“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 336.9-501, is amended to read:

(1) When a debtor is in default under a security agreement, a secured party has the rights and remedies provided in this part and except as limited by subsection (3) those provided in the security agreement. He may reduce his claim to judgment, foreclose, or otherwise enforce the security interest by any available judicial procedure. If the collateral is documents the secured party may proceed either as to the documents or as to the goods covered thereby. A secured party in possession has the rights, remedies, and duties provided in section 336.9-207. The rights and remedies referred to in this subsection are cumulative.

(2) After default, the debtor has the rights and remedies provided in this part, those provided in the security agreement, and those provided in section 336.9-207.

(3) To the extent that they give rights to the debtor and impose duties on the secured party, the rules stated in the subsections referred to below may not be waived or varied except as provided with respect to compulsory disposition of collateral (subsection (3) of section 336.9-504 and section 336.9-505) and with respect to redemption of collateral (section 336.9-506) but the parties may by agreement determine the standards by which the fulfillment of these rights and duties is to be measured if such standards are not manifestly unreasonable:

(b) Subsection (3) of section 336.9-504 and subsection (1) of section 336.9-505 which deal with disposition of collateral;

(c) Subsection (2) of section 336.9-505 which deals with acceptance of collateral as discharge of obligation;

(d) Section 336.9-506 which deals with redemption of collateral; and

(e) Subsection (1) of section 336.9-507 which deals with the secured party's liability for failure to comply with this part.

(4) If the security agreement covers both real and personal property, the secured party may proceed under this part as to the personal property or he may proceed as to both the real and the personal property in accordance with his rights and remedies in respect of the real property in which case the provisions of this part do not apply.

(5) When a secured party has reduced his claim to judgment the lien of any levy which may be made upon his collateral by virtue of any execution based upon the judgment shall relate back to the date of the perfection of the security interest in such collateral. A judicial sale, pursuant to such execution, is a foreclosure of the security interest by judicial procedure within the meaning of this section, and the secured party may purchase at the sale and thereafter hold the collateral free of any other requirements of this article.

Sec. 6. [583.20] [CITATION.]

Sections 6 to 25 may be cited as the "farmer-lender mediation act."

Sec. 7. [583.21] [LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS.]

The legislature finds that the agricultural sector of the state's economy is under severe financial stress due to low farm commodity prices, continuing high interest rates, and reduced net farm income. The suffering agricultural economy adversely affects economic conditions for all other businesses in rural communities as well. Thousands of this state's farmers are unable to meet current payments of interest and principal payable on mortgages and other loan and land contracts and are threatened with the loss of their farmland, equipment, crops, and livestock through mortgage and lien foreclosures, cancellation of contracts for deed, and other collection actions. The agricultural economic emergency requires an orderly process with state assistance to adjust agricultural indebtedness to prevent civil unrest and to preserve the general welfare and fiscal integrity of the state.

Sec. 13. [583.27] [VOLUNTARY MEDIATION PROCEEDINGS.]

A debtor that owns agricultural property or a creditor of the debtor may request mediation of the indebtedness by a farm mediation board by applying to the commission. The commission shall make voluntary mediation application forms available at the county recorder's office in each county. The commission must evaluate each request and may direct a mediator to meet with the debtor and creditor to assist in mediation. Debt restructuring is available for voluntary mediation as provided in section 14, subdivision 8.

Sec. 14. [583.28] [MANDATORY MEDIATION PROCEEDINGS.]

Subdivision 1. [MEDIATION NOTICE.] A creditor desiring to start a proceeding to enforce a debt against agricultural property under chapter 580 or 581 or sections 336.9-501 to 336.9-508, to terminate a contract for deed to purchase agricultural property under section 559.21, or to garnish, levy on, execute on, seize, or attach agricultural property, must serve an applicable mediation notice under sections 1, 2, 3, and 5 on the debtor and the commission. The creditor may not begin the proceeding subject to sections 6 to 25 until the creditor is issued a release order.

Subd. 2. [MEDIATION REQUEST.] (a) A debtor must file a certified mediation request form with the commission by 14 days after receiving a mediation notice. The mediation request form must state all known creditors. The commission shall make mediation request forms available in the county recorder's office of each county.

(b) A debtor who fails to file a mediation request waives the right to mediation and debt restructuring under the farmer-lender mediation act. The commission shall file a release order with the creditor stating that the creditor may proceed against the agricultural property because the debtor has failed to file a mediation request.

(c) If a debtor has not received a mediation notice and is subject to a proceeding of a creditor enforcing a debt against agricultural property under chapter 580 or 581 or sections 336.9-501 to 336.9-508, terminating a contract for deed to purchase agricultural property under section 559.21, or garnishing, levying on, executing on, seizing, or attaching agricultural property, the debtor may file a mediation request with the commission. The mediation request form must indicate that the debtor has not received a mediation notice.

Subd. 3. [CREDIT ANALYST AND FARM ADVOCATE.] (a) After receiving a mediation notice, the commission shall provide a credit analyst knowledgeable in agricultural and financial matters to meet with the debtor and assure that information relative to the finances of the debtor is prepared for the initial mediation meeting.

(b) After receiving the mediation notice, the commission shall notify the debtor that a farm advocate may be available without charge to assist the debtor and the credit analyst.

Subd. 4. [INITIAL MEDIATION MEETING.] By ten days after receiving a mediation request, the commission shall send a mediation meeting notice to the debtor and a mediation meeting notice and claim form to all known creditors of the debtor setting a time and place for an initial mediation meeting between the debtor, all known creditors of the debtor, and a mediator directed by the commission to assist in mediation. An initial mediation meeting must be held within 15 days of the notice.

Subd. 5. [EFFECT OF MEDIATION MEETING NOTICE.] If a creditor receives a mediation meeting notice to a creditor under subdivision 4 the creditor and the creditor's successors in interest may not continue proceedings to enforce a debt against agricultural property of the debtor under chapter 580 or 581 or sections 336.9-501 to 336.9-508, to terminate a contract for deed to purchase agricultural property under section 559.21, or to garnish, levy on, execute on, seize, or attach agricultural property. Time periods under and affecting those procedures stop running until the commission issues a release order to the creditor or a mediation agreement is reached.

Subd. 6. [DUTIES OF MEDIATOR.] At the initial mediation meeting and subsequent meetings, the mediator shall:

- (1) listen to the debtor and the creditors desiring to be heard;*
- (2) attempt to mediate between the debtor and the creditors;*
- (3) advise the debtor and creditors of assistance programs available;*
- (4) attempt to fairly adjust, refinance, or pay the debts; and*
- (5) advise, counsel, and assist the debtor and creditors in attempting to arrive at an agreement for the future conduct of financial relations among them.*

Subd. 7. [MEDIATOR LIABILITY AND IMMUNITY.] (a) A mediator is immune from civil liability for actions within the scope of the position as mediator. A mediator does not have a duty to advise a creditor or debtor about the law or to encourage or assist a debtor or creditor in reserving or establishing legal rights. This subdivision is an addition to and not a limitation of immunity otherwise accorded to a mediator under law.

(b) A mediator cannot be examined about a communication or document, including worknotes, made or used in the course of or because of mediation under this section and section 13. This paragraph does not apply to the parties in the dispute in an application to a court by a party to have a mediated settlement agreement set aside or reformed. A communication or document otherwise not privileged does not become privileged because it is used in the cause of mediation. This paragraph is not intended to limit the privilege accorded to communication during mediation by the common law.

Subd. 8. [DEBT RESTRUCTURING.] (a) The mediator must attempt to reach a mediation agreement between the debtor and creditors without state aid for debt restructuring. If a mediation agreement is not reached and creditors have agreed in the aggregate to reduce the total outstanding debt by at least 25 percent, the mediator may attempt to reach a mediation agreement using state farm debt restructuring funds.

(b) State farm debt restructuring funds may only be used if:

(1) a mediation agreement can be reached;

(2) a viable farming operation will result;

(3) additional reductions in the aggregate debt principal and interest are made by creditors on a two to one ratio of aggregate debt reduction by creditors to state farm debt restructuring funds;

(4) the creditors comply with paragraph (c); and

(5) the commission approves the use of the funds.

(c) The creditors must encourage the farmer to participate in the vocational adult farm business management program. The creditors must agree to offer to pay enrollment fees, less the amount of a locally available reduction in or subsidy to fees ordinarily paid by the enrollee, if the debtor desires to enroll and participate in a vocational adult farm business management program or equivalent.

Subd. 9. [MEDIATION PERIOD.] The mediator may call mediation meetings during the mediation period, which is up to 60 days after the initial mediation meeting.

Subd. 10. [MEDIATION AGREEMENT.] (a) If an agreement is reached among the debtor and creditors the mediator shall draft a written mediation agreement, have it signed by the creditors, and submit the agreement to the commission for approval. The commission shall review the mediation agreement and, if the debtors and creditors are not unjustly treated, shall approve the mediation agreement and issue release or postponement orders to implement the agreement.

(b) The debtor and creditors must be notified of the approval or disapproval within five days after the commission receives the mediation agreement. The notification of the approval or disapproval of a mediation agreement is a release order unless a postponement is issued with the approval or disapproval.

(c) The debtor and creditors who are parties to the approved mediation agreement and creditors who have filed claim forms and have not objected to the mediation agreement:

- (1) are bound by the terms of the agreement;
- (2) may enforce the mediation agreement as a legal contract; and
- (3) may use the mediation agreement as a defense against an action contrary to the mediation agreement.

Subd. 11. [UNSUCCESSFUL MEDIATION.] (a) If a mediation agreement is not reached the farm mediation board shall make a recommendation to the commission by ten days after the final mediation meeting as to whether a postponement order should be issued.

(b) The farm mediation board may recommend to the commission that a postponement order be issued if:

- (1) there is a reasonable likelihood that the farming operation will become viable; or*
- (2) the creditors have not made good faith efforts to reach a mediation agreement with the debtor and the debtor has made good faith efforts to reach a mediation agreement.*

(c) The farm mediation board may not recommend to the commission that a postponement order be issued if creditors will be irreparably harmed by the issuance of a postponement order.

Sec. 15. [583.30] [CREDITOR NOT ATTENDING MEDIATION MEETING.]

Subdivision 1. [FILING AND EFFECT OF CLAIM FORM.] A creditor that is notified of the initial mediation meeting is subject to and bound by a mediation agreement if the creditor does not attend mediation meetings unless the creditor files a claim form. In lieu of attending a mediation meeting, a creditor may file a notice of claim and proof of claim on a claim form with the farm mediation board before the scheduled meeting. By filing a claim form the creditor agrees to be bound by a mediation agreement reached at the mediation meeting unless an objection is filed within the time specified. The farm mediation board must notify the creditors who have filed claim forms of the terms of any agreement reached at the farm mediation board meeting.

Subd. 2. [OBJECTIONS TO AGREEMENTS.] A creditor who has filed a claim form may serve a written objection to the terms of the agreement on the farm mediation board and the debtor by ten days after receiving notice of the agreement. If a creditor files an objection to the terms of an agreement, the farm mediation board may meet again with debtors and creditors by ten days after receiving the objection to attempt to reach a new agreement. Notwithstanding the mediation period under section 14, subdivision 9, if an objection is filed, the mediation board may call mediation meetings during the ten-day period following receipt of the objection.

Sec. 16. [583.31] [ORDER AFTER UNSUCCESSFUL MEDIATION.]

The commission must issue a release order or a postponement order within ten days after receiving the farm mediation board's recommendation after unsuccessful mediation. The commission shall file the order with the debtor, all known creditors of the debtor, and the farm mediation board.

Sec. 17. [583.32] [POSTPONEMENT ORDER.]

Subdivision 1. [STANDARD TO ISSUE POSTPONEMENT ORDER.]

(a) The commission shall consider the farm mediation board recommendation and may issue a postponement order if:

(1) there is a reasonable likelihood that the farming operation will be viable; or

(2) the creditors have not made good faith efforts to reach a mediation agreement with the debtor and the debtor has made good faith efforts to reach a mediation agreement.

(b) The commission may not issue a postponement order if creditors will be irreparably harmed by issuance of a postponement order.

Subd. 2. [TERMINATION AND RELEASE.] A postponement order issued under the farmer-lender mediation act must contain a termination date. The expiration of the postponement order is a release order.

Subd. 3. [EFFECT.] A postponement order is binding on the debtor and creditors and may be used as a complete defense and bar to any actions contrary to the order.

Sec. 18. [583.33] [FARM FINANCIAL PLAN.]

Subdivision 1. [PLAN APPROVAL.] (a) By 30 days after receiving a postponement order, the farm mediation board shall develop a financial plan and submit it to the debtor, creditors, and the commission. The plan must be designed to maximize the long-term viability of the farm operation and may include temporary suspension or reduction of payments during the postponement period and voluntary adjustment of debt by creditors.

(b) The commission may amend the financial plan but must approve the financial plan within ten days after receiving it from the farm mediation board. The financial plan is effective when approved by the commission. The commission may issue a release order or a postponement order to implement the financial plan, except that a postponement order may not exceed one year. A copy of the approved plan with the release or postponement order, if any, must be filed with the debtor and affected creditors.

(c) Notwithstanding section 19, the commission may extend the terms of a postponement order against a creditor for an additional period of up to one year after the termination date if it determines that the creditor has not acted in good faith with the debtor, commission, or farm mediation board.

Subd. 2. [DISAPPROVAL AND NONCOMPLIANCE.] If a financial plan is not approved or if the debtor fails to comply with the terms of the plan, upon request of the debtor or creditor the commission may issue a release order at any time.

Sec. 19. [583.34] [EXTENSION OF DEADLINES.]

Upon petition by a farm mediation board, a debtor, or a creditor, the commission may, for good cause, extend a deadline imposed by sections 14 to 18 for up to 30 days, except that a postponement order may not exceed one year.

Sec. 20. [583.35] [EFFECT OF MEDIATION ON CREDITOR.]

A creditor that has participated in mediation with a debtor and has been issued a release order is not required to file notices before proceeding under sections 1 to 3 or 5, against the debtor's property and is not subject to the farmer-lender mediation act as it applies to the debtor involved in the mediation.

Sec. 21. [583.36] [PRIVATE DATA.]

All data regarding the finances of individual debtors and creditors created, collected, and maintained by the commission or farm mediation boards of the commission or board are classified as private data on individuals under section 13.02, subdivision 12, or nonpublic data under section 13.02, subdivision 9.

Sec. 22. [583.37] [CLOSED MEETINGS.]

Meetings of the commission and farm mediation boards are not open to the public and are not subject to provisions of the open meeting law, section 471.705, except commission meetings that do not discuss or refer to private or nonpublic data. The commission shall give notice of public meetings.

Sec. 23. [583.38] [RULES AND FORMS.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY.] The commission shall adopt rules for providing debt restructuring under section 14 and to set the compensation of mediators and credit analysts and may adopt rules to implement the farmer-lender mediation act. Notwithstanding chapter 14, the commission shall adopt rules as provided under section 97.53, subdivision 2. The rules adopted under this section are effective until July 1, 1988.

Sec. 24. [583.39] [APPEALS.]

The decision of the commission to issue a postponement order or a release order may be appealed to the district court of the county where the debtor resides. The attorney general shall represent the commission.

Sec. 25. [583.40] [INCONSISTENT LAWS.]

The farmer-lender mediation act has precedence over any inconsistent or conflicting laws and statutes including chapters 336, 580, and 581, and section 559.21.

Sec. 26. [TRAINING, COMPENSATION, AND EXPENSES OF MEDIATORS AND CREDIT ANALYSTS.]

(a) The bureau of mediation services shall provide training for mediators as directed by the commission.

(b) Mediators and credit analysts are entitled to compensation at the rate of up to $100 per day for each day employed in their official duties and other expenses as provided for by law.

“Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 429.061, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CALCULATION, NOTICE.] At any time after the expense incurred or to be incurred in making an improvement shall be calculated under the direction of the council, the council shall determine by resolution the amount of the total expense the municipality will pay, other than the amount, if any, which it will pay as a property owner, and the amount to be assessed. If a county proposes to assess within the boundaries of a city for a county state-aid highway or county highway, including curbs, gutters, and storm sewers, the resolution must include the portion of the cost proposed to be assessed within the city. The county shall forward the resolution to the city and it may not proceed with the assessment procedure under this section for property within the city unless the city council adopts a resolution approving the assessment. Thereupon the clerk, with the assistance of the engineer or other qualified person selected by the council, shall calculate the proper amount to be specially assessed for the improvement against every assessable lot, piece or parcel of land, without regard to cash valuation, in accordance with the provisions of section 429.051. The proposed assessment roll shall be filed with the clerk and be open to public inspection. The clerk shall thereupon, under the council's direction, publish notice that the council will meet to consider the proposed assessment. Such notice shall be published in the newspaper at least once and shall be mailed to the owner of each parcel described in the assessment roll. For the purpose of giving mailed notice under this subdivision, owners shall be those shown to be such on the records of the county auditor or, in any county where tax statements are mailed by the county treasurer, on the records of the county treasurer; but other appropriate records may be used for this purpose. Such publication and mailing shall be no less than two weeks prior to such meeting of the council. Except as to the owners of tax exempt property or property taxes on a gross earnings basis, every property owner whose name does not appear on the records of the county auditor or the county treasurer shall be deemed to have waived such mailed notice unless he has requested in writing that the county auditor or county treasurer, as the case may be, include his name on the records for such purpose. Such notice shall state the date, time, and place of such meeting, the general nature of the improvement, the area proposed to be assessed, the amount to be specially assessed against that particular lot, piece, or parcel of land, that the proposed assessment roll is on the file with the clerk, and that written or oral objections thereto by any property owner will be considered. No appeal may be taken as to the amount of any assessment adopted pursuant to subdivision 2, unless a written objection signed by the affected property owner is filed with the municipal clerk prior to the assessment hearing or presented to the presiding officer at the hearing. The notice shall also state that an owner may appeal an assessment to district court pursuant to section 429.081 by serving notice of the appeal upon the mayor or clerk of the municipality within 30 days after the adoption of the assessment and filing such notice with the district court within ten days after service upon the mayor or clerk. The notice shall also inform property owners of the provisions of sections 435.193 to 435.195 and the existence of any deferment procedure established pursuant thereto in the municipality."

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

276.09 [SETTLEMENT BETWEEN AUDITOR AND TREASURER.]

On the fifth day of March, and the 20th day of May, ~~and~~ October, and November of each year, the county treasurer shall make full settlement with the county auditor of all receipts collected by him for all purposes, from the date of the last settlement up to and including each day mentioned. For purposes of this section, “receipts” shall include all tax payments received by the county treasurer on or before the settlement date.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 276.10, is amended to read:

276.10 [APPORTIONMENT AND DISTRIBUTION OF FUNDS.]

On the settlement day in March, May, ~~and~~ October, and November of each year, the county auditor and county treasurer shall distribute all undistributed funds in the treasury, apportioning them, as provided by law, and placing them to the credit of the state, town, city, school district, special district and each county fund. Within 20 days after the distribution is completed, the county auditor shall make a report of it to the state auditor in the form prescribed by the state auditor. The county auditor shall issue his warrant for the payment of moneys in the county treasury to the credit of the state, town, city, school district, or special districts on application of the persons entitled to receive them. The county auditor may apply the mill rate from the year previous to the year of distribution when apportioning and distributing delinquent tax proceeds, provided that the composition of the previous year's mill rate between taxing districts is not significantly different than that which existed for the year of the delinquency.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 278.03, is amended to read:

278.03 [PAYMENT OF TAX.]

If the proceedings instituted by the filing of the petition have not been completed before the 16th day of May next following the filing, the petitioner shall pay to the county treasurer 50 percent of the tax levied for such year against the property involved, unless permission to continue prosecution of the petition without such payment is obtained as herein provided. If the proceedings instituted by the filing of the petition have not been completed by the next October 16, or, in the case of class 3, class 3b, or class 3cc agricultural property, November 16, the petitioner shall pay to the county treasurer 50 percent of the unpaid balance of the taxes levied for the year against the property involved if the unpaid balance is $2,000 or less and 80 percent of the unpaid balance if the unpaid balance is over $2,000, unless permission to continue prosecution of the petition without payment is obtained as herein provided. The petitioner, upon ten days notice to the county attorney and to the county auditor, given at least ten days prior to the 16th day of May or the 16th day of October, or, in the case of class 3, class 3b, or class 3cc agricultural property, the 16th day of November, may apply to the court for permission to continue prosecution of the petition without payment; and, if it is made to appear

(1) That the proposed review is to be taken in good faith;

(2) That there is probable cause to believe that the property may be held exempt from the tax levied or that the tax may be determined to be less than 50 percent of the amount levied; and

(3) That it would work a hardship upon petitioner to pay the taxes due, the court may permit the petitioner to continue prosecution of the petition without payment, or may fix a lesser amount to be paid as a condition of continuing the prosecution of the petition.

Failure to make payment of the amount required when due shall operate automatically to dismiss the petition and all proceedings thereunder unless the payment is waived by an order of the court permitting the petitioner to continue prosecution of the petition without payment. The county treasurer shall, upon request of the petitioner, issue duplicate receipts for the tax payment, one of which shall be filed by the petitioner in the proceeding.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 278.05, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. Any time after the filing of the petition and before the trial of the issues raised thereby, when the defense or claim presented is that the property has been partially, unfairly, or unequally assessed, or that the parcel has been assessed at a valuation greater than its real or actual value, or that a parcel which is classified as homestead under the provisions of section 273.13, subdivision 22 or 23, has been assessed at a valuation which exceeds by ten percent or more the valuation which the parcel would have if it were valued at the average assessment/sales ratio for real property in the same class in that portion of the county in which the parcel is located, for which the commissioner is able to establish and publish a sales ratio study, the attorney representing the state, county, city or town in the proceedings may serve on the petitioner, or his attorney, and file with the clerk of the district court, an offer to reduce the valuation of any tract or tracts to a valuation set forth in the offer. If, within ten days thereafter, the petitioner, or his attorney, gives notice in writing to the county attorney, or the attorney for the city or town, that the offer is accepted, he may file the offer with proof of notice, and the clerk shall enter judgment accordingly. Otherwise, the offer shall be deemed withdrawn and evidence thereof shall not be given; and, unless a lower valuation than specified in the offer is found by the court, no costs or disbursements shall be allowed to the petitioner, but the costs and disbursements of the state, county, city or town, including interest at six percent on the tax based on the amount of the offer from and after the 16th day of October, or, in the case of class 3, class 3b, or class 3cc agricultural property, the 16th day of November, of the year the taxes are payable, shall be taxed in its favor and included in the judgment and when collected shall be credited to the county revenue fund, unless the taxes were paid in full before the 16th day of October, or, in the case of class 3, class 3b, or class 3cc agricultural property, the 16th day of November, of the year in which the taxes were payable, in which event interest shall not be taxable.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 279.01, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. When the taxes against any tract or lot exceed $50, one-half thereof may be paid prior to May 16; and, if so paid, no penalty shall attach; the remaining one-half shall be paid at any time prior to October 16, or, in the case of class 3, class 3b, or class 3cc agricultural property, November 16, following, without penalty; but, if not so paid, then a penalty of four percent shall accrue thereon for homestead property and a penalty of four percent on nonhomestead property. If one-half of such taxes shall not be paid prior to May 16, the same may be paid at any time prior to October 16, or, in the case of class 3, class 3b, or class 3cc agricultural property, November 16, with accrued penalties to the date of payment added, and thereupon no penalty shall attach to the remaining one-half until October 16, or, in the case of class 3, class 3b, or class 3cc agricultural property, November 16, following; provided, also, that the same may be paid in installments as follows: One-fourth prior to March 16; one-fourth prior to May 16; one-fourth prior to August 16; and the remaining one-fourth prior to October 16, or, in the case of class 3, class 3b, or class 3cc agricultural property, November 16, subject to the aforesaid penalties. Where the taxes delinquent after October 16, or, in the case of class 3, class 3b, or class 3cc agricultural property, November 16, against any tract or parcel exceed $100, upon resolution of the county board, they may be paid in installments of not less than 25 percent thereof, together with all accrued penalties and costs, up to the next tax judgment sale, and after such payment, penalties, interest, and costs shall accrue only on the sum remaining unpaid. If the owner of class 3, class 3b, or class 3cc agricultural property receives a consolidated property tax statement that shows only an aggregate of the taxes and special assessments due on that property and on other property not classified as class 3, class 3b, or class 3cc agricultural property, the aggregate tax and special assessments shown due on the property by the consolidated statement will be due by November 15. Any county treasurer who shall make out and deliver or countersign any receipt for any such taxes without including all of the foregoing penalties therein, shall be liable to the county for the amount of such penalties.

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [557.10] [OWNERSHIP OF CROPS.]

Planted and growing crops are personal property of the person or entity that has the property right to plant the crops.

Sec. 2. [557.11] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICABILITY.] The definitions in this section apply to this section and section 3.

Subd. 2. [PLANTING CROP OWNER.] “Planting crop owner” means the person or entity that has a property right to plant crops, including a leasehold interest, the interest of a contract for deed vendee, and the redemption interest of a foreclosed mortgagor.

Subdivision 1. [TERMINATION OF PROPERTY INTEREST AFTER CROPS ARE PLANTED.] If the planting crop owner’s property right to harvest crops is involuntarily terminated before the crops are harvested, the person or entity with the property right to harvest the crops is liable to the planting crop owner for the crop value.

Subd. 2. [PLANTING CROP OWNER’S LIEN.] A planting crop owner has a lien for the crop value that attaches to the crop, crop products, and if the lien is not satisfied under subdivision 3 a lien for the crop value that attaches to the real property where the crop was planted.

A perfected lien may be enforced in the same manner as a security interest under sections 336.9-501 to 336.9-508.*

(b) A lien against the real property under subdivision 2 must be recorded and foreclosed in the same manner as a mechanics lien under sections 514.08 to 514.15 if the planting crop owner was a contractor. For purposes of this paragraph, the lien statement must be filed and served under section 514.08, subdivision 1, by 120 days after the crop was harvested, or if the crop was not harvested, by 12 months after the crop was planted.

Subd. 4. (a) 85 percent of dividends received by a corporation during the taxable year from another corporation, when the corporate stock with respect to which dividends are paid does not constitute the stock in trade of the taxpayer or would not be included in the inventory of the taxpayer, or does not constitute property held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of his trade or business, or when the trade or business of the taxpayer does not consist principally of the holding of the stocks and the collection of the income and gains therefrom. The remaining 15 percent shall be allowed if the recipient owns 80 percent or more of all the voting stock of the other corporation.

(b) If the trade or business of the taxpayer consists principally of the holding of the stocks and the collection of the income and gains therefrom, dividends received by a corporation during the taxable year from another corporation, if the recipient owns 80 percent or more of all the voting stock of the other corporation.

(c) The dividend deduction provided in this subdivision shall be allowed only with respect to dividends that are included in a corporation's Minnesota taxable net income for the taxable year.

The dividend deduction provided in this subdivision does not apply to a dividend from a corporation which, for the taxable year of the corporation in which the distribution is made or for the next preceding taxable year of the corporation, is a corporation exempt from tax under section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1984.

The dividend deduction provided in this subdivision applies to the amount of regulated investment company dividends only to the extent determined under section 854(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1984.

The dividend deduction provided in this subdivision shall not be allowed with respect to any dividend for which a deduction is not allowed under the provisions of section 246(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1984.

(d) If dividends received by a corporation that does not have nexus with Minnesota under the provisions of Public Law Number 86-272 are included as income on the return of an affiliated corporation permitted or required to file a combined report under section 290.34, subdivision 2, then for purposes of this subdivision the determination as to whether the trade or business of the corporation consists principally of the holding of stocks and the collection of income and gains therefrom shall be made with reference to the trade or business of the affiliated corporation having a nexus with Minnesota.

(e) Dividends received by a corporation from another corporation which is organized under the laws of a foreign country or a political subdivision of a foreign country, if the dividends are paid from income arising from sources without the United States, the commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the possessions of the United States. The deduction provided by this clause does not apply if the corporate stock with respect to which dividends are paid constitutes the stock in trade of the taxpayer, or would be included in the inventory of the taxpayer, or constitutes property held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of the taxpayer's trade or business, or if the trade or business of the taxpayer consists principally of the holding of stocks and the collection of the income or gains therefrom, or if the dividends are paid by a FSC as defined in section 922(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1985. No dividend may be deducted under this clause if it is deducted under clause (a).

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 290.21, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [FOREIGN SOURCE ROYALTIES.] (a) Rentals, fees, and royalties accrued or received from a foreign corporation for the use of or for the privilege of using outside of the United States patents, copyrights, secret processes and formulas, good will, know-how, trademarks, trade brands, franchises, and other like property. Rentals, fees, or royalties deducted under this subdivision shall not be included in the taxpayer's apportionment factors under section 290.19, subdivision 1, clause (1)(a) or (2)(a)(1). The preceding sentence shall not be construed to imply that nondeductible rentals, fees, and royalties from such properties are or were included in or excluded from the apportionment factors under any other provision of law.

(b) A corporation is allowed the deduction provided by this subdivision only if during the taxable year it received or accrued at least 80 percent of its gross income from sources as defined in clause (a) and from dividends received from foreign corporations. A corporation's gross income for purposes of paragraphs (b) and (c) shall be computed without regard to the requirement of section 290.34, subdivision 2, that a combined report be filed reflecting the entire income of the unitary business.

(c) For purposes of this subdivision, a foreign corporation is (i) a corporation organized under the laws of a foreign country or the political subdivision of a foreign country or (ii) a corporation which for the taxable year derives at least 80 percent of its gross income from sources without the United States, the commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the possessions of the United States. A foreign corporation does not include a DISC as defined in section 992(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1983, or a FSC as defined in section 922(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1985.

For purposes of computing either the arithmetic average or weighted apportionment formulas under section 290.19, subdivision 1 for each corporation involved, the numerator of the fraction shall be that corporation's sales, property, and payroll in Minnesota and the denominator shall be the total sales, payroll, and property of all the corporations shown on the combined report. The combined report shall reflect the income of the entire unitary business as provided in section 290.17, subdivision 2, clause (4). Mr. Merriam from the Committee on Agriculture and Natural Resources, to which was referred

S.F. No. 1616: A bill for an act relating to agriculture; increasing the amount of an agricultural or business loan subject to usury limits; modifying exemptions; requiring notices; providing remedies for failing to notify; exempting family farm corporations from usurious defense prohibitions; extending program to provide a mechanism to aid restructuring of existing farm loans and to provide for partial payment of interest on loans to farmers; amending Minnesota Statutes 1984, sections 334.01, subdivision 2; and 334.011; Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 334.021; Laws 1985, chapter 4, sections 2; 6, subdivisions 2, 3, and 4, as amended; 8; 10; and 11.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

48.195 [INTEREST RATES; USURY LIMIT FOR DEPOSITORY INSTITUTIONS.]

Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, a bank, savings bank, savings association, savings and loan association, or credit union organized under the laws of this state, or a national bank or federally chartered savings bank, savings and loan association, or credit union, doing business in this state, may charge on any loan or discount made or upon any note, bill or other evidence of debt, except an extension of credit made pursuant to section 48.185 or subject to section 334.011, interest at a rate of not more than four and one-half percent in excess of the discount rate, including any surcharge thereon, on 90 day commercial paper in effect at the federal reserve bank located in the Ninth Federal Reserve District.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 53.04, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. (a) The right to make loans, secured or unsecured, at the rates and on the terms and other conditions permitted licensees under chapter 56. Loans made under the authority of section 56.125 must be in amounts in compliance with section 53.05, clause (7). All other loans made under the authority of chapter 56 must be in amounts in compliance with section 53.05, clause (7), or 56.131, subdivision 1, paragraph (a), whichever is less. Except for loans subject to the usury rates and procedures under section 334.011, the right to extend credit or lend money and to collect and receive charges therefor as provided by chapter 334, or in lieu thereof, to charge, collect, and receive interest at the rate of 21.75 percent per annum, including the right to contract for, charge, and collect all other charges including discount points, fees, late payment charges, and insurance premiums on the loans to the same extent permitted on loans made under the authority of chapter 56, regardless of the amount of the loan. The provisions of sections 47.20 and 47.21 do not apply to loans made under this subdivision, except as specifically provided in this subdivision. Nothing in this subdivision is deemed to supersede, repeal, or amend any provision of section 53.05. A licensee making a loan under this chapter secured by a lien on real estate shall comply with the requirements of section 47.20, subdivision 8.

(b) Loans made under this subdivision at a rate of interest not in excess of that provided for in paragraph (a) may be secured by real or personal property, or both. If the proceeds of a loan made after August 1, 1987 are used in whole or in part to satisfy the balance owed on a contract for deed, the rate of interest charged on the loan must not exceed the rate provided in section 47.20, subdivision 4a. If the proceeds of a loan secured by a first lien on the borrower's primary residence are used to finance the purchase of the borrower's primary residence, the loan must comply with the provisions of section 47.20.

(c) A loan made under this subdivision that is secured by real estate and that is in a principal amount of $7,500 or more and a maturity of 60 months or more may contain a provision permitting discount points, if the loan does not provide a loan yield in excess of the maximum rate of interest permitted by this subdivision. Loan yield means the annual rate of return obtained by a licensee computed as the annual percentage rate is computed under Federal Regulation Z. If the loan is prepaid in full, the licensee must make a refund to the borrower to the extent that the loan yield will exceed the maximum rate of interest provided by this subdivision when the prepayment is taken into account.

(d) An agency or instrumentality of the United States government or a corporation otherwise created by an act of the United States Congress or a lender approved or certified by the secretary of housing and urban development, or approved or certified by the administrator of veterans affairs, or approved or certified by the administrator of the farmers home administration, or approved or certified by the federal home loan mortgage corporation, or approved or certified by the federal national mortgage association, that engages in the business of purchasing or taking assignments of mortgage loans and undertakes direct collection of payments from or enforcement of rights against borrowers arising from mortgage loans, is not required to obtain a certificate of authorization under this chapter in order to purchase or take assignments of mortgage loans from persons holding a certificate of authorization under this chapter.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 56.131, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [INTEREST RATES AND CHARGES.] (a) Except for a loan subject to the usury rates under section 334.011, on any loan in a principal amount not exceeding $35,000 or ten percent of a corporate licensee's contributed capital and appropriated reserves as defined in section 53.015, if greater, a licensee may contract for and receive interest, calculated according to the actuarial method, not exceeding the equivalent of the greater of any of the following:

(1) the total of: (i) 33 percent per year on that part of the unpaid balance of the principal amount not exceeding $350; and (ii) 19 percent per year on that part of the unpaid balance of the principal amount exceeding $350; or

(2) 21.75 percent per year on the unpaid balance of the principal amount.

(b) On any loan where interest has been calculated according to the method provided for in paragraph (a), clause (1), interest must be contracted for and earned as provided in that provision or at the single annual percentage rate computed to the nearest one hundredth of one percent that would earn the same total interest at maturity of the contract as would be earned by the application of the graduated rates provided in paragraph (a), clause (1), when the debt is paid according to the agreed terms and the calculations are made according to the actuarial method.

(c) Loans may be interest-bearing or precomputed.

(d) To compute time on interest-bearing and precomputed loans, including, but not limited to the calculation of interest, a day is considered  $1/30$  of a month when calculation is made for a fraction of a calendar month. A year is 12 calendar months. A calendar month is that period from a given date in one month to the same numbered date in the following month, and if there is no same numbered date, to the last day of the following month. When a period of time includes a whole month and a fraction of a month, the fraction of a month is considered to follow the whole month.

In the alternative, for interest-bearing loans, a licensee may charge interest at the rate of  $1/365$  of the agreed annual rate for each actual day elapsed.

(e) With respect to interest-bearing loans:

(1) Interest must be computed on unpaid principal balances outstanding from time to time, for the time outstanding. Each payment must be applied first to the accumulated interest and the remainder of the payment applied to the unpaid principal balance; provided however, that if the amount of the payment is insufficient to pay the accumulated interest, the unpaid interest continues to accumulate to be paid from the proceeds of subsequent payments and is not added to the principal balance.

(2) Interest must not be payable in advance or compounded. However, if part or all of the consideration for a new loan contract is the unpaid principal balance of a prior loan, then the principal amount payable under the new loan contract may include any unpaid interest which has accrued. The unpaid principal balance of a precomputed loan is the balance due after refund or credit of unearned interest as provided in paragraph (f), clause (3). The resulting loan contract is deemed a new and separate loan transaction for all purposes.

(f) With respect to precomputed loans:

(1) Loans must be repayable in substantially equal and consecutive monthly installments of principal and interest combined, except that the first installment period may be more or less than one month by not more than 15 days, and the first installment payment amount may be larger than the remaining payments by the amount of interest charged for the extra days and must be reduced by the amount of interest for the number of days less than one month to the first installment payment; and monthly installment payment dates may be omitted to accommodate borrowers with seasonal income.

(2) Payments may be applied to the combined total of principal and pre-computed interest until the loan is fully paid. Payments must be applied in the order in which they become due.

(3) When any loan contract is paid in full by cash, renewal or refinancing, or a new loan, one month or more before the final installment due date, a licensee shall refund or credit the borrower with the total of the applicable charges for all fully unexpired installment periods, as originally scheduled or as deferred, which follow the day of prepayment; if the prepayment is made other than on a scheduled payment date, the nearest scheduled installment payment date must be used in the computation; provided further, if the prepayment occurs prior to the first installment due date, the licensee may retain 1/30 of the applicable charge for a first installment period of one month for each day from the date of the loan to the date of prepayment, and shall refund or credit the borrower with the balance of the total interest contracted for. If the maturity of the loan is accelerated for any reason and judgment is entered, the licensee shall credit the borrower with the same refund as if prepayment in full had been made on the date the judgment is entered.

(4) If an installment, other than the final installment, is not paid in full within ten days of its scheduled due date, a licensee may contract for and receive a default charge not exceeding five percent of the amount of the installment, but not less than $4.

A default charge under this subdivision may not be collected on an installment paid in full within ten days of its scheduled due date, or deferred installment due date with respect to deferred installments, even though a default or deferral charge on an earlier installment has not been paid in full. A default charge may be collected at the time it accrues or at any time thereafter.

(5) If the parties agree in writing, either in the loan contract or in a subsequent agreement, to a deferment of wholly unpaid installments, a licensee may grant a deferment and may collect a deferment charge as provided in this section. A deferment postpones the scheduled due date of the earliest unpaid installment and all subsequent installments as originally scheduled, or as previously deferred, for a period equal to the deferment period. The deferment period is that period during which no installment is scheduled to be paid by reason of the deferment. The deferment charge for a one-month period may not exceed the applicable charge for the installment period immediately following the due date of the last undeferred payment. A proportionate charge may be made for deferment for periods of more or less than one month. A deferment charge is earned pro rata during the deferment period and is fully earned on the last day of the deferment period. Should a loan be prepaid in full during a deferment period, the licensee shall make or credit to the borrower a refund of the unearned deferment charge in addition to any other refund or credit made for prepayment of the loan in full.

(6) If two or more installments are delinquent one full month or more on any due date, and if the contract so provides, the licensee may reduce the unpaid balance by the refund credit which would be required for prepayment in full on the due date of the most recent maturing installment in default. Thereafter, and in lieu of any other default or deferment charges, the single annual percentage rate permitted by this subdivision may be charged on the unpaid balance until fully paid.

(7) Following the final installment as originally scheduled or deferred, the licensee, for any loan contract which has not previously been converted to interest-bearing under paragraph (f), clause (6), may charge interest on any balance remaining unpaid, including unpaid default or deferment charges, at the single annual percentage rate permitted by this subdivision until fully paid."

"Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 273.42, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Owners of land defined as class 1a, 1b, 1c, 2a, 2c, 4a, 5a, or 6a, pursuant to section 273.13 listed on records of the county auditor or county treasurer over which runs a high voltage transmission line as defined in section 116C.52, subdivision 3, except a high voltage transmission line the construction of which was commenced prior to July 1, 1974, shall receive a property tax credit in an amount determined by multiplying a fraction, the numerator of which is the length of high voltage transmission line which runs over that parcel and the denominator of which is the total length of that particular line running over all property within the city or township by ten percent of the transmission line tax revenue derived from the tax on that portion of the line within the city or township pursuant to section 273.36. In the case of property owners in unorganized townships, the property tax credit shall be determined by multiplying a fraction, the numerator of which is the length of the qualifying high voltage transmission line which runs over the parcel and the denominator of which is the total length of the qualifying high voltage transmission line running over all property within all the unorganized townships within the county, by the total utility property tax credit fund amount available within the county for that year pursuant to subdivision 1. Where a right-of-way width is shared by more than one property owner, the numerator shall be adjusted by multiplying the length of line on the parcel by the proportion of the total width on the parcel owned by that property owner. The amount of credit for which the property qualifies shall not exceed 20 percent of the total gross tax on the parcel prior to deduction of the state paid agricultural credit and the state paid homestead credit, provided that, if the property containing the right-of-way is included in a parcel which exceeds 40 acres, the total gross tax on the parcel shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the sum of the number of acres in each quarter-quarter section or portion thereof which contains a right-of-way and the denominator of which is the total number of acres in the parcel set forth on the tax statement, and the maximum credit shall be 20 percent of the product of that computation, prior to deduction of those credits. The auditor of the county in which the affected parcel is located shall calculate the amount of the credit due for each parcel and transmit that information to the county treasurer. The county auditor, in computing the credits received pursuant to sections 273.13 and 273.135, shall reduce the gross tax by the amount of the credit received pursuant to this section, unless the amount of the credit would be less than $10.

If, after the county auditor has computed the credit to those qualifying property owners in unorganized townships, there is money remaining in the utility property tax credit fund, then that excess amount in the fund shall be returned to the general school fund of the county.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 274.19, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The provisions of subdivisions 1 to 7 apply to manufactured homes that are assessed under subdivision 8, clause (c). Each manufactured home shall be valued each year by the assessor and be assessed with reference to its value on January 2 of that year. Notice of the value shall be mailed to the person to be assessed at least ten days before the meeting of the local board of review or equalization. The notice shall contain the amount of valuation in terms of market value, the assessor's office address, and the date, place, and time set for the meeting of the local board of review or equalization and the county board of equalization.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 274.19, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [MANUFACTURED HOMES; SECTIONAL STRUCTURES.]
(a) For purposes of this section, a "manufactured home" means a structure transportable in one or more sections, which is built on a permanent chassis, and designed to be used as a dwelling with or without a permanent foundation when connected to the required utilities, and contains the plumbing, heating, air-conditioning, and electrical systems therein, including any accessory structure which is an addition or supplement to the manufactured home and, when installed, becomes a part of the manufactured home.

(b) A manufactured home which meets each of the following criteria must be valued and assessed as an improvement to real property, the appropriate real property classification shall apply and the valuation is subject to review and the taxes payable in the manner provided for real property:

(i) the owner of the unit holds title to the land upon which it is situated;

(ii) the unit is affixed to the land by a permanent foundation or is installed at its location in accordance with the manufactured home building code contained in sections 327.31 to 327.34, and the rules adopted thereto, or is affixed to the land in a manner comparable to other real property in the taxing district; and

(iii) the unit is connected to public utilities, has a well and septic tank system, or is serviced by water and sewer facilities comparable to other real property in the taxing district.

(c) A manufactured home which meets each of the following criteria must be assessed at the rate provided by the appropriate real property classification but must be ~~classified~~ treated as a manufactured home personal property, and the valuation is subject to review and the taxes payable thereon in the manner provided in this section:

(i) the owner of the unit is a lessee of the land pursuant to the terms of a lease;

(ii) the unit is affixed to the land by a permanent foundation or is installed at its location in accordance with the manufactured homes building code contained in sections 327.31 to 327.34, and the rules adopted thereto, or is affixed to the land in a manner comparable to other real property in the taxing district; and

(iii) the unit is connected to public utilities, has a well and septic tank system, or is serviced by water and sewer facilities comparable to other real property in the taxing district.

(d) Sectional structures must be valued and assessed as an improvement to real property if the owner of the structure holds title to the land upon which it is located or is a qualifying lessee of the land under the provisions of this section 273.19. For purposes of this paragraph "sectional structure" means a building or structural unit which has been in whole or substantial part manufactured or constructed at an off site location to be wholly or partially assembled on site alone or with other units and attached to a permanent foundation.

(e) The commissioner of revenue may adopt rules pursuant to the administrative procedure act for the purpose of establishing additional criteria for the classification of manufactured homes and sectional structures under this subdivision.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 275.125, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [LEVY REDUCTIONS; TACONITE.] (1) Reductions in levies pursuant to subdivision 10 of this section, and section 273.138, shall be made prior to the reductions in clause (2).

(2) Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, districts which received payments pursuant to sections 294.21 to 294.26; 298.23 to 298.28; 298.34 to 298.39; 298.391 to 298.396; 298.405; 298.51 to 298.67; 477A.15; and any law imposing a tax upon severed mineral values, or under any other law distributing proceeds in lieu of ad valorem tax assessments on copper or nickel properties, or recognized revenue pursuant to section 477A.15; shall not include a portion of these aids in their permissible levies pursuant to those sections, but instead shall reduce the permissible levies authorized by this section and sections 124A.03, 124A.06, subdivision 3a, 124A.08, subdivision 3a, 124A.10; subdivision 3a, 124A.12, subdivision 3a, and 124A.14, subdivision 5a by the greater of the following:

(a) an amount equal to 50 percent of the total dollar amount of the payments received pursuant to those sections or revenue recognized pursuant to section 477A.15 in the previous fiscal year; or

(b) an amount equal to the total dollar amount of the payments received pursuant to those sections or revenue recognized pursuant to section 477A.15 in the previous fiscal year less the product of the same dollar amount of payments or revenue times the ratio of the maximum levy allowed the district under section 124A.03, subdivision 1, to the total levy allowed the district under this section and sections 124A.03, 124A.06, subdivision 3a, 124A.08, subdivision 3a, 124A.10, subdivision 3a, 124A.12, subdivision 3a, and 124A.14, subdivision 5a in the year in which the levy is certified.

