“Subdivision 1. [DEFINITION.] As used in sections 1 to 5 the following terms have the meanings assigned to them.

Subd. 2. [BUILDING AND CONSTRUCTION CONTRACT.] “Building and construction contract” means a contract for the design, construction, alteration, improvement, repair or maintenance of real property, highways, roads or bridges. The term does not include contracts for the maintenance or repair of machinery, equipment or other such devices used as part of a manufacturing, converting or other production process, including electric, gas, and telephone utility equipment.

Subd. 3. [INDEMNIFICATION AGREEMENT.] “Indemnification agreement” means an agreement by the promisor to indemnify or hold harmless the promisee against liability or claims of liability for damages arising out of bodily injury to persons or out of damage to property.

Subd. 4. [PROMISEE.] “Promisee” includes that party’s independent contractors, agents, employees or indemnities.

Sec. 2. [337.02] [UNENFORCEABILITY OF CERTAIN AGREEMENTS.]

An indemnification agreement contained in, or executed in connection with, a building and construction contract is unenforceable except to the extent that the underlying injury or damage is attributable to the promisor’s negligent or otherwise wrongful act or omission, including breach of a specific contractual duty.

Sec. 3. [337.03] [NONAPPLICATION TO CERTAIN AGREEMENTS.]

Sections 1 to 5 do not apply to an agreement by which a contractor responsible for the performance of a building and construction contract indemnifies a person, firm, corporation, or public agency for whose account the construction is not being performed, but who, as an accommodation, permits the contractor to enter upon or adjacent to its property for the purpose of performing the building and construction contract for another. Sections 1 to 5 do not apply to an indemnification agreement which is an integral part of an offer to compromise or settlement of a disputed claim, if:

(a) the settlement is based on consideration;

(b) the dispute relates to an alleged event which is related to a construction contract and which occurred before the settlement is made; and

(c) the indemnification relates only to claims which have arisen or may arise from the past event.

Sec. 4. [337.04] [VALIDITY OF OTHER AGREEMENTS.]

Sections 1 to 5 do not affect the validity of any insurance contract, workers' compensation agreement, construction bond, or other agreement lawfully issued by an insurer or bonding company.

Sec. 5. [337.05] [AGREEMENTS TO INSURE.]

Subdivision 1. [AGREEMENTS VALID.] Sections 1 to 5 do not affect the validity of agreements whereby a promisor agrees to provide specific insurance coverage for the benefit of others.

Subd. 2. [INDEMNIFICATION FOR BREACH OF AGREEMENT.] If:

(a) a promisor agrees to provide specific types and limits of insurance; and

(b) a claim arises within the scope of the specified coverage; and

(c) the promisor did not obtain and keep in force the specified coverage; then the promisee may have indemnification from the promisor to the same extent as the specified coverage.

Subd. 3. [WHEN INDEMNIFICATION NOT AVAILABLE.] The indemnification stated in subdivision 2 is not available if:

(a) the specified insurance was not reasonably available in the market; and

(b) the promisor so informed the other party to the agreement to insure before signing the agreement, or signed the agreement subject to a written exception as to the nonavailable insurance.

Sec. 6. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 5 are effective January 1, 1984, and apply to all applicable agreements executed on or after that date."

The license is effective until revoked or suspended by the commission or relinquished by the licensee.

Subd. 5. [PROHIBITED LOCATIONS.] A class A license may not be issued to any location where the operation of a racetrack is prohibited by a valid local zoning ordinance. Not more than one class A license may be issued by the commission within the seven-county metropolitan area.

Subd. 6. [CHANGES IN OWNERSHIP OR MANAGEMENT.] If a change in the officers, directors, shareholders, or other persons with a present or future direct or indirect financial or management interest in the licensee, or a change of ownership of more than five percent of the licensee's shares is made after the application is filed or the license issued, the applicant or licensee must notify the commission of the changes within five days of their occurrence and provide the affidavit required by subdivision 1, clause (d).

Subd. 7. [LICENSE SUSPENSION AND REVOCATION.] The commission may revoke a class A license for a violation of law, order, or rule which in the commission's opinion adversely affects the integrity of horse racing in Minnesota, or for an intentional false statement made in a license application, or for a willful failure to pay any money required to be paid by this act.

The commission may suspend a class A license for up to one year for a violation of law, order, or rule which in the commission's opinion adversely affects the integrity of horse racing in Minnesota, and may suspend a class A license indefinitely if it determines that the licensee has as an officer, director, shareholder, or other person with a direct, indirect, or beneficial interest a person who is in the commission's opinion inimical to the integrity of horse racing in Minnesota or who cannot be certified under subdivision 1, clause (d).

A license revocation or suspension under this subdivision is a contested case under sections 14.57 to 14.70 of the administrative procedure act, and is in addition to criminal penalties imposed for a violation of law or rule.

Subd. 8. [WORK AREAS.] A class A licensee must provide at no cost to the commission suitable work areas for commission members, officers, employees, and agents who are directed by the commission to supervise and control racing at the licensed racetrack.

Sec. 7. [240.07] [RACING LICENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] The commission may issue one or more class B licenses for the sponsorship and management of horse racing at licensed racetracks. An application for a class B license must be on a form the commission prescribes, and must be accompanied by a bond in the principal amount of $500,000 payable to the state of Minnesota conditioned on the licensee's payment of all fees, taxes, and other money due and payable under this act, including horse owner's purses and payouts on winning pari-mutuel tickets.

The application must contain:

(a) the name and address of the applicant and, if it is a corporation or association, the names of all officers, directors, and shareholders, including those of any of its holding companies;

(b) if required by the commission, the names of any person or persons holding, directly, indirectly, or beneficially, an interest of any kind in the applicant or any of its holding companies, whether the interest is financial, administrative, policy-making, or supervisory;

(c) a statement of the assets and liabilities of the applicant;

(d) an affidavit of the type described in section 6, subdivision 1, clause (d);

(e) an irrevocable consent statement, to be signed by the applicant, which states that suits and actions relating to the subject matter of the application or acts or omissions arising from it may be commenced against the applicant in any court of competent jurisdiction in this state by the service on the secretary of state of any summons, process, or pleadings authorized by the laws of this state. If any summons, process, or pleadings is served upon the secretary of state, it must be by duplicate copies. One copy must be retained in the office of the secretary of state and the other copy must be forwarded immediately by certified mail to the address of the applicant, as shown by the records of the commission; and

(f) an affirmative action plan establishing goals and timetables consistent with the Minnesota Human Rights Act, chapter 363.

Subd. 2. [HEARINGS; INVESTIGATIONS.] Before granting an initial class B license the commission shall hold at least one public hearing on the license. Comprehensive investigations must be conducted and their costs paid in the manner prescribed by section 6, subdivision 3. The commission has access to all criminal history data compiled by the bureau of criminal apprehension on class B licensees and applicants.

Subd. 3. [LICENSE ISSUANCE.] If after considering the information received from the hearing and investigations, the commission determines that the applicant will conduct horse racing in accordance with all applicable laws and rules, will not adversely affect the public health, welfare, and safety, that the license will not create a competitive situation that will adversely affect racing and the public interest and that the applicant is fit to sponsor and manage racing, the commission may issue a class B license. The license is for a period of one year.

Subd. 4. [RENEWAL.] On making the same determination as in subdivision 3, the commission may renew a class B license without a hearing unless it determines a hearing to be necessary.

Subd. 5. [CHANGES IN OWNERSHIP.] If a change in the officers, directors, or other persons with a direct or indirect financial or management interest in the licensee, or a change of ownership of more than five percent of the licensee's shares is made after the initial application or license issuance, the applicant or licensee must notify the commission of the changes within five days of their occurrence and provide the affidavit required in subdivision 1.

Subd. 6. [LICENSE SUSPENSION AND REVOCATION.] Suspension, revocation, and refusal to renew a class B license is as provided in section 6, subdivision 7. A license suspension or revocation or a refusal to renew a class B license, is a contested case under section 14.57 to 14.70 of the administrative procedure act, and is in addition to criminal penalties imposed for a violation of law or rule.

Subd. 7. [MULTIPLE LICENSES.] A person may simultaneously hold one class A and one class B license.

Sec. 8. [240.08] [OCCUPATION LICENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY.] The commission may issue class C occupational licenses to persons who wish to be employed in horse racing where pari-mutuel betting is conducted as:

- (a) horse owners or lessees;
- (b) jockeys or drivers;
- (c) exercise workers;
- (d) grooms;
- (e) trainers and their assistants;
- (f) pari-mutuel personnel;
- (g) security officers;
- (h) other occupations the commission by rule determines require licensing to ensure the integrity of horse racing in Minnesota.

Subd. 2. [APPLICATION.] An application for a class C license must be on a form the commission prescribes and must be accompanied by an affidavit of qualification that the applicant:

(a) is not in default in the payment of an obligation or debt to the state under this act;

(b) has never been convicted of a felony in a state or federal court and does not have a state or federal felony charge pending;

(c) is not and never has been connected with or engaged in an illegal business;

(d) has never been found guilty of fraud or misrepresentation in connection with racing or breeding;

(e) has never been found guilty of a violation of law or rule relating to horse racing, pari-mutuel betting or any other form of gambling which is a serious violation as defined by the commission's rules; and

(f) has never knowingly violated a rule or order of the commission or a law of Minnesota relating to racing.

The application must also contain an irrevocable consent statement, to be signed by the applicant, which states that suits and actions relating to the subject matter of the application or acts or omissions arising from it may be commenced against the applicant in any court of competent jurisdiction in this state by the service on the secretary of state of any summons, process, or pleadings authorized by the laws of this state. If any summons, process, or pleadings is served upon the secretary of state, it must be by duplicate copies. One copy must be retained in the office of the secretary of state and the other copy must be forwarded immediately by certified mail to the address of the applicant, as shown by the records of the commission.

Subd. 3. [INVESTIGATIONS.] The commission shall investigate each applicant for a class C license to the extent it deems necessary, and may request the assistance of and may reimburse the bureau of criminal apprehension in investigating applicants. The commission may by rule require that an applicant be fingerprinted or furnish his fingerprints. Investigations must be conducted and their costs paid in the manner prescribed by section 6, subdivision 3. The commission may cooperate with national and international organizations and agencies in conducting investigations. The commission may by rule provide for examining the qualifications of an applicant for the license for which he is applying. The commission has access to all criminal history data compiled by the bureau of criminal apprehension on class C applicants and licensees.

Subd. 4. [LICENSE ISSUANCE AND RENEWAL.] If the commission determines that the applicant is qualified for the occupation for which licensing is sought and will not adversely affect the public health, welfare, and safety or the integrity of racing in Minnesota, it may issue a class C license to the applicant. If it makes a similar finding for a renewal of a class C license it may renew the license. Class C licenses are effective for one year.

Subd. 5. [REVOCAION AND SUSPENSION.] The commission may revoke a class C license for a violation of law or rule which in the commission's opinion adversely affects the integrity of horse racing in Minnesota, or for an intentional false statement made in a license application.

The commission may suspend a class C license for up to one year for a violation of law, order or rule.

The commission may delegate to its designated agents the authority to impose suspensions of class C licenses, and the suspension may be appealed to the commission according to its rules.

A license revocation or suspension is a contested case under sections 14.57 to 14.70 of the administrative procedure act and is in addition to criminal penalties imposed for a violation of law or rule.

Sec. 9. [240.09] [COUNTY FAIR LICENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] The commission may issue class D licenses to county agricultural societies or associations incorporated under chapter 38 or nonprofit corporations in existence on April 21, 1951 and operating fairs, to conduct and manage, on their own fairgrounds, horse racing on which pari-mutuel betting is conducted. An application for a class D license must be on a form the commission prescribes and must be accompanied by a certified copy of a resolution of the county board of the county where racing is to be conducted stating that it has reviewed the license application and does not object to it. An application for a class D license must be accompanied by detailed plans and specifications of the track, buildings, fences, and other improvements.

Subd. 2. [OCCUPATIONAL LICENSES.] A person who participates in the management or conduct of horse racing or pari-mutuel betting for a county fair holding a class D license who is in an occupation listed in section 8, subdivision 1 must have a class C license from the commission except for active members, as defined in section 349.12, of nonprofit organizations who act without compensation as concession workers or pari-mutuel clerks.

Subd. 3. [HEARING.] Before granting an initial application for a class D license, the commission must hold at least one public hearing in the county where the license is to be issued, and if the racetrack to be licensed is within a city, it must also request comments on the application from the city council.

Subd. 4. [ISSUANCE.] If after considering the information received at the hearing or hearings and considering the comments requested under subdivision 3, the commission determines that the license will not adversely affect the public health, welfare, and safety and that the racing to be licensed will be conducted in accordance with all applicable laws and rules, it may issue a class D license to the applicant. The license is for a period of one year.

Subd. 5. [RENEWAL.] On making the same determination as in subdivision 4, the commission may renew a class D license without a hearing unless it determines a hearing is necessary.

Subd. 6. [REVOCAION AND SUSPENSION.] Revocation and suspension of class D licenses, and refusals to renew class D licenses, are as provided in section 6, subdivision 7. A license suspension or revocation or a refusal to renew a class D license is a contested case under sections 14.57 to 14.70 of the administrative procedure act and is in addition to criminal penalties imposed for a violation of law or rule.

Sec. 10. [240.10] [LICENSE FEES.]

The fee for a class A license is $10,000 per year. The fee for a class B license is $100 for each assigned racing day on which racing is actually conducted. The fee for a class D license is $50 for each assigned racing day on which racing is actually conducted. Fees imposed on class B and class D licenses must be paid to the commission at a time and in a manner as provided by rule of the commission.

The commission shall by rule establish an annual license fee for each occupation it licenses under section 8 but no annual fee for a class C license may exceed $100.

License fee payments received must be paid by the commission to the state treasurer for deposit in the general fund.

Sec. 11. [240.11] [LICENSES NONTRANSFERABLE.]

A license issued under this act may not be transferred.

Sec. 12. [240.12] [LICENSE AGREEMENTS.]

The commission may enter into agreements with comparable bodies in other racing jurisdictions for the mutual recognition of occupational licenses issued by each body. The commission may by rule provide for and may charge a fee for the registration of each license issued in another jurisdiction.

Sec. 13. [240.13] [PARI-MUTUEL BETTING.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZED.] Class B and class D licenses give the licensees authority to conduct pari-mutuel betting on the results of races run at the licensed racetrack, and on other races as authorized by the commission under subdivision 6.

Subd. 2. [REQUIREMENTS.] A licensee conducting pari-mutuel betting must provide at the licensed track:

(a) the necessary equipment for issuing pari-mutuel tickets; and

(b) mechanical or electronic equipment for displaying information the commission requires. All mechanical or electronic devices must be approved by the commission before being used.

Subd. 3. [TYPES OF BETTING.] The commission shall by rule designate those types of pari-mutuel pools which are permitted at licensed racetracks, and no licensee may conduct any type of pari-mutuel pool which has not been so designated.

Subd. 4. [TAKEOUT; DISTRIBUTION OF WINNINGS.] A licensee conducting pari-mutuel betting must deduct from a straight pari-mutuel pool, before payments to holders of winning tickets, an amount equal to 17 percent of the total money in that pool. The licensee must deduct from a multiple pari-mutuel pool, before payments to the holders of winning tickets, an amount equal to 23 percent of the total money in that pool. The remaining money in each pool must be distributed among the holders of winning tickets in a manner the commission by rule prescribes for each type of pool. Breakage must be computed on the basis of payoffs rounded down to the next lowest increment of 20 cents, with a minimum payoff of $2.20 on a $2 ticket, except that the licensee may reduce the minimum payoff to $2.10 on a $2 ticket if there is not a sufficient amount in a pool to make a minimum payoff of $2.20.

Subd. 5. [PURSES.] From the amounts deducted from all pari-mutuel pools by a licensee, an amount equal to five percent of all money in all pools must be set aside by the licensee and used for purses for races conducted by him. The commission may by rule provide for the administration and enforcement of this subdivision.

Subd. 6. [TELEVISED RACES.] The commission may by rule permit a class B or class D licensee to conduct on the premises of the licensed racetrack pari-mutuel betting on horse races run in other states and broadcast by television on the premises. All provisions of law governing pari-mutuel betting apply to pari-mutuel betting on televised races except as otherwise provided in this subdivision or in the commission's rules. Pari-mutuel pools conducted on such televised races may consist only of money bet on the premises and may not be commingled with any other pool off the premises, except that:

(a) the licensee may pay a fee to the person or entity conducting the race for the privileges of conducting pari-mutuel betting on the race, and

(b) the licensee may pay the costs of transmitting the broadcast of the race.

Pari-mutuel betting on a televised race may be conducted only on a racing day assigned by the commission. The takeout and taxes on pari-mutuel pools on televised races are as provided for other pari-mutuel pools. All televised races under this subdivision must comply with the Interstate Horse Racing Act of 1978 as found in United States Code, title 15, section 3001 and the following relevant sections.

Subd. 7. [TIME LIMIT FOR PAYMENTS.] The licensee must pay off on an uncashed ticket presented for payment within 90 days of the end of the racing meeting during which it was issued. A ticket not presented for payment within that period is an unredeemed ticket and shall be reported to the commission as provided in section 15, subdivision 5.

Subd. 8. [PROHIBITED ACTS.] A licensee may not accept a bet from any person under the age of 18 years; and a licensee may not accept a bet of less than $2.

Sec. 14. [240.14] [RACING DAYS.]

Subdivision 1. [ASSIGNMENT OF RACING DAYS.] The commission shall assign racing days to each racetrack licensee authorized to conduct racing with pari-mutuel betting, and a licensee may conduct racing with pari-mutuel betting only on a racing day assigned by the commission. The commission may assign racing days for up to three years beyond the year in which the assignment is made. Assignments of racing days in any year must be made by July 1 of the previous year, except that days may be assigned after that date to a licensee whose license is issued after that date.

Subd. 2. [HEARING.] A public hearing is required before the commission may:

(a) make an assignment of racing days;

(b) revise the assignment during the year; or

(c) assign racing days to a licensee whose license is issued after the initial assignment.

The commission may without a hearing assign one additional racing day to a licensee for each originally assigned racing day during the same racing meeting on which racing was not conducted for reasons beyond the licensee's control.

Subd. 3. [COUNTY FAIR RACING DAYS.] The commission may assign to a class D licensee only those racing days, not to exceed ten racing days, which coincide with the days on which the licensee's county fair is running or the weekend preceding or following the county fair.

Subd. 4. [RESCINDING OF RACING DAYS.] The commission may, after a public hearing, rescind one or more racing days assigned to a licensee if it determines that the licensee has not met or will not meet the terms of his license. A day or days so rescinded may be reassigned to another licensee.

Sec. 15. [240.15] [PAYMENTS TO STATE.]

Subdivision 1. [TAXES IMPOSED.] (a) There is imposed on the total amount bet on all pari-mutuel pools on each racing day a tax at the following rates:

(1) For each racing day in a calendar year on which the total amount bet, together with the total amount bet at the same licensed racetrack in all previous racing days in the same calendar year does not exceed $48,000,000, 1-3/4 percent of the total amount bet in all pari-mutuel pools.

(2) For each racing day in a calendar year after the racing day on which the total amount bet in all pari-mutuel pools at the same licensed racetrack in the same calendar year exceeds $48,000,000, six percent of the total amount bet in all pari-mutuel pools.

In addition to the above tax, the licensee must designate and pay to the commission a tax for deposit in the Minnesota breeders fund, at the following rates:

(1) For racing days on which the state tax under clause (a)(1) is 1-3/4 percent, one-half percent of the total amount bet in all pari-mutuel pools.

(2) For racing days on which the state tax under clause (a)(2) is six percent, one percent of the total amount bet in all pari-mutuel pools.

The taxes imposed by this clause must be paid from the amounts permitted to be withheld by a licensee under section 13, subdivision 4.

(b) The commission shall impose on each paid admission to each licensed racetrack on a racing day a tax of 40 cents. It may impose an additional admissions tax of not more than ten cents at any licensed racetrack if:

(1) the additional tax is requested by a local unit of government within whose borders the track is located;

(2) a public hearing is held on the request; and

(3) the commission finds that the local unit of government requesting the additional tax is in need of its revenue to meet extraordinary expenses caused by the racetrack.

Subd. 2. [PAYMENT.] The licensee must remit the tax to the commission or its representative within seven days of the day on which it was collected.

In addition to the tax and at that time the licensee must pay to the commission or its representative a sum equal to one-half the total breakage for each racing day during the period for which the tax is paid. The payments must be accompanied by a detailed statement of the remittance on a form the commission prescribes. The commission may by rule provide for the direct deposit of required payments in the commission's account in a financial institution within the state and for determining the time of applicability of different tax rates under subdivision 1.

Subd. 3. [TAX EXCLUSIVE.] The tax imposed by subdivision 1 is in lieu of any tax or license fee, other than taxes on real property, imposed by a political subdivision and in lieu of any other sales or excise tax imposed by the state on racetrack admissions or pari-mutuel pools or pari-mutuel ticket sales.

Subd. 4. [REPORTS.] Within 100 days of the end of a racing meeting a licensee subject to the tax imposed by subdivision 1 must file with the commission a certified statement of receipts from all sources during the racing meeting and of expenses and disbursements, itemized on a form the commission prescribes after consultation with the state auditor, showing the licensee's net revenues from all sources. The statement must be prepared by a certified public accountant in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards.

Subd. 5. [UNREDEEMED TICKETS.] Not later than 100 days after the end of a racing meeting a licensee who sells pari-mutuel tickets must remit to the commission or its representative an amount equal to the total value of unredeemed tickets from the racing meeting. The remittance must be accompanied by a detailed statement of the money on a form the commission prescribes.

Subd. 6. [DISPOSITION OF PROCEEDS.] The commission shall distribute all money received under this section, and all money received from license fees and fines it collects, as follows: all money designated for deposit in the Minnesota breeders fund must be paid into that fund for distribution under section 18. Revenue from an additional admissions tax imposed under subdivision 1 must be paid to the local unit of government at whose request it was imposed, at times and in a manner the commission determines. All other revenues received under this section by the commission, and all license fees, fines, and other revenue it receives, must be paid to the state treasurer for deposit in the general fund.

Sec. 16. [240.16] [STEWARDS.]

Subdivision 1. [POWERS AND DUTIES.] All horse races run at a licensed racetrack must be presided over by a board of three stewards, who must be appointees of the commission or persons approved by it. The commission shall designate one steward as chairman. At least two stewards for all races shall be employees of the commission and they shall serve in the unclassified service. The commission may delegate the following duties and powers to a board of stewards:

- (a) to ensure that races are run in accordance with the commission's rules;*

- (c) to settle disputes arising from the running of horse races, and to certify* official results;

(d) to impose on licensees, for violation of law or commission rules, fines not exceeding $500 and license suspensions not exceeding 30 days;

(e) to recommend to the commission where warranted penalties in excess of those in clause (d);

(f) to otherwise enforce the laws and rules of racing; and

(g) to perform other duties and have other powers assigned by the commission.

Subd. 2. [APPEALS; HEARINGS.] A ruling of a board of stewards may be appealed to the commission or be reviewed by it on its own initiative. The commission may provide for appeals to be heard by less than a quorum of the commission. A hearing on a penalty imposed by a board of stewards must be granted on request.

Subd. 3. [PROCEDURAL POWERS.] A board of stewards has the authority to administer oaths, issue subpoenas, order the production of documents and other evidence, and regulate the course of hearings before it, according to the commission's rules. Hearings held by a board of stewards are not subject to the provisions of the administrative procedure act except those provisions which the commission by rule makes applicable.

Subd. 4. [RULES.] In addition to rules under subdivision 3, the commission may promulgate rules governing the qualifications, appointment, approval, authority, removal, and compensation of stewards.

Subd. 5. [COSTS.] The commission may require that a licensee reimburse it for the costs of providing a state-paid steward or stewards to supervise racing at the licensee's racetrack.

Subd. 6 [COMPENSATION.] The total compensation of stewards who are not employees of the division must be commensurate with the compensation of stewards who are division employees

Sec. 17. [240.17] [LOCAL OPTION.]

Subdivision 1. [CITIES.] An issuance of a class A license for a location in a city is not effective until it has been approved by a majority vote of the city council. Failure to act on a license within 30 days of its referral to a city council by the commission constitutes approval.

Subd. 2. [TOWNS.] An issuance of a class A license for a location in a town is not effective until it has been approved by a majority vote of the town board. Failure to act on a license within 30 days of its referral to the town board by the commission constitutes approval.

Subd. 3. [UNORGANIZED TERRITORY.] An issuance of a class A license for a location in unorganized territory is not effective until it has been approved by a majority vote of the county board. Failure to act on a license within 30 days of its referral to the county board by the commission constitutes approval.

Sec. 18. [240.18] [BREEDERS FUND.]

The commission shall establish a Minnesota breeders fund with the money paid to it under section 15, subdivision 1. The commission, after paying the costs of administering the fund, shall distribute the net proceeds as follows:

(1) Twenty percent of the remaining money in the fund must be expended as grants for equine research and related education at public institutions of post-secondary learning within the state.

(2) After deducting the amount for (1), the balance of the fund shall be apportioned into categories corresponding with the various breeds of horses which raced at licensed Minnesota racetracks in the previous year, in proportion to each category's contribution to the fund. The funds in each category may be expended by the commission to:

(a) supplement purses for races held exclusively for Minnesota-bred, Minnesota-foaled or Minnesota-owned horses until January 1, 1986, and for Minnesota-bred and Minnesota-foaled horses after that date;

(b) pay breeders or owners awards to the breeders or owners of Minnesota-bred horses which win money at licensed racetracks in the state; and

(c) provide other financial incentives to encourage the horse breeding industry in Minnesota.

The commission shall adopt rules governing the distribution of the fund. The commission may establish advisory committees to advise it on the distribution of money under this section, provided that the members of an advisory committee shall serve without compensation.

Sec. 19. [240.19] [CONTRACTS.]

The commission shall by rule require that all contracts entered into by a class A, class B, or class D licensee for the provision of goods or services, including concessions contracts, be subject to commission approval. The rules must require that the contract include an affirmative action plan establishing goals and timetables consistent with the Minnesota Human Rights Act, chapter 363. The commission may require a contract holder to submit to it documents and records the commission deems necessary to evaluate the contract.

Sec. 20. [240.20] [APPEALS.]

Appeals from a decision of the commission must be made in the manner prescribed by sections 14.63 to 14.68.

Sec. 21. [240.21] [RIGHT OF INSPECTION.]

The commission and its representatives have the right to inspect the licensed premises of a licensee and to examine his books and other records at any time without a search warrant.

Sec. 22. [240.22] [FINES.]

The commission shall by rule establish a graduated schedule of civil fines for violations of laws related to horse racing or of the commission's rules. The schedule must include minimum and maximum fines for each violation and be based on and reflect the culpability, frequency and severity of the violator's actions. The commission may impose a fine from this schedule on a licensee for a violation of those rules or laws relating to horse racing. The fine is in addition to any criminal penalty imposed for the same violation.

Fines imposed by the commission must be paid to the commission and forwarded to the state treasurer for deposit in the general fund. A fine is a contested case under the administrative procedure act.

Sec. 23. [240.23] [RULEMAKING AUTHORITY.]

The commission has the authority, in addition to all other rulemaking authority granted elsewhere in this act, to promulgate rules governing:

(a) the conduct of horse races held at licensed racetracks in Minnesota, including but not limited to the rules of racing, standards of entry, operation of claiming races, filing and handling of objections, carrying of weights, and declaration of official results;

(h) entry fees and other funds received by a licensee in the course of conducting racing which the commission determines must be placed in escrow accounts; and

(i) any other aspect of horse racing or pari-mutuel betting which in its opinion affects the integrity of racing or the public health, welfare, or safety.

Rules of the commission are subject to chapter 14, the Administrative Procedure Act.

Sec. 24. [240.24] [MEDICATION.]

The commission shall make and enforce rules governing medication and medical testing for horses running at licensed racetracks. The rules must provide that no medication, as the commission defines that term by rule, may be administered to a horse within 48 hours of a race it runs at a licensed racetrack. The commission shall by rule establish the qualifications for laboratories used by it as testing laboratories to enforce its rules under this section.

Sec. 25. [240.25] [PROHIBITED ACTS.]

Subd. 7. [ALTERED TICKETS.] No person may knowingly offer for payment any pari-mutuel ticket which has been altered or any counterfeit or forged pari-mutuel ticket.

Subd. 2. [HEARING; APPEAL.] An order to exclude a person from any or all licensed racetracks in the state must be made by the commission at a public hearing of which the person to be excluded must have at least five days' notice. If the person is present at the hearing, he must be permitted to show cause why he should not be excluded. An appeal of the order may be made in the same manner as other appeals under section 20.

Subd. 3. [NOTICE TO RACETRACKS.] Upon issuing an order excluding a person from any or all licensed racetracks, the commission shall send a copy of the order to the excluded person and to all racetracks named in it, along with other information as it deems necessary to permit compliance with the order.

Subd. 4. [PROHIBITIONS.] It is a gross misdemeanor for a person named in an exclusion order to enter, attempt to enter, or be on the premises of a racetrack named in the order while it is in effect, and for a person licensed to conduct racing or operate a racetrack knowingly to permit an excluded person to enter or be on the premises.

At the hearing he must be given the opportunity to show cause why he should not be so excluded. The commission shall by rule prescribe such restrictions on betting by its licensees as it deems necessary to protect the integrity of racing.

Subd. 3. [VIOLATION.] A violation of subdivisions 1 and 2 is grounds for removal from the commission or termination of employment. A bet made directly or indirectly by a licensee in violation of a rule made by the commission under subdivision 2 is grounds for suspension or revocation of the license.

(c) the person has not begun to receive an annuity from any ~~such funds, may, upon retirement, in lieu of any augmentation of deferred annuities provided by the laws of such funds, elect to receive a retirement annuity enumerated fund or the person has made application for benefits from all funds within a six month period.~~

(3) The retirement annuity from each fund in which ~~he has allowable service, shall be~~ based upon the allowable service in each fund, except that:

(a) The laws governing annuities shall be the law in effect on the date of ~~his~~ final termination from the last public service under a covered fund;

(b) The "average salary" on which the annuity from each covered fund in which the employee has credit in a formula plan shall be based on the employee's highest five successive years of covered salary during ~~his the~~ entire service in covered funds;

(c) The formula percentages to be used by each fund shall be those percentages prescribed by each fund's formula as continued for the respective years of allowable service from one fund to the next, recognizing all previous allowable service with the other covered funds; ~~and~~ .

(d) Allowable service in all the funds shall be combined in determining eligibility for and the application of each fund's provisions in respect to actuarial reduction in the benefit amount for retirement prior to normal retirement.

(e) The benefit amount payable for any allowable service under a nonformula plan of a covered fund shall not be affected but such service and covered salary shall be used in the above calculation.

(f) This section shall not apply to any person whose final termination from the last public service under a covered fund is prior to May 1, 1975.

(g) For the purpose of computing benefits under this section the formula percentages used by any covered fund shall in no event exceed two and one-half percent per year of service for any year of service or fraction thereof.

(h) Any period of time for which a person has credit in more than one of the covered funds shall be used only once for the purpose of determining total allowable service. ~~Such period shall be used in the computation of the benefit by the fund having primary and principal coverage prior to and following the period. However, if such dual coverage is the result of two part time~~ employments each fund shall apply a pro rata fraction of its formula:

(i) If the period of duplicated service credit is more than six months, or the person has credit for more than six months with each of the funds, each fund shall apply its formula to a pro-rated service credit for the period of duplicated service based on a fraction of the salary on which deductions were paid to that fund for the period divided by the total salary on which deductions were paid to all funds for the period.

(j) If the period of duplicated service credit is less than six months, or when added to other service credit with that fund is less than six months, the service credit shall be ignored and a refund of contributions made to the person in accord with that fund's refund provisions.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 356.301, is amended to read:

356.301 [RECOGNITION OF MULTIPLE RETIREMENT FUND COVERAGE FOR DISABILITY BENEFIT ENTITLEMENT.]

Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary of the laws governing the funds enumerated in section 356.30, subdivision 3, in determining the length of service for the purpose of meeting the service requirement for entitlement for a disability benefit, but not for the purpose of establishing service credit for the calculation of the amount of a disability benefit, service covered by any retirement fund as defined in section ~~356.60, subdivision 1, clause (a)~~ 356.61, shall be recognized.

If the law governing any fund enumerated in section 356.30, subdivision 3 requires a specified length of allowable service under that fund since the last termination of covered employment to be eligible for a disability benefit, an employee transferring from a covered position under one fund to a covered position under another fund within a 30-day period shall be considered to have been employed continuously for the purpose of qualifying the employee for a disability benefit.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 356.61, is amended to read:

356.61 [LIMITATION ON PUBLIC EMPLOYEE RETIREMENT ANNUITIES.]

Notwithstanding any provision of law, bylaws, articles of incorporation, retirement and disability allowance plan agreements or retirement plan contracts to the contrary, no person who has pension or retirement coverage by a public pension plan shall be entitled to receive a monthly retirement annuity or disability benefit which, at the time of commencement of the retirement annuity or disability benefit, exceeds the lesser of:

(a) the amount of the final monthly salary of the person; or

(b) one-twelfth of the amount of the annual benefit permitted by the terms of section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code with respect to a participant in a plan qualified under section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended through December 31, 1982.

A public pension plan is any Minnesota public pension plan or fund which provides pension or retirement coverage for public employees other than volunteer firefighters, including any plan or fund enumerated in sections 356.20, subdivision 2, or 356.30, subdivision 3, any local police or firefighter's relief association to which section 69.77 applies, or any retirement or pension plan or fund, including a supplemental retirement plan or fund, established, maintained or supported by any governmental subdivision or public body whose revenues are derived from taxation, fees, assessments or from other public sources. Final monthly salary is the hourly rate of compensation received by the person on account of the most recent public employment for the final pay period occurring prior to retirement multiplied by 174.

The figure for the monthly retirement annuity or disability benefit to be used for the calculation of this limitation shall not include any reduction or adjustment required for retirement prior to the normal retirement age or required for the election of an optional annuity.

If the figure for the monthly retirement annuity or disability benefit exceeds the limit contained in this section, the annuity or benefit payable shall be reduced appropriately.

The managing board of each public pension plan from which a retirement annuity or disability benefit is payable shall, at the time that the retirement annuity or disability benefit commences, contact all other public pension plans to determine whether or not the recipient of the retirement annuity or disability benefit is also receiving or is entitled to receive a retirement annuity or disability benefit from any other public pension plan. If a person is entitled to receive or is receiving a retirement annuity or disability benefit from more than one public pension plan, all retirement annuities or disability benefits from all public pension plans shall be totalled in determining whether or not the limitation shall apply; provided however, that the limitation shall be based on the highest final monthly salary received by the individual from any plan. Any reduction in the amount of the retirement annuity or disability benefit required pursuant to this section shall be made by the public pension plan which provided retirement coverage for the most recent period of service.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 356.65, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the following terms shall have the meanings given to them:

(a) "Public pension fund" means any public pension plan as defined in section ~~356.60, subdivision 1, clause (a)~~ 356.61 and any Minnesota volunteer firefighters relief association which is established pursuant to chapter 424A and governed pursuant to sections 69.771 to 69.776.

(b) "Unclaimed public pension fund amounts" means any amounts representing accumulated member contributions, any outstanding unpaid annuity, service pension or other retirement benefit payments, including those made on warrants issued by the commissioner of finance, which have been issued and delivered for more than six years prior to the date of the end of the fiscal year applicable to the public pension fund, and any applicable interest to the credit of:

(1) an inactive or former member of a public pension fund who is not titled to a defined retirement annuity and who has not applied for a refund of those amounts within five years after the last member contribution was made;

(2) a deceased inactive or former member of a public pension fund if no survivor is entitled to a survivor benefit and no survivor, designated beneficiary or legal representative of the estate has applied for a refund of those amounts within five years after the date of death of the inactive or former member.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 422A.05, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. ~~Except as otherwise provided by law~~ The members of the retirement board shall be the trustees and custodians of the several funds created by sections 422A.01 to 422A.25 and shall have exclusive control and management of these funds, and power to invest them and to hold, purchase, sell, assign, transfer, or dispose of any of the securities and investments in which any of the funds created by sections 422A.01 to 422A.25 shall have been invested as well as the proceeds of the investments, and of the money belonging to these funds.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 422A.05, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2d. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the retirement board, subject to the standards of subdivision 2a of this section, may transfer assets between accounts established by section 422A.06.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 422A.23, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Upon the death of a contributing member after having been in the city service not less than 18 months but before the effective date of retirement, the board shall in lieu of the settlement hereinbefore provided pay to the surviving ~~dependent~~ spouse and/or ~~dependent~~ children of the member under the age of 18, or under the age of 22 if a full time student at an accredited school, college or university, and single, the following monthly benefit:

(a) Surviving spouse ~~$150~~ $325 per month, except for benefits beginning after July 1, 1983, which shall be 30 percent of member's average salary in effect over the last six months of allowable service preceeding the month in which the death occurred.

(b) Each ~~dependent~~ surviving child ~~$100~~ $150 per month, except for benefits beginning after July 1, 1983, which shall be ten percent of the member's average salary in effect over the last six months of allowable service preceeding the month in which the death occurred. Payments for the benefit of any ~~dependent~~ child under the age of 18 years shall be made to the surviving parent, or if there be none, to the legal guardian of such child. The maximum monthly benefit shall not exceed a total of ~~$450~~ $750.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 424A.02, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZATION.] Any volunteer firefighters' relief association or volunteer firefighters' division or account of a partially salaried and partially volunteer firefighters' relief association organized and incorporated under chapter 317 and any laws of the state and directly associated with a fire department established by municipal ordinance or any separate incorporated volunteer firefighters' relief association subsidiary to and providing service pension and retirement benefit coverage for members of an independent nonprofit firefighting corporation organized under the provisions of chapter 317 and operating exclusively for fire fighting purposes, whether or not the nonprofit firefighting corporation qualifies for fire state aid pursuant to chapter 69, when its articles of incorporation or bylaws so provide, may pay out of the assets of the special fund of the volunteer firefighters' relief association or volunteer firefighters' account, a service pension to each of its members who separates from active service with the fire department or the independent nonprofit firefighting corporation, who reaches the age of 50 years and who completes at least ten years of active service as an active member of the municipal fire department to which the relief association is associated or of the independent nonprofit firefighting corporation to which the relief association is subsidiary, and who completes at least ten years of active membership with the volunteer firefighters' relief association or volunteer firefighters' account prior to separation from active service and who complies with any additional conditions as to age, service and membership which are prescribed by the bylaws of the relief association. In the case of a member who has completed at least ten years of active service as an active member of the municipal fire department to which the relief association is associated or of the independent nonprofit firefighting corporation to which the relief association is subsidiary on the date that the volunteer firefighters' relief association is established and incorporated, the requirement that the member complete at least ten years of active membership with the volunteer firefighters' relief association or volunteer firefighters' account prior to separation from active service may be waived by the board of trustees of the relief association if the member completes at least ten years of inactive membership with the volunteer firefighters' relief association or volunteer firefighters' account prior to the payment of the service pension. During the period of inactive membership, the member shall not be entitled to receive any disability benefit coverage, shall not be entitled to receive any additional service credit towards computation of a service pension, and shall be deemed to have the status of a person entitled to a deferred service pension pursuant to subdivision 7.

No municipality or nonprofit firefighting corporation is authorized to delegate the power to take final action in setting a service pension or retirement benefit amount or level to the board of trustees of the volunteer firefighters relief association or to approve in advance a service pension or retirement benefit amount or level equal to the maximum amount or level which this chapter would allow rather than a specific dollar amount or level.

No volunteer firefighters' relief association or volunteer firefighters' division or account of a partially salaried and partially volunteer firefighters' relief association is authorized to pay a service pension or disability benefit to any former member of the relief association if that person has not separated from active service with the fire department to which the volunteer firefighters' relief association is directly associated or with the independent nonprofit firefighting corporation to which the volunteer firefighters' relief association is subsidiary.

For the purposes of this chapter, "to separate from active service" means to cease to perform fire suppression duties and to cease to supervise fire suppression duties.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 490.124, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [DISABILITY RETIREMENT.] From and after disability retirement date, a disabled judge shall be entitled to ~~(a)~~ continuation of ~~his~~ the judge's full salary payable by the judge's employer, as if ~~his~~ the judge's office were not vacated by retirement, for a period of up to two full years, ~~and~~ ~~(b)~~ but in no event beyond the judge's mandatory retirement date. Thereafter a disability retirement annuity computed as provided in subdivision 1 shall be paid, provided that ~~such~~ the judge shall receive a minimum annuity of 25 percent of ~~his~~ the judge's final average compensation.

Sec. 23. [356.001] [PURPOSE OF PUBLIC PLANS.]

Subdivision 1. [EXCLUSIVE BENEFIT OF MEMBERS AND BENEFICIARIES.] The public plans and funds specified in subdivision 4 are established to provide for the retirement of their members and to provide funds for the beneficiaries of members in the event of death of a member. The public plans and funds are established and shall be maintained for the exclusive benefit of the members and the beneficiaries of the members. Except as provided in subdivisions 2 and 3, no part of the moneys of the plans and funds shall revert to the plan or fund or be used for or diverted to purposes other than the exclusive benefit of the members or their beneficiaries.

Subd. 2. [ALLOWABLE EXPENSES.] The necessary, reasonable, and direct expenses of maintaining, protecting, and administering the public plan or fund, as authorized in the laws governing the plan or fund, shall be considered as expenditures for the exclusive benefit of the members or their beneficiaries.

Subd. 3. [EFFECT OF AMENDMENTS OR TERMINATION.] If a public plan or fund as defined in subdivision 4 is terminated or the plan or fund provisions are amended, no part of the moneys held in the plan or fund shall be used for or diverted to any purpose other than the exclusive benefit of the members or their beneficiaries, except as provided in this subdivision.

If a plan or fund is terminated, all affected members have a nonforfeitable interest in their benefits accrued and funded to date. The value of the accrued benefits to be credited to the account of each affected member shall be calculated as of the date of termination and the funding ratio of the plan or fund applied to the accrued benefit of each affected member.

The board of trustees of the plan or fund shall then, as soon as administratively feasible, pay each eligible member or beneficiary on behalf of a member the amount in the member's account in a lump sum. In the case of a member whose whereabouts is unknown, the board shall notify the member at the last known address by certified mail with return receipt requested advising the member of the member's right to a pending distribution. If the member cannot be located in this manner, the board shall establish a custodial account for the member's benefit in a federally insured bank, savings and loan association, or credit union in which the member's account balance shall be deposited. If the board receives proof of death of a member that is satisfactory to the board, the account balance shall be paid to the beneficiary of the member.

Subd. 4. [COVERED PLANS AND FUNDS.] This section applies to all public pension and retirement plans and funds established pursuant to the laws of the state of Minnesota that receive contributions from moneys derived from taxation.

Subd. 5. [CONSTRUCTION.] Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to authorize, or otherwise imply, a legislative policy or intent favoring the termination of any plan or fund to which this section applies.

Sec. 24. [AUTHORITY TO PURCHASE SERVICE CREDIT FOR PERIODS OF VOLUNTARY UNPAID LEAVES OF ABSENCE.]

Any employee in the executive branch of state government who took an unpaid leave of absence as authorized by Laws 1982, Third Special Session chapter 1, article 2, section 8, shall be entitled to service credit for the period of the leave of absence upon payment to the fund before July 1, 1984. The amount of the payment shall include the applicable employee, employer and employer additional contributions in effect for the period of leave. The payment shall be based on the member's average monthly salary upon return to service following the leave and shall be without interest. Repayment shall be accompanied by a copy of the approval of leave by the appointing authority.

The executive director of the retirement system may require additional documentation as necessary.

Sec. 25. Laws 1983, chapter 84, section 1, is amended to read:

Section 1. [PENSION COVERAGE.]

