This tax may be levied only if, by October 1 of the levy year, the county board has a commitment from a foundation or similar organization to provide matching funds for this purpose in the amount equal to the levy to be paid during the following 15 months. No part of the proceeds of this levy may be used to provide a direct loan or grant to any individual or for-profit enterprise. Sec. 2. [REVERSE REFERENDUM.]

If the Itasca county board intends to exercise the authority provided by section 1, it shall pass a resolution stating the fact. The resolution shall then be published for two successive weeks in the official newspaper of the county or, if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, with a notice fixing a date for a public hearing on the matter. The hearing shall be held not less than two weeks nor more than four weeks after the first publication of the resolution. Following the public hearing, the county may determine to take no further action or adopt a resolution confirming its intention to exercise the authority. That resolution shall also be published in the official newspaper of the county or, if there is no official newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation in the county. The commissioner of revenue shall prepare a suggested form of question to be presented at the election. The referendum must be held at a special or general election before October 1 of the first year for which the tax authorized under section 1 is proposed to be levied.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.167, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LOANS FOR ACQUISITION.] The council may make loans to counties, towns, and statutory and home rule charter cities within the metropolitan area for the purchase of property within the right-of-way of a state trunk highway shown on an official map adopted pursuant to section 394.361 or 462.359 or for the purchase of property within the proposed right-of-way of a principal or intermediate arterial highway designated by the council as a part of the metropolitan highway system plan and approved by the council pursuant to subdivision 1. The loans shall be made by the council, from the fund established pursuant to this subdivision, for purchases approved by the council. The loans shall bear no interest. The council shall make loans only: (1) to accelerate the acquisition of primarily undeveloped property when there is a reasonable probability that the property will increase in value before highway construction, or (2) to avert the imminent conversion or the granting of approvals which would allow the conversion of property to uses which would jeopardize its availability for highway construction. The council shall not make loans for the purchase of property at a price which exceeds the fair market value of the property or which includes the costs of relocating or moving persons or property. A private property owner may elect to receive the purchase price either in a lump sum or in not more than four annual installments without interest on the deferred installments. If the purchase agreement provides for installment payments, the council shall make the loan in installments corresponding to those in the purchase agreement. The recipient of an acquisition loan shall convey the property for the construction of the highway at the same price which the recipient paid for the property. Upon notification by the council that the plan to construct the highway has been abandoned or the anticipated location of the highway changed, the recipient shall sell the property at market value in accordance with the procedures required for the disposition of the property. All rents and other money received because of the recipient's ownership of the property and all proceeds from the conveyance or sale of the property shall be paid to the council. The proceeds of the tax authorized by subdivision 3, all money paid to the council by recipients of loans, and all interest on the proceeds and payments shall be maintained as a separate fund. For administration of the loan program the council may expend from the fund each year an amount no greater than three percent of the amount that a metropolitan area tax levy of 5.400 of a mill would raise in of the authorized levy for that year.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.167, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [LEVY INCREASE.] For taxes payable in 1989, the levy limit established in subdivision 3 for that year shall be doubled. For taxes payable in 1990 and subsequent years, the levy limit established by this subdivision for taxes payable in 1989 shall also be doubled.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473.249, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [LEVY LIMIT.] Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, effective for property taxes payable in 1989 and subsequent years, the total amount of dollars levied by the council for general purposes under this section in any year may not increase over the amount levied in the preceding year by a percentage greater than the percentage increase during the most recent 12-month period in the implicit price deflator for state and local government purchases of goods and services.

Sec. 4. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 3 is effective in the counties of Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, and Washington for property taxes levied in 1988 and payable in 1989 and subsequent years."

Mr. Johnson, D.J. from the Committee on Taxes and Tax Laws, to which was re-referred

H.F. No. 1749: A bill for an act relating to transportation; increasing the tax on gasoline and special fuel to 20 cents per gallon; increasing the share of motor vehicle excise tax revenues dedicated to highways and transit to 35 percent; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 296.02, subdivision 1b; and Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, sections 296.025, subdivisions 2a and 2b; and 297B.09, subdivision 1.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 168.013, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [PASSENGER AUTOMOBILES; AMBULANCES; HEARSEs.] On passenger automobiles as defined in section 168.011, subdivision 7, ambulances, and hearses, except as otherwise provided, the tax shall be $10 plus an additional tax equal to 1.25 percent of the base value, except that on pickup trucks the tax shall be:

(a) for the 1982 registration year, $10 plus an additional tax equal to .75 percent of base value;

(b) for the 1983 registration year and each succeeding year, $10 plus an additional tax equal to 1.25 percent of base value.

Subject to the classification provisions herein, "base value" means the manufacturer's suggested retail price of the vehicle including destination charge as reflected on the price listing affixed to the vehicle in conformity with United States Code, title 15, sections 1231 to 1233 (Public Law Number 85-506) or otherwise suggested by the manufacturer or determined by the registrar if no suggested retail price exists, and shall not include the cost of each accessory or item of optional equipment separately added to the vehicle and the suggested retail price.

If unable to determine the base value because the vehicle is specially constructed, or for any other reason, the registrar may establish such value upon the cost price to the purchaser or owner as evidenced by a certificate of cost but not including Minnesota sales or use tax or any local sales or other local tax.

The registrar shall classify every vehicle in its proper base value class as follows:

FROM	TO

and thereafter a series of classes successively set in brackets having a spread of $200 consisting of such number of classes as will permit classification of all vehicles.

The base value for purposes of this section shall be the middle point between the extremes of its class.

The registrar shall establish the base value, when new, of every passenger automobile, ambulance and hearse registered prior to the effective date of Extra Session Laws 1971, chapter 31, using list price information published by the manufacturer or any nationally recognized firm or association compiling such data for the automotive industry. If unable to ascertain the base value of any registered vehicle in the foregoing manner, the registrar may use any other available source or method. The tax on all previously registered vehicles shall be computed upon the base value thus determined taking into account the depreciation provisions of Extra Session Laws 1971, chapter 31 this subdivision.

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), the annual additional tax computed upon the base value as provided herein, during the first year and second years of vehicle life shall be computed upon 100 percent of the base value; for the second year third and fourth years, 90 percent of such value; for the third year fifth and sixth years, 75 percent of such value; for the fourth year seventh and eighth years, 60 percent of such value; for the fifth ninth year, 45 percent of such value; for the sixth year, 35 percent of such value; for the seventh tenth year, 30 percent of such value; for the eighth 11th year, 20 percent of such value; for the ninth year, 15 percent of such value; for the tenth year, ten percent of such value; for the 11th 12th and each succeeding year, the sum of $13; provided that for registrations renewed on or after January 1, 1982, the annual additional tax for the 11th and each succeeding year of vehicle life shall be $13; for registrations renewed on or after January 1, 1983, the annual additional tax shall be $18; for registrations renewed on or after January 1, 1984, the annual additional tax shall be $22; and for registrations renewed on or after January 1, 1985, the annual additional tax shall be $25.

In no event shall the annual additional tax be less than $13 for any registration renewed after January 1, 1982, nor less than $18 for any registration renewed after January 1, 1983, $22 for any registration renewed after January 1, 1984; and $25 for any registration renewed after January 1, 1985.

(b) The annual additional tax on a vehicle for any year under paragraph (a), as amended in this act, shall not exceed the amount of the annual additional tax on that vehicle under Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 168.013, subdivision 1a.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 168.27, subdivision 16, is amended to read:

Subd. 16. In addition the dealer shall pay a motor vehicle excise tax of $15 annually for each dealer plate purchased as required by section 297B.035. The registrar shall deposit the tax in the state treasury and it shall be credited as provided in section 297B.09. Motor vehicles, new or used, owned by the motor vehicle dealer and bearing the number plate, except vehicles leased to the user who is not an employee of the dealer during the term of the lease, held for hire, or customarily used by the dealer as a tow truck, service truck, or parts pickup truck, may be driven upon the streets and highways of this state as follows:

(1) by the motor vehicle dealer, or any employee of the motor vehicle dealer or by any member of the immediate family of the dealer or employee for either private or business purposes;

(3) in a promotional event that lasts no longer than four days in which at least three motor vehicles are involved.

(b) A new or used motor vehicle sold by the motor vehicle dealer and bearing the motor vehicle dealer's number plate may be driven upon the public streets and highways for a period of 72 hours by the buyer for either of the following purposes: (1) Removing the vehicle from this state for registration in another state, or (2) permitting the buyer to use the motor vehicle before the buyer receives number plates pursuant to registration. Use of a motor vehicle by the buyer under the provisions of clause (2) of the preceding sentence before the buyer receives number plates pursuant to registration constitutes a use of the public streets or highways for the purpose of the time requirements for registration of motor vehicles."

[ANNUAL ADJUSTMENT OF TAX RATE.] (a) Beginning in 1989, on or before February 1 of each year, the commissioner shall recompute and publish the rate for the tax imposed under section 296.02, subdivision 1. The new rate per gallon must be calculated by multiplying the rate in effect at the time of the calculation by an amount obtained by

S.F. No. 105: A bill for an act relating to taxation; permitting counties to impose a special levy for payments to soil and water conservation districts; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 275.50, subdivision 5.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 275.50, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary for taxes levied in 1983 payable in 1984 and subsequent years, "special levies" means those portions of ad valorem taxes levied by governmental subdivisions to:

(a) satisfy judgments rendered against the governmental subdivision by a court of competent jurisdiction in any tort action, or to pay the costs of settlements out of court against the governmental subdivision in a tort action when substantiated by a stipulation for the dismissal of the action filed with the court of competent jurisdiction and signed by both the plaintiff and the legal representative of the governmental subdivision, but only to the extent of the increase in levy for such judgments and out of court settlements over levy year 1970, taxes payable in 1971;

(b) pay the costs of complying with any written lawful order initially issued prior to January 1, 1977, by the state of Minnesota, or the United States, or any agency or subdivision thereof, which is authorized by law, statute, special act or ordinance and is enforceable in a court of competent jurisdiction, or any stipulation agreement or permit for treatment works or disposal system for pollution abatement in lieu of a lawful order signed by the governmental subdivision and the state of Minnesota, or the United States, or any agency or subdivision thereof which is enforceable in a court of competent jurisdiction. The commissioner of revenue shall in consultation with other state departments and agencies, develop a suggested form for use by the state of Minnesota, its agencies and subdivisions in issuing orders pursuant to this subdivision;

(c) pay the costs to a governmental subdivision for their minimum required share of any program otherwise authorized by law for which matching funds have been appropriated by the state of Minnesota or the United States, excluding the administrative costs of public assistance programs, to the extent of the increase in levy over the amount levied for the local share of the program for the taxes payable year 1971. This clause shall apply only to those programs or projects for which matching funds have been designated by the state of Minnesota or the United States on or before September 1, of the previous year and only when the receipt of these matching funds is contingent upon the initiation or implementation of the project or program during the year in which the taxes are payable or those programs or projects approved by the commissioner;

(d) pay the costs not reimbursed by the state or federal government, of payments made to or on behalf of recipients of aid under any public assistance program authorized by law, and the costs of purchase or delivery of social services. Except for the costs of general assistance as defined in section 256D.02, subdivision 4, general assistance medical care under section 256D.03 and the costs of hospital care pursuant to section 261.21, the aggregate amounts levied pursuant to this clause are subject to a maximum increase of 18 percent over the amount levied for these purposes in the previous year;

(e) pay the costs of principal and interest on bonded indebtedness except on bonded indebtedness issued under section 471.981, subdivisions 4 to 4c or to reimburse for the amount of liquor store revenues used to pay the principal and interest due in the year preceding the year for which the levy limit is calculated on municipal liquor store bonds;

(f) pay the costs of principal and interest on certificates of indebtedness, except tax anticipation or aid anticipation certificates of indebtedness, issued for any corporate purpose except current expenses or funding an insufficiency in receipts from taxes or other sources or funding extraordinary expenditures resulting from a public emergency; and to pay the cost for certificates of indebtedness issued pursuant to sections 298.28 and 298.282;

(g) fund the payments made to the Minnesota state armory building commission pursuant to section 193.145, subdivision 2, to retire the principal and interest on armory construction bonds;

(h) provide for the bonded indebtedness portion of payments made to another political subdivision of the state of Minnesota;

(i) pay the amounts required to compensate for a decrease in manufactured homes property tax receipts to the extent that the governmental subdivision's portion of the total levy in the current levy year, pursuant to section 274.19, subdivision 8, as amended, is less than the distribution of the manufactured homes tax to the governmental subdivision pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1969, section 273.13, subdivision 3, in calendar year 1971;

(j) pay the amounts required, in accordance with section 275.075, to correct for a county auditor's error of omission but only to the extent that when added to the preceding year's levy it is not in excess of an applicable statutory, special law or charter limitation, or the limitation imposed on the governmental subdivision by sections 275.50 to 275.56 in the preceding levy year;

(k) pay amounts required to correct for an error of omission in the levy certified to the appropriate county auditor or auditors by the governing body of a city or town with statutory city powers in a levy year, but only to the extent that when added to the preceding year's levy it is not in excess of an applicable statutory, special law or charter limitation, or the limitation imposed on the governmental subdivision by sections 275.50 to 275.56 in the preceding levy year;

(l) pay the increased cost of municipal services as the result of an annexation or consolidation ordered by the Minnesota municipal board but only to the extent and for the levy years as provided by the board in its order pursuant to section 414.01, subdivision 15. Special levies authorized by the board shall not exceed 50 percent of the levy limit base of the governmental subdivision and may not be in effect for more than three years after the board's order;

(m) pay the increased costs of municipal services provided to new private industrial and nonresidential commercial development, to the extent that the extension of such services are not paid for through bonded indebtedness or special assessments, and not to exceed the amount determined as follows. The governmental subdivision may calculate the aggregate of:

(1) the increased expenditures necessary in preparation for the delivering of municipal services to new private industrial and nonresidential commercial development, but limited to one year's expenditures one time for each such development;

(2) the amount determined by dividing the overall levy limitation established pursuant to sections 275.50 to 275.56, and exclusive of special levies and special assessments, by the total taxable value of the governmental subdivision, and then multiplying this quotient times the total increase in assessed value of private industrial and nonresidential commercial development within the governmental subdivision. For the purpose of this clause, the increase in the assessed value of private industrial and nonresidential commercial development is calculated as the increase in assessed value over the assessed value of the real estate parcels subject to such private development as most recently determined before the building permit was issued. In the fourth levy year subsequent to the levy year in which the building permit was issued, the increase in assessed value of the real estate parcels subject to such private development shall no longer be included in determining the special levy.

The aggregate of the foregoing amounts, less any costs of extending municipal services to new private industrial and nonresidential commercial development which are paid by bonded indebtedness or special assessments, equals the maximum amount that may be levied as a "special levy" for the increased costs of municipal services provided to new private industrial and nonresidential commercial development. In the levy year following the levy year in which the special levy made pursuant to this clause is discontinued, one-half of the amount of that special levy made in the preceding year shall be added to the permanent levy base of the governmental subdivision;

(n) recover a loss or refunds in tax receipts incurred in nonspecial levy funds resulting from abatements or court action in the previous year pursuant to section 275.48;

(o) pay amounts required by law to be paid to pay the interest on and to reduce the unfunded accrued liability of public pension funds in accordance with the actuarial standards and guidelines specified in sections 356.215 and 356.216 reduced by 106 percent of the amount levied for that purpose in 1976, payable in 1977. For the purpose of this special levy, the estimated receipts expected from the state of Minnesota pursuant to sections 69.011 to 69.031 or any other state aid expressly intended for the support of public pension funds shall be considered as a deduction in determining the required levy for the normal costs of the public pension funds. No amount of these aids shall be considered as a deduction in determining the governmental subdivision's required levy for the reduction of the unfunded accrued liability of public pension funds;

(p) the amounts allowed under section 174.27 to establish and administer a commuter van program;

(q) pay the costs of financial assistance to local governmental units and certain administrative, engineering, and legal expenses pursuant to Laws 1979, chapter 253, section 3;

(r) compensate for revenue lost as a result of abatements or court action pursuant to section 270.07, 270.17 or 278.01 due to a reassessment ordered by the commissioner of revenue pursuant to section 270.16;

(s) pay the total operating cost of a county jail as authorized in section 641.01. If the county government utilizes this special levy, then any amount levied by the county government in the previous year for operating its county jail and included in its previous year's levy limitation computed pursuant to section 275.51 shall be deducted from the current levy limitation;

(t) pay the costs of implementing section 18.023, including sanitation and reforestation;

(u) pay the estimated cost for the following calendar year of the county's share of funding the Minnesota cooperative soil survey;

(v) pay the costs of meeting the planning requirements of section 115A.46; the requirements of section 115A.917; the planning requirements of the metropolitan plan adopted under section 473.149 and county master plans adopted under section 473.803; waste reduction and source separation programs and facilities; response actions that are financed in part by service charges under section 400.08 or 115A.15, subdivision 6; closure and postclosure care of a solid waste facility closed by order of the pollution control agency or by expiration of an agency permit before January 1, 1989; and current operating and maintenance costs of a publicly-owned solid waste processing facility financed with general obligation bonds issued after a referendum before March 25, 1986;

(w) pay the annual principal and interest due on a loan made under section 116J.37;

(x) pay the annual principal and interest due on a loan from money received from litigation or settlement of alleged violations of federal petroleum pricing regulations; ~~and~~

(y) pay the costs of constructing public libraries; and

(z) fund the county's share of soil and water conservation district expenses for which a levy is imposed under section 40.07, subdivision 15, provided that a special levy under this paragraph may not exceed one mill.

The captured assessed value of the parcels of real property described in section 1 is deemed for all purposes under Minnesota Statutes, sections 469.174 to 469.179 to be the increased assessed value of those parcels computed in the manner prescribed by Minnesota Statutes, section 469.177, and in accordance with this article.

Sec. 4. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

This article is effective upon its approval by the city council of the city of Virginia and compliance with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021.

ARTICLE 2

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.174, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [ORIGINAL ASSESSED VALUE.] (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), "original assessed value" means the assessed value of all taxable real property within a tax increment financing district as most recently certified by the commissioner of revenue as of the date of the request by an authority for certification by the county auditor, together with subsequent adjustments as set forth in section 469.177, subdivisions 1 and 4. In determining the original assessed value the assessed value of real property exempt from taxation at the time of the request shall be zero, except for real property which is tax exempt by reason of public ownership by the requesting authority and which has been publicly owned for less than one year prior to the date of the request for certification, in which event the assessed value of the property shall be the assessed value as most recently determined by the commissioner of revenue.

(b) The original assessed value of any designated hazardous substance site or hazardous substance subdistrict shall be determined on January 2 following the date the agency or municipality certifies to the county auditor that the agency or municipality has entered a redevelopment or other agreement for the removal actions or remedial actions specified in a development response action plan, or otherwise provided funds to finance the development response action plan, the original assessed value shall be equal to the assessed value of the parcel, as most recently determined by the commissioner of revenue, less the reasonable and necessary costs of the removal actions and remedial actions to be undertaken with respect to the parcel as certified to the county auditor by the municipality or agency but not less than zero.

(c) The original assessed value shall be increased by the amount by which it was reduced pursuant to paragraph (b) upon certification by the municipality that the costs of the removal actions and remedial actions have been paid or reimbursed.

(d) For purposes of this subdivision, "real property" shall include any property normally taxable as personal property by reason of its location on or over publicly-owned property.

(e) The terms "removal," "remedial," "action," "hazardous substance," and "pollutant or contaminant" have the meanings assigned by section 115B.02. The term "development response action plan" has the meaning given under section 3.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.174, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [REDEVELOPMENT DISTRICT.] (a) "Redevelopment district" means a type of tax increment financing district consisting of a project, or portions of a project, within which the authority finds by resolution that one of the following conditions, reasonably distributed throughout the district, exists:

(1) 70 percent of the parcels in the district are occupied by buildings, streets, utilities, or other improvements and more than 50 percent of the buildings, not including outbuildings, are structurally substandard to a degree requiring substantial renovation or clearance; or

(2) 70 percent of the parcels in the district are occupied by buildings, streets, utilities, or other improvements and 20 percent of the buildings are structurally substandard and an additional 30 percent of the buildings are found to require substantial renovation or clearance in order to remove such existing conditions as: inadequate street layout, incompatible uses or land use relationships, overcrowding of buildings on the land, excessive dwelling unit density, obsolete buildings not suitable for improvement or conversion, or other identified hazards to the health, safety, and general well-being of the community; or

(3) less than 70 percent of the parcels in the district are occupied by buildings, streets, utilities, or other improvements, but due to unusual terrain or soil deficiencies requiring substantial filling, grading, or other physical preparation for use at least 80 percent of the total acreage of such land has a fair market value upon inclusion in the redevelopment district which, when added to the estimated cost of preparing that land for development, excluding costs directly related to roads as defined in section 160.01 and local improvements as described in section 429.021, subdivision 1, clauses 1 to 7, 11 and 12, and 430.01, if any, exceeds its anticipated fair market value after completion of the preparation. No parcel shall be included within a redevelopment district pursuant to this paragraph unless the authority has concluded an agreement or agreements for the development of at least 50 percent of the acreage having the unusual soil or terrain deficiencies, which agreement provides recourse for the authority should the development not be completed; or

(4) the property consists of underutilized air rights existing over a public street, highway, or right-of-way; or

(5) the property consists of vacant, unused, underused, inappropriately used, or infrequently used railyards, rail storage facilities, or excessive or vacated railroad rights-of-way; or

(6) the district consists of an existing or proposed industrial park no greater in size than 250 acres, which contains a sewage lagoon contaminated with polychlorinated biphenyls.

(b) For purposes of this subdivision, "structurally substandard" shall mean containing defects in structural elements or a combination of deficiencies in essential utilities and facilities, light and ventilation, fire protection including adequate egress, layout and condition of interior partitions, or similar factors, which defects or deficiencies are of sufficient total significance to justify substantial renovation or clearance.

(c) For districts approved under section 469.175, subdivision 3, or for noncontiguous areas added to existing districts after April 1, 1988, if the district consists of two or more noncontiguous geographic areas, each area must qualify as a redevelopment district under clauses (a)(1) to (a)(6) in order to be included in the district, and the area of the entire district must satisfy the requirements of paragraph (a).

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.174, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 16. [DESIGNATED HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCE SITE.] "Designated hazardous substance site" means any parcel or parcels with respect to which the authority or municipality has certified to the county auditor that the authority or municipality has entered into a redevelopment or other agreement providing for, or otherwise has available to it funds, including, without limitation, tax increment which would be made available pursuant to section 469.175, subdivision 1, to finance the removal actions or remedial actions specified in a development response action plan. For purposes of this section, a plan or proposal for removal actions or remedial actions constitutes a development response action plan if the actions contained in the plan or proposal are:

(1) requested by the agency or its commissioner pursuant to section 115B.17, 115C.03, or other law; or

(2) proposed to the commissioner of the pollution control agency by a municipality to respond to a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance, pollutant, contaminant, or petroleum.

Sec. 4. [469.1741] [TOWN AUTHORITY.]

No town may be authorized after the date of enactment of this act to exercise powers under sections 469.174 to 469.179 unless the town has the authority to exercise powers under section 368.01, is located within the metropolitan area as defined in section 473.121, subdivision 2, and has a population in excess of 5,000 persons.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.175, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TAX INCREMENT FINANCING PLAN.] A tax increment financing plan shall contain:

(1) a statement of objectives of an authority for the improvement of a project;

(2) a statement as to the development program for the project, including the property within the project, if any, that the authority intends to acquire;

(3) a list of any development activities that the plan proposes to take place within the project, for which contracts have been entered into at the time of the preparation of the plan, including the names of the parties to the contract, the activity governed by the contract, the cost stated in the contract, and the expected date of completion of that activity;

(4) identification or description of the type of any other specific development reasonably expected to take place within the project, and the date when the development is likely to occur;

(5) estimates of the following:

(i) cost of the project, including administration expenses;

- (ii) amount of bonded indebtedness to be incurred;
- (iii) sources of revenue to finance or otherwise pay public costs;
- (iv) the most recent assessed value of taxable real property within the tax increment financing district;
- (v) the estimated captured assessed value of the tax increment financing district at completion; and
- (vi) the duration of the tax increment financing district's existence; and
- (6) ~~a statement~~ statements of the authority's ~~estimate~~ alternate estimates of the impact of tax increment financing on the assessed values of all taxing jurisdictions in which the tax increment financing district is located in whole or in part. For purposes of one statement, the authority shall assume that the estimated captured assessed value would be available to the taxing jurisdictions without creation of the district, and for purposes of the second statement, the authority shall assume that none of the estimated captured assessed value would be available to the taxing jurisdictions without creation of the district;
- (7) identification and description of studies and analyses used to make the determination set forth in subdivision 3, clause (2); and
- (8) identification of all parcels to be included in the district.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.175, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CONSULTATIONS; COMMENT AND FILING.] Before formation of a tax increment financing district, the authority shall provide an opportunity to the members of the county boards of commissioners of any county in which any portion of the proposed district is located and the members of the school board of any school district in which any portion of the proposed district is located to meet with the authority. The authority shall present to the members of the county boards of commissioners and the school boards its estimate of the fiscal and economic implications of the proposed tax increment financing district. The information on the fiscal and economic implications of the plan must be provided to the county and school district boards at least 30 days before the public hearing required by subdivision 3. The 30-day requirement is waived if the county and school district submit written comments on the proposal and any modification of the proposal to the authority after receipt of the information. The members of the county boards of commissioners and the school boards may present their comments at the public hearing on the tax increment financing plan required by subdivision 3. ~~The county auditor shall not certify the original assessed value of a district pursuant to section 469.177, subdivision 1, until the county board of commissioners has presented its written comment on the proposal to the authority, or 30 days has passed from the date of the transmittal by the authority to the board of the information regarding the fiscal and economic implications, whichever occurs first.~~ Upon adoption of the tax increment financing plan, the authority shall file a copy of the plan with the commissioner of ~~energy~~ trade and economic development. The authority must also file with the commissioner a copy of the development plan for the project area.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.175, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [MUNICIPALITY APPROVAL.] A county auditor shall not certify the original assessed value of a tax increment financing district until the tax increment financing plan proposed for that district has been approved by the municipality in which the district is located. If an authority that proposes to establish a tax increment financing district and the municipality are not the same, the authority shall apply to the municipality in which the district is proposed to be located and shall obtain the approval of its tax increment financing plan by the municipality before the authority may use tax increment financing. The municipality shall approve the tax increment financing plan only after a public hearing thereon after published notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the municipality at least once not less than ten days nor more than 30 days prior to the date of the hearing. This hearing may be held before or after the approval or creation of the project or it may be held in conjunction with a hearing to approve the project. Before or at the time of approval of the tax increment financing plan, the municipality shall make the following findings, and shall set forth in writing the reasons and supporting facts for each determination:

(1) that the proposed tax increment financing district is a redevelopment district, a mined underground space development district, a housing district, or an economic development district; if the proposed district is a redevelopment district, the reasons and supporting facts for the determination that the district meets the criteria of section 469.174, subdivision 10, clauses (a)(1) to (a)(6), shall be retained and made available to the public by the authority until the district has been terminated.

(2) that the proposed development or redevelopment, in the opinion of the municipality, would not reasonably be expected to occur solely through private investment within the reasonably foreseeable future and therefore the use of tax increment financing is deemed necessary.

(3) that the tax increment financing plan conforms to the general plan for the development or redevelopment of the municipality as a whole.

(4) that the tax increment financing plan will afford maximum opportunity, consistent with the sound needs of the municipality as a whole, for the development or redevelopment of the project by private enterprise.

(5) that the municipality elects the method of tax increment computation set forth in section 469.177, subdivision 3, clause (b), if applicable.

When the municipality and the authority are not the same, the municipality shall approve or disapprove the tax increment financing plan within 60 days of submission by the authority, or the plan shall be deemed approved. When the municipality and the authority are not the same, the municipality may not amend or modify a tax increment financing plan except as proposed by the authority pursuant to subdivision 4. Once approved, the determination of the authority to undertake the project through the use of tax increment financing and the resolution of the governing body shall be conclusive of the findings therein and of the public need for the financing.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.175, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [MODIFICATION OF PLAN.] (a) A tax increment financing plan may be modified by an authority, provided that any reduction or enlargement of geographic area of the project or tax increment financing district, increase in amount of bonded indebtedness to be incurred, including a determination to capitalize interest on the debt if that determination was not a part of the original plan, or to increase or decrease the amount of interest on the debt to be capitalized, increase in the portion of the captured assessed value to be retained by the authority, increase in total estimated tax increment expenditures or designation of additional property to be acquired by the authority shall be approved upon the notice and after the discussion, public hearing, and findings required for approval of the original plan; provided that if an authority changes the type of district from housing, redevelopment, or economic development to another type of district, this change shall not be considered a modification but shall require the authority to follow the procedure set forth in sections 469.174 to 469.179 for adoption of a new plan, including certification of the assessed valuation of the district by the county auditor. If a redevelopment district is enlarged, the reasons and supporting facts for the determination that the addition to the district meets the criteria of section 469.174, subdivision 10, clauses (a)(1) to (a)(6), shall be documented. The requirements of this paragraph do not apply if (1) the only modification is elimination of parcels from the project or district and (2)(A) the current assessed value of the parcels eliminated from the district equals or exceeds the assessed value of those parcels in the district's original assessed value or (B) the authority agrees that, notwithstanding section 469.177, subdivision 1, the original assessed value will be reduced by no more than the current assessed value of the parcels eliminated from the district. The authority must notify the county auditor of any modification that reduces or enlarges the geographic area of a district or a project area.

(b) The geographic area of a tax increment financing district may be reduced, but shall not be enlarged after five years following the date of certification of the original assessed value by the county auditor or after August 1, 1984, for tax increment financing districts authorized prior to August 1, 1979, except that development districts created pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1978, chapter 472A, prior to August 1, 1979, may be reduced but shall not be enlarged after five years following the date of designation of the district.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.175, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [CREATION OF HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCE SUBDISTRICT.] (a) A municipality or authority which is creating or has created a tax increment financing district may establish within the district a hazardous substance subdistrict upon the notice and after the discussion, public hearing and findings required for approval of the original plan. The geographic area of the subdistrict shall be made up of any parcels in the district designated for inclusion by the municipality or authority that are designated hazardous substance sites, and any additional parcels in the district designated for inclusion that are contiguous except for the interposition of a right-of-way. Before or at the time of approval of the tax increment financing plan, the municipality shall make the findings under paragraphs (b) to (d), and shall set forth in writing the reasons and supporting facts for each.

(b) The proposed development or redevelopment, in the opinion of the municipality, would not reasonably be expected to occur solely through private investment and tax increment otherwise available, and therefore the hazardous substance district is deemed necessary.

(c) Other parcels that are not designated hazardous substance sites are expected to be developed together with a designated hazardous substance site.

(d) The subdistrict is not larger than, and the period of time during which increments are elected to be received is not longer than, that which is necessary in the opinion of the municipality to provide for the additional costs due to the designated hazardous substance site.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.176, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DURATION OF TAX INCREMENT FINANCING DISTRICTS.] (a) Subject to the limitations contained in paragraphs (b) to (f), any tax increment financing district as to which bonds are outstanding, payment for which the tax increment and other revenues have been pledged, shall remain in existence at least as long as the bonds continue to be outstanding.

(b) The tax increment pledged to the payment of the bonds and interest thereon may be discharged and the tax increment financing district may be terminated if sufficient funds have been irrevocably deposited in the debt service fund or other escrow account held in trust for all outstanding bonds to provide for the payment of the bonds at maturity or date of redemption and interest thereon to the maturity or redemption date.

(c) For bonds issued pursuant to section 469.178, subdivisions 2 and 3, the full faith and credit and any taxing powers of the municipality or authority shall continue to be pledged to the payment of the bonds until the principal of and interest on the bonds has been paid in full.

(d) No tax increment shall be paid to an authority for a tax increment financing district after three years from the date of certification of the original assessed value of the taxable real property in the district by the county auditor or after August 1, 1982, for tax increment financing districts authorized prior to August 1, 1979, unless within the three-year period (1) bonds have been issued pursuant to section 469.178, or in aid of a project pursuant to any other law, except revenue bonds issued pursuant to sections 469.152 to 469.165, prior to August 1, 1979, or (2) the authority has acquired property within the district, or (3) the authority has constructed or caused to be constructed public improvements within the district.

(e) (i) For districts certified after August 1, 1979, no tax increment shall in any event be paid to the authority from a redevelopment district after 25 years from date of receipt by the authority of the first tax increment, provided that for districts approved under section 469.175, subdivision 3, after April 1, 1988, if bonds or obligations issued to implement the district's tax increment financing plan are exempt from federal and state income taxes, the duration of the district is 20 years. No tax increment shall in any event be paid to the authority after 25 years from the date of the receipt for a housing district, after 25 years from the date of the receipt for a mined underground space development district, and after eight years from the date of the receipt, or ten years from approval of the tax increment financing plan, whichever is less, for an economic development district. In the case of a redevelopment district that has a maximum duration of 20 years under this subdivision, the authority may waive receipt of increment for the first year in which property tax is paid by captured assessed value. For purposes of determining the duration limits the waived increment does not constitute receipt of increment.

(ii) For tax increment financing districts created prior to August 1, 1979, no tax increment shall be paid to the authority after ~~30 years from August 1, 1979~~ April 1, 2001, or the term of a bond or obligation outstanding on April 1, 1990, secured by increments from the district or project area, whichever time is greater, provided that in no case will a tax increment be paid to an authority after August 1, 2009, from such a district.

(f) Modification of a tax increment financing plan pursuant to section 469.175, subdivision 4, shall not extend the durational limitations of this subdivision.

If a parcel of a district is part of a designated hazardous substance site or a hazardous substance subdistrict, tax increment may be paid to the authority from the parcel for longer than the period otherwise provided by this subdivision. The extended period for collection of tax increment shall begin on the date of receipt of the first tax increment from the parcel that is more than any tax increment received from the parcel before the date of the certification under section 469.174, subdivision 7, paragraph (b), and received after the date of certification to the county auditor described in section 469.174, subdivision 7, paragraph (b). The extended period for collection of tax increment shall be the lesser of: (1) 25 years from the date of commencement of the extended period; or (2) the period necessary to recover the costs of removal actions or remedial actions specified in a development response action plan.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.176, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [LIMITATION ON USE OF TAX INCREMENT.] (a) All revenues derived from tax increment shall be used in accordance with the tax increment financing plan. The revenues shall be used solely for the following purposes: (1) to pay the principal of and interest on bonds issued to finance a project; (2) by a rural development financing authority for the purposes stated in section 469.142, by a port authority or municipality exercising the powers of a port authority to finance or otherwise pay the cost of redevelopment pursuant to sections 469.048 to 469.068, by an economic development authority to finance or otherwise pay the cost of redevelopment pursuant to sections 469.090 to 469.108, by a housing and redevelopment authority or economic development authority to finance or otherwise pay public redevelopment costs pursuant to sections 469.001 to 469.047, by a municipality or economic development authority to finance or otherwise pay the capital and administration costs of a development district pursuant to sections 469.124 to 469.134, by a municipality or redevelopment agency to finance or otherwise pay premiums for insurance or other security guaranteeing the payment when due of principal of and interest on the bonds pursuant to chapter 462C, sections 469.152 to 469.165, or both, or to accumulate and maintain a reserve securing the payment when due of the principal of and interest on the bonds pursuant to chapter 462C, sections 469.152 to 469.165, or both, which revenues in the reserve shall not exceed, subsequent to the fifth anniversary of the date of issue of the first bond issue secured by the reserve, an amount equal to 20 percent of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding and nondefeased bonds secured by the reserve. Tax increments may be used to pay for the county's actual administrative expenses under sections 469.174 to 469.179; the county may require payment of those expenses by February 15 of the year after the year in which the expenses are incurred. The amount of these payments are not required to be set forth in the tax increment financing plan for the project. To obtain payment for actual administrative costs, the county auditor must submit to the authority a record of costs incurred by the county auditor related to administration of the authority's tax increment financing districts. Revenue derived from tax increment from a mined underground space development district may be used only to pay for the costs of excavating and supporting the space, of providing public access to the mined underground space including roadways, and of installing utilities including fire sprinkler systems in the space. Revenue derived from tax increment from a district approved under section 469.175, subdivision 3, after April 1, 1988, all or a portion of which qualified as a redevelopment district under section 469.174, subdivision 10, paragraph (3), or from parcels added to an existing district of that type after April 1, 1988, may be used only to (1) acquire parcels on which the improvements described in clause (2) will occur; (2) pay for the cost of correcting the unusual terrain or soil deficiencies and the additional cost of installing public improvements directly caused by the deficiencies; and (3) pay for the administrative expenses of the authority allocable to the district. The sale by the authority of a parcel acquired and improved as described in clauses (1) and (2) must be for a price that is no less than the cost of acquisition. No less than one-half of the revenue derived from tax increment from a housing project must be used to finance or otherwise pay the cost of land acquisition, site improvements, public improvements directly related to, and construction or renovation of a project consisting of housing described in section 469.174, subdivision 11, including allocated administration costs.

(b) Revenues derived from tax increment may be used to finance the costs of an interest reduction program operated pursuant to section 469.012, subdivisions 7 to 10, or pursuant to other law granting interest reduction authority and power by reference to those subdivisions only under the following conditions: (1) tax increments may not be collected for a program for a period in excess of 12 years after the date of the first interest rate reduction payment for the program, (2) tax increments may not be used for an interest reduction program, if the proceeds of bonds issued pursuant to section 469.178 after December 31, 1985, have been or will be used to provide financial assistance to the specific project which would receive the benefit of the interest reduction program, and (3) tax increments may not be used to finance an interest reduction program for owner-occupied single-family dwellings.

(c) These revenues shall not be used to circumvent existing levy limit law. No revenues derived from tax increment from any district, whether certified before or after August 1, 1979, shall be used for the acquisition, construction or renovation, operation, or maintenance of a municipally owned building to be used primarily and regularly for conducting the business of the a municipality, county, school district, or any other local unit of government or the state or federal government. This provision shall not prohibit the use of revenues derived from tax increments for the construction or renovation of a parking structure, a commons area used as a public park, or a facility used for social, recreational, or conference purposes and not primarily for conducting the business of the municipality.

(d) If a tax increment district is located in a municipality, parts of which are situated in more than one county, the revenue derived from tax increments from parcels located in one county must be expended for the direct and primary benefit of a project located or conducted within that county.

unless the county boards of each of the counties involved agree to waive this requirement.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.176, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [REQUIREMENT FOR AGREEMENTS.] No more than 25 percent, by acreage, of the property to be acquired within a project which contains a redevelopment district, or ten percent, by acreage, of the property to be acquired within a project which contains a housing or economic development district, as set forth in the tax increment financing plan, shall at any time be owned by an authority as a result of acquisition with the proceeds of bonds issued pursuant to section 469.178 unless prior to acquisition in excess of the percentages, the authority has concluded an agreement for the development or redevelopment of the property acquired and which provides recourse for the authority should the development or redevelopment not be completed. This subdivision does not apply to a parcel of a district that is a designated hazardous substance site established under section 3 or part of a hazardous substance subdistrict established under section 9.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.176, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [ACTION REQUIRED.] (a) If, after four years from the date of certification of the original assessed value of the tax increment financing district pursuant to section 469.177, no demolition, rehabilitation, or renovation of property or other site preparation, including improvement of a street adjacent to a parcel but not installation of utility service including sewer or water systems, has been commenced on a parcel located within a tax increment financing district by the authority or by the owner of the parcel in accordance with the tax increment financing plan, no additional tax increment may be taken from that parcel, and the original assessed value of that parcel shall be excluded from the original assessed value of the tax increment financing district. If the authority or the owner of the parcel subsequently commences demolition, rehabilitation, or renovation or other site preparation on that parcel including improvement of a street adjacent to that parcel, in accordance with the tax increment financing plan, the authority shall certify to the county auditor that the activity has commenced, and the county auditor shall certify the assessed value thereof as most recently certified by the commissioner of revenue and add it to the original assessed value of the tax increment financing district. The county auditor must enforce the provisions of this subdivision. The authority must by February 1 of the fifth year following the year in which a parcel was certified as included in the district submit to the county auditor evidence that the required activity has taken place for each parcel in the district.

(b) This subdivision applies to all tax increment districts, whether created before or after August 1, 1979. The subdivision applies to districts created before August 1, 1979 as provided in this paragraph. The four-year period is deemed to begin April 1, 1988, provided that activity on or improvements to a parcel occurring prior to that date qualify the parcel for retention in the district. The authority must submit the evidence of activity or improvements for each parcel to the county auditor, as required by paragraph (a), by June 1, 1992. In the case of a district or a portion of a district for which no tax increment financing plan has been prepared, improvements are deemed to have been commenced "in accordance with the tax increment financing plan" when one of the following conditions is met:

(1) acquisition or improvement of the parcel was financed by the authority with increment revenues or with the proceeds of tax increment bonds or with other funds of the authority after the inclusion of the parcel in the district;

(2) public improvements, excluding sewer and water improvements, were installed or constructed on the parcel or on land adjacent to the parcel after inclusion of the parcel in the district and the improvements were financed with increments or other authority revenues, but excluding general city revenues or special assessments if the authority is the same as the municipality;

(3) construction of the improvements occurred on the parcel and the municipality passes a resolution stating that the improvements or other improvements of approximately equal (or greater) market value would not have occurred if the authority had not undertaken efforts of the type specified in clauses (1) or (2) on other parcels in the district. If the authority submits evidence that (i) at least 60 percent of the parcels, or (ii) parcels comprising at least 60 percent of the geographic area in the district, or (iii) parcels from which is derived at least 60 percent of the captured assessed value of the district, meet the requirements of this paragraph by June 1, 1992, all parcels may remain in the district notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a).

(c) In the case of tax increment projects for which certification was requested before August 1, 1979, and for which a defeased bond was outstanding on April 1, 1988, the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) apply as specified in this paragraph. Increments shall continue to be collected from parcels that fail to meet the requirements of paragraphs (a) and (b). The authority or other administering entity shall deposit these increments in a separate account in the debt service or other bond fund to defease bonds outstanding on April 1, 1988, for the project. The amount of funds in the separate account shall not affect or be considered in computation of the amount required to be deposited in the regular debt service fund under the bond resolution, indenture, or other contract. When the sum of the amount in the regular debt service fund and the separate account are sufficient to fully defease the bonds outstanding on April 1, 1988, for the project or when such bonds are fully defeased or paid by refunding or otherwise, increments may no longer be collected from a parcel that does not satisfy the requirements of paragraphs (a) and (b).

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.176, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT DISTRICTS.] No economic development district may be created after the date of final enactment of this act. The geographic boundaries of an economic development district created before that date may not be expanded after that date.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.177, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ORIGINAL ASSESSED VALUE.] Upon or after adoption of a tax increment financing plan, the auditor of any county in which the district is situated shall, upon request of the authority, certify the original assessed value of the tax increment financing district as described in the tax increment financing plan and shall certify in each year thereafter the amount by which the original assessed value has increased or decreased as a result of a change in tax exempt status of property within the district, reduction or enlargement of the district or changes pursuant to subdivision 4. In the case of a mined underground space development district the county auditor shall certify the original assessed value as zero, plus the assessed value, if any, previously assigned to any subsurface area included in the mined underground space development district pursuant to section 272.04. For districts approved under section 469.175, subdivision 3, or parcels added to existing districts after April 1, 1988, if the classification under section 273.13 of property located in a district changes to a classification that has a different assessment ratio, the original assessed value of that property shall be redetermined at the time when its use is changed as if the property had originally been classified in the same class in which it is classified after its use is changed. The amount to be added to the original assessed value of the district as a result of previously tax exempt real property within the district becoming taxable shall be equal to the assessed value of the real property as most recently assessed pursuant to section 273.18 or, if that assessment was made more than one year prior to the date of title transfer rendering the property taxable, the value assessed by the assessor at the time of the transfer. The amount to be added to the original assessed value of the district as a result of enlargements thereof shall be equal to the assessed value of the added real property as most recently certified by the commissioner of revenue as of the date of modification of the tax increment financing plan pursuant to section 469.175, subdivision 4. For districts approved under section 469.175, subdivision 3, after April 1, 1988, if the assessed value of a property increases because the property no longer qualifies under the Minnesota agricultural property tax law, section 273.111; the Minnesota open space property tax law, section 273.112; or the metropolitan agricultural preserves act, chapter 473H, the increase in assessed value must be added to the original assessed value. Each year the auditor shall also add to the original assessed value of each economic development district an amount equal to the original assessed value for the preceding year multiplied by the average percentage increase in the assessed valuation of all property included in the economic development district during the five years prior to certification of the district. The amount to be subtracted from the original assessed value of the district as a result of previously taxable real property within the district becoming tax exempt, or a reduction in the geographic area of the district, shall be the amount of original assessed value initially attributed to the property becoming tax exempt or being removed from the district. If the assessed value of property located within the tax increment financing district is reduced by reason of a court-ordered abatement, stipulation agreement, voluntary abatement made by the assessor or auditor or by order of the commissioner of revenue, the reduction shall be applied to the original assessed value of the district when the property upon which the abatement is made has not been improved since the date of certification of the district and to the captured assessed value of the district in each year thereafter when the abatement relates to improvements made after the date of certification. The county auditor may specify reasonable form and content of the request for certification of the authority and any modification thereof pursuant to section 469.175, subdivision 4.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.177, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [TAX INCREMENT, RELATIONSHIP TO CHAPTER 473F.]

(a) Unless the governing body elects pursuant to clause (b) the following method of computation shall apply:

(1) The original assessed value and the current assessed value shall be determined before the application of the fiscal disparity provisions of chapter 473F. Where the original assessed value is equal to or greater than the current assessed value, there is no captured assessed value and no tax increment determination. Where the original assessed value is less than the current assessed value, the difference between the original assessed value and the current assessed value is the captured assessed value. This amount less any portion thereof which the authority has designated, in its tax increment financing plan, to share with the local taxing districts is the retained captured assessed value of the authority.

(2) The county auditor shall exclude the retained captured assessed value of the authority from the taxable value of the local taxing districts in determining local taxing district mill rates. The mill rates so determined are to be extended against the retained captured assessed value of the authority as well as the taxable value of the local taxing districts. The tax generated by the extension of the local taxing district mill rates to the retained captured assessed value of the authority is the tax increment of the authority.

(b) The governing body may, by resolution approving the tax increment financing plan pursuant to section 469.175, subdivision 3, elect the following method of computation:

(1) The original assessed value shall be determined before the application of the fiscal disparity provisions of chapter 473F. The current assessed value shall exclude any fiscal disparity commercial-industrial assessed value increase between the original year and the current year multiplied by the fiscal disparity ratio determined pursuant to section 473F08, subdivision 6. Where the original assessed value is equal to or greater than the current assessed value, there is no captured assessed value and no tax increment determination. Where the original assessed value is less than the current assessed value, the difference between the original assessed value and the current assessed value is the captured assessed value. This amount less any portion thereof which the authority has designated, in its tax increment financing plan, to share with the local taxing districts is the retained captured assessed value of the authority.

(2) The county auditor shall exclude the retained captured assessed value of the authority from the taxable value of the local taxing districts in determining local taxing district mill rates. The mill rates so determined are to be extended against the retained captured assessed value of the authority as well as the taxable value of the local taxing districts. The tax generated by the extension of the local taxing district mill rates to the retained captured assessed value of the authority is the tax increment of the authority.

(3) An election by the governing body pursuant to ~~part~~ paragraph (b) shall be submitted to the county auditor by the authority at the time of the request for certification pursuant to subdivision 1.

(c) The method of computation of tax increment applied to a district pursuant to ~~clause~~ paragraph (a) or (b) shall remain the same for the duration of the district, except that the governing body may elect to change its election from the method of computation in paragraph (a) to the method in paragraph (b).

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.177, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [PAYMENT TO SCHOOL DISTRICT FOR REFERENDUM LEVY INCREASE.] If a tax increment financing district is located in a school district in which the voters have approved new millage or an increase in millage pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 2, the authority must pay to the school district the amount raised by the new or increased millage. The amount to be paid to the school district must be computed as follows:

(1) Subtract the mill rate approved by the voters of the school district pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 2, as of June 30, 1988, or the date the tax increment financing district was certified, whichever is later, and still in effect on the date the levy is certified, from the mill rate approved by the voters under that section as of the date the levy is certified. If the result is less than zero, select zero.

(2) Multiply the result in clause (1) by the ratio of the school district's actual levy certified pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 2, to its permitted levy under that section.