(3) No reduction pursuant to this subdivision shall reduce the levy made by the district pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 1, to an amount less than the amount raised by a levy of 12.5 mills times the adjusted assessed valuation of that district for the preceding year as determined by the equalization aid review committee. The amount of any increased levy authorized by referendum pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 2 shall not be reduced pursuant to this subdivision. The amount of any levy authorized by subdivision 4, to make payments for bonds issued and for interest thereon, shall not be reduced pursuant to this subdivision.

(4) Before computing the reduction pursuant to this subdivision of the capital expenditure levy authorized by subdivision 11a, and the community service levy authorized by subdivision 8, the commissioner shall ascertain from each affected school district the amount it proposes to levy for capital expenditures pursuant to subdivision 11a and for community services pursuant to subdivision 8. The reduction of the capital expenditure levy and the community services levy shall be computed on the basis of the amount so ascertained.

(5) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, any amounts received by districts in any fiscal year pursuant to sections 294.21 to 294.26; 298.23 to 298.28; 298.34 to 298.39; 298.391 to 298.396; 298.405; 298.51 to 298.67; or any law imposing a tax on severed mineral values, or under any other law distributing proceeds in lieu of ad valorem tax assessments on copper or nickel properties; and not deducted from foundation aid pursuant to section 124A.035, subdivision 5, clause (2), and not applied to reduce levies pursuant to this subdivision shall be paid by the district to the ~~commissioner of finance~~ St. Louis county auditor in the following amount by March 15 of each year, the amount required to be subtracted from the previous fiscal year's foundation aid pursuant to section 124A.035, subdivision 5, which is in excess of the foundation aid earned for that fiscal year. The ~~commissioner of finance~~ county auditor shall deposit any amounts received pursuant to this clause in the ~~taconite property tax relief fund in the state treasury, established pursuant to section 16A.70~~ St. Louis county treasury for purposes of paying the taconite homestead credit as provided in section 273.135.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 279.01, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. On May 16, of each year, with respect to property actually occupied and used as a homestead by the owner of the property, a penalty of three percent shall accrue and thereafter be charged upon all unpaid taxes on real estate on the current lists in the hands of the county treasurer, and a penalty of seven percent on nonhomestead property, except that this penalty shall not accrue until June 1 of each year on commercial use real property used for seasonal residential recreational purposes and classified as class 1c, 2e, or 6a, and on other commercial use real property classified as class 3a, provided that over 60 percent of the gross income earned by the enterprise on the class 3a property is earned during the months of May, June, July, and August. Any property owner of such class 3a property who pays the first half of the tax due on the property after May 15 and before June 1 shall attach an affidavit to his payment attesting to compliance with the income provision of this subdivision. Thereafter, for both homestead and nonhomestead property, on the 16th day of each month, up to and including October 16 following, an additional penalty of one percent for each month shall accrue and be charged on all such unpaid taxes. When the taxes against any tract or lot exceed $50, one-half thereof may be paid prior to May 16; and, if so paid, no penalty shall attach; the remaining one-half shall be paid at any time prior to October 16 following, without penalty; but, if not so paid, then a penalty of four percent shall accrue thereon for homestead property and a penalty of four percent on nonhomestead property. Thereafter, for homestead property, on the 16th day of each month up to and including December 16 following, an additional penalty of two percent for each month shall accrue and be charged on all such unpaid taxes. Thereafter, for nonhomestead property, on the 16th day of each month up to and including December 16 following, an additional penalty of four percent for each month shall accrue and be charged on all such unpaid taxes. If one-half of such taxes shall not be paid prior to May 16, the same may be paid at any time prior to October 16, with accrued penalties to the date of payment added, and thereupon no penalty shall attach to the remaining one-half until October 16 following; provided, also, that the same may be paid in installments as follows: One-fourth prior to March 16; one-fourth prior to May 16; one-fourth prior to August 16; and the remaining one-fourth prior to October 16, subject to the aforesaid penalties. Where the taxes delinquent after October 16 against any tract or parcel exceed $100, upon resolution of the county board, they may be paid in installments of not less than 25 percent thereof, together with all accrued penalties and costs, up to the next tax judgment sale, and after such payment, penalties, interest, and costs shall accrue only on the sum remaining unpaid. Any county treasurer who shall make out and deliver or countersign any receipt for any such taxes without including all of the foregoing penalties therein, shall be liable to the county for the amount of such penalties.

"Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 290A.03, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [HOMESTEAD.] "Homestead" means the dwelling occupied by a claimant as his principal residence and so much of the land surrounding it, not exceeding ten acres, as is reasonably necessary for use of the dwelling as a home and any other property used for purposes of a homestead as defined in section 273.13, subdivision 22, except for agricultural land assessed as part of a homestead pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 23, "homestead" is limited to 320 acres or, where the farm homestead is rented, one acre. The homestead may be owned or rented and may be a part of a multidwelling or multipurpose building and the land on which it is built. A manufactured home, as defined in section ~~168.01~~ 274.19, subdivision 8, assessed as personal property may be a dwelling for purposes of this subdivision.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 290A.03, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [PROPERTY TAXES PAYABLE.] "Property taxes payable" means the property tax exclusive of special assessments, penalties, and interest payable on a claimant's homestead before reductions made pursuant to section 273.13, subdivisions 22 and 23, but after deductions made pursuant to sections 124.2137, 273.115, 273.116, 273.135, 273.1391, 273.42, subdivision 2, and any other state paid property tax credits in any calendar year. In the case of a claimant who makes ground lease payments, "property taxes payable" includes the amount of the payments directly attributable to the property taxes assessed against the parcel on which the house is located.

No apportionment or reduction of the "property taxes payable" shall be required for the use of a portion of the claimant's homestead for a business purpose if the claimant does not deduct any business depreciation expenses for the use of a portion of the homestead in the determination of federal adjusted gross income. For homesteads which are manufactured homes as defined in section ~~168.011~~ 274.19, subdivision 8, "property taxes payable" shall also include the amount of the gross rent paid in the preceding year for the site on which the homestead is located, which is attributable to the net tax paid on the site. The amount attributable to property taxes shall be determined by multiplying the net tax on the parcel by a fraction, the numerator of which is the gross rent paid for the calendar year for the site and the denominator of which is the gross rent paid for the calendar year for the parcel. When a homestead is owned by two or more persons as joint tenants or tenants in common, such tenants shall determine between them which tenant may claim the property taxes payable on the homestead. If they are unable to agree, the matter shall be referred to the commissioner of revenue and his decision shall be final. Property taxes are considered payable in the year prescribed by law for payment of the taxes.

In the case of a claim relating to "property taxes payable," the claimant must have owned and occupied the homestead on January 2 of the year in which the tax is payable and (i) the property must have been classified as homestead property pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 22 or 23 on or before June 1 of the year in which the "property taxes payable" were levied; or (ii) the claimant must provide documentation from the local assessor that application for homestead classification has been made prior to October 1 of the year in which the "property taxes payable" were payable and that the assessor has approved the application.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 296.16, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [INTENT.] All gasoline received in this state and all gasoline produced in or brought into this state except aviation gasoline and marine gasoline shall be determined to be intended for use in motor vehicles in this state. Approximately three-fourths of one percent of all gasoline received in this state and three-fourths of one percent of all gasoline produced or brought into this state, except gasoline used for aviation purposes, is being used as fuel for the operation of motor boats on the waters of this state and of the total revenue derived from the imposition of the gasoline fuel tax for uses other than ~~in motor boats~~ for aviation purposes, three-fourths of one percent of such revenues is the amount of tax on fuel used in motor boats operated on the waters of this state. Approximately three-fourths of one percent of all gasoline received in and produced or brought into this state, except gasoline used for aviation purposes, is being used as fuel for the operation of snowmobiles in this state, and of the total revenue derived from the imposition of the gasoline fuel tax for uses other than ~~in snowmobiles~~ for aviation purposes, three-fourths of one percent of such revenues is the amount of tax on fuel used in snowmobiles operated in this state."

"Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 298.24, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. (a) There is hereby imposed upon taconite and iron sulphides, and upon the mining and quarrying thereof, and upon the production of iron ore concentrate therefrom, and upon the concentrate so produced, a tax of $1.25 cents per gross ton of merchantable iron ore concentrate produced therefrom. The tax on concentrates produced in 1978 and subsequent years prior to 1985 shall be equal to $1.25 multiplied by the steel mill products index during the production year, divided by the steel mill products index in 1977. The index stated in code number 1013, or any subsequent equivalent, as published by the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics Wholesale Prices and Price Indexes for the month of January of the year in which the concentrate is produced shall be the index used in calculating the tax imposed herein. In no event shall the tax be less than $1.25 per gross ton of merchantable iron ore concentrate. The tax on concentrates produced in 1985 and 1986 shall be at the rate determined for 1984 production. For concentrates produced in 1987 and subsequent years, the tax shall be equal to the preceding year's tax plus an amount equal to the preceding year's tax multiplied by the percentage increase in the implicit price deflator from the fourth quarter of the second preceding year to the fourth quarter of the preceding year. "Implicit price deflator" means the implicit price deflator for the gross national product prepared by the bureau of economic analysis of the United States department of commerce.

(b) On concentrates produced in 1984, an additional tax is imposed equal to eight-tenths of one percent of the total tax imposed by clause (a) per gross ton for each one percent that the iron content of such product exceeds 62 percent, when dried at 212 degrees Fahrenheit.

(c) The tax imposed by this subdivision on concentrates produced in 1984 shall be computed on the production for the current year. The tax on concentrates produced in 1985 shall be computed on the average of the production for the current year and the previous year. The tax on concentrates produced in 1986 and thereafter shall be the average of the production for the current year and the previous two years. The rate of the tax imposed will be the current year's tax rate. This clause shall not apply in the case of the closing of a taconite facility if the property taxes on the facility would be higher if this clause and section 298.25 were not applicable.

(d) If the tax or any part of the tax imposed by this subdivision is held to be unconstitutional, a tax of $1.25 per gross ton of merchantable iron ore concentrate produced shall be imposed.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 298.28, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DISTRIBUTION.] The proceeds of the taxes collected under section 298.24, except the tax collected under section 298.24, subdivision 2, shall, upon certification of the commissioner of revenue, be allocated as follows:

(1) 2.5 cents per gross ton of merchantable iron ore concentrate, hereinafter referred to as "taxable ton," to the city or town in the county in which the lands from which taconite was mined or quarried were located or within which the concentrate was produced. If the mining, quarrying, and concentration, or different steps in either thereof are carried on in more than one taxing district, the commissioner shall apportion equitably the proceeds of the part of the tax going to cities and towns among such subdivisions upon the basis of attributing 40 percent of the proceeds of the tax to the operation of mining or quarrying the taconite, and the remainder to the concentrating plant and to the processes of concentration, and with respect to each thereof giving due consideration to the relative extent of such operations performed in each such taxing district. His order making such apportionment shall be subject to review by the tax court at the instance of any of the interested taxing districts, in the same manner as other orders of the commissioner.

(2) (a) 12.5 cents per taxable ton, less any amount distributed under clause (7), paragraph (a), and paragraph (b) of this clause, to be distributed as provided in section 298.282.

(b) An amount annually certified by the county auditor of a county containing a taconite tax relief area within which there is an organized township if, as of January 2, 1982, more than 75 percent of the assessed valuation of the township consists of iron ore. The amount will be the portion of a township's certified levy equal to the proportion of (1) the difference between 50 percent of the township's January 2, 1982, assessed value and its current assessed value to (2) the sum of its current assessed value plus the difference determined in (1). The county auditor shall extend the township's levy against the sum of the township's current assessed value plus the difference between 50 percent of its January 2, 1982, assessed value and its current assessed value. If the current assessed value of the township exceeds 50 percent of the township's January 2, 1982, assessed value, this clause shall not apply.

(3) 29 cents per taxable ton plus the increase provided in paragraph (c) to qualifying school districts to be distributed, based upon the certification of the commissioner of revenue, as follows:

(a) Six cents per taxable ton to the school districts in which the lands from which taconite was mined or quarried were located or within which the concentrate was produced. The distribution must be based on the apportionment formula prescribed in clause (1).

(b) 23 cents per taxable ton, less any amount distributed under part (d), shall be distributed to a group of school districts comprised of those school districts wherein the taconite was mined or quarried or the concentrate produced or in which there is a qualifying municipality as defined by section 273.134 in direct proportion to school district tax levies as follows: each district shall receive that portion of the total distribution which its certified levy for the prior year, computed pursuant to sections 124A.03, 124A.06, subdivision 3a, 124A.08, subdivision 3a, 124A.10, subdivision 3a, 124A.12, subdivision 3a, 124A.14, subdivision 5a, and 275.125, comprises of the sum of certified levies for the prior year for all qualifying districts, computed pursuant to sections 124A.03, 124A.06, subdivision 3a, 124A.08, subdivision 3a, 124A.10, subdivision 3a, 124A.12, subdivision 3a, 124A.14, subdivision 5a, and 275.125. of 1977 as provided in section 298.24, subdivision 1, clause (a), shall be distributed to any school district described in clause (3)(b) where a levy increase pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 2, is authorized by referendum, according to the following formula. In any calendar year in which a general property tax levy subject to sections 275.50 to ~~275.59~~ 275.58 has been made, if the taxes distributable to any such county or city are greater than the amount estimated by the commissioner to be paid to any such county or city in such year, the excess of such distribution shall be held in a special fund by the county or city and shall not be expended until the succeeding calendar year, and shall be included in computing the permissible levies under sections 275.50 to ~~275.59~~ 275.58, of such county or city payable in such year. Subd. 4. [ADMINISTRATION BY COMMISSIONER OF AGRICULTURE.] The commissioner shall provide offices and staff necessary for the board and cooperate with the board by providing information, inspections, and enforcement at the request of the board.

Subd. 5. [COOPERATION WITH OTHER GOVERNMENTAL AGENCIES.] The board may cooperate with stabilization agencies in other states and with the secretary of agriculture of the United States in the manner provided in the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

Subd. 6. [AUTHORITY OF OTHER AGENCIES NOT AFFECTED.] The provisions of this chapter do not limit the health and sanitation authority of the commissioner of agriculture, commissioner of health, county boards of health, or municipal health officials.

Sec. 5. [32C.04] [STABILIZATION PLANS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL CONTENTS.] (a) A stabilization plan must designate marketing areas and establish stabilized prices. The stabilized prices must include minimum prices for raw milk to be paid to dairy farmers, minimum prices for milk products to be paid by retailers, and minimum prices to be paid by consumers, and may include other stabilized prices.

(b) A stabilization plan may provide for a classified pricing system based upon utilization, a handler pooling arrangement, or a marketwide pooling arrangement. A stabilization plan with a marketwide pooling arrangement may require raw milk produced by dairy farmer-processors to be included in the pooling arrangement.

Subd. 2. [INDUCEMENT FOR PURCHASE.] A dairy marketer may not furnish, give, lend, lease, or sell furniture, fixtures, fittings, or equipment to a retailer as an incentive or inducement for the retailer to purchase, handle, store, display, sell, or trade in a dairy product of a dairy marketer.

Subd. 3. [APPLICABILITY TO PROCESSORS PURCHASING IN MULTIPLE MARKETING AREAS.] A stabilization plan must provide a method to determine how the plan is applicable to the raw milk purchases of a processor engaged in selling milk products in two or more marketing areas. The applicability of a stabilization plan to raw milk purchased by a processor from a particular dairy farmer must not be dependent upon where the seller's dairy farm is located or the location where the title passes.

Subd. 4. [AREAS UNDER FEDERAL MILK MARKETING ORDER.] A stabilization plan for a marketing area that includes an area of a federal milk marketing order may require licensed processors subject to both the state stabilization plan and to the federal milk marketing order to pay:

(1) minimum raw milk class prices that exceed the minimum raw milk class prices established by the federal order; and

(2) the difference between the federal and state minimum prices directly to dairy farmers on the basis of a handler pooling arrangement basis.

Subd. 5. [ADOPTION:] (a) The stabilization plan may be adopted by:

(1) permanent or emergency rule under chapter 14; or

(2) notwithstanding chapter 14, the board may mail a proposed plan to the dairy marketing licensees, hold a public meeting for comment within seven to 12 days after the mailing, and mail a copy of the final stabilization plan to the dairy marketing licensees.

(b) A stabilization plan adopted under clause (2) is effective as provided in the plan, but not earlier than seven days after the final stabilization plan is mailed to the dairy marketing licensees. An effective stabilization plan has the same force and effect as an adopted rule.

Subd. 6. [STAY OF STABILIZATION PLAN.] If a stabilization plan is appealed, the stay of a stabilization plan or rule properly adopted may not be granted prior to final determination of the matter by the court having jurisdiction.

Sec. 6. [32C.05] [STABILIZED PRICES.]

Subdivision 1. [MINIMUM PRICES FOR RAW MILK.] (a) The board shall establish uniform minimum prices for raw milk for each marketing area to be paid by processors to dairy farmers.

(b) The minimum prices must be beneficial to the public interest, protect the dairy farmers, and ensure an adequate supply of pure and wholesome milk to the inhabitants of the state.

(c) In establishing or changing minimum prices to be paid by processors to dairy farmers for raw milk in each marketing area, the board must consider:

- (1) the available supply of raw milk;*
- (2) the adequacy of the reserve supply of raw milk available to processors;*
- (3) the balance between production and consumption;*
- (4) the cost of dairy feed, farm wage rates; and*
- (5) other factors to effectuate sections 1 to 8.*

Subd. 2. [CONSIDERATIONS IN ESTABLISHING PROCESSOR, DISTRIBUTOR, AND RETAILER PRICES.] In establishing minimum prices for a marketing area, other than the price paid to a dairy farmer for raw milk, the board must consider the operative economic factors in a marketing area including:

- (1) the prevailing raw milk prices in the marketing area regardless of whether the prices are state established, federally established, or negotiated;*
- (2) the reasonable costs of processing and distribution incurred by representative processors, distributors, and retailers, including a reasonable return upon necessary investment;*
- (3) the quantities of dairy products consumed in the area; and*
- (4) all other economic factors that substantially and directly affect market supply and demand for dairy products in the area.*

Subd. 3. [MINIMUM PRICES FOR MILK PRODUCTS TO RETAILERS AND CONSUMERS.] (a) For each marketing area, the board shall establish minimum prices for:

- (1) sales of milk products by processors or distributors to retailers; and*
- (2) sales of milk products to consumers.*

(b) The minimum price for each milk product item sold by processors or distributors to retailers is applicable regardless of the location where the retailer accepts delivery.

Subd. 4. [AUTHORIZED MINIMUM PRICES.] For a marketing area, the board may establish the minimum prices for:

- (1) milk products sold by processors to distributors;*
- (2) frozen dairy products sold by a processor, distributor, or retailer;*
- (3) milk products sold by a processor to another processor;*

(4) milk products sold by a distributor to another distributor; and

(5) dairy products that are sold and not otherwise provided for in this section.

Subd. 5. [MINIMUM PRICES FOR MILK FROM NONDAIRY FARMER SOURCES.] The board may establish the prices to be paid by a processor for raw milk purchased from sources other than dairy farmers and prescribe conditions to ensure prices paid for butterfat and milk solids not fat, whether in the form of raw milk or otherwise, are uniform for all processors regulated by the same stabilization plan.

Subd. 6. [PRICES ESTABLISHED FOR SOME ITEMS ONLY.] The board may establish minimum prices for some items in a category without establishing minimum prices for the other items in the category and may establish one type of minimum price without establishing the other types of minimum prices applicable to a product.

Subd. 7. [AUTHORIZED MAXIMUM PRICES.] For a marketing area, the board may establish the maximum prices for milk products to be sold to any person by a processor, a distributor, or a retailer. The board must consider the economic factors that apply to the establishment of minimum prices under subdivision 3.

Subd. 8. [STABILIZED PRICE DIFFERENCE.] (a) The stabilized prices established by the board for products other than raw milk may reflect packaging cost differences and stabilized prices for home-delivered products may vary from stabilized prices applicable to products sold to consumers by retailers.

(b) The stabilized prices established by the board may reflect cost differences for a processor or distributor selling products directly to consumers.

Subd. 9. [QUANTITY DISCOUNTS.] (a) The stabilization plan for a marketing area may authorize processors and distributors to give quantity discounts to retailers for sales of dairy products.

(b) To ensure the availability of a sufficient variety of brands to consumers purchasing from retailers having sufficient display space, and to avoid injury to small independent processors and distributors, the board must, if quantity discounts are authorized, establish for each eligible retailer a quantity discount rate for purchases of milk products and a quantity discount rate for purchases of frozen dairy products. The discount rates must be based on the retailer's total purchases of milk products from all suppliers and the total purchases of frozen dairy products from all suppliers.

(c) All processors and distributors delivering dairy products to a quantity discount retailer may give quantity discounts in accordance with the rates regardless of the quantities of the products actually purchased by the retailer from each individual processor or distributor.

(d) The board shall establish schedules of quantity discount rates based upon a graduated scale of discounts proportionate to purchases made by retailers during a designated base period of one month, one quarter, six months, or one year. If a retailer operates two or more separate places of business, the board shall base the quantity discount rate for each place of business upon the quantity of dairy products purchased for resale at that place

Sec. 7. [32C.06] [STABILIZED PRICE ADJUSTMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [ADJUSTMENT FACTORS.] Stabilized prices may be adjusted based on:

- (1) the butterfat content or other components of the raw milk;*
- (2) the location where the raw milk is received;*
- (3) the location of the plant where a portion of the raw milk purchased is transferred or diverted by the processor from the plant where the raw milk is normally utilized; and*
- (4) other factors provided for price adjustments provided under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937.*

Subd. 2. [SIMULTANEOUS PRICE CHANGES.] The board must ensure that changes in minimum dairy farmer prices are accompanied by simultaneous changes in the other stabilized prices as established by the board.

Subd. 3. [MINIMUM PRICE FORMULA.] A formula may be used to compute minimum prices for raw milk to be paid to dairy farmers. The formula may be used by the board to automatically change minimum prices paid to a dairy farmer that are justified on the basis of changes in production costs, supply conditions, and in the other factors established by the board.

Sec. 8. [32C.07] [MARKETING AREAS.]

Subdivision 1. [DESIGNATION.] The board shall designate marketing areas with uniform stabilized prices for the entire state. The board may change the number and alter the boundaries of the marketing areas.

Subd. 2. [CONSIDERATIONS.] (a) In designating marketing areas the board shall consider:

- (1) the conditions affecting the production, distribution, and sale of dairy products in the marketing areas;*
  - (2) the need for establishing area boundaries that will facilitate cooperation between the board and federal authorities engaged in regulating prices paid by processors for raw milk; and*
  - (3) all other factors necessary to effectuate the purposes of sections 1 to 8.*
- (b) The stabilized prices established by the board may vary from one marketing area to another.*

Sec. 9. [32C.08] [LOCAL ADVISORY BOARDS.]

Subdivision 1. [FUNCTION.] If a public hearing is scheduled by the board in a marketing area to establish prices, the board may, at least ten days prior to the date set for the hearing, appoint a local advisory board. The function of the local advisory board is to assist and advise the board in matters pertaining to the production and marketing of milk in the marketing area.

Subd. 2. [MEMBERSHIP, MEETINGS, COMPENSATION.] If a local advisory board is appointed, the local advisory board shall consist of two producers, two processors, and two retailers who are actively engaged in milk production, processing, and marketing in the area and to consumers in the area. The local advisory board shall meet with the board at the call of the board before, during, or after the public hearing to establish prices. There may not be more than three meetings or conferences between the board and the local advisory board. The members of the local advisory board shall receive a per diem for each day actually spent in the performance of their duties, plus mileage and expenses as provided under chapter 15.

Subd. 3. [TERMINATION.] The local advisory board shall cease to exist when the board promulgates its stabilization plan that establishes prices.

Sec. 10. [32C.09] [REFERENDUM ON CONTINUANCE OF STABILIZED PRICES.]

If a petition is presented to the commissioner of agriculture containing at least 25 percent of the total grade A dairy farmers in the state subject to sections 1 to 8, with the signature of at least one dairy farmer in every county where a dairy farmer resides, the commissioner of agriculture shall conduct a referendum on continuing stabilized prices by a mailed secret ballot in accordance with rules established by the commissioner of agriculture, and shall report the results of the referendum to the legislature the next time it convenes.

DAIRY MARKETING LICENSES

Sec. 11. [32C.10] [DAIRY MARKETING LICENSES REQUIRED.]

Subdivision 1. [SEPARATE BUSINESS LOCATIONS.] A dairy marketing license under this section is required for each separate place of business.

Subd. 2. [AGRICULTURE DEPARTMENT LICENSE REQUIRED.] A processor or distributor may not obtain a dairy marketing license without first having obtained a license under chapter 32 from the commissioner of agriculture.

Subd. 3. [PROCESSOR LICENSE REQUIRED.] A processor may not buy milk or sell dairy products without a processor license if the processor:

(1) operates a processing plant located within the state;

(2) sells dairy products to a retailer for resale at a retail establishment located in the state regardless of the location of the processor's plant or where the retailer takes title to or possession of the products; or

(3) sells dairy products to a distributor for resale to consumers in the state on home delivery or for resale to a retail establishment that is required to have a "retailer" license.

Subd. 4. [DAIRY FARMER-PROCESSOR.] A dairy farmer-processor must obtain a processor license.

Subd. 5. [DISTRIBUTOR.] A distributor may not sell dairy products without a distributor license if the distributor sells dairy products to consumers in the state on one or more retail home delivery routes or to a retailer for resale at a retail establishment that is required to have a retailer license.

Subd. 6. [RETAILER LICENSE.] A retailer may not buy or sell dairy products without a retailer license. A dairy farmer, processor, or distributor may not sell dairy products to consumers at a fixed place of business within this state without obtaining a retailer license for each place of business.

Subd. 7. [INSTITUTIONAL RETAILER.] Schools, hospitals, state institutions, and charitable institutions may obtain retailer licenses by meeting the requirements of a retailer.

Subd. 8. [VENDING LICENSE.] A person may not supply dairy products to consumers through the use of vending machines without a vending license. The board shall prescribe, by rule, requirements for obtaining and operating under a vending license.

Sec. 12. [32C.11] [LICENSE APPLICATIONS.]

Applications for licenses must be made on forms prepared and furnished by the commissioner with the approval of the milk stabilization board. The commissioner may require information on the application about the applicant and the nature of the business that the applicant proposes to conduct necessary for the administration of this chapter. Applications must require applicants to affirm that for:

(1) processor and distributor license applicants, the applicant will not make sales of dairy products to persons required to have a license required by section 11 unless the persons have the license;

(2) distributor and retailer license applicants, the applicant will not make purchases of dairy products from persons not licensed by the commissioner;

(3) processor or distributor license applicants, the applicant will sell dairy products as are customarily handled by the person to any retailer who desires to purchase the products from the dealer if the retailer has a place of business in a community where the dealer processes, distributes, or sells dairy products; and

(4) processor or distributor license applicants, each retailer will be offered the same frequency of delivery and the same in-store services as are customary in the community.

Sec. 13. [32C.12] [LICENSE ISSUANCE, DENIAL, AND VALIDITY.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSE HEARING.] (a) Within ten days after the commissioner receives an application for license, the commissioner shall notify the milk stabilization board and within 20 days after being notified the board shall make a recommendation for issuance of the license or notify the applicant of the date when a hearing will be held to receive evidence relative to the applicant's eligibility.

(b) A hearing under paragraph (a) should be held not less than 20 days after the date the notice is given, unless the hearing is fixed for an earlier date by mutual agreement of the milk stabilization board and the applicant. Within a reasonable time after the close of the eligibility hearing, the milk stabilization board must notify the applicant and the commissioner of its recommendation to issue or deny a license.

(c) The commissioner must issue or deny a license within ten days after receiving the recommendation. A dairy marketing license is issued without a fee. The milk stabilization board may recommend to deny a license if it finds that the applicant has violated sections 15 to 21, a rule of the board or commissioner, or the stabilization plan.

Subd. 2. [VALIDITY.] Dairy marketing licenses are valid unless:

- (1) the ownership or location of the licensed business is changed;
- (2) the license is suspended or revoked; or
- (3) the licensed business is discontinued or is inactive for a period of more than 30 days.

Sec. 14. [32C.13] [RECORDS AND REPORTS.]

Subdivision 1. [RECORD CONSOLIDATION.] The commissioner and the milk stabilization board shall accommodate dairy marketing licensees by allowing all records required under this section and chapter 32 to be consolidated.

Subd. 2. [REQUIRED RECORDS.] (a) A dairy marketing licensee must maintain in a manner prescribed by the commissioner:

(1) a record of all raw milk received or purchased by the licensee, showing the names and addresses of the dairy farmers and others from whom the raw milk was purchased, the quantity, price paid, butterfat test, and any deductions made;

(2) a record of all dairy products sold or used; classified as to grade, use, location, market outlet, size and type of container, the composition of the product in terms of butterfat and solids, the quantity sold, and the prices received;

(3) a record of the quantity of each dairy product manufactured by a licensee, together with the composition of the product, the quantity sold, and the prices received; and

(4) other records necessary to implement sections 1 to 25.

(b) The commissioner may, by rule, specify which records must be maintained by each type of license.

Subd. 3. [RECORDKEEPING.] The commissioner may require dairy marketing licensees to maintain a record of:

(1) the shrinkage, wastage, or loss of raw milk and butterfat, and of skim milk and butterfat destroyed or used for special purposes such as livestock feed;

(2) the inventory of raw milk and other dairy products on hand at the end of a designated accounting period; and

(3) all items of expense incurred by the licensee in procuring raw milk and other ingredients, and in processing, manufacturing, storing, distributing, and selling dairy products, including overhead and general and administrative costs, and all other items of cost incurred by each licensee in the conducting of its business.

Subd. 4. [RECORDS OF PROFIT OR LOSS NOT REQUIRED.] A dairy marketing licensee may not be required to reveal profit or loss. The commissioner shall require records to be in a form that will allow the milk stabilization board to make statistical studies.

Subd. 5. [RECORD MAINTENANCE.] Required records under this section must be preserved for three years.

PROHIBITED ACTS AND UNFAIR DAIRY TRADE PRACTICES

Sec. 15. [32C.14] [BUYING, SELLING, AND PRICING

VIOLATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [BUYING OR SELLING WITHOUT A LICENSE.] A person may not buy or sell dairy products without a required dairy marketing license.

Subd. 2. [BUYING OR SELLING AT PRICES OTHER THAN STABILIZED PRICES.] A dairy marketing licensee may not buy or sell dairy products with a stabilized price for less than a minimum price or more than an applicable maximum distributor or retail price.

Subd. 3. [VIOLATION OF LICENSE APPLICATION COMMITMENT.] A dairy marketing licensee may not take an action contrary to commitments made by the person in the filed license application.

Subd. 4. [CIRCUMVENTING STABILIZED PRICING.] A person with a dairy marketing license may not use or attempt to use a method, device, or transaction:

(1) intended to accomplish, or having the effect of accomplishing, the sale or attempted sale or the purchase or attempted purchase of dairy products at less than the minimum prices established by the board;

(2) designed to circumvent the price requirements of the board; or

(3) that has the effect of substantially undermining the effectiveness of the stabilized pricing.

Subd. 5. [SELLING PRODUCTS OF DIFFERENT BRANDS AT DIFFERENT PRICES.] A retailer may not sell or offer to sell dairy products of one brand at a price that is different from the price charged by the retailer for an equal quantity of a product that is of the same type, quality, or grade, but of a different brand, unless the price differential is equal to the difference in the prices paid by the retailer for the products.

Subd. 6. [DAIRY PRODUCTS PRICED WITH OTHER PRODUCTS.] A dairy marketer may not charge a combined price for a product together with another commodity or a service that is less or is represented to be less than the aggregate of the price of the particular dairy product and the price or value of such other commodity or service when sold or offered for sale separately.

Subd. 7. [SELLING BELOW COST.] If a stabilized price has not been established for a dairy product, a dairy marketer may not sell, offer for sale, or advertise for sale the dairy product below cost, or give, offer to give, or advertise the intent to give away the dairy product, to damage a competitor or destroy competition. This section does not apply to a sale made in conformance with section 325D.06, clauses (1) to (4). An enforcement action may not be commenced under this section if the retail price is 15 percent or more above the list price of the processor.

Subd. 8. [PRIMA FACIE EVIDENCE OF SALE BELOW COST.] (a) In an action for an injunction or to impose civil penalties from a violation of subdivision 7, evidence that a dairy product was sold, offered for sale, or advertised for sale at a price as provided in paragraph (b), is prima facie evidence that the product was sold, offered for sale, or advertised for sale below cost to damage a competitor or to destroy competition.

(b) A price is presumed to damage or destroy competition if:

(1) a retail price is less than eight percent above the current net delivered price of the processor including a rebate, discount, refund, and price differential; or

(2) a price charged to a retailer by a distributor that is less than five percent above the current net delivered price of the processor including any rebate, discount, refund, and price differential.

Sec. 16. [32C.15] [UNFAIR DAIRY MARKETING PRACTICES.]

Subdivision 1. [DAMAGING A COMPETITOR.] A dairy marketer may not:

(1) restrain, lessen, or destroy competition;

(2) damage a competitor;

(3) damage a person dealing in dairy products;

(4) impair or prevent fair competition in the sale of dairy products to retailers in this state; or

(5) engage in or threaten to engage in a prohibited practice or method of doing business.

Subd. 2. [METHOD TO DEFEAT DAIRY UNFAIR TRADE PRACTICES.] A dairy marketer may not apply or attempt to apply a method or device in the sale or distribution of dairy products intending to defeat the policy or to evade a provision of sections 15 to 21 or an order or rule adopted by the commissioner.

Subd. 3. [INDUCING PROHIBITED ACTS.] A person doing business in this state in the course of the business may not knowingly induce an act or knowingly receive a benefit from an act prohibited by sections 15 to 21.

Subd. 4. [FINANCIAL INTEREST IN RETAILER.] A dairy marketer may not own, control, or have more than a five percent financial interest greater in a retail business selling or offering for sale dairy products in this state, unless the business name, address, nature, and extent of the dairy marketer's ownership or control of the retail business is prominently displayed at the main public entrance to the premises where the business is being conducted. The information displayed must be in capitalized type not less than 24-point.

Sec. 17. [32C.16] [SALE AND LEASEBACK OF PROPERTY.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL PROHIBITION.] A dairy marketer may not purchase real or personal property from a retailer and leaseback or resell the property to the retailer under a deferred payment contract except as allowed in this section.

Subd. 2. [RENTAL AGREEMENT.] A dairy marketer and a retailer may enter a written lease signed by both parties that specifies:

(1) a rental rate that is consistent with the value of similar property in the area where the retailer is located at the time the lease is executed; and

(2) other terms and conditions consistent with leases of similar property in that locality made at or about the same time by persons not having the relationship existing between the retailer, as the purchaser, and the lessor, as the seller, of dairy products.

Subd. 3. [CONTRACTS TO SELL PROPERTY.] (a) A dairy marketer and a retailer may enter a written contract for the sale of property signed by both parties specifying:

(1) a purchase price that is consistent with the fair market value of similar property in the area where the retailer is located at the time the contract is executed;

(2) the down payment on the purchase price;

(3) the periodic payments on the unpaid balance of the purchase price; and

(4) other terms and conditions consistent with sale contracts of similar property in that locality made at or about the same time by persons not having the relationship existing between the retailer, as the purchaser, and the dairy marketer, as the seller, of dairy products.

(b) A contract or agreement for the leaseback or resale to a retailer of property purchased from the retailer by the dairy marketer may not contain a requirement that the retailer must purchase dairy products from a specified dairy marketer.

Sec. 18. [32C.17] [FURNITURE, TRADE FIXTURES, AND EQUIPMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [INDUCEMENT FOR PURCHASE.] A dairy marketer may not furnish, give, lend, lease, or sell furniture, fixtures, fittings, or equipment to a retailer as an incentive or inducement for the retailer to purchase, handle, store, display, sell, or trade in a dairy product of a dairy marketer.

Subd. 2. [RESTRICTION ON SALES TO RETAILERS.] To maintain fair, open, and free competition for the trade and custom of the retailers purchasing dairy products for resale, a dairy marketer may not sell or offer to sell to a retailer furniture, trade fixtures, or equipment except as allowed in this section.

Subd. 3. [TIME PAYMENT SALES.] (a) A dairy marketer may not sell furniture, trade fixtures, or equipment at less than their cost to a retailer that purchases dairy products from the dairy marketer. A sale made by a dairy marketer at less than 15 percent above the actual current invoice or replacement cost, less depreciation in the case of used furniture, trade fixtures, or equipment computed at the annual rate of 15 percent of the seller's cost, is prima facie evidence that the sale was made below the dairy marketer's cost.

(b) If the full purchase price of the furniture, trade fixtures, or equipment sold to the retailer is not paid to the dairy marketer by the retailer by 40 days after delivery, the retailer must pay at least ten percent of the purchase price within the 40 days and provide the dairy marketer a conditional sales contract or a promissory note with a purchase money security interest in the furniture, trade fixtures, or equipment.

(c) The conditional sales contract or purchase money security agreement must specifically describe each item of the sale. The dairy marketer, by ten days after the contract or security agreement is entered into, must file the conditional sales contract, or purchase money security agreement and financing statement, as required to enforce the purchase money secured debt. The conditional sales contract or purchase money security agreement must specify:

(1) the cash payment made by the retailer to the dairy marketer or the value of the trade-in accepted to apply on the purchase price, but the trade-in credit may not exceed the depreciated value of the items representing the trade-in credit as carried on the business records of the purchaser, or if records are not available, at an annual depreciation rate of 15 percent of the purchaser's cost; and

(2) the amount of the unpaid purchase price must be paid by the retailer in 60 equal monthly installments with the last installment of principal and interest maturing not later than 60 months from the execution of the conditional sales contract or purchase money security agreement given to the dairy marketer by the retailer.

(d) The rate of interest on the purchases may not be less than the prevailing market rate, and the rates of interest charged for various sales agreements on any given day must be the same for all retailers.

Subd. 4. [SERVICING.] The mechanical, electrical, and other servicing of furniture, trade fixtures, or equipment sold to a retailer by a dairy marketer is the sole responsibility of the retailer unless at the time of the sale, the dairy marketer and the retailer agree in writing that the dairy marketer is responsible for the servicing. The contract must require the dairy marketer to charge the retailer for the servicing at the same price charged by third persons rendering the service in the area or community where the retailer is located. The charge for the servicing, including the full cost of all repair and replacement parts, must be paid by the retailer to the dairy marketer by 40 days after the performance of the work.

Sec. 19. [32C.18] [PROHIBITED GIFTS, LOANS, CREDIT, AND COMPENSATION.]

Subdivision 1. [GIFTS AND LOANS.] A dairy marketer may not give, lend, or advance money, credit, or another thing of value to a retailer, or to a person for the benefit or relief of a retailer.

Subd. 2. [FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS.] A dairy marketer may not become obligated for the repayment of a loan of money or financial commitment of a retailer.

Subd. 3. [EXTEND CREDIT WHEN DELIVERY DEBTS ARE DUE.] A dairy marketer may not extend or give an additional credit to a retailer if there is indebtedness attributable to the delivery of dairy products from the retailer on the 15th day of the next calendar month after delivery.

Subd. 4. [CREDIT FOR UNSALEABLE PRODUCTS.] A dairy marketer may not credit an account of or pay a retailer for a dairy product that the retailer claims has become stale, spoiled, or otherwise unsaleable, unless the particular product is in fact spoiled or otherwise unsaleable.

Subd. 5. [COMPENSATION IN CONNECTION WITH SALE.] A dairy marketer may not make or offer to make any gift of money, merchandise, trading stamps, coupons, service, supplies, or anything of value, or to grant or offer to grant any rebate, discount, or advertising allowance in connection with any sale to a distributor or retailer in this state of a dairy product except as expressly allowed under sections 15 to 21.

Subd. 6. [RETAILER LICENSES.] (a) A dairy marketer may not:

(1) have an interest in or pay for a license for a retailer; or

(2) advance, furnish, lend, or give money for the payment of a license fee and expense incident to the obtaining a license for a retailer.

Sec. 20. [32C.19] [PROHIBITED SIGNS AND ADVERTISING.]

Subdivision 1. [ADVERTISING.] (a) A dairy marketer may not:

(1) provide, pay for, guarantee, or in any other manner assume, satisfy, or discharge the cost or obligation of a retailer for painting, decorating, improving, repairing, or rebuilding an existing billboard, outdoor sign, display area, wall, fence, building, or structure, or other type of outdoor display advertising having a fixed location; or

(2) build, construct, erect, or purchase a new billboard, outdoor sign, or other outdoor advertising having a fixed location, or a structure or facility for use as an outdoor display for the direct benefit of a retailer.

(b) A dairy marketer may engage in all forms of outdoor advertising to promote dairy products manufactured, processed, or distributed by the dairy marketer if a reference is not made to a retailer.

Subd. 2. [INDOOR SIGNS:] (a) A dairy marketer may not furnish or maintain inside signs of a permanent nature unless the signs are used only for advertising or promoting:

(1) dairy products manufactured, distributed, or sold by the person furnishing the sign; or

(2) items of food made principally from the dairy product advertised or the brand name of the dairy product advertised.

(b) A dairy marketer may furnish point of sale advertising material made of paper or other similar materials to a retailer without charge to only promote the sale of a dairy product of the person furnishing the material.

Subd. 3. [MEDIA ADVERTISING.] (a) A dairy marketer may not furnish, give, lend, finance, pay for, contribute to, or by other means, scheme, or device, participate in cooperative advertising using newspapers, radio, television, or other advertising media if a retailer selling, handling, or offering for sale a dairy product of the dairy marketer is named or otherwise identified or referred to in the advertising.

(b) A dairy marketer may purchase and pay for the lines or space actually used in advertising one or more of its dairy products in a newspaper advertisement, handbill, or other form of printed advertising put out by a retailer or for the time actually so used in any radio or television program sponsored by a retailer.

Subd. 4. [ADVERTISING ON RETAILER'S PREMISES.] A dairy marketer may not pay, loan, or give money, credit, compensation, or anything of value to a retailer for:

(1) the privilege of placing a sign, advertisement, or other sales promotion material in or upon the premises of the retailer; or

(2) storing, advertising, or displaying a dairy product in connection with its sale or promotion.

(b) A dairy marketer may furnish paint and maintain an insulated truck body used exclusively in the sale and delivery of its dairy products by the person making retail sales.

Sec. 21. [32C.20] [DAIRY MARKETERS AS HANDLERS OR HAULERS.]

A dairy marketer may not engage in the business of a processor or distributor selling or offering dairy products for sale at wholesale to retailers while at the same time engaging in the business of hauling, handling, or delivering dairy products to a retailer for a fee, or for itself, or another processor or distributor if the business results in a sale of a dairy product at wholesale to a retailer at a price lower than the retailer could obtain from the processor or distributor without the hauling, handling, or delivering.

ENFORCEMENT

Sec. 22. [32C.21] [ENFORCEMENT.]

The commissioner shall enforce this chapter as provided in sections 23 to 25. The commissioner may adopt permanent and emergency rules to administer and enforce this chapter.

Sec. 23. [32C.22] [ENTRY, INSPECTION, AND INVESTIGATION.]

Subdivision 1. [ENTRY.] The commissioner may enter, at reasonable hours:

(1) all places of business operated by dairy marketing licensees where raw milk, milk products, or frozen dairy products are produced, stored, processed, manufactured, or sold; and

(2) places where the dairy marketing licensee maintains books, papers, accounts, records, or other documents related to the license.

Subd. 2. [SUBPOENA AND INSPECTION.] (a) The commissioner may subpoena, and inspect, audit, and make copies of books, papers, records, accounts, or documents to determine whether the provisions of sections 11 to 21, rules of the board, and stabilization plans are being complied with.

(b) The commissioner may subpoena, and may inspect, audit, and make copies of, relevant books, papers, records, accounts, or other documents of persons doing business with persons with dairy marketing licenses.

(c) The commissioner may subpoena and take the testimony, under oath, of persons believed to have information needed to administer and enforce the provisions of sections 11 to 21.

Subd. 3. [INVESTIGATIONS.] The commissioner may call together dairy marketers, retailers, and dairy farmers to investigate and hold hearings on trade practices and make findings relative to a trade practice involving the manufacture, sale, or distribution of dairy products.

Subd. 4. [CONFIDENTIALITY OF INFORMATION.] (a) Information acquired by the commissioner under this section is private data under section 13.02, subdivision 12, or nonpublic data under section 13.02, subdivision 9, and may only be used by the commissioner and the milk stabilization board for the administration of sections 1 to 21.

(b) A person who divulges confidential information that is private data on individuals or nonpublic data under this subdivision to an unauthorized person is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 24. [32C.23] [REMEDIES.]

Subdivision 1. [REVOCAION OR SUSPENSION OF LICENSE.] (a) If the commissioner or director has reason to believe that a dairy marketing licensee has violated sections 11 to 21, a rule of the board or commissioner, or the stabilization plan, the commissioner or director may file a complaint with the board against the licensee and must serve a copy of the complaint on the licensee. The complaint must state the nature of the alleged violation.

(b) The board, after a hearing and finding that a dairy marketing licensee has violated a provision of sections 11 to 21, a stabilization plan, or a rule of the board or commissioner, may suspend or revoke the license.

Subd. 2. [ENFORCEMENT BY COMMISSIONER OF VIOLATIONS RECOGNIZED BY BOARD.] If the board is aware of a violation or potential violation of this chapter, the board shall notify the commissioner of the violation. The commissioner must investigate the alleged violation and begin the appropriate enforcement action.

Subd. 3. [CIVIL PENALTY.] The commissioner may, upon recommendation of the board, assess a civil penalty not to exceed $500 per day for each violation or continuing violation, and may collect the civil penalty by a civil proceeding in an appropriate court. Penalties collected by the commissioner shall be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the dairy marketing account.

Subd. 4. [COMPLIANCE ENFORCEMENT.] The commissioner may bring an action at law or in equity to enforce compliance with a provision of this chapter or rule of the board or commissioner, or to obtain a declaratory judgment.

