildings, and capital equipment to be located permanently or used exclusively on a designated site and solid waste disposal and pollution control equipment, and alternative energy equipment and inventory, regardless of where located, which are deemed necessary in connection with a project to be situated within the state, whether wholly or partially within or without the municipality or redevelopment agency, and construct, reconstruct, improve, better, and extend such project;

(2) Issue revenue bonds, in anticipation of the collection of revenues of such project, to finance, in whole or in part, the cost of the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, improvement, betterment, or extension thereof and, in the case of an alternative energy project, in addition to the other powers granted by this chapter, to finance the acquisition and leasing or sale of equipment and products to others;

(3) Issue revenue bonds to pay, purchase or discharge all or any part of the outstanding indebtedness of a contracting party engaged primarily in the operation of one or more nonprofit hospitals or nursing homes, theretofore incurred in the acquisition or betterment of its existing hospital or nursing home facilities, including, to the extent deemed necessary by the governing body of the municipality or redevelopment agency, any unpaid interest on such indebtedness accrued or to accrue to the date on which such indebtedness is finally paid; and any premium the governing body of the municipality or redevelopment agency determines to be necessary to be paid to pay, purchase or defease such outstanding indebtedness; if revenue bonds are issued for this purpose, the refinancing and the existing properties of the contracting party shall be deemed to constitute a project under section 474.02, subdivision 1c. Industrial revenue bonds shall only be available under this provision if the commissioner of securities and real estate has been shown that a reduction in debt service charges to patients and third party payors will occur. All reductions in debt service charges pursuant to this program shall be passed on to patients and third party payors. These industrial revenue bonds may not be used for any purpose not consistent with the provisions of ~~sections 145.832 to 145.845 or~~ chapter 256B;

Nothing in this subdivision is intended to prohibit the use of revenue bond proceeds to pay outstanding indebtedness of a contracting party to the extent now permitted by law;

(4) Enter into a revenue agreement with any person, firm, or public or private corporation or federal or state governmental subdivision or agency in such manner that payments required thereby to be made by the contracting party shall be fixed, and revised from time to time as necessary; so as to produce income and revenue sufficient to provide for the prompt payment of principal of and interest on all bonds issued hereunder when due, and the revenue agreement shall also provide that the contracting party shall be required to pay all expenses of the operation and maintenance of the project including, but without limitation, adequate insurance thereon and insurance against all liability for injury to persons or property arising from the operation thereof, and all taxes and special assessments levied upon or with respect to the project and payable during the term of the revenue agreement, during which term a tax shall be imposed and collected pursuant to the provisions of section 272.01, subdivision 2, for the privilege of using and possessing the project, in the same amount and to the same extent as though the contracting party were the owner of all real and personal property comprising the project;

(5) Pledge and assign to the holders of such bonds or a trustee therefor all or any part of the revenues of one or more projects and define and segregate such revenues or provide for the payment thereof to a trustee, whether or not such trustee is in possession of the project under a mortgage or otherwise;

(6) Mortgage or otherwise encumber such projects in favor of the municipality or redevelopment agency, the holders of such bonds, or a trustee therefor, provided that in creating any such mortgages or encumbrances a municipality or redevelopment agency shall not have the power to obligate itself except with respect to the project;

(7) Make all contracts, execute all instruments, and do all things necessary or convenient in the exercise of the powers herein granted, or in the performance of its covenants or duties, or in order to secure the payment of its bonds; including, but without limitation, a contract entered into prior to the construction of the project authorizing the contracting party, subject to such terms and conditions as the municipality or redevelopment agency shall find necessary or desirable and proper, to provide for the construction, acquisition, and installation of the buildings, improvements, and equipment to be included in the project by any means available to the contracting party and in the manner determined by the contracting party and without advertisement for bids as may be required for the construction or acquisition of other municipal facilities;

(8) Enter into and perform such contracts and agreements with other municipalities, political subdivisions, and state agencies, authorities, and institutions as the respective governing bodies of the same may deem proper and feasible for or concerning the planning, construction, lease, purchase, mortgaging or other acquisition, and the financing of a project, and the maintenance thereof, including an agreement whereby one municipality issues its revenue bonds in behalf of one or more other municipalities pursuant to revenue agreements with the same or different contracting parties; which contracts and agreements may establish a board, commission, or such other body as may be deemed proper for the supervision and general management of the facilities of the project; provided, no municipality or redevelopment agency shall enter into or perform any contract or agreement with any school district under which the municipality or redevelopment agency issues its revenue bonds or otherwise provides for the construction of school facilities and the school leases or otherwise acquires these facilities;

(9) Accept from any authorized agency of the federal government loans or grants for the planning, construction, acquisition, leasing, purchase, or other provision of any project, and enter into agreements with such agency respecting such loans or grants;

(10) Sell and convey all properties acquired in connection with such projects, including without limitation the sale and conveyance thereof subject to such mortgage as herein provided, and the sale and conveyance thereof under an option granted to the lessee of the project, for such price, and at such time as the governing body of the municipality or redevelopment agency may determine, provided, however, that no sale or conveyance of such properties shall ever be made in such manner as to impair the rights or interests of the holder, or holders, of any bonds issued under the authority of this chapter;

(11) Issue revenue bonds to refund, in whole or in part, bonds previously issued by such municipality or redevelopment agency under authority of this chapter;

(12) If so provided in the revenue agreement, terminate the agreement and re-enter or repossess the project upon the default of the contracting party, and operate, lease, or sell the project in such manner as may be authorized or required by the provisions of the revenue agreement or of the resolution or indenture securing the bonds issued for the project; any revenue agreement which includes provision for a conveyance of real estate to the contracting party may be terminated in accordance with the revenue agreement, notwithstanding that such revenue agreement may constitute an equitable mortgage provided that no municipality or redevelopment agency shall have power otherwise to operate any project referred to in this chapter as a business or in any manner whatsoever, and nothing herein authorizes any municipality or redevelopment agency to expend any funds on any project herein described, other than the revenues of such projects, or the proceeds of revenue bonds and notes issued hereunder, or other funds granted to the municipality or redevelopment agency for the purposes herein contemplated, except as may be otherwise permitted by law and except to enforce any right or remedy under any revenue agreement or related agreement for the benefit of the bondholders or for the protection of any security given in connection with a revenue agreement, provided that the public cost of redevelopment of land paid by a city or its redevelopment agency shall not be deemed part of the cost of any project situated on such land;

(13) Invest or deposit, or authorize a trustee to invest or deposit, any money on hand in funds or accounts established in connection with a project or payment of bonds issued therefor, to the extent they are not presently needed for the purposes for which such funds or accounts were created, in accordance with section 471.56, as amended; and

(14) Waive or require the furnishing of a contractors payment and performance bond of the kind described in section 574.26 and if such bond shall be required, then the provisions of chapter 514 relating to liens for labor and materials, shall not be applicable in respect of any work done or labor or materials supplied for the project, and if such bond be waived then the said provisions of chapter 514 shall apply in respect of work done or labor or materials supplied for the project."

This modification shall not be applicable if the difference in basis is due to disallowance of depreciation pursuant to section 290.101.

(3) Interest or dividend income on securities to the extent exempt from income tax under the laws of this state authorizing the issuance of the securities but includible in gross income for federal income tax purposes;

Subd. 7. [DEPRECIATION.] (A) [CUMULATIVE DEPRECIATION.] (a) There shall be allowed as a depreciation deduction a reasonable allowance for the exhaustion, wear and tear (including a reasonable allowance for obsolescence):

- (1) of property used in the trade or business, or
- (2) of property held for the production of income.

(b) The term "reasonable allowance" as used in clause (a) shall include (but shall not be limited to) an allowance computed in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner, under any of the following methods:

- (1) the straight line method.
- (2) the declining balance method, using a rate not exceeding twice the rate which would have been used had the annual allowance been computed under the method described in paragraph (1).
- (3) the sum of the years-digits method, and
- (4) any other consistent method productive of an annual allowance, which, when added to all allowances for the period commencing with the taxpayer's use of the property and including the taxable year, does not, during the first two-thirds of the useful life of the property, exceed the total of such allowances which would have been used had such allowances been computed under the method described in (2). Nothing in this clause (b) shall be construed to limit or reduce an allowance otherwise allowable under clause (a).

(c) For purposes of this subdivision "reasonable allowance" shall not include the accelerated cost recovery system provisions of section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, except as provided in this subdivision unless specifically authorized by legislation enacted after the final enactment of this section. In the case of recovery property within the meaning of section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, the term "reasonable allowance" as used in clause (a) shall mean 85 percent of the deduction allowed pursuant to section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980 and before January 1, 1982; and 83 percent of the deduction allowed pursuant to section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1981 and before January 1, 1983.

(2) acquired after December 31, 1958, if the original use of such property commenced with the taxpayer and commences after such date.

(e) Where, under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, the taxpayer and the commissioner have, after June 30, 1959, entered into an agreement in writing specifically dealing with the useful life and rate of depreciation of any property, the rate so agreed upon shall be binding on both the taxpayer and the commissioner in the absence of facts or circumstances not taken into consideration in the adoption of such agreement. The responsibility of establishing the existence of such facts and circumstances shall rest with the party initiating the modification. Any change in the agreed rate and useful life specified in the agreement shall not be effective for taxable years before the taxable year in which notice in writing by certified mail is served by the party to the agreement initiating such change.

(f) In the absence of an agreement under clause ~~(d)~~ (e) containing a provision to the contrary, a taxpayer may at any time elect in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner to change from the method of depreciation prescribed in clause (b) (2) to the method described in clause (b) (1).

(g) The basis on which exhaustion, wear and tear, and obsolescence are to be allowed in respect of any property shall be the adjusted basis provided in sections 290.131 to 290.139, 290.14 and 290.15 this chapter for the purpose of determining the gain on the sale or other disposition of such property except that in the case of recovery property within the meaning of section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code as amended through December 31, 1981, for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980 but before January 1, 1983, the depreciation adjustment to basis shall be the same as the depreciation adjustments under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1981.

In the case of property held in trust the allowable deduction shall be apportioned between the income beneficiary and the trustee in accordance with the pertinent provisions of the instrument creating the trust, or, in the absence of such provisions, on the basis of the trust income allocable to each. In the case of an estate, the allowable deduction shall be apportioned between the estate and the heirs, legatees, and devisees on the basis of the income of the estate allocable to each.

(i) In the case of buildings or other structures or improvements constructed or made on leased premises by a lessee, and the fixtures and machinery therein installed, the lessee alone shall be entitled to the allowance of this deduction.

(B) [FIRST YEAR DEPRECIATION.] (a) In the case of section 1 property, the term "reasonable allowance" as used in subdivision 7, may, at the election of the taxpayer, include an allowance, for the first taxable year for which a deduction is allowable under subdivision 7, to the taxpayer with respect to such property, of 20 percent of the cost of such property. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980 and before January 1, 1983, in the case of recovery property within the meaning of section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, the first year depreciation allowance the taxpayer shall be allowed the allowance for federal income tax purposes provided under section 179 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981.

(b) If in any one taxable year the cost of section 1 property with respect to which the taxpayer may elect an allowance under (a) for such taxable year exceeds $10,000, then (a) shall apply with respect to those items selected by the taxpayer, but only to the extent of an aggregate cost of $10,000. In the case of a husband and wife who file a joint return under section 290.38 for the taxable year, the limitation under the preceding sentence shall be $20,000 in lieu of $10,000.

(c) (1) The election under this subdivision for any taxable year shall be made within the time prescribed by law (including extensions thereof) for filing the return for such taxable year. The election shall be made in such manner as the commissioner may by regulations prescribe.

(2) Any election made under this subdivision may not be revoked except with the consent of the commissioner.

(d) (1) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "Section 1 property" means tangible personal property (excluding buildings and structures)

(B) acquired by purchase after December 31, 1958, for use in a trade or business or for holding for production of income, and

(C) with a useful life (determined at the time of such acquisition) of six years or more.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), the term "purchase" means any acquisition of property, but only if

(A) the property is not acquired from a person whose relationship to the person acquiring it would result in the disallowance of losses under section 290.10(6),

(B) the property is not acquired by one component member of a controlled group from another component member of the same controlled group, and

(C) the basis of the property in the hands of the person acquiring it is not determined

(i) in whole or in part by reference to the adjusted basis of such property in the hands of the person from whom acquired, or

(ii) under section 290.14(4) (relating to property acquired from a decedent).

(3) For purposes of this subdivision, the cost of property does not include so much of the basis of such property as is determined by reference to the basis of other property held at any time by the person acquiring such property.

(4) This subdivision shall not apply to trusts.

(5) In the case of an estate, any amount apportioned to an heir, legatee, or devisee shall not be taken into account in applying (B) of this subdivision to section 1 property of such heir, legatee, or devisee not held by such estate.

(6) For purposes of (B) of this subdivision

(A) all component members of a controlled group shall be treated as one taxpayer, and

(B) the commissioner shall apportion the dollar limitation contained in such (B) among the component members of such controlled group in such manner as he shall by regulations prescribe.

(7) For purposes of paragraphs (2) and (6), the term "controlled group" has the meaning assigned to it by section 1563(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979, except that, for such purposes, the phrase "more than 50 percent" shall be substituted for the phrase "at least 80 percent" each place it appears in section 1563(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979.

(b) [DEDUCTIONS LIMITED.] Except as provided in this subdivision, expenses and losses, except for interest and taxes, arising from a farm shall not be allowed as deductions in excess of income and gains arising from a farm.

(c) [DEDUCTIONS ALLOWED; CARRYOVER DEDUCTIONS.] For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1974, Expenses and losses arising from a farm or farms shall be allowed as deductions up to the amount of the income and gains arising from a farm or farms in any taxable year, plus the first $15,000 of non-farm gross income, or non-farm taxable net income in the case of a corporation, provided however that in any case where non-farm income exceeds $15,000, the maximum allowable amount of $15,000 shall be reduced by twice the amount by which the non-farm income exceeds the amount of $15,000. For this purpose and for the purpose of applying the limitation in the following paragraph regarding the application of any carryback or carryforward, the term gross income shall include the ordinary income portion of a lump sum distribution as defined in section 402(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980, and no deduction shall be allowed for two-earner married couples as provided in section 221 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981. Any remaining balance of the deductions shall be carried back three years and carried forward five years, in chronological order, provided, however, that in any case in which any individual, estate or trust which elects a net operating loss carryforward under section 172(b)(3)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980, such losses shall not be carried back but shall only be carried forward.

Current expenses and losses shall be utilized as deductions in any taxable year, to the extent herein allowable, prior to the application of any carryback or carryover deductions. In any event, the combined amounts of such current expenses and losses and carryback or carryover deductions shall be allowed as deductions up to the amount of the income and gains arising from a farm or farms in any taxable year, plus the first $15,000 of non-farm gross income, or non-farm taxable net income in the case of a corporation, provided however that in any case where non-farm income exceeds $15,000, the maximum allowable amount of $15,000 shall be reduced by twice the amount by which the non-farm income exceeds the amount of $15,000.

(d) [SHAREHOLDERS SEPARATE ENTITIES.] For purposes of this subdivision, individual shareholders of an electing small business corporation shall be considered separate entities.

(f) [INTEREST ON CLAIMS.] In any case in which a taxpayer is entitled to a refund in a carryback year due to the carryback of a farm loss, interest shall be computed only from the end of the taxable year in which the loss occurs.

In the case of a resident individual, having preference items which could not be taken to reduce income from sources outside the state pursuant to section 290.17, subdivision 1, or any other taxpayer the tax shall equal 40 percent of that federal liability, multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the amount of the taxpayer's preference item income allocated to this state pursuant to the provisions of sections 290.17 to 290.20, and the denominator of which is the taxpayer's total preference item income for federal purposes.

For property placed in service after December 31, 1980, the preference item contained in section 57 (a)(12) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, does not apply.

(3) If any employer required to withhold a tax on wages, make deposits, make and file quarterly returns and make payments to the commissioner of amounts withheld, as required by sections 290.92 to 290.97, wilfully fails to withhold such a tax or make such deposits, files a false or fraudulent return, wilfully fails to make such a payment or deposit, or wilfully attempts in any manner to evade or defeat any such tax or the payment or deposit thereof, there shall also be imposed on such employer as a penalty an amount equal to 50 percent of the amount of tax (less any amount paid or deposited by such employer on the basis of such false or fraudulent return or deposit) that should have been properly withheld and paid over or deposited with the commissioner. The amount of the tax together with this amount shall bear interest at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the time the tax should have been paid until paid. The penalty imposed by this paragraph shall be collected as a part of the tax, and shall be in addition to any other penalties civil and criminal, prescribed by this subdivision.

(4) If any person required under the provisions of subdivision 7 to furnish a statement to an employee or payee and a duplicate statement to the commissioner, or to furnish a reconciliation of such statements (and quarterly returns) to the commissioner, wilfully furnishes a false or fraudulent statement to an employee or payee or a false or fraudulent duplicate statement or reconciliation of statements (and quarterly returns) to the commissioner, or wilfully fails to furnish a statement or such reconciliation in the manner, at the time, and showing the information required by the provisions of subdivision 7, or regulations prescribed by the commissioner thereunder, there shall be imposed on such a person a penalty of $10 for each such act or failure to act. Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.18, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FEDERAL INCOME TAX PAYMENTS AND REFUNDS.] The adjusted gross income shall be computed by deducting from the gross income assignable to this state under section 290.17, the deduction for allowable federal income taxes determined under the provisions of sections 290.09, subdivision 4, 290.10 (8), (9) or (10), and 290.18.

This deduction shall be allowed to individuals, estates, or trusts (i) for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980 in the taxable year to which the liability applies. Such liability includes the portion of self-employment tax allowed under section 290.10, clause (8). The self-employment tax must be deducted by the person who is deriving the income. When the federal tax liability is joint and several under the computation of a joint federal return of husband and wife, the federal tax liability of spouses filing separate Minnesota returns must be split between the spouses in the same ratio that the federal adjusted gross income of that spouse bears to the total federal adjusted gross income. If the federal tax liability is joint and several under the computation of a joint federal return and the spouses elect to file separate Minnesota returns on a single form, the federal tax liability may be taken by either or divided between them as they elect.

(ii) taxes paid for a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1981 shall be allowed as follows:

(1) Those taxes paid in a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1981, shall be claimed in the year in which the payment was made.

(2) Those paid in a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1980 shall be divided and deducted in equal installments reflected by the yearly periods beginning with the first day of the taxable year in which the payment was made and ending December 31, 1986.

(iii) In the case of a person who was self employed during all or a portion of the taxable year, the federal income tax liability for purposes of this section shall be increased by the self-employment tax allowed under section 290.10, clause (8).

(iv) If a taxpayer's federal tax liability is eventually not paid by reason of compromise, discharge, or court order, the deduction allowed pursuant to this subdivision shall be disallowed for the taxable year in which the liability was accrued.

(v) In the event a federal tax liability for a taxable year commencing after December 31, 1980 is increased, decreased or modified, and such increase, decrease or modification has resulted in a change in the amount of Minnesota income tax in the year to which such increase, decrease or modification is attributable, the taxpayer's deduction under this section shall be modified for such year.

(vi) If the readjustments required in (iv) or (v) are for taxes reflected in the transition rule described in (ii)(2), the readjustment shall be made equally to the remaining installments and if a reduction to such installments is required under this readjustment which exceeds the total of all remaining installments, the remaining installments will be reduced to zero and the excess included in income as a federal income tax refund.

(vii) Refunds which are not involved with any readjustments under the transition rule shall be included in income under section 290.01, subdivision 20, clause (a)(6) if it is from a year beginning before January 1, 1981.

(viii) Refunds of taxes for years beginning after December 31, 1980, shall be used to adjust the deduction in the taxable year of the liability unless that year is closed by statute and no other adjustments are to be required or allowable in which case such refund shall be reportable in the year received.

Sec. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.095, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11. [UNITARY BUSINESSES.] If a taxpayer takes a deduction for a net operating loss carryback which became deductible by the taxpayer as a consequence of the enactment of Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article III, Sections 13 to 15, the taxpayer shall file amended returns for the years for which the net operating loss is claimed. The amended returns shall be filed as if the provisions of Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article III, Sections 13 to 15, were in effect at that time.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.21, Subdivision 4, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article III, Section 14, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. (a) 85 percent of dividends received by a corporation during the taxable year from another corporation, when the corporate stock with respect to which dividends are paid does not constitute the stock in trade of the taxpayer or would not be included in the inventory of the taxpayer, or does not constitute property held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of his trade or business, or when the trade or business of the taxpayer does not consist principally of the holding of the stocks and the collection of the income and gains therefrom. The remaining 15 percent shall be allowed if the recipient owns 80 percent or more of all the voting stock of such other corporation, and the dividends were paid from income arising out of business done in this state by the corporation paying such dividends; but if the income out of which the dividends are declared was derived from business done within and without this state, then so much of the remainder shall be allowed as a deduction as the amount of the taxable net income of the corporation paying the dividends assignable or allocable to this state bears to the entire net income of the corporation, such rate being determined by the returns under this chapter of the corporation paying such dividends for the taxable year preceding the distribution thereof; the burden shall be on the taxpayer of showing that the amount of remainder claimed as a deduction has been received from income arising out of business done in this state,

(b) if the trade or business of the taxpayer consists principally of the holding of the stocks and the collection of the income and gains therefrom, dividends received by a corporation during the taxable year from another corporation, if the recipient owns 80 percent or more of all the voting stock of such other corporation, from income arising out of business done in this state by the corporation paying such dividends; but, if the income out of which the dividends are declared was derived from business done within and without this state, then so much of the dividends shall be allowed as deduction as the amount of the taxable net income of the corporation paying the dividends assignable or allocable to this state bears to the entire net income of the corporation, such rate being determined by the returns under this chapter of the corporation paying such dividends for the taxable year preceding the distribution thereof. The burden shall be on the taxpayer of showing that the amount of dividends claimed as a deduction has been received from income arising out of business done in this state.

(c) The dividend deduction provided in this subdivision shall be allowed only with respect to dividends that are included in a corporation's Minnesota taxable net income for the taxable year.

(d) In the case of a corporation, which is permitted or required to file a combined report under section 290.34, subdivision 2, dividends shall be excluded from the income of the recipient to the extent the dividends are already included as income on the combined report. If dividends received by a corporation that does not have nexus with Minnesota under the provisions of Public Law 86-272 are included as income on the return of an affiliated corporation permitted or required to file a combined report under section 290.34, subdivision 2, then for purposes of this subdivision the determination as to whether the trade or business of the corporation consists principally of the holding of stocks and the collection of income and gains therefrom shall be made with reference to the trade or business of the affiliated corporation having a nexus with Minnesota.

ARTICLE IV: RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT CREDIT

Section 1. Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article III, Section 6, is amended to read:

Sec. 6. [290.068] [CREDIT FOR RESEARCH AND EXPERIMENTAL EXPENDITURES.]

Subdivision 1. [CREDIT ALLOWED.] In addition to the deduction provided in section 290.09 or 290.21, subdivision 3, a credit shall be allowed against the tax imposed by this chapter for the taxable year equal to ten percent of research and experimental expenditures paid or incurred in Minnesota during the taxable year:

- (a) 12.5 percent of the first $2 million of the excess (if any) of
  - (1) the qualified research expenses for the taxable year, over
  - (2) the base period research expenses; and
- (b) 6.25 percent on all of such excess expenses over $2 million.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITION.] For purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given.

(a) "Qualified research and experimental expenditures expenses" means expenditures incurred in Minnesota which qualify for the deduction provided in section 290.09, subdivision 18, to the extent the expenditures exceed the average of the three preceding taxable years' qualifying expenditures under section 290.09, subdivision 18, incurred in Minnesota. If the taxpayer has not conducted trade or business in Minnesota for the three preceding taxable years, the average expenditures incurred shall be determined by dividing the expenditures by the lesser number of complete prior taxable years. If there has been less than one prior taxable year of trade or business conducted in Minnesota the average expenditures for the three preceding taxable years shall be zero (i) qualified research expenses as defined in section 44F(b) and (e) of the Internal Revenue Code, except it shall not include expenses incurred for basic research conducted outside the state of Minnesota pursuant to section 44F(e); or (ii) contributions to a nonprofit corporation established and operated pursuant to the provisions of chapter 317 for the purpose of promoting the establishment and expansion of business in this state, provided the contributions are invested by the nonprofit corporation for the purpose of providing financing for small, technologically innovative enterprises in Minnesota during the early stages of their development; or (iii) contributions to Minnesota post-secondary educational institutions to be used to finance research intended to benefit businesses making use of new technologies.

(b) "Qualified research" means qualified research as defined in section 44F(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, except that the term shall not include qualified research conducted outside the state of Minnesota.

(c) "Base period research expenses" means base period research expenses as defined in section 44F(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, except that "December 31, 1981" shall be substituted for "June 30, 1981" in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2).

(d) "Internal Revenue Code" means the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981.

Subd. 3. [LIMITATION; CARRYBACK AND CARRYOVER.] (a)(1) The credit for the taxable year shall not exceed $300,000 or ten percent of the liability for tax, whichever is less. "Liability for tax" for purposes of this section means the tax imposed under this chapter for the taxable year reduced by the sum of the credits allowed under section 290.06, except the credit allowed under section 290.06, subdivision 13.

(2) In the case of an individual who

(A) owns an interest in an unincorporated business,

(B) is a partner in a partnership,

(C) is a beneficiary of an estate or trust, or

(D) is a shareholder in a small business corporation, having a valid election in effect under section 1372 of the Internal Revenue Code, the credit allowed for the taxable year shall not exceed the lesser of the amount determined under clause (1) for the taxable year or an amount (separately computed with respect to such person's interest in the trade or business or entity) equal to the amount of tax attributable to that portion of a person's taxable income which is allocable or apportionable to the person's interest in the trade or business or entity.

