(1) if the used motor vehicle has less than 36,000 miles, the warranty must remain in effect for at least 60 days or 2,500 miles, whichever comes first;

(2) if the used motor vehicle has 36,000 miles or more, but less than

75,000 miles, the warranty must remain in effect for at least 30 days or 1,000 miles, whichever comes first;

(b) The express warranty must require the dealer, in the event of a malfunction, defect, or failure in a covered part, to repair or replace the covered part, or at the dealer's election, to accept return of the used motor vehicle from the consumer and provide a refund to the consumer.

(c) For used motor vehicles with less than 36,000 miles, the dealer's express warranty shall cover, at minimum, the following parts:

(1) with respect to the engine, all lubricated parts, intake manifolds, engine block, cylinder head, rotary engine housings, and ring gear;

(2) with respect to the transmission, the automatic transmission case, internal parts, and the torque converter; or, the manual transmission case, and internal parts;

(7) the externally-mounted mechanical fuel pump.

(e)(1) A dealer's obligations under the express warranty remain in effect notwithstanding the fact that the warranty period has expired, if the consumer promptly notified the dealer of the malfunction, defect, or failure in the covered part within the specified warranty period and, within a reasonable time after notification, brings the vehicle or arranges with the dealer to have the vehicle brought to the dealer for inspection and repair.

(3) In the event the malfunction, defect, or failure in the covered part occurs at a location which makes it impossible or unreasonable to return the vehicle to the selling dealer, the consumer may have the repairs completed elsewhere with the consent of the selling dealer, which consent may not be unreasonably withheld.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph, a consumer may have non-warranty maintenance and non-warranty repairs performed other than by the selling dealer and without the selling dealer's consent.

(f) Nothing in this section diminishes the obligations of a manufacturer under an express warranty issued by the manufacturer. (g) The express warranties created by this section do not cover defects or repair problems which result from collision, abuse, negligence, or lack of adequate maintenance following sale to the consumer.

(h) The terms of the express warranty, including the duration of the warranty and the parts covered, must be fully, accurately, and conspicuously disclosed by the dealer on the front of the Buyers Guide.

Subd. 3. [EXCLUSIONS.] Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 2, a dealer is not required to provide an express warranty for the following used motor vehicles:

(e) A notation specifying which parts, if any, are new, used, rebuilt, reconditioned, or replated if that information is known by the shop. If parts, other than window glass, used in the repair are new parts, the invoice must indicate whether or not those parts are original equipment parts;

(f) A statement of any charge for storage or care, a service call or for making an estimate;

(g) A statement of the odometer reading at the time a motor vehicle is presented for repairs; and

(h) A statement of the symptoms, as described by the customer, for which the repairs were sought.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 325F62, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Each shop shall conspicuously display a sign that states the following: "Upon a customer's request, this shop is required to provide a written estimate for repairs costing $100 to $2,000 if the shop agrees to perform the repairs. The shop's final price cannot exceed its written estimate by more than ten percent without the prior authorization of the customer". You must request that the estimate be in writing. An oral estimate is not subject to the above repair cost limitations. If the shop charges a fee for the storage or care of repaired motor vehicles or appliances, the shop shall conspicuously display a sign that states the amount assessed for storage or care, when the charge begins to accrue, and the interval of time between assessments."

Ms. Berglin from the Committee on Health and Human Services, to which was referred

S.F. No. 1857: A bill for an act relating to human services; providing for the duration of work incentive subsidized housing emergency rules; requiring mandatory school attendance for certain AFDC recipients who are minors; providing for implementation of the food stamp employment and training program; appropriating money; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 245.771, by adding a subdivision; 256.736, by adding subdivisions; Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256.736, subdivisions 1b and 4.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 245.771, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [EMPLOYMENT AND TRAINING PROGRAMS.] The commissioner of human services may contract with the commissioner of jobs and training to implement and supervise employment and training programs for food stamp recipients that are required by federal regulations.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256.736, subdivision 1b, is amended to read:

Subd. 1b. [WORK INCENTIVE SUBSIDIZED HOUSING PROGRAM.] Within the limit of available appropriations, employed recipients of aid to families with dependent children who meet eligibility requirements established by the commissioner of human services are eligible for a state housing subsidy as an incentive to seek and retain employment. The commissioner of human services shall adopt rules for the work incentive subsidized housing program using eligibility criteria, subsidy amounts, and an administrative system developed jointly by the commissioner of human services and the commissioner of jobs and training. Unless superseded by permanent rules, emergency rules adopted to implement this section remain in effect until July 1, 1989. The rules must:

(1) target recipients who are or are likely to become long-term recipients or who experience substantial barriers to employment;

(2) establish a fixed or sliding scale subsidy amount that will create a significant work incentive yet enable the program to serve the greatest possible number of recipients;

(3) limit the subsidy to persons who become employed while receiving assistance; and

(4) provide for continued subsidy payments for up to one year after termination of assistance to ease the transition from assistance to self-sufficiency.

The program must be coordinated with existing work and training programs and must be designed to maximize savings in the aid to families with dependent children program. The subsidy must be provided as in-kind assistance, and it is not available if it would be considered countable income under state and federal requirements.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.736, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1c. [EDUCATION INCENTIVE PROGRAM.] (a) Within the limits of available appropriations, a recipient who is either a minor parent living with his or her child or a pregnant minor and who meets the requirements of this subdivision is eligible for a subsidy for child care, nonschool transportation, or clothing and food items for the recipient's child as an incentive to attend and complete the recipient's education through high school or its equivalent. The subsidy must be provided as in-kind assistance and is not available if it would be considered countable income under state and federal law.

(b) A recipient who is either a minor parent living with his or her child or a pregnant minor and who is attending a school as defined in section 4, paragraph (a), is eligible for an education incentive subsidy according to the following schedule:

No. of consecutive school days attended without an unexcused absence per calendar month	Value of Voucher
5	$ 7.50
10	17.50
15	30.00
20	45.00

The term "school day" means a day when school is in session for purposes of calculating the required minimum number of school days under section 124.19.

(c) The educational incentive subsidy must:

(1) be in the form of a voucher for the purchase of clothing, diapers, or food items for the minor parent's child, for the provision of child care services outside normal school hours, or for the purchase of nonschool transportation services;

(2) be calculated on at least a monthly basis and be provided to the recipient no later than the eighth day following the end of the preceding month;

(3) continue until the recipient receives a high school diploma, earns a graduate equivalency diploma, or is no longer a recipient, whichever occurs first;

(4) not be calculated on a pro rata basis; and

(5) be vouchered to a vendor chosen by the recipient, provided the vendor furnishes the goods or services described in clause (1).

(d) For purposes of calculating the education incentive subsidy under this subdivision, an absence with good cause as described in section 4, paragraph (d), is not a break in the number of consecutive days of school attendance but does not count as an attended school day. Absence from school for any other reason is an unexcused absence.

(e) Every six months beginning August 1, 1988, the commissioner shall mail to each recipient who is a pregnant minor or a minor parent a written notice informing the recipient of the availability of the education subsidy, the eligibility conditions, and an application for the education subsidy with instructions on how to apply for the subsidy.

(f) In order to implement this section, and notwithstanding section 13.32, subdivision 3, schools shall furnish and verify information about school attendance to the commissioner and to case management services providers for the purpose of establishing eligibility for and the amount of the education subsidy.

(g) Every recipient who has applied for an education subsidy must be given monthly notice of his or her eligibility for and the amount of the subsidy and of the right to request a fair hearing in accordance with section 256.045 and the Code of Federal Regulations, title 45, section 205.10. Pending the outcome of an appeal, the subsidy must be issued in the amount determined by the case manager based on information provided by the school. If the appeal is decided in the recipient's favor, the additional subsidy voucher to which the recipient is entitled must be promptly issued.

(h) The commissioner shall report to the legislature by January 1, 1990, on the effectiveness of the education incentive program in improving school attendance and performance.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.736, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3b. [MANDATORY SCHOOL ATTENDANCE FOR MINOR PARENTS.] (a) [DEFINITIONS.] The definitions in this paragraph apply to this subdivision.

(1) "Minor parent" means a recipient of AFDC who is under age 18 and who is the natural or adoptive parent of a child living with the minor parent.

(2) "School" means:

(i) an educational program which leads to a high school diploma. The program or coursework may be, but is not limited to, a program under the post-secondary enrollment options of section 123.3514, a regular or alternative program of an elementary or secondary school, a technical institute, or a college;

(ii) coursework for a general educational development (GED) diploma of not less than six hours of classroom instruction per week; or

(iii) any other post-secondary educational program that is approved by the public school or the local agency under subdivision 11.

(b) [SCHOOL ATTENDANCE REQUIRED.] Notwithstanding section 256.736, subdivision 3, a minor parent must attend school if all of the following apply:

(1) the minor parent has no child living with the parent who is younger than six weeks of age;

(2) transportation services needed to enable the minor parent to attend school are available;

(3) licensed or legal nonlicensed child care services needed to enable the minor parent to attend school are available;

(4) the minor parent has not already graduated from high school and has not received a general educational development (GED) diploma; and

(5) the minor parent does not have good cause for failing to attend school, as provided in paragraph (d).

(c) [ENROLLMENT AND ATTENDANCE.] The minor parent must be enrolled in school and meeting the school's attendance requirements. The minor parent is considered to be attending when the minor parent is enrolled but the school is not in regular session, including holidays and summer breaks.

(d) [GOOD CAUSE FOR NOT ATTENDING SCHOOL.] The local agency shall determine whether good cause for not attending school exists, according to this paragraph:

(1) Good cause exists when the minor parent is ill or injured seriously enough to prevent the minor parent from attending school.

(2) Good cause exists when the minor parent's child is ill or injured and the minor parent's presence in the home is required to care for the child.

(3) Good cause exists when the local agency has verified that the only available school program requires round trip commuting time from the minor parent's residence of more than two hours by available means of transportation, excluding the time necessary to transport children to and from child care.

(4) Good cause exists when there is an interruption in availability of child care services.

(5) Good cause exists when the minor parent has indicated a desire to attend school, but the public school system is not providing for the minor parent's education and alternative programs are not available.

(6) Good cause exists when the school does not cooperate with the local agency in providing verification of the minor parent's education or attendance.

(7) Good cause exists when the minor parent or the minor parent's child has a medical appointment or an appointment with the local welfare agency, is required to appear in court during the minor parent's normal school hours, or has any other obligation consistent with the case management contract.

(e) [FAILURE TO COMPLY.] If the school notifies the local agency that the minor parent is not enrolled or is not meeting the school's attendance requirements and the local agency determines that the minor parent does not have good cause, the local agency shall apply the sanctions listed in subdivision 4 beginning with the first payment month after issuance of notice.

(f) [NOTICE AND HEARING.] A right to notice and fair hearing shall be provided in accordance with section 256.045 and the Code of Federal Regulations, title 45, section 205.10.

(g) [SOCIAL SERVICES.] When a minor parent has failed to attend school and does not have good cause, the local agency shall refer the minor parent to social services for services, as provided in section 257.33.

(h) [VERIFICATION.] No less often than quarterly, the local agency must verify that the minor parent is meeting the requirements of this subdivision. Notwithstanding section 13.32, subdivision 3, when the local agency notifies the school that a minor parent is subject to this subdivision, the school must furnish verification of school enrollment and attendance to the local agency.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 256.736, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3c. [MINOR PARENTS NOT LIVING WITH RELATIVES.] (a) This subdivision applies to a minor parent who is not living with a parent or other adult relative and who is not living in a group or foster home licensed by the commissioner.

(b) For purposes of this subdivision, the following terms have the meanings given them:

(1) "Minor parent" means an applicant for or recipient of AFDC who is under age 18 and who is the natural or adoptive parent of a child living with the minor parent.

(2) "Other adult relative" means a person who qualifies to be an eligible relative caretaker for AFDC, as specified in federal regulations.

(c) The agency shall determine, for each minor parent who applies for or receives AFDC, whether this section applies. For a minor parent to whom this section applies, the local agency shall refer the minor parent to its social services unit within 30 days of the date the application for assistance is approved for development of a social service plan as required in section 257.33. The agency shall notify the minor parent of the referral to social services and that cooperation in developing and participating in a social service plan is required in order for AFDC eligibility to continue.

(d) In addition to meeting the requirements of section 257.33, the social service plan may, based upon the social service unit's evaluation of the minor caretaker's needs and parenting abilities and the health, safety, and parenting needs of the minor caretaker's child, require the minor caretaker to live in a group or foster home or participate in available programs that teach skills in parenting or independent living.

(e) If the minor parent fails to cooperate in developing or participating in the social service plan, the social services unit shall notify the income maintenance unit of the local agency, which shall then notify the minor parent of the determination and that the sanctions in subdivision 4 will be applied.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256.736, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [CONDITIONS OF CERTIFICATION.] The commissioner of human services shall:

(1) Arrange for or provide any caretaker or child required to participate in employment and training services pursuant to this section with child-care services, transportation, and other necessary family services;

(2) Pay 10 percent of the cost of the work incentive program and any other costs that are required of that agency by federal regulation for employment and training services for recipients of aid to families with dependent children;

(3) Provide that in determining a recipient's needs any monthly incentive training payment made to the recipient by the department of jobs and training is disregarded and the additional expenses attributable to participation in a program are taken into account in grant determination to the extent permitted by federal regulation; and

(4) Provide that when it has been certified by the county board that a caretaker or child required to participate in an employment and training program has been found by the employment and training service provider to have refused without good cause to participate in appropriate employment and training services or to have refused without good cause to accept a bona fide offer of public or other employment, the county board shall provide that the county board shall impose the sanctions in clause (5) or (6) when the county board:

(a) is notified that a caretaker or child required to participate in employment and training services has been found by the employment and training service provider to have failed without good cause to participate in appropriate employment and training services or to have failed without good cause to accept a bona fide offer of public or other employment;

(b) determines that a minor parent who is required to attend school under section 4 has, without good cause, failed to attend school;

(c) determines that section 5 applies to a minor parent and the minor parent has, without good cause, failed to cooperate with development of a social service plan or to participate in execution of the plan, to live in a group or foster home, or to participate in a program that teaches skills in parenting and independent living; or

(d) determines that a caretaker has, without good cause, failed to attend orientation.

(5) To the extent permissible by federal law, the following sanctions must be imposed for a recipient's failure to participate in required employment and training services, education, orientation, or the requirements of section 5:

(a) For the first failure, 50 percent of the grant provided to the family for the month following the failure must be made in the form of protective or vendor payments;

(b) For the second and subsequent failures, the entire grant provided to the family must be made in the form of protective or vendor payments. Assistance provided to the family must be in the form of protective or vendor payments until the recipient complies with the requirement; and

(c) When protective payments are required, the local agency may continue payments to the caretaker if a protective payee cannot reasonably be found.

(6) When the sanctions provided by clause (5) are not permissible under federal law, the following sanctions must be imposed for a recipient's failure to participate in required employment and training services, education, orientation, or the requirements of section 5:

(a) If the caretaker ~~makes the refusal~~ fails to participate, the caretaker's needs shall not be taken into account in making the grant determination, and aid for any dependent child in the family will be made in the form of protective or vendor payments, except that when protective payments are made, the local agency may continue payments to the caretaker if a protective payee cannot reasonably be found. The standard of assistance for the remaining eligible members of the assistance unit is the standard that is used in other instances in which the caretaker is excluded from the assistance unit for noncompliance with a program requirement.

(b) Aid with respect to a dependent child will be denied if a child who ~~makes the refusal~~ fails to participate is the only child receiving aid in the family.

(c) If there is more than one child receiving aid in the family, aid for the child who ~~makes the refusal~~ fails to participate will be denied and the child's needs will not be taken into account in making the grant determination.

(d) If the assistance unit's eligibility is based on the nonexempt principal earner's unemployment and this principal earner fails ~~or refuses~~ without good cause to participate or to accept employment, the entire assistance unit is ineligible for benefits under sections 256.72 to 256.87.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256.736, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [CASE MANAGEMENT SERVICES.] (a) For clients described in subdivision 2a, the case manager shall:

(1) Assess the education, skills, and ability of the caretaker to secure and retain a job which, when added to child support, will support the caretaker's family. The case manager must work with the caretaker in completing this task;

(2) Set goals and develop a timetable for completing education and employment goals. The case manager must work with the caretaker in completing this task. For caretakers who are not literate or who have not completed high school, the first goal for the caretaker must be to complete literacy training or a general education diploma. Caretakers who are literate and have completed high school shall be counseled to set realistic attainable goals, taking into account the long-term needs of both the caretaker and the caretaker's family;

(3) Coordinate services such as child care, transportation, and education assistance necessary to enable the caretaker to work toward the goals developed in clause (2). When a client needs child care services in order to attend a Minnesota public or nonprofit college, university or technical institute, the case manager shall contact the appropriate agency to reserve child care funds for the client. A caretaker who needs child care services in order to complete high school or a general education diploma is eligible for child care under section 268.91;

(4) Develop, execute, and monitor a contract between the local agency and the caretaker. The contract must include: (a) specific goals of the caretaker including stated measurements of progress toward each goal; (b) specific services provided by the county agency; and (c) conditions under which the county will withdraw the services provided;

The contract may include other terms as desired or needed by either party. In all cases, however, the case manager must ensure that the caretaker has set forth in the contract realistic goals consistent with the ultimate goal of self-sufficiency for the caretaker's family; and

(5) Develop and refer caretakers to counseling or peer group networks for emotional support while participating in work, education, or training.

(b) In addition to the duties in paragraph (a), for minor parents and pregnant minors, the case manager shall:

(1) Ensure that the contract developed under paragraph (a)(4) considers all factors set forth in section 257.33, subdivision 2; ~~and~~

(2) Assess the housing and support systems needed by the caretaker in order to provide the dependent children with adequate parenting. The case manager shall encourage minor parents and pregnant minors who are not living with friends or relatives to live in a group home or foster care setting. If minor parents and pregnant minors are unwilling to live in a group home or foster care setting or if no group home or foster care setting is available, the case manager shall assess ~~the minor parent's~~ their need for training in parenting and independent living skills and when appropriate shall refer ~~appropriate minor parents~~ them to available counseling programs designed to teach needed skills; and

(3) Inform the minor parent or pregnant minor of, and assist them in evaluating the appropriateness of, the high school graduation incentives program under section 126.22, including post-secondary enrollment options, and the employment-related and community-based instruction programs.

(c) A caretaker may request a conciliation conference to attempt to resolve disputes regarding the contents of a contract developed under this section or a housing and support systems assessment conducted under this section. The caretaker may request a hearing pursuant to section 256.045 to dispute the contents of a contract or assessment developed under this section. The caretaker need not request a conciliation conference in order to request a hearing pursuant to section 256.045.

Subd. 3. [ALLOCATION.] (a) By June 1 of each odd-numbered year, the commissioner shall notify all county and human services boards and post-secondary educational systems of their allocation. If the appropriation is insufficient to meet the needs in all counties, the amount must be prorated among the counties.

(b) Except for set-aside money allocated under subdivisions 3a, 3b, 3c, and 3d, the commissioner shall allocate money appropriated between the metropolitan area, comprising the counties of Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, and Washington, and the area outside the metropolitan area so that no more than 55 percent of the total appropriation goes to either area after excluding allocations for statewide administrative costs. The commissioner shall allocate 50 percent of the money among counties on the basis of the number of families below the poverty level, as determined from the most recent special census, and 50 percent on the basis of caseloads of aid to families with dependent children for the preceding fiscal year, as determined by the commissioner of human services.

(c) Once each quarter, the commissioner shall review the use of child care fund allocations by county. ~~In accordance with the formula found in paragraph (b).~~ The commissioner may reallocate unexpended or unencumbered money among those counties who have expended their full portion. Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 268.91, subdivision 3b, is amended to read:

Subd. 3b. [SET-ASIDE MONEY FOR AFDC PRIORITY GROUPS.] (a) Set-aside money for AFDC priority groups must be allocated among the counties based on the average monthly number of caretakers receiving AFDC under the age of 21 and the average monthly number of AFDC cases open 24 or more consecutive months. For each fiscal year the average monthly caseload shall be based on the 12-month period ending March 31 of the previous fiscal year. The commissioner may reallocate quarterly unexpended or unencumbered set-aside money to counties that expend their full allocation. The county shall use the set-aside money for AFDC priority groups and for former AFDC recipients who (1) have had their child care subsidized under the set-aside for AFDC priority groups; (2) continue to require a child care subsidy in order to remain employed; and (3) are on a waiting list for the basic sliding fee program.

(b) The county shall develop cooperative agreements with the employment and training service provider for coordination of child care funding with employment, training, and education programs for aid to families with dependent children priority groups. The cooperative agreement shall specify that individuals receiving employment, training, and education services under an employability plan from the employment and training service provider shall, as resources permit, be guaranteed set-aside money for child care assistance from the county of their residence.

(c) Counties may contract for administration of the program or may arrange for or contract for child care funds to be used by other appropriate programs, in accordance with this section and as permitted by federal law and regulations.

(d) If the commissioner finds, on or after January 1 of a fiscal year, that set-aside money for AFDC priority groups is not being fully utilized, the commissioner may permit counties to use set-aside money for other eligible applicants, as long as priority for use of the money will continue to be given to the AFDC priority groups.

(e) A county may claim federal reimbursement under the AFDC special needs program for money spent for persons listed in subdivision 3a, clause (1). The commissioner shall allocate any federal earnings to the county. The county shall use the money to expand services to AFDC recipients under the child care sliding fee program.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 268.91, subdivision 3c, is amended to read:

Subd. 3c. [SET-ASIDE MONEY FOR AFDC POST-SECONDARY STUDENTS.] (a) For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1988, set-aside money for persons listed in subdivision 3a, clause (2), shall be allocated to the counties based on caseloads of aid to families with dependent children for the preceding fiscal year, as determined by the commissioner. For succeeding fiscal years, the commissioner shall, in cooperation with the director of the higher education coordinating board, develop a formula for allocation of the funds to counties based on the number of AFDC caretakers in each county who are enrolled at post-secondary institutions.