Subd. 5. [INJUNCTIVE RELIEF.] (a) The commissioner may bring an action for injunctive relief and have the relief, against any person violating or threatening to violate provisions of this chapter. The action does not require:

(1) alleging or proving actual damages or injury or that an adequate remedy of law does not exist, so that injunctive relief can be obtained promptly without awaiting injury or actual damage; or

(2) showing of the intent or the effect of restraining, lessening or destroying competition, injuring one or more competitors or injuring one or more persons dealing in dairy products, or impairing or preventing fair competition in the sale of dairy products in the state.

(b) The court shall grant injunctive relief unless the person objecting proves that the granting of the injunctive relief will permanently or irreparably, and substantially injure or damage the person. The proof must be offered by ten days after the injunctive action is filed, as time is of essence in granting the injunctive relief.

(c) The injunctive relief must be temporary and may not extend beyond a violation of this chapter. The injunctive relief may not abridge or be in lieu of any other civil remedy provided in this chapter, except that temporary injunctive relief may be made permanent upon a showing by the board that the violation:

- (1) has caused injury to competitors or competition;
- (2) has restrained or lessened competition;
- (3) has impaired fair competition in the sale of dairy products; or
- (4) is reasonably expected to cause the effects stated in clause (1), (2), or (3).

(d) This subdivision may not be construed as allowing the commissioner to bring an action for damages that will benefit the commissioner or members of the milk stabilization board.

Sec. 25. [32C.24] [CEASE AND DESIST ORDER.]

Subdivision 1. [HEARING.] If the commissioner has reason to believe that a person is violating provisions of sections 15 to 21, or a rule of the board or commissioner, the commissioner may serve a complaint upon the person stating the alleged violation. The complaint must contain a notice of hearing with the time and place at least 20 days after the service of the complaint. The person receiving the complaint has the right to appear at the hearing to show cause why an order should not be entered by the commissioner requiring the person to cease and desist from the violation charged in the complaint. A person may apply and, upon good cause, be allowed by the commissioner to intervene and appear in the proceeding by counsel or in person. The testimony in the proceeding must be reduced to writing and filed in the office of the commissioner. If, upon hearing, the commissioner determines that there has been a violation of provisions of sections 15 to 21, or rule of the board or commissioner, the commissioner shall make a report in writing stating the findings. The commissioner shall issue and serve an order upon the person requiring the person to cease and desist from the violation. The commissioner may at any time after notice and opportunity for hearing, reopen and alter, modify or set aside, in whole or in part, an order issued under this section.

Subd. 2. [REVIEW BY DISTRICT COURT.] (a) A person required by an order of the commissioner to cease and desist from an act or practice may obtain a review of the order in district court by filing with the court within 20 days after the date of service of the order a written petition requesting that the order of the commissioner be set aside. A copy of the petition shall be served upon the commissioner. The commissioner shall certify and file in the court a transcript of the entire record and order of the commissioner. Upon the filing of the petition and transcript, the court has jurisdiction of the proceeding and of the question determined.

(b) The court may:

- (1) make and enter upon the pleadings, evidence and proceedings in the transcript a decree, affirming, modifying, or setting aside the order of the commissioner or enforcing it to the extent that the order is affirmed; and

(2) issue writs ancillary to its jurisdiction or necessary in its judgment to prevent injury to the public or to competitors pendente lite.

(c) The findings of the commissioner relating to the facts, if supported by the evidence in the proceeding before the commissioner, are conclusive. To the extent that the order of the commissioner is affirmed, the court shall issue its own order commanding obedience to the terms of the order of the commissioner. If either party applies to the court for leave to acquire and offer additional evidence, and shows to the satisfaction of the court that the additional evidence is material and that there were reasonable grounds for the failure to acquire and offer the evidence in the proceeding before the commissioner, the court may order that the additional evidence be taken before the commissioner. The evidence shall be offered upon the hearing in the manner and upon the terms and conditions determined by the court. The commissioner may modify findings as to the facts, or make new findings, by reason of the additional evidence taken. The commissioner shall file the modified or new findings which, if supported by the evidence, are conclusive and the commissioner's recommendation, if any, for the modification or setting aside of the commissioner's original order with the return of the additional evidence. The judgment and decree of the court is final, except that it is subject to review by the court of appeals.

Subd. 3. [ENFORCEMENT.] Violations of a cease and desist order of the commissioner must be punished by the district court under the laws of contempt. Each day of failure to obey a cease and desist order of the commissioner is a separate violation and each violation of a particular act enjoined by the court is a separate violation.

Sec. 26. [32C.25] [CIVIL ACTIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [DAMAGES.] A person that has business or property damaged resulting from a violation of sections 15 to 21 is entitled to an action in district court to recover three times the damages plus costs, including reasonable attorneys fees.

Subd. 2. [INJUNCTIVE RELIEF.] A person that is damaged or is threatened with damage or loss from a violation of sections 15 to 21 is entitled to have injunctive relief against all persons involved in a violation or threatened violation of sections 15 to 21. The injunctive relief must be to prevent and restrain violations or threatened violations and the person does not have to allege or prove actual damages or that an adequate remedy at law does not exist, that injunctive relief can be obtained promptly without waiting. The injunctive relief may not abridge or be in lieu of other civil remedies allowed.

Subd. 3. [TORT ACTION WITH INJUNCTIVE RELIEF.] A person entitled to an action may sue both in tort and for injunctive relief and may recover for all loss, damage, or injury arising from the continued violation to the time of trial or hearing of the action.

Sec. 2. [580.225] [SATISFACTION OF JUDGMENT.]

The amount received from foreclosure sale under this chapter is full satisfaction of the mortgage debt except as provided in section 5.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 580.23, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

580.23 [REDEMPTION BY MORTGAGOR.]

Subdivision 1. Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 581.09, is amended to read:

581.09 [SATISFACTION OF JUDGMENT; EXECUTION FOR DEFICIENCY.]

Upon confirmation of the report of sale, the clerk shall enter satisfaction of the judgment to the extent of the sum bid for the premises, less expenses and costs; ~~and for any balance of such judgment, execution may issue as in other cases; but no such execution shall issue on the judgment until after a sale of the mortgaged premises, and the application of the amount realized as aforesaid.~~ *The amount entered is full satisfaction of the judgment unless a deficiency is allowed under section 5. Sec. 5. [582.30] [DEFICIENCY JUDGMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFICIENCY ALLOWED.] (a) Except as provided in this section, a person holding a mortgage may obtain a personal judgment against the mortgagor if the amount a person holding a mortgage receives from a foreclosure sale is less than:

A separate jury proceeding must be brought to determine the fair market value of the property. The property may not be presumed to be sold for its fair market value. A party adversely affected by a deficiency judgment may submit evidence relevant to establishing the fair market value of the property. Notice of the time and place where the fair market value of the property is to be determined must be given to all parties adversely affected by the judgment.*

Subd. 5. [STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS ON EXECUTING JUDGMENT.] A deficiency judgment or personal judgment obtained under subdivision 3 or 4 may be enforced by execution but the personal judgment may not be executed after three years from the date judgment was entered.

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [84.95] [MINERAL RESOURCES PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [FINDINGS.] The legislature finds that there has been a disinvestment in mineral and timber resources of the state. To provide a diversified economic base in the state, it is necessary to stimulate investment in the state's natural resources. Mineral exploration by the private sector must be encouraged and assisted. The long-term health of the state will be aided by a diverse state economy that includes productive natural resource industries. A forestry management plan is already mandated. The great benefits from the state's mineral resources will not be realized without state stimulation of investment, which can be achieved through a program coordinated by the department of natural resources to accelerate geologic mapping and mineral deposit evaluation and to provide analytical support to the mineral and timber industries. This participation by the state will lead to active participation by private industry in healthy Minnesota timber and mineral resources industries.

Subd. 2. [PROGRAM.] The commissioner of natural resources shall coordinate a program, in cooperation with the Minnesota geological survey, the Minnesota Resources Research Center, the Natural Resources Research Institute, and other available facilities, to:

- (1) accelerate geological mapping of the state;*
- (2) accelerate evaluation of the state's mineral potential and other natural resources; and*
- (3) provide analytical support for participants in the mineral industry.*

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 89.17, is amended to read:

89.17 [LEASES AND PERMITS.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY TO LEASE.] The commissioner shall have power to grant and execute, in the name of the state, leases and permits for the use of any state forest lands for any purpose which in his opinion is not inconsistent with the maintenance and management of the state forest in which the land is situated, on forestry principles for timber production. Every such lease or permit shall be revocable at his discretion at any time subject to such conditions as may be agreed on in the lease. The approval of the commissioner of administration shall not be required upon any such lease or permit. No such lease or permit for a period exceeding ten years shall be granted except with the approval of the executive council.

Subd. 2. [TIME OF LEASE PAYMENTS FOR CERTAIN LANDS; INTEREST; NOTICE REQUIRED.] The commissioner shall accept, until the March 1 preceding the first growing season for which the lease is made, rental payments for leases of state forest land leased under this section for agricultural purposes. The commissioner shall at the option of the lessee, either (1) deduct from the first lease payment the lessee's cost of a loan of the entire lease amount, calculated at the maximum rate provided in section 334.011, subdivision 1, or (2) at the end of the lease term pay the lessee an annualized rate of interest on the total lease price calculated at a rate equal to that awarded as prejudgment interest under section 549.09, subdivision 1, clause (c). The commissioner shall fully inform every lessee and prospective lessee of the lessee's rights under this subdivision.

Subd. 3. [HUNTING.] Hunting of wild game is prohibited on any land which has been posted by the lessee to prohibit hunting. Such prohibition shall apply to all persons including the lessee.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 92.50, is amended to read:

92.50 [UNSOLD LANDS SUBJECT TO SALE MAY BE LEASED.]

Subdivision 1. [LEASE TERMS.] The commissioner of natural resources may lease, at public or private vendue and at the prices and under the terms and conditions he or she may prescribe, any state-owned lands under his or her jurisdiction and control for the purpose of taking and removing sand, gravel, clay, rock, marl, peat, and black dirt, for storing ore, waste materials from mines, or rock and tailings from ore milling plants, for roads or railroads, or for any other uses consistent with the interests of the state. Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, the term of the lease may not exceed ten years. Leases of lands for storage sites for ore, waste materials from mines, or rock and tailings from ore milling plants, for the removal of peat, or for the use of peat lands for agricultural purposes may not exceed a term of 25 years. Leases for the removal of peat must be approved by the executive council.

All leases must be subject to sale and leasing of the land for mineral purposes and contain a provision for cancellation at any time by the commissioner upon three months' written notice. A longer notice period, not exceeding three years, may be provided in leases for storing ore, waste materials from mines or rock or tailings from ore milling plants. The commissioner may determine the terms and conditions, including the notice period, for cancellation of a lease for the removal of peat. Money received from leases under this section must be credited to the fund to which the land belongs.

Subd. 2. [TIME OF LEASE PAYMENTS FOR CERTAIN LANDS; INTEREST; NOTICE REQUIRED.] The commissioner shall accept, until the March 1 preceding the first growing season for which the lease is made, rental payments for leases of state land leased under this section for agricultural purposes. The commissioner shall at the option of the lessee, either (1) deduct from the first lease payment the lessee's cost of a loan of the entire lease amount, calculated at the maximum rate provided in section 334.011, subdivision 1, or (2) at the end of the lease term pay the lessee an annualized rate of interest on the total lease price calculated at a rate equal to that awarded as prejudgment interest under section 549.09, subdivision 1, clause (c). The commissioner shall fully inform every lessee and prospective lessee of the lessee's rights under this subdivision.

Subd. 3. [LEASES FOR TAILINGS DEPOSITS.] The commissioner may grant leases and licenses to deposit tailings from any iron ore beneficiation plant in any public lake not exceeding 160 acres in area after holding a public hearing in the manner and under the procedure provided in Laws 1937, chapter 468, as amended and finding in pursuance of the hearing:

(a) that such use of each lake is necessary and in the best interests of the public; and

(b) that the proposed use will not result in pollution or sedimentation of any outlet stream.

The lease or license may not exceed a term of 25 years and must be subject to cancellation on three years' notice. The commissioner may further restrict use of the lake to safeguard the public interest, and may require that the lessee or licensee acquire suitable permits or easements from the owners of lands riparian to the lake. Money received from the leases or licenses must be deposited in the permanent school fund.

These grants may be awarded in separate steps for planning and design in addition to actual construction. Until December 31, 1990, not more than 20 percent of the total amount of grants awarded under this subdivision in any single fiscal year may be awarded to a single grantee.

Subd. 2. [RULES.] The commissioner shall make rules for the administration of grants under this section. The rules must contain:

- (1) procedures for application by municipalities;
- (2) conditions for the administration of the grant; and
- (3) criteria for the ranking of projects in order of priority for grants, based on factors including the impact on economic development, the extent and nature of pollution, technological feasibility, assurance of proper operation, maintenance and replacement, and participation in multimunicipal systems.

Except as otherwise provided, the rules for the administration of state independent grants must comply, to the extent practicable, with provisions relating directly to protection of the environment contained in the federal water pollution control act, as amended, and regulations and guidelines of the United States Environmental Protection Agency promulgated under the act, except provisions regarding allocation contained in section 205 of the act and regulations and guidelines promulgated under section 205 of the act. This provision does not require approval from federal agencies for the issuance of grants or for the construction of projects under the state independent grants program.

Subd. 3. [FURTHERANCE OF ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT.] Up to ten percent of the money to be awarded as grants under this section in any single fiscal year must be set aside for municipalities having substantial economic development projects that cannot come to fruition without municipal wastewater treatment improvements.

Subd. 4. [REIMBURSEMENT GRANTS.] Grants may also be awarded under this subdivision to reimburse municipalities willing to proceed with projects and be reimbursed in a subsequent year conditioned upon appropriation of sufficient money under subdivision 1 for that year. The maximum amount of the reimbursement the commissioner may commit in any single fiscal year is equal to the amount newly appropriated to the state grants programs for that year.

Sec. 10. [116J.93] [PURPOSE.]

The legislature finds that the public policy goals of promoting community development and economic diversification in the rural areas of the state can best be accomplished by encouraging private enterprise and by using state resources to complement available commercial lending sources and private development initiatives. It is therefore the policy of the state to maximize the impact of state money and resources by integrating development assistance programs and, whenever possible, by coordinating state initiatives with money and programs available through the federal government, the small business administration, private foundations, and other organizations.

Mr. Bernhagen moved to amend S.F. No. 1636 as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [17.89] [PROCEEDINGS.]

Subdivision 1. [COMMENCEMENT.] All proceedings for the foreclosure of a mortgage, the cancellation of a contract-for-deed, or the repossession of or collection against agricultural property having a current fair market value of more than $5,000 must be suspended following notice of default until (1) the creditor commencing the foreclosure proceedings has engaged in mediation or otherwise has negotiated in good faith with the debtor concerning possible adjustment and refinancing, as well as payment, of the debt; (2) the creditor has offered to engage in mediation or to negotiate in good faith with the debtor, and the debtor has refused to participate in mediation or refused to negotiate in good faith; (3) the debtor has failed to request mediation within 15 days after notice of default is given; or (4) an additional 60 days have elapsed beyond any time period that normally must elapse after notice of default and before foreclosure, cancellation, or repossession may be commenced.

Subd. 2. [CONTENTS OF NOTICE OF DEFAULT.] A notice of default affecting a mortgage, cancellation of a contract-for-deed, or repossession against agricultural property having a fair market value of more than $5,000 may contain an affidavit stating how the conditions of subdivision 1, clause

(1) or (2), have been met. Actions initiated by a default notice containing such an affidavit may proceed without regard to the 60-day suspension period unless the debtor challenges the accuracy of the affidavit in district court.

Subd. 3. [DEFINITION.] For purposes of sections 1 to 5, "agricultural property" means real property that is principally used for farming, as defined in section 500.24, subdivision 2, paragraph (a), and any property that is used as security in financing a farm operation or used as part of a farm operation including but not limited to equipment, crops, livestock, and proceeds of the property. "Agricultural property" does not include property of farm operations of less than 60 acres, including leased property, with less than $20,000 in gross sales of agricultural products in the preceding year.

Subd. 4. [REDEMPTION PERIOD INCREASED.] If the proceedings for the foreclosure of agricultural property are allowed to proceed only because the 60-day suspension period has expired under subdivision 1, clause (4), then the period of time within which the debtor may redeem the property is increased by 60 days.

Sec. 2. [17.892] [EVIDENCE.]

Participation in mediation, as specified in section 3, over a period of at least 30 days creates a presumption that a creditor has negotiated in good faith as required by section 1. A creditor's request to the agricultural extension service to participate in mediation, as specified in section 3, creates a presumption that the creditor has offered to negotiate in good faith with the debtor.

Sec. 3. [17.894] [MEDIATION.]

A debtor or creditor with an interest in agricultural property may request mediation from the agricultural extension service by filing a written request with the service. A creditor may not file a request for mediation under this section unless there has been a default on the loan that would be the subject of mediation. However, a creditor need not have given official notice of default in order to request mediation.

A creditor must file a copy of its request for mediation with the debtor. A debtor may file a copy of any request for mediation with any of the debtor's other creditors. A debtor's request to the extension service must be submitted on a form supplied by the extension service, and must provide all information relevant to the relationship with the creditor asked for on the form.

The extension service shall accept each request for mediation and may appoint a mediator or a team of mediators as needed. The extension service shall notify the creditor filing the request, all other creditors named by the debtor, and the debtor, within 20 days of receiving a request for mediation, of whether or not it will appoint a mediator, and the name of the mediator if one is appointed. The mediator shall offer to meet with the creditor and debtor together within ten days of appointment. Unreasonable failure of a debtor or a creditor to meet as requested by the mediator over a period of 30 days, starting with the day on which the first meeting is scheduled, creates a presumption that a creditor or debtor is not negotiating in good faith.

The mediator shall meet with the debtor and all named creditors desiring to participate and attempt to help the parties reach an agreement. The mediator has no authority to impose an agreement on the debtor or any creditor. At the conclusion of mediation sessions the mediator shall file a written report with the extension service summarizing the results of mediation efforts and noting any failure of the debtor or any named creditor to attend a meeting when requested to attend by the mediator.

Sec. 4. [17.896] [MEDIATORS.]

The agricultural extension service shall provide mediators by contracting with qualified persons and shall assure that mediators are knowledgeable in as many as possible of the following areas: agricultural economics, legal issues related to agriculture and financial institutions, lending, and mediation. Contracts for mediation services must assure that the mediator will be available to meet with the parties at reasonable times for at least 30 days from the first mediation session.

A mediator must not:

- (1) advise a farmer to engage in a criminal or fraudulent act;
- (2) engage in mediation involving a lending institution with which the mediator has, or has had, a farm-related loan or account;
- (3) engage in mediation involving a farmer that the mediator has a business relationship with; or
- (4) accept compensation in any form from a party to mediation that the mediator is engaged in.

Contracts between the extension service and a mediator must incorporate the terms of clauses (1) to (4).

Sec. 5. [17.898] [DATA.]

All data regarding the finances of individual debtors and creditors created, collected, or maintained by the extension service or a mediator under contract to the extension service are private data or nonpublic data, as defined in chapter 13, except as to those entitled to participate in mediation meetings.

Sec. 6. [APPROPRIATION.]

Subdivision 1. [AGRICULTURAL EXTENSION SERVICE.] $1,277,200 is appropriated from the general fund to the University of Minnesota agricultural extension service for purposes of sections 1 to 5 to be available until June 30, 1987.

Subd. 2. [FARM ADVOCATES.] $356,200 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of agriculture to provide for farm advocates to be available until June 30, 1987."

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 245.802, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The commissioner shall develop and promulgate rules and regulations pursuant to chapter 14 for the operation and maintenance of day care and residential facilities and agencies, and for granting, suspending, revoking, and making licenses probationary. The commissioner shall conduct a thorough review of the relevant professional literature, identify objectively validated predictors of service outcomes, and incorporate these predictors in rules adopted under this section, to the extent feasible and appropriate. In developing rules and regulations, he shall consult with:

(1) Other appropriate state agencies including, but not limited to, the state commissioner of health, the state board of education, and the fire marshal. Any agency consulted is directed to cooperate with and assist the commissioner in developing appropriate rules and regulations for the licensing of day care and residential facilities and agencies;

(2) Persons and the relatives of the persons who use the service;

(3) Advocacy groups;

(4) Representatives of those who operate day care or residential facilities or agencies;

(5) Experts in relevant professional fields.

Rules promulgated under this section establishing the maximum number of children permitted to reside in group foster homes shall require that children in the group foster parents' natural family be counted in the number of children actually residing in the group foster home, and the application of the rules providing the maximum number and manner of counting residents shall not be waived.

Sec. 2. [245.881] [CHILD CARE.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] The legislature recognizes that the availability of child care is essential to the welfare of the state. Further, the legislature recognizes that the regulation of child care services affects the availability of child care. It is the intent of the legislature that child care standards and regulatory methods facilitate the availability of safe, affordable, quality child care throughout the state.

Subd. 2. [RULES.] Rules for family day care and group family day care homes and child care centers adopted under section 245.802 must be adopted in consultation with representatives of counties and with families who reflect the diversity of families who use day care, including families from urban, suburban, and rural communities, and with representatives of those who operate day care homes and child care centers in urban, suburban, and rural communities. The commissioner shall summarize day care rules in language understandable to the general public and provide each county agency with an adequate supply of each rule and its summary for distribution to each provider. The commissioner shall include with the rule and its summary a description of services available from the department of human services under section 245.783, subdivision 1, and a summary of penalties for failure to license a day care facility and the procedures for appealing a denial, revocation, suspension, or nonrenewal of a license.

Subd. 3. [STANDARDS AND REGULATORY METHODS.] In writing and enforcing day care rules, the commissioner shall identify, and when feasible and appropriate, incorporate objectively validated indicators of quality day care; methods for establishing child/staff ratios that take into consideration the age distribution of children in day care; and methods for establishing safety standards for day care facilities that take into consideration the findings of empirical studies of fire detection factors, fire spread factors, and evacuation of day care homes in case of fire. The commissioner shall provide an information service that will interpret day care rules and provide assistance to consumers and providers. To the extent feasible and appropriate, the commissioner shall identify and incorporate alternative methods of day care regulation that:

(1) increase the variety of day care available to consumers by expanding the types and categories of licensure, including the use of conditional and restricted licenses;

(2) establish a substantial compliance standard rather than a full or absolute compliance standard;

(3) include providers, consumers, advocacy groups, and experts in relevant professional fields in establishing weighted values that describe the relative importance of compliance with each provision of a day care rule;

(4) incorporate the use of national accreditation as an adjunct or partial substitute for state licensing;

(5) when appropriate, incorporate performance standards in place of specification standards to allow flexibility in regulation;

(6) use licensing fees to provide incentives for high quality child care;

(7) set minimum standards for safety, sanitation, and meeting the developmental needs of children; and

(8) use graded licenses as a means of informing consumers about the quality of day care delivered by a provider.

Subd. 4. [UNIFORMITY; LOCAL AGENCY CERTIFICATION.] The commissioner shall ensure that day care rules are interpreted and enforced uniformly throughout the state by:

(1) providing technical assistance to county agencies to improve county agency licensing operations and by providing information, training, and technical assistance to county agencies prior to implementing a day care rule or a revision to a rule; and

(2) developing and implementing certification standards and reviewing annually each county agency for compliance with certification standards.

Sec. 3. [ACTIONS SUSPENDED.]

Until July 1, 1987, the commissioner shall adopt no additional rules governing family day care and group family day care except those for which notice was published in the State Register on January 27, 1986.

Sec. 4. [REPORT.]

Subd. 4a. [FAMILY OR GROUP FAMILY DAY CARE HOME REGULATION.] Notwithstanding subdivision 4, a local unit of government shall not establish more restrictive requirements for family day care homes serving ten or fewer children than the requirements that apply to residential dwellings not used for family day care. Notwithstanding any contrary provision of this section, the fire marshal shall not adopt or enforce a rule:

(1) establishing staff ratios, age distribution requirements, and limitations on the number of children in care;

(2) regulating the means of egress from family or group family day care homes in addition to the egress regulations that apply to the home as a ~~single family~~ residential dwelling; or

(3) confining family or group family day care home activities to the floor of exit discharge.

For purposes of this subdivision, "family day care home" or "group family day care home" means a ~~single family~~ residential dwelling in which the day care provider: (1) resides as a member of the household; and (2) provides the services referred to in section 245.782, subdivision 5, to one or more unrelated persons.

Nothing in this subdivision prohibits the department of human services from adopting or enforcing rules regulating day care, including the subjects in subdivision 4a, clauses (1) and (3). The department may not, however, adopt or enforce a rule stricter than subdivision 4a, clause (2).

The department of human services may by rule adopt procedures for requesting the state fire marshal or a local fire marshal to conduct an inspection of day care homes to ensure compliance with state or local fire codes.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 466.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6d. [LICENSING OF PROVIDERS.] A claim against a municipality based on the failure of a provider to meet the standards needed for a license to operate a day care facility, as defined in section 245.782, subdivision 5, for children.

Sec. 7. [466.13] [PUBLIC WELFARE LICENSING ACTIVITIES; INDEMNIFICATION BY STATE.]

Until July 1, 1987, a municipality is an employee of the state for purposes of the indemnification provisions of section 3.736, subdivision 9, when the municipality is required by the public welfare licensing act and rules adopted under it to inspect or investigate a provider. After July 1, 1987, a municipality is an employee of the state for purposes of the indemnification provisions of section 3.736, subdivision 9, when the municipality is required by the public welfare licensing act and rules adopted under it to inspect or investigate a provider, and the municipality has been duly certified under standards for certification developed by the commissioner of human services.

Sec. 8. [STUDY OF BARRIERS TO CHILD CARE.]

Subdivision 1. [TASK FORCE.] The commissioner shall establish a task force under the auspices of the council on children, youth, and families to study major barriers that prevent individual and corporate entrepreneurs from entering the child care marketplace. The task force must include representatives from counties, the legislature, providers, consumers, advocacy groups, and appropriate state agencies.

Subd. 2. [FOCUS OF THE STUDY.] The task force shall consider at least the following matters related to day care:

(1) availability of liability insurance for providers;

(2) administration of the federal department of agriculture child care food program, including guidelines for administering the program in a manner that minimizes financial burdens on providers;

(3) wages of day care providers and day care staff;

(4) child care information and referral systems;

(5) identification of objectively validated indicators of quality day care;

(6) methods for establishing child/staff ratios that take into consideration the age distribution of children in day care;

(7) methods for establishing safety standards for day care facilities that consider the findings of empirical studies of fire detection factors, fire spread factors, and evacuation of day care homes in case of fire; and

(8) alternative methods of day care regulation that increase the variety of day care available to consumers and increase the types and categories of licensure, including conditional and restricted licenses.

Subd. 3. [REPORT ON STUDY OF BARRIERS TO CHILD CARE.] By January 1, 1987, the council on children, youth, and families shall submit to the health and human services committees of the legislature a report containing the findings and recommendations of the task force and proposals for legislative action. To the extent possible, the task force shall use existing research and published information in conducting the study and compiling the report.

Subd. 4. [ASSISTANCE TO THE TASK FORCE.] At the request of the council on children, youth, and families, state agencies and legislative research offices shall provide assistance to the task force.

“Section 1. [518.171] [MEDICAL SUPPORT.]

Subdivision 1. [ORDER.] As and for additional support, the court shall order the obligor to name the minor child as beneficiary on any health and dental insurance plan that is available to the obligor on a group basis through an employer or union and that provides at least the minimum benefits of a number two qualified plan as prescribed by section 62E.06.

If the court finds that dependent health or dental insurance is not available to the obligor on a group basis through an employer or union, or that the group insurer is not accessible to the obligee, the court may require the obligor to obtain dependent health or dental insurance comparable to a number two qualified plan, to be liable for all reasonable and necessary medical or dental expenses of the child, or to be liable to the obligee for the cost of maintaining the dependent health or dental insurance. When the court requires the obligor to be liable to the obligee for the cost to the obligee for maintaining dependent insurance, it shall order the payment as additional child support, and as such, it shall constitute an upward departure from the child support guidelines. The court may waive the requirements of this section upon agreement of the parties, or by making express findings of fact as to why the order would be unreasonable and unfair. An order for waiver must include findings of fact regarding the financial resources and needs of the children.

Subd. 2. [SPOUSAL COVERAGE.] The court shall require the obligor to provide dependent health and dental insurance for the benefit of the obligee if it is available at no additional cost to the obligor and in this case the provisions of this section apply.

Subd. 3. [IMPLEMENTATION.] A copy of the court order for insurance coverage shall be forwarded to the obligor's employer or union by the obligee or the public authority responsible for support enforcement only when ordered by the court or when the following conditions are met:

(1) the obligor fails to provide written proof to the obligee or the public authority, within 30 days of receiving effective notice of the court order, that the insurance has been obtained or that application for insurability has been made;

(2) the obligee or the public authority serves written notice of its intent to enforce medical support on the obligor by mail at his or her last known post office address; and

(3) the obligor fails within 15 days after the mailing of the notice to provide written proof to the obligee or the public authority that the insurance coverage existed as of the date of mailing.

Subd. 4. [EFFECT OF ORDER.] The order is binding on the employer or union when service under subdivision 3 has been made. Upon receipt of the order, or upon application of the obligor pursuant to the order, the employer or union shall enroll the minor child as a beneficiary in the insurance plan and withhold any required premium from the obligor's income or wages. If more than one plan is offered by the employer or union, the child shall be enrolled in the insurance plan in which the obligor is enrolled or the least costly plan otherwise available to the obligor that is comparable to a number two qualified plan. The insurance coverage for a child eligible under subdivision 5 shall not be terminated except as authorized in subdivision 5.

Subd. 5. [ELIGIBLE CHILD.] A minor child that an obligor is required to cover as a beneficiary pursuant to this section is eligible for insurance coverage as a dependent of the obligor until the child is emancipated or until further order of the court.

Subd. 6. [INSURER NOTICE.] The signature of the custodial parent of the insured dependent is a valid authorization to the insurer for purposes of processing an insurance reimbursement payment to the provider of the medical services. When an order for dependent insurance coverage is in effect and the obligor's employment is terminated, or the insurance coverage is terminated, the insurer shall notify the obligee within 10 days of the termination date with notice of conversion privileges.

Subd. 7. [RELEASE OF INFORMATION.] When an order for dependent insurance coverage is in effect, the obligor's employer or union shall release to the obligee or the public authority, upon request, information on the dependent coverage, including the name of the insurer. Notwithstanding any other law, information reported pursuant to section 268.121 shall be released to the public agency responsible for support enforcement that is enforcing an order for medical or dental insurance coverage under this section.

Subd. 8. [OBLIGOR LIABILITY.] The obligor that fails to maintain the medical or dental insurance for the benefit of the children as ordered shall be liable to the obligee for any medical or dental expenses incurred from the date of the court order. Proof of failure to maintain insurance constitutes a showing of increased need by the obligee pursuant to section 518.64 and provides a basis for a modification of the obligor's child support order.

Subd. 9. [APPLICATION FOR SERVICE.] The public agency responsible for support enforcement shall take necessary steps to implement and enforce an order for dependent health or dental insurance whenever the children receive public assistance, or upon application of the obligee to the public agency and payment by the obligee of any fees required by section 518.551."

(b) The responsibility to refrain from discussing price with the landowner before an appraisal has been made. In addition, the same person shall not both appraise and negotiate for purchase of a tract of land;

(c) The responsibility to use private fee appraisers to lower the state's acquisition costs to the greatest extent practicable; and

(d) The responsibility to acquire land in as expeditious a manner as possible. No option shall be made for a period of greater than two months if no survey is required or for nine months if a survey is required, unless the landowner, in writing, expressly requests a longer period of time. Provided that, if county board approval of the transaction is required pursuant to article 1, section ~~97.481~~ 28, no time limits shall apply. If the state elects not to purchase property upon which it has an option, it shall pay the landowner $500 after the expiration of the option period. If the state elects to purchase the property, unless the landowner elects otherwise, payment to the landowner shall be made no later than 90 days following the state's election to purchase the property provided that the title is marketable and the owner acts expeditiously to complete the transaction.

Sec. 6. [84.034] [MAINTENANCE OF CEMETERY IN WHITEWATER WILDLIFE MANAGEMENT AREA.]

The commissioner shall maintain in a proper and decent manner and keep free of weeds any cemetery in the Whitewater state wildlife management area. [99.251]

Sec. 7. [84.0894] [ENFORCEMENT OF AQUATIC PLANTS AND

ENDANGERED SPECIES.]

An enforcement officer shall enforce a violation of sections 8 to 12 in the same manner as a violation of the game and fish laws. [97.50 s.1, 5]

Sec. 8. [84.0895] [PROTECTION OF THREATENED AND ENDANGERED SPECIES.]

Subdivision 1. [PROHIBITION.] Notwithstanding any other law, a person may not take, import, transport, or sell any portion of an endangered species of wild animal or plant, or sell or possess with intent to sell an article made with any part of the skin, hide, or parts of an endangered species of wild animal or plant, except as provided in subdivisions 2 and 7. [97.488 s.7]

Subd. 2. [APPLICATION.] (a) Subdivision 1 does not apply to:

(1) plants on land classified for property tax purposes as class 2a or 2c agricultural land under section 273.13, or on ditches and roadways; and

(2) noxious weeds designated pursuant to sections 18.171 to 18.315 or to weeds otherwise designated as troublesome by the department of agriculture.

(b) If control of noxious weeds is necessary, it takes priority over the protection of endangered plant species, as long as a reasonable effort is taken to preserve the endangered plant species first.

(c) The taking or killing of an endangered plant species on land adjacent to class 3 or 3b agricultural land as a result of the application of pesticides or other agricultural chemical on the class 3 or 3b land is not a violation of subdivision 1, if reasonable care is taken in the application of the pesticide or other chemical to avoid impact on adjacent lands. For the purpose of this paragraph, class 3 or 3b agricultural land does not include timber land, waste land, or other land for which the owner receives a state paid wetlands or native prairie tax credit.

(d) The accidental taking of an endangered plant, where the existence of the plant is not known at the time of the taking, is not a violation of subdivision 1. [97.488 s.1a]

Subd. 3. [DESIGNATION.] (a) The commissioner shall adopt rules under chapter 14, to designate species of wild animal or plant as:

(1) endangered, if the species is threatened with extinction throughout all or a significant portion of its range;

(2) threatened, if the species is likely to become endangered within the foreseeable future throughout all or a significant portion of its range; or

(3) species of special concern, if although the species is not endangered or threatened, it is extremely uncommon in this state, or has unique or highly specific habitat requirements and deserves careful monitoring of its status. Species on the periphery of their range that are not listed as threatened may be included in this category along with those species that were once threatened or endangered but now have increasing or protected, stable populations.

(b) The range of the species in this state is a factor in determining its status as endangered, threatened, or of special concern. A designation by the secretary of the interior that a species is threatened or endangered is a prima facie showing under this section.

(c) The commissioner shall reevaluate the designated species list every three years after it is first adopted and make appropriate changes. The review must consider the need for further protection of species on the species of special concern list. Species may be withdrawn from designation in the same manner that species are designated. [97.488 s.2]

Subd. 4. [STUDIES.] The commissioner may conduct investigations to determine the status and requirements for survival of a resident species of wild animal or plant. [97.488 s.3].

Subd. 5. [MANAGEMENT.] (a) Notwithstanding any other law, the commissioner may undertake management programs, issue orders, and adopt rules necessary to bring a resident species of wild animal or plant that has been designated as threatened or endangered to a point at which it is no longer threatened or endangered.

(b) Subject to the provisions of subdivision 6, management programs for endangered or threatened species include research, census, law enforcement, habitat acquisition, habitat maintenance, propagation, live trapping, transplantation, and regulated taking. [97.488 s.4]

Subd. 6. [ENFORCEMENT.] A peace officer or conservation officer, pursuant to chapter 626, may execute a warrant to search for and seize goods, merchandise, plant or animal taken, sold or offered for sale in violation of this section, or items used in connection with a violation of this section. Seized property must be held pending judicial proceedings. Upon conviction, seized property is forfeited to the state and must be offered to a scientific or educational institution or destroyed. [97.488 s.5]

Subd. 7. [GENERAL EXCEPTIONS.] (a) The commissioner may prescribe conditions for an act otherwise prohibited by subdivision 1 if:

- (1) the act is for the purpose of zoological, educational, or scientific study;*
- (2) the act enhances the propagation or survival of the affected species;*
- (3) the act prevents injury to persons or property; or*
- (4) the social and economic benefits of the act outweigh the harm caused by it.*

(b) A member of an endangered species may not be destroyed under clauses (3) or (4) until all alternatives, including live trapping and transplantation, have been evaluated and rejected. The commissioner may prescribe conditions to propagate a species or subspecies.

(c) A person may capture or destroy a member of an endangered species, without permit, to avoid an immediate and demonstrable threat to human life or property.

(d) The commissioner must give approval under this subdivision for forest management, including permit, sale, or lease of land for timber harvesting. [97.488 s.6]

Subd. 8. [APPLICATION.] This section does not apply retroactively or prohibit importation into this state and subsequent possession, transport, and sale of wild animals, wild plants, or parts of wild animals or plants that are legally imported into the United States or legally acquired and exported from another territory, state, possession, or political subdivision of the United States. [97.488 s.7]

Subd. 2. [LICENSE REQUIRED.] A person may not harvest, buy, sell, transport, or possess aquatic plants without a license required under this chapter. A license shall be issued in the same manner as provided under the game and fish laws. [98.45 s.1; 98.50 s.1]

Subd. 3. [LICENSE FEES.] (a) The fees for the following licenses, to be issued to residents only, are:

(1) for harvesting wild rice, $10; [98.46 s.3]

(2) for buying and selling wild ginseng, $5; [98.46 s.3]

(3) for a wild rice dealer's license to buy and sell 50,000 pounds or less, $70; and [98.46 s.18]

(4) for a wild rice dealer's license to buy and sell more than 50,000 pounds, $250. [98.46 s.18]

(b) The weight of the wild rice shall be determined in its raw state. [98.46 s.18]

Sec. 10. [84.092] [PERMITS TO HARVEST OR DESTROY AQUATIC PLANTS OTHER THAN WILD RICE.]

(1) gather or harvest aquatic plants, or plant parts, other than wild rice from public waters;

(2) transplant any aquatic plants into other public waters;

(3) destroy harmful or undesirable aquatic vegetation or organisms in public waters under prescribed conditions to protect the waters, desirable species of fish, vegetation, other forms of aquatic life, and the public. An application for a permit must be accompanied by a permit fee, if required. [98.48 s.9]

Subd. 2. [FEES.] (a) The commissioner shall establish a fee schedule for permits to harvest aquatic plants other than wild rice, by order, after holding a public hearing. The fees may not exceed $100 per permit based upon the cost of receiving, processing, analyzing, and issuing the permit, and additional costs incurred after the application to inspect and monitor the activities authorized by the permit.

(b) A fee may not be charged to the state or a federal governmental agency applying for a permit.

(c) The money received for the permits under this subdivision shall be deposited in the treasury and credited to the game and fish fund. [98.48 s.9]

Subd. 3. [PERMIT STANDARDS.] The commissioner shall, by order, prescribe standards to issue and deny permits under subdivision 2. The standards must insure that aquatic plant control is consistent with shoreland conservation ordinances, lake management plans and programs, and wild and scenic river plans. [98.48 s.9]

Sec. 11. [84.093] [WILD GINSENG.]

The commissioner may establish regulations including seasons for harvesting to conserve wild ginseng. [97.48 s.18a]

Subd. 3. [APPLICATION.] (a) An application for a wild rice dealer's license must be made under a written oath. The form of a wild rice dealer's license application must include:

(1) the amount of wild rice, whether raw or processed, bought or sold by the applicant during the preceding calendar year;

(2) the amount of wild rice the applicant estimates will be bought or sold under the license; and

(3) other pertinent information required by the commissioner.

(b) The license fee must be paid in advance, based on the applicant's estimate. A license may not be issued for a fee based on a lesser amount of wild rice than was bought or sold by the applicant during the preceding calendar year. [98.46 s.18]

Subd. 4. [SUPPLEMENTAL LICENSE.] A wild rice dealer may not buy or sell wild rice for which a license is required in excess of the amount covered by the license. If a wild rice dealer desires to buy or sell wild rice in excess of the licensed amount, the dealer must apply for a supplemental license. The supplemental license shall be issued for the additional amount of wild rice upon payment of the prescribed fee, less credit for the fees paid for the previous license or licenses issued for the same calendar year. When the supplemental license is issued, the previous licenses held by the dealer shall be surrendered to the commissioner. [98.46 s.18]

*Subd. 5. [REPORTING REQUIREMENTS FOR BUYING WILD RICE.] Raw rice purchased by a dealer must be reported in accordance with this subdivision. A wild rice dealer shall submit an annual report to the commissioner and keep a complete record in a book of all wild rice bought or sold during the period covered by the license. A wild rice dealer must transmit a written report to the commissioner within ten days after the end of each calendar month during the period covered by the license. (1) willfully makes a false statement in an application for a license or in a required report or record; or

(2) violates a provision relating to wild rice dealers.

(b) Each violation is a separate offense. An acquittal prohibits later prosecution based on a similar charge involving other wild rice in the same transaction.

(c) If a wild rice dealer is convicted of two offenses under this subdivision within three years, the dealer's license is null and void and the dealer may not be issued a license for one year after the date of the conviction. [98.46 s.18]

The department shall have power and authority, by means of rules and regulations, to declare the terms and conditions of these licenses and permits and the charges to be made therefor. These regulations may specify and control the terms under and by which wild life may be taken, captured, or killed therein, and under and by which fur-bearing animals, or animals and fish otherwise having commercial value, may be taken, captured, trapped, killed, sold, and removed therefrom. These rules and regulations may also provide for the afforestation and reforestation of lands now or hereafter owned by the state in this game preserve and hunting grounds, and for the sale of merchantable timber from these lands when and where, in the opinion of the department, the same can be sold and removed without damage or injury to the further use and development of the land for a habitat of wild life and game in this game preserve and hunting ground, and for the purposes for which this preserve and hunting ground is established by sections 84A.01 to 84A.11. The department may provide for the policing of this preserve and hunting ground in such manner as may be needful for the proper development and use of the preserve and hunting ground for the purposes specified, and all supervisors, guards, custodians, and caretakers assigned to duty in this preserve and hunting ground shall have and possess the authority and powers of peace officers while in their employment. The department shall also make and enforce such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the laws of the state, concerning the burning of grass, timber slashings, and other inflammable matter, and the clearing, development, and use of lands in this preserve and hunting ground as may be necessary and advisable to prevent destructive forest fires and grass fires which would injure the use and development of this area for the preservation and propagation of wild life therein, and for the proper protection of the forest and wooded areas thereof. All lands within the boundaries of this preserve and hunting ground shall be subject to such rules and regulations, whether owned by the state or privately, consistent with the rights of the private owners and with the laws of this state now or hereafter applicable thereto. By such rules and regulations there may be established areas and zones within this preserve and hunting ground where hunting, fishing, trapping, or camping may be prohibited or specially regulated, for the purpose of protection and propagation of particular wild life therein.

All rules and regulations adopted and promulgated under the provisions of sections 84A.01 to 84A.11 shall be published in the manner now required by law under the provisions of article 1, section ~~97.53~~ 9, and shall be, in addition thereto, posted on the boundaries of this preserve and hunting ground.

The authority provided by this subdivision does not amend or repeal authority possessed by the commissioner of natural resources pursuant to article 1, section ~~97.53~~ 9, subdivision 2 3, and in no way is intended to modify or diminish authority possessed by the commissioner in relation to article 1, section ~~97.53~~ 9, subdivision 2 3.

However, after a state waterbank program has been established, wetlands which are eligible for inclusion in that program may be drained without a permit and without replacement of wetlands of equal or greater public value if the commissioner does not elect, within 60 days of the receipt of an application for a permit to drain the wetlands, to either (1) place the wetlands in the state waterbank program, or (2) acquire it pursuant to article 1, section ~~97.481~~ 28, or (3) indemnify the landowner through any other appropriate means, including but not limited to conservation restrictions, easements, leases, or any applicable federal program. If the applicant is not offered his choice of the above alternatives, he is entitled to drain the wetlands involved.

In addition, the owner or owners of lands underlying wetlands situated on privately owned lands may apply to the commissioner for a permit to drain the wetlands at any time after the expiration of ten years following the original designation thereof. Upon receipt of an application, the commissioner shall review the current status and conditions of the wetlands. If he finds that the current status or conditions are such that it appears likely that the economic or other benefits to the owner or owners which would result from drainage would exceed the public benefits of maintaining the wetlands, he shall grant the application and issue a drainage permit. If the application is denied, no additional application shall be made until the expiration of an additional ten years.

Sec. 4. [144A.44] [HOME CARE BILL OF RIGHTS.]

Subdivision 1. [STATEMENT OF RIGHTS.] A person who receives home care services has these rights:

(1) the right to receive written information about rights, including what to do if rights are violated;

"Home care services" means home care services as defined in section 3, subdivision 3. The right of access to records in subdivision 1, clause (10), is subject to the conditions and requirements of section 144.335. A home care agency may not require a person to surrender these rights as a condition of receiving services. A guardian or conservator or, when there is no guardian or conservator, a designated person, may seek to enforce these rights. This statement of rights does not replace or diminish other rights and liberties that may exist relative to persons receiving home care services, persons providing home care services, or agencies licensed under this act.

Sec. 5. [144A.45] [REGULATION OF HOME CARE SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] The commissioner shall regulate and control the delivery of home care services in order to protect consumers; assure quality of care; improve access to services; and prevent fraud.

