(2) Pay ten percent of the cost of programs of training and employment established by the commissioner of economic security for persons certified hereunder;

(3) Provide that in determining a recipient's needs any monthly incentive training payment made to the recipient by the department of economic security is disregarded and the additional expenses attributable to his participation in a program are taken into account in grant determination; and

(4) Provide that when it has been certified by the commissioner of economic security, certification to be binding upon the commissioner of public welfare, that a relative or child certified under the work incentive program to the commissioner of economic security has been found by the commissioner, after a hearing conducted in the manner prescribed by section 268.10, subdivision 3, with the right of review in accordance with the provisions of section 268.10, subdivision 8, to have refused without good cause to participate under a work incentive program or to have refused without good cause to accept a bona fide offer of public or other employment, the county welfare departments shall provide that:

(a) If the relative makes the refusal, the relative's needs shall not be taken into account in making the grant determination, and aid for any dependent child in the family will be made in the form of vendor payments.

(b) Aid with respect to a dependent child will be denied if a child who makes the refusal is the only child receiving aid in the family.

(c) If there is more than one child receiving aid in the family, aid for the child who makes the refusal will be denied and his needs will not be taken into account in making the grant determination; and

(d) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this subdivision, the county welfare department shall, for a period of 60 days after notification of the commissioner of economic security determination of refusal without cause to participate in a program of training or employment, make vendor payments on behalf of the relative specified or continue aid in the case of a child specified, if during the 60 day period the child or relative accepts counseling or other services which the county welfare department shall make available for the purpose of assisting the child or relative to participate in a program in accordance with the determination of the commissioner of economic security. If the assistance unit's eligibility is based on the principal earner's unemployment and the principal earner fails or refuses without good cause to participate or to accept employment, the entire assistance unit is ineligible for benefits under sections 256.72 to 256.87.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 256.74, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT.] The amount of assistance which shall be granted to or on behalf of any dependent child and mother or other needy eligible relative caring for such the dependent child shall be determined by the county agency with due regard to the resources and necessary expenditures of the family and the conditions existing in each case and in accordance with the rules and regulations made promulgated by the state agency commissioner and shall be sufficient, when added to all other income and support available to the child, to provide such the child with a reasonable subsistence compatible with decency and health. The amount shall be based on the method of budgeting required in Public Law No. 97-35, Section 2315, 42 U.S.C. 602, as amended and federal regulations at 45 CFR Section 233. In making its determination the county agency shall exclude disregard the following from family income:

(1) All of the earned income of each dependent child receiving aid to families with dependent children who is a full-time student or part-time student, and not a full-time employee, attending a school, college, or university, or a course of vocational or technical training designed to fit him for gainful employment;

(2) All educational grants and loans awarded pursuant to a federal law when public assistance was considered in making the award and the award was made on the basis of financial need; and that part of any other educational grant or loan which is used for educational purposes, such as tuition, fees, equipment, transportation and child care expenses necessary for school attendance; and

(3) The first $75 of each individual's earned income. In the case of an individual not engaged in full-time employment or not employed throughout the month the commissioner shall prescribe by rule a lesser amount to be disregarded. For self-employed persons, the expenses directly related to producing goods and services and without which the goods and services could not be produced shall be disregarded pursuant to rules promulgated by the commissioner;

(4) An amount equal to the actual expenditures but not to exceed $160 for the care of each dependent child or incapacitated individual living in the same home and receiving aid. In the case of a person not engaged in full-time employment or not employed throughout the month, the commissioner shall prescribe by rule a lesser amount to be disregarded; and

(5) The first $30 Thirty dollars plus one-third of the remainder of the combined monthly earnings of any dependent child not included under clause (1); and any adult who is a recipient of aid for families with dependent children each individual's earned income not already disregarded for individuals found otherwise eligible to receive aid or who have received aid in one of the four months before the month of application. With respect to any month, the county welfare agency shall not disregard under this clause (2) any earned income of any person who has:

(a) Reduced his earned income without good cause within 30 days preceding any month in which an assistance payment is made; or

(b) Refused without good cause to accept an offer of suitable employment; or

(c) Left employment or reduced his earnings without good cause and applied for assistance so that he might later return to employment with the advantage of the income disregard; or

(d) Failed without good cause to make a timely report of earned income in accordance with rules promulgated by the commissioner of public welfare.

Persons who are already employed and who apply for assistance shall have their needs computed with full account taken of their earned and other income. If earned and other income of the family is less than need, as determined on the basis of public assistance standards, the county agency shall determine the amount of the grant by applying the disregard of income provisions. The county agency shall not disregard earned income for persons in a family if the total monthly earned and other income exceeds their needs, unless for any one of the four preceding months their needs were met in whole or in part by a grant payment. ~~If an individual without good cause leaves employment or reduces his earnings and applies for assistance so that he might later return to employment with advantages of income disregard, he shall not have the benefit of the disregard of income provisions.~~

The disregard of $30 and one-third of the remainder of earned income described in clause (5) shall be applied to the individual's income for a period not to exceed four consecutive months. Any month in which the individual loses this disregard because of the provisions of clause (5)(a) to (5)(d) shall be considered as one of the four months. To again qualify for this earned income disregard, the individual must not be a recipient of aid for a period of 12 consecutive months. If an individual becomes ineligible for aid because this earned income disregard has been applied to income for four consecutive months and will no longer be applied to income, the local agency shall inform the individual of the medical assistance program, its standards of eligibility, and the circumstances under which the individual would be eligible for medical assistance.

(6) The commissioner shall increase the standard of need in effect on January 1, 1982 by 45 percent for each assistance unit. The maximum amount paid to an assistance unit shall be no more than 69 percent of the increased standard of need. Whenever the commissioner increases the maximum payment amount for all assistance units, the commissioner shall increase the maximum standard of need by an equal percentage.

To determine the amount of assistance to be paid to an assistance unit, net income shall be determined in a manner consistent with this chapter and applicable federal law. Net earned income shall be subtracted from the standard of need for an assistance unit of the appropriate size and composition to determine the grant amount, except that the grant shall not exceed the maximum payment amount for an assistance unit of the same size and composition.

Medical assistance eligibility for medically needy persons shall be determined according to payment standards in effect for assistance under sections 256.72 to 256.87.

If implementation of this clause, subdivision 1 (6), is challenged and a court of competent jurisdiction rules on the merits that it conflicts with provisions of the Social Security Act or the United States Constitution, then subdivision 1 (6) ceases to have effect and shall no longer be implemented.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 256.74, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [STEPPARENT'S INCOME.] In determining income available, the county agency shall take into account the remaining income of the depen- dent child's stepparent who lives in the same household after disregarding:

(1) The first $75 of the stepparent's gross earned income. The commissioner shall prescribe by rule lesser amounts to be disregarded for stepparents who are not engaged in full-time employment or not employed throughout the month;

(2) An amount for support of the stepparent and any other individuals whom the stepparent claims as dependents for tax purposes and who live in the same household but whose needs are not considered in determining eligibility for assistance under sections 256.72 to 256.87. The amount equals the standard of need for a family of the same composition as the stepparent and these other individuals;

(3) Amounts the stepparent actually paid to individuals not living in the same household but whom the stepparent claims as dependents for tax purposes; and

(4) Alimony or child support, or both, paid by the stepparent for individuals not living in the same household.

Sec. 43. [256.851] [RULES.]

The commissioner of public welfare shall promulgate temporary and permanent rules necessary to implement sections 31 to 48, 84, and 88.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 256.872, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [WITHHOLDING ORDER.] Whenever an obligation for support of a dependent child or maintenance of a spouse, or both, has been determined and ordered by a court of this state, the public agency responsible for child support enforcement may move and the district or county court shall grant an order providing for the withholding of the amount of child support or maintenance as determined by court order, from the income, regardless of source of the person obligated to pay the support or maintenance. If the public agency responsible for child support enforcement determines that the obligor's arrearages have accumulated for more than one month, and if the agency is not pursuing another appropriate remedy, the agency shall move the district or county court for an order for withholding under this section or shall document a reason or reasons why withholding would not result in payment being made. "Income" means any form of periodic payments to an individual, including, but not limited to, wages, salary, income as an independent contractor, workers' compensation, unemployment compensation, annuity, military and naval retirement, pension and disability payments.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 256.872, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [PENALTY FOR NONCOMPLIANCE.] If the public agency responsible for child support enforcement fails to make reasonable efforts to comply with this section and sections 518.54 to 518.66 or to show why it cannot comply within four months after receiving notice that the commissioner of public welfare has determined that the agency is not in substantial compliance with this section and sections 518.54 to 518.66, the commissioner may withhold ten percent of the state's share of the difference between the total estimated cost and the federal funds available for payment of aid under sec- tions 256.72 to 256.87 to all persons for which the county is the county of financial responsibility and the county shall pay the ten percent in addition to its usual share of payments, until the public agency complies.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 256.99, is amended to read:

256.99 [REVERSE MORTGAGE PROCEEDS DISREGARDED.]

All reverse mortgage loan proceeds received pursuant to section 47.58, including interest or earnings thereon, shall be disregarded and shall not be considered available to the borrower for purposes of determining initial or continuing eligibility for, or amount of, medical assistance or any other public assistance program, Minnesota supplemental assistance, general assistance, general assistance medical care, or a federal or state low interest loan or grant. This section applies regardless of the time elapsed since the loan was made or the disposition of the proceeds.

Sec. 47. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 256B.06, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Medical assistance may be paid for any person:

(1) Who is eligible for or receiving public assistance, or a woman who is pregnant, as medically verified, and who would be eligible for public assistance if the child had been born and living with the woman, under the aid to families with dependent children program; or

(2) Who is eligible for or receiving supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled; or

(3) Who except for the amount of income or resources would qualify for supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled, or aid to families with dependent children and is in need of medical assistance; or

(4) Who is under 21 years of age and in need of medical care that neither he nor his relatives responsible under sections 256B.01 to 256B.26 are financially able to provide; or

(5) Who is residing in a hospital for treatment of mental disease or tuberculosis and is 65 years of age or older and without means sufficient to pay the per capita hospital charge; and

(6) Who resides in Minnesota, or, if absent from the state, is deemed to be a resident of Minnesota in accordance with the regulations of the state agency; and

or unless the commissioner determines that sale of the real estate would cause undue hardship; and

(8) Who individually does not own more than $2,000 in cash or liquid assets, or if a member of a household with two family members (husband and wife, or parent and child), does not own more than $4,000 in cash or liquid assets, plus $200 for each additional legal dependent. When only one spouse resides, or will reside after applying for medical assistance, in a nursing home, or is receiving or will receive alternative care under the alternative care grants program in a county with preadmission screening under section 256B.091, the cash or liquid asset amount for two family members is $10,000. The value of the following shall not be included:

(a) the homestead, and (b) one motor vehicle licensed pursuant to chapter 168 and defined as: (1) passenger automobile, (2) station wagon, (3) motorcycle, (4) motorized bicycle or (5) truck of the weight found in categories A to E, of section 168.013, subdivision 1e; and

(9) Who has or anticipates receiving an annual income not in excess of $2,600 for a single person, or $3,250 for two family members (husband and wife, parent and child, or two siblings), plus $625 for each additional legal dependent, or who has income in excess of these maxima and in the month of application, or during the three months prior to the month of application, incurs expenses for medical care that total more than one-half of the annual excess income in accordance with the regulations of the state agency. In computing income to determine eligibility of persons who are not residents of long term care facilities, the commissioner shall disregard increases in income of social security or supplementary security income recipients due solely to increases required by sections 215(i) and 1617 of the social security act, and shall disregard income of disabled persons that is also disregarded in determining eligibility for supplemental aid under section 256D.37, subdivision 1, unless prohibited by federal law or regulation. If prohibited, the commissioner shall first seek a waiver. In excess income cases, eligibility shall be limited to a period of six months beginning with the first of the month in which these medical obligations are first incurred; and

(10) Who has continuing monthly expenses for medical care that are more than the amount of his excess income, computed on a monthly basis, in which case eligibility may be established before the total income obligation referred to in the preceding paragraph is incurred, and medical assistance payments may be made to cover the monthly unmet medical need. In licensed nursing home and state hospital cases, income over and above that required for justified needs, determined pursuant to a schedule of contributions established by the commissioner of public welfare, is to be applied to the cost of institutional care. The commissioner of public welfare may establish a schedule of contributions to be made by the spouse of a nursing home resident to the cost of care and shall seek a waiver from federal regulations which establish the amount required to be contributed by either spouse when one spouse is a nursing home resident; and

(11) Who has applied or agrees to apply all proceeds received or receivable by him or his spouse from automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage to the costs of medical care for himself, his spouse, and children. The state agency may require from any applicant or recipient of medical assistance the assignment of any rights accruing under private health care coverage. Any rights or amounts so assigned shall be applied against the cost of medical care paid for under this chapter. Any assignment shall not be effective as to benefits paid or provided under automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage prior to receipt of the assignment by the person or organization providing the benefits.

Sec. 48. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 256B.07, is amended to read:

256B.07 [EXCEPTIONS IN DETERMINING RESOURCES.]

A local agency may, within the scope of regulations set by the commissioner of public welfare, waive the requirement of liquidation of excess assets when the liquidation would cause undue hardship. Household goods and furniture in use in the home, wearing apparel, insurance policies with cash surrender value not in excess of $1,500 per insured person, personal property used as a regular abode by the applicant or recipient, a prepaid funeral contract not in excess of $750 per person plus accrued interest of not more than $200, and a lot in a burial plot shall not be considered as resources available to meet medical needs.

Sec. 49. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 268.16, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COLLECTION.] (1) If, after due notice, any employer defaults in any payment of contributions or interest due thereon or penalties for failure to file returns and other reports as and when required by the provisions of sections 268.03 to 268.24 or by any rule or regulation of the commissioner, the amount due shall be collected by civil action in the name of the state of Minnesota, and any money recovered ~~on account thereof~~ shall be credited to the funds provided for under the provisions of these sections. This remedy shall be in addition to ~~such other remedies as may be herein provided or otherwise provided by law,~~ and the employer adjudged in default shall pay the costs of ~~such~~ the action. Civil actions brought under this section to collect contributions, interest due thereon, or penalties from an employer shall be heard by the court at the earliest possible date. No action for the collection of contributions or interest thereon shall be commenced more than four years after the contributions have been reported by the employer or determined by the commissioner to be due and payable. In any action herein provided for, judgment shall be entered against any defendant in default for want of answer or demurrer, for the relief demanded in the complaint without proof, together with costs and disbursements, upon the filing of an affidavit of default.

No action shall be commenced for the collection of contributions with respect to wages paid for services performed prior to the effective date of a subsequent provision of law enacted prior to July 1, 1941, excluding ~~such~~ the service from coverage under sections 268.03 to 268.24.

(2) Any employing unit which is not a resident of this state and which exercises the privilege of having one or more individuals perform service for it within this state, and any resident employing unit which exercises that privilege and thereafter removes from this state, shall be deemed thereby to appoint the secretary of state as its agent and attorney for the acceptance of process in any civil action under this subdivision. In instituting ~~such~~ an action against ~~any~~ ~~such~~ the employing unit the commissioner shall cause ~~such~~ any process or notice to be filed with the secretary of state, together with payment of a fee of

$15, and such the service shall be sufficient service upon such the employing unit, and shall be of the same force and validity as if served upon it personally within this state: Provided, that the commissioner shall forthwith send notice of the service of such the process or notice, together with a copy thereof, by certified mail, return receipt requested, to such the employing unit at its last known address and such the return receipt, the commissioner's affidavit of compliance with the provisions of this section, and a copy of the notice of service, shall be appended to the original of the process filed in the court in which such the civil action is pending.

Sec. 50. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 278.03, is amended to read:

278.03 [PAYMENT OF PORTION OF TAX.]

If the proceedings instituted by the filing of the petition have not been completed before the first day of June next following the filing, the petitioner shall pay to the county treasurer 50 percent of the tax levied for such year against the property involved, unless permission to continue prosecution of the petition without such payment is obtained as herein provided. If the proceedings instituted by the filing of the petition have not been completed by the next November 1, the petitioner shall pay to the county treasurer 50 percent of the unpaid balance of the taxes levied for the year against the property involved if the unpaid balance is $2,000 or less and 80 percent of the unpaid balance if the unpaid balance is over $2,000, unless permission to continue prosecution of the petition without payment is obtained as herein provided. The petitioner, upon ten days notice to the county attorney and to the county auditor, given at least ten days prior to the first day of June or the first day of November, may apply to the court for permission to continue prosecution of the petition without payment; and, if it is made to appear

(1) That the proposed review is to be taken in good faith;

(2) That there is probable cause to believe that the property may be held exempt from the tax levied or that the tax may be determined to be less than 50 percent of the amount levied; and

(3) That it would work a hardship upon petitioner to pay 50 percent of such the taxes due,

the court may permit the petitioner to continue prosecution of the petition without payment, or may fix a lesser amount to be paid as a condition of continuing the prosecution of the petition.

Failure to make payment of the amount required when due shall operate automatically to dismiss the petition and all proceedings thereunder unless the payment is waived by an order of the court permitting the petitioner to continue prosecution of the petition without payment. The county treasurer shall, upon request of the petitioner, issue duplicate receipts for the tax payment, one of which shall be filed by the petitioner in the proceeding.

(ii) The Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1976, including the amendments made to section 280A (relating to licensed day care centers) in H.R. 3477 as it passed the Congress on May 16, 1977, shall be in effect for the taxable years beginning after December 31, 1976. The provisions of the Tax Reform Act of 1976, P.L. 94-455, which affect adjusted gross income shall become effective for purposes of this chapter at the same time they become effective for federal income tax purposes. Section 207 (relating to extension of period for nonrecognition of gain on sale or exchange of residence) and section 402 (relating to time for making contributions to pension plans of self employed people) of P.L. 94-12 shall be effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1974.

(a) Modifications increasing federal adjusted gross income. There shall be added to federal adjusted gross income:

(1) Interest income on obligations of any state other than Minnesota or a political subdivision of any other state exempt from federal income taxes under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954;

(2) A business casualty loss if the taxpayer elected to deduct the loss on the current year's federal income tax return but had deducted the loss on the previous year's Minnesota income tax return;

(3) Income taxes imposed by this state or any other taxing jurisdiction, to the extent deductible in determining federal adjusted gross income and not credited against federal income tax;

(4) Interest on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry securities the income from which is exempt from tax under this chapter, to the extent deductible in determining federal adjusted gross income;

(6) The amount of any federal income tax overpayment for any previous taxable year, received as refund or credited to another taxable year's income tax liability, proportionate to the percentage of federal income tax that was claimed as a deduction in determining Minnesota income tax for the previous taxable year. The amount of the federal income tax overpayment shall be reported only to the extent that the amount resulted in a reduction of the tax imposed by this chapter.

The overpayment refund or credit, determined with respect to a husband and wife on a joint federal income tax return for a previous taxable year, shall be reported on joint, combined, or separate Minnesota income tax returns. In the case of combined or separate Minnesota returns, the overpayment shall be reported by each spouse proportionately according to the relative amounts of federal income tax claimed as a deduction on his or her combined or separate Minnesota income tax return for such previous taxable year;

(7) In the case of a change of residence from Minnesota to another state or nation, the amount of moving expenses which exceed total reimbursements and which were therefore deducted in arriving at federal adjusted gross income;

(12) To the extent deducted in computing the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income for the taxable year, losses recognized upon a transfer of property to the spouse or former spouse of the taxpayer in exchange for the release of the spouse's marital rights;

(13) Interest income from qualified scholarship funding bonds as defined in section 103(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, if the nonprofit corporation is domiciled outside of Minnesota;

(14) Exempt-interest dividends, as defined in section 852(b)(5)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, not included in federal adjusted gross income pursuant to section 852(b)(5)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, except for that portion of exempt-interest dividends derived from interest income on obligations of the state of Minnesota, any of its political or governmental subdivisions, any of its municipalities, or any of its governmental agencies or instrumentalities;

(15) The amount of any excluded gain recognized by a trust on the sale or exchange of property as defined in section 641(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954;

(16) An amount equal to one-sixth of any gain from the sale or other disposition of property deducted under sections 1202(a) and 1202(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954;

(17) To the extent not included in the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income, the amount of any gain, from the sale or other disposition of property having a lower adjusted basis for Minnesota income tax purposes than for federal income tax purposes. This modification shall not exceed the difference in basis. If the gain is considered a long term capital gain for federal income tax purposes, the modification shall be limited to 50 percent of the portion of the gain. This modification is limited to property that qualified for the energy credit contained in section 290.06, subdivision 14, and to property acquired in exchange for the release of the taxpayer's marital rights contained in section 290.14, clause (9);

(18) The amount of any loss from a source outside of Minnesota which is not allowed under section 290.17 including any capital loss or net operating loss carryforwards or carrybacks resulting from the loss;

~~(19) The amount of a distribution from an individual housing account which is to be included in gross income as required under section 290.08, subdivision 25;~~

~~(20)~~ (19) To the extent deducted in computing the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income, interest, taxes and other expenses which are not allowed under section 290.10, clause (9) or (10); and

~~(21)~~ (20) To the extent excluded from federal adjusted gross income, in the case of a city manager or city administrator who elects to be excluded from the public employees retirement association and who makes contributions to a deferred compensation program pursuant to section 353.028, the amount of contributions made by the city manager or administrator which is equal to the amount which would have been the city manager's or administrator's employee contribution pursuant to section 353.27, subdivision 2, if he were a member of the public employees retirement association.

(b) Modifications reducing federal adjusted gross income. There shall be subtracted from federal adjusted gross income:

(1) Interest income on obligations of any authority, commission or instrumentality of the United States to the extent includible in gross income for federal income tax purposes but exempt from state income tax under the laws of the United States;

(2) The portion of any gain, from the sale or other disposition of property having a higher adjusted basis for Minnesota income tax purposes than for federal income tax purposes, that does not exceed such difference in basis; but if such gain is considered a long-term capital gain for federal income tax purposes, the modification shall be limited to 50 per centum of the portion of the gain. This modification shall not be applicable if the difference in basis is due to disallowance of depreciation pursuant to section 290.101.

(3) Interest or dividend income on securities to the extent exempt from income tax under the laws of this state authorizing the issuance of the securities but includible in gross income for federal income tax purposes;

ARTICLE III

TAXATION

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 121.904, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4a. [LEVY RECOGNITION.] Beginning with taxes assessed in 1982 payable in 1983, and thereafter, all current levies of local taxes, including portions assumed by the state, shall be recognized as receivable in the same fiscal year during which collection normally takes place. These receivables shall be for use in the current fiscal year. All school district tax receipts from the March and June settlements shall be recorded as revenue in the fiscal year ending on that June 30.

Sec. 2. [124.115] [AID REDUCTIONS DUE TO TAX LEVY REVENUE RECOGNITION CHANGE.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZATION.] Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, state aid due school districts in fiscal year 1983 for the 1982-1983 school year shall be reduced as provided in this section.

Subd. 2. [AMOUNT OF REDUCTION.] State aid due any school district in fiscal year 1983 for the 1982-1983 school year under the provisions enumerated in subdivision 3 shall be reduced by 93 percent of the amount the district levied for taxes assessed in 1982, payable in 1983, which is to be recognized as revenue in fiscal year 1983 pursuant to section 1. The district levy against which the reduction is applied shall not include any levy portions that are assumed by the state. For purposes of computing this state aid reduction, the amount levied by the district shall not include the amounts levied to make payments for bonds issued and for interest thereon; the amounts levied for repayment of debt service loans and capital loans; the amounts levied to pay the district's obligations under section 268.06, subdivision 25; and amounts levied pursuant to section 275.125, subdivisions 2d, 6a, 9a, 14a, and 20.

Subd. 3. [SUBTRACTION FROM AIDS.] The amount specified in subdivision 2 shall be subtracted from the following state aid payments in the order listed in fiscal year 1983:

- (a) Foundation aid as authorized in section 124.212, subdivision 1;*

If necessary, state aid payments in fiscal year 1984 and subsequent years may be reduced until the entire amount specified in subdivision 2 has been subtracted.

Subd. 4. [ACCOUNTING.] Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the amount of the levy subtracted from state aid payments shall be recognized and reported on the school district books of account in the same way that the state aid payments would have been recognized and reported. Seven percent of the amount the district levied for taxes in 1982, payable in 1983, which is to be recognized as revenue in fiscal year 1983, excluding levy portions assumed by the state, and excluding amounts levied to make payments for bonds issued and for interest thereon, amounts necessary for repayment of debt service loans and capital loans, amounts necessary to pay the district's obligations under section 268.06, subdivision 25, and amounts levied pursuant to section 275.125, subdivisions 2d, 6a, 9a, 14a, and 20, shall be placed in the general fund of the district, and may be expended for any lawful purpose.

Subd. 5. [LEVY USE.] A levy "for use in a particular school year," "attributable to a particular school year," or "recognized as revenue in a particular school year," means the levy certified in the calendar year ending in the portion of the levy payable during that school year preceding that particular school year, and payable in the calendar year in which that school year begins.

Sec. 4. [124.116] [CASH FLOW LOAN FUND.]

Subdivision 1. There shall be maintained in the state treasury a cash flow loan fund for administration of moneys to be received and disbursed as authorized in this section. The purpose of this fund is to alleviate the impact of altering the recognition of tax revenue pursuant to sections 1 and 2 on the cash flow needs of the school districts. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 11A.20, subdivision 3, the investment income on funds credited to the cash flow loan fund shall accrue and be credited to the cash flow loan fund.

Subd. 2. [LOAN APPLICATIONS; REPAYMENTS.] The commissioner of education shall establish procedures for loan applications and criteria for determining increased cash flow needs of school districts caused by the altering of recognition of tax revenue. The commissioner shall approve or disapprove loan applications on the basis of need. Any loan made pursuant to this section shall constitute an advance to the district without interest. For loans made in the 1982-1983 and 1983-1984 school years, the school district shall repay 70 percent of the loan amount by June 25 of that particular school year and the remaining 30 percent of the loan by July 25 of the next fiscal year or within five days of receiving final payment of the May tax settlement attributable to that particular school year, whichever is earlier. For loans made in the 1984-1985 school year, the school district shall repay the full amount of the loan by June 25, 1985.

Subd. 3. [REPEALER; CANCELLATION.] This section is repealed on June 30, 1985 and any moneys in the cash flow loan fund on June 29, 1985 shall cancel into the general fund.

Subd. 4. [APPROPRIATION.] There is appropriated from the general fund to the department of education for the cash flow loan fund the sum of $133,000,000. This sum shall be transferred to the cash flow loan fund as needed but the balance of the untransferred funds shall be transferred no later than June 29, 1983. On June 30, 1983, $53,000,000 of the balance in the cash flow loan fund shall cancel into the general fund. Any balance in excess of that amount shall not cancel and shall be available for loans to be made in fiscal years 1984 and 1985. Loan payments made after June 30, 1983 are also appropriated for loans to be made in fiscal years 1984 and 1985.

Sec. 5. [LEGISLATURE TO EVALUATE CASH FLOW.]

Before July 1, 1982, the legislature intends to evaluate the effect of this article on the cash flow needs of school districts, and to reschedule the timing of payment of state aids and credits to school districts to the extent needed to ensure that the cash position of school districts is sufficiently favorable to ensure efficient operation.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 273.13, Subdivision 15b, is amended to read:

Subd. 15b. [PROPERTY TAX CREDITS LIMITATION.] The property tax subject to the 58 percent homestead credit provided by subdivisions 6, 7 and 14a, to the homestead property tax relief provided by section 273.135 and to the supplementary homestead property tax relief provided by section 273.1391, shall be based on the total mill rate of all taxing districts levying a tax on the homestead property unless the payable 1982 total levy excluding any amount levied pursuant to section 275.50, subdivision 5, clause (k), of a taxing district other than a school district or the metropolitan transit commission is more than 108 percent of its payable 1981 total levy. If the payable 1982 total levy excluding any amount levied pursuant to section 275.50, subdivision 5, clause (k), of such taxing district is more than 108 percent of its payable 1981 total levy, then that total mill rate shall be based on 108 percent of the taxing district's payable 1981 total levy, plus any amount levied pursuant to section 275.50, subdivision 5, clause (k), for taxes payable in 1982. The commissioner of revenue shall determine and certify to all county auditors the product of each taxing district's payable 1981 total levy multiplied by 108 percent, plus any amount levied pursuant to section 275.50, subdivision 5, clause (k), for taxes payable in 1982. In the event that the sum of the county auditors' certifications exceeds the amounts appropriated, the commissioner of revenue shall proportionally reduce the certification amounts so that their sum equals the appropriation.

Sec. 7. [RECERTIFICATION.]

The county auditor of any county in which an amount was levied for taxes payable in 1982 pursuant to section 275.50, subdivision 5, clause (k), shall notify the commissioner of revenue. The commissioner of revenue shall recertify to the county auditor the property tax credits limitation amounts for taxes payable in 1982.