(3) Multiply the result in clause (2) by the retained captured assessed value of the authority located within that school district as of January 2 of the year in which the levy is certified.

The county auditor must compute the payment required by this subdivision and report the amount to the authority, the school district, and the commissioner of education by March 1 of each year. The payment must be made by November 1 of the year in which the property taxes are payable.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.177, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PRIOR PLANNED IMPROVEMENTS.] The authority shall, after diligent search, accompany its request for certification to the county auditor pursuant to subdivision 1, or its notice of district enlargement pursuant to section 469.175, subdivision 4, with a listing of all properties within the tax increment financing district or area of enlargement for which building permits have been issued during the 18 months immediately preceding approval of the tax increment financing plan by the municipality pursuant to section 469.175, subdivision 3. The county auditor shall increase the original assessed value of the district by the assessed valuation of the improvements each improvement for which a building permit was issued, excluding the assessed valuation of improvements for which a building permit was issued during the three-month period immediately preceding said approval of the tax increment financing plan, as certified by the assessor during the 18-month period immediately preceding approval of the plan, as well as by the assessed valuation of each improvement for which a building permit is issued during the three-month period immediately following approval of the plan. In the case of a permit issued during the three-month period immediately before or the three-month period immediately after approval of the plan, the county auditor shall not increase the original assessed value if the authority has financed an improvement to the parcel or to an immediately adjacent parcel pursuant to this tax increment plan that occurs within three years of the certification of the district.

469.179 [EXISTING PROJECTS.]

Subdivision 1. [EXEMPTION.] The provisions of sections 469.174 to 469.178 shall not affect any project for which tax increment certification was requested pursuant to law prior to August 1, 1979, or any project carried on by an authority pursuant to section 469.033, subdivision 5, with respect to which the governing body has by resolution designated properties for inclusion in the district prior to August 1, 1979, except:

(1) as otherwise expressly provided in sections 469.174 to 469.178; or
(2) as an authority elects to proceed with an existing district, under the provisions of sections 469.174 to 469.178; or

(3) that any enlargements of the geographic area of an existing tax increment financing district subsequent to August 1, 1979, shall be accomplished in accordance with and shall subject the property added as a result of the enlargement to the terms and conditions of sections 469.174 to 469.178 as provided in subdivision 2; or

(4) that beginning with taxes payable in 1980, section 469.177, subdivision 3, clause (b), shall apply to all development districts created pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1978, chapter 472A, or any special law, prior to August 1, 1979.

Subd. 2. [APPLICATION TO EXISTING DISTRICTS.] If the development or redevelopment activity within the project or district of a tax increment financing project certified prior to August 1, 1979, is extended beyond the scope of activity set forth in the district's redevelopment plan under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 462, or Minnesota Statutes, chapter 472A, if applicable, after April 1, 1988, the authority must with regard to the new activity conform to the provisions of sections 469.174 to 469.178 with the following exceptions.

(a) Section 469.175, subdivision 3, paragraphs (1) and (5), shall not apply. Furthermore, the provisions of section 473E02, subdivision 3, shall continue to apply to the entire district, if applicable.

(b) Section 469.177, subdivision 3, shall not apply.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 475.51, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. "Assessed value" means the latest valuation for purposes of taxation, as finally equalized, of all property taxable within the municipality but not including captured assessed value under section 469.174, subdivision 4, or any other law permitting collection of tax increments.

Sec. 21. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Except as provided otherwise, sections 2, 5, 6, 7, and 18 are effective for districts approved under section 469.175, subdivision 3, after April 1, 1988. Sections 8, 13, 16, and 19 are effective April 1, 1988. The amendment to clause (c) of section 11 is effective for expenditures after April 1, 1988, except to the extent that the authority had entered into a binding contract before March 31, 1988, to make expenditures prohibited by that section. Section 17 applies to taxes levied in 1988, payable in 1989, and thereafter, as a result of a referendum held after December 31, 1986, and applies to tax increment districts created before or after the date of enactment of this act. Section 20 is effective for bonds issued after March 31, 1988."

WORKERS' COMPENSATION SYSTEM CHANGES

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.011, subdivision 11a, is amended to read:

Subd. 11a. [FAMILY FARM.] "Family farm" means any farm operation which (1) pays or is obligated to pay less than ~~$8,000~~ $20,000 in cash wages, exclusive of machine hire, to farm laborers for services rendered during the preceding calendar year, and (2) has total liability and medical payment coverage equal to $250,000 and $5,000, respectively, under a farm liability insurance policy. For purposes of this subdivision, farm laborer does not include any spouse, parent or child, regardless of age, of a farmer employed by the farmer, or any executive officer of a family farm corporation as defined in section 500.24, subdivision 2, or any spouse, parent or child, regardless of age, of such an officer employed by that family farm corporation, or other farmers in the same community or members of their families exchanging work with the employer. Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.011, subdivision 18, is amended to read:

Subd. 18. [WEEKLY WAGE.] "Weekly wage" is arrived at by multiplying the daily wage by the number of days and fractional days normally worked in the business of the employer for the employment involved. If the employee normally works less than five days per week or works an irregular number of days per week, the number of days normally worked shall be computed by dividing the total number of days in which the employee actually performed any of the duties of employment in the last 26 weeks by the number of weeks in which the employee actually performed such duties, provided that the weekly wage for part time employment during a period of seasonal or temporary layoff shall be computed on the number of days and fractional days normally worked in the business of the employer for the employment involved. If, at the time of the injury, the employee was regularly employed by two or more employers, the employee's days of work for all such employments shall be included in the computation of weekly wage. Occasional overtime is not to be considered in computing the weekly wage, but if overtime is regular or frequent throughout the year it shall be taken into consideration. The maximum weekly compensation payable to an employee, or to the employee's dependents in the event of death, shall not exceed ~~66~~ ^{2/3} 80 percent of the product of the daily wage times the number of days normally worked employee's after-tax weekly wage, provided that the compensation payable for permanent partial disability under section 176.101, subdivision 3, and for permanent total disability under section 176.101, subdivision 4, or death under section 176.111, shall not be computed on less than the number of hours normally worked in the employment or industry in which the injury was sustained, subject also to such maximums as are specifically otherwise provided.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.011, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 18a. [AFTER-TAX WEEKLY WAGE.] After-tax weekly wage means the weekly wage reduced by the amounts required to be withheld by the Federal Insurance Contributions Act, United States Code, Title 16, sections 3101 to 3126, but without regard to the yearly maximum, and by state and federal income tax laws using as the number of allowances the number of exemptions that the employee is entitled to under federal law for the employee and the employee's dependents.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.021, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMPENSATION, COMMENCEMENT OF PAYMENT.] All employers shall commence payment of compensation at the time and in the manner prescribed by this chapter without the necessity of any agreement or any order of the division. Except for medical, burial, and other nonperiodic benefits, payments shall be made as nearly as possible at the intervals when the wage was payable; provided, however, that payments for permanent partial disability shall be governed by section 176.101. If doubt exists as to the eventual permanent partial disability, payment for the economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation, whichever is due, pursuant to section 176.101, shall be then made when due for the minimum permanent partial disability ascertainable, and further payment shall be made upon any later ascertainment of greater permanent partial disability. Prior to or at the time of commencement of the payment of economic recovery compensation or lump sum or periodic payment of impairment compensation permanent partial disability compensation, the employee and employer shall be furnished with a copy of the medical report upon which the payment is based and all other medical reports which the insurer has that indicate a permanent partial disability rating, together with a statement by the insurer as to whether the tendered payment is for minimum permanent partial disability or final and eventual disability. After receipt of all reports available to the insurer that indicate a permanent partial disability rating, the employee shall make available or permit the insurer to obtain any medical report that the employee has or has knowledge of that contains a permanent partial disability rating which the insurer does not already have. Economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation pursuant to section 176.101 is payable in addition to but not concurrently with compensation for temporary total disability but is payable pursuant to section 176.101. Impairment compensation is payable concurrently and in addition to compensation for permanent total disability pursuant to section 176.101. Economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation pursuant to section 176.101 shall be withheld pending completion of payment for temporary total disability, and no credit shall be taken for payment of economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation against liability for temporary total or future permanent total disability. Liability on the part of an employer or the insurer for disability of a temporary total, temporary partial, and permanent total nature shall be considered as a continuing product and part of the employee's inability to earn or reduction in earning capacity due to injury or occupational disease and compensation is payable accordingly, subject to section 176.101. Economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation is payable for functional loss of use or impairment of function, permanent in nature, and payment therefore shall be separate, distinct, and in addition to payment for any other compensation, subject to section 176.101. The right to receive temporary total, temporary partial, or permanent total disability payments vests in the injured employee or the employee's dependents under this chapter or, if none, in the employee's legal heirs at the time the disability can be ascertained and the right is not abrogated by the employee's death prior to the making of the payment.

The right to receive economic recovery compensation or impairment permanent partial compensation vests in an injured employee at the time the disability can be ascertained provided that the employee lives for at least 30 days beyond the date of the injury. Upon the death of an employee who is receiving economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation, further compensation is payable pursuant to section 176.101. Impairment compensation is payable under this paragraph if vesting has occurred, the employee dies prior to reaching maximum medical improvement, and the requirements and conditions under section 176.101, subdivision 3e, are not met.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 176.041, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [OUT-OF-STATE EMPLOYMENTS.] (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), if an employee who regularly performs the primary duties of employment outside of this state or is hired to perform the primary duties of employment outside of this state, receives an injury within this state in the employ of the same employer, such injury shall be covered within the provisions of this chapter if the employee chooses to forego any workers' compensation claim resulting from the injury that the employee may have a right to pursue in some other state, provided that the special compensation fund is not liable for payment of benefits pursuant to section 176.183 if the employer is not insured against workers' compensation liability pursuant to this chapter and the employee is a nonresident of Minnesota on the date of the personal injury.

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBLE RECIPIENTS.] (a) An employee who has suffered personal injury prior to October 1, 1983 for which benefits are payable under section 176.101 and who has been totally disabled for more than 104 weeks shall be eligible for supplementary benefits as prescribed in this section after 104 weeks have elapsed and for the remainder of the total disablement. Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 176.136, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 79.252, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PURPOSE.] The purpose of the assigned risk plan is to provide workers' compensation coverage to employers who are unable, after expending reasonable efforts, to obtain workers' compensation insurance. Reasonable efforts may be demonstrated by the employer showing it was rejected in writing by a two or more licensed insurance ~~company~~ companies, pursuant to subdivision 2. One of the two rejections must be by the insurance company that most recently provided workers' compensation insurance coverage to the employer, unless the employer had no such previous coverage.

It is the responsibility of the insurer to show the rate is not excessive. The rate is effective unless it is determined as a result of the hearing that the rate is excessive. This subdivision applies only to changes resulting from an insurer's utilization of either: (1) the pure premium base rate level filed by any data service organization, plus the insurer's loading for expenses and profit; or (2) the insurer's own filed rate levels. This subdivision does not apply to any changes resulting from assessments for the assigned risk plan, reinsurance association, guarantee fund, special compensation fund, benefit level changes, or other rates or rating plans utilized by an insurer. The disapproval of a rate under this subdivision must be done in the same manner as under section 70A.11.

(b) For purposes of paragraph (a), a rate is excessive if, in the absence of a competitive market, the expected underwriting profit, together with expected income from invested reserves for the market in question, that would accrue to an insurer would be unreasonably high in relation to the risk undertaken by the insurer in transacting the business. No rate is excessive in a competitive market.

Sec. 6. [MANDATED RATE REDUCTIONS.]

As a result of the workers' compensation law changes in article 1 and the resulting savings to the costs of Minnesota's workers' compensation system, an insurer's approved schedule of rates in effect on August 1, 1988, must be reduced by 15 percent and applied by the insurer to all policies issued or renewed on or after that date. An insurer may not file a new schedule of rates between the day following final enactment of this act and August 1, 1988.

(d) In lieu of a tax computed according to the rates set forth in this subdivision, the tax of any individual taxpayer whose taxable net income for the taxable year is less than an amount determined by the commissioner must be computed in accordance with tables prepared and issued by the commissioner of revenue based on income brackets of not more than $100. The amount of tax for each bracket shall be computed at the rates set forth in this subdivision, provided that the commissioner may disregard a fractional part of a dollar unless it amounts to 50 cents or more, in which case it may be increased to $1.

(e) An individual who is not a Minnesota resident for the entire year must compute the individual's Minnesota income tax as provided in this subdivision. After the application of the nonrefundable credits provided in this chapter, the tax liability must then be multiplied by a fraction in which:

(1) The numerator is the individual's Minnesota ~~source~~ source federal adjusted gross income as defined in section 62 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986, after applying the allocation and assignability provisions of section 290.081, clause (a), or 290.17; and

(f) Any individual who has income which is included in the computation of federal adjusted gross income but is not subject to tax by Minnesota other than income specifically allowed as a subtraction under section 290.01, subdivision 19b, shall compute the tax in the same manner described in paragraph (e). The numerator of the fraction under paragraph (e) is the individual's Minnesota source federal adjusted gross income reduced by the income not subject to Minnesota tax and the denominator is the federal adjusted gross income.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.06, subdivision 20, is amended to read:

Subd. 20. [ELDERLY AND DISABLED PERSONS.] An individual may take a credit against the tax due under this chapter equal to ~~40 percent of~~ the credit for which the individual qualifies under section 22 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, ~~1986~~ 1987.

If the individual is not a full-year resident, the credit must be allocated by applying the ratio determined in section 290.06, subdivision 2c, paragraph (f).

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 290.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 22. [CREDIT FOR TAXES PAID TO ANOTHER STATE.] (a) If a taxpayer who is a resident of this state or is a domestic corporation or corporation commercially domiciled in Minnesota has become liable for taxes on or measured by net income to another state or province or territory of Canada upon income allocated or apportioned to Minnesota, the taxpayer is entitled to a credit for the tax paid to another state or province or territory of Canada if the tax is actually paid in the taxable year or a subsequent taxable year. A taxpayer who is a resident of this state pursuant to section 290.01, subdivision 7, clause (2), and is subject to income tax as a resident in the state of the individual's domicile is not allowed this credit unless the state of domicile does not allow a similar credit.

(b) For an individual, estate, or trust, the credit is determined by multiplying the tax payable under this chapter by the ratio derived by dividing the income subject to tax in the other state or province or territory of Canada that is also subject to tax in Minnesota while a resident of Minnesota by the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income, as defined in section 62 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987, to the extent the income is allocated or assigned to Minnesota under sections 290.081 and 290.17.

(c) For a corporation, the ratio is determined by dividing the net income from personal or professional services within such other state, or, if the taxpayer is an athletic team where all of the team's income is apportioned to Minnesota, it is the total net income subject to tax in such other state or province or territory of Canada, divided by the Minnesota taxable net income. This percentage shall be applied only against the tax assessed by this section.

(d) The credit determined under paragraph (b) or (c) shall not exceed the amount of tax so paid to the other state or province or territory of Canada on the gross income earned within the other state or province or territory of Canada subject to tax under this chapter, nor shall the allowance of the credit reduce the taxes paid under this chapter to an amount less than what would be assessed if such income amount was excluded from taxable net income.

(e) In the case of the tax assessed on a lump sum distribution under section 290.032, the credit allowed under paragraph (a) is the tax assessed by the other state or province or territory of Canada on the lump sum distribution that is also subject to tax under section 290.032, and shall not exceed the tax assessed under section 290.032.

(f) If a Minnesota resident reported an item of income to Minnesota and is assessed tax in such other state or province or territory of Canada on that same income after the Minnesota statute of limitations has expired, the taxpayer shall receive a credit for that year under paragraph (a), notwithstanding any statute of limitations to the contrary. The claim for the credit must be submitted within one year from the date the taxes were paid to the other state or province or territory of Canada. The taxpayer must submit sufficient proof to show entitlement to a credit.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.067, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AMOUNT OF CREDIT.] A taxpayer may take as a credit against the tax due from the taxpayer and a spouse, if any, under this chapter an amount equal to the dependent care credit for which the taxpayer is eligible pursuant to the provisions of section 21 of the Internal Revenue Code subject to the limitations provided in subdivision 2.

In the case of nonresident, part-year resident, or a person to which section 290.06, subdivision 2c, paragraph (g) applies, the credit determined under section 21 of the Internal Revenue Code must be allocated based on the ratio by which the earned income of the claimant and the claimant's spouse from Minnesota sources bears to the total earned income of the claimant and the claimant's spouse.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.081, is amended to read:

290.081 [INCOME OF NONRESIDENTS, RECIPROCITY; CREDIT FOR TAXES PAID TO ANOTHER STATE.]

(a) The compensation received for the performance of personal or professional services within this state by an individual whose residence, place of abode, and place customarily returned to at least once a month is in another state, shall be excluded from gross income to the extent such compensation is subject to an income tax imposed by the state of residence; provided that such state allows a similar exclusion of compensation received by residents of Minnesota for services performed therein, or.

(b) If any taxpayer who is a resident of this state, or a domestic corporation or corporation commercially domiciled therein, has become liable for taxes on or measured by net income to another state or a province or territory of Canada upon, if the taxpayer is an individual, or if the taxpayer is an athletic team and all of the team's income is apportioned to Minnesota, any income, or if it is a corporation, estate, or trust, upon income derived from the performance of personal or professional services within such other state or province or territory of Canada and subject to taxation under this chapter the taxpayer shall be entitled to a credit against the amount of taxes payable under this chapter, of such proportion thereof, as such gross income subject to taxation in such state or province or territory of Canada bears to the taxpayer's entire gross income subject to taxation under this chapter; provided (1) that such credit shall in no event exceed the amount of tax so paid to such other state or province or territory of Canada on the gross income earned within such other state or province or territory of Canada and subject to taxation under this chapter, and (2) the allowance of such credit shall not operate to reduce the taxes payable under this chapter to an amount less than would have been payable if the gross income earned in such other state or province or territory of Canada had been excluded in computing net income under this chapter. A taxpayer who is a resident of this state pursuant to section 290.01, subdivision 7a, clause (2), and is subject to income tax as a resident in the state of the individual's domicile is not allowed this credit unless the state of domicile does not allow a similar credit.

(c) The commissioner shall by rule determine with respect to gross income earned in any other state the applicable clause of this section. When it is deemed to be in the best interests of the people of this state, the commissioner may determine that the provisions of clause (a) shall not apply. As long as the provisions of clause (a) apply between Minnesota and Wisconsin, the provisions of clause (a) shall apply to any individual who is domiciled in Wisconsin.

(d) "Tax So Paid" as used in this section means taxes on or measured by net income payable to another state or province or territory of Canada on income earned within the taxable year for which the credit is claimed; provided that such tax is actually paid in that taxable year, or subsequent taxable years.

For purposes of clause (b), where a Minnesota resident reported an item of income to Minnesota and is assessed tax in another state or a province or territory of Canada on that same item of income after the Minnesota statute of limitations has expired, the taxpayer shall be allowed to receive a credit for that year based on clause (b), notwithstanding the provisions of sections 290.49, 290.50, and 290.56. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the burden of proof shall be on the taxpayer to show entitlement to a credit.

(e) (c) For the purposes of clause (a), whenever the Wisconsin tax on Minnesota residents which would have been paid Wisconsin without clause (a) exceeds the Minnesota tax on Wisconsin residents which would have been paid Minnesota without clause (a), or vice versa, then the state with the net revenue loss resulting from clause (a) shall receive from the other state the amount of such loss. This provision shall be effective for all years beginning after December 31, 1972. The data used for computing the loss to either state shall be determined on or before September 30 of the year following the close of the previous calendar year.

Interest shall be payable on all delinquent balances relating to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1977. The commissioner of revenue is authorized to enter into agreements with the state of Wisconsin specifying the reciprocity payment due date, conditions constituting delinquency, interest rates, and a method for computing interest due on any delinquent amounts.

If an agreement cannot be reached as to the amount of the loss, the commissioner of revenue and the taxing official of the state of Wisconsin shall each appoint a member of a board of arbitration and these members shall appoint the third member of the board. The board shall select one of its members as chair. Such board may administer oaths, take testimony, subpoena witnesses, and require their attendance, require the production of books, papers and documents, and hold hearings at such places as are deemed necessary. The board shall then make a determination as to the amount to be paid the other state which determination shall be final and conclusive.

Notwithstanding the provisions of section 290.61, the commissioner may furnish copies of returns, reports, or other information to the taxing official of the state of Wisconsin, a member of the board of arbitration, or a consultant under joint contract with the states of Minnesota and Wisconsin for the purpose of making a determination as to the amount to be paid the other state under the provisions of this section. Prior to the release of any information under the provisions of this section, the person to whom the information is to be released shall sign an agreement which provides that the person will protect the confidentiality of the returns and information revealed thereby to the extent that it is protected under the laws of the state of Minnesota.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.17, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [INCOME NOT DERIVED FROM CONDUCT OF A TRADE OR BUSINESS.] The income of a taxpayer subject to the allocation rules that is not derived from the conduct of a trade or business must be assigned in accordance with paragraphs (a) to (f):

(a)(1) Subject to paragraphs (a)(2) and (a)(3), income from labor or personal or professional services is assigned to this state if, and to the extent that, the labor or services are performed within it; all other income from such sources is treated as income from sources without this state.

(2) In the case of an individual who is a nonresident of Minnesota and who is an athlete or entertainer, income from compensation for labor or personal services performed within this state shall be determined in the following manner:

(i) The amount of income to be assigned to Minnesota for an individual who is a nonresident salaried athletic team employee shall be determined by using a fraction in which the denominator contains the total number of days in which the individual is under a duty to perform for the employer, and the numerator is the total number of those days spent in Minnesota; and

(ii) The amount of income to be assigned to Minnesota for an individual who is a nonresident, and who is an athlete or entertainer not listed in clause (i), for that person's athletic or entertainment performance in Minnesota shall be determined by assigning to this state all income from performances or athletic contests in this state.

(3) For purposes of this section, amounts received by a nonresident from the United States, its agencies or instrumentalities, the Federal Reserve Bank, the state of Minnesota or any of its political or governmental subdivisions, or a Minnesota volunteer firefighters' relief association, by way of payment as a pension, public employee retirement benefit, or any combination of these, or as a retirement or survivor's benefit made from a plan qualifying under section 401, 403, 408, or 409, or as defined in section 403(b) or 457 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986, are not considered income derived from carrying on a trade or business or from performing personal or professional services in Minnesota, and are not taxable under this chapter.

(b) Income or gains from tangible property located in this state that is not employed in the business of the recipient of the income or gains must be assigned to this state.

(c) Except upon the sale of a partnership interest or the sale of stock of an "S" corporation, income or gains from intangible personal property not employed in the business of the recipient of the income or gains must be assigned to this state if the recipient of the income or gains is a resident of this state or is a resident trust or estate.

Gain on the sale of a partnership interest is allocable to this state in the ratio of the original cost of partnership tangible property in this state to the original cost of partnership tangible property everywhere, determined at the time of the sale. If more than 50 percent of the value of the partnership's assets consists of intangibles, gain or loss from the sale of the partnership interest is allocated to this state in accordance with the sales factor of the partnership for its first full tax period immediately preceding the tax period of the partnership during which the partnership interest was sold.

Gain on the sale of stock held in an "S" corporation is allocable to this state in the ratio of the original cost of tangible property of the "S" corporation within this state to the original cost of tangible property of the "S" corporation everywhere.

If a joint return is made the tax shall be computed on the aggregate income and the liability with respect to the tax shall be joint and several; provided that a spouse who is relieved of a liability attributable to a substantial underpayment under section 6013(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987, shall also be relieved of the state tax liability on the substantial underpayment. If the husband and wife have elected to file separate federal income tax returns they must file separate Minnesota income tax returns. This election to file a joint or separate returns must be changed if they change their election for federal purposes. In the event taxpayers desire to change their election, such change shall be done in the manner and on such form as the commissioner shall prescribe by rule.

The determination of whether an individual is married shall be made under provisions of section 7703 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 290.39, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [PARTNERSHIPS; NONRESIDENT PARTNERS.] (a) The commissioner may allow a partnership with five or more nonresident partners to file a composite return on behalf of nonresident partners who have no other Minnesota source income. This composite return must include the names, addresses, social security numbers, income allocation, and tax liability for all nonresident partners electing to be covered by the composite return.

(b) The computation of each partner's liability will be determined by multiplying the income allocated to that partner by the highest rate used to determine the tax liability for individuals under section 290.06, subdivision 2c. Nonbusiness deductions, standard deductions, or personal exemptions are not allowed.

(c) The partnership must submit a request to use this composite return filing method for nonresident partners on or before the due date for filing the individual income tax return. The request may be made a part of the return filed.

(d) The electing partner must not have any Minnesota source income other than income from the partnership and other electing partnerships. If it is determined that the electing partner has other Minnesota source income, the inclusion of the income and tax liability for that partner under this provision will not constitute a return to satisfy the requirements of subdivision 1. The penalty for failure to file a return as provided in section 290.53, subdivision 2, is assessed from the due date for filing a return until a non-composite return is filed. The tax paid for such an individual as part of the composite return is allowed as a payment of the tax by the individual on the date upon which the composite payment was made. If the electing nonresident partner has no other Minnesota source income, filing of the composite return constitutes a return for purposes of subdivision 1 of this section.

(e) This subdivision does not preclude the requirement that an individual pay estimated tax if the individual's liability would exceed the requirements set forth in section 290.93. However, a composite estimate may be filed in a manner similar to and containing the same information required under paragraph (a).

(f) If an electing partner's share of the partnership's gross income from Minnesota sources is less than the filing requirements for a nonresident under section 290.37, subdivision 1, the tax liability is zero. However, a statement showing the partner's share of gross income must be included as part of the composite return.

(g) The election provided in this subdivision is not available to any partner other than a full-year nonresident individual who has no other Minnesota source income.

(h) A corporation defined in section 290.9725 and its nonresident shareholders may make an election under this subdivision. The provisions covering the partnership apply to the corporation and the provisions applying to the partner apply to each shareholder.

(i) Estates and trusts distributing current income only and the nonresident individual beneficiaries of such estates or trusts may make an election under this subdivision. The provisions covering the partnership apply to the estate or trust. The provisions applying to the partner apply to each beneficiary.

Subd. 19e. [DEPRECIATION MODIFICATIONS FOR CORPORATIONS.] In the case of corporations, a modification shall be made for the accelerated cost recovery system. The allowable deduction for the accelerated cost recovery system is the same amount as provided in section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code with the following modifications. The modifications apply to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1986, and to property for which deductions under the Tax Reform Act of 1986, Public Law Number 99-514, are elected or apply.

(a) For property placed in service after December 31, 1980, and before January 1, 1987, 40 percent of the allowance pursuant to section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1985, for 15-, 18-, or 19-year real property shall not be allowed and for all other property 20 percent shall not be allowed.

(b) For property placed in service after December 31, 1987, no modification shall be made.

(c) For property placed in service after July 31, 1986, and before January 1, 1987, for which the taxpayer elects the deduction pursuant to section 203 of the Tax Reform Act of 1986, Public Law Number 99-514, and for property placed in service after December 31, 1986, and before January 1, 1988, 15 percent of the allowance pursuant to section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 shall not be allowed.

(d) For property placed in service after December 31, 1980, and before January 1, 1987, for which the taxpayer elects to use the straight line method provided in section 168(b)(3), (f)(12), or (j)(1) or a method provided in section 168(e)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986, but excluding property for which the taxpayer elects the deduction pursuant to section 203 of the Tax Reform Act of 1986, Public Law Number 99-514, the modifications provided in paragraph (a) do not apply.

(e) For property subject to the modifications contained in paragraphs (a) and (b) (c) and Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 290.09, subdivision 7, clause (c), the following modification shall be made after the entire amount of the allowable deduction has been allowed for federal tax purposes for that property under the provisions of section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986. The remaining depreciable basis in those assets for Minnesota purposes, including the amount of any basis reduction to reflect the investment tax credit for federal purposes under sections 48(q) and 49(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986, shall be a depreciation allowance computed using the straight line method over the following number of years:

- (1) three-year property, one year;
- (2) five-year and seven-year property, two years;
- (3) ten-year property, five years; and
- (4) all other property, seven years.

(f) For property placed in service after December 31, 1987, the remaining depreciable basis for Minnesota purposes that is attributable to the basis reduction for federal purposes to reflect the investment tax credit under sections 48(q) and 49(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986, shall be allowed as a deduction in the first taxable year after the entire amount of the allowable deduction for that property under the provisions of section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, has been allowed, except that where the straight line method provided in section 168(b)(3) is used, the deduction provided in this clause shall be allowed in the last taxable year in which an allowance for depreciation is allowed for that property.

(g) For qualified timber property for which the taxpayer made an election under section 194 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, the remaining depreciable basis for Minnesota purposes is allowed as a deduction in the first taxable year after the entire allowable deduction has been allowed for federal tax purposes.

(h) The basis of property to which section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code applies is its basis as provided in this chapter including the modifications provided in this subdivision and in Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 290.09, subdivision 7, paragraph (c). The recapture tax provisions provided in sections 1245 and 1250 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986, apply but must be calculated using the basis provided in the preceding sentence.

(i) The basis of an asset acquired in an exchange of assets, including an involuntary conversion, is the same as its federal basis under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, except that the difference in basis due to the modifications in this subdivision and in Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 290.09, subdivision 7, paragraph (c), is a deduction as provided in paragraph (e).

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.015, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PRESUMPTION.] (a) A person is presumed, subject to rebuttal, to be engaged in regular solicitation within this state if it conducts transactions described in any of subdivision 1, clauses (3) to (6); with 20 or more residents of this state during any tax period or, if a financial institution, if the sum of its assets and the absolute value of its deposits attributable to sources within this state equals or exceeds $5,000,000. Assets and deposits must be attributed to sources within this state by applying the principles established under section 290.191 obtaining or regularly soliciting business from within this state if:

(1) it conducts activities described in subdivision 1, paragraph (b), without regard to transactions described in subdivision 3, with 20 or more residents of this state during any tax period; or

(b) A financial institution that does not satisfy the requirements of paragraph (b) is not subject to taxes imposed by this chapter except for taxes imposed under section 290.92.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.015, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [EXCEPTIONS.] (a) A person is not subject to tax under this chapter if the person is engaged in the business of selling tangible personal property and taxation of that person under this chapter is precluded by Public Law Number 86-272, United States Code, title 15, sections 381 to 384 or would be so precluded except for the fact that the person stored tangible personal property in a state licensed facility under chapter 231, and the property was delivered to and removed from such facility by persons independent of the owner of the property.

(b) Ownership of an interest in the following types of property (including those contacts with this state reasonably required to evaluate and complete the acquisition or disposition of such property, the servicing of said property or the income therefrom, the collection of income from said property, or the acquisition or liquidation of collateral relating to said property) shall not be a factor in determining whether the owner is subject to tax under this chapter:

(1) an interest in a real estate mortgage investment conduit, a real estate investment trust, or a regulated investment company, as those terms are defined in the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986; and

(2) an interest in a loan-backed, mortgage-backed, or receivable-backed security representing either: (i) ownership in a pool of promissory notes, mortgages, or receivables or certificates of interest or participation in such notes, mortgages, or receivables, or (ii) debt obligations or equity interests which provide for payments in relation to payments or reasonable projections of payments on the notes, mortgages, or receivables, and which are issued by a financial institution or by an entity substantially all of whose assets consist of promissory notes, mortgages, receivables, or interests therein;

(3) an interest that has been purchased or acquired by or from a financial institution in any assets described in section 290.191, subdivision 11, paragraphs (e) through (l), and in which the payment obligations embodied in such assets were solicited and entered into by persons independent and not acting on behalf of the owner;

(4) an interest that has been purchased or acquired by or from a financial institution in the right to service, or collect income from any assets described in section 290.191, subdivision 11, paragraphs (e) through (l), and in which the payment obligations embodied in such assets were solicited and entered into by persons independent and not acting on behalf of the owner;

(5) an interest in any intangible, tangible, real, or personal property acquired in satisfaction, whether in whole or in part, of any asset embodying a payment obligation which is in default, whether secured or unsecured, the ownership of an interest in which would be exempt under the preceding provisions of this subdivision; and

(6) amounts held in escrow or trust accounts, pursuant to and in accordance with the terms of property described in this subdivision.

If the person is a member of the unitary group, paragraph (b) does not apply to an interest acquired from another member of the unitary group.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.015, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [LIMITATIONS.] (a) This section does not (1) subject a trade or business to any regulation, including any tax, of any local unit of government or subdivision of this state if the trade or business does not own or lease tangible or real property located within this state and has no employees or independent contractors present in this state to assist in the carrying on of the business; or (2) exclude a trade or business from the filing requirements of the notice of business activities report under section 290.371.

(b) The purchase of tangible or intangible property or services by a person that conducts a trade or business with the principal place of business outside of Minnesota (the "non-Minnesota person") from a person within Minnesota shall not be taken into account in determining whether the non-Minnesota person is subject to the taxes imposed by this chapter, except for services involving either the direct solicitation of Minnesota customers or relationships with Minnesota customers after sales are made.

(c) No contact with any Minnesota financial institution by any financial institution with its principal place of business outside Minnesota with respect to transactions described in subdivision 3, shall be taken into account in determining whether such a financial institution is subject to the taxes imposed by this chapter. The fact of participation by a Minnesota financial institution in a transaction which also involves a borrower and a financial institution that conducts a trade or business with its principal place of business outside of Minnesota shall not be a factor in determining whether such financial institution is subject to the taxes imposed by this chapter. This paragraph does not apply to transactions between or among members of the same unitary group.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.06, subdivision 21, is amended to read:

Subd. 21. [ALTERNATIVE MINIMUM TAX.] (a) A corporation is allowed a credit for alternative minimum tax previously paid for any taxable year in which the corporation has no tax liability under section 290.092, subdivision 1, and has an alternative minimum tax credit carryover from a previous year. The credit allowable in any taxable year shall be equal to the lesser of (1) the excess of the tax under section 290.06 for the taxable year over the amount computed under section 290.092, subdivision 1, clause (a) (1), for the taxable year, or (2) the alternative minimum tax credit carryover to the taxable year.

(b) The tax imposed under section 290.092 for any taxable year is a credit for alternative minimum tax previously paid which is a carryover to each of the five taxable years succeeding the taxable year. The entire amount of the alternative minimum tax credit must be carried to the earliest of the taxable years to which such amount may be carried. The portion of the alternative minimum tax credit which is carried to each of the other taxable years to which the credit may be carried is the excess, if any, of the credit over the amount allowable under paragraph (a) for each of the taxable years to which the credit may be carried. In each taxable year in which a credit is allowable under paragraph (a), the credit for alternative minimum tax previously paid must be used beginning with the earliest taxable year from which the credit may be carried.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.092, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [ALTERNATIVE MINIMUM TAX BASE.] The alternative minimum tax base equals the sum of:

- (1) the total amount of Minnesota sales ~~and~~ or receipts;
- (2) the amount of the taxpayer's total Minnesota property; and
- (3) the taxpayer's total Minnesota payrolls;

less the exemption amount, if any.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.092, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) "Minnesota sales ~~and~~ or receipts" means the total sales apportioned to Minnesota pursuant to section 290.191, subdivision 5, the total receipts attributed to Minnesota pursuant to section 290.191, subdivisions 6 to 8, and/or the total sales or receipts apportioned or attributed to Minnesota pursuant to any other apportionment formula applicable to the taxpayer.

(b) "Minnesota property" means total Minnesota tangible property as provided in section 290.191, subdivisions 9 to 11, and any other tangible property located in Minnesota except as provided in subdivision 4a. Intangible property shall not be included in Minnesota property for purposes of this section. Taxpayers who do not utilize tangible property to apportion income shall nevertheless include Minnesota property for purposes of this section. ~~For the first five taxable years during which a corporation is subject to taxation under this chapter, the amount of its Minnesota property and payrolls shall be deemed to be zero for purposes of this section~~ On a return for a short taxable year, the amount of Minnesota property owned, as determined under section 290.191, shall be included in Minnesota property based on a fraction in which the numerator is the number of days in the short taxable year and the denominator is 365.

(c) "Minnesota payrolls" means total Minnesota payrolls as provided in section 290.191, subdivision 12, except as provided in subdivision 4a. Taxpayers who do not utilize payrolls to apportion income shall nevertheless include Minnesota payrolls for purposes of this section.

(d) The "exemption amount" equals the lesser of (1) the sum of the taxpayer's Minnesota sales ~~and~~ or receipts, property, and payrolls, as defined in this section, or (2) $5,000,000 reduced by one-half of the amount of the taxpayer's total sales and receipts, property, and payrolls, as defined in this section, in excess of $10,000,000. In the case of a unitary group, the exemption amount equals the lesser of (1) the sum of the unitary group's Minnesota sales or receipts, property, and payrolls or (2) $5,000,000 reduced by one-half of the unitary group's total sales or receipts, property, and payrolls in excess of $10,000,000. Each member of a unitary group may use a portion of the unitary group's exemption amount based on a fraction, the numerator of which is the sum of the taxpayer's Minnesota sales or receipts, property, and payrolls and the denominator is the sum of the Minnesota sales or receipts, property, and payrolls of all unitary members subject to the taxes imposed by this chapter. Total sales and receipts, property, and payroll means the total determined under section 290.191 as the denominator of the apportionment formula. For purposes of this section, taxpayers who use an apportionment formula that does not include sales or receipts, property, and payrolls shall, nevertheless, use those amounts as defined in section 290.191, subdivisions 5 to 12. On a return for a short taxable year, the amount of total property owned, as determined under section 290.191, shall be included in Minnesota property based on a fraction in which the numerator is the number of days in the short taxable year and the denominator is 365. In the case of a unitary business, the exemption amount must reflect the factors of the ~~entire~~ all businesses included in the unitary business group as reported on the ~~combined report~~ defined in section 290.17, subdivision 4. A corporation that has as its sole or primary business activity (1) the providing of professional services, as defined in section 319A.02; (2) operation as a financial institution, as defined in section 290.01, subdivision 4a; (3) sales or management of real estate; or (4) operation as an insurance agency, as defined in section 60A.02, does not have an exemption amount.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.092, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4a. [NEW BUSINESS EXCLUSION.] For the first five taxable years during which a corporation is subject to taxation under this chapter, the amount of its Minnesota property and payrolls must be excluded from the alternative minimum tax base unless it is disqualified in this subdivision. A corporation is considered subject to taxation under this chapter if it would be subject to Minnesota's jurisdiction to tax as provided in section 290.015, before claiming this exclusion. The following does not qualify for this exclusion:

(1) a corporation that is a member of a unitary group that includes at least one business that does not qualify for this exclusion;

(2) any corporation organized under the laws of this state or certified to do business within this state at least five taxable years before the taxable year in which this exclusion is claimed;

(3) corporations created by: reorganizations, as defined in section 368 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987; or split-ups, split-offs, or spin-offs, as described in section 355 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987; or the transfer or acquisition, whether directly or indirectly, of assets which constitute a trade or business, including stock purchases under section 338 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987, where the surviving, newly formed, or acquiring corporation conducts substantially the same activities as the predecessor corporation, regardless of whether or not the survivor corporation also conducts additional activities, and the predecessor corporation would not otherwise qualify for this exclusion if it had continued to conduct those activities;

(4) any change in identity or form of business where the original business entity would have been subject to Minnesota's taxing jurisdiction, as provided in section 290.015, at least five taxable years before the taxable year in which this exclusion is claimed;

(5) a corporation, the primary business activity of which is the providing of professional services as defined in section 319A.02, operation as a financial institution, as defined in section 290.01, subdivision 4a; sales or management of real estate; or operation as an insurance agency, as defined in section 60A.03; or

(6) a corporation the affairs of which the commissioner finds were arranged as they were primarily to reduce taxes.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.095, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ALLOWANCE OF DEDUCTION.] (a) There shall be allowed as a deduction for the taxable year the amount of any net operating loss deduction as provided in section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986, subject to the limitations and modifications provided in this section.

(b) A net operating loss deduction shall be available under this section only to corporate taxpayers except that subdivisions 7, 9, and 11 hereof apply only to individuals, estates, and trusts.

(c) In the case of a regulated investment company or fund thereof, as defined in section 851(a) or 851(q) of the Internal Revenue code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987, the deduction provided by this section shall not be allowed.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.095, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DEFINED AND LIMITED.] (a) The term "net operating loss" as used in this section shall mean a net operating loss as defined in section 172(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986, with the modifications specified in subdivision 4. The deductions provided in section 290.21 and the modification provided in section 290.01, subdivision 19d, clause (11), cannot be used in the determination of a net operating loss.

(b) The term "net operating loss deduction" as used in this section means the aggregate of the net operating loss carryovers to the taxable year, computed in accordance with subdivision 3. The provisions of section 172(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986, relating to the carryback of net operating losses, do not apply.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.095, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [CARRYOVER.] (a) A net operating loss for any taxable year incurred in a taxable year: (i) beginning after December 31, 1986, shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the 15 taxable years following the taxable year of such loss; (ii) beginning before January 1, 1987, shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the five taxable years following the taxable year of such loss subject to the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 290.095; and (iii) beginning before January 1, 1987, shall be a net operating loss carryback to each of the three taxable years preceding the loss year subject to the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1986,

(b) The entire amount of the net operating loss for any taxable year shall be carried to the earliest of the taxable years to which such loss may be carried. The portion of such loss which shall be carried to each of the other taxable years shall be the excess, if any, of the amount of such loss over the sum of the taxable net income, adjusted by the modifications specified in subdivision 4, for each of the taxable years to which such loss may be carried.

(c) Where a corporation does business both within and without Minnesota, and apports its income under the provisions of section 290.191, the net operating loss deduction, incurred in any taxable year shall be allowed to the extent of the apportionment ratio of the loss year.

(d) No additional net operating loss deduction is allowed in a subsequent taxable year for the portion of a net operating loss deduction incurred in any taxable year used to offset Minnesota income in a year in which the taxpayer is subject to the alternative minimum tax in section 290.092.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.095, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 12. [UNITARY GROUP; CARRYBACK; CARRYFORWARD.] A taxpayer may elect a net operating loss carryback to each of the three taxable years preceding the taxable year of the loss and a net operating loss carryover to each of the five taxable years following the taxable year of the loss, notwithstanding subdivision 3, clause (a). The net operating loss carryback and carryover allowed under this subdivision is limited to the part of the net operating loss attributable to the deduction allowed for bad debts under section 166(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987. The part of the net operating loss for any taxable year that is attributable to the deduction allowed for bad debts is the excess of the net operating loss for the taxable year, over the net operating loss for the taxable year determined without regard to the amount allowed as a deduction for bad debts for the taxable year. In applying the provisions of subdivision 3, clause (b), the part of the net operating loss for the loss year that is attributable to the deduction allowed for bad debts is considered a separate net operating loss for the year to be applied before the other part of the net operating loss. This subdivision applies only to taxpayers where a member of the unitary group meets the definition found in section 585(c)(2)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987, and includes all corporations included in the unitary group and required to be included on a combined report. A refund of tax that is the result of a net operating loss carryback under this section must be paid after two years but before two years and 30 days after the claim for refund was filed.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.10, is amended to read:

290.10 [NONDEDUCTIBLE ITEMS.]

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in computing the net income of a corporation no deduction shall in any case be allowed for expenses, interest and taxes connected with or allocable against the production or receipt of all income not included in the measure of the tax imposed by this chapter, except that for corporations engaged in the business of mining or producing iron ore, the mining of which is subject to the occupation tax imposed by section 298.01, subdivision 1, and the provisions of section 298.031, this shall not prevent the deduction of expenses and other items to the extent that the expenses and other items are allowable under this chapter and are not deductible, capitalizable, retainable in basis, or taken into account by allowance or otherwise in computing the occupation tax and do not exceed the amounts taken for federal income tax purposes for that year. Occupation taxes imposed under chapter 298, royalty taxes imposed under chapter 299, or depletion expenses may not be deducted under this clause.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.17, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [UNITARY BUSINESS PRINCIPLE.] (a) If a trade or business conducted wholly within this state or partly within and partly without this state is part of a unitary business, the entire income of the unitary business is subject to apportionment pursuant to section 290.191. Notwithstanding subdivision 2, paragraph (c), none of the income of a unitary business is considered to be derived from any particular source and none may be allocated to a particular place except as provided by the applicable apportionment formula. The provisions of this subdivision do not apply to farm income subject to subdivision 5, paragraph (a), business income subject to subdivision 5, paragraph (b) or (c), income of an insurance company determined under section 290.35, or income of an investment company determined under section 290.36.

(b) The term "unitary business" means business activities or operations which are of mutual benefit, dependent upon, or contributory to one another, individually or as a group. The term may be applied within a single legal entity or between multiple entities and without regard to whether each entity is a corporation, a partnership or a trust.

(c) Unity is presumed whenever there is unity of ownership, operation, and use, evidenced by centralized management or executive force, centralized purchasing, advertising, accounting, or other controlled interaction, but the absence of these centralized activities will not necessarily evidence a nonunitary business.

(d) Where a business operation conducted in Minnesota is owned by a business entity that carries on business activity outside the state different in kind from that conducted within this state, and the other business is conducted entirely outside the state, it is presumed that the two business operations are unitary in nature, interrelated, connected, and interdependent unless it can be shown to the contrary.

(e) Unity of ownership is not deemed to exist when a corporation is involved unless that corporation is a member of a group of two or more business entities and more than 50 percent of the voting stock of each member of the group is directly or indirectly owned by a common owner or by common owners, either corporate or noncorporate, or by one or more of the member corporations of the group.

(f) For purposes of determining the net income of a unitary business and the factors to be used in the apportionment of net income pursuant to section 290.191 or 290.20, there must be included only the income and apportionment factors of corporations or other entities created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States or of any state, the District of Columbia, the commonwealth of Puerto Rico, any possession of the United States, or any political subdivision of any the foregoing and of any FSC as defined in section 922 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986, that are determined to be part of the unitary business pursuant to this subdivision, notwithstanding that other corporations or other entities organized in foreign countries might be included in the unitary business. The net income and apportionment factors under section 290.191 or section 290.20 of foreign corporations and other foreign entities which are part of a unitary business shall not be included in the net income or the apportionment factors of the unitary business. A foreign corporation or other foreign entity which is required to file a return under this chapter shall file on a separate return basis. The net income and apportionment factors under section 290.191 or section 290.20 of foreign operating corporations shall not be included in the net income or the apportionment factors of the unitary business except as provided in paragraph (g).

(g) The adjusted net income of a foreign operating corporation shall be deemed to be paid as a dividend on the last day of its taxable year to each shareholder thereof, in proportion to each shareholder's ownership, with which such corporation is engaged in a unitary business. Such deemed dividend shall be treated as a dividend under section 290.21, subdivision 4.

Dividends actually paid by a foreign operating corporation to a corporate shareholder which is a member of the same unitary business as the foreign operating corporation shall be eliminated from the net income of the unitary business in preparing a combined report for the unitary business. The adjusted net income of a foreign operating corporation shall be its net income adjusted as follows:

(1) any taxes paid or accrued to a foreign country, the commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or a United States possession or political subdivision of any of the foregoing shall be a deduction; and

(2) the subtraction from federal taxable income for payments received from foreign corporations or foreign operating corporations under section 290.01, subdivision 19(d)(11), shall not be allowed.

If a foreign operating corporation incurs a net loss, neither income nor deduction from that corporation shall be included in determining the net income of the unitary business.

(h) For purposes of determining the net income of a unitary business and the factors to be used in the apportionment of net income pursuant to section 290.191 or 290.20, there must be included only the income and apportionment factors of domestic corporations or other domestic entities other than foreign operating corporations that are determined to be part of the unitary business pursuant to this subdivision, notwithstanding that foreign corporations or other foreign entities might be included in the unitary business.

(i) Deductions for expenses, interest, or taxes otherwise allowable under this chapter that are connected with or allocable against dividends, deemed dividends described in paragraph (g) or royalties, fees, or other like income described in section 290.01, subdivision 19(d)(9), shall not be disallowed.

(g) (j) Each corporation or other entity that is part of a unitary business must file combined reports as the commissioner determines. On the reports, all intercompany transactions between entities included pursuant to paragraph (f) (h) must be eliminated and the entire net income of the unitary business determined in accordance with this subdivision is apportioned among the entities by using each entity's Minnesota factors for apportionment purposes in the numerators of the apportionment formula and the total factors for apportionment purposes of all entities included pursuant to paragraph (f) (h) in the denominators of the apportionment formula.