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 353.64, subdivision 1, or any other general or special law to the contrary, a person employed by the county of Polk as a deputy sheriff, on the effective date of this act shall be deemed to have been a member of the public employees police and fire fund established by Minnesota Statutes, sections 353.63 to 353.68 and not of the Crookston police relief association for the period from ~~January 1, 1953~~ November 1, 1952 to December 31, 1957, when that person was employed as an officer by the Crookston police department. The amount and manner of payment shall be governed by the provisions of Laws 1982, chapter 578, article II, section 2, subdivisions 1 to 3, as amended. Any employee contributions made to the Crookston policeman's relief association shall be transferred to the public employees police and fire fund as a portion of the employee payment. Upon receipt of the required amounts by the public employees police and fire fund, credit shall be given to the officer for service as a member for the period ~~from January 1, 1953 to December 31, 1957~~ specified.

Sec. 26. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes, sections 422A.05, subdivision 7; and 422A.23, subdivision 3; and Laws 1982, chapter 519, section 4, are repealed.

Sec. 27. [EFFECTIVE DATE; LOCAL APPROVAL.]

This act is effective the day following final enactment, subject to the following conditions. Sections 1 and 5 apply to applications for refunds filed after July 1, 1983. Section 8 and the repeal of Laws 1982, chapter 519, section 4, are retroactive to July 1, 1982. Sections 10, 16, and 23 are retroactive to January 1, 1983. Sections 18, 19, and 20 are effective upon approval by the Minneapolis city council and compliance with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021."

[SUBMISSION OF QUALIFYING CONTRIBUTIONS; RECORDS.] A candidate or congressional candidate or the treasurer of his principal campaign committee may submit records of contributions and the board may certify contributions as qualifying contributions after the candidate has registered a single principal campaign committee and has filed an application with the board pursuant to section 17 or a congressional candidate has registered pursuant to federal law and filed an application. A candidate or congressional candidate or the treasurer of his principal campaign committee shall not present contributions to the board for certification as qualifying contributions which do not satisfy the requirements in section 10A.01, subdivision 7c.

Records of contributions submitted for certification by the board must include the name and address of each contributor and the date of each contribution. Information submitted pursuant to this subdivision is in addition to and not in lieu of any other reporting requirements in chapter 10A.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 10A.31, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7a. [ENTITLED TO RECEIVE MATCHING FUNDS; THRESHOLD AMOUNTS.] A candidate or congressional candidate who files an application as required by section 17 may receive $1 in matching funds from the board pursuant to section 10A.31 for each $1 received by the candidate in certified qualifying contributions if the board has certified that the candidate or congressional candidate has raised the threshold amount of certified qualifying contributions. The threshold amounts of certified qualifying contributions which must be raised before a candidate or congressional candidate qualifies for matching funds are:

Office Sought	Threshold Amount of Qualifying Contributions
Governor and Lieutenant Governor, or United States Senator	$50,000
Attorney General or Representative in Congress	10,000
Secretary of State, State Treasurer, or State Auditor	5,000
Senate Senator	2,000
State Representative	1,000

Qualifying contributions raised by a candidate or congressional candidate to satisfy the threshold amounts set forth in this subdivision shall not be matched by the board.

The executive director of the board shall promptly notify a candidate or congressional candidate when the board has certified that the threshold amount of qualifying contributions has been raised.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 10A.31, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8a. [ESTIMATE OF TOTAL AVAILABLE MONEY; DISTRIBUTION.] By February 1 of the election year, the board shall estimate the total amount of money allocated to the office accounts pursuant to subdivision 5 for that general election year based upon the taxpayers' designations approved by the commissioner of revenue for the previous year. Based upon the estimates, the board shall set aside 30 percent of the total amount of money in each office account for distribution to primary candidates or congressional candidates for that office in accordance with section 22. The remaining 70 percent in each office account shall be distributed to general election candidates or congressional candidates for that office in accordance with section 23.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 10A.31, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9a. [ESTIMATES OF AVAILABLE MONEY FOR SPECIFIC OFFICES.] Not later than seven days after the close of filings for office in an election year, the board shall estimate the total amount of money available for distribution to candidates or congressional candidates for each office pursuant to sections 22 and 23 based upon the number of candidates or congressional candidates who have applied to participate in the matching system. After calculation of the estimated amounts available for distribution pursuant to sections 22 and 23, the board shall make the estimates available for public inspection, publish the estimates in the State Register and make them available to the secretary of state and, in the case of legislative candidates, the county filing officers.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 10A.31, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10a. [DISBURSEMENT OF FUNDS; PRIMARY ELECTION.] Beginning on the third day following the last day for withdrawal of candidates and congressional candidates from a primary election, the board may disburse matching funds to a candidate or congressional candidate who:

(a) has filed an application to participate in the matching fund system in accordance with section 17;

(b) is entitled to have his name appear on the primary election ballot; and

(c) has received qualifying contributions in excess of the threshold amount provided in section 19.

The board shall certify records of qualifying contributions submitted by a candidate or congressional candidate who has met the requirements in this subdivision in a timely manner and in any case not less than every 14 days after the last day for withdrawal of candidates or congressional candidates. Qualifying contributions are not eligible for matching funds under this subdivision if the records of the contributions are submitted to the board after the primary results have been canvassed by the state canvassing board. No candidate or congressional candidate is entitled to receive matching funds under this subdivision in an aggregate amount in excess of the per candidate estimate for that office determined in section 21.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 10A.31, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10b. [DISBURSEMENT OF FUNDS; GENERAL ELECTION.] Beginning after the day of certification of primary results, the board may disburse matching funds to a candidate or congressional candidate who:

(a) has filed an application to participate in the matching fund system in accordance with section 17;

(b) is entitled to have his name appear on the general election ballot; and

(c) has received qualifying contributions in excess of the threshold amount provided in section 19.

The board shall certify records of qualifying contributions submitted by a candidate or congressional candidate who has met the requirements in this subdivision in a timely manner and in any case not less than every 14 days after the last day for withdrawal of candidates or congressional candidates. Qualifying contributions are not eligible for matching funds under this subdivision if the records of the contributions are submitted to the board after November 15 of the election year. No candidate or congressional candidate shall be entitled to receive matching funds under this subdivision in an aggregate amount in excess of the per candidate estimate for that office determined in section 21.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 10A.31, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [UNOPPOSED CANDIDATE.] A candidate or congressional candidate who is unopposed in both the primary and general election is not entitled to receive any matching funds from the board pursuant to section 10A.31. A candidate or congressional candidate who is opposed only in the primary is not entitled to receive any matching funds pursuant to section 23. For the purposes of this section subdivision, a write-in candidate is not a candidate unless he complies with the provisions of section 10A.32, subdivision 3 or congressional candidate shall not be regarded as opposition or as creating a contested election for the office sought.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 10A.32, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [MATCHING FUNDS FOR QUALIFIED EXPENDITURES ONLY.] Matching funds received by a candidate or congressional candidate from the board pursuant to section 10A.31 may be spent only for qualified expenditures. No candidate may receive or retain any matching funds in excess of the amount of qualified expenditures made by the candidate or congressional candidate during the election year for the office held or sought. Any amount of matching funds received by a candidate or congressional candidate which exceeds the amount of qualified expenditures must be returned to the board with the report of receipts and expenditures due on January 31.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 10A.32, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [WRITTEN AGREEMENT; MATCHING FUNDS.] As a condition of receiving any money from the state elections campaign fund, a candidate or congressional candidate shall agree by stating in writing to the board that:

(a) his expenditures and approved expenditures shall not exceed the expenditure limits as set forth in section 10A.25 and that (b) he shall not accept contributions or allow approved expenditures to be made on his behalf for the period beginning with January 1 of the election year or with the registration of his principal campaign committee, whichever occurs later, and ending December 31 of the election year, which aggregate contributions and approved expenditures exceed the difference between the amount which may legally be expended by him or on his behalf, and the amount which may legally be expended by him or on his behalf, and the amount which he receives from the state elections campaign fund;

(b) any matching funds received shall be spent only for qualified campaign expenditures; and

(c) complete and accurate records on the sources of matched contributions and qualified expenditures shall be maintained.

The agreement, insofar as it relates to the expenditure limits set forth in section 10A.25, remains shall remain effective until the dissolution of the principal campaign committee of a candidate or congressional candidate or the opening of filings for the next succeeding election to the office held or sought at the time of agreement, whichever occurs first. Money in the account of the principal campaign committee of a candidate on January 1 of the election year for the office held or sought shall be considered contributions accepted by that candidate in that year for the purposes of this subdivision. That amount of all contributions accepted by a candidate in an election year which equals the amount of noncampaign disbursements and contributions and expenditures to promote or defeat a ballot question which are made by that candidate in that year shall not count toward the aggregate contributions and approved expenditure limit imposed by this subdivision. Any amount by which his aggregate contributions and approved expenditures agreed to under clause (b) exceed the difference shall be returned to the state treasurer in the manner provided in subdivision 2. In no case shall the amount returned exceed the amount received from the state elections campaign fund.

The candidate may submit his signed agreement to the filing officer on the day he files his affidavit of candidacy or petition to appear on the ballot, or he may submit the agreement to the board no later than September 1.

The board prior to the first day of filing for office shall forward forms for the agreement to all filing officers. The filing officer shall without delay forward signed agreements to the board. An agreement may not be rescinded after September 1.

For the purposes of this subdivision only, the total amount to be distributed to each candidate is calculated to be his share of the total estimated funds in his party account as provided in subdivision 3a, plus the total amount estimated as provided in subdivision 3a to be in the general account of the state elections campaign fund and set aside for that office divided by the number of candidates whose names are to appear on the general election ballot for that office. If for any reason the amount actually received by the candidate is greater than his share of the estimate, and his contributions thereby exceed the difference, the agreement shall not be considered violated.

A candidate or congressional candidate who accepts any matching funds from the board thereby authorizes the board, at its discretion and upon reasonable notice, to conduct a thorough examination and audit of all records kept by the candidate's principal campaign committee.

If a candidate or congressional candidate or the treasurer of his principal campaign committee cannot demonstrate through adequate records the receipt of a sufficient amount of qualifying contributions or the expenditure of a sufficient amount of qualified expenditures, the candidate or congressional candidate shall promptly return to the board any amount of matching funds received by the candidate or congressional candidate from the board which is in excess of the amount the candidate or congressional candidate was entitled to receive or in excess of the qualified expenditures made by the candidate or congressional candidate or his principal campaign committee.

Money returned by a candidate or congressional candidate pursuant to this subdivision shall be deposited in the state elections campaign fund for distribution in the next calendar year as set forth in section 10A.31, subdivision 5.

Sec. 27. [10A.338] [SIGNED AGREEMENT AS CONDITION OF RECEIVING PUBLIC SUBSIDY IN FORM OF TAX CREDITS.]

Subdivision 1. [SIGNED AGREEMENT BY CANDIDATE.] As a condition of receiving a public subsidy for his election campaign in the form of tax credits against the tax due from individuals who contribute to his principal campaign committee, a candidate shall sign a written agreement with the board that his expenditures and approved expenditures shall not exceed the expenditure limits set forth in section 10A.25, as adjusted by section 10A.255.

Subd. 2. [SIGNED AGREEMENT BY CONGRESSIONAL CANDIDATE.] As a condition of receiving a public subsidy for his election campaign in the form of tax credits against the tax due from individuals who contribute to any of his authorized committees, a congressional candidate must sign a written agreement with the board that his expenditures will not exceed the expenditure limits set forth in section 10A.25, as adjusted by section 10A.255.

Subd. 3. [SUBMISSION OF AGREEMENT.] (a) A candidate may submit his signed agreement to the board at any time beginning with or following the registration of his principal campaign committee.

(b) A congressional candidate may submit his signed agreement to the board at any time beginning with or following the registration of any of his authorized committees.

Subd. 4. [HOW LONG AGREEMENT IS EFFECTIVE.] (a) A candidate's agreement remains effective until the dissolution of the principal campaign committee of the candidate or the opening of filing for the next succeeding election for the office held or sought at the time of agreement, whichever occurs first. An agreement signed under this subdivision may not be rescinded.

(b) A congressional candidate's agreement remains effective until the termination of the authorized committees of the congressional candidate, as provided by United States Code, title 2, section 433(d), as amended through December 31, 1982, or the opening of filing for the next succeeding election to the office held or sought at the time of the agreement, whichever occurs first. An agreement signed under this subdivision may not be rescinded.

Subd. 5. [TAX CREDIT NOT ALLOWED.] The commissioner of revenue shall not allow any individual or married couple filing jointly to take a credit against any tax due, as provided under section 290.06, subdivision 11, for any contribution to a candidate for legislative or state constitutional office or congressional candidate for representative in congress or United States senator who has not signed the agreement provided in this subdivision.

Subd. 6. [CAMPAIGN EXPENDITURES NOT LIMITED; CONSTRUCTION.] Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to limit the campaign expenditure of any candidate or congressional candidate who does not sign an agreement under this subdivision but accepts a contribution for which the contributor claims a credit against tax due.

Subd. 7. [DUTIES OF BOARD.] The board shall forward a copy of any agreement signed under this subdivision to the commissioner of revenue. The board shall make available to any candidate or congressional candidate signing an agreement a supply of official tax credit receipt forms which state in boldface type that (a) a contributor who is given a receipt form is eligible to receive a credit against his tax due in an amount equal to 50 percent of his contribution but not more than $50 for an individual, or not more than $100 for a married couple filing jointly, and (b) the candidate or congressional candidate to whom he has contributed has voluntarily agreed to abide by campaign expenditure limits.

Subd. 8. [PENALTY.] If a candidate or congressional candidate does not sign an agreement under this subdivision he may not issue an official tax credit receipt form or any facsimile of one to any of his contributors. Any candidate or congressional candidate who does not voluntarily agree to abide by the expenditure limits imposed in section 10A.25, as adjusted by section 10A.255, and who willfully issues official tax credit receipt forms or any facsimile of them to any contributor is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.06, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [CONTRIBUTIONS TO POLITICAL PARTIES AND CANDIDATES.] In lieu of the deduction provided by section 290.21, subdivision 3, clause (e), a taxpayer may take a credit against the tax due under this chapter of 50 percent of his contributions to candidates for elective state or federal public office and to any political party. The maximum credit for an individual shall not exceed $50 and, for a married couple filing jointly or filing a combined return, shall not exceed $100. No credit shall be allowed under this subdivision for a contribution to any candidate, other than a candidate for elective judicial office or federal office, who has not signed an agreement to limit his campaign expenditures as provided in section 10A.32, subdivision 3b 27. For purposes of this subdivision, a political party means a major political party as defined in section 200.02, subdivision 7.

This credit shall be allowed only if the contribution is verified in the manner the commissioner of revenue shall prescribe.

Sec. 29. [REALLOCATION OF FUNDS.]

Money existing in each party account and the general account within the state elections campaign fund as of the effective date of this section shall be reallocated to the appropriate accounts within the state elections campaign fund in accordance with section 16.

Sec. 30. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 10A.31, subdivisions 2, 3a, 6, 7, 8, 9, and 10; 10A.32, subdivisions 3a, 3b, and 4; and 10A.335, are repealed.

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 340.034, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. No sale of non-intoxicating malt liquor shall be made between the hours of one a.m. and eight a.m. on any weekday Monday through Saturday inclusive. Neither shall any sale of such liquor be made on any Sunday between the hours of one a.m. and twelve o'clock noon, ~~nor between the hours of one a.m. and eight o'clock p.m. on the day of any statewide election.~~

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 340.11, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [ON-SALE LICENSES, INCLUDING HOTELS, CLUBS, RESTAURANTS, AND ON-SALE EXCLUSIVE LIQUOR STORES.] “On-sale” licenses may be issued by municipalities for the sale of intoxicating liquors in hotels, clubs, restaurants and establishments for the sale of “on-sale” liquors exclusively within the number authorized by this section. In addition to the number of licenses authorized by this section, an “on-sale” license may be issued, if approved by the commissioner of public safety, to a bona fide club ~~which has been in existence for 15 years or more~~ or to a congressionally chartered veterans’ organization which has been in existence for ~~five~~ at least three years. The club or veterans’ organization must be incorporated in order to be eligible to apply for a license, and the license issued must be for the sale of intoxicating liquors to members and bona fide guests only. The license fee for an “on-sale” license issued by a municipality pursuant to this subdivision shall be in an amount determined by the governing body thereof subject to the following limitations: up to $300 for a veterans organization or fraternal club with a membership of 200 or less; up to $500 for a veterans organization or fraternal club with a membership of between 201 and 500; up to $650 for a veterans organization or fraternal club with a membership of between 501 and 1,000; up to $800 for a veterans organization or fraternal club with a membership of between 1,001 and 2,000; up to $1,000 for a veterans organization or fraternal club with a membership between 2,000 and 4,000; up to $2,000 for a veterans organization or fraternal club with a membership of between 4,001 and 6,000; and up to $3,000 for a veterans organization or fraternal club with a membership of more than 6,000. For purposes of the maximum license fee which may be imposed by a municipality pursuant to this subdivision, “fraternal club” means a club which serves only members and their guests and which uses any profits derived from these sales principally for sponsoring activities beneficial to the community and not for the benefit of any individual. Except in cities of the first, second, and third class, a license may be issued jointly to congressionally chartered veterans’ organizations that otherwise qualify under this subdivision.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 340.11, subdivision 15, is amended to read:

Subd. 15. [LICENSES NOT REQUIRED.] It is lawful for a brewer to sell intoxicating malt beverages to his employee or to a former employee who is retired because of age or physical disability. Such beverages shall be sold for consumption off the premises only, and the amount sold to any one person in any one week shall not exceed 768 fluid ounces. The requirements of law relating to minimum prices for the sale of intoxicating malt beverages shall not apply to sales made under this subdivision, nor shall any license be required for the making of such sales. It is also lawful for a collector of commemorative bottles, as these terms are defined in section 340.44, to sell commemorative bottles to another collector without obtaining a license. It is also lawful for an off-sale licensee or municipal liquor store to provide samples of wine, liqueurs, and cordials which the licensee or municipal liquor store currently has in stock and is offering for sale to the general public without obtaining an additional license, provided the wine, liqueur, and cordial samples are dispensed at no charge and consumed on the licensed premises during the permitted hours of off-sale in a quantity less than 50 milliliters of wine per variety per customer and 25 milliliters of liqueur or cordial per variety per customer.

However, in cities of the first class, and in all cities located within a radius of 15 miles of a city of the first class within the same county, "off-sale" may be made only until eight o'clock p.m. of any day except Friday and Saturday, on which days "off-sale" may be made until ten o'clock p.m. No "off-sale" shall be made on New Years Day, January 1; Independence Day, July 4; Thanksgiving Day; or Christmas Day, December 25; but on the evenings preceding such days, if the sale of liquor is not otherwise prohibited on such evenings, "off-sales" may be made until ten o'clock p.m., except that no "off-sale" shall be made on December 24 after eight o'clock p.m. It shall be beyond the power of any municipality of this state to authorize or permit the sale of intoxicating liquors when such sale is prohibited by this section, however, any municipality may further limit the hours of sale of intoxicating liquors, provided that such further restricted hours for "on-sale" shall apply to both intoxicating liquors and non-intoxicating malt liquors.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 340.15, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. This section does not apply to advertising of liquor prices by an off-sale licensee in a newspaper of general circulation published in a bordering state if the newspaper is the primary newspaper of general circulation in the area in which the off-sale licensee is located.

No rule or regulation pursuant to this chapter shall prohibit a lawful purchase pursuant to this section.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 340.983, is amended to read:

340.983 [FILING OF WHOLESALE PRICE SCHEDULE.]

No brand owner or wholesaler of distilled ~~liquor~~ spirits or wine shall sell, offer for sale, or solicit any order for distilled liquor or wine unless a schedule of wholesale prices, which shall include varying volume prices, is filed with the commissioner, on a form prescribed by him, and no sales shall be made except in accordance with ~~such~~ these prices. ~~Such~~ Forms shall provide for the listing of the price, including any varying volume prices, at which each brand distributed by the filing wholesaler or brand owner is sold. The commissioner shall maintain ~~such~~ filings in such a manner as to make their contents easily accessible to the public. The filings required under this section shall be made not later than the first day of each month, and the schedule of filed prices shall be effective from that day until the first day of the next month, provided that any filing may be amended within five days after its filing. The commissioner shall provide copies of ~~such~~ filings to any person requesting them, and may charge a reasonable fee therefor. Any person may examine ~~such~~ filings in the office of the commissioner, and no charge shall be made for such examination.

~~No volume price filed pursuant to this section shall be for a quantity in excess of 300 quarts.~~

Sec. 8. [ST. PAUL; PARK CLUB HOUSES; LIQUOR.]

Notwithstanding any contrary provision of law, charter or ordinance, the city of St. Paul may by ordinance authorize any holder of an "on-sale" liquor license issued by the city to dispense intoxicating liquor at any event of definite duration on the public premises known as the Phalen Park club house. The event may not be profit making except as a fund raising event for a nonprofit organization or a political committee as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 210A.01, subdivision 8. The licensee must be engaged to dispense liquor at the event by a person or organization permitted to use the premises and may dispense liquor only to persons attending the event. A licensee's authority shall expire upon termination of the event. The authority to dispense liquor shall be granted in accordance with the statutes applicable to the issuance of "on-sale" liquor licenses in cities of the first class consistent with this act. The dispensing of liquor shall be subject to all laws and ordinances governing the dispensing of intoxicating liquor that are consistent with this act. All dispensing of liquor shall be in accordance with the conditions prescribed by the city. The conditions may limit the dispensing of liquor to designated areas of the facility. The city may fix and assess a fee to be paid to the city by an "on-sale" licensee for each event for which the licensee is engaged to dispense liquor. The authority granted by this subdivision shall not count as an additional "on-sale" intoxicating liquor license for purposes of determining the number of liquor licenses permitted to be issued under the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, section 340.11.

Sec. 9. [ST. PAUL; ON-SALE NONINTOXICATING MALT LIQUOR AND ON-SALE WINE LICENSES FOR THE DOWNTOWN COUNCIL.]

The Honorable Harry A. Sieben, Jr.
Speaker of the House of Representatives

We, the undersigned conferees for S.F. No. 87, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House recede from its amendments and that S.F. No. 87 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 245.783, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [STUDY OF APPLICANT.] Before issuing a license or renewing a license, the commissioner shall conduct a study of the applicant and the agency or the day care or residential facility. The bureau of criminal apprehension, a county attorney, a county sheriff, and a chief of a local police department ~~with the informed consent of~~, after notice to the subject of the data, shall assist in this study by providing to the commissioner, the director of any local agency responsible for licensing, or their representatives all criminal conviction data, arrest information, reports regarding abuse or neglect of children, and investigation results available from local, state, and national criminal history record repositories, including the criminal justice data communications network, pertaining to the following individuals connected with the application for or renewal of a license: applicants, operators, all persons living in the household, all staff of any day care or residential facility and all staff of agencies placing children for care. If the commissioner is satisfied that the provisions of sections 245.781 to 245.812 and 252.28, subdivision 2 and the applicable rules ~~and regulations~~ promulgated by him are substantially met, a license shall be issued. If the results of the study indicate that all of the applicable laws, ~~and rules and regulations~~ cannot be met immediately, but can and will be met within one year or less, and the deviations do not threaten the health, rights, or safety of persons to be served, a provisional license may be issued for a period not to exceed one year from the date of issuance.

The commissioner may request advice from persons using the facility, agency, or service, operators of a similar facility, agency, or service, and relevant professionals as part of the evaluation of an applicant.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 245.801, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SUSPENSION; APPEAL.] An operator whose license the commissioner proposes to suspend, revoke, or make probationary shall be given notice by certified mail addressed to the location shown on the license. The notice shall contain a statement of, and the reasons for, the proposed action and shall inform the operator of his right to appeal the decision to the commissioner, in writing, within ten days after receipt of the notice of the proposed action. Upon receiving a timely written appeal, the commissioner shall give the operator reasonable notice and an opportunity for a prompt hearing before an impartial hearing examiner. The local welfare agency may demonstrate reasonable cause to revoke, suspend, not renew, or make probationary a family foster care or family day care license by submitting reports, statements, affidavits, or other reliable hearsay to substantiate the allegations of noncompliance with rules promulgated by the commissioner pursuant to section 245.802 governing family foster care licensing and family day care licensing. Upon demonstration by the agency that reasonable cause exists to take the proposed action with respect to a family foster care or family day care license, the burden of proof shifts to the licensee to demonstrate compliance with the rule by a preponderance of the evidence. The hearing examiner shall make a recommendation to the commissioner as to whether the license shall be suspended, revoked, or made probationary. However, if the commissioner finds that the health, safety or rights of the persons served by the facility or agency are in imminent danger, he shall order the immediate suspension of the license. The operator shall be given written notice of the order by personal service. The notice shall contain a statement of the reasons for the suspension and shall inform the operator of his right to petition the commissioner for reconsideration of the order. The petition shall be in writing and shall be made within five days after the personal service of the order. Upon receiving a timely written petition, the commissioner shall give the operator reasonable notice and an opportunity for a prompt hearing before an impartial hearing examiner with respect to the order of suspension of the license. The hearing examiner shall make a recommendation to the commissioner as to whether the order of suspension should be affirmed or reversed. The commissioner shall not be bound by the recommendation of the hearing examiner. The final decision of the commissioner shall be served on the operator by personal service, and shall inform the applicant of his rights under chapter 14 and as stated in this section.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 260.242, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [BOTH PARENTS DECEASED.] If upon petition to the juvenile court by a reputable person, including but not limited to an agent of the commissioner of public welfare, and upon hearing in the manner provided in section 260.155, the court finds that both parents are deceased and no appointment has been made or petition for appointment filed pursuant to sections 525.615 to 525.6185, the court shall order the guardianship and legal custody of the child transferred to:

(a) the commissioner of public welfare;

(b) a licensed child placing agency; or

(c) an individual who is willing and capable of assuming the appropriate duties and responsibilities to the child.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 260.242, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [GUARDIAN'S POWERS.] (a) A guardian appointed under the provisions of ~~subdivision 1~~ this section has legal custody of his ward unless the court which appoints him gives legal custody to some other person. If the court awards custody to a person other than the guardian, the guardian nonetheless has the right and responsibility of reasonable visitation, except as limited by court order.

(b) The guardian may make major decisions affecting the person of his ward, including but not limited to giving consent (when consent is legally required) to the marriage, enlistment in the armed forces, medical, surgical, or psychiatric treatment, or adoption of the ward. When, pursuant to ~~subdivision 1, clause (a) this section~~, the commissioner of public welfare is appointed guardian, he may delegate to the welfare board of the county in which, after the appointment, the ward resides, the authority to act for him in decisions affecting the person of his ward, including but not limited to giving consent to the marriage, enlistment in the armed forces, medical, surgical, or psychiatric treatment of the ward.

(c) A guardianship created under the provisions of ~~subdivision 1 this section~~ shall not of itself include the guardianship of the estate of the ward.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 364.09, is amended to read:

364.09 [LAW ENFORCEMENT; EXCEPTION.]

This chapter shall not apply to the practice of law enforcement; ~~but or to eligibility for a family day care license or a family foster care license~~. Nothing in this section shall be construed to preclude the Minnesota police and peace officers training board from recommending policies set forth in this chapter to the attorney general for adoption in his discretion to apply to law enforcement.''

Delete the title and insert:

(e) $50,000 for each nonwarehouse grain buyer $10,000 for grain buyers whose gross annual purchases are $100,000 or less;

(b) $20,000 for grain buyers whose gross annual purchases are more than $100,000 but not more than $750,000;

(c) $30,000 for grain buyers whose gross annual purchases are more than $750,000 but not more than $1,500,000;

(d) $40,000 for grain buyers whose gross annual purchases are more than $1,500,000 but not more than $3,000,000; and

(e) $50,000 for grain buyers whose gross annual purchases exceed $3,000,000. A grain buyer who has filed a bond with the commissioner prior to July 1, 1983 is not required to increase the amount of the bond to comply with this section until July 1, 1984. The commissioner may postpone an increase in the amount of the bond until July 1, 1985, if a licensee demonstrates that the increase will impose undue financial hardship on the licensee, and that producers will not be harmed as a result of the postponement. The commissioner may impose other restrictions on a licensee whose bond increase has been postponed. The amount of the bond shall be based on the most recent financial statement of the grain buyer filed under subdivision 6.

A first-time applicant for a grain buyer's license after July 1, 1983 shall file a $20,000 bond with the commissioner. This bond shall remain in effect for the first year of his license. Thereafter, the licensee shall comply with the applicable bonding requirements contained in clauses (a) to (e) of this section.

In lieu of the bond required by this subdivision the applicant may deposit with the state treasurer cash, a certified check, a cashier's check, a postal bank, or express money order, assignable bonds or notes of the United States, or an assignment of a bank savings account or investment certificate or an irrevocable bank letter of credit as defined in section 336.5-103, in the same amount as would be required for a bond.

Subd. 5. [VOLUNTARY EXTENSION OF CREDIT CASH SALES; MANNER OF PAYMENT.] Upon demand by a seller of grain, a grain buyer shall pay 90 percent of the estimated or actual value of grain purchased at the time the physical possession of the grain is conveyed from the seller to the grain buyer. For a cash sale of a shipment of grain which is part of a multiple shipment sale, the grain buyer shall tender payment to the seller in cash or by check not later than ten days after the sale of that shipment, except that when the entire sale is completed, payment shall be tendered not later than the close of business on the next day, or within 48 hours, whichever is later. For other cash sales the grain buyer, before the close of business on the next business day after the sale, shall tender payment to the seller in cash or by check, or shall wire or mail funds to the seller's account in the amount of at least 80 percent of the value of the grain at the time of delivery. The grain buyer shall complete final settlement as rapidly as possible through ordinary diligence. Any transaction wherein this demand is not exercised which is not a cash sale in compliance with the provisions of this subdivision constitutes a voluntary extension of credit and which is not afforded protection under the grain buyer's bond, and which must comply with sections 9 and 10.

Subd. 5a. [GRAIN PURCHASES FROM UNLICENSED PRODUCERS.] No grain buyer may refuse to purchase grain from a producer solely because the producer is not bonded or is not licensed by the commissioner; provided, that any producer who buys grain from other producers shall be licensed and bonded as required by this chapter.

Subd. 6. [~~CONFIDENTIAL STATEMENTS REQUIRED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS.~~] For the purpose of fixing or changing the amount of a required bond or for any other proper reason, the commissioner shall require an annual financial ~~statements~~ statement from a licensee which has been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and which meets the following requirements:

(a) The financial statement shall include, but not be limited to the following: (1) a balance sheet; (2) a statement of income (profit and loss); (3) a statement of retained earnings; (4) a statement of changes in financial position; and (5) a statement of the dollar amount of grain purchased in the previous fiscal year of the grain buyer.

(b) The financial statement shall be accompanied by a compilation report of the financial statement which is prepared by a grain commission firm or a management firm approved by the commissioner or by an independent public accountant, in accordance with standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

(c) The financial statement shall be accompanied by a certification by the chief executive officer or his designee of the licensee, under penalty of perjury, that the financial statement accurately reflects the financial condition of the licensee for the period specified in the statement.

Only one financial statement must be filed for a chain of warehouses owned or operated as a single business entity, unless otherwise required by the commissioner. Any grain buyer having a net worth in excess of $500,000,000 need not file the financial statement required by this subdivision but must provide the commissioner with a certified net worth statement. All financial statements filed with the commissioner are private or nonpublic data as provided in section 13.02.

Subd. 6a. [~~SUSPENSION, REVOCATION, OR REFUSAL TO ISSUE LICENSE.~~] (a) If ~~the~~ a license applicant or a licensee fails to furnish financial statements or to furnish any new bond required, the commissioner may ~~immediately~~ refuse to issue or renew the license or may suspend the license and the licensee shall surrender the license to the commissioner. Within 15 days ~~the~~.

(b) The commissioner may refuse to issue or renew a license or may suspend a license if he determines, based upon the financial statement filed under this section or other financial information obtained by him, that the applicant or licensee is not financially able to properly perform the services and operate the business for which the license is issued.

(c) When a license is suspended the licensee shall surrender the license to the commissioner. An applicant or licensee may request an administrative hearing subject to chapter 14 within 15 days after the commissioner suspends a license or refuses to issue or renew a license under clause (b) to determine whether the license should be issued, renewed, or revoked. If no request is made within 15 days after suspension, the commissioner shall revoke the license. ~~All financial statements submitted to the commissioner are confidential.~~

Subd. 7. [PRODUCER BOND AND CONTRACT CLAIMS.] A producer claiming to be damaged by a breach of ~~the conditions of a bond of a contract for the purchase of grain~~ by a licensed grain buyer may file a written claim with the commissioner. The claim must state the facts constituting the claim. The claim must be filed with the commissioner within 180 days of the breach of ~~the conditions of the bond contract~~. If ~~the commissioner believes that~~ a claim is valid, the commissioner may immediately suspend the license, in which case the licensee shall surrender the license to the commissioner. Within 15 days the licensee may request an administrative hearing subject to chapter 14 to determine whether the license should be revoked. If no request is made within 15 days, the commissioner shall revoke the license.

Subd. 8. [BOND DISBURSEMENT.] (a) The bond required under subdivision 4 shall provide for payment of loss caused by the grain buyer's failure to pay, upon the owner's demand, the purchase price of grain sold to the grain buyer in the manner provided by subdivision 5, including loss caused by failure to pay within the time required. The bond shall be conditioned upon the grain buyer being duly licensed as provided herein. ~~The bond shall not cover any transaction which constitutes a voluntary extension of credit.~~

(b) ~~Upon notification of default,~~ The commissioner shall promptly determine the validity of all claims filed with him and notify ~~all parties having filed claims~~ the claimants of the determination. An aggrieved party may appeal the commissioner's determination by requesting, within 15 days, that the commissioner initiate a contested case proceeding. In the absence of such a request, or following the issuance of a final order in a contested case, the surety company shall issue payment promptly to those claimants entitled to payment. ~~When the commissioner determines it necessary,~~ The commissioner may apply to the district court for an order appointing a trustee or receiver to manage and supervise the operations of the grain buyer in default. The commissioner may participate in any resulting court proceeding as an interested party.

(c) If a grain buyer has become liable to more than one producer by reason of breaches of the conditions of the bond and the amount of the bond is insufficient to pay the entire liability to all producers entitled to the protection of the bond, the proceeds of the bond shall be apportioned among the bona fide claimants.

(d) The bond shall not be cumulative from one licensing period to the next. The maximum liability of the bond shall be its face value for the licensing period.

Subd. 9. [DEFAULTS; VIOLATIONS.] If the commissioner finds, after an investigation is conducted, that a complaint is valid or that a licensee is in violation of the provisions of this chapter, the commissioner may immediately suspend the license, in which case the licensee shall surrender the license to the commissioner. Within 15 days, the licensee may request an administrative hearing subject to chapter 14 to determine whether the license should be revoked. If no request is made within 15 days, the commissioner shall revoke the license.

Sec. 9. [223.175] [WRITTEN VOLUNTARY EXTENSION OF CREDIT

CONTRACTS; FORM.]

A written confirmation required under section 10, subdivision 2, and a written voluntary extension of credit contract must include those items prescribed by the commissioner by rule. A contract shall include a statement of the legal and financial responsibilities of grain buyers and sellers established in this chapter. A contract shall also include the following statement in not less than ten point, all capital type, framed in a box with space provided for the seller's signature: "THIS CONTRACT CONSTITUTES A VOLUNTARY EXTENSION OF CREDIT. THIS CONTRACT IS NOT COVERED BY ANY GRAIN BUYER'S BOND." If a written contract is provided at the time the grain is delivered to the grain buyer, the seller shall sign the contract in the space provided beneath the statement.

Sec. 10. [223.177] [PURCHASE BY VOLUNTARY EXTENSION OF CREDIT CONTRACTS.]

Subdivision 1. [INDICATION OF INTENTION.] Every grain buyer who intends to purchase grain by voluntary extension of credit contracts shall indicate his intention to do so annually to the commissioner on a form provided by the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [ORAL CONTRACTS.] Any grain buyer entering into a voluntary extension of credit contract orally or by phone shall give or mail to the seller a written confirmation conforming to the requirements of section 9 before the close of the next business day.

Subd. 3. [CONTRACTS REDUCED TO WRITING.] A voluntary extension of credit contract must be reduced to writing by the grain buyer and mailed or given to the seller before the close of the next business day after the contract is entered into or, in the case of an oral or phone contract, after the written confirmation is received by the seller. Provided, however, that if a scale ticket has been received by the seller prior to the completion of the grain shipment, the contract must be reduced to writing within ten days after the sale, but not later than the close of the next business day after the completion of the entire sale. The form of the contract shall comply with the requirements of section 9.

Subd. 4. [GRAIN, RIGHTS, OR PROCEEDS HELD.] A licensed grain buyer purchasing grain by voluntary extension of credit contracts shall at all times maintain grain, rights in grain, or proceeds from the sale of grain totaling 90 percent of the grain buyer's obligation for grain purchased by voluntary extension of credit contracts. That amount must be evidenced or represented by one or more of the following:

(a) grain owned and actually held by the grain buyer in a grain warehouse owned or controlled by the grain buyer;

(b) rights in grain evidenced or represented by warehouse receipts issued by a state or federally licensed grain warehouse;

(c) cash on hand or cash held on account in federally or state licensed institutions;

(d) short-term investments held in time accounts with federally or state licensed institutions;

(e) balances on grain margin accounts;

(f) voluntary extension of credit contracts for grain shipped to a processor or terminal as purchaser, less any payment or advance that has been received;

(g) an irrevocable letter of credit, as defined in section 336.5-103; or

(h) other evidence of proceeds from the sale of grain acceptable to the commissioner.

Subd. 5. [VALUE OF GRAIN.] For the purpose of computing the dollar value of inventories of voluntary extension of credit obligations, the value of grain must be figured at the current market price on the day of delivery.

Subd. 6. [TRANSFER OF TITLE.] The title to grain delivered on a voluntary extension of credit contract transfers to the grain buyer upon delivery.

Subd. 7. [STORAGE CHARGES PROHIBITED.] No storage charges may be charged with respect to grain purchased on voluntary extension of credit contracts.

Subd. 8. [RECORDS.] A grain buyer shall keep sufficiently detailed books and records of voluntary extension of credit contracts and evidences of grain, rights in grain, and the proceeds from the sale of grain so as to clearly show compliance with this section. The commissioner or his authorized agent may inspect these books and records to determine whether grain buyers are complying with the provisions of this chapter, and for this purpose the commissioner may enter upon any public or private premises during regular business hours.

223.18 [PENALTY.]

A person buying grain without first obtaining a grain buyer's license is guilty of a misdemeanor. Each day of operation without a grain buyer's license constitutes a separate offense. In case of license revocation, no new license shall be granted to the person whose license was revoked nor to anyone either directly or indirectly engaged with him in the licensed business for two years. A grain dealer who withholds records from the commissioner, keeps or files records which he knows to be false, alters records fraudulently, or presents to the commissioner any records which he knows to be false, is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 223.19, is amended to read:

223.19 [RULES.]

The commissioner may promulgate make temporary or permanent rules pursuant to chapter 14 to carry out the provisions of sections 223.15 to 223.19, and sections 13 to 15.

Sec. 13. [223.20] [REGULATION OF GRAIN BUYERS AND GRAIN STORAGE.]

The commissioner may create a separate division within the department of agriculture for the purpose of administering this chapter and chapter 232.

Sec. 14. [223.21] [ATTORNEY GENERAL; ENFORCEMENT.]

The attorney general, upon request of the commissioner, shall assist the commissioner in enforcing this chapter.

Sec. 15. [223.22] [INVESTIGATION; EDUCATION.]

Subdivision 1. [LEGISLATIVE INVESTIGATION.] The legislature recommends that the standing committees of the house and senate with jurisdiction over agriculture investigate methods of protecting producers when marketing grain using voluntary extension of credit contracts, including establishment of a state administered trust fund, private insurance, or reinsurance, and methods which grain buyers can use to protect themselves and grain producers from grain price fluctuations.

Subd. 2. [EDUCATION.] The commissioner shall make every effort to inform grain producers and grain buyers of the protections and exposures which result from application of this chapter.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 232.22, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [BONDING.] Before a license is issued, the applicant for a public grain warehouse operator's license shall file with the commissioner a bond in a penal sum prescribed by the commissioner. The penal sum on a condition one bond shall be established by rule by the commissioner pursuant to the requirements of chapter 14 for all grain outstanding on grain warehouse receipts. The penal sum on a condition two bond shall not be less than $10,000 for each location up to a maximum of five locations. ~~No condition two bond shall be required under this subdivision after June 30, 1983.~~

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 232.22, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [BOND DISBURSEMENT.] (a) The condition one bond of a public grain warehouse operator must be conditioned that the public grain warehouse operator issuing a grain warehouse receipt is liable to the depositor for the delivery of the kind, grade and net quantity of grain called for by the receipt.

(b) The condition two bond shall provide for payment of loss caused by the grain buyer's failure to pay, upon the owner's demand, the purchase price of grain sold to the grain buyer. The bond shall be conditioned upon the grain buyer being duly licensed as provided herein. The bond shall not cover any transaction which constitutes a voluntary extension of credit. ~~This clause expires July 1, 1983.~~

(c) Upon notification of default, the commissioner shall determine the validity of all claims and notify all parties having filed claims. Any aggrieved party may appeal the commissioner's determination by requesting, within 15 days, that the commissioner initiate a contested case proceeding. In the absence of such a request, or following the issuance of a final order in a contested case, the surety company shall issue payment to those claimants entitled to payment. If the commissioner determines it is necessary, the commissioner may apply to the district court for an order appointing a trustee or receiver to manage and supervise the operations of the grain warehouse operator in default. The commissioner may participate in any resulting court proceeding as an interested party.

(d) For the purpose of determining the amount of bond disbursement against all valid claims under a condition one bond, all grain owned or stored in the public grain warehouse shall be sold and the combined proceeds deposited in a special fund. Payment shall be made from the special fund satisfying the valid claims of grain warehouse receipt holders.

(e) If a public grain warehouse operator has become liable to more than one depositor or producer by reason of breaches of the conditions of the bond and the amount of the bond is insufficient to pay, beyond the proceeds of the special fund, the entire liability to all valid claimants, the proceeds of the bond and special fund shall be apportioned among the valid claimants on a pro rata basis.

(f) A bond is not cumulative from one licensing period to the next. The maximum liability of the bond shall be its face value for the licensing period.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 336.9-401, is amended to read:

336.9-401 [PLACE OF FILING; ERRONEOUS FILING; REMOVAL OF COLLATERAL.]

(1) The proper place to file in order to perfect a security interest is as follows:

(a) When the collateral is ~~equipment used in farming operations, or farm products, or accounts or general intangibles arising from or relating to the sale of farm products by a farmer, or consumer goods, or motor vehicles which are not inventory, then in the office of the county recorder in the county of the debtor's residence if the debtor is an individual who is a resident of this state but if the debtor is an individual who is not a resident of this state or is a corporation, partnership or other organization then in the office of the secretary of state, and in addition when the collateral is crops growing or to be grown in the office of the county recorder in the county where the land is located;~~

(b) When the collateral is equipment to be used in farming operations, or farm products, or accounts or general intangibles arising from or relating to the sale of farm products by a farmer, or crops growing or to be grown, then in the office of the county recorder in the county of the debtor's residence if the debtor is an individual or organization with residence in this state, but if the debtor is not a resident of this state, then in the office of the secretary of state;

(c) When the collateral is timber to be cut or is minerals or the like (including oil and gas) or accounts subject to subsection (5) of section 336.9-103, or when the financing statement is filed as a fixture filing (section 336.9-313) and the collateral is goods which are or are to become fixtures, then in the office where a mortgage on the real estate would be filed or recorded;

(2) A filing which is made in good faith in an improper place or not in all of the places required by this section is nevertheless effective with regard to any collateral as to which the filing complied with the requirements of this article and is also effective with regard to collateral covered by the financing statement against any person who has knowledge of the contents of such financing statement.