(2) A business casualty loss if the taxpayer elected to deduct the loss on the current year's federal income tax return but had deducted the loss on the previous year's Minnesota income tax return;

(3) Income taxes imposed by this state or any other taxing jurisdiction, to the extent deductible in determining federal adjusted gross income and not credited against federal income tax;

imposed by this chapter.

The overpayment refund or credit, determined with respect to a husband and wife on a joint federal income tax return for a previous taxable year, shall be reported on joint, combined, or separate Minnesota income tax returns. In the case of combined or separate Minnesota returns, the overpayment shall be reported by each spouse proportionately according to the relative amounts of federal income tax claimed as a deduction on his or her combined or separate Minnesota income tax return for such previous taxable year;

(15) The amount of any excluded gain recognized by a trust on the sale or exchange of property as defined in section 641(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954;

(16) An amount equal to one-sixth of any gain from the sale or other disposition of property deducted under sections 1202(a) and 1202(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954;

(17) To the extent not included in the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income, the amount of any gain, from the sale or other disposition of property having a lower adjusted basis for Minnesota income tax purposes than for federal income tax purposes. This modification shall not exceed the difference in basis. If the gain is considered a long term capital gain for federal income tax purposes, the modification shall be limited to 50 percent of the portion of the gain. This modification is limited to property that qualified for the energy credit contained in section 290.06, subdivision 14, and to property acquired in exchange for the release of the taxpayer's marital rights contained in section 290.14, clause (9);

(18) The amount of any loss from a source outside of Minnesota which is not allowed under section 290.17 including any capital loss or net operating loss carryforwards or carrybacks resulting from the loss;

(20) To the extent deducted in computing the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income, interest, taxes and other expenses which are not allowed under section 290.10, clause (9) or (10); and

(21) To the extent excluded from federal adjusted gross income, in the case of a city manager or city administrator who elects to be excluded from the public employees retirement association and who makes contributions to a deferred compensation program pursuant to section 353.028, the amount of contributions made by the city manager or administrator which is equal to the amount which would have been the city manager's or administrator's employee contribution pursuant to section 353.27, subdivision 2, if he were a member of the public employees retirement association.

(b) Modifications reducing federal adjusted gross income. There shall be subtracted from federal adjusted gross income:

(1) Interest income on obligations of any authority, commission or instrumentality of the United States to the extent includible in gross income for federal income tax purposes but exempt from state income tax under the laws of the United States;

(2) The portion of any gain, from the sale or other disposition of property having a higher adjusted basis for Minnesota income tax purposes than for federal income tax purposes, that does not exceed such difference in basis; but if such gain is considered a long-term capital gain for federal income tax purposes, the modification shall be limited to 50 per centum of the portion of the gain. This modification shall not be applicable if the difference in basis is due to disallowance of depreciation pursuant to section 290.101.

(3) Interest or dividend income on securities to the extent exempt from income tax under the laws of this state authorizing the issuance of the securities but includible in gross income for federal income tax purposes;

(4) Losses, not otherwise reducing federal adjusted gross income assignable to Minnesota, arising from events or transactions which are assignable to Minnesota under the provisions of sections 290.17 to 290.20, including any capital loss or net operating loss carryforwards or carrybacks or out of state loss carryforwards resulting from the losses, and including any farm loss carryforwards or carrybacks;

(5) If included in federal adjusted gross income, the amount of any credit received, whether received as a refund or credit to another taxable year's income tax liability, pursuant to chapter 290A, and the amount of any overpayment of income tax to Minnesota, or any other state, for any previous taxable year, whether the amount is received as a refund or credited to another taxable year's income tax liability;

The maximum amount of this subtraction shall be $11,000 less the amount by which the individual's federal adjusted gross income, plus the ordinary income portion of a lump sum distribution as defined in section 402(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, exceeds $17,000. In the case of a volunteer firefighter who receives an involuntary lump sum distribution of his pension or retirement benefits, the maximum amount of this subtraction shall be $11,000; this subtraction shall not be reduced by the amount of the individual's federal adjusted gross income in excess of $17,000;

(7) The amount of any credit to the taxpayer's federal tax liability under section 38 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 but only to the extent that the credit is connected with or allocable against the production or receipt of income included in the measure of the tax imposed by this chapter;

(8) To the extent included in the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income for the taxable year, gain recognized upon a transfer of property to the spouse or former spouse of the taxpayer in exchange for the release of the spouse's marital rights;

(9) The amount of any distribution from a qualified pension or profit sharing plan included in federal adjusted gross income in the year of receipt to the extent of any contribution not previously allowed as a deduction by reason of a change in federal law which was not adopted by Minnesota law for a taxable year beginning in 1974 or later;

(10) Interest, including payment adjustment to the extent that it is applied to interest, earned by the seller of the property on a family farm security loan executed before January 1, 1986 that is guaranteed by the commissioner of agriculture as provided in sections 41.51 to 41.60;

(11) The first $3,000 of compensation for personal services in the armed forces of the United States or the United Nations, and the next $2,000 of compensation for personal services in the armed forces of the United States or the United Nations wholly performed outside the state of Minnesota. clause (b)(6);

(13) In the case of wages or salaries paid or incurred on or after January 1, 1977, the amount of any credit for employment of certain new employees under sections 44B and 51 to 53 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 which is claimed as a credit against the taxpayer's federal tax liability, but only to the extent that the credit is connected with or allocable against the production or receipt of income included in the measure of the tax imposed by this chapter;

(21) To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, in the case of a city manager or city administrator who elects to be excluded from the public employees retirement association and who makes contributions to a deferred compensation program pursuant to section 353.028, the amount of payments from the deferred compensation program equivalent to the amount of contributions taxed under clause (a)(21); and

In cases where the election under section 1372 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 antedates the election under this chapter and at the close of the taxable year immediately preceding the effective election under this chapter the corporation has a reserve of undistributed taxable income previously taxed to shareholders under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, in the event and to the extent that the reserve is distributed to shareholders the distribution shall be taxed as a dividend for purposes of this chapter.

(d) Amounts transferred from a reserve or other account, if in effect transfers to surplus, shall, to the extent that the amounts were accumulated through deductions from gross income or entered into the computation of taxable net income during any taxable year, be treated as gross income for the year in which the transfer occurs, but only to the extent that the amounts resulted in a reduction of the tax imposed by this chapter and amounts received as refunds on account of taxes deducted from gross income during any taxable year shall be treated as gross income for the year in which actually received, but only to the extent that such amounts resulted in a reduction of the tax imposed by this chapter.

(e) Modification in computing taxable income of the estate of a decedent. Amounts allowable under section 291.07, subdivision 1, clause (2) in computing Minnesota inheritance or estate tax liability shall not be allowed as a deduction (or as an offset against the sales price of property in determining gain or loss) in computing the taxable income of the estate or any person unless there is filed within the time and in the manner and form prescribed by the commissioner a statement that the amounts have not been allowed as a deduction under section 291.07 and a waiver of the right to have the amounts allowed at any time as deductions under section 291.07. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply with respect to deductions allowed under section 290.077 (relating to income in respect of decedents). In the event that the election made for federal tax purposes under section 642(g) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 differs from the election made under this paragraph appropriate modification of the estate's federal taxable income shall be made to implement the election made under this paragraph in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.09, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [INTEREST.] (a) All interest paid or accrued within the taxable year on indebtedness, except as hereinafter provided.

(b) Interest paid or accrued within the taxable year on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry obligations or securities the income from which is excludable from gross income under sections 290.01, subdivision 20 or 290.08, or shares of a regulated investment company which during the taxable year of the holder thereof distributes Minnesota exempt-interest dividends as defined in section 290.01, subdivision 27, or on indebtedness described in section 264(a)(2) and (3), (b) and (c) (relating to life insurance) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980 shall not be allowed as a deduction.

(c) If personal property or educational services are purchased under a contract the provisions of section 163(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980 shall apply.

(d) A cash basis taxpayer may elect to deduct interest as it accrues on a reverse mortgage loan as defined in section 47.58, subdivision 1, rather than when it is actually paid. This election must be made, if at all, in the first taxable year in which it is available to the cash basis taxpayer and, if made, shall be binding on the taxpayer for each subsequent taxable year until maturity of the loan.

(e) In the case of a taxpayer other than a corporation, the amount of interest on investment indebtedness allowable as a deduction shall be allowed and limited as set forth in section 163(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980. The limitation prescribed in section 163(d)(1)(A) for married individuals who file separate returns shall also apply to married individuals who file separately on one return.

(f) A taxpayer may not deduct interest on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry obligations or shares, or to make deposits or other investments, the interest on which is described in section 116(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980 to the extent such interest is excludable from gross income under section 116 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1980. Interest and carrying costs in the case of straddles shall be treated as provided in section 263(g) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through October 2, 1981.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.06, Subdivision 2d, is amended to read:

Subd. 2d. [INFLATION ADJUSTMENT OF BRACKETS.] (a) Subject to the provisions of clause (b), for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980, the taxable net income brackets in subdivision 2c shall be adjusted for inflation. For the purpose of making the adjustment as provided in this subdivision all of the brackets provided in subdivision 2c shall be the adjusted brackets as they existed for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1979 and before January 1, 1981. The commissioner shall determine: (a) the percentage increase in the revised consumer price index for all urban consumers for the Minneapolis-St. Paul metropolitan area prepared by the United States department of labor. He shall then determine the percent change from August, 1980, to, in 1981, August, 1981, and in each subsequent year, from August of the preceding year to August of the current year; and (b) the percentage increase in average Minnesota gross income from tax year 1980 to, in 1981, tax year 1981, and in each subsequent tax year between the previous tax year and the current tax year. The percent increases in Minnesota gross income shall be estimated using the best available data sources and reasonable forecasting procedures. The determination of the commissioner pursuant to this section shall not be considered a "rule" and shall not be subject to the administrative procedures act contained in chapter 15.

The dollar amount in each taxable net income bracket for the prior year in subdivision 2c shall be multiplied by a figure calculated as one plus 100 percent of the consumer price index increase or 100 percent of the Minnesota gross income increase, whichever is smaller. The product of the calculation shall yield the inflation adjusted tax brackets for each succeeding year. If the product exceeds a whole dollar amount, it shall be rounded to the nearest whole dollar.

No later than October 1 of each year, the commissioner shall announce both percentage increases and the specific percentage that will be used to adjust the tax brackets, the maximum standard deduction amount, and the personal credit amounts.

(b) For the first taxable year of each taxpayer beginning after December 31,

1981, the taxable net income brackets adjusted according to the percentages determined by October 1, 1982 shall be further adjusted by reducing the dollar amount in each bracket by 12.3 percent. The bracket amounts resulting from this adjustment shall be those subject to subsequent adjustments pursuant to clause (a) for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1982. The 12.3 percent adjustment provided in this clause does not apply to the adjustment of the personal credit amounts or the maximum standard deduction amount pursuant to clause (a).

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.09, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [DEPRECIATION.] (A) [CUMULATIVE DEPRECIATION.] (a) There shall be allowed as a depreciation deduction a reasonable allowance for the exhaustion, wear and tear (including a reasonable allowance for obsolescence):

- (1) of property used in the trade or business, or
- (2) of property held for the production of income.

(b) The term "reasonable allowance" as used in clause (a) shall include (but shall not be limited to) an allowance computed in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner, under any of the following methods:

- (1) the straight line method.
- (2) the declining balance method, using a rate not exceeding twice the rate which would have been used had the annual allowance been computed under the method described in paragraph (1).
- (3) the sum of the years-digits method, and
- (4) any other consistent method productive of an annual allowance, which, when added to all allowances for the period commencing with the taxpayer's use of the property and including the taxable year, does not, during the first two-thirds of the useful life of the property, exceed the total of such allowances which would have been used had such allowances been computed under the method described in (2). Nothing in this clause (b) shall be construed to limit or reduce an allowance otherwise allowable under clause (a).

For purposes of this subdivision "reasonable allowance" shall not include the accelerated cost recovery system provisions of section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through October 2, 1981, unless specifically authorized by legislation enacted after the final enactment of this section.

(c) Paragraphs (2), (3), and (4) of clause (b) shall apply only in the case of property (other than intangible property) described in clause (a) with a useful life of three years or more.

(1) the construction, reconstruction, or erection of which is completed after December 31, 1958, and then only to that portion of the basis which is properly attributable to such construction, reconstruction, or erection after December 31, 1958, or

(2) acquired after December 31, 1958, if the original use of such property commenced with the taxpayer and commences after such date.

(d) Where, under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, the taxpayer and the commissioner have, after June 30, 1959, entered into an agreement in writing specifically dealing with the useful life and rate of depreciation of any property, the rate so agreed upon shall be binding on both the taxpayer and the commissioner in the absence of facts or circumstances not taken into consideration in the adoption of such agreement. The responsibility of establishing the existence of such facts and circumstances shall rest with the party initiating the modification. Any change in the agreed rate and useful life specified in the agreement shall not be effective for taxable years before the taxable year in which notice in writing by certified mail is served by the party to the agreement initiating such change.

(e) In the absence of an agreement under clause (d) containing a provision to the contrary, a taxpayer may at any time elect in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner to change from the method of depreciation prescribed in clause (b) (2) to the method described in clause (b) (1).

(f) The basis on which exhaustion, wear and tear, and obsolescence are to be allowed in respect of any property shall be the adjusted basis provided in sections 290.131 to 290.139, 290.14 and 290.15 for the purpose of determining the gain on the sale or other disposition of such property.

(g) In the case of property held by one person for life with remainder to another person, the deduction shall be computed as if the life tenant were the absolute owner of the property and shall be allowed to the life tenant. In the case of property held in trust the allowable deduction shall be apportioned between the income beneficiary and the trustee in accordance with the pertinent provisions of the instrument creating the trust, or, in the absence of such provisions, on the basis of the trust income allocable to each. In the case of an estate, the allowable deduction shall be apportioned between the estate and the heirs, legatees, and devisees on the basis of the income of the estate allocable to each.

(h) In the case of buildings or other structures or improvements constructed or made on leased premises by a lessee, and the fixtures and machinery therein installed, the lessee alone shall be entitled to the allowance of this deduction.

(B) [FIRST YEAR DEPRECIATION.] (a) In the case of section 1 property, the term "reasonable allowance" as used in subdivision 7, may, at the election of the taxpayer, include an allowance, for the first taxable year for which a deduction is allowable under subdivision 7, to the taxpayer with respect to such property, of 20 percent of the cost of such property.

(b) If in any one taxable year the cost of section 1 property with respect to which the taxpayer may elect an allowance under (a) for such taxable year exceeds $10,000, then (a) shall apply with respect to those items selected by the taxpayer, but only to the extent of an aggregate cost of $10,000. In the case of a husband and wife who file a joint return under section 290.38 for the taxable year, the limitation under the preceding sentence shall be $20,000 in lieu of $10,000.

(c) (1) The election under this subdivision for any taxable year shall be made within the time prescribed by law (including extensions thereof) for filing the return for such taxable year. The election shall be made in such manner as the commissioner may by regulations prescribe.

(2) Any election made under this subdivision may not be revoked except with the consent of the commissioner.

(d) (1) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "Section 1 property" means tangible personal property (excluding buildings and structures)

(A) of a character subject to the allowance for depreciation under subdivision 7.

(B) acquired by purchase after December 31, 1958, for use in a trade or business or for holding for production of income, and

(C) with a useful life (determined at the time of such acquisition) of six years or more.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), the term "purchase" means any acquisition of property, but only if

(A) the property is not acquired from a person whose relationship to the person acquiring it would result in the disallowance of losses under section 290.10(6),

(B) the property is not acquired by one component member of a controlled group from another component member of the same controlled group, and

(C) the basis of the property in the hands of the person acquiring it is not determined

(i) in whole or in part by reference to the adjusted basis of such property in the hands of the person from whom acquired, or

(ii) under section 290.14(4) (relating to property acquired from a decedent).

(3) For purposes of this subdivision, the cost of property does not include so much of the basis of such property as is determined by reference to the basis of other property held at any time by the person acquiring such property.

(4) This subdivision shall not apply to trusts.

(5) In the case of an estate, any amount apportioned to an heir, legatee, or devisee shall not be taken into account in applying (B) of this subdivision to section 1 property of such heir, legatee, or devisee not held by such estate.

(6) For purposes of (B) of this subdivision

(A) all component members of a controlled group shall be treated as one taxpayer, and

(B) the commissioner shall apportion the dollar limitation contained in such (B) among the component members of such controlled group in such manner as he shall by regulations prescribe.

(7) For purposes of paragraphs (2) and (6), the term "controlled group" has the meaning assigned to it by section 1563(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979, except that, for such purposes, the phrase "more than 50 percent" shall be substituted for the phrase "at least 80 percent" each place it appears in section 1563(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.18, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [TAXABLE NET INCOME ADJUSTMENT FACTOR.] For the taxable year beginning after December 31, 1980 and ending before January 1, 1982, the commissioner of revenue shall adjust taxable net income by multiplying the taxable net income of each individual, estate and trust by a fraction, the numerator of which is one plus the predicted rate of growth in average Minnesota gross income between tax year 1980 and tax year 1981. The denominator of the adjustment fraction shall be one plus the product of (a) the predicted rate of growth in average Minnesota gross income as determined above, and (b) the difference between the ratio of Minnesota gross income to Minnesota adjusted gross income and the product of the ratio of federal taxes paid to Minnesota adjusted gross income and an estimate of average federal income tax elasticity relating percent changes in federal adjusted gross income to percent changes in net federal income tax liabilities.

For each taxable year beginning after December 31, 1981, the commissioner of revenue shall adjust taxable net income by multiplying the taxable net income of each individual, estate, and trust by an adjustment factor determined by multiplying the previous year's adjustment factor by the current year adjustment factor as defined above using data appropriate to the current year.

The data used shall reflect the most current aggregate tax statistics collected and tabulated by the department of revenue. The estimate of the percentage increase in Minnesota gross income shall be based on the best available data sources and reasonable forecasting procedures. The estimate of federal income tax elasticity shall reflect the best available sources of information, including the judgment of the United States Internal Revenue Service and the United States Treasury, Office of Tax Analysis. The determination of the commissioner pursuant to this section shall not be considered a "rule" and shall not be subject to the administrative procedures act contained in chapter 15.

No later than October 1 of each tax year, the commissioner shall announce the adjustment factor to be applied to taxable net income, including its separate components, and the estimate of federal elasticity.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.53, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FAILURE TO PAY TAX.] If any tax imposed by this chapter is not paid within the time herein specified for the payment thereof, or within 30 days after final determination of an appeal to the tax court relating thereto if the taxpayer is not required to pay the amount in dispute pending appeal under section 15, there shall be added thereto a specific penalty equal to ten percent of the amount so remaining unpaid. Such penalty shall be collected as part of said tax, and the amount of said tax not timely paid, together with said penalty shall bear interest at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the time such tax should have been paid until paid. Interest accruing upon the tax due as disclosed by the return or upon the amount determined as a deficiency from the date prescribed for the payment of the tax (if the tax is payable in installments, from the date the installment or installments become due and payable under the provisions of section 290.45, subdivision 1) shall be added to the tax and be collected as a part thereof. Where an extension of time for payment has been granted under section 290.45, subdivision 2, interest shall be paid at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the date when such payment should have been made if no extension had been granted, until such tax is paid. If payment is not made at the expiration of the extended period the penalties provided in this section shall apply.

Sec. 15. [290.531] [PAYMENT OF TAX PENDING APPEAL.]

When a taxpayer appeals his tax liability under chapter 290 to the tax court, and the amount in dispute is more than $4,000, the entire amount of the tax shall be paid at the time it is due unless permission to continue prosecution of the petition without payment is obtained as provided herein. The petitioner, upon ten days notice to the commissioner, may apply to the court for permission to continue prosecution of the petition without payment; and, if it is made to appear

(1) That the proposed review is to be taken in good faith;

(2) That there is probable cause to believe that the taxpayer may be held exempt from the tax or that the tax may be determined to be less than 50 percent of the amount due; and

(3) That it would work a substantial hardship upon petitioner to pay the tax,

the court may permit the petitioner to continue prosecution of the petition without payment, or may fix a lesser amount to be paid as a condition of continuing the prosecution of the petition.

Failure to make payment of the amount required when due shall operate automatically to dismiss the petition and all proceedings thereunder unless the payment is waived by an order of the court permitting the petitioner to continue prosecution of the petition without payment.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 297.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [ADDITIONAL TAX.] In addition to the tax imposed pursuant to subdivision 1, there is imposed a tax upon the sale of cigarettes in this state or having cigarettes in possession in this state with intent to sell and upon any person engaged in business as a distributor thereof, at the following rates, subject to the discount provided in section 297.03:

(1) On cigarettes weighing not more than three pounds per thousand, 2.5 mills on each cigarette;

[CIGARETTE TAX APPORTIONMENT ACCOUNT.] Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, five and one-half percent of the revenues received from taxes, penalties and interest under sections 297.01 to 297.13 except for that which is paid under section 297.02, subdivision 1a, shall be deposited by the commissioner of revenue in the general fund and credited to a special account to be known as the "natural resources account," which is hereby created. Expenditures shall be made from said account only as may be authorized by law to carry out the provisions of this act and in conformance with the provisions of chapter 16. Five and one-half percent except for that which is paid under section 297.02, subdivision 1a, shall be deposited in the general fund and credited to the "natural resources acceleration" account for the purposes provided in Laws 1969, Chapter 879, Section 4. The balance of the revenues derived from taxes, penalties, and interest under sections 297.01 to 297.13 and from license fees and miscellaneous sources of revenue shall be deposited by the commissioner in the general fund and credited to the general fund.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 297.22, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [ADDITIONAL TAX.] In addition to the tax imposed pursuant to subdivision 1, there is imposed a tax upon the use or storage by consumers of cigarettes in this state, and upon such consumers, at the following rates:

If any tax imposed by sections 297A.01 to 297A.44, or any portion thereof, is not paid within the time herein specified for the payment, or an extension thereof, or within 30 days after final determination of an appeal to the tax court relating thereto if the taxpayer is not required to pay the amount in dispute pending appeal under section 21, there shall be added thereto a specific penalty equal to ten percent of the amount remaining unpaid.

Sec. 21. [297A.391] [PAYMENT OF TAX PENDING APPEAL.]

When a taxpayer appeals his tax liability under chapter 297A to the tax court, and the amount in dispute is more than $4,000, the entire amount of the tax shall be paid at the time it is due unless permission to continue prosecution of the petition without payment is obtained as provided herein. The petitioner, upon ten days notice to the commissioner, may apply to the court for permission to continue prosecution of the petition without payment; and, if it is made to appear the court may permit the petitioner to continue prosecution of the petition without payment, or may fix a lesser amount to be paid as a condition of continuing the prosecution of the petition.

Failure to make payment of the amount required when due shall operate automatically to dismiss the petition and all proceedings thereunder unless the payment is waived by an order of the court permitting the petitioner to continue prosecution of the petition without payment.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 477A.03, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LIMITATION ON APPROPRIATION; PROPORTIONATE REDUCTION.] The amount appropriated under subdivision 1 shall not exceed $270,725,464 $250,725,464 for calendar year 1982 and shall not exceed $293,561,978 for calendar year 1983. If the limitations contained in this subdivision result in a reduction in the amounts determined pursuant to sections 477A.012 and 477A.013, each governmental unit receiving local government aid shall have its distribution proportionally reduced, but no local government unit shall receive less aid than its previous year aid.

Sec. 23. [PRORATION OF 1982 AID PAYMENTS.]

Notwithstanding the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 477A or any other law to the contrary, the reduction in state aids payable to local governments required under section 22 shall be effected by providing a pro rata reduction of the aids that would have been paid to each county and municipality under the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Sections 477A.011 to 477A.014 if there had been no such reduction.

Sec. 24. Laws 1981, First Special Session, Chapter 1, Article I, Section 5, is amended to read:

ARTICLE IV

BUSINESS TAX

Section 1. [STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT.]

The legislature finds that certain provisions of the state income tax law generally applied to corporations produce an inequitable result when applied to major oil companies, allowing those companies to escape taxation on a great proportion of their profits. The legislature further finds that there are at least two causes of this inequity: First, during the last several years, major oil companies have increased both the prices charged for their products and the profits realized from their enterprises by extraordinary amounts, greatly in excess of the price and profit increases of other businesses in this state, resulting in an enormous outflow of public and private capital from the state. Second, the complexity of structure of most major oil companies, together with certain tax shelter provisions currently used on a grand scale by the companies, allows major oil companies to be taxed on only a very small proportion of their profits. Because the primary objective of the income tax law is to raise essential government revenues by fairly distributing the tax burden among taxpayers, it is declared that certain changes in the income tax law, as they apply to major oil companies, must be effected in order that those companies will bear a fair and equitable share of the statewide tax burden.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 28. [MAJOR OIL COMPANY.] The term "major oil company" means a corporation which is engaged in all of the following activities: (1) the extraction or production of crude oil in excess of an average of 100,000 barrels of crude oil per day; (2) the refining of crude oil in excess of an average of 100,000 barrels of crude oil per day; and (3) the marketing or distribution for marketing in this state of gasoline, motor fuel, fuel oil, and similar products from the refining or manufacture of crude oil. A major oil company includes a parent corporation and the subsidiaries of a company engaging in a unitary business if the parent itself or through one or more of its subsidiaries individually or collectively comes within the definition of a major oil company and markets or distributes petroleum or petroleum products in Minnesota.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.09, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LIMITATIONS.] (a) Except as provided in clause (b), the following deductions from gross income shall be allowed in computing net income, provided that any item which was deducted in arriving at gross income under the provisions of section 290.01, subdivision 20, shall not be again deducted under this section.

Property taxes may not be deducted under this section if

(1) The taxes are attributable to a trade or business carried on by an individual, or

(2) The taxes are expenses for the production of income which are paid or incurred by an individual; and which are not allowed as a deduction under section 164 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980.

(b) A major oil company shall not deduct amounts otherwise deductible for depletion or intangible drilling costs, including ordinary loss deductions taken for nonproductive wells, with respect to the production of petroleum, not including the production of natural gas.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.091, is amended to read:

290.091 [MINIMUM TAX ON PREFERENCE ITEMS.]

In addition to all other taxes imposed by this chapter there is hereby imposed, a tax which, in the case of a resident individual, shall be equal to 40 percent of the amount of the taxpayer's minimum tax liability for tax preference items pursuant to the provisions of sections 55 to 58 and 443(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1980 except that for purposes of the tax imposed by this section, capital gain as defined in section 57(a) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not include that portion of any gain occasioned by sale, transfer or the granting of a perpetual easement pursuant to any eminent domain proceeding or threat thereof as described in section 290.13, subdivision 5. This modification shall apply to the years in which the gain or reduction in loss is actually included in federal adjusted gross income even though amounts received pursuant to the eminent domain proceedings were received in prior years. In the case of a taxpayer other than a corporation, an amount equal to one-half of the net capital gain for the taxable year shall be used as the definition of capital gain in place of the deduction determined under section 1202 of the Internal Revenue Code. In the case of a resident individual, having preference items which could not be taken to reduce income from sources outside the state pursuant to section 290.17, subdivision 1, or any other taxpayer the tax shall equal 40 percent of that federal liability, multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the amount of the taxpayer's preference item income allocated to this state pursuant to the provisions of sections 290.17 to 290.20, and the denominator of which is the taxpayer's total preference item income for federal purposes. In the case of a major oil company, any amount deducted for depletion for federal tax purposes but not deductible for state tax purposes pursuant to section 290.09, subdivision 1, clause (b) shall not be considered a tax preference item.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.17, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [OTHER TAXPAYERS.] In the case of taxpayers not subject to the provisions of subdivision 1, items of gross income shall be assigned to this state or other states or countries in accordance with the following principles:

(1) The entire income of all resident or domestic taxpayers from compensation for labor or personal services, or from a business consisting principally of the performance of personal or professional services, shall be assigned to this state, and the income of nonresident taxpayers from such sources shall be assigned to this state if, and to the extent that, the labor or services are performed within it; all other income from such sources shall be treated as income from sources without this state;

(2) Income from the operation of a farm shall be assigned to this state if the farm is located within this state and to other states only if the farm is not located in this state. Income and gains received from tangible property not employed in the business of the recipient of such income or gains, and from tangible property employed in the business of such recipient if such business consists principally of the holding of such property and the collection of the income and gains therefrom, shall be assigned to this state if such property has a situs within it, and to other states only if it has no situs in this state. Income or gains from intangible personal property not employed in the business of the recipient of such income or gains, and from intangible personal property employed in the business of such recipient if such business consists principally of the holding of such property and the collection of the income and gains therefrom, wherever held, whether in trust, or otherwise, shall be assigned to this state if the recipient thereof is domiciled within this state; income or gains from intangible personal property wherever held, whether in trust or otherwise shall be assigned to this state if the recipient of such income or gains is domiciled within this state, or if the grantor of any trust is domiciled within this state and such income or gains would be taxable to such grantor under section 290.25 or 290.29;

(3) Income derived from carrying on a trade or business, including in the case of a business owned by natural persons the income imputable to the owner for his services and the use of his property therein, shall be assigned to this state if the trade or business is conducted wholly within this state, and to other states if conducted wholly without this state. This provision shall not apply to business income subject to the provisions of clause (1);

(4) When a trade or business is carried on partly within and partly without this state, the entire income derived from such trade or business, including income from intangible property employed in such business and including, in the case of a business owned by natural persons, the income imputable to the owner for his services and the use of his property therein, shall be governed, except as otherwise provided in sections 290.35 and 290.36, by the provisions of section 290.19, notwithstanding any provisions of this section to the contrary. This shall not apply to business income subject to the provisions of clause (1), nor shall it apply to income from the operation of a farm which is subject to the provisions of clause (2). For the purposes of this clause, a trade or business located in Minnesota is carried on partly within and partly without this state if tangible personal property is sold by such trade or business and delivered or shipped to a purchaser located outside the state of Minnesota.