Subd. 2. [REGULATORY FUNCTIONS.] The commissioner shall:

(1) evaluate, monitor, and license home care agencies in accordance with sections 5 to 7 and 16;

(2) inspect the office and records of an agency during regular business hours, provided that when conducting routine office visits or inspections, the commissioner shall provide at least 48 hours' advance notice to the home care agency;

(3) with the consent of the consumer, visit the home where services are being provided;

(4) issue correction orders and assess civil penalties in accordance with section 144.653, subdivisions 5 to 8;

(5) take other action reasonably required to accomplish the purposes of sections 2 to 7 and 16; and

(6) in conformity with this section and in consultation with representatives of the various kinds of providers of home care services, community health service agencies, and consumers, adopt rules governing home care agencies. The rules adopted by the commissioner may include the following:

(a) provisions to assure, to the extent possible, the health, safety and well-being, and appropriate treatment of persons who receive home care services;

(b) requirements that home care agencies furnish the commissioner specified information necessary to implement sections 2 to 7 and 16;

(c) standards of training of home care agency personnel, which may vary according to the nature of the services provided or the health status of the consumer;

(e) requirements for the involvement of a consumer's physician, the documentation of physicians' orders and the consumer's treatment plan, and the maintenance of accurate, current clinical records;

(f) exemptions of specified classes of agencies, in addition to those provided in section 6, subdivision 2, from licensure requirements. When determining whether to exempt a class of agencies, the commissioner shall consider: (1) the extent to which the agencies, or the individuals who provide services through the agencies, are regulated under another law; (2) the risk to the health, safety, and well-being of the client; and (3) other factors the commissioner considers appropriate;

(g) the establishment of different classes of licenses for different types of agencies and different standards and requirements for different kinds of home care services; and

(h) operating procedures required to implement the home care bill of rights.

In the exercise of the authority granted in sections 2 to 7 and 16, the commissioner shall comply with the applicable requirements of section 144.122, the government data practices act, and the administrative procedure act.

Sec. 6. [144A.46] [LICENSURE.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSE REQUIRED.] (a) A home care agency may not operate in the state without a current license issued by the commissioner of health.

(b) Within ten days after receiving an application for a license, the commissioner shall acknowledge receipt of the application in writing. The acknowledgement must indicate whether the application appears to be complete or whether additional information is required before the application will be considered complete. Within 60 days after receiving a complete application, the commissioner shall either grant or deny the license. If an applicant is not granted or denied a license within 60 days after submitting a complete application, the license must be deemed granted. An applicant whose license has been deemed granted must provide written notice to the commissioner before providing a home care service.

Subd. 2. [EXEMPTIONS.] The following individuals are exempt from the requirement to obtain a home care agency license:

(1) a person who is licensed under sections 148.171 to 148.285 and who independently provides nursing services in the home without any contractual or employment relationship to a home care agency or other organization;

(2) a personal care attendant who provides services under the medical assistance program as authorized under section 256B.02, subdivision 8, paragraph (17), and section 17;

An exemption under this subdivision does not excuse the individual from complying with applicable provisions of the home care bill of rights.

Subd. 3. [ENFORCEMENT.] The commissioner may refuse to grant or renew a license, or may suspend or revoke a license, for violation of statutes or rules relating to home care services or for conduct detrimental to the welfare of the consumer. In addition to any other remedy provided by law, the commissioner may, without a prior contested case hearing, temporarily suspend a license or prohibit delivery of services by an agency for not more than 60 days if the commissioner determines that the health or safety of a consumer is in imminent danger, provided (1) advance notice is given to the agency; (2) after notice, the agency fails to correct the problem; (3) the commissioner has reason to believe that other administrative remedies are not likely to be effective; and (4) there is a subsequent opportunity for a contested case hearing. The process of suspending or revoking a license must include a plan for transferring affected clients to other agencies. At the request of a licensee who has been issued a correction order, the commissioner shall order a review of the appropriateness of the correction order by a person designated by the commissioner other than the person who issued the correction order. The review process must allow an opportunity for the licensee to submit a brief explanation of the objections to the correction order. If, after receiving the report and recommendation of the reviewer, the commissioner determines that the correction order was issued inappropriately, the commissioner shall retract the correction order and remove from the licensee's record all references to the order.

Subd. 4. [RELATION TO OTHER REGULATORY PROGRAMS.] In the exercise of the authority granted under sections 2 to 7 and 16, the commissioner shall not duplicate or replace standards and requirements imposed under another state regulatory program. The commissioner shall not impose additional training or education requirements upon members of a licensed or registered occupation or profession, except as necessary to address or prevent problems that are unique to the delivery of services in the home or to enforce and protect the rights of consumers listed in section 4. For home care agencies certified under the medicare program, the state standards must not be inconsistent with the medicare standards for medicare services.

Subd. 5. [PRIOR CRIMINAL CONVICTIONS.] An applicant for a home care agency license shall disclose to the commissioner all criminal convictions of persons involved in the management, operation, or control of the agency. A home care agency shall require employees of the agency and applicants for employment to disclose all criminal convictions. No person may be employed by a home care agency or involved in the management, operation, or control of an agency, if the person has been convicted of a crime that relates to the provision of home care services or to the position, duties, or responsibilities undertaken by that person in the operation of the home care agency, unless the person can provide sufficient evidence of rehabilitation. The commissioner shall adopt rules for determining whether a crime relates to home care services and what constitutes sufficient evidence of rehabilitation. The rules must require consideration of the nature and seriousness of the crime; the relationship of the crime to the purposes of home care licensure and regulation; the relationship of the crime to the ability, capacity, and fitness required to perform the duties and discharge the responsibilities of the person's position; mitigating circumstances or social conditions surrounding the commission of the crime; the length of time elapsed since the crime was committed; the seriousness of the risk to the home care client's person or property; and other factors the commissioner considers appropriate.

Sec. 7. [144A.47] [INFORMATION AND REFERRAL SERVICES.]

The commissioner shall ensure that information and referral services relating to home care are available in all regions of the state. The commissioner shall collect and make available information about available home care services, sources of payment, agencies, and the rights of consumers. The commissioner may require home care agencies to provide information requested for the purposes of this section, including price information, as a condition of registration or licensure. Specific price information furnished by agencies under this section is not public data and must not be released without the written permission of the agency. The commissioner may publish and make available:

- (1) general information and a summary of the range of prices of home care services in the state;*
- (2) limitations on hours, availability of services, and eligibility for third-party payments, applicable to individual agencies; and*
- (3) other information the commissioner determines to be appropriate.*

473.612 [NOISE ABATEMENT PLAN.]

Subdivision 1. By December 31, 1981 the commission shall submit to the legislature a noise abatement plan for the Minneapolis-St. Paul International Airport, containing annual programmatic goals, numerical goals, and objectives until December 31, 1989, for reduction of aircraft noise within the metropolitan area. The plan shall also contain, but not be limited to, documentation of annual change in the maximum hourly noise levels, such as defined by Minnesota pollution control agency rules, Minnesota Rules, chapter 7010, based on the typically worst noise condition on an hourly basis received in residential areas representing the noise-impacted region of the metropolitan area. The pollution control agency shall participate in the selection and review of the monitoring of such residential areas.

Subd. 2. By December 31, 1982, and each year thereafter until December 31, 1989, the commission shall submit to the legislature and the pollution control agency a draft report detailing the accomplishment of programmatic goals and objectives and the annual change in noise levels as outlined in the above noise abatement plan. The report must include a five-year plan describing all proposed expansions of the runways or terminal that will cause an increase in aircraft operations or passenger enplanement levels. The report must analyze the noise impact of the proposed expansions. The report must detail the commission's progress in implementing section 2. The commission shall also submit the draft report to the metropolitan council, which shall review and comment on the report. By December 31, 1984, and each year thereafter until December 31, 1989, the commission shall submit to the legislature a report which includes any comments provided by the pollution control agency and the metropolitan council and the commission's response to the comments. In addition, the commission shall provide as part of the annual reports its best estimate, in the form of numerical goals, of noise abatement to be achieved by December 31, 1989, in residential areas representing the noise-impacted region of the metropolitan area. The goals shall be updated annually.

Sec. 2. [473.613] [AIRPORT NOISE REDUCTION.]

(3) a noise budget to prevent increases above the aggregate noise level in 1984.

Sec. 3. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 168.011, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 30. [FLEET.] "Fleet" means a combination of 1,000 or more vehicles and trailers owned by a person solely for the use of that person or employees of the person and registered in this state under section 2. It does not include vehicles licensed under section 168.187.

Sec. 2. [168.127] [FLEET VEHICLES; REGISTRATION, FEES.]

Subdivision 1. [REGISTRATION CATEGORY.] A unique registration category is established for vehicles and trailers of a fleet. Vehicles registered in the fleet must be issued a distinctive license plate. The design and size of the fleet license plate must be determined by the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [ANNUAL REGISTRATION PERIOD.] Instead of the registration period assigned for vehicles registered under sections 168.014, 168.017, and 168.12, subdivisions 1 and 2a, a person may register a fleet on an annual basis. The annual registration period for vehicles in the fleet will be determined by the commissioner. By January 1, the applicant must provide all information necessary to qualify as a fleet registrant including a list of all vehicles in the fleet. On initial registration, all taxes and fees for vehicles in the fleet must be reassessed based on the expiration date. Gross weights for fleet vehicles may not be changed during the registration period.

Subd. 3. [REGISTRATION CARDS ISSUED.] On approval of the application for fleet registration the commissioner must issue a registration card for each qualified vehicle in the fleet. The registration card must be carried in the vehicle at all times and be made available to a peace officer on demand. Validation stickers must be issued to vehicles registered by gross weight.

Subd. 4. [FILING REGISTRATION APPLICATIONS.] Initial fleet applications for registration must be filed with the registrar or authorized representative at the main headquarters offices of the department of public safety in St. Paul. Renewal applications for fleet registrations may be filed either in the St. Paul office or with a deputy registrar.

Subd. 5. [RENEWAL OF FLEET REGISTRATION.] On the renewal of a fleet registration the registrant shall pay full licensing fees for every vehicle registered in the preceding year unless the vehicle has been properly deleted from the fleet. In order to delete a vehicle from a fleet, the fleet registrant must surrender to the commissioner the registration card, validation stickers, and license plates. If the card, stickers, or license plates are lost or stolen, the fleet registrant shall submit a sworn statement stating the circumstances for the inability to surrender the card, stickers, and license plates. The commissioner shall assess a penalty of 20 percent of the total tax due on the fleet against the fleet registrant who fails to renew the licenses issued under this section or fails to report the removal of vehicles from the fleet within 30 days. The penalty must be paid within 30 days after it is assessed.

Subd. 6. [FEES.] Instead of the $3.25 filing fee for each vehicle, the applicant shall pay a $3.25 administrative fee for each vehicle in the fleet. The administrative fee must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the highway user tax distribution fund. A filing fee of $3.25 must be collected by the processing office for an application regardless of the number of vehicles listed."

Subdivision 1. [OFFICIAL PRESCRIPTION BLANKS.] The commissioner of public safety shall furnish serially-numbered, triplicate-copy official prescription blanks to persons authorized to write prescriptions for schedule II substances. Prior to distributing blanks to authorized persons, the commissioner shall imprint upon each blank the name, address, category of professional licensure and specialization, federal drug enforcement administration number, and state professional license number of the person to whom the blanks will be furnished. Each official prescription blank must contain spaces for: (1) the date the prescription is written; (2) the name, address, and age of the person for whom the substance is prescribed or, if the ultimate user is an animal, the species of the animal and the name and address of the owner; (3) information concerning the form of identification presented to the pharmacist or other methods used to authenticate the prescription; (4) the drug prescribed, the numerical and written dosage, instructions for use, and a notation of whether the drug was dispensed directly to the patient by the practitioner; (5) the date the prescription is filled; (6) the name, address, and federal drug enforcement administration number of the dispensing pharmacy and the name and license number of the pharmacist who fills the prescription; and (7) the national drug code product identification number of the substance prescribed. The commissioner of public safety shall charge a fee for the blanks that is sufficient to cover printing and distribution costs. Official prescription blanks are not transferable. Within seven days after a practitioner's license to practice or federal drug enforcement administration number has been suspended, canceled, denied, surrendered, or revoked, the practitioner shall return to the commissioner of public safety all official prescription blanks in the practitioner's possession that have not been used for prescriptions. A person who possesses an official prescription blank other than as authorized in this section is guilty of a misdeemeanor.

Subd. 2. [DUTIES OF PRESCRIBERS.] Except as allowed under subdivision 4 and section 152.11, subdivision 1, a prescription for a schedule II drug authorized by section 152.11 must be written on an official prescription blank issued by the commissioner of public safety under subdivision 1. The prescribing practitioner shall enter on the blank the following information: (1) the date the prescription is written; (2) the drug prescribed, the dosage, and instructions for use; and (3) the name, address, and age of the patient (or, in the case of an animal, its owner) for whom the substance is prescribed. This information must be legible on all three copies of the blank. The prescriber shall sign the first and second copies and give them to the person authorized to receive the prescription. If a practitioner dispenses a schedule II drug directly to a patient, the practitioner must mark the appropriate space on the prescription form, enter the national drug code product identification number, and send the first and second copies to the commissioner of public safety. The prescriber shall retain the third copy for a period of not less than two years from the date the prescription is written.

Subd. 3. [DUTIES OF PHARMACISTS.] A pharmacist shall not dispense a schedule II substance except pursuant to a prescription properly written on an official prescription blank or pursuant to an emergency oral prescription authorized under subdivision 4. If the identification provided reasonably satisfies the pharmacist that the person is the patient for whom the prescription was written or is the legitimate representative of the patient, the pharmacist shall record identifying numbers and a brief description of the identification provided. If no satisfactory identification is available, the pharmacist shall contact the prescriber for information verifying the authenticity of the prescription and generally identifying the person presenting the prescription. The pharmacist must not deny a person medication solely because no identification is provided, but only if circumstances create a reasonable question regarding the legitimacy of the prescription or the authority of the person presenting the prescription to receive the substance. A pharmacist who dispenses a prescription recorded on an official prescription blank shall enter on copies one and two of the blank, in the spaces provided,

(1) the date the prescription is filled;

(2) identifying numbers and a brief description of the identification provided by the person presenting the prescription or, if no form of identification was provided, the method used to authenticate the prescription and establish the authority of the person to receive it;

(3) the name, address, and federal drug enforcement administration number of the dispensing pharmacy;

(4) the name and state professional license number of the pharmacist who fills the prescription; and

(5) the national drug code product identification number. The dispensing pharmacist shall sign the first copy and send it to the commissioner of public safety within 30 days from the date the prescription is filled. The dispensing pharmacist shall retain the second copy for a period of not less than two years in conformity with section 152.101.

Subd. 4. [EMERGENCY ORAL PRESCRIPTIONS.] A schedule II substance may be dispensed without an official prescription blank pursuant to an emergency oral prescription as authorized by federal law. A substance dispensed pursuant to an emergency oral prescription must not be dispensed later than 24 hours after the oral authorization was received and the amount of the substance dispensed must not exceed a three-day supply if taken according to the directions for its use. At the time the oral prescription is given, the prescriber shall provide the pharmacist with the information required to be entered upon an official blank by the prescriber under subdivision 2. The pharmacist shall promptly record the information provided by the prescriber and the information required to be entered on an official blank by the dispensing pharmacist under subdivision 3. Within 72 hours after authorizing an emergency oral prescription, the prescribing practitioner shall record the information required under subdivision 2 upon an official prescription blank and deliver to the pharmacist the original and one copy upon which has been written the words "authorization for emergency dispensing." The pharmacist shall enter the required information upon the official form, file a copy with the commissioner of public safety as required under subdivision 3, and retain a copy in conformity with subdivision 3 and section 152.101. If the pharmacist does not receive the prescription within 72 hours after dispensing the substance, the pharmacist shall notify the commissioner of public safety no later than seven days after the substance was dispensed.

Subd. 5. [USE AND RELEASE OF INFORMATION.] Information submitted to the commissioner of public safety under this section is confidential data on individuals, as defined in section 13.02, subdivision 3, and must be used only for bona fide drug-related criminal investigations or prosecutions; by one or more of the state boards responsible for regulating persons authorized to write or dispense prescriptions, for investigations or disciplinary actions; or by the commissioner of human services. The commissioner of public safety shall not release or permit access to information received under this section except to authorized officers of the department of public safety and authorized representatives or investigators of the commissioner of human services or the boards of medical examiners, podiatry, dentistry, veterinary medicine, or pharmacy. Prescription blanks and information concerning specific prescribers, patients, or pharmacists must be destroyed after two years unless related to an active investigation or pending civil, criminal, or disciplinary proceeding. The system for retrieving information submitted to the commissioner of public safety under this section must be designed to preclude improper access to information through the use of automated information security techniques and devices. The commissioner of public safety shall consult the commissioner of human services, the board of pharmacy and each of the state boards responsible for regulating persons authorized to write or dispense prescriptions during the process of developing the information system and the standards and criteria for evaluating data, and shall submit the proposed design to the boards and the commissioner of human services for final review and comment before implementation.

Subd. 6. [IMPLEMENTATION.] The commissioner of public safety, with the assistance of the commissioner of human services and the boards of pharmacy, medical examiners, veterinary medicine, podiatry, and dentistry, shall provide information to all affected practitioners, in a timely manner, to assist them in complying with this act.

Guidelines for support for an obligor with a monthly income of $6001 or more shall be the same dollar amounts as provided for in the guidelines for an obligor with a monthly income of $6000.

Net Income defined as:

Total monthly income less

- *(1) Federal Income Tax
- *(2) State Income Tax
- (3) Social Security Deductions
- (4) Mandatory Pension Deductions
- (5) Union Dues
- (6) Cost of Dependent Health Insurance Coverage
- (7) Cost of Individual Health/Hospitalization Coverage or an Equivalent Amount for Actual Medical Expenses.

*Standard Deductions apply-use of tax tables recommended

(a) The child support payment guidelines take into consideration the following criteria:

(1) all earnings, income, and resources of the obligor including real and personal property;

- (2) the basic living needs of the obligor;
- (3) the financial needs of the child or children to be supported; and
- (4) the amount of the aid to families with dependent children grant for the child or children.

(b) In establishing a support obligation, the court may consider debts owed to private creditors, but only if:

- (1) the right to support has not been assigned under section 256.74;
- (2) the debt was reasonably incurred for necessary support of the child or obligee or for the necessary generation of income. If the debt was incurred for the necessary generation of income, the court shall consider only the amount of debt that is essential to the continuing generation of income;
- (3) the party requesting a departure produces a sworn schedule of the debts, with supporting documentation, showing goods or services purchased, the recipient of them, the amount of the original debt, the outstanding balance, the monthly payment, and the number of months until the debt will be fully paid; and
- (4) the court determines that the debt was legitimately incurred for the necessary support of the child or obligee or for the necessary generation of income.

Any schedule prepared under paragraph (b), clause (3), shall contain a statement that the debt will be fully paid after the number of months shown in the schedule, barring emergencies beyond the party's control.

The court shall order child support in accordance with the guidelines and any departure therefrom. Any further departure below the guidelines that is based on a consideration of debts owed to private creditors shall not exceed 18 months in duration, after which the support shall increase automatically to the level ordered by the court. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit one or more step increases in support to reflect debt retirement during the 18-month period.

Where payment of debt is ordered pursuant to this section, the payment shall be ordered to be in the nature of child support.

(c) Previous support orders and maintenance orders may be considered if the obligor is paying them.

(d) Nothing shall preclude the court from receiving evidence on the above factors to determine if the guidelines should be exceeded or modified in a particular case.

(e) The above guidelines are binding in each case unless the court makes express findings of fact as to the reason for departure ~~below from the guidelines in that case in which the court orders support that so deviates from the guidelines. It may also increase the amount of child support by more than the guidelines without making express findings by agreement of the parties or by making further findings.~~ The court, in addition to other factors, may deviate from the guidelines after considering the factors in section 518.17, subdivision 4.

SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [MEDIATION PROCEEDING.] If it appears on the face of the petition or other application for an order or modification of an order for the custody of a child that custody is contested, as provided in sections 518.155 to 518.185, the matter shall be set for mediation of the contested issue prior to or concurrent with the setting of the matter for hearing. The purpose of the mediation proceeding is to reduce acrimony which may exist between the parties and to develop an agreement assuring the child's close and continuing contact with both parents after the marriage is dissolved. The mediator shall use best efforts to effect a settlement of the custody dispute.

Subd. 2. [MEDIATOR APPOINTMENT.] Each family court shall make available a mediator. The mediator must be a member of the professional staff of a family court, probation department, or mental health services agency, unless such a person is not available. The mediator must be on a list of mediators approved by the court having jurisdiction of the matter, unless the parties stipulate to a mediator not on the list.

Subd. 3. [PROCEEDINGS PRIVATE.] Mediation proceedings shall be held in private and shall be confidential.

Subd. 4. [MEDIATOR AUTHORITY.] The mediator shall have the authority to exclude counsel from participation in the mediation proceedings if the mediator believes that exclusion of counsel is appropriate or necessary. The mediator shall assess the needs and interests of the child involved in the controversy and may interview the child if the mediator finds an interview appropriate or necessary.

Subd. 5. [MEDIATOR RECOMMENDATIONS.] The mediator may, consistent with local court rules, make a recommendation to the court as to the custody of the child. When the parties have not reached agreement as a result of the mediation proceeding, the mediator may recommend to the court that an investigation be conducted under section 518.167, or that other action be taken to assist the parties to resolve the controversy before hearing on the issues. The mediator may recommend that mutual restraining orders be issued in appropriate cases, pending determination of the controversy, to protect the well-being of the children involved in the controversy.

Subd. 6. [MEDIATION AGREEMENT.] An agreement reached by the parties as a result of mediation shall be filed with the court and served on the attorneys for the parties by the mediator on the day the mediation is finished, or any time after as designated by the court.

Subd. 7. [RULES.] Each court shall adopt rules to implement this section, and shall compile and maintain a list of mediators.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 518.64, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [MODIFICATION.] The terms of a decree respecting maintenance or support may be modified upon a showing of one or more of the following: (1) substantially increased or decreased earnings of a party; (2) substantially increased or decreased need of a party; (3) receipt of assistance under sections 256.72 to 256.87; or (4) a change in the cost-of-living for either party as measured by the federal bureau of statistics, any of which makes the terms unreasonable and unfair. On a motion for modification of maintenance, the court shall apply, in addition to all other relevant factors, the factors for an award of maintenance under section 518.552 that exist at the time of the motion. On a motion for modification of support, the court shall take into consideration the needs of the children and shall not consider the financial circumstances of each party's spouse, if any. A modification which decreases support or maintenance may be made retroactive only upon a showing that any failure to pay in accord with the terms of the original order was not willful. A modification which increases support or maintenance shall not be made retroactive if the obligor has substantially complied with the previous order. Except for an award of the right of occupancy of the homestead, provided in section 518.63, all divisions of real and personal property provided by section 518.58 shall be final, and may be revoked or modified only where the court finds the existence of conditions that justify reopening a judgment under the laws of this state. The court may impose a lien or charge on the divided property at any time while the property, or subsequently acquired property, is owned by the parties or either of them, for the payment of maintenance or support money, or may sequester the property as is provided by section 518.24."

Mr. Merriam from the Committee on Agriculture and Natural Resources, to which was referred

S.F. No. 1559: A bill for an act relating to agriculture; making changes related to agricultural credit and agricultural collateral; changing priority of security interests related to agricultural products; amending Minnesota Statutes 1984, sections 336.9-307; 336.9-312; 336.9-315; 336.9-402; and 336.9-403; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 514.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

336.9-312 [PRIORITIES AMONG CONFLICTING SECURITY INTERESTS IN THE SAME COLLATERAL.]

(1) The rules of priority stated in other sections of this part and in the following sections shall govern when applicable: section 336.4-208 with respect to the security interests of collecting banks in items being collected, accompanying documents and proceeds; section 336.9-103 on security interests related to other jurisdictions; section 336.9-114 on consignments.

(2) A perfected security interest in crops for new value given to enable the debtor to produce the crops during the production season and given not more than three months before the crops become growing crops by planting or otherwise takes priority over an earlier perfected security interest to the extent that such earlier interest secures obligations due more than six months before the crops become growing crops by planting or otherwise, even though the person giving new value had knowledge of the earlier security interest.

(2) (a) A production money security interest in farm products and proceeds of the farm products takes priority over a conflicting security interest in the farm products or proceeds of the farm products, if the production money security interest in the farm products and proceeds of the farm products is perfected by 20 days after the debtor receives the goods or services acquired with the value secured by the production money security interest. Priority among conflicting production money security interests in the same farm products or proceeds shall be on a pro rata basis.

(b) A production money security interest is a security interest in farm products for new value given to enable the debtor to acquire goods or services used in producing or raising the farm products if the value is in fact so used. The new value given may be by loan of money by a lender or other financier or by extension of credit by a seller or other supplier. A security interest in farm products taken or retained by the seller, lessor, or any other supplier or financier of machinery, farm implements, or other goods that do not directly add value to the farm products, to secure a debt owed with respect to the machinery, farm implements, or other goods is not a production money security interest.

(c) The creating or perfecting of a production money security interest shall not operate under any circumstances as a default on, an accelerating event under, or otherwise as a breach of: any note or other instrument or agreement of any kind or nature to pay debt; any loan or credit agreement; or any security arrangement of any kind or nature whether the collateral is real or personal property.

(3) A perfected purchase money security interest in inventory has priority over a conflicting security interest in the same inventory and also has priority in identifiable cash proceeds received on or before the delivery of the inventory to a buyer if

(a) the purchase money security interest is perfected at the time the debtor receives possession of the inventory; and

(b) the purchase money secured party gives notification in writing to the holder of the conflicting security interest if the holder had filed a financing statement covering the same types of inventory (i) before the date of the filing made by the purchase money secured party, or (ii) before the beginning of the 21 day period where the purchase money security interest is temporarily perfected without filing or possession (subsection (5) of section 336.9-304); and

(c) the holder of the conflicting security interest receives the notification within five years before the debtor receives possession of the inventory; and

(d) the notification states that the person giving the notice has or expects to acquire a purchase money security interest in inventory of the debtor, describing such inventory by item or type.

(4) A purchase money security interest in collateral other than inventory has priority over a conflicting security interest in the same collateral or its proceeds if the purchase money security interest is perfected at the time the debtor receives possession of the collateral or within 20 days thereafter.

(5) In all cases not governed by other rules stated in this section (including cases of purchase money security interests which do not qualify for the special priorities set forth in subsections (3) and (4) of this section), priority between conflicting security interests in the same collateral shall be determined according to the following rules:

(a) Conflicting security interests rank according to priority in time of filing or perfection. Priority dates from the time a filing is first made covering the collateral or the time the security interest is first perfected, whichever is earlier, provided that there is no period thereafter when there is neither filing nor perfection.

(b) so long as conflicting security interests are unperfected, the first to attach has priority.

(6) For the purposes of subsection (5) a date of filing or perfection as to collateral is also a date of filing or perfection as to proceeds.

(7) If future advances are made while a security interest is perfected by filing, the taking of possession, or under section 336.8-321 on securities, the security interest has the same priority for the purposes of subsection (5) with respect to the future advances as it does with respect to the first advance. If a commitment is made before or while the security interest is so perfected, the security interest has the same priority with respect to advances made pursuant thereto. In other cases a perfected security interest has priority from the date the advance is made.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 514.952, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [EFFECT OF RESPONSE.] (a) If a lender responds by ten calendar days after receiving the lien-notification statement with a letter of commitment for part or all of the amount in the lien-notification statement, the supplier may not obtain a lien for the amount stated in the letter of commitment.

(b) If a lender responds with a refusal to provide a letter of commitment the rights of the lender and the supplier are not affected.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 514.952, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [LIEN PRIORITY.] (a) For conflicting liens or security interests in the same collateral an agricultural production input lien does not have priority over liens that arise under chapter 395 or 514, or over perfected liens or security interests for unpaid rent for the land where the crops were grown.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (a), agricultural production input liens are a security interest and have priority according to chapter 336, the uniform commercial code, except as provided in subdivision 5 over conflicting liens or security interests in crops, livestock, and their products or proceeds if the lien or security interest does not secure new value given to enable the debtor to acquire goods or services in producing or raising the crops, livestock, or their products and the value was in fact used for that purpose.

(c) Priority among conflicting agricultural production input liens and production money security interests under section 336.9-312(2) in the same crops, livestock, or their products or proceeds shall be on a pro rata basis.

(d) The creating or perfecting of an agricultural production input lien shall not operate under any circumstances as a default on, an accelerating event under, or otherwise as a breach of: any note or other instrument or agreement of any kind or nature to pay debt; any loan or credit agreement; or any security arrangement of any kind or nature whether the collateral is real or personal property.

Sec. 4. [514.960] [LANDLORD LIEN.]

Subdivision 1. [LIEN; ATTACHMENT.] A person or entity that leases property for agricultural production has a lien for unpaid rent on the crops produced on the property in the crop year, and the crop products and their proceeds.

Subd. 2. [PERFECTION.] (a) To perfect a landlord lien, the lien must attach and the person or entity entitled to the lien must file a lien statement with the appropriate filing office under section 336.9-401 by 30 days after the crops become growing crops.

(b) A landlord lien that is not perfected has the priority of an unperfected security interest under section 336.9-312.

Subd. 3. [DUTIES OF FILING OFFICER.] The filing officer shall enter on the lien statement the time of day and date of filing. The filing officer shall file, amend, terminate, note the filing of a lien statement, and charge the fee for filing under this section in the manner provided by section 336.9-403 for a financing statement. A lien statement is void and may be removed from the filing system 18 months after the date of filing. The lien statement may be physically destroyed after 30 months from the date of filing.

Subd. 4. [PRIORITY.] A landlord lien has priority over all other liens or security interests in crops grown or produced on the property that was leased and the crop products and proceeds.

Subd. 5. [ENFORCEMENT OF LIEN.] The holder of a landlord lien may enforce the lien in the manner provided in sections 336.9-501 to 336.9-508 subject to section 550.17. For enforcement of the lien, the lienholder is the secured party and the person leasing the property is the debtor, and each has the respective rights and duties of a secured party and a debtor under sections 336.9-501 to 336.9-508. If a right or duty under sections 336.9-501 to 336.9-508 is contingent upon the existence of express language in a security agreement or may be waived by express language in a security agreement, the requisite language does not exist.

Subd. 6. [ENFORCEMENT ACTIONS; LIEN EXTINGUISHED.] An action to enforce a landlord lien may be brought in district court in a county where the property is located after the lien is perfected. A lien statement may be amended, except the amount demanded, by leave of the court in the furtherance of justice. A landlord lien is extinguished if an action to enforce the lien is not brought within 18 months after the date the lien statement is filed.

Sec. 3. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 514.952, subdivision 5, is repealed.

Sec. 4. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Delete the title and insert:

"A bill for an act relating to agriculture; providing security interests in goods that become part of crops and livestock; establishing priority of interests and liens in agricultural collateral; amending Minnesota Statutes 1984, sections 336.9-312; and 514.952, subdivision 6; Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 514.952, subdivision 4; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 514; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 514.952, subdivision 5."

And when so amended the bill do pass and be re-referred to the Committee on Judiciary. Amendments adopted. Report adopted.

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 3.736, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Unless specifically authorized by section 60A.06, subdivision 1, clause (4), it is unlawful to combine in one policy coverage permitted by section 60A.06, subdivision 1, clauses (4) and (5)(a). This subdivision does not prohibit the simultaneous sale of these products, but the sale must involve two separate and distinct policies. This subdivision does not apply to group policies.*

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 60A.10, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DOMESTIC COMPANIES.] (1) [DEPOSIT AS SECURITY FOR ALL POLICYHOLDERS REQUIRED.] No company in this state, other than farmers' mutual, or real estate title insurance companies, shall do business in this state unless it has on deposit with the commissioner, for the protection of both its resident and nonresident policyholders, securities to an amount, the actual market value of which, exclusive of interest, shall never be less than $200,000 until July 1, 1986, $300,000 until July 1, 1987, $400,000 until July 1, 1988, and $500,000 on and after July 1, 1988 or one-half the applicable financial requirement set forth in section 60A.07, whichever is less. The securities shall be retained under the control of the commissioner as long as any policies of the depositing company remain in force.

(2) [SECURITIES DEFINED.] For the purpose of this subdivision, the word "securities" means bonds or other obligations of, or bonds or other obligations insured or guaranteed by, the United States, any state of the United States, any municipality of this state, or any agency or instrumentality of the foregoing.

(3) [PROTECTION OF DEPOSIT FROM LEVY.] No judgment creditor or other claimant may levy upon any securities held on deposit with, or for the account of, the commissioner. Upon the entry of an order by a court of competent jurisdiction for the rehabilitation, liquidation or conservation of any foreign or domestic insurance company authorized to transact the business of insurance in Minnesota is adjudicated insolvent, or whenever its policies are declared null and void by court order, the commissioner of commerce shall ascertain the names and last known addresses of all Minnesota policyholders of said company, and shall notify all Minnesota policyholders within 30 days of such adjudication or court order. In the case of foreign insurers authorized to do business in this state, the commissioner of commerce may elect to notify all of the company's licensed agents in Minnesota with a directive that the agents notify all insureds of the company's insolvency or that its policies have been declared null and void.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 60A.25, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [NOTIFICATION OF POLICYHOLDERS.] Whenever

Subd. 2. [REMITTANCE OF PREMIUMS.] Every agency contract written by an insurance company writing property and casualty insurance in Minnesota shall contain or be construed to contain the following provision: "Notwithstanding any other provision of this contract, the obligation of the agent to remit written premiums to the company shall be changed upon the commencement of any administrative or legal proceeding by any state against the carrier regarding its financial condition. After the commencement of the proceedings, the obligation of the agent to remit premiums shall be confined to the premiums earned before the commencement of the proceedings. The agent shall not owe or remit to the company or to the liquidator or receiver any premiums that are unearned as of the date of the commencement of the delinquency proceedings, and any unearned premiums in the possession of the agent on the date shall be returned promptly by the agent to the insured or, with the approval of the insured, be used to purchase new coverage for the insured with a different insurer."

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 60C.09, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITION.] A covered claim is any unpaid claim, including one for unearned premium, which:

(a) (1) Arises out of and is within the coverage of an insurance policy issued by a member insurer if the insurer becomes an insolvent insurer after April 30, 1979; or

(2) Would be within the coverage of an extended reporting endorsement to a claims-made insurance policy if insolvency had not prevented the member insurer from fulfilling its obligation to issue the endorsement, if:

(i) the claims-made policy contained a provision affording the insured the right to purchase a reporting endorsement;

(ii) coverage will be no greater than if a reporting endorsement had been issued;

(iii) the insured has not purchased other insurance which applies to the claim; and

(iv) the insured's deductible under the policy is increased by an amount equal to the premium for the reporting endorsement if one had been issued.

(b) Arises out of a class of business which is not excepted from the scope of Laws 1971, chapter 145 by section 60C.02; and

(c) Is made by:

(i) A policyholder, or an insured beneficiary under a policy, who, at the time of the insured event, was a resident of this state; or

(ii) A person designated in the policy as having an insurable interest in or related to property situated in this state at the time of the insured event; or

(iii) An obligee or creditor under any surety bond, who, at the time of default by the principal debtor or obligor, was a resident of this state; or

(iv) A third party claimant under a liability policy or surety bond, if: (a) the insured or the third party claimant was a resident of this state at the time of the insured event; (b) the claim is for bodily or personal injuries suffered in this state by a person who when he suffered the injuries was a resident of this state; or (c) the claim is for damages to real property situated in this state at the time of damage; or

(v) A direct or indirect assignee of a person who except for the assignment might have claimed under (i), (ii) or (iii).

A covered claim also includes any unpaid claim which arises or exists within 30 days after the time of entry of an order of liquidation with a finding of insolvency by a court of competent jurisdiction unless prior thereto the insured replaces the policy or causes its cancellation or the policy expires on its expiration date.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 62A.02, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [APPROVAL.] No such policy shall be issued, nor shall any application, rider, or endorsement be used in connection therewith, until the expiration of ~~30~~ 60 days after it has been so filed unless the commissioner shall sooner give his written approval thereto.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 62A.02, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DISAPPROVAL.] The commissioner shall, within ~~30~~ 60 days after the filing of any form, disapprove the form:

(1) if the benefits provided therein are unreasonable in relation to the premium charged;

(2) if it contains a provision or provisions which are unjust, unfair, inequitable, misleading, deceptive or encourage misrepresentation of the policy; or

(3) If the proposed premium rate is excessive because the insurer has failed to exercise reasonable cost control.

For the purposes of clause (1), the commissioner shall establish by rule a schedule of minimum anticipated loss ratios which shall be based on (i) the type or types of coverage provided, (ii) whether the policy is for group or individual coverage, and (iii) the size of the group for group policies. Except for individual policies of disability or income protection insurance, the minimum anticipated loss ratio shall not be less than 50 percent after the first year that a policy is in force. All applicants for a policy shall be informed in writing at the time of application of the anticipated loss ratio of the policy. For the purposes of this subdivision, "anticipated loss ratio" means the ratio at the time of form filing or at the time of subsequent rate revision of the present value of all expected future benefits, excluding dividends, to the present value of all expected future premiums. Nothing in this paragraph shall prohibit the commissioner from disapproving a form which meets the requirements of this paragraph but which the commissioner determines still provides benefits which are unreasonable in relation to the premium charged. ~~The commissioner may until December 31, 1978, exercise emergency power for the purpose of implementing the minimum anticipated loss ratio requirement, and for this purpose may adopt emergency rules as provided in sections 14.29 to 14.36. Notwithstanding the expiration of the commissioner's emergency power, any emergency rule adopted by him prior to the expiration of his emergency power may remain effective for the periods authorized in sections 14.29 to 14.36.~~

If the commissioner notifies an insurer which has filed any form that the form does not comply with the provisions of this section or sections 62A.03 to 62A.05 and section 72A.20, it shall be unlawful thereafter for the insurer to issue the form or use it in connection with any policy. In the notice the commissioner shall specify the reasons for his disapproval and state that a hearing will be granted within 20 days after request in writing by the insurer.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 62A.17, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [RESPONSIBILITY OF EMPLOYEE.] Every eligible employee electing to continue coverage shall pay his former employer, on a monthly basis, the cost of the continued coverage. If the policy, contract, or health care plan is administered by a trust, every eligible employee electing to continue coverage shall pay the trust the cost of continued coverage according to the eligibility rules established by the trust. The employee shall be eligible to continue the coverage until he becomes re-employed and ~~eligible for~~ has obtained health care coverage under a group policy, contract, or plan sponsored by the same or another employer, or for a period of 12 months after the termination of or lay off from employment, whichever is shorter.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 62B.07, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The commissioner shall within ~~30~~ 60 days after the filing of policies, certificates of insurance, notices of proposed insurance, applications for insurance, endorsements and riders, disapprove any such form if the premium rates charged or to be charged are excessive in relation to benefits, or if it contains provisions which are unjust, unfair, inequitable, misleading, deceptive or encourage misrepresentation of the coverage, or are contrary to any provision of the insurance laws or of any rule or regulation promulgated thereunder. In order to determine whether the premium to be charged under a particular policy form submitted by an insurer is excessive in relation to benefits, and to facilitate the submission and approval of policy forms and premium rates to be used in connection therewith, the commissioner shall give full consideration to and make reasonable allowances for underwriting expenses including, but not limited to, claim adjustment expenses, general administrative expenses including costs for handling return premiums, compensation to agents, expense allowances to creditors, if any, branch and field expenses and other acquisition costs, the types of policies actually issued and authorized as defined in section 62B.03, (1); (2); (3) and (4), and any and all other factors and trends demonstrated to be relevant. An insurer may support these factors by statistical information, experience, actuarial computations, and/or estimates certified by an executive officer of the insurer, and the commissioner shall give due consideration to such supporting data.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 62B.07, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. If the commissioner notifies the insurer that the form is disapproved, it is unlawful thereafter for the insurer to issue or use it. In his notice, the commissioner shall specify the reason for his disapproval and state that a hearing will be granted within 20 days after a request in writing by the insurer. No policy, certificate of insurance, notice of proposed insurance, nor any application, endorsement or rider, shall be issued or used until the expiration of 30 60 days after it has been filed, unless the commissioner gives his prior written approval thereto.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 62C.14, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. Except as otherwise provided in subdivision 9, all forms received by the commissioner shall be deemed filed 30 60 days after received unless disapproved by order transmitted to the corporation stating that the form used in a specified respect is contrary to law, contains a provision or provisions which are unfair, inequitable, misleading, inconsistent or ambiguous, or is in part illegible. It shall be unlawful to issue or use a document disapproved by the commissioner.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 62E.14, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PRE-EXISTING CONDITIONS.] No person who obtains coverage pursuant to this section shall be covered for any pre-existing condition during the first six months of coverage under the state plan if the person was diagnosed or treated for that condition during the 90 days immediately preceding the filing of an application. Notwithstanding this restriction, terminated employees subject to sections 62A.17 and 62E.16 may, in lieu of a conversion contract election, enroll with a waiver of the preexisting condition limitation.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 62F.06, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. A policy issued by the association shall provide for a continuous period of coverage beginning with its effective date and terminating automatically at 12:01 a.m. on September 1, 1988, or sooner as provided in sections 62F.01 to 62F.14. The policy shall be issued subject to the group retrospective rating plan and the stabilization reserve fund authorized by section 62F.09. The policy shall be written to apply to ~~injury which results from acts or omissions~~ claims first made against the insured and reported to the association during the policy period. No policy form shall be used by the association unless it has been filed with the commissioner, and the commissioner may disapprove the form within 30 days if he determines it is misleading or violates public policy.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 62F.09, is amended to read:

62F.09 [STABILIZATION RESERVE FUND.]

Subdivision 1. There is created a stabilization reserve fund administered by three directors, as follows: the commissioner; a representative of the association appointed by the commissioner; and a representative of the policyholders of the association, appointed by the commissioner.

Subd. 2. The directors shall act by majority vote with two directors constituting a quorum for the transaction of any business or the exercise of any power of the fund. The directors shall serve without salary, but shall be reimbursed for expenses in the manner provided for state employees. The directors shall not be subject to personal liability or accountability in the administration of the fund the association or its designee.

Subd. 3 2. Each policyholder shall pay to the association a stabilization reserve fund charge of 33 percent of each premium payment due for insurance through the association. This charge shall be separately stated in the policy. The association shall cancel the policy of any policyholder who fails to pay the stabilization reserve fund charge.

Subd. 4 3. The association shall promptly pay into the stabilization reserve fund charges which it collects from its policyholders and any retrospective premium refunds payable under the group retrospective rating plan.

Subd. 5 4. All moneys paid into the fund shall be held in trust by a corporate trustee selected by the directors. The corporate trustee may invest the moneys held in trust, subject to the approval of the directors association. All ~~investment income gains or losses from the investment of stabilization reserve fund money~~ shall be credited to the fund. All expenses of administration of the fund shall be charged against the fund. ~~The moneys held in trust~~ Stabilization reserve fund money shall be used solely for the purpose of discharging when due any retrospective premium charges payable by policyholders of the association under the group retrospective rating plan. Payment of retrospective premium charges shall be made ~~by the directors~~ upon certification ~~to them~~ by the association of the amount due. If all moneys accruing to the fund are exhausted in payment of retrospective premium charges, all liability and obligations of the association's policyholders with respect to the payment of retrospective premium charges shall terminate and shall be conclusively presumed to have been discharged. Any moneys remaining in the fund after all retrospective premium charges have been paid shall be returned to policyholders under procedures authorized by the ~~directors association~~.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 62G.16, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. All forms received by the commissioner shall be deemed filed 30 60 days after received unless disapproved by order transmitted to the legal service plan corporation stating that the form used in a specified respect is contrary to law, contains a provision or provisions which are unfair, inequitable, misleading, inconsistent or ambiguous, or is in part illegible. It shall be unlawful to issue or use a document disapproved by the commissioner.

Sec. 17. [62I.01] [CITATION.]

Sec. 18. [62I.02] [MINNESOTA JOINT UNDERWRITING ASSOCIATION.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION.] The Minnesota joint underwriting association is created to provide insurance coverage to any person or entity unable to obtain insurance through ordinary methods if the insurance is required by statute, ordinance, or otherwise required by law, or is necessary to earn a livelihood or conduct a business. Prudent business practice or mere desire to have insurance coverage is not a sufficient standard to require the association to offer insurance coverage to a person or entity. The association is specifically authorized to provide insurance coverage to day care providers, foster parents, foster homes and day activity centers for mentally, emotionally, or physically handicapped persons. Because the activities of certain persons or entities present a risk that is so great, the association may refuse to offer insurance coverage to any person or entity the board of directors of the association determines is outside the intended scope and purpose of the association because of the gravity of the risk of offering insurance coverage. The association is not required to offer environmental impairment liability insurance, product liability, or coverage for activities that are significantly conducted outside the state of Minnesota. Every insurer authorized to write insurance in this state shall be a member of the association as a condition to obtaining and retaining a license to write insurance in this state. Insurers who only write life insurance or only types of insurance for which another joint underwriting association or assigned risk plan is provided by state statute shall not be required to be a member of the joint underwriting association.

Subd. 2. [DIRECTOR.] The association shall have a board of directors composed of 11 persons chosen annually as follows: five persons elected by members of the association at a meeting called by the commissioner; three public members, as defined in section 214.02, appointed by the commissioner; and three members, appointed by the commissioner representing groups to whom coverage has been extended by the association. If at any time no coverage is currently extended by the association, then either additional public members may be appointed to fill these three positions or, at the option of the commissioner, representatives from groups who had previously been covered by the association may serve as directors.

Sec. 19. [62I.03] [DEFINITION.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] As used in sections 17 to 36 the following terms have the meanings given them in this section.

Subd. 2. [ASSOCIATION.] "Association" means the Minnesota joint underwriting association.

Subd. 3. [COMMISSIONER.] "Commissioner" means the commissioner of commerce.

Subd. 4. [MEMBER.] "Member" means every insurer authorized to write and writing insurance in this state except for those who only write personal lines of health, property and life insurance to the extent that the insurer writes lines of personal health, property and life insurance, or only types of insurance for which another joint underwriting association or assigned risk plan is provided by Minnesota statute.

Subd. 5. [DIRECT WRITTEN PREMIUMS.] "Direct written premiums" means that amount at column (2), line 31, page 14, of the annual statement filed annually with the department of commerce pursuant to section 60A.13.

Subd. 6. [DEFICIT.] "Deficit" means, for a particular policy year and line or type of insurance, that amount by which total paid and outstanding losses and loss adjustment expenses exceed premium revenue, including retrospective premium revenue.

