[TAX LEVY.] The governing body of the city of Plymouth may establish, by a two-thirds vote of all its members, by ordinance or resolution a capital improvement reserve fund and may annually levy a property tax for the support of the fund. The proceeds of taxes levied for its support shall be paid into the capital improvement reserve fund. There may be paid into the fund any other revenue from any source not required by statute or charter to be paid into some other fund to be used for purposes other than those provided for the use of the capital improvement reserve fund. A tax levied by the city of Plymouth in accordance with this section is a special levy within the meaning of section 275.50, subdivision 5. Before a tax is levied under this section, the Plymouth city council shall publish in the official newspaper of the city an initial resolution authorizing the tax levy, and if within ten days after the publication there is filed with the city clerk a petition requesting an election on the proposition of the tax levy signed by a number of qualified voters greater than ten percent of the number who voted in the city at the last general election, the tax must not be levied until the proposition has been approved by a majority of the votes cast on it at a regular or special election.

Subd. 2. [PURPOSES.] Except as provided in subdivision 3, the capital improvement reserve fund shall be used only for capital improvements for which bonds may be issued by the city under section 475.52, subdivisions 1 and 2.

Subd. 3. [CAPITAL IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM.] A balance in the capital improvement reserve fund may be used only in accordance with the comprehensive plan adopted by the city pursuant to sections 473.851 to 473.86.

Subd. 4. [USE OF FUND FOR A SPECIFIC PURPOSE.] If the city council of Plymouth has established a capital improvement reserve fund, it may submit to the voters at a regular or special election the question of using the fund for a specific improvement or type of capital improvement. If a majority of the votes cast on the question are in favor of such a limitation on the use of the fund, it shall be used only for the purpose approved by the voters.

Subd. 5. [HEARING; NOTICE.] A capital improvement fund may not be established until after a public hearing on the question is held. Notice of the time, place, and purpose of the hearing must be published for two successive weeks in the official newspaper of the city. The second publication must be not later than seven days before the date of the hearing.

Subd. 6. [TERMINATION OF FUND.] The city may terminate a capital improvement fund at any time in the same manner as the fund was established. Upon termination of the fund any balance shall be irrevocably appropriated to the debt service fund of the city to be used solely to reduce tax levies for or bonded indebtedness of the city or, if the city has no bonded indebtedness, for capital improvements authorized by this act.

Sec. 34. [TRANSITION.]

H.F. No. 2051: A bill for an act relating to the city of St. Paul; permitting the establishment of special service districts in the city and providing taxing and other authority.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

"Section 1. [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. For the purpose of this act the terms defined in this section have the following meanings.

Subd. 2. "City" means the city of St. Paul.

Subd. 3. "Special services" means:

(1) the promotion and management of a special service district as a trade or shopping area; and

(2) the repair, maintenance, and operation of improvements and replacement of minor improvements within the boundaries of special service districts established under section 2, subdivision 1.

Special services do not include services that are provided throughout the city from general tax revenues of the city except to the extent of an increased level of service provided in the special service district.

Subd. 4. "Special service district" means a defined area within the city where special services are rendered and their costs are paid from revenues collected from a special service tax imposed within the area.

Subd. 5. "Assessed value" means the assessed value as most recently certified by the commissioner of revenue on the effective date of an ordinance or resolution adopted pursuant to section 2 or 4.

Subd. 6. "Land area" means the land area located within the district that is subject to property taxation.

Sec. 2. [ESTABLISHMENT OF SPECIAL SERVICE DISTRICT.]

Subdivision 1. [ORDINANCE.] The governing body of the city may adopt ordinances establishing special service districts:

(1) in the area of Grand Avenue between Oakland and Cretin Avenues;

(2) in the area of Cleveland Avenue between Bayard and Bohland Avenues and Ford Parkway between Howell Street and East Mississippi River Boulevard; and

(3) in the area of the intersection of University Avenue and Snelling Avenue between Summit Avenue and Como Avenue.

The ordinance shall describe with particularity the areas to be included in the district and the special service to be furnished. The ordinance may not be adopted until after a public hearing on the question. Notice of the hearing shall include:

(1) the time and place of the hearing;

(2) a map showing the boundaries of the proposed district;

(3) a statement that all persons owning property in the proposed district will be given an opportunity to be heard at the hearing; and

(4) a description of the proposed special services to be provided in the district.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE.] Notice of the hearing shall be given by publication in two issues of a newspaper of general circulation in the city. The two publications shall be a week apart and the hearing shall be held no sooner than three days after the last publication. Not less than ten days before the hearing, notice shall also be mailed to the owner of each parcel of real estate proposed to be included in the district. For the purpose of giving mailed notice, owners shall be those shown on the records of the county auditor. Other records may be used to supply necessary information. For properties which are subject to taxation on a gross earning basis in lieu of property tax and are not listed on the records of the county auditor, the owners shall be ascertained by any practicable means and mailed notice given them. At the public hearing, any person who owns property in a proposed district or any interested party may be heard orally in respect to the proposed district. The hearing may be adjourned from time to time and the ordinance establishing a district may be adopted at any time within six months after the date of the conclusion of the hearing, and after the determination of all objections under section 3.

Sec. 3. [OBJECTION.]

Subdivision 1. [FILING.] On or before the adoption of the ordinance, any landowner may file objection with the city clerk objecting to:

(1) the inclusion of the landowner's property in the district;

(2) levy of the tax on the landowner's property; or

(3) the fact that the use of the landowner's property is not substantially benefited by the proposed special service;

and asserting that the landowner's property should not be subjected to the special service tax. The governing body of the city shall hold a public hearing on the objection within 30 days of the filing of the objection and shall make a determination on the objection.

Subd. 2. [APPEAL TO DISTRICT COURT.] Within 30 days after the adoption of the ordinance, any person aggrieved, who is not precluded by failure to object prior to or at the hearing, or whose failure to so object is due to a reasonable cause, may appeal to the district court by serving a notice upon the mayor or clerk of the municipality. The notice shall be filed with the clerk of the district court within ten days after its service. The municipal clerk shall furnish appellant a certified copy of objections filed, the matter complained of, and all papers necessary to present the appeal. The appeal shall be placed upon the calendar of the next general term commencing more than five days after the date of serving the notice and shall be tried as other appeals in such cases. The court shall either affirm the matter objected to or modify or deny it. If appellant does not prevail upon the appeal, the costs incurred shall be taxed by the court and judgment entered therefor. All objections shall be deemed waived unless presented on appeal. This section provides the exclusive method of appeal from an action taken pursuant to this act.

Sec. 4. [TAXING AUTHORITY; NOTICE AND HEARING REQUIREMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [TAXES; HEARING.] Upon a finding of public purpose and subject to any determination under section 3, a special service tax based upon property value, square footage, or front footage or allocated by another fair method determined by the governing body may be levied on real properties within zoning districts classified by the city of St. Paul as: OS-1, B-1, B-2, B-2C, B-3, I-1 and P-1, found within the special district at a rate or amount sufficient to produce revenues required to provide the special services within the district. If the property value method is used, taxable property or value shall be determined without regard to captured or original assessed value under Minnesota Statutes, section 273.76, or to the distribution or contribution value under Minnesota Statutes, section 473F.08. A special service tax may not be imposed on the receipts from the sale of intoxicating liquor, food, or lodging. Before the levy of special service taxes in a district, notice shall be given and a hearing held pursuant to section 2 or 3. For purposes of this section the notice shall include:

(1) a statement that the owners of all taxable property included in the proposed district will be given an opportunity to be heard at the hearing regarding the proposed special service tax;

(2) the estimated cost of special services to be paid for in whole or part by the special service tax imposed under this section, the estimated cost of operating and maintaining improvements and providing other special services during the first year after their completion, the proposed method and source of financing, and the annual cost of repairing, operating, maintaining, and replacing improvements and providing other special services; and

(3) the proposed rate or amount and duration of special service taxes to be levied in the district during the calendar year and the nature and character of special services to be rendered in the district during the calendar year.

Within the six months of the public hearing and determination of all objections under section 3, the city may adopt a resolution levying a special service tax within the district that does not exceed the amount or rate stated in the notice issued pursuant to this section.

Any amendment increasing the amount of a special service tax from that estimated in the notice shall only be considered after further notice in accordance with this subdivision.

Subd. 2. [EXEMPTION OF CERTAIN PROPERTIES FROM TAXES.] Property exempt from taxation by Minnesota Statutes, section 272.02, and property used exclusively for residential purposes is exempt from any tax imposed pursuant to this act.

Subd. 3. [LEVY LIMIT EXEMPTIONS.] A special service tax imposed pursuant to this act shall be included in the calculation of levies or limits on levies provided by other law or home rule charter.

Subd. 4. [EXCLUSION FROM HOMESTEAD CREDIT.] A special service tax levied under this section shall not be reduced pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 273.13, subdivision 22.

Sec. 5. [ENLARGEMENT OF SPECIAL SERVICE DISTRICTS.]

A special service district may be enlarged only after hearing and notice as provided in section 2 and section 3. Notice shall be served on property owners in the original district and in the area proposed to be added to the district. Property added to the district shall be subject to all special service taxes levied within the district after the property becomes a part of the district. The petition requirement in section 6 and the veto power in section 7 shall only apply to owners of property in the area proposed to be added to the district.

Sec. 6. [PETITION REQUIRED.]

No public hearing may be held pursuant to section 2 unless owners of 35 percent or more of the land area subject to the proposed tax and owners of 35 percent or more of the assessed value of the proposed district file a petition with the city clerk requesting the hearing. No public hearing may be held pursuant to section 4 to impose a special service tax unless owners of 35 percent or more of the land area subject to the proposed tax and owners of 35 percent or more of the assessed value subject to the proposed tax file a petition with the city clerk requesting the hearing. If the boundaries of a proposed district or the land area of assessed value subject to a tax are changed, a petition meeting the requirements of this section must be filed with the city clerk before the ordinance establishing the district or resolution imposing the tax may become effective.

Sec. 7. [VETO POWER OF OWNERS.]

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE OF RIGHT TO FILE OBJECTIONS.] Except as provided in section 8, the effective date of an ordinance or resolution adopted pursuant to sections 2 and 4 shall be at least 45 days after it is adopted. Within ten days after adoption of the ordinance or resolution, a copy of the ordinance or resolution shall be mailed to the owner of each parcel of real estate subject to the proposed tax included in the special service district in the same manner that notice is mailed pursuant to section 2. The mailing shall include a notice that owners subject to a special service tax have a right to veto the ordinance or resolution by filing the required number of objections with the city clerk before the effective date of the ordinance or resolution and their rights under section 3.

Subd. 2. [REQUIREMENT FOR VETO.] If owners of 25 percent of the land area subject to the special service tax in the district and owners of 25 percent of the assessed value in the district file a written objection to the ordinance adopted by the city pursuant to section 2 with the city clerk before the effective date of the ordinance, the ordinance shall not become effective. If owners of 25 percent of the land area subject to a tax and owners of 25 percent of the assessed value subject to a tax file an objection to the resolution adopted pursuant to section 4 with the city clerk before the effective date of the resolution, the resolution shall not become effective.

Sec. 8. [EXCLUSION FROM PETITION REQUIREMENTS AND VETO POWER.]

The petition requirement of section 6 and the right of owners to veto a resolution in section 7 do not apply to the second or a subsequent year's application of a special service tax that is authorized to be in effect for more than one year pursuant to a resolution that has met the petition requirements of section 6 and has not been vetoed under section 7 for the first year's application. A resolution levying a special service tax shall not exceed three years and shall not be adopted unless the notice of public hearing required by section 4 and the notice mailed with the adopted resolution pursuant to section 7 include the maximum rate or amount of the special service tax to be levied in any year and the maximum number of years the tax will be levied.

The resolution may provide that the maximum amount of a special service tax to be levied in any year will increase or decrease from the maximum amount authorized in the preceding year based on a statistical indicator, increased cost, or a percentage established by the resolution.

Sec. 9. [COLLECTION OF TAXES.]

Special service taxes levied within a special service district shall be collected like other property taxes but only from property described in the ordinance. Taxes collected pursuant to this act shall not be included in computations under Minnesota Statutes, section 273.76, chapter 473F, or any other law that applies to general property taxes.

Sec. 10. [ADVISORY BOARD.]

The governing body of the city may create and appoint an advisory board for each special service district in the city to advise the governing body in connection with the construction, maintenance, and operation of improvements, and the furnishing of all other special services in a district. The advisory board shall make recommendations to the governing body on the requests and complaints of owners, occupants, and users of property within the district and members of the public. Before the adoption of any proposal by the governing body to provide service or impose a special service tax within the district, the advisory board of the district must have an opportunity to review and comment upon the proposal.

Sec. 11. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 10 are effective the day after compliance with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3, by the governing body of the city of St. Paul."

SPECIAL ORDER

S.F. No. 1584: A bill for an act relating to taxation; providing that nonresident athletes and entertainers are exempt from the income tax; imposing an alternative tax on their income; amending Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 290.92, subdivision 4a; and Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 290.17, subdivision 2; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 290.

Mr. Peterson, C.C. moved to amend S.F. No. 1584 as follows:

Pages 1 to 5, delete section 1 and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 290.17, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [OTHER TAXPAYERS.] In the case of an individual who is not a full year resident, this subdivision applies to determine what income is assignable to Minnesota for purposes of determining the numerator of the fraction used in section 290.06, subdivision 2c. In the case of taxpayers not subject to the provisions of subdivision 1, items of gross income shall be assigned to this state or other states or countries in accordance with the following principles:

(1)(a) The entire income of all resident or domestic taxpayers from compensation for labor or personal services, or from a business consisting principally of the performance of personal or professional services, shall be assigned to this state, and the income of nonresident taxpayers from such sources shall be assigned to this state if, and to the extent that, the labor or services are performed within it; all other income from such sources shall be treated as income from sources without this state.

(b) In the case of an individual who is a nonresident of Minnesota and who is an athlete or entertainer, income from compensation for labor or personal services performed within this state shall be determined in the following manner.

(i) The amount of income to be assigned to Minnesota for an individual who is a nonresident salaried athletic team employee or a nonresident salaried employee of an entertainment organization shall be determined by using a fraction in which the denominator contains the total number of days in which the individual is under a duty to perform for the employer, and the numerator is the total number of those days spent in Minnesota. In order to eliminate the need to file state or provincial income tax returns in several states or provinces, Minnesota will exclude from income any income assigned to Minnesota under the provisions of this clause for a nonresident athlete who is employed by an athletic team whose operations are not based in this state and for a nonresident salaried entertainer who is employed by an entertainment organization whose operations are not based in this state if the state or province in which the athletic team or entertainment organization is based provides a similar income exclusion. If the state or province in which the athletic team's or the entertainment organization's operations are based does not have an income tax on an individual's personal service income, it will be deemed that that state or province has a similar income exclusion. As used in the preceding sentence, the term "province" means a province of Canada.

(ii) The amount of income to be assigned to Minnesota for an individual who is a nonresident, and who is an athlete or entertainer not listed in clause (i), ~~or who is an entertainer,~~ for that person's athletic or entertainment performance in Minnesota shall be determined by assigning to this state all income from performances or athletic contests in this state.

(2) Income from the operation of a farm shall be assigned to this state if the farm is located within this state and to other states only if the farm is not located in this state. Income from winnings on Minnesota pari-mutuel betting tickets shall be assigned to this state. Income and gains received from tangible property not employed in the business of the recipient of such income or gains, and from tangible property employed in the business of such recipient if such business consists principally of the holding of such property and the collection of the income and gains therefrom, shall be assigned to this state if such property has a situs within it, and to other states only if it has no situs in this state. Income or gains from intangible personal property not employed in the business of the recipient of such income or gains, and from intangible personal property employed in the business of such recipient if such business consists principally of the holding of such property and the collection of the income and gains therefrom, wherever held, whether in trust, or otherwise, shall be assigned to this state if the recipient thereof is domiciled within this state or is a resident trust or estate.

(3) Income derived from carrying on a trade or business, including in the case of a business owned by natural persons the income imputable to the owner for his services and the use of his property therein, shall be assigned to this state if the trade or business is conducted wholly within this state, and to other states if conducted wholly without this state. This provision shall not apply to business income subject to the provisions of clause (1).

(4) When a trade or business is carried on partly within and partly without this state, the entire income derived from such trade or business, including income from intangible property employed in such business and including, in the case of a business owned by natural persons, the income imputable to the owner for his services and the use of his property therein, shall be governed, except as otherwise provided in sections 290.35 and 290.36, by the provisions of section 290.19, notwithstanding any provisions of this subdivision to the contrary. This shall not apply to business income subject to the provisions of clause (1), nor shall it apply to income from the operation of a farm which is subject to the provisions of clause (2). For the purposes of this clause, a trade or business located in Minnesota is carried on partly within and partly without this state if tangible personal property is sold by such trade or business and delivered or shipped to a purchaser located outside the state of Minnesota.

If the trade or business carried on wholly or partly in Minnesota is part of a unitary business, the entire income of that unitary business shall be subject to apportionment under section 290.19 except for business income subject to the provisions of clause (1) and farm income subject to the provisions of clause (2). The term "unitary business" shall mean business activities or operations which are of mutual benefit, dependent upon, or contributory to one another, individually or as a group. Unity shall be presumed whenever there is unity of ownership, operation, and use, evidenced by centralized management or executive force, centralized purchasing, advertising, accounting, or other controlled interaction but the absence of these centralized activities will not necessarily evidence a nonunitary business. Unity of ownership will not be deemed to exist when a corporation is involved unless that corporation is a member of a group of two or more corporations more than 50 percent of the voting stock of each member of the group is directly or indirectly owned by a common owner or by common owners, either corporate or noncorporate, or by one or more of the member corporations of the group.

The entire income of a unitary business shall be subject to apportionment as provided in section 290.19. None of the income of a unitary business shall be considered as derived from any particular source and none shall be allocated to any particular place except as provided by the applicable apportionment formula.

In determining whether or not intangible property is employed in a unitary business carried on partly within and partly without this state so that income derived therefrom is subject to apportionment under section 290.19 the following rules and guidelines shall apply.

(a) Intangible property is employed in a business if the business entity owning intangible property holds it as a means of furthering the business operation of which a part is located within the territorial confines of this state.

(b) Where a business operation conducted in Minnesota, is owned by a business entity which carries on business activity outside of the state different in kind from that conducted within this state, and such other business is conducted entirely outside the state, it will be presumed that the two business operations are unitary in nature, interrelated, connected and interdependent unless it can be shown to the contrary.

(5) For purposes of this section, amounts received by a nonresident from the United States, its agencies or instrumentalities, the Federal Reserve Bank, the state of Minnesota or any of its political or governmental subdivisions, or a Minnesota volunteer fireman's relief association, by way of payment as a pension, public employee retirement benefit, or any combination thereof, or as a retirement or survivor's benefit made from a plan qualifying under section 401, 403, 404, 408, or 409 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1984, are not considered income derived from carrying on a trade or business or from performing personal or professional services in Minnesota, and are not taxable under this chapter.

(6) All other items of gross income shall be assigned to the taxpayer's domicile."

Sec. 4. [297D.04] [TAX PAYMENT REQUIRED FOR POSSESSION.]

Subd. 2. [STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS.] Notwithstanding section

628.26, or any other provision of the criminal laws of this state, an indictment may be found and filed upon any criminal offense specified in this section, in the proper court within six years after the commission of this offense.

Sec. 11. [297D.11] [PAYMENT DUE.]

Subdivision 1. [STAMPS AFFIXED.] When a dealer purchases, acquires, transports, or imports into this state marijuana or controlled substances on which a tax is imposed by section 8; and if the indicia evidencing the payment of the tax have not already been affixed, the dealer shall have them permanently affixed on the marijuana or controlled substance immediately after receiving the substance. Each stamp or other official indicia may be used only once.

Subd. 2. [PAYABLE ON POSSESSION.] Taxes imposed upon marijuana or controlled substances by this chapter are due and payable immediately upon acquisition or possession in this state by a dealer.

Sec. 12. [297D.12] [ALL ASSESSMENTS ARE JEOPARDY.]

Subdivision 1. [ASSESSMENT PROCEDURE.] An assessment for a dealer not possessing stamps or other official indicia showing that the tax has been paid shall be considered a jeopardy assessment or collection, as provided in section 270.70. The commissioner shall assess a tax based on personal knowledge or information available to the commissioner; mail the taxpayer at the taxpayer's last known address or serve in person, a written notice of the amount of tax; demand its immediate payment; and, if payment is not immediately made, collect the tax by any method prescribed in chapter 270, except that the commissioner need not await the expiration of the times specified in chapter 270. Section 270.70, subdivision 4, paragraph (a), does not apply to this chapter.

Subd. 2. [INJUNCTION PROHIBITED.] No person may bring suit to enjoin the assessment or collection of any taxes, interest, or penalties imposed by this chapter.

Subd. 3. [STANDARD OF PROOF.] The tax and penalties assessed by the commissioner are presumed to be valid and correctly determined and assessed. The burden is upon the taxpayer to show their incorrectness or invalidity. Any statement filed by the commissioner with the court administrator, or any other certificate by the commissioner of the amount of tax and penalties determined or assessed is admissible in evidence and is prima facie evidence of the facts it contains.

Sec. 13. [297D.13] [CONFIDENTIAL NATURE OF INFORMATION.]

Neither the commissioner nor a public employee may reveal facts contained in a report or return required by this chapter, nor can any information contained in such a report or return be used against the dealer in any criminal proceeding, unless independently obtained, except in connection with a proceeding involving taxes due under this chapter from the taxpayer making the return.

Sec. 14. [297D.14] [INVESTIGATORY POWERS.]

For the purpose of determining the correctness of any return, determining the amount of tax that should have been paid, determining whether or not the dealer should have made a return or paid taxes, or collecting any taxes under this chapter, the commissioner may examine, or cause to be examined, any books, papers, records, or memoranda, that may be relevant to making such determinations, whether the books, papers, records, or memoranda, are the property of or in the possession of the dealer or another person. The commissioner may require the attendance of any person having knowledge or information that may be relevant, compel the production of books, papers, records, or memoranda by persons required to attend, take testimony on matters material to the determination, and administer oaths or affirmations. Upon demand of the commissioner or any examiner or investigator, the court administrator of any court shall issue a subpoena for the attendance of a witness or the production of books, papers, records, and memoranda. The commissioner may also issue subpoenas. Disobedience of subpoenas issued under this chapter is punishable by the district court of the district in which the subpoena is issued, or, if the subpoena is issued by the commissioner, by the district court of the district in which the party served with the subpoena is located, in the same manner as contempt of district court.

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. The sum of _____ per _____, representing child support and/or spousal maintenance, ordered by the Court, shall be withheld from the (Husband/Wife Respondent/Petitioner)'s income on _____ by (his/her) present employer or other payor of funds, _____, and any future employer or other payor of funds, and shall be remitted to: _____, monthly or more frequently, in accordance with the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 518. The file number above and the Obligor's name shall be included with each remittance.

2. An additional amount equal to 20 percent of the amount required to be withheld by paragraph 1 shall be withheld from the income of the Obligor by the employer or payor until the entire arrearage in paragraph 3(b) is paid.

(b) _____ or the Obligee serves written notice of income withholding on the Obligor showing the determination that child support and/or maintenance payments are thirty days in arrears;

5. The payments shall begin to be withheld no later than the first pay period that occurs after 14 days following the date of mailing of the notice to the employer or other payor of funds in paragraph 3(d) and from that date the employer or other payor of funds is liable for amounts required to be withheld.

6. This order for withholding takes priority over any attachment, execution, garnishment, or wage assignment levied against the income of the Obligor. Amounts withheld are not subject to other statutory limitations on amounts levied against the income of the Obligor but must not exceed the maximum permitted under the federal Consumer Credit Protection Act, United States Code, title 15, section 1673(b)(2). In addition, unless the parties otherwise agree, amounts withheld must not exceed 30 percent of the Obligor's net income, as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 518.551, subdivision 5, or 50 percent of the Obligor's net income if the Obligor is more than six months in arrears. If there is more than one withholding order on a single Obligor, the employer or other payor of funds shall put them into effect in the order received, up to the maximum allowed under ~~the Consumer Credit Protection Act~~ this paragraph.

400.08 [SERVICE AREAS AND CHARGES.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITION.] For purposes of this section, "solid waste management services" includes collection, processing, and disposal of solid waste, closure and post-closure care of a solid waste facility, and response, as defined in section 115B.02, to releases from a solid waste facility or closed solid waste facility.

Subd. 2. [SERVICE AREAS.] In addition to the power that the county may exercise under other law, and in order to provide solid waste management services to those areas needing services, the county board by resolution may establish and determine the boundaries of solid waste management service areas in the county. Before the adoption of the resolution the county board shall hold a public hearing on the question. If a service area is established, the county board may impose service charges for solid waste management services for the area and may levy a tax on all the property in the area, or any combination of charges and taxes. The county board may enlarge any existing service area following the procedures specified in this section. Upon the petition of the landowner, land may be added to the service area without a public hearing on the enlargement.

Subd. 3. [SERVICE CHARGES.] The county may establish by ordinance, revise when deemed advisable, and collect just and reasonable rates and charges for solid waste management services provided by the county or by others under contract with the county. The ordinance may obligate the owners, lessees, or occupants of property, or any or all of them, to pay charges for solid waste management services to their properties and may obligate the user of any facility to pay a reasonable charge for the use of the facility. Rates and charges may take into account the character, kind, and quality of the service and of the solid waste, the method of disposition, the number of people served at each place of collection, and all other factors that enter into the cost of the service, including but not limited to depreciation and payment of principal and interest on money borrowed by the county for the acquisition or betterment of facilities. A notice of intention to enact an ordinance, published pursuant to section 375.51, subdivision 2, shall provide for a public hearing prior to the meeting at which the ordinance is to be considered.

Subd. 4. [COLLECTION.] The rates and charges may be billed and collected in a manner the board shall determine. On or before October 15 in each year, the county board ~~shall~~ may certify to the county auditor all unpaid outstanding charges ~~for services hereunder~~, and a ~~statement of the~~ description of the lands ~~which were serviced and~~ against which the charges arose. It shall be the duty of the county auditor, upon order of the county board, to extend the assessments, with interest not to exceed ~~six percent as~~ the interest rate provided for in ~~the county ordinance~~ section 279.03, subdivision 1, upon the tax rolls of the county for the taxes of the year in which the assessment is filed. For each year ending October 15 the assessment with interest shall be carried into the tax becoming due and payable in January of the following year, and shall be enforced and collected in the manner provided for the enforcement and collection of real property taxes in accordance with the provisions of the laws of the state. The charges, if not paid, shall become delinquent and be subject to the same penalties and the same rate of interest as the taxes under the general laws of the state. ~~All rates and charges shall be uniform in their application to use and service of the same character and quantity. A notice of intention to enact such an ordinance, published pursuant to section 375.51, subdivision 2, shall provide for a public hearing thereon to be held prior to the meeting at which the ordinance is to be considered.~~"

Taxes levied for the payment of the bonds and interest shall not reduce the amounts of other taxes which the county is authorized by law to levy. The proceeds of the bonds may be used in part to establish a reserve as further security for the payment of the principal and interest of the bonds when due. Revenue bonds issued pursuant to this section may be sold at public or private sale upon such conditions as the county board shall determine, but any bonds to which the full faith and credit and taxing powers of the county are pledged shall be sold in accordance with the provisions of chapter 475. Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 473.153, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [MORATORIUM.] In order to permit the comparative evaluation of sites and the participation of affected localities in decisions about the use of sites, a moratorium is hereby imposed as provided in this subdivision on development within the area of each candidate site and buffer area selected by the council. The moratorium shall extend until six months following the council's decision under subdivision 6 or until the sites are dismissed from consideration pursuant to section 4. No development shall be allowed to occur within the area of a site or buffer area during the period of the moratorium without the approval of the council. No county, city, or town land use control shall permit development which has not been approved by the council, nor shall any county, city, or town sanction or approve any subdivision, permit, license, or other authorization which would allow development to occur which has not been approved by the council. The council shall not approve actions which would jeopardize the availability of a candidate site for use as a solid waste facility. The council may establish guidelines for reviewing requests for approval under this subdivision. Requests for approval shall be submitted in writing to the chairman of the council and shall be deemed to be approved by the council unless the chairman otherwise notifies the submitter in writing within 15 days.

The statement must be prepared and reviewed in accordance with chapter 116D and the rules issued pursuant thereto, except as otherwise required by this section. The statement must not address or reconsider alternatives eliminated from consideration pursuant to subdivisions 1 and 2 and must not address the matters subject to decision by the council pursuant to subdivision 6b.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 473.153, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4a. [NEED FOR FACILITY; OPTION TO TERMINATE SITING.] The council may determine, by resolution following a public hearing, that the new sludge ash disposal facility to be acquired and established under this section, as required by subdivision 1, is not needed, because the council finds that permitted management methods other than land disposal, together with land disposal of ash on property owned by the commission prior to March 1, 1986, will be sufficient to accommodate all of the commission's ash without the acquisition and establishment of a new facility. A determination of the council that the facility is not needed is subject to review and approval by the pollution control agency. If the agency disapproves, the council and the commission shall proceed to site, acquire, and establish the facility as required by this section. If the agency approves, the council shall terminate the siting process established by this section and permanently dismiss the candidate sites from further consideration as sites for the facility.

Subd. 6b. Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 120.17, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [MAINTENANCE OF EFFORT.] For fiscal year 1986 the departments of education, health, and human services shall not reduce the level of funding for services for handicapped children under age five and their families below the level of funding provided in fiscal year 1985. For the period from July 1, 1985 to June 30, 1986 a local or regional health or human services agency or county board currently providing services to handicapped children under age five and their families through a developmental achievement center or other delivery system shall not decrease the level of services or the dollar amount provided for the services below the level of services or the dollar amount provided by it for the period from July 1, 1984 to June 30, 1985. For the 1985-1986 school year a school district currently providing services to handicapped children under age five and their families shall not decrease the level of services or the expenditure level below the level of services or the dollar amount provided by it in the 1984-1985 school year.

Beginning ~~with the period from~~ July 1, 1986 ~~to June 30, 1987~~, a local or regional health or human services agency or county board shall not decrease the level of services or the dollar amount provided for those services below the level of services or the dollar amount provided by it for the period from July 1, 1984 to June 30, 1985 unless the county and school district have entered into an agreement for continued funding of services to handicapped children and their families and a copy of the agreement has been filed with the departments of education, health, and human services. This prohibition applies to all funding levels regardless of the source.

From July 1, 1986 until the county and school district have entered into an agreement, local and regional health and human services agencies, county boards, school districts, and the departments of education, health, and human services shall increase the level of services and the dollar amount provided for those services at least in proportion to the increase in the number of handicapped children under age five and their families who are served.

If a school district enters into an agreement with a county board according to this subdivision and if the district contracts with a service provider that is funded by a county board on the effective date of this act, the county board, for two years after the agreement, shall maintain at least the same level of services and dollar amount provided by the county board from July 1, 1984, to June 30, 1985, for services for handicapped children under the age of five and their families.

From July 1, 1986, until two years after an agreement between the county and a school district, the county board's payment may be reduced if and to the extent that state payments for programs related to handicapped children under the age of five and their families are reduced.

If a local, regional, or state health or human services agency or county board is authorized to charge a fee or other charges for services to handicapped children under the age of five and their families, it may annually increase the fee or other charges over the amount charged during the previous year only by the rate of the increase in the revised consumer price index for the Minneapolis-St. Paul metropolitan area prepared by the United States department of labor.

This subdivision applies only to services that are special instruction and services, within the meaning of this section, and that reasonably would be the responsibility of a school district.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 120.17, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

"Section 1. [FINDINGS AND INTENT.]

The legislature finds that it is the right and responsibility of parents to provide a basic education for their children. The need for the basic education is to prepare children to participate effectively and intelligently as citizens and to be self-reliant and self-sufficient members of society.

By this act, the legislature intends to allow parents to exercise this right and responsibility from among a broad range of educational alternatives. At the same time, the legislature intends not to infringe on the primary rights of parents to raise and to teach their children or on the religious beliefs and practices of parents and their children, and of religious organizations.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 120.10, is amended to read:

As used in this subdivision, the terms "children of limited English proficiency" and "primary language" shall have the meanings ascribed to them in section 126.262.

Subd. 2b. [OPTIONS.] The options from among which a school must choose to comply with subdivision 2, clause (3) are listed in paragraphs (a) to (e).

(a) The school's pupils are taught by teachers who are licensed by the board of teaching or who are effective teachers.

(b) The parents have contracted for and are using a correspondence program that uses a full scope and sequence curriculum that monitors student progress regularly or the parents are using a licensed teacher to supervise the school's program. Either program must verify that the students are making satisfactory progress commensurate with ability.

(c) The school is accredited by a state, regional, or national accrediting organization that requires periodic self study and uses team visitation.

(d) The school is operated by, affiliated with, or under the control of, a church, religious organization, or convention or association of churches, any of which are exempt from federal income taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1985.

If a nonpublic school chooses to comply with subdivision 2 by selecting the option in paragraph (d) under this subdivision, the local school district superintendent may require the nonpublic school to comply also with one of the other options.

Subd. 2c. [DEFINITIONS.] The definitions in paragraphs (a) to (c) apply to this section.

(a) An effective teacher under subdivision 2b is a teacher whose students make satisfactory progress commensurate with their ability.

(b) Satisfactory progress commensurate with ability means that the student:

(1) has test scores not more than one standard deviation below the national mean;

(2) is advancing in the content of the school's curriculum on schedule towards a high school diploma or its equivalent; or

(3) is achieving goals on par with similarly situated students considering the student's past educational achievement, mental capacity, and behavioral traits.

(c) Portfolio means copies of completed tests or workbooks or other materials revealing the student's work and progress.

Subd. 2d. [MEASUREMENT.] Satisfactory progress commensurate with

(1) testing under the procedures in subdivision 2e;

(2) inspection of student portfolios by the superintendent or designee;

(3) a review of the school's program by a person mutually agreed upon by the school and the superintendent.

Subd. 2e. [TESTING.] When testing is chosen and used by the school to verify compliance with subdivision 2:

(1) tests must not be required more frequently than annually and only after a child reaches 8 years of age;

(2) the test must be chosen and administered by the school in question;

(3) the test must be a basic skills test listed in Buros Mental Measurements Yearbook or a test recognized as its equivalent by national testing authorities;

(4) the superintendent shall provide any tests required and may have an observer present during testing; and

(5) the school shall certify to the superintendent its choice of the testing option at the beginning of the school year and shall have until the end of the school year to submit, if requested, its test results for confirmation of compliance.

If the composite score for the school is more than one standard deviation below the national mean the superintendent may take any of the following actions to satisfy the requirements of subdivision 2 and to insure that the children's education meets the object and intent of section 1:

(a) allow the school to attempt to qualify under another option in subdivision 2;

(b) allow the school to continue the educational plan undisturbed;

(c) require additional testing, including but not limited to intelligence tests to determine if students are making satisfactory progress commensurate with ability;

(d) adopt a plan for remedial help for the children; or

(e) adopt any other course of action that is acceptable to the superintendent or board and those in charge of the school.

Subd. 2f. [COMPLIANCE.] When assessing if a school is in compliance with subdivision 2 or when determining actions to take under subdivision 2e, the superintendent shall choose the course of action that is most consistent with the desires of the school, unless and except to the extent that the desires are manifestly inconsistent with the educational needs of the children. If implementation of the alternatives fails to bring the school into compliance with subdivision 2, the superintendent may require the children to attend a school that complies with subdivision 2. A school in question may appeal any superintendent's decision to the school board and may appeal any decision of the superintendent or board to the district court. In any court or administrative proceeding, the superintendent or board has the burden of proof.

Their determinations are admissible but are not presumed valid.

Subd. 2g. [RESTRICTION ON SUPERINTENDENT.] The superintendent must not consider a teacher ineffective under subdivision 2b, clause (a) because the teacher's educational philosophy or methodology differs from that of the superintendent or board.

Subd. 2h. [RELIGIOUS FREEDOM.] Sections 1 and 2 do not require the school to include in its curriculum any concept, topic, or practice in conflict with the school's religious doctrines or to exclude from its curriculum any concept, topic, or practice consistent with the school's religious doctrines.

Subd. 3. [LEGITIMATE EXEMPTIONS.] A parent, guardian, or other person having control of a child may apply to a school district to have the child excused from attendance for the whole or any part of the time school is in session during any school year. Application may be made to any member of the board, a truant officer, a principal, or the superintendent. The school board of the district in which the child resides may approve the application upon the following being demonstrated to the satisfaction of that board:

However, a child may be absent from school on such days as the child attends upon instruction according to the ordinances of some church.

Subd. 4. [ISSUING AND REPORTING EXCUSES.] The clerk or any authorized officer of the school board shall issue and keep a record of such excuses, under such rules as the board may from time to time establish.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 120.12, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Mr. Frederickson moved to amend S.F. No. 1621 as follows:

Pages 2 and 3, delete sections 2 and 3 and insert:

"Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 69.77, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The penalty provided for in subdivision 1 shall not apply to a relief association enumerated in subdivision 1a if the following requirements are met:

(1) Each member of the relief association pays into the special fund of the association during a year of covered service, a contribution for retirement coverage including survivorship benefits of not less than eight percent of the maximum rate of salary upon which retirement coverage is credited and service pension and retirement benefit amounts are determined. The member contributions shall be made by payroll deduction from the salary of the member by the municipality, and shall be transmitted by the municipality to the relief association as soon as practical. The relief association shall deposit the member contribution to the credit of the special fund of the relief association. The member contribution requirement specified in this clause shall not apply to any members who are volunteer firefighters.

(2) The officers of the relief association determine the financial requirements of the relief association and minimum obligation of the municipality for the following calendar year in accordance with the requirements of this clause. The financial requirements of the relief association and the minimum obligation of the municipality shall be determined on or before the submission date established by the municipality pursuant to clause (3).

The financial requirements of the relief association for the following calendar year shall be based on the most recent actuarial valuation or survey prepared in accordance with sections 356.215, subdivision 4 and 356.216, as required pursuant to clause (8). In the event that an actuarial estimate is prepared by the actuary of the relief association as part of obtaining a modification of the benefit plan of the relief association and the modification is implemented, the actuarial estimate shall be used in calculating the financial requirements of the relief association.

If the relief association has an unfunded accrued liability as reported in the most recent actuarial valuation or survey, the total of the amounts calculated pursuant to clauses (a) and (b) shall constitute the financial requirements of the relief association for the following year. If the relief association does not have an unfunded accrued liability as reported in the most recent actuarial valuation or survey the amount calculated pursuant to subclause (a) shall constitute the financial requirements of the relief association for the following year.

(a) The normal level cost requirement for the following year, expressed as a dollar amount, which shall be determined by applying the normal level cost of the relief association as reported in the actuarial valuation or survey and expressed as a percentage of covered payroll to the estimated covered payroll of the active membership of the relief association, including any projected increase in the active membership, for the following year.

(b) To the dollar amount of normal cost thus determined shall be added an amount equal to the level annual dollar amount which is sufficient to amortize the unfunded accrued liability by December 31, 2010, as determined from the actuarial valuation or survey of the fund, using an interest assumption set at the rate specified in section 356.215, subdivision 4, clause (4). The amortization date specified in this subclause shall apply to all local police or salaried firefighters relief associations and shall supersede any amortization date specified in any applicable special law.

The minimum obligation of the municipality shall be an amount equal to the financial requirements of the relief association reduced by the estimated amount of member contributions from covered salary anticipated for the following calendar year and the estimated amounts from the applicable state aid program established pursuant to sections 69.011 to 69.051 anticipated as receivable by the relief association after any allocation pursuant to section 69.031, subdivision 5, clause (2), subclause (c) or 423A.01, subdivision 2, clause (6), and from the local police and salaried firefighters' relief association amortization aid program established pursuant to section 423A.02 anticipated for the following calendar year.

(3) The officers of the relief association shall submit determination of the financial requirements of the relief association and of the minimum obligation of the municipality to the governing body on or before the date established by the municipality which shall not be earlier than August 1 and shall not be later than September 1 of each year. The governing body of the municipality shall ascertain whether or not the determinations were prepared in accordance with law.

(4) The municipality shall provide for and shall pay each year at least the amount of the minimum obligation of the municipality to the relief association. If there is any deficiency in the municipal payment to meet the minimum obligation of the municipality as of the end of any calendar year, the amount of the deficiency shall be added to the minimum obligation of the municipality for the following year calculated pursuant to clause (2) and shall include interest at the rate of six percent per annum compounded from the date that the municipality was required to make payment pursuant to this clause until the date that the municipality actually makes the required payment.

(5) The municipality shall provide in the annual municipal budget for at least the minimum obligation of the municipality calculated pursuant to clause (2). The municipality may levy taxes for the payment of the minimum obligation of the municipality without any limitation as to rate or amount and irrespective of limitations imposed by other provisions of law upon the rate or amount of taxation when the balance of the special fund or any fund of the relief association has attained a specified minimum asset level. In addition, any taxes levied pursuant to this section shall not cause the amount or rate of other taxes levied in that year or to be levied in a subsequent year by the municipality which are subject to a limitation as to rate or amount to be reduced. If the municipality does not include the full amount of the minimum obligation of the municipality in the levy that the municipality certified to the county auditor in any year, the officers of the relief association shall certify the amount of any deficiency to the county auditor. Upon verifying the existence of any deficiency in the levy certified by the municipality, the county auditor shall spread a levy over the taxable property of the municipality in the amount of the deficiency certified to by the officers of the relief association.

(6) Any sums of money paid by the municipality to the relief association in excess of the minimum obligation of the municipality in any year shall be used to amortize any unfunded liabilities of the relief association.

(7) The funds of the association shall be invested in securities which are proper investments pursuant to section 11A.24, except that up to $10,000 may be invested in the stock of any one corporation in any account of such small size that the five percent stock limitation specified in section 11A.24, subdivision 5 would necessitate a lesser investment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, up to 75 percent of the market value of the assets of the fund may be invested in open-end investment companies registered under the federal Investment Company Act of 1940, if the portfolio investments of the investment companies comply with the type of securities authorized for investment by section 11A.24, subdivisions 2 to 5. The association may also invest funds in Minnesota situs nonfarm real estate ownership interests or loans secured by mortgages or deeds of trust, provided that the amount of all investments in real property shall not exceed ten percent of the market value of the association's fund. The association may also invest in face amount certificates issued by a face amount certificate investment company registered under the Federal Investment Company Act of 1940 whose face amount certificates are registered under the Federal Securities Act of 1933. Securities held by the association before July 1, 1971, which do not meet the requirements of this paragraph may be retained after that date if they were proper investments for the association on April 28, 1969. The governing board of the association may select and appoint investment agencies to act for and in its behalf or may certify funds for investment by the state board under the provisions of section 11A.17, provided that there be no limit to the amount which may be invested in the income share account, in the bond account, or in the fixed-return account, and that up to 20 percent of that portion of the assets of the association invested in the Minnesota supplemental investment fund may be invested in the growth share account.

(8) The association shall procure an actuarial valuation showing the condition of the special fund of the relief association pursuant to sections 356.215 and 356.216 as of December 31 of every year. A copy of the actuarial survey shall be filed with the director of the legislative reference library, the governing body of the municipality in which the association is organized, the executive secretary of the legislative commission on pensions and retirement, and the commissioner of commerce, not later than June 1 of the following year."

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.06, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [RATE FOR NEW EMPLOYERS.] (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 2, each employer, who becomes subject to this law, shall pay contributions at a rate:

~~(a) Not exceeding 2-7/10 percent, that is the higher of (1) one percent and (2) the state's three-year benefit cost rate for the 36 consecutive month period immediately preceding July 1 of each year for each employer who becomes subject to this law prior to January 1, 1984. For purposes of this clause, the state's three-year benefit cost rate shall be computed annually and shall be derived by dividing the total dollar amount of benefits paid to claimants under this law during the 36 consecutive calendar months immediately preceding~~

~~July 1 of each year by the total dollar amount of wages subject to contributions under this law during the same period. The rate so determined shall be applicable for the calendar year next succeeding each computation date.~~

~~(b) Not exceeding 2-7/10 percent, that is the higher of (1) one percent and (2) the state's four-year benefit cost rate for the 48 consecutive month period immediately preceding July 1 of each year for each employer, except employers in the construction industry, as determined by the commissioner, who becomes subject to this law subsequent to December 31, 1983 and prior to January 1, 1985. For purposes of this clause, the state's four-year benefit cost rate shall be computed and derived by dividing the total dollar amount of benefits paid to claimants under this law during the 48 consecutive calendar months immediately preceding July 1, 1983 by the total dollar amount of wages subject to contributions under this law during the same period. The rate so determined shall be applicable for the calendar year 1984.~~

~~Each construction employer described above who becomes subject to chapter 268 shall pay contributions at a rate, not exceeding 7-1/2 percent, that is the higher of (1) one percent, or (2) the state's four-year benefit cost rate for construction employers for the 48 consecutive month period immediately preceding July 1, 1983. For purposes of this clause, the state's four-year benefit cost rate shall be computed and derived by dividing the total dollar amount of benefits paid to claimants of construction employers, as determined by the commissioner, during the 48 consecutive calendar months immediately preceding July 1, 1983 by the total dollar amount of wages of construction employers subject to contributions during the same period. The rate so determined shall be applicable for the calendar year 1984.~~

~~(c)~~ not exceeding 5-4/10 percent, that is the higher of (1) one percent and (2) the state's five-year benefit cost rate for the 60 consecutive month period immediately preceding July 1, ~~1984 and~~ of each year ~~thereafter~~ for each employer, except employers in the construction industry, as determined by the commissioner who becomes subject to this law on January 1, 1985 and thereafter. For purposes of this clause, the state's five-year benefit cost rate shall be computed annually and shall be derived by dividing the total dollar amount of benefits paid to claimants under this law during the 60 consecutive calendar months immediately preceding July 1, ~~1984 and~~ of each year ~~thereafter~~ by the total dollar amount of wages subject to contributions under this law during the same period. The rate so determined shall be applicable for the calendar year next succeeding each computation date.

(b) Each construction employer described ~~above~~ under paragraph (a) who becomes subject to this chapter shall pay contributions at a rate, not exceeding ~~7-1/2 percent~~ the maximum contribution rate for all employers as provided under subdivision 8, that is the higher of (1) one percent, or (2) the state's five-year benefit cost rate for construction employers for the 60 consecutive month period immediately preceding July 1, ~~1984 and~~ of each year ~~thereafter~~. For purposes of this clause, the state's five-year benefit cost rate shall be computed annually and shall be derived by dividing the total dollar amount of benefits paid to claimants of construction employers, as determined by the commissioner, during the 60 consecutive calendar months immediately preceding July 1, ~~1984 and~~ of each year ~~thereafter~~ by the total dollar amount of wages of construction employers subject to contributions during the same period. The rate so determined shall be applicable for the calendar year next succeeding each computation date.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.06, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [DETERMINATION OF CONTRIBUTION RATES.] (a) For each calendar year the commissioner shall determine the contribution rate of each employer by adding the minimum rate to the experience ratio~~, except that if the ratio for the current calendar year increases or decreases the experience ratio for the preceding calendar year by more than one and one-half percentage points for 1982, and 2 1/2 percentage points for 1983 and each year thereafter, the increase or decrease for the current year shall be limited to one and one-half percentage points for 1982, and 2 1/2 percentage points for 1983 and each year thereafter, provided that a small business employer shall be eligible, upon application, for a reduction in the limitation to 1 1/2 percentage points for 1983 and each year thereafter. "Small business employer" for the purpose of this subdivision means an employer with an annual covered payroll of $250,000 or less, or fewer than 20 employees in three of the four quarters ending June 30, of the previous calendar year~~.

(b) The minimum rate for all employers that have benefits charged to their account at any time during the period described in subdivision 6 shall be one percent if the amount in the unemployment compensation fund is less than $80,000,000 on June 30 of the preceding calendar year; or nine-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $80,000,000 but less than $90,000,000; or eight-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $90,000,000 but less than $110,000,000; or seven-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $110,000,000 but less than $130,000,000; or six-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $130,000,000 but less than $150,000,000; or five-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $150,000,000 but less than $170,000,000; or three-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $170,000,000 but less than $200,000,000; or one-tenth of one percent if the fund is $200,000,000 or more~~; provided that no employer shall have a contribution rate of more than 7.5 percent~~.

(c) The minimum rate for all employers that have not had benefits charged to their account at any time during the period described in subdivision 6 shall be two-tenths of one percent less than the minimum rate under paragraph (b) for 1987 and each year thereafter, provided that no rate can be less than zero percent.

(d) The maximum rate for for all employers shall be seven and one-half percent for 1987 and thereafter; except that, an employer who has had a contribution rate of at least seven and one-half percent for each of the last five calendar years shall be subject to a maximum rate of eight and one-half percent.

(e) A voluntary contribution paid under subdivision 24 shall not qualify an employer for assignment of a minimum rate under paragraph (c), nor avoidance of the higher maximum rate under paragraph (d).

(f) For the purposes of this section the unemployment compensation fund shall not include any moneys advanced from the Federal Unemployment Account in the unemployment trust fund in accordance with Title XII of the Social Security Act, as amended. ~~No employer first assigned an experience~~

~~ratio in accordance with subdivision 6, shall have his contribution rate increased or decreased by more than one and one-half percentage points for 1982; and 2-1/2 percentage points for 1983 and each year thereafter over the contribution rate assigned for the preceding calendar year in accordance with subdivision 3a, provided that a small business employer shall be eligible, upon application, for a reduction in the limitation to 1-1/2 percentage points for 1983 and each year thereafter.~~

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8a. [SOLVENCY ASSESSMENT.] If the fund balance is less than $50,000,000 on September 30, 1986, or any year thereafter, a solvency assessment will be in effect for the following calendar year. Each employer, except those making payments in lieu of contributions under subdivisions 25, 26, 27, and 28, and those assigned a minimum rate under subdivision 8, paragraph (c), shall pay a quarterly solvency assessment of ten percent multiplied by the contributions paid or due and payable for each calendar quarter in that year. Quarterly contributions and the solvency assessment payments shall be combined and will be computed notwithstanding the maximum rate established in subdivision 3a or 8, by multiplying the quarterly taxable payroll by the assigned contribution rate multiplied by 1.10.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.07, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [WEEKLY BENEFIT AMOUNT AND DURATION.] (a) ~~If the commissioner finds that an individual has earned 15, or more, credit weeks within the base period of employment in insured work with one or more employers, benefits shall be payable to such individual during his benefit year as follows:~~

~~(1) Weekly benefit amount shall be equal to 60 percent of the first $85, 40 percent of the next $85 and 50 percent of the remainder of the average weekly wage of such individual. The amount so computed if not a whole dollar shall be rounded down to the next lower dollar amount.~~ To establish a benefit year for unemployment compensation insurance benefits, effective after January 1, 1987, and thereafter, an individual must have:

(1) wage credits in two or more calendar quarters of the individual's base period; and

(2) minimum total base period wage credits equal to the high quarter wages multiplied by 1.4; and

(3) high quarter wage credits of not less than $1,300.

(b) An individual who is unable to establish a valid claim under paragraph (a), clauses (1) to (3), may establish a valid claim if the individual has:

(1) wage credits in at least three calendar quarters of the base period; and

(2) high quarter wage credits equal to at least 20 times the state minimum wage multiplied by 13; and

(3) combined wage credits in at least two of the remaining three calendar quarters equal to at least 20 times the state minimum wage multiplied by 13.

(c) If the commissioner finds that an individual has sufficient wages within the base period to establish a valid claim, the weekly benefit amount payable to the individual during the individual's benefit year shall be equal to 1/26 of the individual's high quarter wage credits, rounded to the next lower whole dollar.

(d) Notwithstanding paragraph (c), the maximum weekly benefit amount of claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to July 1, ~~1979~~ 1988, shall be ~~66 2/3~~ 60 percent of the average weekly wage, ~~except as provided in clause (d)~~ as determined under this paragraph. On or before June 30 of each year the commissioner shall determine the average weekly wage paid by employers subject to sections 268.03 to 268.24 in the following manner:

~~(c)~~ (3) The average annual wage shall be divided by 52 to determine the average weekly wage.

~~(d) The maximum weekly benefit amount for claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1982, and prior to July 1, 1983, shall be $184.~~

(e) Notwithstanding paragraph (c), the maximum weekly benefit amount of claims for benefits which establish a benefit year prior to July 1, 1989, shall be $228.

~~The maximum weekly benefit amount for claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1983, and prior to July 1, 1984, shall be $191.~~

~~The maximum weekly benefit amount for claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1984, and prior to July 1, 1985, shall be $198.~~

~~(2) An individual's maximum amount of regular benefits payable in a benefit year shall not exceed the lesser of (a) 26 times his weekly benefit amount or (b) 70 percent of the number of credit weeks earned by such an individual computed to the nearest whole week times his weekly benefit amount.~~

~~(3) Each eligible individual who is unemployed in any week shall be paid with respect to such week a benefit in an amount equal to his weekly benefit amount less that part of his earnings, including holiday pay, payable to him with respect to such week which is in excess of $25 or $200 for earnings from service in the national guard or a United States military reserve unit. Jury duty pay is not considered as earnings and shall not be deducted from benefits paid. Such benefit, if not a whole dollar amount shall be rounded down to the next lower dollar amount.~~

~~(4) The provisions of clauses (1) and (2) shall apply to claims for benefits~~

~~which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1983.~~

(f) Any otherwise eligible individual shall be entitled during any benefit year to a total amount of benefits equal to one-third of the individual's total base period wage credits rounded to the next lower dollar not to exceed 26 times the individual's weekly benefit amount.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.07, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [EXCEPTION.] Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 2, if the commissioner finds that an individual has earned ~~credit weeks~~ wage credits in seasonal employment, benefits shall be payable only if the commissioner finds that the individual has earned ~~15 credit weeks~~ wage credits equal to or in excess of 30 times the individual's weekly benefit amount in employment which is not seasonal, in addition to any ~~credit weeks~~ wage credits in seasonal employment. For the purposes of this subdivision, "seasonal employment" means employment with a single employer in the recreation or tourist industry which is available with the employer for 15 consecutive weeks or less each calendar year.

Subd. 3. [WHEN WAGE CREDITS ARE NOT AVAILABLE.] (1) ~~No individual may receive benefits in a benefit year unless, subsequent to the beginning of the next preceding benefit year during which benefits were received, the individual performed service in insured work as defined in section 268.04, subdivision 17, and earned remuneration for the service in an amount equal to not less than the minimum wage credits required to qualify for benefits~~ To establish a second benefit year following the expiration of an immediately preceding benefit year, an individual must have sufficient wage credits to establish a claim under subdivision 2 and must have performed services after the establishment of the expired benefit year. The services performed must have been in insured work and the wage credits from the services must equal not less than ten times the weekly benefit amount of the second benefit year.

(2) No employer who provided 90 percent or more of the wage credits in a claimant's base period shall be charged for benefits based upon earnings of the claimant during a subsequent base period unless the employer has employed the claimant in any part of the subsequent base period.

(3) Wages paid by an employing unit may not be used for benefit purposes by any individual who (a) individually or jointly with a spouse, parent or child owns or controls directly or indirectly 25 percent or more interest in the employing unit; or (b) is the spouse, parent or minor child of any individual who owns or controls directly or indirectly 25 percent or more interest in the employing unit; and (c) is not permanently separated from employment.

This clause is effective when the individual has been paid four times the individual's weekly benefit amount in the current benefit year.

(4) Wages paid in seasonal employment, as defined in subdivision 2a, are not available for benefit purposes during weeks in which there is no seasonal employment available with the employer.