(k) If a corporation has been divested from a unitary business and is included in a combined report for a fractional part of the common accounting period of the combined report:

(1) its income includable in the combined report is its income incurred for that part of the year determined by proration or separate accounting; and

(2) its sales, property, and payroll included in the apportionment formula must be prorated or accounted for separately.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.191, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL RULE.] Except as otherwise provided in section 290.17, subdivision 5, the net income from a trade or business carried on partly within and partly without this state must be apportioned to this state as provided in this section. For purposes of this section, state means a state of the United States, the District of Columbia, the commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or any territory or possession of the United States or any foreign country.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.191, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [APPORTIONMENT FORMULA FOR CERTAIN MAIL ORDER BUSINESSES.] If the business consists exclusively of the selling of tangible personal property and services in response to orders received by United States mail or telephone, and ~~100~~ 99 percent of the taxpayer's property and payroll is within Minnesota, then the taxpayer may apportion net income to Minnesota based solely upon the percentage that the sales made within this state in connection with the trade or business during the tax period are of the total sales wherever made in connection with the trade or business during the tax period. Property and payroll factors are disregarded. In determining eligibility for this subdivision, the sale not in the ordinary course of business of tangible or intangible assets used in conducting business activities must be disregarded. ~~This subdivision is repealed effective for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1988.~~

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.191, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [DETERMINATION OF SALES FACTOR.] (a) For purposes of this section, the following rules apply in determining the sales factor.

(b) (a) The sales factor includes all sales, gross earnings, or receipts received in the ordinary course of the business, except that the following types of income are not included in the sales factor:

(1) interest;

(2) dividends;

(3) sales of capital assets as defined in section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987;

(4) sales of property used in the trade or business, except sales of leased property of a type which is regularly sold as well as leased;

(5) sales of debt instruments as defined in section 1275(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987, or sales of stock; and

(6) royalties, fees, or other like income of a type which qualify for a subtraction from federal taxable income under section 290.01, subdivision 19(d)(11).

(b) Sales of tangible personal property are made within this state if the property is received by a purchaser at a point within this state, and the taxpayer is taxable in this state, regardless of the f.o.b. point, other conditions of the sale, or the ultimate destination of the property.

(c) Tangible personal property delivered to a common or contract carrier or foreign vessel for delivery to a purchaser in another state or nation is a sale in that state or nation, regardless of f.o.b. point or other conditions of the sale.

(d) Notwithstanding paragraphs (b) and (c), when intoxicating liquor, wine, fermented malt beverages, cigarettes, or tobacco products are sold to a purchaser who is licensed by a state or political subdivision to resell this property only within the state of ultimate destination, the sale is made in that state.

(e) Sales made by or through a corporation that is qualified as a domestic international sales corporation under section 992 of the Internal Revenue Code are not considered to have been made within this state.

~~(f) Sales, other than sales of tangible personal property, are made in this state if the property is used, or the benefits of the services are consumed, in this state. If the property is used or the benefits of the services are consumed in more than one state, the sales must be apportioned pro rata according to the portion of use or consumption of benefits in this state. Sales, rents, royalties, and other income in connection with real property is attributed to the state in which the property is located.~~

(g) Receipts from the lease or rental of tangible personal property, including finance leases and true leases, must be attributed to this state if the property is located in this state and to other states if the property is not located in this state. Moving property including, but not limited to, motor vehicles, rolling stock, aircraft, vessels, or mobile equipment is located in this state if:

(1) the operation of the property is entirely within this state; or

(2) the operation of the property is in two or more states and the principal base of operations from which the property is sent out is in this state.

(h) Royalties and other income not described in paragraph (a)(6) received for the use of or for the privilege of using intangible property, including patents, know-how, formulas, designs, processes, patterns, copyrights, trade names, service names, franchises, licenses, contracts, customer lists, or similar items, must be attributed to the state in which the property is used by the purchaser. If the property is used in more than one state, the royalties or other income must be apportioned to this state pro rata according to the portion of use in this state. If the portion of use in this state cannot be determined, the royalties or other income must be excluded from both the numerator and the denominator. Intangible property is used in this state if the purchaser uses the intangible property or the rights therein in the regular course of its business operations in this state, regardless of the location of the purchaser's customers.

(i) Sales of intangible property are made within the state in which the property is used by the purchaser. If the property is used in more than one state, the sales must be apportioned to this state pro rata according to the portion of use in this state. If the portion of use in this state cannot be determined, the sale must be excluded from both the numerator and the denominator of the sales factor. Intangible property is used in this state if the purchaser used the intangible property in the regular course of its business operations in this state.

(j) Receipts from the performance of services must be attributed to the state in which the benefits of the services are consumed. If the benefits are consumed in more than one state, the receipts from those benefits must be apportioned to this state pro rata according to the portion of the benefits consumed in this state. If the extent to which the benefits of services are consumed in this state is not readily determinable, the benefits of the services shall be deemed to be consumed at the location of the office of the customer from which the services were ordered in the regular course of the customer's trade or business. If the ordering office cannot be determined, the benefits of the services shall be deemed to be consumed at the office of the customer to which the services are billed.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.191, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [DETERMINATION OF RECEIPTS FACTOR FOR FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS.] (a) For purposes of this section, the rules in this subdivision and subdivisions 7 and 8 apply in determining the receipts factor for financial institutions.

(b) "Receipts" for this purpose means gross income, including net taxable gain on disposition of assets, including securities and money market ~~trans-~~ ~~actions~~ instruments, when derived from transactions and activities in the regular course of the taxpayer's trade or business.

(c) "Money market instruments" means federal funds sold and securities purchased under agreements to resell, commercial paper, banker's acceptances, and purchased certificates of deposit and similar instruments to the extent that the instruments are reflected as assets under generally accepted accounting principles.

(d) "Securities" means United States Treasury securities, obligations of United States government agencies and corporations, obligations of state and political subdivisions, corporate stock and other securities, participations in securities backed by mortgages held by United States or state government agencies, loan-backed securities and similar investments to the extent the investments are reflected as assets under generally accepted accounting principles.

(e) Receipts from the lease or rental of real or tangible personal property, including both finance leases and true leases, must be attributed to this state if the property is located in this state. Tangible personal property that is characteristically moving property, such as motor vehicles, rolling stock, aircraft, vessels, mobile equipment, and the like, is considered to be located in a state if:

- (1) the operation of the property is entirely within the state; or
- (2) the operation of the property is in two or more states, but the principal base of operations from which the property is sent out is in the state.

(f) Interest income and other receipts from assets in the nature of loans that are secured primarily by real estate or tangible personal property must be attributed to this state if the security property is located in this state under the principles stated in paragraph (e).

(g) Interest income and other receipts from consumer loans not secured by real or tangible personal property that are made to residents of this state, whether at a place of business, by traveling loan officer, by mail, by telephone or other electronic means, must be attributed to this state.

(h) Interest income and other receipts from commercial loans and installment obligations not secured by real or tangible personal property must be attributed to this state if the proceeds of the loan are to be applied in this state. If it cannot be determined where the funds are to be applied, the income and receipts are attributed to the state in which the business applied for the loan. "Applied for" means initial inquiry (including customer assistance in preparing the loan application) or submission of a completed loan application, whichever occurs first there is located the office of the borrower from which the application would be made in the borrower from which the application would be made in the regular course of business. If this cannot be determined, the transaction is disregarded in the apportionment formula.

(i) Interest income and other receipts from a participating financial institution's portion of participation loans must be attributed under paragraphs (e) to (h). A participation loan is a loan in which more than one lender is a creditor to a common borrower.

(j) Interest income and other receipts including service charges from financial institution credit card and travel and entertainment credit card receivables and credit card holders' fees must be attributed to the state to which the card charges and fees are regularly billed.

(k) Merchant discount income derived from financial institution credit card holder transactions with a merchant must be attributed to the state in which the merchant is located. In the case of merchants located within and outside the state, only receipts from merchant discounts attributable to sales made from locations within the state are attributed to this state. It is presumed, subject to rebuttal, that the location of a merchant is the address shown on the invoice submitted by the merchant to the taxpayer.

(l) Receipts from the performance of fiduciary and other services must be attributed to the state in which the benefits of the services are consumed. If the benefits are consumed in more than one state, the receipts from those benefits must be apportioned to this state pro rata according to the portion of the benefits consumed in this state. If the extent to which the benefits of services are consumed in this state is not readily determinable, the benefits of the services shall be deemed to be consumed at the location of the office of the customer from which the services were ordered in the regular course of the customer's trade or business. If the ordering office cannot be determined, the benefits of the services shall be deemed to be consumed at the office of the customer to which the services are billed.

(m) Receipts from the issuance of travelers checks and money orders must be attributed to the state in which the checks and money orders are purchased.

(n) Receipts from investments of a financial institution in securities of this state, its political subdivisions, agencies, and instrumentalities must be attributed to this state.

(o) Receipts from a financial institution's interest in any property described in section 290.015, subdivision 3, paragraph (b), is not included in the numerator or the denominator of the receipts factor provided the financial institution's activities within this state with respect to any interest in such property are limited in the manner provided in section 290.015, subdivision 3, paragraph (b). If a financial institution is subject to tax under this chapter, its interest in property described in section 290.015, subdivision 3, paragraph (b), is included in the receipts factor in the same manner as assets in the nature of securities or money market instruments are included under paragraph (n) and section 290.191, subdivision 7.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.191, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS; PROPERTY FACTOR.] (a) For financial institutions, the property factor includes, as well as tangible property, intangible property as set forth in this subdivision.

(b) Intangible personal property must be included at its tax basis for federal income tax purposes.

(c) Goodwill must not be included in the property factor.

(d) Coin and currency located in this state must be attributed to this state.

(e) Lease financing receivables must be attributed to this state if and to the extent that the property is located within this state.

(f) Assets in the nature of loans that are secured by real or tangible personal property must be attributed to this state if and to the extent that the security property is located within this state.

(g) Assets in the nature of consumer loans and installment obligations that are unsecured or secured by intangible property must be attributed to this state if the loan was made to a resident of this state.

(h) Assets in the nature of commercial loan and installment obligations that are unsecured or secured by intangible property must be attributed to this state if the loan proceeds of the loan are to be applied in this state. If it cannot be determined where the funds are to be applied, the assets must be attributed to the state in which the business applied for the loan. ~~"Applied for"~~ ^{means initial inquiry (including customer assistance in preparing the loan application) or submission of a completed loan application, whichever occurs first} there is located the office of the borrower from which the application would be made in the regular course of business. If this cannot be determined, the transaction is disregarded in the apportionment formula.

(i) A participating financial institution's portion of a participation loan must be attributed under paragraphs (e) to (h).

(j) Financial institution credit card and travel and entertainment credit card receivables must be attributed to the state to which the credit card charges and fees are regularly billed.

(k) Receivables arising from merchant discount income derived from financial institution credit card holder transactions with a merchant are attributed to the state in which the merchant is located. In the case of merchants located within and without the state, only receipts from merchant discounts attributable to sales made from locations within the state are attributed to this state. It is presumed, subject to rebuttal, that the location of a merchant is the address shown on the invoice submitted by the merchant to the taxpayer.

(l) Assets in the nature of securities and money market instruments are apportioned to this state based upon the ratio that total deposits from this state, its residents, its political subdivisions, agencies and instrumentalities bear to the total deposits from all states, their residents, their political subdivisions, agencies and instrumentalities. In the case of an unregulated financial institution subject to this regulation, the receipts assets are apportioned to this state based upon the ratio that its gross business income earned from sources within this state bears to gross business income earned from sources within all states. For purposes of this subsection, deposits made by this state, its residents, its political subdivisions, agencies, and instrumentalities are attributed to this state, whether or not the deposits are accepted or maintained by the taxpayer at locations within this state.

(m) A financial institution's interest in any property described in section 290.015, subdivision 3, paragraph (b), is not included in the numerator or the denominator of the property factor provided the financial institution's activities within this state with respect to any interest in such property are limited in the manner provided in section 290.015, subdivision 3, paragraph (b). If a financial institution is subject to tax under this chapter, its interest in property described in section 290.015, subdivision 3, paragraph (b), is included in the property factor in the same manner as assets in the nature of securities or money market instruments are included under clause (l).

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.21, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. An amount for contribution or gifts made within the taxable year:

(a) to or for the use of the state of Minnesota, or any of its political subdivisions for exclusively public purposes,

(b) to or for the use of any community chest, corporation, organization, trust, fund, association, or foundation located in and carrying on substantially all of its activities within this state, organized and operating exclusively for religious, charitable, public cemetery, scientific, literary, artistic, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual,

(c) to a fraternal society, order, or association, operating under the lodge system located in and carrying on substantially all of their activities within this state if such contributions or gifts are to be used exclusively for the purposes specified in clause (b), or for or to posts or organizations of war veterans or auxiliary units or societies of such posts or organizations, if they are within the state and no part of their net income inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual,

(d) to or for the use of the United States of America for exclusively public purposes if the contribution or gift consists of real property located in Minnesota,

(e) to or for the use of a foundation if the foundation is organized and operated exclusively for a purpose in clause (b), and has no part of its net earnings inuring to the benefit of a private shareholder or individual, but does not carry on substantially all of its activities within this state. The deduction under this clause equals the amount of the corporation's contributions or gifts to the foundation within the taxable year multiplied by a fraction equal to the ratio of the foundation's total expenditures during the taxable year for the benefit of organizations described in clause (b) to the foundation's total expenditures during the taxable year.

(f) the total deduction hereunder shall not exceed 15 percent of the taxpayer's taxable net income less the deductions allowable under this section other than those for contributions or gifts,

(f) (g) in the case of a corporation reporting its taxable income on the accrual basis, if: (A) the board of directors authorizes a charitable contribution during any taxable year, and (B) payment of such contribution is made after the close of such taxable year and on or before the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of such taxable year; then the taxpayer may elect to treat such contribution as paid during such taxable year. The election may be made only at the time of the filing of the return for such taxable year, and shall be signified in such manner as the commissioner shall by rules prescribe.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.21, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. (a) Eighty percent of dividends received by a corporation during the taxable year from another corporation, in which the recipient owns 20 percent or more of the stock, by vote and value, not including stock described in section 1504(a)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987, when the corporate stock with respect to which dividends are paid does not constitute the stock in trade of the taxpayer or would not be included in the inventory of the taxpayer, or does not constitute property held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of the taxpayer's trade or business, or when the trade or business of the taxpayer does not consist principally of the holding of the stocks and the collection of the income and gains therefrom. ~~The remaining 20 percent shall be allowed if the recipient owns 80 percent or more of all the voting stock of the other corporation and the dividends were paid from income arising out of business done in this state by the corporation paying the dividends. If the dividends were declared from income arising out of business done within and without this state, then a proportion of the remainder shall be allowed as a deduction. The proportion must be that which the amount of the taxable net income of the corporation paying the dividends assignable or allocable to this state bears to the entire net income of the corporation. The amounts must be determined by the returns under this chapter of the corporation paying the dividends for the taxable year preceding their distribution. The burden is on the taxpayer to show that the amount of remainder claimed as a deduction has been received from income arising out of business done in this state.~~

(b) If the trade or business of the taxpayer consists principally of the holding of the stocks and the collection of the income and gains therefrom, dividends received by a corporation during the taxable year from another corporation, if the recipient owns 80 percent or more of all the voting stock of the other corporation, from income arising out of business done in this state by the corporation paying the dividends. If the dividends were declared from income arising out of business done within and without this state, then a proportion of the dividends shall be allowed as a deduction. The proportion must be that which the amount of the taxable net income of the corporation paying the dividends assignable or allocable to this state bears to the entire net income of the corporation. The amounts must be determined by the returns under this chapter of the corporation paying the dividends for the taxable year preceding their distribution. The burden is on the taxpayer to show that the amount of dividends claimed as a deduction has been received from income arising out of business done in this state.

(b) Seventy percent of dividends received by a corporation during the taxable year from another corporation in which the recipient owns less than 20 percent of the stock, by vote or value, not including stock described in section 1504(a)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as amended through December 31, 1987, when the corporate stock with respect to which dividends are paid does not constitute the stock in trade of the taxpayer, or does not constitute property held by the taxpayer primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of the taxpayer's trade or business, or when the trade or business of the taxpayer does not consist principally of the holding of the stocks and the collection of income and gain therefrom.

(c) The dividend deduction provided in this subdivision shall be allowed only with respect to dividends that are included in a corporation's Minnesota taxable net income for the taxable year.

The dividend deduction provided in this subdivision does not apply to a dividend from a corporation which, for the taxable year of the corporation in which the distribution is made or for the next preceding taxable year of the corporation, is a corporation exempt from tax under section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986.

The dividend deduction provided in this subdivision applies to the amount of regulated investment company dividends only to the extent determined under section 854(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986.

The dividend deduction provided in this subdivision shall not be allowed with respect to any dividend for which a deduction is not allowed under the provisions of section 246(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986.

(d) If dividends received by a corporation that does not have nexus with Minnesota under the provisions of Public Law Number 86-272 are included as income on the return of an affiliated corporation permitted or required to file a combined report under section 290.34, subdivision 2, then for purposes of this subdivision the determination as to whether the trade or business of the corporation consists principally of the holding of stocks and the collection of income and gains therefrom shall be made with reference to the trade or business of the affiliated corporation having a nexus with Minnesota.

(e) The deduction provided by this subdivision does not apply if the dividends are paid by a FSC as defined in section 922 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986.

(f) If one or more of the members of the unitary group whose income is included on the combined report received a dividend, the deduction under this section for each member of the unitary business required to file a return under this chapter is the product of: (1) 100 percent of the dividends received by members of the group; (2) 80 percent or 70 percent, pursuant to paragraphs (a) or (b) of this subdivision; and (3) the percentage of the taxpayer's business income apportionable to this state for the taxable year under sections 290.191 or 290.20.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.34, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [AFFILIATED OR RELATED CORPORATIONS, COMBINED REPORT.] (a) When a corporation which is required to file an income tax return is affiliated with or related to any other corporation through stock ownership by the same interests or as parent or subsidiary corporations, or has its income regulated through contract or other arrangement, the commissioner of revenue may permit or require such combined report as, in the commissioner's opinion, is necessary in order to determine the taxable net income of any one of the affiliated or related corporations.

(b) ~~If a corporation has been divested from the unitary group and is included in a combined report for a fractional part of the common accounting period that the report is based on, then the sales, property, and payroll attributed to the corporation in the apportionment formula must be prorated or separately accounted and must show for what part of the accounting period the corporation is included in the report.~~

(c) ~~The combined report shall reflect the income of the entire unitary business as provided in section 290.17, subdivision 4. If a corporation has been divested from the unitary group and is included in the combined report for a fractional part of the common accounting period that the combined report is based on, its income includable in the combined report is its income for that part of the year.~~

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.35, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [APPORTIONMENT OF TAXABLE NET INCOME.] The commissioner shall compute therefrom the taxable net income of such companies by assigning to this state that proportion thereof which the gross premiums collected by them during the taxable year from old and new business within this state bears to the total gross premiums collected by them during that year from their entire old and new business, including reinsurance premiums; provided, the commissioner shall add to the taxable net income so apportioned to this state the amount of any taxes on premiums paid by the company by virtue of any law of this state (other than the surcharge on premiums imposed by sections 69.54 to 69.56) which shall have been deducted from gross income by the company in arriving at its total net income under the provisions of such act of congress.

(a) For purposes of determining the Minnesota apportionment percentage, premiums from reinsurance contracts ~~assumed from companies domiciled in Minnesota and premiums~~ in connection with property in or liability arising out of activity in, or in connection with the lives or health of Minnesota residents shall be assigned to Minnesota and premiums from reinsurance contracts assumed from companies domiciled outside of Minnesota and premiums in connection with property in or liability arising out of activity in, or in connection with the lives or health of non-Minnesota residents shall be assigned outside of Minnesota. Reinsurance premiums are presumed to be received for a Minnesota risk and are assigned to Minnesota, if:

(1) the reinsurance contract is assumed for a company domiciled in Minnesota; and

(2) the taxpayer, upon request of the commissioner, fails to provide reliable records indicating the reinsured contract covered non-Minnesota risks. For purposes of this paragraph, "Minnesota risk" means coverage in connection with property in or liability arising out of activity in Minnesota, or in connection with the lives or health of Minnesota residents.

(b) The apportionment method prescribed by paragraph (a) shall be presumed to fairly and correctly determine the taxpayer's taxable net income. If the method prescribed in paragraph (a) does not fairly reflect all or any part of taxable net income, the taxpayer may petition for or the commissioner may require the determination of taxable net income by use of another method if that method fairly reflects taxable net income. A petition within the meaning of this section must be filed by the taxpayer on such form as the commissioner shall require.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.37, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PERSONS MAKING RETURNS.] (a) A taxpayer shall file a return for each taxable year the taxpayer is required to file a return under section 6012 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1986, except that an individual who is not a Minnesota resident for any part of the year is not required to file a Minnesota income tax return if the individual's gross income derived from Minnesota sources under sections 290.081, paragraph (a), and 290.17, is less than the filing requirements for a single individual who is a full year resident of Minnesota.

The decedent's final income tax return, and all other income tax returns for prior years where the decedent had gross income in excess of the minimum amount at which an individual is required to file and did not file, shall be filed by the decedent's personal representative, if any. If there is no personal representative, the return or returns shall be filed by the transferees as defined in section 290.29, subdivision 3, who receive any property of the decedent.

The trustee or other fiduciary of property held in trust shall file a return with respect to the taxable net income of such trust if that exceeds an amount determined by the commissioner if such trust belongs to the class of taxable persons.

Every corporation shall file a return, if the corporation is subject to the state's jurisdiction to tax under section 290.014, subdivision 5, except that a foreign operating corporation as defined in section 290.01, subdivision 6b, is not required to file a return. The return in the case of a corporation must be signed by a person designated by the corporation. The commissioner may adopt rules for the filing of one return on behalf of the members of an affiliated group of corporations that are required to file a combined report if the affiliated group includes a bank subject to tax under this chapter. Members of an affiliated group that elect to file one return on behalf of the members of the group under rules adopted by the commissioner may modify or rescind the election by filing the form required by the commissioner.

The receivers, trustees in bankruptcy, or assignees operating the business or property of a taxpayer shall file a return with respect to the taxable net income of such taxpayer if a return is required.

(b) Such return shall (1) contain a written declaration that it is correct and complete, and (2) shall contain language prescribed by the commissioner providing a confession of judgment for the amount of the tax shown due thereon to the extent not timely paid.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.371, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REPORT REQUIRED.] Every corporation that, during any calendar year or fiscal accounting year ~~ending~~ beginning after December 31, 1986, ~~carried on any activity or owned or maintained any property in this state, unless specifically exempted under subdivision 3 obtained any business from within this state as described in section 290.015, subdivision 1, with the exception of:~~

(1) activity levels lower than those set forth in section 290.015, subdivision 2, paragraph (b); or

(2) activities described in section 290.015, subdivision 3, paragraph (b); or

(3) corporations specifically exempted under subdivision 3 of this section, must file a notice of business activities report, as provided in this section. Filing of the report is not a factor in determining whether a corporation is subject to taxation under this chapter.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.371, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [EXEMPTIONS.] A corporation is not required to file a notice of business activities report if:

(1) by the end of an accounting period for which it was otherwise required to file a notice of business activities report under this section, it had received a certificate of authority to do business in this state;

(2) a timely return or report has been filed under section 290.05, subdivision 4; or 290.37; or

(3) the corporation is exempt from taxation under this chapter pursuant to section 290.05, subdivision 1, or

(4) the corporation's activities in Minnesota, or the interests in property which it owns, consist solely of activities or property exempted from jurisdiction to tax under section 290.015, subdivision 3, paragraph (b).

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.371, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [ANNUAL FILING.] Every corporation not exempt under subdivision 3 must file annually a notice of business activities report, including such forms as the commissioner may require, with respect to ~~all or any part~~ of each of its calendar or fiscal accounting years beginning after December 31, 1986, on or before the 15th day of the fourth month after the close of the calendar or fiscal accounting year.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.371, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [FAILURE TO FILE TIMELY REPORT.] (a) Any corporation required to file a notice of business activities report does not have any cause of action upon which it may bring suit under Minnesota law unless the corporation has filed a notice of business activities report.

(b) The failure of a corporation to file a timely report prevents the use of the courts in this state, except regarding activities described in subdivision 3, clause (4), for all contracts executed and all causes of action that arose at any time before the end of the last accounting period for which the corporation failed to file a required report.

(c) The court in which the issues arise has the power to excuse the corporation for its failure to file a report when due, and restore the corporation's cause of action under the laws of this state, if the corporation has paid all taxes, interest, and civil penalties due the state for all periods, or provided for payment of them by adequate security or bond approved by the commissioner.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 290.61, the commissioner may acknowledge whether or not a particular corporation has filed with the commissioner reports or returns required by this chapter if the acknowledgement:

(1) is to a party in a civil action;

(2) relates to the filing status of another party in the same civil action; and

(3) is in response to a written request accompanied by a copy of the summons and complaint in the civil action.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 290.50, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [EXCEPTIONS.] This section shall not be construed so as to disallow:

(a) a net operating loss carryback to any taxable year authorized by section 290.095 or section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended through December 31, 1985, but the refund or credit shall be limited to the amount of overpayment arising from the carryback;

(b) a capital loss carryback by a corporation under Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 290.16, provided that the claim for refund or credit is made prior to the expiration of the 15th day of the 45th month following the end of the taxable year of the net capital loss which results in the carryback, plus any extension of time granted for filing the return, but only if the return was filed within the extended time, and the refund or credit is limited to the amount of overpayment arising from the carryback.

Subd. 3. [CARRYOVER.] (a) A net operating loss for any taxable year shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the 15 taxable years following the taxable year of such loss.

The portion of such loss which shall be carried to each of the other taxable years shall be the excess, if any, of the amount of such loss over the sum of the taxable net income, adjusted by the modifications specified in subdivision 4, for each of the taxable years to which such loss may be carried.

(c) Where a corporation does business both within and without Minnesota, and apportions its income under the provisions of section 290.191, the net operating loss deduction shall be allowed to the extent of the apportionment ratio of the loss year.

(d) No additional net operating loss deduction is allowed in a subsequent taxable year for the portion of a net operating loss deduction used to offset Minnesota income in a year in which the taxpayer is subject to the alternative minimum tax in section 290.092.

(e) The provisions of sections 381, 382, and 384 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1987, applies to carryovers in certain corporate acquisitions and special limitations on net operating loss carryovers.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 290.931, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENTS OF DECLARATION.] Every corporation subject to taxation under this chapter (excluding section 290.92) shall make a declaration of estimated tax for the taxable year if its tax liability so computed can reasonably be expected to exceed $1,000 $500, or in accordance with rules prescribed by the commissioner for an affiliated group of corporations electing to file one return as permitted by rules prescribed under section 290.37, subdivision 1.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 290.934, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ADDITION TO THE TAX.] In case of any underpayment of estimated tax by a corporation, ~~except as provided in subdivision 4,~~ there shall be added to the tax for the taxable year an amount determined at the rate specified in section 270.75 upon the amount of the underpayment (determined under subdivision 2) for the period of the underpayment (determined under subdivision 3).

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290.934, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [AMOUNT OF UNDERPAYMENT.] For purposes of subdivision 1, the amount of the underpayment shall be the excess of

(1) ~~the amount of tax shown on the return for the tax year or, if no return is filed, the tax for the tax year~~ required installment, over

(2) the amount, if any, of the installment paid on or before the last date prescribed for payment.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 290.934, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PERIOD OF UNDERPAYMENT.] The period of the underpayment shall run from the date the installment was required to be paid to whichever of the following dates is the earlier

(1) The 15th day of the third month following the close of the taxable year.

(2) With respect to any portion of the underpayment, the date on which such portion is paid. For purposes of this paragraph, a payment of estimated tax ~~on any installment date shall be considered a payment of any previous underpayment only to the extent such payment exceeds the amount of the installment determined under subdivision 2(1) for such installment date credited against unpaid required installments in the order in which such installments are required to be paid.~~

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 290.934, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [REQUIRED INSTALLMENTS.] (1) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, the amount of a required installment is 25 percent of the required annual payment.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, the term "required annual payment" means the lesser of:

(a) 90 percent of the tax shown on the return for the taxable year, or if no return is filed 90 percent of the tax for such year; or

(b) 100 percent of the tax shown on the return of the corporation for the preceding taxable year providing such return was for a full 12-month period, did show a liability, and was filed by the corporation.

(3) Except for determining the first required installment for any taxable year, paragraph (2), clause (b) does not apply in the case of a large corporation. The term "large corporation" means a corporation or any predecessor corporation that had taxable net income of $1,000,000 or more for any taxable year during the testing period. The term "testing period" means the three taxable years immediately preceding the taxable year involved. A reduction allowed to a large corporation for the first installment that is allowed by applying paragraph (2), clause (b) must be recaptured by increasing the next required installment by the amount of the reduction.

(4) In the case of a required installment, if the corporation establishes that the annualized income installment is less than the amount determined in paragraph (1), the amount of the required installment is the annualized income installment and the recapture of previous quarters' reductions allowed by this paragraph must be recovered by increasing subsequent required installments to the extent the reductions have not previously been recovered. A reduction shall be treated as recaptured for purposes of this paragraph if 90 percent of the reduction is recaptured.

(5) The "annualized income installment" is the excess, if any, of:

(a) an amount equal to the applicable percentage of the tax for the taxable year computed by placing on an annualized basis the taxable income:

(i) for the first two months of the taxable year, in the case of the first required installment;

(ii) for the first two months or for the first five months of the taxable year, in the case of the second required installment;

(iii) for the first six months or for the first eight months of the taxable year, in the case of the third required installment; and

(iv) for the first nine months or for the first 11 months of the taxable year, in the case of the fourth required installment, over;

(b) the aggregate amount of any prior required installments for the taxable year.

(c) For the purpose of this paragraph, the annualized income shall be computed by placing on an annualized basis the taxable income for the year up to the end of the month preceding the due date for the quarterly payment multiplied by 12 and dividing the resulting amount by the number of months in the taxable year (2, 5, 6, 8, 9, or 11 as the case may be) referred to in clause (a).

(d) The "applicable percentage" used in clause (a) is:

In the case of the following required installments:	The applicable percentage is:
1st	22.5
2nd	45
4th	90

(6)(a) If this paragraph applies, the amount determined for any installment must be determined in the following manner:

(i) take the taxable income for all months during the taxable year preceding the filing month;

(ii) divide that amount by the base period percentage for all months during the taxable year preceding the filing month;

(iii) determine the tax on the amount determined under item (ii); and

(iv) multiply the tax computed under item (iii) by the base period percentage for the filing month and all months during the taxable year preceding the filing month.

(b) For purposes of this paragraph:

(i) the "base period percentage" for any period of months is the average percent which the taxable income for the corresponding months in each of the three preceding taxable years bears to the taxable income for the three preceding taxable years;

(ii) the term "filing month" means the month in which the installment is required to be paid;

(iii) this paragraph shall only apply if the base period percentage for any six consecutive months of the taxable year equals or exceeds 70 percent; and

(iv) the commissioner may provide by rule for the determination of the base period percentage in the case of reorganizations, new corporations, and other similar circumstances.

(c) In the case of a required installment, determined under this paragraph, if the corporation determines that the installment is less than the amount determined in paragraph (1), the amount of the required installment is the amount determined under this paragraph and the recapture of previous quarters' reductions allowed by this paragraph must be recovered by increasing subsequent required installments to the extent the reductions have not previously been recovered. A reduction shall be treated as recaptured for purposes of this paragraph if 90 percent of the reduction is recaptured.

(xii) nontaxable scholarship or fellowship grants.

In the case of an individual who files an income tax return on a fiscal year basis, the term "federal adjusted gross income" shall mean federal adjusted gross income reflected in the fiscal year ending in the calendar year. Federal adjusted gross income shall not be reduced by the amount of a net operating loss carryback.

(2) "Income" does not include

(a) amounts excluded pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code, sections 101(a), 102, ~~117~~, and 121;

(b) amounts of any pension or annuity which was exclusively funded by the claimant or spouse and which funding payments were not excluded from federal adjusted gross income in the years when the payments were made;

"Dependent" includes a parent of the claimant or spouse who lives in the claimant's homestead. ~~"Dependent" includes a person over 18 years of age who lives in the claimant's homestead and who receives more than 50 percent of support from the claimant.~~

Subd. 8. [CLAIMANT.] (a) "Claimant" means a person, other than a dependent, who filed a claim authorized by this chapter and who was a ~~resident of domiciled in~~ this state as provided in chapter 290 during the calendar year for which the claim for relief was filed.

(b) In the case of a claim relating to rent constituting property taxes, the claimant shall have resided in a rented or leased unit on which ad valorem taxes or payments made in lieu of ad valorem taxes, including payments of special assessments imposed in lieu of ad valorem taxes, are payable at some time during the calendar year covered by the claim.

(c) "Claimant" shall not include a resident of a nursing home, intermediate care facility, or long-term residential facility whose rent constituting property taxes is paid pursuant to the supplemental security income program under title XVI of the Social Security Act, the Minnesota supplemental aid program under sections 256D.35 to 256D.41, the medical assistance program pursuant to title XIX of the Social Security Act, or the general assistance medical care program pursuant to section 256D.03, subdivision 3. If only a portion of the rent constituting property taxes is paid by these programs, the resident shall be a claimant for purposes of this chapter, but the refund calculated pursuant to section 290A.04 shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is income as defined in subdivision 3 reduced by the total amount of income from the above sources other than vendor payments under the medical assistance program or the general assistance medical care program and the denominator of which is income as defined in subdivision 3 plus vendor payments under the medical assistance program or the general assistance medical care program, to determine the allowable refund pursuant to this chapter.

(d) Notwithstanding paragraph (c), if the claimant was a resident of the nursing home, intermediate care facility or long-term residential facility for only a portion of the calendar year covered by the claim, the claimant may compute rent constituting property taxes by disregarding the rent constituting property taxes from the nursing home, intermediate care facility, or long-term residential facility and use only that amount of rent constituting property taxes or property taxes payable relating to that portion of the year when the claimant was not in the facility. The claimant's household income is the income for the entire calendar year covered by the claim.

(e) In the case of a claim for rent constituting property taxes of a part-year Minnesota resident, the income and rental reflected in this computation shall be for the period of Minnesota residency only. Any rental expenses paid which may be reflected in arriving at federal adjusted gross income cannot be utilized for this computation. When two individuals of a household are able to meet the qualifications for a claimant, they may determine among them as to who the claimant shall be. If they are unable to agree, the matter shall be referred to the commissioner of revenue whose decision shall be final. If a homestead property owner was a part-year Minnesota resident, the income reflected in the computation made pursuant to section 290A.04 shall be for the entire calendar year, including income not assignable to Minnesota.

(f) If a homestead is occupied by two or more renters, who are not husband and wife, the rent shall be deemed to be paid equally by each, and separate claims shall be filed by each. Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290A.06, is amended to read:

290A.06 [FILING TIME LIMIT, LATE FILING; INCOME TAX RETURN.]

Any claim for a refund based on property taxes payable shall be filed with the department of revenue on or before August 15 of the year in which the property taxes are due and payable. A copy of the claimant's federal income tax return for the taxable year preceding the year in which the property taxes are payable must be filed with the claim if the claimant filed a federal income tax return for that year unless a copy has been submitted with the claimants' Minnesota income tax return under section 290.37, subdivision 3.

Any claim for rent constituting property taxes shall be filed with the department of revenue on or before August 15 of the year following the year in which the rent was paid. A copy of the claimant's federal income tax return for the taxable year in which the rent was paid must be filed with the claim if the claimant filed a federal income tax return for that year.

The commissioner may extend the time for filing these claims for a period not to exceed six months in the case of sickness, absence, or other disability, or when in the commissioner's judgment other good cause exists.

A claim filed after the original or extended due date shall be allowed, but the amount of credit shall be reduced by five percent of the amount otherwise allowable, plus an additional five percent for each month of delinquency, not exceeding a total reduction of 25 percent which may be canceled or reduced by the commissioner in the case of sickness, absence, or other disability, or when in the commissioner's judgment other good cause exists. In any event no claim shall be allowed if the initial claim is filed one year after the original due date for filing the claim.

The time limit on redetermination of claims for refund and examination of records shall be governed by sections 290.49, 290.50, and 290.56 and for purposes of computing the time limit as provided in these sections the due date of the property tax refund return shall be the same as the due date contained in section 290.42 for an income tax return covering the year in which the rent was paid or the year preceding the year in which the property taxes are payable.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 290A.19, is amended to read:

290A.19 [OWNER OR MANAGING AGENT TO FURNISH RENT CERTIFICATE; PENALTY.]

(a) The owner or managing agent of any property for which rent is paid for occupancy as a homestead shall furnish a certificate of rent constituting property tax to each person who is a renter on December 31, in the form prescribed by the commissioner. If the renter moves prior to December 31, the owner or managing agent has the option to either provide the certificate to the renter at the time of moving, or mail the certificate to the forwarding address if an address has been provided by the renter. The certificate shall be made available to the renter not later than January 31 of the year following the year in which the rent was paid.

(b) Any owner or managing agent who willfully fails to furnish a certificate to the renter and the commissioner as required by this section is liable to the commissioner for a penalty of $100 for each act or failure to act. The penalty shall be assessed and collected in the manner provided in chapter 290 for the assessment and collection of income tax. If the owner or managing agent willfully furnishes certificates that report total rent constituting property taxes in excess of the amount of actual property taxes paid on the rented part of a property, as determined under this section, the owner or managing agent is liable for a penalty equal to the greater of (1) $100 or (2) 50 percent of the excess that is reported. If the owner or managing agent reports a total amount of rent constituting property taxes that exceeds by ten percent or more the actual property taxes, the report is deemed to be willful.

(c) If the owner or managing agent elects to provide the renter with the certificate at the time of moving, rather than after December 31, the amount of rent constituting property taxes shall be computed as follows:

(i) The net tax shall be reduced by 1/12 for each month remaining in the calendar year.

(ii) In calculating the denominator of the fraction pursuant to section

290A.03, subdivision 11, the gross rent paid through the last month of claimant's occupancy shall be substituted for "the gross rent paid for the calendar year for the property in which the unit is located."

(d) The certificate of rent constituting property taxes shall include the address of the property, including the county, and the property tax parcel identification number and any additional information which the commissioner determines is appropriate.

(e) If the owner or managing agent fails to provide the renter with a certificate of rent constituting property taxes, the commissioner shall allocate the net tax on the building to the unit on a square footage basis or other appropriate basis as the commissioner determines. For the purposes of any levy limitations or levy authorities expressed in mills, other than school district limitations based on adjusted assessed value, or any salary or debt limitations expressed in terms of assessed value that are currently in effect or were put into effect as the result of laws enacted during the 1988 session of the state legislature, the dollar amount of those limitations or authorities will be determined as follows.

The equivalent dollar amount of those limitations or authorities for taxes payable in 1988 will be inflated by the ratio of the applicable jurisdiction's tax capacity or equalized tax capacity, whichever is appropriate for taxes payable 1989 to the amount equivalent to what would have been the jurisdiction's tax capacity or equalized tax capacity for taxes payable in 1988 if the provisions of sections 273.13 and 275.08, subdivision 1a, had been in effect.

For school districts levy limitations or authorities expressed in terms of mills and adjusted assessed value, their levy limitations shall be converted by the department of education to "equalized tax capacity rates." For purposes of this calculation, the 1987 adjusted assessed values of the district shall be converted to "adjusted tax capacities" by multiplying the equalized market values by class of property and by the tax capacity rates provided in section 273.13. The requirements of section 124.2131, subdivision 1, paragraph (c), and subdivisions 2 and 3, shall remain in effect.

The amount shall be certified by the county auditor and reported to the commissioner of revenue. The commissioner shall make the payments to the taxing jurisdictions containing the property at the time distributions are made pursuant to section ~~273.1394~~ 273.1398, in the same proportion that the ad valorem tax is distributed.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 273.123, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [COMPUTATION OF CREDITS.] The amounts of any credits or tax relief which reduce the gross tax shall be computed upon the reassessed value determined under subdivision 2. Payment shall be made pursuant to section ~~273.1394~~ 273.1398. For purposes of the property tax refund, property taxes payable, as defined in section 290A.03, subdivision 13, and net property taxes payable, as defined in section 290A.04, subdivision 2d, shall be computed upon the reassessed value determined under subdivision 2.

If, in comparing the lists supplied by the counties, the commissioner finds that a property owner is claiming more than one homestead, the commissioner shall notify the appropriate counties. Within 90 days of the notification, the county assessor shall investigate to determine if the homestead classification was properly claimed. If the property owner does not qualify, the county assessor shall notify the county auditor who will determine the amount of homestead benefits that had been improperly allowed. The property owners may appeal the county's determination by filing a notice of appeal with the Minnesota tax court within 60 days of the date of the notice from the county.

If the amount of homestead benefits and penalty is not paid within 60 days, and if no appeal has been filed, the county auditor shall certify the amount to the succeeding year's tax list to be collected as part of the property taxes.

Any amount of homestead benefits recovered from the property owner must be transmitted to the commissioner by the end of each calendar quarter. Any amount recovered attributable to taconite homestead credit shall be transmitted to the St. Louis county auditor to be deposited in the taconite property tax relief account. The amount of penalty collected must be deposited in the county general fund.

The commissioner will provide suggested homestead applications to each county. If a property owner has applied for more than one homestead and the county assessors cannot determine which property should be classified as homestead, the county assessors will refer the information to the commissioner. The commissioner shall make the determination and notify the counties within 60 days.

In addition to lists of homestead properties, the commissioner may ask the counties to furnish lists of all properties and the record owners.

Sec. 21. [273.1398] [TRANSITION AID AND DISPARITY REDUCTION AID.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] In this section, the terms defined in this subdivision have the meanings given them.

(a) "Unique taxing jurisdiction" means the geographic area in which the local governments levying taxes under section 275.07 are the same.

(b) "Effective tax rate" is the property tax payable on a parcel in 1988 after reduction for the homestead credit, divided by the property's equalized market value.

(c) "Farm homestead effective tax rate" is the gross taxes reduced by agricultural and homestead credits, if applicable, for all farm homesteads in a unique taxing jurisdiction, divided by the total of the farm homesteads' equalized market values.

(d) "Farm homestead effective tax rate change" means the ratio of the farm homestead effective tax rate for taxes payable in 1988 to the farm homestead effective tax rate that would be derived by using the 1987 assessment's equalized market values, multiplied by the appropriate tax capacity rates listed in section 273.13.

(e) "Homestead credit maximum" means the maximum possible homestead credit payable within a unique taxing jurisdiction.

(f) "Homestead immediately below the homestead credit maximum" means a nonagricultural homestead receiving $1 less than the homestead credit maximum within a unique taxing jurisdiction.

(g) "Tax capacity" means the tax capacity computed using the tax rates listed in section 273.13 for all property within the unique taxing jurisdiction based on the January 2, 1987, assessment. The equalized market value utilized shall be reduced by the sum of:

(1) the unique taxing jurisdiction's equalized market value of commercial industrial property as defined in section 473F02, subdivision 3, multiplied by the ratio determined under section 473F08, subdivision 6, for the municipality, as defined in section 473F02, subdivision 8, in which the unique taxing jurisdiction is located; and

(2) the equalized market value of the captured value of tax increment financing districts as defined in section 469.177, subdivision 2.

(h) "Equalized market value" is market value that has been equalized by dividing the assessor's estimated market value by the assessment sales ratios determined by class in the 1987 assessment sales ratio study conducted by the department of revenue under section 124.2131. For computation of aids payable in 1989 only, the assessment sales ratios by class shall be adjusted proportionately so that the overall level of equalization after the computation shall not be greater than the greater of 92 percent or the 1987 aggregate assessment sales ratio.

(i) "Homestead effective rate" means the effective tax rate for taxes payable in 1988 of a homestead immediately below the homestead credit maximum.

Subd. 2. [TRANSITION AID.] (a) Transition aid for each unique taxing jurisdiction for taxes payable in 1989 is:

(1) the total gross tax levied on all properties, except that levied on the captured value of tax increment districts as defined in section 469.177, subdivision 2, and that levied on the portion of commercial industrial properties' assessed value, as defined in section 473F02, subdivision 3, subject to the areawide tax as provided in section 473F08, subdivision 6, in the unique taxing jurisdiction before reduction by the homestead or agricultural credit for taxes payable in 1988; minus

(2) the product of the following factors:

(i) 105.5;

(ii) the homestead effective rate, multiplied by the ratio of what would have been the school foundation and transportation levies within the unique taxing jurisdiction based on the school district's unadjusted 1987 adjusted assessed value to the payable 1988 school foundation and transportation levies within the unique taxing jurisdiction, multiplied by the ratio of the payable 1988 school foundation and transportation levies to the total levy within the unique taxing jurisdiction; and

(iii) the tax capacity.

(b) The transition aid is allocated in proportion to the local government's payable 1988 levies, as adjusted under paragraph (a), within the unique taxing jurisdiction.

(c) A county's transition aid shall be reduced by the estimated difference between:

(1) the calendar year 1989 income maintenance aids payable to the county under article 6 pursuant to the rates in effect for calendar year 1989; and

(2) the calendar year 1989 income maintenance aids that would be payable to the county under article 6 pursuant to the rates in effect for calendar year 1988.

Subd. 3. [ADDITIONAL TRANSITION AID FOR TOWNSHIPS.] (a) A unique taxing jurisdiction containing a township may receive additional transition aid. If:

(1) the total gross tax levied on all properties, except that levied on the captured value of tax increment districts as defined in section 469.177, subdivision 2, and that levied on the portion of commercial industrial properties' assessed value, as defined in section 473F02, subdivision 3, subject to the areawide tax as provided in section 473F08, subdivision 6, in the unique taxing jurisdiction before reduction by the homestead or agricultural credit for taxes payable in 1988; minus

(2) the product of the following factors:

(i) the tax capacity; and

(ii) the farm homestead effective rate change;

is greater than the transition aid calculated under subdivision 2, the amount of the difference is additional transition aid for the unique taxing jurisdiction.

(b) The additional transition aid is first allocated to the township in the amount necessary to reduce its 1988 gross tax as adjusted under paragraph (a) to 12 percent of its tax capacity. Any remainder is allocated as a credit to the unique taxing jurisdiction's taxpayers in the proportion that their 1989 gross tax as adjusted under paragraph (a) bears to the total gross taxes levied, as adjusted under paragraph (a), in the unique taxing jurisdiction.

Subd. 4. [DISPARITY REDUCTION AID.] (a) Local governments exercising tax authority within a unique taxing jurisdiction in which the effective tax rate for a homestead immediately below the homestead credit maximum is greater than one percent for taxes payable in 1988 shall receive disparity reduction aid. For purposes of this subdivision, the effective tax rate will be calculated using total taxes levied exclusive of any school referendum levies authorized under section 124.03, subdivision 2, and any school district debt service levy authorized under section 475.61.

(b) The disparity reduction aid shall be the greater of:

(1) the difference between (i) the total 1988 gross tax levied on all taxable property within the unique taxing jurisdiction as adjusted under subdivision 2, paragraph (a), minus the total transition aids and credits calculated in subdivisions 2 and 3, and (ii) the tax capacity of the unique taxing jurisdiction based on a 100 percent level of equalization; or

(2) 20 percent of the difference between (i) 23 percent of the city's or township's tax capacity based on a 92 percent level of equalization for aids payable in 1989 only and (ii) its 1988 gross tax as adjusted under subdivision 2, paragraph (a), minus transition aids payable to the city or township pursuant to subdivisions 2 and 3 and the credits, if any, payable to a township's residents under subdivision 3.

(c) The disparity reduction aid is allocated first to the city or township in an amount sufficient to reduce its 1988 gross tax within the unique taxing jurisdiction to 23 percent of tax capacity and then to all special taxing districts, either coterminous or contained wholly within the city or township within the unique taxing jurisdiction and levying taxes payable in 1988 in the proportion that their individual taxes levied bear to their combined taxes levied to reduce their combined gross taxes to four percent of tax capacity. Any remaining disparity reduction aid will be payable directly to taxpayers residing in the unique taxing jurisdiction in the proportion that their 1989 gross tax as adjusted under subdivision 2, paragraph (a), bears to the total gross taxes levied, as adjusted under subdivision 2, paragraph (a), in the unique taxing jurisdiction. The amount of credit and the credit payable under subdivision 3, paragraph (b), will be increased by five percent and certified by the department of revenue to the county auditor who will proportionately reduce the payable 1989 taxes of the school district and county levying taxes in the unique taxing jurisdiction accordingly. The amount of the credit shall be reimbursed to the county and school district. The credit reimbursement will be payable at the same time as the aid payments made under subdivision 5.