Sec. 20. [62I.04] [POLICY ISSUANCE.]

Any person or entity that is a resident of the state of Minnesota who has a current written notice of refusal to insure from an insurer licensed to offer insurance in the state of Minnesota may make written application to the association for coverage. The applicable premium or required portion of it must be paid prior to coverage by the association.

The application shall be filed simultaneously with the association and the market assistance plan for the association.

The association is authorized to (1) issue or cause to be issued insurance policies to applicants subject to limits specified in the plan of operation; (2) underwrite the insurance and adjust and pay losses with respect to it, or appoint service companies to perform those functions; (3) assume reinsurance from its members; and (4) cede reinsurance.

Sec. 21. [62I.05] [PLAN OF OPERATION.]

Within 45 days after the appointment of the directors of the association, the directors shall submit to the commissioner for review, a proposed plan of operation, consistent with the provisions of this chapter.

The plan of operation shall provide economic, fair, and nondiscriminatory administration and for the prompt, efficient provision of insurance coverage of the types provided by section 18. It shall provide for an expedited review and determination by the board of any application for a type of coverage that has not been previously excluded or authorized. The action of the board on the application shall be an amendment to the plan of operation and the type of coverage shall thereafter be specified in the plan as either excluded or authorized. It may contain other provisions necessary for the operation of the association, including but not limited to preliminary assessment of all members for initial expenses necessary to commence operations, establishment of necessary facilities, management of the association, assessment of members to defray losses and expenses, commission arrangements, reasonable and objective underwriting standards, acceptance and cessation of reinsurance, appointment of servicing carriers or other servicing arrangements and procedures for determining amounts of insurance to be provided by the association.

The plan of operation is subject to approval by the commissioner. If the commissioner disapproves all or any part of the proposed plan of operation, the directors shall within 15 days submit for review an appropriate revised plan of operation. If a revised plan is not submitted within 15 days the commissioner shall promulgate a plan of operation. The plan of operation approved or promulgated by the commissioner is effective and operational upon the order of the commissioner.

Amendments to the plan of operation may be made by the directors of the association subject to approval by the commissioner.

Sec. 22. [621.06] [POLICY FORMS; PREMIUM RATE.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENT.] The policies and contracts of coverage issued pursuant to this chapter shall contain the usual and customary provisions of similar insurance policies issued by private insurance companies. If a standard form is used in the private marketplace for any type of coverage that is to be extended by the association, then the association shall use that form. If there are varying types of forms used in the marketplace the association may choose to use a standard policy form issued by a service organization or other entity who commonly prepares standardized types of forms. If the board determines that neither of these alternatives is appropriate, then it shall adopt a policy form based upon the terms and conditions of the policies used for this type of coverage that are the most commonly used in the private market. As far as practical the board shall attempt to adopt forms that are consistent with the practice in the private market. No policy forms shall be used by the association unless it has been filed with the commissioner, and the commissioner may disapprove the form within 30 days if the commissioner determines that it is misleading, it violates public policy, or for any reason that the commissioner would be empowered to reject a similar form filed by a private company.

Subd. 2. [CANCELLATION.] If the insured fails to pay a stabilization reserve fund charge the association may cancel the policy by mailing or delivering to the insured at the insured's address shown on the policy at least ten days written notice stating the date that the cancellation is effective.

Subd. 3. [RATES.] The rates, rating plan, rating rules, rating classification and territories applicable to insurance written by the association and related statistics are subject to chapter 70A. Rates shall be on an actuarially sound basis, giving consideration to the group retrospective rating plan. The commissioner shall take all appropriate steps to make available, upon request of the association, loss and expense experience of insurers previously writing or currently writing insurance of any type the association offers or intends to offer.

Subd. 4. [APPROVAL.] All policies issued by the association are subject to the group retrospective rating plan approved by the commissioner under which the final premium for the insureds of the association, as a group, will be equal to the administrative expenses, loss and loss adjustment expenses and taxes, plus a reasonable allowance for contingency and servicing. If the board of directors feels it is appropriate and in the interest of fairness and equity, the insureds of the association may be broken down into more than one group. The rating plan may provide for varying rates within the rating plan for such groups as their relative burden to the group as a whole would merit. Policyholders shall be given full credit for all investment income, net of expenses and reasonable management fee on policyholder supplied funds. The standard premium, before retrospective adjustment, for each policy issued by the association shall be established for portions of the policy period coinciding with the association's fiscal year on the basis of the association rates, rating plans, rating rules, rating classifications and territories then in effect. The maximum premium for all policyholders of the association as a group shall be limited as provided in sections 17 to 36.

Subd. 5. [EXAMINATIONS.] The commissioner shall examine the business of the association as often as is appropriate to insure that the group retrospective rating plan is operating in a manner consistent with this chapter or other Minnesota laws. If it is found that the operation is deficient or inconsistent with this chapter or other Minnesota laws the commissioner may order the association to take corrective action.

Subd. 6. [DEFICITS.] The association shall certify to the commissioner the estimated amount of any deficit remaining after the stabilization reserve fund has been exhausted and payment of the maximum final premium for all policyholders of the association. Within 60 days after the certification, the commissioner shall authorize the association to recover the members' respective shares of the deficit by assessing all members an amount sufficient to fully fund the obligations of the association. The assessment of each member shall be determined in the manner provided in section 23. An assessment made pursuant to this section shall be deductible by the member from past or future premium taxes due the state.

Subd. 7. [AMENDMENTS TO RATING PLAN.] In addition to the usual manner of amending the rating plan set forth in this section and section 21, the following procedure may also be used:

(1) Any person may, by written petition served upon the commissioner of commerce request that a hearing be held to amend the rating plan, or any part of the rating plan.

(2) The commissioner shall forward a copy of the petition to the chief administrative law judge within three business days of its receipt. The chief administrative law judge shall, within three business days of receipt of the copy of the petition or a request for hearing by the commissioner, set a hearing date, assign an administrative law judge to hear the matter, and notify the commissioner of the hearing date and the administrative law judge assigned to hear the matter. The hearing date must be set not less than 60 days nor more than 90 days from the date of receipt of the petition by the commissioner or the date of the commissioner's request for hearing if the commissioner is the person requesting a hearing.

(3) The commissioner shall publish a notice of the hearing in the State Register at least 30 days before the hearing date. The notice should be similar to that used for rulemaking under the administrative procedure act. Approval of the notice by the administrative law judge is not required.

(4) The hearing and all matters which occur after the hearing are a contested case under chapter 14. Within 45 days from the commencement of the hearing and within 15 days of the completion of the hearing the administrative law judge shall submit a report to the commissioner of commerce. The parties, or the administrative law judge, if the parties cannot agree, shall adjust all time requirements under the contested case procedure to conform with the 45 day requirement.

(5) The commissioner shall render a decision within ten business days of the receipt of the administrative law judge's report.

(6) If all parties to the proceeding agree, any of the previous requirements may be waived or modified.

(7) A petition for a hearing to amend the rating plan or any part of the rating plan received by the commissioner within 180 days of the date of the commissioner's decision in a prior proceeding to amend the rating plan is invalid and requires no action provided the petition involves the same rates as the previous hearing. If the petition involves matters in addition to those dealt with in the previous hearing, then the additional matters shall be treated as a separate petition for hearing and a hearing may be held on those matters.

Sec. 23. [621.07] [MEMBERSHIP ASSESSMENTS.]

A member of the association shall participate in its writings, expenses, servicing allowance, management fees and losses in the proportion that the direct written premiums of the member, excluding that portion of premiums attributable to personal lines of life, health and property insurance, and excluding that portion of premiums attributable to the operation of the association written during the premium year bears to the aggregate direct written premiums written in this state by all members. The members' participation in the association shall be determined annually on the direct written premiums written during the preceding calendar year as reported in the annual statements and other reports filed by the member with the commissioner.

Sec. 24. [621.08] [APPLICATION PROCEDURE.]

A person or entity that has been denied coverage or is unable to find an insurer willing to write coverage is eligible to make an application to the association. The application shall be on a form approved by the board of directors. To show eligibility to participate in the association the applicant shall certify that the applicant has been unable to find anyone to offer the coverage sought by the applicant. No further proof shall be required of the applicant. The application shall be filed simultaneously with the association and the market assistance plan of the association.

Sec. 25. [621.09] [MARKET ASSISTANCE PLAN.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION.] A market assistance program committee consisting of 12 members is created. The 12 members shall be appointed by the commissioner of commerce. The commissioner's designated representative shall serve as an ex officio member. The commissioner shall appoint six members of the committee as representatives of insurers; two members who are insurance agents; two public members; and two members representative of groups to whom the association has issued coverage. If, at any time after appointment, a member of the committee, through change of employment or similar circumstances, is no longer representative of the group the member was appointed to represent, that member shall be deemed unable to continue to serve as a member of the committee and the commissioner shall appoint a replacement for the balance of that member's term.

Subd. 2. [TERMS AND VACANCIES.] In the event of a member's inability to continue to serve, the commissioner shall appoint a replacement. The committee shall elect a chair and vice chair from among the members. The term of each member is one year commencing on June 1, except that the first members to be appointed to the committee shall serve from the date of their appointment until June 1 immediately following their appointment.

Subd. 3. [MEETINGS.] The committee shall convene upon the call of the commissioner, the chair or vice chair or at the request of one of the committee members. No quorum requirements are necessary.

Sec. 26. [62I.10] [DISPOSITION OF APPLICATION.]

Subdivision 1. [ACTION UPON APPLICATION.] Upon receipt of an application, the committee or persons the committee appoints or designates will immediately review the application to determine what assistance the committee can give. The assistance may include: (1) discussion with the applicant's most recent underwriter, if any, to determine if the applicant's coverage can be maintained with the most recent carrier; (2) discussion with other known available insurance markets to determine if any other carrier will accept the applicant; (3) negotiating extensions of coverage with the most recent carrier or a temporary carrier, if possible, to permit additional exploration of insurance markets or accumulation of essential underwriting data; and (4) referring the application to the first five participating insurers (participants) on the relevant list provided in subdivision 2. Subsequent applications will be sent to the next five participants on a rotating basis. If at any time there are less than ten participants on the master list then the master list will no longer be utilized.

Subd. 2. [LIST OF PARTICIPATING INSURERS.] A list of participants shall be prepared and updated at least every two years in the following manner: (1) the committee will secure a mailing list from the department of commerce of every licensed insurer admitted to do business as well as every eligible licensed surplus lines licensee; (2) the committee will mail to each admitted insurer and eligible surplus lines licensee an outline of the conditions of participation; (3) a master list of participants willing to take part in the market assistance program will be created from the responses to the initial mailing. The master list will be updated at least every two years pursuant to clauses (1) and (2). Order on the master list will be determined by random selection.

Subd. 3. [REFERRAL TO PARTICIPANTS.] Upon receipt of an application, the committee or the persons the committee appoints or designates may mail or telex copies of the application to the first five participants on the master list.

Subd. 4. [QUOTES.] Participants must quote on at least one out of every three applications submitted. Each participant will have the right to individually evaluate the risk the applicant poses and develop a price commensurate with that risk.

Subd. 5. [REFERRAL.] If no quote is received from the first five participants on the list, the next five participants on the list shall receive the application and the same procedure shall be followed until a quote is obtained or the list is exhausted. All participants may, if the committee feels it appropriate, be given the application at once.

Subd. 6. [RESPONSE FROM PARTICIPANT.] Participants may provide a quote on the same coverage basis they normally provide for similar coverage for that type of insurance in Minnesota. Participants will return their quotations or refusals to quote to the committee within ten days. The applicant or the applicant's agent, if any, will be notified of the quotations. The agent will then complete the placement of the insurance, if the applicant accepts coverage from the participant at the price quoted, without need for an agency appointment from that participant. The insurer is not required to pay the agent any commission, but the agent may negotiate a fee with the appli- cant prior to initial submission of the application.

Subd. 7. [LIMITATION ON REAPPLICATION.] An applicant provided a quotation in accordance with the above procedure will not be eligible to seek additional quotations from the market assistance plan or to obtain coverage from the association if the quotation received would not be deemed to be a notice of refusal for purposes of determining eligibility for participation in the association.

Subd. 8. [REVIEW BY THE COMMITTEE.] If the procedures in subdivisions 1 to 7 do not produce a quote, the application may be submitted to the committee. The committee after reviewing the application shall proceed as follows: (1) attempt to place the applicant with a single carrier; or (2) attempt to arrange coverage on a quota share basis with a number of carriers.

Subd. 9. [DISQUALIFICATION AFTER COVERAGE GRANTED.] If an application is filed with the market assistance program less than 15 business days before the expiration date of the applicant's current insurance coverage the market assistance program may continue to seek coverage for the applicant after coverage is extended by the association. The market assistance program will have 15 business days from the date of filing of the application with the market assistance program to obtain an offer of coverage for the applicant. If the market assistance program is able to secure an offer of coverage for the applicant within 15 business days of filing of the application and if the offer of coverage would not otherwise be considered a refusal for purposes of the association, the applicant will be deemed to not be qualified to participate in the association and coverage, if any, shall be terminated. If the applicant accepts the coverage obtained by the market assistance plan, coverage from the association will terminate when the new coverage begins.

Subd. 10. [NOTIFICATION OF FAILURE TO PLACE.] If the market assistance program does not produce a quote, it shall notify the submitting agent or the applicant at least 24 hours before the time the applicant's current insurance coverage terminates. A copy of the notification must be submitted to the commissioner and the association at the same time notice is made to the agent or applicant. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the market assistance program may continue to act pursuant to subdivision 9. Notice that the market assistance program is continuing to act pursuant to subdivision 9 shall be included in the notice required by this subdivision.

Sec. 27. [62I.11] [PROGRAM PARTICIPATION:]

Subdivision 1. [TERMINATION.] A participant may terminate its participation in the program at any time by providing written notice of the termination 90 days in advance of the effective date of the termination to the commissioner and to the committee.

Subd. 2. [NEW PARTICIPANTS.] New participants may join the program at any time by submitting a written request to the commissioner and to the committee.

Sec. 28. [62I.12] [ASSOCIATION ADMINISTRATION:]

Subdivision 1. [ADMINISTRATOR.] The association shall be administered by a qualified insurer or vendor of risk management services selected by the commissioner. If the commissioner deems it necessary, the commissioner may select more than one person to administer the association.

Subd. 2. [DUTIES.] The administrator shall perform all services necessary to accomplish the purposes of the association, including the servicing of policies or contracts of coverage, data management, and collection of assessments.

Subd. 3. [APPEALS.] Anyone adversely affected by the decision of the administrator may object to the decision by appealing to the commissioner within 15 days after the decision. The appeal must be made by letter mailed to the commissioner with a copy to the administrator within the 15-day period. The letter must include a summary of the administrator's decision from which the appeal is taken, the basis for the objection to the administrator's decision, and any argument or evidence in support of the appeal. Within 15 days after receipt of the letter, the administrator shall file a response, including the basis of the administrator's decision and all argument and evidence in support of the decision, with the commissioner. Within ten days after receipt of the administrator's response, the commissioner shall either affirm, reverse, or modify the administrator's decision as the commissioner deems appropriate.

Sec. 29. [62I.13] [ACTION BY THE MINNESOTA JOINT UNDERWRITING ASSOCIATION UPON THE APPLICATION.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] Eligibility for coverage by the association is subject to the terms and conditions of subdivisions 2 and 3.

Subd. 2. [MINIMUM OF QUALIFICATIONS.] Anyone who is unable to obtain insurance in the private market and who so certifies to the association in the application is eligible to make written application to the association for coverage. Payment of the applicable premium or required portion of it must be paid prior to coverage by the association. An offer of coverage at a rate in excess of the rate that would be charged by the association for similar coverage and risk shall be deemed to be a refusal of coverage for purposes of eligibility for participation in the association. It shall not be deemed to be a written notice of refusal if the rate for coverage offered is less than five percent in excess of the joint underwriting association rates for similar coverage and risk. However, the offered rate must also be the rate that the insurer has filed with the department of commerce if the insurer is required to file its rates with the department. If the insurer is not required to file its rates with the department, the offered rate must be the rate generally charged by the insurer for similar coverage and risk.

Subd. 3. [DISQUALIFYING FACTORS.] For good cause, coverage may be denied or terminated by the association. Good cause may exist if the applicant or insured: (1) has an outstanding debt due or owing to the association at the time of application or renewal arising from a prior policy; (2) refuses to permit completion of an audit requested by the commissioner or administrator; (3) submits misleading or erroneous information to the commissioner or administrator; (4) disregards safety standards, laws, rules or ordinance pertaining to the risk being insured; (5) fails to supply information requested by the commissioner or administrator; (6) fails to comply with the terms of the policies or contracts for coverage issued by the association; and (7) has not satisfied the requirements of the market assistance program as set forth in section 25.

Subd. 4. [DISQUALIFICATION AFTER COVERAGE GRANTED.] If an application is filed with the market assistance program less than 15 business days before the expiration of the applicant's current insurance coverage, the market assistance program may continue to seek coverage for the applicant after coverage is extended by the assigned risk plan. The market assistance program will have 15 business days from the date of filing the application with the market assistance program to obtain an offer of coverage for the applicant. If the market assistance program is able to secure an offer of coverage for the applicant within 15 business days of filing of the application and if the offer of coverage would not otherwise be considered refusal for purposes of the assigned risk plan, the applicant will be deemed to be not qualified to participate in the association plan and coverage, if any, shall be terminated.

Subd. 5. [NOTICE.] An application for coverage under the association must be granted or denied within ten days after receipt by the administrator of a properly completed application and any supplemental information requested by the administrator. Anyone covered by the association must be given at least 30 days notice of nonrenewal or cancellation of coverage.

Sec. 30. [621.14] [ASSESSMENTS.]

In the event the commissioner deems it necessary to make an assessment, an assessed insurer must pay the assessment within 30 days of receipt of notice of the assessment. The commissioner may suspend or revoke an insurer's certificate of authority and impose a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed $5,000 for an insurer's failure to pay the assessment within the 30 day period.

Sec. 31. [621.15] [EXTENSION OF COVERAGE.]

If the association determines that the applicant meets the underwriting standards of the association as described in the plan of operation and there is no unpaid, uncontested premium due from the application for prior insurance, including failure to make written objections to premium charges within 30 days after billing, or if there is no other allowable reason as set forth in this chapter for denial of coverage, the association upon receipt of the premium or portion of it as described in the plan of operation shall issue a policy of insurance to the applicant.

Sec. 32. [621.16] [STABILIZATION RESERVE FUND.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION.] There is created a stabilization reserve fund. Each policyholder shall pay to the association a stabilization reserve fund charge of 33 percent of each premium payment due for insurance through the association. This charge shall be separately stated in the policy. The association shall cancel the policy of any policyholder who fails to pay the stabilization reserve fund charge.

Subd. 2. [PAYMENT.] The association shall promptly pay into the stabilization reserve fund all fund charges it collects from its policyholders and any retrospective premium refunds payable under the group retrospective rating plan.

Subd. 3. [SUPERVISION.] All money paid into the fund shall be held in trust by the corporate trustee selected by the board of directors. The corporate trustee may invest the money held in trust subject to the approval of the board. All investment income shall be credited to the fund. All expenses of the administration of the fund shall be charged against the fund. The money held in trust shall be used solely for the purpose of discharging when due any retrospective premium charges payable by policyholders and any retrospective premium refunds payable to policyholders under the group retrospective rating plan. Payment of retrospective premium charges shall be made upon certification of the amount due. If all money accruing to the fund is exhausted in payment of retrospective premium charges, all liability and obligations of the association's policyholders with respect to the payment of retrospective premium charges shall terminate and shall be conclusively presumed to have been discharged. Any stabilization reserve fund charges from a particular policy year and line or type of insurance not used to pay retrospective premiums must be returned to policyholders after all claims and expense obligations from that particular policy year and line or type of insurance are satisfied.

Subd. 4. [EXEMPTION.] The board of directors may, upon their own motion or upon application of any applicant or insured, exempt any group from the payment of the stabilization reserve charge. The exemption shall be granted only to those groups who are unable to obtain insurance coverage in the private market as a result of the private market's refusal to write coverage for that group rather than because of loss experiences or risks posed by the applicant or insured as an individual. It shall be presumed that a group is qualified for this exemption if more than 20 percent of the members of that group are unable to obtain the insurance coverage that they seek. The board of directors shall also consider granting exemption if any members of the same group are unable to obtain coverage in the private market even though no claims have been made against them or payments made on their behalf by any insurer within the last three years.

Subd. 5. [SURCHARGE.] In addition to determining the basic rate for coverages to be offered by the joint underwriting association, the association shall also develop a surcharge plan or similar method for adjusting the rate to be charged to those persons who have had claims made against them. The surcharge plan shall take into effect the risk posed to the association by the applicant or the insured. The surcharge plan shall be sufficient to provide for the sound financial operation of the plan based upon commonly agreed upon actuarial principles.

Sec. 33. [62I.17] [IMMUNITY FROM LIABILITY.]

No cause of action of any nature shall arise against the association, the commissioner or the commissioner's authorized representatives, or any other person or organization, for any statements made in good faith by them during any proceedings or concerning any matters within the scope of this chapter.

Sec. 34. [62I.18] [RIGHT OF APPEAL.]

Any applicant to the association, any person insured pursuant to this chapter or their representatives, any affected insurer, or any person who has applied for coverage pursuant to this chapter may appeal to the commissioner within 30 days after any ruling, action, or decision by or on behalf of the association with respect to those items that the plan of operation defines as appealable matters.

Sec. 35. [62I.19] [ANNUAL STATEMENTS.]

On March 1 of each year the association shall file with the commissioner a report of its transactions, financial conditions, and operations during the preceding year. The report shall be on a form approved by the commissioner. The commissioner may at any time require the association to furnish additional information to assist in evaluating the scope, operation, and experience of the association.

Sec. 36. [62I.20] [MERGER OF OTHER PLANS.]

Upon application by the governing body of the liquor liability assigned risk plan authorized by section 340A.409 or the temporary joint underwriting association authorized by chapter 62F to be merged with the association, the commissioner shall, if the commissioner deems it appropriate, hold a public hearing in regard to the merger. The commissioner upon motion or upon the motion of any insured under plans shall hold a hearing. Unless it can be shown that the rights of the insured would be adversely affected by the merger or that it would be less efficient or more costly to merge the plans, the commissioner shall consent to the merger. The commissioner shall also consent to the merger at any time there are less than ten insureds in any plan.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 64B.03, is amended to read:

64B.03 [REPRESENTATIVE FORM OF GOVERNMENT.]

(a) A society has a representative form of government when it has a supreme governing body constituted in one of the following ways:

Vacancies on the board of directors between elections may be filled in the manner prescribed by the society's laws.

A person filling the unexpired term of an elected board member shall be considered to be an elected member. The board shall meet at least quarterly to conduct the business of the society.

(b) A society has a representative form of government when the officers of the society are elected either by the supreme governing body or by the board of directors.

(c) A society has a representative form of government when only benefit members are eligible for election to the supreme governing body, ~~the and~~ board of directors, ~~or any intermediate assembly.~~

(d) A society has a representative form of government when each voting member shall have one vote and no vote may be cast by proxy.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 70A.04, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXCESSIVENESS; MARKET TEST.] (a) Rates are presumed not to be excessive if a reasonable degree of price competition exists at the consumer level with respect to the class of business to which they apply. In determining whether a reasonable degree of price competition exists, the commissioner shall consider all relevant tests, including, but not limited to, the following:

1. ~~The number of insurers actively engaged in the class of business~~ Whether five or fewer insurers issue more than 90 percent of the direct written premiums.

2. The nature of rate differentials in that class of business.

3. Whether long-run profitability for insurers generally of the class of business is unreasonably high in relation to its riskiness.

(b) If such competition does not exist, rates are excessive if they are likely to produce a long-run profit that is unreasonably high in relation to the riskiness of the class of business, or if expenses are unreasonably high in relation to the services rendered.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 70A.06, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Sec. 48. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 70A.10, is amended to read:

70A.10 [DELAYED EFFECT OF RATES.]

Subdivision 1. [RULE ORDER INSTITUTING DELAYED EFFECT.] If the commissioner finds, after a hearing, that competition is not an effective regulator of the rates charged or that a substantial number of companies are competing irresponsibly through the rates charged, or that there are widespread violations of this chapter, in any kind or line of insurance or subdivision thereof or in any rating class or rating territory, he may issue a ~~rule~~ an order requiring that in the kind or line of insurance or subdivision thereof or rating class or rating territory comprehended by the finding any subsequent changes in the rates or supplementary rate information be filed with him at least 30 60 days before they become effective. He may extend the waiting period for not to exceed 15 30 additional days by written notice to the filer before the 30 60 day period expires.

Subd. 2. [SUPPORTING DATA.] In the ~~rule~~ order issued under subdivision 1 or in any supplementary ~~rule~~ order, the commissioner may require the filing of supporting data as to any or all kinds or lines of insurance or subdivisions thereof or classes of risks or combinations thereof as he deems necessary for the proper functioning of the rate monitoring and regulating process. - (a) The experience and judgment of the filer, and, to the extent it wishes or the commissioner requires, of other insurers or rate service organizations;
- (b) Its interpretation of any statistical data relied upon;
- (c) Descriptions of the actuarial and statistical methods employed; and
- (d) Any other matters deemed relevant by the commissioner or the filer.

amortized, plus 33-1/3 percent of the cost to the district as of July 1 of each year for school bus reconditioning done by the department of corrections until the cost of the reconditioning is fully amortized; provided, if the district's transportation aid is reduced pursuant to subdivision 8a because the appropriation for that year is insufficient, this amount shall be reduced in proportion to the reduction pursuant to subdivision 8a as a percentage of the sum of

(1) the district's total transportation aid without the reduction pursuant to subdivision 8a, plus

(2) for fiscal years 1985 and 1986 an amount equal to 1.75 mills times the adjusted assessed valuation of the district for the preceding year, and for fiscal year 1987 and thereafter, 2.25 mills times the adjusted assessed valuation of the district for the preceding year, plus

Subdivision 1. [BASIC COMPUTATION.] (a) Each year the state shall pay a school district the difference by which an amount equal to $90 per $135 times the total pupil unit units in that school year or, in districts where the number of actual pupil units has increased from the prior year, $95 per pupil unit in that school year, exceeds the amount raised by seven nine mills times the adjusted assessed valuation of the taxable property in the district for the preceding used to compute the levy attributable to the same year. To qualify for aid pursuant to this subdivision in any school year, a district must have levied seven EARC mills for use for capital expenditures in that year levy pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 11a for use in that year.

(b) The aid under clause (a) for any district which operates an approved secondary vocational education program or an approved senior secondary industrial arts program shall be computed using a dollar amount per pupil unit which is $5 higher than the amount specified in clause (a).

(c) If the sum of a district's capital expenditure levy under section 275.125, subdivision 11a, attributable to any school year and its capital expenditure equalization aid, if any, under this subdivision for that school year exceeds $90 per pupil unit or, in districts where the number of actual pupil units has increased from the prior year, $95 per pupil unit, the amount of the excess may be expended only for the purpose of capital expenditures for equipment for secondary vocational education programs or senior secondary industrial arts programs.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 124.245, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCE COMPUTATION.] The state shall pay a school district the difference by which an amount equal to $25 per times the total pupil unit units exceeds the amount raised by two mills times the adjusted assessed valuation of the taxable property in the district for the preceding used to compute the levy attributable to the same year. To qualify for aid pursuant to this subdivision in any school year, a district must levy pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 11c for use in that year. Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 124.271, subdivision 2b, is amended to read:

Subd. 2b. [AID; ~~1985~~, 1986, 1987, 1988 AND AFTER.] (1) Each fiscal year a district which is operating a community education program in compliance with rules promulgated by the state board shall receive community education aid. ~~For fiscal year 1985, the aid shall be an amount equal to the difference obtained by subtracting~~

(a) ~~an amount equal to .8 mill times the adjusted assessed valuation used to compute the community education levy limitation for the levy attributable to that school year, from~~

(b) ~~the greater of~~

~~$7,000, or~~

~~$5 times the population of the district.~~

For fiscal year 1986, the aid shall be an amount equal to the difference obtained by subtracting

(a) an amount equal to .8 mill times the adjusted assessed valuation used to compute the community education levy limitation for the levy attributable to that school year, from

(b) the greater of

$7,000, or

$5.25 times the population of the district.

For fiscal year 1987 ~~and each year thereafter~~, the aid shall be an amount equal to the difference obtained by subtracting

(b) the greater of

$7,140, or

$5.35 times the population of the district.

For fiscal year 1988 ~~and each year thereafter~~, the aid shall be an amount equal to the difference obtained by subtracting

(a) an amount equal to .8 mill times the adjusted assessed valuation used to compute the community education levy limitation for the levy attributable to that school year, from

(b) the greater of

$7,540, or

$5.65 times the population of the district.

(2) However, for any district which certifies less than the maximum permissible levy under the provisions of section 275.125, subdivision 8, clause (1), the district's community education aid under clause (1) of this subdivision shall be reduced by multiplying the aid amount computed pursuant to clause (1) of this subdivision by the ratio of the district's actual levy under section 275.125, subdivision 8, clause (1), to its maximum permissible levy under section 275.125, subdivision 8, clause (1). For purposes of computing the aid reduction pursuant to this clause, the amount certified pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 8, clause (1), shall not reflect reductions made pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 9.

~~(3) In addition to the amount in clause (1), in fiscal year 1985 a district which makes a levy for community education programs pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 8, shall receive additional aid of 50 cents per capita.~~

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 124.32, subdivision 1c, is amended to read:

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 124A.03, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [BASIC MAINTENANCE LEVY; DISTRICTS OFF THE FORMULA.] In any year when the amount of the maximum levy limitation under subdivision 1 for any district, exceeds the product of the district's foundation aid formula allowance for the year in which the levy is recognized as revenue times the estimated number of total pupil units for that district for that school year, the levy limitation for that district under subdivision 1 shall be limited to the greater of the dollar amount of the levy the district certified in 1977 under Minnesota Statutes 1978, section 275.125, subdivision 2a, clause (1), or the following difference but not to exceed the levy limitation under subdivision 1:

(b) the estimated amount of any payments which would reduce the district's foundation aid entitlement as provided in section 124A.035, subdivi- sion 4 in the school year in which the levy is recognized as revenue.

A levy made by a district pursuant to this subdivision shall be construed to be the levy made by that district pursuant to subdivision 1, for purposes of statutory cross-reference.

Sec. 16. [124A.038] [REVENUE EQUITY.]

If the amount of a district's maximum basic maintenance levy under section 124A.03, subdivision 1, for fiscal year 1988 or any year thereafter exceeds the district's basic foundation revenue for the corresponding fiscal year, an amount shall be deducted from special state aids of chapter 124 receivable for the same fiscal year, not including aid authorized in sections 124.2137 and 124.646. However, no amount shall be deducted if the assessed valuation of agricultural land identified in section 273.13, subdivisions 4, 6, and 6a, comprises 55 percent or more of the assessed valuation of the district.

The amount of the deduction shall be the lesser of:

(1) the total amount of special state aids of chapter 124 receivable for the same fiscal year, not including aid authorized in sections 124.2137 and 124.646; or

(2) the difference between: (i) the sum of the amount of the district's maximum basic maintenance levy under section 124A.03, subdivision 1, plus the amount of any reductions to that maximum levy pursuant to sections 124A.03, subdivision 3, and 275.125, subdivision 9; and (ii) the district's basic foundation revenue.

(b) 25 percent of the actual expenditures of the district for purchase or lease of the courseware packages between July 1, 1985, and May 31, 1987 1986.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 275.125, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [COMMUNITY EDUCATION LEVY.] (1) Each year, a district which has established a community education advisory council pursuant to section 121.88, may levy the amount raised by .8 mill times the most recent adjusted assessed valuation of the district, but no more than the greater of

~~$5.35~~ $5.65 times the population of the district, or

~~$7,140~~ $7,540.

(2) In addition to the levy authorized in clause (1), ~~in 1983~~ each year a district may levy an additional amount for community education programs equal to the difference obtained by subtracting

(a) the sum in fiscal year 1984 of

(i) the district's estimated maximum permissible revenue for fiscal year 1985 from community education aid under section 124.271, subdivision 2b, clause (1), and

(ii) the community education levy authorized in clause (1) of this subdivision, from

(b) the sum in fiscal year 1983 of

(i) the district's maximum permissible revenue from community education aid under Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 124.271, subdivision 2, excluding any reductions from community education aid made pursuant to Laws 1981, Third Special Session chapter 2, article 2, section 2, clause (mm), and Laws 1982, Third Special Session chapter 1, article 3, section 6, and

(3) Each year, in addition to the levy authorized in clause (1), a district may levy an amount equal to the amount the district was entitled to levy pursuant to clause (2) in 1983. A district having an approved adult basic and continuing education program, according to section 124.26, may levy an amount not to exceed the amount raised by .2 mill times the adjusted assessed valuation of the district for the preceding year.

The certificate of compliance shall certify that the governing boards of the county, municipality and township in which the school district or any part thereof is located have been sent 15 working days written notice of a meeting and that a meeting has been held to discuss methods of increasing mutual cooperation between such bodies and the school board. The failure of a governing board of a county, municipality or township to attend the meeting shall not affect the authority of the school district to levy pursuant to this subdivision.

However, the total amount of this levy for all years it is made shall not exceed the amount of the deficit in the net unappropriated balance in the general fund of the district as of June 30, 1985. When the cumulative levies made pursuant to this subdivision equal the total amount permitted by this subdivision, the levy shall be discontinued.*

(2) A district, if eligible, may levy under this subdivision or subdivision 9b but not both.

(3) The proceeds of this levy shall be used only for cash flow requirements and shall not be used to supplement district revenues or income for the purposes of increasing the district's expenditures or budgets.

that the projected energy cost savings will amortize the cost of the conservation within a period of ten years or less;

(6) for the payment of any special assessments levied against the property of the district authorized ~~pursuant to~~ under section 435.19 or any other law or charter provision authorizing assessments against publicly owned property; provided that a district may not levy amounts to pay assessments for service charges, such as those described in section 429.101, whether levied ~~pursuant to~~ under that section or ~~pursuant to~~ any other law or home rule provision. ~~The proceeds may also be used.~~

(15) for levies payable in 1987 and thereafter, for capital expenditures needed to implement an interdistrict agreement to discontinue grades according to section 122.541.

(c) Subject to the commissioner's approval, the proceeds may also be used to acquire or construct buildings. The state board shall promulgate rules establishing the criteria to be used by the commissioner in approving and disapproving district applications requesting the use of capital expenditure tax proceeds for the acquisition or construction of buildings. The approval criteria for purposes of building acquisition and construction shall include: the appropriateness of the proposal for the district's long-term needs; the availability of adequate existing facilities; and the economic feasibility of bonding because of the proposed building's size or cost.

(d) ~~The board shall establish a fund in which the proceeds of this tax shall be accumulated until expended. Notwithstanding anything in paragraphs (b) and (c) to the contrary, a district that levies the maximum amount under this subdivision shall expend at least $5 times the total pupil units of the sum of the proceeds of the amount levied under this subdivision and the aid paid under section 124.245, subdivision 1, for capital expenditures for equipment~~

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 275.125, subdivision 11c, is amended to read:

Subd. 11c. [HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCE CAPITAL EXPENDITURE LEVY.] In addition to the levy authorized in subdivisions 11a and 11b, each year a school district may levy an amount not to exceed the amount equal to $25 per times the total pupil unit units in the year to which the levy is attributable. No levy under this subdivision shall exceed two mills times the adjusted assessed valuation of the property in the district for the preceding year. The proceeds of the tax shall be placed in the district's capital expenditure fund and may be used only for expenditures necessary for the removal or encapsulation of asbestos from school buildings or property, asbestos related repairs, cleanup and disposal of polychlorinated biphenyls found in school buildings or property, or the cleanup, removal, disposal, and repairs related to storing transportation fuels such as alcohol, gasoline, fuel oil, and special fuel, as defined in section 296.01.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 298.28, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DISTRIBUTION.] The proceeds of the taxes collected under section 298.24, except the tax collected under section 298.24, subdivision 2, shall, upon certification of the commissioner of revenue, be allocated as follows:

(1) 2.5 cents per gross ton of merchantable iron ore concentrate, hereinafter referred to as "taxable ton," to the city or town in the county in which the lands from which taconite was mined or quarried were located or within which the concentrate was produced. If the mining, quarrying, and concentration, or different steps in either thereof are carried on in more than one taxing district, the commissioner shall apportion equitably the proceeds of the part of the tax going to cities and towns among such subdivisions upon the basis of attributing 40 percent of the proceeds of the tax to the operation of mining or quarrying the taconite, and the remainder to the concentrating plant and to the processes of concentration, and with respect to each thereof giving due consideration to the relative extent of such operations performed in each such taxing district. His order making such apportionment shall be subject to review by the tax court at the instance of any of the interested taxing districts, in the same manner as other orders of the commissioner.

(2) (a) 12.5 cents per taxable ton, less any amount distributed under clause (7), paragraph (a), and paragraph (b) of this clause, to be distributed as provided in section 298.282.

(b) An amount annually certified by the county auditor of a county containing a taconite tax relief area within which there is an organized township if, as of January 2, 1982, more than 75 percent of the assessed valuation of the township consists of iron ore. The amount will be the portion of a township's certified levy equal to the proportion of (1) the difference between 50 percent of the township's January 2, 1982, assessed value and its current assessed value to (2) the sum of its current assessed value plus the difference determined in (1). The county auditor shall extend the township's levy against the sum of the township's current assessed value plus the difference between 50 percent of its January 2, 1982, assessed value and its current assessed value. If the current assessed value of the township exceeds 50 percent of the township's January 2, 1982, assessed value, this clause shall not apply.

(3) 29 cents per taxable ton plus the increase provided in paragraph (c) to qualifying school districts to be distributed, based upon the certification of the commissioner of revenue, as follows:

(a) Six cents per taxable ton to the school districts in which the lands from which taconite was mined or quarried were located or within which the concentrate was produced. The distribution must be based on the apportionment formula prescribed in clause (1).

(b) 23 cents per taxable ton, less any amount distributed under part (d), shall be distributed to a group of school districts comprised of those school districts wherein the taconite was mined or quarried or the concentrate produced or in which there is a qualifying municipality as defined by section 273.134 in direct proportion to school district tax levies as follows: each district shall receive that portion of the total distribution which its certified levy for the prior year, computed pursuant to sections 124A.03, 124A.06, subdivision 3a, 124A.08, subdivision 3a, 124A.10, subdivision 3a, 124A.12, subdivision 3a, 124A.14, subdivision 5a, and 275.125, comprises of the sum of certified levies for the prior year for all qualifying districts, computed pursuant to sections 124A.03, 124A.06, subdivision 3a, 124A.08, subdivision 3a, 124A.10, subdivision 3a, 124A.12, subdivision 3a, 124A.14, subdivision 5a, and 275.125. For purposes of distributions pursuant to this part, certified levies for the prior year computed pursuant to sections 124A.03, 124A.06, subdivision 3a, 124A.08, subdivision 3a, 124A.10, subdivision 3a, 124A.12, subdivision 3a, 124A.14, subdivision 5a, and 275.125 shall not include the amount of any increased levy authorized by referendum pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 2.

(c) On July 15, in years prior to 1988, an amount equal to the increase derived by increasing the amount determined by clause (3)(b) in the same proportion as the increase in the steel mill products index over the base year of 1977 as provided in section 298.24, subdivision 1, clause (a), shall be distributed to any school district described in clause (3)(b) where a levy increase pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 2, is authorized by referendum, according to the following formula. On July 15, 1988 and subsequent years, the increase over the amount established for the prior year shall be determined according to the increase in the implicit price deflator as provided in section 298.24, subdivision 1, paragraph (a). Each district shall receive the product of:

(i) $150 times the pupil units identified in section 124.17, subdivision 1, clauses (1) and (2), enrolled in the second previous year or the 1983-1984 school year, whichever is greater, less the product of 1-3/4 mills times the district's taxable valuation in the second previous year; times

(ii) the lesser of:

(A) one, or

(B) the ratio of the amount certified pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 2, in the previous year, to the product of 1-3/4 mills times the district's taxable valuation in the second previous year.

If the total amount provided by clause (3)(c) is insufficient to make the payments herein required then the entitlement of $150 per pupil unit shall be reduced uniformly so as not to exceed the funds available. Any amounts received by a qualifying school district in any fiscal year pursuant to clause (3)(c) shall not be applied to reduce foundation aids which the district is entitled to receive pursuant to section 124A.02 or the permissible levies of the district. Any amount remaining after the payments provided in this paragraph shall be paid to the commissioner of iron range resources and rehabilitation who shall deposit the same in the taconite environmental protection fund and the northeast Minnesota economic protection trust fund as provided in clause (9).

(d) There shall be distributed to any school district the amount which the school district was entitled to receive under section 298.32 in 1975.

(4) 19.5 cents per taxable ton to counties to be distributed, based upon certification by the commissioner of revenue, as follows:

(a) 15.5 cents per taxable ton shall be distributed to the county in which the taconite is mined or quarried or in which the concentrate is produced, less any amount which is to be distributed pursuant to part (b). The apportionment formula prescribed in clause (1) is the basis for the distribution.

(b) If an electric power plant owned by and providing the primary source of power for a taxpayer mining and concentrating taconite is located in a county other than the county in which the mining and the concentrating processes are conducted, one cent per taxable ton of the tax distributed to the counties pursuant to part (a) and imposed on and collected from such taxpayer shall be paid to the county in which the power plant is located.

In any calendar year in which a general property tax levy subject to sections 275.50 to 275.59 has been made, if the taxes distributable to any such county or city are greater than the amount estimated by the commissioner to be paid to any such county or city in such year, the excess of such distribution shall be held in a special fund by the county or city and shall not be expended until the succeeding calendar year, and shall be included in computing the permissible levies under sections 275.50 to 275.59, of such county or city payable in such year. If the amounts distributable to any such county or city after final determination by the commissioner of revenue under this section are less than the amounts by which a taxing district's levies were reduced pursuant to this section, such county or city may issue certificates of indebtedness in the amount of the shortage, and may include in its next tax levy, in excess of the limitations of sections 275.50 to 275.59 an amount sufficient to pay such certificates of indebtedness and interest thereon, or, if no certificates were issued, an amount equal to such shortage.

"Section 1. [145.461] [COMPREHENSIVE SCHOOL-BASED HEALTH CLINICS.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] The commissioner of health, the commissioner of human services, and the commissioner of education, shall assist school and community personnel to develop comprehensive school-based health clinics for adolescents. Poor health status significantly impedes a child's ability to learn in school, to move from a school setting to a productive adult life, and may contribute to early parenthood. In addition, lack of access to health care diminishes a child's ability to learn. The special health and related problems that adolescents face make it particularly important for them to have access at school to health care providers especially trained to deal with young people and to comprehensive health care services for the special health problems particular to young people.

Subd. 2. [CLINIC OPERATORS.] School clinic projects may be operated by school districts, school districts in conjunction with any public or private nonprofit entity, or any public or private nonprofit entity in cooperation with school districts except public or private nonprofit entities that provide abortion services, other than solely when medically necessary.

Subd. 3. [SCOPE OF SERVICES.] School-based clinics shall be assisted in developing comprehensive adolescent health care services which include primary care services available on-site and other services available upon referral. Primary care services include comprehensive health exams and follow-up care for routine health problems for teenagers; nutrition counseling; family planning services; pregnancy testing, prenatal and postpartum care; and screening and treatment of sexually transmitted disease. Other services that may be provided on-site or upon referral include: comprehensive health exams and follow-up care for children under age two; adolescent mental health care, including grief counseling, peer counseling, and chemical dependency evaluation and treatment; educational programs relating to family life, parenting responsibilities, responsibilities of sexuality, and problems related to premarital sexual relationships; transportation; day care; adoption counseling and referral, when appropriate; and education and job training program information. In addition, school clinics shall:

(a) serve all children and determine charges based upon a sliding fee scale;

(b) enroll as a medical assistance provider and meet the requirements of chapter 256B;

(c) not dispense birth control devices, perform abortions or provide abortion referral or abortion counseling services;

(d) contribute a cash or in-kind match that satisfies the requirement of the early, periodic screening, diagnosis and treatment program for outreach, case-management and referral of children eligible under chapter 256B; and

(e) seek recovery of payments from third-party payers who may be liable to pay part or all of the cost of medical care.

Clinics shall be encouraged to:

(a) locate in a regular, comprehensive coeducational school; and

(b) provide services at least four days each week for a period of at least 20 hours each week during the regular school day.

Subd. 4. [DUTIES OF THE COMMISSIONER OF HEALTH.] For a period of three years the commissioner of health shall monitor and evaluate school-based clinics. Clinics will be evaluated on:

(1) a demonstrated reduction in the number of adolescent pregnancies;

(2) a demonstrated improvement in the health of babies born to adolescent parents; and

(3) a demonstrated increase in the retention of students and adolescent parents in school.

The commissioner shall develop a uniform system of reporting comparable data to be used to evaluate projects."

$7,000, or

$5 times the population of the district.

For fiscal year 1986, the aid shall be an amount equal to the difference obtained by subtracting

(2) However, for any district which certifies less than the maximum permissible levy under the provisions of section 275.125, subdivision 8, clause (1), the district's community education aid under clause (1) of this subdivision shall be reduced by multiplying the aid amount computed pursuant to clause (1) of this subdivision by the ratio of the district's actual levy under section 275.125, subdivision 8, clause (1), to its maximum permissible levy under section 275.125, subdivision 8, clause (1). For purposes of computing the aid reduction pursuant to this clause, the amount certified pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 8, clause (1), shall not reflect reductions made pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 9.

(6) for the payment of any special assessments levied against the property of the district authorized pursuant to under section 435.19 or any other law or charter provision authorizing assessments against publicly owned property; provided that a district may not levy amounts to pay assessments for service charges, such as those described in section 429.101, whether levied pursuant to under that section or pursuant to any other law or home rule provision. (c) Subject to the commissioner's approval, the proceeds may also be used to acquire or construct buildings. The state board shall promulgate rules establishing the criteria to be used by the commissioner in approving and disapproving district applications requesting the use of capital expenditure tax proceeds for the acquisition or construction of buildings. The approval criteria for purposes of building acquisition and construction shall include: the appropriateness of the proposal for the district's long-term needs; the availability of adequate existing facilities; and the economic feasibility of bonding because of the proposed building's size or cost.