(b) If the amount of the credit determined under subdivision 2 this section for any taxable year exceeds this the limitation under clause (a), the excess shall be a research credit carryback to each of the three preceding taxable years and a research credit carryover to each of the seven 15 succeeding taxable years, provided the aggregate of the credit for the taxable year and any carryover and carryback credits shall not exceed $300,000 or ten percent of the liability for tax, whichever is less. The entire amount of the excess unused credit for the taxable year shall be carried first to the earliest of the taxable years to which the credit may be carried and then to each successive year to which the credit may be carried. The amount of the unused credit which may be added under this clause shall not exceed the taxpayer's liability for tax less the research credit for the taxable year.

Subd. 4. [SMALL BUSINESS CORPORATIONS; PARTNERSHIPS.] In the case of small business corporations, having a valid election in effect, under section 1372 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, estates and trusts, and partnerships, the credit shall be allocated in the same manner provided by section 44F(f)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Subd. 5. [ADJUSTMENTS; ACQUISITIONS AND DISPOSITIONS.] If a taxpayer acquires or disposes of the major portion of a trade or business or the major portion of a separate unit of a trade or business in a transaction with another taxpayer, the taxpayers' qualified research expenses and base period shall be adjusted in the same manner provided by section 44F(f)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, except that "December 31, 1980" shall be substituted for "June 30, 1980."

Sec. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1981.

ARTICLE V: ENERGY CREDITS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.06, Subdivision 14, is amended to read:

Subd. 14. [RESIDENTIAL ENERGY CREDIT.] A credit of 20 percent of the first $10,000 of renewable energy source expenditures, including the expenditures described in clauses (a), (b) and (d) if made by an individual taxpayer on a Minnesota building of six dwelling units or less and expenditures for biomass conversion equipment described in clause (c), may be deducted from the tax due under this chapter for the taxable year in which the expenditures were made. For purposes of this subdivision, the term "building" shall include a condominium or townhouse used by the taxpayer as a residence. In the case of qualifying expenditures incurred in connection with a building under construction by a contractor, the credit shall be deducted from the tax liability of the first individual to purchase the building for use as a principal residence or for residential rental purposes; the contractor shall not be eligible for the credit given pursuant to this subdivision for that expenditure.

A "renewable energy source expenditure" which qualifies shall include:

(a) Expenditures which qualify for the federal renewable energy source credit, pursuant to Section 44C of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980 1981, and any regulations promulgated pursuant thereto, provided that, after December 31, 1980, any solar collector included in the claimed expenditure is certified by the commissioner of energy, planning and development. A solar collector is a device designed to absorb incident solar radiation, convert it to thermal energy, and transfer the thermal energy to a fluid passing through or in contact with the device. "Solar collector" shall not include passive solar energy systems as defined in clause (d);

(b) Expenditures for earth sheltered dwelling units. For purposes of this credit, an "earth sheltered dwelling unit" shall mean a structure which complies with applicable building standards and which is constructed so that:

(1) 80 percent or more of the roof area is covered with a minimum depth of 12 inches of earth; and

(2) 50 percent or more of the wall area is covered with a minimum depth of 12 inches of earth; and

(3) Those portions of the structure not insulated with a minimum of seven feet of earth shall have additional insulation;

(c) Expenditures for biomass conversion equipment located in Minnesota which produces ethanol, methane or methanol for use as a gaseous or as a liquid fuel which is not offered for sale; and

(d) Expenditures for passive solar energy systems. For purposes of this credit, a "passive solar energy system" is defined to include systems which utilize elements of the building and its operable components to heat or cool a building with the sun's energy by means of conduction, convection, radiation, or evaporation. A passive system shall include:

(1) Collection aperture, including glazing installed in south facing walls and roofs; and

(2) Storage element, including thermal mass in the form of water, masonry, rock, concrete, or other mediums which is designed to store heat collected from solar radiation.

A passive system may include either or both:

(1) Control and distribution element, including fans, louvers, and air ducts; or

(2) Retention element, including movable insulation used to minimize heat loss caused by nocturnal radiation through areas used for direct solar heat gain during daylight hours.

Eligible passive expenditures shall be for equipment, materials or devices that are an integral part of the components listed above and essential to the functioning of a passive design which qualifies pursuant to rules adopted by the commissioner of revenue in cooperation with the commissioner of energy, planning and development. Expenditures for equipment, materials, or devices which are a part of the normal heating, cooling, or insulation system of a building are not eligible for the credit.

If a credit was allowed to a taxpayer under this subdivision for any prior taxable year, the dollar amount of the maximum expenditure for which a taxpayer may qualify for a credit under this subdivision in subsequent years shall be $10,000 reduced by the amount of expenditures which a credit was claimed pursuant to this subdivision in prior years. A taxpayer shall never be allowed to claim more than $10,000 of expenditures during the duration of the renewable energy credit.

The credit provided in this subdivision shall not be allowed in a taxable year if the amount of the credit would be less than $10.

If the credit allowable under this subdivision exceeds the amount of tax due in a taxable year, the excess credit shall not be refunded but may be carried forward to the succeeding taxable year and added to the credit allowable for that year. No amount may be carried forward to a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1984 1989.

A shareholder in a family farm corporation and each partner in a partnership operating a family farm shall be eligible for the credit provided by this subdivision in the same manner and to the same extent allowed a joint owner of property under section 44C (d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980 1981. "Family farm corporation" and "family farm" have the meanings given in section 500.24.

The credit provided in this subdivision is subject to the provisions of Section 44C, (c) (7) and (10), (d) (1) to (3), and (e), of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980 1981, and any regulations promulgated pursuant thereto.

The commissioner of revenue in cooperation with the commissioner of energy, planning and development shall adopt rules establishing additional qualifications and definitions for the credits provided in this subdivision.

Notwithstanding section 290.61, the commissioner of revenue may request the commissioner of energy, planning and development to assist in the review and auditing of the information furnished by the taxpayer for purposes of claiming this credit. The provisions of section 290.61 shall apply to employees of the department of energy, planning and development who receive information furnished by a taxpayer for purposes of claiming this credit.

The commissioner of energy, planning and development shall adopt rules establishing the criteria for certification of solar collectors as required by clause (a). The criteria shall:

- (1) Specify the testing procedures to be used in the evaluation of solar collectors;
- (2) Establish minimum levels of collector quality for safety;
- (3) Provide a means to determine the maintainability and structural integrity of solar collectors;
- (4) Establish a system for evaluating and rating the thermal performance of solar collectors;
- (5) Specify the procedures to follow to obtain certification of a solar collector;
- (6) Conform to the maximum extent practicable to the solar collector certification requirements of other states which have adopted certification procedures; and
- (7) Allow for individual variation so as not to hamper the development of innovative solar collectors.

The commissioner of energy, planning and development may adopt temporary rules pursuant to section 15.0412, subdivision 5 to establish this certification procedure.

ARTICLE VI: LEVY LIMITS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 275.50, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [GOVERNMENTAL SUBDIVISION.] "Governmental subdivision" means ~~any~~ a county, home rule charter city, statutory city, or town ~~or special taxing district determined by the department of revenue~~ except a town that has a population of less than 2,500 according to the most recent federal census, provided that the population of an incorporated municipality located within the boundaries of a town is not included in the population of the town. The term does not include school districts ~~or the metropolitan transit commission created pursuant to section 473.404~~ or special taxing districts.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 275.50, Subdivision 5, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article IV, Section 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [SPECIAL LEVIES.] Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary for taxes levied in 1982 payable in 1983 and subsequent years, "special levies" means those portions of ad valorem taxes levied by governmental subdivisions to:

(a) satisfy judgments rendered against the governmental subdivision by a court of competent jurisdiction in any tort action, or to pay the costs of settlements out of court against the governmental subdivision in a tort action when substantiated by a stipulation for the dismissal of the action filed with the court of competent jurisdiction and signed by both the plaintiff and the legal representative of the governmental subdivision, but only to the extent of the increase in levy for such judgments and out of court settlements over levy year 1970, taxes payable in 1971;

(b) pay the costs of complying with any written lawful order initially issued prior to January 1, 1977 by the state of Minnesota, or the United States, or any agency or subdivision thereof, which is authorized by law, statute, special act or ordinance and is enforceable in a court of competent jurisdiction, or any stipulation agreement or permit for treatment works or disposal system for pollution abatement in lieu of a lawful order signed by the governmental subdivision and the state of Minnesota, or the United States, or any agency or subdivision thereof which is enforceable in a court of competent jurisdiction. The commissioner of revenue shall, in consultation with other state departments and agencies, develop a suggested form for use by the state of Minnesota, its agencies and subdivisions in issuing orders pursuant to this subdivision;

(c) pay the costs to a governmental subdivision for their ~~minimum required~~ its share of any program otherwise authorized by law, including the administrative costs of social services but not administrative costs of public assistance programs or of county welfare systems, for which matching funds have been appropriated by the state of Minnesota or the United States, excluding the administrative costs of public assistance programs, to the extent of the increase in levy for the taxes payable year 1983 and subsequent years over the amount levied for the local share of the program for the taxes payable year 1971. This clause shall apply only to those programs or projects for which matching funds have been designated by the state of Minnesota or the United States on or before September 1, of the previous year and only when the receipt of these matching funds is contingent upon the initiation or implementation of the project or program during the year in which the taxes are payable or those programs or projects approved by the commissioner but only to the extent that the costs to the governmental subdivision for the program exceed those expended in calendar year 1970, subject to rules promulgated by the commissioner of revenue pursuant to sections 15.0411 to 15.052;

(d) pay the costs not reimbursed by the state or federal government, of payments made to or on behalf of recipients of aid under any public assistance program authorized by law; and the costs of purchase or delivery of social services. ~~Except for the costs of general assistance medical care under section 256D.03 and the costs of hospital care pursuant to section 261.21, the aggregate amounts levied pursuant to this clause are subject to a maximum increase of 18 percent over the amount levied for these purposes in the previous year;~~

(e) pay the costs of principal and interest on bonded indebtedness, or, ~~effective for taxes levied in 1973 and years thereafter,~~ to reimburse for the amount of liquor store revenues used to pay the principal and interest due in the year preceding the year for which the levy limit is calculated on municipal liquor store bonds;

(f) pay the costs of principal and interest on certificates of indebtedness, except tax anticipation or aid anticipation certificates of indebtedness, issued for any corporate purpose except current expenses or funding an insufficiency in receipts from taxes or other sources or funding extraordinary expenditures resulting from a public emergency;

(g) fund the payments made to the Minnesota state armory building commission pursuant to section 193.145, subdivision 2, to retire the principal and interest on armory construction bonds;

(h) provide for the bonded indebtedness portion of payments made to another political subdivision of the state of Minnesota;

(i) pay the amounts required to compensate for a decrease in mobile homes property tax receipts to the extent that the governmental subdivision's portion of the total levy in the current levy year, pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 3, as amended, is less than the distribution of the mobile homes tax to the governmental subdivision pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 3, in calendar year 1971;

(j) pay the amounts required, in accordance with section 275.075, to correct for a county auditor's error of omission in levy year 1971 or a subsequent levy year, but only to the extent that when added to the preceding year's levy it is not in excess of an applicable statutory, special law or charter limitation, or the limitation imposed on the governmental subdivision by sections 275.50 to 275.56 in the preceding levy year;

(k) pay amounts required to correct for an error of omission in the levy certified to the appropriate county auditor or auditors by the governing body of a city or town with statutory city powers in a levy year, but only to the extent that when added to the preceding year's levy it is not in excess of an applicable statutory, special law or charter limitation, or the limitation imposed on the governmental subdivision by sections 275.50 to 275.56 in the preceding levy year;

(l) pay the increased cost of municipal services as the result of an annexation or consolidation ordered by the Minnesota municipal board in levy year 1971 or a subsequent levy year, but only to the extent and for the levy years as provided by the board in its order pursuant to section 414.01, subdivision 15. Special levies authorized by the board shall not exceed 50 percent of the levy limit base of the governmental subdivision and may not be in effect for more than three years after the board's order;

(m) pay the increased costs of municipal services provided to new private industrial and nonresidential commercial development, to the extent that the extension of such services are not paid for through bonded indebtedness or special assessments, and not to exceed the amount determined as follows. The governmental subdivision may calculate the aggregate of:

(1) The increased expenditures necessary in preparation for the delivering of municipal services to new private industrial and nonresidential commercial development, but limited to one year's expenditures one time for each such development;

(2) The amount determined by dividing the overall levy limitation established pursuant to sections 275.50 to 275.56, and exclusive of special levies and special assessments, by the total taxable value of the governmental subdivision, and then multiplying this quotient times the total increase in assessed value of private industrial and nonresidential commercial development within the governmental subdivision. For the purpose of this clause, the increase in the assessed value of private industrial and nonresidential commercial development is calculated as the increase in assessed value over the assessed value of the real estate parcels subject to such private development as most recently determined before the building permit was issued. In the fourth levy year subsequent to the levy year in which the building permit was issued, the increase in assessed value of the real estate parcels subject to such private development shall no longer be included in determining the special levy.

The aggregate of the foregoing amounts, less any costs of extending municipal services to new private industrial and nonresidential commercial development which are paid by bonded indebtedness or special assessments, equals the maximum amount that may be levied as a "special levy" for the increased costs of municipal services provided to new private industrial and nonresidential commercial development. In the levy year following the levy year in which the special levy made pursuant to this clause is discontinued, one-half of the amount of that special levy made in the preceding year shall be added to the permanent levy base of the governmental subdivision;

(n) recover a loss or refunds in tax receipts incurred in non-special levy funds resulting from abatements or court action in the previous year pursuant to section 275.48;

(o) pay the amounts required by law to be paid to pay the interest on and to reduce the unfunded accrued liability of public pension funds in accordance with the actuarial standards and guidelines specified in sections 356.215 and 326.216 reduced for levy year 1977 and subsequent years by 106 percent of the amount levied for that purpose in 1976, payable in 1977. For the purpose of this special levy, the estimated receipts expected from the state of Minnesota pursuant to sections 69.011 to 69.031 or any other state aid expressly intended for the support of public pension funds shall be considered as a deduction in determining the required levy for the normal costs of the public pension funds. No amount of these aids shall be considered as a deduction in determining the governmental subdivision's required levy for the reduction of the unfunded accrued liability of public pension funds;

(p) pay the amounts allowed under section 174.27 to establish and administer a commuter van program;

(q) pay the costs of financial assistance to local governmental units and certain administrative, engineering, and legal expenses pursuant to Laws 1979, Chapter 253, Section 3;

(r) compensate for revenue lost as a result of abatements or court action pursuant to sections 270.07, 270.17 or 278.01 due to a reassessment ordered by the commissioner of revenue pursuant to section 270.16;

(s) pay the amounts required to compensate for a decrease in revenues from public service enterprises, municipal liquor stores, licenses, permits, fines and forfeits and no other, to the extent that the aggregate of revenues from these sources in the calendar year preceding the year of levy are less than the inflation adjusted aggregate of revenues from these sources in calendar year

1971. "Revenues" from a public service enterprise or a municipal liquor store means the net income or loss of the public service enterprise or municipal liquor store, determined by subtracting total expenses from total revenues, and before any contribution to or from the governmental subdivision. "Fines" for a municipal court means the net amount remaining after subtracting total municipal court expenses from total collections of municipal court fines. The "inflation adjusted aggregate of revenues in calendar year 1971" is the sum of (a) the aggregate of revenues received in calendar year 1971 multiplied by the total percentage increase in the consumer price index for the Minneapolis-St. Paul area from the calendar year 1971 to June of the levy year, and (b) the aggregate of revenues received in calendar year 1971. The commissioner of revenue shall calculate and notify the governmental subdivisions of the inflation adjustment by September of the levy year. A governmental subdivision qualifies for this special levy only if the decrease in aggregate revenues as computed herein and divided by the population of the governmental subdivision in the preceding levy year is equal to or greater than two percent of the per capita levy limitation for the preceding levy year;

(t) pay the cost to a governmental unit of implementing section 18.023, including sanitation and reforestation, as defined in section 18.023, subdivision 1;

(u) pay the cost of acquisition or betterment of property for which bonds could have been issued pursuant to section 475.52, subdivision 1, to the extent that the acquisition or betterment was paid for with funds not obtained by the issuance of obligations of the municipality. When an amount is levied pursuant to this clause, the municipality shall be subject to the procedures for public hearings and referendums established in chapter 412 or 475 or special law, whichever is applicable, that would have applied if the municipality had issued obligations to pay for the property. Any amount levied pursuant to this clause shall be added to the net debt of the municipality for the year in which the tax is payable for the purpose of computing the limitation in section 475.53;

(v) pay the cost of conducting any election required to be held by state law except city or county elections that are not held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November in any year;

The special levies established in Laws 1981, First Special Session Chapter 1, Article V, Sections 10, 11, and 12, or in any other general or special law enacted in the 1981 session of the legislature shall continue to be levied outside of the levy limits set in sections 275.50 to 275.56.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 275.51, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3f. [LEVY LIMIT CALCULATION.] The property tax levy limitation for governmental subdivisions in 1982 for taxes payable in 1983 and subsequent years shall be calculated as follows:

(a) A hypothetical levy limit base for taxes levied in 1981, payable in 1982, shall be computed according to the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 275.51, Subdivision 3d, Clauses (a)(5), (b), (c), and (d), and 275.52; except that, for a municipality that had been exempt from the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 275.50 to 275.56, but is subject to the limitations of sections 275.50 to 275.56, the hypothetical levy limit base shall be the greater of (a) the average of the municipality's levies for levy years 1977, 1978, 1979, 1980, and 1981, with the levy for each year increased according to the percentage of increase in the consumer price index for all the urban consumers for Minneapolis-St. Paul metropolitan area prepared by the United States department of labor from June of that levy year to June of 1981 or (b) the municipality's levy for levy year 1981.

(b) For taxes levied in 1982, payable in 1983 and thereafter, the amount computed pursuant to clause (a) shall be increased annually in the manner provided in section 5 to derive the levy limit base for successive years. Any amount levied in 1976 payable 1977 under the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1976, Section 275.50, Subdivision 5, Clause (a), (c), (d), (e) or (f) to meet the costs of programs, services or legal requirements which cease to exist in a subsequent year shall be subtracted from the levy limit base in the year in which the programs, services or legal requirements for which the levy was made cease to exist.

(c) One-half of the amount of the special levy authorized under section 275.50, subdivision 5, clause (m), shall be added to the permanent levy limit base of the governmental subdivision in the year following the year in which it has been discontinued as a special levy pursuant to the provisions of section 275.50, subdivision 5, clause (m).

(d) The levy limit base shall be reduced by the total amount of state aids paid pursuant to sections 477A.011 to 477A.015 and taconite taxes and aids paid pursuant to sections 294.26; 298.26; 298.28, subdivision 1; 298.282 and state reimbursements for wetlands and native prairie property tax exemptions provided in section 272.02, subdivision 1, clauses (15) and (16); and the payments in lieu of taxes to a county pursuant to section 477A.12 which are required to be used to provide property tax levy reduction, to be paid in the calendar year in which property taxes are payable. One cent per taxable ton of the amount distributed under section 298.28, subdivision 1, clause (4)(c), shall not be deducted from the levy limit base of the counties that receive that aid. The resulting figure is the amount of property taxes which a governmental subdivision may levy for all purposes other than those for which special levies and special assessments are made.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 275.51, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [REDUCTION IN FORMULA AIDS.] If in any year subsequent to 1973 the levy made by a governmental subdivision exceeds the limitation provided in sections 275.50 to 275.56, except when such the excess levy is due to the rounding of the mill rates of the governmental subdivision in accordance with section 275.28, subsequent distributions required to be made by the commissioner of finance from any formula aids pursuant to ~~section 477A.01~~ sections 477A.011 to 477A.015, shall be reduced 33 cents for each full dollar the levy exceeds the limitation; provided that a governmental subdivision may determine to levy in excess of the limitation provided in sections 275.50 to 275.56 by not more than five percent by passing a resolution setting forth the amount by which the levy limit is proposed to be exceeded. Thereafter, the resolution shall be published for two successive weeks in the official newspaper of the governmental subdivision or if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the governmental subdivision, together with a notice fixing a date for a public hearing on the proposed increase. The hearing shall be held not less than two weeks nor more than four weeks after the first publication of the resolution. Following the public hearing, the governing body may determine to take no further action or, in the alternative, adopt a resolution authorizing the levy as originally proposed or approving a levy in the lesser amount it determines. The resolution authorizing a levy in excess of the limitation imposed by sections 275.50 to 275.56 shall be published in the official newspaper of the governmental subdivision or if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the governmental subdivision. If within 30 days thereafter a petition signed by voters equal in number to five percent of the votes cast in the governmental subdivision in the last general election or 2,000 voters, whichever is less, requesting a referendum on the proposed resolution is filed with the clerk or recorder of the governmental subdivision if the governmental subdivision is a city or town, or with the county auditor if the governmental subdivision is a county, the resolution shall not be effective until it has been submitted to the voters at a general or special election and a majority of votes cast on the question of approving the resolution are in the affirmative. The commissioner of revenue shall prepare a suggested form of question to be presented at the referendum. A levy approved at a referendum held at a special or general election held prior to October 1 in any levy year increases the allowable levy in that levy year and provides a permanent adjustment to the levy limit base per capita of the governmental subdivision for future levy years, and there shall be no reduction in distributions of formula aids to the governmental subdivision as a result of the levy. If no referendum is requested, the excess levy authorized by the resolution, if the resolution is adopted prior to October 1 in any year, may be levied in that levy year and subsequent distributions required to be made by the commissioner of finance from any formula aids pursuant to sections 477A.011 to 477A.015, shall be reduced 15 cents for each full dollar by which the levy exceeds the limitation. The provisions of this subdivision apply to the levy of a metropolitan county before the reduction required pursuant to section 163.051, subdivision 5.

Sec. 5. [275.521] [TAX LIMITATION INCREASES AND DECREASES.]

Subdivision 1. [INCREASES.] A limitation prescribed by section 275.51 upon the amount of taxes which may be levied by a governmental subdivision may be increased in the manner and to the extent permitted by this section.

Subd. 2. [MAXIMUM PERCENTAGE INCREASE.] The levy limit base of a governmental subdivision, as adjusted for previous increases pursuant to this section, may be increased each year by the governing body in the amount not to exceed eight percent.

Subd. 3. [POPULATION INCREASES.] If the population of any governmental subdivision increases from one year to the next, the current year's levy limit base shall, for purposes of sections 275.50 to 275.56, be increased by an amount equal to the levy limit base per capita for the previous year increased pursuant to subdivision 2 times the current year's population.

Subd. 3a. [HOUSEHOLD INCREASES.] If the number of households in a governmental subdivision increases from one year to the next in a greater proportion than the population has increased during that time, the current year's levy limit base may for purposes of sections 275.50 to 275.56, be increased according to the provisions of this subdivision in lieu of the increase provided in subdivision 3. The levy limit base for the preceding levy year shall be divided by the number of households in the municipality in that previous year to obtain a levy limit base per household amount. The levy limit base per household amount shall be multiplied by the number of households in the municipality in the current levy year to determine the amount of the base increase allowed pursuant to this subdivision. The number of households shall be determined according to the most recent decennial census, with annual increases, if any, determined for municipalities in the metropolitan area defined in section 473.121, subdivision 2, by the metropolitan council and for other municipalities according to the number of building permits for residential units issued for construction in that municipality.

Subd. 4. [REASONS FOR LEVY LIMIT BASE INCREASES.] The levy limit base of a governmental subdivision may be increased upon approval by the levy limit review board established in section 275.5511, for the following reasons:

(a) Any governmental subdivision which spent money from its surplus funds for nonspecial levy purposes in calendar year 1971 may have its levy limit base increased by no more than the amount of revenue it used from surplus funds for nonspecial levy purposes in calendar year 1971;

(b) Any governmental subdivision which has been required to provide new or substantially expanded services because of changes in state law, whether or not the changed law directly mandates new services, may have its levy limit base increased by no more than the amount required to finance the services, provided that the services may not be financed by special levies or special assessments. For purposes of this clause, "substantially expanded services" shall mean services of a type provided prior to the enactment of the change in state law but which are required to be provided under the changed law to an extent that will increase the cost of providing that type of service by 30 percent or more;

(c) Any governmental subdivision which has been required to provide new or expanded services because of annexations, consolidations, mergers or new incorporations since 1970 may have its levy limit base increased by no more than the amount required to finance the general operating costs involved in the services; and

(d) Any city or township having statutory city powers which has a levy limit base per capita that is below 85 percent of the arithmetic average of the levy limit bases per capita for cities and townships subject to the levy limitations of sections 275.50 to 275.58 in the same county may have its levy limit base increased by no more than the amount required to bring its levy limit base per capita up to 85 percent of the arithmetic average of levy limit bases per capita for all cities and townships subject to the levy limitations of sections 275.50 to 275.58 in the county which are governed by the provisions of sections 275.50 to 275.58. On or before July 1 each year, the commissioner of revenue shall certify the average levy limit base per capita for each county for purposes of this clause. If a city or township has received a levy limit base adjustment from the levy limit review board prior to June 1, 1979, that city or township may also qualify for a base adjustment in accordance with this clause.

Any governmental subdivision which desires to have its levy limit base adjusted under the provisions of this subdivision shall apply to the commissioner of revenue, who shall submit all applications to the levy limit review board established in section 275.5511. Applications shall be in the form and accompanied by the data required by the levy limit review board. Adjustments authorized by the levy limit review board shall become a permanent part of the levy limit base for the governmental subdivision. The levy limit review board may authorize only one levy limit base adjustment for any governmental subdivision under clauses (a), (c), or (d) of this subdivision.

