For the purposes of this subdivision, ~~"net tax" means the tax on the property after deduction of any credit under section 273.13, subdivision 22 or 23, "taconite breakpoint" means the lowest possible net tax for a homestead qualifying for the maximum reduction pursuant to section 273.13, subdivision 22, rounded to the nearest whole dollar,~~ "homestead credit equivalency percentage" means ~~a percentage equal to the percentage reduction authorized in section 273.13, subdivision 22~~ one minus the ratio of the net tax capacity rate to the gross tax capacity rate applicable to the first $68,000 of the market value of residential homesteads, and "effective tax rate" means tax divided by the market value of ~~the~~ a property, and the "base year effective tax rate" means the payable 1988 tax on ~~the~~ a property with an identical market value to that of the property receiving the credit in the current year after application of the credits payable under section 273.13, subdivisions 22 and 23, and this section ~~for taxes payable in 1988~~, divided by the market value of the property. ~~A new parcel with a current year classification that is different from its base year classification has the same base year effective tax rate as an equivalent homesteaded parcel.~~

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.1398, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) In this section, the terms defined in this subdivision have the meanings given them.

(b) "Unique taxing jurisdiction" means the geographic area subject to the same set of tax capacity rates.

(c) "Gross tax capacity" means the product of the appropriate percentages of market value listed as gross tax capacities in section 273.13 and ~~equalized~~ estimated market values. "Total gross tax capacity" means the gross tax capacities for all property within the unique taxing jurisdiction. The total gross tax capacity used shall be reduced by the sum of (1) the unique taxing jurisdiction's gross tax capacity of commercial industrial property as defined in section 473F.02, subdivision 3, multiplied by the ratio determined pursuant to section 473F.08, subdivision 6, for the municipality, as defined in section 473F.02, subdivision 8, in which the unique taxing jurisdiction is located ~~and~~, (2) the gross tax capacity of the captured value of tax increment financing districts as defined in section 469.177, subdivision 2, and (3) the gross tax capacity of transmission lines deducted from a local government's total gross tax capacity under section 273.425. ~~For purposes of determining the gross tax capacity of property referred to in clauses (1) and (2) for disparity reduction aid payable in 1989, the gross tax capacity before equalization shall equal the property's 1987 assessed value multiplied by 12 percent.~~ Gross tax capacity cannot be less than zero.

(d) "Net tax capacity" means the product of the appropriate percentages of market value listed as net tax capacities in section 273.13 and ~~equalized~~ estimated market values. "Total net tax capacity" means the net tax capacities for all property within the unique taxing jurisdiction. The total net tax capacity used shall be reduced by the sum of (1) the unique taxing jurisdiction's net tax capacity of commercial industrial property as defined in section 473F.02, subdivision 3, multiplied by the ratio determined pursuant to section 473F.08, subdivision 6, for the municipality, as defined in section 473F.02, subdivision 8, in which the unique taxing jurisdiction is located ~~and~~, (2) the net tax capacity of the captured value of tax increment financing districts as defined in section 469.177, subdivision 2, and (3) the net tax capacity of transmission lines deducted from a local government's total net tax capacity under section 273.425. For purposes of determining the net tax capacity of property referred to in clauses (1) and (2), the net tax capacity ~~before equalization~~ shall ~~equal the property's 1987 assessed value~~ be multiplied by ~~12 percent~~ .962. Net tax capacity cannot be less than zero.

(e) "Equalized market values" are market values that have been equalized by dividing the assessor's estimated market value for the second year prior to that in which the aid is payable by the assessment sales ratios determined by class in the assessment sales ratio study conducted by the department of revenue pursuant to section 124.2131 in the second year prior to that in which the aid is payable. ~~For computation of aids payable in 1989 only, if the aggregate assessment sales ratio is less than or equal to 92 percent, the assessment sales ratios by class shall be adjusted proportionally so that the aggregate ratio of the unequalized market values to the equalized market values equals 92 percent; otherwise~~ The equalized market values shall equal the unequalized market values divided by the assessment sales ratio.

(f) "~~Homestead effective~~ Local tax rate" means ~~the product of (i) 46 percent; (ii) 2.17 percent; and (iii) the total tax capacity rate for taxes payable in 1989 within a unique taxing jurisdiction multiplied by the 1988 aggregate assessment sales ratio. A sales ratio of .92 is used if the actual sales ratio is less than .92~~ the quotient derived by dividing the sum of (1) gross taxes levied within a unique taxing jurisdiction, and (2) the disparity reduction aid actually used to reduce taxes levied within the unique taxing jurisdiction for taxes payable in 1989, by (3) the gross tax capacity of the unique taxing jurisdiction.

(g) For purposes of calculating the ~~transition~~ homestead and agricultural credit aid authorized pursuant to subdivision 2, the "subtraction factor" is the product of (i) a unique taxing jurisdiction's ~~homestead effective~~ local tax rate; (ii) its net tax capacity; and (iii) ~~103~~ 1.028146.

(h) For purposes of calculating and allocating ~~transition~~ homestead and agricultural credit aid authorized pursuant to subdivision 2 and the disparity reduction aid authorized in subdivision 3, "gross taxes levied on all properties" or "gross taxes" means the total gross taxes levied on all properties except that levied on the captured value of tax increment districts as defined in section 469.177, subdivision 2, and that levied on the portion of commercial industrial properties' assessed value or gross tax capacity, as defined in section 473F.02, subdivision 3, subject to the areawide tax as provided in section 473F.08, subdivision 6, in a unique taxing jurisdiction before reduction by any credits for taxes payable in the year prior to that in which the aids are payable. ~~For purposes of disparity reduction aid only, total gross taxes shall be reduced by the taxes levied for any school district referendum levies authorized pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 2, and any school district debt levies authorized pursuant to section 475.61.~~ Gross taxes are before any reduction for disparity reduction aid. Gross taxes levied cannot be less than zero.

(i) "Income maintenance aids" means:

(1) medical assistance under sections 256B.041, subdivision 5, and 256B.19, subdivision 1;

(2) preadmission screening and alternative care grants under section 256B.091, subdivision 8;

(3) general assistance, and work readiness under section 256D.03, subdivision 2;

(4) general assistance medical care under section 256D.03, subdivision 6;

(5) aid to families with dependent children under section 256.82, subdivision 1, including emergency assistance under section 256.871, subdivision 6; and funeral expense payments under section 256.935, subdivision 1; and

(6) supplemental aid under section 256D.36, subdivision 1.

(j) "Adjustment factor" means one plus the percentage change in the ratio of estimated market value of residential homesteads to the estimated market value of all taxable property within the city or township containing the unique taxing jurisdiction based on the assessment one year prior to the year in which the aid is payable when compared to the same ratio based on the assessment two years prior to the year in which the aid is payable. If the market value of farm homesteads exceeds the market value of residential homesteads in the city or township containing the unique taxing jurisdiction, "adjusted factor" means one plus the percentage change in the ratio of the estimated market value of farm homesteads to the estimated market value of all taxable property within the city or township containing the unique taxing jurisdiction based on the assessment one year prior to the year in which the aid is payable when compared to the same ratio based on the assessment two years prior to the year in which the aid is payable. The adjustment factor cannot be less than one. Estimates of market value for the assessment one year prior to the year in which the aid is paid will be made on the basis of the abstract submitted pursuant to section 270.11. Discrepancies between the estimate and actual market values will not result in increased or decreased aid in the year in which the estimates are used to compute aid, but the initial aid used to compute homestead and agricultural credit aid in the subsequent year will be adjusted to reflect actual market values.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.1398, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [~~TRANSITION~~ HOMESTEAD AND AGRICULTURAL CREDIT AID.] (a) ~~Transition~~ Initial homestead and agricultural credit aid for each unique taxing jurisdiction for taxes payable in 1990 equals the total gross taxes levied on all properties, minus the unique taxing jurisdiction's subtraction factor. ~~Transition~~ The commissioner of revenue may, in computing the amount of the homestead and agricultural credit aid paid in 1990, adjust the gross tax capacity, net tax capacity, and gross taxes of a taxing jurisdiction for taxes payable in 1989 to reflect auditor's errors in computing taxes payable for 1989 in unique taxing jurisdictions within independent school district Nos. 720 and 792. Homestead and agricultural credit aid cannot be less than zero. ~~The transition aid so determined for school districts for purposes of general education and transportation levies shall be multiplied by the ratio of the adjusted gross tax capacity based upon the 1988 adjusted gross tax capacity to the estimated 1987 adjusted gross tax capacity based upon the 1987 adjusted assessed value. Each county assessor and the city assessors of Minneapolis, Duluth, and St. Cloud shall furnish the commissioner of revenue with the 1988 market values for taxes payable in 1989 for any new classes of property established in this article. The commissioner shall use those values, and estimate values where needed, in developing the 1988 tax capacity for each unique taxing jurisdiction under this section.~~

(b) (1) The ~~transition~~ homestead and agricultural credit aid is allocated to each local government levying taxes in the unique taxing jurisdiction in the proportion that the local government's payable 1989 gross taxes bears to the total payable 1989 gross taxes levied within the unique taxing jurisdiction.

(2) The 1990 homestead and agricultural credit aid so determined for school districts for purposes of general education levies pursuant to section 124A.25, subdivisions 2 and 2a, and transportation levies pursuant to section 275.125, subdivision 5, shall be multiplied by the ratio of the adjusted gross tax capacity based upon the 1988 adjusted gross tax capacity to the estimated 1987 adjusted gross tax capacity based upon the 1987 adjusted assessed value.

(3) If a local government's total tax capacity rate for all funds for taxes payable in 1989 varies within the area in which it exercises taxing authority, the local government's allocated ~~transition~~ homestead and agricultural credit aid must be further allocated between the part of its levy in respect to which the tax capacity rate is constant throughout the area in which it exercises taxing authority and the part of its levy in respect to which the tax capacity rate varies throughout the area in which it exercises taxing authority.

(c) ~~In 1991 and subsequent years, a local government shall receive transition aid equal to that it received in 1990 subject to the requirement of the last sentence of subdivision 6.~~

~~(d) The difference between (1) the income maintenance aids payable to a county and (2) the income maintenance aids that would be payable to~~

~~the county pursuant to the rates in effect for calendar year 1989 shall be reduced by the sum of the amount of transition aid a county receives under this subdivision for all unique taxing jurisdictions located within its borders. The reduction must not reduce the difference to less than zero. The reduction shall be prorated among all payments of the increased income maintenance aids so that each payment is reduced by an equal percentage amount. The commissioner of revenue shall certify each county's transition aid to the commissioner of human services for purposes of this adjustment.~~ In 1991 and subsequent years, the initial homestead and agricultural credit aid shall equal that calculated for taxes payable in 1990. The final homestead and agricultural credit aid shall equal the initial homestead and agricultural credit aid increased by the adjustment factor.

(d) Payments under this subdivision to counties in 1990 and subsequent years shall be reduced by the amount provided in section 477A.012, subdivision 3, paragraph (d).

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.1398, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [EDUCATION LEVY REDUCTION.] (a) As used in this subdivision, "equalized levies" means the sum of the maximum amounts that may be levied for:

(1) general education under section 124A.23, subdivision 2;

(2) supplemental revenue under section 124A.23, subdivision 2a;

(3) capital expenditure facilities revenue under section 124.243, subdivision 3;

(4) capital expenditure equipment revenue under section 124.44, subdivision 2; and

(5) basic transportation under section 275.125, subdivision 5;

as reduced for general education levy equity under section 124A.24.

(b) By June 15, 1990, the commissioner of education shall determine and certify to the commissioner of revenue the amount of the homestead and agricultural credit aid offset. The offset shall be equal to the amount by which:

(1) the amount that would have been computed as the district's equalized levies for property taxes payable in 1991, if the levies had been based upon the district's gross tax capacity, exceeds

(2) the district's equalized levies for property taxes payable in 1991.

(c) Effective for property taxes payable in 1991 and subsequent years, the amount of the education levy reduction shall be deducted from the homestead and agricultural credit aid payable to each school district under subdivision 2.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.1398, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DISPARITY REDUCTION AID.] (a) ~~For taxes payable in 1989, a disparity reduction aid shall be calculated for each unique taxing jurisdiction. The aid is the greater of:~~

~~(1) the difference between (i) the total 1988 gross tax payable on all~~

~~taxable property within the unique taxing jurisdiction, and (ii) the gross tax capacity of the unique taxing jurisdiction; or~~

~~(2) 20 percent of the difference between (i) the 1988 gross tax of the city or township, and (ii) 23 percent of the city's or township's gross tax capacity.~~

~~In no case can the aid be less than $0.~~ For taxes payable in 1990, the amount of disparity aid originally certified for each unique taxing jurisdiction for taxes payable in 1989 shall be multiplied by (1) 1.028146, and (2) the ratio of the jurisdiction's net tax capacity to its gross tax capacity, based upon market values for taxes payable in 1989.

(b) The disparity reduction aid is allocated to each local government levying taxes in the unique taxing jurisdiction in the proportion that the local government's payable gross taxes bears to the total payable gross taxes levied within the unique taxing jurisdiction.

(c) In ~~1990~~ 1991 and subsequent years, a local government shall receive disparity reduction aid equal to that it received in ~~1989~~ 1990.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.1398, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [HOMESTEAD AND AGRICULTURAL CREDIT GUARANTEE.] Beginning with taxes payable in 1990, each unique taxing jurisdiction may receive additional homestead and agricultural credit payments.

(1) Each year, the commissioner shall ~~certify to the county auditor~~ determine the total education aids paid under chapters 124 and 124A, ~~transition~~ homestead and agricultural credit aid and disparity reduction aid paid under section 273.1398, local government aid to cities, counties, and towns paid under chapter 477A, and income maintenance aid paid to counties for each taxing jurisdiction. The ~~county auditor~~ commissioner shall apportion each local government's aids to the unique taxing jurisdiction based upon the proportion that the unique taxing jurisdiction's tax capacity bears to the total tax capacity of the local government.

(2) Each year, the ~~county auditor~~ commissioner will compute a gross tax capacity rate for each taxing jurisdiction equal to its total levy divided by its gross tax capacity. For each unique taxing jurisdiction, a total gross tax capacity rate will be determined. This total gross tax capacity rate will be applied against the gross tax capacity of ~~each~~ property that would have been eligible for the homestead credit or the agricultural credit for taxes payable in 1989. ~~A~~ An estimated credit amount will be determined for ~~each parcel~~ all qualifying parcels based upon the credit rate structure in effect for taxes payable in 1989. The resulting credit amounts will be summed for all parcels in the unique taxing jurisdiction.

If the amount determined in clause (2) is greater than the amount determined in clause (1), the difference will be additional homestead and agricultural credit payments for the unique taxing jurisdiction. The additional credit amount shall proportionately reduce the tax capacity rates of all local governments levying taxes within the unique taxing jurisdiction in the following year. The ~~county auditor~~ commissioner shall certify the amounts of ~~all~~ additional credits determined under this section ~~in~~ a ~~form prescribed by the commissioner~~ to the county auditor at the time provided in subdivision 6.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.1398, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PAYMENT.] The commissioner shall certify the aids provided in subdivisions 2 ~~and~~, 3, and 5 before September ~~30~~ 1 of the year preceding the distribution year to the county auditor of the affected local government and pay them and the credit reimbursements to local governments other than school districts at the times provided in section 477A.015 for payment of local government aid to taxing jurisdictions. Aids and credit reimbursements to school districts must be certified to the commissioner of education and paid under section 273.1392. Payment shall not be made to any taxing jurisdiction that has ceased to levy a property tax nor shall transition aid be payable on the part of a levy to which transition aid was separately allocated under subdivision 2, paragraph (b), clause (2), which is no longer levied.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 298.28, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [PROPERTY TAX RELIEF.] (a) ~~Twelve~~ Fifteen cents per taxable ton, less any amount required to be distributed under paragraphs (b) and (c), must be allocated to St. Louis county acting as the counties' fiscal agent, to be distributed as provided in sections 273.134 to 273.136.

(b) If an electric power plant owned by and providing the primary source of power for a taxpayer mining and concentrating taconite is located in a county other than the county in which the mining and the concentrating processes are conducted, .1875 cent per taxable ton of the tax imposed and collected from such taxpayer shall be paid to the county.

(c) If an electric power plant owned by and providing the primary source of power for a taxpayer mining and concentrating taconite is located in a school district other than a school district in which the mining and concentrating processes are conducted, .5625 cent per taxable ton of the tax imposed and collected from the taxpayer shall be paid to the school district.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 477A.012, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3. [AID OFFSET FOR COURT COSTS.] (a) There shall be deducted from the payment to a county under this section an amount representing the cost to the state for assumption of the cost of district court administration and operation of the trial court information system in the county and, in the case of Hennepin and Ramsey counties, of public defense services in juvenile and misdemeanor cases in the county. The amount of the deduction shall be computed as provided in this subdivision.

(b) By June 15, 1990, the board of public defense shall determine and certify to the supreme court the cost of the state-financed public defense services in juvenile and misdemeanor cases for Hennepin and Ramsey counties during the fiscal year beginning the following July 1. By June 30, 1990, the supreme court shall determine and certify to the department of revenue for each county, except counties located in the eighth judicial district, the pro rata share for each county of district court administration and trial court information system costs during the fiscal year beginning on the following July 1 plus, in the case of Hennepin and Ramsey counties, the costs certified by the board of public defenders.

(c) Twenty-five percent of the amount computed under paragraph (b) for each county shall be deducted from each payment to the county under section 477A.015 in 1990. One-half of the amount computed under paragraph (b) for each county shall be deducted from each payment to the county under section 477A.015 in 1991 and each subsequent year.

(d) If the amount computed under paragraph (b) exceeds the amount payable to a county under subdivision 1, the excess shall be deducted from the aid payable to the county under section 273.1398, subdivision 2.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.061, subdivision 1, as amended by 1989 H.F. No. 266, article 2, section 17, if enacted, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [OFFICE CREATED; APPOINTMENT, QUALIFICATIONS.] Every county in this state shall have a county assessor. The county assessor shall be appointed by the board of county commissioners and shall be a resident of this state. The assessor shall be selected and appointed because of knowledge and training in the field of property taxation and appointment shall be approved by the commissioner of revenue before the same shall become effective. Upon receipt by the county commissioners of the commissioner of revenue's refusal to approve an appointment, the term of the appointee shall terminate at the end of that day. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, a county assessor must have senior accreditation from the state board of assessors by January 1, 1992, or within two years of the assessor's first appointment under this section, whichever is later.

Sec. 28. [MINNESOTA INTERGOVERNMENTAL FINANCE.]

Subdivision 1. [POLICY STATEMENT.] Under state and federal law, the responsibilities for providing public service, and the raising of revenues to finance those services, are divided between the federal, state, and local governments. This division of service delivery and revenue raising functions is complex and often lacks rational policy bases. This division also results in confusion and reduced accountability to the public by the various levels of government.

In addition, the legislature finds that reductions in federal aid, recent major increases in local property tax levies, and the growing cost of state financing of local governments and property tax relief, are placing growing and unsustainable demands on state revenue sources.

Subd. 2. [STUDY.] The legislature finds there is a need for a major review and reconsideration of the role of state government in helping to finance local government operations in Minnesota. Therefore, the legislature hereby authorizes that a joint legislative/executive effort be undertaken to examine the existing and appropriate fiscal relationship between the state and local units of government.

The study should address the following general issues:

(1) the appropriate distribution of service delivery and revenue raising responsibilities between state and local government;

(2) the extent to which programs required by state law influence the cost of local government operations; and

(3) the degree to which the state should subsidize local government operations and provide property tax relief.

Sec. 29. [STUDY AND COMMISSION REPORT.]

Subdivision 1. [COMMISSION.] Under the authority of the executive branch, there is created the commission on intergovernmental finance which shall report to the governor and the legislative commission on planning and fiscal policy. Members shall include:

(1) six persons appointed by the governor, one of whom shall be designated by the governor to serve as chair;

(2) five persons appointed by the senate in a manner provided by the senate committee on rules and administration, appointees may include members of the senate; and

(3) five persons appointed by the house in a manner as provided by the house rules committee, appointees may include members of the house.

Subd. 2. [OUTSIDE RESOURCES.] The commission in encouraged to appoint advisory committees consisting of other interested legislators and representatives of local governments, employee organizations, legislative and executive staff, and other groups and institutions interested in intergovernmental finance. The commission may seek funding and other resources from legislative committees, state agencies, higher education institutions, and private sources.

Subd. 3. [RECOMMENDATIONS.] The commission shall make recommendations for improvements in the system of intergovernmental finance consistent with the general issues listed in section 28, subdivision 2.

Subd. 4. [REPORTS.] The commission shall report regularly to the governor and the legislative commission on planning and fiscal policy, and shall submit an interim report to the legislature by January 1, 1990. The legislative commission on planning and fiscal policy shall monitor the work of the commission and may recommend amendments to the commission's work plan. A final report shall be submitted to the legislature by September 1, 1990.

Subd. 5. [IMPLEMENTATION.] The governor is encouraged to recommend implementation of the commission's recommendations in the governor's budget recommendations for the 1992-1993 biennium.

Subd. 6. [EXPIRATION.] The commission shall expire June 30, 1991.

Sec. 30. [STUDY AND REPORT.] The legislature directs the legislative commission on planning and fiscal policy to collect and analyze information on:

(1) the distribution of responsibility among the various local units of government and the state government for determining the services that must be provided and the financing of those services;

(2) the current and appropriate levels of property tax funding for those programs required by state law; and

(3) the extent to which the state is funding both those programs and services required by state law and those within the discretion of local public officials.

The commission shall oversee and monitor the progress of the executive commission on intergovernmental finance and develop its own recommendations for a more effective and efficient state and local fiscal relationship. These recommendations should take into account both the distribution of need and the resources available within the various local taxing jurisdictions. The commission shall make preliminary recommendations to the 1990 legislature and a final report to the 1991 legislature. With respect to those programs required by federal or state law, the study and report shall:

(1) examine the program requirements;

(2) evaluate the current and alternative funding sources for the program;

(3) evaluate the current and alternative mechanisms for limiting the property tax affects of these programs;

(4) develop a system of reporting any property tax consequences of the program, including separate levy reporting of the property tax proportion of the local program costs; and

(5) develop methods for more accurately estimating any property tax consequences of programs or policies.

Sec. 31. [NOTIFICATION OF ADMINISTRATIVE DIRECTIVES.]

The commissioner of revenue shall notify the chairs of the senate committee on taxes and tax laws and the house committee on taxes of administrative directives or interpretations of the provisions of this article. The notice must be given at least five days before a directive or interpretation is released to the public or provided to a local government to allow time for the chairs to provide advice or to comment on the commissioner's directive or interpretation of the law. An administrative directive or interpretation includes an explanation of a provision, a clarification of its application to a particular circumstance, a directive on how to apply or administer a provision, and other similar communications that are intended to direct or guide local government officials in administering the law. This section applies only to written materials that are either released to the public or mailed, sent, or provided to a local government or a local government official.

Sec. 32. [LOCAL GOVERNMENTAL EXPENDITURES FOR LOBBYISTS.]

On or before September 1, 1989, and each year thereafter, all counties, cities, school districts, metropolitan agencies, regional railroad authorities, and the regional transit board shall report to the state auditor, on forms prescribed by the auditor, their estimated expenditures paid for the previous calendar year to a lobbyist as defined in section 10A.01, subdivision 11, and to any staff person not registered as a lobbyist but who spends over 25 percent of his or her time during the legislative session on legislative matters.

Sec. 33. [PROPERTY TAX REFUNDS FOR TENANTS OF DISQUALIFIED LEASEHOLD COOPERATIVES.]

Property tax refunds payable under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 290A, for rent paid in 1988 and property taxes payable in 1989 to residents of a leasehold cooperative that is disqualified from classification as a leasehold cooperative under Minnesota Statutes, section 273.124, subdivision 6, effective for assessment year 1989 shall not be reduced by the commissioner of revenue because of the disqualification.

Sec. 34. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 273.135, subdivision 2a; and 273.1391, subdivision 2a, are repealed.

Sec. 35. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1, 3, 6, 9, and 21, are effective for taxes payable in 1991 and subsequent years.

Section 2 is effective the day following final enactment and is intended to confirm and clarify the original intent of the legislature in the taxation and equalization of state-assessed public utility property.

Sections 4, 7, 11 to 15, 19, 20, 22 to 24, and 26, are effective for taxes payable in 1990 and subsequent years.

Section 5 is effective January 1, 1989.

Sections 6 and 16 are effective for the 1989 assessment and thereafter.

Section 8 is effective for assessments of market value in 1989 and thereafter. If an assessor has increased the market value for the 1989 assessment by an amount in excess of the amount allowed under section 8, the assessor shall reduce the market value to that allowed under section 8. If the assessor has mailed a notice of the increase in market value to the property owner, the assessor must mail a revised notice to the property owner. Notices must state that the increases in market value have been limited under this act.

Section 10 is effective for taxes levied in 1989, payable in 1990, and thereafter, provided that cooperatives that qualified under Minnesota Statutes, section 273.124, subdivision 6, on January 2, 1989, shall meet the board membership requirements of paragraph (a) by September 1, 1989, and shall meet the requirements of section 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(4) status under the Internal Revenue Code in the first paragraph and in paragraph (e) by January 1, 1990, and that the notice and filing requirements of paragraphs (f) and (g) shall apply only to leasehold cooperatives created later than 60 days after the date of enactment of this act.

Sections 27, 31, and 34, are effective the day following final enactment.

INCOME MAINTENANCE AND LEVY LIMITS

256.018 [COUNTY PUBLIC ASSISTANCE INCENTIVE FUND.]

~~Beginning~~ In 1990, ~~$1,000,000~~ ~~is~~ the amount provided in Laws 1988, chapter 719, article 8, section 34, is appropriated from the general fund to the department ~~in each fiscal year~~ for awards to counties: (1) that have not been assessed an administrative penalty under section 256.017 in the corresponding fiscal year; and (2) that perform satisfactorily according to indicators established by the commissioner.

After consultation with local agencies, the commissioner shall inform local agencies in writing of the performance indicators that govern the awarding of the incentive fund for each fiscal year by April of the preceding fiscal year.

The commissioner may set performance indicators to govern the awarding of the total fund, may allocate portions of the fund to be awarded by unique indicators, or may set a sole indicator to govern the awarding of funds.

The funds shall be awarded to qualifying local agencies according to their share of benefits for the programs related to the performance indicators governing the distribution of the fund or part of it as compared to the total benefits of all qualifying local agencies for the programs related to the performance indicators governing the distribution of the fund or part of it.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256.82, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [MONTHLY PAYMENTS.] For the period from January 1 to June 30, based upon estimates submitted by the county agency to the state agency, which shall state the estimated required expenditures for the succeeding month, upon the direction of the state agency payment shall be made monthly in advance by the state to the counties of all federal funds available for that purpose for such succeeding month, together with an amount of state funds equal to 85 percent of the difference between the total estimated cost and the federal funds so available for payments made except as provided for in section 256.017. Adjustment of any overestimate or underestimate made by any county shall be made upon the direction of the state agency in any succeeding month. Subsequent to July 1 of each year, the state agency shall, subject to section 273.1398, subdivision 2a, reimburse the county agency for the funds expended during the January 1 to June 30 period except as provided for in section 256.017. For the period from July 1 to December 31 based upon the estimates submitted by the county agency to the state agency, which shall state the estimated required expenditures for the succeeding month, upon the direction of the state agency, payment shall be made, subject to section 273.1398, subdivision 2a, monthly in advance by the state to the counties of all state and federal funds available for that purpose for the succeeding month except as provided for in section 256.017. Payment shall be made on the basis of federal and state participation rates described in this subdivision, subject to section 273.1398, subdivision 2a. Adjustment of any overestimate or underestimate made by any county shall be made upon the direction of the state agency in any succeeding month. Effective January 1, 1989, the state rate of participation shall, subject to section 273.1398, subdivision 2a, be determined as a percentage that equals the difference between 100 percent and the percentage rate of federal financial participation.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256.871, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [ESTIMATED EXPENDITURES; PAYMENTS.] The county agency shall submit to the state agency an estimate of expenditures for each succeeding month in such form as required by the state agency. For the period from January 1 to June 30, payment shall be made monthly in advance by the state agency to the counties, of federal funds available for that purpose for each succeeding month, together with an amount of state funds equal to ten percent of the difference between the total estimated cost and the federal funds so available, except as provided for in section 256.017. Adjustment of any overestimate or underestimate made by any county shall be made upon the direction of the state agency in any succeeding month.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256.935, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. On the death of any person receiving public assistance through aid to dependent children, the county agency shall pay an amount for funeral expenses not exceeding $370 and actual cemetery charges. No funeral expenses shall be paid if the estate of the deceased is sufficient to pay such expenses or if the children, or spouse, who were legally responsible for the support of the deceased while living, are able to pay such expenses; provided, that the additional payment or donation of the cost of cemetery lot, interment, religious service, or for the transportation of the body into or out of the community in which the deceased resided, shall not limit payment by the county agency as herein authorized. Freedom of choice in the selection of a funeral director shall be granted to persons lawfully authorized to make arrangements for the burial of any such deceased recipient. In determining the sufficiency of such estate, due regard shall be had for the nature and marketability of the assets of the estate. The county agency may grant funeral expenses where the sale would cause undue loss to the estate. Any amount paid for funeral expenses shall be a prior claim against the estate, as provided in section 524.3-805, and any amount recovered shall be reimbursed to the agency which paid the expenses. For the period from January 1 to June 30, the state shall reimburse the county for 50 percent of any payments made for funeral expenses except as provided for in section 256.017. Subsequent to July 1 of each year, the state agency shall, subject to section 273.1398, subdivision 2a, reimburse the county agency for the funds expended during the January 1 to June 30 period. For the period from July 1 to December 31, the state shall, subject to section 273.1398, subdivision 2a, reimburse the county for 100 percent of any payments made for funeral expenses except as provided for in section 256.017.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.041, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [PAYMENT BY COUNTY TO STATE TREASURER.] If required by federal law or rules promulgated thereunder, or by authorized rule of the state agency, each county shall pay to the state treasurer the portion of medical assistance paid by the state for which it is responsible. Effective January 1, 1989, the state rate of participation shall, subject to section 273.1398, subdivision 2a, be determined as a percentage that equals the difference between 100 percent and the percentage rate of federal financial participation.

For the period from January 1 to June 30, the county shall advance ten percent of that portion of medical assistance costs not met by federal funds, based upon estimates submitted by the state agency to the county agency, stating the estimated expenditures for the succeeding month. Upon the direction of the county agency, payment shall be made monthly by the county to the state for the estimated expenditures for each month. Adjustment of any overestimate or underestimate based on actual expenditures shall be made by the state agency by adjusting the estimate for any succeeding month. Subsequent to July 1 of each year, the state agency shall, subject to section 273.1398, subdivision 2a, reimburse the county agency for the funds expended during the January 1 to June 30 period, except as provided for in section 256.017. For the period from July 1 to December 31, payments will be made by the state agency, except as provided for in section 256.017 and subject to section 273.1398, subdivision 2a, and the county agency will be advised of the amounts paid monthly.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.091, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [ALTERNATIVE CARE GRANTS.] The commissioner shall provide grants to counties participating in the program to pay costs of providing alternative care to individuals screened under subdivision 4 and nursing home or boarding care home residents who request a screening. Prior to July of each year, the commissioner shall allocate state funds available for alternative care grants to each local agency. This allocation must be made as follows: half of the state funds available for alternative care grants must be allocated to each county according to the total number of adults in that county who are recipients age 65 or older who are reported to the department by March 1 of each state fiscal year and half of the state funds available for alternative care grants must be allocated to a county according to that county's number of Medicare enrollments age 65 or older for the most recent statistical report. Payment is available under this subdivision only for individuals (1) for whom the screening team would recommend nursing home or boarding care home admission, or continued stay if alternative care were not available; (2) who are receiving medical assistance or who would be eligible for medical assistance within 180 days of admission to a nursing home; (3) who need services that are not available at that time in the county through other public assistance; and (4) who are age 65 or older.

The commissioner shall establish by rule, in accordance with chapter 14, procedures for determining grant reallocations, limits on the rates for payment of approved services, including screenings, and submittal and approval of a biennial county plan for the administration of the preadmission screening and alternative care grants program. Grants may be used for payment of costs of providing care-related supplies, equipment, and services such as, but not limited to, foster care for elderly persons, day care whether or not offered through a nursing home, nutritional counseling, or medical social services, which services are provided by a licensed health care provider, a home health service eligible for reimbursement under Titles XVIII and XIX of the federal Social Security Act, or by persons employed by or contracted with by the county board or the local welfare agency. The county agency shall ensure that a plan of care is established for each individual in accordance with subdivision 3, clause (e)(2), and that a client's service needs and eligibility is reassessed at least every six months. The plan shall include any services prescribed by the individual's attending physician as necessary and follow up services as necessary. The county agency shall provide documentation to the commissioner verifying that the individual's alternative care is not available at that time through any other public assistance or service program and shall provide documentation in each individual's plan of care and to the commissioner that the most cost-effective alternatives available have been offered to the individual and that the individual was free to choose among available qualified providers, both public and private. The county agency shall document to the commissioner that the agency made reasonable efforts to inform potential providers of the anticipated need for services under the alternative care grants program, including a minimum of 14 days written advance notice of the opportunity to be selected as a service provider and an annual public meeting with providers to explain and review the criteria for selection, and that the agency allowed potential providers an opportunity to be selected to contract with the county board. Grants to counties under this subdivision are subject to audit by the commissioner for fiscal and utilization control.

The county must select providers for contracts or agreements using the following criteria and other criteria established by the county:

(1) the need for the particular services offered by the provider;

(2) the population to be served, including the number of clients, the length of time services will be provided, and the medical condition of clients;

(3) the geographic area to be served;

(4) quality assurance methods, including appropriate licensure, certification, or standards, and supervision of employees when needed;

(5) rates for each service and unit of service exclusive of county administrative costs;

(6) evaluation of services previously delivered by the provider; and

(7) contract or agreement conditions, including billing requirements, cancellation, and indemnification.

The county must evaluate its own agency services under the criteria established for other providers. The county shall provide a written statement of the reasons for not selecting providers.

The commissioner shall establish a sliding fee schedule for requiring payment for the cost of providing services under this subdivision to persons who are eligible for the services but who are not yet eligible for medical assistance. The sliding fee schedule is not subject to chapter 14 but the commissioner shall publish the schedule and any later changes in the State Register and allow a period of 20 working days from the publication date for interested persons to comment before adopting the sliding fee schedule in final forms.

The commissioner shall apply for a waiver for federal financial participation to expand the availability of services under this subdivision. The commissioner shall provide grants to counties from the nonfederal share, unless the commissioner obtains a federal waiver for medical assistance payments, of medical assistance appropriations. A county agency may use grant money to supplement but not supplant services available through other public assistance or service programs and shall not use grant money to establish new programs for which public money is available through sources other than grants provided under this subdivision. A county agency shall not use grant money to provide care under this subdivision to an individual if the anticipated cost of providing this care would exceed the average payment, as determined by the commissioner, for the level of care that the recipient would receive if placed in a nursing home or boarding care home. For the period from January 1 to June 30, the nonfederal share may be used to pay up to 90 percent of the start-up and service delivery costs of providing care under this subdivision. Each county agency that receives a grant shall pay ten percent of the costs for persons who are eligible for the services but who are not yet eligible for medical assistance. Subsequent to July 1 of each year, the state agency shall, subject to section 273.1398, subdivision 2a, reimburse the county agency for the funds expended during the January 1 to June 30 period, except as provided for in section 256.017. For the period from July 1 to December 31, the nonfederal share may be used to pay up to 100 percent of the start-up and service delivery costs of providing care under this subdivision, subject to section 273.1398, subdivision 2a.

The commissioner shall promulgate emergency rules in accordance with sections 14.29 to 14.36, to establish required documentation and reporting of care delivered.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256B.19, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DIVISION OF COST.] The cost of medical assistance paid by each county of financial responsibility shall be borne as follows: For the period from January 1 to June 30, payments shall be made by the state to the county for that portion of medical assistance paid by the federal government and the state on or before the 20th day of each month for the succeeding month upon requisition from the county showing the amount required for the succeeding month. Ninety percent of the expense of assistance not paid by federal funds available for that purpose shall be paid by the state and ten percent shall be paid by the county of financial responsibility, except as provided for in section 256.017.

For the period from January 1 to June 30, for counties that participate in a Medicaid demonstration project under sections 256B.69 and 256B.71, the division of the nonfederal share of medical assistance expenses for payments made to prepaid health plans or for payments made to health maintenance organizations in the form of prepaid capitation payments, this division of medical assistance expenses shall be 95 percent by the state and five percent by the county of financial responsibility. Subsequent to July 1 of each year, the state agency shall, subject to section 273.1398, subdivision 2a, reimburse the county agency for the funds expended during the January 1 to June 30 period, except as provided for in section 256.017.

For the period from July 1 to December 31, except as provided for in section 256.017 and subject to section 273.1398, subdivision 2a, payments shall be made by the state to the county for that portion of medical assistance paid by the federal government and the state on or before the 20th day of each month for the succeeding month upon requisition from the county showing the amount required for the succeeding month. The expense of assistance not paid by federal funds available for that purpose shall be paid by the state, subject to section 273.1398, subdivision 2a.

In counties where prepaid health plans are under contract to the commissioner to provide services to medical assistance recipients, the cost of court ordered treatment ordered without consulting the prepaid health plan that does not include diagnostic evaluation, recommendation, and referral for treatment by the prepaid health plan is the responsibility of the county of financial responsibility.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 256D.03, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. For the period from January 1 to June 30, state aid shall be paid to local agencies for 75 percent of all general assistance and work readiness grants up to the standards of sections 256D.01, subdivision 1a, and 256D.051, and according to procedures established by the commissioner, except as provided for under section 256.017. Subsequent to July 1 of each year, the state agency shall, subject to section 273.1398, subdivision 2a, reimburse the county agency for the funds expended during the January 1 to June 30 period, except as provided for in section 256.017.

For the period from July 1 to December 31, state aid shall, subject to section 273.1398, subdivision 2a, be paid to local agencies for 100 percent of all general assistance and work readiness grants up to the standards of sections 256D.01, subdivision 1a, and 256D.051, and according to procedures established by the commissioner, except as provided for under section 256.017 and except that, after December 31, 1988, state aid is reduced to 65 percent of all general assistance grants if the local agency does not make occupational or vocational literacy training available and accessible to recipients who are eligible for assistance under section 256D.05, subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (15).

After December 31, 1988, state aid must be paid to local agencies for 65 percent of work readiness assistance paid under section 256D.051 if the county does not have an approved and operating community investment program.

Any local agency may, from its own resources, make payments of general assistance: (a) at a standard higher than that established by the commissioner without reference to the standards of section 256D.01, subdivision 1; or, (b) to persons not meeting the eligibility standards set forth in section 256D.05, subdivision 1, but for whom the aid would further the purposes established in the general assistance program in accordance with rules promulgated by the commissioner pursuant to the administrative procedure act.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.1398, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] (a) In this section, the terms defined in this subdivision have the meanings given them.

(b) "Unique taxing jurisdiction" means the geographic area subject to the same set of tax capacity rates.

(c) "Gross tax capacity" means the product of the appropriate percentages of market value listed as gross tax capacities in section 273.13 and equalized market values. "Total gross tax capacity" means the gross tax capacities for all property within the unique taxing jurisdiction. The total gross tax capacity used shall be reduced by the sum of (1) the unique taxing jurisdiction's gross tax capacity of commercial industrial property as defined in section 473F.02, subdivision 3, multiplied by the ratio determined pursuant to section 473F.08, subdivision 6, for the municipality, as defined in section 473F.02, subdivision 8, in which the unique taxing jurisdiction is located and (2) the gross tax capacity of the captured value of tax increment financing districts as defined in section 469.177, subdivision 2. For purposes of determining the gross tax capacity of property referred to in clauses (1) and (2) for disparity reduction aid payable in 1989, the gross tax capacity before equalization shall equal the property's 1987 assessed value multiplied by 12 percent. Gross tax capacity cannot be less than zero.

(d) "Net tax capacity" means the product of the appropriate percentages of market value listed as net tax capacities in section 273.13 and equalized market values. "Total net tax capacity" means the net tax capacities for all property within the unique taxing jurisdiction. The total net tax capacity used shall be reduced by the sum of (1) the unique taxing jurisdiction's net tax capacity of commercial industrial property as defined in section 473E02, subdivision 3, multiplied by the ratio determined pursuant to section 473E08, subdivision 6, for the municipality, as defined in section 473E02, subdivision 8, in which the unique taxing jurisdiction is located and (2) the net tax capacity of the captured value of tax increment financing districts as defined in section 469.177, subdivision 2. For purposes of determining the net tax capacity of property referred to in clauses (1) and (2), the net tax capacity before equalization shall equal the property's 1987 assessed value multiplied by 12 percent. Net tax capacity cannot be less than zero.

(e) "Equalized market values" are market values that have been equalized by dividing the assessor's estimated market value for the second year prior to that in which the aid is payable by the assessment sales ratios determined by class in the assessment sales ratio study conducted by the department of revenue pursuant to section 124.2131 in the second year prior to that in which the aid is payable. For computation of aids payable in 1989 only, if the aggregate assessment sales ratio is less than or equal to 92 percent, the assessment sales ratios by class shall be adjusted proportionally so that the aggregate ratio of the unequalized market values to the equalized market values equals 92 percent; otherwise the equalized market values shall equal the unequalized market values divided by the assessment sales ratio.

(f) "Homestead effective rate" means the product of (i) 46 percent; (ii) 2.17 percent; and (iii) the total tax capacity rate for taxes payable in 1989 within a unique taxing jurisdiction multiplied by the 1988 aggregate assessment sales ratio. A sales ratio of .92 is used if the actual sales ratio is less than .92.

(g) For purposes of calculating the transition aid authorized pursuant to subdivision 2, the "subtraction factor" is the product of (i) a unique taxing jurisdiction's homestead effective rate; (ii) its net tax capacity; and (iii) 103.

(h) For purposes of calculating and allocating transition aid authorized pursuant to subdivision 2 and the disparity reduction aid authorized in subdivision 3, "gross taxes levied on all properties" or "gross taxes" means the total gross taxes levied on all properties except that levied on the captured value of tax increment districts as defined in section 469.177, subdivision 2, and that levied on the portion of commercial industrial properties' assessed value or gross tax capacity, as defined in section 473E02, subdivision 3, subject to the areawide tax as provided in section 473E08, subdivision 6, in a unique taxing jurisdiction before reduction by any credits for taxes payable in the year prior to that in which the aids are payable. For purposes of disparity reduction aid only, total gross taxes shall be reduced by the taxes levied for any school district referendum levies authorized pursuant to section 124A.03, subdivision 2, and any school district debt levies authorized pursuant to section 475.61. Gross taxes levied cannot be less than zero.

(i) "Income maintenance aids" means the state funded portion of:

(1) medical assistance under sections 256B.041, subdivision 5, and 256B.19, subdivision 1;

(2) preadmission screening and alternative care grants under section 256B.091, subdivision 8;

(3) general assistance, and work readiness under section 256D.03, subdivision 2;

(4) general assistance medical care under section 256D.03, subdivision 6;

(5) aid to families with dependent children under section 256.82, subdivision 1, including emergency assistance under section 256.871, subdivision 6; and funeral expense payments under section 256.935, subdivision 1; and

(6) supplemental aid under section 256D.36, subdivision 1.

"Increased income maintenance aids" means the difference between:

(1) the income maintenance aids payable to a county under Laws 1988, chapter 719, article 8; and

(2) the income maintenance aids that would be payable to the county under the rates in effect for calendar year 1989 before reduction under subdivision 2a.

(j) "Income maintenance programs" means the programs cited in the definition of income maintenance aids in paragraph (i).

(k) "County share levy" means the difference between a county's costs for income maintenance programs and income maintenance program revenues from all nonproperty tax sources. Nonproperty tax sources do not include money provided from budgeted reserves.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 273.1398, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [INCOME MAINTENANCE AIDS REDUCTION.] (a) The increased income maintenance aids payable to a county must be reduced by the amount of the county share levy, but not below zero.

(b) On July 15, 1989, each county shall certify to the department of revenue the county share levy for taxes payable in 1989 and the estimate of income maintenance program costs and income maintenance program revenues from nonproperty tax sources used at the time the levy was certified in 1988. At that time each county may revise its county share levy for taxes payable in 1989 for purposes of this subdivision only to reflect changes in estimated income maintenance program costs and income maintenance program revenues from nonproperty tax sources for 1989. The resulting county share levy shall be each county's county share levy under section 275.50, subdivision 5, paragraph (a) for taxes levied in 1989 payable in 1990 and must be used to determine each county's increased income maintenance aid for 1990. The county share levy shall be prorated among the income maintenance programs on the basis of their individual costs to the total costs for all income maintenance programs.

(c) On July 15, 1990, each county shall certify to the department of revenue the difference between the income maintenance program costs and income maintenance program revenues from nonproperty tax sources for 1989. That difference shall be each county's county share levy under section

275.50, subdivision 5, paragraph (a) for taxes levied in 1990, payable in 1991, and thereafter, and must be used to determine each county's increased income maintenance aid for 1991 and thereafter. The county share levy shall be prorated among the income maintenance programs on the basis of their individual costs to the total costs for all income maintenance programs.

(d) The county share levies certified in paragraphs (b) and (c) shall be certified to the department of human services by the department of revenue. The department of human services shall make the appropriate reduction in the income maintenance aids payable in 1990 and thereafter. The increased income maintenance aids payable after reduction per this subdivision shall be separately identified and accounted for by the department of human services.

County governments are not authorized to claim this special levy;*

(o) pay the operating cost of regional library services authorized under section 134.34, subject to a maximum increase of the greater of (1) 103 percent multiplied by one plus the percentage increase determined for the governmental subdivision under section 275.51, subdivision 3h, clause (b), or (2) six percent. If a governmental subdivision elected to include some or all of its levy for libraries within its adjusted levy limit base in the prior year, but elects to claim the levy as a special levy in the current levy year, the allowable increase is determined by applying the greater percentage determined under clause (1) or (2) to the total amount levied for libraries in the prior levy year. After levy year 1989, the increase must not be determined using a base amount other than the amount that could have been levied as a special levy in the prior year. In no event shall the special levy be less than the minimum levy required under sections 134.33 and 134.34, subdivisions 1 and 2;

(p) pay the amount of the county building fund levy permitted under section 373.40, subdivision 6;

(q) pay the county's share of the costs levied in 1989, 1990, and 1991 for the Minnesota cooperative soil survey under Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 40.07, subdivision 15; and

(r) for taxes levied in 1989, payable in 1990 only, pay the cost incurred for the minimum share required by counties levying for the first time under section 134.34 as required under section 134.341. For taxes levied in 1990, and thereafter, counties levying under this provision must levy under paragraph (o), and their allowable increase must be determined with reference to the amount levied in 1989 under this paragraph.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.51, subdivision 3f, is amended to read:

Subd. 3f. [LEVY LIMIT BASE.] (a) The property tax levy limit base for governmental subdivisions for taxes levied in 1988 shall be equal to the total actual levy for taxes payable in 1988 ~~plus the amount of any payments the governmental subdivision was certified to receive in 1988 under sections 477A.011 to 477A.014 and minus any special levies claimed for taxes payable in 1988 pursuant to Laws 1987, chapter 268, article 5, section 12, subdivision 4, clauses (1), (2), (3), and (4). (c) The amounts to be subtracted from the actual 1988 levy are (1) any special levies claimed for taxes payable in 1988 pursuant to Laws 1987, chapter 268, article 5, section 12, subdivision 4, clauses (1), (2), (3), and (4); and (2) for a governmental subdivision participating in a regional library system receiving grants from the department of education under section 134.34, the amount levied for taxes payable in 1988 for the operating costs of a public library service.

~~(b)~~ (d) For taxes levied in 1989 and subsequent years, a governmental subdivision's levy limit base is equal to its adjusted levy limit base for the preceding year ~~not including the adjustment made under subdivision 3h, paragraph (e), plus~~, provided that for taxes levied in 1989, the amount of the administrative reimbursement aid received in 1988 shall be added to the base.

For taxes levied in 1990 and subsequent years, the levy limit base determined under paragraph (d) shall be reduced by an amount equal to the cost of public defender services for felonies and gross misdemeanors and the cost of law clerks in the county that are assumed by the state during calendar year 1991, less the amount of fees collected by the courts in the county during calendar year 1989, computed at the rate of $30 for civil and probate filings and $55 for marriage dissolutions.*

(f) For taxes levied by a county that is located in the eighth judicial district in 1989 only, the levy limit base determined under paragraphs (d) and (e) shall be further reduced by an amount equal to the cost of operation of the trial courts in the county during calendar year 1990 that are assumed by the state less the amount of fees collected by the courts in the county during calendar year 1988. For taxes levied in 1990 only by those counties, the levy limit base determined under paragraphs (d) and (e) shall be reduced by an amount equal to the cost of operation of the trial courts in the county during the first six months of calendar year 1991 that are assumed by the state, less the amount of fees collected by the courts in the county during the first six months of calendar year 1989.

(g) By July 1, 1989, the board of public defense shall determine and certify to the supreme court the pro rata share for each county of the state-financed public defense services described in paragraph (e) during the six-month period beginning July 1, 1990. By July 15, 1989, the supreme court shall determine and certify to the department of revenue for each county the sum of the amounts certified by the board of public defense and the pro rata share for each county of the cost of providing law clerks during

By July 1, 1990, the board of public defense shall determine and certify to the supreme court the pro rata share for each county of the state-financed public defense services described in paragraph (e) during calendar year 1991. By July 15, 1990, the supreme court shall determine and certify to the department of revenue for each county the sum of the amounts certified by the board of public defense and the pro rata share for each county of the cost of providing law clerks during calendar year 1991 plus, for each county located in the eighth judicial district, the cost of operation of the trial courts during the first six months of 1991.

(b) a percentage equal to (1) one-half of the greater of the percentage increases in population or in number of households, if any, ~~for the most recent 12-month period for which data is available,~~ for cities and towns and (2) the lesser of the percentage increase in population or the number of households, if any, for counties, using figures derived pursuant to subdivision 6~~.~~;

~~For taxes levied in 1989 and subsequent years, to the resulting product must be added the estimated reduction in a county's income maintenance aids as defined in section 273.1398, subdivision 1, pursuant to section 273.1398, subdivision 2, paragraph (d). The department of human services shall annually estimate the increase in income maintenance aids referred to in section 273.1398, subdivision 2, paragraph (d), and certify it by county to the department of revenue by July 15 of the levy year preceding that in which the aids are payable. If the actual increase in a county's income maintenance aid referred to in section 273.1398, subdivision 2, paragraph (d), is less than or greater than the amount added to a county's adjusted levy limit base in the prior year, its adjusted levy limit base for the subsequent year will be increased or decreased by the appropriate amount.~~

(c) the amount of a permanent increase in the levy limit base approved at a general or special election held during the 12-month period ending September 30 of the levy year under section 275.58, subdivisions 1 and 2;

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.51, subdivision 3i, is amended to read:

Subd. 3i. [LEVY LIMITATION.] The levy limitation for a governmental subdivision shall be equal to the adjusted levy limit base determined pursuant to subdivision 3h, reduced by:

(1) the local government aid that the governmental subdivision has been certified to receive pursuant to sections 477A.011 to 477A.014~~.~~, excluding the additional aid distribution received under section 477A.013, subdivision 5; and

As provided in section 298.28, one cent per taxable ton of the amount distributed under section 298.28, subdivision 5, paragraph (d), must not be deducted from the levy limit base of a county that receives the aid.

This amount is the amount of property taxes which a governmental subdivision may levy for all purposes other than those for which special levies and special assessments are made.

For taxes levied in 1989 and later years, the levy limit for a county calculated under clause (1) must be decreased by an additional amount equal to the difference between what would have been a county's production year 1986 payable 1987 distribution under Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 298.28, based on 1986 production and its actual distribution for production year 1986, payable 1987.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.51, subdivision 3j, is amended to read:

Subd. 3j. [APPEALS.] (a) A ~~governmental subdivision subject to the limitations in this section~~ county may appeal to the commissioner of revenue for an adjustment in its levy limit base ~~under this section~~. If the ~~governmental subdivision~~ county can provide evidence satisfactory to the commissioner that its levy for taxes payable in ~~1988 had been reduced because it had made expenditures from reserve funds~~ 1989 under Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.50, subdivision 5, paragraph (a), included a levy for the cost of administration of the programs listed in that paragraph, the commissioner may permit the ~~governmental subdivision~~ county to increase its levy limit base under this section by the amount determined by the commissioner to have been levied for that purpose, provided that the total adjustment shall not be in excess of three percent of the county's expense for income maintenance programs as defined in section 273.1398, subdivision 1, paragraph (j), for 1989 and certified in section 273.1398, subdivision 2a. The commissioner's decision is final.

*(b) A governmental subdivision subject to the limitations in this section may appeal to the commissioner of revenue for authorization to levy for the special levies as contained in section 275.50, subdivision 5, clauses (l), (m), and (n). subdivision to levy under section 275.50, subdivision 5, clause (l), (m), or (n), by the amount determined by the commissioner. The commissioner's decision is final.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.51, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. If the levy made by a governmental subdivision exceeds the limitation provided in sections 275.50 to 275.56, except when such excess levy is due to the rounding of the tax capacity rates of the governmental subdivision in accordance with section 275.28, subsequent distributions required to be made by the commissioner of finance from any formula aids pursuant to sections 477A.011 to 477A.014 or homestead and agricultural credit aid under section 273.1398, shall be reduced 33 cents for each full dollar the levy exceeds the limitation.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.51, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [POPULATION AND HOUSEHOLD ESTIMATES.] For the purpose of determining the amount of tax that a governmental subdivision may levy in accordance with limitation established by this chapter, the population or the number of households of the governmental subdivision shall be that established by the last federal census, by a census taken pursuant to section 275.14, or by an estimate made by the metropolitan council, or by the state demographer made pursuant to section 116K.04, subdivision 4, whichever is the most recent as to the stated date of count or estimate, ~~up to and including July 1 of~~ for the calendar year preceding the current levy year.

