UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION

268.03 [DECLARATION OF PUBLIC POLICY.]

As a guide to the interpretation and application of sections 268.03 to 268.24, the public policy of this state is declared to be as follows: Economic insecurity due to unemployment is a serious menace to the health, morals, and welfare of the people of this state. Involuntary unemployment is therefore a subject of general interest and concern which requires appropriate action by the legislature to prevent its spread and to lighten its burdens. This can be provided by encouraging employers to provide more stable employment and by the systematic accumulation of funds during periods of employment to provide benefits for periods of unemployment, thus maintaining purchasing power and limiting the serious social consequences of poor relief assistance. The legislature, therefore, declares that in its considered judgment the public good and the general welfare of the citizens of this state will be promoted by providing, under the police powers of the state for the compulsory setting aside of unemployment reserves to be used for the benefit of persons unemployed through no fault of their own establishment of an unemployment insurance fund. The reserves of the unemployment insurance fund are to be used to provide a temporary replacement of a portion of lost wages to individuals with a permanent attachment to the work force, who become involuntarily unemployed through no fault of their own, and who are actively seeking, and are willing and available to accept, suitable reemployment.

Subd. 25. [WAGES.] "Wages" means all remuneration for services, including commissions and bonuses, back pay as of the date of payment, and tips and gratuities paid to an employee by a customer of an employer and accounted for by the employee to the employer, and the cash value of all remuneration in any medium other than cash, except that such term shall not include:

(a) For the purpose of determining contributions payable under section 268.06, subdivision 2, that part of the remuneration which exceeds, for each calendar year, the greater of $7,000 or that part of the remuneration which exceeds 60 percent of the average annual wage rounded to the nearest $100 computed in accordance with the provisions of clause (f) $10,300 for the calendar year 1985; $10,900 for the calendar year 1986; and $11,400 for the calendar year 1987 and all calendar years thereafter, paid to an individual by an employer with respect to covered employment in this state, or with respect to employment under the unemployment compensation law of any other state during any calendar year paid to such individual by such covered employer or his predecessor during such calendar year; provided, that if the term "wages" as contained in the Federal Unemployment Tax Act is amended to include remuneration in excess of the amount required to be paid hereunder to an individual by an employer under the federal act for any calendar year, wages for the purposes of sections 268.03 to 268.24 shall include remuneration paid in a calendar year up to an amount equal to the dollar limitation specified in the Federal Unemployment Tax Act. For the purposes of this clause, the term "employment" shall include service constituting employment under any employment security law of another state or of the federal government;

(b) The amount of any payment made to, or on behalf of, an employee under a plan or system established by an employer which makes provision for his employees generally or for a class or classes of his employees (including any amount paid by an employer for insurance or annuities, or into a fund, to provide for any such payment), on account of (1) retirement or (2) sickness or accident disability or (3) medical and hospitalization expenses in connection with sickness or accident disability, or (4) death, provided the employee has not the option to receive, instead of provision for such death benefit, any part of such payment, or if such death benefit is insured, any part of the premium (or contributions to premiums) paid by his employer and has not the right, under the provisions of the plan or system or policy of insurance providing for such death benefit, to assign such benefit, or to receive a cash consideration in lieu of such benefit either upon his withdrawal from the plan or system providing for such benefit or upon termination of such plan or system or policy of insurance or of his employment with such employer;

(c) The payment by an employer (without deduction from the remuneration of the employee) (1) of the tax imposed upon an employee under section 3101 of the federal Internal Revenue Code, or (2) of any payment required from an employee under a state unemployment compensation law, with respect to remuneration paid to an employee for domestic service in a private home of the employer or for agricultural labor;

(d) Any payments made to a former employee during the period of active military service in the armed forces of the United States by such employer, whether legally required or not;

(e) Any payment made to, or on behalf of, an employee or his beneficiary (1) from or to a trust described in section 401(a) of the federal Internal Revenue Code which is exempt from tax under section 501(a) of such code at the time of such payment unless such payment is made to an employee of the trust as remuneration for services rendered as an employee and not as a beneficiary of the trust, or (2) under or to an annuity plan which, at the time of such payment is a plan described in section 403(a) of the federal Internal Revenue Code, or (3) under or to a bond purchase plan which, at the time of such payment, is a qualified bond purchase plan described in section 405(a) of the federal Internal Revenue Code;

(f) On or before July 1 of each year the commissioner shall determine the average annual wage paid by employers subject to sections 268.03 to 268.24 in the following manner:

(1) The sum of the total monthly employment reported for the previous calendar year shall be divided by 12 to determine the average monthly employment;

(2) The sum of the total wages reported for the previous calendar year shall be divided by the average monthly employment to determine the average annual wage.

The average annual wage determined shall be effective for the calendar year next succeeding the determination.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.04, subdivision 29, is amended to read:

Subd. 29. "Credit week" is any week for which wages or back pay, actually or constructively paid, wages overdue and delayed beyond the usual time of payment, and back pay by or from one or more employers to an employee for insured work equal or exceed 30 percent of the average weekly wage times the adult minimum wage in effect under section 177.24, subdivision 1, on December 31 of the year two years before the year in which the claim is made. The product shall be computed to the nearest whole dollar. On or before June 30 of each year the commissioner shall determine the average weekly wage paid by employers subject to sections 268.03 to 268.24 in the following manner:

(a) The sum of the total monthly employment reported for the previous calendar year shall be divided by 12 to determine the average monthly employment;

(b) The sum of the total wages reported for the previous calendar year shall be divided by the average monthly employment to determine the average annual wage; and

(c) The average annual wage shall be divided by 52 to determine the average weekly wage.

The average weekly wage as so determined computed to the nearest whole dollar shall apply to claims for benefits which establish a benefit year which begins subsequent to December 31 of the year of the computation.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.06, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [BENEFITS CHARGED AS AND WHEN PAID.] Benefits paid to an individual pursuant to a valid claim shall be charged against the account of his employer as and when paid, except that benefits paid to an individual who earned base period wages for part-time employment shall not be charged to an employer that is liable for payments in lieu of contributions or to the experience rating account of an employer if the employer: (1) provided weekly base period part-time employment; (2) continues to provide weekly employment equal to at least 90 percent of the part-time employment provided in the base period; and (3) is an interested party because of the individual's loss of other employment.

For the purpose of this subdivision, an employer is deemed to satisfy clause (2) if:

(a) the weekly employment in the base period was on an on call as needed basis; and

(b) the employer continues to employ the individual on the same basis and provides employment substantially equal to the employment provided in the base period.

The amount of benefits so chargeable against each base period employer's account shall bear the same ratio to the total benefits paid to an individual as the base period wage credits of the individual earned from such employer bear to the total amount of base period wage credits of the individual earned from all his base period employers.

In making computations under this provision, the amount of wage credits if not a multiple of $1, shall be computed to the nearest multiple of $1.

Benefits shall not be charged to an employer that is liable for payments in lieu of contributions or to the experience rating account of an employer for unemployment that is directly caused by a major natural disaster declared by the president pursuant to section 102(2) of the Disaster Relief Act of 1974 (42 United States Code 5122(2)), if the unemployed individual would have been eligible for disaster unemployment assistance with respect to that unemployment but for the individual's receipt of unemployment insurance benefits.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.06, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [DETERMINATION OF CONTRIBUTION RATES.] For each calendar year the commissioner shall determine the contribution rate of each employer by adding the minimum rate to the experience ratio; except that if the ratio for the current calendar year increases or decreases the experience ratio for the preceding calendar year by more than one and one-half percentage points for 1982; and 2-1/2 percentage points for 1983 and each year thereafter, the increase or decrease for the current year shall be limited to one and one-half percentage points for 1982; and 2-1/2 percentage points for 1983 and each year thereafter, provided that a small business employer shall be eligible, upon application, for a reduction in the limitation to 1-1/2 percentage points for 1983 and each year thereafter. "Small business employer" for the purpose of this subdivision means an employer with an annual covered payroll of $250,000 or less, or fewer than 20 employees in three of the four quarters ending June 30, of the previous calendar year.

The minimum rate for all employers shall be one percent if the amount in the unemployment compensation fund is less than $80,000,000 on June 30 of the preceding calendar year; or nine-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $80,000,000 but less than $90,000,000; or eight-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $90,000,000 but less than $110,000,000; or seven-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $110,000,000 but less than $130,000,000; or six-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $130,000,000 but less than $150,000,000; or five-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $150,000,000 but less than $170,000,000; or three-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $170,000,000 but less than $200,000,000; or one-tenth of one percent if the fund is $200,000,000 or more; provided that no employer shall have a contribution rate of more than 7.5 percent.

For the purposes of this section the unemployment compensation fund shall not include any moneys advanced from the Federal Unemployment Account in the unemployment trust fund in accordance with Title XII of the Social Security Act, as amended. No employer first assigned an experience ratio in accordance with subdivision 6, shall have his contribution rate increased or decreased by more than one and one-half percentage points for 1982; and 2-1/2 percentage points for 1983 and each year thereafter over the contribution rate assigned for the preceding calendar year in accordance with subdivision 3a, provided that a small business employer shall be eligible, upon application, for a reduction in the limitation to 1-1/2 percentage points for 1983 and each year thereafter.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.07, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [WEEKLY BENEFIT AMOUNT AND DURATION.] If the commissioner finds that an individual has earned ~~45~~ 20, or more, credit weeks within the base period of employment in insured work with one or more employers, benefits shall be payable to such individual during his benefit year as follows:

(1) Weekly benefit amount shall be equal to 60 one percent of the first $85, 40 percent of the next $85 and 50 percent of the remainder of the average weekly wage of such individual individual's total base period wage credits. The amount so computed if not a whole dollar shall be rounded down to the next lower dollar amount. The maximum weekly benefit amount of claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to July 1, 1979 shall be

66-2/3 percent of the average weekly wage, except as provided in clause (d).

On or before June 30 of each year the commissioner shall determine the average weekly wage paid by employers subject to sections 268.03 to 268.24 in the following manner:

(a) The sum of the total monthly employment reported for the previous calendar year shall be divided by 12 to determine the average monthly employment.

(b) The sum of the total wages reported for the previous calendar year shall be divided by the average monthly employment to determine the average annual wage.

(c) The average annual wage shall be divided by 52 to determine the average weekly wage.

(d) The maximum weekly benefit amount for claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1982, and prior to July 1, 1983, shall be $184.

The maximum weekly benefit amount for claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1983, and prior to July 1, 1984, shall be $191.

The minimum weekly benefit amount for claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1985, shall be $56.

The maximum weekly benefit amount for claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1984, and prior to July 1, 1985, shall be $198.

The maximum weekly benefit amount for claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1985, and prior to July 1, 1986, shall be $200.

The maximum weekly benefit amount for claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1986, and prior to July 1, 1987, shall be $208.

The maximum weekly benefit amount for claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1987, shall be $216.

(2) An individual's maximum amount of regular benefits payable in a benefit year shall not exceed the lesser of (a) 26 times his weekly benefit amount or (b) 70 66-2/3 percent of the number of credit weeks earned by such an individual computed to the nearest whole week times his weekly benefit amount.

(3) Each eligible individual who is unemployed in any week shall be paid with respect to such week a benefit in an amount equal to his weekly benefit amount less that part of his earnings, including holiday pay, payable to him with respect to such week which is in excess of $25 or $200 for earnings from service in the national guard or a United States military reserve unit. Jury duty pay is not considered as earnings and shall not be deducted from benefits paid. Such benefit, if not a whole dollar amount shall be rounded down to the next lower dollar amount.

(4) The provisions of clauses (1) and (2) shall apply to claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1983.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.07, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [~~EXCEPTION~~ SEASONALITY EXCEPTIONS.] Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 2, the following seasonality exceptions shall apply:

(a) If the commissioner finds that an individual has earned credit weeks in seasonal employment, benefits shall be payable only if the commissioner finds that the individual has earned ~~15~~ 20 credit weeks in employment which is not seasonal, in addition to any credit weeks in seasonal employment. For the purposes of this ~~subdivision~~ clause, "seasonal employment" means employment with a single employer in the recreation or tourist industry which is available with the employer for ~~15~~ 20 consecutive weeks or less each calendar year.

(b) If the commissioner finds that an individual has been paid for weeks of regular unemployment compensation benefits in the same calendar quarter in the previous two years: (1) regular benefits shall not be payable to that individual during that same calendar quarter for a number of weeks equal to the mean number of weeks the individual received regular benefits during that calendar quarter in the previous two years; and (2) the individual's duration of regular benefits shall be reduced by the mean number of weeks the individual received regular benefits during that calendar quarter in the previous two years or the number of weeks left in the calendar quarter, whichever is less. The mean number of weeks the individual received regular benefits during that calendar quarter in the previous two years shall be computed by taking the total number of weeks the individual received regular benefits during that calendar quarter in the previous two years, dividing by two, and rounding up to the nearest whole number of weeks. For the purposes of this clause, the calendar quarter shall be based on calendar weeks with a 53rd calendar week periodically to adjust for leap year and deviation of the calendar weeks from the calendar year.

Sec. 8. [268.073] [STATE EXTENDED BENEFITS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given them:

(b) "County insured unemployment rate" means the percentage derived by dividing the average weekly number of individuals, who reside in the given Minnesota county, filing claims for regular benefits in this state under chapter 268 for weeks of unemployment with respect to the most recent 13 consecutive week period, as determined by the commissioner on the basis of his or her reports to the United States Secretary of Labor, by the average monthly employment covered under this law, in the county, for the first four of the most recent six completed calendar quarters ending before the end of the 13-week period.

Subd. 2. [ELIGIBILITY AND AMOUNT.] In addition to all other benefits under this chapter, an individual shall be eligible for up to four weeks of state extended benefits each benefit year if:

(2) the individual resides in a county which has had within the eight-week period preceding the current calendar week, a county insured unemployment rate equal to twice the state insured unemployment rate; and

(3) the individual would be eligible for regular benefits under this chapter during the week in which he or she receives state extended benefits except that the individual has exhausted his or her regular benefits.

State extended benefits for a week shall be equal to the individual's regular benefit amount under section 268.07.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.08, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBILITY CONDITIONS.] An individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week of unemployment only if the commissioner finds that the individual:

(1) has registered for work at and thereafter has continued to report to an employment office, or agent of the office, in accordance with rules the commissioner may adopt; except that the commissioner may by rule waive or alter either or both of the requirements of this clause as to types of cases or situations with respect to which the commissioner finds that compliance with the requirements would be oppressive or would be inconsistent with the purposes of sections 268.03 to 268.24;

(2) has made a claim for benefits in accordance with rules as the commissioner may adopt; and

(3) was able to work and was available for work, and was actively seeking work. The individual's weekly benefit amount shall be reduced one-fifth for each day the individual is unable to work or is unavailable for work. Benefits shall not be denied by application of this clause to an individual who is in training with the approval of the commissioner or in training approved pursuant to section 236 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended;

An individual is deemed unavailable for work with respect to any week which occurs in a period when the individual is a full-time student in attendance at, or on vacation from an established school, college or university unless a majority of the credit weeks earned in the base period were for services performed during weeks in which the student was attending school as a full-time student.

An individual serving as a juror shall be considered as available for work and actively seeking work on each day the individual is on jury duty.

(4) has been unemployed for a waiting period of one week during which the individual is otherwise eligible for benefits under sections 268.03 to 268.24. ~~However, payment for the waiting week shall be made to the individual after the individual has qualified for and been paid benefits for four weeks of unemployment in a benefit year which period of unemployment is terminated because of the individual's return to employment.~~ No individual is required to serve a waiting period of more than one week within the one year period subsequent to filing a valid claim and commencing with the week within which the valid claim was filed.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.08, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [NOT ELIGIBLE.] An individual shall not be eligible to receive benefits for any week with respect to which he is receiving, has received, or has filed a claim for remuneration in an amount equal to or in excess of his weekly benefit amount in the form of

(1) termination, severance, or dismissal payment or wages in lieu of notice whether legally required or not; provided that if a termination, severance, or dismissal payment is made in a lump sum, the employer may allocate such lump sum payment over a period equal to the lump sum divided by the employee's regular pay while employed by such employer; provided any such payment shall be applied for a period immediately following the last day of work ~~but not to exceed 28 calendar days~~; or

(2) vacation allowance paid directly by the employer for a period of requested vacation, including vacation periods assigned by the employer under the provisions of a collective bargaining agreement, or uniform vacation shutdown; or

(3) compensation for loss of wages under the workers' compensation law of this state or any other state or under a similar law of the United States, or under other insurance or fund established and paid for by the employer except that this does not apply to an individual who is receiving temporary partial compensation pursuant to section 176.101, subdivision 3k; or

(4) 50 percent of the pension payments from any fund, annuity or insurance maintained or contributed to by a base period employer including the armed forces of the United States if the employee contributed to the fund, annuity or insurance and all of the pension payments if the employee did not contribute to the fund, annuity or insurance; or

(5) 50 percent of a primary insurance benefit under title II of the Social Security Act as amended, or similar old age benefits under any act of congress or this state or any other state.

Provided, that if such remuneration is less than the benefits which would otherwise be due under sections 268.03 to 268.24, he shall be entitled to receive for such week, if otherwise eligible, benefits reduced by the amount of such remuneration; provided, further, that if the appropriate agency of such other state or the federal government finally determines that he is not entitled to such benefits, this provision shall not apply. If the computation of reduced benefits, required by this subdivision, is not a whole dollar amount, it shall be rounded down to the next lower dollar amount.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.09, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DISQUALIFYING CONDITIONS.] An individual separated from employment under clauses (1), (2), or (3) shall be disqualified for waiting week credit and benefits. For separations under clauses (1) and (2), the disqualification shall continue until ~~four~~ ten calendar weeks have elapsed following his separation and the individual has earned ~~four~~ ten times his weekly benefit amount in insured work.

(1) [VOLUNTARY LEAVE.] The individual voluntarily and without good cause attributable to the employer discontinued his employment with such employer. For the purpose of this clause, a separation from employment by reason of its temporary nature or for inability to pass a test or for inability to meet performance standards necessary for continuation of employment or based solely on a provision in a collective bargaining agreement by which an individual has vested discretionary authority in another to act in behalf of the individual shall not be deemed voluntary.

A separation shall be for good cause attributable to the employer if it occurs as a consequence of sexual harassment. Sexual harassment means unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, sexually motivated physical contact or other conduct or communication of a sexual nature when: (1) the employee's submission to such conduct or communication is made a term or condition of the employment, (2) the employee's submission to or rejection of such conduct or communication is the basis for decisions affecting employment, or (3) such conduct or communication has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment and the employer knows or should know of the existence of the harassment and fails to take timely and appropriate action.

(2) [DISCHARGE FOR MISCONDUCT.] The individual was discharged for misconduct, not amounting to gross misconduct connected with his work or for misconduct which interferes with and adversely affects his employment.

An individual shall not be disqualified under clauses (1) and (2) of this subdivision under any of the following conditions:

(a) The individual voluntarily discontinued his employment to accept work offering substantially better conditions of work or substantially higher wages or both;

(b) The individual is separated from employment due to his own serious illness provided that such individual has made reasonable efforts to retain his employment;

An individual who is separated from his employment due to his illness of chemical dependency which has been professionally diagnosed or for which he has voluntarily submitted to treatment and who fails to make consistent efforts to maintain the treatment he knows or has been professionally advised is necessary to control that illness has not made reasonable efforts to retain his employment.

(c) The individual accepts work from a base period employer which involves a change in his location of work so that said work would not have been deemed to be suitable work under the provisions of subdivision 2 and within a period of 13 weeks from the commencement of said work voluntarily discontinues his employment due to reasons which would have caused the work to be unsuitable under the provision of said subdivision 2;

(d) The individual left employment because he had reached mandatory retirement age and was 65 years of age or older;

(e) The individual is terminated by his employer because he gave notice of intention to terminate employment within 30 days. This exception shall be effective only through the calendar week which includes the date of intended termination, provided that this exception shall not result in the payment of benefits for any week for which he receives his normal wage or salary which is equal to or greater than his weekly benefit amount;

(f) The individual is separated from employment due to the completion of an apprenticeship program, or segment thereof, approved pursuant to chapter 178;

(g) The individual voluntarily leaves part-time employment with a base period employer while continuing full-time employment if the individual attempted to return to part-time employment after being separated from the full-time employment, and if substantially the same part-time employment with the base period employer was not available for the individual.

(3) [DISCHARGE FOR GROSS MISCONDUCT.] The individual was discharged for gross misconduct connected with his work or gross misconduct which interferes with and adversely affects his employment. For a separation under this clause, the commissioner shall impose a total disqualification for the benefit year and cancel all of the wage credits from the last employer from whom he was discharged for gross misconduct connected with his work.

For the purpose of this clause "gross misconduct" is defined as misconduct involving assault and battery or the malicious destruction of property or arson or sabotage or embezzlement or any other act, including theft, the commission of which amounts to a felony or gross misdemeanor. For an employee of a health care facility, gross misconduct also includes misconduct involving an act of patient or resident abuse as defined in section 626.557, subdivision 2, clause (d).

If an individual is convicted of a felony or gross misdemeanor for the same act or acts of misconduct for which the individual was discharged, the misconduct is conclusively presumed to be gross misconduct if it was connected with his work.

(4) [LIMITED OR NO CHARGE OF BENEFITS.] Benefits paid subsequent to an individual's separation under any of the foregoing clauses, excepting clauses (2)(c) and (2)(e), shall not be used as a factor in determining the future contribution rate of the employer from whose employment such individual separated.

Benefits paid subsequent to an individual's failure, without good cause, to accept an offer of suitable re-employment shall not be used as a factor in determining the future contribution rate of the employer whose offer of re-employment he failed to accept or whose offer of re-employment was refused solely due to the distance of the available work from his residence, the individual's own serious illness or his other employment at the time of the offer.

(5) An individual who was employed by an employer shall not be disqualified for benefits under this subdivision for any acts or omissions occurring after his separation from employment with the employer.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.09, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FAILURE TO APPLY FOR OR ACCEPT SUITABLE WORK OR RE-EMPLOYMENT.] An individual shall be disqualified for waiting week credit and benefits during the week of occurrence and until ~~four~~ ten calendar weeks have elapsed following his refusal or failure and he has earned ~~four~~ ten times his weekly benefit amount in insured work if the commissioner finds that he has failed, without good cause, either to apply for available, suitable work of which he was advised by the employment office, or the commissioner or to accept suitable work when offered him, or to return to his customary self-employment (if any) when so directed by the commissioner, or to accept a base period employer's offer of re-employment offering substantially the same or better hourly wages and conditions of work as were previously provided by that employer in his base period.

(a) In determining whether or not any work is suitable for an individual, the commissioner shall consider the degree of risk involved to his health, safety, and morals, his physical fitness and prior training, his experience, his length of unemployment and prospects of securing local work in his customary occupation, ~~and~~ and the distance of the available work from his residence, ~~and~~ and ~~how the work's wage compares with the wage the individual received at his previous employment. With respect to the work's wage, the work shall be deemed suitable if the work is otherwise suitable and the work's wage is at least: 85 percent of the individual's former wage when the individual has not received more than six weeks of benefits during his or her current period of unemployment; 75 percent of the individual's former wage when the individual has received more than six weeks of benefits, but not more than 14 weeks during his or her current period of unemployment; and 65 percent of the individual's former wage when the individual has received more than 14 weeks of benefits during his or her current period of unemployment.~~

(b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of sections 268.03 to 268.24, no work shall be deemed suitable, and benefits shall not be denied thereunder to any otherwise eligible individual for refusing to accept new work under any of the following conditions:

(1) if the position offered is vacant due directly to a strike, lockout, or other labor dispute;

(2) if the wages, hours, or other conditions of the work offered are substantially less favorable to the individual than those prevailing for similar work in the locality;

(3) if as a condition of being employed the individual would be required to join a union or to resign from or refrain from joining any bona fide labor organization;

(4) if the individual is in training with the approval of the commissioner.

Sec. 13. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 8 of this article is effective October 1, 1985. Clause (b) of section 7 of this article shall apply to claims made on or after July 1, 1987.

Sec. 14. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.04, subdivision 30, is repealed.

ARTICLE 2

TRANSFER OF AUTHORITY TO OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS

Section 1. [TRANSFER FROM DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMIC SECURITY.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] It is the purpose and intent of this article to transfer all unemployment compensation hearing responsibilities and related functions except for appeal hearings before the commissioner or his or her authorized representative from the department of economic security to the office of administrative hearings.

Subd. 2. [PERSONNEL; EQUIPMENT.] All unemployment compensation referees at the department of economic security are transferred to the office of administrative hearings. Notwithstanding any laws to the contrary, all unemployment compensation referees employed by the department of economic security at the time of this transfer are eligible for appointment as unemployment judges within the office of administrative hearings, and shall be appointed as such on transfer. All personnel and positions at the department of economic security presently providing support to the hearing related functions transferred pursuant to this article, including those involved in the scheduling of hearings, processing, and mailing of hearing notices, preparation and serving of referees' decisions or correspondence, travel coordination, accounting, answering of telephones, and preparation of transcripts are transferred to the office of administrative hearings.

All equipment and supplies used solely by the transferred personnel in the performance of their duties are transferred to the office of administrative hearings.

Subd. 3. [COOPERATION.] Commencing with the passage and signing of this act, the commissioner, the commissioners of administration, finance, and employee relations and the chief administrative law judge shall cooperate in assuring a smooth transfer of the referees and related personnel and equipment in order to carry out the purposes of this article. The commissioner shall provide office space at the department of economic security for the chief administrative law judge to use prior to the transfer in order to complete a review of the existing hearing system and personnel prior to the effective date of the transfer. The commissioner of administration, after consultation with the commissioner of economic security, the commissioner of finance, and the chief administrative law judge, shall determine the appropriate location of office space for the transferred personnel. The commissioner shall continue to provide space for the conduct of hearings in the same facilities and locations which are presently utilized for that purpose.

Subd. 4. [RULES.] The chief administrative law judge may make emergency rules for the purpose of adopting procedural rules for unemployment compensation hearings. The rules shall not conflict with any provisions of chapter 268 and shall comply with any applicable federal laws, rules, or regulations.

Subd. 5. [TIMELINESS.] To satisfy United States Department of Labor funding requirements the office of administrative hearings shall meet or exceed timeliness standards under federal regulation in the conduct of unemployment compensation hearings.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 14.03, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CONTESTED CASE PROCEDURE.] The contested case procedures of the administrative procedure act provided in sections 14.57 to 14.70 do not apply to (a) the Minnesota municipal board, (b) the commissioner of corrections, (c) the unemployment insurance program and, except for those hearings held by an administrative law judge of the office of administrative hearings, (d) the social security disability determination program in the department of economic security, ~~(e)~~ (e) the director of mediation services, ~~(f)~~ (f) the workers' compensation division in the department of labor and industry, ~~(g)~~ (g) the workers' compensation court of appeals, ~~(h)~~ (h) the board of pardons, or ~~(i)~~ (i) the public employment relations board.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 14.51, is amended to read:

14.51 [PROCEDURAL RULES FOR HEARINGS.]

The chief administrative law judge shall adopt rules to govern the procedural conduct of all hearings, relating to both rule adoption, amendment, suspension or repeal hearings, contested case hearings, and workers' compensation hearings, and unemployment compensation hearings. ~~Temporary~~ Emergency rulemaking authority is granted to the chief administrative law judge for the purpose of ~~implementing Laws 1981, Chapter 346, Sections 2 to 6, 103 to 122, 127 to 135, and 141~~ the adoption of procedural rules for unemployment compensation hearings. The procedural rules for hearings shall be binding upon all agencies and shall supersede any other agency procedural rules with which they may be in conflict. The procedural rules for hearings shall include in addition to normal procedural matters provisions relating to recessing and reconvening new hearings when the proposed final rule of an agency is substantially different from that which was proposed at the public hearing. The procedural rules shall establish a procedure whereby the proposed final rule of an agency shall be reviewed by the chief administrative law judge to determine whether or not a new hearing is required because of substantial changes or failure of the agency to meet the requirements of sections 14.13 to 14.18. Upon his own initiative or upon written request of an interested party, the chief administrative law judge may issue a subpoena for the attendance of a witness or the production of books, papers, records or other documents as are material to the matter being heard. The subpoenas shall be enforceable through the district court in the district in which the subpoena is issued.

14.53 [COSTS ASSESSED.]

In consultation with the commissioner of administration the chief administrative law judge shall assess agencies the cost of services rendered to them in the conduct of hearings. All agencies shall include in their budgets provisions for such assessments. The chief administrative law judge shall assess all costs associated with unemployment compensation hearings to the department of economic security, but shall be limited to funds provided to the department for such purposes by the federal government.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 43A.18, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PLANS NOT ESTABLISHED BUT APPROVED BY COMMISSIONER.] Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, total compensation for employees listed in this subdivision shall be set by appointing authorities within the limits of compensation plans that have been approved by the commissioner before becoming effective.

(a) Total compensation for employees who are not covered by a collective bargaining agreement in the offices of the governor, attorney general, secretary of state, state auditor and state treasurer shall be determined by the governor, attorney general, secretary of state, state auditor and state treasurer, respectively.

(b) Total compensation for unclassified positions pursuant to section 43A.08, subdivision 1, clause (h), in the higher education coordinating board, and in the state board of vocational technical education shall be determined by the state university board and the state board for community colleges, the higher education coordinating board, and the state board of vocational technical education, respectively.

(c) Total compensation for classified administrative law judges and unemployment judges in the office of administrative hearings shall be determined by the chief administrative law judge.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 179A.10, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [EXCLUSIONS.] The commissioner of employee relations shall meet and negotiate with the exclusive representative of each of the units specified in this section. The units provided in this section are the only appropriate units for executive branch state employees. The following employees shall be excluded from any appropriate unit:

(1) the positions and classes of positions in the classified and unclassified services defined as managerial by the commissioner of employee relations in accordance with section 43A.18, subdivision 3, and so designated in the official state compensation schedules;

(2) unclassified positions in the state university system and the community college system defined as managerial by their respective boards;

(3) positions of physician employees compensated under section 43A.17, subdivision 4;

(4) positions of all unclassified employees appointed by a constitutional officer;

(5) positions in the bureau of mediation services and the public employment relations board;

(6) positions of employees whose classification is pilot or chief pilot;

(7) administrative law judge, unemployment judge, and compensation judge positions in the office of administrative hearings; and

(8) positions of all confidential employees.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.06, subdivision 18, is amended to read:

Subd. 18. [NOTICE TO EMPLOYER.] The commissioner shall at least twice each year notify each employer of the benefits as determined by the department which have been charged to his account subsequent to the last notice. Unless reviewed in the manner hereinafter provided, charges set forth in such notice, or as modified by a redetermination, a decision of a ~~referee~~ an unemployment judge, or the commissioner, shall be final and shall be used in determining the contribution rates for all years in which the charges occur within the employer's experience period and shall not be subject to collateral attack by way of review of a rate determination, application for adjustment or refund, or otherwise.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.06, subdivision 19, is amended to read:

Subd. 19. [NOTICE OF RATE.] The commissioner shall mail to each employer notice of his rate of contributions as determined for any calendar year pursuant to this section. Such notice shall contain the contribution rate, factors used in determining the individual employer's experience rating, and such other information as the commissioner may prescribe. Unless reviewed in the manner hereinafter provided, the rate as determined or as modified by a redetermination, a decision of a ~~referee~~ an unemployment judge, or the commissioner shall be final except for fraud and shall be the rate upon which contributions shall be computed for the calendar year for which such rate was determined, and shall not be subject to collateral attack for any errors, clerical or otherwise, whether by way of claim for adjustment or refund, or otherwise. If the legislature changes any of the factors used to determine the contribution rate of any employer for any year subsequent to the original mailing of such notice for the year, the earlier notice shall be void. The notice based on the new factors shall be deemed to be the only notice of rate of contributions for that year and shall be subject to the same finality, redetermination and review procedures as provided above.

amended to read:

Subd. 20. [PROTEST, REVIEW, REDETERMINATION, APPEAL.] A review of the charges made to an employer's account as set forth in the notice of charges referred to in subdivision 18 and a review of an employer's contribution rate as set forth in the notice of his rate for any calendar year as provided in subdivision 19, may be had by the employer if he files with the commissioner a written protest setting forth his reasons therefor within 30 days from the date of the mailing of the notice of charges or contribution rate to him. The date shall appear on the notice. Upon receipt of the protest, the commissioner shall refer the matter to an official designated by him to review the charges appearing on the notice appealed from or the computations of the protesting employer's rate, as the case may be, to determine whether or not there has been any clerical error or error in computation in either case. The official shall either affirm or make a redetermination rectifying the charges or rate as the case may be, and a notice of the affirmation or redetermination shall immediately be mailed to the employer. If the employer is not satisfied with the affirmation or redetermination, he may appeal by filing a notice with the department within ten days after the date of mailing appearing upon the redetermination. Upon the receipt of the appeal, the commissioner shall refer the matter to a ~~referee~~ the office of administrative hearings for a hearing and after opportunity for a fair hearing, the ~~referee~~ unemployment judge shall affirm, modify or set aside the original determination with its affirmation or the redetermination, as appears just and proper. The commissioner may at any time upon his own motion correct any clerical error of the department resulting in charges against an employer's account or any error in the computation of an employer's contribution rate. The ~~referee~~ unemployment judge may order the consolidation of two or more appeals whenever, in his judgment, consolidation will not be prejudicial to any interested party. At any hearing a written report of any employee of the department which has been authenticated shall be admissible in evidence. Appeals from the decision of the ~~referee~~ unemployment judge shall be provided by section 268.10, subdivision 5.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.10, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXAMINATION OF CLAIMS; DETERMINATION; APPEAL.] (1) An official, designated by the commissioner, shall promptly examine each claim for benefits filed to establish a benefit year pursuant to this section, and, on the basis of the facts found, shall determine whether or not such claims are valid, and if valid, the weekly benefit amount payable, the maximum benefit amount payable during the benefit year, and the date the benefit year terminates, and this determination shall be known as the determination of validity. Notice of the determination of validity or any redetermination as provided for in clause (4) shall be promptly given the claimant and all other interested parties. If within the time limits for filing a protest an employer notifies the department that an individual's weekly benefit amount as determined under section 268.07 exceeds the individual's weekly wages earned with the employer, the individual's weekly benefit amount shall be the lesser of (1) the weekly benefit amount as determined under section 268.07, or (2) the weekly benefit amount which is 50 percent of the quotient derived by dividing the total wage credits earned in the individual's base period credit weeks from all employers in insured work by the number of base period credit weeks. If within the time specified for the filing of wage and separation information as provided in subdivision 1, clause (2), the employer makes an allegation of disqualification or raises an issue of the chargeability to his account of benefits that may be paid on such claim, if the claim is valid, the issue thereby raised shall be promptly determined by said official and a notification of the determination delivered or mailed to the claimant and the employer. If an initial determination or an ~~appeal tribunal~~ unemployment judge decision or the commissioner's decision awards benefits, the benefits shall be paid promptly regardless of the pendency of any appeal period or any appeal or other proceeding which may thereafter be taken. Except as provided in clause (6), if an ~~appeal tribunal~~ unemployment judge decision modifies or reverses an initial determination awarding benefits, or if a commissioner's decision modifies or reverses an ~~appeal~~ unemployment judge decision awarding benefits, any benefits paid under the award of such initial determination or ~~appeal tribunal~~ unemployment judge decision shall be deemed erroneous payments.

(2) At any time within 24 months from the date of the filing of a valid claim for benefits by an individual, an official of the department or any interested party or parties raises an issue of claimant's eligibility for benefits for any week or weeks in accordance with the requirements of the provisions of sections 268.03 to 268.24 or any official of the department or any interested party or parties or benefit year employer raises an issue of disqualification in accordance with the regulations of the commissioner, a determination shall be made thereon and a written notice thereof shall be given to the claimant and such other interested party or parties or benefit year employer. A determination issued under this clause which denies benefits for weeks for which the claimant has previously been paid benefits is an overpayment of those benefits subject to section 268.18.

(3) A determination issued pursuant to clauses (1) and (2) shall be final unless an appeal therefrom is filed by a claimant or employer within 15 days after the mailing of the notice of the determination to his last known address or personal delivery of the notice. Every notice of determination shall contain a prominent statement indicating in clear language the method of appealing the determination, the time within which such an appeal must be made, and the consequences of not appealing the determination. A timely appeal from a determination of validity in which the issue is whether an employing unit is an employer within the meaning of this chapter or whether services performed for an employer constitute employment within the meaning of this chapter shall be subject to the provisions of section 268.12, subdivision 13.

(4) At any time within 24 months from the date of the filing of a valid claim for benefits by an individual, the commissioner on his own motion may reconsider a determination of validity made thereon and make a redetermination thereof if he finds that an error in computation or identity or the crediting of wage credits has occurred in connection therewith or if the determination was made as a result of a nondisclosure or misrepresentation of a material fact. A determination or redetermination issued under this clause which denies benefits for weeks for which the claimant has previously been paid benefits is an overpayment of those benefits subject to section 268.18.

(5) However, the commissioner may in his discretion refer any disputed claims directly to a referee the office of administrative hearings for hearing and determination in accordance with the procedure outlined in subdivision 3 and the effect and status of such determination in such a case shall be the same as though the matter had been determined upon an appeal to the tribunal unemployment judge from an initial determination.

(6) If a referee's unemployment judge's decision affirms an initial determination awarding benefits or the commissioner affirms an appeal tribunal unemployment judge decision awarding benefits, the decision, if finally reversed, shall not result in a disqualification and benefits paid shall neither be deemed overpaid nor shall they be considered in determining any individual employer's future contribution rate under section 268.06.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.10, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [APPEAL; HEARING.] Upon receipt of an appeal from an initial determination made under subdivision 2, the commissioner shall immediately forward the appeal and all necessary documents to the chief administrative law judge for assignment of an unemployment judge to hear the case and the scheduling of a date, time, and place for the hearing. Unless an appeal is withdrawn, the date for hearing before a referee unemployment judge shall be set and notice of the hearing shall be mailed to the last known address of all interested parties at least ten days prior to the date set for the hearing. The notice shall be mailed by the office of administrative hearings. The hearing may be conducted by means of a conference telephone call except that the appellant may request that the hearing be conducted in person. The hearing shall be a trial de novo, and, upon the evidence presented, the referee unemployment judge shall affirm, modify, or set aside the initial determination. Where the same or substantially similar evidence is relevant and material to the issues in appeals by more than one individual or in appeals by one individual with respect to two or more weeks of unemployment, the appeals may be consolidated into one hearing pursuant to the procedural rules adopted by the chief hearing examiner. The referee unemployment judge shall exclude from any consolidated hearing the appeal of an individual who may be prejudiced because of the consolidation. A referee unemployment judge shall not hear any appeal in which the referee unemployment judge has a direct interest. The parties and the commissioner shall be notified of the referee's unemployment judge's decision and the reason for it. The referee's unemployment judge's decision is deemed to be the final decision unless a further appeal is initiated pursuant to subdivision 5.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.10, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [REFEREES TRANSCRIPTS; REVIEW OF DECISIONS.] In order to assure the prompt disposition of all claims for benefits, the commissioner shall appoint one or more impartial referees. The commissioner shall by rule adopt a procedure by which referees hear and decide disputed claims, subject to appeal to the commissioner. No person shall participate on behalf of the commissioner in any case in which that person is an interested party. The commissioner may designate alternates to serve in the absence or disqualification of a referee. The office of administrative hearings shall cause a transcript to be prepared of all cases heard by an unemployment judge from which an appeal is made to the commissioner, or in any case to be reviewed by motion of the commissioner where the commissioner requests a transcript. There shall be no charges, fees, transcript costs, or other cost imposed upon the employee in prosecuting an appeal. All decisions of referees unemployment judges shall be made available to the public in accordance with rules the commissioner may prescribe, except that names of interested parties may be deleted.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.10, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [REVIEW BY COMMISSIONER.] Within 30 days after mailing or personal delivery of the notice of a referee's unemployment judge's decision to the claimant or employer at the last known address, a party may appeal from the decision and obtain a review of it by the commissioner or an authorized representative. An appeal from an unemployment judge's decision must be filed with the chief administrative law judge. Upon receipt of an appeal, the chief administrative law judge shall notify the commissioner of the appeal and shall cause a transcript of the hearing to be prepared. Upon completion of the transcript, the entire file shall be transmitted to the commissioner. The commissioner within the same period of time may on the commissioner's own motion order a review of a decision. Upon review, the commissioner or authorized representative may affirm, modify, or set aside any finding of fact or decision, or both, of the referee unemployment judge on the basis of the evidence previously submitted in the case, or remand the matter back to the referee unemployment judge for the taking of additional evidence and new findings and decision based on all of the evidence before the referee unemployment judge. Notice of all hearings on review shall be given to all interested parties in the same manner as provided for by subdivision 3. ~~The commissioner or authorized representative may remove to himself or herself or transfer to another referee the proceedings on any claim pending before a referee. Any proceedings removed to the commissioner or authorized representative shall be heard upon notice in accordance with the requirements of subdivision 3.~~ The department of economic security shall mail to all interested parties a notice of the filing of and a copy of the findings and decision of the commissioner or his representative.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.10, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [COMMISSIONER.] The manner in which disputed claims are presented, the reports required from the claimant and from employers, and the conduct of hearings and appeals shall be in accordance with the rules adopted by the commissioner for determining the rights of the parties, ~~whether or not the regulations.~~ Rules relating to the conduct of hearings before unemployment judges shall be adopted by the chief administrative law judge. The rules of the commissioner and the chief administrative law judge need not conform to common law or statutory rules of evidence and other technical rules of procedure. A full and complete record shall be kept of all proceedings in connection with a disputed claim. All testimony at any hearing shall be recorded, but need not be transcribed unless the disputed claim is further appealed.

amended to read:

Subd. 9. [REPRESENTATION BY ATTORNEY.] In any proceeding under these sections before a ~~referee an unemployment judge~~ or the commissioner, a party may be represented by an agent or attorney, but no individual claiming benefits shall be charged fees of any kind in a proceeding before a ~~referee an unemployment judge~~, the commissioner, commissioner's representatives, or by any court or any officers thereof. Any individual claiming benefits in any proceedings before the commissioner or his representatives or a court may be represented by counsel or other duly authorized agent, except that said agent in any court proceedings under these sections, must be an attorney at law; but no counsel shall either charge or receive for the services more than an amount approved by the commissioner and no fees shall be collected from an individual claiming benefits by any agent unless he is an attorney at law.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.12, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [RECORDS; REPORTS.] (1) Each employing unit shall keep true and accurate work records for such periods of time and containing such information as the commissioner may prescribe. Such records shall be open to inspection, audit, and verification, and be subject to being copied by any authorized representative of the commissioner at any reasonable time and as often as may be necessary. The commissioner, ~~appeal referee unemployment judge~~, or any other duly authorized representative of the commissioner, may require from any employing unit any sworn or unsworn reports, with respect to persons employed by it, which the commissioner, ~~appeal referee unemployment judge~~, or any other duly authorized representative of the commissioner deems necessary for the effective administration of sections 268.03 to 268.24, provided that quarterly contribution and wage report forms shall include the employee's name, social security number, and total wages paid to the employee.

(2) The commissioner may cause to be made such summaries, compilations, photographs, duplications, or reproductions of any records, reports, or transcripts thereof as he may deem advisable for the effective and economical preservation of the information contained therein, and such summaries, compilations, photographs, duplications or reproductions, duly authenticated, shall be admissible in any proceeding under sections 268.03 to 268.24, if the original record or records would have been admissible therein. Notwithstanding any restrictions contained in section 16B.50, except restrictions as to quantity, the commissioner is hereby authorized to duplicate, on equipment furnished by the federal government or purchased with funds furnished for that purpose by the federal government, records, reports, summaries, compilations, instructions, determinations, or any other written matter pertaining to the administration of the Minnesota economic security law.

(3) Notwithstanding any inconsistent provisions elsewhere, the commissioner may provide for the destruction or disposition of any records, reports, transcripts, or reproductions thereof, or other papers in his custody, which are more than two years old, the preservation of which is no longer necessary for the establishment of contribution liability or benefit rights or for any purpose necessary to the proper administration of sections 268.03 to 268.24, including any required audit thereof, provided, that the commissioner may provide for the destruction or disposition of any record, report, or transcript, or other paper in his custody which has been photographed, duplicated, or reproduced in the manner provided in clause (2).

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of the Minnesota State Archives Act the commissioner shall with the approval of the legislative auditor destroy all benefit checks and benefit check authorization cards that are more than two years old and no person shall make any demand, bring any suit or other proceeding to recover from the state of Minnesota any sum alleged to be due him on any claim for benefits after the expiration of two years from the date of filing such claim.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.12, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [TESTIMONIAL POWERS.] (1) In the discharge of the duties imposed by sections 268.03 to 268.24, the commissioner, ~~appeal referee~~ unemployment judge, or any duly authorized representative of the commissioner, shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations, take depositions, certify to official acts, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, and other records deemed necessary as evidence in connection with a disputed claim or the administration of these sections;

(2) Witnesses, other than interested parties or officers and employees of an employing unit which is an interested party, subpoenaed pursuant to this subdivision or sections 268.03 to 268.24, shall be allowed fees the same as witness fees in civil actions in district court, which fees need not be paid in advance of the time of giving of testimony, and such fees of witnesses so subpoenaed shall be deemed part of the expense of administering these sections;

(3) In case of contumacy by, or refusal to obey, a subpoena issued to any person, any court of this state within the jurisdiction of which the inquiry is carried on or within the jurisdiction of which such person guilty of contumacy or refusal to obey is found or resides or transacts business, upon application by the commissioner, or ~~referee~~ unemployment judge, or any duly authorized representative of the commissioner, shall have jurisdiction to issue to such person an order requiring such person to appear before the commissioner, ~~the chairman of an appeal tribunal~~, ~~referee~~ unemployment judge, or any duly authorized representative of the commissioner, there to produce evidence if so ordered or there to give testimony relative to the matter under investigation or in question; and any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt thereof.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.12, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [SELF-INCRIMINATION.] No person shall be excused from attending and testifying or from producing books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, and other records before the commissioner, ~~the chairman of an appeal tribunal~~, ~~referee~~ unemployment judge, or any duly authorized representative of the commissioner, or in obedience to the subpoena of any of them in any cause or proceeding before the commissioner, an ~~appeal tribunal, referee unemployment judge~~, or any duly authorized representative of the commissioner on the grounds that the testimony or evidence, documentary or otherwise, required of him may tend to incriminate him or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture; but no individual shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which he is compelled, after having claimed his privilege against self-incrimination, to testify or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise, except that such individual so testifying shall not be exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying.

Subd. 13. [DETERMINATIONS.] (1) An official, designated by the commissioner, upon his own motion or upon application of an employing unit, shall determine if an employing unit is an employer within the meaning of this chapter or as to whether services performed for it constitute employment within the meaning of this chapter, and shall notify the employing unit of the determination. The determination shall be final unless the employing unit, within 30 days after the mailing of notice of the determination to the employing unit's last known address, files a written appeal from it.

(2) ~~The commissioner shall designate one or more referees to conduct hearings on appeals~~ Upon receipt of an appeal under clause (1), the commissioner shall refer the matter to the office of administrative hearings for a hearing. The employing unit and any claimant whose filed claim for benefits may be affected by a determination issued under clause (1) shall be interested parties to an appeal. The ~~referee unemployment judge~~ shall fix a time and place within this state for the hearing and give interested parties written notice of it, by mail, not less than ten days prior to the time of the hearing. In the discharge of the duties imposed by this subdivision, the ~~referee unemployment judge~~ may administer oaths and affirmations, take depositions, certify to official acts, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, and other records deemed necessary as evidence in connection with the subject matter of the hearing. The written report of any employee of the department of economic security, made in the regular course of the performance of the employee's duties, shall be competent evidence of the facts contained in it and shall be prima facie correct, unless refuted by other credible evidence.

tional evidence. The commissioner may disregard the findings of fact of the referee unemployment judge and examine the testimony taken and make any findings of fact as the evidence taken before the referee unemployment judge may, in the judgment of the commissioner, require, and make any decision as the facts found by him require. The commissioner shall notify the employing unit of his findings and decision by mail, mailed to the interested parties' last known addresses. The decision of the commissioner is final unless judicial review of it is sought as provided by this subdivision. Any interested party to a proceeding before the commissioner may obtain a transcript of the testimony taken before the referee unemployment judge upon payment to the commissioner of the cost of the transcript at the rate of ten cents per 100 words.

(4) The court of appeals may, by writ of certiorari to the commissioner, review all questions of law and fact presented by the record in accordance with chapter 14. The commissioner shall not be required to certify the record to the court unless the party commencing the proceedings for review pays to the commissioner the cost of certification of the record at the rate of ten cents per 100 words less any amount previously paid by the party for a transcript. The commissioner shall, upon receipt of the payment, prepare and certify to the court a true and correct typewritten copy of all matters contained in the record. The costs collected by the commissioner shall be deposited in the economic security administration fund provided for in section 268.15.

(5) A final decision of the commissioner or referee, in the absence of appeal, is conclusive for all the purposes of sections 268.03 to 268.24 except as otherwise provided, and, together with the records therein made, shall be admissible in any subsequent judicial proceeding involving liability for contributions. A final decision of the commissioner or referee may be introduced in any proceeding involving a claim for benefits.

(6) In the event a final decision of the commissioner or referee unemployment judge determines the amount of contributions due under sections 268.03 to 268.24, then, if the amount, together with interest and penalties, is not paid within 30 days after the decision, the provisions of section 268.161 shall apply. The commissioner shall proceed thereunder, substituting a certified copy of the final decision in place of the contribution report.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.18, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ERRONEOUS PAYMENTS.] Any claimant for benefits who, by reason of his own mistake or through the error of any individual engaged in the administration of sections 268.03 to 268.24 or because of a determination or redetermination issued pursuant to section 268.10, subdivision 2, has received any sum as benefits to which he was not entitled under these sections, shall promptly return such benefits in cash to the nearest office of the Minnesota department of economic security. If such claimant fails to return such benefits, the department of economic security shall, as soon as it discovers such erroneous payment, determine the amount thereof and notify said individual to return the same. Unless the claimant files a written appeal with the department of economic security within 15 days after the mailing of the notice of determination to his last known address or personal delivery of the notice, the determination shall become final. If the claimant files an appeal with the department in writing within the time aforesaid the matter shall be set for hearing before a referee of the department an unemployment judge of the office of administrative hearings and heard as other benefit matters are heard in accordance with section 268.10 with the same rights of review as outlined for benefit cases in that section. The commissioner of the department of economic security is hereby authorized to deduct from any future benefits payable to the claimant under these sections in either the current or any subsequent benefit year an amount equivalent to the overpayment determined or the overpayment may be collected without interest by civil action in the name of the commissioner. If a claimant has been overpaid benefits under the law of another state and that state certifies to the department the facts involved and that the individual is liable under its law to repay the benefits and requests the department to recover the overpayment, the commissioner is authorized to deduct from future benefits payable to the claimant in either the current or any subsequent benefit year an amount equivalent to the amount of overpayment determined by that state. Benefits paid for weeks more than three years prior to the discovery of error are not erroneous payments.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.18, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FRAUD.] Any claimant who files a claim for or receives benefits by knowingly and willfully misrepresenting or misstating any material fact or by knowingly and willfully failing to disclose any material fact which would make him ineligible for benefits under sections 268.03 to 268.24 is guilty of fraud. After the discovery of facts by the commissioner indicating fraud in claiming or obtaining benefits under sections 268.03 to 268.24, he is hereby authorized to make a determination that the claimant was ineligible for each week with reference to which benefits were claimed or obtained by fraud for the amount as was in excess of what the claimant would have been entitled to had he not made the fraudulent statements or failed to disclose any material facts. The commissioner also may disqualify an individual from benefits for one to 52 weeks in which the claimant is otherwise eligible for benefits following the week in which the fraud was determined. A disqualification imposed for fraud shall not be removed by subsequent insured work or the expiration of a benefit year but shall not apply to any week more than 104 weeks after the week in which the fraud was determined. The claimant shall promptly repay in cash to the department of economic security any benefits fraudulently obtained. Unless the claimant files a written appeal with the department of economic security within 15 days after the mailing of the notice of determination to his last known address or personal delivery of the notice, the determination shall become final. If the claimant appeals from the determination within the time above specified the matter shall be referred to a referee an unemployment judge for a hearing as in other benefit cases and thereafter the procedure for review shall be the same as set forth in section 268.10. The commissioner is hereby authorized to deduct from future benefits payable to the claimant in either the current or any subsequent benefit year an amount equivalent to the amount of overpayment determined or the overpayment may be collected without interest by civil action in the name of the commissioner. If a claimant has been overpaid benefits under the law of another state and that state certifies to the department the facts involved and that the individual is liable to repay the benefits and requests the department to recover the overpayment, the commissioner is authorized to deduct from future benefits payable to the claimant in either the current or any subsequent benefit year an amount equivalent to the amount of overpayment determined by that state. A determination of fraud may be made at any time.

"ARTICLE 1

UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION

268.03 [DECLARATION OF PUBLIC POLICY.]

As a guide to the interpretation and application of sections 268.03 to 268.24, the public policy of this state is declared to be as follows: Economic insecurity due to unemployment is a serious menace to the health, morals, and welfare of the people of this state. Involuntary unemployment is therefore a subject of general interest and concern which requires appropriate action by the legislature to prevent its spread and to lighten its burdens. This can be provided by encouraging employers to provide more stable employment and by the systematic accumulation of funds during periods of employment to provide benefits for periods of unemployment, thus maintaining purchasing power and limiting the serious social consequences of poor relief assistance. The legislature, therefore, declares that in its considered judgment the public good and the general welfare of the citizens of this state will be promoted by providing, under the police powers of the state for the ~~compulsory setting aside of unemployment reserves to be used for the benefit of persons unemployed through no fault of their own establishment of an unemployment insurance fund. The reserves of the unemployment insurance fund are to be used to provide a temporary replacement of a portion of lost wages to individuals with a permanent attachment to the work force, who become involuntarily unemployed through no fault of their own, and who are actively seeking, and are willing and available to accept, suitable reemployment.~~

It is the specific intent of the legislature that unemployment compensation cases shall be decided on their merits and that the unemployment compensation laws are not remedial in any sense and are not to be given a broad liberal construction.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.04, subdivision 25, is amended to read:

Subd. 25. [WAGES.] "Wages" means all remuneration for services, including commissions and bonuses, back pay as of the date of payment, and tips and gratuities paid to an employee by a customer of an employer and accounted for by the employee to the employer, and the cash value of all remuneration in any medium other than cash, except that such term shall not include:

(a) For the purpose of determining contributions payable under section 268.06, subdivision 2, that part of the remuneration which exceeds, for each calendar year, the greater of $7,000 or that part of the remuneration which exceeds 60 percent of the average annual wage rounded to the nearest $100 ~~computed in accordance with the provisions of clause (4)~~ $10,300 for the calendar year 1985; $10,900 for the calendar year 1986; and $11,400 for the calendar year 1987 and all calendar years thereafter, paid to an individual by an employer with respect to covered employment in this state, or with respect to employment under the unemployment compensation law of any other state during any calendar year paid to such individual by such covered employer or his predecessor during such calendar year; provided, that if the term "wages" as contained in the Federal Unemployment Tax Act is amended to include remuneration in excess of the amount required to be paid hereunder to an individual by an employer under the federal act for any calendar year, wages for the purposes of sections 268.03 to 268.24 shall include remuneration paid in a calendar year up to an amount equal to the dollar limitation specified in the Federal Unemployment Tax Act. For the purposes of this clause, the term "employment" shall include service constituting employment under any employment security law of another state or of the federal government;

(b) The amount of any payment made to, or on behalf of, an employee under a plan or system established by an employer which makes provision for his employees generally or for a class or classes of his employees (including any amount paid by an employer for insurance or annuities, or into a fund, to provide for any such payment), on account of (1) retirement or (2) sickness or accident disability or (3) medical and hospitalization expenses in connection with sickness or accident disability, or (4) death, provided the employee has not the option to receive, instead of provision for such death benefit, any part of such payment, or if such death benefit is insured, any part of the premium (or contributions to premiums) paid by his employer and has not the right, under the provisions of the plan or system or policy of insurance providing for such death benefit, to assign such benefit, or to receive a cash consideration in lieu of such benefit either upon his withdrawal from the plan or system providing for such benefit or upon termination of such plan or system or policy of insurance or of his employment with such employer;

(c) The payment by an employer (without deduction from the remuneration of the employee) (1) of the tax imposed upon an employee under section 3101 of the federal Internal Revenue Code, or (2) of any payment required from an employee under a state unemployment compensation law, with respect to remuneration paid to an employee for domestic service in a private home of the employer or for agricultural labor;

(d) Any payments made to a former employee during the period of active military service in the armed forces of the United States by such employer, whether legally required or not;

(e) Any payment made to, or on behalf of, an employee or his beneficiary (1) from or to a trust described in section 401(a) of the federal Internal Revenue Code which is exempt from tax under section 501(a) of such code at the time of such payment unless such payment is made to an employee of the trust as remuneration for services rendered as an employee and not as a beneficiary of the trust, or (2) under or to an annuity plan which, at the time of such payment is a plan described in section 403(a) of the federal Internal Revenue Code, or (3) under or to a bond purchase plan which, at the time of such payment, is a qualified bond purchase plan described in section 405(a) of the federal Internal Revenue Code;

(f) On or before July 1 of each year the commissioner shall determine the average annual wage paid by employers subject to sections 268.03 to 268.24 in the following manner:

(1) The sum of the total monthly employment reported for the previous calendar year shall be divided by 12 to determine the average monthly employment;

(2) The sum of the total wages reported for the previous calendar year shall be divided by the average monthly employment to determine the average annual wage.

The average annual wage determined shall be effective for the calendar year next succeeding the determination.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.04, subdivision 29, is amended to read:

Subd. 29. "Credit week" is any week for which wages or back pay, actually or constructively paid, wages overdue and delayed beyond the usual time of payment, and back pay by or from one or more employers to an employee for insured work equal or exceed 30 percent of the average weekly wage times the adult minimum wage in effect under section 177.24, subdivision 1, on December 31 of the year two years before the year in which the claim is made. The product shall be computed to the nearest whole dollar. On or before June 30 of each year the commissioner shall determine the average weekly wage paid by employers subject to sections 268.03 to 268.24 in the following manner:

(a) The sum of the total monthly employment reported for the previous calendar year shall be divided by 12 to determine the average monthly employment;

(b) The sum of the total wages reported for the previous calendar year shall be divided by the average monthly employment to determine the average annual wage; and

(c) The average annual wage shall be divided by 52 to determine the average weekly wage.

The average weekly wage as so determined computed to the nearest whole dollar shall apply to claims for benefits which establish a benefit year which begins subsequent to December 31 of the year of the computation.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.06, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [BENEFITS CHARGED AS AND WHEN PAID.] Benefits paid to an individual pursuant to a valid claim shall be charged against the account of his employer as and when paid, except that benefits paid to an individual who earned base period wages for part-time employment shall not be charged to an employer that is liable for payments in lieu of contributions or to the experience rating account of an employer if the employer: (1) provided weekly base period part-time employment; (2) continues to provide weekly employment equal to at least 90 percent of the part-time employment provided in the base period; and (3) is an interested party because of the individual's loss of other employment.

For the purpose of this subdivision, an employer is deemed to satisfy clause (2) if:

(a) the weekly employment in the base period was on an on call as needed basis; and

(b) the employer continues to employ the individual on the same basis and provides employment substantially equal to the employment provided in the base period.

The amount of benefits so chargeable against each base period employer's account shall bear the same ratio to the total benefits paid to an individual as the base period wage credits of the individual earned from such employer bear to the total amount of base period wage credits of the individual earned from all his base period employers.

In making computations under this provision, the amount of wage credits if not a multiple of $1, shall be computed to the nearest multiple of $1.

Benefits shall not be charged to an employer that is liable for payments in lieu of contributions or to the experience rating account of an employer for unemployment that is directly caused by a major natural disaster declared by the president pursuant to section 102(2) of the Disaster Relief Act of 1974 (42 United States Code 5122(2)), if the unemployed individual would have been eligible for disaster unemployment assistance with respect to that unemployment but for the individual's receipt of unemployment insurance benefits.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.06, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [DETERMINATION OF CONTRIBUTION RATES.] For each calendar year the commissioner shall determine the contribution rate of each employer by adding the minimum rate to the experience ratio; except that if the ratio for the current calendar year increases or decreases the experience ratio for the preceding calendar year by more than one and one-half percentage points for 1982; and 2-1/2 percentage points for 1983 and each year thereafter, the increase or decrease for the current year shall be limited to one and one-half percentage points for 1982; and 2-1/2 percentage points for 1983 and each year thereafter, provided that a small business employer shall be eligible, upon application, for a reduction in the limitation to 1-1/2 percentage points for 1983 and each year thereafter. "Small business employer" for the purpose of this subdivision means an employer with an annual covered payroll of $250,000 or less, or fewer than 20 employees in three of the four quarters ending June 30, of the previous calendar year.

The minimum rate for all employers shall be one percent if the amount in the unemployment compensation fund is less than $80,000,000 on June 30 of the preceding calendar year; or nine-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $80,000,000 but less than $90,000,000; or eight-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $90,000,000 but less than $110,000,000; or seven-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $110,000,000 but less than $130,000,000; or six-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $130,000,000 but less than $150,000,000; or five-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $150,000,000 but less than $170,000,000; or three-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $170,000,000 but less than $200,000,000; or one-tenth of one percent if the fund is $200,000,000 or more; provided that no employer shall have a contribution rate of more than 7.5 percent.

For the purposes of this section the unemployment compensation fund shall not include any moneys advanced from the Federal Unemployment Account in the unemployment trust fund in accordance with Title XII of the Social Security Act, as amended. No employer first assigned an experience ratio in accordance with subdivision 6, shall have his contribution rate increased or decreased by more than one and one-half percentage points for 1982; and 2-1/2 percentage points for 1983 and each year thereafter over the contribution rate assigned for the preceding calendar year in accordance with subdivision 3a, provided that a small business employer shall be eligible, upon application, for a reduction in the limitation to 1-1/2 percentage points for 1983 and each year thereafter.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.07, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [WEEKLY BENEFIT AMOUNT AND DURATION.] If the commissioner finds that an individual has earned ~~45~~ 20, or more, credit weeks within the base period of employment in insured work with one or more employers, benefits shall be payable to such individual during his benefit year as follows:

(1) Weekly benefit amount shall be equal to ~~60~~ one percent of the first $85, 40 percent of the next $85 and 50 percent of the remainder of the average weekly wage of such individual individual's total base period wage credits. The amount so computed if not a whole dollar shall be rounded down to the next lower dollar amount. The maximum weekly benefit amount of claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to July 1, 1979 shall be ~~66-2/3~~ percent of the average weekly wage, except as provided in clause (d).

On or before June 30 of each year the commissioner shall determine the average weekly wage paid by employers subject to sections 268.03 to 268.24 in the following manner:

(a) The sum of the total monthly employment reported for the previous calendar year shall be divided by 12 to determine the average monthly employment.

(b) The sum of the total wages reported for the previous calendar year shall be divided by the average monthly employment to determine the average annual wage.

(c) The average annual wage shall be divided by 52 to determine the average weekly wage.

(d) The maximum weekly benefit amount for claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1982, and prior to July 1, 1983, shall be $184.

The maximum weekly benefit amount for claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1983, and prior to July 1, 1984, shall be $191.

The minimum weekly benefit amount for claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1985, shall be $68.

The maximum weekly benefit amount for claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1984, and prior to July 1, 1985, shall be $198.

The maximum weekly benefit amount for claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1985, and prior to July 1, 1986, shall be $200.

The maximum weekly benefit amount for claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1986, and prior to July 1, 1987, shall be $208.

The maximum weekly benefit amount for claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1987, shall be $216.

(2) An individual's maximum amount of regular benefits payable in a benefit year shall not exceed the lesser of (a) 26 times his weekly benefit amount or (b) 70 percent of the number of credit weeks earned by such an individual computed to the nearest whole week times his weekly benefit amount.

(3) Each eligible individual who is unemployed in any week shall be paid with respect to such week a benefit in an amount equal to his weekly benefit amount less that part of his earnings, including holiday pay, payable to him with respect to such week which is in excess of $25 or $200 for earnings from service in the national guard or a United States military reserve unit. Jury duty pay is not considered as earnings and shall not be deducted from benefits paid. Such benefit, if not a whole dollar amount shall be rounded down to the next lower dollar amount.

(4) The provisions of clauses (1) and (2) shall apply to claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1983.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.07, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [EXCEPTION.] Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 2, if the commissioner finds that an individual has earned credit weeks in seasonal employment, benefits shall be payable only if the commissioner finds that the individual has earned 15 credit weeks in employment which is not seasonal, in addition to any credit weeks in seasonal employment. For the purposes of this subdivision, "seasonal employment" means:

(1) employment with a single employer in the recreation or tourist industry which is available with the employer for 15 consecutive weeks or less each calendar year; or

(2) employment in activities relating to the first processing of seasonally produced agricultural products in which, because of the seasonal nature thereof, it is customary to operate only during a regularly recurring period or periods of less than 18 weeks in any calendar year.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.08, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBILITY CONDITIONS.] An individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week of unemployment only if the commissioner finds that the individual:

(1) has registered for work at and thereafter has continued to report to an employment office, or agent of the office, in accordance with rules the commissioner may adopt; except that the commissioner may by rule waive or alter either or both of the requirements of this clause as to types of cases or situations with respect to which the commissioner finds that compliance with the requirements would be oppressive or would be inconsistent with the purposes of sections 268.03 to 268.24;

(2) has made a claim for benefits in accordance with rules as the commissioner may adopt; and

(3) was able to work and was available for work, and was actively seeking work. The individual's weekly benefit amount shall be reduced one-fifth for each day the individual is unable to work or is unavailable for work. Benefits shall not be denied by application of this clause to an individual who is in training with the approval of the commissioner or in training approved pursuant to section 236 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended;

An individual is deemed unavailable for work with respect to any week which occurs in a period when the individual is a full-time student in attendance at, or on vacation from an established school, college or university unless a majority of the credit weeks earned in the base period were for services performed during weeks in which the student was attending school as a full-time student.

An individual serving as a juror shall be considered as available for work and actively seeking work on each day the individual is on jury duty.

(4) has been unemployed for a waiting period of one week during which the individual is otherwise eligible for benefits under sections 268.03 to 268.24. ~~However, payment for the waiting week shall be made to the individual after the individual has qualified for and been paid benefits for four weeks of unemployment in a benefit year which period of unemployment is terminated because of the individual's return to employment.~~ No individual is required to serve a waiting period of more than one week within the one year period subsequent to filing a valid claim and commencing with the week within which the valid claim was filed.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.09, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DISQUALIFYING CONDITIONS.] An individual separated from employment under clauses (1), (2), or (3) shall be disqualified for waiting week credit and benefits. For separations under clauses (1) and (2), the disqualification shall continue until ~~four~~ eight calendar weeks have elapsed following his separation and the individual has earned ~~four~~ eight times his weekly benefit amount in insured work.