(5) No employer shall be charged for benefits if the employer is a base period employer on a second claim solely because of the transition from a base period consisting of the 52-week period preceding the claim date to a base period consisting of the first four of the last five completed calendar quarters preceding the claim date.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.071, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] As used in this section, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) [EXTENDED BENEFIT PERIOD.] "Extended benefit period" means a period which

(a) Begins with the third week after a week for which there is a state "on" indicator; and

(b) Ends with either of the following weeks, whichever occurs later: The third week after the first week for which there is a state "off" indicator; or the 13th consecutive week of the period;

Provided, that no extended benefit period may begin before the 14th week following the end of a prior extended benefit period which was in effect with respect to this state.

(2) [STATE "ON" INDICATOR.] There is a "state 'on' indicator" for this state for a week if the commissioner determines, in accordance with the regulations of the United States secretary of labor, that for the period consisting of such week and the immediately preceding 12 weeks, the rate of insured unemployment (not seasonally adjusted) under this law

(a) equaled or exceeded 120 percent of the average of such rates for the corresponding 13 week period ending in each of the preceding two calendar years, and

(b) equaled or exceeded five percent.

The determination of whether there has been a state "on" indicator beginning any extended benefit period may be made as provided in clauses (a) and (b) above or a "state 'on' indicator" shall exist if the rate described in clause (b) equaled or exceeded six percent irrespective of whether the percentage requirement provided by clause (a) is met or exceeded.

(3) [STATE "OFF" INDICATOR.] There is a "state 'off' indicator" for this state for a week if, for the period consisting of such week and the immediately preceding 12 weeks, the rate of insured unemployment is less than six percent and the requirements for a "state 'on' indicator" under clause (2) of this subdivision are not satisfied.

(4) [RATE OF INSURED UNEMPLOYMENT.] "Rate of insured unemployment," for purposes of clauses (2) and (3), means the percentage derived by dividing the average weekly number of individuals filing claims for regular benefits in this state for weeks of unemployment with respect to the most recent 13 consecutive week period, as determined by the commissioner on the basis of his reports to the United States secretary of labor, by the average monthly employment covered under this law for the first four of the most recent six completed calendar quarters ending before the end of such 13 week period.

(5) [REGULAR BENEFITS.] "Regular benefits" means benefits payable to an individual under this law or under any other state law (including benefits payable to federal civilian employees and to ex-servicemen pursuant to 5 U.S.C. chapter 85) other than extended benefits and additional benefits.

(6) [EXTENDED BENEFITS.] "Extended benefits" means benefits (including benefits payable to federal civilian employees and to ex-servicemen pursuant to 5 U.S.C. chapter 85) payable to an individual under the provisions of this section for weeks of unemployment in his eligibility period.

(7) [ADDITIONAL BENEFITS.] "Additional benefits" means benefits payable to exhaustees by reason of conditions of high unemployment or by reason of other special factors under the provisions of any state law.

(8) [ELIGIBILITY PERIOD.] "Eligibility period" of an individual means the period consisting of the weeks in his benefit year which begin in an extended benefit period and, if his benefit year ends within such extended benefit period, any weeks thereafter which begin in such period.

(9) [EXHAUSTEE.] "Exhaustee" means an individual who, with respect to any week of unemployment in his eligibility period:

(a) Has received, prior to such week, all of the regular benefits that were available to him under this law or any other state law (including dependents' allowances and benefits payable to federal civilian employees and ex-servicemen under 5 U.S.C. chapter 85) in his current benefit year that includes such week;

Provided, that, for the purposes of this paragraph, an individual shall be deemed to have received all of the regular benefits that were available to him although as a result of a pending appeal with respect to wage credits ~~or credit weeks~~ that were not considered in the original monetary determination in his benefit year, he may subsequently be determined to be entitled to added regular benefits; or

(b) His benefit year having expired prior to such week, has no, or insufficient, wages and/or employment on the basis of which he could establish a new benefit year that would include such week or having established a benefit year that includes such week, he is precluded from receiving regular compensation by reason of: (i) a state law provision which meets the requirements of section 3304 (a) (7) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or (ii) a disqualification determination which cancelled wage credits or totally reduced his benefit rights, or (iii) benefits are not payable by reason of a seasonal limitation in a state unemployment insurance law; and

(c) Has no right to unemployment benefits or allowances, as the case may be, under the railroad unemployment insurance act, the trade expansion act of 1962, the automotive products act of 1965 and such other federal laws as are specified in regulations issued by the United States secretary of labor; and has not received and is not seeking unemployment benefits under the unemployment compensation law of Canada; but if he is seeking such benefits and the appropriate agency finally determines that he is not entitled to benefits under such law he is considered an exhaustee.

(10) [STATE LAW.] "State law" means the unemployment insurance law of any state, approved by the United States secretary of labor under section 3304 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

Sec. 17. [268.073] [ADDITIONAL UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION BENEFITS.]

A claimant who lives in an economic development region designated pursuant to section 462.385 where the insured unemployment rate is more than 1.75 times the statewide insured unemployment rate is eligible for additional regular unemployment benefits equal to four times the claimant's weekly benefit amount if the individual has exhausted all rights to regular benefits payable under section 268.07, is not entitled to receive extended benefits under section 268.071, and is not entitled to receive unemployment compensation benefits under any other state or federal law for the week in which the individual is claiming additional benefits under this section.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 268.08, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBILITY CONDITIONS.] An individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week of unemployment only if the commissioner finds that the individual:

(1) has registered for work at and thereafter has continued to report to an employment office, or agent of the office, in accordance with rules the commissioner may adopt; except that the commissioner may by rule waive or alter either or both of the requirements of this clause as to types of cases or situations with respect to which the commissioner finds that compliance with the requirements would be oppressive or would be inconsistent with the purposes of sections 268.03 to 268.24;

(2) has made a claim for benefits in accordance with rules as the commissioner may adopt;

(3) was able to work and was available for work, and was actively seeking work. The individual's weekly benefit amount shall be reduced one-fifth for each day the individual is unable to work or is unavailable for work. Benefits shall not be denied by application of this clause to an individual who is in training with the approval of the commissioner or in training approved pursuant to section 236 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.

An individual is deemed unavailable for work with respect to any week which occurs in a period when the individual is a full-time student in attendance at, or on vacation from an established school, college or university unless a majority of the ~~credit weeks~~ wage credits earned in the base period were for services performed during weeks in which the student was attending school as a full-time student.

An individual serving as a juror shall be considered as available for work and actively seeking work on each day the individual is on jury duty; and shall be the lesser of (i) the minimum weekly benefit amount in effect at the time of payment under section 268.07, subdivision 2, paragraph (a) or (b), whichever is applicable, or (ii) the weekly benefit amount the individual is entitled to under sections 268.07 and 268.08.

No individual is required to serve a waiting period of more than one week within the one-year period subsequent to filing a valid claim and commencing with the week within which the valid claim was filed.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.09, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DISQUALIFYING CONDITIONS.] An individual separated from employment under clauses (1), (2), or (3) shall be disqualified for waiting week credit and benefits. For separations under clauses (1) and (2), the disqualification shall continue until ~~four~~ eight calendar weeks have elapsed following his separation and the individual has earned ~~four~~ eight times his weekly benefit amount in insured work.

(1) [VOLUNTARY LEAVE.] The individual voluntarily and without good cause attributable to the employer discontinued his employment with such employer. For the purpose of this clause, a separation from employment by reason of its temporary nature or for inability to pass a test or for inability to meet performance standards necessary for continuation of employment or based solely on a provision in a collective bargaining agreement by which an individual has vested discretionary authority in another to act in behalf of the individual shall not be deemed voluntary.

A separation shall be for good cause attributable to the employer if it occurs as a consequence of sexual harassment. Sexual harassment means unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, sexually motivated physical contact or other conduct or communication of a sexual nature when: (1) the employee's submission to such conduct or communication is made a term or condition of the employment, (2) the employee's submission to or rejection of such conduct or communication is the basis for decisions affecting employment, or (3) such conduct or communication has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment and the employer knows or should know of the existence of the harassment and fails to take timely and appropriate action.

(2) [DISCHARGE FOR MISCONDUCT.] The individual was discharged for misconduct, not amounting to gross misconduct connected with his work or for misconduct which interferes with and adversely affects his employment.

An individual shall not be disqualified under clauses (1) and (2) of this subdivision under any of the following conditions:

(a) The individual voluntarily discontinued his employment to accept work offering substantially better conditions of work or substantially higher wages or both;

(b) The individual is separated from employment due to his own serious illness provided that such individual has made reasonable efforts to retain his employment;

An individual who is separated from his employment due to his illness of chemical dependency which has been professionally diagnosed or for which he has voluntarily submitted to treatment and who fails to make consistent efforts to maintain the treatment he knows or has been professionally advised is necessary to control that illness has not made reasonable efforts to retain his employment.

(c) The individual accepts work from a base period employer which involves a change in his location of work so that said work would not have been deemed to be suitable work under the provisions of subdivision 2 and within a period of 13 weeks from the commencement of said work voluntarily discontinues his employment due to reasons which would have caused the work to be unsuitable under the provision of said subdivision 2;

(d) The individual left employment because he had reached mandatory retirement age and was 65 years of age or older;

(e) The individual is terminated by his employer because he gave notice of intention to terminate employment within 30 days. This exception shall be effective only through the calendar week which includes the date of intended termination, provided that this exception shall not result in the payment of benefits for any week for which he receives his normal wage or salary which is equal to or greater than his weekly benefit amount;

(f) The individual is separated from employment due to the completion of an apprenticeship program, or segment thereof, approved pursuant to chapter 178;

(g) The individual voluntarily leaves part-time employment with a base period employer while continuing full-time employment if the individual attempted to return to part-time employment after being separated from the full-time employment, and if substantially the same part-time employment with the base period employer was not available for the individual.

(3) [DISCHARGE FOR GROSS MISCONDUCT.] The individual was discharged for gross misconduct connected with his work or gross misconduct which interferes with and adversely affects his employment. For a separation under this clause, the commissioner shall impose a total disqualification for the benefit year and cancel all of the wage credits from the last employer from whom he was discharged for gross misconduct connected with his work.

For the purpose of this clause "gross misconduct" is defined as misconduct involving assault and battery or the malicious destruction of property or arson or sabotage or embezzlement or any other act, including theft, the commission of which amounts to a felony or gross misdemeanor. For an employee of a health care facility, gross misconduct also includes misconduct involving an act of patient or resident abuse as defined in section 626.557, subdivision 2, clause (d).

If an individual is convicted of a felony or gross misdemeanor for the same act or acts of misconduct for which the individual was discharged, the misconduct is conclusively presumed to be gross misconduct if it was connected with his work.

(4) [LIMITED OR NO CHARGE OF BENEFITS.] Benefits paid subsequent to an individual's separation under any of the foregoing clauses, excepting clauses (2)(c) and (2)(e), shall not be used as a factor in determining the future contribution rate of the employer from whose employment such individual separated.

Benefits paid subsequent to an individual's failure, without good cause, to accept an offer of suitable re-employment shall not be used as a factor in determining the future contribution rate of the employer whose offer of re-employment he failed to accept or whose offer of re-employment was refused solely due to the distance of the available work from his residence, the individual's own serious illness or his other employment at the time of the offer.

(5) An individual who was employed by an employer shall not be disqualified for benefits under this subdivision for any acts or omissions occurring after his separation from employment with the employer.

(6) [DISCIPLINARY SUSPENSIONS.] An individual shall be disqualified for waiting week credit and benefits for the duration of any disciplinary suspension of 30 days or less resulting from his own misconduct. Disciplinary suspensions of more than 30 days shall constitute a discharge from employment.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.09, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FAILURE TO APPLY FOR OR ACCEPT SUITABLE WORK OR RE-EMPLOYMENT.] An individual shall be disqualified for waiting week credit and benefits during the week of occurrence and until ~~four~~ eight calendar weeks have elapsed following his refusal or failure and he has earned ~~four~~ eight times his weekly benefit amount in insured work if the commissioner finds that he has failed, without good cause, either to apply for available, suitable work of which he was advised by the employment office, or the commissioner or to accept suitable work when offered him, or to return to his customary self-employment (if any) when so directed by the commissioner, or to accept a base period employer's offer of re-employment offering substantially the same or better hourly wages and conditions of work as were previously provided by that employer in his base period.

(a) In determining whether or not any work is suitable for an individual, the commissioner shall consider the degree of risk involved to his health, safety, and morals, his physical fitness and prior training, his experience, his length of unemployment and prospects of securing local work in his customary occupation, the distance of the available work from his residence, and how the offered work's wage compares with the wage the individual received during the high quarter of the individual's base period. With respect to the work's wage, the work shall be deemed suitable if it is otherwise suitable considering the above factors and the wage rate offered to the claimant is equal to 100 percent of the claimant's average weekly wage during the high quarter of the claimant's base period, if the work is offered during the first four weeks following a valid claim for benefits; equal to at least 85 percent of the claimant's average weekly wage during the high quarter of the claimant's base period, if the work is offered during weeks five through eight following a valid claim for benefits; equal to at least 75 percent of the claimant's average weekly wage during the high quarter of the claimant's base period, if the work is offered during weeks nine through 12 following a valid claim for benefits; or equal to at least 70 percent of the claimant's average weekly wage during the high quarter of the claimant's base period, if the work is offered after 12 weeks of benefits have been received.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of sections 268.03 to 268.24, no work shall be deemed suitable, and benefits shall not be denied thereunder to any otherwise eligible individual for refusing to accept new work under any of the following conditions:

(1) if the position offered is vacant due directly to a strike, lockout, or other labor dispute;

(2) if the wages, hours, or other conditions of the work offered are substantially less favorable to the individual than those prevailing for similar work in the locality;

(3) if as a condition of being employed the individual would be required to join a union or to resign from or refrain from joining any bona fide labor organization;

(4) if the individual is in training with the approval of the commissioner.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.10, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FILING.] (a) Claims for benefits shall be made in accordance with such regulations as the commissioner may prescribe. Each employer shall post and maintain printed statements of such regulations in places readily accessible to individuals in his service and shall make available to each such individual at the time he becomes unemployed, a printed statement of such regulations. Such printed statements shall be supplied by the commissioner to each employer without cost to him.

~~(1)~~ (b) Any employer upon separation of an employee from his employment for any reason which may result in disqualification for benefits under section 268.09, shall furnish to such employee a separation notice which shall provide the employer's name, address, and employer account number as registered with the department, the employee's name and social security account number, the inclusive dates of his employment, and the reason for the separation. A copy of such separation notice shall be filed with the commissioner within seven days of such separation. The commissioner shall require each individual filing a claim for benefits to establish a benefit year to furnish the reason for separation from all employers in his base period.

~~(2) Upon the filing, by an individual, of a claim for benefits, the commissioner shall give notice to all such base period employers of the filing of such claim and request each such base period employer, within seven days after the mailing of such notice, to furnish the following information:~~

~~(a) The total wage credits earned in the base period;~~

~~(b) The number of credit weeks which end within the base period;~~

~~(c) The week ending dates for each calendar week within the base period in which the individual earned less than the amount required to make a credit week and the amount of earnings in each such week;~~

~~(d) The reason for the separation or separations of such individual from the~~

~~employ of the employer in the base period; and~~

~~(c) Such employer's protest, if any, relating to the ineligibility or disqualification of such individual.~~

~~(3) If any base period employer, after the notice of filing of a claim and the request for wage and separation information has been duly mailed to his last known address, fails to file information as provided by items (a) through (c) of clause 2 of this subdivision within seven days, the commissioner shall:~~

~~(a) Determine the validity of an individual's claim based on the claimant's statements or any other available information. An employer shall be liable for a late filing fee of not less than $5 nor more than $25, as the commissioner may determine, to be paid to the department of economic security and credited to the contingent fund if he has failed without good cause to submit the wage and separation information as required in clause 2 of this subdivision within seven days after the request has been duly mailed to his last known address.~~

(c) Upon establishment of a benefit year, the commissioner shall give notice to the last employer for whom the individual worked and all base period employers. The employer so notified shall have seven days after the mailing of the notice to file a protest to monetary entitlement or raise an issue of ineligibility or disqualification.

(d) If, upon review of the wage information on file with the department, it is found that an employer failed to provide wage information for the claimant, the commissioner shall accept a claimant certification as to the wages earned, based upon the claimant's records, and issue a monetary determination of validity certification. This determination may be modified based upon corrected information subsequently received from the employer or other sources. The employer who failed to report the individual's wages or filed an erroneous report may be penalized in accordance with section 268.16 or 268.18. In the absence of fraud, if a redetermination of validity of claim based on an employer's late or erroneous report subsequently cancels or reduces the amount of benefits to which a claimant was entitled under the initial determination, the claimant shall not be required to make repayment to the fund of any benefits paid to him prior to such redetermination; and

~~(b)~~ (e) The commissioner shall determine any issue of disqualification raised ~~by clause (1)~~ under paragraph (c) or by an employer's late report. If an employer fails to file a separation notice within the time limits prescribed in ~~clause (1)~~ paragraph (b), any relief from benefit charges provided by section 268.09, subdivision 1, clause (4), shall apply to weeks of unemployment beginning after the filing of the late report.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.10, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXAMINATION OF CLAIMS; DETERMINATION; APPEAL.] (1) An official, designated by the commissioner, shall promptly examine each claim for benefits filed to establish a benefit year pursuant to this section, and, on the basis of the facts found, shall determine whether or not such claims are valid, and if valid, the weekly benefit amount payable, the maximum benefit amount payable during the benefit year, and the date the benefit year terminates, and this determination shall be known as the determination of validity. Notice of the determination of validity or any redetermination as provided for in clause (4) shall be promptly given the claimant and all other interested parties. ~~If within the time limits for filing a protest an employer notifies the department that an individual's weekly benefit amount as determined under section 268.07 exceeds the individual's weekly wages earned with the employer, the individual's weekly benefit amount shall be the lesser of (1) the weekly benefit amount as determined under section 268.07, or (2) the weekly benefit amount which is 50 percent of the quotient derived by dividing the total wage credits earned in the individual's base period credit weeks from all employers in insured work by the number of base period credit weeks.~~ If within the time specified for the filing of ~~wage and separation information~~ a protest as provided in subdivision 1, ~~clause (2)~~ paragraph (c), the employer makes an allegation of disqualification or raises an issue of the chargeability to his account of benefits that may be paid on such claim, if the claim is valid, the issue thereby raised shall be promptly determined by said official and a notification of the determination delivered or mailed to the claimant and the employer. If an initial determination or an appeal tribunal decision or the commissioner's decision awards benefits, the benefits shall be paid promptly regardless of the pendency of any appeal period or any appeal or other proceeding which may thereafter be taken. Except as provided in clause (6), if an appeal tribunal decision modifies or reverses an initial determination awarding benefits, or if a commissioner's decision modifies or reverses an appeal decision awarding benefits, any benefits paid under the award of such initial determination or appeal tribunal decision shall be deemed erroneous payments.

(2) At any time within 24 months from the date of the filing of a valid claim for benefits by an individual, an official of the department or any interested party or parties raises an issue of claimant's eligibility for benefits for any week or weeks in accordance with the requirements of the provisions of sections 268.03 to 268.24 or any official of the department or any interested party or parties or benefit year employer raises an issue of disqualification in accordance with the regulations of the commissioner, a determination shall be made thereon and a written notice thereof shall be given to the claimant and such other interested party or parties or benefit year employer. A determination issued under this clause which denies benefits for weeks for which the claimant has previously been paid benefits is an overpayment of those benefits subject to section 268.18.

(3) A determination issued pursuant to clauses (1) and (2) shall be final unless an appeal therefrom is filed by a claimant or employer within 15 days after the mailing of the notice of the determination to his last known address or personal delivery of the notice. Every notice of determination shall contain a prominent statement indicating in clear language the method of appealing the determination, the time within which such an appeal must be made, and the consequences of not appealing the determination. A timely appeal from a determination of validity in which the issue is whether an employing unit is an employer within the meaning of this chapter or whether services performed for an employer constitute employment within the meaning of this chapter shall be subject to the provisions of section 268.12, subdivision 13.

(4) At any time within 24 months from the date of the filing of a valid claim for benefits by an individual, the commissioner on his own motion may reconsider a determination of validity made thereon and make a redetermination thereof if he finds that an error in computation or identity or the crediting of wage credits has occurred in connection therewith or if the determination was made as a result of a nondisclosure or misrepresentation of a material fact. A determination or redetermination issued under this clause which denies benefits for weeks for which the claimant has previously been paid benefits is an overpayment of those benefits subject to section 268.18.

(5) However, the commissioner may in his discretion refer any disputed claims directly to a referee for hearing and determination in accordance with the procedure outlined in subdivision 3 and the effect and status of such determination in such a case shall be the same as though the matter had been determined upon an appeal to the tribunal from an initial determination.

(6) If a referee's decision affirms an initial determination awarding benefits or the commissioner affirms an appeal tribunal decision awarding benefits, the decision, if finally reversed, shall not result in a disqualification and benefits paid shall neither be deemed overpaid nor shall they be considered in determining any individual employer's future contribution rate under section 268.06.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.12, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [RECORDS; REPORTS.] (1) Each employing unit shall keep true and accurate work records for such periods of time and containing such information as the commissioner may prescribe. Such records shall be open to inspection, audit, and verification, and be subject to being copied by any authorized representative of the commissioner at any reasonable time and as often as may be necessary. The commissioner, appeal referee, or any other duly authorized representative of the commissioner, may require from any employing unit any sworn or unsworn reports, with respect to persons employed by it, which the commissioner, appeal referee, or any other duly authorized representative of the commissioner deems necessary for the effective administration of sections 268.03 to 268.24~~, provided that quarterly contribution and wage report forms shall include the employee's name, social security number, and total wages paid to the employee~~.

(2) The commissioner may cause to be made such summaries, compilations, photographs, duplications, or reproductions of any records, reports, or transcripts thereof as he may deem advisable for the effective and economical preservation of the information contained therein, and such summaries, compilations, photographs, duplications or reproductions, duly authenticated, shall be admissible in any proceeding under sections 268.03 to 268.24, if the original record or records would have been admissible therein. Notwithstanding any restrictions contained in section 16B.50, except restrictions as to quantity, the commissioner is hereby authorized to duplicate, on equipment furnished by the federal government or purchased with funds furnished for that purpose by the federal government, records, reports, summaries, compilations, instructions, determinations, or any other written matter pertaining to the administration of the Minnesota economic security law.

(3) Notwithstanding any inconsistent provisions elsewhere, the commissioner may provide for the destruction or disposition of any records, reports, transcripts, or reproductions thereof, or other papers in his custody, which are more than two years old, the preservation of which is no longer necessary for the establishment of contribution liability or benefit rights or for any purpose necessary to the proper administration of sections 268.03 to 268.24, including any required audit thereof, provided, that the commissioner may provide for the destruction or disposition of any record, report, or transcript, or other paper in his custody which has been photographed, duplicated, or reproduced in the manner provided in clause (2).

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of the Minnesota State Archives Act the commissioner shall with the approval of the legislative auditor destroy all benefit checks and benefit check authorization cards that are more than two years old and no person shall make any demand, bring any suit or other proceeding to recover from the state of Minnesota any sum alleged to be due him on any claim for benefits after the expiration of two years from the date of filing such claim.

268.121 [WAGE REPORTING.]

Beginning on April 1, 1984, each employer subject to this chapter shall provide the commissioner with a quarterly report of the wages~~, as defined in section 268.04, subdivision 25,~~ paid to each employee of that employer covered by this chapter. ~~The commissioner shall provide the legislature with his recommendations for statutory changes to fully implement this section no later than January 1, 1983~~ The report must include the employee's name, social security number, and the total wages paid to the employee. The report is due and must be filed at the same time as the contribution report in accordance with rules established by the commissioner for filing of quarterly contribution reports. For the purpose of this section, "wages paid" includes wages actually or constructively paid and wages overdue and delayed beyond the usual time of payment.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.16, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REPORTS; DELINQUENCIES; PENALTIES.] ~~(1)~~ (a) Any employer who knowingly fails to make and submit to the department ~~of economic security~~ any contribution report ~~of wages paid by or due from him for insured work in the manner and~~ at the time ~~such~~ the report is required by ~~regulations~~ rules prescribed by the commissioner shall pay to the department ~~of economic security~~ for the contingent account a penalty in the amount of one and one-half percent of contributions accrued during the period for which ~~such~~ the report is required, for each month from and after ~~such~~ the due date until ~~such~~ the report is properly made and submitted to the department ~~of economic security~~. In no case shall the amount of the penalty imposed hereby be less than $5 per month. The maximum penalty imposed hereby shall be $25 or the amount determined at the rate of 1-1/2 percent per month, whichever is greater. ~~Any employing unit which fails to make and submit to the commissioner any report, other than one of wages paid or payable for insured work, as and when required by the regulations of the commissioner, shall be subject to a penalty in the sum of $10 payable to the department of economic security for the contingent account. All such penalties shall be in addition to interest and any other penalties provided for by sections 268.03 to 268.24 and~~

~~shall be collected as provided by section 268.161.~~

~~(2)~~ (b) If any employing unit required by sections 268.03 to 268.24 to make and submit contribution reports shall fail to do so within the time prescribed by these sections or by regulations under the authority thereof, or shall make, willfully or otherwise, an incorrect, false or fraudulent contribution report, he shall, on the written demand of the commissioner, make such contribution report, or corrected report, within ten days after the mailing of such written demand and at the same time pay the whole contribution, or additional contribution, due on the basis thereof. If such employer shall fail within that time to make such report, or corrected report, the commissioner shall make for him a report, or corrected report, from his own knowledge and from such information as he can obtain through testimony, or otherwise, and assess a contribution on the basis thereof, which contribution, plus penalties and interest which thereafter accrued (less any payments theretofore made) shall be paid within ten days after the commissioner has mailed to such employer a written notice of the amount thereof and demand for its payment. Any such contribution report or assessment made by the commissioner on account of the failure of the employer to make a report or corrected report shall be prima facie correct and valid, and the employer shall have the burden of establishing its incorrectness or invalidity in any action or proceeding in respect thereto. Whenever such delinquent employer shall file a report or corrected report, the commissioner may, if he finds it substantially correct, substitute it for the commissioner's report.

(c) Any employer who fails to file the wage detail report required by section 268.121 shall pay to the department for the contingent account a penalty of one-half of one percent of total wages paid and wages due but not paid during the period for each month the report is delinquent. The penalty shall not be assessed if the wage detail report is properly made and filed within 30 days after a demand for the report is mailed to the employer's address of record. In no case shall the amount of the penalty, if assessed, be less than $25. Penalties due under this subdivision may be waived where good cause for late filing is found by the commissioner.

(d) Any employer who files the wage detail report required by section 268.121, but knowingly fails to include any of the required information or knowingly enters erroneous information, shall be subject to a penalty of $25 for each individual for whom the information is missing or erroneous.

(e) Any employing unit which fails to make and submit to the commissioner any report, other than a contribution report or wage detail report, as and when required by rule, shall be subject to a penalty in the sum of $50 payable to the department for the contingent account.

(f) The penalties provided for in paragraphs (a), (c), (d), and (e) are in addition to interest and any other penalties imposed by sections 268.03 to 268.24 and shall be collected as provided by section 268.161.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.16, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [COSTS.] Any employing unit which fails to make and submit reports or pay any contributions or reimbursement when due is liable to the department any recording fees, sheriff fees, or litigation costs incurred in obtaining the reports or collecting the amounts due.

If any check or money order, in payment of any amount due under sections 268.03 to 268.24, is not honored when presented for payment, the employing unit will be assessed a fee of $20 which shall be in addition to any other fees required under sections 268.03 to 268.24. The fee shall be assessed regardless of the amount of the check or money order or the reason for nonpayment with the exception of processing errors made by a financial institution.

Costs due under this subdivision shall be paid to the department and credited to the administration fund.

Sec. 27. [REVISOR'S INSTRUCTION.]

The revisor of statutes shall change all references in chapter 268 to the "department of economic security" to the "department of jobs and training."

Sec. 28. [268.85] [APPROPRIATION.]

$20,000,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of jobs and training for transfer to the unemployment compensation fund established under section 268.05 for the purpose of paying unemployment benefits due during the period from November 10, 1986, through January 1, 1987, to the extent there are insufficient funds in the unemployment compensation fund for the payment of benefits. The commissioner may transfer to the unemployment compensation fund and spend only such amounts from this appropriation as are necessary to pay all unemployment benefits due during the period from November 10, 1986, through January 1, 1987, without requiring an advance from the secretary of the treasury of the United States under section 1201 of the Social Security Act, as amended. Amounts transferred from this appropriation are a loan and are repayable to the general fund immediately after January 1, 1987, from contributions obtained by the commissioner under section 268.06. The amounts necessary to make the repayment are appropriated from the unemployment compensation fund for transfer to the general fund. These appropriations are available until June 30, 1987.

Sec. 29. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.04, subdivisions 8, 29, and 30, are repealed.

The rate so determined shall be applicable for the calendar year 1984.~~

~~Each construction employer described above who becomes subject to chapter 268 shall pay contributions at a rate, not exceeding 7-1/2 percent, that is the higher of (1) one percent, or (2) the state's four-year benefit cost rate for construction employers for the 48 consecutive month period immediately preceding July 1, 1983. For purposes of this clause, the state's four-year benefit cost rate shall be computed and derived by dividing the total dollar amount of benefits paid to claimants of construction employers, as determined by the commissioner, during the 48 consecutive calendar months immediately preceding July 1, 1983 by the total dollar amount of wages of construction employers subject to contributions during the same period. The rate so determined shall be applicable for the calendar year 1984.~~

The rate so determined shall be applicable for the calendar year next succeeding each computation date.

(b) Each construction employer described ~~above~~ under paragraph (a) who becomes subject to this chapter shall pay contributions at a rate, not exceeding ~~7-1/2 percent~~ the maximum contribution rate for all employers as provided under subdivision 8, that is the higher of (1) one percent, or (2) the state's five-year benefit cost rate for construction employers for the 60 consecutive month period immediately preceding July 1, ~~1984 and~~ of each year ~~thereafter~~. For purposes of this clause, the state's five-year benefit cost rate shall be computed annually and shall be derived by dividing the total dollar amount of benefits paid to claimants of construction employers, as determined by the commissioner, during the 60 consecutive calendar months immediately preceding July 1, ~~1984 and~~ of each year ~~thereafter~~ by the total dollar amount of wages of construction employers subject to contributions during the same period. calendar year next succeeding each computation date.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.06, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [BENEFITS CHARGED AS AND WHEN PAID.] Benefits paid to an individual pursuant to a valid claim shall be charged against the account of his employer as and when paid, except that benefits paid to an individual who earned base period wages for part-time employment shall not be charged to an employer that is liable for payments in lieu of contributions or to the experience rating account of an employer if the employer: (1) provided weekly base period part-time employment; (2) continues to provide weekly employment equal to at least 90 percent of the part-time employment provided in the base period; and (3) is an interested party because of the individual's loss of other employment. The amount of benefits so chargeable against each base period employer's account shall bear the same ratio to the total benefits paid to an individual as the base period wage credits of the individual earned from such employer bear to the total amount of base period wage credits of the individual earned from all his base period employers.

In making computations under this provision, the amount of wage credits if not a multiple of $1, shall be computed to the nearest multiple of $1.

Benefits shall not be charged to an employer that is liable for payments in lieu of contributions or to the experience rating account of an employer for unemployment (1) that is directly caused by a major natural disaster declared by the president pursuant to section 102(2) of the Disaster Relief Act of 1974 (42 United States Code 5122(2)), if the unemployed individual would have been eligible for disaster unemployment assistance with respect to that unemployment but for the individual's receipt of unemployment insurance benefits, or (2) that is directly caused by a fire, flood, or act of God where 70 percent or more of the employees employed in the affected location become unemployed as a result and the employer substantially reopens its operations in that same area within 360 days of the fire, flood, or act of God. Benefits shall be charged to the employer's account where the unemployment is caused by the willful act of the employer or a person acting on behalf of the employer.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.06, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [DETERMINATION OF CONTRIBUTION RATES.] (a) For each calendar year the commissioner shall determine the contribution rate of each employer by adding the minimum rate to the experience ratio~~, except that if the ratio for the current calendar year increases or decreases the experience ratio for the preceding calendar year by more than one and one-half percentage points for 1982; and 2-1/2 percentage points for 1983 and each year thereafter, the increase or decrease for the current year shall be limited to one and one-half percentage points for 1982; and 2-1/2 percentage points for 1983 and each year thereafter, provided that a small business employer shall be eligible, upon application, for a reduction in the limitation to 1-1/2 percentage points for 1983 and each year thereafter. "Small business employer" for the purpose of this subdivision means an employer with an annual covered payroll of $250,000 or less, or fewer than 20 employees in three of the four quarters ending June 30, of the previous calendar year~~.

(b) The minimum rate for all employers that have benefits charged to their account at any time during the period described in subdivision 6 shall be one percent if the amount in the unemployment compensation fund is less than $80,000,000 on June 30 of the preceding calendar year; or nine-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $80,000,000 but less than $90,000,000; or eight-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $90,000,000 but less than $110,000,000; or seven-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $110,000,000 but less than $130,000,000; or six-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $130,000,000 but less than $150,000,000; or five-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $150,000,000 but less than $170,000,000; or three-tenths of one percent if the fund is more than $170,000,000 but less than $200,000,000; or one-tenth of one percent if the fund is $200,000,000 or more~~; provided that no employer shall have a contribution rate of more than 7.5 percent~~.

(c) The maximum rate for for all employers shall be eight percent for calendar year 1987 and eight and one-half percent for calendar year 1988 and thereafter.

(d) For the purposes of this section the unemployment compensation fund shall not include any moneys advanced from the Federal Unemployment Account in the unemployment trust fund in accordance with Title XII of the Social Security Act, as amended. ~~No employer first assigned an experience ratio in accordance with subdivision 6, shall have his contribution rate increased or decreased by more than one and one-half percentage points for 1982; and 2-1/2 percentage points for 1983 and each year thereafter over the contribution rate assigned for the preceding calendar year in accordance with subdivision 3a, provided that a small business employer shall be eligible, upon application, for a reduction in the limitation to 1-1/2 percentage points for 1983 and each year thereafter.~~

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.07, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [WEEKLY BENEFIT AMOUNT AND DURATION.] If the commissioner finds that an individual has earned 15~~,~~ or more~~,~~ credit weeks, or failing that, 20 or more alternative credit weeks, within the base period of employment in insured work with one or more employers, benefits shall be payable to such individual during his benefit year as follows:

(1) Weekly benefit amount shall be equal to 60 percent of the first $85, 40 percent of the next $85 and 50 percent of the remainder of the average weekly wage of such individual. The amount so computed if not a whole dollar shall be rounded down to the next lower dollar amount. The maximum weekly benefit amount of claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to July 1, 1979 shall be 66-2/3 percent of the average weekly wage, except as provided in clause (d).

On or before June 30 of each year the commissioner shall determine the average weekly wage paid by employers subject to sections 268.03 to 268.24 in the following manner:

(a) The sum of the total monthly employment reported for the previous calendar year shall be divided by 12 to determine the average monthly employment.

(b) The sum of the total wages reported for the previous calendar year shall be divided by the average monthly employment to determine the average annual wage.

(c) The average annual wage shall be divided by 52 to determine the average weekly wage.

(d) The maximum weekly benefit amount for claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, ~~1982~~ 1986, and prior to July 1, ~~1983~~ 1989, shall be ~~$184~~ $228. The minimum weekly benefit amount for claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1986, shall be $45.

~~The maximum weekly benefit amount for claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1983, and prior to July 1, 1984, shall be $191.~~

~~The maximum weekly benefit amount for claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1984, and prior to July 1, 1985, shall be $198.~~

(2) An individual's maximum amount of regular benefits payable in a benefit year shall not exceed the lesser of (a) 26 times his weekly benefit amount or (b) 70 percent of the number of credit weeks or alternative credit weeks earned by such an individual computed to the nearest whole week times his weekly benefit amount.

(3) Each eligible individual who is unemployed in any week shall be paid with respect to such week a benefit in an amount equal to his weekly benefit amount less that part of his earnings, including holiday pay, payable to him with respect to such week which is in excess of $25 or $200 for earnings from service in the national guard or a United States military reserve unit. Jury duty pay is not considered as earnings and shall not be deducted from benefits paid. Such benefit, if not a whole dollar amount shall be rounded down to the next lower dollar amount.

(4) The provisions of clauses (1) and (2) shall apply to claims for benefits which establish a benefit year subsequent to June 30, 1983.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.07, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [EXCEPTION.] Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 2, if the commissioner finds that an individual has earned credit weeks or alternative credit weeks in seasonal employment, benefits shall be payable only if the commissioner finds that the individual has earned at least 15 credit weeks or, if applicable, at least 20 alternative credit weeks, in employment which is not seasonal, in addition to any credit weeks or alternative credit weeks in seasonal employment. For the purposes of this subdivision, "seasonal employment" means employment with a single employer in the recreation or tourist industry which is available with the employer for 15 consecutive weeks or less each calendar year.

amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] As used in this section, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) [EXTENDED BENEFIT PERIOD.] "Extended benefit period" means a period which

(a) Begins with the third week after a week for which there is a state "on" indicator; and

(b) Ends with either of the following weeks, whichever occurs later: The third week after the first week for which there is a state "off" indicator; or the 13th consecutive week of the period;

Provided, that no extended benefit period may begin before the 14th week following the end of a prior extended benefit period which was in effect with respect to this state.

(2) [STATE "ON" INDICATOR.] There is a "state 'on' indicator" for this state for a week if the commissioner determines, in accordance with the regulations of the United States secretary of labor, that for the period consisting of such week and the immediately preceding 12 weeks, the rate of insured unemployment (not seasonally adjusted) under this law

(a) equaled or exceeded 120 percent of the average of such rates for the corresponding 13 week period ending in each of the preceding two calendar years, and

(b) equaled or exceeded five percent.

The determination of whether there has been a state "on" indicator beginning any extended benefit period may be made as provided in clauses (a) and (b) above or a "state 'on' indicator" shall exist if the rate described in clause (b) equaled or exceeded six percent irrespective of whether the percentage requirement provided by clause (a) is met or exceeded.

(3) [STATE "OFF" INDICATOR.] There is a "state 'off' indicator" for this state for a week if, for the period consisting of such week and the immediately preceding 12 weeks, the rate of insured unemployment is less than six percent and the requirements for a "state 'on' indicator" under clause (2) of this subdivision are not satisfied.

(4) [RATE OF INSURED UNEMPLOYMENT.] "Rate of insured unemployment," for purposes of clauses (2) and (3), means the percentage derived by dividing the average weekly number of individuals filing claims for regular benefits in this state for weeks of unemployment with respect to the most recent 13 consecutive week period, as determined by the commissioner on the basis of his reports to the United States secretary of labor, by the average monthly employment covered under this law for the first four of the most recent six completed calendar quarters ending before the end of such 13 week period.

(5) [REGULAR BENEFITS.] "Regular benefits" means benefits payable to an individual under this law or under any other state law (including benefits payable to federal civilian employees and to ex-servicemen pursuant to 5 U.S.C. chapter 85) other than extended benefits and additional benefits.

(6) [EXTENDED BENEFITS.] "Extended benefits" means benefits

(including benefits payable to federal civilian employees and to ex-servicemen pursuant to 5 U.S.C. chapter 85) payable to an individual under the provisions of this section for weeks of unemployment in his eligibility period.

(7) [ADDITIONAL BENEFITS.] "Additional benefits" means benefits payable to exhaustees by reason of conditions of high unemployment or by reason of other special factors under the provisions of any state law.

(8) [ELIGIBILITY PERIOD.] "Eligibility period" of an individual means the period consisting of the weeks in his benefit year which begin in an extended benefit period and, if his benefit year ends within such extended benefit period, any weeks thereafter which begin in such period.

(9) [EXHAUSTEE.] "Exhaustee" means an individual who, with respect to any week of unemployment in his eligibility period:

(a) Has received, prior to such week, all of the regular benefits that were available to him under this law or any other state law (including dependents' allowances and benefits payable to federal civilian employees and ex-servicemen under 5 U.S.C. chapter 85) in his current benefit year that includes such week;

Provided, that, for the purposes of this paragraph, an individual shall be deemed to have received all of the regular benefits that were available to him although as a result of a pending appeal with respect to wage credits ~~or~~, credit weeks, or alternative credit weeks that were not considered in the original monetary determination in his benefit year, he may subsequently be determined to be entitled to added regular benefits; or

(b) His benefit year having expired prior to such week, has no, or insufficient, wages and/or employment on the basis of which he could establish a new benefit year that would include such week or having established a benefit year that includes such week, he is precluded from receiving regular compensation by reason of: (i) a state law provision which meets the requirements of section 3304 (a) (7) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or (ii) a disqualification determination which cancelled wage credits or totally reduced his benefit rights, or (iii) benefits are not payable by reason of a seasonal limitation in a state unemployment insurance law; and

(c) Has no right to unemployment benefits or allowances, as the case may be, under the railroad unemployment insurance act, the trade expansion act of 1962, the automotive products act of 1965 and such other federal laws as are specified in regulations issued by the United States secretary of labor; and has not received and is not seeking unemployment benefits under the unemployment compensation law of Canada; but if he is seeking such benefits and the appropriate agency finally determines that he is not entitled to benefits under such law he is considered an exhaustee.

(10) [STATE LAW.] "State law" means the unemployment insurance law of any state, approved by the United States secretary of labor under section 3304 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.08, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBILITY CONDITIONS.] An individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week of unemployment only if the commissioner finds that the individual:

(1) has registered for work at and thereafter has continued to report to an employment office, or agent of the office, in accordance with rules the commissioner may adopt; except that the commissioner may by rule waive or alter either or both of the requirements of this clause as to types of cases or situations with respect to which the commissioner finds that compliance with the requirements would be oppressive or would be inconsistent with the purposes of sections 268.03 to 268.24;

(2) has made a claim for benefits in accordance with rules as the commissioner may adopt;

(3) was able to work and was available for work, and was actively seeking work. The individual's weekly benefit amount shall be reduced one-fifth for each day the individual is unable to work or is unavailable for work. Benefits shall not be denied by application of this clause to an individual who is in training with the approval of the commissioner or in training approved pursuant to section 236 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.

An individual is deemed unavailable for work with respect to any week which occurs in a period when the individual is a full-time student in attendance at, or on vacation from an established school, college or university unless a majority of the credit weeks or alternative credit weeks earned in the base period were for services performed during weeks in which the student was attending school as a full-time student.

An individual serving as a juror shall be considered as available for work and actively seeking work on each day the individual is on jury duty; and

(4) has been unemployed for a waiting period of one week during which the individual is otherwise eligible for benefits under sections 268.03 to 268.24. However, payment for the waiting week shall be made to the individual after the individual has qualified for and been paid benefits for four weeks of unemployment in a benefit year which period of unemployment is terminated because of the individual's return to employment. No individual is required to serve a waiting period of more than one week within the one-year period subsequent to filing a valid claim and commencing with the week within which the valid claim was filed.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.09, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. An individual who has qualified for benefits under the alternative credit week requirement, as provided under section 268.07, subdivision 2, and who is disqualified for benefits under subdivisions 1 and 2 of this section, other than for gross misconduct, shall be disqualified for waiting week credit and benefits. The disqualification shall continue until four weeks have elapsed following the separation or refusal of suitable work or reemployment and until the individual has worked for a minimum of 20 hours in each of four weeks in insured work.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.10, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FILING.] Claims for benefits shall be made in accordance with such regulations as the commissioner may prescribe. Each employer shall post and maintain printed statements of such regulations in places readily accessible to individuals in his service and shall make available to each such individual at the time he becomes unemployed, a printed statement of such regulations. Such printed statements shall be supplied by the commissioner to each employer without cost to him.

(1) Any employer upon separation of an employee from his employment for any reason which may result in disqualification for benefits under section 268.09, shall furnish to such employee a separation notice which shall provide the employer's name, address, and employer account number as registered with the department, the employee's name and social security account number, the inclusive dates of his employment, and the reason for the separation. A copy of such separation notice shall be filed with the commissioner within seven days of such separation. The commissioner shall require each individual filing a claim for benefits to establish a benefit year to furnish the reason for separation from all employers in his base period.

(2) Upon the filing, by an individual, of a claim for benefits, the commissioner shall give notice to all such base period employers of the filing of such claim and request each such base period employer, within seven days after the mailing of such notice, to furnish the following information:

(a) The total wage credits earned in the base period;

(b) The number of credit weeks or alternative credit weeks which end within the base period;

(c) The week ending dates for each calendar week within the base period in which the individual earned less than the amount required to make a credit week or alternative credit week and the amount of earnings in each such week;

(d) The reason for the separation or separations of such individual from the employ of the employer in the base period; and

(e) Such employer's protest, if any, relating to the ineligibility or disqualification of such individual.

(3) If any base period employer, after the notice of filing of a claim and the request for wage and separation information has been duly mailed to his last known address, fails to file information as provided by items (a) through (e) of clause 2 of this subdivision within seven days, the commissioner shall:

(a) Determine the validity of an individual's claim based on the claimant's statements or any other available information. An employer shall be liable for a late filing fee of not less than $5 nor more than $25, as the commissioner may determine, to be paid to the department of economic security and credited to the contingent fund if he has failed without good cause to submit the wage and separation information as required in clause 2 of this subdivision within seven days after the request has been duly mailed to his last known address. In the absence of fraud, if a redetermination of validity of claim based on an employer's late report subsequently cancels or reduces the amount of benefits to which a claimant was entitled under the initial determination, the claimant shall not be required to make repayment to the fund of any benefits paid to him prior to such redetermination; and employer's late report. If an employer fails to file a separation notice within the time limits prescribed in clause (1), any relief from benefit charges provided by section 268.09, subdivision 1, clause (4), shall apply to weeks of unemployment beginning after the filing of the late report.

(b) Determine any issue of disqualification raised by clause (1) or by an

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 268.10, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXAMINATION OF CLAIMS; DETERMINATION; APPEAL.] (1) An official, designated by the commissioner, shall promptly examine each claim for benefits filed to establish a benefit year pursuant to this section, and, on the basis of the facts found, shall determine whether or not such claims are valid, and if valid, the weekly benefit amount payable, the maximum benefit amount payable during the benefit year, and the date the benefit year terminates, and this determination shall be known as the determination of validity. Notice of the determination of validity or any redetermination as provided for in clause (4) shall be promptly given the claimant and all other interested parties. If within the time limits for filing a protest an employer notifies the department that an individual's weekly benefit amount as determined under section 268.07 exceeds the individual's weekly wages earned with the employer, the individual's weekly benefit amount shall be the lesser of (1) the weekly benefit amount as determined under section 268.07, or (2) the weekly benefit amount which is 50 percent of the quotient derived by dividing the total wage credits earned in the individual's base period credit weeks or alternative credit weeks from all employers in insured work by the number of base period credit weeks or alternative credit weeks. If within the time specified for the filing of wage and separation information as provided in subdivision 1, clause (2), the employer makes an allegation of disqualification or raises an issue of the chargeability to his account of benefits that may be paid on such claim, if the claim is valid, the issue thereby raised shall be promptly determined by said official and a notification of the determination delivered or mailed to the claimant and the employer. If an initial determination or an appeal tribunal decision or the commissioner's decision awards benefits, the benefits shall be paid promptly regardless of the pendency of any appeal period or any appeal or other proceeding which may thereafter be taken. Except as provided in clause (6), if an appeal tribunal decision modifies or reverses an initial determination awarding benefits, or if a commissioner's decision modifies or reverses an appeal decision awarding benefits, any benefits paid under the award of such initial determination or appeal tribunal decision shall be deemed erroneous payments.

(2) At any time within 24 months from the date of the filing of a valid claim for benefits by an individual, an official of the department or any interested party or parties raises an issue of claimant's eligibility for benefits for any week or weeks in accordance with the requirements of the provisions of sections 268.03 to 268.24 or any official of the department or any interested party or parties or benefit year employer raises an issue of disqualification in accordance with the regulations of the commissioner, a determination shall be made thereon and a written notice thereof shall be given to the claimant and such other interested party or parties or benefit year employer. A determination issued under this clause which denies benefits for weeks for which the claimant has previously been paid benefits is an overpayment of those benefits subject to section 268.18.

(3) A determination issued pursuant to clauses (1) and (2) shall be final unless an appeal therefrom is filed by a claimant or employer within 15 days after the mailing of the notice of the determination to his last known address or personal delivery of the notice. Every notice of determination shall contain a prominent statement indicating in clear language the method of appealing the determination, the time within which such an appeal must be made, and the consequences of not appealing the determination. A timely appeal from a determination of validity in which the issue is whether an employing unit is an employer within the meaning of this chapter or whether services performed for an employer constitute employment within the meaning of this chapter shall be subject to the provisions of section 268.12, subdivision 13.

(4) At any time within 24 months from the date of the filing of a valid claim for benefits by an individual, the commissioner on his own motion may reconsider a determination of validity made thereon and make a redetermination thereof if he finds that an error in computation or identity or the crediting of wage credits has occurred in connection therewith or if the determination was made as a result of a nondisclosure or misrepresentation of a material fact. A determination or redetermination issued under this clause which denies benefits for weeks for which the claimant has previously been paid benefits is an overpayment of those benefits subject to section 268.18.

(5) However, the commissioner may in his discretion refer any disputed claims directly to a referee for hearing and determination in accordance with the procedure outlined in subdivision 3 and the effect and status of such determination in such a case shall be the same as though the matter had been determined upon an appeal to the tribunal from an initial determination.

(6) If a referee's decision affirms an initial determination awarding benefits or the commissioner affirms an appeal tribunal decision awarding benefits, the decision, if finally reversed, shall not result in a disqualification and benefits paid shall neither be deemed overpaid nor shall they be considered in determining any individual employer's future contribution rate under section 268.06.

Sec. 15. [268.86] [LOAN.]

Up to $20,000,000 is appropriated and authorized as a loan from the general fund to the commissioner of jobs and training for transfer to the unemployment compensation fund established under section 268.05 for the purpose of paying unemployment benefits due during the period from November 10, 1986, through January 1, 1987, to the extent there are insufficient funds in the unemployment compensation fund for the payment of benefits. The commissioner may transfer to the unemployment compensation fund and spend only amounts from this loan as are necessary to pay all unemployment benefits due during the period from November 10, 1986, through January 1, 1987, without requiring an advance from the secretary of the treasury of the United States under section 1201 of the Social Security Act, as amended. Amounts transferred from this loan are repayable to the general fund immediately after January 1, 1987, from contributions obtained by the commissioner pursuant to section 268.06. The amounts necessary to make the repayment are appropriated from the unemployment compensation fund for transfer to the general fund. These appropriations are available until June 30, 1987.

Sec. 16. [CITY OF LITCHFIELD; TAX INCREMENT FINANCING.]

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the city council of the city of Litchfield may require the Meeker county auditor to reduce the original assessed value of a tax increment financing district in the city. The reduction shall be in an amount equal to the difference between the assessed value at the time of the certification of the district of a parcel, improvements to which were substantially destroyed by a fire occurring within 30 days after the January 2, 1986, assessment date, and the value of that parcel after the destruction of the improvements. In no case may the reduction result in an original assessed value for the district that is less than the assessed value of the district determined immediately after the date of the fire.

Sec. 17. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 6 is effective January 1, 1986. Sections 15 and 16 are effective the day following final enactment. Sections 1, 3, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, and 14 are effective July 1, 1986. Sections 2, 4, 5, and 7 are effective January 1, 1987."

"Sec. 11. [268.073] [ADDITIONAL UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION BENEFITS.]

Subdivision 1. Additional unemployment compensation benefits are authorized under this section only if the commissioner determines that:

(1) an employer has reduced operations at an establishment resulting in the reduction of at least 50 percent of the employer's work force and the lay-off of at least 50 employees at that establishment;

(2) the employer does not intend to resume operations which would lead to the reemployment of those employees at any time in the future; and

Subd. 2. [PAYMENT OF BENEFITS.] All benefits payable under this section are payable from the fund.

If the computation of reduced benefits, required by this subdivision, is not a whole dollar amount, it shall be rounded down to the next lower dollar amount.

If an individual's benefit is reduced because of the receipt of a pension from the employer that the individual left due to the reasons described in clause (b), the individual's benefit year shall be extended by the number of weeks necessary for the individual to receive the benefit which would have been paid in the benefit year except for that reduction if the following conditions are satisfied:

We, the undersigned conferees for H.F. No. 628, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendment and that H.F. No. 628 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [40.40] [SHORT TITLE.]

Sections 2 to 15 may be cited as the "reinvest in Minnesota resources act of 1986."

Sec. 2. [40.401] [PURPOSE AND POLICY.]

It is the purposes of sections 2 to 6 to keep certain marginal agricultural land out of crop production or pasture to protect soil and water quality and support fish and wildlife habitat. It is state policy to encourage the retirement of marginal, highly erodable land, particularly land adjacent to public waters and drainage systems, from crop production and to reestablish a cover of perennial vegetation.

Sec. 3. [40.41] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICABILITY.] The definitions in this section apply to sections 3 to 6.

Subd. 2. [COMMISSIONER.] "Commissioner" means the commissioner of agriculture.

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT OF PROGRAM.] The commissioner of agriculture, in consultation with the commissioner of natural resources, shall establish and administer a conservation reserve program. Selection of land for the conservation reserve program must be based on its potential for fish and wildlife production, reducing erosion, and protecting water quality.

Subd. 2. [ELIGIBLE LAND.] Land may be placed in the conservation reserve program if the land:

(1) is marginal agricultural land, or adjacent to marginal agricultural land and beneficial to resource protection or necessary for efficient recording of the land description;

(2) was owned by the applicant on January 1, 1985, or for an application made on or after January 1, 1988, was owned by the applicant for at least three years before the date of application;

(3) is at least five acres in size, or is a whole field as defined by the United States agricultural stabilization and conservation service;

(4) is not set aside, enrolled or diverted under another federal or state government program; and

(5) was in agricultural crop production or pasture for at least two years during the period 1981 to 1985.

The eligible land of a landowner may not exceed 20 percent of the landowner's total acreage in the state.

Subd. 3. [CONSERVATION EASEMENTS.] The commissioner may acquire conservation easements on eligible land. An easement may be permanent or of limited duration. An easement of limited duration may not be acquired if it is for a period less than ten years. The negotiation and acquisition of easements authorized by this section are exempt from the contractual provisions of chapter 16B.

Subd. 4. [NATURE OF PROPERTY RIGHTS ACQUIRED.] (a) A conservation easement must prohibit:

(1) alteration of wildlife habitat and other natural features, unless specifically approved by the commissioner;

(2) agricultural crop production, unless specifically approved by the commissioner for wildlife management purposes;

(b) A conservation easement is subject to the terms of the agreement provided in subdivision 5.

(c) A conservation easement must allow repairs, improvements, and inspections necessary to maintain public drainage systems provided the easement area is restored to the condition required by the terms of the conservation easement.