Subd. 5. [CERTAIN CITIES; COUNTIES AND TOWNS.] A city other than a city of the first class, town, or county not containing a city of the first class which, in the preceding levy year, levied at least 98 percent of its total limited levy amount, may determine to levy in excess of the limitation provided in sections 275.50 to 275.56, by no more than ten percent of its levy limit base by passing a resolution setting forth the amount by which the levy limit is proposed to be exceeded. The resolution shall be published for four successive weeks in the official newspaper of the governmental subdivision or if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the governmental subdivision, together with a notice fixing a date for a public hearing on the proposed increase. The hearing shall be held not less than four weeks nor more than six weeks after the first publication of the resolution. Following the public hearing, the governing body may determine to take no further action or, in the alternative, adopt a resolution authorizing the levy as originally proposed or approving a levy in the lesser amount it determines. The resolution shall be published in the official newspaper of the governmental subdivision or if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the governmental subdivision. If within 30 days thereafter, a petition signed by voters equal in number to five percent of the votes cast in the governmental subdivision in the last general election or 2,000 voters, whichever is less, requesting a referendum on the proposed resolution is filed with the clerk or recorder of the governmental subdivision if the governmental subdivision is a city or town, or with the county auditor if the governmental subdivision is a county, the resolution is not effective until it has been submitted to the voters at a general or special election and a majority of votes cast on the question of approving the resolution are in the affirmative. The commissioner of revenue shall prepare a suggested form of question to be presented at the referendum. A levy increased pursuant to this subdivision, whether not challenged or approved at a referendum held at a special or general election held prior to October 1 in any levy year, increases the allowable levy in that same levy year and provides a permanent adjustment to the levy limit base of the governmental subdivision for future levy years. There shall be no reduction in distributions of formula aids to the governmental subdivision as a result of the additional levy.

The excess levy authorized by this subdivision is a one-time levy adjustment to the levy limit base. If an adjustment was made after June 3, 1977, pursuant to this subdivision, in an amount less than ten percent of the base, calculated at the time of the adjustment, an additional adjustment to the current levy limit base is authorized in an amount equal to ten percent less the percent by which it was previously adjusted.

Sec. 6. [275.531] [GOVERNING CENSUS.]

Subdivision 1. [MOST RECENT POPULATION FIGURES.] For the purpose of determining the amount of tax that a governmental subdivision may levy in accordance with a per capita limitation established by this chapter or the amount of aid that a city or township may receive pursuant to sections 477A.011 to 477A.015, the population of the governmental subdivision is that established by the last federal census, by a census taken pursuant to subdivision 2, by a population estimate made by the metropolitan council, or by the population estimate of the state demographer made pursuant to section 4.12, subdivision 7, clause (10), whichever is the most recent as to the stated date of count or estimate, up to and including July 1 of the current levy year. Population changes established after July 1 of the current levy year shall not be used in determining the levy limitation of a governmental subdivision for the current levy year under sections 275.50 to 275.56.

Subd. 2. [SPECIAL CENSUS.] The governing body of a governmental subdivision may, in any year, contract with the United States bureau of the census to take a special census of that governmental subdivision to determine the current population of the governmental subdivision for the purpose of computing the amount of tax that it may levy or aid to be received pursuant to sections 477A.011 to 477A.015. The expense of taking the census shall be paid by the governmental subdivision in which the census is taken.

Subd. 3. [NOTICE OF INCREASED POPULATION ESTIMATE.] (a) In any year in which the population estimate for a governmental subdivision provided by the state demographer pursuant to subdivision 4 increases the amount of tax that the governmental subdivision may levy pursuant to sections 275.50 to 275.56, the governing body of the governmental subdivision shall publish notice of the estimate and the fact that it may result in an increased tax levy at least once in a legal newspaper of general circulation in the subdivision by August 1.

(b) Within 30 days following the publication of the notice, ten percent or more of the registered voters of the subdivision, or, if the subdivision does not require voter registration, then ten percent or more of its voters who voted at the subdivision's last election, may sign and submit to the governing body of the subdivision a petition demanding a special census.

(c) An affidavit shall be attached to the petition executed by the person circulating the petition, stating that the person personally circulated the petition, the number of signatures thereon, that all signatures were affixed in the person's presence and that the person believes them to be genuine signatures of the persons whose names they purport to be. Each signature need not be notarized.

(d) Upon the receipt of a petition conforming to this subdivision, the governing body shall contract for the taking of a special census pursuant to the provisions of subdivision 2.

Subd. 4. [CHALLENGE OF ESTIMATES.] In any year in which the annual population estimate of the state demographer is the population of a governmental subdivision pursuant to subdivision 1, the governing body of the governmental subdivision may challenge the accuracy of the estimate by notifying the state demographer of its objections to the estimate by June 1. If the governing body of the governmental subdivision and the state demographer agree on a revised population estimate by July 1, the revised estimate is the annual population estimate of the state demographer for that governmental subdivision for that year.

Sec. 7. [275.553] [LEVY LIMITATIONS REVIEW BOARD.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION; MEMBERS.] A levy limitations review board is hereby created to resolve questions concerning administrative interpretation of sections 275.50 to 275.56 that require review and to hear appeals by governing bodies of governmental subdivisions who disagree with the administrative rulings issued by the commissioner of revenue pursuant to section 275.55.

The members of the review board are the commissioner of revenue, the chairman of the Minnesota municipal board and one public member appointed by the governor, with the approval of the senate.

The public member shall be a citizen of the state who is knowledgeable in finance and local government. The public member shall not, at the time he is a member of the board, hold any other public office, or be employed by or represent a governmental subdivision, or have any personal financial interest in any contract with a governmental subdivision, or serve in any capacity where a conflict of interest could arise.

Subd. 2. [TERMS; COMPENSATION; REMOVAL; VACANCIES.] The membership term, compensation, removal, and filling of vacancies for the public member on the board shall be as provided in section 15.0575.

Sec. 8. [275.554] [CONTESTED CASES; HEARING; NOTICE, EVIDENCE, DECISIONS, ORDERS.]

The governing body of a governmental subdivision to whom a notice is given pursuant to section 275.55 may by a majority vote of the whole governing body decide to dispute the commissioner's administrative action. Unless notice of the decision is given to the commissioner within 30 days of the issuance of the commissioner's notice, the commissioner's decision is final and not subject to the review of the levy limitations review board. Upon receipt of a notice from a governmental subdivision within the time allowed, disputing the commissioner's administrative action, the commissioner shall conduct a further investigation of the disputed issues of fact as he deems necessary. If the commissioner continues to adhere to his previous notice, the governing body of the governmental subdivision shall be entitled to a hearing before the levy limitations review board. The board shall set a time and place for the hearing and notice shall be given by mail to the governing body of the governmental subdivision. The board shall adopt rules governing the proceedings for hearings which shall afford all interested parties the opportunity to present evidence and arguments with respect to the contested issues of fact. The decision of the board shall be in writing, and shall state in detail the basis and reason for each conclusion upon each contested issue of fact. A copy of the decision and order together with the detailed reasons shall be delivered or mailed to the governmental subdivision or its attorney of record. The decision of the levy limitations review board under this section may be reviewed on certiorari by the district court of the county wherein all or a part of the governmental subdivision is located.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 273.13, Subdivision 15b, as amended by Laws 1981 Third Special Session Chapter 1, Article I, Section 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 15b. [PROPERTY TAX CREDITS LIMITATION.] The property tax

The department shall include in its instructions to taxpayers a notice of the restriction established in this section. If the deduction has been disallowed because of a negligent failure to file a copy of the certificate by a taxpayer who had filed a copy for a prior year, the taxpayer may file an amended return with a copy of the certificate and the deduction shall be allowed and the tax liability adjusted accordingly. Notice to taxpayers of the requirement for registration of rental housing property shall be included in the property tax statement for property located in a municipality which has enacted an ordinance under this section.*

Subd. 2. [REQUIREMENTS FOR ORDINANCE.] An ordinance adopted under subdivision 1 shall require identifying information judged necessary by the city and the department of revenue to administer the ordinance.

*The ordinance shall provide that all property must be registered within 60 days of the effective date of the ordinance, except that property transferred or sold within or subsequent to that period, whether the sale is by warranty deed, quit-claim deed, contract for deed or any other method of sale must be registered within 20 days after transfer. 474.03 [POWERS.]

Any municipality or redevelopment agency, in addition to the powers prescribed elsewhere by the laws of this state, shall have the power to:

(2) Issue revenue bonds, in anticipation of the collection of revenues of such project, to finance, in whole or in part, the cost of the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, improvement, betterment, or extension thereof and, in the case of an alternative energy project, in addition to the other powers granted by this chapter, to finance the acquisition and leasing or sale of equipment and products to others;

(3) Issue revenue bonds to pay, purchase or discharge all or any part of the outstanding indebtedness of a contracting party engaged primarily in the operation of one or more nonprofit hospitals or nursing homes, theretofore incurred in the acquisition or betterment of its existing hospital or nursing home facilities, including, to the extent deemed necessary by the governing body of the municipality or redevelopment agency, any unpaid interest on such indebtedness accrued or to accrue to the date on which such indebtedness is finally paid; and any premium the governing body of the municipality or redevelopment agency determines to be necessary to be paid to pay, purchase or defease such outstanding indebtedness; if revenue bonds are issued for this purpose, the refinancing and the existing properties of the contracting party shall be deemed to constitute a project under section 474.02, subdivision 1c. Industrial revenue bonds shall only be available under this provision if the commissioner of securities and real estate has been shown that a reduction in debt service charges to patients and third party payors will occur. All reductions in debt service charges pursuant to this program shall be passed on to patients and third party payors. These industrial revenue bonds may not be used for any purpose not consistent with the provisions of sections 145.832 to 145.845 or chapter 256B;

Nothing in this subdivision is intended to prohibit the use of revenue bond proceeds to pay outstanding indebtedness of a contracting party to the extent

now permitted by law;

(4) Enter into a revenue agreement with any person, firm, or public or private corporation or federal or state governmental subdivision or agency in such manner that payments required thereby to be made by the contracting party shall be fixed, and revised from time to time as necessary, so as to produce income and revenue sufficient to provide for the prompt payment of principal of and interest on all bonds issued hereunder when due, and the revenue agreement shall also provide that the contracting party shall be required to pay all expenses of the operation and maintenance of the project including, but without limitation, adequate insurance thereon and insurance against all liability for injury to persons or property arising from the operation thereof, and all taxes and special assessments levied upon or with respect to the project and payable during the term of the revenue agreement, during which term a tax shall be imposed and collected pursuant to the provisions of section 272.01, subdivision 2, for the privilege of using and possessing the project, in the same amount and to the same extent as though the contracting party were the owner of all real and personal property comprising the project;

(5) Pledge and assign to the holders of such bonds or a trustee therefor all or any part of the revenues of one or more projects and define and segregate such revenues or provide for the payment thereof to a trustee, whether or not such trustee is in possession of the project under a mortgage or otherwise;

(6) Mortgage or otherwise encumber such projects in favor of the municipality or redevelopment agency, the holders of such bonds, or a trustee therefor, provided that in creating any such mortgages or encumbrances a municipality or redevelopment agency shall not have the power to obligate itself except with respect to the project;

(7) Make all contracts, execute all instruments, and do all things necessary or convenient in the exercise of the powers herein granted, or in the performance of its covenants or duties, or in order to secure the payment of its bonds; including, but without limitation, a contract entered into prior to the construction of the project authorizing the contracting party, subject to such terms and conditions as the municipality or redevelopment agency shall find necessary or desirable and proper, to provide for the construction, acquisition, and installation of the buildings, improvements, and equipment to be included in the project by any means available to the contracting party and in the manner determined by the contracting party and without advertisement for bids as may be required for the construction or acquisition of other municipal facilities;

(8) Enter into and perform such contracts and agreements with other municipalities, political subdivisions, and state agencies, authorities, and institutions as the respective governing bodies of the same may deem proper and feasible for or concerning the planning, construction, lease, purchase, mortgaging or other acquisition, and the financing of a project, and the maintenance thereof, including an agreement whereby one municipality issues its revenue bonds in behalf of one or more other municipalities pursuant to revenue agreements with the same or different contracting parties, which contracts and agreements may establish a board, commission, or such other body as may be deemed proper for the supervision and general management of the facilities of the project; provided, no municipality or redevelopment agency shall enter into or perform any contract or agreement with any school district under which the municipality or redevelopment agency issues its revenue bonds or otherwise provides for the construction of school facilities and the school leases or otherwise acquires these facilities;

(9) Accept from any authorized agency of the federal government loans or grants for the planning, construction, acquisition, leasing, purchase, or other provision of any project, and enter into agreements with such agency respecting such loans or grants;

(10) Sell and convey all properties acquired in connection with such projects, including without limitation the sale and conveyance thereof subject to such mortgage as herein provided, and the sale and conveyance thereof under an option granted to the lessee of the project, for such price, and at such time as the governing body of the municipality or redevelopment agency may determine, provided, however, that no sale or conveyance of such properties shall ever be made in such manner as to impair the rights or interests of the holder, or holders, of any bonds issued under the authority of this chapter;

(11) Issue revenue bonds to refund, in whole or in part, bonds previously issued by such municipality or redevelopment agency under authority of this chapter;

(12) If so provided in the revenue agreement, terminate the agreement and re-enter or repossess the project upon the default of the contracting party, and operate, lease, or sell the project in such manner as may be authorized or required by the provisions of the revenue agreement or of the resolution or indenture securing the bonds issued for the project; any revenue agreement which includes provision for a conveyance of real estate to the contracting party may be terminated in accordance with the revenue agreement, notwithstanding that such revenue agreement may constitute an equitable mortgage provided that no municipality or redevelopment agency shall have power otherwise to operate any project referred to in this chapter as a business or in any manner whatsoever, and nothing herein authorizes any municipality or redevelopment agency to expend any funds on any project herein described, other than the revenues of such projects, or the proceeds of revenue bonds and notes issued hereunder, or other funds granted to the municipality or redevelopment agency for the purposes herein contemplated, except as may be otherwise permitted by law and except to enforce any right or remedy under any revenue agreement or related agreement for the benefit of the bondholders or for the protection of any security given in connection with a revenue agreement, provided that the public cost of redevelopment of land paid by a city or its redevelopment agency shall not be deemed part of the cost of any project situated on such land;

(13) Invest or deposit, or authorize a trustee to invest or deposit, any money on hand in funds or accounts established in connection with a project or payment of bonds issued therefor, to the extent they are not presently needed for the purposes for which such funds or accounts were created, in accordance with section 471.56, as amended; ~~and~~

(14) Waive or require the furnishing of a contractors payment and performance bond of the kind described in section 574.26 and if such bond shall be required, then the provisions of chapter 514 relating to liens for labor and materials, shall not be applicable in respect of any work done or labor or materials supplied for the project, and if such bond be waived then the said

provisions of chapter 514 shall apply in respect of work done or labor or materials supplied for the project; and

Sec. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This act is effective for property taxes levied in 1982 and thereafter, payable in 1983 and thereafter.

ARTICLE XI: URBAN SHELTER PRESERVES

Section 1. [URBAN SHELTER PRESERVES; DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] When used in sections 1 to 7, the words described in this section shall have the meanings given herein.

Subd. 2. [CITY.] "City" means the city of Minneapolis or any agency or body lawfully delegated by the governing body of the city to perform the duties provided in sections 1 to 7.

Subd. 3. [LOWER INCOME FAMILY.] "Lower income family" means a family whose federal adjusted gross income is no more than 80 percent of the median income for the area as defined by the U.S. department of housing and urban development.

Subd. 4. [LOWER INCOME RENTAL PROPERTY.] "Lower income rental property" means a rental property in which 75 percent or more of the units are rented to lower income families, except that in the case of non-owner occupied duplexes the percentage shall be 50 percent and in the case of triplexes, it shall be 66-2/3 percent. Owner-occupied duplexes, cooperatives which are treated as homesteads, and property assessed pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Section 273.13, Subdivisions 17, 17b and 17c shall not be considered to be lower income rental property for purposes of sections 1 to 7.

Subd. 5. [OWNER.] "Owner" means any person who owns the freehold of the premises or lesser estate therein, receiver, executor, trustee, or, if a property has been sold subject to a contract for deed, owner includes the vendee where the vendor has agreed to the covenant in writing.

Subd. 6. [URBAN SHELTER PRESERVE.] "Urban shelter preserve" means a rental property which is the subject of an agreement as described in section 4.

Sec. 2. [LOCAL OPTION TO CREATE PRESERVES.]

The governing body of the city may enact an ordinance providing for the creation of urban shelter preserves in the city. In the ordinance, the governing body shall state its findings with respect to the existence in the city of developmental pressures on property that could provide housing for lower income families. Lower income rental property of a type that is found by the governing body to be subject to developmental pressure would be eligible for designation as an urban preserve. The ordinance may limit either the number of properties or the number of residential units that will be accepted as urban shelter preserves.

Sec. 3. [APPLICATION FOR DESIGNATION.]

Subdivision 1. [INFORMATION REQUIRED.] An owner who believes his property to be eligible for designation as an urban shelter preserve may apply to the city to have the property so designated. The application shall be on a form provided by the city and shall contain at least the following information:

(a) Address and legal description of the property;

(b) Name and address and social security number or Minnesota taxpayer identification number of the owner;

(c) Other information the participating city deems necessary; and

(d) A statement of the penalties that apply for giving fraudulent information.

Subd. 2. [TENANTS' INCOME INFORMATION.] Upon receiving the application, the city shall provide the owner with forms for certification of tenant income to be distributed by the owner to the tenants. The completed forms shall be returned to the city by all tenants of the property. The form shall include at least the following:

(a) A statement that the information given on this form will not jeopardize eligibility for any benefits currently being received by the tenant, but will be for purposes of determining eligibility of the building for the urban shelter preserve designation only;

(b) The name and address of the owner of the property;

(c) A statement of the penalties which shall apply for giving fraudulent information; and

Sec. 4. [DESIGNATION.]

Subdivision 1. [AGREEMENT.] If the city finds the property to be eligible for designation as an urban shelter preserve, it shall request the owner to furnish a copy of the rent schedule for the property. Upon receipt of the rent schedule, the city may designate the property as an urban shelter preserve for a period of time, not less than one year, agreed to by the city and the owner. This agreement shall not be binding on a successor in interest to the owner unless the successor in interest agrees to be bound to the agreement and notifies the city of his intention to agree. If the successor in interest does not agree to be bound by the agreement, property sold prior to October 1 shall not be valued and assessed pursuant to section 6 for taxes levied in that year.

Subd. 2. [EFFECT OF DESIGNATION.] If designation is made prior to March 1 of any year, the property shall be assessed pursuant to section 6 for taxes payable the following year. If designation is made after March 1, the property shall be assessed pursuant to section 6 in the following year.

Subd. 3. [NOTICE TO OFFICIALS.] Within ten days of designation of a property as a preserve, the city shall notify the county auditor and the assessor of the property of the designation.

Sec. 5. [DURATION.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] An urban preserve shall continue to exist during the time established in the original agreement between the city and the owner, as well as any extensions of that period agreed to in writing by the city and the owner until either the owner or the city initiates expiration as provided in this section.

Subd. 2. [OWNER INITIATION.] An owner may initiate expiration prior to the date set in the original agreement or extensions by notifying the city. The notice shall contain the address of the property and shall state the desired date of expiration which shall be at least one year from the date of the notice.

Subd. 3. [CITY INITIATION.] The city may initiate termination prior to the date set in the original agreement or extensions by notifying the owner. The date of expiration shall be at least one year from the date of the notice.

Subd. 4. [TERMINATION FOR FAILURE TO MAINTAIN PRESERVE.] If it becomes apparent that the owner has failed to maintain his property as a lower income rental property or in any other way violated the terms of the agreement, the administering agency shall commence action toward early termination of the preserve. In so doing, the city shall first give the owner 30 days notice in writing stating the reasons for the early termination. If the owner fails to take action immediately to remedy the situation, the termination shall become effective at the end of the 30 days.

Subd. 5. [NOTICE TO OFFICIALS.] The city shall notify the assessor and county auditor of any notice of termination issued or received.

Sec. 6. [PROPERTY TAX TREATMENT; PASSTHROUGH OF REDUCTION.]

Subdivision 1. [ASSESSMENT.] Notwithstanding the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Sections 272.03, Subdivision 8, and 273.11, the market value of property designated as an urban preserve, for the first year when it is taxed pursuant to this section, shall be the market value given it for the year preceding its designation. For assessments in subsequent years, its value as determined according to Minnesota Statutes, Section 273.11, shall not increase over its value for the preceding year by more than 80 percent of the average percentage increase in market value of residential rental property in the city. The governing body of the municipality may, if it finds that the value of property designated as an urban shelter preserve has increased substantially as a consequence of developmental pressure on the property prior to the time of its designation, determine that the market value of the property shall not be increased during the period of time deemed necessary for the value of the property to become equal to similar property that has not been subject to the same developmental pressure; any restriction on subsequent increases in the valuation of the property shall be determined by the governing body. Improvements to the property shall be assessed according to the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Section 273.11.

Subd. 2. [REDUCTION OF ASSESSED VALUE.] After the assessor has determined the market value for urban preserve property in accordance with subdivision 1, he shall compute the assessed value by applying 50 percent of the classification percentage which would apply if the property were not a preserve.

Subd. 3. [DETERMINATION OF TAX REDUCTION.] The assessor shall annually notify the city of the difference between the property tax which would accrue to each preserve property with and without preserve status. The difference between these two figures is the property tax reduction for that property which shall be passed through to tenants pursuant to subdivision 4.

Subd. 4. [PROPERTY TAX PASSTHROUGH.] The benefit of the reduction in the property tax shall be passed through to tenants by means of reductions in monthly rents for residential units in the urban shelter preserves. The amount of the passthrough shall be calculated in such a way that, for properties consisting of ten units or less, 90 percent is distributed among the tenants and, for properties exceeding ten units, 95 percent of the reduction is divided among tenants. The distribution shall be in proportion to a household's share in gross residential rents for the building. The city shall notify the owner of the proper amount and timing of the property tax passthrough.

Sec. 7. [ADMINISTRATION.]

Subdivision 1. [ANNUAL RECERTIFICATION.] On an annual basis the income of tenants shall be recertified to insure that the property continues to qualify as a lower income rental property. The rent schedule shall also be recertified at least annually.

Subd. 2. [ENFORCEMENT.] The city may take all reasonable and necessary steps to insure adequate compliance with the provisions of sections 1 to 7, including the levying of penalties for wilful abuse of the covenant agreement. Penalties for the owner shall not exceed $500 and the equivalent of all the property tax passthrough for that property plus interest of 20 percent and for the tenant shall not exceed a maximum of $500.

Sec. 8. [APPLICABILITY.]

On its effective date, this act shall apply to the city of Minneapolis.

Sec. 9. [LOCAL APPROVAL.]

This act is effective the day after compliance with Minnesota Statutes, Section 645.021, Subdivision 3, by the governing body of the city of Minneapolis.

After the judgment is entered, it shall be subject to interest or penalties as would under the law attach to the tax embraced therein after the entry thereof and penalty at the rates provided in chapter 279 for delinquent payment of property taxes.*

Subd. 2. [REFUND.] If the petitioner has overpaid the tax determined or stipulated to be due, the county auditor shall compute interest on the overpayment from the date of the filing of the petition for review or from the date of payment of the tax, whichever is later, until the date of issuance of the refund warrant. Interest shall be calculated on the overpayment at the rate provided in section 279.03 for delinquent property taxes for the levy year involved.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 279.03, is amended to read:

279.03 [INTEREST ON DELINQUENT REAL ESTATE PROPERTY TAXES.]

~~Such interest shall be calculated from the second Monday of May following the year in which the taxes became due, on the full amount of the taxes, penalties and costs accrued.~~

~~The provisions of this section shall not apply to any taxes which have heretofore been bid in by an actual purchaser at a May tax sale or which have heretofore been assigned.~~

For property taxes levied in 1980 and prior years, interest is to be calculated at simple interest from the second Monday in May following the year in which the taxes become due until the time that the taxes and penalties are paid, computed on the amount of unpaid taxes, penalties and costs. For property taxes levied in 1981 and subsequent years, interest shall commence on the first day of January following the year in which the taxes become due, but the county treasurer need not calculate interest on unpaid taxes and penalties on the tax list returned to the county auditor pursuant to section 279.01.

If interest is payable for a portion of a year, the interest is calculated only for the months that the taxes or penalties remain unpaid, and for this purpose a portion of a month is deemed to be a whole month.

Interest on the unpaid contract balance on judgments confessed before July 1, 1982, is payable at the rate applicable to the judgment at the time that it was confessed.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 279.37, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

*nonpublic sale will encourage the approval of sale of the land by the city or town and promote its return to the tax rolls. The sale of land pursuant to this subdivision shall be subject to any conditions imposed by the county board pursuant to section 282.03. The governing body of the city or town may recommend to the county board conditions to be imposed on the sale. Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 282.08, is amended to read:

ARTICLE XIX: ATHLETES AND ENTERTAINERS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.17, Subdivision 2, as amended by Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article 3, Section 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [OTHER TAXPAYERS.] In the case of taxpayers not subject to the provisions of subdivision 1, items of gross income shall be assigned to this state or other states or countries in accordance with the following principles:

(1) (a) The entire income of all resident or domestic taxpayers from compensation for labor or personal services, or from a business consisting principally of the performance of personal or professional services, shall be assigned to this state, and the income of nonresident taxpayers from such sources shall be assigned to this state if, and to the extent that, the labor or services are performed within it; all other income from such sources shall be treated as income from sources without this state.