(3) A filing which is made in the proper place in this state continues effective even though the debtor's residence in this state or the use of the collateral, whichever controlled the original filing, is thereafter changed.

(4) The rules stated in section 336.9-103 determine whether filing is necessary in this state.

(5) Notwithstanding the preceding subsections, the proper place to file in order to perfect a security interest in collateral, including fixtures, of a transmitting utility is the office of the secretary of state. Such a filing shall not be deemed a separate filing from the filings required by other laws, if applicable, set forth in subsection (3) of section 336.9-302. This filing constitutes a fixture filing (section 336.9-313) as to the collateral described therein which is or is to become fixtures.

(6) For the purposes of this section, the residence of an organization is its place of business if it has one or its chief executive office if it has more than one place of business.

(7) "Motor vehicle" means any device propelled or drawn by any power other than muscular power in, upon, or by which any person or property is or may be transported or drawn upon a highway, excepting building and road construction equipment.

(10) (9) Interest, including payment adjustment to the extent that it is applied to interest, earned by the seller of the property on a family farm security loan executed before January 1, 1986 that is guaranteed by the commissioner of agriculture as provided in sections 41.51 to 41.60;

~~(21)~~ Contributions to and interest earned on an individual housing account as provided by section 290.08, subdivision 25;

~~(22)~~ (16) Interest earned on a contract for deed entered into for the sale of property for agricultural use if the rate of interest set in the contract is no more than nine percent per year for the duration of the term of the contract. Compliance with these requirements shall be stated in an affidavit to be filed with the first income tax return on which the taxpayer claims the exclusion provided in this clause. Upon request accompanied by the information necessary to make the determination, the commissioner shall determine whether interest to be paid on a proposed transaction will qualify for this exclusion; the determination shall be provided within 30 days of receipt of the request, unless the commissioner finds it necessary to obtain additional information, or verification of the information provided, in which case the determination shall be provided within 30 days of receipt of the final item of information or verification. The exclusion provided in this clause shall apply to interest earned on contracts for deed entered into after December 31, 1981 and before July 1, 1983;

~~(23)~~ The penalty on the early withdrawal of an all-savers certificate as provided in section 128(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 to the extent that the interest was included in income under subdivision 20a, clause (22);

(2)(a) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1981, and before January 1, 1983, for 15 year real property as defined in section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, 40 percent of the allowance provided in section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 shall not be allowed and for all other property, 17 percent of the allowance shall not be allowed.

(b) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1982, and with respect to property placed in service in taxable years beginning before January 1, 1983, for 15 year real property as defined in section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, 40 percent of the allowance provided in section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 shall not be allowed and for all other property 20 percent of the allowance shall not be allowed.

(3) For property placed in service in taxable years beginning after December 31, 1982, the allowable deduction shall be the amount provided by section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

(4) For property placed in service after December 31, 1980, for which the taxpayer elects to use the straight line method provided in section 168(b)(3) or a method provided in section 168(e)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, the modifications provided in clauses (1) and (2) do not apply.

(5) For property subject to the modifications contained in clause (1) or (2) above or subject to a reduction in basis pursuant to section 48(q) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, the following modification shall be made after the entire amount of the allowable deduction for that property under the provision of section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 has been obtained. The remaining depreciable basis in those assets for Minnesota purposes shall be a depreciation allowance computed by using the straight line method over the following number of years:

(7) The modifications provided in this subdivision shall apply before applying any limitation to out of state losses contained in section 290.17 or farm losses contained in section 290.09, subdivision 29.

(8) After the entire amount of the allowable deduction for that property under the provisions of section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 has been obtained, the remaining depreciable basis in those assets for Minnesota purposes that is allowable under clause (5) shall include the amount of any basis reduction made for federal purposes under section 48(q) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 to reflect the investment tax credit. No amount shall be allowed as a deduction under section 196 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2dd. [SUSPENSION OF INFLATION ADJUSTMENTS.] (a) The taxable net income brackets, the personal credit amounts established pursuant to subdivision 3f and 3g, and the maximum standard deduction provided under section 16, subdivision 3, shall not be adjusted for inflation pursuant to subdivision 2d, for taxable years beginning during a calendar year if the following conditions occur:

(1) The legislature and the governor have enacted a budget providing for an appropriation to the budget reserve account of at least $250,000,000 for the biennium during which the calendar year began or, in the second half of an odd-numbered year, for the biennium which began during the calendar year; and

(2) The commissioner of finance estimated at the time the budget is enacted that the state would receive sufficient general fund receipts during the biennium to fund the full appropriation to the budget reserve account; and

(3) On or before September 15 of the calendar year it is estimated by the commissioner of finance that the probable general fund receipts from taxes and other sources will be less than estimated and consequently the amount available for the remainder of the biennium after transferring any available funds in the budget reserve account will be less than the amount estimated or allotted to be expended or incurred from the general fund; and

(4) The additional receipts resulting from the suspension of the inflation adjustments, together with all other general fund revenues, are not estimated to exceed the sum of the amounts necessary to fund in full all appropriations, including the appropriation to the budget reserve account, in which case the commissioner of revenue shall provide for partial inflation adjustments sufficient to fund in full the appropriations.

(b) The suspension of inflation adjustments shall apply only during the biennium in which the conditions specified in paragraph (a) have been satisfied.

(c) For taxable years beginning during a calendar year in which the inflation adjustments of the brackets, credits, and maximum standard deduction are not made pursuant to this subdivision, the taxable net income adjustment factor, as defined in section 290.18, subdivision 4, shall be the adjustment factor applicable to taxable years beginning during the preceding calendar year. For taxable years beginning during a calendar year in which the inflation adjustments are suspended for one-half of the taxable year as a result of paragraph (b), the taxable net income adjustment factor shall be determined by multiplying the factor for the previous year by an amount equal to the current year factor divided by two, plus one.

(d) For taxable years beginning during a calendar year in which the inflation adjustments are suspended pursuant to this subdivision and for which paragraph (b) will result in the inflation adjustments being suspended for only one-half of the taxable year, the commissioner of revenue shall adjust the withholding tables, notwithstanding section 290.92, subdivision 2a, so that the additional tax imposed is withheld and remitted by employers during the first six months of the taxable year as if the suspension were in effect for the entire year.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.06, subdivision 2e, as amended by Laws 1982, Third Special Session chapter 1, article V, section 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 2e. (1) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1981, but before January 1, 1983, seven percent;

(2) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1982, but before January 1, ~~1984~~ 1985, 5 10 percent;

(3) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1984, but before January 1, 1986, 5 percent.

On October 1, 1983 the commissioner of finance shall determine the amount of the state's unrestricted general fund balance at the close of the 1982-1983 biennium. If this amount is more than $150,000,000, the commissioner shall reduce the rate of the surtax in effect for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1982 and before January 1, 1984, so that the amount of revenue raised by the surtax results in a fund balance of no more than $150,000,000, provided that the rate so determined shall be rounded upward to the next one-tenth of one percent and no adjustment shall be required if the change in the rate of the surtax would be less than one-tenth of one percent.

Sec. 8. [ADJUSTMENT TO WITHHOLDING AND DECLARATIONS.]

For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1984, but before January 1, 1986, the commissioner of revenue shall adjust the withholding tables, notwithstanding section 290.92, subdivision 2a, so that the additional tax imposed by section 7 for the entire year is withheld and remitted by employers as if the additional tax were imposed at a rate of 10 percent during the first six months of the taxable year.

For the same period, the commissioner shall require that declarations filed for the first six months of the taxable year by individuals shall include the additional tax imposed by section 7.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.06, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.06, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [GASOLINE AND SPECIAL FUEL TAX REFUND.] Subject to the provisions of section 296.18, a credit equal to the amount paid by the taxpayer during the taxable year as excise tax on gasoline bought and used for any purpose other than use in motor vehicles ~~or~~, snowmobiles, or motorboats, or on special fuel bought and used for any purpose other than use in licensed motor vehicles may be deducted from any tax due under this chapter. Any amount by which the credit exceeds the tax due shall be re-

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.06, subdivision 14, is amended to read:

Subd. 14. [RESIDENTIAL ENERGY CREDIT.] A credit of 20 percent of the first $10,000 of renewable energy source expenditures, including the expenditures described in clauses (a), (b) and (d) if made by an individual taxpayer on a Minnesota building of six dwelling units or less and expenditures for biomass conversion equipment described in clause (c), may be deducted from the tax due under this chapter for the taxable year in which the expenditures were made. For purposes of this subdivision, the term "building" shall include a condominium or townhouse used by the taxpayer as a residence. In the case of qualifying expenditures incurred in connection with a building under construction by a contractor, the credit shall be deducted from the tax liability of the first individual to purchase the building for use as a principal residence or for residential rental purposes; the contractor shall not be eligible for the credit given pursuant to this subdivision for that expenditure.

A "renewable energy source expenditure" which qualifies shall include:

(a) Expenditures which qualify for the federal renewable energy source credit, pursuant to Section 44C of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, and any regulations promulgated pursuant thereto, provided that, after December 31, 1980, any solar collector included in the claimed expenditure is certified by the commissioner of energy, planning and development. A solar collector is a device designed to absorb incident solar radiation, convert it to thermal energy, and transfer the thermal energy to a fluid passing through or in contact with the device. "Solar collector" shall not include passive solar energy systems as defined in clause (d);

(b) Expenditures for earth sheltered dwelling units. For purposes of this credit, an "earth sheltered dwelling unit" shall mean a structure which complies with applicable building standards and which is constructed so that:

(1) 80 percent or more of the roof area is covered with a minimum depth of 12 inches of earth; and

(2) 50 percent or more of the wall area is covered with a minimum depth of 12 inches of earth; and

(3) Those portions of the structure not insulated with a minimum of seven feet of earth shall have additional insulation;

(c) Expenditures for biomass conversion equipment located in Minnesota which produces ethanol, methane or methanol for use as a gaseous or as a liquid fuel which is not offered for sale; and

(d) Expenditures for passive solar energy systems. For purposes of this credit, a "passive solar energy system" is defined to include systems which utilize elements of the building and its operable components to heat or cool a building with the sun's energy by means of conduction, convection, radiation, or evaporation. A passive system shall include:

(1) Collection aperture, including glazing installed in south facing walls and roofs; and

(2) Storage element, including thermal mass in the form of water, masonry, rock, concrete, or other mediums which is designed to store heat collected from solar radiation.

A passive system may include either or both:

(1) Control and distribution element, including fans, louvers, and air ducts; or

(2) Retention element, including movable insulation used to minimize heat loss caused by nocturnal radiation through areas used for direct solar heat gain during daylight hours.

Eligible passive expenditures shall be for equipment, materials or devices that are an integral part of the components listed above and essential to the functioning of a passive design which qualifies pursuant to rules adopted by the commissioner of revenue in cooperation with the commissioner of energy, planning and development. Expenditures for equipment, materials, or devices which are a part of the normal heating, cooling, or insulation system of a building are not eligible for the credit.

If a credit was allowed to a taxpayer under this subdivision for any prior taxable year, the dollar amount of the maximum expenditure for which a taxpayer may qualify for a credit under this subdivision in subsequent years shall be $10,000 reduced by the amount of expenditures which a credit was claimed pursuant to this subdivision in prior years. A taxpayer shall never be allowed to claim more than $10,000 of expenditures during the duration of the renewable energy credit.

The credit provided in this subdivision shall not be allowed in a taxable year if the amount of the credit would be less than $10.

If the credit allowable under this subdivision exceeds the amount of tax due in a taxable year, the excess credit shall not be refunded but may be carried forward to the succeeding taxable year and added to the credit allowable for that year. No amount may be carried forward to a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1987.

A shareholder in a family farm corporation and each partner in a partnership operating a family farm shall be eligible for the credit provided by this subdivision in the same manner and to the same extent allowed a joint owner of property under section 44C (d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981. "Family farm corporation" and "family farm" have the meanings given in section 500.24.

The credit provided in this subdivision is subject to the provisions of Section 44C, (c) (7) and (10), and (d) (1) to (3), ~~and (e)~~, of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, and any regulations promulgated pursuant thereto.

The commissioner of revenue in cooperation with the commissioner of energy, planning and development shall adopt rules establishing additional qualifications and definitions for the credits provided in this subdivision.

Notwithstanding section 290.61, the commissioner of revenue may request the commissioner of energy, planning and development to assist in the review and auditing of the information furnished by the taxpayer for purposes of claiming this credit. The provisions of section 290.61 shall apply to employees of the department of energy, planning and development who receive information furnished by a taxpayer for purposes of claiming this credit.

The commissioner of energy, planning and development shall adopt rules establishing the criteria for certification of solar collectors as required by clause (a). The criteria shall:

(1) Specify the testing procedures to be used in the evaluation of solar collectors;

(2) Establish minimum levels of collector quality for safety;

(3) Provide a means to determine the maintainability and structural integrity of solar collectors;

(4) Establish a system for evaluating and rating the thermal performance of solar collectors;

(5) Specify the procedures to follow to obtain certification of a solar collector;

(6) Conform to the maximum extent practicable to the solar collector certification requirements of other states which have adopted certification procedures; and

(7) Allow for individual variation so as not to hamper the development of innovative solar collectors.

The commissioner of energy, planning and development may adopt temporary rules pursuant to sections 14.29 to 14.36 to establish this certification procedure.

This subdivision is effective for expenditures made during taxable years beginning after December 31, 1978 and before January 1, 1986.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.067, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT OF CREDIT.] A taxpayer may take as a credit against the tax due from him and his spouse, if any, under this chapter an amount equal to the dependent care credit for which he is eligible pursuant to the provisions of section 44A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, ~~1981~~ 1982, except that the applicable percentage of the employment-related expenses shall be 20 percent and subject to the other limitations provided in subdivision 2.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.067, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

through December 31, ~~1981~~ 1982, of the claimant and his spouse, if any, ~~exceeds $15,000-~~ as follows:

The commissioner shall construct and make available to taxpayers tables showing the amount of the credit at various levels of income and expenses. The tables shall follow the schedule contained in this subdivision, except that the commissioner may graduate the transitions between expenses and income brackets.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.07, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ANNUAL ACCOUNTING PERIOD.] Net income and taxable net income shall be computed upon the basis of the taxpayer's annual accounting period. If a taxpayer has no annual accounting period, or has one other than a fiscal year, as heretofore defined, the net income and taxable net income shall be computed on the basis of the calendar year. Taxpayers shall employ the same accounting period on which they report, or would be required to report, their net income under the ~~federal income tax act~~ Internal Revenue Code. The commissioner shall provide by rule for the determination of the accounting period for taxpayers who file a combined report under section 290.34, subdivision 2, when members of the group use different accounting periods for federal income tax purposes. Unless the taxpayer changes its accounting period for federal purposes, the due date of the return is not changed.

A taxpayer may change his accounting period only with the consent of the commissioner. In case of any such change, he shall pay a tax for the period not included in either his former or newly adopted taxable year, computed as provided in section 290.32.

Sec. 15. [290.088] [DEDUCTION FOR FEDERAL INCOME TAXES.]

Adjusted gross income for individuals, estates, and trusts shall be computed by allowing to individuals, estates, and trusts a deduction from gross income for federal income taxes. The amount of the deduction is determined under section 290.18, subdivision 2.

Sec. 16. [290.089] [DEDUCTIONS FROM GROSS INCOME; INDIVIDUALS.]

Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT ALLOWED.] In computing the net income of individuals, an amount determined pursuant to subdivision 2 or 3 is allowed as a deduction.

Subd. 2. [ITEMIZED DEDUCTIONS.] Subject to the provisions of section 290.18, subdivision 1, an amount equal to the amount determined pursuant to section 63(f) of the Internal Revenue Code is allowed with the following adjustments:

(a) Add the amount paid to others not to exceed $500 for each dependent in grades K to 6 and $700 for each dependent in grades 7 to 12, for tuition, textbooks, and transportation of each dependent in attending an elementary or secondary school situated in Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Iowa, or Wisconsin, wherein a resident of this state may legally fulfill the state's compulsory attendance laws, which is not operated for profit, and which adheres to the provisions of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and chapter 363. As used in this clause, "textbooks" includes books and other instructional materials and equipment used in elementary and secondary schools in teaching only those subjects legally and commonly taught in public elementary and secondary schools in this state. "Textbooks" does not include instructional books and materials used in the teaching of religious tenets, doctrines, or worship, the purpose of which is to instill such tenets, doctrines, or worship, nor does it include books or materials for, or transportation to, extracurricular activities including sporting events, musical or dramatic events, speech activities, driver's education, or similar programs;

(b) Add the amount of Minnesota and other states' estate or inheritance taxes which were allowed as a deduction under section 290.077, subdivision 4, on income in respect of a decedent;

(c) Add the amount by which the deduction for the taxable year allowed pursuant to subdivision 4 exceeds the amount determined pursuant to section 222 of the Internal Revenue Code;

(d) Subtract income taxes paid or accrued within the taxable year under this chapter;

(e) Subtract income taxes paid to any other state or to any province or territory of Canada if a credit is allowed for the taxes under section 290.081;

(f) If the deduction computed under section 164 of the Internal Revenue Code is not reduced by the amount of the credit or refund allowed under chapter 290A, subtract that amount;

(g) Subtract the amount of interest on investment indebtedness paid or accrued in a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1981, which has been carried forward and is allowed as a deduction in the taxable year under section 163(d) of the Internal Revenue Code;

(h) Subtract the amount of charitable contributions deducted under section 170 of the Internal Revenue Code that (i) exceeds the following limitations: (A) an overall limit of 30 percent of the taxpayer's Minnesota gross income which, for purposes of this paragraph, shall include the ordinary income portion of a lump sum distribution as defined in section 402(e) of the Internal Revenue Code; and (B) the aggregate of contributions to organizations described in section 290.21, subdivision 3, clause (c) shall not exceed 20 percent of the taxpayer's Minnesota gross income; or (ii) was deducted as a carryover under section 170(d) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Subd. 3. [STANDARD DEDUCTION.] In lieu of the deductions provided in subdivision 2, an individual may claim or be allowed a standard deduction as follows:

(a) Subject to modification pursuant to clause (b), the standard deduction shall be an amount equal to ten percent of the adjusted gross income of the taxpayer, up to a maximum deduction of $2,250.

In the case of a husband and wife, the standard deduction shall not be allowed to either if the net income of one of the spouses is determined without regard to the standard deduction.

(b) The maximum amount of the standard deduction shall be adjusted for inflation in the same manner as provided in section 290.06, subdivision 2d, for the expansion of the taxable net income brackets.

(c) The commissioner of revenue may establish a standard deduction tax table incorporating the rates set forth in section 290.06, subdivision 2c, and the standard deduction. The tax of any individual taxpayer whose adjusted gross income is less than $20,000 shall, if an election is made not to itemize nonbusiness deductions, be computed in accordance with tables prepared and issued by the commissioner of revenue. The tables shall be prepared to reflect the allowance of the standard deduction and the personal and dependent credits.

Subd. 4. [ADOPTION EXPENSES.] An individual taxpayer is allowed a deduction for the expenses incurred during the taxable year arising from the adoption of one or more children, including attorney fees, court costs, social or adoption agency fees, and other necessary costs in connection with an adoption; the total expense, however, shall not exceed $1,250 per child adopted. If under the taxpayer's system of accounting, the expense is deductible in two different taxable years, the total deduction for the two years shall not exceed $1,250 per child.

Subd. 5. [COMPUTATION OF MINNESOTA DEDUCTIONS.] An individual who does not itemize deductions for federal purposes but does itemize deductions for Minnesota purposes shall compute that person's deductions for Minnesota as if that person had itemized their deductions for federal purposes under the provisions of subdivision 2. The individual shall be allowed as an itemized deduction for Minnesota the charitable contributions claimed as a deduction for federal purposes under the provisions of section 170(i) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Subd. 6. [SEPARATE RETURNS ON SINGLE FORM.] In the case of a husband and wife who filed a joint federal income tax return but filed separate Minnesota income tax returns, the amount of the itemized deductions that shall be allowed shall be the same amount that was allowed on their joint federal income tax return and as modified by subdivision 2. The deductions shall be divided between them based on who incurred and paid the amount which qualifies as a deduction. Amounts which qualify as a deduction and which are paid from joint funds may be divided between the spouses as they elect.

Subd. 7. [INTERNAL REVENUE CODE.] The Internal Revenue Code referred to in any of the subdivisions of this section means the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through March 12, 1983.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.09, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LIMITATIONS.] ~~(a) Except as provided in this subdivision, the following deductions provided in this section from gross income shall only be allowed to corporations in computing net income; provided that any item which was deducted in arriving at gross income under the provisions of section 290.01, subdivisions 20 to 20f, shall not be again deducted under this section.~~

~~(b) Property taxes may not be deducted under this section if~~

~~(1) The taxes are attributable to a trade or business carried on by an individual; or~~

~~(c) Interest and depreciation attributable to rental residential property may not be deducted under this section if the property does not comply with the requirements of Laws 1982, chapter 523, article 7, section 3. The provisions of subdivisions 2, clause (c), 28, and 29 shall also apply to individuals, estates, and trusts to the extent provided in those subdivisions.~~

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.09, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [TRADE OR BUSINESS EXPENSES; EXPENSES FOR PRODUCTION OF INCOME.] (a) In General. There shall be allowed as a deduction all the ordinary and necessary expenses paid or incurred during the taxable year in carrying on any trade or business, including

(1) A reasonable allowance for salaries or other compensation for personal services actually rendered;

(2) Traveling expenses (including amounts expended for meals and lodging other than amounts which are lavish or extravagant under the circumstances) while away from home in the pursuit of a trade or business; and

(3) Rentals or other payments required to be made as a condition to the continued use or possession, for purposes of the trade or business, of property to which the taxpayer has not taken or is not taking title or in which he has no equity. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the place of residence of a member of congress within the state shall be considered his home, but amounts expended by such members within each taxable year for living expenses shall not be deductible for income tax purposes in excess of $3,000.

(b) Expenses for Production of Income. In the case of an individual, there shall be allowed as a deduction all the ordinary and necessary expenses paid or incurred during the taxable year:

(3) In connection with the determination, collection, or refund of any tax.

(f) The provisions of section 280A (disallowing certain expenses in connection with the business use of the home and rental of vacation homes) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, shall be applicable in determining the availability of any deduction under this subdivision.

(g) (d) Entertainment, amusement, or recreation expenses shall be allowed under this subdivision only to the extent that they qualify as a deduction under section 274 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.09, subdivision 3, as amended by Laws 1982, Third Special Session chapter 1, article VII, section 1, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [INTEREST.] (a) All interest paid or accrued within the taxable year on indebtedness, except as hereinafter provided.

(b) Interest paid or accrued within the taxable year on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry obligations or securities the income from which is excludable from gross income under sections 290.01, subdivisions 20 to 20f or section 290.08, or shares of a regulated investment company which during the taxable year of the holder thereof distributes Minnesota exempt interest dividends as defined in section 290.01, subdivision 27, or on indebtedness described in section 264(a)(2) and (3), (b) and (c) (relating to life insurance) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 1, 1982 shall not be allowed as a deduction.

(c) If personal property or educational services are purchased under a contract the provisions of section 163(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 1, 1982 shall apply.

(d) A cash basis taxpayer may elect to deduct interest as it accrues on a reverse mortgage loan as defined in section 47.58, subdivision 1, rather than when it is actually paid. This election must be made, if at all, in the first taxable year in which it is available to the cash basis taxpayer and, if made, shall be binding on the taxpayer for each subsequent taxable year until maturity of the loan.

(e) In the case of a taxpayer other than a corporation, the amount of interest on investment indebtedness allowable as a deduction shall be allowed and limited as set forth in section 163(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 1, 1982. The limitation prescribed in section 163(d)(1)(A) for married individuals who file separate returns shall also apply to married individuals who file separately on one return.

(f) A taxpayer may not deduct interest on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry obligations or shares, or to make deposits or other investments, the interest on which is described in section 116(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 1, 1982 to the extent such interest is excludable from gross income under section 116 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 1, 1982. Interest and carrying costs in the case of straddles shall be treated as provided in section 263(g) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 1, 1982. Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.09, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. If the taxpayer's foreign tax credit consists of both foreign taxes deemed paid and foreign taxes actually paid or withheld, it will be conclusively presumed that foreign taxes deemed paid were first used by the taxpayer in its foreign tax credit. Minnesota gross income shall include the amount of foreign tax paid which had been allowed as a deduction in a previous year, provided such foreign tax is later allowed as a credit against federal income tax.

Taxes imposed upon a shareholder's interest in a corporation which are paid by the corporation without reimbursement from the shareholder shall be deductible only by such corporation.

Property taxes shall be allowed as a deduction to the same taxpayer and in the same manner as provided in section 164 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, notwithstanding the provisions of section 272.31.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.09, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [LOSSES.] (a) [GENERAL RULE.] There shall be allowed as a deduction any loss sustained during the taxable year and not compensated for by insurance or otherwise.

(b) [AMOUNT OF DEDUCTION.] For purposes of paragraph (a), the basis for determining the amount of the deduction for any loss shall be the adjusted basis provided in this chapter for determining the loss from the sale or other disposition of property.

(c) [~~LIMITATION OF LOSSES OF INDIVIDUALS.~~] In the case of an individual, the deduction under paragraph (a) shall be limited to

(1) Losses incurred in a trade or business;

(2) Losses incurred in any transaction entered into for profit, though not connected with a trade or business; and

(3) Losses of property not connected with a trade or business, if such losses arise from fire, storm, shipwreck, or other casualty, or from theft to the extent they are deductible pursuant to the provisions of section 165 (e) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981. No loss described in this paragraph shall be allowed if, at the time of the filing of the return, such loss has been claimed for inheritance or estate tax purposes.

(4) [WAGERING LOSSES.] Losses from wagering transactions shall be allowed only to the extent of the gains from such transactions. No loss from pari-mutuel betting shall be allowed except to the extent of verified receipts and the sworn testimony of at least one witness other than the taxpayer or his spouse.

(e) (d) [THEFT LOSSES.] For purposes of paragraph (a), any loss arising from theft shall be treated as sustained during the taxable year in which the taxpayer discovers such loss.

(f) (e) [CAPITAL LOSSES.] Losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets shall be allowed only to the extent allowed in section 290.16.

(g) (f) [WORTHLESS SECURITIES.] (4) [~~GENERAL RULE.~~] If any security which is a capital asset becomes worthless during the taxable year, the loss resulting therefrom shall, for purposes of this chapter, be treated as a loss from the sale or exchange, on the last day of the taxable year, of a capital asset.

(2) [~~SECURITY DEFINED.~~] For purposes of this paragraph, the term "security" means:

(A) A share of stock in a corporation;

(B) A right to subscribe for, or to receive, a share of stock in a corporation; or

(C) A bond, debenture, note, or certificate, or other evidence of indebtedness, issued by a corporation or by a government or political subdivision thereof, with interest coupons or in registered form.

(3) [SECURITIES IN AFFILIATED CORPORATION.] For purposes of paragraph (1), any security in a corporation affiliated with a taxpayer which is a domestic corporation shall not be treated as a capital asset. For purposes of the preceding sentence, a corporation shall be treated as affiliated with the taxpayer only if:

(A) At least 80 percent of each class of its stock is owned directly by the taxpayer, and

(B) More than 90 percent of the aggregate of its gross receipts for all taxable years has been from sources other than royalties, rents (except rents derived from rental from properties to employees of the corporation in the ordinary course of its operating business), dividends, interest (except interest received on deferred purchase price of operating assets sold), annuities, and gains from sales or exchanges of stocks and securities. In computing gross receipts for purposes of the preceding sentence, gross receipts from sales or exchanges of stock and securities shall be taken into account only to the extent of gains therefrom. The definitions contained in section 165(g) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through January 15, 1983, shall apply. No deduction shall be allowed for any loss sustained on any registration-required obligation as defined in and except as provided in section 165(j) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through January 15, 1983.

(h) (g) [DISASTER LOSSES.] (4) Notwithstanding the provisions of (a), any loss

(A) attributable to a disaster which occurs during the period following the close of the taxable year and on or before the time prescribed by law for filing the income tax return for the taxable year (determined without regard to any extension of time); and

(B) occurring in an area subsequently determined by the President of the United States to warrant assistance by the Federal Government under the provisions of the Federal Disaster Relief Act of 1974; at the election of the taxpayer, may shall be deducted for the taxable year immediately preceding the taxable year in which the disaster occurred. Such election may be made. This provision shall apply only if a similar an election has been made under the provisions of Section ~~165(h)~~ 165(i) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through ~~December 31, 1981~~ January 15, 1983 for federal income tax purposes. Such deduction allowed in the preceding taxable year shall not be in excess of so much of the loss as would have been deductible in the taxable year in which the casualty occurred exceed the uncompensated amount determined on the basis of the facts existing at the date the taxpayer claims the loss. If an election is made under this paragraph, the casualty resulting in the loss will be deemed to have occurred in the taxable year for which the deduction is claimed.

(2) The commissioner is authorized to prescribe regulations providing the time and manner of making an election to claim a disaster loss under this clause.

(i) [ELECTION.] In lieu of the deduction allowed by (a) or (b) any loss not compensated for by insurance or otherwise:

(1) Attributable to storm or other natural causes or fire, may, at the election of the taxpayer, be claimed as a deduction in the taxable year in which said loss is sustained or in the preceding taxable year.

(2) In the event that under the provisions of this paragraph, a taxpayer claims the same disaster loss deduction or a net operating loss deduction resulting from the inclusion of a casualty loss in the calculation of such deduction in different taxable years for state and federal purposes, appropriate modifications shall be allowed or required for taxable years affected in order to prevent duplication or omission of such deduction.

(3) The commissioner is authorized to prescribe regulations providing the time and manner to make an election to claim a loss under the provisions of this paragraph and for the filing of an amended return or claim for refund.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.09, subdivision 29, is amended to read:

Subd. 29. [DEDUCTIONS ATTRIBUTABLE TO FARMING.] (a) [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this subdivision, income and gains and expenses and losses shall be considered as "arising from a farm" if such items are received or incurred in connection with cultivating the soil, or in connection with raising or harvesting any agricultural or horticultural commodity, including the raising, shearing, feeding, caring for, training, and management of livestock, including horses for horse racing, bees, poultry, and fur-bearing animals and wildlife, and all operations incident thereto, including but not limited to the common use of "hedging".

(b) [DEDUCTIONS LIMITED.] Except as provided in this subdivision, expenses and losses, except for interest and taxes, arising from a farm shall not be allowed as deductions in excess of income and gains arising from a farm.

(c) [DEDUCTIONS ALLOWED; CARRYOVER DEDUCTIONS.] Expenses and losses arising from a farm or farms shall be allowed as deductions up to the amount of the income and gains arising from a farm or farms in any taxable year, plus the first ~~$15,000~~ $30,000 of non-farm gross income, or non-farm taxable net income in the case of a corporation, provided however that in any case where non-farm income exceeds ~~$15,000~~ $30,000, the maximum allowable amount of ~~$15,000~~ $30,000 shall be reduced by ~~twice the~~ an amount by which ~~equal to~~ the non-farm income ~~exceeds the amount in excess of~~ ~~$15,000~~ $30,000 multiplied by three. For this purpose and for the purpose of applying the limitation in the following paragraph regarding the application of any carryback or carryforward, the term gross income shall include the ordinary income portion of a lump sum distribution as defined in section 402(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, and no deduction shall be allowed for two-earner married couples as provided in section 221 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981. Any remaining balance of the deductions shall be carried back three years and carried forward five years, in chronological order, provided, however, that in any case in which any individual, estate or trust which elects a net operating loss carryforward under section 172(b)(3)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, such losses shall not be carried back but shall only be carried forward.

Current expenses and losses shall be utilized as deductions in any taxable year, to the extent herein allowable, prior to the application of any carryback or carryover deductions. In any event, the combined amounts of such current expenses and losses and carryback or carryover deductions shall be allowed as deductions up to the amount of the income and gains arising from a farm or farms in any taxable year, plus the first ~~$15,000~~ $30,000 of non-farm gross income, or non-farm taxable net income in the case of a corporation, provided however that in any case where non-farm income exceeds ~~$15,000~~ $30,000, the maximum allowable amount of ~~$15,000~~ $30,000 shall be reduced by ~~twice the an amount by which equal to~~ the non-farm income ~~exceeds the amount in excess of~~ ~~$15,000~~ $30,000 multiplied by three.

(d) [SHAREHOLDERS SEPARATE ENTITIES.] For purposes of this subdivision, individual shareholders of an electing small business corporation shall be considered separate entities.

(e) [SPECIAL PERIOD OF LIMITATION WITH RESPECT TO FARM LOSS LIMITATION CARRYBACKS.] For the purposes of sections 290.46 and 290.50, if the claim for refund relates to an overpayment attributable to a farm loss limitation carryback under this subdivision, in lieu of the period of limitation prescribed in sections 290.46 and 290.50, the period of limitation shall be that period which ends with the expiration of the 15th day of the 46th month (or the 45th month, in the case of a corporation) following the end of the taxable year of the farm loss which results in the carryback.

(f) [INTEREST ON CLAIMS.] In any case in which a taxpayer is entitled to a refund in a carryback year due to the carryback of a farm loss, interest shall be computed only from the end of the taxable year in which the loss occurs.

(g) [ORDER OF APPLICATION.] The application of this subdivision shall be made after applying any limitation to out of state losses contained in section 290.17.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.14, is amended to read:

290.14 [GAIN OR LOSS ON DISPOSITION OF PROPERTY, BASIS.]

Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the basis for determining the gain or loss from the sale or other disposition of property acquired on or after January 1, 1933, shall be the cost to the taxpayer of such property, with the following exceptions:

(1) If the property should have been included in the last inventory, it shall be the last inventory value thereof;

(2) If the property was acquired by gift, it shall be the same as it would be if it were being sold or otherwise disposed of by the last preceding owner not acquiring it by gift; if the facts required for this determination cannot be ascertained, it shall be the fair market value as of the date, or approximate date, of acquisition by the last preceding owner, as nearly as the requisite facts can be ascertained by the commissioner;

(3) If the property was acquired by gift through an inter vivos transfer in trust, it shall be the same as it would be if it were being sold or otherwise disposed of by the grantor;

(4) Except as otherwise provided in this clause, the basis of property in the hands of a person acquiring the property from a decedent or to whom the property passed from a decedent shall, if not sold, exchanged or otherwise disposed of before the decedent's death by the person, be the fair market value of the property at the date of decedent's death or, in the case of an election under section 2032 (relating to alternate valuation) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, its valuation at the applicable valuation date prescribed by that section, or in the case of an election under section 2032A (relating to valuation of farm real property) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, its value determined by that section.

For the purposes of the preceding paragraph, the following property shall be considered to have been acquired from or to have passed from the decedent:

(a) Property acquired by bequest, devise, or inheritance, or by the decedent's estate from the decedent;

(b) Property transferred by the decedent during his lifetime in trust to pay the income for life to or on the order or direction of the decedent, with the right reserved to the decedent at all times before his death to revoke the trust;

(c) Property transferred by the decedent during his lifetime in trust to pay the income for life to or on the order or direction of the decedent with the right reserved to the decedent at all times before his death to make any change in the enjoyment thereof through the exercise of a power to alter, amend, or terminate the trust;

(d) Property passing without full and adequate consideration under a general power of appointment exercised by the decedent by will;

(e) In the case of a decedent's dying after December 31, 1956, property acquired from the decedent by reason of death, form of ownership, or other conditions (including property acquired through the exercise or non-exercise of a power of appointment), if by reason thereof the property is required to be included in determining the value of the decedent's gross estate for Minnesota inheritance or estate tax purposes. In this case, if the property is acquired before the death of the decedent, the basis shall be the amount determined under the first paragraph of this clause reduced by the amount allowed to the taxpayer as deductions in computing taxable net income under this chapter or prior Minnesota income tax laws for exhaustion, wear and tear, obsolescence, amortization, and depletion on the property before the death of the decedent. The basis shall be applicable to the property commencing on the death of the decedent. This paragraph shall not apply to annuities and property described in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) of this clause.

This clause shall not apply to property which constitutes a right to receive an item of income in respect of a decedent under section 290.077.

(5) If substantially identical property was acquired in the place of stocks or securities which were sold or disposed of and in respect of which loss was not allowed as a deduction under section 16 or section 290.09, subdivision 5, the basis in the case of property so acquired shall be the same as that provided in section 1091 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981.

(6) Neither the basis nor the adjusted basis of any portion of real property shall, in the case of a lessor of the property, be increased or diminished on account of income derived by the lessor in respect of the property and excludable from gross income under section 290.08, subdivision 14.

If an amount representing any part of the value of real property attributable to buildings erected or other improvements made by a lessee in respect of the property was included in gross income of the lessor for any taxable year beginning before January 1, 1943, the basis of each portion of the property shall be properly adjusted for the amount included in gross income.

(7) If the property was acquired by the taxpayer as a transfer of property in exchange for the release of the taxpayer's marital rights, the basis of the property shall be the same as it would be if it were being sold or otherwise disposed of by the person who transferred the property to the taxpayer.

(8) The basis of property subject to the provisions of section 1034 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981 (relating to the rollover of gain on sale of principal residence) shall be the same as the basis for federal income tax purposes. The basis shall be increased by the amount of gain realized on the sale of a principal residence outside of Minnesota, while a nonresident of this state, which gain was not recognized because of the provisions of section 1034.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.17, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [OTHER TAXPAYERS.] In the case of taxpayers not subject to the provisions of subdivision 1, items of gross income shall be assigned to this state or other states or countries in accordance with the following principles:

(1) (a) The entire income of all resident or domestic taxpayers from compensation for labor or personal services, or from a business consisting principally of the performance of personal or professional services, shall be assigned to this state, and the income of nonresident taxpayers from such sources shall be assigned to this state if, and to the extent that, the labor or services are performed within it; all other income from such sources shall be treated as income from sources without this state.

(b) In the case of an individual who is a nonresident of Minnesota and who is an athlete or entertainer, income from compensation for labor or personal services performed within this state shall be determined in the following manner.

(i) The amount of income to be assigned to Minnesota for an individual who is a nonresident salaried athletic team employee shall be determined by using a fraction in which the denominator contains the total number of days in which the individual is under a duty to perform for the employer, and the numerator is the total number of those days spent in Minnesota. In order to eliminate the need to file state or provincial income tax returns in several states or provinces, Minnesota will exclude from income any income assigned to Minnesota under the provisions of this clause for a nonresident athlete who is employed by an athletic team whose operations are not based in this state if the state or province in which the athletic team is based provides a similar income exclusion. If the state or province in which the athletic team's operations are based does not have an income tax on an individual's personal service income, it will be deemed that that state or province has a similar income exclusion. As used in the preceding sentence, the term "province" means a province of Canada.

(ii) The amount of income to be assigned to Minnesota for an individual who is a nonresident, and who is an athlete not listed in clause (i), or who is an entertainer, for that person's athletic or entertainment performance in Minnesota shall be determined by assigning to this state all income from performances or athletic contests in this state.

(2) Income from the operation of a farm shall be assigned to this state if the farm is located within this state and to other states only if the farm is not located in this state. Income from winnings on Minnesota pari-mutuel betting tickets shall be assigned to this state. Income and gains received from tangible property not employed in the business of the recipient of such income or gains, and from tangible property employed in the business of such recipient if such business consists principally of the holding of such property and the collection of the income and gains therefrom, shall be assigned to this state if such property has a situs within it, and to other states only if it has no situs in this state. Income or gains from intangible personal property not employed in the business of the recipient of such income or gains, and from intangible personal property employed in the business of such recipient if such business consists principally of the holding of such property and the collection of the income and gains therefrom, wherever held, whether in trust, or otherwise, shall be assigned to this state if the recipient thereof is domiciled within this state; income or gains from intangible personal property wherever held, whether in trust or otherwise shall be assigned to this state if the recipient of such income or gains is domiciled within this state, or if the grantor of any trust is domiciled within this state and such income or gains would be taxable to such grantor under section 290.28 or 290.29;

(3) Income derived from carrying on a trade or business, including in the case of a business owned by natural persons the income imputable to the owner for his services and the use of his property therein, shall be assigned to this state if the trade or business is conducted wholly within this state, and to other states if conducted wholly without this state. This provision shall not apply to business income subject to the provisions of clause (1);

(4) When a trade or business is carried on partly within and partly without this state, the entire income derived from such trade or business, including income from intangible property employed in such business and including, in the case of a business owned by natural persons, the income imputable to the owner for his services and the use of his property therein, shall be governed, except as otherwise provided in sections 290.35 and 290.36, by the provisions of section 290.19, notwithstanding any provisions of this section to the contrary. This shall not apply to business income subject to the provisions of clause (1), nor shall it apply to income from the operation of a farm which is subject to the provisions of clause (2). For the purposes of this clause, a trade or business located in Minnesota is carried on partly within and partly without this state if tangible personal property is sold by such trade or business and delivered or shipped to a purchaser located outside the state of Minnesota.

If the trade or business carried on wholly or partly in Minnesota is part of a unitary business, the entire income of that unitary business shall be subject to apportionment under section 290.19 except for business income subject to the provisions of clause (1) and farm income subject to the provisions of clause (2). The term "unitary business" shall mean a ~~number of~~ business activities or operations which are of mutual benefit, dependent upon, or contributory to one another, individually or as a group. Unity shall be presumed whenever there is unity of ownership, operation, and use, evidenced by centralized management or executive force, centralized purchasing, advertising, accounting, or other controlled interaction but the absence of these centralized activities will not necessarily evidence a nonunitary business. Unity of ownership will not be deemed to exist ~~unless the corporation owns more than 50 percent of the voting stock of the other corporation when a corporation is involved unless that corporation is a member of a group of two or more corporations more than 50 percent of the voting stock of each member of the group is directly or indirectly owned by a common owner or by common owners, either corporate or noncorporate, or by one or more of the member corporations of the group.~~

The entire income of a unitary business, ~~including all income from each activity, operation or division,~~ shall be subject to apportionment as provided in section 290.19. None of the income of a unitary business shall be considered as derived from any particular source and none shall be allocated to any particular place except as provided by the applicable apportionment formula.

In determining whether or not intangible property is employed in a unitary business carried on partly within and partly without this state so that income derived therefrom is subject to apportionment under section 290.19 the following rules and guidelines shall apply.

(a) Intangible property is employed in a business if the business entity owning intangible property holds it as a means of furthering the business operation of which a part is located within the territorial confines of this state.

(b) Where a business operation conducted in Minnesota, is owned by a business entity which carries on business activity outside of the state different in kind from that conducted within this state, and such other business is conducted entirely outside the state, it will be presumed that the two business operations are unitary in nature, interrelated, connected and interdependent unless it can be shown to the contrary.

(5) ~~In the case of a nonresident who is liable for payment of a penalty for having withdrawn funds from an individual housing account established pursuant to section 290.08, subdivision 25, the amount so withdrawn and for which a deduction was allowed shall be an item of income assignable to this~~ state, and the penalty tax of ten percent shall remain an additional liability of that taxpayer.

(6) For purposes of this section, amounts received by a non-resident from the United States, its agencies or instrumentalities, the Federal Reserve Bank, the state of Minnesota or any of its political or governmental subdivisions, or a Minnesota volunteer fireman's relief association, by way of payment as a pension, public employee retirement benefit, or any combination thereof, or as a retirement or survivor's benefit made from a plan qualifying under section 401, 403, 404, 405, 408, 409 or 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, are not considered income derived from carrying on a trade or business or from performing personal or professional services in Minnesota, and are not taxable under this chapter.

(7) (6) All other items of gross income shall be assigned to the taxpayer's domicile.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.18, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TAXABLE NET INCOME.] (a) For resident individuals, taxable net income shall be the same as net income.