(1) 2.5 cents per gross ton of merchantable iron ore concentrate, hereinafter referred to as "taxable ton," to the city or town in the county in which the lands from which taconite was mined or quarried were located or within which the concentrate was produced. If the mining, quarrying, and concentration, or different steps in either thereof are carried on in more than one taxing district, the commissioner shall apportion equitably the proceeds of the part of the tax going to cities and towns among such subdivisions upon the basis of attributing 40 percent of the proceeds of the tax to the operation of mining or quarrying the taconite, and the remainder to the concentrating plant and to the processes of concentration, and with respect to each thereof giving due consideration to the relative extent of such operations performed in each such taxing district. His order making such apportionment shall be subject to review by the tax court at the instance of any of the interested taxing districts, in the same manner as other orders of the commissioner.

(2) (a) 12.5 cents per taxable ton, less any amount distributed under clause (7), paragraph (a), and paragraph (b) of this clause, to be distributed as provided in section 298.282.

The amount will be the portion of a township's certified levy equal to the proportion of (1) the difference between 50 percent of the township's January 2, 1982, assessed value and its current assessed value to (2) the sum of its current assessed value plus the difference determined in (1). The county auditor shall extend the township's levy against the sum of the township's current assessed value plus the difference between 50 percent of its January 2, 1982, assessed value and its current assessed value. If the current assessed value of the township exceeds 50 percent of the township's January 2, 1982, assessed value, this clause shall not apply.

(3) 29 cents per taxable ton plus the increase provided in paragraph (c) to qualifying school districts to be distributed, based upon the certification of the commissioner of revenue, as follows:

(a) Six cents per taxable ton to the school districts in which the lands from which taconite was mined or quarried were located or within which the concentrate was produced. The distribution must be based on the apportionment formula prescribed in clause (1).

(b) 23 cents per taxable ton, less any amount distributed under part (d), shall be distributed to a group of school districts comprised of those school districts wherein the taconite was mined or quarried or the concentrate produced or in which there is a qualifying municipality as defined by section 273.134 in direct proportion to school district tax levies as follows: each district shall receive that portion of the total distribution which its certified levy for the prior year, computed pursuant to sections 124A.03, 124A.06, subdivision 3a, 124A.08, subdivision 3a, 124A.10, subdivision 3a, 124A.12, subdivision 3a, 124A.14, subdivision 5a, and 275.125, comprises of the sum of certified levies for the prior year for all qualifying districts, computed pursuant to sections 124A.03, 124A.06, subdivision 3a, 124A.08, subdivision 3a, 124A.10, subdivision 3a, 124A.12, subdivision 3a, 124A.14, subdivision 5a, and 275.125. (b) 1.5 cents per taxable ton shall be paid to the northeast Minnesota economic protection trust fund.

The commissioner of revenue shall annually on or before October 10 report an estimated distribution amount to each taxing district and the officers with whom such report is so filed shall use the amount so indicated as being distributable to each taxing district in computing the permissible tax levy of such county or city in the year in which such estimate is made, and payable in the next ensuing calendar year, except that one cent per taxable ton of the amount distributed under clause (4)(c) shall not be deducted in calculating the permissible levy. In any calendar year in which a general property tax levy subject to sections 275.50 to 275.59 has been made, if the taxes distributable to any such county or city are greater than the amount estimated by the commissioner to be paid to any such county or city in such year, the excess of such distribution shall be held in a special fund by the county or city and shall not be expended until the succeeding calendar year, and shall be included in computing the permissible levies under sections 275.50 to 275.59, of such county or city payable in such year. If the amounts distributable to any such county or city after final determination by the commissioner of revenue under this section are less than the amounts by which a taxing district's levies were reduced pursuant to this section, such county or city may issue certificates of indebtedness in the amount of the shortage, and may include in its next tax levy, in excess of the limitations of sections 275.50 to 275.59 an amount sufficient to pay such certificates of indebtedness and interest thereon, or, if no certificates were issued, an amount equal to such shortage.

"ARTICLE 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. [260A.01] [CITATION.]

Articles 1 and 2 may be cited as "the Minnesota juvenile code."

Sec. 2. [260A.011] [PURPOSE AND CONSTRUCTION.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] (a) The legislature finds that children, their families, and participants who are subject to the jurisdiction of the juvenile court are entitled to humane treatment, respect for their rights, and limits on any loss of their liberty. In pursuit of these general goals, the law must define clearly the limits of permissible state authority over children and families as well as provide for due process, system accountability, and the efficient use of resources for the benefit of all participants, victims, and the public.

(b) The purpose of the juvenile court laws relating to children alleged or adjudicated in need of protection and services and under the jurisdiction of the court is to secure for them care, protection, and guidance, preferably in the child's own home and community, that will serve the spiritual, emotional, mental and physical well-being of the child; to preserve and strengthen the child's family whenever possible by removing the child from the custody of parents only when the child's needs cannot be met or safety cannot be adequately assured without removal; and, when the child is removed from the family, to secure for the child custody, care, and discipline as nearly possible equivalent to that which should have been given by the child's parents, while seeking to safely reunify the child and family whenever possible.

(c) The purpose of the juvenile court laws relating to children alleged or adjudicated in violation of law and under the jurisdiction of the court is to recognize the unique characteristics and needs of children; to promote the public safety by maintaining the integrity of the substantive law prohibiting certain behavior, and to develop individual responsibility for lawful behavior. This purpose must be pursued through means that are fair and just and that give preference to the use of rehabilitative programs, but recognizing that appropriately applied consequences may be a form of rehabilitation.

Subd. 2. [CONSTRUCTION.] The provisions of this chapter shall be liberally construed to carry out these purposes.

Subd. 3. [LIMITATION.] Unless otherwise specifically provided, nothing in this chapter prevents the provision of services or programs to children on a voluntary basis.

Sec. 3. [260A.015] [DUTY TO INSURE FAMILY REUNIFICATION.]

At all stages of juvenile court proceedings, it shall be the duty of the court to insure that all reasonable efforts are made to reunite a child with the child's family at the earliest possible moment, consistent with the safety of the child and the public.

*A child who has been taken into custody under section 19 has the right to all constitutional and statutory protections given to an adult upon arrest. Subdivision 1. [NOTIFICATION OF PARENTS.] A person who takes a child into custody under section 19 or the person's designee shall attempt to notify the child's parent, guardian, or custodian as soon as possible by every reasonable means. However, if the parent, guardian, or responsible relative is unavailable, the child in custody may be questioned if the child is represented by counsel during the questioning.

Subd. 4. [NOTIFICATION OF RIGHTS.] A person who takes a child into custody under section 19 or the person's designee shall advise the child of the child's constitutional rights to the same extent that an adult in a criminal matter is advised before custodial questioning by a peace officer. A person who takes a child into custody under section 19 or the person's designee shall also advise the child of the child's right to the presence of a parent, guardian, or other responsible relative during custodial questioning. The advisory required under this subdivision shall be the same as or substantially the same as the advisory developed by the supreme court under subdivision 5.

If the child is 14 years old or older, the person with authority to release may release the child without adult supervision and upon the child's written promise to appear in court as ordered.*

(b) If the child is released other than to the child's parent, guardian, or custodian, the person with authority to release shall notify the child's parent, guardian, or custodian as soon as possible of the time and circumstances of the release, the person, if any, to whom the child was released, and any other relevant information.

(c) A parent, guardian, custodian, or responsible relative to whom a child is released shall promise to bring the child to court, if necessary, at the time the court directs. If the person with authority to release believes it desirable, that person may require the person to whom the child is released to sign a written promise to bring the child to court. The intentional violation of the written promise is a misdemeanor.

Sec. 22. [260A.11] [TRANSFER FOR DIAGNOSIS OR TREATMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [MEDICAL TREATMENT.] If the person who takes the

Subd. 3. [ALCOHOL TREATMENT.] If the person who takes the child into custody reasonably believes the child to be an incapacitated minor, or an intoxicated minor who has threatened, attempted, or inflicted physical self-harm or harm to another and is likely to inflict physical harm unless detained, the person taking custody or other appropriate person may proceed under article 2, section 16.

Subd. 4. [NOTIFICATION.] The notification requirements of section 21, subdivision 1, apply to any place of detention to which a child is transferred under this section.

Sec. 23. [260A.12] [TRANSFER TO DETENTION INTAKE.]

Subdivision 1. [TRANSFER TO INTAKE WORKER.] If the child was taken into custody in a county that has established an intake unit under section 37, and if the person taking custody or the person with authority to release the child is unable to release the child under section 21, subdivision 7, and seeks to detain the child in a place of nonsecure detention, that person shall transfer the child to an intake worker who has been designated by the county to make nonsecure detention intake decisions. When a child is transferred to the intake worker, the person taking custody or the persons with authority to release shall make a written statement, with supporting facts, of the reasons for taking the child into custody and for transferring him or her to the intake worker, and shall give a copy of the statement to the intake worker and the child. The intake worker shall review the statement to determine if the criteria set forth in section 24, subdivision 1, for holding the child in nonsecure detention have been met. If the criteria have been met, the intake worker may transfer the child to a place of nonsecure detention listed in section 24, subdivision 2. If the criteria have not been met, the person taking custody or the person with authority to release shall make every reasonable effort to release the child in the manner provided in section 21, subdivision 7.

Subd. 2. [TRANSFER TO PLACE OF NONSECURE DETENTION.] If the child was taken into custody in a county that has not established an intake unit under section 37, and if the person taking custody or the person with authority to release the child is unable to release the child under section 21, subdivision 7, and determines that the criteria in section 24, subdivision 1, for holding the child in nonsecure detention have been met, that person may transfer the child to a place of nonsecure detention listed in section 24, subdivision 2.

Subd. 3. [TRANSFER TO SECURE DETENTION INTAKE.] If the person taking custody or the person with authority to release the child is unable to release the child under section 21, subdivision 7, and seeks to detain the child in a place of secure detention, that person shall transfer the child to a secure detention intake officer. When a child is transferred to the secure detention intake officer, the person taking custody or the person with authority to release shall make a written statement, with supporting facts, of the reasons for taking the child into custody and for transferring him or her to the secure detention intake officer, and shall give a copy of the statement to the officer and the child. The secure detention intake officer shall review the statement to determine whether the criteria set forth in section 24, subdivision 3, for holding the child in secure detention have been met. If the criteria have been met, the secure detention intake officer shall admit the child to the secure detention facility. If the criteria have not been met, the person taking custody or person with authority to release shall either make every reasonable effort to release the child in the manner provided by section 21, subdivision 7, or seek to detain the child in a place of nonsecure detention in the manner provided in subdivision 1 or 2, whichever is applicable.

Subd. 4. [ADMINISTRATIVE HOLD PENDING RELEASE.] If the person taking custody or person with authority to release decides to release the child to an adult as provided in section 21, subdivision 7, the child may be detained pursuant to an administrative hold in a facility or by an agency designated by the county until the adult arrives. If the county is unable to designate a nonsecure facility as described in section 24, subdivision 2, and designates an office area within a county or municipal jail or lockup for such a purpose: (1) the child may not be held in the facility for more than six hours; (2) the child must be under constant visual supervision; and (3) the child may not be held in a cell block. Whenever a child is held pending release under this subdivision, the person taking custody or person with authority to release must keep a written record of where the child was held and for what length of time.

Subd. 5. [CERTIFICATION OF SECURE DETENTION INTAKE OFFICERS.] A person who performs the duties of a secure detention intake officer must be certified by the department of corrections as having successfully completed a training course on the procedures and requirements of sections 23 to 28.

Sec. 24. [260A.121] [CRITERIA FOR HOLDING A CHILD IN DETENTION; TYPES OF DETENTION.]

Subdivision 1. [NONSECURE DETENTION.] A child may be held in a place of nonsecure detention under subdivision 2 if the intake worker or, where applicable, the person taking custody or person with authority to release finds that there is probable cause to believe that the child is subject to the court's jurisdiction under section 12 or 13, and that either:

- (1) the child will be personally injured by another unless detained; or
- (2) the parent, guardian, or custodian of the child or other responsible relative is unavailable or unwilling to provide adequate supervision or care; or
- (3) the child will run away or be taken away so as to be unavailable for proceedings of the court or its officers, or for probation revocation proceedings.

The criteria in this subdivision for holding a child in nonsecure detention govern the decisions of all persons responsible for determining whether the action is appropriate.

Subd. 2. [PLACES OF NONSECURE DETENTION.] If the intake worker or, where applicable, the person taking custody or person with authority to release determines that the criteria for holding a child in nonsecure detention have been met, the child may be held in any of the following places:

- (1) the home of a parent, guardian, or custodian;*
- (2) the home of a relative;*
- (3) a licensed foster family home, if the placement does not violate the conditions of the license;*
- (4) a licensed group home, if the placement does not violate the conditions of the license;*
- (5) a nonsecure facility operated by a licensed child welfare agency;*
- (6) a licensed private or public shelter care facility; or*
- (7) the home of a person who is not a relative if the person has not had a foster home license refused, revoked, or suspended within the last two years, and if the placement does not exceed 30 days, provided that the court may extend the placement for an additional 30 days for good cause.*

If a child is held in nonsecure detention under clauses (2) to (7), or if supervisory services of a home detention program are provided to a child held under clause (1), the authorized rate of the facility or program must be paid by the child's county of financial responsibility. If no authorized rate has been established, the court shall fix a reasonable amount to be paid by the county of financial responsibility for the supervision or care of the child. Instead of the county of financial responsibility, the court may require the child's parent, guardian, or custodian to pay the cost of holding the child in detention if it makes the determination provided for in section 260.251, subdivision 1.

Subd. 3. [SECURE DETENTION.] The secure detention intake officer may order that the child be held in the secure detention facility if the conditions in paragraph (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), or (g) are met:

(a) There is probable cause to believe that the child has committed an offense that would be a felony if committed by an adult, and:

(1) there is probable cause to believe that the child has a record of failure to appear at a court hearing within the past six months; or

(2) there is probable cause to believe that the child is awaiting disposition on a previous adjudication for a delinquent act that would be a felony if committed by an adult; or

(3) there is probable cause to believe that the child is under the continuing delinquency jurisdiction of the court and is presently on probation or parole supervision; or

(4) there is probable cause to believe that the child has a demonstrable

recent record, other than the offense alleged, of violent conduct resulting in injury to others, including the types of conduct indicated in paragraph (b); or

(5) there is probable cause to believe that the child has expressly stated an intention to harm or threaten another person if released.

(b) There is probable cause to believe that the child has committed an offense that if committed by an adult would constitute murder in the first, second, or third degree, assault in the first degree, criminal sexual conduct in the first degree, or kidnapping with the purpose of committing great bodily harm.

(c) There is probable cause to believe that the child is a fugitive from another state or has absconded from a correctional facility, and there has been no reasonable opportunity to return the child.

(d) There is probable cause to believe that the child is under the continuing delinquency jurisdiction of the court, has run away from a court-ordered residential treatment facility placement, and there has been no reasonable opportunity to return the child. No child may be held in secure detention under this paragraph for more than 24 hours unless the court orders an extension of time for an additional 24 hours for good cause shown. The court may order only one extension in any individual case.

(e) There is probable cause to believe that the child has committed a delinquent act and that, after having been placed in nonsecure detention by a nonsecure detention officer under subdivision 2 or by the judge under section 28 in order to hold the child for trial on the delinquent act, the child has run away from nonsecure detention or committed a delinquent act. The child may not be held in secure detention under this paragraph unless there is no suitable alternative to secure detention.

(f) There is probable cause to believe that the child is under the continuing delinquency jurisdiction of the court, has run away from another county, and would run away if held in nonsecure detention pending return. No child may be held in secure detention under this paragraph for more than 24 hours unless the court orders an extension of time for an additional 24 hours for good cause shown. The court may not order more than one extension of time under this paragraph.

(g) There is probable cause to believe that secure detention is necessary to protect the public safety because the child will engage in further criminal acts, or that the detention is necessary to protect the child from imminent harm to the health or safety of the child.

Subd. 4. [JAIL OR LOCKUP.] (a) If the secure detention intake officer determines that the criteria for holding a child in secure detention have been met, the child may be held in a county or municipal jail or lockup, approved by the commissioner of corrections for the holding of juveniles, for up to six hours if the facility is located within a metropolitan statistical area, and for up to 24 hours, excluding weekends and holidays, if the facility is located outside of a metropolitan statistical area, if:

(1) the child is 14 years old or older;

(2) the child has been taken into custody for an act that would be a crime if committed by an adult;

(3) there is no licensed secure detention facility in the county, or in a contiguous county within 50 miles of the place where the child is in custody;

(4) there is no less restrictive alternative to the jail or lockup;

(5) the jail or lockup has adequate staff to supervise and monitor the child's activities at all times; and

(6) the child is confined in a manner that prevents haphazard or accidental contact with adult inmates.

(b) A child who has been referred for prosecution as an adult pursuant to section 260.125 and against whom criminal felony charges have been filed may be considered an adult for the purposes of this subdivision.

Sec. 25. [260A.122] [NOTICE OF DETENTION; TRANSPORTATION OF CHILD.]

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE TO PARENTS AND COUNSEL.] The person who made the detention decision under section 24 shall advise a child who is held in detention, the child's attorney, if any, and, as soon as possible, the child's parent, guardian, or custodian:

(1) of the reasons why the child has been taken into custody and placed in detention; and

(2) of the name, address, and telephone number of the secure detention facility, jail, lockup, or place of nonsecure detention except as otherwise provided in subdivision 2; and

(3) that the child's parent, guardian, custodian, guardian ad litem, or attorney may make an initial visit to the place of detention at any time; that subsequent visits by a parent, guardian, or custodian may be made on a reasonable basis during visiting hours, and that subsequent visits may be made by the child's attorney or guardian ad litem at reasonable hours; and

(4) that the child may telephone the child's parents, attorney, or guardian ad litem from the place of detention immediately after admission and thereafter on a reasonable basis as determined by the person in charge of the place of detention; and

(5) that the child may not be detained for alleged unlawful acts for longer than 36 hours, excluding weekends and holidays, or, if held in a jail or lockup under section 24, subdivision 4, for longer than 24 hours, excluding weekends and holidays, unless a petition has been filed within that time and the court orders the child's continued detention pursuant to section 28.

Subd. 2. [EXCEPTION TO NOTIFICATION.] If the intake worker or, where applicable, the person taking custody or person with authority to release determines that there is reason to believe that disclosure to the parents, guardian, or custodian of the information contained in subdivision 1, clause (2), would immediately endanger the child's health or safety, that person may withhold all or part of the information as may be appropriate. A determination to withhold must be included in the report required by subdivision 3, together with instructions to the place of detention to notify or withhold notification.

Subd. 3. [NOTICE TO COURT AND FACILITY.] The person who made the detention decision under section 24 shall deliver to the court and to the person in charge of the place of detention a signed report, setting forth:

- (1) the time when the child was taken into custody;*
- (2) the time the child was delivered for transportation to the place of detention;*
- (3) the reasons why the child was taken into custody and placed in detention;*
- (4) a statement that the child and the child's parent, guardian, custodian, and attorney have received the notice required by subdivision 1, or the reasons why they have not been notified; and*
- (5) any instructions required by subdivision 2.*

Subd. 4. [TRANSPORTATION TO A PLACE OF DETENTION.] A child who is being held in detention under section 24 must be transported promptly to the place of detention. The mode of transportation must be approved by the person in charge of the place of detention, or by obtaining a written transportation order from the court authorizing transportation by the sheriff or other qualified person.

Subd. 5. [NOTIFICATION DUTIES OF SECURE DETENTION FACILITY.] When a child has been delivered to a secure detention facility, the supervisor of the facility or the supervisor's designee shall deliver a signed report to the court in the county where the offense occurred, acknowledging receipt of the child and stating the time of the child's arrival. If the report delivered under subdivision 3 indicates that notification under subdivision 1 has not been made, the supervisor or designee shall immediately attempt to make the notification, and shall include in the report made to the court a statement that notification has been received or the reasons why it has not.

Subd. 6. [NOTIFICATION DUTIES OF PLACE OF NONSECURE DETENTION.] When a child has been delivered to a place of nonsecure detention, the person in charge of it or that person's designee shall deliver a signed report to the court in the county where the offense occurred, acknowledging receipt of the child and stating the time of the child's arrival. That person shall also ascertain from the report delivered pursuant to subdivision 3 if notification has been made as required by subdivisions 1 and 2, and shall follow any instructions contained in the report. This subdivision does not apply when the place of nonsecure detention is the home of a parent, guardian, or custodian or home of a relative.

Sec. 26. [260A.123] [DISCRETIONARY RELEASE PRIOR TO DETENTION HEARING.]

Subdivision 1. [BY OFFICER, FACILITY, OR COUNTY ATTORNEY.] Except when release is prohibited by a court order or by the rules for juvenile court, the person who made the detention decision under section 24, the supervisor of the person making the decision, the person in charge of the place of detention, or the county attorney may release a child at any time before a detention hearing. No conditions of release may be placed on a child who is released pursuant to this subdivision.

Subd. 2. [BY COURT.] The court may at any time release the child and may impose one or more of the following conditions:

(a) It may require the child or the child's parent, guardian, or custodian to post bail.

(b) It may place restrictions on the child's travel, associations, or place of abode during the period of the child's release.

(c) It may impose any other conditions reasonably necessary and consistent with criteria for detaining the child.

Conditions of release terminate after 36 hours unless a detention hearing has commenced and the court has ordered continued detention.

Subd. 3. [RELEASE TO CUSTODY OF ADULT.] A child released from detention under this section shall be released to the custody of the child's parent, guardian, custodian, or other responsible relative.

Sec. 27. [260A.124] [DETENTION HEARING; PROCEDURES; NOTICE; WAIVER.]

Subdivision 1. [WHEN REQUIRED.] When a child is held in a place of detention listed in section 24, subdivision 2 or 3, the court shall hold a hearing within 36 hours of the time the child was taken into custody, excluding weekends and holidays, to determine the need for continued detention of the child. When a child is held in detention as provided in section 24, subdivision 4, the court shall hold a hearing within 24 hours of the time the child was taken into custody, excluding weekends and holidays, to determine the need for continued detention of the child. The court's determination shall be based on the criteria contained in section 24.

Subd. 2. [PETITION FILED PRIOR TO HEARING.] At or before the scheduled time of the hearing, the county attorney shall file a petition with the court in accordance with section 39 containing a statement of the offense charged and a statement of the underlying facts constituting probable cause to believe that the child committed the offense charged. The court must find that it has received sufficient evidence of probable cause in order to continue detention under section 28. If no petition is filed within the time limit specified in subdivision 1, the child shall be released from detention.

Subd. 3. [WAIVER OF HEARING.] A child held in a place of nonsecure detention may waive the detention hearing in writing if the child is represented by counsel at the time of the waiver. A detention hearing must be held after the waiver, however, if the child or any other interested party requests, or if the child is later transferred to a secure detention facility.

Subd. 4. [NOTICE OF HEARING.] The court or its designee shall give the child and the child's parent, guardian, or custodian prior notice of the hearing. The notice must state the time and place of the hearing and must advise the parties of their right to be represented by counsel or right to assistance of counsel as provided in sections 52 and 53, and of the consequences of failure to appear at the hearing.

Subd. 5. [COPY OF PETITION.] Before or at the beginning of the hearing the court or its designee shall give the child a copy of the petition.

Subd. 6. [DUTY TO INFORM CHILD; APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL.] Before the hearing begins, the court shall inform the child of the allegations that have been or may be made against the child, and shall ensure that the child is advised of the right to be represented by counsel as provided in section 52. If counsel is appointed for the child, the court shall provide adequate time for the child to consult with counsel.

Sec. 28. [260A.125] [COURT ORDERS; REVIEW; AMENDMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [RELEASE.] If the court finds either that the criteria of section 24 for holding a child in detention are not met or that the petition is not supported by probable cause, it shall order the child released to the custody of the child's parent, guardian, custodian, or other responsible relative, and shall dismiss the petition if unsupported by probable cause.

Subd. 2. [CONTINUATION OF DETENTION.] (a) If the court finds that the criteria of section 24 for holding a child in detention are met and makes a finding of probable cause based on the statement contained in the petition, it shall order that the child continue to be held in detention for up to eight days, excluding weekends and holidays.

(b) The court, in its order, may place the child with a parent, guardian, custodian, or other responsible relative, and impose reasonable restrictions on the child's travel, associations, and places of abode during the placement period. The restrictions may include a condition requiring the child to return to the place of detention upon request. The court's order may subject the child to supervision by an agency agreeing to supervise the child. The court may also place reasonable restrictions on the conduct of the child's parent, guardian, or custodian where necessary to ensure the child's safety.

(c) As an alternative to paragraph (b), the court may order that the child be held in detention in an appropriate manner under section 24.

Subd. 3. [ORDERS IN WRITING.] Orders to continue a child in detention must be in writing, and must contain a statement of (1) the reasons for continued detention; (2) the facts supporting these reasons; and (3) the criteria of section 24 under which the order is made.

Subd. 4. [NOTICE OF ORDER.] Copies of the court's order must be issued within 72 hours and served on the parties, including the person in charge of the place of detention. That person shall release the child or continue detention as the order directs. When an order continuing detention is served on the parties, each of them must be notified of the provisions of subdivision 5, including their right to submit to the court for informal review any new evidence regarding whether the child should be continued in detention, and their right to request a hearing to present the evidence to the court.

Subd. 5. [INFORMAL REVIEW; HEARING.] (a) If a child held in detention under subdivision 2 has not been released before the court's order expires, the court shall review the child's case file informally to determine whether detention should be continued under the criteria contained in section 24. If detention is continued after review, informal reviews such as these shall be made within every eight days, excluding weekends and holidays, of the child's continued detention.

(b) A hearing rather than an informal review must be held by the court at the request of any party notified under subdivision 4 if the party notifies the court of a wish to present new evidence concerning the need to continue holding the child in detention:

Subd. 6. [AMENDMENT OF ORDER.] If a child placed in detention under subdivision 2, paragraph (a), or other person who is subject to the order fails to conform to the conditions imposed in the order, the court may, with the consent of the parties or after notice and a hearing, amend the order so as to place the child in another appropriate place of detention. A child may be transferred to a secure detention facility on meeting the criteria contained in section 24, subdivision 3.

Sec. 29. [260A.13] [GROUNDS FOR TAKING CUSTODY; RUNAWAYS.]

A peace officer who has probable cause to believe a child is an absentee from home or has run away from court-ordered placement may take the child into custody if:

(1) the peace officer has probable cause to believe that the child has run away from the child's parent, guardian, or legal or physical custodian; and

(2) the purpose of taking custody is either to return the child to the family, guardian, or custodian, or to determine whether or not protective services, shelter care, or a proceeding pursuant to section 14 is needed.

Sec. 30. [260A.131] [TAKING CUSTODY AND RELEASE OF ABSENTEES FROM HOME; STANDARDS; PROCEDURES.]

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE; RELEASE.] When a child is taken into custody pursuant to section 29 and it appears that the child is a habitual absentee from home, the person taking custody or the person's designee shall follow the appropriate notice, procedures and release standards contained in section 21.

Subd. 2. [TRANSFER TO INTAKE WORKER.] If the child was taken into custody in a county which has established an intake unit under section 37, and if the person taking custody or the person with authority to release cannot release the child under section 21 or has probable cause to believe that grounds exist to hold the child under subdivision 3, the person taking custody may transfer the child to an intake worker who has been designated by the county to make nonsecure detention intake decisions. The transfer must be made according to procedures in section 23, subdivision 1.

Subd. 3. [TRANSFER TO PLACE OF NONSECURE DETENTION.] If the child was taken into custody in a county that has not established an intake unit under section 37, and if the person taking custody or person with authority to release cannot release the child under section 21, and determines that the criteria in subdivision 4 for holding the child in nonsecure detention have been met, the person may transfer the child to a place of nonsecure detention listed in section 24, subdivision 2.

Subd. 4. [NONSECURE DETENTION; CRITERIA.] The intake worker, where applicable, the person taking custody or person with authority to release may transfer the child to a place of nonsecure detention listed in section 24, subdivision 2, if the person has probable cause to believe the child is an habitual absentee from home and either:

(1) there is no responsible adult relative or other responsible adult to care for and supervise the child;

(2) the child wishes to be placed in nonsecure detention;

(3) it is necessary to hold the child until the parent, guardian, or custodian arrives; or

(4) it is necessary to hold the child for transfer to another state or county jurisdiction.

Subd. 5. [TRANSFER TO PLACE OF NONSECURE DETENTION; NOTICE; TRANSPORTATION.] The person who made the detention decision under subdivision 4 shall follow the appropriate notification and transportation procedures contained in section 25, except that instead of the statement required under section 25, subdivision 1, clause (5), the person shall state that the child may not be detained for longer than 72 hours, excluding weekends and holidays, unless a petition under section 39 has been filed within that time and the court orders temporary removal of the child pursuant to section 36.

Sec. 31. [260A.132] [TAKING CUSTODY AND RELEASE; RUN-AWAYS FROM COURT-ORDERED PLACEMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [RELEASE OR TRANSFER.] When a child is taken into custody under section 29 and it appears that the child has run away from a foster family home, group home, or other court-ordered placement, the person taking custody may return the child to placement or follow the procedures contained in section 30, subdivision 2 or 3, whichever is applicable.

Subd. 2. [NONSECURE DETENTION.] If the child refuses to return to placement or requests to be placed in nonsecure detention, or if the custodian refuses to accept the child's return or is unavailable to care for the child, the intake worker or, where applicable, the person taking custody or person with authority to release may transfer the child to an appropriate place of nonsecure detention listed in section 24, subdivision 2.

Subd. 3. [HEARING TO EVALUATE PLACEMENT.] If the child is transferred to a place of nonsecure detention under subdivision 2, the court shall hold a hearing within 72 hours of the transfer, excluding weekends and holidays, to re-evaluate the placement. The child's custodian shall be given notice of and be present at the hearing. At the conclusion of the hearing, the court may either terminate the placement order, modify the order, or vacate the order and issue a new order.

If the child is returned to placement under subdivision 1, the court may hold a hearing to re-evaluate the placement under this subdivision either on its own motion or at the request of an authorized person.

TEMPORARY REMOVAL

Sec. 32. [260A.15] [TEMPORARY REMOVAL FROM HOME; GROUNDS.]

A child who is or may be subject to the court's jurisdiction under section 14, clauses (1) to (6) or (8) to (15), may be temporarily removed from the child's home or surroundings under the following circumstances:

(1) pursuant to a court order, if it appears from a petition filed under section 39 that there is probable cause to believe that the child should be removed immediately from surroundings or conditions that endanger the child's health or safety;

(2) pursuant to an order issued by the court before the filing of a petition under section 39 if the court has probable cause to believe that the child should be removed immediately from surroundings or conditions that endanger the child's health or safety; or

(3) by a peace officer who has probable cause to believe that the child should be removed immediately from surroundings or conditions that endanger the child's health or safety if there is not enough time or opportunity for the peace officer to obtain a court order under clause (2).

Sec. 33. [260A.151] [HOMEMAKER SERVICES.]

In preference to temporary removal of the child under sections 32 to 36, a protective services worker or the court may assign homemaker services or a home health aide to the child's home or present residence if the services or aide are able to protect the child from danger to the child's health or safety. The services or aide may be assigned (1) without a court order for not more than 24 hours, and then (2) with a court order for a period of time determined by the court pending disposition of the case. The cost of the services must be paid initially by the county of financial responsibility. The county must be reimbursed by the parent, guardian, or custodian as provided in section 260.251.

Sec. 34. [260A.152] [COURT-ORDERED TEMPORARY REMOVAL; PROCEDURES.]

Subdivision 1. [ISSUANCE OF ORDER; CONTENTS.] (a) The court may issue an order requiring the temporary removal of a child pursuant to section 32: (1) upon its own motion before or after the filing of a petition under section 39; or (2) upon the application of any person eligible to file a petition under section 39.

(b) If the child was temporarily removed from the child's home or surroundings in a county that has established an intake unit under section 37; before issuing an order under paragraph (a), clause (2), the court shall require that an intake worker confer with the person seeking the removal order to get information about the reason for the request, and otherwise assist the court in disposing of the application.

(c) The order shall contain the equivalent notices required under section 25, subdivision 1; except that, if the court determines that there is reason to believe that visitation or communication by telephone or otherwise with the child would endanger the child's health or safety, it may exclude from the order, in whole or in part, the name, address, and telephone number of the place where the child was removed to or may otherwise limit visitation or communication with the child as may be appropriate.

Subd. 2. [NONSECURE PLACEMENT; NOTICE.] A child who is temporarily removed from home or surroundings under this section may be placed in any nonsecure placement listed in section 24, subdivision 2. The peace officer or other person who removes the child pursuant to subdivision 1, or that person's designee, shall advise the child, the child's attorney, if any, and, as soon as possible, the child's parent, guardian, or custodian of the notices contained in the order and any limitations on visitation or other communication with the child contained therein.

Subd. 3. [MEDICAL TREATMENT.] Before either the filing of a petition under section 39 or a hearing under section 36, the court may, consistent with section 144.344, authorize a physician or hospital to provide a child with emergency medical and surgical procedures without the consent of the child's parent or guardian, if it finds that:

(1) the procedures are necessary to safeguard the life or health of the child; and

(2) there is not enough time either to file the petition or hold the hearing.

Subd. 4. [FILING OF PETITION.] No child may be temporarily removed from home or surroundings for longer than 72 hours, excluding weekends and holidays, unless a petition is filed under section 39 and a temporary removal hearing is conducted under section 36 to determine the need for continued removal of the child.

Sec. 35. [260A.153] [TEMPORARY REMOVAL WITHOUT COURT ORDER; PROCEDURES.]

Subdivision 1. [TRANSFER TO INTAKE WORKER.] A peace officer who removes a child from home or surroundings under section 32, clause (3), in a county that has established an intake unit under section 37, shall immediately bring the child to an intake worker who has been designated by the county to make nonsecure temporary removal placement decisions to determine the appropriate nonsecure placement for the child. The person who removed the child shall inform the intake worker orally and in writing of the reasons for the removal and the circumstances in which the child was found. If, after conferring with the person who removed the child, the intake worker determines that the grounds for removal under section 32, clause (3), have been met, the intake worker may transfer the child to a nonsecure placement as provided in subdivision 3. If the intake worker determines that the grounds for removal under section 32, clause (3), have not been met or that the child should be returned to the child's home or present residence, the intake worker shall arrange for transportation of the child to the home or present residence. Lack of space in nonsecure placement must not be the reason for releasing the child.

Subd. 2. [TRANSFER TO NONSECURE PLACEMENT.] A peace officer who removes a child from home or surroundings under section 32, clause (3), in a county that has not established an intake unit under section 37, and who determines that the child should not be returned to the child's home or present residence, may transfer the child to a nonsecure placement as provided in subdivision 3. If the peace officer or person with authority to release determines that the child should be returned to the home or present residence, the peace officer or other person shall arrange for transportation of the child to the child's home or present residence. Lack of space in nonsecure placement must not be the reason for releasing the child.

Subd. 3. [NONSECURE PLACEMENT; NOTICES.] A child who is temporarily removed from home or surroundings under this section may be placed in any nonsecure placement listed in section 24, subdivision 2. If necessary, the person who made the temporary removal decision under subdivision 1 or 2 shall arrange for transportation of the child to the placement as provided in section 25, subdivision 4, and shall provide the equivalent notices required by section 25, subdivisions 1, 2, and 3. When the child has been transferred to the nonsecure placement, the person in charge of it or the person's designee shall provide the equivalent notices required by section 25, subdivision 6.

Subd. 4. [FILING OF PETITION.] No child may be temporarily removed from home or surroundings for longer than 72 hours, excluding weekends and holidays, unless a petition is filed under section 39 and a temporary removal hearing is conducted under section 36 to determine the need for continued removal of the child.

Sec. 36. [260A.154] [TEMPORARY REMOVAL HEARING.]

Subdivision 1. [WHEN HELD.] (a) When a child is temporarily removed from home or surroundings under sections 32 to 35 and not released, the court shall hold a hearing within 72 hours of the removal, excluding weekends and holidays, to determine the need for continued removal of the child. At or before the scheduled time of the hearing, a petition requesting jurisdiction under section 14 must be filed as provided in section 39.

(b) Whenever a petition has been filed under section 39, the court may conduct a hearing to determine whether or not the child should be temporarily removed from home or surroundings during all or part of the pendency of the case. The hearing may be held on the court's own motion or at the request of any person eligible to file a petition under section 39.

(c) The court shall give the parties prior notice of the hearing in the manner provided in section 27, subdivision 4, and a copy of the petition as required by section 27, subdivision 5. Additionally, before the hearing the court shall find out if the child is an Indian child and, if so, shall have a copy of the notice and petition given to the child's tribal social service agency or its local representative.

Subd. 2. [ORDER.] At the conclusion of the hearing, the court may issue an order taking one of the following actions:

(a) It may temporarily remove the child or continue temporary removal from the home or present residence if it finds that removal or continued removal is necessary to avoid or lessen danger to the child's health or safety.

(b) It may release the child to the child's parent, guardian, or custodian, pending further court action if a less restrictive alternative to removal can reduce the risk to the child's health or safety. Less restrictive alternatives include but are not limited to the assignment of services under section 33.

(c) It may authorize a physician or hospital to provide medical or surgical procedures if found to be necessary to safeguard the child's life or health.

(d) It may grant relief from acts of domestic child abuse in the manner authorized by section 260.133 if the criteria of that section have been satisfied.

If the court finds that the grounds for temporary removal are not met, it shall order the child returned to the child's home or present residence. All orders issued by the court shall be in writing and contain a statement of the findings and reasons supporting the court's decision to remove the child temporarily from the home or present residence or to return the child to the home or present residence.

Subd. 3. [MENTAL HEALTH TREATMENT.] A child who is temporarily removed from home because the child is alleged to be a victim of child abuse as defined in section 630.36, subdivision 2, may not be given mental health treatment specifically for the effects of the alleged abuse until the court finds that there is probable cause to believe the abuse has occurred; except that a child may be given mental health treatment prior to a probable cause finding of child abuse if the treatment is either agreed to by the child's parent or guardian in writing, or ordered by the court upon a finding that treatment is in the child's best interests.

Subd. 4. [PARENTAL VISITATION.] If the court orders temporary removal of a child under subdivision 2 and determines that the child should continue in a nonsecure placement, the court shall include in its order the right to parental visitation of the child in the nonsecure placement, and reasonable provisions for supervised or unsupervised visitation, unless it finds that visitation would endanger the child's health or safety.

Subd. 5. [INFORMAL REVIEW; AMENDMENT.] If the court orders temporary removal of the child under subdivision 2, the court or its designee shall informally review the child's case file every eight days as provided in section 28, subdivision 5, paragraph (a), to determine the need for continued removal pending disposition of the case. A hearing rather than an informal review must be held by the court at the request of any person notified under subdivision 1 who wishes to present new evidence concerning the need for continued removal. In addition, upon the request of any party to the proceeding, the court shall schedule and hold an adjudicatory hearing on the petition within 30 days of the temporary removal hearing.

INTAKE AND SCREENING

Sec. 37. [260A.20] [INTAKE.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT OF INTAKE.] The county attorney may request the county board to establish and maintain an intake unit or units (1) to make nonsecure detention and temporary removal intake decisions under sections 23 to 36, and (2) to provide pre-court diversion services for children alleged to have committed delinquent acts or petty offenses, or for children in need of protection or services, or both. These services shall continue to be provided upon the mutual agreement of the county attorney and the county board. The county board may enter into an agreement with another county or counties or other independent agencies or organizations to provide these intake services for the county. The county board shall adopt guidelines describing the duties and responsibilities of persons providing intake services under this section and shall provide adequate training to intake workers on the procedures and requirements of this section and sections 23 to 36. This section does not mandate a county to establish an intake unit or units.

Subd. 2. [DUTIES OF COUNTY ATTORNEY.] The county attorney has the right and responsibility to screen cases for consideration for pre-court diversion services. Except as otherwise provided in subdivision 9, paragraph (b), nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the county attorney's right to file a petition with the court. The county attorney in each county shall develop written guidelines identifying which types of cases should be referred for an intake inquiry.

Subd. 3. [INTAKE INQUIRY.] With the approval of the county attorney, the intake unit may investigate cases concerning children alleged to have committed delinquent acts or petty offenses, or alleged to be in need of protection or services to determine:

(1) if the available facts establish that the case is the type of case over which the court has jurisdiction; and

(2) what action would best serve the interests of the child, the child's parents or guardian, the community, and, where applicable, the victim of the child's alleged offense.

Subd. 4. [REQUIREMENTS OF INTAKE INQUIRY.] As part of an intake inquiry, the intake worker may do any of the following:

(a) The intake worker may hold conferences with the child and with the child's parents, guardian, or custodian. In deciding to hold an intake inquiry conference, the intake worker shall send a notice to appear by first class mail to the following persons:

(1) the child, if (i) the conference relates to a delinquency or petty offense matter; or (ii) the child is alleged to be in need of protection or services, is 12 years old or older, and is capable of understanding and participating in the conference;

(2) the child's custodial parent or parents;

(3) the child's guardian or custodian, if applicable; and

(4) the child's noncustodial parent if the child is presently living with that parent.

The child and the child's parents, guardian, or custodian may not be compelled to appear at any conference or produce any paper or document. Any party who appears at a conference under this section shall be permitted to have counsel present. No conference may be held unless all persons required to be notified appear, except that only one custodial parent need appear.

(b) The intake worker may interview other persons to determine whether the filing of a petition or other allowable action is warranted.

(c) If the intake worker reasonably believes that alcohol abuse may have contributed to the child's commission of the offense or to the child's need for protection or services, the intake worker may request the child, or the parents, guardian, or custodian of a child alleged to be in need of protection or services, to undergo an alcohol assessment as provided in section 169.126. No person may be compelled to undergo an alcohol assessment under this paragraph.

(d) If the case concerns a child alleged to be in need of protection or services, the intake worker shall determine if the child is an Indian child and, if so, shall make reasonable efforts to seek the assistance of the Indian child's tribal social service agency or its local representative in conducting the inquiry.

The intake worker shall complete the intake inquiry and make a recom- mentation to the county attorney within 60 days of the time that the matter was referred to the intake unit. If the intake inquiry is not completed within 60 days of the initial referral, the intake worker shall refer the matter to the county attorney.

Subd. 5. [ACCESS TO INFORMATION.] (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 13 to the contrary, the intake worker shall have access to the following records for the purpose of conducting an intake inquiry under subdivision 4 or monitoring performance of a formal diversion agreement under subdivision 8, provided that the records are material and relevant:

- (1) court records;*
  - (2) law enforcement agency records;*
  - (3) records of the public agency that initiated the report on which the referral to intake was based; and*
  - (4) records of any public agency that provides services or supervision to the parties under the formal diversion agreement.*
- (b) The intake worker may receive and provide to the victim of the child's offense information that is needed to help the victim obtain reasonable restitution, except that the name of the child or the child's parent, guardian, or custodian may not be given to the victim unless agreed to by the affected party or ordered by a court. The county attorney shall be responsible for providing any notification to the victim that is required by section 609.115.*
- (c) The intake worker may notify the person or agency that initiated the report on which the referral to intake was based of any action taken on the matter.*

Subd. 6. [RIGHTS AT INTAKE INQUIRY CONFERENCE.] At the beginning of an intake inquiry conference, the intake worker shall inform the child and the child's parent, guardian, or custodian of the following:

- (1) that participation in the conference is voluntary;*
- (2) the purpose of the conference;*
- (3) that the conference could result in any of the following: (a) a recommendation to the county attorney that a petition be filed in court, (b) a formal diversion agreement, including the possible requirements of such an agreement and the length of time it could be effective, and (c) a recommendation to the county attorney that no further action be taken in the matter;*
- (4) that successful completion of a formal diversion agreement will result in no court record of the matter;*
- (5) that those parties who are present have the right to have their counsel present at the conference;*
- (6) that the child has the right and, if the child is alleged to be in need of protection or services, that the child's custodial parent or guardian has the right not to participate in the conference and to request that a petition be filed with the court; and*
- (7) that the child alleged to have committed a delinquent act or petty offense has the right to remain silent, but that even if the child exercises this* right, a recommendation to file a petition with the court may still be made by the intake worker.

Subd. 7. [ACTIONS RESULTING FROM INTAKE INQUIRY.] After completing an intake inquiry, the intake worker shall take one of the following actions:

(a) If the intake worker determines that the available facts fail to establish that the case is the type of case over which the court has jurisdiction, the intake worker shall recommend to the county attorney that the case be closed.

(b) If the intake worker determines that further action is neither warranted nor in the interests of the child, the child's parents, guardian, or custodian, the community, or if applicable, the victim of the child's offense, the intake worker shall recommend to the county attorney that the case be closed.

(c) If after an intake inquiry conference the intake worker determines that further action is warranted, but that it would be more beneficial to enter into a formal diversion agreement than to file a petition, the intake worker may enter into a formal diversion agreement pursuant to subdivision 8.

(d) If the intake worker determines that the available facts establish that the case is the type of case over which the court has jurisdiction, and that the interests of the child, the child's parents, guardian, or custodian, the community, or if applicable, the victim of the child's offense, warrant formal court action, the intake worker shall recommend to the county attorney that a petition be filed with the court.

Any recommendations made by the intake worker must be accompanied by the reasons for the recommendation.

The county attorney is deemed to have approved of an intake worker's recommendation to close a case or enter into a formal diversion agreement unless the county attorney sends a written objection to the intake worker and to the parties who were notified of the intake inquiry conference within seven days of receiving the recommendation.

Subd. 8. [FORMAL DIVERSION AGREEMENT.] (a) An intake worker may enter into a formal diversion agreement with the child and the child's parent, guardian, or custodian if all the following conditions are met:

(1) The county attorney has approved of the decision to enter into the agreement, either specifically for that case, or pursuant to written guidelines, or by failing to object as provided in subdivision 7.