(b) Money allocated in paragraph (a) must be used for child care expenses of AFDC recipients attending post-secondary educational programs, excluding post-baccalaureate programs, and making satisfactory progress towards completion of the program.

(c) Once each quarter the commissioner shall review the use of child care fund allocations under this subdivision by county. The commissioner may reallocate unexpended or unencumbered money among those counties that have expended their full portion for the purposes of this subdivision.

(d) A county may claim federal reimbursement under the AFDC special needs program for money spent for persons listed in subdivision 3a, clause (2). The commissioner shall allocate any federal earnings to the county. The county shall use the money to expand services to AFDC recipients under the child care sliding fee program.

(e) Recipients of AFDC who have completed their post-secondary education and had received child care funds during that education shall be assured, to the extent of available resources allocations, of sliding fee money for employment programs after graduation if they meet sliding fee program eligibility standards.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 268.91, subdivision 3e, is amended to read:

Subd. 3e. [USE OF MONEY.] Money for persons listed in subdivision 3a, clauses (2) and (3), shall be used to reduce the costs of child care for students, including the costs of child care for students while employed if enrolled in an eligible education program at the same time and making satisfactory progress towards completion of the program. The county may plan for and provided child care assistance to persons listed in subdivision 3a, clauses (2) and (3), from the regular sliding fee fund to supplement the set-aside funds. Financially eligible students ~~provided who have received~~ child care assistance for one academic year shall be provided child care assistance in the following academic year, ~~providing they remain financially eligible~~ if funds allocated under subdivision 3c or 3d are available.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 268.91, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [FINANCIAL ELIGIBILITY.] (a) Child care services must be available to families who need child care to find or keep employment or to obtain the training or education necessary to find employment and who:

- (1) receive aid to families with dependent children;
- (2) have household income below the eligibility levels for aid to families with dependent children; or
- (3) have household income within a range established by the commissioner.

(b) Child care services for the families receiving aid to families with dependent children must be made available as in-kind services, to cover any difference between the actual cost and the amount disregarded under the aid to families with dependent children program. Child care services to families whose incomes are below the threshold of eligibility for aid to families with dependent children, but that are not receiving aid to families with dependent children, must be made available without cost to the families.

(c) Child care services to families with incomes in the commissioner's established range must be made available on a sliding fee basis. The lower limit of the sliding fee range must be the eligibility limit for aid to families with dependent children. The upper limit of the range must be neither less than 70 percent nor more than 90 percent of the state median income for a family of four, adjusted for family size.

(d) If a disproportionate amount of the available money is provided to any one of the groups described in subdivision 4, paragraph (a), the county board shall document to the commissioner the reason the group received a disproportionate share. If a county projects that its child care allocation is insufficient to meet the needs of all eligible groups, it may prioritize among the groups to be served. If a county maintains a waiting list of applicants for the sliding fee program, it shall place at the top of the list former AFDC recipients who (1) have had their child care subsidized under the set-aside for AFDC priority groups; (2) continue to require a child care subsidy in order to remain employed; and (3) continue to have their child care needs paid for out of the set-aside for AFDC priority groups until money is available through the basic sliding fee program. Counties shall assure that a person receiving child care assistance from the sliding fee program prior to July 1, 1987, continues to receive assistance, providing the person meets all other eligibility criteria. Set-aside money must be prioritized by the state, and counties do not have discretion over the use of this money.

(e) Annual income of the applicant family is the current monthly income of the family multiplied by 12 or the income for the 12-month period immediately preceding the date of application, whichever provides the most accurate assessment of income available to the family. Self-employment income must be calculated based on gross receipts less operating expenses. Income must be redetermined when the family's income changes, but no less often than every six months. Income must be verified with documentary evidence. If the applicant does not have sufficient evidence of income, verification must be obtained from the source of the income.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 268.91, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [FAIR HEARING PROCESS.] (a) ~~Applicants and recipients have the option to request the county to conduct a conciliation conference to attempt to resolve complaints arising from any of the following actions:~~

- ~~(1) a determination of ineligibility for child care assistance;~~
- ~~(2) unauthorized termination of child care assistance;~~
- ~~(3) determination of the factors considered in setting the family fee; and~~
- ~~(4) income redetermination resulting in change of a family fee.~~

~~(b) The county shall notify the applicant or the recipient, in writing, of any adverse action. The determination described in paragraph (a), clauses (1) and (3), must include written notice of the applicant's or recipient's right to the election described in paragraph (c), where and how to request the election, the time limit within which to make the request, and the reasons for the determination. Notice of the proposed actions described in paragraph (a), clauses (2) and (4), must be mailed to the applicant or recipient at least 15 calendar days before the effective date of the action. The notice must clearly state what action the county proposes to take, the effective date of the proposed action, the reasons for the proposed action, the necessary corrective measures, the option to request either a conciliation conference or an administrative hearing, where and how to make the request, the time limits within which a request must be made, and the consequence of the action.~~

~~(c) An applicant or recipient who receives a determination or notice of proposed action under paragraph (b) must mail or deliver either a written notice of request for a conciliation conference to the administering agency or a written notice of request for the hearing specified under paragraph (e) to the administering agency on or before the effective date of the proposed action or the date specified in the notice, or the action will be final.~~

(d) The county shall provide a conciliation conference within 30 days of receipt of a written request.

The county shall give the applicant or recipient ten calendar days' notice of the conference date. The applicant or recipient and the county's representative have the right to appear, to bring witnesses, and to submit documentation. The written request and the resolution, if any, of the conference shall be maintained as part of the official record. The county's representative shall issue a written resolution only if mutual agreement is reached between the county's representative and the applicant or recipient. The resolution must be signed by both parties and issued the same day as the conciliation conference is held. Participating in a conciliation conference or signing a resolution does not constitute a waiver of the right to an administrative hearing.

An applicant or recipient may, within 15 calendar days of the conference, mail or deliver a written request to the administering agency for an administrative hearing. Unless an appeal is requested, a determination, proposed action, or resolution of a conciliation conference will be final after the 15-day period has passed.

(e) A fair hearing shall be conducted in the manner prescribed by section 268-10, subdivision 3. A right to review will be provided in accordance with section 268-10, subdivision 5. The proposed action will not take effect until the appeal is decided by the administrative hearing process.

An applicant or recipient adversely affected by a county agency action may request a fair hearing in accordance with section 256.045, subdivision 3. The county agency shall offer an informal conference to applicants and recipients adversely affected by an agency action to attempt to resolve the dispute. The county agency shall advise adversely affected applicants and recipients that a request for a conference with the agency is optional and does not delay or replace the right to a fair hearing.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 216B.16, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. ~~[SETTLEMENT BARRED.]~~ When a public utility proposes changes in general rates that would increase general rates paid by consumers, the commission may approve the change without a contested case hearing if applicant and all intervening parties agree to a stipulated settlement of the case and the settlement is supported by substantial evidence submits a general rate filing, the office of administrative hearings, before conducting a contested case hearing, shall convene a settlement conference including all of the parties for the purpose of encouraging settlement of any or all the issues in the contested case. If a stipulated settlement is not reached before the contested case hearing, the office of administrative hearings may reconvene the settlement conference during or after completion of the contested case hearing at its discretion or a party's request. If the applicant and all intervening parties agree to a stipulated settlement of the case or parts of the case, the settlement must be submitted to the commission. The commission shall accept or reject the settlement in its entirety and, at any time until its final order is issued in the case, may require the office of administrative hearings to conduct a contested case hearing. The commission may accept the settlement if it finds it is in the public interest and it is supported by substantial evidence. If the commission does not accept the settlement, it may issue an order modifying the settlement subject to the approval of the parties. Each party has ten days in which to reject the proposed modification. If no party rejects the proposed modification, the commission's order becomes final. If the commission rejects the settlement, or a party rejects the commission's proposed modification, a contested case hearing must be completed.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 216B.16, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [SUSPENSION OF RATES; HEARING.] (a) Whenever there is filed with the commission a schedule modifying or resulting in a change in any rates then in force as provided in subdivision 1, the commission may suspend the operation of the schedule by filing with the schedule of rates and delivering to the affected utility a statement in writing of its reasons for the suspension at any time before the rates become effective. The suspension shall not be for a longer period than ten months beyond the initial filing date except as provided in paragraph (b). During the suspension the commission shall determine whether all questions of the reasonableness of the rates requested raised by persons deemed interested or by the ~~administrative division~~ of the department of public service can be resolved to the satisfaction of the commission. If the commission finds that all significant issues raised have not been resolved to its satisfaction, or upon petition by ten percent of the affected customers or 250 affected customers, whichever is less, it shall refer the matter to the office of administrative hearings with instructions for a public hearing as a contested case pursuant to chapter 14, except as otherwise provided in this section. The commission may order that the issues presented by the proposed rate changes be bifurcated into two separate hearings as follows: (1) determination of the utility's revenue requirements and (2) determination of the rate design. Upon issuance of both ~~hearing examiner~~ administrative law judge reports, the issues shall again be joined for consideration and final determination by the commission. All prehearing discovery activities of state agency intervenors shall be consolidated and conducted by the department of public service. If the commission does not make a final determination concerning a schedule of rates within ten months after the initial filing date, the schedule shall be deemed to have been approved by the commission; except if a settlement has been submitted to and rejected by the commission, the schedule is deemed to have been approved 12 months after the initial filing.

(b) If the commission finds that it has insufficient time during the suspension period to make a final determination of a case involving changes in general rates because of the need to make final determinations of other previously filed cases involving changes in general rates under this section or section 237.075, the commission may extend the suspension period to the extent necessary to allow itself 20 working days to make the final determination after it has made final determinations in the previously filed cases. An extension of the suspension period under this paragraph does not alter the setting of interim rates under subdivision 3.

(c) For the purposes of this section, "final determination" means the initial decision of the commission and not any order which may be entered by the commission in response to a petition for rehearing or other further relief. The commission may further suspend rates until it determines all those petitions.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 216B.16, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [INTERIM RATES.] Notwithstanding any order of suspension of a proposed increase in rates, the commission shall order an interim rate schedule into effect not later than 60 days after the initial filing date. The commission shall order the interim rate schedule ex parte without a public hearing. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 216.25, 216B.27 and 216B.52, no interim rate schedule ordered by the commission pursuant to this subdivision shall be subject to an application for a rehearing or an appeal to a court until the commission has rendered its final determination. Unless the commission finds that exigent circumstances exist, the interim rate schedule shall be calculated using the proposed test year cost of capital, rate base, and expenses, except that it shall include: (1) a rate of return on common equity for the utility equal to that authorized by the commission in the utility's most recent rate proceeding; (2) rate base or expense items the same in nature and kind as those allowed by a currently effective order of the commission in the utility's most recent rate proceeding; and (3) no change in the existing rate design. In the case of a utility which has not been subject to a prior commission determination, the commission shall base the interim rate schedule on its most recent determination concerning a similar utility.

If, at the time of its final determination, the commission finds that the interim rates are in excess of the rates in the final determination, the commission shall order the utility to refund the excess amount collected under the interim rate schedule, including interest on it which shall be at the rate of interest determined by the commission. The utility shall commence distribution of the refund to its customers within 120 days of the final order, not subject to rehearing or appeal. If, at the time of its final determination, the commission finds that the interim rates are less than the rates in the final determination, the commission shall prescribe a method by which the utility will recover the difference in revenues from the date of the final determination to the date the new rate schedules are put into effect.

If the public utility fails to make refunds within the period of time prescribed by the commission, the commission shall sue therefor and may recover on behalf of all persons entitled to a refund. In addition to the amount of the refund and interest due, the commission shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorney's fees, court costs and estimated cost of administering the distribution of the refund to persons entitled to it. No suit under this subdivision shall be maintained unless instituted within two years after the end of the period of time prescribed by the commission for repayment of refunds. The commission shall not order an interim rate schedule in a general rate case into effect as provided by this subdivision until at least four months after it has made a final determination concerning any previously filed change of the rate schedule or the change has otherwise become effective under subdivision 2, unless it:

(1) the commission finds that a four month delay would unreasonably burden the utility, its customers, or its shareholders and that an earlier imposition of interim rates is therefore necessary; or

(2) the utility files a second general rate case at least 12 months after it has filed a previous general rate case for which the commission has extended the suspension period under subdivision 2.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 237.075, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [SUSPENSION OF RATES; HEARING.] (a) Whenever there is filed with the commission as provided in subdivision 1 a schedule modifying or resulting in a change in any rate then in force, the commission may suspend the operation of the schedule by filing with the schedule of rates and delivering to the affected telephone company a statement in writing of its reasons for the suspension at any time before the rates become effective. The suspension shall not be for a longer period than ten months beyond the initial filing date except as provided in paragraph (b). During the suspension the commission shall determine whether all questions of the reasonableness of the rates requested raised by persons deemed interested or by the administrative division of the department of public service can be resolved to the satisfaction of the commission. If the commission finds that all significant issues raised have not been resolved to its satisfaction, or upon petition by ten percent of the affected customers or 250 affected customers, whichever is less, it shall refer the matter to the office of administrative hearings with instructions for a public hearing as a contested case pursuant to chapter 14, except as otherwise provided in this section. The commission may order that the issues presented by the proposed rate changes be bifurcated into two separate hearings as follows: (1) determination of the telephone company's revenue requirements and (2) determination of the rate design. Upon issuance of both administrative law judge reports, the issues shall again be joined for consideration and final determination by the commission. All prehearing discovery activities of state agency intervenors shall be consolidated and conducted by the department of public service. If the commission does not make a final determination concerning a schedule of rates within ten months after the initial filing date, the schedule shall be deemed to have been approved by the commission; except if a settlement has been submitted to and rejected by the commission, the schedule is deemed to have been approved 12 months after the initial filing.

(b) If the commission finds that it has insufficient time during the suspension period to make a final determination of a case involving changes in general rates because of the need to make final determinations of other previously filed cases involving changes in general rates under this section or section 216B.16, the commission may extend the suspension period to the extent necessary to allow itself 20 working days to make the final determination after it has made final determinations in the previously filed cases. An extension of the suspension period under this paragraph does not alter the setting of interim rates under subdivision 3.

(c) For the purposes of this section, "final determination" means the initial decision of the commission and not any order which may be entered by the commission in response to a petition for rehearing or other further relief. The commission may further suspend rates until it determines all those petitions.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 237.075, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [INTERIM RATES.] Notwithstanding any order of suspension of a proposed increase in rates, the commission shall order an interim rate schedule into effect not later than 60 days after the initial filing date. The commission shall order the interim rate schedule ex parte without a public hearing. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 216.25 and 237.25, no interim rate schedule ordered by the commission pursuant to this subdivision shall be subject to an application for a rehearing or an appeal to a court until the commission has rendered its final determination. Unless the commission finds that exigent circumstances exist, the interim rate schedule shall be calculated using the proposed test year cost of capital, rate base, and expenses, except that it shall include: (1) a rate of return on common equity for the company equal to that authorized by the commission in the company's most recent rate proceeding; (2) rate base or expense items the same in nature and kind as those allowed by a currently effective order of the commission in the company's most recent rate proceeding; and (3) no change in the existing rate design, except for products and services offered by nonregulated competitors. In the case of a company which has not been subject to a prior commission determination or has not had a general rate adjustment in the preceding three years, the commission shall base the interim rate schedule on its most recent determination concerning a similar company.

If, at the time of its final determination, the commission finds that the interim rates are in excess of the rates in the final determination, the commission shall order the company to refund the excess amount collected under the interim rate schedule, including interest on it which shall be at the rate of interest determined by the commission. The company shall commence distribution of the refund to its customers within 120 days of the final order, not subject to rehearing or appeal. If, at the time of its final determination, the commission finds that the interim rates are less than the rates in the final determination, the commission shall prescribe a method by which the company will recover the difference in revenues from the date of the final determination to the date the new rate schedules are put into effect.

If the telephone company fails to make refunds within the period of time prescribed by the commission, the commission shall sue therefor and may recover on behalf of all persons entitled to a refund. In addition to the amount of the refund and interest due, the commission shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorney's fees, court costs and estimated cost of administering the distribution of the refund to persons entitled thereto. No suit under this subdivision shall be maintained unless instituted within two years after the end of the period of time prescribed by the commission for repayment of refunds. (1) the commission finds that a four month delay would unreasonably burden the company, its customers, or its shareholders and that an earlier imposition of interim rates is therefore necessary; or

(2) the company files a second general rate case at least 12 months after it has filed a previous general rate case for which the commission has extended the suspension period under subdivision 2.

256B.08 [APPLICATION.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION PROCESS.] An applicant for medical assistance hereunder, or a person acting in the applicant's behalf, shall file an application with a county local agency in such the manner and form as shall be prescribed by the state agency. When a married applicant resides in a nursing home or applies for medical assistance for nursing home services, the county local agency shall consider an application on behalf of the applicant's spouse only upon specific request of the applicant or upon specific request of the spouse and separate filing of an application.

Subd. 2. [EXPEDITED REVIEW FOR PREGNANT WOMEN.] A pregnant woman who may be eligible for assistance under section 256B.06, subdivision 1, must receive an appointment for eligibility determination no later than five working days from the date of her request for assistance from the local agency. The local agency shall expedite processing her application for assistance and shall make a determination of eligibility on a completed application no later than ten working days following the applicant's initial appointment. The local agency shall assist the applicant to provide all necessary information and documentation in order to process the application within the time period required under this subdivision. The state agency shall provide for the placement of applications for medical assistance in eligible provider offices, community health offices, and women, infants and children (WIC) program sites.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 256B.091, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SCREENING OF PERSONS.] Prior to nursing home or boarding care home admission, screening teams shall assess the needs of all applicants, except (1) patients transferred from other certified nursing homes or boarding care homes; (2) patients who, having entered acute care facilities from nursing homes or boarding care homes, are returning to a nursing home or boarding care home; (3) persons entering a facility described in section 256B.431, subdivision 4, paragraph (c); (4) individuals not eligible for medical assistance whose length of stay is expected to be 30 days or less based on a physician's certification, if the facility notifies the screening team upon admission and provides an update to the screening team on the 30th day after admission; (5) individuals who have a contractual right to have their nursing home care paid for indefinitely by the veteran's administration; or (6) persons entering a facility conducted by and for the adherents of a recognized church or religious denomination for the purpose of providing care and services for those who depend upon spiritual means, through prayer alone, for healing. The cost for screening applicants who are receiving medical assistance must be paid by the medical assistance program. The total screening cost for each county for applicants who are not eligible for medical assistance and residents of nursing homes who request a screening must be paid monthly by nursing homes and boarding care homes participating in the medical assistance program in the county. The monthly amount to be paid by each nursing home and boarding care home must be determined by dividing the county's estimate of the total annual cost of screenings allowed by the commissioner in the county for the following rate year by 12 to determine the monthly cost estimate and allocating the monthly cost estimate to each nursing home and boarding care home based on the number of licensed beds in the nursing home or boarding care home. The monthly cost estimate for each nursing home or boarding care home must be submitted to the nursing home or boarding care home and the state by the county no later than February 15 of each year for inclusion in the nursing home's or boarding care home's payment rate on the following rate year. The commissioner shall include the reported annual estimated cost of screenings for each nursing home or boarding care home as an operating cost of that nursing home in accordance with section 256B.431, subdivision 2b, clause (g). For all individuals regardless of payment source, if delay-of-screening timelines are not met because a county is late in screening an individual who meets the delay-of-screening criteria, the county is solely responsible for paying the cost of the preadmission screening. Notwithstanding section 256B.0641, overpayments attributable to payment of the screening costs under the medical assistance program may not be recovered from a facility. Any other interested person may be screened under this subdivision if the person pays a fee for the screening based upon a sliding fee scale determined by the commissioner."

Subd. 4. [LIMITATION OF CHOICE.] The commissioner shall develop criteria to determine when limitation of choice may be implemented in the experimental counties. It is further intended to allow members of the public to arrange and pay for funerals, final dispositions, funeral services, and funeral and burial goods for themselves and their families in advance of need while at the same time providing all possible safeguards so that the prepaid funds cannot be dissipated, whether intentionally or not, so as to be available for the payment of the services and goods selected.

Sec. 10. [306.90] [CONSTRUCTION PERFORMANCE BOND.]

Subdivision 1. Any person, firm, partnership, association, or corporation selling burial space in a mausoleum or columbarium before the mausoleum or columbarium is completed and usable shall obtain a performance bond in an amount sufficient to cover all construction costs associated with building the mausoleum or columbarium as promised at the time of sale. The bond shall be executed by an insurance company authorized to do business in Minnesota which has sufficient net worth to satisfy the amount of the bond and which has given consent to be sued in Minnesota.

Subd. 2. The bond shall be in favor of the state for the benefit of any purchaser who suffers a loss due to failure of the seller to deliver the promised structure. Any person claiming against the bond may file a claim with the surety, and if the claim is not paid, may maintain an action based on the bond and recover against the surety. The attorney general may file a claim with the surety on behalf of any purchaser. The surety shall pay the amount of the claims to the attorney general for distribution to the claimants entitled to restitution and shall be relieved of liability to that extent. If the claim is not paid, the attorney general may maintain an action against the surety on behalf of the claimants.

Subd. 3. The aggregate liability of the surety to all persons buying space in the mausoleum or columbarium shall not exceed the amount of the bond.

Subd. 4. Any person, firm, partnership, association, or corporation selling burial space in a mausoleum or columbarium before the mausoleum or columbarium is completed and usable shall file a copy of the performance bond with the county auditor of the county in which the mausoleum or columbarium will be built 30 days before the entity may sell space and begin construction. There shall be paid to the county auditor a filing fee of $15 for each copy of the bond.