(b) For all other taxpayers, the taxable net income shall, except insofar as section 290.19 is applicable, be computed by deducting from the gross income assignable to this state under section 290.17 deductions of the kind permitted by ~~section~~ sections 16, 290.09, and section 62 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through March 12, 1983, in accordance with the following provisions:

(1) Such deductions shall be allowed to the extent that they are connected with and allocable against the production or receipt of such gross income assignable to this state;

(2) That proportion of such deductions, so far as not connected with and allocable against the production or receipt of such gross income assignable to this state and so far as not connected with and allocable against the production or receipt of gross income assignable to other states or countries and so far as not entering into the computation of the net income assignable to this state under section 290.19, shall be allowed which the taxpayer's gross income from sources within this state, as determined under section 290.17, subdivision 2, clauses (1), (2), (3), ~~(5)~~, and ~~(7)~~ (6), bears to his gross income from all sources, including that entering into the computations provided for by section 290.19; provided that taxes of the kind deductible under section 290.09, subdivision 4, shall, so far as within the description of deductions deductible under this clause, be deductible in their entirety if paid to the state of Minnesota, or any of its subdivisions authorized to impose such taxes, and thereupon be excluded in making the computation of deductions, as in this clause provided.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.18, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FEDERAL INCOME TAX PAYMENTS AND REFUNDS.] The adjusted gross income shall be computed by deducting from the gross income assignable to this state under section 290.17, the deduction for allowable federal income taxes determined under the provisions of sections 290.09, subdivision 4, 290.10 (8), (9) or (10), and 290.18.

This deduction shall be allowed to individuals, estates, or trusts (i) for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1980 in the taxable year to which the liability applies. Such liability includes the portion of self-employment tax allowed under section 290.10, clause (8). The self-employment tax must be deducted by the person who is deriving the income. When the federal tax liability is joint and several under the computation of a joint federal return of husband and wife, the federal tax liability must be split between the spouses in the same ratio that the federal adjusted gross income of that spouse bears to the total federal adjusted gross income. For purposes of the preceding sentence, "federal adjusted gross income" includes the ordinary income portion of a lump sum distribution as defined in section 402(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981.

(ii) taxes paid for a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1981 shall be allowed as follows:

(1) Those taxes paid in a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1981, shall be claimed in the year in which the payment was made.

(2) Those paid in a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1980 but before January 1, 1983 shall be divided and deducted in equal installments reflected by the yearly periods beginning with the first day of the taxable year in which the payment was made and ending December 31, 1986. For an amount which remains to be deducted in a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1982, where the federal tax liability for the year in which the payment was made is joint and several under the computation of a joint federal return of husband and wife, the remaining amounts to be deducted shall be claimed by the same spouse and in the same dollar amount as the deduction was claimed in the first taxable year beginning after December 31, 1981.

(3) Those paid in a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1982 shall be claimed in the year in which the payment was made. This amount shall be apportioned between spouses as provided in clause (i) and shall be allocated for exempt income under the provisions of section 290.10, clause (9) or (10) as though the payment was part of the federal tax liability for the year in which the payment was made.

(iii) (4) In the case of a person who was self employed during all or a portion of the taxable year, the federal income tax liability for purposes of this ~~section~~ clause shall be increased by the self-employment tax allowed under section 290.10, clause (8). The self-employment tax shall be deducted in the year paid as provided in paragraph (1), (2), or (3). The self-employment tax must be deducted by the person who earned the income. Self-employment tax paid in a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1982 shall be allocated for exempt income as provided in paragraph (3).

(iv) (iii) If a taxpayer's federal tax liability is eventually not paid by reason of compromise, discharge, or court order, the deduction allowed pursuant to this subdivision shall be disallowed for the taxable year in which the liability was accrued.

(v) (iv) In the event a federal tax liability for a taxable year commencing after December 31, 1980 is increased, decreased or modified, and such increase, decrease or modification has resulted in a change in the amount of Minnesota income tax in the year to which such increase, decrease or modification is attributable, the taxpayer's deduction under this ~~section~~ subdivision shall be modified for such year.

(vi) (v) If the readjustments required in (iv) (iii) or (v) (iv) are for taxes reflected in the transition rule described in (ii)(2), the readjustment shall be made equally to the remaining installments and if a reduction to such installments is required under this readjustment which exceeds the total of all remaining installments, the remaining installments will be reduced to zero and the excess included in income as a federal income tax refund.

(vii) (vi) Refunds which are not involved with any readjustments under the transition rule shall be included in income under Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.01, subdivision 20a, clause (6) if it is from a year beginning before January 1, 1981.

(viii) (vii) Refunds of taxes for years beginning after December 31, 1980, shall be used to adjust the deduction in the taxable year of the liability unless that year is closed by statute and no other adjustments are to be required or allowable in which case such refund shall be reportable in the year received.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.21, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The following deductions shall be allowed only to corporations and shall be deductions from gross income in computing net income for individuals, and from a corporation's taxable net income for corporations.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.21, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. An amount for contribution or gifts made within the taxable year:

(a) to or for the use of the state of Minnesota, or any of its political subdivisions for exclusively public purposes,

(b) to or for the use of any community chest, corporation, organization, trust, fund, association, or foundation located in and carrying on substantially all of its activities within this state, organized and operating exclusively for religious, charitable, public cemetery, scientific, literary, artistic, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual,

(c) to a fraternal society, order, or association, operating under the lodge system located in and carrying on substantially all of their activities within this state if such contributions or gifts are to be used exclusively for the purposes specified in subdivision 3(b), or for or to posts or organizations of war veterans or auxiliary units or societies of such posts or organizations, if they are within the state and no part of their net income inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual,

(d) to or for the use of the United States of America for exclusively public purposes, and to or for the use of any community chest, corporation, trust, fund, association, or foundation, organized and operated exclusively for any of the purposes specified in subdivision 3(b) and (c) no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, but not carrying on substantially all of their activities within this state, in an amount equal to the ratio of Minnesota taxable net income to total net income, ~~provided, however, that for an individual taxpayer, the deduction shall be allowed in an amount equal to the ratio of the taxpayer's gross income assignable to Minnesota to the taxpayer's gross income from all sources,~~

(e) to a major political party, as defined in section 200.02, subdivision 7, or a political candidate, as defined in section 210A.01, or a political cause when sponsored by any party or association or committee, as defined in section 210A.01, in a maximum amount not to exceed the following:

(1) contributions made by individual natural persons, $100;

(2) contributions made by a national committeeman, national committeewoman, state chairman, or state chairwoman of a major political party, as defined in section 200.02, subdivision 7, $1,000;

(3) contributions made by a congressional district committeeman or committeewoman of a major political party, as defined in section 200.02, subdivision 7, $350;

(4) contributions made by a county chairman or a county chairwoman of a major political party, as defined in section 200.02, subdivision 7, $150;

(f) in the case of an individual, the total deduction allowable hereunder shall not exceed 30 percent of the taxpayer's Minnesota gross income as follows:

(i) the aggregate of contributions made to organizations specified in (a), (b) and (d) shall not exceed ten percent of the taxpayer's Minnesota gross income;

(ii) the total deduction under this subparagraph for any taxable year shall not exceed 20 percent of the taxpayer's Minnesota gross income. For purposes of this subparagraph, the deduction under this section shall be computed without regard to any deduction allowed under subparagraph (i) but shall take into account any contributions described in subparagraph (i) which are in excess of the amount allowable as a deduction under subparagraph (i). For purposes of paragraph (f) the term Minnesota gross income shall also include the ordinary income portion of a lump sum distribution as defined in section 402(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981;

(g) in the case of a corporation, the total deduction hereunder shall not exceed 15 percent of the taxpayer's taxable net income less the deductions allowable under this section other than those for contributions or gifts,

(h) (f) in the case of a corporation reporting its taxable income on the accrual basis, if: (A) the board of directors authorizes a charitable contribution during any taxable year, and (B) payment of such contribution is made after the close of such taxable year and on or before the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of such taxable year; then the taxpayer may elect to treat such contribution as paid during such taxable year. The election may be made only at the time of the filing of the return for such taxable year, and shall be signified in such manner as the commissioner shall by regulations prescribe;

(i) (g) in the case of a contribution or property placed in trust as described in section 170(f)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, a deduction shall be allowed under this subdivision to the extent that a deduction is allowable for federal income tax purposes.

(j) amounts paid to maintain certain students as members of the taxpayer's household shall be allowed as a deduction as provided in section 170(g) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981. No other deduction shall be allowed under this subdivision for these amounts and the limitations contained in clause (f) shall not apply to these amounts.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.23, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [DISTRIBUTABLE NET INCOME, INCOME, BENEFICIARY; DEFINED.] (1) For purposes of sections 290.22 through 290.25, the term "distributable net income" means the same as that term is defined in section 643(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981 with the following modification:

There shall be included any tax-exempt interest to which section 290.01, subdivision 20b, clause (1) applies, reduced by any amounts which would be deductible in respect of disbursements allocable to such interest but for the provisions of sections 290.09, subdivision 3, and section 290.10(9) (relating to disallowance of certain deductions).

If the estate or trust is allowed a deduction under section 642(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, the amount of the modification shall be reduced to the extent that the amount of income which is paid, permanently set aside, or to be used for the purposes specified in that section of the Internal Revenue Code is deemed to consist of items specified in the modification. For this purpose, such amount shall (in the absence of specific provisions in the governing instrument) be deemed to consist of the same proportion of each class of items of income of the estate or trust as the total of each class bears to the total of all classes.

(2) The term "income," and the term "beneficiary" have the same meaning as those terms are defined in section 643(b) and (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.31, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [INCOME AND CREDITS OF PARTNER.] (1) In determining his income tax, each partner shall take into account separately his distributive share of the partnership's

(a) gains and losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets held for not more than one year,

(b) gains and losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets held for more than one year,

(c) gains and losses from sales or exchanges of property described in

Subdivision 1. [PERSONS MAKING RETURNS.] (a) The commissioner of revenue shall annually determine the gross income levels at which individuals and estates shall be required to file a return for each taxable year.

In the case of a decedent who has gross income in excess of the minimum amount at which an individual is required to file a return, the decedent's final income tax return shall be filed by his or her personal representative, if any. If there is no personal representative, the return shall be filed by the successors (as defined in section 524.1-201) who receive any property of the decedent.

The trustee or other fiduciary of property held in trust shall file a return with respect to the taxable net income of such trust if that exceeds an amount on which a tax at the rates herein provided would exceed the specific credits allowed, or if the gross income of such trust exceeds $750, if in either case such trust belongs to the class of taxable persons.

Every corporation shall file a return. The return in this case shall be signed by an officer of the corporation.

The receivers, trustees in bankruptcy, or assignees operating the business or property of a taxpayer shall file a return with respect to the taxable net income of such taxpayer if that exceeds an amount on which a tax at the rates herein provided would exceed the specific credits allowed.

(b) Such return shall (1) be verified or contain a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of criminal liability for wilfully making a false return, and (2) shall contain a confession of judgment for the amount of the tax shown due thereon to the extent not timely paid.

(c) For purposes of this subdivision the term "gross income" shall mean gross income as defined in section 61 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, modified and adjusted in accordance with the provisions of sections 290.01, subdivision 20b, clauses (1), (6) and ~~(11)~~ (10), 290.08, and 290.17.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.39, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [SEPARATE COMPUTATIONS ON A SINGLE RETURN.] Notwithstanding the provisions of section 290.61, a husband and wife may elect to compute their Minnesota income tax separately on a single return, in which event:

(a) if the sum of the payments by either spouse, including withheld and estimated taxes, exceeds the amount of tax of such spouse as computed separately, the excess may be applied by the commissioner to the credit of the other spouse if the sum of the payments by such other spouse, including withheld and estimated taxes, is less than the amount of the tax of such other spouse as computed separately;

(b) if the sum of the payments made by both spouses with respect to the taxes of both as computed separately, including withheld and estimated taxes, exceeds the total of the taxes due, refund of the excess may be made payable to both spouses or may be credited against any liability in respect of Minnesota income tax on the part of either spouse;

(c) if the sum of the payments made by both spouses with respect to the taxes of both as computed separately, including withheld and estimated taxes, is less than the total of the taxes due, the liability for the unpaid tax shall be joint and several; provided that a spouse may be relieved of liability in those cases contained in section 6013(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1981 (for purposes of computing the 25 percent test contained in that section, the amount of gross income stated in the return shall include the total gross income of both spouses);

(d) if the standard deduction provided for by section ~~290.09, subdivision 15~~ 16, subdivision 3, is not utilized, then the total of the Minnesota itemized deductions of a husband and wife may be taken by either or divided between them as they elect;

(e) the limitation on the deduction for investment interest prescribed in section 163(d) (1) (A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through March 12, 1983, for married individuals who file separate returns shall also apply to married individuals who file separately on one return.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.431, is amended to read:

290.431 [NON-GAME WILDLIFE CHECKOFF.]

Every individual who files an income tax return or property tax refund claim form may designate on their original return that $1 or more shall be added to the tax or deducted from the refund that would otherwise be payable by or to that individual and paid into an account to be established for the management of non-game wildlife. The commissioner of revenue shall, on the first page of the income tax return and the property tax refund claim form, notify filers of their right to designate that a portion of their tax or refund shall be paid into the non-game wildlife management account. The sum of the amounts so designated to be paid shall be credited to the non-game wildlife management account for use by the non-game section of the division of wildlife in the department of natural resources. The commissioner of natural resources shall submit a work program for each fiscal year and semi-annual progress reports to the legislative commission on Minnesota resources in the form determined by the commission. None of the money provided in this section may be expended unless the commission has approved the work program.

The state pledges and agrees with all contributors to the nongame wildlife management account to use the funds contributed solely for the management of nongame wildlife projects and further agrees that it will not impose additional conditions or restrictions that will limit or otherwise restrict the ability of the commissioner of natural resources to use the available funds for the most efficient and effective management of nongame wildlife.

290.46 [EXAMINATION OF RETURNS; ASSESSMENTS, REFUNDS.]

The commissioner shall, as soon as practicable after the return is filed, examine the same and make any investigation or examination of the taxpayer's records and accounts that he may deem necessary for determining the correctness of the return. The tax computed by him on the basis of such examination and investigation shall be the tax to be paid by such taxpayer. If the tax found due shall be greater than the amount reported as due on the taxpayer's return, the commissioner shall assess a tax in the amount of such excess and the whole amount of such excess shall be paid to the commissioner within 60 days after notice of the amount and demand for its payment shall have been mailed to the taxpayer by the commissioner. If the understatement of the tax on the return was false and fraudulent with intent to evade the tax, the installments of the tax shown by the taxpayer on his return which have not yet been paid shall be paid to the commissioner within 60 days after notice of the amount thereof and demand for payment shall have been mailed to the taxpayer by the commissioner. If the amount of the tax found due by the commissioner shall be less than that reported as due on the taxpayer's return the excess shall be refunded to the taxpayer in the manner provided by section 290.50 (except that no demand therefor shall be necessary), if he has already paid the whole of such tax, or credited against any unpaid installment thereof; provided, that no refundment shall be made except as provided in section 290.50.

If the commissioner examines returns of a taxpayer for more than one year, he may issue one order covering the several years under consideration reflecting the aggregate refund or additional tax due.

The notices and demands provided for by sections 290.46 to 290.48 shall be in such form as the commissioner may determine (including a statement) and shall contain a brief explanation of the computation of the tax and shall be sent by mail to the taxpayer at the address given in his return, or to his last known address.

In cases where there has been an overpayment of a self-assessed liability as shown on the return filed by the taxpayer, the commissioner may refund such overpayment to the taxpayer and no demand therefor shall be necessary; further, written findings by the commissioner, notice by mail to the taxpayer and certificate for refundment by the commissioner shall not be necessary and the provisions of section 270.10, in such case, shall not be applicable.

In the case of an individual, estate or trust, the commissioner may audit and adjust the taxpayer's computation of federal adjusted gross income (or federal taxable income for estates or trusts) to make it properly conform with the provisions of section 290.01, subdivision 20. In the case of an individual, the commissioner may audit and adjust the taxpayer's computation of itemized deductions to make them properly conform with the provisions of section 16.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.92, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [COLLECTION AT SOURCE.] (1) [DEDUCTIONS.] Every employer making payment of wages shall deduct and withhold upon such wages a tax as provided in this section.

(2) [WITHHOLDING ON PAYROLL PERIOD.] The employer shall withhold the tax on the basis of each payroll period or as otherwise provided in this section.

(3) [WITHHOLDING TABLES.] Unless the amount of tax to be withheld is determined as provided in subdivision 3, the amount of tax to be withheld for each individual shall be based upon tables to be prepared and distributed by the commissioner. The tables shall be computed for the several permissible withholding periods and shall take account of exemptions allowed under this section; and the amounts computed for withholding shall be such that the amount withheld for any individual during his taxable year shall approximate in the aggregate as closely as possible the tax which is levied and imposed under this chapter for that taxable year, upon his salary, wages, or compensation for personal services of any kind for the employer, and shall take into consideration the allowable deduction for federal income tax and the deduction allowable under section ~~290.09~~ 16, subdivision ~~4~~ 3, and the personal credits allowed against the tax.

(4) [MISCELLANEOUS PAYROLL PERIOD.] If wages are paid with respect to a period which is not a payroll period, the amount to be deducted and withheld shall be that applicable in the case of a miscellaneous payroll period containing a number of days, including Sundays and holidays, equal to the number of days in the period with respect to which such wages are paid.

(5) [MISCELLANEOUS PAYROLL PERIOD.] (a) In any case in which wages are paid by an employer without regard to any payroll period or other period, the amount to be deducted and withheld shall be that applicable in the case of a miscellaneous payroll period containing a number of days equal to the number of days, including Sundays and holidays, which have elapsed since the date of the last payment of such wages by such employer during the calendar year, or the date of commencement of employment with such employer during such year, or January 1 of such year, whichever is the later.

(b) In any case in which the period, or the time described in clause (a), in respect of any wages is less than one week, the commissioner, under regulations prescribed by him, may authorize an employer to determine the amount to be deducted and withheld under the tables applicable in the case of a weekly payroll period, in which case the aggregate of the wages paid to the employee during the calendar week shall be considered the weekly wages.

(6) [WAGES COMPUTED TO NEAREST DOLLAR.] If the wages exceed the highest bracket, in determining the amount to be deducted and withheld under this subdivision, the wages may, at the election of the employer, be computed to the nearest dollar.

(7) [REGULATIONS ON WITHHOLDING.] The commissioner may, by regulations, authorize employers:

(a) To estimate the wages which will be paid to any employee in any quarter of the calendar year;

(b) To determine the amount to be deducted and withheld upon each payment of wages to such employee during such quarter as if the appropriate average of the wages so estimated constituted the actual wages paid; and

(c) To deduct and withhold upon any payment of wages to such employee during such quarter such amount as may be necessary to adjust the amount actually deducted and withheld upon wages of such employee during such quarter to the amount required to be deducted and withheld during such quarter without regard to this paragraph (7).

(8) [ADDITIONAL WITHHOLDING.] The commissioner is authorized to provide by rule for increases or decreases in the amount of withholding otherwise required under this section in cases where the employee requests the changes. Such additional withholding shall for all purposes be considered tax required to be deducted and withheld under this section.

(9) [TIPS.] In the case of tips which constitute wages, this subdivision shall be applicable only to such tips as are included in a written statement furnished to the employer pursuant to section 6053 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, and only to the extent that the tax can be deducted and withheld by the employer, at or after the time such statement is so furnished and before the close of the calendar year in which such statement is furnished, from such wages of the employee (excluding tips, but including funds turned over by the employee to the employer for the purpose of such deduction and withholding) as are under the control of the employer; and an employer who is furnished by an employee a written statement of tips (received in a calendar month) pursuant to section 6053 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended through December 31, 1981 to which subdivision 1 is applicable may deduct and withhold the tax with respect to such tips from any wages of the employee (excluding tips) under his control, even though at the time such statement is furnished the total amount of the tips included in statements furnished to the employer as having been received by the employee in such calendar month in the course of his employment by such employer is less than $20. Such tax shall not at any time be deducted and withheld in an amount which exceeds the aggregate of such wages and funds as are under the control of the employer minus any tax required by other provisions of state or federal law to be collected from such wages and funds.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.92, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 26. Any holder of a class A, B, or D license issued by the Minnesota horse racing commission, who makes a payment or payments for winnings on a pari-mutuel betting ticket or tickets in an amount of $200 or more to the same individual, shall deduct from the payment or payments and withhold 11 percent of the amount as Minnesota withholding tax. For purposes of this subdivision, winnings from a pari-mutuel betting ticket must be determined by reducing the amount received by the amount paid for the ticket, and payments for winning on a pari-mutuel betting ticket which are not money must be taken into account at their fair market value. For purposes of the provisions of this section, a payment to any person of winnings which are subject to withholding must be treated as if the payment was a wage paid by an employer to an employee. Every individual who is to receive a payment of winnings which are subject to withholding shall furnish the license holder with a statement, made under the penalties of perjury, containing the name, address, and social security account number of the person receiving the payment and of each person entitled to any portion of such payment. The license holder is liable for the payment of the tax required to be withheld under this subdivision and subdivision 27 but is not liable to any person for the amount of the payment.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.92, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 27. Any holder of a class A or B license issued by the Minnesota horse racing commission who makes a payment to a holder of a class C license issued by the commission, or who pays an amount as a purse, shall deduct from the payment and withhold seven percent of the amount as Minnesota withholding tax when the amount paid to that individual during the calendar year exceeds $200. For purposes of the provisions of this section, a payment to any person which is subject to withholding under this subdivision must be treated as if the payment was a wage paid by an employer to an employee. Every individual who is to receive a payment which is subject to withholding under this subdivision shall furnish the license holder with a statement, made under the penalties of perjury, containing the name, address, and social security account number of the person receiving the payment. No withholding is required if the individual presents a signed certificate from his employer which states that the individual is an employee of that employer. A nonresident individual who holds a class C license must be treated as an athlete for purposes of applying the provisions of sections 290.17, subdivision 2(1)(b)(ii) and 290.92, subdivision 4a.

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] Except as provided in subdivisions 6 ~~and~~, 7, 8, ~~and~~ 9 or section 273.17, subdivision 1, all property shall be valued at its market value. The market value as determined pursuant to this section shall be stated such that any amount under $100 is rounded up to $100 and any amount exceeding $100 shall be rounded to the nearest $100. In estimating and determining such value, the assessor shall not adopt a lower or different standard of value because the same is to serve as a basis of taxation, nor shall he adopt as a criterion of value the price for which such property would sell ~~at auction or~~ at a forced sale, or in the aggregate with all the property in the town or district; but he shall value each article or description of property by itself, and at such sum or price as he believes the same to be fairly worth in money. In assessing any tract or lot of real property, the value of the land, exclusive of structures and improvements, shall be determined, and also the value of all structures and improvements thereon, and the aggregate value of the property, including all structures and improvements, excluding the value of crops growing upon cultivated land. In valuing real property upon which there is a mine or quarry, it shall be valued at such price as such property, including the mine or quarry, would sell for a fair, voluntary sale, for cash. In valuing real property which is vacant, the fact that such property is platted shall not be taken into account. An individual lot of such platted property shall not be assessed in excess of the assessment of the land as if it were unplatted until the lot is improved with a permanent improvement all or a portion of which is located upon the lot, or for a period of three years after final approval of said plat whichever is shorter. When a lot is sold or construction begun, the assessed value of that lot or any single contiguous lot fronting on the same street shall be eligible for reassessment. All property, or the use thereof, which is taxable under sections 272.01, subdivision 2, or 273.19, shall be valued at the market value of such property and not at the value of a leasehold estate in such property, or at some lesser value than its market value.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 273.11, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [LIMITED EQUITY COOPERATIVE APARTMENTS.] For the purposes of this subdivision, the terms defined in this subdivision have the meanings given them.

A "limited equity cooperative" is a corporation organized under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 308, which has as its primary purpose the provision of housing and related services to its members, who must be persons or families of low and moderate income as defined in section 462A.03, subdivision 10, at the time they purchase their membership, and which meets the following requirements:

(a) The articles of incorporation set the sale price of occupancy entitling cooperative shares or memberships at no more than a transfer value determined as provided in the articles. That value may not exceed the sum of the following:

(1) the consideration paid for the membership or shares by the first occupant of the unit, as shown in the records of the corporation;

(2) the fair market value, as shown in the records of the corporation, of any improvements to the real property that were installed at the sole expense of the member with the prior approval of the board of directors;

(3) accumulated interest, or an inflation allowance not to exceed the greater of a ten percent annual noncompounded increase on the consideration paid for the membership or share by the first occupant of the unit, or the amount that would have been paid on that consideration if interest had been paid on it at the rate of the percentage increase in the revised consumer price index for all urban consumers for the Minneapolis-St. Paul metropolitan area prepared by the United States Department of Labor, provided that the amount determined pursuant to this clause may not exceed $500 for each year or fraction of a year the membership or share was owned; plus

(4) real property capital contributions shown in the records of the corporation to have been paid by the transferor member and previous holders of the same membership, or of separate memberships that had entitled occupancy to the unit of the member involved. These contributions include contributions to a corporate reserve account the use of which is restricted to real property improvements or acquisitions, contributions to the corporation which are used for real property improvements or acquisitions, and the amount of principal amortized by the corporation on its indebtedness due to the financing of real property acquisition or improvement or the averaging of principal paid by the corporation over the term of its real property related indebtedness.

(b) The articles of incorporation require that the board of directors limit the purchase price of stock or membership interests for new member-occupants or resident shareholders to an amount which does not exceed the transfer value for the membership or stock as defined in clause (a).

(c) The articles of incorporation require that the total distribution out of capital to a member shall not exceed that transfer value.

(d) The articles of incorporation require that upon liquidation of the corporation any assets remaining after retirement of corporate debts and distribution to members will be conveyed to a charitable organization described in section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1982, or a public agency.

A "limited equity cooperative apartment" is a dwelling unit owned or leased by a limited equity cooperative. If the dwelling unit is leased by the cooperative the lease agreement must meet the conditions for a cooperative lease stated in Minnesota Statutes, section 273.133, subdivision 3.

"Occupancy entitling cooperative share or membership" is the ownership interest in a cooperative organization which entitles the holder to an exclusive right to occupy a dwelling unit owned or leased by the cooperative.

For purposes of taxation, the assessor shall value a unit owned by a limited equity cooperative at the lesser of its market value or the value determined by capitalizing the net operating income of a comparable apartment operated on a rental basis at the capitalization rate used in valuing comparable buildings that are not limited equity cooperatives. If a cooperative fails to operate in accordance with the provisions of clauses (a) to (d), the property shall be subject to additional property taxes in the amount of the difference between the taxes determined in accordance with this subdivision for the last ten years that the property had been assessed pursuant to this subdivision and the amount that would have been paid if the provisions of this subdivision had not applied to it. The additional taxes, plus interest at the rate specified in section 549.09, shall be extended against the property on the tax list for the current year.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 273.11, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [CONDOMINIUM PROPERTY.] Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, for purposes of property taxation, condominium property shall be valued in accordance with this subdivision.

(a) A structure or building that is initially constructed as condominiums shall be identified as separate units after the filing of a declaration. The market value of the residential units in that structure or building and included in the declaration shall be valued as condominiums.

(b) When 60 percent or more of the residential units in a structure or building being converted to condominiums have been sold as condominiums including those units that the converters retain for their own investment, the market value of the remaining residential units in that structure or building which are included in the declaration shall be valued as condominiums. If not all of the residential units in the structure or building are included in the declaration, the 60 percent factor shall apply to those in the declaration. A separate description shall be recognized when a declaration is filed. For purposes of this clause, "retain" shall mean units that are rented and completed units that are not available for sale.

(c) For purposes of this subdivision, a "sale" is defined as the date when the first written document for the purchase or conveyance of the property is signed, unless that document is revoked.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 273.115, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The county auditor shall annually reduce the tax liability of each owner of wetlands exempt from property taxation pursuant to section 272.02, subdivision 1, clause (15), by an amount equal to ~~three-fourths~~ one-half of one percent of the average level of estimated market value of an acre of tillable land in the township, city or unorganized territory in which the qualifying wetland is located, multiplied by the number of acres of wetlands he owns. Any excess of credit over tax liability shall not be paid to the property owner but shall be applied to the tax liability of the owner of the wetlands for any parcel he owns which is contiguous to the parcel containing the wetlands.

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 275.50, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [GOVERNMENTAL SUBDIVISION.] “Governmental subdivision” means a county, home rule charter city, or statutory city, ~~town or special taxing district determined by the department of revenue,~~ except a town home rule charter or statutory city that has a population of less than 5,000 according to the most recent federal census, ~~provided that the population of an incorporated municipality located within the boundaries of a town is not included in the population of the town. The term does not include school districts or the metropolitan transit commission created pursuant to section 473.404.~~

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 275.50, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary for taxes levied in ~~1982 1983~~ payable in ~~1983 1984~~ and subsequent years, “special levies” means those portions of ad valorem taxes levied by governmental subdivisions to:

(a) satisfy judgments rendered against the governmental subdivision by a court of competent jurisdiction in any tort action, or to pay the costs of settlements out of court against the governmental subdivision in a tort action

when substantiated by a stipulation for the dismissal of the action filed with the court of competent jurisdiction and signed by both the plaintiff and the legal representative of the governmental subdivision, but only to the extent of the increase in levy for such judgments and out of court settlements over levy year 1970, taxes payable in 1971;

(b) pay the costs of complying with any written lawful order initially issued prior to January 1, 1977 by the state of Minnesota, or the United States, or any agency or subdivision thereof, which is authorized by law, statute, special act or ordinance and is enforceable in a court of competent jurisdiction, or any stipulation agreement or permit for treatment works or disposal system for pollution abatement in lieu of a lawful order signed by the governmental subdivision and the state of Minnesota, or the United States, or any agency or subdivision thereof which is enforceable in a court of competent jurisdiction. The commissioner of revenue shall in consultation with other state departments and agencies, develop a suggested form for use by the state of Minnesota, its agencies and subdivisions in issuing orders pursuant to this subdivision;

(c) pay the costs to a governmental subdivision for their minimum required share of any program otherwise authorized by law for which matching funds have been appropriated by the state of Minnesota or the United States, excluding the administrative costs of public assistance programs, to the extent of the increase in levy for the taxes payable year 1983 and subsequent years over the amount levied for the local share of the program for the taxes payable year 1971. This clause shall apply only to those programs or projects for which matching funds have been designated by the state of Minnesota or the United States on or before September 1, of the previous year and only when the receipt of these matching funds is contingent upon the initiation or implementation of the project or program during the year in which the taxes are payable or those programs or projects approved by the commissioner;

(d) pay the costs not reimbursed by the state or federal government, of payments made to or on behalf of recipients of aid under any public assistance program authorized by law, and the costs of purchase or delivery of social services. Except for the costs of general assistance as defined in section 256D.02, subdivision 4, general assistance medical care under section 256D.03 and the costs of hospital care pursuant to section 261.21, the aggregate amounts levied pursuant to this clause are subject to a maximum increase of 18 percent over the amount levied for these purposes in the previous year;

(e) pay the costs of principal and interest on bonded indebtedness, or ~~effective for taxes levied in 1973 and years thereafter~~, to reimburse for the amount of liquor store revenues used to pay the principal and interest due in the year preceding the year for which the levy limit is calculated on municipal liquor store bonds;

(f) pay the costs of principal and interest on certificates of indebtedness, except tax anticipation or aid anticipation certificates of indebtedness, issued for any corporate purpose except current expenses or funding an insufficiency in receipts from taxes or other sources or funding extraordinary expenditures resulting from a public emergency;

(g) fund the payments made to the Minnesota state armory building commission pursuant to section 193.145, subdivision 2, to retire the principal and interest on armory construction bonds;

(h) provide for the bonded indebtedness portion of payments made to another political subdivision of the state of Minnesota;

(i) pay the amounts required to compensate for a decrease in manufactured homes property tax receipts to the extent that the governmental subdivision's portion of the total levy in the current levy year, pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 3, as amended, is less than the distribution of the manufactured homes tax to the governmental subdivision pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 3, in calendar year 1971;

(j) pay the amounts required, in accordance with section 275.075, to correct for a county auditor's error of omission in ~~levy year 1971 or a subsequent levy year~~, but only to the extent that when added to the preceding year's levy it is not in excess of an applicable statutory, special law or charter limitation, or the limitation imposed on the governmental subdivision by sections 275.50 to 275.56 in the preceding levy year;

(k) pay amounts required to correct for an error of omission in the levy certified to the appropriate county auditor or auditors by the governing body of a city or town with statutory city powers in a levy year, but only to the extent that when added to the preceding year's levy it is not in excess of an applicable statutory, special law or charter limitation, or the limitation imposed on the governmental subdivision by sections 275.50 to 275.56 in the preceding levy year;

(l) pay the increased cost of municipal services as the result of an annexation or consolidation ordered by the Minnesota municipal board in ~~levy year 1971 or a subsequent levy year~~, but only to the extent and for the levy years as provided by the board in its order pursuant to section 414.01, subdivision 15. Special levies authorized by the board shall not exceed 50 percent of the levy limit base of the governmental subdivision and may not be in effect for more than three years after the board's order;

(m) pay the increased costs of municipal services provided to new private industrial and nonresidential commercial development, to the extent that the extension of such services are not paid for through bonded indebtedness or special assessments, and not to exceed the amount determined as follows. The governmental subdivision may calculate the aggregate of:

(1) The increased expenditures necessary in preparation for the delivering of municipal services to new private industrial and nonresidential commercial development, but limited to one year's expenditures one time for each such development;

(2) The amount determined by dividing the overall levy limitation established pursuant to sections 275.50 to 275.56, and exclusive of special levies and special assessments, by the total taxable value of the governmental subdivision, and then multiplying this quotient times the total increase in assessed value of private industrial and nonresidential commercial development within the governmental subdivision. For the purpose of this clause, the increase in the assessed value of private industrial and nonresidential commercial development is calculated as the increase in assessed value over the assessed value of the real estate parcels subject to such private development as most recently determined before the building permit was issued. In the fourth levy year subsequent to the levy year in which the building permit was issued, the increase in assessed value of the real estate parcels subject to such private development shall no longer be included in determining the special levy.

The aggregate of the foregoing amounts, less any costs of extending municipal services to new private industrial and nonresidential commercial development which are paid by bonded indebtedness or special assessments, equals the maximum amount that may be levied as a "special levy" for the increased costs of municipal services provided to new private industrial and nonresidential commercial development. In the levy year following the levy year in which the special levy made pursuant to this clause is discontinued, one-half of the amount of that special levy made in the preceding year shall be added to the permanent levy base of the governmental subdivision;

(o) pay amounts required by law to be paid to pay the interest on and to reduce the unfunded accrued liability of public pension funds in accordance with the actuarial standards and guidelines specified in sections 356.215 and 356.216 reduced for levy year 1977 and subsequent years by 106 percent of the amount levied for that purpose in 1976, payable in 1977. For the purpose of this special levy, the estimated receipts expected from the state of Minnesota pursuant to sections 69.011 to 69.031 or any other state aid expressly intended for the support of public pension funds shall be considered as a deduction in determining the required levy for the normal costs of the public pension funds. No amount of these aids shall be considered as a deduction in determining the governmental subdivision's required levy for the reduction of the unfunded accrued liability of public pension funds;

(p) the amounts allowed under section 174.27 to establish and administer a commuter van program;

(q) pay the costs of financial assistance to local governmental units and certain administrative, engineering, and legal expenses pursuant to Laws 1979, Chapter 253, Section 3;

(r) compensate for revenue lost as a result of abatements or court action pursuant to sections 270.07, 270.17 or 278.01 due to a reassessment ordered by the commissioner of revenue pursuant to section 270.16;

(s) pay the costs of implementing section 18.023, including sanitation and reforestation; and

(t) pay the estimated cost for the following calendar year of the county's share of funding the Minnesota cooperative soil survey.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 275.50, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [IMPLICIT PRICE DEFLATOR.] "Implicit price deflator" means the implicit price deflator for government purchases of goods and services for state and local government prepared by the bureau of economic analysis of the United States Department of Commerce for the 12-month period ending in June of the levy year.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 275.51, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3f. [LEVY LIMIT BASE.] (a) The property tax levy limit base for governmental subdivisions for taxes levied in 1983 shall be calculated by adding the following amounts:

(1) the property tax permitted to be levied in 1982 for taxes payable in 1983 pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 275.51, subdivision 3e; plus

(2) the amount of any payments the governmental subdivision was certified to receive in 1983 pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 477A.011 to 477A.03; plus

(3) the amount of any payments certified to the governmental subdivision in 1983 pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 298.28 and 298.282; plus

(4) the difference between the amount certified to the governmental subdivision in 1983 and the amount certified in 1984 pursuant to section 273.138; plus

(5) any amount levied as a special assessment to cover the costs of municipal operation and maintenance activities for the taxes payable year 1983; and

(6) the amount of any base adjustment authorized by the commissioner of revenue pursuant to subdivision 3g.

(b) For taxes levied in 1984 and subsequent years, a governmental subdivision's levy limit base is equal to its adjusted levy limit base for the preceding year provided that, for taxes levied in 1984, the levy limit base of a county containing a city of the first class shall be increased by the amount paid to the county under section 273.138 in 1984 less the amount that will be paid to it under section 273.138 in 1985.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 275.51, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3g. [BASE ADJUSTMENTS.] Any governmental subdivision which reduced any of its unreserved, undesignated fund balances because of spending for nonspecial levy purposes in calendar year 1981 may apply to the commissioner of revenue to have its levy limit base increased for the taxes payable year 1984 by no more than the amount of the reduction in the fund balances.

Applications shall be in the form and accompanied by the data required by the commissioner. If approved by the commissioner, the subdivision may then pass a resolution stating the amount by which the levy limit base is proposed to be increased. Thereafter, the resolution shall be published for two successive weeks in the official newspaper of the governmental subdivision or if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the governmental subdivision, together with a notice fixing a date for a public hearing on the proposed increase. The hearing shall be held not less than two weeks nor more than four weeks after the first publication of the resolution. Following the public hearing, the governing body may determine to take no further action or, in the alternative, adopt a resolution authorizing the increase as originally proposed or approving an increase in the lesser amount it determines. The resolution authorizing an increase shall be published in the official newspaper of the governmental subdivision or if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the governmental subdivision. If within 30 days thereafter a petition signed by voters equal in number to five percent of the votes cast in the governmental subdivision in the last general election or 2,000 voters, whichever is less, requesting a referendum on the proposed resolution is filed with the clerk or recorder of the governmental subdivision if the governmental subdivision is a city or town, or with the county auditor if the governmental subdivision is a county, the resolution shall not be effective until it has been submitted to the voters at a general or special election and a majority of votes cast on the question of approving the resolution are in the affirmative. The commissioner of revenue shall prepare a suggested form of question to be presented at the referendum. The referendum must be held at a special or general election prior to October 1, 1983.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 275.51, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3h. [ADJUSTED LEVY LIMIT BASE.] For taxes levied in 1983 and thereafter, the adjusted levy limit base is equal to the levy limit base computed pursuant to subdivision 3f, increased by:

(a) a percentage equal to the percentage growth in the implicit price deflator, or five percent, whichever is greater;

(b) a percentage equal to the greater of the percentage increases in population or in number of households, if any, for the most recent 12-month period for which data is available, using figures derived pursuant to section 275.51, subdivision 6;

(c) one-half of the amount levied as a special levy in the previous year for paying the costs of municipal services provided to new private industrial and nonresidential commercial development pursuant to section 275.50, subdivision 5, clause (m), if the special levy is discontinued; and

(d) the amount of any permanent increase in the levy limit base approved at a general or special election held during the twelve month period ending September 30 of the levy year, pursuant to section 275.58, subdivisions 1 and 2.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 275.51, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3i. [LEVY LIMITATION.] The levy limitation for a governmental subdivision shall be equal to the adjusted levy limit base determined pursuant to subdivision 3h, reduced by (a) the total amount of local government aid that the governmental subdivision has been certified to receive pursuant to sections 477A.011 to 477A.014; (b) taconite taxes and aids pursuant to sections 298.28 and 298.282; (c) state reimbursements for wetlands and native prairie property tax exemptions pursuant to sections 273.115, subdivision 3 and 273.116, subdivision 3; and (d) payments in lieu of taxes to a county pursuant to section 477A.12 which are required to be used to provide property tax levy reduction certified to be paid in the calendar year in which property taxes are payable.

As provided in section 298.28, subdivision 1, one cent per taxable ton of the amount distributed under section 298.28, subdivision 1, clause (4)(c) shall not be deducted from the levy limit base of the counties that receive that aid. The resulting figure is the amount of property taxes which a governmental subdivision may levy for all purposes other than those for which special levies and special assessments are made.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 275.51, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [POPULATION AND HOUSEHOLD ESTIMATES.] For the purpose of determining the amount of tax that a governmental subdivision may levy in accordance with limitation established by this chapter, the population or the number of households of the governmental subdivision shall be that established by the last federal census, by a census taken pursuant to section 275.14, or by an estimate made by the metropolitan council, or by the state demographer made pursuant to section 116J.42, subdivision 7, whichever is the most recent as to the stated date of count or estimate, up to and including July 1 of the current levy year.

Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 275.09, subdivision 3; 275.50, subdivision 6; and 275.51, subdivisions 3e and 5, are repealed.

Sec. 10. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 9 are effective for taxes levied in 1983, payable in 1984 and thereafter.

ARTICLE 4

PROPERTY TAX REFUND

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290A.03, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [HOMESTEAD.] "Homestead" means the dwelling occupied by a claimant as a place of his principal residence and so much of the land surrounding it, not exceeding ten acres, as is reasonably necessary for use of the dwelling as a home and any other property used for purposes of a homestead as defined in section 273.13, subdivision 7, except that this restriction shall not be applicable to for agricultural land assessed as part of a homestead pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 6, "homestead" is limited to 320 acres. The homestead may be owned or rented and may be a part of a multi-dwelling or multi-purpose building and the land on which it is built. A manufactured home, as defined in section 168.011, subdivision 8, assessed as personal property may be a dwelling for purposes of this subdivision.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290A.03, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [CLAIMANT.] (a) "Claimant" means a person, other than a dependent, who filed a claim authorized by sections 290A.01 to 290A.20 and who was domiciled in this state during the calendar year for which the claim for relief was filed.

(b) In the case of a claim relating to rent constituting property taxes, the claimant shall have resided in a rented or leased unit on which ad valorem taxes or payments made in lieu of ad valorem taxes, including payments of special assessments imposed in lieu of ad valorem taxes, are payable at some time during the calendar year covered by the claim.

(c) "Claimant" shall not include a resident of a nursing home, intermediate care facility, or long term residential facility whose rent constituting property taxes is paid pursuant to the supplemental security income program under Title XVI of the social security act, the Minnesota supplemental aid program under sections 256D.35 to 256D.41, the medical assistance program pursuant to Title XIX of the social security act, or the general assistance medical care program pursuant to section 256D.03, Subdivision 3. If only a portion of the rent constituting property taxes is paid by these programs, the resident shall be a claimant for purposes of this chapter, but the refund calculated pursuant to section 290A.04 shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is income as defined in subdivision 3 reduced by the total amount of income from the above sources other than vendor payments under the medical assistance program or the general assistance medical care program and the denominator of which is income as defined in subdivision 3 plus vendor payments under the medical assistance program or the general assistance medical care program, to determine the allowable refund pursuant to this chapter.

(d) Notwithstanding paragraph (c), if the claimant was a resident of the nursing home, intermediate care facility or long term residential facility for only a portion of the calendar year covered by the claim, the claimant may compute rent constituting property taxes by disregarding the rent constituting property taxes from the nursing home, intermediate care facility, or long term residential facility and use only that amount of rent constituting property taxes or property taxes payable relating to that portion of the year when the claimant was not in the facility. The claimant's household income is his income for the entire calendar year covered by the claim.

