Mr. Willet from the Committee on Environment and Natural Resources, to which was referred

S.F. No. 353: A bill for an act relating to Hennepin county; establishing a county-wide program for the conservation and protection of ground water resources of the county.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.875, is amended to read:

~~473.875 [SURFACE METROPOLITAN WATER MANAGEMENT PROGRAM PROGRAMS; PURPOSES.]~~

The purpose of the ~~surface~~ water management programs required by sections 473.875 to 473.883 is to protect, preserve and use natural surface and ground water storage and retention systems in order to (a) reduce to the greatest practical extent the public capital expenditures necessary to control excessive volumes and rates of runoff, (b) protect and improve surface and ground water quality, (c) prevent flooding and erosion from surface flows, (d) promote ground water recharge, (e) protect and enhance fish and wildlife habitat and water recreational facilities, and (f) secure the other benefits associated with the proper management of surface and ground water.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.876, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [GROUND WATER PLAN.] "Ground water plan" means a county plan adopted under section 9.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.876, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2b. [GROUND WATER SYSTEM.] "Ground water system" means one of the 14 principal aquifers of the state as defined by the United States Geological Survey in the Water-Resources Investigations 81-51, entitled "Designation of Principal Water Supply Aquifers in Minnesota" (August 1981), and its revisions.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.878, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [GENERAL STANDARDS.] The watershed management plan shall extend through the year 1990 or any year thereafter which is evenly divisible by five. The plan must be updated before the expiration of the period covered by the plan. The plan must be revised within one year following the adoption or amendment of the ground water plan. The plan shall contain the elements required by subdivision 4. Each element shall be set out in the degree of detail and prescription necessary to accomplish the purposes of sections 473.875 to 473.883, considering the character of existing and anticipated physical and hydrogeologic conditions, land use, and development and the severity of existing and anticipated water management problems in the watershed. The plan shall be prepared and submitted for review under subdivision 5 not later than December 31, 1986. Existing plans of a watershed management organization shall remain in force and effect until amended or superseded by plans adopted under sections 473.875 to 473.883. Existing or amended plans of a watershed management organization which meet the requirements of sections 473.875 to 473.883 may be submitted for review under subdivision 5.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.878, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [LOCAL REVIEW AND COMMENT.] Upon completion of the plan but before final adoption by the organization, the organization shall submit the plan for review and comment to all counties, soil and water conservation districts, towns, and statutory and home rule charter cities having territory within the watershed. Any local government unit which expects that substantial amendment of its local comprehensive plan will be necessary in order to bring local water management into conformance with the watershed plan shall describe as specifically as possible, within its comments, the amendments to the local plan which it expects will be necessary.

Subd. 5a. [COUNTY REVIEW; CAPITAL IMPROVEMENTS PLAN; GROUND WATER PLAN.] (a) Sixty days after the submission to local government units for comment, the organization shall submit the plan, any comments received, and any appropriate amendments to the plan, to the board of the county or counties having territory within the watershed.

(b) The county shall approve or disapprove projects in the capital improvement program which may require the provision of county funds pursuant to section 112.60, subdivision 2, or 473.883.

(c) If the county has a ground water plan, the county shall review the watershed plan for consistency with the county ground water plan. The county may disapprove the entire watershed plan or part of the plan if there is a substantial adverse effect on or substantial departure from the ground water plan. If the county disapproves all or part of the watershed plan, the watershed plan must be submitted for review under subdivision 6 and review and final decision under subdivision 7. The county may delegate its review under this paragraph to a soil and water conservation district.

(d) The county shall have 60 days to complete its review of the ~~capital improvement program~~. If the county fails to complete its review within the prescribed period, unless an extension is agreed to by the organization the plan and program shall be deemed approved.

(e) If the watershed extends into more than one county and one or more counties disapprove of all or part of a ~~capital improvement plan or program~~ while the other county or counties approve, the plan and program shall be submitted to the ~~water resources board~~ for review pursuant to under subdivision 6 and review and final decision under subdivision 7.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.878, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [REVIEW BY METROPOLITAN COUNCIL.] After completion of the review under subdivision 5, the plan and all comments received shall be submitted to the metropolitan council for review. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in sections 112.46 and 473.165, the council shall review the plan in the same manner and with the same authority and effect as provided for the council's review of the comprehensive plans of local government units under section 473.175. The council shall comment on the apparent conformity with metropolitan system plans of any anticipated amendments to local comprehensive plans. Differences among local governmental agencies regarding the plan must be mediated. The council may serve as mediator.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.878, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [REVIEW BY STATE AGENCIES.] (a) After completion of the review under subdivision 6, the plan and all comments received shall be submitted to the ~~commissioner~~ commissioners of natural resources and health and the director of the pollution control agency for review and comment on the consistency of the plan with state laws and rules relating to water and related land resources, and to the water resources board for review under section 112.46.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, the water resources board shall review the plan as provided in section 112.46. The board shall review the plan for conformance with the requirements of chapter 112 and sections 473.875 to 473.883. The board shall not prescribe a plan, but may disapprove all or parts of a plan which it determines is not in conformance with the requirements of chapter 112 and sections 473.875 to 473.883.

(c) If the plan or part of the plan is disapproved by a county under subdivision 5a, paragraph (c), the board shall make a final decision on the issue. If the plan or capital improvement program is the subject of a dispute between counties under subdivision 5a, paragraph (e), the water resources board shall make a final decision on the issue. The ~~decision shall be decisions of the board under this paragraph~~ are binding on the organization and the counties involved.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.878, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [AMENDMENTS.] To the extent and in the manner required by the adopted plan, all amendments to the adopted plan shall be submitted to the towns, cities, county, and other agencies for review in accordance with the provisions of subdivisions 5, 5a, 6, and 7. Amendments necessary to recognize a county ground water plan, as required by subdivision 3, must be submitted for review in accordance with subdivisions 5, 5a, 6, and 7.

Sec. 9. [473.8785] [GROUND WATER PLANS.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY.] A metropolitan county may prepare and adopt a ground water plan in accordance with this section.

Subd. 2. [RESPONSIBLE UNITS.] The county may prepare and adopt a ground water plan or, upon request of a soil and water conservation district, the county may delegate to the soil and water conservation district the preparation and adoption of all or part of a plan and other county responsibilities regarding the plan under this section and section 473.878.

Subd. 3. [LOCAL COORDINATION.] To assure the coordination of efforts of all units of government during the preparation and implementation of watershed and ground water plans, the county shall conduct meetings with local units of government and watershed management organizations, and may enter into agreements with local units of government and watershed management organizations establishing the responsibilities during the preparation and implementation of the water plans.

Subd. 4. [ADVISORY COMMITTEE.] To assist in the development of the ground water plan, the county shall seek the advice of the Minnesota geological survey, the departments of health and natural resources, the pollution control agency, and other appropriate local, state, and federal agencies, and shall name an advisory committee of 15 members. The committee must include representatives of various interests, including construction, agriculture, hydrogeology, and well drilling. At least four members of the committee must be from the public at large with no direct pecuniary interest in any project involving ground water protection and at least seven members must be from local units of government. The county shall consult the advisory committee on the development, content, and implementation of the plan, including particularly the relationship of the ground water plan and existing watershed and local water management plans and the allocation of governmental authority and responsibilities during implementation.

Subd. 5. [GENERAL STANDARDS.] The ground water plan must extend through the year 1995 or any year after that is evenly divisible by five. The plan must contain the elements required by subdivision 6. Each element must be set out in the degree of detail and prescription necessary to accomplish the purposes of sections 473.875 to 473.883, considering the character of existing and anticipated physical and hydrogeologic conditions, land use, and development and the severity of existing and anticipated water management problems in the watershed. To the fullest extent possible consistent with ground water protection, a county shall incor- porate into its ground water plan the relevant provisions of existing plans adopted by watershed management organizations having jurisdiction wholly or partly within the county.

Subd. 6. [CONTENTS.] A ground water plan must:

- (1) cover the entire area within the county;*
- (2) describe existing and expected changes to the physical environment, land use, and development in the county;*
- (3) summarize available information about the ground water and related resources in the county, including existing and potential distribution, availability, quality, and use;*
- (4) state the goals, objectives, scope, and priorities of ground water protection in the county;*
- (5) contain standards, criteria, and guidelines for the protection of ground water from pollution and for various types of land uses in environmentally sensitive areas, critical areas, or previously contaminated areas;*
- (6) describe relationships and possible conflicts between the ground water plan and the plans of other counties, local government units, and watershed management organizations in the affected ground water system;*
- (7) set forth standards and guidelines for implementation of the plan by watershed management organizations and local units of government; and*
- (8) include a procedure for amending the ground water plan.*

Subd. 7. [LOCAL REVIEW AND COMMENT.] Upon completion of the ground water plan but before final adoption by the county, the county shall submit the plan for review and comment to each soil and water conservation district, town, statutory and home rule charter city, and watershed management organization having territory within the county. The county also shall submit the plan to any other county or watershed management organization or district in the affected ground water system that could affect or be affected by implementation of the plan. A political subdivision or watershed management organization that expects that substantial amendments of its plans would be necessary in order to bring them into conformance with the county ground water plan shall describe as specifically as possible, within its comments, the amendments that it expects would be necessary. Reviewing entities have sixty days to review and comment.

Subd. 8. [REVIEW BY METROPOLITAN COUNCIL.] After completion of the review under subdivision 7, the plan and all comments received must be submitted to the metropolitan council for review. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in sections 112.46 and 473.165, the council shall review the plan in the same manner and with the same authority and effect as provided for the council's review of the comprehensive plans of local government units under section 473.175. The council shall comment on the apparent conformity with metropolitan system plans of any anticipated amendments to watershed plans and local comprehensive plans. Differences among local governmental agencies regarding the plan must be mediated. The council may serve as mediator.

Subd. 9. [REVIEW BY STATE AGENCIES.] After completion of the review under subdivision 8, the plan and all comments received must be submitted to the commissioners of natural resources and health and the director of the pollution control agency for review and comment on the consistency of the plan with state laws and rules relating to water and related land resources, and to the water resources board for review under section 112.46. Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, the water resources board shall review the plan as provided in section 112.46. The board shall review the plan for conformance with the requirements of chapter 112 and sections 473.875 to 473.883. The board may not prescribe a plan, but shall approve all or parts of a plan that it determines are in conformance with the requirements of chapter 112 and sections 473.875 to 473.883.

Subd. 10. [ADOPTION; IMPLEMENTATION.] The county shall adopt and begin to implement its ground water plan within 120 days after approval of the plan by the water resources board.

Subd. 11. [AMENDMENTS.] To the extent and in the manner required by the adopted plan, all amendments to the adopted plan must be submitted to the towns, cities, county, and other agencies for review in accordance with subdivisions 7 to 9."

"A bill for an act relating to metropolitan water management; authorizing metropolitan counties to adopt ground water plans; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 473.875; 473.876, by adding subdivisions; 473.878, subdivisions 3, 5, 6, 7, and 9; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 473."

And when so amended the bill do pass. Amendments adopted. Report adopted.

Mr. Willet from the Committee on Environment and Natural Resources, to which was referred

S.F. No. 536: A bill for an act relating to environment; establishing a petroleum tank release cleanup program; authorizing state action to prevent or correct health and environmental damage resulting from releases from petroleum storage tanks; establishing a petroleum tank release cleanup fund; establishing a petroleum tank release compensation board; authorizing reimbursement from the fund; requiring rulemaking; providing for administration by the pollution control agency and the department of commerce; requiring certification of tank installers; appropriating money; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 116.48, subdivision 4; and 296.13; proposing coding for new law as Minnesota Statutes, chapter 115C.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [115C.01] [CITATION.]

Sections 1 to 10 may be cited as the "petroleum tank release cleanup act."

Sec. 2. [115C.02] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICABILITY.] The definitions in this section apply to sections 2 to 10.

Subd. 2. [AGENCY.] "Agency" means the pollution control agency.

Subd. 3. [BOARD.] "Board" means the petroleum tank release compensation board established under section 7.

Subd. 4. [CORRECTIVE ACTION.] "Corrective action" means an action taken to minimize, eliminate, or cleanup a release to protect the public health and welfare or the environment.

Subd. 5. [DIRECTOR.] "Director" means the director of the pollution control agency.

Subd. 6. [FUND.] "Fund" means the petroleum tank release cleanup fund established under section 8.

Subd. 7. [OPERATOR.] "Operator" means a person in control of, or having responsibility for, the daily operation of a tank.

Subd. 8. [OWNER.] "Owner" means a person who holds title to, controls, or possesses an interest in a tank. The term "owner" does not include a person who holds an interest in a tank solely for financial security, unless through foreclosure or other related actions the holder of a security interest has taken possession of the tank.

Subd. 9. [PERSON.] "Person" means an individual, partnership, association, public or private corporation, or other legal entity, including the United States government, an interstate commission or other body, the state and any agency, board, bureau, office, department, or political subdivision of the state.

Subd. 10. [PETROLEUM.] "Petroleum" means:

(1) gasoline and fuel oil as defined in section 296.01, subdivisions 3 and 4;

(2) crude oil or a fraction of crude oil that is liquid at a temperature of 60 degrees Fahrenheit and pressure of 14.7 pounds per square inch absolute; and

(3) constituents of gasoline and fuel oil under clause (1) and crude oil under clause (2).

Subd. 11. [POLITICAL SUBDIVISION.] "Political subdivision" means a county, town, or a statutory or home rule charter city.

Subd. 12. [RELEASE.] "Release" means a spilling, leaking, emitting, discharging, escaping, leaching, or disposing of petroleum from a tank into the environment whether occurring before or after the effective date of sections 1 to 10, but does not include discharges or designed venting allowed under agency rules.

Subd. 13. [RESPONSIBLE PERSON.] "Responsible person" means a person who is an owner or operator of a tank at any time during or after the release.

Subd. 14. [TANK.] "Tank" means any one or a combination of containers, vessels, and enclosures, including structures and appurtenances connected to them, that is, or has been, used to contain or dispense petroleum.

"Tank" does not include:

(1) a mobile storage tank used for transporting petroleum from one location to another; or

(2) pipeline facilities, including gathering lines, regulated under the Natural Gas Pipeline Safety Act of 1968, United States Code, title 49, chapter 24, or the Hazardous Liquid Pipeline Safety Act of 1979, United States Code, title 49, chapter 29.

Sec. 3. [115C.03] [RESPONSE TO RELEASES.]

Subdivision 1. [CORRECTIVE ACTION ORDERS.] (a) If there is a release, the director may order a responsible person to take reasonable and necessary corrective actions. The director must notify the owner of real property where corrective action is ordered to be taken that responsible persons have been ordered to take corrective action and that the owner's cooperation will be required for responsible persons to take that action.

(b) If the director has ordered a responsible person to take a corrective action under paragraph (a), a political subdivision may not request or order the person to take an action that conflicts with the action ordered by the director.

Subd. 2. [AGENCY AND COMPELLED PERFORMANCE CORRECTIVE ACTIONS.] The agency may take corrective action or request the attorney general to bring an action to compel performance of a corrective action if:

(1) a responsible person cannot be identified;

(2) an identified responsible person cannot or will not comply with the order issued under subdivision 1; or

(3) an administrative or judicial proceeding on an order issued under subdivision 1 is pending.

Subd. 3. [EMERGENCY CORRECTIVE ACTION.] To assure an adequate response to a release, the director may take corrective action without following the procedures of subdivision 1 if the director determines that the release constitutes a clear and immediate danger requiring immediate action to prevent, minimize, or mitigate damage to the public health and welfare or the environment. Before taking an action under this subdivision, the director shall make all reasonable efforts, taking into consideration the urgency of the situation, to order a responsible person to take a corrective action and notify the owner of real property where the corrective action is to be taken.

Subd. 4. [RELEASE IS A PUBLIC NUISANCE.] A release is a public nuisance and may be enjoined in an action, in the name of the state, brought by the attorney general.

Subd. 5. [INVESTIGATIONS.] If the director has reason to believe that a release has occurred, the director may undertake reasonable investigations necessary to identify the existence, source, nature, and extent of a release, the responsible persons, and the extent of danger to the public health and welfare or the environment.

Subd. 6. [DUTY TO PROVIDE INFORMATION.] A person who the director has reason to believe is a responsible person, or the owner of real property where corrective action is ordered to be taken, or who might otherwise have information concerning a release, shall, when requested by the director or any member, employee, or agent of the agency who is authorized by the director, furnish to the director any information that person may have or may reasonably obtain that is relevant to the release.

Subd. 7. [ACCESS TO INFORMATION AND PROPERTY.] The director or any member, employee, or agent of the agency authorized by the director, may, upon presentation of official agency credentials, take any of the following actions:

- (1) examine and copy any books, papers, records, memoranda, or data of any person who has a duty to provide information to the director under subdivision 6; and
- (2) enter upon public or private property for the purpose of taking action authorized by this section, including obtaining information from a person who has a duty to provide the information under subdivision 6, conducting surveys and investigations, and taking corrective action.

Subd. 8. [CLASSIFICATION OF DATA.] Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, data obtained from a person under subdivision 6 or 7 is public data as defined in section 13.02. Upon certification by the subject of the data that the data relates to sales figures, processes or methods of production unique to that person, or information that would tend to adversely affect the competitive position of that person, the director shall classify the data as private or nonpublic data as defined in section 13.02. Data classified as private or nonpublic under this subdivision may be disclosed when relevant in a proceeding under sections 3 to 10.

Sec. 4. [115C.04] [LIABILITY FOR RESPONSE COSTS.]

Subdivision 1. [CORRECTIVE ACTION LIABILITY.] A responsible person is liable for the cost of the corrective action taken by the agency under section 3, subdivisions 2 and 3, including the cost of investigating the release and administrative and legal expenses, if:

- (1) the responsible person has failed to take a corrective action ordered by the director and the agency has taken the action;
- (2) the agency has taken corrective action in an emergency under section 3, subdivision 3; or
- (3) the agency has taken corrective action because a responsible person could not be identified.

Subd. 2. [AVOIDANCE OF LIABILITY.] (a) A responsible person may not avoid the liability by means of any conveyance of any right, title, or interest in real property; or by any indemnification, hold harmless agreement, or similar agreement.

(b) This subdivision does not:

- (1) prohibit a person who may be liable from entering an agreement by which the person is insured, held harmless, or indemnified for part or all of the liability;
- (2) prohibit the enforcement of an insurance, hold harmless, or indemnification agreement; or
- (3) bar a cause of action brought by a person who may be liable or by an insurer or guarantor, whether by right of subrogation or otherwise.

Subd. 3. [AGENCY COST RECOVERY.] Reasonable and necessary expenses incurred by the agency in taking a corrective action, including costs of investigating a release and administrative and legal expenses, may be recovered in a civil action in district court brought by the attorney general against a responsible person. The agency's certification of expenses is prima facie evidence that the expenses are reasonable and necessary. Expenses that are recovered under this section shall be deposited in the fund.

Sec. 5. [115C.05] [CIVIL PENALTY.]

The agency may enforce section 3 using the actions and remedies authorized under section 115.071, subdivision 3. The civil penalties recovered by the state shall be credited to the fund.

Sec. 6. [115C.06] [EFFECT ON OTHER LAW.]

Subdivision 1. [ACTIONS UNDER CHAPTER 115B.] Sections 3 to 10 do not limit any actions initiated by the agency under chapter 115B.

Subd. 2. [DUTY TO NOTIFY AND TAKE ACTION FOR RELEASE.] Sections 3 to 10 do not limit a person's duty to notify the agency and take action related to a release as provided under section 115.061.

Sec. 7. [115C.07] [PETROLEUM TANK RELEASE COMPENSATION BOARD.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The petroleum tank release compensation board is established. The members of the board shall consist of the director of the pollution control agency, the commissioner of the department of commerce, two representatives from the petroleum industry, and one representative from the insurance industry. The governor shall appoint the members from the insurance and petroleum industry. The filling of positions reserved for industry representatives, vacancies, membership terms, payment of compensation and expenses, and removal of members is governed by section 15.0575. The governor shall designate the chair of the board.

Subd. 2. [STAFF] The commissioner of commerce shall provide staff to support the activities of the board.

Subd. 3. [RULES.] (a) The board shall adopt rules regarding its practices and procedures, the form and procedure for applications for compensation from the fund, procedures for investigation of claims and specifying the costs that are eligible for reimbursement from the fund.

(b) The board may adopt emergency rules under this subdivision for one year after the effective date of this section.

Sec. 8. [115C.08] [PETROLEUM TANK RELEASE CLEANUP FUND.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The petroleum tank release cleanup fund is established as an account in the state treasury.

Subd. 2. [REVENUE SOURCES.] Revenue from the following sources shall be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the fund:

(1) the proceeds of the fee imposed by subdivision 4;

(2) money recovered by the state under sections 4, 5, and 15, including administrative expenses, civil penalties, and money paid under an agreement, stipulation, or settlement;

(3) interest attributable to investment of money in the fund;

(4) money received by the board and agency in the form of gifts, grants other than federal grants, reimbursements, or appropriations from any source intended to be used for the purposes of the fund; and

(5) fees charged for the operation of the tank installer certification program established under section 15.

Subd. 3. [IMPOSITION OF FEE.] The board shall continuously monitor the amount of money in the fund and shall notify the commissioner of revenue if the unexpended balance of the fund at any time falls below $1,000,000. If the balance in the fund falls below $1,000,000, the commissioner of revenue shall impose the fee established in subdivision 4 for a period of one month, within 60 days of receiving notice from the board.

Subd. 4. [PETROLEUM TANK RELEASE CLEANUP FEE.] A petroleum tank release cleanup fee is imposed on petroleum products subject to the inspection fee charged in section 296.13. The fee shall be collected in the manner provided in sections 296.13 and 296.14. The fee shall be imposed as required under subdivision 3, at a rate of $10 per 1,000 gallons of petroleum products as defined in section 296.01, subdivision 2, rounded to the nearest 1,000 gallons. A distributor who fails to pay the fee imposed under this section is subject to the penalties provided in section 296.15.

Subd. 5. [EXPENDITURES.] Money in the fund may only be spent:

(1) to administer the petroleum tank release cleanup program established in sections 3 to 10;

(2) for agency administrative costs under sections 116.46 to 116.50, sections 3 to 6, and section 15 and costs of corrective action taken by the agency under section 3, including investigations;

(3) for costs of recovering expenses of corrective actions under section 4; and

(4) for training, certification, and rulemaking under sections 116.46 to 116.50 and section 15.

Sec. 9. [115C.09] [CORRECTIVE ACTION REIMBURSEMENT TO RESPONSIBLE PERSONS.]

Subdivision 1. [REIMBURSABLE CORRECTIVE ACTIONS.] The board shall provide partial reimbursement for the cost of corrective action to eligible responsible persons for releases reported after the effective date of sections 1 to 10.

Subd. 2. [RESPONSIBLE PERSON ELIGIBILITY.] (a) A responsible person who has taken corrective action in response to a release reported after the effective date of sections 1 to 10 may apply to the board for partial reimbursement under subdivision 3 and rules adopted by the board.

(b) A reimbursement may not be made unless the board determines that:

(1) the director has determined that the corrective action has adequately addressed the release and that the release no longer poses a threat to public health and welfare or the environment;

(2) at the time of the release the tank was in compliance with state and federal rules and regulations applicable to the tank, including rules or regulations relating to financial responsibility;

(3) the agency was given notice of the release as required by section 115.061;

(4) the responsible person, to the extent possible, fully cooperated with the agency in responding to the release; and

(5) if the responsible person is an operator, the person exercised due care with regard to operation of the tank, including maintaining inventory control procedures.

Subd. 3. [REIMBURSEMENT.] (a) The board shall reimburse a responsible person who is eligible under subdivision 2 from the fund for 75 percent of the portion of the total corrective action costs greater than $10,000 and less than $100,000.

(b) A reimbursement may not be made from the fund under this subdivision until the board has determined that the costs for which reimbursement is requested were actually incurred and were reasonable.

(c) Money in the fund is continuously appropriated to the board to make reimbursements under this section.

Subd. 4. [REIMBURSEMENT DOES NOT AFFECT OTHER LIABILITY.] The right to apply for reimbursement and the receipt of reimbursement does not limit the liability of a responsible person for damages or costs incurred by a person or the state as a result of a release.

Sec. 10. [115C.10] [FUNDING OF AGENCY ACTIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [PAYMENT FROM THE FUND.] (a) If the cost of authorized actions under section 3 exceeds the amount appropriated to the agency for the actions and amounts awarded to the agency from the federal government, the agency may apply to the board for money to pay for the actions from the fund. The board shall pay the agency the cost of the proposed actions under section 3 if the board finds that the conditions for the agency to be paid from the fund have been met, and that an adequate amount exists in the fund to pay for the corrective action.

(b) Money in the fund is continuously appropriated to the board for the purpose of this subdivision.

Subd. 2. [FEDERAL FUNDS.] The director shall take actions needed to obtain federal funding to carry out the provisions of the petroleum tank release cleanup act.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116.46, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [INSTALLER.] "Installer" means a person who places, constructs, or repairs an aboveground or underground tank, or permanently takes an aboveground or underground tank out of service.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116.46, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [ABOVEGROUND STORAGE TANK.] "Aboveground storage tank" means any one or a combination of containers, vessels, and enclosures, including structures and appurtenances connected to them, that is used to contain or dispense regulated substances, and that is not an underground storage tank.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116.47, is amended to read:

116.47 [EXEMPTIONS.]

Sections 116.48 and, 116.49, and section 15 do not apply to:

(1) farm or residential tanks of 1,100 gallons or less capacity used for storing motor fuel for noncommercial purposes; tanks of 1,100 gallons or less capacity used for storing heating oil for consumptive use on the premises where stored;

(2) pipeline facilities, including gathering lines, regulated under the Natural Gas Pipeline Safety Act of 1968, United States Code, title 49, chapter 24, or the Hazardous Liquid Pipeline Safety Act of 1979, United States Code, title 49, chapter 29;

(3) surface impoundments, pits, ponds, or lagoons;

(4) storm water or waste water collection systems;

(5) flow-through process tanks;

(6) tanks located in an underground area, including basements, cellars, mineworkings, drifts, shafts, or tunnels, if the storage tank is located upon or above the surface of the floor; or

(7) septic tanks.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116.48, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [DEPOSIT INFORMATION.] Beginning ~~January 1, 1986,~~ on the effective date of this section and until July 1, 1987, a person who ~~deposits~~ transfers the title to regulated substances ~~in~~ to be placed directly into an underground storage tank must inform the owner or operator in writing of the notification requirement of this section.

Sec. 15. [116.501] [TANK INSTALLERS TRAINING AND CERTIFICATION.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENT.] (a) After the effective date of rules adopted under subdivision 3, a person may not install, repair, or take an aboveground or underground tank permanently out of service without first obtaining a certification of competence issued by the agency.

(b) The agency shall conduct examinations to test the competence of applicants for certification, issue documentation of certification, and require certification to be renewed at reasonable intervals. The agency may conduct training programs for installers.

Subd. 2. [FEES.] The agency may charge fees as are necessary to cover the actual costs of processing applications, conducting examinations, issuing and renewing certificates, and providing training programs. The fees received under this section shall be credited to the petroleum tank release cleanup fund.

Subd. 3. [RULES.] The agency shall adopt rules containing standards of competence for installers and to implement this section.

Sec. 16. [INITIAL FUNDING FOR PETROLEUM TANK RELEASE CLEANUP FUND.]

To provide the initial funding for the petroleum tank release cleanup fund, the commissioner of revenue shall impose the fee established in section 8, subdivision 4, in the months of September and October 1987 for collection during the months of October and November 1987.

Sec. 17. [APPROPRIATION.]

Subdivision 1. [PETROLEUM TANK RELEASE CLEANUP FUND.] (a) $_____ is appropriated from the general fund to the petroleum tank release cleanup fund.

(b) The appropriation in paragraph (a) shall be reimbursed to the general fund from the petroleum tank release cleanup fund by June 30, 1988.

Subd. 2. [POLLUTION CONTROL AGENCY.] (a) The following amounts are appropriated from the petroleum tank release cleanup fund for the fiscal years indicated:

	1988	1989
Pollution Control Agency Administration	$ _____	$ _____
Corrective/Investigative Action Costs	$ _____	$ _____

(b) Expenses incurred by the agency under section 3 shall be paid by the agency from the appropriation under this subdivision. Before using this appropriation, the agency shall use any federal money available to pay for corrective actions, except that the fund may be used to pay any state match required by federal law. The director shall report to the petroleum tank release compensation board describing the corrective or investigative action being taken, the reason that the appropriation is being used to pay for that action, and an estimate of the cost of that action.

(c) The approved complement of the agency is increased by _____ positions in fiscal year 1988 and by _____ additional position in fiscal year 1989.

Subd. 3. [DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE.] The following amounts are appropriated from the petroleum tank release cleanup fund for the fiscal years indicated:

	1988	1989
Department of Commerce Administration	$ _____	$ _____

The approved complement of the department of commerce is increased by _____ position.

Subd. 4. [PETROLEUM TANK RELEASE COMPENSATION BOARD.] The following amounts are appropriated from the petroleum tank release cleanup fund for the fiscal years indicated:

	1988	1989
Petroleum Tank Release Compensation Board Administration	$ _____	$ _____

Sec. 18. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 15 are effective the day following final enactment. Sections 16 and 17 are effective July 1, 1987."

Delete the title and insert:

S.F. No. 550: A bill for an act relating to elections; requiring election judges to inform voters of certain laws; providing for selection of a party in certain primary elections; requiring parties to have different colored ballot book pages; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 204C.13, subdivision 2; 206.80; and 206.84, subdivision 3.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

"Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 204C.22, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [VOTES FOR TOO MANY CANDIDATES.] If a voter places a mark (X) beside the names of more candidates for an office than are to be elected or nominated, the ballot is defective with respect only to that office. No vote shall be counted for any candidate for that office, but the rest of the ballot shall be counted if possible. At a primary, if a voter has not indicated a party preference and places a mark (X) beside the names of candidates of more than one party on the partisan ballot, the ballot is totally defective and no votes on it shall be counted. If a voter has indicated a party preference at a primary, only votes cast for candidates of that party shall be counted.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 204D.08, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [STATE PARTISAN PRIMARY BALLOT; PARTY COLUMNS.] The state partisan primary ballot shall be headed by the words "State Partisan Primary Ballot." The ballot shall be printed on white paper. The ballot must be designed to include a form of party indicator by which the voter may choose the party in whose primary the voter intends to vote. Each major political party shall have a separate column on the ballot, which column shall be headed by the words "_____ Party," giving the party name. Below the party name the following statement shall be printed.

"Do not vote for candidates of more than one party. If you do, your entire ballot will be defective and no vote marked on your ballot will be counted."

The names of the candidates seeking the nomination of each major political party shall be listed in that party's column. If only one individual files an affidavit of candidacy seeking the nomination of a major political party for an office, the name of that individual shall be placed on the state partisan primary ballot at the appropriate location in that party's column.

In each column, the candidates for senator in congress shall be listed first, candidates for representative in congress second, candidates for state senator third, candidates for state representative fourth and then candidates for state office in the order specified by the secretary of state.

The party columns shall be substantially the same in width, type and appearance. The columns shall be separated by a 12 point solid line."

S.F. No. 501: A bill for an act relating to school districts; permitting school district employees to participate in the state insurance plan; appropriating money; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 43A.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [43A.315] [EMPLOYEES OF SCHOOL DISTRICTS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] In this section, the definitions in this subdivision apply.

(a) [EMPLOYEE.] “Employee” means (1) a person who is a public employee within the definition of section 179A.03, subdivision 14, and is employed by an eligible employer; or (2) a person employed by another public educational employer approved by the commissioner of employee relations.

(b) [ELIGIBLE EMPLOYER.] “Eligible employer” means one of the following: a school district as defined in section 120.02; an educational cooperative service unit as defined in section 123.58; an intermediate district as defined in section 136C.02, subdivision 7; a cooperative center for vocational education as defined in section 123.351; a regional management information center as defined in section 121.935; or an education unit organized under the joint powers act, section 471.59.

Subd. 2. [SCHOOL EMPLOYEE PARTICIPATION.] Participation in the basic benefits plan offered according to subdivision 3 is subject to the conditions in this subdivision.

(a) Each exclusive representative for an eligible employer determines whether the employees it represents will participate. The exclusive representative shall give notice to the employer of its determination to participate in the hospital, medical, life, and dental package before the execution of a new collective bargaining agreement or by April 1 of an odd-numbered year, whichever occurs first. The employer and the exclusive representative may by mutual consent make a determination at a later date to participate during the annual enrollment period. By April 1 of an odd-numbered year, the employer determines whether to participate in the hospital, medical, life, and dental package for employees not represented by an exclusive representative.

(b) The decision to participate is for a three-year term if coverage begins in an even-numbered year and a four-year term if coverage begins in an odd-numbered year. Participation is automatically renewed for an additional four-year term unless the exclusive representative gives the employer notice of withdrawal.

(c) The exclusive representative shall give notice of intent to withdraw before execution of a new collective bargaining agreement to cover the date on which the term of participation expires, or April 1 of the year in which the term of participation expires, whichever is first. If there is no exclusive representative, the employer shall notify the commissioner by

April 1 of the year in which participation expires. A group that withdraws shall wait two years before rejoining.

(d) Each participating employer shall notify the commissioner of the individuals who will be participating within two weeks of receiving notice of intent to participate. The employer shall also submit other information as required by the commissioner for administration of this plan.

Subd. 3. [BENEFITS.] By January 1, 1989, the commissioner of employee relations shall offer a basic benefits plan as provided to employees covered by section 43A.18, subdivision 2, or as modified by the commissioner, in consultation with a labor-management committee appointed by the commissioner. The plan shall include employee hospital, medical, dental, and life insurance for employees and hospital and medical benefits for dependents. Health maintenance organization options and other delivery system options, if they are available, cost effective, and capable of servicing a group of this size, shall be provided. Plans with different deductible amounts may be offered. Participation in optional coverages provided by the plan may be determined by collective bargaining agreements. For employees not represented by an exclusive representative, the employer may offer the optional coverages to eligible employees and their dependents provided in the plan.

Subd. 4. [PREMIUMS.] Premiums, including an administration fee, shall be established by the commissioner of employee relations. Each eligible employer shall pay monthly the amounts due for employee benefits including the amounts under subdivision 5 to the commissioner on or before the dates established by the commissioner. Failure to pay may result in cancellation of the benefits. The proportions of premium paid by the employer and employee are subject to collective bargaining.

Subd. 5. [FRINGE BENEFIT FUND.] A school employee fringe benefit fund is established in the state treasury. The deposits consist of the premiums received from employers participating in the plan. All money in the fund is appropriated to the commissioner to pay insurance premiums, approved claims, refunds, administrative costs, and other related service costs. The commissioner shall reserve an amount of money to cover the estimated cost of claims incurred but unpaid. The state board of investment shall invest the money according to section 11A.24. Investment income and losses attributable to the fund shall be credited or debited to the fund, as applicable.

Subd. 6. [CONTINUATION OF COVERAGE.] (a) A participating employee who is laid off or placed on unrequested leave may elect to continue the fringe benefit coverage at the expense of the employee unless otherwise provided by a collective bargaining agreement. Coverage continues until the employee is reemployed and eligible for health care coverage under a group policy or according to applicable state and federal laws, whichever is less.

(b) A participating employee who retires and receives an annuity under chapter 352, 353, 354, or 354A is eligible to continue to participate at the retiree's expense, unless otherwise provided by a collective bargaining agreement, in the group hospital, medical, and dental coverage at premiums established by the commissioner. An employer shall notify an employee of this option no later than the effective date of retirement. The retired employee must notify the employer within 30 days after the effective date of retirement of intent to exercise this option.

A spouse of a deceased retired employee may purchase the benefits provided at premiums established by the commissioner if the employee received an annuity under chapter 352, 353, 354, or 354A and if the spouse was a dependent under the retired employee's coverage under this section at the time of the death of the retired employee. Coverage under this paragraph must be coordinated with relevant insurance benefits provided through the federally sponsored Medicare program.

An employee who retired before August 1, 1987, and had participated in a retirement plan established according to chapter 352, 353, 354, or 354A, or is receiving an annuity under chapter 352, 353, 354, or 354A, is eligible to participate, at the retiree's expense, in the group hospital, medical, and dental coverage at premiums established by the commissioner.

(c) The benefits may continue in the event of a strike permitted by section 179A.18, if the exclusive representative chooses to have coverage continue and the employee pays the total monthly premiums when due.

(d) A person who desires to participate under paragraphs (a) to (c) shall notify the employer or former employer of intent to participate according to timelines established by the commissioner. The employer shall notify the commissioner, and coverage shall begin as soon as permitted by the commissioner. Persons participating under these paragraphs shall make required premium payments in the time and manner established by the employer or the commissioner.

Subd. 7. [LABOR MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE.] A labor management committee of equal numbers of employees and employers or their representatives shall be appointed by the commissioner of employee relations. The committee shall study issues relating to the insurance plan including, but not limited to, flexible benefits, utilization review, quality assessment, and cost efficiency.

“WHEREAS, Father Louis Hennepin first sighted the Falls of St. Anthony in 1680 on his exploration of the territory that would later become known as the State of Minnesota; and

WHEREAS, the Falls of St. Anthony acted as the cornerstone of a community of pioneer settlers that later became known as the City of Minneapolis; and

WHEREAS, the Falls of St. Anthony were a vital part in the economic development of the City of Minneapolis and the State of Minnesota; and

WHEREAS, the Falls of St. Anthony were incorporated into the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota from the earliest beginnings of statehood; and

WHEREAS, the Falls of St. Anthony continue to be a part of the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to depict the Falls of St. Anthony's importance in transportation and industry and are on the State's list of privately owned historic sights; and

WHEREAS, there has always been a history of multiple use of the Falls of St. Anthony including lumber milling, grain milling, hydropower production, recreational, scenic, and river transportation; and

WHEREAS, the federal government, the state of Minnesota, the Metropolitan Council, and the City of Minneapolis have made a major investment of public funds to reclaim the Mississippi Riverfront area surrounding the Falls of St. Anthony for recreational, scenic and economic development purposes; and

WHEREAS, the potential private investment in area around the Falls of St. Anthony is expected to exceed $800,000,000 and the aesthetic value of the Falls of St. Anthony is integral to that development; and

WHEREAS, the redevelopment of the riverfront area will open the area to people who have been underserved by such amenities in the past; and

WHEREAS, the Corp of Engineers and Northern States Power Company have both investigated in recent years the possibility of installing additional hydropower facilities; and

WHEREAS, Northern States Power Company has demonstrated sensitivity to community concerns about the impact of such additional hydropower development by withdrawing its recent license application to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission; and

WHEREAS, additional power generating turbines could capture virtually all of the constant flow of the Mississippi River at the Falls of St. Anthony, for power generating purposes only; and

WHEREAS, additional power generating turbines would permanently alter the character of the Falls of St. Anthony and take permanently the historic, aesthetic, and recreational qualities of the Falls of St. Anthony out of the public domain; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota that it urges the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission to deny any application for additional hydropower generation at the Falls of St. Anthony in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Secretary of State of the State of Minnesota is directed to prepare certified copies of this resolution and present them to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission and to Minnesota's Senators and Representatives in Congress."

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 40.41, is amended to read:
40.41 [PURPOSE AND POLICY.]

It is the purposes of sections 40.41 to 40.45 to keep certain marginal agricultural land out of crop production ~~or pasture~~ to protect soil and water quality and support fish and wildlife habitat. It is state policy to encourage the retirement of marginal, highly erodible land, particularly land adjacent to public waters and drainage systems, from crop production and to reestablish a cover of perennial vegetation.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 40.42, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [LANDOWNER.] “Landowner” means a ~~Minnesota resident who owns or is a buyer under a contract for deed, of land that qualifies as a family farm, a family farm corporation or an authorized farm corporation under section 500.24, subdivision 2 individuals, family farms, family farm corporations as defined under section 500.24, subdivision 2, paragraph (c), and authorized farm corporations as defined under section 500.24, subdivision 2, paragraph (d), that either own eligible land or are purchasing eligible land under a contract for deed.~~

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 40.42, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [WETLAND.] "Wetland" means land that has a predominance of hydric soils and that is inundated or saturated by surface or groundwater at a frequency and duration sufficient to support, or that periodically does support, a predominance of hydrophytic vegetation typically adapted for life in saturated soil conditions.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 40.43, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ELIGIBLE LAND.] (a) Land ~~may~~ owned by a landowner under paragraph (c) is eligible to be placed in the conservation reserve program if the land meets the requirements of paragraph (b) and:

(1) is marginal agricultural land; ~~or~~

(2) is adjacent to enrolled marginal agricultural land and is beneficial to resource protection or necessary for efficient recording of the land description; or

(2) was owned by the applicant on January 1, 1985, or for an application made on or after January 1, 1988, was owned by the applicant for at least three years before the date of application;

(3) is a drained wetland and the cropland adjacent to the drained wetland after it is restored to the extent of up to four acres of cropland for each acre of wetland restored.

(3) is (b) The land must be:

(1) at least five acres in size, or is a whole field as defined by the United States Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service;

(4) is (2) may not be set aside, enrolled or diverted under another federal or state government program; and

(5) was (3) must have been in agricultural crop production ~~or~~ pasture for at least two years during the period 1981 to 1985.

The eligible land of a landowner may not exceed 20 percent of the landowner's total acreage in the state.

(c) A landowner may enroll land that is eligible under paragraphs (a) and (b) and this paragraph based on the following amounts of agricultural land as defined in section 500.24, subdivision 2:

(1) if the landowner owns 20 acres or less of agricultural land, the entire amount of eligible land may be enrolled in the conservation reserve program;

(2) if the landowner owns more than 20 acres but less than 200 acres of agricultural land, 20 acres plus ten percent of the portion of agricultural land owned that is more than 20 acres but less than 200 acres that is eligible land may be enrolled in the conservation reserve program; and

(3) if the landowner owns 200 acres or more of agricultural land, 20 percent of the landowner's agricultural land that is eligible land may be enrolled in the conservation reserve program.

(d) In selecting land for enrollment in the conservation reserve program, highest priority must be given to permanent easements that are consistent with the purposes stated in section 40.41.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 40.43, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [AGREEMENTS BY LANDOWNER.] The commissioner may enroll eligible land in the conservation reserve program by signing an agreement in recordable form with a landowner in which the landowner agrees:

(1) to convey to the state a conservation easement that is not subject to any prior title, lien, or encumbrance;

(2) to seed the land subject to the conservation easement, as specified in the agreement, to establish and maintain perennial cover of either a grass-legume mixture or native grasses for the term of the easement, at seeding rates determined by the commissioner; or to plant trees or carry out other long-term capital improvements approved by the commissioner for soil and water conservation or wildlife management;

(3) to restore any drained wetland and to convey to the state a permanent easement for the wetland;

(4) to establish a windbreak, shelterbelt, or wildlife vegetation plantings on land to be enrolled with that condition;

(5) that other land supporting natural vegetation owned or leased as part of the same farm operation during the term of the easement, if it supports natural vegetation or has not been used in agricultural crop production or pasture, will not be converted to agricultural crop production or pasture; and

(4) (6) to the enforcement of the terms of the easement and agreements in this subdivision by an action for specific performance, a mandatory injunction, or for damages in an amount not to exceed the total amount paid by the state to the landowner under subdivision 6, with interest from the date of each default under the agreement.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 40.43, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PAYMENTS FOR CONSERVATION EASEMENTS AND ESTABLISHMENT OF COVER.] (a) The commissioner must make the following payments to the landowner for the conservation easement and agreement:

(1) to establish the perennial cover or other improvements required by the agreement, up to 75 percent of the total eligible cost not to exceed $75 per acre for limited duration easements, and 100 per cent of the total eligible cost not to exceed $100 per acre for permanent easements;

(2) for the cost of planting trees required by the agreement, up to $75 75 percent of the total eligible cost not to exceed $200 per acre for limited duration easements, and 100 per cent of the total eligible cost not to exceed $300 per acre for permanent easements;

(3) to establish windbreaks, shelterbelts, and wildlife vegetation plantings required by the agreement, up to 75 percent of the total eligible cost not to exceed $200 per acre for limited duration easements, and 100 percent of the total eligible cost not to exceed $300 per acre for permanent easements;

(3) (4) for a permanent easement, 70 percent of the township average equalized estimated market value of agricultural property as established by the commissioner of revenue at the time the easement is conveyed of application to the conservation reserve program; and

(4) (5) for an easement of limited duration, 90 percent of the present value of the average of the ~~acceptable~~ accepted bids for the federal conservation reserve program, as contained in ~~Public Law Number 99-198 United States Code, title 7, sections 3831 to 3836,~~ in the relevant geographic area and on bids ~~made immediately prior to when accepted at the easement is conveyed.~~ If federal bid figures have not been determined for the area, or the federal program has been discontinued, the rate paid shall time of application to the conservation reserve program; or

(6) an alternative payment system for easements based on cash rent or a similar system as may be determined by the commissioner.

(b) The commissioner may not pay more than $50,000 to a landowner for all the landowner's conservation easements and agreements.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 40.43, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [EASEMENT RENEWAL.] When a conservation easement of limited duration expires, a new conservation easement and agreement for an additional period of not less than ten years may be acquired by agreement of the commissioner and the landowner, under the terms of this section. The commissioner may adjust payment rates as a result of renewing an agreement and conservation easement only after examining the condition of the established cover, conservation practices, and land values.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 40.44, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE.] (a) The commissioners of agriculture and natural resources must provide necessary technical assistance to landowners enrolled in the conservation reserve program. The commissioner of natural resources must provide technical advice and assistance to the commissioner on:

(1) the form and content of the conservation easement and agreement, ~~and on;~~

(2) forestry and agronomic practices; and

(3) hydrologic and hydraulic design relating to the establishment and maintenance of permanent cover, or other conservation improvements.

(b) The commissioners of agriculture and natural resources shall jointly prepare an informational booklet on the conservation reserve program and other state and federal programs for land acquisition, conservation, and retirement to be made available to eligible landowners and the general public.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 40.44, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [SUPPLEMENTAL CONSERVATION PAYMENTS.] The commissioner may supplement ~~cost-share~~ payments made under ~~other federal land retirement programs; up to $75 an acre,~~ to the extent of available appropriations other than bond proceeds. The supplemental ~~cost-share~~ payments must be used to establish perennial cover on land enrolled or increase payments for land enrollment in programs approved by the commissioner, including the federal conservation reserve program and federal and state waterbank programs.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 84.943, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The Minnesota critical habitat private sector matching account is established as a separate account in the ~~state treasury~~ reinvest in Minnesota resources fund established under section 84.95. The account shall be administered by the commissioner of natural resources as provided in this section.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 84.943, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [APPROPRIATIONS MUST BE MATCHED BY PRIVATE FUNDS.] Appropriations transferred to the critical habitat private sector matching account may be expended only to the extent that they are matched equally with contributions to the account from private sources or by funds contributed to the nongame wildlife management account. The private contributions may be made in cash or in contributions of land or interests in land that are designated by the commissioner of natural resources as program acquisitions. Appropriations transferred to the account that are not matched within three years from the date of the appropriation shall cancel to the source of the appropriation. For the purposes of this section, the private contributions of land or interests in land shall be valued in accordance with their appraised value.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 84.943, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [PLEDGES AND CONTRIBUTIONS.] The commissioner of natural resources may accept contributions and pledges to the critical habitat private sector matching account. A pledge that is made contingent on an appropriation is acceptable and shall be reported with other pledges as required in this section. In the budget request for each biennium, the commissioner shall report the balance of contributions in the account and the amount that has been pledged for payment in the succeeding two calendar years.

Money in the account ~~may be expended~~ is appropriated to the commissioner of natural resources only for the direct acquisition or improvement of land or interests in land as provided in section 84.944. To the extent of available appropriations other than bond proceeds, the money matched to the nongame wildlife management account may be used for the management of nongame wildlife projects as specified in section 290.431. Acquisition includes: (1) purchase of land or an interest in land by the commissioner; or (2) acceptance by the commissioner of gifts of land or interests in land as program projects.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 84.944, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ACQUISITION CONSIDERATIONS.] (a) In determining what critical natural habitat shall be acquired or improved, the commissioner shall consider:

(1) the significance of the land or water as existing or potential habitat for fish and wildlife and providing fish and wildlife oriented recreation;

(2) the significance of the land, water, or habitat improvement to maintain or enhance native plant, fish, or wildlife species designated as endangered or threatened under section 97.488;

(3) the presence of native ecological communities that are now uncommon or diminishing; and

(4) the significance of the land, water or habitat improvement to protect or enhance natural features within or contiguous to natural areas including fish spawning areas, wildlife management areas, scientific and natural areas, riparian habitat and fish and wildlife management projects.

(b) The commissioner must, by order, promulgated under section 97A.051, subdivision 3, establish a process to prioritize according to paragraph (a) the critical habitat to be acquired or improved.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 84.95, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [WORK PLANS AND REPORTS.] By February 1 of each year the commissioner of natural resources, in consultation with the commissioner of agriculture, must present a written work plan for expenditure of money from the reinvest in Minnesota resources fund for the next fiscal year to the senate and house committees on agriculture and environment and natural resources for their review and comment. Any recommendations to the commissioners by the committees must be returned to the commissioners by March 15. By April 30 of each year the commissioner must make the work plan, with any revisions, available to the public for comment. In so doing, the commissioner must hold at least three public meetings to inform the public of the work plan; one meeting to be held in the Twin Cities metropolitan area, the others at non-Twin Cities locations, one each in northern and southern Minnesota. By January 15 of each year, the commissioner must prepare a written progress report on projects undertaken and money encumbered during the fiscal year just ended, and must transmit the report to the above committees and make the report available to the public.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 105.391, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Except as provided below, no public waters or wetlands shall be drained, and no permit authorizing drainage of public waters or wetlands shall be issued, unless the public waters or wetlands being drained are replaced by public waters or wetlands which that will have equal or greater public value. ~~However, after a state waterbank program has been established, Wetlands which are eligible for inclusion in that program, the drainage of which is lawful, feasible, and practical and would provide high quality cropland and that is the projected land use, as determined by the commissioner, may be drained without a permit and without replacement of wetlands of equal or greater public value if the commissioner does not elect, within 60 days of the receipt of an application for a permit to drain the wetlands, to either (1) place the wetlands in the state waterbank program under section 105.392, or (2) acquire it in fee pursuant to section 97A.145, or (3) indemnify the landowner through any other appropriate means, including but not limited to conservation restrictions, easements, leases, or any applicable federal program.~~ The applicant, if not offered a choice of the above alternatives, is entitled to drain the wetlands involved.

~~In addition, the owner or owners of lands underlying wetlands situated on privately owned lands may apply to the commissioner for a permit to drain the wetlands at any time after the expiration of ten years following the original designation thereof. Upon receipt of an application, the com-~~ missioner shall review the current status and conditions of the wetlands. If the commissioner finds that the current status or conditions are such that it appears likely that the economic or other benefits to the owner or owners which would result from drainage would exceed the public benefits of maintaining the wetlands, the commissioner shall grant the application and issue a drainage permit. If the application is denied, no additional application shall be made until the expiration of an additional ten years.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 105.392, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The legislature finds that it is in the public interest to preserve the wetlands of the state and thereby to conserve surface waters, ~~to maintain and improve water quality~~, preserve wildlife habitat, ~~to reduce runoff~~, ~~to provide for floodwater retention~~, ~~to reduce stream sedimentation~~, ~~to contribute to improved subsurface moisture~~, ~~to enhance the natural beauty of the landscape~~, and ~~to promote comprehensive and total water management planning~~. Therefore, the commissioner of natural resources is authorized to promulgate rules, which shall include the procedures and payment rates designed to effectuate the terms of this section. ~~This program is intended to supplement and complement the federal water bank program and the payment rates established shall be at least equal to the federal rates existing at the time any agreements are entered into.~~

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 105.392, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. For the conservation of wetlands, whether or not included in the definition contained in section 105.37, subdivision 15, the commissioner shall have authority to may acquire wetlands in fee pursuant to section 97A.145, or may enter into easement agreements with landowners for the conservation of wetlands and other waters. These easement agreements shall be conservation easements, as defined in section 84C.01, paragraph (1), but, in addition, may be made possessory as well as nonpossessory if agreed upon by the landowner and the commissioner. These agreements shall be entered into for a period of not less than ten years, with provision for renewal for additional not less than ten year ten-year periods, or the agreements may provide that the easement will be permanent in duration. The commissioner may reexamine the payment rates at the beginning of any ten year renewal period in the light of the then giving consideration to current land and crop values and make needed adjustments in rates for any renewal period.

Wetlands eligible for inclusion in the waterbank program shall have all the following characteristics as determined by the commissioner: (a) type 3, 4, or 5 as defined in United States Fish and Wildlife Service Circular No. 39 (1971 edition); (b) its drainage is lawful, feasible, and practical; and (c) its drainage would provide high quality cropland and that is the projected land use. Waters which have the foregoing characteristics but are less than ten acres in size in unincorporated areas or less than 2-1/2 acres in size in incorporated areas shall also be eligible for inclusion in the waterbank program, at the discretion of the commissioner.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 105.392, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. In the easement agreement between the commissioner and an owner, the owner shall agree:

(1) to place in the program for the period of the agreement eligible wetland areas the owner designates, which areas may include wetlands covered by a federal or state government easement ~~which~~ that permits agricultural use, together with such adjacent areas as determined desirable by the commissioner;

(2) not to drain, burn, fill, or otherwise destroy the wetland character of such areas, nor to use such areas for agricultural purposes, as determined by the commissioner;

(3) to effectuate the wetland conservation and development plan for the land in accordance with the terms of the agreement, unless any requirement thereof is waived or modified by the commissioner;

(4) to forfeit all rights to further payments or grants under the agreement and to refund to the state all payments or grants received thereunder upon violating the agreement at any stage during the time the owner has control of the land subject to the agreement if the commissioner determines that the violation is of such a nature as to warrant termination of the agreement, or to make refunds or accept such payment adjustments as the commissioner may deem appropriate if the commissioner determines that the violation by the owner does not warrant termination of the agreement;

(5) ~~upon transfer of right and interest in the land subject to the agreement during the agreement period, to forfeit all rights to further payments or grants under the agreement and refund to the state all payments or grants received thereunder during the year of the transfer unless the transferee of any such land agrees with the commissioner to assume all obligations of the agreement;~~

(6) not to adopt any practice specified by the commissioner in the agreement as a practice which would tend to defeat the purposes of the agreement; and

~~(7)~~ (6) to additional provisions which the commissioner determines are desirable and includes in the agreement to effectuate the purposes of the program or to facilitate its administration.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 105.392, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. In return for the easement agreement of the owner, the commissioner shall ~~(1) make an annual payment to the owner for the period of the agreement at the rate as the commissioner determines to be fair and reasonable in consideration of the obligations undertaken by the owner; and (2) must provide advice on conservation and development practices on the wetlands and adjacent areas for the purposes of this section as the commissioner determines to be appropriate. In making the determination, the commissioner shall consider, among other things, the rate of compensation necessary to encourage owners of wetlands to participate in the waterbank program~~ The commissioner must make the following payments to the landowner for the easement agreement:

(1) for a permanent easement, 50 percent of the average equalized estimated market value of cropland in the township as established by the commissioner of revenue for the time period when the application is made;

(2) for an easement of limited duration, an annual payment of 50 percent of the mean adjusted cash rental for cropland in the county, as established by the commissioner of revenue for the time period when the application is made; and

(3) for an easement of limited duration, the landowner may elect to receive a lump sum payment, the amount of which shall be the present value of the annual payments for the term of the easement.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 105.392, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. Any easement agreement may be renewed or extended at the end of the agreement period for an additional period of ten years by mutual agreement of the commissioner and the owner, subject to any rate re-termination by the commissioner. If during the agreement period the owner sells or otherwise disposes of the ownership or right of occupancy of the land, the new owner ~~may~~ must continue ~~such~~ the agreement under the same terms or conditions, ~~or enter into a new agreement in accordance with the provisions of this section, including the provisions for renewal and adjustment of payment rates, or may choose not to participate in the program,~~ except any water designated as wetlands shall not be drained.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 105.392, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. The commissioner may terminate any easement agreement by mutual agreement with the owner if the commissioner determines that the termination would be in the public interest, and may agree to any modification of agreements the commissioner may determine to be desirable to carry out the purposes of the program or facilitate its administration.

Sec. 22. [EXISTING AND NEW EMERGENCY RULES.]

The commissioner may adopt emergency rules to implement this act. The emergency rules adopted on August 27, 1986, shall remain in effect until amended or replaced by emergency or permanent rules.

Sec. 23. [FINDINGS.]

The legislature finds that native prairie is found primarily on marginal lands poorly suited to grain production and provides important wildlife, scientific, erosion control, educational, and recreational values.

Sec. 24. [84.96] [NATIVE PRAIRIE BANK.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The commissioner shall establish a native prairie bank, determine where native prairie land is located in the state, and prescribe eligibility requirements for inclusion of land in the native prairie bank.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITION.] Native prairie means unplowed lands with less than ten percent tree cover and with predominantly native prairie vegetation.

Subd. 3. [EASEMENT ACQUISITION.] (a) The commissioner may acquire native prairies to conserve the native prairies by entering into easements with landowners. The easements must be conservation easements as defined in section 84C.01, paragraph (1), except the easements may be made possessory as well as nonpossessory if agreed upon by the landowner and the commissioner.

(b) The easements must be permanent easements.

Subd. 4. [EASEMENT AGREEMENT.] (a) In the easement between the commissioner and an owner, the owner must agree:

(1) to place in the program for the period of the easement eligible native prairie areas designated by the owner, including prairie covered by a federal or state easement that allows agricultural use and desirable land adjacent to the prairie as determined by the commissioner;

(2) not to alter the native prairie by plowing, heavy grazing, seeding to nonnative grasses or legumes, spraying with large amounts of herbicides, or otherwise destroying the native prairie character of the easement area, except mowing the native prairie tract for wild hay may qualify for easement as determined by the commissioner;

(3) to implement the native prairie conservation and development plan as provided in the easement agreement, unless a requirement in the easement agreement is waived or modified by the commissioner;

(4) to forfeit all rights to further payments under the terms of the easement and to refund to the state all payments received under the easement if the easement is violated at any time when the owner has control of the land subject to the easement, if the commissioner determines that the violation warrants termination of the easement, or if the commissioner determines that the violation does not warrant termination of the easement, the commissioner may determine refunds or payment adjustments to be paid by the commissioner;

(5) not to adopt a practice specified by the commissioner in the easement as a practice that would tend to defeat the purposes of the easement; and

(6) to additional provisions included in the easement that the commissioner determines are desirable.

(b) In return for the easement of the owner, the commissioner shall make payments as provided in subdivision 5 and may provide advice on conservation and development practices on the native prairie in the easement and adjacent areas.

Subd. 5. [PAYMENTS.] (a) The commissioner must make payments to the landowner under this subdivision for the easement.

(b) For a permanent easement, the commissioner must pay 50 percent of the average equalized estimated market value of cropland in the township as established by the commissioner of revenue for the time period when the application is made.

(c) To maintain and protect native prairies, the commissioner may enter into easements that allow selected agricultural practices. Payment must be based on paragraph (b) but may be reduced due to the agricultural practices allowed after negotiation with the landowner.

Subd. 6. [EASEMENT RUNS WITH LAND.] If during the agreement period the owner sells or otherwise disposes of the ownership or right of occupancy of the land, the new owner must continue the agreement under the same terms or conditions.

Subd. 7. [MODIFICATION AND TERMINATION BY AGREEMENT.] The commissioner may terminate an easement agreement by mutual agreement with the owner if the commissioner determines that the termination would be in the public interest. The commissioner may agree to modifications of agreements if the commissioner determines the modification is desirable to implement the native prairie program.

Subd. 8. [RULES.] The commissioner of natural resources may adopt rules that include the procedures and payment rates to implement this section.

Sec. 25. [BONDS AUTHORIZED.]

The commissioner of finance upon request of the governor shall sell and issue bonds of the state in an amount up to $36,500,000 in the manner, upon the terms, and with the effect prescribed by Minnesota Statutes, sections 16A.641 to 16A.675, and by the Minnesota Constitution, article XI, sections 4 to 7. The proceeds of the bonds, except accrued interest and any premium received on the sale of the bonds, must be credited to a bond proceeds account in the reinvest in Minnesota resources fund.

Sec. 26. [APPROPRIATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPROPRIATION TO RESOURCES FUND.] There is appropriated to the reinvest in Minnesota resources fund, other than the bond proceeds account within that fund, any money appropriated by law.

Subd. 2. [BOND PROCEEDS APPROPRIATION.] $36,500,000 is appropriated from the bond proceeds account of the reinvest in Minnesota resources fund to the agencies and account for the purposes specified in this section.

Subd. 3. [COMMISSIONER OF AGRICULTURE.] $22,403,000 is appropriated to the commissioner of agriculture:

(a) from the bond proceeds account of the reinvest in Minnesota resources fund for the conservation reserve program under section 40.43, to be available until expended $20,000,000

(b) from the general fund for technical assistance and administration of the conservation reserve program to be available until June 30, 1989
$2,000,000 of this appropriation must be distributed to soil and water conservation districts. $ 2,403,000

The approved complement of the department of agriculture is increased by four positions in the classified service for implementing sections 1 to 21. One position shall be a coordinator to work with other agencies to implement sections 1 to 21.

Subd. 4. [COMMISSIONER OF NATURAL RESOURCES.] $13,500,000 is appropriated to the commissioner of natural resources:

(a) from the bond proceeds account of the reinvest in Minnesota resources fund for fish and wildlife habitat improvements and acquisition of interests in land under the comprehensive fish and wildlife management plan under section 84.942, to be available until expended. The commissioner shall provide the necessary professional services for the performance of duties under this clause from the amount appropriated for the various purposes $12,000,000

(b) from the bond proceeds account of the reinvest in Minnesota resources fund for aspen recycling under section 88.80 and other forest wildlife management projects, to be available until expended

The approved complement of the department of natural resources is increased by 12 positions in the unclassified service and eight positions in the classified service for implementing sections 1 to 21. One position in the unclassified service shall be a program coordinator to work with other agencies and staff to implement sections 1 to 21.

Subd. 5. [COMMISSIONER OF NATURAL RESOURCES.] $1,600,000 is appropriated to the commissioner of natural resources from the general fund for the administration of projects included in clauses (a) and (b) of subdivision 4.

Subd. 6. [CRITICAL HABITAT PRIVATE SECTOR MATCHING ACCOUNT.] $2,500,000 is appropriated from the bond proceeds account of the reinvest in Minnesota resources fund for transfer to the critical habitat private sector matching account."

S.F. No. 1210: A bill for an act relating to health; establishing the Minnesota institute for health research; creating a health research trust fund with cigarette and tobacco products taxes; prescribing a floor stocks tax on cigarettes and tobacco products distributors; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 297.02, subdivision 1; 297.03, subdivision 5; 297.13, subdivision 1; 297.32, subdivisions 1, 2, and 9; proposing coding for new law as Minnesota Statutes, chapter 152A; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 297.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Pages 1 to 5, delete sections 1 to 7 and insert:

"Section. 1. [256.936] [FAMILY HEALTH INSURANCE PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] It is the purpose of this section to assist families to achieve self-sufficiency by making available health insurance on a sliding fee basis. The commissioner of human services shall manage the program and seek to maximize use of available federal and state funds to establish the broadest program possible within the appropriation available.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, the following terms shall have the meanings given them:

(a) "Families" means a child or children under age 18 and their biological or adoptive parents or stepparents who reside with them.

(b) "Eligible persons" means the following persons who reside in families with gross incomes less than 200 percent of the federal poverty guidelines and who are not eligible for medical assistance under chapter 256B or general assistance medical care under chapter 256D and who are not otherwise insured:

(1) pregnant women;

(2) families who have become ineligible for medical assistance within the last six months following the extensions allowed under section 256B.062; and

(3) children under 18 in families that have at least one child under six.

(c) "Covered services" means comprehensive health maintenance services as specified in section 62D.02, subdivision 7, and dental care.

(d) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of human services.

(e) "Health plan corporation" means a health insurer or health maintenance organization licensed under chapter 62A, 62C or 62D.

Subd. 3. [COMMISSIONER'S DUTIES.] The commissioner, with the advice and assistance of the commissioners of health and commerce, shall select a health plan corporation or corporations through a process of competitive bidding and negotiation. The health plan corporations shall provide or arrange to provide covered services to eligible persons. The commissioner shall select health plan corporations regulated under chapter 62A, 62C or 62D who can promote health care provider efficiencies while preserving access and quality care. In addition, the commissioner is required to:

(1) ensure that all plans of coverage provide at least the covered services;

(2) assure access to existing public and nonprofit community health clinics if they are available in the service area and they agree to accept rates and conditions comparable to those agreed to by other participating providers for similar services;

(3) provide eligible persons with the opportunity to choose among all health plans under contract to the commissioner in the designated service area, to change plans without penalty within the initial 30 days, and to participate in an annual open enrollment period of 30 days;

(4) arrange to subsidize the contribution required of eligible persons who can purchase comparable coverage through an employer sponsored plan, if this would be less expensive;

(5) assure continuity of care for eligible persons who may experience a change in income and become eligible for medical assistance;

(6) establish premiums for enrollees covered under this program; and

(7) guarantee payment for the first prenatal care visit for program applicants, even if the applicant is later determined to be ineligible.

Subd. 4. [HEALTH PLAN CORPORATION DUTIES.] Health plan corporations that contract with the commissioner under this section must agree to:

(1) provide or arrange to provide, at a minimum, the covered services to all persons enrolled in the plan;

(2) ensure that medical and social risk assessments are completed for all enrolled pregnant women and that they receive risk appropriate care; and

(3) comply with other contractual terms and conditions established by the commissioner.

Subd. 5. [SLIDING FEE SCHEDULE.] Eligible persons shall contribute a specified percentage of the health plan premium not to exceed ten percent of their gross family income. For the first year of implementation, the sliding fee schedule must be as follows:

Gross Income as a Percentage of the Federal Poverty Guideline	Enrollee Contribution
Below 125 percent	5 percent
126 to 150 percent	10 percent
151 to 170 percent	30 percent
171 to 185 percent	50 percent
186 to 199 percent	70 percent

The commissioner may review this fee schedule and modify it in rule for future years. Enrollees may not be required to pay any deductibles or coinsurance outside the sliding fee schedule, except for copayments allowed by the commissioner to control inappropriate utilization.

Subd. 6. [FUNDING; ALLOCATION.] (a) The commissioner must make a quarterly assessment of the expected expenditures for the program and the appropriation available.

To the extent possible, the commissioner shall allocate funds so that there is a reasonable relationship between enrollees in each county and the number of eligible persons in each county. Based on this assessment the commissioner may limit enrollments in certain counties or all counties if the appropriations are not sufficient.

(b) If sufficient funds are not available to cover all costs incurred in one quarter, the commissioner may seek an additional authorization for funding from the legislative advisory committee.

Subd. 7. [ADMINISTRATION AND MARKETING.] The commissioner shall establish an office for the state administration of this program. A toll-free telephone number must be used to provide information and to provide access to the program. The commissioner shall establish a process for efficient orderly enrollment. The commissioner shall make an annual redetermination of continued eligibility and identify people who may become eligible for medical assistance. The commissioner shall establish marketing efforts to encourage potentially eligible persons to receive information about the program. Applications and other information must be available in county social services offices. The commissioner shall make applications and other information available to organizations serving potentially eligible persons.

Subd. 8. [SUBROGATION.] Enrollees shall contract for and receive coverage for a period of no less than one year unless they become insured through some other plan of coverage. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, benefits under the family health insurance program are secondary to any other plan of insurance or benefit program under which an eligible person may have coverage. The commissioner shall establish procedures for identifying eligible persons who may have coverage or benefits under other plans of insurance or who become eligible for medical assistance and for notifying the health plan corporation with whom the persons are enrolled.

Subd. 9. [RULEMAKING AUTHORITY.] The commissioner shall adopt rules, including emergency rules, necessary to implement this section.

Subd. 10. [SPECIAL STUDY.] The commissioner shall report to the legislature by January 15, 1989, with recommendations for improving the program, evidence of state savings as a result of the program, and recommendations for a formal evaluation.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.06, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Medical assistance may be paid for any person:

(1) who is a child eligible for or receiving adoption assistance payments under Title IV-E of the Social Security Act, United States Code, title 42, sections 670 to 676 under Minnesota Statutes, section 259.40 or 259.431; or

(2) who is a child eligible for or receiving foster care maintenance payments under Title IV-E of the Social Security Act, United States Code, title 42, sections 670 to 676; or

(3) who is eligible for or receiving public assistance under the aid to families with dependent children program, the Minnesota supplemental aid program; or

(4) who is a pregnant woman, as certified in writing by a physician or nurse midwife, and who (a) meets the other eligibility criteria of this section, and (b) would be categorically eligible for assistance under the aid to families with dependent children program if the child had been born and was living with the woman; or

(5) who is a pregnant woman, as certified in writing by a physician or nurse midwife, who meets the other eligibility criteria of this section and whose unborn child would be eligible as a needy child under clause (9) if born and living with the woman; or

(6) who meets the categorical eligibility requirements of the supplemental security income program and the other eligibility requirements of this section; or

(7) who, except for the amount of income or resources, would qualify for supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled, or aid to families with dependent children, and who meets the other eligibility requirements of this section; or

(8) who is under 21 years of age and in need of medical care that neither the person nor the person's relatives responsible under sections 256B.01 to 256B.26 are financially able to provide; or

(9) who is an infant less than one year of age born on or after October 1, 1984, whose mother was eligible at the time of birth and who remains in the mother's household. Eligibility under this clause is concurrent with the mother's and does not depend on the father's income except as the income affects the mother's eligibility; or

(10) who is residing in a hospital for treatment of mental disease or tuberculosis and is 65 years of age or older and without means sufficient to pay the per capita hospital charge; and

(11) who resides in Minnesota, or, if absent from the state, is deemed to be a resident of Minnesota in accordance with the rules of the state agency; and

(12) who alone, or together with the person's spouse, does not own real property other than the homestead. For the purposes of this section, "homestead" means the house owned and occupied by the applicant or recipient as a primary place of residence, together with the contiguous land upon which it is situated. The homestead shall continue to be excluded for persons residing in a long-term care facility if it is used as a primary residence by the spouse, minor child, or disabled child of any age; or the applicant/recipient is expected to return to the home as a principal residence within six calendar months of entry to the long-term care facility. Certification of expected return to the homestead shall be documented in writing by the attending physician. Real estate not used as a home may not be retained unless it produces net income applicable to the family's needs or the family is making a continuing effort to sell it at a fair and reasonable price or unless the commissioner determines that sale of the real estate would cause undue hardship or unless the equity in the real estate when combined with the equity in the homestead totals $15,000 or less; and

(13) who individually does not own more than $3,000 in cash or liquid assets, or if a member of a household with two family members (husband and wife, or parent and child), does not own more than $6,000 in cash or liquid assets, plus $200 for each additional legal dependent. In addition to these maximum amounts, an eligible individual or family may accrue interest on these amounts, but they must be reduced to the maximum at the time of an eligibility redetermination. For residents of long-term care facilities, the accumulation of the clothing and personal needs allowance pursuant to section 256B.35 must also be reduced to the maximum at the time of the eligibility redetermination. Cash and liquid assets may include a prepaid funeral contract and insurance policies with cash surrender value. The value of the following shall not be included:

(a) the homestead, and (b) one motor vehicle licensed pursuant to chapter 168 and defined as: (1) passenger automobile, (2) station wagon, (3) motorcycle, (4) motorized bicycle or (5) truck of the weight found in categories A to E, of section 168.013, subdivision 1e; and

(14) who has or anticipates receiving an annual income not in excess of the income standards by family size used in the aid to families with dependent children program, except that families and children may have an income up to 133-1/3 percent of the AFDC payment standard, or who has income in excess of these maxima and in the month of application, or during the three months prior to the month of application, incurs expenses for medical care that total more than one-half of the annual excess income in accordance with the rules of the state agency. Notwithstanding any laws or rules to the contrary, in computing income to determine eligibility of persons who are not residents of long-term care facilities, the commissioner shall disregard increases in income as required by Public Law Number 94-566, section 503. In excess income cases, eligibility shall be limited to a period of six months beginning with the first of the month in which these medical obligations are first incurred; and

obligation referred to in the preceding paragraph is incurred, and medical assistance payments may be made to cover the monthly unmet medical need. In licensed nursing home and state hospital cases, income over and above that required for justified needs, determined pursuant to a schedule of contributions established by the commissioner of human services, is to be applied to the cost of institutional care. The commissioner of human services may establish a schedule of contributions to be made by the spouse of a nursing home resident to the cost of care; and

(16) who has applied or agrees to apply all proceeds received or receivable by the person or the person's spouse from automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage to the costs of medical care for the person, the spouse, and children. The state agency may require from any applicant or recipient of medical assistance the assignment of any rights accruing under private health care coverage. Any rights or amounts so assigned shall be applied against the cost of medical care paid for under this chapter. Any assignment shall not be effective as to benefits paid or provided under automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage prior to receipt of the assignment by the person or organization providing the benefits."

S.F. No. 697: A bill for an act relating to economic development; authorizing counties to appropriate money for economic development; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 375.83.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 375.83, is amended to read:

375.83 [ECONOMIC AND AGRICULTURAL DEVELOPMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [APPROPRIATION; TAX LEVY.] A county board may annually either: (1) appropriate not more than $50,000 annually out of the general revenue fund of the county or (2) levy a tax of not more than one mill on each dollar of assessed valuation in the county to be paid to any incorporated development society or organization of this state which, in the board's opinion, will use the money for the best interests of the county in promoting, advertising, improving, or developing the economic and agricultural resources of the county. The limitation on annual appropriations or levies under this subdivision does not prohibit accumulation of amounts in excess of the annual appropriations or levies in a fund to be used for purposes of this section. County funds made available under this subdivision may not be used to finance more than 50 percent of the total cost of an economic development project. The tax authorized by this section is in addition to any other tax imposed by the county and shall not be considered in any tax levy limitations. The tax authorized by this section shall be levied as other property taxes imposed by the county are levied. If the county board levies the tax authorized under clause (2) of this subdivision, the county must submit an economic development report to the department of energy and economic development by February 1 of each year and must comply with subdivisions 3 to 7.

Subd. 2. [REVERSE REFERENDUM.] If the county board proposes to levy the tax authorized under this section, it shall pass a resolution stating that fact. Thereafter, the resolution shall be published for two successive weeks in the official newspaper of the county or if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, together with a notice fixing a date for a public hearing on the matter. The hearing shall be held not less than two weeks nor more than four weeks after the first publication of the resolution. Following the public hearing, the county may determine to take no further action or, in the alternative, adopt a resolution confirming its intention to exercise the authority. That resolution shall also be published in the official newspaper of the county or if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the county. If within 20 days thereafter a petition signed by voters equal in number to five percent of the votes cast in the county in the last general election requesting a referendum on the proposed resolution is filed with the county auditor the resolution shall not be effective until it has been submitted to the voters at a general or special election and a majority of votes cast on the question of approving the resolution are in the affirmative. The commissioner of revenue shall prepare a suggested form of question to be presented at the referendum.

Subd. 3. [ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT DIRECTOR; APPOINTMENT.] The county board must appoint a director of economic development to review county economic development plans, programs, and project proposals. The board may appoint an existing county officer to serve as director of economic development.

Subd. 4. [ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT DIRECTOR; DUTIES.] All economic development plans, programs, and project proposals must be submitted to the director of economic development. The director shall review and comment on the plans, programs, and project proposals to the county board.

Subd. 5. [ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT ADVISORY COMMITTEE.] The county board must appoint an economic development advisory committee consisting of at least five persons. One member must be the county attorney. One member must be employed by a financial institution. One member must be knowledgeable in small business and one member must be knowledgeable in large business. Notwithstanding section 471.705, subdivision 1, the advisory committee may meet in closed session to discuss and take action on specific matters where the disclosure of information pertaining to such matters would cause harm to the competitive position of an entity which is the subject of the advisory committee's discussion or action. Section 471.705, subdivision 1a, applies to the procedure for holding a closed meeting.

Subd. 6. [PROPOSAL EVALUATION.] Before submission to the county board of an economic development proposal for the financing of a project with county funds, the director of economic development must submit the proposal to the economic development advisory committee. The county board must not act on a proposal until it has received the evaluation and recommendations of the advisory committee or until 60 days have elapsed since the proposal was transmitted to the advisory committee, whichever occurs first.

Subd. 7. [ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT PLAN.] The board must prepare an economic development plan that includes the economic development policy and objectives of the county and provides guidelines for selection of projects that are eligible for financing under this section. The department of energy and economic development must provide assistance in preparing the plan if the county board requests the department's assistance. Before adoption of the plan, the county board must submit a draft plan to the department of energy and economic development for review and comment. The county board may not adopt the plan until comments have been received from the department or 30 days have elapsed after the draft was submitted. The county may adopt the plan only after holding a public hearing on the plan. Notice of the hearing must be provided in a newspaper of general circulation in the county not less than ten days nor more than 30 days before the date of the hearing. The adopted plan must be made available for public inspection at the county auditor's office."

Amend the title as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [116P01] [CITATION.]

Sections 1 to 11 may be cited as the "greater Minnesota corporation act."

Sec. 2. [116P02] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] The definitions in this section apply to sections 1 to 11.

Subd. 2. [BOARD.] "Board" means the board of directors of the greater Minnesota corporation.

Subd. 3. [CORPORATION.] "Corporation" means the greater Minnesota corporation.

Subd. 4. [FUND.] "Fund" means the greater Minnesota fund.

Subd. 5. [SMALL BUSINESS.] "Small business" means an enterprise determined by the corporation to constitute a small business as defined in regulations of the United States Small Business Administration pursuant to United States Code, title 15, sections 631 to 647.

Subd. 6. [SBIC.] "SBIC" means a corporation or limited partnership licensed by the Small Business Administration under United States Code, title 15, section 681, and doing business in the state.

Sec. 3. [116P03] [CORPORATION; BOARD OF DIRECTORS; POWERS.]

Subdivision 1. [NAME.] The greater Minnesota corporation is a public corporation of the state and is not a state agency. All business of the corporation must be conducted under the name "greater Minnesota corporation."

Subd. 2. [BOARD OF DIRECTORS.] The corporation is governed by a board of 11 directors appointed by the governor to six-year terms. The governor shall make the initial appointments. As the terms of the initial appointees expire, appointments must be made by the board. The board may determine the compensation of its members.

Subd. 3. [ARTICLES AND BYLAWS.] The board of directors shall adopt articles of incorporation and bylaws necessary for the conduct of the business of the corporation, consistent with the provisions of this chapter. The articles and bylaws must be filed with the secretary of state.

Subd. 4. [PLACES OF BUSINESS.] The board shall locate and maintain the corporation's places of business within the state.

Subd. 5. [MEETINGS AND ACTIONS OF THE BOARD.] The board shall meet at least twice a year and may hold additional meetings upon giving notice in accordance with the bylaws of the corporation. Board meetings are not subject to section 471.705.

Sec. 4. [116P04] [CORPORATE PERSONNEL.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] (a) The board shall appoint and set the compensation for a president, who serves as chief executive officer of the corporation, and who may appoint subordinate officers. The board may designate the president as its general agent. Subject to the control of the board, the president shall employ employees and agents the president considers necessary.

(b) The board shall define the duties and designate the titles of the employees and agents.

Subd. 2. [STATUS OF EMPLOYEES.] Employees, officers, and directors of the corporation are not state employees, but, at the option of the board, may participate in the following plans for employees in the unclassified service: the state retirement plan, the state deferred compensation plan, and the health insurance and life insurance plans.

Sec. 5. [116P05] [POWERS OF THE CORPORATION.]

In addition to other powers granted by this chapter, the corporation may:

- (1) sue and be sued;*
- (2) have a seal and alter it at will;*
- (3) acquire and dispose of personal property, including inchoate and intellectual property, royalties, stock, and stock warrants;*
- (4) enter into contracts or agreements with a federal or state agency, person, business, or other organization;*
- (5) acquire and dispose of real property or an interest in real property;*
- (6) obtain insurance;*
- (7) sell, at public or private sale, any note, mortgage, or other instrument or obligation;*
- (8) consent to the modification of a contract or agreement to which the corporation is a party;*
- (9) borrow money to carry out its purposes and issue negotiable notes, which it may refund, guarantee, or insure in whole or in part with money from the fund, other assets of the corporation, or an account created by the corporation for that purpose;*
- (10) provide general consulting or technical services to businesses to which loans or grants may be made;*
- (11) develop, buy, and possess financial and technical information, including credit reports and financial statements;*
- (12) accept gifts, grants, and bequests and use or dispose of them for its purposes;*
- (13) receive payments in the form of royalties, dividends, or other pro-* ceeds in connection with the ownership, license, or lease of products or businesses;

(14) spend money to cover expenses of consultants and speakers hired by the board and for publications, advertising, and promotional activities; and

(15) issue negotiable bonds, notes, or other obligations in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as negotiable bonds, notes, or obligations issued by the Minnesota energy and economic development authority under section 116M.08, subdivisions 11 to 14.

Sec. 6. [116P07] [ACTIVITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [GRANTS.] The corporation may make matching grants for applied research and development to the University of Minnesota, a state university, a community college, a Minnesota private college or university, or an area vocational technical institute.

Subd. 2. [LOANS.] The corporation may make loans to corporations, partnerships, sole proprietorships, or other business entities to promote development in the state of new products or processes with potential commercial value.

Subd. 3. [EQUITY INVESTMENTS.] The corporation may acquire an interest in a product or a private business entity located or intending to locate in an enterprise zone as defined in section 273.1312 or a distressed county as defined in section 297A.257. The corporation may enter into joint venture agreements with other private corporations to promote economic development and job creation, not limited to enterprise zones or distressed counties.

Subd. 4. [PRIVATE CAPITAL.] The corporation may solicit and obtain private capital to be available for the activities in subdivisions 1 to 3.

Subd. 5. [CONSULTING AND TECHNICAL SERVICES.] The corporation may provide general consulting and technical services to colleges or universities or to businesses and may set fees or charges for the services.

Subd. 6. [RESEARCH.] The corporation may identify opportunities for scientific research and technological innovation and advise colleges and universities of the research needs of private business.

Sec. 7. [116P08] [GREATER MINNESOTA FUND.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION; USE.] The greater Minnesota fund is a separate account in the state treasury. The board may create separate accounts within the fund for use in accordance with the fund's purposes. Money in the fund may be deposited in an institution designated as a depository for state funds under section 9.031. Money in the fund may be allocated to the SBIC account in the amounts as the board may from time to time determine. Money in the fund not needed for the immediate purposes of the corporation may be invested by the corporation in any way authorized by section 11A.24. Money in the fund may be used as provided in this chapter.

Subd. 2. [SOURCES.] The fund consists of:

- (1) appropriations made to the corporation;*
- (2) fees and charges collected by the corporation;*

(3) income from investments and purchases;

(4) revenue from loans, rentals, royalties, dividends, and other proceeds collected in connection with lawful corporate purposes; and

(5) gifts, donations, and bequests made to the corporation.

Sec. 8. [116P09] [AUDITS.]

The board shall contract with a certified public accounting firm to audit the corporation and any subsidiary annually in accordance with generally accepted accounting standards.

Sec. 9. [116P10] [REPORTS.]

The board shall report to the legislature and the governor on the activities of the corporation by January 1 of each year.

Sec. 10. [116P11] [SPECIFIC POWERS OF THE CORPORATION FOR SBIC PROGRAMS.]

The corporation may make, purchase, or participate in the making of loans to SBICs which agree to lend the money to or invest the money in small business.

The corporation may guaranty or insure loans by others to SBICs which agree to lend the money to, or invest the money in, small business.

The corporation may collect reasonable interest, fees, and charges in connection with making and servicing loans, notes, bonds, obligations, commitments, and other evidences of indebtedness and in connection with providing technical, consultative, and project assistance services.

The corporation shall make available technical assistance to potential sponsors or organizers of SBICs.

The corporation may perform studies and analyses of capital needs of small businesses and SBICs located within the state and ways of meeting their capital needs. It may make the results of the studies and analyses available to the public. It may engage in research and disseminate information on small businesses.

The corporation may establish a cooperative relationship with the United States Small Business Administration and with other governmental and private agencies whose activities include promoting small businesses. It may enter into agreements and joint enterprises with them as it may consider desirable.

The corporation may agree to the modification of the rate of interest, time of payment of any installment of principal or interest, or any other term, of any loan, loan commitment, construction loan, temporary loan, contract, or agreement of any kind to which the corporation is a party.

The corporation may provide for a letter or line of credit, insurance policy, or other credit enhancement device.

Sec. 11. [116P12] [SBIC ACCOUNT.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION.] The board may create a revolving account within the greater Minnesota fund to be known as the "SBIC account."

Subd. 2. [SOURCES.] The SBIC account consists of:

(a) any money allocated by the board for the purposes of the account;

(b) repayments of amounts paid from the account;

(c) any other money which may be made available to the corporation for the purpose of the account from any other source or sources;

(d) all fees and charges collected by the corporation with respect to its SBIC program; and

(e) all interest or other income with respect to its SBIC program not required by a resolution or indenture securing notes or bonds to be paid into another special fund.

Subd. 3. [ACCOUNTING.] When money is appropriated by the state to the corporation solely for a specified purpose or purposes, the corporation shall establish a separate bookkeeping account in the SBIC account to record the receipt and disbursement of the money and of the income, gain, and loss from the investment and reinvestment of the money.

Sec. 12. [INITIAL APPOINTMENTS.]

Notwithstanding section 3, subdivision 2, the governor shall appoint the initial members of the board of directors of the greater Minnesota corporation as follows: four to six-year terms, four to four-year terms, and three to two-year terms.

Sec. 13. [DEVELOPMENT PLAN.]

The board of directors of the greater Minnesota corporation shall prepare a comprehensive development plan and submit it to the governor and the legislature by November 15, 1987. The development plan must include at least the following:

(1) operating procedures;

(2) accounting procedures;

(3) grant procedures;

(4) loan procedures;

(5) personnel procedures;

(6) investment procedures; and

(7) board conduct and ethics.

In addition, the development plan must include a budget proposal and a five-year plan. It must identify sources and amounts of available non-governmental money and the purposes for which that money may be used, and it must suggest any further legislation that may be necessary to carry out the development plan.

Sec. 14. [APPROPRIATION.]

§ _____ is appropriated from the general fund to the greater Minnesota corporation established by section 3. This appropriation is available until expended.

Sec. 15. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 14 are effective the day following final enactment."

Delete the title and insert:

"A bill for an act relating to economic development; creating the greater Minnesota corporation and providing for its powers and duties; authorizing the corporation to issue revenue bonds and make loans to small business investment companies; appropriating money; proposing coding for new law as Minnesota Statutes, chapter 116P.”

And when so amended the bill do pass and be re-referred to the Committee on Finance. Amendments adopted. Report adopted.

Mr. Davis from the Committee on Agriculture, to which was referred

S.F. No. 1279: A bill for an act relating to agriculture; clarifying and amending the required offer of the state, a federal agency, or a corporation to offer a lease or sale of agricultural land to the immediately preceding owner; clarifying and amending provisions relating to designating a homestead and allowing designation of separate agricultural tracts in foreclosure proceedings; prohibiting waiver of statutory rights of debtors and allowing damages against persons who violate waiver prohibitions; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 500.24, subdivisions 2, 6, and by adding a subdivision; and 582.041, subdivisions 1, 2, 3, and 5; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapters 550 and 582.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 500.24, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of this section, the terms defined in this subdivision have the meanings here given them:

(a) “Farming” means the production of (1) agricultural products; (2) livestock or livestock products; (3) milk or milk products; or (4) fruit or other horticultural products. It does not include the processing, refining or packaging of said products, nor the provision of spraying or harvesting services by a processor or distributor of farm products. It does not include the production of timber or forest products or the production of poultry or poultry products.

(b) “Family farm” means an unincorporated farming unit owned by one or more persons residing on the farm or actively engaging in farming.

(c) “Family farm corporation” means a corporation founded for the purpose of farming and the ownership of agricultural land in which the majority of the voting stock is held by and the majority of the stockholders are persons or the spouses of persons related to each other within the third degree of kindred according to the rules of the civil law, and at least one of said related persons is residing on or actively operating the farm, and none of whose stockholders are corporations; provided that a family farm corporation shall not cease to qualify as such hereunder by reason of any devise or bequest of shares of voting stock.

(d) “Authorized farm corporation” means a corporation meeting the following standards:

- (1) Its shareholders do not exceed five in number;
- (2) All its shareholders, other than any estate are natural persons;
- (3) It does not have more than one class of shares; and

(4) Its revenues from rent, royalties, dividends, interest and annuities does not exceed 20 percent of its gross receipts; and

(5) Shareholders holding a majority of the shares must be residing on the farm or actively engaging in farming.

(e) "Agricultural land" means land used for farming.

(f) "Pension or investment fund" means a pension or employee welfare benefit fund, however organized, a mutual fund, a life insurance company separate account, a common trust of a bank or other trustee established for the investment and reinvestment of money contributed to it, a real estate investment trust, or an investment company as defined in United States Code, title 15, section 80a-3. "Pension or investment fund" does not include a benevolent trust established by the owners of a family farm, authorized farm corporation or family farm corporation.

(g) "Farm homestead" means a house including adjoining buildings that has been used as part of a farming operation or is part of the agricultural land used for a farming operation.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 500.24, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [DISPOSAL OF LAND.] (a) A state or federal agency or a corporation, other than a family farm corporation or an authorized farm corporation, ~~when leasing may not lease or selling farm sell~~ agricultural land or a farm homestead ~~must offer that was acquired by enforcing a debt against the agricultural land or farm homestead, including foreclosure of a mortgage, accepting a deed in lieu of foreclosure, terminating a contract for deed, or accepting a deed in lieu of terminating a contract for deed, before offering or~~ ~~make~~ making a good faith effort to offer the land for sale or lease to the immediately preceding former owner at a price no higher than the highest price offered by a third party that is acceptable to the seller or lessor. The offer must be made on the notice to offer form under section 3. Selling or leasing property at a price is prima facie evidence that the price is acceptable to the seller or lessor.

(b) This subdivision applies to a seller or lessor for five years after the agricultural land is acquired. An offer to lease to the immediately preceding former owner is required only ~~on~~ until after the first occasion ~~on which~~ the property is leased. An offer to sell to the immediately preceding former owner is required only ~~on~~ until the first ~~occasion on which~~ the property is sold. The notice of an offer ~~delivered~~ under section 3 personally delivered with a receipt or sent by certified mail with a receipt of mailing to the immediately preceding former owner's last known address is a good faith offer.

(c) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "a price no higher than the highest price offered by a third party" means the acceptable cash price offered by a third party or the acceptable time-price offer made by a third party. A cash price offer is one which involves simultaneous transfer of title. If the acceptable offer made by a third party is a time-price offer, the seller or lessor must make the same time-price offer or an equivalent cash offer to the immediately preceding former owner. An equivalent cash offer is equal to the total of the payments made over a period of the time-price offer discounted by the current Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of St. Paul interest rate plus 1.5 percent. A time-price offer is an offer that defers payment of any portion of the price and does not involve a transfer of fee title until full payment is made.

(d) This subdivision does not apply to a sale or lease that occurs after the seller or lessor has held the property for five years or longer.

(e) For purposes of this subdivision, if the immediately preceding former owner is a bankruptcy estate the debtor in the bankruptcy is the immediately preceding owner.

(f) The immediately preceding former owner must exercise the right to lease ~~farm~~ agricultural land or a homestead located on agricultural land in writing within ~~ten~~ 15 days after ~~receiving~~ an offer to lease under this subdivision is mailed with a receipt of mailing or personally delivered. The immediately preceding former owner must exercise the right to buy ~~farm~~ the agricultural land or farm homestead located on agricultural land, in writing, within ~~60~~ 65 days after ~~receiving~~ an offer to buy under this subdivision. ~~This subdivision does not apply if the former owner is a bankruptcy estate~~ is mailed with a receipt of mailing or is personally delivered. Within ten days after exercising the right to lease or buy by accepting the offer, the immediately preceding owner must fully perform according to the terms of the offer including paying the amounts due. A seller may sell and a lessor may lease the agricultural land or farm homestead subject to this subdivision to the third party in accordance with their lease or purchase agreement if:

(1) the immediately preceding former owner does not accept an offer to lease or buy before the offer terminates; or

(2) the immediately preceding former owner does not perform the obligations of the offer, including paying the amounts due, within ten days after accepting the offer.

(g) A certificate indicating whether or not the property contains agricultural land or a farm homestead that is signed by the county assessor where the property is located and recorded in the office of the county recorder or the registrar of titles where the property is located is prima facie evidence of whether the property is agricultural land or a farm homestead.

(h) As prima facie evidence that an offer to sell or lease agricultural land or a farm homestead has terminated, a receipt of mailing the notice under section 3 and an affidavit, signed by a person authorized to act on behalf of a state, federal agency, or corporation selling or leasing the agricultural land or a farm homestead may be filed in the office of the county recorder or registrar of titles of the county where the agricultural land or farm homestead is located. The affidavit must state that:

(1) notice of an offer to buy or lease the agricultural land or farm homestead was provided to the immediately preceding former owner at a price no higher than the highest price offered by a third party that is acceptable;

(2) the time period during which the immediately preceding former owner is required to exercise the right to buy or lease the agricultural land or farm homestead has expired;

(3) the immediately preceding former owner has not exercised the right to buy or lease the agricultural land or farm homestead as provided in this subdivision; and

(4) the offer to the immediately preceding former owner has terminated.

(i) The right of an immediately preceding former owner to receive an offer to lease or purchase agricultural land under this subdivision or to lease or purchase at a price no higher than the highest price offered by a third party that is acceptable to the seller or lessor may be extinguished or limited by an express statement signed by the immediately preceding owner that complies with the plain language requirements of section 325G.31. The right may not be extinguished or limited except by the express statement in a deed in lieu of foreclosure or in a deed in lieu of a termination of a contract for deed for the agricultural land.

(j) The right of an immediately preceding former owner to receive an offer to lease or purchase agricultural land under this subdivision may not be assigned or transferred, but may be inherited.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 500.24, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [NOTICE OF OFFER.] (a) The state, a federal agency, or a corporation subject to subdivision 6 must provide a notice of an offer to sell or lease agricultural land substantially as follows, after inserting the appropriate terms within the parentheses:

(b) For an offer to sell, a copy of the purchase agreement containing the price and terms of the highest offer made by a third party that is acceptable to the seller must be included with the notice under this subdivision. At the seller's discretion, reference to the third party's identity may be deleted from the copy of the purchase agreement.

Sec. 4. [550.42] [WAIVER OF AGRICULTURAL DEBTOR'S RIGHTS.]

Subdivision 1. [WAIVER IS VOID.] (a) A waiver of statutory rights of a debtor in a contract, loan agreement, or security agreement as a condition for a loan of money for agricultural production is void.

(b) A waiver of mediation rights under chapter 583, the right to an offer under section 500.24, subdivision 6, or the debtor's statutory rights under chapter 580, 581, or 582 for a mortgage on agricultural property, is void unless the waiver is expressly authorized by law.

Subd. 2. [PENALTY.] A person, corporation, financial institution, or other legal entity is liable to a debtor for up to $2,500 plus attorney fees that:

(1) requires a waiver subject to subdivision 1 in a contract, loan agreement, or security agreement, and does not acknowledge that the waiver subject to subdivision 1 is void; or

(2) attempts to enforce a waiver that is void under subdivision 1.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 582.041, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [NOTIFICATION OF HOMESTEAD DESIGNATION.] If a mortgage on real property is foreclosed and the property contains a portion of the a homestead of the mortgagor, the mortgagor person in possession of the real property must be notified by the foreclosing mortgagee that the homestead may be sold and redeemed separately from the remaining property. The notice in subdivision 2 must be included in served with the notice of foreclosure that is served on the mortgagor under person in possession of the real property with the requirements in section ~~580.04~~ 580.03 or for a foreclosure by action under chapter 581, in the summons and complaint served on the person in possession of the real property.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 582.041, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [HOMESTEAD DESIGNATION NOTICE.] (a) The following notice must be ~~included in~~ served with the foreclosure notice of property containing a homestead that is served on the ~~mortgagor~~ person in possession of the real property under section ~~580.04~~ 580.03. The notice must be in 10-point capitalized letters.

"IF PART OF THE PROPERTY TO BE SOLD CONTAINS YOUR HOUSE-, YOU MAY DESIGNATE AN AREA AS A HOMESTEAD TO BE SOLD AND REDEEMED SEPARATELY.

YOU MAY DESIGNATE THE HOUSE YOU OCCUPY AND ANY AMOUNT OF THE PROPERTY AS A HOMESTEAD. THE DESIGNATED HOMESTEAD PROPERTY MUST CONFORM TO THE LOCAL ZONING ORDINANCES AND BE COMPACT SO THAT IT DOES NOT UNREASONABLY REDUCE THE VALUE OF THE REMAINING PROPERTY.

YOU MUST PROVIDE THE PERSON FORECLOSING ON THE PROPERTY, THE SHERIFF AND THE COUNTY RECORDER WITH A COPY OF THE LEGAL DESCRIPTION OF THE HOMESTEAD YOU HAVE DESIGNATED BY TEN BUSINESS DAYS BEFORE THE DATE THE PROPERTY IS TO BE SOLD."

(b) The following notice must be served with the summons and complaint in an action to foreclose a mortgage of property containing a homestead under chapter 581. The notice must be in 10-point capitalized letters and is not to be published with the summons if the summons is published.

(b) The following notice must be served with the summons and complaint in an action to foreclose a mortgage of real property containing separate tracts under chapter 581. The notice must be in 10-point capitalized letters and is not to be published with the summons if the summons is published.

YOU MUST PROVIDE THE COURT WITH A COPY OF THE LEGAL DESCRIPTIONS OF EACH OF THE TRACTS YOU HAVE DESIGNATED TO BE SOLD SEPARATELY."

Subd. 3. [DESIGNATION OF SEPARATE TRACTS.] The person being foreclosed must designate legal descriptions of each of the tracts to be sold separately. The tracts designated must be previously recorded as separate tracts. Each of the separate tracts must conform to local zoning ordinances, must have an entrance by direct access to a public road or by permanent easement, and must not unreasonably affect the value of the remaining property. The person being foreclosed must serve a copy of the legal descriptions of the tracts to be sold separately on the foreclosing mortgagee, the sheriff, and the county recorder or registrar of titles by ten business days before the sale is scheduled, or for a foreclosure by action under chapter 581, a copy of the legal descriptions of the tracts to be sold separately must be provided to the court.

Subd. 4. [SALE OF PROPERTY.] If the sheriff receives a designation of separate tracts under subdivision 3, or is ordered by the court, the sheriff must offer and sell the tracts separately.

Subd. 5. [REDEMPTION.] The designated tracts may be redeemed separately or the entire foreclosed property may be redeemed. The period of redemption is the period for the entire property including all of the designated tracts.

Sec. 10. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This act is effective July 1, 1987, except: sections 1, 2, and 3 apply to offers made under section 500.24, subdivision 6, after August 1, 1987; section 4, subdivision 1, is effective the day after final enactment; section 4, subdivision 2, applies to contracts, loan agreements, and security agreements entered into after July 1, 1987; and sections 5 to 9 apply to foreclosures where the first publication occurs on or after July 1, 1987, and to foreclosures under chapter 581 where the first service or publication occurs on or after July 1, 1987."

And when so amended the bill do pass and be re-referred to the Committee on Judiciary. Amendments adopted. Report adopted.

Mr. Solon from the Committee on Commerce, to which was referred

S.F. No. 751: A bill for an act relating to financial institutions; savings and loan associations; authorizing the deposit of trust funds received by real estate brokers or salespersons in savings and loan associations; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 51A.23, subdivision 1; 82.24, subdivisions 1, 2, and 6.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Page 2, after line 12, insert:

"Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 52.04, is amended to read:
52.04 [POWERS.]

Subdivision 1. A credit union has the following powers:

(1) to offer its members and other credit unions various classes of shares, share certificates, deposits, or deposit certificates;

(2) to receive the savings of its members either as payment on shares or as deposits, including the right to conduct Christmas clubs, vacation clubs, and other thrift organizations within its membership. Trust funds received by a real estate broker or the broker's salespersons in trust may be deposited in a credit union;

(3) to make loans to members for provident or productive purposes as provided in section 52.16;

(4) to make loans to a cooperative society or other organization having membership in the credit union;

(5) to deposit in state and national banks and trust companies authorized to receive deposits;

(6) to invest in any investment legal for savings banks or for trust funds in the state and, notwithstanding clause (3), to invest in and make loans of unsecured days funds (federal funds or similar unsecured loans) to financial institutions insured by an agency of the federal government and a member of the Federal Reserve System or required to maintain reserves at the Federal Reserve;

(7) to borrow money as hereinafter indicated;

(8) to adopt and use a common seal and alter the same at pleasure;

(9) to make payments on shares of and deposit with any other credit union chartered by this or any other state or operating under the provisions of the federal Credit Union Act, in amounts not exceeding in the aggregate 25 percent of its unimpaired assets. However, payments on shares of and deposit with credit unions chartered by other states are restricted to credit unions insured by the National Credit Union Administration. The restrictions imposed by this clause do not apply to share accounts and deposit accounts of the Minnesota corporate credit union in United States central credit union or to share accounts and deposit accounts of credit unions in the Minnesota corporate credit union;

(10) to contract with any licensed insurance company or society to insure the lives of members to the extent of their share accounts, in whole or in part, and to pay all or a portion of the premium therefor;

(11) to indemnify each director, officer, or committee member, or former director, officer, or committee member against all expenses, including attorney's fees but excluding amounts paid pursuant to a judgment or settlement agreement, reasonably incurred in connection with or arising out of any action, suit, or proceeding to which that person is a party by reason of being or having been a director, officer, or committee member of the credit union, except with respect to matters as to which that person is finally adjudged in the action, suit, or proceeding to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of duties. The indemnification is not exclusive of any other rights to which that person may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of members, or otherwise;

(12) upon written authorization from a member, retained at the credit union, to make payments to third parties by withdrawals from the member's share or deposit accounts or through proceeds of loans made to such member, or by permitting the credit union to make those payments from the member's funds prior to deposit; to permit draft withdrawals from member accounts, but a credit union proposing to permit draft withdrawals shall notify the commissioner of commerce, in the form prescribed, of its intent not less than 90 days prior to authorizing draft withdrawals. The board of directors of a credit union may restrict one class of shares to the extent that it may not be redeemed, withdrawn, or transferred except upon termination of membership in the credit union;

(13) to inform its members as to the availability of various group purchasing plans which are related to the promotion of thrift or the borrowing of money for provident and productive purposes by means of informational materials placed in the credit union's office, through its publications, or by direct mailings to members by the credit union;

(14) to facilitate its members' voluntary purchase of types of insurance incidental to promotion of thrift or the borrowing of money for provident and productive purposes including, but not limited to the following types of group or individual insurance: Fire, theft, automobile, life and temporary disability; to be the policy holder of a group insurance plan or a subgroup under a master policy plan and to disseminate information to its members concerning the insurance provided thereunder; to remit premiums to an insurer or the holder of a master policy on behalf of a credit union member, if the credit union obtains written authorization from the member for remittance by share or deposit withdrawals or through proceeds of loans made by the members, or by permitting the credit union to make the payments from the member's funds prior to deposit; and to accept from the insurer reimbursement for expenses incurred or in the case of credit life and accident and health insurance within the meaning of chapter 62B commissions for the handling of the insurance. The amount reimbursed or the commissions received may constitute the general income of the credit union. The directors, officers, committee members and employees of a credit union shall not profit on any insurance sale facilitated through the credit unions;

(15) to contract with another credit union to furnish services which either could otherwise perform. Contracted services under this clause are subject to regulation and examination by the commissioner of commerce like other services;

(16) in furtherance of the twofold purpose of promoting thrift among its members and creating a source of credit for them at legitimate rates of interest for provident purposes, and not in limitation of the specific powers hereinbefore conferred, to have all the powers enumerated, authorized, and permitted by this chapter, and such other rights, privileges and powers incidental to, or necessary for, the accomplishment of the objectives and purposes of the credit union;

(17) to rent safe deposit boxes to its members if the credit union obtains adequate insurance or bonding coverage for losses which might result from the rental of safe deposit boxes;

(18) notwithstanding the provisions of section 52.05, to accept deposits of public funds in an amount secured by insurance or other means pursuant to chapter 118;

(19) to accept and maintain treasury tax and loan accounts of the United States and to pledge collateral to secure the treasury tax or loan accounts, in accordance with the regulations of the Department of Treasury of the United States;

(20) to accept deposits pursuant to section 149.12, notwithstanding the provisions of section 52.05, if the deposits represent funding of prepaid funeral plans of members;

(21) to sell, in whole or in part, real estate secured loans provided that:

- (a) the loan is secured by a first lien;
- (b) the board of directors approves the sale;
- (c) if the sale is partial, the agreement to sell a partial interest shall, at a minimum:
 - (i) identify the loan or loans covered by the agreement;
 - (ii) provide for the collection, processing, remittance of payments of principal and interest, taxes and insurance premiums and other charges or escrows, if any;

(iii) define the responsibilities of each party in the event the loan becomes subject to collection, loss or foreclosure;

(iv) provide that in the event of loss, each owner shall share in the loss in proportion to its interest in the loan or loans;

(v) provide for the distribution of payments of principal to each owner proportionate to its interest in the loan or loans;

(vi) provide for loan status reports;

(vii) state the terms and conditions under which the agreement may be terminated or modified; and

(d) the sale is without recourse or repurchase unless the agreement:

(i) requires repurchase of a loan because of any breach of warranty or misrepresentation;

(ii) allows the seller to repurchase at its discretion; or

(iii) allows substitution of one loan for another;

(22) in addition to the sale of loans secured by a first lien on real estate, to sell, pledge, discount, or otherwise dispose of, in whole or in part, to any source, a loan or group of loans, other than a self-replenishing line of credit; provided, that within a calendar year beginning January 1 the total dollar value of loans sold, other than loans secured by real estate or insured by a state or federal agency, shall not exceed 25 percent of the dollar amount of all loans and participating interests in loans held by the credit union at the beginning of the calendar year, unless otherwise authorized in writing by the commissioner;

(23) to designate the par value of the shares of the credit union by board resolution;

(24) to exercise by resolution the powers set forth in United States Code, title 12, section 1757, as amended through August 1, 1985. Before exercising each power, the board must submit a plan to the commissioner of commerce detailing implementation of the power to be used;

(25) To offer self-directed individual retirement accounts and Keough accounts and act as custodian and trustee of these accounts if:

(1) all contributions of funds are initially made to a deposit, share or share certificate account in the credit union;

(2) any subsequent transfer of funds to other assets is solely at the direction of the member and the credit union exercises no investment discretion and provides no investment advice with respect to plan assets; and

(3) the member is clearly notified of the fact that National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund coverage is limited to funds held in deposit, share or share certificate accounts of National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund-insured credit unions.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 82.17, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. "Trust account" means, for purposes of this chapter, a savings account, negotiable order of withdrawal account, demand deposit or check- ing account maintained for the purpose of segregating trust funds from other funds. A trust account shall not be an interest bearing account except by agreement of the parties and subject to rules of the commissioner, and shall not allow the financial institution a right of set off against moneys owed it by the licensee."

"Subd. 2. [DETERMINATION OF DISCRIMINATORY PRACTICE.] The ~~hearing examiner~~ administrative law judge shall make findings of fact and conclusions of law, and if the ~~hearing examiner~~ administrative law judge finds that the respondent has engaged in an unfair discriminatory practice, the ~~hearing examiner~~ administrative law judge shall issue an order directing the respondent to cease and desist from the unfair discriminatory practice found to exist and to take such affirmative action as in the judgment of the ~~examiner~~ administrative law judge will effectuate the purposes of this chapter. ~~Such~~ The order shall be a final decision of the department. The ~~examiner~~ administrative law judge shall order any respondent found to be in violation of any provision of section 363.03 to pay a civil penalty to the state. This penalty is in addition to compensatory and punitive damages to be paid to an aggrieved party. The ~~hearing examiner~~ administrative law judge shall determine the amount of the civil penalty to be paid, taking into account the seriousness and extent of the violation, the public harm occasioned by the violation, whether the violation was intentional, and the financial resources of the respondent. Any penalties imposed under this provision shall be paid into the general fund of the state. In all cases where the ~~examiner~~ administrative law judge finds that the respondent has engaged in an unfair discriminatory practice the ~~examiner~~ administrative law judge shall order the respondent to pay an aggrieved party, who has suffered discrimination, compensatory damages in an amount up to three times the actual damages sustained. In all cases, the ~~examiner~~ administrative law judge may also order the respondent to pay an aggrieved party, who has suffered discrimination, damages for mental anguish or suffering and reasonable attorney's fees, in addition to punitive damages in an amount not more than $6,000. Punitive damages shall be awarded pursuant to section 549.20. In any case where a political subdivision is a respondent the total of punitive damages awarded an aggrieved party may not exceed $6,000 and in that case if there are two or more respondents the punitive damages may be apportioned among them. Punitive damages may only be assessed against a political subdivision in its capacity as a corporate entity and no regular or ex officio member of a governing body of a political subdivision shall be personally liable for payment of punitive damages pursuant to this subdivision. In addition to the aforesaid remedies, in a case involving discrimination in

(a) employment, the ~~examiner~~ administrative law judge may order the hiring, reinstatement or upgrading of an aggrieved party, who has suffered discrimination, with or without back pay, admission or restoration to membership in a labor organization, or admission to or participation in an apprenticeship training program, on-the-job training program, or other re-training program, or any other relief the ~~examiner~~ administrative law judge deems just and equitable.

(b) housing, the ~~examiner~~ administrative law judge may order the sale, lease, or rental of the housing accommodation or other real property to an aggrieved party, who has suffered discrimination, or the sale, lease or rental of a like accommodation or other real property owned by or under the control of the person against whom the complaint was filed, according to terms as listed with a real estate broker, or if no such listing has been made, as otherwise advertised or offered by the vendor or lessor, or any other relief the ~~examiner~~ administrative law judge deems just and equitable.

The ~~examiner~~ administrative law judge shall cause the findings of fact, conclusions of law, and order to be served on the respondent personally, on the charging party by registered or certified mail, and shall furnish copies to the attorney general and the commissioner.

Subd. 3. [DISMISSAL OF HEARING.] If the ~~examiner~~ administrative law judge makes findings of fact, conclusions of law, and an order in favor of the respondent, ~~such~~ the order shall be a final decision of the department.

Subd. 4. [RESPONDENTS SUBJECT TO STATE LICENSING OR REGULATORY POWER.] In the case of a respondent which is subject to the licensing or regulatory power of the state or any political subdivision or agency thereof, if the ~~hearing examiner~~ administrative law judge determines that the respondent has engaged in a discriminatory practice, and if the respondent does not cease to engage in such discriminatory practice, the commissioner may so certify to the licensing or regulatory agency. Unless such determination of discriminatory practice is reversed in the course of judicial review, a final determination is binding on the licensing or regulatory agency. Such agency may take appropriate administrative action, including suspension or revocation of the respondent's license or certificate of public convenience and necessity, if ~~such~~ the agency is otherwise authorized to take such action.

Subd. 5. [PUBLIC CONTRACTS.] In the case of a respondent which is a party to a public contract, if the ~~hearing examiner~~ administrative law judge determines that the respondent has engaged in a discriminatory practice, the commissioner may so certify to the contract letting agency. Unless ~~such~~ the finding of a discriminatory practice is reversed in the course of judicial review, a final determination is binding on the contract letting agency and ~~such~~ the agency may take appropriate administrative action, including the imposition of financial penalties or termination of the contract, in whole or in part, if ~~such~~ the agency is otherwise authorized to take ~~such~~ the action."

On motion of Mr. Moe, R.D., the report of the Committee of the Whole, as kept by the Secretary, was adopted.

Without objection, the Senate reverted to the Order of Business of Reports of Committees.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Willet from the Committee on Environment and Natural Resources, to which was referred

S.F. No. 776: A bill for an act relating to natural resources; creating the state board of water and soil resources and providing for its administration and powers and duties; abolishing the state soil and water conservation board and the water resources board; amending the duties of the environmental quality board; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 40.01, subdivision 4; 40.03, subdivision 4; 40.035, subdivision 2; 40.21, subdivisions 1 and 3; 40.43, subdivision 1; 105.73; 110B.02, subdivision 2; 112.35, subdivision 4; 116C.03, subdivision 2; 473.876, by adding a subdivision; 473.877, subdivision 2; 473.8771, subdivisions 1 and 2; and 473.878, subdivisions 7 and 8; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 110B; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 40.03, subdivisions 1, 1a, 2, and 3; 105.71; 116C.40, subdivision 3; and 116C.41, subdivision 2.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 40.01, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [~~STATE BOARD OR STATE SOIL AND WATER CONSERVATION BOARD OF WATER AND SOIL RESOURCES.~~] "State board" or "~~state soil and water conservation board of water and soil resources~~" means the agency created in section ~~40.03~~ 9.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 40.03, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [~~POWERS AND DUTIES.~~] In addition to the powers and duties hereinafter conferred upon the ~~state soil and water conservation board by section 9~~, it shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) ~~Prepare and present to the commissioner of agriculture a budget to finance the activities of the state board and the districts and to administer any law appropriating funds to districts. The board shall~~ Receive and disburse any grants made available to the state by the United States Department of Agriculture under the preferred program developed under United States Code, title 16, sections 2001 to 2009;

(2) Offer any appropriate assistance to the supervisors of the districts in implementing any of their powers and programs. Any funds made available to a district for expenditures necessary for the operations of the district shall be a grant to the district to be used only for purposes authorized by the state board pursuant to law. The soil and water conservation district may designate the board of county commissioners to act as the agent of the district to receive and expend these funds at the direction and with the approval of the board of supervisors of the district. At least annually the state board shall audit, in a manner it prescribes, the expenditure of funds so granted;

(3) Keep the supervisors of each district informed of the activities and experience of all other districts and facilitate cooperation and an interchange of advice and experience among the districts;

(4) Coordinate the programs and activities of the districts with appropriate agencies by advice and consultation;

(5) Approve or disapprove the plans or programs of districts relating to the use of state funds administered by the state board;

(6) Secure the cooperation and assistance of the appropriate agencies in the work of the districts and to develop a program to advise and assist appropriate agencies in obtaining state and federal funds for erosion, sedimentation, flooding and agriculturally related pollution control programs;

(7) Develop and implement a comprehensive public information program concerning the districts' activities and programs, the problems and preventive practices of erosion, sedimentation, agriculturally related pollution, flood prevention, and the advantages of formation of districts in areas where their organization is desirable;

(8) Subdivide and consolidate districts without a hearing or a referendum so as to confine districts within county limits, provided that no district, when feasible and practicable, shall contain less than four full or fractional congressional townships;

(9) Assist in the implementation of a statewide program for inventorying and classification of the types of soils throughout the state as determined by the Minnesota cooperative soil survey;

(10) Identify research needs and cooperate with other public agencies in research concerning the nature and extent of erosion, sedimentation, flooding and agriculturally related pollution, the amounts and sources of sediment and pollutants delivered to the waters of the state, and long-term soil productivity;

(11) Develop programs to reduce or prevent soil erosion, sedimentation, flooding and agriculturally related pollution, including but not limited to structural and land-use management practices;

(12) Develop a system of priorities within the state to identify the erosion, flooding, sediment and agriculturally related pollution problem areas that are most severely in need of control systems; and

(13) Ensure compliance with statewide programs and policies established by the state board pursuant to this section and section 40.02 by advice, consultation, and approval of grant agreements with the districts.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 40.035, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. For the purpose of developing the program plan, the state board may request any existing pertinent information from any state agency pursuant to section 40.03, subdivision 2, and may conduct any hearing it deems necessary.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 40.21, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [RULES AND MODEL ORDINANCE AS GUIDE.] The ~~commissioner~~ board of agriculture water and soil resources, in consultation with counties, soil and water conservation districts, and other appropriate agencies, shall adopt a model ordinance and rules that serve as a guide for local governments to carry out the provisions of Laws 1985, chapter 256, sections 12 to 22 and sections 40.20 to 40.26, and provide administrative procedures for the ~~state soil and water conservation~~ board for Laws 1985, chapter 256, sections 12 to 21 and sections 40.20 to 40.26.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 40.21, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PERIODIC REVIEW.] At least once every five years the ~~commissioner of agriculture~~ board shall review the rules and model ordinance in cooperation with counties, soil and water conservation districts, and appropriate agencies to ensure their continued applicability and relevance.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 40.43, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT OF PROGRAM.] The commissioner of agriculture, in consultation with the commissioner of natural resources, shall establish and administer a conservation reserve program. The commissioner of agriculture shall contract with the board of water and soil resources to implement sections 40.40 to 40.44. Selection of land for the conservation reserve program must be based on its potential for fish and wildlife production, reducing erosion, and protecting water quality.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 105.73, is amended to read:

105.73 [DEFINITIONS.]

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 110B.02, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [BOARD.] "Board" means the board of water and soil resources board.

Sec. 9. [110B.35] [BOARD OF WATER AND SOIL RESOURCES.]

Subdivision 1. [BOARD ESTABLISHED; MEMBERS.] The board of water and soil resources is established as an agency of the state to perform the functions conferred upon it by law. The board is composed of 15 voting members who must be conversant with water and soil problems and conditions within the state and who may not be officers or employees of the state or federal government. The board shall be appointed in accordance with this section. The members shall not be considered public officers of the state for the purposes of section 112.37, subdivision 1a. The membership of the board shall be as follows:

- (1) three county commissioners;
- (2) seven soil and water conservation district supervisors;
- (3) three watershed district managers or watershed management organization representatives;
- (4) two citizens who are not employed by, or the appointed or elected official of, any governmental office, board, or agency; and
- (5) a chair.

Subd. 2. [MEMBER DISTRIBUTION.] Members shall be distributed across the state with at least the number of members from each of the following areas:

- (1) one member from the Red River basin;
- (2) one member from the Rainy River-Lake Superior tributaries basin;
- (3) one member from the Upper Mississippi-Si. Croix basin;
- (4) one member from the Minnesota-Missouri-Des Moines rivers basin;
- (5) one member from watersheds tributary to the Mississippi River south of its confluence with the Minnesota River;
- (6) three members from the metropolitan area, as defined by section 473.121, subdivision 2;
- (7) seven members, one from each of the current soil and water conservation administrative regions; and
- (8) the chair from at large.

Subd. 3. [EX OFFICIO NONVOTING MEMBERS.] The following agencies shall each provide one nonvoting member to the board:

- (1) environmental quality board;
- (2) department of agriculture;
- (3) department of health;
- (4) department of natural resources;
- (5) Minnesota geological survey;
- (6) pollution control agency; and
- (7) institute of agriculture of the University of Minnesota.

Subd. 4. [NOMINEES.] All voting members must be appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate. In making the appointments, the governor may consider persons recommended by the association of Minnesota counties, the Minnesota association of soil and water conservation districts, and the Minnesota association of watershed districts, respectively. The list submitted by an association shall contain at least three nominees for the position to be filled.

Subd. 5. [TERMS; COMPENSATION; REMOVAL; VACANCIES.] Except as provided in this subdivision, the membership terms, compensation, removal of members and filling of vacancies on the board for the members specified in subdivision 1 shall be as provided in section 15.0575. The chair shall be appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate.

Subd. 6. [EMPLOYEES.] The board may employ permanent and temporary technical and professional personnel, agents, and employees, and shall determine their qualifications and duties. Compensation of employees shall be determined in accordance with chapter 43A. The board may prescribe the powers and duties of its officers and employees and may delegate to its employees or members any of the board's powers and duties.

Subd. 7. [OFFICERS; QUORUM; RECORDS; AUDIT.] The board shall elect a vice-chair and any other officers that it considers necessary from its membership. A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum, and concurrence of a majority in any matter within its jurisdiction is required for the board to act on that matter. The board shall keep a full and accurate record of its official actions. The board may hold public hearings and adopt rules necessary to execute its duties provided in law.

Subd. 8. [ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES.] The board shall contract with the commissioner of agriculture who shall make available administrative services and office space necessary for the administration and coordination of its functions.

Subd. 9. [POWERS AND DUTIES.] In addition to the powers and duties prescribed elsewhere, the board has the following powers and duties:

(1) coordinate the water and soil resources planning activities of counties, soil and water conservation districts, watershed districts, and any other local units of government through its various authorities for approval of local plans, administration of state grants, and by other means as may be appropriate;

(2) facilitate communication and coordination among state agencies in cooperation with the environmental quality board, and between state and local units of government, in order to make the expertise and resources of state agencies involved in water and soil resources management available to the local units of government to the greatest extent possible;

(3) coordinate state and local interests with respect to the study in southwestern Minnesota under Public Law Number 87-639;

(4) develop information and education programs designed to increase awareness of local water and soil resources problems and awareness of opportunities for local government involvement in preventing or solving them;

(5) provide a forum for the discussion of local issues and opportunities relating to water and soil resources management;

(6) adopt an annual budget and work program that integrates the various functions and responsibilities assigned to it by law; and

(7) report to the governor and the legislature by October 15 of each even-numbered year with an assessment of board programs and recommendations for any program changes and board membership changes necessary to improve state and local efforts in water and soil resources management.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 112.35, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. "Board" means the ~~Minnesota water resources~~ board of water and soil resources established by section ~~105.74~~ 9.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116C.03, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The board shall include as members the director of the state planning agency, the director of the pollution control agency, the commissioner of natural resources, the commissioner of agriculture, the commissioner of health, the commissioner of transportation, the chair of the board of water and soil resources, and a representative of the governor's office designated by the governor. The governor shall appoint five members from the general public to the board, subject to the advice and consent of the senate. At least two of the five public members shall have knowledge of and be conversant in water management issues in the state.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.876, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [BOARD.] "Board," unless the context indicates otherwise, means the board of water and soil resources created in section 9.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.877, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REVIEW OF WATERSHED BOUNDARIES.] Before commencing planning under section 473.878, a watershed management organization established pursuant to section 471.59 and this section shall submit a map delineating the boundaries of the watershed to the ~~water resources~~ board of water and soil resources for review and comment on the conformance of the boundaries with the requirements of sections 473.875 to 473.883. The board shall have 60 days to comment.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.8771, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [BOUNDARY CHANGE.] The boundaries of a watershed district wholly within the metropolitan area may be changed pursuant to this subdivision or chapter 112. The governing board of a watershed management organization may petition the ~~water resources~~ board of water and soil resources for an order changing the boundaries of a watershed district wholly within the metropolitan area, either by adding new territory to the district or by transferring territory that is within the district to the jurisdiction of another watershed management organization. The petition must:

(a) describe with particularity the change in boundary requested, the territory affected, and the reasons for the change;

(b) show that the change is consistent with the purposes and requirements of sections 473.875 to 473.883; and

(c) identify any property subject to subdivision 3.

The petition must be accompanied by a written statement of concurrence in the petition from the governing body of each statutory or home rule charter city and town and each watershed management organization having jurisdiction over the territory proposed to be added or transferred. Upon the filing of a sufficient petition, the ~~water resources~~ board shall give notice of the filing of the petition by publication once each week for two successive weeks in a legal newspaper in each county affected and by mail to the county auditor of each county affected and to the chief official of each statutory or home rule charter city and township affected. The notice must describe the action proposed by the petition and invite written comments on the petition for consideration by the board. The notice must announce that any person who objects to the action proposed in the petition may submit a written request for hearing to the board within 20 days of the last publication of the notice of the filing of the petition and that if no timely request for hearing is received the board will make a decision on the petition pursuant to this subdivision without conducting the public hearing required under chapter 112. If no timely request for hearing is received the board shall make a decision on the petition without a hearing within 30 days after the last publication of the notice. If one or more timely requests for hearing are received the board shall hold a hearing on the petition and shall follow the procedures in chapter 112 regarding notice and conduct of hearings. After completing the procedures required by this subdivision, the board shall, by its findings and order, make the boundary change requested if the board determines that:

- (a) (i) the governing body of each statutory or home rule charter city and town and each watershed management organization having jurisdiction over the territory proposed to be added or transferred concurs in the petition,
- (b) (ii) the change is consistent with the purposes and requirements of sections 473.875 to 473.883, and
- (c) (iii) the change can be accomplished in conformance with subdivision 3.

The board shall file a certified copy of the findings and order with the secretary of state. The order making the change must conform to subdivision 3. The order making the change may amend the order prescribing the distribution of managers of the district.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.8771, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [TERMINATION.] A watershed district wholly within the metropolitan area may be terminated pursuant to this subdivision or chapter 112. Proceedings for termination under this subdivision must be initiated by a petition to the ~~water resources~~ board of water and soil resources filed jointly by the governing bodies of all statutory and home rule charter cities and towns having jurisdiction over territory within the watershed. Upon the filing of a sufficient petition, the board shall hold a hearing in accordance with the procedures prescribed in chapter 112, to take testimony on the determinations required to be made by the board. Following the hearing, the board shall, by its findings and order, terminate the district as requested if the board determines:

- (a) that the local units of government having jurisdiction over territory within the watershed have formed a joint powers organization for the watershed pursuant to section 473.877,
- (b) that upon termination of the district the members of the joint powers organization, jointly or severally, are willing and able to assume ownership of the district's assets and the responsibility for managing and maintaining the district's projects as necessary to accomplish the purposes of sections 473.875 to 473.883 and to implement the watershed plan of the joint powers organization to be developed pursuant to section 473.878, and

(c) that the termination can be accomplished in conformance with subdivision 3.

The board shall file a certified copy of the findings and order with the secretary of state. The order terminating the district must transfer the assets of the district to the joint powers organization or its members. The order must conform to subdivision 3.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.878, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [REVIEW BY STATE AGENCIES.] After completion of the review under subdivision 6, the plan shall be submitted to the commissioner of natural resources and the pollution control agency for review and comment on the consistency of the plan with state laws and rules relating to water and related land resources, and to the ~~water resources~~ board of water and soil resources for review under section 112.46. Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, the ~~water resources~~ board of water and soil resources shall review the plan as provided in section 112.46. The board shall review the plan for conformance with the requirements of chapter 112 and sections 473.875 to 473.883. The board shall not prescribe a plan, but may disapprove all or parts of a plan which it determines is not in conformance with the requirements of chapter 112 and sections 473.875 to 473.883. If the capital improvement program is the subject of a dispute between counties, the ~~water resources~~ board of water and soil resources shall make a final decision on the issue. The decision shall be binding on the organization and the counties involved.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.878, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [ADOPTION; IMPLEMENTATION.] The organization shall adopt and implement its plan within 120 days after compliance with the provisions of subdivision 7 and approval of the plan by the ~~water resources~~ board of water and soil resources. A watershed district may implement its approved plan and approved capital improvement program by resolution of the majority of the board of managers and without respect to the provisions of chapter 112 requiring the managers to wait upon petitions for projects, to submit projects for review by the ~~water resources~~ board of water and soil resources, and to limit the cost and purposes of projects.

Sec. 18. [MEMBERSHIP; COMPLEMENT OF BOARD.]

Subdivision 1. [TRANSFER OF EMPLOYEES.] All classified and unclassified state employees of the state soil and water conservation board and the water resources board may be transferred to the board of water and soil resources.

Sec. 19. [INSTRUCTION TO REVISOR.]

The revisor of statutes shall change the words "state soil and water conservation board," "water resources board," "water policy or other board," language intended to refer to those boards, wherever they appear in Minnesota Statutes to "board of water and soil resources" or other appropriate language to refer to the board of water and soil resources created in section 9.

Sec. 20. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 40.03, subdivisions 1, 1a, 2, and 3; 105.71; 116C.40, subdivision 3; and 116C.41, subdivision 2, are repealed."

And when so amended the bill do pass and be re-referred to the Committee on Agriculture.

Mr. Moe, R.D. moved the adoption of the foregoing Committee Report. The motion prevailed. Amendments adopted. Report adopted.

Referred to the Committee on Health and Human Services.

H.F. No. 1119: A bill for an act relating to state lands; permitting the sale of certain land in St. Louis county.

Referred to the Committee on Rules and Administration for comparison with S.F. No. 1005.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Moe, R.D. moved that the Committee Reports at the Desk be now adopted, with the exception of the reports on S.F. Nos. 11 and 929. The motion prevailed.

Mr. Spear from the Committee on Judiciary, to which was referred

S.F. No. 349: A bill for an act relating to conciliation courts; providing for entry of judgment; providing for vacation of default judgment in certain circumstances; providing for time limitation and service by mail on removal to county court; allowing a party to proceed without payment of a filing fee; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 487.30, by adding subdivisions.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill do pass. Report adopted.

Mr. Willet from the Committee on Environment and Natural Resources, to which was referred

S.F. No. 461: A bill for an act relating to natural resources; changing certain provisions relating to the sale of state timber; eliminating laws relating to white pine blister rust control and cutting notices; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 90.101, subdivision 1; 90.121; 90.14; 90.151, subdivisions 1 and 13; 90.161, subdivision 1; 90.173; and 97A.205; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 18.431 to 18.436 and 88.13.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 88.49, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [CANCELLATION.] Upon the failure of the owner faithfully to fulfill and perform such contract or any provision thereof, or any requirement of sections 88.47 to 88.53, or any rule adopted by the commissioner thereunder, the commissioner may cancel the contract in the manner herein provided. The commissioner shall give to the owner, in the manner prescribed in section 88.48, subdivision 4, 60 days notice of a hearing thereon at which the owner may appear and show cause, if any, why the contract should not be canceled. The commissioner shall thereupon determine whether the contract should be canceled and make an order to that effect. Notice of the commissioner's determination and the making of the order shall be given to the owner in the manner provided in section 88.48, subdivision 4. On determining that the contract should be canceled and no appeal therefrom be taken, the commissioner shall send notice thereof to the auditor of the county and to the town clerk of the town affected and file with the recorder a certified copy of the order, who shall forthwith note the cancellation upon the record thereof, and thereupon the land therein described shall cease to be an auxiliary forest and, together with the timber thereon, become liable to all taxes and assessments that otherwise would have been levied against it had it never been an auxiliary forest from the time of the making of the contract, any provisions of the statutes of limitation to the contrary notwithstanding, less the amount of taxes paid under the provisions of section 88.51, subdivision 1, together with interest on such taxes and assessments at six percent per annum, but without penalties.

The commissioner may in like manner and with like effect cancel the contract upon written application of the owner.

The commissioner shall cancel any contract if the owner has made successful application under sections 270.31 to 270.39 inclusive, the Minnesota tree growth tax law, and has paid to the county treasurer the difference between the amount which would have been paid had the land under contract been subject to the Minnesota tree growth tax law from the date of the filing of the contract and the amount actually paid under section 88.51, subdivisions 1 and 2. If the amount which would have been paid, had the land under contract been under the Minnesota tree growth tax law from the date of the filing of the contract, is less than the amount actually paid under the contract, the cancellation shall be made without further payment by the owner.