(1) [VOLUNTARY LEAVE.] The individual voluntarily and without good cause attributable to the employer discontinued his employment with such employer. For the purpose of this clause, a separation from employment by reason of its temporary nature or for inability to pass a test or for inability to meet performance standards necessary for continuation of employment or based solely on a provision in a collective bargaining agreement by which an individual has vested discretionary authority in another to act in behalf of the individual shall not be deemed voluntary.

A separation shall be for good cause attributable to the employer if it occurs as a consequence of sexual harassment. Sexual harassment means unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, sexually motivated physical contact or other conduct or communication of a sexual nature when: (1) the employee's submission to such conduct or communication is made a term or condition of the employment, (2) the employee's submission to or rejection of such conduct or communication is the basis for decisions affecting employment, or (3) such conduct or communication has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment and the employer knows or should know of the existence of the harassment and fails to take timely and appropriate action.

(2) [DISCHARGE FOR MISCONDUCT.] The individual was discharged for misconduct, not amounting to gross misconduct connected with his work or for misconduct which interferes with and adversely affects his employment.

An individual shall not be disqualified under clauses (1) and (2) of this subdivision under any of the following conditions:

(a) The individual voluntarily discontinued his employment to accept work offering substantially better conditions of work or substantially higher wages or both;

An individual who is separated from his employment due to his illness of chemical dependency which has been professionally diagnosed or for which he has voluntarily submitted to treatment and who fails to make consistent efforts to maintain the treatment he knows or has been professionally advised is necessary to control that illness has not made reasonable efforts to retain his employment.

(c) The individual accepts work from a base period employer which involves a change in his location of work so that said work would not have been deemed to be suitable work under the provisions of subdivision 2 and within a period of 13 weeks from the commencement of said work voluntarily discontinues his employment due to reasons which would have caused the work to be unsuitable under the provision of said subdivision 2;

(d) The individual left employment because he had reached mandatory retirement age and was 65 years of age or older;

(e) The individual is terminated by his employer because he gave notice of intention to terminate employment within 30 days. This exception shall be effective only through the calendar week which includes the date of intended termination, provided that this exception shall not result in the payment of benefits for any week for which he receives his normal wage or salary which is equal to or greater than his weekly benefit amount;

(f) The individual is separated from employment due to the completion of an apprenticeship program, or segment thereof, approved pursuant to chapter 178;

(g) The individual voluntarily leaves part-time employment with a base period employer while continuing full-time employment if the individual attempted to return to part-time employment after being separated from the full-time employment, and if substantially the same part-time employment with the base period employer was not available for the individual.

(3) [DISCHARGE FOR GROSS MISCONDUCT.] The individual was discharged for gross misconduct connected with his work or gross misconduct which interferes with and adversely affects his employment. For a separation under this clause, the commissioner shall impose a total disqualification for the benefit year and cancel all of the wage credits from the last employer from whom he was discharged for gross misconduct connected with his work.

For the purpose of this clause "gross misconduct" is defined as misconduct involving assault and battery or the malicious destruction of property or arson or sabotage or embezzlement or any other act, including theft, the commission of which amounts to a felony or gross misdemeanor. For an employee of a health care facility, gross misconduct also includes misconduct involving an act of patient or resident abuse as defined in section 626.557, subdivision 2, clause (d).

If an individual is convicted of a felony or gross misdemeanor for the same act or acts of misconduct for which the individual was discharged, the misconduct is conclusively presumed to be gross misconduct if it was connected with his work.

(4) [LIMITED OR NO CHARGE OF BENEFITS.] Benefits paid subsequent to an individual's separation under any of the foregoing clauses, excepting clauses (2)(c) and (2)(e), shall not be used as a factor in determining the future contribution rate of the employer from whose employment such individual separated.

Benefits paid subsequent to an individual's failure, without good cause, to accept an offer of suitable re-employment shall not be used as a factor in determining the future contribution rate of the employer whose offer of re-employment he failed to accept or whose offer of re-employment was refused solely due to the distance of the available work from his residence, the individual's own serious illness or his other employment at the time of the offer.

(5) An individual who was employed by an employer shall not be disqualified for benefits under this subdivision for any acts or omissions occurring after his separation from employment with the employer.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.09, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FAILURE TO APPLY FOR OR ACCEPT SUITABLE WORK OR RE-EMPLOYMENT.] An individual shall be disqualified for waiting week credit and benefits during the week of occurrence and until ~~four~~ eight calendar weeks have elapsed following his refusal or failure and he has earned ~~four~~ eight times his weekly benefit amount in insured work if the commissioner finds that he has failed, without good cause, either to apply for available, suitable work of which he was advised by the employment office, or the commissioner or to accept suitable work when offered him, or to return to his customary self-employment (if any) when so directed by the commissioner, or to accept a base period employer's offer of re-employment offering substantially the same or better hourly wages and conditions of work as were previously provided by that employer in his base period.

(a) In determining whether or not any work is suitable for an individual, the commissioner shall consider the degree of risk involved to his health, safety, and morals, his physical fitness and prior training, his experience, his length of unemployment and prospects of securing local work in his customary occupation, ~~and~~ the distance of the available work from his residence, and how the work's wage compares with the wage the individual received at his previous employment. With respect to the work's wage, the work shall be deemed suitable if the work is otherwise suitable and the work's wage is at least: 85 percent of the individual's former wage when the individual has not received more than six weeks of benefits during his or her current period of unemployment; 80 percent of the individual's former wage when the individual has received more than six weeks of benefits, but not more than 14 weeks during his or her current period of unemployment; and 75 percent of the individual's former wage when the individual has received more than 14 weeks of benefits during his or her current period of unemployment.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of sections 268.03 to 268.24, no work shall be deemed suitable, and benefits shall not be denied thereunder to any otherwise eligible individual for refusing to accept new work under any of the following conditions:

(1) if the position offered is vacant due directly to a strike, lockout, or other labor dispute;

(2) if the wages, hours, or other conditions of the work offered are substantially less favorable to the individual than those prevailing for similar work in the locality;

(3) if as a condition of being employed the individual would be required to join a union or to resign from or refrain from joining any bona fide labor organization;

(4) if the individual is in training with the approval of the commissioner.

The commissioner of administration, after consultation with the commissioner of economic security, the commissioner of finance, and the chief administrative law judge, shall determine the appropriate location of office space for the transferred personnel. The commissioner shall continue to provide space for the conduct of hearings in the same facilities and locations which are presently utilized for that purpose.

Subd. 4. [RULES.] The chief administrative law judge may make emergency rules for the purpose of adopting procedural rules for unemployment compensation hearings. The rules shall not conflict with any provisions of chapter 268 and shall comply with any applicable federal laws, rules, or regulations.

Senate confirmation of the chief administrative law judge shall be as provided by section 15.066. The chief administrative law judge shall appoint additional administrative law judges and compensation judges to serve in his office as necessary to fulfill the duties prescribed in sections 14.48 to 14.56. All administrative law judges, unemployment judges, and compensation judges shall be in the classified service except that the chief administrative law judge shall be in the unclassified service, but may be removed from his position only for cause. All administrative law judges shall have demonstrated knowledge of administrative procedures and shall be free of any political or economic association that would impair their ability to function officially in a fair and objective manner. All workers' compensation judges shall be learned in the law, shall have demonstrated knowledge of workers' compensation laws and shall be free of any political or economic association that would impair their ability to function officially in a fair and objective manner.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 14.51, is amended to read:

14.51 [PROCEDURAL RULES FOR HEARINGS.]

The chief administrative law judge shall adopt rules to govern the procedural conduct of all hearings, relating to both rule adoption, amendment, suspension or repeal hearings, contested case hearings, ~~and workers' compensation hearings, and unemployment compensation hearings.~~ ~~Temporary~~ Emergency rulemaking authority is granted to the chief administrative law judge for the purpose of ~~implementing Laws 1981, Chapter 346, Sections 2 to 6, 103 to 122, 127 to 135, and 141~~ the adoption of procedural rules for unemployment compensation hearings. The procedural rules for hearings shall be binding upon all agencies and shall supersede any other agency procedural rules with which they may be in conflict. The procedural rules for hearings shall include in addition to normal procedural matters provisions relating to recessing and reconvening new hearings when the proposed final rule of an agency is substantially different from that which was proposed at the public hearing. The procedural rules shall establish a procedure whereby the proposed final rule of an agency shall be reviewed by the chief administrative law judge to determine whether or not a new hearing is required because of substantial changes or failure of the agency to meet the requirements of sections 14.13 to 14.18. Upon his own initiative or upon written request of an interested party, the chief administrative law judge may issue a subpoena for the attendance of a witness or the production of books, papers, records or other documents as are material to the matter being heard. The subpoenas shall be enforceable through the district court in the district in which the subpoena is issued.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 43A.18, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PLANS NOT ESTABLISHED BUT APPROVED BY COMMISSIONER.] Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, total compensation for employees listed in this subdivision shall be set by appointing authorities within the limits of compensation plans that have been approved by the commissioner before becoming effective.

(b) Total compensation for unclassified positions pursuant to section 43A.08, subdivision 1, clause (h), in the higher education coordinating board, and in the state board of vocational technical education shall be determined by the state university board and the state board for community colleges, the higher education coordinating board, and the state board of vocational technical education, respectively.

(c) Total compensation for classified administrative law judges and unemployment judges in the office of administrative hearings shall be determined by the chief administrative law judge.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 179A.10, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [EXCLUSIONS.] The commissioner of employee relations shall meet and negotiate with the exclusive representative of each of the units specified in this section. The units provided in this section are the only appropriate units for executive branch state employees. The following employees shall be excluded from any appropriate unit:

(1) the positions and classes of positions in the classified and unclassified services defined as managerial by the commissioner of employee relations in accordance with section 43A.18, subdivision 3, and so designated in the official state compensation schedules;

(2) unclassified positions in the state university system and the community college system defined as managerial by their respective boards;

(3) positions of physician employees compensated under section 43A.17, subdivision 4;

(5) positions in the bureau of mediation services and the public employment relations board;

(6) positions of employees whose classification is pilot or chief pilot;

(7) administrative law judge, unemployment judge, and compensation judge positions in the office of administrative hearings; and

(8) positions of all confidential employees.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.06, subdivision 18, is amended to read:

Subd. 18. [NOTICE TO EMPLOYER.] The commissioner shall at least twice each year notify each employer of the benefits as determined by the department which have been charged to his account subsequent to the last notice. Unless reviewed in the manner hereinafter provided, charges set forth in such notice, or as modified by a redetermination, a decision of a ~~referee~~ an unemployment judge, or the commissioner, shall be final and shall be used in determining the contribution rates for all years in which the charges occur within the employer's experience period and shall not be subject to collateral attack by way of review of a rate determination, application for adjustment or refund, or otherwise.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.06, subdivision 19, is amended to read:

Subd. 19. [NOTICE OF RATE.] The commissioner shall mail to each employer notice of his rate of contributions as determined for any calendar year pursuant to this section. Such notice shall contain the contribution rate, factors used in determining the individual employer's experience rating, and such other information as the commissioner may prescribe. Unless reviewed in the manner hereinafter provided, the rate as determined or as modified by a redetermination, a decision of a ~~referee~~ an unemployment judge, or the commissioner shall be final except for fraud and shall be the rate upon which contributions shall be computed for the calendar year for which such rate was determined, and shall not be subject to collateral attack for any errors, clerical or otherwise, whether by way of claim for adjustment or refund, or otherwise. If the legislature changes any of the factors used to determine the contribution rate of any employer for any year subsequent to the original mailing of such notice for the year, the earlier notice shall be void. The notice based on the new factors shall be deemed to be the only notice of rate of contributions for that year and shall be subject to the same finality, redetermination and review procedures as provided above.

amended to read:

Subd. 20. [PROTEST, REVIEW, REDETERMINATION, APPEAL.] A review of the charges made to an employer's account as set forth in the notice of charges referred to in subdivision 18 and a review of an employer's contribution rate as set forth in the notice of his rate for any calendar year as provided in subdivision 19, may be had by the employer if he files with the commissioner a written protest setting forth his reasons therefor within 30 days from the date of the mailing of the notice of charges or contribution rate to him. The date shall appear on the notice. Upon receipt of the protest, the commissioner shall refer the matter to an official designated by him to review the charges appearing on the notice appealed from or the computations of the protesting employer's rate, as the case may be, to determine whether or not there has been any clerical error or error in computation in either case. The official shall either affirm or make a redetermination rectifying the charges or rate as the case may be, and a notice of the affirmation or redetermination shall immediately be mailed to the employer. If the employer is not satisfied with the affirmation or redetermination, he may appeal by filing a notice with the department within ten days after the date of mailing appearing upon the redetermination. Upon the receipt of the appeal, the commissioner shall refer the matter to a ~~referee~~ the office of administrative hearings for a hearing and after opportunity for a fair hearing, the ~~referee~~ unemployment judge shall affirm, modify or set aside the original determination with its affirmation or the redetermination, as appears just and proper. The commissioner may at any time upon his own motion correct any clerical error of the department resulting in charges against an employer's account or any error in the computation of an employer's contribution rate. The ~~referee~~ unemployment judge may order the consolidation of two or more appeals whenever, in his judgment, consolidation will not be prejudicial to any interested party. At any hearing a written report of any employee of the department which has been authenticated shall be admissible in evidence. Appeals from the decision of the ~~referee~~ unemployment judge shall be provided by section 268.10, subdivision 5.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.10, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXAMINATION OF CLAIMS; DETERMINATION; APPEAL.] (1) An official, designated by the commissioner, shall promptly examine each claim for benefits filed to establish a benefit year pursuant to this section, and, on the basis of the facts found, shall determine whether or not such claims are valid, and if valid, the weekly benefit amount payable, the maximum benefit amount payable during the benefit year, and the date the benefit year terminates, and this determination shall be known as the determination of validity. Notice of the determination of validity or any redetermination as provided for in clause (4) shall be promptly given the claimant and all other interested parties. If within the time limits for filing a protest an employer notifies the department that an individual's weekly benefit amount as determined under section 268.07 exceeds the individual's weekly wages earned with the employer, the individual's weekly benefit amount shall be the lesser of (1) the weekly benefit amount as determined under section 268.07, or (2) the weekly benefit amount which is 50 percent of the quotient derived by dividing the total wage credits earned in the individual's base period credit weeks from all employers in insured work by the number of base period credit weeks. If within the time specified for the filing of wage and separation information as provided in subdivision 1, clause (2), the employer makes an allegation of disqualification or raises an issue of the chargeability to his account of benefits that may be paid on such claim, if the claim is valid, the issue thereby raised shall be promptly determined by said official and a notification of the determination delivered or mailed to the claimant and the employer. If an initial determination or an ~~appeal tribunal~~ unemployment judge decision or the commissioner's decision awards benefits, the benefits shall be paid promptly regardless of the pendency of any appeal period or any appeal or other proceeding which may thereafter be taken. Except as provided in clause (6), if an ~~appeal tribunal~~ unemployment judge decision modifies or reverses an initial determination awarding benefits, or if a commissioner's decision modifies or reverses an ~~appeal~~ unemployment judge decision awarding benefits, any benefits paid under the award of such initial determination or ~~appeal tribunal~~ unemployment judge decision shall be deemed erroneous payments.

(2) At any time within 24 months from the date of the filing of a valid claim for benefits by an individual, an official of the department or any interested party or parties raises an issue of claimant's eligibility for benefits for any week or weeks in accordance with the requirements of the provisions of sections 268.03 to 268.24 or any official of the department or any interested party or parties or benefit year employer raises an issue of disqualification in accordance with the regulations of the commissioner, a determination shall be made thereon and a written notice thereof shall be given to the claimant and such other interested party or parties or benefit year employer. A determination issued under this clause which denies benefits for weeks for which the claimant has previously been paid benefits is an overpayment of those benefits subject to section 268.18.

(3) A determination issued pursuant to clauses (1) and (2) shall be final unless an appeal therefrom is filed by a claimant or employer within 15 days after the mailing of the notice of the determination to his last known address or personal delivery of the notice. Every notice of determination shall contain a prominent statement indicating in clear language the method of appealing the determination, the time within which such an appeal must be made, and the consequences of not appealing the determination. A timely appeal from a determination of validity in which the issue is whether an employing unit is an employer within the meaning of this chapter or whether services performed for an employer constitute employment within the meaning of this chapter shall be subject to the provisions of section 268.12, subdivision 13.

(4) At any time within 24 months from the date of the filing of a valid claim for benefits by an individual, the commissioner on his own motion may reconsider a determination of validity made thereon and make a redetermination thereof if he finds that an error in computation or identity or the crediting of wage credits has occurred in connection therewith or if the determination was made as a result of a nondisclosure or misrepresentation of a material fact. A determination or redetermination issued under this clause which denies benefits for weeks for which the claimant has previously been paid benefits is an overpayment of those benefits subject to section 268.18.

(5) However, the commissioner may in his discretion refer any disputed claims directly to a referee the office of administrative hearings for hearing and determination in accordance with the procedure outlined in subdivision 3 and the effect and status of such determination in such a case shall be the same as though the matter had been determined upon an appeal to the tribunal unemployment judge from an initial determination.

(6) If a referee's an unemployment judge's decision affirms an initial determination awarding benefits or the commissioner affirms an appeal tribunal unemployment judge decision awarding benefits, the decision, if finally reversed, shall not result in a disqualification and benefits paid shall neither be deemed overpaid nor shall they be considered in determining any individual employer's future contribution rate under section 268.06.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.10, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [APPEAL; HEARING.] Upon receipt of an appeal from an initial determination made under subdivision 2, the commissioner shall immediately forward the appeal and all necessary documents to the chief administrative law judge for assignment of an unemployment judge to hear the case and the scheduling of a date, time, and place for the hearing. Unless an appeal is withdrawn, the date for hearing before a referee an unemployment judge shall be set and notice of the hearing shall be mailed to the last known address of all interested parties at least ten days prior to the date set for the hearing. The notice shall be mailed by the office of administrative hearings. The hearing may be conducted by means of a conference telephone call except that the appellant may request that the hearing be conducted in person. The hearing shall be a trial de novo, and, upon the evidence presented, the referee unemployment judge shall affirm, modify, or set aside the initial determination. Where the same or substantially similar evidence is relevant and material to the issues in appeals by more than one individual or in appeals by one individual with respect to two or more weeks of unemployment, the appeals may be consolidated into one hearing pursuant to the procedural rules adopted by the chief administrative law judge. The referee unemployment judge shall exclude from any consolidated hearing the appeal of an individual who may be prejudiced because of the consolidation. A referee An unemployment judge shall not hear any appeal in which the referee unemployment judge has a direct interest. The parties and the commissioner shall be notified of the referee's unemployment judge's decision and the reason for it. The referee's unemployment judge's decision is deemed to be the final decision unless a further appeal is initiated pursuant to subdivision 5.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.10, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [REFEREES TRANSCRIPTS; REVIEW OF DECISIONS.] In order to assure the prompt disposition of all claims for benefits, the commissioner shall appoint one or more impartial referees. The commissioner shall by rule adopt a procedure by which referees hear and decide disputed claims, subject to appeal to the commissioner. No person shall participate on behalf of the commissioner in any case in which that person is an interested party. The commissioner may designate alternates to serve in the absence or disqualification of a referee. The office of administrative hearings shall cause a transcript to be prepared of all cases heard by an unemployment judge from which an appeal is made to the commissioner; or in any case to be reviewed by motion of the commissioner where the commissioner requests a transcript. There shall be no charges, fees, transcript costs, or other cost imposed upon the employee in prosecuting an appeal. All decisions of referees un-employment judges shall be made available to the public in accordance with rules the commissioner may prescribe, except that names of interested parties may be deleted.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.10, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [REVIEW BY COMMISSIONER.] Within 30 days after mailing or personal delivery of the notice of a referee's an unemployment judge's decision to the claimant or employer at the last known address, a party may appeal from the decision and obtain a review of it by the commissioner or an authorized representative. An appeal from an unemployment judge's decision must be filed with the chief administrative law judge. Upon receipt of an appeal, the chief administrative law judge shall notify the commissioner of the appeal and shall cause a transcript of the hearing to be prepared. Upon completion of the transcript, the entire file shall be transmitted to the commissioner. The commissioner within the same period of time may on the commissioner's own motion order a review of a decision. Upon review, the commissioner or authorized representative may affirm, modify, or set aside any finding of fact or decision, or both, of the referee unemployment judge on the basis of the evidence previously submitted in the case, or remand the matter back to the referee unemployment judge for the taking of additional evidence and new findings and decision based on all of the evidence before the referee unemployment judge. Notice of all hearings on review shall be given to all interested parties in the same manner as provided for by subdivision 3. The commissioner or authorized representative may remove to himself or herself or transfer to another referee the proceedings on any claim pending before a referee. Any proceedings removed to the commissioner or authorized representative shall be heard upon notice in accordance with the requirements of subdivision 3. The department of economic security shall mail to all interested parties a notice of the filing of and a copy of the findings and decision of the commissioner or his representative.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.10, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [COMMISSIONER.] The manner in which disputed claims are presented, the reports required from the claimant and from employers, and the conduct of hearings and appeals shall be in accordance with the rules adopted by the commissioner for determining the rights of the parties, whether or not the regulations. Rules relating to the conduct of hearings before unemployment judges shall be adopted by the chief administrative law judge. The rules of the commissioner and the chief administrative law judge need not conform to common law or statutory rules of evidence and other technical rules of procedure. A full and complete record shall be kept of all proceedings in connection with a disputed claim. All testimony at any hearing shall be recorded, but need not be transcribed unless the disputed claim is further appealed.

amended to read:

Subd. 9. [REPRESENTATION BY ATTORNEY.] In any proceeding under these sections before a ~~referee~~ an unemployment judge or the commissioner, a party may be represented by an agent or attorney, but no individual claiming benefits shall be charged fees of any kind in a proceeding before a ~~referee~~ an unemployment judge, the commissioner, commissioner's representatives, or by any court or any officers thereof. Any individual claiming benefits in any proceedings before the commissioner or his representatives or a court may be represented by counsel or other duly authorized agent, except that said agent in any court proceedings under these sections, must be an attorney at law; but no counsel shall either charge or receive for the services more than an amount approved by the commissioner and no fees shall be collected from an individual claiming benefits by any agent unless he is an attorney at law.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.12, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [RECORDS; REPORTS.] (1) Each employing unit shall keep true and accurate work records for such periods of time and containing such information as the commissioner may prescribe. Such records shall be open to inspection, audit, and verification, and be subject to being copied by any authorized representative of the commissioner at any reasonable time and as often as may be necessary. The commissioner, ~~appeal referee~~ unemployment judge, or any other duly authorized representative of the commissioner, may require from any employing unit any sworn or unsworn reports, with respect to persons employed by it, which the commissioner, ~~appeal referee~~ unemployment judge, or any other duly authorized representative of the commissioner deems necessary for the effective administration of sections 268.03 to 268.24, provided that quarterly contribution and wage report forms shall include the employee's name, social security number, and total wages paid to the employee.

(2) The commissioner may cause to be made such summaries, compilations, photographs, duplications, or reproductions of any records, reports, or transcripts thereof as he may deem advisable for the effective and economical preservation of the information contained therein, and such summaries, compilations, photographs, duplications or reproductions, duly authenticated, shall be admissible in any proceeding under sections 268.03 to 268.24, if the original record or records would have been admissible therein. Notwithstanding any restrictions contained in section 16B.50, except restrictions as to quantity, the commissioner is hereby authorized to duplicate, on equipment furnished by the federal government or purchased with funds furnished for that purpose by the federal government, records, reports, summaries, compilations, instructions, determinations, or any other written matter pertaining to the administration of the Minnesota economic security law.

(3) In case of contumacy by, or refusal to obey, a subpoena issued to any person, any court of this state within the jurisdiction of which the inquiry is carried on or within the jurisdiction of which such person guilty of contumacy or refusal to obey is found or resides or transacts business, upon application by the commissioner, or ~~referee~~ unemployment judge, or any duly authorized representative of the commissioner, shall have jurisdiction to issue to such person an order requiring such person to appear before the commissioner, ~~the chairman of an appeal tribunal, referee~~ unemployment judge, or any duly authorized representative of the commissioner, there to produce evidence if so ordered or there to give testimony relative to the matter under investigation or in question; and any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt thereof.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.12, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [SELF-INCRIMINATION.] No person shall be excused from attending and testifying or from producing books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, and other records before the commissioner, ~~the chairman of an appeal tribunal, referee~~ unemployment judge, or any duly authorized representative of the commissioner, or in obedience to the subpoena of any of them in any cause or proceeding before the commissioner, an ~~appeal tribunal, referee unemployment judge~~, or any duly authorized representative of the commissioner on the grounds that the testimony or evidence, documentary or otherwise, required of him may tend to incriminate him or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture; but no individual shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which he is compelled, after having claimed his privilege against self-incrimination, to testify or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise, except that such individual so testifying shall not be exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.12, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [DETERMINATIONS.] (1) An official, designated by the commissioner, upon his own motion or upon application of an employing unit, shall determine if an employing unit is an employer within the meaning of this chapter or as to whether services performed for it constitute employment within the meaning of this chapter, and shall notify the employing unit of the determination. The determination shall be final unless the employing unit, within 30 days after the mailing of notice of the determination to the employing unit's last known address, files a written appeal from it.

(2) ~~The commissioner shall designate one or more referees to conduct hearings on appeals~~ Upon receipt of an appeal under clause (1), the commissioner shall refer the matter to the office of administrative hearings for a hearing. The employing unit and any claimant whose filed claim for benefits may be affected by a determination issued under clause (1) shall be interested parties to an appeal. The ~~referee unemployment judge~~ shall fix a time and place within this state for the hearing and give interested parties written notice of it, by mail, not less than ten days prior to the time of the hearing. In the discharge of the duties imposed by this subdivision, the ~~referee unemployment judge~~ may administer oaths and affirmations, take depositions, certify to official acts, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, and other records deemed necessary as evidence in connection with the subject matter of the hearing. The written report of any employee of the department of economic security, made in the regular course of the performance of the employee's duties, shall be competent evidence of the facts contained in it and shall be prima facie correct, unless refuted by other credible evidence.

(3) Upon the conclusion of the hearing, the ~~referee unemployment judge~~ shall serve upon the interested parties by mail findings of fact and decision. The decision of the ~~referee unemployment judge~~, together with his findings of fact and reasons in support of them, is final unless an interested party, within 30 days after the mailing of a copy of it to the interested parties' last known addresses, files an appeal with the ~~commissioner~~ chief administrative law judge, or unless the commissioner, within 30 days after mailing of the decision, on his own motion orders the matter certified to him for review. Appeal from and review by the commissioner of the decision of the ~~referee unemployment judge~~ shall be in the manner provided by rule. The commissioner may without further hearing affirm, modify, or set aside the findings of fact or decision, or both, of the ~~referee unemployment judge~~ on the basis of the evidence previously submitted in the case, or direct the taking of addi-

The commissioner may disregard the findings of fact of the ~~referee~~ unemployment judge and examine the testimony taken and make any findings of fact as the evidence taken before the ~~referee~~ unemployment judge may, in the judgment of the commissioner, require, and make any decision as the facts found by him require. The commissioner shall notify the employing unit of his findings and decision by mail, mailed to the interested parties' last known addresses. The decision of the commissioner is final unless judicial review of it is sought as provided by this subdivision. Any interested party to a proceeding before the commissioner may obtain a transcript of the testimony taken before the ~~referee~~ unemployment judge upon payment to the commissioner of the cost of the transcript at the rate of ten cents per 100 words.

(4) The court of appeals may, by writ of certiorari to the commissioner, review all questions of law and fact presented by the record in accordance with chapter 14. The commissioner shall not be required to certify the record to the court unless the party commencing the proceedings for review pays to the commissioner the cost of certification of the record at the rate of ten cents per 100 words less any amount previously paid by the party for a transcript. The commissioner shall, upon receipt of the payment, prepare and certify to the court a true and correct typewritten copy of all matters contained in the record. The costs collected by the commissioner shall be deposited in the economic security administration fund provided for in section 268.15.

(5) A final decision of the commissioner or referee, in the absence of appeal, is conclusive for all the purposes of sections 268.03 to 268.24 except as otherwise provided, and, together with the records therein made, shall be admissible in any subsequent judicial proceeding involving liability for contributions. A final decision of the commissioner or referee may be introduced in any proceeding involving a claim for benefits.

(6) In the event a final decision of the commissioner or ~~referee~~ unemployment judge determines the amount of contributions due under sections 268.03 to 268.24, then, if the amount, together with interest and penalties, is not paid within 30 days after the decision, the provisions of section 268.161 shall apply. The commissioner shall proceed thereunder, substituting a certified copy of the final decision in place of the contribution report.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.18, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ERRONEOUS PAYMENTS.] Any claimant for benefits who, by reason of his own mistake or through the error of any individual engaged in the administration of sections 268.03 to 268.24 or because of a determination or redetermination issued pursuant to section 268.10, subdivision 2, has received any sum as benefits to which he was not entitled under these sections, shall promptly return such benefits in cash to the nearest office of the Minnesota department of economic security. If such claimant fails to return such benefits, the department of economic security shall, as soon as it discovers such erroneous payment, determine the amount thereof and notify said individual to return the same. Unless the claimant files a written appeal with the department of economic security within 15 days after the mailing of the notice of determination to his last known address or personal delivery of the notice, the determination shall become final. If the claimant files an appeal with the department in writing within the time aforesaid the matter shall be set for hearing before a referee of the department an unemployment judge of the office of administrative hearings and heard as other benefit matters are heard in accordance with section 268.10 with the same rights of review as outlined for benefit cases in that section. The commissioner of the department of economic security is hereby authorized to deduct from any future benefits payable to the claimant under these sections in either the current or any subsequent benefit year an amount equivalent to the overpayment determined or the overpayment may be collected without interest by civil action in the name of the commissioner. If a claimant has been overpaid benefits under the law of another state and that state certifies to the department the facts involved and that the individual is liable under its law to repay the benefits and requests the department to recover the overpayment, the commissioner is authorized to deduct from future benefits payable to the claimant in either the current or any subsequent benefit year an amount equivalent to the amount of overpayment determined by that state. Benefits paid for weeks more than three years prior to the discovery of error are not erroneous payments.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.18, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FRAUD.] Any claimant who files a claim for or receives benefits by knowingly and willfully misrepresenting or misstating any material fact or by knowingly and willfully failing to disclose any material fact which would make him ineligible for benefits under sections 268.03 to 268.24 is guilty of fraud. After the discovery of facts by the commissioner indicating fraud in claiming or obtaining benefits under sections 268.03 to 268.24, he is hereby authorized to make a determination that the claimant was ineligible for each week with reference to which benefits were claimed or obtained by fraud for the amount as was in excess of what the claimant would have been entitled to had he not made the fraudulent statements or failed to disclose any material facts. The commissioner also may disqualify an individual from benefits for one to 52 weeks in which the claimant is otherwise eligible for benefits following the week in which the fraud was determined. A disqualification imposed for fraud shall not be removed by subsequent insured work or the expiration of a benefit year but shall not apply to any week more than 104 weeks after the week in which the fraud was determined. The claimant shall promptly repay in cash to the department of economic security any benefits fraudulently obtained. Unless the claimant files a written appeal with the department of economic security within 15 days after the mailing of the notice of determination to his last known address or personal delivery of the notice, the determination shall become final. If the claimant appeals from the determination within the time above specified the matter shall be referred to a referee an unemployment judge for a hearing as in other benefit cases and thereafter the procedure for review shall be the same as set forth in section 268.10. The commissioner is hereby authorized to deduct from future benefits payable to the claimant in either the current or any subsequent benefit year an amount equivalent to the amount of overpayment determined or the overpayment may be collected without interest by civil action in the name of the commissioner. If a claimant has been overpaid benefits under the law of another state and that state certifies to the department the facts involved and that the individual is liable to repay the benefits and requests the department to recover the overpayment, the commissioner is authorized to deduct from future benefits payable to the claimant in either the current or any subsequent benefit year an amount equivalent to the amount of overpayment determined by that state. A determination of fraud may be made at any time.

All petitions shall be delivered to the director in person or sent by certified mail. The petition shall state briefly the nature of the disagreement of the parties. Upon receipt of a petition and upon concluding that mediation would be useful, the director shall fix a time and place for a conference with the parties to negotiate the issues not agreed upon, and shall then take the most expedient steps to bring about a settlement, including assisting in negotiating and drafting an agreement.

If the director may, at the request of a party to a labor dispute, assist in settling determines that mediation would be useful in resolving a dispute, the director may mediate the dispute even if no petition neither party has been filed a petition for mediation. The director shall not furnish mediation services to any employee or employee representative who is not certified as an exclusive representative.

All parties shall respond to the summons of the director for conferences and shall continue in conference until excused by the director. ~~However, for other than essential employees, mediation conferences following: (1) the expiration date of a collective bargaining agreement, or (2) in the case of teachers, mediation over a period of 60 days after the expiration date of a~~

For other employees, if the parties agree in writing, the panel shall be restricted to selecting between the final offers of the parties on each impasse item, or the final offer of one or the other parties in its entirety.* In considering a dispute and issuing its order, the panel shall consider the statutory rights and obligations of public employers to efficiently manage and conduct their operations within the legal limitations surrounding the financing of these operations. The panel's decision and order shall be final and binding on all parties.

The parties shall, if so agreeing, execute a written contract or memorandum of contract.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 179A.17, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

179A.17 [NEW EXCLUSIVE REPRESENTATIVES.]

Subdivision 1. [FOR TEACHERS.] If a new or different exclusive representative of teachers employed by a local school district is certified by the director at any time other than the period between 120 days before the termination date of a contract and the termination date of the contract, or if on July 1 of any odd-numbered year a representation proceeding involving the employer and the employer's teachers is before the director, section 179A.18, subdivision 2, clause (1), shall apply. In those cases, however, the employer and the exclusive representative of the teachers shall execute a written contract or memorandum of contract no later than 60 days after a certification by the director of a new or different exclusive representative or the resolution by the director of a representation proceeding. Either party may petition the director of mediation services for assistance in reaching an agreement. If the employer and the exclusive representative of the teachers fail to execute a contract by 60 days after the certification of a new or different exclusive representative or the resolution by the director of a representation proceeding, they shall be conclusively presumed to be at an impasse after having participated in mediation sessions over a period of no less than 60 days as specified in section 179A.18, subdivision 2, clause (1)(b).

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 179A.18, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [SCHOOL DISTRICT REQUIREMENTS.] Except as otherwise provided by section 179A.17, subdivision 1, teachers employed by a local school district, other than principals and assistant principals, may strike only under the following circumstances:

(1)(a) the collective bargaining agreement between their exclusive representative and their employer has expired or, if there is no agreement, impasse under section 179A.17, subdivision 1, has occurred; and

(b) the exclusive representative and the employer have participated in mediation over a period of at least 60 days, 30 days of which have occurred after the expiration date of the collective bargaining agreement, provided that the mediation period established by section 179A.17, subdivision 1, shall govern negotiations pursuant to that section. For the purposes of this subclause the mediation period commences on the day following receipt by the director of a request for mediation that a mediator designated by the director first attends a conference with the parties to negotiate the issues not agreed upon; and

(c) neither party has requested interest arbitration or a request for binding interest arbitration has been rejected; or

(2) 45 days after impasse under section 179A.16, subdivision 1, neither party has requested interest arbitration; or

(3) the employer violates section 179A.13, subdivision 2, clause (9).

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 179A.18, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [NOTICE.] In addition to the other requirements of this section, no employee may strike unless written notification of intent to strike is served on the employer and the director by the exclusive representative at least ten days prior to the commencement of the strike. For all employees other than teachers, if more than 30 days have expired after service of a notification of intent to strike, no strike may commence until ten days after service of a new written notification. For teachers, no strike may commence more than 25 days after service of notification of intent to strike unless, before the end of the 25-day period, the exclusive representative and the employer agree that the period during which a strike may commence shall be extended for an additional period not to exceed five days. Teachers are limited to one notice of intent to strike for each contract negotiation period, provided, however, that a strike notice may be renewed for an additional ten days, the first five of which shall be a notice period during which no strike may occur, if the following conditions have been satisfied:

(1) an original notice was provided pursuant to this section; and

(2) a tentative agreement to resolve the dispute was reached during the original strike notice period; and

(3) such tentative agreement was rejected by either party during or after the original strike notice period.

The first day of the renewed strike notice period shall commence on the day following the expiration of the previous strike notice period or the day following the rejection of the tentative agreement, whichever is later. Notification of intent to strike under subdivisions 1, clause (1); and 2, clause (1), may not be served until the collective bargaining agreement has expired, or if there is no agreement, on or after the date impasse under section 179A.17 has occurred. Notification of intent to strike under subdivision 2, clause (2), may not be served before the 45th day following an impasse under section 179A.16, subdivision 1.

Sections 3 to 8 are effective the day following final enactment. However, the 60-day notice requirement imposed in section 3 does not apply in 1985 if sections 3 to 8 become effective after April 25, 1985. In this event, the notice required by section 3 must be given within 30 days of the effective date of sections 3 to 8.

Subd. 10. [DUTIES OF LOCAL WELFARE AGENCY AND LOCAL LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCY UPON RECEIPT OF A REPORT.] (a) If the report alleges neglect, physical abuse, or sexual abuse by a parent, guardian, or individual functioning within the family unit as a person responsible for the child's care, the local welfare agency shall immediately conduct an assessment and offer protective social services for purposes of preventing further abuses, safeguarding and enhancing the welfare of the abused or neglected minor, and preserving family life whenever possible.

When necessary the local welfare agency shall seek authority to remove the child from the custody of his parent, guardian or adult with whom he is living. In performing any of these duties, the local welfare agency shall maintain appropriate records.

(b) Authority of the local welfare agency responsible for assessing the child abuse report and of the local law enforcement agency includes, but is not limited to, authority to interview, without parental consent, the alleged victim and any other minors who currently reside with or who have resided with the alleged perpetrator. The interview may take place at school or any facility or other place where the alleged victim or other minors might be found and may take place outside the presence of the perpetrator or parent, legal custodian, guardian, or school official. Except as provided in this clause, the parent, legal custodian, or guardian shall be notified, no later than the conclusion of the investigation or assessment, that this interview has occurred. Notwithstanding rule 49.02 of the Minnesota Rules of Procedure for Juvenile Courts, the juvenile court may, after hearing on an ex parte motion by the local welfare agency, order that, where reasonable cause exists, notification of this interview be withheld from the parent, legal custodian, or guardian.

(c) When the local welfare or local law enforcement agency determines that an interview should take place on school property, written notification must be received by school officials prior to the interview. The notification shall include the name of the child to be interviewed, the purpose of the interview, and a reference to the statutory authority to conduct an interview on school property. For interviews conducted by the local welfare agency, the notification shall be signed by the chairman of the county welfare board or his designee. The time and place, and manner of the interview on school premises shall be within the discretion of school officials, but the local welfare agency, or the local law enforcement agency shall have the exclusive authority to determine who may attend the interview. The conditions as to time, place, and manner of the interview set by the school officials shall be reasonable and the interview shall be conducted not more than 24 hours after the receipt of the notification unless another time is deemed necessary by agreement between the school officials and the local welfare agency or local law enforcement agency. Where the school fails to comply with the provisions of this section, the juvenile court may order the school to comply with this provision. School officials shall not disclose to the parent, legal custodian, guardian, or perpetrator that a request to interview the child has been made until after the investigation or assessment has been concluded. Every effort shall be made to reduce the disruption of the educational program of the child, other students, or school staff when an interview is conducted on school premises.

(d) Where the perpetrator or a person responsible for the care of the alleged victim or other minor prevents access to the victim or other minor by the local welfare agency, the juvenile court may order the parents, legal custodian, or guardian to produce the alleged victim or other minor for questioning by the local welfare agency or the local law enforcement agency outside the presence of the perpetrator or any person responsible for the child's care at reasonable places and times as specified by court order.

(e) Before making an order under paragraph (d), the court shall issue an order to show cause, either upon its own motion or upon a verified petition, specifying the basis for the requested interviews and fixing the time and place of the hearing. The order to show cause shall be served personally and shall be heard in the same manner as provided in other cases in the juvenile court. The court shall consider the need for appointment of a guardian ad litem to protect the best interests of the child. If a guardian ad litem is appointed, he shall be present at the hearing on the order to show cause.

(f) The commissioner, the local welfare agencies responsible for investigating reports, and the local law enforcement agencies have the right to enter facilities as defined in subdivision 2 and to inspect and copy the facility's records, including medical records, as part of the investigation. Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 13, they also have the right to inform the facility under investigation that they are conducting an investigation, to disclose to the facility the names of the individuals under investigation for abusing or neglecting a child, and to provide the facility with a copy of the report and the investigative findings."

Subd. 16. [ALLOWABLE SERVICE.] "Allowable service" means:

(1) Service during years of actual membership in the course of which employee contributions were currently made; periods covered by payments in lieu of salary deductions made as provided in section 353.35, and service in years during which the public employee was not a member but for which he later elected, while a member, to obtain credit by making payments to the fund as permitted by any law then in effect.

(2) Any period of authorized leave of absence with pay from which deductions for employee contributions are made, deposited, and credited to the fund.

(3) Any period of authorized leave of absence without pay which does not exceed one year, and during or for which a member obtained credit by payments to the fund made in lieu of salary deductions, provided that such payments are made in an amount or amounts based on his average salary on which deductions were paid (a) for the last six months of public service, or (b) that portion of the last six months while he was in public service, to apply to the period in either case immediately preceding commencement of such leave of absence; provided, however, that if the employee elects to pay employee contributions for the period of any leave of absence without pay, or for any portion thereof, he shall also, as a condition to the exercise of such election, pay to the fund an amount equivalent to both the required employer and additional employer contributions therefor, such payment to be made currently or within one year from the date the leave of absence terminates, unless the employer by appropriate action of its governing body and made a part of its official records, prior to the date of the first payment of such employee contribution, certifies to the association in writing that it will cause to be paid such employer and additional employer contributions from the proceeds of a tax levy made pursuant to section 353.28. Payments under this clause shall include interest at the rate of six percent per annum from the date of the termination of the leave of absence to the date payment is made.

(4) Any period during which a member is on an authorized sick leave of absence, without pay limited to one year, or an authorized temporary layoff.

(5) Any period during which a member is on an authorized leave of absence to enter military service, provided that the member returns to public service upon discharge from military service pursuant to section 192.262, and pays into the fund employee contributions based upon his salary at the date of return from military service. After June 30, 1983 payment must be made within five years of the date of discharge from the military service. The amount of these contributions shall be in accord with the contribution rates and salary limitations, if any, in effect during such leave, plus interest thereon at six percent per annum compounded annually from the date of return to public service to the date payment is made. In such cases the matching employer contribution and additional employer contribution provided in section 353.27, subdivisions 3 and 3a, shall be paid by the department employing such member upon his return to public service and the governmental subdivision involved is hereby authorized to appropriate money therefor. Such member shall not receive credit for any voluntary extension of military service at the instance of the member beyond the initial period of enlistment, induction or call to active duty.

(6) For calculating benefits under sections 353.30, 353.31, 353.32, and 353.33 for state officers and employees displaced by the community corrections act, Minnesota Statutes 1984, chapter 401, and transferred into county service under Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 401.04, allowable service means combined years of allowable service as defined in Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 352.01, subdivision 11, and Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 353.01, subdivision 16, paragraphs (1) to (5)."

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [144A.43] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICABILITY.] The definitions in this section apply to sections 1 to 4.

Subd. 2. [COMMISSIONER.] “Commissioner” means the commissioner of health.

Subd. 3. [HOME CARE SERVICE.] “Home care service” means any of the following services when delivered in a place of residence to a person whose advanced age, illness, disability, or physical condition creates a need for the service:

- (1) nursing services, including the services of a home health aide;*
- (2) personal care services not included under sections 148.171 to 148.299;*
- (3) physical therapy;*
- (4) speech therapy;*

- (5) respiratory therapy;
- (6) occupational therapy;
- (7) nutritional services;
- (8) homemaker services, meal preparation, and similar nonmedical services when arranged to be provided along with at least one other home care service listed in this subdivision;
- (9) medical social services; and
- (10) other similar medical services and health-related support services identified by the commissioner in rule.

Subd. 4. [HOME CARE AGENCY.] "Home care agency" means an organization, unit of government, self-employed individual, or other entity that is regularly engaged in the delivery, directly or by contractual arrangement, of home care services for a fee. "Home care agency" does not include:

- (1) any home or nursing services conducted by and for the adherents of any recognized church or religious denomination for the purpose of providing care and services for those who depend upon spiritual means, through prayer alone, for healing;
- (2) an individual who only provides services to a relative; or
- (3) an agency that only provides chore or housekeeping services which do not involve any medical care or treatment or personal care services.

Sec. 2. [144A.44] [HOME CARE BILL OF RIGHTS.]

Subdivision 1. [STATEMENT OF RIGHTS.] A person who receives home care services has these rights:

- (1) the right to receive written information about rights, including what to do if rights are violated;
- (2) the right to receive care and services according to a suitable and up-to-date plan, subject to accepted medical and nursing standards, and to take an active part in creating and changing the plan and evaluating care and services;
- (3) the right to be told, as part of the doctor's treatment plan, about treatment and services that are being provided or suggested, about other choices that are available, and about the consequences of these choices including the consequences of refusing treatment;
- (4) the right to refuse services or treatment;
- (5) the right to know, in advance, any limits to the services available from an agency and whether the services are covered by health insurance, medical assistance, or other health programs;
- (6) the right to know what the charges are for services, no matter who will be paying the bill;
- (7) the right to know that there may be other services available in the community, including other home care services, agencies, and case management services, and to know where to go for information about these services;

(12) the right to be free from physical and verbal abuse;

(13) the right to reasonable notice of changes in services or charges;

(14) the right to a smooth transition when there will be a change in the agency which provides the services;

(15) the right to know how to contact the director of an agency who is responsible for handling problems and where to go for help outside the agency; and

(16) the right to assert these rights without retaliation.

Subd. 2. [INTERPRETATION AND ENFORCEMENT OF RIGHTS.] These rights are established for the benefit of persons who receive home care services. "Home care services" means home care services as defined in section 1, subdivision 3. A home care agency may not require a person to surrender these rights as a condition of receiving services. A guardian or conservator or, when there is no guardian or conservator, a designated person, may seek to enforce these rights. This statement of rights does not replace or diminish other rights and liberties that may exist. The commissioner of health shall establish guidelines for interpretation of these rights.

Sec. 3. [144A.45] [REGULATION OF HOME CARE SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY TO REGULATE.] The commissioner may regulate and control the delivery of home care services in order to protect consumers; assure quality of care; improve access to services; prevent fraud, overcharging and other undesirable practices; promote desirable forms of competition; and control health care costs. The commissioner may:

(1) require home care agencies to furnish relevant information and documentation including information requested for purposes of section 4;

(2) inspect the office and records of an agency during regular business hours;

(3) with the consent of the consumer, visit the home where services are being provided;

(4) issue correction orders and assess civil penalties in accordance with section 144.653, subdivisions 5 to 8; and

(5) take other action the commissioner considers appropriate to accomplish the purposes of sections 1 to 4.

In the exercise of the authority granted in sections 1 to 4, the commissioner shall comply with the applicable requirements of section 144.122, the government data practices act, and the administrative procedure act. When conducting routine office visits or inspections, the commissioner shall provide at least 48 hours advance notice to the home care agency.

Subd. 2. [LICENSURE.] A home care agency may not operate in the state without a current license issued by the commissioner of health. In addition to the exemptions listed in subdivision 3, the commissioner may by rule exempt other classes of agencies from licensure requirements. When determining whether to exempt a class of agencies, the commissioner shall consider: (1) the extent to which the agencies, or the individuals who provide services through the agencies, are regulated under another law; (2) the risk to the health, safety, and well-being of the client; and (3) other factors the commissioner considers appropriate. The commissioner may establish different classes of licenses for different types of agencies and may impose different standards and requirements for different kinds of home care services.

Subd. 3. [EXEMPTIONS.] The following agencies are exempt from the requirement to obtain a home care agency license:

(1) a person who is licensed under sections 148.171 to 148.299 and who independently provides nursing services in the home without any contractual or employment relationship to a home care agency or other organization;

(2) a personal care attendant authorized by the commissioner of human services to provide services under the medical assistance program as authorized under section 256B.02, subdivision 8, paragraph (17); and

(3) a professional corporation organized under sections 319A.01 to 319A.22.

An exemption under this subdivision does not excuse the exempted agency from complying with applicable provisions of the home care bill of rights.

Subd. 4. [ENFORCEMENT.] The commissioner may refuse to grant or renew a license, or may suspend or revoke a license, for violation of statutes or rules relating to home care services or for conduct detrimental to the welfare of the consumer. In addition to any other remedy provided by law, the commissioner may, without a prior contested case hearing, temporarily suspend a license or prohibit delivery of services by an agency for not more than 60 days if the commissioner determines that the health or safety of a consumer is in imminent danger, provided (1) advance notice is given to the agency; (2) after notice, the agency fails to correct the problem; (3) the commissioner has reason to believe that other administrative remedies are not likely to be effective; and (4) there is a subsequent opportunity for a contested case hearing. The process of suspending or revoking a license must include a plan for transferring affected clients to other agencies. At the request of a licensee who has been issued a correction order, the commissioner shall order a review of the appropriateness of the correction order by a person designated by the commissioner other than the person who issued the correction order. The review process must allow an opportunity for the licensee to submit a brief explanation of the objections to the correction order. If, after receiving the report and recommendation of the reviewer, the commissioner determines that the correction order was issued inappropriately, the commissioner shall retract the correction order and remove from the licensee's record all references to the order.

Subd. 5. [RELATION TO OTHER REGULATORY PROGRAMS.] In the exercise of the authority granted under sections 1 to 4, the commissioner shall not duplicate or replace standards and requirements imposed under another state regulatory program. The commissioner shall not impose additional training or education requirements upon members of a licensed or registered occupation or profession, except as necessary to address or prevent problems that are unique to the delivery of services in the home or to enforce and protect the rights of consumers listed in section 2. For home care agencies certified under the medicare program, the state standards must not be inconsistent with the medicare standards for medicare services.

Subd. 6. [RULES.] The commissioner shall, in consultation with representatives of home care agencies, community health service agencies, and consumers, adopt rules to implement sections 1 to 4. The rules shall, to the extent possible, assure the health, safety, well-being, and appropriate treatment of persons who receive home care services.

Sec. 4. [144A.46] [INFORMATION AND REFERRAL SERVICES.]

The commissioner shall ensure that information and referral services relating to home care are available in all regions of the state. The commissioner shall collect and make available information about available home care services, costs, sources of payment, agencies, the rights of consumers, and other information the commissioner determines to be appropriate. The commissioner may require home care agencies to provide information requested for the purposes of this section, including price information, as a condition of licensure. Specific price information furnished by agencies under this section is not public data and must not be released without the written permission of the agency. The commissioner may publish and make available:

(1) general information about the range of costs of home care services in the state and a summary of the range of prices charged by specific agencies;

(2) summary information about the number and nature of complaints received about individual agencies;

(3) summary information about consumer evaluations of individual agencies;

(4) limitations on hours, availability of services, and eligibility for third-party payments, applicable to individual agencies; and

(5) other information the commissioner determines to be appropriate.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 144A.51, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. "Home care agency" means a home care agency as defined in section 1.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 144A.52, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. The director may delegate to members of his staff any of his authority or duties except the duty of formally making recommendations to the legislature, administrative agencies, health facilities, health care providers, home care agencies, and the state commissioner of health.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 144A.53, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [POWERS.] The director may:

(a) Promulgate by rule, pursuant to chapter 14, and within the limits set forth in subdivision 2, the methods by which complaints against health facilities, health care providers, home care agencies, or administrative agencies are to be made, reviewed, investigated, and acted upon; provided, however, that he may not charge a fee for filing a complaint;

(b) Recommend legislation and changes in rules to the state commissioner of health, legislature, governor, administrative agencies or the federal government;

(c) Investigate, upon a complaint or upon his own initiative, any action or failure to act by a health care provider, home care agency, or a health facility;

(d) Request and receive access to relevant information, records, or documents in the possession of an administrative agency, a health care provider, a home care agency, or a health facility which he deems necessary for the discharge of his responsibilities;

(e) Enter and inspect, at any time, a health facility; provided that the director shall not unduly interfere with or disturb the activities of a resident unless the resident consents;

(f) Issue a correction order pursuant to section 144.653 or any other law which provides for the issuance of correction orders to health care facilities or home care agencies, or under section 3;

(g) Recommend the certification or decertification of health facilities pursuant to Title XVIII or Title XIX of the United States Social Security Act;

(h) Assist residents of health facilities in the enforcement of their rights under Minnesota law; and

(i) Work with administrative agencies, health facilities, home care agencies, and health care providers and organizations representing consumers on programs designed to provide information about health facilities to the public and to health facility residents.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 144A.53, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [COMPLAINTS.] The director may receive a complaint from any source concerning an action of an administrative agency, a health care provider, a home care agency, or a health facility. He may require a complainant to pursue other remedies or channels of complaint open to the complainant before accepting or investigating the complaint.

The director shall keep written records of all complaints and his action upon them. After completing his investigation of a complaint, he shall inform the complainant, the administrative agency having jurisdiction over the subject matter, the health care provider, the home care agency, and the health facility of the action taken.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 144A.53, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [RECOMMENDATIONS.] If, after duly considering a complaint and whatever material he deems pertinent, the director determines that the complaint is valid, he may recommend that an administrative agency, a health care provider, a home care agency, or a health facility should:

- (a) Modify or cancel the actions which gave rise to the complaint;
- (b) Alter the practice, rule or decision which gave rise to the complaint;
- (c) Provide more information about the action under investigation; or
- (d) Take any other step which the director considers appropriate.

If the director requests, the administrative agency, a health care provider, a home care agency, or health facility shall, within the time specified, inform the director about the action taken on his recommendation.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 144A.53, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [REFERRAL OF COMPLAINTS.] If a complaint received by the director relates to a matter more properly within the jurisdiction of an occupational licensing board or other governmental agency, the director shall forward the complaint to that agency and shall inform the complaining party of the forwarding. The agency shall promptly act in respect to the complaint, and shall inform the complaining party and the director of its disposition. If a governmental agency receives a complaint which is more properly within the jurisdiction of the director, it shall promptly forward the complaint to the director, and shall inform the complaining party of the forwarding. If the director has reason to believe that an official or employee of an administrative agency, a home care agency, or health facility has acted in a manner warranting criminal or disciplinary proceedings, he shall refer the matter to the state commissioner of health, the commissioner of human services, an appropriate prosecuting authority, or other appropriate agency.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 144A.54, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Except as otherwise provided by this section, the director may determine the form, frequency, and distribution of his conclusions and recommendations. The director shall transmit his conclusions and recommendations to the state commissioner of health and the legislature. Before announcing a conclusion or recommendation that expressly or by implication criticizes an administrative agency, a health care provider, a home care agency, or a health facility, the director shall consult with that agency, health care provider, home care agency, or facility. When publishing an opinion adverse to an administrative agency, a health care provider, a home care agency, or a health facility, he shall include in the publication any statement of reasonable length made to him by that agency, health care provider, home care agency, or health facility in defense or explanation of the action.

Sec. 12. [TEMPORARY PROCEDURES.]

Beginning December 1, 1985, no home care agency may provide home care services in this state without a license issued by the commissioner. The commissioner shall, in consultation with representatives of home care agencies, community health service agencies, and consumers, establish temporary licensing procedures and standards under sections 14.29 to 14.36. Notwithstanding section 14.35, emergency rules adopted under this section are effective until December 31, 1986, or until permanent rules are adopted, whichever is earlier. The activities of the commissioner under this section are limited to the following:

- (1) requiring providers to obtain a license;
- (2) collecting information from providers;
- (3) collecting licensing fees; and
- (4) requiring providers to disclose, to clients, information about rights and complaint procedures.

Granting of a license under temporary procedures does not exempt a home care agency from requirements later adopted in permanent rules.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 246.04, is amended to read:

246.04 [BOOKS AND ACCOUNTS.]

The commissioner of human services shall keep at his office a proper and complete system of books and accounts with each institution, showing every expenditure authorized and made therefor. Such books shall contain a separate account of each extraordinary or special appropriation made by the legislature, with every item of expenditure therefrom. The commissioner shall maintain a separate fund for all chemical dependency appropriations that will provide for an ascertainable review of receipts and expenditures under section 246.18, subdivision 2.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 246.18, is amended to read:

246.18 [DISPOSAL OF FUNDS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] Except as provided in subdivision 2, every officer and employee of the several institutions under the jurisdiction of the commissioner of human services shall pay to the accounting officer thereof any funds in his hands belonging to the institution. Every accounting officer, at the close of each month or oftener, shall forward to the commissioner of human services a statement of the amount and sources of all moneys received. On receipt of such statement, the commissioner shall transmit the same to the commissioner of finance, who shall deliver to the state treasurer a draft upon the accounting officer for the same specifying the funds to which it is to be credited. Upon payment of such draft, the amount shall be so credited.

Subd. 2. [CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY FUND.] Money received by a chemical dependency treatment facility operated by a hospital or nursing home under the jurisdiction of the commissioner of human services must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to a chemical dependency fund. Money in the chemical dependency fund is appropriated to the commissioner to operate chemical dependency programs.

Subd. 3. [CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY ACCOUNTS.] The commissioner of finance shall provide accounting procedures for separate interest bearing chemical dependency accounts within the chemical dependency fund for each state facility providing chemical dependency services that will allow money to be readily available to finance chemical dependency programs. In fiscal years 1986 and 1987, unspent money in department of human services administrative and salary accounts that is not transferable to the following fiscal year must be transferred to the chemical dependency fund, up to a maximum of $2,800,000. After June 30, 1989, the commissioner must not allocate money to a state facility for chemical dependency programs in excess of the amount of deposits of money received by the facility and deposited in the facility's chemical dependency account without the approval of the governor after consultation with the legislative advisory commission. Twenty percent of the money in the chemical dependency fund that was reappropriated from the state hospital account must be transferred to the state hospitals' chemical dependency accounts on a pro rata basis as an advance payment for chemical dependency services to be delivered under chapter 254B.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 246.23, is amended to read:

246.23 [PERSONS ADMISSIBLE TO INSTITUTIONS.]

No person who has not a settlement in a county, as defined in section 256D.18, shall be admitted to a hospital for the mentally ill, the school for the deaf, the Minnesota braille and sightsaving school, the schools and hospitals for the mentally retarded and persons having epilepsy, or the Owatonna state school, except that the commissioner of human services may authorize admission thereto when the residence cannot be ascertained, or when the circumstances in his judgment make it advisable. Except for emergency admissions under sections 253B.05 and 253B.11, or when authorized by the commissioner, a chemical dependency program must not admit a chemically dependent person unless the cost of services will be paid for by private money or nongovernmental third-party payments, the person has been placed by a county that is responsible for payment, or the hospital obtains approval of the admission from the county financially responsible for the person. The commissioner shall maintain and enhance cooperative and effective relationships between counties and state hospitals and between the various state hospital chemical dependency programs. In carrying out this responsibility the commissioner shall maintain a regionally based system of chemical dependency programs. When application is made to a judge of probate for admission to any of the institutions above named for admission thereto, if he finds that the person for whom application is made has not such residence, or that his residence cannot be ascertained, he shall so report to the commissioner; and he may recommend that such person be admitted notwithstanding, giving his reasons therefor. The commissioner of human services shall thereupon investigate the question of residence and, if he finds that such person has not such residence and has a legal residence in another state or country, he may cause him to be returned thereto at the expense of this state. When the overseer of a county poorhouse believes an inmate thereof not to have a residence in the state, but to have a residence elsewhere, he shall so notify the commissioner of human services who shall thereupon proceed in the manner above provided; except that, if deemed impracticable to return such person to the state of his residence, he may so certify and such person shall thereafter be a charge upon the county, town or city in which he has longest resided within the preceding year.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 246.50, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. "Chemical dependency programs" means all planned services for chemically dependent persons provided by the commissioner in a specific state hospital, the chemical dependency unit operated by the Ah-Gwah-Ching nursing home, and diagnostic evaluation, prevention, referral, outpatient, or aftercare services developed as part of licensed residential or nonresidential chemical dependency treatment programs.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 246.51, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PROCEDURES.] The commissioner shall make investigation as necessary to determine, and as circumstances require redetermine, what part of the cost of care, if any, the patient is able to pay. If the patient is unable to pay the full cost of care the commissioner shall make a determination as to the ability of the relatives to pay. The patient or relatives or both shall provide the commissioner documents and proofs necessary to determine their ability to pay. Failure to provide the commissioner with sufficient information to determine ability to pay may make the patient or relatives, both, liable for the full ~~per capita~~ cost of care until the time when sufficient information is provided. No parent shall be liable for the cost of care given a patient at a state hospital after the patient has reached the age of 18 years. The commissioner's determination shall be conclusive in any action to enforce payment of the cost of care unless appealed from as provided in section 246.55. All money received, except for chemical dependency receipts, shall be paid to the state treasurer and placed in the general fund of the state and a separate account kept of it. Responsibility under this section shall not apply to those relatives having gross earnings of less than $11,000 per year.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 246.54, is amended to read:

246.54 [LIABILITY OF COUNTY; REIMBURSEMENT.]

Except for chemical dependency services provided under chapter 254B, the patient's county shall pay to the state of Minnesota a portion of the cost of care provided in a state hospital to a patient legally settled in that county. A county's payment shall be made from the county's own sources of revenue and payments shall be paid as follows: payments to the state from the county shall equal ten percent of the per capita rate, as determined by the commissioner, for each day, or the portion thereof, that the patient spends at a state hospital. If payments received by the state under sections 246.50 to 246.53 exceed 90 percent of the per capita rate, the county shall be responsible for paying the state only the remaining amount. The county shall not be entitled to reimbursement from the patient, the patient's estate, or from the patient's relatives, except as provided in section 246.53. No such payments shall be made for any patient who was last committed prior to July 1, 1947.

Sec. 19. [246.64] [CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY SERVICE AGREEMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY RATES.] Notwithstanding sections 246.50, subdivision 5; 246.511; and 251.011; the commissioner shall establish separate rates for each chemical dependency service operated by the commissioner and may establish separate rates for each service component within the program by establishing fees for services or different per diem rates for each separate chemical dependency unit within the program based on actual costs attributable to the service or unit. The rate must allocate the cost of all anticipated maintenance, treatment, and expenses including depreciation of buildings and equipment, interest paid on bonds issued for capital improvements for chemical dependency programs, reimbursement and other indirect costs related to the operation of chemical dependency programs other than that paid from the Minnesota state building fund, and losses due to bad debt. The rate must not include allocations of chaplaincy, patient advocacy, or quality assurance costs that are not required for chemical dependency licensure by the commissioner or certification for chemical dependency by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals. Notwithstanding any other law, the commissioner shall treat these costs as nonhospital department expenses.

Subd. 2. [DEPRECIATION COLLECTIONS.] In fiscal year 1987, depreciation and principal and interest on bonded debt must be credited to the medical assistance account. Beginning July 1, 1987, depreciation collected under subdivision 1 must be credited to the general fund and principal and interest on the bonded debt collected under subdivision 1 must be credited to the state bond fund.

Subd. 3. [RESPONSIBILITIES OF COMMISSIONER.] The commissioner shall credit all receipts from billings for rates set in subdivision 1, except those credited according to subdivision 2, to the chemical dependency fund. This money must not be used for a hospital activity that is not a chemical dependency service or an allocation of expenditures that are included in the base for computation of the rates under subdivision 1. The commissioner may expand chemical dependency services so long as expenditures are recovered by patient fees. The commissioner may expand or reduce chemical dependency staff complement as long as expenditures are recovered by patient fees. Notwithstanding chapters 176 and 268, the commissioner shall provide for the self-insurance of state hospital chemical dependency programs for the costs of unemployment compensation and workers' compensation claims. The commissioner shall provide a biennial report to the chairs of the senate finance subcommittee on health and human services, the house of representatives health and human services division of appropriations, and the senate and house of representatives health and human services committees.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 252.291, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXCEPTIONS.] The commissioner of human services in coordination with the commissioner of health may approve a new intermediate care facility for mentally retarded persons only in the following circumstances:

(a) when the facility is developed in accordance with a request for proposal system established pursuant to subdivision 3, clause (b);

(b) when the facility, and is necessary to serve the needs of identifiable mentally retarded persons who are seriously behaviorally disordered or who are physically or sensorily impaired; or

(c) (b) to license beds in new facilities where need was determined by the commissioner prior to June 10, 1983.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 252.291, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DUTIES OF COMMISSIONER OF HUMAN SERVICES.]

(a) establish and enforce standard admission criteria for state hospitals and county utilization targets to limit and reduce the number of intermediate care beds in state hospitals and community facilities in accordance with approved waivers under United States Code, title 42, sections 1396 to 1396p, as amended through December 31, 1982, to assure that appropriate services are provided in the least restrictive setting;

(b) provide technical assistance so that county boards may establish a request for proposal system for meeting individual service plan objectives through home and community-based services; alternative community services; or, if no other alternative will meet the needs of identifiable individuals for whom the county is financially responsible, a new intermediate care facility for mentally retarded persons; and

(c) establish a client tracking and evaluation system as required under applicable federal waiver regulations, Code of Federal Regulations, title 42, sections 431, 435, 440, and 441, as amended through December 31, 1982.

(d) develop a state plan for the delivery and funding of residential day and support services to the mentally retarded in Minnesota and submit that plan to the clerk of each house of the Minnesota legislature on or before the 15th of January of each biennium beginning January 15, 1985. The biennial mental retardation plan shall include but not be limited to:

(1) county by county maximum intermediate care bed utilization quotas;

(2) plans for the development of the number and types of services alternative to intermediate care beds;

(3) procedures for the administration and management of the plan;

(4) procedures for the evaluation of the implementation of the plan; and

(5) the number, type, and location of intermediate care beds targeted for decertification.

The commissioner shall modify the plan to ensure conformance with the medical assistance home and community-based services waiver.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 252.32, is amended to read:

252.32 [FAMILY ~~SUBSIDY~~ SUPPORT PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [PROGRAM ESTABLISHED; APPLICATION.] Within the limits of appropriations, the commissioner of human services may provide subsidies to families with mentally retarded children in order to enable those families to continue caring for the children in their own homes. The commissioner may establish criteria for determining eligibility for a subsidy and subsidy amounts and conditions for use of subsidies the commissioner of human services shall establish a program to provide subsidies to families to enable them to care for their dependents with handicaps in their own homes. This program is limited to families with dependents under the age of 22 who have mental retardation or a related condition and otherwise would require or be eligible for placement in a licensed residential facility under section 245.782, subdivision 6. Applications for the subsidy must be made by the county social service agency to the department of human services. The application must specify the needs of the family and how the subsidy will be used.