(b) In the case of an individual who is a nonresident of Minnesota and who is an athlete or entertainer, income from compensation for labor or personal services performed within this state shall be determined in the following manner.

(i) The amount of income to be assigned to Minnesota for an individual who is a nonresident salaried athletic team employee shall be determined by using a fraction in which the denominator contains the total number of days in which the individual is under a duty to perform for the employer, and the numerator is the total number of those days spent in Minnesota. In order to eliminate the need to file state or provincial income tax returns in several states or provinces, Minnesota will exclude from income any income assigned to Minnesota under the provisions of this clause for a nonresident athlete who is employed by an athletic team whose operations are not based in this state if the state or province in which the athletic team is based provides a similar income exclusion. If the state or province in which the athletic team's operations are based does not have an income tax on an individual's personal service income, it will be deemed that that state or province has a similar income exclusion. As used in the preceding sentence, the term "province" means a province of Canada.

(ii) The amount of income to be assigned to Minnesota for an individual who is a nonresident, and who is an athlete not listed in clause (i), or who is an entertainer, for that person's athletic or entertainment performance in Minnesota shall be determined by assigning to this state all income from performances or athletic contests in this state.

(2) Income from the operation of a farm shall be assigned to this state if the farm is located within this state and to other states only if the farm is not located in this state. Income and gains received from tangible property not employed in the business of the recipient of such income or gains, and from tangible property employed in the business of such recipient if such business consists principally of the holding of such property and the collection of the income and gains therefrom, shall be assigned to this state if such property has a situs within it, and to other states only if it has no situs in this state. Income or gains from intangible personal property not employed in the business of the recipient of such income or gains, and from intangible personal property employed in the business of such recipient if such business consists principally of the holding of such property and the collection of the income and gains therefrom, wherever held, whether in trust, or otherwise, shall be assigned to this state if the recipient thereof is domiciled within this state; income or gains from intangible personal property wherever held, whether in trust or otherwise shall be assigned to this state if the recipient of such income or gains is domiciled within this state, or if the grantor of any trust is domiciled within this state and such income or gains would be taxable to such grantor under section 290.28 or 290.29;

(3) Income derived from carrying on a trade or business, including in the case of a business owned by natural persons the income imputable to the owner for his services and the use of his property therein, shall be assigned to this state if the trade or business is conducted wholly within this state, and to other states if conducted wholly without this state. This provision shall not apply to business income subject to the provisions of clause (1);

(4) When a trade or business is carried on partly within and partly without this state, the entire income derived from such trade or business, including income from intangible property employed in such business and including, in the case of a business owned by natural persons, the income imputable to the owner for his services and the use of his property therein, shall be governed, except as otherwise provided in sections 290.35 and 290.36, by the provisions of section 290.19, notwithstanding any provisions of this section to the contrary. This shall not apply to business income subject to the provisions of clause (1), nor shall it apply to income from the operation of a farm which is subject to the provisions of clause (2). For the purposes of this clause, a trade or business located in Minnesota is carried on partly within and partly without this state if tangible personal property is sold by such trade or business and delivered or shipped to a purchaser located outside the state of Minnesota.

If the trade or business carried on wholly or partly in Minnesota is part of a unitary business, the entire income of that unitary business shall be subject to apportionment under section 290.19. The term "unitary business" shall mean a number of business activities or operations which are of mutual benefit, dependent upon, or contributory to one another, individually or as a group.

Unity shall be presumed whenever there is unity of ownership, operation, and use, evidenced by centralized management or executive force, centralized purchasing, advertising, accounting, or other controlled interaction. Unity of ownership will not be deemed to exist unless the corporation owns more than 50 percent of the voting stock of the other corporation.

The entire income of a unitary business, including all income from each activity, operation or division, shall be subject to apportionment as provided in section 290.19. None of the income of a unitary business shall be considered as derived from any particular source and none shall be allocated to any particular place except as provided by the applicable apportionment formula.

In determining whether or not intangible property is employed in a unitary business carried on partly within and partly without this state so that income derived therefrom is subject to apportionment under section 290.19 the following rules and guidelines shall apply.

(a) Intangible property is employed in a business if the business entity owning intangible property holds it as a means of furthering the business operation of which a part is located within the territorial confines of this state.

(b) Where a business operation conducted in Minnesota, is owned by a business entity which carries on business activity outside of the state different in kind from that conducted within this state, and such other business is conducted entirely outside the state, it will be presumed that the two business operations are unitary in nature, interrelated, connected and interdependent unless it can be shown to the contrary.

(5) In the case of a nonresident who is liable for payment of a penalty for having withdrawn funds from an individual housing account established pursuant to section 290.08, subdivision 25, the amount so withdrawn and for which a deduction was allowed shall be an item of income assignable to this state, and the penalty tax of ten percent shall remain an additional liability of that taxpayer.

(6) For purposes of this section, amounts received by a non-resident from the United States, its agencies or instrumentalities, the Federal Reserve Bank, the state of Minnesota or any of its political or governmental subdivisions, or a Minnesota volunteer fireman's relief association, by way of payment as a pension, public employee retirement benefit, or any combination thereof, or as a retirement or survivor's benefit made from a plan qualifying under section 401, 403, 404, 405, 408, 409 or 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979, are not considered income derived from carrying on a trade or business or from performing personal or professional services in Minnesota, and are not taxable under this chapter.

(7) All other items of gross income shall be assigned to the taxpayer's domicile.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.19, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [COMPUTATION, BUSINESS CONDUCTED PARTLY WITHIN STATE; APPORTIONMENT.] The taxable net income from a trade or business carried on partly within and partly without this state shall be computed by deducting from the gross income of such business, wherever derived, deductions of the kind permitted by section 290.09, so far as connected with or allocable against the production or receipt of such income. The remaining net income shall be apportioned to Minnesota as follows:

(1) If the business consists of the mining, producing, smelting, refining, or any combination of these activities of copper and nickel ores, or of the manufacture of personal property and the sale of said property within and without the state, the remainder shall be apportioned to Minnesota on the basis of the percentage obtained by taking the arithmetical average of the following three percentages:

(a) The percentage which the sales made within this state is of the total sales wherever made;

(b) The percentage which the total tangible property, real, personal, and mixed, owned or rented, and used by the taxpayer in this state during the tax period in connection with such trade or business is of the total tangible property, real, personal, or mixed, wherever located, owned or rented and, used by the taxpayer in connection with such trade or business during the tax period; and,

(c) The percentage which the taxpayer's total payrolls paid or incurred in this state or paid in respect to labor performed in this state in connection with such trade or business is of the taxpayer's total payrolls paid or incurred in connection with such entire trade or business;

(d) The percentage of such remainder to be assigned to this state shall not be in excess of the sum of the following percentages: 70 percent of the percentage determined under clause (1) (a), 15 percent of the percentage determined under clause (1) (b), and 15 percent of the percentage determined under clause (1) (c);

(2) (a) In all other cases the remainder shall be apportioned to Minnesota on the basis of the percentage obtained by taking the arithmetical average of the following three percentages:

(1) The percentage which the sales, gross earnings, or receipts from business operations, in whole or in part, within this state bear to the total sales, gross earnings, or receipts from business operations wherever conducted;

(2) The percentage which the total tangible property, real, personal, and mixed, owned or rented, and used by the taxpayer in this state during the tax period in connection with such trade or business is of the total tangible property, real, personal, or mixed, wherever located, owned, or rented, and used by the taxpayer in connection with such trade or business during the tax period; and

(3) The percentage which the taxpayer's total payrolls paid or incurred in this state or paid in respect to labor performed in this state in connection with such trade or business is of the taxpayer's total payrolls paid or incurred in connection with such entire trade or business;

(4) The percentage of such remainder to be assigned to this state shall not be in excess of the sum of the following percentages: 70 percent of the percentage determined under clause (2) (a) (1), 15 percent of the percentage determined under clause (2) (a) (2), and 15 percent of the percentage determined under clause (2) (a) (3);

(b) If the methods prescribed under clause (2) (a) will not properly reflect taxable net income assignable to the state, there may be used, if practicable and if such use will properly and fairly reflect such income, the percentage which the sales, gross earnings, or receipts from business operations, in whole or in part, within this state bear to the total sales, gross earnings, or receipts from business operations wherever conducted; or the separate or segregated accounting method; however, for athletic teams when the visiting team does not share in the gate receipts, all of the team's income is apportioned to the state in which the team's operation is based;

(3) The sales, payrolls, earnings, and receipts referred to in this section shall be those for the taxable year in respect of which the tax is being computed. The property referred to in this section shall be the average of the property owned or used by the taxpayer during the taxable year in respect of which the tax is being computed.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.92, Subdivision 4a, is amended to read:

Subd. 4a. [TAX WITHHELD FROM NONRESIDENTS.] (1) ["WAGES" PAID TO NONRESIDENT EMPLOYEES.] For the purposes of this section: The term "wages" means all remuneration taxable under this chapter including all remuneration paid to a nonresident employee for services performed in this state.

(2) ["EMPLOYER", "WAGES" AND "EMPLOYEE" CONCERNING NONRESIDENTS.] Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the commissioner of revenue, for purposes of this section any person having control, receipt, custody, disposal or payment of compensation taxable under this chapter and earned by a nonresident for personal services, shall be deemed an employer, any compensation taxable under this chapter and earned by a nonresident for personal services shall be deemed wages, and a nonresident entitled to compensation taxable under this chapter and earned by him for personal services shall be deemed an employee.

When compensation for personal services is paid to a corporation in which all or substantially all of the shareholders are individual entertainers, performers or athletes who gave an entertainment or athletic performance in this state for which the compensation was paid, the compensation shall be deemed wages of the individual entertainers, performers or athletes and shall be subject to the provisions of this section. Advance payments of compensation for personal services to be performed in Minnesota shall be deemed wages and subject to the provisions of this section. The individual, and not the corporation, shall be subject to the Minnesota income tax as provided in this chapter on the compensation for personal services.

(3) [NONRESIDENTS, EMPLOYER'S DUTY.] The employer of any employee domiciled in a state with which Minnesota has reciprocity under section 290.081 is not required to withhold under this chapter from the wages earned by such employee in this state.

Section 1 is effective for taxable years ending after the date of final enactment. Sections 2 and 3 are effective the day after final enactment.

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 273.11, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [AGRICULTURAL LAND.] Tillable agricultural land shall be valued at the lesser of its market value or the value which could be derived from its average free market gross rental rate capitalized at a rate of 5.8 percent. Each county assessor shall survey the farm rental values of each grade of farmland in each township in the county. This information shall be used in reviews of valuations by the town boards of review and shall determine a farm rental value to be used for the assessment of each grade. The values so determined shall be presented to township boards of review at their annual meetings held pursuant to section 274.01 in the year prior to that in which those values might be used in determining tillable agricultural land values. The boards of review and any property owners may present their comments on the values, including any evidence indicating that the values are inaccurate, by December 1 of the year when the values were presented to the board. The county assessor shall make his final determination of assessed valuations for January 2 of the subsequent year based on his determinations of the farm rental values as modified by any comments of board members or other property owners that he finds persuasive.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 273.11, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [COMMERCIAL PROPERTY.] In valuing a commercial office building where construction has been completed and occupancy established, if the owner of the income producing property submits income and expense information, the assessor shall develop the economic value as determined by the earning potential of the property. In addition, the assessor may use other methods deemed appropriate. In using the economic value approach, the market value of the property shall be determined by capitalizing the net economic rental income of the building obtainable by sound and reasonable management.

If the owner of the income producing property submits income and expense information, he shall furnish the assessor with a statement of estimated operating income and operating expenses for the current assessment year, and if statements have not been previously furnished to the assessor, statements of actual operating income and operating expenses for the three previous years or for the number of years in which the owner has owned the property, whichever is less. The statements shall include, where applicable, average vacancies, net rental and net usable areas, and rental rates and schedules. All data consisting of statements of estimated operating income and operating expenses furnished under this paragraph to the assessor or his employees or agents shall be classified as private data on individuals pursuant to section 15.162, subdivision 5a, or as non-public data pursuant to section 15.162, subdivision 5c, whichever is appropriate.

If the assessor is not provided income and expense information as referenced above, the assessor shall utilize the other methods of determining property valuation authorized in this section.

Sec. 3. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective the day following final enactment for valuations for taxes levied in 1983, payable in 1984 and thereafter.

Section 2 is effective for assessments occurring in 1983 and thereafter for property taxes payable in 1984 and thereafter.

- (2) 3.6 percent for the office of attorney general;
- (3) 1.8 percent each for the offices of secretary of state, state auditor and state treasurer;

- (5) In each calendar year during the period in which state senators serve a two year term, 35 percent each for the offices of state senator and state representative;

(6) To assure that moneys will be returned to the counties from which they were collected, and to assure that the distribution of those moneys rationally relates to the support for particular parties or for particular candidates within legislative districts, moneys from the party accounts for legislative candidates shall be distributed as follows:

Each candidate for the state senate and state house of representatives whose name is to appear on the ballot in the general election shall receive moneys from his party account set aside for candidates of the state senate or state house of representatives, whichever applies, according to the following formula;

For each county within his district the candidate's share of the dollars allocated in that county to his party account and set aside for that office shall be:

(a) The sum of the votes cast in the last general election in that part of the county in his district for all candidates of his party (i) whose names appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct of the state and (ii) for the state senate and state house of representatives, divided by

The sum of all the county shares calculated in the formula above is the candidate's share of his party account.

In a year in which an election for the state senate occurs, with respect to votes for candidates for the state senate only, "last general election" means the last general election in which an election for the state senate occurred.

For any party under whose name no candidate's name appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct in the state in the last general election, "last general election" means the last general election in which the name of a candidate of that party appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct in the state.

In a year in which the first election after a legislative reapportionment is held, "his district" means the newly drawn district, and voting data from the last general election will be applied to the area encompassing the newly drawn district notwithstanding that the area was in a different district in the last general election.

If in a district there was no candidate of a party for the state senate or state house of representatives in the last general election, or if a candidate for the state senate or state house of representatives was unopposed, the vote for that office for that party shall be the average vote of all the remaining candidates of that party in each county of that district whose votes are included in the sums in clauses (a) and (b). The average vote shall be added to the sums in clauses (a) and (b) before the calculation is made for all districts in the county.

In the case of a claim relating to rent constituting property taxes, the claimant shall have resided in a rented or leased unit on which ad valorem taxes or payments made in lieu of ad valorem taxes, including payments of special assessments imposed in lieu of ad valorem taxes, are payable at some time during the calendar year covered by the claim, ~~except that a claimant who is disabled or who has attained the age of 65 on the date specified in section 290A.04, subdivision 1, may file a claim based on residence in a nursing home on which ad valorem taxes were not payable.~~ "Claimant" shall not include a resident of a nursing home, intermediate care facility, or long term residential facility whose rent constituting property taxes is paid pursuant to the supplemental security income program under Title XVI of the social security act, the Minnesota supplemental aid program under sections 256D.35 to 256D.41, the medical assistance program pursuant to Title XIX of the social security act, or the general assistance medical care program pursuant to section 256D.03, Subdivision 3. If only a portion of the rent constituting property taxes is paid by these programs, the resident shall be a claimant for purposes of this chapter, but the refund calculated pursuant to section 290A.04 shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is income as defined in subdivision 3 reduced by the total amount of income from the above sources other than vendor payments under the medical assistance program or the general assistance medical care program and the denominator of which is income as defined in subdivision 3 plus vendor payments under the medical assistance program or the general assistance medical care program, to determine the allowable refund pursuant to this chapter. In the case of a claim for rent constituting property taxes of a part year resident, the income and rental reflected in this computation shall be for the period of Minnesota residency only. Any rental expenses paid which may be reflected in arriving at federal adjusted gross income cannot be utilized for this computation. When two individuals of a household are able to meet the qualifications for a claimant, they may determine among them as to who the claimant shall be. If they are unable to agree, the matter shall be referred to the commissioner of revenue and his decision shall be final. If a homestead property owner was a part year resident, the income reflected in the computation made pursuant to section 290A.04 shall be for the entire calendar year, including income not assignable to Minnesota.

If a homestead is occupied by two or more renters, who are not husband and wife, the rent shall be deemed to be paid equally by each, and separate claims shall be filed by each. The income of each shall be his household income for purposes of computing the amount of credit to be allowed.

Sec. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective for claims based on rent paid in 1982 and thereafter.

(c) A statement that all persons owning property in the proposed special service district will be given opportunity to be heard at the hearing.

Sec. 3. [RATE OF TAX; NOTICE AND HEARING REQUIREMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [TAXES; HEARING.] Ad valorem taxes may be levied on taxable real property or service charges may be imposed by the municipality within the special service district at a rate or amount sufficient to produce revenues required to provide special services within the district. For purposes of determining the appropriate mill rate, taxable property or value shall be determined without regard to captured or original assessed value under section 273.76 or to the distribution or contribution value under section 473F.08. Taxes and service charges shall not be imposed to finance a special service if the service is ordinarily provided by the municipality from general fund revenues of the municipality unless the service is provided in the special service district at an increased level, in which case only an amount to pay for the increased level may be imposed. A service charge shall not be imposed on the receipts from the sale of intoxicating liquor, food, or lodging. Prior to the levy of taxes or imposition of service charges in a special service district, for each calendar year notice shall be given and hearing shall be held pursuant to section 2 except that notice shall also be mailed to any individual or business organization subject to a service charge. For purposes of this section the notice shall also include:

(d) A statement that the petition requirements of section 9 have either been met or do not apply to the proposed taxes or service charge.

Within six months of the public hearing, the municipality may adopt a resolution levying a tax or imposing a service charge within the special service district not exceeding the amount or rate expressed in the notice issued pursuant to this section.

Subd. 2. [EXEMPTION OF CERTAIN PROPERTIES FROM TAXES.] Property exempted from taxation by Minnesota Statutes, Section 272.02, shall be exempted from any ad valorem taxes imposed pursuant to sections 1 to 12.

Sec. 4. [ENLARGEMENT OF SPECIAL SERVICE DISTRICTS.]

Boundaries of a special service area may be enlarged only after hearing and notice as provided in sections 2 and 3. Notice shall be served in the original special service district and in the area proposed to be added to the special service district. Property added to the district shall be subject to all taxes levied and service charges imposed within the district after the property becomes a part of the district. The petition requirement in section 9 and the veto power in section 10 shall only apply to owners and individuals and business organizations in the area proposed to be added to the special service district.

Sec. 5. [COLLECTION OF TAXES.]

Ad valorem taxes levied within a special service district shall be collected and paid over as other taxes, but shall be spread only upon the assessed value of property described in the ordinance. Service charges imposed shall be collected as provided by ordinance. Ad valorem taxes levied pursuant to this chapter shall be remitted directly to the municipality notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, Section 273.76 and Chapter 473F.

Sec. 6. [BONDS.]

At any time after a contract for the construction of all or part of an improvement authorized pursuant to this chapter has been entered into or the work has been ordered done by day labor, the governing body may issue obligations in the amount it deems necessary to defray in whole or in part the expense incurred and estimated to be incurred in making the improvement, including every item of cost from inception to completion and all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the improvement or its financing. The obligations shall be payable primarily out of the proceeds of the tax levied pursuant to section 3. The governing body may, by resolution adopted prior to the sale of obligations, pledge the full faith, credit and taxing power of the municipality to assure payment of the principal and interest if the proceeds of the tax levy in the district are insufficient to pay the principal and interest. Obligations shall be issued in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 475, except that an election shall not be required, and the amount of the obligations shall not be included in determining the net indebtedness of the municipality under the provisions of any law or charter limiting indebtedness.

Sec. 7. [LEVY LIMIT EXCEPTION.]

Taxes and service charges imposed pursuant to this act shall not be included in the calculation of levies or limits on levies provided by other law or home rule charter provision.

Sec. 8. [ADVISORY BOARD.]

The governing body of a municipality may create and appoint an advisory board for each special service district in the municipality to advise the governing body in connection with the construction, maintenance and operation of improvements and the furnishing of special services in a special service district. The advisory board shall make recommendations to the governing body on the requests and complaints of owners, occupants and users of property within the special service district and members of the public. Prior to the adoption of any proposal by the governing body to provide services or impose taxes or service charges within the special service district, the advisory board of the special service district shall review and comment upon such proposal. Each advisory board shall be appointed at least 30 days prior to the date of a public hearing on the ordinance proposing the establishment of the special service district. Seventy-five percent of the members of each advisory board shall be owners or occupants of property located in the special service district or their representatives. If, following the adoption of the special service district boundaries, fewer than 75 percent of the members are owners or occupants of property located in the district or their representatives, the governing body shall dismiss or appoint advisory board members as necessary to assure 75 percent representation of owners or occupants of district properties. Each advisory board may elect an executive secretary, who need not be a member of the board, to keep its minutes, records and correspondence and to communicate with the governing body and other officials and with the owners, occupants and users of property located within the special service district. Administrative expenses of the advisory board shall be paid from the proceeds of taxes and service charges collected in the special service district.

Sec. 9. [PETITION REQUIRED.]

No public hearing may be held pursuant to section 2 unless owners of ten percent or more of the land area of the proposed special service district and owners of ten percent or more of the assessed value of the proposed special service district file a petition requesting the public hearing with the city clerk of the municipality where the special service district is located. No public hearing may be held pursuant to section 3 to impose an ad valorem tax unless owners of ten percent or more of the land area subject to a proposed tax and owners of ten percent or more of the assessed value subject to a proposed tax file a petition requesting the public hearing with the city clerk of the municipality where the special service district is located. If the boundaries of the proposed special service district are changed or the land area or assessed value subject to a tax or the individuals or business organizations subject to a service charge are changed after the public hearing, a petition meeting the requirements of this section must be filed with the city clerk before the ordinance establishing the district or resolution imposing the tax or service charge may become effective.

S.F. No. 1661: A bill for an act relating to retirement; local police and salaried firefighters relief associations; providing minimum disability benefit coverage for certain police officers and firefighters; proposing new law coded in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 423A.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

"Sec. 2. [423A.11] [RECOMPUTATION OF A DISABILITY BENEFIT AS A SERVICE PENSION.]

Subdivision 1. [TERMINATION OF DISABILITY BENEFIT.] The disability benefit of any disabled member of a local police or salaried firefighters relief association, whichever is applicable, shall terminate when the disabled member attains:

(a) the minimum age for the receipt of a service pension specified in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws of the relief association, if the disabled member has credit for at least the number of years of service for active duty which would entitle the disabled member to a service pension in an amount equal to the amount of the disability benefit; or

(b) the age attained by the disabled member when the total number of years of service credited for active duty and of years of receipt of a disability benefit equals the number of years of service credit which would entitle the disabled member to a service pension in an amount equal to the amount of the disability benefit, if the disabled member has credit for less than the number of years of service for active duty which would entitle the disabled member to a service pension in an amount equal to the amount of the disability benefit when the disabled member attains the minimum age for the receipt of a service pension specified in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws of the relief association.

Subd. 2. [AMOUNT OF DISABILITY BENEFIT RECOMPUTED AS A SERVICE PENSION.] After the disability benefit terminates, the disabled member shall be deemed to be a service pensioner and shall be entitled to receive a service pension in an amount equal to the disability benefit without any benefit offset required pursuant to any applicable provision of law, articles of incorporation or bylaws which was payable by the relief association immediately prior to the date when the disability benefit terminated pursuant to this section or the service pension otherwise payable based on the service credit for active duty of the person, whichever amount is greater. The disability benefit recomputed as a service pension shall be subject to any annual automatic post retirement adjustments or escalation applicable to any other service pension payable by the relief association.

Subd. 3. [LIMITATION ON DISABILITY BENEFIT COVERAGE.] No relief association member who has attained the age and acquired the service credit for termination of a disability benefit specified in subdivision 1 shall be eligible for a disability benefit after that date. If a relief association member who is ineligible for a disability benefit solely pursuant to the limitation set forth in this subdivision becomes permanently unable to perform the duties of a police officer or a firefighter, whichever is applicable, by virtue of a medically determinable illness or injury, the member shall be eligible to a service pension in an amount equal to the amount of the disability benefit which would have been paid had the person been entitled to a disability benefit, or the amount of the service pension otherwise payable based on the service credit for active duty of the person, whichever is greater.

Sec. 3. [423A.12] [SERVICE CREDIT FOR PERIODS OF DISABILITY.]

If the articles of incorporation or bylaws of a local police or salaried firefighters relief association, whichever is applicable, so provide, any relief association member who received a disability benefit from the relief association on account of a medically determinable illness or injury which was at the time of the determination of the disability expected to be of permanent duration and who returned to active employment as a police officer or firefighter, whichever is applicable, shall be entitled to receive service credit toward the calculation of a service pension for the period or periods of the receipt of a disability benefit.

The maximum service credit which a relief association member may obtain pursuant to this subdivision shall be that amount of service credit which, when added to the service credit of the member for active duty, equals the amount of service credit which would entitle the member to a service pension in an amount equal to the amount of the disability benefit provided by the relief association.

Sec. 4. [423A.13] [LESS HAZARDOUS DUTY EMPLOYMENT FOR MARGINALLY DISABLED POLICE OFFICERS OR FIREFIGHTERS.]

Every city in which a local police or salaried firefighters relief association is located shall make every reasonable attempt to provide less hazardous duty employment positions for marginally or less severely disabled police officers or firefighters, which is applicable, in the police department or in the fire department, whichever is applicable, with the same compensation, fringe benefits and other terms and conditions of employment as the person would have otherwise received currently as a regularly employed police officer or firefighter, which is applicable, of the same rank and experience.