When the execution of any contract creating an auxiliary forest shall have been procured through fraud or deception practiced upon the county board or the commissioner or any other person or body representing the state, it may be canceled upon suit brought by the attorney general at the direction of the ~~executive council~~ commissioner. This cancellation shall have the same effect as the cancellation of a contract by the commissioner.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 88.49, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [AUXILIARY FORESTS; WITHDRAWAL OF LAND FROM.] Land needed for other purposes may be withdrawn from an auxiliary forest as herein provided. A verified application therefor in a form prescribed by the commissioner of natural resources may be made by the owner to the county board of the county in which the land is situated, describing the land and stating the purpose of withdrawal. Like proceedings shall be had upon the application as upon an application for the establishment of an auxiliary forest, except that consideration need be given only to the questions to be determined as provided in this subdivision. If the county board shall determine that the land proposed to be withdrawn is needed and is suitable for the purposes set forth in the application, and that the remaining land in the auxiliary forest is suitable and sufficient for the purposes thereof as provided by law, the board may, in its discretion, grant the application, subject to the approval of the commissioner ~~and the executive council~~. Upon such approval a supplemental contract evidencing the withdrawal shall be executed, filed, and recorded or registered as the case may require, in like manner as an original auxiliary forest contract. Thereupon the land described in the supplemental contract shall cease to be part of the auxiliary forest, and, together with the timber thereon, shall be liable to taxes and assessments in like manner as upon cancellation of an auxiliary forest contract.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 88.49, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [AUXILIARY FORESTS; TRANSFER OF TITLE; PROCEDURE ON DIVISION.] The title to the land in an auxiliary forest or any part thereof is subject to transfer in the same manner as the title to other real estate, subject to the auxiliary forest contract therefor and to applicable provisions of law. In case the ownership of such a forest is divided into two or more parts by any transfer or transfers of title and the owners of all such parts desire to have the same made separate auxiliary forests, they may join in a verified application therefor to the county board of the county in which the forest is situated in a form prescribed by the commissioner of natural resources. If the county board determines that each of the parts into which the forest has been divided is suitable and sufficient for a separate auxiliary forest as provided by law, it may, in its discretion, grant the application, subject to the approval of the commissioner ~~and the executive council~~. Upon such approval, the commissioner shall prepare a new auxiliary forest contract for each part transferred, with like provisions and for the remainder of the same term as the prior contract in force for the entire forest at the time of the transfer, and shall also prepare a modification of such prior contract, eliminating therefrom the part or parts of the land transferred but otherwise leaving the remaining land subject to all the provisions of such contract. The new contract or contracts and modification of the prior contract shall be executed and otherwise dealt with in like manner as provided for an original auxiliary forest contract, but no such instrument shall take effect until all of them, covering together all parts of the forest existing before the transfer, have been executed, filed, and recorded or registered, as the case may require. Upon the taking effect of all such instruments, the owner of the forest prior to the transfer shall be divested of all rights and relieved from all liabilities under the contract then in force with respect to the parts transferred except such as may have existed or accrued at the time of the taking effect of such instruments, and thereafter the several tracts into which the forest has been divided and the respective owners thereof shall be subject to the new contract or contracts or the modified prior contract relating thereto, as the case may be, as provided for an original auxiliary forest contract. The provisions of this subdivision shall not supersede or affect the application of any other provision of law to any auxiliary forest which is divided by transfer of title unless the procedure herein authorized is fully consummated.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 90.031, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. ~~The executive council may compromise and settle, with the approval of the attorney general, upon terms as it may deem just, any claim of the state for casual and involuntary trespass upon state lands or timber where the full value of such timber or other materials so taken in trespass exceeds $5,000; provided, that no claim shall be settled for less~~ than the full value of all timber or other materials taken in casual trespass or the full amount of all actual damage or loss suffered by the state as a result. The executive council commissioner may make settlement for not less than the full value of any timber cut by lessees of state lands holding under section 92.50.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 90.041, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The commissioner may compromise and settle, with the approval of the attorney general, upon terms the commissioner deems just, any claim of the state for casual and involuntary trespass upon state lands or timber where the full value of the timber or other materials taken in trespass is $5,000 or less; provided that no claim shall be settled for less than the full value of all timber or other materials taken in casual trespass or the full amount of all actual damage or loss suffered by the state as a result. The commissioner shall advise the executive council of any information acquired by the commissioner concerning any trespass on state lands, giving all details and names of witnesses and all compromises and settlements made under this subdivision.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 90.101, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The commissioner may sell the timber on any tract of state land in lots not exceeding $20,000 in appraised value and may determine the number of sections or fractional sections of land to be covered by any one permit issued to the purchaser of timber on state lands, or in any one contract or other instrument relating thereto. No timber shall be sold, except (1) to the highest bidder at public auction, and or (2) if unsold at public auction the commissioner may offer the timber for private sale for a period of no more than 90 days after the public auction to any person who pays the appraised value for the timber. The minimum price shall be the appraised value as fixed by the report of the state appraiser. All sales shall be held in the county in which the tract is located and no sale shall be held in more than one location on any one day.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 90.14, is amended to read:

90.14 [AUCTION SALE PROCEDURE.]

All state timber shall be offered and sold by the same unit of measurement as it was appraised. The sale shall be made to the party who (1) shall bid the highest price for all the several kinds of timber as advertised, or (2) if unsold at public auction, to the party who purchases at any sale authorized under section 90.101, subdivision 1. The purchaser at any sale of timber shall, immediately upon the approval of the bid, or, if unsold at public auction, at the time of purchase at a subsequent sale under section 90.101, subdivision 1, pay to the commissioner 25 percent of the appraised value. In case any purchaser fails to make such payment, the purchaser shall be liable therefor to the state in a civil action, and the commissioner may reoffer the timber for sale as though no bid or sale under section 90.101, subdivision 1, therefor had been made.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 90.151, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. (a) Following receipt of the down payment for state timber sold at public auction, the commissioner shall issue a numbered permit to the purchaser, in a form approved by the attorney general, by the terms of which the purchaser shall be authorized to enter upon the land, and to cut and remove the timber therein described, according to the provisions of this chapter. The permit shall be correctly dated and executed by the commissioner or agent and signed by the purchaser.

(b) The permit shall expire no later than ~~two~~ three years after the date of sale as the commissioner shall specify, and the timber shall be cut within the time specified therein. All cut timber, equipment, and buildings not removed from the land within 90 days after expiration of the permit shall become the property of the state.

(c) The commissioner may grant an additional period of time not to exceed 120 days for the removal of cut timber, equipment, and buildings upon receipt of such request by the permit holder for good and sufficient reasons. No permit shall be issued to any person other than the purchaser in whose name the bid was made.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 90.151, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [PERMIT EXTENSIONS.] (a) The commissioner may grant extensions of timber permits and contracts for periods as the commissioner deems advisable, provided that:

(1) for permits issued on or after May 15, 1975, and before the effective date of this act, the total of the extensions shall not exceed three years from the date of the expiration of the original permit; and

(2) for permits issued ~~prior to May 15, 1975~~ the total of the extensions and the original permit term shall not exceed ten years from date of issuance of the permit. on or after the effective date of this act, the permit may not be extended more than two one-year periods.

(b) All extensions granted pursuant to this subdivision shall be subject to all the provisions of this chapter.

Subd. 14. [INTEREST ON EXTENSIONS.] (a) The commissioner shall include in each extension a condition that the purchaser shall pay to the state interest at the rate of:

(1) eight percent of the unpaid purchase price for each year of extension ~~or portion thereof for an extension granted under subdivision 13, paragraph (a), clause (1); and~~

(2) ~~five percent the first year of extension and 15 percent the second year of extension for an extension granted under subdivision 13, paragraph (a), clause (2).~~

(b) ~~The interest shall be calculated from the beginning of the extension period to the date of the seasonal scale report of products cut as and computed on:~~

(1) the sale price of the timber cut; or

(2) if not cut, upon the official estimate ~~thereof; however,~~ of the merchantable timber not utilized under the permit.

(c) A purchaser is not required to pay interest totaling $1 or less.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 90.161, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Except as otherwise provided by law the purchaser of any state timber, before any timber permit shall become effective for any purpose, shall within 90 days from the date of purchase give a good and valid bond to the state of Minnesota equal to the value of all timber covered or to be covered by the permit, as shown by the sale price bid therefor and the appraisal report thereof as to quantity, less the amount of any payment pursuant to section 90.14, which bond shall be conditioned upon the faithful performance by the purchaser and successors in interest of all the terms and conditions of the permit and all requirements of law in respect to such sales; and the bond shall be approved in writing by the commissioner and filed for record in the commissioner's office. In the alternative to cash and bond as provided above, but upon the same conditions, a purchaser may post bond for 100 percent of the purchase price and request refund of the amount of any payment pursuant to section 90.14.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 90.173, is amended to read:

90.173 [PURCHASER'S OR ASSIGNEE'S CASH DEPOSIT IN LIEU OF BOND.]

In lieu of filing the bond required by section 90.161 or 90.171, as security for the issuance or assignment of a timber permit the person required to file the bond may deposit with the state treasurer cash, a certified check, a cashier's check, a personal check, a postal, bank, or express money order, assignable bonds or notes of the United States, or an assignment of a bank savings account or investment certificate or an irrevocable bank letter of credit, in the same amount as would be required for a bond. If securities listed in this section are deposited, the par value of the securities shall be not less than the amount required for the timber sale bond, and the person required to file the timber sale bond shall submit an agreement authorizing the commissioner to sell or otherwise take possession of the security in the event of default under the timber sale. All of the conditions of the timber sale bond shall equally apply to the deposit with the state treasurer. In the event of a default the state may take from the deposit the sum of money to which it is entitled; the remainder, if any, shall be returned to the person making the deposit and shall bear interest at the rate determined pursuant to section 549.09 if not returned within 30 days from the date of the default. Sums of money as may be required by the state treasurer to carry out the terms and provisions of this section are appropriated from the general fund to the state treasurer for these purposes. When cash is deposited for a bond, it shall be applied to the amount due when a statement is prepared and transmitted to the permit holder pursuant to section 90.181. Any balance due to the state shall be shown on the statement and shall be paid as provided in section 90.181. Any amount of the deposit in excess of the amount determined to be due pursuant to section 90.181 shall be returned to the permit holder when a final statement is transmitted pursuant to that section. All or part of a cash bond may be withheld from application to an amount due on a nonfinal statement if it appears that the total amount due on the permit will exceed the bid price.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.205, is amended to read:

97A.205 [ENFORCEMENT OFFICER POWERS.]

An enforcement officer is authorized to:

(1) execute and serve court issued warrants and processes relating to wild animals, wild rice, public waters, water pollution, conservation, and use of water, in the same manner as a constable or sheriff;

(2) enter any land to carry out the duties and functions of the division;

(3) make investigations of violations of the game and fish laws;

(4) take an affidavit, if it aids an investigation;

(5) arrest, without a warrant, a person that is detected in the actual violation of the game and fish laws, a provision of chapters 84A, 85, 86A, 88 to 106A, 361, sections 89.51 to 89.61 and ~~18.431 to 18.436~~; or 609.66, subdivision 1, clauses (1), (2), (5), and (7); and 609.68; and

(6) take an arrested person before a court in the county where the offense was committed and make a complaint.

Sec. 13. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 18.431, 18.432, 18.433, 18.434, 18.435, 18.436, and 88.13 are repealed.

Sec. 14. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

S.F. No. 909: A bill for an act relating to natural resources; establishing a state flood hazard mitigation grant program; authorizing grants-in-aid to local government units; appropriating money; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 104.02; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 104.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 84.01, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Subject to the provisions of Laws 1969, chapter 1129, and to other applicable laws the commissioner shall organize the department and employ ~~two~~ three assistant commissioners, ~~both~~ each of whom shall serve at the pleasure of the commissioner in the unclassified service, one of whom shall have responsibility for coordinating and directing the planning of every division within the agency, and such other officers, employees, and agents as the commissioner may deem necessary to discharge the functions of the department, define the duties of such officers, employees, and agents and to delegate to them any of the commissioner's powers, duties, and responsibilities subject to the control of, and under the conditions prescribed by, the commissioner. Appointments to exercise delegated power shall be by written order filed with the secretary of state.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 84.081, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DIRECTORS.] Subject to the commissioner's authority to revise or abolish existing divisions and to establish new divisions, all as prescribed in section 84.083, subdivision 1, the department of natural resources shall be organized with the following divisions: a division of lands and forestry, a division of waters, soils and minerals, a division of game and fish, a division of parks and recreation, and a division of enforcement and field service. Each division shall be under the immediate charge of a director, subject to the supervision and control of the commissioner. The commissioner may place a director's position in the unclassified service if the position meets the criteria established in section 43A.08, subdivision 1a. They shall be chosen with regard to knowledge, training, experience, and ability in administering the work of their respective divisions, and with consideration given to applicable professional registration.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 104.02, is amended to read:

104.02 [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICABILITY.] For the purposes of sections 104.01 to 104.07 and sections 4 and 5, the terms defined in this section have the meanings given them.

Subd. 2. [REGIONAL FLOOD.] "Regional flood" means a flood which is representative of large floods known to have occurred generally in Minnesota and reasonably characteristic of what can be expected to occur on an average frequency in the magnitude of the 100 year recurrence interval.

Subd. 3. [FLOODPLAIN.] "Floodplain" means the areas adjoining a watercourse or water basin which has been or hereafter may be covered by the regional flood.

Subd. 4. [FLOODWAY.] "Floodway" means the channel of the watercourse, the bed of water basins, and those portions of the adjoining floodplains which are reasonably required to carry and discharge, and provide storage for the regional flood.

Subd. 5. [FLOOD FRINGE.] "Flood fringe" means that portion of the floodplain outside of the floodway.

Subd. 6. [LOCAL GOVERNMENTAL UNIT OR LOCAL GOVERNMENT.] "Local governmental unit" or "local government" means a county or, statutory or home rule charter city, town, watershed district, or lake improvement district.

Subd. 7. [COMMISSIONER.] "Commissioner" means the commissioner of natural resources.

Subd. 8. [STRUCTURAL FLOOD MANAGEMENT MEASURES.] "Structural flood management measures" means physical actions taken to modify the behavior and extent of floods and flooding, including the construction of dams, dikes, levees, flood bypass channels, flood storage and retardation structures, and water level control structures, but excluding deepening or straightening of existing stream channels.

Subd. 9. [NONSTRUCTURAL FLOOD MANAGEMENT MEASURES.] "Nonstructural flood management measures" means actions in floodplains designed to reduce the damaging effects of floods on existing and potential users of floodplains, without physically altering the flood behavior. The measures include:

- (1) public acquisition of floodplain lands;*
- (2) relocation of public and private structures and facilities;*
- (3) floodproofing of public and private facilities;*
- (4) installation and operation of flood warning systems and evacuation procedures;*
- (5) adoption and enforcement of land use control ordinances and building codes;*
- (6) installation of signs and other notifications in regional flood areas; and*
- (7) provision of flood insurance and public education.*

Subd. 10. [MITIGATION.] "Mitigation" means the act of alleviating the effects of floods and flooding by moderating or reducing the severe damages resulting from floods through structural and nonstructural flood management measures.

Subd. 11. [MITIGATION MEASURES.] "Mitigation measures" means structural or nonstructural flood management measures, or both.

Subd. 12. [WATERBASIN.] "Waterbasin" has the meaning given it by section 105.37, subdivision 9.

Sec. 4. [104.10] [STATE INVENTORY AND ASSESSMENT.]

The commissioner shall conduct a statewide inventory and flood damage assessment of flood prone structures and lands.

Sec. 5. [104.11] [FLOOD HAZARD MITIGATION GRANTS.]

Subdivision 1. [GRANTS AUTHORIZED.] The commissioner may make grants to local governments to:

(1) conduct floodplain damage reduction studies to determine the most feasible, practical, and effective methods and programs for mitigating the damages due to flooding within flood prone rural and urban areas and their watersheds; and

(2) plan or implement, or both, flood mitigation measures.

Subd. 2. [ACTION ON GRANT APPLICATIONS.] (a) Upon receipt of a request for a grant for less than $75,000 on forms provided by the commissioner, the commissioner shall confer with the local government requesting the grant and may make a grant based on the following considerations:

(1) the extent and effectiveness of mitigation measures already implemented by the local government requesting the grant;

(2) the feasibility, practicability, and effectiveness of the proposed mitigation measures and the associated nonflood related benefits and detriments;

(3) the level of grant assistance that should be provided to the local government, based on available facts regarding the nature, extent, and severity of flood problems;

(4) the frequency of occurrence of severe flooding that has resulted in declaration of the area as a flood disaster area by the president of the United State;

(5) the economic, social, and environmental benefits and detriments of the proposed mitigation measures;

(6) whether the floodplain management ordinance or regulation adopted by the local government meets the minimum standards established by the commissioner, the degree of enforcement of the ordinance or regulation, and whether the local government is complying with the ordinance or regulation;

(7) the degree that the grant request is consistent with local water plans developed under chapters 110B and 112 and sections 473.875 to 473.883;

(8) the financial capabilities of the local government to solve its flood hazard problems without financial assistance; and

(9) the estimated cost and method of financing of the proposed mitigation measures based on local funds and federal and state funding assistance.

(b) If the amount of the grant requested is $75,000 or more, the commissioner shall determine, under the considerations in paragraph (a), whether any part of the grant shall be awarded and submit to the governor and the legislature for funding consideration before each odd-numbered year a list of the grant requests or parts of grant requests of $75,000 or more. The commissioner must prioritize the grant requests, under the considerations in paragraph (a), beginning with the projects the commissioner determines most deserving of financing.

(c) The maximum amount of a grant may not exceed one-half the total cost of the proposed mitigation measures.

(d) After July 1, 1991, grants made under this section may be made to local governments whose grant requests are part of, or responsive to, a comprehensive local water plan prepared under chapter 110B or 112 or sections 473.875 to 473.883.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 105.40, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The director of the division of waters, soils and minerals of the department of natural resources shall be a ~~registered professional engineer, skilled in hydraulics~~ possess the qualifications required of division directors by section 84.081, subdivision 1. Under the direction of the commissioner, the director shall ~~make~~ be responsible for providing the surveys and engineering investigations required by sections 105.37 to 105.55 and shall perform the following duties.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 105.482, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [LIMITATIONS.] If the cost of repair or reconstruction of a state owned dam or a grant to a local governmental unit is less than $75,000 $250,000, the commissioner may direct that the state owned dam be repaired or reconstructed or that a grant be made to repair or reconstruct a dam owned by a local governmental unit ~~without the approval of the state executive council. If the cost of repair or reconstruction of a state owned dam, or a grant to a local governmental unit is $75,000 or more but less than $150,000, the expenditure shall be made only with the approval of the state executive council.~~ If the cost of repair or reconstruction of a state owned dam or a grant to a local governmental unit is ~~$150,000~~ $250,000 or more, the commissioner may recommend the project to the legislature for its consideration and action, except in the following emergency situations. With the approval of the ~~executive council~~ legislative advisory commission on request of the commissioner of finance, the commissioner may direct that a state owned dam be repaired or reconstructed or a grant be made to a local governmental unit where the commissioner determines that an emergency condition exists and that there is danger that life will be lost or that substantial property losses will be suffered if such action is not promptly taken.

Sec. 8. [APPROPRIATION.]

$1,000,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of natural resources for the purposes of sections 4 and 5, to be available until July 1, 1989.

Sec. 9. [COMPLEMENT.]

The approved complement of the department of natural resources is increased by _____ positions.

Sec. 10. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1, 2, and 8 are effective the day following final enactment."

S.F. No. 1092: A bill for an act relating to water; prohibiting the commissioner of natural resources from issuing certain permits or approving certain plans for diversion of water from certain water basins before consultation with state and Canadian officials; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 105.37, by adding subdivisions; 105.405, subdivision 2, and by adding subdivisions; and 105.44, subdivision 4.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 105.37, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 17. "Basin of origin" means waters of the state that originate within the water basins of the Great Lakes, the Red River of the North, the Mississippi River, or the Missouri River.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 105.37, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 18. "Consumptive use" means water that is withdrawn from its source for immediate further use in the area of the source and is not directly returned to the source.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 105.405, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REQUIREMENTS FOR DIVERSION.] No permit authorized by sections 105.37 to 105.55 nor any plan for which that requires a permit or the commissioner's approval is required or permitted, involving a diversion of any waters of the state, surface or underground, in excess of 2,000,000 gallons per day average in any 30-day period, to a place outside of this state or from the basin of origin within this state shall be granted or approved until after (1) a determination by the commissioner that the water remaining in this state the basin of origin will be adequate to meet the state's basin's water resources needs during the specified life of the diversion project; and after (2) approval by the legislature.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 105.405, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [REQUIREMENTS FOR CONSUMPTIVE USE.] No permit authorized by sections 105.37 to 105.55 nor any plan that requires a permit or the commissioner's approval, involving a consumptive use in excess of 2,000,000 gallons per day average in any 30-day period, shall be granted or approved until after (1) a determination by the commissioner that the water remaining in the basin of origin will be adequate to meet the basin's water resources needs during the specified life of the consumptive use; and (2) approval by the legislature.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 105.405, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [REQUIREMENTS FOR GREAT LAKES.] (a) No permit authorized by sections 105.37 to 105.55 nor any plan that requires a permit or the commissioner's approval, involving a diversion or consumptive use of waters of the state from the Great Lakes water basin within Minnesota where the diversion or consumptive use of waters would be in excess of 5,000,000 gallons per day average in any 30-day period, shall be granted or approved until:

(1) the commissioner has notified and solicited comments on the proposed diversion or consumptive use from the offices of the governors of the Great Lakes states and premiers of the Great Lakes provinces, the appropriate water management agencies of the Great Lakes states and provinces, and the international joint commission;

(2) the commissioner has considered the comments and concerns of the offices, agencies, and commission to which notice was given under clause (1); and

(3) approval by the legislature.

(b) If an objection is made to the proposed diversion or consumptive use by an office, agency, or commission to which notice was given under paragraph (a), clause (1), the commissioner will convene a meeting with the affected office, agency or commission to investigate and consider the issues involved, and to seek a mutually agreeable solution to be recommended to the commissioner. In making a final decision on the approval of any permit or plan subject to review under this subdivision, the commissioner shall consider the record of the meeting and the recommendation. The commissioner shall send notification of the final decision to each office, agency, or commission to which notice was given under paragraph (a), clause (1).

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 105.44, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [TIME.] (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), the commissioner shall act upon all applications, ~~except for appropriations for irrigation, pursuant to subdivision 8,~~ for appropriation permits within 30 days after the application and all required data is filed in the commissioner's office; either waiving hearing and making an order thereon or directing hearing thereon.

(b) The requirements of paragraph (a) do not apply to applications for:

(1) appropriations for irrigation, under subdivision 8;

(2) appropriations for diversion from the basin of origin in excess of 2,000,000 gallons per day average in any 30-day period; or

(3) appropriations with a consumptive use in excess of 2,000,000 gallons per day average for any 30-day period."

Subd. 2. [LICENSE AGENTS.] County auditors are appointed agents of the commissioner for the sale of annual cross country ski licenses and daily permits. A county auditor may appoint subagents within the county or within adjacent counties to sell licenses and daily permits. Upon appointment the auditor shall notify the commissioner of the name and address of the subagent. The auditor may revoke the appointment of a subagent at any time. Upon demand of the commissioner, the auditor shall revoke a subagent's appointment. The auditor shall furnish license and daily permit blanks on consignment to any subagent who furnishes a surety bond in favor of the county in an amount at least equal to the value of the blanks to be consigned to that subagent. The county auditor shall be responsible for all blanks issued to, and user fees received by agents, except in St. Louis county or in a county where the county auditor does not retain fees paid for license purposes. In these counties, the responsibilities imposed upon the county auditor are imposed upon the county. The commissioner may promulgate additional rules pursuant to under section 98.50 97A.485, subdivision 2 11.

Any resident desiring to sell annual cross country ski licenses and daily permits may either purchase for cash or obtain on consignment license and daily permit blanks from a county auditor in groups of not less than ten individual blanks. In selling licenses, the resident shall be deemed a subagent of the county auditor and the commissioner, and shall observe all rules promulgated by the commissioner for the accounting and handling of licenses pursuant to under section 98.50 97A.485, subdivision 40 11.

The county auditor shall promptly deposit all monies received from the sale of licenses and daily permits with the county treasurer, and shall promptly transmit any reports required by the commissioner, plus 96 percent of the price to each annual licensee and daily permittee, exclusive of the issuing fee, for each annual license and daily permit sold or consigned by the auditor and subsequently sold to a licensee or daily permittee during the accounting period.

The county auditor shall retain as a commission:

(1) four percent of all annual license and daily permit fees, excluding the issuing fee for licenses and daily permits consigned to subagents; and

(2) the issuing fees on licenses and on daily permits sold by the auditor to licensees or daily permittees.

Unsold blanks in the hands of any subagent shall be redeemed by the commissioner if presented for redemption within the time prescribed by the commissioner. Any blanks not presented for redemption within the period prescribed shall be conclusively presumed to have been sold, and the subagent possessing the same or to whom they are charged shall be accountable."

And when so amended the bill do pass and be placed on the Consent Calendar. Amendments adopted. Report adopted.

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [115.091] [CITATION.]

Sections 1 to 11 may be cited as the "Minnesota clean water partnership act."

Sec. 2. [115.092] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICABILITY.] The definitions in this section apply to sections 2 to 11.

Subd. 2. [BEST MANAGEMENT PRACTICES.] "Best management practices" means practices, techniques, and measures that prevent or reduce water pollution from nonpoint sources by using the most effective and practicable means of achieving water quality goals. Best management practices include, but are not limited to, official controls, structural and nonstructural controls, and operation and maintenance procedures.

Subd. 3. [DIRECTOR.] "Director" means the director of the pollution control agency.

Subd. 4. [LOCAL UNIT OF GOVERNMENT.] "Local unit of government" means a statutory or home rule charter city, town, county, soil and water conservation district, watershed district, an organization formed for the joint exercise of powers under section 471.59, and any other special purpose district or authority exercising authority in water and related land resources management at the local level.

Subd. 5. [NONPOINT SOURCE.] "Nonpoint source" is a land management activity or land use activity that contributes or may contribute to ground and surface water pollution as a result of runoff, seepage, or percolation that is not a point source. Nonpoint sources include rural and urban land management activities and land use activities and specialty land use activities such as transportation.

Subd. 6. [OFFICIAL CONTROLS.] "Official controls" means ordinances and regulations that control the physical development of the whole or part of a local government unit or that implement the general objectives of the local government unit.

Subd. 7. [PROJECT.] "Project" means the diagnostic study of water pollution caused by nonpoint sources of water pollution, a plan to implement best management practices, and the physical features constructed or actions taken by a local unit of government to implement best management practices.

Sec. 3. [115.093] [CLEAN WATER PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM.]

A clean water partnership program is established as provided in sections 3 to 11. The agency shall administer the clean water partnership program. As a basis for the program, the agency and the metropolitan council shall conduct an assessment of waters under section 4. After the assessment is completed the agency shall provide financial and technical assistance under section 5 to local units of government for projects in geographical areas that contribute to surface or ground water flows. The projects shall provide for protection and improvement of surface and ground water from nonpoint sources of water pollution.

Sec. 4. [115.094] [STATEWIDE RESOURCE ASSESSMENT.]

The agency shall conduct an assessment of waters of the state that have been polluted by nonpoint sources and of geographical areas with waters of the state that have a high potential for water pollution caused by nonpoint sources as provided in the federal Clean Water Act, Public Law Number 100-4, section 319, 101 United States Statutes 52 to 61. The metropolitan council shall conduct the assessment in the metropolitan area, as defined in section 473.121, subdivision 2, in cooperation with the agency. The assessment shall be completed by July 1, 1988.

Sec. 5. [115.095] [FINANCIAL AND TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE; ELIGIBILITY.]

Subdivision 1. [FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE.] (a) The agency may award grants for up to 50 percent of the eligible cost for:

- (1) the development of a diagnostic study and implementation plan; and
- (2) the implementation of that plan.

(b) The agency shall determine which costs are eligible costs and grants shall be made and used only for eligible costs.

Subd. 2. [TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE.] The agency may provide technical assistance to local units of government to ensure efficient and effective development and implementation of projects and coordination of projects with other water management activities.

Sec. 6. [115.096] [ELIGIBILITY FOR ASSISTANCE.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] (a) To be eligible for the financial or technical assistance or both as provided in section 5, a local unit of government applying for assistance must:

(1) have authority to coordinate and enter into contracts with local, state, and federal agencies and private organizations, raise funds, and adopt and enforce official controls; and

(2) provide the agency with the documents required in subdivision 2.

(b) After July 1, 1991, only projects that are a part of, or are responsive to, a local water plan under chapter 110B, section 112.46, or sections 473.875 to 473.883 will be eligible under this subdivision.

Subd. 2. [DOCUMENTS REQUIRED.] (a) An applicant for assistance shall submit the following to the agency:

(1) an application form as prescribed by the agency;

(2) evidence that the applicant has consulted with the local soil and water conservation districts and watershed districts, where they exist, in the preparation of the application; and

(3) one of the following documents:

(i) the comprehensive water plan authorized under chapter 110B;

(ii) a surface water management plan required under section 473.878;

(iii) an overall plan required under section 112.46; or

(iv) any other local plan that provides an inventory of existing physical and hydrologic information on the area, a general identification of water quality problems and goals, and that demonstrates a local commitment to water quality protection or improvement.

(b) The document submitted in compliance with paragraph (a), clause (3), must identify existing and potential nonpoint source water pollution problems and must recognize the need and demonstrate the applicant's commitment to abate or prevent water pollution from nonpoint sources in the geographic areas for which the application is submitted.

Sec. 7. [115.097] [AGENCY REVIEW OF APPLICATIONS; RANKING OF PROJECTS.]

Subdivision 1. [RANKING OF APPLICATIONS.] The agency shall rank applications for technical and financial assistance in order of priority and shall, within the limits of available appropriations, grant those applications having the highest priority.

Subd. 2. [RANKING CRITERIA.] The agency shall by rule adopt appropriate criteria to determine the priority of projects. The criteria shall give the highest priority to projects that best demonstrate compliance with the following objectives:

(1) demonstration of participation, coordination, and cooperation between local units of government and other public agencies, including soil and water conservation districts or watershed districts, or both those districts;

(2) maximization of the degree of water quality improvement or protection relative to the cost of implementing the best management practices;

(3) utilization of best management practices to provide a feasible means of abating or preventing nonpoint source water pollution; and

(4) consistency of the project goals and objectives with the state water quality management plans, the statewide resource assessment conducted under section 4, and other applicable state and local resource management programs.

Sec. 8. [115.098] [PLAN IMPLEMENTATION.]

Subdivision 1. [IMPLEMENTATION ACCORDING TO LAW AND CONTRACT.] A local unit of government receiving technical or financial assistance or both from the agency shall carry out the implementation plan approved by the agency according to the terms of the plan, any contract or grant agreement made with the agency and according to sections 3 to 11, the rules of the agency, and applicable federal requirements.

Subd. 2. [REVIEW BY AGENCY.] The director or the director's designee may, at any reasonable time, inspect any project and conduct an audit of the expenditure of financial assistance funds granted by the agency in order to determine whether the local unit of government has complied with subdivision 1.

Subd. 3. [ENFORCEMENT OF AGREEMENTS.] The agency may bring a civil action in district court to recover from a local governmental unit any financial assistance funds used in violation of subdivision 1.

Sec. 9. [115.099] [RULES.]

The agency shall adopt permanent rules and may adopt emergency rules necessary to implement sections 3 to 11. The rules must at least contain:

(1) procedures to be followed by local units of government in applying for technical or financial assistance or both;

(2) conditions for the administration of assistance;

(3) procedures for the development, evaluation, and implementation of best management practices;

(4) requirements for a diagnostic study and implementation plan;

(5) criteria for the evaluation and approval of a diagnostic study and implementation plan;

(6) criteria for the evaluation of best management practices;

(7) criteria for the ranking of projects in order of priority for assistance;

(8) criteria for defining and evaluating eligible costs and cost-sharing by local units of government applying for assistance; and

(9) other matters as the agency and the director find necessary for the proper administration of sections 3 to 11, including rules determined by the director to be necessary for the implementation of federal programs to control nonpoint source water pollution.

Sec. 10. [115.10] [NONPOINT SOURCE POLLUTION CONTROL PLAN AND PROGRAM EVALUATION.]

For the purpose of coordinating the programs and activities used to control nonpoint sources of pollution to achieve the state's water quality goals, the agency shall:

(1) develop a state plan for the control of nonpoint source water pollution to meet the requirements of the federal Clean Water Act, Public Law Number 100-4, section 319, 101 United States Statutes 52 to 61;

(2) work through the environmental quality board to coordinate the activities and programs of federal, state, and local agencies involved in nonpoint source pollution control and, where appropriate, develop agreements with federal and state agencies to accomplish the purposes and objectives of the state nonpoint source pollution control plan; and

(3) evaluate the effectiveness of programs in achieving water quality goals and recommend to the legislature, under section 3.195, subdivision 1, any necessary amendments to the Minnesota clean water partnership act.

Sec. 11. [115.101] [PUBLIC AGENCY COORDINATION.]

Subdivision 1. [PROJECT COORDINATION TEAM.] The director shall establish and chair a project coordination team made up of representatives of the pollution control agency, department of natural resources, soil and water conservation board, department of agriculture, department of health, state planning agency, Minnesota extension service, United States Environmental Protection Agency, United States Department of Agriculture Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, United States Department of Agriculture Soil Conservation Service, water resources board, metropolitan council, association of Minnesota counties, league of Minnesota cities, and other agencies as the director may determine.

Subd. 2. [DUTIES.] The project coordination team shall evaluate projects and recommend to the director those projects that the team believes should receive financial or technical assistance or both from the agency. After approval of assistance for a project by the agency, the team shall review project activities and assist in the coordination of the state program with other state and federal resource management programs.

Sec. 12. [APPROPRIATION.]

§ _____ is appropriated from the _____ fund to the pollution control agency for the purpose of the Minnesota clean water partnership act, to be available until expended."

And when so amended the bill do pass and be re-referred to the Committee on Finance. Amendments adopted. Report adopted.

Mr. Willet from the Committee on Environment and Natural Resources, to which was referred

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.015, subdivision 45, is amended to read:

Subd. 45. [SMALL GAME.] "Small game" means game birds, gray squirrel, fox squirrel, cottontail rabbit, snowshoe hare, jack rabbit, raccoon, lynx, bobcat, red fox and gray fox, fisher, pine marten, ~~opossum~~ opossum, badger, ~~cougar~~, wolverine, muskrat, mink, otter, and beaver.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.015, subdivision 51, is amended to read:

Subd. 51. [UNLOADED.] "Unloaded" means, with reference to a firearm, without ammunition in the barrels and magazine, if the magazine is in the firearm. A muzzle loading firearm with a flintlock ignition is unloaded if it does not have priming powder in a pan. A muzzle loading firearm with percussion ignition is unloaded if it does not have a percussion cap on a nipple.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.055, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT; PURPOSES.] The game and fish fund is established as a fund in the state treasury. The money in the fund is annually appropriated to the commissioner for the activities of the division of fish and wildlife and the division of enforcement.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.065, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FINES AND FORFEITED BAIL.] (a) Fines and forfeited bail collected from prosecutions of violations of the game and fish laws, sections 84.09 to 84.15, and 84.81 to 84.88, chapter ~~34B~~ 348, and any other law relating to wild animals, and aquatic vegetation must be paid to the treasurer of the county where the violation is prosecuted. The county treasurer shall submit one-half of the receipts to the commissioner and credit the balance to the county general revenue fund except as provided in paragraph (b).

(b) The commissioner must reimburse a county, from the game and fish fund, for the cost of keeping prisoners prosecuted for violations under this section if the county board, by resolution, directs: (1) the county treasurer to submit all fines and forfeited bail to the commissioner; and (2) the county auditor to certify and submit monthly itemized statements to the commissioner.

Subdivision 1. [DEER AND BEAR LICENSES.] (a) For purposes of this subdivision, "deer license" means a license issued under section 97A.475, subdivision 2, clauses (4) and (5) and subdivision 3, clauses (2) and (3).

(b) At least $2 from each deer license shall be used for deer habitat improvement.

(c) At least $1 from each resident deer license and each resident bear license shall be used for deer and bear management programs, including a computerized licensing system.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.085, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [SPECIES GAME REFUGE FOR SPECIFIED GAME.] The commissioner may, by order, designate a ~~species~~ game refuge for only specified species. The game refuge must be posted accordingly.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.085, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [GAME REFUGE BOUNDARY POSTING.] (a) The designation of a state game refuge is not effective until the boundary has been posted with notices that measure at least 12 inches. ~~The notices posted on state park boundaries must have black letters on a yellow background stating that the area is a state park. The notices on other game refuges must have black letters on a white background stating that the area is a state game refuge.~~

(b) The notices must be posted at intervals of not more than 500 feet or less along the boundary. The notices must also be posted at all public road entrances to the refuges, except where the boundary is also an international or state boundary in public waters. Where the boundary of a refuge extends more than 500 feet continuously through a body of water, instead of placing notices in the water, notices with the words, "Adjacent Waters Included," may be placed on the shoreline at the intersection of the boundary and the water 20 feet or less above the high water mark and at intervals of 500 feet or less along the shoreline.

(c) A certification by the commissioner or the director, or a certification filed with the commissioner or director by a conservation officer, refuge

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.111, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ISSUANCE OF LICENSE.] (a) The commissioner shall investigate the application filed and may require the applicant to produce evidence of the facts stated. The commissioner shall issue a muskrat farm license to an applicant if the commissioner determines that:

- (1) the applicant is the owner of the land;
- (2) the applicant intends to establish and operate a muskrat farm; and
- (3) the establishment of a muskrat farm in the proposed area will conserve the natural resources.

(b) The license must describe the land and certify that the licensee is entitled to use the land to breed, raise, trap, and trade muskrats. ~~The license expires on December 31 each year but may be renewed annually at the discretion of the commissioner upon payment of the license fee.~~

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.111, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [ANNUAL REPORT.] By March 4 31 of each year, the licensee must submit a signed report to the commissioner covering the preceding ~~calendar~~ license year. The report must be completed on a form furnished by the commissioner stating the license number, the number and value of muskrats killed, transported, and sold from the muskrat farm, and other information required by the commissioner.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.115, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [SIZE OF PRESERVE.] A private shooting preserve must be at least 100 ~~but not more than 1,000~~ contiguous acres, including any water area. A preserve limited to duck hunting may be a minimum of 50 contiguous acres including water area.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.121, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [MARKING HARVESTED GAME.] Harvested game, except ducks that are marked in accordance with regulations of the United States Fish and Wildlife Service, must be tagged with a self-sealing tag, identifying the private shooting preserve. The commissioner shall issue the tags at a cost of 15 cents each. The tag must remain attached on the bird ~~until~~ while the bird is actually prepared for consumption transported.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.135, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PUBLIC HUNTING AND WILDLIFE AREAS.] (a) The commissioner or the commissioner of administration shall acquire and improve land for public hunting, game refuges, and food and cover planting. The land may be acquired by a gift, lease, easement, purchase, or condemnation. At least two-thirds of the total area acquired in a county must be open to public hunting. The commissioner may designate land acquired under this subdivision as a wildlife management area for the purposes of the outdoor recreation system.

(b) The commissioner of administration may transfer money to the commissioner for acquiring ~~wetlands~~ wildlife lands to qualify for Pittman-Robertson funds. The transferred money is reappropriated to the commissioner for the ~~wetland~~ wildlife land acquisition.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.201, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ENFORCEMENT BY THE COMMISSIONER.] The commissioner shall execute and enforce the laws relating to wild animals. The commissioner may delegate execution and enforcement of the wild animal laws to the director, ~~game refuge managers,~~ and ~~conservation enforcement officers.~~

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.211, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE TO APPEAR IN COURT.] (a) A person must be given notice to appear in court for a misdemeanor violation of the game and fish laws, chapter 84, 105, or ~~106~~ 106A, or section 609.68 if:

(1) the person is arrested and is released from custody prior to appearing before a court; or

(2) the person is subject to a lawful arrest and is not arrested because it reasonably appears to the enforcement officer that arrest is unnecessary to prevent further criminal conduct and that there is a substantial likelihood that the person will respond to a notice.

(b) The enforcement officer shall prepare, in quadruplicate, a written notice to appear in court. The notice must be in the form and has the effect of a summons and complaint. The notice must contain the name and address of the person charged, the offense, and the time and the place to appear in court. The court must have jurisdiction within the county where the offense is alleged to have been committed.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.211, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [RELEASE AFTER ARREST.] A person arrested for a misdemeanor violation of the game and fish laws, chapter 84, 105, or ~~106~~ 106A or section 609.68 may obtain release by signing the written notice prepared by the arresting officer promising to appear in court. The officer shall deliver a copy marked "SUMMONS" to the person arrested. The officer must then release the person from custody.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.221, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PROPERTY SUBJECT TO CONFISCATION.] (a) An enforcement officer may confiscate:

(1) wild animals, wild rice, and other aquatic vegetation taken, bought, sold, transported, or possessed in violation of the game and fish laws or chapter 84; and

(2) firearms, bows and arrows, nets, boats, lines, poles, fishing rods and tackle, lights, lanterns, snares, traps, spears, dark houses, fish houses, and wild rice harvesting equipment that are used, with the owner's knowledge to unlawfully take or transport wild animals, wild rice, or other aquatic vegetation.

(b) An enforcement officer must confiscate nets and equipment unlawfully possessed within ten miles of Lake of the Woods or Rainy Lake.

(c) Confiscated property may be disposed of, retained for use by the division, or sold at the highest price obtainable as prescribed by the commissioner.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.255, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [BURDEN OF PROOF] In a prosecution that alleges animals have been taken, bought, sold, transported, or possessed in violation of the game and fish laws, the burden of establishing that the animals were domesticated, reared in a private preserve, raised in a private fish hatchery, taken for scientific purposes, or lawfully taken outside of this state, or received as a gift, is on the defendant.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.311, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SUSPENSION OF LICENSE AGENT SUSPENSION.] In addition to other penalties, a license agent that violates a law, rule, or order of the commissioner relating to license sales, handling, or accounting forfeits the right to sell and handle licenses for a period of one year.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.315, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LICENSE REVOCATIONS.] (a) If a person is convicted under subdivision 4 of trespassing under subdivision 1 while exercising or attempting to exercise an activity licensed under the game and fish laws or requiring snowmobile registration under section 84.82, the applicable license and registration are null and void.

(b) A person convicted of a gross misdemeanor under subdivision 1, paragraph (b), may not be issued a license to take game for two years after the conviction.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.325, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GROSS MISDEMEANOR FOR SALES OF $300 OR MORE.] (a) A person that buys or sells protected wild animals in violation of the game and fish laws where the sales total $300 or more is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. The person is subject to the penalty in section 97A.301-97A.301, subdivision 2, except that the fine is may not be less than $3,000 or more than $10,000.

(b) Licenses possessed by a person convicted under this subdivision are null and void and the person may not take wild animals for three years after the conviction.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.331, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [HUNTING WHILE INTOXICATED OR USING NARCOTIC DRUGS UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF ALCOHOL OR A CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE.] A person that violates a the provision of section 97B.065 relating to hunting while visibly intoxicated or under the influence of alcohol or a narcotic drug under section 97B.065, controlled substance is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.405, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PERSONAL POSSESSION.] A person to whom a license is issued must have the license in personal possession while acting under the license and while traveling ~~to and~~ from the area where the licensed activity is performed. If possession of a license is required, a person must exhibit the proper license when requested by a conservation officer or peace officer. A receipt for license fees, a copy of a license, or evidence showing the issuance of a license does not entitle a licensee to exercise the rights or privileges conferred by a license.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.415, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ONE LICENSE PER PERSON.] Only one trapping and big game license of each kind may be issued to a person in a license year, ~~except the nonresident short-term angling license~~, unless authorized by commissioner's order.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.421, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] (a) The license of a person convicted of a violation of the game and fish laws relating to the license or wild animals covered by the license is void when:

(1) a second conviction occurs within three years under a license to take small game or to take fish by angling or spearing;

(2) a third conviction occurs within one year under a minnow dealer's license; or

(3) the conviction occurs under a license not described in clause (1) or (2).

(b) ~~Except for big game licenses and as otherwise provided in this section, and for one year after the conviction,~~ the person may not obtain ~~that the~~ kind of license relating to the game and fish law violation.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.425, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [REPORTS.] An annual ~~notarized~~ report covering the preceding ~~calendar~~ license year must be submitted to the commissioner by ~~January~~ March 15. The commissioner may require other reports for statistical purposes. The reports must be on forms supplied by the commissioner.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.445, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [ANGLING AND SPEARING; DISABLED RAILROAD AND POSTAL RETIREES.] A license is not required to take fish by angling or spearing for a resident that is:

Mr. Frank from the Committee on Economic Development and Housing, to which was referred

S.F. No. 631: A bill for an act relating to manufactured homes; defining terms; prohibiting certain unilateral permanent physical improvements; clarifying the termination of a park lease for substantial annoyance to other residents; regulating park closings; requiring an impact report; providing for a public hearing; creating a right of first refusal; providing for a right to redeem possession for failing to comply with a rule; clarifying remedies; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 327C.01, by adding subdivisions; 327C.03, subdivision 3; 327C.05, subdivision 2; 327C.09, subdivisions 1 and 5, and by adding a subdivision; 327C.11, subdivision 2, and by adding a subdivision; and 327C.15; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 327C; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 327C.09, subdivision 9.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 327C.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [CLOSURE STATEMENT.] “Closure statement” means a statement prepared by the park owner clearly stating that the park is closing, addressing the availability, location, and potential costs of adequate replacement housing within a 25 mile radius of the park that is closing and the probable relocation costs of the manufactured homes located in the park.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 327C.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1b. [DISPLACED RESIDENT.] “Displaced resident” means a resident of an owner-occupied manufactured home who rents a lot in a manufactured home park, including the members of the resident’s household, as of the date the park owner submits a closure statement to the local planning agency.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 327C.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7a. [PLANNING AGENCY.] “Planning agency” means the planning commission or the planning department of a municipality as defined in section 462.352, the planning and zoning commission of a town as defined in section 366.17, or the planning commission of a county, as defined in section 394.30, or if the municipality does not have a planning agency, the governing body of the municipality.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 327C.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. Notwithstanding section 566.09, in an action to recover possession of land for violation of a new or amended rule, if the court finds that the rule is reasonable or is not a substantial modification, the court shall issue an order in favor of the plaintiff for costs. The court shall order the defendant to comply with the rule within ten days. If the resident fails to comply with the rule at any time after the time period provided by the court, the park owner may, upon a showing to the court that three days’ written notice was given to the resident, move the court for writ of restitution to recover possession of the lot.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 327C.02, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [WRITTEN NOTICE REQUIRED.] A prospective resident, before being asked to sign a rental agreement, must be given the following notice printed verbatim in boldface type of a minimum size of ten points. The notice and the safety feature disclosure form required under section 327C.07, subdivision 3a, must be posted in a conspicuous and public location in the park:

“IMPORTANT NOTICE

State law provides special rules for the owners and residents of manufactured home parks.

You may keep your home in the park as long as the park is in operation and you meet your financial obligations, obey state and local laws which apply to the park, obey reasonable park rules, do not substantially annoy or endanger the other residents or substantially endanger park personnel and do not substantially damage the park premises. You may not be evicted or have your rent increased or your services cut for complaining to the park owner or to a governmental official.

If you receive an eviction notice and do not leave the park, the park owner may take you to court. If you lose in court a sheriff may remove you and your home from the park within seven days. Or, the court may require you to leave the park within seven days but give you 60 days to sell the home within the park.

If you receive an eviction notice for a new or amended rule and the court finds the rule to be reasonable and not a substantial modification of your original agreement, the court will not order you to leave but will order you to comply with the rule within ten days. If you do not comply within the time given or if you violate the rule at a later time, you will be subject to eviction.

All park rules and policies must be reasonable. Your rent may not be increased more than twice a year. Changes made in park rules after you become a park resident will not apply to you if they substantially change your original agreement.

The park may not charge you an entrance fee.

The park may require a security deposit, but the deposit must not amount to more than two months rent.

You have a right to sell the home in the park. But the sale is not final until the park owner approves the buyer as a new resident, and you must advise in writing anyone who wants to buy your home that the sale is subject to final approval by the park owner. You must also disclose in writing certain safety information about your home to anyone who wants to buy it in the park. You must give this information to the buyer before the sale, in writing, on the form that is attached to this notice. You must completely and accurately fill out the form and you and the buyer should each keep a copy.

Your rental agreement and the park rules contain important information about your rights and duties. Read them carefully and keep a copy.

For further information concerning your rights, consult a private attorney. The state law governing the rental of lots in manufactured home parks may also be enforced by the Minnesota Attorney General."

In addition, the safety feature disclosure form required under section 327C.07, subdivision 3a, must be attached to the notice.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 327C.09, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CAUSE REQUIRED.] A park owner may recover possession of land upon which a manufactured home is situated only for a reason specified in this section or section 10.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 327C.09, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [RULE VIOLATIONS.] The resident fails to comply with a rule within 30 days after receiving written notice of the alleged noncompliance, except the 30 day notice requirement does not apply to nonpayment of rent. Loud noise created by residents, guests, or their equipment is a rule violation. After written notice has been provided for two prior incidents, loud noise is a violation of subdivision 5.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 327C.09, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [ENDANGERMENT; SUBSTANTIAL ANNOYANCE.] The resident acts in the park in a manner which endangers other residents or park personnel, causes substantial damage to the park premises or substantially annoys other residents, and has received 30 days written notice to vacate, except the park owner may require the resident to vacate immediately if the resident violates this subdivision a second or subsequent time after receipt of the notice. To be effective the notice must specify the time, date, and nature of the alleged annoyance, damage, or endangerment. A park owner seeking to evict pursuant to this subdivision need not produce evidence of a criminal conviction, even if the alleged misconduct constitutes a criminal offense.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 327C.11, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [WAIVER BY ACCEPTING RENT.] A park owner who gives a resident a notice as provided in section 327C.09, subdivisions 3, 4, 6, or 8 or 9, or section 10, does not waive the notice by afterwards accepting rent. Acceptance of rent for a period after the expiration of a final notice to quit waives that notice unless the parties agree in writing after service of the notice that the notice continues in effect.

Sec. 10. [327C.095] [PARK CLOSINGS.]

Subdivision 1. [CONVERSION OF USE; MINIMUM NOTICE.] At least nine months before the conversion of all or a portion of a manufactured home park to another use, or before closure of a manufactured home park or cessation of use of the land as a manufactured home park, the park owner must prepare a closure statement and provide a copy to the local planning agency and a copy to a resident of each manufactured home. A resident may not be required to vacate until 60 days after the conclusion of the public hearing required under subdivision 4. If a lot is available in another section of the park that will continue to be operated as a park, the park owner must allow the resident to relocate the home to that lot unless the home, because of its size or local ordinance, is not compatible with that lot.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE OF HEARING; PROPOSED CHANGE IN LAND USE.] If the planned conversion or cessation of operation requires a variance or zoning change, the municipality must mail a notice at least ten days before the hearing to a resident of each manufactured home in the park stating the time, place, and purpose of the public hearing. The park owner shall provide the municipality with a list of the names and addresses of at least one resident of each manufactured home in the park at the time application is made for a variance or zoning change.

Subd. 3. [CLOSURE STATEMENT.] Upon receipt of the closure statement from the park owner, the local planning agency shall submit the closure statement to the governing body of the municipality and request the governing body to schedule a public hearing. The municipality must mail a notice at least ten days before the hearing to a resident of each manufactured home in the park stating the time, place, and purpose of the public hearing. The park owner shall provide the municipality with a list of the names and addresses of at least one resident of each manufactured home in the park at the time the closure statement is submitted to the local planning agency.

Subd. 4. [PUBLIC HEARING; RELOCATION COSTS.] The governing body of the municipality shall hold a public hearing to review the closure statement and any impact that the park closing may have on the displaced residents and the park owner. Before any change in use or cessation of operation and as a condition of the change, the governing body may require a payment by the park owner to be made to the displaced resident for the reasonable relocation costs. If a resident cannot relocate the home to another manufactured home park within a 25 mile radius of the park that is being closed, the resident is entitled to relocation costs based upon an average of relocation costs awarded to other residents.

The governing body of the municipality may also require that other parties, including the municipality, involved in the park closing provide additional compensation to residents to mitigate the adverse financial impact of the park closing upon the residents.

Subd. 5. [PARK CONVERSIONS.] If the planned cessation of operation is for the purpose of converting the part of the park occupied by the resident to a condominium pursuant to chapter 515A, the provisions of section 515A.4-110, except paragraph (a), shall apply. The nine-month notice required by this section shall state that the cessation is for the purpose of conversion and shall set forth the rights conferred by this subdivision and section 515A.4-110, paragraph (b). Not less than 120 days before the end of the nine months, the park owner shall serve upon the resident a form of purchase agreement setting forth the terms of sale contemplated by section 515A.4-110, paragraph (b). Service of that form shall operate as the notice described by section 515A.4-110, paragraph (a).

Sec. 11. [327C.096] [RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL.]

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE OF SALE.] Before the sale or lease of a manufactured home park for any purpose that would result in the closure or cessation of use of the land as a manufactured home park, the park owner shall notify a resident of each manufactured home and the residents' as- sociation, if one has been formed, by certified mail within 14 days of any bona fide offer that the park owner intends to accept.

Subd. 2. [RIGHT OF PURCHASE.] Any group of residents or a residents' association entitled to notice under this section has the right to purchase or lease the park, provided that it meets the price and conditions of any offer by:

(1) executing a contract or purchase and sale or lease agreement with the park owner within 45 days of notice of the offer; and

(2) obtaining any necessary financing or guarantees within an additional 45 days.

Sec. 12. [STUDY REQUIRED.]

The metropolitan council shall conduct a study to determine the feasibility of establishing a metropolitan manufactured home park development fund. The purpose of this fund would be to provide low interest development loans to persons interested in constructing manufactured home parks within the seven county metropolitan area. The results of this study shall be forwarded to the legislature by January 1, 1988.

Sec. 13. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 327C.09, subdivision 9, is repealed."

Delete the title and insert:

"A bill for an act relating to manufactured homes; defining terms; clarifying the termination of a park lease for substantial annoyance to other residents; allowing certain new or amended rule violations to be cured; regulating park closings; requiring a closure statement; providing for a public hearing; creating a right of first refusal; clarifying remedies; requiring a feasibility study by the metropolitan council; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 327C.01, by adding subdivisions; 327C.02, subdivision 5, and by adding a subdivision; 327C.09, subdivisions 1, 4, and 5; and 327C.11, subdivision 2; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 327C; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 327C.09, subdivision 9."

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 353.15, is amended to read:

353.15 [NONASSIGNABILITY AND EXEMPTION OF ANNUITIES AND BENEFITS FROM JUDICIAL PROCESS.]

Subdivision 1. [EXEMPTION; EXCEPTIONS.] No money, annuity, or benefit provided for in this chapter is assignable or subject to any state estate tax, or to execution, levy, attachment, garnishment, or legal process, except as provided in subdivision 2 or section 518.58, section 18, or 518.611. ~~Provided, however,~~

Subd. 2. [AUTOMATIC DEPOSITS.] The association may pay an annuity, benefit or refund to a trust company, qualified under chapter 48, that is trustee for a person eligible to receive such annuity, benefit or refund. Upon the request of a retired, disabled or former member, the association may mail the annuity, benefit or refund check to a banking institution, savings association or credit union for deposit to such person's account or joint account with a spouse. The association may prescribe the conditions under which such payment will be made.

Subd. 3. [PAYMENT TO PUBLIC BODIES.] If in the judgment of the executive director conditions so warrant, payment may be made to a public body in behalf of an annuitant, disabiltant, or survivor upon such terms as the executive director may prescribe.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 354.10, is amended to read:

354.10 [FUND NOT SUBJECT TO ASSIGNMENT OR PROCESS; BENEFICIARIES.]

Subdivision 1. [EXEMPTION; EXCEPTIONS.] The right of a teacher to take advantage of the benefits provided by this chapter, is a personal right only and shall not be assignable. All money to the credit of a teacher's account in the fund or any money payable to the teacher from the fund shall belong to the state of Minnesota until actually paid to the teacher or a beneficiary pursuant to the provisions of this chapter. Any power of attorney, assignment or attempted assignment of a teacher's interest in the fund, or of the beneficiary's interest therein, by a teacher or a beneficiary, shall be null and void and the same shall be exempt from taxation under chapter 291 and from garnishment or levy under attachment or execution, except as provided in subdivision 2 or section 518.58, section 18, or 518.611. ~~Provided however,~~

Subd. 2. [AUTOMATIC DEPOSITS.] The board may pay an annuity or benefit to a banking institution, qualified under chapter 48, that is a trustee for a person eligible to receive such annuity or benefit. Upon completion of the proper forms as provided by the board, the annuity or benefit check may be mailed to a banking institution, savings association or credit union for deposit to the recipient's individual account or joint account with a spouse. The board shall prescribe the conditions which shall govern these procedures.

Subd. 3. [PAYMENT TO PUBLIC BODIES.] If in the judgment of the executive director conditions so warrant, payment may be made to a public body in behalf of an annuitant, disabiltant, or survivor upon such terms as the executive director may prescribe.

Subd. 4. [CHANGES IN BENEFICIARIES.] Any beneficiary designated by a teacher under the terms of this chapter, may be changed or revoked by the teacher at pleasure, in such manner as the board may prescribe. In case a designated beneficiary dies before the teacher designating the beneficiary dies, and a new beneficiary is not designated, the teacher's estate shall be the beneficiary.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 354A.11, is amended to read:

354A.11 [CERTAIN MONEYS AND CREDITS OF TEACHERS EXEMPT.]

All moneys deposited by a teacher or member or deposited by any other person or corporation, municipal or private, to the credit of a teacher or member of a teachers retirement fund association organized pursuant to this chapter, and all moneys, rights, and interests or annuities due or to become due to a teacher, member, or annuitant, or their beneficiaries, from any association shall not be assignable, shall be exempt from garnishment, attachment, and execution or sale on any final process issued from a court and other legal process, except as provided in section 518.58, section 18, or 518.611, and shall not be subject to the estate tax provisions of this state. ~~This section does not make the moneys nonmarital property.~~

Sec. 8. [356.80] [PROVISION OF INFORMATION IN THE EVENT OF MARRIAGE DISSOLUTION.]

Subdivision 1. [INFORMATION FOR A PENDING MARRIAGE DISSOLUTION.] (a) Upon request, a public or private pension plan must provide the court and the parties to a marriage dissolution action involving a plan member or former plan member with information regarding pension benefits or rights, including death benefits and insurance, of the plan member or former plan member. The pension plan shall provide this information upon request of the court or a party to the action without requiring a signed authorization from the plan member or former plan member.

(b) The information must include the pension benefits or rights of the plan member or former plan member as of the first day of the month following the date of the request, as of the first day of the seventh month following the date of the request if the action involves an active plan member, and as of the date of valuation of marital assets under section 518.58, if the person requesting the information specifies that date. The information must also include the accrued service credit of the person, the credited salary of the person for the most current five-year period, a summary of the benefit plan, and any other information relevant to the calculation of the present value of the benefits or rights.

Subd. 2. [INFORMATION FOR AN EXISTING DISSOLUTION DECREE.] If a marriage dissolution decree rendered by a court of competent jurisdiction prior to the effective date of this section provided a procedure for dividing pension benefits or rights in the form of future pension plan payments, upon request the applicable pension plan shall provide on a timely basis to the court and the parties to the action the required information to implement that procedure.

Subd. 3. [ACCESS TO DATA.] Notwithstanding any provision of chapter 13 to the contrary, a responsible authority may release private or confidential data on individuals to the court, the parties to a marriage dissolution, their attorneys, and an actuary appointed under section 19, to the extent necessary to comply with this section.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 422A.24, is amended to read:

422A.24 [ALLOWANCES NOT ASSIGNABLE OR SUBJECT TO PROCESS.]

No moneys payable pursuant to this chapter shall be assignable either in law or equity or be subject to execution, levy, attachment, garnishment, or other legal process, except as provided in section 518.58, section 18, or 518.611, nor shall any of the proceeds of payments due pursuant to this chapter be subject to the inheritance tax provisions of this state upon transfer to a surviving spouse or minor or dependent child of the decedent or a trust for their benefit.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 423.39, is amended to read:
423.39 [FUNDS EXEMPT FROM EXECUTION.]

All payments made or to be made by any such police officers' relief association under any of the provisions of Laws 1947, Chapter 625, shall be totally exempt from garnishment, execution, or other legal process, except as provided in section 518.58, section 18, or 518.611; and. No persons entitled to such payment shall have the right to assign the same, nor shall the association have authority to recognize any assignment, or to pay any sum on account thereof; and. Any attempt to transfer any such right or claim, or any part thereof, shall be absolutely void.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 423.61, is amended to read:
423.61 [PENSION EXEMPT FROM LEGAL PROCESS.]

All payments made or to be made by any such police officers' relief association under any of the provisions of sections 423.41 to 423.62 shall be totally exempt from garnishment, execution, or other legal process, except as provided in section 518.58, section 18, or 518.611; and. No persons entitled to such payment shall have the right to assign the same, nor shall the association have authority to recognize any assignment, or to pay any sum on account thereof; and. Any attempt to transfer any such right or claim, or any part thereof, shall be absolutely void.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 423.813, is amended to read:
423.813 [PAYMENTS EXEMPT FROM PROCESS, ASSIGNMENT FORBIDDEN.]

Any payment made by the association under any provision of sections 423.801 to 423.814 is exempt from any legal process, except as provided in section 518.58, section 18, or 518.611. No person entitled to any such payment may assign the same. The association may not recognize any assignment or pay any sum on account thereof.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 424.27, is amended to read:
424.27 [PAYMENTS EXEMPT FROM LEGAL PROCESS.]

All payments made or to be made by any relief associations under any of the provisions of sections 424.01 to 424.29 shall be totally exempt from garnishment, execution, or other legal process, except as provided in section 518.58, section 18, or 518.611; and. No persons entitled to such payment shall have the right to assign the same, nor shall the association have authority to recognize any assignment, or to pay any sum on account thereof; and. Any attempt to transfer any such right or claim or any part thereof shall be void.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 518.54, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [MARITAL PROPERTY; EXCEPTIONS.] "Marital property" means property, real or personal, including vested public or private pension plan benefits or rights, acquired by the parties, or either of them, to a dissolution, legal separation, or annulment proceeding at any time during the existence of the marriage relation between them, or at any time during which the parties were living together as husband and wife under a purported marriage relationship which is annulled in an annulment proceeding. All property acquired by either spouse subsequent to the marriage and before a decree of legal separation is presumed to be marital property regardless of whether title is held individually or by the spouses in a form of coownership such as joint tenancy, tenancy in common, tenancy by the entirety, or community property. Each spouse shall be deemed to have a common ownership in marital property that vests not later than the time of the entry of the decree in a proceeding for dissolution or annulment. The extent of the vested interest shall be determined and made final by the court pursuant to section 518.58. The presumption of marital property is overcome by a showing that the property is nonmarital property.

"Nonmarital property" means property real or personal, acquired by either spouse before, during, or after the existence of their marriage, which

(a) is acquired as a gift, bequest, devise or inheritance made by a third party to one but not to the other spouse;

(b) is acquired before the marriage;

(c) is acquired in exchange for or is the increase in value of property which is described in clauses (a), (b), (d), and (e);

(d) is acquired by a spouse after a decree of legal separation; or

(e) is excluded by a valid antenuptial contract.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 518.54, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. [PUBLIC PENSION PLAN BENEFITS OR RIGHTS.] "Public pension plan benefits or rights" means a benefit or right from a public pension plan accrued to the end of the month in which marital assets are valued, as determined under the terms of the laws or other plan document provisions governing the plan, including section 356.30.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 518.54, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11. [PUBLIC PENSION PLAN.] "Public pension plan" means a pension plan or fund specified in section 356.20, subdivision 2, or 356.30, subdivision 3, the deferred compensation plan specified in section 352.96, or any retirement or pension plan or fund, including a supplemental retirement plan or fund, established, maintained, or supported by a governmental subdivision or public body whose revenues are derived from taxation, fees, assessments, or from other public sources.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 518.58, is amended to read:

518.58 [DIVISION OF MARITAL PROPERTY.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL.] Upon a dissolution of a marriage, an annulment, or in a proceeding for disposition of property following a dissolution of marriage by a court which lacked personal jurisdiction over the absent spouse or lacked jurisdiction to dispose of the property and which has since acquired jurisdiction, the court shall make a just and equitable division of the marital property of the parties without regard to marital misconduct, after making findings regarding the division of the property. The court shall base its findings on all relevant factors including the length of the marriage, any prior marriage of a party, the age, health, station, occupation, amount and sources of income, vocational skills, employability, estate, liabilities, needs, opportunity for future acquisition of capital assets, and income of each party. The court shall also consider the contribution of each in the acquisition, preservation, depreciation or appreciation in the amount or value of the marital property, as well as the contribution of a spouse as a homemaker. It shall be conclusively presumed that each spouse made a substantial contribution to the acquisition of income and property while they were living together as husband and wife. The court may also award to either spouse the household goods and furniture of the parties, whether or not acquired during the marriage.

If the court finds that either spouse's resources or property, including the spouse's portion of the marital property as defined in section 518.54, subdivision 5 are so inadequate as to work an unfair hardship, considering all relevant circumstances, the court may, in addition to the marital property, apportion up to one-half of the property otherwise excluded under section 518.54, subdivision 5, clauses (a) to (d) to prevent the unfair hardship. If the court apportions property other than marital property, it shall make findings in support of the apportionment. The findings shall be based on all relevant factors including the length of the marriage, any prior marriage of a party, the age, health, station, occupation, amount and sources of income, vocational skills, employability, estate, liabilities, needs, and opportunity for future acquisition of capital assets and income of each party.

If the court finds that it is necessary to preserve the marital assets of the parties, the court may order the sale of the homestead of the parties or the sale of other marital assets, as the individual circumstances may require, during the pendency of a proceeding for a dissolution of marriage or an annulment. If the court orders a sale, it may further provide for the disposition of the funds received from the sale during the pendency of the proceeding.

Subd. 2. [PENSION PLANS.] The division of marital property that represents vested public pension benefits or rights in the form of future public pension plan payments:

(1) may not commence until the public plan member submits a valid application for a public pension plan benefit and the benefit becomes payable;

(2) is payable only to the extent of the amount of the public pension plan benefit payable under the terms of the plan;

(3) is not payable for a period that exceeds the time that public pension plan benefits are payable to the public pension plan benefit recipient;

(4) is not payable in a lump sum amount from public pension plan assets attributable in any fashion to a spouse with the status of an active member, deferred retiree, or benefit recipient of a public pension plan; and

(5) if the former spouse to whom the payments are to be made dies prior to the end of the specified payment period with the right to any remaining payments accruing to an estate or to more than one survivor, is payable only to a trustee on behalf of the estate or the group of survivors for subsequent apportionment by the trustee.

Sec. 18. [518.581] [SURVIVING SPOUSE BENEFIT.]

Subdivision 1. [AWARD OF BENEFIT.] If a current or former employee's marriage is dissolved, the court may order the employee, the employee's pension plan, or both, to pay amounts as part of the division of pension rights that the court may make under section 518.58, or as an award of maintenance in the form of a percentage of periodic or other payments or in the form of a fixed dollar amount. The court may, as part of the order, award a former spouse all or part of a survivor benefit.

Subd. 2. [PAYMENT OF FUNDS BY RETIREMENT PLAN.] (a) If the court has ordered that a spouse has an interest in a pension plan, the court may order the pension plan to withhold payment of a refund upon termination of employment or lump sum distribution to the extent of the spouse's interest in the plan, or to provide survivor benefits ordered by the court.

(b) The court may not order the pension plan to:

(1) pay more than the equivalent of one surviving spouse benefit, regardless of the number of spouses or former spouses who may be sharing in a portion of the total benefit;

(2) pay surviving spouse benefits under circumstances where the plan member does not have a right to elect surviving spouse benefits; or

(3) pay surviving spouse benefits if the former spouse would not be eligible for benefits under the terms of the plan;

(4) order survivor benefits which, when combined with the benefit payable to the pension plan member, exceed the actuarial equivalent value of the normal retirement annuity form.

(c) If more than one spouse or former spouse is entitled to a surviving spouse benefit, the pension plan shall pay each spouse a portion of the benefit based on the ratio of the number of years the spouse was married to the plan member to the total number of years the plan member was married to spouses who are entitled to the benefit.

Subd. 3. [NOTICE TO FORMER SPOUSE.] A pension plan shall notify a former spouse of an application by the employee for a refund of pension benefits if the former spouse has filed with the pension plan:

(1) a copy of the court order, including a withholding order, determining the former spouse's rights;

(2) the name and last known address of the employee; and

(3) the name and address of the former spouse.

A pension plan shall comply with an order, including a withholding order, issued by a court having jurisdiction over dissolution of marriage that is served on the pension plan, if the order states the name, last known address of the payees, and name and address of the former spouse, or if the names and addresses are provided to the pension plan with service of the order.

Subd. 4. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given in this subdivision.

(a) "Current or former public employee" or "employee" means an individual who has an interest in a pension plan.

(b) "Surviving spouse benefit" means (1) a benefit a surviving spouse may be eligible for under the laws and bylaws of the pension plan if the employee dies before retirement, or (2) a benefit selected for or available to a surviving spouse under the laws and bylaws of the pension plan upon the death of the employee after retirement.

Sec. 19. [518.582] [PROCEDURE FOR VALUING PENSION BENEFITS OR RIGHTS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPOINTMENT OF ACTUARY.] (a) Each court of this state that has jurisdiction to decide marriage dissolution matters may appoint an approved actuary to function as an expert witness in valuing pension benefits or rights.

(b) An approved actuary is a person who is enrolled as a member of the American Academy of Actuaries, or is enrolled as an actuary pursuant to the Federal Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended.

Subd. 2. [STANDARDS.] A court appointed actuary shall determine the present value of pension benefits or rights that are marital property of the parties to the action based on the applicable plan documents of the pension plan and the applicable actuarial assumptions specified for use in calculating optional annuity forms by the pension plan or for funding the pension plan, if reasonable, or as specified by the court. The court appointed actuary shall report to the court and to the parties the present value of the pension benefits or rights that are marital property.

Subd. 3. [COMPENSATION.] The court appointed actuary may be compensated at a rate established by the court. The compensation of the court appointed actuary shall be allocated between the parties as the court directs.

Subd. 4. [STIPULATION.] In lieu of valuing pension benefits or rights through use of the court appointed actuary, the parties may stipulate the present value of pension benefits or rights that are marital property.

Sec. 20. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 7 and 9 to 13 are effective on the day following final enactment. Sections 14 to 18 are effective August 1, 1987, and apply to marriage dissolution decrees issued on or after that date."

(2) An employee of the office of state auditor appointed by the state auditor;

(3) One licensed certified public accountant appointed by the state board of education;

(4) Nine Eight persons who are representative of the various size school districts in the state and who are public school employees whose positions involve activities related to school financing and accounting, appointed by the state board; and

(5) One person representing post-secondary vocational technical education appointed by the state director of vocational technical education.

Professional associations composed of persons eligible to be appointed under clauses (3) and (4) may recommend nominees from their associations to the state board.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 121.933, is amended to read:

121.933 [STATEWIDE MANAGEMENT INFORMATION SYSTEM; DELEGATION OF POWERS AND DUTIES.]

Subdivision 1. [PERMITTED DELEGATIONS.] The state board of vocational technical education, the state board of education, and the department may provide, by the delegation of powers and duties or by contract, for the implementation and technical support of ESV-IS and SDE-IS, including the development of applications software pursuant to section 121.931, subdivision 5, by the Minnesota educational computing consortium, by a regional management information center or by any other appropriate provider.

Subd. 2. [PROHIBITED DELEGATIONS.] The state board of vocational technical education, the state board of education, and the department may not delegate to the Minnesota educational computing consortium any of their powers and duties to develop policy and to plan for ESV-IS and SDE-IS, to monitor and enforce compliance with rules and data standards, or to approve the actions of districts and regions. Powers and duties which may not be delegated include the powers and duties in sections 121.931, subdivisions 3, 4, 6, 7, and 8 and 121.932, subdivisions 1 and 2.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 121.934, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CREATION.] An advisory council to the state board consisting of ~~11~~ 12 members appointed by the governor is hereby established. Membership terms, compensation of members, removal of members, and the filling of membership vacancies shall be as provided in section 15.059. The governor is encouraged to solicit the suggestions of the state board, the governing boards of regional management information centers, and school boards in selecting members of the council.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 121.934, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [MEMBERSHIP.] The council shall be composed of:

(a) four representatives of school districts, including one school district administrator from a rural school district, one school district administrator from an urban school district, one school board member from a rural school district, and one school board member from an urban school district;

(b) three persons employed in management positions in the private sector, at least two of whom are data processing managers or hold an equivalent position in the private sector;

(c) three persons employed in management positions in the public sector other than elementary, secondary, or vocational education, at least two of whom are data processing managers or hold an equivalent position in the public sector; ~~and~~

(d) one person from the general public; and

(e) one person representing post-secondary vocational technical education.

Members selected pursuant to clauses (b) and (c) shall not be employees or board members of local school districts or the department of education. The council shall include at least one resident of each congressional district.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 123.37, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. The board may authorize its superintendent or business manager, or AVTI director in those districts operating an area vocational technical institute, to lease, purchase, and contract for goods and services within the budget as approved by the board, provided that any transaction in an amount exceeding the minimum amount for which bids are required must first be specifically authorized by the board and must fulfill all other applicable requirements in subdivision 1.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 125.05, is amended to read:

125.05 [BOARD TO ISSUE LICENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [QUALIFICATIONS.] The authority to license teachers as defined in section 125.03, subdivision 1, is vested in the board of teaching except that the authority to license supervisory and support personnel as defined in section 125.03, subdivision 4, is vested in the state board of education and the authority to license post-secondary and adult vocational teachers, supervisory, and support personnel is vested in the state board of vocational technical education. Licenses shall be issued to such persons as the board of teaching ~~or~~, the state board of education, or the state board of vocational technical education finds to be competent for their respective positions. For teachers, as defined in section 125.03, subdivision 5, competency includes successful completion of an examination of academic knowledge in each field of licensure and, for persons applying for initial licenses, an examination of skills in reading, writing, and mathematics. Qualifications of elementary and secondary teachers and other elementary and secondary professional employees except supervisory and support personnel shall be determined by the board of teaching under the rules which it promulgates. Licenses under the jurisdiction of the board of teaching shall be issued through the licensing section of the department of education. Licenses under the jurisdiction of the state board of education shall be issued through the licensing section of the department of education. Licenses under the jurisdiction of the state board of vocational technical education shall be issued by the state board of vocational technical education.

Subd. 2. [EXPIRATION AND RENEWAL.] Each license issued through the licensing section of the department of education or the state board of vocational technical education shall bear the date of issue. Licenses shall expire and be renewed in accordance with the respective rules promulgated by the board of teaching ~~or~~, the state board of education, or the state board of vocational technical education. Renewal requirements for the renewal of a license shall include the production of satisfactory evidence of successful teaching experience for at least one school year during the period covered by the license in grades or subjects for which the license is valid or the completion of such additional preparation as the board of teaching or the state board of vocational technical education shall prescribe. Requirements for the renewal of the licenses of supervisory and support personnel shall be established by the state board of education or the state board of vocational technical education.

Subd. 3. [EFFECTIVE DATE.] Nothing contained herein shall be construed as affecting the validity of a permanent certificate or license issued prior to July 1, 1969.

Subd. 4. [HUMAN RELATIONS.] The board of teaching ~~and~~, the state board of education, and the state board of vocational technical education shall accept training programs completed through Peace Corps, VISTA, or Teacher Corps in lieu of completion of the human relations component of the training program for purposes of issuing or renewing a license in education.

Subd. 6. [LIMITED PROVISIONAL LICENSES.] The board of teaching and the state board of vocational technical education may grant provisional licenses, which shall be valid for two years, in fields in which licenses were not issued previously or in fields in which a shortage of licensed teachers exists. A shortage shall be defined as a lack of or an inadequate supply of licensed personnel within a given licensure area in a school district that has notified the board of teaching of the shortage and has applied to the board of teaching for provisional licenses for that district's licensed staff.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 125.06, is amended to read:

125.06 [APPLICANTS TRAINED IN OTHER STATES.]

When a license to teach is authorized to be issued to any holder of a diploma or a degree of a Minnesota state university, or of the University of Minnesota, or of a liberal arts university, or a technical training institution, such license may also, in the discretion of the board of teaching or, the state board of education, or the state board of vocational technical education, whichever has jurisdiction, be issued to any holder of a diploma or a degree of a teacher training institution of equivalent rank and standing of any other state, granted by virtue of the completion of a course in teacher preparation essentially equivalent in content to that required by such Minnesota state university or the University of Minnesota or a liberal arts university in Minnesota or a technical training institution as preliminary to the granting of a diploma or a degree of the same rank and class.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 125.08, is amended to read:

125.08 [TEACHERS' AND ADMINISTRATORS' LICENSES, FEES.]

Each application for the issuance, renewal, or extension of a license to teach at the elementary or secondary level shall be accompanied by a processing fee in an amount set by the board of teaching by rule. Each application for the issuance, renewal or extension of a license as supervisory or support personnel at the elementary or secondary level shall be accompanied by a processing fee in an amount set by the state board of education by rule. Each application for the issuance, renewal, or extension of a license for post-secondary vocational or adult vocational teachers, supervisors, or support personnel shall be accompanied by a processing fee in an amount set by the state board of vocational technical education by rule. The processing fee for an elementary or secondary teacher's license shall be paid to the executive secretary of the board of teaching. The processing fee for the licenses of elementary and secondary supervisory and support personnel shall be paid to the commissioner. The processing fee for licenses of post-secondary and adult vocational teachers, supervisors, and support personnel shall be paid to the state director of vocational technical education. The executive secretary of the board of teaching and the commissioner, and the state director shall deposit the fees with the state treasurer, as provided by law, and report each month to the commissioner of finance the amount of fees collected. The fees as set by the boards shall be nonrefundable for applicants not qualifying for a license, provided however, that a fee shall be refunded by the state treasurer in any case in which the applicant already holds a valid unexpired license. The boards may waive or reduce fees for applicants who apply at the same time for more than one license, even if the licenses are under the jurisdiction of different boards.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 125.12, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TEACHER DEFINED.] A superintendent, principal, supervisor, and classroom teacher and any other professional employee required to hold a license from the state department or the state board of vocational technical education shall be deemed to be a "teacher" within the meaning of this section.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 125.18, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. A teacher who holds a license from the department or the state board of vocational technical education and a contract for employment in a public school may be granted a sabbatical leave by the board employing such person under rules promulgated by such board.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 125.182, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. "Teacher" means a classroom teacher or other similar professional employee required to hold a license from the board of teaching or the state board of vocational technical education.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 126.12, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. For public elementary and secondary schools, every Saturday shall be a school holiday, except that school may be held on a Saturday if necessary to meet the requirement in section 124.19 of making a good faith attempt to make up time lost on account of circumstances which were beyond the control of the school board. The school board shall determine the number of school days of each school year on or before April 1 of the calendar year in which such school year commences.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 136C.04, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [PROGRAMS AND COURSES.] The state board shall approve, disapprove, and coordinate programs and courses. The state board shall adopt policies that include at least minimum class sizes and placement ratios. After consultation with affected school boards, the state board may add, eliminate, transfer, or change programs and courses as it determines advisable. The state board shall consider the integrated services of secondary, post-secondary, and adult vocational education when it reviews intermediate district programs and courses.

In the case of intermediate districts, the state board may apply the following criteria when adding, eliminating, transferring, or changing programs and courses:

(a) the school board may be allowed to continue offering integrated secondary, post-secondary, and adult programs; and

(b) the school board may determine the use of facilities and equipment for secondary, post-secondary, adult, and special education programs and educational services for low incidence populations.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 136C.04, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 19. [GIFTS; BEQUESTS.] The state board may receive and accept on behalf of the state and for the benefit of any area vocational technical institute, any gift, bequest, devise, or endowment that any person, firm, corporation, or association makes to the board by will, deed, gift, or otherwise for the purpose of vocational technical education. The state board may use any money given it or any of the area vocational technical institutes under its jurisdiction by any person, firm, corporation, or association, by will, deed, gift, devise, or endowment for the purpose of providing money for any aspect of vocational technical education. Use of the money may not be inconsistent with the terms and conditions under which the money was received by the board or an AVTI under its jurisdiction. Gifts, bequests, devises, or endowments are appropriated to the board for the purposes stated. All taxes and special assessments constituting a lien on real property received and accepted by the board under this subdivision must be paid in full before title is transferred to the state.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 136C.15, is amended to read:

136C.15 [STUDENT ASSOCIATIONS.]

Every school board governing an area vocational technical institute shall give recognition as an authorized extracurricular activity to an area vocational technical institute student association affiliated with the Minnesota vocational technical student association. The state director may provide staff assistance and leadership to the student association. The student association is authorized to collect a reasonable fee from students to finance the activities of the association in an amount determined by the governing board of the area vocational technical institute which has recognized it.

Every governing body which recognizes a student association shall deposit the fees in a student association fund. The moneys in this fund shall be available for expenditure for student recreational, social, welfare, and educational pursuits supplemental to the regular curricular offerings.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 136C.29, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [REPAIR AND BETTERMENT AID.] The final allocation of repair and betterment aid by the state board does not constitute approval of a project for the purposes of section 136C.07, subdivision 5. The aid shall be placed in the repair and betterment fund and used solely for the purposes of reconstructing, improving, remodeling, and repairing existing AVTI buildings and grounds. The school board shall authorize and approve actual expenditures of the aid allocated; ~~except that expenditures which exceed $5,000 shall receive prior approval by the state director. The process in section 136C.28 shall not constitute approval for this purpose.~~ Use of the aid shall be governed by the provisions of section 136C.07, subdivision 5.

Sec. 19. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 136C.32 and 136C.35, are repealed.

Sec. 20. [INSTRUCTION TO REVISOR.]

The revisor of statutes is instructed to change the words "AVTI," "area vocational technical institute," "vocational technical institute," "area vocational technical school," "vocational technical school," "vocational school," "vocational institute," "technical school," and "school," and the plurals of each to "technical institute" or "technical institutes" when they refer to a school operated according to standards established by the state board of vocational technical education. The change shall be made in Minnesota Statutes 1988 and subsequent editions of the statutes."

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 518.54, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [MARITAL PROPERTY; EXCEPTIONS.] "Marital property" means property, real or personal, including vested pension benefits or rights, acquired by the parties, or either of them, to a dissolution, legal separation, or annulment proceeding at any time during the existence of the marriage relation between them, or at any time during which the parties were living together as husband and wife under a purported marriage relationship which is annulled in an annulment proceeding, but prior to the date of valuation under section 518.58, subdivision 1. All property acquired by either spouse subsequent to the marriage and before a ~~decree of legal separation~~ the valuation date is presumed to be marital property regardless of whether title is held individually or by the spouses in a form of coownership such as joint tenancy, tenancy in common, tenancy by the entirety, or community property. Each spouse shall be deemed to have a common ownership in marital property that vests not later than the time of the entry of the decree in a proceeding for dissolution or annulment. The extent of the vested interest shall be determined and made final by the court pursuant to section 518.58. The presumption of marital property is overcome by a showing that the property is nonmarital property.

"Nonmarital property" means property real or personal, acquired by either spouse before, during, or after the existence of their marriage, which

(a) is acquired as a gift, bequest, devise or inheritance made by a third party to one but not to the other spouse;

(b) is acquired before the marriage;

(c) is acquired in exchange for or is the increase in value of property which is described in clauses (a), (b), (d), and (e);

(d) is acquired by a spouse after a ~~decree of legal separation~~ the valuation date; or

(e) is excluded by a valid antenuptial contract."

Within 60 days after a proceeding for dissolution or annulment is commenced, unless the time is extended either by agreement of the parties or by order of the court for good cause shown, each party shall serve and file a verified statement identifying all assets, marital and nonmarital, the values of the assets and the basis for the values, and disclosing all liabilities of the parties. If there is a substantial change in value of an asset between the date of valuation and the final distribution, the court may adjust the valuation of that asset as necessary to effect an equitable distribution. During the pendency of a marriage dissolution or annulment proceeding, each party owes a fiduciary duty to the other for any profit or loss derived by the party, without consent of the other, from a transaction or from any use by the party of the marital assets."

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL PROPERTIES AND INVESTMENTS.] (a) ~~In acquiring, investing, reinvesting, exchanging and managing property,~~ A trustee is authorized to ~~acquire~~ invest in every kind of ~~real or personal~~ property, ~~real, personal or mixed,~~ and every kind of investment, specifically including, but not by way of limitation, bonds, debentures and other individual or corporate obligations, mutual funds, and corporate stocks. ~~A trustee, in determining the prudence of a particular investment, shall consider the role that the proposed investment or investment course of action plays within the overall portfolio of assets. In applying the total asset~~

~~management approach, that a prudent person would invest in having in mind the preservation of the trust estate and the amount and regularity of the income derived. In considering an investment, a trustee shall exercise the care, skill, and judgment and care under the circumstances then prevailing, which persons that a person of ordinary prudence, discretion, and intelligence would exercise in the management of their own affairs, not in regard to speculation but in regard to the permanent disposition of their funds the person's own property; and shall consider the role that the investment plays within the trust's overall portfolio of assets. If the trustee has special greater skills or expertise than a person of ordinary prudence or if the trustee holds itself out as having special skills or expertise is named trustee by representing that the trustee has greater skills than a person of ordinary prudence, the trustee is under a duty to use those skills or expertise.~~

(b) ~~Except as may be provided to the contrary in the instrument, the following are~~ Among the factors that should to be considered by a trustee in applying the total asset management approach determining the prudence of a particular investment are the following:

(1) the probable income of the trust as well as the probable safety of the capital of the trust;

(2) ~~marketability of investments~~ the composition of the portfolio of the trust with regard to diversification;

(3) the length of the term of investments of the trust;

(4) the duration of the trust;

(5) the liquidity needs and current return of the trust's portfolio relative to the anticipated cash requirements of the trust;

(6) requirements of the beneficiary or beneficiaries;

(7) other assets of the beneficiary or beneficiaries, known to the trustees, including earning capacity; and

(8) effect of investments in increasing or diminishing liability for taxes

(7) the relative interests of income and remainder beneficiaries;

(8) the tax consequences; and

(9) the reasonableness of administrative costs, fees and commissions that will be paid from the trust, in view of the complexity of the investment, the skills of the trustee and other persons who will be paid for investment services, and the anticipated return from the investment.

(c) An investment that is otherwise prudent must not be considered imprudent solely because it is in new, unproven, untried, or other enterprises with a potential for significant growth or in a limited partnership or commingled fund investing in these enterprises.

Sec. 2. [501.155] [EMPLOYEES AND AGENTS OF TRUSTEE.]

Unless otherwise provided in the instrument, a trustee may employ attorneys, accountants, investment advisors, agents, or other persons, even if they are associated with the trustee, to advise or assist the trustee in the performance of duties. The trustee may act without independent investigation upon their recommendations or, instead of acting personally, employ one or more agents to perform any act of administration, whether or not discretionary, except that:

- (1) the trustee may not delegate all of the trustee's duties;
- (2) the employment does not relieve the trustee of liability for the acts of a person that, if done by the trustee, would result in liability to the trustee; and
- (3) the employment does not relieve the trustee of the duty to select and retain a person with reasonable care.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 501.66, subdivision 28, is amended to read:

Subd. 28. The trustee may employ attorneys, accountants, investment advisors, agents or other persons, even if they are associated with the trustee, to advise or assist the trustee in the performance of duties; to act without independent investigation upon their recommendations; and instead of acting personally, to employ one or more agents to perform any act of administration, whether or not discretionary; ~~except that:~~

- (1) the trustee may not delegate all of the trustee's duties; and
- (2) the employment does not relieve the trustee of liability for the discretionary acts of a person, which if done by the trustee, would result in liability to the trustee, or of the duty to select and retain a person with reasonable care.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 524.2-202, is amended to read:

524.2-202 [AUGMENTED ESTATE.]

The augmented estate means the estate reduced by funeral and administration expenses, the homestead, family allowances and exemptions, liens, mortgages, and enforceable claims, to which is added the sum of the following amounts:

(1) The value of property, other than the homestead, transferred by the decedent at any time during the marriage, to or for the benefit of any person other than the surviving spouse, to the extent that the decedent did not receive adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth for the transfer, if the transfer is of any of the following types:

(i) any transfer under which the decedent retained at the time of death the possession or enjoyment of, or right to income from, the property;

(ii) any transfer to the extent that the decedent retained at the time of death a power, either alone or in conjunction with any other person, to revoke or to consume, invade or dispose of the principal for personal benefit;

(iii) any transfer whereby property is held at the time of decedent's death by decedent and another with right of survivorship;

(iv) any transfer made within one year of death of the decedent to the extent that the aggregate transfers to any one donee in the year exceeds $30,000.

Any transfer is excluded if made with the written consent or joinder of the surviving spouse. Property is valued as of the decedent's death except that property given irrevocably to a donee during lifetime of the decedent is valued as of the date the donee came into possession or enjoyment if that occurs first.

Notwithstanding the provisions of items (i) to (iv), the augmented estate includes the proceeds of property described in clause (3) only to the extent provided in clause (3).

(2) The value of property, other than the homestead, owned by the surviving spouse at the decedent's death, plus the value of property transferred by the spouse at any time during marriage to any person other than the decedent which would have been includable in the spouse's augmented estate if the surviving spouse had predeceased the decedent, to the extent the owned or transferred property is derived from the decedent by any means other than testate or intestate succession or as an obligation of support without a full consideration in money or money's worth. For purposes of this clause:

(i) Property derived from the decedent includes, but is not limited to, any beneficial interest of the surviving spouse in a trust created by the decedent during the decedent's lifetime; any property appointed to the spouse by the decedent's exercise of a general or special power of appointment also exercisable in favor of others than the spouse; any proceeds of insurance, including accidental death benefits, on the life of the decedent attributable to premiums paid by the decedent; any lump sum immediately payable and the commuted value of the proceeds of annuity contracts under which the decedent was the primary annuitant attributable to premiums paid by the decedent; the commuted value of amounts payable after the decedent's death under any public or private pension, disability compensation, benefit, or retirement plan or account, excluding the federal social security system and tier 1 railroad retirement benefits, by reason of service performed, disabilities incurred, or deposits made by the decedent; any property held at the time of decedent's death by decedent and the surviving spouse with right of survivorship; any property held by decedent and transferred by contract to the surviving spouse by reason of the decedent's death; and the value of the share of the surviving spouse resulting from rights in community property in this or any other state formerly owned with the decedent.

(ii) Property owned by the spouse at the decedent's death is valued as of the date of death. Property transferred by the spouse is valued at the time the transfer became irrevocable, or at the decedent's death, whichever occurred first. Income earned by included property prior to the decedent's death is not treated as property derived from the decedent.

(iii) Property owned by the surviving spouse as of the decedent's death of the kind described in clause (2)(i) is presumed to have been derived from the decedent except to the extent that the surviving spouse establishes that it was derived from another source. All other property owned by the surviving spouse as of the decedent's death, or previously transferred by the surviving spouse, is presumed not to have been derived from the decedent except to the extent that an interested party establishes that it was derived from the decedent.

(3) The value of property paid to, or for the benefit of, a person other than the surviving spouse as a result of the decedent's death if the property is any of the following types:

(i) proceeds of insurance, including accidental death benefits, but excluding (1) insurance required by a judgment and decree or court order; (2) credit life insurance; (3) insurance required by the terms of a contract; (4) insurance obtained for the purpose of discharging any other liability;

contingent or fixed; to the extent the proceeds are used to discharge the liability; or (5) insurance obtained for a bona fide business purpose attributable to premiums paid by the decedent during the marriage except that: (a) if an enforceable claim satisfied with proceeds of insurance on the decedent's life is not deducted in computing the augmented estate, the proceeds must not be included separately; (b) if the value of a business interest is included in the augmented estate, the proceeds of insurance on the decedent's life that are paid to the business or are applied in performance of a purchase agreement relating to the business interest must not be included separately; (c) if the decedent was required by a decree or order dissolving a prior marriage to pay premiums on insurance on the decedent's life for the benefit of specified persons, the proceeds of that insurance must not be included separately; and (d) in other similar cases the proceeds of insurance must not be included separately;

(ii) a lump sum immediately payable, or the commuted value of the proceeds of annuity contracts under which the decedent was the primary annuitant attributable to premiums paid by the decedent during the marriage; or

(iii) the commuted value of amounts payable after the decedent's death under any public or private pension, disability compensation, benefit, or retirement plan or account, excluding the federal social security system and tier 1 railroad retirement benefits, by reason of service performed, disabilities incurred, or deposits made by the decedent, attributable to premiums or contributions paid by the decedent during the marriage.

For purposes of this clause, premiums or contributions paid by the decedent's employer, the decedent's partner, a partnership of which the decedent was a member, or the decedent's creditors, are deemed to have been paid by the decedent, and any amounts otherwise includable in the augmented estate are excluded if made with the written consent or joinder of the surviving spouse.

Unless the payer of the property has received written notice of intention to file a petition for the elective share, the property may be paid, upon request and satisfactory proof of the decedent's death, to the designated beneficiary of the property. Payment made discharges the payer from all claims for the amounts paid. This does not extend to payments made after the payer has received written notice of intention to file a petition for the elective share. Unless the notice is withdrawn by the surviving spouse, the surviving spouse must concur in any demand for withdrawal.

For an insurer, the written notice of intention to file a petition for the elective share must be mailed to its home office by registered mail, return receipt requested, or served upon the insurer in the same manner as a summons in a civil action. Upon receipt of written notice of intention to file a petition for the elective share, an insurer may pay any amounts owed by it specified in clause (3) to the court in which the probate proceedings relating to the estate of the decedent are venued, or if no proceedings have been commenced, to the court having jurisdiction of decedents' estates located in the county of the insured's residence. The court shall hold the funds and, upon its determination under section 524.2-205, subsection (d), shall order its disbursement in accordance with the determination. If no petition is filed in the court within the specified time under section 524.2-205, subsection (a), or if filed, the demand for an elective share is withdrawn under section 524.2-205, subsection (c), the court shall order disbursement to the designated beneficiary. Payment made to the court discharges the insurer from all claims for the amounts paid.

Upon petition to the probate court by the designated beneficiary, the court may order that all or part of the property be paid to the designated beneficiary in an amount and subject to conditions consistent with this section.

Sec. 5. [REPEALER.]

"Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 84.928, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [OPERATION ON STREETS AND HIGHWAYS.] (a) A person shall not operate an all-terrain vehicle upon the roadway, shoulder, or inside bank or slope of a trunk, county state-aid, or county highway in this state and, in the case of a divided trunk or county highway, on the right-of-way between the opposing lanes of traffic, except as provided in sections 84.92 to 84.929. A person shall not operate an all-terrain vehicle within the right-of-way of a trunk, county state-aid, or county highway from April 1 to August 1 in the agricultural zone unless the vehicle is being used exclusively as transportation to and from work on agricultural lands. A person shall not operate an all-terrain vehicle within the right-of-way of a trunk, county state-aid, or county highway between the hours of one-half hour after sunset to one-half hour before sunrise, except on the right-hand side of the right-of-way and in the same direction as the highway traffic on the nearest lane of the adjacent roadway. A person shall not operate an all-terrain vehicle at any time within the right-of-way of an interstate highway or freeway within this state.

(b) An all-terrain vehicle may make a direct crossing of a street or highway provided:

(1) the crossing is made at an angle of approximately 90 degrees to the direction of the highway and at a place where no obstruction prevents a quick and safe crossing;

(2) the vehicle is brought to a complete stop before crossing the shoulder or main traveled way of the highway;

(3) the driver yields the right-of-way to all oncoming traffic that constitutes an immediate hazard;

(4) in crossing a divided highway, the crossing is made only at an intersection of the highway with another public street or highway; and

(5) if the crossing is made between the hours of one-half hour after sunset to one-half hour before sunrise or in conditions of reduced visibility, only if both front and rear lights are on.

(c) An all-terrain vehicle may be operated upon a bridge, other than a bridge that is part of the main traveled lanes of an interstate highway, when required for the purpose of avoiding obstructions to travel when no other method of avoidance is possible; provided the all-terrain vehicle is operated in the extreme right-hand lane, the entrance to the roadway is made within 100 feet of the bridge, and the crossing is made without undue delay.

(d) A person shall not operate an all-terrain vehicle upon a public street or highway unless the vehicle is equipped with at least one headlight and one taillight, each of minimum candlepower as prescribed by rules of the commissioner, with reflector material of a minimum area of 16 square inches mounted on each side forward of the handlebars, and with brakes conforming to standards prescribed by rule of the commissioner, and all of which are subject to the approval of the commissioner of public safety.

(e) An all-terrain vehicle may be operated upon a public street or highway other than as provided by paragraph (b) in an emergency during the period of time when and at locations where the condition of the roadway renders travel by automobile impractical.

(f) Chapter 169 applies to the operation of all-terrain vehicles upon streets and highways, except for those provisions relating to required equipment and except those provisions which by their nature have no application.

(g) A sled, trailer, or other device being towed by an all-terrain vehicle must be equipped with reflective materials as required by rule of the commissioner.

(h) Sections 169.121, 169.123, and 169.129 apply to the operation of all-terrain vehicles within the state or upon the ice of any boundary water of this state.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 84.928, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [OPERATING UNDER INFLUENCE OF ALCOHOL OR CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE.] A person may not operate or be in control of an all-terrain vehicle within this state or on the ice of any boundary water of this state while under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance, as provided in section 169.121, ~~subdivision 1, or a controlled substance defined in section 152.01, subdivision 4. A person violating this subdivision is guilty of a crime and is punishable in accordance with the provisions of section 169.121, subdivisions 3 and 4.~~ A person who operates or is in control of an all-terrain vehicle within this state or on the ice of any boundary water of this state consents to a chemical test to determine the presence of alcohol or a controlled substance and is subject to section 169.123.

Mr. Schmitz from the Committee on Local and Urban Government, to which was referred

S.F. No. 433: A bill for an act relating to local government; regulating the development, imposition, and management of state mandates upon local political subdivisions; proposing coding for new law as Minnesota Statutes, chapter 468.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 3.981, is amended to read:
3.981 [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] The terms used in sections 3.981 to 3.983 and 14.131 have the meanings given them in this section.

Subd. 2. [MANDATE.] A "mandate" is a requirement imposed upon a local political subdivision by an external governmental or judicial authority which, if not complied with, results in (a) civil liability, (b) criminal penalty, or (c) administrative sanctions such as reduction or loss of funding.

Subd. 3. [LOCAL POLITICAL SUBDIVISION.] A "local political subdivision" is a county, city, or town or other taxing district or municipal corporation.

Subd. 24. [COSTS MANDATED BY THE STATE.] (a) "Costs mandated by the state" means increased costs that a local agency or a school district political subdivision is required to incur as a result of:

(a) (1) a law enacted after June 30, 1985, which mandates a new program or an increased level of service of an existing program;

(b) (2) an executive order issued after June 30, 1985, which mandates a new program;

(c) (3) an executive order issued after June 30, 1985, which implements or interprets a state statute and, by this implementation or interpretation, increases program levels above the levels required before July 1, 1985;

(d) (4) a statute enacted after June 30, 1985, or executive order issued after June 30, 1985, which implements or interprets a federal statute or regulation and, by this implementation or interpretation, increases program or service levels above the levels required by this federal statute or regulation;

(e) (5) a statute enacted after June 30, 1985, or executive order issued after June 30, 1985, which implements or interprets a statute or amendment adopted or enacted pursuant to the approval of a statewide ballot measure by the voters and, by this implementation or interpretation, increases program or service levels above the levels required by the ballot measure;

(f) (6) a statute enacted after June 30, 1985, or executive order issued after June 30, 1985, which removes an option previously available to local agencies and thus increases program or service levels or prohibits a specific activity and so forces local agencies to use a more costly alternative to provide a mandated program or service;

(g) (7) a statute enacted after June 30, 1985, or executive order issued after June 30, 1985, which requires that an existing program or service be provided in a shorter time period and thus increases the cost of the program or service;

(h) (8) a statute enacted after June 30, 1985, or executive order issued after June 30, 1985, which adds new requirements to an existing optional program or service and thus increases the cost of the program or service as the local agencies have no reasonable alternatives other than to continue the optional program;

(i) (9) a statute enacted after June 30, 1985, or executive order issued after June 30, 1985, which creates new revenue losses stemming from new property or sales and use tax exemptions;

(j) (10) a statute enacted after June 30, 1985, or executive order issued after June 30, 1985, which requires costs previously incurred at local option that have subsequently been mandated by the state; or

(k) (11) a statute enacted or an executive order issued after March 26, 1986 which requires payment of a new fee or increases the amount of an existing fee;

(12) when state statutory or executive actions are intended to achieve compliance with federal statutes or regulations or court orders, state mandates shall be determined as follows:

(i) if the federal statute or regulation or court order is discretionary, the state statutory or executive action is a state mandate;

(ii) if the state statutory or executive action exceeds what is required by the federal statute or regulation or court order, only the provisions of the state action which exceed the federal requirements are a state mandate; and

(iii) if the state statutory or executive action does not exceed what is required by the federal statute or regulation or court order, the state action is not a state mandate.

(b) State mandated costs include the costs of:

(1) a rule issued after December 31, 1988, which mandates a new responsibility; and

(2) a rule issued after December 31, 1988, which implements or interprets a state statute enacted after December 31, 1986, and by doing so increases program levels above the levels required before January 1, 1988.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 3.982, is amended to read:

3.982 [FISCAL NOTES FOR STATE-MANDATED ACTIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [DIVISION OF STATE AND LOCAL MANDATES.] When the state proposes to mandate that a local agency or school district take an action, and when reasonable compliance with that action would force the local agency or school district to incur costs mandated by the state, a fiscal note shall be prepared as provided in section 3.98, subdivision 2 and shall be made available to the public upon request. If the action is among the exceptions listed in section 3.983, a fiscal note need not be prepared.

~~When a bill proposing a mandate is introduced and referred to a standing committee, the chair of the standing committee to which the bill is referred shall request the appropriate state agency or department to prepare a fiscal note before the bill is heard in the committee. Before a proposed mandate is issued in an executive order, the governor or appropriate agency head assigned by the governor shall prepare the fiscal note and make it available to the public.~~

A division of state and local mandates in the office of state auditor is created. The division shall make a reasonable determination in a timely manner of the estimated and actual financial effects on each local political subdivision of each program mandated by the legislature and each rule proposed by an administrative agency. The division may require the commissioner of the appropriate administrative agency of the state to supply in a timely manner any information determined by the division to be necessary to determine local financial effects. The commissioner shall convey the requested information to the division with a signed statement to the effect that the information is accurate and complete to the best of the commissioner's ability.

The division when requested shall update its determination of financial effects based on either actual cost figures or improved estimates or both.

Subd. 2. [MANDATE EXPLANATIONS.] Any bill introduced in the legislature after December 31, 1988, which seeks to impose program or financial mandates on local political subdivisions shall include as an attachment bill appropriate responses to the following guidelines. It shall state and list:

(1) the policy goals which are sought to be attained, the performance standards that are to be imposed, and an explanation why the goals and standards will best be served by requiring compliance on the part of local political subdivisions;

(2) performance standards which will allow local political subdivisions flexibility and innovation of method in achieving these goals;

(3) the rationale for each prescribed standard and the process by which each standard shall govern inputs such as staffing and other administrative aspects of the program;

(4) the sources of additional revenue, in addition to existing funding for similar programs, that are directly linked to imposition of the mandates that will provide adequate and stable funding for their requirements;

(5) what input has been obtained to ensure that the implementing agencies have the capacity to carry out the delegated responsibilities; and

(6) the reasons why less intrusive measures such as financial incentives or voluntary compliance would not yield the equity, efficiency, or desired level of statewide uniformity in the proposed program.

Subd. 3. [LOCAL INVOLVEMENT; LAWS.] Any bill introduced in the legislature after December 31, 1988, which seeks to impose a program or financial mandate on local political subdivisions shall include as an attachment a description of the efforts put forth, if any, to involve local political subdivisions in the creation or development of the proposed mandate.

Subd. 4. [NO MANDATE RESTRICTION.] Except as specifically provided by this act, nothing in this act shall be construed to restrict or eliminate the authority of the state to create or impose programs by legislative mandate upon local political subdivisions.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 3.983, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [MISCELLANEOUS EXCEPTIONS.] A fiscal note need not be prepared for the cost of a mandated action if the law containing the mandate:

- (a) accommodates a specific local request;
- (b) results in no new local government duties;
- (c) leads to revenue losses from exemptions to taxes other than sales, use, or property taxes;
- (d) provides only clarifying or conforming, nonsubstantive changes on local government;
- (e) imposes additional net local costs which are minor (less than $200 for any single local government if the mandate does not apply statewide or less than one-tenth of a mill times the entire value of taxable property in the state if the mandate is statewide) and do not cause a financial burden on local government;
- (f) is a legislative mandate or executive order enacted before July 1, 1985, or a rule initially implementing legislation enacted before July 1, 1985;
- (g) implements something other than a state statute or executive order, such as a federal, court, or voter-approved mandate;
- (h) appears in rules that are permissive or discretionary in nature;
- (i) defines a new crime or redefines an existing crime or infraction;
- (j) provides, or falls within the purview of existing, revenue sources or other financing mechanisms; or
- (k) (i) results in savings that equal or exceed costs;
- (j) provides for the holding of elections;
- (k) clarifies the assurance of due process and equal protection;
- (l) provides for the notification and conduct of public meetings;
- (m) specifies the procedures for administrative and judicial review of actions taken by local political subdivisions;
- (n) provides for the protection of the public from malfeasance, misfeasance, or nonfeasance by officials of local political subdivisions;

(o) relates to financial administration, including the levy, assessment, and collection of taxes; or

(p) requires the preparation and submission of financial audits necessary to the administration of state laws.

Sec. 4. [3.984] [REIMBURSEMENT TO LOCAL POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS FOR COSTS OF STATE MANDATES.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] Definitions of class A and class B state mandates have the meanings given them.

(a) For purposes of this section, "class A state mandates" are defined as those laws under which the state mandates to local political subdivisions, their participation, the organizational structure of the program, and the procedural regulations under which the law must be administered.

(b) For purposes of this section, "class B state mandates" are those mandates that allow the political subdivisions to opt for administration of a law with program elements mandated beforehand and with an assured revenue level from the state of 90 percent of full program and administrative costs.

Subd. 2. [REPORT.] The division of state and local mandates shall submit to the department of finance by September 1, 1990, and by September 1 of each year thereafter, a report by local political subdivisions of the costs of class A state mandates established after December 31, 1988, to be reimbursed for the next preceding fiscal year.

The department of finance shall annually include the statewide total of the statement of costs of class A mandates to be reimbursed as a line item appropriation in the state budget for the next fiscal year.

The state treasurer shall, in July 1991 and in July of each year thereafter, distribute to local political subdivisions the reimbursements for class A state mandated costs in accordance with the report submitted to the department of finance.

Subd. 3. [CERTAIN POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS; REPORT.] The local political subdivisions that have opted to administer class B state mandates shall report to the division of state and local mandates on or before September 1, 1990, and on or before September 1 of each year thereafter, regarding the fact that revenue for a class B state mandate has fallen below 85 percent of the total cost of the program and that the local political subdivision intends to cease administration of the program.

The division shall forward a copy of the report to the department of finance and the respective chairs of the senate finance committee and the house appropriations committee for inclusion of the shortfall as a line item appropriation in the state budget for the next fiscal year.

The local political subdivision may exercise its option to cease administration only if the legislature has failed to include the shortfall as an appropriation in the state budget for the next fiscal year.

Subd. 4. [EXEMPTIONS.] Statutes and executive orders enumerated in Minnesota Statutes, section 3.983, are exempted from this section.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 14.11, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FISCAL NOTE ON RULE IN NOTICE.] If the adoption of a rule by an agency will require the expenditure of public ~~money monies~~ by local public bodies, the appropriate notice of the agency's intent to adopt a rule shall be accompanied by a written statement giving the agency's reasonable estimate of the total cost to all local public bodies in the state to implement the rule for the two years immediately following adoption of the rule if the estimated total cost exceeds $100,000 in either of the two years after December 31, 1988, shall be accompanied by a written report of the division of state and local mandates. The report shall state the division's opinion of the total cost to local public bodies to implement the rule for the two years immediately following adoption of the rule. The report shall further contain the opinion of the division as to the consistency of the proposed rule with the original legislative intent. The division shall have 60 days from the date of the agency's request to issue the report. For purposes of this subdivision, local public bodies shall mean officers and governing bodies of the political subdivisions of the state and other officers and bodies of less than statewide jurisdiction which have the authority to levy taxes.

Sec. 6. [14.401] [PERIODIC REVIEW OF ADMINISTRATIVE RULES.]

The division of state and local mandates shall review every five years the rules adopted after December 31, 1988, that have significant financial impact upon local political subdivisions. For purposes of this section, "significant financial impact" means requiring local political subdivisions to expand existing services, employ additional personnel, or increase local expenditures. The division shall determine the costs and benefits of each rule and submit a report to the commission with its opinion, if any, for the continuation, modification, or elimination of each rule.

"Sec. 4. Laws 1986, chapter 396, section 4, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [USE OF PROPERTY.] Revenues received from the tax may only be used:

(1) to pay costs of collection;

(2) to pay or secure the payment of any principal of, premium or interest on bonds issued in accordance with this act;

(3) to pay costs to acquire, design, equip, construct, improve, maintain, operate, administer, or promote the convention center or related facilities, including financing costs related to them;

(4) to pay reasonable and appropriate costs determined by the city to replace housing and the ice arena removed from the site; and

(5) to maintain reserves for the foregoing purposes deemed reasonable and appropriate by the city.

In the event of any amendment to chapter 297A enacted subsequent to the effective date of this act which exempts sales or uses which were taxable under chapter 297A on the effective date of this act, the city may by ordinance extend the tax authorized hereby to any such sales or uses provided that the city council shall have determined that such extension is necessary to provide revenues for the uses to which taxes may be applied under this section and further provided that, in the estimation of the city council, the aggregate annual collections following such extension will not exceed the aggregate annual collections which would have been generated if chapter 297A, as in effect on the effective date of this act, were then in effect. Any revenue bonds issued in accordance with this act may, with the consent of the city council, contain a covenant that the tax will be so extended to the extent necessary to pay principal and interest on the bonds when due.

Money for replacement housing shall be made available by the city only for new construction, conversion of nonresidential buildings, and for rehabilitation of vacant residential structures, only if all of the units in the newly constructed building, converted nonresidential building, or rehabilitated residential structure are to be used for replacement housing."

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"ARTICLE 1

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 144.219, is amended to read:

144.219 [AMENDMENT OF VITAL RECORDS.]

Upon the order of a court of this state, upon the request of a court of another state, or upon the filing of an ~~acknowledgment of paternity a declaration of parentage under section 257.34~~ with the state registrar or the appropriate court ~~which is not disputed by the mother named on the original birth certificate within a reasonable time after being informed of the filing,~~ a new birth certificate shall be registered consistent with the findings of the court or with the ~~acknowledgment of paternity declaration of parentage.~~

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.01, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [SPECIFIC POWERS.] Subject to the provisions of section 241.021, subdivision 2, the commissioner of human services shall:

(1) Administer and supervise all forms of public assistance provided for by state law and other welfare activities or services as are vested in the commissioner.

(2) Administer and supervise all child welfare activities; promote the enforcement of laws protecting handicapped, dependent, neglected and delinquent children, and children born to mothers who were not married to the children's fathers at the times of the conception nor at the births of the children; license and supervise child-caring and child-placing agencies and institutions; supervise the care of children in boarding and foster homes or in private institutions; and generally perform all functions relating to the field of child welfare now vested in the state board of control.

(3) Administer and supervise all noninstitutional service to handicapped persons, including those who are visually impaired, hearing impaired, or physically impaired or otherwise handicapped. The commissioner may provide and contract for the care and treatment of qualified indigent children in facilities other than those located and available at state hospitals when it is not feasible to provide the service in state hospitals.

(4) Assist and actively cooperate with other departments, agencies and institutions, local, state, and federal, by performing services in conformity with the purposes of Laws 1939, chapter 431.

(5) Act as the agent of and cooperate with the federal government in matters of mutual concern relative to and in conformity with the provisions of Laws 1939, chapter 431, including the administration of any federal funds granted to the state to aid in the performance of any functions of the commissioner as specified in Laws 1939, chapter 431, and including the promulgation of rules making uniformly available medical care benefits to all recipients of public assistance, at such times as the federal government increases its participation in assistance expenditures for medical care to recipients of public assistance, the cost thereof to be borne in the same proportion as are grants of aid to said recipients.

(6) Establish and maintain any administrative units reasonably necessary for the performance of administrative functions common to all divisions of the department.

(7) Administer and supervise any additional welfare activities and services as are vested by law in the department.

(8) The commissioner is designated as guardian of both the estate and the person of all the wards of the state of Minnesota, whether by operation of law or by an order of court, without any further act or proceeding whatever, except as to persons committed as mentally retarded.

(9) Act as coordinating referral and informational center on requests for service for newly arrived immigrants coming to Minnesota.

(10) The specific enumeration of powers and duties as hereinabove set forth shall in no way be construed to be a limitation upon the general transfer of powers herein contained.

(11) Establish county, regional, or statewide schedules of maximum fees and charges which may be paid by local agencies for medical, dental, surgical, hospital, nursing and nursing home care and medicine and medical supplies under all programs of medical care provided by the state and for congregate living care under the income maintenance programs.

(12) Have the authority to conduct and administer experimental projects to test methods and procedures of administering assistance and services to recipients or potential recipients of public welfare. To carry out such experimental projects, it is further provided that the commissioner of human services is authorized to waive the enforcement of existing specific statutory program requirements, rules, and standards in one or more counties. The order establishing the waiver shall provide alternative methods and procedures of administration, shall not be in conflict with the basic purposes, coverage, or benefits provided by law, and in no event shall the duration of a project exceed ~~two~~ four years. It is further provided that no order establishing an experimental project as authorized by the provisions of this section shall become effective until the following conditions have been met:

(a) The proposed comprehensive plan including estimated project costs and the proposed order establishing the waiver shall be filed with the secretary of the senate and chief clerk of the house of representatives at least 60 days prior to its effective date.

(b) The secretary of health, education, and welfare of the United States has agreed, for the same project, to waive state plan requirements relative to statewide uniformity.

(c) A comprehensive plan, including estimated project costs, shall be approved by the legislative advisory commission and filed with the commissioner of administration.

(13) In accordance with federal requirements establish procedures to be followed by local welfare boards in creating citizen advisory committees, including procedures for selection of committee members.

(14) Allocate federal fiscal disallowances or sanctions which are based on quality control error rates for the aid to families with dependent children, medical assistance, or food stamp program in the following manner:

(a) One-half of the total amount of the disallowance shall be borne by the county boards responsible for administering the programs and shall be shared by each county board in the same proportion as that county's expenditures for the sanctioned program are to the total of all counties' expenditures for that program. Each county shall pay its share of the disallowance to the state of Minnesota. When a county fails to pay the amount due hereunder, the commissioner may deduct the amount from reimbursement otherwise due the county, or the attorney general, upon the request of the commissioner, may institute civil action to recover the amount due.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a), if the disallowance results from knowing noncompliance by one or more counties with a specific program instruction, and that knowing noncompliance is a matter of official county board record, the commissioner may require payment or recover from the county or counties, in the manner prescribed in paragraph (a), an amount equal to the portion of the total disallowance which resulted from the noncompliance, and may distribute the balance of the disallowance according to paragraph (a).

(15) Develop and implement special projects that maximize reimbursements and result in the recovery of money to the state. For the purpose of recovering state money, the commissioner may enter into contracts with third parties. Any recoveries that result from projects or contracts entered into under this paragraph shall be deposited in the state treasury and credited to a special account until the balance in the account reaches $400,000. When the balance in the account exceeds $400,000, the excess shall be transferred and credited to the general fund. All money in the account is appropriated to the commissioner for the purposes of this paragraph.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.736, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [DEFINITIONS.] As used in this section and section 19, the following words have the meanings given them:

(a) "AFDC" means aid to families with dependent children.

(b) "AFDC-UP" means that group of AFDC clients who are eligible for assistance by reason of unemployment as defined by the commissioner under section 256.12, subdivision 14.

(c) "Caretaker" means a parent or eligible adult who is part of the assistance unit that has applied for or is receiving AFDC.

(d) "Employment and training services" means programs, activities, and services related to job training and job placement, including job service programs, job training partnership act programs, wage subsidies, remedial and secondary education programs, post-secondary education programs excluding education leading to an advanced degree, vocational education programs, work incentive programs, work readiness programs, employment search, community work experience programs, displaced homemaker programs, self-employment programs, grant diversion, employment experience programs, youth employment programs, community investment programs, supported work programs, and counseling and support activities necessary to stabilize the caretaker or the family.

(e) "Employment and training service provider" means an administrative entity certified by the commissioner of jobs and training to deliver employment and training services under section 268.0122, subdivision 3.

(f) "Priority groups" or "priority caretakers" means recipients of AFDC or AFDC-UP designated as priorities for employment and training services under section 5.

(g) "Support services" means programs, activities, and services intended to stabilize families and individuals or provide assistance for family needs related to employment or participation in employment and training services, including child care, transportation, housing assistance, personal and family counseling, crisis intervention services, peer support groups, chemical dependency counseling and treatment, money management assistance, and parenting skill courses.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.736, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1b. [WORK INCENTIVE SUBSIDIZED HOUSING PROGRAM.] Within the limit of available appropriations, employed recipients of aid to families with dependent children who meet eligibility requirements established by the commissioner of human services are eligible for a state housing subsidy as an incentive to seek and retain employment. The commissioner of human services shall adopt rules for the work incentive subsidized housing program using eligibility criteria, subsidy amounts, and an administrative system developed jointly by the commissioner of human services and the commissioner of jobs and training. The rules must:

(1) target recipients who are or are likely to become long-term recipients or who experience substantial barriers to employment;

(2) establish a fixed or sliding scale subsidy amount that will create a significant work incentive yet enable the program to serve the greatest possible number of recipients;

(3) limit the subsidy to persons who become employed while receiving assistance; and

(4) provide for continued subsidy payments for up to one year after termination of assistance to ease the transition from assistance to self-sufficiency.

The program must be coordinated with existing work and training programs and must be designed to maximize savings in the aid to families with dependent children program. The subsidy must be provided as in-kind assistance, and it is not available if it would be considered countable income under state and federal requirements.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.736, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [PRIORITY GROUPS.] (a) Priority for participation in employment and training services under this section must be given to caretakers who:

(1) are under the age of 22;

(2) have not received a high school diploma or general equivalency diploma; or

(3) have received 24 months or more of AFDC over the last 36 months.

(b) Highest priority for participation in employment and training services under this section must be given to caretakers with two or more of the characteristics listed in paragraph (a).

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.736, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [OPERATION OF PROGRAMS REGISTRATION.] To determine who shall be designated as an appropriate individual for certification for employment and training services, the commissioner of jobs and training shall provide, by rule, standards for county boards consistent with the standards promulgated by the secretary of health and human services. County boards shall certify appropriate individuals for employment and training services, shall notify the commissioner of human services, and shall require that every individual certified, as a condition of receiving aid to families with dependent children, register for employment services, training, and employment, unless such individual is: (a) To the extent permissible under federal law, every caretaker is required to register for employment and training services, as a condition of receiving AFDC, unless the caretaker is:

(1) a child who is under age 16, a child age 16 or 17 who is attending elementary or secondary school or a secondary level vocational or technical school full time, or a full-time student age 18 who is attending a secondary school or a secondary level vocational or technical program and who is expected to complete the school or program before reaching age 19;

(2) a person caretaker who is ill, incapacitated or of advanced age;

(3) a person so remote from caretaker for whom participation in an employment and training service and where transportation is not reasonably available that effective participation is precluded would require a round trip commuting time by available transportation of more than two hours;

(4) a person caretaker whose presence in the home is required because of illness or incapacity of another member of the household;

(5) a parent caretaker or other caretaker relative of a child under the age of six who personally provides full-time care for the child;

(6) a parent or other caretaker if another adult relative in the assistance unit is registered and has not, without good cause, failed or refused to participate or accept employment;

(7) a pregnant woman in the last trimester of pregnancy; or

(8) a parent who is not the principal earner if the parent who is the principal earner is not exempt under clauses (1) to (7).

Any individual referred to in clauses (3) and (5) to (8) must be advised of the option to register for any available employment services, and training services, and employment if the individual so desires, and must be informed of the any available child care and other support services available if the individual decides to register.

(b) If, after planning with a recipient a decision is made that the recipient must register for employment services, training, and employment, the county board shall notify the recipient in writing of the need to register for participation in an employment and training service and that the recipient to the extent permissible by federal law, applicants for benefits under the AFDC program are registered for employment and training services by signing the application form. Applicants must be informed that they are registering for employment and training services by signing the form. Persons receiving benefits on the effective date of this section shall register for employment and training services to the extent permissible by federal law. The caretaker has a right to a fair hearing under section 256.045 with respect to the appropriateness of the registration.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.736, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [PARTICIPATION.] Caretakers in priority groups must participate in employment and training services under this section to the extent permissible under federal law. However, no assistance unit may be sanctioned for a caretaker's failure to participate in employment and training services under this section if failure results from inadequate funding for employment and training services.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.736, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [CONDITIONS OF CERTIFICATION.] The commissioner of human services shall:

(1) Arrange for or provide any ~~relative or child~~ caretaker required to register for participate in employment and training services pursuant to this section with child-care services, transportation, and other necessary family services;

(2) Pay ten percent of the cost of the work incentive program and any other costs that are required of that agency by federal regulation for employment and training services for recipients of aid to families with dependent children;

(3) Provide that in determining a recipient's needs any monthly incentive training payment made to the recipient by the department of jobs and training is disregarded and the additional expenses attributable to participation in a program are taken into account in grant determination to the extent permitted by federal regulations; and

(4) Provide that when it has been certified by the ~~commissioner of jobs and training, certification to be binding upon the commissioner of human services county board,~~ that a ~~relative or child certified under~~ caretaker required to participate in an employment and training program to the ~~commissioner of jobs and training~~ has been found by the ~~commissioner,~~ after a hearing conducted in the manner prescribed by ~~section 268.10, subdivision 3, with the right of review in accordance with the provisions of section 268.10, subdivision 8,~~ employment and training service provider to have refused without good cause to participate in appropriate employment and training services or to have refused without good cause to accept a bona fide offer of public or other employment, the county board shall provide that:

(a) If the ~~relative caretaker~~ makes the refusal, the ~~relative's caretaker's~~ needs shall not be taken into account in making the grant determination, and aid for any dependent child in the family will be made in the form of protective or vendor payments, except that when protective payments are made, the local agency may continue payments to the ~~relative~~ caretaker if a protective payee cannot reasonably be found.

(b) Aid with respect to a dependent child will be denied if a child who makes the refusal is the only child receiving aid in the family.

(c) If there is more than one child receiving aid in the family, aid for the child who makes the refusal will be denied and the child's needs will not be taken into account in making the grant determination.

(d) If the assistance unit's eligibility is based on the nonexempt principal earner's unemployment and this principal earner fails or refuses without good cause to participate or to accept employment, the entire assistance unit is ineligible for benefits under sections 256.72 to 256.87; ~~if the family is subject to requirements of the work incentive program.~~

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.736, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4a. [NOTICE AND RIGHT OF APPEAL.] The employment and training service provider shall notify the county board of a caretaker's failure without good cause to cooperate or accept employment. Any determination, action, or inaction on the part of the county board relating to a caretaker's participation under section 256.736 is subject to the notice and hearing procedures in section 256.045, and Code of Federal Regulations, title 45, section 205.10.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.736, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PROTECTION FROM GARNISHMENT.] Earnings of a recipient caretaker while participating in full or part-time employment or training shall be protected from garnishment. This protection shall extend for a period of six months from the date of termination of a recipient's caretaker's grant of assistance.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.736, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [SPECIAL NEEDS.] The commissioner of human services shall amend the state plan for aid to families with dependent children to provide, as special needs payments, money for the costs of child care, transportation, tuition, and items associated with education or seeking employment to the extent allowed under federal regulations and state appropriations. The commissioner of human services, with the assistance of the commissioner of education, shall establish a procedure whereby a governmental entity that pays for child care may contract with a county agency authorized to administer AFDC under sections 393.01, subdivision 7, and 393.07, subdivision 2, to make the child care payments on their behalf to AFDC recipients who are eligible for employment special needs funds. The governmental entity shall reimburse the county agency for the nonfederal share of the payments and administrative costs necessary to carry out the contract. The commissioners of human services and education shall provide information and technical assistance to governmental entities about the availability of special needs payments for child care. Governmental entities that receive state aid for child care through the community social services act, the sliding fee child care program, or other programs, shall request special needs payments for child care provided to AFDC recipients who are potentially eligible for special needs assistance under criteria established by the commissioner of human services.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.736, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. [COUNTY DUTIES.] County boards shall:

(1) refer all caretakers required to register under subdivision 3 who are in the priority groups to an employment and training service provider for participation in employment and training services;

(2) identify to the employment and training service provider caretakers who fall into the priority groups;

(3) provide all caretakers with information on available employment and training services and support services;

(4) provide all caretakers with information on available social services and support services that will be available after they leave the AFDC program, such as child support enforcement, extended medical coverage and other health care programs, child care assistance, housing assistance, transportation, and counseling and social services;

(5) encourage clients to view AFDC as a temporary program providing grants and services to clients who set goals and develop strategies for supporting their families without AFDC assistance;

(6) work with the employment and training service provider to encourage voluntary participation by caretakers in the priority groups;

(7) work with the employment and training service provider to collect data as required by the commissioner;

(8) encourage nonpriority caretakers to attend an orientation meeting and to develop a plan to obtain self-sufficiency; and

(9) notify the commissioner of the caretakers required to participate in employment and training services.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.736, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11. [EMPLOYMENT AND TRAINING SERVICES.] (a) County boards shall ensure that the following core services are made available to appropriate caretakers under this section:

(1) orientation meetings;

(2) employment search; and

(3) case management services as defined in subdivision 12 for caretakers in the priority groups.

(b) A county board may provide other employment and training services that it considers necessary to help caretakers obtain self-sufficiency.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.736, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 12. [CASE MANAGEMENT SERVICES.] For the purposes of subdivision 11, clause (3), case management services include the following activities:

(1) assessment of the caretaker's employment, training, and educational needs;

(2) development of an employability plan and development of a written contract establishing goals and a timetable for completing education and obtaining suitable employment;

(3) ongoing assistance to help the caretaker execute the employability plan and the contract;

(4) assistance in securing necessary support services such as child care, transportation, and counseling; and

(5) appropriate in-school and on-the-job follow-up.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.736, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 13. [EMPLOYMENT SEARCH.] (a) The commissioner of human services shall establish an employment search program under United States Code, title 42, section 602(a)(35). The principal wage earner in an AFDC-UP assistance unit must participate in the employment search program within four months of being determined eligible for AFDC-UP unless:

(1) the caretaker is already participating in another approved employment and training service;

(2) the caretaker's employability plan specifies other activities; or

(3) the caretaker is unable to secure employment due to inability to communicate in the English language.

The employment and training service provider shall refer caretakers unable to communicate in the English language to English as a second language courses.

(b) The employment search program must provide the following services:

(1) an initial period of up to four weeks of job search activities for not more than 32 hours per week. The employment and training service provider shall specify for each participating caretaker the number of weeks and hours of job search to be conducted and shall report to the county board if the caretaker fails to cooperate with the employment search requirement; and

(2) an additional period of job search following the first period at the discretion of the employment and training service provider. The total of these two periods of job search may not exceed eight weeks.

(c) The employment search program may provide services to non-AFDC-UP caretakers.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.736, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 14. [REPORTING.] The commissioner of human services, in cooperation with the commissioner of jobs and training and the coordinator of full productivity and opportunity, shall develop reporting requirements for local agencies and employment and training service providers. The requirements must include information necessary to track recipients as they move between activities and information necessary to evaluate the effectiveness of the services.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.736, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 15. [ALLOCATION OF MONEY.] State money appropriated for use under this section must be allocated to counties as follows:

(a) Forty percent of the state money must be allocated for case management services and orientation for caretakers in the priority groups. The allocation must be based on the average monthly number of caretakers receiving AFDC in the county who are under age 22 and the average monthly number of AFDC cases open in the county for 24 or more consecutive months and residing in the service delivery region for the 12-month period ending March 31 of the previous fiscal year.

(b) Twenty percent of the state money must be allocated for orientation for nonpriority caretakers based on the average monthly number of nonpriority caretakers receiving AFDC in the county for the period ending March 31 of the previous fiscal year. Funds may be used to develop employability plans for nonpriority caretakers if resources allow.

(c) Twenty-five percent of the state money must be allocated for employment search activities based on the average monthly number of assistance units in the county receiving AFDC-UP for the period ending March 31 of the previous fiscal year.

(d) Fifteen percent of the state money must be allocated at the discretion of the commissioner, after consultation with the coordinator, based on participation levels for priority group members in each county.

(e) No more than 15 percent of the money appropriated for use under this section may be used for administrative activities.

(f) Counties and the department of jobs and training shall bill the commissioner of human services for any expenditures incurred by the county, the county's employment and training service provider, or the department of jobs and training that may be reimbursed by federal money. The commissioner of human services shall bill the United States Department of Health and Human Services for the reimbursement and appropriate the reimbursed money to the county or employment and training service provider that submitted the original bill. The reimbursed money must be used to expand employment and training services.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.74, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT.] The amount of assistance which shall be granted to or on behalf of any dependent child and mother or other needy eligible relative caring for the dependent child shall be determined by the county agency in accordance with rules promulgated by the commissioner and shall be sufficient, when added to all other income and support available to the child, to provide the child with a reasonable subsistence compatible with decency and health. The amount shall be based on the method of budgeting required in Public Law Number 97-35, section 2315, United States Code, title 42, section 602, as amended and federal regulations at Code of Federal Regulations, title 45, section 233. Nonrecurring lump sum income received by an assistance unit must be budgeted in the normal retrospective cycle. The number of months of ineligibility is determined by dividing the amount of the lump sum income and all other income, after application of the applicable disregards, by the standard of need for the assistance unit. An amount remaining after this calculation is income in the first month of eligibility. If the total monthly income including the lump sum income is larger than the standard of need for a single month the first month of ineligibility is the payment month that corresponds with the budget month in which the lump sum income was received. In making its determination the county agency shall disregard the following from family income:

(1) all of the earned income of each dependent child receiving aid to families with dependent children who is a full-time student or part-time student, and not a full-time employee, attending a school, college, or university, or a course of vocational or technical training designed to fit students for gainful employment as well as all the earned income derived from the job training and partnership act (JTPA) for a dependent child for six calendar months per year, together with unearned income derived from the job training and partnership act;

(2) all educational grants and loans awarded pursuant to a federal law ~~when public assistance was considered in making the award and the award was made on the basis of financial need; and that part of any other educational grant or loan which is used for educational purposes, such as tuition, fees, equipment, transportation and child care expenses necessary for school attendance;~~

(3) the first $75 of each individual's earned income. For self-employed persons, the expenses directly related to producing goods and services and without which the goods and services could not be produced shall be disregarded pursuant to rules promulgated by the commissioner;

(4) an amount equal to the actual expenditures but not to exceed $160 for the care of each dependent child or incapacitated individual living in the same home and receiving aid. In the case of a person not engaged in full-time employment or not employed throughout the month, the commissioner shall prescribe by rule a lesser amount to be disregarded;

(5) thirty dollars plus one-third of the remainder of each individual's earned income not already disregarded for individuals found otherwise eligible to receive aid or who have received aid in one of the four months before the month of application. With respect to any month, the county welfare agency shall not disregard under this clause any earned income of any person who has:

(a) reduced earned income without good cause within 30 days preceding any month in which an assistance payment is made; or

(b) refused without good cause to accept an offer of suitable employment; or

(c) left employment or reduced earnings without good cause and applied for assistance so as to be able later to return to employment with the advantage of the income disregard; or

(d) failed without good cause to make a timely report of earned income in accordance with rules promulgated by the commissioner of human services.

Persons who are already employed and who apply for assistance shall have their needs computed with full account taken of their earned and other income. If earned and other income of the family is less than need, as determined on the basis of public assistance standards, the county agency shall determine the amount of the grant by applying the disregard of income provisions. The county agency shall not disregard earned income for persons in a family if the total monthly earned and other income exceeds their needs, unless for any one of the four preceding months their needs were met in whole or in part by a grant payment.

The disregard of $30 and one-third of the remainder of earned income described in clause (5) shall be applied to the individual's income for a period not to exceed four consecutive months. Any month in which the individual loses this disregard because of the provisions of clauses (5)(a) to (5)(d) shall be considered as one of the four months. An additional $30 work incentive must be available for an eight-month period beginning in the month following the last month of the combined $30 and one-third work incentive. This period must be in effect whether or not the person has earned income or is eligible for AFDC. To again qualify for the earned income disregards under clause (d), the individual must not be a recipient of aid for a period of 12 consecutive months. When an assistance unit becomes ineligible for aid due to the fact that these disregards are no longer applied to income, the assistance unit shall be eligible for medical assistance benefits for a 12-month period beginning with the first month of AFDC ineligibility;

(6) the first $50 per assistance unit of the monthly support obligation collected by the support and recovery (IV-D) unit; and

(7) insurance settlements to pay medical bills, to compensate a member of an assistance unit for partial or permanent loss of function or a body part, or to repair or replace insured property.

The first $50 of periodic support payments collected by the public authority responsible for child support enforcement from a person with a legal obligation to pay support for a member of the assistance unit shall be paid to the assistance unit within 15 days ~~of~~ after the end of the month in which the collection of such periodic support payments occurred and shall be disregarded in determining the amount of assistance.