Subd. 2. [INDIVIDUAL SERVICE PLAN.] An individual service plan for the dependent must be developed by the county social service agency and agreed to by the parents. A transitional plan must be developed for the dependent when the dependent turns age 17 in order to assure an orderly transition to other services when the family terminates services under this program.

Subd. 3. [SUBSIDY AMOUNT; USE.] Subsidy amounts must be determined by the commissioner of human services. The subsidy may be used to cover the costs of special equipment, special clothing or diets, related transportation, therapy, medications, respite care, medical care, diagnostic assessments, modifications to a home or vehicle, and other services or items that assist the family and dependent. The maximum monthly amount is $250, except that a variance may be granted by the commissioner for special or emergency circumstances.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 253B.14, is amended to read:

253B.14 [TRANSFER OF COMMITTED PERSONS.]

The commissioner may transfer any committed person, other than a person committed as mentally ill and dangerous to the public, from one regional center to any other institution under his jurisdiction which is capable of providing proper care and treatment. A person committed as mentally ill and dangerous may be transferred out of the Minnesota Security Hospital and between treatment facilities under section 253B.18, subdivision 6. When a committed person is transferred from one treatment facility to another, written notice shall be given to the committing court and to his parent or spouse or, if none is known, to an interested person, and the designated agency.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 253B.18, subdivision 4b, is amended to read:

Subd. 4b. [PASS-ELIGIBLE STATUS; NOTIFICATION.] The following patients committed to the Minnesota security hospital shall not be placed on pass-eligible status unless that status has been approved by the medical director of the Minnesota security hospital:

(a) a patient who has been committed as mentally ill and dangerous and who

(1) was found incompetent to proceed to trial for a felony or was found not guilty by reason of mental illness of a felony immediately prior to the filing of the commitment petition;

(2) was convicted of a felony immediately prior to or during his commitment as mentally ill and dangerous; or

(3) is subject to a commitment to the commissioner of corrections; and

(b) a patient who has been committed as a psychopathic personality, as defined in section 526.09.

At least ten days prior to a determination on the status, the medical director shall notify the designated agency, the committing court, the county attorney of the county of commitment, an interested person, the petitioner, and the petitioner's counsel of the proposed status, and their right to request review by the special review board. If within ten days of receiving notice any notified person requests review by filing a notice of objection with the commissioner and the head of the treatment facility, a hearing shall be held before the special review board. The proposed status shall not be implemented unless it receives a favorable recommendation by a majority of the board and approval by the commissioner. The order of the commissioner is appealable as provided in section 253B.19.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 253B.18, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [PETITION; NOTICE OF HEARING; ATTENDANCE; ORDER.] A petition for an order of transfer, discharge, provisional discharge, or revocation of provisional discharge shall be filed with the commissioner and may be filed by the patient or by the head of the treatment facility. The special review board shall hold a hearing on each petition prior to making any recommendation. Within 45 days of the filing of the petition, the designated agency, the committing court, the county attorney of the county of commitment, an interested person, the petitioner and his counsel shall be given written notice by the commissioner of the time and place of the hearing before the special review board. Only those entitled to statutory notice of the hearing or those administratively required to attend may be present at the hearing. The commissioner shall issue his order no later than 14 days after receiving the recommendation of the special review board. A copy of the order shall be sent by certified mail to every person entitled to statutory notice of the hearing within five days after it is issued. No order by the commissioner shall be effective sooner than 15 days after it is issued.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 253B.18, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [TRANSFER.] (a) Persons who have been found by the committing court to be mentally ill and dangerous to the public shall not be transferred out of the Minnesota Security Hospital unless it appears to the satisfaction of the commissioner, after a hearing and favorable recommendation by a majority of the special review board, that the transfer is appropriate. Transfer may be to other regional centers under the commissioner's control. In those instances where a commitment also exists to the department of corrections, transfer may be to a facility designated by the commissioner of corrections. The commissioner, at his or her discretion, may transfer any person committed as mentally ill and dangerous from a regional center to the Minnesota Security Hospital or between regional centers.

The following factors are to be considered in determining whether a transfer is appropriate:

- (i) the person's clinical progress and present treatment needs;
- (ii) the need for security to accomplish continuing treatment;
- (iii) the need for continued institutionalization;

(iv) which facility can best meet the person's needs; and

(v) whether transfer can be accomplished with a reasonable degree of safety for the public.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 253B.23, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [APPEAL.] The commissioner or any other aggrieved party may appeal to the court of appeals from any order entered under this chapter as in other civil cases.

Upon perfection of the appeal, the return shall be filed forthwith. Except for an appeal heard under section 253B.19, the court of appeals shall hear the appeal within 45 days after service of the notice of appeal. This appeal shall not suspend the operation of the order appealed from until the appeal is determined, unless otherwise ordered by the court of appeals.

Sec. 28. [254B.01] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICABILITY.] The definitions in this section apply to sections 28 to 36.

Subd. 2. [AMERICAN INDIAN.] For purposes of services provided under section 36, subdivision 7, "American Indian" means a person who is a member of an Indian tribe, and the commissioner shall use the definitions of "Indian" and "Indian tribe" and "Indian organization" provided in Public Law Number 93-638. For purposes of services provided under section 36, subdivision 4, "American Indian" means a resident of federally recognized tribal lands who is recognized as an Indian person by the federally recognized tribal governing body.

Subd. 3. [CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY SERVICES.] "Chemical dependency services" means a planned program of care for the treatment of chemical dependency or chemical abuse to minimize or prevent further chemical abuse by the person. Diagnostic, evaluation, prevention, referral, detoxification, and aftercare services that are not part of a program of care licensable as a residential or nonresidential chemical dependency treatment program are not chemical dependency services for purposes of this section.

Subd. 4. [COMMISSIONER.] Unless otherwise indicated, "commissioner" means the commissioner of human services.

Subd. 5. [LOCAL AGENCY.] "Local agency" means the agency designated by a board of county commissioners or a human services board to make placements and submit state invoices according to sections 28 to 36.

Subd. 6. [LOCAL MONEY.] "Local money" means county levies, community social services block grants, federal social services money, or other money that may be spent at county discretion to provide chemical dependency services eligible for payment according to sections 28 to 36.

Sec. 29. [254B.02] [CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY ALLOCATION PROCESS.]

Subdivision 1. [CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY TREATMENT ALLOCATION.] The commissioner shall annually divide the money available in the chemical dependency fund that is not held in reserve by counties from a previous allocation. Ten percent of the money must be set aside as a reserve account for county payment under subdivision 3. Twelve percent of the money must be reserved for treatment of American Indians by eligible vendors under section 36. The remainder of the money must be allocated among the counties according to the following formula, using the most recent data available from the state demographer:

(a) The average of the median income of the state for the last three years for which data is available must be divided by the average median income of each county for the last three years for which data is available, to determine the income factor for the county.

(b) The income factor must be multiplied by the population of the county less the population of American Indians in the county, to determine the adjusted population.

(c) The adjusted population of the county must be divided by the sum of all county adjusted populations to determine the allocation rate.

(d) The allocation rate must be multiplied by the remainder of the money after set-asides to determine the allocation to each county.

Subd. 2. [COUNTY ADJUSTMENT; MAXIMUM ALLOCATION.] The commissioner shall determine the state money used by each county in fiscal year 1985, using all state data sources. If available records do not provide specific chemical dependency expenditures for every county, the commissioner shall determine the amount of state money using estimates based on available data. In state fiscal year 1987, a county must not be allocated more than 150 percent of the state money spent by or on behalf of the county for chemical dependency treatment services eligible for payment under section 32. The allocation maximums must be increased by 25 percent each year. After fiscal year 1991, there must be no allocation maximum. The commissioner shall reallocate the excess over the maximum to counties allocated less than the fiscal year 1985 state money, using the following process:

(a) The allocation is divided by 1985 state expenditures to determine percentage of prior expenditure, and counties are ranked by percentage of prior expenditure.

(b) The allocation of the lowest ranked county is raised to the same percentage of prior expenditure as the second lowest ranked county. The allocation of these two counties is then raised to the percentage of prior expenditures of the third lowest ranked county.

(c) The operations under paragraph (b) are repeated with each county by ranking until the money in excess of the allocation maximum has been allocated.

Subd. 3. [RESERVE ACCOUNT.] The commissioner shall allocate money from the reserve account to counties that, during the current fiscal year, have met or exceeded the base level of expenditures for eligible chemical dependency services from local money. The commissioner shall establish the base level for fiscal year 1987 as the amount of local money used for eligible services in calendar year 1985. In later years, the base level must be increased in the same proportion as state appropriations to implement sections 28 to 36 are increased. The base level must not be decreased if appropriations are decreased in later years. The local match rate for the reserve account is the same rate as applied to the initial allocation. Reserve account payments must not be included when calculating the county adjustments made according to subdivision 2. A county must not receive more than 30 percent of the total reserve account that is available at the beginning of the fiscal year. The commissioner shall allocate 50 percent of the reserve fund to counties in proportion to the county treatment allocation. The money reserved for a county and other reserve funds under this section may be paid as invoices are received. During the last quarter of the fiscal year, the commissioner may reallocate reserve funds that will otherwise be unused to make payments for invoices from counties that are eligible for payments under this subdivision.

Subd. 4. [ALLOCATION SPENDING LIMITS.] Money allocated according to subdivision 1 and section 36, subdivision 3, is available for payments for up to two years. The commissioner shall deduct payments from the most recent year allocation in which money is available. Allocations under this section that are not used within two years must be reallocated to the reserve account for payments according to subdivision 3. Allocations under section 36, subdivision 3, that are not used within two years must be reallocated for payments under section 36, subdivision 4.

Subd. 5. [ADMINISTRATIVE ADJUSTMENT.] The commissioner may make payments to local agencies from money allocated under this section to support administrative activities under sections 30 and 31. The administrative payment must not exceed three percent of the county allocation and must not be paid if the level of expenditures indicates that the allocation for the year will be exhausted by payments for services from the allocation. The payment must be made under this section at the end of each quarter from any unspent allocation for that year.

Sec. 30. [254B.03] [RESPONSIBILITY TO PROVIDE CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY TREATMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [LOCAL AGENCY DUTIES.] (a) Every local agency shall provide chemical dependency services to persons residing within its jurisdiction who meet criteria established by the commissioner for placement in a chemical dependency residential or nonresidential treatment service. Chemical dependency money must be administered by the local agencies according to law and rules adopted by the commissioner under sections 14.01 to 14.69.

(b) In order to contain costs, the county board shall, with the approval of the commissioner of human services, select eligible vendors of chemical dependency services who can provide economical care. A local agency must not provide direct chemical dependency services, as defined in section 28, subdivision 3, as a vendor. The commissioner may approve proposals from county boards to provide services in an economical manner or to control utilization, with safeguards to ensure that necessary services are provided. If a county implements a demonstration or experimental medical services funding plan, the commissioner shall transfer the money as appropriate.

Subd. 2. [CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY SERVICES.] (a) Payment from the chemical dependency fund is limited to payments for services other than detoxification that, if located outside of a licensed hospital and federally recognized tribal lands, would be required to be licensed by the commissioner as a residential or nonresidential treatment program under sections 245.781 to 245.812. Vendors receiving payments from the chemical dependency fund must not require copayment from a recipient of benefits for services provided under this subdivision.

(b) A county may, from its own resources, provide chemical dependency services for which state payments are not made.

(c) The commissioner shall coordinate chemical dependency services and determine whether there is a need for any proposed expansion of chemical dependency treatment services. The commissioner shall deny vendor certification to any provider that has not received prior approval from the commissioner for the creation of new programs or the expansion of existing program capacity. The commissioner shall consider the provider's capacity to obtain clients from outside the state based on plans, agreements, and previous utilization history, when determining the need for new treatment services.

Subd. 3. [LOCAL AGENCIES TO PAY STATE FOR COUNTY SHARE.] Local agencies shall submit invoices to the state on forms supplied by the commissioner and according to procedures established by the commissioner. Local agencies shall pay the state for the county share of the invoiced services.

Subd. 4. [DIVISION OF COSTS.] The county shall out of local money reimburse the state for 15 percent of the cost of chemical dependency services costs paid by the state under this section. Counties may use the indigent hospitalization levy for treatment and hospital payments made under this section. Fifteen percent of any state collections from private or third-party pay must be distributed to the county that paid for the treatment under this section.

Subd. 5. [RULES.] The commissioner shall adopt rules as necessary to implement sections 28 to 36.

Sec. 31. [254B.04] [ELIGIBILITY FOR CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY FUND SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBILITY.] Persons eligible for benefits under sections 256D.01 to 256D.21 and persons eligible for federal health care benefits under section 256B.06 are entitled to chemical dependency fund services.

Subd. 2. [AMOUNT OF CONTRIBUTION.] The commissioner shall adopt a sliding fee scale to determine the amount of contribution to be required from persons whose income and nonexempt property are greater than the standard of assistance under sections 256B.06 and 256D.01 to 256D.21. The commissioner may adopt an existing fee scale from another assistance program or from the state facilities by publication in the state register. The fee scale must not provide assistance to persons whose income is more than 115 percent of the state median income. Payments of liabilities under this section are medical expenses for purposes of determining spend-down under sections 256B.06 and 256D.01 to 256D.21.

Sec. 32. [254B.05] [VENDOR ELIGIBILITY.]

Programs licensed by the commissioner are eligible vendors. Hospital and American Indian programs that, if located outside of a licensed hospital or outside of federally recognized tribal lands, would be required to be licensed to provide chemical dependency primary treatment, extended care, transitional residence, or outpatient treatment services, are eligible vendors. Detoxification programs are not eligible vendors. Programs that, if located outside of a hospital and outside of federally recognized tribal lands, would not be licensed as a chemical dependency residential or nonresidential treatment program under sections 245.781 to 245.812 are not eligible vendors.

Sec. 33. [254B.06] [REIMBURSEMENT; PAYMENT; DENIAL.]

Subdivision 1. [STATE COLLECTIONS.] The commissioner is responsible for all collections from persons determined to be partially responsible for the cost of care of an eligible person receiving services under sections 28 to 36. The commissioner may collect all third-party payments for chemical dependency services provided under sections 28 to 36, including private insurance and federal medicaid and medicare financial participation. The commissioner shall credit to the general fund a percentage of collections to pay for the cost of billing and collections. The remaining receipts must be credited to the chemical dependency fund.

Subd. 2. [ALLOCATION OF COLLECTIONS.] The commissioner shall allocate all federal financial participation collections to counties under section 29, subdivision 1. Section 29, subdivision 2, must not be applied to the quarterly allocation of federal money. The commissioner shall retain 85 percent of patient payments and third-party payments and allocate the collections to the treatment allocation for the county that is financially responsible for the person. Fifteen percent of patient and third-party payments must be paid to the county financially responsible for the patient.

Subd. 3. [PAYMENT; DENIAL.] The commissioner shall pay eligible vendors for placements made by local agencies under section 30, subdivision 1, and placements by tribal designated agencies according to section 36. The commissioner may reduce or deny payment of the state share when services are not provided according to the placement criteria established by the commissioner. The commissioner may pay for all or a portion of improper county chemical dependency placements and bill the county for the entire payment made when the placement did not comply with criteria established by the commissioner.

Sec. 34. [254B.07] [THIRD-PARTY LIABILITY.]

The state agency provision and payment of, or liability for, chemical dependency medical care is the same as in section 256B.042.

Sec. 35. [254B.08] [FEDERAL WAIVERS.]

The commissioner shall apply for any federal waivers necessary to secure, to the extent allowed by law, federal financial participation for the provision of services to persons who need chemical dependency services. The commissioner may seek amendments to the waivers or apply for additional waivers to contain costs. The commissioner shall ensure that payment for the cost of providing chemical dependency services under the federal waiver plan does not exceed the cost of chemical dependency services that would have been provided without the waived services.

Sec. 36. [254B.09] [INDIAN RESERVATION ALLOCATION OF CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY FUND.]

Subdivision 1. [AMERICAN INDIAN CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY ACCOUNT.] The commissioner shall pay eligible vendors for chemical dependency services to American Indians on the same basis as other payments, except that no local match is required when an invoice is submitted by the governing authority of a federally recognized American Indian tribal body on behalf of a current resident of the reservation under this section.

Subd. 2. [AMERICAN INDIAN AGREEMENTS.] The commissioner may enter into agreements with federally recognized tribal units to pay for chemical dependency treatment services provided under sections 28 to 36. The agreements must require the governing body of the tribal unit to fulfill all county responsibilities regarding the form and manner of invoicing, and provide that only invoices for eligible vendors according to section 32 will be included in invoices sent to the commissioner for payment, to the extent that money allocated under subdivision 3 is used.

Subd. 3. [TRIBAL NONPARTICIPATION.] If a federally recognized tribal governing body has not entered into an agreement under subdivision 2 or cancels the agreement, money must be reallocated to the account established by subdivision 5.

Subd. 4. [TRIBAL ALLOCATION.] 42.5 percent of the American Indian chemical dependency account must be allocated to the federally recognized American Indian tribal governing bodies that have entered into an agreement under subdivision 2 as follows: $10,000 must be allocated to each governing body and the remainder must be allocated in direct proportion to the population of the reservation according to the most recently available estimates from the federal Bureau of Indian Affairs.

Subd. 5. [TRIBAL RESERVE ACCOUNT.] The commissioner shall reserve 7.5 percent of the American Indian chemical dependency account. The reserve must be allocated to those tribal units that have used all money allocated under subdivision 4 according to agreements made under subdivision 2. An American Indian tribal governing body may receive not more than 30 percent of the reserve account in a year. Money must be allocated as invoices are received.

Subd. 6. [AMERICAN INDIAN TRIBAL PLACEMENTS.] After entering into an agreement under subdivision 2, the governing authority of each reservation may submit invoices to the state for the cost of providing chemical dependency services to residents of the reservation according to the placement regulations governing county placements, except that local match requirements are waived. The governing body may designate an agency to act on its behalf to provide placement services and manage invoices by written notice to the commissioner and evidence of agreement by the agency designated.

Subd. 7. [NONRESERVATION INDIAN ACCOUNT.] Fifty percent of the American Indian chemical dependency allocation must be held in reserve by the commissioner in an account for treatment of Indians not residing on lands of a reservation receiving money under subdivision 4. This money must be used to pay for services certified by county invoice to have been provided to an American Indian eligible recipient. Money allocated under this subdivision may be used for payments on behalf of American Indian county residents only if, in addition to other placement standards, the county certifies that the placement was appropriate to the cultural orientation of the client.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 256B.02, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [MEDICAL ASSISTANCE; MEDICAL CARE.] "Medical assistance" or "medical care" means payment of part or all of the cost of the following care and services for eligible individuals whose income and resources are insufficient to meet all of this cost:

(1) Inpatient hospital services. A second medical opinion is required prior to reimbursement for elective surgeries. The commissioner shall publish in the State Register a proposed list of elective surgeries that require a second medical opinion prior to reimbursement. The list is not subject to the requirements of sections 14.01 to 14.70. The commissioner's decision whether a second medical opinion is required, made in accordance with rules governing that decision, is not subject to administrative appeal;

(2) Skilled nursing home services and services of intermediate care facilities, including training and habilitation services, as defined in section 256B.50, subdivision 1, for mentally retarded individuals residing in intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded;

(3) Physicians' services;

(4) Outpatient hospital or nonprofit community health clinic services or physician-directed clinic services. The physician-directed clinic staff shall include at least two physicians, one of whom is on the premises whenever the clinic is open, and all services shall be provided under the direct supervision of the physician who is on the premises. Hospital outpatient departments are subject to the same limitations and reimbursements as other enrolled vendors for all services, except initial triage, emergency services, and services not provided or immediately available in clinics, physicians' offices, or by other enrolled providers. "Emergency services" means those medical services required for the immediate diagnosis and treatment of medical conditions that, if not immediately diagnosed and treated, could lead to serious physical or mental disability or death or are necessary to alleviate severe pain. Neither the hospital, its employees, nor any physician or dentist, shall be liable in any action arising out of a determination not to render emergency services or care if reasonable care is exercised in determining the condition of the person, or in determining the appropriateness of the facilities, or the qualifications and availability of personnel to render these services consistent with this section;

(5) Community mental health center services, as defined in rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to section 256B.04, subdivision 2, and provided by a community mental health center as defined in section 245.62, subdivision 2;

(6) Home health care services;

(7) Private duty nursing services;

- (8) Physical therapy and related services;
- (9) Dental services, excluding cast metal restorations;
- (10) Laboratory and xray services;

(11) The following if prescribed by a licensed practitioner: drugs, eye-glasses, dentures, and prosthetic devices. The commissioner shall designate a formulary committee which shall advise the commissioner on the names of drugs for which payment shall be made, recommend a system for reimbursing providers on a set fee or charge basis rather than the present system, and develop methods encouraging use of generic drugs when they are less expensive and equally effective as trademark drugs. The commissioner shall appoint the formulary committee members no later than 30 days following July 1, 1981. The formulary committee shall consist of nine members, four of whom shall be physicians who are not employed by the department of human services, and a majority of whose practice is for persons paying privately or through health insurance, three of whom shall be pharmacists who are not employed by the department of human services, and a majority of whose practice is for persons paying privately or through health insurance, a consumer representative, and a nursing home representative. Committee members shall serve two year terms and shall serve without compensation. The commissioner may establish a drug formulary. Its establishment and publication shall not be subject to the requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act, but the formulary committee shall review and comment on the formulary contents. Prior authorization may be required by the commissioner, with the consent of the drug formulary committee, before certain formulary drugs are eligible for payment. The formulary shall not include: drugs or products for which there is no federal funding; over the counter drugs, except for antacids, acetaminophen, family planning products, aspirin, insulin, prenatal vitamins, and vitamins for children under the age of seven; or any other over the counter drug identified by the commissioner, in consultation with the appropriate professional consultants under contract with or employed by the state agency, as necessary, appropriate and cost effective for the treatment of certain specified chronic diseases, conditions or disorders, and this determination shall not be subject to the requirements of chapter 14, the Administrative Procedure Act; nutritional products, except for those products needed for treatment of phenylketonuria, hyperlysinemia, maple syrup urine disease, a combined allergy to human milk, cow milk, and soy formula, or any other childhood or adult diseases, conditions, or disorders identified by the commissioner as requiring a similarly necessary nutritional product; anorectics; and drugs for which medical value has not been established. Separate payment shall not be made for nutritional products for residents of long-term care facilities; payment for dietary requirements is a component of the per diem rate paid to these facilities. Payment to drug vendors shall not be modified before the formulary is established except that the commissioner shall not permit payment for any drugs which may not by law be included in the formulary, and his determination shall not be subject to chapter 14, the Administrative Procedure Act. The commissioner shall publish conditions for prohibiting payment for specific drugs after considering the formulary committee's recommendations.

The basis for determining the amount of payment shall be the actual acquisition costs of the drugs plus a fixed dispensing fee established by the commissioner. Actual acquisition cost includes quantity and other special discounts except time and cash discounts. Establishment of this fee shall not be subject to the requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act. Whenever a generically equivalent product is available, payment shall be on the basis of the actual acquisition cost of the generic drug, unless the prescriber specifically indicates "dispense as written" on the prescription as required by section 151.21, subdivision 2.

Notwithstanding the above provisions, implementation of any change in the fixed dispensing fee which has not been subject to the Administrative Procedure Act shall be limited to not more than 180 days, unless, during that time, the commissioner shall have initiated rulemaking through the Administrative Procedure Act;

(12) Diagnostic, screening, and preventive services;

(13) Health care pre-payment plan premiums and insurance premiums if paid directly to a vendor and supplementary medical insurance benefits under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act;

(14) Abortion services, but only if one of the following conditions is met:

(a) The abortion is a medical necessity. "Medical necessity" means (1) the signed written statement of two physicians indicating the abortion is medically necessary to prevent the death of the mother, and (2) the patient has given her consent to the abortion in writing unless the patient is physically or legally incapable of providing informed consent to the procedure, in which case consent will be given as otherwise provided by law;

(b) The pregnancy is the result of criminal sexual conduct as defined in section 609.342, clauses (c), (d), (e)(i), and (f), and the incident is reported within 48 hours after the incident occurs to a valid law enforcement agency for investigation, unless the victim is physically unable to report the criminal sexual conduct, in which case the report shall be made within 48 hours after the victim becomes physically able to report the criminal sexual conduct; or

(c) The pregnancy is the result of incest, but only if the incident and relative are reported to a valid law enforcement agency for investigation prior to the abortion;

(15) Transportation costs incurred solely for obtaining emergency medical care or transportation costs incurred by nonambulatory persons in obtaining emergency or nonemergency medical care when paid directly to an ambulance company, common carrier, or other recognized providers of transportation services. For the purpose of this clause, a person who is incapable of transport by taxicab or bus shall be considered to be nonambulatory;

(16) To the extent authorized by rule of the state agency, costs of bus or taxicab transportation incurred by any ambulatory eligible person for obtaining nonemergency medical care;

(17) Personal care attendant services provided by an individual, not a relative, who is qualified to provide the services, where the services are prescribed by a physician in accordance with a plan of treatment and are supervised by a registered nurse. Payments to personal care attendants shall be adjusted annually to reflect changes in the cost of living or of providing services by the average annual adjustment granted to vendors such as nursing homes and home health agencies; and

(18) Any other medical or remedial care licensed and recognized under state law unless otherwise prohibited by law, except licensed chemical dependency treatment programs or primary treatment or extended care treatment units in hospitals that are covered under sections 28 to 36. The commissioner shall include chemical dependency services in the state medical assistance plan for federal reporting purposes, but payment must be made under sections 28 to 36.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 256B.091, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [ALTERNATIVE CARE GRANTS.] The commissioner shall provide grants to counties participating in the program to pay costs of providing alternative care to individuals screened under subdivision 4. Payment is available under this subdivision only for individuals (1) for whom the screening team would recommend nursing home admission if alternative care were not available; (2) who are receiving medical assistance ~~or who would be eligible for medical assistance within 180 days of admission to a nursing home;~~ and (3) who need services that are not available at that time in the county through other public assistance.

Grants may be used for payment of costs of providing services such as, but not limited to, foster care for elderly persons, day care whether or not offered through a nursing home, nutritional counseling, or medical social services, which services are provided by a licensed health care provider, a home health service eligible for reimbursement under Titles XVIII and XIX of the federal Social Security Act, or by persons employed by or contracted with by the county board or the local welfare agency. The county agency shall ensure that a plan of care is established for each individual in accordance with subdivision 3, clause (e)(2). The plan shall include any services prescribed by the individual's attending physician as necessary and follow up services as necessary. The county agency shall provide documentation to the commissioner verifying that the individual's alternative care is not available at that time through any other public assistance or service program and shall provide documentation in each individual's plan of care that the most cost effective alternatives available have been offered to the individual. Grants to counties under this subdivision are subject to audit by the commissioner for fiscal and utilization control.

~~The commissioner shall establish a sliding fee schedule for requiring payment for the cost of providing services under this subdivision to persons who are eligible for the services but who are not yet eligible for medical assistance. The sliding fee schedule is not subject to chapter 14 but the commissioner shall publish the schedule and any later changes in the State Register and allow a period of 20 working days from the publication date for interested persons to comment before adopting the sliding fee schedule in final forms.~~

The commissioner shall apply for a waiver for federal financial participation to expand the availability of services under this subdivision. The commissioner shall provide grants to counties from the nonfederal share, unless the commissioner obtains a federal waiver for medical assistance payments, of medical assistance appropriations. A county agency may use grant money to supplement but not supplant services available through other public assistance or service programs and shall not use grant money to establish new programs for which public money is available through sources other than grants provided under this subdivision. A county agency shall not use grant money to provide care under this subdivision to an individual if the anticipated cost of providing this care would exceed the average payment, as determined by the commissioner, for the level of nursing home care that the recipient would receive if placed in a nursing home. The nonfederal share may be used to pay up to 90 percent of the start-up and service delivery costs of providing care under this subdivision. Each county agency that receives a grant shall pay ten percent of the costs.

The commissioner shall promulgate emergency rules in accordance with sections 14.29 to 14.36, to establish required documentation and reporting of care delivered.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 256B.092, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. SCREENING.] At the time of the client's annual review, the county shall use a uniform screening tool specified by the commissioner to report the client's social, habilitative, developmental, and medical needs.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 256B.092, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [TERMINATION OF SERVICES.] County agency case managers, under rules of the commissioner, shall authorize and terminate services of community and state hospital providers in accordance with individual service plans. Medical assistance services not needed shall not be authorized by county agencies nor funded by the commissioner.

The county agencies shall not authorize, nor shall the commissioner provide medical assistance funding for, services in an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded unless an individual assessment of service needs documents that:

(1) the person has mental retardation;

(2) the person requires 24-hour supervision and active treatment for medical, behavioral, or habilitation needs; and

(3) less restrictive or less costly services appropriate to the client's needs cannot be made available to meet the person's assessed service needs.

The commissioner may determine whether medical assistance funding should continue to be authorized for services to an individual in an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded. The determination must be based on the review of the individual service plan and on the findings of the Minnesota department of health quality assurance and review survey and other information that the commissioner may request.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 256B.092, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [SCREENING TEAMS ESTABLISHED.] Each county agency shall establish a screening team which, under the direction of the county case manager, shall make an evaluation of need for home and community-based services of persons who ~~are entitled to~~ require the level of care provided by an intermediate care facility for mentally retarded persons, an intermediate care facility, or a skilled nursing facility or for whom there is a reasonable indication that they might need the services in the near future. The screening team shall make an evaluation of need within 15 working days of the request for service after a person's individual service plan indicates that the person is in need of or may be at risk of placement in an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded, intermediate care facility, or a skilled nursing facility and within five working days of an emergency admission of an individual to an intermediate care facility for mentally retarded persons, intermediate care facility, or a skilled nursing facility. The screening team shall consist of the case manager, the client, a parent or guardian as appropriate to the client's legal status, a qualified mental retardation professional, as defined in the Code of Federal Regulations, title 42, section 442.401, as amended through December 31, 1982, assigned by the commissioner. A qualified mental retardation professional is not required for persons being discharged from one community intermediate care facility for mentally retarded persons to another if the admitting facility is less restrictive and less costly. The case manager shall consult with the client's physician or other persons as necessary to make this evaluation. Other persons may be invited to attend meetings of the screening team. No member of the screening team shall have any direct or indirect service provider interest in the case.

Sec. 42. [256B.095] [COMMUNITY CARE INCENTIVE GRANTS.]

Subdivision 1. [GRANTS FOR ELDERLY SERVICES.] To the extent of appropriations specifically designated for this purpose, the commissioner shall provide grants to counties for community services for the elderly. Grants must be allocated according to the formula used for alternative care grants under section 256B.091, subdivision 8. Grants must be used to provide services to the elderly as part of the annual plan required under section 393.07, subdivision 2a. The county agency may use grant money to supplement services available through other public assistance or service programs but must not use grant money to replace services available through other programs or to establish new programs for which public money is available through sources other than grants provided under this section. Grant money received under this section must not be used for services for persons who are receiving alternative care grant services under section 256B.091, subdivision 8.

Subd. 2. [SLIDING FEE SCHEDULE; EXEMPT RULES.] The commissioner shall establish a sliding fee schedule for requiring payment of the cost of providing services under this section to persons who are eligible for the services but who are not eligible for medical assistance. For purposes of establishing the sliding fee schedule and later amendments to it, the commissioner is exempt from the rulemaking provisions of chapter 14, except section 14.38, subdivision 7. The commissioner shall publish the sliding fee schedule and any later amendments in the State Register and allow a period of 20 working days from the publication date for interested persons to comment before adopting the sliding fee schedule in final form.

Subd. 3. [RULEMAKING.] The commissioner shall adopt permanent rules concerning the grant program.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 256B.19, subdivision 1, is

amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DIVISION OF COST.] The cost of medical assistance paid by each county of financial responsibility shall be borne as follows: Payments shall be made by the state to the county for that portion of medical assistance paid by the federal government and the state on or before the 20th day of each month for the succeeding month upon requisition from the county showing the amount required for the succeeding month. Ninety percent of the expense of assistance not paid by federal funds available for that purpose shall be paid by the state and ten percent shall be paid by the county of financial responsibility, for the following medical assistance expenses:

(1) medical assistance expenses for all services except skilled nursing facility, intermediate care facility I, and intermediate care facility II care;

(2) medical assistance expenses for skilled nursing facility, intermediate care facility I, and intermediate care facility II care for persons who were admitted to a nursing home before July 1, 1985, but did not become eligible for medical assistance until after that date; and

(3) medical assistance expenses for skilled nursing facility, intermediate care facility I, and intermediate care facility II care for persons who were admitted to a nursing home in this state as a resident of another state and later became eligible for medical assistance as a Minnesota resident.

For all other medical assistance expenses for skilled nursing facility, intermediate care facility I, and intermediate care facility II care, payments must be made as follows:

(a) Seventy-five percent of the expense of assistance not paid by federal money available for that purpose must be paid by the state and 25 percent must be paid by the county of financial responsibility.

(b) The state shall pay to the county an additional amount equal to 15 percent of the nonfederal share of the average monthly medical assistance expense for skilled nursing facility, intermediate care facility I, and intermediate care facility II care incurred by that county during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1984, adjusted for inflation, as an incentive to the county to use noninstitutional long-term care services. This incentive payment must be made on or before the 20th day of each month for the succeeding month. Incentive payments received by a county under this paragraph must be used for nursing home care or alternative community services for the elderly. As a condition of receiving incentive payments, the county must not decrease county support of services to the elderly below the level of support that existed on January 1, 1985, according to criteria established by the commissioner of human services. The commissioner of human services may establish a separate account or fund to facilitate the payments.

For counties where health maintenance organizations are under contract to the state to provide services to medical assistance recipients, the division of the nonfederal share of medical assistance expenses for payments made to health maintenance organizations in the form of prepaid capitation payments, this division of medical assistance expenses shall be 95 percent by the state and five percent by the county of financial responsibility.

State contracts with health maintenance organizations shall assure medical assistance recipients of at least the comprehensive health maintenance services defined in section 62D.02, subdivision 7. The contracts shall require health maintenance organizations to provide information to the commissioner concerning the number of people receiving services, the number of encounters, the type of services received, evidence of an operational quality assurance program pursuant to section 62D.04 and information about utilization.

Persons who become eligible for medical assistance after July 1, 1984, who are not participating in any Medicaid demonstration project as defined under sections 256B.70 and 256B.71, and who choose at the time of application for assistance to receive services from a health maintenance organization, shall be guaranteed six months of coverage by a state contracted health maintenance organization if the recipient remains in the health maintenance organization from the time of initial enrollment. The continued eligibility guarantee shall not be granted when ineligibility for medical assistance is due to death, loss of state or county residency, failure to respond to the county's efforts to contact the recipient, failure to locate the recipient, or when the recipient is eligible for continued eligibility as defined in section 256B.062.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 256B.501, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [PAYMENT FOR PERSONS WITH SPECIAL NEEDS.] The commissioner shall establish by December 31, 1983, procedures to be followed by the counties to seek authorization from the commissioner for medical assistance reimbursement for ~~waivered services or~~ training and habilitation services for very dependent persons with special needs in an amount in excess of the rates allowed pursuant to subdivisions 2, 4, 5, and 6, and procedures to be followed for rate limitation exemptions for intermediate care facilities for mentally retarded persons. No excess payment or limitation exemption shall be authorized unless the need for the service is documented in the individual service plan of the person or persons to be served, the type and duration of the services needed are stated, and there is a basis for estimated cost of the services. Payments made under this subdivision are limited to very dependent persons with special needs who otherwise would be placed or retained in a state hospital. The total payment for residential and day training and habilitation services for a very dependent person with special needs must not exceed the payment for providing services in a state hospital except in cases where the payment for residential services exceeds 85 percent of the payment for state hospital services. In this case, the total payment for residential and day training and habilitation services for a very dependent person with special needs must not exceed 115 percent of the payment for state hospital services, and only day training and habilitation providers are eligible to receive additional funds made available under this exception.

The commissioner shall evaluate the services provided pursuant to this subdivision through program and fiscal ~~audits~~ reviews.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 256B.70, is amended to read:

256B.70 [DEMONSTRATION PROJECT WAIVER.]

Each hospital that participates as a provider in a demonstration project, established by the commissioner of human services to deliver medical assistance, or chemical dependency services on a prepaid, capitation basis, is exempt from the prospective payment system for inpatient hospital service during the period of its participation in that project.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 256D.03, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [GENERAL ASSISTANCE MEDICAL CARE; SERVICES.]

(a) Reimbursement under the general assistance medical care program shall be limited to the following categories of service: inpatient hospital care, outpatient hospital care, services provided by medicare certified rehabilitation agencies, prescription drugs, equipment necessary to administer insulin and diagnostic supplies and equipment for diabetics to monitor blood sugar level, eyeglasses and eye examinations provided by a physician or optometrist, hearing aids, prosthetic devices, laboratory and x-ray services, physician's services, medical transportation, and dental care. In addition, payments of state aid shall be made for day treatment services provided by a mental health center established under sections 245.61 to 245.69, subdivision 1, and funded through chapter 256E and for prescribed medications for persons who have been diagnosed as mentally ill as necessary to prevent more restrictive institutionalization.

(b) In order to contain costs, the county board shall, with the approval of the commissioner of human services, select vendors of medical care who can provide the most economical care consistent with high medical standards and may contract with organizations on a prepaid capitation basis to provide these services. The commissioner shall encourage county boards to submit proposals for demonstration projects designed to provide services in an economical manner or to control utilization, with safeguards to ensure that necessary services are provided. Payment for services provided pursuant to this subdivision shall be as provided to medical assistance vendors of these services under section 256B.02, subdivision 8, except that where counties enter into prepaid capitation agreements, payments shall be as provided in section 256.966, subdivision 2.

(c) The commissioner of human services may reduce payments provided under sections 256D.01 to 256D.21 and 261.23 in order to remain within the amount appropriated for general assistance medical care, within the following restrictions. For the period July 1, 1983 to June 30, 1984, reductions below the cost per service unit allowable under section 256.966, are permitted only as follows: payments for inpatient and outpatient hospital care provided in response to a primary diagnosis of chemical dependency or mental illness may be reduced no more than 45 percent; payments for all other inpatient hospital care may be reduced no more than 35 percent. Reductions below the payments allowable under section 256.967 for the remaining general assistance medical care services allowable under this subdivision may be reduced no more than 25 percent. For the period July 1, 1984 to June 30, 1985, reductions below the cost per service unit allowable under section 256.966 are permitted only as follows: payments for inpatient and outpatient hospital care provided in response to a primary diagnosis of chemical dependency or mental illness may be reduced no more than 30 percent; payments for all other inpatient hospital care may be reduced no more than 20 percent. Reductions below the payments allowable under section 256.967 for the remaining general assistance medical care services allowable under this subdivision may be reduced no more than ten percent. There shall be no copayment required of any recipient of benefits for any services provided under this subdivision. A hospital receiving a reduced payment as a result of this section may apply the unpaid balance toward satisfaction of the hospital's bad debts.

(d) Any county may, from its own resources, provide medical payments for which state payments are not made.

(e) Chemical dependency services that are reimbursed under sections 28 to 36 must not be reimbursed under general assistance medical care.

Sec. 47. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 256D.37, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. (a) For all applicants for supplemental security income who did not receive aid pursuant to any categorical aid program referred to in section 256D.36 during December, 1973, and who make application individuals who apply to the appropriate local agency for supplemental aid, the local agency shall determine whether the individual meets the eligibility criteria prescribed in subdivision 2. For each individual who meets the relevant eligibility criteria prescribed in subdivision 2, the local agency shall certify to the commissioner the amount of supplemental aid to which the individual is entitled in accordance with all of the standards in effect December 31, 1973, for the appropriate categorical aid program.

(b) The state standard of assistance for shelter must provide for the recipient's needs for shelter, heating, cooking, electrical, water, sewer, and garbage removal. The monthly state standard of assistance for shelter must be determined as provided in this subdivision. If the recipient does not reside with a spouse who receives Minnesota supplemental aid, the state standard of assistance for shelter is the actual cost for shelter or $151, whichever is less. If the recipient resides with a spouse who receives Minnesota supplemental aid, the state standard of assistance for shelter for the married couple is the actual cost for shelter or $227, whichever is less. The actual shelter cost for married and unmarried recipients who share a residence must be determined by dividing the sum of the total monthly shelter cost for the residence by the number of persons who share the residence, unless the recipient can justify a greater or lesser share. The state standard of assistance for basic needs must provide the needs of the recipient for food, clothing and personal needs, reading material, laundry, household supply items, transportation, and other personal needs.

(c) The monthly state standard of assistance for basic needs is $234 for an individual who does not share a residence with another person, and $184 for an individual who shares a residence with another person or persons.

(d) When a recipient is a resident of a state hospital or a dwelling with a negotiated rate, the recipient is not eligible for a shelter standard, a basic needs standard, or for special needs payments. The state standard of assistance for those recipients is the clothing and personal needs allowance for medical assistance recipients under section 256B.35. Minnesota supplemental aid may be paid to negotiated rate facilities at the rates in effect on March 1, 1985, for services provided under the supplemental aid program to residents of the facility, up to the maximum negotiated rate specified in this section. The rate for room and board or a licensed facility must not exceed $800. The maximum negotiated rate does not apply to a facility described in section 256B.431, subdivision 4, paragraph (b). The following facilities are exempt from the limit on negotiated rates and must be reimbursed for documented actual costs, until June 30, 1987:

(1) a facility that only provides services to persons with mental retardation; and

(2) a facility not certified to participate in the medical assistance program that is licensed as a boarding care facility as of March 1, 1985, and only provides care to persons aged 65 or older. Beginning July 1, 1987, these facilities are subject to applicable supplemental aid limits, and mental retardation facilities must meet all applicable licensing and reimbursement requirements for programs for persons with mental retardation. The negotiated rates may be paid for persons who are placed by the local agency or who elect to reside in a room and board facility or a licensed facility for the purpose of receiving physical, mental health, or rehabilitative care, provided the local agency agrees that this care is needed by the person. When Minnesota supplemental aid is used to pay a negotiated rate, the rate payable to the facility must not exceed the rate paid by an individual not receiving Minnesota supplemental aid. To receive payment for a negotiated rate, the dwelling must comply with applicable laws and rules establishing standards necessary for health, safety, and licensure. The negotiated rate must be adjusted by the annual percentage change in the urban consumer price index (CPI-U) for Minneapolis-St. Paul as published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics between the previous two Octobers, new series index (1967-100). In computing the amount of supplemental aid under this section, the local agency shall deduct from the gross amount of the individual's determined needs all income, subject to the criteria for income disregards in effect December 31, 1973, for the appropriate categorical aid program, except that the earned income disregard for disabled persons who are not residents of long term care facilities shall be the same as the earned income disregard available to disabled persons in the supplemental security income program and all actual work expenses shall be deducted when determining the amount of income for the individual. From and after the first of the month in which an effective application is filed, the state and the county shall share responsibility for the payment of the supplemental aid to which the individual is entitled under this section as provided in section 256D.36.

Sec. 48. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 393.07, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [LEAD AGENCY FOR SERVICES TO THE ELDERLY.] The county board shall be the lead agency responsible for planning and coordinating services to the elderly including housing, income support, health, and social services. The commissioner of human services shall provide technical assistance to the board in its exercise of the lead agency function. The board shall submit to the commissioner an annual plan for services to the elderly and an annual report concerning services provided and progress toward accomplishing objectives. The commissioner shall adopt rules which establish standards for the annual plan and the annual report.

The agency shall give written notice to the recipient of its intention to recover the overpayment. Overpayments to a current assistance unit shall be recovered either through repayment by the individual in part or in full or by reducing the amount of aid payable to the assistance unit of which the individual is a member. (7) a parent who is not the principal earner if the parent who is the principal earner is not exempt under clauses (1) to (6); or

(8) a woman in her last trimester of pregnancy.

Any individual referred to in clause (5) shall be advised of the option to register for employment services, training, and employment if the individual so desires, and shall be informed of the child care services, if any, which will be available if the individual decides to register.

If, after planning with a recipient, a decision is made that the recipient must register for employment services, training, and employment, the county welfare department shall give notice in writing to the recipient stating that he or she must register with the commissioner of economic security for participation in a work incentive program and that the recipient has a right to a fair hearing under section 256.045 with respect to the appropriateness of the registration.

(2) Pay ten percent of the cost of programs of training and employment established by the commissioner of economic security for persons certified hereunder;

(3) Provide that in determining a recipient's needs any monthly incentive training payment made to the recipient by the department of economic security is disregarded and the additional expenses attributable to his participation in a program are taken into account in grant determination; and

(4) Provide that when it has been certified by the commissioner of economic security, certification to be binding upon the commissioner of human services, that a relative or child certified under the work incentive program to the commissioner of economic security has been found by the commissioner, after a hearing conducted in the manner prescribed by section 268.10, subdivision 3, with the right of review in accordance with the provisions of section 268.10, subdivision 8, to have refused without good cause to participate under a work incentive program or to have refused without good cause to accept a bona fide offer of public or other employment, the county welfare departments shall provide that:

(a) If the relative makes the refusal, the relative's needs shall not be taken into account in making the grant determination, and aid for any dependent child in the family will be made in the form of protective or vendor payments, except that when protective payments are made, the local agency may continue payments to the relative if a protective payee cannot reasonably be found.

(b) Aid with respect to a dependent child will be denied if a child who makes the refusal is the only child receiving aid in the family.

(c) If there is more than one child receiving aid in the family, aid for the child who makes the refusal will be denied and his needs will not be taken into account in making the grant determination. If the assistance unit's eligibility is based on the nonexempt principal earner's unemployment and ~~the~~ this principal earner fails or refuses without good cause to participate or to accept employment, the entire assistance unit is ineligible for benefits under sections 256.72 to 256.87.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 256.74, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT.] The amount of assistance which shall be granted to or on behalf of any dependent child and mother or other needy eligible relative caring for the dependent child shall be determined by the county agency in accordance with rules promulgated by the commissioner and shall be sufficient, when added to all other income and support available to the child, to provide the child with a reasonable subsistence compatible with decency and health. The amount shall be based on the method of budgeting required in Public Law No. 97-35, Section 2315, 42 U.S.C. 602, as amended and federal regulations at 45 C.F.R. Section 233. Nonrecurring lump sum income received by an assistance unit must be budgeted in the normal retrospective cycle. The number of months of ineligibility is determined by dividing the amount of the lump sum income and all other income, after application of the applicable disregards, by the standard of need for the assistance unit. An amount remaining after this calculation is income in the first month of eligibility. If the total monthly income including the lump sum income is larger than the standard of need for a single month the first month of ineligibility is the payment month that corresponds with the budget month in which the lump sum income was received. In making its determination the county agency shall disregard the following from family income:

(1) All of the earned income of each dependent child receiving aid to families with dependent children who is a full-time student or part-time student, and not a full-time employee, attending a school, college, or university, or a course of vocational or technical training designed to fit him for gainful employment as well as all the earned income derived from the job training and partnership act (JTPA) for a dependent child for six calendar months per year, together with unearned income derived from the job training and partnership act;

(2) All educational grants and loans awarded pursuant to a federal law when public assistance was considered in making the award and the award was made on the basis of financial need; and that part of any other educational grant or loan which is used for educational purposes, such as tuition, fees, equipment, transportation and child care expenses necessary for school attendance;

(3) The first $75 of each individual's earned income. ~~In the case of an individual not engaged in full-time employment or not employed throughout the month the commissioner shall prescribe by rule a lesser amount to be disregarded.~~ For self-employed persons, the expenses directly related to producing goods and services and without which the goods and services could not be produced shall be disregarded pursuant to rules promulgated by the commissioner;

(4) An amount equal to the actual expenditures but not to exceed $160 for the care of each dependent child or incapacitated individual living in the same home and receiving aid. In the case of a person not engaged in full-time employment or not employed throughout the month, the commissioner shall prescribe by rule a lesser amount to be disregarded; ~~and~~

(5) Thirty dollars plus one-third of the remainder of each individual's earned income not already disregarded for individuals found otherwise eligible to receive aid or who have received aid in one of the four months before the month of application. With respect to any month, the county welfare agency shall not disregard under this clause any earned income of any person who has:

(a) Reduced his earned income without good cause within 30 days preceding any month in which an assistance payment is made; or

(b) Refused without good cause to accept an offer of suitable employment; or

(c) Left employment or reduced his earnings without good cause and applied for assistance so that he might later return to employment with the advantage of the income disregard; or

(d) Failed without good cause to make a timely report of earned income in accordance with rules promulgated by the commissioner of human services.

Persons who are already employed and who apply for assistance shall have their needs computed with full account taken of their earned and other income. If earned and other income of the family is less than need, as determined on the basis of public assistance standards, the county agency shall determine the amount of the grant by applying the disregard of income provisions. The county agency shall not disregard earned income for persons in a family if the total monthly earned and other income exceeds their needs, unless for any one of the four preceding months their needs were met in whole or in part by a grant payment.

The disregard of $30 and one-third of the remainder of earned income described in clause (5) shall be applied to the individual's income for a period not to exceed four consecutive months. Any month in which the individual loses this disregard because of the provisions of clause (5)(a) to (5)(d) shall be considered as one of the four months. An additional $30 work incentive must be available for an eight-month period beginning in the month following the last month of the combined $30 and one-third work incentive. This period must be in effect whether or not the person has earned income or is eligible for AFDC. To again qualify for ~~this~~ the earned income disregard ~~disregards~~ under clause (d), the individual must not be a recipient of aid for a period of 12 consecutive months. ~~If~~ When an individual assistance unit becomes ineligible for aid because this earned income disregard has been applied to income for four consecutive months and will due to the fact that these disregards are no longer be applied to income, the local agency shall inform the individual of the medical assistance program, its standards of eligibility, and the circumstances under which the individual would the assistance unit shall be eligible for medical assistance- benefits for a 15-month period beginning with the first month of AFDC ineligibility;

(6) ~~The commissioner shall increase the standard of need for persons with earned income in effect on January 1, 1982, by 35 percent for each assistance unit. The maximum amount paid to an assistance unit shall be no more than 74 percent of the increased standard of need. Whenever the commissioner increases the maximum payment amount for all assistance units, the commissioner shall increase the maximum standard of need by an equal percentage.~~

~~To determine the amount of assistance to be paid to an assistance unit, net income shall be determined in a manner consistent with this chapter and applicable federal law. Net earned income shall be subtracted from the increased standard of need for an assistance unit of the appropriate size and composition to determine the grant amount, except that the grant shall not exceed the standard of need in effect on January 1, 1982 for an assistance unit of the same size and composition. Unearned income shall be subtracted from the maximum payment amount for an assistance unit of the appropriate size and composition to determine the grant amount.~~

~~Medical assistance eligibility for medically needy persons who are eligible for aid to families with dependent children shall be determined according to the standard of need in effect on January 1, 1982. The first $50 per assistance unit of the monthly support obligation collected by the support and recovery (IV-D) unit; and~~

(7) ~~Insurance settlements to pay medical bills, to compensate a member of an assistance unit for partial or permanent loss of function or a body part, or~~ to repair or replace insured property.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 256.74, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [STEPPARENT'S INCOME.] In determining income available, the county agency shall take into account the remaining income of the dependent child's stepparent who lives in the same household after disregarding:

(1) The first $75 of the stepparent's gross earned income. The commissioner shall prescribe by rule lesser amounts to be disregarded for stepparents who are not engaged in full-time employment or not employed throughout the month;

(2) An amount for support of the stepparent and any other individuals whom the stepparent claims as dependents for tax purposes and who live in the same household but whose needs are not considered in determining eligibility for assistance under sections 256.72 to 256.87. The amount equals the standard of need for a family with ~~no earned income~~ of the same composition as the stepparent and these other individuals;

(3) Amounts the stepparent actually paid to individuals not living in the same household but whom the stepparent claims as dependents for tax purposes; and

(4) Alimony or child support, or both, paid by the stepparent for individuals not living in the same household.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 256.74, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [APPLICATION.] Application for assistance under sections 256.72 to 256.87 shall be made to the county agency of the county in which the dependent child is ~~residing~~ lives. If the child is not ~~residing~~ living within the state at the time of application but is eligible for assistance, the application may be made to the agency of the county where the child is present and forwarded to the agency of the county where the child last ~~resided~~ lived. The application shall be in writing or reduced to writing in the manner and upon the form prescribed by the state agency and verified by the oath of the applicant or in lieu thereof shall contain the following declaration which shall be signed by the applicant: "I declare that this application has been examined by me and to the best of my knowledge and belief is a true and correct statement of every material point". The application shall be made by the person with whom the child will live and contain information as to the age and residence of the child and such other information as may be required by the rules and regulations of the state agency. One application may be made for several children of the same family if they ~~reside~~ live with the same person.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 256.76, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Upon the completion of such investigation the county agency shall decide whether the child is eligible for assistance under the provisions of sections 256.72 to 256.87, determine the amount of such assistance, and the date on which such assistance shall begin. Notwithstanding section 393.07, the county agency shall not delay approval or issuance of assistance pending formal action of the county board of commissioners. The first month's grant shall be based upon that portion of the month from the date of application, or from the date that the applicant meets all eligibility factors, whichever occurs later, provided that on the date that assistance is first requested, the local agency shall inquire and determine whether the person requesting assistance is in immediate need of food, shelter, clothing, or other emergency assistance. If an emergency need is found to exist, the applicant shall be granted assistance pursuant to section 256.871 within a reasonable period of time. It shall make a grant of assistance which shall be binding upon the county and be complied with by the county until such grant is modified or vacated. If the applicant is subsequently found to have been eligible for assistance under sections 256.72 to 256.87, assistance rendered under section 256.871 must be considered as a regular AFDC payment and not a payment under section 256.871. The county agency shall notify the applicant of its decision in writing. Such assistance shall be paid monthly to the applicant or to the vendor of medical care upon order of the county agency from funds appropriated to the county agency for this purpose. The county agency shall, upon the granting of assistance under these sections, file an order on the form to be approved by the state agency with the auditor of the county and thereafter warrants shall be drawn and payments made only in accordance with this order to or for recipients of this assistance or in accordance with any subsequent order.

256.78 [ASSISTANCE GRANTS RECONSIDERED.]

All assistance granted under sections 256.72 to 256.87 shall be reconsidered as frequently as may be required by the rules of the state agency. After such further investigation as the county agency may deem necessary or the state agency may require, the amount of assistance may be changed or assistance may be entirely withdrawn if the state or county agency find that the child's circumstances have altered sufficiently to warrant such action. The period of ineligibility for AFDC which results when an assistance unit receives lump sum income must be reduced when:

(1) the assistance unit's standard of need increases due to changes in state law or due to changes in the size or composition of the assistance unit, so that the amount of aid the assistance unit would have received would have increased had it not become ineligible;

(2) the lump sum income, or a portion of it becomes unavailable to the assistance unit due to expenditures to avoid a life-threatening circumstance, theft, or dissipation by a member of the family who is no longer a part of the assistance unit for the needs of persons who are not members of the assistance unit; or

(3) the assistance unit incurs and pays medical expenses for care and services specified in section 256B.02; subdivision 8.

The county agency may for cause at any time revoke, modify, or suspend any order for assistance previously made. When assistance is thus revoked, modified, or suspended the county agency shall at once report to the state agency such decision together with supporting evidence required by the rules of the state agency. All such decisions shall be subject to appeal and review by the state agency as provided in section 256.045.

256.79 [REMOVAL TO ANOTHER COUNTY.]

Any child qualified for and receiving assistance pursuant to the provisions in sections 256.72 to 256.87 in any county in this state, who moves or is taken to another county in this state shall be entitled to continue to receive assistance from the county from which ~~he~~ the child has moved or has been taken until ~~he~~ the child shall have resided for two months in the county to which ~~he~~ the child has moved. When ~~he~~ the child has resided two months in the county to which ~~he~~ the child has moved, or has been taken, the local agency of the county from which ~~he~~ the child has moved shall transfer all necessary records relating to the child to the county agency of the county to which ~~he~~ the child has moved. Where the child's assistance is terminated for 30 days or less before a reapplication is made, that assistance must continue to be the financial obligation of the county from which the child has moved until the two-month residence requirement has been met.

Notwithstanding the provisions of section 256.73, subdivision 4, the county of financial responsibility shall not change because application for assistance is not made prior to initial placement, or when living in a battered woman's shelter or maternity shelter, or as a result of successive placements in one or more counties pursuant to a plan of treatment for health, rehabilitation, foster care, child care or training, nor as a result of placement in any correctional program. In the case of a child who has no established county of residence prior to placement, the county of financial responsibility is the county in which the child resides at the time the application is made and the applicable eligibility criteria are met.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 256.871, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COUNTY OF RESPONSIBILITY.] No state or county durational residence is required to qualify for such assistance. The county which shall be financially responsible and grant assistance shall be the county wherein the child resides lives who is found to be in emergency need. ~~Such county may obtain reimbursement from another county wherein the child has residence as provided in section 256.73.~~

256.99 [REVERSE MORTGAGE PROCEEDS DISREGARDED.]

All reverse mortgage loan proceeds received pursuant to section 47.58, including interest or earnings thereon, shall be disregarded and shall not be considered available to the borrower for purposes of determining initial or continuing eligibility for, or amount of, medical assistance, Minnesota supplemental assistance, general assistance, general assistance medical care, or a federal or state low interest loan or grant. This section applies regardless of the time elapsed since the loan was made or the disposition of the proceeds.

For purposes of medical assistance eligibility provided under section 256B.06, proceeds from a reverse mortgage must be disregarded as income in the month of receipt but are a resource if retained after the month of receipt.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 256B.02, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. "Excluded time" means any period of time an applicant spends in a hospital, sanatorium, nursing home, boarding home, shelter, halfway house, correctional facility, foster home, semi-independent living domicile, residential facility offering care, board and lodging facility offering 24-hour care or supervision of mentally ill, mentally retarded, or physically disabled persons, or other institution for the hospitalization or care of human beings, as defined in sections 144.50, 144A.01, or 245.782, subdivision 6.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 256B.02, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. "County of financial responsibility" means:

(a) for an applicant who resides in the state and is not in a facility described in subdivision 2, the county in which he or she resides at the time of application;

(b) for an applicant who resides in a facility described in subdivision 2, the county in which he or she resided immediately before entering the facility; and

(c) for an applicant who has not resided in this state for any time other than the excluded time, the county in which the applicant resides at the time of making application. For this limited purpose, an infant who has resided only in an excluded time facility is the responsibility of the county which would have been responsible for the infant if eligibility could have been established with the birth mother under section 256B.06, subdivision 1, clause (9).

Notwithstanding clauses (a) to (c), the county of financial responsibility for medical assistance recipients is the same county as that from which a recipient is receiving a maintenance grant or money payment under the program of aid to families with dependent children. There can be a redetermination of the county of financial responsibility for former recipients of the medical assistance program who have been ineligible for at least one month, so long as that redetermination is in accord with the provisions of this subdivision.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 256B.06, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Medical assistance may be paid for any person:

(1) Who is a child eligible for or receiving adoption assistance payments under Title IV-E of the Social Security Act, United States Code, title 42, sections 670 to 676 under Minnesota Statutes, section 259.40 or 259.431; or

(2) Who is a child eligible for or receiving foster care maintenance payments under Title IV-E of the Social Security Act, United States Code, title 42, sections 670 to 676; or

(3) Who is eligible for or receiving public assistance under the aid to families with dependent children program, the Minnesota supplemental aid program; or

(4) Who is a pregnant woman, as certified in writing by a physician or nurse midwife, and who (a) meets the other eligibility criteria of this section, and (b) would be categorically eligible for assistance under the aid to families with dependent children program if the child had been born and was living with the woman; or

(5) Who is a pregnant woman, as certified in writing by a physician or nurse midwife, who meets the other eligibility criteria of this section and whose unborn child would be eligible as a needy child under clause (9) of this subdivision if born and living with the woman; or

(6) Who meets the categorical eligibility requirements of the supplemental security income program and the other eligibility requirements of this section; or

(6) (7) Who, except for the amount of income or resources, would qualify for supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled, or aid to families with dependent children, and who meets the other eligibility requirements of this section; or

(7) (8) Who is under 21 years of age and in need of medical care that neither he nor his relatives responsible under sections 256B.01 to 256B.26 are financially able to provide; or

(9) Who is an infant less than one year of age born on or after October 1, 1984, whose mother was eligible at the time of birth and who remains in the mother's household. Eligibility under this clause is concurrent with the mother's and does not depend on the father's income except as the income affects the mother's eligibility; or

(8) (10) Who is residing in a hospital for treatment of mental disease or tuberculosis and is 65 years of age or older and without means sufficient to pay the per capita hospital charge; and

(9) (11) Who resides in Minnesota, or, if absent from the state, is deemed to be a resident of Minnesota in accordance with the regulations of the state agency; and

(10) (12) Who alone, or together with his spouse, does not own real property other than the homestead. For the purposes of this section, "homestead" means the house owned and occupied by the applicant or recipient as his primary place of residence, together with the contiguous land upon which it is situated. The homestead shall continue to be excluded for persons residing in a long-term care facility if it is used as a primary residence by the spouse, minor child, or disabled child of any age; or the applicant/recipient is expected to return to the home as a principal residence within six calendar months of entry to the long-term care facility. Certification of expected return to the homestead shall be documented in writing by the attending physician. Real estate not used as a home may not be retained unless it produces net income applicable to the family's needs or the family is making a continuing effort to sell it at a fair and reasonable price or unless the commissioner determines that sale of the real estate would cause undue hardship or unless the equity in the real estate when combined with the equity in the homestead totals $15,000 or less; and

(11) (13) Who individually does not own more than $3,000 in cash or liquid assets, or if a member of a household with two family members (husband and wife, or parent and child), does not own more than $6,000 in cash or liquid assets, plus $200 for each additional legal dependent. Cash and liquid assets may include a prepaid funeral contract and insurance policies with cash surrender value. The value of the following shall not be included:

(a) the homestead, and (b) one motor vehicle licensed pursuant to chapter 168 and defined as: (1) passenger automobile, (2) station wagon, (3) motorcycle, (4) motorized bicycle or (5) truck of the weight found in categories A to E, of section 168.013, subdivision 1e; and

~~(12)~~ (14) Who has or anticipates receiving an annual income not in excess of the income standards by family size used in the aid to families with dependent children program, or who has income in excess of these maxima and in the month of application, or during the three months prior to the month of application, incurs expenses for medical care that total more than one-half of the annual excess income in accordance with the regulations of the state agency. In computing income to determine eligibility of persons who are not residents of long term care facilities, the commissioner shall disregard increases in income due solely to increases in federal retiree, survivor's, and disability insurance benefits, veterans administration benefits, and railroad retirement benefits in the percentage amount established in the biennial appropriations law unless prohibited by federal law or regulation. If prohibited, the commissioner shall first seek a waiver. In excess income cases, eligibility shall be limited to a period of six months beginning with the first of the month in which these medical obligations are first incurred; and

~~(13)~~ (15) Who has continuing monthly expenses for medical care that are more than the amount of his excess income, computed on a monthly basis, in which case eligibility may be established before the total income obligation referred to in the preceding paragraph is incurred, and medical assistance payments may be made to cover the monthly unmet medical need. In licensed nursing home and state hospital cases, income over and above that required for justified needs, determined pursuant to a schedule of contributions established by the commissioner of human services, is to be applied to the cost of institutional care. The commissioner of human services may establish a schedule of contributions to be made by the spouse of a nursing home resident to the cost of care; and ~~(14)~~ (16) Who has applied or agrees to apply all proceeds received or receivable by him or his spouse from automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage to the costs of medical care for himself, his spouse, and children. The state agency may require from any applicant or recipient of medical assistance the assignment of any rights accruing under private health care coverage. Any rights or amounts so assigned shall be applied against the cost of medical care paid for under this chapter. Any assignment shall not be effective as to benefits paid or provided under automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage prior to receipt of the assignment by the person or organization providing the benefits.

256B.07 [EXCEPTIONS IN DETERMINING RESOURCES.]

A local agency may, within the scope of regulations set by the commissioner of human services, waive the requirement of liquidation of excess assets when the liquidation would cause undue hardship. When an undue hardship waiver is granted due to excess assets created through a transfer of property under section 256B.17, subdivision 1, a cause of action exists against the person to whom the assets were transferred for that portion of medical assistance granted within 24 months of the transfer, or the amount of the uncompensated transfer, whichever is less, together with the costs incurred due to the action. The action may be brought by the state or county agency responsible for providing medical assistance under section 256B.02, subdivision 3. Household goods and furniture in use in the home, wearing apparel, and personal property used as a regular abode by the applicant or recipient and a lot in a burial plot shall not be considered as resources available to meet medical needs.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 256B.17, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PROHIBITED TRANSFERS OF EXCLUDED RESOURCES.] Any individual who is an inpatient in a skilled nursing facility or an intermediate care facility who, at any time during or after the 24-month period immediately prior to application for medical assistance, disposed of a homestead for less than fair market value shall be ineligible for medical assistance in accordance with subdivisions 1 to 4. An individual shall not be ineligible for medical assistance if one of the following conditions applies to the homestead transfer:

(1) a satisfactory showing is made that the individual can reasonably be expected to return to the homestead as a permanent residence;

(2) title to the homestead was transferred to the individual's spouse, child who is under age 21, or blind or permanently and totally disabled child as defined in the supplemental security income program;

(3) a satisfactory showing is made that the individual intended to dispose of the homestead at fair market value or for other valuable consideration; or

(4) the local agency ~~determines that~~ grants a waiver of the excess resources created by the uncompensated transfer because denial of eligibility would cause undue hardship for the individual, based on imminent threat to the individual's health and well-being.

When a waiver is granted, a cause of action exists against the person to whom the homestead was transferred for that portion of medical assistance granted within 24 months of the transfer or the amount of the uncompensated transfer, whichever is less, together with the costs incurred due to the action. The action may be brought by the state or the county agency responsible for providing medical assistance under section 256B.02, subdivision 3.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 256D.01, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [STANDARDS.] A principal objective in providing general assistance is to provide for persons ineligible for federal programs who are unable to provide for themselves. To achieve these aims, the commissioner shall establish minimum standards of assistance for general assistance. The minimum standard of assistance determines the total amount of the general assistance grant without separate standards for shelter, utilities, or other needs and shall not be less than the combined total of the minimum standards of assistance for shelter and basic needs in effect on February 1, 1983. The standards of assistance shall not be lower for a recipient sharing a residence with another person unless that person is a responsible relative.

The standards shall be lowered for recipients who share a residence with a responsible relative who also receives general assistance or who receives AFDC. If the responsible relative is receiving AFDC then the amount payable to the general assistance recipient must not exceed the amount that would be attributable to him if he were included in the AFDC grant.