When the governing body of the governmental subdivision resolves to increase the levy of the governmental subdivision pursuant to this section, it shall provide for submission of the proposition of an increase in the levy limit base per capita or the proposition of an additional levy, as the case may be, at a general or special election. Notice of such election shall be given in the manner required by law. If the proposition is for an adjustment to the governmental subdivision's levy limit base per capita, increasing the levy limit base per capita over the per capita amount established pursuant to section 275.51, subdivision 3, such notice shall state the purpose of such per capita adjustment and the per capita amount of such adjustment. If the proposition is for an additional levy, such notice shall state the purpose and maximum yearly amount of such additional levy.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 398A.04, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 8a. [TAXATION; LIGHT RAIL TRANSIT.] (a) A regional railroad authority may not levy a tax under subdivision 8 to finance light rail transit planning, land acquisition, facilities, equipment, or construction in the metropolitan area, as defined in section 473.121, until a law is enacted that allows light rail transit plans and projects to be implemented only after approval by a metropolitan agency having transit planning or transportation planning responsibility under chapter 473, in order to ensure regional coordination of light rail transit plans and projects and conformity with regional transit plans.

(b) Paragraph (a) shall not inhibit the ability of a regional railroad authority to (1) levy a tax for one line segment, shops, yards, or vehicles for taxes payable in 1990 to fulfill a local funds matching requirement for a line segment, shops, yards, or vehicles in order to qualify for a federal grant, if application has been made before May 1, 1989, and (2) levy a tax for taxes payable in 1991 and subsequent years to fulfill the local funds matching requirement for a line segment, shops, yards, or vehicles if the grant application has been approved by May 1, 1990.

(c) If any regional railroad authority levies a tax to fulfill a local funds matching requirement under paragraph (b) which would not otherwise be allowed under paragraph (a), all regional railroad authorities may levy a tax for light rail transit planning in the metropolitan area, as defined in section 473.121, for taxes payable in 1990. The amount of this tax may not exceed an amount, determined by the commissioner of revenue, equivalent to the product of

(1) the regional railroad authority's maximum levy authority under subdivision 8 for taxes payable in 1990, and

(2) the ratio of the largest amount actually levied under subdivision 8 for light rail transit by a regional railroad authority for taxes payable in 1989 to the maximum amount which that same regional railroad authority would be authorized to levy under subdivision 8 for taxes payable in 1989.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.167, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [TAX.] The council may levy a tax on all taxable property in the metropolitan area, as defined in section 473.121, to provide funds for loans made pursuant to subdivisions 2 and 2a. This tax for the right-of-way acquisition loan fund shall be certified by the council, levied, and collected in the manner provided by section 473.13. The tax shall be in addition to that authorized by section 473.249 and any other law and shall not affect the amount or rate of taxes which may be levied by the council or any metropolitan agency or local governmental unit. The amount of the levy shall be as determined and certified by the council, except as otherwise provided in this subdivision.

The property tax levied by the metropolitan council for the right-of-way acquisition loan fund shall not exceed the following amount for the years specified:

(a) for taxes payable in 1988, the product of 5/100 of one mill multiplied by the total assessed valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area as adjusted by the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 272.64; 273.13, subdivision 7a; and 275.49;

(b) for taxes payable in 1989, except as provided in section 473.249, subdivision 3, the product of (1) the metropolitan council's property tax levy limitation for the right-of-way acquisition loan fund for the taxes payable year 1988 determined under clause (a) multiplied by (2) an index for market valuation changes equal to the assessment year 1988 total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area divided by the assessment year 1987 total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area; ~~and~~

(c) for taxes payable in 1990, an amount not to exceed $2,700,000; and

(d) for taxes payable in ~~1990~~ 1991 and subsequent years, the product of (1) the metropolitan council's property tax levy limitation for the right-of-way acquisition loan fund for the ~~previous year~~ taxes payable in 1988 determined ~~pursuant to this subdivision~~ under clause (a) multiplied by (2) an index for market valuation changes equal to the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area for the current assessment year divided by the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area for the ~~previous~~ 1987 assessment year.

For the purpose of determining the metropolitan council's property tax levy limitation for the right-of-way acquisition loan fund for the taxes payable year 1988 and subsequent years under this subdivision, "total market valuation" means the total market valuation of all taxable property within the metropolitan area without valuation adjustments for fiscal disparities (chapter 473F), tax increment financing (sections 469.174 to 469.179), and high voltage transmission lines (section 273.425).

The property tax levied under this subdivision for taxes payable in 1988 and subsequent years shall not be levied at a rate higher than that determined by the metropolitan council to be sufficient, considering the other anticipated revenues of and disbursements from the right-of-way acquisition loan fund, to produce a balance in the loan fund at the end of the next calendar year equal to twice the amount of the property tax levy limitation for taxes payable in the next calendar year determined under this section.

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.167, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [LEVY INCREASE.] For the purpose of determining the levy limitation for taxes payable in 1989 under subdivision 3, the levy limitation for taxes payable in 1988 shall be multiplied by two. ~~The levy limitation so determined for taxes payable in 1989 shall be the basis for determining levy limitations for taxes payable in 1990 and subsequent years under subdivision 3.~~

Subdivision 1. The metropolitan council may levy a tax on all taxable property in the metropolitan area defined in section 473.121 to provide funds for the purposes of sections 473.121 to 473.249 and for the purpose of carrying out other responsibilities of the council as provided by law. This tax for general purposes shall be levied and collected in the manner provided by section 473.13.

The property tax levied by the metropolitan council for general purposes shall not exceed the following amount for the years specified:

(a) for taxes payable in 1988, the product of 8/30 of one mill multiplied by the total assessed valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area as adjusted by the provisions of Minnesota Statutes 1986, sections 272.64; 273.13, subdivision 7a; and 275.49;

(b) for taxes payable in 1989, the product of (1) the metropolitan council's property tax levy limitation for general purposes for the taxes payable year 1988 determined under clause (a) multiplied by (2) an index for market valuation changes equal to the assessment year 1988 total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area divided by the assessment year 1987 total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area; and

(c) for taxes payable in 1990 and subsequent years, the product of (1) the metropolitan council's property tax levy limitation for general purposes for the previous year determined under this subdivision multiplied by (2) the least of

(i) an index for market valuation changes equal to the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area for the current assessment year divided by the total market valuation of all taxable property located within the metropolitan area for the previous assessment year~~.~~, or

(ii) an index equal to the implicit price deflator for state and local government purchases of goods and services for the most recent month for which data is available divided by the implicit price deflator for state and local government purchases of goods and services for the same month of the previous year, or

(iii) 103 percent.

For the purpose of determining the metropolitan council's property tax levy limitation for general purposes for the taxes payable year 1988 and subsequent years under this subdivision, "total market valuation" means the total market valuation of all taxable property within the metropolitan area without valuation adjustments for fiscal disparities (chapter 473F), tax increment financing (sections 469.174 to 469.179), and high voltage transmission lines (section 273.425).

Sec. 23. [ITASCA COUNTY; LEVY LIMIT PENALTY EXEMPTION.]

The amount of any tax levied by Itasca county under Laws 1988, chapter 517, is not subject to a penalty imposed under Minnesota Statutes, section 275.51, subdivision 4, for exceeding levy limits under Minnesota Statutes, sections 275.50 to 275.56.

Sec. 24. [LEVY LIMIT EXCEPTION.]

For taxes levied in 1989 and 1990 only, payable in 1990 and 1991 only, a levy by the Itasca county board under Laws 1988, chapter 517, is not subject to the levy limitations of Minnesota Statutes, sections 275.50 to 275.56, or other law.

Sec. 25. [APPLICATION.]

Sections 20 to 22 apply in the counties of Anoka, Carver, Dakota, Hennepin, Ramsey, Scott, and Washington.

otherwise provided. Section 23 is effective upon approval by the Itasca county board for taxes levied in 1988, payable in 1989 only.

ARTICLE 5

PROPOSED AND FINAL TAX NOTICE

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 124.2131, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ADJUSTED GROSS TAX CAPACITY.] (a) [COMPUTATION.] The department of revenue shall annually conduct an assessment/sales ratio study of the taxable property in each school district in accordance with the procedures referenced in paragraphs (b) and (c). Based upon the results of this assessment/sales ratio study, the department of revenue shall determine an aggregate equalized gross tax capacity for the various strata of taxable property in each school district, which tax capacity shall be designated as the adjusted gross tax capacity. The department of revenue shall take such steps as are necessary in the performance of that duty and may incur such expense as is necessary therefor. The commissioner of revenue is authorized to reimburse any county or governmental official for requested services performed in ascertaining such adjusted gross tax capacity. On or before March 15 annually, the department of revenue shall file with the chair of the tax committee of the house of representatives and the chair of the committee on taxes and tax laws of the senate a report of adjusted gross tax capacities. On or before ~~June~~ April 15, annually, the department of revenue shall file its final report on the gross tax capacities established by the previous year's assessment with the commissioner of education and each county auditor for those school districts for which the auditor has the responsibility for determination of mill rates. A copy of the adjusted gross tax capacity so filed shall be forthwith mailed to the clerk of each district involved and to the county assessor or supervisor of assessments of the county or counties in which each district is located.

(b) [METHODOLOGY.] In making its annual assessment/sales ratio studies, the department of revenue shall use a methodology consistent with the most recent Standard on Assessment Ratio Studies published by the assessment standards committee of the International Association of Assessing Officers. The commissioner of revenue shall supplement this general methodology with specific procedures necessary for proper execution of the study in accordance with other Minnesota laws impacting the assessment/sales ratio study. The commissioner shall document these specific procedures in writing and shall publish the procedures in the State Register, but these procedures will not be considered "rules" pursuant to the Minnesota administrative procedure act. By January 15, 1985, the commissioner shall report to the chairs of the house tax committee and the senate committee on taxes and tax laws the results of a study which the commissioner shall prepare comparing the 1983 sales ratio study based upon the original 1983 assessment/sales ratio study methodology with the new methodology as provided in clause (b). The 1984 adjusted assessed values which are certified to the commissioner of education shall be computed using the 1983 assessment/sales ratio study methodology unless the 1985 legislature directs otherwise.

(c) [AGRICULTURAL LANDS.] For purposes of determining the adjusted gross tax capacity of agricultural lands for the calculation of 1987 adjusted gross tax capacities and thereafter, the market value of agricultural lands shall be the price for which the property would sell in an arms length transaction.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 124.42, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [QUALIFICATION; APPLICATION; AWARD; INTEREST.] Any school district in which the required levy for debt service in any year will exceed its maximum effort debt service levy by ten percent or by $5,000, whichever is less, is qualified for a debt service loan hereunder in an amount not exceeding the amount applied for, and not exceeding one percent of the net debt of the district, and not exceeding the difference between the required and the maximum effort debt service levy in that year. Applications shall be filed with the commissioner in each calendar year up to and including ~~September 15~~ July 1. The commissioner shall determine whether the applicant is entitled to a loan and the amount thereof, and on or before October 1 shall certify to each applicant district the amount granted and its due date. The commissioner shall notify the county auditor of each county in which the district is located that the amount certified is available and appropriated for payment of principal and interest on its outstanding bonds, and the auditors shall reduce by that amount the taxes otherwise leviable as the district's debt service levy on the tax rolls for that year. Each debt service loan shall bear interest from its date at a rate equal to the average annual rate payable on Minnesota state school loan bonds most recently issued prior to the disbursement of the loan to the district, but in no event less than 3-1/2 percent per annum on the principal amount from time to time remaining unpaid, payable on December 15 of the year following that in which the loan is received and annually thereafter.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 124.42, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. Each district receiving a debt service loan shall levy for debt service in that year and each year thereafter, until all its debts to the fund are paid, (a) the amount of its maximum effort debt service levy, or (b) the amount of its required debt service levy less the amount of any debt service loan in that year, whichever is greater. Whenever the maximum effort debt service levy is greater the district shall remit to the commissioner, within ten days after its receipt of the last regular tax distribution in the year in which it is collected, that portion of the maximum effort debt service tax collections, including penalties and interest, which exceeds the required debt service levy. On or before ~~November 1~~ September 1 in each year the commissioner shall notify the county auditor of each county containing taxable property situated within the school district of the amount of the maximum effort debt service levy of the district for that year, and said county auditor or auditors shall extend upon the tax rolls an ad valorem tax upon all taxable property within the district in the aggregate amount so certified.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 124.83, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [HEALTH AND SAFETY PROGRAM.] To receive health and safety revenue a district must submit to the commissioner of education an application for aid and levy by ~~August 15~~ July 1 in the previous school year. The application may be for hazardous substance removal, fire code compliance, or life safety repairs. The application must include a health and safety program adopted by the school district board. The program must include the estimated cost of the program by fiscal year.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 124A.03, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REFERENDUM LEVY.] (1) The levy authorized by section 124A.23, subdivision 2, may be increased in any amount that is approved by the voters of the district at a referendum called for the purpose. The referendum may be called by the school board or shall be called by the school board upon written petition of qualified voters of the district. The referendum shall be held on a date set by the school board. Only two elections may be held to approve a levy increase that will commence in a specific school year. The ballot shall state the maximum amount of the increased levy in mills, the amount that will be raised by that tax capacity rate in the first year it is to be levied, and that the tax capacity rate shall be used to finance school operations. The ballot ~~may~~ shall designate ~~a specific~~ the number of years for which the referendum authorization shall apply. The ballot may contain a textual portion with the information required in this subdivision and a question stating substantially the following:

"Shall the increase in the levy proposed by (petition to) the board of . . . . . , School District No. . . . . , be approved?"

If approved, the amount provided by the approved tax capacity rate applied to each year's gross tax capacity shall be authorized for certification for the number of years approved, if applicable, or until revoked or reduced by the voters of the district at a subsequent referendum.

(2) The school board shall prepare and deliver by first class mail at least 15 days but no more than 30 days prior to the day of the election to each taxpayer at the address listed on the school district's current year's assessment roll, a notice of the referendum and the proposed levy increase. The notice must project the anticipated amount of increase in annual dollars and annual percentage for typical residential homesteads, agricultural homesteads, apartments and commercial-industrial property within the school district.

(3) A referendum on the question of revoking or reducing the increased levy amount authorized pursuant to clause (1) may be called by the school board and shall be called by the school board upon the written petition of qualified voters of the district. A levy approved by the voters of the district pursuant to clause (1) must be made at least once before it is subject to a referendum on its revocation or reduction for subsequent years. Only one such revocation or reduction election may be held to revoke or reduce a levy for any specific year and for years thereafter.

~~(3)~~ (4) A petition authorized by clause (1) shall be effective if signed by a number of qualified voters in excess of 15 percent, or ten percent if the school board election is held in conjunction with a general election, of the average number of voters at the two most recent district wide school elections. A referendum invoked by petition shall be held within three months of submission of the petition to the school board.

~~(4)~~ (5) A petition authorized by clause (2) shall be effective if signed by a number of qualified voters in excess of five percent of the residents of the school district as determined by the most recent census. A revocation or reduction referendum invoked by petition shall be held within three months of submission of the petition to the school board.

~~(5)~~ (6) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the approval of 50 percent plus one of those voting on the question is required to pass a referendum.

~~(6)~~ (7) Within 30 days after the district holds a referendum pursuant to this clause, the district shall notify the commissioner of education of the results of the referendum.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 124A.23, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL EDUCATION TAX CAPACITY RATE.] The commissioner of revenue shall establish the general education tax capacity rate and certify it to the commissioner of education by ~~September 1~~ July 1 of each year for levies payable in the following year. The general education tax capacity rate shall be a rate, rounded up to the nearest tenth of a ~~mill~~ percent, that, when applied to the adjusted gross tax capacity for all districts, raises the amount specified in this subdivision. The general education tax capacity rate for the 1990 fiscal year shall be the rate that raises $1,100,580,000. The general education tax capacity rate certified by the commissioner of revenue may not be changed due to changes or corrections made to a district's adjusted gross tax capacity after the tax capacity rate has been certified.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 124A.26, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REVENUE REDUCTION.] A district's general education revenue for a school year shall be reduced if the estimated net unappropriated operating fund balance as of June 30 in the second prior school year exceeds $600 times the actual pupil units in the second prior year. The amount of the reduction shall equal the lesser of:

(1) the amount of the excess, or

(2) $150 times the actual pupil units for the school year.

The final adjustment payments made under section 124.195, subdivision 6, must be adjusted to reflect actual net operating fund balances as of June 30 of the second prior school year.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.11, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [COUNTY ASSESSOR'S REPORTS OF ASSESSMENT FILED WITH COMMISSIONER.] Each county assessor shall file by ~~June 15~~ April 1 with the commissioner of revenue a copy of the abstract that will be acted upon by the local and county ~~board~~ boards of review. The abstract must list the real and personal property in the county~~, as equalized by the local board of review or equalization,~~ itemized by assessment districts. ~~A printed or typewritten copy of the proceedings of the local board of review or equalization must also be filed with the commissioner.~~ The assessor of each county in the state shall file with the commissioner, within five working days following final action of the local board of review or equalization and within five days following final action of the county board of equalization, any changes made by the local or county board ~~of equalization~~. The information must be filed in the manner prescribed by the commissioner. It must be accompanied by a printed or typewritten copy of the proceedings of the ~~county board of equalization~~ appropriate board.

The final abstract of assessments after adjustments by the state board of equalization and inclusion of any omitted property shall be submitted to the commissioner of revenue on or before ~~November 15~~ September 1 of each calendar year. The final abstract must separately report the captured tax capacity of tax increment financing districts under section 469.177, subdivision 2, the metropolitan revenue contribution value under section 473F.07, and the value subject to the power line credit under section 273.42.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.12, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The board shall meet annually between ~~July~~ April 15 and ~~October 1~~ June 30 at the office of the commissioner of revenue and examine and compare the returns of the assessment of the property in the several counties, and equalize the same so that all the taxable property in the state shall be assessed at its market value, subject to the following rules:

(1) The board shall add to the aggregate valuation of the real property of every county, which the board believes to be valued below its market value in money, such percent as will bring the same to its market value in money;

(2) The board shall deduct from the aggregate valuation of the real property of every county, which the board believes to be valued above its market value in money, such percent as will reduce the same to its market value in money;

(3) If the board believes the valuation of the real property of any town or district in any county, or the valuation of the real property of any county not in towns or cities, should be raised or reduced, without raising or reducing the other real property of such county, or without raising or reducing it in the same ratio, the board may add to, or take from, the valuation of any one or more of such towns or cities, or of the property not in towns or cities, such percent as the board believes will raise or reduce the same to its market value in money;

(4) The board shall add to the aggregate valuation of any class of personal property of any county, town, or city, which the board believes to be valued below the market value thereof, such percent as will raise the same to its market value in money;

(5) The board shall take from the aggregate valuation of any class of personal property in any county, town or city, which the board believes to be valued above the market value thereof, such percent as will reduce the same to its market value in money;

(6) The board shall not reduce the aggregate valuation of all the property of the state, as returned by the several county auditors, more than one percent on the whole valuation thereof;

(7) When it would be of assistance in equalizing values the board may require any county auditor to furnish statements showing assessments of real and personal property of any individuals, firms, or corporations within the county. The board shall consider and equalize such assessments and may increase the assessment of individuals, firms, or corporations above the amount returned by the county board of equalization when it shall appear to be undervalued, first giving notice to such persons of the intention of the board so to do, which notice shall fix a time and place of hearing. The board shall not decrease any such assessment below the valuation placed by the county board of equalization; and

(8) In equalizing values pursuant to this section, the board shall utilize a 12-month assessment/sales ratio study conducted by the department of revenue containing only sales that are filed in the county auditor's office under section 272.115, by November 1 of the previous year and that occurred between October 1 of the year immediately preceding the previous year to September 30 of the previous year. The sales prices used in the study must be discounted for terms of financing. The board shall use the median ratio as the statistical measure of the level of assessment for any particular category of property.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.12, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. When a taxing jurisdiction lies in two or more counties, if the sales ratio studies prepared by the department of revenue show that the average levels of assessment in the several portions of the taxing jurisdictions in the different counties differ by more than five percent, the board may order the apportionment of the levy. When the sales ratio studies prepared by the department of revenue show that the average levels of assessment in the several portions of the taxing jurisdictions in the different counties differ by more than ten percent, the board shall order the apportionment of the levy unless (a) the proportion of total adjusted gross tax capacity value in one of the counties is less than ten percent of the total adjusted gross tax capacity in the taxing jurisdiction and the average level of assessment in that portion of the taxing jurisdiction is the level which differs by more than five percent from the assessment level in any one of the other portions of the taxing jurisdiction; (b) significant changes have been made in the level of assessment in the taxing jurisdiction which have not been reflected in the sales ratio study, and those changes alter the assessment levels in the portions of the taxing jurisdiction so that the assessment level now differs by five percent or less; or (c) commercial, industrial, mineral, or public utility property predominates in one county within the taxing jurisdiction and another class of property predominates in another county within that same taxing jurisdiction. If one or more of these factors are present, the board may order the apportionment of the levy.

Notwithstanding any other provision, the levy for the metropolitan mosquito control district, metropolitan council, metropolitan transit district, and metropolitan transit area must be apportioned without regard to the percentage difference.

If, pursuant to this subdivision, the board apportions the levy, then that levy apportionment among the portions in the different counties shall be made in the same proportion as the adjusted gross tax capacity as determined by the commissioner in each portion is to the total adjusted gross tax capacity of the taxing jurisdiction.

For the purposes of this section, the average level of assessment in a taxing jurisdiction or portion thereof shall be the aggregate assessment sales ratio. Gross tax capacities as determined by the commissioner shall be the gross tax capacities as determined for the year preceding the year in which the levy to be apportioned is levied.

Actions pursuant to this subdivision shall be commenced subsequent to the annual meeting on ~~July~~ April 15 of the state board of equalization, but notice of the action shall be given to the affected jurisdiction and the appropriate county auditors by the following ~~October 1~~ June 30.

Apportionment of a levy pursuant to this subdivision shall be considered as a remedy to be taken after equalization pursuant to subdivision 2, and when equalization within the jurisdiction would disturb equalization within other jurisdictions of which the several portions of the jurisdiction in question are a part.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.13, is amended to read:

270.13 [RECORD OF PROCEEDINGS CHANGING GROSS TAX CAPACITY; DUTIES OF COUNTY AUDITOR.]

A record of all proceedings of the commissioner of revenue affecting any change in the gross tax capacity of any property, as revised by the state board of equalization, shall be kept by the commissioner of revenue and a copy thereof, duly certified, shall be mailed each year to the auditor of each county wherein such property is situated, on or before ~~October 1~~ June 30 or 30 days after submission of the abstract required by section 270.11, subdivision 2, whichever is later. This record shall specify the amounts or amount, or both, added to or deducted from the gross tax capacity of the real property of each of the several towns and cities, and of the real property not in towns or cities, also the percent or amount of both, added to or deducted from the several classes of personal property in each of the towns and cities, and also the amount added to or deducted from the assessments of individuals, copartnerships, associations, or corporations. The county auditor shall add to or deduct from such tract or lot, or portion thereof, of any real property in the county the required percent or amount, or both, on the gross tax capacity thereof as it stood after equalized by the county board, adding in each case a fractional sum of 50 cents or more, and deducting in each case any fractional sum of less than 50 cents, so that no gross tax capacity of any separate tract or lot shall contain any fraction of a dollar; and add to, or deduct from, the several classes of personal property in the county the required percent or amount, or both, on the gross tax capacity thereof as it stood after equalized by the county board, adding or deducting in manner aforesaid any fractional sum so that no gross tax capacity of any separate class of personal property shall contain a fraction of a dollar, and add to or deduct from assessments of individuals, copartnerships, associations, or corporations, as they stood after equalization by the county board, the required amounts to agree with the assessments as returned by the commissioner of revenue.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.18, is amended to read:

The compensation of each special assessor and deputies, appointed under the provisions of sections 270.11, subdivision 3, and 270.16, and the expenses as such, shall be fixed by the commissioner of revenue and paid out of money appropriated for operation of the department of revenue. The commissioner of revenue on ~~October~~ August 1 shall notify the auditor of each affected county of the amount thereof paid on behalf of such county since ~~October~~ August 1 of the preceding year, whereupon the county auditor shall levy a tax upon the taxable property in the assessment district or districts wherein such reassessment was made sufficient to pay the same. One-half of such tax shall be levied in the year in which the commissioner of revenue so notifies the county auditor and the remaining one-half shall be levied in the following year. The respective counties shall reimburse the state by paying one-half of the tax so assessed on or before July 1 and the remaining one-half on or before December 1 in the year in which the tax is payable by owner, whether or not the tax was collected by the county.

The reimbursement shall be credited to the general fund. If any county fails to reimburse the state within the time specified herein, the commissioner of revenue is empowered to order withholding of state aids or distributions to such county equal to the amount delinquent.

The basic transportation tax capacity rate certified by the commissioner of revenue must not be changed due to changes or corrections made to a district's adjusted gross tax capacity after the tax capacity rate has been certified.

In the second year following each fiscal year, the district's transportation levy shall be reduced by an amount equal to the difference between (1) the amount of the basic transportation levy under subdivision 5, and (2) the sum of the district's transportation aid computation pursuant to section 124.225, subdivisions 8b, 8i, 8j, and 8k, and the amount of any subtraction made from special state aids pursuant to section 124.2138, subdivision 2, less the amount of any aid reduction due to an insufficient appropriation as provided in section 124.225, subdivision 8a.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.14, is amended to read:

275.14 [CENSUS.]

For the purposes of sections 275.11 to 275.16, the population of a city shall be that established by the last federal census, by a special census taken by the United States Bureau of the Census, by an estimate made by the metropolitan council, or by the state demographer made according to section 116K.04, subdivision 4, whichever has the latest stated date of count or estimate, before July 2 of the current levy year. The population of a school district must be determined by the most recent federal census.

In any year in which no federal census is taken pursuant to law in any school district affected by sections 275.11 to 275.16 a population estimate may be made and submitted to the state demographer for approval as hereinafter provided. The school board of a school district, in case it desires a population estimate, shall pass a resolution by ~~September~~ July 1 containing a current estimate of the population of the school district and shall submit the resolution to the state demographer. The resolution shall describe the criteria on which the estimate is based and shall be in a form and accompanied by the data prescribed by the state demographer. The state demographer shall determine whether or not the criteria and process described in the resolution provide a reasonable basis for the population estimate and shall inform the school district of that determination within 30 days of receipt of the resolution. If the state demographer determines that the criteria and process described in the resolution do not provide a reasonable basis for the population estimate, the resolution shall be of no effect. If the state demographer determines that the criteria and process do provide a reasonable basis for the population estimate, the estimate shall be treated as the population of the school district for the purposes of sections 275.11 to 275.16 until the population of the school district has been established by the next federal census or until a more current population estimate is prepared and approved as provided herein, whichever occurs first. The state demographer shall establish guidelines for acceptable population estimation criteria and processes. The state demographer shall issue advisory opinions upon request in writing to cities or school districts as to proposed criteria and processes prior to their implementation in an estimation. The advisory opinion shall be final and binding upon the demographer unless the demographer can show cause why it should not be final and binding.

In the event that a census tract employed in taking a federal or local census overlaps two or more school districts, the county auditor shall, on the basis of the best information available, allocate the population of said census tract to the school districts involved.

The term "council," as used in sections 275.11 to 275.16, means any board or body, whether composed of one or more branches, authorized to make ordinances for the government of a city within this state.

Subdivision 1. [AUDITOR TO MAKE.] The county auditor shall make out the tax lists according to the prescribed form, and to correspond with the assessment districts. The rate percent necessary to raise the required amount of the various taxes shall be calculated on the gross tax capacity of property as determined by the state board of equalization, but, in calculating such rates, no rate shall be used resulting in a fraction other than a decimal fraction, or less than one-tenth of a mill; and, in extending any tax, whenever it amounts to the fractional part of a cent, it shall be made one cent. The tax lists shall also be made out to correspond with the assessment books in reference to ownership and description of property, with columns for the valuation and for the various items of tax included in the total amount of all taxes set down opposite each description; and opposite each description which has been sold for taxes, and which is subject to redemption, but not redeemed, shall be placed the words "sold for taxes." The amount of all special taxes shall be entered in the proper columns, but the general taxes may be shown by entering the rate percent of each tax at the head of the proper columns, without extending the same, in which case a schedule of the rates percent of such taxes shall be made on the first page of each tax list. If the auditor shall fail to enter on any such list before its delivery to the treasurer any tax levied, such tax may be subsequently entered. The tax lists shall be deemed completed, and all taxes extended thereon, as of ~~October 16~~ January 1 annually.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.29, is amended to read:

A levy limit base per capita adjustment approved pursuant to subdivision 1 at a general or special election held on or after ~~September 30~~ five working days after December 20 in any levy year shall not increase the levy limit base per capita in that same levy year but shall provide a permanent adjustment to the levy limit base per capita of the governmental subdivision for future levy years.

Sec. 53. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 276.10, is amended to read:

276.10 [APPORTIONMENT AND DISTRIBUTION OF FUNDS.]

On the settlement day in ~~March and~~ May of each year, the county auditor and county treasurer shall distribute all undistributed funds in the treasury. The funds must be apportioned as provided by law, and credited to the state, town, city, school district, special district and each county fund. Within 20 days after the distribution is completed, the county auditor shall report to the state auditor in the form prescribed by the state auditor. The county auditor shall issue a warrant for the payment of money in the county treasury to the credit of the state, town, city, school district, or special districts on application of the persons entitled to receive the payment. The county auditor may apply the tax capacity rate from the year before the year of distribution when apportioning and distributing delinquent tax proceeds, if the composition of the previous year's tax capacity rate between taxing districts is not significantly different than the tax capacity rate that existed for the year of the delinquency.

Sec. 54. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 276.11, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] As soon as practical after the ~~March and~~ May ~~settlements~~ settlement the county treasurer shall pay to the state treasurer or the treasurer of a town, city, school district, or special district, on the warrant of the county auditor, all receipts of taxes levied by the taxing district and deliver up all orders and other evidences of indebtedness of the taxing district, taking triplicate receipts for them. The treasurer shall file one of the receipts with the county auditor, and shall return one by mail on the day of its receipt to the clerk of the town, city, school district, or special district to which payment was made. The clerk shall keep the receipt in the clerk's office. Upon written request of the taxing district, to the extent practicable, the county treasurer shall make partial payments of amounts collected periodically in advance of the next settlement and distribution. A statement prepared by the county treasurer must accompany each payment. It must state the years for which taxes included in the payment were collected and, for each year, the amount of the taxes and any penalties on the tax. Upon written request of a taxing district, except school districts, the county treasurer shall pay at least 70 percent of the estimated collection within 30 days after the ~~March and~~ May settlement ~~dates~~ date. Within seven business days after the due date, the county treasurer shall pay to the treasurer of the school districts 50 percent of the estimated collections arising from taxes levied by and belonging to the school district. The remaining 50 percent of the estimated collections must be paid to the treasurer of the school district within the next seven business days. The treasurer shall pay the balance of the amounts collected to the state or to a municipal corporation or other body within 60 days after the ~~March and~~ May settlement ~~dates~~ date. After 45 days interest at an annual rate of eight percent accrues and must be paid to the taxing district. Interest must be paid upon appropriation from the general revenue fund of the county. If not paid, it may be recovered by the taxing district, in a civil action.

Sec. 55. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 277.01, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. All unpaid personal property taxes ~~where the amount is $50 or less~~ shall be deemed delinquent on ~~the later of March 1~~ May 16 next after they become due ~~or 30 days after the postmark date on the envelope containing the property tax statement~~, and thereupon a penalty of eight percent shall attach and be charged upon all such taxes. ~~When the amount of such tax exceeds the sum of $50 the first half shall become delinquent if not paid prior to March 1 or 30 days after the postmark date on the envelope containing the property tax statement, whichever is later, and thereupon a penalty of eight percent shall attach on such unpaid first half. The second half of a tax in excess of $50 shall become delinquent if not paid prior to July 1 and thereupon a penalty of eight percent shall attach on such unpaid second half.~~ This section shall not apply to class 2a property.

A county may provide by resolution that in the case of a property owner that has multiple personal property tax statements with the aggregate taxes exceeding $50, payments may be made in installments as provided in this subdivision.

The county treasurer may accept payments of more or less than the exact amount of a tax installment due. If the accepted payment is less than the amount due, payments must be applied first to the penalty accrued for the year the payment is made. Acceptance of partial payment of tax does not constitute a waiver of the minimum payment required as a condition for filing an appeal under section 277.011 or any other law, nor does it affect the order of payment of delinquent taxes under section 280.39.

Sec. 56. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 277.02, is amended to read:

277.02 [DELINQUENT LIST FILED IN COURT.]

~~On the last secular day of July,~~ By June 15 of each year, the county treasurer shall make a list of all personal property taxes remaining delinquent ~~July first~~ May 16, and shall immediately certify to and file the same with the court administrator of the district court of the county, and upon such filing the list shall be prima facie evidence that all of the provisions of law in relation to the assessment and levy of such taxes have been complied with.

Sec. 57. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 277.05, is amended to read:

277.05 [SHERIFF TO FILE LIST OF UNCOLLECTED TAXES.]

If the sheriff is unable, for want of goods and chattels whereon to levy, to collect by a distress, or otherwise, the taxes, or any part thereof, assessed upon the personal property of any persons, the sheriff shall file with the court administrator of the district court, on ~~September first~~ July 15 following, a list of such taxes, with an affidavit of the sheriff, or of the deputy sheriff entrusted with the collection thereof, stating that the affiant has made diligent search and inquiry for goods and chattels from which to collect such taxes, and is unable to collect the same. The list of such taxes as they apply to manufactured homes shall be filed on December 1. The sheriff shall note on the margin of such list the place to which any delinquent taxpayer may have removed, with the date of removal, if known. At the time of filing the list the sheriff shall also return all the warrants with endorsements thereon showing the doings of the sheriff or deputy in the premises, and the court administrator shall file and preserve the same. On or before September tenth thereafter, the court administrator shall deliver such list and affidavit to the county treasurer, who shall, by comparison of such list with the tax duplicates in the treasurer's office, ascertain whether or not all personal property taxes reported by the treasurer to the court administrator as delinquent, except those included in such list, have been paid into the treasurer's office, and shall attach to the list a certificate stating whether or not all taxes reported by the treasurer to the court administrator as delinquent and not included in the list have been received, and stating the items of such taxes, if any, as have been received. The court administrator shall deliver such list and affidavit as they apply to manufactured homes on or before December 10. The treasurer shall deliver such list and affidavit, with the certificate attached, to the county board at its first session thereafter, which shall cancel such taxes as it is satisfied cannot be collected. The county auditor shall file a copy of the revised list as it applies to manufactured homes on January 20. Within ten days after the list has been filed, the court administrator shall issue a citation to each delinquent named in the list, stating the amount of tax and penalty, and requiring such delinquent to appear on a day to be set by the district court in the county, appointed to be held at a time not less than 30 days after the issuance of such citation, and show cause, if any there be, why the delinquent should not pay the tax and penalty. The citation shall be delivered for service to the sheriff of the county where such person may at the time reside or be. If such person, after service of the citation, fails to pay such tax, penalty, and costs to the sheriff before the first day of the term, or on such day to show cause as aforesaid, the court shall direct judgment against the person for the amount of such tax, penalty, and costs. When unable to serve the citation, the sheriff shall return the same to the court administrator, with a return thereto to that effect, and thereupon, or if the court decides that the service of such citation made or attempted to be made, or the issuance thereof by the court administrator, was illegal, the court administrator shall issue another like citation, requiring such delinquent to appear on the first day of the next general term to be held in the county, and show cause as aforesaid, and if the delinquent fails to pay or to show cause, the court shall direct judgment as aforesaid. Whenever the sheriff has been unable to serve any such citation theretofore issued in any year or years, or whenever the court decides that the service of any such citation theretofore made or attempted to be made, or the issuance thereof by the court administrator, was illegal, the court administrator shall issue another like citation requiring such delinquent to appear, as in the case last provided, and with like effect; provided, that all citations other than the first shall be issued only on the request of the county attorney.

Sec. 59. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 277.13, is amended to read:

277.13 [REMOVAL OF DELINQUENT; DUTY OF COUNTY AUDITOR.]

~~Within 30 days after June first~~ By July 30, in each year, the county auditor shall make out and forward to the court administrator of the district court of any county to which any delinquent personal property taxpayer may have removed a statement of such delinquent taxes, specifying the value of the property on which such taxes were levied and the amount of the taxes, to which the auditor shall add an amount equal to 25 percent on the taxes levied if such delinquent taxpayer left the county in which the taxes were levied after the day upon which they became due, but not otherwise. On receipt of such statement or account, the court administrator shall issue a warrant to the sheriff of the county, who shall immediately proceed to collect the same of the person so charged with the taxes and percent, together with a court administrator's fee of 25 cents for each warrant so issued. The sheriff shall deliver such warrant, with the doings thereunder, to the court administrator, together with the amount of collections thereon. The court administrator shall remit all taxes thus collected to the treasurer of the county to which they belong, and at the same time shall return the original statement to the auditor of such county, certifying the amount of such collections, and, if any taxes remain unpaid, the reason why they could not be collected. The auditor shall charge the treasurer to whom such remittance is made with the amount thereof, and cancel such taxes from the list. Sec. 66. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473F.05, is amended to read:

473F.05 [GROSS TAX CAPACITY; ~~1988 AND SUBSEQUENT~~ YEARS.]

On or before ~~November 20~~ August 5 of ~~1988~~ ~~and~~ each ~~subsequent~~ year, the assessors within each county in the area shall determine and certify to the county auditor the gross tax capacity in that year of commercial-industrial property subject to taxation within each municipality in the county, determined without regard to section 469.177, subdivision 3.

Sec. 67. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473F.06, is amended to read:

473F.06 [INCREASE IN GROSS TAX CAPACITY.]

On or before ~~September 1~~ July 15 of ~~1976~~ ~~and~~ each ~~subsequent~~ year, the auditor of each county in the area shall determine the amount, if any, by which the gross tax capacity determined in the preceding year pursuant to section 473F.05, of commercial-industrial property subject to taxation within each municipality in the auditor's county exceeds the gross tax capacity in 1971 of commercial-industrial property subject to taxation within that municipality. If a municipality is located in two or more counties within the area, the auditors of those counties shall certify the data required by section 473F.05 to the county auditor who is responsible under other provisions of law for allocating the levies of that municipality between or among the affected counties. That county auditor shall determine the amount of the net excess, if any, for the municipality under this section, and certify that amount under section 473F.07. The increase in gross tax capacity determined by this section shall be reduced by the amount of any decreases in the gross tax capacity of commercial-industrial property resulting from any court decisions, court related stipulation agreements, or abatements for a prior year, and only in the amount of such decreases made during the 12-month period ending on ~~June 30~~ May 1 of the current assessment year, where such decreases, if originally reflected in the determination of a prior year's gross tax capacity under section 473F.05, would have resulted in a smaller contribution from the municipality in that year. An adjustment for such decreases shall be made only if the municipality made a contribution in a prior year based on the higher gross tax capacity of the commercial-industrial property.

Sec. 68. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473F.07, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Each county auditor shall certify the determinations pursuant to sections 473F.05 and 473F.06 to the administrative auditor on or before ~~November 20~~ August 1 of each year. The administrative auditor shall determine the sum of the amounts certified pursuant to section 473F.06, and divide that sum by 2-1/2. Sec. 71. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473F.08, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. ~~On or before October 15 of 1976 and each subsequent year,~~ The county auditor shall apportion the levy of each governmental unit in the auditor's county in the manner prescribed by this subdivision. The auditor shall:

(a) by August 20, determine the areawide portion of the levy for each governmental unit by multiplying the tax capacity rate of the governmental unit for the preceding levy year times the distribution value set forth in subdivision 2, clause (b); and

(b) by September 5, determine the local portion of the current year's levy by subtracting the resulting amount from clause (a) from the governmental unit's current year's levy.

Sec. 72. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473F.08, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. On or before ~~November 30 of 1972 and~~ August 25 of each ~~subsequent~~ year, the county auditor shall certify to the administrative auditor that portion of the levy of each governmental unit determined pursuant to subdivision 3, clause (a). Subd. 3. [COMPUTATION OF TAX; STATE REIMBURSEMENT.] (a) After having determined the market value of all land valued according to subdivision 2, the assessor shall compute the gross tax capacity of those properties by applying the appropriate classification percentages. When computing the rate of tax pursuant to section 275.08, the county auditor shall include the gross tax capacity of land as provided in this clause.

(b) The county auditor shall compute the tax on lands valued according to subdivision 2 and nonresidential buildings by multiplying the gross tax capacity times the total rate of tax for all purposes as provided in clause (a).

(c) The county auditor shall then compute the maximum ad valorem property tax on lands valued according to subdivision 2 and nonresidential buildings by multiplying the gross tax capacity times 105 percent of the previous year's statewide average tax capacity rate levied on property located within townships for all purposes.

(d) The tax due and payable by the owner of preserve land valued according to subdivision 2 and nonresidential buildings will be the amount determined in clause (b) or (c), whichever is less. If the gross tax in clause (c) is less than the gross tax in clause (b), the state shall reimburse the taxing jurisdictions for the amount of difference. Residential buildings shall continue to be valued and classified according to the provisions of sections 273.11 and 273.13, as they would be in the absence of this section, and the tax on those buildings shall not be subject to the limitation contained in this clause.

The county may transfer money from the county conservation account created in section 40A.152 to the county revenue fund to reimburse the fund for the tax lost as a result of this subdivision or to pay taxing jurisdictions within the county for the tax lost. The county auditor shall certify to the commissioner of revenue on or before June 1 the total amount of tax lost to the county and taxing jurisdictions located within the county as a result of this subdivision and the extent that the tax lost exceeds funds available in the county conservation account. Payments shall be made by the state ~~as provided in section 273.13, subdivision 15a,~~ at the times provided in section 477A.015 to each of the affected taxing jurisdictions, other than school districts, in the same proportion that the ad valorem tax is distributed if the county conservation account is insufficient to make the reimbursement. There is annually appropriated from the Minnesota conservation fund under section 40A.151 to the commissioner of revenue an amount sufficient to make the reimbursement provided in this subdivision. If the amount available in the Minnesota conservation fund is insufficient, the balance that is needed is appropriated from the general fund.

*Each statement shall be mailed in a separate envelope and the statement, along with a return address envelope, shall be color coded so that the taxpayer can easily identify the three separate taxing jurisdiction statements from each other. If, as a result of a plant closing, layoffs, or another similar event affecting a significant number of employees in the county, the commissioner has reason to believe that the average unemployment in the county will exceed ten percent during the one-year period beginning April 30, the commissioner may designate the county as distressed, notwithstanding clause (1).

(b) The commissioner shall designate a portion of a county containing a city of the first class located outside of the metropolitan area as a distressed county if:

(1) that portion of the county has an unemployment rate of ten percent or more for the one-year period ending on April 30 of the year in which the designation is made; and

(2) that portion of the county has a population of at least 50,000 as determined by the 1980 federal census.

(c) A county or the portion of a county designated pursuant to this subdivision shall be considered a distressed county for purposes of this section and chapter 116M.

(d) Except as otherwise specifically provided, the determination of whether a county is distressed must be made using the most current data available from the state demographer. The designation of a distressed county is effective for the 12-month period beginning July 1, except that a designation made June 1, 1988 shall remain in effect until December 31, 1989 with respect to equipment placed in service by December 31, 1989. A county may be designated as distressed as often as it qualifies.

(e) The authority to designate counties as distressed expires on June 30, ~~1989~~ 1988.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297A.257, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [CONTINUED EXEMPTION.] The exemptions provided under subdivisions 2 and 2a apply to capital equipment and construction materials and supplies purchased by a person, partnership, or corporation in connection with the expansion of a major manufacturing facility in any county that was designated as a distressed county under subdivision 1 for any year from 1985 through 1989. For the purposes of this subdivision, "expansion of a major manufacturing facility" means an expansion of an existing manufacturing facility requiring at least $100,000,000 of capital investment over a three-year period. To qualify for the exemption under this subdivision, contracts for purchase of the capital equipment and the construction materials and supplies must be executed by June 30, 1992.

Sec. 8. [297A.259] [LOTTERY TICKETS; IN LIEU TAX.]

Sales of state lottery tickets are exempt from the tax imposed under section 297A.02. The state agency responsible for operating a state lottery must on or before the 20th day of each month transmit to the commissioner of revenue an amount equal to the gross receipts from the sale of lottery tickets for the previous month multiplied by the tax rate under section 297A.02, subdivision 1. The resulting payment is in lieu of the sales tax that otherwise would be imposed by this chapter. The commissioner shall deposit the moneys transmitted in the general fund as provided by section 297A.44 and the moneys must be treated as other proceeds of the sales tax. Gross receipts for purposes of this section mean the proceeds of the sale of tickets before deduction of a commission or other compensation paid to the vendor or retailer for selling tickets.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 297A.39, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 9. [INTENTIONAL DISREGARD OF LAW OR RULES.] If any part of any underpayment resulting from an additional assessment is due to negligence or intentional disregard of the provisions of this chapter or rules of the commissioner of revenue (but without intent to defraud), there shall be added to the tax an amount equal to ten percent of the additional assessment. The penalty imposed by this subdivision must be collected as part of the tax and is in addition to any other penalties provided by this chapter. The amount of the tax together with this amount shall bear interest at the rate specified in section 270.75 from the time the tax should have been paid until paid.

Sec. 10. [REFUND ON ACCESS CHARGES.]

All persons, other than persons in the business of providing telecommunications services, who purchased telecommunications services from a long distance carrier and who on January 1, 1988, utilized customer provided access for such long distance telecommunication services but who were directly or indirectly billed by the long distance carrier a surcharge, reflecting the tax on long distance access charges under Minnesota Statutes, section 295.34, subdivision 1, are entitled to a refund of all such amounts. The refund claim shall be filed at the end of each calendar year with the commissioner of revenue and shall set forth the basis for the refund and the amount to be refunded. The money necessary to pay the refunds is hereby appropriated to the commissioner out of the general fund. This section is effective for all amounts paid in calendar year 1989.

Sec. 11. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Section 1 is effective for premiums paid after December 31, 1988. Sections 2 and 9 are effective for penalties imposed after June 30, 1989. Sections 3 to 5 and 7 are effective for sales after June 30, 1989, provided that section 4 does not apply to sales made under bona fide contracts that were enforceable before July 1, 1989, if delivery is made before January 1, 1990.

Section 6 is effective the day following final enactment.

A tax is imposed at the rate of ten percent on the gross revenues of a licensed organization from bingo less prizes actually paid.* The tax imposed by this subdivision is in lieu of the tax imposed by section 297A.02 and all local taxes and license fees except a fee authorized under section 349.16, subdivision 4.

~~On all lawful gambling, other than (1) pull-tabs purchased and placed into inventory after January 1, 1987, and (2) tipboards purchased and placed into inventory after June 30, 1988,~~ The tax imposed under this subdivision is ~~ten percent of the gross receipts of a licensed organization from lawful gambling less prizes actually paid out,~~ payable by the organization or party conducting, directly or indirectly, the gambling.

Returns covering the taxes imposed under this section must be filed with the commissioner of revenue on or before the 20th day of the month following the close of the previous calendar month.* The proceeds, along with the revenue received from all license fees and other fees under sections 349.11 to 349.21 and 349.211, 349.212, and 349.213, must be paid to the state treasurer for deposit in the general fund.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.212, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PULL-TAB AND TIPBOARD TAX.] (a) There is imposed a tax on the sale of each deal of pull-tabs and tipboards sold by a licensed distributor ~~to a licensed organization, or to an organization holding an exemption identification number~~. The rate of the tax is ~~ten~~ two percent of the ideal ~~net~~ gross of the pull-tab ~~and~~ or tipboard deal. ~~The tax is payable to the commissioner of revenue in the manner prescribed in section 349.2121 and the rules of the commissioner. The commissioner shall pay the proceeds of the tax to the state treasurer for deposit in the general fund.~~ The sales tax imposed by chapter 297A on the sale of the pull-tabs and tipboards by the licensed distributor ~~to an organization~~ is imposed on the retail sales price less the tax imposed by this subdivision. The retail sale of pull-tabs or tipboards ~~by the organization~~ is exempt from taxes imposed by chapter 297A if the tax imposed by this subdivision has been paid and is exempt from all local taxes and license fees except a fee authorized under section 349.16, subdivision 4.

(b) The liability for the tax imposed by this section is incurred when the pull-tabs and tipboards are delivered by the distributor to the ~~licensed or exempt organization~~ customer, to a common or contract carrier for delivery to the ~~organization~~ customer, or when received by the ~~organization's~~ customer's authorized representative at the distributor's place of business, regardless of the distributor's method of accounting or the terms of the sale.

(2) sales to distributors licensed under this chapter;

(3) sales to distributors licensed under the laws of another state or of a Province of Canada, as long as all statutory and regulatory requirements are met in the other state or province; and

(4) sales of promotional tickets as defined in section 349.12.

(c) ~~The exemptions contained in section 349.214, subdivision 2, paragraph (b), do not apply to the tax imposed in this subdivision.~~ Pull-tabs and tipboards sold to an organization that sells pull-tabs and tipboards under the exemption from licensing in section 349.214, subdivision 2, paragraph (b), are exempt from the tax imposed by this subdivision. A distributor must require an organization conducting exempt gambling to show proof of its exempt status before making a tax-exempt sale of pull-tabs or tipboards to such an organization. A distributor shall identify, on all reports submitted to the commissioner, all sales of pull-tabs and tipboards that are exempt from tax under this subdivision.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.212, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6. [COMBINED RECEIPTS TAX.] In addition to the taxes imposed under subdivisions 1 and 4, there is imposed a tax on the combined receipts of the organization. As used in this section, "combined receipts" is the sum of the organization's gross receipts from lawful gambling other than bingo for the fiscal year. The combined receipts of an organization are subject to a tax computed according to the following schedule:

| If the combined receipts for the fiscal year are: | The tax is: |
| Not over $500,000 | zero |
| Over $500,000 but not over $700,000 | two percent of the amount over $500,000 but not over $700,000 |

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 349.214, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [LAWFUL GAMBLING.] (a) Raffles may be conducted by an organization ~~as defined in section 349.12, subdivision 12,~~ without complying with sections 349.11 to 349.14 and 349.151 to 349.213 if the value of all raffle prizes awarded by the organization in a calendar year does not exceed $750.

(b) Lawful gambling may be conducted by an organization as defined in section 349.12, subdivision 12, without complying with sections 349.11 to 349.14 and 349.151 to 349.212 if:

(1) the organization conducts lawful gambling on five or fewer days in a calendar year;

(2) the organization does not award more than $50,000 in prizes for lawful gambling in a calendar year;

(3) the organization notifies the board in writing not less than 30 days before each lawful gambling occasion of the date and location of the occasion, the types of lawful gambling to be conducted, the prizes to be awarded, and receives an exemption identification number;

(4) the organization notifies the local government unit 30 days before the lawful gambling occasion;

(5) the organization purchases all gambling equipment and supplies from a licensed distributor; and

(6) the organization reports to the board, on a single page form prescribed by the board, within 30 days of each gambling occasion, the gross receipts, prizes, expenses, expenditures of net profits from the occasion, and the identification of the licensed distributor from whom all gambling equipment was purchased.

(c) If the organization fails to file a timely report as required by paragraph (b), clause (3) or (6), a $250 penalty is imposed on the organization. Failure to file a timely report does not disqualify the organization as exempt under this paragraph if a report is subsequently filed and the penalty paid.

(d) Merchandise prizes must be valued at their fair market value.

(e) An organization that is exempt from taxation on purchases of pull-tabs and tipboards under section 349.212, subdivision 4, paragraph (c), must return to the distributor tipboard or pull-tab deal no part of which is used at the lawful gambling occasion for which it was purchased by the organization.

Sec. 15. [349.215] [EXAMINATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [EXAMINATION OF TAXPAYER.] To determine the accuracy of a return or report, or in fixing liability under this chapter, the commissioner of revenue may make reasonable examinations or investigations of a taxpayer's place of business, tangible personal property, equipment, computer systems and facilities, pertinent books, records, papers, vouchers, computer printouts, accounts, and documents.

Subd. 2. [ACCESS TO RECORDS OF OTHER PERSONS IN CONNECTION WITH EXAMINATION OF TAXPAYER.] When conducting an investigation or an audit of a taxpayer, the commissioner of revenue may examine, except where privileged by law, the relevant records and files of a person, business, institution, financial institution, state agency, agency of the United States government, or agency of another state where permitted by statute, agreement, or reciprocity. The commissioner of revenue may compel production of these records by subpoena. A subpoena may be served directly by the commissioner of revenue.

Subd. 3. [POWER TO COMPEL TESTIMONY.] In the administration of this chapter, the commissioner of revenue may:

(1) Administer oaths or affirmations and compel by subpoena the attendance of witnesses, testimony, and the production of a person's pertinent books, records, papers, or other data.

(2) Examine under oath or affirmation any person regarding the business of a taxpayer concerning a matter relevant to the administration of this chapter. The fees of witnesses required by the commissioner of revenue to attend a hearing are equal to those allowed to witnesses appearing before courts of this state. The fees must be paid in the manner provided for the payment of other expenses incident to the administration of state tax law.

(3) In addition to other remedies available, bring an action in equity by the state against a taxpayer for an injunction ordering the taxpayer to file a complete and proper return or amended return. The district courts of this state shall have jurisdiction over the action and disobedience of an injunction issued under this clause shall be punished as a contempt of district court.