Sec. 19. [256.765] [PROJECTS FOR LONG-TERM RECIPIENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT AND PURPOSE.] The commissioner of human services shall establish a grant program for projects to serve long-term caretakers who have received AFDC for at least 36 months. The program must pay for innovative projects that provide comprehensive services to long-term caretakers who cannot be helped effectively by other job training and education programs with the goal of achieving permanent employment.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given them.

(a) "Participant" means a recipient of AFDC who is receiving services under the program.

(b) "Substantial barriers to employment" means disabilities, chemical dependency, having children with disabilities, lack of a high school degree, lack of a marketable occupational skill, three or more children, or the lack of regular work experience in the previous five years.

(c) "Case management" means case management as defined in section 14.

Subd. 3. [APPLICATION.] Counties, employment and training service providers, cities, local and state agencies, tribes, educational institutions, job training agencies, community-based organizations, displaced home-maker programs, supported work programs, and other nonprofit agencies may apply for grants under this section.

Subd. 4. [SELECTION.] A committee consisting of the commissioner of human services, the commissioner of jobs and training, the coordinator of full productivity and opportunity, and the director of the state board of vocational technical education shall review the project proposals and select projects to receive grants under this section. The first set of projects must be selected by March 1, 1988. At least two projects must be selected that are operated by or in cooperation with tribes or organizations representing ethnic minorities, except that the committee may reject any project proposal that does not meet the design requirements established in subdivision 5.

Subd. 5. [PROJECT DESIGN.] (a) Projects selected under this section must:

(1) provide participants with a full range of personal, family, and career development services;

(2) use existing resources whenever feasible;

(3) agree that at least 75 percent of the participants served will be long-term recipients and up to 25 percent of the participants will have substantial barriers to employment;

(4) provide for payment of participants' medical expenses through employer-paid health insurance, medical assistance, or other means for at least 12 months following the beginning of employment;

(5) provide services, including child care, to participants for at least 12 months following the beginning of employment;

(6) provide necessary on-the-job monitoring and support;

(7) meet financial and administrative standards established by the commissioner;

(8) participate in reporting and evaluation systems including a 12-month and a 24-month post-program follow-up on the employment, earnings, and public assistance status of participants; and

(9) provide matching fundings from sources other than income maintenance grants, medical assistance, food stamps, or state job training funds.

(b) Priority for grants under this section must be given to projects that meet the requirements in paragraph (a) and can demonstrate that the project will include the following:

(1) agreements with employers to train or place participants in specific jobs;

(2) access to jobs with higher wage levels relative to the local labor market or that include plans for specific career ladders or wage increase schedules; and

(3) substantial multi-agency participation or coordination.

Subd. 6. [ALLOWABLE EXPENDITURES.] (a) Projects may use money received under this section for education, employment, social services, support services, rehabilitation services, relocation assistance, job development, work experience, and on-the-job training, case management, medical services, and other appropriate services.

(b) Projects may use up to 15 percent of the money received under this section for administrative expenses. Administrative expenses do not include expenses for activities in paragraph (a).

(c) The commissioner may establish limits on the use of money for particular purposes or services.

Subd. 7. [DEMONSTRATION AND EVALUATION.] For the biennium ending June 30, 1989, projects are demonstration projects to test the effectiveness of a comprehensive approach to serving populations with high needs. The coordinator of full productivity and opportunity shall submit to the governor and the legislature a progress report by February 1, 1989, and shall submit subsequent program evaluation reports as part of the biennial plan.

Subd. 8. [CONTINUED FUNDING.] Projects that received grants for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, and achieve effective results must be given priority for grants in succeeding grant cycles.

Subd. 9. [CARRYOVER AUTHORITY.] Money appropriated in one fiscal year may be carried forward into the next year to support long-term training and follow-up services.

Sec. 20. [256.936] [FAMILY HEALTH INSURANCE PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] It is the purpose of this section to assist families to achieve self-sufficiency by making available health insurance on a sliding fee basis. The commissioner of human services shall manage the program and seek to maximize use of available federal and state funds to establish the broadest program possible within the appropriation available.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] For purposes of this section, the following terms shall have the meanings given them:

(a) "Families" means a child or children under age 18 and their biological or adoptive parents or stepparents who reside with them.

(b) "Eligible persons" means the following persons who reside in families with gross incomes less than 200 percent of the federal poverty guidelines and who are not eligible for medical assistance under chapter 256B or general assistance medical care under chapter 256D and who are not otherwise insured:

(1) pregnant women;

(2) families who have become ineligible for medical assistance within the last six months following the extensions allowed under section 256B.062; and

(3) children under 18 in families that have at least one child under six.

(c) "Covered services" means comprehensive health maintenance services as specified in section 62D.02, subdivision 7, except mental health services and chemical dependency services.

(d) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of human services.

Subd. 3. [COMMISSIONER'S DUTIES.] The commissioner, with the advice and assistance of the commissioners of health and commerce, shall select a health plan corporation or corporations through a process of competitive bidding and negotiation. The health plan corporations shall provide or arrange to provide covered services to eligible persons. The commissioner shall select health plan corporations regulated under chapter 62A, 62C or 62D who can promote health care provider efficiencies while preserving access and quality care. In addition, the commissioner is required to:

- (1) ensure that all plans of coverage provide at least the covered services;
- (2) assure access to existing public and nonprofit community health clinics if they are available in the service area and they agree to accept rates and conditions comparable to those agreed to by other participating providers for similar services;
- (3) provide eligible persons with the opportunity to choose among all health plans under contract to the commissioner in the designated service area, to change plans without penalty within the initial 30 days, and to participate in an annual open enrollment period of 30 days;
- (4) arrange to subsidize the contribution required of eligible persons who can purchase comparable coverage through an employer sponsored plan, if this would be less expensive;
- (5) assure continuity of care for eligible persons who may experience a change in income and become eligible for medical assistance;
- (6) establish premiums for enrollees covered under this program; and
- (7) guarantee payment for the first prenatal care visit for program applicants, even if the applicant is later determined to be ineligible.

Subd. 4. [HEALTH PLAN CORPORATION DUTIES.] Health plan corporations that contract with the commissioner under this section must agree to:

- (1) provide or arrange to provide, at a minimum, the covered services to all persons enrolled in the plan;
- (2) ensure that medical and social risk assessments are completed for all enrolled pregnant women and that they receive risk appropriate care; and
- (3) comply with other contractual terms and conditions established by the commissioner.

Subd. 5. [SLIDING FEE SCHEDULE.] Eligible persons shall contribute a specified percentage of the health plan premium not to exceed ten percent of their gross family income. For the first year of implementation, the sliding fee schedule must be as follows:

Gross Income as a Percentage of the Federal Poverty Guideline	Enrollee Contribution
Below 125 percent	5 percent
126 to 150 percent	10 percent
151 to 170 percent	30 percent
171 to 185 percent	50 percent
186 to 199 percent	70 percent

The commissioner may review this fee schedule and modify it in rule for future years. Enrollees may not be required to pay any deductibles or coinsurance outside the sliding fee schedule, except for copayments allowed by the commissioner to control inappropriate utilization.

Subd. 6. [FUNDING; ALLOCATION.] (a) The commissioner must make a quarterly assessment of the expected expenditures for the program and the appropriation available.

To the extent possible, the commissioner shall allocate funds so that there is a reasonable relationship between enrollees in each county and the number of eligible persons in each county. Based on this assessment the commissioner may limit enrollments in certain counties or all counties if the appropriations are not sufficient.

(b) If sufficient funds are not available to cover all costs incurred in one quarter, the commissioner may seek an additional authorization for funding from the legislative advisory committee.

Subd. 7. [ADMINISTRATION AND MARKETING.] The commissioner shall establish an office for the administration of this program. A toll-free telephone number must be used to provide information and to provide access to the program. The commissioner shall establish a process for efficient orderly enrollment. The commissioner shall make an annual re-determination of continued eligibility and identify people who may become eligible for medical assistance. The commissioner shall establish marketing efforts to encourage potentially eligible persons to receive information about the program. Applications and other information must be available in county social services offices. The commissioner shall make applications and other information available to organizations serving potentially eligible persons.

Subd. 8. [SUBROGATION.] Enrollees shall contract for and receive coverage for a period of no less than one year unless they become insured through some other plan of coverage. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, benefits under the family health insurance program are secondary to any other plan of insurance or benefit program under which an eligible person may have coverage. The commissioner shall establish procedures for identifying eligible persons who may have coverage or benefits under other plans of insurance or who become eligible for medical assistance and for notifying the health plan corporation with whom the persons are enrolled.

Sec. 21. [256.979] [CHILD SUPPORT INCENTIVES.]

Subdivision 1. [RATIO DETERMINATION.] Using information reported to the commissioner of human services under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act by county agencies responsible for child support enforcement, the commissioner shall determine the cost-benefit ratio for each county on a quarterly basis. The commissioner shall determine the ratio by dividing each county's nonpublic assistance collections by the county child support agency costs. For purposes of this section, collections made on behalf of another county agency in Minnesota shall be identified and counted only by the county agency making the collection.

Subd. 2. [PERCENTAGE DETERMINATION.] The commissioner shall use the following table to determine the percentage for each county that corresponds to the ratio determined in subdivision 1. The commissioner shall multiply each county agency's quarterly nonpublic assistance collections by the applicable percentage to determine the county agency's nonpublic assistance dollar amount for purposes of subdivision 3.

Ratio*	Percent
.1 or less	3.0
.2	3.5
.4	4.0
.6	4.5
.8	5.0
1.0	5.5
1.2	6.0
1.4	6.5
1.6	7.0
1.8	7.5
2.0	8.0
2.2	8.5
2.4	9.0
2.6	9.5
2.8 or more	10.0

*A county ratio that falls between two listed ratios must be rounded up to the next listed ratio.

Subd. 3. [DISTRIBUTION FORMULA.] (a) The commissioner shall determine each county child support enforcement agency's share of the state's quarterly incentive award for nonpublic assistance collections according to the formula in paragraph (b). County agencies that do not submit the required report to the commissioner within 30 days after the end of the quarter shall not receive an incentive award under this section and are excluded for purposes of the formula in this subdivision. Within 45 days after the end of the quarter, the commissioner shall inform each county agency of the determinations and pay the determined amount to the county agency.

(b) To determine the county agency's quarterly incentive award, the commissioner shall:

(1) add all county agency quarterly nonpublic assistance dollar amounts as determined in subdivision 2;

(2) divide the state's quarterly nonpublic assistance incentive award by the total obtained in clause (1); and

(3) multiply the quotient obtained in clause (2) by each county agency's quarterly nonpublic assistance dollar amount as determined under subdivision 2.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.06, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Medical assistance may be paid for any person:

(1) who is a child eligible for or receiving adoption assistance payments under Title IV-E of the Social Security Act, United States Code, title 42, sections 670 to 676 under Minnesota Statutes, section 259.40 or 259.431; or

(2) who is a child eligible for or receiving foster care maintenance payments under Title IV-E of the Social Security Act, United States Code, title 42, sections 670 to 676; or

- (3) who is eligible for or receiving public assistance under the aid to families with dependent children program, the Minnesota supplemental aid program; or
- (4) who is a pregnant woman, as certified in writing by a physician or nurse midwife, and who (a) meets the other eligibility criteria of this section, and (b) would be categorically eligible for assistance under the aid to families with dependent children program if the child had been born and was living with the woman; or
- (5) who is a pregnant woman, as certified in writing by a physician or nurse midwife, who meets the other eligibility criteria of this section and whose unborn child would be eligible as a needy child under clause (9) if born and living with the woman; or
- (6) who meets the categorical eligibility requirements of the supplemental security income program and the other eligibility requirements of this section; or
- (7) who, except for the amount of income or resources, would qualify for supplemental security income for the aged, blind and disabled, or aid to families with dependent children, and who meets the other eligibility requirements of this section; or
- (8) who is under 21 years of age and in need of medical care that neither the person nor the person's relatives responsible under sections 256B.01 to 256B.26 are financially able to provide; or
- (9) who is an infant less than one year of age born on or after October 1, 1984, whose mother was eligible at the time of birth and who remains in the mother's household. Eligibility under this clause is concurrent with the mother's and does not depend on the father's income except as the income affects the mother's eligibility; or
- (10) who is residing in a hospital for treatment of mental disease or tuberculosis and is 65 years of age or older and without means sufficient to pay the per capita hospital charge; and
- (11) who resides in Minnesota, or, if absent from the state, is deemed to be a resident of Minnesota in accordance with the rules of the state agency; and
- (12) who alone, or together with the person's spouse, does not own real property other than the homestead. For the purposes of this section, "homestead" means the house owned and occupied by the applicant or recipient as a primary place of residence, together with the contiguous land upon which it is situated. The homestead shall continue to be excluded for persons residing in a long-term care facility if it is used as a primary residence by the spouse, minor child, or disabled child of any age; or the applicant/recipient is expected to return to the home as a principal residence within six calendar months of entry to the long-term care facility. Certification of expected return to the homestead shall be documented in writing by the attending physician. Real estate not used as a home may not be retained unless it produces net income applicable to the family's needs or the family is making a continuing effort to sell it at a fair and reasonable price or unless the commissioner determines that sale of the real estate would cause undue hardship or unless the equity in the real estate when combined with the equity in the homestead totals $15,000 or less; and
- (13) who individually does not own more than $3,000 in cash or liquid assets, or if a member of a household with two family members (husband and wife, or parent and child), does not own more than $6,000 in cash or liquid assets, plus $200 for each additional legal dependent. In addition to these maximum amounts, an eligible individual or family may accrue interest on these amounts, but they must be reduced to the maximum at the time of an eligibility redetermination. For residents of long-term care facilities, the accumulation of the clothing and personal needs allowance pursuant to section 256B.35 must also be reduced to the maximum at the time of the eligibility redetermination. Cash and liquid assets may include a prepaid funeral contract and insurance policies with cash surrender value. The value of the following shall not be included:

(a) the homestead, and (b) one motor vehicle licensed pursuant to chapter 168 and defined as: (1) passenger automobile, (2) station wagon, (3) motorcycle, (4) motorized bicycle or (5) truck of the weight found in categories A to E, of section 168.013, subdivision 1e; and

(14) who has or anticipates receiving an annual income not in excess of the income standards by family size used in the aid to families with dependent children program, except that families and children may have an income up to 133-1/3 percent of the AFDC payment standard, or who has income in excess of these maxima and in the month of application, or during the three months prior to the month of application, incurs expenses for medical care that total more than one-half of the annual excess income in accordance with the rules of the state agency. Notwithstanding any laws or rules to the contrary, in computing income to determine eligibility of persons who are not residents of long-term care facilities, the commissioner shall disregard increases in income as required by Public Law Number 94-566, section 503. In excess income cases, eligibility shall be limited to a period of six months beginning with the first of the month in which these medical obligations are first incurred; and

(15) who has continuing monthly expenses for medical care that are more than the amount of the person's excess income, computed on a monthly basis, in which case eligibility may be established before the total income obligation referred to in the preceding paragraph is incurred, and medical assistance payments may be made to cover the monthly unmet medical need. In licensed nursing home and state hospital cases, income over and above that required for justified needs, determined pursuant to a schedule of contributions established by the commissioner of human services, is to be applied to the cost of institutional care. The commissioner of human services may establish a schedule of contributions to be made by the spouse of a nursing home resident to the cost of care; and

(16) who has applied or agrees to apply all proceeds received or receivable by the person or the person's spouse from automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage to the costs of medical care for the person, the spouse, and children. The state agency may require from any applicant or recipient of medical assistance the assignment of any rights accruing under private health care coverage. Any rights or amounts so assigned shall be applied against the cost of medical care paid for under this chapter. Any assignment shall not be effective as to benefits paid or provided under automobile accident coverage and private health care coverage prior to receipt of the assignment by the person or organization providing the benefits.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.01, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [STANDARDS.] (a) A principal objective in providing general assistance is to provide for persons ineligible for federal programs who are unable to provide for themselves. To achieve these aims, the commissioner shall establish minimum standards of assistance for general assistance. The minimum standard of assistance determines the total amount of the general assistance grant without separate standards for shelter, utilities, or other needs.

For a recipient who is a member of a one-person assistance unit, the standard shall not be less than the combined total of the minimum standards of assistance for shelter and basic needs in effect on February 1, 1983. The standards of assistance shall not be lower for a recipient sharing a residence with another person unless that person is a responsible relative. The standards of assistance for recipients who are members of an assistance unit composed of more than one person must be equal to the aid to families with dependent children standard of assistance for a family of similar size and composition.

The standards shall be lowered for recipients who share a residence with a person who is a responsible relative of one or more members of the assistance unit if the responsible relative also receives general assistance or aid to families with dependent children. The standards must also be lowered for recipients who share a residence with a responsible relative if the relative is not receiving general assistance or aid to families with dependent children because the relative has been sanctioned or disqualified. If the responsible relative is receiving general assistance or aid to families with dependent children, or would be receiving them but for sanction or disqualification, then the standard applicable to the general assistance recipient's assistance unit must equal the amount that would be attributable to the members of the assistance unit if the members were included as additional recipients in the responsible relative's general assistance or aid to families with dependent children grant. When determining the amount attributable to members of an assistance unit that must receive a reduced standard, the amount attributed to adults must be the amount attributed to another child added to the responsible relative's assistance unit. When an assistance unit is subject to a reduced standard, the reduced standard must not exceed the standard that applies to an assistance unit that does not share a residence with a responsible relative.

For recipients, except recipients who are eligible under section 256D.05, subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clauses (1), (7), (8), (9), and (14), who share a residence with a responsible relative who is not receiving general assistance or aid to families with dependent children but who receives other income, the standards shall be lowered, subject to these limitations:

(a) The general assistance grant to the one-person assistance unit shall be in an amount such that total household income is equal to the aid to families with dependent children standard for a household of like size and composition, except that the grant shall not exceed that paid to a general assistance recipient living independently.

(b) Benefits received by a responsible relative under the supplemental security income program, the social security retirement program if the relative was receiving benefits under the social security disability program at the time of becoming eligible for the social security retirement program or if the relative is a person described in section 256D.05, subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (1), (7), or (9), the social security disability program,

~~a workers' compensation program, the Minnesota supplemental aid program, or on the basis of the relative's disability, must not be included in the household income calculation.~~

(b) For an assistance unit consisting of an adult recipient who is childless and unmarried or living apart from his or her children and spouse, and who does not live with his or her parent or parents or a legal custodian, the standard of assistance shall be $203. When the other standards specified in this subdivision increase, this standard shall also be increased by the same percentage.

(c) For an assistance unit consisting of an adult recipient who is childless and unmarried or living apart from his or her children and spouse, but who lives with his or her parent or parents, the general assistance standard of assistance shall be equal to the amount that the aid to families with dependent children standard of assistance would increase if the recipient were added as an additional minor child to an assistance unit consisting of the recipient's parent and all of that parent's family members, provided that the standard shall not exceed the standard for a general assistance recipient living alone. Benefits received by a responsible relative of the assistance unit under the supplemental security income program, a workers' compensation program, the Minnesota supplemental aid program, or any other program based on the responsible relative's disability, and any benefits received by a responsible relative of the assistance unit under the social security retirement program, shall not be counted in the determination of eligibility or benefit level for the assistance unit. An adult child shall be ineligible for general assistance if the available resources or the countable income of the adult child and the parent or parents with whom he or she lives are such that a family consisting of the adult child's parent or parents, the parent or parents' other family members and the adult child as the only or additional minor child would be financially ineligible for general assistance.

(d) For an assistance unit consisting of a married couple who are childless or who live apart from any child or children of whom either of the married couple is a parent or legal custodian, the standards of assistance shall be equal to the first and second adult standards of the aid to families with dependent children program. If one member of the couple is not included in the general assistance grant, then the standard of assistance for the other shall be equal to the second adult standard of the aid to families with dependent children program, except that, when one member of the couple is not included in the general assistance grant because he or she is not categorically eligible for general assistance under section 256D.05, subdivision 1, and has exhausted work readiness eligibility under section 256D.051, subdivision 4 or 5, for the period of time covered by the general assistance grant, then the standard of assistance for the remaining member of the couple shall be equal to the first adult standard of the aid to families with dependent children program.

(e) For an assistance unit consisting of all members of a family, the standards of assistance shall be the same as the standards of assistance applicable to a family under the aid to families with dependent children program if that family had the same number of parents and children as the assistance unit under general assistance and if all members of that family were eligible for the aid to families with dependent children program. If one or more members of the family are not included in the assistance unit for general assistance, the standards of assistance for the remaining members shall be equal to the standards of assistance applicable to an assistance unit composed of the entire family, less the standards of assistance applicable to a family of the same number of parents and children as those members of the family who are not in the assistance unit for general assistance. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if an assistance unit consists solely of the minor children because their parent or parents have been sanctioned from receiving benefits from the aid to families with dependent children program, the standard for the assistance unit shall be equal to the special child standard of the aid to families with dependent children program.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.02, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. "Family" means ~~two or more individuals who are related by blood, marriage or adoption, who are living in a place or residence maintained by one or more of them as a home, and at least one of whom is a child who is not married to another of such individuals and is in the care of or dependent upon another of such individuals~~ the following persons who live together: a minor child or a group of minor children related to each other as siblings, half siblings, or stepsiblings, together with their natural or adoptive parents, their stepparents, or their legal custodians, and any other minor children of whom an adult member of the family is a legal custodian.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.02, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. "Income" means any form of income, including remuneration for services performed as an employee and net earnings from self-employment, reduced by the amount attributable to employment expenses as defined by the commissioner. The amount attributable to employment expenses shall include amounts paid or withheld for federal and state personal income taxes and federal social security taxes.

"Income" includes any payments received as an annuity, retirement, or disability benefit, including veteran's or workers' compensation; old age, survivors, and disability insurance; railroad retirement benefits; unemployment benefits; and benefits under any federally aided categorical assistance program, supplementary security income, or other assistance program; rents, dividends, interest and royalties; and support and maintenance payments. Such payments may not be considered as available to meet the needs of any person other than the person for whose benefit they are received, unless that person is ~~under a legal duty to support another an~~ adult family member or a spouse and the income is not excluded under section 256D.01, subdivision 1a. Goods and services provided in lieu of cash payment shall be excluded from the definition of income, except that payments made for room, board, tuition or fees by a parent, on behalf of a child enrolled as a full-time student in a post-secondary institution, must be included as income.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.03, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. After December 31, 1980, state aid shall be paid to local agencies for 75 percent of all general assistance grants up to the standards of section 256D.01, subdivision 1a, and according to procedures established by the commissioner, except that, after December 31, 1987, state aid is reduced to 65 percent of all general assistance grants if the local agency does not refer recipients who are eligible for assistance under section 256D.05, subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (15), to occupational or vocational literacy training if the training is available without additional county expenditures and accessible to the recipient.

After December 31, 1986, state aid must be paid to local agencies for 65 percent of work readiness assistance paid under section 256D.051 if the county does not have an approved and operating community investment program.

Any local agency may, from its own resources, make payments of general assistance: (a) at a standard higher than that established by the commissioner without reference to the standards of section 256D.01, subdivision 1; or, (b) to persons not meeting the eligibility standards set forth in section 256D.05, subdivision 1, but for whom the aid would further the purposes established in the general assistance program in accordance with rules promulgated by the commissioner pursuant to the administrative procedure act.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.05, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBILITY.] (a) Each person or family whose income and resources are less than the standard of assistance established by the commissioner shall be eligible for and entitled to general assistance if the person or family is:

- (1) a person who is suffering from a permanent or temporary illness, injury, or incapacity which is medically certified and which prevents the person from obtaining or retaining employment;
- (2) a person whose presence in the home on a substantially continuous basis is required because of the certified illness, injury, incapacity, or the age of another member of the household;
- (3) a person who has been placed in a licensed or certified facility for purposes of physical or mental health or rehabilitation, or in an approved chemical dependency domiciliary facility, if the placement is based on illness or incapacity and is pursuant to a plan developed or approved by the local agency through its director or designated representative;
- (4) a person who resides in a shelter facility described in subdivision 3;
- (5) a person who is or may be eligible for displaced homemaker services, programs, or assistance under section 268.96, but only if that person is enrolled as a full-time student;
- (6) a person who is unable to secure suitable employment due to inability to communicate in the English language, provided that the person is not an illegal alien, and who, if assigned to a language skills program by the local agency, is participating in that program;
- (7) a person not described in clause (1) or (3) who is diagnosed by a licensed physician or licensed consulting psychologist as mentally retarded or mentally ill, and that condition prevents the person from obtaining or retaining employment;
- (8) a person who has an application pending for the social security disability program or the program of supplemental security income for the aged, blind, and disabled, or who has been terminated from either program and has an appeal from that termination pending;

(9) a person who is unable to obtain or retain employment because advanced age significantly affects the person's ability to seek or engage in substantial work;

(10) a person completing a secondary education program;

(11) a family with one or more minor children; provided that, if all the children are six years of age or older, all the adult members of the family register for and cooperate in the work readiness program under section 256D.051; and provided further that, if one or more of the children are under the age of six and if the family contains more than one adult member, all the adult members except one adult member register for and cooperate in the work readiness program under section 256D.051. The adult members required to register for and cooperate with the work readiness program are not eligible for financial assistance under section 256D.051, except as provided in section 256D.051, subdivision 6, and shall be included in the general assistance grant. If an adult member fails to cooperate with requirements of section 256D.051, the local agency shall not take that member's needs into account in making the grant determination. The time limits of section 256D.051, subdivisions 4 and 5, do not apply to people eligible under this clause.

(12) a person who has substantial barriers to employment, including but not limited to factors relating to work or training history, as determined by the local agency in accordance with permanent or emergency rules adopted by the commissioner after consultation with the commissioner of jobs and training;

(13) a person who is certified by the commissioner of jobs and training before August 1, 1985, as lacking work skills or training or as being unable to obtain work skills or training necessary to secure employment, as defined in a permanent or emergency rule adopted by the commissioner of jobs and training in consultation with the commissioner; ~~or~~

(14) a person who is determined by the local agency, in accordance with emergency and permanent rules adopted by the commissioner, to be ~~functionally illiterate~~ ~~or~~ learning disabled;

(15) a person who is determined by the local agency, in accordance with emergency and permanent rules adopted by the commissioner, to be functionally illiterate, provided that the person complies with literacy training requirements set by the local agency under section 28. A person who is terminated for failure to comply with literacy training requirements may not reapply for assistance under this clause for 60 days. The local agency must provide an oral explanation to the person of the person's responsibilities under this clause and of the penalties for failure to comply (1) at the time an application is approved based on this clause, and (2) at the time the person is referred to literacy training; or

(16) a child under the age of 18 who is not living with a parent, stepparent, or legal custodian, but only if: the child is legally emancipated or living with an adult with the consent of an agency acting as a legal custodian; the child is at least 16 years of age and the general assistance grant is approved by the director of the local agency or a designated representative as a component of a social services case plan for the child; or the child is living with an adult with the consent of the child's legal custodian and the local agency.

(b) The following persons or families with income and resources that are less than the standard of assistance established by the commissioner are eligible for and entitled to a maximum of six months of general assistance during any consecutive 12-month period, after registering with and completing six months in a work readiness program under section 256D.051:

- (1) a person who has borderline mental retardation; and
- (2) a person who exhibits perceptible symptoms of mental illness as certified by a qualified professional but who is not eligible for general assistance under paragraph (a), because the mental illness interferes with the medical certification process; provided that the person cooperates with social services, treatment, or other plans developed by the local agency to address the illness.

In order to retain eligibility under this paragraph, a recipient must continue to cooperate with work and training requirements as determined by the local agency.

Sec. 28. [256D.0505] [LITERACY TRAINING FOR RECIPIENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [OCCUPATIONAL AND VOCATIONAL PROGRAMS.] The local agency must work with local educational institutions and job training programs to identify and develop occupational and vocational literacy programs. Occupational and vocational literacy programs are programs which provide literacy training to adults who lack formal education or job skills. The programs emphasize particular language and reading skills needed for successful job performance.

Subd. 2. [ASSESSMENT AND ASSIGNMENT.] The local agency must:

- (1) assess the reading potential and vocational or occupational interests of people eligible under section 256D.05, subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (15);*
- (2) assign suitable recipients to openings in occupational and vocational literacy programs;*
- (3) if no openings are available in accessible occupational or vocational literacy programs, assign suitable recipients to openings in other accessible literacy training programs; and*
- (4) reassign to another literacy program any recipient who does not complete an assigned program and who wishes to try another program.*

Subd. 3. [SERVICES PROVIDED.] The local agency must provide child care and transportation to enable people to participate in literacy training under this section.

Subd. 4. [PAYMENT OF GENERAL ASSISTANCE.] The local agency must provide assistance under section 256D.05, subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (15), to people who:

- (1) participate in a literacy program assigned under subdivision 2. To "participate" means to attend regular classes, complete assignments and make progress toward literacy goals;*
- (2) despite participation for a period of six months or more, fail to progress in assigned literacy programs;*
- (3) are not assigned to literacy training because there is no program available or accessible to them; or*

(4) have failed for good cause to complete an assigned literacy program.

Subd. 5. [REASSESSMENT AND LITERACY REFERRAL.] (a) When a person is no longer functionally illiterate under rules adopted by the commissioner or is terminated for failure to comply with literacy training requirements, the local agency must assess the person's eligibility for general assistance under the remaining provisions of section 256D.05, subdivision 1. The local agency must refer to the work readiness program under section 256D.051 all people not eligible for general assistance.

(b) The local agency may also refer for voluntary work readiness services all recipients who reach a level of literacy that may allow successful participation in job training, provided that the job training does not interfere with a recipient's participation in literacy training. However, referral under this clause does not affect general assistance eligibility.

Subd. 6. [RIGHT TO NOTICE AND HEARING.] The local agency shall provide notice and opportunity for hearings for adverse actions under this section according to sections 256D.10 and 256D.101.

Subd. 7. [COSTS.] The state shall reimburse local agencies for the costs of providing child care and transportation under this section.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.051, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [WORK REGISTRATION.] A person or family whose income and resources are less than the standard of assistance established by the commissioner, but who are not eligible to receive general assistance under section 256D.05, subdivision 1, are eligible for a work readiness program. Upon registration, a registrant is eligible to receive assistance in an amount equal to general assistance under section 256D.05, subdivision 1, for a maximum of six months during any consecutive 12-month period, subject to ~~subdivisions~~ subdivision 3, 4, and 5. The local agency shall pay work readiness assistance in monthly payments beginning at the time of registration.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.051, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LOCAL AGENCY DUTIES.] (a) The local agency shall provide to registrants under subdivision 1 a work readiness program. The work readiness program must include:

- (1) an employability assessment and development plan in which the local agency estimates the length of time it will take the registrant to obtain employment;
- (2) referral to available employment assistance programs including the Minnesota employment and economic development program;
- (3) a job search program; and
- (4) other activities designed by the local agency to prepare the registrant for permanent employment.

In order to allow time for job search, the local agency shall not require an individual to participate in the work readiness program for more than 32 hours a week. The local agency shall require an individual to spend at least eight hours a week in job search or other work readiness program activities.

(b) The local agency may provide a work readiness program to recipients under section 256D.05, subdivision 1, paragraph (b), and shall provide a work readiness program to recipients referred under section 28, subdivision 5, paragraph (b).

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.051, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [TWO-MONTH ASSISTANCE.] The local agency shall terminate a registrant after two months in the work readiness program if unless the local agency determines that registrant is not eligible for assistance under subdivision 5. During the second month of work readiness assistance, the local agency must assess the registrant's eligibility under subdivision 5 and inform the registrant of the outcome of the assessment. A registrant who is not eligible under subdivision 5 is eligible for a maximum of two months of work readiness assistance in any consecutive 24-month period.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.051, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [SIX-MONTH ASSISTANCE.] Except as provided in subdivision 4, the following registrants are eligible for work readiness assistance for a maximum of six months in any consecutive 12-month period:

(1) a person who has borderline mental retardation;

(2) a person who exhibits perceptible symptoms of mental illness as certified by a qualified professional but who is not eligible for general assistance under section 256D.05, subdivision 1 because the mental illness interferes with the medical certification process; and

(3) a person who is certified by the commissioner of jobs and training as being unable to secure suitable employment because the person lives in a distressed county or who is unable to secure suitable employment because the local agency has determined that no jobs are available that a person with the registrant's work history, skills, and ability has the physical and mental ability to perform. For purposes of this paragraph, a county is distressed if it has an average unemployment rate of ten percent or more for the one-year period ending on April 30 of the year in which the designation is made. The commissioner shall designate a contiguous portion of a county containing a city of the first class located outside of the metropolitan area as a distressed county if:

(a) that portion of the county has an unemployment rate of ten percent or more for the one-year period ending on April 30 of the year in which the designation is made; and

(b) that portion of the county has a population of at least 50,000 as determined by the 1980 federal census.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.051, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [LOCAL AGENCY OPTIONS.] The local agency may, at its option, provide up to ~~$100~~ $200 per registrant for direct expenses incurred by the registrant for transportation, clothes, and tools necessary for employment. ~~The local agency may provide an additional $100 for direct expenses of registrants remaining in the work readiness program for more than two months.~~ After paying direct expenses as needed by individual registrants, the local agency may use any remaining money to provide additional services as needed by any registrant including education, orientation, placement, other work experience, on-the-job training, and other appropriate activities.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.051, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. ~~[INELIGIBILITY VOLUNTARY QUIT.] A person who is otherwise eligible to receive work readiness assistance under subdivision 4 must be terminated from work readiness assistance on quitting work without good cause, being fired for misconduct, or refusing to accept an offer of suitable employment. A person is not eligible for work readiness payments or services if, without good cause, the person voluntarily quits suitable employment or refuses a legitimate offer of suitable employment within 60 days before the date of application. A person who, without good cause, voluntarily quits suitable employment or refuses a legitimate offer of suitable employment while receiving work readiness payments or services shall be disqualified for two months according to rules adopted by the commissioner.~~

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.06, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. General assistance shall be granted in such an amount that when added to the nonexempt income actually available to the individual, married couple, or family, the total amount equals the applicable standard of assistance established by the commissioner for general assistance. In determining eligibility for and the amount of assistance the local agency shall disregard the first $50 of earned income per month.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.06, subdivision 1b, is amended to read:

Subd. 1b. [EARNED INCOME SAVINGS ACCOUNT.] In addition to the $50 disregard required under subdivision 1, the local agency shall disregard an additional earned income up to a maximum of $150 per month for persons residing in facilities licensed under Minnesota Rules, parts 9520.0500 to 9520.0690 or 9530.2500 to 9530.4000, and for whom discharge and work are part of a treatment plan. The additional amount disregarded must be placed in a separate savings account by the eligible individual, to be used upon discharge from the residential facility into the community. A maximum of $1,000, including interest, of the money in the savings account must be excluded from the resource limits established by section 256D.08, subdivision 1, clause (1). Amounts in that account in excess of $1,000 must be applied to the resident's cost of care. If excluded money is removed from the savings account by the eligible individual at any time before the individual is discharged from the facility into the community, the money is income to the individual in the month of receipt and a resource in subsequent months. If an eligible individual moves from a community facility to an inpatient hospital setting, the separate savings account is an excluded asset for up to 18 months. During that time, amounts that accumulate in excess of the $1,000 savings limit must be applied to the patient's cost of care. If the patient continues to be hospitalized at the conclusion of the 18-month period, the entire account must be applied to the patient's cost of care.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.06, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 1, a grant of general assistance shall be made to an eligible individual, married couple, or family for an emergency need, as defined in rules promulgated by the commissioner, where the recipient requests temporary assistance not exceeding 30 days if an emergency situation appears to exist and the individual is ineligible for the program of emergency assistance under aid to families with dependent children and is not a recipient of aid to families with dependent children at the time of application hereunder. If a recipient relates facts to the local agency which may be sufficient to constitute an emergency situation, the local agency shall advise the recipient of the procedure for applying for assistance pursuant to this subdivision.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.08, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. In determining eligibility of a family, married couple, or individual there shall be excluded the following resources:

- (1) Real or personal property or liquid assets which do not exceed those permitted under the federally aided assistance program known as aid to families with dependent children; and
- (2) Other property which has been determined, in accordance with and subject to limitations contained in rules promulgated by the commissioner, to be essential to the family or individual as a means of self-support or self-care or which is producing income that is being used for the support of the individual or family. The commissioner shall further provide by rule the conditions for those situations in which property not excluded under this subdivision may be retained by the family or individual where there is a reasonable probability that in the foreseeable future the property will be used for the self-support of the individual or family; and
- (3) Payments, made pursuant to litigation and subsequent appropriation by the United States Congress, of funds to compensate members of Indian tribes for the taking of tribal land by the federal government.

Sec. 39. [DEMONSTRATION PROJECT; PERSONS WITHOUT A VERIFIED RESIDENCE ADDRESS.]

(a) The commissioner shall establish a one-county demonstration project to determine the effectiveness of establishing special procedures for providing assistance to applicants or recipients of general assistance, work readiness, or emergency general assistance, who do not have a verified residence address. For purposes of the demonstration project, the requirements in this section supersede section 256D.09, subdivision 4, and other conflicting laws and rules.

(b) For applicants or recipients of general assistance, emergency general assistance, and work readiness assistance who do not have a verified residence address, the local agency may provide assistance using one or more of the following methods:

- (1) The local agency may provide assistance in the form of vouchers or vendor payments and provide separate vouchers or vendor payments for food, shelter, and other needs.*
- (2) The local agency may divide the monthly assistance standard into weekly payments, whether in cash or by voucher or vendor payment; or issue assistance on the basis of actual need without regard to the standards of assistance established pursuant to section 256D.01, subdivision 1a.*

(3) The local agency may determine eligibility and provide assistance on a weekly basis. Weekly assistance can be issued in cash or by voucher or vendor payment and can be determined either on the basis of actual need or by prorating the monthly assistance standard.

(c) An individual may verify a residence address by providing a driver's license; a state identification card; postmarked mail addressed to and received by the individual at the address; a statement by the landlord, apartment manager, or homeowner verifying that the individual is residing at the address; or other written documentation approved by the commissioner.

(d) If the local agency elects to provide assistance on a weekly basis, the agency shall not provide assistance for a period during which no need is claimed by the individual. The individual must be notified, each time weekly assistance is provided, that subsequent weekly assistance will not be issued unless the individual claims need. The ten-day advance notice required under sections 256D.051, subdivision 13, and 256D.10 does not apply to weekly assistance issued under this paragraph.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.101, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DISQUALIFICATION.] If the local agency determines that a registrant has failed to comply with the requirements of section 256D.051, the local agency shall notify the registrant of the determination. The notification shall be in writing; shall state the facts that support the local agency's determination; shall specify the particular actions that must be taken by the registrant to achieve compliance; shall state that the recipient must take the specified actions by a date certain, which must be at least ~~15~~ ten days following the date the notification is mailed or delivered to the registrant; shall explain the ramifications of the registrant's failure to take the required actions by the specified date; and shall advise the registrant that the registrant may request and have a conference with the local agency to discuss the notification.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE OF GRANT REDUCTION, SUSPENSION, OR TERMINATION.] ~~No~~ The notice of grant reduction, suspension, or termination on the ground that a registrant has failed to comply with section 256D.051 shall be ~~given mailed or hand delivered~~ mailed or hand delivered by the local agency ~~until the notification required by subdivision 1 has been given; the time for compliance stated in the notification has lapsed; and the local agency has, subsequent concurrently with the notification required by subdivision 1. Prior to giving the notification, assessed the local agency must assess the registrant's eligibility for general assistance under section 256D.05 to the extent possible using information contained in the case file, and determined determine that the registrant is not eligible under that section. The determination that the registrant is not eligible shall be stated in the notice of grant reduction, suspension, or termination.~~

Subd. 3. [BENEFITS AFTER NOTIFICATION.] Assistance payments otherwise due to the registrant under section 256D.051 shall not be paid after the notification required in subdivision 1 has been provided to the registrant unless, before the date stated in the notification, the registrant takes the specified action necessary to achieve compliance or, within five days after the effective date stated in the notice, files an appeal of the grant reduction, suspension, or termination. If, by the required date, the registrant does take the specified action necessary to achieve compliance, both the notification required by subdivision 1 and the notice required by subdivision 2 shall be canceled and all benefits due to the registrant shall be paid promptly. If by the required date, the registrant files an appeal of the grant reduction, suspension, or termination, benefits otherwise due to the registrant shall be continued pending the outcome of the appeal.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.15, is amended to read:
256D.15 [RELATIVE'S RESPONSIBILITY.]

The financial responsibility of a relative for an applicant for or recipient of general assistance or work readiness shall not extend beyond the relationship of a spouse or a parent of an adult child who resides with the parent, or the parent of a minor child regardless of where the minor child resides, or an adult family member who resides with the applicant or recipient.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 257.33, is amended to read:
257.33 [DUTIES OF COMMISSIONER OF HUMAN SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [SERVICES TO PREGNANT WOMEN.] It shall be the duty of the commissioner of human services to offer appropriate social services to any pregnant woman who is in need of social services under criteria prescribed by rule of the commissioner. The commissioner shall also offer appropriate social services to the woman and her child after the birth of the child.

Subd. 2. [MINOR PARENTS AND THEIR CHILDREN.] (a) Every birth to a minor shall be reported by the hospital where the birth occurs, within three working days after the birth. The hospital shall make the report to the commissioner on a form provided by the department of human services county social services agency in the county in which the minor mother resides and shall notify the minor that the report has been made. The county social services agency shall contact any minor mother who resides in the county and determine whether she has a plan for herself and her child. The plan must consider:

- (1) the age of the minor parent;*
- (2) the involvement of the minor's parents or of other adults who provide active, ongoing guidance, support, and supervision;*
- (3) the involvement of the minor's child's father;*
- (4) a decision of the minor to keep and raise her child or place the child for adoption;*
- (5) completion of high school or GED;*
- (6) current economic support of the minor parent and child and plans for economic self-sufficiency;*
- (7) parenting skills of the minor parent;*
- (8) living arrangement of the minor parent and child;*
- (9) child care and transportation needed for education, training, or employment;*
- (10) ongoing health care; and*
- (11) other services as needed to address personal or family problems or* to facilitate the personal growth and development and economic self-sufficiency of the minor parent and child.

(b) If the minor parent does not have a plan for herself and child, the county social services agency shall work with her to develop a plan and shall provide case management services as needed to assure the resources and services are available to meet the plan requirements.

(c) If the minor parent refuses to plan for herself and her child or fails to follow through on an agreed upon plan, the county social services agency shall seek an order for protective supervision or other appropriate disposition under section 50.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 257.34, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ACKNOWLEDGMENT BY PARENTS.] The mother and father of a child born to a mother who was not married to the child's father when the child was conceived nor when the child was born may, in a writing signed by both of them before a notary public, declare and acknowledge under oath that they are the biological parents of the child. The declaration may provide that any such child born to the mother at any time before or up to ten months after the date of execution of the declaration is the biological child of the signatories. Execution of the declaration shall:

(a) have the same consequences as an acknowledgment by the signatories of parentage of the child for the purposes of sections 62A.041 and 62C.14, subdivision 5a;

(b) be conclusive evidence that the signatories are parents of the child for the purposes of sections 176.111 and ~~197.09 to 197.11~~ 197.75 and 197.752;

(c) ~~have create a presumption that the same consequences as an acknowledgment by signatory is the biological father of paternity of the child for the purposes of sections 257.57 and 257.66~~ 257.51 to 257.74;

(d) when timely filed with the division of vital statistics of the Minnesota department of health as provided in section 259.261, qualify as an affidavit stating the intention of the signatories to retain parental rights as provided in section 259.261 if it contains the information required by section 259.261 or rules promulgated thereunder;

(e) have the same consequences as a writing declaring paternity of the child for the purposes of section 524.2-109; and

(f) be conclusive evidence that the signatories are parents of the child for the purposes of chapter 573.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 257.57, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. ~~An action to determine the existence or nonexistence of the father and child relationship presumed under section 257.55, subdivision 1, clause (d) or (e) may be brought at any time by~~ The child, the mother or personal representative of the child, the public authority chargeable by law with the support of the child, the personal representative or a parent of the mother if the mother has died or is a minor, a man alleged or alleging himself to be the father, or the personal representative or a parent of the alleged father if the alleged father has died or is a minor ~~may bring an action.~~

(1) at any time for the purpose of declaring the existence of the father and child relationship presumed under section 257.55, subdivision 1, clause (d) or (e), or the nonexistence of the father and child relationship presumed under clause (d) of that subdivision; or

(2) for the purpose of declaring the nonexistence of the father and child relationship presumed under section 257.55, subdivision 1, clause (e), only if the action is brought within three years after the date of the execution of the declaration.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 257.60, is amended to read:
257.60 [PARTIES.]

The child may be made a party to the action. If the child is a minor and is made a party, a general guardian or a guardian ad litem shall be appointed by the court to represent the child. The child's mother or father may not represent the child as guardian or otherwise. ~~If the child is a minor and the case involves a compromise under section 257.64, subdivision 1 or a lump sum payment under section 257.66, subdivision 4, the child and the commissioner of human services shall each be made a party before the court approves a compromise or orders a lump sum payment.~~ The natural biological mother, each man presumed to be the father under section 257.55, and each man alleged to be the natural biological father, shall be made parties or, if not subject to the jurisdiction of the court, shall be given notice of the action in a manner prescribed by the court and shall be given an opportunity to be heard. The public agency responsible for support enforcement is joined as a party in each case in which rights are assigned under section 256.74, subdivision 5. A person who may bring an action under section 257.57 may be made a party to the action. The court may align the parties. The child shall be made a party whenever:

(1) the child is a minor and the case involves a compromise under section 257.64, subdivision 1, or a lump sum payment under section 257.66, subdivision 4, in which case the commissioner of human services shall also be made a party; or

(2) the child is a minor and the action is to declare the nonexistence of the father and child relationship; or

(3) an action to declare the existence of the father and child relationship is brought by a man presumed to be the father under section 257.55, or a man who alleges to be the father, and the mother of the child denies the existence of the father and child relationship.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 257.62, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [TESTS, EVIDENCE ADMISSIBLE.] In any hearing brought under subdivision 5, a certified report of the facts and results of a laboratory analysis or examination of blood or genetic tests that is performed in a laboratory accredited to meet the Standards for Parentage Testing of the American Association of Blood Banks and is prepared and attested by a qualified expert appointed by the court shall be admissible in evidence without proof of the seal, signature, or official character of the person whose name is signed to it unless a demand is made by a party in a motion or responsive motion made within the time limit for making and filing a responsive motion that the matter be heard on oral testimony before the court.

Sec. 47. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 257.63, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Upon refusal of a witness, including a party, to testify under oath or produce evidence, the court may order the party to testify under oath and produce evidence concerning all relevant facts. ~~If the refusal is upon the grounds that the No testimony or evidence might tend to incriminate the party, the court may grant the party immunity from all criminal liability on account of the testimony or evidence the party is required to produce. An other information compelled under the order granting immunity bars prosecution of, or any information directly or indirectly derived from such testimony or other information, may be used against the witness for any offense shown, in whole or in part, by testimony or evidence which the party is required to produce any criminal case, except for perjury committed in the testimony.~~ The refusal of a witness, who has been granted immunity, to obey an order to testify or produce evidence is subject to the sanctions within the jurisdiction of the court.

Sec. 48. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 260.015, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. "Dependent child" means a child:

- (a) Who is without a parent, guardian, or other custodian; or
- (b) Who is in need of special care and treatment required by a physical or mental condition and whose parent, guardian, or other custodian is unable to provide it; or
- (c) Whose parent, guardian, or other custodian for good cause desires to be relieved of the child's care and custody; or
- (d) Who is without proper parental care because of the emotional, mental, or physical disability, or minority or state of immaturity, of the child's parent, guardian, or other custodian.

Sec. 49. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 260.155, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [FACTORS IN DETERMINING DEPENDENCY DUE TO THE MINORITY OF A PARENT.] (a) In determining whether a child is dependent due to the minority of a parent, the court shall consider, among other factors, the following:

- (1) the age of the minor parent;*
 - (2) the emotional maturity of the minor parent;*
 - (3) the parenting skills of the minor parent;*
 - (4) whether the minor parent is married to and living with an adult and the emotional maturity and parenting skills of the adult;*
 - (5) the ability of the parent to provide for the short-term and long-term financial support of the child; and*
 - (6) whether the minor parent is receiving active, ongoing guidance, support, and supervision from a parent or other relative.*
- (b) If a minor parent is neither living with a parent nor married to and living with an adult, the minor parent's child is presumed to be dependent in the absence of reasonable evidence that the minor parent has the maturity and resources to provide for the financial and emotional well-being of the* child.

Sec. 50. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 260.191, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [DEPENDENCY DUE TO THE MINORITY OF A PARENT.] (a) If the court finds that a child is dependent due to the minority of a parent but that the child is not abused or neglected, the court shall enter an order placing the child under the protective supervision of the county welfare board in the child's own home under conditions prescribed by the court, unless the court determines that, due to unique circumstances, a different disposition is in the best interest of the child. If the court orders a disposition other than protective supervision in the home, the court shall include in its findings and order the unique circumstances justifying the alternative disposition.

(b) If the court orders protective supervision, the court may, among other things, require the minor parent to attend high school or other education or training programs, participate in parenting skills programs, or cooperate with other programs arranged by the county welfare board to improve the minor parent's ability to provide for the emotional and financial support of the child. The court order must state that the conditions may be enforced only if appropriate child care and transportation are available.

Sec. 51. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 267.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7a. [EMPLOYMENT AND TRAINING SERVICE PROVIDER.] "Employment and training service provider" means an administrative entity certified by the commissioner to deliver employment and training services under section 268.0122, subdivision 3.

Sec. 52. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 267.03, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [POWERS.] The coordinator of full productivity and opportunity may:

(1) appoint a deputy, a confidential secretary, and up to two additional employees, in the unclassified service;

(2) appoint other employees under chapter 43A;

(3) make rules under chapter 14;

(4) enter into contracts;

(5) further the objectives of the biennial plan by recommending to the governor interdepartmental transfer of employment and training services or income maintenance and support services, which the commissioner of administration, if so ordered by the governor, shall carry out as provided in section 16B.37, subdivisions 1, 2, and 3, and implement so as not to lead to a reduction of federal money to the state or its political subdivisions;

(6) further the objectives of the biennial plan by recommending to the governor transfer of one or more employment and training services or income maintenance and support services to a certified service provider other than a state agency;

(7) initiate emergency wage subsidies, consider the recommendations of the commissioner of jobs and training for the use of the discretionary portion of wage subsidy appropriations, and allocate the discretionary portion of wage subsidy appropriations;

(8) require the commissioners of jobs and training, human services, energy and economic development, and administration, and the state planning director, to furnish technical, administrative, and financial services to the coordinator upon request;

(9) require agencies to submit to the coordinator for approval or disapproval within 20 days any rule that relates to employment and training services or income maintenance and support services before the publication of the notice of intent required by section 14.22 or 14.30, and, if it is disapproved, require that the rule be amended and resubmitted to the coordinator;

(10) by October 1, 1987, establish by permanent or emergency rule under chapter 14 the standards by which the commissioner of jobs and training shall certify employment and training service providers, including a requirement that certified providers have the ability to access or coordinate with available federal, state, and local employment and training services, educational services, and appropriate support services;

(11) decertify service providers after consultation with the commissioner;

(12) contract with another local service unit or certified service provider for employment and training services in that local service unit if the coordinator, after consultation with the commissioner of jobs and training, finds that a local service unit consistently fails to provide service of sufficient quantity and quality to satisfy criteria established for the receipt of state money; ~~and~~

(13) ratify or disapprove the commissioner of jobs and training's decisions regarding the approval or disapproval of local service unit plans and community investment program plans; and

(14) require state agencies, local agencies, and employment and training service providers to collect and provide any information necessary to evaluate the effectiveness of employment, training, education, and support services.

Sec. 53. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.0122, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DUTIES AS A STATE AGENCY.] The commissioner shall:

(1) administer the unemployment insurance laws and related programs;

(2) administer the aspects of aid to families with dependent children, general assistance, work readiness, and food stamps that relate to employment and training services, subject to the ~~limitations of federal regulations~~ contract under section 268.86, subdivision 2;

(3) administer wage subsidies and the discretionary employment and training fund, and recommend to the coordinator the use of the discretionary portion of wage subsidy appropriations;

(4) administer a national system of public employment offices as prescribed by United States Code, title 29, chapter 4B, the Wagner-Peyser Act, and other federal employment and training programs;

(5) cooperate with the federal government and its employment and training agencies in any reasonable manner as necessary to qualify for federal aid for employment and training services and money;

(6) enter into agreements with other departments of the state and local units of government as necessary;

(7) certify ~~competent~~ employment and training service providers and, with the concurrence of the coordinator, decertify service providers that fail to comply with performance criteria according to standards established by the coordinator;

(8) provide consistent, integrated employment and training services across the state;

(9) establish the standards for all employment and training services administered under this chapter;

(10) develop standards for the contents and structure of the ~~county~~ local service unit plans;

(11) provide current state and substate labor market information and forecasts, in cooperation with other agencies;

(12) prepare a plan and submit it to the coordinator in each even-numbered year, according to standards established by the coordinator, for use in developing a statewide employment and training plan;

(13) identify underserved populations, unmet service needs, and funding requirements;

(14) consult with the council for the blind on matters pertaining to programs and services for the blind and visually impaired; and

(15) submit to the governor, the coordinator, the commissioners of human services and finance, and the chairs of the senate finance and house appropriations committees a semiannual report that:

(a) reports, by client classification, an unduplicated count of the kinds and number of services furnished through each program administered or supervised by the department or coordinated with it;

(b) reports on the number of job openings listed, developed, available, and obtained by clients;

(c) identifies the number of cooperative agreements in place, the number of individuals being served, and the kinds of service provided them;

(d) evaluates the performance of services, such as wage subsidies, community investments, work readiness, and grant diversions; and

(e) explains the effects of current employment levels, unemployment rates, and program performance on the unemployment insurance fund and general assistance, work readiness, and aid to families with dependent children caseloads and program expenditures.

Sec. 54. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.86, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [~~DEVELOPMENT DISCRETIONARY PROGRAMS.~~] The commissioner shall develop and administer discretionary employment and training services programs to assist ~~appropriate recipients of public assistance and unemployed and underemployed persons eligible to receive wage subsidies~~ to become economically independent. ~~The services must have as their objective the improvement of clients' opportunities for economic independence through permanent employment. The services must provide sufficient employment and training options to allow local service~~ units to effectively meet the support services, educational, and training needs of their public assistance and wage subsidy clients programs may include on-the-job training, wage subsidies, classroom training, relocation expenses, temporary cash assistance for persons in training, and support services.

- ~~(5) access to appropriate staff for ongoing development and interpretation of policy, rules, and program standards;~~
- ~~(6) procedures for reimbursing appropriate agencies for administrative expenses; and~~
- ~~(7) procedures for accessing available federal funds.~~

Sec. 56. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.871, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. ~~[RESPONSIBILITY AND CERTIFICATION.] Unless prohibited by federal law or otherwise determined by state law or the coordinator, a local service unit is responsible for the delivery of employment and training services. After February 1, 1986 1988, employment and training services must be delivered by public, nonprofit, or private service providers that are certified to provide the services employment and training service providers.~~

Sec. 57. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.871, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. ~~[CONTRACTING PREFERENCE.] In contracting, a local service unit must give preference, whenever possible, to existing certified employment and training service providers including the job service, opportunities industrialization centers, displaced homemaker providers, work incentive providers, Minnesota employment and economic development~~ act providers, post-secondary educational institutions, and job training partnership act programs that can effectively coordinate federal, state, and local employment and training services; that can maximize use of available federal and other nonstate funds; and that have demonstrated the ability to serve public assistance clients as well as other unemployed people.

Sec. 58. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.871, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [REPORTS.] Each employment and training service provider under contract with a local service unit to deliver employment and training services must submit an annual report by March 1 to the local service unit. The report must specify:

- (1) the types of services provided;*
- (2) the number of priority and nonpriority AFDC recipients served, the number of work readiness assistance recipients served, and the number of other clients served;*
- (3) how resources will be prioritized to serve priority and nonpriority public assistance recipients and other clients; and*
- (4) the manner in which state employment and training funds and programs are being coordinated with federal and local employment and training funds and programs.*

Sec. 59. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.872, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DISCRETIONARY FUND; CREATION AND ALLOCATION.] The commissioner shall pay administrative aid to local service units for employment and training services according to the formula established by rule. Seventy-five percent of the money must be allocated among local service units based on the number of work readiness assistance recipients and aid to families with dependent children caseloads of individuals not exempt from work requirements as forecast by the commissioner of human services; 25 percent must be allocated in a way that encourages full-time, private-sector job placement, program completion by public assistance recipients, and other performance characteristics. This subdivision does not apply to the administrative aid for the work readiness program. establish a discretionary employment and training fund. Money appropriated to the department for the discretionary fund must be allocated to local service units or certified employment and training service providers at the discretion of the commissioner.

In allocating money for discretionary employment and training programs, the commissioner shall give priority to certified employment and training service providers that:

- (1) serve a high proportion of distressed farmers and other individuals adversely affected by economic conditions within their service delivery region;*
- (2) have demonstrated success in developing and placing individuals into full-time private, public, and nonprofit employment;*
- (3) have demonstrated knowledge of and linkages with local, state, and federal training programs; educational programs including adult basic education, AVTIs, and community colleges; and providers of support services including child care and transportation; and*

(4) have demonstrated ability to use alternative funding sources to maximize available employment, training, and education funds.

No more than two percent of the money appropriated for discretionary employment and training programs may be used to reimburse the commissioner for the costs of administering discretionary employment and training programs, and no more than five percent of the money allocated to a certified employment and training service provider may be used for administrative expenses.

Sec. 60. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.88, is amended to read:
268.88 [LOCAL SERVICE UNIT PLANS.]

(a) Local service units shall prepare and submit to the commissioner by ~~October~~ April 15 of each year an annual plan for the subsequent calendar year. The commissioner shall notify each local service unit by ~~December~~ May 1 of each year if its plan has been approved or disapproved. The plan must include:

(1) a statement of objectives for the employment and training services the local service unit administers;

(2) the establishment of public assistance caseload reduction goals and the strategies and programs that will be used to achieve these goals;

(3) a statement of whether the goals from the preceding year were met and an explanation if the local service unit failed to meet the goals;

(4) the amount proposed to be allocated to each employment and training service;

(5) the proposed types of employment and training services the local service unit plans to utilize;

(6) a report on the use of wage subsidies, grant diversions, community investment programs, sliding fee day care, and other services administered under this chapter;

(7) an annual update of the community investment program plan according to standards established by the commissioner; ~~and~~

(8) a performance review of the employment and training service providers delivering employment and training services for the local service unit; and

(9) a copy of any contract between the local service unit and an employment and training service provider including expected outcomes and service levels for public assistance clients.

(b) In counties with a city of the first class, the county and the city shall develop and submit a joint plan. The plan may not be submitted until agreed to by both the city and the county. The plan must provide for the direct allocation of employment and training money to the city and the county unless waived by either. If the county and the city cannot concur on a plan, the coordinator shall resolve their dispute.

(c) The commissioner may withhold the distribution of employment and training money from a local service unit that does not submit a plan to the commissioner by the date set by this section, and shall withhold the distribution of employment and training money from a local service unit whose plan has been disapproved by the coordinator until an acceptable amended plan has been submitted.

(d) For 1985, local service unit plans must be submitted by November 1, 1985 and must include:

(1) a statement of objectives for the employment and training services the local service unit administers;

(2) the establishment of public assistance caseload reduction goals and the strategies that will be used to achieve these goals;

(3) the amount proposed to be allocated to each employment and training service;

(4) the proposed employment and training services and service providers the local service unit plans to utilize; and

(5) a statement of intent regarding the establishment of either a community investment program or an employment experience program.

If the local service unit provides a statement of intent for the establishment of a community investment program under clause (5), the local service unit must submit a preliminary community investment program plan by February 1, 1986.

Sec. 61. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.91, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Sec. 62. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.91, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DUTIES OF COMMISSIONER.] The commissioner shall develop standards for county and human services boards, and post-secondary educational systems, to provide child care services to enable eligible families to participate in employment or, training, or education programs. The commissioner shall distribute money to counties and post-secondary educational systems to reduce the costs of child care for eligible families. The commissioner shall adopt rules to govern the program in accordance with this section. The rules must establish a sliding schedule of fees for parents receiving child care services. ~~The commissioner shall require counties to collect and report data that the commissioner deems necessary to evaluate the effectiveness of the program in preventing and reducing participants' dependence on public assistance and in providing other benefits, including improvement in the care provided to children.~~ The commissioner shall report to the full productivity and opportunity coordinator in each even-numbered year on the effectiveness of the program. ~~The commissioner, in cooperation with the commissioner of human services, shall maximize the use of federal money under the AFDC employment special needs program in section 256.736, subdivision 8, for recipients of aid to families with dependent children who are in education, training, job search, or other activities allowed under that program. Money appropriated under this section must be coordinated with the AFDC employment special needs program to accomplish this purpose. Federal reimbursement obtained must be allocated to the county or post-secondary educational system that spent money for child care that is federally reimbursable under the AFDC employment special needs program. The counties and post-secondary educational systems shall use the federal money to expand services under this section.~~

Sec. 63. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.91, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [ALLOCATION.] (a) By June 1 of each odd-numbered year, the commissioner shall notify all county and human services boards and post-secondary educational systems of the their allocation and the procedures used for the sliding fee program. ~~Allocations must be made by July 1 of each odd-numbered year.~~ If the appropriation is insufficient to meet the needs in all counties, the amount must be prorated among the counties.

(b) ~~For the purposes of this section~~ Except for set-aside funds allocated under section 64, the commissioner shall allocate money appropriated between the metropolitan area, comprising the counties of Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, and Washington, and the area outside the metropolitan area so that no more than 55 percent of the total appropriation goes to either area after excluding allocations for statewide administrative costs. The commissioner shall allocate 50 percent of the money among counties on the basis of the number of families below the poverty level, as determined from the most recent special census, and 50 percent on the basis of caseloads of aid to families with dependent children for the preceding fiscal year, as determined by the commissioner of human services.

(c) Once each quarter, the commissioner shall review the use of child care fund allocations by county. In accordance with the formula found in paragraph (b), the commissioner may reallocate unexpended or unencumbered money among those counties who have expended their full portion. Any unexpended money from the first year of the biennium may be carried forward to the second year of the biennium.

Sec. 64. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.91, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [SET-ASIDE MONEY.] (a) State money must be set aside by the commissioner for child care services for:

(1) AFDC priority groups;

(2) recipients of AFDC attending post-secondary education programs, excluding post-baccalaureate programs; and

(3) students attending post-secondary education programs, excluding post-baccalaureate programs, who meet sliding fee program eligibility standards.

The set-aside amount must be determined by the commissioner and must not exceed 57 percent of the total funds appropriated. Of the set-aside amount, one-third must be allocated for each of the three groups named in this paragraph.

(b) Set-aside money for AFDC priority groups must be allocated among the counties based on the average monthly number of caretakers receiving AFDC under the age of 22 and the average monthly number of AFDC cases open 24 or more months out of the past 36 months. The sum must be derived for each fiscal year based on the 12-month period ending March 31 of the previous fiscal year. The commissioner may reallocate quarterly unspent set-aside money to counties that expend their full allocation. The county shall use the set-aside money for AFDC priority groups.

(c) The county shall develop cooperative agreements with the employment and training service provider for coordination of child care funding with employment, training, and education programs for aid to families with dependent children priority groups. The cooperative agreement shall specify that individuals receiving employment, training, and education services under an employability plan from the employment and training service provider shall, as resources permit, be guaranteed set-aside money for child care assistance from the county of their residence.

(d) Counties may contract for administration of the program or may arrange for or contract for child care funds to be used by other appropriate programs, in accordance with this section and as permitted by federal law and regulations.

(e) If the commissioner finds, on or after January 1 of a fiscal year, that set-aside money is not being fully utilized, the commissioner may permit counties to use set-aside money for other eligible applicants, as long as priority for use of the money will continue to be given to the AFDC priority groups.

(f) Set-aside money for persons listed in paragraph (a), clause (2), must be allocated among the post-secondary educational systems based on the number of students receiving AFDC in the most recent school year for which data is available. The systems shall allocate money to post-secondary institutions under their authority based on the number of students receiving AFDC in the most recent school year for which data is available. The post-secondary educational systems shall use these money for the persons listed in paragraph (a), clause (2), to reduce their costs of child care, including the costs of child care for students while employed if enrolled in an eligible education program at the same time.

(g) Set-aside money for persons listed in paragraph (a), clause (3), shall be allocated among the post-secondary educational systems based on the number of students with dependent children enrolled in the last fiscal year. Funds shall be used to reduce the students' costs of child care, including the costs of child care for students while employed if enrolled in an eligible education program at the same time. The systems shall allocate money to post-secondary institutions under their authority based on the number of students with dependent children enrolled in the last fiscal year.

(h) The post-secondary educational systems may reallocate unexpended money among institutions under their authority. The systems may reallocate unexpended money for persons listed in paragraph (a), clause (3), to persons listed in paragraph (a), clause (2). If by May 15 of each year money is unexpended, the money must be transferred to the commissioner for reallocation to the other post-secondary educational systems or to counties for AFDC priority groups. Any unexpended money from the first year of the biennium may be carried forward to the second year of the biennium.

(i) Recipients of AFDC who have completed their post-secondary education and had received child care funds during that education shall be assured, to the extent of available resources, of sliding fee money for employment programs after graduation if they meet sliding fee program eligibility standards.

Sec. 65. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.91, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3b. [REPORTING AND PAYMENTS.] (a) Counties and post-secondary educational systems shall submit on forms prescribed by the commissioner a quarterly financial and program activity report which is due 20 calendar days after the end of each quarter. The financial and program activity report must include:

(1) a detailed accounting of the expenditures and revenues for the program during the preceding quarter by funding source and by eligibility group;

(2) a description of activities and concomitant expenditures that are federally reimbursable under the AFDC employment special needs program;

(3) a description of activities and concomitant expenditures of set-aside money;

(4) information on money encumbered at the quarter's end but not yet reimbursable, for use in adjusting allocations as provided in section 64, paragraphs (e) and (h); and

(5) other data the commissioner considers necessary to account for the program or to evaluate its effectiveness in preventing and reducing participants' dependence on public assistance and in providing other benefits, including improvement in the care provided to children.

(b) The commissioner shall provide this information to the commissioner of human services within 25 calendar days after the end of each quarter to enable the commissioner of human services to maximize the use of federal money under the AFDC special needs program.

(c) The commissioner shall make payments to each county and post-secondary educational system in quarterly installments. The commissioner may certify an advance for the first quarter of the fiscal year. Later payments must be based on actual expenditures as reported in the quarterly financial and program activity report.

(d) The commissioner may withhold, reduce, or terminate the allocation of any county or post-secondary educational system that does not meet the reporting or other requirements of this program. The commissioner shall reallocate to other counties or post-secondary educational systems money so reduced or terminated.

Sec. 66. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.91, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [FINANCIAL ELIGIBILITY.] (a) Child care services must be available to families who need child care to find or keep employment or to obtain the training or education necessary to find employment and who:

- (1) receive aid to families with dependent children;
- (2) have household income below the eligibility levels for aid to families with dependent children; or
- (3) have household income within a range established by the commissioner.

(b) Child care services for the families receiving aid to families with dependent children must be made available as in-kind services, to cover any difference between the actual cost and the amount disregarded under the aid to families with dependent children program. Child care services to families whose incomes are below the threshold of eligibility for aid to families with dependent children, but that are not receiving aid to families with dependent children, must be made available without cost to the families.

(c) Child care services to families with incomes in the commissioner's established range must be made available on a sliding fee basis. The lower limit of the sliding fee range must be the eligibility limit for aid to families with dependent children. The upper limit of the range must be neither less than 70 percent nor more than 90 percent of the state median income for a family of four, adjusted for family size.

(d) If a disproportionate amount of the available money is provided to any one of the groups described in subdivision 4, paragraph (a), the county board shall document to the commissioner the reason the group received a disproportionate share. If a county projects that its child care allocation is insufficient to meet the needs of all eligible groups, it may prioritize among the groups to be served. Set-aside money must be prioritized by the state, and counties do not have discretion over the use of this money.

Sec. 67. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.91, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [EMPLOYMENT OR TRAINING ELIGIBILITY.] (a) Persons who are seeking employment and who are eligible for assistance under this section are eligible to receive the equivalent of one month of child care. Employed persons who work at least ten hours a week and receive at least a minimum wage for all hours worked are eligible for child care assistance.

(b) Persons eligible under this section for child care assistance for education or training must receive assistance for the length of the program or 24 months, whichever is shorter. An education or training program with demonstrated effectiveness may be approved by the commissioner of education and accredited by the appropriate agency as an eligible program including high school or an equivalent program, an English competency program, technical or vocational training, or a four-year or associate degree program participating in employment programs, training programs, or education programs are eligible for assistance from the child care sliding fee program, if they are financially eligible under the sliding fee scale set by the commissioner in subdivision 7.

Sec. 68. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.91, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [COUNTY CONTRIBUTION.] (a) In addition to payments from parents, the program must be funded by county contributions. Except for set-aside money, counties shall contribute five from county tax sources a minimum of 15 percent of the cost of the program in the program's first year and 15 percent in the second and subsequent years. The commissioner may require by rule that a county pay the commissioner the portion of sliding fee allocations paid by the state for which the county is responsible. The county shall advance its portion of sliding fee costs, based upon allocations made by the commissioner for that county for expenditures in the succeeding month. A The commissioner shall recover from the county as necessary to bring county expenditures into compliance with this subdivision.

(b) The commissioner shall recover from counties any state or federal money found to be ineligible. If a federal audit exception is taken based on a percentage of federal earnings, all counties shall pay a share proportional to their respective federal earnings during the period in question.

(c) To receive money through this program, each county shall certify to the commissioner that the county has not reduced allocations from other federal, state, and county sources, which, in the absence of child care sliding fee or wage subsidy money, would have been available for child care services.

Sec. 69. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 268.91, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6a. [POST-SECONDARY RESPONSIBILITY.] (a) The commissioner shall recover from post-secondary educational systems any state or federal money found to be ineligible. If a federal audit exception is taken based on a percentage of federal earnings, all systems shall pay a share proportional to their respective federal earnings during the period in question.

(b) To receive money through this program, each post-secondary educational system shall certify to the commissioner that the system has not reduced allocations from other federal and state sources, which, in the absence of child care sliding fee money, would have been available for child care services.

Sec. 70. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 510.07, is amended to read:
510.07 [SALE OR REMOVAL PERMITTED; NOTICE.]

The owner may sell and convey the homestead without subjecting it, or the proceeds of such sale for the period of one year after sale, to any judgment or debt from which it was exempt in the owner's hands except that the proceeds of the sale shall not be exempt from a judgment or debt for a court ordered child support or maintenance obligation in arrears. The owner may remove therefrom without affecting such exemption, if the owner does not thereby abandon the same as the place of abode. If the owner shall cease to occupy such homestead for more than six consecutive months the owner shall be deemed to have abandoned the same unless, within such period, the owner shall file with the county recorder of the county in which it is situated a notice, executed, witnessed, and acknowledged as in the case of a deed, describing the premises and claiming the same as the owner's homestead. In no case shall the exemption continue more than five years after such filing, unless during some part of the term the premises shall have been occupied as the actual dwelling place of the debtor or the debtor's family.

Sec. 71. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 518.171, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ORDER.] Unless the obligee has comparable or better group dependent health insurance coverage available at a more reasonable cost, the court shall order the obligor to name the minor child as beneficiary on any health and dental insurance plan that is available to the obligor on a group basis or through an employer or union.

If the court finds that dependent health or dental insurance is not available to the obligor on a group basis or through an employer or union, or that the group insurer is not accessible to the obligee, the court may require the obligor to obtain dependent health or dental insurance, or to be liable for reasonable and necessary medical or dental expenses of the child.

If the court finds that the dependent health or dental insurance required to be obtained by the obligor does not pay all the reasonable and necessary medical or dental expenses of the child or that the dependent health or dental insurance available to the obligee does not pay all the reasonable and necessary medical or dental expenses of the child, and the court finds that the obligor has the financial ability to contribute to the payment of these medical or dental expenses, the court shall require the obligor to be liable for all or a portion of the medical or dental expenses of the child not covered by the required health or dental plan.

Sec. 72. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 518.24, is amended to read:
518.24 [SECURITY; SEQUESTRATION; CONTEMPT.]

In all cases when maintenance or support payments are ordered, the court may require sufficient security to be given for the payment of them according to the terms of the order. Upon neglect or refusal to give security, or upon failure to pay the maintenance or support, the court may sequester the obligor's personal estate and the rents and profits of real estate of the obligor, and appoint a receiver of them. The court may cause the personal estate and the rents and profits of the real estate to be applied according to the terms of the order. ~~If~~ The obligor ~~has~~ shall be presumed to have an income from a source sufficient to pay the maintenance or support ~~and the~~ ~~obligor fails to pay the same; the court shall order the obligor to pay it. A person or party who~~ If the obligor disobeys the order may be punished by the court as for, it shall be prima facie evidence of contempt.

Sec. 73. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 518.551, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PAYMENT TO PUBLIC AGENCY.]

The court shall direct that all payments ordered for maintenance and support be made to the public agency responsible for child support enforcement so long as the obligee is receiving or has applied for public assistance, or has applied for child support and maintenance collection services. Amounts received by the public agency responsible for child support enforcement greater than the amount granted to the obligee shall be remitted to the obligee.

Sec. 74. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 518.611, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ORDER.] Whenever an obligation for support of a dependent child or maintenance of a spouse, or both, is determined and ordered by a court of this state, ~~that court shall order the withholding of the amount of child support or maintenance as determined by court order, shall be withheld from the income, regardless of source, of the person obligated to pay the support or maintenance. When an order for withholding has not previously been secured, the obligee may or the public agency responsible for child support enforcement shall move the court, and the court shall grant the order~~ Every order for maintenance or support shall include the obligor's social security number and the name and address of the obligor's employer or other payor of funds.

Sec. 75. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 518.611, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [NOTICE CONDITIONS OF INCOME WITHHOLDING.] ~~Each order for withholding shall provide for a conspicuous notice to the obligor that:~~ (a) [MAINTENANCE AND PRE-EXISTING CHILD SUPPORT ORDERS.] Withholding of maintenance, or child support ordered before August 1, 1987, shall result only if the obligor fails to make the maintenance or support payments, and that no withholding shall be made until the following conditions are met:

(1) ~~The obligee or the public authority determines that~~ The obligor is at least 30 days in arrears;

(2) ~~The obligee or the public authority serves written notice of its determination of income withholding, showing arrearage, on the obligor at least 15 days before service of the notice of income withholding and a copy of the court's order for withholding on the payor of funds;~~

(3) ~~Within the 15-day period, the obligor fails to move the court to deny withholding on the grounds that an arrearage of at least 30 days does not exist as of the date of the notice of income withholding, or on other grounds limited to mistakes of fact, and, ex parte, to stay service on the payor of funds until the motion to deny withholding is heard. Within 45 days from the date of the notice of income withholding, the court shall hold the hearing on the motion to deny withholding and notify the parties of its decision; and~~

(4) The obligee or the public authority serves a copy of the notice of income withholding and a copy of the court's ~~withholding~~ order on the payor of funds; and

(5) The obligee serves on the public authority a copy of the notice of income withholding, a copy of the court's ~~withholding~~ order, an application and the fee to use the public authority's collection services; or

(6) The obligor waives the written notice and the requirements of this subdivision.

(b) [NEW CHILD SUPPORT ORDERS.] The conditions of paragraph (a) of this subdivision do not apply to an obligation for child support initially determined and ordered, or modified, by a court of this state on or after August 1, 1987. For the purposes of this section "modified" does not mean a cost-of-living adjustment without any other modification of the support order. Upon entry of the order for support the court shall mail a copy of the court's order and the provisions of this section to the obligor's employer or other payor of funds.

The obligee who is not a recipient of public assistance shall make application to the public authority for child support and maintenance collection services when a new or modified order for support is entered.

(c) [ARREARAGES.] To pay ~~the an~~ arrearage specified in existing at the ~~notice~~ time of income withholding service on the employer or payor of funds under this subdivision, the employer or payor of funds shall withhold from the obligor's income an additional amount equal to 20 percent of the monthly child support or maintenance obligation until the arrearage is paid.

~~(e) The obligor may, at any time, waive the written notice required by this subdivision.~~

~~(d) The obligor may move the court, under section 518.64, to modify the order respecting the amount of maintenance or support.~~

Sec. 76. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 518.611, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [WITHHOLDING HEARING.] Within 45 days from the date of the notice given under subdivision 2, the court shall hold the hearing on the motion under subdivision 2, paragraph (a), clause (3), and notify the parties of its decision. At the hearing to deny withholding, if the court finds that there was no mistake of fact, the court shall order income withholding to begin no later than the first pay period that occurs after 14 days following the date of the hearing. If the court finds that an arrearage of at least 30 days existed as of the date of the notice of income withholding, but finds a mistake in the amount of arrearage, the court shall order income withholding, but it shall correct the amount of arrearage to be withheld under subdivision 2, paragraph ~~(b)~~ (c).

Sec. 77. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 518.611, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [EFFECT OF ORDER.] Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the order is binding on the employer, trustee, or other payor of the funds when service under subdivision 2 has been made. Withholding must begin no later than the first pay period that occurs after 14 days following the date of the notice. An employer or other payor of funds in this state is required to withhold income according to court orders for withholding issued by other states or territories. The payor shall withhold from the income payable to the obligor the amount specified in the order and amounts required under subdivision 2, paragraph (b) (c), and shall remit, within ten days of the date the obligor is paid the remainder of the income, the amounts withheld to the public authority. Employers may combine all amounts withheld from one pay period into one payment to each public authority, but shall separately identify each obligor making payment. Amounts received by the public authority which are in excess of public assistance expended for the party or for a child shall be remitted to the party. An employer shall not discharge, or refuse to hire, or otherwise discipline an employee as a result of a wage or salary withholding authorized by this section. The employer or other payor of funds shall be liable to the obligee for any amounts required to be withheld.

Sec. 78. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 518.611, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PRIORITY.] An order for withholding under this section or execution or garnishment upon a judgment for child support arrearages or preadjudicated expenses shall have priority over an attachment, execution, garnishment, or wage assignment and shall not be subject to the statutory limitations on amounts levied against the income of the obligor. Amounts withheld from an employee's income must not exceed the maximum permitted under the Consumer Credit Protection Act, United States Code, title 15, section 1673(b)(2). If there is more than one withholding order on a single employee, the employer shall put them into effect, giving priority first to amounts currently due and not in arrears and then to other amounts, in the sequence in which the withholding orders were received up to the maximum allowed in the Consumer Credit Protection Act. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, no funds from income sources included in section 518.54, subdivision 6, whether periodic or lump sum, shall be exempt from attachment or execution upon a judgment for child support arrearages.

Sec. 79. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 518.611, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [EMPLOYER OR PAYOR AND OBLIGOR NOTICE.] When an individual is hired for employment, the employer shall request that the individual disclose whether or not the individual has court-ordered child support obligations that are required by law to be withheld from income and the terms of the court order, if any. The individual shall disclose this information at the time of hiring. When an individual discloses that the individual owes child support that is required to be withheld, the employer shall begin withholding according to the terms of the order and under this section. When a withholding order is in effect and the obligor's employment is terminated or the periodic payment terminates, the obligor and the obligor's employer or the payor of funds shall notify the public agency responsible for child support enforcement of the termination within 30 ten days of the termination date. The notice shall include the obligor's home address and the name and address of the obligor's new employer or payor of funds, if known. Information disclosed under this section shall not be divulged except to the extent necessary for the administration of the child support enforcement program or when otherwise authorized by law.

Sec. 80. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 518.64, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [MODIFICATION.] The terms of a decree respecting maintenance or support may be modified upon a showing of one or more of the following: (1) substantially increased or decreased earnings of a party; (2) substantially increased or decreased need of a party; (3) receipt of assistance under sections 256.72 to 256.87; or (4) a change in the cost-of-living for either party as measured by the federal bureau of statistics, any of which makes the terms unreasonable and unfair. On a motion for modification of maintenance, the court shall apply, in addition to all other relevant factors, the factors for an award of maintenance under section 518.552 that exist at the time of the motion. On a motion for modification of support, the court shall take into consideration the needs of the children and shall not consider the financial circumstances of each party's spouse, if any. A modification which decreases support or maintenance may be made retroactive only upon a showing that any failure to pay in accord with the terms of the original order was not willful with respect to any period during which the support obligor has pending a motion for modification but only from the date that notice of the motion has been given to the obligee and to the court or other entity which issued each support order. A modification which increases support or maintenance shall not be made retroactive if the obligor has substantially complied with the previous order. Except for an award of the right of occupancy of the homestead, provided in section 518.63, all divisions of real and personal property provided by section 518.58 shall be final, and may be revoked or modified only where the court finds the existence of conditions that justify reopening a judgment under the laws of this state. The court may impose a lien or charge on the divided property at any time while the property, or subsequently acquired property, is owned by the parties or either of them, for the payment of maintenance or support money, or may sequester the property as is provided by section 518.24.

Sec. 81. [SPECIAL STUDY.]

The commissioner shall report to the legislature by January 15, 1989, with recommendations for improving the family health insurance program, evidence of state savings as a result of the program, and recommendations for a formal evaluation.

Sec. 82. [REPORT TO THE LEGISLATURE.]

The commissioner of human services shall collect data on costs and collections and report to the chairs of the health and human services committees in the house of representatives and the senate on or before January 2, 1989, on the progress and experience of the county agencies in implementing the income withholding provisions of this act, including any recommendations for changes in the law.

Sec. 83. [INSTRUCTION TO REVISOR.]

In the next edition of Minnesota Statutes, the revisor of statutes shall substitute in chapter 257 the term "biological" when referring to a parent, mother, or father for the term "natural."

Sec. 84. [APPROPRIATIONS.]

$_____ is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of jobs and training to administer the child care sliding fee program.

$_____ is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of human services for the work incentive housing subsidy program, $_____.

to be available until June 30, 1988, and $_____ to be available until June 30, 1989.

$_____ is appropriated from the public health fund to the commissioner of human services for the family health insurance program.

$_____ is appropriated to the commissioner of human services for use in providing state aid for literacy training under section 28.

There is appropriated from the general fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, $_____ for the purpose of county child support collection incentives under section 21.

$105,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of human services for each year of the biennium ending June 30, 1989, to provide training and technical assistance to counties to:

(1) facilitate the transfer of general assistance recipients to federal disability programs by identifying recipients who are potentially eligible for benefits and helping them with the application and appeals process; and

(2) facilitate the transfer of general assistance medical care recipients to the medical assistance program by identifying recipients who are potentially eligible for medical assistance benefits and helping them establish eligibility.

Sec. 85. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 256D.051, subdivisions 4, 5, and 12; and 257.34, subdivision 2, are repealed.

Sec. 86. [EFFECTIVE DATES.]

Sections 1 to 10, 12 to 79, and 81 to 85, are effective July 1, 1987. Sections 11 and 80 are effective the day following final enactment.

Section 1. [FEDERAL AUTHORITY.]

Subdivision 1. [LEGISLATIVE WAIVERS.] The commissioner of human services shall seek from the Congress of the United States a change in or waiver of existing requirements of the aid to families with dependent children program (AFDC) to the extent necessary to allow the commissioner to:

(1) require that, as a condition of receiving AFDC, priority caretakers of children six weeks of age and older who have not completed a high school education be required to either attend high school or to work toward a general education diploma as long as necessary child care and transportation services are available to them;

(2) require that, as a condition of receiving AFDC, priority caretakers of children younger than six months be required to participate for not more than four hours a week in activities related to personal and family development, including parenting education, personal and vocational counseling, chemical dependency treatment, domestic abuse counseling, or remedial education, and then only if child care assistance is provided or if the activity includes the child as a participant, and if transportation needs are met;

(3) require that, as a condition of receiving AFDC, priority caretakers of children at least seven months but not more than 35 months of age to participate in employment and training services for no more than 20 hours a week as long as necessary child care and transportation are available to them;

(4) require that, as a condition of receiving AFDC, priority caretakers of children aged three and over register for and participate in employment and training services and seek employment as long as necessary child care and transportation are available to them;

(5) replace the sanctions under section 256.736, subdivision 4, clause (4), paragraphs (a) and (d), with the following graduated sanctions:

(a) upon first caretaker refusal, 50 percent of the grant provided to the family shall be made in the form of protective or vendor payments;

(b) upon second caretaker refusal, the entire grant provided to the family shall be made in the form of protective or vendor payments; and

(c) upon third caretaker refusal, the caretaker's needs shall not be taken into account in making the grant determination, and aid for any dependent child in the family will be made in the form of protective or vendor payments;

(6) exclude all expenses related to education when determining income for food stamp purposes;

(7) disregard more earned income of a recipient than allowed under United States Code, title 42, section 602(a)(8)(B)(ii), to provide an incentive to work and prevent recipients from experiencing a sudden loss of income after four months of employment;

(8) exclude from consideration in computing the income of an AFDC caretaker parent under the age of 18 any income of the parents of the caretaker parent, without regard to the residence of the caretaker parent, to make it possible for a minor parent to receive financial assistance while remaining in a supportive home environment;

(9) determine the maximum value of an automobile which can be excluded as an asset under United States Code, title 42, section 602(a)(7)(B)(i), because of the need of AFDC recipients for reliable transportation in order to participate in work and training and become self-sufficient;

(10) disregard in computing income the cost of child care beyond that currently allowed under United States Code, title 42, section 602(a)(8)(A)(iii), because of the need of AFDC recipients for quality reliable child care in order to participate in work and training and become self-sufficient;

(11) permit a principal earner in a family receiving AFDC-UP to work more than 100 hours per month without being disqualified from the program, in order to recognize the financial reality of AFDC-UP families and to help the families achieve financial security before leaving the program;

(12) simplify eligibility determination processes, budgeting procedures, and excessive paperwork requirements without becoming subject to federal sanctions, in order to enhance self-esteem among clients and free workers to help families achieve self-sufficiency; and

(13) disregard quality control review requirements that are not directly related to actual grant miscalculation or client right violations, in order to move the AFDC program away from a system driven by audits, error rates, and sanctions.

Subd. 2. [ADMINISTRATIVE WAIVERS.] If congressional approval of each of these measures has not been obtained by July 1, 1988, the commissioner shall seek federal approval through the administrative waiver process or other administrative mechanisms.

Subd. 3. [TERMS.] The commissioner shall negotiate no terms or conditions that infringe on recipients' entitlement to benefits or impede federal financial participation under the terms of United States Code, title 42, chapter 7, subchapter IV, part A.

Subd. 4. [IMPLEMENTATION.] The commissioner shall promulgate emergency rules as necessary to implement any waiver. Rules promulgated under authority of this section supersede any conflicting laws or rules until July 1, 1988."

S.F. No. 514: A bill for an act relating to human services; creating the office of ombudsman for mental health; defining terms; establishing the office of ombudsman; providing for the powers and duties of the ombudsman; creating the ombudsman committee; creating the mental health board; requiring reporting of abuse and neglect to the ombudsman for mental health; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 13.66; 626.556, subdivision 10, and by adding a subdivision; and 626.557, subdivision 11, and by adding a subdivision; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 245.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 13.66, is amended to read:

13.66 [~~CORRECTIONS~~ OMBUDSMAN DATA.]

Subdivision 1. [PRIVATE DATA.] The following data maintained by the ombudsman for corrections and the ombudsman for mental health and mental retardation are classified as private, pursuant to section 13.02, subdivision 12:

(a) All data on individuals pertaining to contacts made by clients seeking the assistance of ~~the an~~ ombudsman, except as specified in subdivisions 2 and 3;

(b) Data recorded from personal and phone conversations and in correspondence between ~~the an~~ ombudsman's staff and persons interviewed during the course of an investigation;

(c) Client index cards;

(d) Case assignment data; and

(e) Monthly closeout data.

Subd. 2. [CONFIDENTIAL DATA.] The following data maintained by ~~the an~~ ombudsman are classified as confidential, pursuant to section 13.02, subdivision 3: the written summary of the investigation to the extent it identifies individuals.

Subd. 3. [PUBLIC DATA.] The following data maintained by the ombudsman for corrections are classified as public, pursuant to section 13.02, subdivision 15: client name, client location; and the inmate identification number assigned by the department of corrections.

Sec. 2. [245.91] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICABILITY.] For the purposes of sections 2 to 8, the following terms have the meanings given them.

Subd. 2. [MENTAL HEALTH OR MENTAL RETARDATION AGENCY.] "Mental health or mental retardation agency" or "agency" means the divisions, officials, or employees of the state departments of human services and health, that are engaged in monitoring, providing, or regulating services to mental health or mental retardation clients. It does not include a political subdivision of the state.

Subd. 3. [MENTAL HEALTH OR MENTAL RETARDATION CLIENT.] "Mental health or mental retardation client" or "client" means a patient, resident, or other person served by a mental health or mental retardation agency or facility, who is receiving residential treatment for mental illness, mental retardation, chemical dependency, or emotional disturbance.

Subd. 4. [MENTAL HEALTH OR MENTAL RETARDATION FACILITY.] "Mental health or mental retardation facility" or "facility" means a regional center operated by the commissioner of human services, a residential facility as defined in section 245.782, subdivision 6, that is required to be licensed by the commissioner of human services, and an acute care inpatient facility, that provides treatment for mental illness, mental retardation, chemical dependency, or emotional disturbance.

Sec. 3. [245.92] [OFFICE OF OMBUDSMAN; CREATION; QUALIFICATIONS; FUNCTION.]

The office of ombudsman for mental health and mental retardation is created. The ombudsman shall promote the highest attainable standards of treatment, competence, efficiency, and justice for people receiving care or treatment for mental illness, mental retardation, chemical dependency, or emotional disturbance. The ombudsman may gather information about decisions, acts, and other matters of an agency or facility. The ombudsman serves at the pleasure of the governor in the unclassified service and is accountable to the governor. The ombudsman must be selected without regard to political affiliation and must be a person who has knowledge and experience concerning the treatment, needs, and rights of mental health and mental retardation clients, and who is highly competent and qualified. No person may serve as ombudsman while holding another public office.

Sec. 4. [245.93] [ORGANIZATION OF OFFICE OF OMBUDSMAN.]

Subdivision 1. [STAFF] The ombudsman may appoint a deputy and a confidential secretary in the unclassified service and may appoint other employees as authorized by the legislature. The ombudsman and the full-time staff shall be members of the Minnesota state retirement association.

Subd. 2. [ADVOCACY.] The function of mental health and mental retardation client advocacy in the department of human services is transferred to the office of ombudsman according to section 15.039. The ombudsman shall maintain at least one client advocate in each regional center.

Subd. 3. [DELEGATION.] The ombudsman may delegate to members of the staff any authority or duties of the office except the duty of formally making recommendations to an agency or facility or reports to the governor or the legislature.

Sec. 5. [245.94] [POWERS OF OMBUDSMAN; REVIEWS AND EVALUATIONS; RECOMMENDATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [POWERS.] (a) The ombudsman may prescribe the methods by which complaints to the office are to be made, reviewed, and acted upon. The ombudsman may not levy a complaint fee.

(b) The ombudsman may mediate or advocate on behalf of a client.

(c) At the request of a client, or upon receiving a complaint or other information affording reasonable grounds to believe that the rights of a client who is not capable of requesting assistance have been adversely affected, the ombudsman may gather information about and analyze, on behalf of the client, the actions of an agency or facility.

(d) The ombudsman may examine, on behalf of a client, records of an agency or facility to which the client is entitled to access if the records relate to a matter that is within the scope of the ombudsman's authority. If the records are private and confidential and the client is capable of providing consent, the ombudsman shall first obtain the client's consent.

(e) The ombudsman may, at reasonable times in the course of conducting a review, enter and view premises within the control of an agency or facility.

(f) The ombudsman may attend department of human services review board and special review board proceedings; proceedings regarding the transfer of patients or residents, as defined in section 246.50, subdivisions 4 and 4a, between institutions operated by the department of human services; and, subject to the consent of the affected patient or resident, other proceedings affecting the rights of residents or patients.

(g) To avoid duplication and preserve evidence, the ombudsman shall inform relevant licensing or regulatory officials before undertaking a review of an action of the facility.

(h) Sections 2 to 8 are in addition to other provisions of law under which any other remedy or right is provided.

Subd. 2. [MATTERS APPROPRIATE FOR REVIEW.] (a) In selecting matters for review by the office, the ombudsman shall give particular attention to unusual deaths or injuries of a client served by an agency or facility, or actions of an agency or facility that:

(1) may be contrary to law or rule;

(2) may be unreasonable, unfair, oppressive, or inconsistent with a policy or order of an agency or facility;

(3) may be mistaken in law or arbitrary in the ascertainment of facts;

(4) may be unclear or inadequately explained, when reasons should have been revealed;

(5) may result in abuse or neglect of a person receiving treatment; or

(6) may disregard the rights of a client or other individual served by an agency or facility.

(b) The ombudsman shall, in selecting matters for review and in the course of the review, avoid duplicating other investigations or regulatory efforts.

Subd. 3. [COMPLAINTS.] The ombudsman may receive a complaint from any source concerning an action of an agency or facility. After completing a review, the ombudsman shall inform the complainant and the agency or facility. No client shall be punished nor shall the general condition of the client's treatment be unfavorably altered as a result of a complaint by the client or by another person on the client's behalf.

Subd. 4. [RECOMMENDATIONS TO AGENCY.] (a) If, after reviewing a complaint and considering the response of an agency or facility and any other pertinent material, the ombudsman determines that the complaint has merit, the ombudsman may recommend that the agency or facility:

(1) consider the matter further;

(2) modify or cancel its actions;

(3) alter a rule, order, or internal policy;

(4) explain more fully the action in question; or

(5) take any other action the ombudsman recommends to the agency or facility involved.

(b) At the ombudsman's request, the agency or facility shall, within a reasonable time, inform the ombudsman about the action taken on the recommendation or the reasons for not complying with it.

Sec. 6. [245.95] [RECOMMENDATIONS AND REPORTS TO GOVERNOR.]

Subdivision 1. [SPECIFIC REPORTS.] The ombudsman may send conclusions and suggestions concerning any matter reviewed to the governor. Before making public a conclusion or recommendation that expressly or implicitly criticizes an agency or facility or any person, the ombudsman shall consult with the governor and the agency, facility, or person concerning the conclusion or recommendation. When sending a conclusion or recommendation to the governor that is adverse to an agency or facility or any person, the ombudsman shall include any statement of reasonable length made by that agency, facility, or person in defense or mitigation of the office's conclusion or recommendation.

Subd. 2. [GENERAL REPORTS.] In addition to whatever conclusions or recommendations the ombudsman may make to the governor on an ad hoc basis, the ombudsman shall at the end of each year report to the governor concerning the exercise of the ombudsman's functions during the preceding year.

Sec. 7. [245.96] [CIVIL ACTIONS.]

The ombudsman and his designees are not civilly liable for any action taken under sections 2 to 8 if the action was taken in good faith, was within the scope of the ombudsman's authority, and did not constitute willful or reckless misconduct.

Sec. 8. [245.97] [OMBUDSMAN COMMITTEE.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT; MEMBERSHIP.] An ombudsman committee consisting of 15 members shall be appointed by the governor. Members shall be appointed on the basis of their knowledge of and interest in the health and human services system subject to the ombudsman's authority. In making the appointments, the governor shall try to ensure that the overall membership of the committee adequately reflects the agencies, facilities, and programs within the ombudsman's authority and that members include consumer representatives, including clients, former clients, and relatives of present or former clients; representatives of advocacy organizations for clients and other individuals served by an agency or facility; human services and health care professionals, including specialists in psychiatry, psychology, internal medicine, and forensic pathology; and other providers of services to mental health or mental retardation clients or other individuals served by an agency or facility.

Subd. 2. [TERMS OF SERVICE; CHAIR.] Members shall be appointed for terms of three years. Of the members of the first committee appointed, one-third shall be appointed for one-year terms and one-third shall be appointed for two-year terms. Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as original appointments for the remainder of any unexpired term. Members do not receive compensation, but are entitled to receive reimbursement for reasonable and necessary expenses incurred. The governor shall designate one member of the committee to serve as its chair at the pleasure of the governor.

Subd. 3. [MEETINGS.] The committee shall meet at least four times a year at the request of its chair or the ombudsman.

Subd. 4. [DUTIES.] The committee shall advise and assist the ombudsman in selecting matters for attention; developing policies, plans, and programs to carry out the ombudsman's functions and powers; and making reports and recommendations for changes designed to improve standards of competence, efficiency, justice, and protection of rights. The committee shall function as an advisory body.

Subd. 5. [MEDICAL REVIEW SUBCOMMITTEE.] At least five members of the committee, including at least three physicians, one of whom is a psychiatrist, shall be designated by the governor to serve as a medical review subcommittee. Terms of service, vacancies, and compensation are governed by subdivision 2. The governor shall designate one of the members to serve as chair of the subcommittee. The medical review subcommittee has the power to:

(1) make a preliminary determination of whether the death of a client that has been brought to its attention is unusual or reasonably appears to have resulted from causes other than natural causes and warrants investigation;

(2) review the causes of and circumstances surrounding the death;

(3) request the county coroner or medical examiner to conduct an autopsy;

(4) assist an agency in its investigations of unusual deaths and deaths from causes other than natural causes; and

(5) submit a report regarding the death of a client to the committee, the ombudsman, the client's next-of-kin, and the facility where the death occurred and, where appropriate, make recommendations to prevent recurrence of similar deaths to the head of each affected agency or facility.

Subd. 6. [TERMS, COMPENSATION, AND REMOVAL.] The membership terms, compensation, and removal of members of the committee are governed by section 15.0575, except as provided in this section.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 626.556, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [MANDATORY REPORTING TO A MEDICAL EXAMINER OR CORONER.] When a person required to report under the provisions of subdivision 3 knows or has reason to believe a child has died as a result of neglect or physical or sexual abuse, the person shall report that information to the appropriate medical examiner or coroner instead of the local welfare agency, police department or county sheriff. Medical examiners or coroners shall notify the local welfare agency or police department or county sheriff in instances in which they believe that the child has died as a result of neglect or physical or sexual abuse. The medical examiner or coroner shall complete an investigation as soon as feasible and report the findings to the police department or county sheriff and the local welfare agency. If the child was receiving residential treatment for mental illness, mental retardation, chemical dependency, or emotional disturbance from a mental health or mental retardation agency or facility as defined in section 2, the medical examiner or coroner shall also notify and report findings to the ombudsman for mental health and mental retardation.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 626.556, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [DUTIES OF LOCAL WELFARE AGENCY AND LOCAL LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCY UPON RECEIPT OF A REPORT.] (a) If the report alleges neglect, physical abuse, or sexual abuse by a parent, guardian, or individual functioning within the family unit as a person responsible for the child's care, the local welfare agency shall immediately conduct an assessment and offer protective social services for purposes of preventing further abuses, safeguarding and enhancing the welfare of the abused or neglected minor, and preserving family life whenever possible. When necessary the local welfare agency shall seek authority to remove the child from the custody of a parent, guardian or adult with whom the child is living. In performing any of these duties, the local welfare agency shall maintain appropriate records.

(b) When a local agency receives a report or otherwise has information indicating that a child who is a mental health or mental retardation client, as defined in section 2, has been the subject of physical abuse or neglect at a mental health or mental retardation agency or facility, as defined in section 2, it shall, in addition to its other duties under this section, immediately inform the ombudsman for mental health and mental retardation.

(c) Authority of the local welfare agency responsible for assessing the child abuse report and of the local law enforcement agency for investigating the alleged abuse includes, but is not limited to, authority to interview, without parental consent, the alleged victim and any other minors who currently reside with or who have resided with the alleged perpetrator. The interview may take place at school or at any facility or other place where the alleged victim or other minors might be found and may take place outside the presence of the perpetrator or parent, legal custodian, guardian, or school official. Except as provided in this clause, the parent, legal custodian, or guardian shall be notified by the responsible local welfare or law enforcement agency no later than the conclusion of the investigation or assessment that this interview has occurred. Notwithstanding rule 49.02 of the Minnesota rules of procedure for juvenile courts, the juvenile court may, after hearing on an ex parte motion by the local welfare agency, order that, where reasonable cause exists, the agency withhold notification of this interview from the parent, legal custodian, or guardian. If the interview took place or is to take place on school property, the order shall specify that school officials may not disclose to the parent, legal custodian, or guardian the contents of the notification of intent to interview the child on school property, as provided under paragraph (c), and any other related information regarding the interview that may be a part of the child's school record. A copy of the order shall be sent by the local welfare or law enforcement agency to the appropriate school official.

(e) (d) When the local welfare or local law enforcement agency determines that an interview should take place on school property, written notification of intent to interview the child on school property must be received by school officials prior to the interview. The notification shall include the name of the child to be interviewed, the purpose of the interview, and a reference to the statutory authority to conduct an interview on school property. For interviews conducted by the local welfare agency, the notification shall be signed by the chair of the county welfare board or the chair's designee. The notification shall be private data on individuals subject to the provisions of this paragraph. School officials may not disclose to the parent, legal custodian, or guardian the contents of the notification or any other related information regarding the interview until notified in writing by the local welfare or law enforcement agency that the investigation or assessment has been concluded. Until that time, the local welfare or law enforcement agency shall be solely responsible for any disclosures regarding the nature of the assessment or investigation.

Except where the alleged perpetrator is believed to be a school official or employee, the time and place, and manner of the interview on school premises shall be within the discretion of school officials, but the local welfare or law enforcement agency shall have the exclusive authority to determine who may attend the interview. The conditions as to time, place, and manner of the interview set by the school officials shall be reasonable and the interview shall be conducted not more than 24 hours after the receipt of the notification unless another time is considered necessary by agreement between the school officials and the local welfare or law enforcement agency. Where the school fails to comply with the provisions of this paragraph, the juvenile court may order the school to comply. Every effort must be made to reduce the disruption of the educational program of the child, other students, or school staff when an interview is conducted on school premises.

(d) (e) Where the perpetrator or a person responsible for the care of the alleged victim or other minor prevents access to the victim or other minor by the local welfare agency, the juvenile court may order the parents, legal custodian, or guardian to produce the alleged victim or other minor for questioning by the local welfare agency or the local law enforcement agency outside the presence of the perpetrator or any person responsible for the child's care at reasonable places and times as specified by court order.

(e) (f) Before making an order under paragraph (d), the court shall issue an order to show cause, either upon its own motion or upon a verified petition, specifying the basis for the requested interviews and fixing the time and place of the hearing. The order to show cause shall be served personally and shall be heard in the same manner as provided in other cases in the juvenile court. The court shall consider the need for appointment of a guardian ad litem to protect the best interests of the child. If appointed, the guardian ad litem shall be present at the hearing on the order to show cause.

(f) (g) The commissioner, the ombudsman for mental health and mental retardation, the local welfare agencies responsible for investigating reports, and the local law enforcement agencies have the right to enter facilities as defined in subdivision 2 and to inspect and copy the facility's records, including medical records, as part of the investigation. Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 13, they also have the right to inform the facility under investigation that they are conducting an investigation, to disclose to the facility the names of the individuals under investigation for abusing or neglecting a child, and to provide the facility with a copy of the report and the investigative findings.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 626.557, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [MANDATORY REPORTING TO A MEDICAL EXAMINER OR CORONER.] A person required to report under the provisions of subdivision 3 who has reasonable cause to believe that a vulnerable adult has died as a direct or indirect result of abuse or neglect shall report that information to the appropriate medical examiner or coroner in addition to the local welfare agency, police department, or county sheriff or appropriate licensing agency or agencies. The medical examiner or coroner shall complete an investigation as soon as feasible and report the findings to the police department or county sheriff, the local welfare agency, and, if applicable; each licensing agency. A person or agency that receives a report under this subdivision concerning a vulnerable adult who was receiving residential treatment for mental illness, mental retardation, chemical dependency, or emotional disturbance from a mental health or mental retardation agency or facility as defined in section 2, shall also report the information and findings to the ombudsman for mental health and mental retardation."

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [326.67] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] The definitions in this section apply to sections 1 to 16.

Subd. 2. [COUNCIL.] "Council" means the Minnesota advisory council for examiners for fire protection systems.

Subd. 3. [FIRE PROTECTION SPRINKLER CONTRACTOR.] "Fire protection sprinkler contractor" means a person who contracts to sell, design, install, modify, alter, repair, maintain, or examine a fire protection system or its parts or related equipment.

Subd. 4. [FIRE PROTECTION SYSTEM.] "Fire protection system" means a sprinkler or standpipe and hose system for fire protection purposes only that is composed of an integrated system of underground and overhead piping designed in accordance with the applicable fire protection engineering standards published by the National Fire Protection Association, Inc. Notwithstanding the definitions in those standards, for the purposes of this section the definition of fire protection system does not include the water service piping to a city water main or piping used for potable water purposes or piping used for heating or cooling purposes. Openings from potable water piping for fire protection systems must be made by persons properly licensed under section 326.40. Nothing in this subdivision is intended to conflict with the Minnesota state building code or the Minnesota uniform fire code.

Subd. 5. [JOURNEYMAN SPRINKLER FITTER.] "Journeyman sprinkler fitter" means a person who is certified as competent to engage in the installing, connecting, altering, repairing, or adding to a fire protection system for and under the supervision of a fire protection sprinkler contractor.

Subd. 6. [APPRENTICE SPRINKLER FITTER.] "Apprentice sprinkler fitter" means a person, other than a fire protection sprinkler contractor or journeyman sprinkler fitter, who is regularly engaged in the industry learning the business under the direct supervision of a fire protection sprinkler contractor or journeyman sprinkler fitter and whose duties are those of a helper only to the fire protection sprinkler contractor or journeyman sprinkler fitter. Apprentices must be registered with the department's division of apprenticeship in accordance with chapter 178.

Subd. 7. [PERSON.] "Person" includes an individual, partnership, joint venture, association, corporation, or otherwise organized business entity, or combination of them.

Subd. 8. [DEPARTMENT.] "Department" means the department of labor and industry.

Subd. 9. [COMMISSIONER.] "Commissioner" means the commissioner of labor and industry.

Sec. 2. [326.68] [COUNCIL MEMBERSHIP; OATH.]

The Minnesota advisory council of examiners for fire protection systems consists of five members appointed for a term of three years by the commissioner of labor and industry. Two members of the council must be licensed contractors or full-time, managing employees actively engaged in a licensed fire protection sprinkler contractor's business. One member of the council must be from the Minnesota fire marshals association. Two members of the council must be sprinkler fitters licensed under this chapter. If initial appointees, they must become licensed within 120 days of appointment.

A member may be reappointed.

Sec. 3. [326.69] [INITIAL TERM; COMPENSATION; REMOVAL; VACANCY.]

Subdivision 1. [INITIAL TERM.] Notwithstanding section 2, initial appointments to the council must be made in a manner and for a period not exceeding three years, so that the terms of members expire in different years. After the appointment of the initial council members, the term of a member is three years.

Subd. 2. [COMPENSATION.] The council members must be compensated under section 15.0575.

Subd. 3. [REMOVAL.] The commissioner may remove a member under section 15.0575.

Subd. 4. [VACANCY.] If the commissioner fails to appoint a member to fill a vacancy within 90 days after the vacancy has occurred, the council may fill the vacancy until a new member is approved and appointed.

Sec. 4. [326.70] [LICENSE REQUIRED.]

Subdivision 1. [IN GENERAL.] A person may not sell, design, install, modify, alter, repair, maintain, or make a maintenance inspection on a fire protection system, or offer to do so unless licensed to perform these duties or except as a registered professional engineer acting solely in a professional capacity. No license shall be required for repairs on existing installations. Except as provided in this section, if a license is required under sections 1 to 16, no person offering fire protection services may do any of the following unless the person is a licensed fire protection sprinkler contractor:

(1) advertise as a fire protection sprinkler contractor, fire sprinkler contractor, or sprinkler fitter;

(2) add the person's name to, or in connection with, the title "fire protection sprinkler contractor," "fire sprinkler contractor," or "sprinkler fitter"; or

(3) add the person's name to any other words that tend to represent the person as a fire protection sprinkler contractor, fire sprinkler contractor, or sprinkler fitter.

A person who advertises as a fire protection sprinkler contractor must include in the advertisement the number of the person's license as a fire protection sprinkler contractor.

A vehicle used to conduct fire protection sprinkler business must have prominently displayed on its exterior the company name and license number of the fire protection sprinkler contractor performing fire protection services.

Subd. 2. [EXCEPTION.] Except that plumbers licensed under section 326.40 may contract to sell, design, install, modify, alter, demolish, repair, maintain, or examine a standpipe and hose system not in connection with parts of an automatic sprinkler system.

Subd. 3. [FIRE PROTECTION SPRINKLER CONTRACTOR.] (a) The fire protection sprinkler contractor is responsible for the preparation of detailed fire protection drawings for installation in accordance with the applicable statutes and rules of the state of Minnesota and its political subdivisions.

(b) A fire protection sprinkler contractor may be required by a municipality to pay fees normally imposed for local permits and to submit plans for review under section 14. However, a political subdivision of the state may not impose requirements to prove qualifications other than the production of a license valid under sections 1 to 16.

(c) No person may engage in or work at the business of a fire protection sprinkler contractor or journeyman sprinkler fitter unless licensed to do so by the commissioner. Sections 1 to 16 do not apply to a person solely selling or supplying products or materials to a licensed fire protection sprinkler contractor.

Subd. 4. [SPRINKLER FITTER.] A person may not undertake the prescribed activities of a sprinkler fitter under this chapter without having a valid license in possession.

Subd. 5. [INSPECTOR'S CREDIT.] An employee performing the duties of inspector for the department in regulating fire sprinkler systems may not receive time credit for the inspection duties when making an application for a license required by this section.

Sec. 5. [326.71] [RULES.]

The commissioner may adopt rules for permit, filing, and inspection fees; for the examination and licensing of fire protection sprinkler contractors, journeyman sprinkler fitters, and registered apprentices; and for enforcement of sections 1 to 16.

Sec. 6. [326.72] [EXCEPTION TO EXAMINATION.]

Persons who submit satisfactory proof to the commissioner that they have been actively engaged in fire sprinkler systems installation either as fire protection sprinkler contractors or journeyman sprinkler fitters for a period of five years prior to the effective date of this section, and who apply for licenses within 60 days after the effective date of this section, must be granted the appropriate license upon payment of the required annual license fee.

Sec. 7. [326.73] [TEMPORARY PERMIT.]

The commissioner may issue a temporary revocable permit, valid until the next scheduled examination has been held and the results have been certified by the department. The fee for a temporary permit and for renewal of a temporary permit must be set by the commissioner under section 5.

Sec. 8. [326.74] [LICENSE DISPLAY; RENEWAL; DUPLICATE.]

Subdivision 1. [IN GENERAL.] Licenses are valid for one year and expire December 31 of each year regardless of the month issued.

Subd. 2. [RENEWAL.] A license that has not been suspended or revoked must be renewed for an additional year from its expiration on application for renewal on a form prescribed by the commissioner and payment of the fee prescribed.

Subd. 3. [DUPLICATE.] A duplicate license must be issued to replace a lost, destroyed, or mutilated license on application on a form prescribed by the commissioner and payment of the fee prescribed. A duplicate license must have the word "duplicate" stamped on its face and must bear the same number as that on the license replaced.

Subd. 4. [CONTRACTOR'S LICENSE POSTED; DISPLAYED.] A license issued under sections 1 to 16 must be posted in a conspicuous place in the fire protection sprinkler contractor's place of business.

Bids, proposals, and offers and preliminary, conceptual, shop, and field installation drawings must bear the contractor's license number in a prominent display.

Subd. 5. [SPRINKLER FITTER'S LICENSE IN POSSESSION; SIGNATURE WITH NUMBER.] Sprinkler fitters must carry their licenses when they are engaged in activities of their profession. A sprinkler fitter must present the license on request to the authority having jurisdiction. The sprinkler fitter must affix the license number to those certificates that require the sprinkler fitter's signature.

Sec. 9. [326.75] [FEES.]

The fees for licenses under this chapter for the fire protection sprinkler contractor, sprinkler fitter, and registration of apprentice may be set by the commissioner under section 5.

Sec. 10. [326.76] [FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY.]

Subdivision 1. [BOND.] The commissioner shall require an applicant who is a fire protection sprinkler contractor to put up a surety bond in an amount at least $20,000 by a surety company authorized to do business in Minnesota as a surety.

Subd. 2. [INSURANCE.] Before a license as a fire protection sprinkler contractor is issued, the applicant must get and maintain in force at all times a full-term, comprehensive, general liability insurance policy, including completed operations and products coverage, from an insurance company authorized to do business in Minnesota. The policy must have an aggregate limit of at least $500,000 for fire protection work. Evidence of insurance must be filed with the board.

Sec. 11. [326.77] [ACTION ON APPLICATION.]

Subdivision 1. [DEPARTMENT DETERMINATION.] Within 120 days after an applicant has filed a complete application for a license and paid the required fees, the commissioner shall:

(1) conduct the testing required under this chapter;

(2) conduct an investigation of the applicant, limited to the applicant's eligibility; and

(3) either issue a license to the applicant, or notify the applicant in writing by registered mail of the decision not to grant the license and the reasons for the denial.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE OF HEARING.] When an application is denied, the commissioner shall specifically notify the applicant that the applicant has a right to a hearing conducted under section 13.

Sec. 12. [326.78] [REVOCATION; SUSPENSION; RENEWAL.]

Subdivision 1. [CAUSES FOR REVOCATION OR SUSPENSION.] The commissioner shall revoke a license, suspend the right of the licensee to use a license, or refuse to renew a license issued under this chapter, for any of the following causes:

(1) fraud, bad faith, misrepresentation, or bribery, either in securing a license or in conducting business under a license;

(2) making a false statement about a material matter in an application for a license; or

(3) failing to maintain the requirements of the license.

Subd. 2. [TERM OF REVOCATION OR SUSPENSION.] A license must not be suspended for longer than two years. A person whose license is revoked is eligible to apply for a license only after the expiration of two years.

Sec. 13. [326.79] [HEARING.]

If the commissioner decides not to grant or renew a license, it must give adequate notice and, if requested, provide a hearing. Notice of the hearing must be given in writing, by registered or certified mail with a return receipt requested, at least 15 days before the hearing.

Sec. 14. [326.80] [PERMIT; FILING; AND INSPECTION FEES.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIRED PERMIT.] No person may construct or install fire protection systems without first filing an application for a permit with the department or a municipality that has complied with subdivision 2. Projects under construction prior to the effective date of sections 1 to 16 are not required to obtain a permit.

Subd. 2. [PERMISSIVE MUNICIPAL REGULATION.] A municipality may, by ordinance, require the inspection of fire protection system materials and construction and that they may not be constructed or installed except in accordance with state standards. The authority designated by the ordinance for issuing fire protection permits and assuring compliance with state standards must report to the department of labor and industry all violations of state fire protection standards. A municipality may not adopt an ordinance with fire protection standards that does not comply with the minimum standards prescribed by the commissioner. The commissioner shall specify by rule the minimum qualifications for municipal inspectors.

Subd. 3. [SURCHARGE.] To defray the cost of administering sections 1 to 16, there is imposed on all municipalities except municipalities that have a letter of agreement with the commissioner to perform inspections, a surcharge on the filing fees, inspection fees, and permits issued after the effective date of sections 1 to 16 in connection with the construction or installation of fire protection systems. The surcharge must be two percent of the fees collected, but may not be less than $10 or greater than $2,000. The surcharge may be amended under chapter 14 and section 16A.128.

Subd. 4. [COLLECTION AND REPORTS.] Fee surcharges must be collected by each municipality. A municipality having a population greater than 20,000 people must prepare and submit quarterly to the department a report of fees and surcharges collected during the previous quarter. All other municipalities must submit reports and surcharges on a semiannual basis. The reports must be in a form prescribed by the commissioner and submitted together with a remittance covering surcharges collected. The report and surcharge are due no later than the 15th day following the close of the period for which surcharges are being reported.

Subd. 5. [REPORTING OF PERMITS ISSUED.] Each municipality must submit to the department a copy of each permit issued within ten days after issuance. All permits must be issued on forms prescribed by or approved by the commissioner.

Subd. 6. [FILING AND INSPECTION FEES.] The commissioner must charge a filing fee set under section 5 for all applications for permits to construct or install fire protection systems. The fee for inspection of fire protection system construction or installation must also be set by the commissioner under section 5. This subdivision does not apply if a permit is issued by a municipality complying with subdivision 2.

Sec. 15. [326.81] [DEPOSIT OF FEES.]

Fees received under sections 1 to 16 must be deposited by the department to the credit of the general fund in the state treasury. The salaries and per diem of the inspectors and examiners, their expenses, and all incidental expenses of the department in carrying out the provisions of sections 1 to 16 must be paid from the appropriations made to the department.

Sec. 16. [326.82] [CRIMES.]

It is a misdemeanor to knowingly and willfully commit or order, instruct, or direct another to commit any of the following acts:

(1) to make a false statement in a license application, request for inspection, certificate, or other lawfully authorized or required form or statement provided by sections 1 to 16;

(2) to perform fire sprinkler work without a proper permit and license for that work unless the work is exempt from permitting and licensing;

(3) to fail to file a request for inspection when required;

(4) to interfere with, or refuse entry to, an inspector engaged in the performance of lawful duties; or

(5) to violate a statute, rule, or municipal ordinance that pertains to powers given to political subdivisions under section 14, subdivision 2.”

Delete the title and insert:

“A bill for an act relating to public safety; creating the state advisory council of examiners for fire protection systems; requiring licenses and inspections by the department of labor and industry; imposing a penalty; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 326.”

And when so amended the bill do pass and be re-referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations. Amendments adopted. Report adopted.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 300.08, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ENUMERATED POWERS.] (a) A corporation formed under the provisions of this chapter may:

(1) be known by its corporate name for the time stated in its certificate of incorporation;

(2) sue and be sued in any court;

(3) have, use, and alter a common seal;

(4) acquire, by purchase or otherwise, and hold, enjoy, improve, lease, encumber, and convey all real and personal property necessary for the purposes of its organization, subject to the limitations hereafter declared;

(5) elect or appoint in any manner it determines all necessary or proper officers, agents, boards, and committees, to fix their compensation, and to define their powers and duties;

(6) make and amend consistently with law bylaws providing for the management of its property and the regulation and government of its affairs; and

(7) wind up and liquidate its business in the manner provided by law.

(b) A corporation formed under this chapter shall indemnify those persons identified in section 300.083 against certain expenses and liabilities only as provided in section 300.083 and may indemnify other persons.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 300.083, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) For purposes of this section, the terms defined in this subdivision have the meanings given them.

(b) "Corporation" includes a domestic or foreign corporation that was the predecessor of the corporation referred to in this section in a merger or other transaction in which the predecessor's existence ceased upon consummation of the transaction.

(c) "Official capacity" means (1) with respect to a director, the position of director in a corporation, (2) with respect to a person other than a director, the elective or appointive office or position held by an officer, member of a committee of the board, or the employment or ~~agency~~ relationship undertaken by an employee or ~~agent~~ of the corporation, and (3) with respect to a director, officer, or employee, or ~~agent~~ of the corporation who, while a director, officer, or employee, or ~~agent~~ of the corporation, is or was serving at the request of the corporation or whose duties in that position involve or involved service as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another organization or employee benefit plan, the position of that person as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent, as the case may be, of the other organization or employee benefit plan.

(d) "Proceeding" means a threatened, pending, or completed civil, criminal, administrative, arbitration, or investigative proceeding, including a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation.

(e) "Special legal counsel" means counsel who has not represented the corporation or a related corporation, or a director, officer, member of a committee or board, or employee, or ~~agent~~ whose indemnification is in issue.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 300.083, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PROHIBITION OR LIMIT ON INDEMNIFICATION OR ADVANCES.] The articles or bylaws either may prohibit indemnification or advances of expenses otherwise required by this section or may impose conditions on indemnification or advances of expenses in addition to the conditions contained in subdivisions 2 and 3 including, without limitation, monetary limits on indemnification or advances of expenses, if the conditions apply equally to all persons or to all persons within a given class. A prohibition or limit on indemnification or advances may not apply to or affect the right of a person to indemnification or advances of expenses with respect to any acts or omissions of the person occurring prior to the effective date of a provision in the articles or the date of adoption of a provision in the bylaws establishing the prohibition or limit on indemnification or advances.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 300.083, subdivision 8, is

amended to read:

Subd. 8. [DISCLOSURE.] A corporation that indemnifies or advances expenses to a person in accordance with this section in connection with a proceeding by or on behalf of the corporation shall report to the shareholders in writing the amount of the indemnification or advance and to whom and on whose behalf it was paid ~~to the shareholders in an annual report covering the period when the indemnification or advance was paid or accrued under the accounting method of the corporation not later than the next meeting of shareholders.~~

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 300.083, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. [INDEMNIFICATION OF OTHER PERSONS.] Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the power of the corporation to indemnify other persons by contract or otherwise."

Page 5, after line 11, insert:

302A.133 [PROCEDURE FOR AMENDMENT BEFORE ISSUANCE OF SHARES.]

Before the issuance of shares by a corporation, the articles may be amended pursuant to section 302A.171 by the incorporators or by the board. The articles may be amended by the board to change a statement pursuant to section 302A.401, subdivision 3, establishing or fixing the rights and preferences of a class or series of shares before the issuance of any shares of that class or series.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 302A.135, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [APPROVAL BY SHAREHOLDERS.] (a) The proposed amendment is adopted when approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of the shares present and entitled to vote, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) and subdivision 5.

(b) For a closely held corporation, if the articles provide for a specified proportion or number equal to or larger than the majority necessary to transact a specified type of business at a meeting, or if it is proposed to amend the articles to provide for a specified proportion or number equal to or larger than the majority necessary to transact a specified type of business at a meeting, the affirmative vote necessary to add the provision to, or to amend an existing provision in, the articles is the larger of:

(1) The specified proportion or number or, in the absence of a specific provision, the affirmative vote necessary to transact the type of business described in the proposed amendment at a meeting immediately before the effectiveness of the proposed amendment; or

(2) The specified proportion or number that would, upon effectiveness of the proposed amendment, be necessary to transact the specified type of business at a meeting.

(c) For corporations other than closely held corporations, if the articles provide for a larger proportion or number to transact a specified type of business at a meeting, the affirmative vote of that larger proportion or number is necessary to amend the articles to decrease the proportion or number necessary to transact the business.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 302A.135, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [CERTAIN RESTATEMENTS.] An amendment that merely restates the existing articles, as amended, may be authorized by a resolution approved by the board and may, but need not, be submitted to and approved by the shareholders as provided in subdivisions 2, 3, and 4."

302A.139 [ARTICLES OF AMENDMENT.]

When an amendment has been adopted, articles of amendment shall be prepared that contain:

(a) The name of the corporation;

(b) The amendment adopted;

(c) The date of the adoption of the amendment by the shareholders, or by the incorporators or the board where no shares have been issued; or the date of adoption of the amendment by the board if:

(1) the amendment merely restates the existing articles, as amended, and the amendment was not submitted to and approved by the shareholders, in which case the articles of amendment must contain a statement that the amendment restating the articles correctly sets forth without change the corresponding provisions of the articles as previously amended; or

(2) the amendment is to a statement establishing or fixing the rights and preferences of a class or series of shares before the issuance of shares of that class or series;

(d) If the amendment provides for but does not establish the manner for effecting an exchange, reclassification, or cancellation of issued shares, a statement of the manner in which it will be effected; and

(e) If the amendment restates the articles in their entirety, a statement that the restated articles supersede the original articles and all amendments to them.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 302A.141, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [EFFECT OF AMENDMENTS RESTATING ARTICLES.] When effective under section 302A.153, an amendment restating the articles in their entirety supersedes the original articles and all amendments to the original articles."

302A.727 [NOTICE TO CREDITORS AND CLAIMANTS.]

Subdivision 1. [WHEN PERMITTED; HOW GIVEN.] When a notice of intent to dissolve has been filed with the secretary of state, the corporation may give notice of the filing to each ~~known~~ creditor of and claimant against the corporation ~~at the last known address of each known or unknown, present, or future, or and contingent or non-contingent claimant.~~ ~~The corporation may give published notice to known creditors or claimants whose address is unknown and to unknown present, future, or contingent~~

~~creditors and claimants. If notice to creditors and claimants is given, it must be given by publishing the notice once each week for four successive weeks in a legal newspaper in the county or counties where the registered office and the principal executive office of the corporation are located and by giving written notice to known creditors and claimants pursuant to section 302A.011, subdivision 17.~~

Subd. 2. [CONTENTS.] The notice to creditors and claimants shall contain:

(a) A statement that the corporation is in the process of dissolving;

(b) A statement that the corporation has filed with the secretary of state a notice of intent to dissolve;

(c) The date of filing the notice of intent to dissolve;

(d) The address of the office to which written claims against the corporation must be presented; and

(e) The date by which all the claims must be received, which shall be the later of 90 days after the ~~notice of intent to dissolve was filed with the secretary of state published notice~~ or, with respect to a particular known creditor or claimant, 90 days after the date on which written notice was given to that creditor or claimant. Published notice is deemed given on the date of first publication for the purpose of determining this date.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 302A.729, is amended to read:

302A.729 [CLAIMS IN DISSOLUTION.]

~~Subdivision 1. [PROCEDURE.]~~ If the corporation gives proper notice to creditors and claimants pursuant to section 302A.727:

(a) ~~The claim of a creditor or claimant to whom notice is given who fails to file a claim according to the procedures set forth by the corporation on or before the date set forth in the notice is subject to the provisions of section 302A.781;~~

(b) ~~The corporation has 30 days from the receipt of each claim filed according to the procedures set forth by the corporation on or before the date set forth in the notice to accept or reject the claim by giving written notice to the person submitting it; a claim not expressly rejected in this manner is deemed accepted; and~~

(c) ~~(b) A creditor or claimant to whom notice is given and whose claim is rejected by the corporation has 60 days from the date of rejection, or 180 days from the date the corporation filed with the secretary of state the notice of intent to dissolve, or 90 days after the date on which notice was given to the creditor or claimant, whichever is longer, to pursue any other remedies with respect to the claim. If the creditor or claimant does not initiate legal, administrative, or arbitration proceedings with respect to the claim during that period, the claim is subject to the provisions of section 302A.781.~~

Subd. 2. [STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS.] ~~The claim of a creditor or claimant to whom notice is not given and for whom payment of any debt is not made or provided for and who does not initiate legal, administrative, or arbitration proceedings concerning the claim within two years after the date of filing the notice of intent to dissolve is thereafter subject to the~~ provisions of 302A.781.

Sec. 42. [302A.730] [STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [CORPORATIONS THAT GIVE NOTICE.] If the corporation gives notice to creditors and claimants pursuant to section 302A.727:

(1) the claim of a creditor or claimant to whom notice is given who fails to file a claim according to the procedures set forth by the corporation on or before the date set forth in the notice is subject to the provisions of section 302A.781;

(2) the claim of a creditor or claimant that is rejected by the corporation in accordance with section 302A.729 is subject to the provisions of section 302A.781 if the creditor or claimant does not initiate legal, administrative, or arbitration proceedings with respect to the claim during the period set forth in section 302A.729, clause (b).

Subd. 2. [OTHER CORPORATIONS.] If the corporation does not give notice to creditors and claimants pursuant to section 302A.727, the claim of a creditor or claimant who does not initiate legal, administrative, or arbitration proceedings concerning the claim within two years after the date of filing the notice of intent to dissolve is subject to the provisions of section 302A.781.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 302A.733, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ARTICLES; WHEN FILED.] Articles of dissolution for a corporation dissolving pursuant to section 302A.721 shall be filed with the secretary of state after:

(a) The payment of claims of all known creditors and claimants has been made or provided for;

~~(b) The longer of the periods described in section 302A.729, subdivision 1, clause (e) has expired, if the corporation has given notice to creditors and claimants of the corporation in the manner described in section 302A.727; or, in all other cases, if the corporation has given notice to creditors and claimants in the manner provided in section 302A.727: (1) the 90-day period in section 302A.727, subdivision 2, clause (e), has expired and the payment of claims of all creditors and claimants filing a claim within that period has been made or provided for; or (2) the longer of the periods described in section 302A.729, clause (b), has expired; or, in all other cases,~~

(c) The two year period described in section ~~302A.729, subdivision 2~~ 42 has expired.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 302A.733, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CONTENTS OF ARTICLES.] The articles of dissolution shall state:

(a) Whether notice has been given to all creditors and claimants of the corporation in the manner provided in section 302A.727, and, if notice has been given, the last date on which the notice was given and: (1) that the payment of all creditors and claimants filing a claim within the 90-day period set forth in section 302A.727, subdivision 2, clause (e), has been made or provided for; or (2) the date on which the longer of the periods described in section 302A.729, ~~subdivision 1~~, clause ~~(e)~~ (b), expired; or

(b) If notice was not given and articles of dissolution are being filed pursuant to section 302A.733, subdivision 1, clause (a), that all debts, obligations, and liabilities of the corporation have been paid and discharged or that adequate provisions have been made therefor; and

(c) That the remaining property, assets, and claims of the corporation have been distributed among its shareholders in accordance with section 302A.551, subdivision 4, or that adequate provision has been made for that distribution; and

(d) That there are no pending legal, administrative, or arbitration proceedings by or against the corporation, or that adequate provision has been made for the satisfaction of any judgment, order, or decree that may be entered against it in a pending proceeding; ~~and that all other claims are barred under section 302A.781.~~

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 302A.781, is amended to read:

302A.781 [CLAIMS BARRED; EXCEPTIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [CLAIMS BARRED.] A person who is or becomes a creditor or claimant at any time before, during, or following the conclusion of dissolution proceedings, who does not file a claim or pursue a remedy in a legal, administrative, or arbitration proceeding within the time provided in section ~~302A.729~~ 42, 302A.741, 302A.751, or 302A.759, or has not initiated a legal, administrative, or arbitration proceeding before the commencement of the dissolution proceedings, and all those claiming through or under the creditor or claimant, are forever barred from suing on that claim or otherwise realizing upon or enforcing it, except as provided in this section.

Subd. 2. [CLAIMS REOPENED.] At any time within one year after articles of dissolution have been filed with the secretary of state pursuant to section 302A.733, subdivision 1, clause (b) or (c), or a decree of dissolution has been entered, a creditor or claimant who shows good cause for not having previously filed the claim may apply to a court in this state to allow a claim:

(a) Against the corporation to the extent of undistributed assets; or

(b) If the undistributed assets are not sufficient to satisfy the claim, against a shareholder, whose liability shall be limited to a portion of the claim that is equal to the portion of the distributions to shareholders in liquidation or dissolution received by the shareholder.

Subd. 3. [CLAIMS PERMITTED.] All debts, obligations, and liabilities incurred during dissolution proceedings shall be paid or provided for by the corporation before the distribution of assets to a shareholder. A person to whom this kind of debt, obligation, or liability is owed but not paid may pursue any remedy against the officers, directors, and shareholders of the corporation before the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations. This subdivision does not apply to dissolution under the supervision or order of a court.

"ARTICLE 1

MINERAL, GAME, AND TIMBER RESOURCES

Section 1. [84.96] [MINERAL RESOURCES PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [FINDINGS.] The legislature finds that there has been a disinvestment in mineral and timber resources of the state. To provide a diversified economic base in the state, it is necessary to stimulate investment in the state's natural resources. Mineral exploration by the private sector must be encouraged and assisted. The long-term health of the state will be aided by a diverse state economy that includes productive natural resource industries. A forestry management plan that will improve the efficient use of the state's forest resources is already mandated but needs to be implemented. The great benefits from the state's mineral resources will not be realized without state stimulation of research and investment, which can be achieved through a program coordinated by the department of natural resources to accelerate geological mapping and mineral deposit evaluation, to provide analytical support to the mineral and timber industries, and to provide incentives for product development and research for the mineral industry. This participation by the state will lead to active participation by private industry in healthy Minnesota timber and mineral resources industries.

Subd. 2. [PROGRAM.] The commissioner of natural resources shall create a written plan providing for a ten-year mineral development program. The program shall be designed to:

- (1) accelerate geological mapping of the state;*
- (2) accelerate evaluation of the state's mineral potential and other natural resources;*
- (3) provide analytical support and research incentives for participants in the mineral industry; and*
- (4) provide resource evaluation support and incentives for product development for participants in the industrial mineral industry.*

The plan created by the commissioner shall contain procedure and criteria to determine the priority for mineral development projects to receive funding approved by the commissioner. A committee is created composed of representatives of the department of natural resources, the Minnesota geological survey, the Minnesota resources research center and the natural resources research institute. The committee shall coordinate the mineral development program provided for in this subdivision.