Subd. 5. Any person, firm, partnership, association, or corporation which has begun selling burial space in a mausoleum or columbarium before the mausoleum or columbarium is complete and before the effective date of this section shall file a copy of the performance bond 30 days after the effective date of this section or cease all sales. Subd. 6. This section shall not apply to cemeteries, mausoleums, or columbariums owned and operated by a municipality, church, religious corporation, or religious association.

Subd. 7. Any person, firm, partnership, association, or corporation knowingly violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and for a second offense shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 11. [306.93] [CERTIFIED LETTER.]

Subdivision 1. Any person, firm, partnership, association, or corporation which is subject to section 306.761 is required to file, by March 31 if operating on a calendar year basis and by 90 days after the end of the fiscal year if operating on a fiscal year basis, either its independently audited financial statement or a certified letter prepared by a certified public accountant which reviews the permanent care and improvement fund and construction performance bond of the cemetery, mausoleum, or columbarium. The letter or audited financial statement must, at a minimum, review whether the amounts in the entity's permanent care and improvement fund and construction performance bond comply with the requirements of this chapter. The independently audited financial statement or the certified letter must be filed with the county auditor of the county in which the cemetery, mausoleum, or columbarium is situated. There shall be paid to the county auditor a filing fee of $15 for each certified letter or independently audited financial statement.

Subd. 2. Any person, firm, partnership, association, or corporation knowingly violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and for a second offense shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 12. [306.95] [DUTIES OF THE COUNTY AUDITOR.]

Subdivision 1. Any county auditor finding evidence of violations of this chapter when reviewing reports or bonds filed by any person, firm, partnership, association, or corporation operating a cemetery, mausoleum, or columbarium must notify the state auditor's office in a timely manner of such finding.

Subd. 2. Every county auditor must file an annual letter by May 31 with the state auditor's office disclosing whether the county auditor has detected any indications of violations of this chapter in the reports or bonds which were filed or should have been filed. If the county auditor has not detected from the information supplied to the county auditor any such indications, that fact must be reported to the state auditor in the annual letter.

Sec. 13. [306.97] [DUTIES OF THE STATE AUDITOR.]

Upon notification from a county auditor of indications of violations of this chapter the state auditor shall make an independent determination of whether a violation of the provisions in this chapter is occurring or is about to occur, and in those instances in which the state auditor finds such evidence the state auditor shall conduct an independent audit of the cemetery, mausoleum, or columbarium in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and shall inform the appropriate agency of any finding of misconduct. The person, firm, partnership, association, or corporation audited under this section by the state auditor shall reimburse the state auditor for expenses incurred in conducting the audit within 30 days after the state auditor's office submits its expenses. Interest at the rate established in section 549.09 shall accrue on the outstanding balance starting on the 31st day after the state auditor demands expenses."

Sec. 6. [240B.06] [LOTTERY AGENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [CONTRACTS.] The director may enter into contracts with persons to act as lottery agents to sell tickets for a particular lottery game with those persons the director determines meet the qualifications of this section and will serve the public convenience. Before entering into any contract under this section, the director must consider:

(1) the financial responsibility and security of the applicant as shown by, among other things, the applicant's credit history;

(2) the accessibility to the public of the applicant's place of business;

(3) the adequacy of existing lottery agents to serve the public convenience;

(4) the volume of expected sales; and

(5) the effect of the applicant becoming a lottery sales agent on the public health, welfare, and safety.

Subd. 2. [QUALIFICATIONS.] (a) A lottery agent must:

(6) not be a member of the family residing in the same household of an employee of the agency, director, or member of the commission.

An organization, firm, partnership, or corporation that has a stockholder who owns more than five percent of the stock of the corporation, an officer, or director that does not meet the requirements of clauses (3) to (5) is not eligible to be a lottery agent under this section.

(b) The restrictions under this subdivision do not apply to an organization, partnership, or corporation if the director determines that the organization, partnership, or corporation has terminated its relationship with the individuals whose actions directly contributed to the disqualification under this subdivision.

Subd. 3. [ON-SALE LIQUOR ESTABLISHMENTS.] The director may not authorize the sale of lottery tickets within establishments licensed to sell alcoholic beverages for consumption on the premises.

Subd. 6. [GOVERNMENT AGENCIES.] A contract may not be entered into with a department, commission, agency, or instrumentality of the state or its political subdivisions, but a contract may be entered into with a person engaged in nongovernmental business on governmental property. The lottery agency may sell lottery tickets to the public.

Subd. 7. [BOND.] The director shall require lottery agents to post a bond in an amount the director determines is sufficient to protect the interests of the state before undertaking the sale of lottery tickets. The bond is payable to the state and must be conditioned on the agent's timely payment of all money due from the sale of lottery tickets.

Subd. 8. [CRIMINAL HISTORY.] The director may request the assistance of the bureau of criminal apprehension in investigating lottery agents and applicants. The director has access to all criminal history data compiled by the bureau on lottery agents and applicants.

Subd. 9. [TRANSFERS.] A contract entered into under this section may not be transferred or assigned.

Subd. 10. [DURATION.] Contracts entered into under this section are for a period of one year.

Subd. 11. [RECORDS.] A lottery agent shall keep full sets of books of account, correspondence, and all other records necessary to show fully the lottery transactions of the agent. The director may require an audit to be conducted by the agency or an outside auditor approved by the director of the books of the agent. The costs of any examination, inspection, or audit may be assessed against the agent. The director may inspect the premises of an agent and examine the agent's books and records relating to the lottery at any reasonable time without a search warrant.

Subd. 12. [PROCEEDS OF SALES.] All proceeds from the sale of lottery tickets received by a lottery agent constitute a trust fund until paid to the director. The lottery agent is personally liable for all lottery proceeds.

Subd. 13. [RESTRICTIONS.] The sale of lottery tickets by a lottery agent is subject to the restrictions in the agent's contract and must be made at the location specified in the contract.

Subd. 14. [CERTIFICATE.] The director shall issue each lottery agent a certificate, which must be conspicuously displayed at the place where the agent is authorized to sell lottery tickets.

Subd. 15. [AGENT RENTAL PAYMENTS.] If a lottery agent's rental payments for the business premises are contractually computed, in whole or in part, on the basis of a percentage of retail sales, and the computation of retail sales is not explicitly defined to include the sale of lottery tickets, the compensation received by the agent from the agency for the sale of lottery tickets shall be considered the amount of the retail sale for purposes of computing the rental payments.

Subd. 16. [CONTRACT SUSPENSION, CANCELLATION, AND NON-RENEWAL.] The director may suspend or cancel or refuse to renew a contract with a lottery agent for:

- (1) failure to account for tickets received or proceeds from the tickets;*

Sec. 7. [240B.07] [VENDOR CONTRACTS.]

[AUTHORITY.] The director may contract for the design, operation, and promotion of the lottery or any part of it, including major procurement contracts, with the approval of the commission, except that no contract may provide for the entire management of the lottery or the entire operation of the lottery by a private entity. The commission may by rule designate certain classes of contracts, other than major procurement contracts, which do not require prior approval by the board. The director may not renew a contract or approve that an option be exercised under a contract without the approval of the commission. A contract entered into by the director may not be assigned except with the director's and commission's specific written approval.

Subd. 2. [BIDS.] The director shall utilize an open and competitive bid process which reflects the best interests of the lottery and the state of Minnesota. In awarding a contract, the director and commission must consider all relevant factors including price, security, competence, experience, timely performance, and maximization of net revenues to the state.

Subd. 3. [INVESTIGATION.] Before entering into any major procurement contract the director shall conduct, or request the bureau of criminal apprehension to conduct, a comprehensive background and financial investigation of the person or corporation seeking to enter into the contract. The director may charge the person or corporation a fee to cover the cost of the investigation. Any fee collected under this subdivision must be deposited into the lottery operations fund. Any information gathered as part of a background or financial investigation of a vendor is confidential data under chapter 13. The director may require any additional information from a vendor or a potential vendor that is considered appropriate to preserve the integrity and security of the lottery. The director has access to all criminal history data compiled by the bureau of criminal apprehension on all vendors and potential vendors who have submitted a bid to the lottery agency.

Subd. 4. [PERSONS INELIGIBLE FOR CONTRACT.] (a) The director may not enter into a major procurement contract with an applicant that:

(1) has been convicted of a felony in a state or federal court during the previous ten years or has a state or federal felony charge pending;

(2) has been convicted of a gambling-related offense;

(3) has been found guilty of any crime involving fraud or misrepresentation during the previous ten years; or

(4) has had a license to conduct or participate in any form of legal gambling revoked or suspended in any jurisdiction.

(b) The director may not enter into a major procurement contract with an applicant that has a person who owns more than five percent of the stock in the applicant, a partner, officer, director or a person in a supervisory or management capacity that does not meet the requirements of clause (1), (2) or (3) of paragraph (a).

(c) The restrictions under this subdivision do not apply to an applicant for a major procurement contract if the director determines that the applicant has terminated its relationship with the individuals whose actions directly contributed to the disqualification of the applicant under this subdivision.

Subd. 5. [BOND.] The director shall require a performance bond to be executed by the person or corporation that is awarded a major procurement contract in an amount at least equal to the estimated value of the first year of the contract.

Subd. 6. [EXEMPTION.] Contracts entered into under this section and section 6 are not subject to the provisions of chapter 16B.

Sec. 8. [240B.08] [RULES AND GAME PROCEDURES.]

Subdivision 1. [RULES.] The commission shall upon recommendation of the director adopt rules for the operation and administration of the lottery. Adoption of lottery rules are not subject to chapter 14. The rules may include:

(1) the manner of payment of prizes to the holders of winning tickets;

(2) the number and types of locations at which tickets are sold;

(3) the qualifications for lottery agents;

- (4) the procedures for applications for lottery agents;
- (5) the investigation of lottery agent applicants;
- (6) the compensation of lottery agents;
- (7) the deposit of lottery revenue by agents;
- (8) the distribution of lottery tickets;
- (9) the manner in which proceeds of ticket sales are maintained, reported, and otherwise accounted;
- (10) procedures necessary to ensure the security and integrity of the lottery;
- (11) procedures for major procurement contracts, including disclosure requirements for persons submitting bids; and
- (12) all other rules deemed necessary for the efficient operation and administration of the lottery in the public interest.

Subd. 2. [GAME PROCEDURES.] The commission shall upon recommendation of the director adopt lottery game procedures. Adoption of lottery game procedures are not subject to chapter 14. Lottery game procedures shall include:

- (1) the types of lotteries to be conducted;
- (2) the price of tickets;
- (3) the number and size of prizes on winning tickets;

Sec. 9. [240B.09] [LOTTERY PRIZES.]

Subdivision 1. [AGREEMENT BY PLAYERS.] A person, by purchasing a lottery ticket, agrees to be bound by the rules applicable to the particular lottery game. The player acknowledges that the determination of whether the player is a valid winner is subject to the rules of the director, claims procedures established by the director for that lottery game, and any confidential or public validation tests established by the director for that lottery game.

Subd. 2. [MINIMUM AGE FOR PURCHASE.] A lottery ticket may not be sold to any person under the age of 18, but a person 18 years of age or older may make a gift of a lottery ticket to a person under the age of 18. The purchaser of a ticket sold in violation of this section is not eligible to receive a prize won by that ticket.

Subd. 3. [ASSIGNABILITY.] The right of a person to a lottery prize is not assignable, except that:

- (1) a prize may be paid to the estate of a deceased prize winner; and
- (2) a person under an appropriate judicial order may be paid a prize to which another person is entitled.

Subd. 4. [DISCHARGE OF LIABILITY.] Payment of a prize discharges the director and the commission of all further liability. No particular prize in a lottery game may be paid more than once, and if a binding determination is made that more than one claimant is entitled to a particular prize, the sole remedy of the claimants is the award to each of them an equal share in the prize.

Subd. 5. [INELIGIBLE PERSONS.] No lottery prize may be paid to a member of the commission, director, or an employee of the agency, or a member of their families residing in the same household of the member, director, or employee. No lottery prize may be paid to an officer or employee of a vendor which at the time the game or drawing was being conducted was directly involved with providing goods or services to the agency under a major procurement contract.

Subd. 6. [STOLEN OR FRAUDULENT TICKETS.] No prize may be paid from tickets that are stolen, altered, or fraudulent.

Subd. 7. [PAYMENT BY AGENTS.] Subject to certain conditions specified by the director, lottery agents may be authorized to pay winners of certain prizes.

Subd. 8. [INSTALLMENT PAYMENTS.] If the director decides to pay all or part of a prize in the form of installments over a period of years, the director shall provide for the payment of all installments by:

(1) entering into a contract with a financially responsible person or firm or by purchasing an annuity to provide for the payment of the installments; or

(2) establishing and maintaining as a separate and independent fund outside the state treasury a reserve account with sufficient funds for the payment of the installments as they become due.

Subd. 9. [UNCLAIMED PRIZES.] A person may claim prize money within 180 days after the drawing or the announced end of the game in the case of a prize determined in a manner other than by means of a drawing. If a valid claim is not made for a prize directly payable by the agency within 180 days, the unclaimed prize money must be added to prize pools of subsequent lottery games, and the winner of the prize shall have no further claim to the prize. A prize won by a person who is ineligible to be awarded the prize under subdivision 2 or 5 must be treated as an unclaimed prize under this subdivision.

Sec. 10. [240B.10] [LOTTERY ODDS; ADVERTISING.]

Subdivision 1. No. 1662: A bill for an act relating to natural resources; defining state forest management roads; providing for the establishment, construction, administration, and maintenance of state forest management roads; dedicating a portion of gasoline and special fuels taxes to use on state forest roads; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 89.001, by adding a subdivision; 89.19; and 296.421, by adding a subdivision; Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 296.16, subdivision 1; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 89.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 89.001, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 14. "State forest management road" means a road constructed, acquired, maintained, or administered by the commissioner for the purpose of carrying out forest resource management policy as set forth in section 89.002.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 89.19, is amended to read:

89.19 [RULES.]

The commissioner ~~shall have power to~~ may prescribe ~~such~~ rules governing the use of state forest lands ~~under the authority of the commissioner and state forest management roads~~, or any ~~part~~ parts thereof, by the public ~~or~~ and governing the ~~exercising~~ exercise by holders of leases or permits ~~upon state~~ on forest lands and state forest management roads of all their rights under ~~such~~ the leases or permits ~~as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.~~

Sec. 3. [89.29] [STATE FOREST ROAD ACCOUNT.]

Subdivision 1. [ACCOUNT CREATED.] There is created in the state treasury a state forest road account, consisting of funds credited under section 7. Funds credited to the state forest road account are appropriated to the commissioner and remain available until expended.

Subd. 2. [EXPENDITURE.] Money in the state forest road account may be appropriated by law only for:

(1) acquisition, development, maintenance, and administration of state forest management roads under the jurisdiction of the commissioner of natural resources; and

(2) the commissioner's share of the cost of cooperative maintenance agreements made with other providers of forest roads.

Sec. 4. [89.30] [FOREST MANAGEMENT ROADS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEDICATION, INVENTORY, RECORDING.] Forest roads, bridges, and other improvements in existence on July 1, 1988, and administered under section 89.002, subdivision 3, are hereby dedicated as state forest management roads to the width of the actual use including ditches, backslopes, fills, and maintained right-of-way, unless otherwise specified in a prior easement of record. The commissioner may undedicate all or part of a state forest management road that is not needed to carry out forest resource management policy. The commissioner shall maintain and keep current an inventory listing and describing roads in which the state claims a right or property interest for state forest management road purposes. The commissioner may file for record with a county recorder or registrar of titles appropriate documents setting forth the state's interest in all or part of any state forest management road.

Subd. 2. [RIGHT-OF-WAY.] After July 1, 1988, additional rights-of-way and easements, including easements needed for drainage or slopes, may be acquired by the commissioner by purchase or gift and by condemnation for safety and/or environmental protection on existing roads and to provide access to tracts of public land larger than 1,000 acres having no access, following a public meeting in the area affected. Rights-of-way and easements shall be dedicated as state forest management roads when needed for construction, maintenance, or safety of roads.

Subd. 3. [CONSTRUCTION; MAINTENANCE.] The commissioner shall develop specifications for the design and construction of state forest management roads and shall establish maintenance schedules for forest roads consistent with their intended use.

Subd. 4. [RULES.] In promulgating rules relating to the use of state forest management roads, the commissioner may incorporate into the rules, by reference, traffic regulations contained in chapter 169.

Subd. 5. [POSTING OF MINIMUM-MAINTENANCE FOREST MANAGEMENT ROADS.] The commissioner may designate a state forest management road as a minimum-maintenance forest management road to be maintained at a level consistent with the intended use. Designation of a state forest management road as a minimum-maintenance forest management road is effective on the posting of signs, at entry points to the road and at regular intervals along the road, to the effect that the road is a minimum-maintenance forest management road and that the user travels on the road at the user's risk. Posting of the signs is prima facie evidence that adequate notice of minimum-maintenance status has been given to the public.

Subd. 6. [LIABILITY ON MINIMUM-MAINTENANCE FOREST MANAGEMENT ROADS.] The commissioner and employees of the department are not liable for any claim by a person arising on a forest management road that is not in a state forest to the same extent that they are not liable for claims that arise on roads within a state forest under the provisions of section 3.736, subdivision 3, clause (h).

Subd. 7. [CONVEYANCE OF UNNEEDED ROADS TO OTHER GOVERNMENTS.] When the commissioner undesignates a state forest management road and determines that the road is no longer needed for any state purpose, the commissioner may convey, in the manner provided in section 84.63, the state interest in the road to the United States, the state of Minnesota or any of its subdivisions, whether or not the road is on state land.

Subd. 8. [COMMISSIONER NOT A ROAD AUTHORITY UNDER HIGHWAY LAWS.] Except as otherwise provided, the commissioner is not a road authority under chapters 160 to 168, and chapters 160 to 168 do not apply to forest management roads unless specifically made applicable by law or rule promulgated in accordance with law.

Sec. 5. [89.305] [COUNTY MANAGEMENT ACCESS ROAD ACCOUNT.]

Counties may receive payments for constructing, reconstructing, and maintaining county forest access roads from funds made available through unrefunded tax paid on gasoline and special fuels used to operate vehicles on county forest roads. Counties having county forest access roads may also use these payments to study, determine, and inventory by December 31, 1989, these roads and their use by logging trucks, recreational vehicles, and other users. This amount is $275,000 and must be paid in equal installments into the state treasury on September 30 and March 31, following each six-month period from the account established pursuant to section 7, is appropriated to the commissioner, and must be credited to a special county account administered by the commissioner, to be known as the county management access road account, and made available in the form of annual payments to counties managing forest lands administered through a county land department under the jurisdiction of a land commissioner appointed under section 282.13. These payments must be made available in the form of annual payments by January 1 of each year through the commissioner and in proportion to each county's ownership of commercial forest lands, for purposes of constructing, reconstructing, acquiring, and maintaining county management access roads, including the acquisition of rights-of-way or easements as may be needed.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 296.16, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [INTENT; FOREST ROADS.] $675,000 of the total revenue derived from the gasoline fuel tax on all gasoline and special fuel received in, produced, or brought into this state, except gasoline and special fuel used for aviation purposes, is derived from the operation of motor vehicles on state forest roads and county forest roads, and of this sum, $400,000 is derived from motor vehicles operated on state forest roads and $275,000 is derived from motor vehicles operated on county forest roads in this state.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 296.421, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [COMPUTATION AND DISTRIBUTION OF UNREFUNDED TAXES FOR FOREST ROADS.] The amount of unrefunded tax paid on gasoline and special fuel used to operate motor vehicles on forest roads, except gasoline and special fuel used for aviation purposes, is $675,000 and must be paid in equal installments into the state treasury on September 1, 1988, and April 1, 1989, and $400,000 is credited to the state forest road account and $275,000 is credited to the county management access road account.

Sec. 8. Laws 1987, chapter 404, section 22, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [USE OF LICENSED LABORATORY REQUIRED.] (a) An employer who requests or requires an employee or job applicant to undergo drug or alcohol testing shall use the services of a testing laboratory licensed by the commissioner under this subdivision.

(b) The commissioner shall adopt rules by January 1, 1988, governing:

- (1) standards for licensing, suspension, and revocation of a license;
- (2) body component samples that are appropriate for drug and alcohol testing;
- (3) procedures for taking a sample that ensure privacy to employees and job applicants to the extent practicable, consistent with preventing tampering with the sample;

(4) methods of analysis and procedures to ensure reliable drug and alcohol testing results, including standards for initial screening tests and confirmatory tests;

(5) threshold detection levels for drugs, alcohol, or their metabolites for purposes of determining a positive test result;

(6) chain-of-custody procedures to ensure proper identification, labeling, and handling of the samples being tested; and

(7) retention and storage procedures to ensure reliable results on confirmatory tests or confirmatory retests of original samples.

(c) With respect to paragraph (b), clause (4), the rules must allow testing for alcohol by breath test as an initial screening test, provided that the results are confirmed by blood analysis.