Subd. 4. [THIRD PARTY SUBPOENA WHERE TAXPAYER'S IDENTITY IS KNOWN.] An investigation may extend to any person that the commissioner of revenue determines has access to information that may be relevant to the examination or investigation. When a subpoena requiring the production of records under subdivision 2 is served on a third-party record keeper, written notice of the subpoena must be mailed to the taxpayer and to any other person who is identified in the subpoena. The notices must be given within three days of the day on which the subpoena is served. Notice to the taxpayer required by this section is sufficient if it is mailed to the last address on record with the commissioner of revenue.

Subd. 5. [THIRD PARTY SUBPOENA WHERE TAXPAYER'S IDENTITY IS NOT KNOWN.] A subpoena that does not identify the person or persons whose tax liability is being investigated may be served only if:

(1) the subpoena relates to the investigation of a particular person or ascertainable group or class of persons;

(2) there is a reasonable basis for believing that the person or group or class of persons may fail or may have failed to comply with tax laws administered by the commissioner of revenue;

(3) the subpoena is clear and specific concerning information sought to be obtained; and

(4) the information sought to be obtained is limited solely to the scope of the investigation.

A party served with a subpoena that does not identify the person or persons with respect to whose tax liability the subpoena is issued may, within three days after service of the subpoena, petition the district court in the judicial district in which that party is located for a determination whether the commissioner of revenue has complied with all the requirements in clauses (1) to (4), and thus, whether the subpoena is enforceable. If no petition is made by the party served within the time prescribed, the subpoena has the effect of a court order.

Subd. 6. [REQUEST BY TAXPAYER FOR SUBPOENA.] When the commissioner of revenue has the power to issue a subpoena for investigative or auditing purposes, then the commissioner shall honor a reasonable request by the taxpayer to issue a subpoena on the taxpayer's behalf, if in connection with the investigation or audit.

Subd. 7. [APPLICATION TO COURT FOR ENFORCEMENT OF SUBPOENA.] The commissioner of revenue or the taxpayer may apply to the district court of the county of the taxpayer's residence, place of business, or county where the subpoena can be served as with any other case at law, for any order compelling the appearance of the subpoenaed witness or the production of the subpoenaed records. Failure to comply with the order of the court for the appearance of a witness or the production of records may be punished by the court as for contempt.

Subd. 8. [COST OF PRODUCTION OF RECORDS.] The cost of producing records of a third party required by a subpoena must be paid by the taxpayer, if the taxpayer requests the subpoena to be issued, or if the taxpayer has the records available but has refused to provide them to the commissioner of revenue. In other cases where the taxpayer is unable to produce records and the commissioner of revenue then initiates a subpoena for third-party records, the commissioner shall pay the reasonable cost of producing the records. The commissioner of revenue may later assess the reasonable costs against the taxpayer if the records contribute to the determination of an assessment of tax against the taxpayer.

Sec. 16. [349.2151] [ASSESSMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] The commissioner of revenue shall make determinations, corrections, and assessments with respect to taxes (including interest, additions to taxes, and assessable penalties) imposed under this chapter.

Subd. 2. [COMMISSIONER OF REVENUE FILED RETURNS.] If a taxpayer fails to file a return required by this chapter, the commissioner of revenue may make a return for the taxpayer from information in the commissioner's possession or obtainable by the commissioner. The return is prima facie correct and valid.

Subd. 3. [ORDER OF ASSESSMENT; NOTICE AND DEMAND TO TAXPAYER.] (a) When a return has been filed and the commissioner of revenue determines that the tax disclosed by the return is different than the tax determined by the examination, the commissioner shall send an order of assessment to the taxpayer. The order must explain the basis for the assessment and must explain the taxpayer's appeal rights. An assessment by the commissioner of revenue must be made by recording the liability of the taxpayer in the office of the commissioner of revenue, which may be done by keeping a copy of the order of assessment sent to the taxpayer. An order of assessment is final when made but may be reconsidered by the commissioner under section 349.219.

(b) The amount of unpaid tax shown on the order must be paid to the commissioner of revenue: (1) within 60 days after notice of the amount and demand for its payment have been mailed to the taxpayer by the commissioner of revenue; or (2) if an administrative appeal is filed under section 349.219 within 60 days following the determination or compromise of the appeal.

Subd. 4. [ERRONEOUS REFUNDS.] An erroneous refund is considered an underpayment of tax on the date made. An assessment of a deficiency arising out of an erroneous refund may be made at any time within two years from the making of the refund. If part of the refund was induced by fraud or misrepresentation of a material fact, the assessment may be made at any time.

Subd. 5. [ASSESSMENT PRESUMED VALID.] A return or assessment made by the commissioner of revenue is prima facie correct and valid. The taxpayer has the burden of establishing the incorrectness or invalidity of the return or assessment in any action or proceeding in respect to it.

Subd. 6. [AGGREGATE REFUND OR ASSESSMENT.] On examining returns of a taxpayer for more than one year or period, the commissioner of revenue may issue one order covering the period under examination that reflects the aggregate refund or additional tax due.

Subd. 7. [SUFFICIENCY OF NOTICE.] An order of assessment sent by United States mail, postage prepaid to the taxpayer at the taxpayer's last known address, is sufficient even if the taxpayer is deceased or is under a legal disability, or, in the case of a corporation, has terminated its existence, unless the department has been provided with a new address by a party authorized to receive notices of assessment.

Sec. 17. [349.2152] [EXTENSIONS FOR FILING RETURNS AND PAYING TAXES.]

When, in the commissioner of revenue's judgment, good cause exists, the commissioner may extend the time for filing tax returns and/or paying taxes for not more than six months.

Sec. 18. [349.216] [LIMITATIONS ON TIME FOR ASSESSMENT OF TAX.]

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL RULE.] Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the amount of taxes assessable must be assessed within 3-1/2 years after the return is filed (whether or not the return is filed on or after the date prescribed). A return must not be treated as filed until it is in processible form. A return is in processible form when it is filed on a permitted form and contains sufficient data to identify the taxpayer and permit the mathematical verification of the tax liability shown on the return.

Subd. 2. [FALSE OR FRAUDULENT RETURN.] Notwithstanding subdivision 1, the tax may be assessed at any time if a false or fraudulent return is filed or if a taxpayer fails to file a return.

Subd. 3. [OMISSION IN EXCESS OF 25 PERCENT.] Additional taxes may be assessed within 6-1/2 years after the due date of the return or the date the return was filed, whichever is later, if the taxpayer omits from a tax return taxes in excess of 25 percent of the taxes reported in the return.

Subd. 4. [TIME LIMIT FOR REFUNDS.] Unless otherwise provided in this chapter, a claim for a refund of an overpayment of tax must be filed within 3-1/2 years from the date prescribed for filing the return (plus any extension of time granted for filing the return, but only if filed within the extended time) or two years from the time the tax is paid, whichever period expires later. Interest on refunds must be computed at the rate specified in section 270.76 from the date of payment to the date the refund is paid or credited. For purposes of this subdivision, the date of payment is the later of the date the tax was finally due or was paid.

Subd. 5. [BANKRUPTCY; SUSPENSION OF TIME.] The time during which a tax must be assessed or collection proceedings begun is suspended during the period from the date of a filing of a petition in bankruptcy until 30 days after either: (1) notice to the commissioner of revenue that the bankruptcy proceedings have been closed or dismissed, or (2) the automatic stay has been ended or has expired, whichever occurs first.

The suspension of the statute of limitations under this section applies to the person the petition in bankruptcy is filed against, and all other persons who may also be wholly or partially liable for the tax.

Subd. 6. [EXTENSION AGREEMENT.] If before the expiration of time prescribed in subdivisions 1 and 4 for the assessment of tax or the filing of a claim for refund, both the commissioner of revenue and the taxpayer have consented in writing to the assessment or filing of a claim for refund after that time, the tax may be assessed or the claim for refund filed at any time before the expiration of the agreed upon period. The period may be extended by later agreements in writing before the expiration of the period previously agreed upon.

Sec. 19. [349.217] [CIVIL PENALTIES.]

Subdivision 1. [PENALTY FOR FAILURE TO PAY TAX.] If a tax is not paid within the time specified for payment, a penalty is added to the amount required to be shown as tax. The penalty is three percent of the unpaid tax if the failure is for not more than 30 days, with an additional penalty of three percent of the amount of tax remaining unpaid during each additional 30 days or fraction of 30 days during which the failure continues, not exceeding 24 percent in the aggregate.

If the taxpayer has not filed a return, for purposes of this subdivision the time specified for payment is the final date a return should have been filed.

Subd. 2. [PENALTY FOR FAILURE TO MAKE AND FILE RETURN.] *If a taxpayer fails to make and file a return within the time prescribed or an extension, a penalty is added to the tax. Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.174, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [ORIGINAL GROSS TAX CAPACITY.] (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), "original gross tax capacity" means the gross tax capacity of all taxable real property within a tax increment financing district as most recently certified by the commissioner of revenue as of the date of the request by an authority for certification by the county auditor, together with subsequent adjustments as set forth in section 469.177, subdivisions 1 and 4. In determining the original gross tax capacity the gross tax capacity of real property exempt from taxation at the time of the request shall be zero, except for real property which is tax exempt by reason of public ownership by the requesting authority and which has been publicly owned for less than one year prior to the date of the request for certification, in which event the gross tax capacity of the property shall be the gross tax capacity as most recently determined by the commissioner of revenue.

(b) The original gross tax capacity of any designated hazardous substance site or hazardous substance subdistrict shall be determined ~~on January 2 following~~ as of the date the ~~agency or municipality~~ authority certifies to the county auditor that the agency or municipality has entered a redevelopment or other agreement for the removal actions or remedial actions specified in a development response action plan, or otherwise provided funds to finance the development response action plan. The original gross tax capacity equals (i) the gross tax capacity of the parcel or parcels in the site or subdistrict, as most recently determined by the commissioner of revenue, less (ii) the estimated ~~reasonable and necessary~~ costs of the removal actions and remedial actions as specified in a development response action plan to be undertaken with respect to the parcel ~~as certified to the county auditor by the municipality or agency~~ or parcels, (iii) but not less than zero.

(c) The original gross tax capacity of a hazardous substance site or subdistrict shall be increased by the amount by which it was reduced pursuant to paragraph (b), clause (ii), upon certification by the municipality that the cost of the removal and remedial actions specified in the development response action plan, except for long-term monitoring and similar activities, have been ~~completed~~ paid or reimbursed.

(d) For purposes of this subdivision, "real property" shall include any property normally taxable as personal property by reason of its location on or over publicly owned property.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.174, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [REDEVELOPMENT DISTRICT.] (a) "Redevelopment district" means a type of tax increment financing district consisting of a project, or portions of a project, within which the authority finds by resolution that one of the following conditions, reasonably distributed throughout the district, exists:

(1) parcels consisting of 70 percent of the ~~parcels in~~ area of the district are occupied by buildings, streets, utilities, or other improvements and more than 50 percent of the buildings, not including outbuildings, are structurally substandard to a degree requiring substantial renovation or clearance; or

(2) parcels consisting of 70 percent of the ~~parcels in~~ area of the district are occupied by buildings, streets, utilities, or other improvements and 20 percent of the buildings are structurally substandard and an additional 30 percent of the buildings are found to require substantial renovation or clearance in order to remove such existing conditions as: inadequate street layout, incompatible uses or land use relationships, overcrowding of buildings on the land, excessive dwelling unit density, obsolete buildings not suitable for improvement or conversion, or other identified hazards to the health, safety, and general well-being of the community; or

~~(3) the property consists of underutilized air rights existing over a public street, highway, or right-of-way; or~~

~~(4)~~ the property consists of vacant, unused, underused, inappropriately used, or infrequently used railyards, rail storage facilities, or excessive or vacated railroad rights-of-way; ~~or~~

~~(5) the district consists of an existing or proposed industrial park no greater in size than 250 acres, which contains a sewage lagoon contaminated with polychlorinated biphenyls~~.

(b) For purposes of this subdivision, "structurally substandard" shall mean containing defects in structural elements or a combination of deficiencies in essential utilities and facilities, light and ventilation, fire protection including adequate egress, layout and condition of interior partitions, or similar factors, which defects or deficiencies are of sufficient total significance to justify substantial renovation or clearance.

(c) For purposes of this subdivision, a parcel is not occupied by buildings, streets, utilities, or other improvements unless 15 percent of the area of the parcel contains improvements.

(d) For districts consisting of two or more noncontiguous areas, each area must qualify as a redevelopment district under paragraph (a), clauses (1) to (3), to be included in the district, and the entire area of the district must satisfy paragraph (a).

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.174, subdivision 16, is amended to read:

Subd. 16. [DESIGNATED HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCE SITE.] "Designated hazardous substance site" means any parcel or parcels with respect to which the authority ~~or municipality~~ has certified to the county auditor that the authority ~~or municipality~~ has entered into a redevelopment or other agreement providing for the removal actions or remedial actions specified in a development response action plan or the ~~municipality or~~ authority will use other available money, including without limitation tax increments, to finance the removal or remedial actions. A parcel described in the plan or plan amendment may be designated for inclusion in the hazardous substance subdistrict prior to approval of the development action response plan on the basis of the reasonable expectation of the municipality. Such parcel may not be certified as part of the subdistrict until the development action response plan has been approved.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.174, subdivision 17, is amended to read:

Subd. 17. [DEVELOPMENT ACTION RESPONSE PLAN.] "Development action response plan" means a plan or proposal for removal actions or remedial actions if the plan or proposal is submitted to the pollution control agency and the actions ~~contained~~ recommended in the plan or proposal are approved in writing by the commissioner of the agency as reasonable and necessary to protect the public health, welfare, and environment. The commissioner shall review the development action response plan and approve, modify or reject the recommended actions within 60 days after submission of the plan (or revised plan) by the authority. The commissioner shall notify the authority in writing of the decision on the recommended actions within 30 days after the decision and, if the recommended actions are rejected, shall specify the reasons for rejection.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.174, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 20. [INTERNAL REVENUE CODE.] "Internal Revenue Code" means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended through December 31, 1988.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.175, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [MUNICIPALITY APPROVAL.] A county auditor shall not certify the original gross tax capacity of a tax increment financing district until the tax increment financing plan proposed for that district has been approved by the municipality in which the district is located. If an authority that proposes to establish a tax increment financing district and the municipality are not the same, the authority shall apply to the municipality in which the district is proposed to be located and shall obtain the approval of its tax increment financing plan by the municipality before the authority may use tax increment financing. The municipality shall approve the tax increment financing plan only after a public hearing thereon after published notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the municipality at least once not less than ten days nor more than 30 days prior to the date of the hearing. ~~This~~ The published notice must include a map of the area of the district from which increments may be collected and, if the project area includes additional area, a map of the project area in which the increments may be expended. The hearing may be held before or after the approval or creation of the project or it may be held in conjunction with a hearing to approve the project. Before or at the time of approval of the tax increment financing plan, the municipality shall make the following findings, and shall set forth in writing the reasons and supporting facts for each determination:

(1) that the proposed tax increment financing district is a redevelopment district, a mined underground space development district, a housing district, a soils condition district, or an economic development district; if the proposed district is a redevelopment district, the reasons and supporting facts for the determination that the district meets the criteria of section 469.174, subdivision 10, paragraph (a), clauses (1) to (5), must be retained and made available to the public by the authority until the district has been terminated.

(2) that the proposed development or redevelopment, in the opinion of the municipality, would not reasonably be expected to occur solely through private investment within the reasonably foreseeable future and therefore the use of tax increment financing is deemed necessary.

(3) that the tax increment financing plan conforms to the general plan for the development or redevelopment of the municipality as a whole.

(4) that the tax increment financing plan will afford maximum opportunity, consistent with the sound needs of the municipality as a whole, for the development or redevelopment of the project by private enterprise.

(5) that the municipality elects the method of tax increment computation set forth in section 469.177, subdivision 3, clause (b), if applicable.

When the municipality and the authority are not the same, the municipality shall approve or disapprove the tax increment financing plan within 60 days of submission by the authority, or the plan shall be deemed approved. When the municipality and the authority are not the same, the municipality may not amend or modify a tax increment financing plan except as proposed by the authority pursuant to subdivision 4. Once approved, the determination of the authority to undertake the project through the use of tax increment financing and the resolution of the governing body shall be conclusive of the findings therein and of the public need for the financing.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.175, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6a. [REPORTING REQUIREMENTS.] (a) The municipality must annually report to the commissioner of revenue the following amounts for the entire municipality:

(1) the total principal amount of nondefeased tax increment financing bonds that are outstanding at the end of the previous calendar year; and

(2) the total annual amount of principal and interest payments that are due for the current calendar year on (i) general obligation tax increment financing bonds, and (ii) other tax increment financing bonds.

(b) The municipality must annually report to the commissioner of revenue the following amounts for each tax increment financing district located in the municipality:

(1) the type of district, whether economic development, redevelopment, housing, soils condition, mined underground space, or hazardous substance site;

(2) the date on which the district is required to be decertified;

(3) the captured tax capacity of the district, by property class as specified by the commissioner of revenue, for taxes payable in the current calendar year;

(4) the tax increment revenues for taxes payable in the current calendar year; and

(5) whether the tax increment financing plan or other governing document permits increment revenues to be expended (i) to pay bonds, the proceeds of which were or may be expended on activities located outside of the district, (ii) for deposit into a common fund from which money may be expended on activities located outside of the district, or (iii) to otherwise finance activities located outside of the tax increment financing district.

(c) The report required by this subdivision must be filed with the commissioner of revenue on or before March 1 of each year.

(d) This section applies to districts certified before, on, and after August

1, 1979.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.175, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [CREATION OF HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCE SUBDISTRICT; RESPONSE ACTIONS.] (a) ~~A municipality or~~ An authority which is creating or has created a tax increment financing district may establish within the district a hazardous substance subdistrict upon the notice and after the discussion, public hearing, and findings required for approval of or modification to the original plan. The geographic area of the subdistrict is made up of any parcels in the district designated for inclusion by the municipality or authority that are designated hazardous substance sites, and any additional parcels in the district designated for inclusion that are contiguous to the hazardous substance site except for the interposition of a right-of-way. Before or at the time of approval of the tax increment financing plan or plan modification providing for the creation of the hazardous substance subdistrict, the ~~municipality~~ authority must make the findings under paragraphs (b) to (d), and set forth in writing the reasons and supporting facts for each.

(b) Development or redevelopment of the site, in the opinion of the ~~municipality~~ authority, would not reasonably be expected to occur solely through private investment and tax increment otherwise available, and therefore the hazardous substance district is deemed necessary.

(c) Other parcels that are not designated hazardous substance sites are expected to be developed together with a designated hazardous substance site.

(d) The subdistrict is not larger than, and the period of time during which increments are elected to be received is not longer than, that which is necessary in the opinion of the municipality to provide for the additional costs due to the designated hazardous substance site.

(e) Upon request by ~~a municipality or~~ an authority that has incurred expenses for removal or remedial actions to implement a development response action plan, the attorney general may:

(1) bring a civil action on behalf of the ~~municipality or~~ authority to recover the expenses, including administrative costs and litigation expenses, under section 115B.04 or other law; or

(2) assist the ~~municipality or agency~~ authority in bringing an action as described in clause (1), by providing legal and technical advice, intervening in the action, or other appropriate assistance.

The decision to participate in any action to recover expenses is at the discretion of the attorney general.

(f) If the attorney general brings an action as provided in paragraph (e), clause (1), the ~~municipality or~~ authority shall certify its reasonable and necessary expenses incurred to implement the development response action plan and shall cooperate with the attorney general as required to effectively pursue the action. The certification by the ~~municipality or~~ authority is prima facie evidence that the expenses are reasonable and necessary. The attorney general may deduct litigation expenses incurred by the attorney general from any amounts recovered in an action brought under paragraph (e), clause (1). The ~~municipality or~~ authority shall reimburse the attorney general for litigation expenses not recovered in an action under paragraph (e), clause (1), ~~and~~ but only from the additional tax increment required to be used as described in section 469.176, subdivision 4e. The authority must reimburse the attorney general for litigation expenses incurred to assist in bringing an action under paragraph (e), clause ~~(1)~~ (2), but only from amounts recovered by the authority in an action or, if the amounts are insufficient, from the additional tax increment required to be used as described in section 469.176, subdivision 4e. All money recovered or paid to the attorney general for litigation expenses under this paragraph shall be paid to the general fund of the state for deposit to the account of the attorney general. For the purposes of this section, "litigation expenses" means attorney fees and costs of discovery and other preparation for litigation.

(g) The ~~municipality or~~ authority shall reimburse the pollution control agency for its administrative expenses incurred to review and approve a development action response plan ~~and associated activities, and~~. The authority must reimburse the pollution control agency for expenses incurred for any services rendered to the attorney general to support the attorney general in actions brought or assistance provided under paragraph (e), but only from amounts recovered by the municipality or authority in an action brought under paragraph (e) or from the additional tax increment required to be used as described in section 469.176, subdivision 4e. All money paid to the pollution control agency under this paragraph shall be deposited in the environmental response, compensation and compliance fund.

(h) Actions taken by ~~a municipality or~~ an authority consistent with a development response action plan are deemed to be authorized response actions for the purpose of section 115B.17, subdivision 12. ~~A municipality or agency~~ An authority that takes actions consistent with a development response action plan qualifies for the defenses available under sections 115B.04, subdivision 11, and 115B.05, subdivision 9.

(i) All money recovered by ~~a municipality or~~ an authority in an action brought under paragraph (e) in excess of the amounts paid to the attorney general and the pollution control agency must be treated as excess increments and be distributed as provided in section 469.176, subdivision 2, clause (4), to the extent the removal and remedial actions were initially financed with increment revenues.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.176, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DURATION OF TAX INCREMENT FINANCING DISTRICTS.] (a) Subject to the limitations contained in paragraphs (b) to ~~(f)~~ (g), any tax increment financing district as to which bonds are outstanding, payment for which the tax increment and other revenues have been pledged, shall remain in existence at least as long as the bonds continue to be outstanding. The municipality may, at the time of approval of the initial tax increment financing plan, provide for a shorter maximum duration limit than specified in paragraphs (b) to (g). The specified limit applies in place of the otherwise applicable limit.

(b) The tax increment pledged to the payment of the bonds and interest thereon may be discharged and the tax increment financing district may be terminated if sufficient funds have been irrevocably deposited in the debt service fund or other escrow account held in trust for all outstanding bonds to provide for the payment of the bonds at maturity or date of redemption and interest thereon to the maturity or redemption date.

(c) For bonds issued pursuant to section 469.178, subdivisions 2 and 3, the full faith and credit and any taxing powers of the municipality or authority shall continue to be pledged to the payment of the bonds until the principal of and interest on the bonds has been paid in full.

(d) No tax increment shall be paid to an authority for a tax increment financing district after three years from the date of certification of the original gross tax capacity of the taxable real property in the district by the county auditor or after August 1, 1982, for tax increment financing districts authorized prior to August 1, 1979, unless within the three-year period (1) bonds have been issued pursuant to section 469.178, or in aid of a project pursuant to any other law, except revenue bonds issued pursuant to sections 469.152 to 469.165, prior to August 1, 1979, or (2) the authority has acquired property within the district, or (3) the authority has constructed or caused to be constructed public improvements within the district.

(e) No tax increment shall in any event be paid to the authority from a redevelopment district after 25 years from date of receipt by the authority of the first tax increment, after 25 years from the date of the receipt for a housing district, after 25 years from the date of the receipt for a mined underground space development district, after 12 years from approval of the tax increment financing plan for a soils condition district, and after eight years from the date of the receipt, or ten years from approval of the tax increment financing plan, whichever is less, for an economic development district.

For tax increment financing districts created prior to August 1, 1979, no tax increment shall be paid to the authority after April 1, 2001, or the term of a nondefeased bond or obligation outstanding on April 1, 1990, secured by increments from the district or project area, whichever time is greater, provided that in no case will a tax increment be paid to an authority after August 1, 2009, from such a district. If a district's termination date is extended beyond April 1, 2001, because bonds were outstanding on April 1, 1990, with maturities extending beyond April 1, 2001, the following restrictions apply. No increment collected from the district may be expended after April 1, 2001, except to pay or defease (i) bonds issued before April 1, 1990, or (ii) bonds issued to refund the principal of the outstanding bonds and pay associated issuance costs, provided the average maturity of the refunding bonds does not exceed the bonds refunded.

(f) Modification of a tax increment financing plan pursuant to section 469.175, subdivision 4, shall not extend the durational limitations of this subdivision.

(g) If a parcel of a district is part of a designated hazardous substance site or a hazardous substance subdistrict, tax increment may be paid to the authority from the parcel for longer than the period otherwise provided by this subdivision. These costs include acquiring properties containing structurally substandard buildings or improvements, acquiring adjacent parcels necessary to provide a site of sufficient size to permit development, demolition of structures, clearing of the land, and installation of utilities, roads, sidewalks, and parking facilities for the site. The allocated administrative expenses of the authority may be included in the qualifying costs.*

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 469.176, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [ACTION REQUIRED.] If, after four years from the date of certification of the original gross tax capacity of the tax increment financing district pursuant to section 469.177, no demolition, rehabilitation, or renovation of property or other site preparation, including qualified improvement of a street adjacent to a parcel but not installation of utility service including sewer or water systems, has been commenced on a parcel located within a tax increment financing district by the authority or by the owner of the parcel in accordance with the tax increment financing plan, no additional tax increment may be taken from that parcel, and the original gross tax capacity of that parcel shall be excluded from the original gross tax capacity of the tax increment financing district. If the authority or the owner of the parcel subsequently commences demolition, rehabilitation, or renovation or other site preparation on that parcel including qualified improvement of a street adjacent to that parcel, in accordance with the tax increment financing plan, the authority shall certify to the county auditor that the activity has commenced, and the county auditor shall certify the gross tax capacity thereof as most recently certified by the commissioner of revenue and add it to the original gross tax capacity of the tax increment financing district. The county auditor must enforce the provisions of this subdivision. The authority must submit to the county auditor evidence that the required activity has taken place for each parcel in the district. The evidence for a parcel must be submitted by February 1 of the fifth year following the year in which the parcel was certified as included in the district. For purposes of this subdivision, qualified improvements of a street are limited to (1) construction or opening of a new street, (2) relocation of a street, and (3) substantial reconstruction or rebuilding of an existing street.

The requirements imposed by this section apply to residential property receiving assistance financed with tax increments, including interest reduction, land transfers at less than the authority's cost of acquisition, utility service or connections, roads, or other subsidies. The provisions of this section do not apply (1) to interest reduction programs, provided that the duration of the district is limited to 12 years from the collection of the first increment or (2) to* districts located in a targeted area as defined in section 462C.08, subdivision 9, clause (e).

Subd. 2. [OWNER OCCUPIED HOUSING.] For owner occupied residential property, 95 percent of the housing units must be initially purchased and occupied by individuals whose family income is less than or equal to the income requirements for qualified mortgage bond projects under section 143(f) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Subd. 3. [RENTAL PROPERTY.] For residential rental property, the property must satisfy the income requirements for a qualified residential rental project as defined in section 142(d) of the Internal Revenue Code. The requirements of this subdivision apply for the duration of the tax increment financing district.

Subd. 4. [NONCOMPLIANCE; ENFORCEMENT.] Failure to comply with the requirements of this section results in application of the duration limits for economic development districts to the district. If at the time of the noncompliance the district has exceeded the duration limits for an economic development district, the district must be decertified effective for taxes assessed in the next calendar year. The commissioner of revenue shall enforce the provisions of this section. The commissioner may waive insubstantial violations. Appeal of the commissioner's orders of noncompliance must be made to the tax court in the manner provided in section 271.06.

If clause (1) or (2) applies, the authority must annually pay to the school district an amount of increment equal to the increment that is attributable to the increase in the tax capacity rate under the referendum. If clause (3) applies, upon approval by a majority vote of the governing body of the municipality and the school board, the authority must pay to the school district an amount of increment equal to the increment that is attributable to the increase in the tax capacity rate under the referendum. The amounts of these increments may be expended and must be treated by the school district in the same manner as provided for the revenues derived from the referendum levy approved by the voters. The provisions of this subdivision apply to projects for which certification was requested before, on, and after August 1, 1979.

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.067, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [STATEMENT OF PURPOSE.] State governmental policy objectives are sought to be achieved both by direct expenditure of governmental funds and by the granting of special and selective tax relief or tax expenditures. Both direct expenditures of governmental funds and tax expenditures have an effect on the ability of the state and local governments to lower tax rates or to increase expenditures. As a result, tax expenditures should receive a regular and comprehensive review by the legislature as to (a) their total cost, (b) their effectiveness in achieving their objectives, (c) their effect on the fairness and equity of the distribution of the tax burden, and (d) the public and private cost of administering tax expenditure financed programs. This section is intended to facilitate a regular review of the state and local tax expenditure budget by the legislature by providing for the preparation of a regular ~~biennial~~ tax expenditure budget.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 270.067, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [PREPARATION; SUBMISSION.] The commissioner of revenue shall prepare a tax expenditure budget for the state every four years. The tax expenditure budget report shall be submitted to the legislature as a supplement to the governor's budget and at the same time as provided for submission of the budget pursuant to section 16A.11, subdivision 1, except that the next such report shall be submitted in 1993, and every four years thereafter.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 295.34, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. Except as provided in subdivision 2, every telephone company shall file a return with the commissioner of revenue on or before April 15 of each year, and submit payment therewith, of the following percentages of its gross earnings, including long distance access charges, of the preceding calendar year derived from business within this state:

(a) for gross earnings from service to rural subscribers and from exchange business of all cities of the fourth class and statutory cities having a population of 10,000 or less for calendar years beginning before December 31, 1988, four percent, for calendar year 1989, three percent, provided that the estimated tax payments made on March 15 and June 15, 1989, pursuant to section 295.365, must be made as if the tax were imposed at a rate of four percent, for calendar year 1990, 1.5 percent, for calendar year 1991, one percent, and for calendar years beginning after December 31, 1991, exempt; and

(b) for gross earnings derived from all other business for calendar years beginning before December 31, 1988, seven percent, for calendar year 1989, 5.5 percent, provided that the estimated tax payments made on March 15 and June 15, 1989, pursuant to section 295.365, must be made as if the tax were imposed at a rate of seven percent, for calendar year 1990, three percent, for calendar year 1991, 2.5 percent, and for calendar years beginning after December 31, 1991, exempt.

A tax shall not be imposed on the gross earnings of a telephone company from business originating or terminating outside of Minnesota, except that the gross earnings tax is imposed on all long distance access charges allocated to interstate service received in payment from a telephone company before December 31, 1989.

The tax imposed is in lieu of all other taxes, except the taxes imposed by chapter 290, property taxes assessed beginning in 1989, payable in 1990, and sales and use taxes imposed as a result of chapter 297A. All money paid by a company for connecting fees and switching charges to any other company shall be reported as earnings by the company to which they are paid. For the purposes of this section, the population of any statutory city shall be considered as that stated in the latest federal census.

(c) For the period January 1, 1984 through December 31, 1986, all money paid by a company for connecting fees and switching charges, including carriers access charges except that portion paid for directory assistance and billing and collection services, to any other company must be reported as earnings by the company to which they are paid, but are not deemed to be earnings of the collecting and paying company.

(d) Gross earnings include customer access charges. Customer access charges are not gross earnings from business originating or terminating outside of Minnesota for purposes of the gross earnings tax. Customer access charges include the flat rate monthly charges received by a telephone company from its customers, that are authorized by the Federal Communications Commission and that compensate a telephone company for the cost of a local telephone plant to the extent attributable to interstate service.

Sec. 4. [STATEMENT OF PURPOSE.]

The purpose of section 3 is to confirm and clarify the original intent of the legislature in enacting the exemption for gross earnings from business originating or terminating outside of Minnesota in Minnesota Statutes, section 295.34. Section 3 does not create a new category of earnings subject to the gross earnings tax. It ratifies existing state interpretation of the telephone gross earnings tax and Minnesota Statutes, section 295.34.

Subd. 4. [BOARD OF DIRECTORS.] (a) The authority consists of a board of seven directors. The directors shall be appointed by the Kandiyohi county board. Each director shall be appointed to serve for three years or until a successor is appointed and qualified. No director may serve more than two consecutive terms. The initial appointment of directors must be made so that no more than one-third of the directors' positions will require appointment in any one year due to fulfillment of their three-year appointment. The appointment of directors must be made to reflect representation of the entire county by population, appointing one director to represent each of the five county commissioner districts. The other two directors must be representatives of various county-based economic development organizations or be directors at-large. No more than two directors may reside in any one county commissioner district.

(b) Two of the directors initially appointed shall serve for terms of one year, two for two years, and three for three years. Each vacancy must be filled for the unexpired term in the manner in which the original appointment was made. A vacancy occurs if a director no longer resides in the county. No director shall be an officer, employee, director, shareholder, or member of any corporation, firm, or association with which the authority has entered into any operating lease, or other agreement. The directors may be removed by the county for the reasons and in the manner provided under Minnesota Statutes, section 469.010, and shall receive no compensation other than reimbursement for expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. Directors shall have no personal liability for obligations of the authority or the methods of enforcement and collection of the obligations.

General obligation bonds may be issued and a tax imposed to pay the principal and interest on the bonds only if the issuance and the tax are approved by a vote of the electors of the town at a regular town meeting. A tax may be levied under Minnesota Statutes, section 469.107, only if approved by a vote of the electors of the town at a regular town meeting.*

Sec. 17. [CONTINUATION OF PRODUCTION TAX LIABILITY.]

The new owner must provide evidence to the commissioner of revenue of its intent and ability to do so. If the new owner fails to resume taconite production at the facility by December 31, 1991, the property shall become subject to ad valorem taxes for the 1991 levy year, taxes payable in 1992, and thereafter, and an additional tax equal to the amount of ad valorem tax that would have been payable on the property for taxes payable in 1990 and 1991, less any taxes paid under Minnesota Statutes, section 298.24, during 1990 and 1991, shall also be extended against the property on the tax list for 1992.*

As part of the planning process for any new building, consideration must be given to the child care needs of a campus and the feasibility of locating child care facilities in the new building.

Subd. 2. Post-secondary vocational technical construction in the school districts listed in this subdivision 675,000

(a) Independent School District No. 564, Thief River Falls 505,000

This appropriation is added to the appropriation in Laws 1987, chapter 400, section 17, subdivision 2, clause (p), for the same purposes. The total amount of the project may not exceed $2,708,000.

(b) Independent School District No. 819, Wadena 170,000

This appropriation is added to the appropriation in Laws 1987, chapter 400, section 17, subdivision 2, clause (q), for the same purposes. The total amount of the project may not exceed $2,321,000.

Subd. 3. Statewide

Notwithstanding Minnesota Statutes, section 136C.44, during the biennium ending June 30, 1991, the state board of vocational technical education must not make grants to school districts but shall directly supervise and control the preparation of plans and specifications to construct, alter, or enlarge the technical institute buildings, structures, and improvements provided for in this subdivision. The state board of vocational technical education may provide grants to school districts for land purchases authorized in this act. The school district must still finance 15 percent of the cost of each project, other than in a joint vocational technical district as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 136C.60.

During the biennium, the state board of vocational technical education shall advertise for bids and award contracts in connection with the improvements, supervise and inspect the work, approve necessary changes in the plans and specifications, approve estimates for payment, and accept the improvements when completed according to the plans and specifications.

Plans must be paid for out of this appropriation. The remainder of the appropriation must not be spent until the board has secured suitable plans and specifications, prepared by a competent architect or engineer. The plans and specifications must be accompanied by a detailed statement of the cost, quality, and description of all material and labor required for the completion of the work. No plan may be adopted, and no improvement made or building constructed, that contemplates the expenditure for its completion of more money than the appropriation for it, unless otherwise provided in this act. The state board of vocational technical education may employ appropriate staff to implement this subdivision and may delegate responsibilities to technical institute staff.

Subd. 10. Wood-Fired Boilers

Effective upon enactment of this act, no more money shall be paid out of the treasury of this state in connection with an agreement under Minnesota Statutes, section 16B.16, to provide a wood-fired boiler heating system at the campus of either Bemidji State University or St. Cloud State University. This prohibition is intended to be permanent.

Minnesota Statutes, section 16B.16, authorizes the commissioner of administration to enter into installment purchase agreements to acquire equipment that will improve the energy efficiency of a state building or facility if, among other things, the entire cost of the contract is a percentage of the resultant savings in energy costs and the state may unilaterally cancel the agreement if the legislature fails to appropriate funds to continue the contract. Section 16B.16 does not authorize the commissioner to commit the state to pay for equipment that does not work nor to pay more for energy as a result of the installment purchase agreement than would be needed without the agreement. If there are no savings in energy costs through use of the equipment, there should be no compensation due under the agreement.

The commissioner of administration acted under Minnesota Statutes, section 16B.16, when entering into installment purchase agreements to install wood-fired boiler heating systems at the campuses of Bemidji State University and St. Cloud State University. The wood-fired boiler heating system installed at the Bemidji campus did not work as promised and the promised energy savings were not achieved. The state refused to make further payments under the agreement for Bemidji and canceled the agreement for St. Cloud. The state later resumed making payments under the agreement for Bemidji, even though it believed there had been a complete failure of consideration.

The purpose of this subdivision is to make clear to all potential investors in state and local bonds and to financial institutions that the state is not and never has been responsible for financing the wood-fired boiler heating systems at Bemidji and St. Cloud state universities, other than through payment to the vendor of a percentage of the resultant savings in energy costs. Since the equipment and technology chosen by the vendor did not produce savings in energy costs, the entire loss should be borne by the vendor and by the vendor's financial backers, not by the state.

Subd. 3. [FEDERAL AID.] (a) [APPLICATION FOR AID.] The commissioner, or any other agency to whom an appropriation is made for a capital improvement, shall apply for the maximum federal share for each project.

(b) [ACCEPTANCE OF AID.] The commissioner is the state agency empowered to accept money provided for or made available to this state by the United States of America or any federal department or agency for the construction and equipping of any building for state purposes not otherwise provided for by law, other than University of Minnesota buildings, in accordance with the provisions of federal law and any rules or regulations promulgated under federal law. The commissioner may do whatever is required of this state by federal law, rules, and regulations in order to obtain the federal money.

~~(b)~~ (c) [FEDERAL FUNDS CONSIDERED PART OF APPROPRIATION.] The commissioner may after consultation with the chairs of the senate finance committee and house of representatives appropriations committee, adopt a plan, provide for an improvement, or construct a building that contemplates expenditure for its completion of more money than the appropriation for it, if the excess money is provided by the United States government and granted to the state of Minnesota under federal law or any rule or regulation promulgated under federal law. This federal money, for the purpose of this section, is a part of the appropriation for the project.

~~(c)~~ (d) [DELAYED FEDERAL MONEY.] If an amount is payable to a creditor of the state from a project account which is financed partly with federal money and the project is included in appropriations made to the commissioner for public buildings and equipment, and the amount cannot be paid on time because of a deficiency of money in the project account caused by a delay in the receipt of federal money, the commissioner may provide money needed to pay the amount by temporarily transferring the sum to the project account from any other appropriation made to the commissioner in the same act. Required money for a payment is appropriated for that purpose. When the delayed federal money is received, the commissioner shall have the amount of money transferred returned to the account from which it came.

"Construction or major remodeling" means construction of a new building or substantial alteration of the exterior dimensions or interior configuration of an existing building. The presentation must note any significant changes in the work that will be done, or in its cost, since the appropriation for the project was enacted. The program plans and estimates must be presented for review at least two weeks before a recommendation is needed. The recommendations are advisory only. Failure or refusal to make a recommendation is considered a negative recommendation.*

(2) Service by an employee for which on or before July 1, 1961, the employee chose to obtain credit for service by making payments to the fund under Minnesota Statutes 1961, section 352.24.

(3) Except as provided in clauses (9) and (10), service by an employee after July 1, 1957, for any calendar month in which the employee is paid salary from which deductions are made, deposited, and credited in the fund, including deductions made, deposited, and credited as provided in section 352.041.

(4) Except as provided in clauses (9) and (10), service by an employee after July 1, 1957, for any calendar month for which payments in lieu of salary deductions are made, deposited, and credited in the fund, as provided in section 352.27 and Minnesota Statutes 1957, section 352.021, subdivision 4.

For purposes of clauses (3) and (4), except as provided in clauses (9) and (10), any salary paid for a fractional part of any calendar month is deemed the compensation for the entire calendar month.

(5) The period of absence from their duties by employees who are temporarily disabled because of injuries incurred in the performance of duties and for which disability the state is liable under the workers' compensation law until the date authorized by the director for the commencement of payments of a total and permanent disability benefit from the retirement fund.

(6) The unused part of an employee's annual leave allowance for which the employee is paid salary.

(7) Any service covered by a refund repaid as provided in section 352.23 or 352D.05, subdivision 4, except service rendered as an employee of the adjutant general for which the person has credit with the federal civil service retirement system.

(8) Any service before July 1, 1978, by an employee of the transit operating division of the metropolitan transit commission or by an employee on an authorized leave of absence from the transit operating division of the metropolitan transit commission who is employed by the labor organization which is the exclusive bargaining agent representing employees of the transit operating division, which was credited by the metropolitan transit commission-transit operating division employees retirement fund or any of its predecessor plans or funds as past, intermediate, future, continuous, or allowable service as defined in the metropolitan transit commission-transit operating division employees retirement fund plan document in effect on December 31, 1977.

(9) Service after July 1, 1983, by an employee who is employed on a part-time basis for less than 50 percent of full time, for which the employee is paid salary from which deductions are made, deposited, and credited in the fund, including deductions made, deposited, and credited as provided in section 352.041 or for which payments in lieu of salary deductions are made, deposited, and credited in the fund as provided in section 352.27 shall be credited on a fractional basis either by pay period, monthly, or annually based on the relationship that the percentage of salary earned bears to a full-time salary, with any salary paid for the fractional service credited on the basis of the rate of salary applicable for a full-time pay period, month, or a full-time year. For periods of part-time service that is duplicated service credit, section 356.30, subdivision 1, clauses (i) and (j), govern.

To obtain credit, the employee shall pay an amount equal to the employee and employer contribution rate in section 352.04, subdivisions 2 and 3, multiplied by the employee's hourly rate of salary on the date of return from leave of absence and by the days and months of the leave of absence without pay for which the employee wants allowable service credit. The employing department, at its option, may pay the employer amount on behalf of its employees. Payments made under this clause shall include interest at the rate of six percent per year from the date of termination of the leave of absence to the date payment is made unless payment is completed within one year of the return from leave of absence.

The election to be covered by the system under this subdivision or section 352.01, subdivision 2b, clause (3), must be made on a form approved by the director within 90 days after appointment to the position. If the option is exercised, the employee is not thereafter entitled to membership in the

In actions brought by it or against it, the board shall be represented by the attorney general~~.~~ and, except as provided in section 5, subdivision 9, venue of actions shall be in the Ramsey county district court.

Sec. 5. [352.031] [APPEALS PROCEDURE.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] Unless the language or context clearly indicates that a different meaning is intended, for the purpose of this section, the following terms have the meanings given them.

(a) "Board" means the board of directors of the Minnesota state retirement system.

(b) "Documentation" includes, but is not limited to:

(1) sworn and notarized affidavits made on the personal knowledge of any person;

(2) official letters or documents;

(3) documents from the file of the petitioner; and

(4) other relevant documents that are admissible as evidence in a court of law.

(c) "Executive director" means the executive director of the Minnesota state retirement system.

(d) "Person" includes any state agency or other governmental unit that employs persons covered under statutes listed in subdivision 2.

(e) "Record" means the petition and the documentation that the petitioners submit with the petition; the executive director's answer to the petition and documentation submitted with it; and any documentation the board allows to be submitted at or after the meeting at which the petition is considered.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE OF TERMINATION OR DENIAL.] If the executive director terminates a benefit or denies an application or a written request of any person claiming a right under chapter 352, other than sections 352.96 and 352.97; chapters 3A, 352B, 352C, and 352D; sections 490.121 to 490.133; or the applicable sections of chapters 355 and 356, the executive director must serve upon that person written notice containing:

(1) the reasons for the termination or denial;

(2) notice that the person may petition the board for a review of the termination or denial and that the petition for review must be filed within 60 days of the receipt of the written notice;

(3) a statement that failure to petition the board within 60 days will preclude the person from contesting in any other court procedure or administrative hearing, the issues determined by the executive director; and

(4) a copy of this section.

Subd. 3. [PETITION FOR REVIEW.] A person who claims a right under subdivision 2 and whose benefit has been terminated or whose application or written request has been denied may petition for a review of that decision by the board. A petition under this section must be served upon the executive director personally, or by mail postmarked no later than 60 days after the petitioner received the notice required by subdivision 2. The petition must include the sworn, notarized statement of the reasons the petitioner believes the decision of the executive director should be reversed or modified and may include relevant documentation.

Subd. 4. [ANSWER; RECORD FOR HEARING.] Within a reasonable time after receiving a petition, the executive director must serve the petitioner with an answer to the petition with all relevant documentation and with notice of the time and place of the regular or special board meeting at which the board will consider the petition. The documentation need not duplicate the documentation submitted by the petitioner. Not later than ten days before the board meeting at which the petition will be heard, the executive director must, personally or by mail, deliver a copy of the relevant documentation to each board member. Each board member who participates in the decision on the petition must be familiar with all relevant documentation.

Subd. 5. [HEARING.] The board shall hold a timely hearing on a petition for review. The board shall make its decision on a petition solely on the relevant documentation as submitted and the proceedings of the hearing. At the hearing, the petitioner, the petitioner's attorney, and the executive director may state and discuss with the board their positions with respect to the petition. The board may allow further documentation to be placed in the record at or subsequent to the board meeting at which the petition is considered. If the board allows additional documentation into the record at or subsequent to the board meeting, it may make a final determination on the petition at that board meeting only upon the agreement of both the petitioner and the executive director.

Subd. 6. [TERMINATION OF BENEFITS.] If the executive director proposes to terminate a benefit that is being paid to any person, before terminating the benefit, the executive director must, in addition to the other procedures prescribed herein, give the person written or oral notice of the proposed termination. The notice must explain the reason for the proposed termination. The person must be given an opportunity, verbally or in writing, to explain why the benefit should not be terminated: if the executive director is unable to contact the person and the executive director determines that a failure to terminate the benefit might result in unauthorized payment by the association, the executive director may terminate the benefit with only a written notice containing the information required by subdivision 2, mailed to the address to which the benefit was last sent and, if that address is a financial institution, to the last known address of the person.

Subd. 7. [MEDICAL ADVISOR ACTION.] If a person petitions the board to reverse or modify a determination by the executive director finding that the petitioner, for medical reasons, does not or has ceased to qualify for a disability benefit, the board may resubmit the matter to the medical advisor for reconsideration, with or without instructions to obtain further medical examinations. The board may make a determination contrary to the recommendation of the medical advisor only if there is expert medical evidence in the record to support its contrary decision. If there is no medical opinion contrary to the opinion of the medical advisor in the record and the medical advisor asserts that the decision was made in accordance with the disability standard in sections 352.01, subdivision 17; 352B.10; or 490.121, subdivision 13, the board must follow the determination of the medical advisor. The board may make a determination different from the recommendation of the medical advisor on issues that do not involve a medical opinion.

Subd. 8. [BOARD FINDINGS.] After the board has made a decision on a petition, the executive director must prepare findings of fact, the board's reasons for its conclusions, and the board's final order for the signature of the chair or other board member as the board, by resolution, may designate. The executive director shall serve the findings, conclusions, and order on the petitioner by certified mail.

Subd. 9. [APPEALS.] Within 30 days of receipt of the findings, conclusions, and final order, the petitioner may appeal the board's decision by writ of certiorari to the court of appeals. Failure to appeal to that court within the 30 days precludes the petitioner from later raising, in any court procedure or administrative hearing, those substantive and procedural issues that reasonably should have been raised upon appeal.

Subd. 10. [REFERRAL FOR ADMINISTRATIVE HEARING.] Notwithstanding sections 14.03; 14.06; and 14.57 to 14.69, a challenge to a determination of the executive director must be conducted exclusively under the procedures in this section. The board in its sole discretion may refer a petition brought under this section to the office of administrative hearings for a contested case hearing under sections 14.57 to 14.69.

Subd. 11. [PETITIONS WITHOUT NOTICE.] A person who is not entitled to a review under this section may nevertheless receive review of the decision of the executive director which affects the person's rights by petitioning the board under this section within 60 days of the time the person knew or should have known of the disputed decision.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.116, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

The board may also establish an optional annuity in the form of an annuity payable for a period certain and for life thereafter or establish an optional annuity which takes the form of a joint and survivor annuity providing that, if after the joint and survivor annuity becomes payable, the person with the designated remainder interest in the annuity dies before the former member, the annuity amount must be reinstated to a normal single life annuity amount as of the first day of the month after the day the person dies. In addition, the board may also establish an optional annuity that takes the form of an annuity calculated on the basis of the age of the retired employee at retirement and payable for the period before the retired employee becomes eligible for social security old age retirement benefits in a greater amount than the amount of the annuity calculated under subdivision 2 on the basis of the age of the retired employee at retirement ~~but equal so far as possible to the social security old age retirement benefit and the adjusted retirement annuity amount payable immediately after the retired employee becomes eligible for social security old age retirement benefits and payable for the~~ ~~period after the retired employee becomes eligible for social security old age retirement benefits in an amount less than the amount of the annuity calculated under subdivisions 2 and 3. The social security leveling option may be calculated based on broad average social security old age retirement benefits.~~ For each year that the retiring employee is under age 62, up to five percent of the total single life annuity required reserves may be used to accelerate the optional retirement annuity. This greater amount shall be paid until the end of the month in which the retired employee reaches age 62, at which time the annuity shall be reduced. The optional forms must be actuarially equivalent to the normal single life annuity forms provided in sections 352.115 and 352.116, whichever applies.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.93, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PAYMENTS; DURATION AND AMOUNT.] The annuity under this section shall begin to accrue as provided in section 352.115, subdivision 8, and must be paid for an additional 84 full calendar months or to the first of the month following the month in which the employee becomes age 65, whichever occurs first, except that payment must not cease before the first of the month following the month in which the employee becomes

62. It must then be reduced to the amount as calculated under section 352.115, except that if this amount, when added to the social security benefit based on state service the employee is eligible to receive at the time, is less than the benefit payable under subdivision 2, the retired employee shall receive an amount that when added to the social security benefit will equal the amount payable under subdivision 2.

When an annuity is reduced under this subdivision, the percentage adjustments, if any, that have been applied to the original annuity under section 11A.18, before the reduction, must be compounded and applied to the reduced annuity. A former correctional employee employed by the state in a position covered by the regular plan or the unclassified employees retirement program between the ages of 58 and 65 shall receive a partial return of correctional contributions at retirement with five percent interest based on the following formula:

$$\text{Employee contributions contributed as a correctional employee in excess of the contributions the employee would have contributed as a regular employee} \times \frac{\text{Years and complete months of regular service between ages 58 and 65}}{7}$$

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352B.08, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [OPTIONAL ANNUITY FORMS.] In lieu of the single life annuity provided in subdivision 2, the member or former member with ~~ten~~ five years or more of service may elect an optional annuity form. The board of the Minnesota state retirement system shall establish a joint and survivor annuity, payable to a designated beneficiary for life, adjusted to the actuarial equivalent value of the single life annuity. The board shall also establish an additional optional annuity with an actuarial equivalent value of the single life annuity in the form of a joint and survivor annuity which provides that the elected annuity be reinstated to the single life annuity provided in subdivision 2, if after commencing the elected joint and survivor annuity, the designated beneficiary dies before the member, which reinstatement is not retroactive but takes effect for the first full month occurring after the death of the designated beneficiary. The board may also establish other actuarial equivalent value optional annuity forms. In establishing actuarial equivalent value optional annuity forms, each optional annuity form shall have the same present value as a regular single life annuity using the mortality table adopted by the board and the interest assumption specified in section 356.215, subdivision 4d, and the board shall obtain the written recommendation of the commission-retained actuary. These recommendations shall be a part of the permanent records of the board.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352B.10, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [OPTIONAL ANNUITY.] A disabled member ~~not eligible for~~ may, in lieu of survivorship coverage under section 352B.11, subdivision 2, ~~may~~ choose the normal disability benefit or an optional annuity as provided in section 352B.08, subdivision 2. The choice of an optional annuity must be made before commencement of payment of the disability benefit. It is effective ~~30 days after receipt of this choice or~~ on the date on which the disability benefit begins to accrue~~, whichever is later~~. ~~Upon becoming effective, the optional annuity begins to accrue on the date provided for the disability benefit.~~

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352B.11, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DEATH; PAYMENT TO SPOUSE AND CHILDREN.] If a member serving actively as a member, a member receiving the disability benefit provided by section 352B.10, subdivision 1, or a former member receiving a disability benefit as provided by section 352B.10, subdivision ~~3~~ 2, dies from any cause, the surviving spouse and dependent children are entitled to benefit payments as follows:

(a) A member with at least five years of allowable service ~~or a former member with at least 20 years of allowable service~~ is deemed to have elected a 100 percent joint and survivor annuity payable to a surviving spouse only on or after the date the member or former member became or would have become 55.

(b) The surviving spouse of a member who had credit for less than five years of service shall receive, for life, a monthly annuity equal to 20 percent of that part of the average monthly salary of the member from which deductions were made for retirement. If the surviving spouse remarries, the annuity shall cease as of the date of the remarriage.

(c) The surviving spouse of a member who had credit for at least five years service and who died after attaining 55 years of age, may elect to receive a 100 percent joint and survivor annuity, for life, notwithstanding a subsequent remarriage, in lieu of the annuity prescribed in paragraph (b).