Sec. 2. [APPROPRIATION; MINERAL RESOURCES PLAN.]

$15,000,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of natural resources to implement section 1, to be available until June 30, 1989.

Sec. 3. [APPROPRIATION; FORESTRY MANAGEMENT.]

$23,700,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of natural resources to implement the forestry management plan required in section 89.011, and for grants to counties or groups of counties for county forestry assistance programs, to be available until June 30, 1989. $4,000,000 of this amount shall be used by the commissioner for grants to counties under the forest road access program of the department of natural resources.

$1,300,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the University of Minnesota natural resources research institute composite wood products center.

$400,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the University of Minnesota natural resources institute to conduct an assessment of the state's aspen and cottonwood resource.

Sec. 4. [APPROPRIATION; FISH AND GAME MANAGEMENT AND STREAM IMPROVEMENT.]

$10,000,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of natural resources for game habitat management, construction and operation of fish hatcheries and rearing ponds, aquaculture, and for lake and stream improvement, to be available until June 30, 1989.

ARTICLE 2

GREATER MINNESOTA CORPORATION

Section 1. [116N.01] [CITATION.]

Sections 1 to 12 may be cited as the "greater Minnesota corporation act."

Sec. 2. [116N.02] [PURPOSE.]

It is the intent of this legislation to ensure the development of new products, processes, and services that have the potential to contribute to the state's economy, particularly in nonmetropolitan areas. For these purposes, the greater Minnesota corporation is established to foster economic growth in Minnesota through cooperative research and development and investments in new products and businesses. It is the intention of the legislature to create the greater Minnesota corporation as a public corporation.

It is found and declared that the contribution to the state's economy to be made by the greater Minnesota corporation is a governmental function and a public purpose without which the state's economy will be irreparably harmed.

Sec. 3. [116N.03] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] The definitions in this section apply to this chapter.

Subd. 2. [BOARD.] "Board" means the board of directors of the greater Minnesota corporation.

Subd. 3. [CORPORATION.] "Corporation" means the greater Minnesota corporation established by section 4.

Subd. 4. [FUND.] "Fund" means the greater Minnesota fund established by section 9.

Sec. 4. [116N.04] [CORPORATION CREATED; BOARD OF DIRECTORS; POWERS.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION; NAME.] The greater Minnesota corporation is created as a public corporation of the state of Minnesota and is not a state agency. All business of the corporation must be conducted under its name.

Subd. 2. [BOARD OF DIRECTORS.] The corporation is governed by a board of 11 directors appointed by the governor. Terms and removal of members of the board is as provided in section 15.059. One director must be appointed from each of the state's congressional districts. Directors may be compensated as determined by the board.

Subd. 3. [ARTICLES AND BYLAWS.] The board of directors shall adopt articles of incorporation and bylaws necessary to conduct the business of the corporation, consistent with sections 1 to 12.

Subd. 4. [PLACES OF BUSINESS.] The board shall locate and maintain the corporation's places of business within the state.

Subd. 5. [MEETINGS AND ACTIONS OF THE BOARD.] The board shall meet at least twice a year and may hold additional meetings upon giving whatever notice the bylaws of the corporation provide. Board meetings are not subject to section 471.705.

Sec. 5. [116N.05] [CORPORATE PERSONNEL.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] The board shall appoint and set the compensation for a president and may appoint subordinate officers. The president's salary may not exceed 95 percent of the governor's salary. The board may designate the president as its general agent. Subject to the control of the board, the president shall employ employees and agents as the president deems necessary. The board shall define the duties and designate the titles of the employees and agents.

Subd. 2. [STATUS OF EMPLOYEES.] Employees, officers, and directors of the corporation are not state employees, but, at the option of the board, may participate in the state retirement plan for employees in the unclassified service.

Sec. 6. [116N.06] [POWERS OF THE CORPORATION.]

In addition to other powers granted by this chapter, the corporation may

- (1) sue, and be sued;*
- (2) have a seal and alter it at will;*
- (3) acquire and dispose of personal property, including inchoate and intellectual property, royalties, stock, and stock warrants;*
- (4) enter into contracts or agreements with any federal or state agency, person, business, or other organization;*
- (5) acquire and dispose of real property or an interest in real property;*
- (6) purchase insurance;*
- (7) sell, at public or private sale, any note, mortgage, or other instrument or obligation;*
- (8) consent to the modification of a contract or agreement to which the corporation is a party;*
- (9) provide general consultative and technical services to businesses to which loans or grants may be made;*
- (10) develop, buy, and possess financial and technical information, including, but not limited to, credit reports and financial statements, free from any restriction or regulation in chapter 13;*

(11) accept gifts, grants, and bequests and use or dispose of them for its purposes;

(12) receive payments in the form of royalties, dividends, or other proceeds in connection with the ownership, license, or lease of products or businesses;

(13) make grants from the greater Minnesota fund to the rural initiative funds created under section 12; and

(14) spend money from the greater Minnesota fund, and other money appropriated without restriction by the legislature, for any lawful purpose, including, but not limited to, expenses for the food, lodging, and travel of consultants and speakers hired by the board; publications; advertising; and promotional activities.

Sec. 7. [116N.07] [FINANCING.]

Subdivision 1. [BORROWING.] The corporation may borrow money to carry out its purposes and may issue its negotiable bonds or notes as evidence of borrowing in accordance with sections 462A.08 to 462A.13, 462A.16 and 462A.17, all with the force and effect stated and the incidental powers granted and duties imposed in those sections. The bonds and notes may be issued under a trust indenture that is substantially identical to a resolution under which the authority issues bonds and notes as provided in sections 462A.08 to 462A.13, 462A.16, and 462A.17, except that the corporation may pledge money and securities to a trustee for the security of the holders of bonds and notes. The corporation may refund bonds and notes and may guarantee or insure its bonds and notes in whole or in part with money from the funds or an account created by the corporation for that purpose. The aggregate principal amount of the corporation's bonds and notes outstanding at any one time, excluding the amount satisfied and discharged by payment or provision for payment in accordance with their terms, and deducting amounts held in debt service reserve accounts for them and amounts used to make loans guaranteed or insured by the federal government or a department, an agency or instrumentality of the federal government or by a private insurer or guarantor authorized to do business in the state of Minnesota and acceptable to the corporation, shall not exceed $50,000,000.

Subd. 2. [BONDS AND NOTES; RESERVES.] The corporation may issue and sell bonds, notes, and other obligations payable solely from particular money, assets, or revenues derived from its programs, or any loan, notwithstanding section 462A.08, subdivision 3. Obligations issued to participate in making or purchasing loans shall be payable solely from revenues derived by the corporation from repayments of these loans and from enforcement of the security for them, or from a debt service reserve account or accounts, or from a general reserve account or from a segregated portion of it, or from other money or security specifically pledged by the corporation, irrevocably pledged and appropriated to pay principal and interest due, for which other money is not available. A general reserve account is created within the greater Minnesota fund and is eligible to receive direct appropriations from the state treasury or a transfer from any of the accounts as the corporation may provide by resolution. The corporation may irrevocably pledge and appropriate all or a segregated portion of the general reserve account to pay principal and interest due on all or one or more series of its obligations for which other money is not available, under the terms and conditions that the corporation shall determine. Until so pledged and appropriated by the corporation the general reserve account shall not be available to pay principal and interest on the corporation's obligations. The corporation may at its option provide by resolution that obligations issued to participate in making or purchasing loans be secured at the time of issuance in whole or in part by a debt service reserve account or accounts, a portion of the general reserve account segregated to secure one or more series of bonds, or the portion of the general reserve account not segregated to secure one or more series of bonds. The operation of the debt service reserve account or accounts or a segregated portion of the general reserve account and other relevant terms or provisions shall be determined by resolution or indenture of the corporation. Obligations issued to make or purchase loans may be issued pursuant to an indenture of trust or a resolution of the corporation. It may pledge to holders of obligations, or to a trustee, repayments from the loans, any security or collateral for them, contract rights with respect to them, and any other money or security specifically pledged by the authority for them.

Subd. 3. [SALE.] The corporation may sell any of its obligations at public or private sale, at the price or prices as the corporation shall determine, notwithstanding the limitation on sale price in the fourth sentence of section 462A.09, and notwithstanding whether or not the interest on any of its obligations is subject to federal income taxes.

Subd. 4. [COLLECTION OF CHARGES.] The corporation may establish and collect reasonable interest and amortization payments on loans, and in connection with loans may establish and collect or authorize the collection of reasonable fees and charges or require money to be placed in escrow, sufficient to provide for the payment and security of its bonds, notes, commitments and other obligations and for the servicing of them, to provide reasonable allowances for or insurance against losses which may be incurred and to cover the cost of issuance of obligations and technical, consultative, and project assistance services.

Subd. 5. [INVESTMENT.] The corporation may cause any money not required for immediate disbursement, including the general reserve account, to be invested in direct obligations of or obligations guaranteed as to principal and interest by the United States, or in insured savings accounts, up to the amount of the insurance, in any institution the accounts of which are insured by the federal savings and loan insurance corporation or to be deposited in a savings or other account in a bank insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation or to be invested in time certificates of deposit issued by a bank insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation and maturing within one year or less and in the investments described in section 11A.24, subdivision 4, except clause (d) of subdivision 4. It may deposit money in excess of the amount insured with security as provided in chapter 118. Notwithstanding the foregoing, it may invest and deposit money into accounts established pursuant to resolutions or indentures securing its bonds or notes in investments and deposit accounts or certificates, and with security, as may be agreed with the holders or a trustee for the holders.

Sec. 8. [116N.08] [ACTIVITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [PUBLIC GRANTS.] The corporation may make matching grants for applied research and development from the greater Minnesota fund to any campus of the University of Minnesota, a state university, a community college, a Minnesota private college or university, or an area vocational technical institute.

Subd. 2. [PRIVATE GRANTS AND LOANS.] The corporation may make grants or loans or both from the greater Minnesota fund to corporations, partnerships, sole proprietorships, or other business entities to promote development in the state of new products, or processes with potential commercial value.

Subd. 3. [EQUITY INVESTMENTS.] The corporation may acquire an interest in any product or in any private business entity located or intending to locate in an enterprise zone as defined in section 273.1312 or a distressed county as defined in section 297A.257.

Subd. 4. [PRIVATE CAPITAL.] The corporation may solicit and obtain private capital to be available for the duties specified in subdivisions 1 to 3.

Subd. 5. [CONSULTING AND TECHNICAL SERVICES.] The corporation may provide general consultative and technical services to colleges or universities or to businesses and set fees or charges for the services.

Subd. 6. [RESEARCH.] The corporation may identify opportunities for scientific research and technological innovation and advise colleges and universities of the research needs of private business.

Sec. 9. [116N.09] [GREATER MINNESOTA FUND.]

The greater Minnesota fund is created as a separate account in the state treasury. The fund consists of all appropriations made to the corporation; all fees and charges collected by the corporation; income from investments and purchases; all revenues from the sale of bonds, and from loans, rentals, royalties, dividends, and other proceeds collected in connection with lawful corporate purposes; and all gifts, donations, and bequests made to the corporation. The board may create separate accounts within the fund for use in accordance with the fund's purposes. Any money in the fund may be deposited in an institution designated as a depository for state funds under section 9.031. Money in the fund not needed for the immediate purposes of the corporation may be invested by the corporation in any way authorized by section 11A.24. Money in the fund may be used only as provided in this chapter.

Sec. 10. [116N.10] [AUDITS.]

The board shall contract with a certified public accounting firm to audit the corporation and any subsidiary annually in accordance with generally accepted accounting standards.

Sec. 11. [116N.11] [REPORTS.]

The corporation shall report to the legislature and the governor on its activities by January 1 of each year. The report must include at least, a description of projects supported by the fund, an account of all loans and grants made by the fund during the calendar year, the source and amount of all money collected and distributed by the fund, the fund's assets and liabilities, an explanation of administrative expenses, and any amendments to the development plan. Reports must be made to the legislature as required by section 3.195.

Sec. 12. [116N.12] [RURAL INITIATIVE REVOLVING FUNDS PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [ORGANIZATION.] The rural initiative revolving funds program provides subordinated loans to new and existing businesses to promote economic development in rural Minnesota. The corporation shall establish the program as follows:

(a) The corporation shall divide the state, excluding the seven county metropolitan area, into six regions. The regions' boundaries must be coterminous with the boundaries of one or more of the development regions established under section 462.385.

(b) The corporation shall establish a regional rural initiative revolving fund in each of the six regions. Each revolving fund must receive an appropriation from the council of up to $500,000 over a period of three years and must be administered by a nonprofit corporation selected by the corporation under criteria set forth in subdivision 2. The organizations responsible for administering revolving funds shall use the money appropriated to them by the corporation to provide subordinated loans to promote economic development in areas including, but not limited to, technologically innovative industries, value added manufacturing, agriprocessing, information industries, and agricultural marketing. Money from the revolving funds may not be used for any retail development project.

(c) In making a loan, an organization responsible for administering a revolving fund shall give priority to proposed borrowers who are not likely to undertake the project without assistance from the revolving fund. Loans may be used for capital assets, equity, and working capital. Among loan applicants, priority must be given on the basis of the number of permanent jobs created or retained by the project and the proportion of nonstate money leveraged by the revolving fund loan. The minimum revolving fund loan is $2,500 and the maximum is $50,000. With the approval of the corporation, a revolving fund loan may be used to provide up to 50 percent of the private investment required to qualify for grants from the economic recovery fund. A revolving fund loan may not exceed ten percent of the total capital investment of an individual project.

(d) The corporation shall establish a minimum interest rate for regional rural initiative revolving fund loans to ensure that necessary management costs are covered.

(e) No more than four percent of the revolving fund appropriation to a nonprofit corporation may be used for administrative expenses.

(f) Money repaid to the revolving funds must remain in the funds for further distribution according to paragraph (c). Administrative expenses shall be paid out of the interest earned on revolving fund loans.

(g) The corporation may make rules to implement this section.

Subd. 2. [QUALIFICATIONS.] The corporation shall select the organizations responsible for administering the revolving funds and shall enter into grant agreements with those organizations. In order for an organization to qualify to administer a revolving fund, it must be a nonprofit corporation and prove that:

(1) its board of directors contains representatives from the banking industry, citizens experienced in rural development, and representatives from the different geographic areas in the revolving fund region, including the commissions;

(2) it can provide at least an equal match to the state appropriation to the revolving fund through nonstate sources;

(3) it has the capability to close loans in a timely manner and to provide ongoing loan service;

(4) it has the technical skills to analyze projects;

(5) it is familiar with other available public and private funding sources and economic development programs; and

(6) it has the capability to package economic development projects.

Subd. 3. [REVOLVING FUND DUTIES.] The organization responsible for administering a revolving fund shall:

(1) submit an annual report to the corporation by January 15 of each year that includes, at least, a description of projects supported by the fund, an account of all loans made by the fund during the calendar year, the source and amount of all money collected and distributed by the fund, the fund's assets and liabilities, and an explanation of administrative expenses; and

(2) provide for an annual audit and submit a copy of each annual audit report to the corporation.

Subd. 4. [APPLICATION FOR GRANTS.] The organization responsible for administering a revolving fund may also apply to the corporation under rules or bylaws as the corporation may adopt, for grants to be made by the organization to promote economic development within its region to similar kinds of businesses to which loans may be made.

Sec. 13. [DEVELOPMENT PLAN.]

The board of directors of the greater Minnesota corporation shall prepare a comprehensive development plan and submit it to the governor and the legislature by November 15, 1986. The development plan must include at least the following:

(1) operating procedures;

(2) accounting procedures;

(3) grant procedures;

(4) loan procedures;

(5) personnel procedures;

(6) investment procedures; and

(7) board conduct and ethics.

In addition, the development plan must include a budget proposal and a five-year plan. It must identify sources and amounts of available non-governmental money and the purposes for which that money may be used, and it must suggest any further legislation that may be necessary to carry out the development plan.

Sec. 14. [APPROPRIATION; GREATER MINNESOTA CORPORATION.]

$5,000,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the greater Minnesota fund created by section 9 for use by the greater Minnesota corporation for the purposes of sections 1 to 12, to be available until expended. The appropriation shall be repaid by the corporation to the general fund, without interest, within five years of the effective date of this section.

ARTICLE 3

WORK READINESS PROGRAM

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.051, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [~~TWO MONTH LENGTH OF ASSISTANCE.~~] The local agency shall terminate a registrant after ~~two~~ 12 months in the work readiness program in a distressed county, as defined in section 297A.257, and after six months in the work readiness program in all other counties if the local agency determines that registrant is not eligible for assistance under subdivision 5. During the ~~second 12th or 6th~~ month, as applicable, of work readiness assistance, the local agency must assess the registrant's eligibility under subdivision 5 and inform the registrant of the outcome of the assessment. A registrant who is not eligible under subdivision 5 is eligible for a maximum of ~~two~~ 12 months of work readiness assistance in a distressed county and six months of work readiness assistance in all other counties in any consecutive 24-month period.

Sec. 2. [APPROPRIATION.]

$6,000,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of human services for allocation to local agencies for the purposes of the work readiness program authorized by section 256D.051, to be available until June 30, 1989.

ARTICLE 4

GRANTS TO DISPLACED RURAL WORKERS

Section 1. [268.97] [SUPPLEMENTAL GRANTS TO DISPLACED RURAL WORKERS.]

Subdivision 1. [PROGRAM; ELIGIBILITY.] The commissioner of jobs and training shall establish and administer the state supplemental education grant program to assist displaced workers in rural Minnesota areas to pay the costs of attending public post-secondary educational institutions located in the development regions in which the displaced workers reside. Minnesota residents who are enrolled full time or part time in a nonbaccalaureate occupational program designed to train people for employment are eligible to apply for grants under this section.

Applicants who meet the criteria established by this section and by the commissioner may receive grant payments for six months. Applicants shall demonstrate financial need in accordance with policies and procedures established by the commissioner. In developing eligibility policies, the commissioner shall consider criteria for participation in state and federal programs designed to serve economically dislocated workers. The commissioner shall develop policies and procedures for the administration of grants, including the allocation of funds to eligible institutions as defined in section 136A.101. The development of policies and procedures in accordance with this subdivision is not covered by chapter 14.

Subd. 2. [PART-TIME GRANTS.] Displaced workers in rural Minnesota areas are eligible to be considered for a part-time grant under section 136A.132. In awarding grants during the 1987-1989 biennium, participating post-secondary institutions shall consider the needs of displaced rural workers.

Subd. 3. [PUBLIC INFORMATION.] The commissioner shall provide information to displaced workers in rural areas about post-secondary education opportunities and financial assistance to help them pay for their education including existing state and federal programs and the state supplemental education grant program. The commissioner shall develop and communicate the information in cooperation with financial aid administrators, the agriculture extension service, and representatives of public and private post-secondary education institutions.

Sec. 2. [APPROPRIATION.]

$4,000,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of jobs and training for the purposes of section 1, to be available until June 30, 1989.

Sec. 3. [$125,000 FOR TRI-COUNTY TELECOMM PROJECT.]

$125,000 is appropriated in fiscal year 1988 from the general fund to the department of education to make a grant to the fiscal agent for the Tri-County Telecomm Project.

ARTICLE 5

EXTENSION OF INTEREST RATE BUY-DOWN

Section 1. Laws 1986, chapter 398, article 23, section 1, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [ELIGIBLE BORROWER.] "Eligible borrower" means a farmer who applies to a lender for a farm operating loan between the dates January 1, 1986, and December 30, ~~1986~~ 1987, and who meets all qualifications established in section 2 and any further qualifications that may be established in the program guidelines adopted by the commissioner under section 4, subdivision 1.

Sec. 2. Laws 1986, chapter 398, article 23, section 1, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [FARM OPERATING LOAN.] "Farm operating loan" means an original, extended, or renegotiated loan or line of credit obtained by a farmer from a lender for the purpose of financing the operations of a farm. A farm operating loan includes an open line of credit even though the maximum principal amount of the line of credit may not be drawn at any one time. A farm operating loan eligible for interest rate buy-down must have a maturity date of June 30, ~~1987~~ 1988, or earlier.

Sec. 3. [APPROPRIATION.]

$15,000,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of commerce for purposes of the interest rate buy-down program in Laws 1986, chapter 398, article 23, to be available from the effective date of this act until July 1, 1988.

ARTICLE 6

MEDIATION FOR RURAL SMALL BUSINESSES

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 583.22, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [AGRICULTURAL PROPERTY.] "Agricultural property" means real property that is principally used for farming as defined in section 500.24, subdivision 2, paragraph (a), and raising poultry, and personal property that is used as security to finance a farm operation or used as part of a farm operation including equipment, crops, livestock, and proceeds of the security. "Agricultural property" also means real property that is principally used for a rural small business and personal property that is used as security to finance a rural small business or is used as part of a rural small business. "Agricultural property" does not include personal property that is subject to a possessory lien under sections 514.18 to 514.22.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 583.22, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7c. [RURAL SMALL BUSINESS.] "Rural small business" means a small business, as defined in section 645.445, located in a distressed county, as defined in section 297A.257.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 583.24, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DEBTORS.] (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) the farmer-lender mediation act applies to a debtor who is:

(1) a person operating a family farm as defined in section 500.24, subdivision 2;

(2) a family farm corporation as defined in section 500.24, subdivision 2; ~~or~~

(3) an authorized farm corporation as defined in section 500.24, subdivision 2; ~~or~~

(4) a person operating a rural small business.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (a), clause (4), the farmer-lender mediation act does not apply to a debtor who owns and leases less than 60 acres with less than $20,000 in gross sales of agricultural products the preceding year.

Sec. 4. [APPROPRIATION.]

$1,000,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the University of Minnesota agricultural extension service for purposes of providing mediation services to rural small businesses, as defined in section 583.22, under the farmer-lender mediation act in Minnesota Statutes, sections 583.20 to 583.32, to be available until June 30, 1989.

ARTICLE 7

RURAL TELECOMMUNICATION GRANTS

Section 1. [129B.361] [RURAL TELECOMMUNICATION GRANTS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] The definitions in section 129B.36 apply to this section.

Subd. 2. [LIMITATIONS.] Grants up to $75,000 per school district are available to consortiums of certain school districts in accordance with this section for the completion of two-way interactive telecommunications systems between those school districts.

Subd. 3. [APPLICATION.] School districts located in distressed counties, as defined in section 297A.257, with high schools at least 15 miles apart shall apply for grants on forms provided by the commissioner of education for that purpose. The districts shall submit the following documents with the application:

(1) a joint powers agreement between the districts submitting the application, specifying how the telecommunications system would be operated by the districts;

(2) an educational plan stating the educational needs of the district and specifying how the desired telecommunications system will help the district meet those needs;

(3) a feasibility study showing the cost of the desired telecommunications system, necessary personnel, and materials, and the proportion of those costs that are available to the districts from funding and in-kind contributions by private sources; and

(4) a fiscal plan detailing how the costs of the telecommunications system, personnel, and materials will be allocated among the districts in the consortium on the basis of the number of students in each class using the system.

Subd. 4. [PURPOSES.] The purposes of the two-way telecommunications system must be:

(1) to offer an expanded curriculum to member schools including courses for the academically talented;

(2) to allow the districts to be in compliance with proposed department of education curriculum requirements;

(3) to allow these districts to retain their independence and continue to enjoy the benefits that a school adds to the community;

(4) to provide a convenient method of sharing teachers and other resources across school district boundary lines without the waste of time and expense of teacher or student travel;

(5) to provide a vehicle for in-service opportunities for teachers, other professionals, business leaders including farmers, and public officials; and

(6) to serve as a model for other school district cooperatives who may be interested in the construction and implementation of a similar system.

Subd. 5. [APPROVAL.] The application and related documents shall be evaluated by the commissioner and approved if they satisfy criteria adopted by the commissioner. The criteria shall include the successfulness of the technology or system to be used and the reasonableness of its price, and are exempt from chapter 14. A district to which a grant is awarded shall work cooperatively with the department of education, higher education institutions in the area and business and industry, as appropriate.

Subd. 6. [PRIVATE FUNDING.] A district applying for a grant under this section shall seek private funding and in-kind contributions from private sources to supplement grant funds.

Subd. 7. [EVALUATION OF SITES.] The commissioner shall evaluate the use of grant funds by each consortium of counties.

Sec. 2. [APPROPRIATION.]

$2,000,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of education for the purposes of section 1, to be available until June 30, 1989.

ARTICLE 8

WAGE SUBSIDY AND BUSINESS MANAGEMENT PROGRAMS

Section 1. [APPROPRIATION.]

$20,000,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of jobs and training for the purposes of wage subsidies, to be available until June 30, 1989.

Sec. 2. [APPROPRIATION.]

Subdivision 1. [FARM BUSINESS MANAGEMENT.] $1,000,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the state board of vocational technical education for additional farm business management programs and workshops, to be available until June 30, 1989.

Subd. 2. [SMALL BUSINESS MANAGEMENT.] $1,000,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the state board of vocational technical education for additional small business management programs and workshops, to be available until June 30, 1989."

And when so amended the bill do pass and be re-referred to the Committee on Finance. Mr. Davis questioned the reference thereon and, under Rule 35, the bill was referred to the Committee on Rules and Administration.

Mr. Purfeerst from the Committee on Transportation, to which was referred

S.F. No. 862: A bill for an act relating to public safety; school buses; requiring training for school bus drivers; providing for transitional requirements; appropriating money; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 171.321, subdivision 2, and by adding subdivisions.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 171.321, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. (a) Except as provided in this subdivision, no person shall drive a school bus when transporting school children to or from school or upon a school related trip or activity without:

(1) having a valid Class B or Class A license with a school bus endorsement except that; and

(2) certifying to the person's employer that the initial training required by subdivision 2 has been completed.

(b) A person possessing a valid driver's license but not a school bus endorsement may drive a vehicle with a seating capacity of ten or less persons used as a school bus but not outwardly equipped or identified as a school bus. A person who has not completed the training required by subdivision 2, but has completed at least four hours of classroom training and two hours of behind-the-wheel training, may operate a school bus as provided in this subdivision only if the person has a valid school bus endorsement and is accompanied on the school bus by a driver who has met the training requirement of subdivision 2.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 171.321, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. (a) ~~The commissioner, in consultation with the commissioner of education, of public safety shall prescribe rules governing the qualifications of individuals to drive school buses.~~

(b) The commissioner of public safety, in conjunction with the commissioner of education, shall adopt a training program for school bus drivers. Adoption of the program is not subject to chapter 14. The program must provide for the initial classroom and behind-the-wheel training, and the annual in-service training, required by subdivision 3. The program must provide training in defensive driving, human relations, emergency and accident procedures, vehicle maintenance, traffic laws, and use of safety equipment. The program must provide that the training will be conducted by the contract operator for a school district, the school district, the department of education, a licensed driver training school, or by another person or entity approved by both commissioners.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 171.321, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. (a) A person who is issued a school bus endorsement may not operate a school bus as provided in subdivision 1, paragraph (a), until the person has certified to the person's employer that the person has completed eight hours of classroom training and six hours of behind-the-wheel training. Training completed to qualify for a school bus endorsement may be counted toward the training required under this subdivision.

(b) To be employed as a school bus driver, a person must annually certify to the person's employer that the person has completed not less than three hours of in-service training. In-service training includes periodic safety meetings conducted by the school district or contract operator.

(c) An employer of a school bus driver must retain in the driver's file the certification that the driver has completed the required initial training and the required annual training.

Sec. 4. [TRANSITION.]

The department of public safety must adopt the training program required under section 2 by March 1, 1988. A school bus driver who holds a valid school bus endorsement on August 1, 1988, must complete the annual in-service training required under section 3 by August 1, 1989.

Sec. 5. [APPROPRIATION.]

$535,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of public safety to administer sections 1 and 2, $280,000 to be available for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1988, and $255,000 to be available for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1989.

Sec. 6. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 2 and 4 are effective the day following final enactment. Sections 1 and 3 are effective August 1, 1988."

Amend the title as follows:

Page 1, line 6, delete "subdivision" and insert "subdivisions 1 and" and delete "subdivisions" and insert "a subdivision"

And when so amended the bill do pass and be re-referred to the Committee on Finance. Amendments adopted. Report adopted.

Mr. Purfeerst from the Committee on Transportation, to which was referred

S.F. No. 1108: A bill for an act relating to transportation; providing for standards for special transportation service; requiring standards for special transportation service in the metropolitan area; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 174.30, subdivisions 1, 2, 4, 6, 7, and by adding subdivisions; 473.386, subdivisions 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, and by adding subdivisions; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.386, subdivision 7.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 174.30, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [APPLICABILITY LIMITATIONS; BY TYPE OF PROVIDER; BY SOURCE OF FUNDS.] The operating standards for special transportation service adopted under this section do not apply to special transportation provided by:

(a) A common carrier operating on fixed routes and schedules;

(b) ~~A taxi;~~

(~~e~~) A volunteer driver using a private automobile;

(~~d~~) (c) A school bus as defined in section 169.01, subdivision 6; or (~~e~~) (d) An emergency ambulance regulated under chapter 144.

The operating standards adopted under this section only apply to providers of special transportation service who receive grants or other financial assistance from either the state or the federal government, or both, to provide or assist in providing that service; except that the operating standards adopted under this section do not apply to any nursing home licensed under section 144A.02, to any board and care facility licensed under section 144.50, or to any day care or group home facility licensed under sections 245.781 to 245.812 unless the facility or program provides transportation to nonresidents on a regular basis and the facility receives reimbursement, other than per diem payments, for that service under rules promulgated by the commissioner of human services.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 174.30, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [AUTHORITY TO ADOPT; PURPOSE AND CONTENT; RULE-MAKING.] The commissioner of transportation shall adopt by rule standards for the operation of vehicles used to provide special transportation service which are reasonably necessary to protect the health and safety of individuals using that service. The commissioner, as far as practicable, consistent with the purpose of the standards, shall avoid adoption of standards that unduly restrict any public or private entity or person from providing special transportation service because of the administrative or other cost of compliance.

Standards adopted under this section ~~may~~ must include but are not limited to:

(a) Qualifications of drivers and attendants, including driver training requirements that must be met before a driver provides special transportation;

(b) Safety ~~equipment required for~~ of vehicles and necessary safety equipment;

(c) General requirements concerning inspection and maintenance of vehicles, replacement vehicles, standard vehicle equipment of vehicles, and specialized equipment necessary to ensure vehicle usability and safety for disabled persons; and

(d) Minimum insurance requirements.

The commissioner shall consult with the state council for the handicapped before making a decision on a variance from the standards.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 174.30, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [VEHICLE AND EQUIPMENT SAFETY; PROVIDER RESPONSIBILITIES.] (a) Every special transportation service provider shall systematically inspect, repair, and maintain, or cause to be inspected, repaired, and maintained, the vehicles and equipment subject to the control of the provider. Each vehicle and its equipment must be inspected daily. A vehicle may not be operated in a condition that is likely to cause an accident or breakdown of the vehicle. Equipment, including specialized equipment necessary to ensure vehicle usability and safety for disabled persons, must be in proper and safe operating condition at all times.

(b) Each special transportation provider shall maintain the following records for each vehicle:

(1) an identification of the vehicle, including make, serial number, and year, and, if the vehicle is not owned by the provider, the name and address of the person furnishing the vehicle;

(2) a schedule of inspection and maintenance operations to be performed;

(3) a record of inspections, repairs, and maintenance showing the date and nature;

(4) a lubrication record; and

(5) a record of tests conducted to ensure that emergency doors or windows and wheelchair lifts function properly.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 174.30, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [CERTIFICATE OF COMPLIANCE VEHICLE AND EQUIPMENT INSPECTION; PROCEDURES.] (a) The commissioner shall inspect or provide for the inspection of vehicles at least annually. In addition to scheduled annual inspections and reinspections scheduled for the purpose of verifying that deficiencies have been corrected, unannounced inspections of any vehicle may be conducted. The commissioner shall provide for the unannounced inspection quarterly of at least five percent of the vehicles operated by providers certified by the commissioner.

(b) On determining that a vehicle or vehicle equipment is in a condition that is likely to cause an accident or breakdown, the commissioner shall require the vehicle to be taken out of service immediately. The commissioner of transportation shall issue an annual certificate of compliance for each vehicle used to provide special transportation service which complies with the standards adopted under this section. The commissioner shall issue a certificate of compliance to a vehicle subject to subdivision 3 only if the vehicle also complies with sections 299A.11 to 299A.18 require that vehicles and equipment not meeting standards be repaired and brought into conformance with the standards and shall require written evidence of compliance from the operator before allowing the operator to return the vehicle to service.

(c) The commissioner shall provide in the rules procedures for inspecting vehicles, removing unsafe vehicles from service, determining and requiring compliance and issuing the certificates. The procedures may include inspection of vehicles and examination of drivers, and reviewing driver qualifications.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 174.30, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4a. [CERTIFICATION OF SPECIAL TRANSPORTATION PROVIDERS.] The commissioner shall annually evaluate or provide for the evaluation of each provider of special transportation service regulated under this section and certify that the provider is in compliance with the standards under this section.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 174.30, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PREEMPTION OF OTHER REQUIREMENTS.] Notwithstanding any other law, ordinance or resolution to the contrary, an operator of special transportation service that has been issued a current certificate of compliance under subdivision 4 4a for a vehicle vehicles used to provide that service is not required to obtain any other state or local permit, license or certificate as a condition of operating the vehicle vehicles for that purpose. This subdivision does not exempt any vehicle from the requirements imposed on vehicles generally as a condition of using the public streets and highways.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 174.30, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [ENFORCEMENT.] No state agency, political subdivision or other public agency shall provide any capital or operating assistance to or reimbursement for services rendered by any operator of special transportation service unless current certificates of compliance have been issued under subdivision 4 for the vehicles used by the operator to provide operator providing the service has a current certificate of compliance issued under section 5.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.386, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PROJECT SERVICE OBJECTIVES.] The transit board shall implement a project to coordinate special transportation service, as defined in section 174.29, in the metropolitan area. The project service has the following objectives:

(a) to provide greater access to transportation for the elderly, handicapped, and others with special transportation needs in the metropolitan area;

(b) to develop an integrated system of special transportation service providing transportation tailored to meet special individual needs in the most cost-efficient manner; and

(c) to use existing public and, private, and private nonprofit providers of service wherever possible, to supplement rather than replace existing service, and to increase the productivity of all special transportation vehicles available in the area.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.386, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. ~~[FINANCING; IMPLEMENTATION SERVICE CONTRACTS; MANAGEMENT AND; ADVISORY GROUPS COMMITTEE.]~~ (a) The board shall contract for services necessary for the ~~project's operation~~ provision of special transportation. All transportation service ~~provided through the project~~ must be provided under a contract between the board and the provider which specifies the service to be provided, ~~the standards that must be met,~~ and the rates for ~~providing it operating and providing special transportation services.~~

(b) The board shall establish management policies for the ~~project service~~ but shall contract with a service administrator for day-to-day administration and management of the service. The contract must delegate to the service administrator clear authority to administer and manage the delivery of the service pursuant to board management policies and must establish performance and compliance standards for the service administrator.

(c) The board shall ensure that the service administrator establishes a system for registering and expeditiously responding to complaints by users, informing users of how to register complaints, and requiring providers to report on incidents that impair the safety and well-being of users or the quality of the service. The board shall annually report to the commissioner of transportation and the legislature on complaints and provider reports, the response of the service administrator, and steps taken by the board and the service administrator to identify causes and provide remedies to recurring problems.

(d) Within 90 days following the effective date of this act, the board shall hold a public hearing on standards for provider eligibility, selection, performance, compliance, and evaluation; the terms of provider contracts and the contract with the service administrator and related contract management policies and procedures of the board; fare policies; service areas, hours, standards, and procedures; and similar matters relating to implementation of the service. Each year before renewing contracts with providers and the service administrator, the board shall provide an opportunity for the advisory committee, users, and other interested persons to testify before the board concerning providers, contract terms, and other matters relating to board policies and procedures for implementing the service.

(e) The board shall establish an advisory committee of ~~individuals representing the~~ individuals representing the. The advisory committee must include elderly, and handicapped persons, ~~and other users of special transportation service provided by the project,~~ representatives of persons contracting to provide special transportation services for the ~~project,~~ and representatives of appropriate agencies for elderly and handicapped persons to advise the board on management policies for the ~~project service.~~ At least half the committee members must be disabled or elderly persons or the representatives of disabled or elderly persons. Two of the appointments to the advisory committee shall be made by the state council for the handicapped in consultation with the chair of the regional transit board.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.386, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DUTIES OF BOARD.] In implementing the ~~project special transportation service~~ the board shall:

(a) encourage participation in the ~~project service~~ by public and, private, and private nonprofit providers of special transportation ~~service~~ currently receiving capital or operating assistance from a public agency;

(b) contract with public and, private, and private nonprofit providers that have demonstrated their ability to effectively provide service at a reasonable cost;

(c) encourage individuals using ~~service provided through the project special transportation~~ to use the type of service most appropriate to their particular needs;

(d) ensure that all persons providing ~~special transportation service through the project~~ receive equitable treatment in the allocation of the ridership;

(e) encourage shared rides to the greatest extent practicable;

(f) encourage public agencies that provide transportation to eligible individuals as a component of human services and educational programs to coordinate with ~~the project this service~~ and to allow reimbursement for ~~services transportation~~ provided through the ~~project service~~ at rates that reflect the public cost of providing ~~these services that transportation; and~~

(g) establish criteria to be used in determining individual eligibility for special transportation services;

(h) consult with the advisory committee in a timely manner before changes are made in the provision of special transportation services, including, but not limited to, changes in policies affecting the matters subject to hearing under section 9;

(i) provide for effective administration and enforcement of board policies and standards; and

(j) annually evaluate providers of special transportation service to ensure compliance with the standards established for the program.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.386, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [COORDINATION REQUIRED.] The board may not grant any financial assistance to any recipient that proposes to use any part of the grant to provide special transportation service in the metropolitan area unless the program is coordinated with the ~~project board's special transportation service~~ in the manner determined by the board.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.386, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [OPERATING AND SERVICE STANDARDS.] A ~~vehicle providing special transportation service which is subject to the operating standards adopted pursuant to section 174.30~~ may not be allowed to provide service through the project unless a current certificate of compliance has been issued to the vehicle. A person operating or assisting the operation of a vehicle may leave the vehicle to enter premises in order to help a passenger who does not require emergency ambulance service. Operators and assistants shall provide the help necessary for door-through-door service, including help in entering and leaving the vehicle and help through the exterior entrance and over any exterior steps at either departure or destination buildings, provided that both the steps and the wheelchair are in good repair. If an operator or assistant refuses help because of the condition of the steps or the wheelchair, the operator of the service shall send letters to the service administrator designated by the board and the, who shall notify the person denied service describing the corrective measures necessary to qualify for service.

Sec. 13. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.386, subdivision 7, is repealed.

Mr. Dicklich from the Committee on Public Utilities and Energy, to which was referred

S.F. No. 1029: A bill for an act relating to utilities; establishing program to provide communication-impaired people with devices enabling their use of telephones; creating advisory committee and requiring report; providing for payment of costs of program; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 237.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [237.50] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] The terms used in sections 1 to 8 have the meanings given them in this section.

Subd. 2. [COMMUNICATION-IMPAIRED.] "Communication-impaired" means certified as deaf, severely hearing-impaired, hard-of-hearing, speech-impaired, or deaf and blind.

Subd. 3. [COMMUNICATION DEVICE.] "Communication device" means a device that when connected to a telephone enables a communication-impaired person to communicate with another person utilizing the telephone system. A "communication device" includes a ring-signaler, an amplification device, and a telebraille unit.

Subd. 4. [THIRD-PARTY MESSAGE RELAY.] "Third-party message relay" means a central statewide service through which a communication-impaired person, using a communication device, may send and receive messages to and from a noncommunication-impaired person whose telephone is not equipped with a communication device and through which a noncommunication-impaired person may, by using voice communication, send and receive messages to and from a communication-impaired person.

Sec. 2. [237.51] [COMMUNICATION-IMPAIRED PROGRAM.]

The commission shall require the telephone company providing local exchange service to the largest number of customers in the state to establish and operate a program to provide communication devices and a message relay system for eligible communication-impaired persons. The company designated under this subdivision shall retain the services of a program administrator knowledgeable about the needs of communication-impaired people and experienced in administration to administer the communication-impaired program.

Sec. 3. [237.52] [COMMUNICATION DEVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] A person applying for a communication device under this section must apply to the program administrator retained under section 2, on a form prescribed by the administrator.

Subd. 2. [ELIGIBILITY.] To be eligible to obtain a communication device under this section, a person must be:

- (1) at least 18 years of age;*
- (2) communication-impaired;*
- (3) a resident of the state; and*

(4) a resident in a household that has a median income at or below the median household income in the state, except a deaf or blind person applying for a telebraille unit may reside in a household that has a median income no more than 150 percent of the median household income in the state.

Subd. 3. [DISTRIBUTION.] The company designated to operate the program under section 2 shall purchase and distribute to each telephone company providing local exchange service sufficient communication devices so that each eligible household receives an appropriate device. Each telephone company providing local exchange service shall be responsible for installing the communication devices free of charge, in each eligible household in its service area as directed by the administrator of the program. The initial distribution of the devices shall be on a priority basis as determined by the advisory committee under section 5.

Subd. 4. [TRAINING; MAINTENANCE.] The company providing local exchange service to an eligible household shall maintain the communication devices and provide training, without charge, to first-time users of the devices.

Subd. 5. [WIRING INSTALLATION.] If a communication-impaired person is not served by telephone service and is subject to economic hardship as determined by the advisory committee under section 5, the telephone company providing local service shall at the direction of the administrator of the program install necessary outside and inside wiring without charge to the household.

Subd. 6. [OWNERSHIP.] All communication devices purchased by a company under this section shall be property of the company operating the program and are excluded from the company's rate base for the purpose of establishing rates under section 237.075.

Subd. 7. [STANDARDS.] The communication devices distributed under this section must comply with the electronic industries association standards and approved by the Federal Communications Commission. The company designated under section 2 must provide each eligible person a choice of several models of devices, the retail value of which may not exceed $600 for a communication device for the deaf and a retail value of $7,000 for a telebraille device.

Subd. 8. [REIMBURSEMENT.] The company designated under section 2 shall reimburse telephone companies for the cost of providing any service required to be provided under this section from moneys in the special account established under section 7.

Sec. 4. [237.53] [MESSAGE RELAY SERVICE.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The company designated under section 2 shall establish a third-party message relay service with an "800" number to enable telecommunication between communication-impaired persons and noncommunication-impaired persons. The advisory committee shall determine a base number of calls per month available without charge to users of the service.

Subd. 2. [CONTRACT FOR SERVICE.] The company designated under section 2 shall contract with a local consumer organization that serves communication-impaired persons for operation of the message relay system. The operator of the system shall keep all messages confidential, shall train personnel in the unique needs of communication-impaired people, and shall inform communication-impaired persons and the public of the availability and use of the system. The operator shall not relay a message unless it originates or terminates through a communication device for the deaf or a telebraille device.

Sec. 5. [237.54] [ADVISORY COMMITTEE.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION.] An 11-member advisory committee is established to assist in establishing and administering the communication-impaired program.

Subd. 2. [MEMBERS.] The membership of the committee must include:

- (1) the commissioner of the department of human services or the commissioner's designee;*
- (2) the director of the department of public service or the director's designee;*
- (3) six communication-impaired persons appointed by the governor;*
- (4) one person chosen by the company required to manage the program;*
- (5) one member of the Minnesota telephone association chosen by the governor to represent other affected telephone companies; and*
- (6) one person appointed by the governor who is a professional in the* area of communications disabilities.

Subd. 3. [REMOVAL; VACANCY.] The removal of members and filling of vacancies shall be handled as provided under section 15.059, subdivision 4.

Subd. 4. [EXPENSES.] Members of the advisory committee may be reimbursed for expenses incurred in attending meetings as authorized by the commissioner's plan adopted under section 43A.18, subdivision 2.

Subd. 5. [MEETINGS.] The advisory committee shall meet at least monthly until December 31, 1988, and at least quarterly thereafter, to assist in establishing and implementing the program.

Subd. 6. [DUTIES.] The advisory committee's duties include:

(1) defining economic hardship household, special needs, telebraille device, and telecommunication devices for the deaf;

(2) establishing criteria for eligibility to receive communication devices, including establishing priority criteria based on economic hardship, household criteria, and special needs;

(3) establishing the base number of free calls per month available per line through the message relay service;

(4) approving the initial report required in section 6 that contains the plans for program operation and each annual report that follows; and

(5) studying the potential economic impact of the program on local communication device retailers and dispensers and developing guidelines for the purchase of some communication devices from local retailers and dispensers if the study determines that otherwise they will be economically harmed by implementation of sections 1 to 7.

Sec. 6. [237.55] [REPORTS; PLANS.]

The program administrator shall prepare a report for presentation to the commission not later than December 31, 1987, to include plans for distributing communication devices and establishing a third-party message relay service and an accounting of money received and disbursed to date. The provision of service required under sections 1 to 7 may begin when the plan is approved by the commission or March 1, 1988, whichever is earlier. Beginning in 1988, the program administrator must prepare a report for presentation to the commission by December 31 of each year through the year 1992. Each report must review the accessibility of the telephone system to communication-impaired persons, review the ability of noncommunication-impaired persons to communicate with communication-impaired persons via the telephone system, describe services provided, account for money received and disbursed annually for each aspect of the program to date, and include predicted future operation until the final report. The final report must, in detail, describe program operation and make recommendations for the funding and service level for necessary ongoing services. The commission may recommend changes in the program throughout its operation and shall make a recommendation to the legislature by February 1, 1993, for the future provision and maintenance of the services.

Sec. 7. [237.56] [SURCHARGE; ACCOUNT.]

Subdivision 1. [ASSESSMENT.] The program administrator, in consultation with the department and the company designated to operate the program, shall annually recommend to the commission an adequate and appropriate mechanism to implement sections 1 to 7. The commission shall annually determine the funding mechanism to be used within 60 days of receipt of the recommendation of the program administrator and shall order the imposition of surcharges effective on the earliest practicable date. The commission shall establish a monthly charge no greater than 10 cents per average access line. The commission shall determine average access lines by using private branch exchange equivalents.

Subd. 2. [ACCOUNT.] Every telephone company providing local service in this state shall collect the charges established by the commission under subdivision 1 and monthly transfer the money received to the company designated to operate the program under section 2. The company operating the program must deposit money collected from its customers for charges under this section and money received by other companies under this subdivision into a separate account to be managed separately from other company accounts.

Subd. 3. [EXPENDITURES.] Money in the account established in this section may only be used for:

(1) administering the program including personnel cost, public relations, planning, advisory committee members' expenses, and other reasonable expenses, not to exceed 20 percent of total program expenditures;

(2) purchasing, distributing, and maintaining communication devices for eligible persons;

(3) creating, operating, and maintaining the third-party message relay system;

(4) installing wiring for telephone service in economic hardship households; and

(5) reimbursing telephone companies for services rendered under section 3.

Sec. 8. [237.57] [ADEQUATE SERVICE.]

The services required to be provided under sections 1 to 6 may be enforced under section 237.081 upon a complaint of at least two communication-impaired persons within the service area of any one telephone company, provided that if only one person within the service area of a company is receiving service under sections 1 to 6, the commission may proceed upon a complaint from that person.

Sec. 9. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 8 are effective July 1, 1987, and are repealed effective June 30, 1993."

And when so amended the bill do pass. Amendments adopted. Report adopted.

Mr. Spear from the Committee on Judiciary, to which was referred

S.F. No. 286: A bill for an act relating to crimes; reclassifying the crimes of damage to property into degrees, including creating a new gross misdemeanor crime of damage to property; reclassifying the crimes relating to forgery into degrees, including creating the crime of uttering a forged check; increasing the maximum fine for petty misdemeanor violations; increasing the maximum bail allowable for designated misdemeanor and gross misdemeanor violations; prescribing penalties; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 609.02, subdivision 4a; 609.224, subdivision 2; 609.52, subdivision 3; 609.595; 609.625; 609.63; 629.47; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapters 609 and 629.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 171.07, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [PHOTOGRAPHIC NEGATIVES; FILING; DATA CLASSIFICATION.] The department shall file, or contract to file, all photographic negatives obtained in the process of issuing driver licenses or Minnesota identification cards. The negatives shall be private data pursuant to section 13.02, subdivision 12. Notwithstanding section 13.04, subdivision 3, the department shall not be required to provide copies of photographic negatives to data subjects. The use of the files is restricted to the issuance and control of driver licenses and for law enforcement purposes in the investigation and prosecution of felonies and violations of section 13, 169.09, 169.121, 169.123, 169.129, 171.22, 171.24, 171.30, ~~or 609.41~~, 609.487, subdivision 3, or 609.821.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 487.25, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [PROSECUTING ATTORNEYS.] Except as otherwise provided by law, violations of state law that are petty misdemeanors or misdemeanors must be prosecuted by the attorney of the statutory or home rule charter city where the violation is alleged to have occurred. The statutory or home rule charter city may enter into an agreement with the county board and the county attorney to provide prosecution services for any criminal offense. All other petty misdemeanors and misdemeanors must be prosecuted by the county attorney of the county in which the alleged violation occurred. All violations of a municipal ordinance, charter provision, rule, or regulation must be prosecuted by the attorney for the governmental unit that promulgated the municipal ordinance, charter provision, rule, or regulation or by the county attorney with whom it has contracted to prosecute these matters.

In the counties of Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Scott, and Washington, violations of state law that are petty misdemeanors, misdemeanors, or gross misdemeanors except as provided in section 388.051, subdivision 2, must be prosecuted by the attorney of the statutory or home rule charter city where the violation is alleged to have occurred. In addition to those counties, in cities of the first, second, and third class, the city attorney responsible for prosecuting misdemeanor violations of chapter 609 is responsible for prosecuting gross misdemeanor violations of sections 609.52, 609.595, section 13, and 609.821. The statutory or home rule charter city may enter into an agreement with the county board and the county attorney to provide prosecution services for any criminal offense. All other petty misdemeanors, misdemeanors, or gross misdemeanors must be prosecuted by the county attorney of the county in which the alleged violation occurred. All violations of a municipal ordinance, charter provision, rule, or regulation must be prosecuted by the attorney for the governmental unit that promulgated the municipal ordinance, charter provision, rule, or regulation or by the county attorney with whom it has contracted to prosecute these matters.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 609.02, subdivision 4a, is amended to read:

Subd. 4a. [PETTY MISDEMEANOR.] "Petty misdemeanor" means a petty offense which is prohibited by statute, which does not constitute a crime and for which a sentence of a fine of not more than ~~$100~~ $200 may be imposed.

Sec. 4. [609.0331] [INCREASED MAXIMUM PENALTIES FOR PETTY MISDEMEANORS.]

Except as provided in this section, a law of this state that provides, on or after August 1, 1987, for a maximum penalty of $100 for a petty misdemeanor is considered to provide for a maximum fine of $200. However, a petty misdemeanor under section 152.15, subdivision 2, clause (5), or chapter 168 or 169 remains subject to a maximum fine of $100, except that a violation of chapter 168 or 169 that was originally charged as a misdemeanor and is being treated as a petty misdemeanor under section 6 or the rules of criminal procedure is subject to a maximum fine of $200.

Sec. 5. [609.0332] [INCREASED MAXIMUM PENALTY FOR PETTY MISDEMEANOR ORDINANCE VIOLATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [INCREASED FINE.] From August 1, 1987, if a state law or municipal charter sets a limit of $100 or less on the fines that a statutory or home rule charter city, town, county, or other political subdivision may prescribe for an ordinance violation that is defined as a petty misdemeanor, that law or charter is considered to provide that the political subdivision has the power to prescribe a maximum fine of $200 for the petty misdemeanor violation.

Subd. 2. [EXCEPTION.] Notwithstanding subdivision 1, no fine of more than $100 may be imposed for a petty misdemeanor ordinance violation which conforms in substantial part to a petty misdemeanor provision contained in section 152.15, subdivision 2, clause (5), or chapter 168 or 169.

Sec. 6. [609.131] [CERTIFICATION OF MISDEMEANOR AS PETTY MISDEMEANOR.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL RULE.] Except as provided in subdivision 2, an alleged misdemeanor violation must be treated as a petty misdemeanor if the prosecuting attorney believes that it is in the interest of justice that the defendant not be imprisoned if convicted and certifies that belief to the court at or before the time of arraignment or pretrial hearing, and the court approves of the certification motion. The defendant's consent to the certification is not required. When an offense is certified as a petty misdemeanor under this section, the defendant's eligibility for court-appointed counsel must be evaluated as though the offense were a misdemeanor.

Subd. 2. [CERTAIN VIOLATIONS EXCEPTED.] Subdivision 1 does not apply to a misdemeanor violation of section 169.121, 609.224, 609.324, subdivision 3, or 617.23, or an ordinance that conforms in substantial part to any of those sections. A violation described in this subdivision must be treated as a misdemeanor unless the defendant consents to the certification of the violation as a petty misdemeanor.

Subd. 3. [USE OF CONVICTION FOR ENHANCEMENT.] Notwithstanding any other law, a conviction for a violation that was originally charged as a misdemeanor and was treated as a petty misdemeanor under subdivision 1 or the rules of criminal procedure may not be used as the basis for charging a subsequent violation as a gross misdemeanor rather than a misdemeanor.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 609.224, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [GROSS MISDEMEANOR.] (a) Whoever violates the provisions of subdivision 1 against the same victim within five years of a previous conviction under subdivision 1 or sections 609.221 to ~~609.223~~ 609.2231 may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than one year or to a payment of a fine of not more than $3,000, or both.

(b) Whoever violates the provisions of subdivision 1 within two years of a previous conviction under subdivision 1 or sections 609.221 to 609.2231 may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than one year or to payment of a fine of not more than $3,000, or both.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 609.52, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] In this section:

(1) "Property" means all forms of tangible property, whether real or personal, without limitation including documents of value, electricity, gas, water, corpses, domestic animals, dogs, pets, fowl, and heat supplied by pipe or conduit by municipalities or public utility companies and articles, as defined in clause (4), representing trade secrets, which articles shall be deemed for the purposes of Extra Session Laws 1967, chapter 15 to include any trade secret represented by the article.

(2) "Movable property" is property whose physical location can be changed, including without limitation things growing on, affixed to or found in land.

(3) "Value" means the retail market value at the time of the theft, or if the retail market value cannot be ascertained, the cost of replacement of the property within a reasonable time after the theft, or in the case of a theft or the making of a copy of an article representing a trade secret, where the retail market value or replacement cost cannot be ascertained, any reasonable value representing the damage to the owner which the owner has suffered by reason of losing an advantage over those who do not know of or use the trade secret. For a theft committed within the meaning of subdivision 2, clause (5), (a) and (b), if the property has been restored to the owner, "value" means the value of the use of the property or the damage which it sustained, whichever is greater, while the owner was deprived of its possession, but not exceeding the value otherwise provided herein.

(4) "Article" means any object, material, device or substance, including any writing, record, recording, drawing, sample specimen, prototype, model, photograph, microorganism, blueprint or map, or any copy of any of the foregoing.

(5) "Representing" means describing, depicting, containing, constituting, reflecting or recording.

(6) "Trade secret" means information, including a formula, pattern, compilation, program, device, method, technique, or process, that:

(i) derives independent economic value, actual or potential, from not being generally known to, and not being readily ascertainable by proper means by, other persons who can obtain economic value from its disclosure or use, and

(ii) is the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain its secrecy.

(7) "Copy" means any facsimile, replica, photograph or other reproduction of an article, and any note, drawing or sketch made of or from an article while in the presence of the article.

(8) "Property of another" includes property in which the actor is coowner or has a lien, pledge, bailment, or lease or other subordinate interest, and property of a partnership of which the actor is a member, unless the actor and the victim are husband and wife. It does not include property in which the actor asserts in good faith a claim as a collection fee or commission out of property or funds recovered, or by virtue of a lien, set-off, or counterclaim.

(9) "Services" include but are not limited to labor, professional services, transportation services, electronic computer services, the supplying of hotel accommodations, restaurant services, entertainment services, advertising services, telecommunication services, and the supplying of equipment for use.

~~(10) "Financial transaction card" means any instrument or device, whether known as a credit card, credit plate, charge plate, courtesy card, bank services card, banking card, check guarantee card, debit card, or by any other name, issued with or without fee by an issuer for the use of the cardholder in obtaining credit, money, goods, services, or anything else of value.~~

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 609.52, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ACTS CONSTITUTING THEFT.] Whoever does any of the following commits theft and may be sentenced as provided in subdivision 3:

(1) intentionally and without claim of right takes, uses, transfers, conceals or retains possession of movable property of another without the other's consent and with intent to deprive the owner permanently of possession of the property; or

(2) having a legal interest in movable property, intentionally and without consent, takes the property out of the possession of a pledgee or other person having a superior right of possession, with intent thereby to deprive the pledgee or other person permanently of the possession of the property; or

(3) obtains for the actor or another the possession, custody or title to property of or performance of services by a third person by intentionally deceiving the third person with a false representation which is known to be false, made with intent to defraud, and which does defraud the person to whom it is made. "False representation" includes without limitation:

(a) the issuance of a check, draft, or order for the payment of money, except a forged check as defined in section 13, or the delivery of property knowing that the actor is not entitled to draw upon the drawee therefor or to order the payment or delivery thereof; or

(b) a promise made with intent not to perform. Failure to perform is not evidence of intent not to perform unless corroborated by other substantial evidence; or

(c) ~~the unauthorized use of a financial transaction card, or the number thereof, or other identification device issued by an organization to a person for use in purchasing goods or services on credit; or~~

(d) the preparation or filing of a claim for reimbursement, a rate application, or a cost report used to establish a rate or claim for payment for medical care provided to a recipient of medical assistance under chapter 256B, which intentionally and falsely states the costs of or actual services provided by a vendor of medical care; or

(4) by swindling, whether by artifice, trick, device, or any other means, obtains property or services from another person; or

(5) intentionally commits any of the acts listed in this subdivision but with intent to exercise temporary control only and;

(a) the control exercised manifests an indifference to the rights of the owner or the restoration of the property to the owner; or

(b) the actor pledges or otherwise attempts to subject the property to an adverse claim; or

(c) the actor intends to restore the property only on condition that the owner pay a reward or buy back or make other compensation; or

(6) finds lost property and, knowing or having reasonable means of ascertaining the true owner, appropriates it to the finder's own use or to that of another not entitled thereto without first having made reasonable effort to find the owner and offer and surrender the property to the owner; or

(7) intentionally obtains property or services, offered upon the deposit of a sum of money or tokens in a coin or token operated machine or other receptacle, without making the required deposit or otherwise obtaining the consent of the owner; or

(8) intentionally and without claim of right converts any article representing a trade secret, knowing it to be such, to the actor's own use or that of another person or makes a copy of an article representing a trade secret, knowing it to be such, and intentionally and without claim of right converts the same to the actor's own use or that of another person. It shall be a complete defense to any prosecution under this clause for the defendant to show that information comprising the trade secret was rightfully known or available to the defendant from a source other than the owner of the trade secret; or

(9) leases or rents personal property under a written instrument and who with intent to place the property beyond the control of the lessor conceals or aids or abets the concealment of the property or any part thereof, or any lessee of the property who sells, conveys or encumbers the property or any part thereof without the written consent of the lessor, without informing the person to whom the lessee sells, conveys, or encumbers that the same is subject to such lease and with intent to deprive the lessor of possession thereof. Evidence that a lessee used a false or fictitious name or address in obtaining the property or fails or refuses to return the property to lessor within five days after written demand for the return has been served personally in the manner provided for service of process of a civil action or sent by certified mail to the last known address of the lessee, whichever shall occur later, shall be evidence of intent to violate this clause. Service by certified mail shall be deemed to be complete upon deposit in the United States mail of such demand, postpaid and addressed to the person at the address for the person set forth in the lease or rental agreement, or, in the absence of the address, to the person's last known place of residence; or

(10) alters, removes or obliterates numbers or symbols placed on movable property for purpose of identification by the owner or person who has legal custody or right to possession thereof with the intent to prevent identification, if the person who alters, removes or obliterates the numbers or symbols is not the owner and does not have the permission of the owner to make the alteration, removal or obliteration; or

(11) with the intent to prevent the identification of property involved, so as to deprive the rightful owner of possession thereof, alters or removes any permanent serial number, permanent distinguishing number or manufacturer's identification number on personal property or possesses, sells or buys any personal property with knowledge that the permanent serial number, permanent distinguishing number or manufacturer's identification number has been removed or altered; or

(12) intentionally deprives another of a lawful charge for cable television service by

(i) making or using or attempting to make or use an unauthorized external connection outside the individual dwelling unit whether physical, electrical, acoustical, inductive or other connection, or by

(ii) attaching any unauthorized device to any cable, wire, microwave, or other component of a licensed cable communications system as defined in chapter 238. Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit the electronic video rerecording of program material transmitted on the cable communications system by a subscriber for fair use as defined by Public Law Number 94-553, section 107; or

(13) except as provided in paragraphs (12) and (14), obtains the services of another with the intention of receiving those services without making the agreed or reasonably expected payment of money or other consideration; or

(14) intentionally deprives another of a lawful charge for telecommunications service by:

(i) making, using, or attempting to make or use an unauthorized connection whether physical, electrical, by wire, microwave, radio or other means to a component of a local telecommunication system as provided in chapter 237; or

(ii) attaching an unauthorized device to a cable, wire, microwave, radio or other component of a local telecommunication system as provided in chapter 237.

The existence of an unauthorized connection is prima facie evidence that the occupier of the premises:

(i) made or was aware of the connection; and

(ii) was aware that the connection was unauthorized; or

(15) with intent to defraud, diverts corporate property other than in accordance with general business purposes or for purposes other than those specified in the corporation's articles of incorporation; or

(16) with intent to defraud, authorizes or causes a corporation to make a distribution in violation of section 302A.551, or any other state law in conformity with it.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 609.52, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [SENTENCE.] Whoever commits theft may be sentenced as follows:

(1) To imprisonment for not more than ten years or to payment of a fine of not more than $20,000, or both, if the value of the property or services stolen exceeds $2,500, or if the property stolen was a controlled substance listed in schedule 1 or 2 pursuant to section 152.02 with the exception of marijuana; or

(2) To imprisonment for not more than five years or to payment of a fine of not more than $10,000, or both, if:

(a) the value of the property or services stolen is more than ~~$250~~ $500 but not more than $2,500; or

(b) if the property stolen was a controlled substance listed in schedule 3, 4, or 5 pursuant to section 152.02; or

(c) the value of the property or services stolen is more than $200 but not more than $500 and the person has been convicted within the preceding five years for an offense under this section, section 13, or sections 609.24; 609.245; 609.53; 609.582, subdivision 1, 2, or 3; 609.625; 609.63; and 609.821, or a statute from another state in conformity with any of those sections, and the person received a felony or gross misdemeanor sentence for the offense, or a sentence that was stayed under section 609.135 if the offense to which a plea was entered would allow imposition of a felony or gross misdemeanor sentence; or

(3) To imprisonment for not more than five years or to payment of a fine of not more than $10,000, or both, notwithstanding the value of the property or services stolen is not more than ~~$250~~ $200, if any of the following circumstances exist:

(a) The property is taken from the person of another or from a corpse, or grave or coffin containing a corpse; or

(b) The property is a record of a court or officer, or a writing, instrument or record kept, filed or deposited according to law with or in the keeping of any public officer or office; or

(c) The property is taken from a burning building or upon its removal therefrom, or from an area of destruction caused by civil disaster, riot, bombing, or the proximity of battle; or

(d) The property consists of public funds belonging to the state or to any political subdivision or agency thereof; or

(e) The property is a firearm; or

(4) To imprisonment for not more than ten years or to payment of a fine of not more than $20,000, or both, if the property stolen is an article representing a trade secret; or if the property stolen is an explosive or an incendiary device; or

(5) To imprisonment for not more than one year or to payment of a fine of not more than $3,000, or both, if the value of the property or services stolen is more than $200 but not more than $500; or

(6) In all other cases where the value of the property or services stolen is ~~$250~~ $200 or less, to imprisonment for not more than 90 days or to payment of a fine of not more than $700, or both, provided, however, in any prosecution under clauses (1), (2), (3), (4), and (13) of subdivision 2 the value of the money or property or services received by the defendant in violation of any one or more of the above provisions within any six-month period may be aggregated and the defendant charged accordingly in applying the provisions of this subdivision; provided that when two or more offenses are committed by the same person in two or more counties, the accused may be prosecuted in any county in which one of the offenses was committed for all of the offenses aggregated under this paragraph.

The attorney in the jurisdiction in which the violation occurred who is responsible for prosecution of misdemeanor violations of this section is also responsible for prosecution of gross misdemeanor violations of this section.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 609.595, is amended to read:
609.595 [DAMAGE TO PROPERTY.]

Subdivision 1. [~~AGGRAVATED CRIMINAL DAMAGE TO PROPERTY IN THE FIRST DEGREE.~~] Whoever intentionally causes damage to physical property of another without the latter's consent may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than five years or to payment of a fine of not more than $10,000, or both, if:

(1) the damage to the property caused a reasonably foreseeable risk of bodily harm; or

(2) The property damaged belongs to a public utility or a common carrier and the damage impairs the service to the public rendered by them; or

(3) the damage reduces the value of the property by more than ~~$300~~ $500 measured by the cost of repair and replacement; or

(4) the damage reduces the value of the property by more than $250 measured by the cost of repair and replacement and the defendant has been convicted within the preceding three years of an offense under this subdivision or subdivision 2.

In any prosecution under clause (3), the value of any property damaged by the defendant in violation of that clause within any six-month period may be aggregated and the defendant charged accordingly in applying the provisions of this section; provided that when two or more offenses are committed by the same person in two or more counties, the accused may be prosecuted in any county in which one of the offenses was committed for all of the offenses aggregated under this paragraph.

Subd. 2. [CRIMINAL DAMAGE TO PROPERTY IN THE SECOND DEGREE.] (a) ~~Whoever intentionally so causes such damage under any other circumstances is guilty of a misdemeanor to another person's physical property without the other person's consent may be sentenced to impris-~~ onment for not more than one year or to payment of a fine of not more than $3,000, or both, if the damage reduces the value of the property by more than $250 but not more than $500 as measured by the cost of repair and replacement.

(b) In any prosecution under paragraph (a), the value of property damaged by the defendant in violation of that clause within any six-month period may be aggregated and the defendant charged accordingly in applying this section. When two or more offenses are committed by the same person in two or more counties, the accused may be prosecuted in any county in which one of the offenses was committed for all of the offenses aggregated under this paragraph.

(c) The attorney in the jurisdiction in which the violation occurred who is responsible for prosecution of misdemeanor violations of this section is also responsible for prosecution of gross misdemeanor violations of this section.

Subd. 3. [CRIMINAL DAMAGE TO PROPERTY IN THE THIRD DEGREE.] Whoever intentionally causes damage described in subdivision 2 under any other circumstances is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 609.625, is amended to read:
609.625 [AGGRAVATED FORGERY.]

Subdivision 1. [MAKING OR ALTERING WRITING OR OBJECT.] Whoever, with intent to defraud, falsely makes or alters a writing or object of any of the following kinds so that it purports to have been made by another or by the maker or alterer under an assumed or fictitious name, or at another time, or with different provisions, or by authority of one who did not give such authority, is guilty of aggravated forgery and may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than ten years or to payment of a fine of not more than $20,000, or both:

(1) a writing or object whereby, when genuine, legal rights, privileges, or obligations are created, terminated, transferred, or evidenced, or any writing normally relied upon as evidence of debt or property rights, other than a check as defined in section 13 or a financial transaction card as defined in section 609.821; or

(2) an official seal or the seal of a corporation; or

(3) a public record or an official authentication or certification of a copy thereof; or

(4) an official return or certificate entitled to be received as evidence of its contents; or

(5) a court order, judgment, decree, or process; or

(6) the records or accounts of a public body, office, or officer; or

(7) the records or accounts of a bank or person, with whom funds of the state or any of its agencies or subdivisions are deposited or entrusted, relating to such funds; or

~~(8) a financial transaction card as defined in section 609.52.~~

Subd. 2. [MEANS FOR FALSE REPRODUCTION.] Whoever, with intent to defraud, makes, engraves, possesses or transfers a plate or instrument for the false reproduction of a writing or object mentioned in subdivision

1, a check as defined in section 13, or a financial transaction card as defined in section 609.821, may be sentenced as provided in subdivision 1.

Subd. 3. [UTTERING OR POSSESSING.] Whoever, with intent to defraud, utters or possesses with intent to utter any forged writing or object mentioned in subdivision 1, not including a check as defined in section 13 or a financial transaction card as defined in section 609.821, knowing it to have been so forged, may be sentenced as provided in subdivision 1.

Sec. 13. [609.631] [CHECK FORGERY; OFFERING A FORGED CHECK.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) The definitions in this subdivision apply to this section.

(b) "Check" means a check, draft, order of withdrawal, or similar negotiable or nonnegotiable instrument.

(c) "Property" and "services" have the meanings given in section 609.52.

Subd. 2. [CHECK FORGERY; ELEMENTS.] A person who, with intent to defraud, falsely makes or alters a check so that it purports to have been made by another or by the maker under an assumed or fictitious name, or at another time, or with different provisions, or by the authority of one who did not give authority, is guilty of check forgery and may be sentenced as provided in subdivision 4.

Subd. 3. [OFFERING A FORGED CHECK; ELEMENTS.] A person who, with intent to defraud, offers, or possesses with intent to offer, a forged check, whether or not it is accepted, is guilty of offering a forged check and may be sentenced as provided in subdivision 4.

Subd. 4. [SENTENCING.] A person who is convicted under subdivision 2 or 3 may be sentenced as follows:

(1) to imprisonment for not more than ten years or to payment of a fine of not more than $20,000, or both, if the forged check or checks are used to obtain or in an attempt to obtain, property or services of more than $2,500 or the aggregate amount of the forged check or checks is more than $2,500;

(2) to imprisonment for not more than five years or to payment of a fine of not more than $10,000, or both, if:

(a) the forged check or checks are used to obtain or in an attempt to obtain, property or services of more than $200 but not more than $2,500, or the aggregate face amount of the forged check or checks is more than $200 but not more than $2,500; or

(b) the forged check or checks are used to obtain or in an attempt to obtain, property or services of no more than $200, or have an aggregate face value of no more than $200, and the person has been convicted within the preceding five years for an offense under this section, sections 609.24; 609.245; 609.52; 609.53; 609.582, subdivision 1, 2, or 3; 609.625; 609.63; or 609.821, or a statute from another state in conformity with any of those sections, and the person received a felony or gross misdemeanor sentence for the offense, or a sentence that was stayed under section 609.135 if the offense to which a plea was entered would allow imposition of a felony or gross misdemeanor sentence; and

(3) to imprisonment for not more than one year or to a fine of not more than $3,000, or both, if the forged check or checks are used to obtain or in an attempt to obtain, property or services of no more than $200, or the aggregate face amount of the forged check or checks is no more than $200.

In any prosecution under this subdivision, the value of the checks forged or offered by the defendant in violation of this subdivision within any six-month period may be aggregated and the defendant charged accordingly in applying the provisions of this section. When two or more offenses are committed by the same person in two or more counties, the accused may be prosecuted in any county in which one of the checks was forged or offered for all of the offenses aggregated under this paragraph.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 609.821, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given them:

(a) "Financial transaction card" or "~~card~~" has the meaning given in section 609.52 means any instrument or device, whether known as a credit card, credit plate, charge plate, courtesy card, bank services card, banking card, check guarantee card, debit card, or by any other name, issued with or without fee by an issuer for the use of the cardholder in obtaining credit, money, goods, services, or anything else of value, and includes the account or identification number or symbol of a financial transaction card.

(b) "Cardholder" means a person in whose name a card is issued.

(c) "Issuer" means a person or firm, or a duly authorized agent, that issues a financial transaction card.

(d) "Property" includes money, goods, services, or anything else of value.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 609.821, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [VIOLATIONS; PENALTIES.] A person who does any of the following commits financial transaction card fraud:

(1) without the consent of the cardholder, and knowing that the cardholder has not given consent, uses or attempts to use a card to obtain the property of another;

(2) uses or attempts to use a card knowing it to be forged, false, fictitious, or obtained in violation of clause (6);

(3) sells or transfers a card knowing that the cardholder and issuer have not authorized the person to whom the card is sold or transferred to use the card, or that the card is forged, false, fictitious, or was obtained in violation of clause (6);

(4) without a legitimate business purpose, and without the consent of the cardholders, receives or possesses, with intent to use, or with intent to sell or transfer in violation of clause (3), two or more cards issued in the name of another, or two or more cards knowing the cards to be forged, false, fictitious, or obtained in violation of clause (6);

(5) being authorized by an issuer to furnish money, goods, services, or anything else of value, knowingly and with an intent to defraud the issuer or the cardholder:

(i) furnishes money, goods, services, or anything else of value upon presentation of a financial transaction card knowing it to be forged, expired, or revoked, or knowing that it is presented by a person without authority to use the card; or

(ii) represents in writing to the issuer that the person has furnished money, goods, services, or anything else of value which has not in fact been furnished;

(6) upon applying for a financial transaction card to an issuer:

(i) knowingly gives a false name or occupation; or

(ii) knowingly and substantially overvalues assets or substantially undervalues indebtedness for the purpose of inducing the issuer to issue a financial transaction card; or

(7) with intent to defraud, falsely notifies the issuer or any other person of a theft, loss, disappearance, or nonreceipt of a financial transaction card;
or

(8) without the consent of the cardholder and knowing that the cardholder has not given consent, falsely alters, makes, or signs any written document pertaining to a card transaction to obtain or attempt to obtain the property of another.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 609.821, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [SENTENCE.] A person who commits financial transaction card fraud may be sentenced as follows:

(1) for a violation of clause (1), (2) ~~or~~, (5), or 8 of subdivision 2, ~~in the manner provided in section 609.52, subdivision 3:~~

(i) to imprisonment for not more than ten years or to payment of a fine of not more than $20,000, or both, if the value of the property the person obtained or attempted to obtain was more than $2,500, or the aggregate amount of the transactions under this subdivision was more than $2,500;
or

(ii) to imprisonment for not more than five years or to payment of a fine of not more than $10,000, or both, if the value of the property the person obtained or attempted to obtain was more than $200 but not more than $2,500, or the aggregate amount of the transactions under this subdivision was more than $200 but not more than $2,500; or

(iii) to imprisonment for not more than five years or to payment of a fine of not more than $10,000, or both, if the value of the property the person obtained or attempted to obtain was not more than $200, or the aggregate amount of the transactions under this subdivision was not more than $200, and the person has previously been convicted within the preceding five years for an offense under this section, sections 609.24; 609.245; 609.52; 609.53; 609.582, subdivision 1, 2, or 3; 609.625; 609.63; or section 13, or a statute from another state in conformity with any of those sections, and the person received a felony or gross misdemeanor sentence for the offense, or a sentence that was stayed under section 609.135 if the offense to which a plea was entered would allow imposition of a felony or gross misdemeanor sentence; or

(iv) to imprisonment for not more than one year or to payment of a fine of not more than $3,000, or both, if the value of the property the person obtained or attempted to obtain was not more than $200, or the aggregate amount of the transactions under this subdivision was not more than $200; and

(v) in any prosecution under clauses (i) to (iv) of this subdivision, the value of the transactions made or attempted within any six-month period may be aggregated and the defendant charged accordingly in applying the provisions of this section. When two or more offenses are committed by the same person in two or more counties, the accused may be prosecuted in any county in which one of the card transactions occurred for all of the transactions aggregated under this paragraph;

(2) for a violation of clause (3) or (4) of subdivision 2, to imprisonment for not more than three years or to payment of a fine of not more than $5,000, or both; or

(3) for a violation of clause (6) or (7) of subdivision 2;

(a) (i) if no property, other than a financial transaction card, has been obtained by the defendant by means of the false statement or false report, to imprisonment for not more than ~~90 days~~ one year or to payment of a fine of not more than ~~$300~~ $3,000, or both; or

(b) (ii) if property, other than a financial transaction card, is so obtained, in the manner provided in ~~section 609.52, subdivision 3 clause (1) of this subdivision.~~

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 626A.05, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [OFFENSES FOR WHICH INTERCEPTION OF WIRE OR ORAL COMMUNICATION MAY BE AUTHORIZED.] A warrant authorizing interception of wire or oral communications by investigative or law enforcement officers may only be issued when the interception may provide evidence of the commission of gambling or any criminal felony offense involving murder, manslaughter, aggravated assault, aggravated robbery, kidnapping, aggravated rape, prostitution, bribery, perjury, escape from custody, theft, receiving stolen property, embezzlement, burglary, forgery, aggravated forgery, check forgery, financial transaction card fraud, and offenses relating to controlled substances, or an attempt or conspiracy to commit any of these offenses, as punishable under sections 609.185, 609.19, 609.195, 609.20, 609.225, 609.245, 609.25, 609.291, 609.321 to 609.324, 609.42, 609.48, 609.485, subdivision 4, clause (1), 609.52, 609.53, 609.54, 609.58, 609.625, 609.63, section 13, 609.76, 609.821, 609.825, and chapter 152.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 629.47, is amended to read:

629.47 [HEARING OR TRIAL ADJOURNED; RECOGNIZANCE ALLOWED.]

Subject to the right of the accused to a speedy trial as prescribed by the rules of criminal procedure, a court may adjourn a hearing or trial from time to time, as the need arises and reconvene it at the same or a different place in the county. During the adjournment, the person being tried may be released in accordance with rule 6.02 of the rules of criminal procedure. The maximum cash bail that may be required for a person charged with a misdemeanor is double the highest cash fine which may be imposed for the offense.

Sec. 19. [629.471] [MAXIMUM BAIL ON MISDEMEANORS; GROSS MISDEMEANORS.]

Subdivision 1. [DOUBLE THE FINE.] Except as provided in subdivision 2, the maximum cash bail that may be required for a person charged with a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor offense is double the highest cash fine that may be imposed for that offense.

Subd. 2. [QUADRUPLE THE FINE.] For offenses under sections 169.09, 169.121, 169.129, 518B.01, 609.224, 609.487, and 609.525, the maximum cash bail that may be required for a person charged with a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor violation is quadruple the highest cash fine that may be imposed for the offense.

Sec. 20. [REVISOR'S INSTRUCTION.]

In the next and subsequent editions of Minnesota Statutes the revisor of statutes shall change laws that provide for a maximum fine of $100 as a penalty for a petty misdemeanor violation to provide for a maximum fine of $200. The change must be consistent with sections 3 and 4. The maximum fines for a petty misdemeanor under section 152.15, subdivision 2, clause (5), and chapters 168 and 169, must remain $100 and must not be changed under this section.

Sections 1 to 19 are effective August 1, 1987, and apply to crimes committed on or after that date."

S.F. No. 956: A bill for an act relating to natural resources; providing eligibility requirements for waterbank agreements; providing requirements for the director of the division of waters; requiring the director to maintain current wetland values; authorizing wetland authorities to establish, maintain, and develop wetlands; amending drainage law definitions; prescribing payment of attorney fees on certain drainage issues appealed by the commissioner; prescribing general provisions for petitions; amending petition requirements; allowing drainage proceedings to be delayed; prescribing conditions for assessments against property within a municipality; prescribing extent of benefits and damages; requiring a benefits and damages statement and a property owner's report; providing drainage liens to be recorded against tracts of property; changing rates of interest to be paid during drainage proceedings; amending definition of repair; authorizing conditions for repair if design elevation is different than original construction elevation; providing easement for drainage authority to inspect drainage system; requiring permanent grass strips; apportioning repair costs; renumbering sections; providing penalties; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 40.072, subdivisions 3 and 6; 105.392; 105.40; 106A.005, subdivisions 2, 3, 4, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 19, and by adding subdivisions; 106A.011, subdivisions 3 and 4; 106A.015; 106A.021, by adding subdivisions; 106A.031; 106A.051; 106A.055; 106A.081, subdivisions 2 and 3; 106A.091, subdivision 4; 106A.095, subdivisions 1, 3, and 4; 106A.101, subdivisions 2 and 4; 106A.215, subdivisions 4 and 5; 106A.221; 106A.225; 106A.231; 106A.235, subdivisions 1 and 2; 106A.241, subdivisions 1, 2, and 5; 106A.245; 106A.251; 106A.261, subdivisions 1, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7; 106A.265, subdivision 1; 106A.271, subdivision 1; 106A.275; 106A.281; 106A.285, subdivisions 2, 4, 5, 6, 9, and 10; 106A.295; 106A.301; 106A.305, subdivision 1; 106A.311; 106A.315, subdivisions 1, 2, 5, 6, and by adding subdivisions; 106A.321, subdivision 1, and by adding a subdivision; 106A.325, subdivisions 2 and 3; 106A.335, subdivisions 1 and 3; 106A.341; 106A.345; 106A.351; 106A.401, subdivisions 2 and 6; 106A.405; 106A.411, subdivisions 3 and 4; 106A.501, subdivisions 4, 6, and 7; 106A.505, subdivisions 1, 2, 3, 7, and 8; 106A.511, subdivisions 1, 2, 3, and 5; 106A.515; 106A.525, subdivisions 2, 3, and 4; 106A.541; 106A.555, subdivision 2; 106A.601; 106A.605; 106A.611, subdivisions 2, 3, 6, and 7; 106A.615, subdivisions 4 and 7; 106A.635, subdivisions 1 and 10; 106A.645, subdivision 7; 106A.651, subdivision 1; 106A.655, subdivision 1; 106A.701, subdivision 1, and by adding a subdivision; 106A.705; 106A.715, subdivision 6; 106A.731, subdivision 1; 106A.741, subdivision 5; 106A.811, subdivisions 2, 4, and 5; 112.431, subdivision 2; 112.48, subdivision 1; 112.59; 112.60, subdivision 1; and 112.65, subdivision 1; proposing coding for new law as Minnesota Statutes, chapter 105A; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 106A; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 106A.005, subdivision 25; 106A.201; 106A.205; 106A.211; and 111.01 to 111.421.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 105.40, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [RULES TO STANDARDIZE FORMS.] The director is ~~authorized to formulate~~ may adopt permanent and emergency rules so as to standardize the forms and sizes of maps, plats, drawings and specifications in public drainage proceedings and proceedings and undertakings pertaining relating to public waters of the state. The director must require the permanent grass strips acquired under section 106A.021 to be shown on the maps and maintain an inventory of all permanent grass strips acquired by drainage authorities.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.005, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [AFFECTED.] "Affected" means benefited or damaged by a drainage system or project.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.005, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [AUDITOR.] "Auditor" means the auditor of the county where the petition for a drainage ~~system~~ project was properly filed.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.005, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [BOARD.] "Board" means the board of commissioners of the county where the drainage system or project is located.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.005, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [DRAINAGE AUTHORITY.] "Drainage authority" means the board or joint county drainage authority having jurisdiction over a drainage system or project.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.005, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [DRAINAGE LIEN.] "Drainage lien" means a ~~recorded~~ recorded lien ~~against~~ recorded on property for the costs of drainage proceedings and construction ~~costs~~ and interest on the lien, as provided under this chapter.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.005, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10a. [DRAINAGE PROJECT.] "Drainage project" means a new drainage system, an improvement of a drainage system, an improvement of an outlet, or a lateral.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.005, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [DRAINAGE SYSTEM.] "Drainage system" means a ~~ditch and tile~~ system of ditch or tile, or both, to drain property, including laterals, improvements, and improvements of outlets, that is proposed to, established by, or and constructed by a drainage authority. "Drainage system" includes the improvement of a natural waterway used in the construction of a drainage system, and any part of a flood control plan proposed by the United States or its agencies in the drainage system.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.005, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [ENGINEER.] "Engineer" means the ~~county highway engineer of a county where affected property is located or a professional engineer registered under state law for a drainage project appointed by the drainage authority under section 106A.241, subdivision 1.~~

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.005, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [ESTABLISHED.] "Established" means the drainage authority has made the ~~final~~ order to construct the drainage ~~system~~ project.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.005, subdivision 14, is amended to read:

Subd. 14. [LATERAL.] "Lateral" means any drainage construction by branch or extension, or a system of branches and extensions, or a drain that connects or provides an outlet to property with an established drainage system.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.005, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 16a. [OWNER.] "Owner" means an owner of property or a buyer of property under a contract for deed.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.005, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 16b. [PASSES OVER.] "Passes over" means in reference to property that has a drainage project or system, the 40-acre tracts or government lots and property that is bordered by, touched by, or underneath the path of the proposed drainage project.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.005, subdivision 19, is amended to read:

Subd. 19. [PROCEEDING.] "Proceeding" means a procedure under this chapter for or related to drainage that begins with filing a petition and ends by dismissal or establishment of a drainage ~~system~~ project.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.011, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PERMISSION OF COMMISSIONER FOR WORK IN PUBLIC WATERS; APPLICATION.] (a) The drainage authority must receive permission from the commissioner to:

- (1) remove, construct, or alter a dam affecting public waters;
- (2) establish, raise, or lower the level of public waters; or
- (3) drain any portion of a public water.

(b) The petitioners for a proposed drainage ~~system~~ project or the drainage authority may apply to the commissioner for permission to do work in public waters or for the determination of public waters status of a water body or watercourse.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.011, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [FLOOD CONTROL.] The drainage authority may construct necessary dams, structures, and improvements and maintain them to impound and release flood water to prevent damage. The dams, structures, and improvements may be constructed with or without a drainage system project. For a water body or watercourse that is not public waters the drainage authority may:

(1) lower, or establish the height of water in the water body or watercourse to control flood waters;

(2) build structures and improvements to maintain a water body or watercourse for flood control or other public purposes; and

(3) construct dikes or dams in a water body to maintain water at the height designated by the drainage authority and to drain part of the water body.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.015, is amended to read:

106A.015 [CONSIDERATIONS BEFORE DRAINAGE WORK IS DONE.]

Subdivision 1. [ENVIRONMENTAL AND LAND USE CRITERIA.] Before establishing a drainage system project the drainage authority must consider:

(1) private and public benefits and costs of the proposed drainage system project;

(2) the present and anticipated agricultural land acreage availability and use in the drainage project or system;

(3) the present and anticipated land use within the drainage project or system;

(4) flooding characteristics of property in the drainage project or system and downstream for 5, 10, 25, and 50-year flood events;

(5) the waters to be drained and alternative measures to conserve, allocate, and ~~develop~~ use the waters including storage and retention of drainage waters;

(6) the effect on water quality of constructing the proposed drainage system project;

(7) fish and wildlife resources affected by the proposed drainage system project;

(8) shallow groundwater availability, distribution, and use in the drainage project or system; and

(9) the overall environmental impact of all the above criteria.

Subd. 2. [DETERMINING PUBLIC UTILITY, BENEFIT, OR WELFARE.] In any proceeding to establish a drainage system project, or in the construction of or other work affecting a public drainage system under any law, the drainage authority or other authority having jurisdiction of the proceeding must give proper consideration to conservation of soil, water, forests, wild animals, and related natural resources, and to other public interests affected, together with other material matters as provided by law in determining whether the project will be of public utility, benefit, or welfare.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.021, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [COMPLIANCE WORK BY DRAINAGE AUTHORITY.] If a property owner does not bring an area into compliance with this section as provided in the compliance notice, the inspection committee or drainage inspector must notify the drainage authority. If a property owner does not bring an area into compliance after being notified under section 106A.705, subdivision 1a, the drainage authority must issue an order to have the work performed to bring the property into compliance. After the work is completed, the drainage authority must send a statement of the expenses incurred to bring the property into compliance to the auditor of the county where the property is located and to the property owner.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.021, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [COLLECTION OF COMPLIANCE EXPENSES.] (a) The amount of the expenses is a lien in favor of the drainage authority against the property where the expenses were incurred. The auditor must certify the expenses and enter the amount in the same manner as other drainage liens on the tax list for the following year. The amount must be collected in the same manner as real estate taxes for the property. The provisions of law relating to the collection of real estate taxes shall be used to enforce payment of amounts due under this section. The auditor must include a notice of collection of compliance expenses with the tax statement.

(b) The amounts collected under this subdivision must be deposited in the drainage system account.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.031, is amended to read:

106A.031 [CONNECTION WITH DRAINS IN ADJOINING STATES.]

Subdivision 1. [PROCEDURE.] If it is necessary to construct a drainage system project at or near the boundary between this state and another state or country and the work cannot be done in a proper manner without extending the drainage system project into the adjoining state or country, the drainage authority may join with the board or tribunal of the adjoining state or country having jurisdiction to plan and construct public drainage systems. The drainage authority in this state may enter into contracts or arrangements with the board or tribunal of the adjoining state or country to construct the drainage system project. The proceeding and construction related to property in this state and, as applicable, the drainage authority in relation to the joint drainage work, are governed by this chapter.

Subd. 2. [PAYMENT OF COSTS.] The adjoining county or district in another state or country must pay its proper share of the necessary costs of the construction of any drainage work including damages. If the benefits to property in the adjoining state or country are not sufficient to pay all the costs of construction of the drainage system project in that state or country, including damages, the drainage authority may authorize or direct the affected counties to contribute sufficient funds to complete the construction of the drainage system project in the adjoining state or country, if the construction will be of sufficient benefit to the affected property in this state to warrant the contribution.

Sec. 21. [106A.043] [INFORMAL MEETINGS.]

A drainage authority may hold informal meetings in addition to the meetings and hearings required in this chapter to inform persons affected by the drainage system about the drainage proceedings and provide a forum for informal discussions.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.051, is amended to read:

106A.051 [DEFECTIVE PROCEEDINGS.]

(a) A party may not take advantage of an error in a drainage proceeding or an informality, error, or defect appearing in the record of the proceeding or construction, unless the party complaining is directly affected. The modification of the benefits or damages to any property, or the enjoining of collection of any assessment, does not affect any other property or the collection of any assessment on other property.

(b) If a drainage ~~system~~ project has been established and a contract awarded in good faith, without collusion, and at a reasonable price:

(1) a defect or lack of notice in awarding, making, or executing the contract does not affect the enforcement of an assessment; and

(2) if the contract is performed in good faith in whole or in part, a defect does not invalidate the contract.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.055, is amended to read:

106A.055 [REIMBURSEMENT OF COST OF FORMER SURVEYS WHEN USED LATER.]

If after a proceeding has begun a survey has been made and a proceeding to establish a drainage ~~system~~ project has been dismissed or the drainage ~~system~~ project has not been established, and all or a part of the former survey is used by the engineer for a drainage proceeding in the same area, the amount saved in the subsequent proceedings must be paid to the proper parties according to this section. If the parties who paid the expense of the former survey make a petition, the drainage authority shall:

(1) determine the amount of benefit that was derived by the subsequent proceedings from the former survey;

(2) order the amount of the benefit to be paid to the proper parties; and

(3) charge the amount paid as a cost of the subsequent drainage proceeding.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.081, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [OBSTRUCTION OR DAMAGE OF A DRAINAGE SYSTEM.] A person may not willfully obstruct or damage a drainage project or system project.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.081, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [ALTERING ENGINEER'S MARKING OF STAKES.] A person may not willfully change the location or alter markings of stakes set by the engineer in a drainage project or system.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.091, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [APPEAL TRIAL.] (a) The issues in the appeal are entitled to a trial by a jury ~~at the next term of~~ in the district court ~~after the appeal is filed that is held within~~ of the county where the drainage proceeding was pending.

(b) ~~If~~ At the request of the appellant requests it, the trial must be held ~~at the next term of~~ the district court of the county where the affected property is located. The court administrator of the district court where the appeal is first filed shall make, certify, and file with the court administrator of the district court of the county where the trial is transferred, a transcript of the papers and documents on file in the court administrator's office in the proceedings related to the matters of the appeal. After the final determination of the appeal, the court administrator of the district court that tried the appeal shall certify and return the verdict to the district court of the county where the drainage proceedings were filed.

(c) The appeal shall take precedence over all other civil court matters. If there is more than one appeal to be tried in one county, the court may, on its own motion or the motion of an interested party, consolidate two or more appeals and try them together, but the rights of the appellants must be determined separately. If the appellant does not prevail, the cost of the trial must be paid by the appellant.

(d) The court administrator of the district court where the appeal is filed shall file a certified copy of the final determination of the appeal with the auditor of the affected counties.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.095, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE OF APPEAL.] A party may appeal an order made by the board that dismisses drainage proceedings or establishes or refuses to establish a drainage ~~system~~ project to the district court of the county where the drainage proceedings are pending. The appellant must serve notice of the appeal to the auditor within 30 days after the order is filed. After notice of the appeal is served, the appeal may be brought to trial by the appellant or the drainage authority after notifying the other party at least ten days before the trial date.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.095, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DETERMINATION OF BENEFITS AND DAMAGES AFTER COURT ORDER.] If the order establishing a drainage ~~system~~ project is appealed, the trial of appeals related to benefits or damages in the drainage proceeding must be stayed until the establishment appeal is determined. If the order establishing the drainage ~~system~~ project is affirmed, appeals related to benefits and damages must then be tried.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.095, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PROCEDURE IF APPEAL ORDER ESTABLISHES DRAINAGE ~~SYSTEM PROJECT~~.] If an order refusing to establish a drainage ~~system~~ project is appealed, and the court, by order, establishes the drainage ~~system~~ project, the auditor shall give notice by publication of the filed order. The notice is sufficient if it refers to the drainage project or system by number or other descriptive designation, states the meaning of the order, and states the date the court order was filed. A person may appeal the establishment order to the district court as provided in this section.

Sec. 30. [106A.097] [PAYMENT OF ATTORNEY FEES ON APPEAL.]

If the commissioner of natural resources is a party making an appeal under section 106A.091 or 106A.095 and the commissioner does not prevail on the issues appealed, the court may award attorney fees to the party prevailing on the appeal. If more than one issue is appealed and the commissioner prevails on some issues and does not prevail on others, the court shall determine the amount of the attorney fee to be awarded.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.101, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [RECORD REQUIREMENTS.] All maps, plats, profiles, plans, and specifications prepared and used in relation to a proceeding must:

- (1) be uniform;
- (2) have each sheet bound and marked to identify the proceeding by the drainage project and system number;
- (3) show the name of the person preparing the sheet;
- (4) show the date the sheet was prepared; and
- (5) conform to rules and standards prescribed by the director of the division of waters.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.101, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [ENGINEER'S DOCUMENTS.] All original plats, profiles, records, and field books made by the engineer during the proceedings or the construction of a drainage ~~system~~ project are public records and the property of the drainage authority. These public records must be filed with the auditor under the direction of the drainage authority when construction is completed or when the engineer stops acting for the drainage ~~system~~ project, whichever is earlier.

Sec. 33. [106A.202] [PETITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICABILITY.] This section applies to a petition for a drainage project or a petition for repair.

Subd. 2. [SIGNATURES ON PETITION.] (a) A petition must be signed by a requisite number of owners of 40-acre tracts or government lots and property that the drainage project described in the petition passes over, or by the property owners of the required percentage of the property area determined by the total and percentage of area of 40-acre tracts or government lots that the proposed drainage project passes over, excluding areas in and holders of easements for utilities and roads. A petition may be signed by the commissioner of transportation or by a political subdivision if the property is in their jurisdiction and is passed over by the proposed drainage project.

(b) Each separate parcel of property counts as one signature but must be signed by all owners to count as a signature. The signature of each entity regardless of the number of parcels of property owned counts as one signature on the petition.

(c) Paragraph (a) does not apply to a petition for an improvement of an outlet.

Subd. 3. [WITHDRAWAL OF A PETITIONER.] After a petition has been filed, a petitioner may not withdraw from the petition except with the written consent of all other petitioners on the filed petition.

Subd. 4. [FILING PETITION AND BOND.] A petition for a drainage project and a bond must be filed with the auditor. If a drainage system is within two or more counties, the petition must be filed with the auditor of the county with the greatest area of property that the proposed drainage project passes over.

Subd. 5. [PETITIONERS' BOND.] One or more petitioners must file a bond with the petition for at least $10,000 that is payable to the county where the petition is filed, or for a petition for a proposed joint county drainage system or a petition for a drainage project affecting a joint county drainage system. The bond must be payable to all of the counties named in the petition. The bond must have adequate surety and be approved by the county attorney. The bond must be conditioned to pay the costs incurred if the proceedings are dismissed or a contract is not awarded to construct the drainage system proposed in the petition.

Subd. 6. [EXPENSES NOT TO EXCEED BOND.] The costs incurred before the proposed drainage project is established may not exceed the amount of the petitioners' bond. A claim for expenses greater than the amount of the bond may not be paid unless an additional bond is filed. If the drainage authority determines that the cost of the proceeding will be greater than the petitioners' bond before the proposed drainage project is established, the drainage authority must require an additional bond to cover all costs to be filed within a prescribed time. The proceeding must be stopped until the additional bond prescribed by the drainage authority is filed. If the additional bond is not filed within the time prescribed, the proceeding must be dismissed.

Sec. 34. [106A.212] [NEW DRAINAGE SYSTEM PROJECTS.]

Subdivision 1. [PROCEDURE.] To establish a new drainage system under this chapter, the petitioners and drainage authority must proceed according to this section and the provisions applicable to establishment of drainage projects.

Subd. 2. [SIGNATURES ON PETITION.] The petition for a new drainage system must be signed by a majority of the owners of the property that the proposed drainage system described in the petition passes over, or by the property owners of at least 60 percent of the area that the proposed new drainage system passes over.

Subd. 3. [PETITION REQUIREMENTS.] The petition must:

(1) describe the 40-acre tracts or government lots and property where the proposed new drainage system passes over, including names and addresses of the property owners from the county assessor's office;

(2) describe the starting point, the general course, and the terminus of the proposed drainage system;

(3) state why the proposed drainage system is necessary;

(4) state that the proposed drainage system will benefit and be useful to the public and will promote public health; and

(5) state that the petitioners will pay all costs of the proceedings if the proceedings are dismissed or the contract for the construction of the proposed drainage system is not awarded.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.215, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PETITION.] (a) ~~To start an improvement proceeding.~~ A petition must be signed by:

(1) at least 26 percent of the ~~resident~~ owners of the property affected by the proposed improvement;

(2) at least 26 percent of the ~~resident~~ owners of property that the proposed improvement passes over;

(3) the owners of at least 26 percent of the property area affected by the proposed improvement; or

(4) the owners of at least 26 percent of the property area that the proposed improvement passes over.

(b) The petition must be filed with the auditor or, for a drainage system in more than one county, with the auditor of the county having the largest area of property the improvement is located on.

(c) ~~The provisions of section 106A.201, subdivision 3, regarding signatures of public officials apply to this subdivision.~~

(~~d~~) The petition must:

(1) designate the drainage system proposed to be improved by number or another description that identifies the drainage system;

(2) state that the drainage system has insufficient capacity or needs enlarging or extending to furnish sufficient capacity or a better outlet;

(3) describe the starting point, general course, and terminus of any extension;

(4) describe the improvement, including the names and addresses of owners of the 40-acre tracts or government lots and property that the improvement passes over;

(5) state that the proposed improvement will be of public utility and promote the public health; and

(~~5~~) (6) contain an agreement by the petitioners that they will pay all costs and expenses that may be incurred if the improvement proceedings are dismissed.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.215, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [SUBSEQUENT PROCEEDINGS.] When a petition and the bond required by section 106A.205 are filed, the auditor shall present the petition to the board at its next meeting or, for a joint county drainage system, to the joint county drainage authority within ten days after the petition is filed. The drainage authority shall appoint an engineer to examine the drainage system and make an improvement report. The improvement proceedings must proceed under this chapter as provided for the original proceedings for the establishment of a drainage ~~system~~ project. The benefits and damages determined must be as a result of the proposed improvement. Assessments for the repair of the improvement must be based on the benefits determined for the improvement.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.221, is amended to read:

106A.221 [IMPROVEMENT OF OUTLETS.]

Subdivision 1. [CONDITIONS FOR IMPROVEMENT OF OUTLETS.] If a public or private, proposed drainage project or existing drainage system has waters draining into an existing drainage system, watercourse, or body of water, and the construction or proposed construction of the drainage ~~system~~ project causes an overflow of the existing drainage system, watercourse, or body of water on adjoining property, an affected county or the owners of the overflowed property may start outlet improvement proceedings under this section.

Subd. 2. [PETITION.] (a) A petition must be signed by the board of an affected county, by at least 26 percent of the ~~resident~~ owners of adjoining overflowed property, or by the owners of at least 26 percent of the area of the overflowed property. The petition must:

(1) describe the property that has been or is likely to be overflowed including the names and addresses of the property owners from the county assessor's office;

(2) state in general terms by number or otherwise the drainage systems that have caused or are likely to cause the overflow;

(3) describe the location of the overflowed drainage system, watercourse, or body of water and the outlet;

(4) show the necessity of the improvement by enlarging the system or controlling the waters by off-take ditches, additional outlets, or otherwise;

(5) show that the outlet improvement will protect the adjoining property from overflow;

(6) state that the improvement will be of public benefit and utility and improve the public health; and

(7) state that the petitioners will pay all costs incurred if the proceedings are dismissed or a contract for the construction outlet improvement is not awarded.

(b) The petitioners, except for a petition made by the board, shall give the required bond ~~required by section 106A.205~~.

Subd. 3. [FILING OF PETITION.] The petition shall be filed with the county auditor. If the board makes the petition, it must be addressed to the drainage authority and filed with the auditor. If part of the improvement or the overflowed property is located in more than one county, the petition must be filed with the auditor of the county with the greatest affected area.

Subd. 4. [JURISDICTION OF ~~BOARD AND DISTRICT COURT~~ DRAINAGE AUTHORITY.] After the petition is filed, the board or joint county drainage authority where the petition is filed, has jurisdiction of the petition, the improvement, the affected property, and all proceedings for the establishment and construction of the outlet improvement and the assessment of property benefited by the outlet improvement, as provided for establishment and construction of a drainage ~~system~~ project under this chapter.

Subd. 5. [PRELIMINARY SURVEY REPORT REQUIREMENTS.] In the preliminary survey report, the engineer shall show the existing or proposed drainage projects or systems that cause the overflow, the property drained or to be drained by the drainage system project, and the names of affected property owners.

Subd. 6. [BENEFITED PROPERTY TO BE DETERMINED BY VIEWERS.] If, after the preliminary survey report hearing, a detailed survey is ordered and viewers appointed, the viewers shall determine and report the benefits to all property from the outlet improvement including property drained or to be drained by the existing ~~or~~ drainage system and proposed drainage system project.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.225, is amended to read:

106A.225 [LATERALS.]

Subdivision 1. [PETITION.] (a) Persons that own property in the vicinity of an existing drainage system may petition for a lateral that connects their property with the drainage system. The petition must be signed by at least 26 percent of the ~~resident~~ owners of the property or by the owners of at least 26 percent of the area of the property ~~traversed by that~~ the lateral passes over. The petition must be filed with the auditor, or for property in more than one county, the petition must be filed with the auditor of the county with the largest property area ~~traversed by~~ passed over by the lateral. The petition must:

(1) describe in general terms the starting point, general course, and terminus of the proposed lateral;

(2) describe the property traversed by the lateral including the names and addresses of the property owners from the county assessor's office;

(3) state the necessity to construct the lateral;

(4) state that, if constructed, the lateral will be of public benefit and utility and promote the public health;

(5) request that the lateral be constructed and connected with the drainage system; and

(6) provide that the petitioners will pay all costs incurred if the proceedings are dismissed or if a contract for the construction of the lateral is not awarded.

(b) The petitioners shall give the bond required by section 106A.205.

Subd. 2. [ESTABLISHMENT PROCEDURE.] After the petition is filed, the procedure to establish and construct the lateral is the same as that provided in this chapter to establish a ~~new~~ drainage system project.

Subd. 3. [AUTHORITY NECESSARY FOR PROPERTY NOT ASSESSED.] A lateral may not be constructed to drain property that is not assessed benefits for the existing ~~public~~ drainage system until express authority for the use of the existing drainage system as an outlet for the lateral has been obtained under section 106A.401.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.231, is amended to read:

106A.231 [DISMISSAL OR DELAY OF PROCEEDINGS BY PETITIONERS.]

Subdivision 1. [DISMISSAL.] (a) A proceeding under this chapter may be dismissed by a majority of the petitioners if they own at least 60 percent of the area owned by all of the petitioners as described in the petition.

(b) The proceeding may be dismissed at any time before the proposed drainage system project is established after payment of the cost of the proceeding. If the costs cannot be collected, each and all petitioners are liable for unpaid assessments. The drainage authority shall determine and assess the cost of the proceeding against the persons liable. After the proceeding is dismissed any other action on the proposed drainage system project must begin with a new petition.

Subd. 2. [DELAY.] The drainage authority may delay drainage proceedings and drainage project construction under this chapter if a majority of the petitioners petition for a delay and the drainage authority holds a hearing on the petition. The delay may be for a period determined by the drainage authority. The drainage authority shall determine the cost of the proceedings up to the time the proceedings are delayed and when the costs are to be paid. The costs may include interest on the costs due.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.235, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DESIGNATION.] A petition for a proposed drainage system project in two or more counties must be designated as a joint county drainage system with a number assigned by the auditor of the county with the largest area of property in the drainage system.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.235, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [JOINT COUNTY DRAINAGE AUTHORITY.] The board where a petition for a proposed joint county drainage system project is filed shall notify the board of each county where property is affected by the drainage system and request the boards to meet jointly and consider the petition. The boards shall select five of their members at the meeting to be the drainage authority. At least one member must be from each board. The drainage authority shall be known as the joint county drainage authority with a joint county drainage project or system number. A vacancy in the membership of the joint county drainage authority must be filled by joint action of the boards.

Sec. 42. [106A.238] [COUNTY ATTORNEY REVIEW OF PETITION AND BOND.]

For a petition filed under this chapter, the auditor must have the county attorney review the petition and bond to determine if it meets the requirement of the proceedings for which it is intended. The county attorney must review the petition and bond within 30 days after it is filed. The county attorney must:

(1) refer the petition and bond back to the petitioners if it does not meet the requirements, with the county attorney's opinion describing the deficiencies of the petition; or

(2) refer the petition to the drainage authority.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.241, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [APPOINTMENT.] Within 30 days after filing the receiving a petition and bond from the county attorney, the drainage authority shall, by order, appoint an engineer to make a preliminary survey within a prescribed time. The engineer must be the county highway engineer of a county where the affected property is located or a professional engineer registered under state law. The engineer is the engineer for the drainage ~~system~~ project throughout the proceeding and construction unless otherwise ordered. Each appointed engineer must file an oath and bond. The engineer may be removed by the drainage authority at any time. If the engineer position is vacant, the drainage authority shall appoint another engineer as soon as possible.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.241, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [OATH; BOND.] An appointed engineer must subscribe to an oath to faithfully perform the assigned duties in the best manner possible and file a bond with the auditor. Within ten days after being appointed, the drainage authority shall set an amount of at least $5,000 for the bond. The bond must have adequate surety and be payable to the county where the petition is filed, or for a proposed joint county drainage ~~system~~ project to all counties in the petition. The bond must be conditioned to pay any person or the drainage authority for damages and injuries resulting from negligence of the engineer while the engineer is acting in the proceedings or construction, and provide that the engineer will diligently and honestly perform the engineer's duties. The bond is subject to approval by the auditor. The aggregate liability of the surety for all damages may not exceed the amount of the bond.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.241, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [CONSULTING ENGINEER.] After the engineer is appointed and before construction of the drainage ~~system~~ project is finished, the drainage authority may employ an engineer as a consulting engineer for the proceeding and construction. A consulting engineer shall advise the engineer and drainage authority on engineering matters and problems that may arise related to the proceeding and construction of the drainage ~~system~~ project. The drainage authority shall determine the compensation for the consulting engineer.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.245, is amended to read:

106A.245 [PRELIMINARY SURVEY AND PRELIMINARY SURVEY REPORT.]

Subdivision 1. [SURVEY.] The engineer shall proceed promptly to:

- (1) examine the petition and order;
- (2) make a preliminary survey of the area likely to be affected by the proposed drainage ~~system~~ project to enable the engineer to determine whether the proposed drainage ~~system~~ project is necessary and feasible with reference to the environmental and land use criteria in section 106A.015, subdivision 1;
- (3) examine and gather information related to determining whether the proposed drainage ~~system~~ project substantially affects areas that are public waters; and
- (4) if the proposed drainage ~~system~~ project requires construction of an open channel, examine the nature and capacity of the outlet and any necessary extension.

Subd. 2. [LIMITATION OF SURVEY.] The engineer shall restrict the preliminary survey to the drainage area described in the petition, except that to secure an outlet the engineer may run levels necessary to determine the distance for the proper fall. The preliminary survey must consider the impact of the proposed drainage ~~system~~ project on the environmental and land use criteria in section 106A.015, subdivision 1. The drainage authority may have other areas surveyed after:

- (1) giving notice by mail of a hearing to survey additional areas, to be held at least ten days after the notice is mailed, to the petitioners and persons liable on the petitioners' bond;
- (2) holding the hearing;
- (3) obtaining consent of the persons liable on the petitioners' bond; and
- (4) ordering the additional area surveyed by the engineer.

Subd. 3. [ADOPTION OF FEDERAL PROJECT.] The engineer may approve and include as a part of the report, a project of the United States relating to drainage or flood control that is within the proposed drainage ~~system~~ project area, and may accept data, plats, plans, or information relating to the project furnished by United States engineers. The engineer does not need to make the preliminary survey if the material furnished by the United States is sufficient for the engineer to make the preliminary survey report.

Subd. 4. [PRELIMINARY SURVEY REPORT.] The engineer shall report the proposed drainage ~~system~~ project plan or recommend a different practical plan. The report must give sufficient information, in detail, to inform the drainage authority on issues related to feasibility, and show changes necessary to make the proposed plan practicable and feasible including extensions, laterals, and other work. If the engineer finds the proposed drainage ~~system~~ project in the petition is feasible and complies with the environmental and land use criteria in section 106A.015, subdivision 1, the engineer shall include in the preliminary survey report a preliminary plan of the ~~proposed system~~ drainage project showing the proposed ditches, tile, laterals, and other improvements, the outlet of the ~~system~~ project, the watershed of the drainage ~~project or system~~, and the property likely to be affected and its known owners. The plan must show:

- (1) the elevation of the outlet and the controlling elevations of the property likely to be affected referenced to standard sea level datum, if practical;
- (2) the probable size and character of the ditches and laterals necessary to make the plan practicable and feasible;
- (3) the character of the outlet and whether it is sufficient;
- (4) the probable cost of the drains and improvements shown on the plan;
- (5) all other information and data necessary to disclose the practicability, necessity, and feasibility of the proposed drainage ~~system~~ project;
- (6) consideration of the drainage project under the environmental and land use criteria in section 106A.015, subdivision 1, ~~of the proposed drainage system~~; and
- (7) other information as ordered by the drainage authority.

Sec. 47. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.251, is amended to read:

106A.251 [FILING PRELIMINARY SURVEY REPORT.]

The engineer shall file the completed preliminary survey report in duplicate with the auditor. The auditor shall send one copy of the report to the director. If the proposed drainage ~~system~~ project involves a joint county drainage project or system, a copy of the report must be filed with the auditor of each affected county.

Sec. 48. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.261, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE.] When the preliminary survey report is filed, the auditor shall promptly notify the drainage authority. The drainage authority in consultation with the auditor shall set a time, by order, not more than 30 days after the date of the order, for a hearing on the preliminary survey report. At least ten days before the hearing, the drainage authority after consulting with the auditor shall give notice by mail of the time and location of the hearing to the petitioners, owners of property, and political subdivisions likely to be affected by the proposed drainage ~~system~~ project in the preliminary survey report.

Sec. 49. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.261, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [SUFFICIENCY OF PETITION.] (a) The drainage authority shall first examine the petition and determine if it meets the legal requirements.

(b) If the petition does not meet the legal requirements of this chapter, the hearing shall be adjourned ~~and~~ until a specified date by which the petitioners must resubmit the petition. The petition must be referred back to the petitioners. The petitioners who, by unanimous action, may amend the petition. The petitioners may obtain signatures of additional property owners as added petitioners.

(c) When the hearing is reconvened, if at the adjourned hearing the petition is not resubmitted or does not meet the legal requirements, the proceedings must be dismissed.

Sec. 50. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.261, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [DISMISSAL.] (a) The drainage authority shall dismiss the proceedings if it determines that:

(1) the proposed drainage ~~system~~ project is not feasible;

(2) the adverse environmental impact is greater than the public benefit and utility after considering the environmental and land use criteria in section 106A.015, subdivision 1, and the engineer has not reported a plan to make the proposed drainage ~~system~~ project feasible and acceptable;

(3) the proposed drainage ~~system~~ project is not of public benefit or utility; or

(4) the outlet is not adequate.

(b) If the proceedings are dismissed, any other action on the proposed drainage ~~system~~ project must begin with a new petition.

Sec. 51. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.261, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [FINDINGS AND ORDER.] (a) The drainage authority shall state, by order, its findings and any changes that must be made in the proposed drainage system project from those outlined in the petition, including changes necessary to minimize or mitigate adverse impact on the environment, if it determines that:

(1) the proposed drainage system project outlined in the petition, or modified and recommended by the engineer, is feasible;

(2) there is necessity for the proposed drainage system project;

(3) the proposed drainage system project will be of public benefit and promote the public health, after considering the environmental and land use criteria in section 106A.015, subdivision 1; and

(4) the outlet is adequate.

(b) Changes may be stated by describing them in general terms or filing a map that outlines the changes in the proposed drainage system project with the order. The order and accompanying documents must be filed with the auditor.

Sec. 52. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.261, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [OUTLET IS EXISTING DRAINAGE SYSTEM.] If the outlet is an existing drainage system, the drainage authority may determine that the outlet is adequate and obtain permission to use the existing drainage system as an outlet. The drainage authority shall assign a number to the proposed drainage system project and proceed under section 106A.401 to act in behalf of the proposed drainage system project.

Sec. 53. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.261, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [EFFECT OF FINDINGS.] (a) For all further proceedings, the order modifies the petition and the order must be considered with the petition.

(b) The findings and order of the drainage authority at the preliminary hearing are conclusive only for the signatures and legal requirements of the petition, the nature and extent of the proposed plan, and the need for a detailed survey, and only for the persons or parties shown by the preliminary survey report as likely to be affected by the proposed drainage system project. All questions related to the practicability and necessity of the proposed drainage system project are subject to additional investigation and consideration at the final hearing.

Sec. 54. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.265, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ORDER.] When the preliminary hearing order is filed with the auditor, the drainage authority shall order the engineer to make a detailed survey with plans and specifications for the proposed drainage system project and submit a detailed survey report to the drainage authority as soon as possible.

Sec. 55. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.271, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SURVEY AND EXAMINATION.] When an order for a detailed survey is filed, the engineer shall proceed to survey the lines of the proposed drainage ~~system~~ project in the preliminary hearing order, and survey and examine affected property.

Sec. 56. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.275, is amended to read:

106A.275 [ENGINEER'S VARIANCE FROM DRAINAGE AUTHORITY ORDER.]

(a) In planning a proposed drainage ~~system~~ project, the engineer may vary from the starting point and the line and plan described by the preliminary hearing order if necessary to drain the property likely to be assessed in the proposed drainage ~~system~~ project.

(b) The engineer may:

(1) survey and recommend the location of additional necessary ditches and tile;

(2) where better results will be accomplished and more desirable outlets secured, provide for the extension of the outlet; and

(3) provide for different parts of the drainage to flow in different directions with more than one outlet.

(c) The open ditches do not have to connect if they drain the area to be affected in the petition. The variance must be reported with similar information in the detailed survey report.

Sec. 57. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.281, is amended to read:

106A.281 [SOIL SURVEY.]

The engineer shall make a soil survey if: (1) the drainage authority orders a soil survey; (2) the commissioner requests a soil survey; or (3) the engineer determines a soil survey is necessary. The soil survey must show the nature and character of the soil in the proposed drainage project area and include the engineer's findings from the soil survey. The report on the soil survey must be included in the detailed survey report or reported and filed separately before the final hearing.

Sec. 58. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.285, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [MAP] A complete map of the proposed drainage project and drainage system must be drawn to scale, showing:

(1) the terminus and course of each drain and whether it is ditch or tile, and the location of other proposed drainage works;

(2) the location and situation of the outlet;

(3) the watershed of the proposed drainage ~~system~~ project and the sub-watershed of main branches, if any, with the location of existing highway bridges and culverts;

(4) all property affected, with the names of the known owners;

(5) public roads and railways affected;

(6) the outline of any lake basin, wetland, or public water body affected;

(7) other physical characteristics of the watershed necessary to understand the proposed drainage project and the affected drainage system; and

(8) the area to be acquired to maintain a grass strip under section 106A.021.

Sec. 59. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.285, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [BRIDGE AND CULVERT PLANS.] Plans for private bridges and culverts to be constructed by and as a part of the proposed drainage ~~system~~ project and plans for other works to be constructed for the proposed drainage ~~system~~ project must be presented. A list must be made that shows the required minimum hydraulic capacity of bridges and culverts at railways and highways that cross ditches, and at other prospective ditch crossings where bridges and culverts are not specified to be constructed as part of the proposed drainage ~~system~~ project. Plans and estimates of the cost of highway bridges and culverts must be prepared for the viewers to determine benefits and damages.

Sec. 60. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.285, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [TABULAR STATEMENT OF EXCAVATION, CONSTRUCTION, AND COST.] A tabular statement must be prepared showing:

(1) the number of cubic yards of excavation, linear feet of tile, and average depth on each tile line;

(2) the bridges, culverts, and works to be constructed under the plans for the ~~system~~ drainage project; and

(3) the estimated unit cost of each item, a summary of the total cost, and an estimate of the total cost of completing the proposed drainage ~~system~~ project that includes supervision and other costs.

Sec. 61. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.285, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [RIGHT-OF-WAY ACREAGE.] The acreage must be shown that will be taken for ditch right-of-way on each government lot, 40 acre tract, or fraction of a lot or tract under separate ownership. The ditch right-of-way must include the area to be taken to maintain a grass strip under section 106A.021.

Sec. 62. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.285, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [RECOMMENDATION FOR DIVISION OF WORK.] If construction of the proposed drainage ~~system~~ project would be more economical, the engineer may recommend: (1) that the work be divided into sections and contracted separately; (2) that the ditch and tile work or tile and labor on the ~~system~~ project be contracted separately, or (3) the time and manner for the work to be completed.

Sec. 63. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.285, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [OTHER INFORMATION ON PRACTICABILITY AND NECESSITY OF DRAINAGE ~~SYSTEM PROJECT~~.] Other data and information to inform the drainage authority of the practicability and necessity of the proposed drainage ~~system~~ project must be made available including a comprehensive examination and the recommendation by the engineer regarding the environmental and land use criteria in section 106A.015, subdivision 1.

Sec. 64. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.295, is amended to read:

106A.295 [REVISION OF ENGINEER'S DETAILED SURVEY REPORT AFTER ACCEPTANCE.]

After the final acceptance of the proposed drainage ~~system~~ project, the engineer shall revise the plan, profiles, and designs of structures to show the drainage project as actually constructed on the original tracings. The engineer shall file the revised detailed survey report with the auditor. The auditor shall forward the original or a copy to the director as a permanent record.

Sec. 65. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.301, is amended to read:

106A.301 [COMMISSIONER'S FINAL ADVISORY REPORT.]

(a) The commissioner shall examine the detailed survey report and within 30 days of receipt make a final advisory report to the drainage authority. The final advisory report must state whether the commissioner:

(1) finds the detailed survey report is incomplete and not in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, specifying the incomplete or nonconforming provisions;

(2) approves the detailed survey report as an acceptable plan to drain the property affected;

(3) does not approve the plan and recommendations for changes;

(4) finds the proposed drainage ~~system~~ project is not of public benefit or utility under the environmental and land use criteria in section 106A.015, subdivision 1, specifying the facts and evidence supporting the findings; or

(5) finds a soil survey is needed, and, if it is, makes a request to the engineer to make a soil survey.

(b) The commissioner shall direct the final advisory report to the drainage authority and file it with the auditor.

Sec. 66. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.305, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [APPOINTMENT.] When the order for a detailed survey is made, the drainage authority shall, by order, appoint viewers consisting of three disinterested ~~resident property owners of the counties affected by the proposed drainage system~~ residents of the state qualified to assess benefits and damages. The drainage authority may establish qualifications for viewers.

Sec. 67. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.311, is amended to read:

106A.311 [VIEWERS' DUTIES.]

The viewers, with or without the engineer, shall determine the benefits and damages to all property affected by the proposed drainage ~~system~~ project and make a viewers' report.

Sec. 68. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.315, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [STATE LAND.] Property owned by the state must have benefits and damages reported in the same manner as taxable lands subject to the provisions relating to conservation areas in section ~~106A.015, subdivision 2~~ 106A.025.

Sec. 69. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.315, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [GOVERNMENT PROPERTY.] The viewers shall report the benefits and damages to the state, counties, and municipalities from the proposed drainage ~~system~~ project. The property within the jurisdiction of a municipality, whether owned by the municipality or by private parties, may be assessed as benefits and damages against the municipality.

Sec. 70. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.315, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [EXTENT AND BASIS OF BENEFITS.] (a) The viewers shall determine the amount of benefits to all property benefited within the watershed, whether the property is benefited immediately by the construction of the proposed drainage ~~system~~ project or the proposed drainage ~~system~~ project can become an outlet for drainage, makes an outlet more accessible, or otherwise directly benefits the property. The benefits may be based on:

(1) an increase in the current market value of property as a result of constructing the project;

(2) an increase in the potential for agricultural production as a result of constructing the project; or

(3) an increased value as a result of a potential different land use.

(b) Benefits and damages may only be assessed against the property benefited or damaged or an easement interest in property for the exclusive use of the surface of the property.

Sec. 71. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.315, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [BENEFITS FOR PROPOSED DRAINAGE SYSTEM PROJECT AS OUTLET.] (a) If the proposed drainage ~~system~~ project furnishes an outlet to an existing drainage system and benefits the property drained by the existing system, the viewers shall equitably determine and assess:

(1) the benefits of the proposed drainage ~~system~~ project to each tract or lot drained by the existing drainage system;

(2) a single amount as an outlet benefit to the existing drainage system;

or

(3) benefits on a watershed acre basis.

(b) Assessments that conform with the provisions in this subdivision are valid. If a single sum is assessed as an outlet benefit, the lien for the assessment must be prorated on all property benefited by the existing drainage system in proportion to the benefits determined ~~in~~ for the existing drainage system ~~proceeding~~.

(c) Within the watershed that drains to the area where a project is located, the viewers may assess outlet benefits on:

(1) property that is responsible for increased siltation in downstream areas of the watershed; and

(2) property that is responsible for increased drainage system maintenance or increased drainage system capacity because the natural drainage on the property has been altered or modified to accelerate the drainage of water from the property.

Sec. 72. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.315, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [BENEFITS FOR PROJECT THAT INCREASES DRAINAGE CAPACITY.] If part of a drainage project increases drainage capacity and the increased capacity is necessary due to increased drainage in the project watershed rather than increased drainage in a specific area, the viewers may assess benefits on property in the project watershed on a pro rata basis.

Sec. 73. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.315, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [EXTENT OF DAMAGES.] Damages to be paid may include:

(1) the fair market value of the property required for the channel of an open ditch and the permanent grass strip under section 106A.021;

(2) the diminished value of a farm due to severing a field by an open ditch;

(3) loss of crop production during drainage project construction; and

(4) the diminished productivity or land value from increased overflow.

Sec. 74. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.321, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENTS.] (a) The viewers' report must show, in tabular form, for each lot, 40 acre tract, and fraction of a lot or tract under separate ownership that is benefited or damaged:

(1) a description of the lot or tract, under separate ownership, that is benefited or damaged;

(2) the names of the owners as they appear on the current tax records of the county and their addresses;

(3) the number of acres in each tract or lot;

(4) the number and value of acres added to a tract or lot by the proposed drainage of meandered lakes public waters;

(5) the damage, if any, to riparian rights; and

(6) the damages paid for the permanent grass strip under section 106A.021;

(7) the total number and value of acres added to a tract or lot by the proposed drainage of public waters, wetlands, and other areas not currently being cultivated;

(8) the number of acres and amount of benefits being assessed for drainage of areas which before the drainage benefits could be realized would require a permit to work in public waters under section 105.42, to excavate

or fill a navigable water body under United States Code, title 33, section 403, or a permit to discharge into waters of the United States under United States Code, title 33, section 1344;

(9) the number of acres and amount of benefits being assessed for drainage of areas that would be considered conversion of a wetland under United States Code, title 16, section 3821, if the area was placed in agricultural production;

(10) the amount of right-of-way acreage required; and

(11) the amount that each tract or lot will be benefited or damaged.

Sec. 75. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.321, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [BENEFITS AND DAMAGES STATEMENT.] (a) The viewers' report must include a benefits and damages statement that shows for each owner how the benefits or damages for similar tracts or lots were determined. For similar tracts or lots the report must describe:

(1) the existing land use, property value, and economic productivity;

(2) the potential land use, property value, and economic productivity after the drainage project is constructed; and

(3) the benefits or damages from the proposed drainage project.

(b) The soil and water conservation districts and county assessors shall cooperate with viewers to provide information required under paragraph (a).

Sec. 76. [106A.323] [PROPERTY OWNERS' REPORT AND FINAL PETITION NOTICE.]

Subdivision 1. [REPORT TO PROPERTY OWNERS.] Within 30 days after the viewers' report is filed, the auditor must make a property owners' report from the information in the viewers' report showing for each property owner benefited or damaged by the proposed drainage project:

(1) the name and address of the property owner;

(2) each lot or tract and its area that is benefited or damaged;

(3) the total number and value of acres added to a tract or lot by the proposed drainage of public waters, wetlands, and other areas not currently being cultivated;

(4) the number of acres and amount of benefits being assessed for drainage of areas which before the drainage benefits could be realized would require a permit to work in public waters under section 105.42, to excavate or fill a navigable water body under United States Code, title 33, section 403, or a permit to discharge into waters of the United States under United States Code, title 33, section 1344;

(5) the number of acres and amount of benefits being assessed for drainage of areas that would be considered conversion of a wetland under United States Code, title 16, section 3821, if the area was placed in agricultural production;

(6) the damage, if any, to riparian rights;

(7) the amount of right-of-way acreage required;

- (8) the amount that each tract or lot will be benefited or damaged;
- (9) the net damages or benefits to each property owner;
- (10) the estimated cost to be assessed to the property owner based on the cost of the drainage project in the engineer's detailed survey report;
and
- (11) a copy of the benefits and damages statement under section 106A.321, subdivision 1a, paragraph (a), relating to the property owner.

Subd. 2. [MAILING.] The auditor must mail a copy of the property owners' report to each property owner affected by the proposed drainage project, and may prepare and file an affidavit of mailing.

Sec. 77. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.325, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [NOTICE.] (a) The final hearing notice must state:

- (1) that the petition is pending;
- (2) that the detailed survey report is filed;
- (3) that the viewers' report is filed;
- (4) the time and place set for the final hearing;
- (5) a brief description of the proposed drainage project and affected drainage system, giving in general terms the starting point, terminus, and general course of the main ditch and branches;
- (6) a description of property benefited and damaged, and the names of the owners of the property; and
- (7) the municipal and other corporations affected by the proposed drainage system project as shown by the detailed survey report and viewers' report.

(b) Names may be listed in a narrative form and property affected may be separately listed in narrative form by governmental sections or otherwise.

(c) For a joint county proceeding, separate notice may be prepared for each county affected, showing the portion of the proposed drainage system project and the names and descriptions of affected property in the county.

Sec. 78. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.325, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [METHOD OF NOTICE.] The auditor shall notify the drainage authority, auditors of affected counties, and all interested persons of the time and location of the final hearing by publication, posting, and mail. A printed copy of the final hearing notice for each affected county must be posted at least three weeks before the date of the final hearing at the front door of the courthouse in each county. Within one week after the first publication of the notice, the auditor shall give notice by mail of the time and location of the final hearing to the commissioner, all property owners, and others affected by the proposed drainage system project and listed in the detailed survey report and the viewers' report.

Sec. 79. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.335, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CONSIDERATION OF PETITION AND REPORTS.] At the time and location for the final hearing specified in the notice, or after the hearing adjourns, the drainage authority shall consider the petition for the drainage system project, with all matters pertaining to the detailed survey report, the viewers' report, and the commissioner's final advisory report. The drainage authority shall hear and consider the testimony presented by all interested parties. The engineer or the engineer's assistant and at least one viewer shall be present. The director may appear and be heard. If the director does not appear personally, the final advisory report shall be read during the hearing. The final hearing may be adjourned and reconvened as is necessary.

Sec. 80. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.335, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [REEXAMINATION.] If the drainage authority determines that property not included in the notice should be included and assessed or that the engineer or viewers, or both, should reexamine the proposed drainage system project or the property benefited or damaged by the system, the drainage authority may resubmit the reports to the engineer and viewers. If a report is resubmitted the final hearing may be continued as is necessary to make the reexamination and reexamination report. If the reexamination report includes property not included in the original report, the drainage authority may, by order, adjourn the hearing and direct the auditor to serve or publish, post, and mail a final hearing notice with reference to all property not included in the previous notice. The jurisdiction of the drainage authority continues in the property given proper notice, and new or additional notice is not required for that property.

Sec. 81. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.341, is amended to read:

106A.341 [DRAINAGE AUTHORITY FINAL ORDER.]

Subdivision 1. [DISMISSAL OF PROCEEDINGS.] The drainage authority must dismiss the proceedings and petition, by order, if it determines that:

- (1) the benefits of the proposed drainage system project are less than the total cost, including damages awarded;
- (2) the proposed drainage system project will not be of public benefit and utility; or
- (3) the proposed drainage system project is not practicable after considering the environmental and land use criteria in section 106A.015, subdivision 1.

Subd. 2. [ESTABLISHMENT OF PROPOSED DRAINAGE SYSTEM.]

(a) The drainage authority shall establish, by order, a proposed drainage system project if it determines that:

- (1) the detailed survey report and viewers' report have been made and other proceedings have been completed under this chapter;
- (2) the reports made or amended are complete and correct;
- (3) the damages and benefits have been properly determined;
- (4) the estimated benefits are greater than the total estimated cost, including damages;
- (5) the proposed drainage system project will be of public utility and benefit, and will promote the public health; and

(6) the proposed drainage ~~system~~ project is practicable.

(b) The order must contain the drainage authority's findings, adopt and confirm the viewers' report as made or amended, and establish the proposed drainage ~~system~~ project as reported and amended.

Sec. 82. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.345, is amended to read:

106A.345 [APPORTIONMENT OF COST FOR JOINT COUNTY DRAINAGE SYSTEMS.]

For joint county proceedings, the auditor where the petition is filed shall file a certified copy of the viewers' report with the auditor of each affected county within 20 days after the date of the final order establishing the system. When the final order to establish the drainage ~~system~~ project is made, the drainage authority shall determine and order the percentage of the cost of the drainage ~~system~~ project to be paid by each affected county. The cost shall be in proportion to the benefits received, unless there is a contrary reason. An auditor of an affected county may petition the drainage authority after the final order is made to determine and order the percentage of costs to be paid by the affected counties. The drainage authority shall hold a hearing five days after giving written notice to the auditor of each affected county. After giving the notice to the auditors of the affected counties, the drainage authority may, at any time that it is necessary, modify an order or make an additional order to allocate the cost among the affected counties.

Sec. 83. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.351, is amended to read:

106A.351 [REDETERMINATION OF BENEFITS AND DAMAGES.]

Subdivision 1. [CONDITIONS TO REDETERMINE BENEFITS AND DAMAGES; APPOINTMENT OF VIEWERS.] If the drainage authority determines that the original benefits or damages determined in a drainage proceeding do not reflect reasonable present day land values or that the benefited or damaged areas have changed, or if more than 50 percent of the property owners benefited or damaged by a drainage system petition for correction of an error that was made at the time of the proceedings that established the drainage system, the drainage authority may appoint three viewers to redetermine and report the benefits and damages and the benefited and damaged areas.

Subd. 2. [HEARING AND PROCEDURE.] ~~The drainage authority shall hold a hearing on the report and confirm the benefits and benefited areas.~~
(a) The redetermination of benefits and damages shall proceed as provided for viewers and the viewers' report in sections 106A.311 to 106A.321, ~~and for.~~

(b) The auditor must prepare a property owner's report from the viewer's report. A copy of the property owner's report must be mailed to all persons affected by the drainage system.

(c) The drainage authority shall hold a final hearing on the report and confirm the benefits and damages and benefited and damaged areas. The final hearing shall proceed as provided under sections 106A.325, 106A.335, and 106A.341, except that the hearing shall be held within 30 days after the property owner's report is mailed.