For recipients who are not exempt from registration with the department of economic security pursuant to section 256D.111, subdivision 2, clauses (a), (f), (g), and (h), and who share a residence with a responsible relative who is not eligible for general assistance, the standards shall be lowered, subject to these limitations:

(a) The general assistance grant shall be in an amount such that total household income is equal to the AFDC standard for a household of like size and composition, except that the grant shall not exceed that paid to a general assistance recipient living independently.

(b) Benefits received by a responsible relative under the supplemental security income program, social security retirement program, the social security disability program, a workers' compensation program, the Minnesota supplemental aid program, or on the basis of the relative's disability, must not be included in the household income calculation.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 256D.03, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [GENERAL ASSISTANCE MEDICAL CARE; SERVICES.]
(a) Reimbursement under the general assistance medical care program shall be limited to the following categories of service: inpatient hospital care, outpatient hospital care, services provided by medicare certified rehabilitation agencies, prescription drugs, equipment necessary to administer insulin and diagnostic supplies and equipment for diabetics to monitor blood sugar level, eyeglasses and eye examinations provided by a physician or optometrist, hearing aids, prosthetic devices, laboratory and x-ray services, physician's services, medical transportation, and dental care. In addition, payments of state aid shall be made for day treatment services provided by a mental health center established under sections 245.61 to 245.69, subdivision 1, and funded through chapter 256E and for prescribed medications for persons who have been diagnosed as mentally ill as necessary to prevent more restrictive institutionalization.

(b) In order to contain costs, the county board shall, with the approval of the commissioner of human services, select vendors of medical care who can provide the most economical care consistent with high medical standards and may contract with organizations on a prepaid capitation basis to provide these services. The commissioner shall encourage county boards to submit proposals for demonstration projects designed to provide services in an economical manner or to control utilization, with safeguards to ensure that necessary services are provided. Payment for services provided pursuant to this subdivision shall be as provided to medical assistance vendors of these services under section 256B.02, subdivision 8, except that where counties enter into prepaid capitation agreements, payments shall be as provided in section 256.966, subdivision 2.

(c) The commissioner of human services may reduce payments provided under sections 256D.01 to 256D.21 and 261.23 in order to remain within the amount appropriated for general assistance medical care, within the following restrictions. For the period July 1, 1983 to June 30, 1984, reductions below the cost per service unit allowable under section 256.966, are permitted only as follows: payments for inpatient and outpatient hospital care provided in response to a primary diagnosis of chemical dependency or mental illness may be reduced no more than 45 percent; payments for all other inpatient hospital care may be reduced no more than 35 percent. Reductions below the payments allowable under section 256.967 for the remaining general assistance medical care services allowable under this subdivision may be reduced no more than 25 percent. For the period July 1, 1984 to June 30, 1985, reductions below the cost per service unit allowable under section 256.966 are permitted only as follows: payments for inpatient and outpatient hospital care provided in response to a primary diagnosis of chemical dependency or mental illness may be reduced no more than 30 percent; payments for all other inpatient hospital care may be reduced no more than 20 percent. Reductions below the payments allowable under section 256.967 for the remaining general assistance medical care services allowable under this subdivision may be reduced no more than ten percent. There shall be no copayment required of any recipient of benefits for any services provided under this subdivision. A hospital receiving a reduced payment as a result of this section may apply the unpaid balance toward satisfaction of the hospital's bad debts. Beginning July 1, 1986, the commissioner shall phase out rateable reductions in the general assistance medical care program to the extent possible using any surplus projected to exist at the end of the biennium within the appropriations for medical assistance and general assistance medical care.

(d) Any county may, from its own resources, provide medical payments for which state payments are not made.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 256D.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1b. [EARNED INCOME SAVINGS ACCOUNT.] In addition to the $50 disregard required under subdivision 1, the local agency shall disregard an additional earned income up to a maximum of $150 per month for persons residing in facilities licensed under Minnesota Rules, parts 9520.0500 to 9520.0690, and for whom discharge and work are part of a treatment plan. The additional amount disregarded must be placed in a separate savings account by the eligible individual, to be used upon discharge from the residential facility into the community. A maximum of $1,000, including interest, of the money in the savings account must be excluded from the resource limits established by section 256D.08, subdivision 1, clause (1). Amounts in that account in excess of $1,000 must be applied to the resident's cost of care. If excluded money is removed from the savings account by the eligible individual at any time before the individual is discharged from the facility into the community, the money is income to the individual in the month of receipt and a resource in subsequent months. If an eligible individual moves from a community facility to an inpatient hospital setting, the separate savings account is an excluded asset for up to 18 months. During that time, amounts that accumulate in excess of the $1,000 savings limit must be applied to the patient's cost of care. If the patient continues to be hospitalized at the conclusion of the 18-month period, the entire account must be applied to the patient's cost of care.

Sec. 25. [CASE MIX REIMBURSEMENT STUDY; REPORTS.]

Subdivision 1. [CASE MIX REIMBURSEMENT STUDY.] The commissioner of human services shall study mechanisms for reimbursement of providers of services in intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded, developmental achievement centers, or waived services under section 256B.501 based on the needs and resource use of the persons served by a provider, with incentives designed to encourage quality care and, when feasible, the developmental progress of persons receiving those services.

Subd. 2. [REPORTS.] The commissioner shall report to the legislative long-term care commission no later than July 1, 1986, with recommendations on the implementation of a new reimbursement system. The commissioner shall at the request of the legislative long-term care commission, report on the process of implementing changes in the general assistance medical care and medical assistance programs as a result of this act.

Section 13 is effective the day following final enactment. The changes made in section 1 to Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 245.791, clauses (11) and (12), are effective August 1, 1987."

Subdivision 1. [RESIDENT REIMBURSEMENT CLASSIFICATIONS.] The commissioner of health shall establish resident reimbursement classifications based upon the assessments of residents of nursing homes and boarding care homes conducted under sections 144.072 and 144.0721, or under rules established by the commissioner of human services under sections 256B.41 to 256B.48. Subd. 2. [NOTICE OF RESIDENT REIMBURSEMENT CLASSIFICATION.] The commissioner of health shall notify each resident, and the nursing home or boarding care home in which the resident resides, of the reimbursement classification established under subdivision 1. The notice must inform the resident of the classification that was assigned, the opportunity to review the documentation supporting the classification, the opportunity to obtain clarification from the commissioner, and the opportunity to request a reconsideration of the classification. The notice of resident classification must be sent by first-class mail. The individual resident notices may be sent to the resident's nursing home or boarding care home for distribution to the resident.

Subd. 3. [REQUEST FOR RECONSIDERATION.] The resident or the nursing home or boarding care home may request that the commissioner reconsider the assigned reimbursement classification. The request for reconsideration must be submitted, in writing, to the commissioner within ten working days of the receipt of the notice of resident classification. The request for reconsideration must include the name of the resident, the name and address of the facility in which the resident resides, the reasons for the reconsideration, the requested classification changes, and documentation supporting the requested classification. The documentation accompanying the reconsideration request is limited to documentation establishing that the needs of the resident at the time of the assessment resulting in the disputed classification justify a change of classification.

Subd. 4. [RECONSIDERATION.] The commissioner's reconsideration must be made by individuals not involved in reviewing the assessment that established the disputed classification. The reconsideration must be based upon the initial assessment and upon the information provided to the commissioner under subdivision 3. If necessary for evaluating the reconsideration request, the commissioner may conduct on-site reviews. In its discretion, the commissioner may review the reimbursement classifications assigned to all residents in the facility. Within 15 working days of receiving the request for reconsideration, the commissioner shall affirm or modify the original resident classification. The original classification must be modified if the commissioner determines that the assessment resulting in the classification did not accurately reflect the needs of the resident at the time of the assessment. The resident and the nursing home or boarding care home shall be notified within five working days after the decision is made. The commissioner's decision under this subdivision is the final administrative decision of the agency.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 144.50, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Hospital, sanatorium or other institution for the hospitalization or care of human beings, within the meaning of sections 144.50 to 144.56 shall mean any institution, place, building, or agency, in which any accommodation is maintained, furnished, or offered for: the hospitalization of the sick or injured; the provision of care in a swing bed authorized under section 3; elective outpatient surgery for preexamined, prediagnosed low risk patients; emergency medical services offered 24 hours a day, seven days a week, in an ambulatory or outpatient setting in a facility not a part of a licensed hospital; or the institutional care of human beings. Nothing in sections 144.50 to 144.56 shall apply to a clinic, a physician's office or to hotels or other similar places that furnish only board and room, or either, to their guests.

Sec. 3. [144.562] [SWING BED APPROVAL; ISSUANCE OF LICENSE CONDITIONS; VIOLATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITION.] For the purposes of this section, "swing bed" means a hospital bed licensed under sections 144.50 to 144.56 that has been granted a license condition under this section.

Subd. 2. [ELIGIBILITY FOR LICENSE CONDITION.] A hospital is not eligible to receive a license condition for swing beds unless (1) it either has a licensed bed capacity of less than 50 beds or it has a licensed bed capacity of 50 beds or more and has swing beds that were approved for medicare reimbursement before May 1, 1985, (2) it is located in a rural area as defined in the federal medicare regulations, Code of Federal Regulations, title 42, section 405.1041, and (3) it agrees to utilize no more than four hospital beds as swing beds at any one time.

Subd. 3. [APPROVAL OF LICENSE CONDITION.] The commissioner of health shall approve a license condition for swing beds if the hospital meets all of the criteria of this subdivision:

(a) The hospital must meet the eligibility criteria in subdivision 2.

(b) The hospital must be in compliance with the medicare conditions of participation for swing beds under Code of Federal Regulations, title 42, section 405.1041.

(c) The hospital must agree, in writing, to limit the length of stay of a patient receiving services in a swing bed to not more than 40 days, or the duration of medicare eligibility, unless the commissioner of health approves a greater length of stay in an emergency situation. To determine whether an emergency situation exists, the commissioner shall require the hospital to provide documentation that continued services in the swing bed are required by the patient, that no nursing home beds are available within 25 miles from the patient's home, or in some more remote facility of the resident's choice, that can provide the appropriate level of services required by the patient, and that other alternative services are not available to meet the needs of the patient. If the commissioner approves a length of stay beyond 40 days, or the duration of medicare eligibility, the hospital shall develop a plan providing for the discharge of the patient upon the availability of a nursing home bed or other services that meet the needs of the patient. Permission to extend a patient's length of stay must be requested by the hospital at least 10 days prior to the end of the maximum length of stay.

(d) The hospital must agree, in writing, to limit admission to a swing bed only to patients who have been hospitalized and not yet discharged from the facility.

(e) The hospital must agree, in writing, that there will be at least 60 days between a specific patient's discharge from a facility out of a swing bed, and that patient's readmission to a swing bed. The commissioner of health may approve the readmission of a patient to a swing bed within 60 days if the readmission is necessary for the health, safety, treatment, or well-being of the patient, and only if the hospital complies with clause (d). The request for approval must be sent, in writing, to the commissioner and must include documentation of the need for the readmission. The documentation must include information establishing that nursing home services or alternative health care services are not available to meet the needs of the patient.

(f) The hospital must agree, in writing, to report statistical data on the utilization of the swing beds on forms supplied by the commissioner. The data must include the number of swing beds, the number of admissions to and discharges from swing beds, medicare reimbursed patient days, total patient days, and other information required by the commissioner to assess the utilization of swing beds.

Subd. 4. [ISSUANCE OF LICENSE CONDITION; RENEWALS.] The commissioner of health shall issue a license condition to a hospital that complies with subdivisions 2 and 3. The license condition must be granted when the license is first issued, when it is renewed, or during the hospital's licensure year. The condition is valid for the hospital's licensure year. The license condition can be renewed at the time of the hospital's license renewal if the hospital complies with subdivisions 2 and 3.

Subd. 5. [RATE.] A hospital may not charge a person receiving nursing care in a swing bed at a rate greater than the rate paid by the United States secretary of health and human services for similar services under the medicare program for the comparable time period. A violation of this subdivision is a violation of section 256B.48, subdivision 1, clause (a).

Subd. 6. [INSPECTIONS.] Notwithstanding section 144.55, subdivision 4, the commissioner of health may conduct inspections of a hospital granted a condition under this section to assess compliance with this section.

Subd. 7. [VIOLATIONS.] Notwithstanding section 144.55, subdivision 4, if the hospital fails to comply with subdivision 2 or 3, the commissioner of health shall issue a correction order and penalty assessment under section 144.653 or may suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew the license condition under section 144.55, subdivision 6. The penalty assessment for a violation of subdivision 2 or 3 is $500.

Subd. 8. [EFFECTIVE DATE.] Hospitals participating in the medicare swing bed program on the effective date of this section shall comply with this section by January 1, 1986, or at the time of the renewal of the medicare swing bed approval, whichever is earlier.

Sec. 4. [144.563] [NURSING HOME SERVICES PROVIDED IN A HOSPITAL.]

A licensed hospital which has been granted a license condition under section 3 must not provide the types of services that would normally be provided in, and reimbursed under medical assistance or medicare as services of, a skilled nursing facility or intermedicate care facility, whether on a short-term or long-term basis, following the date on which a patient would, under accepted medical practices and utilization review criteria, be discharged from inpatient hospitalization, unless the patient is in a swing bed in compliance with section 3. The commissioner of health may arrange or contract for professional review to determine the appropriate discharge date. A patient may be retained in the hospital following the appropriate discharge date only if the hospital can demonstrate that no nursing home beds, alternative care services, or other alternatives were available to meet the needs of the patient and that the hospital made prompt and continuing efforts to discharge the patient at the earliest possible date. If the commissioner determines that a patient remained in the hospital following the appropriate discharge date in violation of this section, the commissioner may order the hospital to provide reimbursement for all or part of payments for services provided after the appropriate discharge date or credit all or part of billings for these services if charges have not yet been paid. In addition to a reimbursement order, the commissioner may order the hospital to make an additional payment to the patient of up to ten percent of the amount of reimbursement ordered, regardless of whether the patient was the payor of or financially responsible for the hospital's charges. The commissioner's orders under this section are subject to the contested case procedures of chapter 14.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 144.651, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [APPROPRIATE HEALTH CARE.] Patients and residents shall have the right to appropriate medical and personal care based on individual needs. Appropriate care for residents means care designed to enable residents to achieve their highest level of physical and mental functioning. This right is limited where the service is not reimbursable by public or private resources. A patient needing nursing home care has a right to be discharged from a hospital at the proper time and admitted to an appropriate setting to receive nursing home care. A patient has the right to seek compensation and reimbursement for charges if the patient received nursing home care in an inappropriate setting in violation of section 4.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 144A.01, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. "Nursing home" means a facility or that part of a facility which provides nursing care to five or more persons. "Nursing home" does not include a facility or that part of a facility which is a hospital, a hospital with less than five swing beds as defined in section 3, clinic, doctor's office, diagnostic or treatment center, or a residential facility licensed pursuant to sections 245.781 to 245.821 or 252.28.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 144A.071, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FINDINGS.] The legislature finds that medical assistance expenditures are increasing at a much faster rate than the state's ability to pay them; that reimbursement for nursing home care and ancillary services comprises over half of medical assistance costs, and, therefore, controlling expenditures for nursing home care is essential to prudent management of the state's budget; that construction of new nursing homes, and the addition of more nursing home beds to the state's long-term care resources, and increased conversion of beds to skilled nursing facility bed status inhibits the ability to control expenditures; that Minnesota already leads the nation in nursing home expenditures per capita, has the fifth highest number of beds per capita elderly, and that private paying individuals and medical assistance recipients have equivalent access to nursing home care; and that in the absence of a moratorium the increased numbers of nursing homes and nursing home beds will consume resources that would otherwise be available to develop a comprehensive long-term care system that includes a continuum of care. Unless action is taken, this expansion of bed capacity and changes of beds to a higher classification of care are is likely to accelerate with the repeal of the certificate of need program effective March 15, 1984. The legislature also finds that Minnesota's dependence on institutional care for elderly persons is due in part to the dearth of alternative services in the home and community. The legislature also finds that further increases in the number of licensed nursing home beds, especially in nursing homes not certified for participation in the medical assistance program, is contrary to public policy, because: (1) nursing home residents with limited resources may exhaust their resources more rapidly in these facilities, creating the need for a transfer to a certified nursing home, with the concomitant risk of transfer trauma; (2) a continuing increase in the number of nursing home beds will foster continuing reliance on institutional care to meet the long-term care needs of residents of the state; (3) a further expansion of nursing home beds will diminish incentives to develop more appropriate and cost-effective alternative services and divert community resources that would otherwise be available to fund alternative services; (4) through corporate reorganization resulting in the separation of certified and licensed beds, a nursing home may evade the provisions of section 256B.48, subdivision 1, clause (a); and (5) it is in the best interests of the state to ensure that the long-term care system is designed to protect the private resources of individuals as well as to use state resources most effectively and efficiently.

The legislature declares that a moratorium on the licensure and medical assistance certification of new nursing home beds and on changes in certification to a higher level of care is necessary to control nursing home expenditure growth and enable the state to meet the needs of its elderly by providing high quality services in the most appropriate manner along a continuum of care.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 144A.071, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [MORATORIUM.] ~~Notwithstanding the provisions of the Certificate of Need Act, sections 145.832 to 145.845, or any other law to the contrary,~~ The commissioner of health, in coordination with the commissioner of human services, shall deny each request by a nursing home or boarding care home, except an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded, for addition of new certified beds or for a change or changes in the certification status of existing beds except as provided in subdivision 3. The total number of certified beds in the state ~~in the skilled level and in the intermediate levels of care~~ shall remain at or decrease from the number of beds certified at ~~each level of care~~ on May 23, 1983, except as allowed under subdivision 3. "Certified bed" means a nursing home bed or a boarding care bed certified by the commissioner of health for the purposes of the medical assistance program, under United States Code, title 42, sections 1396 et seq.

The commissioner of human services, in coordination with the commissioner of health, shall deny any request to issue a license under sections 245.781 to 245.812 and 252.28 to a nursing home or boarding care home, if that license would result in an increase in the medical assistance reimbursement amount. The commissioner of health shall deny each request for licensure of nursing home beds except as provided in subdivision 3.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 144A.071, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [EXCEPTIONS.] The commissioner of health, in coordination with the commissioner of human services, may approve the addition of a new certified bed or ~~change in the certification status of an existing bed~~ the addition of a new licensed nursing home bed, under the following conditions:

(a) To replace a bed decertified after May 23, 1983 or to address an extreme hardship situation, in a particular county that, together with all contiguous Minnesota counties, has fewer nursing home beds per 1,000 elderly than the number that is ten percent higher than the national average of nursing home beds per 1,000 elderly individuals. For the purposes of this section, the national average of nursing home beds shall be the most recent figure that can be supplied by the federal health care financing administration and the number of elderly in the county or the nation shall be determined by the most recent federal census or the most recent estimate of the state demographer as of July 1, of each year of persons age 65 and older, whichever is the most recent at the time of the request for replacement. In allowing replacement of a decertified bed, the commissioners shall ensure that the number of added or recertified beds does not exceed the total number of decertified beds in the state in that level of care. An extreme hardship situation can only be found after the county documents the existence of unmet medical needs that cannot be addressed by any other alternatives;

(b) To certify a new bed in a facility that commenced construction before May 23, 1983. For the purposes of this section, "commenced construction" means that all of the following conditions were met: the final working drawings and specifications were approved by the commissioner of health; the construction contracts were let; a timely construction schedule was developed, stipulating dates for beginning, achieving various stages, and completing construction; and all zoning and building permits were secured;

(c) To certify beds in a new nursing home that is needed in order to meet the special dietary needs of its residents, if: the nursing home proves to the commissioner's satisfaction that the needs of its residents cannot otherwise be met; elements of the special diet are not available through most food distributors; and proper preparation of the special diet requires incurring various operating expenses, including extra food preparation or serving items, not incurred to a similar extent by most nursing homes; or

(d) ~~When the change in certification status results in a decrease in the reimbursement amount~~ To license a new nursing home bed in a facility that meets one of the exceptions contained in clauses (a) to (c);

(e) To license nursing home beds in a facility that has submitted either a completed licensure application or a written request for licensure to the commissioner before March 1, 1985, and has either commenced any required construction, as defined in clause (b) before May 1, 1985, or has, before May 1, 1985, received from the commissioner approval of plans for phased-in construction and written authorization to begin construction on a phased-in basis. For the purpose of this clause, "construction" means any erection, building, alteration, reconstruction, modernization, or improvement necessary to comply with the nursing home licensure rules; or

(f) To certify or license new beds in a new facility that is to be operated by the commissioner of veterans' affairs or where the costs of constructing and operating the new beds are to be reimbursed by the commissioner of veterans' affairs or the United States veterans administration.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 256B.02, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [MEDICAL ASSISTANCE; MEDICAL CARE.] "Medical assistance" or "medical care" means payment of part or all of the cost of the following care and services for eligible individuals whose income and resources are insufficient to meet all of this cost:

(1) Inpatient hospital services. A second medical opinion is required prior to reimbursement for elective surgeries. The commissioner shall publish in the State Register a proposed list of elective surgeries that require a second medical opinion prior to reimbursement. The list is not subject to the requirements of sections 14.01 to 14.70. The commissioner's decision whether a second medical opinion is required, made in accordance with rules governing that decision, is not subject to administrative appeal;

(2) Skilled nursing home services and services of intermediate care facilities, including training and habilitation services, as defined in section 256B.50, subdivision 1, for mentally retarded individuals residing in intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded. Medical assistance must not be used to pay the costs of nursing care provided to a patient in a swing bed as defined in section 3;

(3) Physicians' services;

(4) Outpatient hospital or nonprofit community health clinic services or physician-directed clinic services. The physician-directed clinic staff shall include at least two physicians, one of whom is on the premises whenever the clinic is open, and all services shall be provided under the direct supervision of the physician who is on the premises. Hospital outpatient departments are subject to the same limitations and reimbursements as other enrolled vendors for all services, except initial triage, emergency services, and services not provided or immediately available in clinics, physicians' offices, or by other enrolled providers. "Emergency services" means those medical services required for the immediate diagnosis and treatment of medical conditions that, if not immediately diagnosed and treated, could lead to serious physical or mental disability or death or are necessary to alleviate severe pain. Neither the hospital, its employees, nor any physician or dentist, shall be liable in any action arising out of a determination not to render emergency services or care if reasonable care is exercised in determining the condition of the person, or in determining the appropriateness of the facilities, or the qualifications and availability of personnel to render these services consistent with this section;

(5) Community mental health center services, as defined in rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to section 256B.04, subdivision 2, and provided by a community mental health center as defined in section 245.62, subdivision 2;

(6) Home health care services;

(7) Private duty nursing services;

(8) Physical therapy and related services;

(9) Dental services, excluding cast metal restorations;

(10) Laboratory and xray services;

(11) The following if prescribed by a licensed practitioner: drugs, eye-glasses, dentures, and prosthetic devices. The commissioner shall designate a formulary committee which shall advise the commissioner on the names of drugs for which payment shall be made, recommend a system for reimbursing providers on a set fee or charge basis rather than the present system, and develop methods encouraging use of generic drugs when they are less expensive and equally effective as trademark drugs. The commissioner shall appoint the formulary committee members no later than 30 days following July 1, 1981. The formulary committee shall consist of nine members, four of whom shall be physicians who are not employed by the department of human services, and a majority of whose practice is for persons paying privately or through health insurance, three of whom shall be pharmacists who are not employed by the department of human services, and a majority of whose practice is for persons paying privately or through health insurance, a consumer representative, and a nursing home representative. Committee members shall serve two year terms and shall serve without compensation. The commissioner may establish a drug formulary. Its establishment and publication shall not be subject to the requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act, but the formulary committee shall review and comment on the formulary contents. Prior authorization may be required by the commissioner, with the consent of the drug formulary committee, before certain formulary drugs are eligible for payment. The formulary shall not include:

drugs or products for which there is no federal funding; over the counter drugs, except for antacids, acetaminophen, family planning products, aspirin, insulin, prenatal vitamins, and vitamins for children under the age of seven; or any other over the counter drug identified by the commissioner, in consultation with the appropriate professional consultants under contract with or employed by the state agency, as necessary, appropriate and cost effective for the treatment of certain specified chronic diseases, conditions or disorders, and this determination shall not be subject to the requirements of chapter 14, the Administrative Procedure Act; nutritional products, except for those products needed for treatment of phenylketonuria, hyperlysinemia, maple syrup urine disease, a combined allergy to human milk, cow milk, and soy formula, or any other childhood or adult diseases, conditions, or disorders identified by the commissioner as requiring a similarly necessary nutritional product; anorectics; and drugs for which medical value has not been established. Separate payment shall not be made for nutritional products for residents of long-term care facilities; payment for dietary requirements is a component of the per diem rate paid to these facilities. Payment to drug vendors shall not be modified before the formulary is established except that the commissioner shall not permit payment for any drugs which may not by law be included in the formulary, and his determination shall not be subject to chapter 14, the Administrative Procedure Act. The commissioner shall publish conditions for prohibiting payment for specific drugs after considering the formulary committee's recommendations.

The basis for determining the amount of payment shall be the actual acquisition costs of the drugs plus a fixed dispensing fee established by the commissioner. Actual acquisition cost includes quantity and other special discounts except time and cash discounts. Establishment of this fee shall not be subject to the requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act. Whenever a generically equivalent product is available, payment shall be on the basis of the actual acquisition cost of the generic drug, unless the prescriber specifically indicates "dispense as written" on the prescription as required by section 151.21, subdivision 2.

Notwithstanding the above provisions, implementation of any change in the fixed dispensing fee which has not been subject to the Administrative Procedure Act shall be limited to not more than 180 days, unless, during that time, the commissioner shall have initiated rulemaking through the Administrative Procedure Act;

(12) Diagnostic, screening, and preventive services;

(13) Health care pre-payment plan premiums and insurance premiums if paid directly to a vendor and supplementary medical insurance benefits under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act;

(14) Abortion services, but only if one of the following conditions is met:

(a) The abortion is a medical necessity. "Medical necessity" means (1) the signed written statement of two physicians indicating the abortion is medically necessary to prevent the death of the mother, and (2) the patient has given her consent to the abortion in writing unless the patient is physically or legally incapable of providing informed consent to the procedure, in which case consent will be given as otherwise provided by law;

(b) The pregnancy is the result of criminal sexual conduct as defined in section 609.342, clauses (c), (d), (e)(i), and (f), and the incident is reported within 48 hours after the incident occurs to a valid law enforcement agency for investigation, unless the victim is physically unable to report the criminal sexual conduct, in which case the report shall be made within 48 hours after the victim becomes physically able to report the criminal sexual conduct; or

(c) The pregnancy is the result of incest, but only if the incident and relative are reported to a valid law enforcement agency for investigation prior to the abortion;

(15) Transportation costs incurred solely for obtaining emergency medical care or transportation costs incurred by nonambulatory persons in obtaining emergency or nonemergency medical care when paid directly to an ambulance company, common carrier, or other recognized providers of transportation services. For the purpose of this clause, a person who is incapable of transport by taxicab or bus shall be considered to be nonambulatory;

(16) To the extent authorized by rule of the state agency, costs of bus or taxicab transportation incurred by any ambulatory eligible person for obtaining nonemergency medical care;

(17) Personal care attendant services provided by an individual, not a relative, who is qualified to provide the services, where the services are prescribed by a physician in accordance with a plan of treatment and are supervised by a registered nurse. Payments to personal care attendants shall be adjusted annually to reflect changes in the cost of living or of providing services by the average annual adjustment granted to vendors such as nursing homes and home health agencies; and

(18) Any other medical or remedial care licensed and recognized under state law unless otherwise prohibited by law.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 256B.091, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] It is the purpose of this section to prevent inappropriate nursing home or boarding care home placement by establishing a program of preadmission screening teams for all ~~medical assistance recipients and any individual who would become eligible for medical assistance within 180 days of applicants seeking~~ admission to a licensed nursing home or boarding care home participating in the medical assistance program. Further, it is the purpose of this section and the program to gain further information about how to contain costs associated with inappropriate nursing home or boarding care home admissions. The commissioners of human services and health shall seek to maximize use of available federal and state funds and establish the broadest program possible within the appropriation available.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 256B.091, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [SCREENING TEAMS; ESTABLISHMENT.] Each county agency designated by the commissioner of human services to participate in the program shall contract with the local board of health organized under section 145.911 to 145.922 or other public or nonprofit agency to establish a screening team to assess, the health and social needs of all applicants prior to admission to a nursing home or a boarding care home licensed under section 144A.02 or sections 144.50 to 144.56, that is certified for medical assistance as a skilled nursing facility, intermediate care facility level I, or intermediate care facility level II; ~~the health and social needs of medical assistance recipients and individuals who would become eligible for medical assistance within 180 days of nursing home or boarding care home admission.~~ Each local screening team shall be composed of a public health nurse from the local public health nursing service and a social worker from the local community welfare agency. Each screening team shall have a physician available for consultation and shall utilize individuals' attending physicians' physical assessment forms, if any, in assessing needs. The individual's physician shall be included on the screening team if the physician chooses to participate. If a person who has been screened must be reassessed for purposes of assigning a case mix classification because admission to a nursing home occurs later than the time allowed by rule following the initial screening and assessment, the reassessment may be completed by the public health nurse member of the screening team. If the individual is being discharged from an acute care facility, a discharge planner from that facility may be present, at the facility's request, during the screening team's assessment of the individual and may participate in discussions but not in making the screening team's recommendations under subdivision 3, clause (e). If the assessment procedure or screening team recommendation results in a delay of the individual's discharge from the acute care facility, the facility shall not be denied medical assistance reimbursement or incur any other financial or regulatory penalty of the medical assistance program that would otherwise be caused by the individual's extended length of stay; 50 percent of the cost of this reimbursement or financial or regulatory penalty shall be paid by the state and 50 percent shall be paid by the county. Other personnel as deemed appropriate by the county agency may be included on the team. The county agency may contract with an acute care facility to have the facility's discharge planners perform the functions of a screening team with regard to individuals discharged from the facility and in those cases the discharge planners may participate in making recommendations under subdivision 3, clause (e). No member of a screening team shall have a direct or indirect financial or self-serving interest in a nursing home or noninstitutional referral such that it would not be possible for the member to consider each case objectively.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 256B.091, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SCREENING OF PERSONS.] Prior to nursing home or boarding care home admission, screening teams shall assess the needs of all persons receiving medical assistance and of all persons who would be eligible for medical assistance within 180 days of admission to a nursing home or boarding care home applicants, except (1) patients transferred from other nursing homes or; (2) patients who, having entered acute care facilities from nursing homes, are returning to nursing home care; (3) persons entering a facility described in section 256B.431, subdivision 4, paragraph (b); or (4) persons entering a facility conducted by and for the adherents of a recognized church or religious denomination for the purpose of providing care and services for those who depend upon spiritual means, through prayer alone, for healing. ~~Any other interested person may~~ The cost for screening persons who are receiving medical assistance or who would be eligible for medical assistance within 180 days of nursing home or boarding care home admission, will be paid by state, federal, and county money. Other persons will be assessed by a screening team upon payment of a fee based upon a sliding fee scale approved by the commissioner.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 256B.091, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [APPEALS.] Appeals from the screening team's ~~determination~~ recommendation shall be made pursuant to the procedures set forth in section 256.045, subdivisions 2 and 3. An appeal shall be automatic if the individual's physician does not agree with the recommendation of the screening team.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 256B.091, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [ALTERNATIVE CARE GRANTS.] The commissioner shall provide grants to counties participating in the program to pay costs of providing alternative care to individuals screened under subdivision 4. Payment is available under this subdivision only for individuals (1) for whom the screening team would recommend nursing home admission if alternative care were not available; (2) who are receiving medical assistance or who would be eligible for medical assistance within 180 days of admission to a nursing home; and (3) who need services that are not available at that time in the county through other public assistance; and (4) who are age 65 or older.

Grants may be used for payment of costs of providing services such as, but not limited to, foster care for elderly persons, day care whether or not offered through a nursing home, nutritional counseling, or medical social services, which services are provided by a licensed health care provider, a home health service eligible for reimbursement under Titles XVIII and XIX of the federal Social Security Act, or by persons employed by or contracted with by the county board or the local welfare agency. The county agency shall ensure that a plan of care is established for each individual in accordance with subdivision 3, clause (e)(2). The plan shall include any services prescribed by the individual's attending physician as necessary and follow up services as necessary. The county agency shall provide documentation to the commissioner verifying that the individual's alternative care is not available at that time through any other public assistance or service program and shall provide documentation in each individual's plan of care that the most cost effective alternatives available have been offered to the individual. Grants to counties under this subdivision are subject to audit by the commissioner for fiscal and utilization control.

The commissioner shall establish a sliding fee schedule for requiring payment for the cost of providing services under this subdivision to persons who are eligible for the services but who are not yet eligible for medical assistance. The sliding fee schedule is not subject to chapter 14 but the commissioner shall publish the schedule and any later changes in the State Register and allow a period of 20 working days from the publication date for interested persons to comment before adopting the sliding fee schedule in final forms.

The commissioner shall apply for a waiver for federal financial participation to expand the availability of services under this subdivision. The commissioner shall provide grants to counties from the nonfederal share, unless the commissioner obtains a federal waiver for medical assistance payments, of medical assistance appropriations. A county agency may use grant money to supplement but not supplant services available through other public assistance or service programs and shall not use grant money to establish new programs for which public money is available through sources other than grants provided under this subdivision. A county agency shall not use grant money to provide care under this subdivision to an individual if the anticipated cost of providing this care would exceed the average payment, as determined by the commissioner, for the level of nursing home care that the recipient would receive if placed in a nursing home. The nonfederal share may be used to pay up to 90 percent of the start-up and service delivery costs of providing care under this subdivision. Each county agency that receives a grant shall pay ten percent of the costs.

Sec. 16. [256B.411] [COMPLIANCE WITH STATE STATUTES.]

Subdivision 1. [PAYMENTS FOR MEDICAL ASSISTANCE RECIPIENTS.] A nursing home must not accept a state or local payment for providing care to a person eligible for medical assistance except under the medical assistance program or as allowed in section 256B.25, subdivision 3.

Subd. 2. [MEDICAL ASSISTANCE PAYMENTS.] A nursing home must not receive medical assistance payments unless the nursing home:

(1) is certified to participate in the medical assistance program;

(2) has a provider agreement with the commissioner that satisfies the requirements of state and federal statutes and rules as determined by the commissioner; and

(3) complies with state law including, but not limited to, chapter 256B and rules adopted under it.

Subd. 3. [RATES.] Rates paid to a nursing home under medical assistance must be the rates established under chapter 256B and rules adopted under it.

Subd. 4. [[WITHDRAWAL FROM MEDICAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM.] If a nursing home terminates its participation in the medical assistance program, whether voluntarily or involuntarily, the commissioner may authorize the nursing home to continue to receive medical assistance reimbursement on a temporary basis only until medical assistance residents can be relocated to nursing homes participating in the medical assistance program.

Subd. 5. [EXCEPTION TO EQUALIZATION LAW.] The commissioner may authorize continued medical assistance payment to a nursing home that charges private paying residents rates which exceed those permitted by section 256B.48, subdivision 1, paragraph (a), but only for residents who resided in the nursing home before July 1, 1978, and residents for whom a permanent individual waiver was granted by the commissioner before October 1, 1983.

Subd. 6. [LEGISLATIVE INTENT.] This section applies notwithstanding any previous judicial decision to the contrary, including the decision of the court of appeals in the case of Arlene LeZalla, et al. v. State of Minnesota, et al. dated April 23, 1985, which is overruled by this section. This section applies whether the nursing home participates fully in the medical assistance program or is withdrawing from the medical assistance program.

Subd. 7. [PARTICIPATION IN MEDICAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM.] Participation by a nursing home in the medical assistance program is not required by this state. However, a nursing home may bind itself contractually with any person to continue participation in the medical assistance program. These agreements, if they contain the elements necessary for a contract, are enforceable by the remedies available in the courts of this state, including compelling the nursing home's continued participation in the medical assistance program.

Subd. 8. [LIABILITY.] The state of Minnesota and its agencies and political subdivisions, and employees of these entities, are not liable for damages that result from the relocation of a nursing home resident due to withdrawal by the nursing home from the medical assistance program.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 256B.421, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] For the purposes of sections 256B.41, 256B.421, 256B.431, 256B.47, 256B.48, 256B.50, and 256B.502, and section 16, the following terms and phrases shall have the meaning given to them.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 256B.431, subdivision 2b, is amended to read:

Subd. 2b. [OPERATING COSTS, AFTER JULY 1, 1985.] (a) For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1985, the commissioner shall establish procedures for determining per diem reimbursement for operating costs.

(b) The commissioner shall contract with an econometric firm with recognized expertise in and access to national economic change indices that can be applied to the appropriate cost categories when determining the operating cost payment rate.

(c) The commissioner shall analyze and evaluate each nursing home's cost report of allowable operating costs incurred by the nursing home during the reporting year immediately preceding the rate year for which the payment rate becomes effective.

(d) The commissioner shall establish limits on actual allowable historical operating cost per diems based on cost reports of allowable operating costs for the reporting year that begins October 1, 1983, taking into consideration relevant factors including resident needs, geographic location, age, size of the nursing home, and the costs that must be incurred for the care of residents in an efficiently and economically operated nursing home. In developing the geographic groups for purposes of reimbursement under this section, the commissioner shall ensure that nursing homes in any county contiguous to the Minneapolis-St. Paul seven-county metropolitan area are included in the same geographic group. The limits established by the commissioner shall not be less, in the aggregate, than the 60th percentile of total actual allowable historical operating cost per diems for each group of nursing homes established under subdivision 1 based on cost reports of allowable operating costs in the previous reporting year. The limits established under this paragraph remain in effect until the commissioner establishes a new base period. Until the new base period is established, the commissioner shall adjust the limits annually using the appropriate economic change indices established in paragraph (e). In determining allowable historical operating cost per diems for purposes of setting limits and nursing home payment rates, the commissioner shall divide the allowable historical operating costs by the actual number of resident days, except that where a nursing home is occupied at less than 90 percent of licensed capacity days, the commissioner may establish procedures to adjust the computation of the per diem to an imputed occupancy level at or below 90 percent. The commissioner shall establish efficiency incentives as appropriate. The commissioner may establish efficiency incentives for different operating cost categories. The commissioner shall consider establishing efficiency incentives in care related cost categories. The commissioner may combine one or more operating cost categories and may use different methods for calculating payment rates for each operating cost category or combination of operating cost categories. For the rate year beginning on July 1, 1985, the commissioner shall:

(1) allow nursing homes that have an average length of stay of 180 days or less in their skilled nursing level of care, 125 percent of the care related limit and 105 percent of the other operating cost limit established by rule; and

(2) exempt nursing homes licensed on July 1, 1983, by the commissioner to provide residential services for the physically handicapped under Minnesota Rules, parts 9570.2000 to 9570.3600, from the care related limits and allow 105 percent of the other operating cost limit established by rule.

For the purpose of calculating the other operating cost efficiency incentive for nursing homes referred to in clauses (1) or (2), the commissioner shall use the other operating cost limit established by rule before application of the 105 percent.

(e) The commissioner shall establish a composite index or indices by determining the appropriate economic change indicators to be applied to specific operating cost categories or combination of operating cost categories.

(f) Each nursing home shall receive an operating cost payment rate equal to the sum of the nursing home's operating cost payment rates for each operating cost category. The operating cost payment rate for an operating cost category shall be the lesser of the nursing home's historical operating cost in the category increased by the appropriate index established in paragraph (e) for the operating cost category plus an efficiency incentive established pursuant to paragraph (d) or the limit for the operating cost category increased by the same index. If a nursing home's actual historic operating costs are greater than the prospective payment rate for that rate year, there shall be no retroactive cost settle-up. In establishing payment rates for one or more operating cost categories, the commissioner may establish separate rates for different classes of residents based on their relative care needs.

(g) The commissioner shall include the reported actual real estate tax liability of each proprietary nursing home as an operating cost of that nursing home. The commissioner shall include a reported actual special assessment for each nursing home as an operating cost of that nursing home. Total real estate tax liability and actual special assessments paid for each nursing home (1) shall be divided by actual resident days in order to compute the operating cost payment rate for this operating cost category, (2) shall not be used to compute the 60th percentile or other operating cost limits established by the commissioner, and (3) shall not be increased by the composite index or indices established pursuant to paragraph (e).

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 256B.431, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2g. [PHASE-IN.] The commissioner shall allow each nursing home whose actual allowable historical operating cost per diem for the reporting year ending September 30, 1984, and the following two reporting years is five percent or more above the limits established by the commissioner to be reimbursed for part of the excess costs each year for up to three rate years according to the formula in this subdivision. The commissioner shall reimburse the nursing home:

(1) for the rate year beginning July 1, 1985, 70 percent of the difference between the actual allowable historical operating cost per diem and the limit established by the commissioner;

(2) for the rate year beginning July 1, 1986, 40 percent of the difference between the actual allowable historical operating cost per diem and the limit established by the commissioner; and

(3) for the rate year beginning July 1, 1987, 20 percent of the difference between the actual allowable historical operating cost per diem and the limit established by the commissioner.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 256B.431, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PROPERTY-RELATED COSTS, 1983-1985.] (a) For rate years beginning July 1, 1983 and July 1, 1984, property-related costs shall be reimbursed to each nursing home at the level recognized in the most recent cost report received by December 31, 1982 and audited by March 1, 1983, and may be subsequently adjusted to reflect the costs recognized in the final rate for that cost report, adjusted for rate limitations in effect before the effective date of this section. Property-related costs include: depreciation, interest, earnings or investment allowance, lease, or rental payments. No adjustments shall be made as a result of sales or reorganizations of provider entities.

(b) Adjustments for the cost of repairs, replacements, renewals, betterments, or improvements to existing buildings, and building service equipment shall be allowed if:

(1) The cost incurred is reasonable, necessary, and ordinary;

(2) The net cost is greater than $5,000. "Net cost" means the actual cost, minus proceeds from insurance, salvage, or disposal;

(3) The nursing home's property-related costs per diem is equal to or less than the average property-related costs per diem within its group; and

(4) The adjustment is shown in depreciation schedules submitted to and approved by the commissioner.

(c) Annual per diem shall be computed by dividing total property-related costs by 96 percent of the nursing home's licensed capacity days for nursing homes with more than 60 beds and 94 percent of the nursing home's licensed capacity days for nursing homes with 60 or fewer beds. For a nursing home whose residents' average length of stay is 180 days or less, the commissioner may waive the 96 or 94 percent factor and divide the nursing home's property-related costs by the actual resident days to compute the nursing home's annual property-related per diem. The commissioner shall promulgate emergency and permanent rules to recapture excess depreciation upon sale of a nursing home.

(d) Subd. 3a. [PROPERTY-RELATED COSTS AFTER JULY 1, 1985.]

(a) For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1985, the commissioner, by permanent rule, shall reimburse nursing home providers that are vendors in the medical assistance program for the rental use of their property. The "rent" is the amount of periodic payment which a renter might expect to pay for the right to the agreed use of the real estate and the depreciable equipment as it exists real estate and depreciable equipment. "Real estate" means land improvements, buildings, and attached fixtures used directly for resident care. "Depreciable equipment" means the standard moveable resident care equipment and support service equipment generally used in long-term care facilities.

(e) (b) In developing the method for determining payment rates for the rental use of nursing homes, the commissioner shall consider factors designed to:

- (1) simplify the administrative procedures for determining payment rates for property-related costs;
- (2) minimize discretionary or appealable decisions;
- (3) eliminate any incentives to sell nursing homes;
- (4) recognize legitimate costs of preserving and replacing property;
- (5) recognize the existing costs of outstanding indebtedness allowable under the statutes and rules in effect on May 1, 1983;
- (6) address the current value of, if used directly for patient care, land improvements, buildings, attached fixtures, and equipment;
- (7) establish an investment per bed limitation;
- (8) reward efficient management of capital assets;
- (9) provide equitable treatment of facilities;
- (10) consider a variable rate; and
- (11) phase in implementation of the rental reimbursement method.

(f) (c) No later than January 1, 1984, the commissioner shall report to the legislature on any further action necessary or desirable in order to implement the purposes and provisions of this subdivision.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 256B.431, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SPECIAL RATES.] (a) For the rate years beginning July 1, 1983, and July 1, 1984, a newly constructed nursing home or one with a capacity increase of 50 percent or more may, upon written application to the commissioner, receive an interim payment rate for reimbursement for property-related costs calculated pursuant to the statutes and rules in effect on May 1, 1983 and for operating costs negotiated by the commissioner based upon the 60th percentile established for the appropriate group under subdivision 2, paragraph (b) to be effective from the first day a medical assistance recipient resides in the home or for the added beds. For newly constructed nursing homes which are not included in the calculation of the 60th percentile for any group, subdivision 2(f), the commissioner shall establish by rule procedures for determining interim operating cost payment rates and interim property-related cost payment rates. The interim payment rate shall not be in effect for more than 17 months. The commissioner shall establish, by emergency and permanent rules, procedures for determining the interim rate and for making a retroactive cost settle-up after the first year of operation; the cost settled operating cost per diem shall not exceed 110 percent of the 60th percentile established for the appropriate group. Until procedures determining operating cost payment rates according to mix of resident needs are established, the commissioner shall establish by rule procedures for determining payment rates for nursing homes which provide care under a lesser care level than the level for which the nursing home is certified.

(b) For the rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1985, a newly constructed nursing home or one with a capacity increase of 50 percent or more may, upon written application to the commissioner, receive an interim payment rate for reimbursement for property related costs, operating costs, and real estate taxes and special assessments calculated under rules promulgated by the commissioner.

(c) For rate years beginning on or after July 1, 1983, the commissioner may exclude from a provision of 12 MCAR S 2.050 any facility that is on August 1, 1984, was licensed by the commissioner of health only as a boarding care home, is certified by the commissioner of health as an intermediate care facility, is and licensed by the commissioner of human services under 12 MCAR S 2.036, and has less than five percent of its licensed boarding care capacity reimbursed by the medical assistance program. Until a permanent rule to establish the payment rates for facilities meeting these criteria is promulgated, the commissioner shall establish the medical assistance payment rate as follows:

(1) The desk audited payment rate in effect on June 30, 1983, remains in effect until the end of the facility's fiscal year. The commissioner shall not allow any amendments to the cost report on which this desk audited payment rate is based.

(2) For each fiscal year beginning between July 1, 1983, and June 30, 1985, the facility's payment rate shall be established by increasing the desk audited operating cost payment rate determined in clause (1) at an annual rate of five percent.

(3) For fiscal years beginning on or after July 1, 1985, the facility's payment rate shall be established by increasing the facility's payment rate in the facility's prior fiscal year by the increase indicated by the consumer price index for Minneapolis and St. Paul.

(4) For the purpose of establishing payment rates under this paragraph, the facility's rate and reporting years coincide with the facility's fiscal year.

A facility that meets the criteria of this paragraph shall submit annual cost reports on forms prescribed by the commissioner.

For the rate year beginning July 1, 1985, each nursing home total payment rate must be effective two calendar months from the first day of the month after the commissioner issues the rate notice to the nursing home. From July 1, 1985, until the total payment rate becomes effective, the commissioner shall make payments to each nursing home at a temporary rate which is the prior rate year's operating cost payment rate increased by 2.6 percent plus the prior rate year's property-related payment rate and the prior rate year's real estate taxes and special assessments payment rate. The commissioner shall retroactively adjust the property-related payment rate and the real estate taxes and special assessments payment rate to July 1, 1985, but must not retroactively adjust the operating cost payment rate.

256B.50 [APPEALS:]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] A nursing home may appeal a decision arising from the application of standards or methods pursuant to sections 256B.41 and 256B.47 if the appeal, if successful, would result in a change to the nursing home's payment rate, or appraised value. The appeal procedures also apply to appeals of payment rates calculated under 12 MCAR S 2.049 filed with the commissioner on or after May 1, 1984. This section does not apply to a request from a resident or nursing home for reconsideration of the classification of a resident under section 1. To appeal, the nursing home shall notify the commissioner in writing of its intent to appeal within 30 days and submit a written appeal request within 60 days of receiving notice of the payment rate determination or decision. The appeal request shall specify each disputed item, the reason for the dispute, an estimate of the dollar amount involved for each disputed item, the computation that the nursing home believes is correct, the authority in statute or rule upon which the nursing home relies for each disputed item, the name and address of the person or firm with whom contacts may be made regarding the appeal, and other information required by the commissioner.

Except as provided in subdivision 2, the appeal shall be heard by an administrative law judge according to sections 14.48 to 14.56, or upon agreement by both parties according to a modified appeals procedure established by the commissioner and the administrative law judge. In any proceeding under this section, the appealing party must demonstrate by a preponderance of the evidence that the commissioner's determination is incorrect. Regardless of any rate appeal, the rate established shall be the rate paid and shall remain in effect until final resolution of the appeal or subsequent desk or field audit adjustment, notwithstanding any provision of law or rule to the contrary. To challenge the validity of rules established by the commissioner pursuant to sections 256B.41, 256B.421, 256B.431, 256B.47, 256B.48, 256B.50, and 256B.502, a nursing home shall comply with section 14.44.

Subd. 2. [APPRAISED VALUE; APPEALS BOARD.] (a) Appeals concerning the appraised value of a nursing home's real estate must be heard by a three-person appeal board appointed by the commissioner. The real estate as defined in section 256B.431, subdivision 3, must be appraised using the depreciated replacement cost method.

(b) Members of the appeals board shall be appointed by the commissioner from the list of appraisers approved for state contracts by the commissioner of administration. In making the selection, the commissioner of human services shall ensure that each member is experienced in the use of the depreciated replacement cost method and is free of any personal, political, or economic conflict of interest that may impair the member's ability to function in a fair and objective manner.

(c) The appeals board shall appoint one of its members to act as chief representative and shall examine witnesses where deemed necessary to make a complete record. Facts to be considered by the board are limited to those in existence at the time of the appraisal being appealed. The board shall issue a written report regarding each appeal to the commissioner within 30 days following the close of the record. The report must contain findings of fact, conclusions, and a recommended disposition based on a majority decision of the board. A copy of the report must be served upon all parties.

(d) The commissioner shall issue an order adopting, rejecting, or modifying the appeal board's recommendation within 30 days of receipt of the report. A copy of the decision must be served upon all parties.

(e) Within 30 days of receipt of the commissioner's order, the appealing party may appeal to the Minnesota court of appeals. The court's decision is limited to a determination of the appraised value of the real estate and must not include costs assessed against either party.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 256B.504, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

(a) to monitor the inspection and regulation activities, including rule developments, of the departments of health and human services with the ~~goal~~ goals of improving quality of care and controlling health care costs;

(b) to study and report on alternative long-term care services, including respite care services, day care services, and hospice services; ~~and~~

(c) to study and report on alternatives to medical assistance funding for providing long-term health care services to the citizens of Minnesota; and

(d) to monitor the delivery of health care in Minnesota and to study and report on strategies to contain health care costs.

The ~~study~~ commission shall consider the use of such alternatives as private insurance, private annuities, health maintenance organizations, preferred provider organizations, medicare, and such other alternatives as the commission may deem worthy of study.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 349.214, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [BINGO; CERTAIN ORGANIZATIONS.] Bingo may be conducted within a nursing home or a senior citizen housing project or by a senior citizen organization without complying with sections 349.11 to 349.213 if the prizes for a single bingo game do not exceed $10, total prizes awarded at a single bingo occasion do not exceed $200, no more than two bingo occasions are held by the organization or at the facility each week, only members of the organization or residents of the nursing home or housing project are allowed to play in a bingo game, no compensation is paid for any persons who conduct the bingo, a manager is appointed to supervise the bingo, and the manager registers with the board. The gross receipts from bingo conducted under the limitations of this subdivision are exempt from taxation under chapter 297A.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 474.01, subdivision 7a, is amended to read:

Subd. 7a. No municipality or redevelopment agency shall undertake any project authorized by sections 474.01 to 474.13, except a project referred to in section 474.02, subdivision 1f, unless its governing body finds that the project furthers the purposes stated in this section, nor until the commissioner of energy and economic development has approved the project, on the basis of preliminary information which the commissioner may require, as tending to further the purposes and policies of sections 474.01 to 474.13. The commissioner may not approve any projects relating to health care facilities except as permitted under subdivision 9. Approval shall not be deemed to be an approval by the commissioner of energy and economic development or the state of the feasibility of the project or the terms of the revenue agreement to be executed or the bonds to be issued therefor, and the commissioner shall state this in communicating approval.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 474.01, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [HEALTH CARE FACILITIES.] The welfare of the state further requires the provision of necessary health care facilities, to the end that adequate health care services be made available to residents of the state at reasonable cost. However, some projects relating to nursing homes may be inconsistent with established state policies and detrimental to the welfare of the state. The commissioner of energy and economic development shall forward to the commissioner of human services and the commissioner of health for review all applications for projects relating to nursing homes licensed by the commissioner of health under chapter 144A. This review process does not apply to projects approved by the housing finance agency involving residences for the elderly, the costs of which will not be reimbursed under the medical assistance program. The commissioner of human services and the commissioner of health must return the applications to the commissioner of energy and economic development with a recommendation within 30 days of receipt. The commissioner of energy and economic development may not approve an application unless the project has been determined by both the commissioner of human services and the commissioner of health to be consistent with policies of the state as reflected in a statute or rule. The following projects may not be approved:

(1) projects that will result in an increase in the number of nursing home or boarding care beds in the state, unless the increase was approved before May 1, 1985, under section 144A.071, subdivision 3;

(2) projects involving refinancing, unless the refinancing will result in a reduction in debt service charges that will be reflected in charges to patients and third party payors; and

(3) projects that are inconsistent with the established policies of the state as reflected in a statute or rule.

Sec. 27. [FEASIBILITY STUDY OF HOME EQUITY CONVERSION FOR LONG-TERM HEALTH CARE.]

Subdivision 1. [FEASIBILITY STUDY.] The commissioner of human services, with the assistance of the commissioner of commerce and the directors of the housing finance agency and the state planning agency, shall study and report to the legislature concerning the feasibility of a home equity conversion program to finance long-term health care and long-term health care insurance. The study must examine and provide recommendations concerning:

(1) methods of encouraging participation, including public subsidy mechanisms;

(2) the characteristics of target populations;

(3) federal and state legislative and regulatory barriers;

(4) the role of the medical assistance program, insurance carriers and other forms of health care coverage, lending institutions, employers, investors, consumer organizations, and other programs and interests;

(5) estimates of demand and participation;

(6) estimates of cost;

(7) methods of addressing adverse selection; and

(8) other considerations affecting the desirability and feasibility of home equity conversion to finance long-term health care and long-term health care insurance.

Subd. 2. [REPORT.] By February 15, 1986, the commissioner of human services shall report to the legislature on the study required under subdivision 1. In addition to the information required under subdivision 1, the report must include recommendations concerning the value of a project to demonstrate the use of home equity conversion to finance long-term health care and long-term health care insurance. If the report recommends establishing a demonstration project, the report must include recommendations for designing, implementing, and funding the project.

Sec. 28. [SPECIAL ASSISTANCE.]

Notwithstanding any other law, if a nursing home having an historical property-related cost per diem of less than $1 receives a valid notice of default from an unrelated financial institution for an actual breach of a material provision of its financing agreements before January 1, 1985, and is sold after receiving the notice but prior to July 1, 1985, to a nonrelated buyer, the commissioner of human services shall provide an interest subsidy, interest buy-down or other assistance up to $42,000 to facilitate the sale and enable the new owner to operate the nursing home under applicable medical assistance reimbursement rules and limits.

Prior to disbursing any such funds, the commissioner shall assure that the interests of the residents of the nursing home and the interests of the residents of any affiliated facility subject to the financing agreements, or interrelated financing agreements, are protected and secured on a long-term basis. As a condition for releasing any such funds, the commissioner may require reasonable concessions from the financial institution which gave notice of the default.

Sec. 29. [APPROPRIATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [COMMISSIONER OF HUMAN SERVICES.] $50,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of human services to conduct a feasibility study of home equity conversion for long-term health care.

Subd. 2. [COMMISSIONER OF HUMAN SERVICES.] $42,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of human services for purposes of section 28 to be available until June 30, 1986.

Sec. 2. [473.5962] [CONVENTION CONSTRUCTION BOARD.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] A convention construction board is established to oversee construction of the convention facilities. The board shall not be deemed a state agency. The board shall design, construct, equip, furnish, and improve the convention center, and at the request of the commission, related facilities. The board shall consist of five members. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the governor shall initially appoint five members and designate one member as chair within 30 days following the effective date of this section and members may be appointed without regard to residence, office, position, or employment but shall have in their individual capacities no direct or indirect interest in any contract for the acquisition or betterment of any convention and trade show facilities. Not more than one member of the commission and no member of the city council of the city may be appointed. The appointments are not subject to section 15.0597, but the terms and removal of board members and the filling of vacancies on the board are as provided in section 15.0575. A person shall not be deemed to have an interest in any contract because of any public office held by the person. Each member of the board shall qualify by taking and subscribing the oath of office prescribed by the Minnesota Constitution, article V, section 6. The oath, duly certified by the officer administering it, shall be filed with the chairperson of the commission.

Subd. 2. [ACTIONS; DURATION.] The board shall act by a majority of members, adopt rules and bylaws, including procedural rules for the conduct of its meetings, appoint officers, and hold meetings to carry out the duties and functions assigned to it by sections 1 to 8. The provisions of section 471.705 do not apply to meetings of the board, but the board shall make tape recordings or other electronic records of its meetings and shall adopt rules under which the meeting records are to be available to the public. The board shall continue in existence until the board determines (1) that construction of the convention facilities is substantially complete, or (2) that the convention facilities cannot be constructed. In exercising its powers under sections 1 to 8, the board shall not be subject to sections 473.161, 473.165, 473.173, and 473.556, subdivision 6.

Subd. 3. [BOARD COMPENSATION.] Members of the board shall be paid $50 for each day or part of a day devoted to board business. The chair of the board shall be paid a salary as the board shall establish. The members and chair shall be reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred in connection with board business.

Subd. 4. [RELATIONSHIP OF BOARD TO COMMISSION.] To the extent the board does not have other funds available for the purpose, the commission shall from available funds pay or reimburse the board for all costs incurred by the board within the scope of its authority and the compensation required to be paid to board members. Upon termination of the board the commission shall be the successor in interest to the board for all rights, privileges and duties of the board created in sections 1 to 8 or arising under any contracts entered into by the board within the scope of its authority. The board and commission shall cooperate to the greatest extent practicable to permit each to discharge its duties under sections 1 to 8.

Subd. 5. [POWERS OF THE BOARD.] The board shall have all powers necessary or convenient to discharge the duties imposed by law, including but not limited to the following:

(a) The board may sue and be sued, and shall be a public body within the meaning of chapter 562.

(b) The board may employ, without public bidding, persons, firms, or corporations to perform one or more or all of the functions of architect, engineer, construction manager, or contractor for either design or construction, with respect to all or any part of the convention facilities or related facilities. Notwithstanding the foregoing, contractors for actual construction services shall be selected through a process of public bidding determined by the board and approved by the commissioner of administration, but the board may narrow the listing of eligible bidders to those that the board determines to possess sufficient expertise to perform the intended functions. The board's determination of eligible bidders must be made according to criteria adopted by the board and made public before the process of public bidding begins. Any construction manager or contractor shall certify, before the contracts are finally signed, a construction price and completion date to the board and shall post a bond in an amount at least equal to 100 percent of the certified price, including but not limited to costs incurred by the board or the commission or loss of revenues by the commission resulting from incomplete construction on the completion date. The board shall secure surety bonds as required in section 574.26, securing payment of just claims in connection with all public work undertaken by it. Persons entitled to the protection of the bonds may enforce them as provided in sections 574.28 to 574.32, and shall not be entitled to a lien under the provisions of sections 514.01 to 514.16.

(c) The board may employ persons and contract for services necessary to carry out its functions. The board shall adopt a personnel policy in accordance with the guidelines adopted by the council under section 473.141, subdivision 9. Employees of the board are not public employees for purposes of chapters 43A and 179A and are not members of a public pension fund.

(d) The board may, subject to approval by the commission, accept gifts of money, property, or services, may apply for and accept grants or loans of money or other property from the United States, the state, any subdivision of the state, or any person for any of its purposes, may enter into any agreement required in connection with them, and may hold, use, and dispose of the money, property, or services in accordance with the terms of the gift, grant, loan, or related agreement.

(e) The board may require any employee to obtain and file with it an individual bond or fidelity insurance policy. It may procure insurance in the amounts it deems necessary against liability of the board or its officers and employees for personal injury or death and property damage or destruction, with the force and effect stated in chapter 466, and against risks of damage to or destruction of any of its facilities, equipment, or other property.

(f) In exercising its powers to contract for the purchase of services, materials, supplies, and equipment, pursuant to sections 1 to 8, the board shall designate and set aside each fiscal year for awarding to small businesses approximately ten percent of the value of anticipated contracts and subcontracts of that kind for that year, in the manner required of the commissioner of administration for state procurement contracts pursuant to sections 16B.19 to 16B.22.

Subd. 6. [ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT STATEMENT.] The board shall be the responsible governmental unit for preparation of an environmental assessment worksheet for the convention center. The board shall complete the environmental assessment worksheet within 30 days of notifying the environmental quality board of the facility site and scope of the convention facilities. If an environmental impact statement is necessary, the board shall prepare it. The final statement shall be accepted by the environmental quality board no later than 180 days following the determination that an environmental impact statement is necessary. The environmental assessment worksheet and any environmental impact statement for the proposed convention center shall be prepared in accordance with sections 1 to 8, and to the extent consistent with this act, in accordance with chapter 116D and rules issued pursuant to it. Any declaratory judgment action pursuant to section 116D.04, subdivision 10, shall be heard and decided within 60 days of the decision challenged and shall be initiated within 15 days of the decision. The board may engage the department of transportation, the pollution control agency, or any other department or agency of the state, or private consultant to conduct studies necessary to the preparation of the worksheet or statement. The board shall reimburse state departments or agencies for costs incurred in conducting the studies.

Subd. 7. [PERMITS.] Within 60 days following the acceptance of the environmental impact statement by the environmental quality board, or a decision that an environmental impact statement is not required, the pollution control agency and any other department, agency, or unit of government shall take final action to approve or deny any permits necessary for the proposed convention center.

Subd. 8. [COMMENCEMENT OF CONSTRUCTION; CONDITIONS.] The construction or improvement of the convention center in accordance with the contracts and applicable law shall commence as promptly as practicable following issuance of bonds for it authorized in sections 1 to 8, but the board shall not authorize the commencement of construction or improvement of any part of the convention center until the commission has determined that each of the following has occurred or is satisfied:

(a) Demolition and construction costs under construction contracts, not including costs for construction managers, architectural, engineering, and other professional fees, insurance, bonds, permits, licenses, taxes, and similar costs for constructing or improving the convention center are not reasonably expected to require more than $126,000,000 in public funds.

(b) The city has conveyed to the commission without cost the city's title to all parcels of land on which the existing convention hall and auditorium in the city are located and which are owned by the city on the date this section becomes effective, together with title to all structures and improvements on them and furnishings and equipment used in the operation of the facility. The title shall be free and clear of all liens and encumbrances not acceptable to the commission.

(c) In addition to the conveyance referred to in paragraph (b), the city has conveyed or has entered into arrangements satisfactory to the commission to convey to the commission without cost the fee title to other parcels of land satisfactory to the commission for all of the convention site or the city by binding contract has agreed to incur $25,000,000 for acquisition, relocation, condemnation, demolition, clearance, and related costs, including professional fees, concerning any or all of the parcels. The title shall be free and clear of all liens and encumbrances not acceptable to the commission.

(d) Proceeds of the bonds, net of issuance costs, reserves and proceeds for the payment of interest on the bonds, will be paid, loaned, or otherwise made available to the board and will be sufficient, together with all other funds available to the commission or board for such purpose, to acquire, construct, improve, equip, and furnish the convention center in accordance with plans or designs which will be approved by the board.

(e) The board has executed agreements which will provide for the construction or improvement of the convention center for a certified construction price and at a stated completion date and which include performance bonds in an amount at least equal to 100 percent of the certified price to cover any costs which may be incurred over and above the certified price, including but not limited to costs incurred by the commission or board or loss of revenues resulting from incomplete construction on the completion date.

(f) The board has executed agreements with the appropriate labor organizations and construction contractors which provide that no labor strike or management lockout will halt, delay, or impede construction or improvement of the convention facilities.

(g) The revenues available to the commission will be sufficient to pay projected operating expenses, including any appropriate reserves for operations, repairs and replacements, and improvements of the convention center.

Sec. 3. [473.5963] [ACQUISITION AND OPERATION; COMMISSION POWERS.]

The commission may acquire, own, lease, control, operate, and maintain the convention center and related facilities. The commission may equip, furnish, and improve the convention center. The commission may design, construct, equip, and improve related facilities at locations selected by the commission and approved by the city council of the city. With respect to contracts related to the convention center and related facilities, the commission shall have the same rights and obligations of the commission that are provided by section 473.556, subdivisions 7 and 14, with respect to contracts related to sports facilities. For purposes of sections 1 to 8, including paying amounts owing under contracts entered into by the board, paying costs of operation and maintenance and paying or securing debt service and maintenance of reserves for any bonds issued pursuant to sections 1 to 8, the commission may expend money received by it from any source not required by law or contract to be expended for another purpose and enter into contracts to that effect with any persons, including the city, the council, or bondholders. The board shall maintain public financial records according to a system approved by the legislative auditor and make the records available to the legislative auditor upon request. The legislative auditor may conduct financial or performance audits of the board. The commission may pledge any of its property or funds, not otherwise restricted by law or contract, to the payment of principal of, premium, if any, or interest on bonds or other debt incurred in connection with the convention center or related facilities. The acquisition of the convention center and related facilities may be pursuant to a lease, lease with option to purchase agreement, installment sale contract, contract for deed, mortgage note, loan agreement, or other similar contract or direct purchase, which may be secured by or payable from any property or money available to the commission not pledged or required by law or contract to be applied for another purpose. The commission may acquire all property and property rights necessary or desirable for convention facilities or related facilities by exercise of the power of eminent domain pursuant to chapter 117. In exercising its powers under sections 1 to 8, the commission shall not be subject to sections 473.161, 473.165, 473.173, and 473.556, subdivision 6.

Sec. 4. [473.5964] [TRANSFER OF CONVENTION HALL AND AUDITORIUM AND CITY EMPLOYEES.]