Subd. 5. [AGREEMENTS BY LANDOWNER.] The commissioner may enroll eligible land in the conservation reserve program by signing an agreement in recordable form with a landowner in which the landowner agrees:

(1) to convey to the state a conservation easement that is not subject to any prior title, lien, or encumbrance;

(2) to seed the land subject to the conservation easement, as specified in the agreement, to establish and maintain perennial cover of either a grass-legume mixture or native grasses for the term of the easement, at seeding rates determined by the commissioner; or to plant trees or carry out other long-term capital improvements approved by the commissioner for soil and water conservation or wildlife management;

(1) to establish the perennial cover or other improvements required by the agreement, up to $75 per acre;

(2) for the cost of planting trees required by the agreement, up to $75 per acre;

(3) for a permanent easement, 70 percent of the township average equalized estimated market value of agricultural property as established by the commissioner of revenue at the time the easement is conveyed; and

(4) for an easement of limited duration, 90 percent of the present value of the average of the acceptable bids for the federal conservation reserve program, as contained in Public Law Number 99-198, in the relevant geographic area and on bids made immediately prior to when the easement is conveyed. If federal bid figures have not been determined for the area, or the federal program has been discontinued, the rate paid shall be determined by the commissioner.

The commissioner may not pay more than $50,000 to a landowner for all the landowner's conservation easements and agreements.

Subd. 7. [EASEMENT RENEWAL.] When a conservation easement of limited duration expires, a new conservation easement and agreement for an additional period of ten years may be acquired by agreement of the commissioner and the landowner, under the terms of this section. The commissioner may adjust payment rates as a result of renewing an agreement and conservation easement only after examining the condition of the established cover, conservation practices, and land values.

Sec. 5. [40.43] [COOPERATION AND TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE;

SUPPLEMENTAL CONSERVATION PAYMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [COOPERATION.] In implementing sections 2 to 5 the commissioner must share information and cooperate with the department of natural resources, the pollution control agency, the United States Fish and Wildlife Service, the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service and Soil Conservation Service of the United States Department of Agriculture, the Minnesota extension service, the University of Minnesota, county boards, and interested private organizations and individuals.

Subd. 2. [TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE.] The commissioners of agriculture and natural resources must provide necessary technical assistance to landowners enrolled in the conservation reserve program. The commissioner of natural resources must provide technical advice and assistance to the commissioner on the form and content of the conservation easement and agreement, and on agronomic practices relating to the establishment and maintenance of permanent cover, or other conservation improvements. The commissioners of agriculture and natural resources shall jointly prepare an informational booklet on the conservation reserve program and other state and federal programs for land acquisition, conservation, and retirement to be made available to eligible landowners and the general public.

Subd. 3. [SUPPLEMENTAL CONSERVATION PAYMENTS.] *The commissioner may supplement cost-share payments made under other programs, up to $75 an acre, to the extent of available appropriations other than bond proceeds. Sec. 6. [40.44] [RULEMAKING.]

The commissioner shall adopt rules and is authorized to adopt emergency rules in order to implement sections 2 to 6. The rules must include standards for tree planting so that planting does not conflict with existing electrical lines, telephone lines, rights-of-way, or drainage ditches.

Sec. 7. [84.941] [POLICY.]

It is the policy of the state that fish and wildlife are renewable natural resources to be conserved and enhanced through planned scientific management, protection, and utilization.

The private contributions may be made in cash or in contributions of land or interests in land that are designated by the commissioner of natural resources as program acquisitions. Appropriations to the account that are not matched within three years from the date of the appropriation shall cancel to the source of the appropriation. Unless an appropriation to the account reverts to its original source under subdivision 3, the principal and interest in the account remain in the account until expended as provided in this section.*

Subd. 5. [PLEDGES AND CONTRIBUTIONS.] *The commissioner of natural resources may accept contributions and pledges to the critical habitat private sector matching account. A pledge that is made contingent on an appropriation is acceptable and shall be reported with other pledges as required in this section. The county's share of the proceeds shall be deposited in the county general revenue fund. For the purpose of determining the applicability of payments pursuant to clause (3) above, the appraised value of the lands acquired shall be deemed to be the purchase or acquisition price thereof during the first five years following acquisition. The commissioner of revenue shall, on the income tax return and the property tax refund claim form, notify filers of their right to designate that a portion of their tax or refund shall be paid into the nongame wildlife management account. None of the money provided in this section may be expended unless the commission has approved the work program.

The state pledges and agrees with all contributors to the nongame wildlife management account to use the funds contributed solely for the management of nongame wildlife projects and further agrees that it will not impose additional conditions or restrictions that will limit or otherwise restrict the ability of the commissioner of natural resources to use the available funds for the most efficient and effective management of nongame wildlife.

Sec. 5. No senator ~~or representative~~ shall hold any other office under the authority of the United States or the state of Minnesota, except that of postmaster or of notary public. If elected or appointed to another office, a legislator may resign from the legislature by tendering his resignation to the governor.

Sec. 6. Senators ~~and Representatives~~ shall be qualified voters of the state, and shall have resided one year in the state and six months immediately preceding the election in the district from which elected. ~~Each house~~ The senate shall be the judge of the election returns and eligibility of its own members. Sec. 7. ~~Each house~~ The senate may determine the rules of its proceedings, sit upon its own adjournment, punish its members for disorderly behavior, and with the concurrence of two-thirds expel a member; but no member shall be expelled a second time for the same offense.

Sec. 9. The compensation of senators ~~and representatives~~ shall be prescribed by law. No increase of compensation shall take effect during the period for which the members of the existing house of representatives may have been elected.

Sec. 10. The members of ~~each house~~ the senate in all cases except treason, felony and breach of the peace, shall be privileged from arrest during the

Sec. 11. Two or more members of ~~either house~~ the senate may dissent and protest against any act or resolution which they think injurious to the public or to any individual and have the reason of their dissent entered in the journal.

Sec. 12. The legislature shall meet at the seat of government in regular session in each biennium at the times prescribed by law for not exceeding a total of 120 legislative days. The legislature shall not meet in regular session, nor in any adjournment thereof, after the first Monday following the third Saturday in May of any year. After meeting at a time prescribed by law, the legislature may adjourn to another time. "Legislative day" shall be defined by law. A special session of the legislature may be called by the governor on extraordinary occasions.

~~Neither house during a session of the legislature shall adjourn for more than three days (Sundays excepted) nor to any other place than that in which the two houses shall be assembled without the consent of the other house.~~

Sec. 13. A majority of ~~each house~~ the senate constitutes a quorum to transact business, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day and compel the attendance of absent members in the manner and under the penalties it may provide.

Sec. 14. ~~Each house~~ The senate shall be open to the public during its sessions except in cases which in its opinion require secrecy.

Sec. 15. ~~Each house~~ The senate shall elect its presiding officer and other officers as may be provided by law. ~~Both houses~~ The senate shall keep journals of ~~their~~ its proceedings, and from time to time publish the same, and the yeas and nays, when taken on any question, shall be entered in the journals.

~~Sec. 18. All bills for raising revenue shall originate in the house of representatives, but the senate may propose and concur with the amendments as on other bills.~~

Sec. 19. Every bill shall be reported on three different days in ~~each house~~ the senate, unless, in case of urgency, two-thirds of the ~~house where the bill is pending deem~~ senate deems it expedient to dispense with this rule.

If, after reconsideration, two-thirds of ~~that house agree~~ the senate agrees to pass the bill, ~~it shall be sent, together with the governor's objections, to the other house, which shall likewise reconsider it. If approved by two-thirds of that house~~ it becomes a law and shall be deposited in the office of the secretary of state. In such cases the votes ~~of both houses~~ shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the persons voting for or against the bill shall be entered in the journal ~~of each house~~. Any bill not returned by the governor within three days (Sundays excepted) after it is presented to him becomes a law as if he had signed it, unless the legislature by adjournment within that time prevents its return. Any bill passed during the last three days of a session may be presented to the governor during the three days following the day of final adjournment and becomes law if the governor signs and deposits it in the office of the secretary of state within 14 days after the adjournment of the legislature. Any bill passed during the last three days of the session which is not signed and deposited within 14 days after adjournment does not become a law.

If a bill presented to the governor contains several items of appropriation of money, he may veto one or more of the items while approving the bill. At the time he signs the bill the governor shall append to it a statement of the items he vetoes and the vetoed items shall not take effect. If the ~~legislature~~ senate is in session, he shall transmit to the ~~house in which the bill originated~~ senate a copy of the statement, and the items vetoed shall be separately reconsidered. If on reconsideration any item is approved by two-thirds of the ~~members elected to each house~~ senate, it is a part of the law notwithstanding the objections of the governor.

Sec. 24. Each order, resolution or vote ~~requiring the concurrence~~ of the ~~two houses~~ senate except such as relate to the business or adjournment of the legislature shall be presented to the governor and is subject to his veto as prescribed in case of a bill.

SPECIAL ORDER

The question recurred on H.F. No. 1035.

H.F. No. 1035: A bill for an act relating to frauds; fixing conditions for the legal determination of fraud in property transfers; enacting the uniform fraudulent transfer act; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 513; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1984, sections 513.20; 513.21; 513.22; 513.23; 513.24; 513.25; 513.26; 513.27; 513.28; 513.29; 513.30; 513.31; and 513.32.

Mr. Sieloff moved to amend H.F. No. 1035, as amended by the Committee on Judiciary, adopted by the Senate February 24, 1986, as follows:

"Sec. 11. [518.581] [SPOUSAL AND PENSION BENEFIT.]

Subdivision 1. [AWARD OF BENEFIT.] If a current or former public employee's marriage is dissolved, the court may order the employee, the public retirement plan, or both, to pay amounts as part of the division of vested pension rights which the court may make under section 518.58, or as an award of maintenance in the form of a percentage, periodic, or other payments or in the form of a fixed dollar amount. The court may, as part of the order, award a spouse all or part of any survivor benefit. Under no circumstances may the pension fund be required to pay more than the equivalent of one surviving spouse benefit, regardless of the number of spouses or former spouses who may be sharing in a portion of the total benefit.

Subd. 2. [PAYMENT OF FUNDS BY RETIREMENT PLAN.] In any case where the court has ordered that a spouse has an interest in a public pension plan, the court may order the public retirement plan to withhold payment of any refund upon termination of employment or lump sum distribution to the extent of the spouse's interest in the plan.

Subd. 3. [NOTICE TO FORMER SPOUSE.] A former spouse must be notified by a public retirement system of any application by the employee for a refund of retirement benefits if the former spouse has filed with the employee's pension fund:

(1) a copy of the court order determining that the former spouse has an interest in the pension fund;

(2) the name and last known address of the employee; and

(3) the name and address of the former spouse.

Subd. 4. [COMPLIANCE WITH COURT ORDERS.] Except as provided in this section, a public pension plan shall within 30 days comply with any court order, including a withholding order, issued by a court having jurisdiction over dissolution of marriage that is served on the pension plan, provided that the order or other writing states the name, last known address of the payee, and name and address of the former spouse. In the event that the court order or withholding order requires the pension plan to perform an act or pay an amount that is inconsistent with the terms of the pension plan or an election made by the plan participant, the pension plan shall, within 30 days after service of the order, either comply with the order or, in writing, notify the former spouse claiming an interest in the pension plan of the particular reasons why it is unable to comply with the order. After receiving the notice, the former spouse claiming an interest in the pension plan may commence an action against the pension plan, or move to amend the decree of dissolution to bring it into conformity with the terms of the pension plan, or do both. After commencement of an action against the pension plan or service on the pension plan of a notice of motion to amend the decree of dissolution, and pending an order of the court, the pension plan may not distribute to the plan participant or other beneficiary any benefit or portion of a benefit that is claimed by the former spouse.

Subd. 5. [LIMITATION.] Subdivision 1 does not apply unless the order by the court is determined to be a qualified domestic relations order.

Subd. 6. [PUBLIC PENSION PLAN PROCEDURES.] (a) In the case of any domestic relations order received by a public pension plan:

(1) the plan administrator shall promptly notify the current or former public employee and any other alternate payee of the receipt of such order and the plan's procedures for determining the qualified status of domestic relations orders; and

(2) within a reasonable period after receipt of the order, the plan administrator shall determine whether the order is a qualified domestic relations order and notify the current or former public employee and each alternate payee of such determination.

(b) Each public pension plan shall establish reasonable procedures to determine the qualified status of domestic relations orders and to administer distributions under qualified orders.

During any period in which the issue of whether a domestic relations order is a qualified domestic relations order is being determined by the plan administrator, by a court of competent jurisdiction, or otherwise, the plan administrator shall segregate in a separate account in the plan or in an escrow account the amounts that would have been payable to the alternate payee or payees during that period if the order had been determined to be a qualified domestic relations order.

If within 18 months the order or modification of an order is determined to be a qualified domestic relations order, the plan administrator shall pay the segregated amounts plus any interest to the person or persons entitled to them. If, however, within 18 months, it is determined that the order is not a qualified domestic relations order, or the issue as to whether such order is a qualified domestic relations order is not resolved, then the plan administrator shall pay the segregated amounts plus any interest to the person or persons who would have been entitled to those amounts if there had been no order. A determination after the end of the 18-month period that an order is a qualified domestic relations order must be applied prospectively only.

Subd. 7. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section the following terms have the meanings given in this subdivision.

(a) "Current or former public employee" and "employee" mean an individual who has a vested interest in a public pension plan.

(b) "A public pension plan" is any Minnesota public pension plan or fund which provides pension or retirement coverage for public employees and which provides surviving spouse benefits, including any plan or fund enumerated in section 356.20, subdivision 2, except all local police or salaried firefighters relief associations; or 356.30, subdivision 3, volunteer firefighters relief association, or any retirement or pension plan or fund established, maintained, or supported by the state or any governmental subdivision or public body whose revenues are derived from taxation, fees, assessments, or from other public sources, except a local police and salaried firefighters relief association.

(c) The term "surviving spouse benefit" means (1) a benefit a surviving spouse may be eligible for under the laws and bylaws of the public pension plan, except a local police or salaried firefighters relief association, if the employee dies before retirement, or (2) a benefit selected for or available to a surviving spouse under the laws and bylaws of the public pension plan, except a local police or salaried firefighters relief association, upon the death of the employee after retirement.

(d) The term "alternate payee" means any spouse, former spouse, child, or other dependent of a current or former public employee who is recognized by a domestic relations order as having a right to receive all or part of the benefits payable under a public pension plan with respect to the current or former public employee.

(e) The term "domestic relations order" means any judgment, decree, or order, including approval of a property settlement agreement, which: (1) relates to the provision of alimony payments or marital property rights to a spouse, former spouse, child, or other dependent of a current or former public employee; and (2) is made under a state domestic relations law.

(f) The term "qualified domestic relations order" means a domestic relations order:

(1) that creates or recognizes the existence of an alternate payee's right to, or assigns to an alternate payee the right to, receive all or a portion of the benefits payable with respect to a current or former public employee under a public pension plan; and

(2) that specifies:

(i) the name and last known mailing address, if any, of the current or former public employee and the name and mailing address of each alternate payee covered by the order;

(ii) the amount or percentage of the current or former public employee's benefit to be paid by the public pension plan to each alternate payee, and the manner in which the amount or percentage is to be determined;

(iii) the number of payments or period to which the order applies;

(iv) each public pension plan to which the order applies;

(v) that the public pension plan is not required to provide any type or form of benefit, or any option, not otherwise provided under the plan;

(vi) that the public pension plan is not required to provide increased benefits (determined on the basis of actuarial value); and

(vii) that payment of benefits to an alternate payee is not required if the benefits are required to be paid to another alternate payee under another order previously determined to be a qualified domestic relations order.

Subd. 8. [EXCLUSION.] None of the provisions of this section shall apply to local police or salaried firefighters relief associations.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 518.64, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [PROPERTY SETTLEMENTS.] A judgment, decree, or order that constitutes a qualifying domestic relations order under section 414(p) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1985, a spousal pension benefit under section 518.581, or a qualifying order under United States Code, title 5, section 8345(j)(1), as amended through December 31, 1985, or is in substantial compliance with any of those laws, may be amended even though the portion of the judgment, decree, or order to be amended constitutes a property settlement if the amendment:

(1) merely requires a pension plan to pay a benefit previously awarded to a former spouse directly to that former spouse;

(2) makes technical changes in the judgment, decree, or order to qualify it as a qualifying domestic relations order spousal pension benefit, or qualifying order, but makes no substantive change that is adverse to either party as to the amount or duration of an award previously made in the judgment, order, or decree; or

(3) is an income withholding order or an amendment to an income withholding order to include a pension plan as a payor.

Nothing in this section grants the court jurisdiction to amend a property settlement if the amendment would substantively change the judgment, order, or decree in a manner that would be detrimental to either party or to another plan beneficiary with accrued or vested rights in the plan. Nothing in this section authorizes the court to order a plan participant or pension plan to pay a benefit before the time that the benefit would otherwise be payable under the terms of the pension plan, nor to require a plan participant to make an election for a particular time, method, or form of benefit payment.

For purposes of this section, "pension plan" means a public or private retirement plan, including a plan qualifying under section 401 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1985, the civil service retirement and disability fund, and a plan or fund established under the laws of Minnesota that receives contributions from moneys derived from taxation, except plans covered by Minnesota Statutes, chapters 69, 423, 423A, 424, or 424A."

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 518.611, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PRIORITY.] An order for withholding under this section or execution or garnishment upon a judgment for child support arrearages or preadjudicated expenses shall have priority over an attachment, execution, garnishment, or wage assignment and shall not be subject to the statutory limitations on amounts levied against the income of the obligor. Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 518.645, is amended to read:

518.645 [FORM OF ORDER.]

Unless otherwise ordered by the court, an order for withholding of support or maintenance payments issued under this chapter shall be substantially in the following form:

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. The sum of _____ per _____, representing child support and/or spousal maintenance, ordered by the Court, shall be withheld from the (Husband/Wife Respondent/Petitioner)'s income on _____ by (his/her) present employer or other payor of funds, _____, and any future employer or other payor of funds, and shall be remitted to: _____, monthly or more frequently, in accordance with the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 518. The file number above and the Obligor's name shall be included with each remittance.

2. An additional amount equal to 20 percent of the amount required to be withheld by paragraph 1 shall be withheld from the income of the Obligor by the employer or payor until the entire arrearage in paragraph 3(b) is paid.

3. The parties are notified that CHILD SUPPORT AND/OR MAINTENANCE WILL BE WITHHELD FROM INCOME ONLY AFTER ALL OF THE FOLLOWING CONDITIONS HAVE BEEN MET:

(a) _____ or the Obligee determines that the Obligor is at least thirty days in arrears in the payment of child support and/or spousal maintenance;

(b) _____ or the Obligee serves written notice of income withholding on the Obligor showing the determination that child support and/or maintenance payments are thirty days in arrears;

(c) Within fifteen days after service of the notice of income withholding, the Obligor fails to move the Court to deny withholding on the grounds that an arrearage of at least 30 days does not exist as of the date of the notice of income withholding or on other grounds limited to mistakes of fact and, ex parte, to stay service of withholding on the employer or other payor of funds until the motion to deny withholding is heard. Within 45 days from the date of the notice of income withholding, the court shall hold the hearing on the motion to deny withholding and notify the parties of its decision; and

(d) Not sooner than 15 days after service of written notice of income withholding on the Obligor, _____ or the Obligee serves a copy of the notice of income withholding and a copy of the Court's withholding order on the employer or other payor of funds, who will then be obligated to withhold payments from income and forward the amount withheld to _____ .

4. The parties and the employer or other payor of funds are further notified that NO EMPLOYER MAY DISCHARGE, SUSPEND, OR OTHERWISE PENALIZE OR DISCIPLINE AN EMPLOYEE BECAUSE THE EMPLOYER MUST WITHHOLD SUPPORT OR MAINTENANCE MONEY. Minnesota Statutes, section 518.611.

5. The payments shall begin to be withheld no later than the first pay period that occurs after 14 days following the date of mailing of the notice to the employer or other payor of funds in paragraph 3(d) and from that date the employer or other payor of funds is liable for amounts required to be withheld.

6. This order for withholding takes priority over any attachment, execution, garnishment, or wage assignment levied against the income of the Obligor. Amounts withheld are not subject to other statutory limitations on amounts levied against the income of the Obligor but must not exceed the maximum permitted under the federal Consumer Credit Protection Act, United States Code, title 15, section 1673(b)(2). In addition, unless the parties otherwise agree, amounts withheld must not exceed 30 percent of the Obligor's net income, as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 518.551, subdivision 5, or 50 percent of the Obligor's net income if the Obligor is more than six months in arrears. If there is more than one withholding order on a single Obligor, the employer or other payor of funds shall put them into effect in the order received, up to the maximum allowed under ~~the Consumer Credit Protection Act~~ this paragraph.

7. When the Obligor's employment is terminated or the periodic payment ends, the employer or other payor of funds is required to notify _____ within 30 days of the termination date. The notice must include the Obligor's home address of record and, if known, the name and address of the Obligor's new employer or other payor of funds.

8. If the Obligee serves the employer or other payor of funds under paragraph 3(d), the Obligee shall also serve the determination and order on _____, together with an application and fee to use collection services.

Guidelines for support for an obligor with a monthly income of $6001 or more shall be the same dollar amounts as provided for in the guidelines for an obligor with a monthly income of $6000.

Net Income defined as:

Total monthly income less	*(1) Federal Income Tax *(2) State Income Tax (3) Social Security Deductions (4) Mandatory Pension Deductions (5) Union Dues (6) Cost of Dependent Health Insurance Coverage (7) Cost of Individual Health/Hospitalization Coverage or an Equivalent Amount for Actual Medical Expenses. (8) Reasonable and Ordinary Expenses in the Conduct of a Trade or Business as defined in the internal revenue code.
*Standard Deductions apply- use of tax tables recommended

(a) The child support payment guidelines take into consideration the following criteria:

(1) all earnings, income, and resources of the obligor including real and personal property;

(2) the basic living needs of the obligor;

(3) the financial needs of the child or children to be supported; and

(4) the amount of the aid to families with dependent children grant for the child or children.

(b) In establishing a support obligation, the court may consider debts owed to private creditors, but only if:

(1) the right to support has not been assigned under section 256.74;

(2) the debt was reasonably incurred for necessary support of the child or obligee or for the necessary generation of income. If the debt was incurred for the necessary generation of income, the court shall consider only the amount of debt that is essential to the continuing generation of income;

(3) the party requesting a departure produces a sworn schedule of the debts, with supporting documentation, showing goods or services purchased, the recipient of them, the amount of the original debt, the outstanding balance, the monthly payment, and the number of months until the debt will be fully paid; and

(4) the court determines that the debt was legitimately incurred for the necessary support of the child or obligee or for the necessary generation of income.

Any schedule prepared under paragraph (b), clause (3), shall contain a statement that the debt will be fully paid after the number of months shown in the schedule, barring emergencies beyond the party's control.

The court shall order child support in accordance with the guidelines and any departure therefrom. Any further departure below the guidelines that is based on a consideration of debts owed to private creditors shall not exceed 18 months in duration, after which the support shall increase automatically to the level ordered by the court. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit one or more step increases in support to reflect debt retirement during the 18-month period.

Where payment of debt is ordered pursuant to this section, the payment shall be ordered to be in the nature of child support.

(c) Previous support orders and maintenance orders may be considered if the obligor is paying them.

(d) Nothing shall preclude the court from receiving evidence on the above factors to determine if the guidelines should be exceeded or modified in a particular case.

(e) The above guidelines are binding in each case unless the court makes express findings of fact as to the reason for departure below the guidelines in that case in which the court orders support that so deviates from the guidelines. It may also increase the amount of child support by more than the guidelines without making express findings by agreement of the parties or by making further findings."

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON S.F. NO. 1950

A bill for an act relating to taxation; limiting application of the open space property tax law to facilities that do not discriminate on the basis of sex; amending Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 273.112, subdivisions 3 and 4, and by adding a subdivision.

March 15, 1986

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

The Honorable David M. Jennings
Speaker of the House of Representatives

We, the undersigned conferees for S.F. No. 1950, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House recede from its amendments and that S.F. No. 1950 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 273.112, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Real estate shall be entitled to valuation and tax deferment under this section only if it is:

(a) actively and exclusively devoted to golf, skiing or archery or firearms range recreational use or uses and other recreational uses carried on at the establishment;

(b) five acres in size or more, except in the case of an archery or firearms range; ~~and~~

(c) (1) operated by private individuals and open to the public; or

(2) operated by firms or corporations for the benefit of employees or guests; or

(3) operated by private clubs having a membership of 50 or more, provided that the club does not discriminate in membership requirements or selection on the basis of sex; and

(d) made available, in the case of real estate devoted to golf, for use without discrimination on the basis of sex during the time when the facility is open to use by the public or by members, except that use for golf may be restricted on the basis of sex no more frequently than one, or part of one, weekend each calendar month for each sex and no more than two, or part of two, weekdays each week for each sex.

For purposes of this subdivision and subdivision 7a, discrimination means a pattern or course of conduct and not linked to an isolated incident.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 273.112, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. The value of any real estate described in subdivision 3 shall upon timely application by the owner, in the manner provided in subdivision 6, be determined solely with reference to its appropriate private outdoor, recreational, open space and park land classification and value notwithstanding ~~Minnesota Statutes 1967,~~ sections 272.03, subdivision 8, and 273.11. In determining such value for ad valorem tax purposes the assessor shall not consider the value such real estate would have if it were converted to commercial, industrial, residential or seasonal residential use.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 273.112, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. Application for deferment of taxes and assessment under this section shall be made at least 60 days prior to January 2 of each year. Such application shall be filed with the assessor of the taxing district in which the real property is located on such form as may be prescribed by the commissioner of revenue. The assessor may require proof by affidavit or ~~otherwise~~ other written verification that the property qualifies under subdivision 3. In the case of property operated by private clubs pursuant to subdivision 3, clause (c)(3), in order to qualify for valuation and tax deferment under this section, the taxpayer must submit to the assessor proof by affidavit or other written verification that the bylaws or rules and regulations of the club meet the eligibility requirements provided under this section. The signed affidavit or other written verification shall be sufficient demonstration of eligibility for the assessor unless the county attorney determines otherwise.

The county assessor shall refer any question regarding the eligibility for valuation and deferment under this section to the county attorney for advice and opinion under section 388.051, subdivision 1. Upon request of the county attorney, the taxpayer shall furnish information that the county attorney considers necessary in order to determine eligibility under this section.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 273.112, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7a. Notwithstanding subdivision 7, when real property ceases to qualify under subdivision 3 because of failure to comply with prohibitions against discrimination on the basis of sex, payment of additional taxes imposed under subdivision 7 is not required.

Sec. 5. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1, 3, and 4 are effective for taxes levied in 1986, payable in 1987, and thereafter. The assessor of any taxing district that contains property that has been valued under Minnesota Statutes, section 273.112, for taxes levied in 1985, payable in 1986, shall notify the owner of that property by May 1, 1986, regarding the requirements imposed by this act. Notwithstanding section 273.112, subdivision 6, in order to qualify for the valuation and tax deferment for the 1986 assessment, the taxpayer of the property operated by private clubs pursuant to subdivision 3, clause (c)(3), must submit an affidavit or other written verification to the assessor by October 1, 1986, stipulating that the bylaws or rules and regulations of the private club will meet the eligibility provisions of this act by December 31, 1986."

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON S.F. NO. 31

A bill for an act relating to motorboat safety; requiring liability insurance on watercraft; strengthening prohibitions and penalties regarding operation of motorboat while under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance; providing a penalty; amending Minnesota Statutes 1984, sections 361.02, subdivision 9; 361.03, by adding subdivisions; and 361.12; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 361.

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

The Honorable David M. Jennings
Speaker of the House of Representatives

We, the undersigned conferees for S.F. No. 31, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House recede from its amendments and that S.F. No. 31 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 361.02, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. "Underway or in use" means any watercraft in operation or use ~~when not~~ unless it is securely fastened to a dock or other permanent mooring. As used in section 361.12 and section 3, "underway or in use" means any motorboat in operation unless it is fastened to a dock or other mooring, anchored, or beached.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 361.12, is amended to read:

361.12 [ALCOHOL, DRUGS, PHYSICAL OR MENTAL DISABILITY.]

Subdivision 1. [ACTS PROHIBITED.] (a) No person shall operate or be in ~~actual~~ physical control of any ~~watercraft~~ motorboat while underway or in use on the waters of this state while under the influence of:

(1) alcohol, as provided in section 169.121, subdivision 1 ~~or~~, clauses (a) and (d);

(2) a controlled substance, as defined in section 152.01, subdivision 4*; or*

(3) a combination of any two or more of the elements named in clauses (1) and (2).

(b) No owner or other person having charge or control of any ~~watercraft~~ motorboat shall ~~knowingly~~ authorize or permit any ~~person who~~ individual the person knows or has reason to believe is under the influence of alcohol~~,~~ or a controlled substance, as provided under paragraph (a), to operate ~~such watercraft~~ the motorboat while underway or in use on the waters of this state.

~~Subd. 2.~~ (c) No owner or other person having charge or control of any ~~watercraft~~ motorboat shall knowingly authorize or permit any person, who by reason of any physical or mental disability is incapable of operating ~~such watercraft~~ the motorboat, to operate ~~such watercraft~~ the motorboat while underway or in use on the waters of this state.

Subd. 2. [ARREST.] Conservation officers of the department of natural resources, sheriffs, sheriff's deputies, and other peace officers may arrest a person for a violation under subdivision 1 without a warrant upon probable cause, if the violation was committed in the officer's presence. If the violation did not occur in the officer's presence, the officer may arrest the person if the person was involved in a motorboat accident resulting in death, personal injury, or property damage.

Subd. 3. [PRELIMINARY SCREENING TEST.] When an officer authorized under subdivision 2 to make arrests has reason to believe from the manner in which a person is operating, controlling, or acting upon departure from a motorboat, or has operated or been in control of a motorboat, that the operator may be violating or has violated subdivision 1, paragraph (a), the officer may require the operator to provide a breath sample for a preliminary screening test using a device approved by the commissioner of public safety for this purpose. The results of the preliminary screening test shall be used for the purpose of deciding whether any arrest should be made under this section and whether to require the chemical tests authorized in section 3, but may not be used in any court action except to prove that a test was properly required of an operator pursuant to section 3. Following the preliminary screening test, additional tests may be required of the operator as provided under section 3. Any operator who refuses a breath sample is subject to the provisions of section 3 unless, in compliance with that section, the operator submits to a blood, breath, or urine test to determine the presence of alcohol or a controlled substance.

Subd. 4. [EVIDENCE.] (a) Upon the trial of any prosecution arising out of acts alleged to have been committed by any person arrested for operating or being in physical control of any motorboat in violation of subdivision 1, paragraph (a), the court may admit evidence of the amount of alcohol or a controlled substance in the person's blood, breath, or urine as shown by an analysis of those items.

(b) For the purposes of this subdivision:

(1) evidence that there was at the time an alcohol concentration of 0.05 or less is prima facie evidence that the person was not under the influence of alcohol;

(2) evidence that there was at the time an alcohol concentration of more than 0.05 and less than 0.10 is relevant evidence in indicating whether or not the person was under the influence of alcohol.

(c) Evidence of the refusal to take a preliminary screening test required under subdivision 3 or a chemical test required under section 3 is admissible into evidence in a prosecution under this section.

(d) This subdivision does not limit the introduction of any other competent evidence bearing upon the question whether or not the person was under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance, including results obtained from partial tests on an infrared breath-testing instrument. A result from a partial test is the measurement obtained by analyzing one adequate breath sample. A sample is adequate if the instrument analyzes the sample and does not indicate the sample is deficient.

Subd. 5. [PENALTIES.] (a) A person who violates any prohibition contained in subdivision 1 is guilty of a misdemeanor; except that a person who violates any prohibition contained in subdivision 1 within five years of a prior conviction under that subdivision or civil liability under section 3, subdivision 2, or within ten years of two or more prior convictions under that subdivision or civil liability under section 3, subdivision 2, is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

(b) A person who operates a motorboat on the waters of this state during the period the person is prohibited from operating any motorboat or after the person's motorboat operator's permit has been revoked, as provided under subdivision 6, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Subd. 6. [OPERATING PRIVILEGES SUSPENDED; REVOKED.] (a) Upon conviction, and in addition to any penalty imposed under subdivision 5, the person is prohibited from operating any motorboat on the waters of this state for a period of 90 days between May 1 and October 31, extending over two consecutive years if necessary.

(b) A person 13 years of age or older but less than 18 years of age who violates any prohibition contained in subdivision 1 shall have his motorboat operator's permit revoked by the commissioner as required by section 361.22, subdivision 2, in addition to any other penalty imposed by the court.

Subd. 7. [DUTIES OF COMMISSIONER.] The court shall promptly forward copies of all convictions and criminal and civil penalties imposed under subdivision 5 and section 3, subdivision 2, to the commissioner. The commissioner shall notify the convicted person of the period during which the person is prohibited from operating a motorboat as provided under subdivision 6 or section 3, subdivision 2. The commissioner shall also periodically circulate to appropriate law enforcement agencies a list of all persons who are prohibited from operating any motorboat or have had their motorboat operator's permits revoked pursuant to subdivision 6 or section 3, subdivision 2.

Subd. 8. [IMMUNITY FROM LIABILITY.] The state or political subdivision which is the employer of an officer authorized under subdivision 2 to make an arrest for violations of subdivision 1 is immune from any liability, civil or criminal, for the care or custody of the motorboat being operated by or in the physical control of the person arrested if the officer acts in good faith and exercises due care.

Sec. 3. [361.121] [MANDATORY TESTING.]

Subdivision 1. [CHEMICAL TESTING.] A person who operates or is in physical control of a motorboat while underway or in use on the waters of this state is required, subject to the provisions of this section, to take or submit to a test of the person's blood, breath, or urine for the purpose of determining the presence and amount of alcohol or a controlled substance. The test shall be administered at the direction of an officer authorized to make arrests under section 361.12, subdivision 2. Taking or submitting to the test is mandatory when requested by an officer who has probable cause to believe the person was operating or in physical control of a motorboat in violation of section 361.12, subdivision 1, paragraph (a), and one of the following conditions exist:

(1) the person has been lawfully placed under arrest for violating section 361.12, subdivision 1, paragraph (a);

(2) the person has been involved in a motorboat accident resulting in property damage, personal injury, or death;

(3) the person has refused to take the preliminary screening test provided for in section 361.12, subdivision 3; or

(4) the screening test was administered and recorded an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more.

Subd. 2. [PENALTIES.] (a) A person who refuses to take a test required under subdivision 1 is subject to a civil penalty not to exceed $700 and, in addition, the person is prohibited from operating any motorboat on the waters of this state for a period of one year.

(b) A person who operates a motorboat on the waters of this state during the period the person is prohibited from operating any motorboat as provided under paragraph (a) is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Subd. 3. [RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS.] At the time a test is requested, the person must be informed:

(1) that Minnesota law requires a person to take a test to determine if the person is under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance;

(2) that a person is subject to a civil penalty not to exceed $700 for refusing to take the test and, in addition, the person is prohibited from operating any motorboat, as provided under subdivision 2, for refusing to take the test;

(3) that if testing is refused it will not affect the person's motor vehicle driver's license;

(4) that if the test is taken and the results indicate that the person is under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance, the person will be subject to criminal penalties and in addition to any other penalties the court may impose, the person's operating privileges will be suspended as provided under section 361.12, subdivision 6, paragraph (a);

(5) that, after submitting to testing, the person has the right to have additional tests made by a person of his own choosing; and

(6) that, if he refused to take a test, the refusal will be offered into evidence against him at trial.

Subd. 4. [REQUIREMENT OF URINE TEST.] Notwithstanding subdivision 1, if there are reasonable and probable grounds to believe there is impairment by a controlled substance which is not subject to testing by a blood or breath test, a urine test may be required even after a blood or breath test has been administered.

Subd. 5. [BREATH TEST USING AN INFRARED BREATH-TESTING INSTRUMENT.] In the case of a breath test administered using an infrared breath-testing instrument, the test shall consist of analyses in the following sequence: one adequate breath sample analysis, one calibration standard analysis, and a second, adequate breath sample analysis. In the case of a test administered using an infrared breath-testing instrument, a sample is adequate if the instrument analyzes the sample and does not indicate the sample is deficient. For purposes of this section, when a test is administered using an infrared breath-testing instrument, failure of a person to provide two separate adequate breath samples in the proper sequence constitutes a refusal to take the test.

Subd. 6. [CONSENT OF PERSON INCAPABLE OF REFUSAL NOT WITHDRAWN.] A person who is unconscious or who is otherwise in a condition rendering the person incapable of refusal is deemed not to have withdrawn the consent provided by subdivision 1 and the test may be given.

Subd. 7. [MANNER OF MAKING TEST; ADDITIONAL TESTS.] Only a physician, medical technician, physician's trained mobile intensive care paramedic, registered nurse, medical technologist, or laboratory assistant acting at the request of a peace officer authorized to make arrests under section 361.12, subdivision 2, may withdraw blood for the purpose of determining the presence of alcohol or controlled substance. This limitation does not apply to the taking of a breath or urine sample. The person tested has the right to have a person of his own choosing administer a chemical test or tests in addition to any administered at the direction of a peace officer; provided, that the additional test sample on behalf of the person is obtained at the place where the person is in custody, after the test administered at the direction of a peace officer, and at no expense to the state. The failure or inability to obtain an additional test or tests by a person shall not preclude the admission in evidence of the test taken at the direction of a peace officer unless the additional test was prevented or denied by the peace officer. The physician, medical technician, physician's trained mobile intensive care paramedic, medical technologist, laboratory assistant, or registered nurse drawing blood at the request of a peace officer for the purpose of determining alcohol concentration shall in no manner be liable in any civil or criminal action except for negligence in drawing the blood. The person administering a breath test shall be fully trained in the administration of breath tests pursuant to training given by the commissioner of public safety.

Sections 1 to 3 are effective May 15, 1986, and apply to offenses committed on or after that date."

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON H.F. NO. 2169

A bill for an act relating to public lands; providing for a procedure to sell state leased lands; providing for maximum lease rates; providing for an endowment fund and the disposition of proceeds of the land acquisition account; permitting Winona county to convey certain real estate to a county agricultural society; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 92.

March 15, 1986

The Honorable David M. Jennings
Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H.F. No. 2169, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendment and that H.F. No. 2169 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 92.46, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PUBLIC CAMP GROUNDS.] (a) The director may designate suitable portions of the state lands withdrawn from sale and not reserved, as provided in section 92.45, as permanent state public camp grounds. The director may have the land surveyed and platted into lots of convenient size, and lease them for cottage and camp purposes under terms and conditions he or she prescribes, subject to the provisions of this section.

(b) A lease may not be made for a term more than 20 years. The lease may allow renewal, from time to time, for additional terms of no longer than 20 years each. The lease may be canceled by the commissioner 90 days after giving the person leasing the land written notice of violation of lease conditions. The lease rate shall be based on the appraised value of leased land as determined by the commissioner of natural resources. The appraised value shall be the value of the leased land without any private improvements and must be comparable to similar land without any improvements within the same county.

(c) By July 1, 1986, the commissioner of natural resources shall adopt rules under chapter 14 to establish procedures for leasing land under this section. The rules shall be subject to review and approval by the commissioners of revenue and administration prior to the initial publication pursuant to chapter 14 and prior to their final adoption. The rules must address at least the following:

(1) method of appraising the property;

(2) determination of lease rates; and

(3) an appeal procedure for both the appraised values and lease rates.

(d) All money received from these leases must be credited to the fund to which the proceeds of the land belong.

Notwithstanding section 16A.125 or any other law to the contrary, 50 percent of the money received from the lease of permanent school fund lands leased pursuant to this subdivision shall be deposited into the permanent school trust fund. However, in fiscal years 1986, 1987, 1988, and 1989 up to 50 percent of the money received from the lease of permanent school fund lands that would otherwise be deposited into the permanent school trust fund may be used to survey lots as required in section 2, subdivision 3. Any money that is not needed to survey lots shall be deposited in the permanent school trust fund.

Sec. 2. [92.67] [SALE PROCEDURE.]

Subdivision 1. [SALE REQUIREMENT.] Notwithstanding section 92.45, at the request of a lessee the commissioner of natural resources shall sell state property bordering public waters that is leased for the purpose of a private cabin under section 92.46 and recommended to be sold under the inventory prepared pursuant to Laws 1985, First Special Session chapter 14, article 17, section 4. Requests for sale must be made prior to July 1, 1991, and the commissioner shall complete all requested sales by July 1, 1992. The lessee making the request may designate the lesser of $500 or the lease payment in the year the request is made to be used as part of the down payment. The sale shall be made in accordance with laws providing for the sale of trust fund land except as modified by the provisions of this section.

Subd. 2. [APPRAISAL.] An appraisal shall be made in accordance with section 92.12, except as modified by this section. The improvements that are owned by the lessee shall be appraised separately.

Subd. 3. [APPOINTMENT OF APPRAISERS; ALLOCATION OF APPRAISAL AND SURVEY COSTS.] (a) The commissioner of natural resources shall provide the lessee requesting the sale with a list of all appraisers approved by the commissioner of administration for the appraisal of property for the state. The lessee requesting the sale may select a person from the list to appraise the property to be sold. If more than one lessee of a cabin site lot leased by the commissioner under section 92.46 within a platted area requests the sale of a leased lot, all requesting lessees may jointly agree upon an appraiser from the list. If the lessee or lessees do not select an appraiser, the commissioner of natural resources shall select the appraiser.

(b) The costs of appraisal shall be allocated by the commissioner to the lots offered for sale and the successful bidder on each lot shall reimburse the commissioner for the appraisal costs allocated to the lot bid upon. If there are no successful bidders on a lot, the commissioner is responsible for the appraisal cost allocated to that lot.

(c) The commissioner shall survey a lot prior to offering it for sale. The commissioner is responsible for the survey cost.

(d) The lessee may stop the sale process after the appraisal but before the sale. The lessee must reimburse the commissioner for the cost of the appraisal if the sale is stopped.

Subd. 4. [TIMING OF SALES.] (a) The commissioner shall offer lakeshore cabin site lots for sale pursuant to written request and in accordance with the following schedule:

(1) as to requests received before January 1, 1987, the sale shall be held in June, July, or August 1987;

(2) as to requests received each calendar year after December 31, 1986, the sale shall be held in June, July, or August of the year after the request is received.

(b) The last sales shall be held in 1992. Lots not sold the first year offered may be reoffered in a succeeding year, following reappraisal if it is determined necessary by the commissioner.

(c) If a person other than the lessee purchases the leased lakeshore cabin site, the purchaser must make payment in full to the lessee at the time of the sale for the appraised value of any improvements. Failure of a successful bidder to comply with this provision voids the sale and the property must be rebid, if possible, at the same sale.

Subd. 5. [TERMS OF SALE.] For the sale of the public lands under this section, the purchaser shall pay the state ten percent of the purchase price at the time of the sale. The balance must be paid in no more than 20 equal annual installments. The interest rate on the remaining balance shall be eight percent per year.

Subd. 6. [SALE PROCEEDS.] After deducting the costs of the sale, excluding survey costs, from the purchase price, the balance shall be invested as provided by the Minnesota Constitution, article XI, section 8.

Sec. 3. [92.68] [MISCELLANEOUS.]

Subdivision 1. [SHORELINE INCLUDED.] Notwithstanding section 92.45, the shoreline of leased sites sold under section 2 is not reserved for public travel.

Subd. 2. [LOCAL ZONING.] For the purpose of local zoning ordinances, land sold under section 2 shall be treated as if purchased at the time the state first leased the sites.

Subd. 3. [ROAD ACCESS.] Rights of access across state property to the lots offered for sale that are in existence at the time of sale, and not included in the sale, may not be terminated by the commissioner without the consent of the purchasers of the lots or their successors in interest. The commissioner may impose a fee for the access rights in the same manner as for other similar accesses except that the commissioner may not impose a fee for access rights where no fee is now being charged.

Sec. 4. [92.69] [ENDOWMENT ACCOUNT.]

Subdivision 1. [PROCEEDS OF LAND ACQUISITION ACCOUNT.] To ensure educational opportunities provided by Minnesota scientific and natural areas as described in section 86A.05, subdivision 5, are adequately available for present and future generations, the proceeds received under sections 1 to 3 that are credited to the land acquisition account under section 94.165 must be spent on scientific and natural areas.

Subd. 2. [ACCOUNT.] (a) A natural areas legacy endowment account is established in the state treasury. The commissioner of natural resources shall accept private contributions for educational opportunities provided by scientific and natural areas and deposit the contributions in the account. The principal deposited in the account shall be retained in the endowment account.

(b) The interest from the principal may be spent by the commissioner of natural resources for the protection, management, and inventory of lands with rare and endangered species or undisturbed plant communities that qualify as state scientific and natural areas under section 86A.05, subdivision 5.

Sec. 5. [WINONA COUNTY LAND SALE.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY.] Notwithstanding any contrary provision of Minnesota Statutes, section 373.01 or other law, Winona county may sell and convey the real estate described in this section for a nominal consideration to a county agricultural society that owns adjoining property and conducts a county fair on it.

Subd. 2. [DESCRIPTION.] That part of the South Half of the Northwest Quarter and the North Half of the Southwest Quarter, of Section 19, Township 106 North, Range 10 West of the Fifth Principal Meridian, bounded and described as follows: Commencing at a point on the West line of Lot 65 in Ives and Fox's Addition to St. Charles, distant 200 feet Northeasterly, measured at right angles, from the center line of the main track of the Winona and South Western Railway Company (later the Wisconsin Minnesota and Pacific Rail Road Company, the Chicago Great Western Railway Company, now the Chicago and North Western Transportation Company), as said main track center line was originally located and established across said Section 19; thence Northwesterly parallel with said original main track center line a distance of 550 feet to the point of beginning of the parcel of land herein described; thence continuing Northwesterly parallel with said original main track center line to a point on the East and West Quarter line of said Section 19; thence Northwesterly along a straight line to a point of tangency with a line parallel with and distant 50 feet Northerly, measured radially, from said original main track center line; thence Westerly parallel with said original main track center line to a point distant 50 feet Northeasterly, measured radially, from the center line of the main track of the Chicago and North Western Transportation Company (formerly the Winona and St. Peter Railroad Company), as said main track is now located; thence Southeasterly parallel with said last described main track center line to a point distant 10 feet Northerly, measured radially, from the center line of the most Northerly side track of said Transportation Company, as said side track is now located; thence Easterly parallel with said side track center line to a point on a line drawn at right angles to said original (Winona and South Western Railway Company) main track center line through the point of beginning; thence Northwesterly along said last described right angle line to the point of beginning.

307.08 [DAMAGES; ILLEGAL MOLESTATION OF HUMAN REMAINS; BURIALS; CEMETERIES; PENALTY.]

Subdivision 1. It is a declaration and statement of legislative intent that all human burials and human skeletal remains shall be accorded equal treatment and respect for human dignity without reference to their ethnic origins, cultural backgrounds, or religious affiliations. The provisions of this section shall apply to all human burials or human skeletal remains found on or in all public or private lands or waters in Minnesota.

Subd. 2. A person who intentionally, willfully, ~~or~~ and knowingly destroys, mutilates, injures, or removes human skeletal remains or human burials, ~~or~~ is guilty of a felony. A person who intentionally, willfully, or knowingly removes any tombstone, monument, or structure placed in any public or private cemetery or unmarked human burial ground, or any fence, railing, or other work erected for protection or ornament, or any tree, shrub, or plant or grave goods and artifacts within the limits of the cemetery or burial ground, and a person who, without authority from the trustees, state archaeologist, or Indian affairs intertribal board, discharges any firearms upon or over the grounds of any public or private cemetery or authenticated and identified Indian burial ground, is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Subd. 3a. The state archaeologist shall authenticate all burial sites for purposes of this section and may enter on property for the purpose of authenticating burial sites. Only after obtaining written permission from the property owner or lessee, descendants of persons buried in burial sites covered by this section may enter the burial sites for the purpose of conducting religious ceremonies. This right of entry must not unreasonably burden property owners or unnecessarily restrict their use of the property.

Subd. 4. The state shall retain the services of a qualified professional archaeologist, approved by the state archaeologist and the Indian affairs ~~intertribal board~~ council, for the purpose of ~~authenticating and identifying~~ gathering information to authenticate or identify Indian burial grounds when requested by a concerned scientific or contemporary Indian ethnic group, when Indian burials are known or suspected to exist on public lands or waters controlled by the state or political subdivision.

Subd. 5. The cost of authentication, identification ~~and~~, marking, and rescue of unmarked or unidentified burial grounds or burials shall be the responsibility of the state.

Subd. 6. The size, description and information on the signs must be approved by the Minnesota state historical society.

Subd. 7. All unidentified human remains or burials found outside of platted, recorded, or identified cemeteries and ~~dating prior to 1886 A.D.~~ in contexts which indicate antiquity greater than 50 years shall be dealt with according to the provisions of this section. If such burials ~~do~~ are not ~~contain manufactured trade goods or can be established to date prior to 1700 A.D.~~ Indian or their ethnic identity cannot be ascertained, as determined by ~~a qualified professional~~ the state archaeologist, they shall be dealt with in accordance with provisions established by the state archaeologist. If such burials ~~date after 1700 A.D.~~ are Indian, as determined by ~~a qualified professional~~ the state archaeologist, efforts shall be made by the state archaeologist and the Indian affairs ~~intertribal board~~ council to ascertain their tribal identity. If their probable tribal identity can be determined, such remains shall at the discretion of the state archaeologist and Indian affairs ~~intertribal board~~ council, be turned over to contemporary tribal leaders for disposition. If it is deemed desirable by the state archaeologist or the Indian affairs ~~intertribal board~~ council, such remains shall be studied by a qualified professional archaeologist before being delivered to the tribal leaders. If tribal identity cannot be determined, the Indian remains must be dealt with in accordance with provisions established by the state archaeologist and the Indian affairs council.

Subd. 8. No authenticated and identified Indian burial ground may be relocated unless the request to relocate is approved by the Indian affairs intertribal board. When the Indian burial ground is located on public lands or waters, the cost of removal is the responsibility of and shall be paid by the state or political subdivision controlling the lands or waters. If large Indian burial grounds are involved, efforts shall be made by the state to purchase and protect them instead of removing them to another location.

Subd. 9. The department of natural resources, the department of transportation, and all other state agencies and local governmental units whose activities may be affected, shall cooperate with the state archaeologist and the Indian affairs intertribal board to carry out the provisions of this section.

''Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 168.041, is amended to read:

168.041 [IMPOUNDING REGISTRATION PLATES AND CERTIFICATES.]

Subdivision 1. When any person is convicted of driving a motor vehicle after the suspension or revocation of the ~~drivers~~ driver's license or driving privileges of such person, the court shall require the registration plates and registration certificates of any motor vehicle involved in such violation owned by such person or registered in his name to be surrendered to the court. Upon surrender thereof the court shall issue a receipt therefor.

If the violator is not the owner of such motor vehicle, the court shall require the registration plates and the registration certificate of any motor vehicle used by the violator, with the permission of the owner who had knowledge of the fact that the violator's drivers license had been revoked or suspended prior to the commission of the offense, to be surrendered to the court.

Subd. 2. If any person is convicted of violating any law or municipal ordinance, except parking laws or ordinances, regulating the operation of motor vehicles on the streets or highways, and the record of ~~such~~ the person so convicted shows a previous conviction for driving after suspension or revocation of his driver's license or driving privileges, the court may direct the commissioner of public safety to suspend the driver's license of ~~such~~ the person for not exceeding one year. The court may also require the registration plates and registration certificates of any motor vehicles owned by the violator or registered in his name to be surrendered to the court.

Subd. 3. Except as otherwise provided in subdivision 3a, if a person is convicted of any offense which makes mandatory the revocation of the ~~drivers~~ driver's license of such person, or is convicted of driving a motor vehicle without having a valid driver's license in force, the court may require the registration plates and registration certificates of any motor vehicle owned by such person or any motor vehicles registered in his name to be surrendered to the court.

Subd. 3a. If a person's driver's license or driving privileges are revoked pursuant to a third violation of section 169.121 or 169.123 within five years, or a fourth or subsequent violation of section 169.121 or 169.123 within ten years, the court shall require the registration plates and registration certificates of any motor vehicle involved in the violation and owned by or registered in the name of the violator, including vehicles registered jointly in the name of the violator and the violator's spouse, to be surrendered to the court. An impoundment order must be issued under this subdivision when the person appears in court on any criminal charge or civil driver's license matter arising out of the incident resulting in the most recent license revocation. If no criminal charge or civil license matter is initiated in court, the attorney general may initiate a registration plate and certificate impoundment proceeding, requesting an impoundment order under this subdivision. This proceeding shall be brought in municipal or county court in the jurisdiction where the violation of section 169.121 or 169.123 occurred.

Subd. 4. ~~Except as provided in subdivision 6 or subdivision 7, the court shall retain custody of the surrendered plates and certificates~~ Any registration plates surrendered to the court pursuant to this section must be destroyed by the court. Any registration certificates surrendered to the court must be forwarded to the registrar of motor vehicles by the court. Except as provided in subdivision 5a, 6, or 7, no new registration plates may be issued to the person, violator, or owner until such time as the ~~drivers~~ driver's license of the person, violator, or owner has been reissued or reinstated.

Subd. 5. At the time of ordering the surrender of the registration plates and registration certificates of ~~a~~ the person, violator, or owner, the court shall notify the registrar of motor vehicles of that fact. ~~Except as provided in subdivision 6 or subdivision 7, no new or duplicate registration plates or new registration certificates shall be issued to such violator or owner until his plates and certificates are returned to him by the court.~~ The registration plates must be destroyed by the court. When the registration plates are destroyed, the court shall notify the registrar of motor vehicles of that fact.

Subd. 5a. If the driver's license revocation which is the basis for a registration plate and certificate impoundment order is rescinded, upon application to the registrar of motor vehicles, the person whose registration plates and certificates have been impounded must receive new plates and the certificate for the impounded vehicle at no cost. The application must include a copy of the order rescinding the driver's license revocation.

Subd. 6. Any such person, violator, or owner may apply to the ~~registrar of motor vehicles~~ court which ordered the surrender of registration plates and certificates for new registration plates which shall bear a special series number which may be readily identified by traffic law enforcement officers. ~~A fee of $5 shall accompany the application. The registrar of motor vehicles shall forthwith notify the court of such application. The court may return the registration certificate of such violator or owner to the registrar of motor vehicles, together with its consent to the issuance of such registration plates to such violator or owner. Thereupon the registrar of motor vehicles shall~~ ~~issue such new registration plates.~~ The court may authorize the issuance of special plates if (1) a member of the person's, violator's, or owner's household has a valid driver's license, or (2) the person, violator, or owner has a limited license issued pursuant to section 171.30. If the court authorizes the issuance of special plates, it shall notify the registrar of motor vehicles and the registrar must issue the special plates upon payment of a $100 fee for each vehicle for which special plates are requested. Until the ~~drivers~~ driver's license of such person, violator, or owner is reinstated or reissued, any new registration plates issued to him or to an owner whose plates have been ~~impounded~~ ordered surrendered shall bear a special series number.

Subd. 7. If ~~an~~ the owner wishes to sell a motor vehicle during the time its registration plates and registration certificate ~~are impounded~~ have been ordered surrendered or during the time its registration plates bear a special series number, he may apply to the court which ~~impounded~~ ordered the surrender of such plates and certificate, for consent to transfer title to the motor vehicle. If the court is satisfied that the proposed sale is in good faith and for a valid consideration, that the owner will thereby be deprived of the custody and control of the motor vehicle, and that the sale is not for the purpose of circumventing the provisions of this section, it may certify its consent to the registrar of motor vehicles ~~and return the impounded registration plates and certificates. If during~~ The registrar shall then transfer the registration certificate to the new owner upon proper application and shall issue new registration plates to the new owner. After the ~~time the~~ registration plates and certificate of registration ~~are impounded~~ have been surrendered to the court pursuant to this section, if the title to said motor vehicle is transferred by the foreclosure of a chattel mortgage, the cancelation of a conditional sales contract, a sale upon execution, or by decree or order of a court of competent jurisdiction, the court shall order the ~~license plates and~~ registration certificate surrendered to the new owner ~~and notify the registrar of motor vehicles of such action~~. The registrar of motor vehicles shall then transfer the registration ~~plates and registration~~ certificates to the new owner and shall issue new registration plates to the new owner.