Subd. 4a. Cities with a population greater than 2,500 and less than 35,000 according to the 1980 decennial census which are adjacent to cities in another state or immediately adjacent to a city adjacent to a city in another state shall receive additional disparity reduction aid if the adjacent city in the other state has a population of greater than 5,000 and less than 75,000. The aid shall be a sum sufficient to reduce the total taxes levied on class 4a property to three percent of the property's market value and the tax on class 3a property to 3.3 percent of market value. The county auditor shall proportionately reduce each local government's tax capacity rate applied to class 4a so as to reduce each class 4a property's tax to three percent of market value and shall proportionately reduce each local government's tax capacity rate applied to class 3a property so as to reduce each class 3a property's tax to 3.3 percent of market value.

Subd. 4b. The county auditor shall annually certify the cost of the additional disparity reduction aid resulting from the provision of subdivision 4a to the department of revenue. Payment of the aid to the affected taxing jurisdictions will be made pursuant to subdivision 5.

Subd. 5. [PAYMENT.] The commissioner shall certify and pay the aids provided in this section at the times provided in sections 477A.014 and 477A.015 for certification and payment of local government aid to other taxing jurisdictions. Aids to school districts must be certified to the commissioner of education and paid under section 273.1392. Payment shall not be made to any taxing jurisdiction that has ceased to levy a property tax.

Subd. 6. [APPROPRIATION.] An amount sufficient to pay the aids provided under this section is annually appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of revenue.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 275.07, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. For taxes payable in 1989, a city's or township's levy shall be certified in the following separately stated amounts:

(1) the product of:

(i) the amount of the positive difference, if any, of (A) the percentage increase in the sum of a city's or township's levy plus aids received under chapter 477A for 1989 over the prior year's sum of the same amounts minus (B) the percentage increase in the city's or township's 1989 aid amount received under chapter 477A over the city's or township's 1988 aid multiplied by

(ii) the city's or township's levy; and

(2) the remainder of the city's or township's levy.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 275.08, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 275.08, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1c. The amounts certified under section 275.07 by an individual local government unit shall be divided by the total tax capacity of all taxable properties within the local government unit's taxing jurisdiction. The resulting ratio, the local government's tax capacity rate, multiplied by each property's tax capacity shall be each property's total tax for that local government unit.

The taxpayer is defined as the owner who is responsible for the payment of the tax. ~~Such real and personal property tax statements shall contain the market value, as defined in section 272.03, subdivision 8, used in determining the tax. The statement shall show the amount attributable to the decrease in tax under section 275.082 attributable to Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 124.2137 as "state paid agricultural credit amount" and the amount attributable to the decrease in tax under section 275.082 attributable to Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 273.13, subdivisions 22 and 23 as "state paid homestead credit amount."~~ The statement must state the amount deducted under section 273.1195 and identify it as "state paid small business transition credit."

Subd. 4. [COLLECTION SITE.] If so directed by the county board, the treasurer shall visit places in the county as the treasurer deems expedient for the purpose of receiving taxes and the county board is authorized to pay the expenses of such visits and of preparing duplicate tax lists. Failure

This subdivision applies to tax increment districts created pursuant to sections 469.174 to 469.178 or any prior tax increment law. No adjustment shall be made under this subdivision as a result of the change from a system of property taxation based on assessed values to a system based on tax capacity under this act.

Sec. 28. [TAX INCREMENT ADJUSTMENT.]

The county auditor shall determine a tax increment district's original tax capacity by multiplying the district's market values by class in the year of original certification or year of certification for any modification, as the case may be, by the tax capacity rates in section 273.13. The original tax capacity of an economic development district shall also be inflated to reflect the annual adjustment required by section 469.177 for prior years. The original tax capacities of the districts under this section shall be certified to authorities by July 1, 1988.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 473.446, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

The county auditor shall reduce the tax levied pursuant to this subdivision on all property within statutory and home rule charter cities and towns that receive full peak service and limited off-peak service by an amount equal to the tax levy that would be produced by applying a rate of 0.5 mills on the property. The county auditor shall reduce the tax levied pursuant to this subdivision on all property within statutory and home rule charter cities and towns that receive limited peak service by an amount equal to the tax levy that would be produced by applying a rate of 0.75 mills on the property. The amounts so computed by the county auditor shall be submitted to the commissioner of revenue as part of the abstracts of tax lists required to be filed with the commissioner under section 275.29. Any prior year adjustments shall also be certified in the abstracts of tax lists. The commissioner shall review the certifications to determine their accuracy and may make changes in the certification as necessary or return a certification to the county auditor for corrections. Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 473F05, is amended to read:

473F05 [ASSESSSED VALUATION TAX CAPACITY; ~~1972~~ 1988 AND SUBSEQUENT YEARS.]

On or before November 20 of ~~1972~~ 1988 and each subsequent year, the assessors within each county in the area shall determine and certify to the county auditor the ~~assessed valuation tax capacity~~ in that year of commercial-industrial property subject to taxation within each municipality in the county, determined without regard to section 469.177, subdivision 3.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 473F06, is amended to read:

473F06 [INCREASE IN ASSESSED VALUATION TAX CAPACITY.]

On or before September 1 of 1976 and each subsequent year, the auditor of each county in the area shall determine the amount, if any, by which the ~~assessed valuation tax capacity~~ determined in the preceding year pursuant to section 473F05, of commercial-industrial property subject to taxation within each municipality in the auditor's county exceeds the ~~assessed~~ ~~valuation tax capacity~~ in 1971 of commercial-industrial property subject to taxation within that municipality. If a municipality is located in two or more counties within the area, the auditors of those counties shall certify the data required by section 473F05 to the county auditor who is responsible under other provisions of law for allocating the levies of that municipality between or among the affected counties. That county auditor shall determine the amount of the net excess, if any, for the municipality under this section, and certify that amount under section 473F07. Notwithstanding any other provision of sections 473F01 to 473F13 to the contrary, in the case of a municipality which is designated on July 24, 1971, as a redevelopment area pursuant to section 401(a)(4) of the Public Works and Economic Development Act of 1965, Public Law Number 89-136, the increase in its ~~assessed valuation tax capacity~~ of commercial-industrial property for purposes of this section shall be determined in each year subsequent to the termination of such designation by using as a base the ~~assessed valuation tax capacity~~ of commercial-industrial property in that municipality in the year following that in which such designation is terminated, rather than the ~~assessed valuation tax capacity~~ of such property in 1971. The increase in ~~assessed valuation tax capacity~~ determined by this section shall be reduced by the amount of any decreases in the ~~assessed valuation tax capacity~~ of commercial-industrial property resulting from any court decisions, court related stipulation agreements, or abatements for a prior year, and only in the amount of such decreases made during the 12-month period ending on June 30 of the current assessment year, where such decreases, if originally reflected in the determination of a prior year's ~~valuation tax capacity~~ under section 473F05, would have resulted in a smaller contribution from the municipality in that year. An adjustment for such decreases shall be made only if the municipality made a contribution in a prior year based on the higher ~~valuation tax capacity~~ of the commercial-industrial property.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 473F07, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Each county auditor shall certify the determinations pursuant to sections 473F05 and 473F06 to the administrative auditor on or before November 20 of each year. (a) There shall be subtracted from its ~~assessed valuation~~ tax capacity, in each municipality in which the governmental unit exercises ad valorem taxing jurisdiction, an amount which bears the same proportion to 40 percent of the amount certified in that year pursuant to section 473F06 in respect to that municipality as the total preceding year's ~~assessed valuation~~ tax capacity of commercial-industrial property which is subject to the taxing jurisdiction of the governmental unit within the municipality, determined without regard to section 469.177, subdivision 3, bears to the total preceding year's ~~assessed valuation~~ tax capacity of commercial-industrial property within the municipality, determined without regard to section 469.177, subdivision 3;

The total areawide portion of the levy for the city of Bloomington including the additional amount for interest repayment certified pursuant to this subdivision shall be certified by the Hennepin county auditor to the administrative auditor pursuant to subdivision 5. The Hennepin county auditor shall distribute to the city of Bloomington the additional areawide portion of the levy computed pursuant to this subdivision at the same time that payments are made to the other counties pursuant to subdivision 7a. If the reassessment, when completed and incorporated in the commissioner of revenue's certification of the ~~assessed valuation tax capacity~~ of the municipality, or the listing of omitted property, when placed on the rolls, results in an increase in the ~~assessed valuation tax capacity~~ of commercial-industrial property in the municipality which differs from that used, pursuant to subdivision 1, for purposes of sections 473F03 to 473F08, the increase in the ~~assessed valuation tax capacity~~ of commercial-industrial property in that municipality in the succeeding year, as otherwise computed under section 473F06, shall be adjusted in a like amount, by an increase if the reassessment or listing discloses a larger increase than was used for purposes of sections 473F03 to 473F08, or by a decrease if the reassessment or listing discloses a smaller increase than was used for those purposes, provided that no adjustment shall reduce the amount determined under section 473F06 to an amount less than zero.

Subd. 3. Subdivisions 1 and 2 shall not apply to the determination of the tax rate under section 473F08, subdivision 4, or to the determination of the ~~assessed valuation~~ tax capacity of commercial-industrial property and each item thereof for purposes of section 473F08, subdivision 6.

In addition to administering and supervising human services activities vested by law in the department, the commissioner shall:*

(a) have the authority to require local agency participation in training and technical assistance programs to promote compliance with statutes, rules, federal laws, regulations and policies governing human services;

(b) have the authority to monitor the performance of local agencies in the operation and administration of human services on an ongoing basis, enforce compliance with statutes, rules, federal laws, regulations, and policies governing welfare services and promote excellence of administration and program operation;

(c) have the authority to develop a quality control program or other monitoring program to review county performance and accuracy of benefit determinations;

(d) have the authority to require local agencies to make an adjustment to the public assistance benefits issued to any individual consistent with federal law and regulation and state law and rule and to issue or recover benefits as appropriate;

(e) have the authority to delay or deny payment of all or part of the state and federal share of benefits and administrative reimbursement according to the procedures set forth in section 256.016; and

(f) have the authority to make contracts with and grants to public and private agencies and organizations, both profit and nonprofit, and individuals, using appropriated funds.

(2) Inform local agencies of changes in statute, rule, federal law, regulation, and policy necessary to local agency administration of the programs.

(3) (4) Administer and supervise all noninstitutional service to handicapped persons, including those who are visually impaired, hearing impaired, or physically impaired or otherwise handicapped. The commissioner may provide and contract for the care and treatment of qualified indigent children in facilities other than those located and available at state hospitals when it is not feasible to provide the service in state hospitals.

(4) (5) Assist and actively cooperate with other departments, agencies and institutions, local, state, and federal, by performing services in conformity with the purposes of Laws 1939, chapter 431.

(5) (6) Act as the agent of and cooperate with the federal government in matters of mutual concern relative to and in conformity with the provisions of Laws 1939, chapter 431, including the administration of any federal funds granted to the state to aid in the performance of any functions of the commissioner as specified in Laws 1939, chapter 431, and including the promulgation of rules making uniformly available medical care benefits to all recipients of public assistance, at such times as the federal government increases its participation in assistance expenditures for medical care to recipients of public assistance, the cost thereof to be borne in the same proportion as are grants of aid to said recipients.

(6) (7) Establish and maintain any administrative units reasonably necessary for the performance of administrative functions common to all divisions of the department.

~~(7) Administer and supervise any additional welfare activities and services as are vested by law in the department.~~

(8) The commissioner is designated as guardian of both the estate and the person of all the wards of the state of Minnesota, whether by operation of law or by an order of court, without any further act or proceeding whatever, except as to persons committed as mentally retarded.

(9) Act as coordinating referral and informational center on requests for service for newly arrived immigrants coming to Minnesota.

(10) The specific enumeration of powers and duties as hereinabove set forth shall in no way be construed to be a limitation upon the general transfer of powers herein contained.

(11) Establish county, regional, or statewide schedules of maximum fees and charges which may be paid by local agencies for medical, dental, surgical, hospital, nursing and nursing home care and medicine and medical supplies under all programs of medical care provided by the state and for congregate living care under the income maintenance programs.

(12) Have the authority to conduct and administer experimental projects to test methods and procedures of administering assistance and services to recipients or potential recipients of public welfare. To carry out such experimental projects, it is further provided that the commissioner of human services is authorized to waive the enforcement of existing specific statutory program requirements, rules, and standards in one or more counties. The order establishing the waiver shall provide alternative methods and procedures of administration, shall not be in conflict with the basic purposes, coverage, or benefits provided by law, and in no event shall the duration of a project exceed four years. It is further provided that no order establishing an experimental project as authorized by the provisions of this section shall become effective until the following conditions have been met:

(a) The proposed comprehensive plan including estimated project costs and the proposed order establishing the waiver shall be filed with the secretary of the senate and chief clerk of the house of representatives at least 60 days prior to its effective date.

(b) The secretary of health, education, and welfare of the United States has agreed, for the same project, to waive state plan requirements relative to statewide uniformity.

(c) A comprehensive plan, including estimated project costs, shall be approved by the legislative advisory commission and filed with the commissioner of administration.

(13) In accordance with federal requirements establish procedures to be followed by local welfare boards in creating citizen advisory committees, including procedures for selection of committee members.

(14) Allocate federal fiscal disallowances or sanctions which are based on quality control error rates for the aid to families with dependent children, medical assistance, or food stamp program in the following manner:

(a) One-half of the total amount of the disallowance shall be borne by the county boards responsible for administering the programs. For the medical assistance and AFDC programs, disallowances shall be shared by each county board in the same proportion as that county's expenditures for the sanctioned program are to the total of all counties' expenditures for the AFDC and medical assistance programs. For the food stamp program, sanctions shall be shared by each county board, with 50 percent of the sanction being distributed to each county in the same proportion as that county's administrative costs for food stamps are to the total of all food stamp administrative costs for all counties, and 50 percent of the sanctions being distributed to each county in the same proportion as that county's value of food stamp benefits issued are to the total of all benefits issued for all counties. Each county shall pay its share of the disallowance to the state of Minnesota. When a county fails to pay the amount due hereunder, the commissioner may deduct the amount from reimbursement otherwise due the county, or the attorney general, upon the request of the commissioner, may institute civil action to recover the amount due.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a), if the disallowance results from knowing noncompliance by one or more counties with a specific program instruction, and that knowing noncompliance is a matter of official county board record, the commissioner may require payment or recover from the county or counties, in the manner prescribed in paragraph (a), an amount equal to the portion of the total disallowance which resulted from the noncompliance, and may distribute the balance of the disallowance according to paragraph (a).

(15) Develop and implement special projects that maximize reimbursements and result in the recovery of money to the state. For the purpose of recovering state money, the commissioner may enter into contracts with third parties. Any recoveries that result from projects or contracts entered into under this paragraph shall be deposited in the state treasury and credited to a special account until the balance in the account reaches $400,000. When the balance in the account exceeds $400,000, the excess shall be transferred and credited to the general fund. All money in the account is appropriated to the commissioner for the purposes of this paragraph.

(16) Have the authority to make direct payments to facilities providing shelter to women and their children pursuant to section 256D.05, subdivision 3. Upon the written request of a shelter facility that has been denied payments under section 256.05, subdivision 3, the commissioner shall review all relevant evidence and make a determination within 30 days of the request for review regarding issuance of direct payments to the shelter facility. Failure to act within 30 days shall be considered a determination not to issue direct payments.

Sec. 2. [256.016] [COMPLIANCE SYSTEM.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORITY AND PURPOSE.] The commissioner shall administer a compliance system for aid to families with dependent children, the food stamp program, emergency assistance, general assistance, work readiness, medical assistance, general assistance medical care, emergency general assistance, Minnesota supplemental assistance, preadmission screening, and alternative care grants under the powers and authorities named in section 256.01, subdivision 2. The purpose of the compliance system is to permit the commissioner to supervise the administration of public assistance programs and to enforce timely and accurate distribution of benefits, completeness of service and efficient and effective program management and operations, to increase uniformity and consistency in the administration and delivery of public assistance programs throughout the state, and to reduce the possibility of sanctions and fiscal disallowances for noncompliance with federal regulations and state statutes.

The commissioner shall utilize training, technical assistance, and monitoring activities, as specified in section 256.01, subdivision 2, to encourage local agency compliance with written policies and procedures.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] The following terms have the meanings given for the purpose of this section.

(a) "Administrative penalty" means an adjustment against the local agency's state and federal benefit and federal administrative reimbursement when the commissioner determines that the local agency is not in compliance with the policies and procedures established by the commissioner.

(b) "Quality control case penalty" means an adjustment against the local agency's federal administrative reimbursement and state and federal benefit reimbursement when the commissioner determines through a quality control review that the local agency has made incorrect payments, terminations, or denials of benefits as determined by state quality control procedures for the aid to families with dependent children, food stamp, or medical assistance programs, or any other programs for which the commissioner has developed a quality control system. Quality control case penalties apply only to agency errors as defined by state quality control procedures.

(c) "Quality control" means a review system of a statewide random sample of cases, designed to provide data on the accuracy with which state and federal policies are being applied in issuing benefits and as a fiscal audit to ensure the accuracy of expenditures. The quality control system is administered by the department. For the aid to families with dependent children, food stamp, and medical assistance programs, the quality control system is that required by federal regulation.

Subd. 3. [QUALITY CONTROL CASE PENALTY.] The department shall disallow, withhold, or deny state and federal benefit reimbursement and federal administrative reimbursement payment to a county when the commissioner determines that the county has incorrectly issued benefits or incorrectly denied or terminated benefits. These cases shall be identified by state quality control reviews.

Subd. 4. [DETERMINING THE AMOUNT OF THE QUALITY CONTROL PENALTY.] (a) The amount of the quality control penalty is limited to the amount of the dollar error for the quality control sample month in a reviewed case as determined by the state quality control review procedures for the aid to families with dependent children and food stamp programs or for any other income transfer program for which the commissioner develops a quality control program.

(b) Payment errors in medical assistance or any other medical services program for which the department develops a quality control program are subject to set rate penalties based on the average cost of the specific quality control error element for a sample review month for that household size and status of institutionalization, and as determined from state quality control data in the preceding fiscal year for the corresponding program.

(c) Errors identified in negative action cases, such as incorrect terminations or denials of assistance are subject to set rate penalties based on the average benefit cost of that household size as determined from state quality control data in the preceding fiscal year for the corresponding program.

Subd. 5. [ADMINISTRATIVE PENALTIES.] The department shall disallow or withhold state and federal benefit reimbursement and federal administrative reimbursement from local agencies when the actions performed by the local agency are not in compliance with the written policies and procedures established by the commissioner. The policies and procedures must be previously communicated to the local agency. A local agency shall not be penalized for complying with a written policy or procedure, even if the policy or procedure is found to be erroneous and is subsequently rescinded by the commissioner.

Subd. 6. [DETERMINING THE AMOUNT OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE PENALTY.] The amount of the penalty imposed on any local agency is based on the numbers of public assistance applicants and recipients that may be affected by the local agency's failure to comply with the policies and procedures established by the commissioner, the fiscal impact of the local agency's action, and the duration of the noncompliance as determined by the commissioner. Administrative penalties shall be imposed independent of any quality control case penalties.

Subd. 7. [PROCESS AND EXCEPTION.] (a)(1) The department shall notify the local agency in writing of all proposed case penalties.

(2) The local agency may submit a written exception of the quality control error claim and proposed penalty. The exception must be submitted to the commissioner within ten calendar days of the receipt of the penalty notice.

(3) Within 20 calendar days of receipt of the written exception, the commissioner shall sustain, dismiss, or amend the quality control findings and case penalty and notify the local agency, in writing, of the decision and the amount of any penalty. The commissioner's decision is not subject to judicial review.

(b)(1) The department shall notify the local agency in writing of any proposed administrative penalty, the date by which the local agency shall have corrected the issues noted in the penalty, and the time period within which the local agency must submit a corrective action plan for compliance.

(2) If the local agency fails to submit a corrective action plan within the stated time period, or if the corrective action plan does not bring the agency into compliance as determined by the department, or if the local agency fails to meet the commitments in the corrective action plan, the department shall issue the administrative penalty and notify the local agency in writing.

(3) The local agency may file written exception to the administrative penalty with the commissioner within 30 days of the receipt of the department's notice of issuing the administrative penalty. The local agency must notify the commissioner of its intent to file a written exception within ten days of the delivery of the department's notice of the administrative penalty. If the local agency does not notify the commissioner of its intent to file and file a written exception within the prescribed time periods, the department's initial decision shall be final.

(4) The commissioner shall sustain, dismiss, or amend the administrative penalty findings, and shall issue a written order to the local agency within 30 calendar days after receiving the local agency's written exception.

Subd. 8. [JUDICIAL REVIEW.] A local agency that is aggrieved by the order of the commissioner in an administrative penalty of over $100,000, or 1.5 percent of the total benefit expenditures for the income maintenance programs listed in subdivision 1, for that county, whichever is the lesser amount, may appeal the order to the court of appeals by serving a written copy of a notice of appeal upon the commissioner within 30 days after the date the commissioner issued the administrative penalty order, and by filing the original notice and proof of service with the court administrator of the court of appeals. Service may be made personally or by mail. Service by mail is complete upon mailing. The record of review shall consist of the advance notice of the administrative penalty to the local agency, the local agency corrective action plan if any, the final notice of the administrative penalty, the local agency's written exception to the administrative penalty order, and any other material submitted for the commissioner's consideration, and the commissioner's final written order. The court may affirm the decision of the agency or remand the case for further proceedings, or it may reverse or modify the decision if the substantial rights of the local agency have been prejudiced because the decision is: (1) in excess of the statutory authority or jurisdiction of the agency; (2) unsupported by substantial evidence in view of the entire record as submitted; (3) arbitrary or capricious; or (4) in violation of constitutional provisions.

Subd. 9. [TIMING AND DISPOSITION OF PENALTY AND CASE DISALLOWANCE FUNDS.] Quality control case penalty and administrative penalty amounts shall be disallowed or withheld from the next regular reimbursement made to the county agency for state and federal benefit reimbursements and federal administrative reimbursements for all programs covered in this section, according to procedures established in statute, but shall not be imposed sooner than 30 calendar days from the date of written notice of such penalties. All penalties must be deposited in the county incentive fund as provided for in section 256.017. All penalties must be imposed according to this provision until a decision is made regarding the status of a written exception. Penalties must be returned to local agencies when a review of a written exception results in a decision in their favor.

Subd. 10. [COUNTY OBLIGATION TO MAKE BENEFIT PAYMENTS.] Counties subject to fiscal penalties shall not withhold benefits from eligible recipients of programs listed in subdivision 1 in order to cover the cost of penalties under this section. County funds shall be used to cover the cost of any penalties.

Sec. 3. [256.017] [COUNTY PUBLIC ASSISTANCE INCENTIVE FUND.]

$1,000,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the department in each fiscal year beginning in 1990 for awards to counties: (1) that have not been assessed an administrative penalty under section 256.016 in the corresponding fiscal year; and (2) that perform satisfactorily according to indicators established by the commissioner.

After consultation with local agencies, the commissioner shall inform local agencies in writing of the performance indicators that govern the awarding of the incentive fund for each fiscal year by April of the preceding fiscal year.

The commissioner may set performance indicators to govern the awarding of the total fund, may allocate portions of the fund to be awarded by unique indicators, or may set a sole indicator to govern the awarding of funds.

The funds shall be awarded to qualifying local agencies according to their share of benefits for the programs related to the performance indicators governing the distribution of the fund or part of it as compared to the total benefits of all qualifying local agencies for the programs related to the performance indicators governing the distribution of the fund or part of it.

Effective January 1, 1989, the state rate of participation shall be determined as a percentage that equals the difference between 100 percent and the percentage rate of federal financial participation. Adjustment of any overestimate or underestimate made by any county shall be made upon the direction of the state agency in any succeeding month.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.935, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. On the death of any person receiving public assistance through aid to dependent children, the county agency shall pay an amount for funeral expenses not exceeding $370 and actual cemetery charges. No funeral expenses shall be paid if the estate of the deceased is sufficient to pay such expenses or if the children, or spouse, who were legally responsible for the support of the deceased while living, are able to pay such expenses; provided, that the additional payment or donation of the cost of cemetery lot, interment, religious service, or for the transportation of the body into or out of the community in which the deceased resided, shall not limit payment by the county agency as herein authorized. Freedom of choice in the selection of a funeral director shall be granted to persons lawfully authorized to make arrangements for the burial of any such deceased recipient. In determining the sufficiency of such estate, due regard shall be had for the nature and marketability of the assets of the estate. The county agency may grant funeral expenses where the sale would cause undue loss to the estate. Any amount paid for funeral expenses shall be a prior claim against the estate, as provided in section 524.3-805, and any amount recovered shall be reimbursed to the agency which paid the expenses. For the period from January 1 to June 30, the state shall reimburse the county for 50 percent of any payments made for funeral expenses except as provided for in section 256.016. Subsequent to July 1 of each year the state agency shall reimburse the county agency for the funds expended during the January 1 to June 30 period. For the period from July 1 to December 31, the state shall reimburse the county for 100 percent of any payments made for funeral expenses except as provided for in section 256.016.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.991, is amended to read:

256.991 [RULES.]

The commissioner shall promulgate permanent and emergency rules as necessary to establish the methods and standards for determining inappropriate utilization of medical assistance services.

The commissioner of human services shall adopt emergency rules which meet the requirements of sections 14.29 to 14.36 for the medical assistance demonstration project. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 14.35, the emergency rules promulgated to implement section 256B.69 shall be effective for 360 days and may be continued in effect for an additional 900 days if the commissioner gives notice by publishing a notice in the state register and mailing notice to all persons registered with the commissioner to receive notice of rulemaking proceedings in connection with the project. The emergency rules shall not be effective beyond December 31, 1986, without meeting the requirements of sections 14.13 to 14.20.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.041, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [PAYMENT BY COUNTY TO STATE TREASURER.] If required by federal law or rules promulgated thereunder, or by authorized rule of the state agency, each county shall pay to the state treasurer the portion of medical assistance paid by the state for which it is responsible. ~~The county's share of cost shall be ten percent of that portion not met by federal funds.~~ Effective January 1, 1989, the state rate of participation shall be determined as a percentage that equals the difference between 100 percent and the percentage rate of federal financial participation.

For the period from January 1 to June 30, the county shall advance its ~~portion~~ ten percent of that portion of medical assistance costs not met by federal funds, based upon estimates submitted by the state agency to the county agency, stating the estimated expenditures for the succeeding month. Upon the direction of the county agency, payment shall be made monthly by the county to the state for the estimated expenditures for each month. Adjustment of any overestimate or underestimate based on actual expenditures shall be made by the state agency by adjusting the estimate for any succeeding month. Subsequent to July 1 of each year the state agency shall reimburse the county agency for the funds expended during the January 1 to June 30 period, except as provided for in section 256.016. For the period from July 1 to December 31 payments will be made by the state agency except as provided for in section 256.016 and the county agency will be advised of the amounts paid monthly.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.041, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. Federal funds available for administrative purposes shall be distributed between the state and the county on the same basis that reimbursements are earned except as provided for under section 256.016.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.05, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The county agencies shall administer medical assistance in their respective counties under the supervision of the state agency and the commissioner of human services as specified in section 256.01, and shall make such reports, prepare such statistics, and keep such records and accounts in relation to medical assistance as the state agency may require.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256B.091, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [ALTERNATIVE CARE GRANTS.] The commissioner shall provide grants to counties participating in the program to pay costs of providing alternative care to individuals screened under subdivision 4 and nursing home or boarding care home residents who request a screening. Prior to July of each year, the commissioner shall allocate state funds available for alternative care grants to each local agency. This allocation must be made as follows: half of the state funds available for alternative care grants must be allocated to each county according to the total number of adults in that county who are recipients age 65 or older who are reported to the department by March 1 of each state fiscal year and half of the state funds available for alternative care grants must be allocated to a county according to that county's number of Medicare enrollments age 65 or older for the most recent statistical report. Payment is available under this subdivision only for individuals (1) for whom the screening team would recommend nursing home or boarding care home admission, or continued stay if alternative care were not available; (2) who are receiving medical assistance or who would be eligible for medical assistance within 180 days of admission to a nursing home; (3) who need services that are not available at that time in the county through other public assistance; and (4) who are age 65 or older.

The commissioner shall establish by rule, in accordance with chapter 14, procedures for determining grant reallocations, limits on the rates for payment of approved services, including screenings, and submittal and approval of a biennial county plan for the administration of the preadmission screening and alternative care grants program. Grants may be used for payment of costs of providing care-related supplies, equipment, and services such as, but not limited to, foster care for elderly persons, day care whether or not offered through a nursing home, nutritional counseling, or medical social services, which services are provided by a licensed health care provider, a home health service eligible for reimbursement under Titles XVIII and XIX of the federal Social Security Act, or by persons employed by or contracted with by the county board or the local welfare agency. The county agency shall ensure that a plan of care is established for each individual in accordance with subdivision 3, clause (e)(2), and that a client's service needs and eligibility is reassessed at least every six months. The plan shall include any services prescribed by the individual's attending physician as necessary and follow up services as necessary. The county agency shall provide documentation to the commissioner verifying that the individual's alternative care is not available at that time through any other public assistance or service program and shall provide documentation in each individual's plan of care and to the commissioner that the most cost-effective alternatives available have been offered to the individual and that the individual was free to choose among available qualified providers, both public and private. The county agency shall document to the commissioner that the agency made reasonable efforts to inform potential providers of the anticipated need for services under the alternative care grants program, including a minimum of 14 days written advance notice of the opportunity to be selected as a service provider and an annual public meeting with providers to explain and review the criteria for selection, and that the agency allowed potential providers an opportunity to be selected to contract with the county board. Grants to counties under this subdivision are subject to audit by the commissioner for fiscal and utilization control.

The county must select providers for contracts or agreements using the following criteria and other criteria established by the county:

- (1) the need for the particular services offered by the provider;
- (2) the population to be served, including the number of clients, the length of time services will be provided, and the medical condition of clients;
- (3) the geographic area to be served;
- (4) quality assurance methods, including appropriate licensure, certification, or standards, and supervision of employees when needed;
- (5) rates for each service and unit of service exclusive of county administrative costs;
- (6) evaluation of services previously delivered by the provider; and
- (7) contract or agreement conditions, including billing requirements, cancellation, and indemnification.

The county must evaluate its own agency services under the criteria established for other providers. The county shall provide a written statement of the reasons for not selecting providers.

The commissioner shall establish a sliding fee schedule for requiring payment for the cost of providing services under this subdivision to persons who are eligible for the services but who are not yet eligible for medical assistance. The sliding fee schedule is not subject to chapter 14 but the commissioner shall publish the schedule and any later changes in the State Register and allow a period of 20 working days from the publication date for interested persons to comment before adopting the sliding fee schedule in final forms.

The commissioner shall apply for a waiver for federal financial participation to expand the availability of services under this subdivision. The commissioner shall provide grants to counties from the nonfederal share, unless the commissioner obtains a federal waiver for medical assistance payments, of medical assistance appropriations. A county agency may use grant money to supplement but not supplant services available through other public assistance or service programs and shall not use grant money to establish new programs for which public money is available through sources other than grants provided under this subdivision. A county agency shall not use grant money to provide care under this subdivision to an individual if the anticipated cost of providing this care would exceed the average payment, as determined by the commissioner, for the level of care that the recipient would receive if placed in a nursing home or boarding care home. For the period from January 1 to June 30 the nonfederal share may be used to pay up to 90 percent of the start-up and service delivery costs of providing care under this subdivision. Each county agency that receives a grant shall pay ten percent of the costs for persons who are eligible for the services but who are not yet eligible for medical assistance. Subsequent to July 1 of each year the state agency shall reimburse the county agency for the funds expended during the January 1 to June 30 period except as provided for in section 256.016. For the period from July 1 to December 31 the nonfederal share may be used to pay up to 100 percent of the start-up and service delivery costs of providing care under this subdivision.

The commissioner shall promulgate emergency rules in accordance with sections 14.29 to 14.36, to establish required documentation and reporting of care delivered.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256B.15, is amended to read:

256B.15 [CLAIMS AGAINST ESTATES.]

If a person receives any medical assistance hereunder, on the person's death, if single, or on the death of the survivor of a married couple, either or both of whom received medical assistance, and only when there is no surviving child who is under 21 or is blind or totally disabled, the total amount paid for medical assistance rendered for the person and spouse, after age 65, without interest, shall be filed as a claim against the estate of the person or the estate of the surviving spouse in the court having jurisdiction to probate the estate. A claim against the estate of a surviving spouse who did not receive medical assistance, for medical assistance rendered for the predeceased spouse, is limited to the value of the assets of the estate that were marital property or jointly-owned property at any time during the marriage. The claim shall be considered an expense of the last illness of the decedent for the purpose of section 524.3-805. Any statute of limitations that purports to limit any county agency or the state agency, or both, to recover for medical assistance granted hereunder shall not apply to any claim made hereunder for reimbursement for any medical assistance granted hereunder. Counties ~~may retain~~ are entitled to one-half of the nonfederal share of medical assistance collections from estates that are directly attributable to county effort.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256B.19, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DIVISION OF COST.] The cost of medical assistance paid by each county of financial responsibility shall be borne as follows: For the period from January 1 to June 30, payments shall be made by the state to the county for that portion of medical assistance paid by the federal government and the state on or before the 20th day of each month for the succeeding month upon requisition from the county showing the amount required for the succeeding month. Ninety percent of the expense of assistance not paid by federal funds available for that purpose shall be paid by the state and ten percent shall be paid by the county of financial responsibility except as provided for in section 256.016.

For the period from January 1 to June 30, for counties that participate in a Medicaid demonstration project under sections 256B.69 and 256B.71, the division of the nonfederal share of medical assistance expenses for payments made to prepaid health plans or for payments made to health maintenance organizations in the form of prepaid capitation payments, this division of medical assistance expenses shall be 95 percent by the state and five percent by the county of financial responsibility. Subsequent to July 1 of each year the state agency shall reimburse the county agency for the funds expended during the January 1 to June 30 period except as provided for in section 256.016.

For the period from July 1 to December 31, except as provided for in section 256.016, payments shall be made by the state to the county for that portion of medical assistance paid by the federal government and the state on or before the 20th day of each month for the succeeding month upon requisition from the county showing the amount required for the succeeding month. The expense of assistance not paid by federal funds available for that purpose shall be paid by the state.

In counties where prepaid health plans are under contract to the commissioner to provide services to medical assistance recipients, the cost of court ordered treatment ordered without consulting the prepaid health plan that does not include diagnostic evaluation, recommendation, and referral for treatment by the prepaid health plan is the responsibility of the county of financial responsibility.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256B.19, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. For the period from January 1 to June 30, state aid shall be paid to local agencies for 75 percent of all general assistance and work readiness grants up to the standards of sections 256D.01, subdivision 1a, and 256D.051, and according to procedures established by the commissioner, except as provided for under section 256.016. Subsequent to July 1 of each year, the state agency shall reimburse the county agency for the funds expended during the January 1 to June 30 period except as provided for in section 256.016.

After December 31, ~~1986~~ 1988, state aid must be paid to local agencies for 65 percent of work readiness assistance paid under section 256D.051 if the county does not have an approved and operating community investment program.

Any local agency may, from its own resources, make payments of general assistance: (a) at a standard higher than that established by the commissioner without reference to the standards of section 256D.01, subdivision 1; or, (b) to persons not meeting the eligibility standards set forth in section 256D.05, subdivision 1, but for whom the aid would further the purposes established in the general assistance program in accordance with rules promulgated by the commissioner pursuant to the administrative procedure act.

Subd. 6. In counties where prepaid health plans are under contract to the commissioner to provide services to general assistance medical care recipients, the cost of court ordered treatment that does not include diagnostic evaluation, recommendation, or referral for treatment by the prepaid health plan is the responsibility of the county of financial responsibility.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.04, is amended to read:
256D.04 [DUTIES OF THE COMMISSIONER.]

(7) Gather and study current information and report at least annually to the governor and legislature on the nature and need for general assistance and general assistance medical care, the amounts expended under the supervision of each local agency, and the activities of each local agency and publish such reports for the information of the public.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256D.36, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Commencing January 1, 1974, the commissioner shall certify to each local agency the names of all county residents who were eligible for and did receive aid during December, 1973 pursuant to a categorical aid program of old age assistance, aid to the blind, or aid to the disabled. ~~From and after January 1, 1980, until January 1, 1981, For the period from January 1 to June 30, the state shall pay 70~~ 85 percent and the county shall pay ~~30~~ 15 percent of the supplemental aid calculated for

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256G.01, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PROGRAM COVERAGE.] This chapter applies to all programs administered by the commissioner in which residence is the determining factor in establishing financial responsibility. These include, but are not limited to: ~~aid to families with dependent children; medical assistance; general assistance; general assistance medical care; Minnesota supplemental aid;~~ commitment proceedings, including voluntary admissions; poor relief funded wholly through local agencies; and social services, including title XX, IV-E and other components of the community social services act, sections 256E.01 to 256E.12. It also applies to service responsibility in the income maintenance and health care programs administered by the commissioner.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256G.02, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [COUNTY OF FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY.] (a) "County of financial responsibility" has the meanings in paragraphs (b) to ~~(h)~~ (e).

(b) For an applicant who resides in the state and is not in a facility described in subdivision 5, it means the county in which the applicant resides at the time of application.

(c) For an applicant who resides in a facility described in subdivision 5, it means the county in which the applicant last resided in nonexcluded status immediately before entering the facility.

(d) For an applicant who has not resided in this state for any time other than the excluded time, it means the county in which the applicant resides at the time of making application.

~~(e) For medical assistance purposes only, and for an infant who has resided only in an excluded time facility, it means the county that would have been responsible for the infant if eligibility had been established, based on that of the birth mother, at the time of application.~~

~~(f) Notwithstanding paragraphs (b) to (d), the county of financial responsibility for medical assistance recipients is the county from which a recipient is receiving a maintenance grant or money payment under the program of aid to families with dependent children or Minnesota supplemental aid.~~

~~(g) Notwithstanding paragraphs (b) to (f), the county of financial responsibility for social services for a person receiving aid to families with dependent children, general assistance, general assistance medical care, medical~~

assistance, or Minnesota supplemental aid is the county from which that person is receiving the aid or assistance. If more than one named program is open concurrently, financial responsibility for social services attaches to the program that has the earliest date of application and has been open without interruption.

(h) (f) Notwithstanding paragraphs (b) to (g) (e), the county of financial responsibility for semi-independent living services provided under section 252.275, and Minnesota Rules, parts 9525.0500 to 9525.0660, is the county of residence in nonexcluded status immediately before the placement into or request for those services.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256G.04, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TIME OF DETERMINATION.] For purposes of establishing financial responsibility, residence must be determined as of the date a local agency receives a signed request or signed application or the date of eligibility, whichever is later. This subdivision extends to cases in which the applicant may move to another county after the date of application but before the grant or service is actually approved.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256G.05, is amended to read:

256G.05 [RESPONSIBILITY FOR EMERGENCIES.]

Subdivision 1. [RESIDENCE NOT A TEST.] In situations involving emergencies verified by a local agency, financial responsibility for aid to families with dependent children, general assistance, and Minnesota supplemental aid rests with the county in which an otherwise eligible person is physically present when the application is filed. The county of residence is not obligated to reimburse. Financial responsibility is limited to 30 days unless otherwise specified in the context of the affected program.

Subd. 2. [NON-MINNESOTA RESIDENTS.]

State residence is not required for receiving emergency assistance in the general assistance and Minnesota supplemental aid programs only. The receipt of emergency assistance must not be used as a factor in determining county or state residence.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256G.07, is amended to read:

256G.07 [MOVING TO ANOTHER COUNTY.]

Subdivision 1. [EFFECT OF MOVING.] Except as provided in subdivision 4, a person who has applied for and is receiving assistance services under a program governed by this chapter, in any county in this state, and who moves to another county in this state, is entitled to continue to receive that assistance from the county from which that person has moved until that person has resided in nonexcluded status for two full calendar months in the county to which that person has moved.

For purposes of general assistance and general assistance medical care, this time period is, however, one full calendar month.

Subd. 2. [TRANSFER OF RECORDS.] Before the person has resided in nonexcluded status for two calendar months, or one calendar month in the case of general assistance or general assistance medical care, in the county to which that person has moved, the local agency of the county from which the person has moved shall transfer all necessary records relating to that person to the local agency of the county to which the person has moved.

Subd. 3. [CONTINUATION OF CASE.] When the case is terminated for 30 days or less before the recipient reapplies, that case remains the financial responsibility of the county from which the recipient moved until the residence requirement in subdivision 1 is met.

Subd. 4. [MULTIPLE FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY.] ~~When more than one county becomes financially responsible for a case involving a single assistance unit, under a program covered by this chapter, that case must be immediately reconsidered by the affected local agencies. Beginning with the first day of the calendar month after that reconsideration, financial responsibility for the entire assistance unit belongs to the county that was initially responsible for the program with the earliest date of application.~~

Subd. 5. [SOCIAL SERVICE PROVISION.] The types and level of social services to be provided in any case governed by this chapter are those otherwise provided in the county in which the person is physically residing at the time those services are provided.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256G.10, is amended to read:

256G.10 [DERIVATIVE SETTLEMENT ELIMINATED.]

~~Except as described in section 256G.02, subdivision 4, paragraph (d),~~ Residence under this chapter must be determined independently for each applicant. The residence of the parent or guardian does not determine the residence of the child or ward. Physical or legal custody has no bearing on residence determinations. This section does not, however, apply to situations involving another state or limit the application of an interstate compact.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256G.11, is amended to read:

256G.11 [NO RETROACTIVE EFFECT.]

This chapter is ~~not retroactive and~~ does not require the retroactive re-determination of financial responsibility for cases existing on January 1, 1988. This chapter applies only to applications and redeterminations of eligibility taken or routinely made after January 1, 1988.

~~Notwithstanding this section, however, existing social service cases tie to cases for those programs outlined in section 256G.02, subdivision 4, paragraph (g), for which an application is taken or a redetermination is made after January 1, 1988.~~

Sec. 29. [256.018] [RECOVERY OF MONEY; APPORTIONMENT.]

When an amount is recovered from any source for assistance given under the provisions governing public assistance programs including aid to families with dependent children, emergency assistance, general assistance, work readiness, and Minnesota supplemental aid, there shall be paid to the United States the amount due under the terms of the Social Security Act and the balance must be paid into the treasury of the state or county in accordance with current rates of financial participation; except if the recovery is directly attributable to county effort, the county may keep one-half of the nonfederal share of the recovery. This does not apply to recoveries from medical providers or to recoveries begun by the department of human services' surveillance and utilization review division, state hospital collections unit, and the benefit recoveries division or, by the attorney general's office, or child support collections.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 393.07, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ADMINISTRATION OF PUBLIC WELFARE.] The county welfare board, subject to the supervision of the commissioner of human services, shall administer all forms of public welfare, both for children and adults, responsibility for which now or hereafter may be imposed on the commissioner of human services by law, including general assistance, aid to dependent children, county supplementation, if any, or state aid to recipients of supplemental security income for aged, blind and disabled, child welfare services, mental health services, and other public assistance or public welfare services, provided that the county welfare board shall not employ public health nursing or home health service personnel other than homemaker-home help aides, but shall contract for or purchase the necessary services from existing community agencies. The duties of the county welfare board shall be performed in accordance with the standards and rules which may be promulgated by the commissioner of human services to achieve the purposes intended by law and in order to comply with the requirements of the federal Social Security Act in respect to public assistance and child welfare services, so that the state may qualify for grants-in-aid available under that act. To avoid administrative penalties under section 256.016, the county welfare board must comply with (1) policies established by state law and (2) instructions from the commissioner relating (i) to public assistance program policies consistent with federal law and regulation and state law and rule and (ii) to local agency program operations. The commissioner may enforce county welfare board compliance with the instructions, and may delay, withhold, or deny payment of all or part of the state and federal share of benefits and federal administrative reimbursement, according to the provisions under section 256.016. The county welfare board shall supervise wards of the commissioner and, when so designated, act as agent of the commissioner of human services in the placement of the commissioner's wards in adoptive homes or in other foster care facilities. The county welfare board may contract with a bank or other financial institution to provide services associated with the processing of public assistance checks and pay a service fee for these services, provided the fee charged does not exceed the fee charged to other customers of the institution for similar services.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 393.07, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [FEDERAL FOOD STAMP PROGRAM.] (a) The county welfare board shall establish and administer the food stamp program pursuant to rules of the commissioner of human services, the supervision of the commissioner as specified in section 256.01, and all federal laws and regulations. The commissioner of human services shall monitor food stamp program delivery on an ongoing basis to ensure that each county complies with federal laws and regulations. Program requirements to be monitored include, but are not limited to, number of applications, number of approvals, number of cases pending, length of time required to process each application and deliver benefits, number of applicants eligible for expedited issuance, length of time required to process and deliver expedited issuance, number of terminations and reasons for terminations, client profiles by age, household composition and income level and sources, and the use of phone certification and home visits. The commissioner shall determine the county-by-county and statewide participation rate. The commissioner shall report on the monitoring activities on a county-by-county basis in a report presented to the legislature by July 1 each year. This monitoring activity shall be separate from the management evaluation survey sample required under federal regulations.

(b) On July 1 of each year, the commissioner of human services shall determine a statewide and county-by-county food stamp program participation rate. The unpaid tax and penalty shall bear interest at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the time such tax should have been paid until paid. All interest and penalties shall be added to the tax and collected as a part thereof.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 273.112, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Real estate shall be entitled to valuation and tax deferment under this section only if it is:

The credit is equal to 50 percent of the property tax amount which is in excess of three percent of market value. Only the first $120,000 of market value of a qualifying parcel and the taxes attributable to the first $120,000 of market value are eligible for the computation of this credit. Only a parcel that qualifies for the 28 percent assessment ratio contained in section 273.13, subdivision 24, paragraph (a), qualifies for the credit provided in this section. Only the market value and property tax attributable to the part of the parcel that is class 3a must be used in computing the credit provided in this section.

~~In the case of taxes paid in installments pursuant to section 279.01, subdivision 1, the credit under this section must be deducted from the second one-half installment payable October 15. The amount of the reduction must be reported to the commissioner of revenue as part of the abstracts of tax lists required to be filed with the commissioner under section 275.29.~~

There is annually appropriated from the general fund to the commissioners of revenue and education the amount necessary to replace the revenue lost to local units of government and school districts as a result of the reduction in property taxes provided in this section. The notice shall be in writing and shall be sent by ordinary mail at least ten days before the meeting of the local board of review or equalization. It shall contain the amount of the valuation in terms of market value, the new classification, the assessor's office address, and the dates, places, and times set for the meetings of the local board of review or equalization and the county board of equalization. If the assessment roll is not complete, the notice shall be sent by ordinary mail at least ten days prior to the date on which the board of review has adjourned. The assessor shall attach to the assessment roll a statement that the notices required by this section have been mailed. Any assessor who is not provided sufficient funds from the assessor's governing body to provide such notices, may make application to the commissioner of revenue to finance such notices. The commissioner of revenue shall conduct an investigation and, if satisfied that the assessor does not have the necessary funds, issue a certification to the commissioner of finance of the amount necessary to provide such notices. The commissioner of finance shall issue a warrant for such amount and shall deduct such amount from any state payment to such county or municipality. The necessary funds to make such payments are hereby appropriated. Failure to receive the notice shall in no way affect the validity of the assessment, the resulting tax, the procedures of any board of review or equalization, or the enforcement of delinquent taxes by statutory means.

In order to receive homestead treatment for the noncontiguous property, the owner shall apply for it to the assessor by July 1 of the year when the treatment is initially sought. After initial qualification for the homestead treatment, additional applications for subsequent years are not required.

In the case of property owned by a married couple in joint tenancy or tenancy in common, the assessor must not deny homestead treatment in whole or in part if only one of the spouses is occupying the property and the other spouse is absent due to divorce or separation or is a resident of a nursing home or a boarding care facility.