(d) The commissioner shall also grant licenses to laboratories conducting drug and alcohol testing that are located in another state, provided that either: (1) the laboratory is licensed by the other state or by a federal agency to conduct drug and alcohol testing and the other state's or federal agency's rules governing standards, methods, and procedures meet or exceed those adopted under this subdivision; or (2) the laboratory has agreed in writing with the commissioner to comply with the rules adopted under this subdivision. (e) The commissioner shall charge laboratories an annual license fee. The fee may vary depending on the number of Minnesota employee samples tested annually at a laboratory. Fee receipts must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to a special account and are appropriated to the commissioner to administer this subdivision and to purchase or lease laboratory equipment as accumulated fee receipts make equipment purchases or leases possible. Notwithstanding section 144.122, the commissioner shall set the license fee at an amount so that the total fees collected will recover the costs of administering this subdivision and allow an additional amount to be credited to the special account each year sufficient to allow the commissioner to obtain appropriate laboratory equipment for use in administering this subdivision by July 1, 1994.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 181.953, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [TRANSITIONAL LABORATORY REQUIREMENTS.] Before rules are adopted and licenses issued under subdivision 1, an employer may use the services of a nonlicensed testing laboratory that agrees in writing with the commissioner to comply with the following requirements:

(2) The laboratory must be participating in and continuing to demonstrate satisfactory performance in the drug proficiency testing program of the college of American pathology or American association for clinical chemists.

(3) The drug and alcohol testing must be limited to analysis of a sample of blood or urine from the employer or job applicant subject to testing; except that testing for alcohol may include a breath test as an initial screening test, provided that the results are confirmed by blood analysis.

(4) The methods of analysis for drug and alcohol testing are limited to any combination of methods using immuno-chemical technology or chromatography for initial screening tests, ~~confirmed~~ except as otherwise allowed under clause (3). Confirmation must be by gas chromatography/mass spectrometry; except that, where gas chromatography/mass spectrometry is not the scientifically accepted method of choice, the test must be confirmed by a method using some form of chromatography. Testing for alcohol may include a breath test as an initial screening test, provided that the results are confirmed by blood analysis.

(5) The laboratory must have in writing and use laboratory chain-of-custody procedures that ensure reliable and properly handled and identified testing results.

(6) All initial screening test, confirmatory test, and confirmatory retest results must be reviewed and certified as accurate by a qualified scientist.

(7) A test report must indicate the drugs, alcohol, or their metabolites tested for and whether the test produced negative or positive test results.

(8) The laboratory must provide the commissioner with information requested by the commissioner regarding the laboratory's current operations and activities relating to drug and alcohol testing.

(9) The laboratory must agree to comply with the requirements for laboratories set forth in sections 181.950 to 181.954 and to be subject to the remedies set forth in section 181.956.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 53.015, is amended to read:

53.015 [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. For the purposes of this chapter, the terms defined in this section shall have the meanings given them.

Subd. 2. "~~Paid in capital~~ Surplus" means consideration received in excess of the par value of preferred or common stock.

Subd. 3. "~~Invested income~~ Undivided profits" means the net remaining funds resulting from the operation of the corporation and shall include, but not be limited to retained earnings, earned surplus, undivided profits and current earnings.

Subd. 4. "~~Donated capital~~" means ~~all funds contributed by the stockholders, other than funds received in connection with the issuance of stock, and such amounts transferred from invested income, either by declaration of a share dividend or by action of the board of directors.~~

Subd. 5. "~~Contributed capital~~" means the sum total of all funds contributed to the corporation by the stockholders and shall include, but not be limited to preferred stock, common stock, paid-in capital and donated capital.

Subd. 6. "Appropriated reserves" means dedicated funds transferred from invested income by action of the board of directors, which dedicated funds shall otherwise be known as a capital reserve. "Capital stock" means the par value of preferred or common stock multiplied by the respective number of shares of each type of stock.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 53.02, is amended to read:

53.02 [CAPITAL.]

No corporation shall be organized under this chapter or qualified to do business thereunder with a capital represented by shares of common stock of less than $25,000 in cities with less than 50,000 people; $50,000 in cities with more than 50,000 people and less than 100,000 people; and $75,000 in cities with 100,000 people, or more, according to the last official census; each share of that common stock to have a par value of not less than $1 per share. No corporation shall begin doing business under this chapter unless the required capital is fully paid, and unless a ~~paid-in capital~~ surplus of no less than ten percent of that required capital shall have also been fully paid and set up. After the required capital of a corporation organized or doing business under this chapter shall have been fully paid and a ~~paid-in surplus~~ capital of not less than ten percent thereof also fully paid and set up, additional capital stock in that corporation may be sold at not less than par, provided, however, that there is always maintained a ~~paid-in surplus~~ capital of at least ten percent of the capital of the corporation represented by shares of common stock.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 53.03, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [PLACE OF BUSINESS.] Not more than one place of business may be maintained under any certificate of authorization issued subsequent to the enactment of Laws 1943, chapter 67, pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, but the department of commerce may issue more than one certificate of authorization to the same corporation upon compliance with all the provisions of this chapter governing an original issuance of a certificate of authorization. To the extent that previously filed applicable information remains unchanged, the applicant need not refile this information, unless requested. The filing fee for a branch application shall be $500 and the investigation fee $250. If a corporation has been issued more than one certificate of authorization, the corporation shall allocate a portion of ~~con-~~ tributed capital stock to each office for which a certificate has been issued, in order to comply with the capital requirements of sections 53.02 and 53.05, clause (2), which sections are applicable to each office and the capital allocated thereto in the same manner as if each certificate had been issued to a separate corporation. An industrial loan and thrift corporation with deposit liabilities may change one or more of its locations upon the written approval of the commissioner of commerce. A fee of $100 must accompany each application to the commissioner for approval to change the location of an established office. An industrial loan and thrift corporation that does not sell and issue thrift certificates for investment may change one or more locations by giving 30 days' written notice to the department of commerce which shall promptly amend the certificate of authorization accordingly.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 53.05, is amended to read:

53.05 [POWERS, LIMITATION.]

No industrial loan and thrift company may do any of the following:

(1) carry demand banking accounts; use the word "savings" unless the institution's investment certificates, savings accounts, and savings deposits are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and then only if the word is not followed by the words "and loan" in its corporate name; use the word "bank" or "banking" in its corporate name; operate as a savings bank;

(2) have outstanding at any one time certificates of indebtedness, savings accounts, and savings deposits, ~~exclusive of those held by the company, as security for loans made by it of more than seven times the sum of the contributed capital and appropriated reserves of the company until July 1, 1985, or the date an industrial loan and thrift company obtains a commitment for insurance or guarantee of accounts acceptable to the commissioner as required by section 53.10, whichever is earlier, and thereafter 15 30 times the sum of contributed capital and appropriated reserves~~ capital stock and surplus of the company;

(3) accept trusts, except as provided in section 47.75, subdivision 1, or act as guardian, administrator, or judicial trustee in any form;

(4) deposit any of its funds in any banking corporation, unless that corporation has been designated by vote of a majority of directors or of the executive committee present at a meeting duly called, at which a quorum was in attendance;

(5) change any allocation of capital made pursuant to section 53.03 or reduce or withdraw in any way any portion of the ~~contributed capital stock and appropriated reserves~~ surplus without prior written approval of the commissioner of commerce;

(6) take any instrument in which blanks are left to be filled in after execution;

(7) lend money in excess of ~~15 20 percent of the total of its contributed capital and appropriated reserves~~ stock and surplus at all its authorized locations to a person primarily liable. ~~"Contributed capital and appropriated reserves" means the total of the company's contributed capital and appropriated reserves at all its authorized locations. Industrial loan and thrift companies with deposit liabilities must comply with the provisions of section 48.24; or~~

If a loan has been made to a person primarily liable and payments have been made on a certificate of indebtedness securing it, the amount of the payments may be added to the limitation contained in this clause for the purpose of determining whether additional loans may be made to that person; or

(8) issue cashier's checks pursuant to section 48.151, unless and at all times the aggregate liability to all creditors on these instruments is protected by a special fund in cash or due from banks to be used solely for payment of the cashier's checks.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 53.06, is amended to read:

53.06 [DIRECTORS, RESIDENCE.]

At least three-fourths of the directors of any industrial loan and thrift company holding a certificate that includes the right to issue thrift certificates for investment must be residents of the county in which the industrial loan and thrift company maintains its principal place of business, an adjacent county or any county in which the industrial loan and thrift company maintains a place of business pursuant to this chapter Minnesota.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 53.08, is amended to read:

53.08 [DIVIDENDS.]

When an industrial loan and thrift company is organized under this chapter or operating thereunder, the board of directors may declare a dividend of so much of the net profits of the corporation, after providing for all expenses, reserves, interest, and taxes accrued or due from the corporation, as they shall judge expedient, but before any dividend is declared, not less than one-tenth of the net profits of the industrial loan and thrift company of the preceding half year, or for such period as is covered by the dividend, shall be carried to an invested income fund or appropriated reserves surplus until the aggregate of invested income undivided profits and appropriated reserves surplus shall amount to 20 percent of its capital represented by shares of common stock.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 53.09, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PENALTIES.] The penalties for violation of this chapter, or for any wrongdoing in connection therewith, shall be the same as those applied to state banks under the laws of this state. In addition to being subject to the penalties in section 48.28, a company in violation of section 53.05, clause (2), may cure this violation in the manner provided in section 48.28.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 56.12, is amended to read:

56.12 [ADVERTISING; TAKING OF SECURITY; PLACE OF BUSINESS.]

No licensee shall advertise, print, display, publish, distribute, or broadcast, or cause or permit to be advertised, printed, displayed, published, distributed, or broadcast, in any manner any statement or representation with regard to the rates, terms, or conditions for the lending of money, credit, goods, or things in action which is false, misleading, or deceptive. The commissioner may order any licensee to desist from any conduct which the commissioner shall find to be a violation of the foregoing provisions.

The commissioner may require that rates of charge, if stated by a licensee, be stated fully and clearly in such manner as the commissioner may deem necessary to prevent misunderstanding thereof by prospective borrowers. In lieu of the disclosure requirements of this section and section 56.14, a licensee may give the disclosures required by the federal Truth-in-Lending Act.

A licensee may take a lien upon real estate as security for any loan exceeding $2,700 in principal amount made under this chapter. The provisions of sections 47.20 and 47.21 do not apply to loans made under this chapter, except as provided in this section: ~~No loan secured by a first lien on a borrower's primary residence shall be made pursuant to this section if the proceeds of the loan are used to finance the purchase of the borrower's~~

~~primary residence~~ and section 56.131, subdivision 2. If the proceeds of a loan secured by a first lien on the borrower's primary residence are used to finance the purchase of the borrower's primary residence, the loan must comply with section 47.20, unless:

(1) the proceeds of the loan are used to finance the purchase of a manufactured home; or

(2) the proceeds of the loan are used in whole or in part to satisfy the balance owed on a contract for deed.

If the proceeds of the loan are used to finance the purchase of the borrower's primary residence, the licensee shall consent to the subsequent transfer of the real estate if the existing borrower continues after transfer to be obligated for repayment of the entire remaining indebtedness. The licensee shall release the existing borrower from all obligations under the loan instruments, if the transferee (1) meets the standards of credit worthiness normally used by persons in the business of making loans, including but not limited to the ability of the transferee to make the loan payments and satisfactorily maintain the property used as collateral, and (2) executes an agreement in writing with the licensee whereby the transferee assumes the obligations of the existing borrower under the loan instruments. Any such agreement shall not affect the priority, validity or enforceability of any loan instrument. A licensee may charge a fee not in excess of one-tenth of one percent of the remaining unpaid principal balance in the event the loan is assumed by the transferee and the existing borrower continues after the transfer to be obligated for repayment of the entire assumed indebtedness. A licensee may charge a fee not in excess of one percent of the remaining unpaid principal balance in the event the remaining indebtedness is assumed by the transferee and the existing borrower is released from all obligations under the loan instruments, but in no event shall the fee exceed $150.

A licensee making a loan under this chapter secured by a lien on real estate shall comply with the requirements of section 47.20, subdivision 8.

No licensee shall conduct the business of making loans under this chapter within any office, room, or place of business in which any other business is solicited or engaged in, or in association or conjunction therewith, if the commissioner finds that the character of the other business is such that it would facilitate evasions of this chapter or of the rules lawfully made hereunder. The commissioner may promulgate rules dealing with such other businesses.

No licensee shall transact the business or make any loan provided for by this chapter under any other name or at any other place of business than that named in the license. No licensee shall take any confession of judgment or any power of attorney. No licensee shall take any note or promise to pay that does not accurately disclose the principal amount of the loan, the time for which it is made, and the agreed rate or amount of charge, nor any instrument in which blanks are left to be filled in after execution. Nothing herein is deemed to prohibit the making of loans by mail.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 56.131, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [INTEREST RATES AND CHARGES.] (a) On any loan in a principal amount not exceeding $35,000 or ten percent of a corporate licensee's ~~contributed~~ capital stock and ~~appropriated~~ reserves surplus as defined in section 53.015, if greater, a licensee may contract for and receive interest, calculated according to the actuarial method, not exceeding the equivalent of the greater of any of the following:

(1) the total of: (i) 33 percent per year on that part of the unpaid balance of the principal amount not exceeding $350; and (ii) 19 percent per year on that part of the unpaid balance of the principal amount exceeding $350; or

(2) 21.75 percent per year on the unpaid balance of the principal amount.

(b) On any loan where interest has been calculated according to the method provided for in paragraph (a), clause (1), interest must be contracted for and earned as provided in that provision or at the single annual percentage rate computed to the nearest 1/100 of one percent that would earn the same total interest at maturity of the contract as would be earned by the application of the graduated rates provided in paragraph (a), clause (1), when the debt is paid according to the agreed terms and the calculations are made according to the actuarial method.

(c) Loans may be interest-bearing or precomputed.

(d) To compute time on interest-bearing and precomputed loans, including, but not limited to the calculation of interest, a day is considered 1/30 of a month when calculation is made for a fraction of a calendar month. A year is 12 calendar months. A calendar month is that period from a given date in one month to the same numbered date in the following month, and if there is no same numbered date, to the last day of the following month. When a period of time includes a whole month and a fraction of a month, the fraction of a month is considered to follow the whole month.

In the alternative, for interest-bearing loans, a licensee may charge interest at the rate of 1/365 of the agreed annual rate for each actual day elapsed.

(e) With respect to interest-bearing loans:

(1) Interest must be computed on unpaid principal balances outstanding from time to time, for the time outstanding. Each payment must be applied first to the accumulated interest and the remainder of the payment applied to the unpaid principal balance; provided however, that if the amount of the payment is insufficient to pay the accumulated interest, the unpaid interest continues to accumulate to be paid from the proceeds of subsequent payments and is not added to the principal balance.

(2) Interest must not be payable in advance or compounded. However, if part or all of the consideration for a new loan contract is the unpaid principal balance of a prior loan, then the principal amount payable under the new loan contract may include any unpaid interest which has accrued. The unpaid principal balance of a precomputed loan is the balance due after refund or credit of unearned interest as provided in paragraph (f), clause (3). The resulting loan contract is deemed a new and separate loan transaction for all purposes.

(f) With respect to precomputed loans:

(1) Loans must be repayable in substantially equal and consecutive monthly installments of principal and interest combined, except that the first installment period may be more or less than one month by not more than 15 days, and the first installment payment amount may be larger than the remaining payments by the amount of interest charged for the extra days and must be reduced by the amount of interest for the number of days less than one month to the first installment payment; and monthly installment payment dates may be omitted to accommodate borrowers with seasonal income.

(2) Payments may be applied to the combined total of principal and precomputed interest until the loan is fully paid. Payments must be applied in the order in which they become due.

(3) When any loan contract is paid in full by cash, renewal or refinancing, or a new loan, one month or more before the final installment due date, a licensee shall refund or credit the borrower with the total of the applicable charges for all fully unexpired installment periods, as originally scheduled or as deferred, which follow the day of prepayment; if the prepayment is made other than on a scheduled payment date, the nearest scheduled installment payment date must be used in the computation; provided further, if the prepayment occurs prior to the first installment due date, the licensee may retain 1/30 of the applicable charge for a first installment period of one month for each day from the date of the loan to the date of prepayment, and shall refund or credit the borrower with the balance of the total interest contracted for. If the maturity of the loan is accelerated for any reason and judgment is entered, the licensee shall credit the borrower with the same refund as if prepayment in full had been made on the date the judgment is entered.

(4) If an installment, other than the final installment, is not paid in full within ten days of its scheduled due date, a licensee may contract for and receive a default charge not exceeding five percent of the amount of the installment, but not less than $4.

A default charge under this subdivision may not be collected on an installment paid in full within ten days of its scheduled due date, or deferred installment due date with respect to deferred installments, even though a default or deferral charge on an earlier installment has not been paid in full. A default charge may be collected at the time it accrues or at any time thereafter.

(5) If the parties agree in writing, either in the loan contract or in a subsequent agreement, to a deferment of wholly unpaid installments, a licensee may grant a deferment and may collect a deferment charge as provided in this section. A deferment postpones the scheduled due date of the earliest unpaid installment and all subsequent installments as originally scheduled, or as previously deferred, for a period equal to the deferment period. The deferment period is that period during which no installment is scheduled to be paid by reason of the deferment. The deferment charge for a one-month period may not exceed the applicable charge for the installment period immediately following the due date of the last undeferred payment. A proportionate charge may be made for deferment for periods of more or less than one month. A deferment charge is earned pro rata during the deferment period and is fully earned on the last day of the deferment period. Should a loan be prepaid in full during a deferment period, the licensee shall make or credit to the borrower a refund of the unearned deferment charge in addition to any other refund or credit made for prepayment of the loan in full.

(6) If two or more installments are delinquent one full month or more on any due date, and if the contract so provides, the licensee may reduce the unpaid balance by the refund credit which would be required for prepayment in full on the due date of the most recent maturing installment in default. Thereafter, and in lieu of any other default or deferment charges, the single annual percentage rate permitted by this subdivision may be charged on the unpaid balance until fully paid.

(7) Following the final installment as originally scheduled or deferred, the licensee, for any loan contract which has not previously been converted to interest-bearing under paragraph (f), clause (6), may charge interest on any balance remaining unpaid, including unpaid default or deferment charges, at the single annual percentage rate permitted by this subdivision until fully paid.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 56.131, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ADDITIONAL CHARGES.] In addition to the charges provided for by this section and section 56.155, no further or other amount whatsoever, shall be directly or indirectly charged, contracted for, or received for the loan made, except actual out of pocket expenses of the licensee to realize on a security after default, and except for the following additional charges which may be included in the principal amount of the loan:

(a) lawful fees and taxes paid to any public officer to record, file, or release security;

(b) with respect to a loan secured by an interest in real estate, the following actual closing costs authorized in section 47.20, subdivision 2, clause (1), if they are bona fide, reasonable in amount, and not for the purpose of circumvention or evasion of this section; provided the costs do not exceed one percent of the principal amount or $250, whichever is greater:

~~(1) fees or premiums for title examination, abstract of title, title insurance, surveys, or similar purposes;~~

~~(2) fees, if not paid to the licensee, an employee of the licensee, or a person related to the licensee, for preparation of a mortgage, settlement statement, or other documents, fees for notarizing mortgages and other documents, and appraisal fees;~~

(c) the premium for insurance in lieu of perfecting and releasing a security interest to the extent that the premium does not exceed the fees described in paragraph (a).

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 56.14, is amended to read:

56.14 [DUTIES OF LICENSEE.]

Every licensee shall:

(1) deliver to the borrower (or if there are two or more borrowers to one of them) at the time any loan is made a statement making the disclosures and furnishing the information required by the federal Truth-in-Lending Act, as amended from time to time, with respect to the contract of loan. A copy of the loan contract may be delivered in lieu of a statement if it discloses the required information;

(2) deliver or mail to the borrower without request, a written receipt within 30 days following payment for each payment by coin or currency made on account of any loan wherein charges are computed and paid on unpaid principal balances for the time actually outstanding, specifying the amount applied to charges and the amount, if any, applied to principal, and stating the unpaid principal balance, if any, of the loan; and wherein pre-computed charges have been added to the principal of the loan specifying the amount of the payment applied to principal and charges combined, the amount applied to default or extension charges, if any, and stating the unpaid balance, if any, of the precomputed loan contract. A periodic statement showing a payment received by mail complies with this clause;

(3) permit payment to be made in advance in any amount on any contract of loan at any time, but the licensee may apply the payment first to all charges in full at the agreed rate up to the date of the payment;

(4) upon repayment of the loan in full, mark indelibly every obligation and security, other than a mortgage or security agreement which secures a new loan to the licensee, signed by the borrower with the word "Paid" or "Canceled," and release any mortgage or security agreement which no longer secures a loan to the licensee, restore any pledge, and cancel and return any note, and any assignment given to the licensee which does not secure a new loan to the licensee within 20 days after the repayment;

(5) display prominently in each licensed place of business a full and accurate schedule, to be approved by the commissioner, of the charges to be made and the method of computing the same; furnish a copy of the contract of loan to any person obligated on it or who may become obligated on it at any time upon the request of that person;

(6) show in the loan contract or statement of loan the rate or rates of charge on which the charge in the contract is based, expressed in terms of rate or rates per annum. The rate expression shall be printed in at least 8-point type on the loan statement or copy of the loan contract given to the borrower.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 580.03, is amended to read:
580.03 [NOTICE OF SALE; SERVICE ON OCCUPANT.]

Six weeks' published notice shall be given that such mortgage will be foreclosed by sale of the mortgaged premises or some part thereof, and at least four weeks before the appointed time of sale a copy of such notice shall be served in like manner as a summons in a civil action in the district court upon the person in possession of the mortgaged premises, if the same are actually occupied. If there be a building on such premises used by a church or religious corporation, for its usual meetings, service upon any officer or trustee of such corporation shall be a sufficient service upon it.

A copy of the notice of mortgage foreclosure must be mailed to each person who appears of record to have acquired a mortgage interest in the mortgaged premises after the mortgage which is being foreclosed. The notice must be mailed to these persons at the address given in the recorded mortgage at least 20 days before the date of sale. It is not necessary to mail a copy of the notice to a person if:

(1) the recorded mortgage does not give the person's mailing address;
or

(2) the person's interest does not appear of record at the time the notice is first published or the power of attorney to foreclose is filed of record, whichever occurs first.