(d) The surviving spouse of any member who had credit for five years or more and who was not 55 years of age at death, shall receive the benefit equal to 20 percent of the average monthly salary as described in clause (b) until the deceased member would have reached the age of 55 years, and beginning the first of the month following that date, may elect to receive the 100 percent joint and survivor annuity. If the surviving spouse remarries before the deceased member's 55th birthdate, benefits or annuities shall cease as of the date of remarriage. Remarriage after the deceased member's 55th birthday shall not affect the payment of the benefit.

(e) Each dependent child shall receive a monthly annuity equal to ten percent of that part of the average monthly salary of the former member from which deductions were made for retirement. A dependent child over 18 and under 22 years of age also may receive the monthly benefit provided in this section, if the child is continuously attending an accredited school as a full-time student during the normal school year as determined by the director. If the child does not continuously attend school but separates from full-time attendance during any part of a school year, the annuity shall cease at the end of the month of separation. In addition, a payment of $20 per month shall be prorated equally to surviving dependent children when the former member is survived by one or more dependent children. Payments for the benefit of any qualified dependent child must be made to the surviving spouse, or if there is none, to the legal guardian of the child. The maximum monthly benefit must not exceed 40 percent of the average monthly salary for any number of children.

(f) If the member dies under circumstances that entitle the surviving spouse and dependent children to receive benefits under the workers' compensation law, the workers' compensation benefits received by them must not be deducted from the benefits payable under this section.

(g) The surviving spouse of a deceased former member who had credit for five or more years of allowable service, but not the spouse of a former member receiving a disability benefit under section 352B.10, subdivision ~~3~~ 2, is entitled to receive the 100 percent joint and survivor annuity at the time the deceased member would have reached the age of 55 years, if the surviving spouse has not remarried before that date. If a former member dies who does not qualify for other benefits under this chapter, the surviving spouse or, if none, the children or heirs are entitled to a refund of the accumulated deductions left in the fund plus interest at the rate of five percent per year compounded annually.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352D.04, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. (a) An employee exercising an option to participate in the retirement program provided by this chapter may elect to purchase shares in one or a combination of the income share account, the growth share account, the money market account, the bond market account, the guaranteed return account, or the common stock index account established in section 11A.17. The employee may elect to participate in one or more of the investment accounts in the fund by specifying, on a form provided by the executive director, the percentage of the employee's contributions provided in subdivision 2 to be used to purchase shares in each of the accounts.

(b) Twice in any calendar year, a participant may indicate in writing on forms provided by the Minnesota state retirement system a choice of options for subsequent purchases of shares. Until a different written indication is made by the participant, the executive director shall purchase shares in the supplemental fund as selected by the participant. If no initial option is chosen, 100 percent income shares must be purchased for a participant. A change in choice of investment option is effective no later than the first pay date first occurring after 30 days following the receipt of the request for a change.

(c) One month before the start of a new guaranteed investment contract, a participant or former participant may elect to transfer all or a portion of the participant's shares previously purchased in the income share, growth share, common stock index, bond market, or money market accounts to the new guaranteed investment contract in the guaranteed return account. ~~If a partial transfer is made, a minimum of $1,000 must be transferred and a minimum balance of $1,000 must remain in the previously selected investment options.~~ Upon expiration of a guaranteed investment contract, the participant's shares attributable to that contract must be transferred to a new guaranteed investment contract unless the executive director is otherwise directed by the participant. Shares in the guaranteed return account may not be withdrawn from the fund or transferred to another account until the guaranteed investment contract has expired, unless the participant qualifies for withdrawal under section 352D.05 or for benefit payments under sections 352D.06 to 352D.075.

(d) Twice in any calendar year a participant or former participant may also change the investment options selected for all or a portion of the participant's shares previously purchased in accounts other than the guaranteed return account. ~~However, if a partial transfer is made a minimum~~

~~of $1,000 must be transferred and a minimum balance of $1,000 must remain in the previously selected investment option.~~ Changes in investment options for the participant's shares must be effected as soon as cash flow to an account practically permits, but not later than six months after the requested change.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352D.06, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. When a participant attains at least age ~~58~~ 55, is retired from covered service, and applies for a retirement annuity, the cash value of the participant's shares shall be transferred to the Minnesota postretirement investment fund and used to provide an annuity for the retired employee based upon the participant's age when the benefit begins to accrue according to the reserve basis used by the state employees retirement fund in determining pensions and reserves.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352D.075, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. If a participant dies leaving a spouse and there is no named beneficiary who survives to receive payment or the spouse is named beneficiary, the spouse may receive:

(1) The value of the participant's total shares;

(2) The value of one-half of the total shares and beginning at age ~~58~~ 55 or thereafter receive an annuity based on the value of one-half of the total shares, provided that if the spouse dies before receiving any annuity payments the value of said shares shall be paid to the spouse's children in equal shares, but if no such children survive then to the parents of the spouse in equal shares, but if no such children or parents survive, then to the estate of the spouse; or

(3) Beginning at age ~~58~~ 55 or thereafter receive an annuity based on the value of the total shares, provided that if the spouse dies before receiving any annuity payments the value of said shares shall be paid to the spouse's children in equal shares, but if no such children survive then to the parents of the spouse in equal shares, but if no such children or parents survive, then to the estate of the spouse; and further provided, if said spouse dies after receiving annuity payments but before receiving payments equal to the value of the employee shares, the value of the employee shares remaining shall be paid to the spouse's children in equal shares, but if no such children survive then to the parents of the spouse in equal shares, but if no such children or parents survive, then to the estate of the spouse.

Sec. 16. [DEADLINE EXTENSION IN CERTAIN INSTANCES.]

Notwithstanding any provision of Minnesota Statutes, section 352D.12, to the contrary, a participant on the effective date of this section may transfer prior service contributions or repay any refund under that section by September 30, 1989, or within one year of the person's participation, whichever is later.

Sec. 17. [REPEALER.]

Minnesota Statutes 1988, sections 352.03, subdivision 13; and 352.73, subdivision 3, are repealed.

Sec. 18. [EFFECTIVE DATES.]

Sections 1 to 15 and 17 are effective July 1, 1989. Section 16 is effective the day following final enactment.

The ~~state~~ employer shall make a contribution to the plan on behalf of every covered person in an amount equal to the deductions made from the salary of the person. The moneys so deducted and the ~~state~~ employer contribution shall be deposited to the credit of the state university and community college supplemental retirement plan account of the teachers retirement fund. The account is hereby established and shall be separate and distinct from other funds, accounts, or assets of the teachers retirement fund. ~~The money required to meet the obligation of the state as provided in this subdivision shall be contributed to the executive director of the teachers retirement association by the state.~~ Two percent of the amount of the salary deductions and employer contributions must be credited to the administrative expense reserve account of the supplemental retirement plan and must be used for payment of necessary and reasonable administrative expenses of the supplemental retirement plan as provided in section 354.65.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 136.82, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERALLY.] (a) The executive director of the teachers retirement fund shall redeem shares in the accounts of the Minnesota supplemental retirement investment fund standing in an employee's share account record under the following circumstances, but always in accordance with the laws and rules governing the Minnesota supplemental retirement investment fund:

(b) The executive director shall redeem shares under this subdivision when requested to do so in writing on forms provided by the executive director by a person having shares to the credit of the employee's share account record if the person is age 55 or older and is no longer employed by the state university board or state board for community colleges. In such case the person must receive the cash realized on the redemption of the shares. The person may direct the redemption of not more than 20 percent of the person's shares in the employee's share account record in any one year and may not direct more than one redemption in any one calendar month; provided, however, that the state university board or its designee, in the case of a person employed by the state university board, and the state board for community colleges or its designee, in the case of a person employed by the state board for community colleges, may, upon application, at their sole discretion, permit greater withdrawals in any one year.

(c) The executive director shall redeem shares under this subdivision when requested to do so in writing, on forms provided by the executive director, by a person having shares to the credit of the employee's share account record if the person has left employment by the state university board or state board for community colleges because of a total and permanent disability as defined in section 354.05, subdivision 14. If the executive director finds that the person is totally and permanently disabled and will as a result be unable to return to similar employment, the person must receive the cash realized on the redemption of the shares. The person may direct the redemption of not more than 20 percent of the shares in the employee's share account record in any one year and may not direct more than one redemption in any one calendar month; provided, however, that the state university board or its designee, in the case of a person employed by the state university board, and the state board for community colleges or its designee, in the case of a person employed by the state board for community colleges, may, upon application, at their sole discretion, permit greater withdrawals in any one year. If the person returns to good health, the person owes no restitution to the state or a fund established by its laws for a redemption under this paragraph.

(d) The executive director shall redeem shares under this subdivision in the event of the death of a person having shares to the credit of the employee's share account record and leaving a surviving spouse, when requested to do so in writing, on forms provided by the executive director, by the surviving spouse. The surviving spouse must receive the cash realized on the redemption of the shares. The surviving spouse may direct the redemption of not more than 20 percent of the shares in the deceased spouse's employee's share account record in any one year and may not direct more than one redemption in any one calendar month; provided, however, that the state university board or its designee, in the case of a person employed by the state university board, and the state board for community colleges or its designee, in the case of a person employed by the state board for community colleges, may, upon application, at their sole discretion, permit greater withdrawals in any one year. In that case the surviving spouse must receive the cash realized from the redemption of the shares. Upon the death

(e) In the event of the death of a person having shares to the credit of the employee's share account record and leaving no surviving spouse, the executive director shall redeem all shares to the credit of the employee's share account record and pay the cash realized from the redemption to the estate of the deceased person.

(f) The executive director shall redeem shares under this subdivision when requested to do so in writing, on forms provided by the executive director, by a person having shares to the credit of the employee's share account record if the person is no longer employed by the state university board or state board for community colleges, but does not qualify under the provisions of paragraphs (b) to (e). In that case, the person is entitled upon application to receive one-half of the cash realized on the redemption of shares ~~must be received by the person~~ and one-half ~~becomes the property~~ must be credited to the administrative expense reserve account of the supplemental retirement plan ~~account of the teachers retirement fund~~ for payment of necessary and reasonable administrative expenses of the supplemental retirement plan as provided in section 354.65. ~~Annually on July 1 the cancellations of the previous 12 months must be prorated among the employees share accounts in proportion to the value that each account bears to the total value of all share accounts.~~

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 136.82, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REDEMPTION OF SHARES AS AN ANNUITY.] A person who has shares to the credit of the employee's share account record, who is 55 years of age or older and who is no longer employed by the state university board or the state board for community colleges or who is totally and permanently disabled pursuant to subdivision 1, paragraph ~~(2)~~ (c), or who has the status of a surviving spouse of a person who has shares to the credit of the employee's share account pursuant to subdivision 1, paragraph ~~(3)~~ (d), may redeem all or part of the shares to purchase an annuity by depositing the cash realized upon redemption with the executive director of the teachers retirement fund and receive in exchange an annuity for life or an optional annuity as hereinafter provided. The election to purchase an annuity may be made only once by any individual. If an election is made before the date on which the person is entitled to request redemption, the redemption shall not be made prior to the date upon which the person would be entitled to make the request. The annuity purchase rates shall be based on the annuity table of mortality adopted by the board of trustees of the teachers retirement fund for the fund as provided in section 354.07, subdivision 1, using the interest assumption specified in section 356.215, subdivision 4d. The amount of the annuity for life shall be that amount which has a present value equal to the cash realized on the redemption of the shares as of the first day of the month next following the date of the election to purchase an annuity. The board of trustees of the teachers retirement fund shall establish an optional joint and survivor annuity, an optional annuity payable for a period certain and for life thereafter, and an optional guaranteed refund annuity paying the annuitant a fixed amount for life with the guarantee that in the event of death the balance of the cash realized from the redemption of shares is payable to the designated beneficiary. The optional forms of annuity shall be actuarially equivalent to the single life annuity as defined in section 354.05, subdivision 7. In establishing these optional forms, the board of trustees shall obtain the written recommendation of the actuary retained by the legislative commission on pensions and retirement, and these recommendations shall be a part of the permanent records of the board of trustees.

(d) "Record" means the petition and the documentation that the petitioners submit with the petition, the executive director's answer to the petition and documentation submitted with it, and any documentation the board allows to be submitted at or after the meeting at which the petition is considered.

Subd. 2. [NOTICE OF TERMINATION OR DENIAL.] If the executive director terminates a benefit or denies an application or a written request of any person claiming a right under this chapter or the applicable sections of chapters 136, 355, and 356, the executive director must serve upon that person a written notice. The notice must contain:

(1) the reasons for the termination or denial;

(2) notice that the person may petition the board for a review of the termination or denial and that the petition for review must be filed within 60 days of the receipt of the written notice;

(3) a statement that failure to petition the board within 60 days will preclude the person from contesting in any other court procedure or administrative hearing, the issues determined by the executive director; and

(4) a copy of this section.

Subd. 3. [PETITION FOR REVIEW.] A person who claims a right under subdivision 2 and whose benefit has been terminated or whose application or written request has been denied may petition for a review of that decision by the board. A petition under this section must be served upon the executive director personally, or by mail postmarked no later than 60 days after the petitioner received the notice required by subdivision 2. The petition must include the sworn, notarized statement of the reasons the petitioner believes the decision of the executive director should be reversed or modified and may include relevant documentation.

Subd. 4. [ANSWER; RECORD FOR HEARING.] Within a reasonable time after receiving a petition, the executive director must serve the petitioner with an answer to the petition with all relevant documentation and with notice of the time and place of the regular or special board meeting at which the board will consider the petition. The documentation need not duplicate the documentation submitted by the petitioner. Not later than ten days before the board meeting at which the petition will be heard and at the time the petition is considered by the board, the executive director must, personally or by mail, deliver a copy of the relevant documentation to each board member. Each board member who participates in the decision on the petition must be familiar with all relevant documentation.

Subd. 5. [HEARING.] The board shall hold a timely hearing on a petition for review. The board shall make its decision on a petition solely on the relevant documentation as submitted and the proceedings of the hearing. At the hearing the petitioner, the petitioner's attorney, and the executive director may state and discuss with the board their positions with respect to the petition. The board may allow further documentation to be placed in the record at or subsequent to the board meeting at which the petition is considered. If the board allows additional documentation into the record at or subsequent to the board meeting, it may make a final determination on the petition at that board meeting only upon the agreement of both the petitioner and the executive director.

Subd. 6. [TERMINATION OF BENEFITS.] *If the executive director proposes to terminate a benefit that is being paid to any person, before terminating the benefit the executive director must, in addition to the other procedures prescribed herein, give the person written or oral notice of the proposed termination. The notice must explain the reason for the proposed termination. The person must be given an opportunity, verbally or in writing, to explain why the benefit should not be terminated. Subd. 7. [MEDICAL ADVISOR ACTION.] If a person petitions the board to reverse or modify a determination by the executive director finding that the petitioner, for medical reasons, does not or has ceased to qualify for a disability benefit, the board may resubmit the matter to the medical advisor for reconsideration, with or without instructions to obtain further medical examinations. The board may make a determination contrary to the recommendation of the medical advisor only if there is expert medical evidence in the record to support its contrary decision. If there is no medical opinion contrary to the opinion of the medical advisor in the record and the medical advisor asserts that the decision was made in accordance with the disability standard in section 354.05, subdivision 14, the board must follow the determination of the medical advisor. The board may make a determination different from the recommendation of the medical advisor on issues that do not involve a medical opinion.

Subd. 8. [BOARD FINDINGS.] After the board has made a decision on a petition, the executive director must prepare findings of fact, the board's reasons for its conclusions, and the board's final order for the signature of the chair or other board member as the board, by resolution, may designate. The executive director must serve the findings, conclusions, and order on the petitioner by certified mail.

Subd. 9. [APPEALS.] Within 30 days of receipt of the findings, conclusions, and final order, the petitioner may appeal the board's decision by writ of certiorari to the court of appeals. Failure to appeal to that court within the 30 days precludes the petitioner from later raising, in any court procedure or administrative hearing, those substantive and procedural issues that reasonably should have been raised upon appeal.

Subd. 10. [REFERRAL FOR ADMINISTRATIVE HEARING.] *Notwithstanding sections 14.03, 14.06, and 14.57 to 14.69, a challenge to a determination of the executive director must be conducted exclusively under the procedures in this section. Subd. 11. [PETITION WITHOUT NOTICE.] A person who is not entitled to notice of a right of review under this section may nevertheless receive review of a decision of the executive director which affects the person's rights by petitioning the board under this section within 60 days of the time the person knew or should have known of the disputed decision.

(1) The minimum obligation of a municipality in which the retirement coverage for newly hired police officers or salaried firefighters has been modified pursuant to subdivision 1 with respect to the local relief association shall be determined and governed in accordance with the provisions of sections 69.77, 356.215 and 356.216, except that the normal cost calculation for the relief association shall be computed as a percentage of the compensation paid to the active members of the relief association. The compensation paid to persons with retirement coverage modified pursuant to subdivision 1 shall not be included in any of the computations made in determining the obligation of the municipality with respect to the local relief association.

(2) The contribution rate of members of the local relief association shall be governed by section 69.77, unless a special law establishing a greater member contribution rate is applicable whereupon it shall continue to govern. The member contribution rate of persons with retirement coverage modified pursuant to subdivision 1 shall be governed by section 353.65.

(3) Unless otherwise provided for by law, when every active member of the local relief association retires or terminates from active duty, the local relief association shall cease to exist as a legal entity and the assets of the special fund of the relief association shall be transferred to a trust fund to be established by the appropriate municipality for the purpose of paying service pensions and retirement benefits to recipient beneficiaries. Recipient beneficiaries who are competent to act on their own behalf shall be entitled to select the prescribed number of trustees of the trust fund as provided in this clause, subject to the approval of the governing body of the municipality. If there are at least five recipient beneficiaries, the trust fund shall be managed by a board of trustees composed of five persons selected by the recipient beneficiaries of the fund. The municipality shall provide in its annual budget for at least the aggregate amount of service pensions, disability benefits, survivorship benefits and refunds which are projected as payable for the following calendar year, as determined by the board of trustees of the trust fund, less the amount of assets in the trust fund as of the end of the most current calendar year for which figures are available, valued pursuant to section 356.20, subdivision 4, clause (1)(a), if the difference between those two figures is a positive number.

(5) In calculating the amount of service pensions and other retirement benefits payable from the local relief association and in calculating the amount of any automatic post retirement increases in those service pensions and retirement benefits based on the salary paid or payable to active members or escalated in any fashion, the salary for use as the base for the service pension or retirement benefit calculation and the post retirement increase calculation for the local relief association shall be the salary for the applicable position as specified in the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the relief association as of the date immediately prior to the effective date of the modification of retirement coverage for newly hired personnel pursuant to subdivision 1, as the applicable salary is reset by the municipality periodically, irrespective of whether retirement coverage for persons holding the applicable position used in calculations is provided by the relief association or by the public employees police and fire fund. If for a local salaried firefighters relief association, the specified position no longer exists because of a reorganization of the fire department as a volunteer fire department, the percentage increase in the salary of the position of a top grade patrol officer in the police department of the municipality must be the basis for service pension and retirement benefit postretirement increase calculations.

(6) If the modification of retirement coverage implemented pursuant to subdivision 1 is applicable to a local police relief association, the police state aid received by the municipality shall be disbursed pursuant to section 69.031, subdivision 5, clause (2)(c). If the modification of retirement coverage implemented pursuant to subdivision 1 is applicable to a local firefighters' relief association, the fire state aid received by the applicable municipality shall be disbursed as the municipality at its option may elect. Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 424A.02, subdivision 13, is amended to read:

Subd. 13. [COMBINED SERVICE PENSIONS.] If the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the associations so provide, a volunteer firefighter with total service credit of ten years or more, if every affected relief association does not require only a five-year service vesting requirement, or

The prorated service pension must be based on the service pension amount in effect for the relief association on the date volunteer firefighting services covered by that relief association terminate. To receive a service pension under this subdivision, the firefighter must become a member of the second or succeeding association and give notice of membership to the prior association within two years of termination of active service with the prior association. The notice must be attested to by the association secretary.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 424A.10, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITION.] For purposes of this section, "qualified recipient" means an individual who receives ~~an involuntary~~ a lump sum distribution of pension or retirement benefits from a firefighters' relief association for service performed as a volunteer firefighter.

Subd. 2. [PAYMENT OF SUPPLEMENTAL BENEFIT.] Upon the payment by a firefighters' relief association of ~~an involuntary~~ a lump sum distribution to a qualified recipient, the association must pay a supplemental benefit to the qualified recipient. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the relief association may pay the supplemental benefit out of its special fund. The amount of this benefit equals ten percent of the regular ~~involuntary~~ lump sum distribution that is paid on the basis of service as a volunteer firefighter. In no case may the amount of the supplemental benefit exceed $1,000.

Subd. 3. [STATE REIMBURSEMENT.] By February 15 of each year, the relief association shall apply to the commissioner of revenue for state reimbursement of the amount of supplemental benefits paid under subdivision 2 during the preceding calendar year. By March 15 the commissioner shall reimburse the relief association for the amount of the supplemental benefits paid to qualified recipients. The commissioner of revenue shall prescribe the form of and supporting information that must be supplied as part of the application for state reimbursement. The reimbursement payment must be deposited in the special fund of the relief association.

Subd. 4. [IN LIEU OF INCOME TAX EXCLUSION.] The supplemental benefit provided by this section is in lieu of the state income tax exclusion for ~~involuntary~~ lump sum distributions of retirement benefits paid to volunteer firefighters. If the law is modified to exclude or exempt volunteer firefighters' lump sum distributions from state income taxation, the supplemental benefits under this section may no longer be paid beginning with the first calendar year in which the exclusion or exemption is effective. This subdivision does not apply to exemption of all or part of a lump sum distribution under section 290.032 or 290.0802.

BENEFIT CHANGES

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.01, subdivision 19, is amended to read:

Subd. 19. [RETIREMENT.] "Retirement" means the time after a state employee is entitled to an accrued annuity, as defined in subdivision 21, payable under an application for annuity filed in the office of the system as provided in section 352.115, subdivision 8 or, in the case of an employee who has received a disability benefit, when that employee reaches normal retirement age ~~65~~.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 25. [NORMAL RETIREMENT AGE.] "Normal retirement age" means age 65 for a person who first became a covered employee before July 1, 1989. For a person who first becomes a covered employee after June 30, 1989, normal retirement age means the higher of age 65 or "retirement age," as defined in United States Code, title 42, section 416(l), as amended.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.04, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EMPLOYEE CONTRIBUTIONS.] The employee contribution to the fund must be equal to ~~3.73~~ 4.28 percent of salary, beginning with the first full pay period after June 30, ~~1984~~ 1989. These contributions must be made by deduction from salary as provided in subdivision 4.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.04, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [EMPLOYER CONTRIBUTIONS.] The employer contribution to the fund must be equal to ~~3.90~~ 4.45 percent of salary beginning with the first full pay period after June 30, ~~1984~~ 1989.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.113, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AGE AND SERVICE REQUIREMENTS.] Any employee covered by the system who is less than ~~65 years old~~ normal retirement age who becomes totally and permanently disabled after ~~five~~ three or more years of allowable service is entitled to a disability benefit in an amount provided in subdivision 3. If the disabled employee's state service has terminated at any time, the employee must have at least ~~three~~ two years of allowable service after last becoming a state employee covered by the system.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.113, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [RETIREMENT STATUS AT NORMAL RETIREMENT AGE ~~65~~.] The disability benefit paid to a disabled employee under this section ends when the employee reaches normal retirement age ~~65~~. If the disabled employee is still totally and permanently disabled when the employee reaches normal retirement age ~~65~~, the employee shall be considered to be a retired employee. If the employee had chosen an optional annuity under subdivision 3, the employee shall receive an annuity in accordance with the terms of the optional annuity previously chosen. If the employee had not chosen an optional annuity pursuant to subdivision 3, the employee may then choose to receive either a normal retirement annuity equal in amount to the disability benefit paid before the employee reached normal retirement age ~~65~~ or an optional annuity as provided in section 352.116, subdivision 3. The choice of an optional annuity must be made before reaching normal retirement age ~~65~~. If an optional annuity is chosen, the choice is effective on the date the employee ~~becomes 65 years old~~ attains normal retirement age and the optional annuity shall begin to accrue the first of the month following the month in which the employee attains ~~65~~ this age.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.115, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AGE AND SERVICE REQUIREMENTS.] After separation from state service, any employee (1) who has attained the age of at least 55 years and who is entitled to credit for at least ~~five~~ three years allowable service, or (2) who has received credit for at least 30 years allowable service regardless of age, is entitled upon application to a retirement annuity.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.115, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [AVERAGE SALARY.] The retirement annuity hereunder payable at normal retirement age ~~65~~ or thereafter must be computed in accordance with the applicable provisions of the formula stated in subdivision 3, on the basis of the employee's average salary for the period of allowable service. This retirement annuity is known as the "normal" retirement annuity.

For each year of allowable service, "average salary" of an employee in determining a retirement annuity means the average of the highest five successive years of salary upon which the employee has made contributions to the retirement fund by payroll deductions. Average salary must be based upon all allowable service if this service is less than five years.

"Average salary" does not include the payment of accrued unused annual leave or overtime paid at time of final separation from state service if paid in a lump sum nor does it include the reduced salary, if any, paid during the period the employee is entitled to workers' compensation benefit payments for temporary disability.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.115, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [RETIREMENT ANNUITY FORMULA.] (a) This paragraph, in conjunction with section 352.116, subdivision 1, applies to a person who became a covered employee before July 1, 1989, unless paragraph (b), in conjunction with section 352.116, subdivision 1a, produces a higher annuity amount, in which case paragraph (b) will apply. The employee's average salary, as defined in subdivision 2, multiplied by one percent per year of allowable service for the first ten years and 1.5 percent for each later year of allowable service and pro rata for completed months less than a full year shall determine the amount of the retirement annuity to which the employee is entitled.

(b) This paragraph applies to a person who first became a covered employee after June 30, 1989, and to any other employee whose annuity amount, when calculated under this paragraph and in conjunction with section 352.116, subdivision 1a, is higher than it is when calculated under paragraph (a), in conjunction with section 352.116, subdivision 1. The employee's average salary, as defined in subdivision 2, multiplied by 1.5 percent for each year of allowable service and pro rata for months less than a full year shall determine the amount of the retirement annuity to which the employee is entitled.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.116, is amended to read:

352.116 [ANNUITIES UPON RETIREMENT.]

Subdivision 1. [REDUCED ANNUITY BEFORE NORMAL RETIREMENT AGE ~~65~~.] This subdivision applies only to a person who first became a covered employee before July 1, 1989, and whose annuity is higher when calculated under section 352.115, subdivision 3, paragraph (a), in conjunction with this subdivision than when calculated under section 352.115, subdivision 3, paragraph (b), in conjunction with subdivision 1a.

(a) Any employee who is eligible for a retirement annuity under section 352.115, subdivision 1, and who retires before normal retirement age ~~65~~ with credit for ~~less than~~ at least three but less than 30 years of allowable service shall be paid the normal retirement annuity provided in section 352.115, subdivisions 2 and 3, paragraph (a), reduced ~~so that the reduced annuity is the actuarial equivalent of the annuity that would be payable to~~

by one-quarter of one percent for each month that the employee ~~if the employee deferred receipt of the annuity from the day the annuity begins to accrue to~~ is under normal retirement age ~~65~~ at the time of retirement. ~~Any~~ An employee who is eligible for a retirement annuity under section 352.115, subdivision 1, and who retires prior to age 62 with credit for at least 30 years of allowable service shall be paid the normal retirement annuity provided in section 352.115, subdivisions 2 and 3, paragraph (a), reduced ~~so that the reduced annuity is the actuarial equivalent of the annuity that would be payable to the employee if the employee deferred receipt of the annuity from the day the annuity begins to accrue to~~ by one-quarter of one percent for each month that the employee is under age 62 at the time of retirement.

Subd. 1a. [ACTUARIAL REDUCTION FOR EARLY RETIREMENT.] This subdivision applies to a person who first became a covered employee after June 30, 1989, and to any other employee whose annuity is higher when calculated under section 352.115, subdivision 3, paragraph (b), in conjunction with this subdivision than when calculated under section 352.115, subdivision 3, paragraph (a), in conjunction with subdivision 1. An employee who retires before the normal retirement age shall be paid the normal retirement annuity provided in section 352.115, subdivisions 2 and 3, paragraph (b), reduced so that the reduced annuity is the actuarial equivalent of the annuity that would be payable to the employee if the employee deferred receipt of the annuity until the normal retirement age.

Subd. 2. [NORMAL ANNUITY AT NORMAL RETIREMENT AGE ~~65~~.] Any employee who retires after reaching normal retirement age ~~65~~ shall be paid the annuity provided in section 352.115.

Subd. 3. [OPTIONAL ANNUITIES.] The board shall establish an optional retirement annuity in the form of a joint and survivor annuity. The board may also establish an optional annuity in the form of an annuity payable for a period certain and for life thereafter ~~or establish an optional annuity which takes the form of a joint and survivor annuity providing that, if after the joint and survivor annuity becomes payable, the person with the designated remainder interest in the annuity dies before the former member, the annuity amount must be reinstated to a normal single life annuity amount as of the first day of the month after the day the person dies~~. In addition, the board may also establish an optional annuity that takes the form of an annuity calculated on the basis of the age of the retired employee at retirement and payable for the period before the retired employee becomes eligible for social security old age retirement benefits in a greater amount than the amount of the annuity calculated under subdivision 2 on the basis of the age of the retired employee at retirement but equal so far as possible to the social security old age retirement benefit and the adjusted retirement annuity amount payable immediately after the retired employee becomes eligible for social security old age retirement benefits and payable for the period after the retired employee becomes eligible for social security old age retirement benefits in an amount less than the amount of the annuity calculated under subdivisions 2 and 3. The social security leveling option may be calculated based on broad average social security old age retirement benefits. Except as provided in subdivision 3a, the optional forms must be actuarially equivalent to the normal single life annuity forms provided in sections 352.115 and 352.116, whichever applies.

Subd. 3a. [BOUNCE-BACK ANNUITY.] (a) If a retired employee or disabilitant selects a joint and survivor annuity option under subdivision

3, the retired employee or disabilitant must receive a normal single-life annuity if the designated optional annuity beneficiary dies before the retired employee or disabilitant. Under this option, no reduction may be made in the annuity to provide for restoration of the normal single-life annuity in the event of the death of the designated optional annuity beneficiary.

(b) A retired employee or disabilitant who selected an optional joint and survivor annuity before July 1, 1989, but did not choose an option that provides that the normal single-life annuity is payable to the retired employee or the disabilitant if the designated optional annuity beneficiary dies first, is eligible for restoration of the normal single-life annuity if the designated optional annuity beneficiary dies first, without further actuarial reduction of the person's annuity. A retired employee or disabilitant who selected an optional joint and survivor annuity, but whose designated optional annuity beneficiary died before July 1, 1989, shall receive a normal single-life annuity after that date, but shall not receive retroactive payments for periods before that date.

(c) A retired employee or disabilitant who took a further actuarial reduction to elect an optional joint and survivor annuity that provides that the normal annuity is payable to the retired employee or disabilitant if the designated optional beneficiary died before July 1, 1989, shall have the annuity increased as of July 1, 1989, to the amount the person would have received if, at the time of retirement or disability, the person had selected only optional survivor coverage that would not have provided for restoration of the normal annuity upon the death of the designated optional annuity beneficiary. Any annuity or benefit increase under this paragraph is effective only for payments made after June 30, 1989, and is not retroactive for payments made before July 1, 1989.

Subd. 4. [DETERMINING ACTUARIAL EQUIVALENCY.] In establishing the procedure for determining the actuarial equivalency of early retirement annuities as required under subdivision ~~1~~ 1a or in establishing actuarial equivalent optional retirement annuity forms as required under subdivision 3, the board shall obtain the written recommendation of the commission-retained actuary. The recommendations shall be a part of the permanent records of the board.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.12, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEATH BEFORE TERMINATION OF SERVICE.] If an employee dies before state service has terminated and neither a survivor annuity nor a reversionary annuity is payable, or if a former employee who has sufficient service credit to be entitled to an annuity dies before the benefit has become payable, the director shall make a refund to the last designated beneficiary or, if there is none, to the surviving spouse or, if none, to the employee's surviving children in equal shares or, if none, to the employee's surviving parents in equal shares or, if none, to the representative of the estate in an amount equal to the accumulated employee contributions plus interest thereon to the date of death at the rate of ~~five~~ six percent per annum compounded annually. Upon the death of an employee who has received a refund that was later repaid in full, interest must be paid on the repaid refund only from the date of repayment. If the repayment was made in installments, interest must be paid only from the date installment payments began. The designated beneficiary, surviving spouse, or representative of the estate of an employee who had received a disability benefit is not entitled to interest upon any balance remaining to the decedent's credit in the fund at the time of death.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.12, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [SURVIVING SPOUSE BENEFIT.] If an employee or former employee is at least 50 years old and has credit for at least ~~five~~ three years allowable service or who has credit for at least 30 years of allowable service, regardless of age, dies before an annuity or disability benefit has become payable, notwithstanding any designation of beneficiary to the contrary, the surviving spouse of the employee may elect to receive, in lieu of the refund with interest provided in subdivision 1, an annuity equal to the joint and 100 percent survivor annuity which the employee could have qualified for had the employee terminated service on the date of death. The surviving spouse may apply for the annuity at any time after the date on which the deceased employee would have attained the required age for retirement based on the employee's allowable service. The annuity must be computed as provided in sections 352.115, subdivisions 1, 2, and 3, and 352.116, subdivisions 1, 1a, and 3. Sections 352.22, subdivision 3, and 352.72, subdivision 2, apply to a deferred annuity payable under this subdivision. The annuity must cease with the last payment received by the surviving spouse in the lifetime of the surviving spouse. An amount equal to the excess, if any, of the accumulated contributions credited to the account of the deceased employee in excess of the total of the benefits paid and payable to the surviving spouse must be paid to the deceased employee's last designated beneficiary or, if none, to the surviving children of the deceased spouse in equal shares or, if none, to the surviving parents of the deceased spouse or, if none, to the representative of the estate of the deceased spouse. Any employee may request in writing that this subdivision not apply and that payment be made only to a designated beneficiary as otherwise provided by this chapter.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.12, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [DEATH AFTER SERVICE TERMINATION.] Except as provided in subdivision 1, if a former employee covered by the system dies and has not received an annuity, a retirement allowance, or a disability benefit, a refund must be made to the last designated beneficiary or, if there is none, to the surviving spouse or, if none, to the employee's surviving children in equal shares or, if none, to the employee's surviving parents in equal shares or, if none, to the representative of the estate in an amount equal to accumulated employee contributions. The refund must include interest at the rate of ~~five~~ six percent per year compounded annually. The interest must be computed to the first day of the month in which the refund is processed and be based on fiscal year balances.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.22, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [AMOUNT OF REFUND.] Except as provided in subdivision 3, any person who ceased to be a state employee after June 30, 1973, by reason of termination of state service shall receive a refund in an amount equal to employee accumulated contributions plus interest at the rate of ~~five~~ six percent per year compounded annually. Interest must be computed to the first day of the month in which the refund is processed and must be based on fiscal year balances.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.22, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DEFERRED ANNUITY.] (a) Any employee with at least ~~five~~ three years of allowable service when termination occurs may elect to leave the accumulated contributions in the fund and thereby be entitled to a deferred retirement annuity. This annuity must be computed as provided by the law in effect when state service terminated, on the basis of allowable service before termination of service.

(b) An employee on layoff or on leave of absence without pay, except a leave of absence for health reasons, who does not return to state service shall have any annuity, deferred annuity, or other benefit to which the employee may become entitled computed under the law in effect on the last working day.

(c) No application for a deferred annuity shall be made more than 60 days before the time the former employee reaches the required age for entitlement to the payment of the annuity. The deferred annuity shall begin to accrue no earlier than 60 days before the date the application is filed in the office of the system, but not (1) before the date the employee reaches the required age for entitlement to the annuity nor (2) before the day following the termination of state service in a position not covered by the retirement system nor (3) before the day following the termination of employment in a position that requires the employee to be a member of either the public employees retirement association or the teachers retirement association.

(d) Application for the accumulated contributions left on deposit with the fund may be made at any time after 30 days following the date of termination of service.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.72, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ENTITLEMENT TO ANNUITY.] (a) Any person who has been an employee covered by a retirement system listed in paragraph (b) is entitled when qualified to an annuity from each fund if total allowable service in all funds or in any two of these funds totals ~~five~~ three or more years.

(b) This section applies to the Minnesota state retirement system, the public employees retirement association including the public employees retirement association police and firefighters fund, the teachers retirement association, the state patrol retirement association, or any other public employee retirement system in the state with a similar provision, except as noted in paragraph (c).

(c) This section does not apply to other funds providing benefits for police officers or firefighters.

(d) No portion of the allowable service upon which the retirement annuity from one fund is based shall be again used in the computation for benefits from another fund. No refund may have been taken from any one of these funds since service entitling the employee to coverage under the system or the employee's membership in any of the associations last terminated. The annuity from each fund must be determined by the appropriate provisions of the law except that the requirement that a person must have at least ~~five~~ three years allowable service in the respective system or association does not apply for the purposes of this section if the combined service in two or more of these funds equals ~~five~~ three or more years.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.72, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [EARLY RETIREMENT.] The requirements and provisions for retirement before normal retirement age ~~65~~ in sections 352.115, subdivision 1, and 352.116 also apply to an employee fulfilling the requirements with a combination of service as provided in subdivision 1.

Sec. 18. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.85, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBILITY; RETIREMENT ANNUITY.] Any person who is employed by the department of military affairs other than as a full-time firefighter, who is covered by the general employee retirement plan of the system as provided in section 352.01, subdivision 23, who is ordered to active duty under section 190.08, subdivision 3, who elects this special retirement coverage under subdivision 4, who is required to retire from federal military status at an age earlier than normal retirement age ~~65~~ by applicable federal laws or regulations and who terminates employment as a state employee upon attaining that mandatory retirement age is entitled, upon application, to a retirement annuity computed in accordance with section 352.115, subdivisions 2 and 3, without any reduction for early retirement under section 352.116, subdivision 1 or 1a.

Sec. 19. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.93, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [BASIS OF ANNUITY; WHEN TO APPLY.] After separation from state service an employee covered under section 352.91 who has reached age 55 years and has credit for at least ~~five~~ three years of covered correctional service and regular Minnesota state retirement system service is entitled upon application to a retirement annuity under this section based only on covered correctional employees' service. Application may be made no earlier than 60 days before the date the employee is eligible to retire by reason of both age and service requirements.

In this section, "average salary" means the average of the monthly salary during the employees' highest five successive years of salary as an employee covered by the Minnesota state retirement system. Average salary must be based upon all allowable service if this service is less than five years.

Sec. 20. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.93, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [PAYMENTS; DURATION AND AMOUNT.] The annuity under this section shall begin to accrue as provided in section 352.115, subdivision 8, and must be paid for an additional 84 full calendar months or to the first of the month following the month in which the employee ~~becomes~~ attains normal retirement age ~~65~~, whichever occurs first, except that payment must not cease before the first of the month following the month in which the employee becomes 62. It must then be reduced to the amount as calculated under section 352.115, except that if this amount, when added to the social security benefit based on state service the employee is eligible to receive at the time, is less than the benefit payable under subdivision 2, the retired employee shall receive an amount that when added to the social security benefit will equal the amount payable under subdivision 2.

When an annuity is reduced under this subdivision, the percentage adjustments, if any, that have been applied to the original annuity under section 11A.18, before the reduction, must be compounded and applied to the reduced annuity. A former correctional employee employed by the state in a position covered by the regular plan between the ~~ages~~ age of 58 and ~~65~~ normal retirement age shall receive a partial return of correctional contributions at retirement with ~~five~~ six percent interest based on the following formula:

| Employee contributions contributed as a correctional employee in excess of the contributions the employee would have contributed as a regular employee | X | Years and complete months of regular service between ~~ages~~ age 58 and ~~65~~ the normal retirement age . . . . . ~~7~~ number of years between age 58 and normal retirement age |

Sec. 21. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.95, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [NON-JOB-RELATED DISABILITY.] Any covered correctional employee who, after at least ~~five~~ three years of covered correctional service, before reaching the age of 55 becomes disabled and physically unfit to perform the duties of the position because of sickness or injury occurring while not engaged in covered employment, is entitled to a disability benefit based on covered correctional service only. The disability benefit must be computed as provided in section 352.93, subdivisions 1 and 2, and computed as though the employee had at least ten years of covered correctional service.

Sec. 22. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.95, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [RETIREMENT STATUS AT NORMAL RETIREMENT AGE ~~65~~.] The disability benefit paid to a disabled correctional employee under this section shall terminate at the end of the month in which the employee reaches age 62. If the disabled correctional employee is still disabled when the employee reaches age 62, the employee shall be deemed to be a retired employee. If the employee had elected an optional annuity under subdivision 1a, the employee shall receive an annuity in accordance with the terms of the optional annuity previously elected. If the employee had not elected an optional annuity under subdivision 1a, the employee may then either elect to receive a normal retirement annuity computed in the manner provided in section 352.115 or elect to receive an optional annuity as provided in section 352.116, subdivision 3, based on the same length of service as used in the calculation of the disability benefit. Election of an optional annuity must be made before reaching age 62. The reduction for retirement before normal retirement age ~~65~~ as provided in section 352.116, subdivision 1 or 1a, does not apply. The savings clause provision of section 352.93, subdivision 3, applies. If an optional annuity is elected, the optional annuity shall begin to accrue on the first of the month following the month in which the employee reaches age 62.

Sec. 23. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352B.01, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [AVERAGE SALARY.] "Average monthly salary" means the average of the highest monthly salaries for five years of service as a member. Average monthly salary must be based upon all allowable service if this service is less than five years. It does not include any amounts of severance pay or any reduced salary paid during the period the person is entitled to workers' compensation benefit payments for temporary disability.

Sec. 24. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352B.08, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [WHO IS ELIGIBLE; WHEN TO APPLY; ACCRUAL.] Every member who is credited with ~~five~~ three or more years of allowable service is entitled to separate from state service and upon becoming 55 years old, is entitled to receive a life annuity, upon separation from state service. Members shall apply for an annuity in a form and manner prescribed by the executive director. No application may be made more than 60 days before the date the member is eligible to retire by reason of both age and service requirements. An annuity begins to accrue no earlier than 90 days before the date the application is filed with the executive director.

Sec. 25. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352B.11, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REFUND OF PAYMENTS.] A member who has not received other benefits under this chapter is entitled to a refund of payments made by salary deduction, plus interest, if the member is separated, either voluntarily or involuntarily, from state service that entitled the member to membership. In the event of the member's death, the member's estate is entitled to the refund. Interest must be computed at the rate of ~~five~~ six percent a year, compounded annually. To receive a refund, the member must apply on a form prescribed by the executive director.

Sec. 26. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352B.11, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DEATH; PAYMENT TO SPOUSE AND CHILDREN.] If a member serving actively as a member, a member receiving the disability benefit provided by section 352B.10, subdivision 1, or a former member receiving a disability benefit as provided by section 352B.10, subdivision ~~3~~ 2, dies from any cause, the surviving spouse and dependent children are entitled to benefit payments as follows:

(a) A member with at least ~~five~~ three years of allowable service or a former member with at least 20 years of allowable service is deemed to have elected a 100 percent joint and survivor annuity payable to a surviving spouse only on or after the date the member or former member became or would have become 55.

(b) The surviving spouse of a member who had credit for less than ~~five~~ three years of service shall receive, for life, a monthly annuity equal to 20 percent of that part of the average monthly salary of the member from which deductions were made for retirement. If the surviving spouse remarries, the annuity shall cease as of the date of the remarriage.

(c) The surviving spouse of a member who had credit for at least ~~five~~ three years service and who died after attaining 55 years of age, may elect to receive a 100 percent joint and survivor annuity, for life, notwithstanding a subsequent remarriage, in lieu of the annuity prescribed in paragraph (b).

(d) The surviving spouse of any member who had credit for ~~five~~ three years or more and who was not 55 years of age at death, shall receive the benefit equal to 20 percent of the average monthly salary as described in clause (b) until the deceased member would have reached the age of 55 years, and beginning the first of the month following that date, may elect to receive the 100 percent joint and survivor annuity. If the surviving spouse remarries before the deceased member's 55th birthdate, benefits or annuities shall cease as of the date of remarriage. Remarriage after the deceased member's 55th birthday shall not affect the payment of the benefit.

(e) Each dependent child shall receive a monthly annuity equal to ten percent of that part of the average monthly salary of the former member from which deductions were made for retirement. A dependent child over 18 and under 22 years of age also may receive the monthly benefit provided in this section, if the child is continuously attending an accredited school as a full-time student during the normal school year as determined by the director. If the child does not continuously attend school but separates from full-time attendance during any part of a school year, the annuity shall cease at the end of the month of separation. In addition, a payment of $20 per month shall be prorated equally to surviving dependent children when the former member is survived by one or more dependent children. Payments for the benefit of any qualified dependent child must be made to the surviving spouse, or if there is none, to the legal guardian of the child. The maximum monthly benefit must not exceed 40 percent of the average monthly salary for any number of children.

(f) If the member dies under circumstances that entitle the surviving spouse and dependent children to receive benefits under the workers' compensation law, the workers' compensation benefits received by them must not be deducted from the benefits payable under this section.

(g) The surviving spouse of a deceased former member who had credit for ~~five~~ three or more years of allowable service, but not the spouse of a former member receiving a disability benefit under section 352B.10, subdivision 3, is entitled to receive the 100 percent joint and survivor annuity at the time the deceased member would have reached the age of 55 years, if the surviving spouse has not remarried before that date. If a former member dies who does not qualify for other benefits under this chapter, the surviving spouse or, if none, the children or heirs are entitled to a refund of the accumulated deductions left in the fund plus interest at the rate of ~~five~~ six percent per year compounded annually.

Sec. 27. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352B.30, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ENTITLEMENT TO ANNUITY.] Any person who has been an employee covered by the Minnesota state retirement system, or a member of the public employees retirement association including the public employees retirement association police and firefighters' fund, or the teachers retirement association, or the state patrol retirement fund, or any other public employee retirement system in Minnesota having a like provision but excluding all other funds providing benefits for police or firefighters is entitled when qualified to an annuity from each fund if total allowable service in all funds or in any two of these funds totals ~~five~~ three or more years. No part of the allowable service upon which the retirement annuity from one fund is based may again be used in the computation for benefits from another fund. The member must not have taken a refund from any one of these funds since service entitling the member to coverage under the system or membership in any of the associations last terminated. The annuity from each fund must be determined by the appropriate law except that the requirement that a person must have at least ~~five~~ three years allowable service in the respective system or association does not apply for the purposes of this section if the combined service in two or more of these funds equals ~~five~~ three or more years.

Sec. 28. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353.01, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 35. [NORMAL RETIREMENT AGE.] "Normal retirement age" means age 65 for a person who first became a public employee before July 1, 1989. For a person who first becomes a public employee after June 30, 1989, "normal retirement age" means the higher of age 65 or "retirement age," as defined in United States Code, title 42, section 416(l), as amended.

Sec. 29. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353.27, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [EMPLOYEE CONTRIBUTION.] The employee contribution shall be an amount (a) for a "basic member" equal to ~~eight~~ 8.19 percent of total salary; and (b) for a "coordinated member" equal to ~~four~~ 4.19 percent of total salary. These contributions shall be made by deduction from salary in the manner provided in subdivision 4. Where any portion of a member's salary is paid from other than public funds, such member's employee contribution shall be based on the total salary received from all sources.

Sec. 30. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353.29, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AGE AND ALLOWABLE SERVICE REQUIREMENTS.] Upon separation from public service any person who has attained ~~the~~ normal retirement age ~~of at least 65 years~~ and who received credit for not less than ~~five~~ three years of allowable service is entitled upon application to a retirement annuity. Such retirement annuity is known as the "normal" retirement annuity.

Sec. 31. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353.29, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [AVERAGE SALARY.] In calculating the annuity under subdivision 3, "average salary" means an amount equivalent to the average of a member's highest salary upon which employee contributions were paid for any five successive years of allowable service, based on dates of salary periods as listed on salary deduction reports. Average salary must be based upon all allowable service if this service is less than five years. The ~~five successive years~~ average salary may not include any reduced salary paid during a period in which the employee is entitled to benefit payments from workers' compensation for temporary disability, unless the average salary is higher, including this period.

Sec. 32. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353.29, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [RETIREMENT ANNUITY FORMULA.] (a) This paragraph, in conjunction with section 353.30, subdivisions 1, 1a, 1b, and 1c, applies to any member who first became a public employee before July 1, 1989, unless paragraph (b), in conjunction with section 353.30, subdivision 5, produces a higher annuity amount, in which case paragraph (b) will apply. The average salary as defined in subdivision 2, multiplied by two percent for each year of allowable service for the first ten years and thereafter by 2.5 percent per year of allowable service and completed months less than a full year for the "basic member", and one percent for each year of allowable service for the first ten years and thereafter by 1.5 percent per year of allowable service and completed months less than a full year for the "coordinated member," shall determine the amount of the "normal" retirement annuity.

(b) This paragraph applies to a member who first became a public employee after June 30, 1989, and to any other member whose annuity amount, when calculated under this paragraph and in conjunction with section 353.30, subdivision 5, is higher than it is when calculated under paragraph (a), in conjunction with section 353.30, subdivisions 1, 1a, 1b, and 1c. The average salary, as defined in subdivision 2, multiplied by 2.5 percent for each year of allowable service and completed months less than a full year for a basic member and 1.5 percent per year of allowable service and completed months less than a full year for a coordinated member, shall determine the amount of the normal retirement annuity.

Sec. 33. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353.30, is amended to read:

353.30 [ANNUITIES UPON RETIREMENT.]

Subdivision 1. Upon separation from public service any person who first became a public employee before July 1, 1989, and who has attained the age of at least 58 years but not more than ~~65 years~~ normal retirement age and who received credit for not less than 20 years of allowable service is entitled upon application to a retirement annuity in an amount equal to the normal annuity provided in section 353.29, subdivisions 2 and 3, paragraph (a), reduced by one-quarter of one percent for each month that the member is under normal retirement age ~~65~~ at the time of retirement.

Subd. 1a. Any person who first became a public employee before July 1, 1989, and whose attained age plus credited allowable service totals 90 years is entitled upon application to a retirement annuity in an amount equal to the normal annuity provided in section 353.29, subdivisions 2 and 3, paragraph (a), without any reduction in annuity by reason of such early retirement.

Subd. 1b. Any person who first became a public employee before July 1, 1989, with 30 years or more of allowable service credit, who elects early retirement under subdivision 1, shall receive an annuity in an amount equal to the normal annuity provided under section 353.29, subdivisions 2 and 3, paragraph (a), reduced by one-quarter of one percent for each month that the member is under age 62 at the time of retirement.

Subd. 1c. Any person who first became a public employee before July 1, 1989, and who has received credit for at least 30 years of allowable service or ~~any person~~ who has attained the age of at least 55 years but not ~~more than 65 years~~ normal retirement age, and ~~who~~ has received credit for at least ~~five~~ three years of allowable service is entitled upon application to a retirement annuity in an amount equal to the normal annuity provided in section 353.29, subdivisions 2 and 3, paragraph (a), reduced by one-quarter of one percent for each month that the member is under normal retirement age ~~65~~ at the time of retirement, except that for any member who has 30 or more years of allowable service the reduction shall be applied only for each month that the member is under age 62 at the time of retirement.

Subd. 3. [OPTIONAL RETIREMENT ANNUITY FORMS.] The board of trustees shall establish optional annuities which shall take the form of a joint and survivor annuity. Except as provided in subdivision 3a, the optional annuity forms shall be actuarially equivalent to the forms provided in section 353.29 and subdivisions 1, 1a, 1b, ~~and~~ 1c ~~of this section~~, and 5. In establishing those optional forms, the board shall obtain the written recommendation of the commission-retained actuary. The recommendations shall be a part of the permanent records of board. A member or former member may select an optional form of annuity in lieu of accepting any other form of annuity which might otherwise be available.

Subd. 3a. [BOUNCE-BACK ANNUITY.] (a) If a former member or disabilitant selects a joint and survivor annuity option under subdivision 3, the former member or disabilitant must receive a normal single-life annuity if the designated optional annuity beneficiary dies before the former member or disabilitant. Under this option, no reduction may be made in the person's annuity to provide for restoration of the normal single-life annuity in the event of the death of the designated optional annuity beneficiary.

(b) A former member or disabilitant who selected an optional joint and survivor annuity before July 1, 1989, but did not choose an option that provides that the normal single-life annuity is payable to the former member or the disabilitant if the designated optional annuity beneficiary dies first, is eligible for restoration of the normal single-life annuity if the designated optional annuity beneficiary dies first, without further actuarial reduction of the person's annuity. A former member or disabilitant who selected an optional joint and survivor annuity, but whose designated optional annuity beneficiary died before July 1, 1989, shall receive a normal single-life annuity after that date, but shall not receive retroactive payments for periods before that date.

(c) A former member or disabilitant who took a further actuarial reduction to elect an optional joint and survivor annuity that provides that the normal annuity is payable to the former member or disabilitant if the designated optional beneficiary died before July 1, 1989, shall have the annuity increased as of July 1, 1989, to the amount the person would have received if, at the time of retirement or disability, the person had selected only optional survivor coverage that would not have provided for restoration of the normal annuity upon the death of the designated optional annuity beneficiary. Any annuity or benefit increase under this paragraph is effective only for payments made after June 30, 1989, and is not retroactive for payments made before July 1, 1989.

Subd. 4. Any monthly payments to which any person may be entitled under this chapter may be reduced in amount upon application of the person entitled thereto to the association, provided that ~~such~~ the person shall first relinquish in writing all claim to that part of the full monthly payment which is the difference between the monthly payment which that person would be otherwise entitled to receive and the monthly payment which that person will receive. The reduced monthly payment shall be payment in full of all amounts due under this chapter for the month for which the payment is made and acceptance of the reduced monthly payment releases the retirement association from all obligation to pay to ~~such~~ the person the difference between the amount of the reduced monthly payment and the full amount of the monthly payment which ~~such~~ the person would otherwise have received.