(e) In the case of a claim for rent constituting property taxes of a part year Minnesota resident, the income and rental reflected in this computation shall be for the period of Minnesota residency only. Any rental expenses paid which may be reflected in arriving at federal adjusted gross income cannot be utilized for this computation. When two individuals of a household are able to meet the qualifications for a claimant, they may determine among them as to who the claimant shall be. If they are unable to agree, the matter shall be referred to the commissioner of revenue and his decision shall be final. If a homestead property owner was a part year Minnesota resident, the income reflected in the computation made pursuant to section 290A.04 shall be for the entire calendar year, including income not assignable to Minnesota.

(f) If a homestead is occupied by two or more renters, who are not husband and wife, the rent shall be deemed to be paid equally by each, and separate claims shall be filed by each. The income of each shall be his household income for purposes of computing the amount of credit to be allowed.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290A.03, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [RENT CONSTITUTING PROPERTY TAXES.] "Rent constituting property taxes" means ~~23 percent~~ of the amount of gross rent actually paid in cash, or its equivalent, which is attributable (a) to the property tax paid on the unit or that portion of gross rent which is (b) to the amount paid in lieu of property taxes, in any calendar year by a claimant solely for the right of occupancy of his Minnesota homestead in the calendar year, and which rent constitutes the basis, in the succeeding calendar year of a claim for relief under sections 290A.01 to 290A.20 by the claimant. The amount of rent attributable to property taxes paid or payments in lieu made on the unit shall be determined by multiplying the net tax on the property where the unit is located by a fraction, the numerator of which is the gross rent paid by the claimant for the calendar year for the unit and the denominator of which is the gross rent paid for the calendar year for the property in which the unit is located. In the case of a claimant who resides in a unit for which a rent subsidy is paid pursuant to section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937, as amended, or under another state or federal program providing rent supplements or reduced rent for low and moderate income families, 20 percent of gross rent actually paid in cash or its equivalent shall be the claimant's "rent constituting property taxes paid."

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290A.03, subdivision 13, as amended by Laws 1983, chapter 15, section 28, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [PROPERTY TAXES PAYABLE.] "Property taxes payable" means the property tax exclusive of special assessments, penalties, and interest payable on a claimant's homestead before reductions made pursuant to section 273.13, subdivisions 6, 7 and 14a, but after deductions made pursuant to sections 124.2137, 273.115, 273.116, 273.135, 273.139, 273.1391, 273.42, subdivision 2, and any other state paid property tax credits in any calendar year. In the case of a claimant who makes ground lease payments, "property taxes payable" includes the amount of the payments directly attributable to the property taxes assessed against the parcel on which the house is located. No apportionment or reduction of the "property taxes payable" shall be required for the use of a portion of the claimant's homestead for a business purpose if the claimant does not deduct any business depreciation expenses for the use of a portion of the homestead in the determination of federal adjusted gross income. For homesteads which are manufactured homes as defined in section 168.011, subdivision 8, "property taxes payable" shall also include ~~23 percent~~ the amount of the gross rent paid in the preceding year for the site on which the homestead is located, exclusive of charges for utilities or services which is attributable to the net tax paid on the site. The amount attributable to property taxes shall be determined by multiplying the net tax on the parcel by a fraction, the numerator of which is the gross rent paid for the calendar year for the site and the denominator of which is the gross rent paid for the calendar year for the parcel. When a homestead is owned by two or more persons as joint tenants or tenants in common, such tenants shall determine between them which tenant may claim the property taxes payable on the homestead. If they are unable to agree, the matter shall be referred to the commissioner of revenue and his decision shall be final. Property taxes are considered payable in the year prescribed by law for payment of the taxes.

In the case of a claim relating to "property taxes payable", the claimant must have owned and occupied the homestead on January 2 of the year in which the tax is payable and (i) the property must have been classified as homestead property pursuant to section 273.13, subdivisions 6, 7, or 14a on or before June 1 of the year in which the "property taxes payable" were levied; or (ii) the claimant must provide documentation from the local assessor that application for homestead classification has been made prior to July 1 October 1 of the year in which the "property taxes payable" were payable and that the assessor has approved the application.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290A.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 14. [NET TAX.] "Net tax" means

(a) the property tax, exclusive of special assessments, interest, and penalties, or

(b) the payments made in lieu of ad valorem taxes, including payments of special assessments imposed in lieu of ad valorem taxes, for the calendar year in which the rent was paid. If a portion of the property is occupied as a homestead or is used for other than rental purposes, the net tax shall be the amount of tax after reductions pursuant to section 273.13, subdivisions 6, 7, and 14a, reduced by the percentage that the nonrental use comprises of the total square footage of the building. If a portion of the property is used for purposes other than for residential rental and none of the property is occupied as a homestead, the net tax shall be the amount of the tax of the parcel multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the assessed value of the residential rental portion and the denominator of which is the total assessed value of the parcel. If a portion of the property is used for other than rental residential purposes, the county treasurer shall list on the property tax statement the amount of net tax pertaining to the rental residential portion of the property.

The amount of the net tax shall not be reduced by an abatement or a court ordered reduction in the property tax on the property made after the certificate of rent constituting property tax has been provided to the renter.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290A.04, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. A credit shall be allowed each claimant in the amount that property taxes payable or rent constituting property taxes exceed the percentage of the household income of the claimant specified in subdivision 2 in the year for which the taxes were levied or in the year in which the rent was paid. ~~The maximum credit for any claimant who was disabled on or before June 1 or who attained the age of 65 prior to June 1 of the year following the year for which the taxes were levied or in which the rent was paid shall be $200 above the maximum for which that claimant would otherwise be eligible according to his income. If the amount of property taxes payable or rent constituting property taxes is equal to or less than the percentage of the household income of the claimant specified in subdivision 2 in the year for which~~ the taxes were levied or in the year in which the rent was paid, the claimant shall not be eligible for a state refund pursuant to this section.

Subd. 2a. An additional refund shall be allowed each claimant who was not disabled or who had not attained the age of 65 by June 1 of the year in which the taxes were payable in an amount equal to 50 percent of the amount by which property taxes payable or rent constituting property taxes exceed the sum of (a) the refund calculated pursuant to subdivision 2 and (b) the percentage of the claimant's household income specified in subdivision 2. The sum of the refunds provided in subdivision 2 and this subdivision shall not exceed the maximum amounts provided below.

For claimants earning:

No credit or payment will be allowed pursuant to subdivision 2 or 2b if the claimant's household income is $40,000 or more.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290A.04, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2e. If the net property taxes payable on a homestead increase more than 20 percent over the net property taxes payable in the previous year on the same property, a claimant who is a homeowner shall be allowed an additional refund equal to 50 percent of the amount by which the increase exceeds 20 percent. This subdivision shall not apply to any increase in the net property taxes payable attributable to improvements made to the homestead. The refund shall not exceed $200. The maximum refund shall be reduced by $20 for each $1,000 of the claimant's household income in excess of $30,000. No refund shall be allowed if the claimant's household income exceeds $40,000.

For purposes of this subdivision, "net property taxes payable" means property taxes payable after reductions made pursuant to sections 124.2137; 273.13, subdivisions 6, 7, and 14a; 273.115, subdivision 1; 273.116, subdivision 1; 273.135; 273.1391; and 273.42, subdivision 2, and any other state paid property tax credits and after the deduction of tax refund amounts for which the claimant qualifies pursuant to subdivisions 2, 2a and 2b.

In addition to the other proofs required by this chapter, each claimant under this subdivision shall file with the property tax refund return a copy of the property tax statement for taxes payable in the preceding year or other documents required by the commissioner.

On or before December 1, 1983, the commissioner shall estimate the cost of making the payments provided by this section. Notwithstanding the open appropriation provision of section 290A.23, if the estimated total refund claims exceed $11,000,000, the commissioner shall adjust accordingly the percentage increase in net property taxes payable over the previous year which is required to qualify for the credit provided in this subdivision.

This subdivision is repealed effective for property taxes levied in 1984, payable in 1985.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290A.04, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2f. If the net property taxes payable in 1984 on a homestead increases more than ten percent over the net property taxes payable in 1983 on the same property, and if the effective tax rate of property tax paid in 1983 on that homestead as compared to the January 2, 1982, estimated market value exceeds 2.25 percent, an additional credit shall be paid by the commissioner to the claimant. The additional credit shall be equal to 50 percent of the amount by which the increase exceeds ten percent but in no case shall the additional credit exceed $200. This subdivision shall not apply to any increase in the net property taxes payable attributable to improvements made to the homestead.

For purposes of this subdivision, "effective tax rate" means the net property tax paid by the claimant in 1983, divided by the assessor's 1982 estimated market value times 100.

For purposes of this subdivision, "net property taxes" means the gross tax less the homestead credit and any other state paid credit and after the deduction of tax refund amounts for which the claimant qualifies.

The city assessor, or the county assessor if the property is located in a taxing district which does not have a city assessor, shall notify all affected property owners of the availability of this credit and furnish the forms which the commissioner shall prescribe.

The additional refunds shall be paid at the same time as the commissioner pays other property tax refund claims.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290A.04, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. The commissioner of revenue shall construct and make available to taxpayers a comprehensive table showing the property taxes to be paid and credit allowed at various levels of income and assessment. The table shall follow the schedule of income percentages, maximums and other provisions specified in subdivisions 2, 2a, and 2b, except that the commissioner may graduate the transition between income brackets.

~~For homestead property owners who are disabled or are 65 or older, as provided in subdivision 4, the commissioner shall base his determination of the credit on the gross qualifying tax reduced by the average statewide effective homestead credit percentage for taxes payable in 1975 calculated under section 273.13, subdivisions 6 and 7.~~

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290A.07, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Any claimant not included in subdivision 2a shall receive full payment after ~~September 30~~ August 31 and prior to ~~October~~ September 15. Interest shall be added at six percent per annum from ~~October~~ September 15 or 60 days after receipt of the application if the application is filed after August 31. Interest will be computed until the date the claim is paid.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290A.18, is amended to read:

If a person entitled to relief under sections 290A.01 to 290A.23 dies prior to receiving relief, the surviving spouse, or dependent or personal representative of the person shall be entitled to file the claim and receive relief. If there is no surviving spouse or dependent, the right to the credit shall lapse.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290A.19, is amended to read:

A copy of the petition shall also be sent to the school board of the school district in which the property is located. A petition for determination under this section may be transferred by the district court to the tax court. An appeal may also be taken to the tax court under chapter 271 at any time following receipt of the valuation notice required by section 273.121 but prior to ~~June~~ + May 16 of the year in which the taxes are payable.

- (2) That there is probable cause to believe that the property may be held exempt from the tax levied or that the tax may be determined to be less than 50 percent of the amount levied; and

- (3) That it would work a hardship upon petitioner to pay the taxes due, the court may permit the petitioner to continue prosecution of the petition without payment, or may fix a lesser amount to be paid as a condition of continuing the prosecution of the petition.

Failure to make payment of the amount required when due shall operate automatically to dismiss the petition and all proceedings thereunder unless the payment is waived by an order of the court permitting the petitioner to continue prosecution of the petition without payment. The county treasurer shall, upon request of the petitioner, issue duplicate receipts for the tax payment, one of which shall be filed by the petitioner in the proceeding.

If, within ten days thereafter, the petitioner, or his attorney, gives notice in writing to the county attorney, or the attorney for the city or town, that the offer is accepted, he may file the offer with proof of notice, and the clerk shall enter judgment accordingly. Otherwise, the offer shall be deemed withdrawn and evidence thereof shall not be given; and, unless a lower valuation than specified in the offer is found by the court, no costs or disbursements shall be allowed to the petitioner, but the costs and disbursements of the state, county, city or town, including interest at six percent on the tax based on the amount of the offer from and after the ~~first 16th day of November~~ October of the year the taxes are payable, shall be taxed in its favor and included in the judgment and when collected shall be credited to the county revenue fund, unless the taxes were paid in full before the ~~first 16th day of November~~ October of the year in which the taxes were payable, in which event interest shall not be taxable.

If the department of energy, planning, and development no longer exists as presently constituted, the commissioner shall consult with the successor to the responsibilities of the planning division of that department in making this determination. In determining whether an area is eligible under section 273.1312, subdivision 4, paragraph (c), if unemployment, employment, income or other necessary data are not available for the area from the federal departments of labor or commerce or the state demographer, the commissioner may rely upon other data submitted by the municipality if he determines it is statistically reliable or accurate. The commissioner, in conjunction with the commissioner of revenue, shall prepare an estimate of the amount of state tax revenue which will be foregone for each application if the area is designated as a zone.

On or before October 1 of each year, the commissioner shall submit to the legislative advisory commission a list of the areas eligible for designation as enterprise zones, along with his recommendations for designation and supporting documentation. In making recommendations for designation, the commissioner shall consider and evaluate the applications pursuant to the following criteria:

(a) the pervasiveness of poverty, unemployment, and general distress in the area;

(b) the extent of chronic abandonment, deterioration or reduction in value of commercial, industrial or residential structures in the area and the extent of property tax arrearages in the area;

(c) the prospects for new investment and economic development in the area with the tax reductions proposed in the application relative to the state and local tax revenue which would be foregone;

(d) the competing needs of other areas of the state;

(e) the municipality's proposed use of other state and federal development funds or programs to increase the probability of new investment and development occurring;

(f) the extent to which the projected development in the zone will provide employment to residents of the economic hardship area, and particularly individuals who are unemployed or who are economically disadvantaged as defined in the federal Job Training Partnership Act of 1982, 96 Statutes at Large 1322;

(g) the funds available pursuant to subdivision 8; and

(h) other relevant factors which he specifies in his recommendations.

The commissioner shall submit a separate list of the areas entitled to designation as enterprise zones under section 273.1312, subdivision 4, paragraph (c), clauses (2) and (3), along with his recommendations for the amount of funds to be allocated to each area.

Subd. 5. [LAC RECOMMENDATIONS.] On or before October 15, the legislative advisory commission shall submit to the commissioner its advisory recommendations regarding the designation of enterprise zones. By October 30 of each year the commissioner shall make the final designation of the areas as enterprise zones, pursuant to section 273.1312, subdivision 2. In making the designation, the commissioner may make modifications in the design of or limitations on the tax reductions contained in the application necessary because of the funding limitations under subdivision 8.

Subd. 6. [LOCAL CONTRIBUTION.] No area may be designated as an enterprise zone unless the municipality agrees to make a qualifying local contribution in the form of (a) a property tax reduction for employment property as provided by section 273.1313 for any business qualifying for a state tax reduction pursuant to this section, or (b) an equivalent local contribution or investment out of other municipal funds, but excluding any special federal grants or loans. If the local contribution is to be used to fund additional reductions in state taxes, the commissioner and the governing body of the municipality shall enter an agreement for timely payment to the state to reimburse the state for the amount of tax revenue foregone as a result.

Subd. 7. [LIMITATIONS; NUMBER OF DESIGNATIONS.] (a) In each of the years 1983 and 1984, the commissioner shall designate at least two but not more than five areas as enterprise zones. No designations shall be made after December 31, 1984.

(b) No more than one area may be designated as an enterprise zone in any county, except that two areas may be designated in a county containing a city of the first class.

(c) No more than one area in a congressional district may be designated as an enterprise zone in any calendar year.

This subdivision shall not apply to enterprise zones designated pursuant to section 273.1312, subdivision 4, paragraph (c), clauses (2) or (3).

Subd. 8. [FUNDING LIMITATIONS.] The maximum amount of the tax reductions which may be authorized pursuant to designations of enterprise zones under section 273.1312 and this section is limited to $32,000,000. The maximum amount of this total which may be authorized by the commissioner for tax reductions pursuant to subdivision 9 that will reduce tax revenues which otherwise would have been received during fiscal years 1984 and 1985 is limited to $8,000,000. Of the total limitation and the 1984-85 biennial limitation the commissioner shall allocate to enterprise zones designated under section 273.1312, subdivision 4, paragraph (c), clause (3), an amount equal to $10,000,000 and $4,000,000 respectively. These funds shall be allocated among such zones on a per capita basis. An amount sufficient to fund the state funded property tax credits authorized pursuant to this section is appropriated to the commissioner of revenue. Upon designation of an enterprise zone the commissioner shall certify the total amount available for tax reductions in the zone for its duration. The amount certified shall reduce the amount available for tax reductions in other enterprise zones. If subsequent estimates indicate or actual experience shows that the approved tax reductions will result in amounts of tax reductions in excess of the amount certified, the commissioner shall implement a plan to reduce the available tax reductions in the zone to an amount within the sum certified. If subsequent estimates indicate or actual experience shows that the approved tax reductions will result in amounts of tax reductions below the amount certified, the difference shall be available for certification in other zones or used in connection with an amended plan of tax reductions for the zone as the commissioner determines appropriate. If the tax reductions authorized result in reduced revenues for a dedicated fund, the commissioner of finance shall transfer equivalent amounts to the dedicated fund from the general fund as necessary.

Subd. 9. [AUTHORIZED FORMS OF STATE TAX REDUCTIONS.] (a) The following types of tax reductions may be approved by the commissioner for businesses located in an enterprise zone:

(1) An exemption from the general sales tax imposed by chapter 297A for purchases of construction materials or equipment for use in the zone;

(2) A credit against the income tax of an employer for workers employed in the zone, other than workers employed in construction, up to a maximum of $3,000 per employee;

(3) An income tax credit for a percentage of the cost of debt financing to construct new facilities in the zone;

(4) A state paid property tax credit for a portion of the property taxes paid by a new commercial or industrial facility or the additional property taxes paid by an expansion of an existing commercial or industrial facility in the zone.

(b) The municipality shall specify in its application for designation the types of tax reductions it seeks to be made available in the zone and the percentage rates and other appropriate limitations on the reductions.

(c) Upon designation of an enterprise zone and approval by the commissioner of the tax reductions to be made available therein, the commissioner of revenue shall take the steps necessary to implement the tax reductions.

(d) The tax reductions provided by this subdivision shall not apply to any facility described in section 103(b)(6)(O) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through January 15, 1983, or to any regulated public utility.

(e) The commissioner shall approve tax reductions authorized by paragraph (a) within an enterprise zone designated pursuant to section 273.1312, subdivision 4, paragraph (c), clause (3), only after the governing body of a city designated as an enterprise zone has designated an area or areas, each consisting of at least 100 acres, of the city not in excess of 400 acres in which the tax reductions may be provided.

(f) In addition to the tax reductions authorized by paragraph (a), for an enterprise zone designated under section 273.1312, subdivision 4, paragraph (c), clause (3), the following types of tax reductions may be approved:

(1) A credit against income tax for workers employed in the zone up to a maximum of $1,500 per employee;

(2) A state paid property tax credit for a portion of the property taxes paid by a commercial or industrial facility located in the zone.

(g) Each tax reduction provided to a business pursuant to this subdivision shall terminate not longer than five years after the effective date of the tax reduction for the business. Subject to the five year limitation, the tax reductions may be provided after expiration of the zone's designation.

(h) The income tax credits provided pursuant to clauses (a) and (f) may be refundable.

Subd. 10. [RECAPTURE.] Any business which receives tax reductions authorized by subdivision 9 and which ceases to operate its facility located within the enterprise zone within two years after the expiration of the tax reductions shall repay the amount of the tax reduction pursuant to the following schedule:

Termination of operations	Repayment Portion
Less than 6 months	100 percent
6 months or more but less than 12 months	75 percent
12 months or more but less than 18 months	50 percent
18 months or more but less than 24 months	25 percent

Subd. 11. [DEVELOPMENT AND REDEVELOPMENT POWERS.] Notwithstanding any contrary provision of law or charter, any city of the first or second class which contains an enterprise zone or which has been designated as an enterprise zone may, in addition to its other powers and without limiting them, exercise the powers granted to a governmental subdivision by chapters 458, 462, and 472. Section 458.192, subdivision 14, shall apply to the city in the exercise of the powers granted pursuant to this section. It may exercise the powers assigned to redevelopment agencies pursuant to chapter 474, without limitation to further the purposes of sections 458.09 to 458.1991, 462.411 to 462.705, and chapters 472 and 472A. It may exercise the powers set forth in sections 458.09 to 458.1991, 462.411 to 462.705, and chapters 472 and 472A, without limitation to further the purposes and policies set forth in chapter 474. It may exercise the powers granted by this subdivision and any other development or redevelopment powers authorized by other laws, including chapters 472A and 474, independently or in conjunction with each other as though all the powers had been granted to a single entity. Any project undertaken to accomplish the purposes of chapter 462 that qualifies as single-family housing under section 462C.02, subdivision 4, shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 462C.

The authorization for a city to exercise powers pursuant to this subdivision shall terminate upon the expiration of the designation of the enterprise zone provided that the powers granted by this subdivision may be exercised after that date with respect to any project, program, or activity commenced or established prior to that date. The powers granted by this subdivision may only be exercised within the zone.

Subd. 12. [TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE.] The commissioner shall establish a mechanism for providing and shall provide technical assistance to small municipalities seeking designation of an area as an enterprise zone under this section and section 273.1312. For purposes of this subdivision, a small municipality means a municipality with a population of 20,000 or less.

Subd. 13. [ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES ACT.] The provisions of chapter 14 shall not apply to designation of enterprise zones pursuant to this section or section 273.1312.

Subd. 14. [FEDERAL DESIGNATIONS.] The commissioner may accept applications and may at any time grant a contingent designation of area as an enterprise zone for purposes of seeking a designation of the area as a federal enterprise zone. For purposes of the designations, the commissioner may waive any of the requirements or limitations on designations contained in this section. If the contingent designation would require funding in excess of the amount available pursuant to subdivision 8, the commissioner shall inform the members of the legislative advisory commission and shall submit a request for the necessary funding to the tax and appropriations committees of the legislature.

Subd. 15. [REPORTING.] The commissioner shall require municipalities receiving enterprise zone designations pursuant to section 273.1312, subdivision 4, to supply information or otherwise report to the state regarding the economic activity which has occurred in the zone following the designation. This information shall include the number of jobs created in the zone, the number of economically disadvantaged individuals hired in the zone, the average wage level of the jobs created, and descriptions of any affirmative action programs undertaken by the municipality in connection with the zone.

Subd. 16. [INFORMATION SHARING.] Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 290.61 and 297A.43, the commissioner of revenue may share information with the commissioner or with a municipality receiving an enterprise zone designation, insofar as necessary to administer the funding limitations provided by subdivision 8.

Subd. 17. [REPEALER.] This section is repealed effective December 31, 1996.

Sec. 11. [INSTRUCTION TO REVISOR.]

If the department of energy, planning, and development no longer exists as presently constituted, "commissioner" as defined in section 273.1312 and section 10 means the successor to the responsibilities of the economic development division of that department. The revisor of statutes shall change the definition as appropriate in Minnesota Statutes 1984, and subsequent editions.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.068, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [ADDITIONAL CREDIT.] (a) In addition to the credit allowed by subdivision 1, a credit shall be allowed against the tax imposed by this chapter for the taxable year equal to 12.5 percent of the amount of qualified research expenses paid or incurred for qualified research performed by a Minnesota-domiciled corporation for or on behalf of one or more of its wholly-owned subsidiary corporations which has in effect during the taxable year a valid election under section 936 of the Internal Revenue Code, including any expenses paid or incurred that are attributable to a wholly-owned subsidiary corporation by reason of paragraph (h) of section 936 for purposes of determining each corporation's combined taxable income.

(b) The maximum credit allowed by clause (a) for the taxable year shall be

(1) the total amount of tax imposed by this chapter on all members of the unitary group for the taxable year, over

(2) the sum of (A) the total amount of tax which would be imposed on the unitary group, if the corporation or corporations with valid elections under section 936 of the Internal Revenue Code were excluded from the unitary group, plus (B) the tax, if any, which would be imposed on the corporation or corporations with valid elections under section 936 of the Internal Revenue Code without regard to the other members of the unitary group.

(c)(1) If the amount of the credit determined under clause (a) for any taxable year exceeds the limitation provided in clause (b), the excess shall be a research credit carryover to each of the 15 succeeding taxable years. The entire amount of the excess unused credit for the taxable year shall be carried first to the earliest of the taxable years to which the credit may be carried and then to each successive year to which the credit may be carried.

(2) The amount of the unused credit which may be added under subparagraph (1) for any preceding taxable year shall not exceed the amount by which the limitation provided by clause (b) for the taxable year exceeds the sum of

(i) the credit allowable under this subdivision for the taxable year, and

(ii) the amounts, which, by reason of subparagraph (1), are added to the amount allowable for the taxable year and which are attributable to taxable years preceding the taxable year in which an excess credit arises.

Sec. 13. [290.069] [SMALL BUSINESS INVESTMENT CREDITS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) "Small business assistance office" means a nonprofit corporation which is formed under chapter 317, is an exempt organization under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, and satisfies the following conditions:

(1) The primary purpose of the corporation is to aid in the formation of new businesses which create jobs in the state by training or providing other direct assistance to entrepreneurs, managers, inventors, and other individuals in the development, financing, and operation of qualified small businesses.

(2) The corporation provides audited financial statements to all contributors and the commissioner of energy, planning, and development within 90 days following the close of the corporation's fiscal year.

(3) The corporation employs, at least, two full-time professional employees or the equivalent.

(4) The corporation is not engaged in providing financing or primarily engaged in arranging financing for businesses.

(5) The commissioner of energy, planning and development certifies that the corporation satisfies the requirements of this paragraph for the calendar year.

(b) "Technology" means a proprietary process, formula, pattern, device, or compilation of scientific or technical information unless it

(1) is in the public domain; or

(2) cannot be accurately valued.

(c) "Controlled group of corporations" means the controlled group of corporations as defined in section 1563 of the Internal Revenue Code, and if the corporation is part of a unitary business, includes the corporations or entities constituting the unitary business which are not in the controlled group of corporations as defined in section 1563.

(d) An "innovation center public corporation" is a non-profit public corporation located at a state university in Minnesota that has the purpose of assisting, encouraging, developing, and advancing the high technology small business prosperity and economic welfare of the state.

(e) The "Internal Revenue Code" means the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through January 15, 1983.

(f) "Qualified small business" means a business entity organized for profit if the entity:

(1) Has 20 or fewer employees and has less than $1,000,000 in gross annual receipts;

(2) Is not a subsidiary or an affiliate of a business which employs more than 20 employees or has total gross receipts for the previous year of more than $1,000,000, computed by aggregating all of the employees and gross receipts of the business entities affiliated with the business;

(3) Has its commercial domicile in this state;

(4) Does not derive more than 20 percent of its gross receipts from royalties, rents, dividends, interest, annuities, and sales or exchanges of stock or securities;

(5) Is not engaged in a trade or business, the primary purpose of which is described in section 103(b)(6)(O) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through January 15, 1983; and

(6) Is certified by the commissioner of energy, planning and development that it satisfies the requirements of clauses (1) to (5).

Subd. 2. [TECHNOLOGY TRANSFER CREDIT.] A credit may be claimed against the taxes imposed by this chapter in an amount equal to 30 percent of the net value of the technology transferred to a qualified small business if the following conditions are satisfied:

(a) The commissioner certifies that the technology has the value claimed by the transferor taxpayer.

(b) The transferor taxpayer is the exclusive and undisputed owner of the technology at the time the transfer is made.

(c) Except as provided in paragraph (h), the transferor retains no proprietary or financial interest in the technology subsequent to its transfer to the qualified small business and no credit is claimed for the transfer of the technology in a prior or subsequent taxable year, except pursuant to the carryover provisions of subdivision 5.

(d) The credit shall apply only to the first $1,000,000 of the net value of the technology transferred during the taxable year. The value of the technology shall not exceed the total qualified research expenses, as defined in section 290.068, subdivision 2, expended by the transferor to create or develop the technology. For purposes of this clause, "net value" means the total value of the technology less any payments received from the transferee and less the value of any equity interest in the transferee received by the transferor in exchange for the technology. For purposes of determining the value of the equity interest, the total value of the transferee shall be deemed to be not less than the value of the technology transferred, less any cash payment made to the transferor.

(e) The taxpayer has not deducted the value of the transferred property from income under any other provisions of this chapter, except that the costs of developing the technology may have been deducted as a business expense or depreciated or included in the computation of the research and experimental expenditure credit pursuant to section 290.068.

(f) The transferee business entity may not be a subsidiary or affiliate of the transferor taxpayer.

(g) The transferee makes a substantial investment in acquiring or developing the technology. The requirements of this clause are satisfied if (1) transferee pays the transferor an amount equal to 20 percent of the value of the technology in return for acquisition of the rights to the technology, or if (2) the transferee expends an equivalent amount for equipment, materials, wages, or other direct costs to develop, produce, or otherwise use the technology. The requirements of this paragraph may not be satisfied by granting the transferor an equity interest as provided by paragraph (h).

(h) The transferor may receive in exchange for the transfer of the technology an equity interest in the transferee, but this interest may not exceed 25 percent of the capital interest, if the transferee is a partnership, or 25 percent in value of the outstanding stock, if the transferee is a corporation. The transferor's basis in the equity interest shall be reduced by the amount of the credits received pursuant to this subdivision. The transferor may not deduct any loss realized on the sale or exchange of the equity interest.

The commissioner may require that the taxpayer obtain an appraisal of the value of the transferred technology by a reliable, expert third party. The commissioner may promulgate administrative rules for appraising the value of transferred technology.

Subd. 3. [CONTRIBUTION CREDIT.] A credit shall be allowed against the taxes imposed by this chapter in an amount equal to 50 percent of the first $50,000 of contributions made during the taxable year to a small business assistance office or to an innovation center public corporation. No credit shall be allowed for any contributions deducted pursuant to any other provision of this chapter.

Subd. 4. [EQUITY INVESTMENT CREDIT.] (a) A credit shall be allowed against the tax imposed by this chapter for the taxable year in an amount equal to 30 percent of the net investment in excess of $25,000 in the equity stock of a qualified small business. The maximum amount of the credit for a taxable year may not exceed $75,000. For purposes of this credit the following limitations apply:

(1) Equity stock shall not include any security which provides for fixed or variable interest payments.

(2) The taxpayer and any related persons may not own more than 49 percent of the value of any class of stock. For purposes of this paragraph, a person is a related person to another person if (i) the relationship between the persons would result in a disallowance of losses under section 267 or 707(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or (ii) the persons are members of the same controlled group of corporations. The restrictions provided by this subdivision shall apply for a three year period beginning on the date the stock is purchased. If the taxpayer or a related person acquires more than 49 percent of the value of any class of stock after the allowance of a credit under this subdivision and prior to the end of the three year period, the taxpayer's tax for the taxable year in which the credit was allowed shall be increased by the amount of the credit previously claimed.

(3) The credit shall not exceed 75 percent of the taxpayer's tax liability computed after the subtraction of all credits, other than the credit provided in this subdivision.

(b) If the principal place of business of the qualified small business is located in an enterprise zone designated pursuant to section 273.1312, $10,000 shall be substituted for $25,000 and $100,000 for $75,000 in paragraph (a).

(c) The taxpayer's basis in the stock shall be reduced by the amount of the credit.

Subd. 5. [LIMITATIONS; OTHER CONDITIONS.] The provisions of section 290.068, subdivisions 3, clause (a); 4; and 5 shall apply to the sum of the credits which this section allows, except that no carryback shall be allowed. The carryover provisions of section 290.068, subdivision 3, clause (b), shall apply to the sum of the credits allowed by this section except that the term "research credit" or "research and experimental expenditure credit" shall include the credits authorized by subdivisions 2 and 3 of this section. The credits allowed by subdivisions 2 and 3 shall only be available to corporations and banks whose tax is computed pursuant to section 290.06, subdivision 1.

The maximum limitations on the amount of credits pursuant to subdivisions 2 and 3 shall be determined by aggregating together the credits of all the corporations in the controlled group of corporations with the taxpayer. In order to facilitate compliance with and enforcement of this provision the commissioner may require the taxpayer to claim the credit on a combined report of the unitary business or to file a copy of the consolidated federal return with the state return or both.

Subd. 6. [REPEALER.] This section is repealed effective for contributions made to a small business office or to an innovation center public corporation as provided in subdivision 3, for technology transferred as described in subdivision 2, and for investments made as described in subdivision 4 in taxable years beginning after December 31, 1985.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 290.09, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [TAXES.] Taxes paid or accrued within the taxable year, except

(a) income or franchise taxes imposed by this chapter and income or franchise taxes paid to any other state or to any province or territory of Canada for which a credit is allowed under section 290.081; (b) taxes assessed against local benefits of a kind deemed in law to increase the value of the property assessed; (c) inheritance, gift and estate taxes except as provided in section 290.077, subdivision 4; (d) cigarette and tobacco products excise tax imposed on the consumer; (e) that part of Minnesota property taxes for which a credit or refund is claimed and allowed under chapter 290A; (f) federal income taxes (including the windfall profit tax on domestic crude oil), by corporations, national and state banks; (g) mortgage registry tax; (h) real estate transfer tax; (i) federal telephone tax; (j) federal transportation tax; and (k) income or franchise taxes based on net income paid by a corporation to another state, to a political subdivision of another state, or to the District of Columbia; and (l) tax paid by any corporation or national or state bank to any foreign country or possession of the United States to the extent that a credit against federal income taxes is allowed under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981. If the taxpayer's foreign tax credit consists of both foreign taxes deemed paid and foreign taxes actually paid or withheld, it will be conclusively presumed that foreign taxes deemed paid were first used by the taxpayer in its foreign tax credit. Minnesota gross income shall include the amount of foreign tax paid which had been allowed as a deduction in a previous year, provided such foreign tax is later allowed as a credit against federal income tax.

Taxes imposed upon a shareholder's interest in a corporation which are paid by the corporation without reimbursement from the shareholder shall be deductible only by such corporation.

Property taxes shall be allowed as a deduction to the same taxpayer and in the same manner as provided in section 164 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1981, notwithstanding the provisions of section 272.31.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 471.59, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11. [JOINT POWERS BOARD.] Two or more governmental units, through action of their governing bodies, may establish a joint board to issue bonds or obligations pursuant to any law by which any of the governmental units establishing the joint board may independently issue bonds or obligations and may use the proceeds of the bonds or obligations to carry out the purposes of the law under which the bonds or obligations are issued. A joint board created pursuant to this section may issue obligations and other forms of indebtedness only pursuant to authority granted by the action of the governing bodies of the governmental units which established the joint board. The joint board established pursuant to this subdivision shall be composed solely of members of the governing bodies of the governmental unit which established the joint board, and the joint board may not pledge the full faith and credit or taxing power of any of the governmental units which established the joint board. The obligations or other forms of indebtedness shall be obligations of the joint board. The obligations or other forms of indebtedness shall be issued in the same manner and subject to the same conditions and limitations which would apply if the obligations were issued or indebtedness incurred by one of the governmental units which established the joint board provided that any reference to a governmental unit in the statute, law, or charter provision authorizing the issuance of the bonds or the incurring of the indebtedness shall be considered a reference to the joint board.

Subdivision 1. Except as provided in other subdivisions of this section or in section 272.025 or section 273.13, subdivisions 17, 17b, 17c or 17d, all property described in this section to the extent herein limited shall be exempt from taxation:

- (1) All public burying grounds;
- (2) All public schoolhouses;
- (3) All public hospitals;
- (4) All academies, colleges, and universities, and all seminaries of learning;
- (5) All churches, church property, and houses of worship;

(7) All public property exclusively used for any public purpose;

(8) (a) Class 2 property of every household of the value of $100, maintained in the principal place of residence of the owner thereof. The county auditor shall deduct such exemption from the total valuation of such property as equalized by the revenue commissioner assessed to such household, and extend the levy of taxes upon the remainder only. The term "household" as used in this section is defined to be a domestic establishment maintained either (1) by two or more persons living together within the same house or place of abode, subsisting in common and constituting a domestic or family relationship, or (2) by one person.

(b) During the period of his active service and for six months after his discharge therefrom, no member of the armed forces of the United States shall lose status of a householder under paragraph (a) which he had immediately prior to becoming a member of the armed forces.

The tax shall be imposed on aggregate material produced in the county when the aggregate material is transported from the extraction site or sold, when in the case of storage the stockpile is within the state of Minnesota and the highways are not used for transporting the aggregate material. The tax shall be imposed on an importer when the aggregate material is imported into the county that imposes the tax.

In the event that If the aggregate material is transported directly from the extraction site to a waterway, railway, or another mode of transportation other than a highway, road or street, the tax imposed by this section shall be apportioned equally between the county where the aggregate material is extracted and the county to which the aggregate material is originally transported. DELINQUENCY; TAX FORFEITURE

Section 1. [PURPOSES; POLICY.]

Laws pertaining to the processing of delinquent real estate taxes in this state respecting billing, delinquency, judgment, sale, forfeiture, and redemption create risks respecting the validity of the title of the state, or its successors in interest, arising out of the tax forfeiture process. It is the policy of the state of Minnesota that the body of law pertaining to the processing of delinquent real property taxes be liberally construed in favor of the state, its officers, agents, and its successors in interest, to accomplish the following:

(a) to promote the policy of unfettered marketability as expressed in section 284.28;

(b) to provide for uniform and reasonable notices to taxpayers and other interested parties with regard to:

(1) mailing of billing notices;

(2) notice of delinquency, judgment, and sale;

(3) notice of expiration of the redemption period; and

(c) to eliminate other potential defects or ambiguities as fetter the marketability of title held by the state, or its successors in interest.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 276.04, is amended to read:

276.04 [NOTICE OF RATES; PROPERTY TAX STATEMENTS.]

On receiving the tax lists from the county auditor, the county treasurer shall, if directed by the county board, give three weeks' published notice in a newspaper specifying the rates of taxation for all general purposes and the amounts raised for each specific purpose. He shall, whether or not directed by the county board, cause to be printed on all tax statements, or on an attachment, a tabulated statement of the dollar amount due to each taxing authority and the amount to be paid to the state of Minnesota from the parcel of real property for which a particular tax statement is prepared. The dollar amounts due the state, county, township or municipality and school district shall be separately stated but the amounts due other taxing districts, if any, may be aggregated. The property tax statements for class 2a property shall contain the same information that is required on the tax statements for real property. The county treasurer shall mail to taxpayers statements of their personal property taxes due, such statements to be mailed not later than February 15 (except in the case of Class 2a property), statements of the real property taxes due shall be mailed not later than January 31; provided, that the validity of the tax shall not be affected by failure of the treasurer to mail such statement. The taxpayer is defined as the owner who is responsible for the payment of the tax. Such real and personal property tax statements shall contain the market value, as defined in section 272.03, subdivision 8, used in determining the tax. The statement shall show the amount attributable to section 124.2137 as "state paid agricultural credit" and the amount attributable to section 273.13, subdivisions 6 and 7 as "state paid homestead credit". The statement shall show the reduction attributable to the aid given pursuant to section 273.139 and shall indicate that the reduction is paid by the state of Minnesota. If so directed by the county board, the treasurer shall visit places in the county as he deems expedient for the purpose of receiving taxes and the county board is authorized to pay the expenses of such visits and of preparing duplicate tax lists. Failure to mail the tax statement shall not be deemed a material defect to affect the validity of any judgment and sale for delinquent taxes.

Sec. 3. [276.041] [FILING TO RECEIVE NOTICE OF DELINQUENT TAXES.]

Fee owners, vendees, mortgagees, lienholders, and lessees may file their names and current mailing addresses with the county auditor in the county in which the land is located for the purpose of receiving notices affecting such land that are issued pursuant to sections 276.04, 281.23, and section 6. Each person filing his name and address shall pay a filing fee of $15 to the county auditor for each parcel. The filing shall expire after three years. Persons may refile their names and addresses for additional three year periods, and a fee of $15 shall be paid with each refiling. The county auditor shall furnish a copy of the list of names and addresses to the county treasurer. Taxpayers of record with the county auditor and mortgagees who remit taxes on their behalf shall receive tax statements and other notices as otherwise provided by law and shall not be required to file and pay fees under this section.

When the cancelation of such certificate has been completed the county auditor shall cancel all taxes and tax liens, delinquent and current, and special assessments, delinquent or otherwise, imposed upon the lands described in the certificate after the issuance thereof by him.

MULTISTATE TAX COMPACT

1. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Business income" means income arising from transactions and activity in the regular course of the taxpayer's trade or business, and includes income from tangible and intangible property if the acquisition, management, and disposition of the property constitute integral parts of the taxpayer's regular trade or business operations.

(b) "Commercial domicile" means the principal place from which the trade or business of the taxpayer is directed or managed.

(c) "Compensation" means wages, salaries, commissions and any other form of remuneration paid to employees for personal services.

(d) "Financial organization" means any bank, trust company, savings bank, industrial bank, land bank, safe deposit company, private banker, savings and loan association, credit union, cooperative bank, small loan company, sales finance company, investment company, or any type of insurance company.

(e) "Nonbusiness income" means all income other than business income.

(f) "Public utility" means any business entity (1) which owns or operates any plant, equipment, property, franchise, or license for the transmission of communications, transportation of goods or persons, except by pipeline, or the production, transmission, sale, delivery, or furnishing of electricity, water or steam; and (2) whose rates of charges for goods or services have been established or approved by a federal, state or local government or governmental agency.

(g) "Sales" means all gross receipts of the taxpayer not allocated under paragraphs of this article.

(h) "State" means any state of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, any territory or possession of the United States, and any foreign country or political subdivision thereof.

(i) "This state" means the state in which the relevant tax return is filed or, in the case of application of this article to the apportionment and allocation of income for local tax purposes, the subdivision or local taxing district in which the relevant tax return is filed.

2. Any taxpayer having income from business activity which is taxable both within and without this state, other than activity as a financial organization or public utility or the rendering of purely personal services by an individual or any income received by a Minnesota resident individual or income from the operation of a farm, shall allocate and apportion his net income as provided in this article. If a taxpayer has income from business activity as a public utility but derives the greater percentage of his income from activities subject to this article, the taxpayer may elect to allocate and apportion his entire net income as provided in this article.

3. For purposes of allocation and apportionment of income under this article, a taxpayer is taxable in another state if (1) in that state he is subject to a net income tax, a franchise tax measured by net income, a franchise tax for the privilege of doing business, or a corporate stock tax, or (2) that state has jurisdiction to subject the taxpayer to a net income tax regardless of whether, in fact, the state does or does not.

4. All business income shall be apportioned to this state by multiplying the income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor plus the sales factor, and the denominator of which is three.

5. The property factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the average value of the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in this state during the tax period and the denominator of which is the average value of all the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used during the tax period.

6. Property owned by the taxpayer is valued at its original cost. Property rented by the taxpayer is valued at eight times the net annual rental rate. Net annual rental rate is the annual rental rate paid by the taxpayer less any annual rental rate received by the taxpayer from subrentals.

7. The average value of property shall be determined by averaging the values at the beginning and ending of the tax period but the tax administrator may require the averaging of monthly values during the tax period if reasonably required to reflect properly the average value of the taxpayer's property.

8. The payroll factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total amount paid in this state during the tax period by the taxpayer for compensation and the denominator of which is the total compensation paid everywhere during the tax period.

9. Compensation is paid in this state if:

(a) The individual's service is performed entirely within the state;

(b) The individual's service is performed both within and without the state, but the service performed without the state is incidental to the individual's service within the state; or

10. The sales factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total sales of the taxpayer in this state during the tax period, and the denominator of which is the total sales of the taxpayer everywhere during the tax period.

11. Sales of tangible personal property are in this state if:

(a) The property is delivered or shipped to a purchaser, other than the United States government, within this state regardless of the f.o.b. point or other conditions of the sale; or

(b) The exclusion of any one or more of the factors;

Article VI. The Commission.

Organization and Management.

1. (a) The multistate tax commission is hereby established. It shall be composed of one "member" from each party state who shall be the head of the state agency charged with the administration of the types of taxes to which this compact applies. If there is more than one such agency the state shall provide by law for the selection of the commission member from the heads of the relevant agencies. State law may provide that a member of the commission be represented by an alternate but only if there is on file with the commission written notification of the designation and identity of the alternate. The attorney general of each party state or his designee, or other counsel if the laws of the party state specifically provide, shall be entitled to attend the meetings of the commission, but shall not vote. Such attorneys general, designees, or other counsel shall receive all notices of meetings required under paragraph 1(e) of this article.