If an individual is purchasing property with the intent of claiming it as a homestead, and is required by the terms of the financing agreement to have one or both parents shown on the deed as coowners, the assessor shall allow a full homestead classification and extend full homestead credit. The application for homestead benefits must be on a form prescribed by

The citation shall be delivered for service to the sheriff of the county where such person may at the time reside or be. If such person, after service of the citation, fails to pay such tax, penalty, and costs to the sheriff before the first day of the term, or on such day to show cause as aforesaid, the court shall direct judgment against the person for the amount of such tax, penalty, and costs. When unable to serve the citation, the sheriff shall return the same to the court administrator, with a return thereto to that effect, and thereupon, or if the court decides that the service of such citation made or attempted to be made, or the issuance thereof by the court administrator, was illegal, the court administrator shall issue another like citation, requiring such delinquent to appear on the first day of the next general term to be held in the county, and show cause as aforesaid, and if the delinquent fails to pay or to show cause, the court shall direct judgment as aforesaid. Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 279.01, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Except as provided in subdivision 3, on May 16, of each year, with respect to property actually occupied and used as a homestead by the owner of the property, a penalty of three percent shall accrue and thereafter be charged upon all unpaid taxes on real estate on the current lists in the hands of the county treasurer, and a penalty of seven percent on nonhomestead property, except that this penalty shall not accrue until June 1 of each year on commercial use real property used for seasonal residential recreational purposes and classified as class 4d or 4c, and on other commercial use real property classified as class 3a, provided that over 60 percent of the gross income earned by the enterprise on the class 3a property is earned during the months of May, June, July, and August. Any property owner of such class 3a property who pays the first half of the tax due on the property after May 15 and before June 1 shall attach an affidavit to the payment attesting to compliance with the income provision of this subdivision. Thereafter, for both homestead and nonhomestead property, on the ~~16th~~ first day of each month, up to and including October ~~16~~ 1 following, an additional penalty of one percent for each month shall accrue and be charged on all such unpaid taxes. When the taxes against any tract or lot exceed $50, one-half thereof may be paid prior to May 16; and, if so paid, no penalty shall attach; the remaining one-half shall be paid at any time prior to October 16 following, without penalty; but, if not so paid, then a penalty of four percent shall accrue thereon for homestead property and a penalty of four percent on nonhomestead property. Thereafter, for homestead property, on the 16th day of each month up to and including December 16 first day of November and December following, an additional penalty of two percent for each month shall accrue and be charged on all such unpaid taxes. A county may provide by resolution that in the case of a property owner that has multiple tracts or parcels with aggregate taxes exceeding $50, payments may be made in installments as provided in this subdivision.

The county treasurer may accept payments of more or less than the exact amount of a tax installment due. If the accepted payment is less than the amount due, payments must be applied first to the penalty accrued for the year the payment is made. Acceptance of partial payment of tax does not constitute a waiver of the minimum payment required as a condition for filing an appeal under section 278.03 or any other law, nor does it affect the order of payment of delinquent taxes under section 280.39.

Subd. 3. In the case of class 1b agricultural homestead, class 2a agricultural homestead property, and class 2c agricultural nonhomestead property, no penalties shall attach to the second one-half property tax payment as provided in this section if paid by November 15. Thereafter for class 1b agricultural homestead and class 2a homestead property, on November 16 following, a penalty of six percent shall accrue and be charged on all such unpaid taxes and on December 16 1 following, an additional two percent shall be charged on all such unpaid taxes. Thereafter for class 2c agricultural nonhomestead property, on November 16 following, a penalty of eight percent shall accrue and be charged on all such unpaid taxes and on December 16 1 following, an additional four percent shall be charged on all such unpaid taxes.

If the owner of class 1b agricultural homestead, class 2a, or class 2c agricultural property receives a consolidated property tax statement that shows only an aggregate of the taxes and special assessments due on that property and on other property not classified as class 1b agricultural homestead, class 2a, or class 2c agricultural property, the aggregate tax and special assessments shown due on the property by the consolidated statement will be due on November 15 provided that at least 50 percent of the property's market value is classified class 1b agricultural, class 2a, or class 2c agricultural.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 375.192, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Notwithstanding section 270.07, upon written application by the owner of the property, the county board may grant a reduction, for the current year, of the assessed valuation of any real property in that county which erroneously has been classified, for tax purposes, as non-homestead property, as is necessary to give it the assessed valuation which it would have received if it had been classified correctly. The application shall be made on a form prescribed by the commissioner of revenue. It shall include the social security number of the applicant and a statement of facts of ownership and occupancy. The social security number of the property owner is private data on individuals as defined by section 13.02, subdivision 12. It shall be sworn to by the owner of the property before an officer authorized to take acknowledgments. Before it is acted upon by the county board, the application shall be referred to the county assessor, or if the property is located in a city of the first class having a city assessor, to the city assessor, who shall investigate the facts and attach a report of the investigation to the application.

With respect to abatements relating to the current year's tax processed through June 30, the county auditor shall notify the commissioner of revenue on or before July 31 of that same year of all applications granted pursuant to this subdivision. With respect to abatements relating to the current year's tax processed after June 30 through the balance of the year, the county auditor shall notify the commissioner of revenue on or before the following January 31 of all applications granted pursuant to this subdivision. The commissioner of revenue shall make the payments of local government aid to affected taxing authorities in two installments on July 15 and December 15 annually.

The commissioner may pay all or part of the payment due on December 15 at any time after August 15 upon the request of a city that requests such payment as being necessary for meeting its cash flow needs.

Sec. 20. [ADJUSTMENT FOR CREDITS.]

A county auditor may make a final certification of prior year adjustments not previously claimed for wetlands credit and reimbursement, native prairie credit and reimbursement, small business credit, and the residential homestead credit and the agricultural school credit in the 1989 abstract of tax lists. The commissioner of revenue shall review such certifications to determine their accuracy and make changes as are deemed necessary. After they have been reviewed, the commissioner shall include these prior year adjustments in the 1989 aid payments.

An action of the board of assessors in refusing to grant or renew a license or in suspending or revoking a license is subject to review in accordance with chapter 14.

270.485 [SENIOR ACCREDITATION.]

They shall be selected and appointed because of their knowledge and training in the field of property taxation. All town and statutory city assessors shall be appointed for indefinite terms. The term of the town or city assessors may be terminated at any time by the town board or city council on charges by the commissioner of revenue of inefficiency or neglect of duty. Vacancies in the office of town or city assessor shall be filled within 90 days by appointment of the respective appointing authority indicated above. If the vacancy is not filled within 90 days, the office shall be terminated. When a vacancy in the office of town or city assessor is not filled by appointment, and it is imperative that the office of assessor be filled, the county auditor shall appoint some resident of the county as assessor for such town or city. The county auditor may appoint the county assessor as assessor for such town or city, in which case the town or city shall pay to the county treasurer the amount determined by the county auditor to be due for the services performed and expenses

Upon receipt by the county commissioners of the commissioner of revenue's refusal to approve an appointment, the term of the appointee shall terminate at the end of that day. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, a county assessor must have senior accreditation from the state board of assessors by ~~January 1, 1989~~ June 30, 1990, or within one year of the assessor's first appointment under this section, whichever is later.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 273.061, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [TERM; VACANCY.] (a) The terms of county assessors appointed under this section shall be four years. A new term shall begin on January 1 of every fourth year after 1973. When any vacancy in the office occurs, the board of county commissioners, within 30 days thereafter, shall fill the same by appointment for the remainder of the term, following the procedure prescribed in subdivision 1. The term of the county assessor may be terminated by the board of county commissioners at any time, on charges of inefficiency or neglect of duty by the commissioner of revenue. If the board of county commissioners does not intend to reappoint a county assessor who has been certified by the state board of assessors, the board shall present written notice to the county assessor not later than 90 days prior to the termination of the assessor's term, that it does not intend to reappoint the assessor. Such 30-day period may, however, be extended by written approval of the commissioner of revenue.

(c) In the case of the first appointment under paragraph (a) of a county assessor who does not have senior accreditation, an approval of the appointment by the commissioner shall be for a term of one year. The commissioner shall not approve the appointment for the remainder of the four-year term unless the assessor has obtained senior accreditation.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 274.01, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ORDINARY BOARD; MEETINGS, DEADLINES, GRIEVANCES.] (a) The town board of a town, or the council or other governing body of a city, is the board of review except in cities whose charters provide for a board of equalization. The county assessor shall fix a day and time when the board or the board of equalization shall meet in the assessment districts of the county. On or before February 15 of each year the assessor shall give written notice of the time to the city or town clerk. Notwithstanding the provisions of any charter to the contrary, the meetings must be held between April 1 and May 31 each year. The clerk shall give published and posted notice of the meeting at least ten days before the date of the meeting. The board shall meet at the office of the clerk to review the assessment and classification of property in the town or city. No changes in valuation may be made by the county assessor after the board of review or the county board of equalization has adjourned.

(b) The board shall determine whether the taxable property in the town or city has been properly placed on the list and properly valued by the assessor. If real or personal property has been omitted, the board shall place it on the list with its market value, and correct the assessment so that each tract or lot of real property, and each article, parcel, or class of personal property, is entered on the assessment list at its market value. No assessment of the property of any person may be raised unless the person has been duly notified of the intent of the board to do so. On application of any person feeling aggrieved, the board shall review the assessment or classification, or both, and correct it as appears just.

(c) A local board of review may reduce assessments upon petition of the taxpayer but the total reductions must not reduce the aggregate assessment made by the county assessor by more than one percent. If the total reductions would lower the aggregate assessments made by the county assessor by more than one percent, none of the adjustments may be made. The assessor shall correct any clerical errors or double assessments discovered by the board of review without regard to the one percent limitation.

(d) A majority of the members may act at the meeting, and adjourn from day to day until they finish hearing the cases presented. The assessor shall attend, with the assessment books and papers, and take part in the proceedings, but must not vote. The county assessor, or an assistant delegated by the county assessor shall attend the meetings. The board shall list separately, on a form appended to the assessment book, all omitted property added to the list by the board and all items of property increased or decreased, with the market value of each item of property, added or changed by the board, placed opposite the item. The county assessor shall enter all changes made by the board in the assessment book.

(e) If a person fails to appear in person, by counsel, or by written communication before the board after being duly notified of the board's intent to raise the assessment of the property, or if a person feeling aggrieved by an assessment or classification fails to apply for a review of the assessment or classification, the person may not appear before the county board of equalization for a review of the assessment or classification. This paragraph does not apply if an assessment was made after the board meeting, as provided in section 273.01, or if the person can establish not having received notice of market value at least five days before the local board of review meeting.

(f) The board of review or the board of equalization must complete its work and adjourn within 20 days from the time of convening stated in the notice of the clerk, unless a longer period is approved by the commissioner of revenue. No action taken after that date is valid. All complaints about an assessment or classification made after the meeting of the board must be heard and determined by the county board of equalization. A nonresident may, at any time, before the meeting of the board of review file written objections to an assessment or classification with the county assessor. The objections must be presented to the board of review at its meeting by the county assessor for its consideration.

Subd. 18. [DEAL.] "Deal" means each separate package, or series of packages, consisting of one game of pull-tabs or tipboards with the same serial number ~~purchased from a distributor.~~

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 349.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 19. [IDEAL GROSS.] "Ideal gross" means the total amount of receipts that would be received if every individual ticket in the pull-tab or tipboard deal were sold at its face value.

Subd. 20. [IDEAL NET.] "Ideal net" means the pull-tab or tipboard deal's ideal gross, as defined under subdivision 19, less the total predetermined prize amounts available to be paid out. When the prize is not a monetary one, the ideal net is 50 percent of the ideal gross.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 349.212, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [RATE.] There is hereby imposed a tax on all lawful gambling, other than (1) pull-tabs purchased and placed into inventory after January 1, 1987, and (2) tipboards purchased and placed into inventory after June 30, 1988, conducted by organizations licensed by the board at the rate specified in this subdivision. The tax imposed by this subdivision is in lieu of the tax imposed by section 297A.02 and all local taxes and license fees except a fee authorized under section 349.16, subdivision 4.

On all lawful gambling, other than (1) pull-tabs purchased and placed into inventory after January 1, 1987, and (2) tipboards purchased and placed into inventory after June 30, 1988, the tax is ten percent of the gross receipts of a licensed organization from lawful gambling less prizes actually paid out, payable by the organization.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 349.212, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PULL-TAB AND TIPBOARD TAX.] (a) There is imposed a tax on the sale of each deal of pull-tabs and tipboards sold by a licensed distributor to a licensed organization, or to an organization holding an exemption identification number. The rate of the tax is ten percent of the face resale value of all the pull-tabs in each deal less the total prizes which may be paid out on all the pull-tabs in that ideal net of the pull-tab and tipboard deal. The tax is payable to the commissioner of revenue in the manner prescribed in section 349.2121 and the rules of the commissioner. The commissioner shall pay the proceeds of the tax to the state treasurer for deposit in the general fund. The sales tax imposed by chapter 297A on the sale of the pull-tabs and tipboards by the licensed distributor to an organization is imposed on the retail sales price less the tax imposed by this subdivision. The retail sale of pull-tabs or tipboards by the organization is exempt from taxes imposed by chapter 297A if the tax imposed by this subdivision has been paid and is exempt from all local taxes and license fees except a fee authorized under section 349.16, subdivision 4.

If a licensed organization or any organization holding an exemption number receives pull-tabs directly from the manufacturer and the manufacturer is not a licensed distributor, the distributor from whom the pull-tabs were purchased is liable for tax when the manufacturer delivers the pull-tabs to the organization, or to a contract or common carrier for delivery to the organization, or when the pull-tabs are received by the organization's authorized representative at the manufacturer's place of business, regardless of the manufacturer's or the distributor's method of accounting or the terms of the sale.

(c) The exemptions contained in section 349.214, subdivision 2, paragraph (b), do not apply to the tax imposed in this subdivision.

[RECORDS.] ~~The commissioner may by rule require a licensed distributor holding a permit under this section to keep such books, papers, documents, and records as the commissioner deems necessary to the enforcement of this chapter. The commissioner may examine, or cause to be examined, any books, papers, records, or other documents relevant to making a determination, whether they are in the possession of a distributor or another person or corporation. The commissioner may require the attendance of any persons having knowledge or information in the premises, to compel the production of books, papers, records, or memoranda by persons so required to attend, to take testimony on matters material to a determination, and to administer oaths or affirmations. A distributor shall keep at each licensed place of business complete and accurate records for that place of business, including itemized invoices of pull-tabs and tipboards held, purchased, manufactured, or brought in or caused to be brought in from without this state, and of all sales of pull-tabs and tipboards. The records must show the names and addresses of purchasers, the inventory at the close of each period for which a return is required of all pull-tab and tipboard deals on hand, and other pertinent papers and documents relating to the purchase, sale, or disposition of pull-tab and tipboard deals. Books, records, and other papers and documents required by this section must be kept for a period of at least three and one-half years after the date of the documents, or the date of the entries appearing in the records, unless the commissioner authorizes in writing their destruction or disposal at an earlier date. At any time during usual business hours, the commissioner, executive secretary of the charitable gambling control board, or any of their duly authorized agents or employees, may enter a place of business of a distributor, charitable organization, or any site from which pull-tabs or tipboards are being sold, without a search warrant, and inspect the premises and the records required to be kept under this section to determine whether there is full compliance with the provisions of this section. If the commissioner, executive secretary, or their duly authorized agents or employees are denied free access to or are hindered or interfered with in making an inspection of the distributor's place of business, the permit of the distributor may be revoked by the commissioner,~~

The certification must be in a form prescribed by the commissioner and must contain additional information the commissioner requires.

The commissioner may require that no refund under this subdivision be made unless the returned pull-tabs or tipboards have been set aside for inspection by the commissioner's employee.

Reductions in previously paid taxes authorized by this subdivision shall be made at the time and in the manner prescribed by the commissioner.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 349.2121, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. Nothing herein prohibits the commissioner from publishing statistics so classified as not to disclose the identity of particular returns or reports and their contents. Any person violating the provisions of this section is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the commissioner may furnish information on a reciprocal basis to the taxing officials of another state or the board in order to implement the purposes of this chapter.

In order to facilitate processing of returns and payments of taxes required by this chapter, the commissioner may contract with outside vendors and may disclose private and nonpublic data to the vendor. The data disclosed must be administered by the vendor consistent with this section. All records concerning the administration of the pull-tab and tipboard taxes are classified as public information.

Sec. 14. [349.2125] [CONTRABAND.]

Subdivision 1. [CONTRABAND DEFINED.] The following are declared to be contraband:

(1) all pull-tab or tipboard deals that do not have stamps affixed to them as provided in section 349.162;

(2) all pull-tab or tipboard deals in the possession of any unlicensed organization whether stamped or unstamped;

(3) any container used for the storage and display of any contraband pull-tab or tipboard deals as defined in clauses (1) and (2) of this subdivision;

(4) any cash drawer, cash register, or any other container used for illegal pull-tab or tipboard transactions including its contents; and

(5) any device including, but not limited to, motor vehicles, trailers, snowmobiles, airplanes, and boats used, with the knowledge of the owner or of a person operating with the consent of the owner, for the storage or transportation of more than five pull-tab or tipboard deals that are contraband under this subdivision. When pull-tabs and tipboards are being transported in the course of interstate commerce, or from one distributor to another, the pull-tab and tipboard deals are not contraband, notwithstanding the provisions of clause (1).

Subd. 2. [SEIZURE.] Pull-tabs or tipboards or other property made contraband by subdivision 1 may be seized by the commissioner of revenue or the executive secretary of the charitable gambling control board or their authorized agents or by any sheriff or other police officer, hereinafter referred to as the seizing authority, with or without process, and shall be subject to forfeiture as provided in subdivisions 3 and 4.

Subd. 3. [INVENTORY; JUDICIAL DETERMINATION; APPEAL; DISPOSITION OF SEIZED PROPERTY.] Within two days after the seizure of any alleged contraband, the person making the seizure shall deliver an inventory of the property seized to the person from whom the property was seized, if known, and file a copy with the commissioner or the executive secretary of the charitable gambling control board. Within ten days after the date of service of the inventory, the person from whom the property was seized or any person claiming an interest in the property may file with the seizing authority a demand for judicial determination of whether the property was lawfully subject to seizure and forfeiture. Within 30 days after the date of filing of the demand, the seizing authority shall bring an action in the district court of the county where seizure was made to determine the issue of forfeiture. The action shall be brought in the name of the state and shall be prosecuted by the county attorney or by the attorney general. The court shall hear the action without a jury and determine the issues of fact and laws involved. When a judgment of forfeiture is entered, the seizing authority may, unless the judgment is stayed pending an appeal, either (1) cause the forfeited property to be destroyed; or (2) cause it to be sold at a public auction as provided by law.

If demand for judicial determination is made and no action is commenced as provided in this subdivision, the property shall be released by the seizing authority and delivered to the person entitled to it. If no demand is made, the property seized shall be considered forfeited to the state by operation of law and may be disposed of by the seizing authority as provided where there has been a judgment of forfeiture. When the seizing authority is satisfied that a person from whom property is seized was acting in good faith and without intent to evade the tax imposed by section 349.2121, subdivision 4, the seizing authority shall release the property seized without further legal proceedings.

Subd. 4. [DISPOSAL.] The property described in subdivision 1, clauses 4 and 5, shall be confiscated after conviction of the person from whom it was seized, upon compliance with the following procedure: the seizing authority shall file with the court a separate complaint against the property, describing it and charging its use in the specific violation, and specifying substantially the time and place of the unlawful use. A copy of the complaint must be served upon the defendant or person in charge of the property at the time of seizure, if any. If the person arrested is acquitted, the court shall dismiss the complaint against the property and order it returned to the persons legally entitled to it. Upon conviction of the person arrested, the court shall issue an order directed to any person known or believed to have any right, title or interest in, or lien upon, any of the property, and to persons unknown claiming any right, title, interest, or lien in it, describing the property and (1) stating that it was seized and that a complaint against it, charging the specified violation, has been filed with the court, (2) requiring the persons to file with the court administrator their answer to the complaint, setting forth any claim they may have to any right or title to, interest in, or lien upon the property, within 30 days after the service of the order; and (3) notifying them in substance that if they fail to file their answer within the time, the property will be ordered sold by the seizing authority. The court shall cause the order to be served upon any person known or believed to have any right, title, interest, or lien as in the case of a summons in a civil action, and upon unknown persons by publication, as provided for service of summons in a civil action. If no answer is filed within the time prescribed, the court shall, upon affidavit by the court administrator, setting forth the fact, order the property sold by the seizing authority. The proceeds of the sale, after deducting the expense of keeping the property and fees and costs of sale, must be paid into the state treasury and credited to the general fund. If an answer is filed within the time provided, the court shall fix a time for a hearing, which shall be not less than ten nor more than 30 days after the time for filing an answer expires. At the time fixed for hearing, unless continued for cause, the matter shall be heard and determined by the court, without a jury, as in other civil actions.

If the court finds that the property, or any part of it, was used in the violation specified in the complaint, it shall order the property unlawfully used to be sold as provided by law, unless the owner shows to the satisfaction of the court that the owner had no notice or knowledge or reason to believe that the property was used or intended to be used in the violation. The officer making a sale, after deducting the expense of keeping the property, the fee for seizure, and the costs of the sale, shall pay all liens according to their priority, which are established at the hearing as being bona fide and as existing without the lienor having any notice or knowledge that the property was being used or was intended to be used for or in connection with the violation specified in the order of the court, and shall pay the balance of the proceeds into the state treasury to be credited to the general fund. A sale under this section shall free the property sold from any and all liens on it. Appeal from the order of the district court will lie as in other civil cases. At any time after seizure of the articles specified in this subdivision, and before the hearing provided for, the property shall be returned to the owner or person having a legal right to its possession, upon execution of a good and valid bond to the state, with corporate surety, in the sum of not less than $100 and not more than double the value of the property seized, to be approved by the court in which the case is triable, or a judge of it, conditioned to abide any order and the judgment of the court, and to pay the full value of the property at the time of the seizure. The seizing authority may dismiss the proceedings outlined in this subdivision when the seizing authority considers it to be in the best interests of the state to do so.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 297A.21, is amended to read:

297A.21 [REGISTRATION; INFORMATION RELATING TO BUSINESS LOCATION TO COLLECT USE TAX.]

~~Subdivision 1. Every retailer making retail sales for storage, use or other consumption in Minnesota shall register with the commissioner and give the name and address of all agents operating in Minnesota; the location of all distribution or sales houses, offices or other places of business in Minnesota; and such other information as the commissioner may require. When-~~ in the opinion of the commissioner, it is necessary for the efficient administration of sections 297A.14 to 297A.25 to regard any salesperson, representative, trucker, peddler, or canvasser as the agent of the dealer, distributor, supervisor, employer, or other person under whom that person operates or from whom the person obtains the tangible personal property sold, whether making sales personally or in behalf of such dealer, distributor, supervisor, employer, or other person, the commissioner may regard the salesperson, representative, trucker, peddler, or canvasser as such agent, and may regard the dealer, distributor, supervisor, employer, or other person as a retailer for the purposes of sections 297A.14 to 297A.25.

Subd. 2. [RETAILER MAINTAINING PLACE OF BUSINESS IN MINNESOTA.] "Retailer maintaining a place of business in this state", or any like term, shall mean any retailer having or maintaining within this state, directly or by a subsidiary, an office, distribution house, sales house, warehouse, or other place of business, or any agent operating within this state under the authority of the retailer or its subsidiary, whether such place of business or agent is located in the state permanently or temporarily, or whether or not such retailer or subsidiary is authorized to do business within this state.

Subd. 2. [DESTINATION.] The destination of a sale is the location to which the retailer makes delivery of the property sold, or causes the property to be delivered, to the purchaser of the property, or to the agent or designee of the purchaser by any means of delivery, including the United States Postal Service, a common carrier, or a contract carrier.

Subd. 3. [OUT-OF-STATE RETAILER MAINTAINING PLACE OF BUSINESS IN MINNESOTA.] A retailer making retail sales from outside this state to a destination within this state and maintaining a place of business in this state shall file an application for a permit pursuant to section 297A.04 and shall collect and remit the use tax as provided in section 297A.16.

Subd. 4. [REQUIRED REGISTRATION BY OUT-OF-STATE RETAILER NOT MAINTAINING PLACE OF BUSINESS IN MINNESOTA.] (a) A retailer making retail sales from outside this state to a destination within this state and not maintaining a place of business in this state shall file an application for a permit pursuant to section 297A.04 and shall collect and remit the use tax as provided in section 297A.16 if the retailer engages in the regular or systematic soliciting of sales from potential customers in this state by:

(1) the distribution, by mail or otherwise, without regard to the state from which such distribution originated or in which the materials were prepared, of catalogs, periodicals, advertising flyers, or other written solicitations of business to customers in this state;

(2) display of advertisements on billboards or other outdoor advertising in this state;

(3) advertisements in newspapers published in this state;

(4) advertisements in trade journals or other periodicals the circulation of which is primarily within this state;

(5) advertisements in a Minnesota edition of a national or regional publication or a limited regional edition in which this state is included of a broader regional or national publication which are not placed in other geographically defined editions of the same issue of the same publication;

(6) advertisements broadcast on a radio or television station located in Minnesota; or

(7) any other solicitation by telegraphy, telephone, computer data base, cable, optic, microwave, or other communication system.

(b) The location within or without this state of vendors independent of the retailer which provide products or services to the retailer in connection with its solicitation of customers within this state, including such products and services as creation of copy, printing, distribution, and recording, is not to be taken into account in the determination of whether the retailer is required to collect use tax. Paragraph (a) shall be construed without regard to the state from which distribution of the materials originated or in which they were prepared.

(c) A retailer not maintaining a place of business in this state shall be presumed, subject to rebuttal, to be engaged in regular solicitation within this state if it engages in any of the activities in paragraph (a) and makes 100 or more retail sales from outside this state to destinations within this state during a period of 12 consecutive months.

(d) A retailer not maintaining a place of business in this state shall not be required to collect use tax imposed by any local governmental unit or subdivision of this state and this section does not subject such a retailer to any regulation of any local unit of government or subdivision of this state.

[VOLUNTARY REGISTRATION BY OUT-OF-STATE RETAILER NOT MAINTAINING PLACE OF BUSINESS IN MINNESOTA.] A retailer making retail sales from outside this state to a destination within this state who is not required to collect and remit use tax may nevertheless voluntarily file an application for a permit pursuant to section 297A.04. If the application is granted, the retailer shall collect and remit the use tax as provided in section 297A.16 until the permit is canceled or revoked.

Subd. 6. [COMMISSIONER'S DISCRETION.] (a) The commissioner may decline to issue a permit to any retailer not maintaining a place of business in this state, or may cancel a permit previously issued to the retailer, if the commissioner believes that the use tax can be collected more effectively from the persons using the property in this state. A refusal to issue or cancellation of a permit on such grounds does not affect the retailer's right to make retail sales from outside this state to destinations within this state.

(b) When, in the opinion of the commissioner, it is necessary for the efficient administration of sections 297A.14 to 297A.25 to regard a salesperson, representative, trucker, peddler, or canvasser as the agent of the dealer, distributor, supervisor, employer, or other person under whom that person operates or from whom the person obtains the tangible personal property sold, whether making sales personally or in behalf of that dealer, distributor, supervisor, employer, or other person the commissioner may regard the salesperson, representative, trucker, peddler, or canvasser as such agent, and may regard the dealer, distributor, supervisor, employer, or other person as a retailer for the purposes of sections 297A.14 to 297A.25.

Subd. 7. "Distributor" means any and each of the following:

(1) any person engaged in the business of selling cigarettes in this state and who manufactures or who brings, or causes to be brought, into this state from without the state any packages of cigarettes for sale to subjobbers or retailers;

(2) any person who makes, manufactures, or fabricates cigarettes in this state for sale in this state;

(3) any person engaged in the business without this state who ships or transports cigarettes to retailers in this state, to be sold by those retailers;

(4) (3) any person who is on direct purchase from a cigarette manufacturer and applies cigarette stamps or indicia on at least 50 percent of cigarettes sold by that person.

A distributor who also sells at retail must maintain a separate inventory, substantiated with invoices for cigarettes that were acquired for retail sale.

A distributor may transfer another state's stamped cigarettes to another distributor for the purpose of resale in the other state.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 297.01, subdivision 14, is amended to read:

Subd. 14. "Subjobber" means any person who acquires stamped cigarettes or other state's stamped cigarettes for the primary purpose of resale to retailers, and any licensed distributor who delivers to and sells or distributes stamped cigarettes from a place of business other than that licensed in the distributor's license. The definition of subjobber does not include the occasional sale of stamped cigarettes from one retailer to another. Notwithstanding the foregoing, "subjobber" shall also mean any person who is a vending machine operator. A vending machine operator is any person whose principal business is operating, or owning and leasing to operators, machines for the vending of merchandise or service.

For the purpose of this section, any subjobber that sells at retail must maintain a separate inventory, substantiated with invoices, that reflect the cigarettes were acquired for retail sale.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 297.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 15. "Prior continuous compliance taxpayer" means any person who is licensed under section 297.04 and who, having been a licensee for a continuous period of five years, is determined by the commissioner not to have been either delinquent or deficient in the payment of tax liability during that period or otherwise in violation of this chapter. Any taxpayer who has, as verified by the commissioner, continuously complied with the condition of a bond or other security under provisions of this chapter for a period of five consecutive years shall also be considered to be a "prior continuous compliance taxpayer." A continuous period of time of qualifying compliance immediately prior to August 1, 1988, shall be credited to any licensee who became licensed on or before that date.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 297.03, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5a. [REVOLVING ACCOUNT.] A heat applied cigarette tax stamp revolving account is created. The commissioner shall use the amounts in this fund to purchase heat applied stamps for resale. The commissioner shall charge the purchasers for the costs of the stamps along with the tax value plus shipping costs. The costs recovered along with shipping costs shall be deposited into this revolving account and shall be available to the commissioner for further purchases and shipping costs. The revolving account shall be funded by reducing the stamping discounts allowed in subdivision

5 for the first three months of fiscal year 1989. The stamping discounts shall be 0.75 percent of the face amount of any stamps purchased in the first three months for the first $1,500,000 of the stamps and 0.50 percent on the remainder of the stamps purchased.

At the end of each of the first three months of fiscal year 1989, the commissioner shall notify the commissioner of finance of the amount of reduced stamping discounts which have accrued to the tobacco tax revenue fund. The commissioner of finance shall then transfer the amounts to the heat applied cigarette tax stamp revolving account from the tobacco tax revenue fund.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 297.03, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [TAX METER MACHINES.] (4) (a) Before January 1, 1990, the commissioner may authorize any person licensed as a distributor to stamp packages with a tax meter machine, approved by the commissioner, which shall be provided by the distributor. The commissioner may provide for the use of such a machine by the distributor, supervise and check its operation, provide for the payment of the tax on any package so stamped, subject to the discount provided in subdivision 5, ~~and in that connection.~~ Except as provided in paragraph (d), the commissioner may require the furnishing of a corporate surety bond, check guarantee bond, or certified check in a suitable amount to guarantee the payment of the tax.

(2) (b) Before January 1, 1990, the commissioner may authorize, and after December 31, 1989, the commissioner shall require any person licensed as a distributor whose stamp meter machine is no longer operational to stamp packages with a heat-applied tax stamping machine, approved by the commissioner, which shall be provided by the distributor. The commissioner shall supervise and check the operation of the machines and shall provide for the payment of the tax on any package so stamped, subject to the discount provided in subdivision 5. The commissioner may sell heat-applied stamps on a credit basis under conditions prescribed by the commissioner, ~~and in that connection.~~ Except as provided in paragraph (d), the commissioner may require the furnishing of a corporate surety bond, check guarantee bond, or certified check in an amount suitable to guarantee payment of the tax stamps so purchased by a distributor. The stamps shall be sold by the commissioner at a price which includes the tax after giving effect to the discount provided in subdivision 5. The commissioner shall recover the actual costs of the stamps from the distributor.

(3) (c) If the commissioner finds that a stamping machine is not printing or affixing a legible stamp on the package, the commissioner may order the distributor to immediately cease the stamping process until the machine is functioning properly.

(d) Every prior continuous compliance taxpayer is exempt from all requirements under this chapter concerning the furnishing of a bond. This exemption shall continue for the taxpayer until the commissioner determines that the taxpayer is delinquent in the filing of any return, or is determined by the commissioner to be delinquent or deficient in the payment of any uncontested tax liability under this chapter. At that time that taxpayer shall become subject to the bond requirements of this chapter and, as a condition of being allowed to continue to engage in the business licensed under this chapter, shall be required to furnish bond to the commissioner as provided in this chapter. The taxpayer shall furnish the bond for a period of two years, after which, if the taxpayer has not been delinquent in the filing of any returns, or delinquent or deficient in the paying of any tax under this chapter, the commissioner may reinstate the person as a prior continuous compliance taxpayer. Any taxpayer who fails to pay an uncontested tax liability under this chapter may also be required to post bond or other acceptable security with the commissioner guaranteeing the payment of the uncontested tax liability. The commissioner shall annually establish the maximum amount of heat applied stamps or meter units that may be purchased each month. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, the tax due on the return shall be paid with certified funds and will be based upon actual heat applied stamps or meter units purchased during the reporting period.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 297.03, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [SETTING OF TAX METERS.] The commissioner may designate the county treasurer of any county or any banking institution as defined by section 48.01, or any banking institution as defined by any states' statutes as the representative of the commissioner in the setting of a tax meter machine of any particular distributor and the collection of the cigarette tax upon such setting. The county treasurer or banking institution so designated shall be required to set tax meter machines following the method prescribed by the commissioner of revenue and to transmit the amount of tax collected and to report the setting of each tax meter to the commissioner on or before the next business day. For purposes of this paragraph, a business day shall not include Saturday. Such duties shall be within the coverage of the official bond of the county treasurer. The commissioner shall prescribe the form and amount of a surety bond which shall be furnished by a banking institution designated pursuant to this subdivision. The commissioner shall have the right to withdraw this designation without cause.

The unstamped stock shall be kept separate and apart from stamped stock. Every wholesaler shall, at the time of shipping or delivering any of the unstamped stock to an Indian tribal organization, make a true duplicate invoice which shall show the complete details of the sale or delivery and shall transmit the duplicate to the commissioner not later than the ~~fifteenth~~ 18th day of the following calendar month. Failure to comply with the requirements of this section shall cause the commissioner to revoke the permission granted to the wholesaler to maintain a stock of goods which may be unstamped. ~~The commissioner may also revoke this permission to maintain a stock of unstamped goods for sale to a specific Indian tribal organization when it appears that sales of unstamped cigarettes to persons who are not enrolled members of a recognized Indian tribe are taking place, or have taken place, within the exterior boundaries of the reservation occupied by that tribe.~~

Subdivision 1. [DISTRIBUTOR TO KEEP RECORDS.] Every distributor shall keep at each licensed place of business complete and accurate records, for that place of business, including itemized invoices, of cigarettes held, purchased, manufactured, or brought in or caused to be brought in from without the state, and of all sales of cigarettes made, except sales to the ultimate consumer. These records shall show the names and addresses of purchasers, the inventory at the close of each period for which a return is required of all cigarettes on hand, and of all stamps, affixed and unaffixed, and other pertinent papers and documents relating to the purchase, sale, or disposition of cigarettes. When a licensed distributor sells cigarettes exclusively to the ultimate consumer at the address given in the license, no invoice of those sales shall be required, but itemized invoices shall be made of all cigarettes transferred to other retail outlets owned or controlled by that licensed distributor. All books, records, and other papers and documents required by sections 297.01 to 297.13 to be kept shall be preserved for a period of at least ~~one year~~ three years after the date of the documents, as aforesaid, or the date of the entries thereof appearing in the records, unless the commissioner, in writing, authorizes their destruction or disposal at an earlier date. At any time during usual business hours the commissioner, or duly authorized agents or employees, may enter any place of business of a distributor, without a search warrant, and inspect the premises, the records required to be kept under sections 297.01 to 297.13, and the packages of cigarettes and the vending devices contained therein, to determine whether or not all the provisions of these sections are being fully complied with. If the commissioner, or any such agent or employee, is denied free access or is hindered or interfered with in making such examination, the license of the distributor at such premises shall be subject to revocation by the commissioner.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 297.06, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DISTRIBUTOR TO PRESERVE COPIES OF INVOICES.] Every person who sells cigarettes to persons other than the ultimate consumer shall render with each sale itemized invoices showing the seller's name and address, the purchaser's name and address, the date of sale, and all prices ~~and discounts~~ and shall preserve legible copies of all such invoices for ~~one year~~ three years from the date of sale.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 297.06, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [RETAILER AND SUBJOBBER TO PRESERVE PURCHASE INVOICES.] Every retailer and subjobber shall procure itemized invoices of all cigarettes purchased. The invoices shall show the name and address of the seller and the date of purchase. The retailer and subjobber shall preserve a legible copy of each such invoice for one year from the date of purchase. ~~Invoices shall be available for inspection by the commissioner or authorized agents or employees at the retailer's or subjobber's place of business.~~

At any time during normal business hours, the commissioner or the commissioner's agents may enter any place of business of a retailer or subjobber without a search warrant and inspect the premises, the records required to be kept for this subdivision, and the packages of cigarettes, tobacco products, and vending devices contained on the premises to determine whether all provisions of chapter 297 and sections 325D.30 to 325D.40, are being fully complied with.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 297.06, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [CERTIFIED PHYSICAL INVENTORY.] The commissioner of revenue or the commissioner's authorized agents may, upon request but not more than twice annually, require a cigarette or tobacco distributor to furnish a physical inventory of all cigarettes in stock. The inventory shall contain all information that the commissioner may request and shall be certified by an officer of the corporation.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 297.08, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CONTRABAND DEFINED.] The following are declared to be contraband:

(1) All packages which do not have stamps affixed to them as provided in sections 297.01 to 297.13 and all devices for the vending of cigarettes in which such unstamped packages are found, including all contents contained within the devices.

(2) Any device for the vending of cigarettes and all packages of cigarettes contained therein, where the device does not afford at least partial visibility of contents. Where any package exposed to view does not carry the stamp or imprint required by sections 297.01 to 297.13, it shall be presumed that all packages contained in the device are unstamped and contraband.

(3) Any device for the vending of cigarettes to which the commissioner or authorized agents have been denied access for the inspection of contents. In lieu of seizure, the commissioner or an agent may seal the device to prevent its use until inspection of contents is permitted.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 297.11, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [TRANSPORTING UNSTAMPED PACKAGES.] No person shall transport into, or receive, carry, or move from place to place in this state, any packages of cigarettes not stamped in accordance with the provisions of this act except in the course of interstate commerce, unless the cigarettes are moving from a public warehouse to a distributor upon orders from the manufacturer or distributor. This subdivision shall not apply to a person carrying for personal use not more than 200 cigarettes when those cigarettes have had the individual packages or seals thereof broken and are intended for personal use by that person and not to be sold or offered for sale.

Common carriers and contract carriers transporting cigarettes into this state shall file with the commissioner reports of all such shipments other than those which are delivered to public warehouses of first destination in this state which are licensed under the provisions of chapter 231. Such reports shall be filed monthly on or before the 10th day of each month and shall show with respect to deliveries made in the preceding month: the date, point of origin, point of delivery, name of consignee, the quantity of cigarettes delivered and such other information as the commissioner may require.

All common carriers and contract carriers transporting cigarettes into Minnesota shall permit examination by the commissioner of their records relating to the shipment of cigarettes.

Any person who fails or refuses to transmit to the commissioner the required reports or whoever refuses to permit the examination of the records by the commissioner shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

The report shall be due on, or before, the 18th of the month following the reporting period.

Anyone violating this section is guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 16. [297.44] [TIME LIMITATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [TIME FOR ASSESSMENT; NOTICE.] Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the amount of taxes assessable with respect to a taxable period must be assessed within three years after the return for the period is filed. The taxes shall be considered assessed within the meaning of this section when the commissioner has prepared a notice of tax assessment and mailed it to the person required to file a return to the post office address given in the return. The record of the mailing is presumptive evidence of the giving of the notice, and the records must be preserved by the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [OMISSION OVER 25 PERCENT.] If the person required to file the return omits from the return a dollar amount properly includable in it that is in excess of 25 percent of the dollar amount reported in the return, the tax may be assessed, or a proceeding in court for the collection of the tax may be begun, at any time within five years after the return was filed.

Subd. 3. [DATE OF FILING.] For the purposes of this section and section 297.36, a return filed before the last day prescribed by law for its filing is considered filed on the last day.

Subd. 4. [FRAUD; FAILURE TO FILE.] In the case of a false or fraudulent return with intent to evade tax or failure with the same intent to file a return, the tax may be assessed at any time, and a proceeding in court for the collection of the tax must begin within five years after the assessment.

Subd. 5. [COLLECTION.] Where the assessment of a tax due under this chapter is made within the period of limitation properly applicable to it, the tax may be collected by a proceeding in court, but only if begun within five years after the date of assessment.

Subd. 6. [SUSPENSION OF TIME; BANKRUPTCY PROCEEDINGS.] The time during which a tax must be assessed or collection proceedings commenced under this chapter is suspended during the period from the date of a filing of a petition in bankruptcy until 30 days after notice to the commissioner of revenue that the bankruptcy proceedings have been closed or dismissed, or that the automatic stay has been terminated or has expired.

The suspension of the statute of limitations under this subdivision applies to the person against whom the petition in bankruptcy is filed, and to all other persons who may be wholly or partially liable for the tax under this chapter.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 297C.02, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [BOTTLE TAX.] A tax of one cent is imposed on each bottle or container of distilled spirits and wine. The wholesaler is responsible for the payment of this tax when the bottles of distilled spirits and wine are removed from inventory for sale, delivery, or shipment.

No payment of any tax is required to be remitted with this report. The report shall be filed on or before the tenth day following the end of each calendar month, regardless of whether or not any shipments were made into Minnesota during the previous month. A person failing to file this monthly report is subject to the provisions of section 297C.14, subdivision 8.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 297C.04, is amended to read:

297C.04 [PAYMENT OF TAX; MALT LIQUOR.]

The commissioner may by rule provide a reporting method for paying and collecting the excise tax on fermented malt beverages. The tax shall be imposed upon the first sale or importation made in this state by a licensed brewer or importer. The rules must require reports to be filed with and the excise tax to be paid to the commissioner on or before the 18th day of the month following the month in which the importation into or the first sale is made in this state, whichever first occurs. The rules must also require payments in June of 1987 and subsequent years according to the provisions of section 297C.05, subdivision 2.

(4) Malt beverages served by a brewery for on-premise consumption at no charge, or distributed to brewery employees for on-premise consumption under a labor contract.

(5) Alcoholic beverages sold to authorized manufacturers of food products or pharmaceutical firms. The alcoholic beverage must be used exclusively in the manufacture of food products or medicines. For purposes of this part, "manufacturer" means a manufacturer of food products intended for sale to wholesalers or retailers for ultimate sale to the consumer.

(6) Sales to common carriers engaged in interstate transportation of passengers and qualified approved military clubs, except as provided in section 297C.17.

(7) Alcoholic beverages sold or transferred between Minnesota wholesalers.

ARTICLE 13

TAX INCREMENT FINANCING

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.174, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [ORIGINAL ASSESSED VALUE.] (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), "original assessed value" means the assessed value of all taxable real property within a tax increment financing district as most recently certified by the commissioner of revenue as of the date of the request by an authority for certification by the county auditor, together with subsequent adjustments as set forth in section 469.177, subdivisions 1 and 4. In determining the original assessed value the assessed value of real property exempt from taxation at the time of the request shall be zero, except for real property which is tax exempt by reason of public ownership by the requesting authority and which has been publicly owned for less than one year prior to the date of the request for certification, in which event the assessed value of the property shall be the assessed value as most recently determined by the commissioner of revenue.

(b) The original assessed value of any designated hazardous substance site or hazardous substance subdistrict shall be determined on January 2 following the date the agency or municipality certifies to the county auditor that the agency or municipality has entered a redevelopment or other agreement for the removal actions or remedial actions specified in a development response action plan, or otherwise provided funds to finance the development response action plan, the original assessed value shall be equal to the assessed value of the parcel, as most recently determined by the commissioner of revenue, less the reasonable and necessary costs of the removal actions and remedial actions to be undertaken with respect to the parcel as certified to the county auditor by the municipality or agency but not less than zero.

(c) The original assessed value shall be increased by the amount by which it was reduced pursuant to paragraph (b) upon certification by the municipality that the costs of the removal actions and remedial actions have been paid or reimbursed.

(d) For purposes of this subdivision, "real property" shall include any property normally taxable as personal property by reason of its location on or over publicly-owned property.

(e) The terms "removal," "remedial," "action," "hazardous substance," and "pollutant or contaminant" have the meanings assigned by section 115B.02. The term "development response action plan" has the meaning given under section 3.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.174, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [REDEVELOPMENT DISTRICT.] (a) "Redevelopment district" means a type of tax increment financing district consisting of a project, or portions of a project, within which the authority finds by resolution that one of the following conditions, reasonably distributed throughout the district, exists:

(1) 70 percent of the parcels in the district are occupied by buildings, streets, utilities, or other improvements and more than 50 percent of the buildings, not including outbuildings, are structurally substandard to a degree requiring substantial renovation or clearance; or

(2) 70 percent of the parcels in the district are occupied by buildings, streets, utilities, or other improvements and 20 percent of the buildings are structurally substandard and an additional 30 percent of the buildings are found to require substantial renovation or clearance in order to remove such existing conditions as: inadequate street layout, incompatible uses or land use relationships, overcrowding of buildings on the land, excessive dwelling unit density, obsolete buildings not suitable for improvement or conversion, or other identified hazards to the health, safety, and general well-being of the community; or

(3) less than 70 percent of the parcels in the district are occupied by buildings, streets, utilities, or other improvements, but due to unusual terrain or soil deficiencies requiring substantial filling, grading, or other physical preparation for use at least 80 percent of the total acreage of such land has a fair market value upon inclusion in the redevelopment district which, when added to the estimated cost of preparing that land for development, excluding costs directly related to roads as defined in section 160.01 and local improvements as described in section 429.021, subdivision 1, clauses 1 to 7, 11 and 12, and 430.01, if any, exceeds its anticipated fair market value after completion of the preparation. No parcel shall be included within a redevelopment district pursuant to this paragraph unless the authority has concluded an agreement or agreements for the development of at least 50 percent of the acreage having the unusual soil or terrain deficiencies, which agreement provides recourse for the authority should the development not be completed; or

(4) the property consists of underutilized air rights existing over a public street, highway, or right-of-way; or

(6) the district consists of an existing or proposed industrial park no greater in size than 250 acres, which contains a sewage lagoon contaminated with polychlorinated biphenyls.

(b) For purposes of this subdivision, "structurally substandard" shall mean containing defects in structural elements or a combination of deficiencies in essential utilities and facilities, light and ventilation, fire protection including adequate egress, layout and condition of interior partitions, or similar factors, which defects or deficiencies are of sufficient total significance to justify substantial renovation or clearance.

(c) For districts approved under section 469.175, subdivision 3, or for noncontiguous areas added to existing districts after April 1, 1988, if the district consists of two or more noncontiguous geographic areas, each area must qualify as a redevelopment district under paragraph (a), clauses (1) to (6), in order to be included in the district, and the area of the entire district must satisfy the requirements of paragraph (a).

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.174, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 16. [DESIGNATED HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCE SITE.] "Designated hazardous substance site" means any parcel or parcels with respect to which the authority or municipality has certified to the county auditor that the authority or municipality has entered into a redevelopment or other agreement providing for, or otherwise has available to it funds, including, without limitation, tax increment which would be made available pursuant to section 469.175, subdivision 1, to finance the removal actions or remedial actions specified in a development response action plan. For purposes of this section, a plan or proposal for removal actions or remedial actions constitutes a development response action plan if the actions contained in the plan or proposal are:

(1) requested by the pollution control agency or its commissioner pursuant to section 115B.17, 115C.03, or other law; or

Sec. 4. [469.1741] [TOWN AUTHORITY.]