The board may certify a loan application only if it determines that:

- (1) the applicant has demonstrated that the proposed facility is technically feasible;
- (2) the applicant has made a reasonable assessment of the market for the services offered by the proposed facility;
- (3) the applicant has agreed to provide funds for the proposed facility in an amount equal to at least 25 percent of the capital cost of the facility excluding land acquisition cost;
- (4) the applicant has agreed to pay the cost of any land acquisition necessary to develop the facility; and
- (5) the facility will contribute in a significant way to achievement of the policies and objectives of the hazardous waste management plan and, in particular, to reduce the need for and practice of industrial or hazardous waste disposal.

As a condition of its certification the board may require an applicant to agree to provide funds in excess of 25 percent of the capital cost of the facility in addition to any land acquisition costs. In certifying an application or in determining the share of the capital costs that will be provided by the loan, the board may consider the types and volumes of industrial or hazardous waste that will be handled by the facility, the number of generators served by the facility, and the extent to which the facility serves the need of smaller businesses that generate industrial or hazardous waste. The board may establish additional criteria for certifying loan applications consistent with the provisions of this section.

The board may adopt emergency rules under sections 14.29 to 14.36 to implement the loan program. Emergency rules adopted by the board remain in effect for 360 days or until permanent rules are adopted, whichever occurs first.

The evaluation must consider the amount of waste reduction achieved by generators through the technical and research assistance and waste reduction grant programs and the progress in reducing the need for and practice of disposal achieved through the development grants and the request for proposal program. The board shall report the results of its evaluation to the legislative commission with its recommendations for further action.

Subdivision 1. [SELECTION OF WILD RICE LANDS TO BE SOLD.]

(a) The commissioner of natural resources and the commissioner of agriculture in joint agreement in consultation with Native American wild rice harvesters, conservation organizations, organizations representing the wild rice industry in the state, and potentially affected counties, towns, and watershed districts, shall select approximately 1,500 acres of state land each year to be offered for sale to persons intending to produce wild rice. The commissioner shall give priority to land that:

(1) is adjacent to existing wild rice production areas; and

(2) has been requested by a wild rice producer to be sold for wild rice production.

(b) Wild rice land that is part of the school trust fund is exempt from selection for sale to wild rice producers.

(c) Land is not exempt from selection solely because it may be subject to mineral exploration.

Subd. 2. [WILD RICE LANDS TO BE SOLD.] (a) Land selected for wild rice production under subdivision 1 must be offered for public sale by September 1 of each year.

(b) All contracts to sell land selected for wild rice production must provide an option for the state to repurchase the parcel at the initial sales price if at least 50 percent of the parcel sold has not been developed for wild rice production within five years of the sale. The commissioner of natural resources may exercise the option to repurchase a parcel that has not been adequately developed, but must consider the market conditions affecting the supply and demand of wild rice production in the state and in the United States before exercising the option.

Subd. 3. [EXERCISE OF MINERAL RIGHTS.] If the state exercises its reserved mineral rights in land selected and sold under this section, the owner must be compensated by the state for damage to improvements and any impaired ability to grow wild rice caused by the exercise of mineral rights.

Subd. 2. [WILD RICE LAND DESIGNATION AND DEVELOPMENT.] (a) The commissioner of natural resources and the commissioner of agriculture shall, by joint agreement, prepare a plan in consultation with organizations representing the wild rice industry in the state, Native American wild rice harvesters, conservation organizations, and potentially affected counties, towns, and watershed districts, that designates state land for wild rice production including an inventory of the number of acres of land appropriate and suitable for wild rice development, sale, and leasing in each county. The inventory must include the number of acres suitable for wild rice development that are located on school trust fund lands. Proposed mineral exploration does not exempt land from being designated for wild rice development.

(b) The initial designation plan and inventory must be completed by December 31, 1988, and updated every five years. The designation plan and inventory must be distributed to organizations representing the wild rice industry in the state.

Sec. 4. [FIRST SALE OF SELECTED LANDS.]

Notwithstanding section 1, subdivision 2, the commissioner of natural resources shall complete the first offer of selected wild rice lands by two years after the effective date of this act. (5) the cost of the remedial actions or removal actions required by the development response action plan is so high as to render development or redevelopment of the site not feasible in the opinion of the municipality without a hazardous substance loan;

(6) the municipality shall certify if the municipality has entered into a binding agreement with a nongovernmental person or persons to develop or redevelop the land proposed to be benefited by the hazardous substance loan;

(7) the municipality shall certify if it has previously received a hazardous substance loan for the property and in the course of carrying out the development response action plan has determined that removal actions or remedial actions are required to be taken in addition to those specified in the development response action plan; and

(8) the municipality must show that the commissioner of the pollution control agency has reviewed and approved the development response action plan as modified by the additional removal actions or remedial actions taken under clause (7).

Subd. 4. [LOAN PRIORITY AND RESTRICTIONS.] (a) One-half of the amount available for loans must be restricted to loans of $3,000,000 or less; the remaining half of the amount available for loans must be restricted to loans of $500,000 or less.

(b) Hazardous substance loans shall be made to applicants quarterly. If the commissioner determines that there are insufficient amounts in the hazardous substance loan fund to make all hazardous substance loans applied for, preference shall be given first to applicants that have made the certification described in subdivision 3, paragraph (b), clauses (7) and (8), and second to applicants that have made the certification described in subdivision 3, paragraph (b), clause (6). In allocating loans among projects of a given priority the commissioner may take into account the anticipated effect on the economic condition of the site and surrounding area, including the effect on employment, tax revenues, market value, and blighting influences.

(c) Hazardous substance loans may not be made for a site for which removal actions or remedial actions are scheduled by the pollution control agency to be initially funded during the current or next succeeding fiscal year pursuant to the Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act of 1988, United States Code, title 42, section 9601 et seq., the environmental response, compensation and compliance fund under section 115B.20, the petroleum tank release cleanup act under chapter 115C, or other state funding source without the approval of the pollution control agency.

Subd. 5. [LOAN APPROVAL.] (a) Upon approval of a loan, the commissioner shall notify the municipality that the loan will be made and set aside the amount approved in a special account. The notice shall state the principal amount of the loan and that the loan will be made when all the terms for making and repaying the loan have been agreed upon by the commissioner and the municipality.

(b) The municipality may borrow from the fund under the same terms that it may issue bonds or other obligations pursuant to any law applicable to the municipality that is consistent with this section.

(c) The loan shall be evidenced by instruments prepared in accordance with this section and the law under which the municipality proposes to issue its obligation.

(d) The loan is repaid solely from the sources specifically pledged to repay the municipality's obligation.

(e) Notwithstanding the law under which the obligation of the municipality is issued, the obligation may be subject to such terms and conditions as are agreed to by the agency and the municipality.

(f) The commissioner may require only tax increment and land sale proceeds from the site with respect to which the loan is being made to be pledged. Amounts shall not be required to be pledged from those sources, if and to the extent stated in the application they are pledged or required to be pledged to retire other obligations described in the application and incurred or to be incurred to finance a portion of costs of the type eligible for financing under this section or for acquisition of real property and existing improvement, relocation assistance, demolition, soil compaction correction, and administrative and legal expenditures related to the site.

Subd. 6. [RECAPTURE OF COSTS.] A municipality that has received a loan under this section shall use reasonable and practicable measures to recapture the reasonable and necessary costs of remedial action from responsible persons unless recovery is deemed by the municipality to be unlikely due to inability to locate responsible persons, the high cost of pursuing remedies in relation to any likely recovery or the financial capacity of responsible persons. After provision for costs of collection, the municipality shall apply all amounts recaptured from responsible persons to repay the obligations owed under the loan agreement. The commissioner may require the municipality to assign any claim against a responsible party to the state if the commissioner of the agency is willing to pursue the claim. Cost recovery sought under this subdivision must conform to the requirements of section 115B.17, subdivision 6, except that amounts recovered must be deposited in the loan fund established in section 2.

Subd. 7. [ACCOUNTING OF COSTS.] Upon completion of the development response action plan, the municipality shall submit an accounting of costs incurred to the commissioner, together with any unexpended loan proceeds, including any unexpended investment earnings on proceeds, which shall be applied to the payment of the obligations under the loan agreement.

Subd. 8. [RULES.] The commissioner may adopt permanent rules to implement this section.

Sec. 4. [116J.993] [DEVELOPMENT RESPONSE ACTION PLAN.]

(a) For purposes of section 3, a plan or proposal for removal actions or remedial actions constitutes a development response action plan if the actions contained in the plan or proposal are:

(1) requested by the agency or its commissioner pursuant to section 115B.17, 115C.03, or other law; or

(2) proposed to the commissioner of the pollution control agency by a municipality to respond to a release or threatened release of a hazardous substance, pollutant, contaminant, or petroleum.

(b) The actions specified in a development response action plan approved under section 3, subdivision 3, are deemed authorized as provided in section 115B.17, subdivision 12, and are deemed rendering care and assistance and advice to the pollution control agency or its commissioner as provided in sections 115B.04, subdivision 11, and 115B.05, subdivision 9.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.174, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [ORIGINAL ASSESSED VALUE.] (a) "Original assessed value" means the assessed value of all taxable real property within a tax increment financing district as most recently certified by the commissioner of revenue as of the date of the request by an authority for certification by the county auditor, together with subsequent adjustments as set forth in section 469.177, subdivisions 1 and 4. In determining the original assessed value the assessed value of real property exempt from taxation at the time of the request shall be zero, except for real property which is tax exempt by reason of public ownership by the requesting authority and which has been publicly owned for less than one year prior to the date of the request for certification, in which event the assessed value of the property shall be the assessed value as most recently determined by the commissioner of revenue.

(b) The original assessed value of any designated hazardous substance site or hazardous substance subdistrict on January 2 following the date the agency or municipality certifies to the county auditor that:

(1) a loan has been made to the municipality or the agency pursuant to section 3; or

(2) the agency or municipality has entered a redevelopment or other agreement for the removal actions or remedial actions specified in a development response action plan, or otherwise provided funds to finance the development response action plan, shall be equal to the assessed value of the parcel, as most recently determined by the commissioner of revenue, less the reasonable and necessary costs of the removal actions and remedial actions to be undertaken with respect to the parcel as certified to the county auditor by the municipality or agency but not less than zero.

(c) The original assessed value shall be increased by the amount by which it was reduced pursuant to paragraph (b), clause (1), upon repayment in full of the hazardous substance loan made pursuant to section 3, if any, or paragraph (b), clause (2), if the loan has not been made, upon certification by the municipality that the costs of the removal actions and remedial actions have been paid or reimbursed.

(d) For purposes of this subdivision, "real property" shall include any property normally taxable as personal property by reason of its location on or over publicly-owned property.

(e) The terms "removal," "remedial," "action," "hazardous substance," and "pollutant or contaminant" have the meanings assigned by section 115B.02. The term "development response action plan" has the meaning given under section 4.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.174, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 16. [DESIGNATED HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCE SITE.] "Designated hazardous substance site" means: (1) any parcel or parcels benefitted by a loan made to the municipality or the authority pursuant to section 3, or (2) any parcel or parcels with respect to which the authority or municipality has certified to the county auditor that the authority or municipality has entered into a redevelopment or other agreement providing for, or otherwise has available to it funds, including, without limitation, tax increment which would be made available pursuant to section 469.175, subdivision 1, to finance the removal actions or remedial actions specified in a development response action plan.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.175, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [CREATION OF HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCE SUBDISTRICT.] (a) A municipality or authority which is creating or has created a tax increment financing district may establish within the district a hazardous substance subdistrict upon the notice and after the discussion, public hearing and findings required for approval of the original plan. The geographic area of the subdistrict shall be made up of any parcels in the district designated for inclusion by the municipality or authority that are designated hazardous substance sites, and any additional parcels in the district designated for inclusion that are contiguous except for the interposition of a right-of-way. Before or at the time of approval of the tax increment financing plan, the municipality shall make the findings under paragraphs (b) to (d), and shall set forth in writing the reasons and supporting facts for each.

(b) The proposed development or redevelopment, in the opinion of the municipality, would not reasonably be expected to occur solely through private investment and tax increment otherwise available, and therefore the hazardous substance district is deemed necessary.

(c) Other parcels that are not designated hazardous substance sites are expected to be developed together with a designated hazardous substance site.

(d) The subdistrict is not larger than, and the period of time during which increments are elected to be received is not longer than, that which is necessary in the opinion of the municipality to provide for the additional costs due to the designated hazardous substance site.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.176, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DURATION OF TAX INCREMENT FINANCING DISTRICTS.] (a) Subject to the limitations contained in paragraphs (b) to (f), any tax increment financing district as to which bonds are outstanding, payment for which the tax increment and other revenues have been pledged, shall remain in existence at least as long as the bonds continue to be outstanding.

(b) The tax increment pledged to the payment of the bonds and interest thereon may be discharged and the tax increment financing district may be terminated if sufficient funds have been irrevocably deposited in the debt service fund or other escrow account held in trust for all outstanding bonds to provide for the payment of the bonds at maturity or date of redemption and interest thereon to the maturity or redemption date.

(c) For bonds issued pursuant to section 469.178, subdivisions 2 and 3, the full faith and credit and any taxing powers of the municipality or authority shall continue to be pledged to the payment of the bonds until the principal of and interest on the bonds has been paid in full.

(d) No tax increment shall be paid to an authority for a tax increment financing district after three years from the date of certification of the original assessed value of the taxable real property in the district by the county auditor or after August 1, 1982, for tax increment financing districts authorized prior to August 1, 1979, unless within the three-year period (1) bonds have been issued pursuant to section 469.178, or in aid of a project pursuant to any other law, except revenue bonds issued pursuant to sections 469.152 to 469.165, prior to August 1, 1979, or (2) the authority has acquired property within the district, or (3) the authority has constructed or caused to be constructed public improvements within the district.

(e) No tax increment shall in any event be paid to the authority from a redevelopment district after 25 years from date of receipt by the authority of the first tax increment, after 25 years from the date of the receipt for a housing district, after 25 years from the date of the receipt for a mined underground space development district, and after eight years from the date of the receipt, or ten years from approval of the tax increment financing plan, whichever is less, for an economic development district.

For tax increment financing districts created prior to August 1, 1979, no tax increment shall be paid to the authority after 30 years from August 1, 1979.

(f) Modification of a tax increment financing plan pursuant to section 469.175, subdivision 4, shall not extend the durational limitations of this subdivision.

If a parcel of a district is part of a designated hazardous substance site or a hazardous substance subdistrict, tax increment may be paid to the authority from the parcel for longer than the period otherwise provided by this subdivision. The extended period for collection of tax increment shall begin on the date of receipt of the first tax increment from the parcel that is more than any tax increment received from the parcel before the date of the loan or certification and received after the earlier of: (1) date of a loan made to the municipality or authority pursuant to section 3; or (2) the date of certification to the county auditor described in section 6, clause (2). The extended period for collection of tax increment shall be the lesser of: (1) 25 years from the date of commencement of the extended period; or (2) the period necessary to recover the costs of removal actions or remedial actions specified in a development response action plan.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 469.176, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [REQUIREMENT FOR AGREEMENTS.] No more than 25 percent, by acreage, of the property to be acquired within a project which contains a redevelopment district, or ten percent, by acreage, of the property to be acquired within a project which contains a housing or economic development district, as set forth in the tax increment financing plan, shall at any time be owned by an authority as a result of acquisition with the proceeds of bonds issued pursuant to section 469.178 unless prior to acquisition in excess of the percentages, the authority has concluded an agreement for the development or redevelopment of the property acquired and which provides recourse for the authority should the development or redevelopment not be completed. This subdivision does not apply to a parcel of a district that is a designated hazardous substance site established under section 6 or part of a hazardous substance subdistrict established under section 7.

Sec. 10. [APPROPRIATION.]

Subdivision 1. [TRADE AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT.] $ is appropriated from the state building fund to the commissioner of trade and economic development for the purpose of making or purchasing hazardous substance loans under section 3. Funds deposited in the hazardous substance loan fund from loan repayments provided in section 3 are appropriated to the commissioner of trade and economic development for the purpose of making or purchasing hazardous substance loans. This appropriation is available until expended.

Subd. 2. [POLLUTION CONTROL AGENCY.] $ is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of the pollution control agency for the purposes specified in section 3.

Subd. 15. [OCCUPATIONAL DISEASE.] (a) "Occupational disease" means a disease arising out of and in the course of employment peculiar to the occupation in which the employee is engaged and due to causes in excess of the hazards ordinary of employment and shall include undulant fever. Ordinary diseases of life to which the general public is equally exposed outside of employment are not compensable, except where the diseases follow as an incident of an occupational disease, or where the exposure peculiar to the occupation makes the disease an occupational disease hazard. A disease arises out of the employment only if there be a direct causal connection between the conditions under which the work is performed and if the occupational disease follows as a natural incident of the work as a result of the exposure occasioned by the nature of the employment. An employer is not liable for compensation for any occupational disease which cannot be traced to the employment as a direct and proximate cause and is not recognized as a hazard characteristic of and peculiar to the trade, occupation, process, or employment or which results from a hazard to which the worker would have been equally exposed outside of the employment.

(c) A firefighter on active duty with an organized fire department who is unable to perform duties in the department by reason of a disabling cancer of a type caused by exposure to heat, radiation, or a known or suspected carcinogen, as defined by the International Agency for Research on Cancer, is presumed to have an occupational disease under paragraph (a). If a firefighter who enters the service after August 1, 1988, is examined by a physician prior to being hired and the examination discloses the existence of a cancer of a type described in this paragraph, the firefighter is not entitled to the presumption unless a subsequent medical determination is made that the firefighter no longer has the cancer."

The contributing member shall pay the association an amount equal to the average cost of an enrollee in the state plan in the year in which the member terminated enrollees, multiplied by the total number of terminated enrollees who enroll in the state plan.

(b) The average cost of an enrollee in the state comprehensive health insurance plan must be determined by dividing the state plan's total annual losses by the total number of enrollees for that year. This cost must be assessed to the contributing member who has terminated health coverage before the association makes the annual determination of each contributing member's liability as required under this section.

Every program of self-insurance, policy of group accident and health insurance or contract of coverage by a health maintenance organization written or renewed in this state, shall include, in addition to the provisions required by section 62A.17, the right to convert to an individual coverage qualified plan without the addition of underwriting restrictions if the individual insured leaves the group regardless of the reason for leaving the group, or upon cancellation or termination of the coverage for the group except where uninterrupted and continuous group coverage is otherwise

The person may exercise this right to conversion within 30 days of leaving the group or within 30 days following receipt of due notice of cancellation or termination of coverage of the group and upon payment of premiums from the date of termination or cancellation. Due notice of cancellation or termination of coverage for a group shall be provided to each employee having coverage in the group by the insurer, self-insurer or health maintenance organization canceling or terminating the coverage except where reasonable evidence indicates that uninterrupted and continuous group coverage is otherwise provided to the group. Every employer having a policy of group accident and health insurance, group subscriber or contract of coverage by a health maintenance organization shall, upon request, provide the insurer or health maintenance organization a list of the names and addresses of covered employees. Plans of health coverage shall also include a provision which, upon the death of the individual in whose name the contract was issued, permits every other individual then covered under the contract to elect, within the period specified in the contract, to continue coverage under the same or a different contract without the addition of underwriting restrictions until the individual would have ceased to have been entitled to coverage had the individual in whose name the contract was issued lived. An individual conversion contract issued by a health maintenance organization shall not be deemed to be an individual enrollment contract for the purposes of section 62D.10.

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) "Health plan" means a health maintenance organization, health insurer, or non-profit health service plan corporation.

(b) "Association" means the Minnesota comprehensive health association created in section 62E.10.

Subd. 2. [ELIGIBLE INDIVIDUALS.] An individual is eligible for assigned replacement coverage under this section if:

(1) the individual had individual health coverage through a health maintenance organization, the coverage is no longer available due to the insolvency of the health maintenance organization, and the individual has not obtained replacement coverage; or

(2) the individual had group health coverage through a health maintenance organization, the coverage is no longer available due to the insolvency of the health maintenance organization, no other health plans are offered by the employer, and the individual has not obtained replacement coverage.

Subd. 3. [APPLICATION AND ASSIGNMENT.] If a health maintenance organization is insolvent and will be liquidated, individuals eligible for assigned replacement coverage under subdivision 2 may apply to the Minnesota comprehensive health association to obtain replacement coverage. Upon receiving an application and evidence that the applicant was enrolled in the health maintenance organization at the time it was determined to be insolvent, the association shall randomly assign eligible individuals to all health plans operating in the service area of the health maintenance organization, in proportion to the statewide total premiums received by the health plans in the previous 12 months.

Subd. 4. [REASSIGNMENT OF INDIVIDUALS.] (a) Before notifying an individual of an assignment under subdivision 3, the association shall notify each health plan of the number of individuals proposed to be assigned to that health plan. Within five working days after a health plan receives the notice, the health plan may petition the association to reduce the number of individuals assigned to the health plan. If the health plan demonstrates that it does not have the provider capacity to adequately serve all of the additional individuals, the association shall reduce the number accordingly and reallocate the individuals to other health plans with sufficient capacity.

(b) Within 14 days after receiving notice of assignment to replacement coverage under subdivision 3, an individual may petition the association for reassignment to a different health plan. The association shall reassign the individual if the association determines that the medical treatment of a preexisting condition will be adversely affected by the initial assignment.

Subd. 5. [COVERAGE.] Replacement coverage assigned under this section must be a number two qualified plan, as described in section 62E.06, subdivision 2, or for individuals over age 65, a medicare supplement 2 plan, as described in section 62A.34.