Sec. 5. [423A.14] [OFFSETS FROM DISABILITY BENEFITS.]

Subdivision 1. [OCCURRENCE OF OFFSETS.] If a police officer or firefighter, whichever is applicable, who is a member of a local police or salaried firefighters relief association becomes disabled and is entitled to receive a disability benefit from the relief association and the disabled person is also entitled to receive benefits pursuant to the workers' compensation law by virtue of that disability, and the total of the disability benefit and the workers' compensation benefits exceeds the salary which the disabled person received as of the date of the disability or the salary currently payable to the same employment position or an employment position which is substantially similar to the employment position which the person held as of the date of the disability, whichever is greater, then the disability benefit of that person which is otherwise payable shall be reduced to that amount which, when added to the workers' compensation benefits, after deducting any amounts payable as attorney fees or medical benefits, does not exceed the salary which the person received as of the date of the disability or the salary currently payable to the same employment position or an employment position which is substantially similar to the employment position which the person held as of the date of the disability, whichever is greater.

Subd. 2. [LIMITATION.] In no event shall the reduced disability benefit payable pursuant to the requirements of subdivision 1 exceed the amount of the disability benefit otherwise payable by the relief association without reference to subdivision 1 pursuant to the applicable statutes, special laws, articles of incorporation and bylaws.

Subd. 3. [NO OFFSET FOR RECOMPUTED DISABILITY BENEFIT.] No offset pursuant to this section shall be required after a disability benefit is recomputed as a service pension pursuant to section 2.

Subd. 4. [REPORTING REQUIREMENT.] Monthly, each city in which a local police or salaried firefighters relief association is located shall notify the secretary of the relief association of the amounts payable to disabled police officers or firefighters, whichever is applicable, during the month pursuant to the workers' compensation law.

Subd. 5. [OFFSET INAPPLICABLE IN CERTAIN INSTANCES.] If any reduction of benefits payable pursuant to the workers' compensation law by virtue of the receipt of a disability benefit from a local police or salaried firefighters relief association is required pursuant to legislation enacted by the 1982 regular session or by a subsequent regular or special session, the provisions of this section shall not be applicable to any disability benefit recipient or any local police or salaried firefighters relief association.

Sec. 6. [EFFECT OF PROVISIONS FOR EXISTING DISABILITY BENEFIT RECIPIENTS.]

The provisions of section 1 shall apply to any member of any applicable local relief association in active service on or after the effective date of this section. The provisions of section 2 shall apply to any person receiving a disability benefit from a local relief association on or after the effective date of this section. The provisions of section 3 shall apply to any person who returns to active employment as a police officer or firefighter, whichever is applicable, after receipt of a permanent disability benefit on or after the effective date of this section. The provisions of section 5 shall apply to any person who first commences receipt of a disability benefit after the effective date of this section.

Sec. 7. [WEST ST. PAUL FIREFIGHTERS RELIEF ASSOCIATION; ESTABLISHMENT.]

The fire department of the city of West St. Paul shall establish and maintain a firefighters relief association, to be known as "West St. Paul Firefighters Relief Association".

Sec. 8. [INCORPORATION; ORGANIZATION; POWERS.]

The West St. Paul Firefighters Relief Association shall be incorporated pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 317, except that the relief association shall not be required to amend its articles of incorporation or bylaws to conform with Minnesota Statutes, Section 317.08, Subdivision 2, Clause (3), and that the relief association shall be deemed to be a nonprofit corporation without coming within the application of Minnesota Statutes, Section 317.02, Subdivision 5. The relief association shall have all additional corporate powers which may be necessary or useful, subject to the provisions of this act, other laws pertaining to corporations not inconsistent with this act and other laws applicable to firefighters relief associations.

(a) the applicant has a permanent, established place of business at each licensed location. An "established place of business" means a permanent enclosed building other than a residence, or a commercial office space, either owned by the applicant or leased by the applicant for a term of at least one year, located in an area where zoning regulations allow commercial activity, and where the books, records and files necessary to conduct the business are kept and maintained. The owner of a licensed manufactured home park who resides in or adjacent to the park may use his residence as the established place of business required by this subdivision, unless prohibited by local zoning ordinance.

If a license is granted, the licensee may use unimproved lots and premises for sale, storage, and display of manufactured homes, if the licensee first notifies the commissioner in writing;

(b) if the applicant desires to sell, solicit or advertise the sale of new manufactured homes, it has a bona fide contract or franchise in effect with a manufacturer or distributor of the new manufactured home it proposes to deal in;

(c) the applicant has secured a surety bond in the amount of $20,000 for the protection of consumer customers, executed by the applicant as principal and

issued by a surety company admitted to do business in this state. The bond shall be exclusively for the purpose of reimbursing consumer customers and shall be conditioned upon the faithful compliance by the applicant with all of the laws and rules of this state pertaining to the applicant's business as a dealer or manufacturer, including sections 325D.44, 325F.67 and 325F.69, and upon the applicant's faithful performance of all its legal obligations to consumer customers; and

(d) the applicant has established a trust account as required by section 9, subdivision 3, unless the applicant states in writing its intention to limit its business to selling, offering for sale, soliciting or advertising the sale of new manufactured homes.

Subd. 5. [EXEMPTION FOR REAL ESTATE BROKERS AND SALES-PERSONS.] Any person licensed as a real estate broker or salesperson under chapter 82 who brokers the sale of used manufactured homes is not required to obtain a license or a bond as required by this section, but is subject to all other provisions of sections 1 to 13. Any real estate broker or salesperson who violates a provision of sections 7 to 10 in selling or offering for sale a used manufactured home shall be deemed to have violated a provision of chapter 82.

Subd. 6. [CERTIFICATE OF LICENSE.] For each license granted the commissioner shall issue a certificate which includes the name of the licensee, the name of the surety company and the amount of the surety bond, the names and addresses of any related principal or subagencies, and a license number.

Subd. 7. [FEES; LICENSES; WHEN GRANTED.] Each application for a license or license renewal must be accompanied by a fee in an amount established by the commissioner by rule pursuant to section 11, which shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the general fund. The fees shall be set in an amount which over the fiscal biennium will produce revenues approximately equal to the expenses which the commissioner expects to incur during that fiscal biennium while administering and enforcing sections 1 to 13. The commissioner shall grant or deny a license application or a renewal application within 60 days of its filing. If the license is granted, the commissioner shall license the applicant as a dealer or manufacturer for the remainder of the calendar year. Upon application by the licensee, the commissioner shall renew the license for a two year period, if:

(a) the renewal application satisfies the requirements of subdivisions 3 and 4;

(b) the renewal applicant has made all listings, registrations, notices and reports required by the commissioner during the preceding year; and

(c) the renewal applicant has paid all fees owed pursuant to sections 1 to 13 and all taxes, arrearages, and penalties owed to the state.

Sec. 6. [327B.06] [DENIAL, SUSPENSION AND REVOCATION OF LICENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [GROUNDS.] The commissioner may by order deny, suspend or revoke any license if he finds (1) that the order is in the public interest and (2) that the applicant or licensee or any of its directors, officers, limited or general partners, controlling shareholders or affiliates:

(a) has filed an application for a license or a license renewal which fails to disclose any material information or contains any statement which is false or misleading with respect to any material fact;

(b) has violated any of the provisions of sections 1 to 13 or any rule or order issued by the commissioner or any prior law providing for the licensing of manufactured home dealers or manufacturers;

(c) has had a previous manufacturer or dealer license revoked in this or any other state;

(d) has engaged in acts or omissions which have been adjudicated or amount to a violation of any of the provisions of section 325D.44, 325F.67 or 325F.69;

(e) has sold or brokered the sale of a home containing a material violation of sections 327.31 to 327.35 about which the dealer knew or which should have been obvious to a reasonably prudent dealer;

(f) has failed to make or provide to the commissioner all listings, notices and reports required by him;

(g) has failed to pay a civil penalty assessed under subdivision 6 of this section within ten days after the assessment becomes final;

(h) has failed to pay to the commissioner or other responsible government agency all taxes, fees and arrearages due;

(i) has failed to duly apply for license renewal;

(j) has violated any applicable manufactured home building or safety code;

(k) has failed or refused to honor any express or implied warranty as provided in section 4;

(l) has failed to continuously occupy a permanent, established place of business licensed under section 5;

(m) has, without first notifying the commissioner, sold a new and unused manufactured home other than the make of manufactured home described in a franchise or contract filed with the application for license or license renewal;

(n) has wrongfully failed to deliver a certificate of title to a person entitled to it;

(o) is insolvent or bankrupt;

(p) holds an impaired or canceled bond;

(q) has failed to notify the commissioner of bankruptcy proceedings within ten days after a petition in bankruptcy has been filed by or against the dealer or manufacturer;

(r) has, within the previous ten years, been convicted of a crime that either related directly to the business of the dealer or manufacturer or involved fraud, misrepresentation or misuse of funds;

(s) has suffered a judgment within the previous five years in a civil action involving fraud, misrepresentation or misuse of funds; or

(t) has failed to reasonably supervise any employee or agent of the dealer or manufacturer, resulting in injury or harm to the public.

The commissioner may establish rules pursuant to section 11 further specifying, defining or establishing standards of conduct for manufactured home dealers and manufacturers.

Subd. 2. [DENIAL; RECONSIDERATION.] If the commissioner denies an application for a license, he shall inform the applicant and summarize in writing the reasons for the denial. Within 15 days of receiving the commissioner's notice, the applicant may request in writing that the commissioner reconsider. The request for reconsideration shall explain why the commissioner's previous decision was wrong and shall specifically address each reason given by the commissioner for the denial. Within 20 days of receiving the request for reconsideration, the commissioner shall decide whether to withdraw the denial and grant a license. If the commissioner reaffirms the denial, the applicant may appeal in the manner provided in subdivision 7. An applicant whose application is denied may also cure the defects in the application cited by the commissioner and resubmit the application at no extra charge.

Subd. 3. [LICENSE SUSPENSION OR REVOCATION; HEARING.] The commissioner, upon his own motion or upon the complaint of another, may prepare and cause to be served upon a licensee a written notice or complaint summarizing the violations charged, and requiring the licensee to appear before the commissioner or authorized deputy to show cause why the license should not be revoked.

The commissioner shall, at a time and place fixed in the notice, hear and determine the matter on its merits. All hearings shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of chapter 15. If the commissioner finds the existence of any of the causes for suspension or revocation set forth in subdivision 1 and determines that the license should be revoked or suspended, he shall make a written order of revocation or suspension. A copy of the order shall be served upon the licensee in the manner provided by law for the service of summons in a civil action.

If the commissioner revokes or suspends the license of any person holding more than one license under the provisions of section 5, subdivision 2, he shall revoke or suspend all of the licenses of that person and of the affiliates of that person.

Subd. 4. [SUMMARY LICENSE SUSPENSION.] The commissioner may by order summarily suspend a license pending final determination of any order to show cause if he deems the action to be necessary in order to prevent immediate and substantial public harm. If a license is suspended pending final determination of an order to show cause, a hearing on the merits shall be held within 30 days of the issuance of the order of suspension.

Subd. 5. [HEARING EXAMINER.] The commissioner may delegate authority to conduct a hearing to a hearing examiner.

Subd. 6. [PENALTIES.] After having conducted the hearing provided for in subdivision 3, the commissioner may, in addition to or in lieu of revoking or suspending a license, order restitution to an injured consumer customer or assess a penalty or penalties against any person who commits any act that is grounds for the suspension or revocation of a license under subdivision 1; provided, that the penalty or penalties imposed shall not, in the aggregate, exceed ten thousand dollars.

Subd. 7. [APPEALS.] The contested case provisions of chapter 15 shall apply to appeals from any order by the commissioner denying, suspending or revoking a license, or assessing penalties.

Sec. 7. [327B.07] [DEALER'S RECORDS.]

Subdivision 1. [RETENTION.] A dealer shall retain for three years copies of all listings, deposit receipts, credit applications, contracts, disclosure forms, cancelled checks, trust account records and such other documents as may reasonably be related to carrying on the business of a dealer. The retention period shall run from the date of the closing of the transaction or from the date of the listing if the transaction is not consummated.

Subd. 2. [EXAMINATION OF RECORDS.] The commissioner may make examinations within or without this state of each dealer's records at such reasonable time and in such scope as is necessary to enforce the provisions of sections 1 to 13.

Sec. 8. [327B.08] [RESPONSIBILITY OF DEALERS.]

Subdivision 1. [LIABILITY.] Each dealer is responsible for the activities of any person employed by or acting on behalf of that dealer when the activities occur in connection with the sale or attempted sale of a manufactured home. Each officer of a corporation licensed as a dealer is responsible for the activities of any person employed by or acting on behalf of the corporation when such activities occur in connection with the sale or attempted sale of a manufactured home.

Subd. 2. [SALESPEOPLE.] Every dealer shall report in writing to the commissioner the full name, date of birth, business and home address of every salesperson employed by the dealer. Within ten days of hiring, firing or otherwise changing the employment status of a salesperson, the dealer shall notify the commissioner in writing. No salesperson shall work for more than one dealer during the same time period.

Sec. 9. [327B.09] [DUTIES.]

Subdivision 1. [DISCLOSURE REQUIRED.] Prior to the consummation of the sale of any manufactured home where a dealer acts as a broker, the dealer shall disclose in writing to all parties to the transaction all charges, payments, commissions and other fees paid or payable in connection with the transaction. Any commission charged by the dealer shall be expressed both as a dollar amount and as a percentage of the sales price. If the home being sold is located in a manufactured home park, prior to the buyer's signing of the purchase agreement the dealer shall disclose in writing to the buyer the state law concerning the in park sale of manufactured homes. This subdivision does not require any dealer to disclose any consideration received for having acted as an insurance agent, as defined in section 60A.02, subdivision 7, in connection with the transaction, nor shall this subdivision require any dealer to disclose any consideration received in return for the dealer having agreed to any contingent liability in connection with the financing of the sale. The commissioner may prescribe a form to be used to comply with this subdivision and may require all dealers to use that form.

Subd. 2. [PRESENCE OF PARTIES AT CLOSING.] A dealer shall not prohibit, prevent or restrain any party to the brokered sale of a manufactured home from being present at the closing. If a dealer at a closing purports to have authority to act for one of the parties who is not present, the dealer shall exhibit the document granting that authority and shall give a copy of that document to the other parties.

Subd. 3. [TRUST ACCOUNT REQUIRED.] Each dealer who acts as a broker shall maintain a trust account. A trust account shall not be an interest bearing account except by agreement of the parties and subject to rules of the commissioner.

Subd. 4. [SEGREGATION OF FUNDS.] A dealer shall deposit all trust funds received in a trust account. A dealer shall deposit only trust funds in a trust account and shall not commingle personal funds or other funds in that account, except that a dealer may deposit and maintain a sum from his personal funds not to exceed $100 in a trust account, which sum shall be specifically identified and used to pay service charges relating to the trust account.

Subd. 5. [TRUST INFORMATION REQUIRED.] At the time of application for a license or renewal of license, each dealer who acts or intends to act as a broker shall tell the the commissioner the name of the financial institutions and the trust account identification numbers used to comply with the provisions of this section. A dealer shall immediately report to the commissioner any change of trust account status including changes in financial institutions, account identification numbers, or additional accounts in the same or another financial institution. No dealer may close an existing trust account without giving ten days written notice to the commissioner.

Sec. 10. [327B.10] [PROHIBITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSE REQUIRED.] No person shall engage in the business, either exclusively or in addition to any other occupation of manufacturing, selling, offering to sell, soliciting or advertising the sale of manufactured homes, or act as a broker without being licensed as a manufacturer or a dealer as provided in section 5. Any person who manufactures, sells, offers to sell, solicits or advertises the sale of manufactured homes, or acts as a broker in violation of this subdivision shall nevertheless be subject to the duties, prohibitions and penalties imposed by sections 1 to 13. This subdivision does not prohibit an individual from reselling, without a license, a manufactured home which is or has been his or her residence.

Subd. 2. [ADVERTISING.] No person shall advertise as a manufactured home dealer, or as a lister, broker or agent for the sale of manufactured homes, without being licensed as a dealer as provided in section 5.

Subd. 3. [DISPLAY OF LICENSE.] No person shall act as a dealer or manufacturer unless the certificate authorizing that activity is prominently displayed on the business premises covered by the license. Before moving to a new location from the established place of business occupied when the license is granted, the licensee must first secure the commissioner's written permission. To obtain that permission, the licensee must prove that the proposed new premises conform to the requirements of section 5, subdivision 4.

Subd. 4. [NET LISTING PROHIBITED.] Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, no dealer shall use or offer to use a net listing agreement.

A dealer who is acting as a broker for the sale of a manufactured home and who can arrange financing for the sale may charge a separate fee for that service, if:

(a) the listing agreement does not require that the seller or buyer use the dealer's services to arrange financing;

(b) in arranging the financing, the dealer will pay a fee or will guarantee all or part of the buyer's performance to a third person; and

(c) the listing agreement clearly and conspicuously discloses the amount of the fee, the fact that the fee is in addition to the dealer's commission and the fact that the seller and buyer are not required to use the dealer's services to arrange financing.

Sec. 11. [327B.11] [RULEMAKING AUTHORITY.]

The commissioner may promulgate rules and issue orders reasonably necessary to implement and administer the provisions of sections 1 to 13.

Sec. 12. [327B.12] [RECOURSE TO THE BOND.]

Subdivision 1. [CONSUMER CLAIMANTS.] Any consumer customer sustaining injuries within the terms of a surety bond issued pursuant to section 5 may proceed against the principal and surety without making the state a party to the proceedings. Provided, however, that the aggregate liability of the surety to all persons for all losses or damages shall in no event exceed the amount of the bond.

Subd. 2. [PAYMENT OF CLAIMS; NOTICE TO COMMISSIONER.] Before paying any claim against a surety bond, the surety company must first notify the commissioner in writing of the amount of the claim, the basis of the claim and the surety company's intention to pay the claim. Unless the commissioner objects in writing within ten days of receiving the notice, the surety company may proceed upon its intention. The commissioner's failure to object is not evidence of the validity of the claim or of the propriety of paying the claim. The commissioner shall object only if he has reasonable grounds to believe that paying the claim will reduce the obligation of the bond to an amount less than the total amount of other outstanding and valid claims against the bond.

Subd. 3. [APPLICATION FOR A REFEREE.] Within 15 days of objecting to the payment of a claim, the commissioner shall apply to the district court for an order:

(a) directing the surety company to pay the full obligation of the bond into court; and

(b) appointing a referee to hear claims against the bond and to propose to the court the proper distribution of the bond proceeds.

The surety company and the principals on the bond shall be parties to the proceedings.

Sec. 13. [327B.13] [ADDITIONAL REMEDIES AND ENFORCEMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [PRIVATE REMEDIES.] Any person injured or threatened with injury by a dealer or manufacturer's violation of sections 1 to 13 may bring a private action in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Subd. 2. [FRAUD REMEDIES.] In addition to the remedies provided in sections 1 to 13, any violation of section 9 or 10 is a violation of section 325F.69, subdivision 1 and the provisions of section 8.31 shall apply.

Sec. 14. [TEMPORARY SURCHARGE.]

For purposes of defraying costs of administering the provisions of sections 1 to 13, a $30 surcharge is imposed on each application for a license or license renewal submitted during calendar year 1983. This surcharge shall expire December 31, 1983. All surcharge income is appropriated to the department of administration, building code division, for costs directly attributed to the requirements of sections 1 to 13; any additional income shall cancel on December 31, 1983, to the general fund.

Sec. 15. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 327.51, 327.52, 327.53, 327.54, 327.55, 327.551, 327.552, 327.553, Subdivisions 2, 3 and 4, 327.554, 327.56; and Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Sections 327.55, Subdivision 1a and 327.553, Subdivision 1 are repealed.

Sec. 16. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 15 of this article are effective August 1, 1982, except that a manufacturer or dealer may continue to operate under its old license until January 1, 1983, subject to the provisions of sections 1 to 4 and 6 to 13.

ARTICLE II

MANUFACTURED HOME PARK

Section 1. [327C.01] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [TERMS.] When used in sections 1 to 17, the terms defined in this section have the meanings given them.

Subd. 2. [ADDITIONAL NEW LOT.] "Additional new lot" means a manufactured home lot developed without involving the eviction or dislocation of any current residents at a site where no manufactured home has been previously located.

Subd. 3. [IN PARK SALE.] "In park sale" means the sale of a manufactured home owned by a park resident and located in a manufactured home park, after which sale the home remains in the park.

Subd. 5. [MANUFACTURED HOME.] "Manufactured home" and "home" have the meaning specified in article 1, section 1, subdivision 13.

Subd. 6. [MANUFACTURED HOME PARK.] "Manufactured home park" and "park" have the meaning specified in section 327.14, subdivision 3, but do not include facilities which are open only during three or fewer seasons of the year.

Subd. 7. [PARK OWNER.] "Park owner" means the owner of a manufactured home park and any person acting on behalf of the owner in the operation or management of a park.

Subd. 8. [PERSON.] "Person" means any individual, corporation, firm, partnership, incorporated and unincorporated association, or any other legal or commercial entity.

Subd. 9. [REASONABLE RULE.] "Reasonable rule" means a park rule:

(a) which is designed to promote the convenience, safety, or welfare of the residents, promote the good appearance and facilitate the efficient operation of the park, protect and preserve the park premises, or make a fair distribution of services and facilities;

(b) which is reasonably related to the purpose for which it is adopted;

(c) which is not retaliatory or unjustifiably discriminatory in nature; and

(d) which is sufficiently explicit in prohibition, direction, or limitation of the resident's conduct to fairly inform him of what he must or must not do to comply.

Subd. 10. [RESIDENT.] "Resident" means an owner of a manufactured home who rents a lot in a manufactured home park and includes the members of his household.

Subd. 11. [RULE.] "Rule" means any rental agreement provision, regulation, rule or policy through which a park owner controls, affects or seeks to control or affect the behavior of residents.

Subd. 12. [SUBSTANTIAL MODIFICATION.] "Substantial modification" means any change in a rule which: (a) significantly diminishes or eliminates any material obligation of the park owner; (b) significantly diminishes or eliminates any material right, privilege or freedom of action of a resident; or (c) involves a significant new expense for a resident.

Subd. 13. [UTILITY SERVICE.] "Utility service" means any electric, fuel oil, natural or propane gas, sewer, waste disposal and water service by whatever means furnished.

Sec. 2. [327C.02] [RENTAL AGREEMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [CONTENTS; WRITING REQUIRED.] Every agreement to rent a lot must be documented by a written rental agreement signed by the park owner and the resident. A copy of the rental agreement shall be given to the applicant for the purpose of reviewing the agreement prior to signing it. The agreement must specify terms and conditions in connection with the rental of the lot and must include:

(a) the location of the lot and its address or site number;

(b) the amount of rent per month and a statement of all personal property, services and facilities which the park owner agrees to provide to the resident;

(c) the rights, duties and obligations of the parties, and all rules applicable to the resident;

(d) the amount of any security deposit or other mandatory financial obligation imposed on the resident by the park owner; and

(e) the name of any person holding a security interest in the resident's home.

Subd. 2. [MODIFICATION OF RULES.] The park owner must give the resident at least 60 days notice in writing of any rule change. A rule adopted or amended after the resident initially enters into a rental agreement may be enforced against that resident only if the new or amended rule is reasonable and is not a substantial modification of the original agreement. A reasonable rent increase made in compliance with section 7 is not a substantial modification of the rental agreement and is not considered to be a rule for purposes of section 1, subdivision 9. A rule change necessitated by government action is not a substantial modification of the rental agreement. A rule change requiring all residents to maintain their homes, sheds and other appurtenances in good repair and safe condition shall not be deemed a substantial modification of a rental agreement. If a part of a resident's home, shed or other appurtenance becomes so dilapidated that repair is impractical and total replacement is necessary, the park owner may require the resident to make the replacement in conformity with a generally applicable rule adopted after the resident initially entered into a rental agreement with the park owner.

In any action in which a rule change is alleged to be a substantial modification of the rental agreement, a court may consider the following factors in limitation of the criteria set forth in section 1, subdivision 12:

(a) any significant changes in circumstances which have occurred since the original rule was adopted; and

(b) any compensating benefits which the rule change may produce for the residents.

Subd. 3. [SERVICE OF NOTICES.] A park owner may give notice as required by this section or sections 3 and 9: (a) personally, (b) by mailing the notice to the last known mailing address of the resident, or (c) by delivering the notice to the home of the resident. Notice by certified mail is effective even if the resident refuses to accept delivery. Service by delivery to the resident's home is effective if the notice is left at the home with someone of suitable age and discretion or is placed in a secure and conspicuous location at the home.

Subd. 4. [WAIVER VOID.] Any attempt to waive or circumscribe any privilege or right guaranteed by law to a resident or a park owner is void.

Subd. 5. [WRITTEN NOTICE REQUIRED.] The following notice printed verbatim in boldface type of a minimum size of ten points must be given to a prospective resident before he or she is asked to sign a rental agreement and must be posted in a conspicuous and public location in the park:

"IMPORTANT NOTICE

State law provides special rules for the owners and residents of manufactured home parks.

You may keep your home in the park as long as the park is in operation and you meet your financial obligations, obey state and local laws which apply to the park, obey reasonable park rules, do not substantially annoy or endanger the other residents or substantially endanger park personnel and do not substantially damage the park premises. You may not be evicted or have your rent increased or your services cut for complaining to the park owner or to a governmental official.