If the trade or business carried on wholly or partly in Minnesota is part of a unitary business, the entire income of that unitary business shall be subject to apportionment under section 290.19. The term "unitary business" means a number of business activities or operations which are of mutual benefit, dependent upon, or contributory to one another, individually or as a group. Unity is presumed whenever there is unity of ownership, operation, and use, evidenced by centralized management or executive force, centralized purchasing, advertising, accounting, or other controlled interaction. Unity is also presumed whenever the activities or operations of one unit are similar or related to the group's principal activities and not an unrelated discrete business enterprise.

The entire income of a unitary business, including all income from each activity, operation, or division, shall be subject to apportionment as provided in section 290.19. None of the income of a unitary business shall be considered as derived from any particular source, and none shall be allocated to any particular place except as provided by the applicable apportionment formula.

In determining whether or not intangible property is employed in a unitary business carried on partly within and partly without this state so that income derived therefrom is subject to apportionment under section 290.19 the following rules and guidelines shall apply.

(a) Intangible property is employed in a business if the business entity owning intangible property holds it as a means of furthering the business operation of which a part is located within the territorial confines of this state.

(b) Where a business operation conducted in Minnesota, is owned by a business entity which carries on business activity outside of the state different in kind from that conducted within this state, and such other business is conducted entirely outside the state, it will be presumed that the two business operations are unitary in nature, interrelated, connected and interdependent unless it can be shown to the contrary.

(5) In the case of a nonresident who is liable for payment of a penalty for having withdrawn funds from an individual housing account established pursuant to section 290.08, subdivision 25, the amount so withdrawn and for which a deduction was allowed shall be an item of income assignable to this state, and the penalty tax of ten percent shall remain an additional liability of that taxpayer.

(6) For purposes of this section, amounts received by a non-resident from the United States, its agencies or instrumentalities, the Federal Reserve Bank, the state of Minnesota or any of its political or governmental subdivisions, or a Minnesota volunteer fireman's relief association, by way of payment as a pension, public employee retirement benefit, or any combination thereof, or as a retirement or survivor's benefit made from a plan qualifying under section 401, 403, 404, 405, 408, 409 or 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979, are not considered income derived from carrying on a trade or business or from performing personal or professional services in Minnesota, and are not taxable under this chapter.

(7) All other items of gross income shall be assigned to the taxpayer's domicile.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.19, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [COMPUTATION, BUSINESS CONDUCTED PARTLY WITHIN STATE; APPORTIONMENT.] The taxable net income from a trade or business carried on partly within and partly without this state shall be computed by deducting from the gross income of such business, wherever derived, deductions of the kind permitted by section 290.09, so far as connected with or allocable against the production or receipt of such income. The remaining net income shall be apportioned to Minnesota as follows:

(1) If the business consists of the mining, producing, smelting, refining, or any combination of these activities of copper and nickel ores, or of the manufacture of personal property and the sale of said property within and without the state, the remainder shall be apportioned to Minnesota on the basis of the percentage obtained by taking the arithmetical average of the following three percentages:

(a) The percentage which the sales made within this state is of the total sales wherever made;

(b) The percentage which the total tangible property, real, personal, and mixed, owned or rented, and used by the taxpayer in this state during the tax period in connection with such trade or business is of the total tangible property, real, personal, or mixed, wherever located, owned or rented and, used by the taxpayer in connection with such trade or business during the tax period; and,

(c) The percentage which the taxpayer's total payrolls paid or incurred in this state or paid in respect to labor performed in this state in connection with such trade or business is of the taxpayer's total payrolls paid or incurred in connection with such entire trade or business;

(d) The percentage of such remainder to be assigned to this state shall not be in excess of the sum of the following percentages: 70 percent of the percentage determined under clause (1) (a), 15 percent of the percentage determined under clause (1) (b), and 15 percent of the percentage determined under clause (1) (c);

(2) If the business is a major oil company, the remainder shall be apportioned to Minnesota on the basis of the sum of the percentages set forth in clause (1)(d); the arithmetical average shall not be used by a major oil company;

~~(2)~~ (3) (a) In all other cases the remainder shall be apportioned to Minnesota on the basis of the percentage obtained by taking the arithmetical average of the following three percentages:

(1) The percentage which the sales, gross earnings, or receipts from business operations, in whole or in part, within this state bear to the total sales, gross earnings, or receipts from business operations wherever conducted;

(2) The percentage which the total tangible property, real, personal, and mixed, owned or rented, and used by the taxpayer in this state during the tax period in connection with such trade or business is of the total tangible property, real, personal, or mixed, wherever located, owned, or rented, and used by the taxpayer in connection with such trade or business during the tax period; and

(3) The percentage which the taxpayer's total payrolls paid or incurred in this state or paid in respect to labor performed in this state in connection with such trade or business is of the taxpayer's total payrolls paid or incurred in connection with such entire trade or business;

(4) The percentage of such remainder to be assigned to this state shall not be in excess of the sum of the following percentages: 70 percent of the percentage determined under clause ~~(2)~~ (3) (a) (1), 15 percent of the percentage determined under clause ~~(2)~~ (3) (a) (2), and 15 percent of the percentage determined under clause ~~(2)~~ (3) (a) (3);

(b) If the methods prescribed under clause ~~(2)~~ (3) (a) will not properly reflect taxable net income assignable to the state, there may be used, if practicable and if such use will properly and fairly reflect such income, the percentage which the sales, gross earnings, or receipts from business operations, in whole or in part, within this state bear to the total sales, gross earnings, or receipts from business operations wherever conducted; or the separate or segregated accounting method. If the commissioner determines that the methods prescribed in clause (3) will not properly reflect the taxable net income of a major oil company assignable to the state he shall use only the sales factor to determine the amount so assignable;

(3) (4) The sales, payrolls, earnings, and receipts referred to in this section shall be those for the taxable year in respect of which the tax is being computed. The property referred to in this section shall be the average of the property owned or used by the taxpayer during the taxable year in respect of which the tax is being computed.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.21, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. (a) 85 percent of dividends received by a corporation during the taxable year from another corporation, when the corporate stock with respect to which dividends are paid does not constitute the stock in trade of the taxpayer or would not be included in the inventory of the taxpayer, or does not constitute property held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of his trade or business, or when the trade or business of the taxpayer does not consist principally of the holding of the stocks and the collection of the income and gains therefrom. The remaining 15 percent shall be allowed if the recipient owns 80 percent or more of all the voting stock of such other corporation, and the dividends were paid from income arising out of business done in this state by the corporation paying such dividends; but if the income out of which the dividends are declared was derived from business done within and without this state, then so much of the remainder shall be allowed as a deduction as the amount of the taxable net income of the corporation paying the dividends assignable or allocable to this state bears to the entire net income of the corporation, such rate being determined by the returns under this chapter of the corporation paying such dividends for the taxable year preceding the distribution thereof; the burden shall be on the taxpayer of showing that the amount of remainder claimed as a deduction has been received from income arising out of business done in this state,

(b) if the trade or business of the taxpayer consists principally of the holding of the stocks and the collection of the income and gains therefrom, dividends received by a corporation during the taxable year from another corporation, if the recipient owns 80 percent or more of all the voting stock of such other corporation, from income arising out of business done in this state by the corporation paying such dividends; but, if the income out of which the dividends are declared was derived from business done within and without this state, then so much of the dividends shall be allowed as deduction as the amount of the taxable net income of the corporation paying the dividends assignable or allocable to this state bears to the entire net income of the corporation, such rate being determined by the returns under this chapter of the corporation paying such dividends for the taxable year preceding the distribution thereof. The burden shall be on the taxpayer of showing that the amount of dividends claimed as a deduction has been received from income arising out of business done in this state.

(c) The dividend deduction provided in this subdivision shall be allowed only with respect to dividends that are included in a corporation's Minnesota taxable net income for the taxable year.

(d) In the case of a major oil company, no credit shall be allowed for dividends received from a foreign corporation, unless the dividends are received from a subsidiary whose income is combined with that of the parent company receiving the dividend pursuant to section 290.01, subdivision 28.

(e) In the case of a corporation which is permitted or required to file a combined report under section 290.34, subdivision 2, dividends shall be excluded from the income of the recipient to the extent the dividends are already included as income on the combined report.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.34, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [AFFILIATED OR RELATED CORPORATIONS, CONSOLIDATED STATEMENTS.] When a corporation which is required to file an income tax return is affiliated with or related to any other corporation through stock ownership by the same interests or as parent or subsidiary corporations, or has its income regulated through contract or other arrangement, the commissioner of revenue may permit or require ~~such consolidated statements as a combined report if, in his opinion, are it is necessary in order to determine the taxable net income received by any one of the affiliated or related corporations.~~ For purposes of computing the apportionment formula under section 290.19, subdivision 1, for each corporation involved, the numerator of the fraction shall be that corporation's sales, property, or payroll in Minnesota and the denominator shall be the total sales, payroll, and property of all of the corporations shown on the combined report. The combined report shall reflect the income of the entire unitary business as provided in section 290.17, subdivision 2, clause (4). The combined report shall reflect income from corporations wherever created or organized. It is the intent of the legislature to adopt the combined reporting method provided in Butler Brothers v. McColgan, 111 P.2d 334, and 315 U.S. 501, and Edison California Stores v. McColgan, 183 P.2d 16, and to treat all income as business income to the maximum extent allowable under Mobil Oil Corporation v. Commissioner of Taxes of Vermont, 445 U.S. 425.

Sec. 9. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 4, 5, as amended in clause (4) the first paragraph, 6, and 7, clause (d) are effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1981. The remainder of section 5, section 7, clause (e), and section 8 are effective for taxable years beginning after June 30, 1981.

Subdivision 1. Medical assistance may be paid for any person:

(1) Who is eligible for or receiving public assistance under the aid to families with dependent children program; or

(2) Who is eligible for or receiving supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled; or

(3) Who except for the amount of income or resources would qualify for supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled, or aid to families with dependent children and is in need of medical assistance; or

(4) Who is under 21 years of age and in need of medical care that neither he nor his relatives responsible under sections 256B.01 to 256B.26 are financially able to provide; or

(5) Who is residing in a hospital for treatment of mental disease or tuberculosis and is 65 years of age or older and without means sufficient to pay the per capita hospital charge; and

(6) Who resides in Minnesota, or, if absent from the state, is deemed to be a resident of Minnesota in accordance with the regulations of the state agency; and

(7) Who alone, or together with his spouse, does not own real property other than the homestead. For the purposes of this section, "homestead" means the house owned and occupied by the applicant as his dwelling place, together with the land upon which it is situated and an area no greater than two contiguous lots in a platted or laid out city or town or the smallest parcel allowed under applicable zoning regulations in unplatted land. Real estate not used as a home may not be retained unless it produces net income applicable to the family's needs or the family is making a continuing effort to sell it at a fair and reasonable price or unless sale of the real estate would net an insignificant amount of income applicable to the family's needs, or unless the commissioner determines that sale of the real estate would cause undue hardship; and

(8) Who individually does not own more than ~~$2,000~~ $1,500 in cash or liquid assets, or if a member of a household with two family members (husband and wife, or parent and child), does not own more than ~~$4,000~~ $2,250 in cash or liquid assets, plus $200 for each additional legal dependent. ~~When only one spouse resides, or will reside after applying for medical assistance, in a nursing home, or is receiving or will receive alternative care under the alternative care grants program in a county with preadmission screening under section 256B.094, the cash or liquid asset amount for two family members is $10,000.~~ The value of the following shall not be included:

(a) the homestead, and (b) one motor vehicle licensed pursuant to chapter 168 and defined as: (1) passenger automobile, (2) station wagon, (3) motorcycle, (4) motorized bicycle or (5) truck of the weight found in categories A to E, of section 168.013, subdivision 1e; and

(9) Who has or anticipates receiving an annual income not in excess of $2,600 for a single person, or $3,250 for two family members (husband and wife, parent and child, or two siblings), plus $625 for each additional legal dependent, or who has income in excess of these maxima and in the month of application, or during the three months prior to the month of application, incurs expenses for medical care that total more than one-half of the annual excess income in accordance with the regulations of the state agency. In computing income to determine eligibility of persons who are not residents of long term care facilities, the commissioner shall disregard increases in income of social security or supplementary security income recipients due solely to increases required by sections 215(i) and 1617 of the social security act, and shall disregard income of disabled persons that is also disregarded in determining eligibility for supplemental aid under section 256D.37, subdivision 1, unless prohibited by federal law or regulation. If prohibited, the commissioner shall first seek a waiver. In excess income cases, eligibility shall be limited to a period of six months beginning with the first of the month in which these medical obligations are first incurred; and

(10) Who has continuing monthly expenses for medical care that are more than the amount of his excess income, computed on a monthly basis, in which case eligibility may be established before the total income obligation referred to in the preceding paragraph is incurred, and medical assistance payments may be made to cover the monthly unmet medical need. In licensed nursing home and state hospital cases, income over and above that required for justified needs, determined pursuant to a schedule of contributions established by the commissioner of public welfare, is to be applied to the cost of institutional care. The commissioner of public welfare may establish a schedule of contributions to be made by the spouse of a nursing home resident to the cost of care and shall seek a waiver from federal regulations which establish the amount required to be contributed by either spouse when one spouse is a nursing home resident; and

(11) Who has applied or agrees to apply all proceeds received or receivable by him or his spouse from automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage to the costs of medical care for himself, his spouse, and children. The state agency may require from any applicant or recipient of medical assistance the assignment of any rights accruing under private health care coverage. Any rights or amounts so assigned shall be applied against the cost of medical care paid for under this chapter. Any assignment shall not be effective as to benefits paid or provided under automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage prior to receipt of the assignment by the person or organization providing the benefits.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 268.16, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COLLECTION.] (1) If, after due notice, any employer defaults in any payment of contributions or interest due thereon or penalties for failure to file returns and other reports as and when required by the provisions of sections 268.03 to 268.24 or by any rule or regulation of the commissioner, the amount due shall be collected by civil action in the name of the state of Minnesota, and any money recovered on account thereof shall be credited to the funds provided for under the provisions of these sections. This remedy shall be in addition to such other remedies as may be herein provided or otherwise provided by law, and the employer adjudged in default shall pay the costs of ~~such~~ the action. Civil actions brought under this section to collect contributions, interest due thereon, or penalties from an employer shall be heard by the court at the earliest possible date. No action for the collection of contributions or interest thereon shall be commenced more than four years after the contributions have been reported by the employer or determined by the commissioner to be due and payable. In any action herein provided for, judgment shall be entered against any defendant in default for want of answer or demurrer, for the relief demanded in the complaint without proof, together with costs and disbursements, upon the filing of an affidavit of default.

No action shall be commenced for the collection of contributions with respect to wages paid for services performed prior to the effective date of a subsequent provision of law enacted prior to July 1, 1941, excluding ~~such~~ the service from coverage under sections 268.03 to 268.24.

(2) Any employing unit which is not a resident of this state and which exercises the privilege of having one or more individuals perform service for it within this state, and any resident employing unit which exercises that privilege and thereafter removes from this state, shall be deemed thereby to appoint the secretary of state as its agent and attorney for the acceptance of process in any civil action under this subdivision. In instituting ~~such~~ an action against ~~any~~ ~~such~~ the employing unit the commissioner shall cause ~~such~~ any process or notice to be filed with the secretary of state, together with payment of a fee of $15, and ~~such~~ the service shall be sufficient service upon ~~such~~ the employing unit, and shall be of the same force and validity as if served upon it personally within this state: Provided, that the commissioner shall forthwith send notice of the service of ~~such~~ the process or notice, together with a copy thereof, by certified mail, return receipt requested, to ~~such~~ the employing unit at its last known address and ~~such~~ the return receipt, the commissioner's affidavit of compliance with the provisions of this section, and a copy of the notice of service, shall be appended to the original of the process filed in the court in which ~~such~~ the civil action is pending.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 278.03, is amended to read:

278.03 [PAYMENT OF PORTION OF TAX.]

If the proceedings instituted by the filing of the petition have not been completed before the first day of June next following the filing, the petitioner shall pay to the county treasurer 50 percent of the tax levied for such year against the property involved, unless permission to continue prosecution of the petition without such payment is obtained as herein provided. If the proceedings instituted by the filing of the petition have not been completed by the next November 1, the petitioner shall pay to the county treasurer 50 percent of the unpaid balance of the taxes levied for the year against the property involved if the unpaid balance is $2,000 or less and 80 percent of the unpaid balance if the unpaid balance is over $2,000, unless permission to continue prosecution of the petition without payment is obtained as herein provided. The petitioner, upon ten days notice to the county attorney and to the county auditor, given at least ten days prior to the first day of June or the first day of November, may apply to the court for permission to continue prosecution of the petition without payment; and, if it is made to appear

(1) That the proposed review is to be taken in good faith;

(2) That there is probable cause to believe that the property may be held exempt from the tax levied or that the tax may be determined to be less than 50 percent of the amount levied; and

(3) That it would work a hardship upon petitioner to pay 50 percent of such the taxes due,

the court may permit the petitioner to continue prosecution of the petition without payment, or may fix a lesser amount to be paid as a condition of continuing the prosecution of the petition.

Failure to make payment of the amount required when due shall operate automatically to dismiss the petition and all proceedings thereunder unless the payment is waived by an order of the court permitting the petitioner to continue prosecution of the petition without payment. The county treasurer shall, upon request of the petitioner, issue duplicate receipts for the tax payment, one of which shall be filed by the petitioner in the proceeding.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 302A.901, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [SERVICE ON SECRETARY OF STATE, WHEN PERMITTED.] If a corporation has appointed and maintained a registered agent in this state but neither its registered agent nor an officer of the corporation can be found at the registered office, or if a corporation fails to appoint or maintain a registered agent in this state and an officer of the corporation cannot be found at the registered office, then the secretary of state is the agent of the corporation upon whom the process, notice, or demand may be served. The return of the sheriff, or the affidavit of a person not a party, that no registered agent or officer can be found at the registered office in a county is conclusive evidence that the corporation has no registered agent or officer at its registered office. Service on the secretary of state of any process, notice, or demand is deemed personal service upon the corporation and shall be made by filing with the secretary of state duplicate copies of the process, notice, or demand. The secretary of state shall immediately forward, by ~~registered~~ certified mail, addressed to the corporation at its registered office, a copy of the process, notice, or demand. Service on the secretary of state is returnable in not less than 30 days notwithstanding a shorter period specified in the process, notice, or demand.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 303.07, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ANNUAL FEE.] The secretary of state shall collect an annual license fee from each foreign corporation holding a certificate of authority to transact business in this state. A foreign corporation shall pay $15 per $100,000 or fraction thereof of its Minnesota taxable net income for the last taxable year ending prior to the payment of the fee. If the taxable year ended less than 75 days before the date the fee is received by the secretary of state, the taxable net income from the preceding taxable year shall determine the fee. In no event shall the annual license fee be less than $30. The corporation shall pay this fee by April 1 of each year.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 303.13, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

(2) When any foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state fails to appoint or maintain in this state a registered agent upon whom service of process may be had, or whenever any registered agent cannot be found at its registered office in this state, as shown by the return of the sheriff of the county in which the registered office is situated, or whenever any corporation withdraws from the state, or whenever the certificate of authority of any foreign corporation is revoked or canceled, service may be made by delivering to and leaving with the secretary of state, or with any deputy or clerk in the corporation department of his office, three copies thereof and a fee of $10 $15; provided, that after a foreign corporation withdraws from the state, pursuant to section 303.16, service upon the corporation may be made pursuant to the provisions of this section only when based upon a liability or obligation of the corporation incurred within this state or arising out of any business done in this state by the corporation prior to the issuance of a certificate of withdrawal.

(3) If a foreign corporation makes a contract with a resident of Minnesota to be performed in whole or in part by either party in Minnesota, or if a foreign corporation commits a tort in whole or in part in Minnesota against a resident of Minnesota, such acts shall be deemed to be doing business in Minnesota by the foreign corporation and shall be deemed equivalent to the appointment by the foreign corporation of the secretary of the state of Minnesota and his successors to be its true and lawful attorney upon whom may be served all lawful process in any actions or proceedings against the foreign corporation arising from or growing out of the contract or tort. Process shall be served in duplicate upon the secretary of state, together with a fee of $10 $15 and the secretary of state shall mail one copy thereof to the corporation at its last known address, and the corporation shall have 20 days within which to answer from the date of the mailing, notwithstanding any other provision of the law. The making of the contract or the committing of the tort shall be deemed to be the agreement of the foreign corporation that any process against it which is so served upon the secretary of state shall be of the same legal force and effect as if served personally on it within the state of Minnesota.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 303.14, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

(3) Based on current year tax data reported in the abstracts of tax lists, the commissioner of revenue shall annually determine the taxing district distribution of the amounts certified under clause (2). On or before July 15, 1981, and each year thereafter, the commissioner of revenue shall pay to each taxing district, other than school districts, one-sixth of its total payment for the year. The remaining five-sixths shall be paid in equal installments on or before August 15, September 15, October 15, November 15, and December 15, 1981, and each year thereafter. the extent that such amounts resulted in a reduction of the tax imposed by this chapter.

(e) Modification in computing taxable income of the estate of a decedent. Amounts allowable under section 291.07, subdivision 1, clause (2) in computing Minnesota inheritance or estate tax liability shall not be allowed as a deduction (or as an offset against the sales price of property in determining gain or loss) in computing the taxable income of the estate or any person unless there is filed within the time and in the manner and form prescribed by the commissioner a statement that the amounts have not been allowed as a deduction under section 291.07 and a waiver of the right to have the amounts allowed at any time as deductions under section 291.07. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply with respect to deductions allowed under section 290.077 (relating to income in respect of decedents). In the event that the election made for federal tax purposes under section 642(g) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 differs from the election made under this paragraph appropriate modification of the estate's federal taxable income shall be made to implement the election made under this paragraph in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2e. [INTERMITTENT ADDITIONAL INCOME TAX.] (a) In addition to the tax computed pursuant to subdivisions 2c and 2d or subdivision 3d, there is hereby imposed an additional income tax on individuals, estates, and trusts, other than those taxable as corporations. The additional tax shall be computed by applying the rate determined by the commissioner pursuant to clause (b) to the tax computed pursuant to subdivision 3d or, in the case of an individual who does not qualify for the low income alternative tax and estates and trusts, the tax computed pursuant to subdivisions 2c and 2d and sections 290.032 and 290.091 less the credits allowed by sections 290.06, subdivisions 3e, 3f, 9, 9a, 11 and 14; and 290.081. This tax shall not be imposed for taxable years beginning during a calendar year in which the commissioner of finance determines pursuant to clause (b) that the state's unrestricted general fund balance at the close of the biennium will equal or exceed $50 million.

(b) On November 10 of each year the commissioner of finance shall determine, according to his best estimate, the amount of the state's unrestricted general fund balance at the close of the current biennium. If this amount is less than $50 million, the commissioner of finance shall certify to the commissioner the amount of additional revenue necessary to end the biennium with an unrestricted general fund balance of $50 million. The commissioner shall determine the rate of additional tax for taxable years beginning during the current calendar year which is necessary to provide sufficient moneys to end the biennium with an unrestricted general fund balance of $50 million. The resulting rate shall be imposed pursuant to clause (a).

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.09, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [INTEREST.] (a) All interest paid or accrued within the taxable year on indebtedness, except as hereinafter provided.

(b) Interest paid or accrued within the taxable year on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry obligations or securities the income from which is excludable from gross income under sections 290.01, subdivision 20 or 290.08, or shares of a regulated investment company which during the taxable year of the holder thereof distributes Minnesota exempt-interest dividends as defined in section 290.01, subdivision 27, or on indebtedness described in section 264(a)(2) and (3), (b) and (c) (relating to life insurance) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980 shall not be allowed as a deduction.

(c) If personal property or educational services are purchased under a contract the provisions of section 163(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980 shall apply.

(d) A cash-basis taxpayer may elect to deduct interest as it accrues on a reverse mortgage loan as defined in section 47.58, subdivision 1, rather than when it is actually paid. This election must be made, if at all, in the first taxable year in which it is available to the cash-basis taxpayer and, if made, shall be binding on the taxpayer for each subsequent taxable year until maturity of the loan.

(e) In the case of a taxpayer other than a corporation, the amount of interest on investment indebtedness allowable as a deduction shall be allowed and limited as set forth in section 163(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980. The limitation prescribed in section 163(d)(1)(A) for married individuals who file separate returns shall also apply to married individuals who file separately on one return.

(f) A taxpayer may not deduct interest on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry obligations or shares, or to make deposits or other investments, the interest on which is described in section 116(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980 to the extent such interest is excludable from gross income under section 116 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1980. Interest and carrying costs in the case of straddles shall be treated as provided in section 263(g) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through October 2, 1981.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.09, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [TAXES.] Taxes paid or accrued within the taxable year, except (a) income or franchise taxes imposed by this chapter and income or franchise taxes paid to any other state or to any province or territory of Canada for which a credit is allowed under section 290.081; (b) taxes assessed against local benefits of a kind deemed in law to increase the value of the property assessed; (c) inheritance, gift and estate taxes except as provided in section 290.077, subdivision 4; (d) cigarette and tobacco products excise tax imposed on the consumer; (e) that part of Minnesota property taxes for which a credit or refund is claimed and allowed under chapter 290A; (f) federal income taxes (including the windfall profit tax on domestic crude oil); by corporations, national and state banks; (g) mortgage registry tax; (h) real estate transfer tax; (i) federal telephone tax; (j) federal transportation tax; and (k) excise taxes paid on gasoline and special fuels; (l) tax paid by any corporation or national or state bank to any foreign country or possession of the United States to the extent that a credit against federal income taxes is allowed under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980. If the taxpayer's foreign tax credit consists of both foreign taxes deemed paid and foreign taxes actually paid or withheld, it will be conclusively presumed that foreign taxes deemed paid were first used by the taxpayer in its foreign tax credit. Minnesota gross income shall include the amount of foreign tax paid which had been allowed as a deduction in a previous year, provided such foreign tax is later allowed as a credit against federal income tax. Taxes imposed upon a shareholder's interest in a corporation which are paid by the corporation without reimbursement from the shareholder shall be deductible only by such corporation.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.09, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [DEPRECIATION.] (A) [CUMULATIVE DEPRECIATION.] (a) There shall be allowed as a depreciation deduction a reasonable allowance for the exhaustion, wear and tear (including a reasonable allowance for obsolescence):

- (1) of property used in the trade or business, or
- (2) of property held for the production of income.

(b) The term "reasonable allowance" as used in clause (a) shall include (but shall not be limited to) an allowance computed in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner, under any of the following methods:

- (1) the straight line method.
- (2) the declining balance method, using a rate not exceeding twice the rate which would have been used had the annual allowance been computed under the method described in paragraph (1).
- (3) the sum of the years-digits method, and
- (4) any other consistent method productive of an annual allowance, which, when added to all allowances for the period commencing with the taxpayer's use of the property and including the taxable year, does not, during the first two-thirds of the useful life of the property, exceed the total of such allowances which would have been used had such allowances been computed under the method described in (2). Nothing in this clause (b) shall be construed to limit or reduce an allowance otherwise allowable under clause (a).

For purposes of this subdivision "reasonable allowance" shall not include the accelerated cost recovery system provisions of section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through October 2, 1981, unless specifically authorized by legislation enacted after the final enactment of this section.

(c) Paragraphs (2), (3), and (4) of clause (b) shall apply only in the case of property (other than intangible property) described in clause (a) with a useful life of three years or more.

(1) the construction, reconstruction, or erection of which is completed after December 31, 1958, and then only to that portion of the basis which is properly attributable to such construction, reconstruction, or erection after December 31, 1958, or

- (2) acquired after December 31, 1958, if the original use of such property commenced with the taxpayer and commences after such date.

(d) Where, under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, the taxpayer and the commissioner have, after June 30, 1959, entered into an agreement in writing specifically dealing with the useful life and rate of depreciation of any property, the rate so agreed upon shall be binding on both the taxpayer and the commissioner in the absence of facts or circumstances not taken into consideration in the adoption of such agreement. The responsibility of establishing the existence of such facts and circumstances shall rest with the party initiating the modification. Any change in the agreed rate and useful life specified in the agreement shall not be effective for taxable years before the taxable year in which notice in writing by certified mail is served by the party to the agreement initiating such change.