Subdivision 1. [CONVEYANCE AND ASSUMPTION OF CONTRACTS.] The city may transfer to the commission without consideration all right, title, and interest in the existing convention hall and auditorium in the city, together with any furnishings or equipment related to them, pursuant to agreements, instruments, and actions as the parties may agree upon. The commission shall thereupon assume and become obligated to perform all contracts of the city with respect to the operation, maintenance, and use of the facilities other than contracts of employment with city employees and collective bargaining agreements; provided that before the transfer the city shall have provided copies of all the contracts to the commission and advised the commission of all material terms of any contracts which are not in writing.

Subd. 2. [CONVEYANCE NOT RESTRICTED.] The conveyance of property pursuant to this section shall not constitute a violation of any restrictions, reservations, rights of reentry, possibilities of reverter, forfeiture clauses, or other conditions arising from any previous conveyance of all or part of the property to the city from the state. After the conveyance to the commission, the commission's title shall not be subject to any restrictions, reservations, rights of reentry, possibilities of reverter, forfeiture clauses or other conditions contained in any previous state conveyance to the city, except for any reservation of minerals or mineral rights in the state.

Subd. 3. [REDUCTION IN CITY PARTICIPATION.] The amount of $25,000,000 referred to in section 2, subdivision 8, paragraph (c), shall be reduced by any amount by which the city's net operating income from the facility for the city's fiscal year to date of transfer is negative, after adjustment for accounts receivable and accounts payable by the city from operation of the facility and only to the extent the city can establish that the city's net operating income from the facility for the entire fiscal year would have been more than the net operating income to the date of such transfer.

Subd. 4. [CITY EMPLOYEES.] Upon transfer by the city to the commission of the existing convention hall and auditorium contemplated in subdivision 1, all employees of the city who are appointed, classified full time, or on the effective date of this section are classified part time with at least 2,080 cumulative hours of employment with the city, and who work primarily in the administration, operation, or maintenance of the facility shall continue to be employees of the city without impairment of their civil service and other status as city employees and continue, under the direction of the commission, to be employed at the convention center. The commission shall reimburse the city for their compensation and all other costs incurred by the city related to city employees at the convention center. The employment of other persons at the convention center who are not city employees shall be on conditions that do not impair the status of the city employees.

Sec. 5. [473.5965] [FINANCING AND AID FOR FACILITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [CITY AND COUNCIL CONTRACTS.] The city or the council, collectively or individually, may enter into contracts with either the commission or board to exercise any power of the commission or board, granted under sections 1 to 8 or to perform any activity in which the commission or board may engage under sections 1 to 8. The city or the council may pledge, lease, sell, or transfer to, or lease, purchase, or acquire from the commission all or part of any convention facilities, related facilities, sports facilities, or property to be used or useful in these facilities or for their financing on the terms and conditions their governing bodies shall determine, but subject to the approval of the commission in regard to its properties. The city and council may exercise all powers conferred upon them by law to carry out the contracts.

Subd. 2. [PARTICIPATION BY THE CITY.] Before or after issuance of bonds pursuant to sections 1 to 8, the city may incur or pay costs relating to preliminary architectural, design, engineering, planning, financial, and legal services relevant to the acquisition, financing, construction, or operation of the convention center and related facilities. The commission shall reimburse the city or otherwise pay for the costs in an amount up to $300,000, but only to the extent of amounts received pursuant to section 6, subdivision 3. The city shall at the request of the council pay or reimburse the council for the payment of any costs incurred by the council with the prior approval of the city in connection with the financing of the convention facilities or any related facilities. The city may provide or pledge funds to pay all or part of the cost of acquisition and betterment of the convention center, related facilities or sports facilities, including any debt service or other borrowing costs incurred and costs relating to related refunding obligations. The city may provide or pledge funds to pay all or part of the costs to be incurred for the operation, leasing, maintenance, administration, or promotion of the convention center, or related facilities. Funds may be paid to the commission or the board for the purposes of this section. Funds referred to in this section are all money of the city not required by law or contract to be otherwise applied, and may include the proceeds of the tax levied pursuant to subdivision 7 and tax increments available to the city under any law and not required by contract or pledge to be otherwise applied. The acquisition and betterment of all or part of the convention center, any related facilities, or sports facilities, including any debt service or rental payments with respect to them, shall be a project for purposes of sections 273.71 to 273.78, and the costs related to the project shall constitute costs of redevelopment with respect to any industrial development district located in the city pursuant to chapter 458, public redevelopment costs of any project located in the city pursuant to chapter 462, capital and administration costs of any development district located in the city pursuant to chapter 472A and costs of the type referred to in Laws 1971, chapter 677, section 7, paragraph (c), with respect to any development district established pursuant to Laws 1971, chapter 677. The city may pledge or apply or, if the council is the issuer, enter into an agreement with the council pledging or applying any or all such tax increments to the payment of principal of, premium, if any, and interest on bonds issued pursuant to this section throughout the term of the bonds.

Subd. 3. [BONDS.] Subject to this section, the city may by resolution authorize, sell, and issue its bonds to finance all or a portion of the costs of acquisition or betterment of the convention center. Subject to this section, if the city council of the city should determine not to issue bonds to fund all costs for the acquisition and betterment of the convention center, the council, upon notice of the determination, shall by resolution authorize, sell, and issue its bonds to finance the costs not so financed by the city. $1,000,000 of the bond proceeds issued for the convention center or $1,000,000 of the state funds appropriated for convention center costs must be used to assist in paying for the cost of providing or securing replacement housing for low or moderate income residents who are displaced by the convention center or related facilities. The city of Minneapolis shall determine the replacement housing needs of affected residents and shall provide or secure the housing. The city shall contribute $1,000,000 and may solicit additional funds from other sources to pay for replacement housing costs. Replacement housing costs may include but are not limited to acquisition, construction, and rehabilitation of rental housing units for affected residents. Replacement housing costs shall not include relocation assistance, services, payments, or benefits under sections 117.50 to 117.56. Either or both of the city and the council may also authorize, sell, and issue bonds to finance the costs of acquisition and betterment of related facilities or sports facilities or to refund in accordance with section 475.67 bonds issued pursuant to this section or section 473.581. Before the city or the council issues bonds under this section, the commissioner of finance shall review the principal amount, terms, and conditions of the issuance. The bonds issued by the council shall be general obligation bonds, and bonds issued by the city may, but need not, be general obligations. If bonds are general obligations, taxes for them shall be levied and canceled in accordance with section 475.61 or section 6, as applicable. Bonds issued by the city may be limited obligations made payable from any or all funds available to the city, funds of the commission or the board (but only with the consent of the commission), taxes levied under subdivision 6 and appropriations received under section 6. Bonds issued by the council may also be payable from taxes levied under subdivision 7, appropriations received under section 6, and (with the consent of the city) tax increments of the city. The bonds may be issued in one or more series and sold without election at public or private sale and at the price the issuer may determine. The bonds shall be secured, bear the interest rate or rates, have the rank or priority, be executed in the manner, be payable in the manner, mature and be subject to the redemptions, repurchases, tender options or other terms as the issuer may determine. The issuer may enter into and perform all contracts deemed necessary or desirable by it to issue the bonds and apply the proceeds of the bonds, including an indenture of trust with a trustee within or without the state and any related collateral security agreements. The resolution or indenture pursuant to which the bonds are issued may have the provisions and terms deemed necessary or desirable by the issuer to pay or secure payment of the bonds, to apply the proceeds of the bonds, or to aid the issuance or sale of the bonds or the acquisition or betterment of the facilities financed by them. In addition to other provisions, the resolution or indenture may provide for:

(a) the escrow, pledge, application, and disbursement of any bond proceeds or other funds;

(b) the mortgage or pledge of any funds or property;

(c) the custody, collection, securing, investment, payment, or transfer of any funds or property;

(d) the creation and maintenance of any reserves, sinking funds, or other special funds;

(e) the manner of amending the resolution or indenture;

(f) events of default and remedies for defaults;

(g) the maintenance of insurance and application of insurance proceeds; and

(h) the appointment, duties, and rights of any trustee, paying agent, receiver, or other fiduciary and their successors.

Bond proceeds for the acquisition or betterment of convention facilities, net of issuance costs, reserves, and proceeds for the payment of interest on the bonds shall be loaned or otherwise deposited for the benefit of the commission or the board. Any cost of acquisition and betterment referred to in sections 1 to 8 shall include all costs of acquisition or betterment referred to in section 475.65, capitalized interest for a period not longer than 36 months, any underwriter's discount, reserves for debt service, repair, or operations or costs for credit enhancement of the bonds. The debt represented by the bonds shall not be included in computing any debt limitation applicable to the city, the council, or any county and any levy of taxes required by section 475.61 or section 6 to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds shall not be subject to any levy limitation or be included in computing or applying any levy limitation applicable to the city, the council, or any county. Subject to this section and section 6, bonds authorized by this section shall be sold, issued, and secured in the manner provided in chapter 475, and the council shall have the same powers and duties as a municipality and its governing body in issuing bonds under that chapter.

Subd. 4. [VARIABLE RATE DEMAND BONDS.] Any bond may be issued pursuant to this section giving the owner of the bond the right to tender or the issuer of the bonds to demand tender of the bond to the issuer, or other person designated by the issuer, for purchase by the issuer or the person at the time or times determined by the issuer, if the issuer has first entered into an agreement with a financial institution obligating the financial institution to provide funds on a timely basis for purchase of bonds tendered to the issuer. The purchase of any tendered bonds by or on behalf of the issuer shall not be deemed a payment or discharge of the bonds. Bonds tendered for purchase may be remarketed by or on behalf of the issuer or any other purchaser. The issuer may enter into agreements deemed necessary or appropriate to provide for the purchase of tendered bonds, including provisions under which undelivered bonds may be deemed tendered for purchase and new bonds may be substituted for them, the reimbursement to any person of amounts provided to purchase tendered bonds, the remarketing of tendered bonds, and similar or related agreements. Bonds subject to tender for purchase shall not be deemed to mature within the meaning of section 475.54, subdivision 1, on any date for tender. Any bond may bear interest at a rate varying at the time or times and on the terms, including convertibility to a fixed rate of interest, determined by the issuer. With respect to any variable rate bonds the rate of interest for any period may equal but shall not exceed the maximum determined in accordance with section 475.55, subdivision 4, as last determined before the commencement of the period.

Subd. 5. [VARIABLE INTEREST RATE ASSUMPTIONS FOR DEBT SERVICE TAXES.] In computing annual debt service on variable rate bonds for purposes of section 475.61, subdivisions 1 and 3, and section 6, subdivisions 1 and 2, the interest payable on the bonds may be computed in any of the following ways:

(a) The rate of interest may be assumed to be the maximum rate as most recently determined before the issuance of the bonds under section 475.55, subdivision 1, and levies and appropriations based on this assumption shall be deemed to produce the excess amounts required by law.

(b) If a lesser maximum rate of interest is payable on the bonds in accordance with their terms, that rate may be used.

(c) If the interest rate is subsequently converted to a fixed rate the levy may be modified to provide at least five percent in excess of amounts necessary to pay principal of and interest at the fixed rate on the bonds when due.

(d) The bond resolution or indenture may:

(1) establish a schedule of maturities or mandatory sinking fund redemption for the bonds so as to produce substantially level annual debt service over at least two-thirds of the term of the bonds, assuming an interest rate exceeding by at least two percent per annum the average annual rate estimated by the issuer to be payable from time to time under the variable rate and any tender option and credit enhancement provisions;

(2) require a reserve to be accumulated in the debt service fund within three years from the date of issue and thereafter to be maintained from appropriated tax and other funds received each year in excess of actual debt service, in an amount at least equal to five percent of the principal amount of the bonds outstanding from time to time;

(3) require the levy of additional taxes pursuant to section 475.61, subdivision 3, if necessary at any time to maintain the required reserve balance;

(4) require additional bonds to be redeemed from appropriated tax and other revenues received in excess of amounts needed to maintain the reserve; and

(5) appropriate tax and other funds initially to the debt service fund in annual amounts which, if fully collected, will at least equal, but need not exceed, annual debt service computed on the assumption made pursuant to clause (1) above.

Subd. 6. [LIMITATIONS.] (a) No bonds may be issued under this section for the initial construction or improvement of the convention facilities unless the commission has determined that all conditions to commencement of construction provided in section 2, subdivision 8, are reasonably expected to be satisfied.

(b) No bonds may be issued under this section for construction or improvement of the convention facilities unless the issuer and the commission have each determined that the anticipated revenue available to pay the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the bonds will be sufficient to pay when due all such debt service on the bonds and to maintain any required debt service reserves.

(c) No bonds are required to be issued by the council under this section unless the council has determined that assuming future appropriations from the general fund in accordance with the intent expressed in section 6, subdivision 3, it reasonably expects that any appropriations to be made under section 6 and deposited in the debt service account for the bonds, together with any taxes levied under subdivision 7 or tax increments from the city which are irrevocably pledged or appropriated to the payment of principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the bonds, will be sufficient if timely deposited (i) to pay when due all such debt service on the bonds, (ii) to maintain any required debt service reserves, (iii) to provide additional debt service coverage satisfactory to the council, and (iv) to permit cancellation of any levy made pursuant to section 6, subdivision 1, for each year during the term of the bonds in accordance with section 6, subdivision 2.

(d) No bonds may be issued by the council under this section unless the city and the commission consent to the bond resolution or indenture pursuant to which the bonds are issued.

Any written determination pursuant to this subdivision shall be conclusive and the validity of any bonds or the obligations of the issuer or any other person or body with respect to them shall not be impaired by any determination which is erroneous.

Subd. 7. [SECURITY.] The pledge of any tax or other funds to the payment of principal of, premium, if any, or interest on bonds pursuant to this section or pursuant to a bond resolution or trust indenture shall be a valid charge on the tax and other funds from the date when bonds are first issued or secured under the resolution or indenture and shall secure the payment of principal and interest and redemption premium due and the maintenance at all times of any reserves securing the payment. Except by express mortgage or pledge, no mortgage of or security interest in any tangible real or personal property shall arise from the pledge of the tax or other funds in favor of bondholders or the trustee, but they shall have a valid security interest in the tax and other funds received and receivable, as against the claims of all other persons in tort, contract or otherwise, irrespective of whether the parties have notice of it, and without possession or filing as provided in the uniform commercial code or any other law. Any covenants made in the bond resolution or trust indenture (if approved by the commission or board, respectively) shall be binding upon the commission and the board, respectively, and the board and commission may observe and perform the covenants. The commission and the board may pledge or apply any or all of their property or funds available to them to the payment of principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the bonds. No pledge, mortgage, covenant, or agreement securing bonds issued pursuant to this section may be impaired, revoked, amended by law, or by action of the city, council, commission, or board except in accordance with the terms of the resolution or indenture under which the bonds are issued until the obligations of the issuer under it are fully discharged.

Subd. 8. [LIQUOR AND LODGING TAXES.] The city may, in addition to taxes authorized by chapter 297A and section 473.592, levy (1) a sales tax of not more than four percent on the gross receipts on retail on-sales of intoxicating liquor and fermented malt beverages described in section 473.592 from sales that occur within two miles of the facility site and not more than two percent from sales that occur elsewhere in the city, and (2) a sales tax of not more than four percent on the gross receipts from the furnishing for consideration of lodging described in section 473.592 by a hotel or motel which has more than 50 rooms available for lodging, to provide money for the purposes stated in subdivision 1 or this subdivision. Before the issuance of any bonds under this section payable from the tax, the city shall levy the tax at whatever rate or rates are necessary to produce revenues from year to year which are determined by the issuer of the bonds to be required, together with all other funds available for the purpose or pledged to the payment of principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the bonds, to pay when due all such debt service on the bonds and to accumulate and maintain any debt service reserves for them. If the city is not the issuer, the city shall pay to the issuer the proceeds of the tax required to be so levied. The tax required to be imposed by the preceding sentence shall be suspended, reimposed, reduced, or increased upon the determination of the issuer, and if the issuer is not the city, written notice of the determination by the issuer to the city that the actions are necessary or appropriate for the purposes for which the tax was imposed, provided that the covenants in the resolution or indenture of trust pursuant to which the bonds were issued are not violated by the action. The tax shall be collected and remitted as provided in section 473.592, except the commissioner of revenue shall remit collections, less refunds and collection costs, to the city for application as required by this subdivision. When the purpose for which the tax is levied has been accomplished, the tax shall be canceled and any excess tax proceeds paid to the city. If the issuer of any bonds payable from or secured in whole or part by the tax is the council, before issuance of bonds under this subdivision, an agreement shall be entered into between the city, the council, and the commission implementing this subdivision, and the agreement shall constitute a contract with and for the benefit and security of all holders of the bonds.

Sec. 6. [473.5966] [COUNCIL TAX AND STATE APPROPRIATION.]

Subdivision 1. [TAX LEVY.] Section 475.61 applies to general obligation bonds issued by the council pursuant to section 5, except as otherwise provided in this section. Before issuance and delivery of general obligation bonds or the pledge of taxes to pay any bonds pursuant to subdivision 4, in accordance with section 473.08 and this section, the council shall by resolution levy a direct general ad valorem tax upon all taxable property in the metropolitan counties named in section 473.121 to be collected for each year of the term of the bonds. Except as provided in section 5, subdivision 5, the tax levied for all years shall be in amounts that if collected in full, together with estimated collections of any other taxes or funds pledged for the payment of the bonds, will produce aggregate amounts at least five percent in excess of the amounts needed to pay when due the principal of and interest on the bonds. The resolution of the council shall irrevocably appropriate taxes so levied and all other taxes or other funds pledged to a debt service fund created for the payment of the bonds.

Subd. 2. [LEVY REDUCTION.] Tax levies imposed pursuant to subdivision 1 shall be irrevocable, except that if amounts are held in the debt service fund on October 1 in any year in excess of the principal and interest coming due on the applicable bonds on or before April 1 of the following year, the council may direct the levy then otherwise required to be assessed and extended to be reduced by 105 percent of the excess amount or by any lesser amount, and the secretary of the council shall certify to the auditor of each county on or before October 10 the county's share of the reduction.

Subd. 3. [STATE APPROPRIATION.] $6,000,000 is appropriated from the general fund of the state treasury to be paid to the board on or before July 1, 1985, for the board's preconstruction costs and other initial operating costs, with any amounts not expected to be so applied to be provided to the commission for any convention center operating reserve, or for payment of replacement housing costs referred to in section 5. $6,000,000 is appropriated and shall be paid to the commission on or before July 1, 1986, from the general fund, of which the commission may retain any portion needed for maintenance of the operating reserve, subject to such limit as may be provided in the bond resolution or indenture, and the remainder shall be deposited in the debt service fund or funds for the bonds issued by the council or city for the convention center, in amounts proportionate to the amounts of city and council bonds outstanding each year.

The council is required to issue bonds under section 5, subdivision 6, only if it determines that certain funds are expected to be available for such bonds in amounts sufficient for the purposes stated in section 5, subdivision 6, including cancellation of any tax levy pursuant to section 6, subdivision 2. Among such funds are the appropriations which are made pursuant to this subdivision, together with future appropriations which the legislature has the intention of providing. The legislature does not desire to authorize the issuance of state obligations or the creation of public debt of the state within the meaning of the constitution for the purposes of sections 1 to 8. However, it is hereby expressed to be the intent of the legislature to appropriate from the general fund in the future from time to time amounts not in excess of $6,000,000 each year for the purpose of permitting cancellation of the tax levy in each year. This subdivision does not constitute a binding commitment or agreement with the council, the city, the commission or the holders of any bonds issued under sections 1 to 8 or any debt or obligation of the state and may be repealed, amended, or modified. The future appropriations contemplated in this subdivision may, however, be included in the funds available for debt service in computing the tax levy required by section 6, subdivision 1.

The council shall determine and certify to the governor and the legislature on or before each December 1 the amount and timing of any appropriation needed to be received in the following year to permit cancellation of any tax levy otherwise required for such year pursuant to this section. The governor shall include and submit to the legislature, in the budget for the year, or in a supplemental budget if the regular budget for that year has been previously approved, the amounts certified to the governor by the council in accordance with this subdivision.

Subd. 4. [MODIFICATIONS REGARDING PRIOR BONDS.] The council may by resolution, subject to consent by the city and the commission, pledge the tax authorized by subdivision 1 to pay when due the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on all bonds issued pursuant to section 473.581, but only upon the release of (a) all security interests, pledges, and restrictions on encumbrances or transfer of sports facilities owned by the commission created in favor of or for the benefit of holders of the issue of bonds or (b) all pledges to pay the debt service or costs of the commission from taxes levied under section 473.592, subdivision 1. The releases shall occur upon the written consent of all holders of bonds of the issue, notwithstanding any other law. Upon the release of the pledge of taxes levied pursuant to section 473.592, subdivision 1, the taxes shall not be imposed for payment of the debt service and any pledge or application of the taxes for payment of the debt service or maintenance of a reserve for the issue required under section 473.581, subdivision 4, shall be repealed. Any pledge by the council under this subdivision may be made without election and shall not be included in the net debt of any city, county, or other subdivision of the state for the purpose of any debt limitation. Upon the pledge of taxes for payment of an issue of bonds pursuant to this subdivision, with the consent of all holders of the issue, any reserves or other funds pledged to secure the issue may be reduced or eliminated by the council and the funds so released remitted to the commission.

Sec. 7. [473.5967] [PROPERTY TAX EXEMPT.]

Any real or personal property acquired, owned, or used by the commission, the board, the council, or the city pursuant to sections 1 to 8 is exempt from taxation to the same extent as property referred to under section 473.556, subdivision 4.

Sec. 8. [473.5968] [POWERS GRANTED HEREIN NOT LIMITED.]

Except as specifically provided in sections 1 to 7, the exercise of the powers granted in sections 1 to 7 shall not be limited by the provisions of chapters 273, 462, 472A, 475, or of any city charter.

Sec. 9. [NAME CHANGE.]

Any railroad company desiring a right-of-way over any state owned land, except tax forfeited land, may make application therefor to the state agency charged by law with jurisdiction over such land. The application shall be in such form as the state agency to which application must be made prescribes. Except for purposes of the special permit under section 9, the base rates for vehicles with six or more axles in the "S" and "T" categories are $1,520 and $1,620 respectively, subject to the annual increases authorized by this section.

For each vehicle with a gross weight in excess of 81,000 pounds an additional tax of $50 is imposed for each ton or fraction thereof in excess of 81,000 pounds, subject to subdivision 12.

For the registration year 1987 and each subsequent registration year through 1991, the commissioner of revenue shall recompute and publish the tax rates provided in the Minnesota base rate schedule, including the tax provided for vehicles with a gross weight in excess of 81,000 pounds. The commissioner shall calculate the new rates by increasing each rate in effect at the time of the calculation by four percent. The calculation for each registration year must be published by the previous July 1. The rates calculated under this subdivision must be rounded to the nearest dollar and are effective for all vehicles taxed under the Minnesota base rate schedule.

Truck-tractors except those herein defined as farm and urban truck-tractors and commercial zone vehicles shall be taxed in accord with the foregoing gross weight tax schedule on the basis of the combined gross weight of the truck-tractor and any semitrailer or semitrailers which the applicant proposes to combine with the truck-tractor. In addition, to the gross weight tax imposed on the truck-tractor, each semitrailer shall be taxed a fee of $10 for a one-year period or $50 for a five-year period whichever the applicant elects.

Commercial zone trucks include only trucks, truck-tractors, and semi-trailer combinations which are:

(1) used by an authorized local cartage carrier operating under a permit issued under section 221.296 and whose gross transportation revenue consists of at least 60 percent obtained solely from local cartage carriage, and are operated solely within an area composed of two contiguous cities of the first class and municipalities contiguous thereto as defined by section 221.011, subdivision 17; or,

(2) operated by an interstate carrier registered under section 221.61 or 221.62, or by an authorized local cartage carrier or other carrier receiving operating authority under chapter 221, and operated solely within a zone exempt from regulation by the interstate commerce commission pursuant to United States Code, title 49, section 10526(b).

The license plates issued for commercial zone vehicles shall be plainly marked. A person operating a commercial zone vehicle outside the zone or area in which its operation is authorized is guilty of a misdemeanor and, in addition to the penalty therefor, shall have the registration of the vehicle as a commercial zone vehicle revoked by the registrar and shall be required to reregister the vehicle at 100 percent of the full annual tax prescribed in the Minnesota base rate schedule, and no part of this tax shall be refunded during the balance of the registration year.

On commercial zone trucks the tax shall be based on the total gross weight of the vehicle and during the first eight years of vehicle life shall be 75 percent of the Minnesota base rate schedule. During the ninth and succeeding years of vehicle life the tax shall be 50 percent of the Minnesota base rate schedule, except as otherwise provided in this subdivision. On commercial zone trucks, during the ninth and succeeding years of vehicle life, the tax shall be:

(a) for the 1982 registration year, 35 percent of the tax imposed in the Minnesota base rate schedule;

(b) for the 1983 registration year, 40 percent of the tax imposed in the Minnesota base rate schedule;

(c) for the 1984 registration year, 45 percent of the tax imposed in the Minnesota base rate schedule;

(d) for the 1985 registration year, and each succeeding year, 50 percent of the tax imposed in the Minnesota base rate schedule.

On trucks, truck-tractors and semitrailer combinations, except those defined as farm trucks and farm combinations, and except for those urban trucks and combinations and commercial zone vehicles specifically provided for in this subdivision, the tax for the first eight years of vehicle life shall be 100 percent of the tax imposed in the Minnesota base rate schedule, and during the ninth and succeeding years of vehicle life, the tax shall be 75 percent of the Minnesota base rate prescribed by this subdivision, except as otherwise provided in this subdivision.

On trucks, truck-tractors and semitrailer combinations, except those defined as farm trucks and farm combinations, and except for those urban trucks and combinations and commercial zone vehicles specifically provided for in this subdivision, during each of the first eight years of vehicle life the tax shall be:

(a) for the registration year 1982, 83 percent of the tax imposed in the Minnesota base rate schedule;

(b) for the registration year 1983, 89 percent of the tax imposed in the Minnesota base rate schedule;

(c) for the registration year 1984, 95 percent of the tax imposed in the Minnesota base rate schedule;

(d) for the registration year 1985, and each succeeding year, 100 percent of the tax imposed in the Minnesota base rate schedule.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 169.81, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LENGTH OF VEHICLES.] (a) No single unit motor vehicle, except truck cranes which may not exceed 45 feet, unladen or with load may exceed a length of 40 feet extreme overall dimensions inclusive of front and rear bumpers, except that the governing body of a city is authorized by permit to provide for the maximum length of a motor vehicle, or combination of motor vehicles, or the number of vehicles that may be fastened together, and which may be operated upon the streets or highways of a city; provided, that the permit may not prescribe a length less than that permitted by state law. A motor vehicle operated in compliance with the permit on the streets or highways of the city is not in violation of this chapter.

(b) No single semitrailer, unladen or with load, may have an overall length, exclusive of non-cargo-carrying accessory equipment, including refrigeration units or air compressors, necessary for safe and efficient operation mounted or located on the end of the semitrailer adjacent to the truck or truck-tractor, in excess of 48 feet, except as provided in paragraph (d). No single trailer, unladen or with load, may have an overall length inclusive of tow bar assembly and exclusive of rear protective bumpers which do not increase the overall length by more than six inches, in excess of 45 feet. For determining compliance with the provisions of this subdivision, the length of the semitrailer or trailer must be determined separately from the overall length of the combination of vehicles.

(c) No semitrailer or trailer used in a three-vehicle combination, unladen or with load, may have an overall length, exclusive of non-cargo-carrying accessory equipment, including refrigeration units or air compressors, necessary for safe and efficient operation mounted or located on the end of the semitrailer or trailer adjacent to the truck or truck-tractor, and further exclusive of the tow bar assembly, in excess of 28-1/2 feet. Except as provided in section 12, the commissioner may not grant a permit authorizing the movement, in a three-vehicle combination, of a semitrailer or trailer that exceeds 28-1/2 feet, whether unladen or with load, except that the commissioner may renew a permit that was granted before April 16, 1984 for the movement of a semitrailer or trailer that exceeds the length limitation in this paragraph.

(d) The commissioner may issue an annual permit for a semitrailer in excess of 48 feet in length, if the distance from the kingpin to the centerline of the rear axle group of the semitrailer does not exceed 41 feet and if a combination of vehicles, which includes a semitrailer in excess of 48 feet for which a permit has been issued under this paragraph, does not exceed an overall length of 65 feet, unladen or with load. The annual fee for a permit issued under this paragraph is $36.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 169.825, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [TANDEM.] "Tandem axles" means two consecutive axles whose centers are spaced more than 40 inches and not more than 96 inches apart.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 169.825, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [PNEUMATIC-TIRED VEHICLES.] No vehicle or combination of vehicles equipped with pneumatic tires shall be operated upon the highways of this state:

(a) Where the gross weight on any wheel exceeds 9,000 pounds, except that on designated local routes and state trunk highways the gross weight on any single wheel shall not exceed 10,000 pounds;

(b) Where the gross weight on any single axle exceeds 18,000 pounds, except that on designated local routes and state trunk highways the gross weight on any single axle shall not exceed 20,000 pounds;

(c) Where the maximum wheel load exceeds 600 pounds per inch of tire width or the manufacturer's recommended load, whichever is less;

(d) Where the gross weight on any axle of a tridem exceeds 15,000 pounds, except that for vehicles to which an additional axle has been added prior to June 1, 1981, the maximum gross weight on any axle of a tridem may be up to 16,000 pounds provided the gross weight of the tridem combination does not exceed 37,000 pounds where the first and third axles of the tridem are spaced seven feet apart; 38,500 pounds where the first and third axles of the tridem are spaced eight feet apart; and 39,900 pounds where the first and third axles of the tridem are spaced nine feet apart.

(e) Where the gross weight on any group of axles exceeds the weights permitted under this section with any or all of the interior axles disregarded and their gross weights subtracted from the gross weight of all axles of the group under consideration.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 169.825, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [GROSS WEIGHT SCHEDULE.] (a) No vehicle or combination of vehicles equipped with pneumatic tires shall be operated upon the highways of this state where the total gross weight on any group of two or more consecutive axles of any vehicle or combination of vehicles exceeds that given in the following table for the distance between the centers of the first and last axles of any group of two or more consecutive axles under consideration; the distance between axles being measured longitudinally to the nearest even foot, and when the measurement is a fraction of exactly one-half foot the next largest whole number in feet shall be used, except that when the distance between axles is more than three feet four inches and less than three feet six inches the distance of four feet shall be used:

The gross weights shown in parentheses in this clause are permitted only on state trunk highways and routes designated under section 169.832, subdivision 11.

(b) Notwithstanding any lesser weight in pounds shown in this table but subject to the restrictions on gross vehicle weights in clause (c), two consecutive sets of tandem axles may carry a gross load of 34,000 pounds each and a combined gross load of 68,000 pounds provided the overall distance between the first and last axles of the consecutive sets of tandem axles is 36 feet or more.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 169.85, the gross vehicle weight of all axles of a vehicle or combination of vehicles shall not exceed the following:

(1) 80,000 pounds for any vehicle or combination of vehicles on all state trunk highways as defined in section 160.02, subdivision 2, and for all routes designated under section 169.832, subdivision 11; and

(2) 73,280 pounds for any vehicle or combination of vehicles with five axles or less on all routes, other than state trunk highways, that are not designated under section 169.832, subdivision 11; and

(3) 80,000 pounds for any vehicle or combination of vehicles with six or more axles on all routes, other than state trunk highways, that are not designated under section 169.832, subdivision 11;.

(d) The maximum weights specified in this subdivision for five consecutive axles shall not apply to a combination of vehicles that includes a three axle semi-trailer first registered before August 1, 1981. All other weight limitations in this section are applicable.

(e) The maximum weights specified in this subdivision for five consecutive axles shall not apply to a four axle ready mix concrete truck which was equipped with a fifth axle prior to June 1, 1981. The maximum gross weight on four or fewer consecutive axles of vehicles excepted by this clause shall not exceed any maximum weight specified for four or fewer consecutive axles in this subdivision.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 169.825, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [GROSS WEIGHT SEASONAL INCREASES.] (a) The limitations provided in this section are increased:

(1) by ten percent from January 1 to March 7 each winter, statewide;

(2) by ten percent from December 1 through December 31 each winter in the zone bounded as follows: beginning at Pigeon River in the northeast corner of Minnesota; thence in a southwesterly direction along the north shore of Lake Superior along Trunk Highway No. 61 to the junction with Trunk Highway No. 210; thence westerly along Trunk Highway No. 210 to the junction with Trunk Highway No. 10; thence northwesterly along Trunk Highway No. 10 to the junction with Trunk Highway No. 59; thence northerly along Trunk Highway No. 59 to the junction with Trunk Highway No. 2; thence westerly along Trunk Highway No. 2 to the junction with Trunk Highway No. 32; thence northerly along Trunk Highway No. 32 to the junction with Trunk Highway No. 11; thence northeast along Trunk Highway No. 11 to the east line of Range 43W to the Minnesota-North Dakota Border; thence northerly along said Border to the Minnesota-Canadian Border; thence easterly along said Border to Lake Superior; and

(3) by ten percent from October 1 through November 30 each year for the movement of sugar beets and potatoes from the field of harvest to the point of first unloading.

(b) The duration of a ten percent increase in load limits is subject to limitation by order of the commissioner, subject to implementation of springtime load restrictions, or March 7.

(c) When the ten percent increase is in effect, a permit is required for a motor vehicle, trailer, or semitrailer combination that has a gross weight in excess of 80,000 pounds, an axle group weight in excess of that prescribed in subdivision 10, or a single axle weight in excess of 20,000 pounds and which travels on interstate routes.

(d) In cases where gross weights in an amount less than that set forth in this section are fixed, limited, or restricted on a highway or bridge by or under another section of this chapter, the lesser gross weight as fixed, limited, or restricted may not be exceeded and must control instead of the gross weights set forth in this section.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this subdivision, no vehicle may exceed a total gross vehicle weight of 80,000 pounds on local and county routes which have not been designated by the commissioner under section 169.832, subdivision 11.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 169.833, is amended to read:

169.833 [ADDITION OF TRUNK HIGHWAYS TO DESIGNATED

ROUTE SYSTEM; PRIORITY LIST.]

Subdivision 1. [PRIORITY LIST PREPARED.] (a) By December 31 of each odd-numbered year beginning in 1985, each highway district must submit to the commissioner its list of identified market arteries and recommended priorities for upgrading. The priority list must be prepared in accordance with this section by the district engineer in consultation with county and city engineers in the district. Each district engineer must hold one or more public meetings on the list and report to the commissioner in detail how the district upgrading priority list reflects testimony received in the public meetings.

(b) In making its priority list each district must consider the priorities of counties, municipalities, regions and adjoining districts. Each district must submit to the commissioner a preliminary list of market arteries identified for upgrading by September 1, 1985.

Subd. 2. [SELECTION OF MARKET ARTERIES.] The district priority list must identify all market arteries and determine those in need of upgrading. Roads considered for identification as market arteries must include roads connecting Minnesota with border states and provinces, roads connecting interstate highways with state trunk highways, and roads connecting trunk highways with one another. In determining the need for upgrading market arteries, the district must consider shippers' needs, community views, road conditions, regional development plans and the plans of adjoining districts. In identifying market arteries and determining the need for upgrading, the district must give priority to roads serving communities without access to rail service or a year-round, ten-ton route.

Subdivision 4 Subd. 3. [IDENTIFICATION OF PROJECTS.] The commissioner shall develop a priority list of trunk highway routes to be added to the system of routes designated under section 169.832 improvements to upgrade market arteries identified in the district priority lists developed under this section. The commissioner shall consult with representatives of the trucking, shipping, and agricultural industries and, local authorities, and regional development commissions in developing the list. A route shall be added to the designated route system after completion of road improvements that provide road strength adequate to carry the permissible weights under section 169.825 or when the commissioner otherwise determines that designation of a route is reasonable. In developing the list the commissioner shall give highest priority to improvements that will eliminate prohibitions or restrictions that interrupt year-round full service on market arteries.

Subd. 2. [FUNDING OF ADDITIONS TO THE SYSTEM.] On July 1 of each year the commissioner of finance shall certify to the commissioner the estimated increase in revenue to the trunk highway fund resulting from the increase in the gasoline and special fuel excise tax under section 296.02. The commissioner shall expend 15 percent of the increase in revenue to the trunk highway fund resulting from the increase in the gasoline and special fuel excise tax under section 296.02 and 15 percent of future increases in gasoline and special fuel excise tax revenues to the trunk highway fund for the purposes of subdivision 1. In the event that actual expenditures during any fiscal year are less or greater than 15 percent when compared to actual revenue the commissioner shall adjust his expenditures for the purpose of subdivision 1 for the following years in order to achieve compliance with this subdivision.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 169.86, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [SEASONAL PERMITS FOR CERTAIN HAULERS.] The commissioner of transportation, upon application in writing therefor, may issue special permits annually to any hauler authorizing the hauler to move vehicles or combinations of vehicles with weights exceeding by not more than ten percent the weight limitations contained in section 169.825, but not exceeding 88,000 pounds gross vehicle weight, on interstate highways during the times and within the zones specified in section 169.825.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 169.86, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1b. [SPECIAL PERMITS.] (a) The commissioner of transportation may issue a permit authorizing a hauler, during the times and under the conditions specified by the commissioner, to move a vehicle or combination of vehicles with a gross vehicle weight not exceeding 88,000 pounds on state trunk highways, if the vehicle or combination of vehicles has six or more axles and all wheels are equipped with brakes. The maximum wheel load on a non-steering axle shall not exceed the lesser of 500 pounds per inch of tire width or the manufacturer's recommended load for the tire used. The maximum gross weight on a group of consecutive axles shall not exceed the limits set in section 169.825, subdivision 10, for any combination of five or fewer axles. The seasonal increases allowed under section 169.825, subdivision 11, do not apply to vehicles operating under a permit issued under this subdivision. The commissioner shall not issue permits under this section if their issuance will result in a loss of federal highway funding to the state.

(b) Before a permit is issued under this subdivision, the applicant must present to the commissioner an inspection report issued by the department of public safety for each vehicle or combination of vehicles. The inspection report must certify that at the time of inspection each loaded vehicle properly distributed the weight as prescribed in section 169.825. The inspection report must also certify that at the time of inspection each vehicle complied with federal bureau of motor carrier safety standards. At the time of inspection, each vehicle or combination of vehicles must be loaded to the requested permitted weight. The inspection report will expire 12 months after the date of inspection. The commissioner shall issue at no charge a 48-hour permit to authorize transportation to and from the point of inspection.

The applicant must pay to the commissioner a permit fee of $200 and an inspection fee of $50 for each vehicle or combination of vehicles that will be operated under the permit. Permit fees must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the trunk highway fund. Inspection fees must be deposited in the trunk highway fund and credited to a special account. Money in the account is appropriated to the commissioner of public safety to administer this subdivision.

(c) The permit and a copy of the inspection report must be carried with each vehicle or combination of vehicles operating under a permit issued under this subdivision and must be displayed on request of any officer empowered to enforce this section. Each vehicle certified for compliance must display an identifying sticker as prescribed by the commissioner.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 169.86, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REQUIRED INFORMATION.] The application for ~~any such a~~ permit shall specifically describe in writing the vehicle or vehicles and loads to be moved and the particular highways for which ~~permit to so use is requested~~, and the period of time for which ~~such a~~ permit is requested.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 169.86, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [FEES.] The commissioner, with respect to highways under his jurisdiction, may charge a fee for each permit issued. All such fees for permits issued by the commissioner of transportation shall be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the trunk highway fund. Except for those annual permits for which the permit fees are specified elsewhere in this chapter, the fees shall be:

(a) $15 for each single trip permit.

(b) $36 for each job permit. A job permit may be issued for like loads carried on a specific route for a period not to exceed two months. "Like loads" means loads of the same product, weight and dimension.

(c) $60 for an annual permit to be issued for a period not to exceed 12 consecutive months. Annual permits may be issued for:

(1) refuse compactor vehicles that carry a gross weight up to but not in excess of 22,000 pounds on a single rear axle and not in excess of 38,000 pounds on a tandem rear axle;

(2) motor vehicles used to alleviate a temporary crisis adversely affecting the safety or well-being of the public;

(3) motor vehicles which travel on interstate highways and carry loads authorized under subdivision 1a;

(4) motor vehicles operating with gross weights authorized under section 169.825, subdivision 11, clause (3).

(d) $120 for an oversize annual permit to be issued for a period not to exceed 12 consecutive months. Annual permits may be issued for:

(1) truck cranes;

(2) construction equipment, machinery, and supplies;

(3) manufactured homes;

(4) farm equipment when the movement is not made according to the provisions of section 169.80, subdivision 1, paragraphs (a) to (f);

(5) double-deck buses;

(6) commercial boat hauling.

(e) For vehicles which have axle weights exceeding the weight limitations of section 169.825, an additional cost added to the fees listed above. The additional cost is equal to the product of the distance traveled times the sum of the overweight axle group cost factors shown in the following chart:

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 169.86, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [SPECIAL PERMIT FOR WESTERN BORDER VEHICLES.] The commissioner may issue a special annual permit for a three-vehicle combination consisting of a truck tractor and two semitrailers. The combination of vehicles may not exceed an overall length, unladen or with load, of 110 feet; a maximum total gross weight of 105,000 pounds; or maximum axle weight restrictions under this chapter. This combination of vehicles may not travel within this state more than 25 miles from the western border of Minnesota, and is limited to four-lane highways and local two-lane roads leading to a terminal within one mile of a four-lane highway. The commissioner may rescind the permit if the condition of the road begins to deteriorate or show signs of damage. The combination of vehicles must not travel within the corporate limits of a home rule, statutory, or charter city unless the governing body of the city approves the travel by resolution.

169.862 [PERMITS FOR WIDE LOADS OF BALED HAY.]

The commissioner of transportation with respect to highways under the commissioner's jurisdiction, and local authorities with respect to highways under their jurisdiction, may issue an annual permit to enable a vehicle carrying round ~~baled hay~~, bales of agricultural products with a total outside width of the vehicle or the load not exceeding 11-1/2 feet, to be operated on public streets and highways. Permits issued under this section are governed by the applicable provisions of section 169.86 except as otherwise provided herein and, in addition, carry the following restrictions:

(a) The vehicles may not be operated between sunset and sunrise, when visibility is impaired by weather, fog, or other conditions rendering persons and vehicles not clearly visible at a distance of 500 feet, or on ~~Saturdays, Sundays, and Sunday from noon until sunset~~, or on the days the following holidays are observed: New Year's day, Memorial day, Independence day, Labor day, Thanksgiving day, and Christmas day.

(b) The vehicles may not be operated on interstate highways.

(c) The vehicles may not be operated on a trunk highway with a pavement less than 24 feet wide.

(d) A vehicle operated under the permit must be equipped with a retractable or removable mirror on the left side so located that it will reflect to the driver a clear view of the highway for a distance of at least 200 feet to the rear of the vehicle. ~~Simultaneous flashing amber lights, as provided in section 169.59, subdivision 4, must be displayed to the front and rear of the vehicle. The flashing amber lights must be lighted only when the width of the load exceeds 102 inches. The flashing amber light system is in addition to and separate from the turn signal system and the hazard warning light system.~~

(e) A vehicle operated under the permit must display red, orange, or yellow flags, ~~±~~ 18 inches square, as markers at the front and rear and on both sides of the load. The load must be securely bound to the transporting vehicle.

The fee for the permit is $24.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 169.87, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [~~OPTIONAL POWER SEASONAL LOAD RESTRICTION.~~] Local authorities, with respect to highways under their jurisdiction, may prohibit the operation of vehicles upon any such highway or impose restrictions as to the weight of vehicles to be operated upon any such highway, whenever any such highway, by reason of deterioration, rain, snow, or other climatic conditions, will be seriously damaged or destroyed unless the use of vehicles thereon is prohibited or the permissible weights thereof reduced.

The local authority enacting any such prohibition or restriction shall erect or cause to be erected and maintained signs plainly indicating the prohibition or restriction at each end of that portion of any highway affected thereby, and the prohibition or restriction shall not be effective unless and until such signs are erected and maintained.

Municipalities, with respect to highways under their jurisdiction, may also, by ordinance, prohibit the operation of trucks or other commercial vehicles, or may impose limitations as to the weight thereof, on designated highways, which prohibitions and limitations shall be designated by appropriate signs placed on such highways.

The commissioner shall likewise have authority, as hereinabove granted to local authorities, to determine and to impose prohibitions or restrictions as to the weight of vehicles operated upon any highway under the jurisdiction of the commissioner, and, except as provided in this subdivision, such restrictions shall be effective when signs giving notice thereof are erected upon the highway or portion of any highway affected by such action.

~~When a local authority petitions the commissioner to establish a truck route for travel into, through, or out of the territory under its jurisdiction, the commissioner shall investigate the matter. If the commissioner determines from his investigation that the operation of trucks into, through, or out of the territory involves unusual hazards because of any or all of the following factors; load carried; type of truck used; or topographic or weather conditions; the commissioner may make his order designating certain highways under his jurisdiction as truck routes into, through, or out of such territory. When these highways have been marked as truck routes pursuant to the order, trucks traveling into, through, or out of the territory shall comply with the order. The commissioner shall propose the prohibitions and restrictions and publish them in the qualified legal newspaper of each affected county by November 1 of each year. The commissioner shall, within ten days of the publication, notify the county auditor of each affected county, by mail, of the proposed prohibitions and restrictions. The commissioner may impose restrictions that are not proposed by November 1 only in cases of unanticipated road damage so severe as to warrant immediate emergency action. Emergency road restrictions are not subject to the meeting requirement.~~

If a meeting is requested by the county board of one or more counties in which the proposed prohibition or restriction is effective, a proposed prohibition or restriction may not be posted and does not become effective unless the commissioner holds a public meeting. Notice of the meeting must be published in the qualified legal newspaper of the county. The commissioner or his designee shall hold a public meeting in the affected county and shall determine whether the adverse economic impact of the prohibition or restriction on the affected communities is so severe that the prohibition or restriction must be modified or suspended. If more than one county board requests a meeting on a single proposed prohibition or restriction the commissioner may hold one consolidated meeting on the proposal.

A county board may request a meeting only if it determines that the proposed prohibition or restriction would adversely affect one or more communities in the county by denying it all access to unrestricted routes.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 169.87, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [TRUCK ROUTES.] When a local authority petitions the commissioner to establish a truck route for travel into, through, or out of the territory under its jurisdiction, the commissioner shall investigate the matter. The commissioner may designate by order certain highways under his or her jurisdiction as truck routes into, through, or out of a territory if the commissioner determines from investigation that the operation of trucks into, through, or out of the territory involves unusual hazards because of any or all of the following factors: load carried, type of truck used, or topographic or weather conditions. When these highways have been marked as truck routes pursuant to the order, trucks traveling into, through, or out of the territory shall comply with the order.

Sec. 16. [COMPLEMENT.]

The approved complement of the department of public safety is increased by three trooper positions. If the number of inspections under section 9 in either year of the biennium ending June 30, 1987, exceeds 5,000, the approved complement of the department of public safety is increased as follows: to four trooper positions if the number of inspections is greater than 5,000 and less than 6,501, to five trooper positions if the number of inspections is greater than 6,500 and less than 8,000, and to six trooper positions if the number of inspections is 8,000 or greater."

453.51 [INTENT.]

Sections 453.51 to 453.62 are intended to provide a means for those Minnesota cities which now or hereafter own and operate a utility pursuant to law for the local distribution of electric energy to secure, by individual or joint action among themselves or by contract with other public or private entities within or outside the state, an adequate, economical, and reliable supply of energy. It is also the purpose of sections 453.51 to 453.62 to provide a means for Minnesota cities to construct and operate hydroelectric generating plants. To accomplish this purpose these purposes it is necessary for such cities to have power, by agreement between or among two or more of their number, to create a separate municipal corporation with the power and authority to finance and acquire facilities for the generation or transmission of electric energy, or interests in such facilities or rights to part of all of the capacity thereof. It is determined that an adequate, economical, and reliable supply of electric energy is essential to the orderly growth and prosperity of these communities, and a shortage of such energy is inimical to the safety, health, morale, and welfare of residents of the state and to the sound growth and developments of its communities. Such a shortage exists and is expected to continue or increase because of the difficulty, among others, in the operation of municipal generating plants, of achieving economies of size, limiting environmental impacts, and providing for peak loads. Accordingly it is determined that the exercise of the powers granted herein will benefit the people of the state and serve a valid public purpose in improving and otherwise promoting their health, welfare, and prosperity.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 453.54, subdivision 15, is amended to read:

Subd. 15. It may contract with any person, within or outside the state, for the construction of any project or for the sale, with or without advertising for bids, or transmission of electric energy generated by any project, or for any interest therein or any right to capacity thereof, on such terms and for such period of time as its board of directors determines.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 453.58, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [NO TAXATION OF PROPERTY.] Notwithstanding anything in sections 453.51 to 453.62 to the contrary, a city, by the exercise of any or all of the powers granted in sections 453.51 to 453.62, is not subject to any duty under section 453.54, subdivision 20, to pay amounts in lieu of taxes on any of its property. The sale or distribution of electric energy to private persons shall not cause a project to be treated as not used exclusively for a public purpose.

Sec. 43. [INTERPRETATION.]

Section 453.58, subdivision 4, is adopted to clarify the powers intended to be granted to cities under Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 453.58, and the consequences thereof, is remedial in character, and applies to all property heretofore or hereafter acquired through the exercise of any of the powers of Minnesota Statutes, sections 453.51 to 453.62.

Sec. 44. [AUTHORIZATION.]

The city of Hastings, acting through its governing body, may exercise any or all of the powers granted in Minnesota Statutes, sections 453.51 to 453.62, with respect to a hydroelectric generating plant within its boundaries, whether or not electricity generated at the plant is distributed locally. The provisions of Minnesota Statutes, section 453.54, subdivision 20, shall not apply to the hydroelectric generating plant. The hydroelectric generating plant may be acquired and constructed without advertising for bids, preparing final plans and specifications in advance of construction or acquisition.

Sec. 45. [FINDING.]

electric generating plant referred to in section 44 constitutes public property used exclusively for a public purpose."

Subd. 2. [EVIDENCE.] Upon the trial of any prosecution arising out of acts alleged to have been committed by any person arrested for driving, operating, or being in physical control of a motor vehicle in violation of subdivision 1, the court may admit evidence of the amount of alcohol or a controlled substance in the person's blood, breath, or urine as shown by an analysis of those items.

For the purposes of this subdivision:

(a) evidence that there was at the time an alcohol concentration of 0.05 or less is prima facie evidence that the person was not under the influence of alcohol;

(b) evidence that there was at the time an alcohol concentration of more than 0.05 and less than 0.10 is relevant evidence in indicating whether or not the person was under the influence of alcohol.

Evidence of the refusal to take a test is admissible into evidence in a prosecution under this section or an ordinance in conformity with it.

If proven by a preponderance of the evidence, it shall be an affirmative defense to a violation of subdivision 1, clause (e) that the defendant consumed a sufficient quantity of alcohol after the time of actual driving, operating, or physical control of a motor vehicle and before the administration of the evidentiary test to cause the defendant's alcohol concentration to exceed 0.10. Provided, that this evidence may not be admitted unless notice is given to the prosecution prior to the omnibus or pretrial hearing in the matter.

The foregoing provisions do not limit the introduction of any other competent evidence bearing upon the question whether or not the person was under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance, including tests obtained more than two hours after the alleged violation and results obtained from partial tests on an infrared breath-testing instrument. A result from a partial test is the measurement obtained by analyzing one adequate breath sample, as defined in section 169.123, subdivision 2b, paragraph (b)."

(2) contract for consultant or other services necessary to carry out the board's duties under sections 5 to 17;

(3) grant reasonable partial compensation on an emergency basis pending the final decision on a claim, subject to the adoption of rules by the board, if the claim is one with respect to which an award will probably be made and undue hardship will result to the claimant if immediate payment is not made;

(4) limit access to information collected and maintained by the board and take any other action necessary to protect privileged or confidential information.

Subd. 3. [INVESTIGATION; OBTAINING INFORMATION.] The board may investigate any claim for compensation and for this purpose it may request from any person information regarding any matter, fact, or circumstance which is relevant to deciding the claim. In order to obtain this information the board, subject to any applicable privilege, may:

(a) request any person to produce documents, papers, books, or other tangible things in his possession, custody, or control;

(b) request the sworn testimony of any person as to any relevant fact or opinion;

(c) direct written questions to any person and request written answers and objections; and

(d) request a mental or physical examination or autopsy of the claimant.

The board shall give written notice of any request under this subdivision at least 15 days before the person is expected to comply with the request. If any person fails or refuses to comply with the request, the board may apply to a district court for an order to compel compliance with the request. The district court shall issue the order upon a showing of cause by the board, subject to applicable protective provisions of the rules of civil procedure.

Subd. 4. [ADMINISTRATIVE PERSONNEL AND SERVICES.] The commissioner of health shall provide staff assistance, administrative services, and office space under a contract with the board. and may assign agency or institution employees to assist the board in performing its duties under sections 5 to 17.

Sec. 9. [115B.29] [ELIGIBLE INJURY AND PROPERTY DAMAGE.]

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBLE PERSONAL INJURY.] (a) A personal injury is eligible for compensation from the fund if it is a medically verified injury, including a chronic or acute disease or death, which is related to exposure to a hazardous substance released from a site where the substance was deposited. An eligible personal injury includes but is not limited to cancer, genetic mutations, behavioral abnormalities, physiological malfunctions, and physical deformations.

(b) A personal injury is not eligible for compensation from the fund if:

(1) the exposure took place outside the geographical boundaries of the state;

(2) the injury is one that is compensable under the workers compensation law, chapter 176;

(3) the injury arises out of the ordinary use of a consumer product; or

(4) it is the result of the release of a hazardous substance for which the injured or damaged party is a responsible person.

Subd. 2. [ELIGIBLE PROPERTY DAMAGE.] Damage to real property owned by the claimant is eligible for compensation from the fund if the damage results from the presence in or on the property of a hazardous substance released from a site where the substance was deposited. Damage to property is not eligible for compensation from the fund if it results from the release of a hazardous substance for which the claimant is a responsible person.

Subd. 3. [TIME FOR FILING CLAIM.] A claim is not eligible for compensation from the fund unless it is filed with the board within the time provided in this subdivision.

(a) A claim for compensation for personal injury must be filed within two years after the injury and its connection to exposure to a hazardous substance has been discovered.

(b) A claim for compensation for property damage must be filed within two years after the damage occurred.

Notwithstanding the provisions of this subdivision, claims for compensation that would otherwise be barred by the passage of time may be filed not later than January 1, 1988.

Sec. 10. [115B.30] [OTHER ACTIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SUBSEQUENT ACTION PROHIBITED IN CERTAIN CASES.] A person who has filed a claim with the fund for a compensable injury, and who has received and accepted an award from the board, is precluded from bringing an action in court for the same compensable injury. The findings and decision of the board are inadmissible in any court action.

In any action brought under this section to recover damages for wrongful death, personal injury or disease, or property damage arising out of the release of a hazardous substance, the total fees charged by all attorneys representing the plaintiff shall not exceed 15 percent of the amount awarded to the plaintiff by the court.

Subd. 2. [SUBROGATION BY STATE.] The state is subrogated to all the claimant's rights under statutory or common law to recover losses compensated from the fund from other sources, including responsible persons as defined in section 115B.03. The state may bring a subrogation action in its own name or in the name of the claimant. Money recovered by the state under this subdivision must be deposited in the fund.

Subd. 3. [SIMULTANEOUS CLAIM AND COURT ACTION PROHIBITED.] A claimant may not commence a court action to recover for any injury or damage for which the claimant seeks compensation from the fund during the time that a claim is pending before the board. A person may not file a claim with the board for compensation for any injury or damage for which the claimant seeks to recover in a pending court action. The time for filing a claim under section 9 or the statute of limitations for any civil action is suspended during the period of time that a claimant is precluded from filing a claim or commencing an action under this subdivision.

Sec. 11. [115B.31] [CLAIM FOR COMPENSATION.]

Subdivision 1. [FORM.] A claim for compensation from the fund must be filed with the board in the form required by the board. When a claim does not include all of the information required by subdivision 2 and applicable board rules, board staff shall notify a claimant of the absence of required information within 14 days of the filing of the claim. All required information must be received by the board not later than 60 days after the claimant received notice of its absence or the claim will be inactivated and may not be resubmitted for at least one year following the date of inactivation. The board may decide not to inactivate a claim under this subdivision if it finds serious extenuating circumstances.

Subd. 2. [REQUIRED INFORMATION.] A claimant must provide as part of the claim:

(1) a sworn verification by the claimant of the facts set forth in the claim to the best of the claimant's knowledge;

(2) evidence of the claimant's exposure to a named hazardous substance;

(3) evidence that the exposure experienced by the claimant causes or significantly contributes to injury of the type suffered by the claimant, except when the claim is based on an earlier decision of the board as provided in section 12, subdivision 3;

(4) evidence of the injury eligible for compensation suffered by the claimant and the compensable losses resulting from the injury;

(5) evidence of any property damage eligible for compensation and the amount of compensable losses resulting from the damage;

(6) information regarding any collateral sources of compensation; and

(7) other information required by the rules of the board.

Subd. 3. [DEATH CLAIMS.] In any case in which death is claimed as a compensable injury, the claim may be brought on behalf of the claimant by the individuals eligible for death benefits and by the claimant's estate for compensable medical expenses.

Sec. 12. [115B.32] [DETERMINATION OF CLAIM.]

Subdivision 1. [STANDARD FOR PERSONAL INJURY.] The board shall grant compensation to a claimant who shows that it is more likely than not that:

(1) the claimant suffers a medically verified injury that is eligible for compensation from the fund and that has resulted in a compensable loss;

(2) the claimant has been exposed to a hazardous substance in an amount and duration sufficient to cause or significantly contribute to injury of the type suffered by claimant; and

(3) the exposure of the claimant could reasonably have resulted from the release of the hazardous substance from an identified site where the substance was deposited.

Subd. 2. [STANDARD FOR PROPERTY DAMAGE.] The board shall grant compensation to a claimant who shows that it is more likely than not that:

(1) the claimant has suffered property damage that is eligible for compensation and that has resulted in compensable loss; and

(2) the presence of the hazardous substance in or on the property could reasonably have resulted from the release of the hazardous substance from an identified site where the substance was deposited.

Subd. 3. [EFFECT OF PRIOR DECISION; EXCEPTION.] (a) Except as provided in this subdivision, the board may not rely on an earlier decision granting or denying compensation as dispositive of any later claim.

(b) If the board finds that exposure to a particular hazardous substance in a particular amount, duration, and location causes or significantly contributes to an injury of the type suffered by a claimant, it may rely on that finding as dispositive of any future claim by another claimant who shows that it is more likely than not that he or she suffered the same type of injury and was exposed to the same hazardous substance in substantially the same amount, duration, and location.

Sec. 13. [115B.33] [COMPENSABLE LOSSES.]

Subdivision 1. [PERSONAL INJURY LOSSES.] Losses compensable by the fund for personal injury are limited to:

(a) medical expenses directly related to the claimant's injury;

(b) up to two-thirds of the claimant's lost wages not to exceed $2,000 per month or $24,000 per year;

(c) up to two-thirds of a self-employed claimant's lost income, not to exceed $2,000 per month or $24,000 per year;

(d) death benefits to dependents as follows:

(1) to a spouse with no dependent children, a sum equal to the deceased claimant's lost wages or lost income, calculated on a monthly basis not to exceed $2,000 per month, multiplied by 60 months;

(2) to a spouse with three or fewer dependent children, a sum equal to two-thirds of the deceased claimant's lost wages or lost income, calculated on a monthly basis not to exceed $2,000 per month, multiplied by the number of months remaining until the youngest dependent child attains the age of 18;

(3) to a spouse with four or more dependent children, a sum equal to three-fourths of the deceased claimant's lost wages or lost income, calculated on a monthly basis not to exceed $2,000 per month, multiplied by the number of months remaining until the youngest dependent child attains the age of 18;

(4) to three or fewer dependent children when there is no surviving spouse, an amount as calculated in clause (2) but using one-half of the deceased claimant's lost wages or lost income as the base for the calculation;

(5) to four or more dependent children when there is no surviving spouse, an amount as calculated in clause (3) but using two-thirds of the deceased claimant's lost wages or lost income as the base for the calculation; and

(6) to any other individual who can show dependence on the deceased claimant, an amount equal to the amount of actual average monthly contribution made by the claimant to that individual prior to his or her inability to contribute or one-fourth of the deceased claimant's lost wages or lost income, calculated on a monthly basis not to exceed $2,000 per month, whichever is less, multiplied by 36 months. A person who cannot show actual dependence on the deceased claimant may not recover death benefits. For the purposes of all the provisions in clause (d), lost wages includes the value of lost household labor; and

(e) the value of household labor lost due to the claimant's injury or disease not to exceed $2,000 per month or $24,000 per year.

Subd. 2. [PROPERTY DAMAGE LOSSES.] (a) Losses compensable by the fund for property damage are limited to the following loss caused by damage to the principal residence of the claimant:

(1) the reasonable cost of replacing or decontaminating the primary source of drinking water for the property to the extent actually expended by the claimant or assessed by a local taxing authority, if the department of health has determined that the water is contaminated or has included the property in a well advisory area and has certified that the replacement or decontamination of the source of drinking water effectively has or will eliminate the contamination, up to a maximum of $25,000; and

(2) losses incurred as a result of a sale of the property at less than the appraised market value under circumstances that constitute a hardship to the owner, limited to 75 percent of the difference between the appraised market value and the selling price, but not to exceed $25,000.

(b) For purposes of paragraph (a), the following definitions apply:

(1) "appraised market value" means an appraisal of the market value of the property disregarding any decrease in value caused by the presence of a hazardous substance in or on the property; and

(2) "hardship" means an urgent need to sell the property based on a special circumstance of the owner including catastrophic medical expenses, inability of the owner to maintain the property due to a physical or mental condition, and change of employment of the owner or other member of the owner's household requiring the owner to move to a different location.

(c) Appraisals are subject to board approval. The board may adopt rules governing approval of appraisals, criteria for establishing a hardship, and other matters necessary to administer this subdivision.

Sec. 14. [115B.34] [DETERMINATION OF CLAIMS.]

Subdivision 1. [ASSIGNMENT OF CLAIMS.] The chairman of the board shall assign each claim that has been accepted for filing to a member of the board.

Subd. 2. [PRELIMINARY DECISION.] The board member to whom the claim is assigned shall review all materials filed in support of the claim and may cause an investigation to be conducted into the validity of the claim. The board member may make a preliminary decision on the basis of the papers filed in support of the claim and the report of any investigation of it. The decision must be in writing and include the reasons for the decision.

Subd. 3. [CIRCULATION OF PRELIMINARY DECISION.] Copies of the preliminary decision made under subdivision 2 must be circulated to the other two board members as soon as practicable. On receipt of the preliminary decision, the other two members have 20 days to challenge it by written notice to the member who made the decision. If neither member challenges the preliminary decision, a copy must be sent to the claimant who may challenge the decision by written notice to the board within 30 days of receipt of the decision. If no notice is received within the required time, the preliminary decision becomes a final decision of the board.

Subd. 4. [CHALLENGES.] If a board member or a claimant challenges a preliminary decision made pursuant to subdivision 2, the full board shall order the claimant to appear before the board. The appearance is not a contested case hearing under chapter 14. The claimant may produce further evidence to support the claim, including books, studies, reports, and any other written material and oral testimony of witnesses, including experts. The board members may ask questions of the claimant and any witnesses presented by the claimant. After the appearance, the board shall make a final decision on the claim as soon as practicable. The decision must be in writing and include the reasons for the decision. A copy of each final decision must be sent to the claimant, including, for a claim that is granted, an explanation of the form in which the claim will be paid.

Subd. 5. [RECORD.] Any appearance by a claimant or witnesses must be tape recorded but a formal record pursuant to chapter 14 is not required.

Sec. 15. [115B.35] [AMOUNT AND FORM OF PAYMENT.]

If the board decides to grant compensation, it shall determine the net uncompensated loss payable to the claimant by computing the total amount of compensable losses payable to the claimant and subtracting the total amount of any compensation received by the claimant for the same injury or damage from other sources including, but not limited to, all forms of insurance and social security and any emergency award made by the board. The board shall pay compensation in the amount of the net uncompensated loss, provided that no claimant may receive more than $250,000.

Compensation from the fund may be awarded in a lump sum or in installments at the discretion of the board.

Sec. 16. [115B.36] [ATTORNEY FEES.]

The board may by rule limit the fee charged by any attorney for representing a claimant before the board.

Sec. 17. [115B.37] [PARTIAL RECOUPMENT.]

At the end of each fiscal year, the board shall certify to the commissioner of revenue the amount expended from the fund to compensate persons injured by hazardous substances less amounts recovered under subrogation claims under section 10. The commissioner of revenue shall compute the rate of a surtax to be added to the hazardous waste generator tax in section 115B.22 which, collected over the next calendar year, will recoup 50 percent of the expenditures made from the fund during the previous fiscal year in excess of the subrogation claims recovered. The computation by the commissioner of the rate in this section shall not be considered a rule and shall not be subject to the administrative procedure act contained in chapter 14. The surtax is imposed effective January 1, 1987. Surtaxes collected under this section must be deposited in the fund.

Sec. 18. [APPROPRIATION.]

$2,000,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the hazardous substance injury compensation fund, to be available until expended. Up to $250,000 of this appropriation may be used for staff assistance, administrative services, and office space."

The commissioner may make rules which exclude or limit the participation of nonmanufacturing business, including third-party lessors, jobbers, manufacturers' representatives, and others from eligibility under sections 16B.19 to 16B.22.

The commissioner may adopt rules to establish a preference program whereby businesses owned and operated by socially and economically disadvantaged persons would be allowed a five percent preference in the bid amount on selected state procurements or a preference program whereby businesses owned and operated by socially and economically disadvantaged persons would be awarded any state procurement if the business could meet the low bid amount for that procurement. Each of the preference programs is applicable to no more than 1.5 percent of the value of anticipated total state procurements of goods and services, including construction. Each preference program established by the commissioner expires on June 30, 1986, and the commissioner shall report to the legislature on the progress of the program by January 1, 1986.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 645.445, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. "Socially or economically disadvantaged person" means a person who has been deprived of the opportunity to develop and maintain a competitive position in the economy because of social or economic conditions. This disadvantage may arise from cultural, social or economic circumstances, or background, physical location if the person resides or is employed in an area designated a labor surplus area by the United States department of labor, or other similar cause. It includes racial minorities, women, or persons who have suffered a substantial physical disability. For purposes of sections 16B.19 to 16B.22, the definition of "socially or economically disadvantaged person" includes sheltered workshops and work activity programs.

Sec. 9. [PREFERENCE PROGRAM STUDY.]

The commissioner shall prepare a report that examines the short-term and long-term effects of the preference bidding process on each category of businesses owned and operated by economically or socially disadvantaged persons. This report shall be submitted to the governor and the legislature by February 15, 1986.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 238.01, is amended to read:

238.01 [DECLARATION OF LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS AND INTENT.]