Subd. 6. [PREMIUM.] The premium for replacement coverage assigned under this section must not exceed 80 percent of the premium for the comparable coverage offered by the Minnesota comprehensive health association.

Subd. 7. [DURATION.] The duration of replacement coverage assigned under this section is:

- (1) for individuals eligible under subdivision 2, clause (1), 90 days; and*
- (2) for individuals eligible under subdivision 2, clause (2), 90 days or the length of time remaining in the group contract with the insolvent health maintenance organization, whichever is greater."*

62D.19 [UNREASONABLE EXPENSES.]

No health maintenance organization shall incur or pay for any expense of any nature which is unreasonably high in relation to the value of the service or goods provided. The commissioner of health shall implement and enforce this section by rules adopted under this section.

In an effort to achieve the stated purposes of sections 62D.01 to 62D.29; in order to safeguard the underlying nonprofit status of health maintenance organizations; and to ensure that the payment of health maintenance organization money to major participating entities results in a corresponding benefit to the health maintenance organization and its enrollees, when determining whether an organization has incurred an unreasonable expense in relation to a major participating entity, due consideration shall be given to, in addition to any other appropriate factors, whether the officers and trustees of the health maintenance organization have acted with good faith and in the best interests of the health maintenance organization in entering into, and performing under, a contract under which the health maintenance organization has incurred an expense. The commissioner has standing to sue, on behalf of a health maintenance organization, officers or trustees of the health maintenance organization who have breached their fiduciary duty in entering into and performing contracts.

Sec. 27. [REPORT.]

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 10A.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 24. [STATE COMMITTEE.] "State committee" means the organization which, by virtue of the bylaws of a political party, is responsible for the day-to-day operation of the political party at the state level.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 10A.25, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. The expenditure limits imposed by this section apply only to candidates who agree to be bound by the limits as a condition of receiving a public subsidy for their campaigns in the form of:

- (a) an allocation of money from the state elections campaign fund; or
- (b) Credits against the tax due of individuals who contribute to that candidate.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 10A.31, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. In each calendar year the moneys in each party account and the general account shall be allocated to candidates as follows:

(1) ~~21~~ 16.8 percent for the offices of governor and lieutenant governor together;

(2) ~~3-6~~ 2.88 percent for the office of attorney general;

(3) ~~1-8~~ 1.44 percent each for the offices of secretary of state, state auditor and state treasurer;

(4) In each calendar year during the period in which state senators serve a four-year term, ~~23-1/3~~ 18.64 percent for the office of state senator and ~~46-2/3~~ 37.3 percent for the office of state representative;

(5) In each calendar year during the period in which state senators serve a two-year term, ~~35~~ 28 percent each for the offices of state senator and state representative;

(6) 20 percent for the state committee of a political party; money allocated to each state committee under this clause must be deposited in a separate account and must be spent for legitimate political party operations, including voter education; the sample ballot; operations of precinct caucuses, county unit conventions, and state conventions; and the maintenance and programming of computers used to provide lists of voters, party workers, party officers, patterns of voting, and other data for use in political party activities;

(7) To assure that moneys will be returned to the counties from which they were collected, and to assure that the distribution of those moneys rationally relates to the support for particular parties or for particular candidates within legislative districts, moneys from the party accounts for legislative candidates shall be distributed as follows:

Each candidate for the state senate and state house of representatives whose name is to appear on the ballot in the general election shall receive money from the candidate's party account set aside for candidates of the state senate or state house of representatives, whichever applies, according to the following formula;

For each county within the candidate's district the candidate's share of the dollars allocated in that county to the candidate's party account and set aside for that office shall be:

(a) The sum of the votes cast in the last general election in that part of the county in the candidate's district for all candidates of that candidate's party (i) whose names appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct of the state and (ii) for the state senate and state house of representatives, divided by

(b) The sum of the votes cast in that county in the last general election for all candidates of that candidate's party (i) whose names appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct in the state and (ii) for the state senate and state house of representatives, multiplied by

(c) The amount in the candidate's party account allocated in that county and set aside for the candidates for the office for which the candidate is running.

The sum of all the county shares calculated in the formula above is the candidate's share of the candidate's party account.

In a year in which an election for the state senate occurs, with respect to votes for candidates for the state senate only, "last general election" means the last general election in which an election for the state senate occurred.

For any party under whose name no candidate's name appeared on the ballot in each voting precinct in the state in the last general election, amounts in the party's account shall be allocated based on (a) the number of people voting in the last general election in that part of the county in the candidate's district, divided by (b) the number of the people voting in that county in the last general election, multiplied by (c) the amount in the candidate's party account allocated in that county and set aside for the candidates for the office for which the candidate is running.

In a year in which the first election after a legislative reapportionment is held, "the candidate's district" means the newly drawn district, and voting data from the last general election will be applied to the area encompassing the newly drawn district notwithstanding that the area was in a different district in the last general election.

If in a district there was no candidate of a party for the state senate or state house of representatives in the last general election, or if a candidate for the state senate or state house of representatives was unopposed, the vote for that office for that party shall be the average vote of all the remaining candidates of that party in each county of that district whose votes are included in the sums in clauses (a) and (b). The average vote shall be added to the sums in clauses (a) and (b) before the calculation is made for all districts in the county.

Money from a party account not distributed to candidates for state senator and representative in any election year shall be returned to the general fund of the state. Money from a party account not distributed to candidates for other offices in an election year shall be returned to the party account for reallocation to candidates as provided in clauses (1) to (6) of this subdivision in the following year. Moneys from the general account refused by any candidate shall be distributed to ~~all other qualifying candidates in proportion to their shares as provided in this subdivision~~ the other candidates for the same office in the district who have signed an agreement to be bound by the limits, and are eligible to receive money from the general account.

Subd. 2. [DEPARTMENT.] “Department” means the Minnesota department of agriculture.

Subd. 3. [COMMISSIONER.] “Commissioner” means the commissioner of agriculture or the commissioner’s authorized representative.

Subd. 3a. [DISCOUNT.] “Discount” means an offer or purchase price for grain that is lower than the base or standard price offered by a buyer at a certain time and at a specified location. A discount price represents the lower than normal value of the grain because of inferior quality as determined by measurement of grade, dockage, test weight, moisture content, protein content, or other factors.

Subd. 3b. [INDEX MOISTURE LEVEL.] “Index moisture level” means the percentage moisture content for each grain that is used in establishing base or standard prices for the grain as determined by the commissioner.

Subd. 4. [PERSON.] “Person” means any individual, firm, copartnership, cooperative, company, association, and corporation, or their lessees, trustees, or receivers.

Subd. 5. [PREMIUM.] “Premium” means an offer or a purchase price for grain that exceeds the base or standard price offered by a buyer at a certain time and at a specified location. A premium price represents the higher than normal value of the grain because of superior quality as determined by measurement of grade, dockage, moisture content, test weight, protein content, or other factors.

Subd. 6. [TEST EQUIPMENT.] “Test equipment” means the mechanical and electronic devices commonly used in measurement of grain qualities including protein content, moisture content, and test weight.

Subd. 7. Sec. 2. [17B.041] [COMMISSIONER TO REVIEW ACCURACY OF TEST EQUIPMENT AND TEST EQUIPMENT OPERATORS.]

Subdivision 1. [PERIODIC REVIEW.] The commissioner shall establish a program for the periodic grain testing review of protein analysis, test weight, and moisture test equipment, and test equipment operators. A review must consist of the performance of routine tests and analysis by the principal operator of the test equipment. A review under this section must be based on the results of on-site analysis performed on one or more samples of grain by the principal operator of the appropriate test equipment.

Subd. 2. [POSTING OF REVIEW FINDINGS.] Personnel of the department who perform a review of test equipment and test equipment operators under subdivision 1 must post a dated and signed statement indicating the conclusions of the review in a conspicuous location in the place of business where grain testing is conducted. The statement must be on a form provided by the commissioner and include in prominent wording a caution to the effect that the results at the time of a review by department personnel do not necessarily indicate either accuracy or inaccuracy in the test equipment or procedures at other times. The statement must remain on display until a subsequent review has been made.

Subd. 3. [FOLLOW-UP REVIEW UPON REQUEST.] The commissioner shall arrange for a follow-up review within seven business days of a periodic review if a follow-up review is requested by the test equipment operator.

Subd. 4. [REQUEST FOR COMMISSIONER TO SCHEDULE A REVIEW.] A purchaser or seller of grain may request the commissioner to perform a review of the test equipment and test equipment operator that is used to test the grain. A signed request must be submitted to the commissioner and upon receipt of a request, the commissioner shall schedule a review at a reasonable time considering other duties and responsibilities of the department personnel.

Subd. 5. [COMMISSIONER AND DEPARTMENT NOT LIABLE.] The state is not liable to a seller or purchaser of grain for losses resulting from erroneous tests or analysis by test equipment or test equipment operators, whether reviewed by the department or not, if the commissioner and the department have exercised due care in the scheduling and conduct of reviews under subdivisions 1 and 3.

Sec. 3. [17B.045] [PREMIUMS BASED ON TEST WEIGHT MUST EQUAL OR EXCEED DISCOUNTS.]

A purchaser of grain who provides a discount for grain that falls below the standard test weight for that grain shall offer an equal or greater premium for grain that has a test weight higher than the standard test weight.

Sec. 4. [17B.047] [PREMIUMS BASED ON MOISTURE CONTENT.]

Subdivision 1. [COMMISSIONER TO ESTABLISH INDEX MOISTURE LEVELS.] The commissioner shall establish an index moisture level for each grain commonly bought and sold in this state by rule. The commissioner may take into consideration factors such as moisture level variations appropriate to different locations within the state, variations in the keeping qualities of grains at different seasons of the year, and other appropriate factors.

Subd. 2. [PREMIUMS GENERALLY EQUAL TO OR GREATER THAN DISCOUNTS.] A purchaser of grain who provides a discount for grain based on tested moisture content higher than the index moisture level shall provide an equal or greater premium for grain that tests at a moisture content within the next three percentage points below the index moisture level. If the moisture content in a valid sample of the purchased grain is more than three percentage points below the index moisture level, the premium offered need not be further tied to an equivalent discount provided for grain that tests higher than the index moisture level.

Sec. 5. [17B.048] [SELLER OPTION TO AVERAGE LOADS.]

A purchaser of grain must allow a seller who delivers grain in multiple loads within a period of seven consecutive calendar days, at the option of the seller, to average the measurements from the multiple loads with respect to test weight, moisture content, and protein analysis.

If there is more than one borrower, the information may be provided to one of them; or

(23) refuse to honor a written purchase agreement between the borrower and the seller relating to which party may lock in the interest rate or discount points.

Subd. 2. [GENERAL OR INDIVIDUAL MORTGAGE BROKERS.] No person, whether or not licensed under this chapter, while brokering a mortgage loan shall:

(4) receive compensation from the borrower other than that specified in a written agreement signed by the borrower; or

(vii) discloses the cancellation rights and procedures in section 13.

Sec. 13. [57.13] [CANCELLATION.]

A customer of a general or individual mortgage broker who pays a fee before the time the loan is actually funded has an unconditioned right to rescind the contract for mortgage brokerage services at any time until midnight of the third business day after the day on which the contract is signed. Cancellation is evidenced by the customer giving written notice of cancellation to the general mortgage broker at the address stated in the contract. Notice of cancellation, if given by mail, is effective upon deposit in a mailbox properly addressed to the general mortgage broker with postage prepaid. Notice of cancellation need not take a particular form and is sufficient if it indicates by any form of written expression the intention of the customer not to be bound by the contract. No act of a customer of a general or individual mortgage broker is effective to waive the right to rescind as provided in this section.

In addition to the powers granted in section 45.027, subdivision 7, the commissioner may deny, suspend, or revoke any mortgage banker's, general mortgage broker's, loan officer's, or individual mortgage broker's license issued under this chapter for:

(1) conviction of a felony or misdemeanor involving fraud, misrepresentation, or deceit;

(2) entry of a judgment against the mortgage banker, loan officer, general mortgage broker, or individual mortgage broker involving fraud, misrepresentation, or deceit;

(3) entry of a federal or state administrative order against the mortgage banker, loan officer, general mortgage broker, or individual mortgage broker for violation of any law or any regulation applicable to the conduct of the licensed business.

For the purposes of this section and section 45.027, acts of an officer, employee, director, partner, or principal stockholder are considered to be acts of the mortgage banker or mortgage broker.

Sec. 15. [57.15] [RIGHT TO USE THE TERM MORTGAGE BANKER, LOAN OFFICER, GENERAL MORTGAGE BROKER, OR INDIVIDUAL MORTGAGE BROKER.]

Subdivision 1. [RESTRICTION.] No persons making or brokering a mortgage loan or administering an escrow account, including persons exempt from the licensing requirements of this chapter, may advertise or represent themselves to be a mortgage banker, loan officer, general mortgage broker, or individual mortgage broker unless licensed as provided in this chapter or unless the person elects licensure pursuant to section 16 of this act.

Subd. 2. [PENALTY.] A person who willfully violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and may be fined not more than $700 or imprisoned not more than 90 days, or both. Each act in violation of this section constitutes a separate offense and a prosecution or conviction for any violation of this section does not bar prosecution or conviction for another violation under this section.

Sec. 16. [57.16] [RIGHT OF FINANCIAL INSTITUTION TO ELECT LOAN OFFICER AND INDIVIDUAL MORTGAGE BROKER LICENSURE.]

(a) Notwithstanding the exemption provided in section 4, an exempt financial institution may elect licensing for its employees if each employee holds a loan officer or individual mortgage broker license and performs the functions defined in this chapter. Employees of exempt institutions who hold a loan officer's or individual mortgage broker's license shall comply with the requirements of this chapter as if they were licensed to a mortgage banker or general mortgage broker.

(b) A financial institution that elects licensing for its employees does not forfeit its right to the exemption provided in section 4 by virtue of the election.

Sec. 17. [57.17] [MORTGAGE BANKER AND GENERAL MORTGAGE BROKER; REPORT OF VIOLATIONS TO COMMISSIONER.]

A person, whether or not licensed under this chapter, while making or brokering a mortgage loan or administering an escrow account shall report a violation of this chapter by an employee to the commissioner. The report shall be made within a reasonable time after that person has knowledge of the violation. The commissioner shall prescribe the manner and form of the report. The making of a report of a violation to the commissioner shall not provide grounds for any action for libel, slander, or defamation by an employee against an employer, unless the employer knows that the report is false or acts with reckless disregard for the truth or falsity of the report.

A person who fails to report a violation is guilty of a misdemeanor and may be fined not more than $700 or imprisoned not more than 90 days, or both. Each act in violation of this section constitutes a separate offense and a prosecution or conviction for any violation of this section does not bar prosecution or conviction for another violation under this section.

Sec. 18. [57.18] [RULES.]

The commissioner may adopt rules the commissioner considers appropriate to administer this chapter.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS.]

The legislature finds that the lands and waters of Ramsey county are great natural resources; that as a result of erosion of lands and sediment deposition in waters of the region, waters are being polluted and despoiled to a degree that fish, aquatic life, recreation, and other uses of lands and waters are being adversely affected; that the rapid shift in land use from agricultural to nonagricultural uses has accelerated the processes of soil erosion and sedimentation. Implementation of the metropolitan surface water planning act in Ramsey county requires a coordinated effort in that county, and the state of Minnesota may benefit from a pilot program within that county. The legislature further finds it is necessary to establish and implement through the soil and water conservation district in cooperation with water management organizations, cities, towns, and other public and private entities in that county, a county-wide coordinated erosion and sediment control pilot program to conserve and to protect the land, water, and other natural resources of Ramsey county.

Sec. 2. [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICABILITY.] The definitions in this section apply to sections 1 to 4.

Subd. 2. [CONSERVATION SPECIFICATIONS.] "Conservation specifications" means the management procedures, techniques, and methods to control soil erosion and sedimentation as officially adopted by the district board.

Subd. 3. [DISTRICT.] "District" means the soil and water conservation district operating under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 40.

Subd. 4. [DISTRICT PROGRAM.] "District program" means the erosion and sediment control program adopted by the district consisting of conservation specifications to minimize erosion and sedimentation and a model ordinance for adoption by the district.

Subd. 5. [LAND DISTURBANCE ACTIVITY.] "Land disturbance activity" means land change that may result in soil erosion from water or wind and the movement of sediments into or upon waters or lands of Ramsey county, including clearing, grading, excavating, transporting, and filling of land. Land disturbance activity does not mean:

(1) minor land disturbance activities such as home gardens and individual home landscaping, repairs, and maintenance work;

(2) construction, installation, maintenance of electric and telephone utility lines or individual service connection to the utility lines;

(3) septic tank lines or drainage fields unless included in an overall plan for a land disturbance activity relating to construction of a building to be served by the septic tank system;

(4) tilling, planting, or harvesting of agricultural, horticultural, or silvicultural crops;

(5) preparation for single-family residences separately built, unless in conjunction with multiple construction in subdivision development;

(6) disturbed land areas for commercial or noncommercial uses of less than 10,000 square feet in size, except that the governing body of the statutory or home rule charter city, town, or organization may reduce this exception to a smaller area of disturbed land or qualify the conditions under which this exception applies;

(7) installation of fence, sign, telephone, and electric poles and other kinds of posts or poles; and

(8) emergency work to protect life, limb, or property and emergency repairs, except if the land disturbing activity would have required an approved erosion and sediment control plan except for the emergency, then the land area disturbed shall be shaped and stabilized in accordance with the requirement of the local plan-approving authority or the district when applicable.

Subd. 6. [ORGANIZATION.] "Organization" means a watershed district established under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 112, or a joint powers entity under Minnesota Statutes, section 471.59, within Ramsey county that has the characteristics and the authority specified in Minnesota Statutes, section 473.877, and has more than 25 percent of its area within Ramsey county. Lake improvement or conservation districts are not watershed management organizations.

Subd. 7. [ORGANIZATION SOIL EROSION AND SEDIMENT CONTROL PROGRAM.] "Organization soil erosion and sediment control program" means the soil erosion and sediment control program of the organization. The program must set forth the elements or methods to be employed by a watershed management organization to regulate land disturbance activities to minimize erosion and sedimentation in compliance with the program.

Sec. 3. [EROSION AND SEDIMENT CONTROL PROGRAM.]

Subdivision 1. [ESTABLISHMENT.] The district shall develop a pilot program that contains a model ordinance and conservation specifications for the effective control of soil erosion and sediment deposition that must be met in an organization soil erosion and sediment control program. To assist in the development of the pilot program, the district shall seek the advice of appropriate state and federal agencies, local units of government, and representatives of interests such as residential development and non-residential development.

Subd. 2. [PROGRAM CONTENTS.] The district pilot program shall contain:

(1) relevant physical and developmental information concerning the region, including data relating to land use, soils, hydrology, geology, size of land area being disturbed, proximate water bodies and their characteristics, transportation, and public facilities and services;

(2) a model ordinance;

(3) principles for protecting existing vegetation, adequate revegetation schedules, and run-off control measures; and

(4) conservation specifications and alternative methods for the control of erosion and sediment resulting from land disturbance activities.

Subd. 3. [PROGRAM IMPLEMENTATION.] To implement the district pilot program, the district shall develop and adopt by January 1989 a model ordinance and conservation specifications for soil erosion and sediment control. The district may revise its pilot program as necessary. The district shall give due notice and conduct at least one public hearing on the proposed pilot program before addition or revision.

Subd. 4. [INSPECTION OF PROGRAM.] The program shall be made available for public inspection at the office of the district.

Sec. 4. [ORGANIZATION SOIL EROSION AND SEDIMENT CONTROL PROGRAMS.]

Subdivision 1. [ADOPTION.] Each organization in the district must, within nine months after the adoption of the district program, develop and adopt an organization soil erosion and sediment control program consistent with the district program. Upon written request of an organization, the district shall assist in the preparation of the organization program. The organization shall adopt an organization soil erosion and sediment control program as approved by the district.

Subd. 2. [FAILURE TO ADOPT AN ORGANIZATION PROGRAM.] If an organization fails to adopt an organization soil erosion and sediment control program within the required period, the board of water and soil resources may not approve the watershed plan prepared under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 473. For currently approved plans, an amendment shall be submitted to the board of water and soil resources within one year for approval. If the amendment is not submitted, plan approval must be withdrawn.

Subd. 3. [HEARING REQUIREMENT.] (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of sections 1 to 4, organizations that have adopted local erosion and sediment control programs are not required to conduct public hearings to amend their local programs to conform with the district program except as provided in paragraph (b).

(b) Organizations that choose to adopt conservation specifications or an ordinance that are more stringent than the district program must conduct a public hearing after due notice.

Sec. 5. [RULES.]

Any rules promulgated by the board of water and soil resources pursuant to statute shall supersede any plans, rules, or ordinances enacted pursuant to this section to the extent they may be in conflict.

Sec. 6. [APPLICABILITY.]

The agreement must provide that if the motor fuel franchisor eliminates one or more service bays during the term of the agreement, the franchisor must first pay to the franchisee in cash an amount that fairly and adequately compensates the franchisee for the loss of the service and repair business. The amount of compensation must be determined without regard to:

Adequate consideration may include, without limitation, an agreement to purchase the entire business operated by the franchisee or an agreement to provide equivalent repair facilities for use by the franchisee.

(c) If the franchisor and the franchisee are unable to agree on the amount of compensation, and either the franchisor or the franchisee demands arbitration, the matter must be submitted to binding arbitration in accordance with sections 572.08 to 572.30 and the rules of the American Arbitration Association. Within 30 days after the demand for arbitration, the franchisor and the franchisee shall each select an arbitrator. The two arbitrators shall select a third arbitrator within 45 days after the demand for arbitration. The franchisor and the franchisee shall pay the fees and expenses of the arbitrator each selects, and the franchisor and franchisee shall share equally the fees and expenses of the third arbitrator.

