Subd. 3. [CONSULTANT.] The commissioner shall contract for each three-year survey with a qualified consultant who has demonstrated expertise in conducting crime victimization surveys.

Subd. 4. [REPORTS.] The commissioner shall report the survey results to the legislature every third year by January 1, beginning January 1, 1993.

Subd. 6. [RIGHT TO BENEFITS UNAFFECTED.] A peace officer who suffers injury or death because that officer failed to wear a vest for which reimbursement was made under this section may not lose or be denied a benefit or right to which the officer, or the officer's heirs, is otherwise entitled. However, nothing in this section prevents a peace officer from being subjected to a disciplinary proceeding, if applicable, for failure to obey a lawful order of a superior officer requiring the peace officer to wear the vest.

The assessment must be conducted by an assessor qualified under rules adopted by the commissioner of human services under section 254A.03, subdivision 3. An assessor providing a chemical use assessment may not have any direct or shared financial interest or referral relationship resulting in shared financial gain with a treatment provider. If an independent assessor is not available, the probation officer may use the services of an assessor authorized to perform assessments for the county social services agency under a variance granted under rules adopted by the commissioner of human services under section 254A.03, subdivision 3.

(c) The commissioner of corrections shall reimburse the county for the costs associated with a chemical use assessment and report at a rate established by the department of human services up to a maximum of $100 in each case.

The commissioner of corrections or the commissioner's designee shall serve as the chair. The task force shall study the availability of space in state and local correctional facilities and shall develop a plan to make more space available for long-term inmates, convicted of drug offenses or violent crimes, in state facilities by housing other offenders in local facilities or by use of other sentencing options. The task force shall also study, evaluate, and recommend improvements to existing literacy, educational, and vocational training programs, as well as work opportunities, private employment opportunities, and job placement programs. The task force report must be submitted to the legislature by January 15, 1990. The task force ceases to exist upon the submission of its report. The task force is governed by section 15.014, subdivision 2.

Sec. 14. [STUDY AND REPORT.]

The report and recommendations must be submitted before January 1, 1991.

ARTICLE 4

SEX OFFENDERS

Section 1. [241.67] [SEX OFFENDER TREATMENT; PROGRAMS; STANDARDS; DATA.]

Subdivision 1. [SEX OFFENDER TREATMENT.] A sex offender treatment system is established under the administration of the commissioner of corrections to provide and finance a range of sex offender treatment programs for eligible adults and juveniles. Eligible offenders are:

- (1) adults and juveniles committed to the custody of the commissioner;*
- (2) adult offenders for whom treatment is required by the court as a condition of probation; and*
- (3) juvenile offenders who have been found delinquent or received a stay of adjudication, for whom the juvenile court has ordered treatment.*

Subd. 2. [TREATMENT PROGRAM STANDARDS.] By July 1, 1991, the commissioner shall adopt rules under chapter 14 for the certification of adult and juvenile sex offender treatment programs in state and local correctional facilities and for adult and juvenile residential and outpatient sex offender treatment programs. After July 1, 1991, a correctional facility may not operate a sex offender treatment program, and an adult or juvenile residential or outpatient sex offender treatment program is not eligible for state reimbursement, unless the program has met the standards adopted by and been certified by the commissioner of corrections. As used in this subdivision, "correctional facility" has the meaning given it in section 241.021, subdivision 1, clause (5).

Subd. 3. [PROGRAMS FOR ADULT OFFENDERS COMMITTED TO THE COMMISSIONER.] (a) The commissioner shall provide for a range of sex offender treatment programs, including intensive sex offender treatment, within the state adult correctional facility system. Participation in any treatment program is voluntary and is subject to the rules and regulations of the department of corrections. Nothing in this section requires the commissioner to accept or retain an offender in a treatment program. Nothing in this section creates a right of an offender to treatment.

(b) The commissioner shall provide for residential and outpatient sex offender treatment and aftercare when required for conditional release under section 11 or as a condition of supervised release.

Subd. 4. [PROGRAMS FOR JUVENILE OFFENDERS COMMITTED TO THE COMMISSIONER.] The commissioner shall provide for sex offender treatment programs for juveniles committed to the commissioner by the courts under section 260.185, as provided under section 2.

Subd. 5. [PILOT PROGRAMS TO INCREASE ADULT AND JUVENILE SEX OFFENDER TREATMENT.] (a) The commissioner shall designate three or more pilot programs to increase sex offender treatment for:

(1) adults convicted of a violation of section 609.342, 609.343, 609.344, 609.345, 609.3451, 609.746, 609.79, 617.23, 617.246, or 617.247 who are sentenced by the court to incarceration in a local correctional facility or to sex offender treatment as a condition of probation; and

(2) juveniles found delinquent or receiving a stay of adjudication for a violation of one of those sections for whom the juvenile court has ordered sex offender treatment.

(b) At least one pilot program must be in the seven-county metropolitan area, at least one program must be outside the seven-county metropolitan area, at least one program must be in a community corrections act county, and at least one program must be in a noncommunity corrections act county.

(c) A public human services or community corrections agency may apply to the commissioner for a pilot program grant. The application must be submitted in a form approved by the commissioner and must include:

(1) a proposal to increase treatment availability for sex offenders sentenced by the district court in the county;

(2) evidence of participation by local correctional, human services, court, and treatment professionals in identifying the current treatment funding level in the county and unmet sex offender treatment needs; and

(3) any other content the commissioner may require.

The commissioner may appoint an advisory task force to assist in the review of applications and the award of grants.

Subd. 6. [SPECIALIZED CORRECTIONS AGENTS AND PROBATION OFFICERS; SEX OFFENDER SUPERVISION.] By January 1, 1990, the commissioner of corrections shall develop in-service training for state and local corrections agents and probation officers who supervise adult and juvenile sex offenders on probation or supervised release. The commissioner shall make the training available to all current and future corrections agents and probation officers who supervise or will supervise sex offenders on probation or supervised release.

After January 1, 1991, a state or local corrections agent or probation officer may not supervise adult or juvenile sex offenders on probation or supervised release unless the agent or officer has completed the in-service sex offender supervision training. The commissioner may waive this requirement if the corrections agent or probation officer has completed equivalent training as part of a post-secondary educational curriculum.

After January 1, 1991, when an adult sex offender is placed on supervised release or is sentenced to probationary supervision, and when a juvenile offender is found delinquent by the juvenile court for a sex offense and placed on probation or is paroled from a juvenile correctional facility, a corrections agent or probation officer may not be assigned to the offender unless the agent or officer has completed the in-service sex offender supervision training.

Sec. 2. [242.195] [JUVENILE SEX OFFENDERS.]

Subdivision 1. [TREATMENT PROGRAMS.] The commissioner of corrections shall provide for a range of sex offender treatment programs, including intensive sex offender treatment, for juveniles within state juvenile correctional facilities and through purchase of service from county and private residential and outpatient juvenile sex offender treatment programs.

Subd. 2. [SECURE CONFINEMENT.] If a juvenile sex offender committed to the custody of the commissioner is in need of secure confinement, the commissioner shall provide for the appropriate level of sex offender treatment within a secure facility or unit in a state juvenile correctional facility.

Subd. 3. [DISPOSITIONS.] When a juvenile is committed to the commissioner of corrections by a juvenile court, upon a finding of delinquency for a sex offense, the commissioner may, for the purposes of treatment and rehabilitation:

(1) order the child confined to a state juvenile correctional facility that provides the appropriate level of juvenile sex offender treatment;

(2) purchase sex offender treatment from a county and place the child in the county's qualifying juvenile correctional facility;

(3) purchase sex offender treatment from a qualifying private residential juvenile sex offender treatment program and place the child in the program;

(4) purchase outpatient juvenile sex offender treatment for the child from a qualifying county or private program and order the child released on parole under treatment and other supervisions and conditions the commissioner believes to be appropriate;

(5) order reconfinement or renewed parole, revoke or modify any order, or discharge the child under the procedures provided in section 242.19, subdivision 2, paragraphs (c), (d), and (e); or

(6) refer the child to a county welfare board or licensed child-placing agency for placement in foster care, or when appropriate, for initiation of child in need of protection or services proceedings under section 242.19, subdivision 2, paragraph (f).

Subd. 4. [QUALIFYING FACILITIES; TREATMENT PROGRAMS.] The commissioner may not place a juvenile in a correctional facility under this section unless the facility has met the requirements of section 241.021, subdivision 2.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 244.04, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REDUCTION OF SENTENCE.] Notwithstanding the provisions of section 609.11, subdivision 6, and section 609.346, subdivision 1, the term of imprisonment of any inmate sentenced to a presumptive fixed sentence after May 1, 1980, shall be reduced in duration by one day for each two days during which the inmate violates none of the disciplinary offense rules promulgated by the commissioner. The reduction shall accrue to the period of supervised release to be served by the inmate, except that the period of supervised release for a sex offender sentenced and conditionally released by the commissioner under section 11, subdivision 5, is governed by that provision.

Except as otherwise provided in subdivision 2, if an inmate violates a disciplinary offense rule promulgated by the commissioner, good time earned prior to the violation may not be taken away, but the inmate may be required to serve an appropriate portion of the term of imprisonment after the violation without earning good time.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 244.05, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SUPERVISED RELEASE REQUIRED.] Except as provided in subdivisions 4 and 5, every inmate shall serve a supervised release term upon completion of the inmate's term of imprisonment as reduced by any good time earned by the inmate or extended by confinement in punitive segregation pursuant to section 244.04, subdivision 2. Except for a sex offender conditionally released under section 11, subdivision 5, the supervised release term shall be equal to the period of good time the inmate has earned, and shall not exceed the length of time remaining in the inmate's sentence.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 244.05, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [SANCTIONS FOR VIOLATION.] If an inmate violates the conditions of the inmate's supervised release imposed by the commissioner, the commissioner may:

- (1) continue the inmate's supervised release term, with or without modifying or enlarging the conditions imposed on the inmate; or
- (2) revoke the inmate's supervised release and reimprison the inmate for the appropriate period of time.

The period of time for which a supervised release may be revoked may not exceed the period of time remaining in the inmate's sentence, except that for a sex offender sentenced and conditionally released under section 11, subdivision 5, the period of time for which conditional release may be revoked may not exceed the balance of the original sentence imposed less good time earned under section 244.04, subdivision 1.

Sec. 6. [244.12] [COLLECTION OF DATA ON ADULT AND JUVENILE SEX OFFENDERS.]

Subdivision 1. [DATA REQUIRED.] The commission shall coordinate the collection and analysis of summary data on adult offenders convicted under section 609.342, 609.343, 609.344, or 609.345, and juvenile offenders found delinquent for violating one of those provisions. The commission must work with the supreme court, the commissioner of corrections, the bureau of criminal apprehension, and the state planning agency coordinating the collection and analysis of the data. The data collected must include:

- (1) the sex and age of the offender;*
- (2) the sex and age of the victim or victims;*

(10) whether the offender successfully completed the treatment program; and

(11) whether the offender committed a subsequent sex offense or other offense while on probation, on supervised release, or within ten years after expiration of sentence.

Subd. 2. [REPORT.] The commission shall report to the house of representatives and senate judiciary committees an analysis of the data collected under this section, along with any recommendations for legislative action by January 15 of every odd-numbered year, beginning in 1993.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.181, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [TERMINATION OF JURISDICTION.] (a) The court may dismiss the petition or otherwise terminate its jurisdiction on its own motion or on the motion or petition of any interested party at any time. Unless terminated by the court, and except as otherwise provided in ~~this subdivision~~ paragraph (b) or (c), the jurisdiction of the court shall continue until the individual becomes 19 years of age if the court determines it is in the best interest of the individual to do so.

(b) Court jurisdiction under section 260.015, subdivision 2a, clause (12), may not continue past the child's 17th birthday.

(c) Court jurisdiction over an individual found to have committed or attempted to commit an act in violation of section 609.342, 609.343, 609.344, or 609.345 continues until the individual becomes 21 years of age, if the court determines at the original disposition hearing that continued jurisdiction will facilitate the juvenile's completion of a treatment or aftercare program.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 260.185, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. If the court finds that the child is delinquent, it shall enter an order making any of the following dispositions of the case which are deemed necessary to the rehabilitation of the child:

(a) Counsel the child or the parents, guardian, or custodian;

(b) Place the child under the supervision of a probation officer or other suitable person in the child's own home under conditions prescribed by the court including reasonable rules for conduct and the conduct of the child's parents, guardian, or custodian, designed for the physical, mental, and moral well-being and behavior of the child, or with the consent of the commissioner of corrections, in a group foster care facility which is under the management and supervision of said commissioner;

(c) Subject to the supervision of the court, transfer legal custody of the child to one of the following:

(1) A child placing agency; or

(2) The county welfare board; or

(3) A reputable individual of good moral character. No person may receive custody of two or more unrelated children unless licensed as a residential facility pursuant to sections 245.781 to 245.812; or

(4) ~~Except for children found to be delinquent as defined in section 260.015, subdivision 5, clauses (c) and (d),~~ A county home school, if the county maintains a home school or enters into an agreement with a county home school; or

(5) A county probation officer for placement in a group foster home established under the direction of the juvenile court and licensed pursuant to section 241.021;

(d) ~~Except for children found to be delinquent as defined in section 260.015, subdivision 5, clauses (c) and (d),~~ Transfer legal custody by commitment to the commissioner of corrections;

(e) If the child is found to have violated a state or local law or ordinance which has resulted in damage to the property of another, the court may order the child to make reasonable restitution for such damage;

(f) Require the child to pay a fine of up to $700; the court shall order payment of the fine in accordance with a time payment schedule which shall not impose an undue financial hardship on the child;

(g) If the child is in need of special treatment and care for reasons of physical or mental health, the court may order the child's parent, guardian, or custodian to provide it. If the parent, guardian, or custodian fails to provide this treatment or care, the court may order it provided;

(h) If the court believes that it is in the best interests of the child and of public safety that the driver's license of the child be canceled until the child's 18th birthday, the court may recommend to the commissioner of public safety the cancellation of the child's license for any period up to the child's 18th birthday, and the commissioner is hereby authorized to cancel such license without a hearing. At any time before the termination of the period of cancellation, the court may, for good cause, recommend to the commissioner of public safety that the child be authorized to apply for a new license, and the commissioner may so authorize.

If the child is petitioned and found by the court to have committed or attempted to commit an act in violation of section 609.342, 609.343, 609.344, or 609.345, the court shall order an independent professional assessment of the child's need for sex offender treatment. An assessor providing an assessment for the court may not have any direct or shared financial interest or referral relationship resulting in shared financial gain with a treatment provider.

Any order for a disposition authorized under this section shall contain written findings of fact to support the disposition ordered, and shall also set forth in writing the following information:

(a) Why the best interests of the child are served by the disposition ordered; and

(b) What alternative dispositions were considered by the court and why such dispositions were not appropriate in the instant case.

~~This subdivision applies to dispositions of juveniles found to be delinquent as defined in section 260.015, subdivision 5, clause (c) or (d) made prior to, on, or after January 1, 1978.~~

Sec. 9. [299C.155] [STANDARDIZED EVIDENCE COLLECTION; DNA

ANALYSIS DATA AND RECORDS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITION.] As used in this section, "DNA analysis" means the process through which deoxyribonucleic acid (DNA) in a human biological specimen is analyzed and compared with DNA from another human biological specimen for identification purposes.

Subd. 2. [UNIFORM EVIDENCE COLLECTION.] The bureau shall develop uniform procedures and protocols for collecting evidence in cases of alleged or suspected criminal sexual conduct, including procedures and protocols for the collection and preservation of human biological specimens for DNA analysis. Law enforcement agencies and medical personnel who conduct evidentiary exams shall use the uniform procedures and protocols in their investigation of criminal sexual conduct offenses.

Subd. 3. [DNA ANALYSIS AND DATA BANK.] The bureau shall adopt uniform procedures and protocols to maintain, preserve, and analyze human biological specimens for DNA. The bureau shall establish a centralized system to cross-reference data obtained from DNA analysis.

Subd. 4. [RECORDS.] The bureau shall perform DNA analysis and make data obtained available to law enforcement officials in connection with criminal investigations in which human biological specimens have been recovered. Upon request, the bureau shall also make the data available to the prosecutor and the subject of the data in any subsequent criminal prosecution of the subject.

Sec. 10. [609.1351] [PETITION FOR CIVIL COMMITMENT.]

When a court sentences a person under section 11, 609.342, 609.343, 609.344, or 609.345, the court shall make a preliminary determination whether in the court's opinion a petition under section 526.10 may be appropriate. If the court determines that a petition may be appropriate, the court shall forward its preliminary determination along with supporting documentation to the county attorney. If the person is subsequently committed under section 526.10, the person shall be committed to the commissioner of corrections to serve the sentence imposed before being transferred by the commissioner of corrections to a state hospital designated by the commissioner of human services.

Subdivision 1. [SENTENCING AUTHORITY.] A court may sentence a person to a term of imprisonment of not less than double the presumptive sentence under the sentencing guidelines and not more than the statutory maximum, or if the statutory maximum is less than double the presumptive sentence, to a term of imprisonment equal to the statutory maximum, if:

(1) the court is imposing an executed sentence, based on a sentencing guidelines presumptive imprisonment sentence or a dispositional departure for aggravating circumstances or a mandatory minimum sentence, on a person convicted of committing or attempting to commit a violation of section 609.342, 609.343, 609.344, or 609.345, or on a person convicted of committing or attempting to commit any other crime listed in subdivision 2 if it reasonably appears to the court that the crime was motivated by the offender's sexual impulses or was part of a predatory pattern of behavior that had criminal sexual conduct as its goal;

(2) the court finds that the offender is a danger to public safety; and

(3) the court finds that the offender needs long-term treatment or supervision beyond the presumptive term of imprisonment and supervised release. The finding must be based on a professional assessment by an examiner experienced in evaluating sex offenders that concludes that the offender is a patterned sex offender. The assessment must contain the facts upon which the conclusion is based, with reference to the offense history of the offender or the severity of the current offense, the social history of the offender, and the results of an examination of the offender's mental status. The conclusion may not be based on testing alone. A patterned sex offender is one whose criminal sexual behavior is so engrained that the risk of reoffending is great without intensive psychotherapeutic intervention or other long-term controls.

Subd. 2. [PREDATORY CRIME.] A predatory crime is a felony violation of section 609.185, 609.19, 609.195, 609.20, 609.205, 609.221, 609.222, 609.223, 609.24, 609.245, 609.25, 609.255, 609.342, 609.343, 609.344, 609.345, 609.365, 609.498, or 609.582, subdivision 1, or a violation of section 609.224.

Subd. 3. [DANGER TO PUBLIC SAFETY.] The court shall base its finding that the offender is a danger to public safety on either of the following factors:

(1) the crime involved an aggravating factor that would justify a durational departure from the presumptive sentence under the sentencing guidelines; or

(2) the offender previously committed or attempted to commit a predatory crime, including an offense committed as a juvenile that would have been a predatory crime if committed by an adult.

Subd. 4. [DEPARTURE FROM GUIDELINES.] A sentence imposed under subdivision 1 is a departure from the sentencing guidelines.

Subd. 5. [CONDITIONAL RELEASE.] At the time of sentencing under subdivision 1, the court may provide that after the offender has completed one-half of the full pronounced sentence imposed, without regard to good time, the commissioner of corrections may place the offender on conditional release for the remainder of the statutory maximum period or for ten years, whichever is longer, if the commissioner finds that:

(1) the offender is amenable to treatment and has made sufficient progress in a sex offender treatment program available in prison to be released to a sex offender treatment program operated by the department of human services or a community sex offender treatment and reentry program; and

(2) the offender has been accepted in a program approved by the commissioner that provides treatment, aftercare, and phased reentry into the community.

The conditions of release must include successful completion of treatment and aftercare in a program approved by the commissioner and any other conditions the commissioner considers appropriate. Release may be revoked and the stayed sentence executed in its entirety less good time if the offender fails to meet any condition of release. The commissioner shall not dismiss the offender from supervision before the sentence expires.

Conditional release granted under this subdivision is governed by provisions relating to supervised release, except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, section 244.04, subdivision 1, or 244.05.

Subd. 6. [COMMISSIONER OF CORRECTIONS.] The commissioner shall pay the cost of treatment of a person released under subdivision 5. This section does not require the commissioner to accept or retain an offender in a treatment program.

Subdivision 1. [GOOD TIME.] Every inmate sentenced for any term other than life, confined in a state adult correctional facility or on parole therefrom, may diminish the term of sentence one day for each two days during which the inmate has not violated any facility rule or discipline.

The commissioner of corrections, in view of the aggravated nature and frequency of offenses, may take away any or all of the good time previously gained, and, in consideration of mitigating circumstances or ignorance on the part of the inmate, may afterwards restore the inmate, in whole or in part, to the standing the inmate possessed before such good time was taken away.

Subd. 2. [WORK REQUIRED.] An inmate for whom a work assignment is available may not earn good time under subdivision 1 for any day on which the inmate does not perform the work assignment. Subd. 5. The commission shall, on or before January 1, 1980, promulgate sentencing guidelines for the district court. The guidelines shall be based on reasonable offense and offender characteristics. The guidelines promulgated by the commission shall be advisory to the district court and shall establish:

(1) The circumstances under which imprisonment of an offender is proper; and

(2) A presumptive, fixed sentence for offenders for whom imprisonment is proper, based on each appropriate combination of reasonable offense and offender characteristics. The guidelines may provide for an increase or decrease of up to 15 percent in the presumptive, fixed sentence.

The sentencing guidelines promulgated by the commission may also establish appropriate sanctions for offenders for whom imprisonment is not proper. Any guidelines promulgated by the commission establishing sanctions for offenders for whom imprisonment is not proper shall make specific reference to noninstitutional sanctions, including but not limited to the following: payment of fines, day fines, restitution, community work orders, work release programs in local facilities, community based residential and nonresidential programs, incarceration in a local correctional facility, and probation and the conditions thereof.

In establishing and modifying the sentencing guidelines, the commission shall take into substantial consideration public safety, current sentencing and release practices, and correctional resources, including but not limited to the capacities of local and state correctional facilities.

The provisions of sections 14.01 to 14.69 do not apply to the promulgation of the sentencing guidelines, and the sentencing guidelines, including severity levels and criminal history scores, are not subject to review by the legislative commission to review administrative rules. However, on or before January 1, 1986, the commission shall adopt rules pursuant to sections 14.01 to 14.69 which establish procedures for the promulgation of the sentencing guidelines, including procedures for the promulgation of severity levels and criminal history scores, and these rules shall be subject to review by the legislative commission to review administrative rules.

(b) A town board may appoint persons as assistant weed and plant pest inspectors. An assistant weed and plant pest inspector has the powers and authority of a town board member as a weed and plant pest inspector. An appointment may be for full time or part time. Notice of an appointment, with a statement of the time for which appointment is made, must be delivered to the commissioner within ten days after the date the appointment was made.

(c) The town board shall compensate the local weed and plant pest inspectors and assistant inspectors at a rate of at least $1 per hour plus necessary traveling expenses. (d) The compensation of the local weed and plant pest inspectors and assistant inspectors must be at least $1 per hour plus necessary expenses. The hourly compensation must be determined by the municipal council in an amount consistent with the hourly wage rate prevailing in their community or area for similar work and sufficient to obtain competent inspectors. The compensation must be paid from the general revenue fund or other fund of the municipality designated by the council and is in addition to compensation and expenses paid to the local weed and plant pest inspectors or assistant inspectors for other duties as an official or employee of the municipality. [18.231 s. 3]

Subd. 4. [MINNEAPOLIS WEED AND PLANT PEST INSPECTOR.] (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 3, the governing body of the city of Minneapolis shall appoint or designate an employee of the city as local weed and plant pest inspector and set an amount for compensation.

(b) The commissioner must be sent notice within ten days of the appointment or designation. [18.231 s. 3a]

Subd. 5. [PAYMENT OF EXPENSES.] (a) Failure on the part of a municipality or town to include the item of weed inspection in the annual budget is not an excuse and does not justify the nonpayment of charges or expenses incurred by inspectors under sections 2 to 22. The charges or expenses must be audited and paid as other obligations of the municipality or town are paid.

(b) If the commissioner determines that weed inspection has not been done commensurate with the bill presented, the commissioner may recommend to the county board, town board, or municipal council that the bill not be paid. [18.231 s. 4]

Subd. 6. [PAYMENT BY COUNTY.] If a municipality or town neglects or refuses, for a period of 60 days, to make payments of charges or expenses incurred by local weed and plant pest inspectors, the inspectors must be paid by the county auditor on the recommendation of the commissioner, and the total of the amounts paid by the county must be included by the county auditor as a part of the next annual tax levy in the municipality or town and withheld from that municipality or town in making the next apportionment to the municipality or town. [18.231 s. 5]

Subdivision 1. [EXAMINATION OF LAND.] A local weed and plant pest inspector shall examine all lands, roads, alleys, and public ground in the inspector's jurisdiction to determine if the property is in compliance with the weed and plant pest law and the rules of the commissioner. [18.241 s. 1]

Subd. 2. [NOTICE.] (a) If a local weed and plant pest inspector finds that property is not in compliance, the inspector shall cause a notice, in writing, on a form to be prescribed by the commissioner, to be given to the proper public official or to the owner or occupant, or to the agent of an owner of nonresident lands where noxious weeds are standing or growing and in danger of going to seed or otherwise spreading, or plant pests are located or plants harboring the eggs or offspring of plant pests are located.