(b) Each party state shall provide by law for the selection of representatives from its subdivisions affected by this compact to consult with the com- mission member from that state.

(c) Each member shall be entitled to one vote. The commission shall not act unless a majority of the members are present, and no action shall be binding unless approved by a majority of the total number of members.

(d) The commission shall adopt an official seal to be used as it may provide.

(e) The commission shall hold an annual meeting and such other regular meetings as its bylaws may provide and such special meetings as its executive committee may determine. The commission bylaws shall specify the dates of the annual and any other regular meetings, and shall provide for the giving of notice of annual, regular and special meetings. Notices of special meetings shall include the reasons therefor and an agenda of the items to be considered.

(f) The commission shall elect annually, from among its members, a chairman, a vice chairman and a treasurer. The commission shall appoint an executive director who shall serve at its pleasure, and it shall fix his duties and compensation. The executive director shall be secretary of the commission. The commission shall make provision for the bonding of such of its officers and employees as it may deem appropriate.

(g) Irrespective of the civil service, personnel or other merit system laws of any party state, the executive director shall appoint or discharge such personnel as may be necessary for the performance of the functions of the commission and shall fix their duties and compensation. The commission bylaws shall provide for personnel policies and programs.

(h) The commission may borrow, accept or contract for the services of personnel from any state, the United States, or any other governmental entity.

(i) The commission may accept for any of its purposes and functions any and all donations and grants of money, equipment, supplies, materials and services, conditional or otherwise, from any governmental entity, and may utilize and dispose of the same.

(j) The commission may establish one or more offices for the transacting of its business.

(k) The commission shall adopt bylaws for the conduct of its business. The commission shall publish its bylaws in convenient form, and shall file a copy of the bylaws and any amendments thereto with the appropriate agency or officer in each of the party states.

(l) The commission annually shall make to the governor and legislature of each party state a report covering its activities for the preceding year. Any donation or grant accepted by the commission or services borrowed shall be reported in the annual report of the commission, and shall include the nature, amount and conditions, if any, of the donation, gift, grant or services borrowed and the identity of the donor or lender. The commission may make additional reports as it may deem desirable.

Committees.

2. (a) To assist in the conduct of its business when the full commission is not meeting, the commission shall have an executive committee of seven mem-paid by the state or local government or governments for which it performs the service, for any audits performed by it in order to reimburse itself for the actual costs incurred in making the audit.

2. The commission may require the attendance of any person within the state where it is conducting an audit or part thereof at a time and place fixed by it within such state for the purpose of giving testimony with respect to any account, book, paper, document, other record, property or stock of merchandise being examined in connection with the audit. If the person is not within the jurisdiction, he may be required to attend for such purpose at any time and place fixed by the commission within the state of which he is a resident, provided that such state has adopted this article.

3. The commission may apply to any court having power to issue compulsory process for orders in aid of its powers and responsibilities pursuant to this article and any and all such courts shall have jurisdiction to issue such orders. Failure of any person to obey any such order shall be punishable as contempt of the issuing court. If the party or subject matter on account of which the commission seeks an order is within the jurisdiction of the court to which application is made, such application may be to a court in the state or subdivision on behalf of which the audit is being made or a court in the state in which the object of the order being sought is situated. The provisions of this paragraph apply only to courts in a state that has adopted this article.

4. The commission may decline to perform any audit requested if it finds that its available personnel or other resources are insufficient for the purpose or that, in the terms requested, the audit is impracticable of satisfactory performance. If the commission, on the basis of its experience, has reason to believe that an audit of a particular taxpayer, either at a particular time or on a particular schedule, would be of interest to a number of party states or their subdivisions, it may offer to make the audit or audits, the offer to be contingent on sufficient participation therein as determined by the commission.

5. Information obtained by any audit pursuant to this article shall be confidential and available only for tax purposes to party states, their subdivisions or the United States. Availability of information shall be in accordance with the laws of the states or subdivisions on whose account the commission performs the audit, and only through the appropriate agencies or officers of such states or subdivisions. Nothing in this article shall be construed to require any taxpayer to keep records for any period not otherwise required by law.

6. Other arrangements made or authorized pursuant to law for cooperative audit by or on behalf of the party states or any of their subdivisions are not superseded or invalidated by this article.

7. In no event shall the commission make any charge against a taxpayer for an audit.

8. As used in this article, "tax," in addition to the meaning ascribed to it in article II, means any tax or license fee imposed in whole or in part for revenue purposes.

Article IX. Arbitration.

1. Whenever the commission finds a need for settling disputes concerning apportionments and allocations by arbitration, it may adopt a regulation placing this article in effect, notwithstanding the provisions of article VII.

2. The commission shall select and maintain an arbitration panel composed of officers and employees of state and local governments and private persons who shall be knowledgeable and experienced in matters of tax law and administration.

3. Whenever a taxpayer who has elected to employ article IV, or whenever the laws of the party state or subdivision thereof are substantially identical with the relevant provisions of article IV, the taxpayer, by written notice to the commission and to each party state or subdivision thereof that would be affected, may secure arbitration of an apportionment or allocation, if he is dissatisfied with the final administrative determination of the tax agency of the state or subdivision with respect thereto on the ground that it would subject him to double or multiple taxation by two or more party states or subdivisions thereof. Each party state and subdivision thereof hereby consents to the arbitration as provided herein, and agrees to be bound thereby.

4. The arbitration board shall be composed of one person selected by the taxpayer, one by the agency or agencies involved, and one member of the commission's arbitration panel. If the agencies involved are unable to agree on the person to be selected by them, such person shall be selected by lot from the total membership of the arbitration panel. The two persons selected for the board in the manner provided by the foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall jointly select the third member of the board. If they are unable to agree on the selection, the third member shall be selected by lot from among the total membership of the arbitration panel. No member of a board selected by lot shall be qualified to serve if he is an officer or employee or is otherwise affiliated with any party to the arbitration proceeding. Residence within the jurisdiction of a party to the arbitration proceeding shall not constitute affiliation within the meaning of this paragraph.

5. The board may sit in any state or subdivision party to the proceeding, in the state of the taxpayer's incorporation, residence or domicile, in any state where the taxpayer does business, or in any place that it finds most appropriate for gaining access to evidence relevant to the matter before it.

6. The board shall give due notice of the times and places of its hearings. The parties shall be entitled to be heard, to present evidence, and to examine and cross-examine witnesses. The board shall act by majority vote.

7. The board shall have power to administer oaths, take testimony, subpoena and require the attendance of witnesses and the production of accounts, books, papers, records, and other documents, and issue commissions to take testimony. Subpoenas may be signed by any member of the board. In case of failure to obey a subpoena, and upon application by the board, any judge of a court of competent jurisdiction of the state in which the board is sitting or in which the person to whom the subpoena is directed may be found may make an order requiring compliance with the subpoena, and the court may punish failure to obey the order as a contempt. The provisions of this paragraph apply only in states that have adopted this article.

8. Unless the parties otherwise agree the expenses and other costs of the arbitration shall be assessed and allocated among the parties by the board in such manner as it may determine. The commission shall fix a schedule of compensation for members of arbitration boards and of other allowable expenses and costs. No officer or employee of a state or local government who serves as a member of a board shall be entitled to compensation therefor unless he is required on account of his service to forego the regular compensation attaching to his public employment, but any such board member shall be entitled to expenses.

9. The board shall determine the disputed apportionment or allocation and any matters necessary thereto. The determinations of the board shall be final for purposes of making the apportionment or allocation, but for no other purpose.

10. The board shall file with the commission and with each tax agency represented in the proceeding: the determination of the board; the board's written statement of its reasons therefor; the record of the board's proceedings; and any other documents required by the arbitration rules of the commission to be filed.

11. The commission shall publish the determinations of boards together with the statements of the reasons therefor.

12. The commission shall adopt and publish rules of procedure and practice and shall file a copy of such rules and of any amendment thereto with the appropriate agency or officer in each of the party states.

13. Nothing contained herein shall prevent at any time a written compromise of any matter or matters in dispute, if otherwise lawful, by the parties to the arbitration proceedings.

Article X. Entry Into Force and Withdrawal.

1. This compact shall become effective as to any other state upon its enactment. The commission shall arrange for notification of all party states whenever there is a new enactment of the compact.

2. Any party state may withdraw from this compact by enacting a statute repealing the same. No withdrawal shall affect any liability already incurred by or chargeable to a party state prior to the time of such withdrawal.

3. No proceeding commenced before an arbitration board prior to the withdrawal of a state and to which the withdrawing state or any subdivision thereof is a party shall be discontinued or terminated by the withdrawal, nor shall the board thereby lose jurisdiction over any of the parties to the proceeding necessary to make a binding determination therein.

Article XI. Effect on Other Laws and Jurisdictions.

Nothing in this compact shall be construed to:

(a) Affect the power of any state or subdivision thereof to fix rates of taxation, except that a party state shall be obligated to implement article III 2 of this compact.

(b) Apply to any tax or fixed fee imposed for the registration of a motor vehicle or any tax on motor fuel, other than a sales tax, provided that the definition of "tax" in article VIII 9 may apply for the purposes of that article and the commission's powers of study and recommendation pursuant to ar-title VI 3 may apply.

(c) Withdraw or limit the jurisdiction of any state or local court or administrative officer or body with respect to any person, corporation or other entity or subject matter, except to the extent that such jurisdiction is expressly conferred by or pursuant to this compact upon another agency or body.

(d) Supersede or limit the jurisdiction of any court of the United States.

Article XII. Construction and Severability.

This compact shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate the purposes thereof. The provisions of this compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence, or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state participating therein, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining party states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

Sec. 2. [290.172] [COMMISSIONER OF REVENUE.]

The chairman shall be the member of the multistate tax commission, representing the state of Minnesota. The committee shall meet at the call of its chairman or at the request of a majority of its members, but in any event not less than three times in each year. Subd. 2. [APPLICABILITY.] This section as well as any rules promulgated by the commission ~~pursuant to implement this section or the public utility regulatory policies act of 1978, Pub.L. 95-617, 92 Stat. 3117, and the federal energy regulatory commission regulations thereunder, 18 C.F.R. Code of Federal Regulations, title 18, part 292,~~ shall apply to all Minnesota electric utilities, including cooperative electric associations and municipal electric utilities, ~~that become interconnected with any qualifying facility as defined in 18 C.F.R. Section 292.101(b)(1).~~

Sec. 167. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 216B.164, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PURCHASES; SMALL FACILITIES.] (a) For a qualifying ~~facilities~~ facility having less than 40 kilowatt capacity, the customer shall be billed for the net energy supplied by the utility according to the applicable rate schedule for sales to that class of customer. In the case of net input into the utility system by ~~the~~ a qualifying facility having less than 40 kilowatt capacity, compensation to the customer shall be at a per kilowatt hour rate ~~set by the commission determined under paragraph (b) or (c) of this subdivision.~~

(b) In setting ~~these~~ rates, the commission shall consider the fixed distribution costs to the utility not otherwise accounted for in the basic monthly charge and shall ensure that the costs charged to the qualifying facility are not discriminatory in relation to the costs charged to other customers of the utility. ~~Notwithstanding any other language to the contrary in this section,~~ The commission shall set the rates for net input into the utility system based on avoided costs as defined in ~~48 C.F.R.~~ the Code of Federal Regulations, title 18, section 292.101(b)(6), the factors listed in ~~48 C.F.R.~~ Code of Federal Regulations, title 18, section 292.304, and all other relevant factors.

(c) Notwithstanding any provision in this chapter to the contrary, a qualifying facility having less than 40 kilowatt capacity may elect that the compensation for net input by the qualifying facility into the utility system shall be at the average retail utility energy rate. "Average retail utility energy rate" is defined as the average of the retail energy rates, exclusive of special rates based on income, age, or energy conservation, according to the applicable rate schedule of the utility for sales to that class of customer.

(d) If the qualifying facility is interconnected with a non-generating utility which has a sole source contract with a municipal power agency or a generation and transmission utility, the non-generating utility may elect to treat its purchase of any net input under this subdivision as being made on behalf of its supplier and shall be reimbursed by its supplier for any additional costs incurred in making the purchase. Qualifying facilities having less than 40 kilowatt capacity may, at the customer's option, elect to be governed by the provisions of subdivision 4.

Sec. 168. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 216B.164, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [DISPUTES.] In the event of disputes between an electric utility and a qualifying facility, either party may request a determination of the issue by the commission. In any such determination, the burden of proof shall be on the utility. The commission in its order resolving each such dispute shall require payments to the prevailing party of the prevailing party's costs, disbursements, and reasonable attorneys' fees, except that the qualifying facility will be required to pay the costs, disbursements, and attorneys' fees of the utility only if the commission finds that the claims of the qualifying facility in the dispute have been made in bad faith, or are a sham, or frivolous.

Sec. 169. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 216B.164, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [RULES AND UNIFORM CONTRACT.] (a) The commission shall promulgate rules to implement the provisions of this section. The commission shall also establish a uniform statewide form of contract for use between utilities and a qualifying facility having less than 40 kilowatt capacity.

(b) The commission shall require the qualifying facility to provide the utility with reasonable access to the premises and equipment of the qualifying facility if the particular configuration of the qualifying facility precludes disconnection or testing of the qualifying facility from the utility side of the interconnection with the utility remaining responsible for its personnel.

(c) The uniform statewide form of contract shall be applied to all new and existing interconnections established between a utility and a qualifying facility having less than 40 kilowatt capacity, except that existing contracts may remain in force until written notice of election that the uniform statewide contract form applies is given by either party to the other, with the notice being of the shortest time period permitted under the existing contract for termination of the existing contract by either party, but not less than ten nor longer than 30 days.

(d) The commission may promulgate temporary rules for the purpose of implementing this section. The temporary rules are subject to sections 14.29 to 14.36.

Sec. 170. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 216B.164, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [CUSTOMER, INTERCONNECTION AND WHEELING CHARGES.] (a) Utilities shall be required to interconnect with a qualifying facility that offers to provide available energy or capacity and that satisfies the requirements of this section.

(b) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to excuse the qualifying facility from any obligation for costs of interconnection and wheeling in excess of those normally incurred by the utility for customers with similar load characteristics who are not cogenerators or small power producers, or from any fixed charges normally assessed such nongenerating customers.

Sec. 171. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 216B.164, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [MUNICIPAL ELECTRIC UTILITIES.] For purposes of this section only, except subdivisions 5 and 7, and with respect to municipal electric utilities only, the term "commission" means the governing body of each municipal electric utility that adopts and has in effect rules implementing this section which are consistent with the rules adopted by the Minnesota public utilities commission under subdivision 6. As used in this subdivision, the governing body of a municipal electric utility means the city council of that municipality; except that, if another board, commission, or body is empowered by law or resolution of the city council or by its charter to establish and regulate rates and days for the distribution of electric energy within the service area of the city, that board, commission, or body shall be considered the governing body of the municipal electric utility.

Sec. 172. [216B.242] [INVERTED RATES.]

The commission may initiate a program designed to demonstrate the effect of inverted rates on promoting conservation by the residential customers of natural gas utilities. Any inverted rates ordered by the commission shall present customers with a tailblock price that, to the maximum extent practicable, reflects the replacement cost of gas. Total revenues collected from customers involved in this pilot program may not exceed those that would be collected under a flat rate. The commission may order one public gas utility to implement a pilot program of inverted rates for residential customers and to monitor the effects of these rates on gas consumption, and on costs to residential customers. The program shall include a sufficient number of residential customers to provide statistically significant conclusions regarding the effects and costs of inverted rates. The inverted rate schedules and monitoring plans shall be prepared in consultation with the commissioner of energy, planning and development.

Sec. 173. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 216B.44, is amended to read:

216B.44 [MUNICIPAL SERVICE TERRITORY EXTENSIONS IN ANNEXED AREAS; MUNICIPAL PURCHASE.]

Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 216B.38 to 216B.42, whenever a municipality which owns and operates an electric utility (a) extends its corporate boundaries through annexation or consolidation, or (b) determines to extend its service territory within its existing corporate boundaries, the municipality shall thereafter furnish electric service to the annexed area these areas unless the area is already receiving electric service from an electric utility, in which event, the annexing municipality may purchase the facilities of the electric utility serving the annexed area. The municipality acquiring the facilities shall pay to the electric utility formerly serving the annexed area the appropriate value of its properties within the area which payment may be by exchange of other electric utility property outside the municipality on an appropriate basis giving due consideration to revenue from and value of the respective properties. In the event the municipality and the electric utility involved are unable to agree as to the terms of the payment or exchange, the municipality or the electric utility may file an application with the commission requesting that the commission determine the appropriate terms for the exchange or sale. After notice and hearing, the commission shall determine appropriate terms for an exchange, or in the event no appropriate properties can be exchanged, the commission shall fix and determine the appropriate value of the property within the annexed area, and the transfer shall be made as directed by the commission. In making that determination the commission shall consider the original cost of the property, less depreciation, loss of revenue to the utility formerly serving the area, expenses resulting from integration of facilities, and other appropriate factors. Until the determination by the commission, the facilities shall remain in place and service to the public shall be maintained by the owner. However, the electric utility being displaced, serving the annexed area, shall not extend service to any additional points of delivery within the annexed area if the commission, after notice and hearing, with due consideration of any unnecessary duplication of facilities, shall determine that the extension is not in the public interest.

When property of a public electric utility located within an area annexed to a municipality which owns and operates a public electric utility is proposed to be acquired by the municipality, ratification by the electors is not required.

When property of an electric utility located within the existing corporate boundaries of a municipality that currently operates a municipal electric utility is proposed to be included within the service territory of the municipal electric utility, ratification by the electors is not required.

Sec. 174. [216B.465] [VOTER RATIFICATION OF MUNICIPAL PURCHASE, LIMITED APPLICATION.]

The provisions of sections 216B.45 and 216B.46 apply only to the purchase of public utility property by a municipality that, prior to the time of the purchase, did not operate a municipal utility providing the type of utility service delivered by the utility property being purchased.

In cases where the municipality operates, prior to the purchase of public utility property, a municipal utility providing the type of utility service delivered by the utility property being purchased, the provisions of section 216B.44 apply and voter ratification is not required.

Sec. 175. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 239.10, is amended to read:

239.10 [ANNUAL INSPECTION.]

The department shall charge a fee to the owner for the costs of the regular inspection of scales, weights, measures, and weighing or measuring devices. The cost of any other inspection shall be paid by the owner if the inspection is performed at his request or if the inspection is made at the request of some other person and the scale, weight, measure, or weighing or measuring device is found to be incorrect. The department may fix the fees and expenses for all regular inspections and special services by rule pursuant to section 16A.128. All moneys collected by the department for its regular inspections, special services, fees, and penalties shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the state general fund.

Sec. 176. [270.067] [TAX EXPENDITURE BUDGET.]

Subdivision 1. [STATEMENT OF PURPOSE.] State governmental policy objectives are sought to be achieved both by direct expenditure of governmental funds and by the granting of special and selective tax relief or tax expenditures. Both direct expenditures of governmental funds and tax expenditures have an effect on the ability of the state and local governments to lower tax rates or to increase expenditures. As a result, tax expenditures should receive a regular and comprehensive review by the legislature as to (a) their total cost, (b) their effectiveness in achieving their objectives, (c) their effect on the fairness and equity of the distribution of the tax burden, and (d) the public and private cost of administering tax expenditure financed programs. This section is intended to facilitate a regular review of the state and local tax expenditure budget by the legislature by providing for the preparation of a regular biennial tax expenditure budget.

Subd. 2. [PREPARATION; SUBMISSION.] The commissioner of revenue shall prepare a tax expenditure budget for the state. The tax expenditure budget report shall be submitted to the legislature as a supplement to the governor's budget and at the same time as provided for submission of the budget pursuant to section 16A.11, subdivision 1.

Subd. 3. [PERIOD COVERED.] The report shall include estimates of annual tax expenditures for, at a minimum, a three-year period including the two-year period covered in the governor's budget submitted in the preceding January pursuant to section 16A.11.

Subd. 4. [CONTENTS.] The report shall detail for each tax expenditure item the amount of tax revenue foregone, a citation of the statutory or other legal authority for the expenditure, and the year in which it was enacted or the tax year in which it became effective. The report may contain additional information which the commissioner considers relevant to the legislature's consideration and review of individual tax expenditure items. This may include, but is not limited to, statements of the intended purpose of the tax expenditure, analysis of whether the expenditure is achieving that objective, and the effect of the expenditure device on the distribution of the tax burden and administration of the tax system.

Subd. 5. [REVENUE ESTIMATES; LEGISLATIVE BILLS.] Upon reasonable notice from the chairman of the house or senate tax committee that a bill is scheduled for hearing, the commissioner of revenue shall prepare an estimate of the effect on the state's tax revenues which would result from the passage of a legislative bill establishing, extending, or restricting a tax expenditure. These revenue estimates shall contain the same information as provided in subdivision 4 for expenditure items contained in the tax expenditure budget, as appropriate.

Subd. 6. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given:

(1) "Tax expenditure" means a tax provision which provides a gross income definition, deduction, exemption, credit, or rate for certain persons, types of income, transactions, or property that results in reduced tax revenue.

(2) "Tax" means any tax of statewide application or any tax authorized by state law to be levied by local governments generally. It does not include a special local tax levied pursuant to special law or to a special local tax levied pursuant to general authority that is no longer applicable to local governments generally.

 - (a) by his parent, grandparent, spouse, child, or grandchild, or
 - (b) in the domestic service of any person;

(2) A religious or fraternal corporation, association, or society, with respect to qualifications based on religion, when religion shall be a bona fide occupational qualification for employment;

(3) The employment of one person in place of another, standing by itself, shall not be evidence of an unfair discriminatory practice;

(4) An age restriction applied uniformly and without exception to all individuals established by a bona fide apprenticeship program established pursuant to chapter 178, which limits participation to persons who enter the program prior to some specified age and the trade involved in the program predominantly involves heavy physical labor or work on high structures. After January 1, 1984, these age restrictions are exempt from the provisions of section 363.03, subdivision 1 only to the extent that they are declared exempt in rules adopted by the commissioner according to chapter 14. The commissioner must adopt rules governing this subject before January 1, 1984, and is authorized to adopt temporary, as well as permanent rules for this purpose. Neither shall the operation of a bona fide seniority system which mandates differences in such things as wages, hiring priorities, lay-off priorities, vacation credit, and job assignments based on seniority, be a violation of the age discrimination provisions of section 363.03, subdivision 1, so long as the operation of such system is not a subterfuge to evade the provisions of chapter 363;

(5) With respect to age discrimination, a practice whereby a labor organization or employer offers or supplies varying insurance benefits or other fringe benefits to members or employees of differing ages, so long as the cost to the labor organization or employer for such benefits is reasonably equivalent for all members or employees;

(7) Nothing in this chapter concerning age discrimination shall be construed to validate or permit age requirements which have a disproportionate impact on persons of any class otherwise protected by section 363.03, subdivision 1 or 5.

It is not an unfair employment practice for an employer, employment agency or labor organization:

(i) to require a person to undergo physical examination for purpose of determining the person's capability to perform available employment; or

(ii) to conduct an investigation as to the person's medical history for the purpose of determining the person's capability to perform available employment; or

(iii) to limit receipt of benefits payable under a fringe benefit plan for disabilities to that period of time which a licensed physician reasonably determines a person is unable to work; or

(iv) to provide special safety considerations for pregnant women involved in tasks which are potentially hazardous to the health of the unborn child, as determined by medical criteria.

Sec. 199. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 363.06, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [INQUIRY INTO CHARGE.] (1) Consistent with clause (7), ~~when a charge has been filed,~~ the commissioner shall promptly inquire into the truth of the allegations of the charge. The commissioner shall make an immediate inquiry when necessary to prevent a charging party from suffering irreparable loss in the absence of immediate action. The commissioner shall also make an immediate inquiry when it appears that a charge is frivolous or without merit and shall dismiss those charges. On ~~all~~ other charges the commissioner shall make a determination within 12 months after the charge was filed as to whether or not there is probable cause to credit the allegation of unfair discriminatory practices, and

(2) If the commissioner determines after investigation that no probable cause exists to credit the allegations of the unfair discriminatory practice, the commissioner shall, within ten days of the determination, serve upon the charging party and respondent written notice of the determination. Within ten days after receipt of notice, the charging party may request in writing on forms prepared by the department that the commissioner reconsider his determination. The request shall contain a brief statement of the reasons for and new evidence in support of the request for reconsideration. At the time of submission of the request to the commissioner, the charging party shall deliver or mail to the respondent a copy of the request for reconsideration. The commissioner shall either reaffirm or reverse his determination of no probable cause within 20 days after receipt of the request for reconsideration, and he shall within ten days notify in writing the charging party and respondent of his decision to reaffirm or reverse.

A decision by the commissioner that no probable cause exists to credit the allegations of an unfair discriminatory practice shall not be appealed to district court pursuant to section 363.072 or sections 14.63 to 14.68.

(3) If the commissioner determines after investigation that probable cause exists to credit the allegations of unfair discriminatory practices, the commissioner shall serve on the respondent and his attorney if he is represented by counsel, by first class mail, a notice setting forth a short plain written statement of the alleged facts which support the finding of probable cause and an enumeration of the provisions of law allegedly violated. If the commissioner determines that attempts to eliminate the alleged unfair practices through conciliation pursuant to subdivision 5 have been or would be unsuccessful or unproductive, the commissioner shall issue a complaint and serve on the respondent, by registered or certified mail, a written notice of hearing together with a copy of the complaint, requiring the respondent to answer the allegations of the complaint at a hearing before a hearing examiner at a time and place specified in the notice, not less than ten days after service of said complaint. A copy of the notice shall be furnished to the charging party and the attorney general.

(4) If, at any time after the filing of a charge, the commissioner has reason to believe that a respondent has engaged in any unfair discriminatory practice, the commissioner may file a petition in the district court in a county in which the subject of the complaint occurs, or in a county in which a respondent resides or transacts business, seeking appropriate temporary relief against the respondent, pending final determination of proceedings under this chapter, including an order or decree restraining him from doing or procuring an act tending to render ineffectual an order the commissioner may enter with respect to the complaint. The court shall have power to grant temporary relief or a restraining order as it deems just and proper, but no relief or order extending beyond ten days shall be granted except by consent of the respondent or after hearing upon notice to the respondent and a finding by the court that there is reasonable cause to believe that the respondent has engaged in a discriminatory practice. Except as modified by this section, the Minnesota rules of civil procedure shall apply to an application, and the district court shall have authority to grant or deny the relief sought on conditions as it deems just and equitable. All hearings under this section shall be given precedence as nearly as practicable over all other pending civil actions.

(5) If a lessor, after he has engaged in a discriminatory practice defined in section 363.03, subdivision 2, clause (1), (a), leases or rents a dwelling unit to a person who has no knowledge of the practice or of the existence of a charge with respect to the practice, the lessor shall be liable for actual damages sustained by a person by reason of a final order as provided in this section requiring the person to be evicted from the dwelling unit.

(6) In any complaint issued under this section, the commissioner may seek relief for a class of individuals affected by an unfair discriminatory practice occurring on or after a date six months prior to the filing of the charge from which the complaint originates.

(7) The commissioner may adopt policies to determine which charges are processed and the order in which charges are processed based on their particular social or legal significance, administrative convenience, difficulty of resolution, or other standard consistent with the provisions of this chapter.

Such order shall be a final decision of the department. The examiner shall order any respondent found to be in violation of any provision of section 363.03 to pay a civil penalty to the state. This penalty is in addition to compensatory and punitive damages to be paid to an aggrieved party. The hearing examiner shall determine the amount of the civil penalty to be paid, taking into account the seriousness and extent of the violation, the public harm occasioned by the violation, whether the violation was intentional, and the financial resources of the respondent. Any penalties imposed under this provision shall be paid into the general fund of the state. In all cases the examiner may order the respondent to pay an aggrieved party, who has suffered discrimination, compensatory damages, including damages for mental anguish or suffering, and, in all cases, may also order the respondent to pay an aggrieved party, who has suffered discrimination, punitive damages in an amount not more than $6,000. Punitive damages shall be awarded pursuant to section 549.20. In any case where a political subdivision is a respondent the total of punitive damages awarded an aggrieved party may not exceed $6,000 and in that case if there are two or more respondents the punitive damages may be apportioned among them. Punitive damages may only be assessed against a political subdivision in its capacity as a corporate entity and no regular or ex-officio member of a governing body of a political subdivision shall be personally liable for payment of punitive damages pursuant to this subdivision. In addition to the aforesaid remedies, in a case involving discrimination in

(a) employment, the examiner may order the hiring, reinstatement or upgrading of an aggrieved party, who has suffered discrimination, with or without back pay, admission or restoration to membership in a labor organization, or his admission to or participation in an apprenticeship training program, on-the-job-training program, or other retraining program, or any other relief the examiner deems just and equitable.

~~The maternal and child health care block grant shall be distributed to the same recipients that received funds during the previous year until July 1, 1983. A reduction in federal funding shall be distributed to reflect a proportional reduction for each recipient.~~

Recipients of maternal and child health grants for special projects in state fiscal year 1983 shall continue to be funded at the same level as in state fiscal year 1983 until September 30, 1985, if they comply with the provisions of sections 145.881, and 2 to 7. These recipients are also eligible to apply for state grants under sections 3 to 7. Any decrease in the amount of federal funding to the state for the maternal and child health block grant shall be apportioned to reflect a proportional decrease for each recipient until September 30, 1985. Any increase in the amount of federal funding to the state shall be distributed for services to children with handicaps and to special projects as provided in sections 3 to 7, except that an amount not to exceed ten percent may be retained by the commissioner of health to address cost of living increases and increases in supplies and services.

The report shall also identify the statewide needs of low income and high risk populations and the department of health's plans for meeting their needs. The legislature must receive the report no later than January of each year.

Sec. 3. [145.883] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] For purposes of sections 145.881, 145.882, and 3 to 7, the terms defined in this section shall have the meanings given them.

Subd. 2. [COMMISSIONER.] "Commissioner" means the commissioner of health.

Subd. 3. [QUALIFIED PROGRAM.] "Qualified program" means a program with professional maternal and child health care staff which is established for the purpose of providing one or more essential services in maternal and child health care to target populations of low income and high risk persons. Nothing in this subdivision shall imply that every person served must take a means test.

Subd. 4. [ESSENTIAL SERVICES.] "Essential services" means (a) prenatal, delivery, and post partum care; (b) comprehensive health care for children from birth through five years of age; (c) adolescent health services; (d) family planning services, as defined in section 145.912, subdivision 9; (e) preventive dental care; or (f) special services for chronically ill children and for handicapped children.

Subd. 5. [LOW INCOME.] "Low income" means an individual or family with an income determined to be at or below 175 percent of the income official poverty line defined by the office of management and budget and revised annually in accordance with United States Code, title 42, section 9902, as amended through December 31, 1982. With respect to an individual who is a high risk person, "low income" means that the income of the high risk person or the person's family is determined to be at or below 200 percent of the income official poverty line defined by the office of management and budget and revised annually in accordance with United States Code, title 42, section 9902, as amended through December 31, 1982. The commissioner shall establish the low income level for eligibility for services to children with handicaps.

Subd. 6. [HIGH RISK PERSON.] "High risk person" means a mother or child with a condition which significantly increases the probability of disease, injury, death, or other adverse health-related problem. Determination that a condition results in high risk shall be based on well validated, scientific studies.

Subd. 7. [SPECIAL PROJECT.] "Special project" means a qualified program that receives maternal and child health block grant money and is administered by a public or private nonprofit agency other than the Minnesota department of health. A special project may not impose residency requirements, other than state residence, as a condition of receiving essential services. A special project that can demonstrate a need to reduce services as a result of high demand for these services from outside the project's proposed service area may apply for additional funds. Any special project providing statewide essential services may serve a population that is low income or high risk.

Subd. 8. [MATERNAL AND CHILD HEALTH BLOCK GRANT MONEY.] "Maternal and child health block grant money" means the money received by the state from the federal maternal and child health block grant. The commissioner shall carry forward from state fiscal year 1985, and succeeding years, only sufficient funds for qualified programs approved through the federal fiscal year.

Sec. 4. [145.884] [GRANTS TO QUALIFIED PROGRAMS.]

Subdivision 1. The commissioner shall promulgate rules for the administration of grants authorized by this subdivision. The rules shall establish and contain as a minimum:

(a) procedures for grant applications;

(b) conditions and procedures for the administration of grants;

(c) criteria of eligibility for grants; and

(d) other matters the commissioner finds necessary for the proper administration of the grant program.

Subd. 2. [PRIORITY CRITERIA FOR GRANTS.] Any public or private nonprofit agency providing or planning to provide services in maternal and child health care to an identified low income and high risk population may apply to the commissioner for a maternal and child health care grant. The commissioner shall, when making grants, give priority to qualified programs that provide essential services in maternal and child health care to a target population of low income and high risk persons. In distributing any increase in federal funding to special projects, the commissioner shall give priority to grant applications for special projects located outside the metropolitan area for at least 50 percent of the increased funding.

Sec. 5. [145.885] [APPLICATION FOR A GRANT.]

An application for a grant shall be submitted to the commissioner at a time and in a form and manner as the commissioner prescribes. Department of health technical staff shall be available to provide technical assistance in development of grant applications. The application must contain:

(a) A complete description of the program and the manner in which the applicant intends to conduct the program;

(d) The name or names of the person or persons who shall have primary responsibility for the administration and delivery of services of the qualified program; and

(e) The reporting and accounting procedures to be followed by the qualified agency to enable the commissioner to evaluate the activities of the qualified program.

Sec. 6. [145.886] [GRANT REVIEW PROCESS.]

Primary review of all grant applications shall be conducted by the department of health technical staff. All technically completed applications will be forwarded for secondary review to a grants review panel established by the commissioner. A majority of the grants review panel must be professionals with expertise in maternal and child health care. No member of the panel may be an employee of a public or private nonprofit agency receiving or applying for maternal and child health block grant money. The advisory task force shall review the recommendations of the grants review panel for comment to the commissioner. The commissioner shall award grants under sections 5 and 6 only after receiving the comments and recommendation of the grants review panel and the advisory task force on completed grant applications.

Sec. 7. [145.888] [LIMITATIONS.]

Grants awarded to qualified programs under sections 5 to 7 shall not exceed 75 percent of the estimated annual cost of the qualified program for the fiscal year for which the grant is awarded.

Sec. 8. [RULES.]

The commissioner may adopt temporary and permanent rules for the efficient administration of sections 1 to 8. The temporary rules need not be adopted in compliance with chapter 14 and shall be effective for 360 days or until the permanent rules are adopted, whichever occurs first. The temporary rules shall be effective upon adoption by the commissioner and shall be published in the State Register as soon thereafter as possible.

Sec. 9. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 8 are effective the day following final enactment.

The penalty shall be fixed by the commissioner as a percentage of the overexpenditure caused by improper administration, beyond an initial tolerated amount~~ of overexpenditure. In the event that fiscal sanctions are imposed by the federal government because of improper administration of the programs, one half of the amount of the sanctions attributable to local agency performance shall be deducted from administrative reimbursement otherwise due the county. Allocate federal fiscal disallowances or sanctions which are based on quality control error rates for the aid to families with dependent children, medical assistance, or food stamp program in the following manner:

(a) One-half of the total amount of the disallowance shall be borne by the county boards responsible for administering the programs and shall be shared by each county board in the same proportion as that county's expenditures for the sanctioned program are to the total of all counties' expenditures for that program. Each county shall pay its share of the disallowance to the state of Minnesota. When a county fails to pay the amount due hereunder, the commissioner may deduct the amount from reimbursement otherwise due the county, or the attorney general, upon the request of the commissioner, may institute civil action to recover the amount due.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a), if the disallowance results from knowing noncompliance by one or more counties with a specific program instruction, and that knowing noncompliance is a matter of official county board record, the commissioner may require payment or recover from the county or counties, in the manner prescribed in paragraph (a), an amount equal to the portion of the total disallowance which resulted from the noncompliance, and may distribute the balance of the disallowance according to paragraph (a).

A local agency or applicant or recipient, patient or relative aggrieved by a ruling of a local welfare referee may appeal the ruling to the state agency by filing a notice of appeal with the state agency within 30 days after receiving the ruling of the local welfare referee. A state welfare referee shall conduct a hearing on the matter and shall recommend an order to the commissioner of public welfare. In appeals from rulings of local welfare referees, the hearing may be limited, upon stipulation of the parties, to a review of the record of the local welfare referee.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256.82, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

[IN GENERAL.] For the biennium ending June 30, ~~1983~~ 1985, the annual increase in the cost per service unit paid to any vendor under medical assistance and general assistance medical care shall not exceed ~~eight~~ five percent. The period for measuring growth shall be the state fiscal year, except that the five percent annual increase limitation applied to vendors under this subdivision does not apply to nursing homes licensed under chapter 144A or boarding care homes licensed under sections 144.50 to 144.56. The estimated acquisition cost of prescription drug ingredients is not subject to the five percent increase limit, any general state payment reduction, or cost limitation described in this section, except as required under federal law or regulation. For vendors enrolled in the general assistance medical care program, the annual increase in cost per service unit allowable during state fiscal year 1984 shall not exceed five percent. The basis for measuring growth shall be the cost per service unit that would have been reimbursable in state fiscal year 1983 if payments had not been rateably reduced and if payments had been based on the 50th percentile of usual and customary billings for medical assistance in 1978. The increase in cost per service unit allowable for vendors in the general assistance medical care program during state fiscal year 1985 shall not exceed five percent. The basis for measuring growth shall be state fiscal year 1984.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256.967, is amended to read:

256.967 [MEDICAL CARE PAYMENTS; LIMITATIONS ON FEES.]

For the biennium ending June 30, 1985, all payments for vendors of medical care under general assistance medical care shall be based upon this standard: the 50th percentile of usual and customary fees based upon medical assistance billings during calendar year 1978. All payments for vendors of medical care under medical assistance shall be limited to the 50th percentile of usual and customary fees based upon billings during calendar year 1979 for physician services, dental care, vision care, podiatric services, chiropractic care, physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech pathologists, audiologists, mental health centers, psychologists, public health clinics, and independent laboratory and x-ray services.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256.968, is amended to read:

256.968 [LIMITATION ON INPATIENT CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY TREATMENT.]

The commissioner of public welfare shall limit medical assistance and general assistance medical care reimbursement for treatment of alcoholism, chemical dependency or drug addiction which is rendered in a licensed hospital or certified nursing home to ~~40~~ 30 days unless need for extended care is certified by the attending physician and has received prior approval from the commissioner.

Sec. 9. [256.969] [INPATIENT HOSPITALS.]

Subdivision 1. [ANNUAL COST INDEX.] The commissioner of public welfare shall develop a prospective payment system for inpatient hospital service under the medical assistance and general assistance medical care programs. Rates paid to licensed hospitals for rate years beginning during the fiscal biennium ending June 30, 1985, shall not exceed an annual hospital cost index for the final rate allowed to the hospital for the preceding year not to exceed five percent in any event. The annual hospital cost index shall be obtained from an independent source representing a statewide average of inflation estimates determined for expense categories to include salaries, employee benefits, medical fees, raw food, medical supplies, pharmaceuticals, utilities, repairs and maintenance, insurance other than malpractice insurance, and other applicable expenses as determined by the commissioner. The index shall reflect the regional differences within the state and include a one percent increase to reflect changes in technology. The annual hospital cost index shall be published 30 days before the start of each calendar quarter and shall be applicable to all hospitals whose fiscal years start on or during the calendar quarter.

Subd. 2. [RATES FOR INPATIENT HOSPITALS.] Rates paid to inpatient hospitals shall be based on a rate per admission.

Subd. 3. [SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS.] In determining the rate, the commissioner of public welfare will take into consideration whether the following circumstances exist:

(a) minimal medical assistance and general assistance medical care utilization;

(b) unusual length of stay experience; and

(c) disproportionate numbers of low income patients served.

Subd. 4. [APPEALS BOARD.] An appeals board shall be established for purposes of hearing reports for changes in the rate per admission. The appeals board shall consist of two public representatives, two representatives of the hospital industry, and one representative of the business or consumer community. The appeals board shall advise the commissioner on adjustments to hospital rates under this section.

Subd. 5. [APPEAL RIGHTS.] Nothing in this section supersedes the contested case provisions of chapter 14, the Administrative Procedure Act.

Subd. 6. [RULES.] The commissioner of public welfare shall promulgate temporary and permanent rules to implement a system of prospective payment for inpatient hospital services pursuant to chapter 14, the Administrative Procedure Act.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.02, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. "Medical assistance" or "medical care" means payment of part or all of the cost of the following care and services for eligible individuals whose income and resources are insufficient to meet all of such cost:

(1) Inpatient hospital services. A second medical opinion is required prior to reimbursement for elective surgeries. The commissioner shall publish in the State Register a proposed list of elective surgeries that require a second medical opinion prior to reimbursement. The list is not subject to the requirements of sections 14.01 to 14.70. The commissioner's decision whether a second medical opinion is required, made in accordance with rules governing that decision, is not subject to administrative appeal.

(2) Skilled nursing home services and services of intermediate care facilities.

(3) Physicians' services.

(4) Outpatient hospital or nonprofit community health clinic services or physician-directed clinic services. The physician-directed clinic staff shall include at least two physicians, one of whom is on the premises whenever the clinic is open, and all services shall be provided under the direct supervision of the physician who is on the premises. Hospital outpatient departments are subject to the same limitations and reimbursements as other enrolled vendors for all services, except initial triage, emergency services, and services not provided or immediately available in clinics, physicians' offices, or by other enrolled providers. "Emergency services" means those medical services required for the immediate diagnosis and treatment of medical conditions that, if not immediately diagnosed and treated, could lead to serious physical or mental disability or death or are necessary to alleviate severe pain. Neither the hospital, its employees, nor any physician or dentist, shall be liable in any action arising out of a determination not to render emergency services or care if reasonable care is exercised in determining the condition of the person, or in determining the appropriateness of the facilities, or the qualifications and availability of personnel to render these services consistent with this section.

(5) Community mental health center services, as defined in rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to section 256B.04, subdivision 2, and provided by a community mental health center as defined in section 245.62, subdivision 2.

~~(9)~~ (10) Laboratory and x-ray services.

~~(10)~~(11) The following if prescribed by a licensed practitioner: drugs, eyeglasses, dentures, and prosthetic devices. The commissioner shall designate a formulary committee which shall advise the commissioner on the names of drugs for which payment shall be made, recommend a system for reimbursing providers on a set fee or charge basis rather than the present system, and develop methods encouraging use of generic drugs when they are less expensive and equally effective as trademark drugs. The commissioner shall appoint the formulary committee members no later than 30 days following July 1, 1981. The formulary committee shall consist of nine members, four of whom shall be physicians who are not employed by the department of public welfare, and a majority of whose practice is for persons paying privately or through health insurance, three of whom shall be pharmacists who are not employed by the department of public welfare, and a majority of whose practice is for persons paying privately or through health insurance, a consumer representative, and a nursing home representative. Committee members shall serve two year terms and shall serve without compensation. The commissioner may establish a drug formulary. Its establishment and publication shall not be subject to the requirements of the administrative procedure act, but the formulary committee shall review and comment on the formulary contents. Prior authorization may be required by the commissioner, with the consent of the drug formulary committee, before certain formulary drugs are eligible for payment. The formulary shall not include: drugs or products for which there is no federal funding; over the counter drugs, except for antacids, acetaminophen, family planning products, aspirin, insulin, prenatal vitamins, and vitamins for children under the age of seven; or any other over the counter drug identified by the commissioner, in consultation with the appropriate professional consultants under contract with or employed by the state agency, as necessary, appropriate and cost effective for the treatment of certain specified chronic diseases, conditions or disorders, and this determination shall not be subject to the requirements of chapter 14, the Administrative Procedure Act; nutritional products, except for those products needed for treatment of phenylketonuria, hyperlysinemia, maple syrup urine disease, a combined allergy to human milk, cow milk, and soy formula, or any other childhood or adult diseases, conditions, or disorders identified by the commissioner as requiring a similarly necessary nutritional product; anorectics; and drugs for which medical value has not been established. Separate payment shall not be made for nutritional products for residents of long term care facilities; payment for dietary requirements is a component of the per diem rate paid to these facilities. Payment to drug vendors shall not be modified before the formulary is established except that the commissioner shall not permit payment for any drugs which may not by law be included in the formulary, and his determination shall not be subject to chapter 14, the Administrative Procedure Act. The commissioner ~~may promulgate~~ shall publish conditions for prohibiting payment for specific drugs after considering the formulary committee's recommendations.