Upon investigation of the public interest associated with cable communications, the legislature of the state of Minnesota has determined that while cable communications serve in part as an extension of interstate broadcasting, that their operations also involve public rights-of-way, municipal franchising, and vital business and community service, which are of state concern; that while said operations must be subject to state oversight, they also must be protected from undue restraint and regulation so as to assure development of cable systems with optimum technology and maximum penetration in this state as rapidly as economically and technically feasible; that the municipalities and the state would benefit from valuable educational and public services through cable communications systems; that the cable communications industry must provide the opportunity for minority participation and benefit which its diversity promises; that the public and the business community would benefit if served by cable channels sufficient to meet the needs of producers and distributors of program and other communication content services; that the cable communications industry is in a period of rapid growth and corporate consolidation and should proceed in accord with regional and statewide service objectives; that these objectives should encourage area-wide service where consistent with the public interest and discourage concentration of control and ownership when not in the public interest; and that many municipalities lack the necessary resources and expertise to plan for and secure these benefits and to protect subscribers and other parties to the public interest in franchise negotiations.

There is, therefore, a need for a state agency to develop a state cable communications policy; to promote the rapid development of the cable communications industry responsive to community and public interest and consonant with policies, regulations and statutes of the federal government; to assure that cable communications companies provide adequate, economical and efficient service to their subscribers, the municipalities within which they are franchised and other parties to the public interest; to encourage the endeavors of public and private institutions, municipalities, associations and organizations in developing programming for public interest; and to provide minorities with the fullest opportunity to make effective use of the medium.

It is the intent of the legislature in ~~sections 238.01 to 238.17~~ this chapter to ~~vest authority in a board~~ to oversee development of the cable communications industry in Minnesota in accordance with the statewide service plan; to review the suitability to practices for franchising cable communications companies to protect the public interest; to set standards for cable communications systems and franchise practices; to assure channel availability for municipal services, educational television, program diversity, local expression and other program and communications content services; to assure that municipal franchising results in communication across metropolitan areas and in neighborhood communities in larger municipalities; to provide ~~consultant services~~ guidance to community organizations and municipalities in franchise negotiations; and, to stimulate the development of diverse instructional, educational, community interest and public affairs programming with full access thereto by cable communications companies, educational broadcasters and public and private institutions operating closed circuit television systems and instructional television fixed services.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 238.02, subdivision 14, is amended to read:

Subd. 14. "Core service unit" shall mean the municipality, or, in the case of a joint powers agreement, municipalities, in which a cable communications system first provides service under a lawful franchise and from which the cable communications system extends service into additional areas which are included in the boundaries of a cable service territory ~~approved by the board.~~

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 238.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 17. [CLASS A CABLE SYSTEMS.] "Class A cable systems" means systems that are located outside of the metropolitan area, are located in a franchise area having a population of 4,000 or fewer persons, and are serving fewer than 1,000 subscribers.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 238.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 18. [CLASS B CABLE SYSTEMS.] "Class B cable systems" means all systems, except those systems meeting the criteria of the class A system, that are located outside of the metropolitan area, are located in a franchise area having a population of fewer than 15,000 persons, and are serving fewer than 3,500 subscribers.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 238.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 19. [CLASS C CABLE SYSTEMS.] "Class C cable systems" means systems that are located in the metropolitan area, or are located in a franchise area having a population of 15,000 or more persons or serving 3,500 or more subscribers.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 238.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 20. [METROPOLITAN AREA.] "Metropolitan area" is that area defined under section 473.121, subdivision 2.

238.03 [APPLICATION.]

~~Sections 238.04 to 238.17 apply~~ This chapter applies to every cable communications system and every cable communications company as defined in section 238.02, operating within the state, including a cable communications company which constructs, operates and maintains a cable communications

Subd. 6. [PUBLIC HEARING ON FRANCHISE.] A public hearing before the franchising authority affording reasonable notice and a reasonable opportunity to be heard with respect to all applications for the franchise must be completed at least seven days before the introduction of the franchise ordinance in the proceedings of the franchising authority.

Subd. 7. [AWARD OF FRANCHISE.] Franchises may be awarded only by ordinance.

Subd. 8. [COSTS OF AWARDING FRANCHISE.] Nothing in this section prohibits a franchising authority from recovering from a successful applicant the reasonable and necessary costs of the entire process of awarding the cable communications franchise.

Subd. 9. [FRANCHISING NONPROFIT OR MUNICIPALLY-OWNED SYSTEM.] Nothing contained in this section prohibits a franchising authority from franchising a nonprofit or municipally-owned system. The municipality or nonprofit entity is considered an applicant for purposes of this section.

Subd. 10. [FRANCHISE; JOINT POWERS.] In the cases of municipalities acting in concert, the municipalities may delegate to another entity such duties, responsibilities, privileges, or activities described in this section, if such delegation is proper according to state and local law.

Subd. 2. [WRITTEN APPROVAL OF FRANCHISING AUTHORITY.] A sale or transfer of a franchise, including a sale or transfer by means of a fundamental corporate change, requires the written approval of the franchising authority. The parties to the sale or transfer of a franchise shall make a written request to the franchising authority for its approval of the sale or transfer. The franchising authority shall reply in writing within 30 days of the request and shall indicate its approval of the request or its determination that a public hearing is necessary if it determines that a sale or transfer of a franchise may adversely affect the company's subscribers. The franchising authority shall conduct a public hearing on the request within 30 days of that determination.

Subd. 3. [NOTICE OF HEARING.] Unless otherwise already provided for by local law, notice of the hearing must be given 14 days before the hearing by publishing notice of it once in a newspaper of general circulation in the area being served by the franchise. The notice must contain the date, time, and place of the hearing and must briefly state the substance of the action to be considered by the franchising authority.

Subd. 4. [APPROVAL OR DENIAL OF SALE OR TRANSFER REQUEST.] Within 30 days after the public hearing, the franchising authority shall approve or deny in writing the sale or transfer request. The approval must not be unreasonably withheld.

Subd. 5. [SALE OR TRANSFER OF FRANCHISE WITHOUT SYSTEM.] The parties to the sale or transfer of a franchise only, without the inclusion of a cable communications system in which at least substantial construction has commenced, shall establish that the sale or transfer of only the franchise will be in the public interest.

Subd. 6. [SALE OR TRANSFER OF STOCK.] Sale or transfer of stock in a corporation so as to create a new controlling interest in a cable communication system is subject to the requirements of this section.

The term "controlling interest" as used herein is not limited to majority stock ownership, but includes actual working control in whatever manner exercised.

Sec. 23. [238.084] [REQUIRED CONTENTS OF FRANCHISE ORDINANCE.]

Subdivision 1. [ALL SYSTEMS.] The following requirements apply to all classes A, B, and C systems unless provided otherwise:

(d) a provision specifying that the franchise is nonexclusive;

(e) a provision prohibiting sale or transfer of the franchise or sale or transfer of stock so as to create a new controlling interest under section 22, except at the approval of the franchising authority, which approval must not be unreasonably withheld, and that the sale or transfer is completed pursuant to section 22;

(f) a provision granting the franchising authority collecting a franchise fee the authority to audit the franchisee's accounting and financial records upon reasonable notice, and requiring that the franchisee file with the franchising authority annually reports of gross subscriber revenues and other informa-

(2) the length and terms of residential subscriber contracts, if they exist, or that the current length and terms of residential subscriber contracts are available for public inspection in the municipality; and

(3) the procedure by which subscriber charges are established, unless such a provision is contrary to state or federal law;

(h) a provision indicating by title the office or officer of the franchising authority that is responsible for the continuing administration of the franchise;

(i) a provision requiring the franchisee to indemnify and hold harmless the franchising authority during the term of the franchise, and to maintain throughout the term of the franchise, liability insurance in an amount as the franchising authority may require insuring both the franchising authority and the franchisee with regard to damages and penalties which they may legally be required to pay as a result of the exercise of the franchise;

(j) a provision that at the time the franchise becomes effective and thereafter until the franchisee has liquidated all of its obligation with the franchising authority, the franchisee shall furnish a performance bond, certificate of deposit, or other type of instrument approved by the franchising authority in an amount as the franchising authority deems to be adequate compensation for damages resulting from the franchisee's nonperformance. The franchising authority may, from year to year and in its sole discretion, reduce the amount of the performance bond or instrument;

(k) a provision that nothing contained in the franchise relieves a person from liability arising out of the failure to exercise reasonable care to avoid injuring the franchisee's facilities while performing work connected with grading, regrading, or changing the line of a street or public place or with the construction or reconstruction of a sewer or water system;

(l) a provision that the franchisee's technical ability, financial condition, and legal qualification were considered and approved by the franchising authority in a full public proceeding that afforded reasonable notice and a reasonable opportunity to be heard;

(m) a provision requiring the construction of a cable system with a channel capacity available for immediate or potential use, equal to a minimum of 72 MHz of bandwidth, the equivalent of 12 television broadcast channels. For purposes of this section, a cable system with a channel capacity, available for immediate or potential use, equal to a minimum of 72 MHz of bandwidth means: the provision of a distribution system designed and constructed so that a minimum of 72 MHz of bandwidth, the equivalent of 12 television broadcast channels, can be put into use with only the addition of the appropriate headend equipment;

(n) a provision in initial franchises that there be a full description of the system proposed for construction and a schedule showing:

(1) that for franchise areas which will be served by a system proposed to have fewer than 100 plant miles of cable:

(i) that within 90 days of the granting of the franchise, the franchisee shall apply for the necessary governmental permits, licenses, certificates, and authorizations;

(ii) that energized trunk cable must be extended substantially throughout the authorized area within one year after receipt of the necessary governmental permits, licenses, certificates, and authorizations and that persons along the route of the energized cable will have individual "drops" as desired during the same period of time; and

(iii) that the requirement of this section may be waived by the franchising authority only upon occurrence of unforeseen events or acts of God; or

(2) that for franchise areas which will be served by a system proposed to have 100 plant miles of cable or more, a provision:

(i) that within 90 days of the granting of the franchise, the franchisee shall apply for the necessary governmental permits, licenses, certificates, and authorizations;

(ii) that engineering and design must be completed within one year after the granting of the franchise and that a significant amount of construction must be completed within one year after the franchisee's receipt of the necessary governmental permits, licenses, certificates, and authorizations;

(iii) that energized trunk cable must be extended substantially throughout the authorized area within five years after commencement of construction and that persons along the route of the energized cable will have individual "drops" within the same period of time, if desired; and

(iv) that the requirement of this section be waived by the franchising authority only upon occurrence of unforeseen events or acts of God;

(o) unless otherwise already provided for by local law, a provision that the franchisee shall obtain a permit from the proper municipal authority before commencing construction of a cable communications system, including the opening or disturbance of a street, sidewalk, driveway, or public place. The provision must specify remedies available to the franchising authority in cases where the franchisee fails to meet the conditions of the permit;

(p) unless otherwise already provided for by local law, a provision that wires, conduits, cable, and other property and facilities of the franchisee be located, constructed, installed, and maintained in compliance with applicable codes. The provision must also specify that the franchisee keep and maintain its property so as not to unnecessarily interfere with the usual and customary trade, traffic, or travel upon the streets and public places of the franchise area or endanger the life or property of any person;

(q) unless otherwise already provided for by local law, a provision that the franchising authority and the franchisee shall establish a procedure in the franchise for the relocation or removal of the franchisee's wires, conduits, cables, and other property located in the street, right-of-way, or public place whenever the franchising authority undertakes public improvements which affect the cable equipment;

(r) a provision incorporating by reference as a minimum the technical standards promulgated by the Federal Communications Commission relating to cable communications systems contained in subpart K of part 76 of the Federal Communications Commission's rules and regulations relating to cable communications systems and found in Code of Federal Regulations, title 47, sections 76.601 to 76.617. (s) a provision establishing how the franchising authority and the cable communications company shall determine who is to bear the costs of required special testing;

(t) a provision pertaining to the franchisee's construction and maintenance of a cable communications system having the technical capacity for nonvoice return communications which, for purposes of this section, means the provision of appropriate system design techniques with the installation of cable and amplifiers suitable for the subsequent insertion of necessary nonvoice communications electronic modules.

In cases where an initial franchise is granted, the franchisee shall provide a cable communications system having the technical capacity for nonvoice return communications.

When a franchise is renewed, sold, or transferred and is served by a system that does not have the technical capacity for nonvoice return communications, the franchising authority shall determine when and if the technical capacity for nonvoice return communications is needed after appropriate public proceedings at the municipal level giving reasonable notice and a reasonable opportunity to be heard;

(u) a provision stating that no signals of a class IV cable communications channel may be transmitted from a subscriber terminal for purposes of monitoring individual viewing patterns or practices without the express written permission of the subscriber. The request for permission must be contained in a separate document with a prominent statement that the subscriber is authorizing the permission in full knowledge of its provisions. The written permission must be for a limited period of time not to exceed one year which is renewable at the option of the subscriber. No penalty may be invoked for a subscriber's failure to provide or renew the authorization. The authorization is revocable at any time by the subscriber without penalty of any kind. The permission must be required for each type or classification of class IV cable communications activity planned for the purpose;

(1) No information or data obtained by monitoring transmission of a signal from a subscriber terminal, including but not limited to lists of the names and addresses of the subscribers or lists that identify the viewing habits of subscribers, may be sold or otherwise made available to any party other than to the company and its employees for internal business use, or to the subscriber who is the subject of that information, unless the company has received specific written authorization from the subscriber to make the data available;

(2) Written permission from the subscriber must not be required for the systems conducting systemwide or individually addressed electronic sweeps for the purpose of verifying system integrity or monitoring for the purpose of billing. Confidentiality of this information is subject to clause (1);

(3) For purposes of this provision, a "class IV cable communications channel" means a signaling path provided by a cable communications system to transmit signals of any type from a subscriber terminal to another point in the communications system;

(v) a provision specifying the procedure for the investigation and resolution by the franchisee of complaints regarding quality of service, equipment malfunction, billing disputes, and other matters;

(w) a provision requiring that at least a toll-free or collect telephone number for the reception of complaints be provided to the subscriber and that the franchisee maintain a repair service capable of responding to subscriber complaints or requests for service within 24 hours after receipt of the complaint or request. The provision must also state who will bear the costs included in making these repairs, adjustments, or installations;

(x) a provision granting the franchising authority the right to terminate and cancel the franchise and the rights and privileges of the franchise if the franchisee substantially violates a provision of the franchise ordinance, attempts to evade the provisions of the franchise ordinance, or practices fraud or deceit upon the franchising authority.

The municipality shall provide the franchisee with a written notice of the cause for termination and its intention to terminate the franchise and shall allow the franchisee a minimum of 30 days after service of the notice in which to correct the violation.

The franchisee must be provided with an opportunity to be heard at a public hearing before the governing body of the municipality before the termination of the franchise;

(y) a provision that no cable communications company, notwithstanding any provision in a franchise, may abandon a cable communications service or a portion of it without having given three months prior written notice to the franchising authority. No cable communications company may abandon a cable communications service or a portion of it without compensating the franchising authority for damages resulting to it from the abandonment;

(z) a provision requiring that upon termination or forfeiture of a franchise, the franchisee remove its cable, wires, and appliances from the streets, alleys, and other public places within the franchise area if the franchising authority so requests, and a procedure to be followed in the event the franchisee fails to remove its cable, wires, and appliances from the streets, alleys, and other public places within the franchise area;

(aa) a provision that when a franchise or cable system is offered for sale, the franchising authority shall have the right to purchase the system;

(bb) a provision establishing the minimum number of access channels that the franchisee shall make available. This provision must require that the franchisee shall provide to each of its subscribers who receive some or all of the services offered on the system, reception on at least one specially designated access channel. The specially designated access channel may be used by local educational authorities and local government on a first-come, first-served, nondiscriminatory basis. During those hours that the specially designated access channel is not being used by the local educational authorities or local government, the franchisee shall lease time to commercial or non-commercial users on a first-come, first-served, nondiscriminatory basis if the demand for that time arises. The franchisee may also use this specially designated access channel for local origination during those hours when the channel is not in use by local educational authorities, local government, or commercial or noncommercial users who have leased time. The VHF spectrum must be used for the specially designated access channel required in this paragraph.

The provision must also require that the franchisee shall establish rules for the administration of the specially designated access channel.

Franchisees providing only alarm services or only data transmission services for computer-operated functions do not need to provide access channel reception to alarm and data service subscribers.

Subd. 2. [REQUIRED PROVISIONS FOR CLASS B SYSTEM.] Franchisees for class B cable systems must contain statements and provisions consistent with subdivision 1, unless hereafter provided otherwise, and statements and provisions consistent with the following requirements:

(a) a provision establishing the minimum number of access channels that the franchisee shall make available. Franchisees subject to this provision are not subject to subdivision 1, paragraph (bb).

(1) The provision must require that the franchisee provide to each of its subscribers who receive all or a part of the total services offered on the system, reception on at least one specially designated access channel available for use by the general public on a first-come, first-served, nondiscriminatory basis. Channel time and playback of prerecorded programming on this specially designated access channel must be provided without charge to the general public, except that personnel, equipment, and production costs may be assessed for live studio presentations exceeding five minutes in length. Charges for production costs must be consistent with the goal of affording the public a low-cost means of television access. The specially designated access channel may be used by local education authorities and local government on a first-come, first-served, nondiscriminatory basis during those hours when the channel is not in use by the general public. During those hours that the specially designated access channel is not being used by the general public, local educational authorities, or local government, the franchisee shall lease time to commercial or noncommercial users on a first-come, first-served, nondiscriminatory basis if the demand for that time arises. The franchisee may also use this specially designated access channel for local origination during those hours when the channel is not in use by the general public, local educational authorities, local government, or commercial or noncommercial users who have leased time. The VHF spectrum must be used for the specially designated access channel required in this paragraph.

(2) The provision must also require that the franchisee establish rules for the administration of the specially designated access channel.

(3) The provision must require that whenever the specially designated access channel required in clause (1) is in use during 80 percent of the weekdays, Monday to Friday, for 80 percent of the time during a consecutive three-hour period for six weeks running, and there is a demand for use of an additional channel for the same purpose, the franchisee has six months in which to provide a new specially designated access channel for the same purpose, provided that provision of the additional channel or channels does not require the cable system to install converters. Nothing in this section precludes the installation of converters by the system on a voluntary basis, as a result of an agreement arrived at through negotiation between the parties to a franchise, or by a potential access user who wishes to install converters in order to make use of an additional channel or channels.

(4) Franchisees providing only alarm services or only data transmission services for computer-operated functions do not need to provide access channel reception to alarm and data service subscribers.

(b) A provision establishing the minimum equipment that the franchisee shall make available for public use. The provision shall require that the franchisee make readily available for public use upon need being shown, at least the minimal equipment necessary to perform good quality playback of prerecorded programming, and to make it possible to record programs at remote locations with battery-operated portable equipment. Need within the meaning of this section must be determined by subscriber petition. The petition must contain the signatures of at least ten percent of the subscribers of the system, but in no case more than 350 nor fewer than 100 signatures.

Subd. 3. [REQUIRED PROVISIONS FOR CLASS C SYSTEM.] Franchises for class C cable systems must contain statements and provisions consistent with subdivision 1, unless this section provides otherwise, and statements and provisions consistent with the following requirements:

(a) a provision establishing the minimum number of public, educational, governmental, and leased access channels that the franchisee shall make available. Franchisees subject to this provision are not subject to subdivision 1, paragraph (bb).

(1) The provision must require that the franchisee shall, to the extent of the system's available channel capacity, provide to each of its subscribers who receives some or all of the services offered on the system, reception on at least one specially designated noncommercial public access channel available for use by the general public on a first-come, first-served, nondiscriminatory basis; at least one specially designated access channel for use by local educational authorities; at least one specially designated access channel available for local government use; and at least one specially designated access channel available for lease on a first-come, first-served, nondiscriminatory basis by commercial and noncommercial users. The VHF spectrum must be used for at least one of the specially designated noncommercial public access channels required in this paragraph. The provision must require that no charges may be made for channel time or playback of prerecorded programming on at least one of the specially designated noncommercial public access channels required by this paragraph. Personnel, equipment, and production costs may be assessed, however, for live studio presentations exceeding five minutes in length. Charges for those production costs and fees for use of other public access channels must be consistent with the goal of affording the public a low-cost means of television access.

(2) The provision must require that whenever the specially designated noncommercial public access channel, the specially designated education access channel, the specially designated local government access channel, or the specially designated leased access channel required in clause (1) is in use during 80 percent of the weekdays, Monday to Friday, for 80 percent of the time during any consecutive three-hour period for six weeks running, and there is demand for use of an additional channel for the same purpose, the franchisee shall then have six months in which to provide a new specially designated access channel for the same purpose, provided that provision of the additional channel or channels must not require the cable system to install converters. However, nothing in this section precludes the installation of converters by the system on a voluntary basis, or as a result of an agreement arrived at through negotiation between the parties to a franchise, or by a potential access user who wishes to install converters in order to make use of an additional channel or channels.

(3) The provision must also require that the franchisee establish rules pertaining to the administration of the specially designated noncommercial public access channel, the specially designated educational access channel, and the specially designated leased access channel required in this section.

(4) Those systems which offer subscribers the option of receiving programs on one or more special service channels without also receiving the regular subscriber services may comply with this section by providing the subscribers who receive the special service only, at least one specially designated composite access channel composed of the programming on the specially designated noncommercial public access channel, the specially designated education access channel, and the specially designated local government access channel required in this section.

(5) On those systems without sufficient available channel capacity to allow for activation of all specially designated access channels required in this section, or when demand for use of the channels does not warrant activation of all specially designated access channels required in this section, public, educational, governmental, and leased access channel programming may be combined on one or more cable channels. To the extent time is available, access channels may also be used for other broadcast and nonbroadcast services, provided that these services are subject to immediate displacement if there is demand to use the channel for its specially designated purpose. The system shall, in any case, provide at least one full channel on the VHF spectrum for shared access programming.

(6) Franchisees providing only alarm services or only data transmission services for computer-operated functions do not need to provide access channel reception to alarm and data service subscribers.

(b) a provision establishing the minimum equipment that the franchisee shall make available for public use. The provision shall require that the franchisee shall make readily available for public use at least the minimal equipment necessary for the production of programming and playback of prerecorded programs for the specially designated noncommercial public access channel required by paragraph (a), clause (1). The franchisee shall also make readily available, upon need being shown, the minimum equipment necessary to make it possible to record programs at remote locations with battery-operated portable equipment. Need within the meaning of this section must be determined by subscriber petition. The petition must contain the signatures of at least ten percent of the subscribers of the system, but in no case more than 500 nor fewer than 100 signatures.

(c) a provision establishing the minimum systemwide channel capacity that the franchisee shall make available. Franchisees subject to the requirement of this provision are not subject to the requirements of subdivision 1, paragraph (bb).

(1) The provision must require the construction of a cable system with a channel capacity, available for immediate or potential use, equal to a minimum of 120 MHz of bandwidth, the equivalent of 20 television broadcast channels.

(2) Systems that are already constructed pursuant to a preexisting franchise requiring fewer than 120 MHz of bandwidth, the equivalent of fewer than 20 television broadcast channels, shall have until June 21, 1986, to increase the system's channel capacity to a minimum of 120 MHz of bandwidth. However, nothing in this section precludes the parties to a franchise from negotiating an agreement calling for an increase to a minimum of 120 MHz of bandwidth before June 21, 1986.

(3) For purposes of this section, a cable system with a channel capacity, available for immediate or potential use, equal to a minimum of 120 MHz of bandwidth means: the provision of a distribution system designed and constructed so that a minimum of 120 MHz of bandwidth, the equivalent of 20 television broadcast channels, can be put into use with only the addition of the appropriate headend and subscriber terminal equipment.

(d) In Twin Cities metropolitan area franchises, a provision designating the standard VHF channel 6 for uniform regional channel usage as required in section 43.

Subd. 4. [ADDITIONAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS PERMITTED.] A franchise may contain additional terms and conditions as the municipality and the franchisee deem appropriate, provided the additional terms and conditions are consistent with federal and state law.

Subd. 5. [RECLASSIFICATION OF SYSTEMS.] A franchise must be amended by the franchising authority when the number of subscribers served by the cable communications system in the franchise area changes so as to result in reclassification of the system under this section. Amendments must include provisions consistent with the requirements of that class of cable communications systems.

Sec. 24. [238.085] [COMMISSIONER OF COMMERCE.]

Subdivision 1. [DOCUMENTATION TO THE COMMISSIONER OF COMMERCE.] Upon the granting of a franchise, the extension of a franchise for a term, the renewal of a franchise, or the sale or transfer of a franchise, the franchising authority and the franchisee shall submit documentation to the commissioner of commerce certifying that the franchise and the process followed conform to this chapter, to the extent that these sections are not inconsistent with federal law.

Subd. 2. [ACTIONS BY COMMISSIONER.] (a) Within 30 days of receipt of the certificate, the commissioner of commerce shall:

(1) approve the certificate;

(2) disapprove the certificate, indicating in writing to the applicants why the franchise or the process does not conform to this chapter; or

(3) request that the applicants provide additional information within 30 days of the receipt of the request.

(b) If the commissioner of commerce fails to act within 30 days of receiving a certificate or the requested additional documentation, the certificate is approved. If the commissioner of commerce fails to issue a final approval or disapproval within 180 days of the initial receipt of a certificate, the certificate is approved.

Subd. 3. [WHEN CERTIFICATE DISAPPROVED.] If the certificate is disapproved, the applicants may either (1) take the steps as may be necessary to bring the franchise or the process into conformance and reapply to the commissioner of commerce, or (2) within 30 days of receiving the disapproval appeal the decision to the Minnesota court of appeals.

Subd. 4. [OPERATION CONTINUES DURING REVIEW OR APPEAL.] While the commissioner of commerce is reviewing a certificate concerning a franchise extension or renewal and during an appeal of the commissioner of commerce's decision, the franchisee must be allowed to continue the operation of the affected cable system.

Subd. 5. [RIGHTS UNDER OTHER LAW.] Nothing in this section prohibits a franchisee from exercising its legal rights under federal or state law upon the denial by a franchising authority of an extension, renewal, transfer, or sale of a franchise.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 238.11, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. No cable communications company may prohibit or limit a program or class or type of program presented over a leased channel or a channel made available for public access, governmental or educational purposes. Neither the cable communications company nor the officers, directors, or employees of the cable communications system is not liable for any penalties or damages arising from programming content not originating from or produced by the cable communications company and shown on any public access channel, education access channel, government access channel, leased access channel, or regional channel.

238.15 [FINANCIAL INTEREST OF MEMBERS.]

No member of the board or person appointed pursuant to section 238.04, subdivision 7 shall be employed by, or shall knowingly have any financial interest in any cable communications company or its subsidiaries, major equipment or programming suppliers, or in any broadcasting company holding an operating license issued by the federal communications commission or its subsidiaries. Members of any elected body granting franchises and employees of any franchising body who would be directly involved in the granting or administration of franchises for cable communications and who are employed by or who knowingly have any financial interest in any cable communications company, bidding on such franchise, or the cable communications company granted the franchise, or their subsidiaries, major equipment or program suppliers shall abstain from participation in the franchising of a cable communications company or the administration of such franchise.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 238.16, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Any person violating the provisions of ~~sections 238.01 to 238.17 or any rules or regulations made pursuant thereto,~~ this chapter is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. Any term of imprisonment imposed for any violation by a corporation shall be served by the senior resident officer of the corporation.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 238.17, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CONDITIONS FOR EXTENSIONS.] Notwithstanding the provisions of ~~section 238.09 or any other law to the contrary,~~ a cable communications system may extend or provide service outside the boundaries of a core service unit if: (1) ~~the extension area is not within the seven county metropolitan area, as defined in section 473.121, subdivision 4;~~ (2) ~~the board first approves, in accordance with procedures set forth in the board's rules, the inclusion of the extension area in the same cable service territory which contains the core service unit;~~ and (3) the cable communications system obtains and files with the board an extension permit issued by the municipality or municipalities which have jurisdiction over the extension area.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 238.17, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [EXCESS EXTENSION PERMITS.] Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent a municipality having jurisdiction over an extension area from prescribing extension permit requirements which are in excess of those required by this section, unless such requirements are inconsistent with this chapter ~~or with any rule of the board.~~

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 238.22, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [ALTERNATIVE PROVIDERS.] "Alternative providers" means other providers of television programming or cable communications services.

Subd. 3. If a public utility company and a cable communications company enter into an agreement regarding only pole attachments, sections 36 to 42 relating to conduit systems are applicable to that agreement and if a public utility company and a cable communications company enter into an agreement regarding only use of a conduit system, sections 36 to 42 relating to pole attachments are not applicable to that

Sec. 39. [238.39] [LEGAL AUTHORITY.]

Every pole, duct, and conduit agreement must contain a provision that the cable communications company shall submit to the public utility company evidence of the cable communications company's lawful authority to place, maintain, and operate its facilities within public streets, highways, and other thoroughfares and shall secure the legally necessary permits and consents from federal, state, county, and municipal authorities to construct, maintain, and operate facilities at the locations of poles or conduit systems of the public utility company which it uses. The parties to the agreement shall at all times observe and comply with, and the provisions of a pole, duct, and conduit agreement are subject to, the laws, ordinances, and rules which in any manner affect the rights and obligations of the parties to the agreement, so long as the laws, ordinances, or rules remain in effect.

Sec. 40. [238.40] [LIABILITY.]

Every pole, duct, and conduit agreement must contain a provision that the cable communications company shall defend, indemnify, protect, and save harmless the public utility from and against any and all claims and demands for damages to property and injury or death to persons, including payments made under any worker's compensation law or under any plan for employees' disability and death benefits, which may arise out of or be caused by the erection, maintenance, presence, use, or removal of the cable communications company's cable, equipment, and facilities or by the proximity of the cables, equipment, and facilities of the parties to the agreement, or by any act of the cable communications company on or in the vicinity of the public utility company's poles and conduit system, in the performance of the agreement. Nothing contained in this section relieves the public utility company from liability for the negligence of the public utility company or anyone acting under its direction and control. The cable communications company shall also indemnify, protect, and save harmless the public utility from any and all claims and demands which arise directly or indirectly from the operation of the cable communications company's facilities including taxes, special charges by others, claims, and demands for damages or loss for infringement of copyright, for libel and slander, for unauthorized use of television broadcast programs, and for unauthorized use of other program material, and from and against all claims and demands for infringement of Nothing contained in this section relieves the public utility company from liability for the negligence of the public utility company or anyone acting under its direction and control.

The cable communications company shall carry insurance to protect the parties to the agreement from and against any and all claims, demands, actions, judgments, costs, expenses, and liabilities which may arise or result, directly or indirectly, from or by reason of the loss, injury, claim, or damage. The amount of the insurance must be agreed to by the parties to this agreement. The cable communications company shall also carry insurance to protect it from all claims under worker's compensation laws in effect that may be applicable to it. Insurance required must remain in effect for the entire term of the agreement.

Sec. 42. [238.42] [ADDITIONAL TERMS.]

Nothing contained in sections 36 to 42 in any way prohibits a public utility company from including in its pole, duct, and conduit agreements with cable communications companies additional terms which do not conflict with sections 36 to 42.

Notwithstanding clause (7), for state grants under the state independent grants program, the eligible cost does not include ~~the provision of collector sewers as defined in agency rules~~, the provision of service to seasonal homes, or cost increases from contingencies that exceed three percent of as-bid costs or cost increases from unanticipated site conditions that exceed an additional two percent of as-bid costs.

Sec. 2. [116.162] [STATE GRANT PROGRAM FOR COMBINED SEWER OVERFLOW.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the terms used in this section have the meanings given in section 116.16, subdivision 2.

(b) "Combined sewer" means a sewer that is designed and intended to serve as a sanitary sewer and a storm sewer, or as an industrial sewer and a storm sewer.

(c) "Combined sewer overflow" means a discharge of a combination of storm and sanitary wastewater or storm and industrial wastewater directly or indirectly into the waters of the state, occurring when the volume of wastewater flow exceeds the conveyance or storage capacity of a combined sewer system.

Subd. 2. [PROGRAM PURPOSE.] The agency shall administer a state grant program to assist eligible recipients to abate combined sewer overflow to the Mississippi river from its confluence with the Rum river to its confluence with the St. Croix river.

Subd. 3. [ELIGIBLE RECIPIENTS.] A statutory or home rule charter city is eligible for grants under the program if the city has a permit, stipulation agreement, consent decree, or order issued by the agency requiring construction to abate combined sewer overflow and if the city adopts an approved plan to abate combined sewer overflow.

Subd. 4. [ELIGIBLE COSTS.] The eligible costs under this section include the costs listed in section 116.16, subdivision 2, paragraph (6), as determined by the agency, using as guidelines the regulations promulgated by the United States environmental protection agency under the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, United States Code, title 33, sections 1314 to 1328, except that the eligible costs include easements necessary for implementing the combined sewer overflow abatement plan and do not include:

- (1) the preparation of combined sewer overflow abatement plans;
- (2) acquisition of interests in real property other than easements;
- (3) storm water treatment facilities;
- (4) costs for a program to disconnect any structures or devices, excluding catch basins on public property, constructed to direct or convey storm water, snow melt, or surface water from private or public property into a public sanitary or combined sewer;
- (5) costs incurred before the effective date of this section; and
- (6) costs incurred after the effective date of this section but without prior written approval of the agency.

Subd. 5. [GRANT PROGRAM.] The agency shall annually award grants to eligible recipients in that year for combined sewer overflow projects. The agency shall determine eligible costs for each eligible recipient and compare those individual costs to the total eligible cost required to abate combined sewer overflows. This comparison determines each eligible recipient's proportionate share of the costs, and the appropriation for the program must be distributed among eligible recipients according to their proportionate share.

Subd. 6. [GRANT CONDITIONS; ADMINISTRATION.] (a) A recipient of a grant under this section shall construct the combined sewer overflow abatement facilities in accordance with the construction schedule contained in the permit, stipulation agreement, consent decree, or order issued by the agency. The agency shall require that the construction schedule to abate combined sewer overflow be completed within ten years. As a condition of receiving a grant, the recipient shall implement a program approved by the agency to disconnect any structures or devices, excluding catch basins on public property, constructed to direct or convey storm water, snow melt, or surface water from private or public property into a public sanitary or combined sewer. The deadlines for submittal of facilities plans, plans and specifications, and other documents to the agency for a grant are governed by the construction schedule contained in the permit, stipulation agreement, consent decree, or order issued by the agency requiring combined sewer overflow abatement construction.

(b) A recipient of a grant under this section is not eligible to receive a grant to abate combined sewer overflow under the state independent grants program.

Subd. 7. [RULES.] The agency shall promulgate permanent rules and may promulgate emergency rules for the administration of the grant program established by this section. The rules must contain as a minimum:

- (1) procedures for application;
- (2) criteria for eligibility of combined sewer overflow abatement projects;
- (3) conditions for use of the grants;

(4) procedures for the administration of grants; and

(5) other matters that the agency finds necessary for the proper administration of the program.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 116.18, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [APPROPRIATION FROM THE FUND.] The sum of $167,000,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated from the Minnesota state water pollution control fund in the state treasury to the pollution control agency, for the period commencing on July 23, 1971 and ending June 30, 1985, to be granted and disbursed to municipalities and agencies of the state in aid of the construction of projects conforming to section 116.16, in accordance with the rules, priorities, and criteria therein described.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 116.18, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [STATE MATCHING GRANTS PROGRAM BEGINNING OCTOBER 1, 1984.] For projects tendered, on or after October 1, 1984, a grant of federal money under section 201(g), section 202, 203, or 206(f) of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, as amended, United States Code, title 33, sections 1251 to 1376, at 55 percent or more of the eligible cost for construction of the treatment works, state money appropriated under subdivision 1 must be expended for up to ~~45~~ 30 percent of the eligible cost of construction for municipalities for which the construction would otherwise impose significant financial hardship; provided, that not less than ~~25~~ ten percent of the eligible cost must be paid by the municipality or agency constructing the project. If a municipality is tendered federal and state grants in a percentage cumulatively exceeding ~~75~~ 90 percent of the eligible cost of construction, the state pollution control agency shall reduce the grant to the municipality under this chapter to the extent necessary to ensure that not less than ~~25~~ ten percent of the eligible cost will be paid by the municipality. The amounts of the matching grants must be based on per connection capital cost, median household income, and per capita adjusted assessed valuation.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 116.18, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [STATE INDEPENDENT GRANTS PROGRAM.] (a) The agency may award independent grants for projects for 50 percent or, if the agency requires advanced treatment, 65 percent of the eligible cost of construction. The agency may award independent grants for up to an additional ~~45~~ 30 percent or, if the agency requires advanced treatment, up to an additional ~~ten~~ 25 percent of the eligible cost of construction to municipalities for which the construction would otherwise impose significant financial hardship; the amounts of the additional grants shall be based on per connection capital cost, median household income, and per capita adjusted assessed valuation. These grants may be awarded in separate steps for planning and design in addition to actual construction. ~~Not more than 20 percent of the total amount of grants awarded under this subdivision in any single fiscal year may be awarded for projects for the control of combined sewer overflow as defined by federal regulation.~~ Until December 31, 1990, not more than 20 percent of the total amount of grants awarded under this subdivision in any single fiscal year may be awarded to a single grantee.

(b) Up to ten percent of the money to be awarded as grants under this subdivision in any single fiscal year shall be set aside for municipalities having substantial economic development projects that cannot come to fruition without municipal wastewater treatment improvements. The agency shall forward its municipal needs list to the commissioner of energy and economic development at the beginning of each fiscal year, and the commissioner shall review the list and identify those municipalities having substantial economic development projects. After the first 90 percent of the total available money is allocated to municipalities in accordance with agency priorities, the set-aside shall be used by the agency to award grants to remaining municipalities that have been identified.

(c) Grants may also be awarded under this subdivision to reimburse municipalities willing to proceed with projects and ~~apply to be reimbursed in the~~ a subsequent year conditioned upon appropriation of sufficient money under subdivision 1 for that year. The maximum amount of the reimbursement the agency may commit in any single fiscal year is equal to the amount newly appropriated ~~under subdivision 1~~ to the state grants programs for that year.

Sec. 6. [116.19] [MUNICIPAL POWERS.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] Notwithstanding a statute or home rule charter to the contrary, a recipient of a grant from the agency may exercise the authority provided in this section to abate combined sewer overflow or provide money to pay all or part of the costs of the abatement and of making improvements to any utility required to effect the abatement.

Subd. 2. [GENERAL.] A recipient may acquire real or personal property by purchase, including installment purchase, lease, including a financing lease, condemnation, gift, or grant, or may sell real or personal property at its fair market value determined by the recipient and simultaneously enter into an installment purchase or lease, including a financing lease, for purposes of reacquiring real or personal property. A recipient may construct, enlarge, improve, replace, repair, maintain, and operate a public sewer system, including storm sewers, sanitary sewers, and facilities for separating storm sewers from combined storm and sanitary sewers, or any other public utilities combined with the public sewer system as provided in this section. To accomplish these purposes, a recipient may exercise the powers granted a municipality by chapters 115, 117, 412, 429, 435, 444, 471, and 475, and may combine the public sewer system, for purposes of operation or revenue collection or both or for other purposes the city council determines, with one or more other public utilities. Charges for the services provided by a combined utility may be determined in any reasonable manner.

Subd. 3. [DEBT.] A recipient may incur indebtedness and may issue and sell bonds or other obligations, including notes, an installment purchase contract, or obligations to make payments under a financing lease, and pledge the full faith and credit of the city to its payment for storm and sanitary sewers and systems without submitting the question of issuing the bonds, or otherwise incurring the obligations, to the electors. The bonds or other obligations may be issued in one or more series, may bear interest at the rate or rates, including floating rates, and may be sold at public or private sale and at the price the recipient determines. A recipient may, in addition to or in substitution for the pledge of its full faith and credit, pledge the revenues or net revenues of its public sewer system or a combined utility or a part of it, or mortgage the assets of the system or combined utility. A recipient may vest in a trustee or trustees, located within or outside the state, the right to enforce any covenants made to secure or to pay the bonds or other obligations, and may determine the powers and duties of the trustee or trustees. Except as provided in this section, the bonds or other obligations must be issued and sold according to chapter 475.

Subd. 4. [PROPERTY TAX.] In addition and supplemental to the grants of authority in subdivisions 2 and 3, the governing body may establish a special taxing district or districts within the corporate limits of the city that include some or all of the real or personal property served by a combined sewer separated after the effective date of this section, and may levy and collect ad valorem taxes in the district or districts for the purposes of this section. The taxes must be collected by the county and paid over to the city as are other taxes. The taxes are not restricted by any other tax levy limitations imposed upon the city by any other law or charter provision.

Subd. 5. [ASSESSMENTS.] The governing body of the city may divide the city into drainage districts or areas, and may levy and collect assessments based on benefit to property, whether the benefit be direct or indirect, and the assessments so levied may be based upon the existing or highest and best land usage, square footage, front footage or area. The assessments may be levied in accordance with the procedures set forth in the city's home rule charter, if any, or chapter 429, as the council determines. The assessments may be levied and collected from all property whether public or private, and in the case of public property the agency of government responsible for the property must provide the necessary money in its budget request.

Subd. 6. [PRIVATE FINANCE.] To secure financing for the purposes of this section, the governing body of the city may use private financing methods, such as private ownership and construction by any means available to the owner of new facilities to benefit the city under a lease, financing lease, installment purchase agreement or service contract, or the sale or mortgaging of all or part of the city's existing public sewer system, combined utility including the public sewer system, or water utility, to benefit the city under a lease, financing lease, installment purchase agreement or service contract. The private financing methods are not subject to any limitations imposed by a home rule charter, if any, or by chapter 475. Any property benefiting the city under the private financing methods is exempt from taxation and the payment of amounts in lieu of taxes to the same extent as property owned by the city.

Sec. 7. [116.46] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICABILITY.] The definitions in this section apply to sections 7 to 9 and section 15.

Subd. 2. [AGENCY.] "Agency" means the pollution control agency.

Subd. 3. [COMMISSIONER.] "Commissioner" means the commissioner of health.

Subd. 4. [ELEVATED BLOOD LEAD LEVEL.] "Elevated blood lead level" means a confirmed concentration of 25 micrograms or more of lead in each deciliter of whole blood.

Subd. 5. [RESPONSE ACTION.] 'Response action' means action to limit exposure to lead contaminated soil sites, including fencing, covering sites with vegetation, removal and replacement of contaminated soil, and other appropriate measures.

Sec. 8. [116.47] [IDENTIFICATION OF LEAD CONTAMINATED SOIL SITES.]

Subdivision 1. [PRELIMINARY SCREENING.] By January 1, 1986, the agency must identify and develop a preliminary list of sites in the state where significant concentrations of lead in soil are likely and where the probability exists for children's contact with the soil. In identifying these sites the agency must consider:

(1) both stationary and mobile lead emission sources;

(2) dispersion and depositional patterns of lead emissions; and

(3) the presence of populations susceptible to lead exposure or lead absorption, including children at day care centers, schools, parks, and playgrounds, children who have elevated levels of lead in their blood, and children whose socioeconomic status has given them a higher exposure to lead or increased lead absorption.

Subd. 2. [SOIL TESTING.] By January 1, 1987, the agency must sample sites on the preliminary list to determine the concentration of lead in the soil. The agency must refer sites to the commissioner where lead in the soil exceeds the interim standard for lead in the soil of 1,000 parts per million. After adoption of the rules under section 9, subdivision 1, the agency shall refer to the commissioner all sites with concentrations above the standard for lead in soil.

Subd. 3. [ACCESS TO PROPERTY.] The agency or a person authorized by the agency may, upon presentation of credentials, enter public or private property to conduct surveys or investigations.

Subd. 4. [HEALTH SCREENING.] For each site referred by the agency, the commissioner must review the existing health data on the resident population or collect data on the level of lead in the blood if the present data are inadequate. If the level of lead in the blood is elevated in a population at a site, the commissioner shall examine the site for all sources of lead exposure and report to the agency findings and recommendations to reduce the level of lead in the blood.

Sec. 9. [116.48] [RULES.]

Subdivision 1. [STANDARD FOR LEAD IN SOIL.] By January 1, 1988, the agency shall adopt rules that establish a standard of lead contamination in the soil that threatens the health or welfare of susceptible populations.

Subd. 2. [PRIORITIES FOR RESPONSE ACTION.] By January 1, 1988, the agency must adopt rules establishing the priority for response actions. The rules must consider the potential for children's contact with the soil and the existing level of lead in the soil and may consider the relative risk to the public health, the size of the population at risk, and blood lead levels of resident populations.

Sec. 10. [REPORT ON LEAD CONTAMINATION IN THE SOIL.]

By January 1, 1987, the pollution control agency shall submit a report to the senate and house committees on health and human services describing the extent of lead contamination in the soil, the lead levels in the blood of populations at contaminated sites, the size of the population at risk from exposure to lead in the soil, and an estimate of the cost of response actions required to prevent exposure to soil contaminated by lead.

Sec. 11. [124.252] [SMOKING PREVENTION PROGRAMS.]

Subdivision 1. [CONTENT.] The commissioner of health shall prepare and prior to each legislative session a report every two years concerning the status and operations of the health care markets in Minnesota. The commissioner of health shall transmit the reports to the governor and to the members of the legislature ~~an annual~~. The first report ~~of~~ must be submitted on January 15, 1987, and succeeding reports on January 15 every two years thereafter. Each report must contain information, analysis, and appropriate recommendations concerning the following issues associated with Minnesota health care markets:

(1) the overall status of the health care cost problem, including the costs faced by employers and individuals, and prospects for the problem's improving or getting worse;

145.882 [MATERNAL AND CHILD HEALTH BLOCK GRANT DISTRIBUTION.]

Subdivision 1. [CONTINUATION OF 1983 PROJECTS.] (a) Notwithstanding subdivisions 2 and 3, recipients of maternal and child health grants for special projects in state fiscal year 1983 shall continue to be funded at the same level as in state fiscal year 1983 until September 30, 1985 December 31, 1987 if they comply with the provisions of sections 145.881, and 145.882 to 145.888. Any decrease in the amount of federal funding to the state for the maternal and child health block grant shall be apportioned to reflect a proportional decrease for each recipient until September 30, 1985. Any increase in the amount of federal funding to the state shall be distributed for services to children with handicaps and to special projects as provided in sections 145.883 to 145.888, except that an amount not to exceed ten percent may be retained by the commissioner of health to address cost of living increases and increases in supplies and services under subdivisions 3 and 4 of this section.

After September 30, 1985, (c) The advisory task force shall review and recommend the proportion of maternal and child health block grant funds to be expended for indirect costs, direct services and special projects. The proportion of funds expended in direct services through special projects shall be maintained at not less than the level expended in state fiscal year 1984.

Subd. 2. [ALLOCATION TO THE COMMISSIONER OF HEALTH.] Beginning January 1, 1986, up to one-third of the total maternal and child health block grant money may be retained by the commissioner of health for administrative and technical assistance services, projects of regional or statewide significance, direct services to children with handicaps, and other activities of the commissioner.

Subd. 3. [ALLOCATION TO COMMUNITY HEALTH SERVICES AREAS.] The maternal and child health block grant money remaining after distributions made under subdivisions 1 and 2 must be allocated according to the formula in subdivision 4 to community health services areas for distribution by local boards of health to qualified programs that provide essential services within the community health services area.

Subd. 4. [DISTRIBUTION FORMULA.] The amount available for each community health services area is determined according to the following formula:

(a) Each community health services area is allocated an amount based on the following three variables:

(1) the proportion of resident mothers within the city, county, or counties who are under 20 years of age or over 35 years of age, as determined by averaging the data available for the three most current years;

(2) the proportion of resident infants within the city, county, or counties whose weight at birth is less than 2,500 grams, as determined by averaging the data available for the three most current years; and

(3) the proportion of resident children within the city, county, or counties under the age of 19 who are on general assistance or medical assistance and the proportion of resident women within the city, county, or counties aged 19 to 49 who are on general assistance or medical assistance, as determined by using the data available for the most current year.

(b) Each variable is expressed as a city or county score consisting of the city or county frequency of each variable divided by the statewide frequency of the variable.

(c) A total score for each city or county jurisdiction is computed by totalling the scores of the three factors and dividing the total by three.

(d) Each community health services area is allocated an amount equal to the total score obtained above for the city, county, or counties in its area multiplied by the amount of money available for special projects of local significance.

Subd. 5. [NONPARTICIPANTS IN THE COMMUNITY HEALTH SERVICES SUBSIDY PROGRAM.] A city or county that is not participating in the community health services subsidy program must be allocated money under subdivisions 3 and 4, and for this limited purpose the city or county is a "community health services area." For these areas, the commissioner shall convene a meeting of public and private nonprofit agencies in the city or county that have expressed an intent to submit an application for funding, in order to attempt to develop a single coordinated grant application for the city or county. Applications, whether consolidated into a single application or submitted as individual applications, must be submitted according to section 145.885. Grants for qualified programs providing essential services in these areas are awarded and distributed by the commissioner.

Subd. 6. [REALLOCATION.] If no approvable applications are received for a community health services area, the commissioner must reallocate the money available for that area to other community health service areas for which approvable applications have been received.

Subd. 7. [USE OF BLOCK GRANT MONEY.] (a) Maternal and child health block grant money allocated to a local board of health or community health services area under this section must be used for qualified programs for high risk and low income individuals. Block grant money must be used for programs that:

(1) specifically address the highest risk populations, particularly low income and minority groups with a high rate of infant mortality and children with low birth weight, by providing services calculated to produce measurable decreases in infant mortality rates, instances of children with low birth weight, and medical complications associated with pregnancy and childbirth;

(2) specifically target pregnant women whose age, medical condition, or maternal history substantially increases the likelihood of complications associated with pregnancy and childbirth or the birth of a child with an illness, disability, or special medical needs;

(3) specifically address the health needs of young children who have or are likely to have a chronic disease or disability or special medical needs; or

(4) provide family planning and preventive medical care for specifically identified target populations, such as minority and low income teenagers, in a manner calculated to decrease the occurrence of inappropriate pregnancy and minimize the risk of complications associated with pregnancy and childbirth.

(b) Maternal and child health block grant money may be used for purposes other than the purposes listed in this subdivision only if the local board of health or community health services area can demonstrate that existing programs fully address the needs of the highest risk target populations described in this subdivision.

Subd. 8. [REPORT.] The commissioner shall prepare, with the advice of the advisory task force, an annual report to the legislature which details the distribution of maternal and child health block grant funds money, including the amounts to be expended for indirect costs, direct services, and special projects local grants. The report shall also identify the statewide needs of low income and high risk populations and the department of health's plans and local board plans for meeting their needs. The legislature must receive the report no later than January of each year.

SPECIAL ORDER

H.F. No. 35: A bill for an act relating to agriculture; making certain changes in the family farm security program; amending Minnesota Statutes 1984, sections 16A.80, subdivision 2a; 41.56, subdivisions 3, 4, and 4a; 41.57, subdivisions 2 and 3; 41.59, subdivision 1; and 41.61, subdivision 1.

Mr. Wegscheid moved to amend H.F. No. 35 as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 16A.80, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [EXEMPT AGENCIES.] This section does not apply to:

- (1) the housing finance agency;
- (2) the state board of investment;
- (3) the iron range resources and rehabilitation board;
- (4) the higher education coordinating board;
- (5) the higher education facilities authority; and
- (6) the department of agriculture family farm security program; and
- (7) the energy and economic development authority.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 41.56, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DEFAULT, FILING CLAIM.] Within 90 days of a default on a guaranteed family farm security loan, the lender shall send notice to the applicant participant stating that the commissioner must be notified if the default continues for 180 days, and the consequences of that default. The lender and the applicant participant may agree to take any steps reasonable to assure the fulfillment of the loan obligation.

If a participant cannot meet scheduled loan payments because of unique or temporary circumstances and the participant proves sufficiently to the commissioner that the necessary cash flow can be generated in the future, the commissioner may use money in the special account in section 41.61, subdivision 1, to meet the participant's loan obligation for up to two consecutive years. This money must be paid back within eight years with interest at a rate four percent below the prevailing Federal Land Bank rate.

A contract for deed participant may enter into an agreement with the commissioner whereby the outstanding principal balance of the loan is reduced by a minimum of ten percent, the loan is re-amortized for the years remaining, and the commissioner agrees that the state shall pay the lender 100 percent of the sum due and payable if a default occurs during the remaining term of the re-amortized loan.

After 180 days from the initial default, if the applicant participant has not made arrangements to meet his obligation, the lender shall file a claim with the commissioner, identifying the loan and the nature of the default, and assigning to the state all of the lender's security and interest in the loan in exchange for payment according to the terms of the family farm security loan guarantee. In the case of a seller-sponsored loan, the seller may elect to pay the commissioner all sums owed the commissioner by the applicant participant and retain title to the property in lieu of payment by the commissioner under the terms of the loan guarantee. If the commissioner determines that the terms of the family farm security loan guarantee have been met, he shall authorize payment of state funds to the lender, and shall notify the defaulting party. The state of Minnesota shall then succeed to the interest of the mortgagee or the vendor of the contract for deed. Taxes shall be levied and paid on the land as though the owner were a natural person and not a political subdivision of the state. The commissioner may, on behalf of the state, commence foreclosure or termination proceedings in the manner provided by law.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 41.56, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SALE OF DEFAULTED PROPERTY.] In the event that title to any property is acquired by the state, upon conveyance of title to the state and expiration of the period of redemption, the commissioner shall, ~~within 15 days of the expiration of the period of redemption,~~ undertake to sell the property by publishing a notice of the impending sale at least once each week for four successive weeks in a legal newspaper and also in a newspaper of general distribution in the county in which the property to be sold is situated. The notice must describe the lots or tracts to be offered and the terms of sale. Except as further provided, the terms and method of sale shall be determined by the commissioner.

The commissioner shall first attempt to sell the property to a person who is eligible for a family farm security loan. If the commissioner is unable to effect a sale to an eligible person, the commissioner shall attempt to sell the property for cash as provided in subdivision 4a. If the commissioner is unable to effect a sale to an eligible person or for cash, or if the commissioner finds that sale to an eligible person or for cash would not best protect the interests of the state, the commissioner may sell the property on terms which the commissioner finds will best protect the interests of the state. The commissioner may lease any real property which he is unable to sell with reasonable promptness. In any event, any acquired farm property must be sold within ~~two~~ three years after the conveyance of title to the state or after the expiration of the period of redemption. The commissioner may contract for the services of a licensed real estate agent or broker to assist in selling any property acquired under this section and may pay for the services from the proceeds of the sale before proceeds are distributed under subdivision 4b.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 41.56, subdivision 4a, is amended to read:

Subd. 4a. [SALE FOR CASH.] When the commissioner sells any farm property for cash, he shall follow the procedures provided in this subdivision. ~~If the sale will be completed more than 15 days after the last published notice of sale as provided in subdivision 4, the commissioner shall publish another notice as provided in that subdivision.~~ The commissioner shall ~~publish another~~ may sell the property to the highest bidder by taking sealed bids ~~or~~, by bids at public auction, ~~or through negotiation.~~ The commissioner may refuse to accept any or all bids. ~~If a bid is accepted, the successful bidder shall be selected within 15 days of the date of the last published notice of sale.~~ The successful bidder shall submit bid security in the form of a certified check ~~or bid bond, money order, or bank draft~~ in the amount of ~~two~~ five percent of the bid price on the day of selection and shall remit the balance of the purchase price within 90 days of the date of sale. Upon remittance by the purchaser of the balance within 90 days of the date of sale, the commissioner shall transfer title to the property, including any acquired mineral rights, to the purchaser by quit-claim deed. In the event that the purchaser fails to remit all of the balance within 90 days of the date of sale, the purchaser forfeits all rights to the property and any money paid for the property and the commissioner shall recommence the sale process specified in this subdivision.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 41.57, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PAYMENT ADJUSTMENT.] To be eligible for payment adjustment a family farm security loan shall have a maximum term of 20 years and shall provide for payments at least annually so that the loan shall be amortized over its term with equal annual payments of principal and interest, adjusted for variable interest rates, except that a loan to be amortized over a term of ten years or less need not provide for equal annual payments of principal and interest. During the first ten years of a family farm security loan, the commissioner shall annually pay to the lender four percent of the outstanding balance due at the beginning of that year and the ~~applicant~~ applicant participant shall pay the remainder of the payment due. After the tenth year, the ~~applicant~~ applicant participant shall make payments according to the stated interest rate. The ~~applicant~~ applicant participant may petition the commissioner for one ten year renewal of the payment adjustment. If a renewal is granted, in the 21st year the ~~applicant~~ applicant participant shall reimburse the commissioner for the sums paid on the ~~applicant's participant's~~ applicant's participant's behalf under this subdivision. If no renewal is granted, the ~~applicant~~ applicant participant shall reimburse the commissioner in the 11th year for the sums paid on the ~~applicant's participant's~~ applicant's participant's behalf under this subdivision. The obligation to repay the payment adjustment is a lien against the property. If the ~~applicant~~ applicant participant does not reimburse the state within the required time period, the commissioner may charge interest at the rate of two percent above the prevailing rate charged by the Federal Land Bank of St. Paul on the net amount owed for the period of delinquency. To recover the adjustment payment due in delinquency cases, the commissioner may proceed to foreclose by advertisement on the lien as if it were a real estate mortgage following the procedures in chapter 580.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 41.57, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [ANNUAL REVIEW OF NET WORTH.] The applicant participant, his dependents and spouse shall annually submit to the commissioner a statement of their net worth. If their net worth in any year exceeds the sum of $135,000, the applicant participant shall be ineligible for a payment adjustment in that year.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 41.59, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [IMMEDIATE REPAYMENT OF LOAN.] Any applicant participant who sells or conveys the property for which a family farm security loan was issued shall immediately retire the entire indebtedness still owed to the lender and the commissioner. The new owner may negotiate a family farm security loan in his own right, but under no circumstances may the original loan be assumed by the new owner. If the new owner is granted a family farm security loan, the new owner may agree to assume the original applicant's participant's responsibility to reimburse the commissioner for a payment adjustment received, as a portion of the total purchase price. That portion of the purchase price may not be included under the guarantee or considered when calculating the payment adjustment for the new owner. This subdivision is not intended to prohibit the applicant participant from granting a security interest in the property for the purposes of securing an additional loan.

Any applicant participant who fails to personally maintain the land covered by a family farm security loan in active agricultural production for a period of time longer than one year is in default. The default may be waived by the commissioner in the event of a physical disability or other extenuating circumstances.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 41.61, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SPECIAL ACCOUNT; STANDING APPROPRIATION.] There is created a special account in the state treasury for the purposes of financing the family farm security program.

The amount needed from time to time to pay lenders for defaulted loans and make other payments authorized by this chapter including insurance premiums and, taxes, repairs and maintenance costs, advertising, and other sales expenses on defaulted farms is appropriated from the special account to the commissioner. Money is also appropriated to the commissioner from the special account so that the commissioner may purchase the rights of first lienholders at mortgage foreclosure sales and satisfy certain fixture loans. The sum of all outstanding family farm security loans guaranteed by the commissioner at any time may not exceed $100,000,000.

Sec. 9. [92.501] [LEASING OF PEAT LANDS FOR WILD RICE FARMING.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY TO LEASE.] The commissioner of natural resources may, at a public or private lease sale and at the prices and under the terms and conditions the commissioner may prescribe, lease any state-owned lands under the commissioner's jurisdiction and control for the purpose of farming of wild rice. The term of a lease under this section shall be offered for a minimum of 20 years but may be for a shorter period at the option of the lessee. The lease rate shall be adjusted every five years to reflect market values. The money received from the leases under this section shall be credited to the account that receives the proceeds of a sale of the land.

Subd. 2. [WILD RICE LAND DESIGNATION AND DEVELOPMENT.] The commissioner of natural resources shall prepare a plan including an inventory of the number of acres of land appropriate and suitable for wild rice development and leasing in each county.

Subd. 3. [RULES.] The commissioner of natural resources may adopt rules to implement this section.

This act is effective the day following final enactment."

Subd. 2. [BUYERS THAT PURCHASE SUBJECT TO A SECURITY INTEREST.] A buyer in the ordinary course of business that is registered under section 386.42 in the seller's county of residence who is notified by a secured party as provided under subdivision 3, purchases farm products from a person engaged in farming operations subject to the perfected security interest. A buyer who is not registered under section 386.42 in the seller's county of residence purchases farm products from a person engaged in farming operations subject to perfected security interests.

A buyer who purchases farm products subject to a security interest under this section subdivision shall include the name of the secured party as joint payee on any check or other instrument issued in payment for the farm products, unless the secured party gives the buyer written notice of waiver of this requirement. Issuance of joint payment as herein required relieves the buyer of any further liability to the secured party.

Subd. 3. [NOTIFICATION OF SECURITY INTEREST.] A secured party may, by certified mail or another method by which receipt can be verified, notify a buyer that a debtor has farm products subject to a security interest.

The notification is effective upon receipt until September 1 after the notification is made; or for a notification made after August 20 but before September 1, the notification is effective for one year beginning September 1. A buyer who receives notification from a secured party under this subdivision shall not publicly post or disseminate to any person, other than its agents and employees who reasonably require the information for purposes related to this aet section, any information contained in the notification.

A secured party that furnishes to a buyer a list of debtors who have farm products subject to a security interest is not liable to a debtor whose name is on the list for furnishing the list.

Subd. 4. [COMMISSION MERCHANT.] Notwithstanding section 336.1-201, subsection (9), a commission merchant or selling agent who sells farm products for another for a fee, that is a registered buyer under section 386.42, is a buyer in the ordinary course of business under this chapter and section 336.9-307, subsection (1), for transactions involving farm products.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 336.9-307, as amended by S.F. No. 919, section 7, if enacted by the 1985 regular session, is amended to read:

336.9-307 [PROTECTION OF BUYERS OF GOODS.]

(1) A buyer in ordinary course of business (subsection (9) of section 336.1-201) takes free of a security interest created by his seller even though the security interest is perfected and even though the buyer knows of its existence, except that a buyer in the ordinary course of business who purchases farm products from a person engaged in farming operations is subject to section ~~386.42~~ 223A.01.

(2) In the case of consumer goods, a buyer takes free of a security interest even though perfected if he buys without knowledge of the security interest, for value and for his own personal, family or household purposes unless prior to the purchase the secured party has filed a financing statement covering such goods.

(3) A buyer other than a buyer in ordinary course of business (subsection (1) of this section) takes free of a security interest to the extent that it secures future advances made after the secured party acquires knowledge of the purchase, or more than 45 days after the purchase, whichever first occurs, unless made pursuant to a commitment entered into without knowledge of the purchase and before the expiration of the 45 day period.”

(b) The county attorney shall prosecute failure to report physical or sexual child abuse or neglect as provided under section 626.556, subdivision 6.

518.552 [MAINTENANCE.]

Subdivision 1. In a proceeding for dissolution of marriage or legal separation, or in a proceeding for maintenance following dissolution of the marriage by a court which lacked personal jurisdiction over the absent spouse and which has since acquired jurisdiction, the court may grant a maintenance order for either spouse if it finds that the spouse seeking maintenance:

(a) Lacks sufficient property, including marital property apportioned to ~~him~~ the spouse, to provide for ~~his~~ reasonable needs of the spouse considering the standard of living established during the marriage, especially ~~during~~ but not limited to, a period of training or education, ~~and or~~

(b) Is unable to ~~adequately support himself~~ provide adequate self-support, after considering the standard of living established during the marriage and all relevant circumstances, through appropriate employment, or is the custodian of a child whose condition or circumstances make it appropriate that the custodian not be required to seek employment outside the home.

Subd. 2. The maintenance order shall be in amounts and for periods of time, either temporary or permanent, as the court deems just, without regard to marital misconduct, and after considering all relevant factors including:

(a) The financial resources of the party seeking maintenance, including marital property apportioned to ~~him~~ the party, and ~~his~~ the party's ability to meet his or her needs independently, including the extent to which a provision for support of a child living with the party includes a sum for that party as custodian;

(b) The time necessary to acquire sufficient education or training to enable the party seeking maintenance to find appropriate employment, and the probability, given the ~~spouse's~~ party's age and skills, of completing education or training and becoming fully or partially self-supporting;

(c) The standard of living established during the marriage;

(d) The duration of the marriage and, in the case of a homemaker, the length of absence from employment and the extent to which any education, skills, or experience have become outmoded and earning capacity has become permanently diminished;

(e) The loss of earnings, seniority, retirement benefits, and other employment opportunities foregone by the spouse seeking spousal maintenance;

(f) The age, and the physical and emotional condition of the spouse seeking maintenance;

(~~f~~) (g) The ability of the spouse from whom maintenance is sought to meet his needs while meeting those of the spouse seeking maintenance; and

(~~g~~) (h) The contribution of each party in the acquisition, preservation, depreciation, or appreciation in the amount or value of the marital property, as well as the contribution of a spouse as a homemaker or in furtherance of the other party's employment or business.

Subd. 3. Nothing in this section shall be construed to favor a temporary award of maintenance over a permanent award, where the factors under subdivision 2 justify a permanent award.

Where there is some uncertainty as to the necessity of a permanent award, the court shall order a permanent award leaving its order open for later modification.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 518.64, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [MODIFICATION.] The terms of a decree respecting maintenance or support may be modified upon a showing of one or more of the following: (1) substantially increased or decreased earnings of a party; (2) substantially increased or decreased need of a party; (3) receipt of assistance under sections 256.72 to 256.87; or (4) a change in the cost-of-living for either party as measured by the federal bureau of statistics, any of which makes the terms unreasonable and unfair. On a motion for modification of maintenance, the court shall apply, in addition to all other relevant factors, the factors for an award of maintenance under section 518.552 that exist at the time of the motion. On a motion for modification of support, the court shall take into consideration the needs of the children and the financial circumstances of each party's spouse, if any. A modification which decreases support or maintenance may be made retroactive only upon a showing that any failure to pay in accord with the terms of the original order was not willful. A modification which increases support or maintenance shall not be made retroactive if the obligor has substantially complied with the previous order. Except for an award of the right of occupancy of the homestead, provided in section 518.63, all divisions of real and personal property provided by section 518.58 shall be final, and may be revoked or modified only where the court finds the existence of conditions that justify reopening a judgment under the laws of this state. The court may impose a lien or charge on the divided property at any time while the property, or subsequently acquired property, is owned by the parties or either of them, for the payment of maintenance or support money, or may sequester the property as is provided by section 518.24.

609.379 [PERMITTED ACTIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [REASONABLE FORCE.] Reasonable force may be used upon or toward the person of a child without the child's consent when the following circumstance exists or the actor reasonably believes it to exist:

The records shall be collected and maintained in accordance with the provisions of chapter 13. An individual subject of a record shall have access to the record in accordance with those sections, except that the name of the reporter shall be confidential while the report is under assessment or investigation except as otherwise permitted by this subdivision. Any person conducting an investigation or assessment under this section who intentionally discloses the identity of a reporter prior to the completion of the investigation or assessment is guilty of a misdemeanor. After the assessment or investigation is completed, the name of the reporter shall be confidential but shall be accessible to the individual subject of the record upon court order.