(b) The notice must require:

(1) the noxious weeds to be cut down, otherwise destroyed, or eradicated on the land in a specified time and manner; or

(2) plant pests eradicated or the plant pests or pest-harboring plants eradicated or otherwise destroyed. [18.241 s. 1]

Subd. 3. [18.271 s. 1]

Subd. 3. [LACK OF NOTICE DOES NOT RELIEVE LANDOWNER.] Failure of an inspector to publish general notices or to serve individual notices does not relieve a person from the duty of compliance with the weed and plant pest law. Published general notice is legal and sufficient notice. [18.271 s. 1]

Subd. 4. [INDIVIDUAL NOTICES.] (a) An inspector may cause individual notices to be served on landowners and occupants if more prompt or definite control or eradication of noxious weeds or plant pests in certain special or individual instances involving one or a limited number of persons is needed than is accomplished by the general published notices. Individual notices must be in writing and served on the owner and the occupant, if the occupant is not the owner, giving specific instructions and methods of when and how certain named weeds and plant pests are to be controlled or eradicated.

(b) The methods of control may include definite systems of tillage, cropping, management, and use of livestock and must be designed to minimize adverse environmental impact.

(c) Individual notices must be served in the same manner as a summons in a civil action in the district court or by certified mail. Service on persons living temporarily or permanently outside of the inspectors' jurisdiction whose property is vacant or unoccupied may be made by sending the notice by certified mail to the last known address of the person, to be ascertained, if necessary, from the last tax list in the county treasurer's office. [18.271 s. 2]

pests or a crop where the weeds or plant pests are intermingled or growing, within the time and manner designated by the inspector, the local weed and plant pest inspector having jurisdiction, or if there is no local weed and plant pest inspector, the county agricultural inspector or the commissioner, shall cause the weeds or plant pest habitat to be eradicated or otherwise destroyed at the expense of the county where the land is located.

(b) The claim for the expense of serving notices and the cost of eradicating or otherwise destroying the noxious weeds or plant pests is a legal charge against the county where the land is located. After eradicating or otherwise destroying noxious weeds or plant pests, the inspector or the commissioner directing the control shall file verified and itemized statements of the costs of the services rendered in connection with serving of notices and eradicating or otherwise destroying the noxious weeds or plant pests on each separate tract or lot of land, with the county auditor where the land is located. The county auditor shall immediately issue proper warrants to pay the persons owed for the amounts specified.

(c) The amount of the expenses is a lien in favor of the county against the land where the weed or plant pest control occurred and must be certified by the county auditor and entered on the auditor's tax books as a tax on the land. The amount must be collected as other real estate taxes are collected. The amount of the expenses when collected must be used to reimburse the county for its weed and plant pest control expenditure. [18.271 s. 3]

Subd. 6. [CANNABIS SATIVA L.] Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 5 relating to procedures for payment of costs and expenses incurred, a county agricultural inspector may provide for the destruction of the plant Cannabis sativa L. at the expense of the county if strict compliance with subdivision 5 is considered impractical. [18.271 s. 3a]

Subd. 7. [COSTS AND EXPENSES.] (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 5 relating to procedures for payment of costs and expenses incurred, if the local weed and plant pest inspector or the assistant weed and plant pest inspector of a city causes noxious weeds or plant pests to be eradicated or otherwise destroyed on property within the municipality under the authority of this section, the procedures in paragraphs (b) and (c) apply for costs and expenses thus incurred.

(b) Notice in writing of the work done and the costs and expenses involved must be served on the owner or occupant of the property in accordance with the individual notice provisions of subdivision 4. The notice must provide a tabulation of the total costs and expenses involved and indicate that if the total amount is not paid to the city within 30 days or before the following October 1, whichever is later, the costs and expenses become a lien in favor of the municipality and a penalty of eight percent must be added to the amount due as of that date, with the total costs, expenses, and penalty to be certified to the county auditor and entered on the auditor's tax books as a tax on the land.

(c) Amounts collected by the county auditor under this subdivision must be paid to the city to reimburse the municipality for the municipality's weed and plant pest control expenditures. [18.271 s. 4]

Sec. 16. [18.871] [DESTRUCTION OF GROWING CROPS.]

Subdivision 1. [INSPECTION AND NOTICE BY INSPECTOR.] (a) Notwithstanding subdivisions 1 to 3, the local weed and plant pest inspector or county agricultural inspector may eradicate or otherwise destroy the weeds or pests, and the crop on areas not exceeding three acres in the aggregate in any one field or crop of 40 acres or less, other than permanent pasture or meadow, without a notification or application to the mayor or a county commissioner.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (a), if a local weed and plant pest inspector or county agricultural inspector determines it is necessary to eradicate or otherwise destroy a growing crop or a part of the crop to prevent the spread of noxious weeds or plant pests within the inspector's jurisdiction, the inspector shall notify the mayor of the municipality or a county commissioner to inspect the crop. The notice must be in writing on a form prescribed by the commissioner. [18.251]

Subd. 2. [INSPECTION AND DETERMINATION BY MAYOR OR COUNTY COMMISSIONER.] (a) If, after an inspection, the mayor or county commissioner determines that the weeds or plant pests and the crop or portion of the crop should be eradicated or otherwise destroyed, the eradicating or destroying must be performed immediately under the direction or by the authority of the local weed and plant pest inspector or under the direction of the county agricultural inspector.

(b) If the mayor or county commissioner determines after the inspection that the weeds or plant pests and the crop or a portion of the crop should not be eradicated or otherwise destroyed, the mayor or county commissioner shall report that determination to the commissioner.

(c) If, after being notified by the local weed and plant pest inspector or the county agricultural inspector to inspect a crop, the mayor or county commissioner fails to make the inspection and to report to the local weed and plant pest inspector or agricultural inspector within seven days after receiving a notice to inspect the crop, the local weed and plant pest inspector or county agricultural inspector may proceed to eradicate or otherwise destroy the weeds or plant pests and crop in the same manner as if the mayor or county commissioner notified had made an inspection and determined that the weeds or plant pests and crops should be eradicated or otherwise destroyed. [18.251]

Subd. 3. [DETERMINATION BY THE COMMISSIONER.] The commissioner shall make a final determination of whether the weeds or plant pests and the crop or portion of the crop should be eradicated or otherwise destroyed. If the commissioner determines that the weeds or plant pests and the crop or a portion of the crop should be eradicated or otherwise destroyed, the local weed and plant pest inspector or county agricultural inspector shall immediately cause the weeds or plant pests and the crop or portion of the crop to be eradicated or otherwise destroyed. [18.251]

(b) Counties may cooperate with the state, towns, municipalities, and private property owners and provide county funds, equipment, materials, labor, and facilities for weed and plant pest inspection, control, and eradication with or without reimbursement from the public agency or private property benefited. (c) The taking or killing of an endangered plant species on land adjacent to class 3 or 3b agricultural land as a result of the application of pesticides or other agricultural chemical on the class 3 or 3b land is not a violation of subdivision 1, if reasonable care is taken in the application of the pesticide or other chemical to avoid impact on adjacent lands. For the purpose of this paragraph, class 3 or 3b agricultural land does not include timber land, waste land, or other land for which the owner receives a state paid wetlands or native prairie tax credit.

(d) The accidental taking of an endangered plant, where the existence of the plant is not known at the time of the taking, is not a violation of subdivision 1.

MEDIATION AND RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 500.24, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [DISPOSAL OF LAND.] (a) A state or federal agency, limited partnership, or a corporation, other than a family farm corporation or an authorized farm corporation, may not lease or sell agricultural land or a farm homestead that was acquired by enforcing a debt against the agricultural land or farm homestead, including foreclosure of a mortgage, accepting a deed in lieu of foreclosure, terminating a contract for deed, or accepting a deed in lieu of terminating a contract for deed, before offering or making a good faith effort to offer the land for sale or lease to the immediately preceding former owner at a price no higher than the highest price offered by a third party that is acceptable to the seller or lessor. The offer must be made on the notice to offer form under subdivision 7. Selling or leasing property to a third party at a price is prima facie evidence that the price is acceptable to the seller or lessor. The seller must provide written notice to the immediately preceding former owner that the agricultural land or farm homestead will be offered for sale at least 14 days before the agricultural land or farm homestead is offered for sale.

(b) An immediately preceding former owner is the entity with record legal title to the agricultural land or farm homestead before acquisition by the state or federal agency or corporation except: if the immediately preceding former owner is a bankruptcy estate, the debtor in bankruptcy is the immediately preceding former owner; and if the agricultural land or farm homestead was acquired by termination of a contract for deed or deed in lieu of termination of a contract for deed, the immediately preceding former owner is the purchaser under the contract for deed.

(c) An immediately preceding former owner may elect to purchase or lease the entire property or an agreed to portion of the property. If the immediately preceding former owner elects to purchase or lease a portion of the property, the election must be reported in writing to the seller or lessor prior to the time the property is first offered for sale or lease. If election is made to purchase or lease a portion of the property, the portion must be contiguous and compact so that it does not unreasonably reduce access to or the value of the remaining property.

(d) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "a price no higher than the highest price offered by a third party" means the acceptable cash price offered by a third party or the acceptable time-price offer made by a third party. A cash price offer is one that involves simultaneous transfer of title for payment of the entire amount of the offer. If the acceptable offer made by a third party is a time-price offer, the seller or lessor must make the same time-price offer or an equivalent cash offer to the immediately preceding former owner. An equivalent cash offer is equal to the total of the payments made over a period of the time-price offer discounted by yield curve of the United States treasury notes and bonds of similar maturity on the first business day of the month in which the offer is personally delivered or mailed for time periods similar to the time period covered by the time-price offer, plus 2.0 percent. A time-price offer is an offer that is financed entirely or partially by the seller and includes an offer to purchase under a contract for deed or mortgage. An equivalent cash offer is not required to be made if the state participates in an offer to a third party through the rural finance authority.

(e) This subdivision applies to a seller when the property is sold and to a lessor each time the property is leased, for five years after the agricultural land is acquired except:

(1) an offer to lease to the immediately preceding former owner is required only until the immediately preceding owner fails to accept an offer to lease the property or the property is sold;

(2) an offer to sell to the immediately preceding former owner is required until the property is sold; and

(3) if the immediately preceding former owner elects to lease or purchase a portion of the property, this subdivision does not apply to the seller with regard to the balance of the property after the election is made under paragraph (c).

(f) The notice of an offer under subdivision 7 that is personally delivered with a signed receipt or sent by certified mail with a receipt of mailing to the immediately preceding former owner's last known address is a good faith offer.

(g) This subdivision does not apply to a sale or lease that occurs after the seller or lessor has held the property for five years or longer.

(h) For purposes of this subdivision, if the immediately preceding former owner is a bankruptcy estate the debtor in the bankruptcy is the immediately preceding owner.

(i) The immediately preceding former owner must exercise the right to lease all or a portion of the agricultural land or a homestead located on agricultural land in writing within 15 days after an offer to lease under this subdivision is mailed with a receipt of mailing or personally delivered. If election is made to lease only the homestead or a portion of the agricultural land, the portion to be leased must be clearly identified in writing. The immediately preceding former owner must exercise the right to buy the agricultural land, a portion of the agricultural land, or a farm homestead located on agricultural land, in writing, within 65 days after an offer to buy under this subdivision is mailed with a receipt of mailing or is personally delivered. Within ten days after exercising the right to lease or buy by accepting the offer, the immediately preceding owner must fully perform according to the terms of the offer including paying the amounts due. A seller may sell and a lessor may lease the agricultural land or farm homestead subject to this subdivision to the third party in accordance with their lease or purchase agreement if:

(1) the immediately preceding former owner does not accept an offer to lease or buy before the offer terminates; or

(2) the immediately preceding former owner does not perform the obligations of the offer, including paying the amounts due, within ten days after accepting the offer.

(j) A certificate indicating whether or not the property contains agricultural land or a farm homestead that is signed by the county assessor where the property is located and recorded in the office of the county recorder or the registrar of titles where the property is located is prima facie evidence of whether the property is agricultural land or a farm homestead.

(k) As prima facie evidence that an offer to sell or lease agricultural land or a farm homestead has terminated, a receipt of mailing the notice under subdivision 7 and an affidavit, signed by a person authorized to act on behalf of a state, federal agency, or corporation selling or leasing the agricultural land or a farm homestead may be filed in the office of the county recorder or registrar of titles of the county where the agricultural land or farm homestead is located. The affidavit must state that:

(1) notice of an offer to buy or lease the agricultural land or farm homestead was provided to the immediately preceding former owner at a price not higher than the highest price offered by a third party that is acceptable;

(2) the time during which the immediately preceding former owner is required to exercise the right to buy or lease the agricultural land or farm homestead has expired;

(3) the immediately preceding former owner has not exercised the right to buy or lease the agricultural land or farm homestead as provided in this subdivision or has accepted an offer and has not fully performed according to the terms of the offer; and

(4) the offer to the immediately preceding former owner has terminated.

(l) The right of an immediately preceding former owner to receive an offer to lease or purchase agricultural land under this subdivision or to lease or purchase at a price no higher than the highest price offered by a third party that is acceptable to the seller or lessor may be extinguished or limited by an express statement signed by the immediately preceding owner that complies with the plain language requirements of section 325G.31. The right may not be extinguished or limited except by:

(1) an express statement in a deed in lieu of foreclosure of the agricultural land;

(2) an express statement in a deed in lieu of a termination of a contract for deed for the agricultural land;

(3) an express statement conveying the right to the state or federal agency or corporation owning the agricultural land that is required to make an offer under this subdivision, however, the preceding former owner may rescind the conveyance by notifying the state or federal agency or corporation in writing within 20 calendar days after signing the express statement;

(4) to cure a title defect, an express statement conveying the right may be made to a person to whom the agricultural land has been transferred by the state or federal agency or corporation; or

(5) an express statement conveying the right to a contract for deed vendee to whom the agricultural land or farm homestead was sold under a contract for deed by the immediately preceding former owner if the express statement and the contract for deed are recorded.

(m) The right of an immediately preceding former owner to receive an offer to lease or purchase agricultural land under this subdivision may not be assigned or transferred except as provided in paragraph (l), but may be inherited.

(n) An immediately preceding former owner, except a former owner who is actively engaged in farming as defined in subdivision 2, paragraph (a), and who agrees to remain actively engaged in farming on a portion of the agricultural land or farm homestead for at least one year after accepting an offer under this subdivision, may not sell agricultural land acquired by accepting an offer under this subdivision if the arrangement of the sale was negotiated or agreed to prior to the former owner accepting the offer under this subdivision. A person who sells property in violation of this paragraph is liable for damages plus reasonable attorney fees to a person who is damaged by a sale in violation of this paragraph. There is a rebuttable presumption that a sale by an immediately preceding former owner is in violation of this paragraph if the sale takes place within ~~180 days~~ one year of the former owner accepting the offer under this subdivision. This paragraph does not apply to a sale by an immediately preceding former owner to the owner's spouse, the owner's parents, the owner's sisters and brothers, the owner's spouse's sisters and brothers, or the owner's children.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 550.37, subdivision 4a, is amended to read:

Subd. 4a. [ADJUSTMENT OF DOLLAR AMOUNTS.] (a) Except for subdivisions 5 and 7, the dollar amounts in this section shall change periodically as provided in this subdivision to the extent of changes in the implicit price deflator for the gross national product, 1972 = 100, compiled by the United States Department of Commerce, and hereafter referred to as the index. The index for December, 1980, is the reference base index.

(b) The designated dollar amounts shall change on July 1 of each even-numbered year if the percentage of change, calculated to the nearest whole percentage point, between the index for December of the preceding year and the reference base index is ten percent or more. The portion of the percentage change in the index in excess of a multiple of ten percent shall be disregarded and the dollar amounts shall change only in multiples of ten percent of the amounts stated in this section.

(c) If the index is revised, the percentage of change pursuant to this section shall be calculated on the basis of the revised index. If a revision of the index changes the reference base index, a revised reference base index shall be determined by multiplying the reference base index then applicable by the rebasing factor furnished by the department of commerce. If the index is superseded, the index referred to in this section is the one represented by the department of commerce as reflecting most accurately changes in the purchasing power of the dollar for consumers.

(d) The commissioner of commerce shall announce and publish:

(1) on or before April 30 of each year in which dollar amounts are to change, the changes in dollar amounts required by paragraph (b); and

(2) promptly after the changes occur, changes in the index required by paragraph (c) including, if applicable, the numerical equivalent of the reference base index under a revised reference base index and the designation or title of any index superseding the index.

(e) A person does not violate this chapter with respect to a transaction otherwise complying with this chapter if the person relies on dollar amounts either determined according to paragraph (b) or appearing in the last publication of the commissioner announcing the then current dollar amounts.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 550.37, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. Farm machines and implements used in farming operations by a debtor engaged principally in farming, livestock, farm produce, and standing crops, not exceeding ~~$10,000~~ $13,000 in value. When a debtor is a partnership of spouses or a partnership of natural persons related to each other within the third degree of kindred according to the rules of the civil law, for the purposes of the exemption in this subdivision, the partners may elect to treat the assets of the partnership as assets of the individual partners.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 550.37, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. The total value of property selected by a debtor pursuant to subdivisions 5 and 6 shall not exceed ~~$10,000~~ $13,000, if the exemptions under subdivisions 5 and 6 are combined.

(1) for which a proof of claim form has been filed in bankruptcy by a creditor or that was listed as a scheduled debt, of a debtor who has filed a petition in bankruptcy after July 1, 1987, under United States Code, title 11, chapter 7, 11, 12, or 13;

(2) if the debt was in default when the creditor received a mediation proceeding notice under the farmer-lender mediation act and the creditor filed a claim form, the debt was mediated during the mediation period under section 583.26, subdivision 8, and (i) the mediation was unresolved; or (ii) a mediation agreement with respect to that debt was signed;

(3) for which the creditor has served a mediation notice, the debtor has failed to make a timely request for mediation, and within 30 45 days after the debtor failed to make a timely request the creditor began a proceeding to enforce the debt against the agricultural property of the debtor;

(4) for which a creditor has received a mediation proceeding notice and the creditor and debtor have restructured the debt and have signed a separate mediation agreement with respect to that debt; or

"ARTICLE 8

Section 1. [144.4235] [PROTECTION OF VIABLE FETUS.]

Subdivision 1. [LEGISLATIVE PURPOSE AND FINDINGS.] The legislature finds that there exists an important and compelling state interest in the life of a viable fetus.

The legislature finds that abortions are performed when the fetus may be viable; that some fetuses are born alive as a result of abortion; that some fetuses do survive the abortion procedure; and that the state has a compelling interest in protecting the life of the child born alive as a result of abortion.

Subd. 2. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of this section, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Abortion" means the use of any instrument, medicine, drug, or any other substance or device to terminate the pregnancy of a woman known to be pregnant with an intention other than to increase the probability of a live birth, to preserve the life or health of the child after live birth, or to remove a dead fetus.

(b) "Born alive" means the complete expulsion or extraction from its mother of a fetus, irrespective of the duration of pregnancy, which after the separation, breathes or shows any other evidence of life such as beating of the heart, pulsation of the umbilical cord, or definite movement of voluntary muscles, whether or not the umbilical cord has been cut or the placenta is attached.

(c) "Fetus" or "unborn child" means an individual organism of the species homo sapiens from fertilization until birth.

(d) "Physician" means any person licensed to practice medicine under the medical practice act of this state.

(e) "Viability" or "viable" means that stage of fetal development when, in the medical judgment of the attending physician based on the particular facts of the case before the physician, there is a reasonable likelihood of sustained survival of the fetus outside the womb, with or without artificial support.

Subd. 3. [DUTY OF PHYSICIAN TO DETERMINE VIABILITY.] Before a physician performs an abortion on a woman whom the physician has reason to believe is carrying a fetus of 20 or more weeks gestational age, the physician shall first determine whether the fetus is viable by using and exercising that degree of care, skill, and proficiency commonly exercised by the ordinarily skillful, careful, and prudent physician.

Subd. 4. [POST-VIABILITY ABORTIONS NECESSARY TO PRESERVE THE LIFE OR HEALTH OF THE MOTHER.] No abortion of a viable fetus shall be performed unless, in the medical judgment of the attending or referring physician, based on the particular facts of the case before the physician, it is necessary to preserve the life or health of the woman. The physician shall certify in writing that the abortion is necessary to preserve the life or health of the woman and shall further certify in writing the medical indications for the abortion.

Subd. 5. [METHOD OF POST-VIABLE ABORTION.] Any physician who intentionally performs an abortion upon a woman carrying a viable fetus must use the available method of abortion that, in the physician's medical judgment, is most likely to preserve the life and health of the fetus.

Nothing in this section requires a physician to employ a method of abortion that, in the medical judgment of the physician performing the abortion, based on the particular facts of the case before the physician, would increase the medical risk to the mother. In all cases where the physician performs an abortion upon a viable fetus, the physician shall certify in writing the available methods of abortion considered and the reasons for choosing the method used.

Subd. 6. [SECOND PHYSICIAN REQUIRED.] An abortion of a viable fetus shall be performed only when there is in attendance a physician other than the physician performing the abortion. The second physician shall take control of and provide immediate medical care for any child born alive as a result of the abortion. This requirement shall not apply when, in the medical judgment of the physician performing the abortion, based on the particular facts of the case before the physician, there exists a medical emergency which would prevent the physician from securing a second physician.

Subd. 7. [STANDARD OF CARE.] During the performance of the abortion, the physician performing it, and after the abortion, the second physician required by subdivision 6 to be in attendance, shall take all reasonable steps in keeping with good medical practice, consistent with the procedure used, to preserve the life and health of the viable fetus.

Subd. 8. [PROTECTION OF CHILD BORN ALIVE.] A child born alive as a result of abortion shall be fully recognized as a human person and given immediate protection under the law. All reasonable measures consistent with good medical practice shall be taken to preserve the life and health of the child born alive as a result of abortion.

Subd. 9. [EXCEPTIONS.] Nothing in this section requires a physician to take any action which, in the medical judgment of the physician performing the abortion, based on the particular facts before the physician, would increase the medical risk to the mother.

Subd. 10. [SEVERABILITY.] If any provision, word, phrase, or clause of this section or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity shall not affect the provisions, words, phrases, clauses, or application of this section that can be given effect without the invalid provision, word, phrase, clause, or application. The provisions, words, phrases, and clauses of this section are declared to be severable.

Subd. 11. [PENALTY.] A physician who intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly violates this section is subject to license revocation or suspension under section 147.141."

S.F. No. 272: A bill for an act relating to veterans; providing for the establishment of a veterans home in Luverne; changing medical assistance income and asset limitations for veterans in community nursing homes to conform with those used for the veterans nursing homes; authorizing the commissioner of administration to conduct a study of the need for additional veterans homes in the state; appropriating money; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.056, by adding a subdivision; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 198.

Reports the same back with the recommendation that the bill be amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.056, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [ASSET LIMITATIONS FOR VETERANS.] (a) Notwithstanding subdivision 3, the income and asset limitations for a veteran who is otherwise eligible for medical assistance are the income and asset limitations established by the board of directors of the Minnesota nursing homes for veterans applying for admission to a veterans home. The provisions concerning transfers of property in section 256B.17 do not apply to a veteran. For purposes of this subdivision, “veteran” has the meaning given in section 197.447.

(b) Paragraph (a) is effective only to the extent allowed by federal medical assistance laws and regulations and only if the federal health care financing agency approves the necessary amendments to the state medical assistance plan. The commissioner shall seek waivers of federal requirements to the extent necessary to implement paragraph (a).

Sec. 2. [VETERANS HOMES SITING STUDY.]

Subdivision 1. [STUDY AUTHORIZATION.] The commissioner of administration, in cooperation with the veterans home board of directors and the interagency board for quality assurance, must by January 1, 1990, complete a study that will assist the legislature to determine:

(1) if additional veterans homes should be established in any regions of the state; and

(2) in which communities homes should be sited if the legislature determines additional homes are necessary.

Subd. 2. [NEED FOR ADDITIONAL VETERANS HOMES.] In analyzing whether additional veterans homes should be established in the state, the study should consider the following factors:

(1) the number of veterans that are projected to need nursing home care in the state and in each region of the state;

(2) the availability and feasibility of other long-term care alternatives for veterans;

(3) the impact of additional veterans homes on existing community nursing homes;

(4) the availability of federal funding for construction and operation of additional veterans homes and the impact of other federal regulations;

(5) the overall cost to the state of a regional system of veterans nursing homes; and

(6) the veterans home board of directors' long-term plan for veterans health care.

Based on these factors, the study shall recommend in which regions of the state, if any, additional veterans homes should be established.

Subd. 3. [ANALYSIS OF SITING ALTERNATIVES.] If the commissioner of administration recommends that additional veterans homes should be established in one or more regions of the state, the study must analyze various potential sites for veterans homes based on the following factors:

- (1) proximity to a veterans administration medical center;
- (2) proximity to other medical services in the community;
- (3) availability of staff to operate a home;
- (4) construction costs;
- (5) operating costs;
- (6) local financial contributions toward construction and operating costs;
- (7) physical features of a site; and
- (8) the number of veterans needing nursing care in the area.

The commissioner must allow local communities in the affected regions to submit proposals for veterans homes, unless the region has been previously studied by the commissioner of administration. The study must recommend, in rank order within each affected region, sites for new veterans homes.

Subd. 4. [SOUTHWEST MINNESOTA SITE.] If the need for a veterans home is found to exist in southwest Minnesota, the site of the home shall be in Luverne. This determination expires on July 1, 1992, unless the United States Veterans Administration has approved the request to establish a veterans home in Luverne.

Sec. 3. [APPROPRIATION.]

Subd. 2. [TRANSITION AID.] (a) Transition aid for each unique taxing jurisdiction for taxes payable in 1990 equals the total gross taxes levied on all properties, minus the unique taxing jurisdiction's subtraction factor. Transition aid cannot be less than zero. The transition aid so determined for school districts for purposes of general education and transportation levies shall be multiplied by the ratio of the adjusted gross tax capacity based upon the 1988 adjusted gross tax capacity to the estimated 1987 adjusted gross tax capacity based upon the 1987 adjusted assessed value. Each county assessor and the city assessors of Minneapolis, Duluth, and St. Cloud shall furnish the commissioner of revenue with the 1988 market values for taxes payable in 1989 for any new classes of property established in this article. The commissioner shall use those values, and estimate values where needed, in developing the 1988 tax capacity for each unique taxing jurisdiction under this section.