Subd. 8. Nothing contained in this section is intended to change or modify any provision of this chapter, with respect to the taxation of motor vehicles or the time within which the taxes thereon ~~shall~~ must be paid.

Subd. 9. Any person who fails to surrender any ~~impounded~~ registration plates or registration certificates to the court upon demand pursuant to this section or who operates any motor vehicle on a street or highway at a time when a court has ordered the surrender of its registration plates and registration certificate is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 169.121, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CRIME.] It is a misdemeanor for any person to drive, operate or be in physical control of any motor vehicle within this state or upon the ice of any boundary water of this state:

(a) when the person is under the influence of alcohol;

(b) when the person is under the influence of a controlled substance, as defined in section 152.01, subdivision 4;

(c) when the person is under the influence of a combination of any two or more of the elements named in clauses (a) ~~and~~, (b), and (f);

(d) when the person's alcohol concentration is 0.10 or more; ~~or~~

(e) when the person's alcohol concentration as measured within two hours of the time of driving is 0.10 or more*; or*

(f) when the person is under the influence of any substance that affects the nervous system, brain, or muscles of the person so as to substantially impair the person's ability to drive or operate the motor vehicle in the manner that an ordinary, prudent, and cautious person using reasonable care would drive or operate under like conditions.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 169.121, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EVIDENCE.] Upon the trial of any prosecution arising out of acts alleged to have been committed by any person arrested for driving, operating, or being in physical control of a motor vehicle in violation of subdivision 1, the court may admit evidence of the amount of alcohol or a controlled or other substance in the person's blood, breath, or urine as shown by an analysis of those items.

For the purposes of this subdivision:

(a) evidence that there was at the time an alcohol concentration of 0.05 or less is prima facie evidence that the person was not under the influence of alcohol;

(b) evidence that there was at the time an alcohol concentration of more than 0.05 and less than 0.10 is relevant evidence in indicating whether or not the person was under the influence of alcohol.

Evidence of the refusal to take a test is admissible into evidence in a prosecution under this section or an ordinance in conformity with it.

If proven by a preponderance of the evidence, it shall be an affirmative defense to a violation of subdivision 1, clause (e), that the defendant consumed a sufficient quantity of alcohol after the time of actual driving, operating, or physical control of a motor vehicle and before the administration of the evidentiary test to cause the defendant's alcohol concentration to exceed 0.10. Provided, that this evidence may not be admitted unless notice is given to the prosecution prior to the omnibus or pretrial hearing in the matter.

The foregoing provisions do not limit the introduction of any other competent evidence bearing upon the question whether or not the person ~~was under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance~~ violated this section, including tests obtained more than two hours after the alleged violation and results obtained from partial tests on an infrared breath-testing instrument. A result from a partial test is the measurement obtained by analyzing one adequate breath sample, as defined in section 169.123, subdivision 2b, paragraph (b).

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 169.121, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [HABITUAL OFFENDER PENALTIES.] A person convicted of violating this section or an ordinance in conformity with it within ten years of two or more prior convictions under this section, section 169.129, an ordinance in conformity with either of them, or a statute or ordinance from another state in conformity with either of them, must be sentenced, subject to the maximum sentence authorized by subdivision 3, to compulsory attendance at a chemical dependency program approved by the commissioner of public safety, and either or both of the following:

(1) to a minimum term of imprisonment of not less than 30 days; or

(2) to payment of a fine of not less than $1,000.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 169.121, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PRELIMINARY SCREENING TEST.] When a peace officer has reason to believe from the manner in which a person is driving, operating, controlling, or acting upon departure from a motor vehicle, or has driven, operated, or controlled a motor vehicle, that the driver may be violating or has violated subdivision 1, he may require the driver to provide a sample of his breath for a preliminary screening test using a device approved by the commissioner of public safety for this purpose. The results of this preliminary screening test shall be used for the purpose of deciding whether an arrest should be made and whether to require the tests authorized in section 169.123, but shall not be used in any court action except to prove that a test was properly required of a person pursuant to section 169.123, subdivision 2. Following the screening test additional tests may be required of the driver pursuant to the provisions of section 169.123.

The driver who refuses to furnish a sample of his breath is subject to the provisions of section 169.123 unless, in compliance with section 169.123, he submits to a blood, breath or urine test to determine the presence of alcohol or a controlled or other substance in violation of subdivision 1.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 169.123, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [IMPLIED CONSENT; CONDITIONS; ELECTION AS TO TYPE OF TEST.] (a) Any person who drives, operates, or is in physical control of a motor vehicle within this state or upon the ice of any boundary water of this state consents, subject to the provisions of this section and section 169.121, to a chemical test of his blood, breath, or urine for the purpose of determining the presence of alcohol or a controlled or other substance in violation of section 169.121, subdivision 1. The test shall be administered at the direction of a peace officer. The test may be required of a person when an officer has probable cause to believe the person was driving, operating, or in physical control of a motor vehicle in violation of section 169.121 and one of the following conditions exist: (1) the person has been lawfully placed under arrest for violation of section 169.121, or an ordinance in conformity with it; or (2) the person has been involved in a motor vehicle accident or collision resulting in property damage, personal injury, or death; or (3) the person has refused to take the screening test provided for by section 169.121, subdivision 6; or (4) the screening test was administered and recorded an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more.

(b) At the time a test is requested, the person shall be informed:

(1) that Minnesota law requires the person to take a test to determine if the person is under the influence of alcohol or a controlled or other substance;

(2) that if testing is refused, the person's right to drive will be revoked for a minimum period of one year or, if the person is under the age of 18 years, for a period of one year or until he or she reaches the age of 18 years, whichever is greater;

(3) that if a test is taken and the results indicate that the person is under the influence of alcohol or a controlled or other substance, the person will be subject to criminal penalties and the person's right to drive may be revoked for a minimum period of 90 days or, if the person is under the age of 18 years, for a period of six months or until he or she reaches the age of 18 years, whichever is greater;

(4) that after submitting to testing, the person has the right to consult with an attorney and to have additional tests made by a person of his own choosing; and

(5) that if he refuses to take a test, the refusal will be offered into evidence against him at trial.

(c) The peace officer who requires a test pursuant to this subdivision may direct whether the test shall be of blood, breath, or urine. However, if the officer directs that the test shall be of a person's blood or urine, the person may choose whether the test shall be of his blood or urine.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 169.123, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [REQUIREMENT OF URINE TEST.] Notwithstanding subdivision 2, if there are reasonable and probable grounds to believe there is impairment by a controlled or other substance which is not subject to testing by a blood or breath test, a urine test may be required even after a blood or breath test has been administered.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 169.123, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [MANNER OF MAKING TEST; ADDITIONAL TESTS.] Only a physician, medical technician, physician's trained mobile intensive care paramedic, registered nurse, medical technologist or laboratory assistant acting at the request of a peace officer may withdraw blood for the purpose of determining the presence of alcohol or a controlled or other substance in violation of section 169.121, subdivision 1. This limitation does not apply to the taking of a breath or urine sample. The person tested has the right to have a person of his own choosing administer a chemical test or tests in addition to any administered at the direction of a peace officer; provided, that the additional test sample on behalf of the person is obtained at the place where the person is in custody, after the test administered at the direction of a peace officer, and at no expense to the state. The failure or inability to obtain an additional test or tests by a person shall not preclude the admission in evidence of the test taken at the direction of a peace officer unless the additional test was prevented or denied by the peace officer. The physician, medical technician, physician's trained mobile intensive care paramedic, medical technologist, laboratory assistant or registered nurse drawing blood at the request of a peace officer for the purpose of determining alcohol concentration shall in no manner be liable in any civil or criminal action except for negligence in drawing the blood. The person administering a breath test shall be fully trained in the administration of breath tests pursuant to training given by the commissioner of public safety.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 169.123, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [REFUSAL; REVOCATION OF LICENSE.] If a person refuses to permit a test, none shall be given, but the peace officer shall report the refusal to the commissioner of public safety and the authority having responsibility for prosecution of misdemeanor offenses for the jurisdiction in which the acts occurred. A refusal to submit to an alcohol concentration test does not constitute a violation of section 609.50, unless the refusal was accompanied by force or violence or the threat of force or violence. If a person submits to a test and the test results indicate an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more, the results of the test shall be reported to the commissioner of public safety and to the authority having responsibility for prosecution of misdemeanor offenses for the jurisdiction in which the acts occurred.

Upon certification by the peace officer that there existed probable cause to believe the person had been driving, operating, or in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or a controlled or other substance and that the person refused to submit to a test, the commissioner of public safety shall revoke the person's license or permit to drive, or his nonresident operating privilege, for a period of one year. If the person refusing to submit to testing is under the age of 18 years, the commissioner shall revoke the person's license or permit to drive, or his or her nonresident operating privilege, for a period of one year or until the person reaches the age of 18 years, whichever is greater. Upon certification by the peace officer that there existed probable cause to believe the person had been driving, operating or in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or a controlled or other substance and that the person submitted to a test and the test results indicate an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more, the commissioner of public safety shall revoke the person's license or permit to drive, or his nonresident operating privilege, for a period of 90 days or, if the person is under the age of 18 years, for a period of six months or until he or she reaches the age of 18 years, whichever is greater.

If the person is a resident without a license or permit to operate a motor vehicle in this state, the commissioner of public safety shall deny to the person the issuance of a license or permit for the same period after the date of the alleged violation as provided herein for revocation, subject to review as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 169.123, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [HEARING.] A hearing under this section shall be before a municipal or county judge, in any county in the judicial district where the alleged offense occurred. The hearing shall be to the court and may be conducted at the same time and in the same manner as hearings upon pre-trial motions in the criminal prosecution under section 169.121, if any. The hearing shall be recorded. The commissioner of public safety shall appear and be represented by the attorney general or through the prosecuting authority for the jurisdiction involved.

The hearing shall be held at the earliest practicable date, and in any event no later than 60 days following the filing of the petition for review. The judicial district administrator shall establish procedures to ensure efficient compliance with the provisions of this subdivision. To accomplish this, the administrator may, whenever possible, consolidate and transfer review hearings among the county courts within the judicial district.

The scope of the hearing shall be limited to the issues of:

(1) whether the peace officer had probable cause to believe the person was driving, operating, or in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or a controlled or other substance, and whether the person was lawfully placed under arrest for violation of section 169.121, or the person was involved in a motor vehicle accident or collision resulting in property damage, personal injury or death, or the person refused to take a screening test provided for by section 169.121, subdivision 6, or the screening test was administered and recorded an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more; and

(2) whether at the time of the request for the test the peace officer informed the person of his rights and the consequences of taking or refusing the test as required by subdivision 2; and

(3) either (a) whether the person refused to permit the test, or (b) whether a test was taken and the test results indicated an alcohol concentration of 0.10 or more at the time of testing, and whether the testing method used was valid and reliable, and whether the test results were accurately evaluated.

It shall be an affirmative defense for the petitioner to prove that, at the time of the refusal, his refusal to permit the test was based upon reasonable grounds.

Certified or otherwise authenticated copies of laboratory or medical personnel reports, records, documents, licenses and certificates shall be admissible as substantive evidence.

The court shall order either that the revocation be rescinded or sustained and forward the order to the commissioner of public safety. The court shall file its order within 14 days following the hearing. If the revocation is sustained, the court shall also forward the person's driver's license or permit to the commissioner of public safety for his further action if the license or permit is not already in the commissioner's possession.

Sec. 11. [171.175] [REINSTATEMENT; PROOF OF INSURANCE.]

Upon the expiration of the revocation of a driver's license under section 169.121 or 169.123, and the satisfaction of any additional requirements imposed, the commissioner shall reinstate the license if the person provides the commissioner with either a valid insurance policy or an identification card issued by the insurer stating that security has been provided as required by section 65B.48. After one year, the license must be canceled unless the licensee provides the commissioner with proof, satisfactory to the commissioner, of continuous insurance coverage during the previous year. If a person is unable to prove such continuous coverage, the person's driver's license may not be reinstated for a period of one year from the date of cancellation under this section. The commissioner may adopt rules to provide for exceptions to this requirement for vehicles that are in storage or out of service for substantial portions of the previous year."

"Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 10A.31, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. In each calendar year the moneys in each party account and the general account shall be allocated to candidates as follows:

(1) 21 percent for the offices of governor and lieutenant governor together;

(2) 3.6 percent for the office of attorney general;

(3) 1.8 percent each for the offices of secretary of state, state auditor and state treasurer;

(4) In each calendar year during the period in which state senators serve a four year term, 23-1/3 percent for the office of state senator and 46-2/3 percent for the office of state representative;

(5) In each calendar year during the period in which state senators serve a two year term, 35 percent each for the offices of state senator and state representative;

(5a) When a candidate is the only person who has filed for an office, the candidate is not entitled to receive any funds from the state election campaign fund;

(6) To assure that moneys will be returned to the counties from which they were collected, and to assure that the distribution of those moneys rationally relates to the support for particular parties or for particular candidates within legislative districts, moneys from the party accounts for legislative candidates shall be distributed as follows:

Each candidate for the state senate and state house of representatives whose name is to appear on the ballot in the general election shall receive moneys from his party account set aside for candidates of the state senate or state house of representatives, whichever applies, according to the following formula;

For each county within his district the candidate's share of the dollars allocated in that county to his party account and set aside for that office shall be:

(a) The sum of the votes cast in the last general election in that part of the county in his district for all candidates of his party (i) whose names appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct of the state and (ii) for the state senate and state house of representatives, divided by

(b) The sum of the votes cast in that county in the last general election for all candidates of his party (i) whose names appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct in the state and (ii) for the state senate and state house of representatives, multiplied by

(c) The amount in his party account allocated in that county and set aside for the candidates for the office for which he is a candidate.

The sum of all the county shares calculated in the formula above is the candidate's share of his party account.

In a year in which an election for the state senate occurs, with respect to votes for candidates for the state senate only, "last general election" means the last general election in which an election for the state senate occurred.

For any party under whose name no candidate's name appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct in the state in the last general election, amounts in the party's account shall be allocated based on (a) the number of people voting in the last general election in that part of the county in his district, divided by (b) the number of the people voting in that county in the last general election, multiplied by (c) the amount in his party account allocated in that county and set aside for the candidates for the office for which he is a candidate.

In a year in which the first election after a legislative reapportionment is held, "his district" means the newly drawn district, and voting data from the last general election will be applied to the area encompassing the newly drawn district notwithstanding that the area was in a different district in the last general election.

If in a district there was no candidate of a party for the state senate or state house of representatives in the last general election, or if a candidate for the state senate or state house of representatives was unopposed, the vote for that office for that party shall be the average vote of all the remaining candidates of that party in each county of that district whose votes are included in the sums in clauses (a) and (b). The average vote shall be added to the sums in clauses (a) and (b) before the calculation is made for all districts in the county.

Money from a party account not distributed to candidates for state senator and representative in any election year shall be returned to the general fund of the state. Money from a party account not distributed to candidates for other offices in an election year shall be returned to the party account for reallocation to candidates as provided in clauses (1) to (6) of this subdivision in the following year. Moneys from the general account refused by any candidate shall be distributed to all other qualifying candidates in proportion to their shares as provided in this subdivision."

The amount of any increased levy authorized by referendum pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 2 shall not be reduced pursuant to this subdivision. The amount of any levy authorized by subdivision 4, to make payments for bonds issued and for interest thereon, shall not be reduced pursuant to this subdivision.

(4) Before computing the reduction pursuant to this subdivision of the capital expenditure levy authorized by subdivision 11a, and the community service levy authorized by subdivision 8, the commissioner shall ascertain from each affected school district the amount it proposes to levy for capital expenditures pursuant to subdivision 11a and for community services pursuant to subdivision 8. The reduction of the capital expenditure levy and the community services levy shall be computed on the basis of the amount so ascertained.

(5) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, any amounts received by districts in any fiscal year pursuant to sections 294.21 to 294.26; 298.23 to 298.28; 298.34 to 298.39; 298.391 to 298.396; 298.405; 298.51 to 298.67 except an amount distributed under section 298.28, subdivision 1, paragraph (3)(b)(ii); or any law imposing a tax on severed mineral values, or under any other law distributing proceeds in lieu of ad valorem tax assessments on copper or nickel properties; and not deducted from foundation aid pursuant to section 124A.035, subdivision 5, clause (2), and not applied to reduce levies pursuant to this subdivision shall be paid by the district to the ~~commissioner of finance~~ St. Louis county auditor in the following amount by March 15 of each year except 1986, the amount required to be subtracted from the previous fiscal year's foundation aid pursuant to section 124A.035, subdivision 5, which is in excess of the foundation aid earned for that fiscal year. The ~~commissioner of finance~~ county auditor shall deposit any amounts received pursuant to this clause in the ~~taconite property tax relief fund in the state treasury, established pursuant to section 16A.70~~ St. Louis county treasury for purposes of paying the taconite homestead credit as provided in section 273.135.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 275.50, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [GOVERNMENTAL SUBDIVISION.] (a) "Governmental subdivision" means a county, home rule charter city, or statutory city, except a home rule charter or statutory city that has a population of less than 5,000 according to the most recent federal census.

(b) "Governmental subdivision" also includes any city or town that receives a distribution from the taconite municipal aid account in the levy year.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 275.51, subdivision 3f, is amended to read:

Subd. 3f. [LEVY LIMIT BASE.] (a) The property tax levy limit base for governmental subdivisions for taxes levied in 1983 shall be calculated by adding the following amounts:

(1) the property tax permitted to be levied in 1982 for taxes payable in 1983 pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1982, section 275.51, subdivision 3e; plus

(2) the amount of any payments the governmental subdivision was certified to receive in 1983 pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 477A.011 to 477A.03; plus

(3) the amount of any payments certified to the governmental subdivision in 1983 pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 298.28 and 298.282; plus

(4) the difference between the amount certified to the governmental subdivision in 1983 and the amount certified in 1984 pursuant to section 273.138; plus

(5) any amount levied as a special assessment to cover the costs of municipal operation and maintenance activities for the taxes payable year 1983; and

(6) the amount of any base adjustment authorized by the commissioner of revenue pursuant to subdivision 3g.

(b) For taxes levied in 1984 and subsequent years, a governmental subdivision's levy limit base is equal to its adjusted levy limit base for the preceding year provided that, for taxes levied in 1984, the levy limit base of a county containing a city of the first class shall be increased by the amount paid to the county under section 273.138 in 1984 less the amount that will be paid to it under section 273.138 in 1985.

(c) The property tax levy limit base for cities and towns defined as a governmental subdivision only under section 275.50, subdivision 2, paragraph (b), for taxes levied in 1986 shall be calculated by adding the following amounts:

(1) the property tax levied in 1985 for taxes payable in 1986, exclusive of any levies for debt service; plus

(2) the amount of any payments the governmental subdivision was certified to receive in 1986 pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, sections 477A.011 to 477A.03; plus

(3) the amount of any payments certified to the governmental subdivision in 1986 pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 298.282, and Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 298.28; plus

(4) any amount levied as a special assessment to cover the costs of municipal operation and maintenance activities for the taxes payable year 1986.

For taxes levied in 1987 and subsequent years, the levy limit base of a governmental subdivision defined only in section 275.50, subdivision 2, paragraph (b), is equal to its adjusted levy limit base for the preceding year.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 275.51, subdivision 3i, is amended to read:

Subd. 3i. [LEVY LIMITATION.] The levy limitation for a governmental subdivision shall be equal to the adjusted levy limit base determined pursuant to subdivision 3h, reduced by (a) the total amount of local government aid that the governmental subdivision has been certified to receive pursuant to sections 477A.011 to 477A.014; (b) taconite aids pursuant to sections 298.28 and 298.282 including any aid received in the levy year which was required to be placed in a special fund for expenditure in the next succeeding year; (c) state reimbursements for wetlands and native prairie property tax exemptions pursuant to sections 273.115, subdivision 3 and 273.116, subdivision 3; and (d) payments in lieu of taxes to a county pursuant to section 477A.12 which are required to be used to provide property tax levy reduction certified to be paid in the calendar year in which property taxes are payable. If the sum of the taconite aids deducted exceeds the adjusted levy limit base, the excess must be used to reduce the amounts levied as special levies pursuant to section 275.50, subdivisions 5 and 7. The commissioner of revenue shall notify a governmental subdivision of any excess taconite aids to be used to reduce special levies.

As provided in section 298.28, subdivision 1, one cent per taxable ton of the amount distributed under section 298.28, subdivision 1, clause (4)(c) shall not be deducted from the levy limit base of the counties that receive that aid. The resulting figure is the amount of property taxes which a governmental subdivision may levy for all purposes other than those for which special levies and special assessments are made.

For taxes levied in 1987 and subsequent years, the levy limit for a county as calculated under paragraph (b) shall be decreased by an additional amount equal to the reduction in the distribution to the county under Minnesota Statutes, section 298.28, from the 1986 distribution to the 1987 distribution.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 294.22, is amended to read:

294.22 [GROSS EARNINGS TAX; COMPUTATION.]

Every company owning or operating any taconite railroad shall pay annually into the state treasury a sum of money equal to ~~five~~ 3.75 percent of the gross earnings derived from the operation of such taconite railway within the state. The gross earnings of such a taconite railroad company from the transportation of taconite concentrates from the Mesabi Range to ports on Lake Superior, for all purposes hereof, shall be a sum of money equal to the amount which would be charged under established tariffs of common carriers for the transportation of an equal tonnage of iron ore or taconite concentrates, whichever is shipped from Mesabi Range points to ports at the head of Lake Superior, including the established charges for loading such ore on boats. For all purposes of chapter 298 the rate of the gross earnings as so calculated shall be treated as the cost of transportation of such concentrates or iron ore between such points. If such a taconite railroad company transports coal or any other commodity, except taconite concentrates, its gross earnings shall include an amount equal to the established tariffs of common carriers for the transportation of the same quantities of similar commodities for corresponding distances, not, however, including any such charges for any such commodities used or intended to be used in the construction, operation or maintenance of such railroad.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 294.23, is amended to read:

294.23 [COMPANIES LIABLE FOR TAX.]

If a company producing concentrates from taconite shall transport the taconite in the course of the concentrating process and before such concentrating process is completed to a concentrating plant located within the state over a railroad which is not a common carrier and shall not use a common carrier or taconite railroad company as defined in section 294.21 for the movement of the concentrate to a point of consumption or port for shipment beyond the state, then such company nevertheless shall pay annually into the state treasury a tax equal to ~~five~~ 3.75 percent of the amount which would be charged for the transportation of such concentrates produced by such taconite company as if such concentrates were transported by a common carrier under established tariffs of common carriers from the Mesabi Range or other iron range point nearest to the mine at which such taconite is quarried to ports at the head of Lake Superior, including established charges for loading such ore on boats. For the purposes of sections 294.24 to 294.28, such a company shall be considered a taconite railroad company.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 297A.15, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [REFUND; APPROPRIATION.] Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 297A.02, subdivision 2, and 297A.257 the tax on sales of capital equipment, and construction materials and supplies under section 297A.257, shall be imposed and collected as if the rate under section 297A.02, subdivision 1, applied. Upon application by the purchaser, on forms prescribed by the commissioner, a refund equal to the reduction in the tax due as a result of the application of the rates under section 297A.02, subdivision 2, or the exemption under section 297A.257 shall be paid to the purchaser. In the case of building materials qualifying under section 297A.257 where the tax was paid by a contractor, application must be made by the owner for the sales tax paid by all the contractors, subcontractors, and builders for the project. The application must include sufficient information to permit the commissioner to verify the sales tax paid for the project. The application shall include information necessary for the commissioner initially to verify that the purchases qualified as capital equipment under section 297A.02, subdivision 2, or capital equipment or construction materials and supplies under section 297A.257. No more than two applications for refunds may be filed under this subdivision in a calendar year. Unless otherwise specifically provided by this subdivision, the provisions of section 297A.34 apply to the refunds payable under this subdivision. There is annually appropriated to the commissioner of revenue the amount required to make the refunds.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 297A.257, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [EXEMPTION FOR CONSTRUCTION MATERIALS.]

Construction materials and supplies are exempt from the tax imposed under this chapter, regardless of whether purchased by the owner or a contractor, subcontractor, or builder, if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) the materials and supplies are used or consumed in constructing a new manufacturing facility or expanding an existing one in a distressed county;

(2) the total capital investment made within a three-year period exceeds $75,000,000.

A county is a distressed county for purposes of a project qualifying under this subdivision if it was designated as a distressed county at the time the initial contract to purchase the materials and supplies was executed.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 298.03, is amended to read:

298.03 [VALUE OF ORE; HOW ASCERTAINED.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL RULES.] The valuation of iron or other ores for the purposes of determining the amount of tax to be paid under the provisions of section 298.01 shall be ascertained by subtracting from the value of such ore, at the place where the same is brought to the surface of the earth, such value to be determined by the commissioner of revenue:

(1) the reasonable cost of supplies used and labor performed at the mine in separating the ore from the ore body, including hoisting, elevating, or conveying the same to the surface of the earth;

(2) if the ore is taken from an open pit mine, an amount for each ton of ore mined or produced during the year equal to the cost of removing the overburden, divided by the number of tons of ore uncovered, the number of tons of ore uncovered in each case to be determined by the commissioner of revenue;

(3) if the ore is taken from an underground mine, an amount for each ton of ore mined or produced during the year equal to the cost of sinking and constructing shafts and running drifts, divided by the number of tons of ore that can be advantageously taken out through such shafts and drifts, the number of tons of ore that can be advantageously taken out in each case to be determined by the commissioner of revenue;

(4) the amount of royalties paid on the ore mined or produced during the year;

(5) for persons mining or producing iron ore the mining or production of which is subject to the occupation tax imposed by section 298.01, subdivision 1, the amount of the ad valorem taxes levied and paid for the year against the realty in which the ore is deposited; for all others a percentage of the ad valorem taxes levied and paid for such year against the realty in which the ore is deposited equal to the percentage that the tons mined or produced during such year bears to the total tonnage in the mine;

(6) in the case of taconite, semitaconite and iron sulphide operations, the tax payable under section 298.24, ~~but not exceeding 25 cents per taxable ton,~~ and that payable under section 298.35, on the concentrates produced in said year and any taxes paid under Laws 1955, chapter 391, 429, 514, 576 or 540, or any other law imposing on such taconite operations a specific tax for school or other governmental purposes;

(7) the amount or amounts of all the foregoing subtractions shall be ascertained and determined by the commissioner of revenue. Deductions for interest on plant investment shall not exceed the greater of (a) four percent of book value, or (b) the amount actually paid but not exceeding six percent of book value. No subtraction shall be allowed for shrinkage of iron ore.

Subd. 2. [SPECIAL TRANSPORTATION COSTS.] With respect to transportation costs incurred after June 30, 1986, if the ore is not transported using the Great Lakes Seaway system, the commissioner must allow, as a deduction in computing the valuation of the ore, the reasonable cost of transportation of the ore to its destination. This subdivision does not affect the valuation of ore shipped using the Great Lakes Seaway system.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 298.225, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

298.225 [APPROPRIATION.]

Subdivision 1. For distribution of taconite production tax in ~~1985~~ 1987 and thereafter with respect to production in ~~1984~~ 1986 and thereafter, the ~~recipients~~ distribution of the taconite production tax as provided in section 298.28, subdivision 1, clauses (1) to (4) and (5)(b), (5)(c), (6), and (7)(a), shall ~~receive distributions~~ equal ~~to~~ the lesser of the following amounts:

(1) the amount distributed ~~to them~~ pursuant to this section and section 298.28, subdivision 1, with respect to 1983 production if the production for the year prior to the distribution year is no less than 42,000,000 taxable tons. If the production is less than 42,000,000 taxable tons, the amount of the distributions shall be reduced proportionately at the rate of two percent for each 1,000,000 tons, or part of 1,000,000 tons by which the production is less than 42,000,000 tons; or

(2)(i) for the distributions made pursuant to section 298.28, subdivision 1, clauses (3)(a), (3)(b), and (5)(c), 50 percent of the amount distributed pursuant to this section and section 298.28, subdivision 1, with respect to 1983 production.

(ii) for the distributions made pursuant to section 298.28, subdivision 1, clauses (4)(a) and (4)(b), 75 percent of the amount distributed pursuant to this section and section 298.28, subdivision 1, with respect to 1983 production.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 298.24, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. (a) For concentrate produced in 1986 there is hereby imposed upon taconite and iron sulphides, and upon the mining and quarrying thereof, and upon the production of iron ore concentrate therefrom, and upon the concentrate so produced, a tax of ~~$1.25 cents~~ $1.90 per gross ton of merchantable iron ore concentrate produced therefrom. ~~The tax on concentrates produced in 1978 and subsequent years prior to 1985 shall be equal to $1.25 multiplied by the steel mill products index during the production year, divided by the steel mill products index in 1977. The index stated in code number 1013, or any subsequent equivalent, as published by the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics Wholesale Prices and Price Indexes for the month of January of the year in which the concentrate is produced shall be the index used in calculating the tax imposed herein. In no event shall the tax be less than $1.25 per gross ton of merchantable iron ore concentrate. The tax on concentrates produced in 1985 and 1986 shall be at the rate determined for 1984 production.~~

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (c), for concentrates produced in 1987 and subsequent years, the tax rate shall be equal to the preceding year's tax rate plus an amount equal to the preceding year's tax multiplied by the percentage increase in the implicit price deflator from the fourth quarter of the second preceding year to the fourth quarter of the preceding year. "Implicit price deflator" for the gross national product means the implicit price deflator prepared by the bureau of economic analysis of the United States department of commerce.

~~(b) On concentrates produced in 1984, an additional tax is imposed equal to eight-tenths of one percent of the total tax imposed by clause (a) per gross ton for each one percent that the iron content of such product exceeds 62 percent, when dried at 212 degrees Fahrenheit.~~

~~(c) The tax imposed by this subdivision on concentrates produced in 1984 shall be computed on the production for the current year. The tax on concentrates produced in 1985 shall be computed on the average of the production~~

~~for the current year and the previous year.~~

(c) The provisions of paragraph (b) will not be in effect for concentrates produced in 1987 if the 1987 production is not less than 33,000,000 tons, and will not be in effect for concentrates produced in 1988 if the 1988 production is not less than 34,000,000 tons. If the provisions of paragraph (b) are not in effect for concentrates produced in a year, the rate of the tax for that year's production will be the rate of the tax imposed on the previous year's production. The tax ~~on concentrates produced in 1986 and thereafter~~ shall be imposed on the average of the production for the current year and the previous two years. The rate of the tax imposed will be the current year's tax rate. This clause shall not apply in the case of the closing of a taconite facility if the property taxes on the facility would be higher if this clause and section 298.25 were not applicable.

(d) If the tax or any part of the tax imposed by this subdivision is held to be unconstitutional, a tax of ~~$1.25~~ $1.90 per gross ton of merchantable iron ore concentrate produced shall be imposed.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 298.28, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DISTRIBUTION.] The proceeds of the taxes collected under section 298.24, except the tax collected under section 298.24, subdivision 2, shall, upon certification of the commissioner of revenue, be allocated as follows:

(1) 2.5 cents per gross ton of merchantable iron ore concentrate, hereinafter referred to as "taxable ton," to the city or town in the county in which the lands from which taconite was mined or quarried were located or within which the concentrate was produced. If the mining, quarrying, and concentration, or different steps in either thereof are carried on in more than one taxing district, the commissioner shall apportion equitably the proceeds of the part of the tax going to cities and towns among such subdivisions upon the basis of attributing 40 percent of the proceeds of the tax to the operation of mining or quarrying the taconite, and the remainder to the concentrating plant and to the processes of concentration, and with respect to each thereof giving due consideration to the relative extent of such operations performed in each such taxing district. His order making such apportionment shall be subject to review by the tax court at the instance of any of the interested taxing districts, in the same manner as other orders of the commissioner.

(2) (a) 12.5 cents per taxable ton, less any amount distributed under clause (7), paragraph (a), and paragraph (b) of this clause, to be distributed as provided in section 298.282.

(b) An amount annually certified by the county auditor of a county containing a taconite tax relief area within which there is (1) an organized township if, as of January 2, 1982, more than 75 percent of the assessed valuation of the township consists of iron ore or (2) a city if, as of January 2, 1980, more than 75 percent of the assessed valuation of the city consists of iron ore. The amount will be the portion of a township's or city's certified levy equal to the proportion of (1) the difference between 50 percent of ~~the township's~~ January 2, 1982, assessed value in the case of a township and 50 percent of the January 2, 1980, assessed value in the case of a city and its current assessed value to (2) the sum of its current assessed value plus the difference determined in (1). The county auditor shall extend the township's or city's levy against the sum of the township's or city's current assessed value plus the difference between 50 percent of its January 2, 1982, assessed value and its current assessed value in the case of a township and between 50 percent of its January 2, 1980, assessed value and its current assessed value in the case of a city. If the current assessed value of the township exceeds 50 percent of the township's January 2, 1982, assessed value, or if the current assessed value of the city exceeds 50 percent of the city's January 2, 1980, assessed value, this clause shall not apply:

(3) ~~29~~ 27.5 cents per taxable ton plus the increase provided in paragraph (c) to qualifying school districts to be distributed, based upon the certification of the commissioner of revenue, as follows:

(a) ~~Six~~ 5.5 cents per taxable ton to the school districts in which the lands from which taconite was mined or quarried were located or within which the concentrate was produced. The distribution must be based on the apportionment formula prescribed in clause (1).

(b) ~~23~~ (i) 22 cents per taxable ton, less any amount distributed under part (d), shall be distributed to a group of school districts comprised of those school districts wherein the taconite was mined or quarried or the concentrate produced or in which there is a qualifying municipality as defined by section 273.134 ~~in direct proportion to school district tax levies as follows: each district shall receive that portion of the total distribution which its certified levy for the prior year, computed pursuant to sections 124A.03, 124A.06, subdivision 3a, 124A.08, subdivision 3a, 124A.10, subdivision 3a, 124A.12, subdivision 3a, 124A.14, subdivision 5a, and 275.125, comprises of the sum of certified levies for the prior year for all qualifying districts, computed pursuant to sections 124A.03, 124A.06, subdivision 3a, 124A.08, subdivision 3a, 124A.10, subdivision 3a, 124A.12, subdivision 3a, 124A.14, subdivision 5a, and 275.125. For purposes of distributions pursuant to this part, certified levies for the prior year computed pursuant to sections 124A.03, 124A.06, subdivision 3a, 124A.08, subdivision 3a, 124A.10, subdivision 3a, 124A.12, subdivision 3a, 124A.14, subdivision 5a, and 275.125 shall not include the amount of any increased levy authorized by referendum pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 2~~ in direct proportion to school district indexes as follows: for each school district, its pupil units determined under section 124.17 for the prior school year shall be multiplied by the ratio of the average adjusted assessed value per pupil unit as calculated pursuant to chapter 124A for the school year ending prior to distribution to the adjusted assessed value per pupil unit of the district. Each district shall receive that portion of the distribution which its index bears to the sum of the indices for all school districts that receive the distributions.

(ii) Notwithstanding clause (i), each school district shall receive a distribution under this paragraph (b) that is no less than the amount of its levy reduction under section 275.125, subdivision 9, for the second year prior to the year of the distribution; the amount necessary to make this minimum payment shall be derived from proportionate reductions in the initial distribution to other school districts under clause (i).

(c) On July 15, in years prior to 1988, an amount equal to the increase derived by increasing the amount determined by clause (3)(b) in the same proportion as the increase in the steel mill products index over the base year of 1977 as provided in section 298.24, subdivision 1, clause (a), shall be distributed to any school district described in clause (3)(b) where a levy increase pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 2, is authorized by referendum, according to the following formula. On July 15, 1988 and subsequent years, the increase over the amount established for the prior year shall be determined according to the increase in the implicit price deflator as provided in section 298.24, subdivision 1, paragraph (a). Each district shall receive the product of:

(i) $150 times the pupil units identified in section 124.17, subdivision 1, ~~clauses (1) and (2),~~ enrolled in the second previous year or the 1983-1984 school year, whichever is greater, less the product of 1-3/4 mills times the district's taxable valuation in the second previous year; times

(ii) the lesser of:

(A) one, or

(B) the ratio of the amount certified pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 2, in the previous year, to the product of 1-3/4 mills times the district's taxable valuation in the second previous year.

If the total amount provided by clause (3)(c) is insufficient to make the payments herein required then the entitlement of $150 per pupil unit shall be reduced uniformly so as not to exceed the funds available. Any amounts received by a qualifying school district in any fiscal year pursuant to clause (3)(c) shall not be applied to reduce foundation aids which the district is entitled to receive pursuant to section 124A.02 or the permissible levies of the district. Any amount remaining after the payments provided in this paragraph shall be paid to the commissioner of iron range resources and rehabilitation who shall deposit the same in the taconite environmental protection fund and the northeast Minnesota economic protection trust fund as provided in clause (9).

(d) There shall be distributed to any school district the amount which the school district was entitled to receive under section 298.32 in 1975.

(4) ~~19.5~~ 16.5 cents per taxable ton to counties to be distributed, based upon certification by the commissioner of revenue, as follows:

(a) ~~15.5~~ 13 cents per taxable ton shall be distributed to the county in which the taconite is mined or quarried or in which the concentrate is produced, less any amount which is to be distributed pursuant to part (b). The apportionment formula prescribed in clause (1) is the basis for the distribution.

(b) If an electric power plant owned by and providing the primary source of power for a taxpayer mining and concentrating taconite is located in a county other than the county in which the mining and the concentrating processes are conducted, one cent per taxable ton of the tax distributed to the counties pursuant to part (a) and imposed on and collected from such taxpayer shall be paid to the county in which the power plant is located.

(c) ~~Four~~ 3.5 cents per taxable ton shall be paid to the county from which the taconite was mined, quarried or concentrated to be deposited in the county road and bridge fund. If the mining, quarrying and concentrating, or separate steps in any of those processes are carried on in more than one county, the commissioner shall follow the apportionment formula prescribed in clause (1).

(5) (a) ~~17.75~~ 22 cents per taxable ton, less any amount required to be distributed under ~~part~~ parts (b) and (c), to St. Louis county acting as the counties' fiscal agent, to be distributed as provided in sections 273.134 to 273.136.

(b) If an electric power plant owned by and providing the primary source of power for a taxpayer mining and concentrating taconite is located in a county other than the county in which the mining and the concentrating processes are conducted, ~~.75~~ .1875 cent per taxable ton of the tax imposed and collected from such taxpayer shall be paid to the county ~~and school district in which the power plant is located as follows: 25 percent to the county and 75 percent to the school district~~.

(c) If an electric power plant owned by and providing the primary source of power for a taxpayer mining and concentrating taconite is located in a school district other than a school district in which the mining and concentrating processes are conducted, .5625 cent per taxable ton of the tax imposed and collected from the taxpayer shall be paid to the school district.

(6) Three cents per taxable ton shall be paid to the iron range resources and rehabilitation board for the purposes of section 298.22. The amount determined in this clause shall be increased in 1981 and subsequent years prior to 1988 in the same proportion as the increase in the steel mill products index as provided in section 298.24, subdivision 1 and shall be increased in 1988 and subsequent years according to the increase in the implicit price deflator as provided in section 298.24, subdivision 1. The amount distributed pursuant to this clause shall be expended within or for the benefit of a tax relief area defined in section 273.134. No part of the fund provided in this clause may be used to provide loans for the operation of private business unless the loan is approved by the governor and the legislative advisory commission.

(7) (a) .20 cent per taxable ton shall be paid to the range association of municipalities and schools, for the purpose of providing an areawide approach to problems which demand coordinated and cooperative actions and which are common to those areas of northeast Minnesota affected by operations involved in mining iron ore and taconite and producing concentrate therefrom, and for the purpose of promoting the general welfare and economic development of the cities, towns and school districts within the iron range area of northeast Minnesota.

(b) 1.5 cents per taxable ton shall be paid to the northeast Minnesota economic protection trust fund.

(8) the amounts determined under clauses ~~(4)(a), (4)(c),~~ (5)~~,~~(a) and (7)(b) shall be increased in 1979 and subsequent years prior to 1988 in the same proportion as the increase in the steel mill products index as provided in section 298.24, subdivision 1. Those amounts shall be increased in 1988 and subsequent years in the same proportion as the increase in the implicit price deflator as provided in section 298.24, subdivision 1.

The amounts determined under clauses (4)(a), (4)(c), (5)(b), and (5)(c) for distribution in 1987 and subsequent years shall be the amount determined for distribution in 1986 under Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 298.28, subdivision 1, clauses (4)(a), (4)(c), and (5)(b).

(9) the proceeds of the tax imposed by section 298.24 which remain after the distributions and payments in clauses (1) to (8), as certified by the commissioner of revenue, and parts (a) and (b) of this clause have been made, together with interest earned on all money distributed under this subdivision prior to distribution, shall be divided between the taconite environmental protection fund created in section 298.223 and the northeast Minnesota economic protection trust fund created in section 298.292 as follows: Two-thirds to the taconite environmental protection fund and one-third to the northeast Minnesota economic protection trust fund. The proceeds shall be placed in the respective special accounts.

(a) There shall be distributed to each city, town, school district, and county the amount that they received under section 294.26 in calendar year 1977; provided, however, that the amount distributed in 1981 to the unorganized territory number 2 of Lake county and the town of Beaver Bay based on the between-terminal trackage of Erie Mining Company will be distributed in 1982 and subsequent years to the unorganized territory number 2 of Lake county and the towns of Beaver Bay and Stony River based on the miles of track of Erie Mining Company in each taxing district.

(b) There shall be distributed to the iron range resources and rehabilitation board the amounts it received in 1977 under section 298.22.

On or before October 10 of each calendar year each producer of taconite or iron sulphides subject to taxation under section 298.24 (hereinafter called "taxpayer") shall file with the commissioner of revenue an estimate of the amount of tax which would be payable by such taxpayer under said law for such calendar year; provided such estimate shall be in an amount not less than the amount due on the mining and production of concentrates up to September 30 of said year plus the amount becoming due because of probable production between September 30 and December 31 of said year, less any credit allowable as hereinafter provided. The commissioner of revenue shall annually on or before October 10 report an estimated distribution amount to each taxing district and the officers with whom such report is so filed shall use the amount so indicated as being distributable to each taxing district in computing the permissible tax levy of such county or city in the year in which such estimate is made, and payable in the next ensuing calendar year, except that one cent per taxable ton of the amount distributed under clause (4)(c) shall not be deducted in calculating the permissible levy. In any calendar year in which a general property tax levy subject to sections 275.50 to 275.59 has been made, if the taxes distributable to any such county or city are greater than the amount estimated by the commissioner to be paid to any such county or city in such year, the excess of such distribution shall be held in a special fund by the county or city and shall not be expended until the succeeding calendar year, and shall be included in computing the permissible levies under sections 275.50 to 275.59, of such county or city payable in such year. If the amounts distributable to any such county or city after final determination by the commissioner of revenue under this section are less than the amounts by which a taxing district's levies were reduced pursuant to this section, such county or city may issue certificates of indebtedness in the amount of the shortage, and may include in its next tax levy, in excess of the limitations of sections 275.50 to 275.59 an amount sufficient to pay such certificates of indebtedness and interest thereon, or, if no certificates were issued, an amount equal to such shortage.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 298.282, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. (a) Each year following the final determination of the amount of taxes payable under section 298.24, the commissioner of revenue shall determine the amount in the taconite municipal aid account as of July 1 of such year and the amount to be distributed to each qualifying municipality during such year. The amount to be distributed to each qualifying municipality shall be determined by ~~dividing the total amount in said account, after a reduction equal to the amount of the distribution in subdivision 5, as of July 1 by the total population according to the latest federal census of all qualifying municipalities to determine the per capita distributive share for such year and by multiplying the per capita distributive share by the population of such municipality~~ determining an index for each qualifying municipality by subtracting its local effort mill rate, multiplied by its equalized assessed value, from its fiscal need factor. For the purposes of this subdivision, the following terms have the meanings given them herein. A municipality's "local effort mill rate" means its fiscal need factor per capita divided by $17 per capita per mill for the first $350 of its fiscal need factor per capita; plus its fiscal need factor per capita divided by $15 per capita per mill on that part of its fiscal need factor per capita, if any, in excess of $350. In no case shall a municipality's local effort mill rate be less than eight mills. A municipality's "equalized assessed value" means its previous year taxable valuation, less the captured value in any tax increment district, divided by the municipality's aggregate sales ratio covering the period ending two years prior to the year of aid distribution. A municipality's "fiscal need factor" means the three-year average of the sum of its municipal levy, taconite aids received under sections 298.28, subdivision 1, clauses (1) and (10)(a) and 298.282 and its local government aid distribution amount, for taxes payable and distribution amounts receivable in the three years immediately preceding the aid distribution year.

The ratio of the resulting index for each qualifying municipality to the sum of all qualifying municipalities' indexes shall be multiplied by the total amount in the taconite municipal aid account less the amount distributed pursuant to subdivision 5. For the distribution made in 1987, one-third of the distribution shall be distributed pursuant to this subdivision and two-thirds pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 298.282, subdivision 2. For the distribution made in 1988, two-thirds shall be distributed pursuant to this subdivision and one-third pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 298.282, subdivision 2.

(b) If the distribution under this section, sections 273.138, 298.26 and 298.28, and chapter 477A, to any municipality would exceed that municipality's levy limit base for that year, computed pursuant to sections 275.50 to 275.59, the amount in excess of the levy limit base for that year shall reduce the amount distributed to the municipality under this section and this excess amount shall be distributed to the other qualifying municipalities ~~on a per capita basis~~ in the same manner as the distribution made pursuant to subdivision 2, except that the qualifying municipality receiving an initial dis- tribution when added to that received pursuant to sections 273.138, 298.26, 298.28, and chapter 477A in excess of the qualifying municipality's levy limit base, shall not receive a distribution nor shall its index be used in computing the distribution pursuant to this clause. The distributions to be received in the year in which the taxes are payable shall be compared to the levy limit base for that same year. Upon completion of such determination, the commissioner of revenue shall certify to the chief clerical officer of each qualifying municipality the amount which will be distributed to such municipality from the taconite municipal aid account that year.

Sec. 14. [APPROPRIATION.]

$20,000,000 is appropriated to the commissioner of natural resources. Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 298.293 or 298.294 or any other law, this appropriation is from the corpus of the northeast Minnesota economic protection fund. This money is available only as a loan guarantee for the smelting project using the COREX process and is contingent upon receipt by the commissioner of natural resources of sufficient funding from other sources to complete the project. If the project is approved by the United States department of energy prior to December 31, 1987, this appropriation does not cancel but is available until June 30, 1992, or the project is completed or abandoned, whichever occurs earlier. On July 1, 1992, $20,000,000 is appropriated from the general fund, to be taken from the proceeds of the taconite occupation tax imposed under Minnesota Statutes, section 298.01, to the commissioner of natural resources to be used only to continue the loan guarantee or to be drawn down to cover a default according to this subdivision. If the general fund appropriation is used to cover a default in the loan, there shall be repaid from the northeast Minnesota economic protection trust fund to the general fund the amount of the default. Payments shall be made in ten equal annual installments, with the first payment made one year from the date of the default. No interest shall be paid on these payments. An amount sufficient to make the repayments is appropriated from the northeast Minnesota economic protection trust fund. The money appropriated from the northeast Minnesota economic protection trust fund shall be spent only in or for the benefit of tax relief areas as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 273.134.

Sec. 15. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1, 10, 12, and 13 are effective for distributions in 1987 and subsequent years, except that the changes in paragraph 3 of section 298.28, subdivision 1, are effective for distributors in 1988 and subsequent years. Sections 2, 3, and 4 are effective for taxes levied in 1986, payable in 1987, and thereafter. Sections 5 and 6 are effective for gross earnings derived after December 31, 1986. Sections 7 and 8 are effective for purchases and use made after May 1, 1986, provided that the first refunds for construction materials and supplies due as a result of the exemption under section 8 may not be paid by the commissioner before July 15, 1987. Except as otherwise provided, section 9 is effective for ores mined or produced after December 31, 1986."

March 17, 1986

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

The Honorable David M. Jennings
Speaker of the House of Representatives

We, the undersigned conferees for S.F. No. 1793, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House recede from its amendment and that S.F. No. 1793 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"ARTICLE 1

Section 1. [AITKIN COUNTY; DEVELOPMENT LEVY.]

The Aitkin county board may annually levy a tax of not more than one and one third mills on taxable property in the county, to provide funds to be used by the county for tourist, agricultural, industrial, and economic development. A levy under this section is in addition to any other permitted by law and shall be disregarded in the calculation of any other levies or limits on levies provided by Minnesota Statutes, sections 275.50 to 275.56 or other law.

Sec. 2. [REVERSE REFERENDUM.]

If the Aitkin county board intends to exercise the authority provided by section 1, it shall pass a resolution stating the fact. Thereafter, the resolution shall be published for two successive weeks in the official newspaper of the county or, if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, together with a notice fixing a date for a public hearing on the matter. The hearing shall be held not less than two weeks nor more than four weeks after the first publication of the resolution. Following the public hearing, the county may determine to take no further action or, in the alternative, adopt a resolution confirming its intention to exercise the authority. That resolution shall also be published in the official newspaper of the county or, if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the county. If within 30 days thereafter a petition signed by voters equal in number to five percent of the votes cast in the county in the last general election requesting a vote on the proposed resolution is filed with the county auditor, the resolution shall not be effective until it has been submitted to the voters at a general or special election and a majority of votes cast on the question of approving the resolution is in the affirmative. The commissioner of revenue shall prepare a suggested form of question to be presented at the election. The referendum must be held at a special or general election prior to October 1 of the first year for which the tax authorized under section 1 is proposed to be levied.

Sec. 3. Laws 1984, chapter 502, article 13, section 10, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZATION.] The limitation imposed upon the levy of the city of Breezy Point by Minnesota Statutes, section 275.11, is increased by ~~$125,000~~ $175,000 for taxes levied in ~~1984~~ 1986 and thereafter.

Sec. 4. [REVERSE REFERENDUM.]

If the Breezy Point city council proposes to increase the levy limit base of the city pursuant to section 3, it shall pass a resolution stating the amount by which the levy limit base is proposed to be increased. Thereafter, the resolution shall be published for two successive weeks in the official newspaper of the city or if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the city, together with a notice fixing a date for a public hearing on the proposed increase. The hearing shall be held not less than two weeks nor more than four weeks after the first publication of the resolution. Following the public hearing, the city may determine to take no further action or, in the alternative, adopt a resolution authorizing the increase as originally proposed or approving an increase in the lesser amount it determines. The resolution authorizing an increase shall be published in the official newspaper of the city or if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. If within 30 days thereafter a petition signed by voters equal in number to five percent of the votes cast in the city in the last general election requesting a referendum on the proposed resolution is filed with the clerk, the resolution shall not be effective until it has been submitted to the voters at a general or special election and a majority of votes cast on the question of approving the resolution is in the affirmative. The commissioner of revenue shall prepare a suggested form of question to be presented at the referendum. The referendum must be held at a special or general election prior to October of the first levy year in which the tax authorized under section 3 is proposed to be levied.

Sec. 5. [AITKIN COUNTY; RETAIL RURAL ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE ASSOCIATION.]

A person who has paid tax on electricity used in agricultural production that is exempt from taxation under section 297A.25, subdivision 1, clause (h), may file a claim for refund with the commissioner if the tax was paid to the retail rural electric cooperative association based in Aitkin county.

Sec. 6. [MCGREGOR; LIBRARY; JOINT FINANCING.]

The city of McGregor may agree with one or more of the towns or home rule charter or statutory cities located in Aitkin county or the county itself that the local government units making the agreement will subject taxable property within their boundaries to taxation to discharge debt incurred for the construction of a library and related facilities in the city of McGregor pursuant to Laws 1985, chapter 138, section 4. The portion of the debt to be discharged by taxation in each unit may be set by agreement or a single rate may be levied against all subject property or, by agreement, both methods may be used in part. A unit may also agree to discharge a portion of the costs of construction or debt incurred for the costs by a transfer of any money available to the unit that the unit is not obliged by law to use for some other purpose. Any joint powers agreement entered between the city of McGregor and any town located in Aitkin county to finance the McGregor library construction must be approved at the annual town meeting by the town electors of the town before the agreement may be entered. Obligations for the purpose may be issued without an election and shall not be subject to the general limit on net debt. In other respects, the debt shall be incurred and discharged in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, chapter 475.

To determine the appropriate mill rate, nonhomestead taxable property or value shall be determined without regard to captured or original assessed value under Minnesota Statutes, section 273.76. Taxes and service charges shall not be imposed to finance a special service if the service is ordinarily provided by the city from its general fund revenues unless the service is provided in the district at an increased level, in which case only an amount sufficient to pay for the increased level may be imposed. A service charge shall not be imposed on the receipts from the sale of intoxicating liquor, food, or lodging. Before the levy of taxes or imposition of service charges in a district, for each calendar year, notice shall be given and hearing shall be held pursuant to section 9 and notice shall also be mailed to any individual or business organization subject to a service charge. For purposes of this section the notice shall also include:*

(b) The estimated cost of improvements to be paid for in whole or in part by taxes or service charges imposed pursuant to this section, the estimated cost of operating and maintaining the improvements during the first year after completion of the improvements, the proposed method and source of financing the improvements, and the annual cost of operating and maintaining the improvements.

Within six months of the public hearing, the city may adopt a resolution levying a tax or imposing a service charge within the district not exceeding the amount or rate expressed in the notice issued pursuant to this section.

Subd. 2. [EXEMPTION OF CERTAIN PROPERTIES FROM TAXES.] Property exempted from taxation by Minnesota Statutes, section 272.02, is exempt from any ad valorem taxes imposed pursuant to sections 8 to 18.

Subd. 3. [LEVY LIMIT EXEMPTION.] Taxes and service charges imposed pursuant to sections 8 to 18 shall not be included in the calculation of levies or limits on levies provided by other law or home rule charter provision.

Subd. 4. [EXCLUSION FROM HOMESTEAD CREDIT.] Taxes levied under this section shall not be reduced by a homestead credit.

Sec. 11. [ENLARGEMENT OF SPECIAL SERVICE DISTRICTS.]

Boundaries of a special service district may be enlarged only after hearing and notice as provided in sections 9 and 10. Notice shall be served in the original district and in the area proposed to be added to the district. Property added to the district shall be subject to all taxes levied and service charges imposed within the district after the property becomes a part of the district. The petition requirement in section 15 and the veto power in section 16 shall only apply to owners, individuals, and business organizations in the area proposed to be added to the district.

Sec. 12. [COLLECTION OF TAXES.]

Ad valorem taxes levied within a special service district shall be collected and paid over as other ad valorem taxes, but shall be spread only upon the assessed value of property described in the ordinance. Service charges imposed shall be collected as provided by ordinance. Taxes collected pursuant to sections 8 to 18 shall not be included in computations under Minnesota Statutes, section 273.76, or any other law that applies to general ad valorem levies.

Sec. 13. [BONDS.]