Upon application of the person who is entitled to such monthly payment, it may be increased prospectively to not more than the amount to which ~~such~~ the person would have been entitled had no portion thereof been waived.

Subd. 5. [ACTUARIAL REDUCTION FOR EARLY RETIREMENT.] This subdivision applies to a member who first became a public employee after June 30, 1989, and to any other member whose annuity is higher when calculated under section 353.29, subdivision 3, paragraph (b), in conjunction with this subdivision than when calculated under section 353.29, subdivision 3, paragraph (a), in conjunction with subdivision 1, 1a, 1b, or 1c. An employee who retires before normal retirement age shall be paid the retirement annuity provided in section 353.29, subdivision 3, paragraph (b), reduced so that the reduced annuity is the actuarial equivalent of the annuity that would be payable to the employee if the employee deferred receipt of the annuity until the normal retirement age.

Sec. 34. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353.32, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [BEFORE RETIREMENT.] If a member or former member who terminated public service dies before retirement or before receiving any retirement annuity and no other payment of any kind is or may become payable to any person, a refund shall be paid to the designated beneficiary or, if there be none, to the surviving spouse, or, if none, to the legal representative of the decedent's estate. Such refund shall be in an amount equal to accumulated deductions plus interest thereon at the rate of ~~five~~ six percent per annum compounded annually less the sum of any disability or survivor benefits, if any, that may have been paid by the fund; provided that a survivor who has a right to benefits pursuant to section 353.31 may waive such benefits in writing, except such benefits for a dependent child under the age of 18 years may only be waived pursuant to an order of the district court.

Sec. 35. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353.32, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [SURVIVING SPOUSE OPTIONAL ANNUITY.] If a member or former member who has attained at least age 50 and has credit for not less than ~~five~~ three years of allowable service or who has credit for not less than 30 years of allowable service, regardless of age attained, dies before the annuity or disability benefit begins to accrue in accordance with section 353.29, subdivision 7, or 353.33, subdivision 2, notwithstanding any designation of beneficiary to the contrary, the surviving spouse may elect to receive, instead of a refund with interest provided in subdivision 1, or survivor benefits otherwise payable under section 353.31, an annuity equal to the 100 percent joint and survivor annuity that the member could have qualified for had the member terminated service on the date of death. The surviving spouse may apply for the annuity at any time after the date on which the deceased employee would have attained the required age for retirement based on the employee's allowable service. The annuity must be computed as provided in sections 353.29, subdivisions 2 and 3; and 353.30, subdivisions 1, 1a, 1b, ~~and~~ 1c, and 5. Sections 353.34, subdivision 3, and 353.71, subdivision 2, apply to a deferred annuity payable under this subdivision. No payment may accrue beyond the end of the month in which entitlement to the annuity has terminated. An amount equal to any excess of the accumulated contributions that were credited to the account of the deceased employee over and above the total of the annuities paid and payable to the surviving spouse must be paid to the deceased member's last designated beneficiary or, if none, to the legal representative of the estate of the deceased member. A member may specify in writing that this subdivision does not apply and that payment may be made only to the designated beneficiary as otherwise provided by this chapter.

Sec. 36. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353.33, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AGE, SERVICE AND SALARY REQUIREMENTS.] Any member who becomes totally and permanently disabled before normal retirement age ~~65~~ and after ~~five~~ three years of allowable service shall be entitled to a disability benefit in an amount provided in subdivision 3. If such disabled person's public service has terminated at any time, at least ~~three~~ two of the required ~~five~~ three years of allowable service must have been rendered after last becoming a member. Any member whose average salary is less than $75 per month shall not be entitled to a disability benefit. No repayment of a refund otherwise authorized pursuant to section 353.34 and no purchase of prior service or payment made in lieu of salary deductions otherwise authorized pursuant to section 353.01, subdivision 16, 353.017, subdivision 4, or 353.36, subdivision 2, may be made after the occurrence of the disability for which an application pursuant to this section is filed.

Sec. 37. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353.33, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMPUTATION OF BENEFITS.] This disability benefit is an amount equal to the normal annuity payable to a member who has reached ~~65~~ normal retirement age with the same number of years of allowable service and the same average salary, as provided in section 353.29, subdivisions 2 and 3. A "basic member" shall receive in addition a supplementary monthly benefit computed in accordance with the following table:

| Age when Disabled | Supplementary benefit |
|---|---|
| Under 56 | $50 |
| 56 | 45 |
| 57 | 40 |
| 58 | 35 |
| 59 | 30 |
| 60 | 25 |
| 61 | 20 |
| 62 | 15 |
| 63 | 10 |
| 64 | 5 |

If the disability benefits provided in this subdivision exceed the average salary as defined in section 353.29, subdivision 2, the disability benefits shall be reduced to an amount equal to said average salary.

Sec. 38. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353.33, subdivision 11, is amended to read:

Subd. 11. [RETIREMENT STATUS AT NORMAL RETIREMENT AGE ~~65~~.] No person shall be entitled to receive disability benefits and a retirement annuity at the same time. The disability benefits paid to a person hereunder shall terminate when the person reaches normal retirement age ~~65~~. If the person is still totally and permanently disabled when the person attains the normal retirement age ~~of 65 years~~, the person shall be deemed to be on retirement status and, if the person had elected an optional annuity pursuant to subdivision 3a, shall receive an annuity in accordance with the terms of the optional annuity previously elected, or, if the person had not elected an optional annuity pursuant to subdivision 3a, may at the option of the person either elect to receive either a normal retirement annuity as provided in section 353.29 or normal retirement annuity equal to the disability benefit paid before the person reached normal retirement age ~~65~~, whichever amount is greater, or elect to receive an optional annuity as provided in section 353.30, subdivision 3. Any disabled person who ~~becomes age 65~~ attains normal retirement age shall have the annuity computed in accordance with the law in effect upon attainment of that age ~~65~~. Election of an optional annuity shall be made prior to the person attaining the normal retirement age ~~of 65 years~~. If an optional annuity is elected, the election shall be effective on the date on which the person attains ~~the age of 65 years~~ normal retirement age and the optional annuity shall begin to accrue on the first day of the month next following the month in which the person attains ~~the~~ that age ~~of 65 years~~.

Sec. 39. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353.34, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REFUND WITH INTEREST.] Except as provided in subdivision 1, any person who ceases to be a public employee shall receive a refund in an amount equal to accumulated deductions with interest to the first day of the month in which the refund is processed at the rate of ~~five~~ six percent per annum compounded annually based on fiscal year balances.

Sec. 40. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353.34, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [DEFERRED ANNUITY; ELIGIBILITY; COMPUTATION.] A member with at least ~~five~~ three years of allowable service when termination of public service occurs has the option of leaving the accumulated deductions in the fund and being entitled to a deferred retirement annuity commencing at normal retirement age ~~65~~ or to a deferred early retirement annuity under section 353.30, subdivision 1, 1a, 1b, ~~or~~ 1c, or 5. The deferred annuity must be computed under section 353.29, subdivisions 2 and 3, on the basis of the law in effect on the date of termination of public service and must be augmented as provided in section 353.71, subdivision 2. A former member qualified to apply for a deferred retirement annuity may revoke this option at any time before the commencement of deferred annuity payments by making application for a refund. The person is entitled to a refund of accumulated member contributions within 30 days following date of receipt of the application by the executive director.

Sec. 41. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353.34, subdivision 3a, is amended to read:

Subd. 3a. [DEFERRED ANNUITY; CERTAIN HOSPITAL EMPLOYEES.] Any member employed by a public hospital, as defined in section 355.71, subdivision 3, who has at least ~~five~~ three years of allowable service credit on the date the public hospital is taken over by a private corporation or organization, may elect to receive a deferred annuity pursuant to subdivision 3 notwithstanding the length of service requirement contained therein.

Sec. 42. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353.651, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AGE AND ALLOWABLE SERVICE REQUIREMENTS.] Upon separation from public service, any police officer or firefighter member who has attained the age of at least 55 years and who received credit for not less than ~~five~~ three years of allowable service is entitled upon application to a retirement annuity. Such retirement annuity is known as the "normal" retirement annuity.

Sec. 43. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353.651, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [AVERAGE SALARY.] In calculating the annuity under subdivision 3, "average salary" means an amount equivalent to the average of the highest salary earned as a police officer or firefighter upon which employee contributions were paid for any five successive years of allowable service. Average salary must be based upon all allowable service if this service is less than five years.

The ~~five successive years~~ average salary may not include any reduced salary paid during a period in which the employee is entitled to benefit payments from workers' compensation for temporary disability unless the average salary is higher, including this period.

Sec. 44. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353.657, subdivision 2a, is amended to read:

Subd. 2a. [DEATH WHILE ELIGIBLE SURVIVOR BENEFIT.] If a member or former member who has attained the age of at least 50 years and has credit for not less than ~~five~~ three years allowable service or who has credit for at least 30 years of allowable service, regardless of age attained, dies before public service has terminated, or if an employee who has filed a valid application for an annuity or disability benefit prior to termination of public service dies before the annuity or benefit has become payable, notwithstanding any designation of beneficiary to the contrary, the surviving spouse may elect to receive a death while eligible survivor benefit. The benefit shall be in lieu of a refund with interest provided in section 353.32, subdivision 1, or survivor benefits otherwise payable pursuant to subdivisions 1 and 2. The benefit must be an annuity equal to the 100 percent joint and survivor annuity which the member could have qualified for on the date of death, computed as provided in sections 353.651, subdivisions 2 and 3, and 353.30, subdivision 3. The surviving spouse may apply for the annuity at any time after the date on which the deceased employee would have attained the required age for retirement based on the employee's allowable service. Sections 353.34, subdivision 3, and 353.71, subdivision 2, apply to a deferred annuity payable under this subdivision. No payment shall accrue beyond the end of the month in which entitlement to such annuity has terminated. An amount equal to the excess, if any, of the accumulated contributions which were credited to the account of the deceased employee over and above the total of the annuities paid and payable to the surviving spouse shall be paid to the deceased member's last designated beneficiary or, if none, to the legal representative of the estate of such deceased member. Any member may request in writing that this subdivision not apply and that payment be made only to the designated beneficiary, as otherwise provided by this chapter. For a member who is employed as a full-time firefighter by the department of military affairs of the state of Minnesota, allowable service as a full-time state military affairs department firefighter credited by the Minnesota state retirement system may be used in meeting the minimum allowable service requirement of this subdivision.

Sec. 45. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353.71, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBILITY.] Any person who has been a member of the public employees retirement association, or the Minnesota state retirement system, or the teachers retirement association, or any other public retirement system in the state of Minnesota having a like provision, except a fund providing benefits for police officers or firefighters governed by sections 69.77 or 69.771 to 69.776, shall be entitled when qualified to an annuity from each fund if the total allowable service in all funds or in any two of these funds totals ~~five~~ three or more years, provided no portion of the allowable service upon which the retirement annuity from one fund is based is again used in the computation for benefits from another fund and provided further that the person has not taken a refund from any one of these funds since the person's membership in that association or system last terminated. The annuity from each fund shall be determined by the appropriate provisions of the law except that the requirement that a person must have at least ~~five~~ three years of allowable service in the respective association or system shall not apply for the purposes of this section provided the combined service in two or more of these funds equals ~~five~~ three or more years.

Sec. 46. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353.71, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [EARLY RETIREMENT.] The requirements and provisions for retirement prior to normal retirement age ~~65~~ contained in section 353.30, shall also apply to a person fulfilling such requirements with a combination of service as provided in subdivision 1.

Sec. 47. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353C.06, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS.] After separation from public employment, an employee covered under section 353C.02 who has attained the age of at least 55 years and has credit for not less than ~~five~~ three years of coverage in the local government correctional service plan is entitled, upon application, to a normal retirement annuity. Instead of a normal retirement annuity, a retiring employee may elect to receive the optional annuity provided in section 353.30, subdivision 3.

Sec. 48. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353C.06, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [AVERAGE SALARY BASE.] In calculating the annuity under subdivision 3, "average salary" means an amount equivalent to the average of the highest salary earned as a local government correctional employee upon which employee contributions were paid for any five successive years of allowable service. Average salary must be based on all allowable service if this service is less than five years.

Sec. 49. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353C.06, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [ACCRUAL AND DURATION.] The annuity under this section begins to accrue as provided in section 353.29, subdivision 7. The annuity is payable for the life of the recipient, or in accordance with the terms of any optional annuity form selected, and is payable for 84 full calendar months or to the first of the month following the month in which the employee ~~becomes~~ attains the normal retirement age ~~65~~, whichever occurs first. After a recipient has received the annuity calculated under this formula for 84 full calendar months or to the first of the month following the month in which the employee ~~becomes~~ attains the normal retirement age ~~65~~, whichever occurs first, the benefit must be recomputed in accordance with the coordinated formula in sections 353.29 and 353.30, except that if this amount, when added to the social security benefit based on public service the employee is eligible to receive at that time, is less than the benefit payable under subdivision 3, the retired employee is entitled to receive an amount payable under subdivision 3, less any amount payable from social security based on public service used in the benefit calculation. When an annuity is reduced under this subdivision, any percentage of adjustments that have been applied to the original annuity under section 11A.18, before the reduction, must be compounded and applied to the reduced annuity.

Sec. 50. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353C.08, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [DISABILITY BENEFIT TERMINATION.] The disability benefit paid to a disabled local government correctional employee terminates at the end of the month in which the employee reaches age 62. If the disabled local government correctional employee is still disabled when the employee reaches age 62, the employee is deemed to be a retired employee and, if the employee had elected an optional annuity under subdivision 3, must receive an annuity in accordance with the terms of the optional annuity previously elected. If the employee had not elected an optional annuity under subdivision 3, the employee may elect either to receive a normal retirement annuity computed on the coordinated formula in the manner provided in section 353.29 or to receive an optional annuity as provided in section 353.30, subdivision 3, based on the same length of service as used in the calculation of the disability benefit. Election of an optional annuity must be made before attaining the age of 62 years. The reduction for retirement prior to normal retirement age ~~65~~ as provided in section 353.30, subdivisions 1 ~~and~~, 1c, and 5, is not applicable. The savings clause provision of section 353C.06, subdivision 4, is applicable.

Sec. 51. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354.05, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 38. [NORMAL RETIREMENT AGE.] "Normal retirement age" means age 65 for a person who first became a member of the fund before July 1, 1989. For a person who first becomes a member of the fund after June 30, 1989, normal retirement age means the higher of age 65 or "retirement age," as defined in United States Code, title 42, section 416(l), as amended.

Sec. 52. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354.35, is amended to read:

354.35 [RETIREMENT BEFORE BECOMING ELIGIBLE FOR SOCIAL SECURITY.]

Any coordinated member who retires before becoming eligible for social security retirement benefits, may elect to receive an optional retirement annuity from the association which provides for different annuity amounts over different periods of retirement. The election of this optional retirement annuity shall be exercised by making an application to the board on a form provided by the board. The optional annuity shall take the form of an annuity payable for the period before the member attains the normal retirement age ~~of 65 years~~ in a greater amount than the amount of the annuity calculated under section 354.44 on the basis of the age of the member at retirement but equal insofar as possible to the social security old age retirement benefit and the adjusted retirement annuity amount payable immediately after the annuitant becomes eligible for social security old age retirement benefits in an amount less than the amount of the annuity calculated under section 354.44 on the basis of the age of the member at retirement. The social security leveling option may be calculated based on broad average social security old age retirement benefits. The optional annuity shall be the actuarial equivalent of the member's annuity computed on the basis of the member's age at retirement. The greater amount shall be paid until the member reaches the normal retirement age ~~of 65~~ at which time the payment from the association shall be reduced. The method of computing the optional retirement annuity provided in this section shall be established by the board of trustees. In establishing the method of computing the optional retirement annuity, the board of trustees shall obtain the written recommendation of the commission-retained actuary. The recommendations shall be a part of the permanent records of the board of trustees.

Sec. 53. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354.41, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. (1) Each annuitant, age 60 or over, who is drawing an annuity pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1953, section 135.10 and Minnesota Statutes 1965, sections 354.44 and 354.33 shall have the right to have membership in the fund restored upon resumption of teaching service, for the purpose of having deductions made in accordance with sections 354.42 and 355.48. Upon completion of ~~five~~ three years of allowable service, under this subdivision the member shall be entitled to a coordinated annuity provided in section 354.44, subdivision 6. This annuity is in addition to any annuity previously granted under this chapter.

(2) Any annuitant qualifying for membership in the fund under clause (1) may file a written notice with the executive director of the teachers retirement association requesting that deductions provided for in section 354.42 be made from compensation paid for subsequent teaching services. Such notice shall remain in effect until the annuitant requests in writing that this membership be revoked. After July 1, 1967, deductions pursuant to section 355.48 are required for any annuitant eligible for membership in the fund under clause (1). Teaching service rendered by an annuitant for which no deductions were made pursuant to section 354.42, shall not be included in any additional annuity granted pursuant to clause (1) ~~of this subdivision~~.

(3) Teachers retirement deductions made prior to July 1, 1973 from the salary of any annuitant who was qualified for membership in the fund under clause (1) ~~of this subdivision~~ at the time such deductions were made, shall be applicable to the computation of an annuity as provided under clause (1) ~~of this subdivision~~ even if the written notice required in clause (2) ~~of this subdivision~~ has not been filed. The teaching service related to such retirement deductions shall be deemed to be allowable service credit which is applicable to the completion of the ~~five~~ three years of allowable service required in clause (2) ~~of this subdivision~~.

Sec. 54. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354.42, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The employee contribution to the fund shall be an amount equal to ~~4-1/2~~ 4.9 percent of the salary of every coordinated member and ~~8-1/2~~ 8.9 percent of the salary of every basic member. This contribution shall be made by deduction from salary. Where any portion of a member's salary is paid from other than public funds, such member's employee contribution shall be based on the entire salary received. For purposes of financing the various options related to the variable annuity division, employee variable annuity contributions will be credited in accordance with section 354.62, subdivision 2.

Sec. 55. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354.42, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. The employer contribution to the fund shall be an amount equal to ~~4-1/2~~ 4.9 percent of the salary of each coordinated member and ~~8-1/2~~ 8.9 percent of the salary of each basic member. This contribution shall be made in the manner provided in section 354.43. For purposes of financing the various options related to the variable annuity division, employer contributions equal to the employee variable annuity contributions prescribed in section 354.62, subdivision 2, shall be allocated at the same time to the employer variable annuity contribution account in section 354.62, subdivision 3.

Sec. 56. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354.44, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [REQUIREMENTS AS TO AGE AND SERVICE.] Any member or former member who ceases or has ceased to render teaching services in any school or institution covered by the provisions of this chapter, and who has attained the age of at least 55 years with not less than ~~five~~ three years allowable service, or who has received credit for not less than 30 years allowable service regardless of age, is entitled upon written application to a retirement annuity.

Sec. 57. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354.44, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [MANDATORY RETIREMENT.] Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 43A.11 or 197.455 to 197.48, a member who is serving as a faculty member or administrator under a contract of unlimited tenure or similar arrangement providing for unlimited tenure at an institution of higher education, as defined in section 1201(a) of the federal Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended through January 1, 1987, shall terminate employment at the end of the academic year in which the member reaches the age of 70. For purposes of this subdivision, an academic year shall be deemed to end August 31. No other member shall be subject to a mandatory retirement age provision. A member who terminates employment at any time during the academic year at the end of which the person is at the normal retirement age ~~65~~ or older shall, for the purpose of determining eligibility for a proportionate retirement annuity, be considered to have been required to terminate employment at normal retirement age ~~65~~ or older pursuant to section 356.32. Nothing contained in this subdivision shall preclude an employing unit covered by this chapter from employing a retired teacher as a substitute or part time teacher. Any person who has attained ~~the~~ normal retirement age ~~of at least 65 years~~, who is employed as a substitute or part-time teacher and who earns an amount equal to the annual maximum earnings allowable for that age for the continued receipt of full benefit amounts monthly under the federal old age, survivors and disability insurance program as set by the secretary of health and human services pursuant to the provisions of United States Code, title 42, section 403, in any academic year from employment as a substitute or part-time teacher, shall terminate employment for the remainder of that academic year. No person who has attained ~~the~~ normal retirement age ~~of at least 65 years~~ and who has retired under this chapter may resume membership in the retirement association as a result of subsequent employment as a substitute or part-time teacher.

Sec. 58. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354.44, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [COMPUTATION OF FORMULA PROGRAM RETIREMENT ANNUITY.] (1) The formula retirement annuity hereunder shall be computed in accordance with the applicable provisions of the ~~formula~~ formulas stated in clause (2) ~~hereof~~ or (4) on the basis of each member's average salary for the period of the member's formula service credit. For the purposes of computing the formula benefits under the formula and variable program, if a combination of these formulas is used, the formula percentages used will be those percentages in each formula as continued for the respective years of service from one formula to the next.

For all years of formula service credit "average salary" for the purpose of determining the member's retirement annuity means the average salary upon which contributions were made and upon which payments were made to increase the salary limitation provided in Minnesota Statutes 1971, section 354.511 for the highest five successive years of formula service credit provided however that such "average salary" shall not include any more than the equivalent of 60 monthly salary payments. Average salary must be based upon all years of formula service credit if this service credit is less than five years.

(2) This clause, in conjunction with clause (3), applies to a person who first became a member of the fund before July 1, 1989, unless clause (4), in conjunction with clause (5), produces a higher annuity amount, in which case clause (4) applies. The average salary as defined in clause (1), multiplied by the following percentages per year of formula service credit shall determine the amount of the annuity to which the member qualifying therefor is entitled:

| | Coordinated Member | Basic Member |
|---|---|---|
| Each year of service during first ten | 1.0 percent per year | 2.0 percent per year |
| Each year of service thereafter | 1.5 percent per year | 2.5 percent per year |

(3) (i) This clause applies only to a person who first became a member of the fund before July 1, 1989, and whose annuity is higher when calculated under clause (2), in conjunction with this clause than when calculated under clause (4), in conjunction with clause (5).

(ii) Where any member retires prior to normal retirement age ~~65~~ under a formula annuity, the member shall be paid a retirement annuity in an amount equal to the normal annuity provided in ~~this subdivision~~ clause (2) and subdivision 7, paragraph (a), reduced by ~~one-half~~ one-quarter of one percent for each month that the member is under normal retirement age ~~65 to and including age 60 and reduced by one-fourth of one percent for each month under age 60~~ at the time of retirement except that for any member who has 30 or more years of allowable service credit, the reduction shall be applied only for each month ~~which~~ that the member is under age 62.

(iii) Any member whose attained age plus credited allowable service totals 90 years is entitled, upon application, to a retirement annuity in an amount equal to the normal annuity provided in clause (2), without any reduction by reason of early retirement.

(4) This clause applies to a member who first became a member of the fund after June 30, 1989, and to any other member whose annuity amount when calculated under this clause and in conjunction with clause (5), is higher than it is when calculated under clause (2), in conjunction with clause (3). The average salary, as defined in clause (1) multiplied by 2.5 percent for each year of service for a basic member and by 1.5 percent for each year of service for a coordinated member shall determine the amount of the retirement annuity to which the member is entitled.

(5) This clause applies to a person who first becomes a member of the fund after June 30, 1989, and to any other member whose annuity is higher when calculated under clause (4) in conjunction with this clause than when calculated under clause (2), in conjunction with clause (3). An employee who retires under the formula annuity before the normal retirement age shall be paid the normal annuity provided in clause (4) and subdivision 7, paragraph (b), reduced so that the reduced annuity is the actuarial equivalent of the annuity that would be payable to the employee if the employee deferred receipt of the annuity until the normal retirement age.

Sec. 59. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354.44, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [COMPUTATION OF FORMULA AND VARIABLE PROGRAM RETIREMENT ANNUITY.] (a) This paragraph applies to a person who first became a member of the fund before July 1, 1989, unless paragraph (b) produces a higher annuity amount, in which case paragraph (b) applies. The benefits provided in this ~~subdivision~~ paragraph are the sum of the benefits provided by the following:

(1) The benefits provided in subdivision 6, clause (2) for formula service credit prior to the effective date of the original election of this subdivision and subsequent to June 30, 1978 unless the member elects continued participation in the variable program pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 354.621, and

(2) The benefits for service credit subsequent to the effective date of the formula and variable program but prior to July 1, 1978 and the benefits for service credit subsequent to June 30, 1978 if the member elects continued participation in the variable program pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 354.621, shall be the average salary as defined in subdivision 6, clause (1) of any member multiplied by the following percentages per year of formula service credit,

|---|---|---|
| Each year of service during first ten | .5 percent per year | 1.0 percent per year |
| Each year of service thereafter | .75 percent per year | 1.25 percent per year, and |

(3) The benefits provided in section 354.62, subdivision 5.

(b) This paragraph applies to a person who first became a member of the fund before July 1, 1989, but whose annuity amount, when calculated under this paragraph, is higher than it is when calculated under paragraph (a). The benefits provided in this paragraph are the sum of the benefits provided by the following:

(1) the benefits provided in subdivision 6, clause (4), for formula service credit before the effective date of the original election of this subdivision and subsequent to June 30, 1978, unless the member elects continued participation in the variable program pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 354.621;

(2) the benefits for service credit subsequent to the effective date of the formula and variable program but before July 1, 1978, and the benefits for service credit subsequent to June 30, 1978, if the member elects continued participation in the variable program pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1984, section 354.621, shall be the average salary as defined in subdivision 6, clause (1), of any member multiplied by 1.25 percent for each year of service for a basic member and by 0.75 percent for each year of service for a coordinated member; and

(3) the benefits provided in section 354.62, subdivision 5.

Sec. 60. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354.45, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [OPTIONAL ANNUITY FORMS.] The retirement board shall establish optional annuities at retirement which shall take the form of an annuity payable for a period certain and for life thereafter or the form of a joint and survivor annuity. The board shall also establish an optional annuity which shall take the form of a guaranteed refund annuity paying the annuitant a fixed amount for life with the guarantee that in the event of death the balance of the accumulated deductions and interest accrued to the date of retirement will be paid to the designated beneficiary. Except as provided in subdivision 1a, any optional annuity forms shall be actuarially equivalent to the normal forms provided in section 354.44. In establishing these optional annuity forms, the board shall obtain the written recommendation of the commission-retained actuary. The recommendations shall be a part of the permanent records of the board.

Sec. 61. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354.45, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [BOUNCE-BACK ANNUITY.] (a) If a former member or disabilitant selects a joint and survivor annuity option under subdivision 1, the former member or disabilitant must receive a normal single-life annuity if the designated optional annuity beneficiary dies before the former member or disabilitant. Under this option, no reduction may be made in the person's annuity to provide for restoration of the normal single-life annuity in the event of the death of the designated optional annuity beneficiary.

(b) A former member or disabilitant who selected an optional joint and survivor annuity before July 1, 1989, but did not choose an option that provides that the normal single-life annuity is payable to the former member or the disabilitant if the designated optional annuity beneficiary dies first, is eligible for restoration of the normal single-life annuity if the designated optional annuity beneficiary dies first, without further actuarial reduction of the person's annuity. A former member or disabilitant who selected an optional joint and survivor annuity, but whose designated optional annuity beneficiary died before July 1, 1989, shall receive a normal single-life annuity after that date, but shall not receive retroactive payments for periods before that date.

Sec. 62. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354.46, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DEATH WHILE ELIGIBLE DESIGNATED BENEFICIARY BENEFIT.] The surviving spouse of any member or former member who has attained the age of at least 50 years and has credit for at least ~~five~~ three years of allowable service or who has credit for at least 30 years of allowable service irrespective of age shall be entitled to joint and survivor annuity coverage in the event of death of the member prior to retirement. If the surviving spouse does not elect to receive a surviving spouse benefit provided pursuant to subdivision 1, if applicable, or does not elect to receive a refund of accumulated member contributions provided pursuant to section 354.47, subdivision 1, or 354.62, subdivision 5, clause (3), whichever is applicable, the surviving spouse shall be entitled to receive, upon written application on a form prescribed by the executive director, a benefit equal to the second portion of a 100 percent joint and survivor annuity as provided pursuant to section 354.45 and computed pursuant to section 354.44, subdivision 2, 6 or 7, whichever is applicable. The surviving spouse may apply for the annuity at any time after the date on which the deceased employee would have attained the required age for retirement based on the employee's allowable service. Sections 354.44, subdivisions 6 and 7, and 354.60 apply to a deferred annuity payable under this section. If the member was a participant in the variable annuity division, the applicable portion of the benefit shall be computed pursuant to section 354.62, subdivision 5, clause (1). The benefit shall be payable for life.

Sec. 63. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354.47, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

(2) If a member dies before retirement and is covered pursuant to the provisions of section 354.44, subdivisions 6 and 7, and neither an optional annuity, nor reversionary annuity, nor the benefit described in section 354.46, subdivision 1 is payable to the survivors if the member was a basic member, the surviving spouse, or if there is no surviving spouse, the designated beneficiary shall be entitled to an amount equal to the member's accumulated deductions credited to the account of the member as of June 30,

1957 and from July 1, 1957 to the date of death the member's accumulated deductions plus interest at the rate of ~~five~~ six percent per annum compounded annually.

(3) The amounts payable in clause (1) or (2) are in addition to the amount payable in section 354.62, subdivision 5, for the member's variable annuity account.

Sec. 64. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354.48, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [AGE, SERVICE AND SALARY REQUIREMENTS.] Any member who became totally and permanently disabled after at least ~~five~~ three years of allowable service shall be entitled to a disability benefit in an amount provided in subdivision 3. If such disabled person's teaching service has terminated at any time, at least ~~three~~ two of the required ~~five~~ three years of allowable service must have been rendered after last becoming a member. Any member whose average salary is less than $75 per month shall not be entitled to disability benefits.

Sec. 65. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354.48, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMPUTATION OF BENEFITS.] (1) The amount of the disability benefit granted to members covered under section 354.44, subdivision 2, clauses (1) and (2), is an amount equal to double the annuity which could be purchased by the member's accumulated deductions plus interest on the amount computed as though the teacher were at normal retirement age ~~65~~ at the time the benefit begins to accrue and in accordance with the law in effect when the disability application is received. Any member who applies for a disability benefit after June 30, 1974, and who failed to make an election pursuant to Minnesota Statutes 1971, section 354.145, shall have the disability benefit computed under this clause or clause (2), whichever is larger.

The benefit granted shall be determined by the following:

(a) the amount of the accumulated deductions;

(b) interest actually earned on these accumulated deductions to the date the benefit begins to accrue;

(c) interest for the years from the date the benefit begins to accrue to the date the member attains normal retirement age ~~65~~ at the rate of three percent;

(d) annuity purchase rates based on an appropriate annuity table of mortality established by the board as provided in section 354.07, subdivision 1, and using the applicable postretirement interest rate assumption specified in section 356.215, subdivision 4d.

| 62 | 15 |
| 64 | 5 |

(2) The disability benefit granted to members covered under section 354.44, subdivision 6 or 7 shall be computed in the same manner as the annuity provided in section 354.44, subdivision 6 or 7 ~~of that section~~, whichever is applicable. The disability benefit shall be the formula annuity without the reduction for each month the member is under normal retirement age ~~65~~ when the benefit begins to accrue.

(3) For the purposes of computing a retirement annuity when the member becomes eligible, the amounts paid for disability benefits shall not be deducted from the individual member's accumulated deductions. If the disability benefits provided in this subdivision exceed the monthly average salary of the disabled member, the disability benefits shall be reduced to an amount equal to the disabled member's average salary.

Sec. 66. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354.48, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [RETIREMENT STATUS AT NORMAL RETIREMENT AGE ~~65~~.] No person shall be entitled to receive both a disability benefit and a retirement annuity provided by this chapter. The disability benefit paid to a person hereunder shall terminate at the end of the month in which the person attains ~~the~~ normal retirement age ~~of 65 years~~. If the person is still totally and permanently disabled at the beginning of the month next following the month in which the person attains the normal retirement age ~~of 65 years~~, the person shall be deemed to be on retirement status and, if the person had elected an optional annuity pursuant to subdivision 3a, shall receive an annuity in accordance with the terms of the optional annuity previously elected, or, if the person had not elected an optional annuity pursuant to subdivision 3a, may at the option of the person elect to receive either a straight life retirement annuity computed pursuant to section 354.44 or a straight life retirement annuity equal to the disability benefit paid prior to the date on which the person attained the age of 65 years, whichever amount is greater, or elect to receive an optional annuity as provided in section 354.45, subdivision 1. Election of an optional annuity shall be made prior to the person attaining the normal retirement age ~~of 65 years~~. If an optional annuity is elected, the election shall be effective on the date on which the person attains the normal retirement age ~~of 65 years~~ and the optional annuity shall begin to accrue on the first day of the month next following the month in which the person attains ~~the~~ that age ~~of 65 years~~.

Sec. 67. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354.49, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. Except as provided in section 354.44, subdivision 1, any person who ceases to be a member by reason of termination of teaching service, shall receive a refund in an amount equal to the accumulated deductions credited to the account as of June 30, 1957, and after July 1, 1957, the accumulated deductions with interest at the rate of ~~five~~ six percent per annum compounded annually plus any variable annuity account accumulations payable pursuant to section 354.62, subdivision 5, clause (4). Sec. 68. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354.49, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Any person who has attained ~~the~~ normal retirement age ~~of at least 65~~ with less than ~~five~~ three years of credited allowable service shall be entitled to receive a refund in an amount equal to the person's accumulated deductions plus interest in lieu of a proportionate annuity pursuant to section 356.32 except those covered under the provisions of section 354.44, subdivision 6 or 7 in which case the refund shall be an amount equal to the accumulated deductions credited to the person's account as of June 30, 1957, and after July 1, 1957, the accumulated deductions plus interest at the rate of ~~five~~ six percent compounded annually.

Subd. 11. [DEFERRED ANNUITY; AUGMENTATION.] Any person covered under section 354.44, subdivisions 6 and 7, who ceases to render teaching service may leave the person's accumulated deductions in the fund for the purpose of receiving a deferred annuity at retirement. Eligibility for an annuity under this subdivision shall be governed pursuant to section 354.44, subdivision 1, or 354.60.

The amount of the deferred retirement annuity shall be determined by section 354.44, subdivisions 6 and 7, and augmented as provided in this subdivision. The required reserves related to that portion of the annuity which had accrued when the member ceased to render teaching service shall be augmented by interest compounded annually from the first day of the month following the month during which the member ceased to render teaching service to the effective date of retirement. There shall be no augmentation if this period is less than three months or if this period commences prior to July 1, 1971. The rates of interest used for this purpose shall be five percent commencing July 1, 1971, until January 1, 1981, and three percent thereafter. If a person has more than one period of uninterrupted service, a separate average salary determined under section 354.44, subdivision 6, must be used for each period and the required reserves related to each period shall be augmented by interest pursuant to this subdivision. The sum of the augmented required reserves so determined shall be the basis for purchasing the deferred annuity. If a person repays a refund, the service restored by the repayment must be considered as continuous with the next period of service for which the person has credit with this fund. If a person does not render teaching service in any one fiscal year or more consecutive fiscal years and then resumes teaching service, the formula percentages used from the date of the resumption of teaching service shall be those applicable to new members. The mortality table and interest assumption used to compute the annuity shall be the applicable mortality table established by the board under section 354.07, subdivision 1, and the interest rate assumption under section 356.215 in effect when the member retires. A period of uninterrupted service for the purposes of this subdivision means a period of covered teaching service during which the member has not been separated from active service for more than one fiscal year.

The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to variable account accumulations as defined in section 354.05, subdivision 23.

In no case shall the annuity payable under this subdivision be less than the amount of annuity payable pursuant to section 354.44, subdivisions 6 and 7.

The requirements and provisions for retirement before normal retirement age ~~65~~ contained in section 354.44, subdivision 6, clause ~~(2)~~ (3) or (5), shall also apply to an employee fulfilling the requirements with a combination of service as provided in section 354.60.

The augmentation provided by this subdivision applies to the benefit provided in section 354.46, subdivision 2.

The augmentation provided by this subdivision shall not apply to any period in which a person is on an approved leave of absence from an employer unit covered by the provisions of this chapter.

The annuity from each fund shall be determined by the appropriate provisions of the law except that the requirement that an annuitant have at least ~~five~~ three years' membership service or ~~five~~ three years of allowable service in the respective association shall not apply for the purposes of this section provided the combined service in two or more of these funds equals ~~five~~ three or more years.

(b) Any coordinated member whose attained age plus credited allowable service totals 90 years is entitled, upon application, to a retirement annuity in an amount equal to the normal retirement annuity calculated using the retirement annuity formula percentage in subdivision (4), paragraph (b), without any reduction by reason of early retirement.

Sec. 80. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354A.31, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [ACTUARIAL REDUCTION FOR EARLY RETIREMENT.] This subdivision applies to a person who first becomes a coordinated member after June 30, 1989, and to any other coordinated member whose annuity is higher when calculated using the retirement annuity formula percentage in subdivision 4, paragraph (c), in conjunction with this subdivision than when calculated under subdivision 4, paragraph (b), in conjunction with subdivision 6. A coordinated member who retires before the full benefit age shall be paid the retirement annuity calculated using the retirement annuity formula percentage in subdivision 4, paragraph (c), reduced so that the reduced annuity is the actuarial equivalent of the annuity that would be payable to the member if the member deferred receipt of the annuity until the normal retirement age.

Sec. 81. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354A.32, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [OPTIONAL FORMS GENERALLY.] The boards of the Minneapolis and the St. Paul teachers retirement fund associations shall each establish for the coordinated program and the board of the Duluth teachers retirement fund association shall establish for the new law coordinated program an optional retirement annuity which shall take the form of a joint and survivor annuity. Each board may also in its discretion establish an optional annuity which shall take the form of an annuity payable for a period certain and for life thereafter. ~~Each board shall also establish an optional retirement annuity which shall take the form of a guarantee that in the event of death the balance of the accumulated deductions shall be paid to a designated beneficiary.~~ Except as provided in subdivision 1a, optional annuity forms shall be the actuarial equivalent of the normal forms provided in section 354A.31. In establishing these optional annuity forms, the board shall obtain the written recommendation of the commission-retained actuary. The recommendation shall be a part of the permanent records of the board.

Sec. 82. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354A.32, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1a. [BOUNCE-BACK ANNUITY.] (a) If a former coordinated member or disabilitant has selected a joint and survivor annuity option under subdivision 1, the former member or disabilitant must receive a normal single-life annuity if the designated optional annuity beneficiary dies before the former member or disabilitant. Under this option, no reduction may be made in the person's annuity to provide for restoration of the normal single-life annuity in the event of the death of the designated optional annuity beneficiary.

(b) A former coordinated member or disabilitant who selected an optional joint and survivor annuity before July 1, 1989, but did not choose an option that provides that the normal single-life annuity is payable to the former member or the disabilitant if the designated optional annuity beneficiary dies first, is eligible for restoration of the normal single-life annuity if the designated optional annuity beneficiary dies first, without further actuarial reduction of the person's annuity. A former member or disabilitant who selected an optional joint and survivor annuity, but whose designated optional annuity beneficiary died before July 1, 1989, shall receive a normal single-life annuity after that date, but shall not receive retroactive payments for periods before that date.

(c) A former coordinated member or disabilitant who took a further actuarial reduction to elect an optional joint and survivor annuity that provides that the normal annuity is payable to the former member or disabilitant if the designated optional beneficiary died before July 1, 1989, shall have the annuity increased as of July 1, 1989, to the amount the person would have received if, at the time of retirement or disability, the person had selected only optional survivor coverage that would not have provided for restoration of the normal annuity upon the death of the designated optional annuity beneficiary. Any annuity or benefit increase under this paragraph is effective only for payments made after June 30, 1989, and is not retroactive for payments made before July 1, 1989.

Sec. 83. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354A.35, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [DEATH BEFORE RETIREMENT; REFUND.] If a coordinated member or former coordinated member dies prior to retirement or prior to the receipt of any retirement annuity or other benefit payment which is or may be payable and a surviving spouse optional annuity is not payable pursuant to subdivision 2, a refund shall be paid to the person's surviving spouse, or if there is none, to the person's designated beneficiary, or if there is none, to the legal representative of the person's estate. The refund shall be in an amount equal to the person's accumulated contributions plus interest at the rate of ~~five~~ six percent per annum compounded annually.

Sec. 84. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354A.35, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DEATH WHILE ELIGIBLE TO RETIRE; SURVIVING SPOUSE OPTIONAL ANNUITY.] The surviving spouse of any coordinated member who has attained the age of at least 50 years and has credit for at least ~~five~~ three years of service or has credit for at least 30 years of service regardless of age shall be entitled to joint and survivor annuity coverage in the event of death of the member prior to retirement. The surviving spouse may apply for the annuity at any time after the date on which the deceased employee would have attained the required age for retirement based on the employee's allowable service. The member's surviving spouse shall be paid a joint and survivor annuity as provided in section 354A.32 and computed pursuant to section 354A.31. Sections 354A.37, subdivision 2, and 354A.39 apply to a deferred annuity payable under this section. The benefits shall be payable for life.

Sec. 85. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354A.36, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [MINIMUM AGE, SERVICE AND SALARY REQUIREMENTS.] Any coordinated member who has at least ~~five~~ three years of allowable service credit, has an average salary of at least $75 per month and has become totally and permanently disabled shall be entitled to a disability benefit. If the disabled coordinated member's allowable service credit has not been continuous, at least ~~three~~ two years of the required allowable service shall be required to have been rendered subsequent to the last interruption in service.

Sec. 86. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354A.36, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMPUTATION OF DISABILITY BENEFIT.] The coordinated permanent disability benefit shall be an amount equal to the normal coordinated retirement annuity computed pursuant to section 354A.31, subdivision 4, based on allowable service credited to the date of disability but without any reduction for the commencement of the benefit prior to the attainment of normal retirement age ~~65~~ or age 62 with at least 30 years of service credit as specified in section 354A.31, subdivision 6. The disabled coordinated member shall not be entitled to elect an optional annuity form pursuant to section 354A.32 prior to attaining normal retirement age ~~65~~ as provided in subdivision 10.

Sec. 87. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354A.36, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [RETIREMENT STATUS UPON ATTAINING NORMAL RETIREMENT AGE ~~65~~.] No person shall be entitled to receive both a disability benefit under this section and a retirement annuity under section 354A.31. If a disability benefit recipient remains totally and permanently disabled upon attaining normal retirement age ~~65~~, the disability benefit shall terminate and the former disability benefit recipient shall be deemed to be on retirement status. If the former disability benefit recipient had elected an optional annuity pursuant to subdivision 3a, the recipient shall receive an annuity in accordance with the terms of the optional annuity previously elected, or if the recipient had not elected an optional annuity pursuant to subdivision 3a, the recipient shall be entitled either to receive a retirement annuity in an amount equal to the greater of either a single life retirement annuity calculated pursuant to section 354A.31 or the disability benefit paid to the recipient immediately prior to the recipient's attaining normal retirement age ~~65~~ or elect either a single life retirement annuity as provided in this section or an actuarial equivalent optional form retirement annuity as provided in section 354A.32. Election of an optional annuity shall be made prior to the person attaining ~~the~~ normal retirement age ~~of 65 years~~. If an optional annuity is elected, the election shall be effective on the date on which the person attains the normal retirement age ~~of 65 years~~ and the optional annuity shall begin to accrue on the first day of the month next following the month in which the person attains ~~the~~ normal retirement age ~~of 65 years~~.

Sec. 88. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 354A.37, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [COMPUTATION OF REFUND AMOUNT.] A former coordinated member who qualifies for a refund pursuant to subdivision 1 shall receive a refund equal to the amount of the former coordinated member's accumulated contributions with interest at the rate of ~~five~~ six percent per annum compounded annually.

Any person who has been a member of the Minnesota state retirement system, the public employees retirement association including the public employees retirement association police and fire fund, the teachers retirement association, the Minnesota state patrol retirement association, the legislators retirement plan, the constitutional officers retirement plan, the Minneapolis employees retirement fund, the Duluth teachers retirement fund association new law coordinated program, the Minneapolis teachers retirement fund association coordinated program, the St. Paul teachers retirement fund association coordinated program, or any other public employee retirement system in the state of Minnesota having a like provision but excluding all other funds providing retirement benefits for police officers or firefighters shall be entitled when qualified to an annuity from each fund if the person's total allowable service in all of the funds or in any two or more of the funds totals ~~five~~ three or more years, provided that no portion of the allowable service upon which the retirement annuity from one fund is based is used again in the computation for a retirement annuity from another fund and provided further that the person has not taken a refund from any of funds or associations since the person's membership in the fund or association has terminated. The annuity from each fund or association shall be determined by the appropriate provisions of the law governing each fund or association, except that the requirement that a person must have at least ~~five~~ three years of allowable service in the respective fund or association shall not apply for the purposes of this section, provided that the aggregate service in two or more of these funds equals ~~five~~ three or more years.

Sec. 91. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 356.215, subdivision 4d, is amended to read:

Subd. 4d. [INTEREST AND SALARY ASSUMPTIONS.] For funds governed by chapters 3A, 352, 352B, 352C, 353, 353C, 354 other than the variable annuity fund governed by section 354.62, and 490, the actuarial valuation shall use a preretirement interest assumption of ~~eight~~ 8.3 percent, a postretirement interest assumption of five percent, and an assumption that in each future year the salary on which a retirement or other benefit is based is 1.065 multiplied by the salary for the preceding year. For funds governed by chapter 354A, the actuarial valuation shall use preretirement and postretirement assumptions of ~~eight~~ 8.3 percent and an assumption that in each future year the salary on which a retirement or other benefit is based is 1.065 multiplied by the salary for the preceding year, but the actuarial valuation shall reflect the payment of postretirement adjustments to retirees shall be based on the methods specified in the bylaws of the fund as approved by the legislature. For all other funds, the actuarial valuation shall use a preretirement interest assumption of five percent, a postretirement interest assumption of five percent, and an assumption that in each future year the salary on which a retirement or other benefit is based is 1.035 multiplied by the salary for the preceding year.

For funds governed by chapters 3A, 352C, and 490, the actuarial valuation shall use a preretirement interest assumption of ~~eight~~ 8.3 percent, a postretirement interest assumption of five percent, and an assumption that in each future year in which the salary amount payable is not determinable from section 3.099, 15A.081, subdivision 6, or 15A.083, subdivision 1, whichever is applicable, or from applicable compensation council recommendations under section 15A.082, the salary on which a retirement or other benefit is based is 1.065 multiplied by the known or computed salary for the preceding year, whichever is applicable.

Sec. 92. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 356.215, subdivision 4g, is amended to read:

Subd. 4g. [AMORTIZATION CONTRIBUTIONS.] In addition to the exhibit indicating the level normal cost, the actuarial valuation shall contain an exhibit indicating the additional annual contribution which would be required to amortize the unfunded actuarial accrued liability. For funds governed by chapters 3A, 352, 352B, 352C, 353, 353C, 354, 354A, and 490, the additional contribution shall be calculated on a level percentage of covered payroll basis by the established date for full funding which is in effect when the valuation is prepared. The level percent additional contribution shall be calculated assuming annual payroll growth of 6.5 percent. For all other funds, the additional annual contribution shall be calculated on a level annual dollar amount basis.

If, for any fund other than the Minneapolis employees retirement fund, after the first actuarial valuation date occurring after June 1, ~~1979~~ 1989, there has not been a change in the actuarial assumptions used for calculating the actuarial accrued liability of the fund, a change in the benefit plan governing annuities and benefits payable from the fund, a change in the actuarial cost method used in calculating the actuarial accrued liability of all or a portion of the fund, or a combination of the three, which change or changes by themselves without inclusion of any other items of increase or decrease produce a net increase in the unfunded actuarial accrued liability of the fund, the established date for full funding for the first actuarial valuation made after June 1, ~~1979~~ 1989, and each successive actuarial valuation shall be the first actuarial valuation date which occurs after June 1, ~~2009~~ 2020.

If, for any fund or plan other than the Minneapolis employees retirement fund, after the first actuarial valuation date occurring after June 1, ~~1979~~ 1989, there has been a change in any or all of the actuarial assumptions used for calculating the actuarial accrued liability of the fund, a change in the benefit plan governing annuities and benefits payable from the fund, a change in the actuarial cost method used in calculating the actuarial accrued liability of all or a portion of the fund, or a combination of the three, and the change or changes, by themselves and without inclusion of any other items of increase or decrease, produce a net increase in the unfunded actuarial accrued liability in the fund, the established date for full funding shall be determined using the following procedure:

(i) the unfunded actuarial accrued liability of the fund shall be determined in accordance with the plan provisions governing annuities and retirement benefits and the actuarial assumptions in effect before an applicable change;

(ii) the level annual dollar contribution or level percentage, whichever is applicable, which is needed to amortize the unfunded actuarial accrued liability amount determined pursuant to subclause (i) by the established date for full funding in effect prior to the change shall be calculated using the interest assumption specified in subdivision 4d in effect before the change;

(iii) the unfunded actuarial accrued liability of the fund shall be determined in accordance with any new plan provisions governing annuities and benefits payable from the fund and any new actuarial assumptions and the remaining plan provisions governing annuities and benefits payable from the fund and actuarial assumptions in effect before the change;

(iv) the level annual dollar contribution or level percentage, whichever is applicable, which is needed to amortize the difference between the unfunded actuarial accrued liability amount calculated pursuant to subclause (i) and the unfunded actuarial accrued liability amount calculated pursuant to subclause (iii) over a period of 30 years from the end of the plan year in which the applicable change is effective shall be calculated using the applicable interest assumption specified in subdivision 4d in effect after any applicable change;

(v) the level annual dollar or level percentage amortization contribution pursuant to subclause (iv) shall be added to the level annual dollar amortization contribution or level percentage calculated pursuant to subclause (ii);

(vi) the period in which the unfunded actuarial accrued liability amount determined in subclause (iii) will be amortized by the total level annual dollar or level percentage amortization contribution computed pursuant to subclause (v) shall be calculated using the interest assumption specified in subdivision 4d in effect after any applicable change, rounded to the nearest integral number of years, but which shall not exceed a period of 30 years from the end of the plan year in which the determination of the established date for full funding using the procedure set forth in this clause is made and which shall not be less than the period of years beginning in the plan year in which the determination of the established date for full funding using the procedure set forth in this clause is made and ending by the date for full funding in effect before the change; and

(vii) the period determined pursuant to subclause (vi) shall be added to the date as of which the actuarial valuation was prepared and the date obtained shall be the new established date for full funding.

For the Minneapolis employees retirement fund, the established date for full funding shall be June 30, 2017.

Sec. 93. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 356.30, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [ELIGIBILITY; COMPUTATION OF ANNUITY.] (1) Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary of the laws governing the funds enumerated in subdivision 3, a person who has met the qualifications of clause (2) may elect to receive a retirement annuity from each fund in which the person has at least six months allowable service, based on the allowable service in each fund, subject to the provisions of clause (3).

(2) A person may receive upon retirement, in lieu of any augmentation of deferred annuities provided by laws governing the funds enumerated in subdivision 3, a retirement annuity from each fund in which the person has at least six months allowable service if

(a) the person has allowable service totaling ~~five or more years~~ an amount that allows the person to receive an annuity in any two or more of the enumerated funds;

(b) the person has at least six months of allowable service with the last such fund earned during the last period of employment; and

(c) the person has not begun to receive an annuity from any enumerated fund or the person has made application for benefits from all funds within a six-month period.

(3) The retirement annuity from each fund shall be based upon the allowable service in each fund, except that:

(a) The laws governing annuities shall be the law in effect on the date of final termination from the last public service under a covered fund.

(b) The "average salary" on which the annuity from each covered fund in which the employee has credit in a formula plan shall be based on the employee's highest five successive years of covered salary during the entire service in covered funds.

(c) The formula percentages to be used by each fund shall be those percentages prescribed by each fund's formula as continued for the respective years of allowable service from one fund to the next, recognizing all previous allowable service with the other covered funds.

(d) Allowable service in all the funds shall be combined in determining eligibility for and the application of each fund's provisions in respect to actuarial reduction in the benefit amount for retirement prior to normal retirement.

(e) The benefit amount payable for any allowable service under a nonformula plan of a covered fund shall not be affected but such service and covered salary shall be used in the above calculation.

(f) This section shall not apply to any person whose final termination from the last public service under a covered fund is prior to May 1, 1975.

(g) For the purpose of computing benefits under this section the formula percentages used by any covered fund shall in no event exceed 2-1/2 percent per year of service for any year of service or fraction thereof.

(h) Any period of time for which a person has credit in more than one of the covered funds shall be used only once for the purpose of determining total allowable service.

(i) If the period of duplicated service credit is more than six months, or the person has credit for more than six months with each of the funds, each fund shall apply its formula to a prorated service credit for the period of duplicated service based on a fraction of the salary on which deductions were paid to that fund for the period divided by the total salary on which deductions were paid to all funds for the period.

(j) If the period of duplicated service credit is less than six months, or when added to other service credit with that fund is less than six months, the service credit shall be ignored and a refund of contributions made to the person in accord with that fund's refund provisions.

Sec. 94. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 356.32, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [PROPORTIONATE RETIREMENT ANNUITY.] Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary of the laws governing any of the retirement funds referred to in subdivision 2, any person who is an active member of any applicable fund, who has credit for at least one year but less than ten years of allowable service in one or more of the applicable funds, and who terminates active service pursuant to a mandatory retirement law or policy or at age 65 or older, or the normal retirement age if this age is not age 65, for any reason shall be entitled upon making written application on the form prescribed by executive director or executive secretary of the fund to a proportionate retirement annuity from each applicable fund in which the person has allowable service credit. The proportionate annuity shall be calculated under the applicable laws governing annuities based upon allowable service credit at the time of retirement and the person's average salary for the highest five successive years of allowable service or the average salary for the entire period of allowable service if less than five years. Nothing in this section shall prevent the imposition of the appropriate early retirement reduction of an annuity which commences prior to normal retirement age.