(e) In the absence of an agreement under clause (d) containing a provision to the contrary, a taxpayer may at any time elect in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner to change from the method of depreciation prescribed in clause (b) (2) to the method described in clause (b) (1).

(f) The basis on which exhaustion, wear and tear, and obsolescence are to be allowed in respect of any property shall be the adjusted basis provided in sections 290.131 to 290.139, 290.14 and 290.15 for the purpose of determining the gain on the sale or other disposition of such property.

(g) In the case of property held by one person for life with remainder to another person, the deduction shall be computed as if the life tenant were the absolute owner of the property and shall be allowed to the life tenant. In the case of property held in trust the allowable deduction shall be apportioned between the income beneficiary and the trustee in accordance with the pertinent provisions of the instrument creating the trust, or, in the absence of such provisions, on the basis of the trust income allocable to each. In the case of an estate, the allowable deduction shall be apportioned between the estate and the heirs, legatees, and devisees on the basis of the income of the estate allocable to each.

(h) In the case of buildings or other structures or improvements constructed or made on leased premises by a lessee, and the fixtures and machinery therein installed, the lessee alone shall be entitled to the allowance of this deduction.

(B) [FIRST YEAR DEPRECIATION.] (a) In the case of section 1 property, the term "reasonable allowance" as used in subdivision 7, may, at the election of the taxpayer, include an allowance, for the first taxable year for which a deduction is allowable under subdivision 7, to the taxpayer with respect to such property, of 20 percent of the cost of such property.

(b) If in any one taxable year the cost of section 1 property with respect to which the taxpayer may elect an allowance under (a) for such taxable year exceeds $10,000, then (a) shall apply with respect to those items selected by the taxpayer, but only to the extent of an aggregate cost of $10,000. In the case of a husband and wife who file a joint return under section 290.38 for the taxable year, the limitation under the preceding sentence shall be $20,000 in lieu of $10,000.

(c) (1) The election under this subdivision for any taxable year shall be made within the time prescribed by law (including extensions thereof) for filing the return for such taxable year. The election shall be made in such manner as the commissioner may by regulations prescribe.

(2) Any election made under this subdivision may not be revoked except with the consent of the commissioner.

(d) (1) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "Section 1 property" means tangible personal property (excluding buildings and structures)

(A) of a character subject to the allowance for depreciation under subdivision 7.

(B) acquired by purchase after December 31, 1958, for use in a trade or business or for holding for production of income, and

(C) with a useful life (determined at the time of such acquisition) of six years or more.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), the term "purchase" means any acquisition of property, but only if

(A) the property is not acquired from a person whose relationship to the person acquiring it would result in the disallowance of losses under section 290.10(6),

(B) the property is not acquired by one component member of a controlled group from another component member of the same controlled group, and

(C) the basis of the property in the hands of the person acquiring it is not determined

(i) in whole or in part by reference to the adjusted basis of such property in the hands of the person from whom acquired, or

(ii) under section 290.14(4) (relating to property acquired from a decedent).

(3) For purposes of this subdivision, the cost of property does not include so much of the basis of such property as is determined by reference to the basis of other property held at any time by the person acquiring such property.

(4) This subdivision shall not apply to trusts.

(5) In the case of an estate, any amount apportioned to an heir, legatee, or devisee shall not be taken into account in applying (B) of this subdivision to section 1 property of such heir, legatee, or devisee not held by such estate.

(6) For purposes of (B) of this subdivision

(A) all component members of a controlled group shall be treated as one taxpayer, and

(B) the commissioner shall apportion the dollar limitation contained in such (B) among the component members of such controlled group in such manner as he shall by regulations prescribe.

(7) For purposes of paragraphs (2) and (6), the term "controlled group" has the meaning assigned to it by section 1563(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979, except that, for such purposes, the phrase "more than 50 percent" shall be substituted for the phrase "at least 80 percent" each place it appears in section 1563(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.18, Subdivision

4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [TAXABLE NET INCOME ADJUSTMENT FACTOR.] For the taxable year beginning after December 31, 1980 and ending before January 1, 1982, the commissioner of revenue shall adjust taxable net income by multiplying the taxable net income of each individual, estate and trust by a fraction, the numerator of which is one plus the predicted rate of growth in average Minnesota gross income between tax year 1980 and tax year 1981. The denominator of the adjustment fraction shall be one plus the product of (a) the predicted rate of growth in average Minnesota gross income as determined above, and (b) the difference between the ratio of Minnesota gross income to Minnesota adjusted gross income and the product of the ratio of federal taxes paid to Minnesota adjusted gross income and an estimate of average federal income tax elasticity relating percent changes in federal adjusted gross income to percent changes in net federal income tax liabilities.

For each taxable year beginning after December 31, 1981, the commissioner of revenue shall adjust taxable net income by multiplying the taxable net income of each individual, estate, and trust by an adjustment factor determined by multiplying the previous year's adjustment factor by the current year adjustment factor as defined above using data appropriate to the current year.

The data used shall reflect the most current aggregate tax statistics collected and tabulated by the department of revenue. The estimate of the percentage increase in Minnesota gross income shall be based on the best available data sources and reasonable forecasting procedures. The estimate of federal income tax elasticity shall reflect the best available sources of information, including the judgment of the United States Internal Revenue Service and the United States Treasury, Office of Tax Analysis. The determination of the commissioner pursuant to this section shall not be considered a "rule" and shall not be subject to the administrative procedures act contained in chapter 15.

No later than October 1 of each tax year, the commissioner shall announce the adjustment factor to be applied to taxable net income, including its separate components, and the estimate of federal elasticity.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.53, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FAILURE TO PAY TAX.] If any tax imposed by this chapter is not paid within the time herein specified for the payment thereof, or within 30 days after final determination of an appeal to the tax court relating thereto if the taxpayer is not required to pay the amount in dispute pending appeal under section 11, there shall be added thereto a specific penalty equal to ten percent of the amount so remaining unpaid. Such penalty shall be collected as part of said tax, and the amount of said tax not timely paid, together with said penalty shall bear interest at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the time such tax should have been paid until paid. Interest accruing upon the tax due as disclosed by the return or upon the amount determined as a deficiency from the date prescribed for the payment of the tax (if the tax is payable in installments, from the date the installment or installments become due and payable under the provisions of section 290.45, subdivision 1) shall be added to the tax and be collected as a part thereof. Where an extension of time for payment has been granted under section 290.45, subdivision 2, interest shall be paid at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the date when such payment should have been made if no extension had been granted, until such tax is paid. If payment is not made at the expiration of the extended period the penalties provided in this section shall apply.

Sec. 11. [290.531] [PAYMENT OF TAX PENDING APPEAL.]

When a taxpayer appeals his tax liability under chapter 290 to the tax court, and the amount in dispute is more than $4,000, the entire amount of the tax shall be paid at the time it is due unless permission to continue prosecution of the petition without payment is obtained as provided herein. The petitioner, upon ten days notice to the commissioner, may apply to the court for permission to continue prosecution of the petition without payment; and, if it is made to appear

(1) That the proposed review is to be taken in good faith;

(2) That there is probable cause to believe that the taxpayer may be held exempt from the tax or that the tax may be determined to be less than 50 percent of the amount due; and

the court may permit the petitioner to continue prosecution of the petition without payment, or may fix a lesser amount to be paid as a condition of continuing the prosecution of the petition.

Failure to make payment of the amount required when due shall operate automatically to dismiss the petition and all proceedings thereunder unless the payment is waived by an order of the court permitting the petitioner to continue prosecution of the petition without payment.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 297.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [ADDITIONAL TAX.] In addition to the tax imposed pursuant to subdivision 1, there is imposed a tax upon the sale of cigarettes in this state or having cigarettes in possession in this state with intent to sell and upon any person engaged in business as a distributor thereof, at the following rates, subject to the discount provided in section 297.03:

(1) On cigarettes weighing not more than three pounds per thousand, 2.5 mills on each cigarette;

(2) On cigarettes weighing more than three pounds per thousand, 2.5 mills on each cigarette.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 297.13, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

297.13 [REVENUE, DISPOSAL.]

Subdivision 1. [CIGARETTE TAX APPORTIONMENT ACCOUNT.] Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, five and one-half percent of the revenues received from taxes, penalties and interest under sections 297.01 to 297.13 except for that which is paid under section 297.02, subdivision 1a, shall be deposited by the commissioner of revenue in the general fund and credited to a special account to be known as the "natural resources account," which is hereby created. Expenditures shall be made from said account only as may be authorized by law to carry out the provisions of this act and in conformance with the provisions of chapter 16. Five and one-half percent except for that which is paid under section 297.02, subdivision 1a, shall be deposited in the general fund and credited to the "natural resources acceleration" account for the purposes provided in Laws 1969, Chapter 879, Section 4. The balance of the revenues derived from taxes, penalties, and interest under sections 297.01 to 297.13 and from license fees and miscellaneous sources of revenue shall be deposited by the commissioner in the general fund and credited to the general fund.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 297.22, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [ADDITIONAL TAX.] In addition to the tax imposed pursuant to subdivision 1, there is imposed a tax upon the use or storage by consumers of cigarettes in this state, and upon such consumers, at the following rates:

(1) On cigarettes weighing not more than three pounds per thousand; 2.5 mills on each cigarette;

(2) On cigarettes weighing more than three pounds per thousand, 2.5 mills on each cigarette.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 297.26, is amended to read:

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 297A.39, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. If any tax imposed by sections 297A.01 to 297A.44, or any portion thereof, is not paid within the time herein specified for the payment, or an extension thereof, or within 30 days after final determination of an appeal to the tax court relating thereto if the taxpayer is not required to pay the amount in dispute pending appeal under section 17, there shall be added thereto a specific penalty equal to ten percent of the amount remaining unpaid.

Sec. 17. [297A.391] [PAYMENT OF TAX PENDING APPEAL.]

When a taxpayer appeals his tax liability under chapter 297A to the tax court, and the amount in dispute is more than $4,000, the entire amount of the tax shall be paid at the time it is due unless permission to continue prosecution of the petition without payment is obtained as provided herein. The petitioner, upon ten days notice to the commissioner, may apply to the court for permission to continue prosecution of the petition without payment; and, if it is made to appear

(1) That the proposed review is to be taken in good faith;

(2) That there is probable cause to believe that the taxpayer may be held exempt from payment of the tax or that the tax may be determined to be less than

50 percent of the amount due; and

(3) That it would work a substantial hardship upon petitioner to pay the tax, the court may permit the petitioner to continue prosecution of the petition without payment, or may fix a lesser amount to be paid as a condition of continuing the prosecution of the petition.

Failure to make payment of the amount required when due shall operate automatically to dismiss the petition and all proceedings thereunder unless the payment is waived by an order of the court permitting the petitioner to continue prosecution of the petition without payment.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 477A.03, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LIMITATION ON APPROPRIATION; PROPORTIONATE REDUCTION.] The amount appropriated under subdivision 1 shall not exceed $270,725,464 $245,725,464 for calendar year 1982 and shall not exceed $293,561,978 for calendar year 1983. If the limitations contained in this subdivision result in a reduction in the amounts determined pursuant to sections 477A.012 and 477A.013, each governmental unit receiving local government aid shall have its distribution proportionally reduced, but no local government unit shall receive less aid than its previous year aid.

Sec. 19. [PRORATION OF 1982 AID PAYMENTS.]

Notwithstanding the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 477A or any other law to the contrary, the reduction in state aids payable to local governments required under section 18 shall be effected by providing a pro rata reduction of the aids that would have been paid to each county and municipality under the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Sections 477A.011 to 477A.014 if there had been no such reduction.

Sec. 20. [PROPERTY TAX REFUND REDUCTION.]

For claims filed in 1982 based upon rent paid in 1981, the commissioner of revenue shall pay 92 percent of the credits allowable under section 290A.04, subdivisions 1, 2, and 2a. For purposes of this section, the commissioner shall not reduce the property tax refund of a claimant who is disabled or who had attained the age of 65 by June 1 of the year in which the property taxes were payable. The commissioner shall include with each refund a statement that the reduction is made pursuant to this section.

Sec. 21. Laws 1981, First Special Session, Chapter 1, Article I, Section 5, is amended to read:

Sec. 5. [TRANSITIONAL PROVISION.]

Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 1, 2, and 3, for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980 and before January 1, 1982 the inflation adjustment of the income tax brackets, credits, and maximum standard deduction shall be the arithmetic average of (1) the percentage computed pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 290.06, Subdivisions 2d and 3g, and 290.09, Subdivision 15, as applicable and (2) the percentage computed pursuant to section 1 of this article. The taxable net income adjustment factor for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980 and before January 1, 1982 shall be ~~one-half of the amount computed pursuant to section 4 computed as~~

Sec. 22. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 2 is effective for taxes payable in 1982. Sections 3 and 8 are effective the day following final enactment. Section 4 is effective at the same time each of its provisions become effective for federal purposes. Section 5 is effective November 1, 1982. Section 6 is effective for property acquired and positions established after June 23, 1981 in tax years ending after that date. ARTICLE IV

BUSINESS TAXES

Section 1. [STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT.]

The legislature finds that certain provisions of the state income tax law generally applied to corporations produce an inequitable result when applied to major oil companies, allowing those companies to escape taxation on a great proportion of their profits. The legislature further finds that there are at least two causes of this inequity: First, during the last several years, major oil companies have increased both the prices charged for their products and the profits realized from their enterprises by extraordinary amounts, greatly in excess of the price and profit increases of other businesses in this state, resulting in an enormous outflow of public and private capital from the state. Second, the complexity of structure of most major oil companies, together with certain tax shelter provisions currently used on a grand scale by the companies, allows major oil companies to be taxed on only a very small proportion of their profits. Because the primary objective of the income tax law is to raise essential government revenues by fairly distributing the tax burden among taxpayers, it is declared that certain changes in the income tax law, as they apply to major oil companies, must be effected in order that those companies will bear a fair and equitable share of the statewide tax burden.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 28. [MAJOR OIL COMPANY.] The term "major oil company" means a corporation which is engaged in all of the following activities: (1) the extraction or production of crude oil in excess of an average of 100,000 barrels of crude oil per day; (2) the refining of crude oil in excess of an average of 100,000 barrels of crude oil per day; and (3) the marketing or distribution for marketing in this state of gasoline, motor fuel, fuel oil, and similar products from the refining or manufacture of crude oil. A major oil company includes a parent corporation and the subsidiaries of a company engaging in a unitary business if the parent itself or through one or more of its subsidiaries individually or collectively comes within the definition of a major oil company and markets or distributes petroleum or petroleum products in Minnesota. In the case of a major oil company that includes a subsidiary or parent as described in the preceding sentence in its unitary business operation, the company shall be required to file a combined or consolidated report showing the combined net income of those companies and other information deemed necessary. The tax on those corporations shall be assessed against either of the corporations whose net income is involved in the report upon the basis of the combined entire net income and other information received in order to accurately reflect the net income earned by the corporation or corporations from business done in this state. For purposes of this subdivision, a subsidiary is a corporation in which the parent owns not less than 50 percent of its voting stock, and whose business activities include the production, refining or marketing of crude petroleum or petroleum products; and a company engaging in a unitary business is a group of two or more corporations having some degree of common ownership, each of which is engaged in related business activities.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.09, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LIMITATIONS.] (a) Except as provided in clause (b), the following deductions from gross income shall be allowed in computing net income, provided that any item which was deducted in arriving at gross income under the provisions of section 290.01, subdivision 20, shall not be again deducted under this section.

Property taxes may not be deducted under this section if

(1) The taxes are attributable to a trade or business carried on by an individual, or

(2) The taxes are expenses for the production of income which are paid or incurred by an individual; and which are not allowed as a deduction under section 164 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980.

(b) No current deduction for expenses for intangible drilling and development costs, as provided under section 263(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980, may be claimed by a major oil company. Any intangible drilling and development costs incurred in connection with a well may be capitalized over the life of the well and deducted as cost depletion, depreciation, or loss, as appropriate, under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.091, is amended to read:

290.091 [MINIMUM TAX ON PREFERENCE ITEMS.]

In addition to all other taxes imposed by this chapter there is hereby imposed, a tax which, in the case of a resident individual, shall be equal to 40 percent of the amount of the taxpayer's minimum tax liability for tax preference items pursuant to the provisions of sections 55 to 58 and 443(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1980 except that for purposes of the tax imposed by this section, capital gain as defined in section 57(a) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not include that portion of any gain occasioned by sale, transfer or the granting of a perpetual easement pursuant to any eminent domain proceeding or threat thereof as described in section 290.13, subdivision 5. This modification shall apply to the years in which the gain or reduction in loss is actually included in federal adjusted gross income even though amounts received pursuant to the eminent domain proceedings were received in prior years. In the case of a taxpayer other than a corporation, an amount equal to one-half of the net capital gain for the taxable year shall be used as the definition of capital gain in place of the deduction determined under section 1202 of the Internal Revenue Code. In the case of a resident individual, having preference items which could not be taken to reduce income from sources outside the state pursuant to section 290.17, subdivision 1, or any other taxpayer the tax shall equal 40 percent of that federal liability, multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the amount of the taxpayer's preference item income allocated to this state pursuant to the provisions of sections 290.17 to 290.20, and the denominator of which is the taxpayer's total preference item income for federal purposes. In the case of a major oil company, any amount deducted for depletion for federal tax purposes but not deductible for state tax purposes pursuant to section 290.09, subdivision 1, clause (b) shall not be considered a tax preference item.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.17, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [OTHER TAXPAYERS.] In the case of taxpayers not subject to the provisions of subdivision 1, items of gross income shall be assigned to this state or other states or countries in accordance with the following principles:

(1) The entire income of all resident or domestic taxpayers from compensation for labor or personal services, or from a business consisting principally of the performance of personal or professional services, shall be assigned to this state, and the income of nonresident taxpayers from such sources shall be assigned to this state if, and to the extent that, the labor or services are performed within it; all other income from such sources shall be treated as income from sources without this state;

(2) Income from the operation of a farm shall be assigned to this state if the farm is located within this state and to other states only if the farm is not located in this state. Income and gains received from tangible property not employed in the business of the recipient of such income or gains, and from tangible property employed in the business of such recipient if such business consists principally of the holding of such property and the collection of the income and gains therefrom, shall be assigned to this state if such property has a situs within it, and to other states only if it has no situs in this state. Income or gains from intangible personal property not employed in the business of the recipient of such income or gains, and from intangible personal property employed in the business of such recipient if such business consists principally of the holding of such property and the collection of the income and gains therefrom, wherever held, whether in trust, or otherwise, shall be assigned to this state if the recipient thereof is domiciled within this state; income or gains from intangible personal property wherever held, whether in trust or otherwise shall be assigned to this state if the recipient of such income or gains is domiciled within this state, or if the grantor of any trust is domiciled within this state and such income or gains would be taxable to such grantor under section 290.25 or 290.29;

(3) Income derived from carrying on a trade or business, including in the case of a business owned by natural persons the income imputable to the owner for his services and the use of his property therein, shall be assigned to this state if the trade or business is conducted wholly within this state, and to other states if conducted wholly without this state. This provision shall not apply to business income subject to the provisions of clause (1);

(4) When a trade or business is carried on partly within and partly without this state, the entire income derived from such trade or business, including income from intangible property employed in such business and including, in the case of a business owned by natural persons, the income imputable to the owner for his services and the use of his property therein, shall be governed, except as otherwise provided in sections 290.35 and 290.36, by the provisions of section 290.19, notwithstanding any provisions of this section to the contrary. This shall not apply to business income subject to the provisions of clause (1), nor shall it apply to income from the operation of a farm which is subject to the provisions of clause (2). For the purposes of this clause, a trade or business located in Minnesota is carried on partly within and partly without this state if tangible personal property is sold by such trade or business and delivered or shipped to a purchaser located outside the state of Minnesota.

In determining whether or not intangible property is employed in a unitary business carried on partly within and partly without this state so that income derived therefrom is subject to apportionment under section 290.19 the following rules and guidelines shall apply.

(a) Intangible property is employed in a business if the business entity owning intangible property holds it as a means of furthering the business operation of which a part is located within the territorial confines of this state.

(b) Where a business operation conducted in Minnesota, is owned by a business entity which carries on business activity outside of the state different in kind from that conducted within this state, and such other business is conducted entirely outside the state, it will be presumed that the two business operations are unitary in nature, interrelated, connected and interdependent unless it can be shown to the contrary.

(5) In the case of a nonresident who is liable for payment of a penalty for having withdrawn funds from an individual housing account established pursuant to section 290.08, subdivision 25, the amount so withdrawn and for which a deduction was allowed shall be an item of income assignable to this state, and the penalty tax of ten percent shall remain an additional liability of that taxpayer.

(6) For purposes of this section, amounts received by a non-resident from the United States, its agencies or instrumentalities, the Federal Reserve Bank, the state of Minnesota or any of its political or governmental subdivisions, or a Minnesota volunteer fireman's relief association, by way of payment as a pension, public employee retirement benefit, or any combination thereof, or as a retirement or survivor's benefit made from a plan qualifying under section 401, 403, 404, 405, 408, 409 or 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979, are not considered income derived from carrying on a trade or business or from performing personal or professional services in Minnesota, and are not taxable under this chapter.

(7) All other items of gross income shall be assigned to the taxpayer's domicile.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.21, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. (a) 85 percent of dividends received by a corporation during the taxable year from another corporation, when the corporate stock with respect to which dividends are paid does not constitute the stock in trade of the taxpayer or would not be included in the inventory of the taxpayer, or does not constitute property held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of his trade or business, or when the trade or business of the taxpayer does not consist principally of the holding of the stocks and the collection of the income and gains therefrom. The remaining 15 percent shall be allowed if the recipient owns 80 percent or more of all the voting stock of such other corporation, and the dividends were paid from income arising out of business done in this state by the corporation paying such dividends; but if the income out of which the dividends are declared was derived from business done within and without this state, then so much of the remainder shall be allowed as a deduction as the amount of the taxable net income of the corporation paying the dividends assignable or allocable to this state bears to the entire net income of the corporation, such rate being determined by the returns under this chapter of the corporation paying such dividends for the taxable year preceding the distribution thereof; the burden shall be on the taxpayer of showing that the amount of remainder claimed as a deduction has been received from income arising out of business done in this state,

(b) if the trade or business of the taxpayer consists principally of the holding of the stocks and the collection of the income and gains therefrom, dividends received by a corporation during the taxable year from another corporation, if the recipient owns 80 percent or more of all the voting stock of such other corporation, from income arising out of business done in this state by the corporation paying such dividends; but, if the income out of which the dividends are declared was derived from business done within and without this state, then so much of the dividends shall be allowed as deduction as the amount of the taxable net income of the corporation paying the dividends assignable or allocable to this state bears to the entire net income of the corporation, such rate being determined by the returns under this chapter of the corporation paying such dividends for the taxable year preceding the distribution thereof. The burden shall be on the taxpayer of showing that the amount of dividends claimed as a deduction has been received from income arising out of business done in this state.

(c) The dividend deduction provided in this subdivision shall be allowed only with respect to dividends that are included in a corporation's Minnesota taxable net income for the taxable year.

Sec. 7. [290.181] [DEDUCTION FROM INCOME OF CORPORATIONS AND BANKS.]

If earned and other income of the family is less than need, as determined on the basis of public assistance standards, the county agency shall determine the amount of the grant by applying the disregard of income provisions. The county agency shall not disregard earned income for persons in a family if the total monthly earned and other income exceeds their needs, unless for any one of the four preceding months their needs were met in whole or in part by a grant payment. If an individual without good cause leaves employment or reduces his earnings and applies for assistance so that he might later return to employment with advantages of income disregard, he shall not have the benefit of the disregard of income provisions.

The disregard of $30 and one-third of the remainder of earned income described in clause (5) shall be applied to the individual's income for a period not to exceed four consecutive months. Any month in which the individual loses this disregard because of the provisions of clause (5)(a) to (5)(d) shall be considered as one of the four months. To again qualify for this earned income disregard, the individual must not be a recipient of aid for a period of 12 consecutive months. If an individual becomes ineligible for aid because this earned income disregard has been applied to income for four consecutive months and will no longer be applied to income, the local agency shall inform the individual of the medical assistance program, its standards of eligibility, and the circumstances under which the individual would be eligible for medical assistance.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 256.74, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [STEPPARENT'S INCOME.] In determining income available, the county agency shall take into account the remaining income of the dependent child's stepparent who lives in the same household after disregarding:

(1) The first $75 of the stepparent's gross earned income. The commissioner shall prescribe by rule lesser amounts to be disregarded for stepparents who are not engaged in full-time employment or not employed throughout the month;

(2) An amount for support of the stepparent and any other individuals whom the stepparent claims as dependents for tax purposes and who live in the same household but whose needs are not considered in determining eligibility for assistance under sections 256.72 to 256.87. The amount equals the standard of need for a family of the same composition as the stepparent and these other individuals;

(3) Amounts the stepparent actually paid to individuals not living in the same household but whom the stepparent claims as dependents for tax purposes; and

(4) Alimony or child support, or both, paid by the stepparent for individuals not living in the same household.

Sec. 13. [256.851] [RULES.]

The commissioner of public welfare shall promulgate temporary and permanent rules necessary to implement sections 1 to 20.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 256.872, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [WITHHOLDING ORDER.] Whenever an obligation for support of a dependent child or maintenance of a spouse, or both, has been determined and ordered by a court of this state, the public agency responsible for child support enforcement may move and the district or county court shall grant an order providing for the withholding of the amount of child support or maintenance as determined by court order, from the income, regardless of source of the person obligated to pay the support or maintenance. If the public agency responsible for child support enforcement determines that the obligor's arrearages have accumulated for more than one month, and if the agency is not pursuing another appropriate remedy, the agency shall move the district or county court for an order for withholding under this section or shall document a reason or reasons why withholding would not result in payment being made. "Income" means any form of periodic payments to an individual, including, but not limited to, wages, salary, income as an independent contractor, workers' compensation, unemployment compensation, annuity, military and naval retirement, pension and disability payments.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 256.872, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [PENALTY FOR NONCOMPLIANCE.] If the public agency responsible for child support enforcement fails to make reasonable efforts to comply with this section and sections 518.54 to 518.66 or to show why it cannot comply within four months after receiving notice that the commissioner of public welfare has determined that the agency is not in substantial compliance with this section and sections 518.54 to 518.66, the commissioner may withhold ten percent of the state's share of the difference between the total estimated cost and the federal funds available for payment of aid under sections 256.72 to 256.87 to all persons for which the county is the county of financial responsibility and the county shall pay the ten percent in addition to its usual share of payments, until the public agency complies.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 256.99, is amended to read:

256.99 [REVERSE MORTGAGE PROCEEDS DISREGARDED.]

All reverse mortgage loan proceeds received pursuant to section 47.58, including interest or earnings thereon, shall be disregarded and shall not be considered available to the borrower for purposes of determining initial or continuing eligibility for, or amount of, medical assistance or ~~any other public assistance program~~, Minnesota supplemental assistance, general assistance, general assistance medical care, or a federal or state low interest loan or grant. This section applies regardless of the time elapsed since the loan was made or the disposition of the proceeds.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 256B.06, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Medical assistance may be paid for any person:

(1) Who is eligible for or receiving public assistance, or a woman who is pregnant, as medically verified, and who would be eligible for public assistance if the child had been born and living with the woman, under the aid to families with dependent children program; or

(2) Who is eligible for or receiving supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled; or

(3) Who except for the amount of income or resources would qualify for supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled, or aid to families with dependent children and is in need of medical assistance; or

(4) Who is under 21 years of age and in need of medical care that neither he nor his relatives responsible under sections 256B.01 to 256B.26 are financially able to provide; or

(5) Who is residing in a hospital for treatment of mental disease or tuberculosis and is 65 years of age or older and without means sufficient to pay the per capita hospital charge; and

(6) Who resides in Minnesota, or, if absent from the state, is deemed to be a resident of Minnesota in accordance with the regulations of the state agency; and

(7) Who alone, or together with his spouse, does not own real property other than the homestead. For the purposes of this section, "homestead" means the house owned and occupied by the applicant as his dwelling place, together with the land upon which it is situated and an area no greater than two contiguous lots in a platted or laid out city or town or the smallest parcel allowed under applicable zoning regulations 80 contiguous acres in unplatted land. Occupancy or exemption shall be determined as provided in chapter 510 and applicable law, including continuing exemption by filing notice under section 510.07. Real estate not used as a home may not be retained unless it produces net income applicable to the family's needs or the family is making a continuing effort to sell it at a fair and reasonable price or unless sale of the real estate would net an insignificant amount of income applicable to the family's needs, or unless the commissioner determines that sale of the real estate would cause undue hardship; and

(8) Who individually does not own more than $2,000 in cash or liquid assets, or if a member of a household with two family members (husband and wife, or parent and child), does not own more than $4,000 in cash or liquid assets, plus $200 for each additional legal dependent. When only one spouse resides, or will reside after applying for medical assistance, in a nursing home, or is receiving or will receive alternative care under the alternative care grants program in a county with preadmission screening under section 256B.091, the cash or liquid asset amount for two family members is $10,000. The value of the following shall not be included:

(a) the homestead, and (b) one motor vehicle licensed pursuant to chapter 168 and defined as: (1) passenger automobile, (2) station wagon, (3) motorcycle, (4) motorized bicycle or (5) truck of the weight found in categories A to E, of section 168.013, subdivision 1e; and

(9) Who has or anticipates receiving an annual income not in excess of $2,600 for a single person, or $3,250 for two family members (husband and wife, parent and child, or two siblings), plus $625 for each additional legal dependent, or who has income in excess of these maxima and in the month of application, or during the three months prior to the month of application, incurs expenses for medical care that total more than one-half of the annual excess income in accordance with the regulations of the state agency. In computing income to determine eligibility of persons who are not residents of long term care facilities, the commissioner shall disregard increases in income of social security or supplementary security income recipients due solely to increases required by sections 215(i) and 1617 of the social security act, and shall disregard income of disabled persons that is also disregarded in determining eligibility for supplemental aid under section 256D.37, subdivision 1, unless prohibited by federal law or regulation. If prohibited, the commissioner shall first seek a waiver. In excess income cases, eligibility shall be limited to a period of six months beginning with the first of the month in which these medical obligations are first incurred; and

(10) Who has continuing monthly expenses for medical care that are more than the amount of his excess income, computed on a monthly basis, in which case eligibility may be established before the total income obligation referred to in the preceding paragraph is incurred, and medical assistance payments may be made to cover the monthly unmet medical need. In licensed nursing home and state hospital cases, income over and above that required for justified needs, determined pursuant to a schedule of contributions established by the commissioner of public welfare, is to be applied to the cost of institutional

care. The commissioner of public welfare may establish a schedule of contributions to be made by the spouse of a nursing home resident to the cost of care and shall seek a waiver from federal regulations which establish the amount required to be contributed by either spouse when one spouse is a nursing home resident; and

(11) Who has applied or agrees to apply all proceeds received or receivable by him or his spouse from automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage to the costs of medical care for himself, his spouse, and children. The state agency may require from any applicant or recipient of medical assistance the assignment of any rights accruing under private health care coverage. Any rights or amounts so assigned shall be applied against the cost of medical care paid for under this chapter. Any assignment shall not be effective as to benefits paid or provided under automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage prior to receipt of the assignment by the person or organization providing the benefits.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 256B.07, is amended to read:

256B.07 [EXCEPTIONS IN DETERMINING RESOURCES.]