(b)(1) The transition aid is allocated to each local government levying taxes in the unique taxing jurisdiction in the proportion that the local government's gross taxes bears to the total gross taxes levied within the unique taxing jurisdiction.

(2) If a local government's total tax capacity rate for all funds for taxes payable in 1989 varies within the area in which it exercises taxing authority, the local government's allocated transition aid must be further allocated between the part of its levy in respect to which the tax capacity rate is constant throughout the area in which it exercises taxing authority and the part of its levy in respect to which the tax capacity rate varies throughout the area in which it exercises taxing authority.

(c) In 1991 and subsequent years, a local government shall receive transition aid equal to that it received in 1990 subject to the requirement of the last sentence of subdivision 6.

(d) The difference between (1) the income maintenance aids payable to a county and (2) the income maintenance aids that would be payable to the county pursuant to the rates in effect for calendar year 1989 shall be reduced by the sum of the amount of transition aid a county receives under this subdivision for all unique taxing jurisdictions located within its borders. The reduction must not reduce the difference to less than zero. The reduction shall be prorated among all payments of the increased income maintenance aids so that each payment is reduced by an equal percentage amount. The commissioner of revenue shall certify each county's transition aid to the commissioner of human services for purposes of this adjustment.

(e) Payments under this subdivision to counties in 1991 and subsequent years shall be reduced by the amount provided in section 477A.012, subdivision 3, paragraph (e).

The amount of the deduction shall be computed as provided in this subdivision.

(b) By June 15, 1990, the board of public defense shall determine and certify to the supreme court the pro rata share for each county of the state-financed public defense services as provided in this act during the fiscal year beginning the following July 1. By June 30, 1990, the supreme court shall determine and certify to the department of revenue for each county the sum of the amounts certified by the board of public defense and the pro rata share for each county of district court costs as provided in this act during the fiscal year beginning on the following July 1.

(c) The amount deducted from each payment to each county under subdivisions 1 and 2 shall be reduced by the amount certified by the supreme court under paragraph (b) less the amount of fees that would have been collected by courts in that county during fiscal year 1990 if the fees for civil and probate filings had been $30 and the fee for a marriage dissolution had been $55.

(d) Twenty-five percent of the amount computed under paragraph (c) for each county shall be deducted from each payment to the county under section 477A.015 in 1990. One-half of the amount computed under paragraph (c) for each county shall be deducted from each payment to the county under section 477A.015 in 1991 and each subsequent year.

(e) If the amount computed under paragraph (c) exceeds the amount payable to a county under subdivisions 1 and 2, the excess shall be deducted from the aid payable to the county under section 273.1398, subdivision 2.

(c) A recycling project or a project to compost or co-compost waste may receive grant assistance up to 50 percent of the capital cost of the project or $2,000,000, whichever is less.

(d) Notwithstanding paragraph (e), the agency may award grants for transfer stations that will initially transfer waste to landfills if the transfer stations are part of a planned resource recovery project, the county where the planned resource recovery facility will be located has a comprehensive solid waste management plan approved by the agency, and the solid waste management plan proposes the development of the resource recovery facility. If the proposed resource recovery facility is not in place and operating within five years of the date of the grant award, the recipient shall repay the grant amount to the state.

(e) Projects without resource recovery are not eligible for assistance.

(f) In addition to any assistance received under clause (b) or (c), a project may receive grant assistance for the cost of tests necessary to determine the appropriate pollution control equipment for the project or the environmental effects of the use of any product or material produced by the project.

(g) In addition to the application requirements of section 115A.51, an application for a project serving eligible jurisdictions in only a single county must demonstrate that cooperation with jurisdictions in other counties to develop the project is not needed or not feasible. Each application must also demonstrate that the project is not financially prudent without the state assistance, because of the applicant's financial capacity and the problems inherent in the waste management situation in the area, particularly transportation distances and limited waste supply and markets for resources recovered.

(h) For the purposes of this subdivision, a "project" means a processing facility, together with any transfer stations, transmission facilities, and other related and appurtenant facilities primarily serving the processing facility. The board shall adopt rules for the program by July 1, 1985."

This amount is known as "non-eligible reserves." For an annuitant or benefit recipient who is eligible to receive a partial postretirement adjustment, each fund shall report separately as additional "eligible reserves" an amount that bears the same ratio to the total reserves required for the annuitant or benefit recipient as the number of full months of annuity or benefit receipt as of the current June 30 bears to 12 full months. If the percentage is less than one percent, no postretirement adjustment ~~shall may~~ be payable in that year and the amount otherwise available for distribution ~~shall must~~ be credited to a separate reserve established for this purpose. The reserve ~~shall must~~ be invested in the same manner as all other assets of the fund and ~~shall must~~ be credited with any investment income as specified in ~~clause (1)(a) paragraph (b)~~. Amounts credited to the reserve ~~shall must~~ be utilized in determining a postretirement adjustment in the subsequent year. The amount of any full postretirement adjustment certified by the state board as payable to the participating public pension plans or funds ~~shall must~~ be carried to five decimal places and stated as a percentage.

Subd. 10. [PAYMENT OF POSTRETIREMENT ADJUSTMENT.] Upon receiving the certification of the amount of the full postretirement adjustment from the state board, each participating public pension fund or plan shall determine the amount of the postretirement adjustment payable to each eligible annuitant and benefit recipient. The dollar amount of the postretirement adjustment payable to each annuitant or benefit recipient shall be calculated by applying the certified postretirement adjustment percentage to the amount of the monthly annuity or benefit payable to each eligible annuitant or benefit recipient eligible for a full adjustment.

The dollar amount of the partial postretirement adjustment payable to each annuitant or benefit recipient eligible for a partial adjustment must be calculated by determining a partial percentage amount that bears the same ratio to the certified full adjustment percentage amount as the number of full months of annuity or benefit receipt as of the current June 30 bears to 12 full months. CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON H.F. NO. 956

A bill for an act relating to insurance; clarifying the calculation of underinsured motorist benefits; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 65B.49, subdivisions 3a and 4a.

May 10, 1989

The Honorable Robert Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H.F. No. 956, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendments and that H.F. No. 956 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 65B.49, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [UNINSURED AND UNDERINSURED MOTORIST COVERAGES.] (1) No plan of reparation security may be renewed, delivered or issued for delivery, or executed in this state with respect to any motor vehicle registered or principally garaged in this state unless separate uninsured and underinsured motorist coverages are provided therein. ~~The coverages combined~~ Each coverage, at a minimum, must provide limits of $25,000 because of injury to or the death of one person in any accident and $50,000 because of injury to or the death of two or more persons in any accident. In the case of injury to, or the death of, two or more persons in any accident, the amount available to any one person must not exceed the coverage limit provided for injury to, or the death of, one person in any accident. ~~For purposes of this subdivision, uninsured motorist coverage and underinsured motorist coverage shall be a single coverage.~~

(2) Every owner of a motor vehicle registered or principally garaged in this state shall maintain uninsured and underinsured motorist coverages as provided in this subdivision.

(3) No reparation obligor is required to provide limits of uninsured and underinsured motorist coverages in excess of the bodily injury liability limit provided by the applicable plan of reparation security.

(4) No recovery shall be permitted under the uninsured and underinsured motorist coverages of this section for basic economic loss benefits paid or payable, or which would be payable but for any applicable deductible.

(5) If at the time of the accident the injured person is occupying a motor vehicle, the limit of liability for uninsured and underinsured motorist coverages available to the injured person is the limit specified for that motor vehicle. However, if the injured person is occupying a motor vehicle of which the injured person is not an insured, the injured person may be entitled to excess insurance protection afforded by a policy in which the injured party is otherwise insured. The excess insurance protection is limited to the extent of covered damages sustained, and further is available only to the extent by which the limit of liability for like coverage applicable to any one motor vehicle listed on the automobile insurance policy of which the injured person is an insured exceeds the limit of liability of the coverage available to the injured person from the occupied motor vehicle.

If at the time of the accident the injured person is not occupying a motor vehicle, the injured person is entitled to select any one limit of liability for any one vehicle afforded by a policy under which the injured person is insured.

(6) Regardless of the number of policies involved, vehicles involved, persons covered, claims made, vehicles or premiums shown on the policy, or premiums paid, in no event shall the limit of liability for uninsured and underinsured motorist coverages for two or more motor vehicles be added together to determine the limit of insurance coverage available to an injured person for any one accident.

(7) The uninsured and underinsured motorist coverages required by this subdivision do not apply to bodily injury of the insured while occupying a motor vehicle owned by the insured, unless the occupied vehicle is an insured motor vehicle.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 65B.49, subdivision 4a, is amended to read:

Subd. 4a. [LIABILITY ON UNDERINSURED MOTOR VEHICLES.] With respect to underinsured motor ~~vehicles coverage~~, the maximum liability of an insurer is ~~the lesser of the difference between the limit of underinsured motorist coverage and the amount paid to the insured by or for any person or organization who may be held legally liable for the bodily injury; or the amount of damages sustained but not recovered-~~ from the insurance policy of the driver or owner of any underinsured at fault vehicle. If a person is injured by two or more vehicles, underinsured motorist coverage is payable whenever any one of those vehicles meets the definition of underinsured motorist vehicle in Minnesota Statutes, section 65B.43, subdivision 17. However, in no event shall the underinsured motorist carrier have to pay more than the amount of its underinsured motorist limits.

Sec. 3. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 and 2 are effective for all contracts issued or renewed on or after August 1, 1989, or for all injuries occurring on or after August 1, 1989, or for deaths occurring as the result of injuries sustained on or after August 1, 1989."

Delete the title and insert:

"A bill for an act relating to insurance; clarifying the calculation of underinsured motorist benefits; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 65B.49, subdivisions 3a and 4a."

We request adoption of this report and repassage of the bill.

Subdivision 1. [EMPLOYER'S PHYSICIAN.] The injured employee must submit to examination by the employer's physician, if requested by the employer, and at reasonable times thereafter upon the employer's request. The examination must be scheduled at a location within 150 miles of the employee's residence unless the employer can show cause to the department or a compensation judge to order an examination at a location further from the petitioner's residence. The employee is entitled upon request to have a personal physician present at any such examination. Each party shall defray the cost of that party's physician. Any report or written statement made by the employer's physician as a result of an examination of the employee, regardless of whether the examination preceded the injury or was made subsequent to the injury, shall be made available, upon request and without charge, to the injured employee or representative of the employee. The employer shall pay reasonable travel expenses, in advance if requested, incurred by the employee in attending the examination including mileage, parking, and, if necessary, lodging and meals. The employer shall also pay the employee for any lost wages resulting from attendance at the examination. A self-insured employer or insurer who is served with a claim petition pursuant to section 176.271, subdivision 1, or 176.291, shall schedule any necessary examinations of the employee, if an examination by the employer's physician or health care provider is necessary to evaluate benefits claimed. The examination shall be completed and the report of the examination shall be served on the employee and filed with the commissioner within 120 days of service of the claim petition.

No evidence relating to the examination or report shall be received or considered by the commissioner, a compensation judge, or the court of appeals in determining any issues unless the report has been served and filed as required by this section, unless a written extension has been granted by the commissioner or compensation judge. The commissioner or a compensation judge shall extend the time for completing the adverse examination and filing the report upon good cause shown. The extension must not be for the purpose of delay and the insurer must make a good faith effort to comply with this subdivision. Good cause shall include but is not limited to:

(1) that the extension is necessary because of the limited number of physicians or health care providers available with expertise in the particular injury or disease, or that the extension is necessary due to the complexity of the medical issues, or payable under section 176.101 and who has been totally disabled for more than 104 weeks shall be eligible for supplementary benefits as prescribed in this section after 104 weeks have elapsed and for the remainder of the total disablement. Regardless of the number of weeks of total disability, no totally disabled person is ineligible for supplementary benefits after four years have elapsed since the first date of the total disability, ~~except as provided by clause (b)~~; provided that all periods of disability are caused by the same injury.

(b) An employee who has suffered personal injury after October 1, 1983, and before October 1, 1985, is eligible to receive supplementary benefits after the employee has been receiving temporary total or permanent total benefits for 208 weeks. Regardless of the number of weeks of total disability, no person who is receiving temporary total compensation shall be ineligible for supplementary benefits after four years have elapsed since the first date of the total disability, provided that all periods of disability are caused by the same injury.

Regardless of the number of weeks of total disability, no person who is receiving permanent total compensation shall be ineligible for supplementary benefits after four years have elapsed since the first date of the total disability, provided that all periods of disability are caused by the same injury.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 176.132, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [AMOUNT.] (a) The supplementary benefit payable under ~~this section~~ subdivision 1, paragraphs (a) and (b), shall be the difference between the amount the employee receives on or after January 1, 1976, under section 176.101, subdivision 1 or 4, and 65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed annually. The supplementary benefit payable under subdivision 1, paragraph (c), shall be the difference between:

(1) the amount the employee receives on or after October 1, 1989, under section 176.101, subdivision 4; plus the amount of disability benefits being paid under any government disability benefit program, provided those benefits are occasioned by the same injury or injuries giving rise to payments under section 176.101, subdivision 4; plus the amount of any federal old age and survivors insurance benefits; and

(2) 65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage, as computed annually.

(b) In the event an eligible recipient is currently receiving no compensation or is receiving a reduced level of compensation because of a credit being applied as the result of a third party liability or damages, the employer or insurer shall compute the offset credit as if the individual were entitled to the actual benefit or 65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed annually, whichever is greater. If this results in the use of a higher credit than otherwise would have been applied and the employer or insurer becomes liable for compensation benefits which would otherwise not have been paid, the additional benefits resulting shall be handled according to this section.

(c) In the event an eligible recipient is receiving no compensation or is receiving a reduced level of compensation because of a valid agreement in settlement of a claim, no supplementary benefit shall be payable under this section. Attorney's fees shall be allowed in settlements of claims for supplementary benefits in accordance with this chapter.

(d) In the event an eligible recipient under subdivision 1, paragraph (a) or (b), is receiving no compensation or is receiving a reduced level of compensation because of prior limitations in the maximum amount payable for permanent total disability or because of reductions resulting from the simultaneous receipt of old age or disability benefits, the supplementary benefit shall be payable for the difference between the actual amount of compensation currently being paid and 65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed annually.

(e) In the event that an eligible recipient is receiving simultaneous benefits from any government disability program, the amount of supplementary benefits payable under this section shall be reduced by five percent. If the individual does not receive the maximum benefits for which the individual is eligible under other governmental disability programs due to the provisions of United States Code, title 42, section 424a(d), this reduction shall not apply.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 176.132, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PAYMENT.] The payment of supplementary benefits shall be the responsibility of the employer or insurer currently paying total disability benefits under subdivision 1, paragraph (a) or (b), or currently paying permanent total disability benefits under subdivision 1, paragraph (c), or any other payer of such benefits. When the eligible individual is not currently receiving benefits because the total paid has reached the maximum prescribed by law the employer and insurer shall, nevertheless, pay the supplementary benefits that are prescribed by law. The employer or insurer paying the supplementary benefit shall have the right of full reimbursement from the special compensation fund for the amount of such benefits paid.

ELECTION LAW PROVISIONS"

"ARTICLE 2
PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY

Section 1. [207A.01] [PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY.]

A presidential primary must be held on the fourth Tuesday in February of each year in which a president and vice president of the United States are to be nominated and elected, at which the voters of this state may express their preference among the candidates of the major political party of their choice, for that party's nomination to be president of the United States. For the purposes of sections 1 to 7, "political party" or "party" means a political party as defined in section 200.02, subdivision 7.

Sec. 2. [207A.02] [CANDIDATES ON BALLOT.]

Subdivision 1. [REQUIRED LISTING.] The following individuals must be listed as candidates on the appropriate major political party presidential ballot with a separate ballot for each major political party:

(1) any individual whose name has been entered as a candidate for the nomination of a major political party in presidential primaries in two or more other states during the same year; and

(2) any individual nominated as a candidate for the presidential nomination of a political party by a petition bearing the names of 2,000 eligible voters from each congressional district.

Subd. 2. [TENTATIVE LISTING.] A tentative determination of the candidates to be listed for each political party on the presidential primary ballot must be announced by the secretary of state ten weeks before the primary for the purpose of giving voters sufficient time to nominate unlisted candidates by petition.

Subd. 3. [ANNOUNCEMENT.] The determination of which candidates must be listed on the presidential primary ballot must be made by the secretary of state not later than six weeks before the presidential primary.

Subd. 4. [NOTIFICATION.] The secretary of state shall notify each individual whose name is to be listed on the presidential primary ballot that the individual's name will be listed unless the individual submits an affidavit stating that the individual is not a candidate for the presidential nomination, does not intend to become a candidate, and would not accept the nomination. The affidavit must be submitted to and received by the secretary of state no later than five weeks before the presidential primary.

Sec. 3. [207A.03] [PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY; HOW CONDUCTED.]

Except as otherwise provided in sections 1 to 7, the presidential primary must be announced, held, and conducted, and the results canvassed and returned in the manner provided by law for other primaries and in accordance with the general election laws of the state, as applicable. If a municipality which uses lever voting machines or an electronic voting system determines that the use of the machines or voting system would not be practical in the presidential primary, the municipality may use a paper ballot for the presidential primary.

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE.] Before December 1 of the year before a presidential primary is to be held, the secretary of state shall provide notice to the county auditor of each county of the date of the presidential primary. Each county auditor shall provide notice of the date of the presidential primary to each municipal clerk in the county. At least 15 days before the date of the presidential primary, each municipal clerk shall post a public notice stating the date and hours during which the polling places in the municipality will be open. Failure to give notice does not invalidate the election.

Subd. 2. [BALLOT PREPARATION.] The secretary of state shall prepare paper ballots, absentee ballot envelopes, ballot return envelopes, election return envelopes, and summary statements for use in the presidential primary. The ballots must be printed on white paper with a separate ballot for the names of the candidates of each political party.

Sec. 5. [207A.05] [ENDORSED CANDIDATE.]

The candidate who receives a plurality of the votes cast for candidates of the candidate's political party must be declared the endorsed candidate of that party.

Sec. 6. [207A.06] [SELECTION OF DELEGATES; NATIONAL CONVENTION BALLOTING.]

Subdivision 1. [APPORTIONMENT OF VOTES.] The delegates to the national convention of each political party appearing on the presidential primary ballot must be apportioned among the various candidates of that party receiving votes in the presidential primary, in proportion to their respective vote totals.

The secretary of state shall certify to the state chairperson of each political party appearing on the presidential primary ballot the number of delegates to which each presidential candidate is entitled.

shall promptly notify the secretary of state of the names of the delegates to the national convention chosen as supporters of each presidential candidate. Only supporters of candidates whose names appeared on the presidential primary ballot may be chosen by the state convention of that party to be delegates to the national convention. The secretary of state shall promptly notify each presidential candidate of the names of the delegates to the national convention chosen as supporters of that candidate. If the presidential candidate determines that the delegates chosen as supporters by the state convention are not in fact committed to the candidate's candidacy, the candidate shall, within ten days of receiving the notification from the secretary of state, advise the secretary of state of the names of those delegates to whom the candidate objects on those grounds and shall name as substitute delegates any other individuals who are committed to the candidacy. The determination and selection by the presidential candidate shall take precedence over the decision of the state convention and is final. The secretary of state shall promptly notify the secretary of the state convention of the affected political party of the action by a presidential candidate.

Subd. 3. [DELEGATE VOTES.] At the national convention, delegates chosen because of their support for a presidential candidate shall vote for that candidate on the first ballot at the national convention regardless of the number of votes the candidate receives, and shall also vote for the candidate on the second and third ballots if the candidate receives at least 20 percent of the votes cast on the preceding ballot, unless they have been released from that obligation by the candidate.

Sec. 7. [207A.07] [USE OF VOTING MACHINES.]

The county auditor of each county in which lever voting machines or electronic voting systems are used shall provide all ballots, ballot labels, ballot cards, and other necessary printed forms and supplies needed to place the ballots required by sections 1 to 7 on the voting machines which otherwise are provided by the state when paper ballots are used. The total cost of printing and providing the forms must be paid by the state."

Amend the title as follows:

Page 1, line 8, after the semicolon, insert "providing for a presidential primary election; regulating the selection of convention delegates;"

The motion prevailed. So the amendment was adopted.

Subd. 3. [COMMUNICATIONS WITH BORROWER.] In servicing a mortgage loan, a mortgage lender or mortgage loan servicer shall make a good faith effort to respond within ten business days to oral or written communications from a borrower about the borrower's loan that reasonably indicate to the mortgage lender or loan servicer that a response is requested or needed.

Subd. 4. [TOLL-FREE NUMBER.] In servicing a mortgage loan, a mortgage lender or mortgage loan servicer shall establish a toll-free telephone number or provide an alternative toll-free telephone arrangement for receiving telephone calls from a Minnesota resident borrower calling from Minnesota to the mortgage lender or mortgage loan servicer, if the mortgage lender's or mortgage loan servicer's office is located in an area code different from the borrower's Minnesota residence.

Sec. 13. [57.13] [MORTGAGE BROKERS.]

- (2) identify the trust account into which the fees or consideration will be deposited;*
- (3) state the circumstances under which the mortgage broker will be entitled to disbursement from the trust account;*
- (4) state the circumstances under which a person will be entitled to a refund of all or part of the fee;*
- (5) specifically describe the services to be provided by the mortgage broker and the dates by which the services will be performed;*
- (6) state the maximum rate of interest to be charged on any loan obtained;*
- (7) state that the state of Minnesota does not recommend or approve mortgage broker contracts, fees, or charges;*
- (8) disclose the length of time the entity has been engaged in business as a mortgage broker;*
- (9) disclose with respect to the previous calendar year the percentage of the mortgage broker's customers for whom loans have actually been funded as a result of the mortgage broker's services; and*

Cancellation is evidenced by the customer giving written notice of cancellation to the mortgage broker at the address stated in the contract. Notice of cancellation, if given by mail, is effective upon deposit in a mailbox properly addressed to the mortgage broker with postage prepaid. Notice of cancellation need not take a particular form and is sufficient if it indicates by any form of written expression the intention of the customer not to be bound by the contract.

Sec. 14. [57.14] [WAIVER PROHIBITED.]

Any waiver, modification, or attempt to waive or modify any of the borrower's rights secured by this chapter is void as contrary to public policy.

Sec. 16. [57.16] [ENFORCEMENT.]

For the purposes of the commissioner's authority to enforce this chapter, an act of an officer, employee, director, partner, or principal stockholder, if performed in connection with the operation of the lender's or broker's business, is considered an act of the mortgage lender or mortgage broker.

Sec. 17. [57.17] [PRIVATE REMEDY.]

A cause of action for violation of sections 2 to 18 does not arise unless the person has made a written demand to the mortgage lender or mortgage broker for damages and the lender or broker has not responded to the demand within ten days after the demand or has denied paying the full amount of damages demanded, and the person can show that actual damages have been sustained as a direct result of the violation. If actual damages have been sustained, the mortgage lender or mortgage broker is liable to the person for actual damages, plus reasonable attorney fees. A mortgage lender or mortgage broker is not liable under this section for a disclosure made in a form approved by the commissioner under section 19, or for a violation that the lender shows by a preponderance of the evidence was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error under United States Code, title 15, section 1640.

Sec. 18. [57.18] [RULES.]

The commissioner may adopt rules to administer this chapter.

Sec. 19. [57.19] [APPROVAL OF FORMS.]

A mortgage lender or mortgage broker may request the commissioner to approve a disclosure governed by this chapter. A request for approval of a disclosure must be accompanied by a fee of $100, or a fee of $50 for an amendment to a disclosure that had been previously approved. The fee must be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the general fund. The commissioner must approve or disapprove the disclosure within 60 days after receipt.