No town may be authorized after the date of enactment of this act to exercise powers under sections 469.174 to 469.179 unless the town has the authority to exercise powers under section 368.01, is located within the metropolitan area as defined in section 473.121, subdivision 2, and has a population in excess of 5,000 persons.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.175, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TAX INCREMENT FINANCING PLAN.] A tax increment financing plan shall contain:

(1) a statement of objectives of an authority for the improvement of a project;

(2) a statement as to the development program for the project, including the property within the project, if any, that the authority intends to acquire;

(3) a list of any development activities that the plan proposes to take place within the project, for which contracts have been entered into at the time of the preparation of the plan, including the names of the parties to the contract, the activity governed by the contract, the cost stated in the contract, and the expected date of completion of that activity;

(4) identification or description of the type of any other specific development reasonably expected to take place within the project, and the date when the development is likely to occur;

(5) estimates of the following:

(i) cost of the project, including administration expenses;

(ii) amount of bonded indebtedness to be incurred;

(iii) sources of revenue to finance or otherwise pay public costs;

(iv) the most recent assessed value of taxable real property within the tax increment financing district;

(v) the estimated captured assessed value of the tax increment financing district at completion; and

(vi) the duration of the tax increment financing district's existence; and

(6) ~~a statement~~ statements of the authority's ~~estimate~~ alternate estimates of the impact of tax increment financing on the assessed values of all taxing jurisdictions in which the tax increment financing district is located in whole or in part. For purposes of one statement, the authority shall assume that the estimated captured assessed value would be available to the taxing jurisdictions without creation of the district, and for purposes of the second statement, the authority shall assume that none of the estimated captured assessed value would be available to the taxing jurisdictions without creation of the district;

(7) identification and description of studies and analyses used to make the determination set forth in subdivision 3, clause (2); and

(8) identification of all parcels to be included in the district.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.175, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CONSULTATIONS; COMMENT AND FILING.] Before formation of a tax increment financing district, the authority shall provide an opportunity to the members of the county boards of commissioners of any county in which any portion of the proposed district is located and the members of the school board of any school district in which any portion of the proposed district is located to meet with the authority. The authority shall present to the members of the county boards of commissioners and the school boards its estimate of the fiscal and economic implications of the proposed tax increment financing district. The information on the fiscal and economic implications of the plan must be provided to the county and school district boards at least 30 days before the public hearing required by subdivision 3. The 30-day requirement is waived if the county and school district submit written comments on the proposal and any modification of the proposal to the authority after receipt of the information. The members of the county boards of commissioners and the school boards may present their comments at the public hearing on the tax increment financing plan required by subdivision 3. ~~The county auditor shall not certify the original assessed value of a district pursuant to section 469.177, subdivision 1, until the county board of commissioners has presented its written comment on the proposal to the authority, or 30 days has passed from the date of the transmittal by the authority to the board of the information regarding the fiscal and economic implications, whichever occurs first.~~ Upon adoption of the tax increment financing plan, the authority shall file a copy of the plan with the commissioner of ~~energy trade~~ and economic development. The authority must also file with the commissioner a copy of the development plan for the project area.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.175, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [MUNICIPALITY APPROVAL.] A county auditor shall not certify the original assessed value of a tax increment financing district until the tax increment financing plan proposed for that district has been approved by the municipality in which the district is located. If an authority that proposes to establish a tax increment financing district and the municipality are not the same, the authority shall apply to the municipality in which the district is proposed to be located and shall obtain the approval of its tax increment financing plan by the municipality before the authority may use tax increment financing. The municipality shall approve the tax increment financing plan only after a public hearing thereon after published notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the municipality at least once not less than ten days nor more than 30 days prior to the date of the hearing. This hearing may be held before or after the approval or creation of the project or it may be held in conjunction with a hearing to approve the project. Before or at the time of approval of the tax increment financing plan, the municipality shall make the following findings, and shall set forth in writing the reasons and supporting facts for each determination:

(1) that the proposed tax increment financing district is a redevelopment district, a mined underground space development district, a housing district, or an economic development district; if the proposed district is a redevelopment district, the reasons and supporting facts for the determination that the district meets the criteria of section 469.174, subdivision 10, paragraph (a), clauses (1) to (6), shall be retained and made available to the public by the authority until the district has been terminated.

(2) that the proposed development or redevelopment, in the opinion of the municipality, would not reasonably be expected to occur solely through private investment within the reasonably foreseeable future and therefore the use of tax increment financing is deemed necessary.

(3) that the tax increment financing plan conforms to the general plan for the development or redevelopment of the municipality as a whole.

(4) that the tax increment financing plan will afford maximum opportunity, consistent with the sound needs of the municipality as a whole, for the development or redevelopment of the project by private enterprise.

(5) that the municipality elects the method of tax increment computation set forth in section 469.177, subdivision 3, clause (b), if applicable.

When the municipality and the authority are not the same, the municipality shall approve or disapprove the tax increment financing plan within 60 days of submission by the authority, or the plan shall be deemed approved. When the municipality and the authority are not the same, the municipality may not amend or modify a tax increment financing plan except as proposed by the authority pursuant to subdivision 4. Once approved, the determination of the authority to undertake the project through the use of tax increment financing and the resolution of the governing body shall be conclusive of the findings therein and of the public need for the financing.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.175, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [MODIFICATION OF PLAN.] (a) A tax increment financing plan may be modified by an authority, provided that any reduction or enlargement of geographic area of the project or tax increment financing district, increase in amount of bonded indebtedness to be incurred, including a determination to capitalize interest on the debt if that determination was not a part of the original plan, or to increase or decrease the amount of interest on the debt to be capitalized, increase in the portion of the captured assessed value to be retained by the authority, increase in total estimated tax increment expenditures or designation of additional property to be acquired by the authority shall be approved upon the notice and after the discussion, public hearing, and findings required for approval of the original plan; provided that if an authority changes the type of district from housing, redevelopment, or economic development to another type of district, this change shall not be considered a modification but shall require the authority to follow the procedure set forth in sections 469.174 to 469.179 for adoption of a new plan, including certification of the assessed valuation of the district by the county auditor. If a redevelopment district is enlarged, the reasons and supporting facts for the determination that the addition to the district meets the criteria of section 469.174, subdivision 10, paragraph (a), clauses (1) to (6), shall be documented. The requirements of this paragraph do not apply if (1) the only modification is elimination of parcels from the project or district and (2)(A) the current assessed value of the parcels eliminated from the district equals or exceeds the assessed value of those parcels in the district's original assessed value or (B) the authority agrees that, notwithstanding section 469.177, subdivision 1, the original assessed value will be reduced by no more than the current assessed value of the parcels eliminated from the district. The authority must notify the county auditor of any modification that reduces or enlarges the geographic area of a district or a project area.

(b) The geographic area of a tax increment financing district may be reduced, but shall not be enlarged after five years following the date of certification of the original assessed value by the county auditor or after August 1, 1984, for tax increment financing districts authorized prior to August 1, 1979, except that development districts created pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1978, chapter 472A, prior to August 1, 1979, may be reduced but shall not be enlarged after five years following the date of designation of the district.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.175, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [CREATION OF HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCE SUBDISTRICT.] (a) A municipality or authority which is creating or has created a tax increment financing district may establish within the district a hazardous substance subdistrict upon the notice and after the discussion, public hearing and findings required for approval of the original plan. The geographic area of the subdistrict shall be made up of any parcels in the district designated for inclusion by the municipality or authority that are designated hazardous substance sites, and any additional parcels in the district designated for inclusion that are contiguous except for the interposition of a right-of-way. Before or at the time of approval of the tax increment financing plan, the municipality shall make the findings under paragraphs (b) to (d), and shall set forth in writing the reasons and supporting facts for each.

(b) The proposed development or redevelopment, in the opinion of the municipality, would not reasonably be expected to occur solely through private investment and tax increment otherwise available, and therefore the hazardous substance district is deemed necessary.

(c) Other parcels that are not designated hazardous substance sites are expected to be developed together with a designated hazardous substance site.

(d) The subdistrict is not larger than, and the period of time during which increments are elected to be received is not longer than, that which is necessary in the opinion of the municipality to provide for the additional costs due to the designated hazardous substance site.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.176, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DURATION OF TAX INCREMENT FINANCING DISTRICTS.] (a) Subject to the limitations contained in paragraphs (b) to (f), any tax increment financing district as to which bonds are outstanding, payment for which the tax increment and other revenues have been pledged, shall remain in existence at least as long as the bonds continue to be outstanding.

(b) The tax increment pledged to the payment of the bonds and interest thereon may be discharged and the tax increment financing district may be terminated if sufficient funds have been irrevocably deposited in the debt service fund or other escrow account held in trust for all outstanding bonds to provide for the payment of the bonds at maturity or date of redemption and interest thereon to the maturity or redemption date.

(c) For bonds issued pursuant to section 469.178, subdivisions 2 and 3, the full faith and credit and any taxing powers of the municipality or authority shall continue to be pledged to the payment of the bonds until the principal of and interest on the bonds has been paid in full.

(d) No tax increment shall be paid to an authority for a tax increment financing district after three years from the date of certification of the original assessed value of the taxable real property in the district by the county auditor or after August 1, 1982, for tax increment financing districts authorized prior to August 1, 1979, unless within the three-year period (1) bonds have been issued pursuant to section 469.178, or in aid of a project pursuant to any other law, except revenue bonds issued pursuant to sections 469.152 to 469.165, prior to August 1, 1979, or (2) the authority has acquired property within the district, or (3) the authority has constructed or caused to be constructed public improvements within the district.

(e) (i) For districts certified after August 1, 1979, no tax increment shall in any event be paid to the authority from a redevelopment district after 25 years from date of receipt by the authority of the first tax increment, provided that for districts approved under section 469.175, subdivision 3, after April 1, 1988, if bonds or obligations issued to implement the district's tax increment financing plan are exempt from federal and state income taxes, the duration of the district is 20 years. No tax increment shall in any event be paid to the authority after 25 years from the date of the receipt for a housing district, after 25 years from the date of the receipt for a mined underground space development district, and after eight years from the date of the receipt, or ten years from approval of the tax increment financing plan, whichever is less, for an economic development district. In the case of a redevelopment district that has a maximum duration of 20 years under this subdivision, the authority may waive receipt of increment for the first year in which property tax is paid by captured assessed value. For purposes of determining the duration limits the waived increment does not constitute receipt of increment.

(ii) For tax increment financing districts created prior to August 1, 1979, no tax increment shall be paid to the authority after ~~30 years from August 1, 1979~~ April 1, 2001, or the term of a bond or obligation outstanding on April 1, 1990, secured by increments from the district or project area, whichever time is greater, provided that in no case will a tax increment be paid to an authority after August 1, 2009, from such a district.

(f) Modification of a tax increment financing plan pursuant to section 469.175, subdivision 4, shall not extend the durational limitations of this subdivision.

If a parcel of a district is part of a designated hazardous substance site or a hazardous substance subdistrict, tax increment may be paid to the authority from the parcel for longer than the period otherwise provided by this subdivision. The extended period for collection of tax increment shall begin on the date of receipt of the first tax increment from the parcel that is more than any tax increment received from the parcel before the date of the certification under section 469.174, subdivision 7, paragraph (b), and received after the date of certification to the county auditor described in section 469.174, subdivision 7, paragraph (b). The extended period for collection of tax increment shall be the lesser of: (1) 25 years from the date of commencement of the extended period; or (2) the period necessary to recover the costs of removal actions or remedial actions specified in a development response action plan.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.176, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [LIMITATION ON USE OF TAX INCREMENT.] (a) All revenues derived from tax increment shall be used in accordance with the tax increment financing plan. The revenues shall be used solely for the following purposes: (1) to pay the principal of and interest on bonds issued to finance a project; (2) by a rural development financing authority for the purposes stated in section 469.142, by a port authority or municipality exercising the powers of a port authority to finance or otherwise pay the cost of redevelopment pursuant to sections 469.048 to 469.068, by an economic development authority to finance or otherwise pay the cost of redevelopment pursuant to sections 469.090 to 469.108, by a housing and redevelopment authority or economic development authority to finance or otherwise pay public redevelopment costs pursuant to sections 469.001 to 469.047, by a municipality or economic development authority to finance or otherwise pay the capital and administration costs of a development district pursuant to sections 469.124 to 469.134, by a municipality or redevelopment agency to finance or otherwise pay premiums for insurance or other security guaranteeing the payment when due of principal of and interest on the bonds pursuant to chapter 462C, sections 469.152 to 469.165, or both, or to accumulate and maintain a reserve securing the payment when due of the principal of and interest on the bonds pursuant to chapter 462C, sections 469.152 to 469.165, or both, which revenues in the reserve shall not exceed, subsequent to the fifth anniversary of the date of issue of the first bond issue secured by the reserve, an amount equal to 20 percent of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding and nondefeased bonds secured by the reserve. Tax increments may be used to pay for the county's actual administrative expenses under sections 469.174 to 469.179; the county may require payment of those expenses by February 15 of the year after the year in which the expenses are incurred. The amount of these payments are not required to be set forth in the tax increment financing plan for the project. To obtain payment for actual administrative costs, the county auditor must submit to the authority a record of costs incurred by the county auditor related to administration of the authority's tax increment financing districts. Revenue derived from tax increment from a mined underground space development district may be used only to pay for the costs of excavating and supporting the space, of providing public access to the mined underground space including roadways, and of installing utilities including fire sprinkler systems in the space. Revenue derived from tax increment from a district approved under section 469.175, subdivision 3, after April 1, 1988, all or a portion of which qualified as a redevelopment district under section 469.174, subdivision 10, paragraph (3), or from parcels added to an existing district of that type after April 1, 1988, may be used only to (1) acquire parcels on which the improvements described in clause (2) will occur; (2) pay for the cost of correcting the unusual terrain or soil deficiencies and the additional cost of installing public improvements directly caused by the deficiencies; and (3) pay for the administrative expenses of the authority allocable to the district. The sale by the authority of a parcel acquired and improved as described in clauses (1) and (2) must be for a price that is no less than the cost of acquisition. No less than one-half of the revenue derived from tax increment from a housing project must be used to finance or otherwise pay the cost of land acquisition, site improvements, public improvements directly related to, and construction or renovation of a project consisting of housing described in section 469.174, subdivision 11, including allocated administration costs. Tax increments from economic development projects may not be used to provide improvements, loans, subsidies, grants, interest rate subsidies, or assistance in any form to buildings and ancillary facilities used for retail or wholesale sales or for office purposes. Improvements include, but are not limited to, parking lots or ramps, utilities, parks integral to the building or buildings or streets, highways, or highway interchanges providing improved access to the retail or office facilities. Buildings where less than five percent of the floor space is used for office or retail or wholesale purposes will not be considered to be used for retail or wholesale sales or for office purposes.

(b) Revenues derived from tax increment may be used to finance the costs of an interest reduction program operated pursuant to section 469.012.

subdivisions 7 to 10; or pursuant to other law granting interest reduction authority and power by reference to those subdivisions only under the following conditions: (1) tax increments may not be collected for a program for a period in excess of 12 years after the date of the first interest rate reduction payment for the program, (2) tax increments may not be used for an interest reduction program, if the proceeds of bonds issued pursuant to section 469.178 after December 31, 1985, have been or will be used to provide financial assistance to the specific project which would receive the benefit of the interest reduction program, and (3) tax increments may not be used to finance an interest reduction program for owner-occupied single-family dwellings.

(c) These revenues shall not be used to circumvent existing levy limit law. No revenues derived from tax increment from any district, whether certified before or after August 1, 1979, shall be used for the acquisition, construction of, renovation, operation, or maintenance of a municipally owned building to be used primarily and regularly for conducting the business of the a municipality, county, school district, or any other local unit of government or the state or federal government. This provision shall not prohibit the use of revenues derived from tax increments for the construction or renovation of a parking structure, a commons area used as a public park, or a facility used for social, recreational, or conference purposes and not primarily for conducting the business of the municipality.

(d) If a tax increment district is located in a municipality, parts of which are situated in more than one county, the revenue derived from tax increments from parcels located in one county must be expended for the direct and primary benefit of a project located or conducted within that county, unless the county boards of each of the counties involved agree to waive this requirement.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.176, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [REQUIREMENT FOR AGREEMENTS.] No more than 25 percent, by acreage, of the property to be acquired within a project which contains a redevelopment district, or ten percent, by acreage, of the property to be acquired within a project which contains a housing or economic development district, as set forth in the tax increment financing plan, shall at any time be owned by an authority as a result of acquisition with the proceeds of bonds issued pursuant to section 469.178 unless prior to acquisition in excess of the percentages, the authority has concluded an agreement for the development or redevelopment of the property acquired and which provides recourse for the authority should the development or redevelopment not be completed. This subdivision does not apply to a parcel of a district that is a designated hazardous substance site established under section 3 or part of a hazardous substance subdistrict established under section 9.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.176, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [ACTION REQUIRED.] (a) If, after four years from the date of certification of the original assessed value of the tax increment financing district pursuant to section 469.177, no demolition, rehabilitation, or renovation of property or other site preparation, including improvement of a street adjacent to a parcel but not installation of utility service including sewer or water systems, has been commenced on a parcel located within a tax increment financing district by the authority or by the owner of the parcel in accordance with the tax increment financing plan, no additional tax increment may be taken from that parcel, and the original assessed value of that parcel shall be excluded from the original assessed value of the tax increment financing district. If the authority or the owner of the parcel subsequently commences demolition, rehabilitation, or renovation or other site preparation on that parcel including improvement of a street adjacent to that parcel, in accordance with the tax increment financing plan, the authority shall certify to the county auditor that the activity has commenced, and the county auditor shall certify the assessed value thereof as most recently certified by the commissioner of revenue and add it to the original assessed value of the tax increment financing district. The county auditor must enforce the provisions of this subdivision. The authority must by February 1 of the fifth year following the year in which a parcel was certified as included in the district submit to the county auditor evidence that the required activity has taken place for each parcel in the district.

(b) This subdivision applies to all tax increment districts, whether created before or after August 1, 1979. The subdivision applies to districts created before August 1, 1979 as provided in this paragraph. The four-year period is deemed to begin April 1, 1988, provided that activity on or improvements to a parcel occurring prior to that date qualify the parcel for retention in the district. The authority must submit the evidence of activity or improvements for each parcel to the county auditor, as required by paragraph (a), by June 1, 1992. In the case of a district or a portion of a district for which no tax increment financing plan has been prepared, improvements are deemed to have been commenced "in accordance with the tax increment financing plan" when one of the following conditions is met:

(1) acquisition or improvement of the parcel was financed by the authority with increment revenues or with the proceeds of tax increment bonds or with other funds of the authority after the inclusion of the parcel in the district;

(2) public improvements, excluding sewer and water improvements, were installed or constructed on the parcel or on land adjacent to the parcel after inclusion of the parcel in the district and the improvements were financed with increments or other authority revenues, but excluding general city revenues or special assessments if the authority is the same as the municipality;

(3) construction of the improvements occurred on the parcel and the municipality passes a resolution stating that the improvements or other improvements of approximately equal (or greater) market value would not have occurred if the authority had not undertaken efforts of the type specified in clauses (1) or (2) on other parcels in the district. If the authority submits evidence that (i) at least 60 percent of the parcels, or (ii) parcels comprising at least 60 percent of the geographic area in the district, or (iii) parcels from which is derived at least 60 percent of the captured assessed value of the district, meet the requirements of this paragraph by June 1, 1992, all parcels may remain in the district notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a).

(c) In the case of tax increment projects for which certification was requested before August 1, 1979, and for which a defeased bond was outstanding on April 1, 1988, the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b)

apply as specified in this paragraph. Increments shall continue to be collected from parcels that fail to meet the requirements of paragraphs (a) and (b). The authority or other administering entity shall deposit these increments in a separate account in the debt service or other bond fund to defease bonds outstanding on April 1, 1988, for the project. The amount of funds in the separate account shall not affect or be considered in computation of the amount required to be deposited in the regular debt service fund under the bond resolution, indenture, or other contract. When the sum of the amount in the regular debt service fund and the separate account are sufficient to fully defease the bonds outstanding on April 1, 1988, for the project or when such bonds are fully defeased or paid by refunding or otherwise, increments may no longer be collected from a parcel that does not satisfy the requirements of paragraphs (a) and (b).

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.177, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ORIGINAL ASSESSED VALUE.] Upon or after adoption of a tax increment financing plan, the auditor of any county in which the district is situated shall, upon request of the authority, certify the original assessed value of the tax increment financing district as described in the tax increment financing plan and shall certify in each year thereafter the amount by which the original assessed value has increased or decreased as a result of a change in tax exempt status of property within the district, reduction or enlargement of the district or changes pursuant to subdivision 4. In the case of a mined underground space development district the county auditor shall certify the original assessed value as zero, plus the assessed value, if any, previously assigned to any subsurface area included in the mined underground space development district pursuant to section 272.04. For districts approved under section 469.175, subdivision 3, or parcels added to existing districts after April 1, 1988, if the classification under section 273.13 of property located in a district changes to a classification that has a different assessment ratio, the original assessed value of that property shall be redetermined at the time when its use is changed as if the property had originally been classified in the same class in which it is classified after its use is changed. The amount to be added to the original assessed value of the district as a result of previously tax exempt real property within the district becoming taxable shall be equal to the assessed value of the real property as most recently assessed pursuant to section 273.18 or, if that assessment was made more than one year prior to the date of title transfer rendering the property taxable, the value assessed by the assessor at the time of the transfer. The amount to be added to the original assessed value of the district as a result of enlargements thereof shall be equal to the assessed value of the added real property as most recently certified by the commissioner of revenue as of the date of modification of the tax increment financing plan pursuant to section 469.175, subdivision 4. For districts approved under section 469.175, subdivision 3, after April 1, 1988, if the assessed value of a property increases because the property no longer qualifies under the Minnesota agricultural property tax law, section 273.111; the Minnesota open space property tax law, section 273.112; or the metropolitan agricultural preserves act, chapter 473H, the increase in assessed value must be added to the original assessed value. Each year the auditor shall also add to the original assessed value of each economic development district an amount equal to the original assessed value for the preceding year multiplied by the average percentage increase in the assessed valuation of all property included in the economic development district during the five years prior to certification of the district. The amount to be subtracted from the original assessed value of the district as a result of previously taxable real property within the district becoming tax exempt, or a reduction in the geographic area of the district, shall be the amount of original assessed value initially attributed to the property becoming tax exempt or being removed from the district. If the assessed value of property located within the tax increment financing district is reduced by reason of a court-ordered abatement, stipulation agreement, voluntary abatement made by the assessor or auditor or by order of the commissioner of revenue, the reduction shall be applied to the original assessed value of the district when the property upon which the abatement is made has not been improved since the date of certification of the district and to the captured assessed value of the district in each year thereafter when the abatement relates to improvements made after the date of certification. The county auditor may specify reasonable form and content of the request for certification of the authority and any modification thereof pursuant to section 469.175, subdivision 4.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.177, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [TAX INCREMENT, RELATIONSHIP TO CHAPTER 473F]

(a) Unless the governing body elects pursuant to clause (b) the following method of computation shall apply:

(1) The original assessed value and the current assessed value shall be determined before the application of the fiscal disparity provisions of chapter 473F. Where the original assessed value is equal to or greater than the current assessed value, there is no captured assessed value and no tax increment determination. Where the original assessed value is less than the current assessed value, the difference between the original assessed value and the current assessed value is the captured assessed value. This amount less any portion thereof which the authority has designated, in its tax increment financing plan, to share with the local taxing districts is the retained captured assessed value of the authority.

(2) The county auditor shall exclude the retained captured assessed value of the authority from the taxable value of the local taxing districts in determining local taxing district mill rates. The mill rates so determined are to be extended against the retained captured assessed value of the authority as well as the taxable value of the local taxing districts. The tax generated by the extension of the local taxing district mill rates to the retained captured assessed value of the authority is the tax increment of the authority.

(b) The governing body may, by resolution approving the tax increment financing plan pursuant to section 469.175, subdivision 3, elect the following method of computation:

(1) The original assessed value shall be determined before the application of the fiscal disparity provisions of chapter 473F. The current assessed value shall exclude any fiscal disparity commercial-industrial assessed value increase between the original year and the current year multiplied by the fiscal disparity ratio determined pursuant to section 473F.08, subdivision 6. Where the original assessed value is equal to or greater than the current assessed value, there is no captured assessed value and no tax increment determination. Where the original assessed value is less than the current assessed value, the difference between the original assessed value and the current assessed value is the captured assessed value. This amount less any portion thereof which the authority has designated, in its tax increment financing plan, to share with the local taxing districts is the retained captured assessed value of the authority.

(2) The county auditor shall exclude the retained captured assessed value of the authority from the taxable value of the local taxing districts in determining local taxing district mill rates. The mill rates so determined are to be extended against the retained captured assessed value of the authority as well as the taxable value of the local taxing districts. The tax generated by the extension of the local taxing district mill rates to the retained captured assessed value of the authority is the tax increment of the authority.

(3) An election by the governing body pursuant to ~~part~~ paragraph (b) shall be submitted to the county auditor by the authority at the time of the request for certification pursuant to subdivision 1.

(c) The method of computation of tax increment applied to a district pursuant to ~~clause~~ paragraph (a) or (b) shall remain the same for the duration of the district, except that the governing body may elect to change its election from the method of computation in paragraph (a) to the method in paragraph (b).

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.177, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [PAYMENT TO SCHOOL DISTRICT FOR REFERENDUM LEVY INCREASE.] If a tax increment financing district is located in a school district in which the voters have approved new millage or an increase in millage pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 2, the authority must pay to the school district the amount raised by the new or increased millage. The amount to be paid to the school district must be computed as follows:

(1) Subtract the mill rate approved by the voters of the school district pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 2, as of June 30, 1988, or the date the tax increment financing district was certified, whichever is later, and still in effect on the date the levy is certified, from the mill rate approved by the voters under that section as of the date the levy is certified. If the result is less than zero, select zero.

(2) Multiply the result in clause (1) by the ratio of the school district's actual levy certified pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 2, to its permitted levy under that section.

(3) Multiply the result in clause (2) by the retained captured assessed value of the authority located within that school district as of January 2 of the year in which the levy is certified.

The county auditor must compute the payment required by this subdivision and report the amount to the authority, the school district, and the commissioner of education by March 1 of each year. The payment must be made by November 1 of the year in which the property taxes are payable.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.177, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PRIOR PLANNED IMPROVEMENTS.] The authority shall, after diligent search, accompany its request for certification to the county auditor pursuant to subdivision 1, or its notice of district enlargement pursuant to section 469.175, subdivision 4, with a listing of all properties within the tax increment financing district or area of enlargement for which building permits have been issued during the 18 months immediately preceding approval of the tax increment financing plan by the municipality pursuant to section 469.175, subdivision 3. The county auditor shall increase the original assessed value of the district by the assessed valuation of the improvements each improvement for which the a building permit was issued, excluding the assessed valuation of improvements for which a building permit was issued during the three-month period immediately preceding said approval of the tax increment financing plan, as certified by the assessor.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.179, is amended to read:

469.179 [EXISTING PROJECTS.]

Subdivision 1. [EXEMPTION.] The provisions of sections 469.174 to 469.178 shall not affect any project for which tax increment certification was requested pursuant to law prior to August 1, 1979, or any project carried on by an authority pursuant to section 469.033, subdivision 5, with respect to which the governing body has by resolution designated properties for inclusion in the district prior to August 1, 1979, except:

(1) as otherwise expressly provided in sections 469.174 to 469.178; or

(3) that any enlargements of the geographic area of an existing tax increment financing district subsequent to August 1, 1979, shall be accomplished in accordance with and shall subject the property added as a result of the enlargement to the terms and conditions of sections 469.174 to 469.178 as provided in subdivision 2; or

(4) that beginning with taxes payable in 1980, section 469.177, subdivision 3, clause (b), shall apply to all development districts created pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1978, chapter 472A, or any special law, prior to August 1, 1979.

Subd. 2. [APPLICATION TO EXISTING DISTRICTS.] If the development or redevelopment activity within the project or district of a tax increment financing project certified prior to August 1, 1979, is extended beyond the scope of activity set forth in the district's redevelopment plan under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 462, or Minnesota Statutes, chapter 472A, if applicable, after April 1, 1988, the authority must with regard to the new activity conform to the provisions of sections 469.174 to 469.178 with the following exceptions.

Homestead treatment applies even if legal title to the property is in the name of the corporation or partnership and not in the name of the person residing on it. "Family farm corporation" and "family farm" have the meanings given in section 500.24.

(b) In addition to property specified in paragraph (a), any other residences owned by corporations or partnerships described in paragraph (a) which are located on agricultural land and occupied as homesteads by shareholders or partners who are actively engaged in farming on behalf of the corporation or partnership must also be assessed as class 2a property or as class 1b property under section 273.13, subdivision 22, paragraph (b), but the property eligible is limited to the residence itself and as much of the land surrounding the homestead, not exceeding one acre, as is reasonably necessary for the use of the dwelling as a home, and does not include any other structures that may be located on it.

Agricultural land used for purposes of a homestead and actively farmed by a person holding a vested remainder interest in it must be classified class 2a. If agricultural land is classified class 2a, any other dwellings on the land used for purposes of a homestead by persons holding vested remainder interests who are actively engaged in farming the property, and up to one acre of the land surrounding each homestead and reasonably necessary for the use of the dwelling as a home, must also be assessed class 2a and is entitled to the homestead credit.

The amount of the reduction shall not exceed $700.

(b) Class 2b property is (1) real estate, rural in character and used exclusively for growing trees for timber, lumber, and wood and wood products; and (2) real estate that is nonhomestead agricultural land. Class 2b property is assessed at 40 percent of market value.

Agricultural land as used in this section shall mean contiguous acreage of ten acres or more, primarily used during the preceding year for agricultural purposes. Agricultural use may include pasture, timber, waste, unusable wild land and land included in federal farm programs.

Real estate of less than ten acres used principally for raising poultry, livestock, fruit, vegetables or other agricultural products, shall be considered as agricultural land, if it is not used primarily for residential purposes.

The assessor shall determine and list separately on the records the market value of the homestead dwelling and the one acre of land on which that dwelling is located. If any farm buildings or structures are located on this homesteaded acre of land, their market value shall not be included in this separate determination.

The commissioner of education shall certify the adjusted reduced tax levy to the county auditor and the auditor shall reduce the tax levy otherwise to be included in the rolls next prepared by the amount certified, unless the school board determines that the excess amount is necessary to ensure the prompt and full payment of the obligations and any call premium on the obligations, or will be used for redemption of the obligations in accordance with their terms. If the governing body, including the governing body of a school district, in any year makes an irrevocable appropriation to the debt service fund of moneys actually on hand or if there is on hand any excess amount in the debt service fund, the recording officer may certify to the county auditor the fact and amount thereof and the auditor shall reduce by the amount so certified the amount otherwise to be included in the rolls next thereafter prepared.

ROBBINSDALE SPECIAL SERVICE DISTRICT

Section 1. [CITY OF ROBBINSDALE SPECIAL SERVICE DISTRICT; DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICABILITY.] For purposes of sections 1 to 10, the terms in this section have the meanings given them.

Subd. 2. [CITY.] "City" means the city of Robbinsdale.

Subd. 3. [SPECIAL SERVICES.] "Special services" means all services rendered or contracted for by the city, including, but not limited to:

(a) the repair, maintenance, operation, and construction of any improvements authorized by section 429.021;

(b) parking services rendered or contracted for by the city; and

(c) any other service provided to the public by the city that is authorized by law or charter.

Special services do not include a service that is ordinarily provided throughout the city from general fund revenues of the city unless an increased level of the service is provided in the special service district.

Subd. 4. [SPECIAL SERVICE DISTRICT.] "Special service district" means a defined area within the city where special services are rendered and the costs of the special services are paid from revenues collected from service charges imposed within that area.

Subd. 5. [ASSESSED VALUE.] "Assessed value" means the assessed value most recently certified by the county auditor before the effective date of the ordinance or resolution adopted under section 2 or 3.

Subd. 6. [LAND AREA.] "Land area" means the land area in the district that is subject to property taxes.

Sec. 2. [ESTABLISHMENT OF SPECIAL SERVICE DISTRICT.]

Subdivision 1. [ORDINANCE.] The governing body of the city may adopt an ordinance establishing a special service district. Only property which is classified under section 273.13 and used for commercial, industrial, or public utility purposes, or is vacant land zoned or designated on a land use plan for commercial or industrial use and located in the special service district, may be subject to the levies and charges imposed by the city on the special service district. Other types of property may be included within the boundaries of the special service district but are not subject to the levies or charges imposed by the city on the special service district. If 50 percent or more of the market value of a parcel of property is classified under section 273.13 as commercial, industrial, or vacant land zoned or designated on a land use plan for commercial or industrial use, or public utility for the current assessment year, then the entire market value of the property is subject to a service charge based on assessed value for purposes of sections 1 to 10. The ordinance shall describe with particularity the area within the city to be included in the district and the special services to be furnished in the district. The ordinance may not be adopted until after a public hearing has been held on the question. Notice of the hearing shall include the time and place of hearing, a map showing the boundaries of the proposed district, and a statement that all persons owning property in the proposed district will be given opportunity to be heard at the hearing.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE.] Notice of the hearing must be given by publication in at least two issues of the official newspaper of the city. The two publications must be two weeks apart and the hearing must be held at least three days after the last publication. Not less than ten days before the hearing, notice must also be mailed to the owner of each parcel within the area proposed to be included in the district. For the purpose of giving mailed notice, owners are those shown on the records of the county auditor. Other records may be used to supply the necessary information. For properties that are tax exempt or subject to taxation on a gross earnings basis in lieu of property tax and are not listed on the records of the county auditor, the owners must be ascertained by any practicable means and mailed notice given them. At the public hearing a person affected by the proposed district may be heard orally in respect to any issues relevant to the proposed district. The hearing may be adjourned from time to time and the ordinance establishing the district may be adopted at any time within six months after the date of the conclusion of the hearing by a vote of the majority of the governing body of the city.

Sec. 3. [SERVICE CHARGE AUTHORITY; NOTICE AND HEARING REQUIREMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [HEARING.] Service charges may be imposed by the city within the special service district at a rate or amount sufficient to produce the revenues required to provide special services in the district. To determine the appropriate mill rate for a service charge based on assessed value, taxable property or value must be determined without regard to captured or original assessed value under section 469.177. Service charges may not be imposed to finance a special service if the service is ordinarily provided by the city from its general fund revenues unless the service is provided in the district at an increased level. In that case, only an amount to pay for the increased level may be imposed. A service charge may not be imposed on the receipts from the sale of intoxicating liquor, food, or lodging. Before the imposition of service charges in a district, for each calendar year, notice must be given and a hearing must be held under section 2 and notice must also be mailed to any individual or business organization subject to a service charge. For purposes of this section the notice shall also include:

(1) a statement that all interested persons will be given an opportunity to be heard at the hearing regarding a proposed service charge;

(2) the estimated cost of improvements to be paid for in whole or in part by service charges imposed under this section, the estimated cost of operating and maintaining the improvements during the first year and completion of the improvements, the proposed method and source of financing the improvements, and the annual cost of operating and maintaining the improvements;

(3) the proposed rate or amount of the proposed service charge to be imposed in the district during the calendar year and the nature and character of special services to be rendered in the district during the calendar year; and

(4) a statement that the petition requirements of section 8 have either been met or do not apply to the proposed service charge.

Within six months of the public hearing, the city may adopt a resolution imposing a service charge within the district not exceeding the amount or rate expressed in the notice issued under this section.

Subd. 2. [EXEMPTION OF CERTAIN PROPERTIES FROM TAXES AND SERVICE CHARGES.] Property exempt from taxation by section 272.02 is exempt from any service charges imposed under sections 1 to 10.

Subd. 3. [LEVY LIMIT.] Service charges imposed under sections 1 to 10 are not included in the calculation of levies or limits on levies imposed under law or charter.

Sec. 4. [ENLARGEMENT OF SPECIAL SERVICE DISTRICTS.]

Boundaries of a special service district may be enlarged only after hearing and notice as provided in sections 2 and 3. Notice must be served in the original district and in the area proposed to be added to the district. Taxable property added to the district is subject to all service charges imposed within the district after the property becomes a part of the district. The petition requirement in section 8 and the veto power in section 9 apply only to owners, individuals, and business organizations in the area proposed to be added to the district.

Sec. 5. [COLLECTION OF SERVICE CHARGES.] Service charges may be imposed on the basis of the assessed value of the property on which the service charge is imposed, but must be spread only upon the assessed value of the taxable property described in the ordinance. Service charges based on assessed value may be payable and collected at the same time and in the same manner as provided for payment and collection of ad valorem taxes. Other service charges imposed must be collected as provided by ordinance. Service charges based on assessed value collected under sections 1 to 10 are not included in computations under section 469.177 or any other law that applies to general ad valorem levies.

Sec. 6. [BONDS.]

At any time after a contract for the construction of all or part of an improvement authorized under this act has been entered into or the work has been ordered done by day labor, the governing body of the city may issue obligations in the amount it deems necessary to defray in whole or in part the expense incurred and estimated to be incurred in making the improvement, including every item of cost from inception to completion and all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the improvement or the financing. The obligations are payable primarily out of the proceeds of the service charge based on assessed value imposed under section 3, or from any other special assessments or nontax revenues available to be pledged for their payment under charter or statutory authority, or from two or more of those sources. The governing body may, by resolution adopted prior to the sale of obligations, pledge the full faith, credit, and taxing power of the city to assure payment of the principal and interest if the proceeds of the service charge in the district are insufficient to pay the principal and interest. The obligations must be issued in accordance with chapter 475, except that an election is not required, and the amount of the obligations need not be included in determining the net debt of the city under the provisions of any law or charter limiting debt.

Sec. 7. [ADVISORY BOARD.]

The governing body of the city may create and appoint an advisory board for each special service district in the city to advise the governing body in connection with the construction, maintenance, and operation of improvements, and the furnishing of special services in a district. The advisory board shall make recommendations to the governing body on the requests and complaints of owners, occupants, and users of property within the district and members of the public. Before the adoption of any proposal by the governing body to provide services or impose service charges within the district, the advisory board of the district shall have an opportunity to review and comment upon the proposal.

Sec. 8. [PETITION REQUIRED.]

No action may be taken under section 2 unless owners of 25 percent or more of the land area of the proposed special service district and owners of 25 percent or more of the assessed value of the proposed special service district file a petition requesting a public hearing on the proposed action with the city clerk. No action may be taken under section 3 to impose a service charge based on assessed value unless owners of 25 percent or more of the land area subject to a proposed service charge and owners of 25 percent or more of the assessed value subject to a proposed service charge file a petition requesting a public hearing on the proposed action with the city clerk. No action may be taken under section 3 to impose any other type of service charge unless 25 percent or more of the individual or business organizations subject to the proposed service charge file a petition requesting a public hearing on the proposed action with the city clerk. If the boundaries of a proposed district are changed or the land area or assessed value subject to a service charge or the individuals or business organizations subject to a service charge are changed after the public hearing, a petition meeting the requirements of this section must be filed with the city clerk before the ordinance establishing the district or resolution imposing the service charge may become effective.

Sec. 9. [VETO POWER OF OWNERS.]

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE OF RIGHT TO FILE OBJECTIONS.] Except as provided in section 10, the effective date of any ordinance or resolution adopted under sections 2 and 3 must be at least 45 days after it is adopted. Within five days after adoption of the ordinance or resolution, a summary of the ordinance or resolution must be mailed to the owner of each parcel included in the special service district and any individual or business organization subject to a service charge in the same manner that notice is mailed under section 2. The mailing must include a notice that owners subject to a service charge based on assessed value and individuals and business organizations subject to a service charge have a right to veto the ordinance or resolution by filing the required number of objections with the city clerk before the effective date of the ordinance or resolution and that a copy of the ordinance or resolution is on file with the city clerk for public inspection.

Subd. 2. [REQUIREMENTS FOR VETO.] If owners of 50 percent or more of the land area in the district subject to the service charge based on assessed value and owners of 50 percent or more of the assessed value in the district subject to the service charge based on assessed value file an objection to the ordinance adopted by the city under section 2 with the city clerk before the effective date of the ordinance, the ordinance does not become effective. If owners of 50 percent or more of the land area subject to the service charge based on assessed value and owners of 50 percent or more of the assessed value subject to the service charge based on assessed value file an objection to the resolution adopted imposing a service charge based on assessed value under section 3 with the city clerk before the effective date of the resolution, the resolution does not become effective. If 50 percent or more of individuals and business organizations subject to a service charge file an objection to the resolution adopted imposing a service charge under section 3 with the city clerk before the effective date of the resolution, the resolution does not become effective.

Sec. 10. [EXCLUSION FROM PETITION REQUIREMENTS AND VETO POWER.]

The petition requirements of section 8 and the right of owners and those subject to a service charge to veto a resolution in section 9 do not apply to second or subsequent years' applications of a service charge that is authorized to be in effect for more than one year under a resolution that has met the petition requirements of section 8 and which has not been vetoed under section 9 for the first year's application. A resolution imposing a service charge for more than one year must not be adopted unless the notice of public hearing required by section 3 and the notice mailed with the adopted resolution under section 9 include the following information:

(1) in the case of improvements, the maximum service charge to be imposed in any year and the maximum number of years the service charges imposed to pay for the improvement; and

(2) in the case of operating and maintenance services, the maximum service charge to be imposed in any year and the maximum number of years, or a statement that the service charge will be imposed for an indefinite number of years, the service charges imposed to pay for operation and maintenance services.

The resolution may provide that the maximum service charge to be imposed in any year will increase or decrease from the maximum amount authorized in the preceding year based on an indicator of increased cost or a percentage amount established by the resolution.

Subdivision 1. [TERMS DEFINED.] For the purposes of this article, the terms defined in this section have the meanings given.

Subd. 2. [CITY.] "City" means the city of Minneapolis.

Subd. 3. [SPECIAL SERVICES.] "Special services" means the following services rendered or contracted for by the city:

(1) snow and ice removal;

(2) sweeping and cleaning sidewalks, curbs, gutters, streets, and alleys;

(3) litter, poster, and handbill removal;

(4) construction, repair, operation, and maintenance of sidewalks, curbs, gutters, bus shelters, lighting, benches, chairs, tables, telephone booths, traffic signs, fire hydrants, newsstands, kiosks, trash receptacles, utility connections, marquees, awnings, canopies, display cases, information booths, and banners;

(6) security personnel, equipment, and systems;

(7) approval and supervision of special activities;

(8) insurance; and

(9) administration, coordination, studies, and preparation of designs.

Special services do not include a service that is ordinarily provided throughout the city from general fund revenues of the city unless an increased level of the service is provided in the special service district.

Special service district funds may be used to pay operating costs of a neighborhood business association composed of a majority of owners or operators of businesses located within the district.

Subd. 4. [SPECIAL SERVICE DISTRICT.] "Special service district" or "district" means a defined area within the city where special services are rendered and their cost is paid from revenues collected from service charges imposed within that area.

Subd. 5. [ASSESSED VALUE.] "Assessed value" means the assessed value most recently certified by the county auditor before the effective date of an ordinance or resolution adopted under section 2 or 3.

Sec. 2. [ESTABLISHMENT OF SPECIAL SERVICE DISTRICT.]

Subdivision 1. [ORDINANCE.] Upon receiving a petition from 25 percent or more of the owners of commercial property in an area, the governing body of the city may adopt an ordinance establishing a special service district in any area zoned for commercial, business, or industrial use outside of the area bounded by the Mississippi river and the centerlines of 10th Avenue South, Washington Avenue South, Chicago Avenue South, South 3rd Street, 11th Avenue South, South 6th Street, 5th Avenue South, South 12th Street, 4th Avenue South, East 16th Street, Marquette Avenue South, Grant Street, Willow Street, Harmon Place, Interstate Highway 94, Highway 12, North 12th Street, and 3rd Avenue North; and, south of 28th Street, west of Fremont Avenue South, north of 31st Street, and east of Humboldt Avenue South; and outside any other existing special service district. Only property that is used for commercial, business, or industrial purposes and located in the district may be subject to the charges imposed by the city on the district. Other types of property in the district and property or a portion of a property located within the district and used for residential purposes may receive services but are not subject to the charges imposed by the city on the district. The ordinance shall describe with particularity the area to be included in the district and the special services to be furnished in the district. The ordinance may be adopted only after a public hearing has been held on the question. Notice of the hearing shall include:

(1) the time and place of the hearing;

(2) the boundaries of the area by legal description and by street location where possible; and

(3) a statement that all persons owning property in the proposed district will be given the opportunity to be heard at the hearing.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE; HEARING.] Notice of the hearing shall be given by publication in two issues of the official newspaper of the city. The two publications shall be a week apart and the hearing shall be held at least three days after the last publication.

Not less than ten days before the hearing, notice shall also be mailed to the owner and property taxpayer of each parcel within the area proposed to be included in the district. For the purpose of giving mailed notice, owners shall be those shown on the records of the county auditor. For properties that are tax exempt or subject to taxation on a gross earnings basis in lieu of property tax and not listed on the records of the county auditor or the county treasurer, the owners shall be ascertained by any practicable means and mailed notice given them. Other records may be used to supply necessary information.

At the public hearing, any person affected by the proposed district may be heard orally in respect to any issues embodied in the notice. The hearing may be adjourned from time to time. The ordinance establishing the district may be adopted at any time within six months after the date of the conclusion of the hearing by a vote of the majority of the governing body of the city.

Subd. 3. [USE OF CITY EMPLOYEES.] If the city determines that any of the special services to be provided are under the jurisdiction of a city public employee bargaining unit, the city shall negotiate with that unit to determine whether that service shall be provided by the city or contracted for with another service provider.

Sec. 3. [RATE OF SERVICE CHARGE; NOTICE AND HEARING REQUIREMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [HEARING.] Service charges may be imposed by the city within the special service district at a rate or amount sufficient to produce revenues required to provide special services within the district. For purposes of determining the appropriate mill rate for a service charge based on assessed value, taxable property or value shall be determined without regard to captured or original assessed value under section 469.177 or to the distribution or contribution value under section 473F08. Service charges shall not be imposed to finance a special service if the service is ordinarily provided by the city from general fund revenues of the city unless the service is provided in the district at an increased level, in which case, a service charge may be imposed only to pay the amount for the increased level of service. A service charge shall not be imposed on the receipts from the sale of intoxicating liquor, food, or lodging. Each calendar year, before the imposition of service charges in a district, notice shall be given and a hearing held as provided by section 2. Notice shall also be mailed to any individual or business organization subject to a service charge. For purposes of this section, the notice shall also include:

(1) a statement that all interested persons will be given an opportunity to be heard at the hearing; and

(2) the proposed rate or amount of the proposed service charge to be imposed in the district during the calendar year and the estimated cost, nature, and character of special services to be rendered in the district during the calendar year.

Within six months of the public hearing, the city may by resolution impose a service charge within the district not exceeding the amount or rate expressed in the notice issued under this section.

Subd. 2. [EXEMPTION OF CERTAIN PROPERTIES FROM TAXES.] Property exempted from taxation by Minnesota Statutes, section 272.02, is exempt from any service charge based on assessed value imposed under this article.

Subd. 3. [SERVICE CHARGE ABATEMENT.] An individual or business organization subject to the service charge imposed under subdivision 1 may apply to the city for a service charge abatement for that calendar year on the basis of economic hardship. The city may grant the abatement of the service charge for the calendar year if the city determines that an economic hardship exists.

Sec. 4. [ENLARGEMENT OF SPECIAL SERVICE DISTRICTS.]

Boundaries of a special service district may be enlarged only after hearing and notice as provided by sections 2 and 3. Notice shall be served in the original district and in the area proposed to be added. Property added to the district shall be subject to all service charges imposed within the district after the property becomes a part of the district. On the question of enlargement, the veto power provided by section 10 may be exercised only by owners and individuals and business organizations in the area proposed to be added to the district.

Sec. 5. [COLLECTION OF SERVICE CHARGES]. Service charges may be imposed on the basis of the assessed value of the property on which the service charge is imposed, but must only be imposed on the property described in the ordinance. Service charges based on assessed value may be payable and collected at the same time and in the same manner as provided for payment and collection of ad valorem taxes. Other service charges imposed shall be collected as provided by the ordinance. Service charges based on assessed value imposed under this article are not subject to the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, section 469.177 and chapter 473F.

Sec. 6. [BONDS.]

At any time after a contract for all or part of an improvement authorized pursuant to this article has been entered into or the work has been ordered done by day labor, the governing body may issue obligations in the amount it deems necessary to defray in whole or in part the expense incurred or estimated to be incurred in making the improvement, including every item of cost from the inception to completion and all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the improvement or its financing. The obligations shall be payable primarily out of the proceeds of the service charge imposed under section 3. The governing body may, by resolution adopted before the sale of obligations, pledge the full faith, credit, and taxing power of the city to assure payment of the principal and interest if the proceeds of the service charge based on assessed value in the special service district are insufficient to pay the principal and interest. Obligations shall be issued in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, chapter 475, except that an election shall not be required and the amount of the obligation shall not be included in determining the net debt of the city under any provision of law or charter that limits debt.