A local agency may, within the scope of regulations set by the commissioner of public welfare, waive the requirement of liquidation of excess assets when the liquidation would cause undue hardship. Household goods and furniture in use in the home, wearing apparel, insurance policies with cash surrender value not in excess of $1,500 per insured person, personal property used as a regular abode by the applicant or recipient, a prepaid funeral contract not in excess of $750 per person plus accrued interest of not more than $200, and a lot in a burial plot shall not be considered as resources available to meet medical needs.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 518.551, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [SERVICE FEE.] When the public agency responsible for child support enforcement provides child support collection services either to a public assistance recipient or to a party who does not receive public assistance, the public agency may upon written notice to the obligor charge a monthly collection fee equivalent to the full monthly cost to the county of providing collection services, in addition to the amount of the child support which was ordered by the court. The fee shall be deposited in the county general fund. The service fee assessed is limited to ten percent of the monthly court ordered child support and shall not be assessed to obligors who are current in payment of the monthly court ordered child support. No fee shall be imposed on the party who requests child support collection services.

However, the limitations of this subdivision on the assessment of fees shall not apply to the extent inconsistent with the requirements of federal law for receiving funds for the programs under Title IV-A and Title IV-D of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 601 to 613 and 42 U.S.C. 651 to 662.

Sec. 20. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 256.935, Subdivision 2 and Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 257.021, are repealed.

Sec. 21. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 20 are effective on the first day of the first month immediately following adjournment of the third special session of the legislature commenced in 1981."

All money heretofore arising from the provisions of this section or similar law shall be transferred to this special compensation fund. Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 256B.06, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Medical assistance may be paid for any person:

(1) Who is eligible for or receiving public assistance under the aid to families with dependent children program; or

(2) Who is eligible for or receiving supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled; or

(3) Who except for the amount of income or resources would qualify for supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled, or aid to families with dependent children and is in need of medical assistance; or

(4) Who is under 21 years of age and in need of medical care that neither he nor his relatives responsible under sections 256B.01 to 256B.26 are financially able to provide; or

(5) Who is residing in a hospital for treatment of mental disease or tuberculosis and is 65 years of age or older and without means sufficient to pay the per capita hospital charge; and

(6) Who resides in Minnesota, or, if absent from the state, is deemed to be a resident of Minnesota in accordance with the regulations of the state agency; and

(7) Who alone, or together with his spouse, does not own real property other than the homestead. For the purposes of this section, "homestead" means the house owned and occupied by the applicant as his dwelling place, together with the land upon which it is situated and an area no greater than two contiguous lots in a platted or laid out city or town or the smallest parcel allowed under applicable zoning regulations in unplatted land. Real estate not used as a home may not be retained unless it produces net income applicable to the family's needs or the family is making a continuing effort to sell it at a fair and reasonable price or unless sale of the real estate would net an insignificant amount of income applicable to the family's needs, or unless the commissioner determines that sale of the real estate would cause undue hardship; and

(8) Who individually does not own more than $2,000 in cash or liquid assets, or if a member of a household with two family members (husband and wife, or parent and child), does not own more than $4,000 in cash or liquid assets, plus $200 for each additional legal dependent. ~~When only one spouse resides, or will reside after applying for medical assistance, in a nursing home, or is receiving or will receive alternative care under the alternative care grants program in a county with preadmission screening under section 256B.091, the cash or liquid asset amount for two family members is $10,000.~~ The value of the following shall not be included:

(a) the homestead, and (b) one motor vehicle licensed pursuant to chapter 168 and defined as: (1) passenger automobile, (2) station wagon, (3) motorcycle, (4) motorized bicycle or (5) truck of the weight found in categories A to E, of section 168.013, subdivision 1e; and

wife, parent and child, or two siblings), plus $625 for each additional legal dependent, or who has income in excess of these maxima and in the month of application, or during the three months prior to the month of application, incurs expenses for medical care that total more than one-half of the annual excess income in accordance with the regulations of the state agency. In computing income to determine eligibility of persons who are not residents of long term care facilities, the commissioner shall disregard increases in income of social security or supplementary security income recipients due solely to increases required by sections 215(i) and 1617 of the social security act, and shall disregard income of disabled persons that is also disregarded in determining eligibility for supplemental aid under section 256D.37, subdivision 1, unless prohibited by federal law or regulation. If prohibited, the commissioner shall first seek a waiver. In excess income cases, eligibility shall be limited to a period of six months beginning with the first of the month in which these medical obligations are first incurred; and

(10) Who has continuing monthly expenses for medical care that are more than the amount of his excess income, computed on a monthly basis, in which case eligibility may be established before the total income obligation referred to in the preceding paragraph is incurred, and medical assistance payments may be made to cover the monthly unmet medical need. In licensed nursing home and state hospital cases, income over and above that required for justified needs, determined pursuant to a schedule of contributions established by the commissioner of public welfare, is to be applied to the cost of institutional care. The commissioner of public welfare may establish a schedule of contributions to be made by the spouse of a nursing home resident to the cost of care and shall seek a waiver from federal regulations which establish the amount required to be contributed by either spouse when one spouse is a nursing home resident; and

(11) Who has applied or agrees to apply all proceeds received or receivable by him or his spouse from automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage to the costs of medical care for himself, his spouse, and children. The state agency may require from any applicant or recipient of medical assistance the assignment of any rights accruing under private health care coverage. Any rights or amounts so assigned shall be applied against the cost of medical care paid for under this chapter. Any assignment shall not be effective as to benefits paid or provided under automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage prior to receipt of the assignment by the person or organization providing the benefits.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 268.16, Subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COLLECTION.] (1) If, after due notice, any employer defaults in any payment of contributions or interest due thereon or penalties for failure to file returns and other reports as and when required by the provisions of sections 268.03 to 268.24 or by any rule or regulation of the commissioner, the amount due shall be collected by civil action in the name of the state of Minnesota, and any money recovered on account thereof shall be credited to the funds provided for under the provisions of these sections. This remedy shall be in addition to such other remedies as may be herein provided or otherwise provided by law, and the employer adjudged in default shall pay the costs of such the action. Civil actions brought under this section to collect contributions, interest due

No action for the collection of contributions or interest thereon shall be commenced more than four years after the contributions have been reported by the employer or determined by the commissioner to be due and payable. In any action herein provided for, judgment shall be entered against any defendant in default for want of answer or demurrer, for the relief demanded in the complaint without proof, together with costs and disbursements, upon the filing of an affidavit of default.

No action shall be commenced for the collection of contributions with respect to wages paid for services performed prior to the effective date of a subsequent provision of law enacted prior to July 1, 1941, excluding ~~such the~~ service from coverage under sections 268.03 to 268.24.

(2) Any employing unit which is not a resident of this state and which exercises the privilege of having one or more individuals perform service for it within this state, and any resident employing unit which exercises that privilege and thereafter removes from this state, shall be deemed thereby to appoint the secretary of state as its agent and attorney for the acceptance of process in any civil action under this subdivision. In instituting ~~such an~~ action against ~~any such the~~ employing unit the commissioner shall cause ~~such any~~ process or notice to be filed with the secretary of state, together with payment of a fee of $15, and ~~such the~~ service shall be sufficient service upon ~~such the~~ employing unit, and shall be of the same force and validity as if served upon it personally within this state: Provided, that the commissioner shall forthwith send notice of the service of ~~such the~~ process or notice, together with a copy thereof, by certified mail, return receipt requested, to ~~such the~~ employing unit at its last known address and ~~such the~~ return receipt, the commissioner's affidavit of compliance with the provisions of this section, and a copy of the notice of service, shall be appended to the original of the process filed in the court in which ~~such the~~ civil action is pending.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 278.03, is amended to read:

278.03 [PAYMENT OF PORTION OF TAX.]

If the proceedings instituted by the filing of the petition have not been completed before the first day of June next following the filing, the petitioner shall pay to the county treasurer 50 percent of the tax levied for such year against the property involved, unless permission to continue prosecution of the petition without such payment is obtained as herein provided. If the proceedings instituted by the filing of the petition have not been completed by the next November 1, the petitioner shall pay to the county treasurer 50 percent of the unpaid balance of the taxes levied for the year against the property involved if the unpaid balance is $2,000 or less and 80 percent of the unpaid balance if the unpaid balance is over $2,000, unless permission to continue prosecution of the petition without payment is obtained as herein provided. The petitioner, upon ten days notice to the county attorney and to the county auditor, given at least ten days prior to the first day of June or the first day of November, may apply to the court for permission to continue prosecution of the petition without payment; and, if it is made to appear

- (1) That the proposed review is to be taken in good faith;
- (2) That there is probable cause to believe that the property may be held exempt from the tax levied or that the tax may be determined to be less than 50 percent of the amount levied; and

(3) That it would work a hardship upon petitioner to pay ~~50 percent of such~~ the taxes due,

the court may permit the petitioner to continue prosecution of the petition without payment, or may fix a lesser amount to be paid as a condition of continuing the prosecution of the petition.

Failure to make payment of the amount required when due shall operate automatically to dismiss the petition and all proceedings thereunder unless the payment is waived by an order of the court permitting the petitioner to continue prosecution of the petition without payment. The county treasurer shall, upon request of the petitioner, issue duplicate receipts for the tax payment, one of which shall be filed by the petitioner in the proceeding.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 302A.901, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

The return of the sheriff, or the affidavit of a person not a party, that no registered agent or officer can be found at the registered office in a county is conclusive evidence that the corporation has no registered agent or officer at its registered office. Service on the secretary of state of any process, notice, or demand is deemed personal service upon the corporation and shall be made by filing with the secretary of state duplicate copies of the process, notice, or demand. The secretary of state shall immediately forward, by ~~registered~~ certified mail, addressed to the corporation at its registered office, a copy of the process, notice, or demand. Subd. 2. [ANNUAL FEE.] The secretary of state shall collect an annual license fee from each foreign corporation holding a certificate of authority to transact business in this state. A foreign corporation shall pay $15 per $100,000 or fraction thereof of its Minnesota taxable net income for the last taxable year ending prior to the payment of the fee. If the taxable year ended less than 75 days before the date the fee is received by the secretary of state, the taxable net income from the preceding taxable year shall determine the fee. In no event shall the annual license fee be less than $30. The corporation shall pay this fee by April 1 of each year.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 303.13, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

This modification shall not be applicable if the difference in basis is due to disallowance of depreciation pursuant to section 290.101.

(2) On the remainder, 12 percent.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2e. [ADDITIONAL INCOME TAX.] In addition to the tax computed pursuant to subdivisions 2c and 2d or subdivision 3d, there is hereby imposed an additional income tax on individuals, estates, and trusts, other than those taxable as corporations. The additional tax shall be computed by applying the following rates to the tax computed pursuant to subdivision 3d or, in the case of an individual who does not qualify for the low income alternative tax and estates and trusts, the tax computed pursuant to subdivisions 2c and 2d and sections 290.032 and 290.091 less the credits allowed by sections 290.06, subdivisions 3e, 3f, 9, 9a, 11 and 14; and 290.081.

(1) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1981, but before January 1, 1983, seven percent;

(2) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1982, but before Jan- uary 1, 1984, 3.5 percent.

On October 1, 1983 the commissioner of finance shall determine the amount of the state's unrestricted general fund balance at the close of the 1982-1983 biennium. If this amount is more than $150,000,000, the commissioner shall reduce the rate of the surtax in effect for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1982 and before January 1, 1984, so that the amount of revenue raised by the surtax results in a fund balance of no more than $150,000,000, provided that the rate so determined shall be rounded upward to the next one-tenth of one percent and no adjustment shall be required if the change in the rate of the surtax would be less than one-tenth of one percent.

Sec. 5. [ADJUSTMENT TO WITHHOLDING AND DECLARATIONS.]

For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1982, but before January 1, 1984, the commissioner of revenue shall adjust the withholding tables, notwithstanding section 290.92, subdivision 2a, so that the entire amount of the additional tax imposed by section 4 for the year, is withheld and remitted by employers during the first six months of the taxable year.

For the same period, the commissioner shall require that declarations filed during the first six months of the taxable year by individuals, estates, and trusts shall include the additional tax imposed by section 4.

Sec. 6. [290.068] [CREDIT FOR RESEARCH AND EXPERIMENTAL EXPENDITURES.]

Subdivision 1. [CREDIT ALLOWED.] In addition to the deduction provided in section 290.09, a credit shall be allowed equal to ten percent of research and experimental expenditures paid or incurred in Minnesota during the taxable year.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITION.] For purposes of this section "research and experimental expenditures" means expenditures incurred in Minnesota which qualify for the deduction provided in section 290.09, subdivision 18, to the extent the expenditures exceed the average of the three preceding taxable years' qualifying expenditures under section 290.09, subdivision 18, incurred in Minnesota. If the taxpayer has not conducted trade or business in Minnesota for the three preceding taxable years, the average expenditures incurred shall be determined by dividing the expenditures by the lesser number of complete prior taxable years. If there has been less than one prior taxable year of trade or business conducted in Minnesota the average expenditures for the three preceding taxable years shall be zero.

Subd. 3. [LIMITATION.] The credit for the taxable year shall not exceed $300,000 or ten percent of the liability for tax, whichever is less. "Liability for tax" for purposes of this section means the tax imposed under this chapter for the taxable year reduced by the sum of the credits allowed under section 290.06, except the credit allowed under section 290.06, subdivision 13.

If the credit determined under subdivision 2 exceeds this limitation, the excess shall be a credit carryback to each of the three preceding taxable years and a credit carryover to each of the seven succeeding taxable years, provided the aggregate of the credit for the taxable year and any carryover and carryback credits shall not exceed $300,000 or ten percent of the liability for tax, whichever is less. The entire amount of the excess unused credit for the taxable year shall be carried first to the earliest of the taxable years to which the credit may be carried and then to each successive year to which the credit may be carried.

Subd. 3. [INTEREST.] (a) All interest paid or accrued within the taxable year on indebtedness, except as hereinafter provided.

(c) If personal property or educational services are purchased under a contract the provisions of section 163(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980 shall apply.

(d) A cash basis taxpayer may elect to deduct interest as it accrues on a reverse mortgage loan as defined in section 47.58, subdivision 1, rather than when it is actually paid. This election must be made, if at all, in the first taxable year in which it is available to the cash basis taxpayer and, if made, shall be binding on the taxpayer for each subsequent taxable year until maturity of the loan.

(e) In the case of a taxpayer other than a corporation, the amount of interest on investment indebtedness allowable as a deduction shall be allowed and limited as set forth in section 163(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980. The limitation prescribed in section 163(d)(1)(A) for married individuals who file separate returns shall also apply to married individuals who file separately on one return.

(f) A taxpayer may not deduct interest on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry obligations or shares, or to make deposits or other investments, the interest on which is described in section 116(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1980 to the extent such interest is excludable from gross income under section 116 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1980. Interest and carrying costs in the case of straddles shall be treated as provided in section 263(g) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.09, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [DEPRECIATION.] (A) [CUMULATIVE DEPRECIATION.] (a) There shall be allowed as a depreciation deduction a reasonable allowance for the exhaustion, wear and tear (including a reasonable allowance for obsolescence):

(2) of property held for the production of income.

(b) The term "reasonable allowance" as used in clause (a) shall include (but shall not be limited to) an allowance computed in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner, under any of the following methods:

(1) the straight line method.

(2) the declining balance method, using a rate not exceeding twice the rate which would have been used had the annual allowance been computed under the method described in paragraph (1).

(3) the sum of the years-digits method, and

(4) any other consistent method productive of an annual allowance, which, when added to all allowances for the period commencing with the taxpayer's use of the property and including the taxable year, does not, during the first two-thirds of the useful life of the property, exceed the total of such allowances which would have been used had such allowances been computed under the method described in (2). Nothing in this clause (b) shall be construed to limit or reduce an allowance otherwise allowable under clause (a).

(c) For purposes of this subdivision "reasonable allowance" shall not include the accelerated cost recovery system provisions of section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, except as provided in this subdivision unless specifically authorized by legislation enacted after the final enactment of this section. In the case of recovery property within the meaning of section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, the term "reasonable allowance" as used in clause (a) shall mean 85 percent of the deduction allowed pursuant to section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980 and before January 1, 1982; and 83 percent of the deduction allowed pursuant to section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1981 and before January 1, 1983.

(d) Paragraphs (2), (3), and (4) of clause (b) shall apply only in the case of property (other than intangible property) described in clause (a) with a useful life of three years or more.

(1) the construction, reconstruction, or erection of which is completed after December 31, 1958, and then only to that portion of the basis which is properly attributable to such construction, reconstruction, or erection after December 31, 1958, or

(2) acquired after December 31, 1958, if the original use of such property commenced with the taxpayer and commences after such date.

(d) (e) Where, under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, the taxpayer and the commissioner have, after June 30, 1959, entered into an agreement in writing specifically dealing with the useful life and rate of depreciation of any property, the rate so agreed upon shall be binding on both the taxpayer and the commissioner in the absence of facts or circumstances not taken into consideration in the adoption of such agreement. The responsibility of establishing the existence of such facts and circumstances shall rest with the party initiating the modification. Any change in the agreed rate and useful life specified in the agreement shall not be effective for taxable years before the taxable year in which notice in writing by certified mail is served by the party to the agreement initiating such change.

(e) (f) In the absence of an agreement under clause (d) containing a provision to the contrary, a taxpayer may at any time elect in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner to change from the method of depreciation prescribed in clause (b) (2) to the method described in clause (b) (1).

(f) (g) The basis on which exhaustion, wear and tear, and obsolescence are to be allowed in respect of any property shall be the adjusted basis provided in sections 290.131 to 290.139, 290.14 and 290.15 for the purpose of determining the gain on the sale or other disposition of such property except that in the case of recovery property within the meaning of section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code as amended through December 31, 1981, for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980 but before January 1, 1983, the depreciation adjustment to basis shall be the same as the depreciation adjustments under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1981.

(g) (h) In the case of property held by one person for life with remainder to another person, the deduction shall be computed as if the life tenant were the absolute owner of the property and shall be allowed to the life tenant. In the case of property held in trust the allowable deduction shall be apportioned between the income beneficiary and the trustee in accordance with the pertinent provisions of the instrument creating the trust, or, in the absence of such provisions, on the basis of the trust income allocable to each. In the case of an estate, the allowable deduction shall be apportioned between the estate and the heirs, legatees, and devisees on the basis of the income of the estate allocable to each.

(h) (i) In the case of buildings or other structures or improvements constructed or made on leased premises by a lessee, and the fixtures and machinery therein installed, the lessee alone shall be entitled to the allowance of this deduction.

(B) [FIRST YEAR DEPRECIATION.] (a) In the case of section 1 property, the term "reasonable allowance" as used in subdivision 7, may, at the election of the taxpayer, include an allowance, for the first taxable year for which a deduction is allowable under subdivision 7, to the taxpayer with respect to such property, of 20 percent of the cost of such property. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980 and before January 1, 1983, in the case of recovery property within the meaning of section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, the first year depreciation allowance shall be the allowance for federal income tax purposes under section 179 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981.

(b) If in any one taxable year the cost of section 1 property with respect to which the taxpayer may elect an allowance under (a) for such taxable year exceeds $10,000, then (a) shall apply with respect to those items selected by the taxpayer, but only to the extent of an aggregate cost of $10,000. In the case of a husband and wife who file a joint return under section 290.38 for the taxable year, the limitation under the preceding sentence shall be $20,000 in lieu of $10,000.

(c) (1) The election under this subdivision for any taxable year shall be made within the time prescribed by law (including extensions thereof) for filing the return for such taxable year. The election shall be made in such manner as the commissioner may by regulations prescribe.

(2) Any election made under this subdivision may not be revoked except with the consent of the commissioner.

(d) (1) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "Section 1 property" means tangible personal property (excluding buildings and structures)

(A) of a character subject to the allowance for depreciation under subdivision 7.

(B) acquired by purchase after December 31, 1958, for use in a trade or business or for holding for production of income, and

(C) with a useful life (determined at the time of such acquisition) of six years or more.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), the term "purchase" means any acquisition of property, but only if

(A) the property is not acquired from a person whose relationship to the person acquiring it would result in the disallowance of losses under section 290.10(6),

(B) the property is not acquired by one component member of a controlled group from another component member of the same controlled group, and

(C) the basis of the property in the hands of the person acquiring it is not determined

(i) in whole or in part by reference to the adjusted basis of such property in the hands of the person from whom acquired, or

(ii) under section 290.14(4) (relating to property acquired from a decedent).

(3) For purposes of this subdivision, the cost of property does not include so much of the basis of such property as is determined by reference to the basis of other property held at any time by the person acquiring such property.

(4) This subdivision shall not apply to trusts.

(5) In the case of an estate, any amount apportioned to an heir, legatee, or devisee shall not be taken into account in applying (B) of this subdivision to section 1 property of such heir, legatee, or devisee not held by such estate.

(6) For purposes of (B) of this subdivision

(A) all component members of a controlled group shall be treated as one taxpayer, and

(B) the commissioner shall apportion the dollar limitation contained in such (B) among the component members of such controlled group in such manner as he shall by regulations prescribe.

(7) For purposes of paragraphs (2) and (6), the term "controlled group" has the meaning assigned to it by section 1563(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979, except that, for such purposes, the phrase "more than 50 percent" shall be substituted for the phrase "at least 80 percent" each place it appears in section 1563(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue

Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.091, is amended to read:

290.091 [MINIMUM TAX ON PREFERENCE ITEMS.]

In addition to all other taxes imposed by this chapter there is hereby imposed, a tax which, in the case of a resident individual, shall be equal to 40 percent of the amount of the taxpayer's minimum tax liability for tax preference items pursuant to the provisions of sections 55 to 58 and 443(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1980 except that for purposes of the tax imposed by this section, capital gain as defined in section 57(a) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not include that portion of any gain occasioned by sale, transfer or the granting of a perpetual easement pursuant to any eminent domain proceeding or threat thereof as described in section 290.13, subdivision 5. This modification shall apply to the years in which the gain or reduction in loss is actually included in federal adjusted gross income even though amounts received pursuant to the eminent domain proceedings were received in prior years. ~~In the case of a taxpayer other than a corporation, an amount equal to one half of the net capital gain for the taxable year shall be used as the definition of capital gain in place of the deduction determined under section 1202 of the Internal Revenue Code.~~ In the case of a resident individual, having preference items which could not be taken to reduce income from sources outside the state pursuant to section 290.17, subdivision 1, or any other taxpayer the tax shall equal 40 percent of that federal liability, multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the amount of the taxpayer's preference item income allocated to this state pursuant to the provisions of sections 290.17 to 290.20, and the denominator of which is the taxpayer's total preference item income for federal purposes.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.16, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [DEDUCTIONS FOR CAPITAL GAINS.] If for any taxable year the net long-term capital gain exceeds the net short-term capital loss, ~~50~~ 60 percent of the amount of such excess shall be a deduction from gross income.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.16, Subdivision 15, is amended to read:

Subd. 15. [GAIN FROM DISPOSITIONS OF CERTAIN DEPRECIABLE PROPERTY.] For purposes of this subdivision "depreciable property" shall mean "Section 1245 property" as that phrase is defined in Section 1245(a) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979.

In determining net income of any corporate taxpayer, the gain realized from the disposition of "depreciable property" shall be treated in the same manner as is provided by Section 1245 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979 and regulations adopted pursuant thereto except that the determination shall be made using the basis computed under this chapter.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.16, Subdivision 16, is amended to read:

Subd. 16. [GAIN FROM DISPOSITION OF CERTAIN DEPRECIABLE REALTY.] For purposes of this subdivision "depreciable realty" shall mean "Section 1250 realty" as that phrase is defined in Section 1250(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979.

In determining net income of any corporate taxpayer, the gain realized from the disposition of "depreciable realty" shall be treated in the same manner as is provided by Section 1250 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979, and regulations adopted pursuant thereto except that the determination shall be made using the basis computed under this chapter.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.17, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [OTHER TAXPAYERS.] In the case of taxpayers not subject to the provisions of subdivision 1, items of gross income shall be assigned to this state or other states or countries in accordance with the following principles:

(1) The entire income of all resident or domestic taxpayers from compensation for labor or personal services, or from a business consisting principally of the performance of personal or professional services, shall be assigned to this state, and the income of nonresident taxpayers from such sources shall be assigned to this state if, and to the extent that, the labor or services are performed within it; all other income from such sources shall be treated as income from sources without this state;

(2) Income from the operation of a farm shall be assigned to this state if the farm is located within this state and to other states only if the farm is not located in this state. Income and gains received from tangible property not employed in the business of the recipient of such income or gains, and from tangible property employed in the business of such recipient if such business consists principally of the holding of such property and the collection of the income and gains therefrom, shall be assigned to this state if such property has a situs within it, and to other states only if it has no situs in this state. Income or gains from intangible personal property not employed in the business of the recipient of such income or gains, and from intangible personal property employed in the business of such recipient if such business consists principally of the holding of such property and the collection of the income and gains therefrom, wherever held, whether in trust, or otherwise, shall be assigned to this state if the recipient thereof is domiciled within this state; income or gains from intangible personal property wherever held, whether in trust or otherwise shall be assigned to this state if the recipient of such income or gains is domiciled within this state, or if the grantor of any trust is domiciled within this state and such income or gains would be taxable to such grantor under section 290.25 or 290.29;

(3) Income derived from carrying on a trade or business, including in the case of a business owned by natural persons the income imputable to the owner for his services and the use of his property therein, shall be assigned to this state if the trade or business is conducted wholly within this state, and to other states if conducted wholly without this state. This provision shall not apply to business income subject to the provisions of clause (1);

(4) When a trade or business is carried on partly within and partly without this state, the entire income derived from such trade or business, including income from intangible property employed in such business and including, in the case of a business owned by natural persons, the income imputable to the owner for his services and the use of his property therein, shall be governed, except as otherwise provided in sections 290.35 and 290.36, by the provisions of section 290.19, notwithstanding any provisions of this section to the contrary. This shall not apply to business income subject to the provisions of clause (1), nor shall it apply to income from the operation of a farm which is subject to the provisions of clause (2). For the purposes of this clause, a trade or business located in Minnesota is carried on partly within and partly without this state if tangible personal property is sold by such trade or business and delivered or shipped to a purchaser located outside the state of Minnesota.

If the trade or business carried on wholly or partly in Minnesota is part of a unitary business, the entire income of that unitary business shall be subject to apportionment under section 290.19. The term "unitary business" shall mean a number of business activities or operations which are of mutual benefit, dependent upon, or contributory to one another, individually or as a group. Unity shall be presumed whenever there is unity of ownership, operation, and use, evidenced by centralized management or executive force, centralized purchasing, advertising, accounting, or other controlled interaction. Unity of ownership will not be deemed to exist unless the corporation owns more than 50 percent of the voting stock of the other corporation.