Any grant of authority to self-insure shall continue in effect until revoked by order of the commissioner or until such time as the employer becomes insured.

Subd. 2. [CERTIFIED FINANCIAL STATEMENT.] Each application for self-insurance shall be accompanied by a certified financial statement. Certified financial statements for a period ending more than six months prior to the date of the application must be accompanied by an affidavit, signed by a company officer under oath, stating that there has been no material lessening of the net worth nor other adverse changes in its financial condition since the end of the period.

Subd. 3. [NET WORTH.] Each individual self-insurer shall have and maintain a net worth at least equal to the greater of ten times the retention limit selected with the workers' compensation reinsurance association or one-third the amount of the self-insurer's current annual modified premium. The requirements of this subdivision shall be modified if the self-insurer can demonstrate through a reinsurance program, other than coverage provided by the workers' compensation reinsurance association, that it can pay expected losses without endangering the financial stability of the company.

Subd. 4. [ASSETS, NET WORTH, AND LIQUIDITY.] Each individual self-insurer shall have and maintain sufficient assets, net worth, and liquidity to promptly and completely meet all of its obligations that may arise under chapter 176 or this act. In determining whether a self-insurer meets this requirement, the commissioner shall consider the self-insurer's current ratio; its long-term and short-term debt to equity ratios; its net worth; financial characteristics of the particular industry in which the self-insurer is involved; any recent changes in the management and ownership of the company; any excess insurance purchased by the self-insurer from a licensed company or an authorized surplus line carrier, other than excess insurance from the workers' compensation reinsurance association; any other financial data submitted to the commissioner by the company; and the company's workers' compensation experience for the last four years.

Subd. 5. [GUARANTEE BY AFFILIATES.] Where an employer seeking to self-insure fails to meet the financial requirements set forth in subdivisions 3 and 4, the commissioner shall grant authority to self-insure provided that an affiliated company, whose financial statement is filed with the commissioner and meets the requirements set forth in subdivisions 3 and 4, provides a written guarantee adopted by resolution of its board of directors that it will pay all workers' compensation claims incurred by its affiliate, and that it will not terminate the guarantee under any circumstances without first giving the commissioner and its affiliate 30 days' written notice. If said guarantee is withdrawn or if the guarantor ceases being an affiliate, the affiliate shall give written notice to the commissioner and the self-insured. The self-insured's authority to self-insure shall automatically terminate upon expiration of the 30-day notice period.

Subd. 6. [APPLICATIONS FOR GROUP SELF-INSURANCE.] (a) Two or more employers may apply to the commissioner for the authority to self-insure as a group, using forms available from the commissioner. This initial application shall be accompanied by a copy of the bylaws or plan of operation adopted by the group. Such bylaws or plan of operation shall conform to the conditions prescribed by law or rule. The commissioner shall approve or disapprove the bylaws within 30 days unless a question as to the legality of a specific bylaw or plan provision has been referred to the attorney general's office. The commissioner shall make a determination as to the application within 15 days after receipt of the requested response from the attorney general's office.

(b) After the initial application and the bylaws or plan of operation have been approved by the commissioner or at the time of the initial application, the group shall submit the names of employers that will be members of the group; an indemnity agreement providing for joint and several liability for all group members for any and all workers' compensation claims incurred by any member of the group, as set forth in Minnesota Rules, part 2780.9920; signed by an officer of each member; and an accounting review performed by a certified public accountant. A certified financial audit may be filed in lieu of an accounting review.

Subd. 7. [FINANCIAL STANDARDS.] A group proposing to self-insure shall have and maintain:

(a) A combined net worth of all of the members of an amount at least equal to the greater of ten times the retention selected with the workers' compensation reinsurance association or one-third of the current annual modified premium of the members. The requirements of this item shall be modified if the self-insurer can demonstrate that through excess insurance, other than coverage provided by the workers' compensation reinsurance association, it can pay expected losses.

(b) Sufficient assets, net worth, and liquidity to promptly and completely meet all obligations of its members under chapter 176 or this act. In determining whether a group is in sound financial condition, consideration shall be given to the combined net worth of the member companies; the consolidated long-term and short-term debt to equity ratios of the member companies; any excess insurance other than reinsurance with the workers' compensation reinsurance association, purchased by the group from an insurer licensed in Minnesota or from an authorized surplus line carrier; other financial data requested by the commissioner or submitted by the group; and the combined workers' compensation experience of the group for the last four years.

Subd. 8. [PROCESSING APPLICATION.] The commissioner shall grant or deny the group's application to self-insure within 60 days after a complete application has been filed, provided that the time may be extended for an additional 30 days upon 15 days' prior notice to the applicant. The commissioner shall grant approval for self-insurance upon a determination that the financial ability of the self-insurer's group is sufficient to fulfill all joint and several obligations of the member companies that may arise under chapter 176 or this act; the gross annual premium of the group members is at least $300,000; the group has established a fund pursuant to Minnesota Rules, parts 2780.4100 to 2780.5000; the group has contracted with a licensed workers' compensation service company to administer its program; and the required securities or surety bond shall be on deposit prior to the effective date of coverage for any member. Approval shall be effective until revoked by order of the commissioner or until the employer members of the group become insured.

Subd. 9. [FILING REPORTS.] (a) Incurred losses, paid and unpaid, specifying indemnity and medical losses by classification, payroll by classification, and current estimated outstanding liability for workers' compensation shall be reported to the commissioner by each self-insurer on a calendar year basis, in a manner and on forms available from the commissioner. Payroll information must be filed by April 1 of the following year, and loss information and total workers' compensation liability must be filed by August 1 of the following year.

(b) Each self-insurer shall, under oath, attest to the accuracy of each report submitted pursuant to paragraph (a). Upon sufficient cause, the commissioner shall require the self-insurer to submit a certified audit of payroll and claim records conducted by an independent auditor approved by the commissioner, based on generally accepted accounting principles and generally accepted auditing standards, and supported by an actuarial review and opinion of the future contingent liabilities. The basis for sufficient cause shall include the following factors: where the losses reported appear significantly different from similar types of businesses; where major changes in the reports exist from year to year, which are not solely attributable to economic factors; or where the commissioner has reason to believe that the losses and payroll in the report do not accurately reflect the losses and payroll of that employer. If any discrepancy is found, the commissioner shall require changes in the self-insurer's or workers' compensation service company record keeping practices.

(c) With the annual loss report due August 1, each self-insurer shall report to the commissioner any workers' compensation claim from the previous year where the full, undiscounted value is estimated to exceed $50,000, in a manner and on forms prescribed by the commissioner.

(d) Each individual self-insurer shall, within four months after the end of its fiscal year, annually file with the commissioner its latest 10K report required by the Securities and Exchange Commission. If an individual self-insurer does not prepare a 10K report, it shall file an annual certified financial statement, together with such other financial information as the commissioner may require to substantiate data in the financial statement.

(e) Each group self-insurer shall, within four months after the end of the fiscal year for that group, annually file a statement showing the combined net worth of its members based upon an accounting review performed by a certified public accountant, together with such other financial information the commissioner may require to substantiate data in the group's summary statement.

(f) In addition to the financial statements required by paragraphs (d) and (e), interim financial statements or 10Q reports required by the Securities and Exchange Commission may be required by the commissioner upon an indication that there has been deterioration in the self-insurer's financial condition, including a worsening of current ratio, lessening of net worth, net loss of income, the downgrading of the company's bond rating, or any other significant change that may adversely affect the self-insurer's ability to pay expected losses. Any self-insurer that files an 8K report with the Securities and Exchange Commission shall also file a copy of the report with the commissioner within 30 days of the filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Subd. 10. [ANNUAL AUDIT.] The accounts and records of the group self-insurer's fund shall be audited annually. Audits shall be made by certified public accountants, based on generally accepted accounting principles and generally accepted auditing standards, and supported by actuarial review and opinion of the future contingent liabilities, in order to determine the solvency of the self-insurer's fund. All audits required by this subdivision shall be filed with the commissioner 90 days after the close of the fiscal year for the group self-insurer. The commissioner may require a special audit to be made at other times if the financial stability of the fund or the adequacy of its monetary reserves is in question.

Subd. 11. [JOINT AND SEVERAL LIABILITY.] All members of a private self-insurer group shall be jointly and severally liable for the obligations incurred by any member of the same group under chapter 176.

Subd. 12. [COMMISSIONER REVIEW.] The commissioner shall annually review the documents and reports filed by the private self-insurer.

Sec. 3. [176C.03] [PRIVATE SELF-INSURING EMPLOYER; ANNUAL RENEWAL OR DEPOSIT OF NEW SECURITY FOR PAYMENT OF COMPENSATION.]

Subdivision 1. [ANNUAL SECURING OF LIABILITY.] Each year every private self-insuring employer shall secure incurred liabilities for the payment of compensation and the performance of the obligations of employers imposed under chapter 176 by renewing the prior year's security deposit or by making a new deposit of security. If a new deposit is made, it must be posted within 60 days of the filing of the self-insured employer's annual report with the commissioner, but in no event later than July 1.

Subd. 2. [MINIMUM DEPOSIT.] The minimum deposit is 110 percent of the private self-insurer's estimated future liability. Up to ten percent of that deposit may be used to secure payment of all administrative and legal costs relating to or arising from the employer's self-insuring. As used in this section, "private self-insurers' estimated future liability" means the private self-insurers' total of estimated future liability as determined by a member of the casualty actuarial society every two years for non-group member private self-insurers, and every year for group member private self-insurers. Estimated future liability is determined by first taking the total amount of the self-insured's future liability of workers' compensation claims and then deducting the total amount which is estimated to be returned to the self-insurer from any specific excess insurance coverage, aggregate excess insurance coverage, and any supplementary benefits or second injury benefits which are estimated to be reimbursed by the special compensation fund. Supplementary benefits or second injury benefits will not be reimbursed by the special compensation fund unless the special compensation fund assessment pursuant to section 176.129 is paid and the reports required thereunder are filed with the special compensation fund. In the case of surety bonds, bonds shall secure administrative and legal costs in addition to the liability for payment of compensation reflected on the face of the bond. In no event shall the security be less than the last retention limit selected by the self-insurer with the workers' compensation reinsurance association. The posting or depositing of security pursuant to this section shall release all previously posted or deposited securities from any obligations under the posting or depositing.

Subd. 3. [TYPE OF ACCEPTABLE SECURITY.] The commissioner may only accept as security, and the employer shall deposit as security, cash, approved government securities, surety bonds, or irrevocable letters of credit in any combination. Interest or dividend income or other income generated by the security shall be paid to the member or, at the member's direction, applied to the member's security requirement. The current deposit shall include within its coverage all amounts covered by terminated surety bonds. As used in this chapter, an irrevocable letter of credit shall be accepted only if it is clean, irrevocable, and contains an evergreen clause.

(a) "Clean" means a letter of credit that is not conditioned on the delivery of any other documents or materials.

(b) "Irrevocable" means a letter of credit that cannot be modified or revoked without the consent of the beneficiary, once the beneficiary is established.

(c) "Evergreen clause" means one which specifically states that expiration of a letter of credit will not take place without a 60-day notice by the insurer and one which allows the issuer to conduct an annual review of the account party's financial condition. If prior notice of expiration is not given by the issuer, the letter of credit is automatically extended for one year.

A clean irrevocable letter of credit shall be accepted only if it is in the form prescribed by statute and is issued by a financial institution that is authorized to engage in banking in any of the 50 states or under the laws of the United States and whose business is substantially confined to banking and supervised by the state commissioner of commerce or banking or similar official, and which has a long-term debt rating by a recognized national rating agency of investment grade or better. If no long-term debt rating is available, the financial institution must have the equivalent investment grade financial characteristics.

Subd. 4. [EXONERATION OF SECURITY.] Surety bonds, irrevocable letters of credit, and documents showing issuance of any irrevocable letter of credit shall be deposited with, and, except where specified by statute, in a form approved by the commissioner.

Subd. 5. [DEPOSIT WITH STATE TREASURER.] Securities shall be deposited on behalf of the commissioner by the self-insured employer with the state treasurer or a financial institution approved by the commissioner. Securities shall be accepted by the state treasurer for deposit and shall be withdrawn only upon written order of the commissioner.

Subd. 6. [CASH DEPOSITS.] Cash shall be deposited in a financial institution approved by the commissioner, and in the account assigned to the state treasurer. Cash shall be withdrawn only upon written order of the commissioner.

Subd. 7. [PERFECTION OF SECURITY.] Upon the commissioner sending a request to renew, request to post, or request to increase a security deposit, a perfected security interest is created in the private self-insured's assets in favor of the commissioner to the extent of any then unsecured portion of the self-insured's incurred liabilities. That perfected security interest is transferred to any cash or securities thereafter posted by the private self-insured with the state treasurer and is released only upon either of the following:

(1) the acceptance by the commissioner of a surety bond or irrevocable letter of credit for the full amount of the incurred liabilities for the payment of compensation; or

(2) the return of cash or securities by the commissioner.

The private self-insured employer loses all right, title, and interest in and any right to control all assets or obligations posted or left on deposit as security. In the event of a declaration of bankruptcy or insolvency by a court of competent jurisdiction, or in the event of the issuance of a certificate of default by the commissioner, the commissioner shall liquidate the deposit as provided in this chapter, and transfer it to the self-insurer's security fund for application to the self-insured employer's incurred liability.

Subd. 8. [RETURN OF EXCESS AMOUNTS OF SECURITY TO PRIVATE SELF-INSURED EMPLOYER.] The commissioner shall return on an annual basis to a private self-insured employer all amounts of security determined by the commissioner to be in excess of the statutory requirements to self-insure, including that necessary for administrative costs and legal fees, and the payment of any future workers' compensation claims.

Subd. 9. [INSOLVENCY, BANKRUPTCY, OR DEFAULT; UTILIZATION OF SECURITY DEPOSIT.] The commissioner of labor and industry shall notify the commissioner and the security fund if the commissioner of labor and industry has knowledge that any private self-insurer has failed to pay workers' compensation benefits as required by chapter 176. If the commissioner determines that a court of competent jurisdiction has declared the private self-insurer to be bankrupt or insolvent, and the private self-insurer has failed to pay workers' compensation as required by chapter 176 or, if the commissioner issues a certificate of default against a private self-insurer for failure to pay workers' compensation as required by chapter 176, then the security deposit shall be utilized to administer and pay the private self-insurers' workers' compensation obligations.

Subd. 10. [NOTICE; OBLIGATION OF FUND.] In the event of bankruptcy, insolvency, or certificate of default, the commissioner shall immediately notify the state treasurer, the surety, the issuer of an irrevocable letter of credit, and any custodian of the security required in this chapter. At the time of notification, the commissioner shall also call the security and transfer and assign it to the self-insurers' security fund. The commissioner shall also immediately notify the self-insurers' security fund, and order the security fund to assume the insolvent self-insurers' obligations for which it is liable under chapter 176. The security fund shall commence payment of these obligations within 14 days of this notification and order. Payments shall be made to claimants whose entitlement to benefits can be ascertained by the security fund, with or without proceedings before the department of labor and industry, the office of administrative hearings, the workers' compensation court of appeals, or the Minnesota supreme court. Upon the assumption of obligations by the security fund pursuant to the commissioner's notification and order, the security fund has the right to immediate possession of any posted or deposited security and the custodian, surety, or issuer of any irrevocable letter of credit or the commissioner, if in possession of it, shall turn over the security, proceeds of the surety bond, or letter of credit to the security fund together with the interest that has accrued since the date of the self-insured employer's insolvency. The self-insurers' security fund may administer payment of benefits, or it may retain a third-party administrator to do so.

Subd. 11. [PRIORITY.] Notwithstanding anything in this chapter to the contrary, any cash, securities, irrevocable letter of credit, specific excess or aggregate excess insurance proceeds, or any other security deposited or posted in accordance with this section shall be used first, when due, to pay workers' compensation claims. After that security has been exhausted, the payment of workers' compensation claims from self-insurers' security fund members' assessments may be made. Where the self-insurers' security fund member assessment account is used to pay workers' compensation claims on an emergency or an interim basis, pending receipt by the self-insurers' security fund of security which is due but not yet received, then the member assessment account shall be reimbursed for payment from the security when it is received, and the priorities stated above shall thereafter apply.

Subd. 12. [DUTY TO INFORM.] The commissioner shall be provided with any relevant information by the employer, any excess insurer, any third party administrator, or any issuer of any irrevocable letter of credit, issuer of any surety bond, or custodian of any security necessary for the commissioner to carry out the commissioner's obligations under this chapter. The commissioner shall provide this information to the self-insurers' security fund if necessary for the security fund to carry out its obligations under this chapter.

Subd. 13. [DISCHARGE AND RELEASE.] The payment of benefits by the self-insurers' security fund from security deposit proceeds shall release and discharge any custodian of the security deposit, surety, any issuer of a letter of credit, and the self-insured employer from liability to fulfill obligations to provide those same benefits as compensation, but does not release any person or entity from any liability to the security fund for full reimbursement. Any decision or determination made or any settlement approved by the commissioner or by an administrative law judge under subdivision 15 shall conclusively be presumed valid and binding as to all known claims arising out of the underlying dispute, unless an appeal is made pursuant to chapter 14. No security shall be exchanged more often than once every 90 days.

Subd. 14. [NOTICE TO SECURITY FUND.] The commissioner shall advise the self-insurers' security fund promptly after the receipt of information indicating that a private self-insurer may be unable to meet its compensation obligations. The commissioner shall advise the self-insurers' security fund of all determinations and directives and orders made or issued pursuant to this section.

Subd. 15. [DISPUTE RESOLUTION; APPEALS.] Disputes concerning the posting, renewal, termination, exoneration, or return of all or any portion of the security deposit, or any liability arising out of the posting or failure to post security, or adequacy of the security or reasonableness of administrative costs, including legal fees, and arising between or among a surety, the issuer of an agreement of assumption and guarantee of workers' compensation liabilities, the issuer of a letter of credit, any custodian of the security deposit, a private self-insurer, or the self-insurers' security fund shall be resolved by the commissioner. An appeal from the commissioner's written decision, determination, or order may be instituted pursuant to the contested case procedures of chapter 14. Payment of claims from the security deposit or by the self-insurers' security fund shall not be stayed pending the resolution of the disputes unless and until the administrative law judge issues a determination staying a payment of claims decision or determination of the commissioner or the self-insurers' security fund.

Subd. 16. [CERTIFICATE TO SELF-INSURE; REVOCATION.] If, following a private self-insurer's bankruptcy, insolvency, or certificate of default, the commissioner calls its security and proceeds in accordance with this section, the commissioner shall revoke the certificate to self-insure of the private self-insurer as soon as practicable but no later than 30 days after its security has been called.

Sec. 4. [176C.04] [REVOCATION OF CERTIFICATE TO SELF-INSURE.]

A certificate to self-insure may be revoked by the commissioner at any time for good cause. After revocation, the self-insurer may request a hearing. Good cause includes, among other things, failure to maintain a security deposit as required by this chapter, failure to pay assessments of the self-insurers' security fund, or the failure or inability of the employer to fulfill obligations under chapter 176 or this chapter. Good cause also includes failure to provide proof of renewal of the security 15 days before its expiration.

A self-insured employer must comply with section 176.181 and all applicable rules to operate during the pendency of its appeal of a decision under this section.

Sec. 5. [176C.05] [THIRD-PARTY ADMINISTRATOR.]

Subdivision 1. [CERTIFICATE TO SELF-INSURE.] No person, firm, or corporation, other than an insurer admitted to transact workers' compensation insurance in this state, shall contract to administer claims of self-insured employers as a third-party administrator unless qualified to do so pursuant to section 60A.23, subdivision 8.

Subd. 2. [LOCAL OFFICE.] A third-party administrator who contracts to administer claims of a self-insured employer shall maintain an office in the state of Minnesota and shall be subject to regulation under this chapter and chapters 60A and 72A with respect to the adjustment, administration, and management of workers' compensation claims for any self-insured employer.

Subd. 3. [ANNUAL ESTIMATE OF LIABILITY.] A third-party administrator retained by a self-insured employer to administer the employer's workers' compensation claims shall estimate the total accrued liability of the employer for the payment of compensation for the employer's annual report to the commissioner and shall make the estimate both in good faith and with the exercise of a reasonable degree of care. The use of a third-party administrator does not discharge or alter the employer's responsibilities with respect to the report.

Subd. 4. [FAILURE TO SUBMIT REPORTS OR INFORMATION; PENALTY.] Failure to submit reports to the commissioner as required by this chapter may result in the assessment of a penalty which shall not exceed $3,000 for each month or fraction thereof the report is past due. Failure to submit reports required by statute within 60 days from the due date without written consent of the commissioner shall result in the revocation of the certificate to self-insure. Penalties shall be deposited in the self-insurers security fund.

Subd. 5. [PRIVATE EMPLOYERS WHO HAVE CEASED TO BE SELF-INSURED.] Private employers who have ceased to be private self-insurers shall discharge their continuing obligations to secure the payment of compensation which is accrued during the period of self-insurance, for purposes of sections 1 to 17 by compliance with all of the following obligations of current certificate holders:

(1) Filing reports with the commissioner to carry out the requirements of this chapter;

(2) Depositing and maintaining a security deposit for accrued liability for the payment of any compensation which may become due, pursuant to chapter 176. However, if a private employer who has ceased to be a private self-insurer purchases an insurance policy from an insurer authorized to transact workers' compensation insurance in this state which provides coverage of all claims for compensation arising out of injuries occurring during the period the employer was self-insured, whether or not reported during that period, the policy will discharge the obligation of the employer to maintain a security deposit for the payment of the claims covered under the policy. The policy may not be issued by an insurer unless it has previously been approved as to form and substance by the commissioner; and

(3) Paying within 30 days all assessments of which notice is sent by the security fund, for a period of seven years from the last day its certificate of self-insurance was in effect. Thereafter, the private employer who has ceased to be a private self-insurer may either: (a) continue to pay within 30 days all assessments of which notice is sent by the security fund until it has no incurred liabilities for the payment of compensation arising out of injuries during the period of self-insurance; or (b) pay the security fund a cash payment equal to four percent of the net present value of all remaining incurred liabilities for the payment of compensation under sections 176.101 and 176.111 as certified by a member of the casualty actuarial society. Assessments shall be based on the benefits paid by the employer during the last full calendar year of self-insurance on claims incurred during that year.