Subd. 3. [REDETERMINED BENEFITS AND DAMAGES REPLACE ORIGINAL BENEFITS AND DAMAGES.] The redetermined benefits and damages and benefited and damaged areas must be used in place of the original benefits and damages and benefited and damaged areas in all subsequent proceedings relating to the drainage system.

Subd. 4. [APPEAL.] A person aggrieved by the redetermination of benefits and damages and benefited and damaged areas may appeal from the order confirming the benefits and damages and benefited and damaged areas under section 106A.091.

Sec. 84. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.401, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXPRESS AUTHORITY NECESSARY.] After the construction of a drainage system project, a public or private drainage system that drains property not assessed for benefits for the established drainage system may not be constructed to use the established drainage system as an outlet without obtaining express authority from the drainage authority of the drainage system proposed to be used as the outlet. This section is applicable to the construction of a public or private drainage system that outlets water into an established drainage system regardless of the actual physical connection.

Sec. 85. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.401, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PAYMENT OF OUTLET FEE.] The outlet fee for a proposed drainage system project is a part of the cost of the proposed drainage system project and is to be paid by assessment against the property benefited by the proposed drainage system project, under section 106A.601, and credited to the established drainage system account.

Sec. 86. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.401, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [UNAUTHORIZED OUTLET INTO DRAINAGE SYSTEM.]
(a) The drainage authority must notify a property owner of an unauthorized outlet into a drainage system and direct the property owner to block the outlet or otherwise make the outlet ineffective by a specified time. The outlet must be blocked and remain ineffective until:

(1) an outlet fee is paid, which is determined by the drainage authority based on the benefits received by the property owner for the period the unauthorized outlet was operational; and

(2) the drainage authority approves a petition for the outlet and establishes the outlet fee.

(b) If a property owner does not block or make the outlet ineffective after being notified, the drainage authority must issue an order to have the work performed to bring the outlet into compliance. After the work is completed, the drainage authority must send a statement to the auditor of the county where the property is located and to the property owner containing the expenses incurred to bring the outlet into compliance and the outlet fee based on the benefits received by the property owner during the period the unauthorized outlet was operational.

Sec. 87. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.401, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [COLLECTION OF UNAUTHORIZED OUTLET COMPLIANCE EXPENSES.] (a) The amount of the expenses and outlet fee is a lien in favor of the drainage authority against the property where the unauthorized outlet is located. The auditor must certify the expenses and outlet fee and enter the amount in the same manner as other drainage liens on the tax list for the following year. The amount must be collected in the same manner as real estate taxes for the property. The provisions of law relating to the collection of real estate taxes shall be used to enforce payment of amounts due under this section. The auditor must include a notice of collection of unauthorized outlet compliance expenses with the tax statement.

(b) The amounts collected under this subdivision must be deposited in the drainage system account.

Sec. 88. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.405, is amended to read:

106A.405 [OUTLETS IN ADJOINING STATES.]

In any drainage proceeding, at the hearing on the detailed survey report and viewers' report, if the drainage authority determines that a proper outlet for the drainage system does not exist, except through property in an adjoining state, the drainage authority may adjourn the hearing. If the hearing is adjourned the drainage authority shall require the auditor or, for a joint county drainage system, the auditors of affected counties to procure an option to acquire the needed right-of-way at an expense not exceeding the estimated cost specified in the detailed survey report. The order establishing the drainage ~~system~~ project may not be made until the option is procured. If the option is procured and the drainage ~~system~~ project established, the option shall be exercised and the cost of the right-of-way shall be paid as a part of the cost of the drainage ~~system~~ project.

Sec. 89. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.411, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [FILING; NOTICE.] (a) If proceedings to establish the drainage ~~system~~ project to be used as an outlet are pending, the petition must be filed with the auditor. The municipal drainage system petition must be presented to the drainage authority at the final hearing to consider the detailed survey report and viewers' report. Notice of the municipal drainage system petition must be included in the final hearing notice.

(b) If the drainage system to be used as an outlet is established, the municipal drainage system petition must be filed with the auditor. When the petition is filed, the drainage authority in consultation with the auditor shall, by order, set a time and place for hearing on the petition. Notice of the hearing must be given by publication and by mailed notice to the auditor of each affected county.

Sec. 90. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.411, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [HEARING AND ORDER.] (a) At the hearing the drainage authority may receive all evidence of interested parties for or against the granting of the petition. The drainage authority, by order, may authorize the municipality to use the drainage system as an outlet, subject to the conditions that are necessary and proper to protect the rights of the parties and safeguard the interests of the general public, if the drainage authority determines:

(1) that a necessity exists for the use of the drainage system as an outlet for the municipal drainage system or the overflow from the system;

(2) that use of the drainage system will be of public utility and promote the public health; and

(3) that the proposed connection conforms to the requirements of the pollution control agency and provides for the construction and use of proper disposal works.

(b) The drainage authority must, by order, make the municipality a party to the drainage proceedings and determine the benefits from using the drainage project or system as an outlet.

Sec. 91. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.501, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [CONTRACT PROVISIONS FOR CHANGES DURING CONSTRUCTION.] The contract must give the engineer the right, with the consent of the drainage authority, to modify the detailed survey report, plans, and specifications as the work proceeds and as circumstances require. The contract must provide that the increased cost resulting from the changes will be paid by the drainage authority to the contractor at a rate not greater than the amount for similar work in the contract. A change may not be made that will substantially impair the usefulness of any part of the drainage project or system, substantially alter its original character, or increase its total cost by more than ten percent of the total original contract price. A change may not be made that will cause the cost to exceed the total estimated benefits found by the drainage authority, or that will cause any detrimental effects to the public interest under section 106A.015, subdivision 1.

Sec. 92. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.501, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [GUARANTY OF TILE WORK.] If tile is used to construct any part of the drainage ~~system~~ project, a majority of the persons affected may file a written request with the auditor to contract the tile work separately. The request must be filed before advertising for the sale of the work has begun. If the request is properly made, the tile work must be contracted separately. The contractor must guarantee the tile work under the contract for three years after its completion against any fault or negligence on the part of the contractor. The advertisement for bids must include this requirement.

Sec. 93. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.501, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [MODIFICATION OF CONTRACT BY AGREEMENT.] This chapter does not prevent the persons with property affected by the construction of a drainage ~~system~~ project from uniting in a written agreement with the contractor and the surety of the contractor's bond to modify the contract as to the manner or time when any portion of the drainage ~~system~~ project is constructed, if the modification is recommended, in writing, by the engineer and approved by the drainage authority.

Sec. 94. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.505, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AUDITORS AND DRAINAGE AUTHORITY TO PRO-

CEED.] Thirty days after the order establishing a drainage system project is filed, the auditor and the drainage authority or, for a joint county drainage system project, a majority of the auditors of the affected counties shall proceed to award the contract to construct the drainage system project.

Sec. 95. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.505, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PENDING APPEAL OF BENEFITS AND DAMAGES.] If an appeal regarding the determination of benefits and damages is made within 30 days after the order establishing the drainage system project has been filed, a contract may not be awarded until the appeal has been determined, unless the drainage authority orders the contract awarded. The auditor of an affected county or an interested person may request the drainage authority to make the order. If the request is not made by an affected auditor, the auditors of affected counties must be given notice five days before the hearing on the request.

Sec. 96. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.505, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [NOTICE OF CONTRACT AWARDING.] The auditor of an affected county shall give notice of the awarding of the contract by publication in a newspaper in the county. The notice must state the time and location for awarding the contract. For a joint county drainage system project the auditors shall award the contract at the office of the auditor where the proceedings are pending. If the estimated cost of construction is more than $3,000, the auditor must also place a notice in a drainage construction trade paper. The trade paper notice must state:

- (1) the time and location for awarding the contract;
- (2) the approximate amount of work and its estimated cost;
- (3) that bids may be for the work as one job, or in sections, or separately, for bridges, ditches and open work, tile, or tile construction work, if required or advisable;
- (4) that each bid must be accompanied by a certified check or a bond furnished by an approved surety corporation payable to the auditors of affected counties for ten percent of the bid, as security that the bidder will enter into a contract and give a bond as required by section 106A.501; and
- (5) that the drainage authority reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

Sec. 97. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.505, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [AFFECTED COUNTIES CONTRACT THROUGH AUDITOR.] The chair of the drainage authority and the auditor of each affected county shall contract, in the names of their respective counties, to construct the drainage system project in the time and manner and according to the plans and specifications and the contract provisions in this chapter.

Sec. 98. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.505, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [WORK DONE BY FEDERAL GOVERNMENT.] If any of the drainage work is to be done by the United States or its agencies, a notice of awarding that contract does not need to be published and a contract for that construction is not necessary. Affected municipalities may contract or arrange with the United States or its agencies for cooperation or assistance in constructing, maintaining, and operating the drainage project and system, for control of waters in the district, or for making a survey and investigation or reports on the drainage project or system. The municipalities may provide required guaranty and protection to the United States or its agencies.

Sec. 99. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.511, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CONDITIONS TO USE PROCEDURE IN THIS SECTION.] The procedure in this section may be used if, after a drainage system is established:

(1) the only bids received are for more than 30 percent in excess of the engineer's estimated cost, or in excess of the benefits, less damages and other costs; or

(2) a contract is awarded, but due to unavoidable delays not caused by the contractor, the contract cannot be completed for an amount equal to or less than the benefits, less damages and other costs.

Sec. 100. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.511, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PETITION AFTER COST ESTIMATE ERROR OR CHANGE TO LOWER COST.] A person interested in the drainage system project may petition the drainage authority if the person determines that the engineer made an error in the estimate of the drainage system project cost or that the plans and specifications could be changed in a manner materially affecting the cost of the drainage system without interfering with the efficiency. The petition must state the person's determinations and request that the detailed survey report and viewers' report be referred back to the engineer and to the viewers for additional consideration.

Sec. 101. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.511, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PETITION AFTER EXCESSIVE COST DUE TO INFLATION.] (a) A person interested in the drainage system project may petition the drainage authority for an order to reconsider the detailed survey report and viewers' report if the person determines:

(1) that bids were received only for a price more than 30 percent in excess of the detailed survey report estimate because inflation increased the construction cost between the time of the detailed survey cost estimate and the time of awarding the contract; or

(2) that after the contract was awarded there was unavoidable delay not caused by the contractor, and between the time of awarding the contract and completion of construction inflation increased construction costs resulting in the contract not being completed for an amount equal to or less than the assessed benefits.

(b) The person may request in the petition that the drainage authority reconsider the original cost estimate in the detailed survey report and viewers' report and adjust the cost estimate consistent with the increased construction cost.

Sec. 102. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.511, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [HEARING ON COST PETITION.] (a) At the hearing the drainage authority shall consider the petition and hear all interested parties.

(b) The drainage authority may, by order, authorize the engineer to amend the detailed survey report, if the drainage authority determines that:

(1) the detailed survey report cost estimate was erroneous and should be corrected;

(2) the plans and specifications could be changed in a manner materially affecting the cost of the drainage ~~system~~ project without interfering with the efficiency; and

(3) with the correction or modification a contract could be awarded within the 30 percent limitation and equal to or less than benefits.

(c) If the drainage authority determines that the amended changes affect the amount of benefits or damages to any property or that the benefits should be reexamined because of inflated land values or inflated construction costs, it shall refer the viewers' report to the viewers to reexamine the benefits and damages.

(d) The drainage authority may, by order, direct the engineer and viewers to amend their detailed survey report and viewers' report to consider the inflationary cost increases if the drainage authority determines that:

(1) bids were not received; or

(2) because of inflationary construction cost increases, construction under the awarded contract cannot be completed for 30 percent or less over the detailed survey cost estimate or in excess of the benefits, less damages and other costs.

(e) The drainage authority may continue the hearing to give the engineer or viewers additional time to amend the reports. The jurisdiction of the drainage authority continues at the adjourned hearing.

(f) The drainage authority has full authority to consider the amended reports and make findings and orders. A party may appeal to the district court under section 106A.091, subdivision 1.

Sec. 103. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.515, is amended to read:

106A.515 [DAMAGES, PAYMENT.]

The board of each county where the damaged property is located must order the awarded damages to be paid, less any assessment against the property, before the property is entered for construction of the drainage ~~system~~ project. If a county or a municipality that is awarded damages requests it, the assessment may not be deducted. If there is an appeal, the damages may not be paid until the final determination. If it is not clear who is entitled to the damages, the board may pay the damages to the court administrator of the district court of the county. The court shall direct the court administrator, by order, to pay the parties entitled to the damages.

Sec. 104. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.525, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ROAD AUTHORITY RESPONSIBLE FOR CONSTRUCTION.] Bridges and culverts on public roads required by the construction or improvement of a drainage project or system must be constructed and maintained by the road authority responsible for keeping the road in repair, except as provided in this section.

Sec. 105. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.525, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [NOTICE; CHANGING COST.] The auditor shall notify the state and each railroad company, corporation, or political subdivision that they are to construct a required bridge or culvert on a road or right-of-way under its jurisdiction, within a reasonable time in the notice. If the work is not done within the prescribed time, the drainage authority may order the bridge or culvert constructed as part of the drainage ~~system~~ project construction. The cost must be deducted from the damages awarded to the corporation or collected from it as an assessment for benefits. If the detailed survey report or viewers' report shows that the construction of the bridge or culvert is necessary, the drainage authority may, by order, retain an amount to secure the construction of the bridge or culvert from amounts to be paid to a railroad, corporation, or political subdivision.

Sec. 106. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.525, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [CONSTRUCTION ON LINE BETWEEN TWO CITIES PAID EQUALLY.] The costs of constructing a bridge or culvert that is required by construction of a drainage ~~system~~ project on a public road that is not a state trunk highway on the line between two statutory or home rule charter cities, whether in the same county or not, must be paid jointly, in equal shares, by the cities. The cities shall pay jointly, in equal shares, for the cost of maintaining the bridge or culvert.

Sec. 107. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.541, is amended to read:

106A.541 [EXTENSION OF TIME ON CONTRACTS.]

The auditors of affected counties may extend the time for the performance of a contract as provided in this section. The contractor may apply, in writing, for an extension of the contract. Notice of the application must be given to: (1) the engineer and the attorney for the petitioners; and (2) for a joint county drainage ~~system~~ project, to the auditors of the affected counties. The auditors may grant an extension if sufficient reasons are shown. The extension does not affect a claim for liquidated damages that may arise after the original time expires and before an extension or a claim that may arise after the time for the extension expires.

Sec. 108. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.555, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [HEARING.] At the hearing the drainage authority may, by order, direct payment of the balance due if it determines that the contract has been completed in accordance with the plans and specifications. If good cause is shown, the drainage authority may waive any part of the liquidated damages accruing under the contract. When the order is filed, the auditor shall draw a warrant on the treasurer of the county for the balance due on the contract. For a joint county drainage project or system the auditor shall make an order to the auditors of the affected counties to pay for their proportionate shares of the balance due on the contract. After receiving the order, the auditor of each affected county shall draw a warrant on the treasurer of the county for the amount specified in the order.

Sec. 109. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.601, is amended to read:

106A.601 [DRAINAGE LIEN STATEMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [DETERMINATION OF PROPERTY LIABILITY.] When the contract for the construction of a drainage system project is awarded, the auditor of an affected county shall make a statement showing the total cost of the drainage system project with the estimated cost of all items required to complete the work. The cost must be prorated to each tract of property affected in direct proportion to the benefits. The cost, less any damages, is the amount of liability for each tract for the drainage system project. The property liability must be shown in the tabular statement under subdivision 2, opposite the property owner's name and description of each tract of property. The amount of liability on a tract of property for establishment and construction of a drainage system project may not exceed the benefits determined in the proceedings that accrue to the tract.

Subd. 2. [DRAINAGE LIEN STATEMENT.] The auditor of each affected county shall make a lien statement in tabular form showing:

(1) the names of the property owners, corporate entities, or political subdivisions of the county benefited or damaged by the construction of the drainage system project in the viewers' report as approved by the final order for establishment;

(2) the description of the property in the viewers' report, and the total number of acres in each tract according to the county tax lists;

(3) the number of acres benefited or damaged in each tract shown in the viewers' report;

(4) the amount of benefits and damages to each tract of property as stated in the viewers' report and confirmed by the final order that established the drainage system project unless the order is appealed and a different amount is set; and

(5) the amount each tract of property will be liable for and must pay ~~into~~ to the county ~~treasury~~ for the establishment and construction of the drainage system project.

Subd. 3. [SUPPLEMENTAL DRAINAGE LIEN STATEMENT.] If any items of the cost of the drainage system project have been omitted from the original drainage lien statement, a supplemental drainage lien statement with the omitted items must be made and recorded in the same manner provided for a drainage lien statement. The total amount of the original drainage lien and any supplemental drainage liens may not exceed the benefits.

Subd. 4. [RECORDING DRAINAGE LIEN STATEMENT.] The lien against property in the drainage lien statement and supplemental drainage lien statements must be certified by the auditor and recorded on each tract by the county recorder of the county where the tract is located. The county recorder's fees for recording must be paid ~~on allowance~~ if allowed by the board. The drainage lien statement and any supplemental drainage lien statements, after recording, must be returned and preserved by the auditor.

Sec. 110. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.605, is amended to read:

106A.605 [EFFECT OF FILED DRAINAGE LIEN.]

The amount recorded ~~on~~ from the drainage lien statement and supplemental drainage lien statement that each tract of property will be liable for, and the interest allowed on that amount, is a drainage lien on the property. The drainage lien is a first and paramount lien until fully paid, and has priority over all mortgages, charges, encumbrances, and other liens, unless the board subordinates the drainage lien to ~~easements~~ liens of record. The recording of the drainage lien, drainage lien statement, or a supplemental drainage lien statement is notice to all parties of the existence of the drainage lien.

Sec. 111. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.611, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [INTEREST.] (a) Interest is an additional drainage lien on all property until paid. The interest rate on the drainage lien principal from the date the drainage lien statement is recorded must be set by the board, but may not exceed ~~seven percent per year from the date the drainage lien statement is recorded~~ the rate determined by the state court administrator for judgments under section 549.09.

(b) Before the tax lists for the year are given to the county treasurer, the auditor shall compute the interest on the unpaid balance of the drainage lien at the rate set by the board. The amount of interest must be computed on the entire unpaid principal from the date the drainage lien was recorded to August 15 of the next calendar year, and afterwards from August 15 to August 15 of each year.

(c) Interest is due and payable after November 1 of each year the drainage lien principal or interest is due and unpaid.

Sec. 112. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.611, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COLLECTION OF PAYMENTS.] Interest and any installment due must be entered on the tax lists for the year. The installment and interest must be collected in the same manner as real estate taxes for that year by collecting one-half of the total of the installment and interest with and as a part of the real estate taxes ~~on or before May 15 and one-half on or before October 15 of the next year.~~

Sec. 113. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.611, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [DRAINAGE LIEN RECORD.] The auditor shall keep a drainage lien record for each drainage project and system showing the amount of the drainage lien remaining unpaid against each tract of property.

Sec. 114. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.611, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [COLLECTION AND ENFORCEMENT OF DRAINAGE LIENS.] The provisions of law that exist relating to the collection of real estate taxes are adopted to enforce payment of drainage liens. If there is a default, a penalty may not be added to an installment of principal and interest, but each defaulted payment, principal, and interest draws interest from the date of default until paid at ~~seven percent per year~~ the rate determined by the state court administrator for judgments under section 549.09.

Sec. 115. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.615, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [ASSESSMENT FOR VACATED TOWN ROADS.] If a town is assessed for benefits to a town road in a drainage ~~system~~ project proceeding under this chapter and the town road is later vacated by the town board under section 164.07, the town board may petition the drainage authority to cancel the assessment. The drainage authority may cancel the assessment if it finds that the town road for which benefits are assessed has been vacated under section 164.07.

Sec. 116. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.615, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [RAILROAD AND UTILITY PROPERTY.] Property owned by a railroad or other utility corporation benefited by a drainage ~~system~~ project is liable for the assessments of benefits on the property as other taxable property. From the date the drainage lien is recorded, the amount of the assessment with interest is a lien against all property of the corporation within the county. Upon default the assessment may be collected by civil action or the drainage lien may be foreclosed by action in the same manner as provided by law for the foreclosure of mortgage liens. The county where the drainage lien is filed has the right of action against the corporation to enforce and collect the assessment.

Sec. 117. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.635, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY.] After the contract for the construction of a drainage ~~system~~ project is awarded, the board of an affected county may issue the bonds of the county in an amount necessary to pay the cost of establishing and constructing the drainage ~~system~~ project.

Sec. 118. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.635, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [BOND RECITAL.] Each drainage bond, temporary drainage bond, and definitive drainage bond must contain a recital that it is issued by authority of and in strict accordance with this chapter. The recital is conclusive in favor of the holders of the bonds as against the county, that the drainage ~~system~~ project has been properly established, that property within the county is subject to assessment for benefits in an amount not less than the amount of the bonds, and that all proceedings and construction relative to the drainage systems financed by the bonds have been or will be made according to law.

Sec. 119. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.645, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [PAYMENT.] The fees and expenses provided for in this chapter for a drainage project or system in one county must be audited, allowed, and paid by order of the board or for a drainage project or system in more than one county must be audited, allowed, and paid by order of the drainage authority after ten days' written notice to each affected county. The notice must be given by the auditor to the auditors of affected counties. The notice must state the time and location of the hearing and that all bills on file with the auditor at the date of the notice must be presented for hearing and allowance.

Sec. 120. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.651, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FUNDS FOR DRAINAGE SYSTEM COSTS.] The board shall provide funds to pay the costs of drainage projects and systems.

Sec. 121. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.655, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PAYMENT MADE FROM DRAINAGE SYSTEM ACCOUNT.] The costs for a drainage ~~system~~ project proceeding and construction must be paid from the drainage system account by drawing on the account.

Sec. 122. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.701, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITION.] The term "repair," as used in this section, means to restore all or a part of a drainage system as nearly as practicable to the same condition as ~~when~~ originally constructed ~~or~~ and subsequently improved, including resloping of ditches and leveling of waste banks if necessary to prevent further deterioration, realignment to original construction if necessary to restore the effectiveness of the drainage system, and routine operations that may be required to remove obstructions and maintain the efficiency of the drainage system.

Sec. 123. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.701, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [REPAIRS AFFECTING PUBLIC WATERS.] Before a repair is ordered, the drainage authority must notify the commissioner of a repair that may affect public waters. If the commissioner disagrees with the repair depth, the engineer, a representative appointed by the director, and a soil and water conservation district technician must jointly determine the repair depth using soil borings, field surveys, and other available data or appropriate methods. Costs for developing the recommended depth beyond the initial meeting must be shared equally by the drainage system and the commissioner. The determined repair depth must be recommended to the drainage authority. The drainage authority may accept the joint recommendation and proceed with the repair.

Sec. 124. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.705, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [INSPECTION.] After the construction of a drainage system has been completed, the drainage authority shall maintain the drainage system that is located in its jurisdiction including grass strips under section 106A.021 and provide the repairs necessary to make the drainage system efficient. The drainage authority shall have the drainage system inspected ~~annually~~ on a regular basis by an inspection committee of the drainage authority or a drainage inspector appointed by the drainage authority.

Subd. 1a. [GRASS STRIP INSPECTION AND COMPLIANCE NOTICE.] (a) The drainage authority having jurisdiction over a drainage system must inspect the drainage system for violations of section 106A.021. If an inspection committee of the drainage authority or a drainage inspector determines that strips are not being maintained in compliance with section 106A.021, a compliance notice must be sent to the property owner.

(b) The notice must state:

(1) the date the ditch was inspected;

(2) the persons making the inspection;

(3) that spoil banks are to be spread in a manner consistent with the plan and function of the drainage system and the drainage system has acquired a grass strip 16-1/2 feet in width or to the crown of the spoil bank, whichever is greater;

(4) the violations of section 106A.021;

(5) the measures that must be taken by the property owner to comply with section 106A.021 and the date when the property must be in compliance; and

(6) that if the property owner does not comply by the date specified, the drainage authority will perform the work necessary to bring the area into compliance with section 106A.021 and charge the cost of the work to the property owner.

(c) If a property owner does not bring an area into compliance with section 106A.021 as provided in the compliance notice, the inspection committee or drainage inspector must notify the drainage authority.

(d) This subdivision applies to property acquired under section 106A.021.

Subd. 2. [DRAINAGE INSPECTOR REPORT.] For each drainage system that the board designates and requires the drainage inspector to examine, the drainage inspector shall make a drainage inspection report in writing to the board after examining a drainage system, designating portions that need repair or maintenance of grass strips and the location and nature of the repair or maintenance. The board shall consider the drainage inspection report at its next meeting and may repair all or any part of the drainage system as provided under this chapter. The grass strips must be maintained in compliance with section 106A.021.

Subd. 3. [INSPECTION REPORT TO DRAINAGE AUTHORITY.] If the inspection committee or drainage inspector reports, in writing, to the drainage authority that maintenance of grass strips or repairs are necessary on a drainage system and the report is approved by the drainage authority, the maintenance or repairs must be made under this section.

Subd. 4. [REPAIRS LESS THAN ~~$20,000~~ $50,000.] If the drainage authority finds that the estimated cost of repairs and maintenance of one drainage system for one year will be less than ~~$20,000~~ the greater of $50,000 or $1,000 per mile of open ditch in the ditch system, it may have the repair work done by hired labor and equipment without advertising for bids or entering into a contract for the repair work.

Subd. 5. [ANNUAL REPAIR ASSESSMENT LEVY LIMITS.] The drainage authority may give notice of and hold a hearing on the repair levy before ordering the levy of an assessment for repairs. In one calendar year the drainage authority may not levy an assessment for repairs or maintenance on one drainage system for more than 20 percent of the benefits of the drainage system, $1,000 per mile of open ditch in the ditch system, or ~~$20,000~~ $50,000, whichever is greater, except for a repair made after a disaster under subdivision 6 or under the petition procedure.

Subd. 6. [REPAIR AND CONSTRUCTION AFTER DISASTER.] The drainage authority may repair and reconstruct the drainage system without advertising for bids and without regard to the ~~$20,000~~ $1,000 per mile of open ditch or $50,000 limitation if:

(1) a drainage system is destroyed or impaired by floods, natural disaster, or unforeseen circumstances;

(2) the area where the drainage system is located has been declared a disaster area by the President of the United States and federal funds are available for repair or reconstruction; and

(3) the public interests would be damaged by repair or reconstruction being delayed.

Sec. 125. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.715, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [REPAIR BY RESLOPING DITCHES, LEVELING WASTE BANKS, INSTALLING EROSION CONTROL AND REMOVING TREES.]

(a) For a drainage system that is to be repaired by resloping ditches, leveling waste banks, installing erosion control measures, or removing trees, before ordering the repair, the drainage authority must appoint viewers to assess and report on damages and benefits if it determines that:

(1) ~~that~~ the resloping, leveling, ~~and~~ installing erosion control measures or tree removal will require the taking of any property not contemplated and included in the original proceeding for the establishment of the drainage system; ~~and~~

(2) ~~that~~ any waste bank leveling will directly benefit property where the bank leveling is specified; ~~and~~

(3) the installation of erosion control measures will aid the long-term efficiency of the drainage system.

(b) The viewers shall assess and report damages and benefits as provided by sections 106A.315 and 106A.321 ~~and~~. The drainage authority shall hear and determine the damages and benefits as provided in sections 106A.325, 106A.335, and 106A.341. The hearing shall be held within 30 days after the property owners' report is mailed. Damages must be paid as provided by section 106A.315 as a part of the cost of the repair, and benefits must be added to the benefits previously determined as the basis for the pro rata assessment for the repair of the drainage system for the repair proceeding only.

Sec. 126. [106A.728] [APPORTIONMENT OF REPAIR COSTS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] The cost of repairing a drainage system shall be apportioned pro rata on all property and entities that have been assessed benefits for the drainage system except as provided in this section.

Subd. 2. [ADDITIONAL ASSESSMENT FOR AGRICULTURAL PRACTICES ON GRASS STRIP] (a) The drainage authority may, after notice and hearing, charge an additional assessment on property that has agricultural practices on or otherwise violates provisions related to the permanent grass strip acquired under section 106A.021.

(b) The drainage authority may determine the cost of the repair per mile of open ditch on the ditch system. Property that is in violation of the grass requirement shall be assessed a cost of 20 percent of the repair cost per open ditch mile multiplied by the length of open ditch in miles on the property in violation.

(c) After the amount of the additional assessment is determined and applied to the repair cost, the balance of the repair cost may be apportioned pro rata as provided in subdivision 1.

Subd. 3. [SOIL LOSS VIOLATIONS.] The drainage authority after notice and hearing may make special assessments on property that is in violation of a county soil loss ordinance.

Sec. 127. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.731, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [~~APPORTIONMENT REPAIR COST OF ASSESSMENTS.~~] If there is not enough money in the drainage system account to make a repair, the board shall ~~apportion and~~ assess the costs of the repairs ~~pro rata~~ on all property and entities that have been assessed benefits for the drainage system.

Sec. 128. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.741, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [PROPERTY BENEFITED IN HEARING ORDER INCLUDED IN FUTURE PROCEEDINGS.] For the repair of the drainage system under this section that included the property that was not assessed and in all future proceedings relating to repairing, cleaning, improving, or altering the drainage system, the property benefited in the viewers' report hearing is part of the property benefited by the drainage system and must be assessed, in the same manner provided for the assessment of the property originally assessed for and included in the drainage system.

Sec. 129. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.811, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PETITIONERS.] A petition must be signed by at least 51 percent of the ~~resident~~ property owners assessed for the construction of the drainage system or by the owners of not less than 51 percent of the area of the property assessed for the drainage system. For the purpose of the petition, the county is the resident owner of all tax-forfeited property held by the state and assessed benefits for the drainage system, and the board may execute the petition for the county as a ~~resident~~ an owner.

Sec. 130. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.811, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [FILING PETITION; JURISDICTION.] If all property assessed for benefits in the drainage system is in one county, the petition must be filed with the auditor unless the petition is signed by the board, in which case the petition must be made to the district court of the county and filed with the court administrator ~~of court~~. If property assessed for benefits is in two or more counties, the petition must be filed with the auditor. When the petition is filed, the drainage authority in consultation with the auditor, or the court administrator with the approval of the court, shall set a time and location for a hearing on the petition. The auditor or court administrator shall give notice by publication of the time and location of the abandonment hearing to all persons interested. The drainage authority or the district court where the petition is properly filed has jurisdiction of the petition.

Sec. 131. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 106A.811, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [ABANDONMENT HEARING.] (a) At the hearing, the drainage authority or court shall examine the petition and determine whether it is sufficient and shall hear all interested parties.

(b) If a property owner assessed benefits for the drainage system appears and makes a written objection to the abandonment of the drainage system, the drainage authority or court shall appoint three disinterested persons as viewers to examine the property and report to the drainage authority or court. The hearing must be adjourned to make the examination and report and a date set to reconvene. The viewers, if appointed, shall proceed to examine the property of the objecting owner and report as soon as possible to the drainage authority or court with the description and situation of the property and whether the drainage system drains or otherwise affects the property.

(c) ~~At~~ When the adjourned hearing is reconvened, the drainage authority or court shall consider the viewers' report and all evidence offered, and:

(1) if the drainage authority determines that the drainage system serves any useful purpose to any property or the general public, the petition for abandonment must be denied; or

(2) if the drainage authority determines that the drainage system does not serve any useful purpose to any affected property and is not of public benefit and utility, the drainage authority or court shall make findings and shall, by order, abandon the drainage system.

Sec. 132. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 112.431, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) For the purpose of this section the terms defined in this subdivision have the meanings ascribed to them.

(b) "Drainage system" ~~means a ditch as defined by~~ has the meaning given in section 106A.005, subdivision 11.

(c) "Watershed district" means any watershed district established pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, wholly or partially in a metropolitan county.

(d) "Metropolitan county" means any one of the following counties: Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott or Washington.

(e) "Metropolitan area" means the combined area of the metropolitan counties.

Sec. 133. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 112.48, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. After the overall plan of the district has been prescribed by the board, as provided in section 112.46, a petition may be filed with the managers for any project within the district conforming in general with the plan. The petition must be signed:

(1) by not less than 25 percent of the ~~resident freeholders property owners~~, or by the owners of more than 25 percent of the land within the limits of the area proposed to be improved, unless the project consists of the establishment of a new drainage system as defined in ~~sections 106A.005 to 106A.811~~ under chapter 106A or the improvement of an existing drainage system;

(2) by a majority of the ~~resident~~ owners of the land over which the proposed project passes or is located, or by the owners of at least 60 percent of the area of the land, if the project consists of the establishment of a new drainage system as defined in ~~sections 106A.005 to 106A.811~~ under chap- ter 106A;

(3) by not less than 26 percent of the ~~resident~~ owners of the property affected by the proposed project or over which the proposed project passes or by the owners of not less than 26 percent of the area affected or over which the proposed project passes if the project consists of the improvement of an existing drainage system as defined in ~~sections 106A.005 to 106A.811~~ under chapter 106A;

(4) by a county board of any county affected; or

(5) by the governing body of any city lying wholly or partly within the area proposed to be improved; provided that if the proposed project affects lands exclusively within a city, the petition shall originate from the governing body of the city.

For the purpose of this subdivision, holders of easements for electric or telephone transmission or distribution lines are not considered ~~freeholders~~ or owners.

The petition shall contain the following:

(a) a description of the proposed project, and the purpose to be accomplished;

(b) a description of the lands over which the proposed project passes or is located;

(c) a general description of the part of the district which will be affected, if less than the entire district;

(d) the need and necessity for the proposed improvement;

(e) that the proposed project will be conducive to public health, convenience, and welfare;

(f) a statement that the petitioners will pay all costs and expenses which may be incurred in case the proceedings are dismissed or for any reason no construction contract is let for the project.

Sec. 134. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 112.59, is amended to read:

112.59 [CONTROL OF CONTRACTS.]

In all cases where contracts are let by the managers, they shall have full control of all matters pertaining thereto. If a contractor fails to complete the improvement within the time or in the manner specified in the contract, the managers may extend the time for completion or may refuse an extension of time or may cancel the contract and readvertise and relet the contract. They may require the surety for the contractor to complete the improvement or proceed to have the contract otherwise completed at the expense of the contractor and the surety. They may take such other action with reference thereto that the occasion may require in the interest of the district. The provisions of ~~sections 106A.005 to 106A.811~~ chapter 106A, so far as pertinent, apply to and govern the relations between the engineer and the contractor, including the examination and report of the engineer and the amount and time of payment. The managers shall keep an accurate account of all expenses incurred, which shall include the compensation of the engineer and the assistants, the compensation and expenses of the appraisers as provided in section 112.50, the compensation of petitioners' attorney, the cost of petitioners' bond, the fees of all county officials necessitated by the improvement which shall be in addition to all fees otherwise allowed by law, and the time and expenses of all employees of the district, including the expenses of the managers while engaged in any improvement. The fees and expenses provided for herein shall be audited, allowed and paid upon the order of the managers and shall be charged to and be treated as a part of the cost of the improvement.

Sec. 135. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 112.60, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Upon the filing by the managers with the auditor of any county of a statement listing the property and corporations benefited or damaged or otherwise affected by any improvement as found by the appraisers and approved by the managers, the auditor shall assess the amount specified in such list against the lands and municipalities or other corporations as therein specified in accordance with the pertinent provisions of ~~sections 106A.005 to 106A.811~~ chapter 106A.

Sec. 136. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 112.65, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The managers of a district shall take over when directed by the ~~district court or county board or joint county drainage authority~~ any ~~judicial or county or joint county~~ drainage system within the district, together with the right to repair and maintain the same. Such transfer may be initiated by the ~~district court joint county drainage authority or county board~~, or such transfer may be initiated by a petition from any person having an interest in the drainage system or by the managers. No such transfer shall be made until the ~~district court joint county drainage authority or county board~~ has held a hearing thereon. Due notice of the proposed transfer together with the time and place of hearing shall be given by two weeks published notice in a legal newspaper of general circulation in the area involved. All interested persons may appear and be heard. Following the hearing, the ~~district court joint county drainage authority or county board~~ shall make its order directing that the managers of a district take over the affected ~~judicial joint county or county~~ drainage system, unless it appears that the ~~take over~~ takeover would not be in the public welfare or public interest and would not serve the purpose of this chapter. When the transfer is directed all proceedings for repair and maintenance shall thereafter conform to the provisions of ~~sections 106A.005 to 106A.811~~ chapter 106A.

Sec. 137. [FEDERAL 404 PERMITTING AUTHORITY REPORT.]

The commissioner of natural resources shall, in cooperation with the Minnesota department of agriculture, the Minnesota pollution control agency, Minnesota association of watershed district managers, and the association of Minnesota counties, prepare a report relating to state assumption of the federal permitting program under United States Code, title 33, section 1344. The report must include:

- (1) analyses of what types of activities and resources would be involved;*
- (2) environmental protection agency and United States Army Corps of Engineers' conditions for state permitting;*
- (3) analyses of the costs for state administration and alternative funding strategies;*
- (4) recommendations on the appropriate roles for state agencies and local government in administration of the program; and*

(5) the necessary changes in current legislation to facilitate administration of the program.

The commissioner of natural resources must submit the report to the legislature and governor by October 1, 1988.

Sec. 138. [RENUMBERING SECTIONS.]

The revisor of statutes shall renumber each section of Minnesota Statutes specified in column A with the numbers set forth in column B. The revisor shall also make necessary cross-reference changes consistent with the renumbering.

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The Minnesota grown matching account is established as a separate account in the state treasury. The account shall be administered by the commissioner of agriculture as provided in this section.

Subd. 2. [FUNDING SOURCES.] The Minnesota grown matching account shall consist of contributions from private sources and appropriations.

Subd. 3. [APPROPRIATIONS MUST BE MATCHED BY PRIVATE FUNDS.] (a) Appropriations to the Minnesota grown matching account may be expended only to the extent that they are matched with contributions to the account from private sources as provided in paragraph (b) for fiscal years 1988 and 1989. Appropriations to the account that are not matched by the end of the fiscal year of the appropriation cancel to the general fund.

(b) Private contributions shall be matched on a basis of four to one for the first $50,000 of private contributions. Matching funds are not available after the first $50,000 of private contributions in each fiscal year. Private contributions made from January 1, 1987, until the end of fiscal year 1987 shall be matched by the appropriation for fiscal year 1988.

Subd. 4. [EXPENDITURES.] The amount in the Minnesota grown matching account that is matched by private contributions and the private contributions are appropriated to the commissioner of agriculture for promotion of products using the Minnesota grown logo and labeling.

Sec. 3. [APPROPRIATION.]

Subdivision 1. [MINNESOTA GROWN MARKETING ACCOUNT.] $400,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the Minnesota grown marketing account to be available in the amounts for the fiscal years indicated

1988	1989

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 92.67, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [TIMING OF SALES.] (a) The commissioner shall offer lake-shore cabin site lots for sale pursuant to written request and in accordance with the following schedule:

(1) as to requests received before January 1, 1987, the sale shall be held ~~in June, July, or August 1987~~ not later than by October 31, 1987, if possible. However, if a lot is not offered for sale by that date, the lot shall be offered for sale at the next sale in the next year;

(2) as to requests received each calendar year after December 31, 1986, the sale shall be held in June, July, or August of the year after the request is received.

(b) The last sales shall be held in 1992. Lots not sold the first year offered may be reoffered in a succeeding year, following reappraisal if it is determined necessary by the commissioner.

(c) If a person other than the lessee purchases the leased lakeshore cabin site, the purchaser must make payment in full to the lessee at the time of the sale for the appraised value of any improvements. Failure of a successful bidder to comply with this provision voids the sale and the property must be rebid, if possible, at the same sale.

Sec. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This act is effective the day following final enactment."

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 3.3005, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [OIL OVERCHARGE MONEYS.] Unless otherwise specifically appropriated by law, and in lieu of the procedure in subdivision 5, money received by the state resulting from litigation or settlements of alleged violations of federal pricing regulations must not be allotted for expenditure until the legislative advisory commission has recommended to the governor a plan for spending the money after review of recommendations from an advisory task force. The advisory task force shall consist of 15 members, five members appointed by the governor, five members appointed by the subcommittee on committees of the senate committee on rules and administration, and five members appointed by the speaker of the house. Members of the task force shall include representatives of local government, persons that have an interest in low-income weatherization, and professionals that work with energy-related research. The advisory task force must prepare and recommend to the commission a plan for allocation of the money after considering programs and activities that will reduce the consumption of fossil fuels within the state, including energy-related research.

Sec. 2. [APPROPRIATION.]

Subd. 14. [MANUFACTURING PROJECT.] "Manufacturing project" means ~~properties, real or personal, used in connection with a revenue~~ producing enterprise in connection with assembling, fabricating, manufacturing, mixing, or processing any products of agriculture, forestry, mining, or manufacture. Properties used for storing, warehousing, or distributing qualify under this definition (1) if they are used as part of or in connection with an assembly, fabricating, manufacturing, mixing, or processing facility, or (2) if they are used for the storing of agricultural products and are located outside of the metropolitan area, as defined in section 473.121, subdivision 2. Manufacturing project includes properties, real or personal, used in connection with research and development activity to develop or improve products, production processes, or materials. For purposes of this subdivision, "a product of manufacture" includes information and directions which dictate the functions to be performed by data processing equipment, commonly called computer software, regardless of whether they are embodied in or recorded on tangible personal property. A project qualifies as a manufacturing project only if 75 percent of the proceeds of the proposed obligations will be used for construction, acquisition, installation, or addition of properties described in this subdivision any facility which is used in the manufacturing or production of tangible personal property, including the processing resulting in a change in the condition of the property.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.02, subdivision 16, is amended to read:

Subd. 16. [MULTIFAMILY HOUSING PROJECT POOL.] "Multifamily housing project pool" means a development defined in section 462C.02, subdivision 5, for which the applicable housing plan and program approval requirements of chapter 462C have been met the amount of the annual volume cap allocated under section 27, which is available for the issuance of residential rental project bonds.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.02, subdivision 18, is amended to read:

Subd. 18. [NOTICE OF ENTITLEMENT ALLOCATION.] "Notice of entitlement allocation" means a notice provided to an entitlement issuer under section 474A.04, subdivision 5, or 474A.08 25, subdivision 2 5.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.02, subdivision 19, is amended to read:

Subd. 19. [OTHER ISSUER.] "Other issuer" means any an entity other than an entitlement issuer which may issue obligations subject to an annual volume cap, including but not limited to the University of Minnesota, any a city, any town, any federally recognized American Indian tribe or subdivision thereof located in Minnesota, any a housing and redevelopment authority referred to in chapter 462, or any a body authorized to exercise the powers of a housing and redevelopment authority, any a port authority referred to in chapter 458, or any a body authorized to exercise the powers of a port authority, any an economic development authority referred to in chapter 458C, an area or municipal redevelopment agency referred to in chapter 472, any a county, or any other municipal authority or agency established pursuant to under special law, or any an entity issuing on behalf of the foregoing.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 20a. [PERMANENTLY ISSUED.] Obligations are "permanently issued" if either (1) the obligations have been issued under terms and conditions such that the proceeds are available for the purpose for which they were issued, or (2) ten percent of the proceeds of the obligations, excluding costs of issuance, have been disbursed for the purpose for which they were issued.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.02, subdivision 21, is amended to read:

Subd. 21. [PRELIMINARY RESOLUTION.] "Preliminary resolution" means a resolution adopted by the governing body or board of the issuer, or in the case of the iron range resources and rehabilitation board by the commissioner. The resolution must express a preliminary intention of the issuer to issue obligations for a specific project and must identify the proposed project, and disclose the proposed amount of the obligations qualified bonds to be issued. Preliminary resolutions for mortgage bonds and student loan bonds need not identify a specific project.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 22a. [PUBLIC FACILITIES POOL.] "Public facilities pool" means the amount of the annual volume cap allocated under section 27, which is available for the issuance of public facility bonds or student loan bonds.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 23a. [QUALIFIED BONDS.] "Qualified bonds" means the specific type or types of obligations that are subject to the annual volume cap. Qualified bonds include the following types of obligations as defined in federal tax law:

(a) "public facility bonds" means "exempt facility bonds" as defined in federal tax law, except for residential rental project bonds, which are those obligations issued to finance airports, docks and wharves, mass commuting facilities, facilities for the furnishing of water, sewage facilities, solid waste disposal facilities, facilities for the local furnishing of electric energy or gas, local district heating or cooling facilities, and qualified hazardous waste facilities;

(b) "residential rental project bonds" which are those obligations issued to finance qualified residential rental projects;

(c) "mortgage bonds";

(d) "small issue bonds" issued to finance manufacturing projects;

(e) "student loan bonds";

(f) "redevelopment bonds"; and

(g) "governmental bonds" with a nonqualified amount in excess of $15,000,000 as set forth in section 141(b)5 of federal tax law.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.02, subdivision 26, is amended to read:

Subd. 26. [STATE ISSUER.] "State issuer" means the state of Minnesota; the iron range resources and rehabilitation board; or other agency, department, board, or commission of the state, which that is authorized to issue obligations and has statewide jurisdiction.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 26a. [UNIFIED POOL.] "Unified pool" means the amount of the annual volume cap allocated under section 29 that is available for the issuance of qualified bonds.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.03, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ANNUAL VOLUME CAP UNDER EXISTING FEDERAL TAX LAW; POOL ALLOCATIONS.] At the beginning of each calendar year after December 31, 1987, the ~~department~~ commissioner shall determine the aggregate dollar amount of the annual volume cap under ~~existing~~ federal tax law for the calendar year, and of this amount the ~~department~~ commissioner shall ~~determine~~ make the following amounts allocation:

(1) the amount that is allocated to entitlement issuers under section 474A.04 $74,000,000 to the manufacturing pool;

(2) the amount initially available for allocation through the pool under section 474A.05, which is the annual volume cap determined under this subdivision less the amount determined under clause (1) $30,000,000 to the multifamily housing pool; and

(3) the amount available for issuance of qualified mortgage bonds under section 474A.07 $21,000,000 to the public facilities pool; and

(4) amounts to be allocated as provided in section 23, subdivision 2a.

If the annual volume cap is greater or less than the amount of bonding authority allocated under clauses (1) to (4), the allocation must be adjusted so that each adjusted allocation is the same percentage of the annual volume cap as each original allocation is of the total bonding authority originally allocated.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [ENTITLEMENT ISSUER ALLOCATION.] (a) The commissioner shall make the following allocation to the Minnesota housing finance agency and the following cities:

(1) $50,000,000 per year to the Minnesota housing finance agency, less any amount received in the previous year under section 29, subdivision 6;

(2) $20,000,000 per year to the city of Minneapolis;

(3) $15,000,000 per year to the city of Saint Paul; and

(4) $3,000,000 to each of the cities of the first class located outside of the metropolitan area as defined in section 473.121, subdivision 2, or an amount equal to the amount of mortgage bonds or residential rental project bonds that the city permanently issued in the previous calendar year, whichever amount is less. The amount of an allocation provided under this clause is deducted from the allocations made under clauses (1), (2), and (3) in proportion to the total amount of allocations made in clauses (1), (2), and (3).

(b) Allocations provided under this subdivision must be used for mortgage bonds, mortgage credit certificates, or residential rental project bonds.

except that entitlement cities may also use their allocations for public facility bonds.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.04, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [ENTITLEMENT RESERVATIONS; CARRYFORWARD; DEDUCTION.] An entitlement issuer may retain any unused portion of its entitlement allocation after the first Monday in September if it has submitted to the department before the first Monday in September a letter stating its intent to issue obligations pursuant to its entitlement allocation before the end of the calendar year or within the time permitted under federal tax law. Except as provided in section 41, subdivision 2, paragraph (a), any amount returned by an entitlement issuer before the last Monday in October shall be reallocated through the multifamily housing pool. Any amount returned on or after the last Monday in October shall be reallocated under section 29. Beginning with entitlement allocations received in 1987 under Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.08, subdivision 1, paragraphs (2) and (3), there shall be deducted from an entitlement issuer's allocation for the subsequent year an amount equal to the entitlement allocation under which bonds are either not issued or carried forward under federal tax law. Except for the Minnesota housing finance agency, any amount of bonding authority that an entitlement issuer carries forward under federal tax law that is not permanently issued by the end of the succeeding calendar year shall be deducted from the entitlement allocation for that entitlement issuer for the next succeeding calendar year. Any amount deducted from an entitlement issuer's allocation under this subdivision shall be divided equally for allocation through the manufacturing pool and the multifamily housing pool.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.04, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [NOTICE OF ENTITLEMENT ALLOCATION.] As soon as possible in each calendar year, the ~~department~~ commissioner shall provide to each entitlement issuer a written notice of the amount of its entitlement allocation ~~under this section~~.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.04, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [ENTITLEMENT TRANSFERS.] An entitlement issuer may enter into an agreement with another entitlement issuer whereby the recipient entitlement issuer issues obligations pursuant to ~~issuance~~ bonding authority allocated to the original entitlement issuer under this section.

Sec. 27. [474A.061] [ALLOCATION OF MANUFACTURING, MULTIFAMILY HOUSING, AND PUBLIC FACILITIES POOLS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] An issuer may apply for an allocation under this section by submitting to the department an application on forms provided by the department, accompanied by (1) a preliminary resolution, (2) a statement of bond counsel that the proposed issue of obligations requires an allocation under this chapter, (3) the type of qualified bonds to be issued, and (4) an application deposit in the amount of one percent of the requested allocation before the last Monday in August, or in the amount of two percent of the requested allocation on or after the last Monday in August. An entitlement issuer may not apply for an allocation from the multifamily housing pool or from the public facilities pool unless it has permanently issued bonds equal to the amount of its entitlement allocation for the current year plus any amount of bonding authority carried forward from previous years.

Subd. 2. [ALLOCATION PROCEDURE.] From the beginning of the calendar year until the last Monday in October, the commissioner shall allocate available bonding authority under this section on Monday of each week to applications received on or before the Monday of the preceding week.

(a) If there are two or more applications for residential rental project bonds from the multifamily housing pool and there is insufficient bonding authority to provide allocations for all projects in any one week after all eligible bonding authority has been transferred as provided in section 28, the available bonding authority shall be awarded by lot unless otherwise agreed to by the respective issuers.

(b) If there are two or more applications for small issue bonds from the manufacturing pool and there is insufficient bonding authority to provide allocations for all projects in any one week after all eligible bonding authority has been transferred as provided in section 28, preference shall be given to applications for projects to be located in distressed counties designated under section 297A.257. Otherwise, the available bonding authority shall be awarded by lot unless otherwise agreed to by the respective issuers.

(c) If there are two or more applications for public facility bonds from the public facilities pool and there is insufficient bonding authority to provide allocations for all projects in any one week, the available bonding authority shall be awarded by lot unless otherwise agreed to by the respective issuers.

If an application is rejected, the commissioner must notify the applicant and return the application deposit to the applicant within 30 days unless the applicant requests in writing that the application be resubmitted. The granting of an allocation of bonding authority under this section must be evidenced by a certificate of allocation.

Subd. 3. [ADDITIONAL DEPOSIT.] An issuer which has received an allocation under this section may retain any unused portion of the allocation after the first Monday in September only if the issuer has submitted to the department before the first Monday in September a letter stating its intent to issue obligations pursuant to the allocation before the end of the calendar year or within the time period permitted by federal tax law and a deposit in addition to that provided under subdivision 1, equal to one percent of the amount of allocation to be retained.

Subd. 4. [RETURN OF ALLOCATION; DEPOSIT REFUND.] (a) If an issuer that receives an allocation under this section determines that it will not issue obligations equal to all or a portion of the allocation received under this section by the end of the current year or within the time period permitted by federal tax law, the issuer must notify the department. If the issuer notifies the department prior to the last Monday in October, the amount of allocation returned must be reallocated through the pool from which it was originally allocated. If the issuer notifies the department on or after the last Monday in October, the amount of allocation returned must be reallocated through the unified pool.

(b) An issuer that returns for reallocation all or a portion of an allocation received under this section shall receive within 30 days a refund of its application deposit equal to:

(1) one-half of the amount on deposit for the amount of bonding authority returned before the first Monday in December;

(2) one-fourth of the amount on deposit for the amount of bonding authority returned before the third Monday in December; and

(3) one-eighth of the amount on deposit for the amount of bonding authority returned before the last Monday in December.

No refund shall be available for allocations returned on or after the last Monday in December.

Subd. 5. [HIGHER EDUCATION COORDINATING BOARD ALLOCATION.] The higher education coordinating board must receive an allocation of bonding authority at the beginning of the calendar year from the public facilities pool of an amount up to $10,000,000 per year, less any amount carried forward from the previous year for the issuance of student loan bonds. The amount of any allocation received under this subdivision, when added to the allocation received under section 29, subdivision 6, in the previous year, must not exceed $20,000,000. The higher education coordinating board shall be treated as an entitlement issuer under section 24.

Subd. 6. [DEADLINE FOR ISSUANCE OF SMALL ISSUE BONDS.] If an issuer fails to notify the department before the last Monday in December of issuance of obligations pursuant to an allocation received for a manufacturing project, the allocation is canceled and the bonding authority is allocated to the department of finance for reallocation under section 29, subdivision 6.

Sec. 28. [474A.081] [POOL TRANSFERS.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY TO TRANSFER BONDING AUTHORITY.] If there is insufficient bonding authority in either the manufacturing pool or the multifamily housing pool to provide allocations for applications received in any one week, additional bonding authority for small issue bonds and residential rental project bonds may be obtained under this section.

Subd. 2. [TRANSFER LIMITS.] No transfer of bonding authority may be made from any pool for qualified bonds not eligible to receive allocations from that pool prior to June 30. No transfer may be made from a pool if, on June 30, allocations of bonding authority have been made from that pool equal to or exceeding 50 percent of the annual volume cap originally allocated to that pool. For 1987, the amount considered originally allocated to each of the pools shall be $80,000,000 for the manufacturing pool and $60,000,000 for the multifamily housing pool.

Subd. 3. [TRANSFER FROM MINNESOTA HOUSING FINANCE AGENCY ALLOCATION.] If there is insufficient bonding authority to provide allocations for all applications for residential rental projects in any one week from the multifamily housing pool, up to $15,000,000 per year must be transferred to the multifamily housing pool from the Minnesota housing finance agency's entitlement allocation. This deduction must be made prior to transferring bonding authority to the multifamily housing pool as provided in subdivision 4.

Subd. 4. [POOL TRANSFERS.] If there is insufficient bonding authority to provide allocations for all small issue bonds or residential rental project bonds in any one week, applications for small issue bonds may receive bonding authority from the multifamily housing pool or applications for residential rental project bonds may receive bonding authority from the manufacturing pool, except as provided in subdivision 2. If bonding authority is transferred from one pool to the other pool, applications for small issue bonds must receive priority for allocations from the manufacturing pool, and applications for residential rental project bonds must receive priority for allocations from the multifamily housing pool.

Sec. 29. [474A.091] [ALLOCATION OF UNIFIED POOL.]

Subdivision 1. [UNIFIED POOL AMOUNT.] On the day after the last Monday in October any bonding authority remaining unallocated from the manufacturing pool, the multifamily housing pool, and the public facilities pool is transferred to the unified pool and must be reallocated as provided in this section.

Subd. 2. [APPLICATION.] An issuer may apply for an allocation under this section by submitting to the department an application on forms provided by the department accompanied by (1) a preliminary resolution, (2) a statement of bond counsel that the proposed issue of obligations requires an allocation under this chapter, (3) the type of qualified bonds to be issued, and (4) an application deposit in the amount of two percent of the requested allocation. An entitlement issuer may not apply for an allocation for public facility bonds, residential rental project bonds, or mortgage bonds under this section unless it has permanently issued bonds equal to the amount of its entitlement allocation for the current year plus any amount carried forward from previous years.

Subd. 3. [ALLOCATION PROCEDURE.] The commissioner shall allocate available bonding authority under this section on the Monday of every other week beginning with the first Monday in November through and on the last Monday in December. Applications for allocations must be received by the department by the Monday preceding the Monday on which allocations are to be made. Allocations shall be awarded in the following order of priority:

(1) applications for small issue bonds, with preference given to projects to be located in distressed counties designated under section 297A.257;

(2) applications for residential rental project bonds;

(3) applications for public facility bonds;

(4) applications for redevelopment bonds;

(5) applications for mortgage bonds; and

(6) applications for governmental bonds.

Allocations for mortgage bonds from the unified pool may not exceed:

(a) $10,000,000 for any one city;

(b) $20,000,000 for any number of cities in any one county; or

(c) 40 percent of the amount initially allocated to the unified pool.

An allocation for mortgage bonds may be used for mortgage credit certificates.

If an allocation from the unified pool is used for mortgage bonds, at least 70 percent of the proceeds from the issuance of the bonds must be used to make loans for the purchase, replacement or rehabilitation of existing housing or school buildings.

Subd. 4. [MORTGAGE BOND SUNSET.] If federal tax law is not amended to permit the issuance of tax-exempt mortgage bonds after December 31, 1988, all remaining bonding authority available for allocation under this section on December 1, 1988, is allocated to the Minnesota housing finance agency, of which at least 50 percent must be reallocated to cities for the issuance of mortgage bonds. If an issuer that receives an allocation for mortgage bonds under this subdivision fails to notify the department of energy and economic development before the last Monday in December of issuance of obligations pursuant to all or a portion of the allocation, any remaining allocation pursuant to which obligations have not been issued is canceled and the bonding authority is allocated to the department of finance for reallocation under section 29, subdivision 6.

Subd. 5. [RETURN OF ALLOCATION; DEPOSIT REFUND.] (a) If an issuer that receives an allocation under this section determines that it will not issue obligations equal to all or a portion of the allocation received under this section by the end of the current year or within the time period permitted by federal tax law, the issuer must notify the department. If the issuer notifies the department prior to the last Monday in December, the amount of allocation returned must be reallocated through the unified pool.

(b) An issuer that returns for reallocation all or a portion of an allocation received under this section shall receive within 30 days a refund of its application deposit equal to:

(1) one-half of the amount on deposit for the amount of bonding authority returned before the first Monday in December;

(2) one-fourth of the amount on deposit for the amount of bonding authority returned before the third Monday in December; and

(3) one-eighth of the amount on deposit for the amount of bonding authority returned before the last Monday in December.

No refund of the application deposit shall be available for allocations returned on or after the last Monday in December.

Subd. 6. [FINAL ALLOCATION; CARRYFORWARD.] $20,000,000 or any bonding authority remaining unallocated from the unified pool after the last Monday in December, whichever is less, is allocated to the higher education coordinating board. Any bonding authority remaining after the deduction for the higher education coordinating board allocation is allocated to the department of finance for reallocation for qualified bonds eligible to be carried forward under federal tax law.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.13, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ISSUANCE OF CERTIFICATE OF ALLOCATION.] The department shall issue a certificate of allocation for any allocation granted under ~~section 474A.11~~ sections 27 and 29, except as provided in ~~subdivision 4 section 31.~~

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.13, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [LIMITATIONS ON THE ISSUANCE OF CERTIFICATES.] No certificate of allocation may be granted under a federal volume limitation act under any of the following circumstances:

(1) ~~tax law~~ for the amount of the allocation requested, when the amount requested added to (i) the aggregate amount of certificates of allocation issued and not expired; (ii) amounts remaining available to be allocated pursuant to section 474A.11; and (iii) entitlement authority allocated pursuant to section 474A.08 and not returned pursuant to section 474A.10, subdivision 3, for reallocation would cause the governmental annual volume cap to be exceeded. If two or more applications for a certificate of allocation are filed with the department on the same day and there is insufficient issuance authority for the applications, certificates shall be issued first for applications made pursuant to subdivision 2 and thereafter for applications made pursuant to subdivision 1; or

(2) ~~the principal amount of the proposed allocation exceeds $25,000,000 unless the issuer is the Minnesota housing finance agency or the Minnesota higher education coordinating board, or unless the issue is a pooled or joint issue or any issue of a joint powers board, provided that for joint or pooled issues or issues of a joint powers board the aggregate amount of the issue cannot exceed $100,000,000.~~

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.13, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [CERTIFICATES ARE NOT TRANSFERABLE.] Certificates of allocation are not transferable. An issuer that receives an allocation of ~~issuance~~ bonding authority pursuant to sections 474A.01 1 to 474A.21 41 to finance a project within the boundaries of the issuer may allow another issuer to issue obligations pursuant to the ~~issuance~~ authority allocation received only if the boundaries of the other issuer are coterminous with the boundaries of the issuer that received the ~~authority~~ allocation.

Sec. 33. [474A.131] [NOTICE OF ISSUE AND NOTICE OF CARRYFORWARD.]

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE OF ISSUE.] Each issuer that issues bonds with an allocation received under this chapter shall provide a notice of issue to the department on forms provided by the department stating:

- (1) the date of issuance of the bonds;
- (2) the title of the issue;
- (3) the principal amount of the bonds;
- (4) the type of qualified bonds under federal tax law; and
- (5) the dollar amount of the bonds issued that were subject to the annual volume cap.

For obligations that are issued as a part of a series of obligations, a notice must be provided for each series. Any issue of obligations for which a notice of issue is not provided to the department within five days after issuance is deemed not to have received an allocation under this law or under federal tax law. Within 30 days after receipt of a notice of issue the department shall refund a portion of the application deposit equal to one percent of the amount of the bonding authority actually issued if a one percent application deposit was made, or equal to two percent of the amount of the bonding authority actually issued if a two percent application deposit was made.

Subd. 2. [CARRYFORWARD NOTICE.] If an issuer intends to carry forward an allocation received under this chapter it must notify the department before the last Monday of December. If the notice of carryforward is not provided within the time required, one-quarter of the amount of the deposit eligible for refund upon filing of the notice of issue under this section is forfeited.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.14, is amended to read:
474A.14 [NOTICE OF AVAILABLE AUTHORITY.]

The department shall publish in the State Register at least twice monthly, a notice of the amount of ~~issuance~~ bonding authority, if any, available for allocation pursuant to sections ~~474A.05, 474A.11, 27 and 474A.12~~ 29.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.15, is amended to read:
474A.15 [STATE HELD HARMLESS.]

The state is not liable in any manner to any issuer, holder of obligations, or other person for carrying out the duties imposed on it under sections ~~474A.01 1 to 474A.21 41.~~

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.16, is amended to read:
474A.16 [EXCLUSIVE METHOD OF ALLOCATION.]

Sections ~~474A.01 1 to 474A.21 41~~ shall be the exclusive method for allocating authority to issue obligations for the purposes of complying with the volume limitation of a ~~federal volume limitation act and existing federal tax law. An issuer of obligations may elect to obtain an allocation of authority under either existing federal tax law, a federal volume limitation act, or both.~~

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.17, is amended to read:
474A.17 [ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE ACT NOT APPLICABLE.]

Minnesota Statutes, chapter 14, shall not apply to actions taken by any state agency, or entity, ~~or the governor~~ under sections ~~474A.01 1 to 474A.21 41.~~

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.18, is amended to read:
474A.18 [~~PROSPECTIVE OVERRIDE OF FEDERAL VOLUME LIMITATION ACT TAX LAW.~~]

Sections ~~474A.01 1 to 474A.21~~ prospectively 41 override and replace the method of allocating the authority to issue obligations among uses and among issuers as provided in a ~~section 146 of federal volume limitation act tax law~~ to the extent allowed by a ~~federal volume limitation act tax law.~~

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.20, is amended to read:
474A.20 [STATE CERTIFICATION.]

The commissioner of the ~~department~~ is designated as the state official to provide any preissuance or postissuance certification required by a ~~federal volume limitation act tax law.~~

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.21, is amended to read:

474A.21 [APPROPRIATION; RECEIPTS.]

Any fees collected by the department under sections ~~474A.01 1~~ to ~~474A.21 41~~ must be deposited in the general fund. The amount necessary to refund application deposits is appropriated to the department from the general fund for that purpose.

Sec. 41. [ALLOCATION FOR REMAINDER OF 1987.]

Subdivision 1. [MINNESOTA HOUSING FINANCE AGENCY AND POOL ALLOCATION.] For the purposes of this section, the terms defined in sections 1 to 21 have the meanings given them in sections 1 to 21. The commissioner shall allocate the annual volume cap for the remainder of 1987 on the day following final enactment as follows:

(a) $60,000,000 is allocated to the Minnesota housing finance agency less any amount that was allocated to the Minnesota housing finance agency from the department of finance in 1987 under Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.09. This amount is available only for the issuance of mortgage bonds or residential rental project bonds.

(b) $80,000,000 is allocated to the manufacturing pool, less the sum of (1) the amount of allocations for small issue bonds made from and not returned to the pool established under Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.11, and (2) any amount that was allocated for small issue bonds by the department of finance in 1987 under Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.09. Any allocations that were made for small issue bonds under Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 474A.09 and 474A.11, returned on or subsequent to the date of enactment must be made available for reallocation through the manufacturing pool.

(c) $60,000,000 is allocated to the multifamily housing pool, less the amount of allocations for residential rental project bonds made from and not returned to the pool established under Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.11. Any allocations that were made for residential project bonds under Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.11, returned on or subsequent to the date of enactment must be made available for reallocation through the multifamily housing pool.

(d) $31,190,380 is allocated to the public facilities pool, less the amount of allocations for public facility bonds made from and not returned to the pool established under Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.11. Any allocations that were made for public facility bonds under Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.11, returned on or subsequent to the date of enactment must be made available for reallocation through the public facilities pool. Applications from the Minnesota public facilities authority must receive priority for allocations from the public facilities pool in any given week.

If the amount of bonding authority allocated under subdivision 3 when added to the allocation for public facility bonds made from and not returned to the pool under Minnesota Statutes, section 474A.11, exceeds $31,190,380, the excess must be deducted from the allocation under paragraph (c) and be allocated to the public facilities pool.

Subd. 2. [1987 ENTITLEMENT CITY ALLOCATIONS.] (a) Cities that received entitlement allocations under Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.08, subdivision 1, paragraph (2), may retain those allocations for issuance of mortgage bonds, residential rental project bonds, or public facility bonds. These allocations shall be treated as entitlement allocations for the purpose of section 24 and any allocations returned must be reallocated through the manufacturing pool. If there is insufficient bonding authority in the manufacturing pool to provide allocations to all eligible projects on any Monday prior to the last Monday in October, 1987, after all eligible bonding authority has been transferred to the manufacturing pool as provided in section 28, additional bonding authority must be transferred to the manufacturing pool for allocation on the subsequent Monday from the entitlement city allocations as provided in this subdivision. Each city must transfer bonding authority to the manufacturing pool from its remaining bonding authority in an amount equal to the percentage of the allocation that the city received under Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.08, subdivision 1, paragraph (2), in relation to the total amount of allocations made under Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.08, subdivision 1, paragraph (2), multiplied by the amount necessary to provide allocations to all manufacturing projects on the subsequent Monday. No city is required to transfer more bonding authority under this subdivision than the amount of the city's allocation under Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.08, subdivision 1, paragraph (2). For any week that a city transfers bonding authority to the manufacturing pool, that city shall receive a priority for allocations from the manufacturing pool up to the amount of bonding authority transferred by that city.

(b) Cities that received entitlement allocations under Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.08, subdivision 1, paragraph (3), may retain those allocations for issuance of mortgage bonds, residential rental project bonds, or public facility bonds. These allocations shall be treated as entitlement allocations for the purpose of section 24 and any allocation returned must be reallocated through the multifamily housing pool.

(c) Cities that received entitlement allocations under Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.08, subdivision 1, paragraph (5), may retain those allocations for issuance of mortgage bonds, residential rental project bonds, or public facility bonds. These allocations must be treated as entitlement allocations for the purpose of section 24 and any allocations returned must be reallocated through the multifamily housing pool.

Subd. 3. [HIGHER EDUCATION COORDINATING BOARD ALLOCATION.] The higher education coordinating board shall receive an allocation from the public facilities pool of an amount up to $20,000,000 less the sum of (1) the amount carried forward from 1986, and (2) any amount allocated to it under Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 474A.09. The higher education coordinating board shall be treated as an entitlement issuer under section 24.

Sec. 42. [ALLOCATION VALIDATION.]

All allocations made under Minnesota Statutes 1986, chapter 474A, are validated and shall be governed by the provisions of sections 1 to 41.

Sec. 43. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 474A.02, subdivisions 5, 9, 10, 11, 13, 15, 17, 20, 22, 23, 24, 25, 27, 28 and 29; 474A.03, subdivisions 2 and 3; 474A.04, subdivisions 1, 2, 3, and 4; 474A.05; 474A.06; 474A.07; 474A.08; 474A.09; 474A.10; 474A.11; 474A.12; 474A.13, subdivisions 2 and 3; and 474A.19 are repealed.

Laws 1981, chapter 222, section 6; and chapter 223, section 6, subdivision 3, are repealed.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 462C.11, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [CORRECTION AMOUNTS.] Correction amounts determined by the secretary of the treasury because of the failure of a mortgage credit certificate program to comply with a federal statute or regulation shall be assessed pursuant to section 462C.09, subdivision 5 against the amount of qualified mortgage bonds allocated by chapter 474A to the issuer which adopted the program. Before November 1, if the issuer has no remaining allocation or if the correction amount is in excess of any remaining allocation, the correction amount in excess of any remaining allocation must be deducted from the allocations made at the beginning of the calendar year to entitlement issuers, the manufacturing pool, the multifamily housing pool, and the public facilities pool, based on the proportion that each allocation is in relation to the annual volume cap. If the deduction is made on or after November 1, the correction amount in excess of any remaining allocation must be deducted from any remaining allocations of entitlement issuers and the bonding authority remaining in the unified pool, based on the proportion that each allocation is in relation to the total amount of the remaining allocations and bonding authority."

S.F. No. 940: A bill for an act relating to state lands; authorizing a private sale of certain tax-forfeited land in St. Louis county.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [SALE OF TAX-FORFEITED LAND; ST. LOUIS COUNTY.]

Notwithstanding the public sale requirements of Minnesota Statutes, section 282.01, St. Louis county may sell the land described in this section to Minnesota Sphagnum, Inc. of Floodwood, Minnesota, in the manner provided for appraisal, sale, and conveyance of tax-forfeited land by Minnesota Statutes, chapter 282.

The land described in this section may be sold by private sale for a consideration not less than its appraised value. The conveyance must be in a form approved by the attorney general.

The land that may be sold is a tract of approximately 80 acres and is in St. Louis county and described as: The Northeast Quarter of the Northeast Quarter and the Northwest Quarter of the Northeast Quarter of Section 9, Township 51, Range 19.

The land is tax-forfeited and is needed for Minnesota Sphagnum, Inc. to construct a facility on it, allowing the company to more efficiently conduct its business in St. Louis county.

Sec. 2. [CITY OF WINTON LAND SALE.]

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 282.018, St. Louis county may sell the tract of tax-forfeited land described in this section to the city of Winton. The sale must otherwise be conducted in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, chapter 282.

The land that may be sold is described as:

That part of the Northeast One Quarter of the Northeast One Quarter (NE 1/4 of NE 1/4) of Section 26, Township 63 North, Range 12 West of the 4th Principal Meridian, Saint Louis County, Minnesota, described as follows:

Assuming the East Line of said NE 1/4 of NE 1/4 to lie North 02 degrees 00' 00" West and from the Northeast Corner of said NE 1/4 of NE 1/4, being also the Northeast Corner of said Section 26, run South 02 degrees 00' 00" East along the section line 945 feet; to the point of beginning:

Thence South 70 degrees 00' 00" West, 225.00 feet:

Thence North 20 degrees 00' 00" West a distance of 800 feet more or less to Shagawa River;

Thence Easterly along Shagawa River 550 feet more or less to the East line of said Northeast One Quarter of the Northeast One Quarter (NE 1/4 of NE 1/4);

Thence South 02 degrees 00' 00" East along said East Line, 875 feet more or less to the Point of Beginning.

The land is needed by the city for the pond system of its wastewater treatment facility.

Sec. 3. [SALE OF TAX-FORFEITED LAND; LAKE COUNTY.]

Notwithstanding the public sale requirements of Minnesota Statutes, section 282.01, Lake county may sell certain tax-forfeited land to the city of Two Harbors, Minnesota.

The land described in this section may be sold by private sale for a consideration not less than its appraised value and in accordance with the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 282, relating to appraisal, sale, and conveyance of tax-forfeited land.

The conveyance must be in a form approved by the attorney general.

The land that may be sold is in Lake county and described as: The Northeast Quarter of the Southwest Quarter of Section 28, Township 53, Range 11.

The land is needed by the city of Two Harbors for future expansion of its runway and for the installation of a nondirectional radio beacon, resulting in enhanced safety and facilities.

Sec. 4. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This act is effective the day after final enactment."

Amend the title as follows:

S.F. No. 1202: A bill for an act relating to environment; establishing a siting process for a low-level radioactive waste facility; providing for volunteer sites and an alternative site selection process; establishing a siting board; appropriating money; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 116C.832, subdivision 1, and by adding subdivisions; 116C.834, subdivision 1; and 116C.842, subdivision 3; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 116C.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116C.832, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TERMS DEFINED IN COMPACT.] The terms defined in article II of the Midwest Interstate Low-Level Radioactive Waste Compact have the meanings given them for the purposes of sections 116C.833 to 116C.843 and sections 6 to 9.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116C.832, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [SITE.] “Site” means a site for construction and operation of a low-level radioactive waste facility.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116C.832, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [SITING BOARD.] “Siting board” means the low-level radioactive waste facility siting board established under section 7, subdivision 1.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116C.834, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [COSTS.] All costs incurred by the state to carry out its responsibilities under the compact and under sections 116C.833 to 116C.843 shall be paid by generators of low-level radioactive waste in this state through fees assessed by the pollution control agency. The agency shall assess the fees in the manner provided in section 16A.128. Fees may be reasonably assessed on the basis of volume or degree of hazard of the waste produced by a generator. Costs for which fees may be assessed include, but are not limited to:

(a) the state contribution required to join the compact;

(b) the expenses of the Commission member and costs incurred to support the work of the interstate commission;

(c) regulatory costs, including but not limited to costs of adopting and enforcing regulations if the state enters into a limited agreement with the United States Nuclear Regulatory Commission to assume state regulation of transportation and packaging, or disposal, of low-level radioactive wastes; and

(d) siting costs of a low-level radioactive waste facility under section 116C.842 and sections 6 to 9 to the extent that the costs are reasonably attributable to waste generated in this state; and

(e) any liability the state may incur as a party state to the compact.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116C.842, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DEVELOPMENT OF A SITING PROCESS.] In the event that Minnesota is ~~designated by the interstate commission~~ to be a host state for a regional low-level radioactive waste facility, the ~~agency low-level waste facility siting board established under section 7, subdivision 1,~~ shall develop a siting process and report to the governor, the advisory committee, and the legislature ~~with~~. The siting board shall prepare recommendations for legislation including siting criteria, procedures for public participation, licensing, regulation, and bonding requirements. The siting process which is recommended recommendations shall include bonding requirements sufficient to cover any costs of monitoring the facility and providing for its safety and security in the event that the licensee discontinues operation, management, or supervision of the facility for so long as the materials stored or treated at the facility pose a threat to the public health.

Sec. 6. [116C.845] [SITING DETERMINATION.]

If the governor determines that a low-level radioactive waste facility should be sited in the state, the governor shall issue an executive order and notify the chair of the environmental quality board, the director, and the chair of the advisory committee. The governor must determine whether a low-level radioactive waste facility should be sited in the state by ten days after:

(1) Minnesota is designated as a host state by the interstate commission under the compact;

(2) Minnesota volunteers as a host state for a regional facility under the compact; or

(3) Minnesota withdraws from the compact.

Sec. 7. [116C.846] [SITING BOARD.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The low-level radioactive waste facility siting board is established to select a facility site when the governor issues an executive order that a facility should be sited.

Subd. 2. [MEMBERSHIP] (a) The siting board has 11 members consisting of the commissioner of natural resources, commissioner of transportation, chair of the environmental quality board, and eight citizen members representing each of the eight congressional districts.

(b) The governor must appoint the eight citizen members of the siting board by 30 days after the executive order for siting a facility is issued.

(c) The chair of the environmental quality board shall be the chair of the siting board.

Subd. 3. [STAFFING AND ADMINISTRATION.] The environmental quality board shall provide staffing and administrative assistance for the siting board.

Subd. 4. [COMPENSATION.] The citizen members of the siting board shall be compensated as provided in section 15.0575.

Subd. 5. [TERMINATION.] The siting board is terminated when the siting process is finished.

Sec. 8. [116C.847] [SITING CRITERIA.]

Subdivision 1. [HEALTH, SAFETY, AND ENVIRONMENTAL CONSIDERATIONS.] The siting board must maintain health, safety, and environmental considerations above all other siting criteria.

Subd. 2. [VOLUNTEER SITE PREFERRED.] The siting board shall attempt to select a site from an area proposed in the volunteer siting process.

Subd. 3. [SITING BOARD TO SEEK AGREEMENTS AND RESOLUTIONS OF INTEREST.] The chair shall actively solicit, encourage, and assist counties, together with developers, landowners, the local business community, and other interested parties, in developing resolutions of interest to enter an agreement to investigate the feasibility of siting a low-level radioactive waste facility.

Subd. 4. [COUNTY RESOLUTION OF INTEREST.] A county may begin to negotiate an agreement to evaluate siting a low-level radioactive facility after the county board files with the siting board a resolution of interest adopted by the county board that expresses the county board's interest in negotiations and its willingness to accept the preliminary evaluation of one or more study areas in the county for consideration as a location of a facility.

Subd. 5. [ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT IMPACT.] The commissioner of energy and economic development must analyze the effects on businesses and the local economy and anticipated effects on local communities by a low-level radioactive waste facility.

Sec. 9. [116C.848] [NONVOLUNTEER SITING PROCESS.]

If a site is not selected from the volunteer siting process, the site selection shall proceed from the process developed under section 116C.842.

Sec. 10. [APPROPRIATIONS.]

§ _____ is appropriated from the general fund from the fees assessed to low-level radioactive waste generators under section 116C.834 to the environmental quality board to pay for costs of the siting board for expenses incurred under section 116C.842 and sections 8 and 9, to be available until June 30, 1989.

Sec. 11. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This act is effective the day following final enactment."

And when so amended the bill do pass and be re-referred to the Committee on Finance. Amendments adopted. Report adopted.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 137.022, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [COORDINATE CAMPUS SCHOLARSHIPS.] The income from a portion of the permanent university fund must be distributed by the regents for use at the Duluth, Morris, Waseca, and Crookston campuses of the University of Minnesota. The portion to be distributed to each campus shall equal the ratio of the number of full-time equivalent students at that campus, during the year preceding the year the distribution is made, to the number of full-time equivalent students at all campuses of the University of Minnesota, during the year preceding the year the distribution is made. Students in summer school, continuing education, or extension programs shall not be included.

The entire share for each campus may be used either to help endow professional chairs in academic discipline or for scholarships. One-half of the entire share for each campus may be used only to the extent that the administrators at each campus obtain money from nonstate sources in an equal amount. Money that is used to endow chairs at each campus may not provide more than half the sum of the endowments for all chairs endowed, with nonstate sources providing the remainder, but may provide more than half the endowment of an individual chair. Money that is used for scholarships at each campus may not provide more than half the sum of all scholarships, with nongovernmental sources providing the remainder, but may provide more than half of an individual scholarship. The regents shall determine minimum qualifications for recipients of scholarships under this subdivision. The administrators at each campus shall select individual recipients. The administrators at each campus shall obtain the additional money needed for endowed chairs and for nongovernmental scholarships. Any portion of the annual appropriation that is not used to endow chairs or for scholarships does not lapse and is available in subsequent years.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 137.022, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [ENDOWED CHAIRS.] The remaining income from the permanent university fund must be used to help endow professorial chairs in academic disciplines. This income must not provide more than half the sum of the endowments for all chairs endowed, with nonstate sources providing the remainder. The income may provide more than half the endowment of an individual chair. Any portion of the annual appropriation that is not used for this purpose lapses and must be added to the principal of the permanent university fund."

Amend the title as follows:

Page 1, line 3, after "for" insert "endowed chairs and"

And when so amended the bill do pass and be re-referred to the Committee on Finance. Amendments adopted. Report adopted.

Mr. Dicklich from the Committee on Public Utilities and Energy, to which was referred

S.F. No. 1193: A bill for an act relating to utilities; imposing minimum requirements for coin-operated telephones; providing that free or reduced telephone rates for employees of telephone companies not be paid for by ratepayers; providing for public utilities commission to reopen telephone rate case; requiring application for rehearing before judicial review; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 237.01, subdivision 2, and by adding a subdivision; and 237.14; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 237.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 237.01, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [TELEPHONE COMPANY.] "Telephone company," means and applies to any person, firm, association or any corporation, private or municipal, owning or operating any telephone line or telephone exchange for hire, wholly or partly within this state, or furnishing any telephone service to the public.

A "telephone company" does not include a radio common carrier as defined in subdivision 4. A telephone company which also conforms with the definition of a radio common carrier is subject to regulation as a telephone company. However, none of chapter 237 applies to telephone company activities which conform to the definition of a radio common carrier.

A telephone company does not include a coin telephone business as defined in section 2.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 237.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [COIN TELEPHONE BUSINESS.] "Coin telephone business" means a person, firm, association, or corporation that furnishes telephone service to the public solely by means of a customer-owned, coin-operated telephone set connected to the lines or transmission facilities of a telephone company, or other customer-owned telephone set provided to the public that requires payment for each local call made that is connected to the lines or transmission facilities of a telephone company.

Sec. 3. [237.245] [CHANGE, AMENDMENT, RESCISSION OF ORDERS.]

The commission may at any time, on its own motion or upon motion of an interested party, and upon notice to the telephone company and after opportunity to be heard, rescind, alter or amend any order fixing rates, tolls, charges or schedules, or any other order made by the commission, and may reopen any case following the issuance of an order therein, for the taking of further evidence or for any other reason. Any order rescinding, altering, amending or reopening a prior order shall have the same effect as an original order.

Sec. 4. [237.246] [REHEARINGS BEFORE COMMISSION; CONDITION PRECEDENT TO JUDICIAL REVIEW.]

Subdivision 1. Within 20 days after the service by the commission of any decision constituting an order or determination, any party to the proceeding and any other person, aggrieved by the decision and directly affected thereby, may apply to the commission for a rehearing in respect to any matters determined in the decision. The commission may grant and hold a rehearing on the matters, or upon any of them as it may specify in the order granting the rehearing, if in its judgment sufficient reason therefor exists.

Subd. 2. The application for a rehearing shall set forth specifically the grounds on which the applicant contends the decision is unlawful or unreasonable. No cause of action arising out of any decision constituting an order or determination of the commission or any proceeding for the judicial review thereof shall accrue in any court to any person or corporation unless the plaintiff or petitioner in the action or proceeding, within 20 days after the service of the decision, shall have made application to the commission for a rehearing in the proceeding in which the decision was made. No person or corporation shall in any court urge or rely on any ground not so set forth in the application for rehearing.

Subd. 3. Applications for rehearing shall be governed by general rules which the commission may establish. In case a rehearing is granted, the proceedings shall conform as nearly as may be to the proceedings in an original hearing, except as the commission may otherwise direct. If in the commission's judgment, after the rehearing, it shall appear that the original decision, order, or determination is in any respect unlawful or unreasonable, the commission may reverse, change, modify, or suspend the original action accordingly. Any decision, order, or determination made after the rehearing reversing, changing, modifying, or suspending the original determination shall have the same force and effect as an original decision, order, or determination. Only one rehearing shall be granted by the commission; but this shall not be construed to prevent any party from filing a new application or complaint. No order of the commission shall become effective while an application for a rehearing or a rehearing is pending and until ten days after the application for a rehearing is either denied, expressly or by implication, or the commission has announced its final determination on rehearing.

Subd. 4. Any application for a rehearing not granted within 20 days from the date of filing thereof, shall be deemed denied.

Subd. 5. It is hereby declared that the legislative powers of the state, insofar as they are involved in the issuance of orders and decisions by the commission, have not been completely exercised until the commission has acted upon an application for rehearing, as provided for by this section and by the rules of the commission, or until the application for rehearing has been denied by implication, as above provided for.

Sec. 5. [237.48] [COIN TELEPHONE BUSINESS; REQUIREMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] Except as provided in this section, chapter 237 does not apply to a coin telephone business or to the provision of coin-operated telephones by a telephone company.

Subd. 2. [SERVICES PROVIDED.] A coin telephone business and a telephone company for coin-operated telephones it provides shall offer telephone service that:

- (1) provides access for local telephone calls of unlimited duration;*
- (2) permits long-distance telephone calls through any interexchange carrier; and*
- (3) without charge and without requiring the use of a coin, permits telephone calls:
 - (i) to an operator; and*
 - (ii) to 911 emergency telephone service; or

(iii) in an area that does not have 911 emergency telephone service, to emergency telephone service.

Subd. 3. [HEIGHT LIMITATION.] Coin-operated telephones and telephone sets of a coin telephone business must be compatible with hearing aids and installed at a height above the ground not exceeding 54 inches to the highest working component.

Subd. 4. [MAXIMUM CHARGE.] The commission may by order establish a maximum per-call rate for telephone service provided by coin telephone businesses and for coin-operated telephones.

Subd. 5. [REQUIRED INFORMATION DISPLAYED.] On or near the coin-operated telephone and telephones operated by coin telephone businesses must be a statement conveying the following information:

- (1) the owner of the telephone;*
- (2) the procedure for reporting service difficulties;*
- (3) the method of obtaining customer refunds; and*
- (4) a statement comparing the owner's charges for long-distance calls to those of the largest interstate long-distance telephone company doing business in Minnesota. The statement must either declare that the owner's charges are the same or less than those of the largest interstate long-distance telephone company, or must state the percentage by which the owner's charges exceed that company's charges.*

Subd. 6. [INTEREXCHANGE CARRIER ACCESS.] A coin-operated telephone and telephones operated by a coin telephone business must provide access to all interexchange carriers that are available locally.

Subd. 7. [LOCAL TELEPHONE COMPANIES.] The commission may require a telephone company to provide coin-operated telephones in certain locations within the areas served by the telephone company, and provide for a maximum per-call rate for those coin-operated telephones.

Subd. 8. [PENALTY.] A coin telephone business or telephone company that violates subdivisions 1 to 5 is guilty of a petty misdemeanor."

Delete the title and insert:

"A bill for an act relating to utilities; imposing minimum requirements for coin-operated telephones; providing for public utilities commission to reopen telephone rate case; requiring application for rehearing before judicial review; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 237.01, subdivision 2, and by adding a subdivision; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 237."

And when so amended the bill do pass. Amendments adopted. Report adopted.

dividends paid on deposits; regulating industrial loan and thrifts; providing for the submission of certain reports; requiring the periodic examination of collection agencies; regulating consumer deficiency judgments; modifying the examination requirement for safe deposit companies and insurance premium finance companies; regulating motor vehicle installment sales; regulating bank applications; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 46.041; 46.042; 46.07, subdivision 2; 46.131, subdivision 9; 47.10, by adding a subdivision; 47.205, subdivision 2; 48.055, subdivision 5; 48.15, subdivision 2; 48.51; 48.92, subdivision 10; 48.97, subdivision 2; 48.98, subdivision 1; 48.99, subdivisions 1 and 2; 49.04, subdivision 1; 49.05, by adding a subdivision; 49.24, subdivision 5; 52.01; 52.02, subdivision 3; 52.09, subdivision 2; 52.18; 53.04, subdivision 5; 53.09, subdivision 2; 55.095; 55.15; 59A.06, subdivision 3; 168.66, subdivisions 5 and 9; 168.705; 168.71; 168.72, subdivision 1; 168.73; 168.74; 332.29, subdivision 1; 325G.22, subdivision 1; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 48.60 and 55.13.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"ARTICLE 1

SUPERVISORY CLARIFICATION ACT

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 46.042, is amended to read:

46.042 [NOTICE AND HEARING, WHEN NOT GIVEN.]

The commissioner of commerce may dispense with the notice and hearing provided for by section 46.041 if application is made for the incorporation of a new bank to take over the assets of one or more existing banks or if the application contemplates the reorganization of a national bank into a state bank in the same locality, or where the application is made for the incorporation of a new bank in the same locality coincidental with the closing of an existing bank by the commissioner or federal authorities. This section does not increase the number of banks in the community affected.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 46.07, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

46.07 [RECORDS.]

Subd. 2. [CONFIDENTIAL RECORDS.] The commissioner shall divulge facts and information obtained in the course of examining financial institutions under the commissioner's supervision only when and to the extent required or permitted by law to report upon or take special action regarding the affairs of an institution, or ordered by a court of law to testify or produce evidence in a civil or criminal proceeding, except that the commissioner may furnish information as to matters of mutual interest to an official or examiner of the federal reserve system, the federal deposit insurance corporation, the federal savings and loan insurance corporation, the national credit union administration, comptroller of the currency, a legally constituted state credit union share insurance corporation approved under section 52.24, the issuer of a commitment for insurance or guarantee of the certificates of an industrial loan and thrift company approved under section 53.10, or state and federal law enforcement agencies. The commissioner shall not be required to disclose the name of a debtor of a financial institution under the commissioner's supervision, or anything relative to the private accounts, ownership, or transactions of an institution, or any fact obtained in the course of an examination thereof, except as herein provided. For purposes of this subdivision, a subpoena is not an order of a court of law. These records are classified confidential or protected non-public for purposes of the Minnesota government data practices act and their destruction, as prescribed in section 46.21, is exempt from the provisions of chapter 138 and Laws 1971, chapter 529, so far as their deposit with the state archives.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 46.131, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. These assessments or fees shall be paid by the institution examined within 20 days after a statement of the amount has been submitted to the institution examined by the commissioner of commerce and, if not so paid, shall bear interest at the ~~discount rate charged member banks for borrowing from the Federal Reserve Bank~~ of interest provided for by section 549.09. The penalty shall be payable to the commissioner on request.

Sec. 4. [46.34] [CERTAIN SECURITIES DEPOSITED WITH THE STATE TREASURER.]

All securities required or permitted by law to be assigned to and deposited with the commissioner of commerce for any purpose must, after the effective date of this section, be assigned to and deposited with the state treasurer, who shall give a receipt therefor. This receipt must be filed with the commissioner, in lieu of the securities, and in this case neither the commissioner nor the commissioner's bonding agents are responsible for the safekeeping of these securities. The state treasurer shall perform all the duties with regard to the safekeeping of these securities which the commissioner is now required to perform. The state treasurer is subject to the same obligations and under the same liability, with reference to the safekeeping of these securities, as the commissioner. The state treasurer shall accept, release, surrender, and permit substitutions of securities assigned to and deposited with the state treasurer under the provisions of Laws 1923, chapter 155, upon order of the commissioner.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 47.10, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [LEASEHOLD PLACE OF BUSINESS; APPROVAL OF CERTAIN LEASE AGREEMENTS.] No bank, trust company, savings bank, or building and loan association may acquire property and improvements of any nature for its place of business by lease agreement if the lessor has an existing direct or indirect interest in the management or ownership of the bank, trust company, savings bank, or building and loan association ~~unless approved without prior written approval~~ by the commissioner. This includes subsequent amendments and associated ~~personal property leases leasehold improvements~~.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 47.10, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [APPROVAL OF CERTAIN INSIDER AGREEMENTS.] No bank, trust company, savings bank, or savings association may purchase or sell real property, personal property, improvements or equipment of a value of $25,000 or more if the purchaser or seller other than the bank, trust company, savings bank, or savings association has an existing direct or indirect interest in the institution without prior written approval by the commissioner.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 47.204, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [NO USURY LIMITS.] Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, no limitation on the rate or amount of interest, discount points, finance charges or other charges shall apply to a loan, mortgage, credit sale or advance which would have been exempt from the laws of this state pursuant to Public Law Number 96-221, title V, part A, section 501, as amended as of June 2, 1981, but for section 47.203 and which is made in this state after June 2, 1981 and before August 1, 1987.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 47.205, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ASSIGNMENT OR SALE OF MORTGAGE LOANS.] If the servicing of mortgage loans financing one-to-four family owner occupied residences located in this state is sold or assigned to another person:

(1) the selling lender shall notify the mortgagor of the sale no less more than ten days after the actual date of transfer. The notification must include the name, address, and telephone number of the person who will assume responsibility for servicing and accept payments for the mortgage loan and the notification must also include a detailed written financial breakdown, including but not limited to, interest rate, monthly payment amount, and current escrow balance;

(2) the purchasing lender shall issue corrected coupon or payment books, if used, and shall provide notification to the mortgagor within 20 days after the first payment to the purchasing lender is due, of the name, address, and telephone number of the person from whom the mortgagor can receive information regarding the servicing of the loan, and shall inform the mortgagor of any changes made regarding the mortgage escrow accounts or servicing requirements including, but not limited to, interest rate, monthly payment amount, and current escrow balance; and

(3) the purchasing lender shall respond within 15 business days to a written request for information from a mortgagor. A written response must include the telephone number of the company representative who can assist the mortgagor.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 47.205, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PENALTIES.] If a lender fails to comply with the requirements of subdivisions 2 and 3, the lender is liable to the mortgagor for $500 per occurrence, in addition to actual damages caused by the violation. In addition, the lender is liable to the mortgagor for $500 per occurrence if the violation of subdivision 2 or 3 was due to the lender's failure to exercise reasonable care.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 47.69, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Every financial institution using an electronic financial terminal shall maintain reasonable procedures to minimize losses from unauthorized withdrawals from its customers' accounts by use of an electronic financial terminal. After a customer makes a bona fide deposit or payment at an electronic financial terminal and has received a receipt, any loss due to theft or other reason shall not be borne by the customer; provided, loss due to the nonpayment or dishonor of a check, or other order for payment, deposited at an electronic financial terminal shall be governed by the applicable provisions of chapter 336. A financial institution shall be liable for all unauthorized withdrawals unless the unauthorized withdrawal was (a) (1) due to the negligent conduct or the intentional misconduct of the operator of an electronic financial terminal or that operator's agent in which case the operator of an electronic financial terminal or the agent shall be liable, or (b) (2) due to the loss or theft of the customer machine readable card in which case the customer shall be liable, subject to a maximum liability of $50, for those unauthorized withdrawals made prior to the time the financial institution is notified of the loss or theft. The limitation on liability contained in clause (2) is effective only if the issuer is notified of unauthorized charges contained in a bill within 60 days of receipt of the bill by the person in whose name the card is issued. For purposes of this subdivision, "unauthorized withdrawal" means a withdrawal by a person other than the customer who does not have actual, implied, or apparent authority for such withdrawal, and from which withdrawal the customer or a member of the customer's family or household receives no benefit.

Sec. 11. [47.76] [TRANSFER OF ACCOUNTS PROHIBITED; NOTICE ON CLOSING.]

(a) No financial institution shall transfer a deposit account to another deposit account bearing different identification information or which is subject to different terms without first obtaining the written consent of at least one of the deposit account holders.

(b) No financial institution shall close a deposit account without first sending at least one of the deposit account holders by certified mail a notice of intent to close the deposit account. The notice must be sent to the deposit account holder's last known address on file with the financial institution at least 60 days before the financial institution closes the deposit account.

(c) As used in this section, the following terms have the meanings given them. "Deposit account" means a contract of deposit of funds between a depositor and a financial institution, and includes a checking account, savings account, certificate of deposit share account, and other like arrangement. "Financial institution" means any organization authorized to do business under state or federal laws relating to financial institutions, including, without limitation, banks and trust companies, savings banks, savings and loan associations, industrial loan and thrift companies, and credit unions.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 48.055, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. Any preferred stock issued by a state bank shall be part of its capital stock structure, and the terms "capital stock" or "capital" in any laws of this state pertaining to state banks shall be deemed to also include and apply to preferred stock; ~~except that only stock issued with or having succeeded to voting rights shall qualify a director under the provisions of section 48.06.~~

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 48.15, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The department of commerce may, by majority vote of its members, which shall include the affirmative vote of the commissioner of commerce, may authorize banks organized under the laws of this state to engage in any banking activity in which banks subject to the jurisdiction of the federal government may hereafter be authorized to engage by federal legislation, ruling, or regulation. The commission may not authorize state banks as defined by section 48.01, to engage in any banking activity prohibited by the laws of this state.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 48.21, is amended to read:

48.21 [REAL ESTATE; RESTRICTIONS ON HOLDING.]

Subdivision 1. A bank may purchase, carry as an asset, and convey real estate only:

- (1) As provided for in section 47.10;
- (2) If acquired through foreclosure of a mortgage given to it in good faith as security for loans made by or money due to it;
- (3) If conveyed to it in satisfaction of debts previously contracted in good faith in the course of its dealings;
- (4) If acquired by sale on execution or judgment of a court in its favor; or
- (5) If reasonably necessary to mitigate or avoid loss on a loan or investment theretofore made.

Real estate acquired under clauses (2) to (5) shall be carried as an asset only in accordance with rules the commissioner prescribes.

Subd. 2. Real estate owned by a bank as a result of actions authorized in clauses (2) to (5) of subdivision 1 and subsequently sold to any buyer on a contract for deed may not be considered creating a liability to a bank for purposes of section 48.24.

Subd. 3. Notwithstanding any rules of the commissioner to the contrary, if real estate owned by a bank pursuant to clauses (2) to (5) of subdivision 1 is not sold or otherwise disposed of within the maximum period established by rule by the commissioner, the bank may write off any remaining balance at a rate not less than one-fifth of that balance each subsequent calendar year.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 48.24, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. Obligations of any person, co-partnership, association or corporation in the form of notes or drafts secured by shipping documents or instruments transferring or securing title covering feeder livestock which is free from all other encumbrances, when the market value of the livestock securing the obligation at the time of the making of the loan is not less than 115 percentum of the face amount of the notes covered by such documents, shall be subject under this subdivision to a limitation of 20 percent of capital and surplus in addition to 20 percent of capital and surplus as included in provisions of subdivision 1. Feeder livestock loans as referred to in this subdivision is defined to include only obligations secured by liens or giving title to cattle, sheep, goats, ~~or~~ hogs or poultry being fattened for market, but excluding dairy cattle, milk goats, poultry used for production of eggs, or barnyard or work animals.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 48.51, is amended to read:

48.51 [DEMAND DEPOSITS DEFINED.]

For the purpose of this section and section 48.50, all deposits are payable on demand except:

(1) Those deposits which are evidenced by a negotiable or nonnegotiable instrument which provides on its face that the amount of the deposit is payable:

(a) on a certain date, specified in the instrument, not less than 14 days after the date of the deposit; or (b) at the expiration of a specified period not less than 14 days after the date of the instrument; or (c) upon written notice to be given not less than 14 days before the date of repayment.

(2) Those deposits which may not be withdrawn within 14 days of the making thereof.

(3) Those deposits which may not be withdrawn within 14 days of the giving of notice of an intended withdrawal.

(4) Those deposits in which the above 14-day minimums are in conflict with ~~instruments authorized by the depository institutions deregulation committee's regulations authorized by title II, Depository Institutions Deregulation and Monetary Control Act of 1980, Public Law Number 96-221 federal law or regulations.~~

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 48.61, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. The bank or trust company may invest not to exceed ten percent of its capital and surplus in shares of stock in any banks or bank holding companies wherein the ownership of stock in the banks or bank holding companies is restricted to bank holding companies or banks authorized to do business in the state of Minnesota.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 48.61, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. In the absence of an express provision to the contrary, whenever any statute, rule, charter, trust indenture, authorizing resolution, or other instrument governing the investment of funds of a banking institution, as defined in section 48.01, subdivision 2, directs, requires, authorizes, or permits direct investment in certain obligations of the United States or obligations, the payment of the principal of and interest on which is unconditionally guaranteed by the United States, investment in these obligations may be made either directly or in the form of securities of, or other interests in, an investment company (1) registered under the Federal Investment Company Act of 1940, whose shares are registered under the Federal Securities Act of 1933; and (2) ~~whose investments are limited to these obligations and repurchase agreements fully collateralized by these obligations; if the repurchase agreements are entered into only with those primary reporting dealers that report to the Federal Reserve Bank of New York and with the 100 largest United States commercial banks.~~

Investment company shares authorized pursuant to this subdivision shall Shares of investment companies whose portfolios contain investments which are subject to limits under other state law or rule as direct investments may only be held in an amount not in exceed excess of 20 percent of the banks' capital stock and paid in surplus in each such investment company.

These obligations shall be carried at the lower of cost or market on the banks' books and adjusted to market on a quarterly basis.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 48.92, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [EQUITY CAPITAL.] "Equity capital" means the sum of common stock, preferred stock, ~~and paid in surplus, reserves for loss loans and undivided profits.~~

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 48.97, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [INVESTMENT; REPORTING REQUIREMENTS.] Each financial institution located in this state owned by an interstate bank holding company shall fully and accurately disclose in an annual report to the commissioner of commerce for each calendar year the dollar value and volume of loans by zip code census tract beginning with the year ending December 31, 1987, approved in the previous year in nonreal estate commercial and farm lending categories established by the commissioner. Lending categories must be delineated in sufficient detail to evaluate the lender's loan performance. Loan categories may include: demand or accrual notes, installment loans, equipment loans, inventory or accounts receivable loans, small business administration loans, and FmHA guaranteed loans. Housing loans must be disclosed statewide in the same manner and form as required by the Federal Home Mortgage Disclosure Act. The annual report must also disclose by zip code or census tract the dollar value and volume of deposits received during the previous year. The annual report must also disclose information by the categories required in section 48.991 demonstrating that developmental loans of a sufficient quantity are being made. The report must be accompanied by a copy of the most recent disclosures required under the Federal Community Reinvestment Act and the most recent Quarterly Statement of Income and Conditions.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 48.98, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PUBLIC INFORMATION.] Notwithstanding the Minnesota government data practices act, chapter 13, and consistent with federal law, the commissioner shall make available to the public at reasonable cost copies of all applications, including supporting documents and any other information required to be submitted to the commissioner.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 48.99, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION CRITERIA FOR APPROVAL.] Pursuant to the present requirement of the United States Code, title 12, section 1842(d) and notwithstanding any other provision of state law, a reciprocating state bank holding company, or any subsidiary of ~~the~~ a bank holding company, may acquire a bank located in this state where the commissioner has determined that a merger, consolidation, or purchase of assets and assumption of liabilities is necessary and in the public interest to prevent the probable failure of a bank or is made for the incorporation of a new bank in the same locality coincidental with the closing of an existing bank by the commissioner or federal authorities and does not increase the number of banks in the community affected. The acquisition is subject to the prior written approval of the commissioner of an application submitted under this section and after the following considerations:

- (1) the financial and managerial resources of the applicant;
- (2) the future prospects of the applicant and the state bank or its subsidiary whose assets, interest in, or shares it will acquire;
- (3) the financial history of the applicant;
- (4) whether the acquisition or holding may result in undue concentration of resources or substantial lessening of competition in this state;
- (5) the convenience and needs of the public of this state; and
- (6) whether the acquisition or holding will strengthen the financial condition of the state bank.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 49.04, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [COMMISSIONER TAKING POSSESSION; GROUNDS FOR; RIGHTS OF THIRD PARTIES.] When it shall appear to the commissioner that any financial institution has violated its charter, or any law of the state, or is conducting its business in an unsafe or unauthorized manner, or that its capital is impaired, or if it or any of its controlling officers shall refuse to submit its books, papers, and concerns to the inspection of the commissioner, or any duly authorized assistant, or if any of its officers shall refuse to be examined upon oath touching its concerns, or if it shall suspend payment of its obligations, or furnish reason for the commissioner concluding that it is in an unsound or unsafe condition to transact the business for which it was organized, or that it is unsafe and inexpedient for it to continue business, or if it shall neglect or refuse to observe a proper order of the commissioner, the commissioner may forthwith take possession of its property and business including forfeiture of its certificate of authorization and retain this possession until it shall resume business or its affairs be finally liquidated, as herein provided. On taking possession of the property and business of any such financial institution, the commissioner shall forthwith give notice of that fact to any and all financial institutions or other corporations, associations, partnerships, and individuals holding, or in possession of, any of its assets. No financial institution or other corporation, association, partnership, or individual knowing of such taking possession by the commissioner, or notified, as aforesaid, shall have a lien or charge for any payment, advance, or clearance thereafter made, or liability thereafter incurred against any of the assets of the financial institution of whose property and business the commissioner shall have taken possession, as aforesaid. The financial institution may, with the consent of the commissioner, resume business upon such conditions as may be approved by the commissioner. Upon taking possession of the property and business of the financial institution, the commissioner is authorized to collect moneys due to it and to do such other acts as are necessary to conserve its assets and business, and shall proceed to liquidate the affairs thereof, if in the commissioner's opinion it cannot safely resume business, as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 49.05, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [COMMISSIONER MAY BORROW MONEY.] With respect to a banking institution which is or may be closed on account of inability to meet the demands of its depositors or by action of the commissioner or of a court or by action of its directors, or, in the event of its insolvency or suspension, the commissioner may borrow from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and furnish any part or all of the assets of the institution to the corporation as security for a loan from same. The order of a court of record of competent jurisdiction shall be first obtained approving this loan. The commissioner or receiver or liquidator appointed by the commissioner upon the order of a court of record of competent jurisdiction may sell to the corporation any part or all of the assets of the institution.

The provisions of this subdivision shall not be construed to limit the power of any banking institution, or the commissioner, to pledge or sell assets in accordance with any other law of this state.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 49.24, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [REJECTION OF CLAIMS; ACTIONS; LIMITATIONS.] If the commissioner doubts the justice or validity of any claim, the commissioner may reject the same in whole or in part and serve notice of such rejection upon the claimant, either by mail or personally. An affidavit of the service of such notice made according to law shall be filed with the commissioner. An action upon a claim so rejected must be brought within 60 days after such service and the filing of proof thereof. The venue of such action shall be in the county in which such financial institution had its principal place of business prior to liquidation, and such action shall be brought jointly against the financial institution and the commissioner or receiver or liquidator appointed by the commissioner as statutory liquidator thereof. Any person having a claim against such financial institution which is not presented and filed within the time fixed in the notice to creditors may thereafter present the same and the commissioner shall allow or reject the same in whole or in part and give notice of any rejection, as hereinbefore provided. Suit on any such claim not filed within the time fixed by the notice which is rejected must be brought within 30 days after the service and filing of proof of such rejection. Any claim not filed within the time fixed in the notice to creditors but later received and filed as by this section provided and duly allowed, shall participate and share in such dividends only as shall be paid from the proceeds of those assets remaining undistributed at the time of filing of such claim, and any claim not filed prior to the declaration of a final dividend shall be barred. No action shall be commenced against any such financial institution after possession of the business and property thereof has been taken by the commissioner on any claim until such claim has been filed with and rejected, in whole or in part, by the commissioner. As to any action pending at the time the commissioner takes possession of the business and property of such financial institution which has been stayed by order of the court, a claim may be filed for the subject matter of said action. If the claim be allowed, the action shall terminate and be dismissed without costs and disbursements, but, if rejected in whole or in part, the stay order shall be vacated, and the action may continue. No interest shall be allowed or paid on any deposit or other claim from and after the closing of the financial institution and the taking over of the same by the commissioner for purposes of liquidation.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 51A.58, is amended to read:

51A.58 [INTERSTATE BRANCHING.]

An association may, by acquisition, merger, or consolidation, establish or operate branch offices in any reciprocating state, and a savings and loan association chartered in ~~the~~ any reciprocating state may establish branch offices in this state. A savings and loan holding company with its headquarters in this state may acquire by direct or indirect ownership or control the voting shares of a savings and loan association or savings bank located in any reciprocating state. For the purposes of this section, "reciprocating state" is: (1) a state that authorizes the establishment of branch offices in that state by an association located in this state, or the acquisition of savings and loan associations and savings banks located in that state by a savings and loan holding company with its headquarters in this state, under conditions no more restrictive than those imposed by the laws of Minnesota as determined by the commissioner of commerce; and (2) limited to the states specifically enumerated as reciprocating states in section 48.92, subdivision 7.

The commissioner of commerce shall adopt rules to provide that procedural requirements equivalent to those contained in sections 48.90 to 48.991 apply to reciprocal interstate branching and acquisitions by savings and loan associations.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 52.01, is amended to read:
52.01 [ORGANIZATION.]

Any seven residents of the state may apply to the commissioner of commerce for permission to organize a credit union.

A credit union is a cooperative society, incorporated for the two-fold purpose of promoting thrift among its members and creating a source of credit for them at legitimate rates of interest for provident purposes.

A credit union is organized in the following manner:

(1) The applicants execute, in duplicate, a certificate of organization by the terms of which they agree to be bound, which shall state:

(a) the name and location of the proposed credit union;

(b) the names and addresses of the subscribers to the certificate and the number of shares subscribed by each;

(2) The applicants submit the following in the form prescribed by the commissioner of commerce:

(a) a statement of the common bond of the proposed credit union;

(b) the number of potential members;

(c) the geographic dispersion of the potential members;

(d) evidence of interest, including willingness of potential members to assume responsibility for leadership and service;

(e) a two-year forecast of probable levels of assets, shares and deposits, and income and expense;

(f) the availability of other credit union services to the potential members;

(g) other information the commissioner requires;

(3) They next prepare and adopt bylaws for the general governance of the credit union consistent with the provisions of this chapter, and execute them in duplicate;

(4) The certificate and the bylaws, both executed in duplicate, are forwarded to the commissioner of commerce with a $100 application fee;

(5) The commissioner of commerce shall, within 60 days of the receipt of the certificate, the information required by paragraph (2), and the by-laws, and a commitment for insurance of accounts as required by section 52.24, subdivision 2, determine whether they comply with the provisions of this chapter, and whether or not the organization of the credit union in question would benefit its members, be economically feasible, and be consistent with the purposes of this chapter;

(6) Thereupon the commissioner of commerce shall notify the applicants of the decision. If it is favorable, the commissioner shall upon receipt of a commitment for insurance of accounts as required by section 52.24, subdivision 2, issue a certificate of approval, attached to the duplicate certificate of organization, and return them with the duplicate bylaws to the applicants. If it is unfavorable, the applicants may, within 60 days after the decision, appeal for a review in a court of competent jurisdiction;

(7) The applicants shall thereupon file the duplicate of the certificate of organization, with the certificate of approval attached thereto, with the secretary of state, who shall make a record of the certificate and return it, with a certificate of record attached thereto, to the commissioner of commerce for permanent records; and

(8) Thereupon the applicants shall be a credit union incorporated in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

In order to simplify the organization of credit unions, the commissioner of commerce shall prepare approved forms of certificate of organization and bylaws, consistent with this chapter, which may be used by credit union incorporators for their guidance, and on written application of seven residents of the state, shall supply them without charge with a blank certificate of organization and a copy of the form of suggested bylaws.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 52.02, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [APPROVAL.] Amendments to the certificate of organization or bylaws must be approved by the commissioner of commerce before they become operative. The commissioner shall not unreasonably withhold approval if the amendments do not violate any provision of this chapter or other state law. In any event, the commissioner shall approve or disapprove the proposed amendment within 60 days of the date the proposed amendment is submitted to the commissioner by the credit union. In case of disapproval the credit union shall have the right to appeal to a court of competent jurisdiction within the time limits stated in section 52.01, clause ~~(5)~~ (6). In case any amendment to the certificate of organization is adopted, the resolution, containing a full text of the amendment and verified by its president or treasurer and approved by the commissioner of commerce, shall be recorded in the office of the secretary of state.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 52.09, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PARTICULAR DUTIES.] The directors shall manage the affairs of the credit union and shall:

(1) act on applications for membership. This power may be delegated to a membership chair who serves at the pleasure of the board of directors and is subject to its rules. An application must contain a certification signed by the membership chair or a member of the board showing the basis of membership;

(2) determine interest rates on loans and on deposits. The interest period on deposits may be on a daily, monthly, quarterly, semiannual or annual basis, and may be paid on all deposits whether or not the deposits have been withdrawn during the interest period. Interest may be computed on a daily basis. ~~At the discretion of the board of directors, interest need not be paid on deposit accounts of less than $10;~~

(3) fix the amount of the surety bond required of all officers and employees handling money;

(4) declare dividends and transmit to the members recommended amendments to the bylaws;

(5) fill vacancies in the board and in the credit committee until successors are chosen and qualify at the next annual meeting;

(6) limit the number of shares and deposits which may be owned by a member, not to exceed ten percent of the outstanding shares and deposits, or $2,000, whichever is larger, and the maximum individual loan which can be made with and without security, including liability indirectly as a comaker, guarantor, or endorser to ten percent of outstanding shares and deposits. The ten percent share and deposit limitation is not applicable to the Minnesota corporate credit union, or to credit unions insured by the National Credit Union Administration;

(7) have charge of investments including loans to members, unless a credit committee is established pursuant to section 52.08 or paragraph (13) of this subdivision;

(8) fix the salaries of the treasurer and other employees, which must be on a fixed monthly or annual basis, in dollars (not percentage);

(9) designate the depository institution in which the funds of the credit union will be deposited;

(10) authorize the officers of the credit union to borrow money from any source, as provided in section 52.15;

(11) with the permission of the commissioner of commerce, suspend any member of the credit committee or supervisory committee if it deems this action necessary to the proper conduct of the credit union, and call the members together to act on the suspension within a reasonable time after the suspension. The members at the meeting may, by majority vote of those present, sustain the suspension and remove the committee members permanently or may reinstate the committee members;

(12) provide financial assistance to the supervisory committee in carrying out its audit responsibilities;

(13) if the bylaws so provide and no credit committee has been elected pursuant to section 52.08, appoint a credit manager or a credit committee of not less than three members; and

(14) to establish different classes of shares.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 52.18, is amended to read:
52.18 [DIVIDENDS.]

The directors of a credit union may, on a daily, monthly, quarterly, sem-annual, or annual basis as its board of directors may determine, declare and pay a dividend from net earnings or accumulated net undivided profits remaining after statutory reserve has been set aside, which dividend may be paid on all shares whether or not they have been withdrawn during the dividend period. Dividends may be computed on a daily basis. The board of directors may classify its share accounts according to character, amount and duration and declare dividends which may be at variable rates with due regard to the conditions that pertain to each class of shares, or pay no dividend at all. A dividend shall be uniform within a classification. ~~At the discretion of the board of directors dividends may not be declared or paid on share accounts of less than $10.~~ Shares which become fully paid up during a dividend period shall be entitled to a proportional part of the dividend calculated from the first day of the month following the payment in full. For the purpose of this section, shares which become fully paid up by the fifteenth day of any month may be treated as being paid up from the first day of the month.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 53.04, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. (a) The right to make loans, secured or unsecured, at the rates and on the terms and other conditions permitted licensees under chapter 56. Loans made under the authority of section 56.125 must be in amounts in compliance with section 53.05, clause (7). All other loans made under the authority of chapter 56 must be in amounts in compliance with section 53.05, clause (7), or 56.131, subdivision 1, paragraph (a), whichever is less. The right to extend credit or lend money and to collect and receive charges therefor as provided by chapter 334, or in lieu thereof to charge, collect, and receive interest at the rate of 21.75 percent per annum, including the right to contract for, charge, and collect all other charges including discount points, fees, late payment charges, and insurance premiums on the loans to the same extent permitted on loans made under the authority of chapter 56, regardless of the amount of the loan. The provisions of sections 47.20 and 47.21 do not apply to loans made under this subdivision, except as specifically provided in this subdivision. Nothing in this subdivision is deemed to supersede, repeal, or amend any provision of section 53.05. A licensee making a loan under this chapter secured by a lien on real estate shall comply with the requirements of section 47.20, subdivision 8.

(b) Loans made under this subdivision at a rate of interest not in excess of that provided for in paragraph (a) may be secured by real or personal property, or both. ~~If the proceeds of a loan made after August 1, 1987 are used in whole or in part to satisfy the balance owed on a contract for deed, the rate of interest charged on the loan must not exceed the rate provided in section 47.20, subdivision 4a.~~ If the proceeds of a loan secured by a first lien on the borrower's primary residence are used to finance the purchase of the borrower's primary residence, the loan must comply with the provisions of section 47.20.

(c) A loan made under this subdivision that is secured by real estate and that is in a principal amount of $7,500 or more and a maturity of 60 months or more may contain a provision permitting discount points, if the loan does not provide a loan yield in excess of the maximum rate of interest permitted by this subdivision. Loan yield means the annual rate of return obtained by a licensee computed as the annual percentage rate is computed under Federal Regulation Z. If the loan is prepaid in full, the licensee must make a refund to the borrower to the extent that the loan yield will exceed the maximum rate of interest provided by this subdivision when the prepayment is taken into account.

(d) An agency or instrumentality of the United States government or a corporation otherwise created by an act of the United States Congress or a lender approved or certified by the secretary of housing and urban development, or approved or certified by the administrator of veterans affairs, or approved or certified by the administrator of the farmers home administration, or approved or certified by the federal home loan mortgage corporation, or approved or certified by the federal national mortgage association, that engages in the business of purchasing or taking assignments of mortgage loans and undertakes direct collection of payments from or enforcement of rights against borrowers arising from mortgage loans, is not required to obtain a certificate of authorization under this chapter in order to purchase or take assignments of mortgage loans from persons holding a certificate of authorization under this chapter.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 53.04, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. The right, with the consent of the department of commerce, to (1) sell and issue for investment certificates of indebtedness, under any descriptive name, which may bear interest, if any, as their terms provide, and which may require the payment to the company of amounts, from time to time as their terms provide, and permit the withdrawal of amounts paid on them, in whole or in part, from time to time, and the credit of amounts thereon upon conditions set forth therein; and (2) receive savings accounts or savings deposits. ~~No certificate of indebtedness shall have a surrender value which is less than the total amount paid to the company therefor.~~

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 53.09, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REPORT TO COMMISSIONER.] (1) Each industrial loan and thrift company shall annually on or before the first day of February file a report with the commissioner stating in detail, under appropriate heads, its assets and liabilities at the close of business on the last day of the preceding calendar year. This report shall be made under oath in the form prescribed by the commissioner and published once, at the expense of the industrial loan and thrift company, in a newspaper of the county of its location, and proof thereof filed immediately with the commissioner of commerce.

(2) Each industrial loan and thrift company which holds authority to accept accounts pursuant to section 53.04, subdivision 5, shall in place of the requirement in clause (1) submit the reports and make the publication required of state banks pursuant to section 48.48.

(2) (3) Within 30 days following a change in controlling ownership of the capital stock of an industrial loan and thrift company, it shall file a written report with the commissioner stating in detail the nature of such change in ownership.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 55.15, is amended to read:

55.15 [APPLICATION.]

This chapter shall not be held or construed as limiting, restricting, or in any way affecting the operation or management of safe deposit boxes or vaults, or a safe deposit business, by any savings bank, bank, or trust company. If any bank, savings bank, or trust company elects to transact the business of a safe deposit company under the provisions of this chapter, it shall so notify the commissioner of commerce and thereafter the provisions of sections 55.02 and 55.10 to ~~55.13~~ 55.12 shall apply to such safe deposit business and said bank, savings bank, or trust company shall have the benefit thereof. The provisions of sections 55.03 to 55.09 and the provisions of section 55.095 shall not apply to a bank, savings bank, or trust company carrying on the business of a safe deposit company.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 56.12, is amended to read:

56.12 [ADVERTISING; TAKING OF SECURITY; PLACE OF BUSINESS.]

No licensee shall advertise, print, display, publish, distribute, or broadcast, or cause or permit to be advertised, printed, displayed, published, distributed, or broadcast, in any manner any statement or representation with regard to the rates, terms, or conditions for the lending of money, credit, goods, or things in action which is false, misleading, or deceptive. The commissioner may order any licensee to desist from any conduct which the commissioner shall find to be a violation of the foregoing provisions.

The commissioner may require that rates of charge, if stated by a licensee, be stated fully and clearly in such manner as the commissioner may deem necessary to prevent misunderstanding thereof by prospective borrowers. In lieu of the disclosure requirements of this section and section 56.14, a licensee may give the disclosures required by the federal Truth-in-Lending Act.

A licensee may take a lien upon real estate as security for any loan exceeding $2,700 in principal amount made under this chapter. The provisions of sections 47.20 and 47.21 do not apply to loans made under this chapter, except as provided in this section. No loan secured by a first lien on a borrower's primary residence shall be made pursuant to this section if the proceeds of the loan are used to finance the purchase of the borrower's primary residence, unless:

(1) the proceeds of the loan are used to finance the purchase of a manufactured home; or

(2) the proceeds of the loan are used in whole or in part to satisfy the balance owed on a contract for deed. ~~The rate of interest charged on such a loan made after August 1, 1987, shall not exceed the rate provided in section 47.20, subdivision 4a.~~

If the proceeds of the loan are used to finance the purchase of the borrower's primary residence, the licensee shall consent to the subsequent transfer of the real estate if the existing borrower continues after transfer to be obligated for repayment of the entire remaining indebtedness. The licensee shall release the existing borrower from all obligations under the loan instruments, if the transferee (1) meets the standards of credit worthiness normally used by persons in the business of making loans, including but not limited to the ability of the transferee to make the loan payments and satisfactorily maintain the property used as collateral, and (2) executes an agreement in writing with the licensee whereby the transferee assumes the obligations of the existing borrower under the loan instruments. Any such agreement shall not affect the priority, validity or enforceability of any loan instrument. A licensee may charge a fee not in excess of one-tenth of one percent of the remaining unpaid principal balance in the event the loan is assumed by the transferee and the existing borrower continues after the transfer to be obligated for repayment of the entire assumed indebtedness. A licensee may charge a fee not in excess of one percent of the remaining unpaid principal balance in the event the remaining indebtedness is assumed by the transferee and the existing borrower is released from all obligations under the loan instruments, but in no event shall the fee exceed $150.

A licensee making a loan under this chapter secured by a lien on real estate shall comply with the requirements of section 47.20, subdivision 8.

No licensee shall conduct the business of making loans under this chapter within any office, room, or place of business in which any other business is solicited or engaged in, or in association or conjunction therewith, if the commissioner finds that the character of the other business is such that it would facilitate evasions of this chapter or of the rules lawfully made hereunder. The commissioner may promulgate rules dealing with such other businesses.

No licensee shall transact the business or make any loan provided for by this chapter under any other name or at any other place of business than that named in the license. No licensee shall take any confession of judgment or any power of attorney. No licensee shall take any note or promise to pay that does not accurately disclose the principal amount of the loan, the time for which it is made, and the agreed rate or amount of charge, nor any instrument in which blanks are left to be filled in after execution. Nothing herein is deemed to prohibit the making of loans by mail.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 325G.04, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. For purposes of subdivisions 1 and 2, "unauthorized use" means a use by a person other than the customer who does not have actual, implied, or apparent authority for the use.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 332.29, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The commissioner ~~may from time to time~~ shall examine the books and records of every licensee hereunder and of any person engaged in the business of debt prorating service as defined in section 332.13 at least once every 18 calendar months. The commissioner once during any calendar year, may require the submission of an audit prepared by a certified public accountant of the books and records of each licensee hereunder. If the licensee has, within one year previous to the commissioner's demand, had an audit prepared for some other purpose, this audit may be submitted to satisfy the requirement of this section. The commissioner may investigate any complaint concerning violations of sections 332.12 to 332.29 and may require the attendance and sworn testimony of witnesses and the production of documents.

Sec. 38. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 48.60 and 55.13, are repealed.

Sec. 39. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1, 2, 4, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 25, 26, 27, and 28 are effective the day following final enactment. Sections 3 and 37 are effective July 1, 1987.

ARTICLE 2

REGULATORY REDUCTION ACT

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 55.095, is amended to read:
55.095 [DUTIES OF COMMISSIONER OF COMMERCE.]

Every safe deposit company is at all times under the supervision and subject to the control of the commissioner of commerce. ~~The commissioner's examiners shall visit at least once each year each commissioner~~ may at any time examine a licensed safe deposit company licensed by the commissioner to ascertain whether the safe deposit company is complying with the provisions of this chapter and whether its methods and systems are in accordance with law and designed to protect the property of persons doing business with it. For each examination the commissioner shall charge the actual expenses of examination. If the commissioner of commerce determines that the safe deposit company is violating the provisions of this chapter, any law of the state, or has engaged or the commissioner has reason to believe that a licensee is about to engage in an unlawful, unsafe, or unsound practice in the conduct of its business, the commissioner may proceed pursuant to sections 46.24 to 46.33 or serve notice on the safe deposit company of intention to revoke the license, stating in general the grounds therefor and giving reasonable opportunity to be heard. If for a period of 15 days after the notice, the violation continues, the commissioner of commerce may revoke the license and take possession of the business and property of the safe deposit company and maintain possession until the time the commissioner permits it to continue business, or its affairs are finally liquidated. The liquidation must proceed pursuant to sections 49.04 to 49.32.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 59A.06, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. The commissioner ~~shall~~ may at any time make an examination of the affairs, business, office and records of each licensee ~~at least once each year~~. Each licensee shall pay to the commissioner the actual costs of examination as well as amounts required under section 46.131, and the commissioner may maintain an action for the recovery of such costs in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 168.66, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. "Retail installment sale" means any sale evidenced by a retail installment contract wherein retail buyer agrees to buy and retail seller agrees to sell a motor vehicle at a ~~time~~ sale price payable in one or more installments with the payment of a finance charge.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 168.66, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. "Retail installment contract" means any agreement, entered into in this state, evidencing a retail installment sale of a motor vehicle, other than for the purpose of resale, when purchased primarily for personal, family or household use, pursuant to which title to, or a lien upon the motor vehicle is retained by the retail seller as security for the retail buyer's obligation. This term includes a mortgage, conditional sale contract, or any contract for the bailment or leasing of a motor vehicle by which the bailee or lessee contracts to pay as compensation for its use a sum substantially equivalent to the ~~time~~ retail installment sale price of the motor vehicle and by which it is agreed that the bailee or lessee is bound to become, or has the option of becoming, the owner of such motor vehicle for no additional consideration or for nominal additional consideration. "Retail installment contract" does not include any agreement, entered into in this state, evidencing an installment sale of a motor vehicle purchased primarily for use in business. For purposes of this subdivision, "business" means a commercial or industrial enterprise which is carried on for the purpose of active or passive investment or profit.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 168.66, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. "Motor vehicle" means any device propelled or drawn by any power other than muscular power, in, upon, or by which any person or property is, or may be transported or drawn upon a highway, excepting building and road construction equipment not subject to motor vehicle registration fees, snowmobiles, three-wheel off-road vehicles, boat, snowmobile, and other utility trailers, farm tractors, and agricultural machinery not designed primarily for highway transportation, but which may incidentally transport persons or property on a public highway, or any other device which may not be lawfully operated upon a highway at the time of sale.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 168.66, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. "Cash sale price" means the price at which the seller would in good faith sell to the buyer, and the buyer would in good faith buy from the seller, the motor vehicle which is the subject matter of the retail installment contract, if such sale were a sale for cash, instead of a retail installment sale. The cash sale price may include any taxes, charges for delivery, servicing, repairing or improving the motor vehicle, including accessories and their installation, and any other charges agreed upon between the parties. The cash price may not include a documentary fee or document administration fee in excess of $25 for services actually rendered to, for, or on behalf of, the retail buyer in preparing, handling, and processing documents relating to the motor vehicle and the closing of the retail sale.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 168.66, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. "~~Time sale price~~" "Total of payments" means the amount which the buyer contracts to pay under a retail installment contract, excluding any down payment.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 168.66, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. "~~Time price differential~~" means the amount by which the ~~seller's total time sale price exceeds the aggregate of the cash sale price,~~ "Finance charge" means any charge payable directly or indirectly by the buyer and imposed directly or indirectly by the seller as a condition of the extension of credit under a retail installment contract, and includes a time price differential. The term does not include the cost of any insurance and other benefits included in the retail installment contract and any other permissible cost or expense incidental to the retail installment sale or any charge of a type payable in a comparable cash transaction, or any taxes, fees, or charges that actually are or will be paid to public officials or government agencies for determining the existence of or for perfecting, releasing, or satisfying a security interest. The term also does not include premiums for insurance against loss of or damage to property, or against liability arising out of the ownership or use of property if the insurance coverage may be obtained from a person of the buyer's choice.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 168.705, is amended to read:

168.705 [EXAMINATIONS, SPECIAL INVESTIGATIONS, COSTS.]

For the purpose of discovering violations of sections 168.66 to 168.77 or securing information lawfully required by the administrator hereunder, the administrator may, at any time, either personally or by a person or persons duly designated by the administrator, investigate the conditional sales contracts and business related to the conditional sales contracts and examine the books, accounts, records, and files used therein, of every licensee and of every person who shall be engaged in the business of a sales finance company, whether the person shall act as principal or agent, or under or without the authority of sections 168.66 to 168.77. For that purpose, the administrator and the administrator's duly designated representative shall have free access to the offices and places of business, books, accounts, papers, records, files, safes, and vaults of all these persons. The administrator and all persons duly designated by the administrator shall have authority to require the attendance of and to examine, under oath, all persons whomsoever whose testimony the administrator may require relative to the conditional sales contract or the business or to the subject matter of any examination, investigation, or hearing.

The administrator ~~shall~~ may make an examination of the affairs, business, office, and records of each licensee at least once every two calendar years. ~~Each licensee shall pay to the administrator an amount as may be required under section 46.131, and the administrator licenses as often as considered necessary. The commissioner may assess a fee covering the necessary costs of an examination or special investigation under this section, section 168.69, or reports filed under section 168.706. The fee is payable to the commissioner on the commissioner's request for payment. The commissioner may maintain an action for the recovery of the costs in any court of competent jurisdiction.~~

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 168.71, is amended to read:

168.71 [RETAIL INSTALLMENT CONTRACTS.]

(a) (1) Every retail installment contract shall be in writing, shall contain all the agreements of the parties, shall be signed by the retail buyer and seller, and a copy thereof shall be furnished to such retail buyer at the time of the execution of the contract.

(2) No provisions for confession of judgment or power of attorney therefor contained in any retail installment contract or contained in a separate agreement relating thereto, shall be valid or enforceable.

(3) The holder of a precomputed retail installment contract may, if the contract so provides, collect a delinquency and collection charge on each installment in arrears for a period not less than ten days in an amount not in excess of five percent of each installment or $5, whichever is the less. In addition to such delinquency and collection charge, the retail installment contract, whether interest-bearing or precomputed, may provide for the payment of attorneys' fees not exceeding 15 percent of the amount due and payable under such contract where such contract is referred to an attorney not a salaried employee of the holder of the contract for collection plus the court costs.

(4) Unless written notice has been given to the retail buyer of actual or intended assignment of a retail installment contract, payment thereunder or tender thereof made by the retail buyer to the last known holder of such contract shall be binding upon all subsequent holders or assignees.

(5) Upon written request from the retail buyer, the holder of the retail installment contract shall give or forward to the retail buyer a written statement of the dates and amounts of payments and the total amount unpaid under such contract. A retail buyer shall be given a written receipt for any payment when made in cash.

(b) The retail installment contract shall contain the following items:

(1) The cash sale price of the motor vehicle which is the subject matter of the retail installment contract;

(2) The total amount of the retail buyer's down payment, whether made in money or goods, or partly in money or partly in goods;

(3) The difference between items one and two;

(4) The charge, if any, included in the transaction for any insurance and other benefits not included in clause (1), specifying the types of coverage and benefits taxes, fees, and charges that actually are or will be paid to public officials or government agencies, including those for perfecting, releasing, or satisfying a security interest if such taxes, fees, or charges are not included in clause (1);

(5) Principal balance, which is the sum of item three and item four;

(6) ~~The amount of the time price differential;~~ disclosures required by the Federal Truth-in-Lending Act.

~~(7) The time balance payable by the retail buyer to the retail seller and the number of installment payments required and the amount of each installment expressed in dollars or percentages, and date of each payment necessary finally to pay the time balance which is the sum of item five and item six.~~

Provided, however, that said items one to seven inclusive need not be stated in the sequence or order set forth above and that additional items may be included which serve to explain the calculations involved in determining the stated time balance to be paid by the retail buyer.

(c) Every retail seller or sales finance company, if a charge for insurance on the motor vehicle is included in a retail installment contract shall within 30 days after execution of the retail installment contract send or cause to be sent to the retail buyer a policy or policies or certificate of insurance, which insurance shall be written by a company authorized to do business in this state, clearly setting forth the amount of the premium, the kind or kinds of insurance and the scope of the coverage and all the terms, exceptions, limitations, restrictions and conditions of the contract or contracts of the insurance. The buyer of a motor vehicle under a retail installment contract shall have the privilege of purchasing such insurance from an agent or broker of the buyer's own selection and selecting an insurance company mutually acceptable to the seller and the buyer; provided, however, that the inclusion of the cost of the insurance premium in the retail installment contract when the buyer selects the agent, broker or company, shall be optional with the seller.

(d) Any sales finance company hereunder may purchase or acquire from any retail seller any retail installment contract on such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed upon between them.