Sec. 7. [LEVY LIMIT.]

Service charges imposed under this article shall be disregarded in the calculation of levies or limits on levies imposed under law or charter.

Sec. 8. [EXPIRATION.]

A special service district established under this article shall expire four years after the date of its establishment unless renewed as provided by section 2. After the expiration or termination of a district, service charges may continue to be imposed in the district to pay the costs of an improvement specified in section 1, subdivision 3, clause (4).

Sec. 9. [ADVISORY BOARD.]

The city council shall create and appoint an advisory board for the special service district to advise the governing body in connection with the furnishing of special services in the district. The advisory board shall make recommendations to the governing body on the requests and complaints of owners, occupants, and users of property within the district and members of the public. Before adoption of any proposal by the governing body to provide services or impose service charges within the district, the advisory board shall have an opportunity to review and comment upon the proposal. All members of the advisory board shall be property owners, tenants, or residents of the district.

Sec. 10. [VETO POWER OF OWNERS.]

Subdivision 1. An ordinance or resolution adopted pursuant to sections 2 and 3 shall take effect no sooner than 45 days after it is adopted. Within five days after its adoption, a copy shall be mailed to the owner and property taxpayer of each parcel included in the special service district and any individual or business organization subject to a service charge in the same manner as notice is mailed under section 2. The mailing shall include a notice that owners subject to a service charge based on assessed value and individuals and business organizations subject to a service charge have a right to veto the ordinance or resolution by filing the required number of objections with the city clerk before the effective date of the ordinance or resolution.

Subd. 2. If owners of at least 35 percent of the land area and owners of at least 35 percent of the assessed value in the district file an objection to the ordinance or resolution adopted by the city pursuant to section 2 with the city clerk before its effective date, the ordinance or resolution shall not take effect. If owners of at least 35 percent of the land area subject to a service charge based on assessed value and owners of at least 35 percent of the assessed value subject to a service charge file an objection to an ordinance or resolution adopted by the city imposing a service charge based on assessed value pursuant to section 3 with the city clerk before its effective date, the ordinance or resolution shall not take effect. If owners of at least 35 percent of the land area subject to a service charge and owners of at least 35 percent of the assessed value in the district subject to a service charge file an objection to the resolution adopted by the city imposing a service charge pursuant to section 3 with the city clerk before its effective date, the resolution shall not take effect.

Sec. 11. [EXCLUSION FROM VETO POWER.]

The right of owners and those subject to a service charge to veto an ordinance or resolution as provided by section 10 does not apply to second or subsequent years' applications of a service charge that is authorized to be in effect for more than one year. An ordinance or resolution imposing a service charge for more than one year shall not be adopted unless the notice of public hearing required by section 2 and the notice mailed with the adopted ordinance or resolution pursuant to section 10 includes the following information:

(a) In the case of an improvement, the maximum service charge to be imposed in any year and the maximum number of years that the service charges imposed to pay for the improvement.

(b) In the case of operating and maintenance services, the maximum service charge to be imposed in any year and the maximum number of years that the service charges imposed to pay for the operation and maintenance services, or a statement that the service charge will be imposed for an indefinite number of years.

The ordinance or resolution may provide that the maximum service charge to be imposed in any year will increase or decrease from the maximum amount authorized in the preceding year based on an indicator of increased cost or a percentage amount established by resolution.

Sec. 12. [LOCAL APPROVAL.]

This article takes effect the day after the governing body of the city of Minneapolis complies with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3.

Subd. 5. [SPECIAL SERVICE DISTRICT.] "Special service district" means a defined area within the city where special services are provided or contracted for and the costs of the special services are paid from revenues collected from service charges imposed within that area.

Subd. 6. [ASSESSED VALUE.] "Assessed value" means the assessed value most recently certified by the county auditor before the effective date of an ordinance or resolution adopted under section 2 or 3.

Sec. 2. [ESTABLISHMENT OF SPECIAL SERVICE DISTRICT.]

Subdivision 1. [ORDINANCE.] The governing body of the city may adopt an ordinance establishing special service districts in that part of the city bounded by the centerlines of the Mississippi River, 10th Avenue South, Washington Avenue South, Chicago Avenue South, South 3rd Street, 11th Avenue South, South 6th Street, 5th Avenue South, South 12th Street, 4th Avenue South, East 16th Street, Marquette Avenue South, Grant Street, Willow Street, Harmon Place, Interstate Highway 94, Highway 12, North 12th Street and 3rd Avenue North. Only property that is zoned for commercial, business, or industrial purposes or classified as public utility or vacant land and located in the special service district may be subject to the charges imposed by the city on the special service district. The ordinance must specifically describe the area within the city to be included in the district and the special services to be furnished in the district. The ordinance must state the reasons for establishment of a district. The ordinance may not be adopted until after a public hearing has been held on the question.

Subd. 2. [CONTRACTORS.] Notwithstanding any other provision of law or charter to the contrary, the city may provide or contract for services in the district. All hiring by contractors must be done in accordance with the Federal Civil Rights Act of 1964, United States Code, title 21, sections 2000e to 2000e-17; Minnesota Statutes, section 363.03; and the Minneapolis Code of Ordinances, chapters 139 and 141.

Subd. 3. [CITY EMPLOYEES.] Job activities for special services that are under the jurisdiction of any city public employee bargaining unit must be performed by a member of the bargaining unit.

Subd. 4. [NOTICE.] Notice of the hearing must be given by publication in two issues of the official newspaper of the city. Notice of the hearing shall include the time and place of hearing, a map showing the boundaries of the proposed district, and a statement that all persons owning property in the proposed district will be given opportunity to be heard at the hearing. The two publications must be a week apart and the hearing must be held at least three days after the last publication. Not less than ten days before the hearing, notice must also be mailed to the owner of each parcel within the area proposed to be included in the district and subject to service charges. For the purpose of giving mailed notice, owners are those shown on the records of the county auditor. Other records may be used to supply the necessary information. For properties that are tax exempt or subject to taxation on a gross earnings basis in lieu of property tax and that are not listed on the records of the county auditor, the owners must be ascertained by any practicable means and mailed notice given them.

Subd. 5. [PETITION; HEARING.] A public hearing may not be held on the establishment of a special service district under section 2 unless owners of at least 15 percent of the land area of the proposed district and the owners of at least 15 percent of the assessed value of the district file a petition with the city clerk requesting the hearing. At the public hearing a person affected by the proposed district may be heard orally in respect to any issues relevant to the proposed district. The hearing may be adjourned from time to time and the ordinance establishing the district may be adopted at any time within six months after the date of the conclusion of the hearing by a vote of the majority of the governing body of the city.

Subd. 6. [LEVEL OF SERVICE.] The governing body of the city shall not transfer the financial burden of citywide services to the district nor discriminate against the district in reductions and increases in citywide services because of the existence of the district. Prior to establishment of a district, the city and the downtown management board, provided in section 8, shall meet to review the level of services in the downtown area in order to assure that downtown is equitably served through the city's normal operating budget. They shall meet each succeeding year prior to the adoption of a budget for the district and prior to imposition of a service charge in the district under section 3.

Sec. 3. [SERVICE CHARGE; NOTICE AND HEARING REQUIREMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [SERVICE CHARGES.] Service charges may be imposed by the city within the special service district at a rate or amount sufficient to produce the revenues required to provide special services in the district. Service charges must be reasonably related to the special services provided. To determine the appropriate mill rate for a service charge based on assessed value, taxable property value must be determined without regard to captured or original assessed value under Minnesota Statutes, section 469.177, or to the distribution or contribution value under Minnesota Statutes, section 473F.08.

Subd. 2. [HEARING; NOTICE.] Before the imposition of service charges in a district, for each calendar year, notice must be given and a hearing must be held under section 2, and notice must also be mailed to any individual or business organization subject to a service charge. For purposes of this section, the notice shall also include:

(a) a statement that all interested persons will be given an opportunity to be heard at the hearing regarding a proposed service charge;

(b) the estimated cost of improvements to be paid for in whole or in part by service charges imposed under this section, the estimated cost of operating and maintaining the improvements during the first year after completion of the improvements, the proposed method and source of financing the improvements, and the annual cost of operating and maintaining the improvements; and

(c) the nature and character of special services to be provided in the district during the calendar year and the proposed service charge to be imposed in the district during the calendar year.

Subd. 3. [ADOPTION OF RESOLUTION.] Within six months of the public hearing, the city may adopt a resolution imposing a service charge within the district not exceeding the amount or rate expressed in the notice issued under this section. The resolution must describe the basis on which a service charge was determined.

Subd. 4. [EXEMPTION OF CERTAIN PROPERTIES.] In addition to the exemptions from service charges under section 2, subdivision 1, property exempt from taxation by Minnesota Statutes, section 272.02, is exempt from any service charges based on assessed value imposed under sections 1 to 9.

Subd. 5. [LEVY LIMIT.] Service charges imposed under sections 1 to 9 are not included in the calculation of levies or limits on levies imposed under law or charter.

Sec. 4. [LIMITATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SERVICES EXPENDITURES CAP] Service charges imposed in the special services district in any year for special services specified in section 1, subdivision 4, with the exception of construction under clause (d), must not exceed an amount equal to the funds raised by a levy of three mills on current assessed value in the district under property tax classifications in effect on July 1, 1987.

Subd. 2. [CAPITAL EXPENDITURES CAP] service charges imposed in the special services district in any year for construction of an improvement specified in section 1, subdivision 4, clause (d), must not exceed 50 percent of the total costs of the improvement, including interest, payable in that year. At least 20 percent of the total costs of the project must be specially assessed against benefitted property pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, chapter 429 or 430.

Subd. 3. [VETO OF ESTABLISHMENT.] The effective date of any establishment of a special service district under section 2 must be at least 45 days after it is adopted. Within five days after adoption, a summary of the city council action must be mailed to the owner of each parcel included in the special service district in the same manner that notice is mailed under section 2. The mailing must include a notice that owners have a right to veto the action by filing the required number of objections with the city clerk before the effective date of establishment and that a copy of the action is on file with the city clerk for public inspection. If owners of at least 35 percent of the land area included in the special service district or owners of at least 35 percent of the assessed value in the district file an objection to the establishment under section 2 with the city clerk before the effective date, the establishment does not become effective. In the event of a veto, no district shall be established during the current city fiscal year and until a petition meeting the qualifications set forth in this subdivision for a veto has been filed.

Subd. 4. [VETO OF PEDESTRIAN MALLS.] The effective date of any tax levy or imposition of service charge for construction of an improvement specified in section 1, subdivision 4, clause (d), under section 3 must be at least 45 days after it is adopted. Within five days after adoption, a summary of the city council action must be mailed to the owner of each parcel included in the special service district and any individual or business organization subject to a service charge in the same manner that notice is mailed under section 2. The mailing must include a notice that owners subject to a service charge based on assessed value and individuals and business organizations subject to a service charge have a right to veto the action by filing the required number of objections with the city clerk before the effective date of the levy or imposition and that a copy of the action is on file with the city clerk for public inspection. If owners of at least 35 percent of the land area subject to a service charge based on assessed value or owners of at least 35 percent of the assessed value subject to the service charge based on assessed value file an objection to the tax levy with the city clerk before the effective date, the service charge based on assessed value does not become effective. If individuals and business organizations subject to at least 35 percent of a service charge file an objection to imposition of the service charge with the city clerk before the effective date, the service charge does not become effective. In the event of a veto, no service charge imposed in the district for a pedestrian mall during the current city fiscal year and until a petition meeting the qualifications set forth in this subdivision for a veto has been filed. Service charges may continue to be levied and imposed in the district, regardless of a veto under this subdivision, to pay the costs of construction of an improvement specified in section 1, subdivision 4, clause (d), for which debt has been incurred and a service charge imposed during a prior year.

Subd. 5. [VETO OF SERVICES.] Each year after the fourth year after establishment of a district, the veto provisions of this subdivision apply, except that a veto is not effective until the year following the year of the veto. Four years after establishment of a district, the effective date of any imposition of service charge under section 3 for services specified in section 1, subdivision 4, with the exception of construction under clause (d), must be at least 45 days after it is adopted. Within five days after adoption, a summary of the city council action must be mailed to the owner of each parcel included in the special service district and any individual or business organization subject to a service charge, in the same manner that notice is mailed under section 2. The mailing must include a notice that owners subject to a service charge based on assessed value and individuals and business organizations subject to a service charge have a right to veto the action by filing the required number of objections with the city clerk before the effective date of the imposition, and that a copy of the action is on file with the city clerk for public inspection. If owners of at least 35 percent of the land area subject to a service charge based on assessed value or the owners of at least 35 percent of the assessed value subject to the service charge based on assessed value file an objection to the service charge for services under section 3 with the city clerk before the effective date, the service charge based on assessed value does not become effective. If individuals and business organizations, subject to at least 35 percent of a service charge file an objection to imposition of the service charge under section 3 with the city clerk before the effective date, the service charge does not become effective. In the event of a veto, no service charge imposed in the district for services during the current city fiscal year and until a petition meeting the qualifications set forth in this subdivision for a veto has been filed. Service charges may continue to be imposed in the district, regardless of a veto under this subdivision, to pay the costs of services specified in section 1, subdivision 4, with the exception of construction under clause (d), for which debt has been incurred prior to the filing of a veto.

Sec. 5. [ENLARGEMENT OF SPECIAL SERVICE DISTRICTS.]

Boundaries of a special service district may be enlarged or reduced only after petition, hearing, and notice requirements as provided in sections 2 and 3 are met. Notice must be served in the original district and in any area proposed to be added to the district. Property added to the district is subject to all service charges imposed within the district after the property becomes a part of the district. Property removed is not subject to charges imposed after the property is removed.

Sec. 6. [COLLECTION OF SERVICE CHARGES.] Service charges may be imposed on the basis of the assessed value of the property on which the service charge is imposed, but must be spread only upon the assessed value of the taxable property described in the ordinance. Service charges based on assessed value may be payable and collected at the same time and in the same manner as provided for payment and collection of ad valorem taxes. Other service charges imposed must be collected as provided by ordinance. Service charges based on assessed value collected under sections 1 to 9 are not included in computations under Minnesota Statutes, section 469.177, Minnesota Statutes, chapter 473F, or any other law that applies to general ad valorem levies.

Sec. 7. [DEBT OBLIGATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [CERTIFICATES OF INDEBTEDNESS.] Certificates of indebtedness may be issued for purposes of any work or service authorized pursuant to sections 1 to 9. The certificates shall be payable in not more than five years and be issued on the terms and in the manner determined by the issuer. The obligations are payable out of the proceeds of the tax or charge levied under section 3 in the same way as bonds.

Subd. 2. [BONDS.] Obligations may be issued in the amount deemed necessary to defray in whole or in part the expense incurred and estimated to be incurred in making a pedestrian mall improvement authorized under sections 1 to 9, including every item of cost from inception to completion and all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the improvement or the financing. The obligations are payable primarily out of the proceeds of the charge levied under section 3, or from any other special assessments or nontax revenues available to be pledged for their payment under charter or statutory authority, or from two or more of those sources. The full faith, credit, and taxing power of the city may, by resolution adopted prior to the sale of obligations, be pledged to assure payment of the principal and interest if the proceeds of the levy in the district are insufficient to pay the principal and interest.

Subd. 3. [PROCEDURES.] Debt obligations must be issued in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, chapter 475, and the city charter, except that an election is not required under any circumstances, and the amount of the obligations need not be included in determining the net debt of the city.

Sec. 8. [DOWNTOWN MANAGEMENT BOARD.]

The city council shall create and provide for appointment of a downtown management board for the special service district to advise the governing body in connection with the furnishing of special services in a district. The downtown management board shall make recommendations to the governing body on the requests and complaints of owners, occupants, and users of property within the district and members of the public. Before the adoption of any proposal by the governing body to provide services or impose service charges within the district, the downtown management board of the district shall review and comment upon the proposal. The board may incorporate as a nonprofit corporation under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 317. The board shall have the power to enter into contracts. A majority of members of the board must be property owners or tenants in the district and subject to a service charge. At least one member must be an owner of commercial property.

Sec. 9. [CITY OPTION.]

The city may elect to exercise the powers provided by sections 1 to 8 or the powers provided by general or special law relating to the same subject.

Sec. 10. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 9 are effective the day after compliance with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3, by the governing body of the city of Minneapolis.

Sec. 2. [ESTABLISHMENT OF SPECIAL SERVICE DISTRICT.]

Subdivision 1. [ORDINANCE.] The governing body of the city may adopt an ordinance establishing a special service district in any area of the city. Only property that is used for commercial, business, or industrial purposes or residential property having two or more units, and located in the district may be subject to the charges imposed by the city on the district. Other types of property in the district and property or a portion of a property located within the district and used for residential purposes may receive services but are not subject to the charges imposed by the city on the district. The ordinance shall describe with particularity the area to be included in the district and the special services to be furnished in the district. The ordinance may be adopted only after a public hearing has been held on the question. Notice of the hearing shall include:

(1) the time and place of the hearing;

(2) the boundaries of the area by legal description and by street location where possible; and

(3) a statement that all persons owning property in the proposed district will be given the opportunity to be heard at the hearing.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE; HEARING.] Notice of the hearing shall be given by publication in two issues of the official newspaper of the city. The two publications shall be a week apart and the hearing shall be held at least three days after the last publication.

Not less than ten days before the hearing, notice shall also be mailed to the owner and property taxpayer of each parcel within the area proposed to be included in the district. For the purpose of giving mailed notice, owners shall be those shown on the records of the county auditor. For properties that are tax exempt or subject to taxation on a gross earnings basis in lieu of property tax and not listed on the records of the county auditor or the county treasurer, the owners shall be ascertained by any practicable means and mailed notice given them. Other records may be used to supply necessary information.

At the public hearing, any person affected by the proposed district may be heard orally in respect to any issues embodied in the notice. The hearing may be adjourned from time to time. The ordinance establishing the district may be adopted at any time within six months after the date of the conclusion of the hearing by a vote of the majority of the governing body of the city.

Subd. 3. [USE OF CITY EMPLOYEES.] If the city determines that any of the special services to be provided are under the jurisdiction of a city public employee bargaining unit, the city shall negotiate with that unit to determine whether that service shall be provided by the city or contracted for with another service provider.

Sec. 3. [RATE OF SERVICE CHARGE; NOTICE AND HEARING REQUIREMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [HEARING.] Service charges may be imposed by the city within the special service district at a rate or amount sufficient to produce revenues required to provide special services within the district. For purposes of determining the appropriate mill rate for a service charge based on assessed value, taxable property or value shall be determined without regard to captured or original assessed value under section 469.177 or to the distribution or contribution value under section 473F08. Service charges shall not be imposed to finance a special service if the service is ordinarily provided by the city from general fund revenues of the city unless the service is provided in the district at an increased level, in which case a service charge may be imposed only to pay the amount for the increased level of service. A service charge shall not be imposed on the receipts from the sale of intoxicating liquor, food, or lodging. Each calendar year, before the imposition of service charges in a district, notice shall be given and a hearing held as provided by section 2. Notice shall also be mailed to any individual or business organization subject to a service charge. For purposes of this section, the notice shall also include:

(1) a statement that all interested persons will be given an opportunity to be heard at the hearing; and

(2) the proposed rate or amount of the proposed service charge to be imposed in the district during the calendar year and the estimated cost, nature, and character of special services to be rendered in the district during the calendar year.

Within six months of the public hearing, the city may by resolution impose a service charge within the district not exceeding the amount or rate expressed in the notice issued under this section.

Subd. 2. [EXEMPTION OF CERTAIN PROPERTIES FROM TAXES.] Property exempted from taxation by Minnesota Statutes, section 272.02, is exempt from any service charge based on assessed value imposed under this article.

Subd. 3. [SERVICE CHARGE ABATEMENT.] An individual or business organization subject to the service charge imposed under subdivision 1 may apply to the city for a service charge abatement for that calendar year on the basis of economic hardship. The city may grant the abatement of the service charge for the calendar year if the city determines that an economic hardship exists.

Sec. 4. [ENLARGEMENT OF SPECIAL SERVICE DISTRICTS.]

Boundaries of a special service district may be enlarged only after hearing and notice as provided by sections 2 and 3. Notice shall be served in the original district and in the area proposed to be added. Property added to the district shall be subject to all service charges imposed within the district after the property becomes a part of the district. On the question of enlargement, the veto power provided by section 10 may be exercised only by owners and individuals and business organizations in the area proposed to be added to the district.

Sec. 5. [COLLECTION OF SERVICE CHARGES.] Service charges may be imposed on the basis of the assessed value of the property on which the service charge is imposed, but must only be imposed on the property described in the ordinance. Service charges based on assessed value may be payable and collected at the same time and in the same manner as provided for payment and collection of ad valorem taxes. Other service charges imposed shall be collected as provided by the ordinance. Service charges based on assessed value imposed under this article are not subject to the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, section 469.177 and chapter 473F.

Sec. 6. [BONDS.]

At any time after a contract for all or part of an improvement authorized pursuant to this article has been entered into or the work has been ordered done by day labor, the governing body may issue obligations in the amount it deems necessary to defray in whole or in part the expense incurred or estimated to be incurred in making the improvement, including every item of cost from the inception to completion and all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the improvement or its financing. The obligations shall be payable primarily out of the proceeds of the service charge imposed under section 3. The governing body may, by resolution adopted before the sale of obligations, pledge the full faith, credit, and taxing power of the city to assure payment of the principal and interest if the proceeds of the service charge based on assessed value in the special service district are insufficient to pay the principal and interest. Obligations shall be issued in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, chapter 475, except that an election shall not be required and the amount of the obligation shall not be included in determining the net debt of the city under any provision of law or charter that limits debt.

Sec. 7. [LEVY LIMIT.]

Service charges imposed under this article shall be disregarded in the calculation of levies or limits on levies imposed under law or charter.

Sec. 8. [EXPIRATION.]

A special service district established under this article shall expire four years after the date of its establishment unless renewed as provided by section 2. After the expiration or termination of a district, service charges may continue to be imposed in the district to pay the costs of an improvement specified in section 1, subdivision 3, clause (4).

Sec. 9. [ADVISORY BOARD.]

The city council shall create and appoint an advisory board for the special service district to advise the governing body in connection with the furnishing of special services in the district. The advisory board shall make recommendations to the governing body on the requests and complaints of owners, occupants, and users of property within the district and members of the public. Before adoption of any proposal by the governing body to provide services or impose service charges within the district, the advisory board shall have an opportunity to review and comment upon the proposal. All members of the advisory board shall be property owners, tenants, or residents of the district.

Sec. 10. [VETO POWER OF OWNERS.]

Subdivision 1. An ordinance or resolution adopted pursuant to sections 2 and 3 shall take effect no sooner than 45 days after it is adopted. Within five days after its adoption, a copy shall be mailed to the owner and property taxpayer of each parcel included in the special service district and any individual or business organization subject to a service charge, in the same manner as notice is mailed under section 2. The mailing shall include a notice that owners subject to a service charge based on assessed value and individuals and business organizations subject to a service charge have a right to veto the ordinance or resolution by filing the required number of objections with the city clerk before the effective date of the ordinance or resolution.

Subd. 2. If owners of at least 35 percent of the land area and owners of at least 35 percent of the assessed value in the district file an objection to the ordinance or resolution adopted by the city pursuant to section 2 with the city clerk before its effective date, the ordinance or resolution shall not take effect. If owners of at least 35 percent of the land area subject to a service charge based on assessed value and owners of at least 35 percent of the assessed value subject to a service charge file an objection to an ordinance or resolution adopted by the city imposing a service charge based on assessed value pursuant to section 3 with the city clerk before its effective date, the ordinance or resolution shall not take effect. If owners of at least 35 percent of the land area subject to a service charge and owners of at least 35 percent of the assessed value in the district subject to a service charge file an objection to the resolution adopted by the city imposing a service charge pursuant to section 3 with the city clerk before its effective date, the resolution shall not take effect.

Sec. 11. [EXCLUSION FROM VETO POWER.]

The right of owners and those subject to a service charge to veto an ordinance or resolution as provided by section 10 does not apply to second or subsequent years' applications of a service charge that is authorized to be in effect for more than one year. An ordinance or resolution imposing a service charge for more than one year shall not be adopted unless the notice of public hearing required by section 2 and the notice mailed with the adopted ordinance or resolution pursuant to section 10 includes the following information:

(a) In the case of an improvement, the maximum service charge to be imposed in any year and the maximum number of years that the service charges imposed to pay for the improvement.

(b) In the case of operating and maintenance services, the maximum service charge to be imposed in any year and the maximum number of years that the service charges imposed to pay for the operation and maintenance services, or a statement that the service charge will be imposed for an indefinite number of years.

The ordinance or resolution may provide that the maximum service charge to be imposed in any year will increase or decrease from the maximum amount authorized in the preceding year based on an indicator of increased cost or a percentage amount established by resolution."

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL FUND SHARE.] (a) Money collected and received under this chapter must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the general fund as follows:

- (1) 65 percent to the general fund;
- (2) 26-1/4 percent to the highway user tax distribution fund for distribution in the same manner as other money in that fund; and
- (3) 8-3/4 percent to the transit assistance fund.

The amounts collected and received shall be credited to the highway user tax distribution fund and the transit assistance fund as provided in this subdivision, and must be transferred from the general fund on July 15 and January 15 of each fiscal year. The commissioner of finance must make each transfer based upon the actual receipts of the preceding six calendar months and include the interest earned during that six-month period. The commissioner of finance may establish a quarterly or other schedule providing for more frequent payments to the transit assistance fund if the commissioner determines it is necessary or desirable to provide for the cash flow needs of the recipients of money from the transit assistance fund. Five percent of the money must be deposited in the highway user tax distribution fund and the transit assistance fund for apportionment as provided in this section. Of the money deposited under this section, 75 percent must be credited to the highway user tax distribution fund for apportionment in the same manner and for the same purposes as other money in that fund. The remaining 25 percent of the money must be credited to the transit assistance fund to be appropriated to the commissioner of transportation for transit assistance within the state and to the regional transit board.

(b) The distributions under this subdivision to the highway user tax distribution fund must be reduced by the amount necessary to fund the appropriation under section 41A.09, subdivision 1. For the fiscal years ending June 30, 1988, and June 30, 1989, the commissioner of finance, before making the transfers required on July 15 and January 15 of each year, shall estimate the amount required to fund the appropriation under section 41A.09, subdivision 1, for the six-month period for which the transfer is being made. The commissioner shall then reduce the amount transferred to the highway user tax distribution fund by the amount of that estimate. The commissioner shall reduce the estimate for any six-month period by the amount by which the estimate for the previous six-month period exceeded the amount needed to fund the appropriation under section 41A.09, subdivision 1, for that previous six-month period. If at any time during a six-month period in those fiscal years the amount of reduction in the transfer to the highway user tax distribution fund is insufficient to fund the appropriation under section 41A.09, subdivision 1 for that period, the commissioner shall transfer to the general fund from the highway user tax distribution fund an additional amount sufficient to fund the appropriation for that period, but the additional amount so transferred to the general fund in a six-month period may not exceed the amount transferred to the highway user tax distribution fund for that six-month period."

March 29, 1988

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

The Honorable Robert Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

We, the undersigned conferees for S.F. No. 1861, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House recede from its amendment and that S.F. No. 1861 be further amended as follows:

“Section 1. [FINDINGS.]

The legislature finds that access to continuous and uninterrupted health care coverage is necessary for citizens of Minnesota enrolled in health care plans. While Minnesota law requires conversion policies for members of group health plan contracts, no similar right is extended to holders of individual contracts.

The legislature finds it necessary for individual health care coverage policyholders to immediately be afforded the same protections as group contract holders. The legislature further finds that a legal requirement is necessary to protect the access to health care coverage for the citizens of Minnesota who hold individual health care contracts. In view of continuing uncertainty in the marketplace, the legislature finds it necessary to impose this legal requirement on all existing individual contracts the day after enactment, so that no other consumers face a threat to their health care coverage.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 62A.17, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [CONVERSION TO INDIVIDUAL POLICY.] A group insurance policy that provides posttermination or layoff coverage as required by this section shall also include a provision allowing a covered employee, surviving spouse, or dependent at the expiration of the posttermination or layoff coverage provided by subdivision 2 to obtain from the insurer offering the group policy or group subscriber contract, at the employee's, spouse's, or dependent's option and expense, without further evidence of insurability and without interruption of coverage, an individual policy of insurance or an individual subscriber contract providing at least the minimum benefits of a qualified plan as prescribed by section 62E.06 and the option of a number three qualified plan, a number two qualified plan, and a number one qualified plan as provided by section 62E.06, subdivisions 1 to 3, provided application is made to the insurer within 30 days following notice of the expiration of the continued coverage and upon payment of the appropriate premium. The required conversion contract must treat pregnancy the same as any other covered illness under the conversion contract. A health maintenance contract issued by a health maintenance organization that provides posttermination or layoff coverage as required by this section shall also include a provision allowing a former employee, surviving spouse, or dependent at the expiration of the posttermination or layoff coverage provided in subdivision 2 to obtain from the health maintenance organization, at the former employee's, spouse's, or dependent's option and expense, without further evidence of insurability and without interruption of coverage, an individual health maintenance contract. Effective January 1, 1985, enrollees who have become nonresidents of the health maintenance organization's service area shall be given the option, to be arranged by the health maintenance organization, of a number three qualified plan, a number two qualified plan, or a number one qualified plan as provided by section 62E.06, subdivisions 1 to 3 ~~if an arrangement with an insurer can reasonably be made by the health maintenance organization~~. This option shall be made available at the enrollee's expense, without further evidence of insurability and without interruption of coverage.

A policy providing reduced benefits at a reduced premium rate may be accepted by the employee, the spouse, or a dependent in lieu of the optional coverage otherwise required by this subdivision.

The individual policy or contract shall be renewable at the option of the individual as long as the individual is not covered under another qualified plan as defined in section 62E.02, subdivision 4, up to age 65 or to the day before the date of eligibility for coverage under title XVIII of the Social Security Act, as amended. Any revisions in the table of rate for the individual policy shall apply to the covered person's original age at entry and shall apply equally to all similar policies issued by the insurer.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62D.07, is amended to read:

In no event shall the fee charged exceed 102 percent of the cost to the plan for such coverage for other similarly situated spouse and dependent children to whom subdivision 1 is not applicable, without regard to whether such cost is paid by the employer or employee.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62D.11, is amended to read:

62D.11 [COMPLAINT SYSTEM.]

Subdivision 1. Every health maintenance organization shall establish and maintain a complaint system including an impartial arbitration provision, to provide reasonable procedures for the resolution of written complaints initiated by enrollees concerning the provision of health care services. "Provision of health services" includes, but is not limited to, questions of the scope of coverage, quality of care, and administrative operations. Arbitration shall be subject to chapter 572, except (a) in the event that an enrollee elects to litigate a complaint prior to submission to arbitration, and (b) no medical malpractice damage claim shall be subject to arbitration unless agreed to by both parties subsequent to the event giving rise to the claim.

Subd. 1a. Where a complaint involves a dispute about a health maintenance organization's coverage of an immediately and urgently needed service, the commissioner may either (a) review the complaint and any information and testimony necessary in order to make a determination and order the appropriate remedy pursuant to sections 62D.15 to 62D.17, or (b) order the health maintenance organization to use an expedited system to process the complaint.

Subd. 2. The health maintenance organization shall maintain a record of each written complaint filed with it for ~~three~~ five years and the commissioner of health shall have access to the records.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62D.12, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. No health maintenance organization may cancel or fail to renew the coverage of an enrollee except for (a) failure to pay the charge for health care coverage; (b) termination of the health care plan; (c) termination of the group plan; (d) enrollee moving out of the area served, subject to section 62A.17, subdivisions 1 and 6, and section 8; (e) enrollee moving out of an eligible group, subject to section 62A.17, subdivisions 1 and 6, and section 8; (f) failure to make copayments required by the health care plan; or (g) other reasons established in rules promulgated by the commissioner of health.

An enrollee Subd. 2a. Enrollees shall be given 30 days notice of any cancellation or nonrenewal, except that enrollees who are eligible to receive replacement coverage under section 13, subdivision 1, shall receive 90 days notice as provided under section 13, subdivision 5.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62D.12, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 14. Each health maintenance organization shall establish a telephone number, which need not be toll free, that providers may call with questions about coverage, prior authorization, and approval of medical services. The telephone number must be staffed by an employee of the health maintenance organization during normal working hours during the normal work week. After normal working hours, the telephone number must be equipped with an answering machine and recorded message to allow the caller an opportunity to leave a message. The health maintenance organization must respond to questions within 24 hours after they are received, excluding weekends and holidays. At the request of a provider, the health maintenance organization shall provide a copy of the health maintenance contract for enrollees in the provider's service area.

Sec. 13. [62D.121] [REQUIRED REPLACEMENT COVERAGE.]

Subdivision 1. When membership of an enrollee who has individual health coverage is terminated by the health maintenance organization for a reason other than (a) failure to pay the charge for health care coverage; (b) failure to make copayments required by the health care plan; (c) enrollee moving out of the area served; or (d) a materially false statement or misrepresentation by the enrollee in the application for membership, the health maintenance organization must offer or arrange to offer replacement coverage, without evidence of insurability, without preexisting condition exclusions, and without interruption of coverage.

Subd. 2. If the health maintenance organization has terminated individuals from coverage in a service area, the replacement coverage shall be health maintenance organization coverage issued by the health maintenance organization terminating coverage unless the health maintenance organization can demonstrate to the commissioner that offering health maintenance organization replacement coverage would not be feasible. In making the determination, the commissioner shall consider (1) loss ratios and forecasts, (2) lack of agreements between health care providers and the health maintenance organization to offer that product, (3) evidence of anticipated premium needs compared with established rates, (4) the financial impact of the replacement coverage on the overall financial solvency of the plan, and (5) the cost to the enrollee of health maintenance organization replacement coverage as compared to cost to the enrollee of the replacement coverage required under subdivision 3 of this section.

Subd. 3. If replacement coverage is not provided by the health maintenance organization, as explained under subdivision 2, the replacement coverage shall provide, for enrollees covered by Title XVIII of the Social Security Act, coverage at least equivalent to a Medicare supplement two plan as defined in section 62A.34, except that the replacement coverage shall also cover the liability for any Medicare Part A and Part B deductible as defined under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act. After satisfaction of the Medicare Part B deductible, the replacement coverage shall be based on 120 percent of the Medicare Part B eligible expenses less the Medicare Part B payment amount. The fee or premium of the replacement coverage shall not exceed the premium charged by the state comprehensive health plan as established under section 62E.08, for a qualified Medicare supplement plan. All enrollees not covered by Medicare shall be given the option of a number three qualified plan or a number two qualified plan as defined in section 62E.06, subdivisions 1 and 2; for replacement coverage. The fee or premium for a number three qualified plan shall not exceed 125 percent of the average of rates charged by the five insurers with the largest number of individuals in a number three qualified plan of insurance in force in Minnesota. The fee or premium for a number two qualified plan shall not exceed 125 percent of the average of rates charged by the five insurers with the largest number of individuals in a number two qualified plan of insurance in force in Minnesota.

If the replacement coverage is health maintenance organization coverage, the fee shall not exceed 125 percent of the cost of the average fee charged by health maintenance organizations for a similar health plan. The commissioner of health will determine the average cost of the plan on the basis of information provided annually by the health maintenance organizations concerning the rates charged by the health maintenance organizations for the plans offered. Fees or premiums charged under this section must be actuarially justified.

Subd. 4. The commissioner will approve or disapprove the replacement coverage within 30 days. A health maintenance organization shall not give enrollees a notice of cancellation of coverage until a replacement policy has been filed with the commissioner and approved or disapproved.

Subd. 5. The health maintenance organization must provide the terminated enrollees with a notice of cancellation 90 days before the date the cancellation takes effect. If the replacement coverage is approved by the commissioner under subdivision 4, the notice shall clearly and completely describe the replacement coverage that the enrollees are eligible to receive and explain the procedure for enrolling. If the replacement coverage is not approved by the commissioner, the health maintenance organization shall provide a cancellation notice with information that the enrollee is entitled to enroll in the state comprehensive health insurance plan with a waiver of the waiting period for preexisting conditions under section 62E.14, subdivisions 1, paragraph (d), and 6.

Subd. 6. The commissioner may waive the notice required in this section if the commissioner determines that the health maintenance organization has not received information regarding Medicare reimbursement rates from the Health Care Financing Administration before September 1 for contracts renewing on January 1 of the next year. In no event shall enrollees covered by Title XVIII of the Social Security Act receive less than 60 days' notice of contract termination.

Subd. 7. [GEOGRAPHIC ACCESSIBILITY.] If the commissioner determines that there are not enough providers to assure that enrollees have accessible health services available in a geographic service area, the commissioner shall institute a plan of corrective action that shall be followed by the health maintenance organization. Such a plan may include but not be limited to requiring the health maintenance organization to make payments to nonparticipating providers for health services for enrollees, requiring the health maintenance organization to discontinue accepting new enrollees in that service area, and requiring the health maintenance organization to reduce its geographic service area. If a nonparticipating provider has been a participating provider with the health maintenance organization within the last year, any payments made under this section must not exceed the payment level of the previous contract unless the commissioner determines that without adjusting payments the health maintenance organization will be unable to meet the health care needs of enrollees in the area.

Sec. 14. [62D.122] [MEDIATION.]

When current parties to a health maintenance organization contract between providers of health care services and the health maintenance organization believe they will be unable to reach agreement on the terms of renewal or maintenance of the agreement, either party may request the commissioner of health to order that the dispute be submitted to mediation. The parties to the dispute shall enter mediation upon the order of the commissioner of health. Whether or not a request for mediation from one of the parties has been received, the commissioner shall order mediation if failure to reach agreement would significantly impair access to health care services on the part of current enrollees of that health maintenance organization. In determining whether access to health care services for current enrollees will be significantly impaired, the commissioner shall consider:

(1) the number of enrollees affected,

(2) the ability of the plan to make alternate arrangements with other participating providers for the provision of health care services to the affected enrollees,

(3) the availability of nonparticipating providers who may become participating providers for those with whom the health maintenance organization is in dispute,

(4) the time remaining until termination of the provider contract, and

(5) whether failure to resolve the dispute may establish a precedent for similar disputes in other parts of the state or might impede competition among health plans.

During the period in which the dispute is in mediation, no action to terminate provider or enrollee contracts may be taken by either party. Participation in mediation shall be required of all parties for a period of not more than 30 days. Notice of termination of provider agreements, as required under section 5, shall take effect no earlier than 31 days after the first day of mediation under this section.

When mediation is ordered by the commissioner, arrangements for mediation shall be made through either the office of dispute resolution in the state planning agency, or the office of administrative hearings.

Costs of the mediation shall be borne equally by the health maintenance organization and the health care providers unless otherwise agreed to by the parties. The office of administrative hearings shall establish rates for mediation services comparable to those charged by mediators listed with the office of dispute resolution.

The mediator shall not have authority to impose a settlement or otherwise bind a participant to a nonvoluntary resolution of the dispute; however, any agreement reached as a result of the mediation shall be enforceable.

Except as otherwise provided under chapter 13 and sections 62D.03 and 62D.14, the commissioner shall make public the results of any mediation agreement.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62D.17, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. The commissioner of health may, for any violation of statute or rule applicable to a health maintenance organization, or in lieu of suspension or revocation of a certificate of authority under section 62D.15, levy an administrative penalty in an amount up to $10,000 for each violation. In the case of contracts or agreements made pursuant to section 62D.05, subdivisions 2 to 4, each contract or agreement entered into or implemented in a manner which violates sections 62D.01 to 62D.29 shall be considered a separate violation. Reasonable notice in writing to the health maintenance organization shall be given of the intent to levy the penalty and the reasons therefor, and the health maintenance organization may have a reasonable time 15 days within which to remedy the defect in its operations which gave rise to the penalty citation, or have file a written request for an administrative hearing and review of the commissioner of health's determination. Such administrative hearing shall be subject to judicial review pursuant to chapter 14.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62D.20, is amended to read:

62D.20 [RULES.]

Subdivision 1. The commissioner of health may, pursuant to chapter 14, promulgate such reasonable rules as are necessary or proper to carry out the provisions of sections 62D.01 to 62D.29. Included among such rules shall be those which provide minimum requirements for the provision of comprehensive health maintenance services, as defined in section 62D.02, subdivision 7, and reasonable exclusions therefrom. Nothing in such rules shall force or require a health maintenance organization to provide elective, induced abortions, except as medically necessary to prevent the death of the mother, whether performed in a hospital, other abortion facility, or the office of a physician; the rules shall provide every health maintenance organization the option of excluding or including elective, induced abortions, except as medically necessary to prevent the death of the mother, as part of its comprehensive health maintenance services.

Subd. 2. The commissioner shall adopt rules that address the issue of appropriate prior authorization requirements, considering consumer needs, administrative concerns, and the nature of the benefit.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62E.11, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. Each contributing member that terminates individual health coverage regulated under chapter 62A, 62C, 62D, or 64B for reasons other than (a) nonpayment of premium; (b) failure to make copayments; (c) enrollee moving out of the area served; or (d) a materially false statement or misrepresentation by the enrollee in the application for membership; and does not provide or arrange for replacement coverage that meets the requirements of section 13; shall pay a special assessment to the state plan based upon the number of terminated individuals who join the comprehensive health insurance plan as authorized under section 62E.14, subdivision 1, paragraph (d), and section 21. Such a contributing member shall pay the association an amount equal to the average cost of an enrollee in the state plan in the year in which the member terminated enrollees, multiplied by the total number of terminated enrollees who enroll in the state plan.

The average cost of an enrollee in the state comprehensive health insurance plan shall be determined by dividing the state plan's total annual losses by the total number of enrollees from that year. This cost will be assessed to the contributing member who has terminated health coverage before the association makes the annual determination of each contributing member's liability as required under this section.

In the event that the contributing member is terminating health coverage because of a loss of health care providers, the commissioner may review whether or not the special assessment established under this subdivision will have an adverse impact on the contributing member or its enrollees or insureds, including but not limited to causing the contributing member to fall below statutory net worth requirements. If the commissioner determines that the special assessment would have an adverse impact on the contributing member or its enrollees or insureds, the commissioner may adjust the amount of the special assessment, or establish alternative payment arrangements to the state plan. For health maintenance organizations regulated under chapter 62D, the commissioner of health shall make the determination regarding any adjustment in the special assessment and shall transmit that determination to the commissioner of commerce.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62E.11, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 10. Any contributing members who have terminated individual health plans and do not provide or arrange for replacement coverage that meets the requirements of section 13, and whose former insureds or enrollees enroll in the state comprehensive health insurance plan with a waiver of the preexisting conditions pursuant to section 62E.14, subdivision 1, paragraph (d), and section 21, will be liable for the costs of any preexisting conditions of their former enrollees or insureds treated during the first six months of coverage under the state plan. The liability for preexisting conditions will be assessed before the association makes the annual determination of each contributing member's liability as required under this section.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62E.14, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CERTIFICATE, CONTENTS.] The comprehensive health insurance plan shall be open for enrollment by eligible persons. An eligible person shall enroll by submission of a certificate of eligibility to the writing carrier. The certificate shall provide the following:

- (a) Name, address, age, and length of time at residence of the applicant;
- (b) Name, address, and age of spouse and children if any, if they are to be insured;

(c) Evidence of rejection, a requirement of restrictive riders, a rate up, or a preexisting conditions limitation on a qualified plan, the effect of which is to substantially reduce coverage from that received by a person considered a standard risk, by at least one association members within six months of the date of the certificate, or other eligibility requirements adopted by rule by the commissioner which are not inconsistent with this chapter and which evidence that a person is unable to obtain coverage substantially similar to that which may be obtained by a person who is considered a standard risk;

(d) ~~Evidence that the applicant meets the eligibility requirements of section 62E.081, subdivision 1; and~~ If the applicant has been terminated from individual health coverage which does not provide replacement coverage, evidence that no replacement coverage that meets the requirements of section 13 was offered, and evidence of termination of individual health coverage by an insurer, nonprofit health service plan corporation, or health maintenance organization provided that the contract or policy has been terminated for reasons other than (1) failure to pay the charge for health care coverage; (2) failure to make copayments required by the health care plan; (3) enrollee moving out of the area served; or (4) a materially false statement or misrepresentation by the enrollee in the application for membership; and

- (e) A designation of the coverage desired.

An eligible person may not purchase more than one policy from the state plan. Upon ceasing to be a resident of Minnesota a person is no longer eligible to purchase or renew coverage under the state plan.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62E.14, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PREEXISTING CONDITIONS.] No person who obtains coverage pursuant to this section shall be covered for any preexisting condition during the first six months of coverage under the state plan if the person was diagnosed or treated for that condition during the 90 days immediately preceding the filing of an application except as provided under subdivisions 4 and 5, and section 21.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62E.14, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. A Minnesota resident who holds an individual health maintenance contract, individual nonprofit health service corporation contract, or an individual insurance policy previously approved by the commissioners of health or commerce, may enroll in the comprehensive health insurance plan with a waiver of the preexisting condition as described in subdivision 3, without interruption in coverage, provided (1) no replacement coverage that meets the requirements of section 13 was offered by the contributing member, and (2) the policy or contract has been terminated for reasons other than (a) nonpayment of premium; (b) failure to make copayments required by the health care plan; (c) moving out of the area served; or (d) a materially false statement or misrepresentation by the enrollee in the application for membership; and, provided further, that the option to enroll in the plan is exercised within 30 days of termination of the existing policy or contract.

Expenses incurred from the preexisting conditions of individuals enrolled in the state plan under this subdivision must be paid by the contributing member canceling coverage as set forth in section 18.

The application must include evidence of termination of the existing policy or certificate as required in subdivision 1.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 62E.16, is amended to read:

62E.16 [CONVERSION PRIVILEGES.]

Every program of self-insurance, policy of group accident and health insurance or contract of coverage by a health maintenance organization written or renewed in this state, shall include, in addition to the provisions required by section 62A.17, the right to convert to an individual coverage qualified plan without the addition of underwriting restrictions if the individual insured leaves the group regardless of the reason for leaving the group, or upon cancellation or termination of the coverage for the group except where uninterrupted and continuous group coverage is otherwise provided to the group. If the health maintenance organization has canceled coverage for the group because of a loss of providers in a service area, the health maintenance organization shall arrange for other health maintenance or indemnity conversion options that shall be offered to enrollees without the addition of underwriting restrictions. The required conversion contract must treat pregnancy the same as any other covered illness under the conversion contract. The person may exercise this right to conversion within 30 days of leaving the group or within 30 days following receipt of due notice of cancellation or termination of coverage of the group and upon payment of premiums from the date of termination or cancellation. Due notice of cancellation or termination of coverage for a group shall be provided to each employee having coverage in the group by the insurer, self-insurer or health maintenance organization canceling or terminating the coverage except where reasonable evidence indicates that uninterrupted and continuous group coverage is otherwise provided to the group. Every employer having a policy of group accident and health insurance, group subscriber or contract of coverage by a health maintenance organization shall, upon request, provide the insurer or health maintenance organization a list of the names and addresses of covered employees. Plans of health coverage shall also include a provision which, upon the death of the individual in whose name the contract was issued, permits every other individual then covered under the contract to elect, within the period specified in the contract, to continue coverage under the same or a different contract without the addition of underwriting restrictions until the individual would have ceased to have been entitled to coverage had the individual in whose name the contract was issued lived. The ordinance shall describe with particularity the areas to be included in the district and the special services to be furnished. The ordinance may not be adopted until after a public hearing on the question. Notice of the hearing shall include:

- (1) the time and place of the hearing;*
- (2) a map showing the boundaries of the proposed district;*
- (3) a statement that all persons owning property in the proposed district will be given an opportunity to be heard at the hearing;*
- (4) a description of the proposed special services to be provided and the estimated taxes to be levied in the district; and*
- (5) a statement of the landowner's rights to object and to appeal pursuant to this section.*

Subd. 2. [NOTICE.] Notice of the hearing shall be given by publication in two issues of a newspaper of general circulation in the city. The two publications shall be a week apart. The hearing shall be held no sooner than three days after the last publication. Not less than ten days before the hearing, notice shall also be mailed to the owner of each parcel of real estate proposed to be included in the district. For the purpose of giving mailed notice, owners shall be those shown on the records of the county auditor. Other records may be used to supply necessary information. For properties which are subject to taxation on a gross earning basis in lieu of property tax and are not listed on the records of the county auditor, the owners shall be ascertained by any practicable means and mailed notice given them. At the public hearing, any person who owns property in a proposed district or any other interested party may be heard orally in respect to the proposed district. The hearing may be adjourned from time to time. The ordinance establishing a district may be adopted at any time within six months after the date the hearing is concluded and all objections under subdivisions 3 and 4 have been determined.