(2) Available facts give the intake worker reason to believe that the court would have jurisdiction, if sought.

(3) The parties entering into the agreement have been advised of their rights under subdivision 6, and have been given an opportunity to consult with their counsel.

(4) The agreement is signed by the intake worker and by the parties entitled to notice of the conference under subdivision 4, paragraph (a), who appear at the conference; except that the intake worker may require that both of the child's custodial parents and the child's custodian sign the agreement.

(5) The child and the child's parents, guardian, or custodian who sign the agreement indicate in the agreement that they enter into it voluntarily and with an understanding of their rights as described to them under subdivision 6.

(6) In a delinquency or petty offense matter, there is a factual basis for the allegation to which the child admits.

(7) In a matter alleging a child's need for protection or services, there is a factual basis for the allegation that the child is in need of protection or services and, if the child is an Indian child, the intake worker has made reasonable efforts to involve the child's tribal social service agency or its local representative.

(b) The agreement shall be in writing and signed by the child, the child's parents, guardian, or custodian who are required to sign the agreement, and the intake worker. A copy of the agreement shall be given to the persons who sign it, to those who supervise its conditions, and to those who provide services under it. If the child is an Indian child and if the child's tribe has requested a copy of the agreement, a copy of it shall be given to the child's tribal social service agency or its local representative.

(c) An agreement under this subdivision may be effective for not more than 90 days. However, any part of an agreement requiring restitution may be extended for up to an additional 180 days if the child cannot complete restitution within the original 90-day period and if the extension is agreed to in writing by the parties who signed the original agreement.

(d) If the agreement is based on the child's having committed a delinquent act or petty offense, the agreement may require one or more of the following:

(1) that the child and the child's parents, guardian, or custodian participate in local, community-based counseling programs;

(2) that the child abide by reasonable rules of conduct;

(3) that the child make reasonable restitution;

(4) that the child perform up to 20 hours of uncompensated, supervised community service;

(5) that the child undergo an outpatient chemical dependency evaluation; and

(6) that the child attend up to 20 hours of chemical abuse education classes or of drug awareness program sessions;

(e) If the agreement is based on the child's need for protection or services, the agreement may require one or more of the following:

(1) that the child and the child's parents, guardian, or custodian participate in local community-based counseling programs;

(2) that the child and the child's parents, guardian, or custodian abide by reasonable rules of conduct related to the child's need for protection or services;

(3) that the child and the child's parents, guardian, or custodian receive reasonable in-home and outpatient services related to the child's need for protection or services; and

(4) that the child and the child's parents, guardian, or custodian attend up to 20 hours of chemical abuse education classes or of drug awareness program sessions.

(f) The agreement may not provide for any form of out-of-home placement, any form of secure confinement, any fine, or the loss of any license issued by the state.

(g) The intake worker shall inform the persons who sign a formal diversion agreement:

(1) that all signers of the agreement, except the intake worker, may object at any time to the terms or continuation of the agreement, and that if an objection is made, the intake worker may negotiate an amendment of the terms of the agreement subject to the approval of all the signers; and

(2) that if there is a violation of the terms of the agreement, the intake worker may recommend to the county attorney that a petition be filed with the court.

The advisory required under this paragraph must be in writing and may be made a part of the formal diversion agreement.

Subd. 9. [VIOLATION OR COMPLETION OF DIVERSION AGREEMENT.] (a) If during the period of the agreement the intake worker finds probable cause that the terms of the agreement are not being met, the intake worker shall document the facts constituting probable cause and either negotiate an amendment to the agreement, or cancel the agreement and refer the matter to the county attorney. The referral must be in writing and be accompanied by a written statement of the documented facts and the intake worker's recommendation. The county attorney may cancel the agreement and file a petition.

(b) If the terms of the agreement are met within the required time, the intake worker shall notify the parties that the matter is being closed. No petition may be filed based on the events that prompted the original referral, except that in cases involving a child's need for protection or services, the underlying facts for the intake action may be used in addition to other facts to prove a subsequent petition alleging the child's need for protection or services. The fact that a case was handled by the intake unit may be disclosed to the court; however, this shall not be interpreted to mean that the child has a court record concerning the intake matter.

Subd. 10. [PRIVILEGE.] Except as otherwise provided in this section and section 626.556, an intake worker may not be examined for or against a child, or a child's parents, guardian, or custodian with respect to any communication made or information gathered pursuant to this section from or about the child, or the child's parents, guardian, or custodian, except upon the written, informed consent of the person about whom the communication or information was concerned or from whom the communication or information was received.

PROCEDURES

Sec. 38. [260A.251] [REFERENCE IN CASES OF JUVENILE MAJOR TRAFFIC OFFENSES.]

If, after a hearing, the court finds that:

(1) there is probable cause, as defined by the rules of criminal procedure adopted pursuant to section 480.059, to believe a child subject to the court's jurisdiction under section 13, subdivision 2, has committed the juvenile major traffic offense alleged in the petition; and

(2) the prosecuting authority has demonstrated by clear and convincing evidence that the child is not suitable to treatment or that the public safety would not be served under the provisions of this chapter; then the court may transfer the case to any court of competent jurisdiction presided over by a salaried judge if there is one in the county. The juvenile court may transfer the case by forwarding to the appropriate court the documents in the court's file together with an order to transfer. The court to which the case is transferred shall proceed with the case as if the jurisdiction of the juvenile court had never attached.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 260.131, is amended to read:

260.131 [PETITION PROCEDURES; GENERALLY.]

Subdivision 1. [PETTY OFFENSES; PROTECTIVE SERVICES; AND MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS.] Any reputable person, including but not limited to a county attorney and any agent of the commissioner of human services, having knowledge of a child in this state or of a child who is a resident of this state, who appears to be ~~delinquent, neglected, dependent, or neglected and in foster care,~~ within the court's jurisdiction under section 13, subdivision 1, and subdivision 2, in cases involving juvenile minor traffic offenses, and sections 14 and 15, may petition the juvenile court in the manner provided in this section.

Subd. 1a. [~~REVIEW OF FOSTER CARE STATUS.~~] The social service agency responsible for the placement of a child in a residential facility, as defined in section 257.071, subdivision 1, pursuant to a voluntary release by the child's parent or parents may bring a petition in juvenile court to review the foster care status of the child in the manner provided in this section.

Subd. 1b. [DELINQUENCY AND JUVENILE MAJOR TRAFFIC OFFENSES.] A county attorney of the county where the child resides or where the acts constituting the basis for the petition occurred who has probable cause to believe that the court has jurisdiction over the child under section 12 or section 13, subdivision 2, in cases involving juvenile major traffic offenses, may petition the court in the manner provided in this section.

Subd. 2. [REQUIREMENTS.] (a) The petition shall be verified by the person having knowledge of the facts and may be on information and belief. Unless otherwise provided by rule or order of the court, the county attorney shall draft the petition upon ~~the~~ a showing of reasonable grounds probable cause to support the petition.

(b) In addition to the content requirements of subdivision 3, a petition containing a statement of the facts establishing probable cause must be filed with the court whenever:

(1) jurisdiction under section 14 is alleged;

(2) a child is alleged to have committed an offense that would be a felony if committed by an adult; and

(3) the petition is ordered by the court upon its own motion or the motion of the child, if the child is alleged to have committed an offense that would be a gross misdemeanor or misdemeanor if committed by an adult.

(c) The facts establishing probable cause must be set forth in writing in or with the petition, or in supporting affidavits and may be supplemented by sworn testimony of witnesses taken before the court. If such testimony is taken, a note so stating must be made on the petition by the court. The testimony must be recorded by a reporter or recording instrument and must be transcribed and filed.

Subd. 3. [CONTENTS.] The petition and all subsequent court documents shall be entitled substantially as follows:

If any of the facts required by the petition are not known or cannot be ascertained by the petitioner, the petition shall so state.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 260.132, is amended to read:

260.132 [~~PROCEDURE; HABITUAL TRUANTS, RUNAWAYS, JUVENILE PETTY OFFENDERS CITATION PROCEDURES; GENERALLY.~~]

Subdivision 1. [~~NOTICE CITATION.~~] When a peace officer, or attendance officer in the case of a ~~habitual truant~~ chronic truant from school, has probable cause to believe that a ~~child is a runaway, a habitual truant, or a juvenile petty offender~~ the court has jurisdiction over a child under section 12, for an offense that would be a misdemeanor if committed by an adult, section 13, for a petty offense, or section 14, clause (6), the officer may issue a notice citation to the child to appear in juvenile court in the county in which the child is found or in the county of his residence or, in the case of a juvenile petty offense, the county in which the offense was committed. The officer shall file a copy of the ~~notice to appear citation~~ notice citation with the juvenile court of the appropriate county. If a child fails to appear in response to the ~~notice citation~~ notice citation, the court may issue a summons notifying the child of the nature of the offense alleged and the time and place set for the hearing. If the peace officer finds it necessary to take the child into custody or temporarily remove the child, sections ~~260.165 and 260.174 19 to 36~~ shall apply.

Subd. 2. [~~EFFECT OF NOTICE CITATION.~~] Except as provided under subdivision 2a, filing with the court a notice to appear citation containing the name and address of the child, specifying the offense alleged and the time and place it was committed, has the effect of a petition giving the juvenile court jurisdiction. In the case of running away, the place where the offense was committed may be stated in the notice as either the child's custodial parent's or guardian's residence or lawful placement or where the child was found by the officer. In the case of truancy, the place where the offense was committed may be stated as the school or the place where the child was found by the officer. However, the court may not order any out-of-home placement of the child as a disposition in any case that is heard by means of a citation rather than a petition.

Subd. 2a. [CHILD HELD IN CUSTODY OR TEMPORARY REMOVAL.] A petition must be filed as provided under section 39 rather than a citation under this section before a detention or temporary removal hearing if the child has been taken into custody or temporarily removed and continued detention or temporary removal is being sought.

Subd. 3. [NOTICE TO PARENT.] (a) Whenever a notice to appear citation or petition is filed alleging that a child is a runaway, a habitual truant, or a juvenile petty offender under this section, the court shall summon and notify the person or persons having custody or control of the child of the nature of the offense alleged and the time and place of hearing. This summons and notice shall be served in the time and manner provided in section sections 260.135, subdivision 4 and 260.141; except that, in cases involving juvenile major traffic offenses, it is not necessary to notify more than one parent or personally serve outside the state.

(b) When a child is alleged to be a juvenile traffic offender and is not subject to the court's jurisdiction under section 13, subdivision 2, the peace officer issuing a citation or making the charge shall follow the arrest procedures prescribed in section 169.91 and shall make reasonable efforts to notify the child's parent or guardian of the nature of the charge.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 260.133, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PETITION.] The local welfare agency may bring an emergency petition on behalf of minor family or household members seeking relief from acts of domestic child abuse. The petition shall allege the existence of or immediate and present danger of domestic child abuse, and shall be accompanied by an affidavit made under oath stating the specific facts and circumstances from which relief is sought.

If the respondent does not appear after service is duly made and proved, the court may hear and determine the proceeding as a default matter. Proceedings under this section must be given docket priority by the court.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 260.133, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [TEMPORARY ORDER.] If it appears from the notarized petition or by sworn affidavit that there are reasonable grounds to believe the child is in immediate and present danger of domestic child abuse, the court may grant an ex parte temporary order for protection, pending a full hearing. The court may grant relief as it deems proper, including an order:

- (1) restraining any party from committing acts of domestic child abuse; or

(2) excluding the alleged abusing party from the dwelling which the family or household members share or from the residence of the child.

However, no order excluding the alleged abusing party from the dwelling may be issued unless the court finds that:

(1) the order is in the best interests of the child or children remaining in the dwelling; and

(2) a remaining adult family or household member is able to care adequately for the child or children in the absence of the excluded party.

Before the temporary order is issued, the local welfare agency shall advise the court and the other parties who are present that appropriate social services will be provided to the family or household members during the effective period of the order.

An ex parte temporary order for protection shall be effective for a fixed period not to exceed 14 days. Within five days of the issuance of the temporary order, the petitioner shall file a ~~dependency and neglect~~ petition with the court pursuant to section ~~260.131~~ 39 alleging jurisdiction under section 14, clause (2), and the court shall give docket priority to the petition.

The court may renew the temporary order for protection one time for a fixed period not to exceed 14 days if a ~~dependency and neglect~~ petition alleging jurisdiction under section 14, clause (2), has been filed with the court and if the court determines, upon informal review of the case file, that the renewal is appropriate.

Sec. 43. [260A.264] [PLACEMENT OF DEVELOPMENTALLY DISABLED MINORS; PETITION FOR JUDICIAL REVIEW.]

If the parents of a developmentally disabled minor have voluntarily placed the child in substitute care because of the child's handicapping conditions, the social service agency responsible for the placement shall bring a petition for review under this section after the child has been in substitute care for 18 months. Whenever a petition for review is brought pursuant to this section, a guardian ad litem must be appointed for the child. The petition must comply with the applicable requirements of section 39, subdivisions 2 and 3.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 260.135, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. After a petition has been filed and unless the parties hereinafter named voluntarily appear, the court shall set a time for a hearing and shall issue a summons requiring the person who has custody or control of the child to appear with the child before the court at a time and place stated. The summons shall have a copy of the petition attached, and shall advise the parties of the right to counsel and of the consequences of failure to obey the summons. The court shall give docket priority to any ~~dependency, neglect, neglected and in foster care, or delinquency~~ petition for protection or services or delinquency that contains allegations of child abuse over any other case except those delinquency matters where a child is being held in a secure detention facility. As used in this subdivision, "child abuse" has the meaning given it in section 630.36, subdivision 2.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 260.135, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The court shall have notice of the pendency of the case and of the time and place of the hearing served upon a parent, guardian, or spouse of the child, who has not been summoned as provided in subdivision 1. If the petition alleges jurisdiction under section 14 and the court determines the child is an Indian child, notice must also be served on the Indian child's tribe, and on the United States department of the interior if required by the Indian Child Welfare Act, United States Code, title 25, section 1912.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 260.135, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. If a petition alleging ~~neglect, or dependency, or jurisdiction under section 14,~~ or a petition to terminate parental rights is initiated by a person other than a representative of the department of human services or county welfare board, the clerk of the court shall notify the county welfare board of the pendency of the case and of the time and place appointed.

Sec. 47. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 260.141, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. (a) Service of summons or notice required by section 260.135 shall be made upon the following persons in the same manner in which personal service of summons in civil actions is made:

(1) in all delinquency matters, upon the person having custody or control of the child and upon the child; and

(2) in all other matters, upon the person having custody or control of the child, and upon the child if he is more than 12 years of age.

Personal service shall be effected at least 24 hours before the time of the hearing; however, it shall be sufficient to confer jurisdiction if service is made at any time before the day fixed in the summons or notice for the hearing, except that the court, if so requested, shall not proceed with the hearing earlier than the second day after the service. If personal service cannot well be made within the state, a copy of the summons or notice may be served on the person to whom it is directed by delivering a copy thereof to such person personally outside the state. Such service if made personally outside the state shall be sufficient to confer jurisdiction; ~~providing provided,~~ however, it ~~be~~ is made at least five days before the date fixed for hearing in ~~such~~ the summons or notice.

(b) If the court is satisfied that personal service of the summons or notice cannot well be made, it shall make an order providing for the service of summons or notice by certified mail addressed to the last known addresses of such persons; ~~and by one week published notice as provided in section 645.11. A copy of the notice shall be sent by certified mail~~ at least five days before the time of the hearing or 14 days if mailed to addresses outside the state.

(c) Notification to the county welfare board required by section 260.135, subdivision 3, shall be in such manner as the court may direct.

Sec. 48. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 260.145, is amended to read:

260.145 [FAILURE TO OBEY SUMMONS OR SUBPOENA; CON-

TEMPT, ARREST.]

If any person personally served with summons or subpoena fails, without reasonable cause, to appear or bring the minor, he may be proceeded against for contempt of court or the court may issue a warrant for his arrest, or both. ~~In any case when it appears to the court that the service will be ineffectual, or that the welfare of the minor requires that he be brought forthwith into the custody of the court, the court may issue a warrant for the minor.~~

Sec. 49. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 260.151, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Upon request of the court the county welfare board or ~~probation officer~~ shall investigate the personal and family history and environment of any minor coming within the jurisdiction of the court under section ~~260.144~~ 14 and shall report its findings to the court. The court may order any minor coming within its jurisdiction under section 14 to be examined by a duly qualified physician, psychiatrist, or psychologist appointed by the court. With the consent of the commissioner of corrections and agreement of the county to pay the costs thereof, the court may, by order, place a minor coming within its delinquency jurisdiction who meets the secure detention criteria under section 24 in an institution maintained by the commissioner for the detention, ~~diagnosis evaluation~~, custody and treatment of persons adjudicated to be delinquent, in order that the condition of the minor be given due consideration in the disposition of the case. Adoption investigations shall be conducted in accordance with the laws relating to adoptions. Any funds received under the provisions of this subdivision ~~or under the provisions of section 260.175, clause (d)~~ shall not cancel until the end of the fiscal year immediately following the fiscal year in which the funds were received. The funds are available for use by the commissioner of corrections during that period, and are hereby appropriated annually to the commissioner of corrections as reimbursement of the costs of providing these services to the juvenile courts.

Sec. 50. [260A.28] [RIGHT TO COUNSEL; DEFINITIONS.]

For the purposes of sections 51 to 53:

(1) "counsel" means an attorney acting as adversary counsel who shall advance and protect the legal rights of the party represented, and who may not act as guardian ad litem for any party in the same proceeding; and

(2) "totality of circumstances" includes but is not limited to the child's age, maturity, intelligence, education, experience, and ability to comprehend, and the presence and competence of the child's parents, guardian, or guardian ad litem.

Sec. 51. [260A.281] [CHILD'S RIGHT TO BE REPRESENTED BY COUNSEL DURING CUSTODIAL QUESTIONING.]

(a) A child who is taken into custody under section 19 has a right to be represented by counsel during any custodial questioning. If the child wants to have counsel present during custodial questioning but cannot afford it, the child is entitled to have counsel appointed by the court to represent the child. Counsel must be paid for at public expense in whole or in part depending on the ability of the child and the child's parents, guardian, or custodian to pay pursuant to section 260.251, subdivision 4. A child must be advised of this right as provided in section 21, subdivision 4, before being questioned. The child may waive the right to the presence of counsel during custodial questioning only if the waiver is made voluntarily and intelligently.

(b) If the county attorney seeks to introduce as evidence a child's confession that was made during custodial questioning while the child was not represented by counsel, the county attorney must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that, under the totality of the circumstances, the child waived the right to counsel voluntarily and intelligently before the confession and that the confession was voluntary.

Sec. 52. [260A.282] [CHILD'S RIGHT TO BE REPRESENTED BY COUNSEL AT COURT PROCEEDINGS.]

Subdivision 1. [RIGHT TO COUNSEL.] A child who is subject to the court's jurisdiction under section 12; 13, subdivision 1, and subdivision 2, in cases involving a juvenile major traffic offense; 14; or 15 has the right to be represented by counsel at every stage of the court proceedings. If the child wants to be represented by counsel but cannot afford it, the child is entitled to have counsel appointed by the court to represent the child. Counsel must be paid for at public expense in whole or in part depending on the ability of the child and the child's parents, guardian, or custodian to pay pursuant to section 260.251, subdivision 4.

Subd. 2. [ADVISORY OF RIGHT TO COUNSEL.] A child who is subject to the court's jurisdiction under section 12 or 14 shall be advised of the right to counsel by an attorney who is not employed by or acting as an agent of the county attorney or the court at the start of the child's first court proceeding. In all other cases where a child has the right to be represented by counsel under this section, the child must be advised by the court on the record of the right to counsel at the start of the child's first court proceeding.

Subd. 3. [WAIVER OF RIGHT TO COUNSEL.] (a) A child may waive the right to counsel only after having been advised of this right in the manner provided in subdivision 2. If the child chooses to waive the right to counsel, the attorney who advised the child under subdivision 2, if applicable under that subdivision, shall inform the court of the child's waiver at the child's first court hearing.

(b) The court may accept the child's waiver only if the waiver is made voluntarily and intelligently. In determining whether a child has voluntarily and intelligently waived the right to counsel the court shall look at the totality of circumstances. If the court accepts the child's waiver, it shall state on the record the findings and conclusions that form the basis for its decision to accept the waiver.

(c) If the court accepts a child's waiver of the right to counsel, the court shall advise the child on the record of the right to counsel at the beginning of each subsequent proceeding at which the child is not represented by counsel.

(d) Notwithstanding a child's waiver under this subdivision, if the petition is based on delinquency jurisdiction and the offense alleged would be a gross misdemeanor or felony if committed by an adult, the court shall designate counsel to be present at all proceedings to assist and consult with the child.

Sec. 53. [260A.283] [RIGHT TO ASSISTANCE OF COUNSEL AT

OTHER PARTIES.]

(a) A child who is subject to the court's jurisdiction under section 13, subdivision 2, in cases involving a juvenile minor traffic offense, has the right to be assisted by counsel at all stages of the court proceedings. If the child wants the assistance of counsel but cannot afford it, the court may appoint counsel to represent the child. The appointed counsel must be paid for at public expense in whole or in part depending on the ability of the child and the child's parents, guardian, or custodian to pay pursuant to section 260.251, subdivision 4.

(b) When a petition is filed alleging jurisdiction under sections 12 to 15, a child's parent, guardian, or custodian has the right to be assisted by counsel at all stages of the court proceedings. If the parent, guardian, or custodian wants the assistance of counsel but cannot afford it, the court may appoint counsel to represent the person in any case in which it feels that such an appointment is desirable. The appointed counsel must be paid for at public expense in whole or in part depending on the ability of the parent, guardian, or custodian to pay pursuant to section 260.251, subdivision 4.

Sec. 54. [260A.2835] [RIGHT OF OTHERS TO PARTICIPATE IN PROCEEDINGS.]

The parents, guardian, or custodian of a child who is the subject of a petition, and any grandparent of the child with whom the child has resided within the past two years, have the right to participate in all proceedings on a petition.

Sec. 55. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 260.155, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] ~~Except for hearings arising under section 260.264~~ Hearings on any matter shall be without a jury and may be conducted in an informal manner. The court may also require counsel for any party to the proceeding to submit questions to the court before the child's testimony is taken, and to submit additional questions to the court for the witness after questioning has been completed. The court may excuse the presence of the child's parent, guardian, or custodian from the room where the child is questioned in accordance with subdivision 5.

court may temporarily excuse the presence of the parent or guardian of a minor from the hearing when it is in the best interests of the minor to do so. The attorney or guardian ad litem, if any, has the right to continue to participate in proceedings during the absence of the minor, parent, or guardian.

(a) the court finds that the time, content, and circumstances of the statement and the reliability of the person to whom the statement is made provide sufficient indicia of reliability; and

(b) the proponent of the statement notifies other parties of his intention to offer the statement and the particulars of the statement sufficiently in advance of the proceeding at which he intends to offer the statement into evidence, to provide the parties with a fair opportunity to meet the statement.

DISPOSITIONS

Sec. 64. [260A.30] [DISPOSITIONS; GENERAL PROVISIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [DISMISSAL OF PETITION.] Whenever the court finds that a minor is not within the jurisdiction of the court or that the facts alleged in a petition have not been proved, it shall dismiss the petition.

Subd. 2. [TIME.] After a child has been adjudicated, the court shall set a date for the disposition hearing that allows a reasonable time for the parties to prepare but that is no more than 15 days after the date of adjudication, if the child is held in secure detention, and no more than 45 days after the date of adjudication, in all other cases. If all parties consent and if the predisposition report under section 65 has been completed, the court may proceed with a disposition hearing immediately after adjudication.

Subd. 3. [PROTECTION OF RACIAL OR ETHNIC HERITAGE, OR RELIGIOUS AFFILIATION.] The policy of the state is to ensure that the best interests of children are met by requiring due consideration of the child's minority race or minority ethnic heritage in substitute care placements.

In placing a child or appointing a guardian for the child under this chapter, the court shall observe the following order of preference, unless there is good cause not to:

(a) The court shall place the child with a relative.

(b) If that would be detrimental to the child or if no relative is available, the court shall place the child with someone of the same racial or ethnic heritage as the child.

(c) If that is not possible, the court shall place the child with someone who is knowledgeable and appreciative of the child's racial or ethnic heritage. The court may require the county welfare agency to continue efforts to find a guardian of the child's minority racial or minority ethnic heritage when such a guardian is not immediately available.

If the child's birth parent or parents explicitly request that the preference described in paragraph (a) or in paragraphs (a) and (b) not be followed, the court shall honor that request consistent with the best interests of the child.

If the child's birth parent or parents prefer that the child be placed in a foster or adoptive home of the same or a similar religious background to that of the birth parent or parents, then in following the preferences in paragraph (a) or (b), the court shall order placement of the child with an individual of the preferred religious background. Only if no individual is available who is described in paragraph (a) or (b) may the court give preference to an individual described in paragraph (c) who meets the parent's religious preference.

When the Indian Child Welfare Act, United States Code, title 25, sections 1911 to 1963, requires a particular disposition or placement for a child, or establishes a preference of disposition or placement for a child, the provisions of that act control.

Sec. 65. [260A.301] [PREDISPOSITION REPORT.]

Subdivision 1. [WHEN REPORT IS PREPARED.] (a) The court shall order preparation of a predisposition report and shall consider the report before making a disposition in the following cases:

(1) when a child has been adjudicated delinquent, if the delinquency is based upon the commission of an offense that would be a felony if committed by an adult;

(2) when a child has been adjudicated in need of protection or services; or

(3) when a child may be placed outside the child's home or present residence.

(b) If the child has been sent to the commissioner of corrections for evaluation pursuant to section 49, the court may delay its order for preparation of a predisposition report under paragraph (a) until after the evaluation has been completed.

(c) The court may order the preparation of the report by the county welfare department, a probation officer, or any licensed child welfare agency. The court may also order that experts in education, mental health, and other human services professions be consulted and asked to participate in the development of the report.

(d) The court, in its discretion, may order that a report be prepared and submitted in any other case before it.

Subd. 2. [PREPARATION AND SUBMISSION OF REPORT.] The person or agency preparing the report must follow the requirements of section 609.115, subdivisions 1b and 1c, relating to victim notice and input.

The report shall be prepared and submitted to the court after the allegations of the petition have been admitted or proved, but before the disposition hearing, unless the child's counsel consents to an earlier time.

Subd. 3. [CONTENTS OF REPORT.] The predisposition report shall contain the following:

(1) the social history of the child and the child's previous juvenile court records, if any;

(2) a recommended plan of rehabilitation, treatment, care, or punishment for the child that uses the least restrictive means appropriate to reach the goals of the plan;

(3) if the report recommends that the child undergo an assessment to determine if the child is chemically dependent or mentally ill, a statement of the reliable information that supports the report preparer's reasonable belief that the child is chemically dependent or mentally ill for assessment purposes;

(4) a statement of specific goals of the plan, including the desired behavior changes of the child, the child's parents, or the child's guardian and, when appropriate, the academic, social, or vocational skills that the child needs to develop;

(5) the identity of the person or agency recommended to be primarily responsible for carrying out the recommended plan;

(6) if the report recommends placement of the child outside the child's home or present residence for purposes other than protecting the public; a case plan as defined by section 94, subdivision 1, and a description of the efforts that were made to avoid placement of the child, including services provided to the child and family and why these efforts were unsuccessful;

(7) if the report recommends placement of the child outside the child's home or present residence solely for the purpose of protecting the public, a statement of why the child is a danger to the public and needs restrictive custodial care;

(8) if the report recommends placement of the child outside the child's home or present residence, and the recommended placement is more than 60 miles from the child's home or present residence, an explanation of why a placement not within that distance is more appropriate given the child's needs for services or rehabilitation;

(9) if the child has been adjudicated a chronic truant from school, a statement of reasons why the truancy occurred and a list of recommended services and educational and community programs designed to remedy the truancy and respond to the child's educational needs; and

(10) if the child has been adjudicated a juvenile traffic offender in a case involving a juvenile major traffic offense, a list obtained from the department of public safety of any previous traffic or water law violations by the child.

Subd. 4. [RELEASE OF INFORMATION IN REPORT.] The court may, in its discretion, advise counsel for any party and guardians ad litem not to disclose portions of the predisposition report to the child, the child's parents, or the child's guardian if the court reasonably believes that disclosure would seriously harm the rehabilitation or treatment of the child. Counsel or guardians ad litem shall make every reasonable effort to follow the court's advice.

Sec. 66. [260A.302] [DISPOSITION HEARING.]

Subdivision 1. [SEPARATE FROM ADJUDICATORY HEARING.] The disposition hearing must be separate from the hearing at which the petition or citation is proved.

Subd. 2. [EVIDENCE.] The court shall admit all relevant and material evidence including reliable hearsay and opinions. The introduction of privileged communications is controlled by section 595.02. Any party may present evidence relevant to the issue of disposition, including expert testimony, and may make alternative dispositional recommendations or submit an alternative predisposition report. A person, agency, or party that submits evidence to the court may be examined by counsel for any party, including counsel for the guardian ad litem, or by a guardian ad litem who is an attorney, or by the county attorney.

Subd. 3. [SUSPENSION OF HEARING.] If the court finds that there is probable cause to believe that the child meets the definition of chemically dependent, mentally ill, or emotionally disturbed for assessment purposes, it may suspend the disposition hearing for up to 30 days and order the child to undergo an assessment to determine if the child is chemically dependent, mentally ill, or emotionally disturbed. A copy of the assessment must be provided to the court and the parties at least 48 hours before the disposition hearing is scheduled to recommence.

Subd. 4. [DISPOSITION ORDER.] At the conclusion of the disposition hearing, the court shall issue a disposition order pursuant to section 73.

Sec. 67. [260A.31] [DISPOSITIONS OF DELINQUENT CHILDREN.]

If the court finds that a child is delinquent, it shall enter an order making one or more of the following dispositions:

(a) The court may counsel the child or the child's parents or guardian.

(b) The court may place the child under the supervision of a probation officer or other suitable person or agency prepared to accept the responsibility of supervision in the child's own home under conditions prescribed by the court, including reasonable rules for the child's conduct and the conduct of the child's parent, guardian, or legal custodian.

(c) The court may allow the child to remain in the child's own home under the supervision of any person or agency, and order the person or agency to provide specified services to the child and the child's family, including individual or group counseling, homemaker or parent aide services, respite care, housing assistance, day care, parent skills training, or to insure that the child is enrolled in an available academic or vocational program, if appropriate.

(d) The court may designate one of the following, giving preference in the order they appear below, as the placement for the child:

(3) a foster family group home;

(4) a group home;

(5) a residential chemical dependency or mental illness program, or a residential program for emotionally disturbed minors, if it finds that:

(i) the child is chemically dependent, mentally ill, or emotionally disturbed for treatment purposes;

(ii) the program offers treatment that is appropriate to the child's needs; and

(iii) inpatient treatment is the least restrictive and most appropriate option for achieving the treatment objectives ordered by the court; or

(6) a county home school, but only if the child is found delinquent for an offense that would be a felony if committed by an adult.

A facility that is designated as placement for a child under clauses (2) to

(4) or clause (6) must be licensed to accept delinquent children.

(e) If the child is found delinquent for an offense that would be a felony if committed by an adult, and the court finds that the child cannot be rehabilitated by means of any of the placement options listed in paragraph (d), the court may transfer legal custody of the child by commitment to the commissioner of corrections. Except as otherwise provided in section 82, subdivision 2, paragraph (b), when legal custody is transferred to the commissioner of corrections under this paragraph, juvenile court jurisdiction over the case ends and the child is subject only to the commissioner's authority under chapter 242.

(f) If the court finds that the rehabilitation of the child cannot be accomplished with the voluntary consent or cooperation of the parents or guardian, the court may transfer legal custody to (1) a relative of the child, (2) a county welfare board, or (3) a licensed child welfare agency.

(g) If the child is in need of special care and treatment, the court may order the child's parents or guardian to provide it. If the parents or guardian do not or cannot afford to provide the special care and treatment, the court may order it to be provided by an appropriate agency whether or not legal custody has been taken from the parents or guardian.

(h) If the offense for which the child was adjudicated delinquent resulted in damage to or loss of the property of another, or actual physical injury to another excluding pain and suffering, the court may order the child to repair the damage or return the property, or make reasonable restitution for the damage or injury. The court shall follow the requirements of section 609.115, subdivisions 1b and 1c, in making this order. If the child objects to the amount of damages or medical care claimed by the victim, the child is entitled to a hearing on the matter before the amount of restitution is ordered. The court shall order payment of restitution in accordance with a time payment schedule that does not impose an undue financial hardship on the child.

(i) The court may order the child to perform uncompensated, supervised community service work. The community service must be productive work and must be appropriate to the child's age and physical ability. The amount of community service must be reasonably related to the seriousness of the child's offense and must not conflict with the child's regular attendance at school.

(j) If the court determines that no treatment or services are needed or appropriate, it may impose a fine equal to that imposed on an adult for the same offense, but not more than $500. The court shall order the fine paid on a time payment schedule that does not impose an undue financial hardship on the child.

If the court orders more than one of the dispositions allowed under this section, the combined effect of the dispositions ordered must be reasonable and proportional to the severity of the offense for which the child has been adjudicated.

Sec. 68. [260A.315] [DISPOSITIONS OF JUVENILE TRAFFIC OFFENDERS.]

Subdivision 1. [JUVENILE MAJOR TRAFFIC OFFENSES.] If the court

- (e) The court may impose a fine equal to that imposed on an adult for the same offense, but not more than $500. The court shall order the fine paid on a time payment schedule that does not impose an undue financial hardship on the child. If the court finds that the child can pay the fine, but has not paid it within the time payment schedule established, the court shall notify the commissioner of public safety of the failure to pay the fine and shall recommend that the child's driving privilege be suspended for 30 to 90 days. Inability or failure to pay the fine is not grounds for incarceration at a correctional facility or juvenile detention center.
- (f) The court may order the child to perform uncompensated, supervised community service work instead of a fine under paragraph (e). The community service must be productive work and appropriate to the child's age and physical ability. The amount of community service must be reasonably related to the seriousness of the child's offense and must not conflict with the child's regular attendance at school.
- (g) If the child is adjudicated a juvenile traffic offender for a violation of section 169.121, the court shall recommend to the commissioner of public safety or to the licensing authority of another state the revocation of the child's license until the child reaches the age of 18 years, for a period of six months, or for the appropriate period of time under section 169.121, subdivision 4, clauses (a) to (d), for the offense committed, whichever is longer.

- (d) The court may recommend to the commissioner of public safety or to the licensing authority of another state the suspension of the child's license as provided in section 171.16.

(e) The court may impose a fine equal to that imposed on an adult for the same offense, but not more than $100. The court shall order the fine paid on a time payment schedule that does not impose an undue financial hardship on the child. If the court finds that the child can pay the fine, but has not paid it within the time payment schedule established, the court shall notify the commissioner of public safety of the failure to pay the fine and shall recommend that the child's driving privilege be suspended for 30 to 90 days. Inability or failure to pay the fine is not grounds for incarceration at a correctional facility or juvenile detention center.

(f) The court may order the child to perform up to 25 hours of uncompensated, supervised community service work instead of a fine under paragraph (e). The community service must be productive work and appropriate to the child's age and physical ability. The amount of community service must be reasonably related to the seriousness of the child's offense and must not conflict with the child's regular attendance at school.

The court shall report the dispositions of all juvenile traffic offenders under this subdivision to the commissioner of public safety, as provided in section 171.16, on the standard form provided by the department of public safety under section 169.95.

Subd. 3. [MULTIPLE DISPOSITIONS.] If the court orders more than one of the dispositions allowed under this section, the combined effect of the dispositions ordered must be reasonable and proportional to the severity of the offense for which the child has been adjudicated.

Subdivision 1. [DISPOSITIONS.] If the court finds that a child is a juvenile petty offender, it shall enter an order making one or more of the following dispositions:

(a) The court may counsel the child or the child's parents or guardian.

(b) The court may impose a fine of up to $100. The court shall order payment of the fine in accordance with a time payment schedule that does not impose an undue financial hardship on the child. The inability or failure to pay the fine is not grounds for incarceration at a correctional facility or juvenile detention center.

(c) The court may order the child to perform up to 25 hours of uncompensated, supervised community service work instead of a fine. The community service must be productive work and appropriate to the child's age and physical ability. The amount of community service must be reasonably related to the seriousness of the child's offense and must not conflict with the child's regular attendance at school.

Sec. 70. [260A.325] [DISPOSITIONS OF JUVENILE ALCOHOL AND

(e) The court may order the child to undergo chemical dependency evaluation on an outpatient basis. A child may not be ordered to submit to inpatient alcohol or drug assessment or evaluation, or committed to a treatment facility under this section.

(f) If the court finds that a child who has a driver's license or permit to drive has used a license or permit to purchase or attempt to purchase an alcoholic beverage in violation of section 340A.503, the court shall forward the finding and the child's driver's license or permit to the commissioner of public safety. The commissioner shall revoke the child's license or permit for 30 days.

If the court orders more than one of the dispositions allowed under this section, the combined effect of the dispositions ordered must be reasonable and proportional to the severity of the offense for which the child has been adjudicated.

If the court's order for mental health treatment is based on a diagnosis made by a treatment professional, the court may order that the diagnosing professional not provide the treatment to the child if it finds that such an order is in the child's best interest. No out-of-home placement is permitted under this paragraph.

(d) The court may place the child in a residential chemical dependency program if it finds that:

- (1) the child is chemically dependent for treatment purposes;
- (2) the program offers treatment that is appropriate to the child's needs; and
- (3) residential treatment is the least restrictive and most appropriate option for achieving the treatment objectives ordered by the court.

(e) The court may place the child in a residential mental illness program if it finds that:

- (1) a relative of the child;*
- (2) a county welfare board; or*

- (1) the home of a relative of the child;*
- (2) a foster family home;*
- (3) a foster family group home; or*
- (4) a group home.*

(d) The court may order community service up to 40 hours.

Subd. 3. [VICTIMS OF DOMESTIC CHILD ABUSE.] If the court finds that the child is a victim of domestic child abuse, the court shall enter an order making one or more of the following dispositions, in addition to or instead of the dispositions authorized under subdivision 1:

(a) The court may restrain any party from committing acts of domestic child abuse.

(b) The court may exclude the abusing party from the dwelling that the family or household members share or from the residence of the child.

(c) On the same basis as is provided in chapter 518, the court may establish temporary visitation with regard to minor children of the adult family or household members.

(d) On the same basis as is provided in chapter 518, the court may establish temporary support or maintenance for a period of 30 days for minor children or a spouse.

(e) The court may provide counseling or other social services for the family or household members.

(f) The court may order the abusing party to participate in treatment or counseling services.

Relief granted by the order for protection must be for a fixed period not to exceed one year.

However, no order excluding the abusing party from the dwelling may be issued unless the court finds that:

(1) the order is in the best interests of the child or children remaining in the dwelling;

(2) a remaining adult family or household member is able to care adequately for the child or children in the absence of the excluded party; and

(3) the local welfare agency has developed a plan to provide appropriate social services to the remaining family or household members.

Sec. 72. [260A.335] [DISPOSITIONS OF DEVELOPMENTALLY DISABLED MINORS.]

When a developmentally disabled minor is in substitute care pursuant to a voluntary placement, and the court acts on a petition to review the minor's status, it may make one of the following findings:

(a) The court may find that the child's needs are being met and that the child's placement in substitute care is in the best interests of the child, in which case the court shall approve the voluntary arrangement. The court shall order the social service agency responsible for the placement to bring a petition under section 43 within two years if court review was pursuant to section 43, or within one year if court review was pursuant to section 94, subdivision 2.

(b) The court may find that the child's needs are not being met, in which case the court shall order the social service agency or the parents to take whatever action is necessary and feasible to meet the child's needs, including, when appropriate, the provision by the social service agency of services to the parents that would enable the child to live at home, and shall order the case to be reviewed again within one year.

(c) The court may find that the child has been abandoned by the parents financially or emotionally, or that the child does not require out-of-home care because of the handicapping condition, in which case the court shall order the social service agency to file an appropriate petition pursuant to section 39, subdivision 1, or section 260.231.

Sec. 73. [260A.34] [DISPOSITION ORDER.]

Subdivision 1. [INTENT.] The court shall decide on a disposition plan based on evidence presented at the disposition hearing. In making its decision, the court shall:

(1) employ, among the dispositions available, the least restrictive means and duration of disposition appropriate to the achievement of the objectives of the disposition plan chosen;

(2) preserve the family unit whenever possible;

(3) transfer custody of the child from the parent only when there is no less drastic appropriate alternative:

(4) consider, in delinquency cases, the need to protect the public in addition to the child's need for treatment and rehabilitation; and

(5) not adversely consider the exercise by any party of that party's constitutional rights.

Subd. 2. [ORDER.] The disposition order must meet the following requirements:

(a) The order must contain findings of fact and conclusions of law. The findings of fact shall be supported by clear and convincing evidence.

(b) The findings must document the facts prompting the court to reject as inappropriate less restrictive dispositional choices and shall state reasons for the chosen disposition.

(c) Except as provided in paragraph (d), if a child is placed outside the child's home or present residence, the order must contain a finding that:

(1) reasonable efforts have been made to prevent the need to place the child and, if required by the adoption assistance and child welfare act, United States Code, title 42, section 670, that reasonable efforts have been made to make it possible for the child to return home;

(2) the placement facility chosen by the court provides services suitable to addressing the child's needs or problems; and

(3) in the case of substitute care placement, the requirements of section 64, subdivision 3, and the Indian Child Welfare Act, United States Code, title 25, sections 1911 to 1963, have been met.

(d) If the court has ordered that a child adjudicated delinquent be placed outside the child's home or present residence solely to protect the public, the court shall find that the child is a danger to the public and needs restrictive custodial care.

(e) The order must contain a plan of appropriate rehabilitation, care, treatment, services, and punishment, including specific objectives to be achieved. If appropriate, the order must identify academic, social, and vocational skills to be gained by the child.

(f) The order must identify the agency that is primarily responsible for carrying out the plan ordered by the court. If legal custody is transferred, the order must identify the custodian.

(g) If the child is placed outside the child's home or present residence, the order must identify the placement facility. This paragraph does not apply to foster family homes.

(h) If the court makes the determination provided for in section 260.251, subdivision 1, the order must require the child's parent, guardian, custodian, or trustee to pay the cost of services provided to the child and must designate the amount of the support.

Subd. 3. [TRANSFER OF DOMESTIC ABUSE CASES.] If the court issues an order for protection pursuant to section 71, subdivision 3, excluding from a dwelling an abusing party who is the parent of a minor family or household member, it shall transfer the case file to the court that has jurisdiction over proceedings under chapter 518 for the purpose of establishing support or maintenance for minor children or a spouse, as provided in chapter 518, during the effective period of the order for protection. The court to which the case file is transferred shall schedule and hold a hearing on the establishment of support or maintenance within 30 days of the issuance of the order for protection. After an order for support or maintenance has been granted or denied, the case file must be returned to the juvenile court, and the order for support or maintenance, if any, must be incorporated into the order for protection.

Subd. 4. [CASE PLAN.] If the court orders a disposition plan that is not consistent with the case plan submitted under section 65, the person or agency responsible for preparing the case plan shall revise the case plan to conform to the court's order and shall file the revised plan with the court within 30 days of the effective date of the disposition order. The original or revised case plan must be made a part of the disposition order.

Subd. 5. [INTERIM PLACEMENTS.] If the court orders that the child be placed outside the child's home or present residence, but the place or facility identified under subdivision 2, paragraph (d), is not immediately available, the court may order an interim placement for the child which is appropriate under the circumstances. The interim placement is effective for up to 30 days. If the court finds good cause for an extension of the interim placement, it may order up to 15 additional days of interim placement. Except in the case of a child adjudicated delinquent, a secure detention facility may not serve as an interim placement for a child awaiting placement in a nonsecure setting.

Subd. 6. [PARENTAL VISITATION.] If the court orders that the child be placed outside the child's home or present residence, it shall set reasonable rules for supervised or unsupervised parental visitation that contribute to the achievement of the objectives of the court order and the case plan. No parent may be denied visitation unless the court finds at the disposition hearing that the visitation would act to prevent the achievement of the case plan's objectives or that it would seriously endanger the child's physical or emotional well-being.

Subd. 7. [DUTY TO WARN.] When the court places a child adjudicated in need of protection or services outside the child's home, it shall verbally warn the parent or parents who appear in court of the following:

(1) the conditions necessary for the child to be returned home, including required changes in the parent's conduct, the nature of the home, and the child's conduct; and

(2) if applicable, the grounds for termination of parental rights under section 75.

A written copy of this warning must be attached to the disposition order and given to the parent or parents who do not appear in court.

Subd. 8. [DURATION OF ORDER.] (a) A disposition order based on an adjudication for any one of the following offenses is effective for a length of time specified by the court, but not more than six months:

(1) a juvenile petty offense;

(2) a juvenile alcohol offense;

(3) a juvenile controlled substance offense; and

(4) a juvenile traffic offense other than a violation of section 169.121 or 169.129.

(b) A disposition order based on an adjudication of an act of delinquency that would be a misdemeanor if committed by an adult is effective for a length of time specified by the court, but not more than one year.

(c) If legal custody of the child has been transferred by commitment to the commissioner of corrections under section 67, paragraph (e), and the child was adjudicated delinquent for an offense that would have been the basis for prima facie reference under section 260.125, subdivision 3, the disposition order must provide that the transfer of legal custody is effective until terminated by the commissioner, or until the child becomes 19 years old, whichever occurs first. In all other cases where legal custody has been transferred by commitment to the commissioner of corrections, the transfer is effective for up to one year and may be extended only as provided in section 82, subdivision 2, paragraph (b).

(d) All other disposition orders are effective until the child reaches the age of 19 or is discharged by the court, whichever comes first.

(e) A disposition order may be extended only in accordance with section 82.