The basis for determining the amount of payment shall be the actual acquisition costs of the drugs plus a fixed dispensing fee established by the commissioner. Actual acquisition cost includes quantity and other special discounts except time and cash discounts. Establishment of this fee shall not be subject to the requirements of the administrative procedure act. Whenever a generically equivalent product is available, payment shall be on the basis of the actual acquisition cost of the generic drug, unless the prescriber specifically indicates "dispense as written" on the prescription as required by section 151.21, subdivision 2.

Notwithstanding the above provisions, implementation of any change in the fixed dispensing fee which has not been subject to the administrative procedure act shall be limited to not more than 180 days, unless, during that time, the commissioner shall have initiated rulemaking through the administrative procedure act.

(b) The pregnancy is the result of criminal sexual conduct as defined in section 609.342, clauses (c), (d), (e)(i), and (f), and the incident is reported within 48 hours after the incident occurs to a valid law enforcement agency for investigation, unless the victim is physically unable to report the criminal sexual conduct, in which case the report shall be made within 48 hours after the victim becomes physically able to report the criminal sexual conduct; or

(c) The pregnancy is the result of incest, but only if the incident and relative are reported to a valid law enforcement agency for investigation prior to the abortion.

~~(14)~~ (15) Transportation costs incurred solely for obtaining emergency medical care or transportation costs incurred by non-ambulatory persons in obtaining emergency or non-emergency medical care when paid directly to an ambulance company, common carrier, or other recognized providers of transportation services. For the purpose of this clause, a person who is incapable of transport by taxicab or bus shall be considered to be non-ambulatory.

~~(15)~~ (16) To the extent authorized by rule of the state agency, costs of bus or taxicab transportation incurred by any ambulatory eligible person for obtaining non-emergency medical care.

Subd. 16. [UTILIZATION REVIEW.] Establish on a statewide basis a new program to safeguard against unnecessary or inappropriate use of medical assistance services, against excess payments, against unnecessary or inappropriate hospital admissions or lengths of stay, and against underutilization of services in pre-paid health plans, long term care facilities or any health care delivery system subject to fixed rate reimbursement. In implementing the program, the state agency shall utilize both pre-payment and post-payment review systems to determine if utilization is reasonable and necessary. The determination of whether services are reasonable and necessary shall be made by the commissioner in consultation with a professional services advisory group appointed by the commissioner. An aggrieved party may appeal the commissioner's determination pursuant to the contested case procedures of chapter 14.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.041, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ACCOUNT.] An account is established in the state treasury from which medical assistance payments to vendors shall be made. Into ~~such~~ this account there shall be deposited federal funds, state funds, county funds, and other moneys which are available and which may be paid to the state agency for medical assistance payments and reimbursements from counties or others for their share of such payments.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.041, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [PAYMENT BY COUNTY TO STATE TREASURER.] If required by federal law or rules promulgated thereunder, or by authorized regulation of the state agency, each county shall pay to the state treasurer the portion of medical assistance paid by the state for which it is responsible. The county's share of cost shall be ten percent of that portion not met by federal funds.

The county shall advance its portion of medical assistance costs, based upon estimates submitted by the state agency to the county agency, stating the estimated expenditures for the succeeding month. Upon the direction of the county agency, payment shall be made monthly by the county to the state for the estimated expenditures for each month. Adjustment of any overestimate or underestimate based on actual expenditures shall be made by the state agency by adjusting the estimate for any succeeding month.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.06, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Medical assistance may be paid for any person:

(1) Who is a child eligible for or receiving adoption assistance payments under Title IV-E of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 670 to 676; or

(2) Who is a child eligible for or receiving foster care maintenance payments under Title IV-E of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 670 to 676; or

(1) Who is a child eligible for or receiving adoption assistance payments under Title IV-E of the Social Security Act, ~~42 U.S.C. Sections 670 to 676~~ United States Code, title 42, sections 670 to 676; or

(2) Who is a child eligible for or receiving foster care maintenance payments under Title IV-E of the Social Security Act, ~~42 U.S.C. Sections 670 to 676~~ United States Code, title 42, sections 670 to 676; or

(3) Who is eligible for or receiving public assistance, or a woman who is pregnant, as medically verified, and who would be eligible for assistance under the aid to families with dependent children program if the child had been born and living with the woman; or

(4) Who is ~~eligible for or receiving~~ meets the categorical eligibility requirements of the supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled program and the other eligibility requirements of this section; or

(5) Who except for the amount of income or resources would qualify for supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled, or aid to families with dependent children and is in need of medical assistance; or

(6) Who is under 21 years of age and in need of medical care that neither he nor his relatives responsible under sections 256B.01 to 256B.26 are financially able to provide; or

(7) Who is residing in a hospital for treatment of mental disease or tuberculosis and is 65 years of age or older and without means sufficient to pay the per capita hospital charge; and

(8) Who resides in Minnesota, or, if absent from the state, is deemed to be a resident of Minnesota in accordance with the regulations of the state agency; and

(9) Who alone, or together with his spouse, does not own real property other than the homestead. For the purposes of this section, "homestead" means the house owned and occupied by the applicant as his dwelling place, together with the land upon which it is situated and an area no greater than two contiguous lots in a platted or laid out city or town or 80 contiguous acres in unplatted land. Occupancy or exemption shall be determined as provided in chapter 510 and applicable law, including continuing exemption by filing notice under section 510.07. Real estate not used as a home may not be retained unless it produces net income applicable to the family's needs or the family is making a continuing effort to sell it at a fair and reasonable price or unless sale of the real estate would net an insignificant amount of income applicable to the family's needs, or unless the commissioner determines that sale of the real estate would cause undue hardship; and

(10) Who individually does not own more than ~~$2,000~~ $3,000 in cash or liquid assets, or if a member of a household with two family members (husband and wife, or parent and child), does not own more than ~~$4,000~~ $6,000 in cash or liquid assets, plus $200 for each additional legal dependent. Cash and liquid assets may include a prepaid funeral contract and insurance policies with cash surrender value. The value of the following shall not be included:

(a) the homestead, and (b) one motor vehicle licensed pursuant to chapter 168 and defined as: (1) passenger automobile, (2) station wagon, (3) motorcycle, (4) motorized bicycle or (5) truck of the weight found in categories A to E, of section 168.013, subdivision 1e; and

(11) Who has or anticipates receiving an annual income not in excess of $2,600 for a single person, or $3,250 for two family members (husband and wife, parent and child, or two siblings), plus $625 for each additional legal dependent, or who has income in excess of these maxima and in the month of application, or during the three months prior to the month of application, incurs expenses for medical care that total more than one-half of the annual excess income in accordance with the regulations of the state agency. In computing income to determine eligibility of persons who are not residents of long term care facilities, the commissioner shall disregard increases in income of social security or supplementary security income recipients due solely to increases required by sections 215(i) and 1617 of the social security act, and shall disregard income of disabled persons that is also disregarded in determining eligibility for supplemental aid under section 256D.37, subdivision 1, due solely to increases in federal retiree, survivor's, and disability insurance benefits, veterans administration benefits, and railroad retirement benefits in the percentage amount established in the biennial appropriations law unless prohibited by federal law or regulation. If prohibited, the commissioner shall first seek a waiver. In excess income cases, eligibility shall be limited to a period of six months beginning with the first of the month in which these medical obligations are first incurred; and

(12) Who has continuing monthly expenses for medical care that are more than the amount of his excess income, computed on a monthly basis, in which case eligibility may be established before the total income obligation referred to in the preceding paragraph is incurred, and medical assistance payments may be made to cover the monthly unmet medical need. In licensed nursing home and state hospital cases, income over and above that required for justified needs, determined pursuant to a schedule of contributions established by the commissioner of public welfare, is to be applied to the cost of institutional care. The commissioner of public welfare may establish a schedule of contributions to be made by the spouse of a nursing home resident to the cost of care and shall seek a waiver from federal regulations which establish the amount required to be contributed by either spouse when one spouse is a nursing home resident; and

(13) Who has applied or agrees to apply all proceeds received or receivable by him or his spouse from automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage to the costs of medical care for himself, his spouse, and children. The state agency may require from any applicant or recipient of medical assistance the assignment of any rights accruing under private health care coverage. Any rights or amounts so assigned shall be applied against the cost of medical care paid for under this chapter. Any assignment shall not be effective as to benefits paid or provided under automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage prior to receipt of the assignment by the person or organization providing the benefits.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.061, is amended to read:

256B.061 [ELIGIBILITY.]

If any individual has been determined to be eligible for medical assistance, it will be made available to him for care and services included under the plan and furnished in or after the third month before the month in which he made application for such assistance, if such individual was, or upon application would have been, eligible for medical assistance at the time the care and services were furnished. The commissioner may limit, restrict, or suspend the eligibility of an individual for up to one year upon that individual's conviction of a criminal offense related to his application for or receipt of medical assistance benefits.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.064, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [GROUNDS FOR MONETARY RECOVERY AND SANCTIONS AGAINST VENDORS.] The commissioner may seek monetary recovery and impose sanctions against vendors of medical care for any of the following: fraud, theft, or abuse in connection with the provision of medical care to recipients of public assistance; a pattern of presentment of false or duplicate claims or claims for services not medically necessary; a pattern of making false statements of material facts for the purpose of obtaining greater compensation than that to which the vendor is legally entitled; suspension or termination as a Medicare vendor; and refusal to grant the state agency access during regular business hours to examine all records necessary to disclose the extent of services provided to program recipients. No sanction may be imposed or monetary recovery obtained against any vendor of nursing home or convalescent care for providing services not medically necessary when the services provided were ordered by a licensed health professional not an employee of the vendor. The determination of ~~abuse or~~ services not medically necessary shall be made by the commissioner in consultation with a ~~review organization as defined in section 145.61 or other provider advisory committees as committee~~ appointed by the commissioner on the recommendation of appropriate professional organizations.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.07, is amended to read:

256B.07 [EXCEPTIONS IN DETERMINING RESOURCES.]

A local agency may, within the scope of regulations set by the commissioner of public welfare, waive the requirement of liquidation of excess assets when the liquidation would cause undue hardship. Household goods and furniture in use in the home, wearing apparel, ~~insurance policies with cash surrender value not in excess of $1,500 per insured person, and personal property used as a regular abode by the applicant or recipient; a prepaid funeral contract not in excess of $750 per person plus accrued interest of not more than $200,~~ and a lot in a burial plot shall not be considered as resources available to meet medical needs.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.14, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ACTIONS TO OBTAIN PAYMENT.] The state agency shall promulgate rules to determine the ability of responsible relatives to contribute partial or complete repayment of medical assistance furnished to recipients for whom they are responsible. In determining the resource contribution of a spouse at the time of the first medical assistance application, all medical assistance exclusions shall be allowed, and a resource limit of $10,000 for nonexcluded resources shall be implemented. Above these limits, a contribution of one-third of the excess resources shall be required. These rules shall not require repayment when payment would cause undue hardship to the responsible relative or his or her immediate family. The county agency shall give the responsible relative notice of the amount of the repayment. If the state agency or county agency finds that notice of the payment obligation was given to the responsible relative, but that the relative failed or refused to pay, a cause of action exists against the responsible relative for that portion of medical assistance granted after notice was given to the responsible relative, which the relative was determined to be able to pay.

The action may be brought by the state agency or the county agency in the county where assistance was granted, for the assistance, together with the costs of disbursements incurred due to the action.

In addition to granting the county or state agency a money judgment, the court may, upon a motion or order to show cause, order continuing contributions by a responsible relative found able to repay the county or state agency. The order shall be effective only for the period of time during which the recipient receives medical assistance from the county or state agency.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.17, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PERIOD OF INELIGIBILITY.] ~~In any case where the uncompensated value of transferred resources exceeds $12,000, the commissioner shall require a period of ineligibility which exceeds 24 months, provided that the period of ineligibility bears a reasonable relationship to the excess uncompensated value of the transferred asset~~ For any uncompensated transfer, the period of ineligibility shall be calculated by dividing the transferred amount by the statewide average monthly skilled nursing facility per diem for the previous calendar year to determine the number of months of ineligibility. The individual shall remain ineligible until this fixed ineligibility period has expired, subject to the exclusions contained in section 15.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.17, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [EXCLUSIONS FOR HOMESTEAD TRANSFERS.] Notwithstanding subdivision 4, an individual shall not be ineligible if the transferred property is a homestead as defined by section 256B.06, subdivision 1, and one of the following conditions applies:

(1) a satisfactory showing is made that the individual can reasonably be expected to return to the homestead as a permanent residence;

(2) title to the home was transferred to the individual's spouse, child who is under age 21, or blind or permanently and totally disabled child as defined in the supplemental security income program;

(3) a satisfactory showing is made that the individual intended to dispose of the home at fair market value or for other valuable consideration; or

(4) the local agency determines that denial of eligibility would cause undue hardship for the individual, based on imminent threat to the individual's health and well-being.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.17, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [EXCEPTION FOR ASSET TRANSFERS.] Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions 1 through 5, an institutionalized spouse who applies for medical assistance on or after July 1, 1983, may transfer liquid assets to his or her noninstitutionalized spouse without loss of eligibility if all of the following conditions apply:

(a) The noninstitutionalized spouse is not applying for or receiving assistance;

(b) The noninstitutionalized spouse has less than $10,000 in liquid assets, including assets singly owned and 50 percent of assets owned jointly with the institutionalized spouse;

(c) The amount transferred, together with the noninstitutionalized spouse's own assets, totals no more than $10,000 in liquid assets; and

(d) The transfer may be effected only once, at the time of initial medical assistance application.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.17, is amended by adding subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [CONFORMANCE WITH FEDERAL LAW.] Notwithstanding the other provisions of this section, uncompensated property transfers shall be treated no more restrictively than allowed by federal law.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.17, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [EFFECTIVE DATE.] Subdivisions 5, 6, and 7, and the changes in subdivision 4 made by section 20 apply to transfers made on or after the effective date of sections 20 to 23, regardless of the individual's status in relation to eligibility for medical assistance.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.27, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. The commissioner of public welfare, with the written consent of the recipient, on file with the local welfare agency, shall be allowed access to all personal medical records of medical assistance recipients solely for the purposes of investigating whether or not: (a) a vendor of medical care has submitted a claim for reimbursement, a cost report or a rate application which the vendor knows to be false in whole or in part; or (b) the medical care was medically necessary. The vendor of medical care shall receive notification from the commissioner at least 24 hours before the commissioner gains access to such records. The determination of ~~abuse or~~ provision of services not medically necessary shall be made by the commissioner in consultation with a ~~review organization as defined in section 145.61 or other~~ an advisory ~~committees~~ committee of vendors as appointed by the commissioner on the recommendation of appropriate professional organizations. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, a vendor of medical care shall not be subject to any civil or criminal liability for providing access to medical records to the commissioner of public welfare pursuant to this section.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.27, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [AUTHORIZATION OF COMMISSIONER TO EXAMINE RECORDS.] ~~No~~ A person ~~shall determined to~~ be eligible for medical assistance ~~unless he has~~ shall be deemed to have authorized the commissioner of public welfare in writing to examine all personal medical records developed while receiving medical assistance for the purpose of investigating whether or not a vendor has submitted a claim for reimbursement, a cost report or a rate application which the vendor knows to be false in whole or in part, or in order to determine whether or not the medical care provided was medically necessary. ~~A vendor of medical care shall require presentation of this written authorization before the state agency can obtain access to the records unless the vendor already has received written authorization.~~

Sec. 27. [256B.70] [PREPAYMENT DEMONSTRATION PROJECT.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] The commissioner of public welfare shall establish a medical assistance demonstration project to determine whether prepayment combined with better management of health care services is an effective mechanism to ensure that all eligible individuals receive necessary health care in a coordinated fashion while containing costs. For the purposes of this project, waiver of certain statutory provisions is necessary in accordance with this section.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given.

(a) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of public welfare. For the remainder of this section, the commissioner's responsibilities for methods and policies for implementing the project will be proposed by the project advisory committees and approved by the commissioner.

(b) "Demonstration provider" means an individual, agency, organization, or group of these entities that participates in the demonstration project according to criteria, standards, methods, and other requirements established for the project and approved by the commissioner.

(c) "Eligible individuals" means those persons eligible for medical assis-

(d) "Limitation of choice" means suspending freedom of choice while allowing eligible individuals to choose among the demonstration providers.

Subd. 3. [GEOGRAPHIC AREA.] The commissioner shall designate the geographic areas in which eligible individuals may be included in the demonstration project. The geographic areas shall include one urban, one suburban, and at least one rural county. In order to encourage the participation of long-term care providers, the project area may be expanded beyond the designated counties for eligible individuals over age 65.

Subd. 4. [LIMITATION OF CHOICE.] The commissioner shall develop criteria to determine when limitation of choice may be implemented in the experimental counties. The criteria shall ensure that all eligible individuals in the county have continuing access to the full range of medical assistance services as specified in subdivision 6. Before limitation of choice is implemented, eligible individuals shall be notified and after notification, shall be allowed to choose only among demonstration providers. After initially choosing a provider, the recipient is allowed to change that choice only at specified times as allowed by the commissioner.

Subd. 5. [PROSPECTIVE PER CAPITA PAYMENT.] The project advisory committees with the commissioner shall establish the method and amount of payments for services. The commissioner shall annually contract with demonstration providers to provide services consistent with these established methods and amounts for payment. Notwithstanding section 62D.02, subdivision 1, payments for services rendered as part of the project may be made to providers that are not licensed health maintenance organizations on a risk-based, prepaid capitation basis.

If allowed by the commissioner, a demonstration provider may contract with an insurer, health care provider, nonprofit health service plan corporation, or the commissioner, to provide insurance or similar protection against the cost of care provided by the demonstration provider or to provide coverage against the risks incurred by demonstration providers under this section. The recipients enrolled with a demonstration provider are a permissible group under group insurance laws and chapter 62C, the Nonprofit Health Service Plan Corporations Act. Under this type of contract, the insurer or corporation may make benefit payments to a demonstration provider for services rendered or to be rendered to a recipient. Any insurer or nonprofit health service plan corporation licensed to do business in this state is authorized to provide this insurance or similar protection.

Payments to providers participating in the project are exempt from the requirements of sections 256.966 and 256B.03, subdivision 2. The commissioner shall complete development of capitation rates for payments before delivery of services under this section is begun.

Subd. 6. [SERVICE DELIVERY.] Each demonstration provider shall be responsible for the health care coordination for eligible individuals. Demonstration providers:

(a) Shall authorize and arrange for the provision of all needed health services including but not limited to the full range of services listed in section 256B.02, subdivision 8, in order to ensure appropriate health care is delivered to enrollees;

(b) Shall accept the prospective, per capita payment from the commissioner in return for the provision of comprehensive and coordinated health care services for eligible individuals enrolled in the program;

(c) May contract with other health care and social service practitioners to provide services to enrollees; and

(d) Shall institute recipient grievance procedures according to the method established by the project, utilizing applicable requirements of chapter 62D. Disputes not resolved through this process shall be appealable to the commissioner as provided in subdivision 11.

Subd. 7. [ENROLLEE BENEFITS.] All eligible individuals enrolled by demonstration providers shall receive all needed health care services as defined in subdivision 6.

All enrolled individuals have the right to appeal if necessary services are not being authorized as defined in subdivision 11.

Subd. 8. [PREADMISSION SCREENING WAIVER.] Except as applicable to the project's operation, the provisions of section 256B.091 are waived for the purposes of this section for recipients enrolled with demonstration providers.

Subd. 9. [REPORTING.] Each demonstration provider shall submit information as required by the commissioner, including data required for assessing client satisfaction, quality of care, cost, and utilization of services for purposes of project evaluation. Required information shall be specified before the commissioner contracts with a demonstration provider.

Subd. 10. [INFORMATION.] Notwithstanding any law or rule to the contrary, the commissioner may allow disclosure of the recipient's identity solely for the purposes of (a) allowing demonstration providers to provide the information to the recipient regarding services, access to services, and other provider characteristics, and (b) facilitating monitoring of recipient satisfaction and quality of care. The commissioner shall develop and implement measures to protect recipients from invasions of privacy and from harassment.

Subd. 11. [APPEALS.] A recipient may appeal to the commissioner a demonstration provider's delay or refusal to provide services. The commissioner shall appoint a panel of health practitioners, including social service practitioners, as necessary to determine the necessity of services provided or refused to a recipient. The deliberations and decisions of the panel replace the administrative review process otherwise available under chapter 256B. The panel shall follow the time requirements and other provisions of the Code of Federal Regulations, title 42, sections 431.200 to 431.246. The time requirements shall be expedited based on request by the individual who is appealing for emergency services. If a service is determined to be necessary and is included among the benefits for which a recipient is enrolled, the service must be provided by the demonstration provider as specified in subdivision 5. The panel's decision is a final agency action that may be appealed under the contested case provisions of chapter 14.

Sec. 28. [256B.71] [DEMONSTRATION PROJECT WAIVER.]

Each hospital that participates as a provider in a demonstration project, established by the commissioner of public welfare to deliver medical assistance services on a prepaid, capitation basis, is exempt from the prospective payment system for inpatient hospital service during the period of its participation in that project.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256D.03, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [GENERAL ASSISTANCE MEDICAL CARE; ELIGIBILITY.] ~~State aid shall be paid to local agencies or counties for 90 percent of the cost of general assistance medical care paid by the local agency or county pursuant to section 256D.02, subdivision 4a on behalf of persons eligible according to standards established by the commissioner of public welfare in accordance with the rates established by rule of the commissioner. Persons eligible for benefits under sections 256D.01 to 256D.21 and persons not eligible for federal health care benefits whose nonexempt property, as determined according to medical assistance standards, has an equity value no greater than $1,000 and whose income is not in excess of the medical assistance standards shall be eligible for general assistance medical care and have free choice in the selection of a vendor of the medical care. Any local agency or county may, from its own resources, make payments for medical care for persons not otherwise eligible for the care pursuant to standards established by the commissioner. The commissioner shall encourage county boards to submit proposals for demonstration projects designed to provide services in an economical manner or to control utilization, with safeguards to ensure that necessary services are provided. Payment for services provided pursuant to this subdivision shall be as provided to medical assistance vendors of these services under section 256B.02, subdivision 8, except that where counties enter into prepaid capitation agreements, payments shall be as provided in section 256.966, subdivision 2.*

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 252.28, is amended to read:

252.28 [COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC WELFARE; DUTIES.]

Subdivision 1. [DETERMINATIONS; BIENNIAL REDETERMINATIONS.] The commissioner of public welfare ~~may~~ shall determine, and shall redetermine biennially, the need, location, size, and program of public and private residential and day care facilities and services for mentally retarded children and adults.

Subd. 2. [RULES; PROGRAM STANDARDS; LICENSES.] The commissioner of public welfare shall:

(1) Establish uniform rules, regulations and program standards for each type of residential and day facility or service for ~~more than four~~ mentally retarded persons, including state institutions under control of the commissioner and serving mentally retarded persons, and excluding mentally retarded persons residing with their families.

(2) Grant licenses according to the provisions of Laws 1976, chapter 243, sections 2 to 13.

Subd. 3. [LICENSING DETERMINATIONS.] (1) No new license shall be granted pursuant to this section when the issuance of the license would substantially contribute to an excessive concentration of community residential facilities within any town, municipality or county of the state.

(2) In determining whether a license shall be issued pursuant to this subdivision, the commissioner of public welfare shall specifically consider the population, size, land use plan, availability of community services and the number and size of existing public and private community residential facilities in the town, municipality or county in which a licensee seeks to operate a residence. Under no circumstances may the commissioner newly license any facility pursuant to this section except as provided in section 245.812. The commissioner of public welfare shall establish uniform rules and regulations to implement the provisions of this subdivision.

(3) Licenses for community facilities and services shall be issued pursuant to section 245.821.

Subd. 4. [RULES; DECERTIFICATION OF BEDS.] The commissioner shall promulgate in rule criteria for decertification of beds in intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded, and shall encourage providers in voluntary decertification efforts. The commissioner shall not recommend to the commissioner of health the involuntary decertification of an intermediate care facility for beds for the mentally retarded prior to the availability of appropriate services for those residents affected by the decertification. The commissioner of health shall decertify those intermediate care beds determined to be not needed by the commissioner of welfare.

Sec. 3. [252.291] [LIMITATION ON DETERMINATION OF NEED.]

Subdivision 1. [MORATORIUM.] Notwithstanding section 252.28, subdivision 1, or any other law or rule to the contrary, the commissioner of public welfare shall deny any request for a determination of need and refuse to grant a license pursuant to section 245.782 for any new intermediate care facility for mentally retarded persons or for an increase in the licensed capacity of an existing facility except as provided in subdivision 2. In no event shall the total of certified intermediate care beds for mentally retarded persons in community facilities and state hospitals exceed 7,500 beds as of July 1, 1983, and 7,000 beds as of July 1, 1986. "Certified bed" means an intermediate care bed for the mentally retarded certified by the commissioner of health for the purposes of the medical assistance program under United States Code, title 42, sections 1396 to 1396p, as amended through December 31, 1982.

Subd. 2. [EXCEPTIONS.] The commissioner of public welfare in coordination with the commissioner of health may approve a new intermediate care facility for mentally retarded persons only in the following circumstances:

(a) when the facility is developed in accordance with a request for proposal system established pursuant to subdivision 3, clause (b);

(b) when the facility is necessary to serve the needs of identifiable mentally retarded persons who are seriously behaviorally disordered or who are physically or sensorily impaired; or

(c) to license beds in new facilities where need was determined by the commissioner prior to the effective date of this section.

Subd. 3. [DUTIES OF COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC WELFARE.] The commissioner shall:

(a) establish standard admission criteria for state hospitals and county utilization targets to limit and reduce the number of intermediate care beds in state hospitals and community facilities in accordance with approved waivers under United States Code, title 42, sections 1396 to 1396p, as amended through December 31, 1982, to assure that appropriate services are provided in the least restrictive setting;

(b) provide technical assistance so that county boards may establish a request for proposal system for meeting individual service plan objectives through home and community-based services; alternative community services; or, if no other alternative will meet the needs of identifiable individuals for whom the county is financially responsible, a new intermediate care facility for mentally retarded persons; and

(c) establish a client tracking and evaluation system as required under applicable federal waiver regulations, Code of Federal Regulations, title 42, sections 431, 435, 440, and 441, as amended through December 31, 1982.

(d) develop a state plan for the delivery and funding of residential day and support services to the mentally retarded in Minnesota and submit that plan to the clerk of each house of the Minnesota legislature on or before the 15th of January of each biennium beginning January 15, 1985. The biennial mental retardation plan shall include but not be limited to:

- (1) county by county maximum intermediate care bed utilization quotas;*
- (2) plans for the development of the number and types of services alternative to intermediate care beds;*
- (3) procedures for the administration and management of the plan;*
- (4) procedures for the evaluation of the implementation of the plan; and*
- (5) the number, type, and location of intermediate care beds targeted for decertification.*

The commissioner shall modify the plan to ensure conformance with the medical assistance home and community-based services waiver.

Subd. 4. [MONITORING.] The commissioner of public welfare, in coordination with the commissioner of health, shall implement mechanisms to monitor and analyze the effect of the bed moratorium in the different geographic areas of the state. The commissioner of public welfare shall submit to the legislature annually beginning January 15, 1984, an assessment of the impact of the moratorium by geographic areas.

Subd. 5. [RULEMAKING.] The commissioner of public welfare shall promulgate temporary and permanent rules pursuant to chapter 14, the Administrative Procedure Act, to implement this section.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.02, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [MEDICAL ASSISTANCE; MEDICAL CARE.] "Medical assistance" or "medical care" means payment of part or all of the cost of the following care and services for eligible individuals whose income and resources are insufficient to meet all of such this cost:

- (1) inpatient hospital services-;*
- (2) skilled nursing home services and services of intermediate care facili-* ties-, including training and habilitation services, as defined in section 256B.50, subdivision 1, for mentally retarded individuals residing in intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded;

- (3) physicians' services-;
- (4) outpatient hospital or clinic services-;
- (5) home health care services-;
- (6) private duty nursing services-;
- (7) physical therapy and related services-;
- (8) dental services, excluding cast metal restorations-;
- (9) laboratory and x-ray services-;

(10) the following if prescribed by a licensed practitioner: drugs, eye-glasses, dentures, and prosthetic devices. The commissioner shall designate a formulary committee which shall advise the commissioner on the names of drugs for which payment shall be made, recommend a system for reimbursing providers on a set fee or charge basis rather than the present system, and develop methods encouraging use of generic drugs when they are less expensive and equally effective as trademark drugs. The commissioner shall appoint the formulary committee members no later than 30 days following July 1, 1981. The formulary committee shall consist of nine members, four of whom shall be physicians who are not employed by the department of public welfare, and a majority of whose practice is for persons paying privately or through health insurance, three of whom shall be pharmacists who are not employed by the department of public welfare, and a majority of whose practice is for persons paying privately or through health insurance, a consumer representative, and a nursing home representative. Committee members shall serve two year terms and shall serve without compensation. The commissioner may establish a drug formulary. Its establishment and publication shall not be subject to the requirements of the administrative procedure act, but the formulary committee shall review and comment on the formulary contents. The formulary shall not include: drugs for which there is no federal funding; over the counter drugs, except for antacids, acetaminophen, family planning products, aspirin, insulin, prenatal vitamins, and vitamins for children under the age of seven; nutritional products; anorectics; and drugs for which medical value has not been established. Payment to drug vendors shall not be modified before the formulary is established. The commissioner may promulgate conditions for prohibiting payment for specific drugs after considering the formulary committee's recommendations.

The basis for determining the amount of payment shall be the actual acquisition costs of the drugs plus a fixed dispensing fee established by the commissioner. Actual acquisition cost includes quantity and other special discounts except time and cash discounts. Establishment of this fee shall not be subject to the requirements of the administrative procedure act. Whenever a generically equivalent product is available, payment shall be on the basis of the actual acquisition cost of the generic drug, unless the prescriber specifically indicates "dispense as written" on the prescription as required by section 151.21, subdivision 2.

Notwithstanding the above provisions, implementation of any change in the fixed dispensing fee which has not been subject to the administrative procedure act shall be limited to not more than 180 days, unless, during that time, the commissioner shall have initiated rulemaking through the administrative procedure act-;

(11) diagnostic, screening, and preventive services-;

(12) health care pre-payment plan premiums and insurance premiums if paid directly to a vendor and supplementary medical insurance benefits under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act-;

(13) abortion services, but only if one of the following conditions is met:

(a) The abortion is a medical necessity. "Medical necessity" means (1) the signed written statement of two physicians indicating the abortion is medically necessary to prevent the death of the mother, and (2) the patient has given her consent to the abortion in writing unless the patient is physically or legally incapable of providing informed consent to the procedure, in which case consent will be given as otherwise provided by law;

(b) The pregnancy is the result of criminal sexual conduct as defined in section 609.342, clauses (c), (d), (e)(i), and (f), and the incident is reported within 48 hours after the incident occurs to a valid law enforcement agency for investigation, unless the victim is physically unable to report the criminal sexual conduct, in which case the report shall be made within 48 hours after the victim becomes physically able to report the criminal sexual conduct; or

(c) The pregnancy is the result of incest, but only if the incident and relative are reported to a valid law enforcement agency for investigation prior to the abortion-;

(14) transportation costs incurred solely for obtaining emergency medical care or transportation costs incurred by non-ambulatory persons in obtaining emergency or non-emergency medical care when paid directly to an ambulance company, common carrier, or other recognized providers of transportation services. For the purpose of this clause, a person who is incapable of transport by taxicab or bus shall be considered to be non-ambulatory-;

(15) to the extent authorized by rule of the state agency, costs of bus or taxicab transportation incurred by any ambulatory eligible person for obtaining non-emergency medical care-; and

(16) any other medical or remedial care licensed and recognized under state law unless otherwise prohibited by law.

Sec. 5. [256B.092] [CASE MANAGEMENT OF MENTALLY RETARDED PERSONS.]

Subdivision 1. [COUNTY OF FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY; DUTIES.] Before any services shall be rendered to mentally retarded persons in need of social service and medical assistance, the county of financial responsibility shall conduct a diagnostic evaluation in order to determine whether the person is or may be mentally retarded. If a client is diagnosed mentally retarded, that county must conduct a needs assessment, develop an individual service plan, and authorize placement for services. If the county of financial responsibility places a client in another county for services, the placement shall be made in cooperation with the host county of service, and arrangements shall be made between the two counties for ongoing social service, including annual reviews of the client's individual service plan. The host county may not make changes in the service plan without approval by the county of financial responsibility.

Subd. 2. [MEDICAL ASSISTANCE.] To assure quality case management to those county clients who are eligible for medical assistance, the commissioner shall: (a) provide consultation on the case management process; (b) assist county agencies in the screening and annual reviews of clients to assure that appropriate levels of service are provided; (c) provide consultation on service planning and development of services with appropriate options; (d) provide training and technical assistance to county case managers; and (e) authorize payment for medical assistance services.

Subd. 3. [TERMINATION OF SERVICES.] County agency case managers, under rules of the commissioner, shall authorize and terminate services of community and state hospital providers in accordance with individual service plans. Medical assistance services not needed shall not be authorized by county agencies nor funded by the commissioner.

Subd. 4. [ALTERNATIVE HOME AND COMMUNITY BASED SERVICES.] The commissioner shall make payments to county boards participating in the medical assistance program to pay costs of providing alternative home and community based services to medical assistance eligible mentally retarded persons screened under subdivision 7. Payment is available under this subdivision only for persons who, if not provided these services, would require the level of care provided in an intermediate care facility for mentally retarded persons.

Subd. 5. [FEDERAL WAIVERS.] The commissioner shall apply for any federal waivers necessary to secure, to the extent allowed by law, federal financial participation under United States Code, title 42, sections 1396 to 1396p, as amended through December 31, 1982, for the provision of services to persons who, in the absence of the services, would need the level of care provided in a state hospital or a community intermediate care facility for mentally retarded persons. The commissioner may seek amendments to the waivers or apply for additional waivers under United States Code, title 42, sections 1396 to 1396p, as amended through December 31, 1982, to contain costs. The commissioner shall ensure that payment for the cost of providing home and community based alternative services under the federal waiver plan shall not exceed the cost of intermediate care services that would have been provided without the waived services.

Subd. 6. [RULES.] The commissioner shall adopt temporary and permanent rules to establish required controls, documentation, and reporting of services provided in order to assure proper administration of the approved waiver plan.

Subd. 7. [SCREENING TEAMS ESTABLISHED.] Each county agency shall establish a screening team which, under the direction of the county case manager, shall make an evaluation of need for home and community based services of persons who are entitled to the level of care provided by an intermediate care facility for mentally retarded persons or for whom there is a reasonable indication that they might need the services in the near future. The screening team shall make an evaluation of need within 15 working days of the request for service and within five working days of an emergency admission of an individual to an intermediate care facility for mentally retarded persons. The screening team shall consist of the case manager, the client, a parent or guardian, a qualified mental retardation professional, as defined in the Code of Federal Regulations, title 42, section 442.401, as amended through December 31, 1982, assigned by the commissioner. The case manager shall consult with the client's physician or other persons as necessary to make this evaluation. Other persons may be invited to attend meetings of the screening team. No member of the screening team shall have any direct or indirect service provider interest in the case.

Subd. 8. [SCREENING TEAM DUTIES.] The screening team shall:

(a) review diagnostic data;

(b) review health, social, and developmental assessment data using a uniform screening tool specified by the commissioner;

(c) identify the level of services needed to maintain the person in the most normal and least restrictive setting that is consistent with treatment needs;

(d) identify other noninstitutional public assistance or social service that may prevent or delay long-term residential placement;

(e) determine whether a client is in serious need of long-term residential care;

(f) make recommendations to the county agency regarding placement and payment for: (1) social service or public assistance support to maintain a client in the client's own home or other place of residence; (2) training and habilitation service, vocational rehabilitation, and employment training activities; (3) community residential placement; (4) state hospital placement; or (5) a home and community based alternative to community residential placement or state hospital placement;

(g) make recommendations to a court as may be needed to assist the court in making commitments of mentally retarded persons; and

(h) inform clients that appeal may be made to the commissioner pursuant to section 256.045.

Subd. 9. [REIMBURSEMENT.] Payment shall not be provided to a service provider for any recipient placed in an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded prior to the recipient being screened by the screening team. The commissioner shall not deny reimbursement for: (a) an individual admitted to an intermediate care facility for mentally retarded who is assessed to need long-term supportive services, if long-term supportive services other than intermediate care are not available in that community; (b) any individual admitted to an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded under emergency circumstances; (c) any eligible individual placed in the intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded pending an appeal of the screening team's decision; or (d) any medical assistance recipient when, after full discussion of all appropriate alternatives including those that are expected to be less costly than intermediate care for mentally retarded, the individual or the individual's legal representative insists on intermediate care placement. The screening team shall provide documentation that the most cost effective alternatives available were offered to this individual or the individual's legal representative.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256B.19, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [STUDY OF MEDICAL ASSISTANCE FINANCIAL PARTICIPATION.] The commissioner shall study the feasibility and outcomes of implementing a variable medical assistance county financial participation rate for long-term care services to mentally retarded persons in order to encourage the utilization of alternative services to long-term intermediate care for the mentally retarded. The commissioner shall submit his findings and recommendations to the legislature by January 20, 1984.

Sec. 7. [256B.50] [RATES FOR COMMUNITY-BASED SERVICES FOR THE MENTALLY RETARDED.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the meaning given them.

(a) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of public welfare.

(b) "Facility" means a facility licensed as a mental retardation residential facility under section 252.28, licensed as a supervised living facility under chapter 144, and certified as an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded.

(c) "Waivered service" means home or community-based service authorized under United States Code, title 42, section 1396n(c), as amended through December 31, 1982, and defined in the Minnesota state plan for the provision of medical assistance services. Waivered services include, at a minimum, case management, family training and support, developmental training homes, supervised living arrangements, semi-independent living services, respite care, and training and habilitation services.

(d) "Training and habilitation services" are those health and social services needed to ensure optimal functioning of persons who are mentally retarded or have related conditions. Training and habilitation services shall be provided to a client away from the residence unless medically contraindicated by an organization which does not have a direct or indirect financial interest in the organization which provides the person's residential services. This requirement shall not apply to any developmental achievement center which has applied for licensure prior to April 15, 1983.

Subd. 2. [AUTHORITY.] The commissioner shall establish procedures and rules for determining rates for care of residents of intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded which qualify as vendors of medical assistance, waivered services, and for provision of training and habilitation services. Approved rates shall be established on the basis of methods and standards that the commissioner finds adequate to provide for the costs that must be incurred for the quality care of residents in efficiently and economically operated facilities and services. The procedures shall specify the costs that are allowable for payment through medical assistance. The commissioner may use experts from outside the department in the establishment of the procedures.

Subd. 3. [RATES FOR INTERMEDIATE CARE FACILITIES FOR THE MENTALLY RETARDED.] The commissioner shall establish, by rule, procedures for determining rates for care of residents of intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded. The procedures shall be based on methods and standards that the commissioner finds are adequate to provide for the costs that must be incurred for the care of residents in efficiently and economically operated facilities. In developing the procedures, the commissioner shall include:

(a) cost containment measures that assure efficient and prudent management of capital assets and operating cost increases which do not exceed increases in other sections of the economy;

(b) limits on the amounts of reimbursement for property, general and administration, and new facilities;

(c) requirements to ensure that the accounting practices of the facilities conform to generally accepted accounting principles; and

(d) incentives to reward accumulation of equity.

In establishing rules and procedures for setting rates for care of residents in intermediate care facilities for mentally retarded persons, the commissioner shall consider the recommendations contained in the February 11, 1983, Report of the Legislative Auditor on Community Residential Programs for the Mentally Retarded and the recommendations contained in the 1982 Report of the Department of Public Welfare Rule 52 Task Force. Rates paid to supervised living facilities for rate years beginning during the fiscal biennium ending June 30, 1985, shall not exceed the final rate allowed the facility for the previous rate year by more than five percent.

Subd. 4. [WAIVERED SERVICES.] In establishing rates for waived services the commissioner shall consider the need for flexibility in the provision of those services to meet individual needs identified by the screening team.

Subd. 5. [TRAINING AND HABILITATION SERVICES.] (a) Except as provided in subdivision 6, rates for reimbursement under medical assistance for training and habilitation services provided by a developmental achievement center either as a waived service or to residents of an intermediate care facility for mentally retarded persons shall be established and paid in accordance with this subdivision effective January 1, 1984.

(b) Prior to August 1, 1983, the county board shall submit to the commissioner its contractual per diem rate and its maximum per client annual payment limitations, if any, for each developmental achievement center it administers pursuant to section 252.24, subdivision 1, for the period from July 1, 1983, through December 31, 1983, which shall be the medical assistance reimbursement rate established for that developmental achievement center for 1983. If the county rate is based on average daily attendance which is less than 93 percent of the developmental achievement center's average enrollment for the period from July 1, 1983, to December 31, 1983, the commissioner shall adjust that rate based on 93 percent average daily attendance.

(c) The base per diem reimbursement rate established for 1983 may be increased by the commissioner in 1984 in an amount up to the projected percentage change in the average value of the consumer price index (all urban) for 1984 over 1983. In subsequent years, the increase in the per diem rate shall not exceed the projected percentage change in the average annual value of the consumer price index (all urban) for the same time period.

(d) The county board in which an intermediate care facility for mentally retarded persons is located shall contract annually with that facility and with the appropriate developmental achievement center or training and habilitation service provider for provision of training and habilitation services for each resident of the facility for whom the services are required by the resident's individual service plan. This contract shall specify the county payment rate or the medical assistance reimbursement rate, as appropriate; the training and habilitation services to be provided; and the performance standards for program provision and evaluation. A similar contract shall be entered into between the county and the developmental achievement center for persons receiving training and habilitation services from that center as a waived service.

(e) The commissioner shall reimburse under medical assistance up to 210 days of training and habilitation services at developmental achievement centers for those centers which provided less than or equal to 210 days of training and habilitation services in calendar year 1982. For developmental achievement centers providing more than 210 days of services in 1982, the commissioner shall not reimburse under medical assistance in excess of the number of days provided by those programs in 1982.

(f) Medical assistance payments for training and habilitation services shall be made directly to the training and habilitation provider after submission of invoices to the medical assistance program following procedures established by the medical assistance program.

(g) Nothing in this subdivision shall prohibit county boards from contracting for rates for services not reimbursed under medical assistance.

Subd. 6. [NEW DEVELOPMENTAL ACHIEVEMENT PROGRAMS; RATES.] The commissioner, upon the recommendation of the local county board, shall determine the medical assistance reimbursement rate for new developmental achievement programs. The payment rate shall not exceed 125 percent of the average payment rate in the region.

Subd. 7. [ALTERNATIVE RATES FOR TRAINING AND HABILITATION SERVICES.] Alternative methods may be proposed by the counties or the commissioner for provision of training and habilitation services during daytime hours apart from a residential facility to persons for whom needs identified in their individual service plan are not met by the training and habilitation services provided at a developmental achievement center. The commissioner shall establish procedures for approval of the proposals and for medical assistance payment of rates which shall not exceed the average rate allowed in that county for training and habilitation services pursuant to subdivision 5. Nothing in this subdivision prohibits a county from contracting with a developmental achievement center for those purposes.