The entire income of a unitary business, including all income from each activity, operation or division, shall be subject to apportionment as provided in section 290.19. None of the income of a unitary business shall be considered as derived from any particular source and none shall be allocated to any particular place except as provided by the applicable apportionment formula.

In determining whether or not intangible property is employed in a unitary business carried on partly within and partly without this state so that income derived therefrom is subject to apportionment under section 290.19 the following rules and guidelines shall apply.

(a) Intangible property is employed in a business if the business entity owning intangible property holds it as a means of furthering the business operation of which a part is located within the territorial confines of this state.

(b) Where a business operation conducted in Minnesota, is owned by a business entity which carries on business activity outside of the state different in kind from that conducted within this state, and such other business is conducted entirely outside the state, it will be presumed that the two business operations are unitary in nature, interrelated, connected and interdependent unless it can be shown to the contrary.

(5) In the case of a nonresident who is liable for payment of a penalty for having withdrawn funds from an individual housing account established pursuant to section 290.08, subdivision 25, the amount so withdrawn and for which a deduction was allowed shall be an item of income assignable to this state, and the penalty tax of ten percent shall remain an additional liability of that taxpayer.

(6) For purposes of this section, amounts received by a non-resident from the United States, its agencies or instrumentalities, the Federal Reserve Bank, the state of Minnesota or any of its political or governmental subdivisions, or a Minnesota volunteer fireman's relief association, by way of payment as a pension, public employee retirement benefit, or any combination thereof, or as a retirement or survivor's benefit made from a plan qualifying under section 401, 403, 404, 405, 408, 409 or 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1979, are not considered income derived from carrying on a trade or business or from performing personal or professional services in Minnesota, and are not taxable under this chapter.

(7) All other items of gross income shall be assigned to the taxpayer's domicile.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 290.21, Subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. (a) 85 percent of dividends received by a corporation during the taxable year from another corporation, when the corporate stock with respect to which dividends are paid does not constitute the stock in trade of the taxpayer or would not be included in the inventory of the taxpayer, or does not constitute property held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of his trade or business, or when the trade or business of the taxpayer does not consist principally of the holding of the stocks and the collection of the income and gains therefrom. The remaining 15 percent shall be allowed if the recipient owns 80 percent or more of all the voting stock of such other corporation, and the dividends were paid from income arising out of business done in this state by the corporation paying such dividends; but if the income out of which the dividends are declared was derived from business done within and without this state, then so much of the remainder shall be allowed as a deduction as the amount of the taxable net income of the corporation paying the dividends assignable or allocable to this state bears to the entire net income of the corporation, such rate being determined by the returns under this chapter of the corporation paying such dividends for the taxable year preceding the distribution thereof; the burden shall be on the taxpayer of showing that the amount of remainder claimed as a deduction has been received from income arising out of business done in this state.

(b) if the trade or business of the taxpayer consists principally of the holding of the stocks and the collection of the income and gains therefrom, dividends received by a corporation during the taxable year from another corporation, if the recipient owns 80 percent or more of all the voting stock of such other corporation, from income arising out of business done in this state by the corporation paying such dividends; but, if the income out of which the dividends are declared was derived from business done within and without this state, then so much of the dividends shall be allowed as deduction as the amount of the taxable net income of the corporation paying the dividends assignable or allocable to this state bears to the entire net income of the corporation, such rate being determined by the returns under this chapter of the corporation paying such dividends for the taxable year preceding the distribution thereof. The burden shall be on the taxpayer of showing that the amount of dividends claimed as a deduction has been received from income arising out of business done in this state.

(c) The dividend deduction provided in this subdivision shall be allowed only with respect to dividends that are included in a corporation's Minnesota taxable net income for the taxable year.

(d) In the case of a corporation, which is permitted or required to file a combined report under section 290.34, subdivision 2, dividends shall be excluded from the income of the recipient to the extent the dividends are already included as income on the combined report.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.34, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [AFFILIATED OR RELATED CORPORATIONS, CONSOLIDATED STATEMENTS.] When a corporation which is required to file an income tax return is affiliated with or related to any other corporation through stock ownership by the same interests or as parent or subsidiary corporations, or has its income regulated through contract or other arrangement, the commissioner of revenue may permit or require such ~~consolidated statements combined report~~ as, in his opinion, are necessary in order to determine the taxable net income received by any one of the affiliated or related corporations. *For purposes of computing either the arithmetic average or weighted apportionment formulas under section 290.19, subdivision 1 for each corporation involved, the numerator of the fraction shall be that corporation's sales, property, or payroll in Minnesota and the denominator shall be the total sales, payroll, and property of all the corporations shown on the combined report. The combined report shall reflect the income of the entire unitary business as provided in section 290.17, subdivision 2, clause (4). The combined report shall reflect income only from corporations created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States or of any state. Specifically, it is the intent of the legislature to adopt the combined reporting method provided in Butler Brothers v. McColgan, 111 P. 2d 334, and 315 U.S. 501, and Edison California Stores v. McColgan, 183 P. 2d 16 and to treat all income as business income to the maximum extent allowable under Mobil Oil Corporation v. Commissioner of Taxes of Vermont, 445 U.S. 425. This subdivision shall not apply to insurance companies whose income is determined under section 290.35.*

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 290.361, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [COMPUTATION OF TAXABLE NET INCOME.] The taxable net income shall be computed in the manner provided by this chapter except that in the case of national and state banks: (a) the ~~rate~~ rates shall be 42 percent as established in section 290.06, subdivision 1; (b) the basic date for the purpose of computing gain or loss and depreciation shall be January 1, 1940, instead of January 1, 1933; (c) property consisting of investments in bonds, stocks, notes, debentures, mortgages, certificates, or any evidence of indebtedness, and any property acquired in liquidation thereof when such property is held for investment or for sale, shall not be deemed to be capital assets; and (d) in computing net income there shall be allowable as a deduction from gross income, in addition to deductions otherwise provided for in this chapter, any dividend (not including any distribution in liquidation) paid, within the taxable year, to the United States or to any instrumentality thereof exempt from federal income taxes, on the preferred stock of the bank owned by the United States or such instrumentality.

1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FAILURE TO PAY TAX.] If any tax imposed by this chapter is not paid within the time herein specified for the payment thereof, or within 30 days after final determination of an appeal to the tax court relating thereto if the taxpayer is not required to pay the amount in dispute pending appeal under section 18, there shall be added thereto a specific penalty equal to ten percent of the amount so remaining unpaid. Such penalty shall be collected as part of said tax, and the amount of said tax not timely paid, together with said penalty shall bear interest at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the time such tax should have been paid until paid. Interest accruing upon the tax due as disclosed by the return or upon the amount determined as a deficiency from the date prescribed for the payment of the tax (if the tax is payable in installments, from the date the installment or installments become due and payable under the provisions of section 290.45, subdivision 1) shall be added to the tax and be collected as a part thereof. Where an extension of time for payment has been granted under section 290.45, subdivision 2, interest shall be paid at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the date when such payment should have been made if no extension had been granted, until such tax is paid. If payment is not made at the expiration of the extended period the penalties provided in this section shall apply.

Sec. 18. [290.531] [PAYMENT OF TAX PENDING APPEAL.]

When a taxpayer appeals his tax liability under chapter 290 to the tax court, and the amount in dispute is more than $4,000, the entire amount of the tax shall be paid at the time it is due unless permission to continue prosecution of the petition without payment is obtained as provided herein. The petitioner, upon ten days notice to the commissioner, may apply to the court for permission to continue prosecution of the petition without payment; and, if it is made to appear

(1) That the proposed review is to be taken in good faith;

(2) That there is probable cause to believe that the taxpayer may be held exempt from the tax or that the tax may be determined to be less than 50 percent of the amount due; and

(3) That it would work a substantial hardship upon petitioner to pay the tax,

the court may permit the petitioner to continue prosecution of the petition without payment, or may fix a lesser amount to be paid as a condition of continuing the prosecution of the petition.

Failure to make payment of the amount required when due shall operate automatically to dismiss the petition and all proceedings thereunder unless the payment is waived by an order of the court permitting the petitioner to continue prosecution of the petition without payment.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 299.08, is amended to read:

299.08 [LIEN; PAYMENT OF TAX.]

The situs of royalty, for all purposes of this chapter, shall be in this state; and the tax herein provided for shall be a specific lien from the time the royalty accrues upon all and singular the right, title, and interest of the person to whom such royalty is payable, in and to the land, for permission to explore, mine, take out, and remove ore on which the royalty is paid, and shall be a specific lien upon such royalties as they accrue. Every person paying royalty to another which is subject to tax hereunder, upon which the royalty tax has not been paid, shall withhold the amount of the tax upon such royalty and remit the same to the commissioner of revenue at the time the royalty is paid. Such payment shall operate to discharge to that extent the liability of the person paying such royalty to the royalty recipient. In addition thereto, he shall withhold any additional amounts certified pursuant to section 299.012, subdivision 3. At the time of such payment he shall file with the commissioner of revenue a report thereof on forms to be prescribed by the commissioner of revenue. If any person paying royalty to another shall fail to withhold the tax thereon or the penalty imposed by section 299.06, after notice thereof as therein provided, and pay the same to the commissioner of revenue, he shall be liable for the amount of such tax and penalty, with interest at the rate of ~~42~~ 20 percent per annum, adjusted as provided in section 1, from the time the same should have been paid, to be recovered in an action by the attorney general for and on behalf of the state. The commissioner of revenue, may, upon petition of any royalty payor or recipient, upon such conditions as he may impose, permit the paying of the tax in one annual payment instead of as such royalty accrues, in which case such annual payment shall be made at such times as the commissioner of revenue directs, not later than June 30 of the year following the accrual of the royalty. No such extension of time shall be granted unless, as one of the conditions thereof, the royalty payor shall guarantee the payment of the tax.

In the event the royalty is paid in ore instead of in cash the tax provided for herein shall be a specific lien upon the ore apportioned to the royalty recipient; or, if such ore be not apportioned, upon the royalty recipient's interest in the ore mined, and such ore shall not be shipped from this state unless:

- (1) The royalty tax be paid; or
- (2) A bond be given to secure such payment, upon a form and with sureties approved by the commissioner of revenue, in an amount 25 percent in excess of his estimate of the tax; or
- (3) The estimated amount of the tax, such estimate to be made by the commissioner of revenue, be deposited with the state treasurer as security for such payment; or
- (4) The payment of the tax be guaranteed or secured in some other manner satisfactory to the commissioner of revenue.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 299.10, is amended to read:

On July 16, of each year, the commissioner of revenue shall deliver a certification of unpaid liability to the attorney general, whose duty it shall be to bring an action in the district court of Ramsey county for the amount of such tax, together with penalties, interest, and costs of the proceedings; and the judgment of the court, when so obtained and properly docketed, shall be a lien upon all right, title, and interest of the taxpayer to the land upon which such tax is a lien from the time the same is docketed; and the lien shall continue without limitation, with interest at the rate of one percent per month, and the property may be sold in satisfaction of the judgment in the same manner as provided by law for the sale of property upon execution.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 340.492, is amended to read:

340.492 [MANNER AND TIME OF PAYMENT; PENALTIES; DEPOSIT OF TAX PROCEEDS.]

The rules shall require reports to be filed with and the excise tax to be paid to the commissioner on or before the fifteenth day of the month following the month in which the importation into or the first sale is made in this state, whichever first occurs. If the excise tax is not paid when due, there shall be added to the amount of the tax as penalty a sum equivalent to ten percent thereof, and in addition thereto interest on the tax and penalty at the rate of ~~one percent a month or major portion thereof~~ 20 percent per annum, adjusted as provided in section 1, from the date the tax became due until paid. Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 276.11, is amended to read:

As soon as practical after each settlement in March, June, and November the county treasurer shall pay over to the state treasurer or the treasurer of any town, city, school district, or special district, on the warrant of the county auditor, all receipts arising from taxes levied by and belonging to the state, or to such municipal corporation, or other body, and deliver up all orders and other evidences of indebtedness of such municipal corporation or other body, taking triplicate receipts therefor. ~~He~~ The treasurer shall file one of the receipts with the county auditor, and shall return one by mail on the day of its reception to the clerk of the town, city, school district, or special district to which payment was made. Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 275.50, Subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary for taxes levied in ~~1981~~ 1982 payable in ~~1982~~ 1983 and subsequent years, "special levies" means those portions of ad valorem taxes levied by governmental subdivisions to:

(a) satisfy judgments rendered against the governmental subdivision by a court of competent jurisdiction in any tort action, or to pay the costs of settlements out of court against the governmental subdivision in a tort action when substantiated by a stipulation for the dismissal of the action filed with the court of competent jurisdiction and signed by both the plaintiff and the legal representative of the governmental subdivision, but only to the extent of the increase in levy for such judgments and out of court settlements over levy year 1970, taxes payable in 1971;

(b) pay the costs of complying with any written lawful order initially issued prior to January 1, 1977 by the state of Minnesota, or the United States, or any agency or subdivision thereof, which is authorized by law, statute, special act or ordinance and is enforceable in a court of competent jurisdiction, or any stipulation agreement or permit for treatment works or disposal system for pollution abatement in lieu of a lawful order signed by the governmental subdivision and the state of Minnesota, or the United States, or any agency or subdivision thereof which is enforceable in a court of competent jurisdiction. The commissioner of revenue shall in consultation with other state departments and agencies, develop a suggested form for use by the state of Minnesota, its agencies and subdivisions in issuing orders pursuant to this subdivision;

(c) pay the costs to a governmental subdivision for their minimum required share of any program otherwise authorized by law for which matching funds have been appropriated by the state of Minnesota or the United States, excluding the administrative costs of public assistance programs, to the extent of the increase in levy for the taxes payable year ~~1982~~ 1983 and subsequent years over the amount levied for the local share of the program for the taxes payable year 1971. This clause shall apply only to those programs or projects for which matching funds have been designated by the state of Minnesota or the United States on or before September 1, ~~1981~~ of the previous year and only when the receipt of these matching funds is contingent upon the initiation or implementation of the project or program during ~~1982~~ the year in which the taxes are payable or those programs or projects approved by the commissioner;

(d) pay the costs not reimbursed by the state or federal government, of payments made to or on behalf of recipients of aid under any public assistance program authorized by law, and the costs of purchase or delivery of social services. Except for the costs of general assistance medical care under section 256D.03 and the costs of hospital care pursuant to section 261.21, the aggregate amounts levied pursuant to this clause are subject to a maximum increase of 18 percent over the amount levied for these purposes for the taxes payable year 1981 in the previous year;

(e) pay the costs of principal and interest on bonded indebtedness, or, effective for taxes levied in 1973 and years thereafter, to reimburse for the amount of liquor store revenues used to pay the principal and interest due in the year preceding the year for which the levy limit is calculated on municipal liquor store bonds;

(f) pay the costs of principal and interest on certificates of indebtedness, except tax anticipation or aid anticipation certificates of indebtedness, issued for any corporate purpose except current expenses or funding an insufficiency in receipts from taxes or other sources or funding extraordinary expenditures resulting from a public emergency;

(g) fund the payments made to the Minnesota state armory building commission pursuant to section 193.145, subdivision 2, to retire the principal and interest on armory construction bonds;

(h) provide for the bonded indebtedness portion of payments made to another political subdivision of the state of Minnesota;

(i) pay the amounts required to compensate for a decrease in mobile homes property tax receipts to the extent that the governmental subdivision's portion of the total levy in the current levy year, pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 3, as amended, is less than the distribution of the mobile homes tax to the governmental subdivision pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 3, in calendar year 1971;

(j) pay the amounts required, in accordance with section 275.075, to correct for a county auditor's error of omission in levy year 1971 or a subsequent levy year, but only to the extent that when added to the preceding year's levy it is not in excess of an applicable statutory, special law or charter limitation, or the limitation imposed on the governmental subdivision by sections 275.50 to 275.56 in the preceding levy year;

(k) pay amounts required to correct for an error of omission in the levy certified to the appropriate county auditor or auditors by the governing body of a city or town with statutory city powers in a levy year, but only to the extent that when added to the preceding year's levy it is not in excess of an applicable statutory, special law or charter limitation, or the limitation imposed on the governmental subdivision by sections 275.50 to 275.56 in the preceding levy year;

(l) pay the increased cost of municipal services as the result of an annexation or consolidation ordered by the Minnesota municipal board in levy year 1971 or a subsequent levy year, but only to the extent and for the levy years as provided by the board in its order pursuant to section 414.01, subdivision 15. Special levies authorized by the board shall not exceed 50 percent of the levy limit base of the governmental subdivision and may not be in effect for more than three years after the board's order;

(m) pay the increased costs of municipal services provided to new private industrial and nonresidential commercial development, to the extent that the extension of such services are not paid for through bonded indebtedness or special assessments, and not to exceed the amount determined as follows. The governmental subdivision may calculate the aggregate of:

(1) The increased expenditures necessary in preparation for the delivering of municipal services to new private industrial and nonresidential commercial development, but limited to one year's expenditures one time for each such development;

(2) The amount determined by dividing the overall levy limitation established pursuant to sections 275.50 to 275.56, and exclusive of special levies and special assessments, by the total taxable value of the governmental subdivision, and then multiplying this quotient times the total increase in assessed value of private industrial and nonresidential commercial development within the governmental subdivision. For the purpose of this clause, the increase in the assessed value of private industrial and nonresidential commercial development is calculated as the increase in assessed value over the assessed value of the real estate parcels subject to such private development as most recently determined before the building permit was issued. In the fourth levy year subsequent to the levy year in which the building permit was issued, the increase in assessed value of the real estate parcels subject to such private development shall no longer be included in determining the special levy.

The aggregate of the foregoing amounts, less any costs of extending municipal services to new private industrial and nonresidential commercial development which are paid by bonded indebtedness or special assessments, equals the maximum amount that may be levied as a "special levy" for the increased costs of municipal services provided to new private industrial and nonresidential commercial development. In the levy year following the levy year in which the special levy made pursuant to this clause is discontinued, one-half of the amount of that special levy made in the preceding year shall be added to the permanent levy base of the governmental subdivision;

(n) recover a loss or refunds in tax receipts incurred in non-special levy funds resulting from abatements or court action in the previous year pursuant to section 275.48;

(o) pay amounts required by law to be paid to pay the interest on and to reduce the unfunded accrued liability of public pension funds in accordance with the actuarial standards and guidelines specified in sections 356.215 and 326.216 reduced for levy year 1977 and subsequent years by 106 percent of the amount levied for that purpose in 1976, payable in 1977. For the purpose of this special levy, the estimated receipts expected from the state of Minnesota pursuant to sections 69.011 to 69.031 or any other state aid expressly intended for the support of public pension funds shall be considered as a deduction in determining the required levy for the normal costs of the public pension funds. No amount of these aids shall be considered as a deduction in determining the governmental subdivision's required levy for the reduction of the unfunded accrued liability of public pension funds;

(p) the amounts allowed under section 174.27 to establish and administer a commuter van program;

(q) pay the costs of financial assistance to local governmental units and certain administrative, engineering, and legal expenses pursuant to Laws 1979, Chapter 253, Section 3;

(r) compensate for revenue lost as a result of abatements or court action pursuant to sections 270.07, 270.17 or 278.01 due to a reassessment ordered by the commissioner of revenue pursuant to section 270.16.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 275.51, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Notwithstanding any provisions of law or municipal charter to the contrary which authorize ad valorem levies in excess of the limitations established by sections 275.50 to 275.56, but subject to section 275.56, the provisions of this section shall apply to the levies by governmental subdivisions for the taxes payable year ~~1982~~ 1983 and subsequent years for all purposes other than those for which special levies and special assessments are made. ~~Any law or special act enacted in 1981 which authorizes a property tax levy in excess of the limitation imposed by this section is exempt from the provisions of this section.~~

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 275.51, Subdivision 3e, is amended to read:

Subd. 3e. The property tax levy limitation for any governmental subdivision for the taxes payable year ~~1982~~ 1983 and subsequent years shall be calculated as follows:

(a) If the governmental subdivision was subject to the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 275.50 to 275.56, the amounts levied by the governmental subdivision for the taxes payable year 1981 pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 275.50, Subdivision 5, Clause (i) and Subdivision 6 are added to The amount actually levied by the governmental subdivision for the taxes payable in the previous year 1981 pursuant to the levy limitation calculated under Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 275.51. is determined.

For taxes payable in 1983 and subsequent years, (i) any amount levied pursuant to any law or special act enacted in 1981 which authorized a property tax levy in excess of the limitation imposed by this section shall be added to the amount levied, and (ii) any amount levied for indebtedness which the governmental subdivision elected to levy for taxes payable in 1982 within its levy limitation in lieu of the special levy provisions pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1981, Section 275.51, Subdivision 3e, Clause (g) shall be subtracted from the amount levied.

(b) If the governmental subdivision was not subject to the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 275.50 to 275.56, the total amount actually levied by the governmental subdivision for the taxes payable year 1981 is reduced by the amounts levied for those purposes described in Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 275.50, Subdivision 5, Clauses (e), (f), (g), and (h).

(e) The total property tax levy of a governmental subdivision for the taxes payable year 1981 described in clause (b) shall be the amount certified on the abstracts of tax lists submitted pursuant to section 275.29. For a governmental subdivision within the metropolitan area defined by section 473F.02, subdivision 2, the property tax levy for payable 1981 includes the tax on distribution value for the taxes payable year 1981 pursuant to section 473F.12.

(d) (b) The amount determined in clause (a) or (b) is divided by the total number of homesteads within the governmental subdivision reported on the 1980 abstracts of tax lists for the year prior to the year in which the taxes were levied and multiplied by the total number of homesteads within the governmental subdivision reported on the 1981 abstracts of tax lists for the year in which the taxes are levied, both of which are submitted pursuant to section 275.29. If the resulting figure is less than the amount determined in clause (a) or (b), the resulting figure is increased to the amount calculated in clause (a) or (b) and shall be used to make the calculation required by clause (e) (c). If the resulting figure is equal to or greater than the amount determined in clause (a) or (b), the resulting figure shall be used to make the calculation required by clause (e) (c).

(e) (c) The result of the calculation in clause (d) (b) is multiplied by 108 percent. The resulting figure is the maximum amount that the governmental subdivision may levy for the taxes payable year 1982 1983 and subsequent years for all purposes except special levies and special assessments.

(f) To the extent the levy of the metropolitan council or a regional development commission for taxes payable in 1981 was less than its levy limitation for that year, it may apply to the commissioner to have its levy limitation increased by the amount by which the 1981 levy limitation exceeded the 1981 levy. The adjustment shall be added to the amount calculated in clause (a).

(g) If the sum of a governmental subdivision's levies for the principal and interest on bonded indebtedness or certificates of indebtedness pursuant to section 275.50, subdivision 5, clauses (e), (f), (g) and (h) for the taxes payable year 1982 is less than 108 percent of the total amount that it levied for those purposes for the taxes payable year 1981, the governmental subdivision may choose to levy for these purposes within its levy limitation in lieu of the special levy provisions of section 275.50, subdivision 5, clauses (e), (f), (g) and (h). If the governmental subdivision chooses to levy for these purposes within its levy limitation, it shall notify the commissioner of revenue of its intent by October 1, 1981. The amount levied by the governmental subdivision for the taxes payable year 1981 for the purposes described in section 275.50, subdivision 5, clauses (e), (f), (g) and (h) will then be added to the amount calculated in clause (a) or (b).

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 477A.03, Subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LIMITATION ON APPROPRIATION; PROPORTIONATE REDUCTION.] The amount appropriated under subdivision 1 shall not exceed $270,725,464 $240,725,464 for calendar year 1982 and shall not exceed $293,561,978 $270,561,978 for calendar year 1983. If the limitations contained in this subdivision result in a reduction in the amounts determined pursuant to sections 477A.012 and 477A.013, each governmental unit receiving local government aid shall have its distribution proportionally reduced, but no local government unit shall receive less aid than its previous year aid.

Sec. 13. [PRORATION OF 1982 AID PAYMENTS.]

Notwithstanding the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 477A or any other law to the contrary, the reduction in state aids payable to local governments required under section 12 shall be effected by providing a pro rata reduction of the aids that would have been paid to each county and municipality under the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Sections 477A.011 to 477A.014 if there had been no such reduction.

Sec. 14. [PROPERTY TAX REFUND REDUCTION.]

For claims filed in 1982 based upon rent paid in 1981, the commissioner of revenue shall pay 92 percent of the credits allowable under section 290A.04, subdivisions 1, 2, and 2a. For purposes of this section, the commissioner shall not reduce the property tax refund of a claimant who is disabled or who had attained the age of 65 by June 1 of the year in which the property taxes were payable. The commissioner shall include with each refund a statement that the reduction is made pursuant to this section.

Sec. 15. Laws 1981, First Special Session, Chapter 1, Article III, Section 3, Subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [HOMESTEAD CREDIT.] The appropriation from the general fund to the commissioner of revenue for the purpose of making the payments provided in Minnesota Statutes, Section 273.13, Subdivisions 6, 7, and 14a shall be limited as follows: in fiscal year 1982, the appropriation shall not exceed $436,800,000; and in fiscal year 1983, the appropriation shall not exceed ~~$469,600,000~~ $481,600,000. In the event that the sum of the county auditors' certifications exceeds ~~the appropriation~~ $483,600,000, the certification amounts shall be proportionally reduced so that their sum equals ~~the appropriation~~ $483,600,000. In any event, the sum of $2,000,000 shall be subtracted from the amounts otherwise due to be paid from the appropriation for fiscal year 1983 to Hennepin, Ramsey, and St. Louis counties, allocated as follows: Hennepin county $1,160,900, Ramsey county $565,200, St. Louis county $273,900. The reductions shall be applied one-sixth to each monthly payment July to December, 1982. The named counties shall apply at least one-half of this aid reduction to reduce county administrative costs rather than to reduce services provided directly to the public.

Sec. 16. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 275.515, is repealed.

Sec. 17. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 9 to 11 are effective for property taxes levied in 1982 and thereafter, payable in 1983 and thereafter. Section 14 is effective the day following final enactment.

commissioner of economic security determination of refusal without cause to participate in a program of training or employment, make vendor payments on behalf of the relative specified or continue aid in the case of a child specified, if during the 60 day period the child or relative accepts counseling or other services which the county welfare department shall make available for the purpose of assisting the child or relative to participate in a program in accordance with the determination of the commissioner of economic security. If the assistance unit's eligibility is based on the principal earner's unemployment and the principal earner fails or refuses without good cause to participate or to accept employment, the entire assistance unit is ineligible for benefits under sections 256.72 to 256.87.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 256.74, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT.] The amount of assistance which shall be granted to or on behalf of any dependent child and mother or other needy eligible relative caring for such the dependent child shall be determined by the county agency with due regard to the resources and necessary expenditures of the family and the conditions existing in each case and in accordance with the rules and regulations made promulgated by the state agency commissioner and shall be sufficient, when added to all other income and support available to the child, to provide such the child with a reasonable subsistence compatible with decency and health. The amount shall be based on the method of budgeting required in Public Law No. 97-35, Section 2315, 42 U.S.C. 602, as amended and federal regulations at 45 C.F.R. Section 233. In making its determination the county agency shall ~~exclude~~ disregard the following from family income:

(1) All of the earned income of each dependent child receiving aid to families with dependent children who is a full-time student or part-time student, and not a full-time employee, attending a school, college, or university, or a course of vocational or technical training designed to fit him for gainful employment;

(2) All educational grants and loans awarded pursuant to a federal law when public assistance was considered in making the award and the award was made on the basis of financial need; and that part of any other educational grant or loan which is used for educational purposes, such as tuition, fees, equipment, transportation and child care expenses necessary for school attendance; ~~and~~

(3) The first $75 of each individual's earned income. In the case of an individual not engaged in full-time employment or not employed throughout the month the commissioner shall prescribe by a rule a lesser amount to be disregarded. For self-employed persons, the expenses directly related to producing goods and services and without which the goods and services could not be produced shall be disregarded pursuant to rules promulgated by the commissioner;

(4) An amount equal to the actual expenditures but not to exceed $160 for the care of each dependent child or incapacitated individual living in the same home and receiving aid. In the case of a person not engaged in full-time employment or not employed throughout the month, the commissioner shall prescribe by rule a lesser amount to be disregarded; and

(5) The first $30 Thirty dollars plus one-third of the remainder of the combined monthly earnings of any dependent child not included under clause (1); and any adult who is a recipient of aid for families with dependent children each individual's earned income not already disregarded for individuals found otherwise eligible to receive aid or who have received aid in one of the four months before the month of application. With respect to any month, the county welfare agency shall not disregard under this clause (2) any earned income of any person who has:

(a) Reduced his earned income without good cause within 30 days preceding any month in which an assistance payment is made; or

(b) Refused without good cause to accept an offer of suitable employment; or

(c) Left employment or reduced his earnings without good cause and applied for assistance so that he might later return to employment with the advantage of the income disregard; or

(d) Failed without good cause to make a timely report of earned income in accordance with rules promulgated by the commissioner of public welfare.