(f) If a child becomes 18 years old before the disposition order expires, the duration of the order is not affected unless the court orders otherwise. However, the court shall terminate jurisdiction when the child reaches age 19 if jurisdiction is not terminated earlier pursuant to another provision of this chapter.

Subd. 9. [EFFECT AND SERVICE OF ORDER.] A party, person, or agency who provides services to a child pursuant to a disposition order or who is subject to the conditions of a disposition order is bound by the order and must be served with a copy of the order in the manner provided in the rules for juvenile court.

Sec. 74. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 260.211, is amended to read:

260.211 [EFFECT OF JUVENILE COURT PROCEEDINGS.]

Subdivision 1. No adjudication upon the status of any child in the jurisdiction of the juvenile court shall operate to impose any of the civil disabilities imposed by conviction, nor shall any child be deemed a criminal by reason of this adjudication, nor shall this adjudication be deemed a conviction of crime. The disposition of the child or any evidence given by the child in the juvenile court shall not be admissible as evidence against him in any case or proceeding in any other court, except that an adjudication may later be used to determine a proper sentence, nor shall the disposition or evidence disqualify him in any future civil service examination, appointment, or application.

Subd. 2. A child who commits a juvenile major traffic offense must be adjudicated a "juvenile traffic offender" and must not be adjudicated delinquent.

Subd. 3. No thing contained in this section shall be construed to relate to subsequent proceedings in juvenile court, nor shall preclude the juvenile court, under circumstances other than those specifically prohibited in subdivision 1, from disclosing information to qualified persons if the court considers such disclosure to be in the best interests of the child or of the administration of justice.

Sec. 75. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 260.221, is amended to read:

260.221 [GROUNDS FOR TERMINATION OF PARENTAL RIGHTS.]

Subdivision 1. [GROUNDS.] The juvenile court may, upon petition, terminate all rights of a parent to a child in the following cases:

(3) That a parent has been ordered to contribute to the support of the child or financially aid in the child's birth and has continuously failed to do so without good cause. (4) That a parent is palpably unfit to be a party to the parent and child relationship because of a consistent pattern of specific conduct before the child or of specific conditions directly relating to the parent and child relationship either of which are determined by the court to be permanently detrimental to the physical or mental health of the child; or

(5) That following upon a determination of ~~neglect or dependency~~ a need for protection or services, reasonable efforts, under the direction of the court, have failed to correct the conditions leading to the determination; or

(6) That in the case of a child born to a mother who was not married to the child's father when the child was conceived nor when the child was born the person is not entitled to notice of an adoption hearing under section 259.26 and either the person has not filed a notice of his intention to retain parental rights under section 259.261 or that the notice has been successfully challenged; or

(3) whose parents, despite the availability of needed rehabilitative services, have failed to make reasonable efforts to adjust their circumstances, condition or conduct, or have willfully failed to meet reasonable expectations with regard to visiting the child or providing financial support for the child.

Subd. 2. [FACTORS IN DETERMINING NEGLECT AND IN SUBSTITUTE CARE.] In determining whether a child is neglected and in substitute care, the court shall consider, among other factors, the following factors:

(a) The length of time the child has been in substitute care.

(b) The effort the parent has made to adjust circumstances, conduct, or condition to make it in the child's best interest to return home in the foreseeable future, including the use of rehabilitative services offered to the parent.

(c) Whether the parent has visited the child within the nine months preceding the filing of the petition, unless it was physically or financially impossible for the parent to visit or not in the best interest of the child to be visited by the parent.

(d) The maintenance of regular contact or communication with the agency or person temporarily responsible for the child.

(e) The appropriateness and adequacy of services provided or offered to the parent to facilitate a reunion.

(f) Whether additional services would be likely to bring about lasting parental adjustment enabling a return of the child to the parent within an ascertainable period of time.

(g) The nature of the effort made by the responsible social service agency to rehabilitate and reunite the family.

Sec. 76. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 260.231, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

A parent who consents to the termination of parental rights under the provisions of section ~~260.224~~ 75, subdivision 1, clause (a), may waive in writing the notice required by this subdivision; however, if the parent is a minor or incompetent the waiver shall be effective only if the parent's guardian ad litem concurs in writing.

Sec. 77. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 260.235, is amended to read:

260.235 [DISPOSITION; PARENTAL RIGHTS NOT TERMINATED.]

CONTRIBUTING TO OFFENDER STATUS OR NEED FOR PROTECTIVE SERVICES

Sec. 78. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 260.255, is amended to read:

260.255 [JURISDICTION OVER PERSONS CONTRIBUTING TO ~~DELINQUENCY OR NEGLECT OFFENDER STATUS OR NEED FOR PROTECTIVE SERVICES~~; COURT ORDERS.]

Subdivision 1. The juvenile court has jurisdiction over persons contributing to the delinquency ~~or neglect~~ of a child or a child's need for protection or services under the provisions of subdivisions 2 or 3.

Subd. 2. If, in the hearing of a case of a child alleged to be delinquent, a juvenile petty offender, a juvenile alcohol offender, a juvenile controlled substance offender, or neglected in need of protection or services, it appears by a fair preponderance of the evidence that any person has violated the provisions of section ~~260.315~~ 79, the court may make any of the following orders:

(a) Restrain the person from any further act or omission in violation of section ~~260.315~~ 79; or

(b) Prohibit the person from associating or communicating in any manner with the child; or

(c) Provide for the maintenance or care of the child, if the person is responsible for such, and direct when, how, and where money for such maintenance or care shall be paid.

Subd. 3. Before making any order under subdivision 2, the court shall issue an order to show cause, either upon its own motion or upon a verified petition, specifying the charges made against the person and fixing the time and place of the hearing. The order to show cause shall be served personally and shall be heard in the same manner as provided in other cases in the juvenile court.

Sec. 79. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 260.315, is amended to read:

REHEARING, MODIFICATION, AND EXTENSION

Sec. 80. [260A.50] [REHEARING; NEW EVIDENCE.]

A child whose status has been adjudicated by a juvenile court, or the petitioner, the county attorney, or the child's parent, guardian, legal custodian or spouse may, at any time within 90 days of the filing of the court's disposition order, petition the court for a rehearing on the grounds that material evidence has been newly discovered that with reasonable diligence could not have been found and produced at trial. Upon a showing that the evidence does exist, the court shall order a new disposition hearing under section 66 and, if appropriate, shall enter a new disposition order under section 73.

Sec. 81. [260A.51] [MODIFICATION OF DISPOSITION ORDER.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUEST FOR MODIFICATION.] The court may modify a disposition or extension order at any time before the order expires if any of the following occurs:

(1) new evidence has been discovered that with reasonable diligence could not have been found and produced at the previous disposition or extension hearing and that affects the advisability of the present order;

(2) a change of circumstances has occurred that is sufficient to show that a modification of the disposition order is necessary; or

(3) all or part of the disposition order is no longer applicable or appropriate.

The court may modify the order on its own motion, or the change may be requested by the child, parent, guardian, legal custodian, county attorney, or a person or agency primarily responsible for carrying out the order. Requests for modification must be in writing and must be submitted to the court that entered the disposition order. The request must contain the information required under subdivision 3, 4, or 5.

Subd. 2. [MODIFICATION HEARING.] Within five days of the receipt of the request for modification, the court shall determine whether there is good cause to believe that one or more of the conditions under subdivision 1 exist. If good cause is found and written waivers of objection to the proposed modification are filed with the court, the court may, upon acceptance of the waivers, order the modification without a hearing. Waivers must be signed by the following persons:

(1) the child, if adjudicated delinquent or if 12 years old or older;

(2) the child's counsel;

(3) the guardian ad litem;

(4) the parent, guardian, or legal custodian; and

(5) the county attorney.

If good cause is found and written waivers are not filed or are not accepted by the court, the court shall cause notice to be sent to all parties who were present at the previous disposition or extension hearing, to an Indian child's tribal social service agency or its local representative if the child was adjudicated in need of protection or services, and to others determined by the court to have an interest in the matter before the court. The hearing must be conducted in accordance with section 66.

Subd. 3. [REQUEST FOR CHANGE OF PLACEMENT.] (a) If the modification requested is a change of the child's placement, the request must state:

(1) the reasons for requesting the new placement; and

(2) why the present placement is not appropriate for the child's needs or is harmful to the child's safety.

(b) At the modification hearing, the party requesting the change of placement shall:

(1) identify the name and address of the new placement, except that a child or a child's parent, guardian, or custodian is not required to identify the new placement, if he or she is the requesting party;

(2) provide a written or oral statement describing why a new placement is preferable to the present placement and how a new placement would better satisfy the objectives of the treatment or rehabilitation plan and the case plan ordered by the court; and

(3) provide a written or oral statement describing why the goals of the case plan cannot be met in the present placement.

Subd. 4. [REQUEST FOR REMOVAL OF CHILD FROM HOME.] If the modification requested is a removal of the child from the child's home, the court shall order that a report be prepared pursuant to section 65. The procedures of section 66 shall apply and the court shall make the required findings of fact and conclusions of law relating to out-of-home placements pursuant to section 73.

Subd. 5. [REQUEST FOR OTHER MODIFICATIONS.] If the modification requested does not involve a change of placement, the request must state:

(1) the specific modification sought;

(2) why the proposed modification is preferable to the present condition; and

(3) how the proposed modification would better satisfy the objectives of the treatment plan and the case plan previously ordered by the court.

Subd. 6. [EMERGENCY CHANGE OF PLACEMENT WITHOUT COURT ORDER.] A placement may not be changed before court approval of the modification request except when, in the opinion of the person or agency primarily responsible for the implementation of the disposition or extension order, an emergency makes the change in placement necessary to protect the child or others or ease a crisis that has developed because of the child's disruptive behavior.

The person or agency shall document in writing the nature of the emergency and, if the child was adjudicated in need of protection services, shall have notice of the emergency change and modification request filed with the court and mailed to the parties present at the previous disposition or extension hearing and to an Indian child's tribal social service agency or its local representative. The filing and mailing of the notice and request must occur within 48 hours of the removal of the child from present placement. The court shall conduct a hearing on the request within five days of the filing of notice, unless written waivers of objection under subdivision 2 are filed with the court.

This subdivision does not:

(1) limit the power of the commissioner of corrections to revoke probation or parole or discharge under section 242.19, when a child under the continuing jurisdiction of the court is taken into custody under section 19 and then held pursuant to a detention order while awaiting a hearing on the new grounds for jurisdiction; or

(2) apply to interim placements authorized by the court pursuant to section 73, subdivision 5.

Subd. 7. [MODIFICATION ORDER.] If the court approves the modification request, it shall make written findings of fact and conclusions of law as required under section 73 and shall order that the case plan be amended to bring it into compliance with the court's new order. The written statements required by subdivision 3, 4, or 5 must be attached to all copies of the court's modification order. The court shall not order a modification that has not been requested, nor shall it order a modification that has not been proved necessary by clear and convincing evidence. No modification may extend the effective period of the disposition order. Disposition orders may be extended only pursuant to section 82.

Sec. 82. [260A.52] [EXTENSION OF DISPOSITION ORDER.]

Subdivision 1. [LIMITATIONS.] A disposition order under section 73 may be extended only as provided in this section, subject to the following limitations:

(a) A disposition order arising from an adjudication of truancy from school may not be extended past the date that the child reaches age 16.

(b) A disposition order that transferred legal custody of a child by commitment to the commissioner of corrections for up to one year may be extended only as provided in subdivision 2, paragraph (b).

(c) A disposition order may not be extended, in any case, beyond the date on which the child reaches age 19.

Subd. 2. [REQUEST FOR EXTENSION.] (a) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, at any time before the expiration of a disposition order, a party bound by the order or the county attorney may request that the court extend, or the court upon its own motion may extend, the disposition order. The request for extension must be in writing and must be submitted to the court that entered the disposition order. The request must state:

(1) whether the objectives of the court's disposition order or of the case plan are being or have been met; and

(2) why the continuing jurisdiction of the court is necessary.

(b) When legal custody of a child has been transferred by commitment to the commissioner of corrections for up to one year, the commissioner may extend the disposition order pursuant to rules adopted under chapter 14, if the commissioner finds that an extension is necessary. The duration of the extension is governed by subdivision 6, paragraph (a). The commissioner's decision to extend a disposition order and the reasons for it must be in writing, and may be appealed in the manner provided in section 83.

(c) When a child is subject to a disposition order based on an offense listed in section 73, subdivision 8, paragraph (a), the county attorney may request an extension of the order for an additional period not to exceed six months. The request for an extension must be in writing and must be submitted to the court that entered the disposition order. The request must state the reasons why an extension is needed to accomplish the objectives of the child's case plan as set forth in the disposition order.

Subd. 3. [EXTENSION HEARING.] Within five days of receiving the request for extension, the court shall determine whether there is good cause to believe that the court's extended jurisdiction is necessary to meet the objectives of the disposition order and case plan. If good cause is found, the court shall have notice sent to all parties who were present at the previous disposition or extension hearing, to an Indian child's tribal social service agency or its local representative if the child was adjudicated in need of protection or services, and to others determined by the court to have an interest in the matter before the court. The hearing must be conducted in accordance with section 66. The appearance of the child at the hearing may be waived only by counsel for the child.

Subd. 4. [PROGRESS REPORT.] No later than five days before the hearing, the person or agency primarily responsible for carrying out the disposition order shall file a written report with the court, containing the following:

(1) a description of the extent to which the goals of rehabilitation or care and treatment stated in the order and case plan have been reached, including a description of the efforts made or not made by all parties toward meeting those goals;

(2) if the goals have not been reached, an explanation why they have not, and a description of the efforts that are planned for the requested period of extension which will cause the goals to be reached in whole or in part;

(3) a statement of any modifications of the order that are necessary to reach the goals;

(4) in cases where the child has been placed outside of the child's home, an evaluation of the child's adjustment to the placement and of any progress the child has made, recommendations for changes in the case plan, a description of efforts made to return the child to the home, including efforts of the parents or guardian to remedy problems that contributed to the child's placement, and, if continued placement outside the child's home is recommended, an explanation of why the child should not be returned to the home.

Subd. 5. [EXTENSION ORDER.] If the court finds that extension of the court's jurisdiction is necessary, it shall make findings of fact and conclusions of law. The findings of fact must be based on clear and convincing evidence presented at the hearing. The court shall enter a new or modified order under section 81. If an order providing for placement of a child outside the child's home is extended, the court shall state in the order the reasons for continuing the placement and whether the continued placement is consistent with the case plan.

Subd. 6. [DURATION OF EXTENSION.] (a) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b), an extension must be for a specified length of time not to exceed one year. An order may be extended again later only under this section.

(b) If the court grants an extension of a disposition order based on an offense listed in section 73, subdivision 8, paragraph (a), the extension must be for a specified length of time not to exceed six months. A disposition order covered by this paragraph may be extended later only if the sum of the original effective period and the extension period or periods does not exceed one year.

Subd. 7. [TIME OF REQUEST.] A request to extend a disposition order must be made before the termination of that order. If a request is made before the termination date, but the court cannot conduct a hearing on the request before the termination date, the court may extend the order once for not more than 30 days if the court is satisfied that any delay in requesting the extension was not intentional. The hearing on the request must be held within that period of extension and may not be held if the order, including any extension period, terminates before the hearing date. A request made after the termination date must be dismissed for lack of jurisdiction.

Subd. 8. [APPEAL.] An extension order may be appealed by any party to the action.

APPEALS

Sec. 83. [260A.53] [APPEAL.]

Subdivision 1. [IN GENERAL.] An appeal from a juvenile court order must be taken to the court of appeals as in other civil cases. The appeal must be taken within 30 days of the filing of an appealable order as provided under subdivision 2. Pending determination of the appeal, the order of the court shall stand unless, upon application, the reviewing court, in its discretion, stays the order.

Subd. 2. [WHO MAY APPEAL; APPEALABLE ORDERS.] Any person with the right to participate may appeal from a final order of the court; except that, no appeal by the county attorney may be taken after jeopardy has attached.

Subd. 3. [NOTICE OF RIGHTS.] At any hearing from which a final order may issue, the court shall inform each of the parties orally on the record or in writing of a right to appeal, of the time allowed for appeal, and of the right to counsel on appeal. The court shall make particular effort to guarantee that the child understands these rights. Counsel for the child shall also inform the child of these rights.

CONTEMPT

Sec. 84. [260A.58] [CONTEMPT; SCOPE.]

Sections 84 to 89 control contempt proceedings against children within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court whose alleged contempts arose in connection with a juvenile court proceeding, order, or disposition. Other persons who interfere with or fail to comply with a juvenile court order or process may be punished for contempt by the juvenile court pursuant to section 90.

Sec. 85. [260A.581] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICABILITY.] The definitions in this section apply to sections 84 to 89.

Subd. 2. [DIRECT CONTEMPT.] "Direct contempt" means misconduct occurring in the immediate view and presence of the court and arising from one or more of the following acts:

(1) disorderly, contemptuous, or insolent behavior toward the judge while holding court that tends to interrupt the due course of a trial or other judicial proceedings; or

(2) a breach of the peace, boisterous conduct, or violent disturbance that tends to interrupt the business of the court.

Subd. 3. [CONSTRUCTIVE CONTEMPT.] "Constructive contempt" means intentional misconduct not committed in the immediate presence of the court of which the court has no personal knowledge and which arises from disobedience or obstruction of an order of the court.

Sec. 86. [260A.582] [LIMITATIONS UPON FINDING CONTEMPT.]

A child may not be held in contempt or subjected to any sanction under sections 84 to 89 unless the court finds on the record, after notice and hearing, that:

(1) the child has violated a specific provision of a written order;

(2) the child understood that misconduct could result in the ordering or imposition of sanctions; and

(3) the child is capable of complying with the court authority, order, or process.

Sec. 87. [260A.583] [SUMMARY PROCEDURES; DIRECT CONTEMPTS.]

A direct contempt by a child may be punished summarily. The court shall issue an order reciting the facts occurring in the presence of the court and shall impose a sanction pursuant to section 89, subdivision 1 or 2, whichever is appropriate, immediately after the contempt occurs.

Subdivision 1. [CONSTRUCTIVE CONTEMPT.] A constructive contempt by a child must be punished under this section.

Subd. 2. [MOTION FOR SANCTIONS.] A person or agency bound by a disposition order of the court under section 73, subdivision 9, who reasonably believes that a child has intentionally and willfully violated a provision of the disposition order may file a motion with the court seeking an order that stays imposition of a sanction on the child and allows the child time to purge the contempt. If the person or agency believes that the violation should be punished by the immediate imposition of a sanction, the person or agency may request the county attorney to file, or the county attorney may file on his or her own initiative, a motion seeking the immediate imposition of a sanction on the child. The motion must specifically state the facts that form the moving party's belief that the child's acts or omissions are contemptuous.

Subd. 3. [PROBABLE CAUSE.] On receiving the motion, the court shall determine whether the facts presented establish probable cause that the child is in contempt. If the court does not find probable cause, it shall dismiss the motion.

Subd. 4. [NOTICE TO CHILD.] On finding probable cause, the court shall cause notice of the allegations and possible consequences to be given to the child. The court shall issue a summons for the child to appear and answer the motion. The arrest and detention of the child pending the hearing shall be controlled by sections 19 to 31.

Subd. 5. [HEARING.] The procedures and due process protections governing hearings in juvenile delinquency cases must be used in all contempt proceedings.

Subd. 6. [ORDERING A STAYED SANCTION.] If the court finds that the child is in contempt and that the contempt is of a continuing nature that the child is able and willing to correct, the court may order a sanction under section 89, subdivision 1 or 2, whichever is appropriate, but, if it does so, the court shall stay imposition of the sanction and give the child reasonable time to purge the contempt.

Subd. 7. [FAILURE TO PURGE THE CONTEMPT.] If the child fails to purge the contempt within a reasonable time, the court, after a hearing establishing the child's failure to purge the contempt, may impose the sanction that was previously ordered and stayed. The child's failure to purge the contempt must be proved by clear and convincing evidence.

Subd. 8. [ORDERING IMMEDIATE IMPOSITION OF SANCTION.] If the court finds that the child is in contempt and that the contempt is for past conduct or that the contempt is of a continuing nature that the child is able but unwilling to correct, the court may order immediate imposition of a sanction pursuant to section 89, subdivision 1 or 2, whichever is appropriate. Before imposing an immediate sanction for a continuing contempt that a child is unwilling to correct, the court must make findings on the record that explain the basis for its decision.

Sec. 89. [260A.585] [SANCTIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [AGAINST CHILD UNDER THE DELINQUENCY OR JUVENILE MAJOR TRAFFIC OFFENSE JURISDICTION OF THE COURT.] The court may order any of the following sanctions against a child who is under the court's continuing delinquency jurisdiction or juvenile traffic offender jurisdiction in cases involving a juvenile major traffic offense and who is found in contempt:

- (1) detention in an approved secure detention facility for up to five days;*
- (2) detention for not longer than ten days in the child's home or present place of residence under rules of supervision established by the court; or*
- (3) supervised, uncompensated community service work not to exceed 20 hours.*

Before a detention sanction is ordered, the court must find that there are no less restrictive sanctions that would be effective, considering each potential sanction's relevance and predicted level of effectiveness.

During any period of detention, the child should be released to continue employment, if during daytime hours, or to attend school, if school is in session and the child is enrolled. If the child willfully fails to return to the place of detention immediately at the end of school or work hours, the child may be denied this release privilege. If the child is held in a secure detention facility without release privileges, the person in charge of the facility shall provide the child with educational services within the facility. The educational service must be consistent with the child's present course of study.

Subd. 2. [AGAINST CHILD UNDER OTHER JURISDICTIONS OF THE COURT.] The court may order any of the sanctions in subdivision 1, clause 2 or 3, against a child who falls within the court's jurisdiction under section 13, subdivision 1, and subdivision 2, in cases involving a juvenile minor traffic offense, or section 14 or 15, and who is found in contempt. A child who falls within the court's jurisdiction under section 14 may not be securely incarcerated or detained at any time in any facility unless the child is concurrently under the court's continuing delinquency jurisdiction or juvenile major traffic offender jurisdiction in cases involving a juvenile major traffic offense and the contempt is related to an order of the court made as a result of a delinquency or juvenile major traffic offense adjudication.

Subd. 3. [DELINQUENCY PETITION NOT A SANCTION FOR CONSTRUCTIVE CONTEMPT.] An allegation of constructive contempt may not be the basis for a delinquency petition under any circumstances.

Sec. 90. [260A.586] [CONTEMPT; OTHER PERSONS.]

Any person not under the continuing jurisdiction of the court who knowingly interferes with or refuses to comply with an order of the court is in contempt of court.

The director or director's designee or a member of the multi-disciplinary team shall document in the medical record findings that set forth the basis for a determination regarding whether the admission criteria for assessment, admission criteria for treatment, or continued stay criteria are met.*

Sec. 8. [260B.08] [LONG-TERM TREATMENT.]

If the team finds the criteria are met, the residential program shall report its intent to provide long-term treatment to the designated agency of the county where the program is located. The report must include the name of the minor, date of admission, diagnosis, and the basis for the determination that the criteria are met.*

Subd. 3. [INVESTIGATION BY DESIGNATED AGENCY.] Upon receipt of a report under subdivision 2, the designated agency may initiate an investigation as provided in section 10, subdivisions 2 to 5. If long-term treatment of the minor is found appropriate under section 10, the minor may continue in residential treatment for an additional six months, as long as the criteria for long-term treatment continue to be met. Every six months the residential program shall make the review and report as required under subdivision 2.

Sec. 9. [260B.09] [REPORTING OF INAPPROPRIATE ADMISSIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [PERSONS MANDATED TO REPORT.] (a) A person who is employed to provide treatment services to chemically dependent, mentally ill, or emotionally disturbed minors by a residential program who knows or has reason to believe that a minor is inappropriately admitted to the residential program shall report this determination to the designated agency of the county where the residential program is located within 24 hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays.

(b) For purposes of this section and section 10, a minor is inappropriately admitted to a residential program if:

(1) the applicable criteria for assessment, treatment, or continued stay in sections 4 to 6 or section 8 are not met;

(2) the minor is 16 years of age or older and has not been released upon request as required by section 253B.04, subdivision 2; or

(3) the minor's patient rights under section 14 have been violated.

(c) This subdivision does not apply if the person knows that a report has already been made to the designated agency concerning the inappropriate admission. Paragraph (a) does not apply if the person is a member of the multi-disciplinary team.

Subd. 2. [PERMISSIVE REPORTING.] (a) Any person may voluntarily report to the designated agency if the person knows or has reason to believe that a minor is inappropriately admitted to a residential program.

(b) For purposes of this subdivision, "person" includes the minor.

Subd. 3. [IMMUNITY FROM LIABILITY.] A person who in good faith makes a voluntary or mandated report under subdivision 1 or 2 is immune from any civil or criminal liability that might otherwise result from the reporter's actions.

Subd. 4. [RETALIATION PROHIBITED.] (a) A residential program may not retaliate against an employee who in good faith makes a voluntary or mandated report under subdivision 1 or 2, because of the report.

(b) A residential program that retaliates against an employee in violation of paragraph (a) is liable to the employee for actual damages and, in addition, a penalty of up to $1,000.

(c) There is a rebuttable presumption that any adverse action within 90 days of a report is retaliatory. For purposes of this paragraph, "adverse action" means action taken by a residential program against an employee who makes a report, because of the report, and includes, but is not limited to:

(1) discharge, suspension, termination, or transfer from the residential program;

- (2) discharge from or termination of employment;
- (3) demotion or reduction in remuneration for services; or
- (4) restriction or prohibition of access to the residential program.

Subd. 5. [FALSIFIED REPORT.] A person who knowingly or recklessly makes a false report under subdivision 1 or 2 is civilly liable for actual damages suffered by the residential program reported and for punitive damages.

Subd. 6. [FAILURE TO REPORT.] A person mandated to report by subdivision 1 who knows or has reason to believe that a minor is inappropriately admitted to a residential program, and who fails to report, is subject to a civil penalty of up to $500.

Sec. 10. [260B.10] [INVESTIGATION OF REPORTED ADMISSIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE TO RESIDENTIAL PROGRAM.] Immediately upon receipt of a report under section 9, the designated agency shall notify the residential program that a report has been received. The notice shall include the name of the minor and describe the nature of the alleged inappropriate admission, but may not identify the name of the individual who made the report. If the residential program takes action so that the minor is no longer inappropriately admitted and notifies the designated agency or the screening team of this fact prior to the issuance of findings by the screening team under subdivision 3, the screening team may not issue findings.

Subd. 2. [INVESTIGATION.] Except as provided in section 8 and subdivision 6, the designated agency shall appoint a screening team to conduct an investigation to determine whether the minor's admission is appropriate. The screening team may review the minor's admission by meeting with the minor, the minor's parents or guardian, and appropriate staff; reviewing relevant records and the findings of the director, the director's designee, or the residential program's multi-disciplinary team; and any other factors necessary to determine whether the admission is appropriate. The screening team shall have access to all relevant medical records of the minor. Data collected by the screening team under this subdivision are private data on individuals.

Subd. 3. [FINDINGS BY SCREENING TEAM.] Except as provided in subdivision 1, the screening team shall issue written findings within 72 hours of the time that the designated agency received a report under section 8 or 9, setting forth the basis for its determination as to whether the admission is appropriate. If the screening team finds that the admission is appropriate, the screening team shall notify the minor, the minor's parents or guardian, and the residential program. If the screening team finds that the admission is inappropriate, it shall immediately notify the county attorney of its findings.

Subd. 4. [FINDINGS BY COUNTY ATTORNEY.] (a) Within 48 hours of receipt of findings from the screening team under subdivision 3, the county attorney shall review the findings and determine whether there is probable cause to believe that the minor is inappropriately admitted to the residential program.

(b) If the county attorney has probable cause to believe that the minor is inappropriately admitted to a residential program because the applicable cri- teria under sections 4 to 6 or section 8 are not met or because the minor has not been released as required by section 253B.04, subdivision 2, the county attorney shall notify the residential program of this finding. A copy of the finding must be given to the minor and the minor's parents or guardian. Except as provided in paragraph (c), the residential program shall release the minor within 48 hours of receipt of the finding from the county attorney unless a petition is filed by the residential program or the minor's parents or guardian under section 11 or chapter 253B.

(c) If the admission is inappropriate because the criteria for a locked residential program are not met but the criteria for an unlocked residential program are met, the residential program may transfer the minor to an unlocked unit instead of releasing the minor.

(d) If the county attorney has probable cause to believe that the minor is inappropriately admitted because the minor patient's rights under section 14 have been violated, the county attorney shall notify the residential program of this finding. The residential program shall take appropriate action to ensure that the minor patient's rights are not violated. A copy of the finding must be given to the minor and the minor's parents or guardian.

(e) If the county attorney has probable cause to believe that a minor has been inappropriately admitted, the county attorney shall also notify the appropriate licensing authority for the residential program.

(f) If the county attorney finds there is not probable cause to believe that the minor is inappropriately admitted, the county attorney shall notify the minor, the minor's parent or guardian, and the residential program.

Subd. 5. [PENALTY, ENFORCEMENT.] (a) A residential program that fails to comply with the finding of the county attorney as required by subdivision 4 is liable for a civil penalty of up to $100 per day for each day of noncompliance after 48 hours of receipt of the findings.

(b) In addition to the penalty provided for in paragraph (a), the county attorney may petition the court to order the residential program to comply under subdivision 4. The court shall order the residential program to comply unless it finds that the screening team or the county attorney failed to comply with the procedural requirements of this section.

Subd. 6. [COURT-ORDERED TREATMENT.] If the designated agency receives a report of an inappropriate admission of a minor whose assessment or treatment has been ordered by a court under article 1, the designated agency shall appoint a screening team to conduct an investigation and make findings under this section only if the basis for the report is a violation of the minor patient's rights. If the basis of the report is that the applicable criteria are not met, the designated agency shall notify the court ordering assessment or treatment, the minor, the minor's parents or guardian, the minor's counsel under article 1, if any, and the residential program's licensing authority. The residential program may not be required to release the minor under this section, although a party may seek modification of the court's disposition order or appeal the order as provided in article 1.

Subd. 7. [REMEDY NOT EXCLUSIVE.] The review process established in this section is not exclusive and does not preclude the minor from pursuing other remedies under the law for inappropriate admissions.

Sec. 11. [260B.11] [PETITION AND HEARING PROCESS.]

Subdivision 1. [PETITION.] The residential program or the minor's parents or guardian may file a petition requesting certification of the minor for assessment or treatment in a residential program as provided in this section. If the minor is 16 years of age or older and has requested release from the residential program, a petition must be filed under chapter 253B and all provisions of that chapter apply. For all other minors, a petition may be filed under this chapter and must contain the following information:

- (1) name and address of the minor patient;*
- (2) names of the parent or parents with legal custody or the guardian, and name of any adult, if known, who is particularly significant in the minor's life, including foster parents;*
- (3) name and address of the residential program where the minor is admitted;*
- (4) copies of the written findings of the residential program determining that the applicable criteria for assessment, treatment, continued stay or long-term treatment have been met;*
- (5) a request that the minor be certified for assessment or treatment in the residential program; and*
- (6) a verification or sworn statement of the truth of the petition.*

Subd. 2. [MINOR'S RIGHT TO COUNSEL.] Every minor who is the subject of a petition under this section has the right to be represented by counsel and counsel must be appointed at public expense if the minor cannot afford private counsel. The right to counsel may not be waived. The minor's counsel must be given access to the minor and the minor's records at the residential program where the minor is admitted. The program shall also allow the minor access to counsel by telephone or by mail during reasonable hours.

Subd. 3. [GUARDIAN AD LITEM.] The court, in its discretion, may appoint a guardian ad litem for a minor during any proceeding under this section.

Subd. 4. [EXAMINERS.] After a petition has been filed with the court, the court shall appoint an independent examiner who must be a psychiatrist or licensed consulting psychologist or, if appropriate, a licensed expert in chemical abuse. At the request of the minor or the minor's counsel, the court shall also appoint a second examiner of the minor's choosing. The second examiner must be paid for by the county at a rate of compensation fixed by the court. The court shall order an immediate examination by the independent examiner.

Subd. 5. [NOTICE OF AND SUMMONS TO EXAMINATION.] After a petition has been filed with the court and an independent examiner has been appointed, the court shall have a copy of the petition and a summons to appear for a prehearing examination served on the minor, the minor's counsel, and the parent with legal custody or the minor's legal guardian.

Subd. 6. [SERVICE ON MINOR.] Service of documents on a minor under this section is subject to the following conditions:

- (1) documents must be served personally;
- (2) a minor may not waive notice or service of the documents, as may any other party; and
- (3) unless otherwise provided by the court, documents must be served on the minor by a nonuniformed person.

Subd. 7. [PREHEARING EXAMINATION; REPORT.] The examination must be conducted at the residential program where the minor is admitted or at another location ordered by the court. The minor's counsel may be present at the examination. Unless otherwise agreed to by the minor's counsel, the court-appointed examiner shall file three copies of the report with the court before the hearing on the petition. Copies of the report must be mailed to the minor, the minor's counsel, the parents or guardian, and the program where the minor is admitted.

Subd. 8. [NOTICE OF AND SUMMONS TO HEARING.] (a) A notice of the time and date of the hearing on the petition must be served on the minor, the minor's counsel, the minor's parents or guardian, the program where the minor is admitted, and any other person the court directs prior to the hearing.

(b) The court, in its discretion, may proceed with the hearing on the petition without service on persons other than the minor and the minor's counsel if service attempts are unsuccessful.

Subd. 9. [TIME FOR HEARING; CUSTODY PENDING HEARING.] The court shall hold a hearing within 72 hours, excluding Saturday, Sunday, and legal holidays, of the filing of the petition under this section. If a hearing is not held within this period of time, the minor must be released from the residential program. The minor may remain in the residential program pending the court's decision on the petition.

Subd. 10. [RIGHT TO ATTEND AND TESTIFY.] All persons to whom notice has been given may attend and testify at the hearing. The court shall notify the interested persons of this right. The court may exclude any person who is not necessary for the conduct of the hearing, except a person requested by the minor to be present.

Subd. 11. [WITNESSES.] The minor or the minor's counsel and the petitioner may present and cross-examine witnesses, including examiners, at the hearing.

Subd. 12. [PLACE AND MANNER OF HEARING.] The hearing must be conducted in a manner consistent with orderly procedure. The hearing must be held in a courtroom that meets the standards prescribed by applicable local court rules. The courtroom may be located within the residential program.

Subd. 13. [EVIDENCE; RECORD.] The court shall make its determination upon the entire record, pursuant to the rules of evidence. The court shall keep accurate records of the hearing.

Sec. 12. [260B.12] [FINDINGS; STANDARD OF PROOF; REVIEW.]

Subdivision 1. [BURDEN OF PROOF.] The minor's parents or legal guardian or the residential program where the minor is admitted have the burden of proof under this section and shall show cause as to why the minor's admission in the residential program is appropriate under this chapter.

Subd. 2. [STANDARD OF PROOF.] (a) The court shall order that the admission of the minor may continue at the residential program only if:

(1) the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the applicable criteria for assessment, treatment, continued stay, or long-term treatment are met; and

(2) the court has carefully considered, but justifiably rejected, all reasonable alternative dispositions including voluntary outpatient care.

An order committing the minor to outpatient services and treatment is a possible alternative disposition if it is a reasonable response to the minor's mental illness or chemical dependency.

(b) The refusal of a minor to obtain court-ordered outpatient treatment or services or to comply with another less restrictive treatment plan is evidence in further proceedings under this chapter of the appropriateness of residential treatment for a minor who is found to be mentally ill, chemically dependent, or emotionally disturbed.

Subd. 3. [FINDINGS.] (a) The court shall make findings of fact and conclusions of law and shall direct entry of an appropriate judgment. If the minor is certified for assessment or treatment in a residential program, the findings must include:

(1) a statement of the conduct by the minor that is the basis for meeting each of the applicable criteria for assessment, treatment, or continued stay;

(2) an identification of the primary diagnosis that provided the basis for the admission to a particular program and a statement that the program can appropriately respond to the needs of the primary diagnosis; and

(3) a listing of less restrictive alternatives considered and rejected by the court and the reasons for rejecting each alternative.

(b) If the court finds that the burden of proof has not been met, the court shall order the minor released from the residential program.

Subd. 4. [30-DAY REVIEW.] If the court certifies the minor for assessment or treatment under this section, 30 days after the admission of the minor the residential program shall file a written report with the court stating:

(1) whether the applicable criteria for continued stay are met, and if so, the basis for the multi-disciplinary screening panel's determination that the criteria are met; and

(2) what efforts have been made to return the minor to a less restrictive treatment setting.

Sec. 13. [260B.13] [ACCESS OF MINORS 14 YEARS OF AGE OR OLDER TO COUNSELING AND SERVICES.]

A minor 14 years of age or older has the right to obtain outpatient counseling or therapy and to have the minor's privacy protected regarding these services. Only licensed mental illness, chemical dependency, emotional disturbance, or hospital-based primary treatment programs may provide these services. When appropriate, the provider of treatment services shall seek involvement of the minor's parents or guardian as soon as possible. If parental or guardian involvement is not obtained, the facility shall document why it is not obtained. Treatment or therapy under this section may not include intrusive treatment, such as the administration of medications, without the written consent of the parent with legal custody or the legal guardian.

Sec. 14. [260B.14] [MINOR PATIENTS' RIGHTS.]

Subdivision 1. [PUBLIC POLICY DECLARATION.] It is the public policy of this state that the interests of each minor patient in a residential program be protected by a declaration of a patient's bill of rights that includes but is not limited to the rights specified in this section.

Subd. 2. [NOTIFICATION.] A minor admitted to a residential program must be provided a handbook of minor patients' rights at the time of admission or within 48 hours of admission. The residential program shall serve the notification of rights on the minor and shall orally explain the rights to assist the minor in understanding them. If the minor's age, psychiatric condition, or physical condition upon admission precludes understanding, the program shall notify the minor's parents or guardian of this fact and shall make all reasonable efforts to ensure the minor's notification as soon as possible.

Subd. 3. [DISCLOSURE OF SERVICES AVAILABLE.] Minor patients and their parent or guardian must be informed, before or at the time of admission and during their stay, of services that are included in the program's basic per diem or daily room rate and other services that are available at additional charges.

Subd. 4. [ISOLATION AND RESTRAINTS.] (a) A minor patient has the right to be free from physical restraint and isolation except in emergency situations involving a likelihood that the patient will physically harm the patient's self or others. These procedures may not be used to enforce program rules or for the convenience of staff. Isolation or restraint may be used only when less restrictive measures are ineffective or not feasible and only for the shortest time necessary. When a patient is placed in restraint, the patient's status must be viewed once every 15 minutes by a trained staff person. Restraint may not be used for more than four hours in any 24-hour period. The director of the residential program must authorize any use of isolation in excess of eight hours in any 24-hour period. Each program shall issue a written policy covering the use of restraint or isolation that ensures that the patient's safety and dignity is protected and that there is regular frequent monitoring by trained staff to care for the patient's bodily needs as may be required.

*(b) Prior authorization of isolation or restraint must be in writing and must be obtained from a physician, psychiatrist, or licensed consulting psychologist, except that isolation or restraint in emergencies may be used temporarily without a written order. However, a written order must be obtained within 24 hours of the use of the isolation or restraint. Each use of a restraint or isolation and the reason for it must be made part of the clinical record of the patient under the signature of the head of the program. (b) Except as provided in paragraph (c), if the officer taking custody has probable cause to believe that the minor is intoxicated, but does not require emergency medical service and is not endangering self or any person or property, the officer may take the minor to the minor's place of residence.

(c) The officer may bring the minor to a detoxification program if the officer has probable cause to believe that the minor is intoxicated and:

(1) the minor's parents are not available or in the place of residence, or the place of residence is not within 25 miles of where the minor is taken into custody; or

Subd. 4. [JUVENILE DETOXIFICATION SERVICES.] A minor who is intoxicated may not be detained for purposes of detoxification in a jail or municipal lockup. A detoxification program that provides services for minors and adults must have separate sleeping quarters for minors and adults. The commissioner of human services shall not license a detoxification program that does not have the plan required by this subdivision.

Subd. 5. [TIME AND TREATMENT IN DETOXIFICATION.] (a) A minor may be held for no more than 72 hours under this section. The sole purpose of detention in a program under this section is detoxification. A minor may not be held for more than 48 hours unless the program's director or the director's designee finds that the assessment criteria under section 4, subdivision 1, are met.

(b) If the minor is 14 years of age or older, preventive diagnostic assess-

(2) lawfully available controlled substances may be administered only with the consent of the minor's parents or guardian, unless they are necessary to detoxify the minor;

(3) a minor may not be admitted to a detoxification program unless the admission is to detoxify the minor for the ingestion of alcohol or other drugs; and

(4) a minor may not be held for a period of treatment beyond the 72 hours allowed for detoxification of the minor, unless the minor may be held for assessment or treatment under section 4 or 5.

(c) If a minor is admitted to a detoxification program under this section, the minor must be examined by trained staff as soon as possible. If it is determined that the minor is intoxicated, the minor must be detained for the duration of the intoxication, but no longer, except in the case of a minor 14 years of age or older who agrees to be held under this subdivision for the full 72 hours.

Subd. 6. [PARENTS' RIGHT TO REMOVE MINOR FROM FACILITY.] If a minor has been transported to a detoxification program or medical facility and it is determined that the minor needs the emergency medical care available in that facility, a parent or guardian may remove the minor from the facility upon informed consent and subject to any applicable provisions of article 1.

(2) a specific plan for the development of appropriate services, allowing for the minor to be discharged as soon as possible but within 180 days, has been agreed to by the county of financial responsibility and approved by the committing court. Placement of the child on the waiting lists of existing facilities is not sufficient to comply with this clause.

Subd. 3. [DISCHARGE.] (a) No minor may be discharged from a state regional treatment center unless appropriate services are available and provided to the minor.

(b) If a minor cannot be discharged from a state regional treatment center due to lack of appropriate services, the county shall request an extension of time from the committing court. The request shall be made at least 45 days before the 180-day period expires. If the court determines that appropriate services are currently unavailable, it shall grant a limited time extension and order the county to take whatever immediate action is necessary to meet the child's needs in an appropriate community setting as soon as possible.

(c) The county is responsible for paying the entire daily charge from county funds for each day a developmentally disabled minor remains in a state hospital in excess of 180 days.

Subd. 4. [EXCEPTION.] This section does not prohibit the admission under other provisions of this chapter of a developmentally disabled minor who is mentally ill or chemically dependent. The limitations in this section do not apply to the programs licensed pursuant to Minn. Rules, parts 9545.0900 - 9545.1090 at the state regional treatment centers, including the Minnesota learning center at Brainerd regional treatment center and the adolescent treatment center at Willmar regional treatment center.

Subd. 3. [APPOINTMENT OF APPRAISERS; ALLOCATION OF APPRAISAL AND SURVEY COSTS.] (a) The commissioner of natural resources shall provide the lessee requesting the sale with a list of all appraisers approved by the commissioner of administration for the appraisal of property for the state. The lessee requesting the sale may select a person from the list, to appraise the property to be sold. If more than one lessee of a cabin site lot leased by the commissioner under section 92.46 within a platted area requests the sale of a leased lot, all requesting lessees may jointly agree upon an appraiser from the list. If the lessee or lessees do not select an appraiser, the commissioner of natural resources shall select the appraiser.

(b) The costs of appraisal shall be allocated by the commissioner to the lots offered for sale and the successful bidder on each lot shall reimburse the commissioner for the appraisal costs allocated to the lot bid upon. If there are no successful bidders on a lot, the commissioner is responsible for the appraisal cost allocated to that lot.

(c) If a new property survey is required before a sale, the costs of the survey shall be allocated by the commissioner to the lots offered for sale and the successful bidder on each lot shall reimburse the commissioner for the survey costs allocated to the lot bid upon. If there are no successful bidders on a lot, the commissioner is responsible for the survey cost allocated to that lot.

(d) If a lot is sold without a new property survey, each bid is received upon the conditions that a warranty of legal description is not made by the commissioner and that each bidder waives all legal rights against the state relating to title or other defects arising from errors in legal description. These conditions shall be included in the notice of sale relating to lots if a new property survey has not been made and shall be announced orally at the commencement of bidding on lots if a new property survey has not been made.

Subd. 4. [TIMING OF SALES.] (a) The commissioner shall offer lakeshore cabin site lots for sale pursuant to written request and in accordance with the following schedule:

(1) as to requests received before January 1, 1987, the sale shall be held in June, July, or August 1987;

(2) as to requests received each calendar year after December 31, 1986, the sale shall be held in June, July, or August of the year after the request is received.

(b) The last sales shall be held in 1992. Lots not sold the first year offered may be reoffered in a succeeding year, following reappraisal if it is determined necessary by the commissioner.

If a person other than the lessee purchases the leased lakeshore cabin site, the purchaser must make payment in full to the lessee at the time of the sale for the appraised value of any improvements. Failure of a successful bidder to comply with this provision voids the sale and the property must be rebid, if possible, at the same sale.

Subd. 5. [SALE PROCEEDS.] After deducting the costs of the sale from the purchase price, the balance shall be invested as provided by the Minnesota Constitution, article XI, section 8.

Sec. 2. [92.68] [MISCELLANEOUS.]

Subdivision 1. [SHORELINE INCLUDED.] Notwithstanding section 92.45, the shoreline of leased sites sold under section 1 is not reserved for public travel.

Subd. 2. [LOCAL ZONING.] For the purpose of local zoning ordinances, land sold under section 1 shall be treated as if purchased at the time the state first leased the sites.

Subd. 3. [ROAD ACCESS.] Rights of access across state property to the lots offered for sale that are in existence at the time of sale, and not included in the sale, may not be terminated by the commissioner without the consent of the purchasers of the lots or their successors in interest. The commissioner may impose a fee for the access rights in the same manner as for other similar accesses.

Sec. 3. [REPEALER.]

Sections 1 and 2 of this act are repealed on July 1, 1992.

Sec. 4. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 3 are effective the day following final enactment."

And when so amended the bill do pass and be re-referred to the Committee on Education. Amendments adopted. Report adopted.