Sec. 95. [FIRST CLASS CITY TEACHER FUNDS.]

In accordance with Minnesota Statutes, section 354A.12, subdivision 4, approval is granted for the teachers retirement fund associations in each of the cities of the first class to amend their articles of incorporation or bylaws in the manner specified in this section. The amendments apply only to basic members in the Minneapolis teachers retirement fund association and the St. Paul teachers retirement fund association, and to old law coordinated program members in the Duluth teachers retirement fund association.

(a) For purposes of this paragraph, the retirement formula percentages are:

(1) for Minneapolis teachers retirement fund: 2.25 percent for each year of service;

(2) for St. Paul teachers retirement fund: 2.0 percent for each year of service; and

(3) for Duluth teachers retirement fund old coordinated plan: 1.25 percent for each year of service.

A member whose age plus credited allowable service totals 90 years, is entitled upon termination of active service and application, to a normal retirement annuity provided in the articles and bylaws without any reduction in the amount of the annuity by reason of early retirement unless the benefit in paragraph (b) in conjunction with paragraph (c) produces a higher annuity in which case, paragraph (b) applies. A member who retires before the normal retirement age shall be provided a normal retirement annuity provided in the articles and bylaws, reduced by one-fourth of one percent for each month that the employee is under normal retirement age at the time of retirement unless the benefit in paragraph (b) in conjunction with paragraph (c) produces a higher annuity, in which case paragraph (b) applies. For the Minneapolis teachers retirement association, this paragraph applies only to basic members with less than 30 years of service who have attained age 55. For Minneapolis teachers retirement fund basic members who were first hired after July 1, 1977, and who have 30 or more years of service, the early retirement penalty contained in the articles and bylaws is repealed.

(b) This paragraph applies only to a member whose annuity, when calculated under this paragraph in conjunction with paragraph (c), is higher than when calculated under paragraph (a). The average salary, as specified in the bylaws of St. Paul teachers retirement fund association, the bylaws of Duluth teachers retirement fund association, and the bylaws of Minneapolis teachers retirement fund association, multiplied by 2.5 percent for each year of service for basic members and 1.5 percent for each year of service for old coordinated members of Duluth teachers retirement fund association, shall determine the amount of the retirement annuity to which a member is entitled.

(c) This paragraph applies only to a member whose annuity under paragraph (b) in conjunction with this paragraph is higher than when calculated under paragraph (a). A member who retires under the formula annuity specified in paragraph (b) before the normal retirement age defined in section 354A.011, shall be paid the normal annuity provided in paragraph (b) reduced so that the reduced annuity is the actuarial equivalent of the annuity that would be payable to the employee if the employee deferred receipt of the annuity until the normal retirement age.

(d) The interest rate to be paid on refunds is six percent per annum compounded annually.

(e) Any joint and survivor annuity option is subject to an automatic bounce-back annuity as provided in section 354A.32, subdivision 1a.

(f) A member who is eligible for a deferred retirement annuity shall have the annuity augmented as provided in section 354A.37, subdivision 2.

(g) The first class city teachers retirement funds, may provide optional annuity forms to its retirement program which are the actuarial equivalent of its normal retirement annuity. For all optional forms, the board shall obtain the written recommendation of an approved actuary and the recommendation shall be a part of the permanent records of the board.

Sec. 96. [356.81] [SAVINGS CLAUSE.]

The intent of the legislature in sections 352.01, subdivision 25; 353.01, subdivision 35; 354.05, subdivision 38; and 354A.011, subdivision 15a is to create a normal retirement age for persons first covered by those sections after the effective date of those sections that is the same as the retirement age in the federal Social Security law, including future amendments to that law. If a court determines that the legislature may not incorporate by reference the future changes in federal Social Security law, the legislature reserves the right to amend the appropriate sections to make the normal retirement conform to the retirement age in the federal Social Security law. No person first covered by any of those sections after the effective date of those sections has a right to a normal retirement age that is less than the retirement age in the federal Social Security law.

Sec. 97. [356.705] [EARLY RETIREMENT OPTION.]

Sec. 98. [APPROPRIATION.]

Of these amounts, $739,000 in fiscal year 1990 and $785,000 in fiscal year 1991 is for allocation among state supported accounts at the University of Minnesota in proportion to estimated salaries paid to members of the general plan of the Minnesota state retirement system; $2,773,000 in fiscal year 1990 and $2,912,000 in fiscal year 1991 is for allocation among state agencies in proportion to estimated salaries paid from the state general fund to members of the general plan of the Minnesota state retirement system; and $106,000 in fiscal year 1990 and $112,000 in fiscal year 1991 is for allocation to state agencies in proportion to the estimated fiscal year 1989 salary part of the cost of services purchased by the agencies with state general fund monies from the following internal service funds: computer services, plant management, printing, motor pool, central stores, micrographics, telecommunications, general services, and office equipment.*

Subd. 2. [OTHER FUNDS.] Except as limited by the direct appropriations from the state general fund made in this section, the amounts necessary to pay the cost of increases in the employer contribution rate for the general plan of the Minnesota state retirement system, are appropriated from the various funds in the state treasury from which salaries are paid, to the commissioner of finance, for the fiscal years ending June 30, 1990 and June 30, 1991.

PARTIAL POSTRETIREMENT ADJUSTMENTS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 11A.18, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [CALCULATION OF POSTRETIREMENT ADJUSTMENT.] Annually, following June 30, the state board shall determine whether a postretirement adjustment ~~shall be~~ is payable and shall determine the amount of any postretirement adjustment ~~which shall be~~ that is payable.

(1) The state board shall determine whether a postretirement adjustment ~~shall be~~ is payable using the following procedure:

(a) The state board shall determine the amount of dividends, interest, accruals and realized capital gains or losses applicable to the most recent fiscal year ending June 30;

(b) The amount of reserves required for the annuity or benefit payable to an annuitant and benefit recipient of the participating public pension plans or funds shall be determined by the commission-retained actuary as of the current June 30. An annuitant or benefit recipient who has been receiving an annuity or benefit for at least ~~one year~~ 12 full months as of the current June 30 ~~shall be~~ is eligible to receive a full postretirement adjustment. An annuitant or benefit recipient who has been receiving an annuity or benefit for at least one full month, but less than 12 full months as of the current June 30, is eligible to receive a partial postretirement adjustment. Each fund shall report separately the amount of the reserves for those annuitants and benefit recipients who are eligible to receive a full postretirement benefit adjustment ~~and~~. This amount is known as "eligible reserves." Each fund shall also report separately the amount of the reserves for those annuitants and benefit recipients who are not eligible to receive a postretirement adjustment ~~shall be reported separately~~. This amount is known as "noneligible reserves." For an annuitant or benefit recipient who is eligible to receive a partial postretirement adjustment, each fund shall report separately as additional "eligible reserves" an amount that bears the same ratio to the total reserves required for the annuitant or benefit recipient as the number of full months of annuity or benefit receipt as of the current June 30 bears to 12 full months. The remainder of the annuitant's or benefit recipient's reserves shall be separately reported as additional "noneligible reserves." The amount of ~~the~~ "eligible" and "noneligible" required reserves shall be certified to the board by the commission-retained actuary as soon as is practical following the current June 30;

(c) The state board shall determine the amount of investment income required to equal five percent of the total amount of the required reserves as of the preceding June 30 adjusted by five percent of each transfer in or transfer out multiplied by the fraction of a year from the date of transfer to the current June 30. This amount of required investment income shall be subtracted from the actual amount of investment income determined according to clause (1)(a), to determine the amount of excess investment income. If this amount is positive, then a postretirement adjustment may be paid.

(2) The state board shall determine the amount of any postretirement adjustment which is payable using the following procedure:

(a) The state board shall determine the amount of excess investment income by the method indicated in clause (1);

(b) The total "eligible" required reserves as of the first of January next following the end of the fiscal year for the annuitants and benefit recipients eligible to receive ~~the~~ a full or partial postretirement adjustment as determined by clause (1)(b) shall be certified to the state board by the commission-retained actuary. The total "eligible" required reserves shall be determined by the commission-retained actuary on the assumption that all annuitants and benefit recipients eligible to receive ~~the~~ a full or partial postretirement adjustment will be alive on the January 1 in question;

(c) If the state board determines that the book value of the assets of the fund is less than an amount equal to the total amount of the current June 30 required reserves, with the book value and required reserves to be determined after the adjustments provided for in subdivision 11, then the state board shall allocate five percent of the excess investment income as an asset of the fund. The excess investment income allocated as an asset of the fund shall not exceed the difference between book value and required reserves. The remaining amount shall be termed available for distribution. The book value of assets on any given date shall be the net assets at cost less the excess investment income determined pursuant to clause (1)(c);

(d) The resulting total amount available for distribution shall be increased by 2-1/2 percent, and the result shall be stated as a percentage of the total amount of the required reserves pursuant to clause (2)(b), and if the percentage is equal to or greater than one percent, the amount shall be certified to each participating public pension fund or plan as the ~~amount of the~~ full postretirement adjustment amount. If the percentage is less than one percent, no postretirement adjustment shall be payable in that year and the amount otherwise available for distribution shall be credited to a separate reserve established for this purpose. The reserve shall be invested in the same manner as all other assets of the fund and shall be credited with any investment income as specified in clause (1)(a). Amounts credited to the reserve shall be utilized in determining a postretirement adjustment in the subsequent year. The amount of any full postretirement adjustment certified by the state board as payable to the participating public pension plans or funds shall be carried to five decimal places and stated as a percentage.

(e) A retirement annuity payable in the event of retirement before becoming eligible for social security benefits as provided in section 352.116, subdivision 3; 353.29, subdivision 6; or 354.35 must be treated as the sum of a period certain retirement annuity and a life retirement annuity for the purposes of any postretirement adjustment. The period certain retirement annuity plus the life retirement annuity shall be the annuity amount payable until age 62 or 65, whichever applies. A postretirement adjustment granted on the period certain retirement annuity must terminate when the period certain retirement annuity terminates.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 11A.18, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [PAYMENT OF POSTRETIREMENT ADJUSTMENT.] Upon receiving the certification of the amount of the full postretirement adjustment from the state board, each participating public pension fund or plan shall determine the amount of the postretirement adjustment payable to each eligible annuitant and benefit recipient. The dollar amount of the postretirement adjustment ~~payable to each annuitant or benefit recipient~~ shall be calculated by applying the certified postretirement adjustment percentage to the amount of the monthly annuity or benefit payable to each eligible annuitant or benefit recipient eligible for a full adjustment.

The dollar amount of the partial postretirement adjustment payable to each annuitant or benefit recipient eligible for a partial adjustment shall be calculated by first determining a partial percentage amount that bears the same ratio to the certified full adjustment percentage amount as the number of full months of annuity or benefit receipt as of the current June 30 bears to 12 full months. The partial percentage amount determined shall then be applied to the amount of the monthly annuity or benefit payable to each annuitant or benefit recipient eligible to receive a partial postretirement adjustment. The postretirement ~~adjustment~~ adjustments shall commence to be paid on January 1 following the calculations required pursuant to this section and shall thereafter be included in the monthly annuity or benefit paid to the recipient. Notwithstanding section 356.18, any ~~adjustment~~ adjustments pursuant to this section shall be paid automatically unless the intended recipient files a written notice with the applicable participating public pension fund or plan requesting that the adjustment not be paid.

Sections 1 and 2 are effective the day following final enactment.

POLICE AND FIRE

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.116, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [BOUNCE BACK ANNUITY.] (a) The board of trustees must provide a joint and survivor annuity option to members of the correctional employees and state patrol retirement funds. Under this option, a former member or disabilitant must receive a normal single life annuity if the designated optional annuity beneficiary dies before the former member or disabilitant. Under this option, no reduction may be made in the person's annuity to provide for restoration of the normal single life annuity in the event of the death of the designated optional annuity beneficiary.

(b) A former member or disabilitant of the correctional or state patrol fund who selected an optional joint and survivor annuity before July 1, 1989, but did not choose an option that provides that the normal single life annuity is payable to the former member or the disabilitant if the designated optional annuity beneficiary dies first, is eligible for restoration of the normal single life annuity if the designated optional annuity beneficiary dies first, without further actuarial reduction of the person's annuity. A former member or disabilitant who selected an optional joint and survivor annuity, but whose designated optional annuity beneficiary died before July 1, 1989, shall receive a normal single life annuity after that date, but shall not receive retroactive payments for periods before that date.

(c) A former member or disabilitant who took a further actuarial reduction to elect an optional joint and survivor annuity that provides that the normal annuity is payable to the former member or disabilitant if the designated optional beneficiary died before July 1, 1989, shall have the annuity increased as of July 1, 1989, to the amount the person would have received if, at the time of retirement or disability, the person had selected only optional survivor coverage that would not have provided for restoration of the normal annuity upon the death of the designated optional annuity beneficiary. Any annuity or benefit increase under this paragraph is effective only for payments made after June 30, 1989, and is not retroactive for payments made before July 1, 1989.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.93, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [CALCULATING MONTHLY ANNUITY.] The monthly annuity under this section must be determined by multiplying the average monthly salary by the number of years, or completed months, of covered correctional service by 2.5 percent ~~for the first 25 years of correctional service and two percent for each year after that~~. However, the monthly annuity must not exceed 75 percent of the average monthly salary.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.93, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [EARLY RETIREMENT.] Any covered correctional employee who has attained the age of at least 50 and who has at least five years of allowable service is entitled upon application to a retirement annuity equal to the normal annuity calculated under subdivision 2, reduced so that the reduced annuity is the actuarial equivalent of the annuity that would be payable if the employee deferred receipt of the annuity from the day the annuity begins to accrue to age 55.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.95, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [JOB-RELATED DISABILITY.] A covered correctional employee less than 55 years old who becomes disabled and physically unfit to perform the duties of the position as a direct result of an injury, sickness, or other disability incurred in or arising out of any act of duty that makes the employee physically or mentally unable to perform the duties, is entitled to a disability benefit based on covered correctional service only. The benefit amount must equal 50 percent of the average salary defined in section 352.93, plus an additional 2-1/2 percent for each year of covered correctional service in excess of 20 years ~~but not in excess of 25 years, and two percent for each year of covered correctional service in excess of 25 years~~, prorated for completed months~~, to a maximum monthly benefit of 75 percent of the average monthly salary~~.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352.95, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

[NON-JOB-RELATED DISABILITY.] Any covered correctional employee who, after at least ~~five years~~ one year of covered correctional service, before reaching the age of 55 becomes disabled and physically unfit to perform the duties of the position because of sickness or injury occurring while not engaged in covered employment, is entitled to a disability benefit based on covered correctional service only. The disability benefit must be computed as provided in section 352.93, subdivisions 1 and 2, and computed as though the employee had at least ~~ten~~ 15 years of covered correctional service.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352B.08, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [NORMAL RETIREMENT ANNUITY.] The annuity must be paid in monthly installments. The annuity shall be equal to the amount determined by multiplying the average monthly salary of the member by 2-1/2 percent for each year and pro rata for completed months of service ~~not exceeding 25 years and two percent for each year and pro rata for completed months of service in excess of 25 years~~.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352B.08, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [EARLY RETIREMENT.] Any member who has attained the age of at least 50 and who has at least five years of allowable service is entitled upon application to a retirement annuity equal to the normal annuity calculated under subdivision 2, reduced so that the reduced annuity is the actuarial equivalent of the annuity that would be payable if the member deferred receipt of the annuity from the day the annuity begins to accrue to age 55.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352B.10, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [INJURIES, PAYMENT AMOUNTS.] Any member less than 55 years old, who becomes disabled and physically or mentally unfit to perform duties as a direct result of an injury, sickness, or other disability incurred in or arising out of any act of duty, shall receive disability benefits while disabled. The benefits must be paid in monthly installments equal to the member's average monthly salary multiplied ~~(1)~~ by 50 percent ~~and~~, ~~(2) by~~ plus an additional 2-1/2 percent for each year and pro rata for completed months of service in excess of 20 years, ~~but not exceeding 25 years and two percent for each year and pro rata for completed months of service in excess of 25 years~~ if any.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352B.10, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [UNDER 55; DISABLED WHILE NOT ON DUTY.] If a member terminates employment after at least ~~five years~~ one year of service, before reaching the age of 55, because of sickness or injury occurring while not on duty and not engaged in state work entitling the member to membership, and the termination is necessary because the member cannot perform duties, the member is entitled to receive a disability benefit. The benefit must be in the same amount and computed in the same way as if the member were 55 years old at the date of disability and the annuity were paid under section 352B.08. If disability under this clause occurs after ~~five~~ one but before ~~ten~~ 15 years service, the disability benefit must be computed as though the member had ~~ten~~ 15 years service.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 352B.11, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [DEATH; PAYMENT TO SPOUSE AND CHILDREN.] If a member serving actively as a member, a member receiving the disability benefit provided by section 352B.10, subdivision 1, or a former member receiving a disability benefit as provided by section 352B.10, subdivision 3, dies from any cause, the surviving spouse and dependent children are entitled to benefit payments as follows:

(a) A member with at least five years of allowable service or a former member with at least 20 years of allowable service is deemed to have elected a 100 percent joint and survivor annuity payable to a surviving spouse only on or after the date the member or former member became or would have become 55.

(b) The surviving spouse of a member who had credit for less than five years of service shall receive, for life, a monthly annuity equal to ~~20~~ 50 percent of that part of the average monthly salary of the member from which deductions were made for retirement. If the surviving spouse remarries, the annuity shall cease as of the date of the remarriage.

(c) The surviving spouse of a member who had credit for at least five years service and who died after attaining 55 years of age, may elect to receive a 100 percent joint and survivor annuity, for life, notwithstanding a subsequent remarriage, in lieu of the annuity prescribed in paragraph (b).

(d) The surviving spouse of any member who had credit for five years or more and who was not 55 years of age at death, shall receive the benefit equal to ~~20~~ 50 percent of the average monthly salary as described in clause

(b) until the deceased member would have reached the age of 55 years, and beginning the first of the month following that date, may elect to receive the 100 percent joint and survivor annuity. If the surviving spouse remarries before the deceased member's 55th birthdate, benefits or annuities shall cease as of the date of remarriage. Remarriage after the deceased member's 55th birthday shall not affect the payment of the benefit.

(e) Each dependent child shall receive a monthly annuity equal to ten percent of that part of the average monthly salary of the former member from which deductions were made for retirement. A dependent child over 18 and under ~~22~~ 23 years of age also may receive the monthly benefit provided in this section, if the child is continuously attending an accredited school as a full-time student during the normal school year as determined by the director. If the child does not continuously attend school but separates from full-time attendance during any part of a school year, the annuity shall cease at the end of the month of separation. In addition, a payment of $20 per month shall be prorated equally to surviving dependent children when the former member is survived by one or more dependent children. Payments for the benefit of any qualified dependent child must be made to the surviving spouse, or if there is none, to the legal guardian of the child. The maximum monthly benefit must not be less than 50 nor exceed ~~40~~ 70 percent of the average monthly salary for any number of children.

(f) If the member dies under circumstances that entitle the surviving spouse and dependent children to receive benefits under the workers' compensation law, the workers' compensation benefits received by them must not be deducted from the benefits payable under this section.

(g) The surviving spouse of a deceased former member who had credit for five or more years of allowable service, but not the spouse of a former member receiving a disability benefit under section 352B.10, subdivision 3, is entitled to receive the 100 percent joint and survivor annuity at the time the deceased member would have reached the age of 55 years, if the surviving spouse has not remarried before that date. If a former member dies who does not qualify for other benefits under this chapter, the surviving spouse or, if none, the children or heirs are entitled to a refund of the accumulated deductions left in the fund plus interest at the rate of five percent per year compounded annually.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353.30, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 3a. [BOUNCE BACK ANNUITY.] (a) The board of trustees must provide a joint and survivor annuity option to members of the police and fire fund. Under this option, a former member or disabilitant must receive a normal single life annuity if the designated optional annuity beneficiary dies before the former member or disabilitant. Under this option, no reduction may be made in the person's annuity to provide for restoration of the normal single life annuity in the event of the death of the designated optional annuity beneficiary.

(b) A former member or disabilitant of the police and fire fund who selected an optional joint and survivor annuity before July 1, 1989, but did not choose an option that provides that the normal single life annuity is payable to the former member or the disabilitant if the designated optional annuity beneficiary dies first, is eligible for restoration of the normal single life annuity if the designated optional annuity beneficiary dies first, without further actuarial reduction of the person's annuity. A former member or disabilitant who selected an optional joint and survivor annuity, but whose designated optional annuity beneficiary died before July 1, 1989, shall receive a normal single life annuity after that date, but shall not receive retroactive payments for periods before that date.

(c) A former member or disabilitant who took a further actuarial reduction to elect an optional joint and survivor annuity that provides that the normal annuity is payable to the former member or disabilitant if the designated optional beneficiary died before July 1, 1989, shall have the annuity increased as of July 1, 1989, to the amount the person would have received if, at the time of retirement or disability, the person had selected only optional survivor coverage that would not have provided for restoration of the normal annuity upon the death of the designated optional annuity beneficiary. Any annuity or benefit increase under this paragraph is effective only for payments made after June 30, 1989, and is not retroactive for payments made before July 1, 1989.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353.651, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [RETIREMENT ANNUITY FORMULA.] The average salary as defined in subdivision 2, multiplied by 2-1/2 percent per year of allowable service ~~for the first 25 years and two percent per year of allowable service thereafter,~~ shall determine the amount of the normal retirement annuity. If the member has earned allowable service for performing services other than those of a police officer or firefighter, the annuity representing such service shall be computed in accordance with sections 353.29 and 353.30.

Sec. 13. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353.651, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [EARLY RETIREMENT.] Any police officer or firefighter member who has attained the age of at least 50 and who has at least five years of allowable service is entitled upon application to a retirement annuity equal to the normal annuity calculated under subdivision 3, reduced so that the reduced annuity is the actuarial equivalent of the annuity that would be payable to the member if the member deferred receipt of the annuity from the day the annuity begins to accrue until the member attains age 55.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353.656, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [IN LINE OF DUTY; COMPUTATION OF BENEFITS.] Any member of the police and fire fund less than 55 years of age, who shall become disabled and physically unfit to perform duties as a police officer or firefighter subsequent to June 30, 1973, as a direct result of an injury, sickness, or other disability incurred in or arising out of any act of duty, which shall render the member physically or mentally unable to perform duties as a police officer or firefighter, shall receive disability benefits during the period of such disability. The benefits shall be in an amount equal to 50 percent of the "average salary" pursuant to subdivision 3 plus an additional 2-1/2 percent of said average salary for each year of service in excess of 20 years ~~but not exceeding 25 years and two percent for each year thereafter~~. Should disability under this subdivision occur before the member has at least five years of allowable service credit in the police and fire fund, the disability benefit shall be computed on the "average salary" from which deductions were made for contribution to the police and fire fund.

Sec. 15. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353.656, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [NONDUTY DISABILITY BENEFIT.] Any member who becomes disabled after not less than ~~five years~~ one year of allowable service, before reaching the age of 55, because of sickness or injury occurring while not on duty as a police officer or firefighter, and by reason of that sickness or injury the member is unable to perform duties as a police officer or firefighter, shall be entitled to receive a disability benefit. The benefit shall be in the same amount and paid in the same manner as if the member were 55 years of age at the date of disability and the benefit were paid pursuant to section 353.651. If a disability under this subdivision occurs after ~~five~~ one but in less than ~~ten~~ 15 years of allowable service, the disability benefit shall be the same as though the member had at least ~~ten~~ 15 years service. For any member who is employed as a full-time firefighter by the department of military affairs of the state of Minnesota, allowable service as a full-time state military affairs department firefighter credited by the Minnesota state retirement system may be used in meeting the minimum allowable service requirement of this subdivision.

Sec. 16. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353.657, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. The spouse, for life or until remarriage, shall receive a monthly benefit equal to ~~30~~ 50 percent of the member's average full-time monthly salary rate as a police officer or firefighter in effect over the last six months of allowable service preceding the month in which death occurred.

Sec. 17. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 353.657, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. Each dependent child, until the child reaches the age of 18 years, shall receive a monthly benefit equal to ten percent of the member's average full-time monthly salary rate as a police officer or firefighter in effect over the last six months of allowable service preceding the month in which death occurred. A dependent child shall receive this benefit until age 23, so long as the child submits evidence of full-time enrollment in an accredited post-secondary educational institution for at least five of the 12 months immediately preceding the month for which benefits are sought. Payments for the benefit of any qualified dependent child ~~under the age of 18 years~~ shall be made to the surviving parent, or if there be none, to the legal guardian of the child or to any adult person with whom the child may at the time be living, provided only that the parent or other person to whom any amount is to be paid shall have advised the board in writing that the amount will be held or used in trust for the benefit of the child. The maximum monthly benefit for any one family shall not exceed an amount equal to ~~50~~ 70 percent of the member's specified average monthly salary, and the minimum benefit per family shall not be less than ~~30~~ 50 percent of the member's specified average monthly salary.

the treasurer of the duly incorporated firefighters' relief association if there is one organized and the association has filed a financial report with the municipality; but if there is no relief association organized, or if any association dissolve, be removed, or has heretofore dissolved, or has been removed as trustees of state aid, then the treasurer of the municipality shall keep the money in the municipal treasury as provided for in section 424A.08 and shall be disbursed only for the purposes and in the manner set forth in that section.

(a) For a municipality in which a local police relief association exists and all peace officers are members of the association, the total state aid shall be transmitted to the treasurer of the relief association within 30 days of the date of receipt, and the treasurer of the relief association shall immediately deposit the total state aid in the special fund of the relief association;

(b) For a municipality in which police retirement coverage is provided by the public employees police and fire fund and all peace officers are members of the fund, the total state aid shall be applied toward the municipality's employer contribution to the public employees police and fire fund pursuant to section 353.65, subdivision 3, and any state aid in excess of the amount required to meet the employer's contribution pursuant to section 353.65, subdivision 3, shall also be contributed to the public employees police and fire fund and credited in the manner to be specified by the board of trustees of the public employees retirement association; or

(c) For a municipality other than a city of the first class with a population of more than 300,000 in which both a police relief association exists and police retirement coverage is provided in part by the public employees police and fire fund, the municipality may elect at its option to transmit the total state aid to the treasurer of the relief association as provided in clause (a), to use the total state aid to apply toward the municipality's employer contribution to the public employees police and fire fund subject to all the provisions set forth in clause (b), or to allot the total state aid proportionately to be transmitted to the police relief association as provided in this subdivision and to apply toward the municipality's employer contribution to the public employees police and fire fund subject to the provisions of clause (b) on the basis of the respective number of active full-time peace officers, as defined in section 69.011, subdivision 1, clause (g).

For a city of the first class with a population of more than 300,000, in addition, the city may elect to allot the appropriate portion of the total police state aid to apply toward the employer contribution of the city to the public employees police and fire fund based on the covered salary of police officers covered by the fund each payroll period and to transmit the balance to the police relief association.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 69.77, subdivision 2b, is amended to read:

Subd. 2b. [RELIEF ASSOCIATION FINANCIAL REQUIREMENTS; MINIMUM MUNICIPAL OBLIGATION.] The officers of the relief association shall determine the financial requirements of the relief association and minimum obligation of the municipality for the following calendar year in accordance with the requirements of this subdivision. The financial requirements of the relief association and the minimum obligation of the municipality shall be determined on or before the submission date established by the municipality pursuant to subdivision 2c.

The financial requirements of the relief association for the following calendar year shall be based on the most recent actuarial valuation or survey of the special fund of the association if more than one fund is maintained by the association, or of the association, if only one fund is maintained, prepared in accordance with sections 356.215, subdivisions 4 to 4k and 356.216, as required pursuant to subdivision 2h. If an actuarial estimate is prepared by the actuary of the relief association as part of obtaining a modification of the benefit plan of the relief association and the modification is implemented, the actuarial estimate shall be used in calculating the financial requirements of the relief association.

If the relief association has an unfunded actuarial accrued liability as reported in the most recent actuarial valuation or survey, the total of the amounts calculated pursuant to clauses (a), (b), and (c) shall constitute the financial requirements of the relief association for the following year. If the relief association does not have an unfunded actuarial accrued liability as reported in the most recent actuarial valuation or survey the amount calculated pursuant to clauses (a) and (b) shall constitute the financial requirements of the relief association for the following year.

(a) The normal level cost requirement for the following year, expressed as a dollar amount, which shall be determined by applying the normal level cost of the relief association as reported in the actuarial valuation or survey and expressed as a percentage of covered payroll to the estimated covered payroll of the active membership of the relief association, including any projected increase in the active membership, for the following year.

(b) To the dollar amount of normal cost thus determined shall be added an amount equal to the dollar amount of the administrative expenses of the special fund of the association if more than one fund is maintained by the association, or of the association if only one fund is maintained, for the most recent year, multiplied by the factor of 1.035. For a relief association in a municipality, the administrative expenses are those authorized under section 69.80. No amount of administrative expenses under this clause shall be included in the financial requirements of a relief association in a city of the first class with a population of more than 300,000.

(c) To the dollar amount of normal cost and expenses determined under clauses (a) and (b) shall be added an amount equal to the level annual dollar amount which is sufficient to amortize the unfunded actuarial accrued liability by December 31, 2010, as determined from the actuarial valuation or survey of the fund, using an interest assumption set at the rate specified in section 356.215, subdivision 4d. The amortization date specified in this clause shall apply to all local police or salaried firefighters' relief associations and shall supersede any amortization date specified in any applicable special law.

The minimum obligation of the municipality shall be an amount equal to the financial requirements of the relief association reduced by the estimated amount of member contributions from covered salary anticipated for the following calendar year and the estimated amounts anticipated for the following calendar year from the applicable state aid program established pursuant to sections 69.011 to 69.051 receivable by the relief association after any allocation made pursuant to section 69.031, subdivision 5, clause (2), subclause (c) or 423A.01, subdivision 2, clause (6), from the local police and salaried firefighters' relief association amortization aid program established pursuant to section 423A.02 and from the supplementary amortization state-aid program established under Laws 1984, chapter 564, section 48, and Laws 1985, chapter 261, section 17.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 356.216, is amended to read:

356.216 [CONTENTS OF ACTUARIAL VALUATIONS FOR LOCAL POLICE AND FIRE FUNDS.]

(a) The provisions of section 356.215 governing the contents of actuarial valuations shall apply to any local police or fire pension fund or relief association required to make an actuarial report under this section except as follows:

(1) in calculating normal cost and other requirements, if required to be expressed as a level percentage of covered payroll, the salaries used in computing covered payroll shall be the maximum rate of salary from which retirement and survivorship credits and amounts of benefits are determined and from which any member contributions are calculated and deducted;

(2) in lieu of the amortization date specified in section 356.215, subdivision 4g, the appropriate amortization target date specified in section 69.77, subdivision 2b, or 69.773, subdivision 4, clause (b), shall be used in calculating any required amortization contribution;

(3) in addition to the tabulation of active members and annuitants provided for in section 356.215, subdivision 4i, the member contributions for active members for the calendar year and the prospective annual retirement annuities under the benefit plan for active members shall be reported;

(4) actuarial valuations required pursuant to section 69.773, subdivision 2, shall be made at least every four years and actuarial valuations required pursuant to section 69.77 shall be made annually; and

(5) the actuarial balance sheet showing accrued assets valued at market value if the actuarial valuation is required to be prepared at least every four years or valued as current assets under section 356.215, subdivision 1, clause ~~(5)~~ (6), or paragraph (b), whichever applies, if the actuarial valuation is required to be prepared annually, actuarial accrued liabilities, and the unfunded actuarial accrued liability shall include the following required reserves:

(a) For active members

1. Retirement benefits

2. Disability benefits

3. Refund liability due to death or withdrawal

4. Survivors' benefits

(b) For deferred annuitants' benefits

(c) For former members without vested rights

(d) For annuitants

1. Retirement annuities

2. Disability annuities

3. Surviving spouses' annuities

4. Surviving children's annuities

In addition to those required reserves, separate items shall be shown for additional benefits, if any, which may not be appropriately included in the reserves listed above.

(6) actuarial valuations shall be due by the first day of the seventh month after the end of the fiscal year which the actuarial valuation covers.

(b) For a relief association in a city of the first class with a population of more than 300,000, the following provisions additionally apply:

(1) in calculating the actuarial balance sheet, unfunded actuarial accrued liability, and amortization contribution of the relief association, "current assets" means the value of all assets at cost, including realized capital gains and losses, plus or minus, whichever applies, the average value of total unrealized capital gains or losses for the most recent three-year period ending with the end of the plan year immediately preceding the actuarial valuation report transmission date; and

(2) in calculating the applicable portions of the actuarial valuation, an annual preretirement interest assumption of six percent, an annual post-retirement interest assumption of six percent, and an annual salary increase assumption of four percent must be used.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 423A.01, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [OPERATION OF LOCAL RELIEF ASSOCIATION UPON MODIFICATION OF RETIREMENT COVERAGE FOR NEWLY HIRED POLICE OFFICERS AND FIREFIGHTERS.] The following provisions shall govern the operation of a local relief association upon the modification of retirement coverage for newly hired police officers or firefighters:

(1) The minimum obligation of a municipality in which the retirement coverage for newly hired police officers or salaried firefighters has been modified pursuant to subdivision 1 with respect to the local relief association shall be determined and governed in accordance with the provisions of sections 69.77, 356.215 and 356.216, except that the normal cost calculation for the relief association shall be computed as a percentage of the compensation paid to the active members of the relief association. The compensation paid to persons with retirement coverage modified pursuant to subdivision 1 shall not be included in any of the computations made in determining the obligation of the municipality with respect to the local relief association.

(2) The contribution rate of members of the local relief association shall be governed by section 69.77, unless a special law establishing a greater member contribution rate is applicable whereupon it shall continue to govern. The member contribution rate of persons with retirement coverage modified pursuant to subdivision 1 shall be governed by section 353.65.

(3) Unless otherwise provided for by law, when every active member of the local relief association retires or terminates from active duty, the local relief association shall cease to exist as a legal entity and the assets of the special fund of the relief association shall be transferred to a trust fund to be established by the appropriate municipality for the purpose of paying service pensions and retirement benefits to recipient beneficiaries. Recipient beneficiaries who are competent to act on their own behalf shall be entitled to select the prescribed number of trustees of the trust fund as provided in this clause, subject to the approval of the governing body of the municipality. If there are at least five recipient beneficiaries, the trust fund shall be managed by a board of trustees composed of five persons selected by the recipient beneficiaries of the fund. When there are fewer than five recipient beneficiaries, the number of trustees selected by the recipient beneficiaries shall be equal to the number of the remaining recipient beneficiaries. The governing body of the municipality shall select the additional trustees. The term of the elected members of the board of trustees shall be indefinite and shall continue until a vacancy occurs in one of the board of trustee member positions. Board of trustee members shall not be compensated for their services, but shall be reimbursed for any expenses actually and necessarily incurred as a result of the performance of their duties in their capacity as board of trustee members. The municipality shall perform whatever services are necessary to administer the trust fund. When all obligations of the trust fund are paid, the balance of the assets remaining in the trust fund shall revert to the municipality for expenditure for law enforcement or firefighting purposes, whichever is applicable.

(4) The financial requirements of the trust fund and the minimum obligation of the municipality with respect to the trust fund shall be determined in accordance with sections 69.77, 356.215 and 356.216 until the unfunded accrued liability of the trust fund is fully amortized in accordance with section 69.77, subdivision 2b. The municipality shall provide in its annual budget for at least the aggregate amount of service pensions, disability benefits, survivorship benefits and refunds which are projected as payable for the following calendar year, as determined by the board of trustees of the trust fund, less the amount of assets in the trust fund as of the end of the most current calendar year for which figures are available, valued pursuant to section 356.20, subdivision 4, clause (1)(a), if the difference between those two figures is a positive number.

(5) In calculating the amount of service pensions and other retirement benefits payable from the local relief association and in calculating the amount of any automatic post retirement increases in those service pensions and retirement benefits based on the salary paid or payable to active members or escalated in any fashion, the salary for use as the base for the service pension or retirement benefit calculation and the post retirement increase calculation for the local relief association shall be the salary for the applicable position as specified in the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the relief association as of the date immediately prior to the effective date of the modification of retirement coverage for newly hired personnel pursuant to subdivision 1, as the applicable salary is reset by the municipality periodically, irrespective of whether retirement coverage for persons holding the applicable position used in calculations is provided by the relief association or by the public employees police and fire fund.

(6) If the modification of retirement coverage implemented pursuant to subdivision 1 is applicable to a local police relief association, the police state aid received by the municipality shall be disbursed pursuant to section 69.031, subdivision 5, clause (2)(c). If the modification of retirement coverage implemented pursuant to subdivision 1 is applicable to a local firefighters' relief association, the fire state aid received by the applicable municipality other than a city of the first class with a population of more than 300,000 shall be disbursed as the municipality at its option may elect. The municipality may elect: (a) to transmit the total fire state aid to the treasurer of the local relief association for immediate deposit in the special fund of the relief association; or (b) to apply the total fire state aid toward the employer contribution of the municipality to the public employees police and fire fund pursuant to section 353.65, subdivision 3; or (c) to allocate the total fire state aid proportionately between the special fund of the local relief association and employer contribution of the municipality to the public employees police and fire fund on the basis of the respective number of active full time salaried firefighters receiving retirement coverage from each.

For a city of the first class with a population of more than 300,000, in addition, the city may elect to allot the appropriate portion of the total fire state aid to apply toward the employer contribution of the city to the public employees police and fire fund based on the covered salary of firefighters covered by the fund each payroll period and to transmit the balance to the firefighters relief association.

Sec. 6. [DISPOSITION OF ASSETS UPON CONCLUSION OF BENEFIT PAYMENTS.]

Upon the death of the last benefit recipient and the certification by the chief administrative officer of a city of the first class with a population of more than 300,000 to the state auditor of the absence of any remaining person with a benefit entitlement, the assets of the relief association or trust fund, whichever applies, must revert to the city and may be used by the city only for law enforcement or firefighting expenditure purposes, whichever applies.

Sec. 7. [INVESTMENT RELATED POSTRETIREMENT ADJUSTMENTS.]

Subdivision 1. [DEFINITIONS.] For the purposes of this section, the terms in this subdivision have the meanings given them in paragraphs (a) to (h).

(a) "Annual postretirement payment" means the payment of a lump sum postretirement benefit to an eligible member on June 1 following the determination date in any year.

(b) "City" means a city of the first class with a population of more than 300,000.

(c) "Determination date" means December 31 of each year.

(d) "Eligible member" means a person, including a service pensioner, a disability pensioner, a survivor, or dependent of a deceased active member, service pensioner, or disability pensioner, who received a pension or benefit during the 12 months before the determination date. A person who received a pension or benefit for the entire 12 months before the determination date is eligible for a full annual postretirement payment. A person who received a pension or benefit for less than 12 months before the determination date is eligible for a prorated annual postretirement payment.

(e) "Excess investment income" means the amount by which the time weighted total rate of return earned by the fund in the most recent fiscal year has exceeded the actual percentage increase in the current monthly salary of a top grade patrol officer or top grade firefighter, whichever applies, in the most recent fiscal year plus two percent. The excess investment income must be expressed as a dollar amount and may not exceed one percent of the total assets of the fund and does not exist unless the yearly average percentage increase of the time weighted total rate of return of the fund for the previous five years exceeds by two percent the yearly average percentage increase in monthly salary of a top grade patrol officer or top grade firefighter, whichever applies, during the previous five calendar years.

(f) "Fund" means a police relief association or firefighters relief association, whichever applies, located in the city and governed by Minnesota Statutes, section 69.77.

(g) "Relief association" means the police relief association or the firefighters relief association, whichever applies, located in the city.

(h) "Time weighted total rate of return" means the percentage amount determined by using the formula or formulas established by the state board of investment under Minnesota Statutes, section 11A.04, clause (11), and in effect on January 1, 1987.

Subd. 2. [ANNUAL POSTRETIREMENT PAYMENT AUTHORIZED.] Notwithstanding the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 69, or any other law to the contrary, the relief association may provide annual postretirement payments to eligible members under this section.

Subd. 3. [DETERMINATION OF EXCESS INVESTMENT INCOME.] The board of trustees of the relief association shall determine by May 1 of each year whether or not the relief association has excess investment income. The amount of excess investment income, if any, must be stated as a dollar amount and reported by the chief administrative officer of the relief association to the mayor and governing body of the city, the state auditor, the commissioner of finance, and the executive director of the legislative commission on pensions and retirement. The dollar amount of excess investment income up to one percent of the assets of the fund must be applied for the purpose specified in subdivision 4. Excess investment income must not be considered as income to or assets of the fund for actuarial valuations of the fund for that year under sections 69.77, 356.215, and 356.216, and the provisions of this section except to offset the annual postretirement payment. Additional investment income is any realized or unrealized investment income other than the excess investment income and must be included in the actuarial valuations performed under sections 69.77, 356.215, and 356.216, and the provisions of this section.

Subd. 4. [AMOUNT OF ANNUAL POSTRETIREMENT PAYMENT.] The amount determined under subdivision 3 must be applied in accordance with this subdivision. The relief association shall apply the first one-half of one percent of excess investment income to the payment of an annual postretirement payment as specified in this subdivision. The second one-half of one percent of excess investment income shall be applied to reduce the state amortization state aid or supplementary amortization state aid payments otherwise due to the relief association under section 423A.02 for the current calendar year. The relief association shall pay an annual postretirement payment to all eligible members in an amount not to exceed one-half of one percent of the assets of the fund. Payment of the annual postretirement payment must be in a lump sum amount on June 1 following the determination date in any year. Payment of the annual postretirement payment may be made only if the time weighted total rate of return exceeds by two percent the actual percentage increase in the current monthly salary of a top grade patrol officer or a top grade firefighter, whichever applies, in the most recent fiscal year, and the yearly average percentage increase of the time weighted total rate of return of the fund for the previous five years exceeds by two percent the yearly average percentage increase in monthly salary of a top grade patrol officer or a top grade firefighter, whichever applies, of the previous five years. The total amount of all payments to members may not exceed the amount determined under subdivision 3. Payment to each eligible member must be calculated by dividing the total number of pension units to which eligible members are entitled into the excess investment income available for distribution to members, and then multiplying that result by the number of units to which each eligible member is entitled to determine each eligible member's annual postretirement payment. Payment to each eligible member may not exceed an amount equal to the total monthly benefit that the eligible member was entitled to in the prior year under the terms of the benefit plan of the relief association or each eligible member's proportionate share of the excess investment income, whichever is less.

Subd. 5. [ANNUAL POSTRETIREMENT PAYMENT IN THE EVENT OF DEATH.] In the event an eligible member dies after the determination date and before the payment of the annual postretirement payment, the chief administrative officer of the relief association shall pay that eligible member's estate the amount to which the eligible member was entitled.

Subd. 6. [REPORT ON ANNUAL POSTRETIREMENT PAYMENT.] The chief administrative officer of the relief association shall submit a report on the amount of all postretirement payments made under this section and the manner in which those payments were determined to the state auditor, the executive director of the legislative commission on pensions and retirement, and the city clerk of the city.

Subd. 7. [NO GUARANTEE OF ANNUAL POSTRETIREMENT PAYMENT.] No provision of or payment made under this section may be interpreted or relied upon by any member of the relief association to guarantee or entitle a member to annual postretirement payments for a period when no excess investment income is earned by the fund.

Sec. 8. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 7 are effective on the day following final enactment and apply to 1988 investment performance, actuarial valuations covering the calendar year ending December 31, 1988, and the annual financial requirements and minimum municipal obligation based on the 1988 actuarial valuations."

The city council may rescind the resolution requesting exemption at any time, and, upon the filing of the rescinding resolution with the commission, the provisions of this chapter shall apply to the public utility. No person shall be deemed to be a public utility if it furnishes its services only to tenants or cooperative or condominium owners in buildings owned, leased or operated by such person. (c) In the event an eligible recipient is receiving no compensation or is receiving a reduced level of compensation because of a valid agreement in settlement of a claim, no supplementary benefit shall be payable under this section. Attorney's fees shall be allowed in settlements of claims for supplementary benefits in accordance with this chapter.

(d) In the event an eligible recipient is receiving no compensation or is receiving a reduced level of compensation because of prior limitations in the maximum amount payable for permanent total disability or because of reductions resulting from the simultaneous receipt of old age or disability benefits, the supplementary benefit shall be payable for the difference between the actual amount of compensation currently being paid and 65 percent of the statewide average weekly wage as computed annually.

(e) In the event that an eligible recipient is receiving simultaneous benefits from any government disability program, the amount of supplementary benefits payable under this section shall be reduced by five percent. If the individual does not receive the maximum benefits for which the individual is eligible under other governmental disability programs due to the provisions of United States Code, title 42, section 424a(d), this reduction shall not apply.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision in this subdivision to the contrary, if the individual does not receive the maximum benefits for which the individual is eligible under other governmental disability programs due to the provision of United States Code, title 42, section 424a(d), the calculation of supplementary benefits payable to the individual shall be as provided under this section in Minnesota Statutes 1988."

The tenant may not deposit the rent or file the written notice of the code violation until the time granted to make repairs has expired without satisfactory repairs being made, unless the tenant alleges that the time granted is excessive.*

(b) For a violation of section 566.18, subdivision 6, clause (b) or (c), the tenant must give written notice to the owner specifying the violation. The notice must be delivered personally or sent to the person or place where rent is normally paid. The contents of the counterclaim for possession must meet the requirements for a complaint in unlawful detainer under section 566.05. The owner must serve the counterclaim as provided in section 566.06, except that the affidavits of service or mailing may be brought to the hearing rather than filed with the court before the hearing. The notice of hearing must specify the amount the tenant has deposited with the court administrator, and must inform the owner that possession of the premises will not be in issue at the hearing unless the owner files a counterclaim for possession or an action under sections 566.01 to 566.17.

(c) When a proceeding under this section has been consolidated with a counterclaim for possession or an action under an unlawful detainer under sections 566.01 to 566.17 on the grounds of nonpayment, the court may not require the tenant to pay the owner's filing fee as a condition of retaining possession of the premises when the tenant has deposited with the court the full amount of money found by the court to be owed to the owner.

Subd. 11. [RELEASE OF RENT AFTER HEARING.] Upon finding, after a hearing on the matter has been held, that no violation exists in the building or that the tenant did not deposit the full amount of rent due with the court administrator, the court shall order the immediate release of the rent to the owner. Upon finding that a violation existed, but was remedied between the commencement of the action and the hearing, the court may order rent abatement and must release the rent to the parties accordingly. Any rent found to be owed to the tenant must be released to the tenant.

Subd. 12. [RETALIATION; WAIVER; RIGHTS AS ADDITIONAL.] *The provisions of section 566.28 apply to proceedings under this section. Sec. 12. [582.031] [LIMITED RIGHT OF ENTRY BY MORTGAGEE OR PURCHASER AT FORECLOSURE SALE.]

The holder of the mortgage or sheriff's certificate does not become a mortgagee in possession by taking actions authorized under this section. An affidavit of the sheriff, the holder of the mortgage or sheriff's certificate, or a person acting on behalf of the holder, describing the premises and stating that the same are vacant or unoccupied, is prima facie evidence of the facts stated in the affidavit and is entitled to be recorded in the office of the county recorder or the registrar of titles in the county where the premises are located, if it contains a legal description of the premises.*

Subd. 2. [AUTHORIZED ACTIONS.] *The holder of the mortgage or sheriff's certificate may take the following actions to protect the premises from waste: install or change locks on doors and windows, board windows, and otherwise prevent or minimize damage to the premises from the elements, vandalism, trespass, or other illegal activities. Subd. 3. [COSTS.] All costs incurred by the holder of the mortgage to protect the premises from waste may be added to the principal balance of the mortgage. The costs may bear interest to the extent provided in the mortgage and may be added to the redemption price if the costs are incurred after a foreclosure sale. If the costs are incurred after a foreclosure sale, the purchaser at the foreclosure sale must comply with the provisions of section 582.03. The provisions of this section are in addition to, and do not limit or replace, any other rights or remedies available to holders of mortgages and sheriff's certificates, at law or under the applicable mortgage agreements.

Sec. 13. [582.032] [FIVE-WEEK REDEMPTION PERIOD FOR CERTAIN ABANDONED PROPERTIES.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICATION.] This section applies to mortgages executed after December 31, 1989, under which there has been a default in the payment of money existing for at least 60 days as of the date of the filing of the complaint or motion provided for in this section. This section applies only when the mortgaged premises are:

(1) ten acres or less in size;

(2) improved with a residential dwelling consisting of less than five units which is neither a model home nor a dwelling under construction; and

(3) not property used in agricultural production within the meaning of Laws 1986, chapter 398, section 5.

This section applies to foreclosures by action under chapter 581 and to foreclosures by advertisement under chapter 580.

Subd. 2. [BEFORE FORECLOSURE SALE.] Notwithstanding section 580.23 or 581.10, if at any time before the foreclosure sale but not more than 30 days before the first publication of the notice of sale, a court order is entered reducing the mortgagor's redemption period to five weeks under subdivision 7, after the mortgaged premises have been sold as provided in chapter 580 or 581, the mortgagor, and the mortgagor's personal representatives or assigns, within five weeks after the sale under chapter 580, or within five weeks after the date of the order confirming the sale under chapter 581, may redeem the mortgaged premises as provided in section 580.23, subdivision 1, or section 581.10, as applicable. If an order is obtained after the first publication of the notice of sale, the five-week redemption period applies only if the notice of sale contained the statement required by section 580.04, clause (7).

Subd. 3. [AFTER FORECLOSURE SALE.] Notwithstanding section 580.23 or 581.10, if at any time after the foreclosure sale, a court order is entered reducing the mortgagor's redemption period under subdivision 7, the period during which the mortgagor, the mortgagor's personal representatives and assigns, may redeem the mortgaged premises in accordance with the provisions of section 580.23, subdivision 1, or section 581.10, as applicable, is reduced so as to expire five weeks from the date the order is entered. Within ten days after the order is entered, a certified copy of the order must be filed with the office of the county recorder or registrar of titles for the county in which the mortgaged premises are located, and a copy of the order must be posted in a conspicuous place on the mortgaged premises. Within ten days of the order's entry, a copy of the order must be sent by certified mail to any party holding a lien or interest of record junior to the foreclosed mortgage who has filed with the county recorder or registrar of titles a certificate identifying the lienholder and the lien claimed, stating the lienholder's address and the legal description of the property covered by the lien, and requesting notice of any post-foreclosure sale reduction of the mortgagor's redemption period for any superior lien. Affidavits of posting and mailing to evidence the same are prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein and are entitled to recordation along with the certified copy of the order.

Subd. 4. [SUMMONS AND COMPLAINT.] In a foreclosure by advertisement, the party foreclosing a mortgage or holding the sheriff's certificate of sale may initiate a proceeding in district court to reduce the mortgagor's redemption period under this section. The proceeding must be initiated by the filing of a complaint, naming the mortgagor, or the mortgagor's personal representatives or assigns of record, as defendant, in district court for the county in which the mortgaged premises are located. If the proceeding is commenced after the foreclosure sale, the holders of junior liens and interests entitled to notice under subdivision 3 must also be named as defendants. The complaint must identify the mortgaged premises by legal description and must identify the mortgage by the names of the mortgagor and mortgagee, and any assignee of the mortgagee; the date of its making; and pertinent recording information. The complaint must allege that the mortgaged premises are:

(1) ten acres or less in size;

(2) improved with a residential dwelling consisting of less than five units, which is not a model home or a dwelling under construction;

(3) not property used in agricultural production within the meaning of Laws 1986, chapter 398, section 5; and

(4) abandoned.

The complaint must request an order reducing the mortgagor's redemption period to five weeks. When the complaint has been filed, the court shall issue a summons commanding the person or persons named in the complaint to appear before the court on a day and at a place stated in the summons. The appearance date shall be not less than 15 nor more than 25 days from the date of the issuing of the summons. A copy of the filed complaint must be attached to the summons.

Subd. 5. [ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE.] In a foreclosure by action, the plaintiff or the holder of the sheriff's certificate may make a motion to reduce the mortgagor's redemption period under this section. The motion must conform generally to the pleading requirements provided in subdivision 4. For purposes of the motion, the court has continuing jurisdiction over the parties and the mortgaged premises through the expiration of the redemption period. When the motion has been filed, the court shall issue an order to show cause commanding the parties it considers appropriate to appear before the court on a day and at a place stated in the order. The appearance date may not be less than 15 nor more than 25 days after the date of the order to show cause. A copy of the motion must be attached to the order to show cause.

Subd. 6. [SERVICE.] The summons or order to show cause may be served by any person not named a party to the action. The summons or order to show cause must be served at least seven days before the appearance date, in the manner provided for service of a summons in a civil action in the district court. If the defendant cannot be found in the county, the summons or order to show cause may be served by sending a copy by certified mail to the defendant's last known address, if any, at least ten days before the appearance date. The summons or order to show cause must be posted in a conspicuous place on the mortgaged premises not less than seven days before the appearance date. If personal or certified mail service cannot be made on a defendant, then the plaintiff or plaintiff's attorney may file an affidavit to that effect with the court and service by posting the summons or order to show cause on the mortgaged premises is sufficient as to that defendant.