(e) An acknowledgment by the retail buyer of the delivery of any such copy or notice as required in subsection (a) of this section contained in the body of the statement or contract shall be conclusive proof of delivery in any action or proceeding by or against any assignee of a retail installment contract.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 168.72, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. (a) ~~The time price differential finance charge~~ authorized by sections 168.66 to 168.77 in a retail installment sale may not exceed the following simple interest annual percentage rates:

Class 1. Any motor vehicle designated by the manufacturer by a year model of the same or not more than one year prior to the year in which the sale is made - ~~$10 per $100~~ 18 percent per year.

Class 2. Any motor vehicle designated by the manufacturer by a year model of two or three years prior to the year in which the sale is made - ~~$11 per $100~~ 19.75 percent per year.

Class 3. Any motor vehicle not in Class 1 or Class 2 - ~~$13 per $100~~ 23.25 percent per year ~~plus a flat charge of $3 for each retail installment sale.~~

(b) ~~The time price differential finance charge~~ must be computed on the principal balance outstanding from time to time as originally determined under section 168.71, clause (b) ~~and must be computed at the rate indicated on contracts payable in successive monthly installment payments substantially equal in amount extending for a period of one year. For purposes of this subdivision and section 168.73, contracts payable in successive monthly installment payments include those where the first installment is scheduled for not less than 15 days nor more than one month and 15 days from the date of the contract. On contracts providing for installment payments extending for a period less than or greater than one year, the time price differential must be computed proportionately.~~

(c) ~~When a retail installment contract provides for unequal or irregular installment payments, the time price differential is at the effective rate provided in clause (a) hereof, having due regard for the irregular schedule of payment. Retail installment contracts may be interest-bearing or pre-computed, and fixed-rate or variable rate. For precomputed retail installment contracts, the finance charge may be calculated in advance on the assumption that all scheduled payments will be made when due and the effect of prepayment in full is governed by section 168.73. To compute time for the purpose of calculating interest under this section and section 168.73, a day may be considered 1/30 of a month when calculation is made for a fraction of a calendar month. A year is 12 calendar months. A calendar month is that period from a given date in one month to the same numbered date in the following month, and if there is no same-~~ numbered date, to the last day of the following month. When a period of time includes a whole month and a fraction of a month, the fraction of a month is considered to follow the whole month. In the alternative, for interest-bearing retail installment contracts, a retail seller may charge finance charges not to exceed 1/365th of the simple interest annual percentage rate permitted in this section for each actual day elapsed from the date of the retail installment contract through and including the date of payment in full.

(d) (c) The ~~time price differential~~ finance charge is inclusive of all charges incident to investigating and making the contract, and for the extension of the credit provided for in the contract and no fee, commission, expense or other charge whatsoever may be taken, received, reserved or contracted for except taxes, fees, and charges that actually are or will be paid to public officials or government agencies for determining the existence of or for perfecting, releasing, or satisfying a security interest, and except as provided in sections 168.66 to 168.77.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 168.72, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. A sale of a manufactured home made after July 31, 1983, is governed by the provisions of subdivision 1 for purposes of determining the lawful ~~time price differential~~ finance charge rate, except that the maximum ~~time differential~~ finance charge for a class I manufactured home may not exceed ~~$8 per $100~~ 14.5 percent per year. A retail installment sale of a manufactured home that imposes a time price differential rate that is greater than the rate permitted by this subdivision is lawful and enforceable in accordance with its terms until the indebtedness is fully satisfied if the rate was lawful when the sale was made.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 168.73, is amended to read:

168.73 [PREPAYMENT IN FULL, REFUND CREDITS, ALLOWANCE.]

Notwithstanding the provisions of any retail installment contract to the contrary, any retail buyer may pay in full at any time before maturity the debt of any retail installment contract ~~and without penalty~~. In ~~so~~ paying ~~such debt~~ a precomputed retail installment contract in full, the retail buyer shall receive a refund credit thereon for such anticipation of payments. For contracts which substantially equal scheduled monthly payments remaining after the date of prepayment in full, the refund must be calculated for all fully unexpired monthly payment periods following the date of payment in full. For all other contracts, the refund must be calculated as of the date in the month following prepayment which corresponds to the original contract date. The ~~amount of such~~ refund shall ~~represent at least as great a proportion of the time price differential after first deducting from such time price differential~~ be calculated according to the actuarial method, less an acquisition cost of $15; as the sum of the periodic time balances after the month in which date prepayment is made; bears to the sum of all the periodic time balances under the schedule of payments in the original contract which may be deducted from the refund so calculated.

Where the amount of the credit for anticipation of payment is less than $1, no refund need be made.

The actuarial method means the method of allocating payments on a contract between the principal amount and finance charge at the contract rate charged under section 168.72, whereby a payment is applied first to the accumulated finance charge and then to the unpaid principal balance based on the original terms of the contract and based on the assumption that all payments are made on the due date as originally scheduled or deferred.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 168.74, is amended to read:
168.74 [EXTENSION OF SCHEDULES, PAYMENTS.]

The holder of a precomputed retail installment contract, may, upon written agreement with the retail buyer, extend the ~~schedules~~ scheduled due date, or defer the ~~schedules~~ scheduled payment of all or part of any installment payment or payments, or renew the balance of such contract. In any such case the holder may restate the amount of the installments and the time schedule therefor, and collect as a refinance charge for such extension, deferment or renewal, a flat service fee not to exceed $5 and a total additional charge not exceeding ~~an amount equal to one percent per month~~ the simple interest annual percentage rate under the original retail installment contract calculated on the respective descending balances computed from the date of such extension, deferment or renewal.

Sec. 15. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1, 2, 5, and 9 of this article are effective July 1, 1987. Sections 6, 7, 8, 10, 11, 12, and 14 are effective January 1, 1988. Section 13 is effective January 1, 1988, and applies to contracts entered into on or after that date.

ARTICLE 3

APPLICATION PARITY ACT

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 46.041, is amended to read:
46.041 [BANK APPLICATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [FILING; FEE; ~~HEARING~~ PUBLIC INSPECTION.] The incorporators of a bank proposed to be organized under the laws of this state shall execute and acknowledge a written application in the form prescribed by the commissioner of commerce. The application must be signed by two or more of the incorporators and request a certificate authorizing the proposed bank to transact business at the place and in the name stated in the application. The applicant shall file the application with the department with a $1,000 filing fee and a $500 investigation fee. The fees must be turned over by the commissioner to the state treasurer and credited to the general fund. ~~Thereupon the applicant shall within 30 days of the receipt of the form prescribed by the commissioner, publish a notice of the filing of the application in a newspaper published in the municipality in which the proposed bank is to be located, and if there is no such newspaper, then at the county seat of the county in which the bank is proposed to be located. The notice shall be in the form prescribed by the commissioner and, in addition to the publication, the applicant shall mail a copy of the notice by certified mail to every bank located within three miles of the proposed location of the bank. If an application is contested, 50 percent of an additional fee equal to the actual costs incurred by the department of commerce in approving or disapproving the application, payable to the state treasurer and credited by the treasurer to the general fund, must be paid by the applicant and 50 percent equally by the intervening parties. The application file must be public, with the exception of financial data on individuals which is private under the Minnesota gov-~~ ernment data practices act.

Subd. 2. [UNCONTESTED NOTICE OF FILING APPLICATION APPROVAL ORDER; PUBLICATION.] If no objection is received by the commissioner within 21 days after the publication and mailing of the notices, the commissioner may issue an order approving the application without a hearing if it is found that the applicant meets the conditions in section 46.044. Otherwise the commissioner must deny the application. Upon notice of acceptance of an application as complete in all respects for filing, the applicant shall within 30 days of the receipt of the form prescribed by the commissioner, publish a notice of the filing of the application, in a newspaper published in the municipality in which the proposed bank is to be located, and if there is no such newspaper, then at the county seat of the county in which the bank is proposed to be located. The notice must be in the form prescribed by the commissioner and, in addition to the publication, the applicant shall mail a copy of the notice by certified mail to every bank located within three miles of the proposed location of the bank.

Subd. 3. [OBJECTIONS; COMMENTS, REQUESTS FOR HEARING.] If the application is contested, the commissioner shall fix a time, within 60 days after the filing of the objection for a hearing, and the record of the hearing shall be considered by the commissioner in deciding whether or not the application shall be granted. A notice of the hearing must be published in the form prescribed by the commissioner in some newspaper published in the municipality in which the proposed bank is to be located, and if there is no such newspaper, then at the county seat of the county in which the bank is proposed to be located. The notice shall be published once, at the expense of the applicants, not less than 30 days prior to the date of the hearing. At the hearing the commissioner shall consider the application and hear the applicants and such witnesses as may appear in favor of or against the granting of the application of the proposed bank. The hearing shall be conducted by the commissioner in accordance with the provisions of sections 14.01 to 14.70. Within 21 days after the notice of application has been published, any person may submit to the commissioner either or both written comments on an application and a written request for a hearing on the application. The request must state the nature of the issues or facts to be presented and the reasons why written submissions would be insufficient to make an adequate presentation to the commissioner. Comments challenging the legality of an application should be submitted separately in writing.

Written requests for hearing must be evaluated by the commissioner who may grant or deny the request. A hearing must generally be granted only if it is determined that written submissions would be inadequate or that a hearing would otherwise be beneficial to the decision-making process. A hearing may be limited to issues considered material by the commissioner.

If a request for a hearing has been denied, the commissioner shall notify the applicant and all interested persons stating the reasons for denial. Interested parties may submit to the commissioner with simultaneous copies to the applicant additional written comments on the application within 14 days after the date of the notice of denial. The applicant shall be provided an additional seven days after the 14-day deadline has expired within which to respond to any comments submitted within the 14-day period. A copy of any response submitted by the applicant shall also be mailed simultaneously by the applicant to the interested parties. The commissioner may waive the additional seven-day comment period if so requested by the applicant.

Subd. 4. [HEARING.] In any case in which the commissioner grants a request for a hearing, the commissioner shall fix a time for a hearing conducted pursuant to chapter 14 to decide whether or not the application will be granted. A notice of the hearing must be published by the applicant in the form prescribed by the commissioner in a newspaper published in the municipality in which the proposed bank is to be located, and if there is no such newspaper, then at the county seat of the county in which the bank is proposed to be located. The notice must be published once, at the expense of the applicants, not less than 30 days prior to the date of the hearing. At the hearing the commissioner shall consider the application and hear the applicants and witnesses that appear in favor of or against the granting of the application of the proposed bank. If an application is contested, 50 percent of an additional fee equal to the actual costs incurred by the department of commerce in approving or disapproving the application, payable to the state treasurer and credited by the treasurer to the general fund, must be paid by the applicant and 50 percent equally by the intervening parties.

Subd. 5. [APPROVAL, DISAPPROVAL, AFTER HEARING.] If, upon the hearing or upon other information submitted, it appears to the commissioner that the application should be granted, the commissioner shall, not later than 90 days after the hearing, and after the applicants have otherwise complied with the provisions of law applicable to the organization of a bank, including the provisions herein contained, make and file in the commissioner's office a written order directing the issuance of a certificate of authorization as provided by law. If the certificate of authorization is not activated within a period of 12 months from date of issuance, the commissioner may upon written notice to the applicants request a new hearing. If the commissioner decides that the application should not be granted, the commissioner shall deny the application and make a written order to that effect, file it in the commissioner's office, and forthwith give notice thereof by certified mail to one of the incorporators named in the application for the proposed bank, addressed to the incorporator at the address stated in the application. Thereupon the commissioner shall refuse to issue the certificate of authorization to the proposed bank.

Sec. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This article is effective the day following final enactment, and applies to pending applications at that time if any notice of the filing of the application has not been fully published."

"ARTICLE 1

RURAL DEVELOPMENT BOARD

Section 1. [116N.01] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [TERMS.] For the purposes of sections 1 to 7, the following terms have the meaning given them.

Subd. 2. [BOARD.] "Board" means the rural development board.

Subd. 3. [COMMISSIONER.] "Commissioner" means the commissioner of energy and economic development.

Subd. 4. [LOW INCOME.] "Low income" means equal to or below the nonmetropolitan median household income.

Subd. 5. [PRINCIPALLY.] "Principally" means at least 51 percent.

Subd. 6. [REGIONAL ORGANIZATION.] "Regional organization" or "organization" means an organization selected under section 7, subdivision 3.

Subd. 7. [RURAL.] "Rural" means the area of Minnesota located outside of the metropolitan area as defined in section 473.121, subdivision 2.

Sec. 2. [116N.02] [RURAL DEVELOPMENT BOARD.]

Subdivision 1. [MEMBERSHIP.] The rural development board consists of the commissioner of energy and economic development, the commissioner of jobs and training, the commissioner of agriculture, the chair of the greater Minnesota corporation board, the state director of vocational technical education, the chancellor of the state university board, the chancellor of the state board for community colleges, the president of the University of Minnesota or the president's designee, and seven members from the general public appointed by the governor, with at least one public member from each of the regions established in section 7. Two of the public members must be local elected officials. Two of the public members must be members of farm organizations. One public member must represent the interests of business, and one public member must represent the interests of organized labor.

Subd. 2. [MEMBERSHIP TERMS.] The membership terms, compensation, removal, and filling of vacancies of public members of the board are as provided in section 15.0575.

Subd. 3. [CHAIR; OTHER OFFICERS.] The commissioner of energy and economic development shall serve as chair of the board. The board may elect other officers as is necessary from its members.

Subd. 4. [ADVISORY TASK FORCES.] The board may establish advisory task forces under section 15.014 to advise or assist the board in identifying and working with rural development issues.

Subd. 5. [STAFF] The commissioner of energy and economic development shall provide staff, consultant support, materials, and administrative services necessary for the board's activities from the community development division of the department of energy and economic development. The services must include personnel, budget, payroll, and contract administration. The board may request staff support from other agencies of state government as needed for the execution of the responsibilities of the board, and the other agencies shall furnish the staff support upon request.

Subd. 6. [EXPENSES.] The commissioner shall pay the expenses of the board and the costs of the board's programs from the rural rehabilitation revolving fund established in section 116J.955.

Sec. 3. [116N.03] [POWERS.]

Subdivision 1. [CONTRACTS.] The board may enter into contracts and grant agreements necessary to carry out its responsibilities.

Subd. 2. [GIFTS; GRANTS.] The board may apply for, accept, and disburse gifts, grants, loans, or other property from the United States, the state, private foundations, or any other source. It may enter into an agreement required for the gifts, grants, or loans and may hold, use, and dispose of its assets in accordance with the terms of the gift, grant, loan, or agreement. Money received by the board under this subdivision must be deposited in the state treasury. The amount deposited is appropriated to the board to carry out its duties.

Sec. 4. [116N.04] [DUTIES.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL DUTIES.] The board shall investigate and evaluate new methods to enhance rural development, particularly methods relating to economic diversification through private enterprises, including technologically innovative industries, value-added manufacturing, agri-processing, information industries, and agricultural marketing.

Subd. 2. [ESTABLISH PROGRAMS.] The board shall establish and administer a rural rehabilitation pilot project program to award grants to public, nonprofit, or private organizations to support farm-related pilot projects for rural development. Projects must be designed to principally benefit low-income persons.

Subd. 3. [TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE.] The board shall provide technical assistance and rural development information services to state agencies, regional agencies, special districts, local governments, and the public.

Subd. 4. [BUDGET.] The board shall adopt an annual budget and work program and a biennial budget.

Subd. 5. [LEGISLATIVE REPORT.] The board shall submit an annual report to the legislature by January 31 of each year. The report must include a review of rural development in the state, an accounting of all loans made under the challenge grant program, an evaluation of rural development initiatives, and recommendations concerning state support for rural development.

Sec. 5. [116N.056] [RURAL INVESTMENT GUIDE.]

The board, after appropriate study and public hearings as necessary, shall adopt a comprehensive state rural investment guide consisting of policy statements, objectives, standards, and program criteria to guide state agencies in establishing and implementing programs relating to rural development. The guide must: (1) recognize the community and economic needs, the food and agricultural policy, and the resources of rural Minnesota; and (2) provide a plan to coordinate and allocate public and private resources to the rural areas of the state. The board shall submit the guide to the appropriate committees of the legislature.

Sec. 6. [116N.06] [BOARD REVIEW.]

The board may require state agencies to submit for review any state program relating to rural development. The board may comment on any such program and may recommend changes consistent with the rural development guide.

Sec. 7. [116N.07] [CHALLENGE GRANT PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [ORGANIZATION.] The challenge grant program must make challenge grants to regional organizations selected by the board to encourage private investment, to provide jobs for low-income persons, and to promote economic development in the rural areas of the state. The board shall administer the program as provided in this section.

Subd. 2. [FUNDING REGIONS.] The board shall divide the part of the state located outside of the metropolitan area as defined in section 473.121, subdivision 2, into six regions. A region's boundaries must be coterminous with the boundaries of one or more of the development regions established under section 462.385. The board shall designate up to $_____ for each region, to be awarded over a period of three years. The money designated to each region must be used for revolving loans and equity investments authorized under this section.

Subd. 3. [SELECTION OF ORGANIZATIONS TO RECEIVE CHALLENGE GRANT FUNDS.] The board shall select the organizations to receive the challenge grant funds and shall enter into grant agreements with the organizations. An organization must be a nonprofit corporation and must demonstrate that:

(1) its board of directors includes citizens experienced in rural development and representatives from all geographic areas in a challenge grant program region;

(2) it has the technical skills to analyze projects;

(3) it is familiar with other available public and private funding sources and economic development programs;

(4) it can initiate and implement economic development projects; and

(5) it can establish and administer a revolving loan fund.

Subd. 4. [REVOLVING LOAN FUND.] A regional organization shall establish a board certified revolving loan fund to provide loans to new and expanding businesses in rural Minnesota to promote economic development. Eligible business enterprises include technologically innovative industries, value-added manufacturing, agriprocessing, information industries, and agricultural marketing. Loan applications given preliminary approval by the organization must be forwarded to the commissioner for final approval. The amount of state money allocated for each revolving loan is appropriated from the rural rehabilitation revolving fund established in section 116J.955 to the organization's regional revolving loan fund when the commissioner gives final approval for each loan. The amount of money appropriated from the rural rehabilitation revolving fund may not exceed 50 percent for each loan. The amount of nonpublic money must equal at least 50 percent for each loan.

Subd. 5. [LOAN CRITERIA.] The following criteria apply to loans made under the challenge grant program:

(a) Loans must be made to businesses that are not likely to undertake a project for which loans are sought without assistance from the challenge grant program.

(b) A loan must be used for a project designed principally to benefit low-income persons through the creation of job opportunities for such persons. Among loan applicants, priority must be given on the basis of the number of permanent jobs created or retained by the project and the proportion of nonstate money leveraged by the revolving loan.

(c) The minimum revolving loan is $5,000 and the maximum is $100,000.

(d) With the approval of the commissioner, a revolving loan may be used to provide up to 50 percent of the private investment required to qualify for a grant from the economic recovery fund.

(e) A revolving loan may not exceed 50 percent of the total cost of an individual project.

(f) A revolving loan may not be used for a retail development project.

(g) A business applying for a loan must be sponsored by a resolution of the governing body of the local governmental unit within whose jurisdiction the project is located. For purposes of this paragraph, "local governmental unit" means a home rule charter or statutory city when the project is located in an incorporated area, a county when the project is located in an unincorporated area, or an American Indian tribal council when the project is located within a federally recognized American Indian reservation or community.

Subd. 6. [REVOLVING FUND ADMINISTRATION.] (a) The board shall establish a minimum interest rate for revolving loans to ensure that necessary management costs are covered.

(b) Money repaid to a revolving loan fund must be deposited in the fund for further distribution by the regional organization, consistent with the loan criteria specified in subdivisions 4 and 5.

(c) Administrative expenses of each organization may be paid out of the interest earned on revolving loans.

Subd. 7. [RULES.] The board shall adopt rules to implement the duties specified in this section.

Subd. 8. [GRANTS TO NONPROFITS.] The board may use a portion of the money designated for a region to make challenge grants to nonprofit regional investment corporations or nonprofit venture capital funds located in that region. A grant under this subdivision may be made only if the nonprofit investment corporation or the nonprofit venture capital fund can demonstrate that at least two individuals or organizations other than the board will each make a grant or investment equal to the amount of the challenge grant made by the board.

Subd. 9. [USE OF OTHER RESOURCES.] An organization that receives challenge grant funds shall use the resources of other regional organizations in carrying out all or part of its duties.

Subd. 10. [REPORTING REQUIREMENTS.] The organization shall:

(1) submit an annual report to the board by February 15 of each year that includes a description of projects supported by the challenge grant program, an account of all loans made during the calendar year, the source and amount of all money collected and distributed by the challenge grant program, the program's assets and liabilities, and an explanation of administrative expenses; and

(2) provide for an independent annual audit to be performed in accordance with generally accepted accounting practices and auditing standards and submit a copy of each annual audit report to the board.

Sec. 8. [116N.08] [CERTIFIED STATE DEVELOPMENT COMPANY.]

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE; OBJECTIVES.] The board may create, promote, and assist a state development company, also known as a "503" certified development company, that will qualify as a certified development company for the purposes of United States Code, title 15, section 697, and Code of Federal Regulations, title 13, section 108.503.

The board shall utilize the development company program to stimulate the state's economic activity.

The development company and its directors and officers shall comply with the organizational, operational, regulatory, and reporting requirements as promulgated by the United States Small Business Administration and the guidelines contained in the bylaws, articles of incorporation, and standard operating procedure prescribed by the Small Business Administration.

Subd. 2. [CAPITAL, LOAN LIMITS; MEMBERSHIP REQUIREMENTS.] The capital for a certified state development company must be derived from corporate holders or members, each of whom must not have more than ten percent of the voting control of the certified state development company. The company must have a minimum of ten members. Membership must be, to the greatest extent practicable, in proportion to the population of each economic development region to the total population of the state. The loan limit of each member must be established at the time of its acceptance as a member and must be computed on the basis of the financial information contained in or made a part of its application for membership. All loan limits must be established at the thousand dollar amount nearest the amount computed in accordance with the provisions of the articles of incorporation and this section.

Subd. 3. [MEMBERS.] Members must be representatives of local government, community organizations, financial institutions, and businesses in Minnesota and must, upon application, have been accepted for membership by a majority vote of the members of the board of directors present at any regular or special meeting of the board at which there is a quorum. A "financial institution" is a business organization recognized under Minnesota or federal law as a banking institution, trust company, savings and loan association, insurance company, or a corporation, partnership, foundation or other institution licensed to do business in the state of Minnesota and engaged primarily in lending or investing money.

Subd. 4. [MEMBERSHIP APPLICATIONS.] Applications for membership must be submitted to the development company's board of directors on forms provided by the corporation and accompanied by additional information as the form may require. Application forms must provide that if the application is approved, and the applicant accepted for membership by the development company's board of directors prior to withdrawal of the application, the applicant agrees to become a member upon the acceptance and to assume all of the rights and obligations of a member. Notice of approval or rejection of an application must be forwarded, by certified or registered United States mail, to the applicant for the attention of the person signing the application, within 15 days following the date upon which the approval or rejection is made. Approval of the application constitutes acceptance of the applicant as a member of the corporation.

Subd. 5. [OFFICERS.] The executive officers of the corporation are a president, one or more vice presidents including the executive vice president, a secretary, and a treasurer. None of the officers, except the president, need be directors. One person may hold the offices and perform the duties of any two or more of the offices. The development company's board of directors by majority vote may leave unfilled for any period it may fix any office except that of president, treasurer, or secretary.

Subd. 6. [ASSISTANCE.] The commissioner of energy and economic development shall make available the professional staff of the department to provide services to the certified state development company including, but not limited to, accounting, legal, and business assistance services. The staff must have the capability to package, process, close and service loans made through the development company.

Subd. 7. [REPORTS.] The development company shall submit to the Small Business Administration annual reports on its operation. When requested by the Small Business Administration, interim reports of a similar nature must be provided. The reports must be provided in accordance with the instructions and attachments set forth by the Small Business Administration. The development company shall comply with all regulations issued under the small business investment act of 1958, as amended, as well as applicable state and federal laws affecting its operation.

Subd. 8. [REVOLVING ACCOUNT.] The certified state development company may charge a one time processing fee up to the maximum allowed by the Small Business Administration on a debenture issued for loan purposes. In addition, a fee for servicing loans may be imposed up to the maximum allowed by the Small Business Administration based on the unpaid balance of each debenture. These fees must be deposited into a dedicated fund in the state treasury. Money in the dedicated fund is appropriated to the department of energy and economic development to pay the costs of administration of the program, compensate members of the board of directors pursuant to section 15.0575, subdivision 3, and to create and operate a pool of money for investment in projects which further the purposes of this section.

Sec. 9. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 116J.951; 116J.961; and 116J.965, are repealed.

ARTICLE 2

GREATER MINNESOTA CORPORATION

Section 1. [116P01] [CITATION.]

Sections 1 to 9 may be cited as the "greater Minnesota corporation act."

Sec. 2. [116P02] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] The definitions in this section apply to this chapter.

Subd. 2. [BOARD.] "Board" means the board of directors of the greater Minnesota corporation.

Subd. 3. [CORPORATION.] "Corporation" means the greater Minnesota corporation.

Subd. 4. [FUND.] "Fund" means the greater Minnesota fund.

Sec. 3. [116P03] [CORPORATION; BOARD OF DIRECTORS; POWERS.]

Subdivision 1. [NAME.] The greater Minnesota corporation is a public corporation of the state and is not a state agency. All business of the corporation must be conducted under the name "greater Minnesota corporation."

Subd. 2. [BOARD OF DIRECTORS.] The corporation is governed by a board of 11 directors. The board may determine the compensation of its members.

Subd. 3. [ARTICLES AND BYLAWS.] The board of directors shall adopt bylaws necessary for the conduct of the business of the corporation, consistent with the provisions of this chapter.

Subd. 4. [PLACES OF BUSINESS.] The board shall locate and maintain the corporation's places of business within the state.

Subd. 5. [MEETINGS AND ACTIONS OF THE BOARD.] The board shall meet at least twice a year and may hold additional meetings upon giving notice in accordance with the bylaws of the corporation. Board meetings are subject to section 471.705, except when information or data described in subdivision 7 is discussed.

Subd. 6. [CLOSED MEETINGS; RECORDING.] The board of directors may by a majority vote in a public meeting decide to hold a closed meeting authorized under subdivision 5. The time and place of the closed meeting must be announced at the public meeting. A written roll of members present at the closed meeting must be made available to the public after the closed meeting. The proceedings of a closed meeting must be tape recorded at the expense of the board and must be preserved by the board for two years. The data on the tape is considered nonpublic data pursuant to section 13.02, subdivision 9.

Subd. 7. [APPLICATION AND INVESTIGATIVE DATA.] The following data is classified as private data with regard to data on individuals under section 13.02, subdivision 12, or as nonpublic data with regard to data not on individuals under section 13.02, subdivision 9, whichever is applicable:

(1) financial data, statistics, and information furnished in connection with assistance or proposed assistance under section 6, including credit reports, financial statements, statements of net worth, income tax returns, either personal or corporate, and any other business and personal financial records;

(2) correspondence between members of the corporation board or employees of the corporation and applicants or other persons or entities regarding assistance or proposed assistance, and any investigative data obtained by the corporation board or employees of the corporation in relation to the assistance under section 6;

(3) security information, trade secret information, or labor relations information, as defined in section 13.37, subdivision 1, disclosed to members of the corporation board or employees of the corporation pursuant to section 6.

Subd. 8. [ADVISORY COMMITTEES.] The board shall establish a research advisory committee and a finance advisory committee and may establish other advisory committees it considers necessary. Committee members are compensated as provided in section 15.059, subdivision 3.

(a) The research advisory committee must consist of five members who have extensive experience in science and technology research. The research advisory committee shall review all research grant proposals submitted to the board. The board shall not give final approval to a research grant until it has received the research advisory committee's evaluation and recommendations or until 30 days have elapsed since the proposal was submitted to the research advisory committee, whichever occurs first.

(b) The finance advisory committee must consist of five members who have extensive experience in business development, finance, banking, or venture capital investments. The finance advisory committee shall advise the board on equity investments.

Subd. 9. [CONFLICT OF INTEREST.] A director of the corporation may not participate in or vote on any decision of the board relating to an organization in which the director has either a direct or indirect financial interest.

Sec. 4. [116P04] [CORPORATE PERSONNEL.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] (a) The board shall appoint and set the compensation for a president, who serves as chief executive officer of the corporation, and who may appoint subordinate officers. The president's salary may not exceed 95 percent of the governor's salary. The board may designate the president as its general agent. Subject to the control of the board, the president shall employ employees, consultants, and agents the president considers necessary.

(b) The board shall define the duties and designate the titles of the employees and agents.

Subd. 2. [STATUS OF EMPLOYEES.] Employees, officers, and directors of the corporation are not state employees, but, at the option of the board, may participate in the following plans for employees in the unclassified service: the state retirement plan, the state deferred compensation plan, and the health insurance and life insurance plans.

Sec. 5. [116P05] [POWERS OF THE CORPORATION.]

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this article, the corporation has the powers granted to a business corporation by section 302A.161, subdivisions 3, 4, 5, 7, 8, 9, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, and 22.

(b) The state is not liable for any obligations of the corporation.

Sec. 6. [116P06] [ACTIVITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [GRANTS.] The corporation may make dollar-for-dollar matching grants for applied research and development to the University of Minnesota, a state university, a community college, a Minnesota private college or university, or an area vocational technical institute.

Subd. 2. [EQUITY INVESTMENTS.] Subject to the limitations in section 11, except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, the corporation may acquire an interest in a product or a private business entity. The corporation may enter into joint venture agreements with other private corporations to promote economic development and job creation. The corporation may not acquire an interest in a business entity engaged in a trade or industry whose profits are directly regulated by the state.

Subd. 3. [CONSULTING AND TECHNICAL SERVICES.] The corporation may provide general consulting and technical services to colleges or universities or to businesses and may set fees or charges for the services.

Subd. 4. [RESEARCH.] The corporation may identify opportunities for scientific research and technological innovation and advise colleges and universities of the research private business.

Subd. 5. [REGIONAL FINANCE CENTERS.] The corporation may contract with the regional organizations selected in article 1, section 7, subdivision 3, to establish up to six regional finance centers.

Subd. 6. [ON-SITE RESEARCH.] The corporation may construct, acquire, lease, own, or operate one or more on-site research facilities in Minnesota.

Sec. 7. [116P07] [GREATER MINNESOTA FUND.]

(a) The greater Minnesota fund is a fund in the state treasury. The board may create separate accounts within the fund for use in accordance with the fund's purposes. Money in the fund may be deposited in an institution designated as a depository for state funds under section 9.031. Money in the fund not needed for the immediate purposes of the corporation may be invested by the corporation in any way authorized by section 11A.24. Money in the fund may be used as provided in this chapter.

(b) The fund consists of:

- (1) appropriations made to the corporation;*
- (2) fees and charges collected by the corporation;*
- (3) income from investments and purchases;*
- (4) revenue from loans, rentals, royalties, dividends, and other proceeds collected in connection with lawful corporate purposes; and*
- (5) gifts, donations, and bequests made to the corporation.*

Sec. 8. [116P08] [AUDITS.]

The legislative auditor shall audit the corporation at least once a year and oftener if considered necessary or as directed by the legislature or the legislative audit commission. The corporation is liable to the state for the total cost and expenses of the audit, including the salaries paid to the examiners while actually engaged in making the examination. The legislative auditor may bill the corporation either monthly or at the completion of the audit. All collections received for the audits must be deposited in the general fund.

Sec. 9. [116P09] [REPORTS.]

The board shall report to the appropriate committees of the legislature and the governor on the activities of the corporation by January 1 of each year. The report must include, at least, a description of projects supported by the fund, an account of all loans and grants made by the fund during the calendar year, the source and amount of all money collected and distributed by the fund, the fund's assets and liabilities, an explanation of administrative expenses, and any amendments to the operational plan. Reports must be made to the legislature as required by section 3.195.

Sec. 10. [INITIAL APPOINTMENTS.]

Notwithstanding section 3, subdivision 2, the governor shall appoint the initial members of the board of directors of the greater Minnesota corporation, subject to the advice and consent of the senate, as follows: four to six-year terms, four to four-year terms, and three to two-year terms. As the terms of the initial appointments expire, appointments must be made by the board, subject to the advice and consent of the senate.

Sec. 11. [OPERATIONAL PLAN.]

The board of directors of the greater Minnesota corporation shall prepare a comprehensive operational plan and submit the plan to the governor and the legislature by November 15, 1987. The operational plan must include at least the following:

- (1) operating procedures;*
- (2) accounting procedures;*
- (3) grant procedures;*
- (4) loan procedures;*
- (5) personnel procedures;*
- (6) investment procedures; and*
- (7) board conduct and ethics.*

If the board proposes to make equity investments under section 6, subdivision 2, the board shall explain in the report how the investments will be made, how much money will be invested in them, how much private money is expected to be invested in the same investments, and why equity investments would be more desirable and effective than the other means of promoting development that are available to the board. No equity investments may be made unless the board has first submitted the information required by this section. In addition, the operational plan must include a budget proposal and a five-year strategic plan setting out its objectives and general strategy for achieving those objectives. It must identify sources and amounts of available nongovernmental money and the purposes for which that money may be used.

Sec. 12. [APPROPRIATION.]

§ _____ is appropriated from the general fund to the greater Minnesota corporation established by section 3. This appropriation is available until expended.

Sec. 13. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 6, subdivision 2, is effective April 1, 1988. Sections 1; 2; 3; 4; 5; 6, subdivisions 1, 3, 4, 5, and 6; 7; 8; 9; 10; and 11 are effective the day following final enactment.

ARTICLE 3

MINNESOTA PUBLIC FACILITIES AUTHORITY

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116.16, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] In this section and sections 116.17 and 116.18:

(1) Agency means the Minnesota pollution control agency created by this chapter;

(2) Municipality means any county, city, and town, the metropolitan waste control commission established in chapter 473 and the metropolitan council when acting under the provisions of that chapter or an Indian tribe or an authorized Indian tribal organization, and any other governmental subdivision of the state responsible by law for the prevention, control, and abatement of water pollution in any area of the state;

(3) Pollution control fund means the Minnesota state water pollution control fund created by subdivision 1;

(4) Bond account means the Minnesota state water pollution control bond account created in the state bond fund by section 116.17, subdivision 4;

(5) Terms defined in section 115.01 have the meanings therein given them;

(6) The eligible cost of any municipal project, except as otherwise provided in clauses (7) and (8), includes (a) preliminary planning to determine the economic, engineering, and environmental feasibility of the project; (b) engineering, architectural, legal, fiscal, economic, sociological, project administrative costs of the agency and the municipality, and other investigations and studies; (c) surveys, designs, plans, working drawings, specifications, procedures, and other actions necessary to the planning, design, and construction of the project; (d) erection, building, acquisition, alteration, remodeling, improvement, and extension of disposal systems; (e) inspection and supervision of construction; and (f) all other expenses of the kinds enumerated in section 475.65.

(7) For state independent grant and matching grant purposes hereunder, the eligible cost for grant applicants shall be the eligible cost as determined by the United States environmental protection agency under the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, ~~as amended~~, United States Code, title 33, ~~section 1314~~, ~~et seq~~ sections 1281 to 1299.

(8) Notwithstanding clause (7), for state grants under the state independent grants program, the eligible cost includes the acquisition of land for stabilization ponds, the construction of collector sewers for totally unsewered statutory and home rule charter cities and towns described under section 368.01, subdivision 1 or 1a, that are in existence on January 1, 1985, and the provision of reserve capacity sufficient to serve the reasonable needs of the municipality for 20 years in the case of treatment works and 40 years in the case of sewer systems. Notwithstanding clause (7), for state grants under the state independent grants program, the eligible cost does not include the provision of service to seasonal homes, or cost increases from contingencies that exceed three percent of as-bid costs or cost increases from unanticipated site conditions that exceed an additional two percent of as-bid costs.

(9) Authority means the Minnesota public facilities authority established in section 10.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116.16, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [RULES.] (a) The agency shall promulgate permanent rules and may promulgate emergency rules for the administration of grants and loans authorized to be made from the fund or from federal funds under the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, ~~as amended~~, which rules, however, shall not be applicable to the issuance of bonds by the commissioner of finance as provided in section 116.17. The rules shall contain as a minimum:

- (1) procedures for application by municipalities;
- (2) conditions for the administration of the grant or loan;
- (3) criteria for the ranking of projects in order of priority for grants or loans, based on factors including the extent and nature of pollution, technological feasibility, assurance of proper operation, maintenance and replacement, and participation in multimunicipal systems; and

(4) such other matters as the agency and the director find necessary to the proper administration of the grant program.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in sections 116.16 to 116.18, the rules for the administration of state independent grants must comply, to the extent practicable, with provisions relating directly to protection of the environment contained in the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, as amended, and regulations and guidelines of the United States environmental protection agency promulgated under the act, except provisions regarding allocation contained in section 205 of the act and regulations and guidelines promulgated under section 205 of the act. This provision does not require approval from federal agencies for the issuance of grants or for the construction of projects under the state independent grants program.

(c) For purposes of awarding independent state grants, the agency may exempt municipalities with a population of less than 1,500 from state and federal regulations and guidelines relating to facilities planning and procurement under sections 116.16 to 116.18, except regulations and guidelines applicable to the issuance of a national pollutant discharge elimination system permit or state disposal system permit.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116.16, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [APPLICATIONS.] Applications by municipalities for grants or loans from the fund shall be made to the ~~director of the agency authority~~ on forms requiring information prescribed by rules of the agency. The authority shall send the application to the agency within ten days of receipt. The director shall certify to the ~~agency authority~~ those applications which appear to meet the criteria set forth in sections 116.16 to 116.18 and the rules promulgated hereunder, and the ~~agency authority~~ shall award the grants or loans on the basis of the criteria and priorities established by the ~~agency~~ in its rules and in sections 116.16 to 116.18. A municipality that is designated under agency rules to receive state or federal funding for a project and that does not make a timely application for or that refuses the funding is not eligible for either state or federal funding for that project in that fiscal year or the subsequent year.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116.16, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11. [AWARDS OF GRANTS AND LOANS.] Upon certification by the state pollution control director, the authority shall notify the municipalities that are to receive a grant or loan and advise the municipality of the grant agreement or loan form or other document that must be executed to complete the grant or loan. Upon certification from the state pollution control director that the work has been completed and that payment is proper, the authority shall pay to the municipality the periodic grant or loan payment.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116.16, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 12. [AMENDMENTS.] A municipality that seeks an amendment to a previously awarded grant or loan shall follow the same procedure contained in subdivision 9 for applying to the authority. The request for a grant or loan amendment must be forwarded by the authority to the agency for consideration, and the authority shall process a grant or loan amendment that is approved by the agency.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116.18, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [STATE MATCHING GRANTS PROGRAM BEGINNING OCTOBER 1, 1984.] For projects tendered, on or after October 1, 1984 1987, a grant of federal money under section 201(g), section 202, 203, or 206(f) of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, as amended, United States Code, title 33, sections 1251 to 1376, at 55 percent or more of the eligible cost for construction of the treatment works, state money appropriated under subdivision 1 must be expended for up to 30 50 percent of the nonfederal share of the eligible cost of construction for municipalities for which the construction would otherwise impose significant financial hardship; provided, that not less than ten percent of the eligible cost must be paid by the municipality or agency constructing the project. If a municipality is tendered federal and state grants in a percentage cumulatively exceeding 90 percent of the eligible cost of construction, the state pollution control agency shall reduce the grant to the municipality under this chapter to the extent necessary to ensure that not less than ten percent of the eligible cost will be paid by the municipality. The amounts of the matching grants must be based on per connection capital cost, median household income, and per capita adjusted assessed valuation with populations of 25,000 or less.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116.18, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [STATE INDEPENDENT GRANTS PROGRAM.] (a) The agency Minnesota public facilities authority established in section 10 may award independent grants for projects certified by the state pollution control director for 50 percent or, if the agency requires advanced treatment, 65 population of the municipality is 25,000 or less, 80 percent of the eligible cost of construction. The agency may award independent grants for up to an additional 30 percent or, if the agency requires advanced treatment, up to an additional 25 percent of the eligible cost of construction to municipalities for which the construction would otherwise impose significant financial hardship; the amounts of the additional grants shall be based on per connection capital cost, median household income, and per capita adjusted assessed valuation. These grants may be awarded in separate steps for planning and design in addition to actual construction. Until December 31, 1990, not more than 20 percent of the total amount of grants awarded under this subdivision in any single fiscal year may be awarded to a single grantee.

(b) Up to ten percent of the money to be awarded as grants under this subdivision in any single fiscal year shall be set aside for municipalities having substantial economic development projects that cannot come to fruition without municipal wastewater treatment improvements. The agency shall forward its municipal needs list to the commissioner of energy and economic development authority at the beginning of each fiscal year, and the commissioner authority shall review the list and identify those municipalities having substantial economic development projects. After the first 90 percent of the total available money is allocated to municipalities in accordance with agency priorities, the set-aside shall be used by the agency authority to award grants to remaining municipalities that have been identified.

(c) Grants may also be awarded under this subdivision to reimburse municipalities willing to proceed with projects and be reimbursed in a subsequent year conditioned upon appropriation of sufficient money under subdivision 1 for that year. The maximum amount of the reimbursement the agency may commit in any single fiscal year is equal to the amount newly appropriated to the state grants programs for that year.

(d) A municipality that applies for a state independent grant to be reimbursed for a project must receive an additional five percent of the total eligible cost of construction beyond the normal percentage to which the municipality is entitled under paragraph (a).

Sec. 8. [446A.01] [MINNESOTA PUBLIC FACILITIES AUTHORITY ACT.]

Sections 1 to 22 may be cited as the "Minnesota public facilities authority act."

Sec. 9. [446A.02] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [TERMS.] For the purposes of sections 1 to 22, the terms in this section have the meanings given them.

Subd. 2. [AUTHORITY.] "Authority" means the Minnesota public facilities authority.

Subd. 3. [FEDERAL WATER POLLUTION CONTROL ACT.] "Federal Water Pollution Control Act" means the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, as amended, United States Code, title 33, sections 1281 to 1299.

Subd. 4. [GOVERNMENTAL UNIT.] "Governmental unit" means a state agency, home rule charter or statutory city, county, sanitary district, or other governmental subdivision.

Subd. 5. [INFRASTRUCTURE CAPITAL PROJECT.] "Infrastructure capital project" or "project" means the acquisition, construction, improvement, expansion, repair, or rehabilitation of all or part of any structure, facility, or equipment necessary for a wastewater treatment system, water supply system, or any system which may be authorized and designated by the legislature as an infrastructure capital project.

Subd. 6. [TREATMENT WORKS.] "Treatment works" means the acquisition, construction, improvement, expansion, repair, or rehabilitation of all or part of any structure, facility, or equipment necessary for a wastewater treatment or water supply system.

Sec. 10. [446A.03] [MINNESOTA PUBLIC FACILITIES AUTHORITY.]

Subdivision 1. [MEMBERSHIP] The Minnesota public facilities authority consists of the commissioner of energy and economic development, the commissioner of finance, the director of public service, the director of the pollution control agency, and three additional members appointed by the governor from the general public with the advice and consent of the senate.

Subd. 2. [CHAIR; OTHER OFFICERS.] The commissioner of energy and economic development shall serve as the chair and chief executive officer of the authority. The authority may elect other officers as necessary from its members.

Subd. 3. [MEMBERSHIP TERMS.] The membership terms, compensation, removal, and filling of vacancies of public members of the authority are as provided in section 15.0575.

Subd. 4. [BOARD ACTIONS.] A majority of the authority, excluding vacancies, constitutes a quorum to conduct its business, to exercise its powers, and for all other purposes.

Subd. 5. [ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES.] The community development division of the department of energy and economic development shall provide administrative services to the authority.

Subd. 6. [PERSONAL LIABILITY.] Members and officers of the authority are not liable personally for any debt or obligation created or incurred by the authority.

Sec. 11. [446A.04] [POWERS; DUTIES.]

Subdivision 1. [BYLAWS; RULES.] The authority shall adopt bylaws for its organization and internal management and may adopt rules covering its operations, properties, and facilities.

Subd. 2. [POWER TO SUE; ENTER CONTRACTS.] The authority may sue and be sued. The authority may make and enter into contracts, leases, and agreements necessary to perform its duties and exercise its powers.

Subd. 3. [GIFTS; GRANTS.] The authority may apply for, accept, and disburse gifts, grants, loans, or other property from the United States, the state, private sources, or any other source for any of its purposes. Money received by the authority under this subdivision must be deposited in the state treasury. The amount deposited is appropriated to the authority to carry out its duties.

Subd. 4. [CONTRACT FOR SERVICES.] The authority may retain or contract for the services of attorneys, accountants, financial advisors, and other consultants or agents needed to perform its duties and exercise its powers.

Subd. 5. [FEES.] The authority may set and collect fees for costs incurred by the authority for its financings and the establishment and maintenance of reserve funds.

Sec. 12. [446A.05] [INFRASTRUCTURE CAPITAL PROJECT LOANS.]

Subdivision 1. [LOANS.] The authority may make and contract to make loans to governmental units to finance infrastructure capital projects that the governmental unit may construct or acquire. A loan may not be used to pay current expenses or obligations, except for temporary financing. A loan must be secured by notes or bonds of the borrowing governmental unit.

Subd. 2. [RULES.] The authority may adopt rules governing loans awarded under this section.

Sec. 13. [446A.06] [INDEPENDENT WASTEWATER TREATMENT GRANTS.]

Subdivision 1. [AWARD OF GRANTS.] The authority shall award independent state grants to municipalities selected by the pollution control agency upon certification by the agency that the municipal projects and applications have been reviewed and approved by the agency in accordance with sections 116.16 to 116.18 and agency rules.

Subd. 2. [RULES.] The authority shall adopt rules containing procedures for the administration of its duties as provided in subdivision 1.

Sec. 14. [446A.07] [WATER POLLUTION CONTROL REVOLVING FUND.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT OF FUND.] The authority shall establish a water pollution control revolving fund to provide loans for the purposes and eligible costs authorized under title VI of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act. The fund must be credited with repayments.

Subd. 2. [STATE ACCOUNT.] A state matching fund is established to be used in compliance with federal matching requirements specified in the Federal Water Pollution Control Act. A state grant and loan fund is established to provide grants and loans to governmental units for the planning and construction of treatment works, the acquisition of land for stabilization ponds, and the provision of reserve capacity sufficient to serve the reasonable needs of the governmental unit for 20 years in the case of treatment works and 40 years in the case of sewer systems.

Subd. 3. [CAPITALIZATION GRANT AGREEMENT.] The authority shall enter an agreement with the administrator of the United States Environmental Protection Agency to receive capitalization grants. The authority may exercise powers necessary to comply with the requirements specified in the agreement which must be in compliance with the Federal Water Pollution Control Act.

Subd. 4. [INTENDED USE PLAN.] The pollution control agency shall annually prepare and submit to the United States Environmental Protection Agency an intended use plan. The plan must identify the intended uses of the amounts available to the water pollution control revolving fund, including a list of wastewater treatment projects and other eligible activities to be funded during the fiscal year. The agency may not submit the plan until it has received the review and comment of the authority or until 30 days have elapsed since the plan was submitted to the authority, whichever occurs first.

Subd. 5. [APPLICATIONS.] Applications by municipalities and other entities identified in the annual intended use plan for loans from the water pollution control revolving fund must be made to the authority on forms requiring information prescribed by the rules of the agency adopted under this section. The authority shall send the applications to the agency within ten days of receipt. The director shall certify to the authority those applications that appear to meet the criteria set forth in the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, this section, and rules of the agency.

Subd. 6. [AWARD AND TERMS OF LOANS.] The authority shall award loans to those municipalities and other entities certified by the agency. The terms and conditions of the loans must be in conformance with the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, this section, and rules of the agency, and authority adopted under this section.

Subd. 7. [LOAN CONDITIONS.] When making loans from the revolving fund, the authority shall comply with the conditions of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, including:

(a) Loans must be made at or below market interest rates, including interest-free loans, at terms not to exceed 20 years.

(b) The annual principal and interest payments must begin no later than one year after completion of a project. Loans must be fully amortized no later than 20 years after project completion.

(c) A loan recipient shall establish a dedicated source of revenue for repayment of the loan.

(d) The fund must be credited with all payments of principal and interest on all loans.

Subd. 8. [OTHER USES OF REVOLVING FUND.] The water pollution control revolving fund may be used as provided in title VI of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, including the following uses:

(1) to buy or refinance the debt obligation of governmental units for treatment works incurred after March 7, 1985, at or below market rates;

(2) to guarantee or purchase insurance for local obligations to improve credit market access or reduce interest rates;

(3) to provide a source of revenue or security for the payment of principal and interest on revenue or general obligation bonds issued by the authority if the bond proceeds are deposited in the fund;

(4) to provide loan guarantees for similar revolving funds established by a governmental unit other than state agencies;

(5) to earn interest on fund accounts; and

(6) for the reasonable costs incurred by the authority and the agency of administering the fund and conducting activities required under the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, including water quality management planning under section 205(j) of the act and water quality standards continuing planning under section 303(e) of the act.

Amounts spent under clause (6) may not exceed the amount allowed under the Federal Water Pollution Control Act. Five percent of the revolving loan fund repayments may be used by the agency and the authority for the purposes listed in clause (6).

Subd. 9. [DISBURSEMENTS.] Disbursements from the revolving fund must be made in accordance with the applicable state and federal law governing the disbursements; except that no disbursement for any project may be made to any governmental unit until and unless the authority has determined the total estimated cost of the project and ascertained that financing of the project is assured by:

(1) a loan authorized by state law or the appropriation of proceeds of bonds or other money of the governmental unit to a fund for the construction of the project; and

(2) an irrevocable undertaking, by resolution of the governing body of the governmental unit, to use all money made available for the project exclusively for the project, and to pay any additional amount by which the cost of the project exceeds the estimate by the appropriation to the construction fund of additional funds or the proceeds of additional bonds to be issued by the governmental unit.

Subd. 10. [RULES OF THE AUTHORITY.] The authority shall adopt rules containing procedures for the administration of its duties as provided in this section, including loan interest rates, the amounts of loans, and municipal financial need.

Subd. 11. [RULES OF THE AGENCY.] The agency shall adopt permanent rules and may adopt emergency rules relating to the procedure for and preparation of the annual intended use plan and other matters that the agency considers necessary for proper loan administration.

Sec. 15. [446A.08] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [TERMS.] For the purposes of sections 16 to 21, each term defined in this section has the meaning given it.

Subd. 2. [CONSERVATION.] "Conservation" means a product or system designed to reduce the amount of energy needed for an energy-consuming activity or process. Conservation includes thermal insulation and air infiltration control in buildings, products, or methods that reduce energy consumption for transportation or soil tillage practices, improvements in combustion efficiency or heat transfer efficiency in boilers, furnaces, or direct-fired process heaters, and changes to industrial production equipment that result in lower energy use per unit of output.

Subd. 3. [MUNICIPALITY.] "Municipality" means a city, town, county, school district, special taxing district, or a municipal power agency governed by chapter 453, or a group of those units operating under an agreement to jointly undertake projects.

Subd. 4. [ALTERNATIVE ENERGY RESOURCE.] "Alternative energy resource" means a source of energy available from indigenous Minnesota resources including peat, biomass, solar energy, wind, municipal wastes, agricultural or forestry wastes, hydropower, and agricultural crops suitable for conversion to an energy fuel.

Subd. 5. [RENEWABLE ENERGY RESOURCE.] "Renewable energy resource" means a source of energy occurring in Minnesota which, when consumed for energy purposes, is replaced within a matter of days, months, or years by new or additional supplies of the energy source. Renewable energy resources include forestry products and forest harvest residues, solar energy, wind energy, water power, and agricultural wastes.

Subd. 6. [ENERGY RECOVERY.] "Energy recovery" means the extraction of energy from materials, components, or processes which would normally represent wasted energy resources. Municipal solid wastes, volatile sewer gases, and power plant waste heat offer the potential for energy recovery.

Subd. 7. [RESOURCE RECOVERY.] "Resource recovery" means the cost effective collection, extraction, or reuse of resources from materials, components, or processes which would normally represent wasted resources or energy, such collection, extraction or reuse to result in a lesser energy intensity than would be required to produce the same product from any nonwaste materials.

Subd. 8. [QUALIFIED ENERGY IMPROVEMENTS.] "Qualified energy improvements" means any capital improvements to public land or buildings, including the installation of equipment, undertaken by a municipality for the principal purpose of energy conservation or to reduce usage of conventional energy sources, as provided by rules adopted by the authority.

Subd. 9. [COST-EFFECTIVE.] "Cost-effective" means that the present value of a project's benefits exceeds the present value of its costs over the life of the project. Only the costs and benefits that can be quantified in dollars may be included in determining whether a project is cost-effective. The discount rate used in determining present value must include the time value and incremental carrying cost of money. For qualified energy projects for conservation of energy, a project is cost-effective when it has a payback period of ten years or less and the payback period is less than the useful life of the project.

Sec. 16. [446A.09] [HEALTH CARE EQUIPMENT LOANS.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY.] The authority may make or participate in making health care equipment loans. The loans may be made only from the proceeds of bonds or notes issued pursuant to subdivision 2. Before making a commitment for a loan, the authority shall forward the application to the commissioner of health for review under subdivision 3. The authority may not approve or enter into a commitment for a loan unless the application has been approved by the commissioner of health.

Subd. 2. [BONDS AND NOTES.] The authority may issue its bonds and notes to provide money for the purposes specified in subdivision 1. The principal amount of bonds and notes issued and outstanding under this subdivision at any time may not exceed $95,000,000. The bonds and notes issued to make the loans may not be insured by the authority but must be insured by a letter of credit or bond insurance issued by a private insurer.

Subd. 3. [ADMINISTRATION.] (a) The commissioner of health shall review each loan application received from the authority to determine whether the application is an eligible application. An application is eligible if the following criteria are satisfied:

(1) the hospital is owned and operated by a county, district, municipality or nonprofit corporation;

(2) the loan would not be used to refinance existing debt;

(3) the hospital was unable to obtain suitable financing from other sources;

(4) the loan is necessary to establish or maintain patient access to an essential health care service that would not otherwise be available within a reasonable distance from that facility; and

(5) the project to be financed by the loan is cost-effective and efficient.

(b) The authority shall determine whether the allocation available for the health care equipment loan program is sufficient for all eligible applications received during a specified period of time. If the allocations are sufficient, the authority shall approve all eligible applications. If the allocations are not sufficient, the authority shall compare the relative merits of the eligible applications with respect to the criteria in clauses (4) and (5), rank the applications in order of priority, and approve the applications in order of priority to the extent possible within the available allocation.

(c) The authority may charge a reasonable fee under section 16A.128 to an applicant for the costs of review of the application. The authority shall transfer to the commissioner of health from the fees collected an amount sufficient to pay the costs of the commissioner of health in the review of applications. The commissioner of health may adopt permanent rules to implement subdivisions 1 to 3. The authority may adopt permanent rules to implement subdivisions 1 to 3.

Sec. 17. [446A.10] [ENERGY LOANS.]

The authority may make, purchase, or participate with financial institutions in making or purchasing energy loans. The authority shall obtain the best available security for all loans. The authority may provide for or require the insurance or guaranteeing of the loans or authority participations in whole or in part. Loans or participations may be serviced by financial institutions or other persons designated by the authority.

Sec. 18. [446A.11] [ENERGY FUND.]

The energy fund is a separate fund in the state treasury under the control of the authority. Money in the fund is appropriated to the authority to accomplish the authority's purposes.

Sec. 19. [446A.12] [ENERGY LOAN INSURANCE PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [ENERGY LOAN INSURANCE ACCOUNT.] The energy loan insurance account is part of the energy fund. The account must be used by the authority as a revolving account, and all money in the account is appropriated to the authority, for carrying out the provisions of this section with respect to loans insured under subdivision 2.

Subd. 2. [INSURANCE OF LOANS.] The authority is authorized, upon application by a financial institution, to insure loans for cost-effective qualified energy projects as provided in this section; and under terms as the authority may prescribe by rule, to make commitments for the insuring of loans prior to the date of their execution or disbursement. If the authority determines that the energy loan insurance account is or will be depleted, the authority may by resolution transfer money from the energy development account.

Subd. 3. [REQUIREMENTS.] The authority may by rule establish requirements for energy loans to be eligible for insurance under this section, relating to:

- (1) maximum principal amount, amortization schedule, interest rate, delinquency charges, and other terms;*
- (2) the portion of the loan to be insured;*
- (3) acceleration and other remedies;*
- (4) covenants regarding insurance, repairs, and maintenance of the project;*
- (5) conditions regarding subordination of the loan security, if any, of the project to other liens against the property;*
- (6) the aggregate principal amount of loans to be insured in relation to the reserves from time to time on hand in the insurance account, and priorities as to the loans to be insured; and*
- (7) any other matters determined by the authority.*

The authority shall by rule establish criteria for analyzing the cost-effectiveness of projects.

Subd. 4. [CONCLUSIVE EVIDENCE OF INSURABILITY.] Any contract of insurance executed by the authority under this section is conclusive evidence of the eligibility of the loan for insurance, and the validity of any contract of insurance properly executed and in the hands of any approved lender is not contestable, except for fraud or misrepresentation on the part of the financial institution.

Subd. 5. [PREMIUMS.] The authority is authorized to fix premium charges for the insurance of loans under this section at levels that in its judgment, taking into consideration other amounts available in the account, will be sufficient to cover and maintain a reserve for loan losses.

Subd. 6. [PROCEDURES UPON DEFAULT.] The authority may establish procedures to be followed by financial institutions and to be taken by the authority in the event of default upon an energy loan, including:

(1) time for filing claims;

(2) rights and interests to be assigned and documents to be furnished by the financial institution;

(3) principal and interest to be included in the claim; and

(4) conditions, if any, upon which the authority will pay the entire principal amount in default, after foreclosure and receipt of marketable title to the property.

Subd. 7. [INVESTMENT INTEREST.] All interest and profits accruing from investment of the account's money must be credited to and be a part of the account, and any loss incurred in the principal of the investments of the account must be borne by the account.

Subd. 8. [MAXIMUM AUTHORIZED INSURANCE.] The authority may not at any time issue insurance under this section aggregating in excess of an amount equal to the current balance contained in the account multiplied by ten.

Sec. 20. [446A.13] [REVENUE BOND LOAN PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [REVENUE BONDS.] The authority may borrow money and may issue bonds, notes, or other obligations as evidence of the borrowing as provided in sections 462A.08 to 462A.17. The authority may sell any of its obligations at public or private sale, at the price or prices as the authority determines are appropriate, notwithstanding the limitations on sale price in section 462A.09.

Subd. 2. [ENERGY DEVELOPMENT ACCOUNT.] The energy development account is part of the energy fund and is eligible to receive appropriations. The authority may irrevocably pledge and appropriate all or a segregated portion of the energy development account to make principal and interest payments when due on all or one or more series of its obligations for which other money is not available. If the energy development account is or will be depleted, the authority may by resolution transfer money from the energy loan insurance account.

Subd. 3. [INVESTMENT INCOME.] All interest and profits accruing from investment of the energy development account's money must be credited to and be part of the energy development account, and any loss incurred in the principal of the investment of the reserve account must be borne by the energy development account. Assets of the energy development account may be invested only in direct obligations or obligations of agencies of the United States or in insured depository accounts, up to the amount of the insurance, in any institution insured by an agency of the United States government, or in other obligations or depository accounts referred to in section 11A.24, subdivision 4, except clause (d) of that subdivision. Other money of the authority must be invested or deposited in the manner and with the security provided in bond or note resolutions or indentures under which obligations of the authority are issued for the program.

Subd. 4. [ADDITIONAL POWERS.] The authority has corporate powers necessary to the implementation and operation of the revenue bond loan program authorized by this section.

Subd. 5. [FUNDING.] All proceeds of the authority's bonds, notes, and other obligations, any amounts granted or appropriated to the authority to make, purchase, or insure loans, or for bond reserves, all income from the investment thereof, and all revenues from loans, fees, and charges of the authority are annually appropriated to the authority to accomplish its purposes and may be expended, administered, and accounted for in accordance with the applicable provisions of all bond and note resolutions, indentures, and other instruments, contracts, and agreements of the authority.

Sec. 21. [446A.14] [LOANS TO MUNICIPALITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATIONS.] Municipalities may apply for loans to finance the acquisition or construction of qualified energy improvements on applications provided by the authority.

Subd. 2. [LOANS TO MUNICIPALITIES.] The authority shall approve applications from municipalities for loans to finance improvements to public buildings for the purpose of energy conservation, reduction of the use of conventional energy sources, or the use of alternative energy resources, and make recommendations on the applications to the commissioner of finance, in the event of the authorization and issuance of bonds of the state for this purpose. This program includes the district heating loan program established under section 116J.36 and the program of energy improvement loans to schools established under section 116J.37.

Subd. 3. [MUNICIPAL OBLIGATION.] A loan may not be made to a municipality until it has entered into an agreement with the state providing that the municipality shall make payments of principal and interest at least equal in the aggregate to the principal amount of the loan plus interest at the rate payable on the state bonds. The commissioner of finance shall determine the annual amounts of the payments. The amounts due each year are payable prior to the times transfers are required to be made pursuant to section 16A.641. The agreement must obligate the municipality to levy an ad valorem property tax equal to the amounts necessary to make the payments. The amount required to be levied may be reduced by any other available amounts contained in a special fund dedicated to payment of the loan obligation.

Subd. 4. [RECEIPTS.] The principal and interest in repayment of the loans authorized by this section must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the state bond fund and are appropriated to the commissioner of finance for the purpose of that fund.

Sec. 22. [446A.15] [REPORT; AUDIT.]

The authority shall report to the legislature and the governor by January 1 of each year. The report must include a complete operating and financial statement covering the authority's operations during the year, including amounts of income from all sources. Books and records of the authority are subject to audit by the legislative auditor in the manner prescribed for state agencies.

Sec. 23. [GOVERNOR'S ACTION.]

The governor may request the administrator of the environmental protection agency to make available to the state, capitalization grants to be deposited in the water pollution control revolving fund established under section 14, for the fiscal year beginning October 1, 1987. The governor may request that up to 75 percent of the amount allotted to the state for the fiscal year beginning October 1, 1987, be made available for deposit in the water pollution control revolving fund.

Sec. 24. [TRANSFER OF AUTHORITY.]

(a) Any continuing obligation with respect to grants made before September 30, 1984, under Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 116.18, subdivision 2, remains with the pollution control agency.

(b) The pollution control agency shall continue to administer the combined sewer overflow program under Minnesota Statutes, section 116.162, and the appropriations for the program.

Sec. 25. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116.167, is repealed.

Sec. 26. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 13, 14, 15, 16, and 17 are effective on July 1, 1988.

ARTICLE 4

EDUCATION AND TRAINING PROGRAMS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116L.03, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [APPOINTMENT.] Members shall be appointed as follows: four members appointed by the speaker of the house; one member appointed by the minority leader of the house; four members appointed by the majority leader of the senate; one member appointed by the minority leader of the senate; eight members appointed by the governor; and the ~~commissioners of the departments~~ commissioner of energy and economic development, ~~education, and jobs and training~~ the commissioner of jobs and training, and the state director of vocational technical education.

Sec. 2. [116L.06] [RURAL TRAINING PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of this section, "low-income" means equal to or below the nonmetropolitan median household income. "Principally" means at least 51 percent. "Rural Minnesota" means the part of the state outside the metropolitan area as defined in section 473.121, subdivision 2.

Subd. 2. [TRAINING PROGRAM.] The partnership may provide grants to educational or other nonprofit institutions for training for new or expanding businesses located in rural Minnesota. Grants may be awarded only for training projects designed principally to benefit low-income persons. The partnership shall follow the criteria and guidelines in sections 116L.02 and 116L.04 to establish and administer the program.

Subd. 3. [NEW BUSINESS SET-ASIDE.] The partnership may set aside up to 50 percent of the amount available for the rural training program to provide grants for new businesses locating in rural Minnesota. A set-aside grant may not be made for an existing business located in the met- ropolitan area as defined in section 473.121, subdivision 2, that relocates to rural Minnesota. The partnership shall use the guidelines in section 116L.04 to establish and administer the program, except that a committee consisting of the commissioner of energy and economic development, the executive director of the Minnesota job skills partnership board, and the state director of vocational technical education may give final approval for training applications by a majority vote of the committee. Any amount left in the set-aside program at the end of the 1988 fiscal year may be used for the rural training program established by subdivision 2.

Sec. 3. [136A.134] [GRANTS TO DISLOCATED RURAL WORKERS.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT OF PROGRAM.] The higher education coordinating board shall develop policies and procedures for the administration of a dislocated rural worker grant program and the allocation of the program funds to eligible institutions and shall supervise the operation of the program.

Subd. 2. [ELIGIBLE INSTITUTIONS.] For purposes of this section, "eligible institution" has the meaning given it in section 136A.101.

Subd. 3. [APPLICANTS.] An applicant may be considered for a dislocated rural worker grant if the applicant:

(1) is a resident of the area of the state located outside of the metropolitan area defined in section 473.121, subdivision 2;

(2) is enrolled in an adult farm management program or a program designed to provide preparation for available employment within the local labor market or in an area to which the individual is willing to relocate;

(3) has met the financial need criteria established by the board; and

(4) can demonstrate that one of the following criteria has been met:

(i) the applicant or applicant's spouse has been separated from employment or has received a notice of separation from employment as a result of job obsolescence, plant shutdown, regional decline in the applicant's customary occupation, or industry slowdown, and the applicant or the applicant's spouse is unlikely to return to work for that employer or in that occupation within 12 months following separation from employment;

(ii) the applicant is a displaced homemaker; or

(iii) the applicant or the applicant's spouse is a farmer who can demonstrate severe household financial need.

Subd. 4. [PROGRAM RECIPIENTS.] An eligible institution shall select a recipient of a dislocated rural worker grant in accordance with guidelines, policies, and rules established by the board. The board may adopt emergency rules for awarding grants only for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1987.

Subd. 5. [PROGRAM COORDINATION; INFORMATION.] The board shall develop and provide information to dislocated workers in rural areas about post-secondary education opportunities and student financial aid programs. The board shall also provide for the coordination of dislocated rural worker grants with other available student financial aid programs. Dislocated rural worker grants must be awarded in a manner that maximizes the use of existing federal and state student financial aid programs.

Sec. 4. Laws 1983, chapter 334, section 7, is amended to read:

Sec. 7. [REPEALER.]

Sections 1 to 6 are repealed June 30, 1987 1989.

Sec. 5. [APPROPRIATION.]

$_____ is appropriated from the rural rehabilitation revolving fund to the Minnesota job skills partnership board for the customized rural training program established in section 2. This appropriation is available until expended.

Sec. 6. [SUPPLEMENTAL EDUCATION GRANT PROGRAM FUNDING.]

$_____ is appropriated from the general fund and $_____ is appropriated from the rural rehabilitation revolving fund to the higher education coordinating board for the dislocated rural worker grant program established in section 3, to be available until June 30, 1988.

ARTICLE 5

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. [93.001] [POLICY FOR MINERAL DEVELOPMENT.]

It is the policy of the state to provide a long-term commitment to mineral exploration evaluation, development, production, and commercialization to provide a diversified mineral economy in the state.

Sec. 2. [93.002] [MINERAL COORDINATING COMMITTEE.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The mineral coordinating committee is established to provide planning and assistance for diversified mineral development. The mineral coordinating committee consists of the director of the minerals division of the department of natural resources, the director of the Minnesota geological survey, the director of the University of Minnesota mineral resources research center, and the director of the natural resources research institute. The director of the minerals division of the department of natural resources shall serve as chair. A member of the committee may designate another person of the member's organization to act in the member's place. The commissioner of natural resources shall provide staff and administrative services necessary for the committee's activities.

Subd. 2. [MINERAL DIVERSIFICATION PLAN.] The mineral coordinating committee shall prepare and adopt a ten-year plan for mineral diversification. The plan must include a strategy to:

- (1) increase the knowledge of the state's mineral potential;*
- (2) stimulate the development of mineral resources in the state;*
- (3) provide for basic minerals research; and*
- (4) the plan must also prioritize minerals programs under subdivision 3.*

Subd. 3. [MINERALS PROGRAMS.] The mineral diversification plan must address at least the following: aeromagnetic surveys, glacial till geochemistry surveys, geologic drilling and mapping, LMIC minerals data base, drill core examination and assay, industrial minerals characterization and research, bedrock geochemistry, nonferrous minerals research, reclamation studies, economic evaluation of mineral resources, improved geophysical and remote sensing base, acquisition of sampling equipment and analyses, determination of mineral rights ownership, ferrous minerals research, evaluation of mineral resource occurrence, evaluation of value added processes, ore deposit modeling, and basic mineral research.

Subd. 4. [SUBMISSION OF PLAN AND FUNDING PRIORITIES.] (a) The minerals coordinating committee shall submit the minerals diversification plan to the legislature by December 31, 1987.

(b) By January 15 of each odd-numbered year, the minerals coordinating committee shall submit recommendations for funding priorities of the minerals diversification plan to the chairs of the house appropriations and environment and natural resources committees and the chairs of the senate finance and environment and natural resources committees.

Sec. 3. [116J.874] [COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT DIVISION.]

Subdivision 1. [DUTIES.] The community development division is a division within the department of energy and economic development. It shall:

(1) be responsible for administering all state community development and assistance programs, including the economic recovery fund, the outdoor recreation grant program, the rural development board programs, and the Minnesota public facilities authority loan and grant programs;

(2) be responsible for state administration of federally funded community development and assistance programs, including the small cities development grant program and land and water conservation program;

(3) be responsible for state administration of the regional development commissions;

(4) provide technical assistance to rural communities with respect to community development;

(5) coordinate the development and review of state rural development policies;

(6) provide staff and consultant services to the rural development board; and

(7) be responsible for coordinating community assistance and development programs.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116J.955, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

116J.955 [RURAL REHABILITATION REVOLVING FUND.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The rural rehabilitation revolving fund is established as an account in the state treasury. The money transferred to the state as a result of liquidating the rural rehabilitation corporation trust, and money derived from transfer of the trust to the state, must be credited to the rural rehabilitation revolving fund. ~~The principal amount of the rural rehabilitation revolving fund, $9,300,000, may not be spent and must be invested by the state investment board. The income attributable to investment of the principal is appropriated to the commissioner for the activities of the rural development council.~~

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116J.955, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXPENDITURE OF INVESTMENT INCOME FUND.] The commissioner may ~~only use the income from the investment of the rural rehabilitation revolving fund for the purposes that are allowed under the Minnesota rural rehabilitation corporation's charter and agreement with the United States Secretary of Agriculture as provided in Public Law Number 499, 81st Congress, enacted May 3, 1950 and as allowed under section 116J.961, subdivision 8 article 1, sections 2 and 7, and article 4, sections 5 and 6.~~ Not more than three percent of the book value of the Minnesota rural rehabilitation corporation's assets may be used for administrative purposes in a year without approval of the United States Secretary of Agriculture. The commissioner may create separate accounts within the fund for use in accordance with the fund's purposes.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 462.384, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. ~~"Director"~~ "Commissioner" means the ~~director commissioner of state planning agency exercising the authority conferred by sections 116K.01 to 116K.13 energy and economic development.~~

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 462.385, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Development regions for the state shall be those regions so designated by the governor by executive order. The order shall provide for public hearings within each proposed region after which any county may request assignment to a region other than that proposed by the order. If a request for reassignment is unacceptable to the ~~director commissioner~~, the county shall remain in the originally designated region until the next session of the legislature for its review and final assignment.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 462.385, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. The ~~director commissioner~~ shall conduct continuous studies and analysis of the boundaries of regions and shall make recommendations for their modification where necessary. Modification may be initiated by a county, a commission, or by the ~~director commissioner~~ and will be accomplished in accordance with this section as in the case of initial designation.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 462.386, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. All coordination, planning, and development regions assisted or created by the state of Minnesota or pursuant to federal legislation shall conform to the regions designated by the executive order except where, after review and approval by the ~~director commissioner~~, nonconformance is clearly justified. The ~~director commissioner~~ shall develop working agreements with state and federal departments and agencies to insure conformance with this subdivision.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 462.387, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PETITION.] Any combination of counties or municipalities representing a majority of the population of the region for which a commission is proposed may petition the ~~director commissioner~~ by formal resolution setting forth its desire to establish, and the need for, the establishment of a regional development commission. For purposes of this section the population of a county does not include the population of a municipality within the county.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 462.387, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [ESTABLISHMENT.] Upon receipt of a petition as provided in subdivision 1 a regional development commission shall be established by the ~~director~~ commissioner and the notification of all local government units within the region for which the commission is proposed. The notification shall be made within 60 days of the director's receipt of a petition under subdivision 1.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 462.387, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SELECTION OF MEMBERSHIP.] The ~~director~~ commissioner shall call together each of the membership classifications except citizen groups, defined in section 462.388, within 60 days of the establishment of a regional development commission for the purpose of selecting the commission membership.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 462.39, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FEDERAL PROGRAMS.] The commission is the authorized agency to receive state and federal grants for regional purposes from the following programs:

(1) Section 403 of the Public Works and Economic Development Act of 1965 (economic development districts);

(2) Section 701 of the Housing Act of 1954, as amended (multicounty comprehensive planning);

(3) Omnibus Crime Control Act of 1968; and for the following to the extent feasible as determined by the governor:

(a) Economic Opportunity Act of 1964;

(b) Comprehensive Health Planning Act of 1965;

(c) Federal regional manpower planning programs;

(d) Resource, conservation, and development districts; or

(e) Any state and federal programs providing funds for multicounty planning, coordination, and development purposes. The ~~director~~ commissioner shall, where consistent with state and federal statutes and regulations, review applications for all state and federal regional planning and development grants to a commission.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 462.39, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PLANNING.] The commission shall prepare and adopt, after appropriate study and such public hearings as may be necessary, a comprehensive development plan for the region. The plan shall consist of a compilation of policy statements, goals, standards, programs, and maps prescribing guides for an orderly and economic development, public and private, of the region. The comprehensive development plan shall recognize and encompass physical, social, or economic needs of the region, and those future developments which will have an impact on the entire region including but not limited to such matters as land use, parks and open space land needs, access to direct sunlight for solar energy systems, the necessity for and location of airports, highways, transit facilities, public hospitals, libraries, schools, public and private, housing, and other public buildings. In preparing the development plan the commission shall use to the maximum extent feasible the resources studies and data available from other planning agencies within the region, including counties, municipalities, special districts, and subregional planning agencies, and it shall utilize the resources of the ~~director~~ commissioner to the same purpose. No development plan or portion thereof for the region shall be adopted by the commission until it has been submitted to the ~~director~~ commissioner for review and comment and a period of 60 days has elapsed after such submission. When a development plan has been adopted, the commission shall distribute it to all local government units within the region.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 462.391, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REVIEW OF INDEPENDENT AGENCIES.] The commission shall review all long term comprehensive plans of each independent commission, board, or agency prepared for its operation and development within the region but only if the plan is determined by the commission to have a regional effect, a multicomunity effect, or to have a substantial effect on regional development. Each plan shall be submitted to the commission before any action is taken to place the plan or any part thereof, into effect. No action shall be taken to place any plan or any part thereof into effect until 60 days have elapsed after the date of its submission to the commission or until the commission finds and notifies the submitting commission, board, or agency that the plan is consistent with its development plan for the region and the orderly and economic development of the region, whichever first occurs. If, within 60 days after the date of submission, the commission finds that a plan, or any part thereof, is inconsistent with its comprehensive plan for the region or detrimental to the orderly and economic development of the region, or any part thereof, the plan shall be indefinitely suspended. An affected independent commission, board, or agency may appeal the decision of the commission suspending a plan, or part thereof, to the commission, and if the commission and the affected independent commission, board, or agency are unable to agree as to an adjustment of the plan, so that it may receive the commission's approval, then a record of the disagreeing positions shall be made and presented for consideration and disposition by the ~~director~~ commissioner.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 462.391, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [REVIEW OF FEDERAL AND STATE AID PROGRAMS.] The commission shall review all applications of governmental units, independent commissions, boards, or agencies operating in the region for a loan or grant from the United States of America or any agency, including state agencies and colleges or universities, for public facilities, studies, or any other purpose if the application clearly is related to the region, whether or not the review is required by the federal government. The review shall advise the granting authority as to relationship of the application to the comprehensive plans and priorities of the region as established by the region. All review actions together with copies of applications shall be submitted on a regular basis for informational purposes to the ~~director~~ commissioner. The requirements of this subdivision do not apply to applications of governmental units or other political subdivisions which have been reviewed by a subregion or subdistrict which has been designated by the United States government as an authorized areawide review agency under section 204 of the Demonstration Cities and Metropolitan Development Act of 1966. All review actions, together with copies of applications, shall be submitted by the subregion on a regular basis to the commission for informational purposes.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 462.391, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [REVIEW PROCEDURES.] The commission shall develop, in consultation with the ~~director~~ commissioner, formal procedures for the review of plans, applications, and other matters required to be submitted to it by sections 462.381 to 462.398. The procedures shall be embodied in a formal resolution adopted after public hearing. After adoption the resolution shall be transmitted to each governmental unit and independent agency, board, or commission within the region.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 462.395, is amended to read:

462.395 [DUTIES OF STATE AGENCIES.]

All state departments and agencies shall cooperate with regional development commissions established under sections 462.381 to 462.398 and shall make available to them studies, reports, data, and other informational and technical assistance within financial and personnel limitations. The ~~director~~ commissioner shall coordinate the state's assistance programs to regional planning and development commissions.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 462.396, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The ~~director~~ commissioner shall determine the amount of and make grants to any commission created under sections 462.381 to 462.398 from appropriations made available for those purposes, provided a work program is submitted acceptable to the ~~director~~ commissioner. Any regional commission may levy a tax on all taxable property in the region to provide money for the purposes of sections 462.381 to 462.398.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 462.398, is amended to read:

462.398 [TERMINATION OF COMMISSION.]

Subdivision 1. Any combination of counties or municipalities representing a majority of the population of the region for which a commission exists may petition the ~~director~~ commissioner by formal resolution stating that the existence of the commission is no longer in the public welfare and interest and is not needed to accomplish the purposes of the regional development act of 1969. For purposes of this section the population of a county does not include the population of a municipality within the county. Any formal resolution adopted by the governing body of a county or municipality for the termination of a commission shall be effective for a period of one year for the purpose of determining the requisite population of the region needed to petition the ~~director~~ commissioner.

Subd. 2. Within 35 days of the receipt of the petition, the ~~director~~ commissioner shall fix a time and place within the region for a hearing. The ~~director~~ commissioner shall give notice of the hearing by publication once each week for two successive weeks before the date of the hearing in a legal newspaper in each of the counties which the commission represents. The hearing shall be conducted by members of the commission. If the commission determines that the existence of the commission is no longer in the public welfare and interest and that it is not needed to accomplish the purposes of the regional development act of 1969, the commission shall recommend to the ~~director~~ commissioner that the ~~director~~ commissioner terminate the commission. Within 60 days after receipt of the recommendation, the ~~director~~ commissioner shall terminate the commission by giving notice of the termination to all government units within the region for which the commission was established. Unless otherwise provided by this subdivision, the hearing shall be in accordance with sections 14.01 to 14.70.

Subd. 3. The ~~director~~ commissioner shall not accept a petition for termination more than once in 30 months for each regional development commission.

Sec. 21. [APPROPRIATION.]

Subdivision 1. [MINERALS PROGRAMS.] $_____ is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of natural resources for acceleration of geological mapping of the state, acceleration of the evaluation of the state's mineral potential and other natural resources, and provide analytical support for the minerals industry according to the mineral diversification plan or a minerals industry acceleration plan developed by the minerals coordinating committee.

Subd. 2. [COUNTY FORESTRY ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS.] $_____ is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of natural resources for grants to counties or groups of counties for county forestry assistance programs. The commissioner of natural resources shall make the appropriation available to counties with the amount proportional to the acreage of forested tax-forfeited land managed by the county. As a condition of receiving funds, the commissioner of natural resources shall require work plans, semiannual progress reports, and final project reports.

Subd. 3. [FORESTRY MANAGEMENT.] $_____ is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of natural resources for implementation of the forestry management plan required in Minnesota Statutes, section 89.011, on land that is not managed for the school trust fund.

Sec. 22. [INSTRUCTION TO REVISOR.]

The revisor of statutes is directed to change the words "commissioner of energy and economic development" and "department of energy and economic development" whenever they appear in Minnesota Statutes to "commissioner of trade and economic development" and "department of trade and economic development" in Minnesota Statutes 1988, and subsequent editions of the statutes.

Sec. 23. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 and 2 are effective the day following final enactment.

ARTICLE 6

MINNESOTA DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41A.01, is amended to read:

41A.01 [PURPOSE.]

Sections 41A.01 to 41A.06 41A.08 provide a framework for an agricultural resource loan guaranty program, the purposes of which are to further the development of the state's agricultural resources and improve the market for its agricultural products and rural small business development in the state. All credit advanced pursuant to loan guaranty commitments is to be secured by subrogation of the state to mortgage security and other security interests granted to the private lender, in proportion to the amount advanced by the state. A loan guaranty board is established to investigate the feasibility of each project, its conformity to public policy and to environmental standards, the qualifications of the owners, operators, and lenders, and the nature and extent of the security, prior to commitment. The board shall also seek to secure financial participation by private persons not supported by the guaranty, to assure that in these respects each project satisfies and will continue to satisfy criteria which are adequate in the judgment of the board.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41A.02, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [~~AGRICULTURAL RESOURCE LOAN GUARANTY MINNESOTA DEVELOPMENT BOARD; BOARD.~~] "~~Ag~~ricultural resource loan guaranty Minnesota development board" or "board" means consists of the commissioner of finance as chair, the commissioner of agriculture, ~~the commissioner of commerce,~~ the commissioner of energy and economic development, and the director of the pollution control agency, the chair of the greater Minnesota corporation, and two public members with extensive experience in finance, appointed by the governor.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41A.02, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [~~AGRICULTURAL RESOURCE LOAN GUARANTY MINNESOTA DEVELOPMENT FUND; GUARANTY DEVELOPMENT FUND.~~] "~~Ag~~ricultural resource loan guaranty Minnesota development fund" or "~~guaranty development fund~~" means the fund created by section 41A.05.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41A.02, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [~~AGRICULTURAL RESOURCE PROJECT; PROJECT.~~] "Agricultural resource project" or "project" means (1) any facility, or portion of a facility, located in the state which is operated or to be operated primarily for the production from agricultural resources of marketable products, (2) buildings, equipment, and land used for the commercial production of turkeys or turkey products, or (3) a facility or portion of a facility used for the commercial production of fish or of products made from commercially-produced fish. The land in clause (2) is limited to land on which buildings and equipment are situated and immediately surrounding land used for storage, waste disposal, or other functions directly related to the commercial production of turkeys or turkey products at that project site. A project includes a facility or portion of a facility for mixing or producing substances to be mixed with other substances for use as a fuel or as a substitute for petroleum or petrochemical feedstocks.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41A.02, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [~~LENDER.~~] "Lender" means a corporation or any investment or commercial banking institution, savings and loan institution, insurance company, investment company, or other financial institution or institutional investor making, purchasing, or participating in a loan or any part of a loan, or a public entity authorized to make agricultural loans.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41A.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 16. [ELIGIBLE SMALL BUSINESS.] "Eligible small business" means an enterprise determined by the board to constitute a small business concern as defined in regulations of the United States Small Business Administration pursuant to United States Code, title 15, sections 631 to 647, as amended from time to time.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41A.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 17. [SMALL BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT LOAN.] "Small business development loan" means a loan to a business that is an "eligible small business" for the financing of (a) capital expenditures on an interim or long-term basis for the acquisition or improvement of land, acquisition, construction, rehabilitation, removal, or improvement of buildings, or the acquisition and installation of fixtures and equipment useful to conduct a small business, including all facilities of a capital nature useful or suitable for any business engaged in any enterprise promoting employment including, without limitation, those facilities included within the meaning of the term "project" as defined in section 474.02, subdivisions 1 to 1f, and section 474.03, subdivision 4; or (b) short-term costs of conducting a small business.

Sec. 8. [41A.021] [SUCCESSOR STATUS.]

The board is the legal successor in all respects of the agricultural resource loan guaranty board established by Laws 1984, chapter 502, article 10, and all bonds, resolutions, contracts, and liabilities of the agricultural resource loan guaranty board are the bonds, resolutions, contracts, and liabilities of the board as renamed and reconstituted by section 41A.02, subdivision 3.

Sec. 9. [41A.022] [MINNESOTA ENERGY AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY; SUCCESSOR STATUS.]

The board is the legal successor in all respects of the Minnesota energy and economic development authority with regard to the small business finance agency loan program established by Laws 1980, chapter 547. All bonds, resolutions, contracts, and liabilities of the Minnesota energy and economic development authority relating to the program are the bonds, resolutions, contracts, and liabilities of the board.

Sec. 10. [41A.023] [POWERS.]

In addition to other powers granted by this chapter, the board may:

- (1) sue and be sued;*
- (2) acquire, hold, lease, and transfer any interest in real and personal property for its corporate purposes;*
- (3) sell at public or private sale any instrument or obligation evidencing a loan;*
- (4) obtain insurance on its property;*

- (5) obtain municipal bond insurance, letters of credit, surety obligations, or similar agreements from financial institutions;
- (6) enter into other agreements or transactions, without regard to chapter 16B, that the board considers necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes of this chapter with federal or state agencies, political subdivisions of the state, or other persons, firms, or corporations;
- (7) establish and collect fees;
- (8) accept appropriations, gifts, grants, and bequests;
- (9) use money received from any source for any legal purpose or program of the board;
- (10) participate in loans for agricultural resource projects in accordance with section 11;
- (11) provide small business loans in accordance with section 12; and
- (12) guarantee or insure bonds or notes issued by the board.

Sec. 11. [41A.035] [AGRICULTURAL RESOURCES LOAN PARTICIPATION.]

The board may participate in loans made to finance agricultural resource projects by purchasing from a lender up to 75 percent of the amount of each eligible loan. If the participation loan is in an amount of $500,000 or less, the loan may be for 100 percent of the cost of the project. If the participation loan exceeds $500,000, the loan may not exceed 80 percent of the cost of the project. The lender shall service the loan or cause it to be serviced in a manner that equally protects the lender's and the board's interests.

Sec. 12. [41A.036] [RURAL SMALL BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT LOANS.]

Subdivision 1. [LOANS; LIMITATIONS.] (a) The board may make, purchase, or participate with financial institutions in making or purchasing small business loans not exceeding $1,000,000 in principal amount with respect to small business loans made or purchased by the board and not exceeding $1,000,000 principal amount with respect to the board's share when the board participates in making or purchasing small business loans.

(b) With respect to loans that the board makes or purchases or participates with, the board may determine or provide for their servicing, the percentage of board participation, if any, the times the loans or participations are payable and the amounts of payment, their amount and interest rates, their security, if any, and other terms, conditions, and provisions necessary or convenient in connection with them and may enter into all necessary contracts and security instruments in connection with them. The board may enter into commitments to purchase or participate with financial institutions or other persons upon the terms, conditions, and provisions determined by it. Loans or participations may be serviced by financial institutions or other persons designated by the board.

(c) The board shall obtain the best available security for all loans. The board may provide for or require the insurance or guaranteeing of the loans or board participations in whole or in part by the federal government or a department, agency, or instrumentality of it, by an appropriate board account, or by a private insurer.

Subd. 2. [SMALL BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT LOANS; PREFERENCES.] The following eligible small businesses have preference among all business applicants for small business development loans:

(1) businesses located in rural areas of the state that are experiencing the most severe unemployment rates in the state;

(2) businesses that are likely to expand and provide additional permanent employment in rural areas of the state;

(3) businesses located in border communities that experience a competitive disadvantage due to location;

(4) businesses that have been unable to obtain traditional financial assistance due to a disadvantageous location, minority ownership, or other factors rather than due to the business having been considered a poor financial risk;

(5) businesses that utilize state resources and reduce state dependence on outside resources, and that produce products or services consistent with the long-term social and economic needs of the state; and

(6) businesses located in designated enterprise zones, as described in section 273.1312, subdivision 4.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41A.05, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT OF FUND.] For the purpose of developing the state's agricultural resources by extending credit on real estate security, the agricultural resource loan guaranty The Minnesota development fund is established as a special and dedicated separate account in the general fund to be held and invested separately from all other funds of the state. All money appropriated to the fund, and all guaranty fees, retail sales taxes, property tax increments, and other money from any source which may be credited to the fund pursuant to law or pursuant to the terms of grants, contributions, or contracts are appropriated and shall remain available for the purposes of the fund until those purposes have been fully accomplished to the board to carry out the purposes of this chapter. The board may establish within the guaranty Minnesota development fund reserve funds, project accounts, or other restrictions it determines necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes of this chapter. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the fund may be used only for paying amounts due under loan guaranties and principal and interest assistance contracts entered into by the state, pursuant to the agricultural resource loan guaranty program.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41A.05, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ISSUANCE OF BONDS.] (a) Subject to section 16A.80, upon application pursuant to section 41A.04, The board by resolution may exercise the powers of a rural development authority under sections 362A.01 to 362A.05 and the powers of a municipality under chapter 474 for the purposes of providing money to pay the costs of financing a project, including the issuance of bonds and the loan application of the bond proceeds pursuant to a lease, loan, loan guaranty, loan participation, or other agreement. The bonds must be issued, sold, and secured on the terms and conditions and in the manner determined by resolution of the board. Sections Section 16A.80 and 474.23 do does not apply to the bonds. Notwithstanding subdivision 1, a reserve established for the bonds provided by the borrower, including out of bond proceeds, may be deposited and held in a separate account in the ~~guaranty~~ Minnesota development fund and applied to the last installments of principal or interest on the bonds, subject to the reserves being withdrawn for any purpose permitted by subdivision 1. The board may by resolution or indenture pledge any or all amounts in the ~~guaranty~~ fund, including any reserves and investment income on amounts in the fund, to secure the payment of principal and interest on any or all series of bonds, upon the terms and conditions as provided in the resolution or indenture. To the extent the board deems necessary or desirable to prevent interest on bonds from becoming subject to federal income taxation, (1) the amounts in the ~~guaranty~~ fund shall be invested in obligations or securities with restricted yields and (2) the investment income on the amounts are released from the pledge securing the bonds or loan guaranty and appropriately applied to prevent taxation.

(b) Bonds issued pursuant to this chapter are not general obligations of the state or the board. The full faith and credit and taxing powers of the state and the board are not and may not be pledged for the payment of the bonds. No person may compel the levy of a tax for the payment or compel the appropriation of money of the state or the board for the payment of the bonds, except as specifically provided in this chapter.

(c) The issuance of bonds pursuant to this subdivision is subject to sections ~~474.18 to 474.25~~ 474A.11 and 474A.13. For purposes of sections ~~474.16 474A.01 to 474.20~~ 474A.21, the board is a local issuer and may apply for allocations of authority to issue private activity obligations and may enter into an agreement for the issuance of obligations by another issuer.

Sec. 15. [INSTRUCTION TO REVISOR.]

The revisor of statutes is directed to change the phrase "agricultural resource loan guaranty board" wherever it appears in Minnesota Statutes to "Minnesota development board" in the next and subsequent editions of the statutes.

Sec. 16. [INSTRUCTION TO REVISOR.]

The revisor of statutes is directed to change the phrase "agricultural resource loan guaranty fund" wherever it appears in Minnesota Statutes to "Minnesota development fund" in the next and subsequent editions of the statutes.

Sec. 17. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41A.06, subdivision 2, is repealed.

ARTICLE 7

MINNESOTA ENERGY AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 16A.80, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [EXEMPT AGENCIES.] This section does not apply to:

- (1) the housing finance agency;
- (2) the state board of investment;

- (3) the iron range resources and rehabilitation board;
- (4) the higher education coordinating board; and
- (5) the higher education facilities authority; and
- (6) ~~the energy and economic development authority.~~

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116J.36, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] In this section:

(a) "Authority" means the Minnesota public facilities authority established in article 3, section 10.

~~(a)~~ (b) "Construction costs" means all costs associated with the construction, modification or expansion of a district heating system except for preliminary planning costs and detailed design costs. Construction costs include the cost of debt service from the time a construction loan is made until five years after the beginning of the operation of the district heating system constructed or the part of the system being modified or expanded.

~~(b)~~ (c) "District heating" means the use of a central energy conversion facility to produce hot water or steam for a district heating system. District heating facilities may also produce electricity in addition to hot water or steam.

~~(c)~~ (d) "Municipality" means any county, city, town, school district or a municipal power agency formed pursuant to sections 453.53 to 453.62. Municipality also means a public utility, as defined in section 452.01, subdivision 3, owned and operated by a city, however organized. For purposes of a district heating system only, municipality also means a nonprofit corporation organized pursuant to the provisions of chapter 317 whose membership is limited to the mayor and governing body of the city in which the district heating system is located.

~~(d)~~ (e) "District heating system" means any existing or proposed facility for (1) the production, through cogeneration or otherwise, of hot water or steam to be used for district heating, or (2) the transmission and distribution of hot water or steam for district heating either directly to heating consumers or to another facility or facilities for transmission and distribution, or (3) any part or combination of the foregoing facilities.

~~(e)~~ (f) "Qualified energy improvement" means a cost-effective capital improvement to public land, buildings, or energy using systems, other than a district heating system, including the purchase or installation of equipment to reduce the usage of conventional energy sources or to use alternative energy resources. Qualified energy improvements also include waste-to-energy facilities that meet the criteria specified in subdivision 8a and any rule adopted under that subdivision. Qualified energy improvements shall meet all environmental and permitting standards established by state and federal law.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116J.36, subdivision 3b, is amended to read:

Subd. 3b. [GRANT ELIGIBILITY, DISTRICT HEATING.] ~~The commissioner of energy and economic development authority~~ may provide planning grants to municipalities for planning related to the development of district heating systems. The municipality must demonstrate that a community heatload survey and map have been successfully completed, that potential district heating load is sufficiently large to justify further consideration, and that sufficient resources are available for the municipality to meet its financial requirements. Eligible planning grant costs include project definition, development of preliminary financing and distribution system plans, and obtaining commitment for detailed planning or design and preparation of a final report. The amount of the grant to a municipality is limited to 90 percent of eligible planning costs and shall not exceed $70,000 as established by rule or emergency rule.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116J.36, subdivision 3c, is amended to read:

Subd. 3c. [GRANT ELIGIBILITY, QUALIFIED ENERGY IMPROVEMENTS.] The ~~commissioner of energy and economic development authority~~ may provide planning grants to municipalities for planning related to the development of qualified energy improvements. The municipality must demonstrate that sufficient resources are available for the municipality to meet its financial requirements. Eligible planning grant costs include definition of the improvement, development of preliminary financing plans, and obtaining commitment for detailed planning or design and preparation of a final report. The amount of a grant to a municipality is limited to 90 percent of eligible planning costs and must not exceed $100,000 as established by rule or emergency rule.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116J.36, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [LOAN APPROVAL.] The ~~commissioner of energy and economic development authority~~ shall prepare and submit to the energy and economic development authority separate lists of loan requests for district heating systems and qualified energy improvements. The list for district heating loans shall contain the supporting information required by subdivisions 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7. The list for qualified energy improvements shall contain the supporting information required by subdivisions 3a, 3c, 4a, 5, and 6. The recommendation of the authority shall be transmitted to the commissioner of finance. The commissioner of finance shall sell bonds and make loans for district heating projects and qualified energy improvements only upon the recommendation of the authority.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116J.36, subdivision 8a, is amended to read:

Subd. 8a. [CRITERIA FOR QUALIFIED ENERGY IMPROVEMENTS.] Qualified energy improvements eligible for loans must meet criteria established in rule by the ~~commissioner of energy and economic development authority~~. Rules shall include criteria for analyzing the cost-effectiveness of improvements. Rules relating to qualified energy improvements involving a waste-to-energy facility must be adopted in consultation with the waste management board and the pollution control agency. An improvement involving a waste-to-energy facility must be part of a solid waste management plan approved by the pollution control agency or a plan approved under section 473.803.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116J.36, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [RULES.] The ~~commissioner of energy and economic development authority~~ shall adopt rules necessary to carry out the programs of this section. The commissioner of energy and economic development authority may adopt emergency rules pursuant to sections 14.29 to 14.36, meeting the requirements of this section. The rules shall contain as a minimum:

- (a) Procedures for application by municipalities; and
- (b) Criteria for reviewing grant and loan applications.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 116J.37, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] In this section:

(a) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of energy and economic development. Upon passage of legislation creating a body known as the Minnesota energy public facilities authority, the duties assigned to the commissioner in this section are delegated to the authority.

(b) "Maxi-audit" has the meaning given in section 116J.06, subdivision 12.

(c) "Energy conservation investments" mean all capital expenditures that are associated with conservation measures identified in a maxi-audit and that have a ten-year or less payback period. Public school districts that received a federal institutional building grant in 1984 to convert a heating system to wood, and that apply for an energy conservation investment loan to match a federal grant for wood conversion, shall be allowed to calculate payback of conservation measures based on the costs of the traditional fuel in use prior to the wood conversion.

Sec. 9. [116J.970] [COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT CORPORATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [TERMS.] For the purposes of this section, the following terms shall have the meanings given them:

Subd. 2. [ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT REGION.] "Economic development region" means an area so designated in the governor's executive order number 60, dated June 12, 1970, as amended.

Subd. 3. [FEDERAL POVERTY LEVEL.] "Federal poverty level" means the income level established by the United States Community Services Administration in Code of Federal Regulations, title 45, section 1060.2-2.

Subd. 4. [LOW INCOME.] "Low income" means an annual income below the federal poverty level.

Subd. 5. [ADMINISTRATION.] The community development division of the department of energy and economic development shall administer this section and shall enforce the rules related to the community development corporations promulgated by the commissioner. The commissioner may amend, suspend, repeal or otherwise modify these rules as provided for in chapter 14.

Subd. 6. [GRANTS; CORPORATIONS ELIGIBLE.] (a) The commissioner shall designate a community development corporation as eligible to receive grants under this section if the corporation is a nonprofit corporation incorporated under chapter 317 and meets the other criteria in this subdivision.

(b) The corporation, in its articles of incorporation or bylaws, shall designate a specific geographic community within which it will operate. As least ten percent of the population within the designated community must have low incomes. Within the metropolitan area as defined in section 473.121, subdivision 2, a designated community must be an identifiable neighborhood or a combination of neighborhoods or home rule charter or statutory cities, townships, unincorporated areas, or combinations of those entities. Outside the metropolitan area, designated communities, so far as possible, may not cross existing economic development boundaries. If a proposed geographic area overlaps the designated community of a community development corporation existing before August 1, 1987, the proposed community development corporation must obtain the written consent of the existing community development corporation before the proposed corporation may be designated as eligible to receive grants under this section.

(c) The corporation must limit voting membership to residents of its designated area.

(d) The corporation shall have a board of directors with 15 to 30 members unless the corporation can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the authority that a smaller or larger board is more advantageous. At least 40 percent of the directors must have incomes that do not exceed 80 percent of the county median family income or 80 percent of the statewide median family income as determined by the state demographer, and the remaining directors must be members of the business or financial community and the community at large. To the greatest extent possible, directors must be residents of the designated community, but in no event may fewer than 60 percent of the directors be residents of the designated community. Directors who meet the income limitations of this paragraph must be elected by the members of the corporation. The remaining directors may be elected by the members or appointed by the directors who meet the income limitations of this paragraph.

(e) The corporation shall hire low-income residents of the designated community to fill nonmanagerial and nonprofessional positions.

(f) The corporation shall demonstrate that it has or will have the technical skills to analyze projects, that it is familiar with other available public and private funding sources and economic development programs, and that it is capable of packaging economic development projects.

Subd. 7. [GRANT APPROVAL FOR PROJECTS.] The commissioner shall approve a grant to a community development corporation only for a project carried on within the designated community, except when the corporation demonstrates that a project carried on outside will have a significant impact inside the designated community.

Subd. 8. [USE OF GRANT.] The commissioner may approve a grant to a community development corporation for planning, including organization of the corporation, training of the directors, creation of a comprehensive community economic development plan, and development of a proposal for a venture grant, or for establishment of a business venture, including assistance to an existing business venture, purchase of partial or full ownership of a business venture, or development of resources or facilities necessary for the establishment of a business venture.

Subd. 9. [ASSIGNEE.] The department must be named as an assignee of the rights of a state-funded community development corporation on any loan or other evidence of debt provided by a community development corporation to a private enterprise. The assignment of rights must provide that it will be effective upon the dormancy or cessation of existence of the community development corporation. "Dormancy" for the purpose of this section means the continuation of the corporation in name only without any functioning officers or activities. Upon the cessation of the activities of a state-funded community development corporation, any assigned money paid to the department must be deposited into the economic development fund to be used for the purposes set out in this chapter.

Subd. 10. [FACTORS FOR GRANT APPROVAL.] Factors considered by the commissioner in approving a grant to a community development corporation must include the creation of employment opportunities, the maximization of profit, and the effect on securing money from sources other than the state.

Subd. 11. [PROHIBITION.] Grants under this section are not available for programs conducted by churches or religious organizations or for securing or developing social services.

Subd. 12. [NO EXCLUSION.] A person may not be excluded from participation in a program funded pursuant to this section because of race, color, religion, sex, age, or national origin.

Sec. 10. [TRANSFER OF MINNESOTA ENERGY AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY RESPONSIBILITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [RESPONSIBILITIES TRANSFERRED TO DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE.] The responsibility for administering the loans that have been made from the following programs is transferred from the Minnesota energy and economic development authority to the department of finance: the hazardous waste processing facilities program under section 116M.07, subdivision 9; the special assistance program under section 116M.07, subdivision 11; and the technology product loan program.

Subd. 2. [RESPONSIBILITIES TRANSFERRED TO MINNESOTA PUBLIC FACILITIES AUTHORITY.] The responsibilities for the health care equipment loan program under section 116M.07, subdivisions 7a, 7b, and 7c; the municipal energy loan programs under sections 116M.10, subdivision 6, and 116M.13; the public school energy conservation loan program under section 116J.37; the energy loan insurance program under section 116M.11, subdivision 2; and the district heating and qualified energy improvement loan program under section 116J.36 are transferred from the Minnesota energy and economic development authority to the Minnesota public facilities authority established in article 3, section 10. Section 15.039 applies to the transfer of responsibilities.

Subd. 3. [RESPONSIBILITIES TRANSFERRED TO RURAL DEVELOPMENT BOARD.] The responsibilities for the certified development company program under section 116M.05 are transferred from the Minnesota energy and economic development authority to the rural development board established in article 1, section 2. Section 15.039 applies to the transfer of responsibilities.

Subd. 4. [RESPONSIBILITIES TRANSFERRED TO MINNESOTA DEVELOPMENT BOARD.] The responsibilities for the small business loan program under section 116M.07, subdivision 2, are transferred from the Minnesota energy and economic development authority to the Minnesota development board established in article 6, section 2. Section 15.039 applies to the transfer of responsibilities.

Subd. 5. [OTHER RESPONSIBILITIES.] The commissioner of administration shall transfer all other responsibilities for programs under the Minnesota energy and economic development authority not provided for in subdivision 1, 2, 3, or 4 to either the department of finance or the Minnesota public facilities authority, as the commissioner of administration determines appropriate.

Sec. 11. [MINNESOTA ENERGY AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY; SUCCESSOR STATUS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE.] Except for the following programs: the small business loan program under section 116M.07, subdivision 2; the certified development company program under section 116M.05; and the energy loan programs specified in subdivision 2, the department of finance is the legal successor in all respects of the Minnesota energy and economic development authority with regard to the programs repealed in section 13. All bonds, resolutions, contracts, and liabilities of the Minnesota energy and economic development authority relating to the programs repealed in section 13 are the bonds, resolutions, contracts, and liabilities of the department of finance.

Subd. 2. [MINNESOTA PUBLIC FACILITIES AUTHORITY.] The Minnesota public facilities authority is the legal successor in all respects of the Minnesota energy and economic development authority with regard to the energy loan programs under sections 116M.10, subdivision 6; 116M.12; and 116M.13. All bonds, resolutions, contracts, and liabilities of the Minnesota energy and economic development authority relating to the energy loan programs specified in this subdivision are the bonds, resolutions, contracts, and liabilities of the Minnesota public facilities authority established in article 3, section 10.

Sec. 12. [ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT FUND.]

The fund balance of the economic development fund created in section 116M.06, subdivision 4, less any amounts committed, obligated, or reserved pursuant to carrying out the purposes of chapter 116M, is deposited in the greater Minnesota fund created in article 2, section 7. Amounts committed, obligated, or reserved pursuant to any contractual agreements entered by the Minnesota energy and economic development authority in carrying out the purposes of chapter 116M, except for the small business loan program under section 116M.07, subdivision 2, must remain in the economic development fund under the administration of the department of finance. All funds designated or committed to the small business loan program under section 116M.07, subdivision 2, are transferred to the Minnesota development board established in article 6, section 2, to be deposited in a separate account with the Minnesota development fund.

Sec. 13. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 116M.01; 116M.02; 116M.03; 116M.04; 116M.05; 116M.06; 116M.07; 116M.08; 116M.09; 116M.10; 116M.11; 116M.12; 116M.13; 472.11, subdivisions 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9; 472.12, subdivisions 2, 3, and 4; 472.125; and 472.13, subdivisions 2, 3, and 4, are repealed."

Delete the title and insert:

"ARTICLE 1

TRANSPORTATION OF HAZARDOUS WASTE

Section 1. [221.035] [HAZARDOUS WASTE TRANSPORTER LICENSE.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSE REQUIREMENT.] (a) A person may not transport hazardous waste that is required to have a manifest under Minnesota Rules, part 7045.0261, or is required to have shipping papers under Minnesota Rules, part 7045.0125, without a license issued under this section.

(b) If the applicant complies with the requirements of this section, the commissioner shall issue the license and shall issue a vehicle identification decal for each single unit vehicle or trailer that the licensee will use to transport hazardous waste. The applicant shall pay a fee of $500 for a three-year license and an annual fee of $25 for each vehicle identification decal. The license must be maintained at the licensee's principal place of business. The name and address of the licensee must be displayed on both sides of each unit of the vehicle. The vehicle identification decal must be displayed on the single unit vehicle or trailer to which it is assigned, as prescribed by the commissioner. The decal is effective only when the license is effective. The license must be renewed in the third year following the date of the issuance of the license. The licensee must obtain new decals each year. The license may not be transferred to another person.

(c) An applicant for a license under this section, who is not otherwise subject to section 221.141, shall file a certificate of insurance with the commissioner as provided in section 221.141. The certificate must state that the insurer has issued to the applicant a policy that by endorsement provides public liability insurance in the amount required by Code of Federal Regulations, title 49, part 387.

Subd. 2. [OPERATION REQUIREMENTS.] A vehicle operated under a license issued under this section must be operated in compliance with the rules of the commissioner adopted under this chapter governing:

- (1) driver qualifications;
- (2) safety of operation;
- (3) equipment, parts, and accessories;
- (4) inspection, repair, and maintenance; and
- (5) maximum hours of service.

Subd. 3. [LICENSE SUSPENSION AND REVOCATION.] (a) The commissioner may after notice and opportunity for hearing under chapter 14 suspend or revoke a license issued under this section if the commissioner determines that a licensee's actions constitute a serious or repeated violation of a statute or rule governing the transportation of hazardous waste. Factors to be considered by the commissioner in determining whether to suspend or revoke a license include:

- (1) the danger of exposing the public to toxic or hazardous substances;
- (2) the condition of vehicles used by the licensee to transport hazardous waste; and
- (3) the history of past violations, including the similarity of the most recent violation and the violation to be penalized, the time elapsed since the last violation, the number of previous violations, and the response of the person to the most recent violation identified.

(b) The commissioner shall revoke by order, without a hearing, the license of a licensee who fails to renew a license or fails to maintain insurance as required by this section. Revocation under this paragraph shall continue until the licensee renews the license and provides the commissioner with proof of insurance required under this section.

Subd. 4. [RULEMAKING AUTHORITY.] The commissioner shall adopt rules to implement this section. The commissioner may adopt rules to require licensed transporters to report to the commissioner.

Sec. 2. [221.036] [ADMINISTRATIVE PENALTIES.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY TO ISSUE PENALTY ORDERS.] The commissioner may issue an order requiring violations to be corrected and administratively assessing monetary penalties for a violation of section 1, of a material term or condition of a license issued under section 1, or of a rule or order of the commissioner relating to the transportation of hazardous waste. An order shall be issued as provided in this section.

Subd. 2. [ELECTION OF PENALTIES.] The commissioner may not both assess an administrative penalty under this section and seek a criminal sanction under section 221.291, subdivision 3, for violations arising out of the same inspection or audit.

Subd. 3. [AMOUNT OF PENALTY; CONSIDERATIONS.] (a) The commissioner may issue an order assessing a penalty up to a maximum of $10,000 for all violations identified during a single inspection or audit.

(b) In determining the amount of a penalty, the commissioner shall consider:

(1) the willfulness of the violation;

(2) the gravity of the violation, including damage to humans, animals, air, water, land, or other natural resources of the state;

(3) the history of past violations, including the similarity of the most recent violation and the violation to be penalized, the time elapsed since the last violation, the number of previous violations, and the response of the person to the most recent violation identified;

(4) the economic benefit gained by the person by allowing or committing the violation; and

(5) other factors as justice may require, if the commissioner specifically identifies the additional factors in the commissioner's order.

Subd. 4. [CONTENTS OF ORDER.] An order assessing an administrative penalty under this section shall include:

(1) a concise statement of the facts alleged to constitute a violation;

(2) a reference to the section of the statute, rule, order, or material term or condition of a license that has been violated;

(3) a statement of the amount of the administrative penalty to be imposed and the factors upon which the penalty is based; and

(4) a statement of the person's right to review of the order.

Subd. 5. [CORRECTIVE ORDER.] (a) The commissioner may issue an order assessing a penalty and requiring the violations cited in the order to be corrected within 30 calendar days from the date the order was received.

(b) The person to whom the order was issued shall provide information to the commissioner before the 31st day after the order was received demonstrating that the violation has been corrected or that appropriate steps toward correcting the violation have been taken. The commissioner shall determine whether the violation has been corrected and notify the person subject to the order of the commissioner's determination.

Subd. 6. [PENALTY.] (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), if the commissioner determines that the violation has been corrected or appropriate steps have been taken to correct the action, the penalty must be forgiven. Unless the person requests review of the order under subdivision 7, 8, or 9 before the penalty is due, the penalty in the order is due and payable:

(1) on the 31st day after the order was received, if the person subject to the order fails to provide information to the commissioner showing that the violation has been corrected or that appropriate steps have been taken toward correcting the violation; or

(2) on the 20th day after the receipt of a notice by the person subject to the order of the commissioner's determination under subdivision 5, paragraph (b), that information supplied to the commissioner is not sufficient to show that the violation has been corrected or that appropriate steps have been taken toward correcting the violation.

(b) For a repeated or serious violation, the commissioner may issue an order with a penalty that will not be forgiven after the corrective action is taken. The penalty is due by 30 days after the order was received unless review of the order under subdivision 7, 8, or 9 has been sought.

(c) Interest at the rate established in section 549.09 begins to accrue on penalties on the date that the penalty is due and payable if no request for review is filed under subdivision 7, 8, or 9.

Subd. 7. [EXPEDITED ADMINISTRATIVE HEARING.] (a) Within 30 days after the date on which an order was received, or within 20 days after the receipt of a notice that the commissioner has determined that a violation has not been corrected or appropriate steps have not been taken, the person subject to an order under this section may request an expedited hearing. The person to whom the order is directed and the commissioner are the parties to the expedited hearing to review the order and the penalty. The commissioner must notify the person to whom the order is directed of the time and place of the hearing at least 20 days before the hearing. The expedited hearing must be held within 30 days after a request for hearing has been filed with the commissioner unless the parties agree to a later date.

(b) All written arguments must be submitted within ten days following the close of the hearing. The hearing shall be conducted under the conference contested case rules of the office of administrative hearings, as modified by this subdivision. The office of administrative hearings may, in consultation with the department, adopt rules specifically applicable to cases under this section.

(c) The administrative law judge shall issue a report making recommendations about the order to the commissioner within 30 days following the close of the record. The administrative law judge may not recommend a change in the amount of the proposed penalty unless the administrative law judge determines that, based on the factors in subdivision 3, the amount of the penalty is unreasonable.

(d) If the administrative law judge makes a finding that the hearing was requested solely for purposes of delay or that the hearing request was frivolous, the commissioner may add to the amount of the penalty the costs charged to the department by the office of administrative hearings for the hearing.

(e) If a hearing has been held, the commissioner may not issue a final order until at least five days after receipt of the report of the administrative law judge. The person subject to the order may, within those five days, comment to the commissioner on the recommendations and the commissioner shall consider the comments. The final order may be appealed in the manner provided in sections 14.63 to 14.69.

(f) If a hearing has been held and a final order issued by the commissioner, the penalty shall be paid by the 15th day after the final order was mailed, together with interest accruing at the rate established in section 549.09 from 31 days after the original order was received.

Subd. 8. [DISTRICT COURT HEARING.] (a) Within 30 days after the receipt of an order, or within 20 days after the receipt of a notice that the commissioner has determined that a violation has not been corrected or appropriate steps have not been taken, the person subject to an order under this section may file a petition in district court for review of the order. The petition shall be filed with the court administrator with proof of service on the commissioner. The petition shall be captioned in the name of the person making the petition as petitioner and the commissioner as respondent. The petition shall state with specificity the grounds upon which the petitioner seeks rescission of the order, including the facts upon which each claim is based.

(b) At trial, the commissioner must establish by a preponderance of the evidence that a violation subject to this section and for which the petitioner is responsible occurred, that the factors listed in subdivision 3 were considered when the penalty amount was determined, and that the penalty amount is justified by those factors. In addition, if the commissioner immediately assesses a penalty as provided for under subdivision 5, paragraph (a), the commissioner must establish by a preponderance of the evidence that the immediate imposition of the penalty was justified.

Subd. 9. [MEDIATION.] In addition to review under subdivision 6 or 7, the director is authorized to enter into mediation concerning an order issued under this section if the director and the person to whom the order is issued both agree to mediation.

Subd. 10. [ELECTION OF REMEDIES.] A person subject to a corrective order under this section may not seek review of the order under both subdivisions 7 and 8.

Subd. 11. [ENFORCEMENT.] (a) The attorney general may proceed on behalf of the state to enforce penalties that are due and payable under this section in any manner provided by law for the collection of debts.

(b) The attorney general may petition the district court to file the administrative order as an order of the court. At any court hearing, the only issues parties may contest are procedural and notice issues. Once entered, the administrative order may be enforced in the same manner as a final judgment of the district court.

(c) If a person fails to pay the penalty, the attorney general may bring a civil action in district court seeking payment of the penalties, injunctive, or other appropriate relief including monetary damages, attorney fees, costs, and interest.

Subd. 12. [REVOCATION AND SUSPENSION OF PERMIT.] If a person fails to pay a penalty owed under this subdivision the agency has grounds to revoke or refuse to reissue or renew a license issued by the commissioner under section 1.

Subd. 13. [CUMULATIVE REMEDY.] The authority of the commissioner to issue a corrective order assessing penalties is in addition to other remedies available under statutory or common law. Except as provided in subdivision 2, the payment of a penalty does not preclude the use of other enforcement provisions in connection with the violation for which the penalty was assessed.

Subd. 14. [TRUNK HIGHWAY FUND.] Penalties collected under this section must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the trunk highway fund.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 221.291, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [TRANSPORTATION OF HAZARDOUS MATERIALS.] A person who ships, transports, or offers for transportation hazardous waste or hazardous material or hazardous substances in violation of a provision of this chapter or a rule or order of the commissioner or board adopted or issued under this chapter which specifically applies to the transportation of hazardous material or hazardous waste or hazardous substances is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction may be fined up to the maximum fine which may be imposed for a misdemeanor for each violation.

Sec. 4. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 and 2 are effective January 1, 1988, except section 1, subdivision 4, is effective the day after enactment and rules adopted under section 1, subdivision 4, must be adopted by January 1, 1988.

ARTICLE 2

COMMON CARRIERS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 221.061, is amended to read:

221.061 [OPERATION CERTIFICATE FOR REGULAR ROUTE COMMON CARRIER OR PETROLEUM CARRIER.]

A person desiring a certificate authorizing operation as a regular route common carrier or petroleum carrier, or an extension of or amendment to that certificate, shall file a petition with the board which must contain information as the board, by rule may prescribe.

Upon the filing of a petition for a certificate, the petitioner shall pay to the commissioner as a fee for issuing the certificate the sum of ~~$75~~ $300 and for a transfer or lease of the certificate the sum of ~~$37.50~~ $300.

The petition must be processed as any other petition. The board shall cause a copy and a notice of hearing thereon to be served upon a competing carrier operating into a city located on the proposed route of the petitioner and to other persons or bodies politic which the board deems interested in the petition. A competing carrier and other persons or bodies politic are hereby declared to be interested parties to the proceedings.

If, during the hearing, an amendment to the petition is proposed which appears to be in the public interest, the board may allow it when the issues and the territory are not unduly broadened by the amendment.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 221.121, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6a. [HOUSEHOLD GOODS CARRIER.] A person holding out or desiring to operate as a carrier of household goods shall follow the procedure established in subdivision 1, and shall specifically request an irregular route common carrier permit with authority to transport household goods. The board shall grant a permit to operate as an irregular route common carrier of household goods to a person who complies with this subdivision and subdivision 1.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 221.121, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [FEES.] The permit holder shall pay a fee of ~~$25~~ $150 into the treasury of the state of Minnesota for each kind of permit, ~~reinstatement,~~ or extension of authority for which a petition is filed under this section.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 221.131, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PERMIT CARRIERS; ANNUAL VEHICLE REGISTRATION.] The permit holder shall pay an annual registration fee of $20 on each vehicle, including pickup and delivery vehicles, operated by the holder under authority of the permit during the 12-month period or fraction of the 12-month period. Trailers and semitrailers used by a permit holder in combination with power units may not be counted as vehicles in the computation of fees under this section if the permit holder pays the fees for power units. The commissioner shall furnish a distinguishing annual identification card for each vehicle or power unit for which a fee has been paid. The identification card must at all times be carried in the vehicle or power unit to which it has been assigned. An identification card may be reassigned to another vehicle or power unit ~~without fee by the commissioner~~ upon application of the permit holder and a transfer fee of $10. An identification card issued under the provisions of this section is valid only for the period for which the permit is effective. The name and residence of the permit holder must be stenciled or otherwise shown on the outside of both doors of each registered vehicle operated under the permit. A fee of ~~$3~~ $10 is charged for the replacement of an unexpired identification card that has been lost or damaged.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 221.131, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [CERTIFICATE CARRIERS; ANNUAL VEHICLE REGISTRATION.] Regular route common carriers and petroleum carriers, operating under sections 221.011 to 221.291, shall annually ~~on or before January 1 of each calendar year,~~ pay into the treasury of the state of Minnesota an annual registration fee of $20 for each vehicle, including pickup and delivery vehicles, operated during a calendar year. The commissioner shall issue distinguishing identification cards as provided in subdivision 2.

Sec. 6. [221.132] [PREPAID TEMPORARY VEHICLE IDENTIFICATION CARDS.]

The commissioner may issue a prepaid temporary vehicle identification card to a permit or certificate holder for a fee of $5 per card. The card must be preprinted by the commissioner with the carrier's name, address, and permit or certificate number. The card may be used by the motor carrier to whom it is issued to identify a vehicle temporarily added to its fleet. The card must be executed by the motor carrier by dating and signing the card and describing the vehicle in which it will be carried. The identification card is valid for a period of ten days from the date the motor carrier places on the card when the card is executed. The card must be used within one year from the date of issuance by the commissioner. The card may not be used if the permit or certificate is not in full force and effect. The card may not be transferred. The commissioner may not refund the cost of unused prepaid temporary vehicle identification cards.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 221.296, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [PERMIT FEES.] Upon filing a petition for a permit the petitioner shall pay to the commissioner as a fee for the issuance of the permit, the sum of ~~$50~~ $150, and shall thereafter pay an annual renewal fee of $75 plus $5 per motor vehicle if the local cartage carrier operates less than five motor vehicles, or $100 plus $5 per motor vehicle if the local cartage carrier operates at least five but less than 15 motor vehicles, or $150 plus $5 per motor vehicle if the local cartage carrier operates 15 or more vehicles ~~provided that the $5 per motor vehicle charge does not apply to taxicabs operated under a local cartage permit.~~ Upon issuance of the permit the commissioner shall assign the carrier a permit number, which must be painted or prominently displayed on both sides of vehicles used by the local cartage carrier under authority of the permit.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 221.60, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [FORM AND FEES.] A motor carrier engaged in interstate commerce shall register its interstate transportation authority or exemption before February 1 of each year on a form prescribed by the commissioner. The fee for the initial registration is $25. The fee for each identification stamp is $5; however, a lesser fee may be collected pursuant to a reciprocal agreement authorized by section 221.65. ~~No fee may be collected from a local cartage carrier that provides interstate transportation only within the zone described in United States Code, title 49, section 10526(b)(1)(1984). A local cartage carrier shall register its interstate transportation each year when it pays the local cartage carrier permit or annual renewal fee.~~

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 16B.08, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [SPECIFIC PURCHASES.] (a) The following may be purchased without regard to the competitive bidding requirements of this chapter:

- (1) fiber used in the manufacture of binder twine, ply twines, and rope at the state correctional facilities;
- (2) merchandise for resale at state park refectories or facility operations;
- (3) farm and garden products, which may be sold at the prevailing market price on the date of the sale;
- (4) meat for other state institutions from the vocational school maintained at Pipestone by independent school district No. 583; and
- (5) furniture from the Minnesota correctional facility-St. Cloud.

(b) The following may be purchased or rented without regard to the competitive bidding requirements of this chapter: supplies, materials, equipment, and utility services for use by a community-based residential facility operated by the commissioner of human services.

(c) Supplies, materials, or equipment to be used in the operation of a hospital licensed under sections 144.50 to 144.56 that are purchased under a shared service purchasing arrangement whereby more than one hospital purchases supplies, materials, or equipment with one or more other hospitals, either through one of the hospitals or through another entity, may be purchased without regard to the competitive bidding requirements of this chapter if the following conditions are met:

- (1) the hospital's governing authority authorizes the arrangement;
- (2) the shared services purchasing program purchases items available from more than one source on the basis of competitive bids or competitive quotations of prices; and

(3) the arrangement authorizes the hospital's governing authority or its representatives to review the purchasing procedures to determine compliance with these requirements.

Sec. 2. [179A.30] [REGIONAL TREATMENT CENTER, NURSING HOME, AND COMMUNITY-BASED FACILITY EMPLOYEES.]

Subdivision 1. [EXCLUSIVE REPRESENTATIVE.] The exclusive representative of employees may meet and negotiate with the commissioner of employee relations, in consultation with the commissioner of human services, concerning possible changes in hours or work schedules that could produce cost reductions in the biennium in the regional treatment centers.

Subd. 2. [COMMISSIONER OF EMPLOYEE RELATIONS.] The commissioner of employee relations shall meet and negotiate in accordance with chapter 179A with the appropriate exclusive representative of the regional treatment center employees concerning the terms and conditions of employment that result from state-operated, community-based residential programs established under section 4.

Subd. 3. [STAFF REDUCTIONS.] Notwithstanding any other law, and provided there is no conflict with a collective bargaining agreement, regional treatment center or state nursing home position reductions may be accomplished through attrition, transfers, and retirements. No employee otherwise subject to layoff shall be laid off unless first offered a position for which the employee has been trained and is qualified, with no loss in pay.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 246.023, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LEGISLATIVE POLICY.] It is recognized that closure and consolidation of ~~state hospitals~~ regional treatment centers have negative economic effects upon public employees and communities. It is the policy of the state that deinstitutionalization policies shall be carried out in a manner that ensures fair and equitable arrangements to protect the interests of employees and communities affected by deinstitutionalization of ~~state hospitals~~. To the extent possible, employees affected by position reductions in the regional treatment centers must be afforded options that assure continued employment of displaced employees.

Sec. 4. [252.035] [STATE-OPERATED, COMMUNITY-BASED RESIDENTIAL PROGRAMS.]

Subdivision 1. [RESIDENTIAL PROGRAMS ESTABLISHED.] The commissioner may establish a system of noninstitutional, state-operated, community-based residential services for persons with mental retardation or related conditions. For purposes of this section, "state-operated, community-based residential facility" means a residential program administered by the state to provide treatment and habilitation in noninstitutional community settings to persons with mental retardation or related conditions. Employees of the facilities must be state employees under chapters 43A and 179A. The establishment of state-operated, community-based residential facilities must be within the context of a comprehensive definition of the role of state-operated services in the state. The role of state-operated services must be defined within the context of a comprehensive system of services for persons with mental retardation and related conditions. Services may include, but are not limited to, community group homes, foster care, supportive living arrangements, and respite care arrangements. The commissioner shall operate the pilot projects established under Laws 1985, First Special Session chapter 9, article 1, section 2, subdivision 6, and may, within the limits of available appropriations, establish additional state-operated, community-based services for regional treatment center residents who are persons with mental retardation. Day program services for clients living in state-operated, community-based residential facilities must not be provided by a regional treatment center or a state-operated, community-based program.

Subd. 2. [AUTHORIZATION TO BUILD OR PURCHASE.] Within the limits of available appropriations, the commissioner may build, purchase or lease suitable buildings for state-operated, community-based residential facilities. Facilities must be homelike and adaptable to the needs of persons with mental retardation or related conditions.

Subd. 3. [ALTERNATIVE FUNDING MECHANISMS.] To the extent possible, the commissioner may amend the medical assistance home and community-based waiver and, as appropriate, develop special waiver procedures for targeting services to persons currently in state regional centers.

Subd. 4. [COUNTIES.] State-operated, community-based residential facilities may be developed in conjunction with existing county responsibilities and authorities for persons with mental retardation. Assessment, placement, screening, case management responsibilities, and determination of need procedures must be consistent with county responsibilities established under law and rule. Counties may enter into shared service agreements with state-operated programs.

Sec. 5. [252.045] [REGIONAL CENTER AND COMMUNITY-BASED FACILITY EMPLOYEES.]

In accordance with section 43A.21, the commissioner shall develop procedures to assure that:

(1) there are workers employed at state regional centers and nursing homes who are skilled in the treatment of persons with severe and profound mental retardation or related conditions, behavioral problems, and medical needs, to facilitate adjustment to community living;

(2) suitable training programs exist for regional treatment center and state-operated, community-based residential facility staff; and

(3) state employees under the jurisdiction of the commissioner who are affected by a position reduction plan have the option of transferring to a community-based program; to a similar, comparable classification in another regional center setting; or to a position in another state agency.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 252.28, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [TRAINING PROGRAM.] The commissioner of human services, in consultation with the commissioner of employee relations and the mental retardation and related conditions advisory task force, shall develop a plan to establish a comprehensive training program for public and private employees who provide services to persons with mental retardation and related conditions.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 252.291, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXCEPTIONS.] The commissioner of human services in coordination with the commissioner of health may approve a new state-operated or private community-based intermediate care facility for persons with mental retardation or related conditions only in the following circumstances and only if the size of the facility is less than seven beds:

(a) when the facility is developed in accordance with a request for proposal system established pursuant to subdivision 3, clause (b); or

(b) when the facility is necessary to serve the needs of identifiable persons with mental retardation or related conditions who are seriously behaviorally disordered or who are physically or sensorily impaired; ~~or~~

~~(c) to license beds in new facilities where need was determined by the commissioner prior to June 10, 1983.~~

Sec. 8. [WAGE PARITY STUDY.]

The state planning director shall conduct a study of the differences between the wages and benefits paid to employees of public and private community-based providers of care to persons with mental retardation and related conditions, and shall report the findings to the legislature by April 1, 1988.

Sec. 9. [APPROPRIATION.]

Subdivision 1. [HUMAN SERVICES.] $_____ is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of human services to establish state-operated, community-based residential facilities.

Subd. 2. [STATE PLANNING AGENCY.] $_____ is appropriated from the general fund to the director of the state planning agency to conduct a wage parity study.

Sec. 10. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes, section 246.023, subdivisions 2, 3, 4, and 5, are repealed.

Mr. Purfeerst from the Committee on Transportation, to which was referred

S.F. No. 343: A bill for an act relating to transportation; requiring the licensing of limousine services by the registrar of motor vehicles; providing for conditions of licensure and operation of limousines; requiring bonds; providing penalties; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 169.01, subdivision 50; and 169.71, subdivision 4; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 326.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 168.011, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 35. [LIMOUSINE.] “Limousine” means a passenger automobile for hire, other than a taxicab or a van, that is regularly engaged in the business of transporting persons and that has a rear seating capacity of not more than nine passengers.

Sec. 2. [168.1261] [LIMOUSINE; LICENSE PLATES.]

Subdivision 1. [UNIQUE REGISTRATION CATEGORY.] A unique vehicle registration category is established for limousines as defined in section 1.

Subd. 2. [LICENSE PLATES.] The registrar shall issue limousine license plates upon the applicant's compliance with laws relating to registration and licensing of motor vehicles and drivers. The applicant must provide the registrar with proof that a passenger tax and a $10 fee have been paid for each limousine receiving limousine license plates. The limousine license plates must be designed to specifically identify the vehicle as a limousine. Limousine license plates may not be transferred upon sale of the limousine, but may be transferred to another limousine owned by the same person upon notifying the registrar and paying a $5 transfer fee.

Subd. 3. [INSURANCE.] The application must include a certificate of insurance verifying that a valid commercial insurance policy is in effect and giving the name of the insurance company and the number of the insurance policy. The policy must provide stated limits of liability, exclusive of interest and costs, with respect to each vehicle for which coverage is granted, of not less than $100,000 because of bodily injury to one person in any one accident and, subject to said limit for one person, of not less than $300,000 because of injury to two or more persons in any one accident. The insurance company must notify the commissioner if the policy is canceled or if the policy no longer provides the coverage required by this subdivision.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 169.71, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. No person shall drive or operate any motor vehicle required to be registered in the state of Minnesota upon any street or highway under the following conditions:

(a) when the windshield is composed of, covered by, or treated with any material which has the effect of making the windshield more reflective or in any other way reducing light transmittance through the windshield;

(b) when any window on the vehicle is composed of, covered by, or treated with any material that has a highly reflective or mirrored appearance;

(c) when any side window or rear window is composed of or treated with any material so as to obstruct or substantially reduce the driver's clear view through the window or has a light transmittance of less than 50 percent plus or minus three percent in the visible light range or a luminous reflectance of more than 20 percent plus or minus three percent; or

(d) when any material has been applied after August 1, 1985, to any motor vehicle window without an accompanying permanent marking which indicates the percent of transmittance and the percent of reflectance afforded by the material. The marking must be in a manner so as not to obscure vision and be readable when installed on the vehicle.

This subdivision does not apply to glazing materials which:

(a) have not been modified since the original installation, nor to original replacement windows and windshields, that were originally installed or replaced in conformance with Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standard 205;

(b) ~~were~~ are required to satisfy prescription needs of the driver of the vehicle ~~and if the driver is in possession of such~~ the prescription; or

(c) ~~were~~ are applied to:

(1) the rear windows of a pickup truck as defined in section 168.011, subdivision 29, ~~or to~~;

(2) the rear windows or the side windows on either side behind the driver's seat of a van as defined in section 168.011, subdivision 28, ~~or~~;

(3) ~~the side and rear windows of any~~ a vehicle used to transport human remains by ~~a funeral establishments~~ establishment holding a permit under ~~the provisions of~~ section 149.08; or

(4) ~~the side and rear windows of a limousine as defined in section 1.~~"

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [326.70] [TITLE.]

Sections 1 to 13 may be cited as the "asbestos abatement act."

Sec. 2. [326.71] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICABILITY.] The definitions in this section apply to sections 1 to 13.

Subd. 2. [ASBESTOS.] "Asbestos" means the asbestiform varieties of chrysotile (serpentine), crocidolite (riebeckite), amosite (cummingtonite-grunerite), anthophyllite, tremolite, and actinolite.

Subd. 3. [ASBESTOS-CONTAINING MATERIAL.] "Asbestos-containing material" means material that contains more than one percent asbestos by weight.

Subd. 4. [ASBESTOS-RELATED WORK.] "Asbestos-related work" means the enclosure, removal, or encapsulation of asbestos-containing material in a quantity that meets or exceeds the United States Environmental Protection Agency's requirement of 260 lineal feet of friable asbestos on pipes or 160 square feet of friable asbestos on other facility components.