Persons who are already employed and who apply for assistance shall have their needs computed with full account taken of their earned and other income. If earned and other income of the family is less than need, as determined on the basis of public assistance standards, the county agency shall determine the amount of the grant by applying the disregard of income provisions. The county agency shall not disregard earned income for persons in a family if the total monthly earned and other income exceeds their needs, unless for any one of the four preceding months their needs were met in whole or in part by a grant payment. ~~If an individual without good cause leaves employment or reduces his earnings and applies for assistance so that he might later return to employment with advantages of income disregard, he shall not have the benefit of the disregard of income provisions.~~

The disregard of $30 and one-third of the remainder of earned income described in clause (5) shall be applied to the individual's income for a period not to exceed four consecutive months. Any month in which the individual loses this disregard because of the provisions of clause (5)(a) to (5)(d) shall be considered as one of the four months. To again qualify for this earned income disregard, the individual must not be a recipient of aid for a period of 12 consecutive months. If an individual becomes ineligible for aid because this earned income disregard has been applied to income for four consecutive months and will no longer be applied to income, the local agency shall inform the individual of the medical assistance program, its standards of eligibility, and the circumstances under which the individual would be eligible for medical assistance.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 256.74, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [STEPARENT'S INCOME.] In determining income available, the county agency shall take into account the remaining income of the dependent child's stepparent who lives in the same household after disregarding:

(1) The first $75 of the stepparent's gross earned income. The commissioner shall prescribe by rule lesser amounts to be disregarded for stepparents who are not engaged in full-time employment or not employed throughout the month;

(2) An amount for support of the stepparent and any other individuals whom the stepparent claims as dependents for tax purposes and who live in the same household but whose needs are not considered in determining eligibility for assistance under sections 256.72 to 256.87. The amount equals the standard of need for a family of the same composition as the stepparent and these other individuals;

(3) Amounts the stepparent actually paid to individuals not living in the same household but whom the stepparent claims as dependents for tax purposes; and

(4) Alimony or child support, or both, paid by the stepparent for individuals not living in the same household.

Sec. 13. [256.851] [RULES.]

The commissioner of public welfare shall promulgate temporary and permanent rules necessary to implement sections 1 to 19.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 256.872, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [WITHHOLDING ORDER.] Whenever an obligation for support of a dependent child or maintenance of a spouse, or both, has been determined and ordered by a court of this state, the public agency responsible for child support enforcement may move and the district or county court shall grant an order providing for the withholding of the amount of child support or maintenance as determined by court order, from the income, regardless of source of the person obligated to pay the support or maintenance. If the public agency responsible for child support enforcement determines that the obligor's arrearages have accumulated for more than one month, and if the agency is not pursuing another appropriate remedy, the agency shall move the district or county court for an order for withholding under this section or shall document a reason or reasons why withholding would not result in payment being made. "Income" means any form of periodic payments to an individual, including, but not limited to, wages, salary, income as an independent contractor, workers' compensation, unemployment compensation, annuity, military and naval retirement, pension and disability payments.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 256.872, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [REPORT.] The commissioner shall report to the appropriate legislative committees by January 15, 1983, on the extent to which the local public agencies responsible for child support enforcement comply with this section and with sections 518.54 to 518.66.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 256.99, is amended to read:

256.99 [REVERSE MORTGAGE PROCEEDS DISREGARDED.]

All reverse mortgage loan proceeds received pursuant to section 47.58, including interest or earnings thereon, shall be disregarded and shall not be considered available to the borrower for purposes of determining initial or continuing eligibility for, or amount of, medical assistance or any other public assistance program, Minnesota supplemental assistance, general assistance, general assistance medical care, or a federal or state low interest loan or grant. This section applies regardless of the time elapsed since the loan was made or the disposition of the proceeds.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 256B.06, Subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Medical assistance may be paid for any person:

(1) Who is eligible for or receiving public assistance, or a woman who is pregnant, as medically verified, and who would be eligible for assistance under the aid to families with dependent children program if the child had been born and living with the woman; or

(2) Who is eligible for or receiving supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled; or

(3) Who except for the amount of income or resources would qualify for supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled, or aid to families with dependent children and is in need of medical assistance; or

(4) Who is under 21 years of age and in need of medical care that neither he nor his relatives responsible under sections 256B.01 to 256B.26 are financially able to provide; or

(5) Who is residing in a hospital for treatment of mental disease or tuberculosis and is 65 years of age or older and without means sufficient to pay the per capita hospital charge; and

(6) Who resides in Minnesota, or, if absent from the state, is deemed to be a resident of Minnesota in accordance with the regulations of the state agency; and

(7) Who alone, or together with his spouse, does not own real property other than the homestead. For the purposes of this section, "homestead" means the house owned and occupied by the applicant as his dwelling place, together with the land upon which it is situated and an area no greater than two contiguous lots in a platted or laid out city or town or ~~the smallest parcel allowed under applicable zoning regulations~~ 80 contiguous acres in unplatted land. Occupancy or exemption shall be determined as provided in chapter 510 and applicable law, including continuing exemption by filing notice under section 510.07. Real estate not used as a home may not be retained unless it produces net income applicable to the family's needs or the family is making a continuing effort to sell it at a fair and reasonable price or unless sale of the real estate would net an insignificant amount of income applicable to the family's needs, or unless the commissioner determines that sale of the real estate would cause undue hardship; and

(8) Who individually does not own more than $2,000 in cash or liquid assets, or if a member of a household with two family members (husband and wife, or parent and child), does not own more than $4,000 in cash or liquid assets, plus $200 for each additional legal dependent. When only one spouse resides, or will reside after applying for medical assistance, in a nursing home, or is receiving or will receive alternative care under the alternative care grants program in a county with preadmission screening under section 256B.091, the cash or liquid asset amount for two family members is $10,000. The value of the following shall not be included:

(a) the homestead, and (b) one motor vehicle licensed pursuant to chapter 168 and defined as: (1) passenger automobile, (2) station wagon, (3) motorcycle, (4) motorized bicycle or (5) truck of the weight found in categories A to E, of section 168.013, subdivision 1e; and

(9) Who has or anticipates receiving an annual income not in excess of $2,600 for a single person, or $3,250 for two family members (husband and wife, parent and child, or two siblings), plus $625 for each additional legal dependent, or who has income in excess of these maxima and in the month of application, or during the three months prior to the month of application, incurs expenses for medical care that total more than one-half of the annual excess income in accordance with the regulations of the state agency. In computing income to determine eligibility of persons who are not residents of long term care facilities the commissioner shall disregard increases in income of social security or supplementary security income recipients due solely to increases required by sections 215(i) and 1617 of the social security act, and shall disregard income of disabled persons that is also disregarded in determining eligibility for supplemental aid under section 256D.37, subdivision 1, unless prohibited by federal law or regulation. If prohibited, the commissioner shall first seek a waiver. In excess income cases, eligibility shall be limited to a period of six months beginning with the first of the month in which these medical obligations are first incurred; and

(10) Who has continuing monthly expenses for medical care that are more than the amount of his excess income, computed on a monthly basis, in which case eligibility may be established before the total income obligation referred to in the preceding paragraph is incurred, and medical assistance payments may be made to cover the monthly unmet medical need. In licensed nursing home and state hospital cases, income over and above that required for justified needs, determined pursuant to a schedule of contributions established by the commissioner of public welfare, is to be applied to the cost of institutional care. The commissioner of public welfare may establish a schedule of contributions to be made by the spouse of a nursing home resident to the cost of care and shall seek a waiver from federal regulations which establish the amount required to be contributed by either spouse when one spouse is a nursing home resident; and

(11) Who has applied or agrees to apply all proceeds received or receivable by him or his spouse from automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage to the cost of medical care of himself, his spouse, and children. The state agency may require from any applicant or recipient of medical assistance the assignment of any rights accruing under private health care coverage. Any rights or amounts so assigned shall be applied against the cost of medical care paid for under this chapter. Any assignment shall not be effective as to benefits paid or provided under automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage prior to receipt of the assignment by the person or organization providing the benefits.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 256B.07, is amended to read:

256B.07 [EXCEPTIONS IN DETERMINING RESOURCES.]

A local agency may, within the scope of regulations set by the commissioner of public welfare, waive the requirement of liquidation of excess assets when the liquidation would cause undue hardship. Household goods and furniture in use in the home, wearing apparel, insurance policies with cash surrender value not in excess of $1,500 per insured person, personal property used as a regular abode by the applicant or recipient, a prepaid funeral contract not in excess of $750 per person plus accrued interest of not more than $200, and a lot in a burial plot shall not be considered as resources available to meet medical needs.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 518.551, Subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [SERVICE FEE.] When the public agency responsible for child support enforcement provides child support collection services either to a public assistance recipient or to a party who does not receive public assistance, the public agency may upon written notice to the obligor charge a monthly collection fee equivalent to the full monthly cost to the county of providing collection services, in addition to the amount of the child support which was ordered by the court. The fee shall be deposited in the county general fund. The service fee assessed is limited to ten percent of the monthly court ordered child support and shall not be assessed to obligors who are current in payment of the monthly court ordered child support. No fee shall be imposed on the party who requests child support collection services.

However, the limitations of this subdivision on the assessment of fees shall not apply to the extent inconsistent with the requirements of federal law for receiving funds for the programs under Title IV-A and Title IV-D of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 601 to 613 and 42 U.S.C. 651 to 662.

Sec. 20. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 256.935, Subdivision 2; and Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 257.021, are repealed.

Sec. 21. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 20 are effective February 1, 1982."

Amend the title as follows:

Delete lines 2 to 32 and insert:

"relating to public welfare; changing certain provisions governing aid to families with dependent children as authorized or required by federal law; changing or adding provisions governing definitions, eligibility standards, payment levels and amounts, income disregards, budgeting methods, child support or maintenance orders; eliminating a stepparents' general support duty and specifying the amount of stepparent income to be considered available in determining need; eliminating coverage of the unborn; extending medical assistance coverage to certain pregnant women; amending Minnesota Statutes 1980, Sections 256.12, Subdivision 14, and by adding subdivisions; 256.73, Subdivisions 3a, 5, and 6; 256.736, Subdivisions 3 and 4; 256.74, Subdivision 1, and by adding a subdivision; 256.99; and 256B.07; Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Sections 256.73, Subdivision 2; 256.872, Subdivision 1, and by adding a subdivision; 256B.06, Subdivision 1; and 518.551, Subdivision 7; proposing new law coded in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 256; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 256.935, Subdivision 2; and Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 257.021."

INTRODUCTION

Fifteen Senators announced that they would not seek re-election to the Senate in 1982. They were: Robert O. Ashbach, (IR), St. Paul; Otto T. Bang, Jr., (IR), Edina; Marv Hanson, (DFL), Hallock; Hubert H. Humphrey, III, (DFL), New Hope; John B. Keefe, (IR), Hopkins; Franklin J. Knoll, (DFL), Minneapolis; Steven O. Lindgren, (IR), Richfield; Marion (Mike) Menning, (DFL), Edgerton; Timothy J. Penny (DFL), New Richland; George S. Pillsbury, (IR), Wayzata; A. O. H. Setzephandt, (DFL), Bird Island; Gerry Sikorski, (DFL), Stillwater; Irving M. Stern, (DFL), St. Louis Park; Peter P. Stumpf, (DFL), St. Paul; Robert J. Tennesen, (DFL), Minneapolis.

The Third Special Session of 1981 was called by Governor Albert H. Quie and began on December 1, 1981, carried over into 1982 and adjourned on January 18, 1982. For a short period it ran concurrently with the 1982 Regular Session, which began on January 12, 1982. Two Special Sessions were called by Governor Albert H. Quie in 1982. The First Special Session lasted one day, March 30, 1982, and the Second Special Session also lasted only one day, July 9, 1982.

The political makeup of the 1982 Senate, Seventy-Second Legislature, was 44 DFL-ers and 23 Independent Republicans.

Minnesota's constitution requires that the legislature reapportion the state's congressional and legislative districts after every federal census. The new lines are drawn to reflect the population shifts of the preceding ten years and to insure optimum representation at both the state and federal levels of government. In addition, the state's political districts must be drawn in accordance with the U.S. Supreme Court's 1964 "one-man, one-vote" decision which requires political districts to be equal in population.

Overall, the 1980 census data showed an increase in Minnesota's population. The Cities of Minneapolis and St. Paul, however, experienced a population decrease while the surrounding suburbs grew. The state has a total population of 4,075,970 and, ideally, each Senate district would have 60,835 constituents. The census data thus provided a foundation for subsequent legislative proposals and judicial actions.

Members of the Senate attempted to fulfill the constitutional mandate of reapportionment by passing separate bills detailing new congressional and legislative districts. For its part, the House of Representatives passed legislation redrawing congressional district lines, but members could not reach agreement on a bill settling new legislative district boundaries. Although members of both bodies worked to reach a compromise package that would be acceptable to all four caucuses, they were unable to do so. Suit was brought (Sharon LaComb, et al v. Joan Growe, et al) and a three federal judge panel was appointed. The panel named was Eighth Circuit Judge Gerald W. Heaney and two District Court Judges, Donald D. Alsop and Harry H. McLaughlin. Both plans were handed down March 11, 1982. The legislative plan went unchallenged. The congressional plan was challenged, and on May 17, 1982 the U.S. Supreme Court upheld the federal panel's congressional redistricting plan.

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8: A Senate concurrent resolution proclaiming the second week in March as Women's History Week in Minnesota.

WHEREAS, Minnesota women of every race, class, religion, and ethnic background helped found the State of Minnesota in countless recorded and unrecorded ways, among the earliest Native American settlers and as guides, pioneers, nurses, nuns, homemakers, industrial workers, teachers, reformers, scholars, businesswomen, and citizens; and,

WHEREAS, Minnesota women have played from the earliest days and continue to play a critical economic role in every sphere of our state's life by constituting a significant portion of the labor force working inside and outside the home; and,

WHEREAS, Minnesota women of diverse cultures have played and continue to play a unique role in the development of early cultural and social institutions, as volunteers in charitable and philanthropic organizations caring for the underprivileged, and as artists and supporters of drama, art, poetry, literature, music, and architecture; and,

WHEREAS, Minnesota women served as early leaders and continue to serve in the forefront of every major social change movement, not only to secure their own rights of suffrage and equal opportunity, but also in the abolitionist movement, the emancipation movement, the industrial labor union movement, and the modern civil rights movement; and,

WHEREAS, despite the significance and scope of women's contributions in the making of history and in the development of society and culture, the role of Minnesota women has consistently been overlooked and undervalued in history books and seldom mentioned in educational curricula; and,

WHEREAS, March 8, 1982 is the 74th anniversary of International Women's Day, and the United States Congress has set aside the week of March 7, 1982 to observe and celebrate the contributions of women to American society; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the State of Minnesota, the House of Representatives concurring, that the second week of March is permanently designated as Women's History Week throughout the State of Minnesota. The people are urged to observe the week with appropriate ceremonies and celebrations.

Subdivision 1. [RELEVANT EVIDENCE.] In adjudicating under sections 1 to 12 the question of whether a plaintiff's personal injury or disease was caused by the release of a hazardous substance, any evidence having a tendency to make it more probable or less probable, that the hazardous substance causes, contributes to or increases the risk of injury or disease of the sort suffered by the plaintiff is relevant evidence on the issue of causation including:

(a) Evidence concerning the incidence of that sort of injury or disease in the population exposed to the release of that substance;

(b) Evidence of epidemiological studies;

- (c) Evidence of animal studies;
- (d) Evidence of tissue culture studies; and

Subd. 2. [BURDEN OF PRODUCING EVIDENCE.] In adjudicating under sections 1 to 12 the question of whether a plaintiff's personal injury or disease was caused by the release of a hazardous substance, the burden of producing evidence related to causation shifts to the defendant and the question shall be submitted to the trier of fact if the plaintiff shows evidence sufficient to enable the trier of fact to find that:

- (a) There is a reasonable likelihood that the plaintiff was exposed to the hazardous substance found in the release;
- (b) There is a reasonable likelihood that exposure to the hazardous substance causes or significantly contributes to injury or disease of the sort suffered by the plaintiff; and
- (c) There is a reasonable likelihood that the quantity or duration of the plaintiff's exposure to the hazardous substance is sufficient to cause or significantly contribute to injury or disease of the sort suffered by the plaintiff.

Nothing in this subdivision affects the burden of persuasion on the question of whether the release of a hazardous substance caused a personal injury or disease. That burden remains with the plaintiff.

Sec. 6. [115B.06] [APPORTIONMENT OF LIABILITY; LIMITATION; CONTRIBUTION.]

Subdivision 1. [APPORTIONMENT FACTORS.] For the purposes of subdivisions 2 and 3, any person held jointly and severally liable under section 3 may seek an apportionment of the common liability. In apportioning the liability of any party under this section, the trier of fact shall consider the following:

- (a) The ability of the party to demonstrate that his contribution to a release of a hazardous substance can be distinguished;
- (b) The amount of hazardous substance involved;
- (c) The degree of toxicity of the hazardous substance involved;
- (d) The degree of involvement and care exercised in manufacturing, treating, transporting, and disposing of the hazardous substance;
- (e) The degree of cooperation with federal, state, or local officials to prevent any harm to the public health or the environment; and
- (f) Knowledge of the hazardous nature of the substance.

Subd. 2. [LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.] If a person who is held jointly and severally liable under section 3 is able to demonstrate by a preponderance of evidence that his share of the common liability can be apportioned and that his actions were not a significant factor in causing or contributing to the release or the damages resulting from it, then the liability of that person shall be limited to his proportionate share of the common liability.

Subd. 3. [CONTRIBUTION.] Any person held jointly and severally liable under section 3 who is required to pay more than that person's proportionate share of the common liability is entitled to seek contribution from any other person liable for the damages to the extent of their proportionate liability.

Sec. 7. [115B.07] [CIVIL PENALTIES; FAILURE TO TAKE REQUESTED ACTIONS.]

Any person responsible for a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance, pollutant, or contaminant from a facility shall forfeit and pay to the state a penalty in an amount to be determined by the court of not more than $10,000 per day for each day that the person fails to take response actions or to make reasonable progress in completing response actions requested as provided in this section. A request for emergency removal action shall be made by the director. Other requests for response actions shall be made by the agency. The request shall be in writing, shall state the action requested, the reasons for the action, and a reasonable time by which the action must be begun and completed taking into account the urgency of the action for protection of the public health, welfare, and environment.

The penalty provided under this section may be recovered by an action brought by the attorney general in the name of the state in connection with an action to recover expenses of the agency under section 14, subdivision 6, or by a separate action in the district court of Ramsey County. All penalties recovered under this section shall be deposited in the fund.

Sec. 8. [115B.08] [AGREEMENTS TO TRANSFER LIABILITY; INSURANCE AND SUBROGATION.]

No indemnification, hold harmless, conveyance, or similar agreement shall be effective to transfer the liability imposed under section 3 from the owner or operator of a facility or from any person who may be liable under section 3 to any other person. Nothing in this section shall be construed:

(a) To prohibit any party who may be liable under section 3 from entering an agreement by which that party is insured, held harmless or indemnified for part or all of that liability;

(b) To prohibit the enforcement of any insurance, hold harmless or indemnification agreement; or

(c) To bar any cause of action brought by a party who may be liable under section 3 or by an insurer or guarantor, whether by right of subrogation or otherwise.

Sec. 9. [115B.09] [STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS.]

No person may recover for any injury or loss pursuant to sections 3 to 11 unless the action is commenced within six years from the date of discovery of the injury or loss.

Sec. 10. [115B.10] [OTHER REMEDIES PRESERVED.]

Nothing in sections 1 to 12 shall affect the right of any person to bring a legal action or use any remedy available under any other provision of state or federal law, including common law, to recover for injury, disease or economic loss resulting from a release of any hazardous substance, or for removal or the costs of removal of that hazardous substance.

Sec. 11. [115B.11] [DOUBLE RECOVERY PROHIBITED.]

A person who recovers response costs or damages pursuant to sections 1 to 12 may not recover the same costs or damages pursuant to any other law. A person who recovers response costs or damages pursuant to any other state or federal law may not recover for the same costs or damages pursuant to sections 1 to 12.

Sec. 12. [115B.12] [APPLICATION OF SECTIONS 1 TO 11.]

Sections 1 to 11 apply to any release or threatened release of a hazardous substance occurring on or after July 1, 1982, including any release which began before July 1, 1982, and continued after that date. Sections 1 to 11 do not apply to a release or threatened release which occurred wholly before July 1, 1982, regardless of the date of discovery of any injury or loss caused by the release or threatened release.

Sec. 13. [115B.13] [DISPOSITION OF FACILITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [CLOSED DISPOSAL FACILITIES; USE OF PROPERTY.] No person shall use any property on or in which hazardous waste remains after closure of a disposal facility as defined in section 115A.03, subdivision 10, in any way that disturbs the integrity of the final cover, liners, or any other components of any containment system, or the function of the disposal facility's monitoring systems, unless the agency finds that the disturbance:

(a) Is necessary to the proposed use of the property, and will not increase the potential hazard to human health or the environment; or

(b) Is necessary to reduce a threat to human health or the environment.

Subd. 2. [RECORDING OF AFFIDAVIT AND NOTATION.] Before any transfer of ownership of any property on which the owner knew or should have known that a hazardous substance was disposed of or which the owner knew or should have known was contaminated by release of a hazardous substance, the owner shall record with the county recorder of the county in which the property is located an affidavit that discloses to any potential transferee:

(a) That the land has been used to dispose of hazardous waste or that the land has been contaminated by a release of a hazardous substance;

(b) The identity, quantity, location, condition and circumstances of the disposal or contamination to the full extent known or ascertainable; and

(c) That the use of the property may be restricted as provided in subdivision 1. An owner must also file an affidavit within 60 days after any material change in any matter required to be disclosed under clauses (a) to (c) with respect to property for which an affidavit has already been recorded.

When an affidavit is recorded, the owner shall record with the county recorder a notation on the deed to the property which states the existence of a hazardous substance on the property and the place where the recorded affidavit may be found.

If the owner or any subsequent owner of the property removes the hazardous substance, together with any residues, liner, and contaminated underlying and surrounding soil, that owner may record a notation to the deed indicating the removal of the hazardous substance.

Failure to record an affidavit or notation as provided in this subdivision does not affect or prevent any transfer of ownership of the property.

Subd. 3. [DUTY OF COUNTY RECORDER.] The county recorder shall record all affidavits and notations presented to him in accordance with subdivision 2. The affidavits shall be recorded in a manner which will assure their disclosure in the ordinary course of a title search of the subject property.

Subd. 4. [PENALTIES.] (a) Any person who knowingly violates the provisions of subdivision 1 is subject to a civil fine of not more than $100,000, and shall be liable under section 3 for any release or threatened release of any hazardous substance resulting from the violation.

(b) Any person who knowingly fails to record an affidavit or notation as required by subdivision 2 shall be liable under section 3 for any release or threatened release of any hazardous substance from a facility located on that property.

(c) A civil fine may be imposed and recovered by an action brought by a county attorney or by the attorney general in the district court of the county in which the property is located.

Sec. 14. [115B.14] [STATE RESPONSE TO RELEASES OF HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCES.]

Subdivision 1. [REMOVAL AND REMEDIAL ACTION.] Whenever there is a release or substantial threat of release from a facility into the environment of any pollutant or contaminant which presents an imminent and substantial danger to the public health or welfare, or whenever a hazardous substance is released or there is a threatened release of a hazardous substance into the environment from a facility:

(a) The agency may take any removal or remedial action relating to the hazardous substance, pollutant, or contaminant which the agency deems necessary to protect the public health or welfare or the environment. Before taking any action the agency shall:

(1) Request any responsible party known to the agency to take actions which the agency deems reasonable and necessary to protect the public health, welfare or the environment, stating the reasons for the actions, a reasonable time for beginning and completing the actions taking into account the urgency of the actions for protecting the public health, welfare and environment, and the intention of the agency to take action if the requested actions are not taken as requested; and

(2) Determine that the actions requested by the agency will not be taken by any known responsible party in the manner and within the time requested.

(b) The director may take removal action which he deems necessary to protect the public health, welfare or the environment if the director determines that the release or threatened release constitutes an emergency requiring immediate action to prevent, minimize or mitigate damage to the public health, welfare or the environment. Before taking any action the director shall make reasonable efforts in light of the urgency of the action to follow the procedure provided in clause (a), sub-clauses (1) and (2).

No removal action taken by any person shall be construed as an admission of liability for a release or threatened release.

Subd. 2. [POLLUTANT OR CONTAMINANT.] For the purposes of this section and section 7, "pollutant" or "contaminant" includes, but is not limited to, any element, substance, compound, or mixture, including disease-causing agents, which after release from a facility into the environment and upon exposure, ingestion, inhalation, or assimilation into any organism, either directly from the environment or indirectly by ingestion through food chains, will or may reasonably be anticipated to cause death, disease, behavioral abnormalities, cancer, genetic mutation, physiological malfunctions (including malfunctions in reproduction) or physical deformations, in the organisms or their offspring.

Subd. 3. [OTHER ACTIONS.] Whenever the agency or director is authorized to act pursuant to subdivision 1 or whenever the agency or director has reason to believe that a release of a hazardous substance, pollutant or contaminant has occurred or is about to occur, or that illness, disease, or complaints thereof may be attributable to exposure to a hazardous substance, pollutant, or contaminant, the agency or director may undertake investigations, monitoring, surveys, testing, and other information gathering necessary or appropriate to identify the existence and extent of the release or threat thereof, the source and nature of the hazardous substances, pollutants or contaminants involved, and the extent of danger to the public health or welfare or to the environment. In addition, the agency may undertake planning, legal, fiscal, economic, engineering, architectural, and other studies or investigations necessary or appropriate to plan and direct a response action, to recover the costs of the response action, and to enforce the provisions of sections 1 to 14.

Subd. 4. [DUTY TO PROVIDE INFORMATION.] Any person who is responsible for a release or threatened release as provided in section 3, subdivision 2, including a release or threatened release of a pollutant or contaminant, when requested by the agency, or any member, employee or agent thereof who is authorized by the agency, shall furnish to the agency any information which he may have or may reasonably obtain which is relevant to the release or threatened release.

Subd. 5. [ACCESS TO INFORMATION AND PROPERTY.] The agency or any member, employee or agent thereof authorized by the agency, upon presentation of credentials, may:

(a) Examine and copy any books, papers, records, memoranda or data of any person who the agency has reason to believe is responsible for a release or threatened release as provided in section 3, subdivision 2, including a release of a pollutant or contaminant; and

(b) Enter upon any property, public or private, for the purpose of taking any action authorized by this section including obtaining information, examining records; conducting surveys or investigations, and taking removal or remedial action.

Any data collected or held by the agency pursuant to subdivision 4 or 5 shall be classified as private or non-public data as defined in section 15.162.

Subd. 6. [RECOVERY OF EXPENSES.] Any reasonable and necessary expenses incurred by the agency or director pursuant to this section including administrative and legal expenses may be recovered in a civil action brought by the attorney general under sections 1 to 12 or under any other law. The agency's certification of expenses shall be prima facie evidence that the expenses are reasonable and necessary. Any expenses incurred pursuant to this section which are recovered by the attorney general pursuant to sections 3 to 11 or any other law shall be deposited in the fund and may be appropriated only for additional response actions as provided in section 16, subdivision 2, clause (b) or (c).

Subd. 7. [ACTIONS RELATING TO NATURAL RESOURCES.] For the purpose of this subdivision, the state is the trustee of the air, water and wildlife of the state. An action pursuant to sections 1 to 12 for damages with respect to air, water or wildlife may be brought by the attorney general in the name of the state as trustee for those natural resources. Any damages recovered by the attorney general pursuant to sections 1 to 12 or any other law for injury to, or loss of natural resources resulting from the release of a hazardous substance shall be deposited in the fund and may be appropriated only for rehabilitation or restoration of natural resources as provided in section 16, subdivision 2, clause (c).

Subd. 8. [ACTIONS RELATING TO PESTICIDES.] When the commissioner of agriculture has reported an incident involving the release of pesticides under the provisions of section 18A.37, and the agency determines that the incident constitutes a release of a hazardous substance, pollutant or contaminant, the agency shall authorize the commissioner, subject to the provisions of subdivision 11, to take any action which the agency would be authorized to take under subdivisions 1 to 5. Subject to the provisions of section 16, subdivision 3, the agency shall reimburse the commissioner from the fund for the reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in taking those actions and may recover any amount spent from the fund under subdivision 6.

Subd. 9. [ACTIONS RELATING TO OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH.] The agency, director and the commissioner of labor and industry shall make reasonable efforts to coordinate any actions taken under this section and under sections 182.65 to 182.674 to avoid duplication or conflict of actions or requirements with respect to a release or threatened release affecting the safety of any conditions or place of employment.

Subd. 10. [LIMIT ON ACTIONS BY POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS.] When the agency or director has requested a person who is responsible for a release or threatened release to take any response action under subdivision 1, no political subdivision shall request or order that person to take any action which conflicts with the action requested by the agency or director.