If you receive an eviction notice and do not leave the park, the park owner may take you to court. If you lose in court, a sheriff may remove you and your home from the park within seven days. Or, the court may require you to leave the park within seven days but give you 60 days to sell the home within the park.

All park rules and policies must be reasonable. Your rent may not be increased more than twice a year. Changes made in park rules after you become a park resident will not apply to you if they substantially change your original agreement.

Unless you are renting a totally new lot, the park may not charge you an entrance fee. The park may require a security deposit, but the deposit must not amount to more than two months rent.

Unless your home was built before June 15, 1976 and is more than 15 years old at the time of the sale, you have a right to sell the home in the park. But the sale is not final until the park owner approves the buyer as a new resident, and you must advise in writing anyone who wants to buy your home that the sale is subject to final approval by the park owner.

Your rental agreement and the park rules contain important information about your rights and duties. Read them carefully and keep a copy.

For further information concerning your rights, consult a private attorney. The state law governing the rental of lots in manufactured home parks may also be enforced by the Minnesota Attorney General."

Sec. 3. [327C.03] [FEES.]

Subdivision 1. [SPECIAL FEES PROHIBITED.] Except as provided in this section and sections 4 and 5, no fee other than the periodic rental payment shall be charged to a park resident or prospective resident or any agent of a resident or prospective resident for the right to obtain or retain a lot.

Subd. 2. [INSTALLATION AND REMOVAL CHARGES.] A park owner may contract with a resident to install the resident's home on a lot or to remove the resident's home from the park. The contract must be in writing and the park owner may charge for the service. A park owner may not require a resident to use the park owner's service to install or remove a home unless the owner provides the service without charge.

Subd. 3. [RENT.] All periodic rental payments charged to residents by the park owner shall be uniform throughout the park, except that a higher rent may be charged to a particular resident due to the larger size or location of the lot, or the special services or facilities furnished to him by the park. A park owner may charge a fee for delinquent rent where the fee is provided for in the rental agreement. The fee shall be enforceable as part of the rent owed by the resident. No park owner shall charge to a resident any fee, whether as part of or in addition to the periodic rental payment, which is based on the number of persons residing or staying in the resident's home, the number or age of children residing or staying in the home, the number of guests staying in the home, the size of the home, the fact that the home is temporarily vacant or the type of personal property used or located in the home. The park owner may charge an additional fee for pets owned by the resident, but the fee may not exceed $4 per pet per month. This subdivision does not prohibit a park owner from abating all or a portion of the rent of a particular resident with special needs.

Subd. 4. [SECURITY DEPOSIT.] A park owner may require a resident to deposit with the park owner a fee, not to exceed the amount of two months' rent, to secure the resident's performance of the rental agreement and to protect the park owner against damage by the resident to park property, including any damage done by the resident in the installation or removal of the resident's home. The provisions of section 504.20 shall apply to any security deposit required by a park owner under this subdivision.

Subd. 5. [MAINTENANCE CHARGES.] If park rules or state or local law provide for lot maintenance or impose conditions on the use of common areas and a resident fails to do the required maintenance or meet the conditions, the park owner may do the maintenance or satisfy the conditions and charge the resident the reasonable cost, plus a fee of up to $10, if:

(a) before doing the work the park owner gives the resident a written notice specifying the work that has to be done, stating which rule or law requires the work to be done, advising the tenant that if the work is not done promptly the park will do the work and bill the resident, and stating a reasonable deadline by which the resident must do the work;

(b) after receiving the notice, the resident fails to do the work by the stated deadline; and

(c) after the work is done by the park owner, the park owner serves the resident with a written notice of the charge.

If a resident's failure to do required maintenance or meet a condition imposed on the use of common areas causes an immediate danger to park facilities or to the health or safety of other residents, the park owner may give the resident a written notice requiring immediate compliance. If immediate compliance is essential and delivery of a notice is impractical or useless, the park owner may do the work without giving notice and may charge the tenant the reasonable cost. A notice given pursuant to this subdivision neither precludes nor suffices as the notice required by section 10, subdivisions 3 to 7.

Charges made pursuant to this subdivision shall be enforceable as part of the rent owed by the resident. The notice required by clause (c) shall specify the work performed, the date of its performance, the total cost of performing the work, the method used in computing the cost and a deadline for payment by the resident. The deadline shall not be less than 30 days after the service of the notice.

Sec. 4. [327C.04] [NEW CONSTRUCTION ENTRANCE FEES.]

Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT LIMITED.] Any park owner who begins construction of additional, new lots after the effective date of this section may charge an entrance fee to the initial resident to occupy the lot. The entrance fee must not be more than ten percent of the money spent by the park owner to construct the lot. The park owner may not require payment of the fee before the lot is ready for occupancy.

Subd. 2. [CEASING OPERATION LIMITED.] A park owner who has collected an entrance fee for a lot pursuant to this section, may not cease to operate that lot as part of a park pursuant to section 10, subdivision 9, or recover possession of the lot pursuant to section 10, subdivision 8, unless:

(a) 15 years have elapsed since the entrance fee was paid; or

(b) the park owner pays the resident then occupying the lot the amount of the entrance fee plus interest at the rate set by the state court administrator pursuant to section 549.09.

Sec. 5. [327C.05] [UTILITY CHARGES.]

Subdivision 1. [BILLING PERMITTED.] A park owner who provides utility service to residents may charge the residents for that service, only if the charges comply with this section.

Subd. 2. [METERING REQUIRED.] A park owner who charges residents for a utility service must charge each household the same amount, unless the park owner has installed measuring devices which accurately meter each household's use of the utility.

Subd. 3. [PERMISSIBLE RATES.] Except as provided in subdivision 4, no park owner shall, directly or indirectly, charge or otherwise receive payment from a resident for a utility service, or require a resident to purchase a utility service from the park owner or any other person, at a rate which is greater than either of the following:

(a) a rate which the resident could pay directly for the same utility service from some other comparable source in the same market area; or

Subd. 4. [ELECTRICITY.] If a park owner provides electricity to residents by reselling electricity purchased from a public or municipal utility or electrical cooperative, and compliance with subdivision 3 would cause the park owner to lose money on the sale of electricity, the park owner may bill residents at a rate calculated to allow the park owner to avoid losing money on the sale of electricity. In calculating the cost of providing electricity, the park owner may consider only the actual amount billed by the public utility or electrical cooperative to the park owner for electricity furnished to residents. The park owner may not consider administrative, capital or other expenses.

Sec. 6. [327C.06] [RULES.]

Subdivision 1. [UNREASONABLE RULES PROHIBITED.] No park owner shall adopt or enforce unreasonable rules. No park owner may engage in a course of conduct which is unreasonable in light of the criteria set forth in section 1, subdivision 9.

Subd. 2. [PRESUMPTIVELY UNREASONABLE RULES.] In any action in which the reasonableness of a rule is challenged, any rule which violates any provision of this article or of any other law shall be deemed unreasonable, and the following rules shall be presumed unreasonable unless the park owner proves their reasonableness by clear and convincing evidence:

(b) any rule which requires a resident or prospective resident to purchase any particular goods or services from a particular vendor or vendors, including the park owner;

(c) any rule which requires a resident to use the services of a particular dealer or broker in an in park sale; and

(d) any rule requiring that more than one occupant of a home have an ownership interest in that home.

Subd. 3. [OTHER UNREASONABLE RULES.] In addition to the rules listed in subdivision 2 a court may declare unreasonable any park rule if the court finds that the rule fails to meet the standard of section 1, subdivision 9. The absence of a rule from the list contained in subdivision 2 is not evidence or proof of the rule's reasonableness.

Subd. 4. [DENSITY RESTRICTIONS.] Subject to section 2, subdivision 2, a park owner may adopt and enforce a reasonable rule that places limits on the maximum number of persons permitted to reside in a manufactured home.

Sec. 7. [327C.07] [RENT INCREASES.]

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE OF RENT INCREASES REQUIRED.] No increase in the amount of the periodic rental payment due from a resident shall be valid unless the park owner gives the resident 60 days' written notice of the increase.

Subd. 2. [PROHIBITION.] No rent increase shall be valid if its purpose is to pay, in whole or in part, any civil or criminal penalty imposed on the park owner by a court or a government agency.

Subd. 3. [RENT INCREASES LIMITED.] A park owner may impose only two rent increases on a resident in any 12 month period.

Sec. 8. [327C.08] [IN PARK SALES.]

Subdivision 1. [RESIDENT'S RIGHTS.] Except as otherwise provided in this section, a resident has the right to sell his home through an in park sale, unless the home was manufactured prior to June 15, 1976 and is more than 15 years old at the time of the sale. The park owner may not charge a fee for allowing the resident to exercise this right, except to charge a fee of up to $25 for processing a prospective buyer's tenancy application. If the park owner is licensed as a dealer, the park owner may agree in writing to broker the in park sale of a resident's home. The park owner may not require a resident to use the park owner's services as a broker. The park owner may not give preferential treatment to applications for tenancy from people seeking to buy homes whose in park sale is being brokered by the park owner.

Subd. 2. [PARK OWNER'S RIGHTS.] Any in park sale is subject to the park owner's approval of the buyer as a resident. A park owner may not deny a prospective buyer approval as a resident unless:

(a) the park owner has specified in writing the procedures and criteria used to evaluate the creditworthiness and suitability as a resident of individuals seeking to buy homes offered for in park sale;

(b) the written disclosure required by clause (a) is made available on request at no charge to residents, prospective buyers, and their agents;

(c) the park owner is available to the prospective buyer at reasonable times if the park owner requires the prospective buyer to apply or be interviewed in person;

(d) all the specified procedures and criteria are reasonable and applied uniformly;

(e) in evaluating a prospective buyer, the park owner does not use any stricter standards than it uses for evaluating other prospective residents;

(f) the park owner does not deny tenancy to a prospective buyer for any reason prohibited by federal, state or local law;

(g) within 14 days of receiving a completed application form, the park owner makes a decision or gives the prospective buyer and the seller a written explanation of the specific reasons for the delay and makes a decision as soon as practicable;

(h) if the park owner denies tenancy to a prospective buyer, the park owner gives the prospective buyer a written explanation of the denial within three days of receiving a written request for an explanation; and

(i) the decision to deny tenancy is reasonable in light of the criteria set forth in section 1, subdivision 9.

Subd. 3. [APPLICATION INFORMATION.] When the prospective buyer of an in park sale seeks approval as a resident, the park owner may require the prospective buyer to submit information reasonably necessary to determine whether the prospective buyer satisfies the park's criteria as stated by the park in its rules. The required information may include the purchase price of the home and the amount of monthly payments on the home, together with any documents reasonably necessary to verify the information. The park owner may inquire into the creditworthiness of the prospective buyer but may not require the submission of any information concerning the business relationship between the seller and a dealer acting for the seller.

Subd. 4. [INSPECTIONS OF THE HOME.] Before approving an in park sale, the park owner may inspect the resident's lot and the exterior of the resident's manufactured home to see whether they comply with reasonable and pre-existing rules applicable to the resident and relating to maintenance. The park owner may not charge any fee for this inspection. As a condition to approving an in park sale, the park owner may require that the resident or the prospective buyer take whatever action is necessary to bring the lot or the home exterior into compliance with pre-existing maintenance rules applicable to the resident, and may require that any lot rent and other charges due to the park be paid. The park owner may require the prospective buyer to agree to rules different from those applicable to the resident, but the park owner may not require the prospective buyer or the resident to comply with any rule adopted or amended after the resident entered into the rental agreement which would:

(a) significantly increase the difficulty or time involved in selling the resident's home;

(b) significantly decrease the price at which the resident's home can be sold;

(c) involve any other significant cost for either the resident or the buyer, except for costs involved in doing any work necessary to bring the home or lot into compliance with pre-existing maintenance rules applicable to the resident.

Provided that if a part of the resident's home, shed, or other appurtenance has become so dilapidated that repair is impractical and total replacement is necessary, the park owner may require the resident or prospective buyer to make the replacement in conformity with a generally applicable rule adopted after the resident initially entered into a rental agreement with the park owner.

Subd. 5. [TEMPORARY VACANCY OF HOME.] If a home is being offered for in park sale, the home may remain vacant for 90 days, or longer if not prohibited by park rules. The park owner may not impose any additional fees or requirements on the owner of a vacant home being offered for in park sale, but the rent must be paid on time and the home and the lot must be maintained as required by the rules.

Subd. 6. [SALES CONTINGENT.] Any contract for an in park sale which is not expressly made contingent on the park owner's approval of the buyer as a resident is voidable at the instance of the buyer if the park owner's approval is denied. Any person who sells, or signs a contract purporting to sell, a home located in a park while representing, either directly or indirectly, that the buyer can maintain the home in the park, and who does not inform the buyer in writing that the sale is contingent on the park owner's approval of the buyer as a resident has violated section 325F.69, subdivision 1.

Subd. 7. [REPOSSESSING FINANCE PARTIES.] Any holder of a security interest who repossesses a manufactured home located in a park has the same rights as a resident to sell the home through an in park sale if:

(a) as soon as the secured party either accepts voluntary repossession or takes any action pursuant to sections 327.61 to 327.67, the secured party notifies the park owner that the home has been or is being repossessed;

(b) at the time the park owner receives the notice, the park owner has not already recovered possession of the lot through an unlawful detainer proceeding;

(c) the secured party pays any past due lot rent not to exceed three months rent;

(d) the secured party makes monthly lot rent payments until a buyer of the repossessed home has been approved by the park owner as a resident. A secured party's liability for past due rent under this subdivision does not include late fees or other charges; and

(e) the secured party complies with all park rules relating to lot and home maintenance.

A secured party who is offering a home for in park sale under this subdivision is subject to eviction on the same grounds as a resident.

Sec. 9. [327C.09] [REMOVAL AFTER REPOSSESSION.]

A secured party who repossesses a manufactured home located in a park and then removes the home from the lot owes the park owner rent for the period beginning when the secured party accepts voluntary repossession or takes an action pursuant to sections 327.61 to 327.67 and ending on the last day of the calendar month in which the home is removed. The secured party does not owe the park owner any lot rent or other charges which accrued prior to the time the secured party accepted voluntary repossession or took action pursuant to sections 327.61 to 327.67, if:

(a) Within seven days after accepting voluntary repossession or taking action pursuant to sections 327.61 to 327.67, the secured party notifies the park owner in writing that the home is being repossessed;

(b) During a proceeding for repossession pursuant to sections 327.61 to 327.67 or chapter 565, the secured party pays each month's lot rent as the rent becomes due; and

(c) Within seven days of accepting voluntary repossession or obtaining a court order for repossession, the secured party removes the home from the park.

If the secured party fails to meet any of these conditions, the secured party shall also be liable to the park owner for all overdue rent, not to exceed three months and not including late fees or other charges, owed to the park owner on account of the home.

This section does not affect any liability or obligation which a secured party may have to a park owner who pursuant to a writ of restitution has removed a home from a lot and stored the home.

Sec. 10. [327C.10] [TERMINATION.]

Subdivision 1. [CAUSE REQUIRED.] A park owner may recover possession of land upon which a manufactured home is situated only for a reason specified in this section.

Subd. 2. [NONPAYMENT OF RENT OR UTILITIES.] The park owner gives ten days written notice to the resident and to any party holding a security interest in the resident's home known to the park owner that a periodic rental or utilities payment owed to the park owner is overdue, and neither the resident nor the secured party cures the default within ten days of receiving the notice.

Subd. 3. [VIOLATIONS OF LAW.] The resident fails to comply with a local ordinance or state law or rule relating to manufactured homes within the time the ordinance, law or rule provides or, if no time is provided, within a reasonable time after the resident has received written notice of noncompliance.

Subd. 4. [RULE VIOLATIONS.] The resident fails to comply with a rule within 30 days after receiving written notice of the alleged noncompliance, except the 30 day notice requirement does not apply to nonpayment of rent.

Subd. 5. [SUBSTANTIAL ANNOYANCE.] The resident acts in the park in a manner which endangers other residents or park personnel, causes substantial damage to the park premises or substantially annoys other residents, and has received 30 days written notice to vacate, except the park owner may require the resident to vacate immediately if the resident violates this subdivision a second or subsequent time after receipt of the notice. A park owner seeking to evict pursuant to this subdivision need not produce evidence of a criminal conviction, even if the alleged misconduct constitutes a criminal offense.

Subd. 6. [REPEATED SERIOUS VIOLATIONS.] The resident has repeatedly committed serious violations of the rental agreement or provisions of a local ordinance or state law or state rule relating to manufactured homes, and the park owner has given the resident written notice of the violations and has given the resident a written warning that any future serious violation will be treated as cause for eviction as provided in this subdivision, and within six months of receiving the warning the resident commits a serious violation of any park rule or any provision of a local ordinance or state law or state rule.

Subd. 7. [MATERIAL MISSTATEMENT IN APPLICATION.] The resident's application for tenancy contained a material misstatement which induced the park owner to approve the applicant as a resident, and the park owner discovers and acts upon the misstatement within one year of the time the resident began paying rent.

Subd. 8. [IMPROVEMENTS.] The park owner has specific plans to make improvements to the park premises which will substantially benefit the health and safety of the residents or have been ordered by a government agency, and which necessitate removal of the resident's manufactured home from the park. The park owner must give the resident 90 days written notice. If another lot is available in the park, the park owner must allow the resident to relocate the home to that lot unless the home, because of its size or local ordinance, is not compatible with that lot.

Subd. 9. [PARK CLOSINGS.] The park owner voluntarily ceases to operate as a park the part of the manufactured home park occupied by the resident, and gives the resident nine months written notice of the planned cessation of operation. If another lot is available in a section of the park, still being operated as a park, the park owner must allow the resident to relocate the home to that lot unless the home, because of its size or local ordinance, is not compatible with that lot.

Sec. 11. [327C.11] [DEFENSES TO EVICTION.]

Subdivision 1. [NONPAYMENT OF RENT.] In any action to recover possession for failure to pay rent, it shall be a defense that the sum allegedly due contains a charge which violates section 4, or that the park owner has injured the defendant by failing to comply with section 504.18.

Subd. 2. [NONPAYMENT OF RENT INCREASE.] In any action to recover possession for failure to pay a rent increase, it shall be a defense that the park owner:

(b) increased the rent for a reason or reasons prohibited by section 7, subdivision 3.

Subd. 3. [RULE VIOLATIONS.] In any action to recover possession for the violation of a park rule, it shall be a defense that the rule allegedly violated is unreasonable.

Subd. 4. [RETALIATORY CONDUCT.] In any action to recover possession it shall be a defense that the park owner has violated section 13.

Sec. 12. [327C.12] [EVICTION PROCEEDINGS.]

Subdivision 1. [RIGHT OF REDEMPTION.] The right of redemption, as expressed in section 504.02 and the common law, is available to a resident from whom a park owner seeks to recover possession for nonpayment of rent, but no resident may exercise that right more than twice in any 12 month period; provided, that a resident may exercise the right of redemption more than twice in any 12 month period if he pays the park owner's actual reasonable attorney's fees as part of each additional exercise of that right during the 12 month period.

An exercise of the right of redemption shall not be counted for the purposes of this subdivision if the resident pays not only the rent due and the park owner's court costs, but also the park owner's actual reasonable attorney's fees.

Subd. 2. [WAIVER BY ACCEPTING RENT.] A park owner who gives a resident a notice as provided in section 10, subdivisions 3, 4, 6, 8 or 9, does not waive the notice by afterwards accepting rent. Acceptance of rent for a period after the expiration of a final notice to quit waives that notice unless the parties agree in writing that the notice continues in effect.

Subd. 3. [WRIT OF RESTITUTION STAYED.] The issuance of a writ of restitution, other than a conditional writ, shall be stayed for a reasonable period not to exceed seven days to allow the resident to arrange to remove his home from the lot.

Subd. 4. [CONDITIONAL WRIT.] Where the interests of justice require the court may issue a conditional writ of restitution, which orders the resident and all those in the resident's household to stop residing in the park within a reasonable period not to exceed seven days, but which (i) allows the resident's home to remain on the lot for 60 days for the purpose of an in park sale, as provided in section 8 and (ii) allows the park owner to terminate all utilities to the home and to require the home to be prepared for disconnection of the utilities. The writ shall also direct the park owner to notify any party holding a security interest in the resident's home and known to the park owner, of the provisions of the writ. If the court issues a conditional writ, the resident may keep the home on the lot for 60 days for an in park sale if:

(a) neither the resident nor members of the resident's household reside in the park;

(b) the resident complies with all rules relating to home and lot maintenance; and

(c) the resident pays on time all rent and utility charges owed to the park owner. If the resident fails to meet any of these conditions, the park owner may, on three days written notice to the resident, move the court for an order making the writ of restitution unconditional. Sixty-one days after the issuance of a conditional writ, the writ shall become absolute without further court action.

Sec. 13. [327C.13] [RETALIATORY CONDUCT PROHIBITED.]

A park owner may not increase rent, decrease services, alter an existing rental agreement or seek to recover possession or threaten such action in whole or in part as a penalty for a resident's:

(a) good faith complaint to the park owner or to a government agency or official; or

(b) good faith attempt to exercise his rights or remedies pursuant to state or federal law. In any proceeding in which retaliatory conduct is alleged, the burden of proving otherwise shall be on the park owner if the owner's challenged action began within 90 days after the resident engaged in any of the activities protected by this section. If the challenged action began more than 90 days after the resident engaged in the protected activity, the party claiming retaliation must make a prima facie case. The park owner must then prove otherwise.

Sec. 14. [327C.14] [FREEDOM OF EXPRESSION.]

No park owner shall prohibit or adopt any rule prohibiting residents or other persons from peacefully organizing, assembling, canvassing, leafletting or otherwise exercising within the park their right of free expression for noncommercial purposes. A park owner may adopt and enforce rules that set reasonable limits as to time, place and manner.

Sec. 15. [327C.15] [RIGHT OF ACCESS.]

Subdivision 1. [TO THE HOME.] A park owner has no right of access to a manufactured home located within the park unless access is necessary to prevent damage to the park premises or to respond to an emergency.

Subd. 2. [TO THE LOT.] A park owner may come onto a manufactured home lot in order to inspect the lot, make necessary or agreed upon repairs or improvements, supply necessary or agreed upon goods or services or exhibit the lot to prospective or actual purchasers, mortgagees, residents, workers or contractors. The park owner may come onto the resident's lot whenever necessary to respond to or prevent an emergency, but otherwise may not come onto the lot at unreasonable times or in a way that unreasonably disrupts the resident's use and enjoyment of the lot.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 60A.17, Subdivision 6c, is amended to read:

Subd. 6c. [REVOCAION OR SUSPENSION OF LICENSE.] (a) The commissioner may suspend or revoke an insurance agent's license issued to a natural person or impose a civil penalty appropriate to the offense, not to exceed $5,000 upon that licensee, if, after notice and hearing, the commissioner finds as to that licensee any one or more of the following conditions:

- (1) Any materially untrue statement in the license application;
  - (2) Any cause for which issuance of the license could have been refused had it then existed and been known to the commissioner at the time of issuance;
  - (3) Violation of, or noncompliance with, any insurance law or violation of any rule or order of the commissioner or of a commissioner of insurance of another state or jurisdiction;
  - (4) Obtaining or attempting to obtain any license through misrepresentation or fraud;
  - (5) Improperly withholding, misappropriating, or converting to the licensee's own use any moneys belonging to a policyholder, insurer, beneficiary, or other person, received by the licensee in the course of the licensee's insurance business;
  - (6) Misrepresentation of the terms of any actual or proposed insurance contract;
  - (7) Conviction of a felony or of a gross misdemeanor or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude;
  - (8) That the licensee has been found guilty of any unfair trade practice, as defined in chapters 60A to 72A, or of fraud;
  - (9) That in the conduct of the agent's affairs under the license, the licensee has used fraudulent, coercive, or dishonest practices, or the licensee has been shown to be incompetent, untrustworthy, or financially irresponsible;
  - (10) That the agent's license has been suspended or revoked in any other state, province, district, territory, or foreign country;
  - (11) That the licensee has forged another's name to an application for insurance; or
  - (12) That the licensee has violated subdivision 6b; or
  - (13) That the licensee has no valid appointment under section 60A.17 by an admitted insurer.
- (b) The commissioner may suspend or revoke an insurance agent's license issued to a partnership or corporation or impose a civil penalty not to exceed $5,000 upon that licensee, if, after notice and hearing, the commissioner finds as to that licensee, or as to any partner, director, shareholder, officer, or employee of that licensee, any one or more of the conditions set forth in paragraph (a).
- (c) A revocation of a license shall prohibit the licensee from making a new application for a license for at least one year. Further, the commissioner may, as a condition of relicensure, require the applicant to file a reasonable bond for the protection of the citizens of this state, which bond shall be maintained by the licensee in full force for a period of five years immediately following issuance of the license, unless the commissioner at his or her discretion shall after two years permit the licensee to sooner terminate the maintenance filing of the bond.

(d) Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has engaged or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of chapter 60A or of any rule or order of the commissioner:

(1) The commissioner may issue and cause to be served upon the person an order requiring the person to cease and desist from the violation. The order shall give reasonable notice of the time and place of hearing and shall state the reasons for the entry of the order. A hearing shall be held not later than seven days after the issuance of the order unless the person requests a delay. After the hearing and within 30 days of filing of any exceptions to the hearing examiner's report, the commissioner shall issue an order vacating the cease and desist order or making it permanent as the facts require. All hearings shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of chapter 15. If the person to whom a cease and desist order is issued fails to appear at the hearing after being duly notified, the person shall be deemed in default, and the proceeding may be determined against the person upon consideration of the cease and desist order, the allegations of which may be deemed to be true;

(2) In any proceeding under chapter 60A relating to injunction, the request for injunction may be brought on for hearing and disposition upon an order to show cause returnable upon not more than eight days notice to the defendant. The case shall have precedence over other matters on the court calendar and shall not be continued without the consent of the state of Minnesota, except upon good cause shown to the court, and then only for a reasonable length of time as may be necessary in the opinion of the court to protect the rights of the defendant.<sup>5</sup>

The institution in which the student is enrolled shall be considered the "employer" for the limited purpose of determining responsibility for paying benefits payable under chapter 176.*

In the event it is difficult to determine the ~~daily~~ weekly wage as provided in this subdivision, then the trier of fact may determine the wage upon which the compensation is payable.

wage were earned at the beginning of the calendar year in which the injury occurred.