Subd. 3. [OBJECTION.] Before the ordinance is adopted or at the hearing when it is adopted, any affected landowner may file a written objection with the city clerk asserting that the landowner's property should not be subjected to the special service tax and objecting to:

- (1) the inclusion of the landowner's property in the district;
- (2) the levy of a tax on the landowner's property; or
- (3) the fact that the use of the landowner's property is not substantially benefited by the proposed special service.

The governing body shall make a determination on the objection within 30 days of its filing. Pending its determination, the governing body may delay adoption of the ordinance or it may adopt the ordinance with a reservation that the landowner's property may be excluded from the district or district taxes when the determination is made.

Subd. 4. [APPEAL TO DISTRICT COURT.] Within 30 days after the determination of the objection, any person aggrieved, who is not precluded by failure to object before or at the hearing, or whose failure to object is due to a reasonable cause, may appeal to the district court by serving a notice upon the mayor or city clerk. The notice shall be filed with the clerk of the district court within ten days after its service. The city clerk shall furnish the appellant a certified copy of the findings and determination of the governing body. The court may affirm the action objected to or, if the appellant's objections have merit, modify or cancel it. Sec. 3. [TAXING AUTHORITY; NOTICE AND HEARING REQUIREMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [TAXES; HEARING.] Upon a finding of a public purpose, a special service tax based upon property value, square footage, or front footage, or allocated by another fair method determined by the governing body, may be levied on real property within zoning districts classified by the city of White Bear Lake as B-4 or B-5 that is in the special district at a rate or amount sufficient to produce the revenues required to provide the special services within the district. If the property value method is used, taxable property or value shall be determined without regard to captured or original assessed value under Minnesota Statutes, section 273.76, or to the distribution or contribution value under Minnesota Statutes, section 473F08. A special service tax may not be imposed on the receipts from the sale of intoxicating liquor, food, or lodging. Before the levy of a special service tax, notice shall be given and a hearing held as provided by section 2. For purposes of this section, the notice shall include:

(1) a statement that the owners of all taxable property included in the district will have an opportunity to be heard at the hearing regarding the proposed special service tax;

(2) the estimated cost of special services to be paid for in whole or part by the tax; the estimated cost of operating and maintaining improvements and providing other special services during the first year after their completion; the proposed method and source of financing; and the annual cost of repairing, operating, maintaining, and replacing improvements and providing other special services; and

(3) the proposed rate or amount and duration of special service taxes to be levied in the district during each calendar year and the nature and character of special services to be rendered in the district during each calendar year.

Within six months of the public hearing and determination of all objections under section 2, subdivisions 3 and 4, the city may adopt a resolution levying a special service tax within the district that does not exceed the amount or rate stated in the notice issued pursuant to this section.

Any increase of the amount of a special service tax from that estimated in the notice shall only be considered after further action in accordance with this section.

A person aggrieved by a tax may appeal as provided in section 2.

Subd. 2. [EXEMPTION OF CERTAIN PROPERTIES FROM TAXES.] Property exempted from taxation by Minnesota Statutes, section 272.02, and property used exclusively for residential purposes is exempt from any tax imposed pursuant to this article.

Subd. 3. [LEVY LIMIT EXEMPTIONS.] A special service tax imposed pursuant to this article shall be disregarded in the calculation of levies or limits on levies provided by other law.

473F01 [PURPOSE.]

Subdivision 1. [OBJECTIVES.] The legislature finds it desirable to improve the revenue raising and distribution system in the seven county Twin Cities area to accomplish the following objectives:

(1) To provide a way for local governments to share in the resources generated by the growth of the area, without removing any resources which local governments already have;

(2) To increase the likelihood of orderly urban development by reducing the impact of fiscal considerations on the location of business and residential growth and of highways, transit facilities and airports;

(3) To establish incentives for all parts of the area to work for the growth of the area as a whole;

(4) To provide a way whereby the area's resources can be made available within and through the existing system of local governments and local decision making;

(5) To help communities in different stages of development by making resources increasingly available to communities at those early stages of development and redevelopment when financial pressures on them are the greatest; and

(6) To encourage protection of the environment by reducing the impact of fiscal considerations so that flood plains can be protected and land for parks and open space can be preserved; and

(7) To provide for the distribution to municipalities of additional revenues generated within the area or from outside sources pursuant to other legislation.

Subd. 2. [USE OF PROCEEDS.] The proceeds from the area-wide tax imposed under this chapter must only be used by a governmental unit in the same manner and for the same purposes as the proceeds from other ad valorem taxes levied by the local governmental unit.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 473F06, is amended to read:

473F06 [INCREASE IN ASSESSED VALUATION.]

On or before September 1 of 1976 1988 and each subsequent year, the auditor of each county in the area shall determine the amount, if any, by which the assessed valuation determined in the preceding year pursuant to section 473F05, of commercial-industrial property subject to taxation within each municipality in the auditor's county exceeds the assessed valuation in 1971 of commercial-industrial property as defined in Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 473F02, subdivision 3, subject to taxation within that municipality. If a municipality is located in two or more counties within the area, the auditors of those counties shall certify the data required by section 473F05 to the county auditor who is responsible under other provisions of law for allocating the levies of that municipality between or among the affected counties. That county auditor shall determine the amount of the net excess, if any, for the municipality under this section, and certify that amount under section 473F07. Notwithstanding any other provision of sections 473F01 to 473F13 to the contrary, in the case of a municipality which is designated on July 24, 1971, as a redevelopment area pursuant to section 401(a)(4) of the Public Works and Economic Development Act of 1965, Public Law Number 89-136, the increase in its assessed valuation of commercial-industrial property for purposes of this section shall be determined in each year ~~subsequent to the termination of such designation~~ by using as a base the assessed valuation of commercial-industrial property in that municipality in the 1987 assessment year ~~following that in which such designation is terminated~~, rather than the assessed valuation of such property in 1971, provided, however, that beginning with taxes payable in 1989, that 1987 base year amount will be reduced by five percent per year for 20 years. For taxes payable in 2008 and subsequent years, there shall be no 1987 base value subtraction for this designated municipality. The increase in assessed valuation determined by this section shall be reduced by the amount of any decreases in the assessed valuation of commercial-industrial property resulting from any court decisions, court related stipulation agreements, or abatements for a prior year, and only in the amount of such decreases made during the 12-month period ending on June 30 of the current assessment year, where such decreases, if originally reflected in the determination of a prior year's valuation under section 473F05, would have resulted in a smaller contribution from the municipality in that year.

An adjustment for such decreases shall be made only if the municipality made a contribution in a prior year based on the higher valuation of the commercial-industrial property.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 473F07, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Each county auditor shall certify the determinations pursuant to sections 473F05 and 473F06 to the administrative auditor on or before November 20 of each year. ~~The administrative auditor shall determine the sum of the amounts certified pursuant to section 473F06, and divide that sum by 2-1/2. The resulting amount shall be known as the "area-wide tax base for - - - - - (year)."~~ The administrative auditor shall adjust each municipality's most recent commercial-industrial assessed valuation as certified under section 473F05 by the median commercial-industrial sales ratio for that municipality pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b), except that no adjustment shall be made to the assessed valuation of that part of the commercial-industrial value that constitutes state assessed property.

(a) The commissioner of revenue shall certify to the administrative auditor the latest available median commercial-industrial sales ratio for each municipality which has been determined by the department of revenue using a 21-month sales period and which has been adjusted for time and terms of financing. If the commissioner deems that there are an insufficient number of sales in the study to determine a valid commercial-industrial sales ratio for a given municipality, that municipality's sales ratio for purposes of this section will be the county-wide median sales ratio for commercial-industrial property for the county in which the municipality is located. The administrative auditor shall divide each municipality's commercial-industrial assessed valuation by the sales ratio certified for each municipality. The result is the municipality's equalized commercial-industrial assessed valuation.

(b) The commissioner shall also certify an adjusted sales ratio to the administrative auditor for each municipality. For taxes payable in 1989 and each year thereafter, the commissioner shall add three percentage points to the municipality's median commercial-industrial sales ratio for the assessment year ending two years prior to the calendar year in which the computation of area-wide tax base is made. The commissioner shall compare that adjusted ratio to the most recent median commercial-industrial sales ratio that has been determined by the department for that municipality and shall certify to the administrative auditor the ratio which is the highest, provided that if the higher ratio exceeds 90 percent, then a 90 percent sales ratio will be certified for the municipality. Each municipality's adjusted sales ratio shall be multiplied by its equalized commercial-industrial assessed value. The result is the municipality's adjusted commercial-industrial assessed valuation.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473F07, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. The administrative auditor shall determine each municipality's contribution to the area-wide tax base. From the municipality's adjusted commercial-industrial assessed valuation, the administrative auditor shall subtract a percentage of the 1971 commercial-industrial base assessed valuation, according to the following schedule:

- For taxes payable 1989, 95 percent of 1971 base assessed valuation;*
- For taxes payable 1990, 90 percent of 1971 base assessed valuation;*
- For taxes payable 1991, 85 percent of 1971 base assessed valuation;*
- For taxes payable 1992, 80 percent of 1971 base assessed valuation;*
- For taxes payable 1993, 75 percent of 1971 base assessed valuation;*
- For taxes payable 1994, 70 percent of 1971 base assessed valuation;*
- For taxes payable 1995, 65 percent of 1971 base assessed valuation;*
- For taxes payable 1996, 60 percent of 1971 base assessed valuation;*
- For taxes payable 1997, 55 percent of 1971 base assessed valuation;*
- For taxes payable 1998, 50 percent of 1971 base assessed valuation;*
- For taxes payable 1999, 45 percent of 1971 base assessed valuation;*
- For taxes payable 2000, 40 percent of 1971 base assessed valuation;*
- For taxes payable 2001, 35 percent of 1971 base assessed valuation;*
- For taxes payable 2002, 30 percent of 1971 base assessed valuation;*
- For taxes payable 2003, 25 percent of 1971 base assessed valuation;*
- For taxes payable 2004, 20 percent of 1971 base assessed valuation;*
- For taxes payable 2005, 15 percent of 1971 base assessed valuation;*
- For taxes payable 2006, 10 percent of 1971 base assessed valuation;*
- For taxes payable 2007, 5 percent of 1971 base assessed valuation;*

For taxes payable 2008 and subsequent years, there shall be no 1971 base value subtraction.

The administrative auditor shall multiply that sum by the following schedule:

- For taxes payable 1989, 38 percent;*
- For taxes payable 1990, 36 percent;*
- For taxes payable 1991, 34 percent;*
- For taxes payable 1992, 32 percent;*
- For taxes payable 1993 and subsequent years, 30 percent.*

The total of the resulting amounts for all municipalities shall be known as the "areawide tax base for (year)."

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 473E07, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. The administrative auditor shall determine, for each municipality, the product of (a) its population, and (b) the proportion which the average fiscal capacity of municipalities for the preceding year bears to the fiscal capacity of that municipality for the preceding year, and (c) two. The product shall be the areawide tax base distribution index for that municipality, provided that (a) if the product in the case of any municipality is less than its population, its index shall be increased to its population, and (b) if a municipality is located partly within and partly without the area its index shall be that which is otherwise determined hereunder, multiplied by the proportion which its population residing within the area bears to its total population as of the preceding year.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 473F08, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The taxable value of a governmental unit is its assessed valuation, as determined in accordance with other provisions of law including section 469.177, subdivision 3, subject to the following adjustments:

(a) There shall be subtracted from its assessed valuation, in each municipality in which the governmental unit exercises ad valorem taxing jurisdiction, an amount which bears the same proportion to 40 percent of the contribution amount as equalized and certified in that year pursuant to ~~section~~ sections 473F06 and 473F07 in respect to that municipality as the total preceding year's assessed valuation of commercial-industrial property which is subject to the taxing jurisdiction of the governmental unit within the municipality, determined without regard to section 469.177, subdivision 3, bears to the total preceding year's assessed valuation of commercial-industrial property within the municipality, determined without regard to section 469.177, subdivision 3;

(b) There shall be added to its assessed valuation, in each municipality in which the governmental unit exercises ad valorem taxing jurisdiction, an amount which bears the same proportion to the areawide base for the year attributable to that municipality as the total preceding year's assessed valuation of residential property which is subject to the taxing jurisdiction of the governmental unit within the municipality bears to the total preceding year's assessed valuation of residential property of the municipality.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 473F08, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. The rate of taxation determined in accordance with subdivision 5 shall apply in the taxation of each item of commercial-industrial property subject to taxation within a municipality, including property located within any tax increment financing district, as defined in section 469.174, subdivision 9, to that portion of the assessed valuation of the item which bears the same proportion to its total assessed valuation as 40 percent of the contribution amount as equalized and determined pursuant to ~~section~~ sections 473F06 and 473F07 in respect to the municipality in which the property is taxable bears to the amount determined pursuant to section 473F05. The rate of taxation determined in accordance with subdivision 4 shall apply in the taxation of the remainder of the assessed valuation of the item.

The population so certified shall govern for purposes of sections 473F01 to 473F13 until the metropolitan council files its first population estimate as of a later date with the commissioner of revenue. If an annexation of unincorporated land occurs without proceedings before the Minnesota municipal board, the population of the annexing municipality as previously determined shall continue to govern for purposes of sections 473F01 to 473F13 until the metropolitan council files its first population estimate as of a later date with the commissioner of revenue."

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 10A.31, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [ALLOCATION OF ACCOUNTS.] (a) Candidates. In each calendar year the moneys money in each party account for candidates and the state general account shall must be allocated to eandidates as follows:

- (1) 21 percent for the offices of governor and lieutenant governor together;
- (2) 3.6 percent for the office of attorney general;
- (3) 1.8 percent each for the offices of secretary of state, state auditor and state treasurer;
- (4) In each calendar year during the period in which state senators serve a four-year term, 23-1/3 percent for the office of state senator and 46-2/3 percent for the office of state representative;
- (5) In each calendar year during the period in which state senators serve a two-year term, 35 percent each for the offices of state senator and state representative;

(6) To assure that moneys will be returned to the counties from which they were collected, and to assure that the distribution of those moneys rationally relates to the support for particular parties or for particular candidates within legislative districts, moneys from the party accounts for legislative candidates shall be distributed as follows:

Each candidate for the state senate and state house of representatives whose name is to appear on the ballot in the general election shall receive money from the candidate's party account set aside for candidates of the state senate or state house of representatives, whichever applies, according to the following formula:

For each county within the candidate's district the candidate's share of the dollars allocated in that county to the candidate's party account and set aside for that office shall be:

- (a) The sum of the votes cast in the last general election in that part of the county in the candidate's district for all candidates of that candidate's party (i) whose names appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct of the state and (ii) for the state senate and state house of representatives, divided by
- (b) The sum of the votes cast in that county in the last general election for all candidates of that candidate's party (i) whose names appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct in the state and (ii) for the state senate and state house of representatives, multiplied by
- (c) The amount in the candidate's party account allocated in that county and set aside for the candidates for the office for which the candidate is running.

The sum of all the county shares calculated in the formula above is the candidate's share of the candidate's party account.

In a year in which an election for the state senate occurs, with respect to votes for candidates for the state senate only, "last general election" means the last general election in which an election for the state senate occurred.

For any party under whose name no candidate's name appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct in the state in the last general election, amounts in the party's account shall be allocated based on (a) the number of people voting in the last general election in that part of the county in the candidate's district, divided by (b) the number of the people voting in that county in the last general election, multiplied by (c) the amount in the candidate's party account allocated in that county and set aside for the candidates for the office for which the candidate is running.

In a year in which the first election after a legislative reapportionment is held, "the candidate's district" means the newly drawn district, and voting data from the last general election will be applied to the area encompassing the newly drawn district notwithstanding that the area was in a different district in the last general election.

If in a district there was no candidate of a party for the state senate or state house of representatives in the last general election, or if a candidate for the state senate or state house of representatives was unopposed, the vote for that office for that party shall be the average vote of all the remaining candidates of that party in each county of that district whose votes are included in the sums in clauses (a) and (b). The average vote shall be added to the sums in clauses (a) and (b) before the calculation is made for all districts in the county.

Money from a party account not distributed to candidates for state senator and representative in any election year shall be returned to the general fund of the state. Money from a party account not distributed to candidates for other offices in an election year shall be returned to the party account for reallocation to candidates as provided in clauses (1) to (6) of this subdivision in the following year. Moneys from the general account refused by any candidate shall be distributed to all other qualifying candidates in proportion to their shares as provided in this subdivision.

(b) Congressional candidates. In each calendar year the money in each party account for congressional candidates and the congressional general account must be allocated as follows:

(1) 16-2/3 percent for the office of United States senator for which an election will be held in 1990 and every six years afterward;

(2) 16-2/3 percent for the office of United States senator for which an election will be held in 1994 and every six years afterward;

(3) 67-2/3 percent for the offices of representative in Congress.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 10A.31, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5a. [FORMULA FOR DISTRIBUTION TO LEGISLATIVE CANDIDATES.] (a) To assure that money will be returned to the counties from which it was collected, and to assure that the distribution of money rationally relates to the support for particular parties or for particular candidates within legislative districts, money from the party accounts for legislative candidates must be distributed under this subdivision.

A candidate for the state senate and state house of representatives whose name is to appear on the ballot in the general election must receive money from the candidate's party account set aside for candidates of the state senate or state house of representatives, whichever applies, according to the following formula.

For each county within the candidate's district the candidate's share of the dollars allocated in that county to the candidate's party account and set aside for that office must be:

(1) the sum of the votes cast in the last general election in that part of the county in the candidate's district for all candidates of the candidate's party (i) whose names appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct of the state and (ii) for the state senate and state house of representatives, divided by

(2) the sum of the votes cast in that county in the last general election for all candidates of the candidate's party (i) whose names appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct in the state and (ii) for the state senate and state house of representatives, multiplied by

(3) the amount in the candidate's party account allocated in that county and set aside for the candidates for the office the candidate is seeking.

The sum of all the county shares calculated in the formula in this paragraph is the candidate's share of the candidate's party account.

(b) With respect to the formula in paragraph (a), the terms "last general election" and the "candidate's district" have the following meanings:

(1) In a year in which an election for the state senate occurs, with respect to votes for candidates for the state senate only, "last general election" means the last general election in which an election for the state senate occurred.

(2) For any party under whose name no candidate's name appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct in the state in the last general election, "last general election" means the last general election in which the name of a candidate of that party appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct in the state.

(3) In a year in which the first election after a legislative reapportionment is held, "the candidate's district" means the newly drawn district, and voting data from the last general election will be applied to the area encompassing the newly drawn district even though the area was in a different district in the last general election.

(c) If in a district there was no candidate of a party for the state senate or state house of representatives in the last general election, or if a candidate for the state senate or state house of representatives was unopposed, the vote for that office for that party must be the average vote of all the remaining candidates of that party in each county of that district whose votes are included in the sums in paragraph (a), clauses (1) and (2). The average vote must be added to the sums in paragraph (a), clauses (1) and (2), before the calculation is made for all districts in the county.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes, section 10A.31, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5b. [FORMULA FOR DISTRIBUTION TO CONGRESSIONAL CANDIDATES FOR REPRESENTATIVE IN CONGRESS.] The commissioner of revenue shall develop a formula for distribution of money from the state elections campaign fund to congressional candidates for the office of representative in Congress to assure that money will be returned to the

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (c), if a creditor is an agency of the United States and receives a mediation proceeding notice under subdivision 4, the creditor and the creditor's successors in interest may not begin or continue proceedings to enforce a debt against agricultural property of the debtor under chapter 580 or 581 or sections 336.9-501 to 336.9-508, to terminate a contract for deed to purchase agricultural property under section 559.21, or to garnish, levy on, execute on, seize, or attach agricultural property until ~~180~~ 90 days after the date the debtor files a mediation request with the director.

(c) Notwithstanding paragraphs (a) and (b) or subdivision 1, a creditor receiving a mediation proceeding notice may begin proceedings to enforce a debt against agricultural property of the debtor:

(1) at the time the creditor receives a mediator's affidavit of the debtor's lack of good faith under section 583.27; or

(2) five days after the date the debtor and creditor sign an agreement allowing the creditor to proceed to enforce the debt against agricultural property if the debtor has not rescinded the agreement within the five days.

(d) A creditor receiving a mediation proceeding notice must provide the debtor by the initial mediation meeting with copies of notes and contracts for debts subject to the farmer-lender mediation act and provide a statement of interest rates on the debts, delinquent payments, unpaid principal balance, a list of all collateral securing debts, a creditor's estimate of the value of the collateral, and debt restructuring programs available by the creditor.

Subd. 7. [INVESTMENT RELATED POSTRETIREMENT PAYMENTS.] (a) For the purpose of this subdivision, these terms have the following meaning:

(1) "Excess investment income" means the amount by which the time weighted total rate of return earned by the fund in the most recent fiscal year has exceeded the actual percentage increase in the current monthly salary of a top grade patrol officer in the most recent fiscal year plus 1.5 percent. The excess investment income must be expressed as a dollar amount; excess investment income shall not exceed 1.5 percent of the total assets of the fund and does not exist unless the time weighted total rate of return of the fund exceeds five percent.

(2) "Time weighted total rate of return" means the percentage amount determined by using the formula or formulas established by the state board of investment under Minnesota Statutes, section 11A.04, clause (11), and in effect on January 1, 1987.

(3) "Eligible member" means any person, including service pensioners, disability pensioners, their survivors, or dependents, who received an annuity during the 12 months prior to the determination date. Members who received an annuity for the entire 12 months prior to the determination date are eligible for a full annual postretirement payment. Members who received an annuity for less than 12 months prior to the determination date are eligible for prorated annual postretirement payments.

(4) "Determination date" means December 31 of each year.

(5) "Annual postretirement payment" means the payment of a lump sum postretirement benefit to eligible members on June 1 following the determination date in any year.

(b) The board of trustees of the relief association shall determine by May 1 of each year whether the relief association has excess investment income. The amount of excess investment income, if any, must be stated as a dollar amount and reported by the relief association to the governing body of the municipality, the state auditor, the commissioner of finance, and the legislative commission on pensions and retirement. The dollar amount of excess investment income up to 1.5 percent of the assets of the fund must be applied for the purposes specified in paragraphs (c) and (d). Excess investment income must not be considered for actuarial valuations of the fund for that year under Minnesota Statutes, sections 69.77, 356.215, and 356.216. Additional investment income must be included in the actuarial valuations performed under sections 69.77, 356.215, and 356.216.

(c) The amount determined by paragraph (b) must be applied as follows:

(1) one-third of the excess investment income must be paid as a benefit to eligible members under paragraph (d) in an amount not to exceed .5 percent of the assets of the fund or an amount equal to the total monthly benefit that the eligible member was entitled to in the prior year under the terms of the pension plan, whichever is less;

(2) the state amortization state aid or supplementary amortization state aid payments otherwise due to the relief association under Minnesota Statutes, section 423A.02, for the current calendar year must be reduced by one-third of the amount of the excess investment income; and

(3) the minimum obligation of the municipality otherwise due to the relief association for the following calendar year must be reduced by one-third of the amount of excess investment income.

(d) The relief association shall pay an annual postretirement payment to all eligible members in an amount not to exceed .5 percent of the assets of the fund. Payment of the annual postretirement payment shall be in a lump sum amount on June 1 following the determination date in any year. Payment of the annual postretirement payment shall be made only if the time weighted total rate of return exceeds five percent in any year. The total amount of all payments to members shall not exceed the amount determined under paragraph (b) of this subdivision. Payment to each eligible member shall be calculated by dividing the total number of pension units to which eligible members are entitled into the excess investment income available for distribution to members, and then multiplying that result by the number of units to which each eligible member is entitled to determine each eligible member's annual postretirement payment. Payment to each eligible member shall not exceed an amount equal to the total monthly benefit that the eligible member was entitled to in the prior year under the terms of the pension plan.

(e) In the event an eligible member dies prior to the payment of the postretirement payment, the relief association shall pay that eligible member's estate the amount to which the eligible member was entitled.

(f) The relief association shall submit a report on the amount of all postretirement payments made pursuant to this section and the manner in which those payments were determined to the state auditor, the executive secretary of the legislative commission on pensions and retirement, and the Minneapolis city clerk.

Sec. 11. [MINNEAPOLIS FIRE; POSTRETIREMENT PAYMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZED.] Notwithstanding the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 69, or any other law to the contrary, the Minneapolis fire department relief association shall provide postretirement payments to eligible members under subdivision 2.

The excess investment income must be expressed as a dollar amount; excess investment income shall not exceed 1.5 percent of the total assets of the fund and does not exist unless the time weighted total rate of return of the fund exceeds five percent.

(2) "Time weighted total rate of return" means the percentage amount determined by using the formula or formulas established by the state board of investment under Minnesota Statutes, section 11A.04, clause (11), and in effect on January 1, 1987.

(3) "Eligible member" means any person, including service pensioners, disability pensioners, their survivors, or dependents, who received an annuity during the 12 months prior to the determination date. Members who received an annuity for the entire 12 months prior to the determination date are eligible for a full annual postretirement payment. Members who received an annuity for less than 12 months prior to the determination date are eligible for prorated annual postretirement payments.

(4) "Determination date" means December 31 of each year.

(5) "Annual postretirement payment" means the payment of a lump sum postretirement benefit to eligible members on June 1 following the determination date in any year.

(b) The board of trustees of the relief association shall determine by May 1 of each year whether the relief association has excess investment income. The amount of excess investment income, if any, must be stated as a dollar amount and reported by the relief association to the governing body of the municipality, the state auditor, the commissioner of finance, and the legislative commission on pensions and retirement. (3) the minimum obligation of the municipality otherwise due to the relief association for the following calendar year must be reduced by one-third of the amount of excess investment income.

(d) The relief association shall pay an annual postretirement payment to all eligible members in an amount not to exceed .5 percent of the assets of the fund. Payment of the annual postretirement payment shall be in a lump sum amount on June 1 following the determination date in any year. Payment of the annual postretirement payment shall be made only if the time weighted total rate of return exceeds five percent in any year. The total amount of all payments to members shall not exceed the amount determined under paragraph (b) of this subdivision. Payment to each eligible member shall be calculated by dividing the total number of pension units to which eligible members are entitled into the excess investment income available for distribution to members, and then multiplying that result by the number of units to which each eligible member is entitled to determine each eligible member's annual postretirement payment. Payment to each eligible member shall not exceed an amount equal to the total monthly benefit that the eligible member was entitled to in the prior year under the terms of the pension plan.

(e) In the event an eligible member dies prior to the payment of the postretirement payment, the relief association shall pay that eligible member's estate the amount to which the eligible member was entitled.

(f) The relief association shall submit a report on the amount of all postretirement payments made pursuant to this section and the manner in which those payments were determined to the state auditor, the executive secretary of the legislative commission on pensions and retirement, and the Minneapolis city clerk.

Sec. 12. [NONENTITLEMENT OF ANNUAL POSTRETIREMENT PAYMENT.]

No provision of, or payment made under, section 10 or 11 shall be interpreted or relied upon by any member of either the Minneapolis police relief association or the Minneapolis fire department relief association to guarantee or entitle a member to annual postretirement benefits for a period when no excess investment income is earned by either fund."

Referred to the Committee on Rules and Administration.

SPECIAL ORDER

H.F. No. 1939: A bill for an act relating to agriculture; changing the continuing effect of certain farmer-lender mediation rules; repealing certain conflicting language relating to food handler license fees; amending Laws 1987, chapter 292, section 35; repealing Laws 1987, chapter 358, section 85.

Mr. Berg moved to amend H.F. No. 1939, as amended pursuant to Rule 49, adopted by the Senate March 23, 1988, as follows:

Subd. 6. [DISPOSAL OF LAND.] (a) A state or federal agency or a corporation, other than a family farm corporation or an authorized farm corporation, may not lease or sell agricultural land or a farm homestead that was acquired by enforcing a debt against the agricultural land or farm homestead, including foreclosure of a mortgage, accepting a deed in lieu of foreclosure, terminating a contract for deed, or accepting a deed in lieu of terminating a contract for deed, before offering or making a good faith effort to offer the land for sale or lease to the immediately preceding former owner at a price no higher than the highest price offered by a third party that is acceptable to the seller or lessor. The offer must be made on the notice to offer form under subdivision 7. Selling or leasing property to a third party at a price is prima facie evidence that the price is acceptable to the seller or lessor.

(b) For purposes of this subdivision, the term “a price no higher than the highest price offered by a third party” means the acceptable cash price offered by a third party or the acceptable time-price offer made by a third party. A cash price offer is one that involves simultaneous transfer of title for payment of the entire amount of the offer. If the acceptable offer made by a third party is a time-price offer, the seller or lessor must make the same time-price offer or an equivalent cash offer to the immediately preceding former owner. An equivalent cash offer is equal to the total of the payments made over a period of the time-price offer discounted by yield curve of the United States treasury notes and bonds on the first business day of the month in which the offer is personally delivered or mailed for time periods similar to the time period covered by the time-price offer, plus 2.0 percent. A time-price offer is an offer that defers payment of a portion of the price and does not involve a transfer of fee title until payment of the entire amount of the offer is made is financed entirely or partially by the seller and includes an offer to purchase under a contract for deed or mortgage. An equivalent cash offer is not required to be made if the state participates in an offer to a third party through the rural finance authority.

(c) This subdivision applies to a seller when the property is sold and to a lessor each time the property is leased, for five years after the agricultural land is acquired except:

(1) an offer to lease to the immediately preceding former owner is required only until the immediately preceding owner fails to accept an offer to lease the property or the property is sold; and

(2) an offer to sell to the immediately preceding former owner is required until the property is sold.

(d) The notice of an offer under subdivision 7 that is personally delivered with a signed receipt or sent by certified mail with a receipt of mailing to the immediately preceding former owner's last known address is a good faith offer.

(e) This subdivision does not apply to a sale or lease that occurs after the seller or lessor has held the property for five years or longer.

(f) For purposes of this subdivision, if the immediately preceding former owner is a bankruptcy estate the debtor in the bankruptcy is the immediately preceding owner.

(g) The immediately preceding former owner must exercise the right to lease agricultural land or a homestead located on agricultural land in writing within 15 days after an offer to lease under this subdivision is mailed with a receipt of mailing or personally delivered. The immediately preceding former owner must exercise the right to buy the agricultural land or farm homestead located on agricultural land, in writing, within 65 days after an offer to buy under this subdivision is mailed with a receipt of mailing or is personally delivered. Within ten days after exercising the right to lease or buy by accepting the offer, the immediately preceding owner must fully perform according to the terms of the offer including paying the amounts due. A seller may sell and a lessor may lease the agricultural land or farm homestead subject to this subdivision to the third party in accordance with their lease or purchase agreement if:

(1) the immediately preceding former owner does not accept an offer to lease or buy before the offer terminates; or

(2) the immediately preceding former owner does not perform the obligations of the offer, including paying the amounts due, within ten days after accepting the offer.

(h) A certificate indicating whether or not the property contains agricultural land or a farm homestead that is signed by the county assessor where the property is located and recorded in the office of the county recorder or the registrar of titles where the property is located is prima facie evidence of whether the property is agricultural land or a farm homestead.

(i) As prima facie evidence that an offer to sell or lease agricultural land or a farm homestead has terminated, a receipt of mailing the notice under subdivision 7 and an affidavit, signed by a person authorized to act on behalf of a state, federal agency, or corporation selling or leasing the agricultural land or a farm homestead may be filed in the office of the county recorder or registrar of titles of the county where the agricultural land or farm homestead is located. The affidavit must state that:

(1) notice of an offer to buy or lease the agricultural land or farm homestead was provided to the immediately preceding former owner at a price not higher than the highest price offered by a third party that is acceptable;

(2) the time during which the immediately preceding former owner is required to exercise the right to buy or lease the agricultural land or farm homestead has expired;

(3) the immediately preceding former owner has not exercised the right to buy or lease the agricultural land or farm homestead as provided in this subdivision or has accepted an offer and has not fully performed according to the terms of the offer; and

(4) the offer to the immediately preceding former owner has terminated.

(j) The right of an immediately preceding former owner to receive an offer to lease or purchase agricultural land under this subdivision or to lease or purchase at a price no higher than the highest price offered by a third party that is acceptable to the seller or lessor may be extinguished or limited by an express statement signed by the immediately preceding owner that complies with the plain language requirements of section 325G.31. The right may not be extinguished or limited except by the:

(1) an express statement in a deed in lieu of foreclosure of the agricultural land;

(2) an express statement in a deed in lieu of a termination of a contract for deed for the agricultural land; or

(3) an express statement conveying the right to the state or federal agency or corporation owning the agricultural land that is required to make an offer under this subdivision or to cure a title defect, an express statement conveying the right may be made to a person to whom the agricultural land has been transferred by the state or federal agency or corporation.

(k) The right of an immediately preceding former owner to receive an offer to lease or purchase agricultural land under this subdivision may not be assigned or transferred except as provided in paragraph (j), but may be inherited.

(l) An immediately preceding former owner may not sell agricultural land acquired by accepting an offer under this subdivision if the arrangement of the sale was negotiated or agreed to prior to the former owner accepting the offer under this subdivision. A person who sells property in violation of this paragraph is liable for damages plus court costs and attorney fees, to a person who is damaged by a sale in violation of this paragraph. There is a rebuttable presumption that a sale by an immediately preceding former owner is in violation of this paragraph if the sale takes place within 180 days of the former owner accepting the offer under this subdivision. This paragraph does not apply to a sale by an immediately preceding former owner to the owner's spouse, the owner's parents, or the owner's children.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 500.24, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [NOTICE OF OFFER.] (a) The state, a federal agency, or a corporation subject to subdivision 6 must provide a notice of an offer to sell or lease agricultural land substantially as follows, after inserting the appropriate terms within the parentheses:

March 28, 1988

The Honorable Robert Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H.F. No. 85, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendments and that H.F. No. 85 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 168.27, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given them:

(1) “Leasing motor vehicles” means furnishing a motor vehicle for a fee under a bailor-bailee relationship where no incidences of ownership are intended to be transferred other than the right to use the vehicle for a stated period of time.

(2) “Brokering motor vehicles” means arranging sales between willing buyers and sellers of motor vehicles and receiving a fee for said service.

(3) "Wholesaling motor vehicles" means selling new or used motor vehicles to dealers for resale to the public.

(4) "Auctioning motor vehicles" means arranging for and handling the sale of motor vehicles, not the property of the auctioneer, to the highest bidder.

(5) "Dealer" includes new motor vehicle dealers, used motor vehicle dealers, ~~brokers~~, wholesalers, auctioneers and lessors of new or used motor vehicles.

(6) "Commercial building" means a permanent, enclosed building that is on a permanent foundation and connected to local sewer and water facilities or otherwise complying with local sanitary codes, is adapted to commercial use and located in an area zoned for commercial or other less restrictive nonresidential use by the governmental unit in which it is located, and conforms to local government zoning requirements. "Commercial building" may include strip office malls or garages if a separate entrance and a separate address are maintained and the dealership is clearly identified as a separate business.

(7) "Commercial office space" means office space occupying all or part of a commercial building.

(8) "Horse trailer" is a trailer designed and used to carry horses and other livestock, which has not more than three axles and a maximum gross weight capacity of not more than 24,000 pounds.

(9) "Isolated or occasional sales or leases" means the sale or lease of not more than five motor vehicles in a 12-month period, exclusive of pioneer or classic motor vehicles as defined in section 168.10, subdivisions 1a and 1b or sales by a licensed auctioneer selling motor vehicles at an auction if, in the ordinary course of the auctioneer's business, the sale of motor vehicles is incidental to the sale of other real or personal property.

(10) "Used motor vehicle" means a motor vehicle for which title has been transferred from the person who first acquired it from the manufacturer, distributor, or dealer. A new motor vehicle will not be considered a used motor vehicle until it has been placed in actual operation and not held for resale by an owner who has been granted a certificate of title on the motor vehicle and has registered the motor vehicle in accordance with chapters 168, 168A, and 297B, or the laws of the residence of the owner.

(11) "New motor vehicle" means a motor vehicle other than described in paragraph (10).

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 168.27, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [NEW MOTOR VEHICLE DEALER.] (a) No person shall engage in the business of selling or ~~arranging the sale of~~ new motor vehicles or shall offer to sell, solicit, ~~arrange~~ or advertise the sale of new motor vehicles without first acquiring a new motor vehicle dealer license. A new motor vehicle dealer licensee shall be entitled thereunder to sell, broker, wholesale or auction and to solicit and advertise the sale, broker, wholesale or auction of new motor vehicles covered by the franchise and any used motor vehicles or to lease and to solicit and advertise the lease of new motor vehicles and any used motor vehicles and such sales or leases may be either for consumer use at retail or for resale to a dealer. Nothing herein shall be construed to require an applicant for a dealer license who proposes to deal in: (1) new and unused motor vehicle bodies; or (2) type A, B, or C motor homes as defined in section 168.011, subdivision 25, to have a bona fide contract or franchise in effect with either the first-stage manufacturer of the motor home or the manufacturer or distributor of any motor vehicle chassis upon which the new and unused motor vehicle body is mounted. The modification or conversion of a new van-type vehicle into a multipurpose passenger vehicle which is not a motor home does not constitute dealing in new or unused motor vehicle bodies, and a person engaged in the business of selling these van-type vehicles must have a bona fide contract or franchise with the appropriate manufacturer under subdivision 10. A van converter or modifier who owns these modified or converted van-type vehicles may sell them at wholesale to new motor vehicle dealers having a bona fide contract or franchise with the first-stage manufacturer of the vehicles.

(b) The requirements pertaining to franchises do not apply to persons who remodel or convert motor vehicles for medical purposes. For purposes of this subdivision, "medical purpose" means certification by a licensed physician that remodeling or conversion of a motor vehicle is necessary to enable a handicapped person to use the vehicle.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 168.27, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5a. [CONSIGNMENT SALES.] No person may solicit, accept, offer for sale, or sell motor vehicles for consignment sale unless licensed as a new or used motor vehicle dealer, a motor vehicle wholesaler, or a motor vehicle auctioneer. This requirement does not apply to a licensed auctioneer selling motor vehicles at an auction if, in the ordinary course of the auctioneer's business, the sale of motor vehicles is incidental to the sale of other real or personal property.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 168.27, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [EXEMPTIONS.] (1) Salespeople and other employees of licensed dealers under this section shall not be required to obtain individual licenses.

(2) Isolated or occasional sales or leases of new or used motor vehicles shall be exempt from the provisions of this section. A person who makes only isolated or occasional sales or leases is not considered to be in the business of selling or leasing motor vehicles and does not qualify to receive dealer plates pursuant to subdivision 16.

The refund shall be paid to the manufacturer, dealer, or lessor only upon filing of a written application, in a form and providing information as prescribed by the commissioner. Payment of a refund pursuant to this section shall be made out of the general and highway user funds in the same proportion provided for deposit of tax proceeds for the fiscal year pursuant to section 297B.09, subdivision 1. No transferor may knowingly give a false statement to a transferee in making a disclosure required by this subdivision.

Sec. 12. [325F662] [SALE OF USED MOTOR VEHICLES.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the meanings given to them.

(a) "Consumer" means the purchaser, other than for purposes of resale, of a used motor vehicle used primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

(b) "Dealer" means a motor vehicle dealer or lessor, as defined in section 168.27, subdivisions 2, 3, and 4, whether licensed or unlicensed, or the dealer's or lessor's agent, who is engaged in the business of selling or arranging the sale of used motor vehicles in this state; except that, the term does not include a bank or financial institution, a business selling a used motor vehicle to an employee of that business, a lessor selling a leased used motor vehicle to that vehicle's lessee or a family member or employee of the lessee, or a licensed auctioneer selling motor vehicles at an auction if, in the ordinary course of the auctioneer's business, the sale of motor vehicles is incidental to the sale of other real or personal property.

(c) "Motor vehicle" means a passenger automobile, as defined in section 168.011, subdivision 7, including pickup trucks and vans.

(d) "Used motor vehicle" means any motor vehicle which has been driven more than the limited use necessary in moving or road testing a new motor vehicle prior to delivery to a consumer.

(e) "Express warranty" means a dealer's written statement, as defined in section 325G.17, subdivision 5, provided to a consumer in connection with the sale of a used motor vehicle.

(f) "Buyer's Guide" means the window form required by the Federal Trade Commission's "Used Motor Vehicle Trade Regulation Rule," Code of Federal Regulations, title 16, section 455.2.

Subd. 2. [WRITTEN WARRANTY REQUIRED.] (a) Every used motor vehicle sold by a dealer is covered by an express warranty which the dealer shall provide to the consumer. At a minimum, the express warranty applies for the following terms:

(1) if the used motor vehicle has less than 36,000 miles, the warranty must remain in effect for at least 60 days or 2,500 miles, whichever comes first;

(2) if the used motor vehicle has 36,000 miles or more, but less than 75,000 miles, the warranty must remain in effect for at least 30 days or 1,000 miles, whichever comes first.

(b) The express warranty must require the dealer, in the event of a malfunction, defect, or failure in a covered part, to repair or replace the covered part, or at the dealer's election, to accept return of the used motor vehicle from the consumer and provide a refund to the consumer.

(c) For used motor vehicles with less than 36,000 miles, the dealer's express warranty shall cover, at minimum, the following parts:

(1) with respect to the engine, all lubricated parts, intake manifolds, engine block, cylinder head, rotary engine housings, and ring gear;

(2) with respect to the transmission, the automatic transmission case, internal parts, and the torque converter; or, the manual transmission case, and the internal parts;

(3) with respect to the drive axle, the axle housings and internal parts, axle shafts, drive shafts and output shafts, and universal joints; but excluding the secondary drive axle on vehicles, other than passenger vans, mounted on a truck chassis;

(6) the water pump;

(7) the externally-mounted mechanical fuel pump;

(8) the radiator;

(9) the alternator, generator, and starter.

(d) For used motor vehicles with 36,000 miles or more, but less than 75,000 miles, the dealer's express warranty shall cover, at minimum, the following parts:

(1) with respect to the engine, all lubricated parts, intake manifolds, engine block, cylinder head, rotary engine housings, and ring gear;

(2) with respect to the transmission, the automatic transmission case, internal parts, and the torque converter; or, the manual transmission case,

and internal parts;

(3) with respect to the drive axle, the axle housings and internal parts, axle shafts, drive shafts and output shafts, and universal joints; but excluding the secondary drive axle on vehicles, other than passenger vans, mounted on a truck chassis;

(4) with respect to the brakes, the master cylinder, vacuum assist booster, wheel cylinders, hydraulic lines and fittings, and disc brake calipers;

(5) with respect to the steering, the steering gear housing and all internal parts, power steering pump, valve body, and piston;

(6) the water pump;

(7) the externally-mounted mechanical fuel pump.

(e)(1) A dealer's obligations under the express warranty remain in effect notwithstanding the fact that the warranty period has expired, if the consumer promptly notified the dealer of the malfunction, defect, or failure in the covered part within the specified warranty period and, within a reasonable time after notification, brings the vehicle or arranges with the dealer to have the vehicle brought to the dealer for inspection and repair.

(2) If a dealer does not have a repair facility, the dealer shall designate where the vehicle must be taken for inspection and repair.

(3) In the event the malfunction, defect, or failure in the covered part occurs at a location which makes it impossible or unreasonable to return the vehicle to the selling dealer, the consumer may have the repairs completed elsewhere with the consent of the selling dealer, which consent may not be unreasonably withheld.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph, a consumer may have non-warranty maintenance and non-warranty repairs performed other than by the selling dealer and without the selling dealer's consent.

(f) Nothing in this section diminishes the obligations of a manufacturer under an express warranty issued by the manufacturer. The express warranties created by this section do not require a dealer to repair or replace a covered part if the repair or replacement is covered by a manufacturer's new car warranty, or the manufacturer otherwise agrees to repair or replace the part.

(g) The express warranties created by this section do not cover defects or repair problems which result from collision, abuse, negligence, or lack of adequate maintenance following sale to the consumer.

(h) The terms of the express warranty, including the duration of the warranty and the parts covered, must be fully, accurately, and conspicuously disclosed by the dealer on the front of the Buyers Guide.

Subd. 3. [EXCLUSIONS.] Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 2, a dealer is not required to provide an express warranty for the following used motor vehicles:

(1) vehicles sold for a total cash sale price of less than $3,000, including the trade-in value of any vehicle traded in by the consumer, but excluding tax, license fees, registration fees, and finance charges;

(2) vehicles with engines designed to use diesel fuel;

(3) vehicles with gross weight, as defined in section 168.011, subdivision

16, in excess of 9,000 pounds;

(4) vehicles that have been custom-built or modified for show or for racing;

(5) vehicles that are eight years of age or older, as calculated from the first day in January of the designated model year of the vehicle;

(6) vehicles that have been produced by a manufacturer which has never manufactured more than 10,000 motor vehicles in any one year;

(7) vehicles having 75,000 miles or more at time of sale;

(8) vehicles that are not manufactured in compliance with applicable federal emission standards in force at the time of manufacture as provided by the Clean Air Act, United States Code, title 42, sections 7401 through 7642, and regulations adopted pursuant thereto, and safety standards as provided by the National Traffic and Motor Safety Act, United States Code, title 15, sections 1381 through 1431, and regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

Subd. 4. [WAIVER.] When purchasing a used motor vehicle, a consumer may waive the express warranty for a covered part if:

(1) the dealer discloses in a clear and conspicuous typed or printed statement on the front of the Buyers Guide that the waived part contains a malfunction, defect, or repair problem; and

(2) the consumer circles this typed or printed statement and signs the Buyers Guide next to the circled statement.

Subd. 5. [WARRANTY AUTOMATIC.] If a dealer fails to give the express warranty required by this section, the dealer nevertheless is considered to have given the express warranty as a matter of law.

Subd. 6. ["BUYERS GUIDE" REQUIREMENTS.] In selling or offering to sell any used motor vehicle, and in providing the express warranty required by this section, a dealer shall comply in all respects with the Federal Trade Commission's "Used Motor Vehicle Trade Regulation Rule," Code of Federal Regulations, title 16, part 455.

Subd. 7. [HONORING OF EXPRESS WARRANTIES.] (a) In accordance with section 325G.19, subdivision 2, every express warranty in connection with the sale of a used motor vehicle must be honored by the dealer according to the terms of the express warranty.

(b) Following repair or replacement of a covered part, the dealer remains responsible under the express warranty for that covered part for one additional warranty period.

(c) By honoring the terms of the express warranty by repairing or replacing a covered part, the dealer does not create an additional implied warranty on any portion of the used motor vehicle.

(d) A dealer may limit the duration of implied warranties to the duration of the express warranty.

Subd. 8. [REFUNDS.] (a) A refund, as provided under subdivision 2, must consist of the full purchase price of the used motor vehicle and all other charges, including but not limited to excise tax, registration tax, license fees, and reimbursement for towing expenses incurred by the consumer as a result of the vehicle being out of service for warranty repair.

less a reasonable allowance for the consumer's use of the vehicle not exceeding ten cents per mile driven or ten percent of the purchase price, whichever is less. Refunds must include the amount stated by the dealer as the trade-in value of any vehicle traded in and applied to the purchase price of the used motor vehicle. Refunds must be made to the consumer and lienholder, if any, as their interests appear on the records of the registrar of motor vehicles.

(b) The amount of the excise tax to be paid by the dealer to the consumer under paragraph (a) is the tax paid by the consumer when the vehicle was purchased less an amount equal to the tax paid multiplied by a fraction, the denominator of which is the purchase price of the vehicle and the numerator of which is the allowance deducted from the refund for the consumer's use of the vehicle.

Subd. 9. [CIVIL REMEDIES.] Any dealer who is found to have violated this section is subject to the penalties and remedies, including a private right of action, as provided in section 8.31. In addition, a violation of subdivision 7 is also a violation of section 325F.69.

Subd. 10. [LIMITATION ON ACTIONS.] A private civil action brought by a consumer under this section must be commenced within one year of the expiration of the express warranty.

Subd. 11. [REMEDY NONEXCLUSIVE.] Nothing in this section limits the rights or remedies which are otherwise available to a consumer under any other law."