The obligations shall be payable primarily out of the proceeds of the tax levied pursuant to section 10, or from any other special assessment or nontax revenues available to be pledged for their payment under charter or other statutory authority, or from any two or more of such sources. The governing body may, by resolution adopted prior to the sale of obligations, pledge the full faith, credit, and taxing power of the municipality to assure payment of the principal and interest if the proceeds of the tax levy in the district are insufficient to pay the principal and interest. The amount of any taxes that are required to be levied outside of the territory of the special services district or taken from the general funds of the municipality to pay principal and interest on the obligations shall be reimbursed to the municipality from taxes levied within the special services district. The obligations shall be issued in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, chapter 475, except that an election shall not be required, and the amount of the obligations shall not be included in determining the net debt of the city under the provisions of any law or charter limiting debt.

Sec. 14. [ADVISORY BOARD.]

The governing body of the city may create and appoint an advisory board for each special service district in the city to advise the governing body in connection with the construction, maintenance, and operation of improvements, and the furnishing of special services in a district. The advisory board shall make recommendations to the governing body on the requests and complaints of owners, occupants, and users of property within the district and members of the public. Before the adoption of any proposal by the governing body to provide services or impose taxes or service charges within the district, the advisory board of the district shall have an opportunity to review and comment upon the proposal.

project as defined in section 273.73, subdivision 8, or any other program or project authorized by chapter 462 or 472A located within the city, from the governmental agency or subdivision that established the project to the economic development authority. The city council may also require acceptance of control, authority, and operation of the project by the economic development authority. The economic development authority may exercise all of the powers that the governmental unit establishing the project could exercise with respect to the project.

When a project or program is transferred to the economic development authority, the authority shall covenant and pledge to perform the terms, conditions, and covenants of the bond indenture or other agreements executed for the security of any bonds issued by the governmental subdivision that initiated the project or program. The economic development authority may exercise all of the powers necessary to perform the terms, conditions, and covenants of any indenture or other agreements executed for the security of the bonds and shall become obligated on the bonds when the project or program is transferred as provided in this subdivision.

Subd. 3. [TRANSFER OF PERSONNEL.] Notwithstanding any other law or charter provision to the contrary, the city council may, by resolution, place any employees of the housing and redevelopment authority under the direction, supervision, or control of the economic development authority. The placement of any employees under the direction, supervision, or control of the economic development authority does not affect the rights of any employees of the housing and redevelopment authority, including any rights existing under a collective bargaining agreement or fringe benefit plan. The employees shall become employees of the economic development authority.

Sec. 18. [458C.07] [ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY.]

An economic development authority is a public body corporate and politic and a political subdivision of the state with the right to sue and be sued in its own name. An authority carries out an essential governmental function when it exercises its power, but the authority is not immune from liability because of this.

Sec. 19. [458C.08] [COMMISSIONERS; APPOINTMENT, TERMS, VACANCIES, PAY, REMOVAL.]

Subdivision 1. [COMMISSIONERS.] Except as provided in subdivision 2, clause (d), an economic development authority shall consist of either three, five, or seven commissioners who shall be appointed after the enabling resolution provided for in section 16 becomes effective. The resolution must indicate the number of commissioners constituting the authority.

Subd. 2. [APPOINTMENT, TERMS; VACANCIES.] (a) Three-member authority: the commissioners constituting a three-member authority, one of whom must be a member of the city council, shall be appointed by the mayor with the approval of the city council. Those initially appointed shall be appointed for terms of two, four, and six years, respectively. Thereafter all commissioners shall be appointed for six-year terms.

(e) The enabling resolution may provide for the appointment of members of the city council in excess of the number required in clauses (a), (b), and (c).

(f) A vacancy is created in the membership of an authority when a city council member of the authority ends council membership. A vacancy for this or another reason must be filled for the balance of the unexpired term, in the manner in which the original appointment was made. The city council may set the term of the commissioners who are members of the city council to coincide with their term of office as members of the city council.

Subd. 3. [INCREASE IN COMMISSION MEMBERS.] An authority may be increased from three to five or seven members, or from five to seven members by a resolution adopted by the city council following the procedure provided for modifying the enabling resolution in section 16.

Subd. 4. [COMPENSATION AND REIMBURSEMENT.] A commissioner, including the president, shall be paid for attending each regular or special meeting of the authority in an amount to be determined by the city council. In addition to receiving pay for meetings, the commissioners may be reimbursed for actual expenses incurred in doing official business of the authority. All money paid for compensation or reimbursement must be paid out of the authority's budget.

Subd. 5. [REMOVAL FOR CAUSE.] A commissioner may be removed by the city council for inefficiency, neglect of duty, or misconduct in office. A commissioner shall be removed only after a hearing. A copy of the charges must be given to the commissioner at least ten days before the hearing. The commissioner must be given an opportunity to be heard in person or by counsel at the hearing. When written charges have been submitted against a commissioner, the city council may temporarily suspend the commissioner. If the city council finds that those charges have not been substantiated, the commissioner shall be immediately reinstated. If a commissioner is removed, a record of the proceedings, together with the charges and findings, shall be filed in the office of the city clerk.

Sec. 20. [458C.09] [OFFICERS; DUTIES; ORGANIZATIONAL MATTERS.]

Subdivision 1. [BYLAWS, RULES, SEAL.] An authority may adopt bylaws and rules of procedure and shall adopt an official seal.

Subd. 2. [OFFICERS.] An authority shall elect a president, a vice presi- dent, a treasurer, a secretary, and an assistant treasurer. The authority shall elect the president, treasurer, and secretary annually. A commissioner must not serve as president and vice president at the same time. The other offices may be held by the same commissioner. The offices of secretary and assistant treasurer need not be held by a commissioner.

Subd. 3. [DUTIES AND POWERS.] The officers have the usual duties and powers of their offices. They may be given other duties and powers by the authority.

Subd. 6. [TREASURER'S BOND.] The treasurer shall give bond to the state conditioned for the faithful discharge of official duties. The bond must be approved as to form and surety by the authority and filed with the secretary. The bond must be for twice the amount of money probably on hand at any one time, as determined at least annually by the authority. However, the bond must not exceed $300,000.

Subd. 7. [PUBLIC MONEY.] Authority money is public money.

Subd. 8. [CHECKS.] An authority check must be signed by the treasurer and one other officer named by the authority in a resolution. The check must state the name of the payee and the nature of the claim that the check is issued for.

Subd. 9. [FINANCIAL STATEMENT.] The authority's detailed financial statement must show all receipts and disbursements, their nature, the money on hand, the purposes to which the money on hand is to be applied, the authority's credits and assets, and its outstanding liabilities in a form required for the city's financial statements. The authority shall examine the statement together with the treasurer's vouchers. If the authority finds that the statement and vouchers are correct, it shall approve them by resolution and enter the resolution in its records.

Sec. 21. [458C.10] [EMPLOYEES; SERVICES; SUPPLIES.]

Subdivision 1. [EMPLOYEES.] An economic development authority may employ an executive director, a chief engineer, other technical experts and agents, and other employees as it may require, and determine their duties, qualifications, and compensation.

Subd. 7. [DELEGATION POWER.] The authority may delegate to one or more of its agents or employees powers or duties as it may deem proper.

Sec. 22. [458C.11] [CONFLICT OF INTEREST.]

Except as authorized in section 471.88 a commissioner, officer, or employee of an authority must not acquire any financial interest, direct or indirect, in any project or in any property included or planned to be included in any project, nor shall the person have any financial interest, direct or indirect, in any contract or proposed contract for materials or service to be furnished or used in connection with any project.

Sec. 23. [458C.12] [DEPOSITORIES; DEFAULT; COLLATERAL.]

Subdivision 1. [NAMED; BOND.] Every two years an authority shall name national or state banks within the state as depositories. Before acting as a depository, a named bank shall give the authority a bond approved as to form and surety by the authority. The bond must be conditioned for the safekeeping and prompt repayment of deposits. The amount of bond must be at least equal to the maximum sums expected to be deposited at any one time.

Subd. 2. [ONE BANK ACCOUNT.] An authority may deposit all its money from any source in one bank account.

Subd. 3. [DEFAULT; COLLATERAL.] When authority funds are deposited by the treasurer in a bonded depository, the treasurer and the surety on the treasurer's official bond are exempt from liability for the loss of the deposits because of the failure, bankruptcy, or other act or default of the depository. However, an authority may accept assignments of collateral from its depository to secure deposits just as assignments of collateral are permitted by law to secure deposits of the authority's city.

Sec. 24. [458C.13] [OBLIGATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [TAXES AND ASSESSMENTS PROHIBITED.] An authority must not levy a tax or special assessment, except as otherwise provided in sections 13 to 33, pledge the credit of the state or the state's municipal corporations or other subdivisions, or incur an obligation enforceable on property not owned by the authority.

Subd. 2. [BUDGET TO CITY.] Annually, at a time fixed by charter, resolution, or ordinance of the city, an authority shall send its budget to its city's Subd. 3. [FISCAL YEAR.] The fiscal year of the authority must be the same as the fiscal year of its city.

Subd. 4. [REPORT TO CITY.] Annually, at a time and in a form fixed by the city council, the authority shall make a written report to the council giving a detailed account of its activities and of its receipts and expenditures during the preceding calendar year, together with additional matters and recommendations it deems advisable for the economic development of the city.

Subd. 5. [AUDITS.] The financial statements of the authority must be prepared, audited, filed, and published or posted in the manner required for the financial statements of the city that established the authority. The financial statements must permit comparison and reconciliation with the city's accounts and financial reports. The report must be filed with the state auditor by June 30 of each year. The auditor shall review the report and may accept it or, in the public interest, audit the books of the authority.

Subd. 6. [COMPLIANCE EXAMINATIONS.] At the request of the city or upon the auditor's initiative, the state auditor may make a legal compliance examination of the authority for that city. Each authority examined must pay the total cost of the examination, including the salaries paid to the examiners while actually engaged in making the examination. The state auditor may bill monthly or at the completion of the audit. All collections received must be deposited in the revolving fund of the state auditor.

Sec. 25. [458C.14] [ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT DISTRICTS; SCHEDULE OF POWERS.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] An economic development authority may create and define the boundaries of economic development districts at any place or places within the city if the district satisfies the requirements of section 273.73, subdivision 10, except that the district boundaries must be contiguous, and may use the powers granted in sections 13 to 33 to carry out its purposes. First the authority must hold a public hearing on the matter. At least ten days before the hearing, the authority shall publish notice of the hearing in a daily newspaper of general circulation in the city. Also, the authority shall find that an economic development district is proper and desirable to establish and develop within the city.

Subd. 2. [ACQUIRE PROPERTY.] The economic development authority may acquire by lease, purchase, gift, devise, or condemnation proceedings the needed right, title, and interest in property to create economic development districts. It shall pay for the property out of money it receives under sections 13 to 33. It may hold and dispose of the property subject to the limits and conditions in sections 13 to 33. The title to property acquired by condemnation or purchase must be in fee simple, absolute. The authority may accept an interest in property acquired in another way subject to any condition of the grantor or donor. The condition must be consistent with the proper use of the property under sections 13 to 33. Property acquired, owned, leased, controlled, used, or occupied by the authority for any of the purposes of this section is for public governmental and municipal purposes and is exempt from taxation by the state or by its political subdivisions. The exemption applies only while the authority holds property for its own purpose. The exemption is subject to the provisions of section 272.02, subdivision 5. When property is sold it begins to be taxed again.

Subd. 2a. [OPTIONS.] The economic development authority may sign options to purchase, sell, or lease property.

Subd. 3. [EMINENT DOMAIN.] The economic development authority may use eminent domain under chapter 117, or under its city's charter to acquire property it is authorized to acquire by condemnation. The authority may acquire in this way property acquired by its owner by eminent domain or property already devoted to a public use only if its city's council approves. The authority may possess property to be condemned after it files a petition in condemnation proceedings describing the property. The authority may abandon the condemnation before taking possession.

Subd. 4. [CONTRACTS.] The economic development authority may make contracts for the purpose of economic development within the powers given it in sections 13 to 33. The authority may contract or arrange with the federal government, or any of its departments, with persons, public corporations, the state, or any of its political subdivisions, commissions, or agencies, for separate or joint action, on any matter related to using the authority's powers or doing its duties. The authority may contract to purchase and sell real and personal property. However, an obligation or expense must not be incurred except when existing appropriations together with the reasonable expected revenue of the authority from other sources are sufficient to discharge the obligation or pay the expense when due. The state and its municipal subdivisions are not liable on the obligations.

Subd. 4a. [LIMITED PARTNER.] The economic development authority may be a limited partner in a partnership whose purpose is consistent with the authority's purpose.

Subd. 5. [RIGHTS; EASEMENTS.] The economic development authority may acquire rights or an easement for a term of years or perpetually for development of an economic development district.

Subd. 6. [SUPPLIES; MATERIALS.] The economic development authority may buy the supplies and materials it needs to carry out this section.

Subd. 7. [RECEIVE PUBLIC PROPERTY.] The economic development authority may accept land, money, or other assistance, whether by gift, loan or otherwise, in any form from the federal or state government, or an agency of either, or a local subdivision of state government to carry out sections 13 to 33 and to acquire and develop an economic development district and its facilities under this section.

Subd. 8. [DEVELOPMENT DISTRICT AUTHORITY.] The economic development authority may sell or lease land held by it for economic development in economic development districts. The authority may furnish capital equipment permanently or used exclusively on the lands or in the buildings if necessary to the purposes of the buildings or structures. The authority must intend that the buildings, structures, and equipment be leased or sold to private persons to further develop the economic development district.

The authority may acquire, develop, sell, or lease single or multiple tracts of land regardless of size, to be developed as a part of the economic development of the district under sections 13 to 33.

Subd. 9. [FOREIGN TRADE ZONE.] The economic development authority may apply to the board defined in United States Code, title 19, section 81a, for the right to use the powers provided in United States Code, title 19, sections 81a to 81u. If the right is granted, the authority may use the powers. One authority may apply with another authority.

Subd. 10. [RELATION TO CHAPTER 474.] The economic development authority may exercise powers and duties of a redevelopment agency under chapter 474, for a purpose in sections 13 to 33 or 462.411 to 462.705. The authority may also use the powers and duties in sections 13 to 33 and 462.411 to 462.705 for a purpose in chapter 474.

Subd. 11. [PUBLIC FACILITIES.] The authority may operate and maintain a public parking facility or other public facility to promote development in an economic development district.

Sec. 26. [458C.15] [GENERAL OBLIGATION BONDS.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY; PROCEDURE.] An economic development authority may issue general obligation bonds in the principal amount authorized by two-thirds majority vote of its city's council. The bonds may be issued in anticipation of income from any source. The bonds may be issued: (1) to secure funds needed by the authority to pay for acquired property or (2) for other purposes in sections 13 to 33. The bonds must be in the amount and form and bear interest at the rate set by the city council. The authority shall sell the bonds to the highest bidder. The authority shall publish notice of the time and the place for receiving bids, once at least two weeks before the bid deadline. Sections 13 to 33 govern issuance of the bonds. When those sections are silent, chapter 475 governs. The authority when issuing the bonds is a municipal corporation under chapter 475, and issuance of the bonds is subject to the provisions of chapter 475.

Subd. 2. [DETAIL; MATURITY.] The authority with the consent of its city's council shall set the date, denominations, place of payment, form, and details of the bonds. The bonds must mature serially. The first installment is due in not more than three years and the last in not more than 20 years from the date of issuance.

Subd. 3. [SIGNATURES; COUPONS; LIABILITY.] The bonds must be signed by the president of the authority, be attested by its secretary, and be countersigned by its treasurer; the signatures may be facsimile signatures. The interest coupons if any, must be attached to the bonds. The coupons must be executed and authenticated by the printed, engrossed, or lithographed facsimile signature of the authority's president and secretary. The bonds do not impose any personal liability on a member of the authority.

Subd. 4. [PLEDGE.] The bonds must be secured by the pledge of the full faith, credit, and resources of the issuing authority's city. The authority may pledge the full faith, credit, and resources of the city only if the city specifi- cally authorizes the authority to do so. The city council must first decide whether the issuance of the bonds by the authority is proper in each case and if so, what amount of bonds to issue. The city council shall give specific consent in an ordinance to the pledge of the city's full faith, credit, and resources. The authority shall pay the principal amount of the bonds and the interest on it from taxes levied under this section to make the payment or from authority income from any source.

)ls150 Subd. 5. [TAX LEVY.] An authority that issues bonds under this section, shall, before issuing them, levy a tax for each year on the taxable property in the authority's city. The tax must be for at least five percent more than the amount required to pay the principal and interest on the bonds as the principal and interest mature. The tax must be levied annually until the principal and interest are paid in full. After the bonds have been delivered to the purchasers, the tax must not be repealed until the debt is paid. After the bonds are issued, the authority need not take any more action to authorize extending, assessing, and collecting the tax. The authority's secretary shall immediately send a certified copy of the levy to the county auditor. The secretary shall send with the copy full information on the bonds for which the tax is levied. The county auditor shall extend and assess the levied tax annually until the principal and interest are paid in full. The authority shall transfer the surplus from the excess levy in this section to a sinking fund after the principal and interest for which the tax was levied and collected is paid. The authority may direct its secretary to send a certificate to the county auditor before October 15 in a year. The certificate must state how much available income including the amount in the sinking fund the authority will use to pay principal or interest or both on each specified issue of the authority's bonds. The auditor shall then reduce the bond levy for that year by that amount. The authority shall then set aside the certified amount and may not use it for any purpose except to pay the principal and interest on the bonds. The taxes in this section shall be collected and sent to the authority by the county treasurer under the law on collection of other taxes. The taxes must be used only to pay the bonds when due.

Subd. 6. [AUTHORIZED SECURITIES.] Bonds legally issued under this chapter are authorized securities under section 50.14. A savings bank, trust company, or insurance company may invest in them. A public or municipal corporation may invest its sinking funds in them. The bonds may be pledged by a bank or trust company as security for the deposit of public money in place of a surety bond.

The authority's bonds are instrumentalities of a public governmental agency.

Sec. 27. [458C.16] [REVENUE BONDS; PLEDGE; COVENANTS.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY.] An economic development authority may decide by resolution to issue its revenue bonds either at one time or in series from time to time. The revenue bonds may be issued to provide money to pay to acquire land needed to operate the authority, to purchase or construct facilities, to purchase, construct, install, or furnish capital equipment to operate a facility for economic development of any kind within the city, or to pay to extend, enlarge, or improve a project under its control. The issued bonds may include the amount the authority considers necessary to establish an initial reserve to pay principal and interest on the bonds. The authority shall state in a resolution how the bonds and their attached interest coupons are to be executed.

Subd. 2. [FORM.] The bonds of each series issued by the authority under this section shall bear interest at a rate or rates, shall mature at the time or times within 20 years from the date of issuance and shall be in the form, whether payable to bearer, registrable as to principal, or fully registrable, as may be determined by the authority. Section 26, subdivision 6, applies to all bonds issued under this section, and the bonds and their coupons, if any, when payable to bearer, shall be negotiable instruments.

Subd. 3. [SALE.] The sale of revenue bonds issued by the authority shall be at public or private sale. The bonds may be sold in the manner and for the price that the authority determines to be for the best interest of the authority. The bonds may be made callable, and if so issued, may be refunded.

Subd. 4. [AGREEMENTS.] The authority may by resolution make an agreement or covenant with the bondholders or their trustee. The authority must first decide that the agreement or covenant is needed or desirable to do what the authority may do under this section and to assure that the revenue bonds are marketable and promptly paid.

Subd. 5. [REVENUE PLEDGE.] In issuing general obligation or revenue bonds, the authority may secure the payment of the principal and the interest on the bonds by a pledge of and lien on authority revenue. The revenue must come from the facility to be acquired, constructed, or improved with the bond proceeds or from other facilities named in the bond-authorizing resolutions. The authority also may secure the payment with its promise to impose, maintain, and collect enough rentals, rates and charges, for the use and occupancy of the facilities and for services furnished in connection with the use and occupancy, to pay its current expenses to operate and maintain the named facilities, and to produce and put enough net revenue in a special fund to meet the interest and principal requirements of the bonds, and to collect and keep any more money required by the resolutions. The authority shall decide what is current expense under this subdivision based on what is normal and reasonable under accepted accounting principles. Revenues pledged by the authority must not be used or pledged for any other authority purpose or to pay any other bonds issued under this section or under section 26, unless the other use or pledge is specifically authorized in the bond-authorizing resolutions.

Subd. 6. [NOT CITY DEBT.] Revenue bonds issued under this section are not a debt of the authority's city nor a pledge of that city's full faith and credit. The bonds are payable only from project revenue as described in this section. A revenue bond must contain on its face a statement to the effect that the economic development authority and its named city do not have to pay the bond or the interest on it except from revenue and that the faith, credit, and taxing power of the city are not pledged to pay the principal of or the interest on the bond.

Subd. 7. [NOT APPLICABLE.] Sections 474.01, subdivisions 7a, 7b, and 8 and 474.02, subdivision 1d, do not apply to revenue bonds issued under this section and chapter 474 if the interest on the revenue bonds is subject to both state and federal income tax or if the revenue bond proceeds are not loaned by the authority to a private person.

Subd. 8. [TAX INCREMENT BONDS.] Obligations secured or payable from tax increment revenues and issued pursuant to this section or section 26 are subject to the provisions of section 273.77.

Sec. 28. [458C.17] [SECTIONS THAT APPLY IF FEDERAL LIMIT APPLIES.]

Sections 474.16 to 474.23 apply to obligations issued under sections 13 to 33 that are limited by a federal limitation act defined in section 474.16, subdivision 5.

Sec. 29. [458C.18] [ADDITIONAL POWERS.]

Subdivision 1. [AS AGENT.] An economic development authority may cooperate with or act as agent for the federal or the state government, or a state public body, or an agency or instrumentality of a government or a public body to carry out sections 13 to 33 or any other related federal, state or local law in the area of economic development district improvement.

Subd. 2. [STUDIES, ANALYSIS, RESEARCH.] An authority may study and analyze economic development needs in the city, and ways to meet the needs. An authority may study the desirable patterns for land use for economic development and community growth and other factors affecting local economic development in the city and make the result of the studies available to the public and to industry in general. An authority may engage in research and give out information on economic development within the city.

Subd. 3. [PUBLIC RELATIONS.] To further an authorized purpose an authority may (1) join an official, industrial, commercial, or trade association, or another organization concerned with the purpose, (2) have a reception of officials who may contribute to advancing the city and its economic development, and (3) carry out other public relations activities to promote the city and its economic development. Activities under this subdivision have a public purpose.

Subd. 4. [ACCEPT PUBLIC LAND.] An authority may accept conveyances of land from all other public agencies, commissions or other units of government, if the land can be properly used by the authority in an economic development district, to carry out the purposes of sections 13 to 33.

Subd. 5. [ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT.] An authority may carry out the law on economic development districts to develop and improve the lands in an economic development district to make it suitable and available for economic development uses and purposes. An authority may fill, grade, and protect the property and do anything necessary and expedient, after acquiring the property, to make it suitable and attractive as a tract for economic development. An authority may lease some or all of its lands or property and may set up local improvement districts in all or part of an economic development district.

In general, with respect to an economic development district, an authority may use all the powers given an economic development authority by law.

Subd. 6. [AS BORROWER.] An authority after authorizing bonds under section 26 or 27 may borrow to provide money immediately required for the bond purpose. The loans must not exceed the amount of the bonds. The authority shall by resolution decide the terms of the loans. The loans must be evidenced by negotiable notes due in not more than 12 months from the date of the loan payable to the order of the lender or to bearer, to be repaid with interest from the proceeds of the bonds when the bonds are issued and delivered to the bond purchasers. The loan must not be obtained from any commissioner of the authority or from any corporation, association, or other institution of which an authority commissioner is a stockholder or officer.

Subd. 7. [AS LENDER.] The proceeds of obligations issued by an authority under section 27 and temporary loans obtained under this section may be used to make or purchase loans for economic development facilities that the authority believes will require financing. To make or purchase the loans, the authority may enter into loan and related agreements, both before and after issuing the obligations, with persons, firms, public or private corporations, federal or state agencies, and governmental units under terms and conditions the authority considers appropriate. A governmental unit in the state may apply, contract for, and receive the loans. Chapter 475 does not apply to the loans.

Subd. 8. [MINED SPACE DEVELOPMENT.] Upon delegation by a municipality as provided in section 472B.08, an authority may exercise any of the delegated powers in connection with mined underground space development under sections 472B.03 to 472B.07.

Subd. 9. [CITY FACILITIES, SERVICES.] An authority city may furnish offices, structures, and space, stenographic, clerical, engineering, or other assistance to its authority.

Sec. 30. [458C.19] [SALE OF PROPERTY.]

Subdivision 1. [POWER.] An economic development authority may sell and convey property owned by it within the city or an economic development district. First, the authority must decide that the sale and conveyance are in the best interests of the city or district and its people, and that the transaction furthers its general plan of economic development. This section is not limited by other law on powers of economic development authorities.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE; HEARING.] An authority shall hold a hearing on the sale. At the hearing a taxpayer may testify for or against the sale. At least ten, but not more than 20, days before the hearing the authority shall publish notice of the hearing on the proposed sale in a newspaper. The newspaper must be published and have general circulation in the authority's county and city. The notice must describe the property to be sold and state the time and place of the hearing. The notice must also state that the public may see the terms and conditions of the sale at the authority's office and that at the hearing the authority will meet to decide if the sale is advisable.

Subd. 3. [DECISION; APPEAL.] The authority shall make its findings and decision on whether the sale is advisable and enter its decision on its records within 30 days of the hearing. A taxpayer may appeal the decision. The appeal is made by filing a notice of appeal with the district court in the city or economic development district's county and serving the notice on the secretary of the authority, within 20 days after the decision is entered. The only ground for appeal is that the action of the authority was arbitrary, capricious, or contrary to law.

Subd. 4. [TERMS.] The terms and conditions of sale of the property must include the use that the bidder will be allowed to make of it. The authority may require the purchaser to file security to assure that the property will be given that use. In deciding the sale terms and conditions the authority may consider the nature of the proposed use and the relation of the use to the improvement of the authority's city and the business and the facilities of the authority in general. The sale must be made on the authority's terms and conditions. The authority may publish an advertisement for bids on the property at the same time and in the same manner as the notice of hearing required in this section. The authority may award the sale to the bid considered by it to be most favorable considering the price and the specified intended use. The authority may also sell the property at private sale at a negotiated price if after its hearing the authority considers that sale to be in the public interest and to further the aims and purposes of sections 13 to 33.

Subd. 5. [ONE-YEAR DEADLINE.] The purchaser shall, within one year from the date of purchase, devote the property to its intended use, or shall begin work on the improvements to the property to devote it to that use. If the purchaser fails to do so, the authority may cancel the sale and title to the property shall return to it. The authority may extend the time to comply with a condition if the purchaser has good cause. The terms of sale may contain other provisions that the authority considers necessary and proper to protect the public interest. A purchaser must not transfer title to the property within one year of purchase without the consent of the authority.

Subd. 6. [COVENANT RUNNING WITH THE LAND.] A sale made under this section must incorporate in the deed as a covenant running with the land the conditions of sections 13 to 33 relating to the use of the land. If the covenant is violated the authority may declare a breach of the covenant and seek a judicial decree from the district court declaring a forfeiture and a cancellation of the deed.

Subd. 7. [PLANS; SPECIFICATIONS.] A conveyance must not be made until the purchaser gives the authority plans and specifications to develop the property sold. The authority must approve the plans and specifications in writing. The preparation of final plans and specifications before the hearing on the sale is not required by this subdivision but the authority may make that requirement.

Sec. 31. [458C.20] [ADVANCES BY AUTHORITY.]

An authority may advance its general fund money or its credit, or both, without interest, for the objects and purposes of sections 13 to 33. The advances must be repaid from the sale or lease, or both, of developed or redeveloped lands. If the money advanced for the development or redevelopment was obtained from the sale of the authority's general obligation bonds, then the advances must have not less than the average annual interest rate that is on the authority's general obligation bonds that are outstanding at the time the advances are made. The authority may advance repaid money for more objects and purposes of sections 13 to 33 subject to repayment in the same manner. The authority must still use rentals of lands acquired with advanced money to collect and maintain reserves to secure the payment of principal and interest on revenue bonds issued to finance economic development facilities, if the rentals have been pledged for that purpose under section 27. Advances made to acquire lands and to construct facilities for recreation purposes if authorized by law need not be reimbursed under this section. Sections 13 to 33 do not exempt lands leased from the authority to a private person, or entity from assessments or taxes against the leased property while the lessee is liable for the assessments or taxes under the lease.

Sec. 32. [458C.22] [CITY MAY LEVY TAXES FOR ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY.]

Subdivision 1. [CITY TAX LEVY.] A city may, at the request of the authority, levy a tax in any year for the benefit of the authority. The tax must be for not more than .75 mill times the assessed valuation of taxable property in the city. The tax may be levied beyond levy limits in law. The amount levied must be paid by the city treasurer to the treasurer of the authority, to be spent by the authority.

Subd. 2. [REVERSE REFERENDUM.] A city may increase its levy for economic development authority purposes under subdivision 1 in the following way. Its city council must first pass a resolution stating the proposed amount of levy increase. The city must then publish the resolution together with a notice of public hearing on the resolution for two successive weeks in its official newspaper or if none exists in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. The hearing must be held two to four weeks after the first publication. After the hearing, the city council may decide to take no action or may adopt a resolution authorizing the proposed increase or a lesser increase. A resolution authorizing an increase must be published in the city's official newspaper or if none exists in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. The resolution is not effective if a petition requesting a referendum on the resolution is filed with the city clerk within 30 days of publication of the resolution. The petition must be signed by voters equaling five percent of the votes cast in the city in the last general election. The election must be held pursuant to the procedure specified in section 275.58.

Sec. 33. [458C.23] [SPECIAL LAW; OPTIONAL USE.]

A city that has established a port authority by special law or that has been granted the power to establish a port authority by special law, or a city whose city council has been authorized to exercise the powers of a port authority by special law may elect to use the powers granted in sections 13 to 33. If the election is made, the powers and duties set forth in sections 13 to 33 supersede the special law and the special law must not be used anymore. The use of powers under sections 13 to 33 by a city described in this section does not impair the security of any obligations issued or contracts or agreements executed under the special law. Control, authority, and operation of any project may be transferred to the authority in the manner provided in section 17.

Sec. 34. [LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS.]

The statement of policy and the findings of the legislature in enacting Laws 1957, chapter 812, are confirmed and apply equally to the exercise of powers by economic development authorities and statutory or home rule charter cities pursuant to sections 13 to 33.

The Honorable David M. Jennings
Speaker of the House of Representatives

We, the undersigned conferees for S.F. No. 1869, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

(2) a material issue in a rulemaking proceeding after the beginning of commission deliberations;

(3) a material issue in a disputed formal petition; and

(4) any other communication impermissible by law.

A contested case is pending from the time the commission refers the matter to the office of administrative hearings until the commission has issued its final order, and the time to petition for reconsideration has expired or the commission has issued an order finally disposing an application for reconsideration, whichever is later.

Subd. 2. [COMMUNICATIONS PROHIBITED.] A commissioner shall not communicate, directly or indirectly, with a person or entity who is a party to a pending proceeding before the commission regarding past or future benefits or compensation to be received from that person or entity. The commission may dismiss a proceeding if an applicant, petitioner, or complainant violates this subdivision.

The commission shall adopt emergency rules to implement this subdivision.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 216B.16, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [SETTLEMENT BARRED.] When a public utility proposes changes in general rates that would increase general rates paid by consumers ~~by more than $500,000 annually~~, the commission ~~shall not~~ may approve the change ~~until after requiring the office of administrative hearings to conduct~~ without a contested case hearing ~~on, at a minimum, the appropriate rate base, expense and revenue levels for the test year, and the rate of return. If the formal parties to the contested case choose not to cross-examine the testimony presented, it shall be the duty of the commission and its staff to make inquiry of the witnesses presented to ensure that the testimony is well reasoned and constitutes substantial evidence. After a report of the examiner has been issued, the commission may proceed to take action on the proposed rates consistent with the provisions of this section. The commission shall not accept any stipulation that is not agreed to by~~ if applicant and all intervening parties agree to a stipulated settlement of the case and the settlement is supported by substantial evidence. The commission shall accept or reject the settlement in its entirety and, at any time until its final order is issued in the case, may require the office of administrative hearings to conduct a contested case hearing.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 216B.16, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [SUSPENSION OF RATES; HEARING.] Whenever there is filed with the commission a schedule modifying or resulting in a change in any rates then in force as provided in subdivision 1, the commission may suspend the operation of the schedule by filing with the schedule of rates and delivering to the affected utility a statement in writing of its reasons for the suspension at any time before the rates become effective. The suspension shall not be for a longer period than ten months beyond the initial filing date. During the suspension the commission shall determine whether all questions of the reasonableness of the rates requested raised by persons deemed interested or by the administrative division of the department of public service can be resolved to the satisfaction of the commission. If the commission finds that all significant issues raised have not been resolved to its satisfaction, or upon petition by ten percent of the affected customers or 250 affected customers, whichever is less, it shall refer the matter to the office of administrative hearings with instructions for a public hearing as a contested case pursuant to chapter 14, except as otherwise provided in this section. The commission may order that the issues presented by the proposed rate changes be bifurcated into two separate hearings as follows: (1) determination of the utility's revenue requirements and (2) determination of the rate design. Upon issuance of both hearing examiner reports, the issues shall again be joined for consideration and final determination by the commission. All prehearing discovery activities of state agency intervenors shall be consolidated and conducted by the department of public service. If the commission does not make a final determination concerning a schedule of rates within ten months after the initial filing date, the schedule shall be deemed to have been approved by the commission*; except if a settlement has been submitted to and rejected by the commission, the schedule is deemed to have been approved 12 months after the initial filing*. For the purposes of this section, "final determination" means the initial decision of the commission and not any order which may be entered by the commission in response to a petition for rehearing or other further relief. The commission may further suspend rates until it determines all those petitions.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 237.075, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [SETTLEMENT BARRED.] When a telephone company proposes changes in general rates that would increase general rates paid by consumers ~~by more than $500,000 annually~~, the commission ~~shall not~~ may approve the change ~~until after requiring the office of administrative hearings to conduct~~ without a contested case hearing ~~on, at a minimum, the appropriate rate base, expense and revenue levels for the test year, and the rate of return. If the formal parties to the contested case choose not to cross-examine the testimony presented, it shall be the duty of the commission and its staff to make inquiry of the witnesses presented to ensure that the testimony is well reasoned and constitutes substantial evidence. After a report of the examiner has been issued, the commission may proceed to take action on the proposed rates consistent with the provisions of this section. The commission shall not accept any stipulation that is not agreed to by~~ if applicant and all intervening parties agree to a stipulated settlement of the case and the settlement is sup- ported by substantial evidence. The commission shall accept or reject the settlement in its entirety and, at any time until its final order is issued in the case, may require the office of administrative hearings to conduct a contested case hearing.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 237.075, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [SUSPENSION OF RATES; HEARING.] Whenever there is filed with the commission as provided in subdivision 1 a schedule modifying or resulting in a change in any rate then in force, the commission may suspend the operation of the schedule by filing with the schedule of rates and delivering to the affected telephone company a statement in writing of its reasons for the suspension at any time before the rates become effective. The suspension shall not be for a longer period than ten months beyond the initial filing date. During the suspension the commission shall determine whether all questions of the reasonableness of the rates requested raised by persons deemed interested or by the administrative division of the department of public service can be resolved to the satisfaction of the commission. If the commission finds that all significant issues raised have not been resolved to its satisfaction, or upon petition by ten percent of the affected customers or 250 affected customers, whichever is less, it shall refer the matter to the office of administrative hearings with instructions for a public hearing as a contested case pursuant to chapter 14, except as otherwise provided in this section. The commission may order that the issues presented by the proposed rate changes be bifurcated into two separate hearings as follows: (1) determination of the telephone company's revenue requirements and (2) determination of the rate design. Upon issuance of both administrative law judge reports, the issues shall again be joined for consideration and final determination by the commission. All prehearing discovery activities of state agency intervenors shall be consolidated and conducted by the department of public service. If the commission does not make a final determination concerning a schedule of rates within ten months after the initial filing date, the schedule shall be deemed to have been approved by the commission; except if a settlement has been submitted to and rejected by the commission, the schedule is deemed to have been approved 12 months after the initial filing. For the purposes of this section, "final determination" means the initial decision of the commission and not any order which may be entered by the commission in response to a petition for rehearing or other further relief. The commission may further suspend rates until it determines all those petitions.

The first installment is due in not more than three years and the last in not more than 20 years from the date of issuance.*

Subd. 3. [SIGNATURES; COUPONS; LIABILITY.] The bonds must be signed by the president of the authority, be attested by its secretary, and be countersigned by its treasurer; the signatures may be facsimile signatures. The interest coupons if any, must be attached to the bonds. The coupons must be executed and authenticated by the printed, engrossed, or lithographed facsimile signature of the authority's president and secretary. The bonds do not impose any personal liability on a member of the authority.

Subd. 4. [PLEDGE.] The bonds must be secured by the pledge of the full faith, credit, and resources of the issuing authority's city. The authority may pledge the full faith, credit, and resources of the city only if the city specifically authorizes the authority to do so. The city council must first decide whether the issuance of the bonds by the authority is proper in each case and if so, what amount of bonds to issue. The city council shall give specific consent in an ordinance to the pledge of the city's full faith, credit, and resources. The authority shall pay the principal amount of the bonds and the interest on it from taxes levied under this section to make the payment or from authority income from any source.

Subd. 5. [TAX LEVY.] An authority that issues bonds under this section, shall, before issuing them, levy a tax for each year on the taxable property in the authority's city. The tax must be for at least five percent more than the amount required to pay the principal and interest on the bonds as the principal and interest mature. The tax must be levied annually until the principal and interest are paid in full. After the bonds have been delivered to the purchasers, the tax must not be repealed until the debt is paid. After the bonds are issued, the authority need not take any more action to authorize extending, assessing, and collecting the tax. The authority's secretary shall immediately send a certified copy of the levy to the county auditor. The secretary shall send with the copy full information on the bonds for which the tax is levied. The county auditor shall extend and assess the levied tax annually until the principal and interest are paid in full. The authority shall transfer the surplus from the excess levy in this section to a sinking fund after the principal and interest for which the tax was levied and collected is paid. The authority may direct its secretary to send a certificate to the county auditor before October 15 in a year. The certificate must state how much available income including the amount in the sinking fund the authority will use to pay principal or interest or both on each specified issue of the authority's bonds. The auditor shall then reduce the bond levy for that year by that amount. The authority shall then set aside the certified amount and may not use it for any purpose except to pay the principal and interest on the bonds. The taxes in this section shall be collected and sent to the authority by the county treasurer under the law on collection of other taxes. The taxes must be used only to pay the bonds when due.

Subd. 6. [AUTHORIZED SECURITIES.] Bonds legally issued under this chapter are authorized securities under section 50.14. A savings bank, trust company, or insurance company may invest in them. A public or municipal corporation may invest its sinking funds in them. The bonds may be pledged by a bank or trust company as security for the deposit of public money in place of a surety bond.

The authority's bonds are instrumentalities of a public governmental agency.

Sec. 27. [458C.16] [REVENUE BONDS; PLEDGE; COVENANTS.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY.] An economic development authority may decide by resolution to issue its revenue bonds either at one time or in series from time to time. The revenue bonds may be issued to provide money to pay to acquire land needed to operate the authority, to purchase or construct facilities, to purchase, construct, install, or furnish capital equipment to operate a facility for economic development of any kind within the city, or to pay to extend, enlarge, or improve a project under its control. The issued bonds may include the amount the authority considers necessary to establish an initial reserve to pay principal and interest on the bonds. The authority shall state in a resolution how the bonds and their attached interest coupons are to be executed.

Subd. 2. [FORM.] The bonds of each series issued by the authority under this section shall bear interest at a rate or rates, shall mature at the time or times within 20 years from the date of issuance and shall be in the form, whether payable to bearer, registrable as to principal, or fully registrable, as may be determined by the authority. Section 26, subdivision 6, applies to all bonds issued under this section, and the bonds and their coupons, if any, when payable to bearer, shall be negotiable instruments.

Subd. 3. [SALE.] The sale of revenue bonds issued by the authority shall be at public or private sale. The bonds may be sold in the manner and for the price that the authority determines to be for the best interest of the authority. The bonds may be made callable, and if so issued, may be refunded.

Subd. 4. [AGREEMENTS.] The authority may by resolution make an agreement or covenant with the bondholders or their trustee. The authority must first decide that the agreement or covenant is needed or desirable to do what the authority may do under this section and to assure that the revenue bonds are marketable and promptly paid.

Subd. 5. [REVENUE PLEDGE.] In issuing general obligation or revenue bonds, the authority may secure the payment of the principal and the interest on the bonds by a pledge of and lien on authority revenue. The revenue must come from the facility to be acquired, constructed, or improved with the bond proceeds or from other facilities named in the bond-authorizing resolutions. The authority also may secure the payment with its promise to impose, maintain, and collect enough rentals, rates and charges, for the use and occupancy of the facilities and for services furnished in connection with the use and occupancy, to pay its current expenses to operate and maintain the named facilities, and to produce and put enough net revenue in a special fund to meet the interest and principal requirements of the bonds, and to collect and keep any more money required by the resolutions. The authority shall decide what is current expense under this subdivision based on what is normal and reasonable under accepted accounting principles. Revenues pledged by the authority must not be used or pledged for any other authority purpose or to pay any other bonds issued under this section or under section 26, unless the other use or pledge is specifically authorized in the bond-authorizing resolutions.

Subd. 6. [NOT CITY DEBT.] Revenue bonds issued under this section are not a debt of the authority's city nor a pledge of that city's full faith and credit. The bonds are payable only from project revenue as described in this section. A revenue bond must contain on its face a statement to the effect that the economic development authority and its named city do not have to pay the bond or the interest on it except from revenue and that the faith, credit, and taxing power of the city are not pledged to pay the principal of or the interest on the bond.

Subd. 7. [NOT APPLICABLE.] Sections 474.01, subdivisions 7a, 7b, and 8 and 474.02, subdivision 1d, do not apply to revenue bonds issued under this section and chapter 474 if the interest on the revenue bonds is subject to both state and federal income tax or if the revenue bond proceeds are not loaned by the authority to a private person.

Subd. 8. [TAX INCREMENT BONDS.] Obligations secured or payable from tax increment revenues and issued pursuant to this section or section 26 are subject to the provisions of section 273.77.

Sec. 28. [458C.17] [SECTIONS THAT APPLY IF FEDERAL LIMIT APPLIES.]

Sections 474.16 to 474.23 apply to obligations issued under sections 13 to 33 that are limited by a federal limitation act defined in section 474.16, subdivision 5.

Sec. 29. [458C.18] [ADDITIONAL POWERS.]

Subdivision 1. [AS AGENT.] An economic development authority may cooperate with or act as agent for the federal or the state government, or a state public body, or an agency or instrumentality of a government or a public body to carry out sections 13 to 33 or any other related federal, state or local law in the area of economic development district improvement.

Subd. 2. [STUDIES, ANALYSIS, RESEARCH.] An authority may study and analyze economic development needs in the city, and ways to meet the needs. An authority may study the desirable patterns for land use for economic development and community growth and other factors affecting local economic development in the city and make the result of the studies available to the public and to industry in general. An authority may engage in research and give out information on economic development within the city.

Subd. 3. [PUBLIC RELATIONS.] To further an authorized purpose an authority may (1) join an official, industrial, commercial, or trade association, or another organization concerned with the purpose, (2) have a reception of officials who may contribute to advancing the city and its economic development, and (3) carry out other public relations activities to promote the city and its economic development. Activities under this subdivision have a public purpose.

Subd. 4. [ACCEPT PUBLIC LAND.] An authority may accept conveyances of land from all other public agencies, commissions or other units of government, if the land can be properly used by the authority in an economic development district, to carry out the purposes of sections 13 to 33.

Subd. 5. [ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT.] An authority may carry out the law on economic development districts to develop and improve the lands in an economic development district to make it suitable and available for economic development uses and purposes. An authority may fill, grade, and protect the property and do anything necessary and expedient, after acquiring the property, to make it suitable and attractive as a tract for economic development. An authority may lease some or all of its lands or property and may set up local improvement districts in all or part of an economic development district.

In general, with respect to an economic development district, an authority may use all the powers given an economic development authority by law.

Subd. 6. [AS BORROWER.] An authority after authorizing bonds under section 26 or 27 may borrow to provide money immediately required for the bond purpose. The loans must not exceed the amount of the bonds. The authority shall by resolution decide the terms of the loans. The loans must be evidenced by negotiable notes due in not more than 12 months from the date of the loan payable to the order of the lender or to bearer, to be repaid with interest from the proceeds of the bonds when the bonds are issued and delivered to the bond purchasers. The loan must not be obtained from any commissioner of the authority or from any corporation, association, or other institution of which an authority commissioner is a stockholder or officer.

Subd. 7. [AS LENDER.] The proceeds of obligations issued by an authority under section 27 and temporary loans obtained under this section may be used to make or purchase loans for economic development facilities that the authority believes will require financing. To make or purchase the loans, the authority may enter into loan and related agreements, both before and after issuing the obligations, with persons, firms, public or private corporations, federal or state agencies, and governmental units under terms and conditions the authority considers appropriate. A governmental unit in the state may apply, contract for, and receive the loans. Chapter 475 does not apply to the loans.

Subd. 8. [MINED SPACE DEVELOPMENT.] Upon delegation by a municipality as provided in section 472B.08, an authority may exercise any of the delegated powers in connection with mined underground space development under sections 472B.03 to 472B.07.

Subd. 9. [CITY FACILITIES, SERVICES.] An authority city may furnish offices, structures, and space, stenographic, clerical, engineering, or other assistance to its authority.

Sec. 30. [458C.19] [SALE OF PROPERTY.]

Subdivision 1. [POWER.] An economic development authority may sell and convey property owned by it within the city or an economic development district. First, the authority must decide that the sale and conveyance are in the best interests of the city or district and its people, and that the transaction furthers its general plan of economic development. This section is not limited by other law on powers of economic development authorities.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE; HEARING.] An authority shall hold a hearing on the sale. At the hearing a taxpayer may testify for or against the sale. At least ten, but not more than 20, days before the hearing the authority shall publish notice of the hearing on the proposed sale in a newspaper. The newspaper must be published and have general circulation in the authority's county and city. The notice must describe the property to be sold and state the time and place of the hearing. The notice must also state that the public may see the terms and conditions of the sale at the authority's office and that at the hearing the authority will meet to decide if the sale is advisable.

Subd. 3. [DECISION; APPEAL.] The authority shall make its findings and decision on whether the sale is advisable and enter its decision on its records within 30 days of the hearing. A taxpayer may appeal the decision. The appeal is made by filing a notice of appeal with the district court in the city or economic development district's county and serving the notice on the secretary of the authority, within 20 days after the decision is entered. The only ground for appeal is that the action of the authority was arbitrary, capricious, or contrary to law.

Subd. 4. [TERMS.] The terms and conditions of sale of the property must include the use that the bidder will be allowed to make of it. The authority may require the purchaser to file security to assure that the property will be given that use. In deciding the sale terms and conditions the authority may consider the nature of the proposed use and the relation of the use to the improvement of the authority's city and the business and the facilities of the authority in general. The sale must be made on the authority's terms and conditions. The authority may publish an advertisement for bids on the property at the same time and in the same manner as the notice of hearing required in this section. The authority may award the sale to the bid considered by it to be most favorable considering the price and the specified intended use. The authority may also sell the property at private sale at a negotiated price if after its hearing the authority considers that sale to be in the public interest and to further the aims and purposes of sections 13 to 33.

Subd. 5. [ONE-YEAR DEADLINE.] The purchaser shall, within one year from the date of purchase, devote the property to its intended use, or shall begin work on the improvements to the property to devote it to that use. If the purchaser fails to do so, the authority may cancel the sale and title to the property shall return to it. The authority may extend the time to comply with a condition if the purchaser has good cause. The terms of sale may contain other provisions that the authority considers necessary and proper to protect the public interest. A purchaser must not transfer title to the property within one year of purchase without the consent of the authority.

Subd. 6. [COVENANT RUNNING WITH THE LAND.] A sale made under this section must incorporate in the deed as a covenant running with the land the conditions of sections 13 to 33 relating to the use of the land. If the covenant is violated the authority may declare a breach of the covenant and seek a judicial decree from the district court declaring a forfeiture and a cancellation of the deed.

Subd. 7. [PLANS; SPECIFICATIONS.] A conveyance must not be made until the purchaser gives the authority plans and specifications to develop the property sold. The authority must approve the plans and specifications in writing. The preparation of final plans and specifications before the hearing on the sale is not required by this subdivision but the authority may make that requirement.

Sec. 31. [458C.20] [ADVANCES BY AUTHORITY.]

An authority may advance its general fund money or its credit, or both, without interest, for the objects and purposes of sections 13 to 33. The advances must be repaid from the sale or lease, or both, of developed or redeveloped lands. If the money advanced for the development or redevelopment was obtained from the sale of the authority's general obligation bonds, then the advances must have not less than the average annual interest rate that is on the authority's general obligation bonds that are outstanding at the time the advances are made. The authority may advance repaid money for more objects and purposes of sections 13 to 33 subject to repayment in the same manner. The authority must still use rentals of lands acquired with advanced money to collect and maintain reserves to secure the payment of principal and interest on revenue bonds issued to finance economic development facilities, if the rentals have been pledged for that purpose under section 27. Advances made to acquire lands and to construct facilities for recreation purposes if authorized by law need not be reimbursed under this section. Sections 13 to 33 do not exempt lands leased from the authority to a private person, or entity from assessments or taxes against the leased property while the lessee is liable for the assessments or taxes under the lease.

Sec. 32. [458C.22] [CITY MAY LEVY TAXES FOR ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY.]

Subdivision 1. [CITY TAX LEVY.] A city may, at the request of the authority, levy a tax in any year for the benefit of the authority. The tax must be for not more than .75 mill times the assessed valuation of taxable property in the city. The tax may be levied beyond levy limits in law. The amount levied must be paid by the city treasurer to the treasurer of the authority, to be spent by the authority.

Subd. 2. [REVERSE REFERENDUM.] A city may increase its levy for economic development authority purposes under subdivision 1 in the following way. Its city council must first pass a resolution stating the proposed amount of levy increase. The city must then publish the resolution together with a notice of public hearing on the resolution for two successive weeks in its official newspaper or if none exists in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. The hearing must be held two to four weeks after the first publication. After the hearing, the city council may decide to take no action or may adopt a resolution authorizing the proposed increase or a lesser increase. A resolution authorizing an increase must be published in the city's official newspaper or if none exists in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. The resolution is not effective if a petition requesting a referendum on the resolution is filed with the city clerk within 30 days of publication of the resolution. The petition must be signed by voters equaling five percent of the votes cast in the city in the last general election. The election must be held pursuant to the procedure specified in section 275.58.

Sec. 33. [458C.23] [SPECIAL LAW; OPTIONAL USE.]

A city that has established a port authority by special law or that has been granted the power to establish a port authority by special law, or a city whose city council has been authorized to exercise the powers of a port authority by special law may elect to use the powers granted in sections 13 to 33. If the election is made, the powers and duties set forth in sections 13 to 33 supersede the special law and the special law must not be used anymore. The use of powers under sections 13 to 33 by a city described in this section does not impair the security of any obligations issued or contracts or agreements executed under the special law. Control, authority, and operation of any project may be transferred to the authority in the manner provided in section 17.

Sec. 34. [LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS.]

The statement of policy and the findings of the legislature in enacting Laws 1957, chapter 812, are confirmed and apply equally to the exercise of powers by economic development authorities and statutory or home rule charter cities pursuant to sections 13 to 33.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 123.3514, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4a. [COUNSELING.] To the extent possible, the school district shall provide counseling services to pupils and their parents or guardian before the pupils enroll in courses under this section to ensure that the pupils and their parents or guardian are fully aware of the risks and possible consequences of enrolling in post-secondary courses. The district shall provide information on the program including who may enroll, what institutions and courses are eligible for participation, the decision-making process for granting academic credits, financial arrangements for tuition, books and materials, eligibility criteria for transportation aid, available support services, the need to arrange an appropriate schedule, consequences of failing or not completing a course in which the pupil enrolls, the effect of enrolling in this program on the pupil's ability to complete the required high school graduation requirements, and the academic and social responsibilities that must be assumed by the pupils and their parents or guardian. The person providing counseling shall encourage pupils and their parents or guardian to also use available counseling services at the post-secondary institutions before the quarter or semester of enrollment to ensure that anticipated plans are appropriate.

Prior to enrolling in a course, the pupil and the pupil's parents or guardian must sign a form that must be provided by the district and may be obtained from a post-secondary institution stating that they have received the information specified in this subdivision and that they understand the responsibilities that must be assumed in enrolling in this program. The department of education shall, upon request, provide technical assistance to a district in developing appropriate forms and counseling guidelines.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 123.3514, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4b. [DISSEMINATION OF INFORMATION; NOTIFICATION OF INTENT TO ENROLL.] By March 1 of each year, a school district shall provide general information about the program to all pupils in grades 10 and 11. To assist the district in planning, a pupil shall inform the district by March 30 of each year of the pupil's intent to enroll in post-secondary courses during the following school year. A pupil is not bound by notifying or not notifying the district by March 30.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 123.3514, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4c. [LIMIT ON PARTICIPATION.] A pupil who first enrolls in grade 11 may not enroll in post-secondary courses under this section for secondary credit for more than the equivalent of two academic years. A pupil who first enrolls in grade 12 may not enroll in post-secondary courses under this section for secondary credit for more than the equivalent of one academic year. If a pupil in grade 11 or 12 first enrolls in a post-secondary course for secondary credit during the school year, the time of participation shall be reduced proportionately.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 123.3514, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4d. [ENROLLMENT PRIORITY.] A post-secondary institution shall give priority to its post-secondary students when enrolling 11th and 12th grade pupils in courses for secondary credit. Once a pupil has been enrolled in a post-secondary course under this section, the pupil shall not be displaced by another student.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 123.3514, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [CREDITS.] A pupil may enroll in a course under this section for either secondary credit or post-secondary credit. At the time a pupil enrolls in a course, the pupil shall designate whether the course is for secondary or post-secondary credit. A pupil taking several courses may designate some for secondary credit and some for post-secondary credit.

A school district shall grant academic credit to a pupil enrolled in a course ~~or program under this section~~ for secondary credit if the pupil successfully completes the course ~~or program attended~~. A school district shall also grant academic credit to a pupil enrolled in a course for post-secondary credit if secondary credit is requested by a pupil. If no comparable course ~~or program~~ is offered by the district, the state board of education shall determine the number of credits that shall be granted to a pupil who successfully completes ~~and passes the~~ a course ~~or program~~. If a comparable course ~~or program~~ is offered by the district, the school board shall grant a comparable number of credits to the pupil. If there is a dispute between the district and the pupil regarding the number of credits granted for a particular course ~~or program~~, the pupil may appeal the school board's decision to the state board of education. The state board's decision regarding the number of credits shall be final.

The secondary credits granted to a pupil shall be counted toward the graduation requirements and subject area requirements of the school district. Evidence of successful completion of each course ~~or program~~ and secondary credits granted shall be included in the pupil's secondary school record. Upon the request of a pupil, the pupil's secondary school record shall also include evidence of successful completion and credits granted for a course taken for post-secondary credit. In either case, the record shall indicate that the credits were earned at a post-secondary institution.