(b) Where there is a dispute as to the correct number of exemptions for dependency which should apply under clause (a), the spendable weekly wage shall be determined according to the minimum number of exemptions to which the employee would be entitled at the time of injury. Upon a final determination of the correct number of exemptions which apply, any additional benefit payable to the employee shall include interest payable at the rate of 18 percent per annum based on the amount of difference due.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 176.021, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMPENSATION, COMMENCEMENT OF PAYMENT.] All employers shall commence payment of compensation at the time and in the manner prescribed by this chapter without the necessity of any agreement or any order of the division. Except for medical, burial, and other non-periodic benefits, payments shall be made as nearly as possible at the intervals when the wage was payable, provided, however, that payments for permanent partial disability shall be governed by subdivision 3a. If doubt exists as to the eventual permanent partial disability, payment, pursuant to subdivision 3a, shall be then made when due for the minimum permanent partial disability ascertainable, and further payment shall be made upon any later ascertainment of greater permanent partial disability. At the time of any tender of the lump sum payment, the employee and employer shall be furnished with a copy of the medical report upon which the payment is based, together with a statement by the insurer as to whether the tendered payment is for minimum permanent partial disability or final and eventual disability. Compensation for permanent partial disability is payable in addition to compensation for temporary total disability, rehabilitation and temporary partial disability pursuant to section 176.101, subdivisions 1 and 2, as provided in subdivision 3a. ~~Compensation for permanent partial disability is payable concurrently and in addition to compensation for permanent total disability pursuant to section 176.101, subdivision 5, as provided in subdivision 3a.~~ Compensation for permanent partial disability shall be withheld pending completion of payment for temporary total and temporary partial disability but shall not be withheld pending payment of compensation for permanent total disability, and when it is determined by a qualified rehabilitation consultant pursuant to section 176.102 that the employee's condition precludes the development of a rehabilitation plan. No credit shall be taken for payment of permanent partial disability against liability for temporary total or permanent total disability. Liability on the part of an employer or his insurer for disability of a temporary total, or temporary partial, and permanent total nature shall be considered as a continuing product and part of the employee's inability to earn or reduction in earning capacity due to injury or occupational disease and shall be payable accordingly, subject to subdivision 3a. Permanent partial disability is payable for functional loss of use or impairment of function, permanent in nature, and payment therefore shall be separate, distinct, and in addition to payment for any other compensation, subject to subdivision 3a. The right to receive temporary total, temporary partial, or permanent partial or permanent total disability payments shall vest in the injured employee or his dependents under this chapter or, if none, in his legal heirs at the time the disability can be ascertained and the right shall not be abrogated by the employee's death prior to the making of the payment.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 176.021, Subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [PERMANENT PARTIAL BENEFITS, PAYMENT.] Payments for permanent partial disability as provided in section 176.101, subdivision 3, shall be made in the following manner:

(a) If the employee returns to work, payment shall be made by lump sum;

(b) If ~~temporary~~ total disability payments have ceased, but the employee has not returned to work, payment shall be made at the same intervals as ~~temporary~~ total disability payments were made;

(c) If ~~temporary~~ total disability payments cease ~~because the employee is receiving payments for permanent total disability or because have not ceased~~ and the employee is retiring or has retired from the work force, then payment shall be made by lump sum;

(d) If the employee completes a rehabilitation plan pursuant to section 176.102, but the employer does not furnish the employee with work he can do in his permanently partially disabled condition, and the employee is unable to procure such work with another employer, then payment shall be made by lump sum.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.021, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3b. [DISPUTE RESOLUTION.] When the examinations by the employee's physician and the employer's physician produce disability ratings that differ, the employer shall, when it is due, pay the benefit established by the examination conducted by the employer's physician. If there is no settlement and a hearing is held, the compensation judge shall accept one of the two original disability ratings as the appropriate basis for determining permanent partial benefits and shall not accept any other rating. Each dispute shall be resolved by accepting the rating that is closest to the one that would be obtained if an evaluation were conducted in accordance with the standards established in section 37.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.021, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [ACCUMULATED CREDITS, ADDITIONAL PAYMENTS.] If employees of the state or a county, city or other political subdivision of the state who are entitled to the benefits of the workers' compensation law have, at the time of compensable injury, accumulated credits under a vacation, sick leave or overtime plan or system maintained by the governmental agency by which they are employed, the appointing authority may provide for the payment of additional benefits to such employees from their accumulated vacation, sick leave or overtime credits. Such additional payments to an employee may not exceed the amount of the total sick leave, vacation or overtime credits accumulated by the employee and shall not result in the payment of a total weekly rate of compensation that exceeds the weekly wage of the employee. Such additional payments to any employee shall be charged against the sick leave, vacation and overtime credits accumulated by such employee. Employees of a county, city or other political subdivision entitled to the benefits of the workers' compensation law may receive additional benefits pursuant to a collective bargaining agreement or other plan entered into or in effect on or after January 1, 1980, providing payments by or on behalf of the employer and these additional benefits may be unrelated to any accumulated sick leave, holiday or overtime credits and need not be charged against any accumulation; provided that the additional payments shall not result in the payment of a total weekly rate of compensation that exceeds the weekly wage of the employee. The commissioner of the department of labor and industry for the state or the governing body of any county, city or other political subdivision to which the provisions of this chapter apply, may adopt rules and regulations not inconsistent with this chapter for carrying out the provisions hereof relating to payment of additional benefits to employees from accumulated sick leave, vacation or overtime credits or other sources.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.101, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. For the purposes of this clause "substantially perform the duties of the preinjury job" means that an employee is able to meet the minimum standards of output or productivity established for the preinjury job. The employer shall have the option of altering or reducing these standards to accommodate any temporary or permanent physical limitations of an employee as a means of establishing a job utilizing similar skills. If an employer is unable to offer employment to the employee after the employee has medically recovered because the employer no longer has a sufficient volume of work for the injured employee and no other employer has offered a job meeting the requirements of clause (1), total disability benefits shall be continued until all other workers performing the same job with the employer at the time of injury but who have less seniority than the injured employee have been laid off. If benefits are terminated due to the layoff the employee shall, notwithstanding any law to the contrary, immediately be eligible for benefits under sections 268.03 to 268.24 provided that the other* eligibility criteria of that chapter have been satisfied;

(3) Receiving rehabilitation benefits.

Where an employee is totally disabled for part of a week, the benefit shall be equal to the same portion of the weekly benefit as the days of total disability are to the number of days in the employee's normal work week.

These rules shall be made or revised after consultation with experts on industrial vision and after public notice to and hearing of interested parties;

Subd. 8. [COORDINATION OF OFFSETS.] If there are benefit payments from more than one of the benefit sources named in subdivisions 9 and 10, each shall reduce the benefit otherwise payable pursuant to this section and the remainder after all reductions shall be the reduced benefit payable pursuant to this section.

Subd. 9. [SOCIAL SECURITY OFFSET.] Benefits from any government disability program, or any old age benefits program for which the employee is eligible shall reduce benefits otherwise payable under subdivisions 1 and 4 by the amount of the government benefit. If an employee may be eligible for these benefits but has not made application, then the employer shall notify the employee of the possible eligibility and if no application has been made within 30 days of the notice, the payment of benefits under this chapter shall be interrupted until application is made. These benefits shall be paid in full after the application has been made.

Subd. 10. [OTHER OFFSETS.] The benefits payable pursuant to subdivision 1 shall be reduced by one dollar for each dollar received from the benefit sources listed in clauses (a) and (b) of this subdivision. If the employee was required to make contributions to finance the benefit coverage for which an offset pursuant to this subdivision is required, the amount of the benefit pay- ment which will reduce the total disability benefit pursuant to this section shall be that fraction of the benefit payment which bears the same proportional relationship that the employer contribution bears to the total contribution for the plan, fund or program:

(a) Any benefit payment from a public or private sector pension or retirement fund or program, whether or not the fund or program is a qualified plan within the meaning of section 401 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, which is payable at an age prior to the attainment of the normal retirement age specified in the benefit plan of the fund or program, or the age for the receipt of a retirement annuity or pension which is not reduced for early retirement, and which is payable on account of the injury, illness or accident of the person which renders the person incapable of continued employment; and

(b) Any benefit payment pursuant to a disability benefit plan or program, whether provided pursuant to a contract with an insurance carrier, self-insured by the employer with reserves or self-insured by the employer without reserves, which is provided to the person by virtue of employment by that employer and which is financed in whole or in part by the employer.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.102, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] Vocational Rehabilitation shall train an is intended to restore the injured employee, through physical and vocational rehabilitation, so he may be returned return to a job related to his former employment or to a job in another work area which produces an economic status as close as possible to that he would have enjoyed without disability suitable gainful employment. Rehabilitation to a job with a higher economic status than would have occurred without disability is permitted if it can be demonstrated that this rehabilitation is necessary to increase the likelihood of reemployment. Economic status is to be measured not only by opportunity for immediate income but also by opportunity for future income.

"Suitable gainful employment" for the purposes of this section is employment that is reasonably obtainable and offers an opportunity to restore the injured employee as soon as possible and as nearly as possible to a job related to his former employment or to a job in another work field in which he could produce earnings as close as possible to those he received at the time of the personal injury.

Rehabilitation for employment which may produce earnings greater than those the employee received at the time of personal injury is permitted if it can be demonstrated that this rehabilitation is necessary for re-employment. Consideration shall be given to the employee's qualifications including but not limited to age, education, previous work history, interest, and transferable skills.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.102, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1b. [REHABILITATION PRIORITIES.] The following priorities are established for use in exploring alternative rehabilitation plans. No higher numbered priority shall be utilized unless all lower numbered priorities have been determined by the qualified rehabilitation consultant to be unlikely to result in returning the employee to suitable gainful employment; provided, if a lower numbered priority is clearly inappropriate for the employee, the next higher numbered priority shall be utilized.

Priority 1 is modification of the previous job with the same employer, including a transitional return to work.

Priority 2 is a new job with the same employer in keeping with any limitations or restrictions of the employee.

Priority 3 is modification of the previous job with a new employer.

Priority 4 is a new job with a new employer as a result of direct job placement based upon transferable skills.

Priority 5 is a new job with a new employer involving on-the-job training.

Priority 6 is retraining and job placement consistent with the purposes of rehabilitation.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.102, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ADMINISTRATORS.] The commissioner of labor and industry shall hire a director of medical and rehabilitation services in the classified service. The commissioner of labor and industry is responsible for supervising medical and rehabilitation services, including the selection and delivery of services. The commissioner of labor and industry may hire qualified personnel to assist in his these duties under this section and may delegate his those duties and performance.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.102, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

The members shall be appointed by the governor and shall serve ~~four year~~ four-year terms which may be renewed. Compensation for members shall be governed by section 15.0575. The panel shall select a chairman. The panel shall (a) review and make a determination with respect to (a) appeals regarding rehabilitation plans and benefits; and (b) hold appeals regarding certification approval or revocation of certification approval hearings; (c). The panel shall continuously study medical and rehabilitation services and delivery; and (d) develop and recommend medical and rehabilitation rules as necessary to the commissioner of labor and industry. A majority vote of those attending a panel hearing under subdivision 6 shall constitute the decision of the board.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.102, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [REHABILITATION PLAN; DEVELOPMENT.] Within 30 15 days of the time an employer or his insurer has medical information that an employee is unable due to a personal injury or occupational disease to return to his preinjury occupation the employer shall provide rehabilitation consultation for the employee. The employee, however, has the final decision on which rehabilitation agency is to be utilized pursuant to the provisions of this section.

The consultation shall be done by any person or public or private institution approved by the commissioner of labor and industry. If the consultant determines rehabilitation would significantly reduce or eliminate the decrease in employability, the employer or insurer in conjunction with the rehabilitation consultant shall submit a specific plan of rehabilitation to the commissioner. If the employer does not provide rehabilitation consultation, when required by this section, within the time specified by this subdivision, the commissioner of labor and industry shall notify the employer and insurer that should they fail to provide rehabilitation consultation within 15 days from the receipt of the commissioner's notice, the division of vocational rehabilitation shall be authorized to provide the rehabilitation consultation for the employee. If the employee refuses to submit to any reasonable examinations and evaluative procedures to determine the need for and the details of a plan of rehabilitation, the amount of compensation may be reduced or the right to compensation may be suspended by an order of the division or workers' compensation court of appeals in a matter before it. In developing a plan, consideration shall be given to the employee's age, education, previous work history, interests and skills, or in any event, if within 90 days after the personal injury the employee has not returned to work, the employer shall refer the employee to a qualified rehabilitation consultant for a determination of whether rehabilitation is necessary to carry out the purposes of this section. If rehabilitation is determined to be necessary, the employee and employer shall enter into a program as prescribed in a rehabilitation plan. A copy of the plan, including a target date for return to work, shall be submitted to the department of labor and industry. If, within 30 days of the first consultation with a qualified rehabilitation consultant, the employee objects to the employer's selection of that qualified rehabilitation consultant, the employee must notify the employer and the commissioner in writing of his objection and request the selection of an alternative qualified rehabilitation consultant. If that qualified rehabilitation consultant is objectionable to the employer, and if a mutually acceptable qualified rehabilitation consultant cannot be found, the commissioner shall be notified by the employer in a timely manner that no mutually acceptable qualified rehabilitation consultant can be found. Upon receipt of this notice and within seven days, the commissioner shall provide the employee and employer with a list of three other qualified rehabilitation consultants from which the employee and employer shall, within seven days, each disapprove one qualified rehabilitation consultant. The remaining qualified rehabilitation consultant shall be utilized.

(b) If the employer does not provide rehabilitation evaluation as required by this section within 75 days from the date of injury, the commissioner shall notify the employer that if the employer fails to appoint a qualified rehabilitation consultant within 15 days to conduct a rehabilitation evaluation, the commissioner shall appoint a qualified rehabilitation consultant to provide the evaluation at the expense of the employer unless the commissioner determines the evaluation is not required. The commissioner may assess a penalty of up to $5,000, to be paid to the special compensation fund by any employer if the commissioner has appointed a qualified rehabilitation consultant and return to work has not been accomplished within 180 days, subject to the limitations in clause (c) below.

(c) If the employee's condition does not permit determination of the employee's need for rehabilitation or a rehabilitation plan cannot be developed within 90 days after the injury, a further rehabilitation evaluation by a qualified rehabilitation consultant is required six months following the date of injury. If the employee's condition still precludes development of a rehabilitation plan at this time, a further evaluation by a qualified rehabilitation con*sultant shall be conducted in six months and then at yearly intervals as long as no rehabilitation plan has been developed. The commissioner may waive further mandatory evaluations after the second evaluation if he determines in a case that evaluations are not likely to accomplish the purposes of this subdivision. If after two years from the date of injury a rehabilitation plan has not been developed, the employer may determine the time of a subsequent evaluation. Those evaluations shall not occur more frequently than once per year and are not mandatory for the employee, unless directed by the commissioner.*

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.102, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [ON THE JOB TRAINING.] ~~On the job training is to be given consideration in developing a rehabilitation plan especially where it would produce an economic status similar to that enjoyed prior to disability. This compensation shall be paid in whole or in part by the insurer liable for compensation for the employee's personal injury. The amount of compensation to be paid by this insurer shall be determined in the rehabilitation plan prepared pursuant to this section. Any difference between the amount of compensation the insurer is paying and the after tax wage the employee received at the time of the personal injury shall be paid by the on the job employer, but in no case shall this employer's amount exceed the prevailing wage for the job. After tax wage shall be determined by subtracting federal and state income tax from the employee's gross wage.~~

A rehabilitation plan which includes on the job training shall ~~attempt~~ create an incentive for an on the job training employer to hire the employee for on the job training. This incentive ~~may shall~~ be in the form of reducing the ~~on the job training employer's~~ wages paid to the employee ~~by the on the job training employer~~ to a level which is 80 percent or less than the prevailing wage for the job, provided that the total compensation from the insurer, required by this section, and the wages paid by the ~~on the job training employer~~ is not less than the after tax wage received by the employee at the time of the personal injury. ~~The compensation from the insurer and the on the job training employer paid pursuant to this subdivision is in lieu of temporary total disability payments and the additional compensation provided in subdivision 11. The difference between the spendable weekly wage from the preinjury job and spendable weekly wage from the on the job training shall be paid by the employer liable for compensation for the employee's injury but it shall not exceed 100 percent of the statewide average weekly wage at the time of injury. The compensation from the liable employer and the on the job training employer paid according to this subdivision is in lieu of other benefits required to be paid by subdivision 11.~~

- (c) an employee does not cooperate with a plan.

An employee may request a change in a rehabilitation plan once because he or she feels ~~he is not suited ill-suited~~ for the type of work for which ~~training rehabilitation~~ is being provided if the request is made within 90 days of the start of the plan. Any decision of the commissioner regarding a change in a plan may be appealed to the ~~rehabilitation review panel~~ within 15 days of the decision.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.102, Subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [REHABILITATION; CONSULTANTS.] The commissioner shall approve rehabilitation consultants who may propose and implement plans if they satisfy rules promulgated adopted by the commissioner for rehabilitation consultants. A consultant may be an individual or public or private entity, but may not be a vendor of rehabilitation services.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.102, Subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [COMPENSATION DURING REHABILITATION.] The insurer or employer shall pay up to 156 weeks of compensation during rehabilitation under a plan in an amount equal to 125 percent of the employee's rate for temporary total disability. This payment is in lieu of payment for temporary total, temporary partial, or permanent total disability to which the employee might otherwise be entitled for this period under this chapter, but shall be considered to be the equivalent of temporary total disability for the purposes of section 176.132. If on the job training is part of the rehabilitation program, the weeks during which the insurer or employer pays compensation pursuant to subdivision 5 shall be subtracted from the 156 weeks of retraining compensation which has been paid, if any, pursuant to this subdivision. This subdivision shall not apply to retraining benefits for which liability has been established prior to July 1, 1979. The commissioner shall determine eligibility for rehabilitation services and benefits while the employee is participating in a rehabilitation plan. Rehabilitation benefits shall include payment in an amount equal to the employee's benefit for total or temporary partial disability, whichever is appropriate, and shall be in lieu of the compensation for those disabilities. All rehabilitation benefits payable under chapter 176 shall be discontinued and forfeited for any time during which the employee refuses to submit to any reasonable examinations and evaluative procedures to determine the need for and details of a plan of rehabilitation, or refuses to participate in rehabilitation evaluation as required by this section or does not make a good faith effort to participate in a rehabilitation plan.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.102, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11a. [BENEFIT DURATION DURING REHABILITATION.] Unless the employee has returned to work, benefits during rehabilitation shall continue as provided in subdivision 11 until the sooner of the following:

(a) The rehabilitation plan has been completed and within 90 days the employer or another employer has offered the employee employment consistent with the skills developed in the rehabilitation plan at a job in which the employee is capable of performing; at which time benefits shall cease or temporary partial disability benefits shall begin, whichever is appropriate; or

(b) The rehabilitation plan has been completed and after 90 days the employer or another employer has offered the injured employee a job which is within the physical capabilities of the employee, at which time benefits shall cease or temporary partial disability benefits shall begin, whichever is appropriate; or

(c) The rehabilitation plan has been completed and 180 days have elapsed at which time benefits shall cease unless the employee is eligible for permanent partial benefits for at least 50 weeks. If the employee is eligible, benefits shall be payable for an additional period of time until either an offer of employment is made to the employee which is within the employee's physical capabilities or the time established for the impairment percentages shown below has elapsed.

Weeks of Permanent Partial Disability After Completion of Rehabilitation Plan	Maximum Benefit Period After Completion of Rehabilitation Plan
50 - 99 weeks	6 months
100 - 199 weeks	12 months
200 - 299 weeks	24 months
300 weeks or more	duration of the disability

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.102, Subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [RULES.] The commissioner shall ~~promulgate~~ adopt rules necessary to implement this section including rules relating to qualifications necessary to be an approved rehabilitation consultant and rules relating to the requirements to be an approved registered vendor of rehabilitation services.

Sec. 36. [176.103] [ADDITIONAL DISABILITY BENEFIT.]

Subdivision 1. Any employee who, as a result of personal injury, has not returned to employment within two years following the date of the personal injury and is totally disabled shall be eligible to apply to the department of labor and industry for additional benefits if each of the following conditions exist:

(a) The employee has been evaluated for rehabilitation as provided by section 176.102 and the determination has been made and approved by the department that, as a result of the injury, it is highly improbable that the employee can be sufficiently rehabilitated to allow a return to work;

(b) The employee's weekly wage at the time of injury was at a level that did not represent the weekly wage that could be reasonably expected by the employee in the future due to substantial evidence supportive of a likelihood that the employee would not have remained in employment which provided a weekly wage similar to the weekly wage at the time of injury because of a demonstrated commitment to enter an occupation different from the one in which the employee was employed at the time of injury. The burden of proof for establishing this shall be with the employee; and

(c) The employee shall demonstrate substantial financial need.

Subd. 2. An application shall be considered by a workers' compensation judge who shall consider the evidence and determine the employee's eligibility for additional benefits based on the evidence. If the workers' compensation judge determines that the employee is eligible for additional benefits, the judge shall order that an amount shall be paid to the employee from the special compensation fund, subject to the following restrictions:

(a) Any additional benefit ordered shall be paid on a periodic basis so as to coincide with the ongoing benefit paid by the employer and shall commence at a date following the order; and

(b) The total workers' compensation benefit paid to the employee shall not exceed the statewide average weekly wage in effect at the time of injury, subject to the adjustment pursuant to section 176.645.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.105, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. The commissioner shall by rule adopt procedures to determine the percentage of a partial loss of function of a part of the body described in section 176.101, subdivision 3.

Temporary rules shall be adopted for this purpose for use beginning January 1, 1983. Prior to the adoption of these rules, at least two public hearings shall be held by the commissioner of labor and industry, in addition to the requirements of section 15.0412, subdivision 5. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 15.0412, subdivision 5, the temporary rules adopted under this subdivision shall be effective for a period of up to 18 months unless earlier superseded by the permanent rules required by this subdivision.

If permanent rules have not been adopted by July 1, 1984, the American Medical Association's Guides to the Evaluation of Permanent Impairment, published by the American Medical Association and copyrighted in 1977, shall serve as the rules for the percentage of partial loss of function of the scheduled part of the body and shall be effective until permanent rules are adopted.

The rules adopted pursuant to this subdivision shall:

(a) Promote objectivity and consistency in the evaluation of permanent functional impairment due to personal injury and in the assignment of a numerical rating to the functional impairment;

(b) Establish relative values of the various partial disabilities with the maximum number of weeks for the total disability of a body part fixed in section 176.101, subdivision 3.

(c) Establish a procedure such that a discreet number of percentage ratings for a partial disability are possible between zero and one hundred, providing that the number of possible rating values shall not exceed 20.

The commissioner shall consider the following factors in developing rules for the evaluation and rating of functional disability and the schedule for permanent partial disability benefits:

(a) The workability and simplicity of the procedures with respect to the evaluation of functional disability;

(b) The consistency of the procedures with accepted medical standards;

(c) Rules, guidelines, and schedules that exist in other states or that have been developed by professional associations or organizations and are related to the evaluation of permanent partial disability or to a schedule of benefits for functional disability;

(d) The effect the rules may have on reducing litigation;

(e) The treatment of pre-existing conditions with respect to the evaluation of permanent functional disability provided that any pre-existing conditions must be objectively determined by medical evidence.

If an employee, due to personal injury, suffers permanent functional disability of more than one scheduled body part, the total number of weeks of benefit to which the employee is entitled shall be determined by the following formula so as to ensure that the maximum number of weeks payable for all functional disability combined shall not exceed 500 weeks:

A = the number of weeks awardable for the permanent partial disability to the first body part, and

B = the number of weeks otherwise awardable for the second body part.