In addition to proceedings to establish liabilities and penalties otherwise provided, a failure to comply may be the subject of a proceeding before the commissioner. An appeal from the commissioner's determination may be taken pursuant to the contested case procedures of chapter 14, within 30 days of the commissioner's written determination.

Any current or past member of the self-insurers' security fund is subject to service of process on any claim arising out of chapter 176 or this chapter in the manner provided by section 303.13, subdivision 1, clause (3), or as otherwise provided by law. The issuance of a certificate to self-insure to the private self-insured employer shall be deemed to be the agreement that any process which is served in accordance with this section shall be of the same legal force and effect as if served personally within this state.

Sec. 6. [176C.06] [PREFERRED SUBROGATION RIGHTS OF SELF-INSURERS' SECURITY FUND OR SURETY.]

The self-insurers' security fund by making payment of compensation under this chapter has the same preference over the other debts of the principal or the principal's estate as is given by law to the person directly entitled to the compensation.

Sec. 7. [176C.07] [LEGISLATIVE INTENT.]

It is the intent of the legislature in enacting sections 7 to 9 to provide for the continuation of workers' compensation benefits delayed due to the failure of a private self-insured employer to meet its compensation obligations, whenever the commissioner of commerce issues a certificate of default or there is a declaration of bankruptcy or insolvency by a court of competent jurisdiction. With respect to the continued liability of a surety for claims that arise under a bond after termination of that bond and to a surety's liability for the cost of administration of claims, it is the intent of the legislature to provide that that liability ceases upon lawful termination of that bond. This applies to all surety bonds which are purchased by the self-insured employer after the effective date of this section. The legislature finds and declares that the establishment of the self-insurers' security fund is a necessary component of a complete system of workers' compensation, required by chapter 176, to have adequate provisions for the comfort, health, safety, and general welfare of any and all workers and their dependents to the extent of relieving the consequences of any industrial injury or death, and full provision for securing the payment of compensation.

Sec. 8. [176C.08] [SECURITY FUND.]

Subdivision 1. [CREATION.] The self-insurers' security fund is established as a nonprofit corporation pursuant to the Minnesota nonprofit corporation act, sections 317.01 to 317.69. If any provision of the Minnesota nonprofit corporation act conflicts with any provision of this chapter, the provisions of this chapter apply. Each private self-insurer who is self-insured on the effective date of this act, or who becomes self-insured thereafter, shall participate as a member in the security fund. This participation shall be a condition of maintaining its certificate to self-insure.

Subd. 2. [BOARD OF TRUSTEES.] The security fund shall be governed by a nine-member board of trustees. Five of the trustees shall be representatives of private self-insurers who shall be elected by the members of the security fund, other than group self-insurers, each member having one vote. One of the trustees shall be a representative of the private group self-insurers who shall be elected by the members of the security fund who are group self-insurers, each group having one vote. Three of the trustees, including the group self-insurer trustee, initially elected by the members shall serve two-year terms, and three shall serve four-year terms. Thereafter, trustees shall be elected to four-year terms, and shall serve until their successors are elected and assume office pursuant to the bylaws of the security fund. Three additional trustees shall be appointed by the commissioner. Two of these trustees shall serve four-year terms. One of these trustees shall serve a two-year term. Thereafter, the trustees shall be appointed to four-year terms, and shall serve until their successors are appointed and assume office pursuant to the bylaws of the security fund. In addition to the nine trustees elected by the members or appointed by the commissioner, the commissioner or the commissioner's designee shall be an ex officio, nonvoting member of the board of trustees. A member of the board of trustees may designate another person to act in the member's place as though the member were acting and the designee's actions shall be deemed those of the member.

Subd. 3. [BYLAWS.] The security fund shall establish bylaws and a plan of operation, subject to the prior approval of the commissioner, necessary to the purposes of this chapter and to carry out the responsibilities of the security fund. The security fund may carry out its responsibilities directly or by contract, and may purchase services and insurance and borrow funds as it deems necessary for the protection of the members and their employees.

Subd. 4. [CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.] The security fund may receive private data concerning the financial condition of private self-insurers whose liabilities to pay compensation have become its responsibility and shall adopt bylaws to prevent dissemination of that information.

Subd. 5. [EMPLOYEES.] Security fund employees are not state employees and are not subject to any state civil service regulations.

Sec. 9. [176C.09] [ASSUMPTION OF WORKERS' COMPENSATION OBLIGATIONS OF INSOLVENT SELF-INSURER.]

Subdivision 1. [ORDER OF COMMISSIONER.] Upon order of the commissioner of commerce pursuant to section 3, subdivision 10, the security fund shall assume the workers' compensation obligations of an insolvent private self-insurer.

Subd. 2. [ACT OR OMISSIONS; PENALTIES.] Notwithstanding subdivision 1, the security fund shall not be liable for the payment of any penalties assessed for any act or omission on the part of any person other than the security fund or its appointed administrator, including, but not limited to, the penalties provided in chapter 176 unless the security fund or its appointed administrator would be subject to penalties under chapter 176 as the result of the actions of the security fund or its administrator.

Subd. 3. [PARTY IN INTEREST.] The security fund shall be a party in interest in all proceedings involving compensation claims against an insolvent self-insurer whose compensation obligations have been paid or assumed by the security fund. The security fund shall have the same rights and defenses as the insolvent private self-insurer, including, but not limited to, all of the following:

- (1) to appear, defend, and appeal claims;*
- (2) to receive notice of, investigate, adjust, compromise, settle, and pay claims; and*
- (3) to investigate, handle, and deny claims.*

Subd. 4. [PAYMENTS TO SECURITY FUND.] Notwithstanding anything in this chapter or chapter 176 to the contrary, in the event that the self-insurers' security fund assumes the obligations of any bankrupt or insolvent private self-insurer pursuant to this section, then the proceeds of any surety bond, workers' compensation reinsurance association, specific excess insurance or aggregate excess insurance policy, and any special compensation fund payment or second injury fund or supplementary benefit reimbursements shall be paid to the self-insurers' security fund instead of the bankrupt or insolvent private self-insurer or its successor in interest. No special compensation fund reimbursements shall be made to the security fund unless the special compensation fund assessments pursuant to section 176.129 are paid and the reports required thereunder are made to the special compensation fund.

Sec. 10. [176C.10] [REIMBURSEMENT FOR OBLIGATIONS PAID AND ASSUMED.]

Subdivision 1. [INSOLVENT INSURER.] The security fund shall have the right and obligation to obtain reimbursement from an insolvent private self-insurer up to the amount of the private self-insurer's workers' compensation obligations paid and assumed by the security fund, including reasonable administrative and legal costs. This right includes, but is not limited to, a right to claim for wages and other necessities of life advanced to claimants as subrogee of the claimants in any action to collect against the private self-insurer as debtor.

Subd. 2. [SECURITY DEPOSITS.] The security fund shall have the right and obligation to obtain from the security deposit of an insolvent private self-insurer the amount of the private self-insurer's compensation obligations, including reasonable administrative and legal costs, paid or assumed by the security fund. Reimbursement of administrative costs, including legal costs, shall be subject to approval by a majority of the nesota, as Surety, are held and firmly bound to the State of Minnesota in the penal sum of dollars ($) for which payment we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents.

WHEREAS in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, chapter 176, the principal elected to self-insure, and made application for, or received from the commissioner of commerce of the state of Minnesota, a certificate to self-insure, upon furnishing of proof satisfactory to the commissioner of commerce of ability to self-insure and to compensate any or all employees of said principal for injury or disability, and their dependents for death incurred or sustained by said employees, pursuant to the terms, provisions, and limitations of said statute;

NOW THEREFORE, the conditions of this bond or obligation are such that if principal shall pay and furnish compensation, pursuant to the terms, provisions, and limitations of said statute to its employees for injury or disability, and to the dependents of its employees, then this bond or obligation shall be null and void; otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

FURTHERMORE, it is understood and agreed that:

1. This bond may be amended, by agreement between the parties hereto and the commissioner of commerce as to the identity of the principal herein named and, by agreement of the parties hereto, as to the premium or rate of premium. Such amendment must be by endorsement upon, or rider to, this bond, executed by the surety and delivered to or filed with the commissioner.

2. The surety does, by these presents, undertake and agree that the obligation of this bond shall cover and extend to all past, present, existing, and potential liability of said principal, as a self-insurer, to the extent of the penal sum herein named without regard to specific injuries, date or dates of injuries, happenings or events.

3. The penal sum of this bond may be increased or decreased, by agreement between the parties hereto and the commissioner of commerce, without impairing the obligation incurred under this bond for the overall coverage of the said principal, for all past, present, existing, and potential liability, as a self-insurer, without regard to specific injuries, date or dates of injuries, happenings or events, to the extent, in the aggregate, of the penal sum as increased or decreased. Such amendment must be by endorsement.

4. This bond shall be continuous in form and shall remain in full force and effect unless terminated in the manner provided by law.

5. The aggregate liability of the surety hereunder on all claims whatsoever shall not exceed the penal sum of this bond in any event.

6. In the event of a change in the proprietorship of the principal or the appointment of a receiver or trustee for said principal and 30 days after the receipt of notice by the commissioner of commerce, state of Minnesota, given by registered or certified mail, by the principal or surety, herein named, the obligation of this bond shall terminate, save and except as to all past, present, existing, and potential liability of the principal incurred as a self-insurer. This bond shall also terminate upon the revocation of the certificate to self-insure, save and except as to all past, present, existing, and potential liability of the principal, incurred as a self-insurer; and the principal and the surety, herein named, shall be notified in writing by said commissioner, in the event of such revocation.

7. If the said principal shall suspend payment of workers' compensation benefits or shall become insolvent or a receiver shall be appointed for its business, the undersigned surety will become liable for the workers' compensation obligations of the principal on the date benefits are suspended and the surety shall begin payments within 30 days after receipt of written notification by the commissioner of commerce of Minnesota to begin payments under the terms of this bond.

8. When the surety exercises its obligation to pay claims, it shall pay benefits due to the principal's injured workers without a form award of a compensation judge, the commissioner of labor and industry, the workers' compensation court of appeals, or the Minnesota supreme court, and such payment will be a credit against the penal sum of the bond. Administrative and legal costs incurred by the surety in discharging its obligations shall also be a charge against the penal sum of the bond; however, the total amount of this surety bond set aside for the payment of said administrative and legal expenses shall be limited to a maximum of ten percent of the total penal sum of the bond pursuant to Minnesota Statutes. Payment by the surety of the principal's obligation for administrative and legal expenses under said statute in an amount not to exceed ten percent of the penal sum of the bond shall satisfy in full the surety's obligation to pay said administrative and legal expenses of the principal.

9. If any part or provision of this bond shall be declared unenforceable or held to be invalid by a court of proper jurisdiction, such determination shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the other provisions or parts of this bond.

10. If the commissioner of commerce directs the self-insurers' security fund to assume the payment of the workers' compensation obligations of the principal pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, chapter 176, the surety shall pay upon written demand by the commissioner and within 30 days of receipt of such demand to the self-insurers' security fund the entire penal sum of the bond that remains unpaid.

11. Disputes concerning the posting, renewal, termination, exoneration, or return of all or any portion of the principal's security deposit or any liability arising out of the posting or failure to post security, or the adequacy of the security or the reasonableness of administrative costs, including legal costs, arising between or among a surety, the issuer of an agreement of assumption and guarantee of workers' compensation liabilities, the issuer of a letter of credit, any custodian of the security deposit, the principal, or the self-insurers' security fund shall be resolved by the commissioner of commerce pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, chapter 176 and sections 1 to 17.

The port authority commission may exercise any of these powers within industrial development districts or within other property under the jurisdiction of the commission. The port authority commission may enter into agreements with nonprofit organizations or corporations, limited to joint venture and limited partnership agreements, in order to carry out its purposes. If the city establishes a port authority commission under this section, the city shall exercise all the powers in dealing with a port authority that are granted to a city by Minnesota Statutes, chapter 458, and all powers in dealing with a housing and redevelopment authority that are granted to a city by Minnesota Statutes, chapter 462, or other law.

Subd. 3. [TRANSFER RESERVES.] The enabling resolution may require the port authority to transfer a portion of the reserves generated by activities of the port authority that the city council determines is not necessary for the successful operation of the port authority, to the city general fund, to be used for any general purpose of the city. Reserves previously pledged by the port authority must not be transferred.

Subd. 4. [BOND APPROVAL.] The enabling resolution may require that the sale of bonds or obligations other than general obligation tax supported bonds or obligations issued by the port authority be approved by the city council before issuance.

Subd. 5. [BUDGET PROCESS.] The enabling resolution may require that the port authority follow the budget process for city departments as provided by the city and as implemented by the city council and mayor.

Within 30 days of receipt of the recommendation, the city council shall review the enabling resolution, consider the recommendations of the port authority, and make any modification it considers appropriate. A copy of the charges must be given to the commissioner at least ten days before the hearing. The commissioner must be given an opportunity to be heard in person or by counsel at the hearing. After the charges have been submitted to a commissioner, the city council may temporarily suspend the commissioner. If a commissioner is removed, a record of the proceedings, together with the charges and findings, must be filed in the office of the city clerk.

"Section 1. [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SCOPE.] For purposes of sections 1 to 3, the following terms have the meanings given them in this section.

Subd. 2. [BOARD.] "Board" means the Gillette children's hospital board established by Minnesota Statutes, section 250.05, subdivision 1.

Subd. 3. [NONPROFIT CORPORATION.] "Nonprofit corporation" means the entity formed in accordance with section 2, subdivision 1.

Sec. 2. [INCORPORATION AS NONPROFIT CORPORATION.]

Subdivision 1. [INCORPORATION.] The board may incorporate as a nonprofit corporation under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 317. Upon incorporating in accordance with this subdivision, the resulting nonprofit corporation ceases to be a public corporation in the executive branch of state government.

Subd. 2. [EMPLOYEES.] (a) Employees of the nonprofit corporation are not state employees. A person who is an employee of the board and a member of the Minnesota state employees retirement association at the time of an incorporation under subdivision 1 may, however, at the person's option:

(1) continue the person's membership in the association; or

(2) terminate the person's membership in the association and become a member of a retirement system established and maintained by the nonprofit corporation.

(b) For a person who elects continuing membership in the Minnesota state retirement system, the nonprofit corporation shall pay the employer contributions required by Minnesota Statutes, section 352.04, subdivision 3, and shall deduct from the person's salary and transmit to the association the employee contribution required by section 352.04, subdivision 2.

(c) A person who elects to transfer to the nonprofit corporation's retirement plan may, at the person's option, receive from the association a refund of the employer and employee contributions made on the person's behalf, plus interest at the rate of six percent compounded annually, or elect a deferred annuity under Minnesota Statutes, section 352.22, subdivision 3.

(d) An election under this subdivision must be made within two years of the date of the incorporation. An election is irrevocable.

Subd. 3. [PROPERTY.] Personal property of the board other than fixtures becomes property of the nonprofit corporation upon incorporation in accordance with subdivision 1. The board's interest in the buildings constituting St. Paul-Ramsey hospital under the agreement among the board, the city of St. Paul, and Ramsey county made on February 19, 1975, is transferred upon incorporation to the city and the county in proportion to their current interests.

Subd. 4. [LEASEHOLD INTEREST.] Notwithstanding subdivision 3, the city of St. Paul and Ramsey county shall grant the nonprofit corporation a leasehold interest in the areas of buildings owned by the board under article 2 of the February 19, 1975, agreement. Except as otherwise provided in this act or agreed to by the nonprofit corporation, the city, and the county, the terms of the lease must be no less favorable to the nonprofit corporation than the terms of the board's occupancy. The lease must be for a term of 30 years, but is terminable by the nonprofit corporation if the nonprofit corporation vacates those areas entirely or partially, by the nonprofit corporation or the city and county if the nonprofit corporation ceases to provide hospital or medical services in the leased areas, or upon mutual agreement of the parties. Unless agreed to by the city and the county, the leasehold interest under this subdivision may be transferred by the nonprofit corporation only to a successor nonprofit corporation into which the nonprofit corporation may merge, of which it may become a subsidiary, or that may be formed by the nonprofit corporation and another nonprofit corporation.

Sec. 3. [AFFILIATION.]

Along with the other powers of a nonprofit corporation, the nonprofit corporation may agree to affiliate with Minneapolis children's medical center or its parent corporation, Minneapolis ChildCare, to improve the coordination and efficiency of the two institutions in providing comprehensive health care to children. The nonprofit corporation may become subsidiary of, and delegate management powers and functions to, Minneapolis ChildCare.

Sec. 4. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 250.05, subdivisions 1, 2a, 3, 4, 5, and 6, are repealed. Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, section 250.05, subdivisions 2 and 7, are repealed.

Sec. 5. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 3 are effective the day following final enactment. Section 4 is effective upon the filing of the articles of incorporation with the secretary of state effecting an incorporation under section 2, subdivision 1."

Sec. 4. [356A.04] [GENERAL STANDARD OF FIDUCIARY CONDUCT.]

Subdivision 1. [DUTY.] A fiduciary of a covered pension plan, in performing a fiduciary duty or serving in a fiduciary position, owes a fiduciary duty to:

- (1) the state of Minnesota, which established the plan;*
- (2) the taxpayers of the state or political subdivision, who help to finance the plan; and*
- (3) the active, deferred, and retired members of the plan, who are its beneficiaries.*

Subd. 2. [PRUDENT PERSON STANDARD.] (a) A fiduciary shall act in good faith, shall exercise that degree of judgment and care, under the circumstances then prevailing, that persons of prudence, discretion, and intelligence would exercise in the management of their own affairs, and shall undertake steps reasonably calculated to gain and to retain the capacity to make informed fiduciary judgments and to undertake an informed exercise of fiduciary discretion.

(b) If a fiduciary activity involves the investment of plan assets, a fiduciary shall act for the purpose of investment, not for speculation, considering the probable safety of the plan capital as well as the probable investment return to be derived from the assets.

Sec. 5. [356A.05] [DUTIES APPLICABLE TO ALL ACTIVITIES.]

(a) A fiduciary activity of a covered pension plan must be carried out solely for the following purposes:

- (1) to provide authorized benefits to plan participants and beneficiaries;*
- (2) to incur and pay reasonable and necessary administrative expenses;*
or
- (3) to manage a covered pension plan in accordance with the purposes and intent of the plan document.*

(b) A fiduciary activity must be carried out faithfully, without prejudice, and in a manner consistent with law and the plan document.

Sec. 6. [356A.06] [INVESTMENTS; ADDITIONAL DUTIES.]

Subdivision 1. [TITLE TO ASSETS.] Assets of a covered pension plan may be held only by the plan treasurer, the state board of investment, or the depository agent of the plan or of the state board of investment. Legal title to plan assets must be vested in the plan, the state board of investment, the governmental entity that sponsors the plan, or the nominee of the plan or the depository agent. The holder of legal title shall function as a trustee for a person or entity with a beneficial interest in the assets of the plan.

Subd. 2. [DIVERSIFICATION.] The investment of plan assets must be diversified to minimize the risk of substantial investment losses unless the circumstances at the time an investment is made clearly indicate that diversification would not be prudent.

Subd. 3. [ABSENCE OF PERSONAL PROFIT.] No fiduciary may personally profit, directly or indirectly, as a result of the investment or management of plan assets. This subdivision, however, does not preclude the receipt by a fiduciary of reasonable compensation, including membership in or the receipt of benefits from a pension plan, for the fiduciary's position with respect to the plan.

Subd. 4. [ECONOMIC INTEREST STATEMENT.] A member of the governing board of a covered pension plan and the chief administrative officer of the plan shall file with the plan a statement of economic interest. The statement must contain the information required by section 10A.09, subdivision 5, and any other information that the fiduciary or the governing board of the plan determines is necessary to disclose a reasonably foreseeable potential or actual conflict of interest. The statement must be filed annually with the chief administrative officer of the plan and be available for public inspection during regular office hours at the office of the pension plan. A disclosure form meeting the requirements of the federal Investment Adviser Act of 1940, as amended, and filed with the state board of investment or the pension plan meets the requirements of this subdivision.

Subd. 5. [INVESTMENT BUSINESS RECIPIENT DISCLOSURE.] The chief administrative officer of a covered pension plan, with respect to investments made by the plan, and the executive director of the state board of investment, with respect to investments of plan assets made by the board, shall annually disclose in writing the recipients of investment business placed with or investment commissions allocated among commercial banks, investment bankers, brokerage organizations, or other investment managers. The disclosure document must be prepared within 60 days after the close of the fiscal year of the plan and must be available for public inspection during regular office hours at the office of the plan. The disclosure document must also be filed with the executive director of the legislative commission on pensions and retirement within 90 days after the close of the fiscal year of the plan. For the state board of investment, a disclosure document included as part of a regular annual report of the board is considered to have been filed on a timely basis.

Subd. 6. [LIMITED LIST OF AUTHORIZED INVESTMENT SECURITIES.] (a) A covered pension plan may invest its assets only in investment securities authorized by this subdivision if the plan does not:

(1) have assets with a book value in excess of $1,000,000;