If a pupil enrolls in a post-secondary institution after leaving secondary school, the post-secondary institution shall award post-secondary credit for any course successfully completed for secondary credit at that institution. Other post-secondary institutions may award, after a pupil leaves secondary school, post-secondary credit for any courses successfully completed under this section. An institution may not charge a pupil for the award of credit.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 123.3514, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [FINANCIAL ARRANGEMENTS.] At the end of each school year, the department of education shall pay the tuition reimbursement amount within 30 days to the post-secondary institutions ~~that enroll pupils under this section~~ for courses that were taken for secondary credit. The amount of tuition reimbursement shall equal the lesser of:

(1) the actual costs of tuition, textbooks, materials, and fees directly related to the course or program ~~charged for~~ taken by the secondary pupil ~~enrolling in a course or program under this section~~; or

(2) an amount equal to the difference between the formula allowance plus the total tier revenue attributable to that pupil and an amount computed by multiplying the formula allowance plus the total tier revenue attributable to that pupil by a ratio. The ratio to be used is the total number of hours that the pupil is enrolled in courses in the secondary school during the regular school year over the total number of secondary instructional hours per pupil in that pupil's resident district.

The amount paid for each pupil shall be subtracted from the foundation aid paid to the pupil's resident district. If the amount to be subtracted is greater than the amount of foundation aid due the district, the excess reduction shall be made from other state aids due to the district. If a pupil is enrolled in a course for post-secondary credit, the school district shall include the pupil in the average daily membership only for the portion of time during which the pupil is enrolled in courses at the secondary school and enrolled in courses at a post-secondary institution for secondary credit.

The department shall not pay any tuition reimbursement or other costs of a course taken for post-secondary credit only.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 123.3514, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6a. [GRANTS AND FINANCIAL AID PROHIBITED.] A pupil enrolled in a post-secondary course for secondary credit is not eligible for any state student financial aid under chapter 136A.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 123.3514, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [TRANSPORTATION.] A parent or guardian of a pupil ~~attending a post-secondary institution under this section~~ enrolled in a course for secondary credit may apply to the pupil's district of residence for reimbursement for transporting the pupil between the secondary school in which the pupil is enrolled and the post-secondary institution that the pupil attends. The state board of education shall establish guidelines for providing state aid to districts to reimburse the parent or guardian for the necessary transportation costs, which shall be based on financial need. The state shall pay aid to the district according to the guidelines established under this subdivision. Chapter 14 does not apply to the guidelines.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 123.3514, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [LIMIT; STATE OBLIGATION.] The provisions of subdivisions 6, 7, 8, and 9 shall not apply for any post-secondary courses ~~or programs~~ in which a pupil is enrolled in addition to being enrolled full time in that pupil's district or for any post-secondary course in which a pupil is enrolled for post-secondary credit.

Sec. 12. [135A.10] [CREDIT FOR ADVANCED PLACEMENT PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [POLICY AND PROCEDURES TO AWARD CREDIT.] The board of regents of the University of Minnesota, the state university board, and the state board for community colleges shall each develop a clear and uniform policy for its system for awarding post-secondary credit toward a degree for a student who earns an acceptable score on an advanced placement program examination. Each policy must include procedures to inform students and prospective students about credit award and procedures to assure implementation on each campus. The higher education coordinating board shall assist in developing the policy.

Subd. 2. [DATA ABOUT CREDIT AWARD.] Each year the University of Minnesota, state universities, and community colleges shall provide the higher education coordinating board information and data about credit awarded for advanced placement program examinations.

Sec. 13. Laws 1985, First Special Session chapter 12, article 5, section 7, is amended to read:

By January 15, 1987, the commissioner of education shall submit a report to the education committees of the legislature on the implementation of this program. The report to the legislature shall address at least the following issues:

(1) description of participating pupils and other enrollment data;

(2) results of surveys of pupils, parents, school districts, and post-secondary institutions;

(3) results of any appeals to the state board of education regarding credits for courses or programs taken under the program;

(4) assessment of counseling services provided to pupils and their parents or guardians;

(5) fiscal impact of the program;

(6) feasibility of including summer school courses or programs in this program;

(7) feasibility of implementing cooperative plans for offering post-secondary courses in the high schools;

(10) comparability of courses offered in the high schools and post-secondary institutions;

(14) feasibility of participation of nonpublic school pupils in this program;

and

(15) other significant implementation issues or problems.

Sec. 14. [NOTICE FOR THE 1986-1987 SCHOOL YEAR.]

Sec. 15. [ADVANCED PLACEMENT REPORT TO LEGISLATURE.]

By January 1, 1987, the policy required under section 12 must be developed and submitted by each system to the higher education coordinating board for its review and comment on the policies. We, the undersigned conferees for H.F. No. 2287, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendment and that H.F. No. 2287 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"ARTICLE 1

273.77 [TAX INCREMENT BONDING.]

Any other law, general or special, notwithstanding, after August 1, 1979 no bonds, payment for which tax increment is pledged, shall be issued in connection with any project for which tax increment financing has been undertaken other than as is authorized hereby and the proceeds therefrom shall be used only in accordance with section 273.75, subdivision 4 as if said proceeds were tax increment, except that a tax increment financing plan need not be adopted for any project for which tax increment financing has been undertaken prior to August 1, 1979, pursuant to statutes not requiring a tax increment financing plan. Such bonds shall not be included for purposes of computing the net debt of any municipality.

(a) A municipality may issue general obligation bonds to finance any expenditure by the municipality or an authority the jurisdiction of which is wholly or partially within that municipality, pursuant to section 273.75, subdivision 4 in the same manner and subject only to the same conditions as those provided in chapter 475 for bonds financing improvement costs reimbursable from special assessments. Any pledge of tax increment, assessments or other revenues for the payment of the principal of and interest on general obligation bonds issued under this subdivision, except when the authority and the municipality are the same, shall be made by written agreement by and between the authority and the municipality and filed with the county auditor. When the authority and the municipality are the same, the municipality may by covenant pledge tax increment, assessments or other revenues for the payment of the principal of and interest on general obligation bonds issued under this subdivision and thereupon shall file the resolution containing such covenant with the county auditor. When tax increment, assessments and other revenues are pledged, the estimated collections of said tax increment, assessments and any other revenues so pledged may be deducted from the taxes otherwise required to be levied before the issuance of the bonds under section 475.61, subdivision 1, or the collections thereof may be certified annually to reduce or cancel the initial tax levies in accordance with section 475.61, subdivision 1 or 3.

(b) When the authority and the municipality are not the same, an authority may, by resolution, authorize, issue and sell its general obligation bonds to finance any expenditure which that authority is authorized to make by section 273.75, subdivision 4. Said bonds of the authority shall be authorized by its resolution, shall mature as determined by resolution of the authority in accordance with Laws 1979, Chapter 322, and may be issued in one or more series and shall bear such date or dates, bear interest at such rate or rates, be in such denomination or denominations, be in such form either coupon or registered, carry such conversion or registration privileges, have such rank or priority, be executed in such manner, be payable in medium of payment at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption, with or without premium, as such resolution, its trust indenture or mortgage may provide. The bonds may be sold at public or private sale at the price or prices as the authority by resolution shall determine, and any provision of any law to the contrary notwithstanding, the bonds shall be fully negotiable. In any suit, actions, or proceedings involving the validity of enforceability of any bonds of the authority or the security therefor, any bond reciting in substance that it has been issued by the authority to aid in financing a project shall be conclusively deemed to have been issued for such purpose, and the tax increment financing district within the project shall be conclusively deemed to have been planned, located, and carried out in accordance with the purposes and provisions of Laws 1979, Chapter 322. Neither the authority, nor any director, commissioner, council member, board member, officer, employee or agent of the authority nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds by reason of the issuance thereof. The bonds of the authority, and such bonds shall so state on their face, shall not be a debt of any municipality, the state or any political subdivision thereof, and neither the municipality nor the state or any political subdivision thereof shall be liable thereon, nor in any event shall such bonds be payable out of any funds or properties other than those of the authority and any tax increment and revenues of a tax increment financing district pledged therefor.

(c) Notwithstanding any other law general or special, an authority may, by resolution, authorize, issue and sell revenue bonds payable solely from all or a portion of revenues, including but not limited to tax increment revenues and assessments, derived from a tax increment financing district located wholly or partially within the municipality to finance any expenditure which the authority is authorized to make by section 273.75, subdivision 4. The bonds shall mature as determined by resolution of the authority in accordance with Laws 1979, Chapter 322 and may be issued in one or more series and shall bear such date or dates, bear interest at such rate or rates, be in such denomination or denominations, be in such form either coupon or registered, carry such conversion or registration privileges, have such rank or priority, be executed in such manner, be payable in medium of payment at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption, with or without premium, as such resolution, its trust indenture or mortgage may provide. The bonds may be sold at public or private sale at the price or prices as the authority by resolution shall determine, and any provision of any law to the contrary notwithstanding, shall be fully negotiable. In any suit, action, or proceedings involving the validity or enforceability of any bonds of the authority or the security therefor, any bond reciting in substance that it has been issued by the authority to aid in financing a project shall be conclusively deemed to have been issued for such purpose, and the tax increment financing district within the project shall be conclusively deemed to have been planned, located, and carried out in accordance with the purposes and provisions of Laws 1979, Chapter 322. Neither the authority, nor any director, commissioner, council member, board member, officer, employee or agent of the authority nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds by reason of the issuance thereof. The bonds may be further secured by a pledge and mortgage of all or any portion of the district in aid of which the bonds are issued and such convenants as the authority shall deem by such resolution to be necessary and proper to secure payment of the bonds. The bonds, and the bonds shall so state on their face, shall not be payable from nor charged upon any funds other than the revenues and property pledged or mortgaged to the payment thereof, nor shall the issuing authority be subject to any liability thereon or have the powers to obligate itself to pay or pay the bonds from funds other than the revenues and properties pledged and mortgaged and no holder or holders of the bonds shall ever have the right to compel any exercise of any taxing power of the issuing authority or any other public body, other than as is permitted or required under Laws 1979, Chapter 322 and pledged therefor hereunder, to pay the principal of or interest on any such bonds, nor to enforce payment thereof against any property of the authority or other public body other than that expressly pledged or mortgaged for the payment thereof.

(d) (1) In anticipation of the issuance of bonds pursuant to either paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of this section, the authority or municipality may by resolution issue and sell temporary bonds pursuant to paragraph (a), (b) or (c), maturing within not more than three years from their date of issue, to pay any part or all of the cost of a project. To the extent that the principal of and interest on the temporary bonds cannot be paid when due from receipts of tax increment, assessments, or other funds appropriated for the purpose, they shall be paid from the proceeds of long-term bonds or additional temporary bonds which the authority or municipality shall offer for sale in advance of the maturity date of the temporary bonds, but the indebtedness funded by an issue of temporary bonds shall not be extended by the issue of additional temporary bonds for more than six years from the date of the first issue. Long-term bonds may be issued pursuant to paragraph (a), (b) or (c) without regard to whether the temporary bonds were issued pursuant to paragraph (a), (b) or (c). If general obligation temporary bonds are issued pursuant to paragraph (a), proceeds of long-term bonds or additional temporary bonds not yet sold may be treated as pledged revenues, in reduction of the tax otherwise required by section 475.61 to be levied prior to delivery of the obligations. Subject to the six-year maturity limitation contained above, but without regard to the requirement of section 475.58, if any temporary bonds are not paid in full at maturity, in addition to any other remedy authorized or permitted by law, the holders may demand, in which case the authority or municipality shall, issue pursuant to paragraph (a), (b) or (c) as the temporary bonds and in exchange for the temporary bonds, at par, replacement temporary bonds dated as of the date of the replaced temporary bonds, maturing within one year from the date of the replacement temporary bonds and earning interest at the rate set forth in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the replaced temporary bonds, provided that the rate shall not exceed the maximum rate permitted by law at the date of issue of the replaced temporary bonds.

(2) Funds of a municipality may be invested in its temporary bonds in accordance with the provisions of section 471.56, and may be purchased upon their initial issue, but shall be purchased only from funds which the governing body of the municipality determines will not be required for other purposes before the maturity date, and shall be resold before maturity only in case of emergency. If purchased from a debt service fund securing other bonds, the holders of those bonds may enforce the municipality's obligations on the temporary bonds in the same manner as if they held the temporary bonds.

(e) Sections ~~474.16 to 474.23~~ 9 to 29 apply to any issuance of obligations under this section which are subject to limitation under a federal volume limitation act as defined in section ~~474.16~~ 10, subdivision ~~5~~ 9, or existing federal tax law as defined in section 10, subdivision 8.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 298.2211, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE; GRANT OF AUTHORITY.] In order to accomplish the legislative purposes specified in chapters 362A, 462C, and 474, within tax relief areas as defined in section 273.134, the commissioner of iron range resources and rehabilitation may exercise the following powers: (1) all powers conferred upon a rural development financing authority under sections 362A.01 to 362A.05; (2) all powers conferred upon a city under chapter 462C, subject to compliance with the provisions of section ~~462C.09~~ 15; (3) all powers conferred upon a municipality or a redevelopment agency under chapter 474; (4) all powers provided by chapter 362A to further any of the purposes and objectives of chapters 462C and 474; and (5) all powers conferred upon a municipality or an authority under sections 273.73 to 273.76, section 273.77, except paragraph (a) thereof, and section 273.78, subject to compliance with the provisions of section 273.74, subdivisions 1, 2, and 3; provided that any tax increments derived by the commissioner from the exercise of this authority may be used only to finance or pay premiums or fees for insurance, letters of credit, or other contracts guaranteeing the payment when due of net rentals under a project lease or the payment of principal and interest due on or repurchase of bonds issued to finance a project or program, to accumulate and maintain reserves securing the payment when due on bonds issued to finance a project or program, or to provide an interest rate reduction program pursuant to section 462.445, subdivision 10. Tax increments and earnings thereon remaining in any bond reserve account after payment or discharge of any bonds secured thereby shall be used within one year thereafter in furtherance of this section or returned to the county auditor of the county in which the tax increment financing district is located. If returned to the county auditor, the county auditor shall immediately allocate the amount among all government units which would have shared therein had the amount been received as part of the other ad valorem taxes on property in the district most recently paid, in the same proportions as other taxes were distributed, and shall immediately distribute it to the government units in accordance with the allocation.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 429.091, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

430.12 [BONDS FOR IMPROVEMENTS.]

The city council, for the purpose of realizing the funds for making an improvement and paying damages may, from time to time as may be needed, issue and sell special certificates of indebtedness, or special street or parkway improvement bonds, as they may decide, which shall entitle the holder thereof to all sums realized upon any assessment or, if deemed advisable, a series of two or more certificates or bonds against any one assessment, or against the assessments in two or more different proceedings, the principal and interest being payable at fixed dates out of the funds collected from the assessments, including interest and penalties, and the whole of the fund or funds is hereby pledged for the pro rata payment of the certificates or bonds and the interest thereon, as they severally become due. These certificates or bonds may be made payable to the bearer, with interest coupons attached, and the city council may bind the city to make good deficiencies in the collection up to, but not exceeding, the principal and interest at the rate fixed, as hereinafter provided, and for the time specified in section 430.06. If the city, because of this guaranty, shall redeem any certificate or bond, it shall thereupon be subrogated to the holder's rights. For the purpose of this guaranty, penalties collected shall be credited upon deficiencies of principal and interest before the city shall be liable. These certificates or bonds shall be sold at public sale or by sealed proposals at a meeting of which at least two weeks' published notice shall be given, to the purchaser who will pay the par value thereof at the lowest interest rate, and the certificates or bonds shall be drawn accordingly, but the rate of interest shall in no case exceed seven percent per annum, payable annually or semiannually. The city clerk shall certify to the county auditor the rate of interest so determined at the first bond sale held for any such improvement, and interest shall be computed upon the assessments at this annual rate, in accordance with the terms of section 430.06. In case the rate of interest so determined at any subsequent bond sale for the same improvement is greater than the rate so determined at the first bond sale therefor, the difference between these rates of interest shall be a general city charge.

In case the proceeds of any special certificates of indebtedness or special street or parkway improvement bonds are in excess of the amount actually necessary to make the improvements for which the same were issued, or in case the proceeds are not immediately required for the prosecution or completion of the improvement, these proceeds may meanwhile be used by the city council for the making of other improvements authorized under the provisions of this chapter, and the amount of the proceeds so used shall be replaced and made good so far as may be necessary from the proceeds of special certificates of indebtedness or special bonds issued for the purpose of making such other improvements.

This condition is satisfied only if at the time the obligations are issued, the issuer reasonably expects that the aggregate value of the local public funds will exceed the lesser of $1,000,000 or one percent of the face amount of the obligations. Sec. 11. [474A.03] [DETERMINATION OF ANNUAL VOLUME CAP.]

department shall determine the following amounts:

(1) the amount that is allocated to entitlement issuers under section 12;

(2) the amount initially available for allocation through the pool under section 13, which is the annual volume cap determined under this subdivision less the amount determined under clause (1); and

(3) the amount available for issuance of qualified mortgage bonds under section 15.

Subd. 2. [ANNUAL VOLUME CAP UNDER FEDERAL VOLUME LIMITATION ACT.] At the beginning of each calendar year, the department shall determine the aggregate dollar amount of the annual volume cap under a federal volume limitation act during the calendar year, and of this amount the department shall determine the following amounts:

(1) the amount, if any, that a federal volume limitation act requires be reserved for qualified 501(c)(3) bonds or the amount provided by section 20, subdivision 9;

(2) the amount of the governmental volume cap allocated to entitlement issuers under section 16, stating separately (i) the amount available for issuance of "qualified mortgage bonds" or obligations with a comparable definition in a federal volume limitation act, and (ii) the amount available for issuance of any obligations; and

(3) the amount initially available for allocation through the pool under section 19, which is the amount of the governmental volume cap less the aggregate of the amounts determined in clause (2).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, for the period from and including January 1, 1987, to and including June 30, 1987, the following limitations shall apply: (i) one-half of the amount determined pursuant to clause (2)(ii) shall be allocated to entitlement issuers under section 16; (ii) the entire amount determined pursuant to clause (2)(i) shall be allocated to entitlement issuers under section 16; (iii) one-half of the amount determined pursuant to clause (3) shall be made available for allocation under section 19; and (iv) one-half of the amount, if any, determined pursuant to clause (1) shall be made available for allocation under section 20. The remaining amount of annual volume cap for calendar year 1987 not so allocated, or made available for allocation, shall remain unallocated unless otherwise provided by law.

Subd. 3. [ADJUSTMENTS FOR CHANGES TO VOLUME CAP IN FEDERAL VOLUME LIMITATION ACT.] If the annual volume cap in a federal volume limitation act that becomes law is greater than or less than the annual volume cap that existed in a federal volume limitation act in the form that existed as of January 1, 1986, the department shall adjust the calculations made under subdivision 2, except for clause (1), and section 16, except as provided in section 27. If the annual volume cap is adjusted, the commissioner may withdraw any allocation granted before the adjustment was made pursuant to which obligations have been issued, only with the written consent of the issuer.

Sec. 12. [474A.04] [ENTITLEMENT ALLOCATIONS UNDER EXISTING FEDERAL TAX LAW.]

Subdivision 1. [HIGHER EDUCATION COORDINATING BOARD

ALLOCATION.] Of the aggregate annual volume cap under existing federal tax law, $25,000,000 for each calendar year is allocated to the higher education coordinating board for the issuance of obligations pursuant to chapter 136A. On September 1, any unused portion of the amount allocated to the higher education coordinating board pursuant to this subdivision cancels and the authority must be reallocated pursuant to section 13.

Subd. 2. [IRON RANGE RESOURCES AND REHABILITATION ALLOCATION.] Of the aggregate annual volume cap under existing federal tax law, $30,000,000 for each calendar year is allocated to the iron range resources and rehabilitation commissioner. After September 1 of each year, the iron range resources and rehabilitation commissioner may retain any unused portion of the allocation only if the commissioner has submitted to the department on or before September 1 a preliminary resolution for a specific project and a letter which states (1) the intent to issue obligations pursuant to the allocation or a portion of it before the end of the calendar year or within the time period permitted under existing federal tax law, and (2) a description of the specific project or projects for which the obligations will be issued, together with an application deposit in the amount of one percent of the amount of the unused allocation or the portion of it pursuant to which the commissioner intends to issue obligations. The commissioner may subsequently reallocate the retained allocation among the projects described in clause (2). On September 1, any unused portion of the amount allocated to the iron range resources and rehabilitation commissioner and not reserved by a preliminary resolution, a letter of intent, and an application deposit is canceled and must be reallocated under section 13. If the iron range resources and rehabilitation commissioner returns for reallocation all or a part of the allocation on or before October 31, that portion of the application deposit equal to one percent of the amount returned shall be refunded within 30 days.

Upon the request of a statutory city located in the taconite tax relief area which received an entitlement allocation under Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 474.18, of $5,000,000 or more for calendar year 1985, the iron range resources and rehabilitation commissioner shall enter into an agreement with the city whereby the commissioner issues obligations, in an amount requested by the city but not to exceed $5,000,000, on behalf of the city.

Subd. 3. [ENERGY AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY ALLOCATION.] Of the aggregate annual volume cap under existing federal tax law, $60,000,000 for each calendar year is allocated to the energy and economic development authority. After September 1 of each year, the energy and economic development authority or any issuer which receives an allocation from the energy and economic development authority may retain any unused portion of its allocation only if it has submitted to the department, on or before September 1 a preliminary resolution for a specific project and a letter which states (1) its intent to issue obligations pursuant to its allocation or a portion of it before the end of the calendar year or within the time period permitted under existing federal tax law, and (2) a description of the specific project or projects for which the obligations will be issued, together with an application deposit in the amount of one percent of the amount of its unused allocation or the portion of it pursuant to which it intends to issue obligations. The energy and economic development authority may subsequently reallocate the retained allocation among the projects described in clause (2). On September 1 any unused portion of the amount allocated to the energy and economic development authority and not reserved by a preliminary resolution, a letter of intent, and an application deposit is canceled and must be reallocated under section 13. If the energy and economic development authority or any issuer which receives an allocation from the authority returns for reallocation all or any part of its allocation on or before October 31, that portion of its application deposit equal to one percent of the amount returned shall be refunded within 30 days.

Subd. 4. The amount allocated to a first class city shall be an amount equal to $200 multiplied by the city's population. The amount allocated to each city qualifying under clause (2) is $5,000,000. After September 1 of each year, an issuer receiving an allocation under this subdivision may retain any unused portion of its allocation only if it has submitted to the department by September 1 a letter stating its intent to issue obligations pursuant to its allocation before the end of the calendar year or within the time permitted under existing federal tax law and an application deposit equal to one percent of the amount of the unused allocation for which it intends to issue obligations. Any unused portion of an allocation for which an application deposit and letter of intent has not been received by the department by September 1 must be canceled and reallocated under section 13. If an issuer returns for reallocation all or part of its allocation under this subdivision by October 31, the application deposit equal to one percent of the amount returned must be refunded to the issuer.*

For purposes of this subdivision, "population" means the population determined under section 477A.011, subdivision 3.

Subd. 5. [NOTICE OF ENTITLEMENT ALLOCATION.] As soon as possible in each calendar year, the department shall provide to each entitlement issuer a written notice of the amount of its entitlement allocation under this section.

Subd. 6. [ENTITLEMENT TRANSFERS.] An entitlement issuer may enter into an agreement with another entitlement issuer whereby the recipient entitlement issuer issues obligations pursuant to issuance authority allocated to the original entitlement issuer under this section.

Sec. 13. [474A.05] [ALLOCATION OF POOL AMOUNT UNDER EXISTING FEDERAL TAX LAW.]

Subdivision 1. [POOL AMOUNT.] Of the aggregate annual volume cap under existing federal tax law, the amount determined pursuant to section 11, subdivision 1, clause (2), shall be allocated among issuers pursuant to this section for each calendar year. An entitlement issuer may apply for an allocation pursuant to this section only after August 20. An entitlement issuer may apply for an allocation before November 1 only if the entitlement issuer has adopted a final resolution authorizing the sale of obligations equal to any

Notwithstanding the preceding paragraph, the following entitlement issuers may apply for an allocation under this section:

(a) A city of the first class may apply for an allocation for a manufacturing project at any time.

[APPLICATION.] An issuer may apply for an allocation pursuant to this section by submitting to the department an application on forms provided by the department, accompanied by (1) a preliminary resolution, and (2) an application deposit in the amount of one percent of the requested allocation. An issuer may elect not to submit an application for an allocation for a project for which the issuer previously adopted a preliminary resolution.

(g) The project is wholly located in an enterprise zone designated pursuant to section 273.1312.

(o) Seventy-five percent or more of the proceeds of the proposed issue will be used to rehabilitate an existing structure.

Subd. 4. [ALLOCATION PROCEDURE.] (a) The department shall allocate available issuance authority under this section on Monday of each week to applications received on or before Monday of the preceding week in the following order of priority and available issuance authority may not be allocated to any other project:

(1) applications for manufacturing projects;

(2) applications for pollution control projects or waste management projects; and

(3) applications for commercial redevelopment projects.

Within each category of applications available authority shall be allocated on the basis of the numerical rank determined pursuant to this section. In the case of an application for issuance authority that includes more than one project to be financed by one issue of obligations, the points assigned to the application shall be computed on the basis of the weighted average of points for the projects. The projects must all be of the same category of projects to be submitted as a multiproject application. If two or more applications have the same numerical rank, the ranking of the applications must be by lot unless otherwise agreed by the respective issuers. If an application is rejected, the department must notify the applicant and return the application deposit to the applicant within 30 days unless the applicant requests in writing that the application be resubmitted.

(b)(1) From January 1 through September 30, no more than 20 percent of the total amount available for allocation during the calendar year pursuant to this section may be allocated to pollution control and waste management projects.

(2) From January 1 to September 30, no more than 35 percent of the total amount available for allocation during the calendar year pursuant to this section may be allocated to commercial redevelopment projects. This amount is increased to 50 percent of the total available authority for the next month's allocation if the following two conditions occur: (i) on or after June 30 the total amount of issuance authority available under this section which has not been allocated or has been allocated to but was returned by an issuer exceeds 45 percent of the total amount of issuance authority available for allocation under this section for the calendar year; and (ii) the entire amount of issuance authority available under this subparagraph for commercial redevelopment projects has been allocated.

Subd. 5. [LETTER OF INTENT.] After September 1 of each year, an issuer which has received an allocation pursuant to this section prior to September 1 may retain any unused portion of the allocation only if the issuer has submitted to the department on or before September 1 a letter stating its intent to issue obligations pursuant to the allocation before the end of the calendar year or within the time period permitted by existing federal tax law. If the letter of intent is not submitted to the department, the one percent application deposit must be returned to the issuer, the allocation is canceled, and the issuance authority is available for reallocation pursuant to this section. If an issuer returns for reallocation all or any part of its allocation on or before October 31, that portion of its application deposit equal to one percent of the amount returned shall be refunded within 30 days.

Subd. 6. [FINAL ALLOCATION.] From October 1 to December 31 of each year, the annual volume cap under existing federal tax law, which is not both previously allocated and subject to a preliminary resolution for a specific project, whether or not committed pursuant to a letter of intent, is available for allocation or reallocation and shall be allocated among issuers. The iron range resources and rehabilitation commissioner, the energy and economic development authority, or an entitlement city may reallocate after September 30 its retained allocation among projects iden- tified in preliminary resolutions filed with the department prior to October 1. An application for an allocation under this subdivision must include evidence of passage of a preliminary resolution and state that it is the intent of the applicant that the obligations will be issued by the end of the year or within the time period permitted by existing federal tax law, and must be accompanied by an application deposit in the amount of one percent of the requested allocation. Applications must be made and allocations shall be awarded in accordance with subdivisions 3 and 4.

After September 30, authority may be allocated under this subdivision to any project, notwithstanding the percentage limits and other restrictions contained in subdivision 4. Applications must be ranked and authority allocated first according to the order of priority and ranking of points under subdivisions 3 and 4. The remaining authority must be allocated according to the ranking of points under subdivision 3. If two or more applications receive an equal number of points, allocations among them must be made by lot unless otherwise agreed by the respective applicants.

If issuance authority remains or becomes available following the last Monday on which allocations are made for any calendar year, the department must allocate the available authority to the department of finance. The department of finance shall allocate the remaining authority between the Minnesota housing finance agency and the higher education coordinating board. Amounts allocated to the Minnesota housing finance agency shall be used for the issuance of mortgage credit certificates, and amounts allocated to the higher education coordinating board shall be used for the issuance of obligations under chapter 136A.

Subd. 7. [RETURN OF ALLOCATION.] If on or after November 1 but prior to December 1 of any year, an issuer determines that it will not issue obligations pursuant to an allocation received by it pursuant to this section or section 12 by the end of that year or within the time period permitted by existing federal tax law, the issuer must notify the department and the amount will be available for reallocation pursuant to this subdivision. In such case, the department shall refund to the issuer within 30 days that portion of any application deposit equal to one-third of one percent of the amount returned for reallocation. The amounts available for reallocation must be allocated on or before December 31 pursuant to subdivision 6.

Sec. 14. [474A.06] [NOTICE OF ISSUE UNDER EXISTING FEDERAL TAX LAW.]

Issuers that issue obligations subject to existing federal tax law shall file with the department within five days after the obligations are issued a written notice of issue stating the date of issuance of the obligations, the allocation under which the obligations are issued, and the principal amount of the obligations. If obligations are to be issued as a series of obligations, the notice of issue must be filed for each series of obligations that is issued. If the notice of issue is not filed within five days after the obligations are issued, the obligations shall be considered not to have received an allocation under existing federal tax law. Within 30 days after receipt of the notice, the department shall refund a portion of the application deposit required under section 12 or section 13 equal to one percent of the principal amount of the obligations issued.

Sec. 15. [474A.07] [QUALIFIED MORTGAGE BONDS.]

Subdivision 1. [HOUSING FINANCE AGENCY ALLOCATION.] The applicable volume limit for qualified mortgage bonds for the Minnesota housing finance agency, pursuant to existing federal tax law, for a calendar year is 100 percent of the state ceiling for qualified mortgage bonds for that year, reduced only by (1) any amounts of qualified mortgage bonds which have been or may be allocated by law to specified cities, and (2) any amounts of qualified mortgage bonds which are allocated to cities pursuant to subdivisions 2 and 3. The aggregate amount allocated to cities, under clause (1) or (2), together with the amount of qualified mortgage bonds reserved for the agency, shall not exceed the limit for the state under existing federal tax law.

By August 1 of each year, a city which has received by law an allocation of the state ceiling for qualified mortgage bonds shall submit its housing programs to the Minnesota housing finance agency for approval pursuant to section 462C.04, subdivision 2, in an amount of bonds equal to or less than, the city's allocation. If the amount of qualified mortgage bonds, for which program approval is granted on or before September 1 is less than the amount allocated by law to the city, the applicable limit for the agency shall be increased by the difference between the amount allocated by law to the city, and the amount for which program approval has been granted.

Subd. 2. [CITY ALLOCATION.] Unless otherwise authorized by law, a city that intends to issue during any calendar year qualified mortgage bonds that are subject to existing federal tax law, shall by January 2 of that year submit to the Minnesota housing finance agency a program that will use a portion of the state qualified mortgage bond ceiling. The total amount of qualified mortgage bonds included in all programs submitted pursuant to this subdivision by a city may not exceed $10,000,000. Each program shall be accompanied by a certificate from the city that states that the qualified mortgage bond issue is feasible. By February 1, the Minnesota housing finance agency shall review each program pursuant to section 462C.04, subdivision 2. The Minnesota housing finance agency shall approve all programs that the agency determines are consistent with chapter 462C, and that meet the following conditions:

(1) all of the loans must be reserved for a period of not less than six months for persons and families whose adjusted family income is below 80 percent of the limits on adjusted gross income provided in section 462C.03, subdivision 2; and

(2) loans must be made only to finance homes that are serviced by municipal water and sewer utilities; provided that if the approval of all programs would result in an allocation to cities in excess of 27-1/2 percent of the state ceiling for the calendar year 1985, reduced by the amount of qualified mortgage bonds that are allocated by law to specified cities, the Minnesota housing finance agency shall approve programs that are submitted by a city which meets any of the following three criteria: (i) a city of the first class, (ii) a city that did not receive an allocation under this subdivision or Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 462C.09, subdivision 2(a), or Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 462C.09 subdivision 2(a), during the preceding two calendar years, or (iii) a group of cities that plan to jointly issue bonds for the program provided further that if approval of all of the programs submitted by cities that meet one or more of the criteria in (i), (ii), or (iii) would result in a total allocation to cities in excess of the portion of the state ceiling available for allocation, then from among those programs the agency shall select by lot the programs to be approved. If a portion of the state ceiling remains unallocated after the agency has approved all programs submitted by cities that meet one or more of the criteria in (i), (ii), or (iii), the Minnesota housing finance agency shall select by lot from among the remaining programs the programs to be approved. The Minnesota housing finance agency shall determine if a program meets the conditions in clauses (1) and (2) based solely upon the program with accompanying information submitted to the agency. Approval of a program shall constitute an allocation of a portion of the state ceiling for qualified mortgage bonds equal to the proposed bond issue or issues contained in the program, provided that the allocation for the last selected program that receives an allocation may be equal to or less than the amount of the bond issue or issues proposed in the program.

If a city which received an allocation pursuant to this subdivision, or which has been allocated a portion of the state ceiling by law and has received approval of one or more programs, has not issued bonds by September 1 in an amount equal to the allocation, and the city intends to issue qualified mortgage bonds prior to the end of the calendar year, the city shall by September 1 submit to the Minnesota housing finance agency for each program a letter that states the city's intent to issue the qualified mortgage bonds prior to the end of the calendar year. If the Minnesota housing finance agency does not receive the letter from the city, then the allocation of the state ceiling for that program expires on September 1, and the applicable limit for the Minnesota housing finance agency is increased by an amount equal to the unused portion of the allocation to the city. A city referred to in subdivision 1, clause (1), need not apply under this subdivision with respect to bonds allocated by law to the city. Nothing in this subdivision shall prevent any such city from applying for an additional allocation of bonds under this subdivision.

Subd. 3. [ADDITIONAL CITY ALLOCATION.] On or before September 1 of each year, the Minnesota housing finance agency shall identify the amount, if any, of its applicable limit for qualified mortgage bonds for that calendar year that it does not intend to issue. A city that intends to issue qualified mortgage bonds prior to the end of the calendar year for which it has not received an allocation of the state ceiling may submit a program for approval on or before September 1 to the Minnesota housing finance agency for a portion of the amount of the Minnesota housing finance agency's applicable limit as provided in subdivision 1 which the agency does not intend to issue. The total amount of qualified mortgage bonds included in all programs of any city submitted pursuant to this subdivision shall not exceed $10,000,000. The program shall be accompanied by the same certificate required by subdivision 2. The Minnesota housing finance agency shall allocate the amount of the state ceiling to be allocated pursuant to this subdivision using the same factors listed in subdivision 2, provided that a program for a city receiving an allocation pursuant to subdivision 2 during the calendar year shall be ranked below all other programs if the bonds proposed in the program, when added to the bonds included in programs approved pursuant to subdivision 2, exceed $10,000,000. A city that submitted a program pursuant to subdivision 2 but that did not receive an allocation may renew its application with a letter of intent to issue. Nothing in this subdivision shall prevent a city referred to in subdivision 1, clause (1), from applying for an additional allocation of bonds under this subdivision.

Subd. 4. [AGENCY REVIEW.] The 30-day review requirement in section 462C.04, subdivision 2, does not apply to programs submitted to the agency that require an allocation of the state ceiling pursuant to this section. A failure by the agency to complete any action by the dates set forth in this section shall not result in the approval of any program or the allocation of any portion of the applicable limit of the agency. Approval by the agency of programs after the dates provided in this section is effective in allocating a portion of the state ceiling. Programs approved by the agency may be amended with the approval of the agency under section 462C.04, subdivision 2, provided that the dollar amount of bonds for the program may not be increased.

Subd. 5. [STATE CERTIFICATION.] The executive director of the Minnesota housing finance agency is designated as the state official to provide the preissuance certification required by section 103A(j)(4)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1985.

Subd. 6. [CORRECTION AMOUNTS FOR MORTGAGE CREDIT CERTIFICATE PROGRAMS.] A reduction in the state ceiling for qualified mortgage bonds caused by the failure of a mortgage credit certificate program to comply with a federal statute or regulation shall be assessed against the amount of qualified mortgage bonds allocated by law, other than by way of this section, to the city which adopted the program. If no such allocation exists or it is less than the correction amount determined by the secretary of the treasury, then the amount of the correction amount in excess of the allocation shall be assessed against the 27-1/2 percent of the state ceiling allocated to the cities under subdivision 2.

Subd. 7. [FEDERAL VOLUME LIMITATION ACT.] Any issuance authority received by the agency under section 17 or by a city under section 16 or subdivision 3 may be used for the issuance of "qualified mortgage bonds" or obligations with a comparable definition in a federal volume limitation act, in the same manner and subject to the same conditions provided for in this section for qualified mortgage bonds.

Sec. 16. [474A.08] [DETERMINATION OF ENTITLEMENT ALLOCATIONS UNDER FEDERAL VOLUME LIMITATION ACT.]

Subdivision 1. [ENTITLEMENT ISSUERS.] The dollar amount of the governmental volume cap allocated to entitlement issuers under a federal volume limitation act for each calendar year must be determined by the department as follows:

(1) to the department of finance 24 percent of the governmental volume cap to be allocated among state issuers under section 17;

(2) to each city, a sum equal to 75.6 percent of the amount of bond issuance authority allocated to the city under section 12, subdivision 4, provided that if there is an adjustment to the annual volume cap under section 11, subdivision 3, the amount of issuance authority allocated by this clause must be adjusted so that each city is allocated a percentage of the adjusted governmental volume cap that is equal to the percentage of the governmental volume cap originally allocated to each city;

(3) to each city to which bond issuance authority is specifically allocated under state law for qualified mortgage bonds, a sum equal to the full amount of the bond issuance authority, which amount is to be used solely for the issuance of "qualified mortgage bonds" or for obligations with a comparable definition as used in the federal volume limitation act prior to September 1, and thereafter may also be used for the issuance of either such mortgage bonds or obligations to finance multifamily housing projects;

(4) to a city or cities that received an allocation to issue qualified mortgage bonds during 1986 under Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 462C.09, subdivision 2a, an amount or amounts for 1986 equal to such allocation, which amount may be used prior to September 1 for the issuance of "qualified mortgage bonds" or for obligations with a comparable definition in a federal volume limitation act, and thereafter may also be used for the issuance of obligations to finance multifamily housing projects; and

(5) to a city or cities determined in accordance with the procedure set forth in section 15, subdivision 2, an allocation to issue qualified mortgage bonds during 1987, in an amount determined in accordance with such procedure contained in section 15, subdivision 2, which amount may be used prior to September 1 for the issuance of "qualified mortgage bonds" or for obligations with a comparable definition in a federal volume limitation act, and thereafter may also be used for the issuance of obligations to finance multifamily housing projects.

For any entitlement issuer that received an allocation for a qualified multifamily housing project in 1986 and did not issue obligations for the project within the time period specified under section 21, subdivision 3, the amount allocated to the entitlement issuer under this subdivision for 1987 must be reduced by the amount of the unused allocation and the amount of any other allocation retained by that issuer after September 1, 1986, for which obligations have not been issued in 1986. The amount of any reduction in allocation must be added to the amounts available for pool allocation under section 19.

For purposes of this subdivision, "population" means the population determined under section 477A.011, subdivision 3.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE OF OF ENTITLEMENT ALLOCATION.] As soon as possible in each calendar year, the department shall provide a notice of entitlement allocation to each entitlement issuer stating separately the amount that may be issued for "qualified mortgage bonds" or for obligations with a comparable definition, a federal volume limitation act and the amount that may be issued for any obligations.

Sec. 17. [474A.09] [ALLOCATION OF STATE ENTITLEMENTS UNDER FEDERAL VOLUME LIMITATION ACT.]

The amount allocated to the department of finance under section 16, subdivision 1, clause (1), may be allocated or reallocated by the commissioner of the department of finance internally among state issuers at any one time or from time to time during the calendar year, provided that 11.5 percent of the entitlement allocation is allocated to the iron range resources and rehabilitation commissioner. Upon the request of a statutory city located in the taconite tax relief area that received an entitlement allocation under Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 474.18, of $5,000,000 or more for calendar year 1985, the iron range resources and rehabilitation commissioner shall enter into an agreement with the city whereby the commissioner issues obligations on behalf of the city, in an amount requested by the city but not to exceed 17 percent of the amount allocated to the commissioner under this subdivision.

Sec. 18. [474A.10] [ENTITLEMENT ISSUERS UNDER THE FEDERAL VOLUME LIMITATION ACT.]

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE OF ISSUE.] Each entitlement issuer that issues obligations pursuant to an entitlement allocation received under section 16 shall provide a notice of issue to the department on forms provided by the department stating (1) the date of issuance of the obligations; (2) the title of the issue; (3) the principal amount of the obligations; (4) the type or types of the obligations that cause them to be subject to the annual volume cap; and (5) the dollar amount of the obligations subject to the governmental volume cap of a federal volume limitation act. For obligations that are issued as a part of a series of obligations, a notice must be provided for each series. Any issue of obligations for which a notice of issue is not provided to the department within five days after issuance is deemed not to have received an allocation under a federal volume limitation act. Within 30 days after receipt of the notice of issue, the department shall refund a portion of any deposit made pursuant to subdivision 3 equal to one percent of the principal amount of the allocation authority issued.

Subd. 2. [ENTITLEMENT TRANSFERS.] An entitlement issuer may enter into an agreement with another entitlement issuer whereby the recipient entitlement issuer issues obligations pursuant to issuance authority allocated to the original entitlement issuer.

Subd. 3. [RESERVATION OR CANCELLATION OF ENTITLEMENT ALLOCATIONS.] After September 1, 1986, an entitlement issuer may retain all or a portion of its entitlement allocation under a federal volume limitation act only if the department has received by September 1 a letter stating the intent of the entitlement issuer to issue obligations under its entitlement allocation before the end of the calendar year or within the time permitted by a federal volume limitation act and an application deposit equal to one percent of the unused allocation for which it intends to issue obligations, provided that there shall be credited against the required deposit, any deposit made in accordance with section 12 for a corresponding allocation under existing federal tax law. Any unused portion of an allocation for which an application deposit and letter of intent have not been received by the department by September 1, 1986, is canceled and must be reallocated under section 19. Notwithstanding the provisions of this subdivision, the department of finance may retain $15,000,000 of its entitlement allocation for the issuance of obligations. If any time after August 31, 1986, the department of finance determines that part or all of the retained allocation will not be required for obligations issued by the state, the portion not required shall be canceled and shall be reallocated under section 19.

If an entitlement issuer returns for reallocation all or part of its allocation under this subdivision after August 31, but on or before October 31, the application deposit equal to one percent of the amount of issuance authority returned must be refunded to the issuer. If all or part of the entitlement allocation is returned for reallocation after October 31, but before December 1, the application deposit equal to one-third of one percent of the amount of issuance authority returned must be refunded. The amount of any refund is reduced by the amount of the deposit refunded under section 12.

Sec. 19. [474A.11] [ALLOCATION OF POOL AMOUNT UNDER THE FEDERAL VOLUME LIMITATION ACT.]

Subdivision 1. [POOL AMOUNT.] For calendar year 1986 and from January 1 to June 30 of calendar year 1987, the portion of the governmental volume cap determined under section 11, subdivision 2, clause (3), and any allocations canceled or returned for reallocation under section 18 or section 20, subdivision 9, shall be allocated to issuers, other than state issuers, under this section.

An entitlement issuer may apply for an allocation under this section only after August 20. If an entitlement issuer applies for an allocation prior to November 1, the entitlement issuer must have either adopted a final resolution authorizing the sale of obligations in an amount equal to any allocation received under section 16 or returned any remaining allocation for reallocation under this section. State entitlement issuers, other than the iron range resources and rehabilitation commissioner, may not apply for an allocation under this section except as provided in clause (d).

Notwithstanding the preceding paragraph, the following entitlement issuers may apply for an allocation under this section:

(a) Entitlement issuers that received an allocation only under section 16, subdivision 1, clause (4) or (5), may apply for an allocation at any time.

(b) A city of the first class may apply for an allocation for a manufacturing project at any time.

(c) Any entitlement issuer, other than state issuers, may apply for an allocation for a qualified multifamily housing project after September 1 if (1) it has adopted a preliminary resolution for specific projects for the amount of any of its retained entitlement allocation, and (2) the amount of allocation applied for does not exceed $10,000,000.

(d) State issuers may apply for and receive allocations under this section at any time in an aggregate amount not to exceed that portion of the state's entitlement allocation returned for reallocation under section 18.

Subd. 2. [APPLICATION.] An issuer may apply for an allocation pursuant to this section by submitting to the department an application on forms provided by the department accompanied by (1) a preliminary resolution, and (2) if the application is submitted prior to September 1 of any calendar year, an application deposit in the amount of one percent of the requested allocation, or if the application is submitted after August 31, 1986, an application deposit in the amount of two percent of the requested allocation, provided that there shall be credited against the required deposit any deposit made with respect to the same project in accordance with section 13. An application deposit for a qualified multifamily housing project must include an additional application deposit in the amount of one percent of the requested allocation. An application pursuant to this section may be combined with an application under section 13.

Subd. 3. [ALLOCATION CRITERIA.] The department shall rank each application received under this section on the basis of the number of points awarded to it, with one point being awarded for each of the criteria listed in section 13, subdivision 3, that are satisfied, and one point being awarded for each of the following criteria:

(1) the project is a multifamily housing project; and

(2) the project is a multifamily housing project designed for rental primarily to handicapped persons or to elderly persons.

An application for an allocation relating to an issue of obligations the proceeds of which are to be used to refund outstanding obligations shall be assigned a ranking of no points.

Subd. 4. [ALLOCATION PROCEDURE.] (a) The department shall allocate available issuance authority on Monday of each week to applications received by Monday of the preceding week, in the following order of priority and available issuance authority may not be allocated to any other project prior to October 1, 1986:

(1) applications for manufacturing projects;

(2) applications for pollution control projects or waste management projects; and

(3) applications for commercial redevelopment projects or multifamily housing projects.

Within each category of applications available authority must be allocated on the basis of the numerical rank determined under this section. In the case of an application for an allocation relating to more than one project to be financed by one issue of obligations, the points assigned to the application shall be computed on the basis of the weighted average of points for the projects. The projects must all be of the same category of projects to be submitted as a multiproject application. If two or more applications have the same numerical rank, the ranking of the applications must be by lot unless otherwise agreed by the respective issuers. If an application is rejected, the department shall notify the applicant and shall return the application deposit to the applicant within 30 days unless the applicant requests in writing that the application be resubmitted.

(b) From January 1 to September 30, no more than 20 percent of the total amount of issuance authority available for allocation during the calendar year pursuant to this section may be allocated to pollution control and waste management projects.

(c) From January 1 to September 30, no more than 35 percent of the total amount of issuance authority available for allocation during the calendar year pursuant to this section may be allocated to commercial redevelopment projects and multifamily housing projects. This amount is increased to 50 percent of the total available authority for the next month's allocation if the following two conditions occur: (1) on or after June 30 the total amount of issuance authority available under this section which has not been allocated or has been allocated to but was returned by an issuer exceeds 45 percent of the total amount of issuance authority available for allocation under this section for the calendar year; and (2) the entire amount of issuance authority available under this clause for commercial redevelopment and multifamily housing projects has been allocated.

From October 1 to December 31 of each year, the annual volume cap under a federal volume limitation act, which is not both previously allocated and subject to a preliminary resolution for a specific project, whether or not committed pursuant to a letter of intent, or which is not reserved for qualified mortgage bonds, is available for allocation or reallocation and shall be allocated among issuers. An entitlement issuer may reallocate after September 30 its retained allocation among projects identified in preliminary resolutions filed with the department prior to October 1.

After September 30, allocations shall be made under this subdivision to any project including, without limitation, projects for owner-occupied housing, notwithstanding the percentage limits and other restrictions contained in this subdivision. Applications must be ranked and allocations made first according to the order of priority and ranking of points under subdivision 3 and this subdivision. Any remaining amount must be allocated according to the ranking of points under subdivision 3. If two or more applications receive an equal number of points, allocations among the applications must be made by lot unless otherwise agreed by the respective applicants.

Subd. 5. [CERTIFICATE OF ALLOCATION.] The granting of an allocation of issuance authority by the department pursuant to this section shall be evidenced by issuance of a certificate of allocation provided to the applicant in accordance with section 21.

Subd. 6. [FINAL ALLOCATION.] If issuance remains or becomes available following the last Monday on which allocations are made during any calendar year, the department must allocate the remaining authority to the department of finance, and the department of finance shall allocate the remaining authority between the Minnesota housing finance agency and the higher education coordinating board. Amounts so allocated to the Minnesota housing finance agency must be used for the issuance of mortgage credit certificates, and amounts allocated to the higher education coordinating board must be used for the issuance of obligations under chapter 136A.

Subdivision 1. [501(c)(3) POOL.] This section applies only to allocations made under a federal volume limitation act. The amount, if any, of the aggregate annual volume cap that must be set aside for qualified 501(c)(3) bonds in 1986 or in 1987 or pursuant to subdivision 9 shall be allocated under this section.

Subd. 2. [HIGHER EDUCATION FACILITIES AUTHORITY.] Of the portion of the annual volume cap allocated under this section, $20,000,000 for each calendar year is allocated to the higher education facilities authority for the issuance of obligations under sections 136A.25 through 136A.42. After September 1 of each year, the higher education facilities authority may retain any unused portion of its allocation only if the higher education facilities authority submits to the department on or before September 1 a letter which states (1) its intent to issue obligations pursuant to its allocation or a portion of it before the end of the calendar year or within the time period permitted under a federal volume limitation act, and (2) a description of the specific project or projects for which the obligations will be issued, together with an application deposit in the amount of one percent of the amount of the unused allocation or the portion of it pursuant to which it intends to issue obligations. The authority may subsequently reallocate the retained allocation among the projects described in clause (2). On September 1 any unused portion of the amount allocated to the higher education facilities authority and not reserved by a letter of intent and an application deposit is canceled and subject to reallocation in accordance with subdivision 3. If the higher education facilities authority returns for reallocation all or any part of its allocation on or before October 31, that portion of the application deposit equal to one percent of the amount returned shall be refunded within 30 days.

Subd. 3. [APPLICATION.] An issuer may apply for an allocation of bond issuance authority under this section by submitting to the department an application on forms provided by the department, accompanied by (1) a preliminary resolution of the issuer, and (2) an application deposit in the amount of one percent of the requested allocation. The higher education facilities authority may apply for an allocation under subdivision 4 or subdivision 6 only if it has adopted a final resolution authorizing the sale of obligations in an amount equal to the allocation received and not returned for reallocation under subdivision 2.

Subd. 4. [ALLOCATION.] As of the 10th and 25th day of each month prior to September 1, the department shall allocate issuance authority available under this section on the basis of applications then on hand, assigning allocations in the order in which the applications are received by the department. If two or more applications are filed with the department on the same day and if there is insufficient issuance authority for the applications, the allocation between or among the applications shall be by lot unless otherwise agreed by the respective applicants. Before September 1 the amount allocated to an issuer for a 501(c)(3) organization may not exceed $15,000,000 for the year. Two or more local issuers may combine their allocations in one or more single bond issues which exceed $15,000,000 so long as no more than $10,000,000 of the bond issue is for facilities located within the geographic boundaries of each issuer. The obligations may be issued jointly by a joint powers board or by one issuer on behalf of all the issuers to whom the allocation is made.

Subd. 5. [LETTER OF INTENT.] After September 1 of each calendar year, an issuer which has received an allocation pursuant to this section prior to September 1, may retain an unused portion of the allocation only if the issuer has submitted to the department on or before September 1 a letter stating its intent to issue obligations before the end of the calendar year or within the time period permitted by a federal volume limitation act. If the letter of intent is not submitted to the department, the one percent application deposit must be returned to the issuer and the allocation is canceled and available for reallocation pursuant to subdivision 6. If an issuer returns for reallocation all or any part of its allocation on or before October 31, that portion of its application deposit equal to one percent of the amount returned shall be refunded within 30 days. If it returns the allocation after October 31 but before December 1, that portion of the application deposit equal to one-third of one percent of the amount returned must be refunded within 30 days.

Subd. 6. [ALLOCATION AFTER SEPTEMBER 1.] On September 1 of each year the aggregate amount set aside for qualified 501(c)(3) bonds, less any amounts previously allocated or reallocated and either reserved by an issuer with a letter of intent or with respect to which a notice of issue has been filed shall be reallocated in accordance with this subdivision.

Bond issuance authority subject to reallocation under this subdivision on and after September 1 in any year must be allocated by the department in the order in which the applications were received by the department. If two or more applications are filed with the department on the same day and if there is insufficient issuance authority for the applications, the allocation between or among such applications shall be by lot unless otherwise agreed by the respective applicants. As soon as practicable after September 1, the department shall publish in the State Register a notice of the aggregate amount available for reallocation pursuant to this subdivision. Within five days after September 10, October 10, November 10, December 10, and December 20, the department shall allocate available authority under this subdivision. If issuance remains or becomes available following the final December 20th allocation, the department must allocate the remaining authority to the department of finance, and the department of finance shall allocate the remaining authority to eligible projects under a federal volume limitation act.

Subd. 7. [NOTICE OF 501(c)(3) ALLOCATION.] The department shall issue a notice granting an allocation of issuance authority under this section. No allocation shall be made if the sum of the principal amount of proposed allocation and the aggregate principal amount of allocations previously made and not returned for reallocation exceeds the amount of issuance authority set aside, without the right to override by state legislation for qualified 501(c)(3) bonds under a federal volume limitation act. If an application is rejected, the department must notify the applicant and return the application deposit to the applicant within 30 days, unless the applicant requests in writing that the application be resubmitted.

Subd. 8. [NOTICE OF ISSUE.] Issuers that issue obligations under this section shall provide a notice of issue to the department on forms provided by the department stating (1) the date of issuance of the obligations; (2) the title of the issue; (3) the principal amount of the obligations; and (4) the dollar amount of the obligations subject to the annual volume cap of a federal volume limitation act. For obligations issued as a part of a series of obligations, a notice must be provided for each series. Any issue of obligations for which a notice of issue is not provided to the department within five days after issuance is deemed not to have received an allocation under a federal volume limitation act. Within 30 days after receipt of the notice of issue, the department shall refund a portion of any deposit made pursuant to subdivision 3 equal to one percent of the amount of allocation authority issued.

Subd. 9. [NO MANDATORY SET-ASIDE; 501(C)(3) POOL.] If a federal volume limitation act is enacted that does not require that issuance authority be set aside for qualified 501(c)(3) bonds, $70,000,000 of issuance authority is available for allocation under this section from January 1 through October 31 of 1986 and $35,000,000 of issuance authority is available for allocation under this section from January 1, 1987 through June 30, 1987. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 6, if issuance authority is available for allocation pursuant to this subdivision, no allocation may be made pursuant to this section after October 31 for calendar year 1986 and the remaining amount of unallocated authority under this section that is or becomes available is canceled and must be reallocated pursuant to section 19.

Sec. 21. [474A.13] [CERTIFICATE OF ALLOCATION UNDER FEDERAL VOLUME LIMITATION ACT.]

Subdivision 1. [ISSUANCE OF CERTIFICATE OF ALLOCATION.] The department shall issue a certificate of allocation for any allocation granted under section 19, except as provided in subdivision 4.