Subd. 5. [COMMISSIONER.] "Commissioner" means the commissioner of health and the commissioner's authorized delegates.

Subd. 6. [CONTRACTING ENTITY.] "Contracting entity" means a public or private body, board, natural person, corporation, partnership, proprietorship, joint venture, fund, authority, or similar entity that contracts with an employer or person to do asbestos-related work for the benefit of the contracting entity.

Subd. 7. [EMPLOYEE.] "Employee" means a person who works directly or indirectly for an employer.

Subd. 8. [EMPLOYER.] "Employer" means an individual, body, board, corporation, partnership, proprietorship, joint venture, fund, authority, or similar entity directly or indirectly employing an employee. This term applies to private employers and to the state, its political subdivisions, and any boards, commissions, schools, institutions, or authorities created or recognized by them.

Sec. 3. [326.72] [ASBESTOS LICENSE.]

Subdivision 1. [WHEN LICENSE REQUIRED.] An employer or other person within the state intending to directly perform or cause to be performed through subcontracting or similar delegation any asbestos-related work either for financial gain or with respect to the employer's or person's own property shall first apply for and obtain a license from the commissioner. The license shall be in writing, be dated when issued, contain an expiration date, be signed by the commissioner, and give the name and address of the employer or person to whom it is issued.

Subd. 2. [DISPLAY OF LICENSE.] Licensees shall post a sign with the words, in letters four or more inches high, "licensed by the state of Minnesota for asbestos work" in a conspicuous place outside of the asbestos abatement work area. The actual license or a copy certified by the commissioner shall be readily available at the work site for inspection by the commissioner, other public officials charged with the health, safety, and welfare of the state's citizens, and the contracting entity.

Sec. 4. [326.73] [EMPLOYEE ASBESTOS CERTIFICATIONS.]

Before an employee performs asbestos-related work, the employee shall first obtain a certificate from the commissioner certifying that the employee is qualified to perform the work. No certificate shall be issued unless the employee has taken a course of training in asbestos control and removal, passed an examination in those subjects, and demonstrated to the commissioner the ability to perform asbestos-related work safely in accordance with the current state-of-the-art technology. The commissioner shall specify the course of training necessary. The certificate issued by the commissioner shall be in writing, be dated when issued, contain an expiration date, be signed by the commissioner, and contain the name and address of the employee to whom it is issued. The certificate shall be carried by the employee and be readily available for inspection by the commissioner, other public officials charged with the health, safety, and welfare of the state's citizens, and the contracting entity.

Sec. 5. [326.74] [REPORTING ASBESTOS WORK.]

A licensed employer, at least five calendar days before engaging in asbestos-related work, shall give written notice to the commissioner of the project. The notice shall contain the following information:

- (1) a brief description of the work to be performed;*
- (2) the name of the contracting entity;*
- (3) the location and address of the project work site;*

- (4) the approximate duration of the project;
- (5) the approximate amount of the asbestos involved in the project;
- (6) the name of any project manager; and
- (7) other information required by the commissioner.

Sec. 6. [326.75] [FEES.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSING FEE.] An employer or other person required to be licensed under section 3 shall, before receipt of the license and before causing asbestos-related work to be performed, pay the commissioner an annual license fee of $100.

Subd. 2. [CERTIFICATION FEE.] Employees required to be certified under section 3 shall, before performing asbestos-related work, pay the commissioner a certification fee of $50.

Subd. 3. [PERMIT FEE.] Before beginning asbestos-related work, a licensee shall pay a project permit fee to the commissioner equal to one percent of the total costs of the asbestos-related work. Proceeds of the fee are continually appropriated to the commissioner and shall be used by the commissioner to pay for necessary project inspections and air testing.

Subd. 4. [DEPOSIT OF FEES.] Fees collected under this section shall be deposited in the asbestos abatement revolving fund created by section 13.

Sec. 7. [326.76] [DUTIES OF CONTRACTING ENTITIES.]

A contracting entity intending to have asbestos-related work performed for its benefit shall include in the specifications and contracts for the work a requirement that the work be performed by contractors and subcontractors licensed by the commissioner under sections 1 to 13. No contracting entity shall allow asbestos-related work to be performed for its benefit unless it has seen that the employer has a valid license. A contracting entity's failure to comply with this section does not relieve an employer from any of its responsibilities under sections 1 to 13.

Sec. 8. [326.77] [INDOOR AIR STANDARD.]

(a) The commissioner may adopt rules establishing an indoor air standard for asbestos.

(b) Until the rules become effective, asbestos remaining in the air following the completion of an abatement project shall not exceed .01 fibers greater than five microns in length per cubic centimeter of air.

Sec. 9. [326.78] [DUTIES OF THE COMMISSIONER.]

Subdivision 1. [RULEMAKING.] The commissioner shall, before July 1, 1988, adopt and begin enforcement of rules necessary to implement sections 1 to 13. The rules adopted shall not be duplicative of rules adopted by the commissioner of the department of labor and industry. The rules shall include rules in the following areas:

- (1) application, enclosure, removal, and encapsulation procedures;
- (2) license and certificate qualification requirements;
- (3) examinations for obtaining a license and certificate;
- (4) training necessary for employee certification;

- (5) qualifications for managers of asbestos abatement projects;
- (6) abatement specifications;
- (7) any contractor bonding and insurance requirements deemed necessary by the commissioner;
- (8) license and certificate issuance and revocation procedures;
- (9) suspension or revocation of licenses or certificates;
- (10) license and certificate suspension and revocation criteria;
- (11) cleanup standards;
- (12) continuing education requirements; and
- (13) other rules necessary to implement sections 1 to 13.

Subd. 2. [ISSUANCE OF LICENSES AND CERTIFICATES.] The commissioner may issue licenses to employers and certificates to employees who meet the criteria in sections 1 to 13 and the commissioner's rules. Licenses and certificates shall be valid for at least 12 months.

Subd. 3. [DELEGATION.] The commissioner may, in writing, delegate the inspection and enforcement authority granted in sections 1 to 13 to other state agencies regulating asbestos.

Subd. 4. [ACCESS TO INFORMATION AND PROPERTY.] (a) Any person who the commissioner has reason to believe is engaged in asbestos-related work, or who is the owner of real property where the asbestos-related work is being undertaken, when requested by the commissioner, or any member, employee, or agent thereof who is authorized by the commissioner, shall furnish the commissioner any information that the person may have or may reasonably obtain that is relevant to the asbestos-related work.

(b) The commissioner or any person authorized by the commissioner, upon presentation of credentials, and with reason to believe that violation of this act may be occurring, may:

(1) examine and copy any books, papers, records, memoranda, or data related to the asbestos-related project of any person who has a duty to provide information to the department under paragraph (a); and

(2) enter upon any public or private property to take action authorized by this section including obtaining information from any person who has a duty to provide the information under paragraph (a), and conducting surveys or investigations.

Subd. 5. [SUBPOENAS.] In matters under investigation by or pending before the commissioner under sections 1 to 13, the commissioner may issue subpoenas and compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of papers, books, records, documents, and other relevant evidentiary material. A person failing or refusing to comply with the subpoena or order may, upon application by the commissioner to the district court in any district, be ordered by the court to comply with the order or subpoena. The commissioner may also administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses. Depositions may be taken within or without the state in the manner provided by law for the taking of depositions in civil actions. A subpoena or other process or paper may be served upon any person anywhere within the state by an officer authorized to serve subpoenas in civil actions, with the same fees and mileage costs paid, and in the manner as prescribed by law, for process of the state district courts. Fees and mileage and other costs of persons subpoenaed by the commissioner shall be paid in the manner prescribed for proceedings in district court.

Subd. 6. [CEASE AND DESIST ORDER.] (a) The commissioner may issue an order requiring an employer to cease asbestos-related work if the commissioner determines that a condition exists that poses an immediate danger to the public health. For purposes of this subdivision, an immediate danger to the public health exists if the commissioner determines that:

(1) air quality standards are being exceeded;

(2) asbestos-related work is being undertaken in a manner violative of applicable state or federal law;

(3) the employer or an employee working at the project site is not licensed or certified, or in possession of a current license or certificate, as the case may be; or

(4) the employer has not reported the project under section 5.

(b) The order is effective for a maximum of 60 days. Following issuance of the order, the commissioner shall provide the contractor or individual with an opportunity for a hearing under the contested case provisions of chapter 14. At the hearing, the commissioner shall decide whether to rescind, modify, or reissue the previously made order. A modified or reissued order is effective for a maximum of 60 days from the date of modification or reissuance.

Subd. 7. [ORDER FOR CORRECTIVE ACTION.] After notice and opportunity for hearing under the contested case provisions of chapter 13, the commissioner may issue an order requiring anyone violating sections 1 to 13 or a rule of the commissioner to take corrective action as the commissioner determines will accomplish the purpose of the project and prevent future violation. The order shall contain a date by which the violation must be corrected.

Subd. 8. [INJUNCTIVE RELIEF] In addition to any other remedy provided by law, the commissioner may bring an action for injunctive relief in the district court in Ramsey county or, at the commissioner's discretion, in the district court in the county in which an asbestos-related work is being undertaken to halt the work or an activity connected with it. A temporary restraining order or other injunctive relief may be granted by the court in the proceeding if continuation of the work or an activity connected with it would result in an imminent risk of harm to any person.

Sec. 10. [326.79] [MISDEMEANOR PENALTY.]

A person who:

(1) hinders or delays the commissioner or the commissioner's authorized representative in the performance of the duty to enforce sections 1 to 13;

(2) undertakes asbestos-related work without a license or with a revoked, expired, or suspended license;

(3) refuses to make a license or certificate accessible to either the commissioner or the commissioner's authorized representative;

(4) uses an employee who does not have a certificate to do asbestos-related work;

(5) fails to report asbestos-related work as required by section 5;

(6) undertakes asbestos-related work for which the person is not qualified under department rules; or

(7) makes a material false statement related to a license, certificate, report, or other document required under sections 1 to 13 is guilty of a misdemeanor and may be sentenced to payment of a fine of not more than $700, imprisonment for not more than 30 days, or both, for each violation.

Sec. 11. [326.80] [SUSPENSIONS; REVOCATIONS.]

As an alternative, or in addition to, the criminal penalties provided in section 10, the commissioner or the commissioner's designee may suspend or revoke a license or certificate for repeated or serious violations of sections 1 to 13 in accordance with procedures adopted by rule by the commissioner and the contested case procedures of chapter 14.

Sec. 12. [326.81] [DISCRIMINATION; SANCTIONS.]

An employer who discriminates against or otherwise sanctions an employee who complains to or cooperates with the commissioner in administering sections 1 to 13 is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 13. [326.82] [ASBESTOS ABATEMENT REVOLVING FUND.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION; APPROPRIATION.] The asbestos abatement revolving fund is created as a separate account in the state treasury. The fund consists of the fees collected under section 6. The money in the fund is continually appropriated to the commissioner for the purposes of sections 1 to 13.

Subd. 2. [UNOBLIGATED EXCESS TRANSFERRED.] When the unobligated money in the asbestos abatement revolving fund exceeds $500,000 at the end of any fiscal year, the unobligated amount in excess of that amount shall be transferred to the general fund.

Sec. 14. [APPROPRIATION.]

$180,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of health for the purposes of sections 1 to 13, to be available until June 30, 1989.

Sec. 15. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 8, paragraph (a); 9; 10; and 14 are effective the day following final enactment. Sections 1 to 7; 8, paragraph (b); and 11 to 13 are effective on the date on which rules adopted by the commissioner under section 9 become effective."

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [626.562] [CHILD ABUSE TOLL-FREE PROFESSIONAL CONSULTATION TELEPHONE LINES.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT OF TELEPHONE LINES.] The commissioner of human services shall contract for at least one toll-free 24-hour telephone line for the purpose of providing consultative and training services for physicians, therapists, child protection workers, and other professionals involved in child protection. Services provided shall include emergency and longer-term consultation on individual child protection cases.

Subd. 2. [CONTRACT AUTHORITY.] The commissioner shall contract for the establishment of the telephone services described in subdivision 1. The commissioner shall consult with the state interagency child abuse team in determining the ability of any agency to provide services.

Subd. 3. [CONFIDENTIALITY; CHILD ABUSE REPORTING.] Unless the caller is a physician, therapist, child protection worker, or other professional involved in child protection, the contracting agency may not ask for the identity of any caller as a prerequisite to disseminating information. A communication with any telephone line established under this section by a person mandated to report abuse or neglect under section 626.556 does not satisfy the person's obligations to report under that section.

"Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 53.05, is amended to read:

53.05 [POWERS, LIMITATION.]

No industrial loan and thrift company may do any of the following:

(1) carry demand banking accounts; use the word "savings" unless the institution's investment certificates, savings accounts, and savings deposits are insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation and then only if the word is not followed by the words "and loan" in its corporate name; use the word "bank" or "banking" in its corporate name; operate as a savings bank;

(2) have outstanding at any one time certificates of indebtedness, savings accounts, and savings deposits, exclusive of those held by the company, as security for loans made by it of more than seven times the sum of the contributed capital and appropriated reserves of the company until July 1, 1985, or the date an industrial loan and thrift company obtains a commitment for insurance or guarantee of accounts acceptable to the commissioner as required by section 53.10, whichever is earlier, and thereafter 15 times the sum of contributed capital and appropriated reserves of the company;

(3) accept trusts, except as provided in section 47.75, subdivision 1, or act as guardian, administrator, or judicial trustee in any form;

(4) deposit any of its funds in any banking corporation, unless that corporation has been designated by vote of a majority of directors or of the executive committee present at a meeting duly called, at which a quorum was in attendance;

(5) change any allocation of capital made pursuant to section 53.03 or reduce or withdraw in any way any portion of the contributed capital and appropriated reserves without prior written approval of the commissioner of commerce;

(6) take any instrument in which blanks are left to be filled in after execution;

(7) lend money in excess of ten percent of its contributed capital and appropriated reserves to a person primarily liable, except that an industrial loan and thrift operating under this chapter with consent or holding a certificate of authorization which includes the right to sell and issue for investment certificates of indebtedness, savings accounts, and savings deposits may not lend money in excess of 15 percent of its contributed capital and appropriated reserves to a person primarily liable. "Contributed capital and appropriated reserves" means the total of the company's contributed capital and appropriated reserves at all its authorized locations.

If a loan has been made to a person primarily liable and payments have been made on a certificate of indebtedness securing it, the amount of the payments may be added to the limitation contained in this clause for the purpose of determining whether additional loans may be made to that person; or

(8) issue cashier's checks pursuant to section 48.151, unless and at all times the aggregate liability to all creditors on these instruments is protected by a special fund in cash or due from banks to be used solely for payment of the cashier's checks."

S.F. No. 802: A bill for an act relating to education; state university board; allowing a choice from among three low bidders in capital projects; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 136.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 136.142, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [LITIGATION PROCEEDS.] Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the state university board may retain funds received from successful litigation by or against the board. Awards made to the state or the board resulting from litigation by or against the board must be retained by the board to the credit of the account from which the litigation was originally funded.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 136.24, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [DIRECT PURCHASE OF EQUIPMENT.] The state university board may directly buy scientific and technical equipment and related supplies without complying with chapter 16B. In formulating procedures to administer this subdivision, the board shall ensure that purchases are made through a competitive process and that efforts are made to assist in the economic development of small businesses and small businesses owned and operated by socially or economically disadvantaged persons.

Sec 3. [136.27] [CAPITAL PROJECTS BIDDING PROCEDURES.]

In awarding contracts for capital projects under section 16B.09, the board shall consider documentation provided by the bidders regarding their qualifications, including evidence of having successfully completed similar work or having delivered services or products comparable to the service or product being requested. The board shall formulate procedures to administer this section, including procedures designed to assist in the economic development of small businesses and small businesses owned and operated by socially or economically disadvantaged persons.

Sec. 4. [136.28] [STATE UNIVERSITY CONSTRUCTION.]

Subdivision 1. [FUNDING.] Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the state university board may accept money from nonstate sources if the money is dedicated to university building projects. The building projects may be built on state-owned land.

Subd. 2. [SUPERVISION.] Notwithstanding sections 16B.24, 16B.30, 16B.31, or any other law to the contrary, the state university board shall supervise and control the preparation of plans and specifications for the construction, alteration, enlargement, and repair and betterment of state university buildings and structures funded under subdivision 1. The state university board shall advertise for bids and award contracts, supervise and inspect the work, approve necessary changes in the plans and specifications, approve estimates for payment, and accept the improvements when completed according to the plans and specifications.

Subd. 3. [LAND PURCHASE.] (a) Notwithstanding section 16B.04 or any other law to the contrary, the state university board may buy land as it determines necessary for the effective management of the state university system and its programs.

(b) The board shall make written request to the department of administration, real estate management division, indicating the need to buy property, specifying the property to be bought, and indicating the source and sufficiency of money needed for the acquisition.

Subd. 4. [PROCEDURE FOR LAND PURCHASE.] (a) The commissioner of administration, through the real estate management division, shall proceed with acquisition in accordance with this subdivision.

(b) The title to the property must be examined by an attorney for the division. A field title report must be prepared by the division based on information from the owner or a representative of the owner. The purpose and nature of the acquisition must be explained to the owner at the time of the field title interview. If there are occupied buildings involved, a relocation study must be made to ensure that those displaced can be relocated without undue hardship.

(c) A legal description of the property must be written. If necessary, a written engineering assessment must be obtained from the state architect's office.

(d) The property to be acquired must be appraised. The appraiser must be selected by the director or the assistant director and may be a state employee or a fee appraiser selected from a list of qualified fee appraisers maintained by the division. The fee to be paid to the appraiser must be agreed upon by the appraiser and the director or the assistant director.

(e) The appraisal must be reviewed by members of the division staff. If they approve the appraisal, the amount approved, plus damages, where applicable, must be certified by the director or the assistant director.

(f) Instruments needed for the acquisition must be requested from the attorney general's office.

(g) A direct purchase offer must be submitted to the property owner, in person, if possible and practical. A detailed explanation of the state's acquisition policies and of the owner's options must be made to the owner, including, where applicable, a full explanation of relocation benefits available to the owner.

(h) If the owner accepts the offer, the property must be bought. The division is responsible for proper execution of instruments, the closing of the transaction, the recording of instruments, the payment to the owner, relocation assistance to the owner, and removal of buildings, if necessary.

Subd. 5. [LAND TRADE.] Notwithstanding chapter 16B or any other law to the contrary, the state university board may trade land owned by the state but under the control of the board for real property of equal or greater value as it determines necessary for the management of its property or programs. The procedure for the trade must follow that determined for the board acquisition of real property in subdivision 4.

Subd. 6. [LEGISLATIVE CONSULTATION.] Before taking action under this section, the state university board shall consult with the chairs of the senate finance committee and the house appropriations committee about the proposed action."

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 17.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [AGRICULTURAL DIVERSIFICATION.] The commissioner shall establish a program of agricultural diversification. The commissioner must assist the horticultural industry, help producers diversify farming operations, and coordinate state agency efforts regarding agricultural diversification, after consulting with farm groups, the University of Minnesota and applicable institutions of higher learning. The commissioner shall report to the governor and legislature annually on activities and actions that should be taken in these matters.

Sec. 2. [17.50] [POLICY.]

The state must explore alternative uses for agricultural products to enable the state's agricultural economy to reach its full potential. The state must promote and encourage cooperative efforts between public and private interests in conducting basic research and disseminating the results on agricultural commodity utilization.

Sec. 3. [AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES UTILIZATION.]

Subdivision 1. [REVIEW AND STUDY.] The commissioner must review and study basic research for commodity utilization.

Subd. 2. [CONTACTS.] In conducting the review and study, the commissioner must contact knowledgeable people in all areas of basic research for commodity utilization including commodity groups, university and research facilities, private industry, farmers, farm groups, and other interested persons as determined by the commissioner.

Subd. 3. [REPORT.] The commissioner must prepare a report on the research findings and submit it to the agriculture committees of the legislature by February 1, 1988.

Subd. 4. [RESPONSIBILITIES.] The commissioner's report must include recommendations for:

- (1) defining the parameters of basic research for commodity utilization;*
- (2) identifying appropriate entities to conduct basic research on commodity utilization;*
- (3) establishing a procedure for disseminating information received through research efforts; and*
- (4) the size and scope of state efforts including funding and time schedules.*

S.F. No. 935: A bill for an act relating to public safety; manufactured homes; requiring manufactured home park owners to provide underground shelter for residents during severe weather; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 327.20, subdivision 1.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 327.20, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [RULES.] No domestic animals or house pets of occupants of manufactured home parks or recreational camping areas shall be allowed to run at large, or commit any nuisances within the limits of a manufactured home park or recreational camping area. Each manufactured home park or recreational camping area licensed under the provisions of sections 327.10, 327.11, 327.14 to 327.28 shall, among other things, provide for the following, in the manner hereinafter specified:

(1) A responsible attendant or caretaker shall be in charge of every manufactured home park or recreational camping area at all times, who shall maintain the park or area, and its facilities and equipment in a clean, orderly and sanitary condition. In any manufactured home park containing more than 50 lots, the attendant, caretaker, or other responsible park employee, shall be readily available at all times in case of emergency.

(2) All manufactured home parks shall be well drained and be located so that the drainage of the park area will not endanger any water supply. No waste water from manufactured homes or recreational camping vehicles shall be deposited on the surface of the ground. All sewage and other water carried wastes shall be discharged into a municipal sewage system whenever available. When a municipal sewage system is not available, a sewage disposal system acceptable to the state commissioner of health shall be provided.

(3) No manufactured home shall be located closer than three feet to the side lot lines of a manufactured home park, if the abutting property is improved property, or closer than ten feet to a public street or alley. Each individual site shall abut or face on a driveway or clear unoccupied space of not less than 16 feet in width, which space shall have unobstructed access to a public highway or alley. There shall be an open space of at least ten feet between the sides of adjacent manufactured homes including their attachments and at least three feet between manufactured homes when parked end to end. The space between manufactured homes may be used for the parking of motor vehicles and other property, if the vehicle or other property is parked at least ten feet from the nearest adjacent manufactured home position. The requirements of this paragraph shall not apply to recreational camping areas and variances may be granted by the state commissioner of health in manufactured home parks when the variance is applied for in writing and in the opinion of the commissioner the variance will not endanger the health, safety and welfare of manufactured home park occupants.

(4) An adequate supply of water of safe, sanitary quality shall be furnished at each manufactured home park or recreational camping area. The source of the water supply shall first be approved by the state department of health. At least one water supply outlet shall be provided at convenient locations throughout the manufactured home park or recreational camping area.

(5) All plumbing shall be installed in accordance with the rules of the state commissioner of health and the provisions of the Minnesota plumbing code.

(6) In the case of a manufactured home park with less than 10 manufactured homes, a plan for the sheltering or the safe evacuation to a safe place of shelter of the residents of the park in times of severe weather conditions, such as tornadoes, high winds and floods. The shelter or evacuation plan shall be developed with the assistance and approval of the municipality where the park is located and shall be posted at conspicuous locations throughout the park. Nothing in this paragraph requires the department of health to review or approve any shelter or evacuation plan developed by a park. Failure of a municipality to approve a plan submitted by a park shall not be grounds for action against the park by the department of health if the park has made a good faith effort to develop the plan and obtain municipal approval.

(7) If accessible storm shelter is not available within reasonable walking distance of the manufactured home park for sheltering residents during times of severe weather under paragraph (6), the manufactured home park owner or lessor shall provide storm shelter for the residents in a manufactured home park with 10 or more manufactured homes.

Sec. 2. [RULES.]

The commissioner of administration shall adopt rules by March 1, 1988, to implement and administer standards for shelters under section 1 and shall ensure by rules that park residents will not be displaced.

Sec. 3. [FEASIBILITY STUDY.]

The commissioner of administration shall conduct a study to determine the feasibility of requiring emergency storm shelters in above-grade single-family housing and shall submit the study to the legislature by January 15, 1988.

Sec. 4. [APPROPRIATION.]

§_____ is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of administration for the feasibility study required in section 3.

S.F. No. 260: A bill for an act relating to elections; authorizing combination of certain municipalities for election purposes; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 204B.14, subdivisions 2, 4, 5, and by adding a subdivision; 204B.16, subdivision 1; and 204B.21, subdivision 2.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 204B.14, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [SEPARATE PRECINCTS; REQUIREMENTS.] The following shall constitute at least one election precinct:

(a) Each city ward; and

(b) Each town and each statutory city, unless a town and statutory city municipalities are combined for election purposes under section 4. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, each town and each statutory city located within the metropolitan area as defined in section 473.121, subdivision 2 shall constitute at least one election precinct.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 204B.14, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [BOUNDARY CHANGE PROCEDURE.] Any change in the boundary of an election precinct shall be adopted at least 90 days before the date of the next election, and shall not take effect until notice of the change has been posted in the office of the municipal clerk or county auditor for at least 60 days. Except in the case of the combination or separation of municipalities for election purposes under section 4, the municipal clerk or county auditor shall notify each affected registered voter of the change in election precinct boundaries at least 30 days prior to the first election held after the change takes effect.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 204B.14, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [PRECINCT BOUNDARIES; DESCRIPTION; MAPS.] Each municipal clerk shall prepare and file with the county auditor of each county in which the municipality is located, with the secretary of state and with the state planning director maps showing the correct boundaries of each election precinct in the municipality. At least 30 days before any change in an election precinct or in a corporate boundary becomes effective, the municipal clerk shall prepare maps showing the new boundaries of the precincts and shall forward copies of these maps to the secretary of state, the appropriate county auditors and the state planning director. The clerk shall retain copies of the precinct maps for public inspection. The county auditor shall prepare and file precinct boundary maps for precincts in unorganized territories, and the municipal clerk designated in the combination agreement shall prepare and file precinct boundary maps in the case of municipalities combined for election purposes under section 4. in the same manner as provided for precincts in municipalities. For every election held in the municipality the election judges shall be furnished precinct maps as provided in section 201.061, subdivision 6.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 204B.14, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [COMBINED PRECINCT.] (a) Up to four contiguous municipalities contained in the same legislative district, congressional district, and county commissioner district may enter a combination agreement to form one precinct for state and county election purposes, upon the approval of the county auditor. A combination agreement must be approved by resolutions of all of the governing bodies of the combining municipalities on or before April 1 of an election year. A copy of the combination agreement must be submitted to the county auditor for approval, on or before May 1 of an election year.

(b) A combination agreement remains in effect until one municipality in the combined precinct withdraws from the combination by a resolution of the governing body of the withdrawing municipality, passed on or before April 1 of an election year. The withdrawing municipality shall file the resolution with the county auditor no later than May 1 of an election year.

(c) The combination agreement must specify the designated polling place and the municipal election officials or governing bodies responsible for appointing election judges and the chair of the election board, posting notices, preparing precinct maps, and carrying out other election duties required by law.

(d) In combining or separating, the municipalities must meet the time requirements specified in this section for changing precinct boundaries and in section 204B.16, subdivision 3, for designating a different polling place.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 204B.21, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [APPOINTING AUTHORITY; POWERS AND DUTIES.] Election judges for precincts in a municipality shall be appointed by the governing body of the municipality. Election judges for precincts in unorganized territory shall be appointed by the county board. Election judges for a precinct composed of two or more municipalities must be appointed by the governing body of the municipality or municipalities responsible for appointing election judges as provided in the agreement to combine for election purposes. Appointments shall be made from lists furnished pursuant to subdivision 1 subject to the eligibility requirements and other qualifications established or authorized under section 204B.19. If no lists have been furnished or if additional election judges are required after all listed names have been exhausted, the appointing authority may appoint any other individual to serve as an election judge subject to the same requirements and qualifications. The appointments shall be made at least 25 days before the election at which the election judges will serve.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 204B.22, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [MINIMUM NUMBER REQUIRED.] A minimum of three election judges shall be appointed for each precinct. In a precinct of municipalities combined for election purposes under section 4, at least one judge must be appointed from each municipality in the combined precinct, provided that not less than three judges shall be appointed for each combined precinct. The appointing authorities may appoint election judges for any precinct in addition to the number required by this subdivision including additional election judges to count ballots after voting has ended.

Sec. 7. [PRECINCT BOUNDARY CHANGES.]

Notwithstanding section 204B.14, subdivision 3, municipalities may enter a combination agreement as provided in section 4 until April 1, 1988.

Sec. 8. [204B.45] [MAIL BALLOTING.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZATION.] Any town having fewer than 400 registered voters and not located in a metropolitan county as defined by section 473.121 may apply to the county auditor to provide balloting by mail at any county or state election with no polling place other than the office of the auditor or clerk. The county board may provide for balloting by mail in unorganized territory.

Subd. 2. [PROCEDURE.] Notice of the election and the special mail procedure must be given at least six weeks prior to the election. No earlier than 20 days or later than 18 days prior to the election, the auditor shall mail ballots by nonforwardable mail to all voters registered in the town or unorganized territory. Eligible voters not registered at the time the ballots are mailed may apply for ballots as provided in chapter 203B. Ballot return envelopes, with return postage provided, must be preaddressed to the auditor or clerk and the voter may return the ballot by mail or in person to the office of the auditor or clerk. The costs of the mailing shall be paid by the election jurisdiction in which the voter resides. Any ballot received by 8:00 p.m. on the day of the election must be counted.

Subd. 3. [ELECTION LAW APPLIED; RULES.] The Minnesota election law is applicable to mail balloting except as provided by this section or by rules adopted by the secretary of state, but only paper ballots may be used. The secretary of state shall adopt rules for the conduct of mail balloting, including instructions to voters, procedures for challenge of voters, public observation of the counting of ballots, and procedures for proper handling and safeguarding of ballots to ensure the integrity of the election."

(c) The sum of contributions to the political committee or political fund during the reporting period;

(d) Each loan made or received by the political committee or political fund within the year in aggregate in excess of $100, continuously reported until repaid or forgiven, together with the name, address, occupation and the principal place of business, if any, of the lender and any endorser and the date and amount of the loan. If any loan made to the principal campaign committee of a candidate is forgiven at any time or repaid by any entity other than that principal campaign committee, it shall be reported as a contribution for the year in which the loan was made;

(e) Each receipt in excess of $100 not otherwise listed under clauses (b) to (d);

(f) The sum of all receipts of the political committee or political fund during the reporting period;

(g) The name and address of each individual or association to whom aggregate expenditures, including approved expenditures, have been made by or on behalf of the political committee or political fund within the year in excess of $100, together with the amount, date and purpose of each expenditure and the name and address of, and office sought by, each candidate on whose behalf the expenditure was made, identification of the ballot question which the expenditure is intended to promote or defeat, and in the case of independent expenditures made in opposition to a candidate, the name, address and office sought for each such candidate;

(h) The sum of all expenditures made by or on behalf of the political committee or political fund during the reporting period;

(i) The amount and nature of any advance of credit incurred by the political committee or political fund, continuously reported until paid or forgiven. If any advance of credit incurred by the principal campaign committee of a candidate is forgiven at any time by the creditor or paid by any entity other than that principal campaign committee, it shall be reported as a donation in kind for the year in which the advance of credit was incurred;

(j) The name and address of each political committee, political fund, or principal campaign committee to which aggregate transfers in excess of $100 have been made within the year, together with the amount and date of each transfer;

(k) The sum of all transfers made by the political committee, political fund, or principal campaign committee during the reporting period;

(l) For principal campaign committees only, the sum of noncampaign disbursements made in each category listed in section 10A.01, subdivision 10c during the reporting period; and

(m) The sum of all noncampaign disbursements made by the political committee, political fund, or principal campaign committee during the reporting period.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 10A.20, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. In any statewide election any contribution or contributions from any one source totaling $2,000 or more, or in any legislative election totaling ~~$200 or more~~ than $400, received between the last day covered in the last report prior to an election and the election shall be reported to the board in one of the following ways:

- (1) in person within 48 hours after its receipt;
- (2) by telegram or mailgram within 48 hours after its receipt; or
- (3) by certified mail sent within 48 hours after its receipt.

These contributions must also be reported in the next required report.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 10A.32, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. As a condition of receiving any money from the state elections campaign fund, a candidate shall agree by stating in writing to the board that ~~(a)~~ the candidate's expenditures and approved expenditures shall not exceed the expenditure limits as set forth in section 10A.25 ~~and that (b)~~ ~~the candidate shall not accept contributions or allow approved expenditures to be made on the candidate's behalf for the period beginning with January 1 of the election year or with the registration of the candidate's principal campaign committee, whichever occurs later, and ending December 31 of~~ the election year, which aggregate contributions and approved expenditures exceed the difference between the amount which may legally be expended by or for the candidate, and the amount which the candidate receives from the state elections campaign fund. The agreement, insofar as it relates to the expenditure limits set forth in section 10A.25, remains effective until the dissolution of the principal campaign committee of the candidate or the opening of filings for the next succeeding election to the office held or sought at the time of agreement, whichever occurs first. Money in the account of the principal campaign committee of a candidate on January 1 of the election year for the office held or sought shall be considered contributions accepted by that candidate in that year for the purposes of this subdivision. That amount of all contributions accepted by a candidate in an election year which equals the amount of noncampaign disbursements and contributions and expenditures to promote or defeat a ballot question which are made by that candidate in that year shall not count toward the aggregate contributions and approved expenditure limit imposed by this subdivision. Any amount by which the aggregate contributions and approved expenditures agreed to under clause (b) exceed the difference shall be returned to the state treasurer in the manner provided in subdivision 2. In no case shall the amount returned exceed the amount received from the state elections campaign fund.

The candidate may submit the signed agreement to the filing officer on the day of filing the affidavit of candidacy or petition to appear on the ballot, or to the board no later than September 1.

The board prior to the first day of filing for office shall forward forms for the agreement to all filing officers. The filing officer shall without delay forward signed agreements to the board. An agreement may not be rescinded after September 1.

For the purposes of this subdivision only, the total amount to be distributed to each candidate is calculated to be the candidate's share of the total estimated funds in the candidate's party account as provided in subdivision 3a, plus the total amount estimated as provided in subdivision 3a to be in the general account of the state elections campaign fund and set aside for that office divided by the number of candidates whose names are to appear on the general election ballot for that office. If for any reason the amount actually received by the candidate is greater than the candidate's share of the estimate, and the contributions thereby exceed the difference, the agreement shall not be considered violated."

S.F. No. 1194: A bill for an act relating to utilities; requiring the public utilities commission to annually review authorized rates of return; requiring the commission to consider nonutility income under certain circumstances; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 216B.16, by adding subdivisions.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 216B.16, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 11. [ANNUAL REVIEW; RATE OF RETURN.] The commission may annually review the rate of return being earned by each public utility since the utility's most recent general rate case. The commission must examine whether the rate of return being earned by the utility and calculated in the same manner as in the utility's most recent general rate case reflects current market conditions. In making its determination the commission shall determine the utility's cost of capital and consider rates of return being authorized to comparable utilities. If, after a hearing, the commission determines that the rate of return being earned by the public utility is excessive, the commission may order that utility to file a general rate case within 120 days of the order. In a proceeding held under this subdivision, the public utility has the burden to show that its current earned rate of return is reasonable. If the utility fails to comply with the order, the commission shall order that the authorized rate of return be appropriately revised and order the utility to revise its rates accordingly.”

"Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.02, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [MEDICAL ASSISTANCE; MEDICAL CARE.] "Medical assistance" or "medical care" means payment of part or all of the cost of the following care and services for eligible individuals whose income and resources are insufficient to meet all of this cost:

(1) Inpatient hospital services. A second medical opinion is required prior to reimbursement for elective surgeries. The commissioner shall publish in the State Register a proposed list of elective surgeries that require a second medical opinion prior to reimbursement. The list is not subject to the requirements of sections 14.01 to 14.70. The commissioner's decision whether a second medical opinion is required, made in accordance with rules governing that decision, is not subject to administrative appeal;

(2) Skilled nursing home services and services of intermediate care facilities, including training and habilitation services, as defined in section ~~256B.50, subdivision 4~~ 9, subdivision 3, for persons with mental retardation or related conditions who are residing in intermediate care facilities for persons with mental retardation or related conditions. Medical assistance must not be used to pay the costs of nursing care provided to a patient in a swing bed as defined in section 144.562;

(3) Physicians' services;

(4) Outpatient hospital or nonprofit community health clinic services or physician-directed clinic services. The physician-directed clinic staff shall include at least two physicians, one of whom is on the premises whenever the clinic is open, and all services shall be provided under the direct supervision of the physician who is on the premises. Hospital outpatient departments are subject to the same limitations and reimbursements as other enrolled vendors for all services, except initial triage, emergency services, and services not provided or immediately available in clinics, physicians' offices, or by other enrolled providers. "Emergency services" means those medical services required for the immediate diagnosis and treatment of medical conditions that, if not immediately diagnosed and treated, could lead to serious physical or mental disability or death or are necessary to alleviate severe pain. Neither the hospital, its employees, nor any physician or dentist, shall be liable in any action arising out of a determination not to render emergency services or care if reasonable care is exercised in determining the condition of the person, or in determining the appropriateness of the facilities, or the qualifications and availability of personnel to render these services consistent with this section;

(5) Community mental health center services, as defined in rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to section 256B.04, subdivision 2, and provided by a community mental health center as defined in section 245.62, subdivision 2;

(6) Home health care services;

(7) Private duty nursing services;

(8) Physical therapy and related services;

(9) Dental services, excluding cast metal restorations;

(10) Laboratory and X-ray services;

(11) The following if prescribed by a licensed practitioner: drugs, eyeglasses, dentures, and prosthetic devices. The commissioner shall designate a formulary committee which shall advise the commissioner on the names of drugs for which payment shall be made, recommend a system for reimbursing providers on a set fee or charge basis rather than the present system, and develop methods encouraging use of generic drugs when they are less expensive and equally effective as trademark drugs. The commissioner shall appoint the formulary committee members no later than 30 days following July 1, 1981. The formulary committee shall consist of nine members, four of whom shall be physicians who are not employed by the department of human services, and a majority of whose practice is for persons paying privately or through health insurance, three of whom shall be pharmacists who are not employed by the department of human services, and a majority of whose practice is for persons paying privately or through health insurance, a consumer representative, and a nursing home representative. Committee members shall serve two-year terms and shall serve without compensation. The commissioner may establish a drug formulary. Its establishment and publication shall not be subject to the requirements of the administrative procedure act, but the formulary committee shall review and comment on the formulary contents. Prior authorization may be required by the commissioner, with the consent of the drug formulary committee, before certain formulary drugs are eligible for payment. The formulary shall not include: drugs or products for which there is no federal funding; over-the-counter drugs, except for antacids, acetaminophen, family planning products, aspirin, insulin, prenatal vitamins, and vitamins for children under the age of seven; or any other over-the-counter drug identified by the commissioner, in consultation with the appropriate professional consultants under contract with or employed by the state agency, as necessary, appropriate and cost effective for the treatment of certain specified chronic diseases, conditions or disorders, and this determination shall not be subject to the requirements of chapter 14, the administrative procedure act; nutritional products, except for those products needed for treatment of phenylketonuria, hyperlysinemia, maple syrup urine disease, a combined allergy to human milk, cow milk, and soy formula, or any other childhood or adult diseases, conditions, or disorders identified by the commissioner as requiring a similarly necessary nutritional product; anorectics; and drugs for which medical value has not been established. Separate payment shall not be made for nutritional products for residents of long-term care facilities; payment for dietary requirements is a component of the per diem rate paid to these facilities. Payment to drug vendors shall not be modified before the formulary is established except that the commissioner shall not permit payment for any drugs which may not by law be included in the formulary, and the commissioner's determination shall not be subject to chapter 14, the administrative procedure act. The commissioner shall publish conditions for prohibiting payment for specific drugs after considering the formulary committee's recommendations.

The basis for determining the amount of payment shall be the actual acquisition costs of the drugs plus a fixed dispensing fee established by the commissioner. Actual acquisition cost includes quantity and other special discounts except time and cash discounts. Establishment of this fee shall not be subject to the requirements of the administrative procedure act. Whenever a generically equivalent product is available, payment shall be on the basis of the actual acquisition cost of the generic drug, unless the prescriber specifically indicates "dispense as written" on the prescription as required by section 151.21, subdivision 2.

Notwithstanding the above provisions, implementation of any change in the fixed dispensing fee which has not been subject to the administrative procedure act shall be limited to not more than 180 days, unless, during that time, the commissioner shall have initiated rulemaking through the administrative procedure act;

(12) Diagnostic, screening, and preventive services;

(13) Health care prepayment plan premiums and insurance premiums if paid directly to a vendor and supplementary medical insurance benefits under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act;

(14) Abortion services, but only if one of the following conditions is met:

(a) The abortion is a medical necessity. "Medical necessity" means (1) the signed written statement of two physicians indicating the abortion is medically necessary to prevent the death of the mother, and (2) the patient has given her consent to the abortion in writing unless the patient is physically or legally incapable of providing informed consent to the procedure, in which case consent will be given as otherwise provided by law;

(b) The pregnancy is the result of criminal sexual conduct as defined in section 609.342, clauses (c), (d), (e)(i), and (f), and the incident is reported within 48 hours after the incident occurs to a valid law enforcement agency for investigation, unless the victim is physically unable to report the criminal sexual conduct, in which case the report shall be made within 48 hours after the victim becomes physically able to report the criminal sexual conduct; or

(c) The pregnancy is the result of incest, but only if the incident and relative are reported to a valid law enforcement agency for investigation prior to the abortion;

(15) Transportation costs incurred solely for obtaining emergency medical care or transportation costs incurred by nonambulatory persons in obtaining emergency or nonemergency medical care when paid directly to an ambulance company, common carrier, or other recognized providers of transportation services. For the purpose of this clause, a person who is incapable of transport by taxicab or bus shall be considered to be nonambulatory;

(16) To the extent authorized by rule of the state agency, costs of bus or taxicab transportation incurred by any ambulatory eligible person for obtaining nonemergency medical care;

(17) Personal care attendant services provided by an individual, not a relative, who is qualified to provide the services, where the services are prescribed by a physician in accordance with a plan of treatment and are supervised by a registered nurse. Payments to personal care attendants shall be adjusted annually to reflect changes in the cost of living or of providing services by the average annual adjustment granted to vendors such as nursing homes and home health agencies; and

(18) Any other medical or remedial care licensed and recognized under state law unless otherwise prohibited by law, except licensed chemical dependency treatment programs or primary treatment or extended care treatment units in hospitals that are covered under Laws 1986, chapter 394, sections 8 to 20. The commissioner shall include chemical dependency services in the state medical assistance plan for federal reporting purposes, but payment must be made under Laws 1986, chapter 394, sections 8 to 20."

Subdivision 1. [TASK FORCE CREATED.] The director of the state planning department shall form a task force to review and make recommendations regarding the appropriate roles of developmental achievement centers and sheltered workshops in providing supported work opportunities to people with disabilities.

Subd. 2. [MEMBERSHIP] The task force must include representatives from sheltered workshops, community-based employment programs, developmental achievement centers, county government, advocacy organizations from the Minnesota supported employment project advisory committee, the departments of human services and jobs and training and the state planning agency. Membership on the task force must not exceed ten people, no more than half of whom may be from state and local government.

Subd. 3. [SCOPE OF THE TASK FORCE.] The task force shall review and make recommendations to the legislature and affected state departments on the following:

(1) the role and function of developmental achievement centers, sheltered workshops, and other services providing employment to people who are severely disabled;

(2) mechanisms for identifying and placing clients in appropriate services;

(3) current and recommended funding methods for developmental achievement centers and extended employment programs and the relationship between funding and placement of clients; and

(4) improved ways of providing employment services to all disabled persons regardless of the severity of their disabilities, including persons not currently receiving services through existing programs.

Subd. 4. [REPORT.] The task force shall present conclusions and make recommendations to the legislature by February 1, 1988."

S.F. No. 1048: A bill for an act relating to health; making nutrition data reporting discretionary rather than mandatory; governing the hazardous substance injury compensation board; authorizing the commissioner to control activities of carriers of communicable diseases; regulating licensure and inspections of hospitals, nursing homes, life support transportation systems, and eating places; clarifying powers of the office of health facility complaints; changing certain duties of the interagency board for quality assurance; providing penalties; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 115B.28, subdivision 4; 144.0722; 144.092; 144.50, subdivisions 1 and 2; 144.55, by adding a subdivision; 144.653, subdivision 3; 144.804, subdivision 7; 144A.10, subdivisions 1 and 2; 144A.16; 144A.31; 144A.53, subdivision 1; 145.881, subdivision 1; 157.01; 157.02; 157.04; 157.09; and 157.14; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapters 144 and 144A; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 144.422; 144.424; 144.425; 144.471; 144.49, subdivision 5; 144.692; and 144.94.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 115B.28, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [ADMINISTRATIVE PERSONNEL AND SERVICES.] The board may appoint an executive director who is not a member of the board. The executive director is in the unclassified service. The commissioner of health shall provide staff assistance, administrative services, and office space under a contract with the board. The board shall reimburse the commissioner for the staff, services, and space provided. In order to perform its duties, the board may request information from the supervising officer of any state agency or state institution of higher education. When requesting health data as defined in section 13.38 or sections 144.67 to 144.69, the board must submit a written release signed by the subject of the data or, if the subject is deceased, a representative of the deceased, authorizing release of the data in whole or in part. The supervising officer shall comply with the board's request to the extent possible considering available agency or institution appropriations and may assign agency or institution employees to assist the board in performing its duties under sections 115B.25 to 115B.37.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 144.0722, is amended to read:

144.0722 [RESIDENT REIMBURSEMENT CLASSIFICATIONS; PROCEDURES FOR RECONSIDERATION.]

Subdivision 1. [RESIDENT REIMBURSEMENT CLASSIFICATIONS.] The commissioner of health shall establish resident reimbursement classifications based upon the assessments of residents of nursing homes and boarding care homes conducted under sections 144.072 and 144.0721, or under rules established by the commissioner of human services under sections 256B.41 to 256B.48. The reimbursement classifications established by the commissioner must conform to the rules established by the commissioner of human services.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE OF RESIDENT REIMBURSEMENT CLASSIFICATION.] The commissioner of health shall notify each resident, and the nursing home or boarding care home in which the resident resides, of the reimbursement classification established under subdivision 1. The notice must inform the resident of the classification that was assigned, the opportunity to review the documentation supporting the classification, the opportunity to obtain clarification from the commissioner, and the opportunity to request a reconsideration of the classification. The notice of resident classification must be sent by first-class mail. The individual resident notices may be sent to the resident's nursing home or boarding care home for distribution to the resident. The nursing home or boarding care home is responsible for the distribution of the notice to each resident, to the person responsible for the payment of the resident's nursing home expenses, or to another person designated by the resident. This notice must be distributed within three working days after the facility's receipt of the notices from the department.

Subd. 3. [REQUEST FOR RECONSIDERATION.] The resident or the nursing home or boarding care home may request that the commissioner reconsider the assigned reimbursement classification. The request for reconsideration must be submitted in writing to the commissioner ~~within ten working~~ 30 days of the receipt of the notice of resident classification. For reconsideration requests submitted by or on behalf of the resident, the time period for submission of the request begins as of the date the resident or the resident's representative receives the classification notice. The request for reconsideration must include the name of the resident, the name and address of the facility in which the resident resides, the reasons for the reconsideration, the requested classification changes, and documentation supporting the requested classification. The documentation accompanying the reconsideration request is limited to documentation establishing that the needs of the resident at the time of the assessment resulting in the disputed classification justify a change of classification.

Subd. 3a. [ACCESS TO INFORMATION.] Upon written request, the nursing home or boarding care home must give the resident or the resident's representative a copy of the assessment form and the other documentation that was given to the department to support the assessment findings. The nursing home or boarding care home shall also provide access to and a copy of other information from the resident's record that has been requested by or on behalf of the resident to support a resident's reconsideration request. A copy of any requested material must be provided within three working days of receipt of a written request for the information. If a facility fails to provide the material within this time, it is subject to the issuance of a correction order and penalty assessment under sections 144.653 and 144A.10. Notwithstanding those sections, any correction order issued under this subdivision must require that the facility immediately comply with the request for information and that as of the date of the issuance of the correction order, the facility shall forfeit to the state a $100 fine the first day of noncompliance, and an increase in the $100 fine by $50 increments for each day the noncompliance continues. For the purposes of this section, "representative" includes the resident's guardian or conservator, the person authorized to pay the nursing home expenses of the resident, a representative of the nursing home ombudsman's office whose assistance has been requested, or any other individual designated by the resident.

Subd. 3b. [FACILITY'S REQUEST FOR RECONSIDERATION.] In addition to the information required in subdivision 3, a reconsideration request from a nursing home or boarding care home must contain the following information: the date the resident reimbursement classification notices were received by the facility; the date the classification notices were distributed to the resident or the resident's representative; and a copy of a notice sent to the resident or to the resident's representative. This notice must tell the resident or the resident's representative that a reconsideration of the resident's classification is being requested, the reason for the request, that the resident's rate will change if the request is approved by the department and the extent of the change, that copies of the facility's request and supporting documentation are available for review, and that the resident also has the right to request a reconsideration. If the facility fails to provide this information with the reconsideration request, the request must be denied, and the facility may not make further reconsideration requests on that specific reimbursement classification.

Subd. 4. [RECONSIDERATION.] The commissioner's reconsideration must be made by individuals not involved in reviewing the assessment that established the disputed classification. The reconsideration must be based upon the initial assessment and upon the information provided to the commissioner under subdivision 3. If necessary for evaluating the reconsideration request, the commissioner may conduct on-site reviews. In its discretion, the commissioner may review the reimbursement classifications assigned to all residents in the facility. Within 15 working days of receiving the request for reconsideration, the commissioner shall affirm or modify the original resident classification. The original classification must be modified if the commissioner determines that the assessment resulting in the classification did not accurately reflect the needs of the resident at the time of the assessment. The resident and the nursing home or boarding care home shall be notified within five working days after the decision is made. The commissioner's decision under this subdivision is the final administrative decision of the agency.

Subd. 5. [AUDIT AUTHORITY.] The department of health may audit assessments of nursing home and boarding care home residents. These audits may be in addition to the assessments completed by the department under section 144.0721. The audits may be conducted at the facility, and the department may conduct the audits on an unannounced basis.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 144.092, is amended to read:

144.092 [COORDINATED NUTRITION DATA COLLECTION.]

The commissioner of health ~~shall~~ may develop and coordinate a reporting system to improve the state's ability to document inadequate nutrient and food intake of Minnesota's children and adults and to identify problems and determine the most appropriate strategies for improving inadequate nutritional status. The board on aging ~~shall~~ may develop a method to evaluate the nutritional status and requirements of the elderly in Minnesota. The commissioner of health and the board on aging ~~shall~~ may report to the legislature on each July 1, beginning in 1988, on the results of their investigation and their recommendations on the nutritional needs of Minnesotans.

Sec. 4. [144.4171] [SCOPE.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY.] Under the powers and duties assigned to the commissioner in sections 144.05 and 144.12, the commissioner shall proceed according to sections 4 to 19 with respect to persons who pose a health threat to others or who engage in noncompliant behavior.

Subd. 2. [PREEMPTION.] Sections 4 to 19 preempt and supersede any local ordinance or rule concerning persons who pose a health threat to others or who engage in noncompliant behavior.

Sec. 5. [144.4172] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [CARRIER.] "Carrier" means a person who harbors or who the commissioner reasonably suspects of harboring a specific infectious agent whether or not there is present discernible clinical disease and who serves as a potential source of infection. In the absence of a medically accepted test, the commissioner may reasonably suspect an individual of carrier status only when a determination based upon specific facts justifies an inference that the individual harbors a specific infectious agent.

Subd. 2. [COMMUNICABLE DISEASE.] "Communicable disease" means a disease or condition that causes serious illness, serious disability, or death, the infectious agent of which may pass or be carried, directly or indirectly, from the body of one person to the body of another.

Subd. 3. [COMMISSIONER.] "Commissioner" means the commissioner of health.

*Subd. 4. [CONTACT NOTIFICATION PROGRAM.] "Contact notification program" means an ongoing program established by the commissioner to encourage carriers of a communicable disease whose primary route of transmission is through an exchange of blood, semen, or vaginal secretions, such as treponema pallidum, neisseria gonorrhoea, chlamydia trachomatis, and human immunodeficiency virus, to identify others who may be at risk by virtue of contact with the carrier.*

Subd. 5. [HEALTH DIRECTIVE.] "Health directive" means a written statement, or, in urgent circumstances, an oral statement followed by a written statement within seven days, from the commissioner, or local board of health with delegated authority from the commissioner, issued to a carrier who constitutes a health threat to others. A health directive must be individual, specific, and cannot be issued to a class of persons. The directive may require a carrier to cooperate with health authorities in efforts to prevent or control transmission of communicable disease, including participation in education, counseling, or treatment programs, and undergoing medical tests necessary to verify the person's carrier status. The written directive may be personally delivered to the carrier or mailed to the carrier's last known address.

Subd. 6. [LICENSED HEALTH PROFESSIONAL.] "Licensed health professional" means a person licensed in Minnesota to practice those professions described in section 214.01, subdivision 2.

Subd. 7. [HEALTH THREAT TO OTHERS.] "Health threat to others" means that a carrier demonstrates an inability or unwillingness to conduct himself or herself in such a manner as to not place others at risk of exposure to infection that causes serious illness, serious disability, or death. It includes one or more of the following:

(1) behavior by a carrier of a communicable disease which has been demonstrated epidemiologically to transmit or which evidences a careless disregard for the transmission of the disease to others;

(2) an intention to transmit or a careless disregard for the transmission of a communicable disease to others as is evidenced by statements by a carrier, except that statements that are not credible indicators of the carrier's intention may not be used to satisfy the requirements of this subdivision; or

(3) violation by a carrier of any part of a court order issued pursuant to this chapter.

Subd. 8. [NONCOMPLIANT BEHAVIOR.] "Noncompliant behavior" means a failure or refusal to comply with a health directive.

Subd. 9. [RESPONDENT.] "Respondent" means any person against whom an action is commenced under sections 4 to 19.

Sec. 6. [144.4173] [CAUSE OF ACTION.]

Subdivision 1. [COMPLIANCE WITH DIRECTIVE.] Failure or refusal of a carrier to comply with a health directive is grounds for proceeding under subdivision 2.

Subd. 2. [COMMENCEMENT OF ACTION.] The commissioner, or a local board of health with express delegated authority from the commissioner, may commence legal action against a carrier engaged in noncompliant behavior by filing with the district court in the county in which respondent resides, and serving upon respondent, a petition for relief and notice of hearing.

Sec. 7. [144.4174] [STANDING.]

Only the commissioner, or a local board of health, with express delegated authority from the commissioner, may commence an action under sections 4 to 19.

Sec. 8. [144.4175] [REPORTING.]

Subdivision 1. [VOLUNTARY REPORTING.] Any licensed health professional or other human services professional regulated by the state who has knowledge or reasonable cause to believe that a person is a health threat to others or has engaged in noncompliant behavior may report that information to the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [LIABILITY FOR REPORTING.] A licensed health professional or other human services professional regulated by the state who has knowledge or reasonable cause to believe that a person is a health threat to others or has engaged in noncompliant behavior, and who makes a report under subdivision 1, is not subject to liability for reporting in any civil, administrative, disciplinary, or criminal action.

Subd. 3. [WAIVER OF PRIVILEGE.] Any privilege otherwise created in section 595.02 is waived with respect to information about a person as a health threat to others or about a person's noncompliant behavior in any investigation or action under sections 4 to 19. This waiver of privilege does not apply to the privileges described in section 595.02, subdivision 1, clauses (b) and (c).

Sec. 9. [144.4176] [PETITION; NOTICE.]

Subdivision 1. [PETITION.] The petition must set forth the following:

(1) the grounds and underlying facts that demonstrate that respondent is a carrier, and has engaged in noncompliant behavior;

(2) the petitioner's efforts to alleviate the health threat to others prior to the issuance of a health directive;

(3) the type of relief sought; and

(4) a request for a court hearing on the allegations contained in the petition.

Subd. 2. [HEARING NOTICE.] The notice must contain the following information:

(1) the time, date, and place of the hearing;

(2) respondent's right to appear at the hearing;

(3) respondent's right to present and cross-examine witnesses; and

(4) respondent's right to counsel, including the right, if indigent, to representation by counsel designated by the court or county of venue.

Sec. 10. [144.4177] [TIME OF HEARING.]

A hearing on the petition must be held before the district court in the county in which respondent resides as soon as possible, but no later than 14 days from service of the petition and hearing notice.

Sec. 11. [144.4178] [CRIMINAL IMMUNITY.]

In accordance with section 609.09, subdivision 2, no person shall be excused in an action under sections 4 to 19 from giving testimony or producing any documents, books, records, or correspondence, tending to be self-incriminating; but the testimony or evidence, or other testimony or evidence derived from it, must not be used against the person in any criminal case, except for perjury committed in the testimony.

Sec. 12. [144.4179] [STANDARD OF PROOF; EVIDENCE.]

Subdivision 1. [CLEAR AND CONVINCING.] The commissioner must prove the allegations in the petition by clear and convincing evidence.

Subd. 2. [ALL RELEVANT EVIDENCE.] The court shall admit all reliable relevant evidence. Medical and epidemiologic data must be admitted if it otherwise comports with section 145.30, chapter 600, Minnesota Rules of Evidence 803(6), or other statutes or rules that permit reliable evidence to be admitted in civil cases.

Subd. 3. [FAILURE TO APPEAR.] If a party fails to appear at the hearing without prior court approval, the hearing may proceed without the absent party and the court may make its determination on the basis of all reliable evidence submitted at the hearing.

Subd. 4. [RECORDS.] The court shall take and preserve an accurate stenographic record of the proceedings.

Sec. 13. [144.4180] [REMEDIES.]

Subdivision 1. [REMEDIES AVAILABLE.] Upon a finding by the court that respondent has engaged in noncompliant behavior, the court may order that the respondent must:

- (1) participate in a designated education program;*
- (2) participate in a designated counseling program;*
- (3) participate in a designated treatment program;*
- (4) undergo medically accepted tests to verify respondent's status as a carrier, or treatment that is consistent with standard medical practice as necessary to make respondent noninfectious;*
- (5) notify or appear before designated health officials for verification of status, testing, or other purposes consistent with monitoring;*
- (6) cease and desist the conduct which constitutes a health threat to others;*
- (7) live part time or full time in a supervised setting for the period and under the conditions set by the court;*
- (8) be committed to an appropriate institutional facility for the period and under the conditions set by the court, but not longer than six months, until the respondent is made noninfectious, or until the respondent completes a course of treatment prescribed by the court, whichever occurs first, unless the commissioner shows good cause for continued commitment; and*
- (9) comply with any combination of the remedies in clauses (1) to (8), or other remedies considered just by the court. In no case may a respondent be committed to a correctional facility.*

Subd. 2. [CONSTRUCTION.] This section shall be construed so that the least restrictive alternative is used to achieve the desired purpose of preventing or controlling communicable disease.

Subd. 3. [ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS.] If commitment or supervised living is ordered, the court shall require the head of the institutional facility or the person in charge of supervision to submit a written report, with a copy to both the commissioner and the respondent, at least 60 days, but not more than 90 days, from the start of respondent's commitment or supervised living arrangement, setting forth the following:

- (1) the types of support or therapy groups, if any, respondent is attending and how often respondent attends;*
- (2) the type of care or treatment respondent is receiving, and what future care or treatment is necessary;*
- (3) whether respondent has been cured or made noninfectious, or oth-* erwise no longer poses a threat to public health;

(4) whether continued commitment or supervised living is necessary; and

(5) other information the court considers necessary.

Sec. 14. [144.4181] [APPEAL.]

The petitioner or respondent may appeal the decision of the district court. The court of appeals shall hear the appeal within 30 days after service of the notice of appeal. However, respondent's status as determined by the district court remains unchanged, and any remedy ordered by the district court remains in effect while the appeal is pending.

Sec. 15. [144.4182] [TEMPORARY EMERGENCY HOLD.]

Subdivision 1. [APPREHEND AND HOLD.] To protect the public health in an emergency, the court may order a health officer or peace officer to take a person into custody and transport the person to an appropriate emergency care or treatment facility for observation, examination, testing, diagnosis, care, treatment, and, if necessary, temporary detention. If the person is already institutionalized, the court may order the institutional facility to hold the person. These orders must be issued in an ex parte proceeding upon an affidavit of the commissioner or a designee of the commissioner. An order shall issue upon a determination by the court that reasonable cause exists to believe that the person is a carrier of a communicable disease and: (a) has evidenced an intention to imminently transmit or a careless disregard for the imminent transmission of the disease to other persons; or (b) has evidenced an intention to flee and is a health threat to others.

The affidavit must set forth the specific facts upon which the order is sought and must be served on the person immediately upon apprehension or detention. An order under this section may be executed on any day and at any time.

Subd. 2. [DURATION OF HOLD.] No person may be held under subdivision 1 longer than 72 hours, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays, without a court hearing to determine if the emergency hold should continue.

Sec. 16. [144.4183] [EMERGENCY HOLD HEARING.]

Subdivision 1. [TIME OF NOTICE.] Notice of the emergency hold hearing must be served upon the person held under section 15, subdivision 1, at least 24 hours before the hearing.

Subd. 2. [CONTENTS OF NOTICE.] The notice must contain the following information:

(1) the time, date, and place of the hearing;

(2) the grounds and underlying facts upon which continued detention is sought;

(3) the person's right to appear at the hearing;

(4) the person's right to present and cross-examine witnesses; and

(5) the person's right to counsel, including the right, if indigent, to representation by counsel designated by the court or county of venue.

Subd. 3. [ORDER FOR CONTINUED EMERGENCY HOLD.] The court may order the continued holding of the person if it finds, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the person would pose a threat to the public health if released. However, in no case may the emergency hold continue longer than five days, unless a petition is filed under section 6. If a petition is filed, the emergency hold must continue until a hearing on the petition is held under section 10. That hearing must occur within five days of the filing of the petition, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays.

Sec. 17. [144.4184] [CONTACT DATA.]

Identifying information voluntarily given to the commissioner, or an agent of the commissioner, by a carrier through a contact notification program must not be used as evidence in a court proceeding to determine noncompliant behavior.

Sec. 18. [144.4185] [COSTS.]

Subdivision 1. [COSTS OF CARE.] The court shall determine what part of the cost of care or treatment ordered by the court, if any, the respondent can pay. The respondent shall provide the court documents and other information necessary to determine financial ability. If the respondent cannot pay the full cost of care, the rest must be paid by the county in which respondent resides. If the respondent provides inaccurate or misleading information, or later becomes able to pay the full cost of care, the respondent becomes liable to the county for costs paid by the county.

Subd. 2. [COURT-APPOINTED COUNSEL.] If the court appoints counsel to represent respondent free of charge, counsel must be compensated by the county in which respondent resides, except to the extent that the court finds that the respondent is financially able to pay for counsel's services.

Subd. 3. [REPORT.] The commissioner shall report any recommendations for appropriate changes in the modes of financing of services provided under subdivision 1 by January 15, 1988.

Sec. 19. [144.4186] [DATA PRIVACY.]

Subdivision 1. [NONPUBLIC DATA.] Data contained in a health directive are classified as protected nonpublic data under section 13.02, subdivision 13, in the case of data not on individuals, and private under section 13.02, subdivision 12, in the case of data on individuals.

Subd. 2. [PROTECTIVE ORDER.] Once an action is commenced, any party may seek a protective order to protect the disclosure of portions of the court record identifying individuals or entities.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 144.50, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. (a) No person, partnership, association, or corporation, nor any state, county, or local governmental units, nor any division, department, board, or agency thereof, shall establish, operate, conduct, or maintain, or advertise in the state any hospital, sanatorium or other institution for the hospitalization or care of human beings without first obtaining a license therefor in the manner provided in sections 144.50 to 144.56.

(b) A violation of this subdivision is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than $300. The commissioner may seek an injunction in the district court against the continuing operation of the unlicensed institution.

Proceedings for securing an injunction may be brought by the attorney general or by the appropriate county attorney.

(c) The sanctions in this subdivision do not restrict other available sanctions.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 144.50, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Hospital, sanatorium or other institution for the hospitalization or care of human beings, within the meaning of sections 144.50 to 144.56 shall mean any institution, place, building, or agency, in which any accommodation is maintained, furnished, or offered for five or more persons for: the hospitalization of the sick or injured; the provision of care in a swing bed authorized under section 144.562; elective outpatient surgery for preexamined, prediagnosed low risk patients; emergency medical services offered 24 hours a day, seven days a week, in an ambulatory or outpatient setting in a facility not a part of a licensed hospital; or the institutional care of human beings. Nothing in sections 144.50 to 144.56 shall apply to a clinic, a physician's office or to hotels or other similar places that furnish only board and room, or either, to their guests.

Sec. 22. [144.555] [HOSPITAL CLOSINGS; PATIENT RELOCATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE OF CLOSING OR CURTAILING SERVICE.] If a facility licensed under sections 144.50 to 144.56 voluntarily plans to cease operations or to curtail operations to the extent that residents must be relocated, the controlling persons of the facility must notify the commissioner of health at least 90 days before the scheduled cessation or curtailment. The commissioner shall cooperate with the controlling persons and advise them about relocating the residents.

Subd. 2. [PENALTY.] Failure to notify the commissioner under subdivision 1 may result in issuance of a correction order under section 144.653, subdivision 5.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 144.653, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [ENFORCEMENT.] With the exception of the department of public safety which has the exclusive jurisdiction to enforce state fire and safety standards, the state commissioner of health is the exclusive state agency charged with the responsibility and duty of inspecting facilities required to be licensed under the provisions of sections 144.50 to 144.58 and enforcing the rules and standards prescribed by it.

The commissioner may request and must be given access to and copies of relevant information, records, incident reports, or other documents in the possession of a licensed facility if the commissioner considers them necessary for the discharge of responsibilities. For the purposes of inspections and securing information to determine compliance with the licensure laws and rules, the commissioner need not present a release, waiver, or consent of the individual. The identities of patients or residents must be kept private as defined by section 13.02, subdivision 12.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 144.802, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. (a) Each prospective licensee and each present licensee wishing to offer a new type or types of life support transportation service, to establish a new base of operation, or to expand a primary service area, shall make written application for a license to the commissioner on a form provided by the commissioner.

(b) For applications for the provision of life support transportation services in a service area located within a county, the commissioner shall promptly send notice of the completed application to the health systems agency or agencies, the county board and to each community health service agency or agencies board, regional emergency medical services system designated under section 144.8093, life support transportation service, and each municipality and county in the area in which life support transportation service would be provided by the applicant. The commissioner shall publish the notice, at the applicant's expense, in the state register and in a newspaper in the municipality in which the service would be provided base of operation will be located, or if no newspaper is published in the municipality or if the service would be provided in more than one municipality, in a newspaper published at the county seat of the county or counties in which the service would be provided.

(c) For applications for the provision of life support transportation services in a service area larger than a county, the commissioner shall promptly send notice of the completed application to the municipality in which the service's base of operation will be located and to each community health board, county board, regional emergency medical services system designated under section 144.8093, and life support transportation service located within the service area described by the applicant. The commissioner shall publish this notice, at the applicant's expense, in the state register and in a newspaper with statewide circulation.

(d) The commissioner shall request that the chief administrative law judge appoint an administrative law judge to hold a public hearing in the municipality in which the service's base of operation will be located.

(e) Each municipality, county, community health service, regional emergency medical services system, life support transportation service, and other person wishing to make recommendations concerning the disposition of the application shall make written recommendations to the health systems agency in its area administrative law judge within 30 days of the publication of notice of the application in the state register.

(f) The health systems agency or agencies administrative law judge shall:

(1) hold a public hearing in the municipality in which the service's base of operations is or will be located;

(2) provide notice of the public hearing in the newspaper or newspapers in which notice was published under part (b) or (c) for two successive weeks at least ten days before the date of the hearing;

(3) allow any interested person the opportunity to be heard, to be represented by counsel, and to present oral and written evidence at the public hearing;

(4) provide a transcript of the hearing at the expense of any individual requesting it; and

(5) follow any further procedure not inconsistent with chapter 14, which it deems appropriate.

(d) (g) The ~~health systems agency or agencies~~ administrative law judge shall review and comment upon the application and shall make written recommendations as to its disposition to the commissioner within 90 days of receiving notice of the application. In making the recommendations, the ~~health systems agency or agencies~~ administrative law judge shall consider and make written comments as to whether the proposed service, change in base of operations, or expansion in primary service area is needed, based on consideration of the following factors:

(1) the relationship of the proposed service, change in base of operations or expansion in primary service area to ~~the current health systems and annual implementation plans~~ community health plan as approved by the commissioner under section 145.918;

(2) the recommendations or comments of the governing bodies of the counties and municipalities in which the service would be provided;

(3) the ~~deleterious effects on the public health from~~ duplication, if any, of life support transportation services that would result from granting the license;

(4) the estimated effect of the proposed service, change in base of operation or expansion in primary service area on the public health;

(5) whether any benefit accruing to the public health would outweigh the costs associated with the proposed service, change in base of operations, or expansion in primary service area.

The ~~health systems agency or agencies~~ administrative law judge shall recommend that the commissioner either grant or deny a license or recommend that a modified license be granted. The reasons for the recommendation shall be set forth in detail. The ~~health systems agency or agencies~~ administrative law judge shall make the recommendations and reasons available to any individual requesting them.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 144.802, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. Within 30 days after receiving the ~~health systems agency recommendations~~ administrative law judge's report, the commissioner shall grant or deny a license to the applicant. In granting or denying a license, the commissioner shall consider the ~~health systems agency recommendations~~ administrative law judge's report, the evidence contained in the application, and any hearing record and other applicable evidence, ~~and whether any benefit accruing to the public health would outweigh the costs associated with the proposed service, change in base of operations, or expansion in primary service area.~~ The commissioner's decision shall be based on a consideration of the factors contained in subdivision 3, clause (f). If the commissioner's decision is different from the ~~health systems agency~~ administrative law judge's recommendations, the commissioner shall set forth in detail the reasons for differing from the recommendations.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 144.804, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [DRIVERS OF LIFE SUPPORT TRANSPORTATION SERVICE VEHICLES.] A life support transportation service vehicle may be staffed by a driver possessing a (1) current first responder certificate issued under United States Department of Transportation standards, ~~or (2) a valid class~~

~~C driver's license provided a siren and flashing lights are not used and the vehicle is driven within legal speed limits, if, in either case,~~ the life support transportation service vehicle is also staffed by two or more attendants meeting the following qualifications: (a) attendants staffing a basic life support transportation service vehicle shall meet the qualifications contained in subdivision 1; and (b) attendants staffing an advanced life support transportation service vehicle shall possess a current certification as an emergency medical technician or an emergency medical technician-paramedic, provided that at least one attendant is an emergency medical technician-paramedic.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 144A.10, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ENFORCEMENT AUTHORITY.] The commissioner of health is the exclusive state agency charged with the responsibility and duty of inspecting all facilities required to be licensed under section 144A.02. The commissioner of health shall enforce the rules established pursuant to sections 144A.01 to 144A.17, subject only to the authority of the department of public safety respecting the enforcement of fire and safety standards in nursing homes and the responsibility of the commissioner of human services under sections 245.781 to 245.821 or 252.28.

The commissioner may request and must be given access to and copies of relevant information, records, incident reports, or other documents in the possession of a licensed facility if the commissioner considers them necessary for the discharge of responsibilities. For the purposes of inspections and securing information to determine compliance with the licensure laws and rules, the commissioner need not present a release, waiver, or consent of the individual. The identities of patients or residents must be kept private as defined by section 13.02, subdivision 12.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 144A.10, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [INSPECTIONS.] The commissioner of health shall inspect each nursing home to ensure compliance with sections 144A.01 to 144A.17 and the rules promulgated to implement them. The inspection shall be a full inspection of the nursing home. If upon a reinspection provided for in subdivision 5 the representative of the commissioner of health finds one or more uncorrected violations, a second inspection of the facility shall be conducted. The second inspection need not be a full inspection. No prior notice shall be given of an inspection conducted pursuant to this subdivision. Any employee of the commissioner of health who willfully gives or causes to be given any advance notice of an inspection required or authorized by this subdivision shall be subject to suspension or dismissal in accordance with chapter 43A. An inspection required by a federal rule or statute may be conducted in conjunction with or subsequent to any other inspection. Any inspection required by this subdivision may be in addition to or in conjunction with the reinspections required by subdivision 5. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to prohibit the commissioner of health from making more than one unannounced inspection of any nursing home during its license year. The commissioner of health shall coordinate inspections of nursing homes with inspections by other state and local agencies consistent with the requirements of this section and the Medicare and Medicaid certification programs.

The commissioner shall conduct inspections and reinspections of health facilities with a frequency and in a manner calculated to produce the greatest benefit to residents within the limits of the resources available to the commissioner. In performing this function, the commissioner may devote proportionately more resources to the inspection of those facilities in which conditions present the most serious concerns with respect to resident health, treatment, comfort, safety, and well-being.

These conditions include but are not limited to: change in ownership; frequent change in administration in excess of normal turnover rates; complaints about care, safety, or rights; where previous inspections or re-inspections have resulted in correction orders related to care, safety, or rights; and, where persons involved in ownership or administration of the facility have been indicted for alleged criminal activity. Any facility that has none of the above conditions or any other condition established by the commissioner that poses a risk to resident care, safety, or rights shall be inspected once every two years.

Sec. 29. [144A.115] [VIOLATIONS; PENALTIES.]

Subdivision 1. [OPERATING WITHOUT A LICENSE.] The operation of a facility required to be licensed under sections 144A.02 to 144A.10 without a license is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than $300.

Subd. 2. [ADVERTISING WITHOUT A LICENSE.] A person or entity that advertises a facility required to be licensed under sections 144A.02 to 144A.10 before obtaining a license is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Subd. 3. [OTHER SANCTIONS.] The sanctions in this section do not restrict other available sanctions.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 144A.16, is amended to read:

144A.16 [CESSATION OF OPERATIONS.]

If a nursing home voluntarily plans to cease operations or to curtail operations to the extent that relocation of residents is necessary, the controlling persons of the facility shall notify the commissioner of health at least 90 days prior to the scheduled cessation or curtailment. The commissioner of health shall cooperate with and advise the controlling persons of the nursing home in the resettlement of residents. Failure to comply with this section shall be a violation of section 144A.10.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 144A.31, is amended to read:

144A.31 [INTERAGENCY BOARD FOR QUALITY ASSURANCE.]

Subdivision 1. [INTERAGENCY BOARD.] The commissioners of health and human services shall establish, by July 1, 1983, an interagency board of employees of their respective departments who are knowledgeable and employed in the areas of long-term care, geriatric care, long-term care facility inspection, or quality of care assurance. The number of interagency board members shall not exceed ~~seven~~ eight; three members each to represent the commissioners of health and human services and one member each to represent the commissioner of public safety in the enforcement of fire and safety standards in nursing homes. The commissioner of human services or a designee shall chair and convene the board directors of state planning and housing finance. The board shall identify long-term care issues requiring coordinated interagency policies and shall conduct analyses, coordinate policy development, and make recommendations to the commissioners for effective implementation of these policies. The commissioner of human services and the commissioner of health or their designees shall annually alternate chairing and convening the board. The board may utilize the expertise and time of other individuals employed by either department as needed. The board may recommend that the commissioners contract for services as needed. The board shall meet as often as necessary to accomplish its duties, but at least ~~monthly~~ quarterly. The board shall establish procedures, including public hearings, for allowing regular opportunities for input from residents, nursing homes, and other interested persons.

Subd. 2. [INSPECTIONS.] No later than January 1, ~~1984~~ 1988, the board shall develop and recommend implementation and enforcement of an effective system to ensure quality of care in each nursing home in the state. Quality of care includes evaluating, using the resident's care plan, whether the resident's ability to function is optimized and should not be measured solely by the number or amount of services provided.

The board shall assist the commissioner of health in ~~ensuring~~ developing methods to ensure that inspections and reinspections of nursing homes are conducted with a frequency and in a manner calculated to most effectively and appropriately fulfill its quality assurance responsibilities and achieve the greatest benefit to nursing home residents. The board shall identify and recommend criteria and methods for identifying those nursing homes that present the most serious concerns with respect to resident health, treatment, comfort, safety, and well-being. The commissioner of health shall require a higher frequency and extent of inspections with respect to those nursing homes that present the most serious concerns with respect to resident health, treatment, comfort, safety, and well-being. These concerns include but are not limited to: complaints about care, safety, or rights; situations where previous inspections or reinspections have resulted in correction orders related to care, safety, or rights; instances of frequent change in administration in excess of normal turnover rates; and situations where persons involved in ownership or administration of the nursing home have been convicted of engaging in criminal activity. A nursing home that presents none of these concerns or any other concern or condition recommended by the board and established by the ~~board~~ commissioner that poses a risk to resident care, safety, or rights shall be inspected once every two years for compliance with key requirements as determined by the board.

The board shall develop and recommend to the commissioners mechanisms beyond the inspection process to protect resident care, safety, and rights, including but not limited to coordination with the office of health facility complaints and the nursing home ombudsman program.

Subd. 3. [METHODS FOR DETERMINING RESIDENT CARE NEEDS.] The board shall develop and recommend to the commissioners definitions for levels of care and methods for determining resident care needs for implementation on July 1, 1985 in order to adjust payments for resident care based on the mix of resident needs in a nursing home. The methods for determining resident care needs shall include assessments of ability to perform activities of daily living and assessments of medical and therapeutic needs.

Subd. 4. [ENFORCEMENT.] The board shall develop and recommend for implementation effective methods of enforcing quality of care standards.

When it deems necessary, and when all other methods of enforcement are not appropriate, the board shall recommend to the commissioner of health closure of all or part of a nursing home or certified boarding care home and revocation of the license. The board shall develop and monitor, and the commissioner of human services shall implement, a resident relocation plan that instructs the a county in which the a nursing home or certified boarding care home is located of procedures to ensure that the needs of residents in nursing homes or certified boarding care homes about to be closed are met. The duties of a county under the relocation plan also apply when residents are to be discharged from a nursing home or certified boarding care home as a result of a change in certification, closure, or loss or termination of the facility's medical assistance provider agreement. The resident relocation plans and county duties required in this subdivision apply to the voluntary or involuntary closure, or reduction in services or size of, an intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded. The relocation plan for intermediate care facilities for the mentally retarded must conform to Minnesota Rules, parts 4655.6810 to 4655.6830, 9525.0015 to 9525.0165, and 9546.0010 to 9546.0060, or their successors. The commissioner of human services may waive a portion of existing rules that the commissioner determines does not apply to persons with mental retardation or related conditions. The county shall ensure appropriate placement in swing beds in hospitals, placement in unoccupied beds in other nursing homes, utilization of residents in licensed and certified facilities or other alternative care such as home health care on a temporary basis, and foster care placement, or other appropriate alternative care. In preparing for relocation, the board shall ensure that residents and their families or guardians are involved in planning the relocation.

Subd. 5. [REPORTS.] The board shall prepare a report and the commissioners of health and human services shall deliver this report to the legislature no later than January 15, 1984, on the board's proposals and progress on implementation of the methods required under subdivisions subdivision 2, 3, and 4. The commissioners shall recommend changes in or additions to legislation necessary or desirable to fulfill their responsibilities. The board shall prepare an annual report and the commissioners shall deliver this report annually to the legislature, beginning in January, 1985, on the implementation and enforcement of the provisions of this section.

Subd. 6. [DATA.] The interagency board may have access to data from the commissioners of health, human services, and public safety for carrying out its duties under this section. The commissioner of health and the commissioner of human services may each have access to data on persons, including data on vendors of services, from the other to carry out the purposes of this section. If the interagency board, the commissioner of health, or the commissioner of human services receives data on persons, including data on vendors of services, that is collected, maintained, used or disseminated in an investigation, authorized by statute and relating to enforcement of rules or law, the board or the commissioner shall not disclose that information except:

- (a) pursuant to section 13.05;
- (b) pursuant to statute or valid court order; or
- (c) to a party named in a civil or criminal proceeding, administrative or judicial, for preparation of defense.

Data described in this subdivision is classified as public data upon its submission to an administrative law judge or court in an administrative or judicial proceeding.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 144A.53, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [POWERS.] The director may:

(a) Promulgate by rule, pursuant to chapter 14, and within the limits set forth in subdivision 2, the methods by which complaints against health facilities, health care providers or administrative agencies are to be made, reviewed, investigated, and acted upon; provided, however, that a fee may not be charged for filing a complaint.

(b) Recommend legislation and changes in rules to the state commissioner of health, legislature, governor, administrative agencies or the federal government.

(c) Investigate, upon a complaint or upon initiative of the director, any action or failure to act by a health care provider or a health facility.

(d) Request and receive access to relevant information, records, incident reports, or documents in the possession of an administrative agency, a health care provider, or a health facility, and issue investigative subpoenas to individuals and facilities for oral information and written information, including privileged information which the director deems necessary for the discharge of responsibilities. For purposes of investigation and securing information to determine violations, the director need not present a release, waiver, or consent of an individual. The identities of patients or residents must be kept private as defined by section 13.02, subdivision 12.

(e) Enter and inspect, at any time, a health facility and be permitted to interview staff; provided that the director shall not unduly interfere with or disturb the provision of care and services within the facility or the activities of a patient or resident unless the patient or resident consents.

(f) Issue a correction order pursuant to section 144.653 or any other law which provides for the issuance of correction orders to health care facilities. A facility's refusal to cooperate in providing lawfully requested information may also be grounds for a correction order.

(g) Recommend the certification or decertification of health facilities pursuant to Title XVIII or Title XIX of the United States Social Security Act.

(h) Assist patients or residents of health facilities in the enforcement of their rights under Minnesota law; ~~and~~.

(i) Work with administrative agencies, health facilities, health care providers and organizations representing consumers on programs designed to provide information about health facilities to the public and to health facility residents.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 145.881, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [COMPOSITION OF TASK FORCE.] The commissioner shall establish and appoint a maternal and child health advisory task force consisting of 15 members who will provide equal representation from:

(1) professionals with expertise in maternal and child health services;

(2) representatives of local health boards as defined in section 145.913; and

(3) consumer representatives interested in the health of mothers and children.

No members shall be employees of the state department of health. Task force members shall be appointed and removed as provided in section 15.059, ~~subdivision 6. Notwithstanding section 15.059, subdivisions 5 and 6,~~ subdivisions 2 and 4. The maternal and child health advisory task force shall terminate on ~~June 30, 1987~~ the date provided by section 15.059, subdivision 5, and members shall receive compensation as provided in section 15.059, subdivision 6.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 145.882, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [DISTRIBUTION FORMULA.] The amount available for each community health services area is determined according to the following formula:

(a) Each community health services area is allocated an amount based on the following three variables:

(1) the proportion of resident mothers within the city, county, or counties who are under 20 years of age or over 35 years of age, as determined by averaging the data available for the three most current years;

(2) the proportion of resident infants within the city, county, or counties whose weight at birth is less than 2,500 grams, as determined by averaging the data available for the three most current years; and

(3) the proportion of resident children within the city, county, or counties under the age of 19 who are on general assistance or medical assistance and the proportion of resident women within the city, county, or counties aged 19 to 49 who are on general assistance or medical assistance, as determined by using the data available for the most current year.

(b) Each variable is expressed as a city or county score consisting of the city or county frequency of each variable divided by the statewide frequency of the variable.

(c) A total score for each city or county jurisdiction is computed by totaling the scores of the three factors and dividing the total by three. The resulting amount is added to the total score for the most recent two-year grant period and the sum is divided by two.

(d) Each community health services area is allocated an amount equal to the total score obtained above for the city, county, or counties in its area multiplied by the amount of money available for special projects of local significance.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 157.01, is amended to read:
157.01 [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [TYPES OF ESTABLISHMENTS.] Every building or structure or enclosure, or any part thereof, kept, used as, maintained as, or advertised as, or held out to the public to be an enclosure where sleeping accommodations are furnished to the public and furnishing accommodations for periods of less than one week shall for the purpose of this chapter be deemed an hotel.

Every building or other structure or enclosure, or any part thereof and all buildings in connection, kept, used or maintained as, or advertised as, or held out to the public to be an enclosure where meals or lunches are served or prepared for service elsewhere shall for the purpose of this chapter be deemed to be a restaurant, and the person in charge thereof, whether as owner, lessee, manager or agent, for the purpose of this chapter shall be deemed the proprietor of the restaurant, and whenever the word "restaurant" occurs in this chapter, it shall be construed to mean a structure as described in this section.

Every building or structure, or any part thereof, kept, used as, maintained as, advertised as, or held out to be a place where sleeping accommodations are furnished to the public as regular roomers, for periods of one week or more, and having five or more beds to let to the public, shall, for the purpose of this chapter, be deemed a lodging house.

Every building or structure or enclosure, or any part thereof, used as, maintained as, or advertised as, or held out to be an enclosure where meals or lunches are furnished to five or more regular boarders, whether with or without sleeping accommodations, for periods of one week or more, shall, for the purpose of this chapter, be deemed a boarding house.

Every building or structure, or any part thereof, used as, maintained as, or advertised as, or held out to be a place where confectionery, ice cream, or drinks of various kinds are made, sold or served at retail, shall, for the purpose of this chapter, be deemed to be a place of refreshment. This chapter shall not be applicable in any manner to a general merchandise store, grocery store, oil station, cigar stand, confectionery store, or drug store not providing meals, lunches, lodging, or fountain, bar, booth, or table service.

For the purpose of this chapter, a resort means any building, structure, or enclosure, or any part thereof, located on, or on property neighboring, any lake, stream, or skiing or hunting area for purposes of providing convenient access thereto, kept, used, maintained, or advertised as, or held out to the public to be an enclosure where sleeping accommodations are furnished to the public, and primarily to those seeking recreation, for periods of one day, one week, or longer, and having for rent five or more cottages, rooms, or enclosures.

Subd. 2. [LEVELS OF RISK.] (a) "High-risk establishment" means any lodging house, hotel, motel, restaurant, boarding house, place of refreshment, or resort that:

(1) serves potentially hazardous foods that require extensive processing on the premises, including manual handling, cooling, reheating, or holding for service;

(2) prepares foods several hours or days before service;

(3) serves menu items that epidemiologic experience has demonstrated to be common vehicles of food-borne illness;

(4) has a public swimming pool;

(5) draws its drinking water from a surface water supply; or

(6) has an on-site sewage disposal system and is located in an area where conditions are less favorable for the successful operation of such a system.

(b) "Medium-risk establishment" means a hotel, motel, restaurant, lodging house, boarding house, place of refreshment, or resort that:

(1) serves potentially hazardous foods but with minimal holding between preparation and service;

(2) serves low-risk foods that may or may not be potentially hazardous but require extensive handling, such as baked goods and pizzas;

(3) serves large volumes of food even though the food-borne illness risk is low; or

(4) is a lodging establishment with 25 or more units.

(c) "Low-risk establishment" means a hotel, motel, restaurant, lodging house, boarding house, place of refreshment, or resort that is not a high-risk or medium-risk establishment.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 157.02, is amended to read:

157.02 [HOTEL INSPECTOR INSPECTION RECORDS.]

The ~~hotel inspector~~ commissioner of health shall keep a set of books for public use and inspection showing the condition of all hotels, motels, restaurants, lodging houses, boarding houses, resorts, and places of refreshment, together with the name of the owner, proprietor, or manager thereof, showing their sanitary condition, and any other information that may be for the betterment of the public service, and ~~likewise assist in the enforcement of any orders promulgated by the state commissioner of health and the department of agriculture~~ issue orders for correction of violations relating to hotels, motels, restaurants, lodging houses, boarding houses, resorts, and places of refreshment.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 157.04, is amended to read:

157.04 [ANNUAL INSPECTION.]

It shall be the duty of the ~~hotel inspector~~ commissioner of health to inspect, or cause to be inspected, ~~at least once annually~~, every hotel, motel, restaurant, lodging house, boarding house, or resort, or place of refreshment in this state. The frequency of inspections must be based on the degree of hazard to the public. High-risk establishments must be inspected at least once a year. Medium-risk establishments must be inspected at least once every 18 months. Low-risk establishments must be inspected at least once every two years. For ~~this~~ the purpose of conducting inspections, the ~~inspector~~ commissioner shall have the right to enter and have access thereto at any time during the conduct of business and when, upon inspection, it shall be found that the business and property so inspected is not being conducted, or is not equipped, in the manner required by the provisions of this chapter or the rules of the state commissioner of health, or is being conducted in violation of any of the laws of this state pertaining to the business, it shall thereupon be the duty of the ~~hotel inspector~~ commissioner to notify the owner, proprietor, or agent in charge of the business, or the owner or agent of the buildings so occupied, of the condition so found. Each owner, proprietor, or agent shall forthwith comply with the provisions of this chapter or the rules of the commissioner, unless otherwise herein provided. A reasonable time may be granted by the ~~hotel inspector~~ commissioner for compliance with the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 157.09, is amended to read:

157.09 [REVOCAION OF LICENSE.]

It shall be the duty of the ~~state hotel inspector~~ commissioner of health to revoke a license, on the ~~inspector's~~ commissioner's finding that a place of business is being operated in violation of the provisions of this chapter or rules of the state commissioner of health, so as to constitute a filthy, unclean, and insanitary condition and dangerous to public health; or, if the owner or proprietor persistently refuses or fails to comply with the provisions of this chapter or rules of the commissioner. Upon revocation of a license, the place of business shall be immediately closed to public patronage until such time as the owner or proprietor shall have complied with the provisions of this chapter, as certified to by the issuance of a new license.

The third revocation of license in any one year and on any one proprietor shall be made permanent for a period of one year from the date of the last revocation.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 157.14, is amended to read:

157.14 [EXEMPTIONS.]

This chapter shall not be construed to apply to interstate carriers under the supervision of the United States Department of Health, Education and Welfare or to any building constructed and primarily used for religious worship, nor to any building owned, operated and used by a college or university in accordance with regulations promulgated by the college or university. Any person, firm or corporation whose principal mode of business is licensed under sections 28A.04 and 28A.05 is exempt at that premises from licensure as a place of refreshment or restaurant; provided, that the holding of any license pursuant to sections 28A.04 and 28A.05 shall not exempt any person, firm, or corporation from the applicable provisions of the chapter or the rules of the state commissioner of health relating to food and beverage service establishments. This chapter does not apply to family day-care homes or group family day-care homes governed by sections 245.781 to 245.812.

Sec. 40. [INSTRUCTION TO REVISOR.]

In the next and later editions of Minnesota Statutes, the revisor of statutes shall change the words "life support transportation service" to "ambulance service" in sections 144.801 to 144.8093 and 174.29.

Sec. 41. [REPEALER.]

Subd. 3. [EXCLUSIONS.] Without intent to preclude the courts from finding additional cases where the state and its employees should not, in equity and good conscience, pay compensation for personal injuries or property losses, the legislature declares that the state and its employees are not liable for the following losses:

(a) Any loss caused by an act or omission of a state employee exercising due care in the execution of a valid or invalid statute or rule;

(b) Any loss caused by the performance or failure to perform a discretionary duty, whether or not the discretion is abused;

(c) Any loss in connection with the assessment and collection of taxes;

(d) Any loss caused by snow or ice conditions on any highway or public sidewalk that does not abut a publicly-owned building or a publicly-owned parking lot, except when the condition is affirmatively caused by the negligent acts of a state employee;

(e) Any loss caused by wild animals in their natural state, except as provided in section 2;

(f) Any loss other than injury to or loss of property or personal injury or death;

(g) Any loss caused by the condition of unimproved real property owned by the state, which means land that the state has not improved, and appurtenances, fixtures and attachments to land that the state has neither affixed nor improved;

(h) Any loss incurred by a user within the boundaries of the outdoor recreation system and arising from the construction, operation, or maintenance of the system, as defined in section 86A.04, or from the clearing of land, removal of refuse, and creation of trails or paths without artificial surfaces, or from the construction, operation, or maintenance of a water access site created by the iron range resources and rehabilitation board, except that the state is liable for conduct that would entitle a trespasser to damages against a private person;

(i) Any loss of benefits or compensation due under a program of public assistance or public welfare, except where state compensation for loss is expressly required by federal law in order for the state to receive federal grants-in-aid;

(j) Any loss based on the failure of any person to meet the standards needed for a license, permit, or other authorization issued by the state or its agents;

(k) Any loss based on the usual care and treatment, or lack of care and treatment, of any person at a state hospital or state corrections facility where reasonable use of available appropriations has been made to provide care;

(l) Any loss, damage, or destruction of property of a patient or inmate of a state institution;

(m) Any loss for which recovery is prohibited by section 169.121, subdivision 9.

The state will not pay punitive damages.

Sec. 2. [3.7371] [COMPENSATION FOR CROP DAMAGE CAUSED BY ELK.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZATION.] A person who owns an agricultural crop shall be compensated by the commissioner of agriculture for an agricultural crop that is damaged or destroyed by elk as provided in this section.

Subd. 2. [CLAIM FORM.] The crop owner must prepare a claim on forms provided by the commissioner of agriculture and available at the county extension agent's office. The claim form must be filed with the commissioner of agriculture.

Subd. 3. [COMPENSATION DETERMINATION.] (a) The commissioner of agriculture, upon recommendation of the county extension agent where the damaged or destroyed crop is located or a federal crop adjuster, shall determine the amount of crop damage or destruction caused by elk, if any. The commissioner shall pay the crop owner the target price of the crop that is damaged or destroyed by elk, plus adjustments for yield loss determined according to agricultural stabilization and conservation service programs for individual farms, adjusted annually, as determined by the commissioner of agriculture.

(b) A crop owner may not be compensated for crops damaged or destroyed by elk if the amount is less than $100. A crop owner may be compensated up to $20,000 for damages and destruction to crops in a calendar year, provided normal harvest procedures for the area are followed.

(c) Payments authorized under this section must be reduced by amounts received by the crop owner as proceeds from an insurance policy covering crop losses, or compensation for the crops from other sources including federal programs.

(d) A crop owner who receives compensation under this section may open land owned or controlled by the owner to licensed elk hunters during the next open elk season by written permission at the landowner's discretion.

Subd. 4. [APPROPRIATION.] The amount of money necessary to pay the compensation awarded by the commissioner is appropriated annually to the commissioner of agriculture from the general fund.

Subd. 5. [DENIAL OF CLAIM; APPEAL.] (a) If the commissioner denies compensation claimed by a crop owner under this section, the commissioner shall issue a written decision based upon the available evidence including a statement of the facts upon which the decision is based and the conclusions on the material issues of the claim. A copy of the decision must be transmitted to the crop owner by first class mail.

(b) A decision denying compensation claimed under this section is not subject to the contested case review procedures of chapter 14, but a crop owner may have the claim reviewed in a trial de novo in the county court in the county where the loss occurred. The decision of the county court may be appealed as in other civil cases. Review in the county court may be obtained by the filing of a petition for review with the administrator of the county court within 60 days following receipt of a decision under this section. Upon the filing of a petition, the administrator of the county court shall mail a copy of it to the commissioner and set a time for hearing within 90 days after the filing of the petition.

Subd. 6. [RULES.] The commissioner of agriculture shall adopt rules and may adopt emergency rules to implement this section including:

- (1) methods for determining values of damaged or destroyed crops;
- (2) criteria for determining the cause of the crop damage or destruction;
- (3) requirements for an owner of a damaged or destroyed crop to notify the commissioner; and
- (4) other matters necessary to implement this section.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.421, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [APPLICABILITY TO MOOSE OR ELK LICENSES.] In this section the term "license" includes an application for a license to take moose or elk.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.431, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [APPLICATION FOR LICENSE.] An application for a moose license must be on a form provided by the commissioner and accompanied by a $4 $3 nonrefundable application fee per person and a $10 fee per person for elk. A person may not make more than one application for each season. If a person makes more than one application, the person is ineligible for a license for that season after determination by the commissioner, without a hearing.

Sec. 5. [97A.433] [ELK LICENSES.]

Subdivision 1. [NUMBER OF LICENSES.] The commissioner shall include the number of licenses to be issued in an order setting the dates for an elk season.

Subd. 2. [ELIGIBILITY.] Persons eligible for an elk license shall be determined under this section and commissioner's order. A person is eligible for an elk license only if the person:

- (1) is a resident;*
- (2) is at least age 16 before the season opens; and*
- (3) has never been issued an elk license.*

Subd. 3. [APPLICATION FOR LICENSE.] An application for an elk license must be on a form provided by the commissioner and accompanied by a $10 nonrefundable application fee per person. A person may not make more than one application for each season. If a person makes more than one application, the person is ineligible for a license for that season after determination by the commissioner, without a hearing.

Subd. 4. [SEPARATE SELECTION; ELIGIBILITY.] The commissioner may conduct a separate selection for up to 20 percent of the elk licenses to be issued for an area. Only owners of, and tenants living on, at least 160 acres of agricultural or grazing land in the area are eligible for the separate selection. Persons that are unsuccessful in a separate selection must be included in the selection for the remaining licenses. Persons who obtain an elk license in a separate selection must allow public elk hunting on their land during the elk season for which the license is valid.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.465, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [RESIDENTS ON LEAVE.] A resident that is in the armed forces of the United States, stationed outside of the state, and in the state on leave, may hunt and fish without a license if the resident possesses official military leave papers. The resident must obtain the seals, tags, and coupons required of a licensee, which must be furnished without charge. This subdivision does not apply to the taking of moose or elk.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.465, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [NONRESIDENTS STATIONED IN THE STATE.] The commissioner may issue a resident license to take fish or game to a person in the armed forces of the United States that is stationed in the state. This subdivision does not apply to the taking of moose or elk.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.471, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [NONAPPLICABILITY TO MOOSE HUNTING.] This section does not apply to taking moose or elk.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.475, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [RESIDENT HUNTING.] Fees for the following licenses, to be issued to residents only, are:

- (1) for persons under age 65 to take small game, $7;
- (2) for persons age 65 or over, $3.50;
- (3) to take turkey, $10;
- (4) to take deer with firearms, $15;
- (5) to take deer by archery, $15;
- (6) to take moose, for a party of not more than four persons, $200; and
- (7) to take bear, $25; and
- (8) to take elk, for a party of not more than two persons, $200.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.525, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [RESIDENTS.] A resident may transport wild animals within the state by common carrier without being in the vehicle if the resident has the license required to take the animals and they are shipped to the resident. The wild animals that may be transported by common carrier are:

- (1) deer, bear, elk, and moose;
- (2) undressed game birds; and
- (3) fish.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.535, is amended to read:

97A.535 [POSSESSION AND TRANSPORTATION OF DEER, BEAR, ELK, AND MOOSE.]

Subdivision 1. [TAGS REQUIRED.] A person may not possess or transport deer, bear, elk, or moose taken in the state unless a tag is attached to the carcass in a manner prescribed by the commissioner. The commissioner must prescribe the type of tag that has the license number of the owner, the year of its issue, and other information prescribed by the commissioner. The tag must be attached to the deer, bear, elk, or moose when:

- (1) the animal is in a camp, or a place occupied overnight or the yard surrounding the place; or
- (2) the animal is on a motor vehicle.

Subd. 2. [DEER TAKEN BY ARCHERY, ELK, AND MOOSE MUST HAVE ADDITIONAL TAG.] Deer taken by archery, elk, and moose must be tagged as prescribed by the commissioner, in addition to the tag required in subdivision 1.

Subd. 3. [TRANSPORTATION PERIOD RESTRICTED.] A person may transport one deer, one bear, one elk, or one moose during the open season and the two days following the season, and afterwards as prescribed by the commissioner.

Subd. 4. [TRANSPORTATION BY PERSON OTHER THAN LICENSEE.] A person other than the licensee may transport deer, bear, elk, or moose that the licensee has registered as prescribed by the commissioner. The person must transport the animal by the most direct route. A tag must be attached to the animal and marked in ink with the address, license number, signature of the licensee, and the locations from which and to which the animal is being transported.

Subd. 5. [HEADS, HIDES, AND CLAWS.] A resident that has a license to take deer, bear, elk, or moose may transport the head or hide of the animal within or out of the state for mounting or tanning. The hides of deer, bear, elk, and moose, and the claws of bear legally taken and with the tags that are required by this section, may be bought, sold, and transported at any time.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97B.201, is amended to read:
97B.201 [NO OPEN SEASON FOR ~~ELK~~, CARIBOU, AND ANTELOPE.]

There may not be an open season on ~~elk~~, caribou, or antelope.

Sec. 13. [97B.515] [ELK; LICENSE REQUIRED, SEASONS, RESTRICTIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSE REQUIRED.] A person may not take an elk without an elk license.

Subd. 2. [SEASON AND RESTRICTIONS.] The commissioner may, by order, prescribe the open season and the areas and conditions for the taking of elk when the population of elk in the state before calving exceeds 20 animals.

Subd. 3. [STAND RESTRICTIONS.] A person may not take elk from a constructed platform or other structure higher than nine feet above the ground. The restriction does not apply to a portable stand that is chained, belted, clamped, or tied with rope.

Sec. 14. [ELK MANAGEMENT PLAN.]

The commissioner of natural resources must prepare an elk management plan that:

- (1) recognizes the value and uniqueness of elk;*
- (2) affords multiple recreational opportunities; and*
- (3) attempts to restrict elk to public land.*

The commissioner of natural resources must submit the elk management plan to the chairs of the environment and natural resources committees of the house of representatives and the senate.

Sec. 15. [REPEALER.]

Laws 1985, chapter 272, sections 2 and 3, are repealed.

Sec. 16. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 15 are effective the day following final enactment, except a person may not apply for crop damage until after the commissioner of agriculture promulgates rules under section 2 and a person is only eligible for crop damage occurring after January 1, 1985."

Mr. Solon from the Committee on Commerce, to which was referred

S.F. No. 728: A bill for an act relating to commerce; requiring that solicitations for new open-end credit contain specific disclosures respecting conditions and costs; prescribing penalties; providing remedies; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 334.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [325G.40] [CITATION.]

Sections 1 to 6 may be cited as the "credit card disclosure act."

Sec. 2. [325G.41] [DEFINITIONS AND COMPUTATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] Except as otherwise provided, the terms used in sections 1 to 6 have the meanings prescribed in Code of Federal Regulations, title 12, part 226. Except as otherwise provided, the computations required under sections 1 to 6 shall be made as provided in Code of Federal Regulations, title 12, part 226.

Subd. 2. [CREDIT CARD APPLICATION.] "Credit card application" means any written form, document, or material distributed by or on behalf of a creditor and designed to be used by a consumer to request or accept the issuance of a credit card.

Subd. 3. [CREDITOR.] "Creditor" includes any credit card issuer that extends either open-end credit or credit that is not subject to a finance charge and is not payable in installments.

Sec. 3. [325G.42] [CREDIT CARD DISCLOSURES.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIRED DISCLOSURES.] A credit card application distributed in this state must disclose the following terms of the credit card plan, if applicable:

(1) Any periodic rate or rates that may be applied to the account, expressed as an annual percentage rate or rates. If the account is subject to a variable rate, the creditor may disclose the rate as of a specific date and indicate that the rate may vary, or may identify the index and any amount or percentage added to, or subtracted from, that index and used to determine the rate. For purposes of this section, the amount or percentage must be referred to as the "spread." If charges incurred by use of the credit card are due and payable upon receipt of a periodic statement of charges, then that fact must be disclosed.

(2) Any membership, participation, or similar fee that may be imposed as a condition of the issuance or renewal of a credit card, expressed as an annual amount.

(3) Any minimum, fixed, transaction, activity, or similar charge.

(4) Any other fees that may be charged to the account, including late payment fees and charges for exceeding credit limits.

(5) The date or occasion upon which the finance charge, if any, begins to accrue on a transaction.

Subd. 2. [FORM OF DISCLOSURES.] The disclosures required under this section shall be written in plain language, as defined in section 325G.31; shall be in boldface type of a minimum size of ten points; shall be clear and conspicuous; and shall be prominently set apart from the remaining portions of the credit card application or other written material, by the use of margins, enclosures, underlining, contrasting colors, or similar methods.

Subd. 3. [OPTIONAL DISCLOSURE CHART.] A creditor need not present the disclosures required by subdivision 1 in any specific form other than as provided in subdivision 2. However, the disclosures are conclusively presumed to satisfy the requirements of subdivision 1 if the disclosures satisfy the requirements of subdivision 2 and are presented in a chart, substantially similar to the following description:

(1) The chart shall consist of contiguous boxes, and each required disclosure shall appear exclusively within one of the boxes.

(2) The first box shall contain the wording "ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE" if the creditor charges a fixed rate, or "VARIABLE RATE INDEX AND SPREAD," if appropriate, underneath which the creditor's rate will appear. If full payment is due upon receipt of a periodic statement of charges, then the first box shall state "Full payment due upon receipt of billing statement."

(3) The second box shall contain the wording "OTHER FEES" and shall disclose all other fees, including late payment penalties and any charges for exceeding the credit limit.

(4) The third box shall contain the wording "ANNUAL FEE," underneath which the appropriate information shall be disclosed.

(5) The fourth box shall contain the wording "TRANSACTION FEE," underneath which the appropriate information shall be disclosed.

(6) The fifth box shall contain the wording "FREE PERIOD" or "GRACE PERIOD," underneath which the appropriate information shall be disclosed. For example, "30 days," or "yes, if full payment is received by next billing date," or "yes, if full new balance is paid by due date."

Subd. 4. [ADDITIONAL DISCLOSURES PERMITTED.] Nothing in this section prohibits a creditor from disclosing additional terms, conditions, or information, whether or not relating to the disclosures required under this section, in conjunction with the disclosures required by this section.

Subd. 5. [EXCEPTION.] This section does not apply to any advertisement, catalogue, or other written document or material which does not contain a credit card application.

Sec. 4. [325G.43] [PENALTIES.]

A person violating section 3 is subject to the penalties provided in section 8.31.

Sec. 5. [325G.44] [DAMAGES.]

A person injured by a violation of section 3 may recover actual damages in an action other than a class action, together with costs and disbursements, including a reasonable attorney's fee, and receive other equitable relief as determined by the court.

Sec. 6. [325G.45] [FEDERAL LAW.]

If a creditor is required under federal law to make disclosure of the terms required in section 3 in connection with the distribution of a credit card application, then the creditor is considered to have complied with the requirements of section 3 if the creditor complies with the federal disclosure requirement.

Sec. 7. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 6 are effective January 1, 1988."

S.F. No. 1175: A bill for an act relating to courts; authorizing the court to sell computer software and apply the proceeds to court functions; establishing a client security fund; appropriating money; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapters 480 and 481.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [480.236] [SOFTWARE SALES.]

The supreme court may sell or license self-developed or vendor custom-developed computer software products or systems through whatever sales method the supreme court, in its discretion, deems appropriate, in order to offset its software development costs. Prices for the software products or systems may be based on market considerations. Proceeds of the sale or licensing of software products or systems by the supreme court must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to a software sales account. Investment income and investment losses attributable to investment of the software sales account must be credited to the account. Money in the account is appropriated to the supreme court to operate and improve the trial court information system and other court information systems.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 481.02, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PERMITTED ACTIONS.] The provisions of this section shall not prohibit:

(1) any person from drawing, without charge, any document to which the person, an employer of the person, a firm of which the person is a member, or a corporation whose officer or employee the person is, is a party, except another's will or testamentary disposition or instrument of trust serving purposes similar to those of a will;

(2) a person from drawing a will for another in an emergency if the imminence of death leaves insufficient time to have it drawn and its execution supervised by a licensed attorney at law;

(3) any one, acting as broker for the parties or agent of one of the parties to a sale or trade or lease of property or to a loan, from drawing or assisting in drawing, with or without charge, papers incident to the sale, trade, lease, or loan;

(4) any insurance company from causing to be defended, or from offering to cause to be defended through lawyers of its selection, the insureds in policies issued or to be issued by it, in accordance with the terms of the policies;

(5) a licensed attorney at law from acting for several common-carrier corporations or any of its subsidiaries pursuant to arrangement between the corporations;

(6) any bona fide labor organization from giving legal advice to its members in matters arising out of their employment;

(7) any person from conferring or cooperating with a licensed attorney at law of another in preparing any legal document, if the attorney is not, directly or indirectly, in the employ of the person or of any person, firm, or corporation represented by the person;

(8) any licensed attorney at law of Minnesota, who is an officer or employee of a corporation, from drawing, for or without compensation, any document to which the corporation is a party or in which it is interested personally or in a representative capacity, except wills or testamentary dispositions or instruments of trust serving purposes similar to those of a will, but any charge made for the legal work connected with preparing and drawing the document shall not exceed the amount paid to and received and retained by the attorney, and the attorney shall not, directly or indirectly, rebate the fee to or divide the fee with the corporation;

(9) any person or corporation from drawing, for or without a fee, farm or house leases, notes, mortgages, chattel mortgages, bills of sale, deeds, assignments, satisfactions or any other conveyances except testamentary dispositions and instruments of trust;

(10) a licensed attorney at law of Minnesota from rendering to a corporation legal services to itself at the expense of one or more of its bona fide principal stockholders by whom the attorney is employed and by whom no compensation is, directly or indirectly, received for the services;

(11) any person or corporation engaged in the business of making collections from engaging or turning over to an attorney at law for the purpose of instituting and conducting suit or making proof of claim of a creditor in any case in which the attorney at law receives the entire compensation for the work;

(12) any regularly established farm journal or newspaper, devoted to general news, from publishing a department of legal questions and answers to them, made by a licensed attorney at law, if no answer is accompanied or at any time preceded or followed by any charge for it, any disclosure of any name of the maker of any answer, any recommendation of or reference to any one to furnish legal advice or services, or by any legal advice or service for the periodical or any one connected with it or suggested by it, directly or indirectly;

(13) any authorized management agent of an owner of rental property used for residential purposes, whether the management agent is a natural person, corporation, partnership, limited partnership, or any other business entity, from commencing, maintaining, conducting, or defending in its own behalf any action in any court in this state to recover or retain possession of the property, except that the provision of this clause does not authorize a person who is not a licensed attorney at law to conduct a jury trial or to appear before a district court or the court of appeals or supreme court pursuant to an appeal; and

(14) any person from commencing, maintaining, conducting, or defending on behalf of the plaintiff or defendant any action in any ~~county or municipal~~ court of this state pursuant to the provisions of section 566.175 or sections 566.18 to 566.33 or from commencing, maintaining, conducting, or defending on behalf of the plaintiff or defendant any action in any ~~county or county municipal~~ court of this state for the recovery of rental property used for residential purposes pursuant to the provisions of sections 566.02 or 566.03, subdivision 1, except that the provision of this clause does not authorize a person who is not a licensed attorney at law to conduct a jury trial or to appear before a district court or the court of appeals or supreme court pursuant to an appeal, and provided that, except for a non-profit corporation, a person who is not a licensed attorney at law shall not charge or collect a separate fee for services rendered pursuant to this clause.

Sec. 3. [481.20] [CLIENT SECURITY ACCOUNT.]

Fees received under rules or orders adopted by the supreme court governing a client security fund or account must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to a client security account. Investment income and investment losses attributable to investment of the client security account must be credited to the account. Money in the account is appropriated to the supreme court to pay the expenses of the client security board and claims approved by the board."

351.01 [RESIGNATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [TO WHOM MADE.] Resignations shall be made in writing signed by the resigning officer:

(1) By incumbents of elective offices, to the officer authorized by law to fill a vacancy in such office by appointment, or to order a special election to fill the vacancy;

(2) By appointive officers, to the body, board, or officer appointing them, unless otherwise specially provided.

Subd. 2. [WHEN EFFECTIVE.] Except as provided by subdivision 3 or other express provision of law or charter to the contrary, a resignation is effective when it is received by the officer, body, or board authorized to receive it.

Subd. 3. [CONTINGENT RESIGNATIONS PROHIBITED; EXCEPTION.] (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), no resignation may be made to take effect upon the occurrence of a future contingency. Statements explaining the reasons for a resignation must not be considered to be contingencies unless expressly stated as contingencies.

(b) A resignation may be made expressly to take effect at a stated future date. Unless it is withdrawn as provided under subdivision 4, a resignation is effective at 12:01 a.m. on the stated date.

Subd. 4. [WITHDRAWAL OF RESIGNATION.] A prospective resignation permitted by subdivision 3 may only be withdrawn by a written statement signed by the officer and submitted in the same manner as the resignation, before it has been accepted by resolution of the body or board or a written acceptance of the officer authorized to receive it.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 480A.06, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FINAL DECISIONS.] The court of appeals has jurisdiction of appeals from all final decisions of the trial courts, other than the conciliation courts, of the state of Minnesota, except that it shall not have jurisdiction of appeals in legislative or statewide election contests or criminal appeals in cases in which the defendant has been convicted of murder in the first degree.

Sec. 4. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This act is effective the day following final enactment."

Mr. Davis from the Committee on Agriculture, to which was referred

S.F. No. 1416: A bill for an act relating to agriculture; allowing certain small commercial and industrial uses on metropolitan agricultural preserves by permit; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 40A.152, subdivision 1; 473H.10, subdivision 3; and 473H.17, subdivisions 1 and 2, and by adding a subdivision.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 40A.03, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PLANS AND OFFICIAL CONTROLS.] By July 1 ~~December 31~~, 1987, each pilot county selected under subdivision 1 shall submit to the commissioner and to the regional development commission in which it is located, if one exists, a proposed agricultural land preservation plan and proposed official controls implementing the plan. The commissioner, in consultation with the regional development commission, shall review the plan and controls for consistency with the elements in this chapter and shall submit written comments to the county within 90 days of receipt of the proposal. The comments must include a determination of whether the plan and controls are consistent with the elements in this chapter. The commissioner shall notify the county of its determination. If the commissioner determines that the plan and controls are consistent, the county shall adopt the controls within 60 days of completion of the commissioner's review.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 40A.15, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE.] The commissioner shall administer grants for up to 50 percent of the cost of the activity to be funded, except that grants to the pilot counties shall be for 100 percent of the cost up to $30,000 of preparing new plans and official controls required under this chapter. Provided, however, that grants to eligible recipients other than the pilot counties shall not be available until the pilot county program has been completed and a report on the pilot county experiences has been presented to the legislature. This report shall be completed by July 1, 1988. Grants may not be used to reimburse the recipient for activities that are already completed. Grants may be used to employ and train staff, contract with other units of government or private consultants, and pay other expenses related to promoting and implementing agricultural land preservation and conservation activities. The commissioner shall prepare and publish an inventory of sources of financial assistance. To the extent practicable, the commissioner shall assist recipients in obtaining matching grants from other sources.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 40A.152, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FEE.] A county that is a metropolitan county under section 473.121, subdivision 4, has allowed exclusive agricultural zones to be created under this chapter, that has designated lands eligible for agricultural preserves under section 473H.04, or that has elected to become an agricultural land preservation pilot county, shall impose an additional fee of $3 $5 per transaction on the recording or registration of a mortgage subject to the tax under section 287.05 and an additional $3 $5 on the recording or registration of a deed subject to the tax under section 287.21. One-half of the fee must be deposited in a special conservation account to be created in the county general revenue fund and one-half must be transferred to the commissioner of revenue for deposit in the state treasury and credited to the Minnesota conservation fund.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 40A.152, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [USE OF ACCOUNT.] Money from the county conservation account must be spent by the county to reimburse the county and taxing jurisdictions within the county for revenue lost under the conservation tax credit under section 273.119 or the valuation of agricultural preserves under section 473H.10. If expenditures from other county funds for the same purposes remain at least equal to the amount spent in the previous county budget year, money remaining in the account after those payments the reimbursements are made may be spent for the following purposes:

- (1) agricultural land preservation and conservation planning and implementation of official controls under this chapter or chapter 473H;
- (2) soil conservation activities and enforcement of soil loss ordinances;
- (3) incentives for landowners who create exclusive agricultural use zones;
- (4) payments to municipalities within the county for the purposes of clauses (1) to (3).

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473H.10, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMPUTATION OF TAX; STATE REIMBURSEMENT.] (a) After having determined the market value of all land valued according to subdivision 2, the assessor shall compute the assessed value of those properties by applying the appropriate classification percentages. When computing the rate of tax pursuant to section 275.08, the county auditor shall include the assessed value of land as provided in this clause.

(b) The county auditor shall compute the tax on lands valued according to subdivision 2 and nonresidential buildings by multiplying the assessed value times the total rate of tax for all purposes as provided in clause (a).

(c) The county auditor shall then compute the maximum ad valorem property tax on lands valued according to subdivision 2 and nonresidential buildings by multiplying the assessed value times 105 percent of the previous year's statewide average mill rate levied on property located within townships for all purposes.

(d) The tax due and payable by the owner of preserve land valued according to subdivision 2 and nonresidential buildings will be the amount determined in clause (b) or (c), whichever is less. If the gross tax in clause (c) is less than the gross tax in clause (b), the state shall reimburse the taxing jurisdictions for the amount of difference. Residential buildings shall continue to be valued and classified according to the provisions of sections 273.11 and 273.13, as they would be in the absence of this section, and the tax on those buildings shall not be subject to the limitation contained in this clause.

The county may transfer money from the county conservation account created in section 40A.152 to the county revenue fund to reimburse the fund for the tax lost as a result of this subdivision or to pay taxing jurisdictions within the county for the tax lost. The county auditor shall certify to the commissioner of revenue on or before June 1 the total amount of tax lost to the county and taxing jurisdictions located within the county as a result of this subdivision and the extent that the tax lost exceeds funds available in the county conservation account. Payments shall be made by the state as provided in section 273.13, subdivision 15a to each of the affected taxing jurisdictions if the county conservation account is insufficient to make the reimbursement. There is annually appropriated from the Minnesota conservation fund under section 40A.151 to the commissioner of revenue an amount sufficient to make the reimbursement provided in this subdivision. If the amount available in the Minnesota conservation fund is insufficient, the balance that is needed is appropriated from the general fund.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473H.17, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Land within an agricultural preserve shall be maintained for agricultural production. The average maximum density of residential structures within an agricultural preserve shall not exceed one unit per 40 acres. The location of any new structure shall conform to locally applicable zoning regulations. Commercial and industrial uses shall not be permitted except that ~~small on-farm commercial or industrial operations normally associated with and important to farming in the area may be permitted by the~~ as provided in section 7 after the user is issued a permit by the authority. The authority shall be responsible for enforcing this section.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473H.17, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [ALLOWED COMMERCIAL AND INDUSTRIAL OPERATIONS.] (a) Commercial and industrial operations are not allowed on land within an agricultural preserve except:

(1) small on-farm commercial or industrial operations normally associated with and important to farming in the agricultural preserve area;

(2) storage use of existing farm buildings that does not disrupt the integrity of the agricultural preserve; and

(3) small commercial use of existing farm buildings for trades not disruptive to the integrity of the agricultural preserve such as a carpentry shop, small scale mechanics shop, and similar activities that a farm operator might conduct.

(b) "Existing" in paragraph (a), clauses (2) and (3), means existing on August 1, 1987.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473H.17, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DENSITY RESTRICTION AFTER SUBDIVISION.] When a separate parcel is created for a residential structure, commercial, or industrial use permitted under subdivision 1, the parcel shall cease to be an agricultural preserve unless the eligibility requirements of section 473H.03 are met. However, the ~~residential unit separate parcel shall continue to be included in remain~~ under the maximum residential density restrictions in effect for the original preserve at the time it was placed into the preserve until the agricultural preserve status for the original parcel ends.

Sec. 9. [APPROPRIATION.]

$60,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of agriculture to provide technical assistance for agricultural land preservation and conservation activities, including preparation and publication of an agricultural land preservation planning handbook for use by local units of government, and for a study and report on the costs of providing public services to agricultural and other land uses."

Amend the title as follows:

Page 1, line 5, delete everything after "sections" and insert "40A.03, subdivision 2; 40A.15, subdivision 4; 40A.152, subdivisions 1 and 2;"

And when so amended the bill do pass and be re-referred to the Committee on Finance. Amendments adopted. Report adopted.

Mr. Davis from the Committee on Agriculture, to which was referred

S.F. No. 806: A bill for an act relating to public finance; changing the rural finance administration's qualified agricultural loan program and name; clarifying the duties and powers of the administration; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 41B.01; 41B.02; 41B.03; 41B.035; 41B.04, subdivisions 1, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12; 41B.19, subdivisions 5 and 6; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 41B; repealing Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 41B.04, subdivisions 6, 13, 14, 15, and 16; and 41B.05.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"ARTICLE I

RURAL FINANCE AUTHORITY

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41.56, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SALE OF DEFAULTED PROPERTY.] In the event that title to any property is acquired by the state, upon conveyance of title to the state and expiration of the period of redemption, the commissioner shall undertake to sell the property by publishing a notice of the impending sale at least once each week for four successive weeks in a legal newspaper and also in a newspaper of general distribution in the county in which the property to be sold is situated. The notice must describe the lots or tracts to be offered and the terms of sale. Except as further provided, the terms and method of sale shall be determined by the commissioner.

The commissioner shall first attempt to sell the property to a person who is eligible for a family farm security loan. If the commissioner is unable to effect a sale to an eligible person, the commissioner shall attempt to sell the property for cash as provided in subdivision 4a. If the commissioner is unable to effect a sale to an eligible person or for cash, or if the commissioner finds that sale to an eligible person or for cash would not best protect the interests of the state, the commissioner may sell the property on terms which the commissioner finds will best protect the interests of the state. The commissioner may lease any real property which the commissioner is unable to sell with reasonable promptness. In any event, any acquired farm property must be sold within three years after the conveyance of title to the state or after the expiration of the period of redemption. The commissioner may contract for the services of a licensed real estate agent or broker to assist in selling any property acquired under this section and may pay for the services from the proceeds of the sale before proceeds are distributed under subdivision 4b.

In lieu of selling property under this subdivision, the commissioner may utilize participation under the beginning farmer program under chapter 41B.

In selling property acquired under this section, the commissioner may not sell the property to a relative within the second degree of kindred according to common law of a person who has defaulted resulting in the commissioner acquiring the property.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41B.01, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PURPOSE.] Sections 41B.01 to 41B.23 create and establish the Minnesota rural finance ~~administration authority~~ and establish a program under which state bonds are authorized to be issued and proceeds of their sale are appropriated under the authority of article XI, section 5, clause (h) of the Minnesota Constitution, to develop the state's agricultural resources by extending credit on real estate security. The purpose of the program and of the bonds issued to finance or provide security for the program is to purchase participation interests in loans to be made available by agricultural lenders to farmers in order to restructure existing debt and to make available additional credit to farmers who own or purchase agricultural properties on terms and conditions not otherwise available from other credit sources. It is hereby found and declared that there presently exist in the state economic conditions which have severely adversely affected the economic viability of farms to the detriment of the rural economy and to the detriment of the economy of the state of Minnesota as a whole. It is further found and declared that as a result of public agricultural policies, agricultural market conditions, and other causes, the condition of the farm economy of the state of Minnesota is such as to jeopardize the continued existence and successful operation of farms in this state, necessitating the establishment of the ~~program programs~~ in sections 41B.01 to 41B.23 to provide new sources of credit on favorable terms and conditions. It is further found and declared that providing credit for farmers on favorable terms and conditions will serve and promote the public welfare by assuring the viability of farm operations, by preventing erosion of the tax base in rural areas, by reducing foreclosures on farm property, and by enhancing the financial stability of farmers and of the businesses which depend on farmers as customers. It is further found and declared that in establishing a Minnesota rural finance ~~administration authority~~ and in authorizing the programs in sections 41B.01 to 41B.23, the legislature is acting in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state of Minnesota to serve the public purpose of improving and otherwise promoting their health, welfare, and prosperity and that the Minnesota rural finance ~~administration authority~~, as created and established, is empowered to act on behalf of the people of the state of Minnesota in serving this public purpose for the benefit of the general public.

The purpose of the programs and of bonds issued to finance or provide security for the programs is to purchase participation interests in loans to be made available by agricultural lenders to farmers to restructure existing debt and to make available additional credit to farmers who own or purchase agricultural properties on terms and conditions not otherwise available from other credit sources.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41B.02, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [ELIGIBLE AGRICULTURAL LENDER; ELIGIBLE LENDER.] "Eligible agricultural lender" or "eligible lender" means an entity of the kind described in section 41B.04, subdivision 6, which enters into an agreement with the administration providing for the purchase by the administration of participation interests in eligible agricultural loans originated and serviced by the qualified agricultural lender any bank, credit union, savings and loan association chartered by the state or federal government, a subdivision of the Farm Credit System, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, and any insurance company, fund, or other financial institution doing business as an agricultural lender within the state if the authority determines that the agricultural lender has sufficient personnel and other resources to efficiently and properly originate and service qualified agricultural loans. An eligible agricultural lender must enter into one or more agreements with the authority providing for the origination and servicing of qualified agricultural loans on the terms and conditions the authority determines to be appropriate.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41B.02, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [ELIGIBLE BORROWER.] "Eligible borrower" means a borrower who meets the eligibility criteria for a program in section 41B.03.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41B.02, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [QUALIFIED AGRICULTURAL LOAN.] "Qualified agricultural loan" means a loan to an eligible borrower made by an eligible agricultural lender which the administration purchases or in which the administration purchases a participation interest pursuant to agricultural programs established and implemented by the authority.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41B.02, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [PRIMARY PRINCIPAL.] "Primary principal" means that portion of the principal outstanding balance on a loan covered by sections 41B.01 to 41B.23 that is equal to the current market value of the property secured by the loan.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41B.02, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [BASIC INTEREST.] "Basic interest" means that part of interest on primary principal that is payable annually while the loan is in effect.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41B.02, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [CURRENT MARKET VALUE.] "Current market value" means, for the purposes of section 41B.04, the value determined by an appraisal considering comparable sales in the area where the real estate is located and the reasonable productive value of the property based on past production history. The state and the eligible agricultural lender must mutually agree on the current market value.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41B.02, subdivision 14, is amended to read:

Subd. 14. [BORROWER.] "Borrower" means the person or persons liable on a ~~restructured note~~ qualified agricultural loan.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41B.02, subdivision 15, is amended to read:

Subd. 15. [ORIGINAL LOAN.] "Original loan" means a loan prior to restructuring as provided in section 41B.04.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41B.03, is amended to read:
41B.03 [BORROWER ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA.]

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBILITY GENERALLY.] To be eligible for a program in sections 41B.01 to 41B.23:

(a) (1) a borrower must be a resident of Minnesota or a domestic family farm corporation, as defined in section 500.24, subdivision 2-;

(b) (2) the borrower or one of the borrowers must be the principal operator of the farm- or, for a prospective homestead redemption borrower, must have at one time been the principal operator of a farm; and

(3) the borrower must not previously have received assistance pursuant to sections 41B.01 to 41B.23.

Subd. 2. [ELIGIBILITY FOR RESTRUCTURED LOAN.] In addition to the eligibility requirements of subdivision 1, a prospective borrower for a restructured loan must:

(c) ~~the borrower or one of the borrowers must~~ (1) have received at least 50 percent of average annual gross income from farming for the past three years or for homesteaded property received at least 40 percent of average gross income from farming in the past three years, and farming must be the principal occupation of the borrower-;

(d) ~~The borrower must~~ (2) have a debt-to-asset ratio equal to or greater than 50 percent- and in determining this ratio, the assets must be determined by the valued at their current market value of the assets-;

(e) ~~The borrower's~~ (3) have projected annual expenses, including operating expenses, family living, and interest expenses after the restructuring, must that do not exceed 95 percent of the borrower's projected annual income considering prior production history and projected prices for farm production-, except the authority may reduce the 95 percent requirement if it finds that other significant factors in the loan application support the making of the loan; and

(f) ~~The borrower must be unable to meet~~ (4) demonstrate substantial difficulty in meeting projected annual expenses without restructuring the loan.

(g) ~~The borrower must not previously have received restructuring as-~~ sistance pursuant to sections 41B.01 to 41B.23.

Subd. 3. [BEGINNING FARMER LOANS.] In addition to the requirements under subdivision 1 a prospective borrower for a beginning farm loan must:

(1) have sufficient education, training, or experience in the type of farming for which the loan is desired;

(2) have a total net worth, including assets and liabilities of the borrower's spouse and dependents of less than $100,000;

(3) demonstrate a need for the loan;

(4) demonstrate an ability to repay the loan;

(5) demonstrate that the agricultural land to be purchased will be used by the borrower for agricultural purposes; and

(6) demonstrate that farming will be the principal occupation of the borrower.

Subd. 4. [CONTINUING ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS.] After qualifying for a restructured loan, a borrower must only continue to meet the requirements of subdivision 1, clauses (1) and (2).

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41B.035, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5: [BOARD ACTIONS OF THE AUTHORITY.] The powers of the board are ~~v~~the members in office from time to time. A majority of the members of the ~~board~~ authority, excluding vacancies, constitutes a quorum for the purpose of conducting its business and exercising its powers and for all other purposes. Action may be taken by the ~~board~~ authority upon a vote of a majority of a quorum present.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41B.035, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE.] The authority must make technical assistance available to potential lenders and applicants to encourage applications for loans.

Sec. 14. [41B.037] [HOMESTEAD REDEMPTION PROGRAM.]

The authority may establish and implement a homestead redemption program under sections 41B.01 to 41B.23. The purpose of the program is to assist persons who have lost their farms due to foreclosure, granting a deed in lieu of foreclosure, or other actions necessary to settle their agricultural debts, and who are otherwise unable to secure the credit necessary to repurchase their farm homestead. The authority may enter into agreements with any eligible lender for the purposes of this program. The authority may, by rule, establish eligibility standards for this program that are different from those established for other programs of the authority. The authority's interest in a homestead redemption loan may not exceed one-half of the loan amount or $25,000, whichever is less.

Sec. 15. [41B.038] [PROGRAMS FOR COMMITMENTS TO OTHER ENTITIES.]

The authority may establish programs to make or purchase and enter into commitments to make or purchase qualified agricultural loans or portions of the loans issued to persons described in section 41B.03, subdivision 1. The agricultural loans must be insured or guaranteed by the United States Department of Agriculture, Farmers Home Administration, Farm Credit System, a subdivision of the Farm Credit System, or any similar federal agency or federally chartered institution whose obligations are directly or indirectly guaranteed or insured by the United States. For this purpose the authority may exercise the powers in sections 41B.05 and 41B.08.

Sec. 16. [41B.039] [BEGINNING FARMER PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The authority may establish, develop criteria, and implement a beginning farmer program. The program must assist persons entering farming, which is a person who has not owned a farm before entering the beginning farmer program.

Subd. 2. [STATE PARTICIPATION.] The state may participate in a loan with an eligible lender to a beginning farmer to the extent of one-fourth of the principal of the loan or $25,000, whichever is less. A loan to a beginning farmer may not exceed $100,000. Terms of the loan include both principal and interest payments. The terms of the authority's participation may be different than the terms of the lender's portion of the loan.

Subd. 3. [SOIL AND WATER CONSERVATION AGREEMENTS.] (a) As a condition of receiving a beginning farmer loan the borrower must agree to implement an approved soil and water conservation plan on the land.

(b) The borrower must place marginal land as defined in section 40.42, subdivision 6, in a permanent conservation easement as provided in section 40.43. The authority must compensate the borrower for the easement as provided in section 40.43, subdivision 6.

Subd. 4. [FARM MANAGEMENT.] A borrower must agree to participate in a farm management program approved by the commissioner for at least the first eight years of the loan.

Subd. 5. [LOAN REVIEW.] The authority shall refer all applications for the beginning farmer program to the family farm advisory council to review the loan with the beginning farmer and make recommendations to the authority.

Sec. 17. [41B.0391] [USE AND DISPOSITION OF PROPERTY.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY MAY SELL OR LEASE PROPERTY.] The authority may sell or lease acquired property. Persons desiring to purchase or lease property must apply to the authority.

Subd. 2. [MANAGING AND SELLING PROPERTY IN AGRICULTURAL LAND BANK.] (a) The authority must attempt to sell agricultural property to persons entering farming and farmers that need additional property to continue their farming operations.

(b) The authority must give priority to applicants desiring to purchase or lease property who:

(1) are residents of the state of Minnesota;

(2) have sufficient education, training, or experience in the type of farming for which the property is desired and agree to continued participation in a farm management program, approved by the authority, for at least the first ten years;

(3) have, including the applicant's dependents and spouse, a total net worth valued at less than $100,000 and have demonstrated a need for acquiring property from the authority;

(4) intend to purchase farm land to be used by the applicant for agricultural purposes; and

(5) are credit worthy according to standards prescribed by the authority.

(c) Agricultural property may be leased with an option to purchase to accommodate a sale. The authority should avoid long-term leasing of property.

Subd. 3. [REMOVAL FROM AGRICULTURAL USE.] If the authority determines that acquired property should be taken out of agricultural use completely or particular agricultural uses should be restricted, the authority shall have the attorney general prepare an easement restricting the agricultural use and file the easement with the county recorder where the property is located. If agricultural use is not allowed on the property, the authority may transfer administrative control to the appropriate state agency.