Notwithstanding section 138.17, records maintained by local welfare agencies, the police department or county sheriff under this section shall be destroyed as described in clauses (a) to (e) (d):

(a) If upon assessment or investigation a report is found to be unsubstantiated, notice of intent to destroy records of the report shall be mailed to the individual subject of the report. At the subject's request the records shall be maintained as private data. If no request from the subject is received within 30 days of mailing the notice of intent to destroy, the records shall be destroyed.

(b) All records relating to reports which, upon assessment or investigation, are found to be substantiated shall be destroyed seven years after the date of the final entry in the case record.

(c) All records of reports which, upon initial assessment or investigation, cannot be substantiated or disproved to the satisfaction of the local welfare agency, local police department or county sheriff may be kept for a period of one year. If the local welfare agency, local police department or county sheriff is unable to substantiate the report within that period, each agency unable to substantiate the report shall destroy its records relating to the report in the manner provided by clause (a).

(d) Any notification of intent to interview which was received by a school under subdivision 10, paragraph (c), shall be destroyed by the school when ordered to do so by the agency conducting the assessment or investigation. The agency shall order the destruction of the notification when other records relating to the report under investigation or assessment are destroyed under this subdivision."

We, the undersigned conferees for H.F. No. 558, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendment and that H.F. No. 558 be further amended as follows:

“Section 1. [BLOOMINGTON HIGHWAY IMPROVEMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [CONTRACT AUTHORIZED.] To expedite and facilitate the construction of a highway improvement project on Trunk Highway No. 77 from the intersection of I-494 to the intersection of east 86th street within the city of Bloomington, the city and the commissioner of transportation on behalf of the state may enter into a contract under which the city agrees to advance to the commissioner, in consideration of the undertaking of the project by the state at a time specified in the contract, all or part of the cost of the engineering services, construction, or other costs attributable to the project. The project shall be fully described in the contract, and the advance by the city shall not exceed the total amount of the actual contract prices for performing the work on the project and may be made in installments during the performance of the project, or otherwise, as specified in the contract. The contract may provide for repayment by the state to the city of the principal amount or value of the advance, without interest, in not more than ten annual installments, out of the trunk highway fund. Repayment may commence at the time the state would otherwise have undertaken the project. The cash agreed to be advanced by the city shall not affect the amount otherwise agreed to be paid by the city as its share of the cost of the project. The contract may include all other terms necessary to comply with laws relating to cooperative agreements between the commissioner of transportation and municipalities.

Subd. 2. [BONDS AUTHORIZED.] At any time after a contract has been executed by the commissioner and the city of Bloomington by which the city agrees to advance to the commissioner cash for the purpose stated in subdivision 1, the city council may by resolution issue and sell general obligation bonds of the city in an aggregate amount not exceeding the advance to the commissioner provided for in the contract and the cost of issuing the bonds. The bonds shall be issued and sold in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, chapter 475, except that an election shall not be required to authorize their issuance, and the bonds shall not be included in net debt within the meaning of Minnesota Statutes, section 475.51. Money repaid to the city by the commissioner under the contract may be pledged for payment of principal of and interest on the bonds and shall be credited by the city to a separate fund and used solely to pay principal of and interest on any bonds issued pursuant to this section. With the consent of the commissioner of transportation, the city may use money allotted to it out of municipal state-aid street funds to repay interest on the bonds. The money allotted to the city out of the municipal state-aid street funds may be pledged for payment of interest on the bonds.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 473.556, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [DISPOSITION OF PROPERTY.] (a) The commission may sell or otherwise dispose of any real or personal property acquired by it which is no longer required for accomplishment of its purposes. The property shall be sold in the manner provided by section 458.196, insofar as practical and consistent with sections 473.551 to 473.595.

(b) Real property at the metropolitan sports area (not including the indoor public assembly facility and adjacent parking facilities) which is no longer needed for sports facilities shall may be sold or leased for residential, commercial, or industrial development in accordance with the procedures in section 458.196 within two years to a private, for-profit entity, and thereafter the property shall be subject to all applicable taxes and assessments and all government laws, regulations and ordinances bearing on use and development as if the property were privately owned.

(c) Any real property right, title, or interest within the provisions of paragraph (b) owned by the commission may be sold or leased in whole or in part to the port authority of the city of Bloomington to further the general plan of port improvement or industrial development or for any other purpose which the authority considers to be in the best interests of the district and its people. The property shall be sold or leased to the authority in accordance with section 458.196, subdivisions 1 to 4. Section 458.196, subdivisions 5 to 7 shall not apply to a sale under this paragraph.

(d) Real property disposed of under clause (c) shall be subject to leases, agreements, or other written interests in force on June 1, 1983.

(e) The proceeds from the sale of any real property at the metropolitan sports area shall be paid to the council and used for debt service or retirement.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 473.704, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 18. The commission may establish a research program to evaluate the effects of mosquito and blackfly control on other fauna. The purpose of the program is to identify the types and magnitude of the adverse effects of the control program on fish and wildlife and associated food chain invertebrates. The commission may conduct research through contracts with qualified outside researchers. The commission may finance the research program each year at a level up to 2.5 percent of its annual budget.

Sec. 4. [APPLICATION.]

Sections 2 and 3 apply in the counties of Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, and Washington.

Sec. 5. [LOCAL APPROVAL.]

Section 1 takes effect the day after compliance with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3, by the governing body of the city of Bloomington."

May 17, 1985

The Honorable David M. Jennings
Speaker of the House of Representatives
The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H.F. No. 848, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendment and that H.F. No. 848 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 260.011, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The purpose of the laws relating to juvenile courts is to secure for each child alleged or adjudicated neglected or dependent and under the jurisdiction of the court, the care and guidance, preferably in his own home, as will serve the spiritual, emotional, mental, and physical welfare of the child and the best interests of the state; to provide judicial procedures which protect the welfare of the child; to preserve and strengthen the child's family ties whenever possible, removing him from the custody of his parents only when his welfare or safety cannot be adequately safeguarded without removal; and, when the child is removed from his own family, to secure for him custody, care and discipline as nearly as possible equivalent to that which should have been given by his parents.

The purpose of the laws relating to children alleged or adjudicated to be delinquent is to promote the public safety and reduce juvenile delinquency by maintaining the integrity of the substantive law prohibiting certain behavior and by developing individual responsibility for lawful behavior. This purpose should be pursued through means that are fair and just, that recognize the unique characteristics and needs of children, and that give children access to opportunities for personal and social growth.

The laws relating to juvenile courts shall be liberally construed to carry out these purposes.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 260.133, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [TEMPORARY ORDER.] If it appears from the notarized petition or by sworn affidavit that there are reasonable grounds to believe the child is in immediate and present danger of domestic child abuse, the court may grant an ex parte temporary order for protection, pending a full hearing. The court may grant relief as it deems proper, including an order:

- (1) restraining any party from committing acts of domestic child abuse; or
- (2) excluding the alleged abusing party from the dwelling which the family or household members share or from the residence of the child.

However, no order excluding the alleged abusing party from the dwelling may be issued unless the court finds that:

- (1) the order is in the best interests of the child or children remaining in the dwelling; and
- (2) a remaining adult family or household member is able to care adequately for the child or children in the absence of the excluded party; and
- (3) ~~the local welfare agency has developed a plan to provide appropriate social services to the remaining family or household members.~~

Before the temporary order is issued, the local welfare agency shall advise the court and the other parties who are present that appropriate social services will be provided to the family or household members during the effective period of the order.

An ex parte temporary order for protection shall be effective for a fixed period not to exceed 14 days. Within five days of the issuance of the temporary order, the petitioner shall file a dependency and neglect petition with the court pursuant to section 260.131, and the court shall give docket priority to the petition.

The court may renew the temporary order for protection one time for a fixed period not to exceed 14 days if a dependency and neglect petition has been filed with the court and if the court determines, upon informal review of the case file, that the renewal is appropriate.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 260.135, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. After a petition has been filed and unless the parties hereinafter named voluntarily appear, the court shall set a time for a hearing and shall issue a summons requiring the person who has custody or control of the child to appear with the child before the court at a time and place stated. The summons shall have a copy of the petition attached, and shall advise the parties of the right to counsel and of the consequences of failure to obey the summons. The court shall give docket priority to any dependency, neglect, neglected and in foster care, or delinquency petition that contains allegations of child abuse over any other case except those delinquency matters where a child is being held in a secure detention facility. As used in this subdivision, "child abuse" has the meaning given it in section 22, subdivision 2.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 260.155, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4a. [EXAMINATION OF CHILD.] In any dependency, neglect, or neglected and in foster care proceeding the court may, on its own motion or the motion of any party, take the testimony of a child witness informally when it is in the child's best interests to do so. Informal procedures that may be used by the court include taking the testimony of a child witness outside the courtroom. The court may also require counsel for any party to the proceeding to submit questions to the court before the child's testimony is taken, and to submit additional questions to the court for the witness after questioning has been completed. The court may excuse the presence of the child's parent, guardian, or custodian from the room where the child is questioned in accordance with subdivision 5.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 260.156, is amended to read:

260.156 [CERTAIN OUT-OF-COURT STATEMENTS ADMISSIBLE.]

An out-of-court statement made by a child under the age of ten years alleging, explaining, denying, or describing any act of sexual contact or penetration performed with or on the child or any act of physical abuse or neglect of the child by another, not otherwise admissible by statute or rule of evidence, is admissible in evidence in any dependency or neglect proceeding or any proceeding for termination of parental rights if:

(a) The court finds that the time, content, and circumstances of the statement and the reliability of the person to whom the statement is made provide sufficient indicia of reliability; and

(b) The proponent of the statement notifies other parties of his intention to offer the statement and the particulars of the statement sufficiently in advance of the proceeding at which he intends to offer the statement into evidence, to provide the parties with a fair opportunity to meet the statement.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 260.171, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. If the person who has taken the child into custody determines that the child should be placed in a secure detention facility or a shelter care facility, he shall advise the child and as soon as is possible, the child's parent, guardian, or custodian:

(a) of the reasons why the child has been taken into custody and why he is being placed in a secure detention facility or a shelter care facility; and

(b) of the location of the secure detention facility or shelter care facility. If there is reason to believe that disclosure of the location of the shelter care facility would place the child's health and welfare in immediate endangerment, disclosure of the location of the shelter care facility shall not be made; and

(c) that the child's parent, guardian, or custodian and attorney or guardian ad litem may make an initial visit to the secure detention facility or shelter care facility at any time. Subsequent visits by a parent, guardian, or custodian may be made on a reasonable basis during visiting hours and by the child's attorney or guardian ad litem at reasonable hours; and

(d) that the child may telephone his parents and an attorney or guardian ad litem from the secure detention facility or shelter care facility immediately after being admitted to the facility and thereafter on a reasonable basis to be determined by the director of the facility; and

(e) that the child may not be detained for acts as defined in section 260.015, subdivision 5 at a secure detention facility or shelter care facility longer than 36 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, unless a petition has been filed within that time and the court orders the child's continued detention, pursuant to section 260.172; and

(f) that the child may not be detained pursuant to section 260.165, subdivision 1, clause (a) or (c)(2), at a shelter care facility longer than 72 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, unless a petition has been filed within that time and the court orders the child's continued detention, pursuant to section 260.172; and

(g) of the date, time, and place of the detention hearing; and

(h) that the child and the child's parent, guardian, or custodian have the right to be present and to be represented by counsel at the detention hearing, and that if they cannot afford counsel, counsel will be appointed at public expense for the child, if it is a delinquency matter, or for any party, if it is a dependency, neglect, neglected and in foster care, or termination of parental rights matter.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 260.172, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [PARENTAL VISITATION.] If a child has been taken into custody under section 260.135, subdivision 5, or 260.165, subdivision 1, clause (c)(2), and the court determines that the child should continue in detention, the court shall include in its order reasonable rules for supervised or unsupervised parental visitation of the child in the shelter care facility unless it finds that visitation would endanger the child's physical or emotional well-being.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 260.172, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2b. [MENTAL HEALTH TREATMENT.] (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), a child who is held in detention because he or she is alleged to be a victim of child abuse as defined in section 22, subdivision 2, may not be given mental health treatment specifically for the effects of the alleged abuse until the court finds that there is probable cause to believe the abuse has occurred.

(b) A child described in paragraph (a) may be given mental health treatment prior to a probable cause finding of child abuse if the treatment is either agreed to by the child's parent or guardian in writing, or ordered by the court according to the standard contained in section 260.191, subdivision 1.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 260.172, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. If a child held in detention under a court order issued under subdivision 2 has not been released prior to expiration of the order, the court or referee shall informally review the child's case file to determine, under the standards provided by subdivision 1, whether detention should be continued. If detention is continued thereafter, informal reviews such as these shall be held within every eight days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, of the child's detention.

A hearing, rather than an informal review of the child's case file, shall be held at the request of any one of the parties notified pursuant to subdivision 3, if that party notifies the court that he wishes to present to the court new evidence concerning whether the child should be continued in detention.

In addition, if a child was taken into detention under section 260.135, subdivision 5, or 260.165, subdivision 1, clause (c)(2), and is held in detention under a court order issued under subdivision 2, the court shall schedule and hold an adjudicatory hearing on the petition within 60 days of the detention hearing upon the request of any party to the proceeding unless good cause is shown by a party to the proceeding why the hearing should not be held within that time period.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 260.191, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DISPOSITIONS.] If the court finds that the child is neglected, dependent, or neglected and in foster care, it shall enter an order making any of the following dispositions of the case:

(a) Place the child under the protective supervision of the county welfare board or child placing agency in his own home under conditions prescribed by the court directed to the correction of the neglect or dependency of the child;

(b) Transfer legal custody to one of the following:

(1) a child placing agency; or

(2) the county welfare board.

In placing a child whose custody has been transferred under this paragraph, the agency and board shall follow the order of preference stated in section 260.181, subdivision 3;

(c) If the child is in need of special treatment and care for his physical or mental health, the court may order the child's parent, guardian, or custodian to provide it. If the parent, guardian, or custodian fails to provide this treatment or care, the court may order it provided. If the court's order for mental health treatment is based on a diagnosis made by a treatment professional, the court may order that the diagnosing professional not provide the treatment to the child if it finds that such an order is in the child's best interests.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 260.191, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1d. [PARENTAL VISITATION.] If the court orders that the child be placed outside of the child's home or present residence, it shall set reasonable rules for supervised or unsupervised parental visitation that contribute to the objectives of the court order and the maintenance of the familial relationship. No parent may be denied visitation unless the court finds at the disposition hearing that the visitation would act to prevent the achievement of the order's objectives or that it would endanger the child's physical or emotional well-being.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 260.191, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [SERVICE OF ORDER.] Any person who provides services to a child under a disposition order, or who is subject to the conditions of a disposition order shall be served with a copy of the order in the manner provided in the rules for juvenile courts.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 595.02, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [CERTAIN OUT-OF-COURT STATEMENTS ADMISSIBLE.] An out-of-court statement made by a child under the age of ten years alleging, explaining, denying, or describing any act of sexual contact or penetration performed with or on the child or any act of physical abuse of the child by another, not otherwise admissible by statute or rule of evidence, is admissible in evidence if:

(a) the court or person authorized to receive evidence finds, in a hearing conducted outside of the presence of the jury, that the time, content, and circumstances of the statement and the reliability of the person to whom the statement is made provide sufficient indicia of reliability; and

(b) the child either:

(i) testifies at the proceedings; or

(ii) is unavailable as a witness and there is corroborative evidence of the act; and

(c) the proponent of the statement notifies the adverse party of his intention to offer the statement and the particulars of the statement sufficiently in advance of the proceeding at which he intends to offer the statement into evidence to provide the adverse party with a fair opportunity to prepare to meet the statement.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 609.341, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 15. [SIGNIFICANT RELATIONSHIP.] "Significant relationship" means a situation in which the actor is:

Sec. 9. [COLLECTION OF TAXES.]

Ad valorem taxes levied within a special service district shall be collected and paid over as other ad valorem taxes, but shall be spread only upon the assessed value of property described in the ordinance. Service charges imposed shall be collected as provided by ordinance. Taxes collected pursuant to this act shall not be included in computations under Minnesota Statutes, section 273.76, chapter 473F, or any other law that applies to general ad valorem levies.

Sec. 10. [BONDS.]

At any time after a contract for the construction of all or part of an improvement authorized pursuant to this act has been entered into or the work has been ordered done by day labor, the governing body of the city may issue obligations, including certificates of indebtedness, in the amount it deems necessary to defray in whole or in part the expense incurred and estimated to be incurred in making the improvement, including every item of cost from inception to completion and all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the improvement or the financing. The obligations shall be payable primarily out of the proceeds of the tax levied pursuant to section 7, or from any other special assessment or nontax revenues available to be pledged for their payment under charter or other statutory authority, or from any two or more of such sources. The governing body may, by resolution adopted prior to the sale of obligations, pledge the full faith, credit, and taxing power of the municipality to assure payment of the principal and interest if the proceeds of the tax levy in the district are insufficient to pay the principal and interest. The amount of any taxes that are required to be levied outside of the territory of the special services district or taken from the general funds of the municipality to pay principal and interest on the obligations shall be reimbursed to the municipality from taxes levied within the special services district. The obligations shall be issued in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, chapter 475, except that an election shall not be required, and the amount of the obligations shall not be included in determining the net debt of the city under the provisions of any law or charter limiting debt.

Sec. 11. [ADVISORY BOARD.]

The governing body of the city may create and appoint an advisory board for each special service district in the city to advise the governing body in connection with the construction, maintenance, and operation of improvements, and the furnishing of special services in a district. The advisory board shall make recommendations to the governing body on the requests and complaints of owners, occupants, and users of property within the district and members of the public. Before the adoption of any proposal by the governing body to provide services or impose taxes or service charges within the district, the advisory board of the district shall have an opportunity to review and comment upon the proposal.

Sec. 12. [PETITION REQUIRED.]

No action may be taken pursuant to section 6 unless owners of 15 percent or more of the land area of the proposed special service district and owners of 15 percent or more of the assessed value of the proposed district file a petition requesting a public hearing on the proposed action with the city clerk. No action may be taken pursuant to section 7 to impose an ad valorem tax unless owners of 15 percent or more of the land area subject to a proposed tax and owners of 15 percent or more of the assessed value subject to a proposed tax file a petition requesting a public hearing on the proposed action with the city clerk. No action may be taken pursuant to section 7 to impose a service charge unless 15 percent or more of the individual or business organizations subject to the proposed service charge file a petition requesting a public hearing on the proposed action with the city clerk. If the boundaries of a proposed district are changed or the land area or assessed value subject to a tax or the individuals or business organizations subject to a service charge are changed after the public hearing, a petition meeting the requirements of this section must be filed with the city clerk before the ordinance establishing the district or resolution imposing the tax or service charge may become effective.

The mailing shall include a notice that owners subject to a tax and individuals and business organizations subject to a service charge have a right to veto the ordinance or resolution by filing the required number of objections with the city clerk before the effective date of the ordinance or resolution.

[REQUIREMENT FOR VETO.] If owners of 35 percent of the land area in the district or owners of 35 percent of the assessed value in the district file an objection to the ordinance adopted by the city pursuant to section 6 with the city clerk before the effective date of the ordinance, the ordinance shall not become effective. If owners of 35 percent of the land area subject to a tax or owners of 35 percent of the assessed value subject to a tax file an objection to the resolution adopted levying an ad valorem tax pursuant to section 7 with the city clerk before the effective date of the resolution, the resolution shall not become effective. If 35 percent of individuals and business organizations subject to a service charge file an objection to the resolution adopted imposing a service charge pursuant to section 7 with the city clerk before the effective date of the resolution, the resolution shall not become effective.

Sec. 14. [EXCLUSION FROM PETITION REQUIREMENTS AND VETO POWER.]

The petition requirement of section 12 and the right of owners and those subject to a service charge to veto a resolution in section 13 do not apply to second or subsequent years' applications of a tax or service charge which is authorized to be in effect for more than one year pursuant to a resolution which has met the petition requirements of section 12 and which has not been vetoed under section 13 for the first year's application. A resolution levying a tax or imposing a service charge for more than one year shall not be adopted unless the notice of public hearing required by section 7 and the notice mailed with the adopted resolution pursuant to section 13 include the following information:

(a) In the case of improvements, the maximum rate or amount of taxes to be levied or the maximum service charge to be imposed in any year and the maximum number of years the taxes will be levied or service charges imposed to pay for the improvement.

Sec. 24. [TEMPORARY PROVISION; COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY EMPLOYEES.]

Section 3 applies to county historical society employees first employed on or after July 1, 1985. Employees first employed prior to July 1, 1985, may elect membership effective commencing on that date by filing notice of their election with the board of trustees of the association prior to September 1, 1985. Elected coverage shall not be retroactive for service prior to July 1, 1985, and no purchase of prior service credit shall be allowed.

Sec. 25. [MOORHEAD POLICE AND FIREFIGHTERS; RETIREMENT COVERAGE FOR ACTIVE MEMBERS.]

Subdivision 1. [TRANSFER OF COVERAGE.] Notwithstanding any other law, deferred recipients or active police officers and firefighters employed by the police and fire departments of the city of Moorhead on the effective date of sections 25 to 31 who receive their pension and retirement coverage from either the Moorhead police or firefighters relief association cease to be members of their respective association, and cease to accrue service credits, rights, or benefits from their respective relief association on August 1, 1985. On August 1, 1985, active police officers and firefighters employed by the city of Moorhead who meet the requirements of Minnesota Statutes, section 353.64, become members of the public employees police and fire fund established pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, sections 353.63 to 353.68. Their service before August 1, 1985, as police officers and firefighters with the city of Moorhead must be credited as allowable service by the public employees police and fire fund for purposes of Minnesota Statutes, section 353.01, subdivision 16.

Subd. 2. [CALCULATION OF LIABILITY.] The liability for service before August 1, 1985, to be transferred to the police and fire fund must be calculated by the actuary for the police and fire fund based on the following data for each active police officer and firefighter: date of birth, date of entry into service, dates of breaks in service, and salaries for each of the highest five successive years of service. The liability must be calculated as of August 1, 1985, as if each police officer and firefighter were a member of the police and fire fund from the original date of entry into service under the laws governing the police and fire fund on January 1, 1985. The actuary of the police and fire fund shall calculate this liability before the approval of sections 25 to 31 by the city of Moorhead.

The legislative commission on pensions and retirement must approve the calculations of liabilities upon the recommendation of its actuary. The actuary for the police and fire fund shall furnish documents, data, and materials requested by the commission and its actuary.

The city of Moorhead shall pay a required portion of the calculated liability to the police and fire fund. The required portion shall be an amount equal to the percentage which the assets of the police and fire fund bear to the accrued liability of the fund as determined in the June 30, 1984, valuation of the fund.

The required portion of the liability for the service of the police officers and firefighters before August 1, 1985, must be added to the liability of the police and fire fund. The city of Moorhead shall certify the records upon which the liability calculations are performed and shall amortize the amount of that added liability as provided in section 27, subdivision 2.

Sec. 26. [RETIREMENT COVERAGE FOR CURRENT RECIPIENTS

OF BENEFITS.]

Current recipients of retirement benefits, disability benefits, or survivor benefits paid by either relief association shall receive future benefits from the police and fire fund with future adjustments from the Minnesota postretirement investment fund, called the postretirement fund in sections 27 to 30, pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 11A.18.

The relief associations shall obtain estimates of reserves for current or deferred benefit recipients from the actuary of the police and fire fund. The estimates must be of the reserves necessary to support a benefit in an amount equal to that received by each recipient in July 1985, plus future adjustments from the postretirement fund, assuming the recipient was retiring at his or her attained age as of July 31, 1985, from the police and fire fund on that date. The calculation must be made using the interest assumption of the postretirement fund and the applicable police and fire fund mortality table. For recipients with eligible spouses, the reserves must include the right of the spouse to receive a surviving spouse benefit as provided by the laws and the bylaws governing the relief association as of January 1, 1985.

The relief association shall compile a list of recipients to receive future benefit adjustments from the postretirement fund, called the postfund recipients and the corresponding required reserves for those recipients. The relief association shall provide the board of the public employees retirement association with the list so that the board can pay the August 1985 payments.

The accrued liability as of July 31, 1985, for all postfund recipients must be added to the liability of the police and fire fund and ceases to be the liability of each relief association. The police and fire fund shall transfer the required reserves for the postfund recipients to the postretirement fund by July 31, 1985.

The required reserves for the January 1, 1986, increase determined using the interest assumption of the postretirement fund and the applicable police and fire fund mortality table shall be transferred by the police and fire fund to the postretirement fund on January 1, 1986. If any assets remain in either the Moorhead police relief association or in the special fund of the Moorhead firefighters relief association after the transfer of assets for the postfund recipients, those assets must be transferred to the public employees retirement association to reduce the unfunded accrued liability resulting from transfer of the liability of the active employees. If the assets transferred for the postfund recipients are insufficient, the city shall finance the remaining unfunded accrued liability as provided in section 27, subdivision 3.

Future adjustments, pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 11A.18, must be calculated on the annuity or benefit amount payable by either relief association in July 1985. For the purposes of determining and paying the January 1, 1986, adjustment from the postretirement fund, the adjustment must be calculated as though June 30, 1984, were the effective date of retirement for each postfund recipient.

Sec. 27. [FINANCIAL REQUIREMENTS FOR CITY OF MOORHEAD.]

Subdivision 1. [RECEIPT OF STATE AID.] Amortization state aid, fire state aid, or other money received by the city for pension purposes must be allocated by the city among the financial requirements of this section.

Subd. 2. [FINANCIAL REQUIREMENTS OF POLICE AND FIRE FUND MEMBERS.] The city of Moorhead shall make the employer contribution to the police and fire fund on behalf of all active police officers and firefighters employed by the police and fire departments as required in Minnesota Statutes, section 353.65, subdivision 3.

In addition, the city shall make an additional contribution to the police and fire fund to amortize the unfunded accrued liability incurred by the police and fire fund as a result of the crediting of service before August 1, 1985. The additional contribution must be the level annual dollar amount that is required to amortize by the year 2010 the unfunded accrued liability incurred as a result of the consolidation, using an interest assumption of eight percent. The additional contribution is payable at the beginning of each fiscal year, commencing July 1, 1986. Upon request of the city of Moorhead, the board may permit the city to make payments according to a different schedule.

Subd. 3. [FINANCIAL REQUIREMENTS FOR POSTFUND RECIPIENTS.] The city of Moorhead shall amortize the unfunded accrued liability incurred by the police and fire fund as a result of the transfer of reserves by the police and fire fund to the postretirement fund for the postfund recipients. That liability, if any, calculated by the police and fire fund actuary as provided in section 26, must be amortized and paid in the same manner as the unfunded liability incurred as a result of the consolidation, as provided in subdivision 2, except that the amortization period must be equal to the average life expectancy of the postfund recipients as of August 1, 1985. The actuary of the police and fire fund shall determine the period of amortization based on the mortality tables applicable to the police and fire fund.

Subd. 4. [LEVY AUTHORITY.] The city of Moorhead shall levy to provide for the financial requirements of subdivisions 2 and 3. Notwithstanding any other law, any levy required to provide the necessary financing is not included in any limitation as to rate or amount set by charter and is a special levy for purposes of Minnesota Statutes, section 275.50, subdivision 5, clause (o).

Sec. 28. [TERMINATION OF RELIEF ASSOCIATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [TRANSFER OF ASSETS.] All assets of the special fund of the Moorhead firefighters relief association and all assets of the Moorhead police relief association must be transferred to the public employees retirement association as provided in section 26. The transfer of assets must include any accounts receivable, regardless of source. Accounts payable on August 1, 1985, must also be transferred to the public employees retirement association. The public employees retirement association is the successor in interest with respect to all claims by or against either relief association or the city of Moorhead arising from operation of the relief association, except (1) any claim against either relief association or any person connected with it in a fiduciary capacity, based on any acts by that person which were not performed in good faith and which constituted a breach of the person's obligation as a fiduciary, or (2) any judicial proceeding arising from the passage of sections 25 to 31. As a successor in interest, the public employees retirement association may assert any applicable defense in any judicial proceeding which either relief association or the city of Moorhead would otherwise have been entitled to assert.

Subd. 2. [TRANSFER OF RECORDS.] Before August 1, 1985, or as soon as possible, each relief association shall transfer to the police and fire fund original copies of all records and documents in its possession relating to the relief association and any of its members. The city of Moorhead shall provide from time to time whatever additional relevant information the board may request.

Subd. 3. [TERMINATION OF SPECIAL FUND.] Upon the transfer of the assets, liabilities, and records of the Moorhead firefighters relief association to the public employees retirement association, the Moorhead firefighters are no longer authorized to retain a special fund within their relief association, and the special fund ceases to exist as a legal entity. Firefighters employed by the Moorhead fire department may retain the name "Moorhead firefighters relief association" as the name of their general fund.

Subd. 4. [TERMINATION OF RELIEF ASSOCIATION.] Upon the transfer of the assets, liabilities, and records of the Moorhead police relief association to the public employees retirement association, the Moorhead police relief association ceases to exist as a legal entity.

Sec. 29. [REVIEW OF PORTFOLIO BY STATE BOARD OF INVESTMENT.]

Before the transfer of assets to the public employees retirement association, the state board of investment may review the existing portfolio of the relief associations and require the liquidation of any assets deemed inappropriate for transfer. All assets must be transferred at market value.

Sec. 30. [SAVING CLAUSE.]

Notwithstanding any other law, any person receiving a benefit from either relief association on or before the effective date of sections 25 to 31, who is working for a state or local unit of government on that date, and who has retirement coverage for that employment from either the Minnesota state retirement system or the public employees retirement association retains benefits accrued for that employment and is entitled to accrue future benefits for it despite the transfer of service credit for service as a Moorhead police officer or firefighter to the police and fire fund.

May 20, 1985

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes

President of the Senate

The Honorable David M. Jennings

Speaker of the House of Representatives

We, the undersigned conferees for S.F. No. 472, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House recede from its amendment and that S.F. No. 472 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 270.076, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. In case of appeal from the assessment and levy of the tax, the airline company shall currently pay when due ~~that portion~~ ^{90 percent} of the tax ~~which is admitted to be due unless the payment is waived or otherwise adjusted by an order of the court.~~ If the final determination of the litigation should result in sustaining the assessment and levy or in the finding that the amount paid by the airline company is insufficient, the difference between the amount paid and the amount which should have been paid shall be decreed delinquent taxes subject to interest, as hereinabove provided. If the final determination of the tax court or the supreme court shall result in increasing any assessment above that which was made final by the order of the commissioner from which the appeal is taken, then the taxes on such increased assessment shall be delinquent 30 days after notice of the amount of the increased tax shall have been given to the airline company by the commissioner.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 270.11, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [APPEARANCES BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER.] A property owner, other than a public utility, or mining company ~~or the metropolitan airport commission,~~ for which the original assessments are determined by the commissioner of revenue, may not appear before the commissioner for the purposes provided in subdivisions 5 or 6 unless a timely appearance in person, by counsel, or by written communication has been made before the county board of equalization as provided in section 274.13, to appeal the assessment of the property, or that he can establish that he did not receive notice of his market value at least five days before the local board of review meeting.

The commissioner may refuse to hear an appeal that is within the jurisdiction of the small claims division of the tax court as stated in section 271.21, subdivision 2. The property owner shall be notified by the commissioner of the right to appeal to the small claims division whenever an appeal to the commissioner is denied.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 270.12, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. For taxes levied in ~~1983~~ 1985 and thereafter when a taxing jurisdiction lies in two or more counties, if the sales ratio studies prepared by the department of revenue show that the average levels of assessment in the several portions of the taxing jurisdictions in the different counties differ by more than five percent, the board ~~shall~~ may order the apportionment of the levy. When the sales ratio studies prepared by the department of revenue show that the average levels of assessment in the several portions of the taxing jurisdictions in the different counties differ by more than ten percent, the board shall order the apportionment of the levy unless (a) the proportion of total adjusted assessed value in one of the counties is less than ten percent of the total adjusted assessed value in the taxing jurisdiction and the average level of assessment in that portion of the taxing jurisdiction is the level which differs by more than five percent from the assessment level in any one of the other portions of the taxing jurisdiction; (b) significant changes have been made in the level of assessment in the taxing jurisdiction which have not been reflected in the sales ratio study, and those changes alter the assessment levels in the portions of the taxing jurisdiction so that the assessment level now differs by five percent or less; or (c) commercial, industrial, mineral, or public utility property predominates in one county within the taxing jurisdiction and another class of property predominates in another county within that same taxing jurisdiction. If one or more of these factors are present, the board may order the apportionment of the levy.

Notwithstanding any other provision, the levy for the metropolitan mosquito control district, metropolitan council, metropolitan transit district, and metropolitan transit area must be apportioned without regard to the percentage difference.

If, pursuant to this subdivision, the board apportions the levy, then that levy apportionment among the portions in the different counties shall be made in the same proportion as the adjusted assessed value as determined by the equalization aid review committee in each portion is to the total adjusted assessed value of the taxing jurisdiction.

For the purposes of this section, the average level of assessment in a taxing jurisdiction or portion thereof shall be the aggregate assessment sales ratio. Assessed values as determined by the equalization aid review committee shall be the values as determined for the year preceding the year in which the levy to be apportioned is levied.

Actions pursuant to this subdivision shall be commenced subsequent to the annual meeting on August 15 of the state board of equalization, but notice of the action shall be given to the affected jurisdiction and the appropriate county auditors by the following November 15.

Apportionment of a levy pursuant to this subdivision shall be considered as a remedy to be taken after equalization pursuant to subdivision 2, and when equalization within the jurisdiction would disturb equalization within other jurisdictions of which the several portions of the jurisdiction in question are a part.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 272.02, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. All property described in this section to the extent herein limited shall be exempt from taxation:

(a) In the case of underground all mines or that tonnage of merchantable ore produced in open pit mines in the year in question which tonnage has resulted from beneficiation at an ore beneficiation plant within the state by jigging, heavy media, spiral separation, cyclone process, roasting, drying by artificial heat, sintering, magnetic separation, flotation, agglomeration or any process requiring fine grinding or any other iron ores mined after December 31, 1984, ten percent of that part of the cost of labor employed by the mine or in the beneficiation of all ore mined or produced in the calendar year in excess of 70 cents and not in excess of 90 cents per ton of the merchantable ore produced during the year at that mine, and 15 percent of that part of the cost of such labor in excess of 90 cents per ton; in the case of any other tonnage produced at said mine or in the case of other mines, ten percent of the amount by which the average cost per ton of labor employed at the mine, or in the beneficiation of the ore at or near the mine, exceeds 80 cents, but does not exceed $1.05, plus 15 percent of the amount by which the average labor cost per ton exceeds $1.05, multiplied by the number of tons of ore produced at the mine, not exceeding 100,000 tons, but this 100,000 tons or less shall be first reduced by any tonnage described in the first part of this subparagraph; provided, however, that in no event shall the credit allowed hereunder be in excess of three-fourths of eleven percent, as applied to underground and taconite, semi-taconite or other iron ore operations, and six-tenths of eleven percent as applied to all other operations, of the valuation of the ore used in computing the tax under the provisions of section 298.01. The term "merchantable ore produced" as used herein means ores which as mined or as mined and beneficiated, are ready for shipment as a merchantable product.

(b) The aggregate amount of all credits allowed under this subdivision to all mines shall not exceed six and two-tenths percent of the aggregate amount of occupation taxes imposed under section 298.01, subdivision 1, assessed against all mines in the state for said year prior to the deduction of such credits, provided, that after December 31, 1954, labor credits to underground mines or taconite or semi-taconite operations shall not be subject to such percentage limitation and that, after December 31, 1984, labor credits to other iron ore operations shall not be subject to the percentage limitation and both the occupation taxes of such underground mines or taconite, semi-taconite or other iron ore operations and the labor credits allowed thereto, shall be excluded in calculating such percentage limitations. At the time of his final determination of occupation tax pursuant to section 298.09, subdivision 3, the commissioner shall reduce the credit otherwise allowable to each mine hereunder by such equal percentage as will bring the total within such limitation. If an equal percentage reduction is made in the labor credits of mines pursuant to this subparagraph at the time of certification to the commissioner of revenue as set forth in section 298.10, the same percentage will be used where changes are made pursuant to section 298.09, subdivision 4, subsequent to June 1. Also if no reduction is made at the time of certification by the commissioner of revenue on or before June 1, pursuant to this subdivision and section 298.10, no reduction will be made subsequent to June 1, due to changes made pursuant to section 298.09, subdivision 4. If the production is less than 42,000,000 taxable tons, the amount of the distributions shall be reduced by proportionately at the rate of two percent for each 1,000,000 tons, or part of 1,000,000 tons by which the production is less than 42,000,000 tons. There is hereby appropriated to the commissioner of revenue from the taconite environmental protection fund and the corpus of the northeast Minnesota economic protection trust fund in equal proportions the amount needed to make the above payments.

(1) 2.5 cents per gross ton of merchantable iron ore concentrate, hereinafter referred to as "taxable ton," to the city or town in which the lands from which taconite was mined or quarried were located or within which the concentrate was produced. If the mining, quarrying, and concentration, or different steps in either thereof are carried on in more than one taxing district, the commissioner shall apportion equitably the proceeds of the part of the tax going to cities and towns among such subdivisions upon the basis of attributing 40 percent of the proceeds of the tax to the operation of mining or quarrying the taconite, and the remainder to the concentrating plant and to the processes of concentration, and with respect to each thereof giving due consideration to the relative extent of such operations performed in each such taxing district. His order making such apportionment shall be subject to review by the tax court at the instance of any of the interested taxing districts, in the same manner as other orders of the commissioner.

(2) 12.5 cents per taxable ton, less any amount distributed under clause (8), paragraph (a), to the taconite municipal aid account in the apportionment fund of the state treasury, to be distributed as provided in section 298.282.

Each district shall receive the product of:

(A) one, or

(B) the ratio of the amount certified pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 2, in the previous year, to the product of two mills times the district's taxable valuation in the second previous year.

If the total amount provided by clause (3)(c) is insufficient to make the payments herein required then the entitlement of $150 per pupil unit shall be reduced uniformly so as not to exceed the funds available. Any amounts received by a qualifying school district in any fiscal year pursuant to clause (3)(c) shall not be applied to reduce foundation aids which the district is

(c) Four cents per taxable ton shall be paid to the county from which the taconite was mined, quarried or concentrated to be deposited in the county road and bridge fund. If the mining, quarrying and concentrating, or separate steps in any of those processes are carried on in more than one county, the commissioner shall follow the apportionment formula prescribed in clause (1).

(b) There shall be distributed to the iron range resources and rehabilitation board the amounts it received in 1977 under section 298.22.

On or before October 10 of each calendar year each producer of taconite or iron sulphides subject to taxation under section 298.24 (hereinafter called "taxpayer") shall file with the commissioner of revenue an estimate of the amount of tax which would be payable by such taxpayer under said law for such calendar year; provided such estimate shall be in an amount not less than the amount due on the mining and production of concentrates up to September 30 of said year plus the amount becoming due because of probable production between September 30 and December 31 of said year, less any credit allowable as hereinafter provided. The commissioner of revenue shall annually on or before October 10 report an estimated distribution amount to each taxing district and the officers with whom such report is so filed shall use the amount so indicated as being distributable to each taxing district in computing the permissible tax levy of such county or city in the year in which such estimate is made, and payable in the next ensuing calendar year, except that one cent per taxable ton of the amount distributed under clause (4)(c) shall not be deducted in calculating the permissible levy. In any calendar year in which a general property tax levy subject to sections 275.50 to 275.59 has been made, if the taxes distributable to any such county or city are greater than the amount estimated by the commissioner to be paid to any such county or city in such year, the excess of such distribution shall be held in a special fund by the county or city and shall not be expended until the succeeding calendar year, and shall be included in computing the permissible levies under sections 275.50 to 275.59, of such county or city payable in such year. If the amounts distributable to any such county or city after final determination by the commissioner of revenue under this section are less than the amounts by which a taxing district's levies were reduced pursuant to this section, such county or city may issue certificates of indebtedness in the amount of the shortage, and may include in its next tax levy, in excess of the limitations of sections 275.50 to 275.59 an amount sufficient to pay such certificates of indebtedness and interest thereon, or, if no certificates were issued, an amount equal to such shortage.

There is hereby annually appropriated to such taxing districts as are stated herein, to the taconite property tax relief account and to the taconite municipal aid account in the apportionment fund in the state treasury, to the department of revenue, to the iron range resources and rehabilitation board, to the range association of municipalities and schools, to the taconite environmental protection fund, and to the northeast Minnesota economic protection trust fund, from any fund or account in the state treasury to which the money was credited, an amount sufficient to make the payment or transfer. Any person making payments of royalty taxes in advance of the final determination of such taxes, may assume for the purposes of section 299.08, that the net rate of the tax for the calendar year in question shall be the last full year's net effective occupation tax rate known at the time of the first payment of royalty tax during the current calendar year.

Subd. 6. [RIGHT OF SUBROGATION.] When a financial institution has been closed, and the federal deposit insurance corporation has paid or made available for payment the insured deposit liabilities of the closed institution, the corporation, whether or not it has or shall thereafter become a liquidating agent of the closed institution is subrogated, by operation of law with like force and effect as if the closed institution were a national bank, to all rights of the owners of these deposits against the closed financial institution in the same manner and to the same extent as now or hereafter necessary to enable the federal deposit insurance corporation under federal law to make insurance payments available to depositors of closed insured banks; provided, that the rights of depositors and other creditors of the closed institution shall be determined in accordance with the laws of this state. The commissioner may, in his or her discretion, in the event of the closing of any financial institution pursuant to section 49.04, subdivision 1, the deposits of which banking institution are to any extent insured by the corporation, tender to the corporation the appointment as liquidating agent of this financial institution and, if the corporation accepts the appointment, it shall have and possess all the powers and privileges provided by the laws of this state with respect to a special deputy examiner of the department of commerce in the management and liquidation of this institution, and be subject to all of the duties of the special deputy examiner; provided, that nothing contained in this subdivision shall be construed as a surrender of the right of the commissioner to liquidate financial institutions under his or her supervision pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided; and the commissioner may waive the filing of a bond by the corporation as the special deputy examiner.

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION, FEE, NOTICE.] Any corporation hereafter organized as an industrial loan and thrift company, shall, after compliance with the requirements set forth in sections 53.01 and 53.02, file a written application with the department of commerce for a certificate of authorization. A corporation that will not sell or issue thrift certificates for investment as permitted by this chapter need not comply with subdivision 2b. The application, in duplicate, must be in the form prescribed by the department of commerce. The application must be made in the name of the corporation, executed and acknowledged by two of its officers an officer designated by the board of directors of the corporation ~~for that purpose~~, requesting a certificate authorizing the corporation to transact business as an industrial loan and thrift company, at the place and in the name stated in the application. At the time of filing the application the applicant shall pay a $1,000 filing fee and a $500 investigation fee. The fees must be turned over by the commissioner to the state treasurer and credited to the general fund. The applicant shall also submit a copy of the bylaws of the corporation, its articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto at that time. If the application is contested, 50 percent of an additional fee equal to the actual costs incurred by the department of commerce in approving or disapproving the application, payable to the state treasurer and credited to the general fund shall be paid by the applicant and 50 percent equally by the intervening parties. A notice of the filing of the application must be published once within 30 days of the receipt of the form prescribed by the department of commerce, at the expense of the applicant, in a newspaper published in the municipality in which the proposed industrial loan and thrift company is to be located, or, if there be none, in a newspaper published at the county seat of the county in which the company is proposed to be located. If the department of commerce receives a written objection to the application from any person within 20 days of the notice having been fully published a contested case hearing must be conducted on the application. ~~The department of commerce may without cause order a contested case hearing on the application.~~ Notice of a hearing in connection with this section must be published once in the form prescribed by the department of commerce, at the expense of the applicant, in the same manner as a notice of application.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 53.03, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE; DUTIES.] Upon receiving an application the department of commerce shall make, or cause to be made, an examination to ascertain whether the assets of such corporation, over and above all its liabilities, have an actual value of not less than the par value of all of its capital represented by shares of common stock, which shall not be less than the amount prescribed by section 53.02. If upon its investigation or hearing provided for in subdivision 1 those facts appear and it further appears that the bylaws and articles of incorporation and amendments thereto are in accordance with law; that the shareholders of the corporation are of good moral character and financial integrity; ~~that there is a reasonable public demand for that company that the company reasonably anticipates public demand for the loans it proposes to make~~ in the location specified in the application, and that the probable volume of business in that location is sufficient to insure and maintain the solvency of such company and the solvency of any then existing industrial loan and thrift companies or banks in that locality, ~~without endangering the safety of any such company or bank in the locality as a place for investing or depositing public and private money~~; and that the proposed company will be properly and safely managed, the application shall be granted; otherwise it shall be denied.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 53.03, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [SELECTION, CHANGE OF NAME.] Before filing the certifi~~iate articles~~ of incorporation or an amendment to ~~it them~~, the proposed name of the industrial loan and thrift company shall be submitted to the commissioner, ~~who shall compare it with those of other corporations operating in the state.~~ If it is likely to be mistaken for any of them, or to confuse the public as to the character of its business, or is otherwise objectionable, additional names shall be submitted. When a satisfactory name is selected, the commissioner shall give written approval of it and issue an amended certificate of authorization.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 53.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2b. [ADDITIONAL DUTIES; THRIFT CERTIFICATES FOR INVESTMENT.] If an application includes the right to issue thrift certificates for investment, the department of commerce must, in addition to the duties in subdivision 2, make a determination that there is a reasonable public demand for that company and that the probable volume of business in that locality is sufficient to insure the solvency of any then existing industrial loan and thrift companies or banks in that locality, without endangering the safety of the company or bank in the locality as a place for investing or depositing public and private money.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 53.03, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

*Subd. 3a. If the application be granted without hearing the department of commerce shall, not later than 60 days after the ~~notice of~~ application has been ~~fully published~~ accepted, issue a certificate authorizing the corporation to transact business as an industrial loan and thrift company as provided in this chapter. If the application be denied without hearing the department of commerce shall, not later than 60 days after the ~~notice of~~ application has been ~~fully published~~ accepted, notify the corporation of the denial and the reasons for the denial. The applicant may request within 30 days of receiving the notice of denial, and shall be granted, a contested case hearing on the application which shall then be conducted as if no order of denial had been issued. If the ~~commission~~ commissioner approves the application after a hearing the ~~commission~~ commissioner shall, not later than 30 days after a hearing, issue a certificate authorizing the corporation to transact business as an industrial loan and thrift company as provided in this chapter. If the application be denied after a hearing the ~~commission~~ commissioner shall, not later than 30 days after a hearing, notify the corporation of the denial.*

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 53.03, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

*Subd. 5. [PLACE OF BUSINESS.] Not more than one place of business may be maintained under any certificate of authorization issued subsequent to the enactment of Laws 1943, chapter 67, pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, but the department of commerce may issue more than one certificate of authorization to the same corporation upon compliance with all the provisions of this chapter governing an original issuance of a certificate of authorization. To the extent that previously filed applicable information remains unchanged, the applicant need not refile this information, unless requested. The filing fee for a branch application shall be $500 and the investigation fee $250. If a corporation has been issued more than one certifi-* cate of authorization, the corporation shall allocate a portion of contributed capital to each office for which a certificate has been issued, in order to comply with the capital requirements of section 53.02 and section 53.05, clause (2), which sections are applicable to each office and the capital allocated thereto in the same manner as if each certificate had been issued to a separate corporation. ~~Each additional certificate of authorization issued pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision must be filed with the secretary of state.~~ An industrial loan and thrift corporation with deposit liabilities may change one or more of its locations upon the written approval of the commissioner of commerce. A fee of $100 must accompany each application to the commissioner for approval to change the location of an established office. An industrial loan and thrift corporation that does not sell and issue thrift certificates for investment may change one or more locations by giving 30 days' written notice to the department of commerce which shall promptly amend the certificate of authorization accordingly.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 53.03, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [OBJECTION TO APPLICATION.] Upon receiving written objection to the application from any person within 20 days of the notice having been fully published, the department of commerce shall order a contested case hearing to be conducted on the application. ~~The department of commerce may without cause order a contested case hearing to be conducted on the application.~~

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 53.03, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [INVESTIGATION.] Upon receiving an application, the department of commerce shall make or cause to be made, an investigation of the application to determine that the corporation is in a solvent condition, meets current thrift industry standards of management quality and asset condition, is in compliance with the requirements of this chapter ~~and that the approval of the application will not have an adverse effect upon the solvency of any existing industrial loan and thrift company selling and issuing certificates for investment or banks in the locality, or endanger the safety of any company or bank in the locality as a place for investing or depositing public and private money.~~ If upon completion of its investigation and any hearing provided for in subdivision 7, it appears to the department of commerce that the requirements for approval contained in this subdivision have been met, the application shall be approved. In all other cases, the application shall be denied. As a condition of approval, the capital funds of the applicant corporation shall not be less than the total amount which the department of commerce considers necessary having in mind the potential for the issuance of certificates for investment by the applicant. The procedure in subdivision 3a shall be followed in decisions, notice, and hearing of applications for consent to sell and issue thrift certificates for investment by issuance of an amended certificate of authorization.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 53.04, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. (a) The right to make loans, secured or unsecured, at the rates and on the terms and other conditions permitted licensees under chapter 56.

Loans made under the authority of section 56.125 must be in amounts in compliance with section 53.05, clause (7). All other loans made under the authority of chapter 56 must be in amounts in compliance with section 53.05, clause (7), or 56.131, subdivision 1, paragraph (a), whichever is less. The right to extend credit or lend money and to collect and receive charges therefor as provided by chapter 334, or in lieu thereof to charge, collect, and receive interest at the rate of 21.75 percent per annum, including the right to contract for, charge, and collect all other charges including discount points, fees, late payment charges, and insurance premiums on the loans to the same extent permitted on loans made under the authority of chapter 56, regardless of the amount of the loan. The provisions of sections 47.20 and 47.21 do not apply to loans made under this subdivision, except as specifically provided in this subdivision. Nothing in this subdivision is deemed to supersede, repeal, or amend any provision of section 53.05. A licensee making a loan under this chapter secured by a lien on real estate shall comply with the requirements of section 47.20, subdivision 8.

(b) Loans made under this subdivision at a rate of interest not in excess of that provided for in paragraph (a) may be secured by real or personal property, or both. If the proceeds of a loan made after August 1, 1987 are used in whole or in part to satisfy the balance owed on a contract for deed, the rate of interest charged on the loan must not exceed the rate provided in section 47.20, subdivision 4a. If the proceeds of a loan secured by a first lien on the borrower's primary residence are used to finance the purchase of the borrower's primary residence, the loan must comply with the provisions of section 47.20.

(c) A loan made under this subdivision that is secured by real estate and that is in a principal amount of $7,500 or more and a maturity of 60 months or more may contain a provision permitting discount points, if the loan does not provide a loan yield in excess of the maximum rate of interest permitted by this subdivision. Loan yield means the annual rate of return obtained by a licensee computed as the annual percentage rate is computed under Federal Regulation Z. If the loan is prepaid in full, the licensee must make a refund to the borrower to the extent that the loan yield will exceed the maximum rate of interest provided by this subdivision when the prepayment is taken into account.

(d) An agency or instrumentality of the United States government or a corporation otherwise created by an act of the United States Congress or a lender approved or certified by the secretary of housing and urban development, or approved or certified by the administrator of veterans affairs, or approved or certified by the administrator of the farmers home administration, or approved or certified by the federal home loan mortgage corporation, or approved or certified by the federal national mortgage association, that engages in the business of purchasing or taking assignments of mortgage loans and undertakes direct collection of payments from or enforcement of rights against borrowers arising from mortgage loans, is not required to obtain a certificate of authorization under this chapter in order to purchase or take assignments of mortgage loans from persons holding a certificate of authorization under this chapter.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 53.05, is amended to read:

53.05 [POWERS, LIMITATION.]

No industrial loan and thrift company may do any of the following:

(1) carry ~~commercial or~~ demand banking accounts; use the word "savings" unless the institution's investment certificates, savings accounts, and savings deposits are insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation and then only if the word is not followed by the words "and loan" in its corporate name; use the word "bank" or "banking" in its corporate name; operate as a savings bank;

(2) have outstanding at any one time certificates of indebtedness, savings accounts, and savings deposits, exclusive of those held by the company, as security for loans made by it of more than seven times the sum of the contributed capital and appropriated reserves of the company until July 1, 1985, or the date an industrial loan and thrift company obtains a commitment for insurance or guarantee of accounts acceptable to the commissioner as required by section 53.10, whichever is earlier, and thereafter 15 times the sum of contributed capital and appropriated reserves of the company;

(3) accept trusts, except as provided in section 47.75, subdivision 1, or act as guardian, administrator, or judicial trustee in any form;

(4) deposit any of its funds in any banking corporation, unless that corporation has been designated by vote of a majority of directors or of the executive committee present at a meeting duly called, at which a quorum was in attendance;

(5) change any allocation of capital made pursuant to section 53.03 or reduce or withdraw in any way any portion of the contributed capital and appropriated reserves without prior written approval of the commissioner of commerce;

(6) take any instrument in which blanks are left to be filled in after execution; ~~or~~

(7) lend money in excess of ten percent of its contributed capital and appropriated reserves to a person primarily liable. "Contributed capital and appropriated reserves" means the total of the company's contributed capital and appropriated reserves at all its authorized locations.

If a loan has been made to a person primarily liable and payments have been made on a certificate of indebtedness securing it, the amount of the payments may be added to the limitation contained in this clause for the purpose of determining whether additional loans may be made to that person; ~~or~~

(8) issue cashier's checks pursuant to section 48.151, unless and at all times the aggregate liability to all creditors on these instruments is protected by a special fund in cash or due from banks to be used solely for payment of the cashier's checks.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 56.01, is amended to read:

56.01 [NECESSITY OF LICENSE.]

(a) Except as authorized by this chapter and without first obtaining a license from the commissioner, no person shall engage in the business of making loans of money, credit, goods, or things in action, in ~~the an~~ amount or of ~~the a~~ value of $35,000 ~~or less~~ not exceeding that specified in section

56.131, subdivision 1, and charge, contract for, or receive on the loan a greater rate of interest, discount, or consideration than the lender would be permitted by law to charge if he were not a licensee under this chapter.

(b) An agency or instrumentality of the United States government or a corporation otherwise created by an act of the United States Congress or a lender approved or certified by the secretary of housing and urban development, or approved or certified by the administrator of veterans affairs, or approved or certified by the administrator of the farmers home administration, or approved or certified by the federal home loan mortgage corporation, or approved or certified by the federal national mortgage association, that engages in the business of purchasing or taking assignments of mortgage loans and undertakes direct collection of payments from or enforcement of rights against borrowers arising from mortgage loans, is not required to be licensed under this chapter in order to purchase or take assignments of mortgage loans from licensees under this chapter.

56.04 [INVESTIGATION; ISSUANCE OF LICENSE; DENIAL; REFUNDS.]

Upon the filing of the application and payment of these fees, the commissioner shall investigate the facts, and if he shall find (1) that the financial responsibility, experience, character, and general fitness of the applicant, and of the members thereof if the applicant be a copartnership or association, and of the officers and directors thereof if the applicant be a corporation, the person with direct responsibility for the operation and management of the proposed office are such as to command the confidence of the community and to warrant belief that the business will be operated honestly, fairly, and efficiently within the purposes of this chapter, and (2) that allowing the applicant to engage in business will promote the convenience and advantage of the community in which the business of the applicant is to be conducted, and (3) that the applicant has available for the operation of the business, at the specified location, liquid assets of at least $50,000 (the foregoing facts being conditions precedent to the issuance of a license under this chapter), he shall thereupon issue and deliver a license to the applicant to make loans, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, at the location specified in the application. If the commissioner shall not so find, he shall not issue a license and he shall notify the applicant of the denial and return to the applicant the sum paid by the applicant as a license fee, retaining the $250 investigation fee to cover the costs of investigating the application. The commissioner shall approve or deny every application for license hereunder within 60 days from the filing thereof with the fees.

If the application is denied, the commissioner shall, within 20 days thereafter, file in his office a written decision and findings with respect thereto containing the evidence and the reasons supporting the denial, and forthwith serve upon the applicant a copy thereof.

There is hereby appropriated to such persons as are entitled to such refund, from the fund or account in the state treasury to which the money was credited, an amount sufficient to make the refund and payment.

Should substantially all of a licensee's outstanding loan accounts subject to this chapter be sold, the purchaser of the accounts, if otherwise fully qualified, may obtain a license, without establishing convenience and advantage, in the same municipality upon surrender of the seller's license to the commissioner.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 56.07, is amended to read:

56.07 [CONTROL OVER LOCATION.]

Not more than one place of business shall be maintained under the same license, but the commissioner may issue more than one license to the same licensee upon compliance with all the provisions of this chapter governing an original issuance of a license, for each such new license. To the extent that previously filed applicable information remains substantially unchanged, the applicant need not refile this information, unless requested.

When a licensee shall wish to change his place of business to a street address in the same municipality designated in his license, he shall give written notice thereof 30 days in advance to the commissioner, who shall within 30 days of receipt of such notice, issue an amended license approving the change. ~~No change in the place of business of a licensee to a location outside of the original municipality shall be permitted under the same license.~~

A licensed place of business shall be open during regular business hours each weekday, except for legal holidays and for any weekday the commissioner grants approval to the licensee to remain closed. A licensed place of business may be open on Saturday, but shall be closed on Sunday.

No licensee shall advertise, print, display, publish, distribute, or broadcast, or cause or permit to be advertised, printed, displayed, published, distributed, or broadcast, in any manner any statement or representation with regard to the rates, terms, or conditions for the lending of money, credit, goods, or things in action which is false, misleading, or deceptive. The commissioner may order any licensee to desist from any conduct which he shall find to be a violation of the foregoing provisions.

The commissioner may require that rates of charge, if stated by a licensee, be stated fully and clearly in such manner as he may deem necessary to prevent misunderstanding thereof by prospective borrowers. ~~A statement of rates of charge that meets the requirements of the federal Truth in Lending Act and regulations thereunder shall be deemed full compliance with this section. In lieu of the disclosure requirements of this section and section 56.14, a licensee may give the disclosures required by the federal Truth-in-Lending Act.~~

A licensee may take a lien upon real estate as security for any loan exceeding $2,700 in principal amount made under this chapter. The provisions of sections 47.20 and 47.21 do not apply to loans made under this chapter, except as provided in this section. No loan secured by a first lien on a borrower's primary residence shall be made pursuant to this section if the proceeds of the loan are used to finance the purchase of the borrower's primary residence, unless:

(1) the proceeds of the loan are used to finance the purchase of a manufactured home; or

(2) the proceeds of the loan are used in whole or in part to satisfy the balance owed on a contract for deed. The rate of interest charged on such a loan made after August 1, 1987, shall not exceed the rate provided in section 47.20, subdivision 4a.

If the proceeds of the loan are used to finance the purchase of the borrower's primary residence, the licensee shall consent to the subsequent transfer of the real estate if the existing borrower continues after transfer to be obligated for repayment of the entire remaining indebtedness. The licensee shall release the existing borrower from all obligations under the loan instruments, if the transferee (1) meets the standards of credit worthiness normally used by persons in the business of making loans, including but not limited to the ability of the transferee to make the loan payments and satisfactorily maintain the property used as collateral, and (2) executes an agreement in writing with the licensee whereby the transferee assumes the obligations of the existing borrower under the loan instruments. Any such agreement shall not affect the priority, validity or enforceability of any loan instrument. A licensee may charge a fee not in excess of one-tenth of one percent of the remaining unpaid principal balance in the event the loan is assumed by the transferee and the existing borrower continues after the transfer to be obligated for repayment of the entire assumed indebtedness. A licensee may charge a fee not in excess of one percent of the remaining unpaid principal balance in the event the remaining indebtedness is assumed by the transferee and the existing borrower is released from all obligations under the loan instruments, but in no event shall the fee exceed $150.

A licensee making a loan under this chapter secured by a lien on real estate shall comply with the requirements of section 47.20, subdivision 8.

No licensee shall conduct the business of making loans under this chapter within any office, room, or place of business in which any other business is solicited or engaged in, or in association or conjunction therewith, if the commissioner finds that the character of the other business is such that it would facilitate evasions of this chapter or of the rules and regulations lawfully made hereunder. The commissioner may promulgate rules dealing with such other businesses.

No licensee shall transact the business or make any loan provided for by this chapter under any other name or at any other place of business than that named in the license. No licensee shall take any confession of judgment or any power of attorney. No licensee shall take any note or promise to pay that does not accurately disclose the principal amount of the loan, the time for which it is made, and the agreed rate or amount of charge, nor any instrument in which blanks are left to be filled in after execution. Nothing herein is deemed to prohibit the making of loans by mail.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 56.125, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [~~ALTERNATIVE COMPLIANCE.~~] Compliance by a licensee making open-end loans pursuant to this section with the open-end credit provisions of the federal Truth in Lending Act and regulations issued thereunder is required, and the disclosure requirements in sections 56.12 and 56.14 do not apply with respect to open-end loans made pursuant to this section. In addition, Prior to any licensee taking a lien upon the borrower's homestead, as defined in chapter 510, as security for any open-end loan pursuant to subdivision 2, the borrower shall be provided with a statement in substantially the following form, in bold face type of a minimum size of 12 points, signed and dated by the borrower at the time of the execution of the contract surrendering the homestead exemption, immediately adjacent to a listing of the homestead property: "I understand that some or all of the above real estate is normally protected by law from the claims of creditors, and I voluntarily give up my right to that protection for the above listed property with respect to claims arising out of this contract."

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 56.131, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [INTEREST RATES AND CHARGES.] (a) On any loan in the principal amount of not exceeding $35,000 or less ten percent of a corporate licensee's contributed capital and appropriated reserves as defined in section 53.01, if greater, a licensee may contract for and receive interest, calculated according to the actuarial method, not exceeding the equivalent of the greater of any of the following:

- (1) the total of: (i) 33 percent per year on that part of the unpaid balance of the principal amount not exceeding $350; and (ii) 19 percent per year on that part of the unpaid balance of the principal amount exceeding $350; or
- (2) 21.75 percent per year on the unpaid balance of the principal amount.

(b) On any loan where interest has been calculated according to the method provided for in paragraph (a), clause (1), interest must be contracted for and earned as provided in that provision or at the single annual percentage rate computed to the nearest one hundredth of one percent that would earn the same total interest at maturity of the contract as would be earned by the application of the graduated rates provided in paragraph (a), clause (1), when the debt is paid according to the agreed terms and the calculations are made according to the actuarial method.

(c) Loans may be interest-bearing or precomputed.

(d) To compute time on interest-bearing and precomputed loans, including, but not limited to the calculation of interest, a day is considered 1/30 of a month when calculation is made for a fraction of a calendar month. A year is 12 calendar months. A calendar month is that period from a given date in one month to the same numbered date in the following month, and if there is no same numbered date, to the last day of the following month. When a period of time includes a whole month and a fraction of a month, the fraction of a month is considered to follow the whole month.

In the alternative, for interest-bearing loans, a licensee may charge interest at the rate of 1/365 of the agreed annual rate for each actual day elapsed.

(e) With respect to interest-bearing loans:

- (1) Interest must be computed on unpaid principal balances outstanding from time to time, for the time outstanding. Each payment must be applied first to the accumulated interest and the remainder of the payment applied to the unpaid principal balance; provided however, that if the amount of the payment is insufficient to pay the accumulated interest, the unpaid interest continues to accumulate to be paid from the proceeds of subsequent payments and is not added to the principal balance.

(2) Interest must not be payable in advance or compounded. However, if part or all of the consideration for a new loan contract is the unpaid principal balance of a prior loan, then the principal amount payable under the new loan contract may include any unpaid interest which has accrued. The unpaid principal balance of a precomputed loan is the balance due after refund or credit of unearned interest as provided in paragraph (f), clause (3). The resulting loan contract is deemed a new and separate loan transaction for all purposes.

(f) With respect to precomputed loans:

(1) Loans must be repayable in substantially equal and consecutive monthly installments of principal and interest combined, except that the first installment period may be more or less than one month by not more than 15 days, and the first installment payment amount may be larger than the remaining payments by the amount of interest charged for the extra days and must be reduced by the amount of interest for the number of days less than one month to the first installment payment; and monthly installment payment dates may be omitted to accommodate borrowers with seasonal income.

(2) Payments may be applied to the combined total of principal and precomputed interest until the loan is fully paid. Payments must be applied in the order in which they become due.

(3) When any loan contract is paid in full by cash, renewal or refinancing, or a new loan, one month or more before the final installment due date, a licensee shall refund or credit the borrower with the total of the applicable charges for all fully unexpired installment periods, as originally scheduled or as deferred, which follow the day of prepayment; if the prepayment is made other than on a scheduled payment date, the nearest scheduled installment payment date must be used in the computation; provided further, if the prepayment occurs prior to the first installment due date, the licensee may retain 1/30 of the applicable charge for a first installment period of one month for each day from the date of the loan to the date of prepayment, and shall refund or credit the borrower with the balance of the total interest contracted for. If the maturity of the loan is accelerated for any reason and judgment is entered, the licensee shall credit the borrower with the same refund as if prepayment in full had been made on the date the judgment is entered.

(4) If an installment, other than the final installment, is not paid in full within ten days of its scheduled due date, a licensee may contract for and receive a default charge not exceeding five percent of the amount of the installment, but not less than $2 $4.

A default charge under this subdivision may not be collected on an installment paid in full within ten days of its scheduled due date, or deferred installment due date with respect to deferred installments, even though a default or deferral charge on an earlier installment has not been paid in full. A default charge may be collected at the time it accrues or at any time thereafter.

(5) If the parties agree in writing, either in the loan contract or in a subsequent agreement, to a deferment of wholly unpaid installments, a licensee may grant a deferment and may collect a deferment charge as provided in this section. A deferment postpones the scheduled due date of the earliest unpaid installment and all subsequent installments as originally scheduled, or as previously deferred, for a period equal to the deferment period. The deferment period is that period during which no installment is scheduled to be paid by reason of the deferment. The deferment charge for a one-month period may not exceed the applicable charge for the installment period immediately following the due date of the last undeferred payment. A proportionate charge may be made for deferment for periods of more or less than one month. A deferment charge is earned pro rata during the deferment period and is fully earned on the last day of the deferment period. Should a loan be prepaid in full during a deferment period, the licensee shall make or credit to the borrower a refund of the unearned deferment charge in addition to any other refund or credit made for prepayment of the loan in full.