Subd. 2. [ISSUANCE OF CERTIFICATE OF ALLOCATION; GENERAL OBLIGATIONS.] The department shall issue a certificate of allocation for any general obligation for which an allocation request is received upon forms provided by the department, except as provided in subdivision 4. Such forms shall contain:

(1) the name and address of the issuer;

(2) the address, telephone number, and name of an authorized representative of the issuer;

(3) the principal amount of general obligations proposed to be issued by the issuer;

(4) the title of the proposed issue;

(5) a statement of the issuer that the proposed issue of obligations is expected to be offered for sale on or before the expiration date of the certificate of allocation for which the request is being made;

(6) the amount of the allocation requested;

(7) the project or projects to be financed with the general obligations; and

(8) a certification that the general obligations do not constitute "industrial development bonds" as defined in section 103(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1985, which certification shall be accompanied by an opinion of bond counsel to such effect.

An entitlement city may apply for a certificate of allocation under this subdivision prior to October 1 only if it has adopted a final resolution authorizing the sale of obligations in an amount equal to any allocation received under section 16 or returned any remaining allocation for reallocation under section 19. No certificate of allocation shall be issued pursuant to this authorization in excess of $10,000,000. The aggregate amount of issuance authority that may be allocated to an issuer pursuant to this subdivision for the calendar year may not exceed $20,000,000. If submitted on or after September 1 for calendar year 1986, an allocation request shall be accompanied by a deposit in the amount of one percent of the amount of allocation requested. The department shall issue certificates of allocation on Monday of each week for applications received by Monday of the preceding week and shall make the allocations among the applications by lot.

Subd. 3. [NOTICE OF ISSUE.] A certificate of allocation expires and is deemed not to have been issued if the department has not received a notice of issue on a form provided by the department stating that the obligations for which the certificate of allocation was provided were issued, or in the case of a general obligation, a final resolution providing for sale was adopted, within the longest of the following periods:

(1) for a certificate of allocation issued on or prior to August 15, 1986, or anytime in 1987, within 30 days of the date of issuance of the certificate;

(2) for a certificate of allocation issued between August 16 and September 1, 1986, by September 16, 1986;

(3) for a certificate of allocation issued on or after September 1 and before the second to the last Monday of December 1986, within 15 days of the date of issuance of the certificate;

(4) for a certificate of allocation issued on or after the second to the last Monday of December 1986, by the end of that year or within the time permitted by a federal volume limitation act; and

(5) for a certificate of allocation issued to an entitlement issuer for a qualified multifamily housing project, within 30 days of issuance of the certificate of allocation.

Any of the periods specified in clauses (1), (2), or (3) may be extended for an additional period of the same number of days if an additional deposit in the amount of three percent of the amount of the certificate of allocation is provided before the end of the initial period. The period specified in clause (5) may be extended for an additional 30 days if an additional deposit in the amount of four percent of the amount of the certificate of allocation is provided before the end of the initial period.

The notice of issue must be executed by an officer of the issuer or by the bond counsel approving the issue and must state the principal amount of the obligations issued or to be issued and the difference, if any, between the amount issued or to be issued and the amount stated in the certificate of allocation. If the notice of issue is not provided to the department by the time required, the certificate of allocation expires, the issue is deemed not to have received an allocation for the purpose of complying with a federal volume limitation act, and the deposit required by section 19 or this section is forfeited by the issuer. If the notice is received by the department on or prior to the prescribed deadline, then within 30 days after receipt of this notice, the department shall refund a portion of any application deposit in proportion to the amount of allocation authority issued, reduced by any amount refunded under section 13.

Subd. 4. [LIMITATIONS ON THE ISSUANCE OF CERTIFICATES.] No certificate of allocation may be granted under a federal volume limitation act under any of the following circumstances:

(1) the amount of the allocation requested, when added to (i) the aggregate amount of certificates of allocation issued and not expired; (ii) amounts remaining available to be allocated pursuant to section 19; and (iii) entitlement authority allocated pursuant to section 16 and not returned pursuant to section 18, subdivision 3, for reallocation would cause the governmental volume cap to be exceeded. If two or more applications for a certificate of allocation are filed with the department on the same day and there is insufficient issuance authority for the applications, certificates shall be issued first for applications made pursuant to subdivision 2 and thereafter for applications made pursuant to subdivision 1; or

(2) the principal amount of the proposed allocation exceeds $25,000,000 unless the issuer is the Minnesota housing finance agency or the Minnesota higher education coordinating board, or unless the issue is a pooled or joint issue or any issue of a joint powers board, provided that for joint or pooled issues or issues of a joint powers board the aggregate amount of the issue cannot exceed $100,000,000.

Subd. 5. [CERTIFICATES ARE NOT TRANSFERABLE.] Certificates of allocation are not transferable. An issuer that receives an allocation of issuance authority pursuant to sections 9 to 29 to finance a project within the boundaries of the issuer may allow another issuer to issue obligations pursuant to the issuance authority only if the boundaries of the other issuer are coterminous with the boundaries of the issuer that received the authority.

Sec. 22. [474A.14] [NOTICE OF AVAILABLE AUTHORITY.]

The department shall publish in the State Register at least twice monthly, a notice of the amount of issuance authority, if any, available for allocation pursuant to sections 13, 19, and 20.

Sec. 23. [474A.15] [STATE HELD HARMLESS.]

The state is not liable in any manner to any issuer, holder of obligations, or other person for carrying out the duties imposed on it under sections 9 to 29.

Sec. 24. [474A.16] [EXCLUSIVE METHOD OF ALLOCATION.]

Sections 9 to 29 shall be the exclusive method for allocating authority to issue obligations for the purposes of complying with the volume limitation of a federal volume limitation act and existing federal tax law. An issuer of obligations may elect to obtain an allocation of authority under either existing federal tax law, a federal volume limitation act, or both.

Sec. 25. [474A.17] [ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE ACT NOT APPLICABLE.]

Minnesota Statutes, chapter 14, shall not apply to actions taken by any state agency, entity, or the governor under sections 9 to 29.

Sec. 26. [474A.18] [PROSPECTIVE OVERRIDE OF FEDERAL VOLUME LIMITATION ACT.]

Sections 9 to 29 prospectively override and replace the method of allocating the authority to issue obligations among uses and among issuers as provided in a federal volume limitation act to the extent allowed by a federal volume limitation act.

Sec. 27. [474A.19] [GOVERNOR'S ACTION.]

If at any time before June 30, 1987, a federal volume limitation act is enacted into law in a form different from that existing as of December 31, 1985, which eliminates or adds any requirement that a specific type of obligation is subject to a volume limitation that is inconsistent with the allocation mechanism provided for in sections 9 to 29, or provides for other restrictions on the allocation of issuance authority that are inconsistent with the allocation mechanism provided for in sections 9 to 29, the governor may, consistent with a federal volume limitation act as enacted, by executive order or proclamation, establish such revisions to the allocation system as may be necessary and appropriate and which the governor, in consultation with the legislative advisory commission and the attorney general, determines are most consistent with the purposes of and the allocation mechanism provided for in sections 9 to 29. An executive order or proclamation made by the governor under this section shall not withdraw or impair any allocation made if obligations have been issued under such allocations unless the obligations are not or will not be subject to the volume cap of a federal volume limitation act and written notice is provided to the issuer.

Any executive order made by the governor under this section must, to the extent possible, comply with the following requirements:

(a) If 501(c)(3) bonds are excluded from the volume cap in a federal volume limitation act, any allocation made under section 20 must be canceled, the provisions of section 20 will no longer be in force and effect, any unrefunded deposit made with the department under section 20 shall be refunded to the issuer within 30 days of the cancellation and any excess issuance authority previously set aside under section 20 for 501(c)(3) bonds shall, to the extent the exclusion of the 501(c)(3) bonds increases the amount of the governmental volume cap, be added on a pro rata basis to the amount of the governmental volume cap allocated to (1) state issuers under section 16, subdivision 1, clause (1); (2) entitlement cities under section 16, subdivision 1, clause (2); and (3) to the pool under section 11, subdivision 2, clause (3).

(b) If obligations for multifamily housing projects, or certain kinds thereof, are excluded from the volume cap in a federal volume limitation act, allocations granted for the projects are canceled and the commissioner shall refund any deposits for the projects within 30 days of cancellation. No adjustment shall be made in the allocation of the governmental volume cap except as provided under section 11, subdivision 3.

Sec. 28. [474A.20] [STATE CERTIFICATION.]

The commissioner of the department is designated as the state official to provide any pre-issuance or post-issuance certification required by a federal volume limitation act.

Sec. 29. [474A.21] [APPROPRIATION; RECEIPTS.]

Any fees collected by the department under sections 9 to 29 must be deposited in the general fund. The amount necessary to refund application deposits is appropriated to the department from the general fund for that purpose.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 475.77, is amended to read:

475.77 [OBLIGATIONS SUBJECT TO FEDERAL VOLUME LIMITATION ACT.]

Sections ~~474.16 to 474.23~~ 9 to 29 apply to any issuance of obligations which are subject to limitation under a federal volume limitation act as defined in section ~~474.16~~ 10, subdivision ~~5~~ 9, or existing federal tax law as defined in section 10, subdivision 8.

Sec. 31. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1984, sections 462C.09, subdivision 4; 474.16, subdivisions 1, 2, and 5; 474.21; and 474.25; and Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, sections 116J.58, subdivision 4; 462C.09, subdivisions 1, 2a, 3, 5, and 6; 474.16, subdivisions 3, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, and 15; 474.17; 474.19; 474.20; 474.23; and 474.26 are repealed. Nothing in this section is intended to affect the validity of any allocation granted pursuant to the repealed sections prior to the effective date of this article, including any allocation carried forward for use in a later calendar year. Nothing in this section is intended to affect the validity of any allocation granted pursuant to the repealed sections prior to the effective date of this article, including any allocation carried forward for use in a later calendar year. If prior to the date of enactment of this article, a notice of allocation is received pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 474.19, and if obligations pursuant to that allocation are not issued on or before the date of enactment of this article, the issuer may elect within 30 days after enactment of this article to either resubmit its application pursuant to the provisions of this article and receive a credit for the deposit already made or request a refund of the deposit. If a refund of the deposit is requested, the department must refund the deposit within 15 days.

Sec. 32. [EFFECTIVE DATE; SUNSET.]

This article is effective the day following final enactment. Sections 10, subdivisions 3, 9, 10, 11, 16, 22, and 25; 11, subdivisions 2 and 3; 15, subdivision 7; 16 to 21; and 26 to 28 are repealed effective July 1, 1987.

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 124.214, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. If a return of excess tax increment is made to a school district pursuant to section 273.75, subdivision 2 or upon decertification of a tax increment district, the school district's aid entitlements and levy limitations must be adjusted for the fiscal year in which the excess tax increment is paid under the provisions of this subdivision.

(a) An amount must be subtracted from the school district's aid for the current fiscal year equal to the product of:

(1) the amount of the payment of excess tax increment to the school district, times

(2) the ratio of:

(A) the sum of the amounts of the school district's certified levy for the fiscal year in which the excess tax increment is paid according to the following:

(i) sections 124A.03, subdivision 1, 124A.06, subdivision 3a, and 124A.08, subdivision 3a, if the school district is entitled to basic foundation aid according to section 124A.02;

(ii) section 124A.10, subdivision 3a, and section 124A.20, subdivision 2, if the school district is entitled to third-tier aid according to section 124A.10, subdivision 4;

(iii) sections 124A.12, subdivision 3a, and 124A.14, subdivision 5a, if the school district is eligible for fourth-tier aid according to section 124A.12, subdivision 4;

(iv) section 124A.03, subdivision 4, if the school district is entitled to summer school aid according to section 124.201; and

(v) section 275.125, subdivisions 5 and 5c, if the school district is entitled to transportation aid according to section 124.225, subdivision 8a;

(B) to the total amount of the school district's certified levy for the fiscal year pursuant to sections 124A.03, 124A.06, subdivision 3a, 124A.08, subdivision 3a, 124A.10, subdivision 3a, 124A.12, subdivision 3a, 124A.14, subdivision 5a, 124A.20, subdivision 2, and 275.125, plus or minus auditor's adjustments.

(b) An amount must be subtracted from the school district's levy limitation for the next levy certified equal to the difference between:

(1) the amount of the distribution of excess increment, and

(2) the amount subtracted from aid pursuant to clause (a) of this subdivision.

If the aid and levy reductions required by this subdivision cannot be made to the aid for the fiscal year specified or to the levy specified, the reductions must be made from aid for subsequent fiscal years, and from subsequent levies. The school district shall use the payment of excess tax increment to replace the aid and levy revenue reduced under this subdivision.

This subdivision applies only to the total amount of excess increments received by a school district for a calendar year that exceeds $25,000.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 273.1314, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8a. [ADDITIONAL ENTERPRISE ZONE ALLOCATIONS.] (a) In addition to tax reductions authorized in subdivision 8, the commissioner may allocate $600,000 for tax reductions pursuant to subdivision 9 to enterprise zones designated under section 273.1312, subdivision 4, paragraph (c), clause (1) or (3). Of this amount, a minimum of $200,000 must be allocated to an area added to an enterprise zone pursuant to section 3. Allocations made pursuant to this subdivision may not be used to reduce a tax liability, or increase a tax refund, prior to July 1, 1987. Limits on the maximum allocation to a zone imposed by subdivision 8 do not apply to allocations made under this subdivision.

(b) A city encompassing an enterprise zone, or portion of an enterprise zone, qualifies for an additional allocation under this subdivision if the following requirements are met:

(1) the city encompassing an enterprise zone, or portion of an enterprise zone, has signed contracts with qualifying businesses that commit the city's total initial allocation received pursuant to subdivision 8.

(2) the city encompassing an enterprise zone, or portion of an enterprise zone, submits an application to the commissioner requesting an additional allocation for tax reductions authorized by subdivision 9. The application must identify a specific business expansion project which would not take place but for the availability of enterprise zone tax incentives.

(c) The commissioner shall use the following criteria when determining which qualifying cities shall receive an additional allocation under this subdivision and the amount of the additional allocation the city is to receive:

(1) additional allocations to qualifying cities under this subdivision shall be made within 60 days of receipt of an application.

(2) applications from cities with the highest level of economic distress, as determined using criteria listed in section 273.1312, subdivision 4, paragraph (c), clauses (A) to (E), shall receive priority for an additional allocation under this subdivision.

(3) if the commissioner determines that two cities submitting applications within one week of each other have equal levels of economic distress, the application from the city with the business prospect which will have the greatest positive economic impact shall receive priority for an additional allocation. Criteria used by the commissioner to determine the potential economic impact a business would have shall include the number of jobs created and retained, the amount of private investment which will be made by the business, and the extent to which the business would help alleviate the economic distress in the immediate community.

(4) the commissioner shall determine the amount of any additional allocation a city may receive. The commissioner shall base the amount of additional allocations on the commissioner's determination of the amount of tax incentives which are necessary to ensure the business prospect will expand in the city. No single allocation under this subdivision may exceed $100,000. No city may receive more than $250,000 under this subdivision.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 273.1314, subdivision 16a, is amended to read:

Subd. 16a. [ZONE BOUNDARY REALIGNMENT.] The commissioner may approve specific applications by a municipality to amend the boundaries of a zone or of an area or areas designated pursuant to subdivision 9, paragraph (e) at any time. Boundaries of a zone may not be amended to create noncontiguous subdivisions. If the commissioner approves the amended boundaries, the change is effective on the date of approval. Notwithstanding the area limitation under section 273.1312, subdivision 4, paragraph (b), the commissioner may approve a specific application to amend the boundaries of an enterprise zone which is located within five municipalities and was designated in 1984, to increase its area to not more than 800 acres, and may approve an additional specific application to amend the boundaries of that enterprise zone to include a sixth municipality.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 273.73, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [REDEVELOPMENT DISTRICT.] (a) "Redevelopment district" means a type of tax increment financing district consisting of a project, or portions of a project, within which the authority finds by resolution that one of the following conditions, reasonably distributed throughout the district, exists:

(1) 70 percent of the parcels in the district are occupied by buildings, streets, utilities or other improvements and more than 50 percent of the buildings, not including outbuildings, are structurally substandard to a degree requiring substantial renovation or clearance; or

(2) 70 percent of the parcels in the district are occupied by buildings, streets, utilities or other improvements and 20 percent of the buildings are structurally substandard and an additional 30 percent of the buildings are found to require substantial renovation or clearance in order to remove such existing conditions as: inadequate street layout, incompatible uses or land use relationships, overcrowding of buildings on the land, excessive dwelling unit density, obsolete buildings not suitable for improvement or conversion, or other identified hazards to the health, safety and general well being of the community; or

(3) Less than 70 percent of the parcels in the district are occupied by buildings, streets, utilities or other improvements, but due to unusual terrain or soil deficiencies requiring substantial filling, grading or other physical preparation for use at least 80 percent of the total acreage of such land has a fair market value upon inclusion in the redevelopment district which, when added to the estimated cost of preparing that land for development, excluding costs directly related to roads as defined in section 160.01 and local improvements as described in section 429.021, subdivision 1, clauses 1 to 7, 11 and 12, and section 430.01, if any, exceeds its anticipated fair market value after completion of said preparation; provided that no parcel shall be included within a redevelopment district pursuant to this paragraph (3) unless the authority has concluded an agreement or agreements for the development of at least 50 percent of the acreage having the unusual soil or terrain deficiencies, which agreement provides recourse for the authority should the development not be completed; or

(4) The property consists of underutilized air rights existing over a public street, highway or right-of-way; or

(5) The property consists of vacant, unused, underused, inappropriately used or infrequently used railyards, rail storage facilities or excessive or vacated railroad rights-of-way*; or*

(6) The district consists of an existing or proposed industrial park no greater in size than 250 acres, which contains a sewage lagoon contaminated with polychlorinated biphenyls.

(b) For purposes of this subdivision, "structurally substandard" shall mean containing defects in structural elements or a combination of deficiencies in essential utilities and facilities, light and ventilation, fire protection including adequate egress, layout and condition of interior partitions, or similar factors, which defects or deficiencies are of sufficient total significance to justify substantial renovation or clearance. "Parcel" shall mean a tract or plat of land established prior to the certification of the district as a single unit for purposes of assessment.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 273.75, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXCESS TAX INCREMENTS.] In any year in which the tax increment exceeds the amount necessary to pay the costs authorized by the tax increment financing plan, including the amount necessary to cancel any tax levy as provided in section 475.61, subdivision 3, the authority shall use the excess amount to do any of the following, in the order determined by the authority: (a) prepay any outstanding bonds, (b) discharge the pledge of tax increment therefor, (c) pay into an escrow account dedicated to the payment of such bond, or (d) return the excess amount to the county auditor who shall distribute the excess amount to the municipality, county and school district in which the tax increment financing district is located in direct proportion to their respective mill rates. The county auditor must report to the commissioner of education the amount of any excess tax increment distributed to a school district within 30 days of the distribution.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 273.75, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [LIMITATION ON USE OF TAX INCREMENT.] All revenues derived from tax increment shall be used in accordance with the tax increment financing plan. The revenues shall be used solely for the following purposes: (a) to pay the principal of and interest on bonds issued to finance a project; (b) by a rural development financing authority for the purposes stated in section 362A.01, subdivision 2, by a port authority or municipality exercising the powers of a port authority to finance or otherwise pay the cost of redevelopment pursuant to chapter 458, by a housing and redevelopment authority to finance or otherwise pay public redevelopment costs pursuant to chapter 462, by a municipality to finance or otherwise pay the capital and administration costs of a development district pursuant to chapter 472A, by a municipality or redevelopment agency to finance or otherwise pay premiums for insurance or other security guaranteeing the payment when due of principal of and interest on the bonds pursuant to chapters 462C, 474, or both chapters, or to accumulate and maintain a reserve securing the payment when due of the principal of and interest on the bonds pursuant to chapters 462C, 474, or both chapters, which revenues in the reserve shall not exceed, subsequent to the fifth anniversary of the date of issue of the first bond issue secured by the reserve, an amount equal to 20 percent of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding and nondefeased bonds secured by the reserve. Revenues derived from tax increment may be used to finance the costs of an interest reduction program operated pursuant to section 462.445, subdivisions 10 to 13, or pursuant to other law granting interest reduction authority and power by reference to those subdivisions only under the following conditions: (a) tax increments may not be collected for a program for a period in excess of 12 years after the date of the first interest rate reduction payment for the program, (b) tax increments may not be used for an interest reduction program, if the proceeds of bonds issued pursuant to section 273.77 after December 31, 1985, have been or will be used to provide financial assistance to the specific project which would receive the benefit of the interest reduction program, and (c) ~~not more than 50 percent of the estimated~~ tax ~~increment~~ increments ~~derived from a project~~ may not be used to finance an interest reduction program for owner-occupied single-family dwellings ~~unless a project is located either in an area which would qualify as a redevelopment district or within a city designated as an enterprise zone pursuant to section 273.1312, subdivision 4, clause (c)(3)~~. These revenues shall not be used to circumvent existing levy limit law. No revenues derived from tax increment shall be used for the construction or renovation of a municipally owned building used primarily and regularly for conducting the business of the municipality; this provision shall not prohibit the use of revenues derived from tax increments for the construction or renovation of a parking structure, a commons area used as a public park or a facility used for social, recreational or conference purposes and not primarily for conducting the business of the municipality.

Sec. 7. [340A.318] [CREDIT EXTENSIONS RESTRICTED.]

Subdivision 1. [RESTRICTION.] Except as provided in this section, no retail licensee may accept or receive credit, other than merchandising credit in the ordinary course of business for a period not to exceed 30 days, from a distiller, manufacturer, or wholesaler of distilled spirits or wine, or agent or employee thereof. No distiller, manufacturer or wholesaler may extend the prohibited credit to a retail licensee. No retail licensee delinquent beyond the 30 day period shall solicit, accept or receive credit or purchase or acquire distilled spirits or wine directly or indirectly, and no distiller, manufacturer or wholesaler shall knowingly grant or extend credit nor sell, furnish or supply distilled spirits or wine to a retail licensee who has been posted delinquent under subdivision 3. No right of action shall exist for the collection of any claim based upon credit extended contrary to the provisions of this section.

Subd. 2. [REPORTING.] Every distiller, manufacturer or wholesaler selling to retailers shall submit to the commissioner in triplicate not later than Thursday of each calendar week a verified list of the names and addresses of each retail licensee purchasing distilled spirits or wine from that distiller, manufacturer or wholesaler who, on the first day of that calendar week, was delinquent beyond the 30 day period, or a verified statement that no delinquencies exist which are required to be reported. If a retail licensee previously reported as delinquent cures the delinquency by payment, the name and address of that licensee shall be submitted in triplicate to the commissioner not later than the close of the second full business day following the day the delinquency was cured.

Subd. 3. [POSTING; NOTICE.] Verified list or statements required by subdivision 2 shall be posted by the commissioner in offices of the department in places available for public inspection and mailed to each licensed wholesaler not later than the day following receipt. Documents so posted and mailed shall constitute notice to every distiller, manufacturer or wholesaler of the information posted. Actual notice, however received, also constitutes notice.

Subd. 4. [MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.] The 30 day merchandising period allowed by this section shall commence with the day immediately following the date of invoice and shall include all successive days, including Sundays and holidays, to and including the 30th successive day. In addition to other legal methods, payment by check during the period for which merchandising credit may be extended shall be considered payment. All checks received in payment for distilled spirits or wine shall be deposited promptly for collection. A postdated check or a check dishonored on presentation for payment does not constitute payment. A retail licensee shall not be deemed delinquent for any alleged sale in any instance where there exists a bona fide dispute between the licensee and the distiller, manufacturer or wholesaler as to the amount owing as a result of the alleged sale. A delinquent retail licensee who engages in the retail liquor business at two or more locations shall be deemed to be delinquent with respect to each location.

The agency shall require by rules that the owner give preference to those persons of low or moderate income who occupied the residential housing at the time of application for the loan.

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, the follow- ing terms have the meanings given:

"Reserve fund" means the infrastructure replacement reserve fund.

"City" means a statutory or home rule charter city.

Subd. 2. [TAX LEVY.] The governing body of a city may establish, by a two-thirds vote of all its members, by ordinance or resolution a reserve fund and may annually levy a property tax for the support of the fund. The proceeds of taxes levied for its support must be paid into the reserve fund. Any other revenue from a source not required by law to be paid into another fund for purposes other than those provided for the use of the reserve fund may be paid into the fund. A tax levied by the city in accordance with this section is a special levy within the meaning of section 275.50, subdivision 5. Before a tax is levied under this section, the city must publish in the official newspaper of the city an initial resolution authorizing the tax levy. If within ten days after the publication a petition is filed with the city clerk requesting an election on the tax levy signed by a number of qualified voters greater than ten percent of the number who voted in the city at the last general election, the tax may not be levied until the levy has been approved by a majority of the votes cast on it at a regular or special election.

Subd. 3. [PURPOSES.] The reserve fund may be used only for the replacement of streets, bridges, curbs, gutters and storm sewers.

Subd. 4. [USE OF FUND FOR A SPECIFIC PURPOSE.] If the city has established a reserve fund, it may submit to the voters at a regular or special election the question of whether use of the fund should be restricted to a specific improvement or type of capital improvement. If a majority of the votes cast on the question are in favor of the limitation on the use of the reserve fund, it may be used only for the purpose approved by the voters.

Subd. 5. [HEARING; NOTICE.] A reserve fund may not be established until after a public hearing is held on the question. Notice of the time, place, and purpose of the hearing must be published for two successive weeks in the official newspaper of the city. The second publication must be not later than seven days before the date of the hearing.

Subd. 6. [TERMINATION OF FUND.] The city may terminate a reserve fund at any time in the same manner as the fund was established. Upon termination of the fund any balance is irrevocably appropriated to the debt service fund of the city to be used solely to reduce tax levies for or bonded indebtedness of the city or, if the city has no bonded indebtedness, for capital improvements authorized by this section.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 471.59, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [JOINT POWERS BOARD.] Two or more governmental units, through action of their governing bodies, by adoption of a joint powers agreement that complies with the provisions of subdivisions 1 through 5, may establish a joint board to issue bonds or obligations pursuant to any law by which any of the governmental units establishing the joint board may independently issue bonds or obligations and may use the proceeds of the bonds or obligations to carry out the purposes of the law under which the bonds or obligations are issued. A joint board created pursuant to this section may issue obligations and other forms of indebtedness only pursuant to express authority granted by the action of the governing bodies of the governmental units which established the joint board. The joint board established pursuant to this subdivision shall be composed solely of members of the governing bodies of the governmental unit which established the joint board, and the joint board may not pledge the full faith and credit or taxing power of any of the governmental units which established the joint board. The obligations or other forms of indebtedness shall be obligations of the joint board issued on behalf of the governmental units creating the joint board. The obligations or other forms of indebtedness shall be issued in the same manner and subject to the same conditions and limitations which would apply if the obligations were issued or indebtedness incurred by one of the governmental units which established the joint board provided that any reference to a governmental unit in the statute, law, or charter provision authorizing the issuance of the bonds or the incurring of the indebtedness shall be considered a reference to the joint board.

Subd. 6. In order to further these purposes and policies the department of energy and economic development ~~authority~~ shall investigate, shall assist and advise municipalities, and shall report to the governor and the legislature concerning the operation of sections 474.01 to 474.13 and the projects undertaken hereunder, and shall have all of the powers and duties in connection therewith which are granted to him by chapter 362 with respect to other aspects of business development and research.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 474.01, subdivision 7b, is amended to read:

Subd. 7b. Prior to submitting an application to the department of energy and economic development ~~authority~~ requesting approval of a project pursuant to subdivision 7a, the governing body or a committee of the governing body of the municipality or redevelopment agency shall conduct a public hearing on the proposal to undertake and finance the project. Notice of the time and place of hearing, and stating the general nature of the project and an estimate of the principal amount of bonds or other obligations to be issued to finance the project, shall be published at least once not less than ~~15~~ 14 days nor more than 30 days prior to the date fixed for the hearing, in the official newspaper and a newspaper of general circulation of the municipality or redevelopment agency. The notice shall state that a draft copy of the proposed application to the department of energy and economic development ~~authority~~, together with all attachments and exhibits thereto, shall be available for public inspection following the publication of the notice and shall specify the place and times where and when it will be so available. At the time and place fixed for the public hearing, the governing body of the municipality or the redevelopment agency shall give all parties who appear at the hearing an opportunity to express their views with respect to the proposal to undertake and finance the project. Following the completion of the public hearing, the governing body of the municipality or redevelopment agency shall adopt a resolution determining whether or not to proceed with the project and its financing and may thereafter apply to the department of energy and economic development ~~authority~~ for approval of the project.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 475.55, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [INTEREST; FORM.] (1) Interest on obligations shall not exceed the greatest of (a) the rate determined pursuant to subdivision 4 for the month in which the resolution authorizing the obligations was adopted, or (b) the rate determined pursuant to subdivision 4 for the month in which the obligations are sold, or (c) the rate of ten percent per annum. All obligations shall be securities as provided in the Uniform Commercial Code, chapter 336, article 8, may be issued as certificated securities or as uncertificated securities, and if issued as certificated securities may be issued in bearer form or in registered form, as defined in section 336.8-102. The validity of an obligation shall not be impaired by the fact that one or more officers authorized to execute it by the governing body of the municipality shall have ceased to be in office before delivery to the purchaser or shall not have been in office on the formal issue date of the obligation. Every obligation, as to certificated securities, or transaction statement, as to uncertificated securities, shall be signed manually by one officer of the municipality or by a person authorized to act on behalf of a bank or trust company, located in or outside of the state, which has been designated by the governing body of the municipality to act as authenticating agent. Other signatures and the seal of the issuer may be printed, lithographed, stamped or engraved thereon and on any interest coupons to be attached thereto. The seal need not be used. A municipality may do all acts and things which are permitted or required of issuers of securities under the Uniform Commercial Code, chapter 336, article 8, and may designate a corporate registrar to perform on behalf of the municipality the duties of a registrar as set forth in those sections. Any registrar shall be an incorporated bank or trust company, located in or outside of the state, authorized by the laws of the United States or of the state in which it is located to perform the duties. If obligations are issued as uncertificated securities, and a law requires or permits the obligations to contain a statement or recital, whether on their face or otherwise, it shall be sufficient compliance with the law that the statement or recital is contained in the transaction statement or in an ordinance, resolution, or other instrument which is made a part of the obligation by reference in the transaction statement as provided in section 336.8-202.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), interest on obligations issued after April 1, 1986 and before July 1, 1987 is not subject to any limitation on rate or amount. For purposes of this paragraph, obligations issued after April 1, 1986 and before July 1, 1987 include reissuing, reselling, remarketing, refunding, refinancing or tendering, whether pursuant to section 475.54, subdivision 5a, or otherwise, of obligations after July 1, 1987 if the original obligations were issued before July 1, 1987 and after April 1, 1986.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 475.55, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [ASSUMED MAXIMUM INTEREST RATE FOR OTHER LAWS.] If an obligation is not subject to a maximum interest rate pursuant to subdivision 1, paragraph (1) and another law provides for a calculation of a debt service levy, determination of a rate of interest on a special assessment, or other factor based on an assumption that a maximum interest rate applies to the obligation, the governing body of the municipality may esti- mate or determine an assumed maximum interest rate for purposes of that law. If the municipality does not determine, specify or estimate the maximum interest rate for such purpose, then the maximum interest rate for purposes of the other law is the maximum interest rate that would apply if subdivision 1, paragraph (2) were not in effect. This subdivision does not limit the interest rate that may be paid on obligations under subdivision 1.

475.56 [INTEREST RATE.]

(a) Any municipality issuing obligations under any law may issue obligations bearing interest at a single rate or at rates varying from year to year which may be lower or higher in later years than in earlier years. Such higher rate for any period prior to maturity may be represented in part by separate coupons designated as additional coupons, extra coupons, or B coupons, but the highest aggregate rate of interest contracted to be so paid for any period shall not exceed the maximum rate authorized by law. Such higher rate may also be represented in part by the issuance of additional obligations of the same series, over and above but not exceeding two percent of the amount otherwise authorized to be issued, and the amount of such additional obligations shall not be included in the amount required by section 475.59 to be stated in any bond resolution, notice, or ballot, or in the sale price required by section 475.60 or any other law to be paid; but if the principal amount of the entire series exceeds its cash sale price, such excess shall not, when added to the total amount of interest payable on all obligations of the series to their stated maturity dates, cause the average annual rate of such interest to exceed the maximum rate authorized by law. This section does not authorize a provision in any such obligations for the payment of a higher rate of interest after maturity than before.

(b) Any obligation of an issue of obligations otherwise subject to section 475.55, subdivision 1, may bear interest at a rate varying periodically at the time or times and on the terms, including convertibility to a fixed rate of interest, determined by the governing body of the municipality, but the rate of interest for any period shall not exceed the maximum rate of interest for the obligations determined in accordance with section 475.55, subdivision 1. For purposes of section 475.61, subdivisions 1 and 3, the interest payable on variable rate obligations for their term shall be determined as if their rate of interest is the maximum rate permitted for the obligations under section 475.55, subdivision 1, or the lesser maximum rate of interest payable on the obligations in accordance with their terms, but if the interest rate is subsequently converted to a fixed rate the levy may be modified to provide at least five percent in excess of amounts necessary to pay principal of and interest at the fixed rate on the obligations when due. For purposes of computing debt service or interest pursuant to section 475.67, subdivision 12, interest throughout the term of bonds issued pursuant to this subdivision is deemed to accrue at the rate of interest first borne by the bonds. The provisions of this paragraph do not apply to obligations issued by a statutory or home rule charter city with a population of less than 10,000, as defined in section 477A.011, subdivision 3, or to obligations that are not rated A or better, or an equivalent subsequently established rating, by Standard and Poor's Corporation, Moody's Investors Service or other similar nationally-recognized rating agency, except that any statutory or home rule charter city, regardless of population or bond rating, may issue variable rate obligations as a participant in a bond pooling program established by the league of Minnesota cities that meets this bond rating requirement.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 475.60, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REQUIREMENTS WAIVED.] The requirements as to public sale shall not apply to:

(1) obligations issued under the provisions of a home rule charter or of a law specifically authorizing a different method of sale, or authorizing them to be issued in such manner or on such terms and conditions as the governing body may determine;

(2) obligations sold by an issuer in an amount not exceeding the total sum of $300,000 in any three-month period;

(3) obligations issued by a governing body other than a school board in anticipation of the collection of taxes or other revenues appropriated for expenditure in a single year, if sold in accordance with the most favorable of two or more proposals solicited privately;

(4) obligations sold to any board, department, or agency of the United States of America or of the state of Minnesota, in accordance with rules or regulations promulgated by such board, department, or agency; ~~and~~

(5) obligations issued to fund pension and retirement fund liabilities under section 475.52, subdivision 6, obligations issued with tender options under section 475.54, subdivision 5a, crossover refunding obligations referred to in section 475.67, subdivision 13, and any issue of obligations comprised in whole or in part of obligations bearing interest at a rate or rates which vary periodically referred to in section 475.56; and

(b) obligations qualifying under section 475.55, subdivision 1, paragraph (2), if the governing body of the municipality determines that interest on the obligations will be includible in gross income for purposes of federal income taxation.

Sec. 22. [475.561] [TAXABLE STATUS; SPECIAL PROVISIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [INCREASE OR DECREASE IN INTEREST.] (a) Obligations may be issued which provide, if interest on the obligations is determined under the terms of the obligations to be subject to federal income taxation, for an increase in the rate of interest payable on the obligations, from the date of issuance or another date, to a rate provided under the terms of the obligations.

(b) If the municipality issues obligations it intends to be exempt from federal income taxation but bond counsel cannot provide an opinion that the interest on the obligations will be exempt from federal income taxation under pending legislation or regulations existing or proposed with retroactive effect or otherwise, the municipality may provide for the obligations to bear interest at a rate that will decrease, if the obligations are subsequently determined to be exempt from federal income taxation, to a rate and from a date to be determined under the provisions of the obligations.

(c) For purposes of section 475.61, subdivisions 1 and 3, the increase or decrease in interest rate permitted by this subdivision need not be taken into account until the increase or decrease occurs. Upon occurrence of the increase or decrease, the levy must be modified to provide at least five percent in excess of the amount necessary to pay principal and interest at the new rate of interest on the obligations.

Subd. 2. [ARBITRAGE REBATE.] A municipality may, from the proceeds of bonds, investment earnings, or any other available moneys of the municipality, pay to the United States or an officer, department, agency or instrumentality of the United States a rebate of excess earnings payment required by federal law to maintain the interest as tax exempt. A covenant to make a payment or payments pursuant to this subdivision is not an obligation of the municipality as defined in section 475.51, subdivision 3.

Subd. 3. [PREPAYMENT OR PURCHASE OF BONDS.] A municipality that issues obligations it intends to be exempt from federal income taxation may agree to prepay or purchase the obligations (a) at the time and in the amount it determines necessary or desirable to maintain the obligations as exempt from federal income taxation or (b) upon a determination that the obligations are taxable. A municipality may make arrangements to have money available with which to purchase or prepay the obligations as the municipality determines necessary or desirable. If arrangements are made with a financial institution pursuant to section 475.54, subdivision 5a or this subdivision and if the municipality owes the financial institution money under the arrangement, the agreement to pay the financial institution is not an obligation of the municipality as defined in section 475.51, subdivision 3, unless and until the amount to be paid or reimbursed is determined and becomes due and payable, whereupon, the obligation is, as provided by the agreement, a general or special obligation of the municipality, and may also be paid from the proceeds of refunding bonds issued pursuant to this chapter. The agreement may not be or become a general obligation of the municipality unless the underlying, originally issued obligation was a general obligation of the municipality. For purposes of section 475.61, subdivisions 1 and 3, money necessary to make the purchase or prepayment are not amounts needed to meet when due principal and interest payments on the obligations.

Subd. 4. [RATIFICATION.] This section is, in part, remedial in nature. Obligations issued prior to the effective date of this section are not invalid or unenforceable for providing terms, consequences or remedies that are authorized by this section.

Sec. 23. [CITY OF MINNEAPOLIS; PROPERTY TAX FORGIVENESS.]

Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the governing bodies of the city of Minneapolis, Hennepin county, Special School District No. 1, and any special taxing district may by resolution or ordinance forgive any or all of the liability for the tax imposed by section 272.01, subdivision 2, relating to property leased by the Minneapolis community development agency.

Sec. 24. [REPEALER.]

Sec. 25. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 18, 19, 21, 22 and 23 are effective the day following final enactment.

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 115.07, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [OBTAIN PERMIT.] It shall be unlawful for any person to construct, install or operate a disposal system, or any part thereof, until plans therefor shall have been submitted to the agency unless the agency shall have waived the submission thereof to it and a written permit therefor shall have been granted by the agency.

For disposal systems operated on streams with extreme seasonal flows, the agency must allow seasonal permit limits based on a fixed or variable effluent limit when the municipality operating the disposal system requests them and is in compliance with agency water quality standards.

Sec. 2. [115.54] [TECHNICAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE.]

The agency shall adopt and revise rules governing waste water treatment control under chapters 115 or 116 only with the advice of a technical advisory committee of nine members. One member of the committee shall be selected by each of the following: the state consulting engineers council, the University of Minnesota division of environmental engineering, the state association of general contractors, the state wastewater treatment plant operators association, the metropolitan waste control commission created by section 473.503, the association of metropolitan municipalities, the state association of small cities, and two members from the league of Minnesota cities. The technical advisory committee may review and advise the agency on any rule or technical requirements governing the wastewater treatment grant or loan program and may review the work of other professional persons working on a wastewater treatment project and make recommendations to those persons, the agency, and the concerned municipality, in order for the agency to ensure that water quality treatment standards will be met. The committee shall meet at least once a year, or at the call of the chair, and shall elect its chairperson. The agency must provide staff support for the committee, prepare committee minutes and provide information to the committee it may request. A quorum is a simple majority and official action must be by a majority vote of the quorum.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 115A.14, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [POWERS AND DUTIES.] The commission shall review the biennial report of the board, the agency municipal project list and municipal needs list reports, and the budget for the agency division of water quality. The commission shall oversee the activities of the board under sections 115A.01 to 115A.72 and the activities of the agency under sections 115A.42 to 115A.46 ~~and~~, 115A.49 to 115A.54, and 116.16 to 116.18 and direct such changes or additions in the work plan of the board and agency as it deems fit. The commission may conduct public hearings and otherwise secure data and expressions of opinion. The commission shall make such recommendations as it deems proper to assist the legislature in formulating legislation. Any data or information compiled by the commission shall be made available to any standing or interim committee of the legislature upon request of the chairperson of the respective committee.

Sec. 4. [116.163] [AGENCY FUNDING APPLICATION REVIEW.]

Subdivision 1. [CONSTRUCTION GRANT AND LOAN APPLICATIONS.] The agency shall, pursuant to agency rules and within 90 days of receipt of a completed application for a wastewater treatment facility construction grant or loan, grant or deny the application and notify the municipality of the agency's decision. The time for consideration of the application by the agency may be extended up to 180 days if the municipality and the agency agree it is necessary.

Subd. 2. [LIMITATION ON MUNICIPAL PLANNING TIME.] A municipality shall complete all planning work required by the agency for award of a grant or loan, and be ready to advertise for bids for construction, within two years of receipt of grant or loan funds under subdivision 1. The planning time may be extended automatically by the amount of time the agency exceeds its 90-day review under subdivision 1.

Subd. 3. [BID REVIEW.] After a municipality has accepted bids for construction of a wastewater treatment project, the agency must review the bids within 30 days of receipt.

Sec. 5. [116.165] [INSPECTION RESPONSIBILITY.]

When a wastewater treatment plant is constructed with federal funds and a federal agency conducts inspections of the plant, the owner of the plant or the owner's designee must conduct inspections and forward all inspection documents required by the agency to the agency for its review.

Sec. 6. [116.167] [REVOLVING LOAN ACCOUNT.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] This section is effective only if the federal government requires revolving loan accounts to be established under the authority of the federal Water Pollution Control Act.

Subd. 2. [STATE WATER POLLUTION CONTROL REVOLVING LOAN ACCOUNT.] The commissioner of finance shall maintain in the state bond fund a separate bookkeeping account which shall be designated as the state water pollution control revolving loan account to receive any federal money authorized for loans under the federal Water Pollution Control Act, and other money appropriated by law, for the purpose of providing financial assistance to municipalities for wastewater treatment.

Subd. 3. [LOANS.] A loan made to a municipality under this section shall be made only after resolutions have been adopted by the agency and the governing body of the municipality obligating the municipality to repay the loan to the state treasurer in annual installments, including both principal and interest. Each installment shall be in an amount sufficient to pay the principal amount within 20 years or a shorter time interval if the amount of the annual payment will not justify the administrative expenses of processing the payment, and shall be paid from user charges, taxes, special assessments, or other funds available to the municipality. Interest on loans made to municipalities shall be established at a rate the commissioner of revenue reasonably determines sufficient to pay interest rates on state bonds issued under section 116.17, subdivision 2. Loan repayments must be deposited in the revolving loan account created by this section. Each participating municipality shall provide the agency with a financial health report compiled by the state auditor and the agency shall review the report before approving a loan. Municipalities receiving a loan under this section may still be eligible for a wastewater treatment grant from the agency.

Subd. 4. [RULES APPLICATION.] The disbursement of loans under this section must comply with rules adopted by the agency for loans for wastewater treatment facilities under chapter 116.

Sec. 7. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Article 3 is effective July 1, 1986.

Section 1. [297A.258] [PRIVATE SUPPLIERS OF PUBLIC SERVICES.]

A private vendor that has entered into a service contract with a municipality under sections 3 and 4 is a political subdivision for purposes of determining the tax imposed under this chapter. This section applies only to the extent that the vendor is acting for the purposes of constructing, maintaining, or operating related facilities pursuant to the service contract.

The commissioner may provide for the issuance of a limited exemption certificate to a private vendor for purposes of administering this section. The commissioner may further require a vendor to obtain a certificate in order to qualify as a political subdivision under this section.

For purposes of this section, "private vendor," "service contract," and "related facilities" have the meanings given in sections 3 and 4.

Sec. 2. [471A.01] [PUBLIC PURPOSE FINDINGS.]

The legislature finds that the privatization of facilities for the prevention, control, and abatement of water pollution, and the furnishing of potable water provides municipalities an opportunity under appropriate circumstances to provide those capital intensive public services in a manner that will speed construction and is less costly and more efficient than the furnishing of those services through facilities exclusively owned and operated by municipalities. The legislature further finds that other law may create unnecessary and costly obstacles to the privatization of those capital intensive public services and that a comprehensive act is required to permit municipalities to enter into appropriate contractual arrangements with private parties to facilitate the privatization of those capital intensive public services.

Sec. 3. [471A.02] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICABILITY.] The definitions in this section apply to sections 2 to 13.

Subd. 2. [ADMINISTRATOR.] "Administrator" means the pollution control agency or any other agency, instrumentality, or political subdivision of the state responsible for administering the loan or grant program described in section 8.

Subd. 3. [CAPITAL COST COMPONENT.] "Capital cost component" means that part of the service fee that the municipality determines is intended to reimburse the private vendor for the capital cost, including debt service expense, of the related facilities.

Subd. 4. [CAPITAL COST COMPONENT GRANT.] "Capital cost component grant" means any grant made to the municipality by the pollution control agency over a term of at least ten years to pay or reimburse the municipality for the payment of all or part of the capital cost component of the service fee.

Subd. 8. [MUNICIPALITY.] "Municipality" means a home rule charter or statutory city, county, sanitary district, or other governmental subdivision or public corporation, including the metropolitan council and the metropolitan waste control commission.

Subd. 9. [PERMITTED OBLIGATION.] "Permitted obligation" means the obligation of the municipality under the service contract to pay a service fee or perform any other obligation under the service contract except an obligation to pay, in a future fiscal year of the municipality from a revenue source other than funds on hand, a stated amount of money for money borrowed or for related facilities purchased by the municipality under the service contract.

Sec. 4. [471A.03] [BASIC AUTHORIZATION AND RELATED POWERS.]

Subdivision 1. [BASIC AUTHORIZATION.] A municipality may contract with a private vendor to furnish in accordance with a service contract any capital intensive public services the municipality is authorized by law to furnish, and for that purpose a municipality may exercise any and all of the powers provided in this section.

Subd. 2. [SERVICE CONTRACT.] Subject to the provisions of section 10, a municipality may enter into a service contract for a term of not more than 30 years. However, the service contract may permit the municipality to either extend or renew the term of the service contract so long as the municipality is not bound under the service contract for an extended or renewal period of more than 30 years. Under the service contract the municipality may, under terms and conditions agreed to by the municipality and the private vendor:

(1) obligate itself to pay or cause to be paid a service fee for the availability and use of the capital intensive public services to be furnished under the service contract;

(2) enter into other agreements relating to the service to be provided and which the municipality considers appropriate that are not otherwise contrary to law; and

(3) either pledge its full faith and credit or obligate a specific source of payment for the payment of the service fee and the performance of other obligations under the service contract and the payment of damages for failure to perform the obligations.

The obligation of the municipality to pay the service fee and perform any other permitted obligations under the service contract are not considered a debt within the meaning of any statutory or charter limitation, and no election is required as a precondition to the municipality entering into any permitted obligation or undertaking a project under a service contract.

Subd. 3. [PROCUREMENT PROCEDURES.] The municipality may agree under the service contract that the private vendor will acquire and construct any and all related facilities without compliance with any competitive bidding requirements, provided (1) the municipality, or municipalities if the related facilities furnish capital intensive public services to more than one municipality, has in the aggregate either no or no more than a 50 percent ownership interest in the related facilities, and (2) the municipality enters into the service contract only after requesting from two or more private vendors proposals for the furnishing of the capital intensive public services, under terms and conditions the municipality determines to be fair and reasonable. After making the request and receiving any proposals in response to the request, the municipality may negotiate the service contract with any private vendor that meets the requirements specified in the request for proposals.

Subd. 4. [SOURCES OF PAYMENT; COLLECTION PROCEDURE.] (a) For the payment of a service fee or other monetary obligation under an existing service contract or in anticipation of need under a future service contract, the municipality may:

(1) levy property taxes, impose rates and charges, levy special assessments, and exercise any other revenue producing authority granted to it and apply public funds for the payment of the service fee and any other monetary obligations under the service contract in the same manner, and subject to the same conditions and limitations, except as provided in section 5, that would apply if the related facilities were acquired, constructed, owned, and operated exclusively by the municipality; and

(2) establish by ordinance, revise when considered advisable, and collect just and reasonable rates and charges for the capital intensive public services provided under the service contract. The ordinance may obligate the owners, lessees, or occupants of property, or any or all of them, to pay charges for the capital intensive public services available for their properties and may obligate the user of a related facility to pay a reasonable charge for the use of the related facility. Rates and charges may take into account the character, kind, and quality of the capital intensive public service and all other factors that enter into the cost of the capital intensive public service, including but not limited to the service fee payable with respect to it, depreciation, and payment of principal and interest on money borrowed for the acquisition or betterment of related facilities.

(b) The rates and charges may be billed and collected in a manner the municipality shall determine consistent with this paragraph and other applicable law. On or before October 15 in each year, the municipality shall certify to the county auditor all unpaid outstanding charges for services provided under the service contract and a statement of the description of the lands against which the charges arose. It is the duty of the county auditor, upon order of the governing body of the municipality, to extend the rates and charges with interest as provided for by ordinance upon the tax rolls of the county for the taxes of the year in which the rate or charge is filed. For each year ending October 15 the rates and charges with interest shall be carried into the tax becoming due and payable in January of the following year, and shall be enforced and collected in the manner provided for the enforcement and collection of real property taxes in accordance with the provisions of the laws of the state. The rates and charges, if not paid, shall become delinquent and be subject to the same penalties and the same rate of interest as the taxes under the general laws of the state. All rates and charges shall be uniform in their application to use and service of the same character or quantity.

(c) An ordinance establishing rates and charges shall also establish a procedure by which a person obligated to pay the rates and charges may, each year at a public hearing held before August 1 of each year, protest the payment of the rates and charges on the grounds that services to be provided under the service contract are not available to the person. The services shall be deemed available for the property of the person if the vendor agrees, and the related facilities have the capacity, to provide the services to the person as soon as the municipality or any other entity provides the property of the person with access to the services. Notice of the hearing shall be published at least 30 days prior to the hearing in an official newspaper in general circulation in the municipality. A person protesting the assessment of rates and charges under this paragraph shall file the objection in writing with the municipality at least five days prior to the hearing. Within ten days after the hearing, the municipality shall determine whether the rates and charges were properly assessed. A person protesting the assessment of rates and charges may appeal the assessment, and a private vendor may appeal a reduction in rates and charges for any person, to the district court in the same manner as appeal of other civil cases. Rates and charges erroneously collected shall be refunded with the same rate of interest as taxes refunded with interest under the general laws of this state.

(d) A public hearing on the proposed ordinance shall be held prior to the meeting at which it is to be considered by the governing body of the municipality and after notice of the hearing has been published in the official newspaper of the municipality not less than ten days prior to the hearing. The notice shall state the subject matter and the general purpose of the proposed ordinance.

Subd. 5. [SALE OR LEASE OF EXISTING FACILITIES.] For purposes of carrying out the service contract, the municipality may, in compliance with subdivision 3, sell or lease to the private vendor or any other municipality on terms and conditions as the municipality considers appropriate any existing related facilities, including land, owned by the municipality.

Subd. 6. [REMEDIES.] The municipality may provide that title to the facilities shall vest in or revert to the municipality if the private vendor defaults under any specified provisions in the service contract. The municipality may acquire or reacquire any facilities and terminate the service contract in accordance with its terms notwithstanding that the service contract may constitute an equitable mortgage. No lease of facilities by the municipality to the private vendor is subject to the provisions of section 504.02, unless expressly so provided in the service contract.

Subd. 7. [INTEREST IN THE RELATED FACILITIES.] The municipal- ity may retain or acquire, on terms and conditions it considers appropriate, a present or future interest in all or part of the related facilities and grant a mortgage or security interest in its interest in the related facilities.

Subd. 8. [INTEREST IN THE PRIVATE VENDOR.] The municipality may, on terms and conditions it considers appropriate, acquire an interest in the private vendor as a joint venturer, including a share in the revenues derived from the related facilities, and grant a security interest in its interest in the private vendor and such revenues. However, no municipality or group of municipalities may have a controlling interest in the private vendor.

Subd. 9. [USE OF BOND PROCEEDS.] The municipality may issue bonds and other obligations and apply their proceeds toward the payment of the costs of the related facilities in the same manner and subject to the same conditions and limitations that would apply if the related facilities were acquired, constructed, owned, and operated exclusively by the municipality and for these purposes, related facilities shall be considered to be a project within the meaning of section 474.02, subdivision 1a.

Subd. 10. [REQUIRED PUBLIC USE.] The municipality may agree, subject to any applicable state statutory requirements as to designated use of the related facilities, that the sole and exclusive right to provide the capital intensive public services within its jurisdiction be assumed by the private vendor under the service contract and may require that any and all members of the public within its jurisdiction use the services provided under the service contract in the same manner and subject to the same limitations and conditions that would apply if the related facilities were acquired, constructed, owned, and operated exclusively by the municipality.

Subd. 11. [CONDEMNATION POWERS.] The municipality may exercise the right of eminent domain in the manner provided by chapter 117, for the purpose of acquiring for itself or the private vendor any and all related facilities. If the related facilities are acquired for the private vendor, the service contract shall be for a term of at least five years.

Subd. 12. [CONTRACTOR'S BOND AND MECHANICS' LIENS.] The municipality may waive or require the furnishing of a contractor's payment and performance bond of the kind described in section 574.26 in connection with the installation and construction of any related facilities. If the bond is required, the provisions of chapter 514 relating to liens for labor and materials are not applicable with respect to work done or labor or materials supplied for the related facilities. If the bond is waived, the provisions of chapter 514 apply with respect to work done or labor or materials supplied for the related facilities.

Sec. 5. [471A.04] [LEVY LIMITS.]

For purposes of applying sections 275.50 to 275.56, any property taxes levied for the payment of the service fee shall be treated as a special levy under the provisions of section 275.50, to the same extent and subject to the same limitations that would apply if the capital cost component of the service fee represented principal and interest payments on bonded indebtedness of the municipality within the meaning of section 275.50, subdivision 5, clause (e), and if the balance of the service fee represented operation and maintenance expenses for related facilities owned and operated exclusively by the municipality. The provisions of section 275.11 and any levy limits imposed by home rule charter do not apply to taxes levied to pay the service fee.

Sec. 6. [471A.05] [EXEMPTION FROM PROPERTY TAXES.]

If the service contract provides that property taxes imposed with respect to the related facilities are to be included in the service fee as pass-through costs, the municipality may apply to the commissioner of revenue for an exemption from property taxation of the related facilities. The property is exempt from ad valorem taxation, if the commissioner of revenue determines that the related facilities serve the general public and that similar municipally-owned facilities are exempt from ad valorem property taxation. The commissioner of revenue must notify the assessor that the property is exempt from taxation. The exemption is only effective during the term of the service contract from and after the date of filing the certificate in the case of property taxes. The exemption is not effective with respect to any property taxes levied or imposed but not collected prior to the date of approval of the exemption by the commissioner of revenue.

Sec. 7. [471A.06] [JOINT POWERS AGREEMENT.]

Two or more municipalities may enter into joint powers agreements they consider appropriate under the provisions of section 471.59 for purposes of exercising the powers granted in sections 2 to 13.

Sec. 8. [471A.07] [STATE GRANTS AND LOANS.]