Subd. 11. [PRIORITIES; RULES.] By August 1, 1982, the agency shall adopt a temporary list of priorities among releases or threatened releases for the purpose of taking remedial action and, to the extent practicable consistent with the urgency of the action, for taking removal action under this section. The temporary list, with any necessary modifications, shall remain in effect until nine months after criteria for determining priorities are published in the national contingency plan pursuant to the Federal Superfund Act, under 42 U.S.C. Section 9605. By that date, the agency shall adopt rules establishing state criteria for determining priorities among releases and threatened releases. After rules are adopted, a permanent priority list shall be established, and may be modified from time to time, according to the criteria set forth in the rules.

The temporary list and the rules required by this subdivision shall be based upon the relative risk or danger to public health or welfare or the environment, taking into account to the extent possible the population at risk, the hazardous potential of the hazardous substances at the facilities, the potential for contamination of drinking water supplies, the potential for direct human contact, the potential for destruction of sensitive ecosystems, the administrative and financial capabilities of the agency, and other appropriate factors.

Sec. 15. [PURPOSES OF FUND, TAXES AND FEES.]

In establishing the environmental response, compensation and compliance fund and imposing the taxes in sections 18 and 19, it is the purpose of the legislature to:

(a) Encourage treatment and disposal of hazardous waste in a manner that adequately protects the public health and welfare and the environment;

(b) Encourage responsible parties to provide the response actions necessary to protect the public and the environment from the effects of the release of hazardous substances;

(c) Encourage the use of alternatives to land disposal of solid and hazardous waste including resource recovery, recycling, neutralization and reduction;

(d) Provide state agencies with the financial resources needed to prepare and implement an effective and timely state response to the release of hazardous substances, including investigation, planning, removal and remedial action;

(e) Compensate local units of government for increased governmental expenses and loss of revenue and to provide other appropriate assistance to mitigate any adverse impact on communities in which commercial hazardous waste processing or disposal facilities are located under the siting process provided in chapter 115A;

(f) Recognize the environmental and public health costs of land disposal of solid waste and of the use and disposal of hazardous substances and to place the burden of financing state waste management activities on those whose products and services contribute to waste management problems and increase the risks of harm to the public and the environment.

Sec. 16. [ENVIRONMENTAL RESPONSE, COMPENSATION AND COMPLIANCE FUND.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The environmental response, compensation and compliance fund is created as an account in the state treasury and may be spent only for the purposes provided in subdivision 2.

Subd. 2. [PURPOSES FOR WHICH MONEY MAY BE SPENT.] Subject to appropriation by the legislature the money in the fund may be spent for any of the following purposes:

(a) Preparation by the agency for taking removal or remedial action under section 14, including investigation, monitoring and testing activities, enforce*ment and compliance efforts relating to the release of hazardous pollutants or contaminants;*

(b) Removal and remedial actions taken or authorized by the agency or director under section 14 and payment of the state share of the cost of remedial action which may be carried out under a cooperative agreement with the federal government pursuant to the Federal Superfund Act, under 42 U.S.C. Section 9604(c)(3) for actions related to facilities other than those located under the siting authority of chapter 115A;

(c) Removal and remedial actions taken or authorized by the agency or director under section 14 and payment of the state share of the cost of remedial action which may be carried out under a cooperative agreement with the federal government pursuant to the Federal Superfund Act, under 42 U.S.C. Section 9604(c)(3) for actions related to commercial hazardous waste facilities located under the siting authority of chapter 115A;

(d) Compensation to local units of government as provided by law, after submission by the waste management board of the report required under section 115A.08, subdivision 5, to mitigate any adverse impact of the location of commercial hazardous waste processing or disposal facilities located pursuant to the siting authority of chapter 115A;

(e) Planning and implementation by the commissioner of natural resources of the rehabilitation, restoration or acquisition of natural resources to remedy injuries or losses to natural resources resulting from the release of a hazardous substance;

(f) Inspection and monitoring by the agency, or by local units of government with agency approval, of commercial hazardous waste facilities located under the siting authority of chapter 115A;

(g) Grants by the agency or the waste management board to demonstrate alternatives to land disposal of solid and hazardous waste including reduction, separation, pretreatment, processing and resource recovery, for education of persons involved in regulating and handling solid and hazardous waste, and to assist counties to develop comprehensive waste management plans; and

(h) Intervention and environmental mediation by the legislative commission on waste management under chapter 115A.

Subd. 3. [LIMIT ON CERTAIN EXPENDITURES.] The director or agency may not spend any money under subdivision 2, clause (b) or (c) for removal or remedial actions to the extent that the costs of those actions may be compensated from any fund established under the Federal Superfund Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 9600 et seq. The director or agency shall determine the extent to which any of the costs of those actions may be compensated under the federal act based on the likelihood that the compensation will be available in a timely fashion taking into account:

(a) The urgency of the removal or remedial actions and the priority assigned under the Federal Superfund Act to the release which necessitates those actions;

(b) The availability of money in the funds established under the Federal Superfund Act; and

(c) The consistency of any compensation for the cost of the proposed actions

under the Federal Superfund Act with the national contingency plan, if such a plan has been adopted under that act.

Subd. 4. [REVENUE SOURCES.] Revenue from the following sources shall be deposited in the environmental response, compensation and compliance fund:

(a) The proceeds of the taxes imposed pursuant to sections 18 and 19, including interest and penalties;

(b) All money recovered by the state under section 14, subdivisions 6 and 7;

(c) All money paid to the agency in matters relating to the enforcement of sections 1 to 13 or any other statute or rule related to the regulation of hazardous waste or hazardous substances, including civil penalties and money paid under any agreement, stipulation or settlement;

(d) All interest attributable to investment of money deposited in the fund; and

(e) All money received in the form of gifts, grants, reimbursement or appropriation from any source for any of the purposes provided in subdivision 2, except federal grants.

Subd. 5. [RECOMMENDATION BY LCWM.] The legislative commission on waste management shall make recommendations on appropriations from the fund to the standing legislative committees on finance and appropriations.

Subd. 6. [REPORT TO LEGISLATURE.] At the end of each fiscal year, the agency shall submit to the senate finance committee, the house appropriations committee and the legislative commission on waste management a report detailing the activities for which money from the environmental response, compensation and compliance fund has been spent during that year.

Sec. 17. [TAXES AND FEES; DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] The definitions provided in this section apply to sections 17 to 22.

Subd. 2. [COMMISSIONER.] "Commissioner" means the commissioner of revenue.

Subd. 3. [MIXED MUNICIPAL SOLID WASTE.] "Mixed municipal solid waste" means the waste defined in section 115A.02, subdivision 21.

Subd. 4. [SOLID WASTE DISPOSAL FACILITY.] "Solid waste disposal facility" means real or personal property which is primarily used for the land disposal of mixed municipal solid waste.

Subd. 5. [GENERATOR.] "Generator" means a person who generates hazardous waste and who is required to disclose the generation of hazardous waste under the hazardous waste rules of the agency adopted under section 116.07.

Subd. 6. [OPERATOR.] "Operator" means the permittee, owner, or other person in control of the facility under a lease, contract, or other arrangement.

Sec. 18. [SOLID WASTE DISPOSAL TAX.]

Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT OF TAX; APPLICATION.] The operator of any solid waste disposal facility shall pay a tax on solid waste accepted at the facility as follows:

(a) A solid waste disposal facility that weighs the waste which it accepts shall pay a tax of $2 per ton of solid waste accepted.

(b) A solid waste disposal facility which does not weigh the waste which it accepts but which measures the volume of the waste shall pay a tax of 80 cents per cubic yard of waste accepted.

(c) A solid waste disposal facility which does not measure the weight or volume of waste accepted shall pay an annual tax of $1.80 per capita based on the population served by the facility.

(d) The tax imposed under clause (a), (b), or (c) may be reduced by the amount of tax which is attributable to waste accepted by the facility which is separated for recycling or reuse and is not land disposed.

(e) The tax imposed under clause (a), (b), or (c) applies to a solid waste disposal facility operated by a political subdivision only if the political subdivision imposes a charge for the use of the facility on or after January 1, 1982.

Subd. 2. [CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON POPULATION OF SERVICE AREAS.] The tax imposed under subdivision 1, clause (c), shall be based on the population of the area served by a solid waste facility as determined by the agency under this subdivision. By July 1, 1982, the agency shall publish in the state register a list showing each facility subject to tax under subdivision 1, clause (c), and the population of its service area as determined by the agency. By July 1 in each succeeding even-numbered year the agency shall publish a list of those facilities subject to tax under subdivision 1, clause (c), for which the agency has determined a new population figure. For a facility which receives a modified landfill permit under the rules of the agency adopted pursuant to section 116.07, the population shall not be less than the number determined in the permitting process.

The list shall be published with a notice of the right of any operator of a facility subject to tax under subdivision 1, clause (c), to challenge the population determination upon which its tax will be based. A copy of the list and notice shall be sent to each operator subject to tax under subdivision 1, clause (c).

An operator who wishes to challenge the determination of the agency shall notify the agency of his intention and shall provide written evidence to the agency to support his challenge within 30 days of receipt of notice. The agency shall hold a single contested case hearing as necessary to determine any and all challenges to its determination under this subdivision. The hearing shall be completed and the decision of the agency shall be rendered not later than December 1 after the list and notice are published.

The population of a service area as determined under this subdivision shall be conclusive for the purpose of the tax imposed under subdivision 1, clause (c).

Subd. 3. [DISPOSITION OF PROCEEDS.] The proceeds of the tax imposed under this section including any interest and penalties, less the commissioner's costs of administration, shall be deposited in the fund.

Sec. 19. [HAZARDOUS WASTE GENERATOR TAX.]

Subdivision 1. [TAX IMPOSED; EXCLUSIONS.] Each generator of hazardous waste shall pay the tax imposed by this section based upon the volume and destination of the hazardous wastes generated. The generator disclosure forms, annual reports, and hazardous waste management plans required under rules of the agency adopted pursuant to section 116.07 shall be prima facie evidence of the volume and destination of hazardous wastes generated. The tax imposed by this section does not apply to hazardous wastes destined for recycling and reuse or to waste oil.

Subd. 2. [LONG TERM CONTAINMENT WITHOUT TREATMENT.] Hazardous waste destined for long term containment without treatment, including land disposal and long term storage, shall be taxed at the rate of five cents per gallon of liquid or $5 per cubic yard of solid.

Subd. 3. [LONG TERM CONTAINMENT AFTER TREATMENT.] Hazardous waste destined for long term containment after treatment shall be taxed at the rate of four cents per gallon of liquid or $4 per cubic yard of solid.

Subd. 4. [OTHER TREATMENT.] Hazardous waste destined for chemical treatment to produce a material which is not hazardous or which is destined for destructive treatment by incineration or other means shall be taxed at the rate of two cents per gallon of liquid or $2 per cubic yard of solid.

Subd. 5. [ON-SITE TREATMENT; REDUCED TAX.] Hazardous wastes which are treated in a manner provided in subdivision 3 or 4 before the wastes are transported along any public street or highway as defined in section 169.01, subdivision 29, shall be taxed at one-half the rate at which they would otherwise be taxed.

Subd. 6. [DISPOSITION OF PROCEEDS.] The proceeds of the tax imposed under this section including any interest and penalties, less the commissioner's costs of administration; shall be deposited in the fund and may be appropriated for any purpose provided in section 16, subdivision 2, except the purposes provided in clauses (b) and (c) of that section.

Sec. 20. [SEVERABILITY.]

If any tax imposed under section 18 or 19 is found to be invalid because of the purpose for which the proceeds were appropriated or made available under section 16, subdivision 2, the proceeds of that tax shall not be appropriated or available for the objectionable purposes, but the tax shall continue to be imposed and the proceeds shall be appropriated and made available for other purposes provided in section 16, subdivision 2.

Sec. 21. [TAX ADMINISTRATION AND ENFORCEMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENT OF DECLARATIONS OF ESTIMATED TAX.] Except as provided in subdivision 7, any person required to pay a tax under section 18 or 19 shall file with the commissioner of revenue a declaration of his estimated tax for the calendar year. For the purpose of this section, "estimated tax" means the amount which the person estimates as the sum of the taxes imposed on him by section 18 or 19 for the calendar year. The declaration shall be in the form and contain the information required by the commissioner of revenue.

Subd. 2. [DATES OF DECLARATIONS.] Declarations of estimated tax required by subdivision 1 shall be filed by April 15 each year, except that if the person initially accrues a tax liability under section 18 or 19

(a) After April 1 and before June 2, the declaration shall be filed by June 15, or

(b) After June 1 and before September 2, the declaration shall be filed by September 15, or

(c) After September 1, the declaration shall be filed by January 15 of the succeeding year.

An individual may make amendments of a declaration filed during the taxable year, under regulations prescribed by the commissioner of revenue.

The commissioner may grant a reasonable extension of time for filing the declaration and paying the estimated tax, but for no more than six months.

Subd. 3. [DATES OF PAYMENTS.] (1) The amount of estimated tax with respect to which a declaration is required by subdivision 1 shall be paid as follows:

(a) If the declaration is filed on or before April 15, it shall be paid in four equal installments. The first installment shall be paid at the time of the filing of the declaration, the second and third on June 15 and September 15, respectively, of the year during which the liability accrues, and the fourth on January 15 of the succeeding year.

(b) If the declaration is filed after April 15 and not after June 15, and is not required by subdivision 2 to be filed on or before April 15, the estimated tax shall be paid in three equal installments. The first installment shall be paid at the time of the filing of the declaration, the second on September 15, and the third on January 15 of the succeeding year.

(c) If the declaration is filed after June 15 and not after September 15, and is not required by subdivision 2 to be filed on or before June 15, the estimated tax shall be paid in two equal installments. The first installment shall be paid at the time of the filing of the declaration, and the second on January 15 of the succeeding year.

(d) If the declaration is filed after September 15, and is not required by subdivision 2 to be filed on or before September 15, the estimated tax shall be paid in full at the time of the filing of the declaration.

(e) If the declaration is filed after the time prescribed in subdivision 2 including cases in which an extension of time for filing the declaration has been granted, subparagraphs (b), (c), and (d) of this paragraph shall not apply, and there shall be paid at the time of the filing all installments of estimated tax which would have been payable on or before that time if the declaration had been filed within the time prescribed in subdivision 2, and the remaining installments shall be paid at the times at which, and in the amounts in which, they would have been payable if the declaration had been so filed.

(2) If any amendment of a declaration is filed, the remaining installments, if any, shall be ratably increased or decreased to reflect the increase or decrease in the estimated tax under amendment, and if the amendment is made after September 15, any increase in the estimated tax by reason thereof shall be paid at the time of making the amendment.

(3) At the election of the taxpayer any installment of the estimated tax may be paid prior to the date prescribed for its payment.

(4) Payment of the estimated tax, or any installment thereof, shall be considered payment on account of the taxes imposed upon the person by section 18 or 19 for the year.

Subd. 4. [OVERPAYMENT OF ESTIMATED TAX.] If the amount of an installment payment of estimated tax exceeds the amount determined to be the correct amount of the installment payment, the overpayment shall be credited against the unpaid installments, if any. If the total amount of the estimated tax payments exceeds by $1 or more the taxes, and any penalties and interest, reported in the return of the taxpayer or imposed upon him by section 18 or 19, the amount of the excess shall be refunded to the taxpayer. If the amount of the excess is less than $1 the commissioner shall not be required to refund that amount. If the amount of the excess to be refunded exceeds $10, it shall bear interest at the rate of six percent per annum, computed from 90 days after (a) the due date of the return of the taxpayer or (b) the date on which his return is filed, whichever is later, until the date the refund is paid to the taxpayer. The provisions of section 270.10 shall not be applicable.

Any action of the commissioner in refunding the amount of the excess shall not constitute a determination of the correctness of the return of the taxpayer.

The commissioner of finance shall cause any refund of tax and interest to be paid out of the fund established in section 16, and so much of that fund as may be necessary is hereby appropriated for that purpose.

Subd. 5. [UNDERPAYMENT OF ESTIMATED TAX.] (1) In the case of any underpayment of estimated tax, except as provided in paragraph (4), there may be added to and become a part of the taxes imposed by section 18 or 19 for the year an amount determined at the rate specified in section 270.75 upon the amount of the underpayment for the period of the underpayment.

(2) For purposes of the preceding paragraph, the amount of underpayment shall be the excess of

(a) The amount of the installment which would be required to be paid if the estimated tax were equal to 80 percent of the taxes shown on the return for the year or the taxes for the year if no return was filed, over

(b) The amount, if any, of the installment paid on or before the last day prescribed for payment.

(3) The period of the underpayment shall run from the date the installment was required to be paid to whichever of the following dates is the earlier:

(a) April 15;

(b) With respect to any portion of the underpayment, the date on which the portion is paid. For purposes of this subparagraph, a payment of estimated tax on any installment date shall be considered a payment of any previous underpayment only to the extent the payment exceeds the amount of the installment determined under paragraph (2) (a) for the installment date.

(4) The addition to the tax shall not be imposed if the total amount of all payments of estimated tax made on or before the last date prescribed for the payment of the installment equals or exceeds the amount which would have been required to be paid on or before that date if the estimated tax were whichever of the following is the lesser:

(a) The total tax liability shown on the return of the person for the preceding year (if a return showing a liability for taxes was filed by the person for the preceding year), or

(b) An amount equal to 80 percent of the tax for the tax liability computed by placing on an annualized basis the tax liability for the months in the year ending before the month in which the installment is required to be paid. For purposes of this subparagraph, the tax liability shall be placed on an annualized basis by

(i) Multiplying by 12 (or in the case of a taxable year when a tax liability accrued during a period shorter than 12 months, the number of months in the period when the liability accrued) the tax liability computed for the months in the year ending before the month in which the installment is required to be paid;

(ii) Dividing the resulting amount by the number of months in the year ending before the month in which the installment date falls.

Subd. 6. [FAILURE TO PAY.] Any person required under this section to pay an estimated tax, who wilfully fails to pay the estimated tax at the time required by law or regulations, shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Subd. 7. [PAYMENT BY OUT-OF-STATE GENERATORS.] A generator of any hazardous waste which is generated outside of this state and is transported into this state for long term containment or treatment as described in subdivisions 2 to 4 shall pay the tax imposed by this section at the first point at which the hazardous wastes are received by a person in this state for storage, treatment or long term containment. The tax shall be paid to the person who first receives the wastes in this state at the time the waste is received and shall be remitted by that person to the commissioner of revenue quarterly in the form and manner provided by the commissioner.

Subd. 8. [DUTIES OF THE AGENCY.] The agency shall provide to the commissioner the names and addresses of all persons known to the agency who are subject to tax under section 18 or 19, together with any information which the agency possesses concerning the amount of solid waste accepted or hazardous waste generated and disposed of by those persons. The agency shall notify the commissioner of any suspected inaccurate or fraudulent declaration or return and may audit any person subject to tax under section 18 or 19 when requested by the commissioner.

Subd. 9. [PENALTIES; ENFORCEMENT.] The audit, penalty and enforcement provisions applicable to taxes imposed under chapter 290 apply to the taxes imposed under sections 18 and 19 and those provisions shall be administered by the commissioner.

The applicant shall pay in addition to the registration tax required by law, the sum of $10 for the special license plates, and at the time of delivery of the special license plates the applicant shall surrender to the registrar the current license plates issued for the motor vehicle. This provision for the issue of special license plates shall apply only if the applicant's passenger automobile or motorcycle is already registered in Minnesota so that the applicant has valid regular Minnesota plates issued for that passenger automobile or motorcycle under which to operate it during the time that it will take to have the necessary special license plates made. If the applicant owns or jointly owns more than one motor vehicle he may apply for special plates for each of not more than two vehicles, and, if each application complies with this subdivision, the registrar shall furnish the applicant with the special plates, inscribed with the official amateur call letters and other distinguishing information as the registrar considers necessary, for each of the two vehicles. And the registrar may make reasonable regulations governing the use of the special license plates as will assure the full compliance by the owner and holder of the special plates, with all existing laws governing the registration of motor vehicles, the transfer and the use thereof. In lieu of the numbers assigned as provided in subdivision 1, personalized license plates shall have imprinted thereon a series of not to exceed any combination of six numbers and letters. When an applicant has once obtained personalized plates, the applicant shall have a prior claim for similar personalized plates in the next succeeding year that plates are issued if application is made for them at least 30 days prior to the first date on which registration can be renewed. The commissioner of public safety shall adopt rules and regulations in the manner provided by chapter 15, regulating the issuance and transfer of personalized license plates. No words or combination of letters placed on personalized license plates may be used for commercial advertising or be of an obscene, indecent or immoral nature, or that would offend public morals or decency. The call signals or letters of a radio or television station shall not be construed as commercial advertising for the purposes of this subdivision.

Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 1, personalized license plates issued pursuant to this subdivision may be transferred to another motor vehicle upon the payment of a fee of $5, which fee shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the highway user tax distribution fund. The registrar may by regulation provide a form for notification.

The fee prescribed for personalized license plates shall be paid only in those years in which the number plate itself is issued, and shall not be payable in any year in which a year plate, tab or sticker is issued in lieu of a number plate.

Subdivision 1. Medical assistance may be paid for any person:

(1) Who is a child eligible for or receiving adoption assistance payments under Title IV-E of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 670 to 676; or

(2) Who is a child eligible for or receiving foster care maintenance payments under Title IV-E of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 670 to 676; or

(3) Who is eligible for or receiving public assistance, or a woman who is pregnant, as medically verified, and who would be eligible for assistance under the aid to families with dependent children program if the child had been born and living with the woman; or

(4) Who is eligible for or receiving supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled; or

(5) Who except for the amount of income or resources would qualify for supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled, or aid to families with dependent children and is in need of medical assistance; or

(6) Who is under 21 years of age and in need of medical care that neither he nor his relatives responsible under sections 256B.01 to 256B.26 are financially able to provide; or

(7) Who is residing in a hospital for treatment of mental disease or tuberculosis and is 65 years of age or older and without means sufficient to pay the per capita hospital charge; and

(6) (8) Who resides in Minnesota, or, if absent from the state, is deemed to be a resident of Minnesota in accordance with the regulations of the state agency; and

(7) (9) Who alone, or together with his spouse, does not own real property other than the homestead. For the purposes of this section, "homestead" means the house owned and occupied by the applicant as his dwelling place, together with the land upon which it is situated and an area no greater than two contiguous lots in a platted or laid out city or town or 80 contiguous acres in unplatted land. Occupancy or exemption shall be determined as provided in chapter 510 and applicable law, including continuing exemption by filing notice under section 510.07. Real estate not used as a home may not be retained unless it produces net income applicable to the family's needs or the family is making a continuing effort to sell it at a fair and reasonable price or unless sale of the real estate would net an insignificant amount of income applicable to the family's needs, or unless the commissioner determines that sale of the real estate would cause undue hardship; and

(8) (10) Who individually does not own more than $2,000 in cash or liquid assets, or if a member of a household with two family members (husband and wife, or parent and child), does not own more than $4,000 in cash or liquid assets, plus $200 for each additional legal dependent. The value of the following shall not be included:

(a) the homestead, and (b) one motor vehicle licensed pursuant to chapter 168 and defined as: (1) passenger automobile, (2) station wagon, (3) motorcycle, (4) motorized bicycle or (5) truck of the weight found in categories A to E, of section 168.013, subdivision 1e; and

(9) (11) Who has or anticipates receiving an annual income not in excess of $2,600 for a single person, or $3,250 for two family members (husband and wife, parent and child, or two siblings), plus $625 for each additional legal dependent, or who has income in excess of these maxima and in the month of application, or during the three months prior to the month of application, incurs expenses for medical care that total more than one-half of the annual excess income in accordance with the regulations of the state agency. In computing income to determine eligibility of persons who are not residents of long term care facilities, the commissioner shall disregard increases in income of social security or supplementary security income recipients due solely to increases required by sections 215(i) and 1617 of the social security act, and shall disregard income of disabled persons that is also disregarded in determining eligibility for supplemental aid under section 256D.37, subdivision 1, unless prohibited by federal law or regulation. If prohibited, the commissioner shall first seek a waiver. In excess income cases, eligibility shall be limited to a period of six months beginning with the first of the month in which these medical obligations are first incurred; and

(10) (12) Who has continuing monthly expenses for medical care that are more than the amount of his excess income, computed on a monthly basis, in which case eligibility may be established before the total income obligation referred to in the preceding paragraph is incurred, and medical assistance payments may be made to cover the monthly unmet medical need. In licensed nursing home and state hospital cases, income over and above that required for justified needs, determined pursuant to a schedule of contributions established by the commissioner of public welfare, is to be applied to the cost of institutional care. The commissioner of public welfare may establish a schedule of contributions to be made by the spouse of a nursing home resident to the cost of care and shall seek a waiver from federal regulations which establish the amount required to be contributed by either spouse when one spouse is a nursing home resident; and

(H) (13) Who has applied or agrees to apply all proceeds received or receivable by him or his spouse from automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage to the costs of medical care for himself, his spouse, and children. The state agency may require from any applicant or recipient of medical assistance the assignment of any rights accruing under private health care coverage. Any rights or amounts so assigned shall be applied against the cost of medical care paid for under this chapter. Any assignment shall not be effective as to benefits paid or provided under automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage prior to receipt of the assignment by the person or organization providing the benefits."

S.F. No. 1841: A bill for an act relating to the legislature; establishing a legislative science and technology resource council; providing for its powers and duties; proposing new law coded in Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 3.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [3.352] [LEGISLATIVE COMMISSION ON SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION, MEMBERSHIP, MEETINGS.] The legislative commission on science and technology is composed of three senators of the majority party and two senators of the minority party appointed by the subcommittee on committees of the committee on rules and administration, and three representatives of the majority party and two representatives of the minority party appointed by the speaker of the house. The commission shall be appointed and shall hold its first meeting not later than 30 days after enactment of this section. The commission shall elect a chairman from among its members. Meetings of the commission shall be held not less than six times each year.

Subd. 2. [PURPOSE, LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS.] The legislature finds that an increasing number of scientific and technical issues have become major questions of public policy. It further finds that many legislators need greater knowledge and experience in physical and biological sciences and other highly technical fields. Therefore, the legislature declares the need for an on-going staff function that will supply objective services in the areas of issue identification, policy option review, and access to outside professional resource persons. Oversight of the science and technology function shall be primarily the responsibility of the commission established in subdivision 1.

Subd. 3. [GENERAL DUTIES.] The commission shall advise and assist other legislators and standing committees through:

(a) identification of scientific and technological issues that may require legislative involvement in the near or long term future;

(b) improving legislator understanding of technical aspects of issues that come before the legislature;

(c) acquiring adequate access to the testimony and counsel of experts in various scientific and technological fields;

(d) sponsoring seminars or other learning experiences that improve legisla- tor understanding of scientific and technological issues.

Subd. 4. [SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY RESOURCE COUNCIL.] The commission shall establish or continue a science and technology resource council composed of 15 members from the academic and scientific communities of Minnesota. Council members shall serve six year terms, with the terms of five members expiring at the end of each odd-numbered year. The membership of the council shall appoint replacements to fill expired terms and vacancies caused by death, disability, or resignation. In January of each even-numbered year the council shall elect a chairman and vice-chairman from among its members to serve two year terms. The council shall meet upon the call of the chairman or the request of a majority of the council's members. The chairman may create and abolish subcommittees.

All council members shall serve without compensation. However, members may be reimbursed for the actual expenses of attending meetings.

The council may advise and assist the commission on:

(1) holding seminars on science and technology subjects that will provide information to legislators;

(2) defining scientific and technological issues that will be important in the future and that may require legislative encouragement, prohibition, or regulation;

(3) reviewing documents prepared by legislative staff on scientific and technological subjects; and

(4) maintaining access to a pool of specialists and experts who can assist the legislature in consideration of science and technology policy issues.

Subd. 5. [STAFF AND APPROPRIATIONS FOR THE COMMISSION.] The legislative coordinating commission shall be responsible for staffing and appropriations to the commission as provided in Minnesota Statutes 1981 Supplement, Section 3.304, Subdivision 2a. The legislative coordinating commission may delegate staffing responsibilities to an existing staff office of the house of representatives or the senate, a joint legislative committee or office, or a state agency.

The legislative coordinating commission may accept and receive, on behalf of the commission, any grants, gifts, or other funds made available to the state for purposes consistent with this section.

Sec. 2. [APPROPRIATION.]

There is appropriated from the general fund to the legislative coordinating commission the amount of $10,000 for purposes of section 1. This amount is available until June 30, 1983. Of this appropriation, not more than $1,000 shall be used to reimburse members of the science and technology resource council for their actual expenses of attending meetings. The balance may be used for conducting seminars, publishing and distributing printed materials, and other expenses directly related to the purposes of this act.

Sec. 3. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1980, Section 3.351, is repealed.

Sec. 4. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This act is effective the day following final enactment. The science and technology resource council existing prior to Laws 1981, Third Special Session Chapter 2, Article 1, Section 2, Subdivision 1, Clause (a) (8) shall continue as the resource council established pursuant to section 1, subdivision 4."