COMPENSATION BENEFITS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 176.011, subdivision 18, is amended to read:

Subd. 18. [WEEKLY WAGE.] "Weekly wage" is arrived at by multiplying the daily wage by the number of days and fractional days normally worked in the business of the employer for the employment involved. If the employee normally works less than five days per week or works an irregular number of days per week, the number of days normally worked shall be computed by dividing the total number of days in which the employee actually performed any of the duties of employment in the last 26 weeks by the number of weeks in which the employee actually performed such duties, provided that the weekly wage for part time employment during a period of seasonal or temporary layoff shall be computed on the number of days and fractional days normally worked in the business of the employer for the employment involved. If, at the time of the injury, the employee was regularly employed by two or more employers, the employee's days of work for all such employments shall be included in the computation of weekly wage. Occasional overtime is not to be considered in computing the weekly wage, but if overtime is regular or frequent throughout the year it shall be taken into consideration. The maximum weekly compensation payable to an employee, or to the employee's dependents in the event of death, shall not exceed ~~66~~ ^{2/3} 80 percent of the ~~product of the daily wage times the number of days~~

~~normally worked~~ employee's after-tax weekly wage, provided that the compensation payable for permanent partial disability under section 176.101, subdivision 3, and for permanent total disability under section 176.101, subdivision 4, or death under section 176.111, shall not be computed on less than the number of hours normally worked in the employment or industry in which the injury was sustained, subject also to such maximums as are specifically otherwise provided.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 176.011, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 18a. [AFTER-TAX WEEKLY WAGE.] "After-tax weekly wage" means the weekly wage reduced by the amounts required to be withheld by the Federal Insurance Contributions Act, United States Code, title 16, sections 3101 to 3126, but without regard to the yearly maximum, and by state and federal income tax laws using as the number of allowances the number of exemptions that the employee is entitled to under federal law for the employee and the employee's dependents and without additional allowances.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 176.021, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMPENSATION, COMMENCEMENT OF PAYMENT.] All employers shall commence payment of compensation at the time and in the manner prescribed by this chapter without the necessity of any agreement or any order of the division. Except for medical, burial, and other nonperiodic benefits, payments shall be made as nearly as possible at the intervals when the wage was payable, provided, however, that payments for permanent partial disability shall be governed by section 176.101, subdivision 3. If doubt exists as to the eventual permanent partial disability, ~~payment for the economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation, whichever is due, pursuant to section 176.101,~~ shall be then made when due for the minimum permanent partial disability ascertainable, and further payment shall be made upon any later ascertainment of greater permanent partial disability. Prior to or at the time of commencement of the payment of ~~economic recovery compensation or lump sum or periodic payment of impairment~~ permanent partial disability compensation, the employee and employer shall be furnished with a copy of the medical report upon which the payment is based and all other medical reports which the insurer has that indicate a permanent partial disability rating, together with a statement by the insurer as to whether the tendered payment is for minimum permanent partial disability or final and eventual disability. After receipt of all reports available to the insurer that indicate a permanent partial disability rating, the employee shall make available or permit the insurer to obtain any medical report that the employee has or has knowledge of that contains a permanent partial disability rating which the insurer does not already have. ~~Economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation pursuant to section 176.101 is payable in addition to but not concurrently with compensation for temporary total disability but is payable pursuant to section 176.101. Impairment compensation is payable concurrently and in addition to compensation for permanent total disability pursuant to section 176.101. Economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation pursuant to section 176.101 shall be withheld pending completion of payment for temporary total disability, and no credit shall be taken for payment of economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation against liability for temporary total or future permanent total~~ disability. Liability on the part of an employer or the insurer for disability of a temporary total, temporary partial, and permanent total nature shall be considered as a continuing product and part of the employee's inability to earn or reduction in earning capacity due to injury or occupational disease and compensation is payable accordingly, subject to section 176.101. Economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation is payable for functional loss of use or impairment of function, permanent in nature, and payment therefore shall be separate, distinct, and in addition to payment for any other compensation, subject to section 176.101. The right to receive temporary total, temporary partial, or permanent total disability payments vests in the injured employee or the employee's dependents under this chapter or, if none, in the employee's legal heirs at the time the disability can be ascertained and the right is not abrogated by the employee's death prior to the making of the payment.

The right to receive economic recovery compensation or impairment permanent partial compensation vests in an injured employee or in the employee's dependents under this chapter or, if none, in the employee's legal heirs at the time the disability can be ascertained, provided that the employee lives for at least 30 days beyond the date of the injury. Upon the death of an employee who is receiving economic recovery compensation or impairment compensation, further compensation is payable pursuant to section 176.101. Impairment compensation is payable under this paragraph if vesting has occurred, the employee dies prior to reaching maximum medical improvement, and the requirements and conditions under section 176.101, subdivision 3e, are not met.

Disability ratings for permanent partial disability shall be based on objective medical evidence. The right is not abrogated by the employee's death prior to the making of the payment.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 176.061, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [INDEMNITY.] Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 65B or any other law to the contrary, an employer has a right of indemnity for any compensation paid or payable pursuant to this chapter, including temporary total compensation, temporary partial compensation, permanent partial disability, economic recovery compensation, impairment compensation, medical compensation, rehabilitation, death, and permanent total compensation.

Subd. 1a. [EXTENDED DISABILITY COMPENSATION.] (a) If an employee, who has a permanent partial disability, is not working because of the personal injury after payment of permanent partial disability benefits is complete, the employee is eligible for extended disability compensation. If an employee received any permanent partial compensation in a lump sum, payment will be considered complete after expiration of the period that the employee would have received permanent partial compensation had it been paid periodically.

(b) Extended disability compensation is paid at the rate for temporary total compensation, escalated under section 176.645, for the number of weeks equal to 246 multiplied by the employee's percentage rating of permanent partial disability, determined according to the rules adopted by the commissioner pursuant to section 176.105, subdivision 4. The total extended compensation for any injury may not exceed this product.

(c) Extended disability compensation must cease if the employee is no longer disabled, returns to work, refuses a job offer described in subdivision 1, paragraph (d), clause (4), fails to diligently search for appropriate work, or retires from the labor market.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 176.101, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [TEMPORARY PARTIAL DISABILITY.] (a) In all cases of temporary partial disability the compensation shall be ~~66-2/3 percent of the difference between the weekly wage of the employee at the time of injury and the wage the employee is able to earn in the employee's partially disabled condition.~~ paid as follows:

(1) for the first 52 weeks that the employee returns to work, the compensation shall be 80 percent of the difference between the after-tax weekly wage of the employee at the time of injury and the after-tax weekly wage the employee is able to earn in the employee's partially disabled condition;

(2) for the second 52 weeks that the employee returns to work, the compensation shall be 60 percent of the difference between the after-tax weekly wage of the employee at the time of injury and the after-tax weekly wage the employee is able to earn in the employee's partially disabled condition; and

(3) for the third 52 weeks that the employee returns to work, the compensation shall be 40 percent of the difference between the after-tax weekly wage of the employee at the time of injury and the after-tax weekly wage the employee is able to earn in the employee's partially disabled condition.

(b) This compensation shall be paid during the period of disability except as provided in this section, payment to be made at the intervals when the wage was payable, as nearly as may be, and subject to a maximum compensation equal to the statewide average weekly wage.

(c) Temporary partial compensation may be paid only while the employee is working, earning less than the employee's weekly wage at the time of the injury, and the reduced wage the employee is able to earn in the employee's partially disabled condition is due to the injury. Except as provided in section 176.102, subdivision 11, paragraph (b), temporary partial compensation may not be paid after the employee has returned to work for 156 weeks, including weeks in which the employee has no wage loss, or after 350 weeks after the date of injury, whichever occurs first.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 176.101, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

96-100	400,000

An employee may not receive compensation for more than a 100 percent disability of the whole body, even if the employee sustains disability to two or more body parts.

(b) Permanent partial disability is payable upon cessation of temporary total disability under subdivision 1. If the employee is not working, the compensation is payable in installments at the same intervals and in the same amount as the initial temporary total disability rate. If the employee returns to work, the remaining compensation is payable in a lump sum 30 days after the employee returned to work, provided the employment has not been substantially interrupted by the injury for any part of the 30 days and the employee is still employed at the job at the end of the period. Permanent partial disability is not payable while temporary total compensation is being paid. Permanent partial disability is payable to permanently totally disabled employees in a lump sum at the time the disability can be ascertained.

For injuries occurring after October 1, 1975, all adjustments provided for in this section shall be included in computing any benefit due under this section. Subd. 5. [OCCUPATIONAL DISEASE MEDICAL ELIGIBILITY; ASBESTOS HEALTH SCREENINGS.] (a) Notwithstanding section 176.66, an employee who has ~~contracted~~ acquired an occupational disease is eligible to receive compensation under this section even if the employee is not disabled from earning full wages at the work at which the employee was last employed.

(b) An employee who has acquired asbestosis or other occupational disease resulting from exposure to asbestos is entitled to payment for reasonable charges for asbestos health screenings at reasonable frequencies in accordance with established medical practice but not to exceed once annually. Payment for the screening must be made in accordance with section 176.66, subdivision 10. Payment for screenings must be ordered under section 176.191, subdivision 1, provided the employee presents an affidavit and supporting medical report indicating that the employee has acquired asbestosis or other occupational disease resulting from exposure to asbestos which arose out of and in the course of such employment. Temporary orders under this paragraph are issued for the purpose of prompt payment to the employee; the existence of such an order may not be used against the payor as an indication that the payor must assume liability for any other compensation due under this chapter or that the payor is ultimately liable for the compensation paid under the order.

Sec. 2. [ASBESTOS HEALTH SCREENING PILOT PROJECT.]

The commissioner of health shall establish an asbestos health screening pilot project for residents of Aitkin, Carlton, Pine, and St. Louis counties who have been exposed to asbestos at their employment or former employment but who have not yet acquired an occupational disease under the workers' compensation law and, as such, are not yet eligible for asbestos health screenings under Minnesota Statutes, section 176.135, subdivision 5. The purpose of the pilot project is: to study the actual and estimated extent and risk of acquiring asbestos-related diseases among individuals exposed to asbestos on the job; to determine the types of counseling and prevention services that individuals exposed to asbestos may need and the best methods of administering such services; and to estimate the cost and effectiveness of screening, counseling, and preventive services for individuals exposed to asbestos on the job but who are not yet eligible to receive medical benefits or compensation under the workers' compensation law.

The commissioner of health may contract with a local board of health, or with any local, state, or nationally recognized experts in the diagnosis and treatment of asbestos-related diseases for conducting the health screenings and evaluating the results.

Residents of Aitkin, Carlton, Pine, and St. Louis counties who have been exposed to asbestos at their employment or former employment are eligible to receive an annual asbestos health screening under procedures determined by the commissioner of health.

The commissioner of health shall present a report and recommendations to the legislature on or before February 1, 1991, on the number of participants in, and the effectiveness of, the pilot project program as established under this section and on the advisability of continuing the pilot project to gain additional data.

$150,000 is appropriated to the commissioner of health from the state general fund for the purposes of this section and is available until expended.

Sec. 3. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective the day following final enactment. Section 2 is effective July 1, 1989.

If the employer or the insurer or the defendant is given written notice of claims for legal services or disbursements, the claim shall be a lien against the amount paid or payable as compensation. In no case shall fees be calculated on the basis of any undisputed portion of compensation awards. Allowable fees under this chapter shall be based solely upon genuinely disputed portions of claims, including disputes related to the payment of rehabilitation benefits or to other aspects of a rehabilitation plan. A copy of the signed retainer agreement shall also be filed. The employee and insurer shall receive a copy of the statement. The statement shall be on a form prescribed by the commissioner, shall report the number of hours spent on the case, and shall clearly and conspicuously state that the employee or insurer has ten calendar days to object to the attorney fees requested. If no objection is timely made by the employee or insurer, the amount requested shall be conclusively presumed reasonable providing the amount does not exceed the limitation in subdivision 1. The commissioner, compensation judge, or court of appeals shall issue an order granting the fees and the amount requested shall be awarded to the party requesting the fee. If a timely objection is filed, or the fee is determined on an hourly basis, the commissioner, compensation judge, or court of appeals shall review the matter and make a determination based on the criteria in subdivision 5. If no timely objection is made by an employer or insurer, reimbursement under subdivision 7 shall be made if the statement of fees requested this reimbursement.

The application shall set forth the fee requested ~~and, the number of hours spent on the case~~, the basis for the request, and whether or not a hearing is requested. The application, with affidavit of service upon the ~~employee attorney's client~~, shall be filed by the attorney requesting the fee. If a hearing is requested by an interested party, a hearing shall be set with notice of the hearing served upon known interested parties. In all cases the employee shall be served with notice of hearing.

The notice of hearing shall be served upon known interested parties. ~~The attorney for the employee shall be served with a notice of the hearing.~~ The workers' compensation court of appeals shall have the authority to raise ~~the question~~ of the issue of the attorney fees at any time upon its own motion and shall have continuing jurisdiction over attorney fees.

Rehabilitation to a job with a higher economic status than would have occurred without disability is permitted if it can be demonstrated that this rehabilitation is necessary to increase the likelihood of reemployment. Economic status is to be measured not only by opportunity for immediate income but also by opportunity for future income.

RECODIFICATION

Section 1. [REPORT TO THE LEGISLATURE ON RECODIFICATION AND SIMPLIFICATION OF WORKERS' COMPENSATION LAW.]

(a) The commissioner of labor and industry shall contract with a nationally recognized and neutral consultant having expertise in the workers' compensation field to make recommendations, including a draft proposal, on recodification and simplification of Minnesota's workers' compensation law. The project must be performed by a consultant who has the following qualifications:

(1) a working knowledge of Minnesota's workers' compensation law and procedures;

(2) experience with and understanding of the workers' compensation concept and its implementation in the United States;

(3) experience in legislative drafting; and

(4) an absence of ties with any organization with statewide membership having an interest in workers' compensation in Minnesota.

(b) The recodification and simplification proposal must reflect a comprehensive, accurate, and complete restatement of the workers' compensation statute. The goals of the recodification and simplification are as follows:

(1) to simplify the statutory provisions governing the workers' compensation system, while at the same time preserving the basic benefit levels and services currently available under the law and the existing dispute resolution process, in order to permit greater understanding of the law and the rights and obligations of the parties to the workers' compensation system;

(2) to limit the need for judicial interpretation of substantive aspects of the law and to limit the court system's involvement in policy decisions concerning the operation of the workers' compensation system;

(3) to provide greater certainty in the application of the law by clarifying provisions that are capable of multiple interpretations;

(4) to eliminate duplicate or unnecessary language in order to shorten the law itself; and

(5) to provide a structure for the law that supports greater understanding of the relationships between and among the various provisions of the law, and permits changes to be made, if and when required, in a more precise and understandable manner.

(c) The recodification and simplification project must be conducted in the following manner:

(1) The consultant shall establish a basic structure for a recodified statute by breaking down the existing statute into its component parts and determining the relationships between and among the various provisions. Examination of the relevant case law supporting each component of the existing statute must also be undertaken as part of this preliminary work.

(2) After the preliminary work is completed, the consultant shall conduct an in-depth process of discussion with organizations with statewide membership having an interest in workers' compensation in Minnesota. The purpose of this discussion is to determine the areas in which there is agreement among the interested parties as to the meaning of the existing law, and those areas in which there is disagreement. In instances in which disagreement is found to exist, the consultant shall make special efforts to establish case law support for each of the positions and make a determination as to which position appears to be correct and supportive of legislative intent.

(3) The consultant shall then draft a proposal for recodification and simplification, with complete annotation to existing sections of the law and supporting case law, as well as cross-references among new and old sections. The consultant shall identify each instance in which there is any question as to the meaning of any provision contained in the proposal, together with support for the language chosen. The consultant shall also identify each provision contained in the proposal which has not yet been dealt with by the courts, and for which there might exist the possibility of multiple interpretations. Explanations of the possible interpretations, and their implications, must be provided.

(4) The consultant shall circulate an initial draft proposal among the organizations with statewide membership having an interest in workers' compensation for analysis and comment. After comments have been received, the consultant shall analyze and respond to any dissent with respect to provisions contained in the proposal, and provide a full discussion of supporting case law and explanations and implications of the position adopted. The final proposal must contain complete citations to existing statutory sections and case law, and must list each instance in which there is any disagreement as to the meaning of the existing law and each instance in which the meaning of the existing law has not been determined or is open to question.

(d) The commissioner shall make a preliminary report to the legislature by February 1, 1990, concerning the progress of the recodification and simplification project. The commissioner shall make a final report to the legislature by January 1, 1991, containing the consultant's recommendations for recodification and simplification of the workers' compensation law, including the consultant's final draft proposal and accompanying analysis and explanations.

Up to $150,000 is appropriated from the special compensation fund to the commissioner of labor and industry for the purpose of contracting with a consultant to make recommendations and draft a proposal for recodification and simplification of the Minnesota workers' compensation law.

Sec. 4. [MANDATED REDUCTIONS.]

(a) As a result of the workers' compensation law changes in this act and the resulting savings to the costs of Minnesota's workers' compensation system, an insurer's approved schedule of rates in effect on October 1, 1989, must be reduced by ten percent and applied by the insurer to all policies issued, renewed, or outstanding on or after that date. An insurer may not adjust its filed rating plan to recoup the ten percent mandated rate reduction under this section. The reduction must be computed on the basis of a ten percent premium reduction prorated to the expiration of that policy. An insurer shall provide written notice by January 1, 1990, to all employers having an outstanding policy with the insurer as of October 1, 1989, to read as follows: "As a result of the changes in the workers' compensation insurance system enacted by the 1989 legislature, you are entitled to a credit or refund to your current premium in an amount of $ which reflects a ten percent mandated premium reduction prorated to the expiration of your policy."

(b) No rate increases may be filed between May 23, 1989, and January 1, 1990.

Sec. 5. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 and 3 are effective the day following final enactment. Section 2 is effective October 1, 1989. Section 4, paragraph (a), is effective October 1, 1989, and section 4, paragraph (b), is effective the day following final enactment.

ARTICLE 8

CONTINGENT INSURANCE REGULATION

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 79.01, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TERMS.] Unless the language or context clearly indicates that a different meaning is intended, the following terms, for the purposes of sections 79.01 to 79.211 and sections 6 to 33, shall have the meanings ascribed to them.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 79.074, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [UNFAIRLY DISCRIMINATORY.] A rate, rating plan, or schedule of rates is unfairly discriminatory in relation to another if it clearly fails to reflect equitably the differences in expected losses, expenses, and the degree of risk. Rates, rating plans, or schedules of rates are not unfairly discriminatory because different premiums result for policyholders with like loss exposures but different expense factors, or like expense factors but different loss exposures, so long as the rates, rating plan, or schedule of rates reflect the differences with reasonable accuracy.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 79.074, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [EXCESSIVENESS.] Rates, rating plans, or schedules of rates are excessive if the expected underwriting profit, together with expected income from invested reserves for the market in question, that would accrue to an insurer would be unreasonable in relation to the risk undertaken by the insurer in transacting the business.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 79.074, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [INADEQUACY.] Rates, rating plans, or schedules of rates are inadequate if, together with the investment income associated with an insurer's Minnesota workers' compensation insurance business, they are insufficient to sustain projected losses and expenses of the insurer and if their continued use could lead to an insolvent situation for the insurer.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 79.074, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [FLEXIBLE RANGE OF RATES.] An insurer may write insurance at rates that are lower than the rates approved by the commissioner, provided the rates are not unfairly discriminatory.

Sec. 6. [79.253] [PRIOR RATES.]

Subdivision 1. Rates, schedules of rates, and rating plans that have been filed with the commissioner prior to July 1, 1991, are conclusively presumed to satisfy the requirements of this article until the initial schedule of rates has been approved by order of the commissioner.

Subd. 2. If a rate was not filed by an insurer prior to July 1, 1991, an insurer may file a rate for any classification for which a rate was not previously filed. This rate may not be used until it is approved by the commissioner. The commissioner may approve a rate up to the rate level approved for use by the assigned risk plan for that rate class. These rates may remain in force until the commissioner has approved an initial schedule of rates pursuant to section 9. If the commissioner disapproves of any rate or rating plan pursuant to authority granted in this subdivision, the disapproval is not subject to chapter 14 and the decision is final.

Subd. 3. Until the commissioner issues an order approving a schedule of rates pursuant to section 9, an insurer may not, through the use of any rating plan, charge a rate higher than the rates applicable to the insurer under subdivision 1 or 2. This subdivision does not prohibit the use of approved experience rate plans or retrospective rating plans which have been adopted in the filed rates by insurers, the assigned risk plan, or filed by a data service organization. This section also does not prohibit the adjustment of a schedule of rates to reflect adjustments in the assessment rate for the special compensation fund, the annual adjustment made pursuant to section 176.645, any adjustment in the assessment for the assigned risk plan pursuant to section 79.251, subdivision 5, any adjustment in the assessment for the Minnesota insurance guarantee association pursuant to section 60C.05, or any other assessment required by law.

Subd. 4. Rates, schedules of rates, and rating plans filed after June 30, 1991, may not be used after the effective date of this article and the rates, schedules of rates, and rating plans in effect prior to July 1, 1991, are reinstated.

Subd. 5. This section applies only to policies issued to be effective after the effective date of this section.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 79.50, is amended to read:

79.50 [PURPOSES.]

The purposes of chapter 79 are to:

(a) Promote public welfare by regulating insurance rates so that premiums are not excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory;

(b) Promote quality and integrity in the data bases used in workers' compensation insurance ratemaking;

(c) Prohibit price fixing agreements and anticompetitive behavior by insurers; and

(d) ~~Promote price competition and provide rates that are responsive to competitive market conditions;~~

(e) ~~Provide a means of establishment of proper rates if competition is not effective;~~

(f) ~~Define the function and scope of activities of data service organizations;~~

(g) ~~Provide for an orderly transition from regulated rates to competitive market conditions; and~~

(h) Encourage insurers to provide alternative innovative methods whereby employers can meet the requirements imposed by section 176.181.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 79.59, is amended to read:

79.59 [INSURERS AND, DATA SERVICE ORGANIZATIONS, AND RATING ASSOCIATION; PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES.]

Subdivision 1. [MONOPOLIZATION.] No insurer or data service organization or rating association shall attempt to monopolize or combine or conspire with any other person to monopolize the business of insurance.

Subd. 2. [AGREEMENT PROHIBITED.] No insurer shall agree with any other insurer, rating association, or with a data service organization to adhere to or to use any rate, rating plan, rating schedule, rating rule, or underwriting rule except as specifically authorized by this chapter or for the purpose of creating experience modifications for employers with employees in more than one state.

Subd. 3. [TRADE RESTRAINT.] No insurer, rating association, or data service organization shall make an agreement with any other insurer, data service organization, or other person which has the purpose or the effect of restraining trade or of substantially lessening competition.

Subd. 4. [EXCEPTIONS.] ~~The fact that insurers writing not more than 25 percent of the workers' compensation premiums in Minnesota use the same rates, rating plans, rating schedules, rating rules, underwriting rules, or similar materials shall not alone constitute a violation of subdivision 1 or 2.~~

Two or more insurers under common ownership or operating under common management or control may act in concert between or among themselves with respect to matters authorized under this chapter as if they constituted a single insurer, provided that the rating plan of such insurers shall be considered to be a single plan for the purposes of determining unfair discrimination.

Subd. 5. [ADDITIONAL PROHIBITION.] In addition to other prohibitions contained in this chapter, no data service organization or rating association shall:

(a) Refuse to supply any service for which it is licensed or any data, except for data identifiable to an individual insurer, to any insurer authorized to do business in this state which offers to pay the usual compensation for the service or data;

(b) Require the purchase of any specific service as a condition to obtaining any other services sought;

(c) Participate in the development or distribution of rates, rating plans, or rating rules except as specifically authorized by this chapter or by rules adopted pursuant to this chapter; or

(d) Refuse membership to any licensed insurer.

Sec. 9. [79.71] [RATES; HEARINGS.]

Subdivision 1. [PETITION FOR ADOPTION OF RATE SCHEDULE.]

(a) The commissioner shall adopt a schedule of workers' compensation insurance rates for use in this state for each classification under which business is written. The schedule of rates may not be excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory.

(b) In adopting a schedule of rates, the commissioner may act on the written petition of the association, the department of labor and industry, or any other interested party requesting that a hearing be held to adopt a schedule of rates. Upon receipt of a petition requesting a hearing for adoption of a schedule of rates, the commissioner shall determine whether the petition sufficiently sets forth facts that show that the existing schedule of rates is excessive, inadequate, unfairly discriminatory, or otherwise in need of modification so as to indicate the need to hold a hearing. If the association is a petitioner, the commissioner may decline to grant a hearing if the association has failed to provide information requested by previous orders modifying the schedule of rates, provided that the request was not unreasonable. The commissioner may accept or reject the petition for a hearing and shall give notice of a determination to the petitioning party. If the commissioner rejects the petition, the commissioner shall notify the petitioning party of the reasons for the rejection. If the commissioner of labor and industry petitions the commissioner for a hearing pursuant to this section, the commissioner shall hold a hearing if the commissioner of labor and industry certifies that the hearing is necessary because a decision of the supreme court, enactment of a statute, or other circumstance has effected a substantial change in the basis upon which the existing schedule of rates was adopted.

Subd. 2. [HEARING.] (a) The commissioner shall determine, within 90 days of receipt of the petition, whether to accept or reject the petition. If the commissioner accepts the petition for hearing, the commissioner shall order a hearing on matters set forth in the petition. The hearing must be held pursuant to the contested case procedures in chapter 14. The burden of proof is on the petitioning party.

(b) The commissioner shall forward a copy of the order for hearing to the chief administrative law judge. The chief administrative law judge must, within 30 days of the receipt of the order, set a hearing date, assign an administrative law judge to hear the matter, and notify the commissioner of the hearing date and the administrative law judge assigned to hear the matter. The commissioner shall publish notice of the hearing in the State Register at least 20 days before the hearing date. Approval of the notice prior to publication by the administrative law judge is not required.

(c) The administrative law judge may admit documentary and statistical evidence accepted and relied upon by an expert whose expertise is related to workers' compensation rate matters, without the traditional evidentiary foundation. The commissioner of labor and industry is responsible for presenting the public's case.

(d) The hearing must be completed within 180 days of assignment of the matter to the administrative law judge. Within 60 days of the completion of the hearing, the administrative law judge must submit a report to the commissioner. The parties or the administrative law judge, if the parties cannot agree, shall adjust all time requirements under the contested case procedures to conform with the the time requirements set forth in this subdivision. After the close of the hearing record, the administrative law judge shall transmit to the commissioner the entire record of the hearing, including the transcript, exhibits, and all other material properly accepted into evidence, together with the finding of facts, conclusions, and recommended order made by the administrative law judge. The time for submitting the report may be extended by the chief administrative law judge for good cause.

Subd. 3. [HEARING DETERMINATION.] The commissioner may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, matters raised in the petition for adoption of the schedule of rates or matters raised in the findings and recommendations of the administrative law judge. The commissioner's determination shall be based upon substantial evidence. The commissioner is an interested party if the commissioner's decision is appealed.

Subd. 4. [DEADLINE FOR DETERMINATION.] The commissioner shall make a final determination with respect to adoption of a schedule of rates within 90 days after receipt of the administrative law judge's report. If the commissioner fails to act within the 90-day period, the findings, conclusions, and recommended order of the administrative law judge become the final order of the commissioner on the 91st day after receipt.