On or before January 1, 1987, the pollution control agency shall submit to the legislature proposed legislation and draft implementing regulations providing for (1) the use by the administrator of unrestricted funds to provide grants and loans for related facilities that constitute wastewater treatment facilities as defined by section 115.71, subdivision 8, and (2) the use of such funding as a means of speeding construction of wastewater treatment facilities and better targeting scarce unrestricted funds to help finance wastewater treatment facilities (including reimbursement of municipalities for a portion of the capital cost component in service contracts under capital cost component loans and capital cost component grants).

Sec. 9. [471A.08] [HEARING.]

Subdivision 1. [PUBLIC HEARING REQUIRED.] Except as provided in subdivision 2, a municipality shall, before entering into a service contract under sections 2 to 13, conduct a public hearing on the proposal to provide specified capital intensive public services under sections 2 to 13. The hearing may be conducted either before or after the date on which any request for proposals is made under section 4, subdivision 3, clause (2). A notice of the hearing shall be published in the local official newspaper of the municipality no less than 15 and no more than 45 days prior to the date set for hearing and shall describe the general nature of the proposal. Any written information developed for the proposal prior to the hearing shall be available to the public for inspection prior to the hearing. The hearing on the proposal shall be sufficient even though the site of the related facilities, the name of the private vendor, and the specific structure of the contractual arrangements with the private vendor are not known at the time of the hearing.

Subd. 2. [EXISTING CONTRACTS.] A municipality that entered into a service contract prior to the effective date of sections 2 to 13 may exercise any of the powers authorized by those sections without complying with subdivision 1.

Sec. 10. [471A.09] [INVESTMENT OF FUNDS.]

Any sums paid to the private vendor under the service contract are not considered public funds and may be invested in any securities in which the private vendor is authorized by law to invest.

Sec. 11. [471A.10] [PUBLIC EMPLOYEE LAWS; SALE OR LEASE OF EXISTING FACILITY.]

(a) Unless expressly provided therein, and except as provided in this section, no state law, charter provision, or ordinance of a municipality relating to public employees shall apply to a person solely by reason of that person's employment by a private vendor in connection with services rendered under a service contract.

(b) A private vendor purchasing or leasing existing related facilities from a municipality shall recognize all exclusive bargaining representatives and existing labor agreements and those agreements shall remain in force until they expire by their terms. Persons who are not employed by a municipality in a related facility at the time of a lease or purchase of the facility by the private vendor are not "public employees" within the meaning of the public employees retirement act, chapter 353. Persons employed by a municipality in a related facility at the time of a lease or purchase of the facility by a private vendor shall continue to be considered to be "public employees" within the meaning of the public employees retirement act, chapter 353, but may elect to terminate their participation in the public employees retirement association as provided in this section. Each such employee may exercise the election annually on the anniversary of the person's initial employment by the municipality. An employee electing to terminate participation in the association is entitled to benefits that the employee would be entitled to if terminating public employment and may participate in a retirement program established by the private vendor.

Sec. 12. [471A.11] [REGULATION OF RATES AND CHARGES AND PUBLIC UTILITY LAWS.]

A municipality may regulate by ordinance, contract, or otherwise the rates and charges imposed by the private vendor with respect to any capital intensive public services provided to the public under the service contract. Whether or not the imposition of such rates and charges is so regulated, no capital intensive public services provided under the service contract are subject to regulation under the provisions of chapter 216B, unless the municipality elects to subject the services to regulation under that chapter. An election for regulation may be affected by resolution of the governing body of the municipality requesting regulation and filing the resolution with the state public utilities commission.

Sec. 13. [471A.12] [POWERS; ADDITIONAL AND SUPPLEMENTAL.]

The powers conferred by sections 2 to 13 shall be liberally construed in order to accomplish their purposes and shall be in addition and supplemental to the powers conferred by any other law or charter. If any other law or charter is inconsistent with sections 2 to 13, these sections are controlling as to service contracts entered into under sections 2 to 13. However, nothing in sections 2 to 13 limits or qualifies (1) any other law that a municipality must comply with to obtain any permit in connection with related facilities, (2) any performance standard or effluent limitations applicable to related facilities, or (3) the provisions of any law relating to conflict of interest.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 474.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1h. The term "project" shall also include related facilities as defined by section 3, subdivision 11.

Sec. 15. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

The council may not unreasonably withhold the issuance of obligations for ~~a capital development program~~ an implementation plan that has been approved by the council. The council may not issue obligations pursuant to this subdivision in excess of the amount specifically authorized by law. Except as otherwise provided in sections 473.371 to 473.449, the council shall provide for the issuance, sale, and security of the bonds in the manner provided in chapter 475, and has the same powers and duties as a municipality issuing bonds under that law, except that no election is required and the net debt limitations in chapter 475 do not apply to the bonds. The obligations are not a debt of the state or any municipality or political subdivision within the meaning of any debt limitation or requirement pertaining to those entities. Neither the state, nor any municipality or political subdivision except the council and board, nor any member or officer or employee of the board or council, is liable on the obligations. The obligations may be secured by taxes levied without limitation of rate or amount upon all taxable property in the transit taxing district and transit area as provided in section 473.446. The council shall certify to the transit board before October 1 of each year the amounts necessary to provide full and timely payment of the obligations. As part of its levy made under section 473.446, the board shall levy the amounts certified by the council and transfer the proceeds to the council for payment of the obligations. The taxes must be levied, certified, and collected in accordance with the terms and conditions of the indebtedness.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 473.39, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [AMOUNT; I-394 FACILITIES.] The council may issue certificates of indebtedness, bonds, or other obligations under this section in an amount not exceeding $8,500,000 for expenditure as prescribed in the ~~capital development program~~ implementation plan of the board ~~required by section 473.377, subdivision 2, clause (a)~~. Of this amount, no more than $1,500,000 may be spent for land acquisition and capital improvements for park and ride lots and transit transfer stations planned for the interstate highway described in section 161.123, clause (2), commonly known as I-394. These facilities may be constructed and maintained by the metropolitan transit commission. The board shall require, as a condition of financial assistance to the commission, that the commission make facilities it constructs, acquires, or improves for I-394 with funds provided under this provision available to all transit providers on a nondiscriminatory basis, as the board defines these terms.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 473.409, is amended to read:

473.409 [AGREEMENTS WITH COMMISSION; ENCOURAGEMENT OF TRANSIT USE.]

A state department or agency, including the legislative branch, any local governmental unit, the metropolitan council, or other metropolitan ~~commission~~ agency may enter into an agreement with the transit commission and other operators for the purpose of encouraging the use of transit by its employees residing in the metropolitan area. The agreement may provide for, among other things: (a) the advance purchase of tokens, tickets or other devices from the commission or other operator for use in lieu of fares on vehicles operated by the commission or other operator; and (b) special transit service for employees to and from their place of employment, at fares to be agreed upon by the contracting parties. The tokens, tickets, or other devices or services may be made available to employees at reduced rates. Any such agreement and arrangement by a state department or agency shall be submitted to the commissioner of administration for approval before execution. Any operating deficits or subsidy resulting from such agreements shall be assumed by the contracting department, agency, governmental unit, council, or other commission, unless otherwise provided in an agreement approved by the transit board.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 473.516, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [GENERAL REQUIREMENTS.] With respect to its activities under this section, the commission shall be subject to and comply with the applicable provisions of this chapter. Property acquired by the commission under this section shall be subject to the provisions of section 473.545. Any site or facility owned or operated for or by the commission shall conform to the policy plan adopted by the council under section 473.149 and shall be authorized in accordance with the commission's ~~development program and capital budget~~ implementation plan approved by the council. The commission shall contract with private persons for the construction, maintenance, and operation of waste facilities, subject to the bidding requirements of section 473.523, where the facilities are adequate and available for use and competitive with other means of providing the same service.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 473.523, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. No contract for any construction work, or for the purchase of materials, supplies, or equipment, costing more than ~~$5,000~~ $15,000 shall be made by the commission without publishing once in a legal newspaper or trade paper published in a city of the first class not less than two weeks before the last day for submission of bids, notice that bids or proposals will be received. Such notice shall state the nature of the work or purchase and the terms and conditions upon which the contract is to be awarded, and a time and place where such bids will be received, opened, and read publicly. After such bids have been duly received, opened, read publicly, and recorded, the commission shall award such contract to the lowest responsible bidder or it may reject all bids and readvertise. Each contract shall be duly executed in writing and the party to whom the contract is awarded shall give sufficient bond or security to the board for the faithful performance of the contract as required by law. The commission shall have the right to set qualifications and specifications and to require bids to meet all such qualifications and specifications before being accepted. If the commission by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of its members declares that an emergency exists requiring the immediate purchase of materials or supplies at a cost in excess of ~~$5,000~~ $15,000 or in making emergency repairs, it shall not be necessary to advertise for bids.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 473.523, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The administrator may, without prior approval of the commission and without advertising for bids, enter into any contract of the type referred to in subdivision 1 which is not in excess of ~~$5,000~~ $15,000.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 473.535, is amended to read:

473.535 [~~WASTE CONTROL COMMISSION~~ IMPLEMENTATION PLAN; BUDGET.]

The waste control commission shall prepare, submit to the council and adopt an implementation plan and a budget at the time and in the manner provided in and otherwise comply with ~~section~~ sections 473.161 and 473.163.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 473.553, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [QUALIFICATIONS.] Each member appointed prior to substantial completion of construction of a sports facility constructed pursuant to sections 473.551 to 473.595 shall be a resident of the precincts or area of the state for which he is appointed. A member appointed at any time shall not during his term of office hold the office of metropolitan council member or be a member of another metropolitan ~~commission~~ agency that is subject to section 473.141 or hold any judicial office or office of state government. Each member shall qualify by taking and subscribing the oath of office prescribed by the Minnesota Constitution, Article V, Section 6. The oath, duly certified by the official administering it, shall be filed with the chairman of the metropolitan council.

Sec. 47. [473.636] [NEW MAJOR AIRPORT; AIRPORT DEVELOPMENT AREA.]

Subdivision 1. [METROPOLITAN COUNCIL; LAND USE CRITERIA AND GUIDELINES.] Within 120 days after the selection by the metropolitan airports commission of a site in the metropolitan area for a new major airport to serve as a terminal for regular, scheduled air passenger service and the approval of the selection by the metropolitan council, the council shall adopt criteria and guidelines for the regulation of use and development of the airport development area, consisting of all or a portion of the property in the metropolitan area extending out three miles from the proposed boundaries of the site, or out five miles from the boundaries in any direction the council determines is necessary to protect natural resources of the metropolitan area. The criteria and guidelines must establish the boundaries of the airport development area and must include a statement of goals and policies to be accomplished by regulation of the use and development of property in the area. The criteria and guidelines may relate to all kinds of land use and development control measures, including zoning ordinances, building codes, subdivision regulations, and official maps. The criteria and guidelines must encourage controls for the use and development of property and the planning of public facilities to protect inhabitants of the airport development area from aircraft noise and to preserve natural underground water reservoirs and other natural resources of the metropolitan area. Those purposes are public purposes upon which land use and development control measures adopted by any government unit under law may be based.

The criteria and guidelines must be a part of the metropolitan development guide when it is adopted, and the council shall mail a copy of the criteria and guidelines and any amendment to them to the governing body of each government unit having authority to adopt land use and development control measures applicable to the airport development area under sections 360.061 to 360.073, chapter 394, or chapter 462, or any other law; to the metropolitan airports commission; and to the state commissioner of transportation. The council may amend the criteria and guidelines from time to time, and shall reestablish the airport development area whenever the airport site boundaries are altered.

Subd. 2. [LOCAL ZONING AND LAND USE AND DEVELOPMENT CONTROLS.] Upon the selection and approval of a site for a new major airport in the metropolitan area, all land within its airport development area not then zoned for other use is zoned for use exclusively for agricultural purposes, except that a prior nonconforming use established with reference to any lot or parcel of land may be continued and all land zoned by this subdivision for agricultural purposes may be rezoned by the appropriate government unit upon compliance with this subdivision. Thereafter the governing body of each government unit proposing to adopt or amend a land use and development control measure applicable to the airport development area shall submit it to the metropolitan council for review, and within 120 days after receipt of the council's criteria and guidelines shall make and submit to the council for review whatever changes in its existing land use and development control measures it deems necessary to make them consistent with the criteria and guidelines. The council or a committee designated by it shall hold a hearing on the control measures submitted by each government unit within 60 days after they are submitted, on written notice mailed to the governing body of the government unit not less than 15 days before the hearing. At the hearing the government unit must be allowed to present all data and information that support the control measures submitted to the council. The council shall approve each measure or amendment within 120 days after it is received, with whatever changes it deems necessary to make it consistent with the criteria and guidelines, and the government unit submitting it shall take all actions necessary to put it into effect within 60 days after it is approved. If the council amends its criteria and guidelines, it must follow the procedures in this subdivision to ensure that applicable land use and development control measures are consistent with the amendment.

Subd. 3. [ENFORCEMENT OF LOCAL MEASURES.] After the selection and approval of a site for a new major airport in the metropolitan area, no public or private use contrary to subdivision 2 or any land use and development control measure then in effect may be made of the property to which it applies within an airport development area, and no government unit may issue a permit for the use, construction, alteration, or planting of any property, building, structure, or tree not in accordance with its general provisions, except for minor footage variances, until the council has approved changes or variances in the control measure in accordance with subdivision 2. After the council has approved a land use and development control measure in accordance with subdivision 2, no public or private use contrary to its provisions may be made of the property to which it applies; and no government unit may issue a permit for the use, construction, alteration, or planting of any property, building, structure, or tree not in accordance with its general provisions; and no special use permit or variance may be granted that authorizes a use or development contrary to the council's criteria and guidelines.

Subd. 4. [CONTROL MEASURE REVIEW BEFORE SITE SELECTION.] After the metropolitan airports commission has called a hearing for the selection of a site for a new major airport in the metropolitan area under section 473.641, and until the commission has determined not to use the site described in the notice of hearing for a new major airport, the governing body of each government unit in the metropolitan area shall submit to the council for review and comment in accordance with section 473.175 any land use and development control measure, amendment, or variance applicable to or proposed for the site described in the notice of hearing or to any property within five miles of the site. During the period described in this subdivision, no government unit may construct a public building or facility on the proposed airport site or within five miles of it until it has submitted its plan for the building or facility to the metropolitan council for review and comment as provided in this subdivision.

Sec. 48. [473.637] [AIRCRAFT NOISE ZONES.]

Within 120 days after the selection and approval of a site for a new major airport in the metropolitan area, the metropolitan council shall determine the probable levels of noise that will result in various parts of the metropolitan area from the operation of aircraft using the site, shall establish aircraft noise zones based on that determination and applicable to property affected by the noise, and shall establish acceptable levels of perceived noise decibels for each land use, using the composite noise rating method and tables or the noise exposure forecast method and tables. Each government unit having power to adopt land use and development control measures applicable to property included in any aircraft noise zone shall adopt or incorporate in existing land use and development control measures the applicable acceptable level of perceived noise decibels established by the council, and shall adopt whatever other control measures may be necessary to prevent the use, construction, or improvement of property and buildings subject to a level of perceived noise decibels in excess of the acceptable level established for that land use. The council shall mail a map showing the aircraft noise zones and a copy of the applicable acceptable levels of perceived noise decibels to the governing body of each government unit having authority to adopt land use and development control measures applicable to property in each aircraft noise zone, to the metropolitan airports commission, and to the state commissioner of transportation. The control measures adopted by a government unit to comply with this section must be submitted to and approved by the council and placed into effect by the government unit as provided in section 473.215, subdivision 2. The council may change the aircraft noise zones and the applicable acceptable levels of perceived noise decibels to conform with the actual levels of noise produced by aircraft using the airport site when it is in operation, and may require changes in control measures applicable to airport noise zones to conform with changes made by it. No property may be used, and no building or other structure may be constructed or improved, within any aircraft noise zone if persons using the property and buildings would be subjected to a level of perceived noise decibels in excess of the acceptable level established by the council for that land use.

Sec. 49. [473.638] [CONTROL MEASURE INVOLVING TAKING; CONDEMNATION BY METROPOLITAN AIRPORTS COMMISSION.]

application of section 473.215, subdivision 2, or any land use and development control measure applicable to public or private property in an airport development area is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to constitute a taking, the metropolitan airports commission in the exercise of its power to acquire lands for the airport has the power to acquire the property or any similar property, or an interest in it, to the extent needed for the application of the measure, by eminent domain exercised in accordance with chapter 117. The right of eminent domain must be exercised if the commission has or will have funds to pay the condemnation award and the council determines that it is necessary to protect the airport from encroachment or hazards, to protect residents in the area, to encourage the most appropriate use of property in the airport development area, or to protect and conserve the natural resources of the metropolitan area.

Subd. 2. [RETENTION OR SALE OF PROPERTY.] The commission may retain any property now owned by it or acquired under subdivision 1 and use it for a lawful purpose, or it may provide for the sale or other disposition of the property in accordance with a redevelopment plan in the same manner and upon the same terms as the housing and redevelopment authority and governing body of a municipality under the provisions of section 462.525, all subject to the provisions of section 473.215, subdivision 2, or to existing land use and development control measures approved by the council.

Subd. 3. [SHARING OF COSTS.] The metropolitan airports commission and any other government unit in the metropolitan area may enter into an agreement under which the cost of acquiring a property and the proceeds from the sale or other disposition of it under subdivision 2 are to be shared by the commission and such government unit. The commission, the metropolitan council, or any government unit may also enter into any agreements with the United States or the state of Minnesota, or any agency or subdivision of either, and do all acts and things required by state or federal law or rules as a condition or consideration for the loan or grant of funds or property for the purpose of land acquisition or improvement under subdivisions 1 and 2.

Sec. 50. [473.639] [RELATION TO AIRPORT HAZARD ZONING.]

Sections 473.215 and 473.216 and any criteria, guidelines, or land use and development control measure approved by the council under those sections in no way supersede or limit the powers conferred on a municipality to do airport hazard zoning, or the commissioner of transportation by sections 360.061 to 360.073. Any criteria, guidelines, or land use and development control measure approved by the council under section 473.215 or 473.216 must be consistent with any exercise of powers by the commissioner under sections 360.061 to 360.093.

Sec. 51. [473.64] [GOVERNMENT UNITS IN AIRPORT DEVELOPMENT AREA; TAX SHARING.]

The governing bodies of government units located wholly or partly in an airport development area shall jointly study and decide upon a plan for the sharing of property tax revenues derived from property located in an airport development area. If 80 percent of the government units having territory within the airport development area agree upon a plan, the plan is effective, and all government units shall enter into whatever agreements may be necessary for this purpose. The plan, however, may not impair the existing contract obligations of any government unit. This section does not apply to the metropolitan airports commission or the council.

Sec. 52. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 473.704, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 19. The commission, by December 15 of each even-numbered year, shall prepare and submit to the legislature a financial report that contains the information required by section 18, subdivision 3, in a format consistent with the consolidated financial report required by that subdivision.

Sec. 53. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 473.711, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [CERTIFICATES OF INDEBTEDNESS.] The commission may issue certificates of indebtedness in anticipation of the collection and payment of a tax levied under this section in the same manner as a statutory city under section 412.261 and use their proceeds to accomplish its duties.

Sec. 54. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 473.811, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [JOINT ACTION.] Any local governmental unit or metropolitan ~~commission~~ agency may act together with any county, city, or town within or without the metropolitan area, or with the pollution control agency or the waste management board under the provisions of section 471.59 or any other appropriate law providing for joint or cooperative action between government units, to accomplish any purpose specified in sections 473.149, 473.151, and 473.801 to 473.823 and sections 473.827, 473.831, 473.833, 473.834, 116.05 and 115A.06.

Any agreement regarding data processing services relating to the generation, management, identification, labeling, classification, storage, collection, treatment, transportation, processing or disposal of waste and entered into pursuant to section 471.59, or other law authorizing joint or cooperative action may provide that any party to the agreement may agree to defend, indemnify and hold harmless any other party to the agreement providing the services, including its employees, officers or volunteers, against any judgments, expenses, reasonable attorney's fees and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred in connection with any third party claim or demand arising out of an alleged act or omission by a party to the agreement, its employees, officers or volunteers occurring in connection with any exchange, retention, storage or processing of data, information or records required by the agreement. Any liability incurred by a party to an agreement under this subdivision shall be subject to the limitations set forth in section 3.736 or 466.04.

Sec. 55. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 473.823, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [SOLID WASTE FACILITIES; REVIEW PROCEDURES.] The agency shall request applicants for solid waste facility permits to submit all information deemed relevant by the council to its review, including without limitation information relating to the geographic areas and population served, the need, the effect on existing facilities and services, the anticipated public cost and benefit, the anticipated rates and charges, the manner of financing, the effect on metropolitan plans and development programs, the supply of waste, anticipated markets for any product, and alternative means of disposal or energy production. No permit may be issued for the operation of a solid waste facility in the metropolitan area which is not in accordance with the metropolitan council's solid waste policy plan. The metropolitan council shall determine whether a permit is in accordance with the policy plan. In making its determination, the council shall consider the area-wide need and benefit of the applicant facility and may consider, without limitation, the effect of the applicant facility on existing and planned solid waste facilities described in a waste control commission ~~development program~~ implementation plan or county report or master plan. If the council determines that a permit is in accordance with its policy plan, the council shall approve the permit. If the council determines that a permit is not in accordance with its policy plan, it shall disapprove the permit. The council's approval of permits may be subject to conditions necessary to satisfy criteria and standards in its policy plan, including conditions respecting the type, character, and quantities of waste to be processed at a solid waste facility used primarily for resource recovery and the geographic territory from which a resource recovery facility or transfer station serving such a facility may draw its waste. For the purpose of this review and approval by the council, the agency shall send a copy of each permit application and any supporting information furnished by the applicant to the metropolitan council within 15 days after receipt of the application and all other information requested from the applicant. Within 60 days after the application and supporting information are received by the council, unless a time extension is authorized by the agency, the council shall issue to the agency in writing its determination whether the permit is disapproved, approved, or approved with conditions. If the council does not issue its determination to the agency within the 60 day period, unless a time extension is authorized by the agency, the permit shall be deemed to be in accordance with the council's policy plan. No permit shall be issued in the metropolitan area for a solid waste facility used primarily for resource recovery or a transfer station serving such a facility, if the facility or station is owned or operated by a public agency or if the acquisition or betterment of the facility or station is secured by public funds or obligations issued by a public agency, unless the council finds and determines that adequate markets exist for the products recovered and that establishment of the facility is consistent with the criteria and standards in the metropolitan and county plans respecting the protection of existing resource recovery facilities and transfer stations serving such facilities.

Sec. 56. Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 473.852, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. "Metropolitan system plans" means the airports ~~portion~~ and transportation portions of the metropolitan development guide, and the policy plans, ~~development programs~~ implementation plans, and capital budgets for metropolitan waste control, transportation, and regional recreation open space.

If the surviving spouse does not elect to receive a surviving spouse benefit provided pursuant to subdivision 1, if applicable, or does not elect to receive a refund of accumulated member contributions provided pursuant to sections 354.47, subdivision 1, or 354.62, subdivision 5, clause (3), whichever is applicable, the surviving spouse shall be entitled to receive, upon written application on a form prescribed by the executive director, a benefit equal to the second portion of a 100 percent joint and survivor annuity as provided pursuant to section 354.45 and computed pursuant to section 354.44, subdivisions 2, 6 or 7, whichever is applicable. The surviving spouse may apply for the annuity at any time after the date on which the deceased employee would have attained the required age for retirement based on the employee's allowable service. Sections 354.44, subdivisions 6 and 7, and 354.60 apply to a deferred annuity payable under this section. If the member was a participant in the variable annuity division, the applicable portion of the benefit shall be computed pursuant to section 354.62, subdivision 5, clause (1). The benefit shall be payable for life.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 354.55, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. Any person covered under section 354.44, subdivisions 6 and 7, who ceases to render teaching service may leave the person's accumulated deductions in the fund for the purpose of receiving a deferred annuity at retirement. Eligibility for an annuity under this subdivision shall be governed pursuant to section 354.44, subdivision 1, or 354.60.

The amount of the deferred retirement annuity shall be determined by section 354.44, subdivisions 6 and 7, and augmented as provided herein. The required reserves related to that portion of the annuity which had accrued at the time the member ceased to render teaching service shall be augmented by interest compounded annually from the first day of the month following the month during which the member ceased to render teaching service to the effective date of retirement. There shall be no augmentation if this period is less than three months or if this period commences prior to July 1, 1971. The rates of interest used for this purpose shall be five percent commencing July 1, 1971, until January 1, 1981, and three percent thereafter. If a person has more than one period of uninterrupted service, a separate average salary determined under section 354.44, subdivision 6, must be used for each period and the required reserves related to each period shall be augmented by interest pursuant to this subdivision. The sum of the augmented required reserves so determined shall be the basis for purchasing the deferred annuity. If a person does not render teaching service in any one or more consecutive fiscal years and then resumes teaching service, the formula percentages used from date of resumption will be those applicable to new members. The mortality table and interest assumption contained therein used to compute the annuity shall be determined by the law in effect at the time of the member's retirement. A period of uninterrupted service for the purposes of this subdivision shall mean a period of covered teaching service during which the member has not been separated from active service for more than one fiscal year.

The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to variable account accumulations as defined in section 354.05, subdivision 23.

In no case shall the annuity payable herein be less than the amount of annuity payable pursuant to section 354.44, subdivisions 6 and 7.

The requirements and provisions for retirement prior to age 65 contained in section 354.44, subdivision 6, clause (2) shall also apply to an employee fulfilling the requirements with a combination of service as provided in section 354.60.

The augmentation provided by this subdivision shall not apply to any period in which a person is on an approved leave of absence from an employer unit covered by the provisions of this chapter.

Eligible employees who elect coverage must file written notice of their election with the director prior to July 1, 1986.

Sec. 32. [CONTRIBUTIONS.]

An election to purchase service credit and all pay-

For an employee who elects to transfer service credit, the executive director of the fund shall transfer to the unclassified plan accumulated employee and equal employer contributions with interest at six percent a year compounded annually, based on fiscal year balances. The employee must complete the application for the transfer before July 1, 1987.

Subd. 2. The legislative body for which the employee is employed has the option to pay to the employee's account in the unclassified plan an amount equal to the difference between the employer contribution that would have been deposited in the employee's account had the employee been a member of the plan and the employer contribution that was contributed to the state employees retirement fund on behalf of the employee during the period the employee retained coverage in the state employees retirement fund. The legislative body must exercise its option before July 1, 1987.

MEDIATION

336.9-501 [DEFAULT; PROCEDURE WHEN SECURITY AGREEMENT COVERS BOTH REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY.]

(1) When a debtor is in default under a security agreement, a secured party has the rights and remedies provided in this part and except as limited by subsection (3) those provided in the security agreement. He may reduce his claim to judgment, foreclose, or otherwise enforce the security interest by any available judicial procedure. If the collateral is documents the secured party may proceed either as to the documents or as to the goods covered thereby. A secured party in possession has the rights, remedies, and duties provided in section 336.9-207. The rights and remedies referred to in this subsection are cumulative.

(2) After default, the debtor has the rights and remedies provided in this part, those provided in the security agreement, and those provided in section 336.9-207.

(3) To the extent that they give rights to the debtor and impose duties on the secured party, the rules stated in the subsections referred to below may not be waived or varied except as provided with respect to compulsory disposition of collateral (subsection (3) of section 336.9-504 and section 336.9-505) and with respect to redemption of collateral (section 336.9-506) but the parties may by agreement determine the standards by which the fulfillment of these rights and duties is to be measured if such standards are not manifestly unreasonable:

(a) Subsection (2) of section 336.9-502 and subsection (2) of section 336.9-504 insofar as they require accounting for surplus proceeds of collateral;

(b) Subsection (3) of section 336.9-504 and subsection (1) of section 336.9-505 which deal with disposition of collateral;

(c) Subsection (2) of section 336.9-505 which deals with acceptance of collateral as discharge of obligation;

(d) Section 336.9-506 which deals with redemption of collateral; and

(e) Subsection (1) of section 336.9-507 which deals with the secured party's liability for failure to comply with this part.

(4) If the security agreement covers both real and personal property, the secured party may proceed under this part as to the personal property or he may proceed as to both the real and the personal property in accordance with his rights and remedies in respect of the real property in which case the provisions of this part do not apply.

(5) When a secured party has reduced his claim to judgment the lien of any levy which may be made upon his collateral by virtue of any execution based upon the judgment shall relate back to the date of the perfection of the security interest in such collateral. A judicial sale, pursuant to such execution, is a foreclosure of the security interest by judicial procedure within the meaning of this section, and the secured party may purchase at the sale and thereafter hold the collateral free of any other requirements of this article.

Sec. 5. [583.20] [CITATION.]

Sec. 6. [583.21] [LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS.]

The legislature finds that the agricultural sector of the state's economy is under severe financial stress due to low farm commodity prices, continuing high interest rates, and reduced net farm income. The suffering agricultural economy adversely affects economic conditions for all other businesses in rural communities as well. Thousands of this state's farmers are unable to meet current payments of interest and principal payable on mortgages and other loan and land contracts and are threatened with the loss of their farmland, equipment, crops, and livestock through mortgage and lien foreclosures, cancellation of contracts for deed, and other collection actions. The agricultural economic emergency requires an orderly process with state assistance to adjust agricultural indebtedness to prevent civil unrest and to preserve the general welfare and fiscal integrity of the state.

Subd. 2. [APPOINTMENT.] The director must provide mediators by contracting with qualified persons experienced in farm finance, agricultural law, and negotiation.

Subd. 3. [ADMINISTRATION.] The director may appoint a farm mediation administrator. The administrator and director shall provide training for farm mediators and credit analysts and coordinate community legal education programs for farmers.

Sec. 9. [583.24] [APPLICABILITY.]

Subdivision 1. [CREDITORS.] (a) The farmer-lender mediation act applies to creditors who are:

(1) the United States or an agency of the United States;

(2) corporations, partnerships, and other business entities; and

(3) individuals.

(b) The farmer-lender mediation act does not apply to creditors of a debtor described under subdivision 2, paragraph (b).

Subd. 2. [DEBTORS.] (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) the farmer-lender mediation act applies to a debtor who is:

(1) a person operating a family farm as defined in section 500.24, subdivision 2;

(2) a family farm corporation as defined in section 500.24, subdivision 2;

(3) an authorized farm corporation as defined in section 500.24, subdivision 2; or

(4) an owner of an agriculturally related business.

(b) The farmer-lender mediation act does not apply to a debtor who owns and leases less than 60 acres with less than $20,000 in gross sales of agricultural products the preceding year, except for an owner of an agriculturally related business as defined by the director.

Sec. 10. [583.25] [VOLUNTARY MEDIATION PROCEEDINGS.]

A debtor that owns agricultural property or a creditor of the debtor may request mediation of the indebtedness by a farm mediator by applying to the director. The director shall make voluntary mediation application forms available at the county recorder's and county extension office in each county. The director must evaluate each request and may direct a mediator to meet with the debtor and creditor to assist in mediation.

Sec. 11. [583.26] [MANDATORY MEDIATION PROCEEDINGS.]

Subdivision 1. [MEDIATION NOTICE.] A creditor desiring to start a proceeding to enforce a debt against agricultural property under chapter 580 or 581 or sections 336.9-501 to 336.9-508, to terminate a contract for deed to purchase agricultural property under section 559.21, or to garnish, levy on, execute on, seize, or attach agricultural property, must serve an applicable mediation notice under sections 1, 2, 3, and 4 on the debtor and the director. The creditor may not begin the proceeding until the creditor and debtor have completed mediation or as allowed under sections 5 to 17.

Subd. 2. [MEDIATION REQUEST.] (a) A debtor must file a mediation request form with the director by 14 days after receiving a mediation notice. The mediation request form must state all known creditors. The director shall make mediation request forms available in the county recorder's and county extension office of each county.

(b) A debtor who fails to file a timely mediation request waives the right to mediation under the farmer-lender mediation act. The director shall notify a creditor stating that the creditor may proceed against the agricultural property because the debtor has failed to file a mediation request.

(c) If a debtor has not received a mediation notice and is subject to a proceeding of a creditor enforcing a debt against agricultural property under chapter 580 or 581 or sections 336.9-501 to 336.9-508, terminating a contract for deed to purchase agricultural property under section 559.21, or garnishing, levying on, executing on, seizing, or attaching agricultural property, the debtor may file a mediation request with the commission. The mediation request form must indicate that the debtor has not received a mediation notice.

Subd. 3. [CREDIT ANALYST AND FARM ADVOCATE.] (a) After receiving a mediation notice, the director shall provide a credit analyst knowledgeable in agricultural and financial matters to meet with the debtor and assure that information relative to the finances of the debtor is prepared for the initial mediation meeting.

(b) After receiving the mediation notice, the director shall notify the debtor that a farm advocate may be available without charge to assist the debtor and the credit analyst.

Subd. 4. [INITIAL MEDIATION MEETING.] (a) By ten days after receiving a mediation request, the director shall send: (1) a mediation meeting notice to the debtor; and (2) a mediation meeting notice and claim form to all known creditors of the debtor.

(b) The mediation meeting notice must include a time and place for an initial mediation meeting between the debtor, all known creditors of the debtor, and a list of three mediators. An initial mediation meeting must be held within 20 days of the notice.

(c) Each creditor and the debtor may request the director to exclude one mediator from the list by sending the director a notice to such effect within 3 days after receiving the mediation meeting notice. In the event that requests from the creditors to remove mediators from the list would result in the exclusion of all of the remaining mediators the director shall appoint the mediator not excluded by the creditor owed the largest debt. In the event that a debtor and creditor request the same mediator, the director shall appoint that mediator.

Subd. 5. [EFFECT OF MEDIATION MEETING NOTICE.] (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), if a creditor receives a mediation meeting notice under subdivision 4 the creditor and the creditor's successors in interest may not continue proceedings to enforce a debt against agricultural property of the debtor under chapter 580 or 581 or sections 336.9-501 to 336.9-508, to terminate a contract for deed to purchase agricultural property under section 559.21, or to garnish, levy on, execute on, seize, or attach agricultural property. Time periods under and affecting those procedures stop running until (1) 90 days after the conclusion of mediation, or (2) a mediation agreement is reached.

(b) If a creditor is an agency of the United States and receives a mediation meeting notice under subdivision 4, the creditor and the creditor's successors in interest may not continue proceedings to enforce a debt against agricultural property of the debtor under chapter 580 or 581 or sections 336.9-501 to 336.9-508, to terminate a contract for deed to purchase agricultural property under section 559.21, or to garnish, levy on, execute on, seize, or attach agricultural property. Time periods under and affecting those procedures stop running until (1) 180 days after the conclusion of mediation, or (2) a mediation agreement is reached.

Subd. 6. [DUTIES OF MEDIATOR.] At the initial mediation meeting and subsequent meetings, the mediator shall:

(1) listen to the debtor and the creditors desiring to be heard;

(2) attempt to mediate between the debtor and the creditors;

(3) advise the debtor and creditors of assistance programs available;

(4) attempt to arrive at an agreement to fairly adjust, refinance, or pay the debts; and

(5) advise, counsel, and assist the debtor and creditors in attempting to arrive at an agreement for the future conduct of financial relations among them.

Subd. 7. [MEDIATOR LIABILITY AND IMMUNITY.] (a) A mediator is immune from civil liability for actions within the scope of the position as mediator. A mediator does not have a duty to advise a creditor or debtor about the law or to encourage or assist a debtor or creditor in reserving or establishing legal rights. This subdivision is an addition to and not a limitation of immunity otherwise accorded to a mediator under law.

(b) A mediator cannot be examined about a communication or document, including worknotes, made or used in the course of or because of mediation under this section and section 12. This paragraph does not apply to the parties in the dispute in an application to a court by a party to have a mediated settlement agreement set aside or reformed. A communication or document otherwise not privileged does not become privileged because it is used in the cause of mediation. This paragraph is not intended to limit the privilege accorded to communication during mediation by the common law.

Subd. 8. [MEDIATION PERIOD.] The mediator may call mediation meetings during the mediation period, which is up to 60 days after the initial mediation meeting.

Subd. 9. [MEDIATION AGREEMENT.] (a) If an agreement is reached among the debtor and creditors the mediator shall draft a written mediation agreement, have it signed by the creditors, and, if applicable, submit the agreement to the Minnesota rural finance administration for approval of debt restructuring.

(b) The debtor and creditors who are parties to the approved mediation agreement and creditors who have filed claim forms and have not objected to the mediation agreement:

(1) are bound by the terms of the agreement;

(2) may enforce the mediation agreement as a legal contract; and

(3) may use the mediation agreement as a defense against an action contrary to the mediation agreement.

Sec. 12. [583.27] [GOOD FAITH REQUIRED; COURT SUPERVISED MEDIATION.]

Subdivision 1. [OBLIGATION OF GOOD FAITH.] The parties must engage in mediation in good faith. Not participating in good faith includes: (1) a failure on a regular or continuing basis to attend and participate in mediation sessions without cause; (2) failure to provide full information regarding the financial obligations of the parties and other creditors; (3) failure of the creditor to designate a representative to participate in the mediation with adequate authority to fully settle, compromise, or otherwise mediate the matter; (4) lack of a written statement of debt restructuring alternatives and a statement of reasons why alternatives are unacceptable to one of the parties; (5) failure of the creditor to release to the debtor neces- sary living and farm operating expenses; or (6) other similar behavior which evidences lack of good faith by the party. A failure to agree to reduce, restructure, refinance, or forgive debt does not, in itself, evidence lack of good faith by the creditor.

Subd. 2. [LACK OF GOOD FAITH AFFIDAVIT; MEDIATOR'S RESPONSIBILITY.] If the mediator determines that either party is not participating in good faith as defined in subdivision 1, the mediator shall file an affidavit indicating the reasons for the finding with the agricultural extension service and both parties.

Subd. 3. [CREDITOR'S LACK OF GOOD FAITH; COURT SUPERVISED MEDIATION.] If the mediator finds the creditor has not participated in mediation in good faith, the debtor may require court supervised mandatory mediation by filing the affidavit with the district court of the county where the property is located with a request for court supervision of mediation and filing a copy of the request with the creditor. Upon request the court shall require both parties to mediate under the supervision of the court in good faith for a period of not less than 60 days. All creditor remedies must be suspended during this period. The court may issue orders necessary to effect good faith mediation. Following the 60-day period, if the court finds the creditor has not participated in mediation in good faith, the court shall by order suspend the creditor's remedies for an additional period of 180 days. A creditor found by the mediator not to have participated in good faith shall pay attorneys' fees and costs of the debtor requesting court-supervision of mediation or additional suspension of creditor's remedies.

Subd. 4. [DEBTOR LACK OF GOOD FAITH.] A creditor may immediately proceed with creditor's remedies upon receipt of a mediator's affidavit of a debtor's lack of good faith notwithstanding any other requirements of sections 5 to 17.

Sec. 13. [583.28] [CREDITOR NOT ATTENDING MEDIATION MEETING.]

Subdivision 1. [FILING AND EFFECT OF CLAIM FORM.] A creditor that is notified of the initial mediation meeting is subject to and bound by a mediation agreement if the creditor does not attend mediation meetings unless the creditor files a claim form. In lieu of attending a mediation meeting, a creditor may file a notice of claim and proof of claim on a claim form with the mediator before the scheduled meeting. By filing a claim form the creditor agrees to be bound by a mediation agreement reached at the mediation meeting unless an objection is filed within the time specified. The mediator must notify the creditors who have filed claim forms of the terms of any agreement reached at the farm mediation board meeting.

Subd. 2. [OBJECTIONS TO AGREEMENTS.] A creditor who has filed a claim form may serve a written objection to the terms of the agreement on the mediator and the debtor by ten days after receiving notice of the agreement. If a creditor files an objection to the terms of an agreement, the mediator may meet again with debtors and creditors by ten days after receiving the objection to attempt to reach a new agreement. Notwithstanding the mediation period under section 11, subdivision 8, if an objection is filed, the mediator may call mediation meetings during the ten-day period following receipt of the objection.

Sec. 14. [583.29] [PRIVATE DATA.]

All data regarding the finances of individual debtors and creditors created, collected, and maintained by the mediators or the debt restructuring commission are classified as private data on individuals under section 13.02, subdivision 12, or nonpublic data under section 13.02, subdivision 9.

Sec. 15. [583.30] [FORMS AND COMPENSATION.]

Subdivision 1. [COMPENSATION.] The director shall set the compensation of mediators and credit analysts.

Subd. 2. [FORMS.] The director shall adopt voluntary mediation application, mediation request, and claim forms.

Sec. 16. [583.31] [ENFORCEMENT.]

The mediation agreement must be enforced by the district court.

Sec. 17. [583.32] [INCONSISTENT LAWS.]

The farmer-lender mediation act has precedence over any inconsistent or conflicting laws and statutes including chapters 336, 580, and 581, and section 559.21.

Sec. 18. [REPEALER.]

Sections 1 to 17 and Minnesota Statutes, section 336.9-501, subsections (6) and (7), are repealed on July 1, 1988.

Sec. 19. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

The article is effective the day following final enactment.

Section 1. [550.175] [EXECUTION ON REAL PROPERTY THAT INCLUDES HOMESTEAD.]

Subdivision 1. [NOTIFICATION OF HOMESTEAD DESIGNATION.] If real property is to be sold on execution and the property contains a portion of the homestead of the debtor, the debtor must be notified by the executing creditor that the homestead may be sold and redeemed separately from the remaining property. The notice in subdivision 2 must be included in the notice of execution served on the debtor under section 550.19.

Subd. 2. [HOMESTEAD DESIGNATION NOTICE.] The following notice must be included in the execution notice of real property containing a homestead that is served on a debtor under section 550.19. The notice must be in 10 point capitalized letters.

"PART OF THE PROPERTY TO BE SOLD CONTAINS YOUR HOUSE. YOU MAY DESIGNATE THE AREA OF A HOMESTEAD TO BE SOLD AND REDEEMED SEPARATELY.

YOU MAY DESIGNATE THE HOUSE YOU OCCUPY AND ANY AMOUNT OF THE PROPERTY AS A HOMESTEAD. THE DESIGNATED HOMESTEAD PROPERTY MUST CONFORM TO THE LOCAL ZONING ORDINANCES AND BE COMPACT SO THAT IT DOES NOT UNREA-SONABLY REDUCE THE VALUE OF THE REMAINING PROPERTY.

YOU MUST PROVIDE THE CREDITOR CAUSING THIS PROPERTY TO BE SOLD, THE SHERIFF, AND THE COUNTY RECORDER WITH A COPY OF THE LEGAL DESCRIPTION OF THE HOMESTEAD YOU HAVE DESIGNATED BY TEN BUSINESS DAYS BEFORE THE DATE THE PROPERTY IS TO BE SOLD.''

Subd. 3. [DESIGNATION OF HOMESTEAD PROPERTY.] The debtor must designate the legal description of the homestead property to be sold separately. The homestead property designated may include any amount of the property. The designation must conform to local zoning, include the dwelling occupied by the debtor, and be compact so that it does not unreasonably affect the value of the remaining property. The debtor must serve a copy of the designation on the executing creditor, the sheriff, and the county recorder by ten business days before the sale is scheduled.

Subd. 4. [SALE OF PROPERTY.] If the sheriff receives a homestead property designation under subdivision 3, the sheriff must offer and sell the designated homestead property, and the remaining property, separately.

Subd. 5. [REDEMPTION.] The debtor may redeem the designated homestead, the remaining property, or the entire property including the homestead. The period of redemption for the designated homestead or the remaining property is the same as the period of redemption for the entire property including the designated homestead.

(b) The homestead must comply with local zoning requirements.

Subd. 3. [PETITION.] *(a) After a foreclosure or execution sale of real property used in agricultural production that contains a homestead, the party entitled to redeem the property may petition to have the homestead redeemed separately. (1) a request that the homestead be appraised and redeemed separately;

(2) a description designating the dwelling occupied by the mortgagor, and up to 80 acres of the property that conforms to local zoning and is compact so that it does not unreasonably affect the value of the remaining property.

(b) The court shall appoint an appraiser to make the appraisal and have the determination returned to the court within 30 days after the petition is filed.

Subd. 4. [DETERMINATION OF REDEMPTION COST.] (a) The district court shall schedule and hold a hearing within 30 days after receiving the appraiser's determination. The court shall consider whether redeeming the homestead separately would unjustly affect the party who purchased the property at the foreclosure or execution sale. The court may equitably adjust the size of the homestead. If the petitioner is entitled to redeem the homestead separately, the court shall determine the cost of redeeming the designated homestead and the remaining property. The cost of redeeming the homestead must include:

IGNATED BY TEN BUSINESS DAYS BEFORE THE DATE THE PROPERTY IS TO BE SOLD."

(b) The following notice must be served with the summons and complaint in an action to foreclose a mortgage of property containing a homestead under chapter 581. The notice must be in 10 point capitalized letters.

The mortgagor must serve a copy of the designation on the foreclosing mortgagee, the sheriff, and the county recorder by ten business days before the sale is scheduled, or for a foreclosure by action under chapter 581, a copy of the designation must be provided to the court.*

Subd. 4. [SALE OF PROPERTY.] If the sheriff receives a homestead property designation under subdivision 3, or is ordered by the court, the sheriff must offer and sell the designated homestead property, and the remaining property, separately.

ASSET EXEMPTION

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1985 Supplement, section 256.73, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ALLOWANCE BARRED BY OWNERSHIP OF PROPERTY.] Ownership by an assistance unit of property as follows is a bar to any allowance under sections 256.72 to 256.87:

ARTICLE 6

MINNESOTA RURAL FINANCE ADMINISTRATION

Section 1. [41B.01] [CITATION; PURPOSE.]

Subdivision 1. [CITATION.] This article shall be known as and may be cited as the "Minnesota rural finance administration act of 1986."

Subd. 2. [PURPOSE.] This article creates and establishes the Minnesota rural finance administration and establishes a program under which state bonds are authorized to be issued and proceeds of their sale are appropriated under the authority of article XI, section 5, clause (h) of the Minnesota Constitution, to develop the state's agricultural resources by extending credit on real estate security. The purpose of the program and of the bonds issued to finance or provide security for the program is to purchase participation interests in loans to be made available by agricultural lenders to farmers in order to restructure existing debt and to make available additional credit to farmers who own or purchase agricultural properties on terms and conditions not otherwise available from other credit sources. It is hereby found and declared that there presently exist in the state economic conditions which have severely adversely affected the economic viability of farms to the detriment of the rural economy and to the detriment of the economy of the state of Minnesota as a whole. It is further found and declared that as a result of public agricultural policies, agricultural market conditions, and other causes, the condition of the farm economy of the state of Minnesota is such as to jeopardize the continued existence and successful operation of farms in this state, necessitating the establishment of the program in this article to provide new sources of credit on favorable terms and conditions. It is further found and declared that providing credit for farmers on favorable terms and conditions will serve and promote the public welfare by assuring the viability of farm operations, by preventing erosion of the tax base in rural areas, by reducing foreclosures on farm property, and by enhancing the financial stability of farmers and of the businesses which depend on farmers as customers. It is further found and declared that in establishing a Minnesota rural finance administration and in authorizing the programs in this article, the legislature is acting in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state of Minnesota to serve the public purpose of improving and otherwise promoting their health, welfare, and prosperity and that the Minnesota rural finance administration, as created and established, is empowered to act on behalf of the people of the state of Minnesota in serving this public purpose for the benefit of the general public.

Subd. 6. [ADMINISTRATIVE CONTROL.] The administration is under the administrative control of the commissioner of finance.

Subd. 7. [PERSONAL LIABILITY.] The members and officers of the administration are not liable personally, either jointly or severally, for any debt or obligation created or incurred by the administration.

Sec. 5. [LOAN RESTRUCTURING PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [RESTRUCTURING AUTHORITY.] The administration may enter into agreements or programs with eligible agricultural lenders for the restructuring of mortgage loans on real property located in Minnesota which is farmed by Minnesota residents, on such terms and conditions as the administration determines are not inconsistent with this article. This section governs the programs of the administration.

Subd. 2. [IMPLEMENTATION OF PROGRAM.] The administration may implement a program to restructure agricultural loans and to purchase loan participation interests in qualified restructuring loans made by eligible agricultural lenders to eligible borrowers. Each such purchase shall be made only upon determination by or on behalf of the administration that the loan is a qualified restructuring loan as provided in this section.

Subd. 3. [CRITERIA.] Loans must comply with the following criteria:

(a) Each loan must be for the purpose of developing the state's agricultural resources and must be an extension of credit on real estate security. The loan may be secured by eligible security in addition to real estate. The security interests granted by the eligible borrower must be senior and prior to any other security interest in the pledged assets.

(b) No loan may be made to finance activities of the borrower which are not an agricultural use as defined in section 40A.02, subdivision 3.

(c) A participation interest in a restructuring loan may be purchased by the administration only if the eligible agricultural lender has determined and has certified to the administration that the borrower is an eligible borrower who has the reasonable ability to make timely payment of principal and interest on the loan when due over the term of the loan. The eligible agricultural lender shall further certify to the administration that the loan is a qualified agricultural loan.

Subd. 4. [PROGRAM AVAILABILITY.] The administration shall exercise its best efforts to assure that credit made available through the loan restructuring program is made available throughout the agricultural areas of the state, and that the number or amount of loans are not unduly concentrated in any one area of the state.

Subd. 5. [BENEFITS.] The administration shall exercise its best efforts to assure that the program provides the maximum feasible benefits to as many eligible borrowers as is reasonably possible.

Subd. 6. [TYPES OF LENDERS.] Any bank, credit union, savings and loan association chartered by the state or federal government, unit of the farm credit system, the federal deposit insurance corporation, the federal savings and loan insurance corporation, and any insurance company, fund, or other financial institution doing business as an agricultural lender within the state is eligible for consideration as an eligible agricultural lender if the administration determines that the lender has sufficient personnel and other resources to efficiently and properly originate and service the qualified agricultural loans. Each such eligible agricultural lender shall enter into one or more agreements with the administration providing for the origination and servicing of qualified restructuring loans on the terms and conditions the administration determines to be appropriate.

Subd. 7. [RESTRUCTURING PROCEDURE.] The eligible agricultural lender or borrower shall propose restructuring a loan to the administration. Within 30 days of receiving adequate information concerning a proposal, the administration and the eligible lender shall notify the borrower of their determination of eligibility. An eligible agricultural lender shall then expeditiously conduct necessary appraisals and draft the loan restructuring agreement which must be consistent with this section and documents previously approved by the administration and eligible lenders. The loan restructuring agreement must be approved by the eligible lender, the administration, and the borrower.

An eligible borrower may participate in the restructured loan or the homestead redemption loan, but not both loans.

Subd. 8. [STATE'S PARTICIPATION.] With respect to loans that are eligible for restructuring under this article and upon acceptance by the administration, the administration shall enter into a participation agreement or other financial arrangement whereby it shall participate in a restructured loan to the extent of one quarter of the primary principal or $50,000, whichever is less, except that the administration may participate in restructured loans made for the redemption of homesteads to the extent of one-half of the primary principal or $25,000, whichever is less. The administration's portion of the loan must thereafter be protected by the first mortgage held by the eligible lender to the extent of its participation in the loan.

Subd. 9. [RESTRUCTURED LOAN AGREEMENT.] (a) All payments on the primary and secondary principal of the restructured loan, all payments of interest on the secondary principal, and an agreed portion of the interest payable to the eligible agricultural lender on the primary principal must be deferred to the end of the term of the loan.

(b) A borrower may prepay the restructured loan, with all primary and secondary principal and interest and deferred interest at any time without prepayment penalty.

(c) Interest on secondary principal must accrue at a below market interest rate.

(d) At the conclusion of the term of the restructured loan, the borrower owes primary principal, secondary principal, and deferred interest on primary and secondary principal. However, part of this balloon payment may be forgiven following an appraisal by the lender and the administration to determine the current market value of the real estate subject to the mortgage. If the current market value of the land after appraisal is less than the amount of debt owed by the borrower to the lender and administration on this obligation, that portion of the obligation that exceeds the current market value of the real property must be forgiven by the lender and the administration in the following order:

(1) deferred interest on secondary principal;

(2) secondary principal;

(3) deferred interest on primary principal;

(4) primary principal as provided in an agreement between the administration and the lender; and

(5) accrued but not deferred interest on primary principal.

The debt forgiveness may be combined with a renegotiated loan on the unforgiven balance due if the borrower is able to establish that there are reasonable prospects of repayment on a debt equal to the current market value of real estate at then existing interest rates. If so, the loan must be reamortized on terms and conditions acceptable to the lender, the administration, and the farmer.

Subd. 10. [INTEREST RATE.] The interest rate per annum on the portion of the restructuring loan represented by the participation interest purchased by the administration must be that rate of interest determined by the administration to be necessary to provide for the timely payment of principal and interest when due on bonds or other obligations issued by the administration, and to provide for the reasonable and necessary costs of issuing, carrying, administering, and securing the bonds or notes and to pay the costs incurred and to be incurred by the administration in the implementation of the program. The interest rate per annum borne by the primary principal portion of the restructuring loan retained by the eligible agricultural lender must be a rate of interest approved by the administration. The administration may specify the points, fees, and other charges which the eligible agricultural lender may charge to the eligible borrower.

Subd. 11. [ADMINISTRATION.] The eligible lender shall administer the loans and shall bear all costs of the loan administration. Ordinary costs of administration include appraisals, litigation, abstracts of title, and similar costs. The administration agrees to share in any other responsibilities common to a loan participation agreement.

Subd. 12. [ASSIGNABILITY.] Loans restructured under this section may not be assigned to anyone other than a direct descendant of the original borrower and the assignee must intend to engage in the direct operation and management of the farm which is subject to the mortgage. If such an assignment is contemplated, the borrower must obtain prior written approval of the eligible lender and the administration and the assignee shall thereafter be subject to the same terms and conditions and events of default as the original borrower. If assigned to some other party, the eligible agricultural lender may exercise its foreclosure remedies as provided by its contracts and by law.

Subd. 13. [DEFAULT.] In addition to default caused by nonpayment of the basic interest on the primary principal, it is intended that the documents establishing the restructured loans will include the following conditions, which, if violated, constitute default.

(a) The borrower must submit an annual operating budget to the eligible agricultural lender at a time specified by the lender.

(b) The borrower must submit quarterly, semiannual, and annual financial statements which must include balance sheets and income and expense records maintained pursuant to an acceptable farm record system as specified by the eligible agricultural lender.

(c) The borrower must comply with capital expenditure limitations imposed by the eligible agricultural lender.

(d) The borrower must obtain an annual commitment for an operating loan or assured sources of operating expenses sufficient to adequately operate the farm.

(e) The eligible agricultural lender may impose other reasonable requirements to reduce overall risk such as requiring purchase of crop insurance.

The lender may not waive any default specified in this subdivision without the consent of the administration.

Subd. 14. [GUARANTEED PAYMENT.] The administration may enter into agreements with qualified agricultural lenders, insurance companies, or others insuring or guaranteeing to the state the payment of all or a portion of qualified agricultural loans.

Subd. 15. [ADVANCE RESERVATIONS.] The administration may enter into agreements with eligible agricultural lenders providing for advance reservations of purchases of participation interests in restructuring loans, if the agreements provide that the administration may only purchase participation interests in restructuring loans pursuant to normal procedure. The administration may provide in an agreement for special procedures or requirements designed to meet specific conditions or requirements.

Subd. 16. [DATA PRIVACY.] Financial information, including but not limited to credit reports, financial statements, and net worth calculations, received or prepared by the administration regarding any administration loan or grant and the name of each individual who is the recipient of a loan are private data on individuals, pursuant to section 13.02, subdivision 12.

Bonds of the administration may be issued as bonds or notes or in any other form authorized by law.*