(6) If two or more installments are delinquent one full month or more on any due date, and if the contract so provides, the licensee may reduce the unpaid balance by the refund credit which would be required for prepayment in full on the due date of the most recent maturing installment in default. Thereafter, and in lieu of any other default or deferment charges, the single annual percentage rate permitted by this subdivision may be charged on the unpaid balance until fully paid.

(7) Following the final installment as originally scheduled or deferred, the licensee, for any loan contract which has not previously been converted to interest-bearing under paragraph (f), clause (6), may charge interest on any balance remaining unpaid, including unpaid default or deferment charges, at the single annual percentage rate permitted by this subdivision until fully paid.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 56.131, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

The Honorable David M. Jennings
Speaker of the House of Representatives

We, the undersigned conferees for S.F. No. 401, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House recede from its amendments and that S.F. No. 401 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 47.20, subdivision 15, is amended to read:

Subd. 15. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law to the contrary, any notice of default on homestead property as defined in section 583.02, mailed after May 24, 1983 and prior to May 1, 1985 or after the effective date of this section and prior to May 1, 1987, shall indicate that the borrower has 60 days from the date the notice is mailed in which to cure the default. The notice shall include a statement that the borrower may be eligible for an extension of the time prior to foreclosure and execution sale under sections 583.01 to 583.12.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 550.37, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. Farm machines and implements used in farming operations by a debtor engaged principally in farming, livestock, farm produce, and standing crops, not exceeding ~~$5,000~~ $10,000 in value.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 550.37, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [~~WAGES EARNINGS.~~] All ~~wages earnings~~ not subject to garnishment by the provisions of section 571.55. A subsequent attachment, garnishment or levy of execution shall impound only that pay period's non-exempt disposable earnings not subject to a prior attachment, garnishment or levy of execution, but in no instance shall more than an individual's total nonexempt disposable earnings in that pay period be subject to attachment, garnishment or levy of execution. Garnishments shall impound the nonexempt disposable earnings in the order of their service upon the employer. The disposable earnings exempt from garnishment are exempt as a matter of right, whether claimed or not by the person to whom due. The exemptions may not be waived. The exempt disposable earnings are payable by the employer when due. The exempt disposable earnings shall also be exempt for 20 days after deposit in any financial institution, whether in a single or joint account. This 20-day exemption also applies to any contractual set-off or security interest asserted by a financial institution in which the earnings are deposited by the individual. In tracing the funds, the first-in first-out method of accounting shall be used. The burden of establishing that funds are exempt rests upon the debtor. As used in this section, the term "financial institution" includes credit unions. Subd. 14. [PUBLIC ASSISTANCE.] All relief based on need, and the ~~wages earnings~~ or salary of a person who is a recipient of relief based on need, shall be exempt from all claims of creditors including any contractual set-off or security interest asserted by a financial institution. For the purposes of this chapter, relief based on need includes AFDC, general assistance medical care, supplemental security income, medical assistance, Minnesota supplemental assistance, and general assistance. The salary or ~~wages earnings~~ of any debtor who is or has been a recipient of relief based on need, or an inmate of a correctional institution shall, upon his return to private employment or farming after having been a recipient of relief based on need, or an inmate of a correctional institution, be exempt from attachment, garnishment, or levy of execution for a period of six months after his return to employment or farming and after all public assistance has been terminated. The exemption provisions contained in this subdivision also apply for 60 days after deposit in any financial institution, whether in a single or joint account. In tracing the funds, the first-in first-out method of accounting shall be used. The burden of establishing that funds are exempt rests upon the debtor. Agencies distributing relief and the correctional institutions shall, at the request of creditors, inform them whether or not any debtor has been a recipient of relief based on need, or an inmate of a correctional institution, within the preceding six months.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 550.37, subdivision 24, is amended to read:

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 559.21, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

The notice shall specify this 60- or 90-day period. The notice shall include a statement that the borrower may be eligible for an extension of the time prior to foreclosure and execution sale under sections 583.01 to 583.12.

(b) The notice must be in bold type, capitalized letters, or other form sufficient for the reader to quickly and easily distinguish the notice from the rest of the writing; violation of this requirement is a petty misdemeanor.

(c) This section does not apply to earnest money contracts, purchase agreements or exercised options.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 565.25, subdivision 2, is

amended to read:

Subd. 2. (a) Except as otherwise provided in clause (b) and section 9, the respondent may retain or regain possession of the property by filing of a bond approved by the court conditioned that the property shall be delivered to the claimant, if delivery be adjudged, and for the payment to the claimant of any sum adjudged against the respondent. The bond shall be in an amount 1-1/4 times the fair market value of the property or 1-1/2 times the amount of the claimant's claim, whichever is less. Sec. 9. [565.251] [POSSESSION BY RESPONDENT WITHOUT BOND; STAY OF PROCEEDING.]

The court may allow the respondent to retain or regain possession of the property without filing a bond and may stay the action by the claimant for a reasonable period of time not to exceed six months if the following conditions are met:

- (1) the respondent is unable to make the required payments due to unforeseen economic circumstances beyond the respondent's control;*
- (2) the respondent is dependent on the use of the property to earn a living;*

"Disposable earnings" means that part of the earnings of an individual remaining after the deduction from those earnings of amounts required by law to be withheld.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 580.031, is amended to read:

580.031 [~~TEMPORARY~~ MINIMUM NOTICE.]

(a) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law to the contrary, eight weeks' published notice must be given prior to the foreclosure sale of a homestead, as defined in section 583.02, if the notice is published for the first time after May 24, 1983 and prior to May 1, 1985 or after the effective date of this section and prior to May 1, 1987. The notice must contain the information specified in section 580.04.

(b) The notice must be in bold type, capitalized letters, or other form sufficient for the reader to quickly and easily distinguish the notice from the rest of the writing; violation of this requirement is a petty misdemeanor.

(c) At least eight weeks before the appointed time of sale, a copy of the notice must be served upon the person in possession of the mortgaged premises, if the premises are actually occupied.

583.02 [DEFINITIONS.]

As used in sections 583.01 to 583.12 this chapter, the term "homestead" means residential or agricultural real estate, a portion or all of which, at the time of the filing of the petition under section 583.04, is occupied by the owner and is entitled to receive homestead credit under section 273.13, subdivision 15a or would be entitled to receive the credit if it remained the residence of the owner on June 1 of the current year or January 2 of the next year.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 583.03, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [GENERAL EXCLUSION.] The provisions of sections 47.20, subdivision 15, 559.21, subdivision 6, 580.031, and 583.01 to 583.12 do not apply to mortgages or contracts for deed made after ~~May 24, 1983~~ the effective date of this act, nor to mortgages or contracts for deed made before ~~May 24, 1983~~ the effective date of this act which are renewed or extended after ~~May 24, 1983~~ the effective date of this act, for a period longer than one year, nor to mortgages, judgments, or contracts for deed, regardless of when made, if a second or subsequent mortgage is made against the property after ~~May 24, 1983~~ the effective date of this act.

No court shall allow a stay, or postponement, or extension of time that would cause any right to be lost or adversely affected by any statute of limitation.

583.04 [MORTGAGOR MAY APPLY TO DISTRICT COURT FOR RELIEF.]

Any mortgagor, or owner in possession of the mortgaged premises including farm homestead premises, or anyone claiming under the mortgage, or anyone liable for the mortgage debt, may at any time after the issuance of the notice of the foreclosure proceedings ~~default~~ and prior to the sale, petition the district court of the county where the foreclosure proceedings are pending, serving a summons and verified ~~complaint~~ petition requesting that the sale in foreclosure be postponed for up to six months or, in the case of a farm homestead located on more than ten acres, for up to 12 months. A contract for deed vendee or anyone claiming under the contract or liable for the contract payment, in any case where the contract has not yet been terminated as of May 24, 1983, may petition the district court in the same manner, requesting that the contract termination be ~~delayed~~ postponed for up to 90 days. Upon receiving the petition, the court shall order a stay in the foreclosure proceedings or contract termination until after the hearing on the petition. ~~As a condition precedent to the postponement of the foreclosure sale, the party serving the verified complaint shall file it and pay to the clerk for the person foreclosing the mortgage the actual costs incurred, including attorney's fees, in the foreclosure proceeding before postponement. As a condition precedent to delay of the contract termination, the party seeking relief shall file the verified complaint and pay to the clerk for the person canceling the contract, the actual costs, including attorney's fees incurred in the cancellation. If payment is made by other than cash or certified check, the order postponing the sale or termination is not final until after the check or other negotiable~~

~~instrument has been paid.~~ The court may order costs and attorney fees to be paid by the person applying for relief. If the court orders attorney fees to be paid, the amount may not exceed $150 or one-half of the attorney fees allowed in section 582.01, whichever is less. The court may order the attorney fees to be prorated and combined with payments ordered under section 583.08. The court may not order attorney fees to be paid by the person applying for relief, if the person is receiving public assistance or legal aid for their own legal representation.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 583.05, is amended to read:

583.05 [COURT MAY ORDER ~~DELAY IN POSTPONEMENT OF SALE; FINDINGS.~~]

The court may consider the following criteria in determining whether or not to order a ~~delay in postponement~~ of the sale or contract termination:

(1) that the petitioner is unemployed, underemployed, facing catastrophic medical expenses, or facing economic problems due to low farm commodity prices; and

(2) that the petitioner has an inability to make payments on the mortgage or contract for deed.

If the court ~~grants or denies a delay in postponement~~ of the sale, the mortgagee shall publish notice of the new sale date as provided in section 580.03. If the court grants a postponement of the sale, the mortgagee shall not publish notice of a new sale date as provided in section 580.03 until the postponement period has expired, except as provided in section 583.08. Section 580.07 does not apply to foreclosure sales postponed by a court pursuant to sections 583.01 to 583.12.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 583.07, is amended to read:

583.07 [REDUCTION OF REDEMPTION PERIOD.]

If the court grants a ~~delay in postponement~~ of the foreclosure sale pursuant to sections 583.01 to 583.12, the redemption period pursuant to section 580.23 ~~shall may~~ be reduced by an equivalent period of time provided, that in no event shall the redemption period be less than 30 days. If the court does not grant a ~~delay in postponement~~ of the foreclosure sale, the redemption period shall be as provided in section 580.23.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 583.10, is amended to read:

583.10 [HEARING.]

The court shall schedule and hold a hearing on the petition ~~must be held~~ within 30 days after the filing of the petition. The order therein must be made and filed within five days after the hearing. Review by the supreme court may be had by certiorari, if application for the writ is made within 15 days after notice of the order. The writ is returnable within 30 days after the filing of the order.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 223A.01, as added by S.F. No. 919, section 6, if enacted by the 1985 regular session, is amended to read:

223A.01 [FARM PRODUCTS THAT ARE BOUGHT SUBJECT TO A SECURITY INTEREST.]

Subdivision 1. [REGISTERED BUYER TAKES FREE OF SECURITY INTEREST UNLESS NOTIFIED.] A buyer in the ordinary course of business who is a registered buyer in the county of the seller's residence under section 386.42, and who purchases farm products from a person engaged in farming operations takes free of a security interest created by the seller even though the security interest is perfected and the buyer knows of its existence, unless the buyer is notified of the security interest as provided in subdivision 4 3.

Subd. 2. [BUYERS THAT PURCHASE SUBJECT TO A SECURITY INTEREST.] A buyer in the ordinary course of business that is registered under section 386.42 in the seller's county of residence who is notified by a secured party as provided under subdivision 3, purchases farm products from a person engaged in farming operations subject to the perfected security interest. A buyer who is not registered under section 386.42 in the seller's county of residence purchases farm products from a person engaged in farming operations subject to perfected security interests.

A buyer who purchases farm products subject to a security interest under this section subdivision shall include the name of the secured party as joint payee on any check or other instrument issued in payment for the farm products, unless the secured party gives the buyer written notice of waiver of this requirement. Issuance of joint payment as herein required relieves the buyer of any further liability to the secured party.

Subd. 3. [NOTIFICATION OF SECURITY INTEREST.] A secured party may, by certified mail or another method by which receipt can be verified, notify a buyer that a debtor has farm products subject to a security interest.

The notification is effective upon receipt until September 1 after the notification is made; or for a notification made after August 20 but before September 1, the notification is effective for one year beginning September 1. A buyer who receives notification from a secured party under this subdivision shall not publicly post or disseminate to any person, other than its agents and employees who reasonably require the information for purposes related to this act section, any information contained in the notification.

A secured party that furnishes to a buyer a list of debtors who have farm products subject to a security interest is not liable to a debtor whose name is on the list for furnishing the list.

Subd. 4. [COMMISSION MERCHANT.] Notwithstanding section 336.1-201, subsection (9), a commission merchant or selling agent who sells farm products for another for a fee, that is a registered buyer under section 386.42, is a buyer in the ordinary course of business under this chapter and section 336.9-307, subsection (1), for transactions involving farm products.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 336.9-307, as amended by S.F. No. 919, section 7, if enacted by the 1985 regular session, is amended to read:

336.9-307 [PROTECTION OF BUYERS OF GOODS.]

(1) A buyer in ordinary course of business (subsection (9) of section 336.1-201) takes free of a security interest created by his seller even though the security interest is perfected and even though the buyer knows of its existence, except that a buyer in the ordinary course of business who purchases farm products from a person engaged in farming operations is subject to section 386.42 223A.01.

(2) In the case of consumer goods, a buyer takes free of a security interest even though perfected if he buys without knowledge of the security interest, for value and for his own personal, family or household purposes unless prior to the purchase the secured party has filed a financing statement covering such goods.

(3) A buyer other than a buyer in ordinary course of business (subsection (1) of this section) takes free of a security interest to the extent that it secures future advances made after the secured party acquires knowledge of the purchase, or more than 45 days after the purchase, whichever first occurs, unless made pursuant to a commitment entered into without knowledge of the purchase and before the expiration of the 45 day period.

336.9-402 [FORMAL REQUISITES OF FINANCING STATEMENT; AMENDMENTS; MORTGAGE AS FINANCING STATEMENT.]

(1) A financing statement is sufficient if it gives the name of the debtor and the secured party, is signed by the debtor, gives an address of the secured party from which information concerning the security interest may be obtained, gives a mailing address of the debtor and contains a statement indicating the types or describing the items, of collateral. A financing statement may be filed before a security agreement is made or a security interest otherwise attaches. When the financing statement covers crops growing or to be grown, the statement must also contain a description of the real estate concerned and the name of the record owner thereof. The financing statement may only cover the crops grown by a debtor in a single growing season and may not cover other collateral. When the financing statement covers timber to be cut or covers minerals or the like (including oil and gas) or accounts subject to subsection (5) of section 336.9-103, or when the financing statement is filed as a fixture filing (section 336.9-313) and the collateral is goods which are or are to become fixtures, the statement must also comply with subsection (5). A copy of the security agreement is sufficient as a financing statement if it contains the above information and is signed by the debtor. A carbon, photographic or other reproduction of a security agreement or a financing statement is sufficient as a financing statement if the security agreement so provides or if the original has been filed in this state.

(2) A financing statement which otherwise complies with subsection (1) is sufficient when it is signed by the secured party instead of the debtor when it is filed to perfect a security interest in

(a) collateral already subject to a security interest in another jurisdiction when it is brought into this state, or when the debtor's location is changed to this state. Such a financing statement must state that the collateral was brought into this state or that the debtor's location was changed to this state under such circumstances; or

(b) proceeds under section 336.9-306 if the security interest in the original collateral was perfected. Such a financing statement must describe the original collateral; or

(c) collateral as to which the filing has lapsed within one year; or

(d) collateral acquired after a change of name, identity or corporate structure of the debtor (subsection (7)); or

(e) a lien filed pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, chapter 514; or

(f) collateral which is subject to a filed judgment.

(2a) Except for documents filed under clauses (e) and (f), the reason for the omission of the debtor signature must be stated on the front of the financing statement.

(3) A form substantially as follows is sufficient to comply with subsection (1):

Address

Name of secured party (or assignee)

Address

1. This financing statement covers the following types (or items) of property:

(Describe)

2. (If collateral is crops) The above described crops are growing or are to be grown on:

(Describe real estate and the name of the record owner thereof) _____

3. (If applicable) The above goods are to become fixtures on (Describe real estate) _____ and this financing statement is to be filed for record in the real estate records. (If the debtor does not have an interest of record) The name of a record owner is _____.

4. (If products of collateral are claimed)

Products of the collateral are also covered.

Use whichever signature line is applicable.

Signature of debtor (or assignor)

Signature of secured party (or assignee)

(4) A financing statement may be amended by filing a writing signed by both the debtor and the secured party. If the sole purpose of the amendment is to change the name or address of the secured party, only the secured party need sign the amendment. A writing is sufficient if it sets forth the name and address of the debtor and secured party as those items appear on the original financing statement or the most recently filed amendment, the file number and date of filing of the financing statement. An amendment does not extend the period of effectiveness of a financing statement. If any amendment adds collateral, it is effective as to the added collateral only from the filing date of the amendment. In this article, unless the context otherwise requires, the term "financing statement" means the original financing statement and any amendments.

(5) A financing statement covering timber to be cut or covering minerals or the like (including oil and gas) or accounts subject to subsection (5) of section 336.9-103, or a financing statement filed as a fixture filing (section 336.9-313) where the debtor is not a transmitting utility, must show that it covers this type of collateral, must recite that it is to be filed for record in the real estate records, and the financing statement must contain a description of the real estate sufficient if it were contained in a mortgage of the real estate to give constructive notice of the mortgage under the law of this state. If the debtor does not have an interest of record in the real estate, the financing statement must show the name of a record owner. No description of the real estate or the name of the record owner thereof is required for a fixture filing where the debtor is a transmitting utility. Notwithstanding the foregoing a general description of the real estate is sufficient for a fixture filing where a railroad is the record owner of the real estate on which the fixtures are or are to be located; and for the purposes of this subsection, the requirement of a general description is satisfied if the fixture filing (1) identifies the section, township and range numbers of the county in which the land is located; (2) identifies the quarter-quarter of the section that the land is located in; (3) indicates the name of the record owner of the real estate; and (4) states the street address of the real estate if one exists.

(6) A mortgage is effective as a financing statement filed as a fixture filing from the date of its recording if (a) the goods are described in the mortgage by item or type, (b) the goods are or are to become fixtures related to the real estate described in the mortgage, (c) the mortgage complies with the requirements for a financing statement in this section other than a recital that it is to be filed in the real estate records, and (d) the mortgage is duly recorded. No fee with reference to the financing statement is required other than the regular recording and satisfaction fees with respect to the mortgage.

(7) A financing statement sufficiently shows the name of the debtor if it gives the individual, partnership or corporate name of the debtor, whether or not it adds other trade names or the names of partners. Where the debtor so changes his name or in the case of an organization its name, identity or corporate structure that a filed financing statement becomes seriously misleading, the filing is not effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the debtor more than four months after the change, unless a new appropriate financing statement is filed before the expiration of that time. A filed financing statement remains effective with respect to collateral transferred by the debtor even though the secured party knows of or consents to the transfer.

(8) A financing statement, amendment, continuation, assignment, release, or termination substantially complying with the requirements of this section is effective even though it contains minor errors which are not seriously misleading.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 336.9-403, is amended to read:

336.9-403 [WHAT CONSTITUTES FILING; DURATION OF FILING; EFFECT OF LAPSED FILING; DUTIES OF FILING OFFICER.]

(1) Presentation for filing of a financing statement and tender of the filing fee or acceptance of the statement by the filing officer constitutes filing under this article.

(2) Except as provided in ~~subsection~~ subsections (6) and (9) a filed financing statement is effective for a period of five years from the date of filing. The effectiveness of a filed financing statement lapses on the expiration of the five year period unless a continuation statement is filed prior to the lapse. If a security interest perfected by filing exists at the time insolvency proceedings are commenced by or against the debtor, the security interest remains perfected until termination of the insolvency proceedings and thereafter for a period of 60 days or until expiration of the five year period, whichever occurs later regardless of whether the financing statement filed as to that security interest is destroyed by the filing officer pursuant to subsection (3). Upon lapse the security interest becomes unperfected, unless it is perfected without filing. If the security interest becomes unperfected upon lapse, it is deemed to have been unperfected as against a person who became a purchaser or lien creditor before lapse.

(3) A continuation statement may be filed by the secured party within six months prior to the expiration of the five year period specified in subsection (2). Any such continuation statement must be signed by the secured party, set forth the name and address of the debtor and secured party as those items appear on the original financing statement or the most recently filed amendment, identify the original statement by file number and filing date, and state that the original statement is still effective. A continuation statement signed by a person other than the secured party of record must be accompanied by a separate written statement of assignment signed by the secured party of record and complying with subsection (2) of section 336.9-405, including payment of the required fee. Upon timely filing of the continuation statement, the effectiveness of the original statement is continued for five years after the last date to which the filing was effective whereupon it lapses in the same manner as provided in subsection (2) unless another continuation statement is filed prior to such lapse. Succeeding continuation statements may be filed in the same manner to continue the effectiveness of the original statement. Unless a statute on disposition of public records provides otherwise, the filing officer may remove a lapsed statement from the files and destroy it immediately if he has retained a microfilm or other photographic record, or in other cases after one year after the lapse. The filing officer shall so arrange matters by physical annexation of financing statements to continuation statements or other related filings, or by other means, that if he physically destroys the financing statements of a period more than five years past, those which have been continued by a continuation statement or which are still effective under subsection (6) shall be retained. If insolvency proceedings are commenced by or against the debtor, the secured party shall notify the filing officer both upon commencement and termination of the proceedings, and the filing officer shall not destroy any financing statements filed with respect to the debtor until termination of the insolvency proceedings. The security interest remains perfected until termination of the insolvency proceedings and thereafter for a period of 60 days or until expiration of the five year period, whichever occurs later.

(4) Except as provided in subsection (7) a filing officer shall mark each statement with a file number and with the date and hour of filing and shall hold the statement or a microfilm or other photographic copy thereof for public inspection. In addition the filing officer shall index the statements according to the name of the debtor and shall note in the index the file number and the address of the debtor given in the statement.

(5) The secretary of state shall prescribe uniform forms for statements and samples thereof shall be furnished to all filing officers in the state. The uniform fee for filing and indexing and for stamping a copy furnished by the secured party to show the date and place of filing for an original financing statement or for a continuation statement shall be $5 if the statement is in the standard form prescribed by the secretary of state and otherwise shall be $10, plus in each case, if the financing statement is subject to subsection (5) of section 336.9-402, $5. An additional fee of $5 shall be collected if more than one name is required to be indexed or if the secured party, at his option, shows a trade name for any debtor listed. There shall be no fee collected for the filing of an amendment to a financing statement if the amendment is in the standard form prescribed by the secretary of state and does not add additional debtor names to the financing statement. The fee for an amendment adding additional debtor names shall be $5 if the amendment is in the form prescribed by the secretary of state and, if otherwise, $10. The fee for an amendment which is not in the form prescribed by the secretary of state but which does not add additional names shall be $5.

The secretary of state shall adopt rules for filing, amendment, continuation, termination, removal, and destruction of financing statements.

(6) If the debtor is a transmitting utility (subsection (5) of section 336.9-401) and a filed financing statement so states, it is effective until a termination statement is filed. A real estate mortgage which is effective as a fixture filing under subsection (6) of section 336.9-402 remains effective as a fixture filing until the mortgage is released or satisfied of record or its effectiveness otherwise terminates as to the real estate.

(7) When a financing statement covers timber to be cut or covers minerals or the like (including oil and gas) or accounts subject to subsection (5) of section 336.9-103, or is filed as a fixture filing, it shall be filed for record and the filing officer shall index it under the names of the debtor and any owner of record shown on the financing statement in the same fashion as if they were the mortgagors in a mortgage of the real estate described, and, to the extent that the law of this state provides for indexing of mortgages under the name of the mortgagee, under the name of the secured party as if he were the mortgagee thereunder, or, for filing offices other than the secretary of state, where indexing is by description in the same fashion as if the financing statement were a mortgage of the real estate described. If requested of the filing officer on the financing statement, a financing statement filed for record as a fixture filing in the same office where nonfixture filings are made is effective, without a dual filing, as to collateral listed thereon for which filing is required in such office pursuant to section 336.9-401 (1) (a); in such case, the filing officer shall also index the recorded statement in accordance with subsection (4) using the recording data in lieu of a file number.

(8) The fees provided for in this article shall supersede the fees for similar services otherwise provided for by law except in the case of security interests filed in connection with a certificate of title on a motor vehicle.

(9) A financing statement that covers crops growing or to be grown is effective for a period of two years. A continuation statement may be filed for the products of the crop covered in the original financing statement. A continuation statement is effective for a period of two years and may be filed within six months prior to the expiration of the two-year period for the financing statement.

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes

The Honorable David M. Jennings
Speaker of the House of Representatives

We, the undersigned conferees for S.F. No. 43, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate concur in the House amendments and that S.F. No. 43 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

117.075 [COURT TO APPOINT COMMISSIONERS.]

Upon proof being filed of the service of such notice, the court, at the time and place therein fixed or to which the hearing may be adjourned, shall hear all competent evidence offered for or against the granting of the petition, regulating the order of proof as it may deem best. If the proposed taking shall appear to be necessary and such as is authorized by law, the court by an order shall appoint three disinterested commissioners, and at least two alternates, residents of the county, to ascertain and report the amount of damages that will be sustained by the several owners on account of such taking.

Before appointing a commissioner, the court shall inquire whether each prospective commissioner has any relationship, business or otherwise, to any of the parties in the proceeding, or any interest in the proceeding which may constitute a conflict of interest, or which may create the appearance of impropriety should that person be appointed. Responses to this inquiry must be either written or on the record and made available by the court to any party in the proceeding before and after appointment. No person who might have difficulty in rendering an unbiased decision may be appointed to serve. The court, in its discretion, may appoint one registered, practicing attorney to the commission who is knowledgeable in eminent domain matters. All other commissioners appointed must be persons actively engaged in the occupation of real estate sales or real estate appraising or persons knowledgeable in real estate values. The order shall fix the time and place of the first meeting of the three commissioners and prescribe their compensation. ¶ At the first meeting at the office of the clerk of district court the appointees must be sworn by the clerk or an authorized deputy and shall take and sign the following oath before assuming their duties as commissioners:

_____ each for himself/herself does swear under penalty of perjury as follows:

I will faithfully and justly perform to the best of my ability, all the duties of the office and trust which I now assume as commissioner in the above entitled proceeding. I further swear that, except as disclosed in writing or on the record, I have no interest in any of the lands in the above proceeding or any present or past relationship, business or personal, with any of the parties to the above proceeding or any other actual or potential conflict of interest, and that I will render fair and impartial decisions, so help me God.

The order may, in the discretion of the court, limit the title or easement to be acquired by the petitioner by defining the rights and privileges which the owner of any of the lands may exercise therein in subordination to the public uses to which it is appropriated. In case any of the commissioners fail commissioner fails to act or fails to meet the qualifications required by this section, the court without further notice may appoint another in his or her place.

The clerk of court in each county shall post in the courthouse in a prominent place a notice that a qualified person may apply to have his or her name placed upon a list of potential commission appointees for eminent domain proceedings. The notice must contain the language of the oath which the commissioners are required to take upon appointment and shall list the other qualifications set forth in this section. The court shall give due consideration to the names appearing on the list, but is not bound to make appointments from the list.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 161.20, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ACQUISITION OF PROPERTY; BUILDINGS; RELOCATION OF CORNERS; AGREEMENTS WITH RAILROADS; CONTRACTS.] He The commissioner is authorized to acquire by purchase, gift, or by eminent domain proceedings as provided by law, in fee or such lesser estate as he the commissioner deems necessary, all lands and properties necessary in laying out, constructing, maintaining, and improving the trunk highway system including recreational vehicle lanes; to locate, construct, reconstruct, improve, and maintain the trunk highway system; to purchase all road material, machinery, tools, and supplies necessary for the construction, maintenance, and improvement thereof; to construct necessary buildings, or rent or acquire by purchase, gift, or condemnation, grounds, and buildings necessary for the storing and housing of such material, machinery, tools, and supplies or necessary for office space for employees or for providing for driver license examinations; to maintain, repair, or remodel such buildings as may be necessary; to acquire by purchase, gift, or condemnation, replacement sites for historically significant buildings or structures and to relocate these buildings or structures onto those sites, reconstructing and maintaining them until disposed of through public sale to the highest responsible bidder; to make agreements with any county for the relocation or re-establishment, by the county, of section, quarter section, or meander corners originally established by the United States, when such relocation or re-establishment is necessary in order to write land acquisition descriptions or by reason of the construction, reconstruction, improvement, or maintenance of a trunk highway; to contract on an equitable basis with railroad companies for the installation and reinstallation of safety devices at trunk highway-railroad grade crossings, and for the construction, reconstruction and maintenance of bridges and approaches existing or necessary for the separation of grades at railroad and trunk highway intersections; and in carrying out his duties, to let all necessary contracts in the manner prescribed by law. The commissioner may make agreements with and cooperate with any governmental authority for the purpose of effectuating the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 3. [161.315] [PROTECTION OF PUBLIC CONTRACTS.]

Subdivision 1. [LEGISLATIVE INTENT.] Recognizing that the preservation of the integrity of the public contracting process of the department of transportation is vital to the development of a balanced and efficient transportation system and a matter of interest to the people of the state, the legislature hereby determines and declares that:

(1) the procedures of the department for bidding and awarding department contracts exist to secure the public benefits of free and open competition and to secure the quality of public works;

(2) the opportunity to be awarded department contracts or to supply goods or services to the department is a privilege, not a right; and

(3) the privilege of transacting business with the department or local road authority should be denied to persons convicted of a contract crime in order to preserve the integrity of the public contracting process.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] The terms used in this section have the meanings given them in this subdivision.

(a) "Affiliate" means a predecessor or successor of a person under the same or substantially the same control, or a group of entities so connected or associated that one entity controls or has the power to control each of the other entities. "Affiliate" includes the affiliate's principals. One person's ownership of a controlling interest in another entity or a pooling of equipment or income among entities is prima facie evidence that one entity is an affiliate of another.

(b) "Contract crime" means a violation of state or federal antitrust law, fraud, theft, embezzlement, bribery, forgery, misrepresentation, making false statements, falsification or destruction of records, or other criminal offense in connection with obtaining, attempting to obtain, or performing a public or private contract or subcontract.

(c) "Conviction" has the meaning given it in section 609.02, subdivision 5.

(d) "Debar" means to disqualify from receiving a contract or from serving as a subcontractor or material supplier as provided by Laws 1984, chapter 654, article 2, section 8.

(e) "Person" means a natural person or a business, corporation, association, partnership, sole proprietorship, or other entity formed to do business as a contractor, subcontractor, or material supplier and includes an affiliate of a person.

(f) "Pooling" means a combination of persons engaged in the same business or combined for the purpose of engaging in a particular business or commercial venture and who all contribute to a common fund or place their holdings of a given stock or other security in the hand and control of a managing member or committee of the combination.

(g) "Suspend" means to temporarily disqualify from receiving a contract or from serving as a subcontractor or material supplier as provided by Laws 1984, chapter 654, article 2, section 8.

Subd. 3. [PROHIBITIONS.] Except as provided in subdivision 4:

(1) neither the commissioner nor a county, town, or home rule or statutory city may award or approve the award of a contract for goods or services to a person who is suspended or debarred;

(2) neither the commissioner nor a county, town, or home rule or statutory city may award or approve the award of a contract for goods or services

under which a debarred or suspended person will serve as a subcontractor or material supplier; and

(3) a person to whom a contract for goods or services has been awarded may not subcontract with or purchase materials or services from a debarred or suspended person for performance of that contract.

Subd. 4. [EXCEPTIONS.] The commissioner may terminate a debarment by order, or the commissioner or a county, town, or home rule or statutory city may award a contract to a debarred or suspended person when:

(1) that person is the sole supplier of a material or service required by the commissioner or a county, town, or home rule or statutory city;

(2) the commissioner determines that an emergency exists as defined in section 161.32, subdivision 3;

(3) the commissioner of administration determines that an emergency exists as defined in section 16B.08, subdivision 6;

(4) in the case of a contract to be awarded by a county, town, or home rule or statutory city, the governing body thereof determines by resolution that an emergency exists that will result in a road, street, or bridge being closed to travel; or

(5) the contract is for purchasing materials or renting equipment for routine road maintenance.

Subd. 5. [DURATION OF DEBARMENT.] A person who has been convicted of a contract crime must be debarred for a period of not less than one year. This subdivision applies to contract crime violations which occur after June 30, 1985.

Subd. 6. [PREEXISTING CONTRACTS.] The disqualification of a contractor or its affiliate does not affect the contractor's or its affiliate's obligations under any preexisting contract.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 162.07, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [MONEY NEEDS DEFINED.] For the purpose of this section, money needs of each county are defined as the estimated total annual costs of constructing, over a period of 25 years, the county state-aid highway system in that county. Costs incidental to construction, or a specified portion thereof as set forth in the commissioner's rules and regulations may be included in determining money needs. ~~When a county state-aid highway is located over a street in a city having a population of 5,000 or more, only the construction costs of the center 24 feet of the street shall be included in the money needs of that county; provided, that when traffic volumes warrant multiple or divided lane highways the construction costs of the necessary number of 12 foot lanes required for through traffic may be included in the money needs. When a county state-aid highway is located over a street in any city of less than 5,000 population, the construction costs of the entire width of the roadway or street surface shall be included in the money needs of that county.~~ To avoid variances in costs due to differences in construction policy, construction costs shall be estimated on the basis of the engineering standards developed cooperatively by the commissioner and the county engineers of the several counties. Any variance granted pursuant to section 162.02, subdivision 3a shall be reflected in the estimated construction costs in determining money needs.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 162.07, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMPUTATIONS FOR RURAL COUNTIES.] A two-thirds of one mill levy on each rural county's total taxable valuation for the last preceding calendar year shall be computed and shall be subtracted from such county's total estimated construction costs. The result thereof shall be the money needs of such county. For the purpose of this section, rural counties shall be construed to mean all counties having a population of less than ~~200,000~~ 175,000.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 162.07, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [COMPUTATION FOR URBAN COUNTIES.] A four-tenths mill levy on each urban county's total taxable valuation for the last preceding calendar year shall be computed and shall be subtracted from such county's total estimated construction costs. The result thereof shall be the money needs of the county. For the purpose of this section urban counties shall be construed to mean all counties having a population of ~~200,000~~ 175,000 or more.

Sec. 7. [162.071] [SPECIAL PROVISIONS.]

The following provisions apply to county state-aid apportionments in calendar years 1986 and 1987 only:

(a) In calendar year 1985 for the 1986 apportionment the definition of "money needs" includes 50 percent of the construction costs beyond the center 24 feet of a county state-aid highway located over a street in a city of 5,000 or more population.

(b) In calendar year 1986 for the 1987 apportionment the definition of "money needs" must include 100 percent of the construction costs beyond the center 24 feet of a county state-aid highway located over a street in a city of 5,000 or more population.

(c) Notwithstanding paragraphs (a) and (b), the commissioner shall make no apportionment of county state-aid highway funds for calendar years 1986 and 1987 which would result in any county receiving a lesser apportionment of such funds than was apportioned to it in calendar year 1985.

(d) Notwithstanding paragraphs (a) and (b), the apportionment of county state-aid funds for either calendar year 1986 or 1987 for any county may not exceed the apportionment to that county for the previous calendar year, increased by a percentage which is the sum of the percentage by which the total funds available for apportionment to all counties increased over the total funds available for apportionment for the previous calendar years, plus five percent. If the provisions of this clause result in more funds being available for distribution to all counties than can be distributed under these provisions, the commissioner shall apportion the excess funds to the counties in proportion to each county's approved money needs as defined in section 162.07, subdivision 2.

The provisions of this section do not apply to apportionments for any year in which the amount of county state-aid highway funds available for apportionment to all counties is less than the amount which was available for apportionment to all counties in calendar year 1985.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 168.013, subdivision 1e, is amended to read:

Subd. 1e. [TRUCKS; TRACTORS; COMBINATIONS; EXCEPTIONS.] On trucks and tractors except those in this chapter defined as farm trucks, and urban trucks, and on truck-tractor and semitrailer combinations except those defined as farm combinations and urban combinations and on commercial zone vehicles, the tax based on total gross weight shall be graduated according to the Minnesota base rate schedule prescribed in this subdivision, but in no event less than $120.

For each vehicle with a gross weight in excess of 81,000 pounds an additional tax of $50 is imposed for each ton or fraction thereof in excess of 81,000 pounds, subject to subdivision 12.

Truck-tractors except those herein defined as farm and urban truck-tractors and commercial zone vehicles shall be taxed in accord with the foregoing gross weight tax schedule on the basis of the combined gross weight of the truck-tractor and any semitrailer or semitrailers which the applicant proposes to combine with the truck-tractor. In addition, to the gross weight tax imposed on the truck-tractor, each semitrailer shall be taxed a fee of $10 for a one-year period or $50 for a five-year period whichever the applicant elects.

Commercial zone trucks include only trucks, truck-tractors, and semi-trailer combinations which are:

(1) used by an authorized local cartage carrier operating under a permit issued under section 221.296 and whose gross transportation revenue consists of at least 60 percent obtained solely from local cartage carriage, and are operated solely within an area composed of two contiguous cities of the first class and municipalities contiguous thereto as defined by section 221.011, subdivision 17; or,

(2) operated by an interstate carrier registered under section ~~221.61~~ or ~~221.62~~ 27, or by an authorized local cartage carrier or other carrier receiving operating authority under chapter 221, and operated solely within a zone exempt from regulation by the interstate commerce commission pursuant to United States Code, title 49, section 10526(b).

The license plates issued for commercial zone vehicles shall be plainly marked. A person operating a commercial zone vehicle outside the zone or area in which its operation is authorized is guilty of a misdemeanor and, in addition to the penalty therefor, shall have the registration of the vehicle as a commercial zone vehicle revoked by the registrar and shall be required to reregister the vehicle at 100 percent of the full annual tax prescribed in the Minnesota base rate schedule, and no part of this tax shall be refunded during the balance of the registration year.

On commercial zone trucks the tax shall be based on the total gross weight of the vehicle and during the first eight years of vehicle life shall be 75 percent of the Minnesota base rate schedule. During the ninth and succeeding years of vehicle life the tax shall be 50 percent of the Minnesota base rate schedule, except as otherwise provided in this subdivision. On commercial zone trucks, during the ninth and succeeding years of vehicle life, the tax shall be:

(a) for the 1982 registration year, 35 percent of the tax imposed in the Minnesota base rate schedule;

(d) for the 1985 registration year, and each succeeding year, 50 percent of the tax imposed in the Minnesota base rate schedule.

On trucks, truck-tractors and semitrailer combinations, except those defined as farm trucks and farm combinations, and except for those urban trucks and combinations and commercial zone vehicles specifically provided for in this subdivision, the tax for the first eight years of vehicle life shall be 100 percent of the tax imposed in the Minnesota base rate schedule, and during the ninth and succeeding years of vehicle life, the tax shall be 75 percent of the Minnesota base rate prescribed by this subdivision, except as otherwise provided in this subdivision.

On trucks, truck-tractors and semitrailer combinations, except those defined as farm trucks and farm combinations, and except for those urban trucks and combinations and commercial zone vehicles specifically provided for in this subdivision, during each of the first eight years of vehicle life the tax shall be:

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 168.013, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [APPLICATION; CANCELLATION; EXCESSIVE GROSS WEIGHTS FORBIDDEN.] The applicant for all licenses based on gross weight shall state in writing upon oath, the unloaded weight of the motor vehicle, trailer or semi-trailer and the maximum load the applicant proposes to carry thereon, the sum of which shall constitute the gross weight upon which the license tax shall be paid, but in no case shall the declared gross weight upon which the tax is paid be less than 1-1/4 times the declared unloaded weight of the motor vehicle, trailer or semi-trailer to be registered, except recreational vehicles taxed under subdivision 1g, school buses taxed under subdivision 18 and wreckers defined in section 169.01, subdivision 52. The gross weight of a wrecker is the actual weight of the wrecker fully equipped, but does not include the weight of a wrecked or disabled vehicle towed or drawn by the wrecker.

The gross weight of no motor vehicle, trailer or semi-trailer shall exceed the gross weight upon which the license tax has been paid by more than four percent or 1000 pounds, whichever is greater.

The gross weight of the motor vehicle, trailer or semi-trailer for which the license tax is paid shall be indicated by a distinctive character on the license plate or plates except as provided in subdivision 12 and the plate or plates shall be kept clean and clearly visible at all times.

The owner, driver, or user of a motor vehicle, trailer or semi-trailer upon conviction for transporting a gross weight in excess of the gross weight for which it was registered or for operating a vehicle with an axle weight exceeding the maximum lawful axle load weight shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and be subject to increased registration or re-registration according to the following schedule:

(1) The owner, driver or user of a motor vehicle, trailer or semi-trailer upon conviction for transporting a gross weight in excess of the gross weight for which it is registered by more than four percent or 1000 pounds, whichever is greater, but less than 25 percent or for operating or using a motor vehicle, trailer or semi-trailer with an axle weight exceeding the maximum lawful axle load as provided in section 169.825 by more than four percent or 1000 pounds, whichever is greater, but less than 25 percent, in addition to any penalty imposed for the misdemeanor shall apply to the registrar to increase the authorized gross weight to be carried on the vehicle to a weight equal to or greater than the gross weight the owner, driver, or user was convicted of carrying, the increase computed for the balance of the calendar year on the basis of 1/12 of the annual tax for each month remaining in the calendar year beginning with the first day of the month in which the violation occurred. If the additional registration tax computed upon that weight, plus the tax already paid, amounts to more than the regular tax for the maximum gross weight permitted for the vehicle under section 169.825, that additional amount shall nevertheless be paid into the highway fund, but the additional tax thus paid shall not permit the vehicle to be operated with a gross weight in excess of the maximum legal weight as provided by section 169.825. Unless the owner within 30 days after a conviction shall apply to increase the authorized weight and pay the additional tax as provided in this section, the registrar shall revoke the registration on the vehicle and demand the return of the registration card and plates issued on that registration.

(2) The owner or driver or user of a motor vehicle, trailer or semi-trailer upon conviction for transporting a gross weight in excess of the gross weight for which the motor vehicle, trailer or semi-trailer was registered by 25 percent or more, or for operating or using a vehicle or trailer with an axle weight exceeding the maximum lawful axle load as provided in section 169.825 by 25 percent or more, in addition to any penalty imposed for the misdemeanor, shall have the reciprocity privileges on the vehicle involved if the vehicle is being operated under reciprocity cancelled by the registrar, or if the vehicle is not being operated under reciprocity, the certificate of registration on the vehicle operated shall be cancelled by the registrar and the registrar shall demand the return of the registration certificate and registration plates. The registrar may not cancel the registration or reciprocity privileges for any vehicle found in violation of seasonal load restrictions imposed under section 169.87 unless the axle weight exceeds the year-round weight limit for the highway on which the violation occurred. The registrar may investigate any allegation of gross weight violations and demand that the operator show cause why all future operating privileges in the state should not be revoked unless the additional tax assessed is paid.

(3) When the registration on a motor vehicle, trailer or semi-trailer is revoked by the registrar according to provisions of this section, the vehicle shall not be operated on the highways of the state until it is registered or re-registered, as the case may be, and new plates issued, and the registration fee shall be the annual tax for the total gross weight of the vehicle at the time of violation. The re-registration pursuant to this subdivision of any vehicle operating under reciprocity agreements pursuant to section 168.181 or 168.187 shall be at the full annual registration fee without regard to the percentage of vehicle miles traveled in this state.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 169.833, is amended to read:

169.833 [ADDITION OF TRUNK HIGHWAYS TO DESIGNATED ROUTE SYSTEM; PRIORITY LIST.]

Subdivision 1. [PRIORITY LIST PREPARED.] (a) By December 31 of each odd-numbered year beginning in 1985, each highway district must submit to the commissioner its list of identified market arteries and recommended priorities for upgrading. The priority list must be prepared in accordance with this section by the district engineer in consultation with county and city engineers in the district. Each district engineer must hold one or more public meetings on the list and report to the commissioner in detail how the district upgrading priority list reflects testimony received in the public meetings.

(b) In making its priority list each district must consider the priorities of counties, municipalities, regions and adjoining districts. Each district must submit to the commissioner a preliminary list of market arteries identified for upgrading by September 1, 1985.

Subd. 2. [SELECTION OF MARKET ARTERIES.] The district priority list must identify all market arteries and determine those in need of upgrading. Roads considered for identification as market arteries must include roads connecting Minnesota with border states and provinces, roads connecting interstate highways with state trunk highways, and roads connecting trunk highways with one another. In determining the need for upgrading market arteries, the district must consider shippers' needs, community views, road conditions, regional development plans and the plans of adjoining districts. In identifying market arteries and determining the need for upgrading, the district must give priority to roads serving communities without access to rail service or a year-round, ten-ton route.

Subdivision 4 Subd. 3. [IDENTIFICATION OF PROJECTS.] The commissioner shall develop a priority list of trunk highway routes to be added to the system of routes designated under section 169.832 improvements to upgrade market arteries identified in the district priority lists developed under this section. The commissioner shall consult with representatives of the trucking, shipping, and agricultural industries and, local authorities, and regional development commissions in developing the list. A route shall be added to the designated route system after completion of road improvements that provide road strength adequate to carry the permissible weights under section 169.825 or when the commissioner otherwise determines that designation of a route is reasonable. In developing the list the commissioner shall give highest priority to improvements that will eliminate prohibitions or restrictions that interrupt year-round full service on market arteries.

Subd. 2. [FUNDING OF ADDITIONS TO THE SYSTEM.] On July 1 of each year the commissioner of finance shall certify to the commissioner the estimated increase in revenue to the trunk highway fund resulting from the increase in the gasoline and special fuel excise tax under section 296.02. The commissioner shall expend 15 percent of the increase in revenue to the trunk highway fund resulting from the increase in the gasoline and special fuel excise tax under section 296.02 and 15 percent of future increases in gasoline and special fuel excise tax revenues to the trunk highway fund for the purposes of subdivision 1. In the event that actual expenditures during any fiscal year are less or greater than 15 percent when compared to actual revenue the commissioner shall adjust his expenditures for the purpose of subdivision 1 for the following years in order to achieve compliance with this subdivision.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 169.862, is amended to read:

169.862 [PERMITS FOR WIDE LOADS OF BALED HAY AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS.]

The commissioner of transportation with respect to highways under the commissioner's jurisdiction, and local authorities with respect to highways under their jurisdiction, may issue an annual permit to enable a vehicle carrying round ~~baled hay~~ bales of agricultural products, with a total outside width of the vehicle or the load not exceeding 11-1/2 feet, to be operated on public streets and highways. Permits issued under this section are governed by the applicable provisions of section 169.86 except as otherwise provided herein and, in addition, carry the following restrictions:

(a) The vehicles may not be operated between sunset and sunrise, when visibility is impaired by weather, fog, or other conditions rendering persons and vehicles not clearly visible at a distance of 500 feet, or on ~~Saturdays, Sundays, and Sunday from noon until sunset, or on the days the following holidays are observed: New Year's Day, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day, and Christmas Day.~~

(b) The vehicles may not be operated on interstate highways.

(c) The vehicles may not be operated on a trunk highway with a pavement less than 24 feet wide.

(d) A vehicle operated under the permit must be equipped with a retractable or removable mirror on the left side so located that it will reflect to the driver a clear view of the highway for a distance of at least 200 feet to the rear of the vehicle. ~~Simultaneous flashing amber lights, as provided in section 169.59, subdivision 4, must be displayed to the front and rear of the vehicle. The flashing amber lights must be lighted only when the width of the load exceeds 102 inches. The flashing amber light system is in addition to and separate from the turn signal system and the hazard warning light system.~~

(e) A vehicle operated under the permit must display red, orange, or yellow flags, ~~12~~ 18 inches square, as markers at the front and rear and on both sides of the load. The load must be securely bound to the transporting vehicle.

The fee for the permit is $24.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 169.871, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [SHIPPER'S GOOD FAITH EXCEPTION.] The penalty imposed by subdivision 1 shall not be imposed on a shipper who in good faith ships goods or tenders goods for shipment in a vehicle that does not exceed the maximum gross weight for which the truck is licensed under section 168.013, subdivision 1e.

For purposes of this section, "good faith" means that (1) the vehicle is licensed pursuant to section 168.013, subdivision 1e, (2) the operator of the vehicle is not under the control of the shipper, (3) the operator has requested that the vehicle be loaded to the maximum gross weight for which the vehicle is licensed, and (4) the road leading from the shipper's immediate place of shipment may be legally used for the allowed gross weight of the vehicle with its legally maximum load.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 169.872, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

The record shall be retained for 30 days and shall be open to inspection and copying by a state law enforcement officer or motor transport representative, except state conservation officers, upon demand. No search warrant is required to inspect or copy the record. This subdivision does not apply to a person weighing goods who is not involved in the shipping, receiving and transporting of those goods, or to a person weighing raw and unfinished farm products transported in a single unit vehicle with not more than three axles or by a trailer towed by a farm tractor when the transportation is the first haul of the product.

221.033 [REGULATION OF HAZARDOUS MATERIALS.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENTS.] Except as provided in subdivisions 2 and 3, no person may transport or have transported or shipped within the state of Minnesota a hazardous material, hazardous substance, or hazardous waste except in compliance with United States Code, title 49, sections 1801 to 1811 and the provisions of Code of Federal Regulations, title 49, sections 171 to 199.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 221.161, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FILING; HEARING UPON BOARD INITIATIVE.] Every permit carrier, including a livestock carrier but not including a local cartage carrier, shall file and maintain with the commissioner a ~~schedule of~~ tariff showing rates and charges for the transportation of persons or property. The filing with and acceptance by the commissioner of these tariffs, in accordance with the rules relating to the ~~schedules tariffs~~, constitutes notice to the public and interested parties of the contents of the tariffs. ~~Schedules Tariffs~~ must be prepared and filed in accordance with the rules and regulations of the commissioner. The commissioner shall not accept for filing ~~schedules tariffs~~ which are unjust and unreasonable or unjustly discriminatory or unduly preferential or prejudicial or otherwise in violation of the provisions of this section. If the ~~schedules tariffs~~ appear to be unjust or unreasonable or unjustly discriminatory or unduly preferential or prejudicial or otherwise in violation of this section, the board after notification and investigation by the department may suspend and postpone the effective date of the ~~schedules tariffs~~ and assign the ~~schedules tariffs~~ for hearing upon notice to the permit carrier filing the proposed ~~schedules tariffs~~ and to other interested parties, including users of the service and competitive carriers by motor vehicle and rail. At the hearing, the burden of proof is on the permit carrier filing the proposed ~~schedule of rates and charges tariff~~ to sustain the validity of the proposed schedule of rates and charges. ~~Schedules of rates and charges Tariffs~~ for the transportation of livestock are not subject to rejection, suspension, or postponement by the board, except as provided in subdivisions 2 and 3. The tariffs and subsequent supplements to them or reissues of them must state the effective date, which may not be less than ten days following the date of filing, unless the period of time is reduced by special permission of the ~~board commissioner~~.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 221.185, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 221.185, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5a. [REINSTATEMENT AFTER CANCELLATION.] A motor carrier whose permit or certificate is canceled for failure to comply with sections 221.141 and 221.296 relating to bonds and insurance may ask the board to review the cancellation. Upon review, the board shall rescind the cancellation if: (1) the motor carrier presents evidence showing that before the effective date of the notice of cancellation issued under section 221.185, subdivision 5, the motor carrier had obtained and paid for the insurance required by sections 221.141 and 221.296, and the rules of the commissioner, and (2) the commissioner informs the board that the motor carrier has complied with the requirements of sections 221.141 and 221.296 and the rules of the commissioner.

221.231 [RECIPROCAL AGREEMENTS.]

The commissioner may enter into reciprocal agreements with the regulatory bodies of other states and the provinces of the Dominion of Canada, whereby the payment of the vehicle fee fees provided in section 221.134 hereof 27 may be waived in whole or in part as to residents of or corporations or partnerships for motor carriers having an established place of business in the that state or province, entering into the reciprocal agreement with the commissioner, provided that reciprocal privileges are extended under such the agreement to residents motor carriers of this state and to corporations or partnerships who have an established place of business in this state.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 221.291, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [VIOLATION.] Except as provided in subdivisions 3 and 4, a person who commits, procures, aids or abets or conspires to commit, or attempts to commit, aid or abet in the violation of a provision of this chapter or a valid order or rule of the commissioner or board issued hereunder, whether individually or in connection with one or other more persons or as principal, agent, or accessory, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and every person who falsely, fraudulently, forcibly, or willfully induces, causes, coerces, requires, permits, or directs another to violate a provision of this chapter, is likewise guilty of a misdemeanor. Every distinct violation is a separate offense.

Sec. 27. [221.60] [REGISTRATION OF INTERSTATE CARRIERS.]

Subdivision 1. [PROCEDURE.] A motor carrier may transport persons or property for hire in interstate commerce in Minnesota only if it first:

(1) complies with section 221.141;

(2) either registers with the commissioner the Interstate Commerce Commission operating authority that it intends to exercise, or registers and describes the transportation it performs under an exemption contained in the Interstate Commerce Act, United States Code, title 49; and

(3) purchases an interstate identification stamp or an interstate registration trip permit for each vehicle to be used in interstate transportation in Minnesota.

Subd. 2. [FORM AND FEES.] A motor carrier engaged in interstate commerce shall register its interstate transportation authority or exemption before February 1 of each year on a form prescribed by the commissioner. The fee for the initial registration is $25. The fee for each identification stamp is $5; however, a lesser fee may be collected pursuant to a reciprocal agreement authorized by section 28. No fee may be collected from a local cartage carrier that provides interstate transportation only within the zone described in United States Code, title 49, section 10526(b)(1)(1984). A local cartage carrier shall register its interstate transportation each year when it pays the local cartage carrier permit or annual renewal fee.

Subd. 3. [FAILURE TO REGISTER.] Failure to register for three consecutive years cancels the carrier's registration. The commissioner must give 30 days notice of the cancellation to the carrier at the carrier's last known address.

Subd. 4. [CAB CARD.] A carrier required to register under this section shall obtain the National Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners cab card described in Code of Federal Regulations, title 49, section 1023.36, and affix the stamp to the cab card. A cab card bearing a current Minnesota interstate identification stamp must be carried in the cab of a vehicle operated for hire in interstate commerce in Minnesota.

Subd. 5. [TEMPORARY INTERSTATE REGISTRATION.] An interstate registration trip permit valid for ten days from the date of issue may be issued to a motor carrier engaged in interstate commerce that:

(1) complies with section 221.141;

(2) either registers its interstate operating authority or registers and describes the transportation it performs under an exemption contained in the Interstate Commerce Act, United States Code, title 49; and

(3) pays a state fee of $5 for each permit.

Subd. 6. [TRANSFER OF AUTHORIZATION DOCUMENT.] A motor carrier engaged in interstate commerce may not transfer or sell or allow another carrier to use its interstate identification stamp, its interstate registration trip permit, or its cab card. However, a cab card and identification stamp may be transferred to a leased vehicle operated under the authority of the motor carrier to whom the cab card and identification stamp were issued.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 221.65, is amended to read:

Nothing in sections ~~221.64 to 221.68~~ this chapter shall be construed to impair the authority of the commissioner to enter into reciprocal agreements with the regulatory bodies of other states and the provinces of the Dominion of Canada, as provided in section 221.231.

For the purposes of section 221.231, the commissioner shall be deemed to be the successor of the department of public service. The commissioner may exercise any power, duty or function heretofore conferred by law or agreement upon the department of public service to the extent necessary to preserve any reciprocal agreement heretofore concluded under the provisions of section 221.231. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the negotiation of new or replacement agreements as conditions and circumstances may warrant.

221.67 [SERVICE OF PROCESS.]

The use of any of the public highways of this state for the transportation of persons or property for compensation by a motor carrier in interstate commerce shall be deemed an irrevocable appointment by the carrier of the secretary of state to be his true and lawful attorney upon whom may be served all legal process in any action or proceeding brought under ~~section 221.66~~ this chapter against him or his executor, administrator, personal representative, heirs, successors or assigns. This use is a signification of agreement by the interstate motor carrier that any process in any action against him or his executor, administrator, personal representative, heirs, successors, or assigns which is so served shall be of the same legal force and validity as if served upon him personally. Service shall be made by serving a copy thereof upon the secretary of state or by filing a copy in his office, together with payment of a fee of $15, and the service shall be sufficient service upon the absent motor carrier if notice of the service and a copy of the process are within ten days thereafter sent by mail by the plaintiff to the defendant at his last known address and the plaintiff's affidavit of compliance with the provisions of this section and sections ~~221.64 to 27~~, 221.65, and 221.68 is attached to the summons.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 221.68, is amended to read:

221.68 [VIOLATIONS; PENALTIES.]

Any person who violates or procures, aids, or abets violation of, or fails to comply with, the provisions of sections ~~221.64 to 221.68~~ 27 to 29 or any valid order or rule of the commissioner or board issued hereunder shall be guilty of a misdemeanor; and, additionally, shall be subject to a penalty of $50 for each and every day of such failure to so comply, to be recovered for the state in a civil action. Each distinct violation shall be a separate offense.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 221.81, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

(a) "Building mover" means a person, corporation, or other entity who raises, supports off the foundation, and moves buildings on and over public streets and highways. Building mover does not include a person who moves manufactured homes or modular homes, farmers moving their own farm buildings, or persons moving buildings which are less than 16 feet wide by 20 feet long.

(b) "Political subdivision" means a city, town, or county.

(c) "Road authority" has the meaning given it in section 160.02, subdivision 9.

The area now included in the following counties shall constitute the South Zone: Anoka, Big Stone, Blue Earth, Brown, Carver, Chippewa, Cottonwood, Dakota, Dodge, Faribault, Fillmore, Freeborn, Goodhue, Hennepin, Houston, Jackson, Kandiyohi, Lac qui Parle, Le Sueur, Lincoln, Lyon, McLeod, Martin, Meeker, Mower, Murray, Nicollet, Nobles, Olmsted, Pipestone, Ramsey, Redwood, Renville, Rice, Rock, Scott, Sherburne, Sibley, Steele, Swift, Wabasha, Waseca, Washington, Watonwan, Winona, Wright, and Yellow Medicine.

505.19 [ZONES; LAND DESCRIPTIONS.]

As established for use in the North Zone, the Minnesota Coordinate System of 1927 or the Minnesota Coordinate System of 1983 shall be named, and in any land description in which it is used it shall be designated, the “Minnesota Coordinate System of 1927, North Zone or the Minnesota Coordinate System of 1983, North Zone.”

As established for use in the Central Zone, the Minnesota Coordinate System of 1927 or the Minnesota Coordinate System of 1983 shall be named, and in any land description in which it is used it shall be designated, the “Minnesota Coordinate System of 1927, Central Zone or the Minnesota Coordinate System of 1983, Central Zone.”

As established for use in the South Zone, the Minnesota Coordinate System of 1927 or the Minnesota Coordinate System of 1983 shall be named, and in any land description in which it is used it shall be designated, the “Minnesota Coordinate System of 1927, South Zone or the Minnesota Coordinate System of 1983, South Zone.”

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 505.20, is amended to read:

505.20 [X- AND Y-COORDINATES.]

The plane ~~coordinates~~ of coordinate values for a point on the earth's surface, to be used in ~~expressing~~ to express the geographic position or location of such point in the appropriate zone of this system, shall consist of two distances, expressed in U.S. Survey feet and decimals of a foot when using the Minnesota Coordinate System of 1927 and expressed in meters and decimals of a meter when using the Minnesota Coordinate System of 1983. One of these distances, to be known as the "x-coordinate," shall give the position in an east-and-west direction; the other, to be known as the "y-coordinate," shall give the position in a north-and-south direction. These coordinates shall be made to depend upon and conform to the coordinates, on the Minnesota Coordinate System, of the triangulation and traverse stations of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey within the state of Minnesota, as those coordinates have been determined by the said Survey plane rectangular coordinate values for the monumented horizontal control stations of the North American Horizontal Geodetic Control Network as published by the National Ocean Survey/National Geodetic Survey (NOS/NGS) or its successors and whose plane coordinates have been computed on the systems defined in this chapter. The station may be used for establishing a survey connection to either Minnesota Coordinate System, 1927 or 1983.

505.22 [DEFINITION OF MINNESOTA COORDINATE SYSTEM SYSTEMS DEFINED.]

(a) For purposes of more precisely defining the Minnesota Coordinate System of 1927, the following definition by the United States Coast and National Ocean Survey/National Geodetic Survey is adopted:

The Minnesota Coordinate System of 1927, North Zone, is a Lambert conformal conic projection of the Clarke spheroid of 1866, having standard parallels at north latitudes 47 degrees 02 minutes and 48 degrees 38 minutes, along which parallels the scale shall be exact. The origin of coordinates is at the intersection of the meridian 93 degrees 06 minutes west of Greenwich and the parallel 46 degrees 30 minutes north latitude. This origin is given the coordinates: x equals 2,000,000 feet and y equals 0 feet.

The Minnesota Coordinate System of 1927, Central Zone, is a Lambert conformal conic projection of the Clarke spheroid of 1866, having standard parallels at north latitudes 45 degrees 37 minutes and 47 degrees 03 minutes, along which parallels the scale shall be exact. The origin of coordinates is at the intersection of the meridian 94 degrees 15 minutes west of Greenwich and the parallel 45 degrees 00 minutes north latitude. This origin is given the coordinates: x equals 2,000,000 feet and y equals 0 feet.

The Minnesota Coordinate System of 1927, South Zone, is a Lambert conformal conic projection of the Clarke spheroid of 1866, having standard parallels at north latitudes 43 degrees 47 minutes and 45 degrees 13 minutes, along which parallels the scale shall be exact. The origin of coordinates is at the intersection of the meridian 94 degrees 00 minutes west of Greenwich with the parallel 43 degrees 00 minutes north latitude, such origin being given the coordinates: x equals 2,000,000 feet and y equals 0 feet.

(b) The position of the Minnesota Coordinate System shall be as marked on the ground by triangulation or traverse stations established in conformity with standards adopted by the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey for first order and second order work, whose geodetic positions have been rigidly adjusted on the North American datum of 1927, and whose coordinates have been computed on the system herein defined. Any such station may be used for establishing a survey connection with the Minnesota Coordinate System For purposes of more precisely defining the Minnesota Coordinate

The Minnesota Coordinate System of 1983, North Zone, is a Lambert conformal conic projection of the North American Geocentric Datum of 1983, having standard parallels at north latitudes 47 degrees 02 minutes and 48 degrees 38 minutes, along which parallels the scale shall be exact. The origin of coordinates is at the intersection of the meridian 93 degrees 06 minutes west of Greenwich with the parallel 46 degrees 30 minutes north latitude. This origin is given the coordinates: x equals 800,000 meters and y equals 100,000 meters.

The Minnesota Coordinate System of 1983, Central Zone, is a Lambert conformal conic projection of the North American Geocentric Datum of 1983, having standard parallels at north latitudes 45 degrees 37 minutes and 47 degrees 03 minutes, along which parallels the scale shall be exact. The origin of coordinates is at the intersection of the meridian 94 degrees 15 minutes west of Greenwich with the parallel 45 degrees 00 minutes north latitude. This origin is given the coordinates: x equals 800,000 meters and y equals 100,000 meters.

The Minnesota Coordinate System of 1983, South Zone, is a Lambert conformal conic projection of the North American Geocentric Datum of 1983, having standard parallels at North latitudes 43 degrees 47 minutes and 45 degrees 13 minutes, along which parallels the scale shall be exact. The origin of coordinates is at the intersection of the meridian 94 degrees 00 minutes west of Greenwich with the parallel 43 degrees 00 minutes north latitude. This origin is given the coordinates: x equals 800,000 meters and y equals 100,000 meters.

No coordinates based on the Minnesota Coordinate System, purporting to define the position of a point on a land boundary, shall be presented to be recorded in any public land records or deed records unless such point is within one-half mile of a ~~triangulation~~ or ~~traverse~~ horizontal control station established in conformity with the standards prescribed in section ~~505.25~~ 505.20; provided that said one-half mile limitation may be modified by a duly authorized state agency to meet local conditions.

No action may be taken pursuant to section 9 to impose a service charge unless ten percent or more of the individual or business organizations subject to the proposed service charge file a petition requesting a public hearing on the proposed action with the city clerk. If the boundaries of a proposed district are changed or the land area or assessed value subject to a tax or the individuals or business organizations subject to a service charge are changed after the public hearing, a petition meeting the requirements of this section must be filed with the city clerk before the ordinance establishing the district or resolution imposing the tax or service charge may become effective.

A resolution levying a tax or imposing a service charge for more than one year shall not be adopted unless the notice of public hearing required by section 9 and the notice mailed with the adopted resolution pursuant to section 15 include the following information:

(a) In the case of improvements, the maximum rate or amount of taxes to be levied or the maximum service charge to be imposed in any year and the maximum number of years the taxes will be levied or service charges imposed to pay for the improvement.

Subdivision 1. [TAX ERROR.] Laws 1984, chapter 502, article 9, section 5, is amended to read:

There is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of revenue the amounts necessary to make certain refunds of property taxes to railroads for assessment years 1981 and 1982 as a result of a change in the assessed valuation of railroad property. For purposes of this section, the term "property taxes" includes any interest which is required to be paid to the railroads; and the terms "refund" and "abatement" include only reductions in property tax made from the original assessment certified by the commissioner of revenue, as the result of a court order.

The county auditor shall certify to the commissioner of revenue the dollar amount of the refunds paid to the railroads by the county and each city, town, school district, and special taxing district or portion thereof which is located within the county. The certification must be made on the forms and completed by the date prescribed by the commissioner. The commissioner of revenue shall review the certification and make changes in the certification that he determines are necessary. The amounts of the abatements for a taxing district which is located in more than one county shall be aggregated. The commissioner shall determine the amount to be paid to each county, city, town, and special taxing district which shall be equal to the amount of the abatement in excess of 20 cents per capita for each county, city, town, and special taxing district. The commissioner shall determine the amount to be paid to each school district which shall be equal to the amount of the abatement in excess of one dollar per pupil unit for the school district. The 20 cents per capita and the one dollar per pupil unit shall relate to the combined abatement amount for all railroads for both 1981 and 1982 for each county, city, town, school district, and special taxing district. The commissioner shall pay each taxing district as soon as practicable after certification, but not before January 1, 1985.

A county, city, town, school district, and special taxing district may include an additional amount in its property tax levy for taxes payable in 1985 equal to the difference between the amount of tax and interest refunded to a railroad company whose valuation was ordered reduced by the tax court and the amount reimbursed to the taxing district by the state pursuant to this section. Amounts levied for this purpose shall be considered outside of any levy limitations applicable to the taxing district. In the case of a school district, only the amount of abatement not reimbursed under this section may be considered in the computation of abatement aid under section 124.214, subdivision 2.