Subd. 5. [CONSULTANTS; COMMISSIONER OF COMMERCE.] The commissioner may hire consultants, including a consulting actuary and other experts, considered necessary to assist in the establishment or modification of the schedule of rates.

Subd. 6. [CONSULTANTS; COMMISSIONER OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY.] The commissioner of labor and industry may hire consultants, including a consulting actuary and other experts, considered necessary to assist the commissioner of labor and industry in the hearing for modification of the schedule of rates and appeals therefrom.

Subd. 7. [CONSULTANTS; ADMINISTRATIVE JUDGES.] The office of administrative hearings, upon approval of the chief administrative law judge, may hire consultants necessary to assist the administrative law judge assigned to a workers' compensation rate proceeding.

Subd. 8. [COMMISSIONER OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY AS PUBLIC REPRESENTATIVE.] (a) The commissioner of labor and industry is a party to all proceedings under this chapter and shall act to assure that the public interest is represented and protected. The commissioner of labor and industry may: (1) inspect at all reasonable times, and copy the books, records, memoranda, and correspondence or other documents and records of any person relating to any business regulated under this chapter; and (2) cause the deposition to be taken of any person concerning the business and affairs of any business regulated under this chapter.

(b) Information sought through a deposition must be for a lawfully authorized purpose and must be relevant and material to the investigation or hearing before the commissioner of labor and industry. Information obtained from a deposition may be used by the commissioner of labor and industry only for a lawfully authorized purpose and pursuant to powers and responsibilities conferred upon the department of labor and industry. A deposition is to be taken in the manner prescribed by law for taking depositions in civil actions in the district court.

(c) The commissioner of labor and industry may, on the commissioner's own initiative, investigate any matter subject to the jurisdiction of the department of labor and industry.

Subd. 9. [APPOINTMENT OF ACTUARY.] The commissioner of labor and industry shall employ the services of a casualty actuary experienced in workers' compensation whose duties include but are not limited to investigation of complaints by insured parties relative to rates, rate classifications, or discriminatory practices of an insurer. The salary of the actuary employed pursuant to this section is not subject to the provisions of section 43A.17, subdivision 1.

Sec. 10. [79.72] [PETITION FOR REHEARING.]

Subdivision 1. [PETITION CONTENTS.] Any party may petition the commissioner for rehearing and reconsideration of a determination made pursuant to section 9. The petition for rehearing and reconsideration shall be served on the commissioner and all parties to the rate hearing within 30 days after service of the commissioner's final order. The petition must set forth factual grounds in support of its petition. Any party adversely affected by a petition for review and reconsideration has 15 days to respond to factual matters alleged in the petition.

Subd. 2. [GRANT OF REHEARING.] The commissioner may grant a rehearing upon the filing of a petition under subdivision 1. On rehearing, the commissioner may limit the scope of factual matters that are subject to rehearing and reconsideration. The rehearing is subject to the provisions of section 9.

Subd. 3. [MODIFICATION OF ORDER.] Following a rehearing, the commissioner may modify the terms of the initial order adopting a change in the schedule of rates upon a determination that adequate factual grounds exist to support modification. Adequate factual grounds include, but are not limited to, erroneous testimony by any witness or party to the hearing, material change in Minnesota loss or expense data occurring after a petition for adoption of the schedule of rates has been filed, or any other mistake of fact that has a substantial effect upon the schedule of rates adopted in prior orders of the commissioner.

Sec. 11. [79.73] [JUDICIAL REVIEW.]

Final orders of the commissioner pursuant to sections 9 and 10 are subject to judicial review pursuant to sections 14.63 to 14.69 but must remain in effect during the pendency of any appeal.

Sec. 12. [79.74] [INTERIM SCHEDULE OF RATES.]

(a) The rating association, the commissioner of labor and industry, or any other interested party may file a petition for an adjustment in the schedule of rates when there has been a law change in the benefit payable under chapter 176. "Law change" means only statutory changes by the legislature or supreme court decisions. When a petition for a change in the schedule of rates due to a law change is received by the commissioner, the commissioner shall review any petition and determine within 30 days if it presents facts which warrant a hearing. If the commissioner accepts a petition for hearing, the commissioner shall order a hearing on the matters set forth in the petition. The hearing must be conducted pursuant to the contested case procedures found in chapter 14.

(b) The chief administrative law judge shall set a hearing date, assign an administrative law judge to hear a petition for a change in the schedule of rates, and notify the commissioner of the hearing date and the administrative law judge to hear the matter, within 30 days of receipt of the commissioner's order. The commissioner shall publish notice of the hearing in the State Register at least 20 days before the hearing date. The administrative law judge shall conclude the hearing within 60 days of assignment of the matter to the administrative law judge and file findings of fact, conclusions of law, and a proposed order with the commissioner within 30 days of conclusion of the hearing. The administrative law judge shall, after the close of the record, file a report with recommendations in the same manner as in section 9. The time for holding the hearing and filing the report with the commissioner may be expanded by the chief administrative law judge upon a showing of good cause.

(c) The commissioner shall make a final determination with respect to adoption of an interim adjustment to the schedule of rates within 30 days after receipt of the administrative law judge's report. The commissioner's order may affirm, reverse, or modify the findings and order of the administrative law judge. The petitioning party has the burden of proof in any hearing held pursuant to this subdivision. All other evidentiary, procedural, and review standards in section 9 apply to interim rate hearings except for the time requirements in this subdivision.

(d) Interim rate hearings are subject to judicial review pursuant to chapter 14 except that the commissioner's interim rate order remains in effect during the pendency of any appeal by any party. The commissioner is an interested party if the commissioner's decision is appealed pursuant to chapter 14.

(e) Interim rate hearings are only for changes in the schedule of workers' compensation rates resulting from law changes and may only be held after an initial schedule of rates has been approved by the commissioner unless requested by the commissioner of labor and industry.

Sec. 13. [79.75] [AUTOMATIC ADJUSTMENT OF RATES.]

(a) The commissioner shall adopt a rule to establish a mechanism to automatically adjust a schedule of rates to reflect benefit changes mandated by operation of law after the most recent change in the schedule of rates, an adjustment in the assessment rate for the special fund, the annual adjustment made pursuant to section 176.645, any adjustment in the assessment for the assigned risk plan pursuant to section 79.251, subdivision 5, any adjustment in the assessment for the Minnesota insurance guarantee association pursuant to section 60C.05, or any other assessment required by law.

(b) At each rate hearing held pursuant to section 9 or rehearing pursuant to section 10, following an automatic adjustment, the commissioner shall review the rate adjustment to assure that the schedule of rates adopted subsequent to the adjustment are not excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory. If the commissioner finds that the schedule of rates adopted subsequent to the adjustment are excessive, inadequate, or unfairly discriminatory, the commissioner shall order appropriate remedial action.

Sec. 14. [79.76] [INSURERS SHALL BE MEMBERS OF ASSOCIATION.]

Every insurer issuing workers' compensation insurance in this state shall be a member of the rating association, known as the Minnesota insurers rating association, organized under section 15, to be maintained in this state for the following purposes:

(1) to separate the industries of this state that are subject to workers' compensation insurance into proper classes for compensation insurance purposes;

(2) to inspect compensation risks and establish the merit and experience rating system approved for use in this state;

(3) to establish charges and credits under the system;

(4) to report all facts affecting compensation insurance risks and those necessary for approving policies of compensation insurance as conforming with classifications, rates, and rating plans previously promulgated by the association and approved by the commissioner; and

(5) to assist the commissioner and insurers in determining rates, hazards, and other material facts in connection with compensation risks, and to assist in promoting safety in the industries.

Sec. 15. [79.77] [ORGANIZATION OF ASSOCIATION.]

The association shall adopt articles of incorporation, bylaws, and a plan of operation. These articles, bylaws, and plan of operation and all amendments thereto must be filed with and approved by the commissioner and are not effective until so filed and approved. The association shall admit to membership any insurer authorized to transact workers' compensation insurance in this state. The charges and service of the association must be fixed in the articles or bylaws and must be equitable and non-discriminatory as between members. The initial articles, bylaws, and plan of operation must be filed with the commissioner no later than August 1, 1991. If the initial articles, bylaws, and plan of operation are not filed by August 1, 1991, the commissioner shall adopt the initial articles, bylaws, and plan of operation.

Sec. 16. [79.78] [EXPENSE, HOW PAID.]

Each member of the association shall pay an equitable and nondiscriminatory share of the cost of operating the association. If the members of the association cannot agree upon an apportionment of cost, any member may in writing petition the commissioner to establish a basis for apportioning the cost. If any member is aggrieved by an apportionment made by the association, it may in writing petition the commissioner for a review of the apportionment. The commissioner shall, upon not less than five days' notice to each member of the association, hold a hearing upon any such petition at which all members are entitled to be present and be heard. The commissioner shall determine the matter and mail a copy of the determination to each member of the association. The decision of the commissioner is final and binding upon all members of the association.

Sec. 17. [79.79] [BOARD OF DIRECTORS.]

(a) A board of directors of the rating association is created and is responsible for the operation of the rating association consistent with the plan of operation and this chapter. The board consists of 12 directors. Ten directors shall represent insurers and the commissioner shall appoint the remaining two directors. Each director is entitled to one vote. Terms of the directors are for two years. The board shall select a chair and other officers it considers appropriate.

(b) A majority of the directors currently holding office constitutes a quorum. Action may be taken by a majority vote of the directors present. The board shall take reasonable and prudent action regarding the management of the rating association, including but not limited to the management of the daily affairs of the rating association.

(c) The initial board of directors shall consist of the current board of directors of the data service organization authorized by section 79.62 who shall serve until their current data service organization terms expire.

Sec. 18. [79.80] [PLAN OF OPERATION.]

Subdivision 1. [PROVISIONS.] The plan of operation must provide for all of the following:

- (1) the establishment of necessary facilities;*
- (2) the management and operation of the rating association;*

(3) a preliminary assessment, payable by each member in proportion to its total premium in the year preceding the inauguration of the rating association, for initial expenses necessary to commence operation of the rating association;

(4) procedures governing the actual payment of assessments to the rating association;

(5) reimbursement of each member of the board by the rating association for actual and necessary expenses incurred on rating association business; and

(6) any other matters required by or necessary to effectively implement chapter 79.

Subd. 2. [AMENDMENTS.] (a) The plan of operation is subject to approval by the commissioner after consultation with the members of the association, representatives of the public, and other affected individuals and organizations. If the commissioner disapproves all or any part of the proposed plan of operation, the directors shall within 15 days submit for review an appropriate revised plan of operation or part thereof. If a revised plan is not submitted within 15 days, the commissioner shall promulgate a plan of operation or part thereof, as the case may be. The plan of operation approved or promulgated by the commissioner is effective and operational upon order of the commissioner.

(b) Amendments to the plan of operation may be made by the commissioner or by the directors of the association, subject to the approval of the commissioner.

Sec. 19. [79.81] [APPLICABILITY OF CHAPTER 79.]

Subdivision 1. [EXAMINATION BY COMMISSIONER.] The rating association is subject to all the provisions of this chapter. The commissioner or an authorized representative of the commissioner may visit the rating association at any time and examine, audit, or evaluate the rating association's operations, records, and practices. For purposes of this section, "authorized representative of the commissioner" includes employees of the department of commerce or labor and industry or other parties retained by the commissioner.

Subd. 2. [COSTS AND EXPENSES.] The commissioner shall order and the rating association shall pay the costs and expenses of any examination, audit, or evaluation conducted pursuant to subdivision 1.

Sec. 20. [79.82] [MANUALS.]

Subdivision 1. [INITIAL FILING REQUIRED.] (a) On or before August 1, 1991, the association shall file with the commissioner all underwriting and rating manuals which are used in the classification of risks and the calculation of rating plans, rates, and fees. The association shall provide the commissioner with at least six copies of each manual. A copy of each manual filed must also be provided to the commissioner of labor and industry.

(b) The commissioner shall review the manuals and on or before November 1, 1991, approve or disapprove the manuals or any part thereof. The evidentiary, procedural, and review standards of section 9 apply to the review of the manuals. Until the commissioner has approved or disapproved the manuals, they remain in force. As to any manual or part thereof that is not approved, the association may contest the disapproval pursuant to the contested case procedures of chapter 14. Until the conclusion of the contested case proceeding, the portions of the manuals that were not approved shall remain in force.

Subd. 2. [NEW MANUALS AND AMENDMENTS.] If the association adopts or amends a manual, the manual or the amendment to the manual is not effective until approved by the commissioner. The association shall provide the commissioner with at least six copies of each manual or amendment. A copy of each manual or amendment filed must also be provided to the commissioner of labor and industry. The commissioner shall approve or disapprove any manual or amendment within 30 days of filing. The evidentiary, procedural, and review standards of section 9 apply to the review of the manuals. Any manual or amendment not approved within 30 days is considered to be disapproved. As to a disapproved manual or amendment, the association may contest the disapproval pursuant to the contested case procedures of chapter 14.

Subd. 3. [BURDEN OF PROOF:] The burden of proof in a proceeding under this section is upon the party requesting the adoption of a manual or an amendment of a manual.

Subd. 4. [PUBLIC ACCESS.] Copies of all approved manuals must be made available to the public for inspection during regular business hours at the office of the association. Proposed manuals and amendments to manuals must be made available in the same manner.

Sec. 21. [79.83] [EXEMPTION.]

The rating association is not subject to sections 15.0597 and 471.705 and chapter 13 nor any other law or rule that pertains to a public body. For purposes of Minnesota law or rule, the association is not a public body.

Sec. 22. [79.84] [ANNUAL STATEMENT.]

On or before March 1 each year, the association shall file with the commissioner a statement covering its activities for the year ending on the preceding December 31. This report must cover its financial transactions and other matters connected with its operation, including employee compensation and other specific expenditures as required by the commissioner. The commissioner shall prescribe the form of the report. The association and its members are subject to supervision and examination by the commissioner or any examiner authorized by the commissioner on such matters as the commissioner considers appropriate. Examination may be made as often as the commissioner considers necessary.

Sec. 23. [79.85] [ASSOCIATION SHALL MAKE CLASSIFICATION.]

(a) The association shall, on behalf of its members, assign each compensation risk and subdivision thereof in this state to its proper classification. The determination as to the proper classification by the association is subject to the approval of the commissioner.

(b) The association shall, on behalf of all members thereof, inspect and make a written survey of each risk to which the system of merit rating approved for use in this state is applicable. The association shall, on behalf of all the members thereof, file with the commissioner its classification of risks and keep on file at the office of the association the written surveys of all risks inspected by it, which survey must show the location and description of all items producing charges and credits, if any, and such other facts as are material in the writing of insurance thereon. The association shall file any subsequent proposed classification or later survey and all rules and regulations which do or may affect the writing of these risks. The association classification is binding upon all insurers.

(c) The association and its representatives shall give all information as to classifications, rates, surveys, and other facts collected and intended for the common use of insurers subject to chapter 79 to all these insurers at the same time. A copy of the complete survey by the association, with the approved classification and rates based thereon and the effective date thereof, must be furnished to the insurer of record as soon as approved. The approved classification and rates upon a specific risk must be furnished upon request to any other insurer upon the payment of a reasonable charge for the service.

(d) Every insurer shall promptly file with the association a copy of each payroll audit, which must be checked by the association for correctness of classification and rate. The commissioner may require the association to file any such copy and may verify any payroll audit by a reaudit of the books of the employer or in such other manner as may appear most expedient. Upon written complaint stating facts sufficient to warrant action by it, the association shall verify any payroll audit reported to the commissioner.

Sec. 24. [79.86] [INFORMATION.]

(a) In addition to other information that the commissioner requests pursuant to section 9, the rating association shall file with the commissioner the following information on its Minnesota experience:

- (1) reserves for incurred but not reported losses of its members;*
- (2) paid claims;*
- (3) reserves for open claims;*
- (4) a schedule of claims in which its members have established a reserve in excess of $50,000;*
- (5) the income on invested reserves of its members;*
- (6) an itemized list of policies written at other than the filed rates;*
- (7) loss adjustment expenses;*
- (8) subrogation recoveries;*
- (9) administrative expenses; and*
- (10) commission expenses and lobbying expenses.*

(b) Losses and reserves must be reported separately as to medical and indemnity expenses. The rating association shall file an itemized breakdown of its lobbying expenses.

(c) The commissioner shall consider the information filed under paragraph (a) in an appropriate manner in adopting a schedule of rates and shall decline to grant a hearing pursuant to section 9 for purposes of considering a rate increase if the association fails to provide the information.

(d) The rating association shall be domiciled, chartered, and principally located in the state of Minnesota. Except with the approval of the commissioner, the rating association may not contract for its data collection responsibilities with data service organizations domiciled, chartered, or principally located outside the state of Minnesota.

Sec. 25. [79.87] [RECORD; ASSOCIATION SHALL FURNISH INFORMATION.]

The association shall keep a careful record of its proceedings. It shall furnish, upon demand, to any employer whose workers' compensation risk has been surveyed, full information as to the survey, including the method of the computation and a detailed description and location of all items producing charges or credits. The association shall provide a means, approved by the commissioner, for hearing any member or employer whose risk has been inspected, either in person or by a representative, before the governing or rating committee or other proper representatives with reference to any matter affecting the risk. Any insurer or employer may appeal from a decision of the association to the commissioner. The association shall make rules governing appeals, to be filed with and approved by the commissioner. The commissioner may require the association to file any information connected with its activities.

Sec. 26. [79.88] [RATES SHALL BE FILED.]

Every insurer writing workers' compensation insurance in this state, except as ordered by the commissioner, must file with the commissioner its rates for this compensation insurance and all additions or changes. All rates filed must comply with the requirements of law and are not effective until approved by the commissioner.

Sec. 27. [79.89] [RATES TO BE UNIFORM; EXCEPTIONS.]

No insurer may write insurance at a rate above that established by the association and approved by the commissioner. The insurer may reduce or increase a rate by the application to individual risks of the system of merit or experience rating which has been approved by the commissioner. This reduction or increase must be set forth in the policy or by endorsement thereon. CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON H.F. NO. 472

A bill for an act relating to transportation; motor carriers; increasing maximum length of certain semitrailers; defining mobile cranes and providing for their maximum length; requiring a highway cost allocation study; amending Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 169.01, by adding a subdivision; 169.81, subdivision 2; and 169.86, subdivision 5.

May 15, 1989

The Honorable Robert Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H.F. No. 472, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendments and that H.F. No. 472 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 169.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 74. [MOBILE CRANE.] "Mobile crane" means a vehicle (1) not designed or used to transport persons or property, (2) operated only incidentally on the highway and not subject to vehicle registration under chapter 168, and (3) comprising a boom and hoisting mechanism used in the construction industry. Mobile crane does not include a motor vehicle, designed to transport persons or property, to which a boom, hoist, crane, or other machinery has been attached.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 169.81, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LENGTH OF VEHICLES.] (a) No single unit motor vehicle, except mobile cranes which may not exceed 45 48 feet, unladen or with load may exceed a length of 40 feet extreme overall dimensions inclusive of front and rear bumpers, except that the governing body of a city is authorized by permit to provide for the maximum length of a motor vehicle, or combination of motor vehicles, or the number of vehicles that may be fastened together, and which may be operated upon the streets or highways of a city; provided, that the permit may not prescribe a length less than that permitted by state law. A motor vehicle operated in compliance with the permit on the streets or highways of the city is not in violation of this chapter.

(b) No single semitrailer may have an overall length, exclusive of non-cargo-carrying accessory equipment, including refrigeration units or air compressors, necessary for safe and efficient operation mounted or located on the end of the semitrailer adjacent to the truck or truck-tractor, in excess of 48 feet, except that a single semitrailer may have an overall length in excess of 48 feet but not greater than 53 feet if (1) the distance from the kingpin to the centerline of the rear axle group of the semitrailer does not exceed 41 feet; ~~and (2) if the semitrailer is operated only in a combination~~ of vehicles which does not exceed an overall length of 65 feet. No single trailer may have an overall length inclusive of tow bar assembly and exclusive of rear protective bumpers which do not increase the overall length by more than six inches, in excess of 45 feet. For determining compliance with the provisions of this subdivision, the length of the semitrailer or trailer must be determined separately from the overall length of the combination of vehicles.

(c) No semitrailer or trailer used in a three-vehicle combination may have an overall length, exclusive of non-cargo-carrying accessory equipment, including refrigeration units or air compressors, necessary for safe and efficient operation mounted or located on the end of the semitrailer or trailer adjacent to the truck or truck-tractor, and further exclusive of the tow bar assembly, in excess of 28-1/2 feet. The commissioner may not grant a permit authorizing the movement, in a three-vehicle combination, of a semitrailer or trailer that exceeds 28-1/2 feet, except that the commissioner may renew a permit that was granted before April 16, 1984, for the movement of a semitrailer or trailer that exceeds the length limitation in this paragraph.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 169.86, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [FEES.] The commissioner, with respect to highways under the commissioner's jurisdiction, may charge a fee for each permit issued. All such fees for permits issued by the commissioner of transportation shall be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the trunk highway fund. Except for those annual permits for which the permit fees are specified elsewhere in this chapter, the fees shall be:

(a) $15 for each single trip permit.

(b) $36 for each job permit. A job permit may be issued for like loads carried on a specific route for a period not to exceed two months. "Like loads" means loads of the same product, weight and dimension.

(c) $60 for an annual permit to be issued for a period not to exceed 12 consecutive months. Annual permits may be issued for:

(4) farm equipment when the movement is not made according to the provisions of section 169.80, subdivision 1, paragraphs (a) to (f);

- (5) double-deck buses;
- (6) commercial boat hauling.

(e) for vehicles which have axle weights exceeding the weight limitations of section 169.825, an additional cost added to the fees listed above. The additional cost is equal to the product of the distance traveled times the sum of the overweight axle group cost factors shown in the following chart:

in writing and provide the correction, amendment, or fact of deletion to:

(1) any person specifically designated by the individual who may have within the preceding two years received the personal information;

(2) any insurance-support organization whose primary source of personal information is insurers, if the insurance-support organization has systematically received the personal information from the insurer within the preceding seven years, provided that the correction, amendment, or fact of deletion need not be provided to an insurance-support organization if the insurance-support organization no longer maintains personal information about the individual; and

(3) any insurance-support organization that provided the personal information that has been corrected, amended, or deleted.

Subd. 3. [STATEMENT.] If the insurer, insurance agent, or insurance-support organization refuses to correct, amend, or delete disputed personal information, the individual must be permitted to file with the insurer, insurance agent, or insurance-support organization a concise statement setting forth what the person thinks is the correct, relevant, or fair information and stating the reasons why the individual disagrees with the insurer's, insurance agent's, or insurance-support organization's refusal to correct, amend, or delete disputed personal information.

Subd. 4. [DISPUTED INFORMATION.] In the event an individual files a statement described in subdivision 3, the insurer, insurance agent, or insurance-support organization shall:

(1) file the statement with the disputed personal information and provide a means by which anyone reviewing the disputed personal information will be made aware of the individual's statement and have access to it;

(2) in any subsequent disclosure by the insurer, insurance agent, or insurance-support organization of the disputed personal information, clearly identify the matter or matters in dispute and provide the individual's statement along with the personal information being disclosed; and

(3) furnish the statement to the persons and in the manner specified in subdivision 2.

Subd. 5. [APPEAL.] (a) If an insurer, insurance-support organization, or insurance agent refuses to correct, amend, or delete disputed personal information, the individual may file an appeal with the commissioner.

(b) The commissioner may, after providing the insurer, insurance-support organization, or insurance agent an opportunity for a hearing, order the insurer, insurance-support organization, or insurance agent to amend, correct, or delete disputed personal information if the commissioner finds that the personal information kept by the insurer, insurance-support organization, or insurance agent is in error. If the commissioner finds that the disputed personal information maintained by the insurer, insurance agent, or insurance-support organization is correct, the insurer, insurance agent, or insurance-support organization may delete from the individual's records any statement filed with them by that individual relating to the disputed information under subdivision 3.

Sec. 11. [72A.499] [REASONS FOR ADVERSE UNDERWRITING DECISIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [NOTICE AND INFORMATION.] In the event of an adverse underwriting decision, the insurer or insurance agent responsible for the decision shall provide in writing to the applicant, policyholder, or individual proposed for coverage:

(1) the specific reason or reasons for the adverse underwriting decision, a summary of the person's rights under sections 9 and 10, and that upon request the person may receive the specific items of personal information that support those reasons and the specific sources of the information; or

(2) the specific reason or reasons for the adverse underwriting decision, the specific items of personal and privileged information that support those reasons, the names and addresses of the sources that supplied the specific items of information specified, and a summary of the rights established under sections 9 and 10.

Subd. 2. [HEALTH REASONS.] If the specific reason for an adverse underwriting decision is based on health record information, the insurer may, in lieu of providing the specific reason to the individual under subdivision 1, provide the individual with the specific source of the adverse underwriting decision referring to the specific date, page, and line of the information received from a health professional or health care institution. If the insured has been informed of the condition indicated by their health provider and is unable to determine the reason for the adverse underwriting decision, then the insurer must provide the specific reason to the individual. The insurer must provide the specific reason for the adverse underwriting decision to a health professional designated by the individual, if requested either orally or in writing by the individual.

Subd. 3. [EXEMPTION.] (a) This section is not applicable to group policies or contracts, except for group policies that are individually underwritten. For group policies or contracts that are individually underwritten, the notice required under this section must be given to the individual or individuals in the group whose personal information resulted in the adverse underwriting decision.

(b) If a policy or contract is terminated on a class or statewide basis, or an insurance coverage is declined solely because the coverage is unavailable on a class or statewide basis, the insurer or agent is not required to provide the notice required under this section provided that the applicant or policyholder is provided with the specific reason for the termination or declination of coverage.