For further permanent partial disabilities, the above formula shall be applied providing that A will be the total number of weeks of permanent partial disability benefits awarded for all permanent partial disabilities for which benefits were determined prior to consideration of the current disability to the first body part and B will be the number of weeks otherwise payable for the current disability to the second body part.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.111, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PERSONS WHOLLY DEPENDENT, PRESUMPTION.] For the purposes of this chapter the following persons are conclusively presumed to be wholly dependent:

(a) spouse, unless it be is shown that the spouse and decedent were voluntarily living apart at the time of the injury or death; or unless it is shown that the deceased employee's average weekly wage at the time of personal injury was less than 35 percent of the sum of the average weekly wages of the employee and spouse at the time of personal injury, in which case the benefit due under this section shall be the benefit otherwise payable multiplied by the percentage established below in column 2:

Column 1	Column 2
Percent Earned by the Deceased Employee of the Sum of the Average Weekly Wages of the Injured Employee and Spouse at the Time of Injury	Percent of Benefits Otherwise Payable
25-29	90
20-24	80
15-19	70
10-14	50

(b) children under 18 years of age, or a child under the age of 25 22 years who is regularly attending as a full time student at a high school, college, or university, or regularly attending as a full time student in a course of vocational or technical training.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.111, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [SURVIVING SPOUSE; REHABILITATION.] Upon the request of a qualified dependent surviving spouse, rehabilitation services shall be provided by the employer. For the purposes of this subdivision a qualified dependent surviving spouse is a dependent surviving spouse who is in need of rehabilitation assistance to become self-supporting. The rehabilitation services shall be limited to those in section 176.102, subdivision 9. Rehabilitation services need not be provided if the request for the service is not received within two years of the employee's death or the youngest dependent child becoming 18 years of age, whichever is later.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.111, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [BENEFIT PERIOD; COMMENCEMENT.] The ten year periods enumerated in subdivisions 7 and 8 shall begin to be counted upon the 18th birthday of the youngest surviving dependent child.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.111, Subdivision 18, is amended to read:

Subd. 18. [BURIAL EXPENSE.] In all cases where death results to an employee from a personal injury arising out of and in the course of employment, the employer shall pay the expense of burial, not exceeding in amount $1,000 $2,500. In case any dispute arises as to the reasonable value of the services rendered in connection with the burial, such reasonable value shall be determined and approved by the commissioner of the department of labor and industry, a compensation judge, or workers' compensation court of appeals, in cases upon appeal, before payment, after such reasonable notice to interested parties as is required by the commissioner of the department of labor and industry. If the deceased leave no dependents, no compensation is payable, except as provided by this chapter.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 176.111, Subdivision 21, is amended to read:

Subd. 21. [DEATH, BENEFITS; COORDINATION WITH GOVERNMENTAL SURVIVOR BENEFITS OFFSETS.] The following provision shall apply to any dependent entitled to receive weekly compensation benefits under this section as the result of the death of an employee, and who is also receiving or entitled to receive benefits under any government survivor program:

The combined total of weekly government survivor benefits and workers' compensation death benefits provided under this section shall not exceed 100 percent of the weekly wage being earned by the deceased employee at the time of the injury causing his death; provided, however, that no state workers' compensation death benefit shall be paid for any week in which the survivor benefits paid under the federal program, by themselves, exceed 100 percent of such weekly wage provided, however, the workers' compensation benefits payable to a dependent surviving spouse shall not be reduced on account of any governmental survivor benefits payable to decedent's children if the support of the children is not the responsibility of the dependent surviving spouse.

For the purposes of this subdivision "dependent" means dependent surviving spouse together with all dependent children and any other dependents. For the purposes of this subdivision, mother's insurance benefits received pursuant to 42 U.S.C., 402 (g), are benefits under a government survivor program. Benefits from any governmental old age or survivors benefits program for which the dependent spouse or dependent child are eligible based in part or in full upon the employment experience of the deceased employee shall reduce benefits otherwise payable under this section, however, the workers' compensation benefits payable to a dependent surviving spouse shall not be reduced on account of any governmental survivor benefits payable to decedent's children if the support of the children is not the responsibility of the dependent surviving spouse. Each dollar received from these programs shall result in a reduction of the death benefit payable by one dollar. If a dependent may be eligible for these benefits but has not made application then the employer shall notify the dependent of the possible eligibility and if no application has been made within 30 days of the notice, the payment of benefits under this chapter shall be interrupted until the application is made. These benefits shall be paid in full after the application has been made.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.111, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 22. [HEALTH INSURANCE COVERAGE.] In any case where a dependent is eligible to receive benefits under this section and was also covered under an accident and health insurance policy or under a contract issued under chapter 62C or 62D or any plan defined in section 62E.02, subdivision 22, at the time of the employee's death, and where the cost of that coverage was partially or totally paid by the employer, the employer shall continue to pay the same proportion of the cost of maintaining coverage under that contract or plan for a period of one year, provided the dependent pays any proportion of the premium which was payable by the employee.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.121, is amended to read:

If such disability continues for ~~40~~ seven days or longer, such compensation shall be computed from the commencement of the disability.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.131, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. If an employee incurs personal injury and suffers disability that is substantially greater, because of a pre-existing physical impairment, than what would have resulted from the personal injury alone, the employer shall pay all compensation provided by this chapter, but he shall be reimbursed from the special compensation fund for all compensation paid in excess of 52 weeks of monetary benefits and $2,000 in medical expenses, subject to the following exceptions:

If the personal injury alone results in permanent partial disability to a scheduled member under section 176.101, the monetary and medical expense limitations shall not apply and the employer shall be liable for ~~such~~ compensation, medical expense, and ~~retraining~~ rehabilitation attributable to the permanent partial disability, and he may be reimbursed from the compensation fund only for compensation paid in excess of ~~such~~ the disability.

The percentage due July 1, 1982, and July 1, 1983, shall be six and one-half percent. Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBLE RECIPIENTS.] An employee who has suffered personal injury prior to December 31, 1980 for which benefits are payable under section 176.101 and who has been totally disabled for more than 104 weeks shall be eligible for supplementary benefits as hereinafter prescribed after 104 weeks have elapsed and for the remainder of his total disablement except, that an employee who was injured after October 1, 1975, and who is not eligible to receive supplementary benefits on January 1, 1983, shall not receive supplementary benefits. Regardless of the number of weeks of total disability, no totally disabled person shall be ineligible for supplementary benefits after four years have elapsed since the first date of his total disability, provided that all periods of disability are caused by the same injury.

Sec. 50. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 176.132, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [AMOUNT.] (a) The supplementary benefit payable under this section as of January 1, 1983, shall be the difference between the amount the employee receives on or after January 1, 1976, under section 176.101, subdivision 1 or subdivision 4, and ~~65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed annually~~ $184. The figure $184 shall be adjusted pursuant to section 176.645.

(b) In the event an eligible recipient is currently receiving no compensation benefits or is receiving a reduced level of compensation benefits because of a credit being applied as the result of a third party liability or damages, the employer or insurer shall ~~compute the offset credit as if the individual were entitled to the actual benefit or 65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed annually, whichever is greater.~~ If this results in the use of a higher credit than otherwise would have been applied and the employer or insurer becomes liable for compensation benefits which would otherwise not have been paid, the additional benefits resulting shall be handled according to this section pay the difference between the reduced level of benefits and $184. The figure $184 shall be adjusted pursuant to section 176.645.

(c) In the event an eligible recipient is receiving no compensation or is receiving a reduced level of compensation because of a valid agreement in settlement of a claim, no supplementary benefit shall be payable under this section. Attorney's fees shall be allowed in settlements of claims for supplementary benefits in accordance with this chapter.

(d) In the event an eligible recipient is receiving no compensation or is receiving a reduced level of compensation because of prior limitations in the maximum amount payable for permanent total disability or because of reductions resulting from the simultaneous receipt of old age or disability benefits, the supplementary benefit shall be payable for the difference between the actual amount of compensation currently being paid and ~~65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed annually~~ $184. The figure $184 shall be adjusted pursuant to section 176.645.

(e) In the event that an eligible recipient is receiving simultaneous benefits from any government disability program, the amount of supplementary benefits payable under this section shall be reduced by five percent. The fees shall be determined according to section 176.081.*

Sec. 52. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.135, Subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. If at least one of the opinions affirms that the surgery is reasonably required, the employee may choose to undergo the surgery at the employer's expense. A second surgical opinion is not required in cases of emergency surgery or when the employer and employee agree that the opinion is not necessary.

Sec. 53. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 176.136, is amended to read:

176.136 [MEDICAL FEE REVIEW.]

The commissioner of insurance shall by rule establish procedures for determining whether or not the charge for a health service is excessive. In order to accomplish this purpose, the commissioner of insurance shall consult with insurers, associations and organizations representing the medical and other providers of treatment services and other appropriate groups. The procedures established by the commissioner of insurance shall limit the charges allowable for medical, chiropractic, podiatric, surgical, hospital and other health care provider treatment or services, as defined and compensable under section 176.135, to the 75th percentile of usual and customary fees or charges based upon billings for each class of health care provider during all of the calendar year preceding the year in which the determination is made of the amount to be paid the health care provider for the billing. The procedures established by the commissioner for determining whether or not the charge for a health service is excessive shall be structured to encourage providers to develop and deliver services for rehabilitation of injured workers. The procedures shall incorporate the provisions of sections 144.701, 144.702, and 144.703 to the extent that the commissioner finds that these provisions effectively accomplish the intent of this section or are otherwise necessary to insure that quality hospital care is available to injured employees. If the commissioner of insurance, a compensation judge, the workers' compensation court of appeals or a district court determines that the charge for a health service or medical service is excessive, no payment in excess of the reasonable charge for that service shall be made under this chapter nor may the provider collect or attempt to collect from the injured employee or any other insurer or government amounts in excess of the amount payable under this chapter; however, the commissioner of insurance shall by rule establish procedures allowing for a provider to appeal such determination. The commissioner of insurance shall contract with a review organization as defined in section 145.61 for the purposes listed in section 145.61, subdivision 5, and report to the legislature by January 15, 1983 and thereafter on January 15 of every odd-numbered year, regarding the delivery of medical and health care services, including rehabilitation services, under the workers' compensation laws of this state.

The commissioner of insurance shall also establish by rule standards and a procedure for determining whether a provider of health care services, including a provider of medical, chiropractic, podiatric, surgical, hospital or other services, is performing procedures or providing services at a level or with a frequency that is excessive, based upon accepted medical standards for quality health care.

If it is determined by the commissioner of insurance that the level or frequency of procedures or services of a provider is excessive according to the standards established by the rules, the provider shall not be paid for any excessive procedures or services by an insurer, self-insurer or group self-insurer. In addition, the provider shall not be reimbursed or attempt to collect reimbursement for the excessive procedures or services from any other source, including the employee, another insurer, the special compensation fund or any government program.

A provider who is determined by the commissioner of insurance to be consistently performing procedures or providing services at an excessive level shall be prohibited from receiving any further reimbursement for procedures or services provided pursuant to chapter 176. A prohibition imposed on a provider pursuant to this clause shall be grounds for revocation of the provider's license or certificate of registration to provide health care in Minnesota by the commissioner of health or other appropriate licensing body.

The rules adopted pursuant to this section shall require insurers, self-insurers and group self-insurers to report a reasonable amount of medical data necessary to implement the procedures required by this section.

*The employer of any employee who suffers a personal injury shall inform the insurer of the occurrence of the injury within three days of notice of the injury. Notice shall be made on forms provided by the insurer. Every state or local licensing agency shall withhold the issuance of a license or permit to operate a business in Minnesota until the applicant presents acceptable evidence of compliance with the workers' compensation insurance coverage requirement of section 176.181, subdivision 2.

Neither the state nor any governmental subdivision thereof shall enter into any contract for the doing of any public work before receiving from all other contracting parties acceptable evidence of compliance with the workers' compensation insurance coverage requirement of section 176.181, subdivision 2.

This section shall not be construed to create any liability on the part of the state or any governmental subdivision to pay workers' compensation benefits or to indemnify the special compensation fund, an employer, or insurer who pays workers' compensation benefits.

Sec. 57. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 176.221, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [GRANT OF EXTENSION.] Upon application made within 30 days after the date on which the first payment was due, the commissioner may grant an extension of time within which to determine liability. Sec. 58. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 176.221, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. In addition, each day subsequent to the end of the period and until a compensation payment is made to the injured employee, the person responsible for payment of compensation shall pay to the special compensation fund an amount equal to the total compensation to which the injured employee is entitled.

Sec. 59. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 176.221, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [INTEREST.] Any payment of compensation, charges for treatment under section 176.135 or retraining expenses under 176.102, subdivision 9 not made when due shall bear interest at the greater of the rate of eight 18 percent per annum or the rate set by section 549.09, subdivision 1, from the due date to the date the payment is made.

making payments, including but not limited to the grounds listed in clauses (a) to (d) of subdivision 1, the payments which are found to be delayed shall be increased by 10 percent. Withholding amounts unquestionably due because the injured employee refuses to execute a release of his right to claim further benefits will be regarded as inexcusable delay in the making of compensation payments. If any sum ordered by the department to be paid is not paid when due, and no appeal of the order is made, the sum shall bear interest at the rate of ~~12~~ 18 percent per annum. Any penalties paid pursuant to this section shall not be considered as a loss or expense item for purposes of a petition for a rate increase made pursuant to chapter 79.

Sec. 62. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.231, Subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. The attorney general shall sue in a civil action to collect this penalty upon notification of the matter by the commissioner of the department of labor and industry. The commissioner of the department of labor and industry shall certify to the attorney general each failure to report immediately upon its occurrence.

Penalties collected by the state under this subdivision shall be paid into the state treasury.

Sec. 63. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 176.235, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [NOTICE TO EMPLOYEE OF RIGHTS AND DUTIES.] Upon notice that an employee has suffered a personal injury, the employer shall provide the employee with a brochure or letter, which shall be prepared and provided by the insurer or group self insurer, if any, explaining the rights and obligations of the employee and employer, the assistance available to the employee, and the operation of the workers' compensation system. A plan for assistance shall be filed with the commissioner at the time the employer informs the employee that no offer of employment can be made. A plan for approval filed pursuant to section 176.102 shall be sufficient.

Subd. 4. [PENALTY.] An employer failing to provide reemployment or to provide assistance as required in subdivision 3 shall be required to pay to the special compensation fund an amount equal to all of the benefits paid as required in section 176.101 for the first year following the date of injury. This amount shall not be reimbursed by an insurer or group self-insurer unless the failure of the employer to provide assistance results from the failure of the insurer or group self-insurer to carry out its responsibilities under its contract with the employer.

Subd. 5. [RULES.] The commissioner shall, by rule, establish the minimum provisions of the plan required in subdivision 3.

Subd. 6. [LIMITATIONS.] This section shall not create any liabilities or other requirements for the payment of benefits under chapter 176 than are specifically contained within the section.

Where the order confirms a termination of compensation, the commissioner of labor and industry shall notify the employer of the action. This notification relieves the employer from further liability for compensation subject to the right of review afforded by this chapter, and to the right of the division to set aside the order at any time prior to the review and grant a new hearing pursuant to this chapter. *Where the order directs the payment of further compensation, the order shall provide that the amount of compensation shall bear interest at the rate of 18 percent per annum computed from the date of the termination of benefits.

tioner presents proof of such fact, the compensation judge shall enter whatever award or order to which petitioner is entitled on the basis of the facts alleged in the petition, but the compensation judge may require proof of an alleged fact. If the commissioner requires such proof, he shall request the chief hearing examiner to assign the matter to a compensation judge to summarily hear and determine the same and to promptly make an award or order.

Where in such a default case the petition does not state facts sufficient to support an award, the compensation judge shall give the petitioner or his attorney written notice of this deficiency. The petitioner may thereupon file another petition as in the case of an original petition.

Subd. 1a. [PROPOSED INVENTORY OF DISPOSAL SITES.] By October 15, 1981, each county shall adopt, by resolution of its governing body, an inventory of four proposed sites in the county suitable for mixed municipal solid waste disposal facilities and one proposed site in the county suitable for the disposal of demolition debris and shall submit the inventory to the council for approval or disapproval. The council shall evaluate and approve or disapprove each proposed site in accordance with the standards set out in this subdivision. Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, each site shall satisfy the standards and criteria in federal and state regulations and the council's policy plan for solid waste management. In proposing and approving sites for the inventory, the counties and the council shall prefer land which is capable of being returned to its existing use or the use anticipated in a plan of a metropolitan agency, county, or local unit of government use after closure of a disposal facility. Each site shall contain no less than 80 acres and no more than 250 acres. Each proposed site shall be surrounded by a buffer area at least equal to the area of the site. No site shall be adopted by a county or the council as part of an inventory unless the agency certifies its intrinsic suitability for the use intended, based on preliminary environmental analysis and on site surveys and investigations conducted by the county. Notwithstanding any plan, charter provision, law, ordinance, regulation, or other requirement of any state agency or political subdivision, no land shall be excluded from consideration for inclusion in the inventory except land determined by the agency to be intrinsically unsuitable. Each county shall provide to the agency data relating to the intrinsic suitability of the sites to be proposed for the inventory as soon as available but no later than June 15, 1981. By July 1, 1981 each county shall propose at least the number of sites required for the inventory, and the director of the agency shall issue a notice indicating which of those sites the director recommends be certified as intrinsically suitable. Notice of hearings on the director's recommendation shall be published in the state register and newspapers of general circulation in the metropolitan area and shall be sent by mail to the metropolitan council and local government units containing a proposed inventory site. A hearing shall be held in each metropolitan county and shall be conducted by the state office of administrative hearings in a manner consistent with the completion of the proceedings and the hearing examiner's report to the agency in the time allowed by this section. The hearing shall afford all interested persons an opportunity to testify and present evidence on the subject of the hearing. The subject of the hearing shall be limited to information submitted by the county and additional information on the proposed sites which is relevant to the agency's decision on intrinsic suitability. The rulemaking and contested case procedures of chapter 15 shall not apply to this hearing. The report of the hearing examiner shall contain findings of fact, conclusions, and recommendations on the subject of the hearing. The agency shall make a final determination as to the intrinsic suitability of each proposed site and shall certify them accordingly by October 1, 1981. The agency shall not be required to promulgate rules pursuant to chapter 15 on criteria and standards to govern its certification of intrinsic suitability under this section. No action of the agency shall be held invalid by reason of the agency's failure to notify any of the entities listed in this subdivision. The council shall evaluate each site with respect to local land use and land use controls, the protection of agriculture and natural resources, existing and future development patterns, transportation facilities and other services and facilities appropriate to land disposal facilities, the quality of other potential sites, and patterns of generation of solid waste. The council shall notify a county of any site proposed by the county which the council disapproves and shall allow the county 60 days to propose an alternative site. If the county fails to propose an alternative acceptable to the council in the time allowed, the council shall propose a site acceptable to it for inclusion in the inventory of sites in that county. If in the council's judgment a county does not contain the requisite number of satisfactory sites, the council may reduce the number of sites required of that county. In order to permit the comparative evaluation of sites and the participation of affected localities in decisions about the use of sites, a moratorium is hereby imposed as provided in this subdivision on development within the area of each site and buffer area proposed by a county, pending the council's adoption of an inventory pursuant to section 473.149, subdivision 2b. For sites and buffer areas included in the council's inventory, the moratorium shall extend until October 1, 1983, except that the council may at any time, with the approval of the county in which the site is located, abrogate the application of the moratorium to a specific site or sites or buffer areas. No development shall be allowed to occur within the area of a site or buffer area during the period of the moratorium without the approval of the council. No county, city, or town land use control shall permit development which has not been approved by the council, nor shall any county, city, or town sanction or approve any subdivision, permit, license, or other authorization which would allow development to occur which has not been approved by the council. The council shall not approve actions which would jeopardize the availability of a site for use as a solid waste facility. The council may establish guidelines for reviewing requests for approval under this subdivision. Requests for approval shall be submitted in writing to the chairman of the council and shall be deemed to be approved by the council unless the chairman otherwise notifies the submitter in writing within 15 days."

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [11A.26] [PROHIBITED INVESTMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [POLICY.] The legislature finds that the present government of the Republic of South Africa, through its legally sanctioned policies of racial discrimination, is violative of both the substance and the intent of Minnesota laws protecting individuals from unjust discrimination. Therefore, it is the intention of the legislature to prohibit future investments and deposits in financial institutions lending money to the government of the Republic of South Africa or any of its agencies.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] As used in this section, the following terms shall have the meanings given them:

(1) “Financial institution” means any federally or state chartered bank, savings and loan, thrift institution, or any other institution permitted by state or federal law to receive deposits of money and to pay out that money through loans, draft accounts, or the sale of financial institution securities;

(2) “Financial institution securities” means any stock or bond issued by a financial institution, and any certificate of deposit, bankers acceptance, or other negotiable security issued by a financial institution.

(3) “National corporation” includes a corporation or a subsidiary or affiliate of a corporation that is more than 50 percent owned or operated by the government of the Republic of South Africa.

Subd. 3. [PROHIBITED INVESTMENTS AND DEPOSITS IN FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS.] The state board shall not purchase or acquire any financial institution security issued by a financial institution that after January 1, 1983 participates in any loans to the government of the Republic of South Africa or any South African government agency or to any South African national corporation. Nor shall the state board deposit any assets of the board in such financial institutions.

A financial institution ineligible to receive state board investments and deposits may establish eligibility if documentary evidence is submitted to the state board of investment which is sufficient to establish that the financial institution has adopted a written policy that prohibits the lending of its assets to the government of the Republic of South Africa or any of its agencies. For purposes of this section, “documentary evidence” shall include, as a min- imum, an executed affidavit by an appropriate officer of the financial institution, in a form prepared by the board, attesting to the fact that the financial institution prohibits the lending of its assets to the government of the Republic of South Africa or any of its agencies. The board shall also attempt to verify compliance by reference to sources of information not affiliated with the corporation or financial institution.

Sec. 2. [APPLICABILITY.]

The prohibitions contained in section 1, subdivision 3, apply to all investments and deposits authorized in section 11A.24.

(b) At the option of the county board and with the approval of the commissioner of public welfare, reimbursement for inpatient hospital care, outpatient hospital care, and prescription drugs may be limited to designated medical care providers.

(c) The commissioner of public welfare may reduce payments provided under sections 256D.01 to 256D.21 and 261.23 in order to remain within the amount appropriated for general assistance medical care, within the following restrictions. Reductions below the cost per service unit allowable under section 256.966, shall be permitted only as follows: payments for inpatient and outpatient hospital care provided in response to a primary diagnosis of chemical dependency or mental illness may be reduced no more than 45 percent; payments for all other inpatient hospital care may be reduced no more than 35 percent. the remaining general assistance medical care services allowable under this provision may be reduced no more than 25 percent.

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 268.09, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DISQUALIFYING CONDITIONS.] An individual shall be disqualified for waiting week credit and benefits for the duration of his unemployment and until he has earned four times his weekly benefit amount in insured work if he is separated from employment under any of the following conditions:

(1) [VOLUNTARY LEAVE.] The individual voluntarily and without good cause attributable to the employer discontinued his employment with such employer. For the purpose of this clause, a separation from employment by reason of its temporary nature or for inability to pass a test or for inability to meet performance standards necessary for continuation of employment shall not be deemed voluntary.

A separation shall be for good cause attributable to the employer if it occurs as a consequence of sexual harassment. Sexual harassment means unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, sexually motivated physical contact or other conduct or communication of a sexual nature when: (1) the employee's submission to such conduct or communication is made a term or condition of the employment, (2) the employee's submission to or rejection of such conduct or communication is the basis for decisions affecting employment, or (3) such conduct or communication has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment and the employer knows or should know of the existence of the harassment and fails to take timely and appropriate action.

(2) [DISCHARGE FOR MISCONDUCT.] The individual was discharged for misconduct, not amounting to gross misconduct connected with his work or for misconduct which interferes with and adversely affects his employment.

An individual shall not be disqualified under clauses (1) and (2) of this subdivision under any of the following conditions:

(a) The individual voluntarily discontinued his employment to accept work offering substantially better conditions of work or substantially higher wages or both;

(b) The individual is separated from employment due to his own serious illness provided that such individual has made reasonable efforts to retain his employment;

An individual who is separated from his employment due to his illness of chemical dependency which has been professionally diagnosed or for which he has voluntarily submitted to treatment and who fails to make consistent efforts to maintain the treatment he knows or has been professionally advised is necessary to control that illness has not made reasonable efforts to retain his employment.

(c) The individual accepts work from a base period employer which involves a change in his location of work so that said work would not have been deemed to be suitable work under the provisions of subdivision 2 and within a period of 13 weeks from the commencement of said work voluntarily discontinues his employment due to reasons which would have caused the work to be unsuitable under the provision of said subdivision 2;

(d) The individual left employment because he had reached mandatory retirement age and was 65 years of age or older; or

(e) The individual is terminated by his employer because he gave notice of intention to terminate employment within 30 days. This exception shall be effective only through the calendar week which includes the date of intended termination, provided that this exception shall not result in the payment of benefits for any week for which he receives his normal wage or salary which is equal to or greater than his weekly benefit amount;

(f) The individual is separated from employment due to the completion of an apprenticeship program, or segment thereof, approved pursuant to chapter 178.

(3) [DISCHARGE FOR GROSS MISCONDUCT.] The individual was discharged for gross misconduct connected with his work or gross misconduct which interferes with and adversely affects his employment and provided further that the commissioner is empowered to impose a total disqualification for the benefit year and to cancel part or all of the wage credits from the last employer from whom he was discharged for gross misconduct connected with his work.

For the purpose of this clause "gross misconduct" shall be defined as misconduct involving assault and battery or the malicious destruction of property or the theft of money or property of a value of $100 or more or arson or sabotage or embezzlement. However, no person shall be deemed to have been discharged for gross misconduct for purposes of this chapter unless (1) the person makes an admission to the conduct in writing or under oath, or (2) the person is found to have engaged in such conduct by an appeals tribunal established pursuant to section 268.10, or (3) the person has been convicted by a court of competent jurisdiction of acts constituting gross misconduct.

(4) [LIMITED OR NO CHARGE OF BENEFITS.] Benefits paid subsequent to an individual's separation under any of the foregoing clauses, excepting clauses (2)(c) and (2)(e), shall not be used as a factor in determining the future contribution rate of the employer from whose employment such individual separated.

Benefits paid subsequent to an individual's failure, without good cause, to accept an offer of suitable re-employment shall not be used as a factor in determining the future contribution rate of the employer whose offer of re-employment he failed to accept or whose offer of re-employment was refused solely due to the distance of the available work from his residence, the individual's own serious illness or his other employment at the time of the offer.

(5) An individual who was employed by an employer shall not be disqualified for benefits under this subdivision for any acts or omissions occurring after his separation from employment with the employer."