Subd. 8. [PAYMENT FOR PERSONS WITH SPECIAL NEEDS.] The commissioner shall establish by December 31, 1983, procedures to be followed by the counties to seek authorization from the commissioner for medical assistance reimbursement for waived services or training and habilitation services for very dependent persons with special needs in an amount in excess of the rates allowed pursuant to subdivisions 2, 4, 5, and 6, and procedures to be followed for rate limitation exemptions for intermediate care facilities for mentally retarded persons. No excess payment or limitation exemption shall be authorized unless the need for the service is documented in the individual service plan of the person or persons to be served, the type and duration of the services needed are stated, and there is a basis for estimated cost of the services.

The commissioner shall evaluate the services provided pursuant to this subdivision through program and fiscal audits.

Subd. 9. [REPORTING REQUIREMENTS.] The developmental achievement center shall submit to the county and the commissioner no later than March 1 of each year an annual report which includes the actual program revenues and expenditures, client information, and program information. The information shall be submitted on forms prescribed by the commissioner.

Subd. 10. [RULES.] To implement this section, the commissioner shall promulgate temporary and permanent rules in accordance with chapter 14. To implement subdivision 3, the commissioner shall promulgate temporary rules by October 1, 1983, and permanent rules in accordance with sections 14.01 to 14.38. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 14.35, the temporary rule promulgated to implement subdivision 3 shall be effective for up to 720 days.

Sec. 8. [RULES.]

To implement sections 1 to 7, the commissioner shall promulgate temporary and permanent rules in accordance with sections 14.01 to 14.38.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 256E.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [STATE TRANSFER OF FUNDS.] Notwithstanding subdivisions 1 and 2, for the purpose of funding training and habilitation services provided to residents of intermediate care facilities for mentally retarded persons as required under federal regulation, the commissioner is authorized to transfer on a quarterly basis to the medical assistance state account from each county's Community Social Services Act allocation an amount equal to the state share of medical assistance reimbursement for such services provided to clients for whom the county is financially responsible. Upon federal approval and state implementation of the state medical assistance plan, county boards will not be responsible for the funding of training and habilitation services as a social service to residents of intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded. County board responsibility for training and habilitation services shall be assumed under section 256B.20. County boards continue to be responsible for funding developmental achievement center services not covered under the medical assistance program established by United States Code, title 42, sections 1396 to 1396p, as amended through December 31, 1982, and shall develop contractual agreements for these services under the authority of chapter 256E.

Sec. 10. [IMPLEMENTATION; USE OF APPROPRIATION.]

(a) Up to 15 line item positions are authorized for the implementation of provisions of the case management plan, the home and community based services waiver program, assisting county agencies in screening clients for medical assistance services, technical assistance in developing community-based alternatives, and management of the mental retardation medical assistance program.

(b) The contingent appropriation for development and implementation of this project shall be expended with the approval of the governor after consulting with the legislative advisory commission as provided in section 3.30. Release of these funds shall also be contingent upon submission of a plan prepared by the commissioner. The plan shall describe the following:

(1) the organization, development, and responsibilities of requested staff;

(2) specification of all the administrative costs associated with the program;

(3) how the information system will be integrated into the community services information system, the medicaid management information system, and any other data processing operations of the department;

(4) the methods for implementing the system; and

(5) the projected costs for the maintenance and operation of the system.

The plan shall be submitted to the chairmen of the house appropriations and senate finance committees.

Sec. 11. [REPEALER.]

The provisions of sections 2, 3, 5, 7, subdivisions 1, 4, and 10 are repealed effective June 30, 1984, if a home and community based waiver under United States Code, title 42, section 1396n(c), as amended through December 31, 1982, is not approved by June 30, 1984.

Sec. 12. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

The commissioner shall develop this training program in consultation with experts in agricultural work environment hazards and an advisory task force appointed by the commissioner, consisting of three representatives of agricultural employers and three representatives of agricultural employees. The program shall be designed to fulfill the same purposes as training under subdivisions 4b and 4c of this section, but take into account factors unique to farming operations. These factors shall include but not be limited to the fact that many agricultural employees' primary language is Spanish and the fact that many chemicals used by agricultural employers are labeled under the Federal Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act. The commissioner shall complete implementation of this program within one and a half years after the effective date of this act.

Training shall be provided upon the initial assignment of the employee to a job where that person will be routinely exposed to an infectious agent. Existing in-service, hospital licensure or certification programs which the commissioner determines substantially comply with the rules adopted pursuant to this subdivision may be certified by the commissioner to satisfy all or a part of the rules. "Infectious agent" means a communicable bacterium, virus, or fungus determined by the commissioner by rule, with approval of the commissioner of health, which according to documented medical or scientific evidence causes substantial acute or chronic illness or permanent disability as a foreseeable and direct result of any routine exposure to the infectious agent. Infectious agent does not include an agent in or on the body of a patient before diagnosis.

Infectious agent does not include an agent being developed or regularly utilized by a technically qualified individual in a research, medical research, or medical diagnostic laboratory. The exemption in this clause does not include an infectious agent utilized in a laboratory that primarily provides a quality control analysis for a manufacturing process.

Employees who have been routinely exposed to an infectious agent prior to the effective date of this act and who continue to be routinely exposed to that infectious agent after the effective date of this act, shall be trained with respect to that infectious agent within six months of the effective date of this act.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 626.556, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [REPORT.] An oral report shall be made immediately by telephone or otherwise. be confidential. An individual subject of the report may obtain access to the original report as provided by subdivision 11.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 626.556, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [DUTIES OF LOCAL WELFARE AGENCY UPON RECEIPT OF A REPORT.] (a) If the report alleges neglect, physical abuse, or sexual abuse by a parent, guardian, or individual functioning within the family unit as a person responsible for the child's care, the local welfare agency shall immediately investigate and offer protective social services for purposes of preventing further abuses, safeguarding and enhancing the welfare of the abused or neglected minor, and preserving family life whenever possible. When necessary the local welfare agency shall seek authority to remove the child from the custody of his parent, guardian or adult with whom he is living. In performing any of these duties, the local welfare agency shall maintain appropriate records.

(b) Authority of the local welfare agency responsible for investigating the child abuse report includes, but is not limited to, authority to interview, without parental consent, the alleged victim and any other minors who currently reside with or who have resided with the alleged perpetrator. The interview may take place at school or any facility or other place where the alleged victim or other minors might be found and may take place outside the presence of the perpetrator or parent, legal custodian, or guardian. Except as provided in this clause, the parent, legal custodian, or guardian shall be notified, no later than the conclusion of the investigation, that this interview has occurred. Notwithstanding rule 49.02 of the Minnesota Rules of Procedure for Juvenile Courts, the juvenile court may, after hearing on an ex parte motion by the local welfare agency, order that, where reasonable cause exists, notification of this interview be withheld from the parent, legal custodian, or guardian.

The notification shall include the name of the child to be interviewed, the purpose of the interview, and a reference to the statutory authority to conduct an interview on school property. The notification shall be signed by the chairman of the county welfare board or his designee. The time, place, and manner of the interview on school premises shall be within the discretion of school officials. The conditions as to time, place, and manner of the interview set by the school officials shall be reasonable and the interview shall be conducted not more than 24 hours after the receipt of the notification unless another time is deemed necessary by agreement between the school officials and the local welfare agency. School officials shall not disclose to the parent, legal custodian, guardian, or perpetrator that a request to interview the child has been made until after the abuse investigation has been concluded. Every effort shall be made to reduce the disruption of the educational program of the child, other students, or school staff when an interview is conducted on school premises.

(d) Where the perpetrator or a person responsible for the care of the alleged victim or other minor prevents access to the victim or other minor by the local welfare agency, the juvenile court may order the parents, legal custodian, or guardian to produce the alleged victim or other minor for questioning by the local welfare agency outside the presence of the perpetrator or any person responsible for the child's care at reasonable places and times as specified by court order.

(e) Before making an order under paragraph (d), the court shall issue an order to show cause, either upon its own motion or upon a verified petition, specifying the basis for the requested interviews and fixing the time and place of the hearing. The order to show cause shall be served personally and shall be heard in the same manner as provided in other cases in the juvenile court. The court shall consider the need for appointment of a guardian ad litem to protect the best interests of the child. If a guardian ad litem is appointed, he shall be present at the hearing on the order to show cause.

(f) The commissioner and the local welfare agencies responsible for investigating reports have the right to enter facilities as defined in subdivision 2 and to inspect and copy the facility's records as part of the investigation. Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 13, they also have the right to inform the facility under investigation that they are conducting an investigation, to disclose to the facility the names of the individuals under investigation for abusing or neglecting a child, and to provide the facility with a copy of the report and the investigative findings.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 626.556, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10a. [ABUSE OUTSIDE THE FAMILY UNIT.] If the report alleges neglect, physical abuse, or sexual abuse by a person responsible for the child's care functioning outside the family unit in a setting other than a facility as defined in subdivision 2, the local welfare agency shall immediately notify the appropriate law enforcement agency and shall offer appropriate social services for the purpose of safeguarding and enhancing the welfare of the abused or neglected minor.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 626.556, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10b. [DUTIES OF COMMISSIONER; NEGLECT OR ABUSE IN A FACILITY.] If the report alleges that a child in the care of a facility as defined in subdivision 2 is neglected, physically abused, or sexually abused by an individual in that facility, the commissioner shall immediately investigate. The commissioner shall arrange for the transmittal to him of reports received by local agencies and may delegate to a local welfare agency the duty to investigate reports. In conducting an investigation under this section, the commissioner has the powers and duties specified for local welfare agencies under this section.

Sec. 20. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON H.F. NO. 409

A bill for an act relating to liquor; restrictions upon joint purchases and volume discounts at wholesale; amending Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 340.408; and 340.983.

May 18, 1983

The Honorable Harry A. Sieben, Jr.
Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H.F. No. 409, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendments and that H.F. No. 409 be amended as follows:

Subd. 21. [LIABILITY INSURANCE.] Every person licensed to sell at retail intoxicating liquor or non-intoxicating malt liquor at on-sale or off-sale shall, after ~~March~~ ^{March} + August 1, 1983, demonstrate proof of financial responsibility with regard to liability imposed by section 340.95, to the ~~commissioner of public safety authority issuing the license~~ as a condition of the issuance or renewal of his license, provided this subdivision does not apply to licensees who by affidavit establish that they are on-sale non-intoxicating malt liquor licensees with sales of less than $10,000 of non-intoxicating malt liquor ~~per~~ for the preceding year, or off-sale non-intoxicating malt liquor licensees with sales of less than $20,000 of non-intoxicating malt liquor for the preceding year, ~~nor to~~ or holders of on-sale wine licenses under subdivision 20, with sales of less than $10,000 of wine ~~per~~ for the preceding year. The issuing authority must submit to the commissioner the proof of financial responsibility or exemption affidavit submitted by the license applicant. Proof of financial responsibility may be given by filing:

(a) A certificate that there is in effect for the period covered by the license an insurance policy or pool providing the following minimum coverages;

(1) $50,000 because of bodily injury to any one person in any one occurrence, and, subject to the limit for one person, in the amount of $100,000 because of bodily injury to two or more persons in any one occurrence, and in the amount of $10,000 because of injury to or destruction of property of others in any one occurrence.

(2) $50,000 for loss of means of support of any one person in any one occurrence, and, subject to the limit for one person, $100,000 for loss of means of support of two or more persons in any one occurrence; or

(b) A bond of a surety company with minimum coverages as provided in clause (a), or

(c) A certificate of the state treasurer that the licensee has deposited with him $100,000 in cash or securities which may legally be purchased by savings banks or for trust funds having a market value of $100,000.

This subdivision does not prohibit a local governing unit from requiring higher insurance or bond coverages, or a larger deposit of cash or securities than is required hereunder, as a condition of issuance or renewal of a retail intoxicating liquor or non-intoxicating malt liquor on-sale or off-sale license.

The commissioner of insurance shall advise licensees and municipalities subject to the financial responsibility requirements of this subdivision of those persons offering insurance coverage. The commissioner of insurance ~~may, if necessary, shall establish an assigned risk pool by rule adopted under the administrative procedure act, sections 14.01 to 14.70;~~ a program to assist licensees in obtaining insurance coverage. The program shall include a committee appointed by the commissioner of insurance of a representative group of insurance carriers and producers. The commissioner of insurance shall serve as an ex officio member of the committee. The committee shall review and act upon all properly executed applications requesting liquor liability market assistance. The market assistance program shall be established by the commissioner of insurance by August 1, 1983, and shall continue to function so long as its services are deemed by the commissioner of insurance to be necessary to relieve perceived availability problems in the liquor liability insurance market. If the committee finds that it cannot assist in securing insurance coverage it shall notify the applicant in writing with a full explanation and recommendation for enhancing its ability to secure insurance. The commissioner of insurance shall, if necessary, establish an assigned risk plan pursuant to subdivision 22.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 340.11, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 22. [ASSIGNED RISK PLAN.] (1) The purpose of the assigned risk plan is to provide coverage required by subdivision 21 to persons rejected pursuant to this subdivision.

(2) An insurer that refuses to write the coverage required by subdivision 21 shall furnish the applicant with a written notice of refusal. The rejected applicant shall file a copy of the notice of refusal with the commissioner of public safety and with the assigned risk plan at the time of application for coverage under the plan.

(3) The commissioner of insurance may enter into service contracts as necessary or beneficial to accomplish the purposes of the assigned risk plan including servicing of policies or contracts of coverage, data management, and assessment collections. Services related to the administration of policies or contracts of coverages shall be performed by one or more qualified insurance companies licensed pursuant to section 60A.06, subdivision 1, clause (13) or a qualified vendor of risk management services. A qualified insurer or vendor of risk management services shall possess sufficient financial, professional, administrative, and personnel resources to provide the services required for operation of the plan. The cost of all services contracted for shall be an obligation of the assigned risk plan.

(4) The commissioner of insurance may assess all insurers licensed pursuant to section 60A.06, subdivision 1, clause (13) an amount sufficient to fully fund the obligations of the assigned risk plan, if the commissioner of insurance determines that the assets of the assigned risk plan are insufficient to meet its obligations. The assessment of each insurer shall be in a proportion equal to the proportion which the amount of insurance written as reported on page 14 of the annual statement under line 5, commercial multi-peril, and line 17, other liability, during the preceding calendar year by that insurer bears to the total written by all such carriers for such lines.

(5) Policies and contracts of coverage issued pursuant to this subdivision shall contain the usual and customary provisions of liability insurance policies, and shall contain the minimum coverage required by subdivision 21 or the local governing unit.

(6) Assigned risk policies and contracts of coverage shall be subject to premium tax pursuant to section 60A.15.

(7) Insureds served by the assigned risk plan shall be charged premiums based upon a rating plan approved by the commissioner of insurance. Assigned risk premiums shall not be lower than rates generally charged by insurers for the business. The commissioner of insurance shall fix the compensation received by the agent of record.

(8) The commissioner of insurance shall adopt rules, including temporary rules, as may be necessary to implement this subdivision. The rules may include:

(a) appeal procedures from actions of the assigned risk plan;

(b) formation of an advisory committee composed of insurers, vendors of risk management services and licensees, to advise the commissioner of insurance regarding operation of the plan; and

(c) applicable rating plans and rating standards.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 340.353, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY.] Every municipal liquor store operated pursuant to subdivision 1 shall, prior to commencement or continuation of operation after ~~March~~ + August 1, 1983, demonstrate proof of financial responsibility by compliance with the requirements of section 340.11, subdivision 21."

Renumber the remaining sections

Sec. 9. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 2 to 4 are effective ~~March~~ + August 1, 1983. Sections 1, 5, 6, 7 and 8 are effective the day following final enactment and apply to all causes of action arising on and after that day, except that any changes in notice requirements in section 8 are not effective until 30 days following final enactment.

Sec. 7. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This act is effective the day following final enactment."

Amend the title as follows:

Page 1, line 3, after the semicolon insert "extending the date for requiring dram shop insurance; requiring an assigned risk plan and specifying rule making authority of the commissioner of insurance in regard thereto;"

If the owner of the nonconforming structure or tree ~~shall neglect~~ neglects or ~~refuse~~ refuses to comply with ~~such~~ the order for ten days after notice ~~thereof of the order~~, the ~~said~~ agency may proceed to have the object ~~so~~ lowered, removed, reconstructed, or equipped and assess the cost and expense ~~thereof~~ upon the object of the land ~~whereon~~ where it is or was located. Unless ~~such~~ an assessment is paid within 90 days from the service of notice ~~thereof~~ on the agent or owner of ~~such~~ the object or land, the sum ~~shall~~ will bear interest at the rate of eight percent per annum until paid, and shall be collected in the same manner as are general taxes.

We, the undersigned conferees for H.F. No. 722, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendments and that H.F. No. 722 be further amended to read:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 222.37, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Any water power, telegraph, telephone, pneumatic tube, community antenna television, cable communications or electric light, heat, or power company may use public roads for the purpose of constructing, using, operating, and maintaining lines, subways, canals, or conduits, for their business, but such lines shall be so located as in no way to interfere with the safety and convenience of ordinary travel along or over the same; and, in the construction and maintenance of such line, subway, canal, or conduit, the company shall be subject to all reasonable regulations imposed by the governing body of any county, town or city in which such public road may be. Nothing herein shall be construed to grant to any person any rights for the maintenance of a telegraph, telephone, pneumatic tube, community antenna television system, cable communications system, or light, heat, or power system within the corporate limits of any city until such person shall have obtained the right to maintain such system within such city or for a period beyond that for which the right to operate such system is granted by such city.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 238.02, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The words and phrases used in ~~sections 238.01 to 238.17~~ this chapter have the following meanings unless a different meaning clearly appears in the text.

[ACCESS.] "Access" means entrance onto the premises of the property owner and an easement for purposes of surveying, designing, installing, inspecting, maintaining, operating, repairing, replacing, or removing equipment used in the construction and operation of a cable communications system.

Sec. 4. [238.23] [ACCESS REQUIRED.]

Subdivision 1. [PROVISION OF ACCESS.] A property owner or other person controlling access shall provide a cable communications company access to the property owner's multiple dwelling complex. The access provided must be perpetual and freely transferable by one cable communications company to another. A cable communications company granted access, and its successors in interest, must fully comply with sections 3 to 8.

Subd. 2. [RESIDENT'S RIGHTS.] The intent of sections 3 to 8 is to give residents the freedom to choose among competing cable communications services and nothing in sections 3 to 8 shall be interpreted to require residents to hook up or subscribe to any services offered by any cable communications company or alternative provider of cable communications services.

Sec. 5. [238.24] [CONDITIONS FOR ACCESS.]

Subdivision 1. [IN GENERAL.] An installation of cable communications facilities under sections 3 to 8 must conform to reasonable conditions necessary to protect the safety, functioning, and aesthetic appearance of the premises, and the convenience and well-being of the property owner and residents.

Subd. 2. [OWNER APPROVAL.] A property owner may require from a cable communications company before installation or modification of cable communications facilities, diagrams showing plans for the placement and securing of the facilities. A property owner may require a cable communications company to post a bond or equivalent security in an amount not exceeding the estimated cost of installation of the cable communications facilities on the premises. Any bond provided by a cable communications company with a municipality which would provide coverage to the property owner as provided under this subdivision shall be considered to fulfill the requirements of this subdivision.

Subd. 4. [INDEMNIFY FOR DAMAGE.] A cable communications company shall indemnify a property owner for damage caused by the company in the installation, operation, maintenance, or removal of its facilities.

Subd. 5. [RELOCATION.] A property owner may require a cable communications company, after reasonable written notice, to promptly relocate cable communications facilities on or within the premises of the property owner for the purpose of rehabilitation, redecoration, or necessary maintenance of the premises by the property owner.

Subd. 6. [MASTER ANTENNA TELEVISION SYSTEM.] Nothing in sections 3 to 8 precludes a property owner from entering into an agreement for use of a master antenna television system by a cable communications company or other television communications service.

Subd. 7. [COST ALLOCATED.] A cable communications company shall bear the entire cost of the installation, operation, maintenance, and removal of a cable communications facility within the initial franchise service area.

Subd. 8. [COMPENSATION FOR ACCESS.] (a) A cable communications company shall:

(1) compensate the property owner for the diminution in fair market value of the premises resulting directly from the installation of the nonexclusive cable communications system; and

(2) reimburse the property owner in an amount not to exceed $100 for premises containing less than ten dwelling units, and $200 for other premises, for actual costs incurred by the property owner with respect to the professional review of the plans and drawings regarding installation or modification of the cable communications system, associated contractual materials, and other documentation.

(b) With respect to paragraph (a), clause (1), any party appearing in a proceeding as provided under section 6 may introduce evidence of damages, if any, and special benefits, if any, to the property occurring by reason of the installation of the cable communications system.

Subd. 9. [NOT RETROACTIVE.] Nothing in sections 3 to 8 affects the validity of an agreement effective before the effective date of this act between a property owner, a cable communications company, or any other person providing cable communications services on or within the premises of the property owner.

Subd. 10. [CHANNEL CAPACITY.] (a) A property owner must provide access by a franchised cable communications company, as required under section 4, only if that cable company installs equipment with channel capacity sufficient to provide access to other providers of television programming or cable communications services so that residents or association members have a choice of alternative providers of those services. If the equipment is installed, the cable communications company shall allow alternative providers to use the equipment. If some of the residents or association members choose to subscribe to the services of an alternative provider, the cable company that installed the equipment shall be reimbursed by the other providers for the cost of equipment and installation on the property on a pro rata basis which reflects the number of subscribers of each provider on that property to the total number of subscribers on that property. In determining the pro rata amount of reimbursement by any alternative provider, the cost of equipment and installation shall be reduced to the extent of cumulative depreciation of that equipment at the time the alternative provider begins providing service.

(b) If equipment is already installed as of the effective date of this section with channel capacity sufficient to allow access to alternative providers, the access and pro rata reimbursement provisions of paragraph (a) apply.

(c) The board shall promulgate rules by January 1, 1984 to implement the provisions of this subdivision.

(d) Paragraphs (a) and (b) come into effect after rules have been promulgated and adopted in accordance with paragraph (c).

Sec. 6. [238.25] [PROCEDURE.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICABLE PROVISIONS.] The procedure for acquiring access under sections 3 to 8 must be as provided under this section, notwithstanding any provisions of chapter 117.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE AND OFFER; MANNER OF SERVICE.] (a) To obtain access to property under sections 3 to 8, a cable communications company shall serve written notice on all property owners. The notice shall contain the following:

- (1) the name and address of the cable communications company;*
- (2) the name of the property owners and address of the premises to which access is sought;*
- (3) the date of the franchise and city granting the franchise;*
- (4) the amount of compensation offered by the cable communications company to the property owner or owners; and*
- (5) the anticipated date on which access is to commence.*

(b) If a property owner does not accept the offer made by the cable communications company, the property owner shall, within 45 days of the service of the notice and offer, notify the cable communications company of the refusal. Failure to notify the cable communications company within 45 days as provided under this paragraph constitutes a refusal of the offer and a denial of access.

(c) The notice and offer must be served on the property owner or owners by certified mail or in the same manner as a summons in a civil action.

Subd. 3. [INITIATION.] (a) A cable communications company which has been denied access to a multiple-dwelling complex may initiate proceedings under this section to obtain access.

(b) The cable communications company shall pay all costs of the proceedings including compensation to the property owner.

Subd. 4. [PETITION FOR ACCESS.] (a) To obtain access to the property owner's premises, as required under section 4, the cable communications company shall file with the district court in the county in which the premises is located, a petition:

(1) stating that the cable communications company has served the property owners with the notice and offer required under subdivision 2 and that the offer has not been accepted;

(2) requesting a determination of the damages, if any, which may result from the access; and

(3) stating the legal description of the property owner's premises to which access is sought.

(b) Upon filing the petition with the district court, the cable communications company shall pay the property owner or deposit with the district court an amount equal to the company's offer of compensation as provided under subdivision 2, paragraph (a), clause (4).

(c) Upon filing of the petition with the district court, the cable communications company may file for record with the county recorder a notice of the pendency of the proceeding, describing with reasonable certainty the premises affected and the purposes of the petition.

Subd. 5. [SERVICE OF PETITION.] The petition must be served upon all persons named in the petition as property owners in the same manner as a summons in a civil action; except that, service may be made upon a property owner by three weeks published notice if the cable communications company, its agent or attorney, files an affidavit stating on belief that the property owner is not a resident of the state and that the company has mailed a copy of the notice to the property owner at the property owner's place of residence, or that after diligent inquiry the property owner's place of residence cannot be ascertained by the company. If the state is a property owner, the notice must be served upon the attorney general. Any property owner not served as provided under this paragraph is not bound by the proceeding unless the property owner voluntarily appears therein.

Subd. 6. [ORDER GRANTING ACCESS.] Upon the filing of the petition and proof of service as provided under this section, and prior to making a determination of damages under this section, the court shall enter an order granting access 30 days after the filing of the petition.

Subd. 7. [ENTRY FOR SURVEYS AND ACCESS.] For the purpose of making surveys and examinations to accomplish all necessary preliminary purposes or for other purposes relative to any proceedings under this section, the cable communications company may lawfully enter a property owner's premises, doing no unnecessary damage and being liable only for actual damage done.

Subd. 8. [JUDGMENT; DISMISSAL OF ACTION.] (a) The court shall enter judgment no sooner than ten days after it has filed its determination of damages. (b) The cable communications company may at any time up to ten days after the filing of the court's determination of the damages dismiss any proceeding under this section against any property owner's premises by notifying the property owner and the court. When the proceeding is dismissed, the property owner may recover from the cable communications company reasonable costs and expenses and temporary damages, if any.

Subd. 9. [APPEAL.] Either party to the district court proceeding may appeal the court's determination within 90 days after the filing of that determination.

Subd. 10. [FINAL CERTIFICATE.] Upon completion of the proceedings, the attorney for the cable communications company shall make a certificate describing the access acquired and the purpose or purposes for which acquired, and reciting the fact of final payment of all awards or judgments in relation thereto. The certificate must be filed with the clerk of court and a certified copy thereof filed for record with the county recorder. The record is notice to all parties of the access to the premises described in the petition.

Subd. 11. [NO RELOCATION BENEFITS.] Neither sections 117.50 to 117.56 nor the Uniform Relocation Assistance and Real Property Acquisition Policies Act of 1970 may be construed as applying to any persons affected by these proceedings.

Sec. 7. [238.26] [SUBSEQUENT TAKING.]

In the event the premises upon which cable communications equipment has been installed is subsequently condemned by the state or by another entity empowered under state law to condemn by exercise of the power of eminent domain, the cable communications company's measure of damages for the taking shall be limited to the actual compensation originally paid by the cable communications company to the property owner under sections 3 to 8.

Sec. 8. [238.27] [INTERFERENCE WITH FACILITIES.]

No person may interfere with the installation, operation, inspection, maintenance, or removal of cable communications facilities or activities of a cable communications company under sections 3 to 8 of this act.

Sec. 9. [238.35] [USE OF EXISTING EASEMENTS; RESTRICTIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS.] There is a long-standing legislative policy in the state of Minnesota to provide for the dedication or other provision of easements required by public utilities and cable communications companies. Except for applicable governmental regulations, these easements do not include any limitation on the type, number, or size of cables or related cable communication system components. There is a public understanding and acceptance of the need of public utilities and cable communications companies to have the ability to use existing utility easements in order to provide new and improved cable communications services made possible by technological developments and to make changes to the cables or related cable communication systems components. Changing technology has caused and will continue to cause over time the development of new cable communications services requiring changing uses of existing utility easements. Cable communications companies have a need to use existing utility easements in order to deliver their services to the public. The addition of cable communications system components does not constitute an unanticipated or added burden on the real estate subject to the easements.

Subd. 2. [UTILITY EASEMENT DEFINED.] For purposes of this section, the term "utility easement" includes all utility easements or general purpose easements dedicated on a recorded plat to the public or to the state or to any political subdivision thereof; all deeded easements to the public or to the state or to any political subdivision thereof which are for general or utility purposes; all easements acquired by condemnation or prescription by the state or any political subdivision thereof which are for general or utility purposes; and all easements in favor of any public service corporation for telephone or electric transmission purposes.

Subd. 3. [AUTHORIZATION TO USE EXISTING UTILITY EASEMENTS.] The state or any county, city, township, agency, or political subdivision thereof, or any individual, partnership, venture, or corporation which is licensed, franchised, or authorized thereby to establish and operate a cable communications company may utilize any existing utility easement in accordance with the provisions of this section to install, maintain, and remove cable communications system components without the payment of additional compensation to the owners or occupants of the real estate subject to the easement, other than the owner of the utility easement or its successors or assigns.

Subd. 4. [RESTRICTIONS ON USE.] (a) As a condition of using any utility easement, a cable communications company shall be subject to any burdens, duties, or obligations specified in the easement of the grantee of the easement.

(b) A cable communications company shall restore the real estate, and any landscaping or improvements thereon, to the condition they were in prior to entry within 30 days of completing the installation of the cables and related cable communications system components upon that real estate and to make changes to the cables or related cable communication systems components. Changing technology has caused and will continue to cause over time the development of new cable communications services requiring changing uses of existing utility easements. Restoration which cannot be completed during the winter months must be accomplished as promptly as weather conditions permit.

This act is effective the day following final enactment."

We request adoption of this report and repassage of the bill.

May 23, 1983

The Honorable Harry A. Sieben, Jr.
Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H.F. No. 549, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendments and that H.F. No. 549 be further amended as follows:

“Section 1. [116J.37] [ENERGY CONSERVATION INVESTMENT LOANS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] In this section:

(a) “Commissioner” means the commissioner of energy, planning and development. Upon passage of legislation creating a body known as the Minnesota energy authority, the duties assigned to the commissioner in this section are delegated to the authority.

(b) “Maxi-audit” has the meaning given in section 116J.06, subdivision 12.

(c) “Energy conservation investments” mean all capital expenditures that are associated with conservation measures identified in a maxi-audit and that have a ten-year or less pay back period.

Subd. 2. [ELIGIBILITY.] The commissioner shall approve loans to school districts for energy conservation investments. A loan may be made to a school district that has demonstrated that it has complied with all the appropriate provisions of this section and has made adequate provisions to assure proper and efficient operation of the school facilities after improvements and modifications are completed.

Subd. 3. [APPLICATION.] Application for a loan to be made pursuant to this section shall be made by a school district to the commissioner on a form the commissioner prescribes by rule. The commissioner shall review each application to determine:

- (a) whether or not the district’s proposal is complete;
- (b) whether the project is eligible for a loan;
- (c) the amount of the loan for which the project is eligible; and
- (d) the means by which the district proposes to finance the project including:
 - (1) a loan authorized by this section;
 - (2) a grant of money appropriated by state law;
 - (3) a grant to the district by an agency of the federal government within the amount of money then appropriated to that agency; or
 - (4) the appropriation of other money of the district to an account for the construction of the project.

Subd. 4. [LOANS.] The commissioner shall approve loans to school districts on the following conditions:

(a) A district must demonstrate that all audit activities for a given building or project have been completed, that the project is economically feasible, and that it has made adequate provisions to assure proper and efficient operation of the facility once the project is completed.

(b) A loan made pursuant to this section is repayable over a period of not more than ten years from the date the loan is made. Interest shall accrue from the date the loan is made, but the first payment of interest or principal shall not be due until one year after the loan was made. The principal shall be amortized in equal periodic payments over the remainder of the term of the loan. The accrued interest on the balance of the loan principal shall be due with each payment. Interest attributable to the first year of deferred payment shall be paid in the same manner as principal.

Subd. 5. [PAYMENT; OBLIGATION.] The commissioner shall not approve payment to a school district pursuant to an approved loan until he or she has determined that financing of the project is assured by an irrevocable undertaking, by resolution of the school board, to annually levy or otherwise collect an amount of money sufficient to pay the principal and interest due on the loan as well as any of the commissioner of finance's administrative expenses according to the terms of the loan.

Subd. 6. [RECEIPTS; APPROPRIATION.] The commissioner of finance shall deposit in the state treasury all principal and interest payments received in repayment of the loans authorized by this section. These payments shall be credited to the state building fund and are appropriated to the commissioner of finance for the purposes of that account.

Subd. 7. [RULES.] The commissioner shall adopt rules necessary to implement this section. The commissioner shall adopt temporary rules pursuant to sections 14.29 to 14.36, meeting the requirements of this section. The rules shall contain as a minimum:

- (a) procedures for application by districts;*
- (b) criteria for reviewing loan applications; and*
- (c) procedures and guidelines for program monitoring, closeout, and evaluation.*

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 275.125, subdivision 11a, is amended to read:

Subd. 11a. [CAPITAL EXPENDITURE LEVY.] (a) Each year a school district may levy an amount not to exceed the amount equal to $90 per pupil unit, or $95 per pupil unit in districts where the actual number of pupil units identified in section 124.17, subdivision 1, clauses (1) and (2), has increased from the prior year. No levy under this clause shall exceed seven mills times the adjusted assessed valuation of the taxable property in the district for the preceding year.

(b) The proceeds of the tax may be used to acquire land, to equip and re-equip buildings and permanent attached fixtures, to rent or lease buildings for school purposes, to pay leasing fees for computer systems hardware and related proprietary software, and to pay leasing fees for photocopy machines and telecommunications equipment. The proceeds of the tax may also be used for capital improvement and repair of school sites, buildings and permanent attached fixtures, energy assessments as required pursuant to section 116J.24, and for the payment of any special assessments levied against the property of the district authorized pursuant to section 435.19 or any other law or charter provision authorizing assessments against publicly owned property; provided that a district may not levy amounts to pay assessments for service charges, such as those described in section 429.101, whether levied pursuant to that section or pursuant to any other law or home rule provision. The proceeds of the tax may also be used for capital expenditures to reduce or eliminate barriers to or increase access to school facilities by handicapped individuals. The proceeds of the tax may also be used to make capital improvements to schoolhouses to be leased pursuant to section 123.36, subdivision 10. The proceeds of the tax may also be used to pay fees for capital outlay expenditures assessed and certified to each participating school district by the educational cooperative service unit board of directors. The proceeds of the tax may also be used to pay principal and interest on loans from the state authorized by section 1.

(c) Subject to the commissioner's approval, the tax proceeds may also be used to acquire or construct buildings. The state board shall promulgate rules establishing the criteria to be used by the commissioner in approving and disapproving district applications requesting the use of capital expenditure tax proceeds for the acquisition or construction of buildings. The approval criteria for purposes of building acquisition and construction shall include: the appropriateness of the proposal for the district's long term needs; the availability of adequate existing facilities; and the economic feasibility of bonding because of the proposed building's size or cost.

(d) The board shall establish a fund in which the proceeds of this tax shall be accumulated until expended.

(e) The proceeds of the tax shall not be used for custodial or other maintenance services.

Sec. 5. [APPROPRIATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. The sum of $30,000,000 is appropriated from the state building fund to the commissioner of finance for the purpose of making loans to school districts for energy conservation investments pursuant to section 1. Any expense incidental to the sale, printing, execution, and delivery of the bonds, including the costs of the commissioner of finance, shall be paid from the proceeds of the bond sales authorized in section 6 and the amounts necessary for these expenses are hereby appropriated. To reduce the amount of taxes otherwise required to be levied, there is also appropriated from the general fund, on November 1 in each year, a sum of money sufficient in amount, when added to other funds appropriated for the bonds, to pay all bonds and interest on them due and to become due to and including July 1 in the second ensuing year.

Subd. 2. None of the appropriations made in this section shall lapse until the purpose for which it is made has been accomplished or abandoned. The amount of each loan approved for disbursement shall be and remain appropriated for that purpose until the loan is fully disbursed or part or all of it is revoked by the energy division.

[ADMINISTRATION COSTS.] The sum of $259,300 in fiscal year 1984 and $320,000 in fiscal year 1985 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of energy, planning and development to administer section 1. The complement of the department of energy, planning and development is increased by 11 positions. If the appropriation for either year is insufficient, the appropriation for the other year is available for it.

Subd. 4. [AUDIT EXPENSES.] The sum of $200,000 in fiscal year 1984 and $300,000 in fiscal year 1985 is appropriated to the commissioner of energy, planning and development for the purpose of providing cost-share audit revision services for previously audited buildings in an amount not to exceed $2,000 per building and to provide cost-share audit services for nonaudited buildings in an amount not to exceed $5,000 per building to eligible institutions applying for loans authorized in section 1. The commissioner of energy, planning and development shall contract for provision of audit services, and determine the amount, if any, of audit revision and audit services for which the institution is eligible. Any unencumbered balance remaining in the first year shall not cancel but is available in the second year.

Sec. 6. [BOND SALE.]

To provide the money appropriated from the state building fund by section 5, subdivision 1, the commissioner of finance shall sell and issue bonds of the state in an amount up to $30,000,000 in the manner, upon the terms, and with the effect prescribed by Minnesota Statutes, sections 16A.63 to 16A.66, and by the Minnesota Constitution, article XI, sections 4 to 7.

Notwithstanding any contrary provision of law, charter or ordinance, the city of St. Paul may authorize any holder of an "on-sale" liquor license issued by the city to dispense intoxicating liquor at any event of definite duration on the public premises known as the Como Park Conservatory, Harriet Island, and the Highland Park club house. Authorization to dispense intoxicating liquor under this section shall be made by adoption of separate ordinances for each public premise. The city council shall conduct a public hearing prior to adoption of each ordinance at a location within the ward where the affected premises are located and near the affected public premises. The event may not be profit making except as a fund raising event for a nonprofit organization or a political committee as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 210A.01, subdivision 8. The licensee must be engaged to dispense liquor at the event by a person or organization permitted to use the premises and may dispense liquor only to persons attending the event. A licensee's authority shall expire upon termination of the event. The authority to dispense liquor shall be granted in accordance with the statutes applicable to the issuance of "on-sale" liquor licenses in cities of the first class consistent with this act. The dispensing of liquor shall be subject to all laws and ordinances governing the dispensing of intoxicating liquor that are consistent with this act. All dispensing of liquor shall be in accordance with the conditions prescribed by the city. The conditions may limit the dispensing of liquor to designated areas of the facility. The city may fix and assess a fee to be paid to the city by an "on-sale" licensee for each event for which the licensee is engaged to dispense liquor. The authority granted by this subdivision shall not count as an additional "on-sale" intoxicating liquor license for purposes of determining the number of liquor licenses permitted to be issued under the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, section 340.11.

Sec. 2. [HENNEPIN COUNTY; SHORT-TERM LIQUOR LICENSE.]

Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, Hennepin County, by resolution of its county board, may issue, with or without fee, to a nonprofit organization or corporation, one-day on-sale licenses for the sale and serving of intoxicating liquor in the Hennepin County Government Center in connection with any convention, banquet, conference, meeting or social event conducted by the nonprofit organization. The licensee may dispense intoxicating liquor only to persons attending the event. The licensee's authority shall expire upon termination of the event. All dispensing of intoxicating liquor shall be in accordance with the terms and conditions prescribed by resolution of the county board.

Sec. 3. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective the day after compliance by the governing body of the city of St. Paul with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3.

Section 2 is effective upon approval by the county board of Hennepin County and compliance with the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3."

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

Dear Senator Hughes:

Please be advised that I am vetoing S.F. No. 510.

This bill relates to the imposition of rent controls on residential properties in Minnesota. It would prohibit any local government unit from imposing such controls, whether by ordinance "or otherwise". I interpret this language as prohibiting rent controls by a referendum of the residents of a community.

My disagreement with the bill stems from the method selected by the Legislature to accomplish the avoidance of rent controls. I believe that it is wholly inappropriate for the Legislature to impose its belief on this issue upon municipalities through an outright ban on local action.

I have made a commitment that my administration will do what it can to eliminate unnecessary state-imposed mandates on local governments. If our local government units are to fulfill their duty to local residents, they must have the tools to implement local desires. The ban proposed by this bill is contrary to this basic philosophy.

Before this bill passed, I expressed my reservations to the chief authors. I recommended that referenda imposing rent controls be permitted, but the authors rejected this solution. I stand ready to work with the authors over the interim to explore alternative ways by which rent control can be discouraged.

Sincerely,

Rudy Perpich, Governor

PROTEST AND DISSENT

The undersigned members of the Senate dissent and protest the actions of the Chairman of the Senate Tax Committee and Senate majority caucus relative to Senate File 11 for the following reasons:

1. Contrary to the accepted and stated practices of the Minnesota Senate; and contrary to the spirit of the rules of the Minnesota Senate for the 73rd Legislature providing for open meetings and public hearings; the chairman of the Senate Tax Committee did engage in a series of meetings with the House Tax Committee Chairman and the Governor for the purposes of pre-determining the provisions of the 1983 Omnibus Tax Bill. The public, press and other members of the legislature were excluded from these meetings despite the fact that the content of this bill is of vital interest to the public and members of the legislature.

The Minneapolis Tribune on April 27, 1983 stated in an editorial that "numerous" such private meetings were held. News articles in the Minneapolis Tribune and the St. Paul Dispatch refer to at least two such meetings being held on March 29th and the week of April 18th. It was reported that the subject of each of these meetings were the contents of the 1983 Omnibus Tax Bill.

2. The DFL became the majority in the Senate following an election based on "openness in government". There can be no openness in government when the provisions of the most important piece of legislation of the session are being decided in secret by a small group of political leaders.
3. In further violation of the "openness in government" standards of the DFL, the majority caucus met on several occasions in closed session to discuss and determine the contents of the 1983 Senate Omnibus Tax Bill. News reports on the results, but not the proceedings of those meetings were carried in the public press:

* Referring to a majority caucus meeting on April 18th where the results of meeting between the Governor and the two tax chairmen were discussed, the St. Paul Pioneer Press reported on April 20, 1983: "But when Johnson attempted to sell this tradeoff to the Senate DFL caucus at a closed door meeting Monday night, his colleagues turned it down" (emphasis ours).

* The St. Paul Pioneer Press of May 3rd reported on the contents of the tax bill as if they were law, and referred to a May 2nd meeting of the majority caucus as follows: "After what reportedly was a stormy, 3 1/2 hour meeting behind closed doors ..." (emphasis ours).

* "We're diverse, but we're united." Moe said after a four-hour closed-door meeting of his 42 member caucus." (emphasis ours): reports the Minneapolis Tribune of May 10, in a story on the pending Senate debate over the tax bill.

The meetings of the majority caucus in the Senate are not merely friendly discussions of legislative business. They are, in fact, a policy decision of the Senate. Since the DFL caucus holds a clear and commanding majority in the Senate the decisions of these caucus meetings have the practical effect of being the decisions of the Senate acting as a whole. The decisions made in these meetings are never overturned on the floor.

In effect, the Senate, not just the majority caucus, is making major policy decisions in private. Making these decisions in "caucus" rather than on the Senate floor merely circumvents the rules adopted by this same majority.

This action by the majority caucus behind closed doors makes a mockery of any public hearings held by the full Senate Tax Committee.

4. The DFL majority has deliberately and systematically excluded members of the Senate IR minority from membership on the House-Senate Tax Conference Committee which is writing the final version of the 1983 tax bill, thus denying fair and equitable representation to the constituents of the minority caucus members and imposing "taxation without representation".
5. Historically, conference committees are well known for having closed door meetings in the offices of principal conferees and public discussion is only a limited reflection of decisions reached in these closed meetings. These procedures violate the spirit of the rules of the Minnesota Senate.
6. The undersigned members dissent and protest this disregard for the democratic process, the violation of standards of "openness in government" and the violation of the constitutional rights of the constituents of minority members to fair and equitable representation in the legislative process.

Legislative Bodies are governed by constitutional restraints, by law and by their own rules. We the undersigned believe the actions of the Senate Tax Committee Chairman and the Senate majority caucus violate the spirit of the Constitution and the law of the State of Minnesota.

We wish to make these actions and our dissent to them a matter of public record to be called to the attention of the people of Minnesota. For these reasons, this protest and dissent is entered upon the pages of the Senate Journal.