Subd. 4. [EXCLUSIVE AGRICULTURAL USE.] The authority may place easements on acquired property restricting development and allowing only agricultural or conservation use.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41B.04, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [RESTRUCTURING PROCEDURE.] (a) The eligible agricultural lender or borrower shall propose restructuring a loan to the ~~administration~~ authority. Within 30 days of receiving adequate information concerning a proposal, the ~~administration~~ authority and the eligible lender shall notify the borrower of their determination of eligibility. An eligible agricultural lender shall then expeditiously ~~conduct necessary appraisals and~~ draft the loan restructuring agreement which must be consistent with this section and documents previously approved by the ~~administration and eligible lenders~~ authority. ~~The loan restructuring agreement must be approved by the eligible lender, the administration, and the borrower.~~

(b) An eligible borrower may participate in the restructured loan or the homestead redemption loan, but not both loans.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41B.04, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [STATE'S PARTICIPATION.] With respect to loans that are eligible for restructuring under sections 41B.01 to 41B.23 and upon acceptance by the ~~administration~~ authority, the ~~administration~~ authority shall enter into a participation agreement or other financial arrangement whereby it shall participate in a restructured loan to the extent of one-quarter of the primary principal or $50,000, whichever is less, ~~except that the administration may participate in restructured loans made for the redemption of homesteads to the extent of one-half of the primary principal or $25,000, whichever is less.~~ The ~~administration's~~ authority's portion of the loan must thereafter be protected during the authority's participation by the first mortgage held by the eligible lender to the extent of its participation in the loan.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41B.04, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [RESTRUCTURED LOAN AGREEMENT.] (a) All payments on the primary and secondary principal of the restructured loan, all payments of interest on the secondary principal, and an agreed portion of the interest payable to the eligible agricultural lender on the primary principal must be deferred to the end of the term of the loan.

(b) A borrower may prepay the restructured loan, with all primary and secondary principal and interest and deferred interest at any time without prepayment penalty.

(c) Interest on secondary principal must accrue at a below market interest rate.

(d) At the conclusion of the term of the restructured loan, the borrower owes primary principal, secondary principal, and deferred interest on primary and secondary principal. However, part of this balloon payment may be forgiven following an appraisal by the lender and the ~~administration~~ authority to determine the current market value of the real estate subject to the mortgage. If the current market value of the land after appraisal is less than the amount of debt owed by the borrower to the lender and ~~administration~~ authority on this obligation, that portion of the obligation that exceeds the current market value of the real property must be forgiven by the lender and the ~~administration~~ authority in the following order:

- (1) deferred interest on secondary principal;
- (2) secondary principal;
- (3) deferred interest on primary principal;
- (4) primary principal as provided in an agreement between the ~~administration~~ and the lender; and
- (5) accrued but not deferred interest on primary principal.

~~The debt forgiveness may be combined with a renegotiated loan on the unforgiven balance due if the borrower is able to establish that there are reasonable prospects of repayment on a debt equal to the current market value of real estate at then existing interest rates. If so, the loan must be reamortized on terms and conditions acceptable to the lender, the ~~administration~~, and the farmer.~~

(e) The authority may not participate in refinancing a restructured loan at the conclusion of the restructured loan.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41B.04, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [INTEREST RATE.] Unless the authority determines that it is not in the best interests of the restructured loan program, the interest rate per annum on the portion of the ~~restructuring~~ restructured loan represented by the participation interest purchased by the ~~administration~~ authority must be that rate of interest determined by the ~~administration~~ authority to be necessary to provide for the timely payment of principal and interest when due on bonds or other obligations issued by the ~~administration~~ authority, and to provide for the reasonable and necessary costs of issuing, carrying, administering, and securing the bonds or notes and to pay the costs incurred and to be incurred by the ~~administration~~ authority in the implementation of the program. The interest rate per annum borne by the primary principal portion of the restructuring loan retained by the eligible agricultural lender must be a rate of interest approved by the ~~administration authority~~. The ~~administration authority~~ may specify the points, fees, and other charges which the eligible agricultural lender may charge to the eligible borrower.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41B.04, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [ADMINISTRATION.] The eligible lender shall administer the loans and shall bear all costs of the loan administration. Ordinary costs of administration include appraisals, litigation, abstracts of title, and similar costs. ~~The administration agrees to share in any other responsibilities common to a loan participation agreement.~~

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41B.04, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [ASSIGNABILITY.] Loans restructured under this section may not be assigned to anyone other than a ~~direct descendant of the original borrower and the assignee must intend to engage in the direct operation and management of the farm which is subject to the mortgage meeting the eligibility requirements of section 41B.03, subdivision 1, and any other requirements imposed or approved by the authority.~~ If such an assignment is contemplated, the borrower must obtain prior written approval of the eligible lender and the administration and the assignee shall thereafter be subject to the same terms and conditions and events of default as the original borrower. If assigned to some other party, the eligible agricultural lender may exercise its foreclosure remedies as provided by its contracts and by law.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41B.05, is amended to read:

41B.05 [GENERAL POWERS OF THE ADMINISTRATION AUTHORITY.]

For the purpose of exercising the specific powers granted in section 41B.04 and effectuating the other purposes of sections 41B.01 to 41B.23 the ~~administration authority~~ has the general powers granted in this section.

(a) It may sue and be sued.

(b) It may have a seal and alter the seal.

(c) It may make, and from time to time, amend and repeal rules consistent with sections 41B.01 to 41B.23.

(d) It may acquire, hold, and dispose of personal property for its corporate purposes.

(e) It may enter into agreements, contracts, or other transactions with any federal or state agency, any person and any domestic or foreign partnership, corporation, association, or organization, including contracts or agreements for administration and implementation of all or part of sections 41B.01 to 41B.23.

(f) It may acquire real property, or an interest therein, in its own name, by purchase or foreclosure, where such acquisition is necessary or appropriate.

(g) It may provide general technical services related to rural finance.

(h) It may provide general consultative assistance services related to rural finance, and shall make available technical assistance to potential lenders and applicants to encourage applications for loans.

(i) It may promote research and development in matters related to rural finance.

(j) It may enter into agreements with lenders, borrowers, or the issuers of securities for the purpose of regulating the development and management of farms financed in whole or in part by the proceeds of qualified agricultural loans.

(k) It may enter into agreements with other appropriate federal, state, or local governmental units to foster rural finance. It may give advance reservations of loan financing as part of the agreements, with the understanding that the ~~administration~~ authority will only approve the loans pursuant to normal procedures, and may adopt special procedures designed to meet problems inherent in such programs.

(l) It may undertake and carry out studies and analyses of rural financing needs within the state and ways of meeting such needs including: data with respect to geographical distribution; farm size; the distribution of farm credit needs according to debt ratios and similar factors; the amount and quality of available financing and its distribution according to factors affecting rural financing needs and the meeting thereof; and may make the results of such studies and analyses available to the public and may engage in research and disseminate information on rural finance.

(m) It may survey and investigate the rural financing needs throughout the state and make recommendations to the governor and the legislature as to legislation and other measures necessary or advisable to alleviate any existing shortage in the state.

(n) It may establish cooperative relationships with such county and multicounty authorities as may be established and may develop priorities for the utilization of ~~administration~~ authority resources and assistance within a region in cooperation with county and multicounty authorities.

(o) It may contract with, use, or employ any federal, state, regional, or local public or private agency or organization, legal counsel, financial advisors, investment bankers or others, upon terms it deems necessary or desirable, to assist in the exercise of any of the powers granted in sections 41B.01 to 41B.23 and to carry out the objectives of sections 41B.01 to 41B.23 and may pay for the services from ~~administration~~ authority funds.

(p) It may establish cooperative relationships with counties to develop priorities for the use of ~~administration~~ authority resources and assistance within counties and to consider county plans and programs in the process of setting the priorities.

(q) It may delegate any of its powers to its officers or staff.

(r) It may enter into agreements with qualified agricultural lenders or others insuring or guaranteeing to the state the payment of all or a portion of qualified agricultural loans.

(s) It may enter into agreements with eligible agricultural lenders providing for advance reservations of purchases of participation interests in restructuring loans, if the agreements provide that the authority may only purchase participation interests in restructuring loans pursuant to normal procedure. The authority may provide in an agreement for special procedures or requirements designed to meet specific conditions or requirements.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41B.08, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [REQUIRED RATING.] No bonds may be issued unless a rating of "A" or better has been awarded to the bonds by a national bond rating agency. The "A" rating is not required if the bonds are initially sold to corporations or financial institutions for investment purposes and not for the purpose of remarketing the bonds to the public.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41B.12, is amended to read:

41B.12 [REVENUE BONDS; NONLIABILITY OF INDIVIDUALS.]

~~Neither~~ The members of the ~~administration~~ ~~nor~~ authority and its staff and any person executing the bonds ~~is liable~~ are not personally liable on the bonds or subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of their issuance.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41B.19, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [RURAL FINANCE ~~ADMINISTRATION~~ ~~AUTHORITY~~ SECURITY ACCOUNT.] The commissioner of finance shall maintain a separate state building fund account designated as the rural finance ~~administration~~ authority security account, into which must be deposited the proceeds of the rural renewal general obligation bonds issued as provided in this section. The commissioner of finance shall maintain a separate bookkeeping account to record receipts and disbursements of money transferred to or from the security account and to record income from the investment of money in the account. Upon the written request of the ~~administration~~ authority, the commissioner of finance shall transfer from the security account to an account or accounts the ~~administration~~ authority shall designate, a sum of money sufficient in amount, if available, when added to the balances then on hand in the designated accounts, to pay bonds issued by the ~~administration~~ authority under sections 41B.01 to 41B.23 and the interest on them due and to become due on the next succeeding date for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds of the administration or to restore to any debt service reserve fund established in connection with the bonds any amount withdrawn from the debt service reserve account to pay the bonds. When no revenue bonds secured by the security account are outstanding under the resolution authorizing their issuance, the commissioner of finance shall further transfer from all money and securities on hand in the security account on or before the date on which any installment of the principal of and interest on bonds authorized by this section is due, a sum sufficient in amount, when added to the balance then on hand in the rural renewal bond account, to pay all bonds issued under this section and the interest on them due and to become due on the next succeeding date for payment of the bonds to the state bond fund.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41B.19, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [INVESTMENT OF SECURITY ACCOUNT.] (a) Money from time to time on deposit in the security account must be invested by the state board of investment at the request of the ~~administration~~ authority in any investment authorized by this subdivision. Money on deposit in the security account may be invested in:

(1) certificates of deposit insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation; (2) certificates of deposit issued by eligible agricultural lenders, whether or not fully insured or secured issued or interest-bearing time deposits with a national banking association or by a bank and trust company organized under the laws of any state;

(3) (2) deposits secured by obligations of the United States or of the state of a market value equal at all times to the amount of the deposit and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give security for those deposits;

(4) (3) qualified agricultural loans or in participation interests in qualified agricultural loans; or

(5) (4) qualified restructured loans.

(b) The principal amount of the investment under paragraph (a), clause (1), must be fully insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation. If not fully insured, the institution issuing the certificate of deposit or accepting the time deposit must be rated in the AA or a higher category as defined by a nationally recognized bond rating agency or in an equivalent or higher rating category based on any later redefinition.

(c) If and to the extent money has been transferred from the security account to provide for the timely payment of the principal of and interest on bonds issued by the ~~administration~~ authority, or to transfer money to a debt service reserve fund established in connection with the bonds, the ~~administration~~ authority shall transfer to the security account on or before December 1 of each succeeding year an amount equal to that previously transferred from the security account, provided that the ~~administration's~~ authority's obligation to transfer money to the security account is limited to money then on hand in funds or accounts of the ~~administration~~ authority in excess of those appropriated to other purposes or required to provide for the payment of the principal of and interest on bonds issued by the ~~administration~~ authority and to pay the costs of issuing, carrying, administering, and securing the bonds of the ~~administration~~ authority and of administering and implementing the programs of the ~~administration~~ authority financed by the bonds.

Sec. 29. [41B.195] [ADDITIONAL USE OF GENERAL OBLIGATION BONDS.]

Notwithstanding the limit set forth in section 41B.19, subdivision 1, the commissioner of finance, upon the request of the rural finance authority, may issue the general obligation bonds authorized by section 41B.19 and use the proceeds of the bonds to purchase participations in qualified agricultural loans if the commissioner determines that it is not practical or efficient to issue revenue bonds pursuant to section 41B.08 for the purpose of section 41B.04 and sections 13, 15, and 16 as a result of reduced program size or increased program costs. Subject to the other provisions of this section, the proceeds of the bonds must be deposited, held, and disbursed from a separate state building fund account, the bonds are payable from the bond account established by section 41B.19, subdivision 4, and the participations purchased with the bond proceeds must be held as assets of the bond account. If the rural finance authority later determines to issue revenue bonds pursuant to section 41B.08 for the purposes specified in section 41B.04, the commissioner may by order provide for the transfer of all or a portion of the remaining bond proceeds and interest thereon, and all or a portion of the participations purchased with the bond proceeds and proceeds thereof, to be transferred to the security account established in section 41B.19, subdivision 5, and used for the purposes specified in section 41B.19, subdivisions 1 and 5.

Sec. 30. [41B.211] [DATA PRIVACY.]

Financial information, including credit reports, financial statements, and net worth calculations, received or prepared by the authority regarding any authority loan and the name of each individual who is the recipient of a loan are private data on individuals, under chapter 13.

Sec. 31. [INSTRUCTIONS TO REVISOR.]

The revisor of statutes is instructed to change the phrases "rural finance administration" and "administration" when the term is applied to the rural finance administration to "rural finance authority" and "authority" respectively in Minnesota Statutes. The revisor is further instructed to rearrange the subdivisions of Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 41B.02, so that the terms defined therein are in alphabetical order.

The revisor of statutes shall renumber each section of Minnesota Statutes specified in column A with the number set forth in column B. The revisor shall also make necessary cross-reference changes consistent with the renumbering.

Column A	Column B
41B.035	41B.025
41B.05	41B.036

Sec. 32. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 41B.02, subdivision 17; 41B.035, subdivision 4; and 41B.04, subdivisions 6, 13, 14, 15, and 16, are repealed.

Sec. 33. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This article is effective on the day following final enactment.

ARTICLE 2

RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 500.24, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of this section, the terms defined in this subdivision have the meanings here given them:

(a) "Farming" means the production of (1) agricultural products; (2) livestock or livestock products; (3) milk or milk products; or (4) fruit or other horticultural products. It does not include the processing, refining or packaging of said products, nor the provision of spraying or harvesting services by a processor or distributor of farm products. It does not include the production of timber or forest products or the production of poultry or poultry products.

(b) "Family farm" means an unincorporated farming unit owned by one or more persons residing on the farm or actively engaging in farming.

(c) "Family farm corporation" means a corporation founded for the purpose of farming and the ownership of agricultural land in which the majority of the voting stock is held by and the majority of the stockholders are persons or the spouses of persons related to each other within the third degree of kindred according to the rules of the civil law, and at least one of said related persons is residing on or actively operating the farm, and none of whose stockholders are corporations; provided that a family farm corporation shall not cease to qualify as such hereunder by reason of any devise or bequest of shares of voting stock.

(d) "Authorized farm corporation" means a corporation meeting the following standards:

- (1) Its shareholders do not exceed five in number;
- (2) All its shareholders, other than any estate are natural persons;
- (3) It does not have more than one class of shares; and
- (4) Its revenues from rent, royalties, dividends, interest and annuities does not exceed 20 percent of its gross receipts; and
- (5) Shareholders holding a majority of the shares must be residing on the farm or actively engaging in farming.

(e) "Agricultural land" means land used for farming.

(f) "Pension or investment fund" means a pension or employee welfare benefit fund, however organized, a mutual fund, a life insurance company separate account, a common trust of a bank or other trustee established for the investment and reinvestment of money contributed to it, a real estate investment trust, or an investment company as defined in United States Code, title 15, section 80a-3. "Pension or investment fund" does not include a benevolent trust established by the owners of a family farm, authorized farm corporation or family farm corporation.

(g) "Farm homestead" means a house including adjoining buildings that has been used as part of a farming operation or is part of the agricultural land used for a farming operation.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 500.24, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [DISPOSAL OF LAND.] (a) A state or federal agency or a corporation, other than a family farm corporation or an authorized farm corporation, ~~when leasing may not lease or selling farm sell~~ agricultural land or a farm homestead ~~must offer that was acquired by enforcing a debt against the agricultural land or farm homestead, including foreclosure of a mortgage, accepting a deed in lieu of foreclosure, terminating a contract for deed, or accepting a deed in lieu of terminating a contract for deed, before offering or make~~ making a good faith effort to offer the land for sale or lease to the immediately preceding former owner at a price no higher than the highest price offered by a third party that is acceptable to the seller or lessor. The offer must be made on the notice to offer form under section 3. Selling or leasing property at a price is prima facie evidence that the price is acceptable to the seller or lessor.

(b) This subdivision applies to a seller or lessor for five years after the agricultural land is acquired. An offer to lease to the immediately preceding former owner is required only ~~on~~ until after the first occasion ~~on~~ which the property is leased. An offer to sell to the immediately preceding former owner is required only ~~on~~ until the first occasion ~~on~~ which the property is sold. The notice of an offer ~~delivered~~ under section 3 personally delivered with a receipt or sent by certified mail with a receipt of mailing to the immediately preceding former owner's last known address is a good faith offer.

(c) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "a price no higher than the highest price offered by a third party" means the acceptable cash price offered by a third party or the acceptable time-price offer made by a third party. A cash price offer is one which involves simultaneous transfer of title. If the acceptable offer made by a third party is a time-price offer, the seller or lessor must make the same time-price offer or an equivalent cash offer to the immediately preceding former owner. An equivalent cash offer is equal to the total of the payments made over a period of the time-price offer discounted by the current Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of St. Paul interest rate plus 1.5 percent. A time-price offer is an offer that defers payment of any portion of the price and does not involve a transfer of fee title until full payment is made.

(d) This subdivision does not apply to a sale or lease that occurs after the seller or lessor has held the property for five years or longer.

(e) For purposes of this subdivision, if the immediately preceding former owner is a bankruptcy estate the debtor in the bankruptcy is the immediately preceding owner.

(f) The immediately preceding former owner must exercise the right to lease ~~farm~~ agricultural land or a homestead located on agricultural land in writing within ~~ten~~ 15 days after ~~receiving~~ an offer to lease under this subdivision is mailed with a receipt of mailing or personally delivered. The immediately preceding former owner must exercise the right to buy ~~farm~~ the agricultural land or farm homestead located on agricultural land, in writing, within ~~60~~ 65 days after ~~receiving~~ an offer to buy under this subdivision. ~~This subdivision does not apply if the former owner is a bankruptcy estate.~~ is mailed with a receipt of mailing or is personally delivered. Within ten days after exercising the right to lease or buy by accepting the offer, the immediately preceding owner must fully perform according to the terms of the offer including paying the amounts due. A seller may sell and a lessor may lease the agricultural land or farm homestead subject to this subdivision to the third party in accordance with their lease or purchase agreement if:

(1) the immediately preceding former owner does not accept an offer to lease or buy before the offer terminates; or

(2) the immediately preceding former owner does not perform the obligations of the offer, including paying the amounts due, within ten days after accepting the offer.

(g) A certificate indicating whether or not the property contains agricultural land or a farm homestead that is signed by the county assessor where the property is located and recorded in the office of the county recorder or the registrar of titles where the property is located is prima facie evidence of whether the property is agricultural land or a farm homestead.

(h) As prima facie evidence that an offer to sell or lease agricultural land or a farm homestead has terminated, a receipt of mailing the notice under section 3 and an affidavit, signed by a person authorized to act on behalf of a state, federal agency, or corporation selling or leasing the agricultural land or a farm homestead may be filed in the office of the county recorder or registrar of titles of the county where the agricultural land or farm homestead is located. The affidavit must state that:

(1) notice of an offer to buy or lease the agricultural land or farm homestead was provided to the immediately preceding former owner at a price no higher than the highest price offered by a third party that is acceptable;

(2) the time period during which the immediately preceding former owner is required to exercise the right to buy or lease the agricultural land or farm homestead has expired;

(3) the immediately preceding former owner has not exercised the right to buy or lease the agricultural land or farm homestead as provided in this subdivision or has accepted an offer and has not fully performed according to the terms of the offer; and

(4) the offer to the immediately preceding former owner has terminated.

(i) The right of an immediately preceding former owner to receive an offer to lease or purchase agricultural land under this subdivision or to lease or purchase at a price no higher than the highest price offered by a third party that is acceptable to the seller or lessor may be extinguished or limited by an express statement signed by the immediately preceding owner that complies with the plain language requirements of section 325G.31. The right may not be extinguished or limited except by the express statement in a deed in lieu of foreclosure or in a deed in lieu of a termination of a contract for deed for the agricultural land.

(j) The right of an immediately preceding former owner to receive an offer to lease or purchase agricultural land under this subdivision may not be assigned or transferred, but may be inherited.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 500.24, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [NOTICE OF OFFER.] (a) The state, a federal agency, or a corporation subject to subdivision 6 must provide a notice of an offer to sell or lease agricultural land substantially as follows, after inserting the appropriate terms within the parentheses:

"NOTICE OF OFFER TO (LEASE, BUY) AGRICULTURAL LAND

Signature of Former Owner Accepting Offer

Date"

(b) For an offer to sell, a copy of the purchase agreement containing the price and terms of the highest offer made by a third party that is acceptable to the seller must be included with the notice under this subdivision. At the seller's discretion, reference to the third party's identity may be deleted from the copy of the purchase agreement.

Sec. 4. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This article is effective July 1, 1987, except sections 1 to 3 apply to offers made under section 500.24, subdivision 6, after July 1, 1987.

ARTICLE 3

WAIVER OF DEBTOR'S RIGHTS

Section 1. [550.42] [WAIVER OF AGRICULTURAL DEBTOR'S RIGHTS.]

Subdivision 1. [WAIVER IS VOID.] (a) A waiver of statutory rights of a debtor in a contract, loan agreement, or security agreement as a condition for a loan of money for agricultural production is void unless the waiver is expressly authorized by law.

(b) A waiver of mediation rights under chapter 583, the right to an offer under section 500.24, subdivision 6, or the debtor's statutory rights under chapter 580, 581, or 582 for a mortgage on agricultural property, is void unless the waiver is expressly authorized by law.

Subd. 2. [PENALTY.] A person, corporation, financial institution, or other legal entity is liable to a debtor for up to $2,500 plus attorney fees that:

(1) requires a waiver subject to subdivision 1 in a contract, loan agreement, or security agreement, and does not acknowledge that the waiver subject to subdivision 1 is void; or

(2) attempts to enforce a waiver that is void under subdivision 1.

Sec. 2. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This article is effective July 1, 1987, except: section 1, subdivision 1, is effective the day after final enactment; and section 1, subdivision 2, applies to contracts, loan agreements, and security agreements entered into after July 1, 1987.

ARTICLE 4

DESIGNATION OF HOMESTEADS AND SEPARATE AGRICULTURAL TRACTS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 582.041, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [NOTIFICATION OF HOMESTEAD DESIGNATION.] If a mortgage on real property is foreclosed and the property contains a portion of ~~the~~ a homestead ~~of the mortgagor~~, the ~~mortgagor~~ person in possession of the real property must be notified by the foreclosing mortgagee that the homestead may be sold and redeemed separately from the remaining property. The notice in subdivision 2 must be ~~included in~~ served with the notice of foreclosure that is served on the ~~mortgagor~~ under person in possession of the real property with the requirements in section ~~580.04~~ 580.03 or for a foreclosure by action under chapter 581, in the summons and complaint served on the person in possession of the real property.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 582.041, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [HOMESTEAD DESIGNATION NOTICE.] (a) The following notice must be ~~included in~~ served with the foreclosure notice of property containing a homestead that is served on the ~~mortgagor~~ person in possession of the real property under section ~~580.04~~ 580.03. The notice is not to be published. The notice must be in 10-point capitalized letters.

"IF PART OF THE PROPERTY TO BE SOLD CONTAINS YOUR HOUSE, YOU MAY DESIGNATE AN AREA AS A HOMESTEAD TO BE SOLD AND REDEEMED SEPARATELY.

YOU MAY DESIGNATE THE HOUSE YOU OCCUPY AND ANY AMOUNT OF THE PROPERTY AS A HOMESTEAD. THE DESIGNATED HOMESTEAD PROPERTY MUST CONFORM TO THE LOCAL ZONING ORDINANCES AND BE COMPACT SO THAT IT DOES NOT UNREASONABLY REDUCE THE VALUE OF THE REMAINING PROPERTY.

YOU MUST PROVIDE THE PERSON FORECLOSING ON THE PROPERTY, THE SHERIFF AND THE COUNTY RECORDER WITH A COPY OF THE LEGAL DESCRIPTION OF THE HOMESTEAD YOU HAVE DESIGNATED BY TEN BUSINESS DAYS BEFORE THE DATE THE PROPERTY IS TO BE SOLD.”

(b) The following notice must be served with the summons and complaint in an action to foreclose a mortgage of property containing a homestead under chapter 581. The notice must be in 10-point capitalized letters and is not to be published with the summons if the summons is published.

“IF PART OF THE PROPERTY TO BE SOLD CONTAINS YOUR HOUSE, YOU MAY DESIGNATE AN AREA AS A HOMESTEAD TO BE SOLD AND REDEEMED SEPARATELY.

YOU MAY DESIGNATE THE HOUSE YOU OCCUPY AND ANY AMOUNT OF THE PROPERTY AS A HOMESTEAD. THE DESIGNATED HOMESTEAD PROPERTY MUST CONFORM TO THE LOCAL ZONING ORDINANCES AND BE COMPACT SO THAT IT DOES NOT UNREASONABLY REDUCE THE VALUE OF THE REMAINING PROPERTY.

YOU MUST PROVIDE THE COURT WITH A LEGAL DESCRIPTION OF THE HOMESTEAD YOU HAVE DESIGNATED.”

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 582.041, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DESIGNATION OF HOMESTEAD PROPERTY.] ~~The mortgagor~~ person who is homesteading the property must designate a legal description of the homestead property to be sold separately. The homestead property designated may include any amount of the property. The designation must conform to local zoning, include the dwelling occupied by the ~~mortgagor~~ person homesteading the property, and be compact so that it does not unreasonably affect the value of the remaining property. The ~~mortgagor~~ person homesteading the property must serve a copy of the designation on the foreclosing mortgagee, the sheriff, and the county recorder or registrar of titles by ten business days before the sale is scheduled, or for a foreclosure by action under chapter 581, a copy of the designation must be provided to the court.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 582.041, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [REDEMPTION.] ~~The mortgagor~~ A party who has a right of redemption may redeem the designated homestead, the remaining property, or the entire property including the homestead. The period of redemption is the period for the entire property including the designated homestead.

Sec. 5. [582.042] [FORECLOSURE OF AGRICULTURAL LAND THAT INCLUDES SEPARATE TRACTS.]

Subdivision 1. [NOTIFICATION OF SEPARATE TRACT DESIGNATION.] If a mortgage on real property that is agricultural land is foreclosed and the property contains separate tracts, the person in possession of the real property must be notified by the foreclosing mortgagee that the separate tracts may be sold and redeemed separately. The notice in subdivision 2 must be served with the notice of foreclosure that is served on the person in possession of the property under section 580.03 or for a foreclosure by action under chapter 581, in the summons and complaint.

Subd. 2. [DESIGNATION NOTICE.] (a) The following notice must be served with the foreclosure notice of the property that is served on the person in possession of the real property under section 580.03. The notice must be in 10-point capitalized letters and the notice is not to be published.

"IF THE PROPERTY TO BE SOLD CONTAINS SEPARATE TRACTS, YOU MAY REQUEST THAT THE TRACTS BE SOLD AND REDEEMED SEPARATELY. EACH OF THE SEPARATE TRACTS MUST CONFORM TO LOCAL ZONING ORDINANCES, MUST HAVE AN ENTRANCE BY DIRECT ACCESS TO A PUBLIC ROAD OR BY PERMANENT EASEMENT, AND MUST NOT UNREASONABLY AFFECT THE VALUE OF THE REMAINING PROPERTY.

YOU MUST PROVIDE THE PERSON FORECLOSING ON THE PROPERTY, THE SHERIFF, AND THE COUNTY RECORDER WITH A COPY OF THE LEGAL DESCRIPTIONS OF EACH OF THE TRACTS YOU HAVE DESIGNATED TO BE SOLD SEPARATELY BY TEN BUSINESS DAYS BEFORE THE DATE THE PROPERTY IS TO BE SOLD."

(b) The following notice must be served with the summons and complaint in an action to foreclose a mortgage of real property containing separate tracts under chapter 581. The notice must be in 10-point capitalized letters and is not to be published with the summons if the summons is published.

"IF THE PROPERTY TO BE SOLD CONTAINS SEPARATE TRACTS, YOU MAY REQUEST THAT THE TRACTS BE SOLD AND REDEEMED SEPARATELY. EACH OF THE SEPARATE TRACTS MUST CONFORM TO LOCAL ZONING ORDINANCES.

YOU MUST PROVIDE THE COURT WITH A COPY OF THE LEGAL DESCRIPTIONS OF EACH OF THE TRACTS YOU HAVE DESIGNATED TO BE SOLD SEPARATELY."

Subd. 3. [DESIGNATION OF SEPARATE TRACTS.] The person being foreclosed must designate legal descriptions of each of the tracts to be sold separately. The tracts designated must be previously recorded as separate tracts. Each of the separate tracts must conform to local zoning ordinances, must have an entrance by direct access to a public road or by permanent easement, and must not unreasonably affect the value of the remaining property. The person being foreclosed must serve a copy of the legal descriptions of the tracts to be sold separately on the foreclosing mortgagee, the sheriff, and the county recorder or registrar of titles by ten business days before the sale is scheduled, or for a foreclosure by action under chapter 581, a copy of the legal descriptions of the tracts to be sold separately must be provided to the court.

Subd. 4. [SALE OF PROPERTY.] If the sheriff receives a designation of separate tracts under subdivision 3, or is ordered by the court, the sheriff must offer and sell the tracts separately.

Subd. 5. [REDEMPTION.] The designated tracts may be redeemed separately or the entire foreclosed property may be redeemed. The period of redemption is the period for the entire property including all of the designated tracts.

Sec. 6. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This article is effective July 1, 1987, except: sections 1 to 5 apply to foreclosures where the first publication occurs on or after July 1, 1987, and to foreclosures under chapter 581 where the first service or publication occurs on or after July 1, 1987.

AGRICULTURAL DATA COLLECTION TASK FORCE

Section 1. [REACTIVATION OF THE AGRICULTURAL COLLECTION DATA TASK FORCE.]

The agricultural data collection task force created by Laws 1985, chapter 19, as reactivated and amended by Laws 1986, chapter 398, article 11, is reactivated.

Sec. 2. Laws 1985, chapter 19, section 6, subdivision 6; as amended by Laws 1986, chapter 398, article 11, section 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [EXPIRATION.] The data collection task force expires ~~January April 15, 1987~~ 1989, or 15 days after reporting to the legislature whichever date comes later, but in no circumstance later than ~~March June 1, 1987~~ 1989.

Sec. 3. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This article is effective the day following final enactment.

ARTICLE 6

MINNESOTA GROWN

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 17.102, is amended to read:

17.102 [MINNESOTA PRODUCTS, STATE LOGO OR GROWN LABEL.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT AND USE OF LABEL.] (a) The commissioner shall establish a "Minnesota grown" logo or labeling statement for use in identifying ~~food agricultural products which are Minnesota grown, processed, or manufactured.~~ The commissioner shall promulgate rules authorizing and governing the use of the logo or labeling statement. The Minnesota grown logo or labeling statement may be used on food products:

(1) consisting of raw agricultural products that are not processed into a different physical form or frozen, only if 80 percent of the agricultural product is produced in this state; or

(2) other than raw agricultural products that are not processed into a different physical form or frozen, only if the agricultural product is processed or manufactured in this state.

(b) The Minnesota grown logo or labeling statement may not be used without a license from the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [LABEL DOES NOT REPLACE OTHER REQUIREMENTS.] The logo or labeling statement ~~shall~~ does not supersede or replace any federal label or grade standard ~~which~~ that is required by law ~~and its use shall be discretionary with a grower, processor, or manufacturer.~~

Subd. 3. [LICENSE.] A person may not use the Minnesota grown logo or labeling without an annual license from the commissioner. The commissioner shall issue licenses for a fee of $25.

Subd. 4. [MINNESOTA GROWN ACCOUNT.] The Minnesota grown account is established as an account in the state treasury. License fee receipts and penalties collected under this section must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the Minnesota grown account. The money in the account is continuously appropriated to the commissioner to implement and enforce this section and to promote the Minnesota grown logo and labeling.

Subd. 5. [PENALTY.] A person who uses the Minnesota grown logo or labeling without a license after being notified by the commissioner that a license is required is subject to a civil penalty up to $1,000.

Subd. 6. [RULES.] The commissioner shall promulgate rules authorizing and licensing the use of the logo or labeling statement.

Sec. 2. [MINNESOTA GROWN MATCHING ACCOUNT.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The Minnesota grown matching account is established as a separate account in the state treasury. The account shall be administered by the commissioner of agriculture as provided in this section.

Subd. 2. [FUNDING SOURCES.] The Minnesota grown matching account shall consist of contributions from private sources and appropriations.

Subd. 3. [APPROPRIATIONS MUST BE MATCHED BY PRIVATE FUNDS.] (a) Appropriations to the Minnesota grown matching account may be expended only to the extent that they are matched with contributions to the account from private sources as provided in paragraph (b) for fiscal years 1988 and 1989. Appropriations to the account that are not matched by the end of the fiscal year of the appropriation cancel to the general fund.

(b) Private contributions shall be matched on a basis of four to one for the first $50,000 of private contributions. Matching funds are not available after the first $50,000 of private contributions in each fiscal year. Private contributions made from January 1, 1987, until the end of fiscal year 1987 shall be matched by the appropriation for fiscal year 1988.

Subd. 4. [EXPENDITURES.] The amount in the Minnesota grown matching account that is matched by private contributions and the private contributions are appropriated to the commissioner of agriculture for promotion of products using the Minnesota grown logo and labeling.

Sec. 3. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 2 is effective the day following final enactment.

ARTICLE 7

AGRICULTURAL PRESERVES

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 40A.03, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PLANS AND OFFICIAL CONTROLS.] By July 4 December 31, 1987, each pilot county selected under subdivision 1 shall submit to the commissioner and to the regional development commission in which it is located, if one exists, a proposed agricultural land preservation plan and proposed official controls implementing the plan. The commissioner, in consultation with the regional development commission, shall review the plan and controls for consistency with the elements in this chapter and shall submit written comments to the county within 90 days of receipt of the proposal. The comments must include a determination of whether the plan and controls are consistent with the elements in this chapter. The commissioner shall notify the county of its determination. If the commissioner determines that the plan and controls are consistent, the county shall adopt the controls within 60 days of completion of the commissioner's review.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 40A.15, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE.] The commissioner shall administer grants for up to 50 percent of the cost of the activity to be funded, except that grants to the pilot counties shall be for 100 percent of the cost up to $30,000 of preparing new plans and official controls required under this chapter. Provided, however, that grants to eligible recipients other than the pilot counties shall not be available until the pilot county program has been completed and a report on the pilot county experiences has been presented to the legislature. This report shall be completed by July 1, 1988. Grants may not be used to reimburse the recipient for activities that are already completed. Grants may be used to employ and train staff, contract with other units of government or private consultants, and pay other expenses related to promoting and implementing agricultural land preservation and conservation activities. The commissioner shall prepare and publish an inventory of sources of financial assistance. To the extent practicable, the commissioner shall assist recipients in obtaining matching grants from other sources.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 40A.152, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [FEE.] A county that is a metropolitan county under section 473.121, subdivision 4, has allowed exclusive agricultural zones to be created under this chapter, ~~that has designated lands eligible for agricultural preserves under section 473H.04~~, or that has elected to become an agricultural land preservation pilot county, shall impose an additional fee of ~~$3~~ $5 per transaction on the recording or registration of a mortgage subject to the tax under section 287.05 and an additional ~~$3~~ $5 on the recording or registration of a deed subject to the tax under section 287.21. One-half of the fee must be deposited in a special conservation account to be created in the county general revenue fund and one-half must be transferred to the commissioner of revenue for deposit in the state treasury and credited to the Minnesota conservation fund.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 40A.152, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [USE OF ACCOUNT.] Money from the county conservation account must be spent by the county to reimburse the county and taxing jurisdictions within the county for revenue lost under the conservation tax credit under section 273.119 or the valuation of agricultural preserves under section 473H.10. If expenditures from other county funds for the same purposes remain at least equal to the amount spent in the previous county budget year, money remaining in the account after these payments the reimbursements are made may be spent for the following purposes:

- (1) agricultural land preservation and conservation planning and implementation of official controls under this chapter or chapter 473H;
- (2) soil conservation activities and enforcement of soil loss ordinances;
- (3) incentives for landowners who create exclusive agricultural use zones;
- (4) payments to municipalities within the county for the purposes of clauses (1) to (3).

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473H.10, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMPUTATION OF TAX; STATE REIMBURSEMENT.] (a) After having determined the market value of all land valued according to subdivision 2, the assessor shall compute the assessed value of those properties by applying the appropriate classification percentages. When computing the rate of tax pursuant to section 275.08, the county auditor shall include the assessed value of land as provided in this clause.

(b) The county auditor shall compute the tax on lands valued according to subdivision 2 and nonresidential buildings by multiplying the assessed value times the total rate of tax for all purposes as provided in clause (a).

(c) The county auditor shall then compute the maximum ad valorem property tax on lands valued according to subdivision 2 and nonresidential buildings by multiplying the assessed value times 105 percent of the previous year's statewide average mill rate levied on property located within townships for all purposes.

(d) The tax due and payable by the owner of preserve land valued according to subdivision 2 and nonresidential buildings will be the amount determined in clause (b) or (c), whichever is less. If the gross tax in clause (c) is less than the gross tax in clause (b), the state shall reimburse the taxing jurisdictions for the amount of difference. Residential buildings shall continue to be valued and classified according to the provisions of sections 273.11 and 273.13, as they would be in the absence of this section, and the tax on those buildings shall not be subject to the limitation contained in this clause.

The county may transfer money from the county conservation account created in section 40A.152 to the county revenue fund to reimburse the fund for the tax lost as a result of this subdivision or to pay taxing jurisdictions within the county for the tax lost. The county auditor shall certify to the commissioner of revenue on or before June 1 the total amount of tax lost to the county and taxing jurisdictions located within the county as a result of this subdivision and the extent that the tax lost exceeds funds available in the county conservation account. Payments shall be made by the state as provided in section 273.13, subdivision 15a to each of the affected taxing jurisdictions if the county conservation account is insufficient to make the reimbursement. There is annually appropriated from the Minnesota conservation fund under section 40A.151 to the commissioner of revenue an amount sufficient to make the reimbursement provided in this subdivision. If the amount available in the Minnesota conservation fund is insufficient, the balance that is needed is appropriated from the general fund.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473H.17, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Land within an agricultural preserve shall be maintained for agricultural production. The average maximum density of residential structures within an agricultural preserve shall not exceed one unit per 40 acres. The location of any new structure shall conform to locally applicable zoning regulations. Commercial and industrial uses shall not be permitted except that ~~small on-farm commercial or industrial operations normally associated with and important to farming in the area may be permitted by~~ the as provided in section 7 after the user is issued a permit by the authority. The authority shall be responsible for enforcing this section.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473H.17, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [ALLOWED COMMERCIAL AND INDUSTRIAL OPERATIONS.] (a) Commercial and industrial operations are not allowed on land within an agricultural preserve except:

(1) small on-farm commercial or industrial operations normally associated with and important to farming in the agricultural preserve area;

(2) storage use of existing farm buildings that does not disrupt the integrity of the agricultural preserve; and

(3) small commercial use of existing farm buildings for trades not disruptive to the integrity of the agricultural preserve such as a carpentry shop, small scale mechanics shop, and similar activities that a farm operator might conduct.

(b) "Existing" in paragraph (a), clauses (2) and (3), means existing on August 1, 1987.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473H.17, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DENSITY RESTRICTION AFTER SUBDIVISION.] When a separate parcel is created for a residential structure, commercial, or industrial use permitted under subdivision 1, the parcel shall cease to be an agricultural preserve unless the eligibility requirements of section 473H.03 are met. However, the residential unit separate parcel shall continue to be included in remain under the maximum residential density restrictions in effect for the original preserve at the time it was placed into the preserve until the agricultural preserve status for the original parcel ends.

ARTICLE 8

AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES UTILIZATION

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 17.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [AGRICULTURAL DIVERSIFICATION.] The commissioner shall establish a program of agricultural diversification. The commissioner must assist the horticultural industry, help producers diversify farming operations, and coordinate state agency efforts regarding agricultural diversification, after consulting with farm groups, the University of Minnesota and applicable institutions of higher learning. The commissioner shall report to the governor and legislature annually on activities and actions that should be taken in these matters.

Sec. 2. [17.50] [POLICY.]

The state must explore alternative uses for agricultural products to enable the state's agricultural economy to reach its full potential. The state must promote and encourage cooperative efforts between public and private interests in conducting basic research and disseminating the results on agricultural commodity utilization.

Sec. 2. [AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES UTILIZATION.]

Subdivision 1. [REVIEW AND STUDY.] The commissioner must review and study basic research for commodity utilization.

Subd. 2. [CONTACTS.] In conducting the review and study, the commissioner must contact knowledgeable people in all areas of basic research for commodity utilization including commodity groups, university and research facilities, private industry, farmers, farm groups, and other interested persons as determined by the commissioner.

Subd. 3. [REPORT.] The commissioner must prepare a report on the research findings and submit it to the agriculture committees of the legislature by February 1, 1988.

Subd. 4. [RESPONSIBILITIES.] The commissioner's report must include recommendations for:

- (1) defining the parameters of basic research for commodity utilization;
- (2) identifying appropriate entities to conduct basic research on commodity utilization;
- (3) establishing a procedure for disseminating information received through research efforts; and
- (4) the size and scope of state efforts including funding and time schedules.

ARTICLE 9

APPROPRIATIONS

Section 1. [AGRICULTURAL DATA COLLECTION TASK FORCE.]

$70,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the legislative advisory commission to fund the activities of the agricultural data collection task force to be available until June 30, 1989.

Sec. 2. [MINNESOTA GROWN MARKETING ACCOUNT.]

$400,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the Minnesota grown marketing account to be available in the amounts for the fiscal years indicated

1988	1989
$200,000	$200,000

Sec. 3. [AGRICULTURAL PRESERVES DEFICIENCY.]

$90,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of revenue to pay for deficiencies in the agricultural preserves program for 1986.

Sec. 4. [AGRICULTURAL LAND PRESERVATION PLANNING GUIDE.]

$60,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of agriculture to provide technical assistance for agricultural land preservation and conservation activities, including preparation and publication of an agricultural land preservation planning handbook for use by local units of government, and for a study and report on the costs of providing public services to agricultural and other land uses.

Sec. 5. [AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES UTILIZATION.]

$25,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of agriculture to conduct the review, study, and report on agricultural commodities utilization. This appropriation is not effective until it is matched by $25,000 in private contributions.

Sec. 6. [INTERSTATE COMPACT ON GRAIN MARKETING.]

$50,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of agriculture for payment of financing the operations of the state's portion of the interstate compact on grain marketing.

Sec. 7. [SUSTAINABLE AGRICULTURE CHAIR.]

Subdivision 1. [APPROPRIATION.] $100,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the University of Minnesota to establish an endowment for a chair in sustainable agriculture subject to the conditions of subdivision 2. This appropriation is to be included in the nonstate sources of endowment under section 137.022, subdivision 3. Sustainable agriculture represents the best aspects of traditional and modern agriculture by utilizing a fundamental understanding of nature, as well as the latest scientific advances to create integrated, self-reliant, resource conserving practices that enhance the enrichment of the environment and provide short- and long-term productive agriculture.

Subd. 2. [PRIVATE CONTRIBUTIONS REQUIRED.] The appropriation under subdivision 1 is not effective until sufficient private contributions or pledges have been made so that the private contributions and pledges, plus the appropriation under subdivision 1, are sufficient to establish the endowment for a chair in sustainable agriculture. The appropriation cancels on June 30, 1992, if sufficient private contributions and pledges have not been made.

Sec. 8. [SWEET SORGHUM RESEARCH.]

$394,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the state board of vocational technical education for a demonstration project at the Mankato vocational technical institute involving butanol and ethanol production from sweet sorghum, for the biennium ending June 30, 1989.

Sec. 9. [WILD RICE RESEARCH.]

$48,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the University of Minnesota for the agricultural experimental station to conduct wild rice research to be available until June 30, 1989, as follows:

- | | |
|--|----------|
| (a) for experiments on use of fertilizers | $10,000 |
| (b) for experiments on the influence of rotation and residue removal on diseases, weeds, and yield | $10,000 |
| (c) to evaluate cost advantages and effect on yields of leveling and tiling | $ 8,000 |
| (d) to conduct controlled-site experiments into the advantages of existing and future varieties of wild rice | $20,000 |

Sec. 10. [STATE BOARD OF VOCATIONAL TECHNICAL EDUCATION.]

Subdivision 1. [STAFF SUPPORT.] $1,922,500 is appropriated from the general fund to the state board of vocational technical education for the biennium ending June 30, 1989, to provide the following services:

- | | |
|--|------------|
| (1) support staff for farm business management instructors | $ 202,500 |
|--|------------|

(2) additional farm business and small business management programs	$1,350,000
(3) workshops for farmers for marketing, alternative enterprises, and financial management	$ 200,000
(4) staff development workshops	$ 50,000
(5) beginning farmer programs	$ 120,000

Subd. 2. [FARM OPERATION FINANCIAL PLANNING.] $112,500 is appropriated from the general fund to the state board of vocational technical education, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1987, to provide salary and travel to hire 15 support staff knowledgeable in financial planning for farm operations to assist farm business management instructors with unusually heavy workloads due to demand by farmers for assistance with mediation, obtaining credit, application for assistance programs such as interest buy-down, and in areas where bank closures may occur.

These 15 support staff shall be assigned to the area vocational technical institutes where area vocational agricultural coordinators are located. The area vocational agricultural coordinator shall then assign them to farm business management staff in their respective areas.

Funding must be used for salary and travel for up to three months at $7,500 for each staff person.

Sec. 11. [FARM ADVOCATE PROGRAM.]

$810,800 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of agriculture in the fiscal years indicated for the farm advocate program for the following purposes:

	1988	1989
(a) Salary contracts	$350,000	$350,000
(b) Training, including FINPACK	46,000	25,000
(c) Expenses	23,300	16,500

If the appropriation for either year is insufficient, the appropriation for the other year is available.

Sec. 12. [RURAL FINANCE AUTHORITY.]

Subdivision 1. [RURAL FINANCE AUTHORITY.] $300,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the rural finance authority for administering the beginning farmer loan program.

The complement of the authority is increased by _____ positions.

Subd. 2. [DEBT SERVICE.] $_____ is appropriated from the general fund to the rural finance authority for debt service on general obligation bonds issued for the beginning farmer program."

Subdivision 1. [NATIVE PRAIRIE VALUES.] The commissioner of natural resources must recognize the values of native prairie resources taking into consideration the wildlife, scientific, erosion control, educational, and recreational benefits of native prairie.

Subd. 2. [PLANNING.] The commissioner must plan for management, development and restoration of:

(1) prairie land under the commissioner's jurisdiction; and

(2) prairie landscape reserves comprised of an integrated network of protected prairie lands, prairie restoration sites, and private prairie lands.

Subd. 3. [PRAIRIE LANDSCAPE RESERVES.] The commissioner must develop and manage permanent prairie landscape reserves to maintain the native plant and animal populations, landscape features, and habitat types that are characteristic of intact native prairie ecosystems. Management practices may include haying and grazing.

Subd. 4. [PRAIRIE BIOLOGIST.] The position of prairie biologist is established in the department of natural resources as part of the scientific and natural areas program to plan, develop, and manage native prairie reserves and prairie land. The prairie biologist shall be located within the prairie region.

Sec. 26. [84.963] [PRAIRIE PLANT SEED PRODUCTION AREAS.]

The commissioner of natural resources shall study the feasibility of establishing private or public prairie plant seed production areas within prairie land locations. If prairie plant seed production is feasible, the commissioner may aid the establishment of production areas. The commissioner may enter cost-share or sharecrop agreements with landowners having easements for conservation purposes of ten or more years on their land to commercially produce prairie plant seed of Minnesota origin. The commissioner may aid prairie plant seed production areas only on agricultural land used to produce crops before December 23, 1985, and cropped three out of five years between 1981 and 1985.

Sec. 27. [EXISTING AND NEW EMERGENCY RULES.]

The commissioner of agriculture may adopt emergency rules to implement this act. The emergency rules adopted on August 27, 1986, shall remain in effect until amended or replaced by emergency or permanent rules."

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Mr. Moe, R.D. moved that the Committee Reports at the Desk be now adopted, with the exception of the reports on S.F. Nos. 156, 1044 and 187. The motion prevailed.

Mr. Willet from the Committee on Environment and Natural Resources, to which was re-referred

S.F. No. 69: A bill for an act relating to agriculture; establishing a commercial fish raising program; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 17.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [17.50] [PROGRAM ESTABLISHMENT.]

The commissioner shall establish and promote a program for the commercial raising of fish in fish farms in consultation with an advisory committee consisting of the aquaculture section of the fish and wildlife division of the University of Minnesota, the commissioner of natural resources, representatives of private fish raising industry, and the chairs of the fish and wildlife subcommittees of the house of representatives and senate.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97A.475, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 29a. [FISH FARMS.] The fees for the following licenses to be issued to residents and nonresidents are:

- (1) for a fish farm, $250; and*
- (2) to take sucker eggs from public waters for a fish farm, $150, plus $3 for each quart in excess of 100 quarts.*

Sec. 3. [97C.203] [DISPOSAL OF STATE HATCHERY EGGS OR FRY.]

(a) The commissioner shall dispose of game fish eggs and fry according to the following order of priorities:

- (1) distribution of fish eggs and fry to state hatcheries to hatch fry or raise fingerlings for stocking waters of the state for recreational fishing;*
- (2) sale of fish eggs and fry to private fish hatcheries to hatch fry or raise fingerlings to stock waters of this state with fingerlings for recreational fishing; and*
- (3) sale of fish eggs and fry to private fish hatcheries and fish farms to hatch fry or raise fingerlings for sale.*

(b) Until July 1, 1990, the commissioner must make at least two percent of the game fish eggs collected available to private hatcheries.

Sec. 4. [97C.209] [FISH FARMS.]

Subdivision 1. [LICENSE REQUIRED.] A person may not operate a fish farm without a fish farm license. A fish farm is a facility for commercially raising fish for sale or human consumption.

Subd. 2. [ACQUISITION OF FISH.] (a) A person operating a fish farm may not obtain fish or fish eggs outside of the state unless the fish are approved by the commissioner. The commissioner must either approve or deny the acquisition within 30 days after receiving a written request for approval.

(b) If the commissioner denies approval, a written notice must be submitted to the applicant stating the reasons for the denial and the commissioner must:

- (1) designate approved sources to obtain the desired fish or fish eggs; or*
- (2) sell the fish or fish eggs from state fish hatcheries at fair market value.*

Subd. 3. [RULES FOR OPERATION.] The commissioner shall prescribe rules that allow a person to maintain and operate a fish farm to raise and dispose of fish. The commissioner shall prescribe and assess a fee to cover the cost of inspection and disease certification of fish farms.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97C.211, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [LICENSE REQUIRED.] A person may not operate a private fish hatchery without a private fish hatchery license. A private fish hatchery is a facility for raising fish for sale for stocking waters.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97C.211, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [RULES FOR OPERATION.] The commissioner shall prescribe rules that allow a person to maintain and operate a private fish hatchery to raise and dispose of fish ~~indigenous to state waters~~. The commissioner shall establish and assess a fee to cover the cost of inspection and disease certification of private hatcheries.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97C.211, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [ACQUISITION OF FISH.] (a) A private fish hatchery may not obtain fish outside of the state unless the fish are approved by the commissioner. The commissioner must either approve or deny the acquisition within 30 days after receiving a written request for approval.

(b) If the commissioner denies approval, a written notice must be submitted to the applicant stating the reasons for the denial and the commissioner must:

- (1) designate approved sources to obtain the desired fish; or
- (2) sell the fish or fish eggs from state fish hatcheries at fair market value.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 97C.391, is amended to read:

97C.391 [BUYING AND SELLING FISH.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL RESTRICTIONS.] A person may not buy or sell fish taken from the waters of this state, except:

- (1) minnows;
- (2) rough fish excluding ciscoes;
- (3) fish taken under licensed commercial fishing operations;
- (4) fish raised in a fish farm that are identified as prescribed by the commissioner;
- ~~(4)~~ (5) fish raised in a private hatchery that are tagged or labeled or otherwise identified as prescribed by the commissioner; and
- ~~(5)~~ (6) fish lawfully taken and subject to sale from other states and countries.

Subd. 2. [RESTRICTIONS ON CERTAIN GAME FISH.] Largemouth bass, smallmouth bass, rock bass, muskellunge, and sunfish may not be bought or sold, unless bought or sold by a private hatchery or fish farm to stock waters for recreational fishing as prescribed by the commissioner."

(12) without authorization of the adjutant general enters or is present upon the Camp Ripley military reservation; or

(13) returns to the property of another with the intent to harass, abuse, or threaten another, after being told to leave the property and not to return, if the actor has no claim of right to the property and no consent of one with authority to consent.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 609.746, is amended to read:

609.746 [INTERFERENCE WITH PRIVACY.]

Subdivision 1. [SURREPTITIOUS INTRUSION.] Any A person who enters upon another's property and surreptitiously gazes, stares, or peeps in the window of a house or place of dwelling of another with intent to intrude upon or interfere with the privacy of a member of the household thereof is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Subd. 2. [INTRUSION ON PRIVACY.] A person who, with the intent to harass, abuse, or threaten another, repeatedly follows or stalks another, after being told not to do so by the person being followed or stalked, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 609.79, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Whoever,

(1) By means of a telephone,

(a) Makes any comment, request, suggestion or proposal which is obscene, lewd, or lascivious, filthy or indecent,

(b) Repeatedly makes a telephone call, whether or not conversation ensues, without disclosing the caller's identity and with intent to annoy, abuse, threaten, or harass any person at the called number,

(c) Makes or causes the telephone of another repeatedly or continuously to ring, with intent to harass any person at the called number, or

(2) Having control of a telephone, knowingly permits it to be used for any purpose prohibited by this section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 609.795, is amended to read:

609.795 [~~OPENING SEALED LETTER, TELEGRAM, OR PACKAGE;~~ OPENING; HARASSMENT.]

Whoever does either any of the following is guilty of a misdemeanor:

(1) Knowing that the actor does not have the consent of either the sender or the addressee, intentionally opens any sealed letter, telegram, or package addressed to another; or

(2) Knowing that a sealed letter, telegram, or package has been opened without the consent of either the sender or addressee, intentionally publishes any of the contents thereof; or

(3) With the intent to harass, abuse, or threaten, repeatedly uses the mails or delivers letters, telegrams, or packages.

Sec. 5. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 4 are effective August 1, 1987, and apply to crimes committed on or after that date."

Delete the title and insert:

"A bill for an act relating to crime; amending trespass law to prohibit harassment on private property; prohibiting following and stalking with intent to harass, abuse, or threaten; removing requirement that caller not disclose identity for purposes of misdemeanor harassing telephone calls; prohibiting intentional harassment by delivering a letter or object; providing penalties; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 609.605, subdivision 1; 609.746; 609.79, subdivision 1; and 609.795."

And when so amended the bill do pass. Amendments adopted. Report adopted.

S.F. No. 785: A bill for an act relating to crimes; authorizing filing of felony charges before the 14-day requirement when the crime charged is depriving another of parental rights; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 609.26, subdivisions 2 and 5.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 609.26, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DEFENSES.] No person violates subdivision 1 if the action:

(1) is taken to protect the child from physical or sexual assault or substantial emotional harm;

(2) is taken to protect the person taking the action from physical or sexual assault; or

(3) is consented to by the parent, stepparent, or legal custodian seeking prosecution; or

(4) is otherwise authorized by a court order issued prior to the violation of subdivision 1.

The defenses provided in this subdivision are in addition to and do not limit other defenses available under this chapter or chapter 611.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 609.26, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [DISMISSAL OF CHARGE.] A felony charge brought under this section shall be dismissed if:

(a) the person voluntarily returns the child within 14 days after taking, detaining, or failing to return the child in violation of this section; or

(b)(1) the person taking the action and the child have not left the state of Minnesota; and (2) within a period of 14 days after taking the action, (i) a motion or proceeding under chapter 518, 518A, 518B, or 518C is commenced by the person taking the action, or (ii) the attorney representing the person taking the action has consented to service of process by the party whose rights are being deprived, for any motion or action pursuant to chapter 518, 518A, 518B, or 518C.

Clause (a) does not apply if the person returns the child as a result of being located by law enforcement authorities.

This subdivision does not prohibit the filing of felony charges or an offense report before the expiration of the 14 days.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 609.26, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PENALTY.] Except as otherwise provided in subdivision 5, whoever violates this section may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than ~~one year and one day~~ two years or to payment of a fine of ~~$3,000~~ $4,000, or both."

S.F. No. 446: A bill for an act relating to civil actions; limitations on commencement of actions; providing for the limitation of actions before administrative agencies; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 541.01.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 541.07, is amended to read:

541.07 [TWO OR THREE YEAR LIMITATIONS.]

Except where the uniform commercial code or this section otherwise prescribes, the following actions shall be commenced within two years:

(1) For libel, slander, assault, battery, false imprisonment, or other tort, resulting in personal injury, and all actions against physicians, surgeons, dentists, other health care professionals as defined in section 145.61, and veterinarians as defined in chapter 156, hospitals, sanatoriums, for malpractice, error, mistake or failure to cure, whether based on contract or tort; provided a counter-claim may be pleaded as a defense to any action for services brought by a physician, surgeon, dentist or other health care professional or veterinarian, hospital or sanatorium, after the limitations herein described notwithstanding it is barred by the provisions of this chapter, if it was the property of the party pleading it at the time it became barred and was not barred at the time the claim sued on originated, but no judgment thereof except for costs can be rendered in favor of the party so pleading it;

(2) Upon a statute for a penalty or forfeiture;

(3) For damages caused by a dam, other than a dam used for commercial purposes; but as against one holding under the preemption or homestead laws, the limitations shall not begin to run until a patent has been issued for the land so damaged;

(4) Against a master for breach of an indenture of apprenticeship; the limitation runs from the expiration of the term of service;

(5) For the recovery of wages or overtime or damages, fees or penalties accruing under any federal or state law respecting the payment of wages or overtime or damages, fees or penalties except, that if the employer fails to submit payroll records by a specified date upon request of the department of labor and industry or if the nonpayment is willful and not the result of mistake or inadvertence, the limitation is three years. The limitation periods in this paragraph apply whether the action is brought in court or before an administrative agency. (The term "wages" means all remuneration for services or employment, including commissions and bonuses and the cash value of all remuneration in any medium other than cash, where the relationship of master and servant exists and the term "damages," means single, double, or treble damages, accorded by any statutory cause of action whatsoever and whether or not the relationship of master and servant exists);

(6) For damages caused by the establishment of a street or highway grade or a change in the originally established grade;

(7) For sales or use taxes imposed by the laws of any other state;

(8) Against the person who applies the pesticide for injury or damage to property resulting from the application, but not the manufacture or sale, of a pesticide.”

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.064, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [GROUNDS FOR MONETARY RECOVERY AND SANCTIONS AGAINST VENDORS.] The commissioner may seek monetary recovery and impose sanctions against vendors of medical care for any of the following: fraud, theft, or abuse in connection with the provision of medical care to recipients of public assistance; a pattern of presentment of false or duplicate claims or claims for services not medically necessary; a pattern of making false statements of material facts for the purpose of obtaining greater compensation than that to which the vendor is legally entitled; suspension or termination as a Medicare vendor; and refusal to grant the state agency access during regular business hours to examine all records necessary to disclose the extent of services provided to program recipients. ~~No sanction may be imposed or monetary recovery obtained against any vendor of nursing home or convalescent care for providing services not medically necessary when the services provided were ordered by a licensed health professional not an employee of the vendor.~~ The determination of services not medically necessary shall be made by the commissioner in consultation with a ~~provider~~ peer advisory committee appointed by the commissioner on the recommendation of appropriate professional organizations.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.421, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] For the purposes of this section and sections 256B.41, 256B.411, 256B.431, ~~256B.433~~, 256B.47, 256B.48, 256B.50, and 256B.502, the following terms and phrases shall have the meaning given to them.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.433, is amended to read:
256B.433 [ANCILLARY SERVICES.]

Subdivision 1. [SETTING PAYMENT; MONITORING USE OF THERAPY SERVICES.] The commissioner shall promulgate rules pursuant to the administrative procedure act to set the amount and method of payment for ancillary materials and services provided to recipients residing in ~~long-term care facilities~~ nursing homes. Payment for materials and services may be made to either the nursing home in the operating cost per diem, to the vendor of ancillary services pursuant to Minnesota Rules, parts 9500.0750 to 9500.1080 or to a nursing home pursuant to Minnesota Rules, parts 9500.0750 to 9500.1080. Payment for the same or similar service to a recipient shall not be made to both the nursing home and the vendor. The commissioner shall ensure the avoidance of double payments through audits and adjustments to the nursing home's annual cost report as required by section 256B.47, and that charges for ancillary materials and services are as would be incurred by a prudent and cost conscious buyer. Therapy services provided to a recipient must be medically necessary and appropriate to the medical condition of the recipient. If the provider of therapy services or ordering physician cannot provide adequate medical necessity justification, as determined by the commissioner in consultation with an advisory committee that meets the requirements of section 256B.064, sub- division 1a, the commissioner may recover or disallow the payment for the services and may require prior authorization for therapy services as a condition of payment or may impose administrative sanctions to limit the provider of therapy services or ordering physician's participation in the medical assistance program. For purposes of sections 1 to 7, "provider of therapy services" means the person or organization who is enrolled in the medical assistance program and under whose provider number therapy services are billed.

Subd. 2. [CERTIFICATION THAT TREATMENT IS APPROPRIATE.] The physical therapist, occupational therapist, speech therapist, or audiologist who provides or supervises the provision of therapy services, other than an initial evaluation, to a medical assistance recipient must certify in writing that the therapy's nature, scope, duration, and intensity are appropriate to the medical condition of the recipient every 30 days. The therapist's statement of certification must be maintained in the recipient's medical record together with the specific orders by the physician and the treatment plan. If the recipient's medical record does not include these documents, the commissioner may recover or disallow the payment for such services. If the therapist determines that the therapy's nature, scope, duration, or intensity is not appropriate to the medical condition of the recipient, the therapist must provide a statement to that effect in writing to the nursing home for inclusion in the recipient's medical record. The commissioner shall utilize a peer review program that meets the requirements of section 256B.064, subdivision 1a, to make recommendations regarding the medical necessity of services provided.

Subd. 3. [SEPARATE BILLINGS FOR THERAPY SERVICES.] Until new procedures are developed pursuant to subdivision 4, payment for therapy services provided to nursing home residents that are billed separately from the nursing home's payment rate or according to Minnesota Rules, parts 9500.0750 to 9500.1080, shall be subject to the following requirements:

(a) The practitioner invoice must include, in a format specified by the commissioner, the provider number of the nursing home where the medical assistance recipient resides regardless of the service setting.

(b) The commissioner shall require reporting of all revenues relating to the provision of therapy services and shall establish a medical assistance cost to medical assistance revenue ratio for the reporting year ending in 1986. The commissioner shall determine the ratio as follows:

(1) For each nursing home, establish the medical assistance cost for therapy services by dividing the nursing home's total medical assistance revenues by total revenues for therapy services and multiplying the result by the costs for therapy services determined in section 256B.47.

(2) For each nursing home, establish the medical assistance cost to revenue ratio for therapy services by dividing the medical assistance cost for therapy services as determined in clause (1) by the medical assistance revenues for therapy services.

The commissioner shall establish a weighted average medical assistance cost to revenue ratio for therapy services for the nursing home industry based on individual nursing home ratios. Nursing homes with an individual medical assistance cost to revenue ratio that is equal to or greater than the industry's weighted average ratio are subject to paragraph (c). Nursing homes with an individual medical assistance cost to revenue ratio that is less than the industry's weighted average ratio shall offset the lesser of the amount determined in paragraph (c) or the amount of offset that is imputed based on one minus the industry's weighted average ratio multiplied by the nursing home's medical assistance revenues for therapy services. In subsequent reporting years, the individual nursing home's cost to revenue ratio may increase five percentage points in total until a new base year is established under paragraph (f).

(c) Nursing homes that are related by ownership, control, agreement, affiliation, or employment status to the vendor of therapy services shall report, in a format specified by the commissioner, the revenues received during the reporting year for therapy services provided to residents of the nursing home. The commissioner shall offset the medical assistance revenues received during the reporting year for therapy services provided to residents of the nursing home to the total payment rate of the nursing home by dividing the amount of offset by the nursing home's actual resident days. Except as specified in paragraph (b), the amount of offset shall be the medical assistance revenues in excess of 105 percent of the medical assistance cost as determined in paragraph (b), clause (1), removed from the cost report resulting from the requirement of the commissioner to ensure the avoidance of double payments as determined by section 256B.47. In establishing a new base period for the purpose of setting operating cost payment rate limits and rates, the commissioner shall not include the medical assistance revenues offset in accordance with this section.

(d) Nursing homes shall limit charges in total to vendors of therapy services for renting space, equipment, or obtaining other services during the rate year to 105 percent of the annualized cost removed from the reporting year cost report resulting from the requirement of the commissioner to ensure the avoidance of double payments as determined by section 256B.47. If the arrangement for therapy services is changed so that a nursing home is subject to this paragraph instead of paragraphs (b) and (c), the cost that is used to determine rent must be adjusted to exclude the annualized costs for therapy services that are not provided in the rate year. The maximum charges to the vendors shall be based on the commissioner's determination of annualized cost and may be subsequently adjusted upon resolution of appeals.

(e) This section does not allow unrelated nursing homes to reorganize related organization therapy services and provide services among themselves to avoid offsetting revenues. Nursing homes that are found to be in violation of this provision shall be subject to the penalty requirements of section 256B.48, subdivision 1, paragraph (f).

(f) The commissioner may establish a new reporting year base for determining the cost to revenue ratios.

Subd. 4. [ADVISORY COMMITTEE.] The commissioner shall convene an advisory committee consisting of nursing home consumers, therapists from each discipline, and representatives of the nursing home industry. The commissioner, in consultation with the advisory committee, shall study alternative methods of payment for therapy services provided to nursing home residents and report to the legislature by February 1, 1989.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.47, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [NONALLOWABLE COSTS.] The following costs shall not be recognized as allowable: (1) political contributions; (2) salaries or expenses of a lobbyist, as defined in section 10A.01, subdivision 11, for lobbying activities; (3) advertising designed to encourage potential residents to select a particular nursing home; (4) assessments levied by the commissioner of health for uncorrected violations; (5) legal and related expenses for unsuccessful challenges to decisions by governmental agencies; (6) memberships in sports, health or similar social clubs or organizations; ~~and~~ (7) costs incurred for activities directly related to influencing employees with respect to unionization; and (8) direct and indirect costs of providing services which are billed separately from the nursing home's payment rate or pursuant to Minnesota Rules, parts 9500.0750 to 9500.1080. The commissioner shall by rule exclude the costs of any other items not directly related to the provision of resident care.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.47, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [ALLOCATION OF COSTS.] To ensure the avoidance of double payments as required by section 256B.433, the direct and indirect reporting year costs of providing residents of nursing homes that are not hospital-attached with therapy services that are billed separately from the nursing home payment rate or according to Minnesota Rules, parts 9500.0750 to 9500.1080, must be determined and deducted from the appropriate cost categories of the annual cost report as follows:

(a) The costs of wages and salaries for employees providing or participating in providing and consultants providing services shall be allocated to the therapy service based on direct identification.

(b) The costs of fringe benefits and payroll taxes relating to the costs in paragraph (a) must be allocated to the therapy service based on direct identification or the ratio of total costs in paragraph (a) to the sum of total allowable salaries and the costs in paragraph (a).

(c) The costs of housekeeping, plant operations and maintenance, real estate taxes, special assessments, property and insurance, other than the amounts classified as a fringe benefit, must be allocated to the therapy service based on the ratio of service area square footage to total facility square footage.

(d) The costs of bookkeeping and medical records must be allocated to the therapy service either by the method in paragraph (e) or based on direct identification. Direct identification may be used if adequate documentation is provided to, and accepted by, the commissioner.

(e) The costs of administrators, bookkeeping, and medical records salaries, except as provided in paragraph (d), must be allocated to the therapy service based on the ratio of the total costs in paragraphs (a) to (d) to the sum of total allowable nursing home costs and the costs in paragraphs (a) to (d).

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.47, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [ALLOCATION OF COSTS; HOSPITAL-ATTACHED FACILITIES.] To ensure the avoidance of double payments as required by section 256B.433, the direct and indirect reporting year costs of providing therapy services to residents of a hospital-attached nursing home, when the services are billed separately from the nursing home's payment rate or according to Minnesota Rules, parts 9500.0750 to 9500.1080, must be determined and deducted from the appropriate cost categories of the annual cost report based on the Medicare step-down as prepared in accordance with instructions provided by the commissioner.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.48, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PROHIBITED PRACTICES.] A nursing home is not eligible to receive medical assistance payments unless it refrains from all of the following:

(a) Charging private paying residents rates for similar services which exceed those which are approved by the state agency for medical assistance recipients as determined by the prospective desk audit rate, except under the following circumstances: the nursing home may (1) charge private paying residents a higher rate for a private room, and (2) charge for special services which are not included in the daily rate if medical assistance residents are charged separately at the same rate for the same services in addition to the daily rate paid by the commissioner. Services covered by the payment rate must be the same regardless of payment source. Special services, if offered, must be offered to all residents and charged separately at the same rate. Residents are free to select or decline special services. Special services must not include services which must be provided by the nursing home in order to comply with licensure or certification standards and that if not provided would result in a deficiency or violation by the nursing home. Services beyond those required to comply with licensure or certification standards must not be charged separately as a special service if they were included in the payment rate for the previous reporting year. A nursing home that charges a private paying resident a rate in violation of this clause is subject to an action by the state of Minnesota or any of its subdivisions or agencies for civil damages. A private paying resident or the resident's legal representative has a cause of action for civil damages against a nursing home that charges the resident rates in violation of this clause. The damages awarded shall include three times the payments that result from the violation, together with costs and disbursements, including reasonable attorneys' fees or their equivalent. A private paying resident or the resident's legal representative, the state, subdivision or agency, or a nursing home may request a hearing to determine the allowed rate or rates at issue in the cause of action. Within 15 calendar days after receiving a request for such a hearing, the commissioner shall request assignment of an administrative law judge under sections 14.48 to 14.56 to conduct the hearing as soon as possible or according to agreement by the parties. The administrative law judge shall issue a report within 15 calendar days following the close of the hearing. The prohibition set forth in this clause shall not apply to facilities licensed as boarding care facilities which are not certified as skilled or intermediate care facilities level I or II for reimbursement through medical assistance;

(b) Requiring an applicant for admission to the home, or the guardian or conservator of the applicant, as a condition of admission, to pay any fee or deposit in excess of $100, loan any money to the nursing home, or promise to leave all or part of the applicant's estate to the home;

(c) Requiring any resident of the nursing home to utilize a vendor of health care services who is a licensed physician or pharmacist chosen by the nursing home;

(d) Providing differential treatment on the basis of status with regard to public assistance;

(e) Discriminating in admissions, services offered, or room assignment on the basis of status with regard to public assistance. Admissions discrimination shall include, but is not limited to:

(1) basing admissions decisions upon assurance by the applicant to the nursing home, or the applicant's guardian or conservator, that the applicant is neither eligible for nor will seek public assistance for payment of nursing home care costs; and

(2) engaging in preferential selection from waiting lists based on an applicant's ability to pay privately.

The collection and use by a nursing home of financial information of any applicant pursuant to the preadmission screening program established by section 256B.091 shall not raise an inference that the nursing home is utilizing that information for any purpose prohibited by this paragraph.

(f) Requiring any vendor of medical care as defined by section 256B.02, subdivision 7, who is reimbursed by medical assistance under a separate fee schedule, to pay any amount based on utilization or service levels or any portion of the vendor's fee to the nursing home except as payment for renting or leasing space or equipment ~~of the nursing home~~ or purchasing support services; ~~if those from the nursing home as limited by section 256B.433. All agreements are must be disclosed to the commissioner; and upon request of the commissioner. Nursing homes and vendors of ancillary services that are found to be in violation of this provision shall each be subject to an action by the state of Minnesota or any of its subdivisions or agencies for treble civil damages on the portion of the fee in excess of that allowed by this provision and section 256B.433. Damages awarded must include three times the excess payments together with costs and disbursements including reasonable attorney fees or their equivalent.~~

(g) Refusing, for more than 24 hours, to accept a resident returning to the same bed or a bed certified for the same level of care, in accordance with a physician's order authorizing transfer, after receiving inpatient hospital services.

The prohibitions set forth in clause (b) shall not apply to a retirement home with more than 325 beds including at least 150 licensed nursing home beds and which:

(1) is owned and operated by an organization tax-exempt under section 290.05, subdivision 1, clause (i); and

(2) accounts for all of the applicant's assets which are required to be assigned to the home so that only expenses for the cost of care of the applicant may be charged against the account; and

(3) agrees in writing at the time of admission to the home to permit the applicant, or the applicant's guardian, or conservator, to examine the records relating to the applicant's account upon request, and to receive an audited statement of the expenditures charged against the applicant's individual account upon request; and

(4) agrees in writing at the time of admission to the home to permit the applicant to withdraw from the home at any time and to receive, upon withdrawal, the balance of the applicant's individual account.

For a period not to exceed 180 days, the commissioner may continue to make medical assistance payments to a nursing home or boarding care home which is in violation of this section if extreme hardship to the residents would result. In these cases the commissioner shall issue an order requiring the nursing home to correct the violation. The nursing home shall have 20 days from its receipt of the order to correct the violation. If the violation is not corrected within the 20-day period the commissioner may reduce the payment rate to the nursing home by up to 20 percent. The amount of the payment rate reduction shall be related to the severity of the violation, and shall remain in effect until the violation is corrected. The nursing home or boarding care home may appeal the commissioner's action pursuant to the provisions of chapter 14 pertaining to contested cases. An appeal shall be considered timely if written notice of appeal is received by the commissioner within 20 days of notice of the commissioner's proposed action.

In the event that the commissioner determines that a nursing home is not eligible for reimbursement for a resident who is eligible for medical assistance, the commissioner may authorize the nursing home to receive reimbursement on a temporary basis until the resident can be relocated to a participating nursing home.

Certified beds in facilities which do not allow medical assistance intake on July 1, 1984, or after shall be deemed to be decertified for purposes of section 144A.071 only."

“Section 1. [245.829] [EMPLOYER DAY CARE GRANTS.]

Subdivision 1. [GRANT AMOUNTS; COVERED EXPENSES.] The commissioner of human services shall administer a program to provide grants to employers who want to provide child day care services for the benefit of their employees at the site of employment or within close proximity to the site of employment and who meet the criteria listed in subdivision 2. The grant shall be equal to 50 percent of total expenditures paid or incurred by the employer during the first two years for planning, site preparation, construction, renovation, or acquisition of facilities to establish a child care facility for use by the children of the employer's employees, including equipment installed for permanent use and kitchen appliances for use in delivering meals to the children. No employer may receive a grant in excess of $40,000 in either of the first two years of the day care services operation.

If two or more employers share in the cost of establishing or operating a facility for the children of their employees, the commissioner shall apportion the grant between the employers in relation to the respective share paid by the employer to the total expenditures for the services during the year. If the grant is apportioned, the total amount of the grant apportioned may not exceed $40,000.

Subd. 2. [GRANT PRIORITIES.] In reviewing grant proposals for funding, the commissioner will give priority to employers who will:

(1) provide day care services in accordance with all day care licensing laws;

(2) provide day care services at the site of employment or within reasonable walking distance of the employment site;

(3) provide day care services for infants and toddlers;

(4) allow employees with children using the day care services provided under this section flexibility in work schedules to enable visiting time; and

(5) agree to pay child care workers at least 125 percent of the median wages for child care workers in the county.

The employer may not receive any profit from the provision of the day care services or rent from the child care site. In addition, an employer receiving a grant under this section must continue to provide the day care services program for four years after state funding under this section has ended. If the employer does not continue the program, the state's attorney general shall seek to recover the full amount of the grant from the employer.

Subd. 3. [RULES.] The commissioner may adopt rules under chapter 14 necessary to administer and implement the grant program established under this section.

Sec. 2. [APPROPRIATION.]

$500,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of human services for the purpose of administering the grant program and allocating grants under the provisions of section 1. The appropriation is available until expended. The amount of the appropriation available to the commissioner for administrative expenses must not exceed three percent."

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 14.48, is amended to read:

14.48 [CREATION OF OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS; CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE APPOINTED; OTHER ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGES APPOINTED.]

A state office of administrative hearings is created. The office shall be under the direction of a chief administrative law judge who shall be learned in the law and appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the senate, for a term ending on June 30 of the sixth calendar year after appointment. Senate confirmation of the chief administrative law judge shall be as provided by section 15.066. The chief administrative law judge may hear cases and shall appoint additional administrative law judges and compensation judges to serve in the office as necessary to fulfill the duties prescribed in sections 14.48 to 14.56 and chapter 176. The chief administrative law judge may delegate to a subordinate employee the exercise of a specified statutory power or duty as deemed advisable, subject to the control of the chief administrative law judge. Every delegation must be by written order filed with the secretary of state. All administrative law judges and compensation judges shall be in the classified service except that the chief administrative law judge shall be in the unclassified service, but may be removed only for cause. All administrative law judges shall have demonstrated knowledge of administrative procedures and shall be free of any political or economic association that would impair their ability to function officially in a fair and objective manner. All workers' compensation judges shall be learned in the law, shall have demonstrated knowledge of workers' compensation laws and shall be free of any political or economic association that would impair their ability to function officially in a fair and objective manner.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 175.007, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The commissioner shall appoint an advisory council on workers' compensation, which consists of five representatives of employers and five representatives of employees; five nonvoting members representing the general public; ~~and~~ two persons who have received or are currently receiving workers' compensation benefits under chapter 176 and the chairpersons of the rehabilitation review panel and the medical services review board. The council may consult with any party it desires. The terms and removal of members shall be as provided in section 15.059. The council is not subject to section 15.059, subdivision 5.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 175.101, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The commissioner shall keep a full and true record of all proceedings of the workers' compensation division, issue all necessary processes, writs, warrants, and notices which the division is required or authorized to issue and generally act as the administrator of the division of workers' compensation in the department of labor and industry. Notices and other documents required to be served or filed on the division of workers' compensation ~~or the workers' compensation court of appeals~~ shall be served on the commissioner.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.011, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CHILD.] "Child" includes a posthumous child, a child entitled by law to inherit as a child of a deceased person, a child of a person adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction to be the father of the child, and a stepchild, grandchild, or foster child who was a member of the family of a deceased employee at the time of injury and dependent upon the employee for support. A stepchild is a "child" within the meaning of section 176.041.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.011, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. (1) "Court of appeals" means the workers' compensation court of appeals of Minnesota.

(2) "Division" means the workers' compensation division of the department of labor and industry.

(3) "Department" means the department of labor and industry.

(4) "Commissioner", unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, means the commissioner of labor and industry.

(5) "Office" means the office of administrative hearings.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.011, subdivision 7a, is amended to read:

Subd. 7a. [COMPENSATION JUDGE.] ~~The title referee as used in this chapter, relating to workers' compensation is hereby changed to~~ (1) Compensation judge means a workers' compensation judge at the office of administrative hearings.

(2) "Calendar judge" means a workers' compensation judge at the office of administrative hearings.

(3) "Settlement judge" means a compensation judge at the department of labor and industry. Settlement judges may conduct settlement conferences, issue summary decisions, approve settlements and issue awards thereon, determine petitions for attorney fees and costs, and make other determinations, decisions, orders, and awards as may be delegated to them by the commissioner.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.011, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [EMPLOYEE.] "Employee" means any person who performs services for another for hire including the following:

(1) an alien;

(2) a minor;

(3) a sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable, marshal, police officer, firefighter, county highway engineer, and peace officer while engaged in the enforcement of peace or in the pursuit or capture of any person charged with or suspected of crime and any person requested or commanded to aid an officer in arresting any person, or in retaking any person who has escaped from lawful custody, or in executing any legal process in which case, for purposes of calculating compensation payable under this chapter, the daily wage of the person requested or commanded to assist an officer or to execute a legal process shall be the prevailing wage for similar services where the services are performed by paid employees;

(4) a county assessor;

(5) an elected or appointed official of the state, or of any county, city, town, school district or governmental subdivision in it. An officer of a political subdivision elected or appointed for a regular term of office, or to complete the unexpired portion of a regular term, shall be included only after the governing body of the political subdivision has adopted an ordinance or resolution to that effect;

(6) an executive officer of a corporation, ~~except an officer of a family farm corporation as defined in section 500.24, subdivision 1, clause (e), or an executive officer of a closely held corporation who is referred to in section 176.012 those executive officers excluded by section 176.041;~~

(7) a voluntary uncompensated worker, other than an inmate, rendering services in state institutions under the commissioner of human services and state institutions under the commissioner of corrections similar to those of officers and employees of these institutions, and whose services have been accepted or contracted for by the commissioner of human services or the commissioner of corrections as authorized by law, shall be employees. In the event of injury or death of the voluntary uncompensated worker, the daily wage of the worker, for the purpose of calculating compensation payable under this chapter, shall be the usual going wage paid at the time of the injury or death for similar services in institutions where the services are performed by paid employees;

(8) a voluntary uncompensated worker engaged in peace time in the civil defense program when ordered to training or other duty by the state or any political subdivision of it, shall be an employee. The daily wage of the worker for the purpose of calculating compensation payable under this chapter, shall be the usual going wage paid at the time of the injury or death for similar services where the services are performed by paid employees;

(9) a voluntary uncompensated worker participating in a program established by a county welfare board shall be an employee. In the event of injury or death of the voluntary uncompensated worker, the wage of the worker, for the purpose of calculating compensation payable under this chapter, shall be the usual going wage paid in the county at the time of the injury or death for similar services where the services are performed by paid employees working a normal day and week;

(10) a voluntary uncompensated worker accepted by the commissioner of natural resources who is rendering services as a volunteer pursuant to section 84.089 shall be an employee. The daily wage of the worker for the purpose of calculating compensation payable under this chapter, shall be the usual going wage paid at the time of injury or death for similar services where the services are performed by paid employees;

(11) a member of the military forces, as defined in section 190.05, while in state active service, as defined in section 190.05, subdivision 5a. The daily wage of the member for the purpose of calculating compensation payable under this chapter shall be based on the member's usual earnings in civil life. If there is no evidence of previous occupation or earning, the trier of fact shall consider the member's earnings as a member of the military forces;

(12) a voluntary uncompensated worker, accepted by the director of the Minnesota historical society, rendering services as a volunteer, pursuant to chapter 138, shall be an employee. The daily wage of the worker, for the purposes of calculating compensation payable under this chapter, shall be the usual going wage paid at the time of injury or death for similar services where the services are performed by paid employees;

(13) a voluntary uncompensated worker, other than a student, who renders services at the Minnesota School for the Deaf or the Minnesota Braille and Sight-Saving School, and whose services have been accepted or contracted for by the state board of education, as authorized by law, shall be an employee. In the event of injury or death of the voluntary uncompensated worker, the daily wage of the worker, for the purpose of calculating compensation payable under this chapter, shall be the usual going wage paid at the time of the injury or death for similar services in institutions where the services are performed by paid employees;

(14) a voluntary uncompensated worker, other than a resident of the veterans home, who renders services at a Minnesota veterans home, and whose services have been accepted or contracted for by the commissioner of veterans affairs, as authorized by law, is an employee. In the event of injury or death of the voluntary uncompensated worker, the daily wage of the worker, for the purpose of calculating compensation payable under this chapter, shall be the usual going wage paid at the time of the injury or death for similar services in institutions where the services are performed by paid employees;

(15) a worker who renders in-home attendant care services to a physically handicapped person, and who is paid directly by the commissioner of human services for these services, shall be an employee of the state within the meaning of this subdivision, but for no other purpose;

(16) those students enrolled in and regularly attending the medical school of the University of Minnesota, whether in the graduate school program or the post-graduate program, notwithstanding that the students shall not be considered employees for any other purpose. In the event of the student's injury or death, the weekly wage of the student for the purpose of calculating compensation payable under this chapter, shall be the annualized educational stipend awarded to the student, divided by 52 weeks. The institution in which the student is enrolled shall be considered the "employer" for the limited purpose of determining responsibility for paying benefits payable under this chapter;

(17) a faculty member of the University of Minnesota employed for the current academic year is also an employee for the period between that academic year and the succeeding academic year if:

(a) the faculty member has a contract or reasonable assurance of a contract from the University of Minnesota for the succeeding academic year; and

(b) the personal injury for which compensation is sought arises out of and in the course of activities related to the faculty member's employment

by the University of Minnesota; and

(18) a worker who performs volunteer ambulance driver or attendant services is an employee of the political subdivision, nonprofit hospital, nonprofit corporation, or other entity for which the worker performs the services. The daily wage of the worker for the purpose of calculating compensation payable under this chapter is the usual going wage paid at the time of injury or death for similar services if the services are performed by paid employees; and

(19) a voluntary uncompensated worker, accepted by the commissioner of administration, rendering services as a volunteer at the department of administration. In the event of injury or death of the voluntary uncompensated worker, the daily wage of the worker, for the purpose of calculating compensation payable under this chapter, shall be the usual going wage paid at the time of the injury or death for similar services in institutions where the services were performed by paid employees.

In the event it is difficult to determine the daily wage as provided in this subdivision, then the trier of fact may determine the wage upon which the compensation is payable.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.011, subdivision 17, is amended to read:

Subd. 17. [PHYSICIAN.] "~~Physician~~" means one ~~authorized by law to practice the medical profession within one of the United States and in good standing in the profession, and includes surgeon licensed by the Minnesota state board of medical examiners or other comparable licensing authority in other states of the United States, to practice medicine.~~

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.011, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 17a. [ATTORNEY.] "Attorney" means a person licensed to practice law in Minnesota.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.011, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 17b. [CHIROPRACTOR.] "Chiropractor" means a person licensed to practice chiropractic by the state board of chiropractic examiners.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.011, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 27. [ADMINISTRATIVE CONFERENCE.] An "administrative conference" is a meeting conducted by a commissioner's designee where parties can discuss on an expedited basis and in an informal setting their viewpoints concerning disputed issues arising under section 176.102, 176.103, 176.135, 176.136, or section 60. If the parties are unable to resolve the dispute, the commissioner's designee shall issue an administrative decision under section 27 or 60.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.021, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [BURDEN OF PROOF] All disputed issues of fact arising under this chapter shall be determined by a preponderance of the evidence, and in accordance with the principles laid down in section 176.001. Preponderance of the evidence means evidence produced in substantiation of a fact which, when weighed against the evidence opposing the fact, has more convincing force and greater probability of truth. The possible etiology of an injury must be included in reports and evidence submitted by those licensed as physicians or chiropractors.

Questions of law arising under chapter 176 shall be determined on an even-handed basis in accordance with the principles laid down in section 176.001.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.041, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [EMPLOYMENTS EXCLUDED.] This chapter does not apply to any of the following:

(a) a person employed by a common carrier by railroad engaged in interstate or foreign commerce and who is covered by the Federal Employers' Liability Act, United States Code, title 45, sections 51 to 60, or other comparable federal law;

~~to~~ (b) a person employed by a family farm as defined by section 176.011, subdivision 11a~~;~~;

~~or~~ (c) the spouse, parent, and child, regardless of age, of a farmer-employer working for the farmer-employer;

(d) a sole proprietor, or the spouse, parent, and child, regardless of age, of a sole proprietor;

~~to~~ (e) a partner engaged in a farm operation or a partner engaged in a business and the spouse, parent, and child, regardless of age, of a partner in the farm operation or business;

~~to~~ (f) an executive officer of a family farm corporation;

~~to~~ (g) an executive officer of a closely held corporation ~~referred to in section 176.012~~ having less than 22,880 hours of payroll in the preceding calendar year, if that executive officer owns at least 25 percent of the stock of the corporation;

~~to~~ (h) a spouse, parent, or child, regardless of age, of an executive officer of a family farm corporation as defined in section 500.24, subdivision 2, and employed by that family farm corporation;

~~to~~ (i) a spouse, parent, or child, regardless of age, of an executive officer of a closely held corporation ~~referred to in section 176.012~~ who is referred to in paragraph (g);

~~to~~ (j) another farmer or ~~to~~ a member of the other farmer's family exchanging work with the farmer-employer or family farm corporation operator in the same community;

~~to~~ (k) a person whose employment at the time of the injury is casual and not in the usual course of the trade, business, profession, or occupation of the employer;

(l) persons who are independent contractors as defined by rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to section 176.83 except that this exclusion does not apply to an employee of an independent contractor; ~~nor does this chapter apply to~~

(m) an officer or a member of a veterans' organization whose employment relationship arises solely by virtue of attending meetings or conventions of the veterans' organization, unless the veterans' organization elects by resolution to provide coverage under this chapter for the officer or member-;

~~Neither does the chapter apply to~~ (n) a person employed as a household worker in, for, or about a private home or household who earns less than $1,000 in cash in a three-month period from a single private home or household provided that a household worker who has earned $1,000 or more from the household worker's present employer in a three-month period within the previous year is covered by this chapter regardless of whether or not the household worker has earned $1,000 in the present quarter-;

~~This chapter does not apply to those~~ (o) persons employed by a closely held corporation if ~~those persons who~~ are related by blood or marriage, within the third degree of kindred according to the rules of civil law, to ~~the officers an officer~~ of the corporation, ~~and who is referred to in paragraph (g), if the corporation files a written election with the commissioner to have those persons excluded from this chapter except that exclude such individuals.~~ A written election is not required for a person who is otherwise excluded from this chapter by this section-;

~~This chapter does not apply to~~ (p) a nonprofit association which does not pay more than $1,000 in salary or wages in a year-;

~~This chapter does not apply to~~ (q) persons covered under the Domestic Volunteer Service Act of 1973, as amended, United States Code, title 42, sections 5011, et. seq.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.041, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [ELECTION OF COVERAGE.] The persons, partnerships and corporations described in this subdivision may elect to provide the insurance coverage required by this chapter.

(a) An owner or owners of a business or farm may elect coverage for themselves.

(b) A partnership owning a business or farm may elect coverage for any partner.

(c) A family farm corporation as defined in section 500.24, subdivision 2, clause (c), may elect coverage for any executive officer.

(d) A closely held corporation which had less than 22,880 hours of payroll in the previous calendar year may elect coverage for any executive officer if that executive officer is also an owner of at least 25 percent of the stock of the corporation.

(e) A person, partnership, or corporation hiring an independent contractor, as defined by rules adopted by the commissioner, may elect to provide coverage for that independent contractor.

A person, partnership, or corporation may charge the independent contractor a fee for providing the coverage only if the independent contractor (1) elects in writing to be covered, (2) is issued an endorsement setting forth the terms of the coverage, the name of the independent contractors, and the fee and how it is calculated.

The persons, partnerships and corporations described in this subdivision may also elect coverage for an employee who is a spouse, parent or child, regardless of age, of an owner, partner, or executive officer, who is eligible for coverage under this subdivision. Coverage may be elected for a spouse, parent or child whether or not coverage is elected for the related owner, partner or executive director and whether or not the person, partnership or corporation employs any other person to perform a service for hire. Any person for whom coverage is elected pursuant to this subdivision shall be included within the meaning of the term employee for the purposes of this chapter.

Notice of election of coverage or of termination of election under this subdivision shall be provided in writing to the insurer. Coverage or termination of coverage is effective the day following receipt of notice by the insurer or at a subsequent date if so indicated in the notice. The insurance policy shall be endorsed to indicate the names of those persons for whom coverage has been elected or terminated under this subdivision. An election of coverage under this subdivision shall continue in effect as long as a policy or renewal policy of the same insurer is in effect.

Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to limit the responsibilities of owners, partnerships or corporations to provide coverage for their employees, if any, as required under this chapter.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.081, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. An application for attorney fees in excess of the amount authorized in subdivision 1 shall be made to the ~~division~~ commissioner, compensation judge, or district judge, before whom the matter was heard. An appeal of a decision by the commissioner, a compensation judge, or district court judge on additional fees may be made to the workers' compensation court of appeals. The application shall set forth the fee requested and the basis for the request and whether or not a hearing is requested. The application, with affidavit of service upon the employee, shall be filed by the attorney requesting the fee. If a hearing is requested by an interested party, a hearing shall be set with notice of the hearing served upon known interested parties. In all cases the employee shall be served with notice of hearing.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.102, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ADMINISTRATORS.] The commissioner shall hire a director of rehabilitation services in the classified service. The commissioner shall monitor and supervise rehabilitation services, including, but not limited to, making determinations regarding the selection and delivery of rehabilitation services and the criteria used to approve qualified rehabilitation consultants and rehabilitation vendors. The commissioner may also make determinations regarding fees for rehabilitation services; ~~the fitness of qualified rehabilitation consultants and vendors to continue to be approved under this section and has authority to discipline, by fine or otherwise, the consultants or vendors who act in violation of this chapter or rules adopted pursuant to this chapter.~~ The commissioner may hire qualified personnel to assist in the commissioner's duties under this section and may delegate the duties and performance.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.102, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [REVIEW PANEL.] There is created a rehabilitation review panel composed of the commissioner or a designee, who shall serve as an ex officio member and two members each from employers, insurers, rehabilitation, and medicine, one member representing chiropractors, and four members representing labor. The members shall be appointed by the commissioner and shall serve four-year terms which may be renewed. Compensation for members shall be governed by section 15.0575. The panel shall select a chair. The panel shall review and make a determination with respect to ~~(a) appeals regarding eligibility for rehabilitation services, rehabilitation plans and rehabilitation benefits under subdivisions 9 and 11; (b) appeals on any other rehabilitation issue the commissioner determines under this section; and (c) appeals from orders of the commissioner regarding fee disputes, penalties, discipline, certification approval or revocation of registration of qualified rehabilitation consultants and approved vendors. The hearings are de novo and initiated by the panel under the contested case procedures of chapter 14, and are appealable to the workers' compensation court of appeals in the manner provided by section 176.421.~~

Subd. 3a. [DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS.] The panel has authority to discipline qualified rehabilitation consultants and vendors and may impose a penalty of up to $1,000 per violation, and may suspend or revoke certification. Complaints against registered qualified rehabilitation consultants and vendors shall be made to the commissioner who shall investigate all complaints. If the investigation indicates a violation of this chapter or rules adopted under this chapter, the commissioner may initiate a contested case proceeding under the provisions of chapter 14. In these cases, the rehabilitation review panel shall make the final decision following receipt of the report of an administrative law judge. The decision of the panel is appealable to the workers' compensation court of appeals in the manner provided by section 176.421. The panel shall continuously study rehabilitation services and delivery and, develop and recommend rehabilitation rules to the commissioner, and assist the commissioner in accomplishing public education.

The commissioner may appoint alternates for one-year terms to serve as a member when a member is unavailable. The number of alternates shall not exceed one labor member, one employer or insurer member, and one member representing medicine, chiropractic, or rehabilitation.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.102, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a- 3b. [REVIEW PANEL APPEALS DETERMINATIONS.] Appeals to the review panel Recommendations from the administrative law judge following a contested case hearing shall be heard before determined by a panel of five members designated by the review panel. Each five-member panel shall consist of at least one labor member, at least one employer or insurer member, and at least one member representing medicine, chiropractic, or rehabilitation. The number of labor members and employer or insurer members on the five-member panel shall be equal. The determination of the five-member panel shall be by a majority vote and shall represent the determination of the entire review panel and is not subject to review by the panel as a whole. When conducting a review of the commissioner's determination regarding any rehabilitation issue or plan the panel shall give the parties notice that the appeal will be heard. This notice shall be given at least ten working days prior to the hearing. The notice shall state that parties may be represented by counsel at the hearing. In conducting its review the panel shall permit an interested party to present relevant, competent, oral or written evidence and to cross-examine opposing evidence. Evidence presented is not limited to the evidence previously submitted to the commissioner. A record of the proceeding shall be made by the panel. Upon determination of the issue presented, the panel shall issue to the interested parties a written decision and order. The decision need not contain a recitation of the evidence presented at the hearing, but shall be limited to the panel's basis for the decision. The panel may adopt rules of procedure which may be joint rules with the medical services review board.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.102, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [REHABILITATION PLAN; DEVELOPMENT.] (a) An employer or insurer shall provide rehabilitation consultation by a qualified rehabilitation consultant or by another person permitted by rule to provide consultation to an injured employee within five days after the employee has 60 days of lost work time due to the personal injury, except as otherwise provided in this subdivision. Where an employee has incurred an injury to the back, the consultation shall be made within five days after the employee has 30 days of lost work time due to the injury. The lost work time in either case may be intermittent lost work time. If an employer or insurer has medical information at any time prior to the time specified in this subdivision that the employee will be unable to return to the job the employee held at the time of the injury rehabilitation consultation shall be provided immediately after receipt of this information.

For purposes of this section "lost work time" means only those days during which the employee would actually be working but for the injury. In the case of the construction industry, mining industry, or other industry where the hours and days of work are affected by seasonal conditions, "lost work time" shall be computed by using the normal schedule worked when employees are working full time.

The qualified rehabilitation consultant appointed by the employer or insurer shall disclose in writing at the first meeting or written communication with the employee any ownership interest or affiliation between the firm which employs the qualified rehabilitation consultant and the employer, insurer, adjusting or servicing company, including the nature and extent of the affiliation or interest.

If the employee objects to the employer's selection of a qualified rehabilitation consultant, the employee shall notify the employer and the commissioner in writing of the objection. The notification shall include the name, address, and telephone number of the qualified rehabilitation consultant chosen by the employee to provide rehabilitation consultation.

~~Upon receipt of the notice of objection, the commissioner may schedule an administrative conference for the purpose of determining which qualified rehabilitation consultant may be mutually acceptable. On an employee's first request for appointment or change of qualified rehabilitation consultant, the employee has the final decision on which qualified rehabilitation consultant is to be utilized. After the employee has chosen a qualified rehabilitation consultant, subsequent requests shall be determined by the commissioner or compensation judge according to the best interests of the parties.~~

The employee and employer shall enter into a program if one is prescribed in a rehabilitation plan. A copy of the plan, including a target date for return to work, shall be submitted to the commissioner.

(b) If the employer does not provide rehabilitation consultation as required by this section, the commissioner or compensation judge shall notify the employer that if the employer fails to appoint a qualified rehabilitation consultant or other persons as permitted by clause (a) within 15 days to conduct a rehabilitation consultation, the commissioner or compensation judge shall appoint a qualified rehabilitation consultant to provide the consultation at the expense of the employer unless the commissioner or compensation judge determines the consultation is not required.

(c) In developing a rehabilitation plan consideration shall be given to the employee's qualifications, including but not limited to age, education, previous work history, interest, transferable skills, and present and future labor market conditions.

(d) The commissioner or compensation judge may waive rehabilitation ~~consultation services~~ under this section if the commissioner or compensation judge is satisfied that the employee will return to work in the near future or that rehabilitation ~~consultation services~~ will not be useful in returning an employee to work.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.102, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PLAN, ELIGIBILITY FOR REHABILITATION, APPROVAL AND APPEAL.] The commissioner or a compensation judge shall determine eligibility for rehabilitation services and shall review, approve, modify or reject rehabilitation plans developed under subdivision 4. The commissioner or a compensation judge shall also make determinations regarding rehabilitation issues not necessarily part of a plan including, but not limited to, determinations regarding whether an employee is eligible for further rehabilitation and the benefits under subdivisions 9 and 11 to which an employee is entitled. ~~A decision of the commissioner may be appealed to the rehabilitation review panel within 30 days of the commissioner's decision. The decision of the panel may be appealed to the workers' compensation court of appeals in the same manner as other matters appealed to the court.~~

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.102, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [PLAN MODIFICATION.] Upon request to the commissioner or compensation judge by the employer, the insurer, or employee, or upon the commissioner's own request, the plan may be suspended, terminated or altered upon a showing of good cause, including:

(a) a physical impairment that does not allow the employee to pursue the rehabilitation plan;

(b) the employee's performance level indicates the plan will not be successfully completed;

(c) an employee does not cooperate with a plan;

(d) that the plan or its administration is substantially inadequate to achieve the rehabilitation plan objectives;

(e) that the employee is not likely to benefit from further rehabilitation services.

An employee may request a change in a rehabilitation plan once because the employee feels ill-suited for the type of work for which rehabilitation is being provided. If the rehabilitation plan includes retraining, this request must be made within 90 days of the beginning of the retraining program. ~~Any decision of the commissioner regarding a change in a plan may be appealed to the rehabilitation review panel within 30 days of the decision.~~

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.102, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [REHABILITATION; CONSULTANTS AND VENDORS.] The commissioner shall approve rehabilitation consultants who may propose and implement plans if they satisfy rules adopted by the commissioner for rehabilitation consultants. A consultant may be an individual or public or private entity, but may not be a vendor or the agent of a vendor of rehabilitation services. The commissioner shall also approve rehabilitation vendors if they satisfy rules adopted by the commissioner.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.102, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [DISCONTINUANCE.] All benefits payable under chapter 176 may, after a determination and order by the commissioner or compensation judge, be discontinued or forfeited for any time during which the employee refuses to submit to any reasonable examinations and evaluative procedures ordered by the commissioner or compensation judge to determine the need for and details of a plan of rehabilitation, or refuses to participate in rehabilitation evaluation as required by this section or does not make a good faith effort to participate in a rehabilitation plan. A discontinuance under this section is governed by ~~section 176.242~~ sections 59 and 60.

Sec. 24. [176.1021] [CONTINUING EDUCATION; COMPENSATION JUDGES.]

The commissioner and the chief administrative law judge shall provide continuing education and training for workers' compensation judges in the conduct of administrative hearings, new trends in workers' compensation, techniques of alternative dispute resolution and, at least annually, continuing education in the areas of physical and vocational rehabilitation.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.103, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [SCOPE.] (a) The commissioner shall monitor the medical and surgical treatment provided to injured employees, the services of other health care providers and shall also monitor hospital utilization as it relates to the treatment of injured employees. This monitoring shall include determinations concerning the appropriateness of the service, whether the treatment is necessary and effective, the proper cost of services, the quality of the treatment, the right of providers to receive payment under this chapter for services rendered or the right to receive payment under this chapter for future services. ~~The commissioner may penalize, disqualify, or suspend a provider from receiving payment for services rendered under this chapter, if the commissioner determines that the provider has violated any part of this chapter or rule adopted under this chapter.~~ The commissioner shall report the results of the monitoring to the medical services review board. The commissioner may, either as a result of the monitoring or as a result of an investigation following receipt of a complaint, if the commissioner believes that any provider of health care services has violated any provision of this chapter or rules adopted under this chapter, initiate a contested case proceeding under chapter 14. In these cases, the medical services review board shall make the final decision following receipt of the report of an administrative law judge. The commissioner's authority under this section also includes the authority to make determinations regarding any other activity involving the questions of utilization of medical services, and any other determination the commissioner deems necessary for the proper administration of this section, but does not include the authority to make the initial determination of primary liability.

Except as provided in paragraph (b), the commissioner has the sole authority to make determinations under this section with a right of appeal to the medical services review board as provided in subdivision 3 and the workers' compensation court of appeals. A compensation judge has no jurisdiction in making determinations under this section.

(b) The commissioner has authority under this section to make determinations regarding medical causation. Objections to these determinations shall be referred to the chief administrative law judge for a de novo hearing before a compensation judge, with a right to review by the workers' compensation court of appeals, as provided in this chapter.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.103, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [MEDICAL SERVICES REVIEW BOARD; SELECTION; POWERS.] (a) There is created a medical services review board composed of the commissioner or the commissioner's designee as an ex officio member, two persons representing chiropractic, one person representing hospital administrators, and six physicians representing different specialties which the commissioner determines are the most frequently utilized by injured employees. The board shall also have one person representing employees, one person representing employers or insurers, and one person representing the general public. The members shall be appointed by the commissioner and shall be governed by section 15.0575. Terms of the board's members may be renewed. ~~The board shall appoint from among its clinical members a clinical advisory subcommittee on clinical quality and a clinical advisory subcommittee on clinical cost containment. Each subcommittee shall consist of at least three members one of whom shall be a member who is not a chiropractor or licensed physician. The board may appoint from its members whatever subcommittees it deems appropriate.~~

The commissioner may appoint alternates for one-year terms to serve as a member when a member is unavailable. The number of alternates shall not exceed one chiropractor, one hospital administrator, three physicians, one employee representative, one employer or insurer representative, and one representative of the general public.

The ~~clinical quality subcommittee~~ board shall review clinical results for adequacy and recommend to the commissioner scales for disabilities and apportionment.

The ~~clinical cost containment subcommittee~~ board shall review and recommend to the commissioner rates for individual clinical procedures and aggregate costs. ~~The subcommittees shall make regular reports to the board and the commissioner which shall evaluate the reports for the purpose of determining whether or not a particular health care provider continues~~ to qualify for payment under this chapter or is subject to any other sanctions or penalties authorized under this section and to determine whether an employee has been off work longer than necessary. The board shall assist the commissioner in accomplishing public education.

In evaluating the clinical consequences of the services provided to an employee by a clinical health care provider, the board shall consider the following factors in the priority listed:

- (1) the clinical effectiveness of the treatment;
- (2) the clinical cost of the treatment; and
- (3) the length of time of treatment.

In its consideration of these factors, the board shall utilize the information and recommendations developed by the subcommittees. In addition, the board shall utilize any other data developed by the subcommittees pursuant to the duties assigned to the subcommittees under this section.

After making a determination, the board shall submit its recommendation in writing to the commissioner. The board shall advise the commissioner on the adoption of rules regarding all aspects of medical care and services provided to injured employees.

(b) The board shall appoint three of its members to hear appeals from decisions of the commissioner regarding quality control and supervision of medical care; any other disputes regarding medical, surgical, and hospital care; decisions regarding the eligibility of medical providers to receive payments; or any other determinations of the commissioner pursuant to subdivision 2. The three-member panel shall be composed of one member who does not represent a health care specialty, one member who represents the same specialty as the specialty at issue or, if the same specialty is not available, one member whose specialty is as close as possible considering the board's composition, and one member representing a different specialty. The three-member panel shall conduct a hearing in the same manner, giving the same notice and following other procedures required of the rehabilitation review panel in section 176.102, subdivision 3a. A majority vote of the three-member panel constitutes the decision of the full board. This decision may be appealed to the workers' compensation court of appeals. The medical services review board may, upon petition from the commissioner and after hearing, issue a penalty of $100 per violation, disqualify, or suspend a provider from receiving payment for services rendered under this chapter if a provider has violated any part of this chapter or rule adopted under this chapter. The hearings are initiated by the commissioner under the contested case procedures of chapter 14. The board shall make the final decision following receipt of the recommendation of the administrative law judge. The board's decision is appealable to the workers' compensation court of appeals in the manner provided by section 176.421.

(c) In any situation where a conflict of interest prevents the appointment of a full three-member panel or in any other situation where the commissioner deems it necessary to resolve a conflict of interest, the commissioner may appoint a temporary substitute board member to serve until the situation creating the conflict of interest has been resolved.

(d) The board may adopt rules of procedure. The rules may be joint rules with the rehabilitation review panel.

Sec. 27. [176.106] [ADMINISTRATIVE CONFERENCE.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] All determinations by the commissioner pursuant to section 176.102, 176.103, 176.135, or 176.136 shall be in accordance with the procedures contained in this section.

Subd. 2. [REQUEST FOR CONFERENCE.] Any party may request an administrative conference by filing a request on a form prescribed by the commissioner.

Subd. 3. [CONFERENCE.] The matter shall be scheduled for an administrative conference within 60 days after receipt of the request for a conference. Notice of the conference shall be served on all parties no later than 14 days prior to the conference, unless the commissioner determines that a conference shall not be held. The commissioner may order an administrative conference whether or not a request for conference is filed.

The commissioner, at his discretion, may refuse to hold an administrative conference and refer the matter for a settlement or pretrial conference or may certify the matter to the office of administrative hearings for a full hearing before a compensation judge.

Subd. 4. [APPEARANCES.] All parties shall appear either personally, by telephone, by representative, or by written submission. The commissioner shall determine the issues in dispute based upon the information available at the conference.

Subd. 5. [DECISION.] A written decision shall be issued by the commissioner or an authorized representative determining all issues considered at the conference or if a conference was not held, based on the written submissions. Disputed issues of fact shall be determined by a preponderance of the evidence. The decision must be issued within 30 days after the close of the conference or if no conference was held, within 60 days after receipt of the request for conference. The decision must include a statement indicating the right to request a de novo hearing before a compensation judge and how to initiate the request.

Subd. 6. [PENALTY.] At a conference, if the insurer does not provide a specific reason for nonpayment of the items in dispute, the commissioner may assess a penalty of $300 payable to the special compensation fund, unless it is determined that the reason for the lack of specificity was the failure of the insurer, upon timely request, to receive information necessary to remedy the lack of specificity. This penalty is in addition to any penalty that may be applicable for nonpayment.

Subd. 7. [REQUEST FOR HEARING.] Any party aggrieved by the decision of the commissioner may request a formal hearing by filing the request with the commissioner no later than 30 days after the decision. The request shall be referred to the office of administrative hearings for a de novo hearing before a compensation judge. The commissioner shall refer a timely request to the office of administrative hearings within five working days after filing of the request and the hearing at the office of administrative hearings must be held on the first date that all parties are available but not later than 60 days after the office of administrative hearings receives the matter. Following the hearing, the compensation judge must issue the decision within 30 days. The decision of the compensation judge is appealable pursuant to section 176.421.

Subd. 8. [DENIAL OF PRIMARY LIABILITY.] The commissioner does not have authority to make determinations relating to medical or rehabilitation benefits when there is a genuine dispute over whether the injury initially arose out of and in the course of employment, except as provided by section 176.305.

Subd. 9. [SUBSEQUENT CAUSATION ISSUES.] If initial liability for an injury has been admitted or established and an issue subsequently arises regarding causation between the employee's condition and the work injury, the commissioner may make the subsequent causation determination subject to de novo hearing by a compensation judge with a right to review by the court of appeals, as provided in this chapter.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.111, subdivision 17, is amended to read:

Subd. 17. [PARTIAL DEPENDENTS.] Partial dependents are entitled to receive only that proportion of the benefits provided for actual dependents which the average amount of wages regularly contributed by the deceased to such partial dependents at the time of and for a reasonable time immediately prior to the injury bore to the total income of the dependent during the same time; and if the amount regularly contributed by the deceased to such partial dependents cannot be ascertained because of the circumstances of the case, the commissioner, compensation judge, or ~~workers' compensation~~ court of appeals, in cases upon appeal, shall make a reasonable estimate thereof taking into account all pertinent factors of the case.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.133, is amended to read:

176.133 [ATTORNEY'S FEES, SUPPLEMENTARY BENEFITS.]

Attorney's fees may be approved by the commissioner, a compensation judge, or by the workers' compensation court of appeals from the supplementary workers' compensation benefits provided by section 176.132 if the case involves the obtaining of supplementary workers' compensation benefits. When such fees are allowed an amount equal to 25 percent of that portion of the fee which is in excess of $250 shall be added to the employee's benefit as provided in section 176.081 rather than deducted as a portion thereof. The fees shall be determined according to section 176.081.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.135, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [MEDICAL, CHIROPRACTIC, PODIATRIC, SURGICAL, HOSPITAL.] (a) The employer shall furnish any medical, chiropractic, podiatric, surgical and hospital treatment, including nursing, medicines, medical, chiropractic, podiatric, and surgical supplies, crutches and apparatus, including artificial members, or, at the option of the employee, if the employer has not filed notice as hereinafter provided, Christian Science treatment in lieu of medical treatment, chiropractic medicine and medical supplies, as may reasonably be required at the time of the injury and any time thereafter to cure and relieve from the effects of the injury. This treatment shall include treatments necessary to physical rehabilitation. The employer shall furnish replacement or repair for artificial members, glasses, or spectacles, artificial eyes, podiatric orthotics, dental bridge work, dentures or artificial teeth, hearing aids, canes, crutches or wheel chairs damaged by reason of an injury arising out of and in the course of the employment. In case of the employer's inability or refusal seasonably to do so the employer is liable for the reasonable expense incurred by or on behalf of the employee in providing the same. The employer shall pay for the reasonable value of nursing services by a member of the employee's family in cases of permanent total disability. ~~Except as provided in paragraph (b), orders of the commissioner with respect to this subdivision may be reviewed by the medical services review board pursuant to section 176.103. Orders of the medical services review board with respect to this subdivision may be reviewed by the workers' compensation court of appeals on petition of an aggrieved party pursuant to section 176.103. Orders of the court of appeals may be reviewed by writ of certiorari to the supreme court.~~

(b) ~~The commissioner has authority to make determinations regarding medical causation and regarding the question whether the medical condition, which required the furnished treatment or supplies, is a consequence of the injury. Objections to any order of the commissioner with respect to this paragraph shall be referred to the chief administrative law judge for a de novo hearing before a compensation judge, with a right to review by the workers' compensation court of appeals, as provided in this chapter. Both the commissioner and the compensation judges have authority to make determinations under this section in accordance with section 27 and section 176.305.~~

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.135, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [NONEMERGENCY SURGERY; SECOND SURGICAL OPINION.] ~~The employer is required to furnish surgical treatment pursuant to subdivision 1 only after the employee has obtained two surgical opinions concerning whether when the surgery is reasonably required to cure and relieve the effects of the personal injury or occupational disease. If at least one of the opinions affirms that the surgery is reasonably required, the employee may choose to undergo the surgery. An employee may not be compelled to undergo surgery. If an employee desires a second opinion on the necessity of the surgery, the employer shall pay the costs of obtaining the second opinion. The employer is required to pay the reasonable value of the surgery unless the commissioner or compensation judge determines that the surgery is not reasonably required. A second surgical opinion is not required in cases of emergency surgery or when the employer and employee agree that the opinion is not necessary.~~

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.135, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CHANGE OF PHYSICIANS, PODIATRISTS, OR CHIROPRACTORS.] ~~The commissioner of the department of labor and industry shall make the necessary adopt rules for establishing standards and criteria to be used when a dispute arises over a change of physicians, podiatrists, or chiropractors in the case that either the employee or the employer desire a change and for the designation of a physician, podiatrist, or chiropractor suggested by the injured employee or the commissioner of the department of labor and industry. In such case If a change is agreed upon or ordered, the expense thereof medical expenses shall be borne by the employer upon the same terms and conditions as provided in subdivision 1 and for medical, podiatric, chiropractic and surgical treatment and attendance.~~

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.135, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.] The pecuniary liability of the employer for the treatment, articles and supplies required by this section shall be limited to the charges therefor as prevail in the same community for similar treatment, articles and supplies furnished to injured persons of a like standard of living when the same are paid for by the injured persons. On this basis the commissioner, ~~medical services review board, or workers' compensation court of appeals on appeal or compensation judge~~ may determine the reasonable value of all such services and supplies and the liability of the employer is limited to the amount so determined.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.135, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [COMMENCEMENT OF PAYMENT.] As soon as reasonably possible, and no later than 30 calendar days after receiving the bill, the employer or insurer shall pay the charge or any portion of the charge which is not denied, deny all or a part of the charge on the basis of excessiveness or noncompensability, or specify the additional data needed, with written notification to the employee and the provider.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.135, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [MEDICAL BILLS AND RECORDS.] Health care providers shall submit to the insurer an itemized statement of charges as well as copies of medical records or reports that substantiate the nature of the charge and its relationship to the work injury. No charge may be made for copies of any records or reports that are in existence and directly relate to the items for which payment is sought under this chapter.

A health care provider shall not collect, attempt to collect, refer a bill for collection, or commence an action for collection against the employee, employer, or any other party until the information required by this section has been furnished.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.136, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EXCESSIVE FEES.] If the payer employer or insurer determines that the charge for a health service or medical service is excessive, no payment in excess of the reasonable charge for that service shall be made under this chapter nor may the provider collect or attempt to collect from the injured employee or any other insurer or government amounts in excess of the amount payable under this chapter unless the commissioner, ~~medical services review board compensation judge, or workers' compensation court of appeals~~ determines otherwise. In such a case, the health care provider may initiate an action under this chapter for recovery of the amounts deemed excessive by the employer or insurer, but the employer or insurer shall have the burden of proving excessiveness.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.1361, is amended to read:

176.1361 [TESTIMONY OF PROVIDERS.]

When the commissioner, a compensation judge, or the ~~workers' compensation court of appeals~~ has reason to believe that a medical or other provider of treatment services has submitted false testimony or a false report in any proceeding under this chapter, the commissioner, compensation judge, or the ~~workers' compensation court of appeals~~ shall refer the matter to an appropriate licensing body or other professional certifying organization for review and recommendations. Based upon their recommendation, the ~~commissioner~~ medical services review board, after hearing, may bar the provider from making an appearance, and disallow the admission into evidence of written reports of the provider, in any proceeding under this chapter for a period not to exceed one year in the first instance and three years in the second instance, and may permanently bar the provider from appearance and the provider's reports from admission in evidence thereafter.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.139, is amended to read:
176.139 [NOTICE OF RIGHTS POSTED.]

~~A notice, in form approved by the commissioner of labor and industry, shall be posted in a conspicuous place at each place of employment Subdivision 1. [POSTING REQUIREMENT.] All employers required or electing to carry workers' compensation coverage in the state of Minnesota shall post and display in a conspicuous location a notice, in a form approved by the commissioner, advising employees of their rights and obligations under this chapter, assistance available to them, and the operation of the workers' compensation system, the name and address of the workers' compensation carrier insuring them or the fact that the employer is self-insured.~~

The notice shall be displayed at all locations where the employer is engaged in business.

Subd. 2. [FAILURE TO POST; PENALTY.] The commissioner may assess a penalty of $300 against the employer payable to the special compensation fund if, after notice from the commissioner, the employer violates the posting requirement of this section.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.155, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [EMPLOYER'S PHYSICIAN.] The injured employee must submit to examination by the employer's physician, if requested by the employer, and at reasonable times thereafter upon the employer's request. The employee is entitled upon request to have a personal physician present at any such examination. Each party shall defray the cost of that party's physician. Any report or written statement made by the employer's physician as a result of an examination of the employee, regardless of whether the examination preceded the injury or was made subsequent to the injury, shall be made available, upon request and without charge, to the injured employee or representative of the employee. The employer shall pay reasonable travel expenses incurred by the employee in attending the examination including mileage, parking, and, if necessary, lodging and meals. The employer shall also pay the employee for any lost wages resulting from attendance at the examination. A self-insured employer or insurer who is served with a claim petition pursuant to section 176.271, subdivision 1, or 176.291, shall schedule any necessary examinations of the employee, if an examination by the employer's physician or health care provider is necessary to evaluate benefits claimed. The examination shall be completed and the report of the examination shall be served on the employee and filed with the commissioner within 120 days of service of the claim petition.

No evidence relating to the examination or report shall be received or considered by the commissioner, a compensation judge, or the court of appeals in determining any issues unless the report has been served and filed as required by this section, unless a written extension has been granted by the commissioner or compensation judge. The commissioner or a compensation judge shall extend the time for completing the adverse examination and filing the report upon good cause shown. The extension must not be for the purpose of delay and the insurer must make a good faith effort to comply with this subdivision. Good cause shall include but is not limited to:

(1) that the extension is necessary because of the limited number of physicians or health care providers available with expertise in the particular injury or disease, or that the extension is necessary due to the complexity of the medical issues, or

(2) that the extension is necessary to gather addition information which was not included on the petition as required by section 176.291.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.155, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [NEUTRAL PHYSICIAN.] In each case of dispute as to the injury the commissioner of labor and industry, or in case of a hearing the compensation judge conducting the hearing, or the workers' compensation court of appeals if the matter is before it, may with or without the request of any interested party, designate a neutral physician from the list of neutral physicians developed by the commissioner of labor and industry to make an examination of the injured worker and report the findings to the commissioner of labor and industry, compensation judge, or the workers' compensation court of appeals, as the case may be; provided that the request of the interested party must comply with the rules of the commissioner of labor and industry and the workers' compensation court of appeals regulating the proper time and forms for the request, and further provided that when an interested party requests, not later than 30 days prior to a scheduled prehearing conference, that a neutral physician be designated, the compensation judge shall make such a designation. When a party has requested the designation of a neutral physician prior to a prehearing conference, that party may withdraw the request at any time prior to the hearing. The commissioner of labor and industry, compensation judge, or the workers' compensation court of appeals, as the case may be, may request the neutral physician to answer any particular question with reference to the medical phases of the case, including questions calling for an opinion as to the cause and occurrence of the injury insofar as medical knowledge is relevant in the answer. A copy of the signed certificate of the neutral physician shall be mailed to the parties in interest and either party, within five days from date of mailing, may demand that the physician be produced for purposes of cross-examination. The signed certificate of a neutral physician is competent evidence of the facts stated therein. The expense of the examination shall be paid as ordered by the commissioner of labor and industry, compensation judge, or the workers' compensation court of appeals. The neutral physician must also send a copy of the signed certificate to the medical services review board. If the board determines that the physician's certificate indicates a pattern of a lack of neutrality, the commissioner must remove the physician from the list of neutrals.

The commissioner of labor and industry shall develop and maintain a list of neutral physicians available for designation pursuant to this subdivision or section 176.391, subdivision 2.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.155, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [REFUSAL TO BE EXAMINED.] If the injured employee refuses to comply with any reasonable request for examination, the right to compensation may be suspended by order of the ~~division, commissioner or a compensation judge or workers' compensation court of appeals in a matter before it~~, and no compensation shall be paid while the employee continues in the refusal.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.155, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [TESTIMONY OF HEALTH CARE PROVIDER.] Any physician or other health care provider designated by the commissioner, or compensation judge, ~~or workers' compensation court of appeals~~ or whose services are furnished or paid for by the employer, or who treats, examines, or is present at any examination, of an injured employee, may be required to testify as to any knowledge acquired by the physician or health care provider in the course of the treatment or examination relative to the injury or disability resulting from the injury only ~~if the commissioner or a compensation judge makes a written finding that the appearance of the physician or health care provider is crucial to the accurate determination of the employee's disability in cases involving occupational disease, cardiopulmonary injuries or diseases, injuries resulting from cumulative trauma, issues of apportionment of liability, and mental disorders, or upon an order of a compensation judge.~~ In all other cases all evidence related to health care must be submitted by written report as prescribed by the chief administrative law judge. A party may cross-examine by deposition a physician or health care provider who has examined or treated the employee. If a physician or health care provider is not available for cross-examination prior to the hearing and the physician's or health care provider's written report is submitted at the hearing, the compensation judge shall, upon request of the adverse party, require the physician or health care provider to testify at the hearing or to be present at a posthearing deposition for the purpose of being cross-examined by the adverse party. All written evidence relating to health care must be submitted prior to or at the time of the hearing and no evidence shall be considered which was submitted after the hearing unless the compensation judge orders otherwise, and, in no case later than 30 days following the final hearing date unless an extension is granted by the compensation judge. Existing medical reports must be submitted with a claim petition or answer as provided in sections 176.291 and 176.321. All reports shall substantially conform to rules prescribed by the chief administrative law judge. When a written report is used to present the testimony, it shall be admitted into evidence without the necessity for foundational testimony and shall be considered as prima facie evidence of the opinions it contains.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.179, is amended to read:

176.179 [PAYMENTS OF COMPENSATION RECEIVED IN GOOD FAITH.]

Notwithstanding section 176.521, subdivision 3, or any other provision of this chapter to the contrary, except as provided in this section, no lump sum or weekly payment, or settlement, which is voluntarily paid to an injured employee or the survivors of a deceased employee in apparent or seeming accordance with the provisions of this chapter by an employer or insurer, or is paid pursuant to an order of the workers' compensation division, a compensation judge, or court of appeals relative to a claim by an injured employee or the employee's survivors, and received in good faith by the employee or the employee's survivors shall be refunded to the paying employer or insurer in the event that it is subsequently determined that the payment was made under a mistake in fact or law by the employer or insurer. When the payments have been made to a person who is entitled to receive further payments of compensation for the same injury, the mistaken compensation may be taken as a full credit against future lump sum benefit entitlement and as a partial credit against future weekly benefits. The credit applied against further payments of temporary total disability, temporary partial disability, permanent total disability, retraining benefits, death benefits, or weekly payments of economic recovery or impairment compensation shall not exceed 20 percent of the amount that would otherwise be payable.

A credit may not be applied against medical expenses due or payable.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.185, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5a. [PENALTY FOR IMPROPER WITHHOLDING.] An employer who violates subdivision 5 after notice from the commissioner is subject to a penalty of 200 percent of the amount withheld from or charged the employee. The penalty shall be imposed by the commissioner. Fifty percent of this penalty is payable to the special compensation fund and 50 percent is payable to the employee.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.191, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Where compensation benefits are payable under this chapter, and a dispute exists between two or more employers or two or more insurers as to which is liable for payment, the commissioner, compensation judge, or ~~workers' compensation~~ court of appeals upon appeal shall direct, unless action is taken under subdivision 2, that one or more of the employers or insurers make payment of the benefits pending a determination of liability. A temporary order may be issued under this subdivision whether or not the employers or insurers agree to pay under the order.

When liability has been determined, the party held liable for the benefits shall be ordered to reimburse any other party for payments which the latter has made, including interest at the rate of 12 percent a year. The claimant shall also be awarded a reasonable attorney fee, to be paid by the party held liable for the benefits.

An order directing payment of benefits pending a determination of liability may not be used as evidence before a compensation judge, the workers' compensation court of appeals, or court in which the dispute is pending.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.191, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Where compensation benefits are payable under this chapter, and a dispute exists between two or more employers or two or more insurers as to which is liable for payment, the commissioner or a compensation judge upon petition shall ~~authorize order~~, unless action is taken under subdivision 1, the special compensation fund established in section 176.131 to make payment of the benefits pending a determination of liability.

The personal injury for which the commissioner or a compensation judge shall order compensation from the special fund is not limited by section 176.131, subdivision 8.

When liability has been determined, the party held liable for benefits shall be ordered to reimburse the special compensation fund for payments made, including interest at the rate of 12 percent a year.

Sec. 47. [176.194] [PROHIBITED PRACTICES.]

Subdivision 1. [CLAIMS PRACTICES.] Notwithstanding section 72A.20, subdivision 12a, paragraph (j), any insurer authorized to sell workers' compensation insurance pursuant to section 60A.06, subdivision 1, clause (5), item (b), or any employer authorized to self-insure workers' compensation liability pursuant to section 176.181, subdivision 2, shall be subject to sections 72A.17 to 72A.325 and rules adopted pursuant thereto relating to the regulation of trade practices, except (a) to the extent that the nature of workers' compensation insurance of self-insurance renders such sections clearly inappropriate and (b) that enforcement shall be by the commissioner of labor and industry and not the commissioner of commerce.

Subd. 2. [SELF-INSURANCE AUTHORITY.] In addition to any other penalties imposed for violation of subdivision 1, the commissioner of labor and industry may revoke the authority of any employer to self-insure granted under section 176.181. The commissioner of labor and industry shall advise the commissioner of commerce immediately of the revocation.

Sec. 48. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.195, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1b. [AGENTS.] For purposes of this section and section 47, an adjuster licensed pursuant to section 72B.03, subdivision 2, clause (a), who acts on behalf of an insurer, self-insured, employer plan administrator, or vendor of risk management services licensed pursuant to section 60A.23, subdivision 8, shall be deemed to be an agent of the insurer, self-insurer, vendor, or the assigned risk plan established pursuant to sections 79.251 and 79.252 on whose behalf the adjuster acts. A violation of this section or section 47 by an adjuster shall, in addition to other violations enumerated, be a cause for denial, suspension, or revocation of an adjuster's license pursuant to section 72B.08.

Sec. 49. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.195, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMPLAINT, ANSWER; HEARING.] A complaint against an insurer shall include a notice and order for hearing, shall be in writing and shall specify clearly the grounds upon which the license is sought to be suspended or revoked. The insurer may shall file a written answer to the complaint and is entitled to receive a hearing in its own behalf before the commissioner of commerce within 20 days of service of the complaint. The hearing shall be conducted under chapter 14.

Sec. 50. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.195, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5a. [CIVIL PENALTIES.] After a hearing as provided in this section, the commissioner may impose a civil penalty of not more than $5,000 for each offense.

Sec. 51. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.221, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [COMMENCEMENT OF PAYMENT.] Within 14 days of notice to or knowledge by the employer of an injury compensable under this chapter the payment of temporary total compensation shall commence. Within 14 days of notice to or knowledge by an employer of a new period of temporary total disability which is caused by an old injury compensable under this chapter, the payment of temporary total compensation shall commence; provided that the employer or insurer may file for an extension with the commissioner within this 14-day period, in which case the compensation need not commence within the 14-day period but shall commence no later than 30 days from the date of the notice to or knowledge by the employer of the new period of disability. Commencement of payment by an employer or insurer does not waive any rights to any defense the employer has on any claim or incident either with respect to the compensability of the claim under this chapter or the amount of the compensation due. Where there are multiple employers, the first employer shall pay, unless it is shown that the injury has arisen out of employment with the second or subsequent employer. Liability for compensation under this chapter may be denied by the employer or insurer by giving the employee written notice of the denial of liability. If liability is denied for an injury which is required to be reported to the commissioner under section 176.231, subdivision 1, the denial of liability must be filed with the commissioner within 14 days after notice to or knowledge by the employer of an injury which is alleged to be compensable under this chapter. If the employer or insurer has commenced payment of compensation under this subdivision but determines within 30 days of notice to or knowledge by the employer of the injury that the disability is not a result of a personal injury, payment of compensation may be terminated upon the filing of a notice of denial of liability within 30 days of notice or knowledge. After the 30-day period, payment may be terminated only by the filing of a notice as provided under section 176.242 60. Upon the termination, payments made may be recovered by the employer if the commissioner or compensation judge finds that the employee's claim of work related disability was not made in good faith. A notice of denial of liability must state in detail specific reasons explaining why the claimed injury or occupational disease was determined not to be within the scope and course of employment and shall include the name and telephone number of the person making this determination.

Sec. 52. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.221, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PENALTY.] If the employer or insurer does not begin payment of compensation within the time limit prescribed under subdivision 1 or 8, the commissioner may assess a penalty, payable to the special compensation fund, ~~of up to 100 percent which shall be a percentage of the amount of compensation to which the employee is entitled because of the injury to receive up to the date compensation payment is made to the employee or the compensation to which the employee is entitled to receive up to the date the penalty is imposed; in addition to any other penalty otherwise provided by statute. This penalty may also be imposed on an employer or insurer who violates section 176.242 or 176.243 including, but not limited to, violating the commissioner's decision not to discontinue compensation.~~

The amount of penalty shall be determined as follows:

Numbers of days late	Penalty
1 - 15	25 percent of compensation due, not to exceed $375,
16 - 30	50 percent of compensation due, not to exceed $1,140,
31 - 60	75 percent of compensation due, not to exceed $2,878,
61 or more	100 percent of compensation due, not to exceed $3,838.

The penalty under this section is in addition to any penalty otherwise provided by statute.

Sec. 53. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.221, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [INTEREST.] Any payment of ~~compensation~~, charges for treatment under section 176.135 or rehabilitation expenses under 176.102, subdivision 9 not made when due shall bear interest at the rate of eight percent a year from the due date to the date the payment is made or the rate set by section 549.09, subdivision 1, whichever is greater. Any compensation due and payable to an employee or to the dependents of an employee that is not paid when due, whether due periodically or otherwise, and penalties assessed under this chapter, shall bear interest at the rate of 15 percent a year, computed from the due date to the date of payment.

For the purposes of this subdivision, permanent partial disability payment is due 14 days after receipt of the first medical report which contains a disability rating if such payment is otherwise due under this chapter, and charges for treatment under section 176.135 are due 30 calendar days after receiving the bill and necessary medical data.