Subd. 4. [PRIVILEGED INFORMATION.] (a) An insurer or insurance agent is not required to provide particular, specific items of privileged information under subdivision 1 if it has a reasonable suspicion, based upon that specific information, that the applicant, policyholder, or person proposed for coverage has engaged in criminal activity, fraud, material misrepresentation, or material nondisclosure. If an insurer or insurance agent does not provide the specific items of information because the information is privileged under this subdivision, the insurer or insurance agent must notify the applicant, policyholder, or individual proposed for coverage that the specific items of information are privileged and of the person's right to appeal to the commissioner under this subdivision.

(b) If a person is not provided with the specific items of information relating to an adverse underwriting decision because the information is privileged under this subdivision, the person may request that the commissioner review the information. The commissioner may then order the insurer or insurance agent to supply the privileged information to the commissioner. If the commissioner determines that the information is not privileged under this subdivision, the commissioner shall order the insurer or insurance agent to provide the information to the applicant, policyholder, or person proposed for coverage.

Subd. 5. [HEALTH RECORDS INFORMATION.] Specific items of health record information supplied by a health care institution or health professional, and the identity of the health professional or health care institution that supplied the information, must be disclosed in the manner required under section 9, subdivision 3.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON H.F. NO. 1160

A bill for an act relating to education; authorizing school district participation in certain energy efficiency projects; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 124.

May 17, 1989

The Honorable Robert Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

We, the undersigned conferees for H.F. No. 1160, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the Senate recede from its amendments and that H.F. No. 1160 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

“Section 1. [124.85] [ENERGY EFFICIENCY PROJECTS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] The definitions in this subdivision apply to this section.

(a) “Energy conservation measure” means a training program or facility alteration designed to reduce energy consumption or operating costs and includes:

- (1) Insulation of the building structure and systems within the building;
- (2) Storm windows and doors, caulking or weatherstripping, multiglazed windows and doors, heat absorbing or heat reflective glazed and coated window and door systems, additional glazing, reductions in glass area, and other window and door system modifications that reduce energy consumption;
- (3) Automatic energy control systems;
- (4) Heating, ventilating, or air conditioning system modifications or replacements;
- (5) Replacement or modifications of lighting fixtures to increase the energy efficiency of the lighting system without increasing the overall illumination of a facility, unless such increase in illumination is necessary to conform to the applicable state or local building code for the lighting system after the proposed modifications are made;
- (6) Energy recovery systems;
- (7) Cogeneration systems that produce steam or forms of energy such as heat, as well as electricity, for use primarily within a building or complex of buildings;
- (8) Energy conservation measures that provide long-term operating cost reductions.

(b) “Guaranteed energy savings contract” means a contract for the evaluation and recommendations of energy conservation measures, and for one or more energy conservation measures. The contract must provide that all payments, except obligations on termination of the contract before its expiration, are to be made over time, but not to exceed ten years from the date of final installation, and the savings are guaranteed to the extent necessary to make payments for the systems.

(c) “Qualified provider” means a person or business experienced in the design, implementation, and installation of energy conservation measures. A qualified provider to whom the contract is awarded shall give a sufficient bond to the school district for its faithful performance.

Subd. 2. [ENERGY EFFICIENCY CONTRACT.] Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, a school district may enter into a guaranteed energy savings contract with a qualified provider to significantly reduce energy or operating costs.

Before entering into a contract under this subdivision, the board shall provide published notice of the meeting in which it proposes to award the contract, the names of the parties to the proposed contract, and the contract's purpose.

Before installation of equipment, modification, or remodeling, the qualified provider shall first issue a report, summarizing estimates of all costs of installations, modifications, or remodeling, including costs of design, engineering, installation, maintenance, repairs, or debt service, and estimates of the amounts by which energy or operating costs will be reduced.

Subd. 3. [CONTRACT PROVISIONS.] Guaranteed energy savings contracts that include a written guarantee that savings will meet or exceed the cost of energy conservation measures is not subject to competitive bidding requirements. The contract is not subject to section 123.37 or 471.345.

Subd. 4. [DISTRICT ACTION.] A district may enter into a guaranteed energy savings contract with a qualified provider if, after review of the report, it finds that the amount it would spend on the energy conservation measures recommended in the report is not likely to exceed the amount to be saved in energy and operation costs over ten years from the date of installation if the recommendations in the report were followed, and the qualified provider provides a written guarantee that the energy or operating cost savings will meet or exceed the costs of the system. The guaranteed energy savings contract may provide for payments over a period of time, not to exceed ten years.

Subd. 5. [INSTALLATION CONTRACTS.] A school district may enter into an installment payment contract for the purchase and installation of energy conservation measures. The contract must provide for payments of not less than one-tenth of the price to be paid within two years from the date of the first operation, and the remaining costs to be paid monthly, not to exceed a ten-year term from the date of the first operation.

Subd. 6. [CONTRACT CONTINUANCE.] Guaranteed energy savings contracts may extend beyond the fiscal year in which they become effective. The school district shall include in its annual appropriations measure for each later fiscal year any amounts payable under guaranteed energy savings contracts during the year. Failure of a board to make such an appropriation does not affect the validity of the guaranteed energy savings contract or the school district's obligations under the contracts.

Section 1 is effective the day after its final enactment."

Subd. 2. [AVIATION PLAN.] By February 1, 1990, the council shall amend the aviation chapter of the metropolitan development guide to incorporate policies and strategies that will ensure a comprehensive, coordinated, continuing, thorough, and timely investigation and evaluation of alternatives for major airport development in the metropolitan area for a prospective 30-year period. The alternatives to be examined must include both the airport improvements and enhancements of capacity that may be necessary at the existing airport and the location and development of a new airport.

Subd. 3. [SEARCH AREA.] By January 1, 1992, the council, in consultation with the airports commission, shall designate a search area for a major new airport.

Subd. 4. [LEGISLATIVE REPORTS.] (a) Until the activities required by section 3, subdivision 3, and section 4 are completed, the council shall report to the legislature by February 15 of each year on the results of the aviation planning activities of the council under this section. (d) By March 1, 1990, the council shall report to the legislature analyzing and making recommendations on long-range aviation goals for the major airport facility in the metropolitan area for a prospective 30-year period. The report must address goals for safety, environmental impact, and service, including ground access and service levels to other states and countries and to nonmetropolitan areas of the state. In preparing the report, the council shall consider regional growth patterns, economic development, economic impact, regional and statewide investment, and ground transportation.

(e) By December 1, 1990, the council shall report to the legislature on the general availability of suitable land for a new airport in and in the area surrounding the metropolitan area.

(f) By January 1, 1993, the council shall report to the legislature on policies for the reuse of the existing major airport site should a new major airport be developed.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.604, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

(3) four members appointed from outside of the metropolitan area to reflect fairly the various regions and interests throughout the state that are affected by the operation of the commission's major airport and airport system. Two of these members must be residents of statutory or home rule charter cities, towns, or counties containing an airport designated by the commissioner of transportation as a key airport. The other two must be residents of statutory or home rule charter cities, towns, or counties containing an airport designated by the commissioner of transportation as an intermediate airport. Subd. 4. [LEGISLATIVE REPORTS.] (a) Until the activities required by subdivision 3 and section 4 are completed, the commission shall report to the legislature by February 15 of each year on the results of the airport planning activities of the commission under this section. The report must include a summary of expenditures and sources of funding for the activities.

(b) By March 1, 1990, after consulting with the council, the federal aviation administration, industry representatives, and other persons, the commission shall report to the legislature on the assumptions and methods that the commission will use in preparing forecasts for airport development and operations purposes and for determining capacity and facility needs.

(c) By March 1, 1990, the commission shall report to the legislature on the integration of major airport facilities in the metropolitan area with state, national, and international air transportation systems and on the commission's planning assumptions and parameters related to such airport development issues as capacity, safety, environmental impact, and air service.

The cost computations are effective for a period of not more than 12 months beginning 15 days after submission of the documentation. Fifteen days before expiration of the 12-month period, the wholesaler must submit new cost documentation for review by the commissioner to continue selling at less than the price presumed by law. Deferred taxes shall be paid even if the land qualifies pursuant to subdivision 11a. Special assessments are payable at the end of the three-year period or at time of sale, whichever comes first.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.112, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Memberships that permit play during restricted times may be allowed only if the restricted times apply to all adults using the membership. A golf club may not offer a membership or golfing privileges to a spouse of a member that provides greater or less access to the golf course than is provided to that person's spouse under the same or a separate membership in that club, except that the terms of a membership may provide that one spouse may have no right to use the golf course at any time while the other spouse may have either limited or unlimited access to the golf course.

A golf club may have or create an individual membership category which entitles a member for a reduced rate to play during restricted hours as established by the club. The club must have on record a written request by the member for such membership.

For purposes of this subdivision and subdivision 7a, discrimination means a pattern or course of conduct and not linked to an isolated incident.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.112, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Agricultural land, as defined in section 273.13, subdivision 23, that is occupied and used as a homestead by its owner, who must be a Minnesota resident, is an agricultural homestead.

Dates for establishment of a homestead and homestead treatment provided to particular types of property are as provided in this section.

The assessor shall require proof, by affidavit or otherwise, of the facts upon which classification as a homestead may be determined.

For purposes of this section, homestead property shall include property which is used for purposes of the homestead but is separated from the homestead by a road, street, lot, waterway, or other similar intervening property. The term "used for purposes of the homestead" shall include but not be limited to uses for gardens, garages, or other outbuildings commonly associated with a homestead, but shall not include vacant land held primarily for future development. In order to receive homestead treatment for the noncontiguous property, the owner shall apply for it to the assessor by July 1 of the year when the treatment is initially sought. After initial qualification for the homestead treatment, additional applications for subsequent years are not required.

In the case of property owned by a married couple in joint tenancy or tenancy in common, the assessor must not deny homestead treatment in whole or in part if only one of the spouses is occupying the property and the other spouse is absent due to divorce or separation, or is a resident of a nursing home or a boarding care facility.

If an individual is purchasing property with the intent of claiming it as a homestead, and is required by the terms of the financing agreement to have one or both parents shown on the deed as coowners, the assessor shall allow a full homestead classification and extend full homestead credit. This provision only applies to first time purchasers, whether married or single, or to a person who had previously been married and is purchasing as a single individual for the first time. The application for homestead benefits must be on a form prescribed by the commissioner and must contain the data necessary for the assessor to determine if full homestead benefits are warranted.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.124, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. Homestead treatment applies even if legal title to the property is in the name of the corporation or partnership and not in the name of the person residing on it. "Family farm corporation" and "family farm" have the meanings given in section 500.24, except that the number of allowable shareholders or partners under this subdivision shall not exceed 12.

(b) In addition to property specified in paragraph (a), any other residences owned by corporations or partnerships described in paragraph (a) which are located on agricultural land and occupied as homesteads by shareholders or partners who are actively engaged in farming on behalf of the corporation or partnership must also be assessed as class 2a property or as class 1b property under section 273.13, subdivision 22, paragraph (b), but the property eligible is limited to the residence itself and as much of the land surrounding the homestead, not exceeding one acre, as is reasonably necessary for the use of the dwelling as a home, and does not include any other structures that may be located on it.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.124, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. Any taxpayer meeting the requirements of this subdivision must notify the county assessor, or the assessor who has the powers of the county assessor pursuant to section 273.063, in writing, prior to June 15 of the year of occupancy in order to qualify under this subdivision.

The county assessor and the county auditor may make the necessary changes on their assessment and tax records to provide for proper homestead classification as provided in this subdivision.

The owner of any property qualifying under this subdivision, which has not been accorded the benefits of this subdivision, regardless of whether or not the notification has been timely filed, may be entitled to receive homestead classification by proper application as provided in section 270.07 or 375.192.

The county assessor shall publish in a newspaper of general circulation within the county no later than June 1 of each year a notice informing the public of the requirement to file an application for homestead prior to June 15.

Subd. 13. [~~SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBER REQUIRED FOR HOMESTEAD APPLICATION.~~] Every property owner applying for homestead classification must furnish to the county assessor that owner's social security ~~or taxpayer identification~~ number. If the social security ~~or taxpayer identification~~ number is not provided, the county assessor shall classify the property as nonhomestead. The social security numbers of the property owners are private data on individuals as defined by section 13.02, subdivision 12, but, notwithstanding that section, the private data may be disclosed to the commissioner of revenue.

At the request of the commissioner, each county must give the commissioner a list that includes the name and social security ~~or taxpayer identification~~ number of each property owner applying for homestead classification.

If, in comparing the lists supplied by the counties, the commissioner finds that a property owner is claiming more than one homestead, the commissioner shall notify the appropriate counties. Within 90 days of the notification, the county assessor shall investigate to determine if the homestead classification was properly claimed. If the property owner does not qualify, the county assessor shall notify the county auditor who will determine the amount of homestead benefits that had been improperly allowed. For the purpose of this section, "homestead benefits" means the tax reduction resulting from the classification as a homestead under section 273.13, the homestead credit under section 273.13 for taxes payable in 1989 and under section 273.1398 for taxes payable in 1990 and thereafter, the taconite homestead credit, and the supplemental homestead credit, and the tax reduction resulting from the agricultural credit under section 273.132 for taxes payable in 1989 and under section 273.1398 for taxes payable in 1990 and

The property owners may appeal the county's determination by filing a notice of appeal with the Minnesota tax court within 60 days of the date of the notice from the county.

If the amount of homestead benefits and penalty is not paid within 60 days, and if no appeal has been filed, the county auditor shall certify the amount to the succeeding year's tax list to be collected as part of the property taxes.

Any amount of homestead benefits recovered from the property owner must be transmitted to the commissioner by the end of each calendar quarter. Any amount recovered attributable to taconite homestead credit shall be transmitted to the St. Louis county auditor to be deposited in the taconite property tax relief account. The amount of penalty collected must be deposited in the county general fund.

The commissioner will provide suggested homestead applications to each county. If a property owner has applied for more than one homestead and the county assessors cannot determine which property should be classified as homestead, the county assessors will refer the information to the commissioner. The commissioner shall make the determination and notify the counties within 60 days.

In addition to lists of homestead properties, the commissioner may ask the counties to furnish lists of all properties and the record owners.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.124, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 14. [AGRICULTURAL HOMESTEADS; SPECIAL PROVISIONS.] (a) Real estate of less than ten acres that is the homestead of its owner must be classified as class 2a under section 273.13, subdivision 23, paragraph (a), if:

(2) its owner also owns a noncontiguous parcel of agricultural land that is at least 20 acres;

(3) the noncontiguous land is located not farther than two townships or cities, or a combination of townships or cities from the homestead; and

(4) the agricultural use value of the noncontiguous land and farm buildings is equal to at least 50 percent of the market value of the house, garage and one acre of land.

Homesteads initially classified as class 2a under the provisions of this subdivision shall remain classified as class 2a, irrespective of subsequent changes in the use of adjoining properties, as long as the homestead remains under the same ownership, the owner owns a noncontiguous parcel of agricultural land that is at least 20 acres, and the agricultural use value qualifies under clause (4).

(b) Noncontiguous land shall be included as part of a homestead under section 273.13, subdivision 23, paragraph (a), only if the homestead is classified as class 2a and the detached land is located in the same township or city, or not farther than two townships or cities or combination thereof from the homestead.

(c) Agricultural land used for purposes of a homestead and actively farmed by a person holding a vested remainder interest in it must be classified as a homestead under section 273.13, subdivision 23, paragraph (a). If agricultural land is classified class 2a, any other dwellings on the land used for purposes of a homestead by persons holding vested remainder interests who are actively engaged in farming the property, and up to one acre of the land surrounding each homestead and reasonably necessary for the use of the dwelling as a home, must also be assessed class 2a.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.13, subdivision 22, is amended to read:

Subd. 22. [CLASS 1.] (a) Except as provided in subdivision 23, real estate which is residential and used for homestead purposes is class 1. The market value of class 1a property must be determined based upon the value of the house, garage, and land.

The first $68,000 of market value of class 1a property has a net tax capacity of one percent of its market value and a gross tax capacity of 2.17 percent of its market value. The market value of class 1a property that exceeds $68,000 but does not exceed $100,000 has a tax capacity of 2.5 percent of its market value. The market value of class 1a property that exceeds $100,000 has a tax capacity of 3.3 percent of its market value.

(b) Class 1b property includes real estate or manufactured homes used for the purposes of a homestead by

(1) any blind person, if the blind person is the owner thereof or if the blind person and the blind person's spouse are the sole owners thereof; or

(2) any person, hereinafter referred to as "veteran," who:

(i) served in the active military or naval service of the United States; and

(ii) is entitled to compensation under the laws and regulations of the United States for permanent and total service-connected disability due to the loss, or loss of use, by reason of amputation, ankylosis, progressive muscular dystrophies, or paralysis, of both lower extremities, such as to preclude motion without the aid of braces, crutches, canes, or a wheelchair; and

(iii) with assistance by the administration of veterans affairs has acquired a special housing unit with special fixtures or movable facilities made necessary by the nature of the veteran's disability, or the surviving spouse of the deceased veteran for as long as the surviving spouse retains the special housing unit as a homestead; or

(3) any person who:

(i) is permanently and totally disabled and

(ii) receives 90 percent or more of total income from

(A) aid from any state as a result of that disability; or

(B) supplemental security income for the disabled; or

(C) workers' compensation based on a finding of total and permanent disability; or

(D) social security disability, including the amount of a disability insurance benefit which is converted to an old age insurance benefit and any subsequent cost of living increases; or

(E) aid under the Federal Railroad Retirement Act of 1937, United States Code Annotated, title 45, section 228b(a)5; or

(F) a pension from any local government retirement fund located in the state of Minnesota as a result of that disability; or

(iii) whose household income as defined in section 290A.03, subdivision 5, is 150 percent or less of the federal poverty level.

Property is classified and assessed pursuant to clause (1) only if the commissioner of jobs and training certifies to the assessor that the owner of the property satisfies the requirements of this subdivision. ~~The commissioner of jobs and training shall provide a copy of the certification to the commissioner of revenue.~~

Permanently and totally disabled for the purpose of this subdivision means a condition which is permanent in nature and totally incapacitates the person from working at an occupation which brings the person an income. The first $32,000 market value of class 1b property has a net tax capacity of .4 percent of its market value and a gross tax capacity of .87 percent of its market value. The remaining market value of class 1b property has a gross or net tax capacity using the rates for class 1 or class 2a property, whichever is appropriate, of similar market value.

(c) Class 1c property is commercial use real property that abuts a lake-shore line and is devoted to temporary and seasonal residential occupancy for recreational purposes but not devoted to commercial purposes for more than 200 days in the year preceding the year of assessment, and that includes a portion used as a homestead by the owner. Class 1c property has a tax capacity of .9 percent of market value with the following limitation: the area of the property must not exceed 100 feet of lakeshore footage for each cabin or campsite located on the property up to a total of 800 feet and 500 feet in depth, measured away from the lakeshore.

(d) For taxes levied in 1988, payable in 1989 only, the tax to be paid on class 1a or class 1b property shall be reduced by 54 percent of the tax imposed on the first $68,000 of market value. The amount of the reduction shall not exceed $725.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.13, subdivision 23, is amended to read:

Subd. 23. [CLASS 2.] (a) Class 2a property is agricultural land including any improvements that is homesteaded. The market value of the house and garage and immediately surrounding one acre of land that does not exceed $65,000 has a net tax capacity of .805 percent of market value and a gross tax capacity of 1.75 percent of market value. The excess market value over $65,000 has a tax capacity of 2.2 percent. If the market value of the house, garage, and surrounding one acre of land is less than $65,000, the value of the remaining land including improvements equal to the difference between $65,000 and the market value of the house, garage, and surrounding one acre of land has a net tax capacity of 1.12 percent of market value and a gross tax capacity of 1.75 percent of market value for the first 320 acres of land and the remaining value over 320 acres has a net tax capacity of 1.295 percent of market value and a gross tax capacity of 1.75 percent of market value. The remaining value of class 2a property over the $65,000 market value that does not exceed 320 acres has a net tax capacity of 1.44 percent of market value and a gross tax capacity of 2.25 percent of market value. The remaining property over the $65,000 market value in excess of 320 acres has a net tax capacity of 1.665 percent of market value and a gross tax capacity of 2.25 percent of market value.

Noncontiguous land shall constitute class 2a only if the homestead is classified as class 2a and the detached land is located in the same township or city or not farther than two townships or cities or combination thereof from the homestead.

Agricultural land used for purposes of a homestead and actively farmed by a person holding a vested remainder interest in it must be classified class 2a. If agricultural land is classified class 2a, any other dwellings on the land used for purposes of a homestead by persons holding vested remainder interests who are actively engaged in farming the property, and up to one acre of the land surrounding each homestead and reasonably necessary for the use of the dwelling as a home, must also be assessed class 2a and is entitled to the homestead credit.

For taxes levied in 1988, payable in 1989 only, the tax to be paid on class 2a property and class 1b property under section 273.13, subdivision 22, paragraph (b), used for agricultural purposes shall be reduced by 54 percent of the tax. The amount of the reduction shall not exceed $725.

(b) Class 2b property is (1) real estate, rural in character and used exclusively for growing trees for timber, lumber, and wood and wood products; and (2) real estate that is nonhomestead agricultural land. Class 2b property has a net tax capacity of 1.665 percent of market value and a gross tax capacity of 2.25 percent of market value.

(c) Agricultural land as used in this section means contiguous acreage of ten acres or more, primarily used during the preceding year for agricultural purposes. Agricultural use may include pasture, timber, waste, unusable wild land, and land included in federal farm programs.

(d) Real estate of less than ten acres used principally for raising poultry, livestock, fruit, vegetables or other agricultural products, including the breeding of fish for sale and consumption ~~provided that it is located if the fish breeding occurs~~ on land zoned for agricultural use, shall be considered as agricultural land, if it is not used primarily for residential purposes. The term "agricultural products" as used in the preceding sentence means any of the products identified in section 273.111, subdivision 6, clause (2). "Agricultural purposes" as used in this section means the raising or cultivation of agricultural products.

(e) If a parcel used for agricultural purposes is also used for commercial or industrial purposes, including but not limited to:

(1) wholesale and retail sales;

(2) processing of raw agricultural products or other goods;

(3) warehousing or storage of processed goods; and

(4) office facilities for the support of the activities enumerated in clauses (1), (2), and (3).

the assessor shall classify the part of the parcel used for agricultural purposes as class 1b, 2a, or 2b, whichever is appropriate, and the remainder in the class appropriate to its use. The grading, sorting, and packaging of raw agricultural products for first sale is considered an agricultural purpose. A greenhouse or other building where horticultural or nursery products are grown that is also used for the conduct of retail sales must be classified as agricultural if it is primarily used for the growing of horticultural or nursery products from seed, cuttings, or roots and occasionally as a showroom for the retail sale of those products. Use of a greenhouse or building only for the display of already grown horticultural or nursery products does not qualify as an agricultural purpose.

The assessor shall determine and list separately on the records the market value of the homestead dwelling and the one acre of land on which that dwelling is located. If any farm buildings or structures are located on this homesteaded acre of land, their market value shall not be included in this separate determination.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.135, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. For taxes payable in 1989 only, the amount of the reduction authorized by subdivision 1 shall be:

(a) In the case of property located within the boundaries of a municipality which meets the qualifications prescribed in section 273.134, 66 percent of the net tax up to the taconite breakpoint plus a percentage equal to the homestead credit equivalency percentage of the net tax in excess of the taconite breakpoint, provided that the reduction shall not exceed the maximum amounts specified in clause (c), and shall not exceed an amount sufficient to reduce the effective tax rate on each parcel of property to 95 percent of the base year effective tax rate. In no case will the reduction for each homestead resulting from this credit be less than $10.

(b) In the case of property located within the boundaries of a school district which qualifies as a tax relief area but which is outside the boundaries of a municipality which meets the qualifications prescribed in section 273.134, 57 percent of the net tax up to the taconite breakpoint plus a percentage equal to the homestead credit equivalency percentage of the net tax in excess of the taconite breakpoint, provided that the reduction shall not exceed the maximum amounts specified in clause (c), and shall not exceed an amount sufficient to reduce the effective tax rate on each parcel of property to 95 percent of the base year effective tax rate. In no case will the reduction for each homestead resulting from this credit be less than $10.

(c)(1) The maximum reduction of the net tax up to the taconite breakpoint is $225.40 on property described in clause (a) and $200.10 on property described in clause (b), for taxes payable in 1985. These maximum amounts shall increase by $15 times the quantity one minus the homestead credit equivalency percentage per year for taxes payable in 1986 and subsequent years.

(2) The total maximum reduction of the net tax on property described in clause (a) is $490 for taxes payable in 1985. The total maximum reduction for the net tax on property described in clause (b) is $435 for taxes payable in 1985. These maximum amounts shall increase by $15 per year for taxes payable in 1986 and thereafter.

property after deduction of any credit under section 273.13, subdivision 22 or 23, "taconite breakpoint" means the lowest possible net tax for a homestead qualifying for the maximum reduction pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 22, rounded to the nearest whole dollar, "homestead credit equivalency percentage" means a percentage equal to the percentage reduction authorized in section 273.13, subdivision 22, "effective tax rate" means tax divided by the market value of the property, and the "base year effective tax rate" means the tax on the property after the application of the credits payable under section 273.13, subdivisions 22 and 23, and this section for taxes payable in 1988, divided by the market value of the property. A new parcel of property or a parcel with a current year classification that is different from its base year classification has the same base year effective tax rate as an equivalent homesteaded parcel.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.1391, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. For taxes payable in 1989 only, the amount of the reduction authorized by subdivision 1 shall be:

(a) In the case of property located within a school district which does not meet the qualifications of section 273.134 as a tax relief area, but which is located in a county with a population of less than 100,000 in which taconite is mined or quarried and wherein a school district is located which does meet the qualifications of a tax relief area, and provided that at least 90 percent of the area of the school district which does not meet the qualifications of section 273.134 lies within such county, 57 percent of the net tax up to the taconite breakpoint plus a percentage equal to the homestead credit equivalency percentage of the net tax in excess of the taconite breakpoint on qualified property located in the school district that does not meet the qualifications of section 273.134, provided that the amount of said reduction shall not exceed the maximum amounts specified in clause (c), and shall not exceed an amount sufficient to reduce the effective tax rate on each parcel of property to 95 percent of the base year effective tax rate. In no case will the reduction for each homestead resulting from this credit be less than $10. The reduction provided by this clause shall only be applicable to property located within the boundaries of the county described therein.

(b) In the case of property located within a school district which does not meet the qualifications of section 273.134 as a tax relief area, but which is located in a school district in a county containing a city of the first class and a qualifying municipality, but not in a school district containing a city of the first class or adjacent to a school district containing a city of the first class unless the school district so adjacent contains a qualifying municipality, 57 percent of the net tax up to the taconite breakpoint plus a percentage equal to the homestead credit equivalency percentage of the net tax in excess of the taconite breakpoint, but not to exceed the maximums specified in clause (c), and shall not exceed an amount sufficient to reduce the effective tax rate on each parcel of property to 95 percent of the base year effective tax rate. In no case will the reduction for each homestead resulting from this credit be less than $10.

(c)(1) The maximum reduction of the net tax up to the taconite breakpoint is $200.10 for taxes payable in 1985. This maximum amount shall increase by $15 multiplied by the quantity one minus the homestead credit equivalency percentage per year for taxes payable in 1986 and subsequent years.

(2) The total maximum reduction of the net tax is $435 for taxes payable in 1985. This total maximum amount shall increase by $15 per year for taxes payable in 1986 and thereafter.

A new parcel with a current year classification that is different from its base year classification has the same base year effective tax rate as an equivalent homesteaded parcel.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.1393, is amended to read:
273.1393 [COMPUTATION OF NET PROPERTY TAXES.]

Notwithstanding any other provisions to the contrary, "net" property taxes are determined by subtracting the credits in the order listed from the gross tax:

- (1) disaster credit as provided in section 273.123;
- (2) powerline credit as provided in section 273.42;
- (3) agricultural preserves credit as provided in section 473H.10;

- (6) ~~state paid homestead~~ conservation tax credit as provided in section ~~273.13~~ 273.119;
- (7) taconite homestead credit as provided in section 273.135; and

The combination of all property tax credits must not exceed the gross tax amount.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.1398, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) In this section, the terms defined in this subdivision have the meanings given them.

(b) "Unique taxing jurisdiction" means the geographic area subject to the same set of tax capacity rates.

(c) "Gross tax capacity" means the product of the appropriate percentages of market value listed as gross tax capacities in section 273.13 and equalized market values. "Total gross tax capacity" means the gross tax capacities for all property within the unique taxing jurisdiction. The total gross tax capacity used shall be reduced by the sum of (1) the unique taxing jurisdiction's gross tax capacity of commercial industrial property as defined in section 473F02, subdivision 3, multiplied by the ratio determined pursuant to section 473F08, subdivision 6, for the municipality, as defined in section 473F02, subdivision 8, in which the unique taxing jurisdiction is located and (2) the gross tax capacity of the captured value of tax increment financing districts as defined in section 469.177, subdivision 2. For purposes of determining the gross tax capacity of property referred to in clauses (1) and (2) for disparity reduction aid payable in 1989, the gross tax capacity before equalization shall equal the property's 1987 assessed value multiplied by 12 percent. Gross tax capacity cannot be less than zero.

(d) "Net tax capacity" means the product of the appropriate percentages of market value listed as net tax capacities in section 273.13 and equalized market values. "Total net tax capacity" means the net tax capacities for all property within the unique taxing jurisdiction. The total net tax capacity used shall be reduced by the sum of (1) the unique taxing jurisdiction's net tax capacity of commercial industrial property as defined in section 473F02, subdivision 3, multiplied by the ratio determined pursuant to section 473F08, subdivision 6, for the municipality, as defined in section 473F02, subdivision 8, in which the unique taxing jurisdiction is located and (2) the net tax capacity of the captured value of tax increment financing districts as defined in section 469.177, subdivision 2. For purposes of determining the net tax capacity of property referred to in clauses (1) and (2), the net tax capacity before equalization shall equal the property's 1987 assessed value multiplied by 12 percent. Net tax capacity cannot be less than zero.

(e) "Equalized market values" are market values that have been equalized by dividing the assessor's estimated market value for the second year prior to that in which the aid is payable by the assessment sales ratios determined by class in the assessment sales ratio study conducted by the department of revenue pursuant to section 124.2131 in the second year prior to that in which the aid is payable. For computation of aids payable in 1989 only, if the aggregate assessment sales ratio is less than or equal to 92 percent, the assessment sales ratios by class shall be adjusted proportionally so that the aggregate ratio of the unequalized market values to the equalized market values equals 92 percent; otherwise the equalized market values shall equal the unequalized market values divided by the assessment sales ratio.

(f) "Homestead effective rate" means the product of (i) 46 percent; (ii) 2.17 percent; and (iii) the total tax capacity rate for taxes payable in 1989 within a unique taxing jurisdiction multiplied by the 1988 aggregate assessment sales ratio. A sales ratio of .92 is used if the actual sales ratio is less than .92.

(g) For purposes of calculating the ~~transition~~ homestead and agricultural credit aid authorized pursuant to subdivision 2, the "subtraction factor" is the product of (i) a unique taxing jurisdiction's homestead effective rate; (ii) its net tax capacity; and (iii) 103.

(h) For purposes of calculating and allocating ~~transition~~ homestead and agricultural credit aid authorized pursuant to subdivision 2 and the disparity reduction aid authorized in subdivision 3, "gross taxes levied on all properties" or "gross taxes" means the total gross taxes levied on all properties except that levied on the captured value of tax increment districts as defined in section 469.177, subdivision 2, and that levied on the portion of commercial industrial properties' assessed value or gross tax capacity, as defined in section 473F02, subdivision 3, subject to the areawide tax as provided in section 473F08, subdivision 6, in a unique taxing jurisdiction before reduction by any credits for taxes payable in the year prior to that in which the aids are payable. For purposes of disparity reduction aid only, total gross taxes shall be reduced by the taxes levied for any school district referendum levies authorized pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 2, and any school district debt levies authorized pursuant to section 475.61. Gross taxes levied cannot be less than zero.

(i) "Income maintenance aids" means:

(1) medical assistance under sections 256B.041, subdivision 5, and 256B.19, subdivision 1;

(2) preadmission screening and alternative care grants under section 256B.091, subdivision 8;

(3) general assistance, and work readiness under section 256D.03, subdivision 2;

(4) general assistance medical care under section 256D.03, subdivision 6;

(5) aid to families with dependent children under section 256.82, subdivision 1, including emergency assistance under section 256.871, subdivision 6; and funeral expense payments under section 256.935, subdivision 1; and

(6) supplemental aid under section 256D.36, subdivision 1.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.1398, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [DISPARITY REDUCTION CREDIT.] (a) Beginning with taxes payable in 1989, class 4a, class 3a, and class 3b property qualifies for a disparity reduction credit if: (1) the property is located in a border city that has an enterprise zone designated pursuant to section 469.168, subdivision 4; (2) the property is located in cities a city with a population greater than 2,500 and less than 35,000 according to the 1980 decennial census which are; (3) the city is adjacent to cities a city in another state or immediately adjacent to a city adjacent to a city in another state qualify for disparity reduction credits, if; and (4) the adjacent city in the other state has a population of greater than 5,000 and less than 75,000.

(b) The credit is an amount sufficient to reduce (i) the taxes levied on class 4a property to three percent of the property's market value and (ii) the tax on class 3a and class 3b property to 3.3 percent of market value.

(c) The county auditor shall annually certify the costs of the credits to the department of revenue. The department shall reimburse local governments for the property taxes foregone as the result of the credits in proportion to their total levies.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.1398, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [ADDITIONAL HOMESTEAD AND AGRICULTURAL CREDIT GUARANTEE.] Beginning with taxes payable in 1990, each unique taxing jurisdiction may receive additional homestead and agricultural credit guarantee payments.

(1) Each year, the commissioner shall certify to the county auditor the total education aids paid under chapters 124 and 124A, ~~transition~~ homestead and agricultural credit aid and disparity reduction aid paid under section

273.1398, local government aid to cities, counties, and towns paid under chapter 477A, and income maintenance aid paid to counties for each taxing jurisdiction. The county auditor shall apportion each local government's aids to the unique taxing jurisdiction based upon the proportion that the unique taxing jurisdiction's tax capacity bears to the total tax capacity of the local government.

(2) Each year, the county auditor will compute a gross tax capacity rate for each taxing jurisdiction equal to its total levy divided by its gross tax capacity. For each unique taxing jurisdiction, a total gross tax capacity rate will be determined. This total gross tax capacity rate will be applied against the gross tax capacity of each property that would have been eligible for the homestead credit or the agricultural credit for taxes payable in 1989. A credit amount will be determined for each parcel based upon the credit rate structure in effect for taxes payable in 1989. The resulting credit amounts will be summed for all parcels in the unique taxing jurisdiction.

If the amount determined in clause (2) is greater than the amount determined in clause (1), the difference will be additional homestead and agricultural credit guarantee payments for the unique taxing jurisdiction. The additional credit amount shall proportionately reduce the tax capacity rates of all local governments levying taxes within the unique taxing jurisdiction. The county auditor shall certify the amounts of ~~the~~ additional credits determined under this ~~section~~ subdivision in a form prescribed by the commissioner.

Subd. 6. [PAYMENT.] The commissioner shall certify the aids provided in subdivisions 2 and 3 before September 30 of the year preceding the distribution year to the county auditor of the affected local government and pay them and the credit reimbursements to local governments other than school districts at the times provided in section 477A.015 for payment of local government aid to taxing jurisdictions. Aids and credit reimbursements to school districts must be certified to the commissioner of education and paid under section 273.1392. Payment shall not be made to any taxing jurisdiction that has ceased to levy a property tax nor shall ~~transition~~ homestead and agricultural credit aid be payable on the part of a levy to which ~~transition~~ homestead and agricultural credit aid was separately allocated under subdivision 2, paragraph (b), clause (2), which is no longer levied.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.07, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. The county auditor shall adjust each local government's levy certified under subdivision 1 by the amount of ~~transition~~ homestead and agricultural credit aid certified by section 273.1398, subdivision 2. If a local government's ~~transition~~ homestead and agricultural credit aid was further allocated between portions of its levy pursuant to section 273.1398, subdivision 2, paragraph (b)(2), the levy or fund to which the ~~transition~~ homestead and agricultural credit aid was allocated is the levy or fund which must be adjusted.

Sec. 38. [276.131] [DISTRIBUTION OF PENALTIES, INTEREST, AND COSTS.]

The penalties, interest, and costs collected on special assessments and real and personal property taxes must be distributed as follows:

(1) all penalties and interest collected on special assessments against real or personal property must be distributed to the taxing jurisdiction that levied the assessment;

(2) 50 percent of all penalties and interest collected on real and personal property taxes must be distributed to the county in which the property is located, and the other 50 percent must be distributed to the school district in which the property is located. The distribution to the school district must be in accordance with the provisions of section 124.10; and

(3) all costs collected by the county on special assessments and on delinquent real and personal property taxes must be distributed to the county in which the property is located.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 278.01, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

The county auditor shall immediately forward one copy of the petition to the appropriate governmental authority in a home rule charter or statutory city or town in which the property is located if that city or town employs its own certified assessor. A copy of the petition shall also be sent to the school board of the school district in which the property is located. A petition for determination under this section may be transferred by the district court to the tax court. An appeal may also be taken to the tax court under chapter 271 at any time following receipt of the valuation notice required by section 273.121 but prior to May 16 of the year in which the taxes are payable.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 278.03, is amended to read:

278.03 [PAYMENT OF TAX.]

If the proceedings instituted by the filing of the petition have not been completed before the 16th day of May next following the filing, the petitioner shall pay to the county treasurer 50 percent of the tax levied for such year against the property involved, unless permission to continue prosecution of the petition without such payment is obtained as herein provided. If the proceedings instituted by the filing of the petition have not been completed by the next October 16, or, in the case of class 1b agricultural homestead, class 2a agricultural homestead, and class 2e 2b(2) agricultural nonhomestead property, November 16, the petitioner shall pay to the county treasurer 50 percent of the unpaid balance of the taxes levied for the year against the property involved if the unpaid balance is $2,000 or less and

80 percent of the unpaid balance if the unpaid balance is over $2,000, unless permission to continue prosecution of the petition without payment is obtained as herein provided. The petitioner, upon ten days notice to the county attorney and to the county auditor, given at least ten days prior to the 16th day of May or the 16th day of October, or, in the case of class 1b agricultural homestead, class 2a agricultural homestead, and class ~~2e~~ 2b(2) agricultural nonhomestead property, the 16th day of November, may apply to the court for permission to continue prosecution of the petition without payment; and, if it is made to appear

(1) That the proposed review is to be taken in good faith;

(2) That there is probable cause to believe that the property may be held exempt from the tax levied or that the tax may be determined to be less than 50 percent of the amount levied; and

(3) That it would work a hardship upon petitioner to pay the taxes due, the court may permit the petitioner to continue prosecution of the petition without payment, or may fix a lesser amount to be paid as a condition of continuing the prosecution of the petition.

Failure to make payment of the amount required when due shall operate automatically to dismiss the petition and all proceedings thereunder unless the payment is waived by an order of the court permitting the petitioner to continue prosecution of the petition without payment. The county treasurer shall, upon request of the petitioner, issue duplicate receipts for the tax payment, one of which shall be filed by the petitioner in the proceeding.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 278.05, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SALES RATIO STUDIES AS EVIDENCE.] The sales ratio studies published by the department of revenue, or any part of the studies, or any copy of the studies or records accumulated to prepare the studies which is prepared by the commissioner of revenue for use in determining ~~school~~ education aids shall be admissible in evidence as a public record without the laying of a foundation if the sales prices used in the study are adjusted for the terms of the sale to reflect market value and are adjusted to reflect the difference in the date of sale compared to the assessment date. The department of revenue sales ratio study shall be prima facie evidence of the level of assessment. Additional evidence relevant to the sales ratio study is also admissible. No sales ratio study received into evidence shall be conclusive or binding on the court and evidence of its reliability or unreliability may be introduced by any party including, but not limited to, evidence of inadequate adjustment of sale prices for terms of financing, inadequate adjustment of sales prices to reflect the difference in the date of sale compared to the assessment date, and inadequate sample size.

No reduction in value on the grounds of discrimination shall be granted on the basis of a sales ratio study ~~published by the department of revenue~~ unless

(a) the sales prices are adjusted for the terms of the sale to reflect market value,

(b) the sales prices are adjusted to reflect the difference in the date of sale compared to the assessment date, ~~and~~

(c) there is an adequate sample size, and

(d) the median ratio of the same classification of property in the same county, city, or town as the subject property is lower than 90 percent, except that in the case of a county containing a city of the first class, the median ratio for the county shall be the ratio determined excluding sales from the first class city within the county.

If a reduction in value on the grounds of discrimination is granted based on the above criteria, the reduction shall equal the difference between 90 percent and the median ratio determined by the court.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 278.05, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. Any time after the filing of the petition and before the trial of the issues raised thereby, when the defense or claim presented is that the property has been partially, unfairly, or unequally assessed, or that the parcel has been assessed at a valuation greater than its real or actual value, or that a parcel which is classified as homestead under the provisions of section 273.13, subdivision 22 or 23, has been assessed at a valuation which exceeds by ten percent or more the valuation which the parcel would have if it were valued at the average assessment/sales ratio for real property in the same class in that portion of the county in which the parcel is located, for which the commissioner is able to establish and publish a sales ratio study, the attorney representing the state, county, city or town in the proceedings may serve on the petitioner, or the petitioner's attorney, and file with the court administrator of the district court, an offer to reduce the valuation of any tract or tracts to a valuation set forth in the offer. If, within ten days thereafter, the petitioner, or the attorney, gives notice in writing to the county attorney, or the attorney for the city or town, that the offer is accepted, the official notified may file the offer with proof of notice, and the court administrator shall enter judgment accordingly. Otherwise, the offer shall be deemed withdrawn and evidence thereof shall not be given; and, unless a lower valuation than specified in the offer is found by the court, no costs or disbursements shall be allowed to the petitioner, but the costs and disbursements of the state, county, city or town, including interest at six percent on the tax based on the amount of the offer from and after the 16th day of October, or, in the case of class 1b agricultural homestead, class 2a agricultural homestead, and class ~~2e~~ 2b(2) agricultural nonhomestead property, the 16th day of November, of the year the taxes are payable, shall be taxed in its favor and included in the judgment and when collected shall be credited to the county revenue fund, unless the taxes were paid in full before the 16th day of October, or, in the case of class 1b agricultural homestead, class 2a agricultural homestead, and class ~~2e~~ 2b(2) agricultural nonhomestead property, the 16th day of November, of the year in which the taxes were payable, in which event interest shall not be taxable.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 279.01, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Except as provided in subdivision 3, on May 16, of each year, with respect to property actually occupied and used as a homestead by the owner of the property, a penalty of three percent shall accrue and thereafter be charged upon all unpaid taxes on real estate on the current lists in the hands of the county treasurer, and a penalty of seven percent on nonhomestead property, except that this penalty shall not accrue until

June 1 of each year on commercial use real property used for seasonal residential recreational purposes and classified as class ~~4d~~ /c or 4c, and on other commercial use real property classified as class 3a, provided that over 60 percent of the gross income earned by the enterprise on the class 3a property is earned during the months of May, June, July, and August. Any property owner of such class 3a property who pays the first half of the tax due on the property after May 15 and before June 1 shall attach an affidavit to the payment attesting to compliance with the income provision of this subdivision. Thereafter, for both homestead and nonhomestead property, on the first day of each month, up to and including October 1 following, an additional penalty of one percent for each month shall accrue and be charged on all such unpaid taxes. When the taxes against any tract or lot exceed $50, one-half thereof may be paid prior to May 16; and, if so paid, no penalty shall attach; the remaining one-half shall be paid at any time prior to October 16 following, without penalty; but, if not so paid, then a penalty of four percent shall accrue thereon for homestead property and a penalty of four percent on nonhomestead property. Thereafter, for homestead property, on the first day of November and December following, an additional penalty of two percent for each month shall accrue and be charged on all such unpaid taxes. Thereafter, for nonhomestead property, on the first day of November and December following, an additional penalty of four percent for each month shall accrue and be charged on all such unpaid taxes. If one-half of such taxes shall not be paid prior to May 16, the same may be paid at any time prior to October 16, with accrued penalties to the date of payment added, and thereupon no penalty shall attach to the remaining one-half until October 16 following.

A county may provide by resolution that in the case of a property owner that has multiple tracts or parcels with aggregate taxes exceeding $50, payments may be made in installments as provided in this subdivision.

The county treasurer may accept payments of more or less than the exact amount of a tax installment due. If the accepted payment is less than the amount due, payments must be applied first to the penalty accrued for the year the payment is made. Acceptance of partial payment of tax does not constitute a waiver of the minimum payment required as a condition for filing an appeal under section 278.03 or any other law, nor does it affect the order of payment of delinquent taxes under section 280.39.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 279.01, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. In the case of class 1b agricultural homestead, class 2a agricultural homestead property, and class ~~2e~~ 2b(2) agricultural nonhomestead property, no penalties shall attach to the second one-half property tax payment as provided in this section if paid by November 15. Thereafter for class 1b agricultural homestead and class 2a homestead property, on November 16 following, a penalty of six percent shall accrue and be charged on all such unpaid taxes and on December 1 following, an additional two percent shall be charged on all such unpaid taxes. Thereafter for class ~~2e~~ 2b(2) agricultural nonhomestead property, on November 16 following, a penalty of eight percent shall accrue and be charged on all such unpaid taxes and on December 1 following, an additional four percent shall be charged on all such unpaid taxes.

If the owner of class 1b agricultural homestead, class 2a, or class ~~2e~~ 2b(2) agricultural property receives a consolidated property tax statement that shows only an aggregate of the taxes and special assessments due on that property and on other property not classified as class 1b agricultural homestead, class 2a, or class ~~2e 2b(2)~~ agricultural property, the aggregate tax and special assessments shown due on the property by the consolidated statement will be due on November 15 provided that at least 50 percent of the property's market value is classified class 1b agricultural, class 2a, or class ~~2e 2b(2)~~ agricultural.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 279.37, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. The county auditor's statement and county treasurer's receipt issued for payment of a deferred installment, as herein provided for, shall not read for any specific year's taxes, but shall read for partial or full release of judgment, as the case may be, and shall show the year that such judgment was entered. In distributing the taxes collected in this manner, the county auditor shall apply the same in the inverse order to that in which such taxes were levied. All penalties and interest collected under the provisions of this section shall be apportioned by the county auditor in accordance with ~~Minnesota Statutes 1941, sections 276.13 and 276.14~~ section 276.131. A duplicate treasurer's receipt for payment of a deferred installment, as hereinafter provided, shall be delivered to the court administrator of the district court, and the court administrator of the district court shall credit the amount so paid upon the judgment entered.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 290A.03, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [GROSS RENT.] "Gross rent" means rental paid for the right of occupancy, at arms-length, of a homestead, exclusive of charges for any medical services furnished by the landlord as a part of the rental agreement, whether expressly set out in the rental agreement or not. If the landlord and tenant have not dealt with each other at arms-length and the commissioner determines that the gross rent charged was excessive, the commissioner may adjust the gross rent to a reasonable amount for purposes of this chapter.

Any amount paid by a claimant residing in property assessed pursuant to section ~~273.13~~ 273.124, subdivision 3, 4, 5, or 6 for occupancy in that property shall be excluded from gross rent for purposes of this chapter. However, property taxes imputed to the homestead of the claimant or the dwelling unit occupied by the claimant that qualifies for homestead treatment pursuant to section ~~273.13~~ 273.124, subdivision 3, 4, 5, or 6 shall be included within the term "property taxes payable" as defined in subdivision 13, notwithstanding the fact that ownership is not in the name of the claimant.

Subd. 3. [CITIES; TOWNS.] (a) 12.5 cents per taxable ton, less any amount distributed under subdivision 8, and paragraph (b), must be allocated to the taconite municipal aid account to be distributed as provided in section 298.282.

(b) An amount must be allocated to towns or cities that is annually certified by the county auditor of a county containing a taconite tax relief area within which there is (1) an organized township if, as of January 2, 1982, more than 75 percent of the assessed valuation of the township consists of iron ore or (2) a city if, as of January 2, 1980, more than 75 percent of the assessed valuation of the city consists of iron ore.

(c) The amount allocated under paragraph (b) will be the portion of a township's or city's certified levy equal to the proportion of (1) the difference between 50 percent of January 2, 1982, assessed value in the case of a township and 50 percent of the January 2, 1980, assessed value in the case of a city and its current assessed value to (2) the sum of its current assessed value plus the difference determined in (1), provided that the amount distributed shall not exceed $55 per capita in the case of a township or $75 per capita in the case of a city. For purposes of this limitation, population will be determined according to the 1980 decennial census conducted by the United States Bureau of the Census. ~~The county auditor shall extend the township's or city's levy against the sum of the township's or city's current assessed value plus the difference between 50 percent of its January 2, 1982, assessed value and its current assessed value in the case of a township and between 50 percent of its January 2, 1980, assessed value and its current assessed value in the case of a city.~~ If the current assessed value of the township exceeds 50 percent of the township's January 2, 1982, assessed value, or if the current assessed value of the city exceeds 50 percent of the city's January 2, 1980, assessed value, this paragraph shall not apply. For purposes of this paragraph, "assessed value," when used in reference to years other than 1980 or 1982, means, for distributions for production year 1989, production taxes payable in 1990, the appropriate gross tax capacities multiplied by 8.2 and for distributions for production year 1990 and thereafter, production taxes payable in 1991 and thereafter, the appropriate net tax capacities multiplied by 10.2.

Sec. 48. [365B.01] [TOWNS; SUBORDINATE SERVICE DISTRICTS; PURPOSE.]

It is the purpose of sections 48 to 57 to provide a means by which a town as a unit of general local government can effectively provide and finance various governmental services for its residents.

Sec. 49. [365B.02] [DEFINITION.]

"Subordinate service district" means a defined area within the town in which one or more governmental services or additions to townwide services are provided by the town specially for the area and financed from revenues from the area. The boundaries of a single subordinate service district may not embrace an entire town.

Sec. 50. [365B.03] [ESTABLISHMENT OF SERVICE DISTRICT.]

Notwithstanding any provision of law requiring uniform property tax rates on real or personal property within the town, a town may establish subordinate service districts to provide and finance a governmental service or function that it is otherwise authorized to undertake. A function or service to be provided may include a function or service that the town ordinarily provides throughout the town only to the extent that there is an increase in the level of the function or service provided in the service district over that provided throughout the town.

Sec. 51. [365B.04] [CREATION BY PETITION.]

Subdivision 1. [PETITION.] A petition signed by at least 50 percent of the property owners in the part of the town proposed for the subordinate service district may be submitted to the town board requesting the establishment of a subordinate service district to provide a service that the town is otherwise authorized by law to provide. The petition must include the territorial boundaries of the proposed district and specify the kinds of services to be provided within the district.

Subd. 2. [PUBLIC HEARING.] Upon receipt of the petition, and the verification of the signatures by the town clerk, the town board shall, within 30 days following verification, hold a public hearing on the question of whether or not the requested district shall be established.

Subd. 3. [APPROVAL; DISAPPROVAL.] Within 30 days after the public hearing, the town board by resolution shall approve or disapprove the establishment of the requested district. A resolution approving the establishment of the district may contain amendments or modifications of the district's boundaries or functions as set forth in the petition.

Sec. 52. [365B.05] [PUBLICATION AND EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Within 20 days after passage of a resolution authorizing the establishment of a subordinate service district, the town board shall have the resolution published once in a qualified newspaper of general circulation within the town. The resolution must include a general description of the territory to be included within the district, the kind of service to be provided, and a statement of how the service will be financed. A notice must also be mailed to the owner of each parcel within the area proposed to be included in the district. The notice shall be sent to the same address as on the property tax statement. The district shall begin 60 days after publication or at a later date specified in the resolution.

Sec. 53. [365B.06] [REVERSE REFERENDUM.]

Subdivision 1. [PETITION.] Upon receipt of a petition signed by at least 25 percent of the property owners within the territory of the proposed district, before the effective date of its establishment as specified in section 52, the establishment shall be in abeyance pending referendum vote within the boundaries of the proposed district.

Subd. 2. [ELECTION.] The town board shall hold a special election within the boundaries of the proposed district not less than 30 nor more than 90 days after receipt of the petition. The question submitted and voted upon by the property owners within the territory of the proposed district must be phrased substantially as follows:

"Shall a subordinate service district be established to provide (service or services to be provided) financed by (revenue sources)?"

If a majority of those voting on the question favor creation of the district, the district shall begin upon certification of the vote by the town clerk. The town clerk shall administer the election.

Sec. 54. [365B.07] [EXPANSION OF BOUNDARIES OF A DISTRICT.]

The town board, upon petition, may enlarge any existing subordinate service district under the procedures specified in sections 50 to 53. Only property owners residing in territory to be added to the district shall be eligible to participate in an election, unless at least 25 percent of the property owners residing in the existing district petition to participate, in which case all property owners residing in the proposed enlarged district shall be eligible.

Upon adoption of the next annual budget following the creation of a subordinate service district the town board shall include in the budget appropriate provisions for the operation of the district including either a property tax levied only on property of the users of the service within the boundaries of the district or a levy of a service charge against the users of the service within the district, or a combination of a property tax and a service charge on the users of the service.

A tax or service charge or a combination of them may be imposed to finance a function or service in the district that the town ordinarily provides throughout the town only to the extent that there is an increase in the level of the function or service provided in the service district over that provided throughout the town. In that case, in addition to the townwide tax levy, an amount necessary to pay for the increase in the level of the function or service may be imposed in the district.

Upon receipt of a petition signed by at least 50 percent of the property owners in the territory of the subordinate service district requesting the removal of the district, the town board shall hold a special election within the service district not less than 30 nor more than 90 days after the resolution or receipt of the petition. The question to be submitted and voted upon by the property owners in the district shall be phrased substantially as follows:

“Shall the subordinate service district presently established be removed and the service or services of the town as provided for the service district be discontinued?”

If a majority of those voting on the question favor the removal and discontinuance of the services, the service district shall be removed and the services shall be discontinued upon certification of the vote by the town clerk. The town clerk shall administer the election.

Sec. 57. [365B.10] [COORDINATION OF DISTRICTS.]

If a county establishes a subordinate service district in part of a town under enabling law for counties, a town may not establish a subordinate service district to provide the same service in the part of the town served by the county. If a town establishes a subordinate service district in part of the town under this chapter or other law, a county may not establish a subordinate service district to provide the same service in the part of the town served by the town.

Sec. 58. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 375.192, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Notwithstanding section 270.07, upon written application by the owner of the property, if the application seeks a reduction in estimated market value not in excess of ~~$2,000~~ $10,000, the county board may grant the reduction or abatement of estimated market valuation or taxes and of any costs, penalties or interest on them as the board deems just and equitable and order the refund in whole or part of any taxes, costs, penalties or interest which have been erroneously or unjustly paid. The application must be approved by the county assessor, or, if the property is located in a city of the first or second class having a city assessor, by the city assessor, and by the county auditor before consideration by the county board. The methods of obtaining a reduction or abatement of ad valorem values contained in subdivisions 1 and 2 are in addition to the method provided in section 270.07.

Sec. 59. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 459.14, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8. [PROPERTY EXEMPT FROM TAXATION.] Any real or personal property owned, leased, maintained, or operated as a municipal parking facility under this section is owned, leased, maintained, or operated for essential public and governmental purposes, and is exempt from all ad valorem taxes levied by the state or a political subdivision of the state.

Sec. 60. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.012, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 12. [PARKING FACILITIES.] An authority may operate and maintain public parking facilities in connection with any of its projects.

Sec. 61. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.040, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LEASED PROPERTY, EXCEPTION.] Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 1, any property other than property to be operated as a parking facility that the authority leases to private individuals or corporations for development in connection with a redevelopment project shall have the same tax status as if the leased property were owned by the private individuals or corporations.

Sec. 62. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.174, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [PROJECT.] "Project" means a project as described in section 469.142; an industrial development district as described in section 469.058, subdivision 1; an economic development district as described in section 469.101, subdivision 1; a project as defined in section 469.002, subdivision 12; a development district as defined in section 469.125, subdivision 8 9, or any special law; or a project as defined in section 469.153, subdivision 2, paragraph (a), (b), or (c).

Sec. 63. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.175, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [CREATION OF HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCE SUBDISTRICT; RESPONSE ACTIONS.] (a) A municipality or authority which is creating or has created a tax increment financing district may establish within the district a hazardous substance subdistrict upon the notice and after the discussion, public hearing, and findings required for approval of the original plan. The geographic area of the subdistrict is made up of any parcels in the district designated for inclusion by the municipality or authority that are designated hazardous substance sites, and any additional parcels in the district designated for inclusion that are contiguous to the hazardous substances sites except for the interposition of a right-of-way. Before or at the time of approval of the tax increment financing plan, the municipality must make the findings under paragraphs (b) to (d), and set forth in writing the reasons and supporting facts for each.

(b) Development or redevelopment of the site, in the opinion of the municipality, would not reasonably be expected to occur solely through private investment and tax increment otherwise available, and therefore the hazardous substance district is deemed necessary.

(c) Other parcels that are not designated hazardous substance sites are expected to be developed together with a designated hazardous substance site.

(d) The subdistrict is not larger than, and the period of time during which increments are elected to be received is not longer than, that which is necessary in the opinion of the municipality to provide for the additional costs due to the designated hazardous substance site.

(e) Upon request by a municipality or authority that has incurred expenses for removal or remedial actions to implement a development response action plan, the attorney general may:

(1) bring a civil action on behalf of the municipality or authority to recover the expenses, including administrative costs and litigation expenses, under section 115B.04 or other law; or

(2) assist the municipality or agency in bringing an action as described in clause (1), by providing legal and technical advice, intervening in the action, or other appropriate assistance.

The decision to participate in any action to recover expenses is at the discretion of the attorney general.

(f) If the attorney general brings an action as provided in paragraph (e), clause (1), the municipality or authority shall certify its reasonable and necessary expenses incurred to implement the development response action plan and shall cooperate with the attorney general as required to effectively pursue the action. The certification by the municipality or authority is prima facie evidence that the expenses are reasonable and necessary. The attorney general may deduct litigation expenses incurred by the attorney general from any amounts recovered in an action brought under paragraph (e), clause (1). The municipality or authority shall reimburse the attorney general for litigation expenses not recovered in an action under paragraph (e), clause (1), and for litigation expenses incurred to assist in bringing an action under paragraph (e), clause ~~(1)~~ (2). All money recovered or paid to the attorney general for litigation expenses under this paragraph shall be paid to the general fund of the state for deposit to the account of the attorney general. For the purposes of this section, "litigation expenses" means attorney fees and costs of discovery and other preparation for litigation.

(g) The municipality or authority shall reimburse the pollution control agency for its administrative expenses incurred to review and approve a development action response plan and associated activities, and for expenses incurred for any services rendered to the attorney general to support the attorney general in actions brought or assistance provided under paragraph (e). All money paid to the pollution control agency under this paragraph shall be deposited in the environmental response, compensation and compliance fund.

(h) Actions taken by a municipality or authority consistent with a development response action plan are deemed to be authorized response actions for the purpose of section 115B.17, subdivision 12. A municipality or agency that takes actions consistent with a development response action plan qualifies for the defenses available under sections 115B.04, subdivision 11, and 115B.05, subdivision 9.

(i) All money recovered by a municipality or authority in an action brought under paragraph (e) in excess of the amounts paid to the attorney general and the pollution control agency must be treated as excess increments and be distributed as provided in section 469.176, subdivision 2, clause (4), to the extent the removal and remedial actions were initially financed with increment revenues.

Sec. 64. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.176, subdivision 4c, is amended to read:

Subd. 4c. [ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT DISTRICTS.] Revenue derived from tax increment from an economic development district may not be used to provide improvements, loans, subsidies, grants, interest rate subsidies, or assistance in any form to developments consisting of buildings and ancillary facilities, if at least 25 percent of the buildings and facilities (determined on the basis of square footage) are used for the purposes listed in section 144(a)(8) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (determined without regard to the 25 percent restriction in subparagraph (A)). The restrictions under this paragraph apply only to districts located in development regions, as defined in section 462.384, with populations in excess of 1,000,000. Population must be determined under the provisions of section 477A.011.

Sec. 65. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 475.53, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SCHOOL DISTRICTS.] Except as otherwise provided by law, no school district shall be subject to a net debt in excess of ten percent of the actual market value of all taxable property situated within its corporate limits, as computed in accordance with this subdivision. The county auditor of each county containing taxable real or personal property situated within any school district shall certify to the district upon request the market value of all such property. ~~The commissioner of revenue shall certify to the district upon request the market value of railroad property within the district as most recently determined under section 270.87.~~ Whenever the commissioner of revenue, in accordance with section 124.2131, subdivision 1, has determined that the gross tax capacity of any district furnished by county auditors is not based upon the market value of taxable property in the district, the commissioner of revenue shall certify to the district upon request the ratio most recently ascertained to exist between such value and the actual market value of property within the district. The actual market value of property within a district, on which its debt limit under this subdivision is based, is (a) the value certified by the county auditors ~~and, where applicable, by the commissioner of revenue under section 270.87,~~ or (b) this value divided by the ratio certified by the commissioner of revenue, whichever results in a higher value.

Sec. 66. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 477A.011, subdivision 15, is amended to read:

Subd. 15. [CITY REVENUE.] "City revenue" equals the sum of (i) the city's aid payable under section 477A.013, in the year prior to that for which aids are being calculated, and (ii) its levy for taxes payable in the year prior to that for which aids are being calculated; ~~and (iii) for aids payable in 1991 and subsequent years, the city's transition aid payable under section~~

~~273.1398, subdivision 2, in the year prior to that for which aids are being calculated.~~

Sec. 67. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 477A.013, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [TOWNS.] In calendar year 1988, each town which had levied for taxes payable in the previous year at least one mill on the dollar of the assessed value of the town shall receive a distribution equal to the greater of: (a) 60 percent of the amount received in 1983 pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1982, sections 273.138, 273.139, and 477A.011 to 477A.03; or (b) the amount certified in 1987 pursuant to sections 477A.011 to 477A.03. Each county assessor and the city assessors of Minneapolis, Duluth, and St. Cloud shall furnish the commissioner of revenue the 1987 market value for taxes payable in 1988 for any new classes of property established in this article. The commissioner shall use those values, and estimate values where needed, in developing the 1987 tax capacity for each school district under this section. The requirements of section 124.2131, subdivisions 1, paragraph (c), and 2 and 3, shall remain in effect.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.011, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

The property tax levied for any purpose under a special law that is not codified in Minnesota Statutes or a city charter provision and that is subject to a mill rate limitation imposed by ~~statute or the special law or city charter provision~~, excluding levies subject to mill rate limitations that use adjusted assessed values determined by the commissioner of revenue under section 124.2131, must not exceed the following amount for the years specified:

limitation imposed by ~~statute~~ or special law or city charter provision multiplied by the total assessed valuation of all taxable property subject to the tax as adjusted by the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 272.64; 273.13, subdivision 7a; and 275.49;

(b) for taxes payable in 1989, the product of (1) the property tax levy limitation for the taxes payable year 1988 determined under clause (a) multiplied by (2) an index for market valuation changes equal to the assessment year 1988 total market valuation of all taxable property subject to the tax divided by the assessment year 1987 total market valuation of all taxable property subject to the tax; and

(c) for taxes payable in 1990 and subsequent years, the product of (1) the property tax levy limitation for the previous year determined pursuant to this subdivision multiplied by (2) an index for market valuation changes equal to the total market valuation of all taxable property subject to the tax for the current assessment year divided by the total market valuation of all taxable property subject to the tax for the previous assessment year.

For the purpose of determining the property tax levy limitation for the taxes payable year 1988 and subsequent years under this subdivision, "total market valuation" means the total market valuation of all taxable property subject to the tax without valuation adjustments for fiscal disparities (chapter 473F), tax increment financing (sections 469.174 to 469.179), and high voltage transmission lines (section 273.425).

Subd. 2. The difference between the correct levy and the erroneous levy shall be added to the township levy for the subsequent levy year; provided that if the amount of the difference exceeds ~~five mills~~ 0.12089 percent of taxable market value, the excess shall be added to the township levy for the second and later subsequent levy years, not to exceed an additional levy of ~~five mills~~ 0.12089 percent of taxable market value in any year, until the full amount of the difference has been levied. The funds collected from the corrected levies shall be used to reimburse the county for the payment required by subdivision 1.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.28, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AUDITOR TO MAKE.] The county auditor shall make out the tax lists according to the prescribed form, and to correspond with the assessment districts. The rate percent necessary to raise the required amount of the various taxes shall be calculated on the gross tax capacity of property as determined by the state board of equalization, but, in calculating such rates, no rate shall be used resulting in a fraction other than a decimal fraction, or less than ~~one-tenth of a mill~~ a gross tax capacity rate of .01 percent or a net tax capacity rate of .01 percent; and, in extending any tax, whenever it amounts to the fractional part of a cent, it shall be made one cent. The tax lists shall also be made out to correspond with the assessment books in reference to ownership and description of property, with columns for the valuation and for the various items of tax included in the total amount of all taxes set down opposite each description; ~~and~~. Opposite each description which has been sold for taxes, and which is subject to redemption, but not redeemed, shall be placed the words "sold for taxes." The amount of all special taxes shall be entered in the proper columns, but the general taxes may be shown by entering the rate percent of each tax at the head of the proper columns, without extending the same, in which case a schedule of the rates percent of such taxes shall be made on the first page of each tax list. If the auditor ~~shall fail~~ fails to enter on any such list before its delivery to the treasurer any tax levied, ~~such the~~ tax may be subsequently entered. The tax lists shall be deemed completed, and all taxes extended thereon, as of October 16 annually.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.56, is amended to read:

275.56 [EFFECT UPON OTHER LEVY LIMITS.]

All special and general laws and charter provisions establishing per capita, mill, tax capacity rate, or other general limitations on tax levies of governmental subdivisions are ~~hereby~~ superseded to the extent that they authorize property taxation in excess of the limitations established by sections 275.50 to 275.56, but otherwise such levy limitations and those established for special purposes are in no way affected by sections 275.50 to 275.56.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.58, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 275.50 to 275.56, but subject to other law or charter provisions establishing per capita, mill, tax capacity rate, or other limitations on the amount of taxes that may be levied, the levy of a governmental subdivision, as defined by section 275.50, subdivision 1, may be increased above the limitation imposed by sections 275.50 to 275.56 in any per capita or dollar amount which is approved by the majority of voters of the governmental subdivision voting on the question at a general or special election. When the governing body of the governmental subdivision resolves to increase the levy of the governmental subdivision pursuant to this section, it shall provide for submission of the proposition of an increase in the levy limit base per capita or the proposition of an additional levy, as the case may be, at a general or special election. Notice of ~~such the~~ election shall be given in the manner required by law. If the proposition is for an adjustment to the governmental subdivision's levy limit base per capita, increasing the levy limit base per capita over the per capita amount established pursuant to section 275.51, subdivision 3, ~~such the~~ notice shall state the purpose of ~~such the~~ per capita adjustment and the per capita amount of ~~such the~~ adjustment. If the proposition is for an additional levy, ~~such the~~ notice shall state the purpose and maximum yearly amount of ~~such the~~ additional levy.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 298.28, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [SCHOOL DISTRICTS.] (a) 27.5 cents per taxable ton plus the increase provided in paragraph (d) must be allocated to qualifying school districts to be distributed, based upon the certification of the commissioner of revenue, under paragraphs (b) and (c).

(b) 5.5 cents per taxable ton must be distributed to the school districts in which the lands from which taconite was mined or quarried were located or within which the concentrate was produced. The distribution must be based on the apportionment formula prescribed in subdivision 2.

(c)(i) 22 cents per taxable ton, less any amount distributed under paragraph (e), shall be distributed to a group of school districts comprised of those school districts ~~wherein~~ in which the taconite was mined or quarried or the concentrate produced or in which there is a qualifying municipality as defined by section 273.134 in direct proportion to school district indexes as follows: for each school district, its pupil units determined under section 124.17 for the prior school year shall be multiplied by the ratio of the average adjusted gross tax capacity per pupil unit for school districts receiving aid under this clause as calculated pursuant to chapter 124A for the school year ending prior to distribution to the adjusted gross tax capacity per pupil unit of the district. Each district shall receive that portion of the distribution which its index bears to the sum of the indices for all school districts that receive the distributions.

(ii) Notwithstanding clause (i), each school district that receives a distribution under sections 298.018; 298.23 to 298.28, exclusive of any amount received under this clause; 298.34 to 298.39; 298.391 to 298.396; 298.405; or any law imposing a tax on severed mineral values that is less than the amount of its levy reduction under section 275.125, subdivision 9, for the second year prior to the year of the distribution shall receive a distribution equal to the difference; the amount necessary to make this payment shall be derived from proportionate reductions in the initial distribution to other school districts under clause (i).

(d) On July 15, in years prior to 1988, an amount equal to the increase derived by increasing the amount determined by paragraph (c) in the same proportion as the increase in the steel mill products index over the base year of 1977 as provided in section 298.24, subdivision 1, clause (a), shall be distributed to any school district described in paragraph (c) where a levy increase pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 2, is authorized by referendum, according to the following formula. On July 15, 1988, the increase over the amount established for 1987 shall be determined as if there had been an increase in the tax rate under section 298.24, subdivision 1, paragraph (b), according to the increase in the implicit price deflator. On July 15, 1989, and subsequent years, the increase over the amount established for the prior year shall be determined according to the increase in the implicit price deflator as provided in section 298.24, subdivision 1, paragraph (a). Each district shall receive the product of:

(i) $150 times the pupil units identified in section 124.17, subdivision 1, enrolled in the second previous year or the 1983-1984 school year, whichever is greater, less the product of ~~1-3/4 mills~~ 0.04231 percent times the district's taxable ~~valuation~~ market value in the second previous year; times

(ii) the lesser of:

(A) one, or

(B) the ratio of the amount certified pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 2, in the previous year, to the product of ~~1-3/4 mills~~ 0.04231

percent times the district's taxable valuation market value in the second previous year.

If the total amount provided by paragraph (d) is insufficient to make the payments herein required then the entitlement of $150 per pupil unit shall be reduced uniformly so as not to exceed the funds available. Any amounts received by a qualifying school district in any fiscal year pursuant to paragraph (d) shall not be applied to reduce general education aid which the district receives pursuant to section 124A.23 or the permissible levies of the district. Any amount remaining after the payments provided in this paragraph shall be paid to the commissioner of iron range resources and rehabilitation who shall deposit the same in the taconite environmental protection fund and the northeast Minnesota economic protection trust fund as provided in subdivision 11.

(e) There shall be distributed to any school district the amount which the school district was entitled to receive under section 298.32 in 1975.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 298.282, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. (a) Each year following the final determination of the amount of taxes payable under section 298.24, the commissioner of revenue shall determine the amount in the taconite municipal aid account as of July 1 of ~~such~~ that year and the amount to be distributed to each qualifying municipality during ~~such~~ the year. The amount to be distributed to each qualifying municipality shall be determined by determining an index for each qualifying municipality by subtracting its local effort tax capacity rate, multiplied by its equalized gross tax capacity, from its fiscal need factor. For the purposes of this subdivision, the following terms have the meanings given them herein. A municipality's "local effort tax capacity rate" means its fiscal need factor per capita divided by ~~$17~~ $21 per capita ~~per mill for each one percent of the gross tax capacity rate or $17 per capita for each one percent of the net tax capacity rate~~ for the first $350 of its fiscal need factor per capita; plus its fiscal need factor per capita divided by ~~$15~~ $18 per capita ~~per mill for each one percent of the gross tax capacity rate or $15 per capita for each one percent of the net tax capacity rate~~ on that part of its fiscal need factor per capita, if any, in excess of $350. In no case shall a municipality's local effort tax capacity rate be less than ~~eight mills~~, a gross tax capacity rate of 6.56 percent or a net tax capacity rate of 8.16 percent. A municipality's "equalized ~~cap- tured~~ gross tax capacity" means its previous year tax capacity, less the tax capacity in any tax increment district, divided by the municipality's aggregate sales ratio covering the period ending two years prior to the year of aid distribution. A municipality's "fiscal need factor" means the three-year average of the sum of its municipal levy, taconite aids received under section 298.28, subdivisions 2, 11, paragraph (b), and this section and its local government aid distribution amount, for taxes payable and distribution amounts receivable in the three years immediately preceding the aid distribution year.

The ratio of the resulting index for each qualifying municipality to the sum of all qualifying municipalities' indexes shall be multiplied by the total amount in the taconite municipal aid account less the amount distributed pursuant to subdivision 5. ~~For the distribution made in 1987, one-third of the distribution shall be distributed pursuant to this subdivision~~

~~and two thirds pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 298.282, subdivision 2. For the distribution made in 1988, two thirds shall be distributed pursuant to this subdivision and one third pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 298.282, subdivision 2.~~

(b) If the distribution under this section, sections 273.138, 298.26 and 298.28, and chapter 477A, to any municipality would exceed that municipality's levy limit base for that year, computed pursuant to sections 275.50 to 275.58, the amount in excess of the levy limit base for that year shall reduce the amount distributed to the municipality under this section and this excess amount shall be distributed to the other qualifying municipalities in the same manner as the distribution made pursuant to subdivision 2, except that the qualifying municipality receiving an initial distribution when added to that received pursuant to sections 273.138, 298.26, 298.28, and chapter 477A in excess of the qualifying municipality's levy limit base, shall not receive a distribution nor shall its index be used in computing the distribution pursuant to this clause. The distributions to be received in the year in which the taxes are payable shall be compared to the levy limit base for that same year. Upon completion of ~~such~~ the determination, the commissioner of revenue shall certify to the chief clerical officer of each qualifying municipality the amount which will be distributed to ~~such~~ the municipality from the taconite municipal aid account that year.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 366.27, is amended to read:

(2) for taxes payable in 1989, the product of (i) the regional transit board's property tax levy limitation for general purposes for the taxes payable year 1988 determined under clause (1) multiplied by (ii) an index for market valuation changes equal to the assessment year 1988 total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan transit taxing district divided by the assessment year 1987 total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan transit taxing district; and

A tax levied in accordance with this subdivision for paying capital costs is a levy for the payment of principal and interest on bonded indebtedness within the meaning of section 275.50, subdivision 5, clause (e).

PURCHASE OF FEDERAL CROP INSURANCE

Section 1. [FINDING OF PUBLIC PURPOSE.]

The legislature finds that federal crop insurance represents the lowest cost, most economically feasible mechanism for protecting farm families from severe economic stress caused by drought and other natural disasters. The legislature further finds that costs to the state for rural disaster relief are greatly reduced when a majority of farmers carry federal crop insurance. In order to encourage all farmers to carry federal crop insurance, it is a valid public purpose for state funds to be used to make grants for a portion of the premium costs of the crop insurance.

Sec. 2. [GRANTS FOR PARTIAL PAYMENT OF FEDERAL CROP INSURANCE.]

Subdivision 1. [CERTIFICATION OF ELIGIBILITY.] An applicant for a grant under this section must apply to the Minnesota extension service or the agricultural stabilization and conservation service for a certificate of eligibility. That service must determine which crops are or will be covered by federal crop insurance and the premium cost paid or to be paid by the farmer. The service must then provide to the commissioner of agriculture a certificate of eligibility stating the acreage of each crop covered and the total premium cost.

Subd. 2. [PAYMENT OF GRANT LIMITS.] Within funds appropriated for this program the commissioner shall reimburse eligible farmers certified by the Minnesota extension service or the agricultural stabilization and conservation service for 20 percent of the annual premium paid by the farmer for federal crop insurance. The maximum grant to any farmer in a calendar year is $1,000.

Sec. 3. [RULES.]

The commissioner of agriculture may adopt rules for purposes of sections 1 to 3.”

Of this amount, not more than $75,000 is available for administrative expenses of the program.”

The commissioner shall then reduce the amount transferred to the highway user tax distribution fund by the amount of that estimate. The commissioner shall reduce the estimate for any six-month period by the amount by which the estimate for the previous six-month period exceeded the amount needed to fund the appropriation under section 41A.09, subdivision 1, for that previous six-month period. If at any time during a six-month period in those fiscal years the amount of reduction in the transfer to the highway user tax distribution fund is insufficient to fund the appropriation under section 41A.09, subdivision 1 for that period, the commissioner shall transfer to the general fund from the highway user tax distribution fund an additional amount sufficient to fund the appropriation for that period, but the additional amount so transferred to the general fund in a six-month period may not exceed the amount transferred to the highway user tax distribution fund for that six-month period."