Subd. 7. [HEARING; EVIDENCE; ORDER.] At the hearing on the summons and complaint or order to show cause, the court shall enter an order reducing the mortgagor's redemption period as provided in subdivision 2 or 3, as applicable, if evidence is presented supporting the allegations in the complaint or motion and no appearance is made to oppose the relief sought. An affidavit by the sheriff or a deputy sheriff of the county in which the mortgaged premises are located, or of a building inspector, zoning administrator, housing official, or other municipal or county official having jurisdiction over the mortgaged premises, stating that the mortgaged premises are not actually occupied and further setting forth any of the following supporting facts, is prima facie evidence of abandonment:

(1) windows or entrances to the premises are boarded up or closed off, or multiple window panes are broken and unrepaired;

(2) doors to the premises are smashed through, broken off, unhinged, or continuously unlocked;

(3) gas, electric, or water service to the premises has been terminated;

(4) rubbish, trash, or debris has accumulated on the mortgaged premises;

(5) the police or sheriff's office has received at least two reports of trespassers on the premises, or of vandalism or other illegal acts being committed on the premises; or

(6) the premises are deteriorating and are either below or are in imminent danger of falling below minimum community standards for public safety and sanitation.

An affidavit of the party foreclosing the mortgage or holding the sheriff's certificate, or one of their agents or contractors, stating any of the above supporting facts, and that the affiant has changed locks on the mortgaged premises under section 12 and that for a period of ten days no party having a legal possessory right has requested entrance to the premises, is also prima facie evidence of abandonment. Either affidavit described above, or an affidavit from any other person having knowledge, may state facts supporting any other allegations in the complaint or motion and is prima facie evidence of the same. Written statements of the mortgagor, the mortgagor's personal representatives or assigns, including documents of conveyance, which indicate a clear intent to abandon the premises, are conclusive evidence of abandonment. In the absence of affidavits or written statements, or if rebuttal evidence is offered by the defendant or a party lawfully claiming through the defendant, the court may consider any competent evidence, including oral testimony, concerning any allegation in the complaint or motion. An order entered under this section must contain a legal description of the mortgaged premises.

Subd. 8. [RECORDING.] A certified copy of an order reducing a mortgagor's redemption period entered under this section may be recorded in the office of the county recorder or registrar of titles for the county in which the mortgaged premises are located.

Sec. 3. Laws 1974, chapter 285, section 2, is amended to read:

Sec. 2. [~~CITY OF MINNEAPOLIS;~~ HOUSING REHABILITATION LOAN PROGRAM.] The city ~~of Minneapolis~~ is authorized to develop and administer a housing rehabilitation loan program with respect to property located anywhere within its boundaries on such terms and conditions as it determines; provided that in approving applications for ~~this~~ such a program, the following factors shall be considered:

(6) Whether rehabilitation of the housing will maintain or improve the value of the housing and will help to stabilize the neighborhood in which the housing is located.

Sec. 4. Laws 1974, chapter 285, is amended by adding a section to read:

For purposes of this section, land shall be considered to be owned by the city if the city or one of its agencies previously owned the land and conveyed it to an individual under a development agreement in which the individual has agreed to construct single family housing on such land. In* approving applications for a loan to be made under this section, the following factors shall be considered:

(1) the availability and affordability of other governmental programs or private market financing; and

(2) whether the construction of such housing enhances the stability of the neighborhood in which it is located.

Sec. 5. Laws 1974, chapter 285, section 3, is amended to read:

Sec. 3. [~~CITY OF MINNEAPOLIS;~~ HOUSING REHABILITATION GRANT PROGRAM.] The city ~~of Minneapolis~~ is authorized to develop and administer a housing rehabilitation grant program with respect to property within its boundaries, on such terms and conditions as it determines; provided that in approving applications for grants under this program, all of the considerations and limitations enumerated in section 2 for loans must be considered ~~in making grants under this program~~, and the following factors must also be considered:

(1) Whether the housing unit is a single family dwelling or homesteaded unit and

(2) Whether the applicant is a person of low income; and further provided that the city council ~~of the city of Minneapolis~~ shall by ordinance set forth the regulations for ~~this~~ its grant program; and further provided that the dollar value of grants made shall not exceed five percent of the total value of the bonds issued for the loan and grant program together, and that all grants shall be made primarily to rehabilitate housing so that it meets applicable housing codes.

Sec. 6. Laws 1974, chapter 285, section 4, is amended to read:

Sec. 4. [ISSUANCE OF BONDS.] To finance the programs authorized in sections 2, 2a, and 3 of this act, the governing body of the city ~~of Minneapolis~~ may by resolution authorize, issue, and sell general obligation bonds of the city ~~of Minneapolis~~ in accordance with the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, Chapter 475. The total amount of all bonds outstanding for the programs shall not exceed ~~$10,000,000~~ $25,000,000. ARTICLE 6

NEIGHBORHOOD REVITALIZATION PROGRAM

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 282.01, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [CLASSIFICATION; USE; EXCHANGE.] It is the general policy of this state to encourage the best use of tax-forfeited lands, recognizing that some lands in public ownership should be retained and managed for public benefits while other lands should be returned to private ownership. All parcels of land becoming the property of the state in trust under the provisions of any law now existing or hereafter enacted declaring the forfeiture of lands to the state for taxes, shall be classified by the county board of the county wherein such parcels lie as conservation or nonconservation. Such classification shall be made with consideration, among other things, to the present use of adjacent lands, the productivity of the soil, the character of forest or other growth, accessibility of lands to established roads, schools, and other public services, their peculiar suitability or desirability for particular uses and the suitability of the forest resources on the land for multiple use, sustained yield management. Such classification, furthermore, shall aid: to encourage and foster a mode of land utilization that will facilitate the economical and adequate provision of transportation, roads, water supply, drainage, sanitation, education, and recreation; to facilitate reduction of governmental expenditures; to conserve and develop the natural resources; and to foster and develop agriculture and other industries in the districts and places best suited thereto.

In making such classification the county board may make use of such data and information as may be made available by any office or department of the federal, state, or local governments, or by any other person or agency possessing information pertinent thereto at the time such classification is made. Such lands may be reclassified from time to time as the county board may deem necessary or desirable, except as to conservation lands held by the state free from any trust in favor of any taxing district.

If any such lands are located within the boundaries of any organized town, with taxable valuation in excess of $20,000, or incorporated municipality, the classification or reclassification and sale shall first be approved by the town board of such town or the governing body of such municipality insofar as the lands located therein are concerned. The town board of the town or the governing body of the municipality will be deemed to have approved the classification or reclassification and sale if the county board is not notified of the disapproval of the classification or reclassification and sale within 90 days of the date the request for approval was transmitted to the town board of the town or governing body of the municipality. If the town board or governing body desires to acquire any parcel lying in the town or municipality by procedures authorized in this subdivision, it shall, within 90 days of the request for classification or reclassification and sale, file a written application with the county board to withhold the parcel from public sale. The county board shall then withhold the parcel from public sale for one year.

Any tax-forfeited lands may be sold by the county board to any organized or incorporated governmental subdivision of the state for any public purpose for which such subdivision is authorized to acquire property or may be released from the trust in favor of the taxing districts upon application of any state agency for any authorized use at not less than their value as determined by the county board. The commissioner of revenue ~~shall have power to~~ may convey by deed in the name of the state any tract of tax-forfeited land held in trust in favor of the taxing districts, to any governmental subdivision for any authorized public use, provided that an application ~~therefor shall be~~ is submitted to the commissioner with a statement of facts as to the use to be made of ~~such~~ the tract and the need therefor and the recommendation of the county board. The commissioner of revenue shall convey by deed in the name of the state any tract of tax-forfeited land held in trust in favor of the taxing districts, to a political subdivision that submits an application to the commissioner of revenue and the county board. The application must include a resolution, adopted by the governing body of the political subdivision, finding that the conveyance of a tract of tax-forfeited land to the political subdivision is necessary to provide for the redevelopment of land as productive taxable property. The deed of conveyance shall be upon a form approved by the attorney general and shall be conditioned upon continued use for the purpose stated in the application, provided, however, that if the governing body of such governmental subdivision by resolution determines that some other public use shall be made of such lands, and such change of use is approved by the county board and an application for such change of use is made to, and approved by, the commissioner, such changed use may be made of such lands without the necessity of the governing body conveying the lands back to the state and securing a new conveyance from the state to the governmental subdivision for such new public use.

Whenever any governmental subdivision to which any tax-forfeited land has been conveyed for a specified public use as provided in this section shall fail to put such land to such use, or to some other authorized public use as provided herein, or shall abandon such use, the governing body of the subdivision shall authorize the proper officers to convey the same, or such portion thereof not required for an authorized public use, to the state of Minnesota, and such officers shall execute a deed of such conveyance forthwith, which conveyance shall be subject to the approval of the commissioner and in form approved by the attorney general, provided, however, that a sale, lease, transfer or other conveyance of such lands by a housing and redevelopment authority, a port authority, an economic development authority, or a city as authorized by ~~sections 469.001 to 469.047~~ chapter 469 shall not be an abandonment of such use and such lands shall not be reconveyed to the state nor shall they revert to the state. A certificate made by a housing and redevelopment authority, a port authority, an economic development authority, or a city referring to a conveyance by it and stating that the conveyance has been made as authorized by ~~sections 469.001 to 469.047~~ chapter 469 may be filed with the county recorder or registrar of titles, and the rights of reverter in favor of the state provided by this subdivision will then terminate. No vote of the people shall be required for such conveyance. In case any such land shall not be so conveyed to the state, the commissioner of revenue shall by written instrument, in form approved by the attorney general, declare the same to have reverted to the state, and shall serve a notice thereof, with a copy of the declaration, by certified mail upon the clerk or recorder of the governmental subdivision concerned, provided, that no declaration of reversion shall be made earlier than five years from the date of conveyance for failure to put such land to such use or from the date of abandonment of such use if such lands have been put to such use. The commissioner shall file the original declaration in the commissioner's office, with verified proof of service as herein required. The governmental subdivision may appeal to the district court of the county in which the land lies by filing with the court administrator a notice of appeal, specifying the grounds of appeal and the description of the land involved, mailing a copy thereof by certified mail to the commissioner of revenue, and filing a copy thereof for record with the county recorder or registrar of titles, all within 30 days after the mailing of the notice of reversion. The appeal shall be tried by the court in like manner as a civil action. If no appeal is taken as herein provided, the declaration of reversion shall be final. The commissioner of revenue shall file for record with the county recorder or registrar of titles, of the county within which the land lies, a certified copy of the declaration of reversion and proof of service.

Any city of the first class now or hereafter having a population of 450,000, or over, or its board of park commissioners, which has acquired tax-forfeited land for a specified public use pursuant to the terms of this section, may convey said land in exchange for other land of substantially equal worth located in said city of the first class, provided that the land conveyed to said city of the first class now or hereafter having a population of 450,000, or over, or its board of park commissioners, in exchange shall be subject to the public use and reversionary provisions of this section; the tax-forfeited land so conveyed shall thereafter be free and discharged from the public use and reversionary provisions of this section, provided that said exchange shall in no way affect the mineral or mineral rights of the state of Minnesota, if any, in the lands so exchanged.

The process to involve residents of the targeted neighborhood must include at least one public hearing. The city of Minneapolis shall establish the community-based process as outlined in subdivision 3. The city of St. Paul shall use the same community-based process the city used in planning, developing, drafting, and implementing the revitalization program required under Laws 1987, chapter 386, article 6, section 6. (d) The city shall ensure that the strategic planning group required under paragraph (c) is established. An existing group or organization that reflects the required membership under paragraph (c) may be designated as the strategic planning group. The city may provide financial and staff resources to ensure the establishment of the strategic planning groups, and may use part of the money received from the state under section 15 to assist in the establishment of the targeted neighborhood strategic planning groups.

(f) The city shall establish an urban revitalization action program advisory committee to assist the city in developing and implementing the preliminary revitalization program. The advisory committee shall consist of at least two representatives of the city council appointed by the city council, one or more for-profit or nonprofit housing developers, one or more representatives of the business community appointed by the city's chamber of commerce, and resident representatives of the targeted neighborhoods. The representatives of the targeted neighborhoods shall represent a majority of the membership of the advisory committee and reflect the geographic, cultural, racial, and ethnic diversity of the targeted neighborhoods. The city may determine the size of the advisory committee and may designate an existing entity as the advisory committee if the entity meets the membership requirements outlined in this subdivision.

(g) The advisory committee shall work closely with city staff in developing and drafting the preliminary revitalization program. The advisory committee shall be involved in assessing needs, prioritizing funds, and developing criteria for evaluating program proposals. In developing the preliminary program, the advisory committee shall give consideration to the recommendations made by the targeted neighborhood strategic planning groups.

(h) The advisory committee shall conduct a public hearing and secure input from residents of targeted neighborhoods, business persons, governmental units affected by the program, and other organizations and persons.

(b) Before adoption of a revitalization program under paragraph (c), the city must submit a preliminary program to the commissioner, the state planning agency, and the Minnesota housing finance agency for their comments. The city may not adopt the revitalization program until comments have been received from the state agencies or 30 days have elapsed without response after the program was sent to them. Comments received by the city from the state agencies within the 30-day period must be responded to in writing by the city before adoption of the program by the city.

(c) The city may adopt a revitalization program only after holding a public hearing after the program has been prepared. Notice of the hearing must be provided in a newspaper of general circulation in the city and in the most widely circulated community newspaper in the targeted neighborhoods not less than ten days nor more than 30 days before the date of the hearing.

(d) A certification by the city that a revitalization program has been approved by the city council for the targeted neighborhood must be provided to the commissioner together with a copy of the program. A copy of the program must also be provided to the Minnesota housing finance agency and the state planning agency.

(e) A revitalization program for the city may be modified at any time by the city council after a public hearing, notice of which is published in a newspaper of general circulation in the city and in the targeted neighborhood at least ten days nor more than 30 days before the date of the hearing. If the city council determines that the proposed modification is a significant modification to the program originally certified under paragraph (d), the city council shall implement the revitalization program approval and certification process of this subdivision for the proposed modification.

Subd. 5. [CITY OF SAINT PAUL APPROVAL.] (a) Notwithstanding any other law, including laws passed by the 1989 legislature, the city of St. Paul must use the process under this subdivision for developing and certifying an urban revitalization action program.

(b) For the purposes of this subdivision, "city" means the city of Saint Paul.

(c) A city may approve a preliminary revitalization program developed through a process that includes the citizen participation required under subdivision 2 only after holding a public hearing. Notice of the hearing must be provided in a newspaper of general circulation in the city and in the targeted neighborhoods not less than ten days nor more than 30 days before the date of the hearing. After the public hearing and after the city has incorporated any changes into the preliminary program as a result of the public hearing, the city may approve the preliminary program and shall submit the approved preliminary program for final approval to the review board.

(d) After approval, the city shall submit the preliminary program to the commissioner, the state planning agency, and the Minnesota housing finance agency for their comments. The state agencies have 30 days to provide comments to the preliminary program. State agency comments must be submitted in writing to the review board established under paragraph (e).

(e) The city shall establish a city urban revitalization action program review board whose purpose is to review the preliminary program submitted by the city, and approve all or portions of the program. The review board consists of two city council members who represent targeted neighborhoods, two members representing the city's business community appointed by the chamber of commerce representing businesses in the city, and three residents of targeted neighborhoods appointed by the city council. Two members of the house of representatives and one member of the state senate appointed by the city's legislative delegation shall be nonvoting members of the review board. Nonvoting legislative members of the review board shall represent targeted neighborhoods. A member of the review board may not be an elected public official, or in any way be involved in preparing or implementing the program or any portion of the program. The review board may require the city to contract for staff assistance in reviewing and approving the program. Persons who provide staff assistance to the review board may not be city employees or in any way involved in a formal or informal organization representing residents of a targeted neighborhood. The city may use state money available under section 15 to pay for the costs of staffing the review board.

(f) The review board shall review the city's preliminary program and approve all or portions of the program. In reviewing the program, the review board shall take into account any comments submitted by state agencies under paragraph (d). The review board may only reject the revitalization program or portions of the program for the following reasons:

(1) the revitalization program does not include the information required under subdivision 1;

(2) the city did not follow the community-based process required under subdivision 2 for developing the revitalization program; or

(3) the revitalization program results in undue concentration of targeted neighborhood money in a single proposed activity or project.

The review board may approve all of the preliminary program and submit it to the city council for certification under paragraph (g) or submit for certification only those specific portions of the program approved by the review board. If the review board does not approve a portion of the program, it shall specify in writing to the city the reasons for not approving that portion of the program and any recommendations for changes. If the review board determines that a portion of the program needs significant changes, it may require the city to implement the community participation process under subdivision 2 and state review under this subdivision for making changes to that portion of the program.

(g) The city council may, by formal resolution, certify only those portions of a program approved by the review board under paragraph (f). A certification by the city council that all or portions of a revitalization program has been approved by the review board must be provided to the commissioner together with a copy of the approved portions of the program. A copy of the approved portions of the program must be submitted to the state planning agency and Minnesota housing finance agency.

(h) A revitalization program may be modified at any time by the city after a public hearing and approval by the review board. Notice of the public hearing must be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the city and in the targeted neighborhoods not less than ten days nor more than 30 days before the date of the hearing. If the review board determines that the proposed modification is a significant modification to the program originally certified under paragraph (g), it must require the implementation of the revitalization program approval and certification process under this subdivision for the proposed modification.

Sec. 15. [469.204] [PAYMENT; CITY MATCHING MONEY; DRAWDOWN; USES OF STATE MONEY.]

Subdivision 1. [PAYMENT OF STATE MONEY.] Upon receipt from a city of a certification that a revitalization program has been adopted or modified, the commissioner shall, within 30 days, pay to the city the amount of state money identified as necessary to implement the revitalization program or program modification. State money may be paid to the city only to the extent that the appropriation limit for the city specified in subdivision 2 is not exceeded. Once the state money has been paid to the city, it becomes targeted neighborhood money for use by the city in accordance with an adopted revitalization program and subject only to the restrictions on its use in sections 12 to 18.

Subd. 2. [ALLOCATION.] Each city of the first class, as defined in section 410.01, may receive a part of the appropriations made available that is the proportion that the population of such city bears to the combined population of such cities of the first class. One city may agree to reduce its entitlement amount and to make it available to another city. For the purposes of this subdivision the population of each city is determined according to the most recent estimates available to the commissioner. Interest earned by a city from money paid to the city must be repaid to the commissioner annually unless the revitalization program identifies the interest as necessary to implement the revitalization program and the requirement for city matching money is satisfied with respect to the interest.

Subd. 3. [CITY MATCHING MONEY; DRAWDOWN AND RESTRICTION ON USE OF STATE MONEY.] A city may spend state money only if the revitalization program identifies city matching money to be used to implement the program in an amount equal to the state appropriation paid to the city. A city must keep the state money in a segregated fund for accounting purposes.

Sec. 16. [469.205] [CITY POWERS AND ELIGIBLE USES OF TARGETED NEIGHBORHOOD MONEY.]

Subdivision 1. [CONSOLIDATION OF EXISTING POWERS IN TARGETED NEIGHBORHOODS.] A city may exercise any of its corporate powers within a targeted neighborhood. Those powers shall include, but not be limited to, all of the powers enumerated and granted to any city by chapters 462C, 469, and 474A. For the purposes of sections 469.048 to 469.068, a targeted neighborhood is considered an industrial development district. A city may exercise the powers of chapters 469.048 to 469.068 in conjunction with, and in addition to, exercising the powers granted by sections 469.001 to 469.047 and chapter 462C, in order to promote and assist housing construction and rehabilitation within a targeted neighborhood. For the purposes of section 462C.02, subdivision 9, a targeted neighborhood is considered a "targeted area."

Subd. 2. [GRANTS AND LOANS.] In addition to the authority granted by other law, a city may make grants, loans, and other forms of public assistance to individuals, for-profit and nonprofit corporations, and other organizations to implement a revitalization program. The public assistance must contain the terms the city considers proper to implement a revitalization program.

Subd. 3. [ELIGIBLE USES OF TARGETED NEIGHBORHOOD MONEY.] The city may spend targeted neighborhood money for any purpose authorized by subdivision 1 or 2, except that an amount equal to at least 50 percent of the state payment under section 15 made to the city must be used for housing activities. Use of target neighborhood money must be authorized in a revitalization program.

Sec. 17. [469.206] [HAZARDOUS PROPERTY PENALTY.]

A city may assess a penalty up to one percent of the market value of real property, including any building located within the city that the city determines to be hazardous as defined in section 463.15, subdivision 3. The city shall send a written notice to the address to which the property tax statement is sent at least 90 days before it may assess the penalty. If the owner of the property has not paid the penalty or fixed the property within 90 days after receiving notice of the penalty, the penalty is considered delinquent and is increased by 25 percent each 60 days the penalty is not paid and the property remains hazardous. For the purposes of this section, a penalty that is delinquent is considered a delinquent property tax and subject to Minnesota Statutes, chapters 279, 280, and 281, in the same manner as delinquent property taxes.

Sec. 18. [469.207] [ANNUAL AUDIT AND REPORT.]

Subdivision 1. [ANNUAL FINANCIAL AUDIT.] In 1989 and subsequent years, at the end of each calendar year, the legislative auditor shall conduct a financial audit to review the spending of state money under sections 12 to 18. Before spending state money to implement a revitalization program, the city must consult with the legislative auditor to determine appropriate accounting methods and principles that will assist the legislative auditor in conducting its financial audit. The results of the financial audit must be submitted to the legislative audit commission, the commissioner, the state planning agency, and the Minnesota housing finance agency.

Subd. 2. [ANNUAL REPORT.] A city that begins to implement a revitalization program in a calendar year must, by March 1 of the succeeding calendar year, provide a detailed report on the revitalization program or programs being implemented in the city. The report must describe the status of the program implementation and analyze whether the intended outcomes identified in section 14, subdivision 1, clause (4), are being achieved. The report must include at least the following:

(1) the number of housing units, including lost units, removed, created, lost, replaced, relocated, and assisted as a result of the program. The level of rent of the units and the income of the households affected must be included in the report;

(2) the number and type of commercial establishments removed, created, and assisted as a result of a revitalization program. The report must include information regarding the number of new jobs created by category, whether the jobs are full-time or part-time, and the salary or wage levels of both new and expanded jobs in the affected commercial establishments;

(3) a description of a statement of the cost of the public improvement projects that are part of the program and the number of jobs created for each $20,000 of money spent on commercial projects and applicable public improvement projects;

(4) the increase in the tax capacity for the city as a result of the assistance to commercial and housing assistance; and

(5) the amount of private investment that is a result of the use of public money in a targeted neighborhood.

The report must be submitted to the commissioner, the Minnesota housing finance agency, the state planning agency, and the legislative audit commission, and must be available to the public.

Sec. 19. [REVITALIZATION PROGRAM MONITORING.]

The commissioner of the state planning agency, in consultation with other appropriate state agencies, shall monitor the planning, development and implementation of the urban revitalization action program. The commissioner shall determine if:

(1) the process used for developing the programs is providing adequate neighborhood participation in the planning, drafting and implementation of the programs;

(2) the programs are effectively achieving the statutory objectives and the objectives outlined in the programs themselves; and

(3) private funding is being used to partially fund the activities established under the programs.

The state planning agency shall provide an interim report to the legislature by January 1, 1990, with a final report of its findings due by January 1, 1991.

Sec. 20. [COMMUNITY SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC NEEDS.]

The commissioner of the state planning agency, in consultation with representatives of cities, counties, and school districts, shall identify significant social and economic needs in the communities throughout the state, including the future needs of the cities of the first class. The identification of the needs must be done on a county by county basis using demographic characteristics that will allow social and economic needs to be thoroughly demonstrated. When possible, the commissioner shall also identify the needs of all cities with populations of 2,500 or more people.

The demographic, economic, and other data utilized in identifying the social and economic needs shall be maintained in a data base that is accessible to legislators, researchers, and representatives of local governments. The commissioner shall provide an interim report on its findings to the legislature by January 1, 1990, with a final report by January 1, 1991.

Sec. 21. [REPEALER.]

Laws 1987, chapter 386, article 6, sections 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11, and Laws 1987, chapter 384, article 3, section 22, are repealed, provided that actions taken under those provisions prior to the effective date of this chapter with respect to any program or to a targeted neighborhood are ratified and affirmed and must be treated as if validly taken under the provisions of sections 12 to 18.

Sec. 22. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 12 to 18 and 21 are effective the day after final enactment, provided that the provisions of sections 12 to 15 and 16, subdivisions 2 and 3, shall not apply to any program funded by the state in fiscal year 1988.

CHAPTER 103H

GROUNDWATER PROTECTION

Section 1. [103H.001] [DEGRADATION PREVENTION GOAL.]

It is the goal of the state that groundwater be maintained in its natural condition, free from any degradation caused by human activities. It is recognized that for some human activities this degradation prevention goal cannot be practicably achieved. However, where prevention is practicable, it is intended that it be achieved. Where it is not currently practicable, the development of methods and technology that will make prevention practicable is encouraged.

Sec. 2. [103H.005] [DEFINITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [APPLICABILITY.] The definitions in this section apply to this chapter.

Subd. 2. [AGRICULTURAL CHEMICAL.] "Agricultural chemical" means a pesticide, fertilizer, plant amendment, or soil amendment.

Subd. 3. [HEALTH RISK LIMITS.] "Health risk limits" means a concentration of a substance or chemical adopted by rule of the commissioner of health that is a potential drinking water contaminant because of a systemic or carcinogenic toxicological result from consumption.

Subd. 4. [BEST MANAGEMENT PRACTICES.] "Best management practices" means practicable voluntary practices that are capable of preventing and minimizing degradation of groundwater, considering economic factors, availability, technical feasibility, implementability, effectiveness, and environmental effects. Best management practices apply to schedules of activities; design and operation standards; restrictions of practices; maintenance procedures; management plans; practices to prevent site releases, spillage, or leaks; application and use of chemicals; drainage from raw material storage; operating procedures; treatment requirements; and other activities causing groundwater degradation.

Subd. 5. [COMMON DETECTION.] "Common detection" means detection of a pollutant that is not due to misuse or unusual or unique circumstances, but is likely to be the result of normal use of a product or a practice.

Subd. 7. [FERTILIZER.] "Fertilizer" has the meaning given in article 6, section 2, subdivision 11.

Subd. 8. [GROUNDWATER.] "Groundwater" means groundwater as defined in section 115.01, subdivision 21.

Subd. 9. [PESTICIDE.] "Pesticide" has the meaning given in section 18B.01, subdivision 18.

Subd. 14. [SOIL AMENDMENT.] "Soil amendment" has the meaning given in article 6, section 2, subdivision 34.

Subd. 15. [WATER RESOURCE PROTECTION REQUIREMENTS.] "Water resource protection requirements" means requirements adopted by rule for one or more pollutants intended to prevent and minimize pollution of groundwater. Water resource protection requirements include design criteria, standards, operation and maintenance procedures, practices to prevent releases, spills, leaks, and incidents, restrictions on use and practices, and treatment requirements.

PROTECTION OF SENSITIVE AREAS

Sec. 3. [103H.101] [PROTECTION OF SENSITIVE AREAS.]

Subd. 3. [NOTIFICATION OF LOCATION OF SENSITIVE AREAS.] The commissioner of natural resources shall:

(1) notify political subdivisions with planning or zoning authority and provide maps and other materials that show where sensitive areas are located and indicate the type of risk of groundwater degradation that may occur from activities at or near the surface; and

(2) publish notification of sensitive areas in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the sensitive areas are located.

Subd. 4. [INFORMATION GATHERING.] The commissioner of natural resources shall coordinate the collection of state and local information to identify sensitive areas. Information must be automated on or accessible to systems developed at the land management information center of the state planning agency.

Subd. 5. [STATE PROTECTION OF SENSITIVE AREAS.] (a) The commissioner of agriculture for pollution resulting from agricultural chemicals and practices and the pollution control agency for other pollutants must consider the type of risk identified under subdivision 3 when adopting best management practices, water resource protection plans, and water resource protection requirements to prevent and minimize groundwater degradation in sensitive areas.

(b) To prevent and minimize groundwater degradation, state agencies must consider the type of risk identified under subdivision 3 when undertaking an activity within a sensitive area.

Subd. 6. [ACTIONS BY REGULATING AUTHORITIES.] Upon adoption of a comprehensive local water plan as defined in chapter 110B or a water management plan under chapter 473, a regulating authority must take into account the plan and any geological assessments referenced in the plan when taking appropriate actions in sensitive areas.

Subd. 7. [STATE AGENCIES.] Each state agency that has a program affecting activities that may cause or contribute to groundwater pollution shall identify and develop best management practices to ensure that the program is consistent with and is effective in achieving the goal of section 1. For those activities which may cause or contribute to pollution of groundwater, but are not directly regulated by the state, best management practices shall be promoted through education, support programs, incentives, and other mechanisms.

Sec. 4. [103H.105] [CONSERVATION EASEMENTS TO PROTECT SENSITIVE AREAS.]

(a) Agricultural land within a sensitive area identified in section 3, subdivision 2, or by the board of water and soil resources and land in or immediately surrounding a sinkhole is marginal agricultural land for purposes of section 40.43, subdivision 2, and is eligible for the conservation reserve program under section 40.43.

(b) Notwithstanding section 40.43, subdivision 2, clauses (2) and (5), and subdivision 4, the board of water and soil resources may authorize acquisition of hillside easements that restrict hillside pasturing or grazing of livestock.

Sec. 5. [103H.111] [LIABILITY AFTER PROTECTION OF SENSITIVE AREA.]

(a) A landowner within a sensitive area, identified under section 3, has a complete defense to liability for degradation of groundwater caused by surface water from the sensitive area recharging groundwater if:

The commissioner shall give public notice and contact and solicit comment from affected persons and businesses interested in developing the best management practices.*

Subd. 3. [EDUCATION AND PROMOTION.] The commissioners of the pollution control agency and agriculture, in conjunction with the board of water and soil resources, soil and water conservation districts, and the Minnesota extension service, must promote best management practices and provide education about how the use of best management practices will prevent, minimize, reduce, and eliminate the source of groundwater degradation. The promotion and education shall include demonstration projects.

GROUNDWATER QUALITY MONITORING

Sec. 7. [103H.175] [GROUNDWATER QUALITY MONITORING.]

HEALTH RISK LIMITS

Sec. 8. [103H.201] [HEALTH RISK LIMITS.]

Subdivision 1. [PROCEDURE.] (a) If groundwater quality monitoring results show that there is a degradation of groundwater, the commissioner of health may promulgate health risk limits under subdivision 2 for substances degrading the groundwater.

(b) Health risk limits shall be determined by two methods depending on their toxicological end point.

(c) For systemic toxicants that are not carcinogens, the adopted health risk limits shall be derived using United States Environmental Protection Agency risk assessment methods using a reference dose, a drinking water equivalent, an uncertainty factor, and a factor for relative source contamination, which in general will measure an estimate of daily exposure to the human population, including sensitive subgroups, that is unlikely to result in deleterious effects during long-term exposure.

(d) For toxicants that are known or probable carcinogens, the adopted health risk limits shall be derived from a quantitative estimate of the chemical's carcinogenic potency published by the United States Environmental Protection Agency's carcinogen assessment group.

Subd. 2. [ADOPTION.] (a) Health risk limits shall be adopted by rule.

(b) If the commissioner determines that emergency conditions exist and the public health and welfare require the health risk limits to be adopted as soon as possible, the commissioner shall promulgate the adopted health risk limits notwithstanding chapter 14 but the adopted health risk limits adopted under this paragraph are only effective for one year.

Subd. 3. [REVIEW AND REVISION.] (a) The commissioner shall review each adopted health risk limit at least every four years.

(b) The commissioner may revise health risk limits under subdivision 2.

Subd. 4. [ADOPTION OF EXISTING RECOMMENDED ALLOWABLE LIMITS.] (a) Notwithstanding and in lieu of subdivision 2, the commissioner may adopt recommended allowable limits established by the commissioner on or before May 1, 1989, as health risk limits under this subdivision. Before a recommended allowable limit is adopted as an adopted health risk limit under this subdivision, the commissioner shall:

(1) publish in the State Register and disseminate through the Minnesota extension service and through soil and water conservation districts notice of intent to adopt a recommended allowable limit as an adopted health risk limit for specific substances and shall solicit information on the health impacts of the substance;

(2) publish the recommended allowable limit in the State Register and disseminate through the Minnesota extension service and through soil and water conservation districts allowing 60 days for public comment; and

(3) publish the recommended allowable limit in the State Register and, at the same time, make available a summary of the public comments received and the commissioner's responses to the comments.

(b) A recommended allowable limit adopted by the commissioner as an adopted health risk limit under this subdivision may be challenged in the manner provided in sections 14.44 and 14.45.

(c) After July 1, 1991, and before September 1, 1991, 25 or more persons may submit a written request for a public hearing as provided under section 14.25 for any health risk limits as adopted under this subdivision.

EVALUATION AND COMMON DETECTION OF POLLUTION

Sec. 9. [103H.251] [EVALUATION OF DETECTION OF POLLUTANTS.]

Subdivision 1. [METHODS.] (a) The commissioner of agriculture for pollution resulting from agricultural chemicals and practices and the pollution control agency for other pollutants shall evaluate the detection of pollutants in groundwater of the state. Evaluation of the detection may include collection technique, sampling handling technique, laboratory practices, other quality control practices, climatological conditions, and potential pollutant sources.

(b) If conditions indicate a likelihood of the detection of the pollutant or pollutant breakdown product to be a common detection, the commissioner of agriculture or the pollution control agency must begin development of best management practices and continue to monitor for the pollutant or pollutant breakdown products.

Subd. 2. [ANALYSIS OF POLLUTION TREND.] The commissioner of agriculture for pollution resulting from agricultural chemicals and practices and the pollution control agency for other pollutants shall develop and implement groundwater monitoring and hydrogeologic evaluation following pollution detection to evaluate pollution frequency and concentration trend. Assessment of the site-specific and pollutant-specific conditions and the likelihood of common detection must include applicable monitoring, pollutant use information, physical and chemical properties of the pollutant, hydrogeologic information, and review of information and data from other local, state, or federal monitoring data bases.

Sec. 10. [103H.275] [MANAGEMENT OF POLLUTANTS WHERE GROUNDWATER IS POLLUTED.]

Subdivision 1. [AREAS WHERE GROUNDWATER POLLUTION IS DETECTED.] (a) If groundwater pollution is detected, a state agency or political subdivision that regulates an activity causing or potentially causing a contribution to the pollution identified shall promote implementation of best management practices to prevent or minimize the source of pollution to the extent practicable.

(b) The pollution control agency, or for agricultural chemicals and practices, the commissioner of agriculture may adopt water source protection requirements under subdivision 2 that are consistent with the goal of section 1 and are commensurate with the groundwater pollution if the implementation of best management practices have proven to be ineffective.

(c) The water resources protection requirements must be:

(1) designed to prevent and minimize the pollution to the extent practicable;

(2) designed to prevent the pollution from exceeding the health risk limits; and

(3) submitted to the legislative water commission.

Subd. 2. [ADOPTION OF WATER RESOURCE PROTECTION REQUIREMENTS.] (a) The pollution control agency, or for agricultural chemicals and practices, the commissioner of agriculture shall adopt by rule water resource protection requirements that are consistent with the goal of section 1 to prevent and minimize the pollution to the extent practicable. The proposed rule must be submitted to the legislative water commission for review before adoption. The water resource protection requirements must be based on the use and effectiveness of best management practices, the product use and practices contributing to the pollution detected, economic factors, availability, technical feasibility, implementability, and effectiveness. The water resource protection requirements may be adopted for one or more pollutants or a similar class of pollutants. A water resource protection requirement may not be adopted before January 1, 1991.

(b) Before the water resource protection requirements are adopted, the pollution control agency or the commissioner of agriculture for agricultural chemicals and practices must notify affected persons and businesses for comments and input in developing the water resource protection requirements.

(c) Unless the water resource protection requirements are to cover the entire state, the water resource protection requirements are only effective in areas designated by the commissioner of the pollution control agency by order or for agricultural chemicals and practices in areas designated by the commissioner of agriculture by order. The procedures for issuing the order and the effective date of the order must be included in the water resource protection requirements rule.

(d) The water resource protection requirements rule must contain procedures for notice to be given to persons affected by the rule and order of the commissioner. The procedures may include notice by publication, personal service, and other appropriate methods to inform affected persons of the rule and commissioner's order.

*(e) A person who is subject to a water resource protection requirement may apply to the pollution control agency, or for agricultural chemicals and practices the commissioner of agriculture, and suggest an alternative protection requirement. Within 60 days after receipt, the agency or commissioner of agriculture must approve or deny the request. (c) The commissioner may not modify or restrict the amount of appropriation from a groundwater source authorized in a permit issued for agricultural irrigation under section 105.44, subdivision 8, between May 1 and October 1 of any year, unless the commissioner determines the authorized amount of appropriation endangers a domestic water supply.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 105.41, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

Subd. 1a. [WATER ALLOCATION ~~RULES.~~ PRIORITIES.] (a) The commissioner shall ~~submit to the legislature by January 1, 1975, for its approval, proposed~~ adopt rules ~~governing the~~ for allocation of waters ~~among potential water users. These rules must be~~ based on the following priorities for the consumptive appropriation and use of water:

(1) first priority: domestic water supply~~,~~ excluding industrial and commercial uses of municipal water supply~~.~~, and use for power production that meets the contingency planning provisions of section 105.417, subdivision 5;

(2) second priority: ~~any~~ a use of water that involves consumption of less than 10,000 gallons of water ~~a~~ per day~~. In this section "consumption" means water withdrawn from a supply that is lost for immediate further use in the area.~~;

(3) third priority: agricultural irrigation and processing of agricultural products, involving consumption in excess of 10,000 gallons ~~a~~ per day~~, and processing of agricultural products.~~;

(4) fourth priority: power production~~, involving consumption in excess of 10,000 gallons a day.~~ in excess of the use provided for in the contingency plan developed under section 105.417, subdivision 5; and

(5) fifth priority: ~~other~~ uses, other than agricultural irrigation, processing of agricultural products, and power production, involving consumption in excess of 10,000 gallons ~~a~~ per day and nonessential uses of public water supplies as defined in section 105.518, subdivision 1.

(b) For the purposes of this section, "consumption" shall mean water withdrawn from a supply which is lost for immediate further use in the area.

(c) Appropriation and use of surface water from streams during periods of flood flows and high water levels must be encouraged subject to consideration of the purposes for use, quantities to be used, and the number of persons appropriating water.

(f) Diversions of water from the state for use in other states or regions of the United States or Canada must be discouraged.

~~No permit may be issued under this section unless it is consistent with state, regional, and local water and related land resources management plans, if regional and local plans are consistent with statewide plans. The commissioner must not modify or restrict the amount of appropriation from a groundwater source authorized in a permit issued under section 105.44, subdivision 8, between May 1 and October 1 of any year, unless the commissioner determines the authorized amount of appropriation endangers any domestic water supply.~~

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 105.41, subdivision 1b, is amended to read:

Subd. 1b. [USE LESS THAN MINIMUM.] ~~No~~ Except for local permits under section 473.877, subdivision 1, a permit is not required for the appropriation and use of less than a minimum amount to be established by the commissioner by rule. Permits for more than the minimum amount but less than an intermediate amount to be specified by the commissioner by rule must be processed and approved at the municipal, county, or regional level based on rules to be established by the commissioner by January 1, 1977. The rules must include provisions for reporting to the commissioner the amounts of water appropriated under local permits.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 105.41, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 1c. [CERTAIN COOLING SYSTEM PERMITS PROHIBITED.] (a) The commissioner may not issue a water use permit from a groundwater source for a once-through cooling system using in excess of five million gallons annually.

(b) For purposes of this subdivision, a once-through cooling system means a cooling or heating system for human comfort that draws a continuous stream of water from a groundwater source to remove or add heat for cooling, heating, or refrigeration.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 105.41, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [RECORDS REQUIRED.] Records of the amount of water appropriated or used must be kept for each installation. The readings and the total amount of water appropriated must be reported annually to the commissioner of natural resources on or before February 15 of the following year upon forms to be supplied by the commissioner.

The records must be submitted with an annual water appropriation processing fee in the amount established in accordance with the following schedule of fees for each water appropriation permit in force at any time during the year: ~~(1) irrigation permits, $15 for the first permitted 160 acres or part of 160 acres, and $25 for each additional permitted 160 acres or part of 160 acres; (2) for nonirrigation permits, $5 for each ten million gallons or portion of that amount permitted each year. However, the fee must not exceed a total of $500 per permit~~.

Subd. 5a. [WATER USE PROCESSING FEE.] (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), a water use processing fee not to exceed $2,000 must be prescribed by the commissioner in accordance with the following schedule of fees for each water use permit in force at any time during the year:

(1) 0.05 cent per 1,000 gallons for the first 50 million gallons per year; and

(2) 0.1 cents per 1,000 gallons for the amounts greater than 50 million gallons per year.

(b) For once-through cooling systems as defined in subdivision 1c, a water use processing fee must be prescribed by the commissioner in accordance with the following schedule of fees for each water use permit in force at any time during the year:

(2) 10.0 cents for 1,000 gallons from January 1, 1992, until December 31, 1996; and

(3) 15.0 cents per 1,000 gallons after January 1, 1997.

(c) The fee is payable ~~regardless of~~ based on the amount of water ~~appropriated~~ permitted during the year and in no case may the fee be less than $25.

(d) Failure to pay the fee is sufficient cause for revoking a permit. ~~No fee may be imposed on any state agency, as defined in section 16B.01, or federal governmental agency holding a water appropriation permit.~~

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 105.418, is amended to read:

105.418 [CONSERVATION OF PUBLIC WATER SUPPLIES.]

(a) During periods of critical water deficiency as determined by the governor and declared by executive order of the governor, public water supply authorities appropriating water shall adopt and enforce restrictions consistent with rules adopted by the commissioner of natural resources within their areas of jurisdiction. The restrictions must limit lawn sprinkling, car washing, golf course and park irrigation, and other nonessential uses and have appropriate penalties for failure to comply with the restrictions.

(b) The commissioner may adopt ~~emergency~~ rules ~~according to sections 14.29 to 14.36~~ relating to matters covered by this section ~~during the year 1977~~.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 473.877, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

(b) An appropriation of water that is below the minimum established in section 105.41, subdivision 1b, for a nonessential use, as defined under section 105.418, is prohibited unless a permit is obtained from the watershed district or watershed management organization having jurisdiction over the public water basin, wetland, or watercourse. The watershed district or watershed management organization may impose a fee to cover the cost of issuing the permit. This subdivision must be enforced by the home rule charter or statutory city where the appropriation occurs. Violation of this subdivision is a petty misdemeanor, except that a second violation within a year is a misdemeanor. Affected cities shall mail notice of this law to affected riparian landowners.

Sec. 8. [CONSUMPTIVE WATER USE STUDY.]

The commissioner of natural resources shall conduct a study of consumptive water use and its impact on existing aquifers. The commissioner shall review methods of reducing consumptive water use, including the conversion of once-through cooling systems to alternative systems. The commissioner shall report to the legislative water commission by February 15, 1990, the commissioner's recommendations for alternatives to the once-through cooling systems, including the environmental and economic implications of the alternatives. The recommendations must include: options for converting once-through cooling systems; a time schedule for phasing out existing systems; recommended technologies to be used to accomplish the conversion; recommendations for a fee structure that will make once-through cooling systems and conventional systems equal in operating costs; recommendations on the use of deep aquifers for once-through cooling; recommendations on authorizing systems of better efficiency; and advisability of systems that recharge aquifers.

Subd. 4. [CLEANING EQUIPMENT IN OR NEAR SURFACE WATER.] A person may not:

(1) clean fertilizer application equipment in surface waters of the state; or

(2) fill or clean fertilizer application equipment adjacent to surface waters, ditches, or wells where, because of the slope or other conditions, fertilizers or materials contaminated with fertilizers could enter or contaminate the surface waters, groundwater, or wells, as a result of overflow, leakage, or other causes.

Subd. 5. [FERTILIZER, RINSATE, AND CONTAINER DISPOSAL.] A person may only dispose of fertilizer, rinsate, and fertilizer containers in accordance with this chapter. The manner of disposal must not cause unreasonable adverse effects on the environment.

Sec. 11. [18C.205] [CHEMIGATION.]

Subdivision 1. [AUTHORIZATION.] The commissioner may issue chemigation permits for irrigation to be used to apply fertilizers on crops and land, including agricultural, nursery, turf, golf course, and greenhouse sites.

Subd. 2. [PERMIT REQUIRED.] A person may not apply fertilizers through an irrigation system without a chemigation permit from the commissioner. A chemigation permit is required for one or more wells that are protected from contamination by the same devices.

Subd. 3. [APPLICATION.] (a) A person must apply for a chemigation permit on forms prescribed by the commissioner.

(b) A person initially applying for a chemigation permit must pay a nonrefundable application fee of $50. A person who holds a valid pesticide chemigation permit as required in chapter 18B is exempt from the fee in this subdivision.

Subd. 4. [PERMIT REQUIREMENTS.] An irrigation system operating under a chemigation permit must be fitted with effective antisiphon devices or check valves that prevent the backflow of fertilizers or fertilizer-water mixtures into water supplies or other materials during times of irrigation system failure or equipment shutdown. The devices or valves must be installed between:

Subdivision 1. [N, P, and K NUTRIENT CONTENT STATED.] (a) Until the commissioner prescribes the alternative form of guaranteed analysis, it must be stated as provided in this subdivision.

(b) A guaranteed analysis must state the percentage of plant nutrient content, if claimed, in the following form:

"Total Nitrogen (N) . . . . . percent
Available Phosphoric Acid (P2O5) . . . . . percent
Soluble Potash (K20) . . . . . percent"

(b) The guarantees for the plant nutrients must be expressed in the elemental form.

(c) The sources of other elements, oxides, salt, and chelates, may be required to be stated on the application for registration and may be included as a parenthetical statement on the label. Other beneficial substances or compounds, determinable by laboratory methods, also may be guaranteed by permission of the commissioner and with the advice of the director of the agricultural experiment station.

(d) If plant nutrients or other substances or compounds are guaranteed, the plant nutrients are subject to inspection and analyses in accord with the methods and rules prescribed by the commissioner.

(e) The commissioner may, by rule, require the potential basicity or acidity expressed in terms of calcium carbonate equivalent in multiples of 100 pounds per ton. [17.713 s. 8]

Subd. 3. [FORM FOR ANALYSES.] (a) The commissioner may require a guaranteed analysis to be in a prescribed form if the commissioner determines that the requirement for expressing the guaranteed analysis of phosphorus and potassium in elemental form would not impose an economic hardship on distributors and users of fertilizer because of conflicting labeling requirements among the states.

(b) The commissioner must give proper notice and hold a public hearing before the determination is made.

(c) After making the determination under paragraph (a), the commissioner may require by rule that guaranteed analyses be in the following form:

"Total Nitrogen (N) . . . . . percent

Soluble Potassium (K) . . . . . percent"

(d) In adopting the rule, the commissioner must provide that:

(1) the effective date of the rule is at least one year after the rule is adopted; and

(2) for a period of two years following the effective date of the rule, the equivalent of phosphorus and potassium may also be shown in the form of phosphoric acid and potash.

(e) After the effective date of the rule requiring that phosphorus and potassium be shown in the elemental form, the guaranteed analysis for nitrogen, phosphorus, and potassium constitute the grade. [17.713 s. 8]

Subd. 4. [GUARANTEED ANALYSIS OF SOIL OR PLANT AMENDMENT.] The guaranteed analysis of a soil amendment or plant amendment must be an accurate statement of composition including the percentages of each ingredient. If the product is a microbiological product, the number of viable microorganisms per milliliter for a liquid or the number of viable microorganisms per gram for a dry product must also be listed. [17.713 s. 8]

Sec. 13. [18C.215] [FERTILIZER LABELING.]

(1) the net weight;

(2) the brand and grade, except (i) the grade is not required if primary nutrients are not claimed, and (ii) the grade on the label is optional if the fertilizer is used only for agricultural purposes and the guaranteed analysis statement is shown in the complete form as in section 12;

(3) the guaranteed analysis;

(4) the name and address of the guarantor;

(5) directions for use; and

(6) a derivatives statement.

(b) The labeled information must appear:

(1) in one or more of its guaranteed primary plant nutrients beyond the investigational allowances and compensations as established by regulation; or

(2) if the overall index value of the fertilizer is shown below the level established by rule.

(c) A deficiency in an official sample of mixed fertilizer resulting from nonuniformity is not distinguishable from a deficiency due to actual plant nutrient shortage and is properly subject to official action.

(e) If a fertilizer in the possession of the consumer is found by the commissioner to be short in weight, the registrant or licensee of the fertilizer must submit a penalty payment of two times the value of the actual shortage to the consumer within 30 days after official notice from the commissioner.

Sec. 20. [18C.401] [GENERAL LICENSING AND REGISTRATION CONDITIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SUBSTANTIATION OF CLAIMS.] The commissioner may require a person applying for a license or registration to manufacture or distribute a product for use in this state to submit authentic experimental evidence or university research data to substantiate the claims made for the product. The commissioner may rely on experimental data, evaluations, or advice furnished by experts at the University of Minnesota as evidence to substantiate claims and may accept or reject additional sources of evidence in evaluating a fertilizer, soil amendment, or plant amendment. The experimental evidence must relate to conditions in this state for which the product is intended. The commissioner may also require evidence of value when used as directed or recommended.

Subd. 2. [INSUFFICIENT EVIDENCE.] If the commissioner determines that the evidence submitted does not substantiate the product's usefulness in this state, the commissioner may require the applicant to submit samples, conduct tests, or submit additional information, including conditions affecting performance, to evaluate the product's performance and usefulness.

Subd. 3. [REFUSAL TO LICENSE OR REGISTER.] The commissioner

may refuse to license a person or register a specialty fertilizer, soil amendment, or plant amendment if:

(2) if the commissioner determines that the applicant needs the license or registration to accumulate information necessary to substantiate claims; or

(3) to correct minor label violations.

(b) The commissioner may prescribe terms, conditions, and a limited period of time for the conditional license or registration.

(c) The commissioner may revoke or modify a conditional license or registration if the commissioner finds that the terms or conditions are being violated or are inadequate to avoid unreasonable adverse effects on the environment.

(d) The commissioner may deny issuance of a conditional license or registration if the commissioner determines that issuance of a license or registration is not warranted or that the use to be made of the product under the proposed terms and conditions may cause unreasonable adverse effects on the environment.

Sec. 21. [18C.405] [PROTECTION OF TRADE SECRETS.]

Subdivision 1. [NOTATION OF PROTECTED INFORMATION.] In submitting data required by this chapter, the applicant may:

(1) clearly mark any portions that in the applicant's opinion are trade secrets, or commercial or financial information; and

(2) submit the marked material separately from other material.

Subd. 2. [PROTECTION OF INFORMATION BY COMMISSIONER.] (a) After consideration of the applicant's request submitted under subdivision 1, the commissioner may not allow the information to become public that the commissioner determines to contain or relate to trade secrets or to commercial or financial information obtained from an applicant. If necessary, information relating to formulas of products may be revealed to a state or federal agency consulted with similar protection of trade secret authority and may be revealed at a public hearing or in findings of facts issued by the commissioner.

(b) If the commissioner proposes to release information that the applicant or registrant believes to be protected from disclosure under paragraph (a), the commissioner must notify the applicant or registrant by certified mail. The commissioner may not make the information available for inspection until 30 days after receipt of the notice by the applicant or registrant. During this period, the applicant or registrant may begin an action in an appropriate court for a declaratory judgment as to whether the information is subject to protection under this section.

Subd. 4. [RESPONSIBILITY FOR INSPECTION FEES.] *If more than one person is involved in the distribution of a fertilizer, soil amendment, or plant amendment, the distributor who imports, manufactures, or produces the fertilizer or who has the specialty fertilizer, soil amendment, or plant amendment registered is responsible for the inspection fee on products produced or brought into this state. The distributor must separately list the inspection fee on the invoice to the licensee. ## CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON S.F. NO. 491

A bill for an act relating to health care; creating a health care access commission; requiring a health care access study; appropriating money.

The Honorable Jerome M. Hughes
President of the Senate

The Honorable Robert Vanasek
Speaker of the House of Representatives

We, the undersigned conferees for S.F. No. 491, report that we have agreed upon the items in dispute and recommend as follows:

That the House recede from its amendment and that S.F. No. 491 be further amended as follows:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. [62J.01] [FINDINGS.]

The legislature finds that substantial numbers of Minnesotans have no health care coverage and that most of these residents are wage earners or their dependents. One-third of these individuals are children.

The legislature further finds that when these individuals enter the health care system they have often foregone preventive care and are in need of more expensive treatment that often exceeds their financial resources. Much of the cost for these uncompensated services to the uninsured are already in the health care system in the form of increased insurance and provider rates and property and income taxes.

The legislature further finds that these costs, spread among the already insured, represent a woefully inefficient method for providing basic preventive and acute care for the uninsured and represent an added cost to employers now providing health insurance to their employees.

The legislature further finds that it is necessary to ensure basic and affordable health care to all Minnesotans while addressing the economic pressures on the health care system as a whole in Minnesota.

Sec. 2. [62J.02] [HEALTH CARE ACCESS COMMISSION.]

Subdivision 1. [MEMBERSHIP; COMPENSATION; CHAIR.] The Minnesota health care access commission consists of 15 members. Five members are appointed by the governor, one of whom must be an experienced health care professional, one of whom must be a representative of small business, and one of whom must be a representative of consumers. Three members are appointed under the rules of the senate and three members are appointed under the rules of the house of representatives. The commissioners of health, human services, employee relations, and commerce, or their designated representatives are also members. The governor shall appoint the chair of the commission from among the members who are not agency commissioners. The terms, compensation, and removal of the members appointed by the governor are as provided in section 15.0575.

Subd. 2. [STAFF; OFFICE SPACE; EQUIPMENT.] The commission shall select a director to serve at its pleasure as the chief administrative officer of the commission. The director may hire advisors, consultants, and employees, as authorized by the commission, and prescribe their duties. Employees are not state employees, but are covered by section 3.736. At the option of the commission, the employees may participate in the following plans for employees in the unclassified service: the state retirement plan, the state deferred compensation plan, and the health insurance and life insurance plans. The commissioner of state planning shall provide to the commission, at a reasonable cost, administrative assistance, office space, and access to office equipment and services.

(7) identify cost savings to public programs that would result from implementation of the health care access program;

(8) develop a cost containment policy after reviewing cost containment methods such as hospital admission precertification, concurrent review of hospital stays, discharge planning, hospital bill audit prior to discharge, primary gatekeepers, claims data analysis, a drug formulary, pharmacy data analysis, bulk discounts, emergency room use, outpatient surgery oversight, protocols for preventive care and common acute care, practice data compared to peers, practitioner rewards and penalties, and other cost containment methods;

(9) develop a system to administer the health care access program, including recommendations for eligibility criteria, enrollment procedures, and options for contracting with carriers, health plans, and providers, to ensure access to affordable health care in all geographic areas of the state;

(10) define the number, functions, and duties of administrative staff;

(11) study alternatives for financing the state share of the cost of the premiums in an amount sufficient to generate one-half of the total costs of the health care access program, but not more than $150,000,000 a year, including, but not limited to, an actuarial analysis, a sliding fee scale analysis, and reserve fund requirements;

(12) develop a system for collection of premium payments;

(16) examine and make recommendations on maximum lifetime benefits;

(17) develop methods to ensure representation in service delivery by eligible practitioners, without regard to race, color, or sex;

(18) develop methods to coordinate the health care access program with other government-subsidized programs; and

(19) conduct other activities it considers necessary to carry out the intent of the legislature as expressed in section 1 and this section.

Subd. 4. [REPORT.] The commission shall report to the legislature by February 15, 1990, on its progress in developing the plan, including preliminary data analysis and other appropriate information. The commission shall provide a final report and implementation plan to the legislature by January 1, 1991.

Sec. 3. [DEMONSTRATION PROJECT REPORT.]

The nine-county demonstration project for the uninsured authorized in Minnesota Statutes, section 256B.73, shall report to the commission by January 1, 1990, on the number and percentage of enrollees in the project, benefits provided, and the financial commitment of enrollees and employers.

Sec. 4. [REPEALER.]

Section 2 is repealed effective July 1, 1991.

Sec. 5. [APPROPRIATION.]

Subdivision 1. [HEALTH CARE ACCESS COMMISSION.] $800,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the health care access commission for purposes of sections 1 and 2, to be available until June 30, 1991.

Subd. 2. [COMMISSIONER OF HUMAN SERVICES.] (a) $50,000 is appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of human services to provide one-time subsidies to community-based clinics, to be available until June 30, 1990. The commissioner shall publish in the State Register a notice of the availability of clinic subsidies, a request for applications from clinics that desire a subsidy, a notice that a subsidy review committee will be convened to allocate the subsidies, and notice that each clinic that seeks representation on the committee must submit the name, address, and telephone number of its designated representative. Applications from clinics that desire a subsidy must include detailed information about the financial condition of the clinic, the amounts and sources of financial support received by the clinic, and the proportion of patients who are uninsured and for whom the clinic does not receive any payments. The commissioner shall convene a committee consisting of a representative of each community-based clinic meeting the definition in this paragraph that asks to be represented on the committee. Committee members do not receive compensation but may be reimbursed out of the appropriation in this subdivision for reasonable travel expenses incurred to attend committee meetings. The committee shall determine the recipients and amounts of the subsidies. Subsidies must be awarded to those clinics with the greatest financial need due to the number of uninsured patients, the inadequacy of grant support and charitable contributions, and other factors. The committee shall consider the extent to which the subsidy would enable the clinic to continue effectively serving the uninsured. The commissioner must award the subsidies according to the recommendations of the committee. For purposes of this paragraph, "community-based clinics" means an entity that:

(1) through its staff and supporting resources or through its contracts or cooperative arrangements with other public or private entities, provides primary health services for all intended residents of its service area;

(2) was established to serve the primary health needs of low-income population groups;

(3) uses a sliding fee scale based on ability to pay, and does not limit access or care because of the financial limitations of the client;

(4) has nonprofit status under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 317; and

(5) has a governing board, for which at least 51 percent of the membership resides in the local community served by the clinic.

(b) $175,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1990, and $200,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1991, are appropriated from the general fund to the commissioner of human services to provide a 20 percent increase in medical assistance and children's health plan payments for covered services provided by clinics enrolled as public health clinics or community health clinics under Minnesota Rules, Parts 9505.0380 and 9505.0255."

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"ARTICLE 1

GENERAL EDUCATION REVENUE

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 16A.1541, is amended to read:

16A.1541 [ADDITIONAL REVENUES; PRIORITY.]

If on the basis of a forecast of general fund revenues and expenditures the commissioner of finance determines that there will be a positive unrestricted budgetary general fund balance at the close of the biennium, the commissioner of finance must allocate money to the budget and cash flow reserve account until the total amount in the account equals ~~$550,000,000~~ five percent of total general fund appropriations for the current biennium as established by the most recent legislative session after reducing the property tax levy recognition percent under section 121.904, subdivision 4a to 27 percent.

The amounts necessary to meet the requirements of this section are appropriated from the general fund.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 124.19, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [SCHEDULE ADJUSTMENTS.] (a) It is the intention of the legislature to encourage efficient and effective use of staff and facilities by school districts. School districts are encouraged to consider both cost and energy saving measures.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision 1 or 4, any district~~, including a district~~ operating a program pursuant to sections 120.59 to 120.67 or 129B.42 to 129B.47, or operating a commissioner-designated area learning center program under section 129B.56, or that otherwise receives the approval of the commissioner to operate its instructional program to avoid an aid reduction in any year, may adjust the annual school schedule for that program throughout the calendar year so long as the number of instructional hours in the year is not less than the number of instructional hours per day specified in the rules of the state board multiplied by the minimum number of instructional days required by subdivision 1.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 124.19, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. [ALTERNATIVE PROGRAMS.] (a) This subdivision applies to an alternative program that has been approved by the state board of education pursuant to Minnesota Rules, part 3500.3500, as exempt from Minnesota Rules, part 3500.1500, requiring a school day to be at least six hours in duration.

(b) To receive general education revenue for a pupil in an alternative program, a school district must meet the requirements in this paragraph. The program must be approved by the commissioner of education. In approving a program, the commissioner may use the process used for approving state designated area learning centers under section 129B.56.

(c) In addition to the requirements in paragraph (b), to receive general education revenue for a pupil in an alternative program that has an independent study component, a school district must meet the requirements in this paragraph.

For a course having an independent study component, the pupil must complete coursework and receive credit for each course for which the aid is claimed.

The school district must develop with the pupil a continual learning plan for the pupil. A district must allow a minor pupil's parent or guardian to participate in developing the plan, if the parent or guardian wants to participate. The plan must identify the learning experiences and expected outcomes needed for satisfactory credit for the year and for graduation. The plan must be updated each year.

General education revenue for a pupil in an approved alternative program without an independent study component must be prorated for a pupil participating for less than a full school year, or its equivalent.

General education revenue for a pupil in an approved alternative program that has an independent study component must be prorated for a pupil receiving fewer than six credits in a year.

For an alternative program having an independent study component, the commissioner shall require a description of the courses in the program, the kinds of independent study involved, the expected learning outcomes of the courses, and the means of measuring student performance against the expected outcomes.

A credit for a year in an approved alternative program shall, for the purposes of audit, be considered to be 170 hours of teacher contact time and independent study time.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 124A.03, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [REFERENDUM LEVY.] ~~(1)~~ (a) The levy authorized by section 124A.23, subdivision 2, may be increased in ~~any~~ the amount ~~that is~~ approved by the voters of the district at a referendum called for the purpose. The referendum may be called by the school board or shall be called by the school board upon written petition of qualified voters of the district. ~~The referendum shall be held on a date set by the school board. Only two elections may be held to approve a levy increase that will commence in a specific school year.~~ The referendum must be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November. The ballot shall state the maximum amount of the increased levy ~~in mills~~ as a percentage of net tax capacity, the amount that will be raised by that tax capacity rate in the first year it is to be levied, and that the tax capacity rate shall be used to finance school operations. The ballot may designate a specific number of years for which the referendum authorization shall apply. The ballot may contain a textual portion with the information required in this subdivision and a question stating substantially the following:

"Shall the increase in the levy proposed by (petition to) the board of . . . . . , School District No. . . . . , be approved?"

If approved, the amount provided by the approved tax capacity rate applied to ~~each year's gross~~ the net tax capacity for the year preceding the year the levy is certified shall be authorized for certification for the number of years approved, if applicable, or until revoked or reduced by the voters of the district at a subsequent referendum.

~~(2)~~ (b) A referendum on the question of revoking or reducing the increased levy amount authorized pursuant to ~~clause (1)~~ paragraph (a) may be called by the school board and shall be called by the school board upon the written petition of qualified voters of the district. A levy approved by the voters of the district pursuant to ~~clause (1)~~ paragraph (a) must be made at least once before it is subject to a referendum on its revocation or reduction for subsequent years. Only one ~~such~~ revocation or reduction election may be held to revoke or reduce a levy for any specific year and for years thereafter.

~~(3) A petition authorized by clause (1) shall be effective if signed by a number of qualified voters in excess of 15 percent, or ten percent if the school board election is held in conjunction with a general election, of the average number of voters at the two most recent district wide school elections. A referendum invoked by petition shall be held within three months of submission of the petition to the school board.~~

~~(4)~~ (c) A petition authorized by ~~clause (2)~~ paragraph (a) or (b) shall be effective if signed by a number of qualified voters in excess of ~~five~~ 15 percent of the ~~residents~~ registered voters of the school district ~~as determined by the most recent census~~ on the day the petition is filed with the school board. A ~~revocation or reduction~~ referendum invoked by petition shall be held ~~within three months of submission of the petition to the school board~~ on the date specified in paragraph (a).

~~(5)~~ (d) ~~Notwithstanding any law to the contrary,~~ The approval of 50 percent plus one of those voting on the question is required to pass a referendum authorized by this subdivision.

~~(6)~~ (e) Within 30 days after the district holds a referendum pursuant to this clause, the district shall notify the commissioner of education of the results of the referendum.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 124A.22, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [GENERAL EDUCATION REVENUE.] The general education revenue for each district equals the sum of the district's basic revenue, compensatory education revenue, training and experience revenue, secondary sparsity revenue, elementary sparsity revenue, and supplemental revenue.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 124A.22, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [BASIC REVENUE.] The basic revenue for each district equals the formula allowance times the actual pupil units for the school year. ~~The formula allowance is $2,755 for the 1988-1989 school year.~~ The formula allowance is ~~$2,800~~ $2,838 for fiscal year 1990. The formula allowance for subsequent fiscal years is $2,953.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 124A.22, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [ELIGIBILITY FOR INCREASE.] Notwithstanding subdivision 2 or any other law to the contrary, if a school board and the bargaining unit of the teachers in a school district have not ratified a contract by January 15, 1990, for the two-year period ending June 30, 1991, the district is no longer eligible for $25 of the formula allowance for fiscal year 1990. The total amount of money that would have been paid to districts that are not eligible according to this subdivision shall be allocated to eligible districts according to the number of actual pupil units in all of the eligible districts.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 124A.22, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [DEFINITIONS.] The definitions in this subdivision apply only to subdivision 6.

For a district that has more than one high school, "secondary average daily membership" for each high school means the product of the average daily membership of resident pupils in grades 7 through 12 in the high school, times the ratio of six to the number of grades in the high school.

(c) "Attendance area" means the total surface area of the district, in square miles, divided by the number of high schools in the district.

(d) "Isolation index" for a high school means the square root of one-half the attendance area plus the distance in miles, according to the usually traveled routes, between the high school and the nearest high school.

(f) "Qualifying elementary school" means an elementary school that is located 20 miles or more from the nearest elementary school or from the nearest elementary school within the district and, in either case, has an elementary average daily membership of an average of 20 or fewer per grade.

(g) "Elementary average daily membership" means, for a district that has only one elementary school, the average daily membership of resident pupils in kindergarten through grade 6. For a district that has more than one elementary school, "average daily membership" for each school means the average daily membership of kindergarten through grade 6 multiplied by the ratio of seven to the number of grades in the elementary school.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 124A.22, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Subd. 6. [SECONDARY SPARSITY REVENUE.] A district's secondary sparsity revenue for a school year equals the sum of the results of the following calculation for each qualifying high school in the district:

(1) the formula allowance for the school year, multiplied by

(2) the secondary average daily membership of the high school, multiplied by

(3) the quotient obtained by dividing 400 minus the secondary average daily membership by 400 plus the secondary daily membership, multiplied by

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 124A.22, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 6a. [ELEMENTARY SPARSITY REVENUE.] A district's elementary sparsity revenue equals the sum of the following amounts for each qualifying elementary school in the district:

(1) the formula allowance for the year, multiplied by

(2) the elementary average daily membership of the school, multiplied by

(3) the quotient obtained by dividing 140 minus the elementary average daily membership by 140 plus the average daily membership.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 124A.22, subdivision 8, is amended to read:

Subd. 8. [SUPPLEMENTAL REVENUE.] If a district's minimum allowance exceeds the sum of its basic revenue, compensatory revenue, training and experience revenue, secondary sparsity revenue, and elementary sparsity revenue per actual pupil unit for a school year, the district shall receive supplemental revenue equal to the amount of the excess times the actual pupil units for the school year.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 124A.22, subdivision 9, is amended to read:

Subd. 9. [DEFINITIONS FOR SUPPLEMENTAL REVENUE.] (a) The definitions in this subdivision apply only to subdivision 8.

(b) "1987-1988 revenue" means the sum of the following categories of revenue for a district for the 1987-1988 school year:

(1) basic foundation revenue, tier revenue, and declining pupil unit revenue, according to Minnesota Statutes 1986, as supplemented by Minnesota Statutes 1987 Supplement, chapter 124A, plus any reduction to second tier revenue, according to Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 124A.08, subdivision 5;

For the purpose of this subdivision, intermediate districts and other employing units, as defined in Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 124.2161, shall allocate the amount of their teacher retirement and FICA aid for fiscal year 1988 among their participating school districts.

(c) "Minimum allowance" for a district means:

(1) the district's 1987-1988 revenue, according to subdivision 1; divided by

(2) the district's 1987-1988 actual pupil units, adjusted for the change in secondary pupil unit weighting from 1.4 to 1.35 made by Laws 1987, chapter 398; plus

(3) ~~$105~~ $143 for fiscal year 1990 and $258 for subsequent fiscal years.

The general education tax capacity rate certified by the commissioner of revenue may not be changed due to changes or corrections made to a district's adjusted gross tax capacity after the tax capacity rate has been certified.

Sec. 14. [INSTRUCTIONS TO THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION FOR 1989 LEVY LIMITS.]

Notwithstanding sections 2, 6, 8, 10, and 12, or any other law to the contrary, the department shall determine for the 1989-1990 school year only, levies under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 124A as they were authorized before the enactment of this article.

Subd. 3. [FORMULA.] For each school year, the state shall pay to each school district for all pupil transportation and related services for which the district is authorized by law to receive state aid an amount determined according to this section. The department of education shall conduct multiple regression analysis using the terms specified in subdivision 4b for ~~each school year~~ the 1986-1987 and 1987-1988 base years to predict the base cost for each district. ~~Each year~~ The department shall use a formula ~~shall be derived~~ based upon the regression analysis~~, and shall be used~~ to determine a predicted base cost for each district. The amount determined for each district shall be adjusted according to the provisions of subdivisions 7a and 7b.

Subd. 3a. [PREDICTED BASE COST.] A district's predicted base cost for the 1988-1989 base year and later years equals the result of the following computation:

(a) Multiply the transportation formula allowance by the district's sparsity index raised to the one-fourth power. The transportation formula allowance is $406 for the 1988-1989 base year.

(b) Multiply the result in clause (a) by the district's density index raised to the 35/100 power.

(c) Multiply the result in clause (b) by the district's contract transportation index raised to the 1/20 power.

Subd. 4b. [FORMULA TERMS.] ~~(a) To predict the logarithm of the base cost for each district pursuant to subdivision 3 for the 1985-1986 base year, the multiple regression formula shall use the following terms for each district:~~

~~(1) the logarithm of the lesser of (a) the number of authorized FTE's per square mile transported by the district in the regular transportation category, or (b) 200;~~

~~(2) whether the district is nonrural, based upon criteria established by the department of education; and~~

~~(3) the logarithm of the percentage of all FTE's transported in the regular category using buses that are not owned by the district.~~

~~(b)~~ To predict the logarithm of the base cost for each district according to subdivision 3 for the 1986-1987 and 1987-1988 base ~~year and thereafter,~~ years the multiple regression formula shall use the following terms for each district:

(3) the logarithm of the percentage of all FTE's transported in the regular category using buses that are not owned by the district.

Subd. 7a. [BASE YEAR SOFTENING FORMULA.] Each district's predicted base cost determined for ~~each school year~~ the 1986-1987 and 1987-1988 base years according to subdivision 3 shall be adjusted as provided in this ~~clause~~ subdivision to determine the district's adjusted authorized predicted cost per FTE for that year.

(a) If the base cost of the district is within five percent of the predicted base cost, the district's adjusted authorized predicted cost per FTE shall be equal to the base cost.

(b) If the base cost of the district is more than five percent greater than the predicted base cost, the district's adjusted authorized predicted cost per FTE shall be equal to 105 percent of the predicted base cost, plus 40 percent of the difference between (i) the base cost, and (ii) 105 percent of the predicted base cost. However, in no case shall a district's adjusted authorized predicted cost per FTE be less than 80 percent of base cost.

(c) If the base cost of the district is more than five percent less than the predicted base cost, the district's adjusted authorized predicted cost per FTE shall be equal to 95 percent of the predicted base cost, minus 40 percent of the difference between (i) 95 percent of predicted base cost, and (ii) the base cost. However, in no case shall a district's adjusted authorized predicted cost per FTE be more than 120 percent of base cost.

(d) For the 1988-1989 base year and later years, each district's predicted base cost determined according to subdivision 3a must be adjusted as provided in this subdivision to determine the district's adjusted predicted base cost for that year. The adjusted predicted base cost equals 50 percent of the district's base cost plus 50 percent of the district's predicted base cost, but the adjusted predicted base cost cannot be less than 80 percent, nor more than 110 percent, of the base cost.

Subd. 7b. [INFLATION FACTORS.] The adjusted authorized predicted cost per FTE determined for a district under subdivision 7a for the base year shall be increased by ~~6.0 percent to determine the district's aid entitlement per FTE for the 1986-1987 school year, by 4.9 percent to determine the district's aid entitlement per FTE for the 1987-1988 school year, and by~~ 4.1 percent to determine the district's aid entitlement per FTE for the 1988-1989 school year~~.~~ and by 5.8 percent to determine the district's regular transportation allowance for the 1989-1990 school year. The adjusted predicted base cost determined for a district under subdivision 7a for the base year must be increased by 5.4 percent to determine the district's regular transportation allowance for the 1990-1991 school year, but the regular transportation allowance for a district cannot be less than the district's minimum regular transportation allowance according to subdivision 1, paragraph (t).

Subd. 7c. [TRANSPORTATION REVENUE.] Beginning in the 1990-1991 school year, the transportation revenue for each district equals the sum of the district's regular transportation revenue and the district's nonregular transportation revenue.

(a) The regular transportation revenue for each district equals the district's regular transportation allowance according to subdivision 7b times the sum of the number of FTE's transported by the district in the regular and desegregation categories in the current school year.

(b) The nonregular transportation revenue for each district equals the district's actual cost in the current school year for nonregular transportation services, minus the amount of regular transportation revenue attributable to FTE's transported in the desegregation category in the current school year.

Subd. 8a. [TRANSPORTATION AID.] (a) For the 1988-1989 ~~school year~~ and ~~thereafter~~ 1989-1990 school years, a district's transportation aid is equal to the sum of its basic transportation aid under subdivision 8b, its nonregular transportation aid under subdivision 8i, and its nonregular transportation levy equalization aid under subdivision 8j, minus its contracted services aid reduction under subdivision 8k and minus its basic transportation levy limitation for the levy attributable to that school year under section 275.125, subdivision 5.

(b) For 1990-1991 and later school years, a district's transportation aid equals the product of:

(1) the difference between the transportation revenue and the sum of:

(i) the maximum basic transportation levy for that school year under section 275.125, subdivision 5, plus

(ii) the maximum nonregular transportation levy for that school year under section 275.125, subdivision 5c, plus

(iii) the contracted services aid reduction under subdivision 8k,

(2) times the ratio of the sum of the actual amounts levied under section 275.125, subdivisions 5 and 5c, to the sum of the maximum levies under section 275.125, subdivisions 5 and 5c.

(c) If the total appropriation for transportation aid for any fiscal year is insufficient to pay all districts the full amount of aid earned, the department of education shall reduce each district's aid in proportion to the number of resident pupils in average daily membership in the district to the state total average daily membership, and shall reduce the transportation levy of off-formula districts in the same proportion.

Subd. 8b. [BASIC AID COMPUTATION.] A district's basic transportation aid pursuant to this section for ~~each school year~~ the 1988-1989 and 1989-1990 school years shall equal the district's aid entitlement per FTE determined according to subdivision 7b, times the total number of authorized FTE's transported in the regular category in the district in the ~~current~~ school year.

Subd. 8i. [NONREGULAR TRANSPORTATION AID.] (a) A district's nonregular transportation aid shall be determined according to this subdivision.

(b) ~~For the 1986-1987 and 1987-1988 school years, nonregular transportation aid shall equal (1) 20 percent of the first $10 of actual cost in the current year for nonregular transportation services per total pupil unit, plus 40 percent of the next $10 of actual cost in the current year for nonregular transportation services per total pupil unit, plus 60 percent of the actual cost in the current year for nonregular transportation services per total pupil unit which exceeds $20, times (2) the number of total pupil units in the district in the current year.~~

~~(c)~~ For the 1988-1989 and 1989-1990 school ~~year and thereafter~~ years, nonregular transportation aid equals (1) 60 percent of the actual cost in the current year for nonregular transportation services per total pupil unit which exceeds $30, times (2) the number of total pupil units in the district in the current year.

Subd. 8j. [NONREGULAR TRANSPORTATION LEVY EQUALIZATION AID.] For the ~~1984-1985 school year and each year thereafter~~ 1988-1989 and 1989-1990 school years, a district's nonregular transportation levy equalization aid shall be determined pursuant to this subdivision.

(a) Unreimbursed nonregular transportation revenue shall equal the actual cost in the ~~current~~ school year for nonregular transportation services, minus the district's nonregular transportation aid computed pursuant to subdivision 8i.

(b) The nonregular transportation levy is the levy authorized by section 275.125, subdivision 5c.

(c) Nonregular transportation levy equalization aid for a district shall equal the product of (1) its unreimbursed nonregular transportation revenue, minus the nonregular transportation levy limitation for that year, times (2) the ratio of the district's actual nonregular transportation levy to its nonregular transportation levy limitation.

Subd. 8k. [CONTRACTED SERVICES AID REDUCTION.] (a) For the 1984-1985 school year and each year thereafter, each district's transportation aid shall be reduced according to the provisions of this subdivision, if the district contracted for some or all of the transportation services provided in the regular category.

(b) For the 1988-1989 and 1989-1990 school years, the department of education shall compute this subtraction by conducting the multiple regression analysis specified in subdivision 3 and computing the district's aid under two circumstances, once including the coefficient of the factor specified in subdivision 4b, clause (3), and once excluding the coefficient of that factor. The aid subtraction shall equal the difference between the district's aid computed under these two circumstances.

(c) For 1990-1991 and later school years, the department of education shall determine the subtraction by computing the district's regular transportation revenue under two circumstances, once including the factor specified in subdivision 3a, clause (c), and once excluding the factor. The aid subtraction equals the difference between the district's revenue computed under the two circumstances.

Subd. 8l. [ALTERNATIVE ATTENDANCE PROGRAMS.] A district that ~~serves~~ enrolls nonresident pupils in programs under sections 120.062, 120.075, 120.0751, 120.0752, 123.3515, 126.22, and 129B.52 to 129B.55 shall provide authorized transportation to the pupil within the attendance area for the school that the pupil attends. The state shall pay transportation aid attributable to the pupil to the ~~serving~~ nonresident district according to this section. The resident district ~~of the pupil's residence~~ need not provide or pay for transportation between the pupil's residence and the district's border.

Subd. 9. [DISTRICT REPORTS.] Each district shall report data to the department as required by the department to implement the transportation aid formula. If a district's final transportation aid payment is adjusted after the final aid payment has been made to all districts, the adjustment shall be made by increasing or decreasing the district's aid for the next fiscal year.

Subd. 10. [DEPRECIATION.] Any school district ~~which~~ that owns school buses or mobile units shall transfer annually from the undesignated fund balance account in its transportation fund to the reserved fund balance account for bus purchases in its transportation fund at least an amount equal to 12-1/2 percent of the original cost of each type one or type two bus or mobile unit until the original cost of each type one or type two bus or mobile unit is fully amortized, plus 20 percent of the original cost of each type three bus included in the district's authorized cost under the provisions of subdivision 1, ~~clause~~ paragraph (b), clause (4), until the original cost of each type three bus is fully amortized, plus 33-1/3 percent of the cost to the district as of July 1 of each year for school bus reconditioning done by the department of corrections until the cost of the reconditioning is fully amortized; provided, if the district's transportation aid or levy is reduced pursuant to subdivision 8a because the appropriation for that year is insufficient, this amount shall be reduced in proportion to the reduction pursuant to subdivision 8a as a percentage of the ~~sum of~~

The commissioner of revenue shall establish the basic transportation tax capacity rate and certify it to the commissioner of education by September 1 of each year for levies payable in the following year. The basic transportation tax capacity rate shall be a rate, rounded up to the nearest hundredth of a ~~mill~~ percent, that, when applied to the adjusted gross tax capacity of taxable property for all districts, raises the amount specified in this subdivision. The basic transportation tax capacity rate for transportation ~~for the 1990 fiscal year~~ shall be the rate that raises ~~$72,681,200~~ $82,063,200 for fiscal year 1991 and $86,166,400 for subsequent fiscal years. The basic transportation tax capacity rate certified by the commissioner of revenue must not be changed due to changes or corrections made to a district's adjusted gross tax capacity after the tax capacity rate has been certified.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.125, subdivision 5b, is amended to read:

Subd. 5b. [TRANSPORTATION LEVY OFF-FORMULA ADJUSTMENT.] (a) In ~~any~~ the 1989 and 1990 fiscal ~~year~~ years, if the basic transportation levy under subdivision 5 in a district attributable to ~~a particular~~ the fiscal year exceeds the transportation aid computation under section 124.225, subdivisions 8b, 8i, 8j, and 8k, the district's levy limitation shall be adjusted as provided in this subdivision. In the ~~year following each~~ next fiscal year, the district's transportation levy shall be reduced by an amount equal to the difference between (1) the amount of the basic transportation levy under subdivision 5, and (2) the sum of the district's transportation aid computation pursuant to section 124.225, subdivisions 8b, 8i, 8j, and 8k, and the amount of any subtraction made from special state aids pursuant to section 124.2138, subdivision 2, less the amount of any aid reduction due to an insufficient appropriation as provided in section 124.225, subdivision 8a.

(b) For 1991 and later fiscal years, in a district if the basic transportation levy under subdivision 5 attributable to that fiscal year is more than the difference between (1) the district's transportation revenue under section 124.225, subdivision 7c, and (2) the sum of the district's maximum nonregular levy under subdivision 5c and the district's contracted services aid reduction under section 124.225, subdivision 8k, and the amount of any reduction due to insufficient appropriation under section 124.225, subdivision 8a, the district's transportation levy in the next fiscal year must be reduced by the amount of the excess.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.125, subdivision 5c, is amended to read:

Subd. 5c. [NONREGULAR TRANSPORTATION LEVY.] A school district may also make a levy for unreimbursed nonregular transportation costs pursuant to this subdivision. The amount of the levy shall ~~not exceed the product of:~~

(a) multiply

(1) the amount of the district's nonregular transportation revenue under section 124.225, subdivision 7c that is more than the product of $30 times the district's actual pupil units, by

(2) 60 percent;

(b) subtract the result in clause (a) from the district's total nonregular

transportation revenue;

(c) multiply the result in clause (b) by the lesser of one or the ratio of (i) the quotient derived by dividing the adjusted gross tax capacity of the district for the year before the year the levy is certified by the actual pupil units in the district for the school year to which the levy is attributable, to (ii) $9,722.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 275.125, subdivision 5e, is amended to read:

Subd. 5e. [EXCESS TRANSPORTATION LEVY.] A school district may make a levy for excess transportation costs according to this subdivision. The amount of the levy shall be the result of the following computation:

ARTICLE 3

SPECIAL PROGRAMS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 120.17, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. [RULES OF THE STATE BOARD.] The state board shall promulgate rules relative to qualifications of essential personnel, courses of study, methods of instruction, pupil eligibility, size of classes, rooms, equipment, supervision, parent consultation, and any other rules it deems necessary for instruction of handicapped children. These rules shall provide standards and procedures appropriate for the implementation of and within the limitations of subdivisions 3a and 3b. These rules shall also provide standards for the discipline, control, management and protection of handicapped children. The state board shall not adopt rules for pupils served in level 1, 2, or 3, as defined in Minnesota Rules, part 3525.2340, establishing either case loads or the maximum number of pupils that may be assigned to special education teachers. The state board, in consultation with the departments of health and human services, shall adopt permanent rules for instruction and services for children under age five and their families. ~~Until June 30, 1988, a developmental achievement center under contract to a school district to provide special instruction and services is eligible for variance from rules relating to personnel licensure. Until June 30, 1988, the licensure variance for a developmental achievement center shall be granted according to the same procedures and criteria used for granting a variance to a school district.~~ The state board shall adopt rules to determine eligibility for special education services. The rules shall include procedures and standards by which to grant variances for experimental eligibility criteria. The state board shall, according to section 14.05, subdivision 4, notify a district applying for a variance from the rules within 45 calendar days of receiving the request whether the request for the variance has been granted or denied. If a request is denied, the board shall specify the program standards used to evaluate the request and the reasons for denying the request.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 120.17, subdivision 3b, is amended to read:

Subd. 3b. [PROCEDURES FOR DECISIONS.] Every district shall utilize at least the following procedures for decisions involving identification, assessment, and educational placement of handicapped children:

(a) Parents and guardians shall receive prior written notice of:

(1) any proposed formal educational assessment or proposed denial of a formal educational assessment of their child;

(2) a proposed placement of their child in, transfer from or to, or denial of placement in a special education program; or

(3) the proposed provision, addition, denial or removal of special education services for their child;

(b) The district shall not proceed with the initial formal assessment of a child, the initial placement of a child in a special education program, or the initial provision of special education services for a child without the prior written consent of the child's parent or guardian. The refusal of a parent or guardian to consent may be overridden by the decision in a hearing held pursuant to clause (d) at the district's initiative;

(c) Parents and guardians shall have an opportunity to meet with appropriate district staff in at least one conciliation conference if they object to any proposal of which they are notified pursuant to clause (a). The conciliation process shall not be used to deny or delay a parent or guardian's right to a due process hearing. If the parent or guardian refuses efforts by the district to conciliate the dispute with the school district, the requirement of an opportunity for conciliation shall be deemed to be satisfied;

(d) Parents, guardians, and the district shall have an opportunity to obtain an impartial due process hearing initiated and conducted by and in the school district ~~where the child resides~~ responsible for assuring that an appropriate program is provided in accordance with state board rules, if the parent or guardian continues to object to:

(1) a proposed formal educational assessment or proposed denial of a formal educational assessment of their child;

(2) the proposed placement of their child in, or transfer of their child to a special education program;

(3) the proposed denial of placement of their child in a special education program or the transfer of their child from a special education program;

(4) the proposed provision or addition of special education services for their child; or

(5) the proposed denial or removal of special education services for their child.

At least five calendar days before the hearing, the objecting party shall provide the other party with a brief written statement of the objection and the reasons for the objection.

The hearing shall take place before an impartial hearing officer mutually agreed to by the school board and the parent or guardian. If the school board and the parent or guardian are unable to agree on a hearing officer, the school board shall request the commissioner to appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer shall not be a school board member or employee of the school district where the child resides or of the child's school district of residence, an employee of any other public agency involved in the education or care of the child, or any person with a personal or professional interest which would conflict with the person's objectivity at the hearing. A person who otherwise qualifies as a hearing officer is not an employee of the district solely because the person is paid by the district to serve as a hearing officer. If the hearing officer requests an independent educational assessment of a child, the cost of the assessment shall be at district expense. The proceedings shall be recorded and preserved, at the expense of the school district, pending ultimate disposition of the action.

(e) The decision of the hearing officer pursuant to clause (d) shall be rendered not more than 45 calendar days from the date of the receipt of the request for the hearing. A hearing officer may grant specific extensions of time beyond the 45-day period at the request of either party. The decision of the hearing officer shall be binding on all parties unless appealed to the hearing review officer by the parent, guardian, or the school board of the district where the child resides pursuant to clause (f).

The local decision shall:

(1) be in writing;

(2) state the controlling facts upon which the decision is made in sufficient detail to apprise the parties and the hearing review officer of the basis and reason for the decision;

(3) state whether the special education program or special education services appropriate to the child's needs can be reasonably provided within the resources available to the responsible district or districts;

(4) state the amount and source of any additional district expenditure necessary to implement the decision; and

(5) be based on the standards set forth in subdivision 3a and the rules of the state board.

(f) Any local decision issued pursuant to clauses (d) and (e) may be appealed to the hearing review officer within 30 calendar days of receipt of that written decision, by the parent, guardian, or the school board of the district ~~where the child resides~~ responsible for assuring that an appropriate program is provided in accordance with state board rules.

If the decision is appealed, a written transcript of the hearing shall be made by the school district and shall be accessible to the parties involved within five calendar days of the filing of the appeal. The hearing review officer shall issue a final decision based on an impartial review of the local decision and the entire record within 30 calendar days after the filing of the appeal. The hearing review officer shall seek additional evidence if necessary and may afford the parties an opportunity for written or oral argument; provided any hearing held to seek additional evidence shall be an impartial due process hearing but shall be deemed not to be a contested case hearing for purposes of chapter 14. The hearing review officer may grant specific extensions of time beyond the 30-day period at the request of any party.

The final decision shall:

(1) be in writing;

(2) include findings and conclusions; and

(3) be based upon the standards set forth in subdivision 3a and in the rules of the state board.

(g) The decision of the hearing review officer shall be final unless appealed by the parent or guardian or school board to the court of appeals. The judicial review shall be in accordance with chapter 14.

(h) The commissioner of education, having delegated general supervision of special education to the appropriate staff, shall be the hearing review officer except for appeals in which:

(1) the commissioner has a personal interest in or specific involvement with the student who is a party to the hearing;

(2) the commissioner has been employed as an administrator by the district that is a party to the hearing;

(3) the commissioner has been involved in the selection of the administrators of the district that is a party to the hearing;

(4) the commissioner has a personal, economic, or professional interest in the outcome of the hearing other than the proper administration of the federal and state laws, rules, and policies;

(5) the appeal challenges a state or local policy which was developed with substantial involvement of the commissioner; or

(6) the appeal challenges the actions of a department employee or official.

For any appeal to which the above exceptions apply, the state board of education shall name an impartial and competent hearing review officer.

In all appeals, the parent or guardian of the handicapped student or the district that is a party to the hearing may challenge the impartiality or competence of the proposed hearing review officer by applying to the state board of education.

(i) Pending the completion of proceedings pursuant to this subdivision, unless the district and the parent or guardian of the child agree otherwise, the child shall remain in the child's current educational placement and shall not be denied initial admission to school.

(j) The child's school district of residence~~, if different from the district where the child actually resides~~, a resident district, and providing district shall receive notice of and may be a party to any hearings or appeals ~~pursuant to~~ under this subdivision.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 120.17, subdivision 11a, is amended to read:

Subd. 11a. [STATE INTERAGENCY COORDINATING COUNCIL.] An interagency coordinating council of 15 members is established. The members and the chair shall be appointed by the governor. The council shall be composed of at least three parents of ~~handicapped~~ children under age seven with handicaps, ~~a representative of each of the commissioners of education, health, and human services,~~ three representatives of public or private providers of services for ~~handicapped~~ children under age five with handicaps, one member of the senate, one member of the house of representatives, one representative of teacher preparation programs in early childhood-special education, at least one representative of advocacy organizations for ~~handicapped~~ children with handicaps, at least one representative of a school district or a school district cooperative, and other members knowledgeable about ~~handicapped~~ children under age five with handicaps. Section 15.059, subdivisions 2 to 5, apply to the council. The council shall

The council shall address methods of implementing the state policy of developing and implementing comprehensive, coordinated, multidisciplinary interagency programs of early intervention services for ~~handicapped~~ children with handicaps and their families.

The duties of the council include recommending policies to ensure a comprehensive and coordinated system of all state and local agency services for ~~handicapped~~ children under age five with handicaps and their families. The policies must address how to incorporate each agency's services into a unified state and local system of multidisciplinary assessment practices, individual intervention plans, comprehensive systems to find children in need of services, methods to improve public awareness, and assistance in determining the role of interagency early intervention committees.

It is the joint responsibility of county boards and school districts to coordinate, provide, and pay for appropriate services, and to facilitate payment for services from public and private sources. Appropriate services must be determined in consultation with parents, physicians, and other educational, medical, health, and human services providers. Appropriate services include family education and counseling, home visits, occupational and physical therapy, speech pathology, audiology, psychological services, case management, medical services for diagnostic and evaluation purposes, early identification, and screening, assessment, and health services necessary to enable ~~handicapped~~ children with handicaps to benefit from early intervention services. School districts must be the primary agency in this cooperative effort.

Each year by January 15 the council shall submit its recommendations to the education committees of the legislature, the governor, and the commissioners of education, health, and human services.

The pupil units of a school district may not be used to obtain revenue under this section and section 124.575.

Subd. 2. [REVENUE.] ~~Education district revenue is $60 per actual pupil unit in each district that is a member of an education district.~~ Each year the education district board shall certify to the department of education the amount of revenue to be raised. Revenue for the education district shall be the lesser of:

(1) $60 times the actual pupil units in the education district, or

(2) the amount certified by the education district board.

Subd. 3. [LEVY.] ~~To obtain education district revenue, an eligible education district may levy the lesser of its education district revenue or the amount raised by 1.3 mills times the adjusted gross tax capacity of each participating district for the preceding year. Each year, the education district board shall certify to the county auditor or county auditors the amount of taxes to be levied under this section.~~ The education district levy is equal to the following:

Subd. 5. [USES OF REVENUE.] Education district revenue is under the control of the education district board. Education district revenue must be used by the education district board to provide educational programs according to the agreement adopted by the education district board, as required by section 122.94.

The education district board may pay to member school districts a part of the education district revenue received by the education district under this section only for programs that are (1) available to all member districts, and (2) included in the five-year plan under section 30.

Subd. 6. [CONSOLIDATION.] If all member districts of an education district receiving revenue under this section or a group of member districts of an education district receiving revenue under this section that would qualify as an education district under section 122.91, subdivision 3, consolidate into a single independent school district by proceedings taken in accordance with section 122.23, that consolidated district may continue to receive education district revenue according to this section.

Subd. 13. [REVENUE FOR EXTENDED COOPERATION.] *If the state board disapproves of the plan according to section 7, subdivision 1, or if a second referendum fails under section 7, subdivision 2, cooperation and combination revenue shall equal $60 times the actual pupil units. Cooperation and combination aid must be reduced by an amount equal to the aid paid under subdivision 6 plus the difference between the aid paid under subdivision 5 for the first two years of the agreement and the aid that would have been paid if the revenue had been $60 times the actual pupil units. If the aid is insufficient to recover the entire amount, the department of education shall reduce other aids due the district to recover the entire amount. The cooperation and combination levy shall be reduced by an amount equal to the difference between the levy for the first two years of the agreement and the levy that would have been authorized if the revenue had been $60 times the actual pupil units. ARTICLE 9

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 120.062, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. [PUPIL APPLICATION PROCEDURES.] In order that a pupil may attend a school or program in a nonresident district, the pupil's parent or guardian must submit an application to the nonresident district. Before submitting an application, the pupil and the pupil's parent or guardian must explore with a school guidance counselor, or other appropriate staff member employed by the district the pupil is currently attending, the pupil's academic or other reason for applying to enroll in a nonresident district. The pupil's application must identify the reason for enrolling in the nonresident district. The parent or guardian of a pupil ~~residing in a district that does not have a desegregation plan approved by the state board of education~~ must submit an application by January 1 for initial enrollment ~~during~~ beginning the following school year. ~~The parent or guardian of a pupil residing in a district that has a desegregation plan approved by the state board of education may apply to a district at any time.~~ The application shall be on a form provided by the department of education. A particular school or program may be requested by the parent. Once enrolled in a nonresident district, the pupil may remain enrolled and is not required to submit annual or periodic applications. To return to the resident district or to transfer to a different nonresident district, the parent or guardian of the pupil must provide notice to the resident district or apply to a different nonresident district by January 1 for enrollment beginning the following school year.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 120.062, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [DESEGREGATION ~~PLANS~~ DISTRICT TRANSFERS.] (a) This subdivision applies to a transfer into or out of a district that has a desegregation plan approved by the state board of education.

(b) An application to transfer may be submitted at any time for enrollment beginning at any time.

(c) The parent or guardian of a pupil who is a resident of a district that has a desegregation plan must submit an application to the resident district. If the district accepts the application, it must forward the application to the nonresident district.

(d) The parent or guardian of a pupil who applies for enrollment in a nonresident district that has a desegregation plan must submit an application to the nonresident district.

(e) Each district must accept or reject an application it receives and notify the parent or guardian in writing within 30 calendar days of receiving the application. A notification of acceptance must include the date enrollment can begin.

(f) If an application is rejected, the district must state the reason for rejection in the notification. If a district that has a desegregation plan rejects an application for a reason related to the desegregation plan, the district must state with specificity how acceptance of the application would result in noncompliance with state board rules with respect to the school or program for which application was made.

(g) If an application is accepted, the parent or guardian must notify the nonresident district in writing within 15 calendar days of receiving the acceptance whether the pupil intends to enroll in the nonresident district. Notice of intention to enroll obligates the pupil to enroll in the nonresident district, unless the school boards of the resident and nonresident districts agree otherwise. If a parent or guardian does not notify the nonresident district, the pupil may not enroll in that nonresident district at that time, unless the school boards of the resident and nonresident district agree otherwise.

(h) Within 15 calendar days of receiving the notice from the parent or guardian, the nonresident district shall notify the resident district in writing of the pupil's intention to enroll in the nonresident district.

(i) A pupil enrolled in a nonresident district under this subdivision is not required to make annual or periodic application for enrollment but may remain enrolled in the same district. A pupil may transfer to the resident district at any time.

(j) A pupil enrolled in a nonresident district and applying to transfer into or out of a district that has a desegregation plan must follow the procedures of this subdivision. For the purposes of this type of transfer, "resident district" means the nonresident district in which the pupil is enrolled at the time of application.

(k) A district that has a desegregation plan approved by the state board of education ~~may limit the number of pupils who transfer into or out of the district. To remain in compliance with its desegregation plan, the district may establish the number of majority and minority group pupils who may transfer into or out of the district. The district may~~ must accept or reject ~~applications~~ each individual application in a manner that will enable compliance with ~~the~~ its desegregation plan. ~~The district shall notify the parent or guardian and the resident district according to the requirements of subdivision 6.~~"

Subd. 6. [NONRESIDENT DISTRICT PROCEDURES.] ~~Within 60 days of receiving an application,~~ A district that does not exclude nonresident pupils, according to subdivision 3, shall notify the parent or guardian ~~and the resident district~~ in writing by February 1 whether the application has been accepted or rejected. If an application is rejected, the district must state in the notification the reason for rejection. The parent or guardian shall notify the nonresident district by February 15 whether the pupil intends to enroll in the nonresident district. Notice of intent to enroll in the nonresident district obligates the pupil to attend the nonresident district during the following school year, unless the school boards of the resident and the nonresident districts agree in writing to allow the pupil to transfer back to the resident district, or the pupil's parents or guardians change residence to another district. If a parent or guardian does not notify the nonresident district, the pupil may not enroll in that nonresident district during the following school year, unless the school boards of the resident and nonresident district agree otherwise. The nonresident district shall notify the resident district by March 1 of the pupil's intent to enroll in the nonresident district. The same procedures apply to a pupil who applies to transfer from one participating nonresident district to another participating nonresident district.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 121.11, subdivision 12, is amended to read:

Subd. 12. [ADMINISTRATIVE RULES.] The state board ~~shall~~ may adopt ~~and enforce~~ rules~~, consistent with this code, appropriate for the administration and enforcement thereof~~ only upon specific authority other than under this subdivision. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 14.05, subdivision 4, the state board may grant a variance to its rules upon application by a school district for purposes of implementing experimental programs in learning or school management ~~which~~ that attempt to make better use of community resources or available technology.

Sec. 5. [121.585] [LEARNING YEAR PROGRAMS.]

Subdivision 1. [PROGRAM ESTABLISHED.] A learning year program provides instruction throughout the year. A pupil may participate in the program and accelerate attainment of grade level requirements or graduation requirements. A learning year program may begin after the close of the regular school year in June. The program may be for students in one or more grade levels from kindergarten through twelfth grade.

Students may participate in the program if they reside in:

(2) a district that is a member of the same education district as a site; or

(3) a district that participates in the same area learning center program as a site.

Subd. 2. [STATE BOARD DESIGNATION.] An area learning center designated by the state must be a site. Up to an additional ten learning year sites may be designated by the state board of education. To be designated, a district or center must demonstrate to the commissioner of education that it will:

(1) provide a program of instruction that permits pupils to receive instruction throughout the entire year; and

(2) maintain a record system that, for purposes of section 124.17, permits identification of membership attributable to pupils participating in the program. The record system and identification must ensure that the program will not have the effect of increasing the total number of pupil units attributable to an individual pupil as a result of a learning year program.

Subd. 3. [HOURS OF INSTRUCTION.] Pupils participating in a program must be able to receive the same total number of hours of instruction they would receive if they were not in the program. If a pupil has not completed the graduation requirements of the district after completing the minimum number of secondary school hours of instruction, the district may allow the pupil to continue to enroll in courses needed for graduation.

For the purposes of section 120.101, subdivision 5, the minimum number of hours for a year determined for the appropriate grade level of instruction shall constitute 170 days of instruction. Hours of instruction that occur after the close of the instructional year in June shall be attributed to the following fiscal year.

Subd. 4. [STUDENT PLANNING.] A district must inform all pupils and their parents about the learning year program. A continual learning plan must be developed for each pupil with the participation of the pupil, parent or guardian, teachers, and other staff. The plan must specify the learning experiences that must occur each year and, for secondary students, for graduation. The plan may be modified to conform to district schedule changes. The district may not modify the plan if the modification would result in delaying the student's time of graduation.

Subd. 5. [TRANSPORTATION.] Summer transportation expenditures for this program must be included in nonregular transportation according to sections 124.225, subdivision 8; and 275.125, subdivision 5c.

Subd. 6. [CONTRACTS.] A district may contract with a licensed employee to provide services in a learning year program that are in addition to the services provided according to the master contract of employment for teachers or an equivalent contract for licensed employees who are not teachers. These additional services and compensation, if any, for the services shall not become a part of the employee's continuing contract rights under section 125.12 or 125.17.

Subd. 7. [REVENUE COMPUTATION AND REPORTING.] Aid and levy revenue computations shall be based on the total number of hours of education programs for pupils in average daily membership for each fiscal year. For purposes of section 124.17, average daily membership shall be computed by dividing the total number of hours of participation for the fiscal year by the minimum number of hours for a year determined for the appropriate grade level. Hours of participation that occur after the close of the regular instructional year and before July 1 shall be attributed to the following fiscal year. Thirty hours may be used for teacher workshops, staff development, or parent-teacher conferences. As part of each pilot program, the department of education and each district must report and evaluate the changes needed to adjust the dates of the fiscal year for aid and levy computation and fiscal year reporting. For revenue computation purposes, the learning year program shall generate revenue based on the formulas for the fiscal year in which the services are provided.

State aid and levy revenue computation for the learning year programs begins July 1, 1988, for fiscal year 1989.

Subd. 8. [EXEMPTION.] To operate the pilot program, the state board of education may exempt the district from specific rules relating to student and financial accounting, reporting, and revenue computation.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 121.88, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [EXTENDED DAY PROGRAMS.] A school board may offer, as part of a community education program, an extended day program for children from kindergarten through grade 6 for the purpose of expanding students' learning opportunities. A program must include the following:

(1) adult supervised programs while school is not in session;

(2) parental involvement in program design and direction;

(3) partnerships with the K-12 system, and other public, private, or nonprofit entities; and

(4) opportunities for trained secondary school pupils to work with younger children in a supervised setting as part of a community service program.

The district may charge a sliding fee based upon family income for extended day programs. The district may receive money from other public or private sources for the extended day program. The school board of the district shall develop standards for school age child care programs. The state board of education may not adopt rules for extended day programs.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 123.33, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. The board shall superintend and manage the schools of the district; adopt~~, modify, or repeal~~ rules for their organization, government, and instruction ~~and for the keeping of~~; keep registers; and prescribe textbooks and courses of study. The board may arrange for courses for secondary pupils that are offered by a post-secondary institution.

Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 123.3514, subdivision 4c, is amended to read:

Subd. 4c. [LIMIT ON PARTICIPATION.] A pupil who first enrolls in grade 11 may not enroll in post-secondary courses under this section for secondary credit for more than the equivalent of two academic years. A pupil who first enrolls in grade 12 may not enroll in post-secondary courses under this section for secondary credit for more than the equivalent of one academic year. If a pupil in grade 11 or 12 first enrolls in a post-secondary course for secondary credit during the school year, the time of participation shall be reduced proportionately. A pupil who has graduated from high school cannot participate in a program under this section. A pupil who has completed course requirements for graduation but who has not received a diploma may participate in the program under this section.

Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 123.3514, subdivision 5, is amended to read:

Subd. 5. [CREDITS.] A pupil may enroll in a course under this section for either secondary credit or post-secondary credit. At the time a pupil enrolls in a course, the pupil shall designate whether the course is for secondary or post-secondary credit. A pupil taking several courses may designate some for secondary credit and some for post-secondary credit. A pupil must not audit a course under this section.

A school district shall grant academic credit to a pupil enrolled in a course for secondary credit if the pupil successfully completes the course. Nine quarter or six semester college credits equal at least one full year of high school credit. Fewer college credits may be prorated. A school district shall also grant academic credit to a pupil enrolled in a course for post-secondary credit if secondary credit is requested by a pupil. If no comparable course is offered by the district, the district shall, as soon as possible, notify the state board of education, which shall determine the number of credits that shall be granted to a pupil who successfully completes a course. If a comparable course is offered by the district, the school board shall grant a comparable number of credits to the pupil. If there is a dispute between the district and the pupil regarding the number of credits granted for a particular course, the pupil may appeal the school board's decision to the state board of education. The state board's decision regarding the number of credits shall be final.

The secondary credits granted to a pupil shall be counted toward the graduation requirements and subject area requirements of the school district. Evidence of successful completion of each course and secondary credits granted shall be included in the pupil's secondary school record. A pupil must provide the school with a copy of the pupil's grade in each course taken for secondary credit under this section. Upon the request of a pupil, the pupil's secondary school record shall also include evidence of successful completion and credits granted for a course taken for post-secondary credit. In either case, the record shall indicate that the credits were earned at a post-secondary institution.

If a pupil enrolls in a post-secondary institution after leaving secondary school, the post-secondary institution shall award post-secondary credit for any course successfully completed for secondary credit at that institution. Other post-secondary institutions may award, after a pupil leaves secondary school, post-secondary credit for any courses successfully completed under this section. An institution may not charge a pupil for the award of credit.

Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 123.3514, subdivision 7, is amended to read:

Subd. 7. [FEES; TEXTBOOKS; MATERIALS.] A post-secondary institution that receives reimbursement for a pupil under subdivision 6 may not charge that pupil for fees, textbooks, materials, or other necessary costs of the course or program in which the pupil is enrolled if the charge would be prohibited under section 120.74, except for equipment purchased by the pupil that becomes the property of the pupil. An institution may require the pupil to pay for fees, textbooks, and materials for a course taken for post-secondary credit.

Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 123.3514, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7a. [TEXTBOOKS; MATERIALS.] All textbooks and equipment provided to a pupil, and paid for under subdivision 6, are the property of the pupil's school district of residence. Each pupil is required to return all textbooks and equipment to the school district after the course has ended.

Sec. 12. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 123.3514, subdivision 10, is amended to read:

Subd. 10. [LIMIT; STATE OBLIGATION.] The provisions of subdivisions 6, 7, 8, and 9 shall not apply for any post-secondary courses in which a pupil is enrolled in addition to being enrolled full time in that pupil's district or for any post-secondary course in which a pupil is enrolled for post-secondary credit. The pupil is enrolled full time if the pupil attends credit-bearing classes in the high school or high school program for all of the available hours of instruction.

Sec. 13. [126.1995] [SAFETY REQUIREMENT GUIDELINES.]

The department of education, in cooperation with the Minnesota fire marshal's division, shall develop guidelines for school lab safety. The guidelines shall include a list of safety requirements and an explanation of the minimum state and national laws, codes, and standards affecting school lab safety the Minnesota fire marshal considers necessary for schools to implement. The district superintendent must ensure that every school lab within the district complies with the school lab safety requirements. Lack of funding is not an excuse for noncompliance.

Sec. 14. Minnesota Statutes 1988, section 126.22, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. [ELIGIBLE PUPILS.] The following pupils are eligible to participate in the high school graduation incentives program:
